COPIES AMERICAN WOMEN — When Anna Chernovolsky was in a Trieste displaced persons camp five years ago and was fed and clothed by United States and British women, she vowed that someday she would look as beautiful as her benefactors. A few days ago the Yugoslavian-born girl was one of 11 girls selected in Toronto from among 350 aspirants to model fashions at the Canadian National Exhibition there in August. The 18-year-old beauty arrived in Canada four years ago.

Sales Tax Climb in New York City Belies Recession

NEW YORK (AP) — Recession? City Controller Lawrence E. Gerosa is beginning to wonder.

He added up the collections from the city's three per cent sales tax for the past 11 months and found out that they were about $2,300,000 above the same period the year before.

The sales tax is considered one of the most sensitive barometers of business conditions.

Legislators Vote to Kill Excise Levy on Freight, Passengers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate refused again today to cut the federal tax on new automobiles and parts — as it has on transportation of freight and passengers.

It voted down, 44 to 32, an amendment by Sen. Charles Potter (R-Mich.), who insisted that anti-recession relief was as "essential" to the auto industry as the Senate felt it to be for railroads, airlines and other transportation media.

The vote on Potter's proposal came as the Senate, with its leaders already absent for a long weekend, drove to complete action on the pending tax extension bill. Passage was expected this afternoon.

Potter's amendment' would have cut the 10 per cent tax on new passenger cars to 5 per cent, retroactive to last March 1. It would have trimmed the 8 per cent tax on parts to five per cent.

Speaking to an almost empty Senate, Potter said "if we are to have full employment, if we are to have prosperity, this industry has got to pick itself off the floor."

He said if repeal of the transportation taxes voted last night "is essential to the economy, no one can say this high tax of 10 per cent on automobiles can be justified."

FIGHTS PROPOSAL

Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn), opposed Potter's proposal, saying "what we need in this industry is a bargain sale—very sharp cuts in prices on cars now on the lots to clean the market."

Bush said the cuts "should not be 5 per cent, but more likely 25 per cent or 35 per cent to do this job."

The transportation tax repeal, which faces rough going in a House-Senate conference, affects the present levy on transportation

Goldfine's Contacts Fall Under House Suspicion

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican member of a House investigating subcommittee called today for an inquiry into all of Bernard Goldfine's contacts with federal officials during the last 10 years.

Rep. John B. Bennett (Mich) said:

"I'm of the opinion that Sherman Adams is not the only official of the federal government who has enjoyed Goldfine's hospitality."

Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, has testified he accepted gifts and favors from Goldfine, a wealthy Boston industrialist, on the basis of a long friendship.

He said he also got in touch with two federal agencies on matters relating to Goldfine, but denied he sought special treatment for the Bostonian.

Bennett spoke in an interview as the Pentagon disclosed that more than 2¼ million dollars worth of textile contracts have been awarded to Goldfine's companies since the Eisenhower administration took over in January 1953. The Pentagon supplied the figures on request, with no implication of influence or wrongdoing.

In a separate development, the Securities and Exchange Commission unanimously denied that it dropped a case against one of Goldfine's firms after an inquiry from the White House prompted by Adams.

"On the contrary," the five-man commission said, the case was "successfully prosecuted."

Goldfine's East Boston Co. was fined $3,000 and is now filing on schedule reports required by the SEC.

The SEC reported Chairman Edward N. Gadsby and his aides have been asked to testify next Tuesday as the subcommittee resumes its investigation into how well independent regulatory agencies are following the law.

Political reprecussions continued over Adams' actions and Eisenhower's decision to retain his top aide despite what Adams called his innocent but imprudent moves in contacting the SEC and the Federal Trade Commission about matters involving Goldfine.

Goldfine registered last month under an assumed name at a swank Washington hotel three blocks from the White House, one news service learned today.

The House influence-investigat- subcommittee, which disclosed presidential assistant Sherman Adams' alleged influence-for-favors relationship with Goldfine, has subpenaed the Sheraton-Carlton's records in line with its study of other hotel records.

Take About Nine Hours to Work Out Agreement After Stalling Months

From Our News Wires

LANSING — Michigan's lawmakers headed home late last night after assuring the State Police that they would not have to lay off any state troopers.

It took the lawmakers only about nine hours of special session yesterday and last night to work out an agreement which had defied the lawmakers through long months of their regular session. The agreement cost Michigan taxpayers an estimated $6,000, the price of bringing the lawmakers back into special session for just one day.

In return, the lawmakers cut the amount appropriated to State Police by $116,000, raised the amount of grants to private veterans' organizations $17,000 and appropriated $24,375 for the State Safety Commission.

The lawmakers were assured by State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs that he would not have to lay off any State Police troopers before they passed the bill giving the State Police $11,700,000 to operate on during the next fiscal year.

The vote was 89-13 in the House and 31-1 in the senate.

County Parties Set Conventions

Republicans to Convene in City Aug. 13; Dems to Meet Next Day

The 1958 Republican County Convention will be held in Pontiac Aug. 13 with the County Democratic Convention following the next day.

Republican County Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr., and Carlos G. Richardson, Democratic County chairman, announced the dates and locations of the conventions today. Both will be held at 8 p.m. in the supervisors' room in the County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St.

Delegates to both conventions are elected at the Aug. 5 primary to represent all voting precincts in the county. There are 295 precincts.

A total of 172 Democrats and 166 Republicans filed nominating petitions to get on the August primary ballot as possible delegates.

A major point of business at both county conclaves will be the election by the county delegates of delegates to the state conventions.

The Republicans will elect 141 to attend the Aug. 30 convention in Grand Rapids, while the Democrats will choose 114 for their Aug. 23 convention in the same city.

This apportionment is based on one GOP delegate for each 950 votes cast for the party candidate for secretary of state two years ago. The Democrats allow one delegate for each 1,000 votes cast for their candidate for the same office.

City Hospital to Shut Annex as Deficits Loom; Study Rates

Financial troubles caused the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees last night to eye an increase in room rates, and order an early end to use of the annex at Oakland County Contagious Hospital.

At the same time, it was announced that construction crews would return to the main hospital Monday to complete the expansion program there.

Finance committee members were asked to bring in a recommendation next month "for room-rate adjustments to bring income into line with expenses."

However, trustees indicated they hoped to balance the hospital's books without resorting to rate increases.

Harold B. Euler, trustee temporarily in charge of coordinating the hospital's administration, reported that the hospital's operating budget was $57,000 in the red at the end of last month.

Although a deficit this year is not unexpected, a sudden dip in occupancy of hospital beds has helped produce a sharp drop in revenues, Euler said.

The main hospital was 86 per cent occupied as of June 18, Euler reported, while the annex was operating at only 56 per cent of capacity. Less than three weeks ago, the main hospital was 94 per cent occupied and the annex 73 per cent, Euler said.

The drop was described as seasonal, but unexpectedly large.

The board voted to close 25 beds at the annex at once for immediate savings of roughly $3,500 to $5,000 a month. Euler was ordered to bring all operations at the annex to an end by Sept. 1 or earlier.

In operation since early 1957, the 87-bed annex was leased from the county until the end of this year to provide bed space as a public service while the expansion program at the main building cut

Hospital Board Remains on Job

Trustees Due to Leave June 30 Will Complete Sullenberger Hearing

Three members of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees who are due to leave the board have agreed to stay on until the end of the Dr. Sullenberger hearings, scheduled last night to begin Monday.

The trustees are Chairman Willis M. Brewer, former chairman, William P. Babcock and Charles E. Yeager. Brewer's and Babcock's terms expire June 30, while Yeager has moved from the city.

City Attorney William A. Ewart advised that the three could act under an ordinance provision that says trustees "shall hold office until their successors are appointed."

The City Commission has already unofficially agreed to hold off making new appointments until the hearing is over.

As expected, the board scheduled the hearing to begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the hospital and continue there Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays until completed.

It was agreed last night that each session would last no more than three hours and that all sessions would be open to the public.

The hearing is to determine whether Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger, temporarily suspended by the board last Nov. 13, is to be reinstated or permanently dropped from the medical staff.

The staff, which urged his suspension last fall, has charged the Pontiac surgeon with actions "detrimental to the efficient operation of the hospital."

Dr. Sullenberger requested the hearing after his suit for reinstatement and $250,000 damages was tossed out of Circuit Court on grounds he had not first appealed the suspension to the board.

NEW YORK (AP) — The second trial of Teamster President James R. Hoffa and two others on wiretap conspiracy charges moved into its final stages yesterday as defense attorneys gave summations.

Told to Postpone Major Property Improvements

200 Residents at Hearing on Urban Renewal Plan

More than 200 residents and merchants filled the City Commission's chambers last night to hear outlines of plans for Pontiac's first urban renewal project, expected to cost $4,030,000.

During the two-hour meeting, the people to be affected by the renewal plan were urged to postpone major improvements on their property, homes and businesses for at last eight months.

By then, according to Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, the preliminary surveys of the project should be completed to determine if specific buildings will remain, be moved or torn down.

The proposed renewal project is bounded by Pike street on the north excluding the city hall property, the Grand Trunk railroad on the west, Osmun street on the south and Paddock, Perkins and Parkhurst streets on the east. The boundary line will be the center of these streets.

In outlining plans for the 155-acre project, Stierer and Mayor William W. Donaldson both stressed that it is not a slum clearance program but one of rehabilitation and conservation.

This particular area was chosen as Pontiac's first renewal project because of the 1950 U.S. Bureau of Census figures which revealed 29 per cent of the 451 residential structures in the area as substandard. Approximately 851 families live in this area.

Portions of the area will be purchased and cleared, while others will be conserved and rehabilitated, under the plan.

Purpose of the project is sevenfold: Improve and protect the residential neighborhood, improve the business area, provide more parking, remove conditions leading to further deterioration, provide nec-

Summer Officially Due Saturday at 4:57 P. M.

Summer officially arrives at 4:57 p. m. Saturday, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

At that time, the sun will reach the Summer Solstice, or its northernmost point, and we will have our longest day of the year. However, the astronomer predicted, we probably will not have our hottest weather now.

"At first thought, we might expect that the height of the summer season should coincide with the date of the Summer Solstice, since the number of sunlight hours is the greatest and the intensity of the sunlight received is at maximum.

"The peak of the season, however," she says, "is more likely to come from four to six weeks later, toward the end of July.

"So long as more heat is received by the earth during the daytime than is lost during the night, the temperature will continue to rise, and this is what happens for a few weeks after the Solstice.

"This phenomenon is referred to as the 'lag of seasons.' As soon as the rate of heating falls below the rate of cooling, the temperature begins to drop," she added.

Cooler for Weekend; Low Tonight of 50

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts a fair and cool weekend, with a low tonight of 50.

Tomorrow will be fair and cool, the high reaching 64 to 68.

For the next five days temperatures will average near eight degrees below normal. Normal temperatures for this time of year range between 60 and 80.

Precipitation will total about half an inch in showers Monday or Tuesday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 60 degrees. The reading was 75 at 2 p.m.

The score moved him into a time with Billy Casper for 2nd with 143. Tommy Bolt, the 1st round leader with a 69, slipped to a 73 today but still held his advantage with a 36-hole total of 142. Casper also had a 73.

World's Scientists Solving Secrets of Our Planet

WASHINGTON (AP) — For 11 months more than 10,000 scientists in 66 nations have been giving the earth a sort of physical examination.

Many of their findings were included in testimony and reports by the National Science Foundation to a House Appropriations subcommittee, which made public its transcript today.

They have found:

At the rate man is feeding carbon dioxide to the atmosphere, there is a possibility the world may become a much warmer, gigantic greenhouse.

Mountains float on the earth's molten interior like icebergs.

The space through which this planet twirls is not a simple void, but is filled with thin gases representing the outer reaches of the sun's atmosphere.

If 10 per cent of the volume of ice in the world melted, large sections of the United States would be under water. Once the scientists estimated the globe's ice content at 3,240,000 cubic miles. With closer inspection of the antarctic they now figure the old estimate was 40 per cent short.

The sea is an apparently rich source of minerals and food. One area contained $500,000 worth of minerals per square mile.

There are vast magnetic fields in space about which we know little.

In tinkering with thermonuclear fission hydrogen bombs man is duplicating the sun's processes in the release of energy and this, coupled with a greater understanding of the pull of magnetic forces, may develop into new methods of propulsion through space.

The gigantic scientific effort is part of the worldwide program of earth study known as the International Geophysical Year, an 18-month period of cooperation and exchange of information between the scientists of the 66 participating nations.

Other bits and pieces of information:

It now seems that the antarctic is not a solid mass covered with snow and ice, but a region of frozen lakes and fiords.

A small open water lake containing plant life has been discovered well inside the ice mass.

A new mountain range, 1,000 miles long and 200 miles wide has been found beneath the waters of the southeast Pacific.

There is a surface current flowing from Panama toward Asia. Below this there is a powerful current flowing in the opposite direction. The scientists would like to know why.

They have found ancient lava flows beneath the seas which still are giving off heat and thus warming the seas around them.

The coldest spot yet found on earth is not the geographical South Pole but is about 500 miles toward Australia from the pole. Here Russian scientists recorded a temperature of minus 109 degrees fahrenheit.

Locals Agree— Keep Contracts

78 Tool and Die Shops Remove Current Threat to '59 Car Production

DETROIT (UPI) — Two United Auto Workers locals representing 7,500 employes at 78 Detroit-area tool and die shops agreed to extend expiring contracts today, and thereby removed an immediate threat to 1959 car production.

UAW Locals 155 and 157 agreed to extend contracts with the Automotive Tool and Die Manufacturers Assn. as the three-year contracts were about to expire tonight.

A stoppage at the tool and die shops could have blocked windup work on 1959 model tooling and delayed the production of new cars next fall. However, some of the shops have completed their work on tools and fixtures for the auto companies, and are already working on 1960 model tooling.

The extension agreement left the tool and die shops still on shaky ground because either side can cancel the extension on 10 days notice.

Association managing director Chester A. Cahn said there was no agreement in sight so it was mutually agreed an extension was the best course.

The extension followed the UAW's pattern of bargaining so far: Stay on the job at the big three firms — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler — without contracts and keep bargaining for union goals until the companies need production and a strike threat means something. Meanwhile, arrange contract extensions with all smaller firms.

The UAW previously had negotiated a contract extension with American Motors Corp. The UAW will defer settlement with most smaller firms until the pattern is set with the big three.

Negotiations were recessed yesterday by Ford and the UAW until Monday. GM and Chrysler negotiators met with the union today.

All big three plants scheduled to work yesterday operated without trouble. The previous day GM had to shut down its Kansas City Fisher Body and Chevrolet assembly plants for two hours and Chrysler Corp. had a 5½ hour work stoppage at Los Angeles.

26 Passengers Safe in Airliner Mishap

JACKSON (AP)—An airliner carrying 26 passengers rolled past the end of the runway and skidded to a halt in a muddy ditch at Jackson Airport last night.

No injuries were reported.

State police said the pilot of the North Central Airlines DC3 told them his brakes failed as he came in for a landing. The plane carried a crew of three.

North Central said the flight originated in Detroit and had stops scheduled at Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, South Bend, Ind., and Chicago.

State Police at the Jackson Post said nine of the passengers were en route to Battle Creek and one to Kalamazoo. He said they were taken to their destinations by an airline limousine.

Elfrida in Need of Money, Asks for Bank Loan

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn woman applied for a bank loan yesterday to finance a summer vacation.

She had good looks and brains—neither of which is very good collateral.

She had no job. And she had no husband to cosign her note.

But she had the best security in the world, the loan man said.

She was TV quiz queen Elfrida von Nardroff, with winnings of $253,500 so far and a chance for more.

She can't get her hands on a penny of the winnings as long as she remains on the NBC show "Twenty-One."

So the bank is rushing through the loan for her.

Miss von Nardroff, 32, is the all-time top money winner on TV. She quit her job as a personnel manager in May to study for the weekly quiz sessions.

She'll be back on the show next Monday night. She would lose some of the money if she is defeated. And at this point federal and state income taxes would take about $200,000.

were split today on the issue of whether Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams will be a liability in state elections next fall because of his alleged "imprudence."

Sen. Charles E. Potter called Adams "a political handicap," and added that he should resign and predicted he probably will not remain much longer as the President's assistant.

But GOP State Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer declared the Adams case, involving acceptance of gifts from Boston textile tycoon Bernard Goldfine, won't cut much ice with voters next fall.

"I don't think that Adams has helped the party," said Lindemer, "but the issue in Michigan is jobs."

Lindemer was in Washington along with other state chairmen to attend a political campaign school.

Two other Michigan Republicans joined with Potter in calling for Adams to resign. They were Rep. John B. Bennett, and Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain. Chamberlain said "in 1952, we Republicans campaigned against deep freezers and mink coats. To condone or even accept the actions of Mr. Adams, no matter how well intentioned, would have the effect of establishing a double set of standards."

Furthering Effort to Top U.S. Agricultural Output

Soviets Realign Farm Pricing System

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Communist party today announced another step in Premier Khrushchev's plans to beat U.S. agricultural production by giving Russian farmers more incentive to grow more.

The party's Central Committee announced collective farms no longer will be required to deliver a large part of their output to the government at a fixed low price.

Instead, a new pricing system will be established for the entire output of collective farms. It aims to introduce an element of competition for low-cost, efficient production.

A report on the Central Committee meeting of about 250 members on Tuesday and Wednesday also said two men were promoted to alternate membership in the committee's ruling Presidium, the key unit of power in Russia. It has had 15 full members and 9 alternates.

The two are N.V. Podgorny, first secretary of the Ukrainian Communist party, and Premier D. S. Poliansky of the Russian Federation, largest republic in the Soviet Union.

(There was no mention that the Central Committee meeting produced a shakeup in the Kremlin leadership, as Western observers had speculated might be taking place. Both the changes in the agricultural system and the promotion of Podgorny and Poliansky indicated Khrushchev still was in control.)

The committee decisions were based on a farm policy speech to it by Khrushchev. Publication of the speech — possibly tomorrow— may clarify some points left vague in the published plan.

The announcement said the new plan will go into effect this year but did not specify when.

The committee made clear, however, that it is not relaxing controls over production. It said under the new pricing system "all quotas to the state must be maintained." Presumably the surplus still will be available for the open market.

It also decreed an end of the payment-in-kind system. Collectives had paid with their products for such services as machine plowing. Past payment-in-kind debts were written off and indebtedness in compulsory deliveries also was abolished.

Khrushchev's proclaimed goal in changing the agricultural system established under Stalin is to overtake the United States in farm production. The committee report boasted that "in recent years the Soviet Union has approached the volume of U.S. agriculture output in a number of products. In creation items (it) has even surpassed the level attained in the U.S.A."

essary community facilities, provide land and facilities for an expanded civic center and improve street and traffic conditions.

LONG PLANNING PERIOD

Jacob Driker, representative of Geer Associates, the city's planning consultation firm, explained that it will be 18 months to two years before the plans for the project will be completed, and the program can get under way.

"A lot of care must be put in the planning stage to be sure individual property rights of residents are not violated and a fair price is paid to them," he told residents.

He said that this type of renewal project is more difficult than a slum clearance program where the entire area is cleared.

At least two surveys will be made in this area according to Robert Emerson, another of the firm's representatives.

The first will be an exterior survey of all buildings to check roofs, foundations, porches, steps, and railings. The environment of the neighborhood, including yard space location of schools and playgrounds traffic problems and land use as well as family data will also be collected.

Buildings which need special attention will be given an interior survey.

Stierer said that the progress and success of the project would depend on the residents' cooperation in the area. He added that any information obtained during the survey would be "confidential." Such data is needed for plans to present to the federal government.

The city has already received $90,112 grant to be used for planning the project from the federal government.

It is estimated that property sales by the city for residential and commercial purposes would bring in approximately $1,472,000 of the four million dollar total cost of the project. The federal government will pay two-thirds this figure and Pontiac's cost will be about $853,000.

The city will not begin acquiring property in the project area for at least 18 months to two years. The city will pay the fair market value for property which must be acquired.

Loans will be available for rehabilitating property. A maximum loan of $3,500 can be obtained for work inside the area through local banks with federal backing. Such loans will not be available until after the final plan is approved by the fedeal government.

For residents who will have to relocate because their dwellings are slated for acquisition or demolition, a relocation allowance of up to $100 for moving expenses will be paid. Up to $2,500 will be provided for approved relocation expenses and losses for businessmen.

Federal housing legislation also provides aid for home owners who wish to purchase a home elsewhere in the city or in the project area if their present home is acquired.

State Police Assured No Layoffs in '58

cluded a provision in the bill which specifically stated it was not the intention of the legislature to force Childs to lay off any troopers, giving him implied permission to exceed his budget if necessary to maintain the enlisted force at its present strength.

There was a definite understanding in the bill, however, that Childs would lay off 34 part-time janitors in an attempt to make ends meet.

At the insistence of Rep. Wilfrid G. Bassett (R-Jackson), the bill carried a legislative direction against any trooper layoffs, but left the way open for dismissal of the janitors.

It provided no funds for filling 10 to 15 other vacancies expected to result from retirements. Police rolls now carry 15 vacant trooper positions, which will remain unfilled.

Another provision of the bill allotted $24,375 to keep the State Safety Commission in business another year. The Senate had tried to cut off its funds.

Also in the omnibus safety and defense bill, which totaled $21,508,481, were appropriations of nearly 10 million dollars for civil defense, military and Naval and veterans purposes.

Before they gave in, minority Democrats, with some Republican help in the House, failed in attempts first to add $116,500 to the police grant, and then $75,000.

Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County) supported the compromise figure, saying there no longer was any question of trooper layoffs and that savings were possible in other police spending areas.

The settlement ended an acrimonious dispute that began more than two months ago and saw time run out in the regular session last Saturday amid scenes of bitter defiance.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), who long sparked the drive for more generous police treatment took the position yesterday that there would be no trooper layoffs and that he had won the fight.

After adjournment, Speaker George M. Van Peursem who last week was urged to punish Phillips by taking him off the Ways and Means Committee shook hands, and said:

"Congratulations, Harry. It took courage to change your position."

The Senate last night also voted to end the 3 per cent tax on freight.

The amendment erasing the freight levy was adopted 59-25, with 33 Democrats and 26 Republicans joining forces to write it into the bill. Voting against it were 10 Democrats and 15 Republicans.

The vote approving repeal of the 10 per cent levy on passenger fares was 50-35.

Twenty-seven Democrats and 23 Republicans voted for repeal, while 17 Democrats and 18 Republicans voted against it.

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson has estimated that repeal of the freight tax would cut revenues 487 million dollars and the passenger fare levy 230 million, a total of 717 million annually.

The amendment repealing the 3 per cent freight levy also wipes out a tax of four cents a ton on coal.

The transportation taxes apply to rail, highway, water and air shipment and travel.

The amendments written into the bill by the Senate will force the measure to go back to the House before final action can be taken.

The Senate Finance Committee had urged acceptance of the House bill without change, to prevent a drop of $2,600,000,000 in tax revenues.

Fisher Local to Back Strike, if Called

Members of Fisher Local 596, UAW, have indicated overwhelmingly that they are willing to participate in an industry-wide strike, if one is called by the UAW international in the course of the present contract negotiations.

Gerald W. Kehoe, local president, said today that a vote taken at the request of the international, was about 92 per cent in favor of a strike. He said that 1,468 members of the 1,600-member local participated in the vote.

A date for a similar vote at Pontiac Local 653, UAW, is to be set by its executive board early next week, said Charles A. Beach, president.

Ike Names GM's Hunt for Postal Advisory Job

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Eisenhower today nominated Ormond E. Hunt, a director of General Motors, to the Post Office Department's advisory board.

Hunt, 74, of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., was executive vice president of GM from 1942 to 1949. He replaces the late John Coleman.

City Hospital to Close Annex; Study Rates

down on the number of beds available there.

The annex operation has always been considered as a financial burden, since it involved costly duplication of jobs and services.

"I think we can close down the annex now with the feeling that we have performed our public service at the critical time," said Trustee William P. Babcock, upon hearing that the construction program at the main hospital is to get under way again.

Euler reported that Darin & Armstrong Co., general contractors on the $4,500,000 expansion program, has agreed to return its workers to the job Monday, 45 days after construction was suspended May 9.

He said that delivery of cubical curtains for the new addition is expected to begin July 3, and that transfer of patients from the old building to the new addition is expected to begin shortly afterwards and be completed by Sept. 1.

The hospital has said that the patient transfer couldn't take place until the curtains were installed and Darin & Armstrong has said it couldn't begin remodeling of the old building until all patients were moved out.

However, Euler said, rescheduling of operations will allow some construction work in the basement and main floor of the old building before all the patients are removed from its upper floors.

He also reported that space for an additional 11 beds in the addition has been found, bringing the total bed capacity of the new facility up to 234 beds.

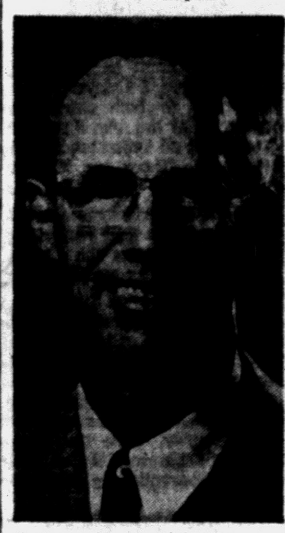

Present bed rates at the hospital are $18 a day in the wards and $20 in semi-private rooms, the same scale as in other area hospitals.

Trustees figured privately that an increase of about $2 a day might be recommended.

Euler pointed out that operating costs at Pontiac General, as at other hospitals, have increased about 40 per cent in the past five years.

The present average daily operating cost per patient is about $41.45, he said, while at the end of last year it was $40.23.

HENRY S. BOOTH

Officers Are Named by Citizens League

Elected to serve another one-year term as president of the Oakland Citizens League is Henry S. Booth, Bloomfield Hills resident and executive director of the Cranbrook Foundation.

Elected along with Booth for the 1958-59 term are vice presidents Gerald McNeive of Waterford and Larry Shaffner of Rochester; treasurer, Mrs. E. V. Clarke of Birmingham; and secretary, Mrs. Donald Beck, of Farmington Township.

The league was created in 1937 as a non-profit, non-partisan organization to promote better understanding of problems of citizenship and government.

Newly-elected members to the league's board of directors are Stephen Navarre, Lake Orion; Abe Brickner, Oak Park; and Agnes Larson, Bloomfield Hills. Re-elected to the board were Kenneth Youel, Bloomfield Hills; Fred Beckman, Milford; and Frank Chapman, Rochester.

The Day in Birmingham

School Head Laments Cutting Tax Allocations

BIRMINGHAM — A second consecutive reduction in tax millage allocations by the Oakland County Tax Allocation Board presents a serious problem for the coming school year, according to Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, Birmingham schools superintendent.

Dr. Ireland said the school term just ended had had a county board reduction of from 9.32 to 8.81 mills. For the next school year the millage has been set at 7.98 mills.

Since superintendents are required to submit tentative budgets by April 21 and have no knowledge of such drastic cuts, districts are left in serious condition, he said.

The Birmingham budget was submitted on the basis of the same salary schedules as the past year, Dr. Ireland stated. Salary contracts were issued by the board in good faith, and represented 83 per cent of the total budget, he said.

The $300,301.61 cut by the county board for the coming year may have "disastrous effects on the quality of education afforded by the Birmingham Public School system," Ireland said.

Some of the cuts which may be made, he said, include staff reduction of 12 teachers with the resulting increases in class size to save $80,000; lowering of conference attendance, $2,000; curtailment of evening activities at schools and cutting of time for custodians by $15,000; purchase of less teaching supplies, $5,000; reduction of substitute teachers, $10,000, and cutting operating supplies for maintenance, $2,000. The total cut would be $94,000.

He said governmental requests for school participation in such items as street care, playground maintenance, use of schools by community groups and the school's part in the recreation program will be sharply cut or denied altogether.

The curtailment comes at a time when Birmingham schools have been making additional efforts to provide specific improvement in such fields as mathematics, physics, chemistry and biology, Dr. Ireland said.

In Bloomfield Hills, Superintendent Eugene Johnson is faced with the problem of cutting $163,750 if he is to maintain his district's reputation of "staying in the black." The current budget there was upped through the addition of 32 teachers to staff new schools.

A meeting has been called for Wednesday to make a further study of the budget and find how and where to begin the paring down process.

The summer swimming program sponsored by the Birmingham Recreation Board will open Monday.

Family swimming parties will be held each week, Monday through Friday from 3:25 p.m. to 4:25 p.m., at Birmingham High School, Derby Junior High School and Barnum Elementary School pools.

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, from 7 to 10 o'clock, swimming will be at Derby Pool and on Wednesday and Saturday evenings at the high school pool during the same hours.

Children participating must be accompanied by a parent who also will be using the pool.

Swimming instruction will be given Monday through Friday at all three pools.

There will be separate classes for boys and girls, divided into two groups according to ability.

Beginning June 27 and continuing for eight weeks, a special teenage swimming group will meet Fridays from 7 to 10 p.m. at the high school pool.

The swimming program is one of few city recreation activities for which there is a charge.

Birmingham Exchange Club member Walter C. Morgan has been named manager of the model airplane meet being sponsored Sunday by Michigan exchange clubs.

The event will take place from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Ford Test Track in Dearborn.

More than 300 model plane fliers are expected to participate, Morgan said. There will be 25 events with trophies for the top three in each.

The 25th annual meeting and party of Cranbrook School alumni will be held tomorrow afternoon. John Keydel, chairman, said activities will center around Cranbrook House. The school's headmaster, Harry Hoey, will host a dinner party at his home in the evening.

2 Persons Hurt, Home Demolished

Tornadoes Rip Panhandle

By United Press International

Two confirmed tornadoes ripped into the Texas Panhandle early today injuring two persons and inflicting heavy property damage. There also were reports of three other tornadoes in the area.

The most severe of the twisters, a 150-yard wide funnel, struck just north of Borger, injuring two persons, demolishing a trailer home and damaging three farm buildings.

A second confirmed twister was recorded by Amarillo highway policemen, who said it struck over farm country between Lafors and McLean. Three additional tornadoes were sighted near Stratford, Spearman and Kerrick.

Meanwhile, isolated thundershowers fell in Oregon, Arizona and New Mexico, but, in general, rain was confined in the pre-dawn hours to a few widely separated areas east of the Continental Divide.

One of these areas stretched from eastern Ohio and West Virginia eastward over much of Pennsylvania and parts of Virginia. It did not, however, quite reach the Atlantic Seaboard.

Scattered showers also were forecast for southern Indiana, where townspeople at Vincennes reinforced levees against the dangerously rising Wabash River.

Midwestern Seminary Students to Visit Missions

Leaving this week for a trip through Mexico, Central and South America to Quito, Ecuador were Roger Carr and John Whaley, students at Midwestern Baptist Seminary.

As ministerial students interested in serving as missionaries in South America, they planned the trip to observe missionary life and conditions on the mission field.

Their route will take them through Mexico, Guatemala, San Salvadore, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Columbia to Ecuador.

During the 11 week trip they will camp out and do their own cooking.

In Quito they will visit for two weeks with the Rev. Frank Drown whom they met when he spoke at their home church, Sunny Vale Chapel. The Rev. Mr. Drown is stationed 50 miles from the Auca Indian territory.

After his graduation from Waterford High School in 1955, Roger attended Bob Jones University for a year before enrolling at Midwestern Seminary. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Carr of 5170 Elizabeth Lake Rd.

John Whaley was graduated from Bob Jones Academy in 1955 after which he attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute for a year before transfering to Midwestern Seminary. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whaley of 5905 Winslow Dr. are John's parents.

The thermometers at Azizia, Libya, registered 136.4 degrees Sept. 13, 1922.

Ex-Preacher Denies Mistreating Father

STAYTON, Ore. (AP) — Daniel Cole, free on bail today, said he didn't think he had been mistreating his father.

"Naturally I feel embarrassed," said the 60-year-old one - time preacher on being released late yesterday from jail. He was arrested Wednesday night and accused of penning up his 88-year-old father, Eugene, inside an electric fence.

"It was a damn hot wire," said Police Chief Everett Norfleet of the charged wire that kept the elderly man within a 100 by 100-foot enclosure. A battered old trailer house and an outdoor privy were within the enclosure which Cole said he put up to keep his father from wandering away.

The son posted $2,500 bail. He will be arraigned Monday on a charge of assault and battery.

Police said when they arrested the younger man he had been kicking his father, then reviving him by pouring water on him.

The father was taken to a hospital where he was reported to be in fairly good condition after food and rest.

The son was a Seabee in World War II and, Mayor Marcel Van Driesche said, was a chaplain in that organization. He preached at the Methodist church here a few times some 20 years ago and was police chief for a brief time, the mayor added. More recently he has been a movie projectionist.

Actress Taking Driver's Seat in Racer's Heart

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A pretty actress has displaced auto racing in young Lance Preventlow's affections.

Lance, 22-year-old son of heiress Barbara Hutton, will be dating Jill St. John, 17, next Sunday instead of driving in a road race.

He competes in virtually all Southern California sports car races and left town last Sunday for a race. When he returned, he found that Miss St. John had a date with someone else.

Red-haired Jill says she's serious only about her acting career. She's to be in court next month to seek a divorce from Neil Dubin, a business man whom she married eight months ago.

TV's Elfrida Says Every Extra Bit Counts

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—The doctor of Elfrida von Nardroff, wispy haired wizard lady of TV, is reportedly urging his patient to take her quarter-million dollars and go to Long Island for a restful summer.

It's not that he's worried about Elfrida. She's been answering "Twenty-One's" questions for so long (19 weeks now) that she's fallen into an easy groove. Her metabolism's as unshakable as her memory.

But, according to the lady herself, her doc wants her to quit with the weekly suspense bit.

"He says my health is fine," she grins. "But he can't take it much longer."

There is not much hope that Elf will bow to these urgings, however, as long as her own endurance is intact; and the last time we saw her—roughly $23,000 ago—she appeared capable of a 4-H club outing. Or a 4-martini inning. Whichever was required.

At the thoughtful age of 32, Brooklyn's gift to the Treasury Department has a solid respect for money . . . having never had an overabundant allowance as a child.

"During the depression we did all right, relatively speaking," she told us. "A college professor's pay doesn't change much, so in the early 30s we were rich, compared to most people. Dad saw we had a couple of maids. We had fun."

But Elf was only a young genius in those days. By the time she reached high school age, she had less cash than her chums did, and "felt the pinch."

"Oh, I got the really essential things in life—you know, jackets, and the right kind of saddle shoes to get just the right degree of dirty—but beyond that, the money wasn't there."

Elfrida laughs when she remembers. She certainly didn't suffer. But at the same time she learned the value of cash that isn't there, and now that she's got her first crack at the big money, (and, she believes, her last) she's not about to quit.

"A lot of people," she muses, "have the impression that every time I go on television, now that I'm in the 90 per cent tax bracket, I either don't make any more money, or I actually lose. That's crazy. I don't make as much money as if I were in a lower bracket, but I make SOME. And every few hundred helps."

She feels she needs the money, because she will be in Columbia for the next three years, getting her master's degree and Ph.D. in experimental psychology. After graduation, it is not a field in which she expects to find large financial returns.

Meanwhile, she has rented a summer place on Long Island, where she told us she planned to spend the summer "resting during the week and having mad fun on weekends."

So far it's been a luxury investment, because her technique for keeping abreast of the news is to spend all day Sunday reading weekly roundups of current events. ("I don't want my mind to be confused with rumors and commentary during the week; I wait till the rumors are accomplished fact.")

Temporarily, at least, it's obvious that to Elfrida von Nardroff, mad money is more important than mad fun.

Bob Considine Says:

Princess Grace Is Very Happy in Monaco

MONACO — One of our kids, making his first flight across the Atlantic, was seen soberly writing in a new diary he had bought for the occasion.

He accidentally left the ledger open on my dresser today, and I was too weak to resist the temptation of reading the page that was visible.

Turned out to be his account of the flight. He scribbled:

"I got so scared flying here that I promise that if we don't crash I won't go to see the Folies Bergere when we visit Paris, France."

A noble resolution.

The same kid was determined, on the night he and his brother went with us to see Frank Sinatra's premier of "Kings Go Forth," to go forth into Monte Carlo and shop for a couple of hours — alone.

It didn't seem like a very good idea, but he explained loudly that it was time we showed more confidence in him, etc.

Just before he took off, clutching a thousand francs ($2.50) in his hot paw (his hot paw had given it to him, incidentally) he asked:

"Say, this Grace lady doesn't have to have secret service men guarding her, like the President, does she?"

"Sure, she does," I said. "You can never tell when some crackpot might jump out of a crowd."

He searched his soul for a trying minute, then said, "If anybody would do that to a queen, what would they do to me? The shopping trip's off."

Word spread quickly through the principality. Shutters went up on the windows of Cartier's. The big spender had curled up for the night.

Princess Grace, lovelier looking than ever, iced a famed Hollywood news hen the other night at the Sinatra opening and the lady was fit to be tied.

Recalled how grateful her serene highness used to be for a plug, back in the days when she was Miss Kelly.

Same thing has happened to successive waves of visiting U.S. reporters who somehow assume Grace and the Prince are just dying to spend a few hours being interviewed.

Grace needs another interview about as much as she needs a hole in her 14th Century palace. She's a happy, devoted mother who had her fill of tinsel and puff and wants to live her new life — not rehash the old one.

Her work with the United Nations Relief Fund, and other charities, takes a good part of the day. She spends more time with the children than many mothers can or will.

Her husband is a home body, so she has made a home for him. She doesn't want people marching through it.

Some of her old-time friends say that the crown has gone to her head. We wouldn't know.

She looked like the life of the party at her table after the Sinatra screening, laughing and joking with the star on one side and producer Frank Ross on the other, and the people across the champagne-filled table.

Grace wears glasses for such occasions, now, but they don't detract from her clear golden beauty one bit.

The girl is living out a role much more enchanting than anything Hollywood ever offered her. The films have seen the last of her. She's got a contract now that has no 13-week clauses.

She and she dashing prince give every evidence of playing out the last line of their Hans Christian Zanuck fairy tale — by living happily ever after.

Father Tucker, the prince's spiritual adviser and chaplain, was called to Rome for the duration of the stay in Monaco of a covey of reporters flown over for "Kings Go Forth."

The reason for his departure, a devout Monegasque named Buchwald assures me, is that the church has never quite forgiven him for putting his Ecclesiastical foot in his mouth, during the period of the prince's previous romances, his courting of Grace, and his marriage.

One sermon Friar Tucker delivered on the Sunday before the wedding half-emptied St. Charles' church — as churchgoing reporters sped out to phone the news that the prince's marriage to the beautiful American girl represented "a great sacrifice."

So, it seems, the less the good blunt padre sees of the press the better.

Two Boys, 11 and 8, Take Car, but Not Very Far

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The car stood in the middle of the street when police arrived.

In the front seat were two boys, aged 11 and 8, and a dog.

The boys told Sgt. Logan Crosskey of the juvenile division they had rolled the automobile from a nearby garage and put 17 cents worth of gasoline in it.

They said they wanted to start the car to see the windshield wipers work.

Chicks Newest Weapon for U. S. in Cold War

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Baby chicks have become the newest weapon in the cold war.

Hatching out every 30 minutes, right on schedule, the chicks roll over, stretch—and delight visitors to the U.S. pavilion at the International Trade Fair in Poznan, Poland.

Let the Russians have their outer spacery. For real charm, a one-minute-old baby chick is hard to beat.

It's not easy to explain the chicks' cold war role in this most complicated but interesting of all worlds. But Walter S. Shafer is willing to try.

Shafer, a robust, retired general sales manager and vice president of Armour & Co., has hired on as Uncle Sam's top trade fair salesman.

"I just got back from Poznan," Shafer said today, "and it was a wonderful experience. We've tried to show how American industry works.

"Take the poultry display. These chicks were scheduled to hatch out so we would have a new bunch every 30 minutes. Then we took them step by step —not the same chicks, of course —as they grew up for market. Finally, there are the broilers on the rotisserie.

"You know, I've been in the food business all my life, and this is the first time I ever saw chicks hatching."

So much has been written about the World's Fair in Brussels, and which country had better displays, that the Polish Trade Fair has been fairly well forgotten. And this, apparently, includes the Russians.

You won't get anyone at the U.S. Office of International Trade Fairs to say so officially, but there's a feeling the Russians shot their all in Belgium and so didn't have much left for Poland.

At any rate, the U.S. display has been well attended. So many showed up the first day 50 policemen were assigned to control the crowds.

Among the larger displays is the U.S textile show. It takes cotton from the raw state all the way through to final production of our native costume: blue jeans.

And for those who fancy entertainment, there's color television.

"Brother, that gets them," Shafer said.

Salesman Shafer is convinced that the trade fair system, with government and industry cooperating to show their wares, is the best way to sell this country.

"In fact," he said, "there's no other way. Lay it out in front of them, let them see for themselves."

At 58, the 205-pound, 6-foot Shafer still looks like what he once was, a star athlete. At Knox College he won 13 letters, in football, basketball, baseball and track.

How come, after a lifetime of activity, he didn't stay retired?

"Did you ever try to go fishing for four or five weeks?" he asked.

Japan's Foreign Office Irked by Soviet Note

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese Foreign Office accused Russia and Red China today of viewing this country "as a hypothetical enemy." It made clear it didn't like it.

The Foreign Office was replying in an informal statement to a Russian note delivered Monday. The note said Moscow did not intend to intimidate Japan but considered U. S. bases here "and bringing in nuclear weapons to such bases" to be threats to Far Eastern peace.

Senate Approved Bill Asks Counterpart Data

The Senate has passed unanimously an amendment to the Mutual Security Act of 1958 whereby Congressmen traveling abroad on official business would be required to file itemized accounts of their expenditures of counterpart funds.

This requirement is long overdue. Well over a year ago Congressman WILLIAM S. BROOMFIELD attempted to expose these government sponsored junkets. The freeloading and excessive personal use of this federal money by some of our elected lawmakers was fast becoming the farce of the year.

These funds are local currencies set aside for United States' use by countries receiving American aid. They do not include the money provided from committee appropriations or other services by our Government.

Congressmen traveling abroad may use these funds at will without making the itemized accounting required of Executive Branch officials. The House Administration Committee reports that for the year ending June 30, 1957 $122,062 in counterpart funds alone was spent by Congressmen on foreign travel.

The amendment, sponsored by Sen. MORTON (R-Ky.) provides for publication of itemized expenditures in the Congressional Record. This should contribute to the honesty and prestige of all Congressmen. Many, of course, have used the funds for legitimate purposes and some even have made an accounting.

Over the years, however, there have been many rumors and proven cases of spending on expensive gifts, luxurious living and entertainment. This has extended to employes of Congressional committees and minor officials.

Michigan's Sen. Potter in endorsing the Morton amendment said that non-accounting of counterpart funds darkens "the integrity and reputation of every member of Congress."

There's no reason why Congressmen and others spending taxpayers' money should not make a proper accounting. The House should pass the amendment without argument.

Reciprocal Trade Act to Face Senate Fight

A new Rockefeller report prepared by 100 economists and a panel of prominent citizens declares that the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act should be "a permanent part of our national policy" and that low tariffs would "increase the competition discipline that is a major safeguard against inflation."

It concedes that some U.S. industries would suffer but that most firms were well able to meet such competition. With the intensification of Russian trade competition, the report said, low tariff agreements and other international economic understandings were particularly essential.

President Eisenhower's spirited fight in the House for a five year renewal of the Reciprocal Trade Act resulted in a great victory for the Administration. Crippling amendments were defeated and the President's powers to lower tariffs were not curtailed.

The measure now goes to the Senate where, ironically enough, Minority leader KNOWLAND and Sen. STYLES BRIDGES, chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, head a drive to cut the extension to three years and add amendments which would hamper the Administration. On the other hand, Democratic Leader LYNDON JOHNSON has pledged wholehearted support of the President's freer trade program.

Freer trade not only unites and strengthens the defenses of the free world but benefits the U.S. by increasing export trade and lowering prices for the consumer.

We hope the Senate passes the House version of the Trade Act without crippling amendments.

JOHN P. HAGEN, rocket and satellite expert, says the Vanguard satellite will stay up 200 years. Many are beginning to fear that prices may do the same.

THE person killed by a clean atomic bomb would be just as dead as one killed by a dirty one, but, of course not as unsanitary.

"SPACE is shrinking," says a relativist who has probably been eating in a breakfast nook and putting on weight.

The Man About Town

Started in Pontiac

Seed Company's Operations Were First Launched Here

Summer: What officially sneaks in late tomorrow afternoon.

An echo of early days in Pontiac is the announcement that the Ferry-Morse Seed Company is moving much of its operation out of our state. When the parent company was started by away back in the last century, its headquarters were in Detroit, but the seeds were grown on the edge of Pontiac.

Its propagating fields comprised several hundred acres on what now is East South Boulevard, and occupied principally by the GMC Plant. There a great many Pontiac youths, including earned their first money by pulling weeds. The prevailing wage scale was 25 cents per day.

When Pontiac's marvelous growth started early in this century that land became too valuable for agricultural purposes, and it was sold. The seed growing business was moved to a site just south of Rochester.

Losing her wedding ring when weeding in her garden last summer,

Mrs. Gladys Porterfield

of Walled Lake found it this week—weeding in her garden.

Wondering why their chickens were making such a commotion while the family was at breakfast the other morning,

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Osmun

of Lake Orion found a buck and doe deer in their poultry yard, accompanied by a fawn. The trio walked leisurely away to a distant woods, the fawn being real wobbly.

In talking to his department on another matter the other day, I learned from that no detours will be required in widening and rebuilding the Pontiac-Lapeer Highway in the Lake Orion and Oxford area. The present pavement will be maintained while the new one is being laid.

I like those new traffic signs being erected in Pontiac and vicinity

Another of Those First-of-the-Month Letters

David Lawrence Says:

Reds Violate Pact by Holding 9 GIs

WASHINGTON—There have been many occasions in the history of the United States when the forcible retention of American citizens anywhere in a foreign land met with a prompt resistance by the Government here.

LAWRENCE

Nine U.S. Army men in an unarmed helicopter strayed recently into East Germany through error, but the Soviet government — America's wartime ally in Europe—refuses to give up the men it imprisoned on June 8.

The United States regards the East German territory as still under the four-power occupation agreement. No peace treaty has been signed covering that area, and the military armistice is still in effect.

The Soviets have set up a puppet government in East Germany, but this does not alter the status of the four-power agreement.

Thus an American military mission sits in Potsdam, which is within East German territory, and is empowered to deal with all questions of a military nature arising therein.

The Soviets, however, are repudiating the rights of that military mission and are insisting that the American Government's dealings be with the East German regime.

The Soviets in 1945 were temporarily given administrative authority over the so-called Soviet zone, which includes East Germany. But this authority is revocable.

The four allied powers are the true custodians of the so-alled Soviet zone. Allies do not usually deny to each other the right of access to any part of their own military zones. If they do, they cease to be allies.

Actually, under the four-power agreement, the Soviets still are responsible for the quick return of American servicemen who may wander into their zone, and the United States has so informed the Soviet government.

The United States has every right under the broad principles of international law to use military force to protect the lives of its citizens who happen to be in foreign lands.

In the present instance, moreover, the United States, as a member of the alliance that fought World War II, has every right to recover any of its military personnel.

This has been demanded of the Soviet rulers, but they are attempting to wash their hands of any responsibility.

If, therefore, the Moscow government insists that it has relinquished all administrative authority over the Soviet zone in East Germany, then such authority reverts completely to the other three military powers — Great Britain, France and the United States.

It is inconceivable that the United States would take any military steps alone, and it would probably consult its two allies about joint action.

Many people will say that such a contingency—the forcible recovery of the nine Americans—is remote, but this does not dispose of the legal situation that has been introduced.

The Moscow government has been trying to maneuver the United States into a position which could require recognition of the East German government as the ransom price for the recovery of the nine Army men, who are in prison though they have committed no crime and violated no tenet of international law.

The United States could deal with the East German authorities, as Secretary Dulles says, just as it might negotiate with any "kidnaper."

But to do so raises a question that will not be settled by the mere release of the nine Americans.

The real question is how Great Britain, France and the United States shall deal henceforth with the zone previously occupied by the Soviets.

(Copyright, 1958)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Basal Temperature Test Beats Machine Reading

From what I read in letters from other doctors' patients (I'm a natural-born snoop), I gather that BMR business is still a profitable sideline for trick specialists and "clinic" racketeers—although I have yet to learn of a single instance of a physician doing more for his or her patient with the aid of a basal metabolism reading than any good physician could do with the aid of an ordinary examination.

DR. BRADY

I think this country needs a great many more clinics — real clinics, I mean, institutions connected with medical schools or hospitals, where people unable to pay may get the best medical care without charge. In a genuine clinic patients instead of paying fees, voluntarily go before classes of medical students for examination and treatment.

I hope every reader of this piece will understand clearly that, if the clinic charges for medical service or advice, it's a phony institution and you're a chump to patronize it.

In phony "clinics" and the shops of trick specialists, the metabolimeter is an indispensable part of the window dressing. It impresses the simple customer $25 worth right off the bat. At the bridge table the customer who can recite his or her basal metabolism reading takes precedence over the quaint old party who prates about blood pressure.

TEMPERATURE TEST WORKS

Sixteen years ago, in a study of over 1,000 cases, measurement of basal temperature proved a better index for thyroid therapy than measurement of basal metabolism (Barnes). The technique of basal temperature measurement is for physicians only.

Despite the superiority of this simple test over the Rube Goldberg monkeyshine, the trick specialists and clinic racketeers are still selling BMR at $25 a whack. A basal temperature test costs practically nothing. No wonder it hasn't caught on with the merchants of medicine.

As an index or gauge for thyroid therapy, a hatful of basal metabolism readings would be less reliable than the examination and time-to-time observation of a good doctor.

Sinces Barnes reported his study to the profession, no one, so far as I know, has attempted to controvert his finding. And so I say you poor souls who patronize trick specialists and phony "clinics" had better keep a tight grip on your billfold when you visit a shop where they have a Rube Goldberg machine.

The place for a metabolimeter is the physiology laboratory. It is no more appropriate for the office of a real doctor than are slot machines for the lobby of the bank.

Readers Defend Teachers After Letter Against Raise

What Hardput Taxpayer didn't say is that teachers' three-month vacations are without pay, or a two-month layoff. Teachers must seek other employment as living expenses continue to rise. They're asked to put in a great deal of overtime as dedicated public servants. Has anyone heard of overtime pay for teachers?

As professional people teachers spend years and a great deal of money getting necessary education. The summer months are often spent furthering their education at their own expense.

If Hardput is representative, we may all suffer and be hardput, as many qualified and prospective teachers choose to become carpenters, painters and factory workers where salaries have some compliance to living costs. Teachers have an important role in producing citizens of tomorrow. What could be more important to parents of toady?

Very Interested in My Child Retaining Her American Citizenship and Not Becoming a Russian Robot

Hardput Taxpayer's views on teachers' request for a raise not only make me sick and disgusted that Pontiac contains persons who show your backward line of thinking and desire to live in the past, but show no forethought for his children.

I attended Pontiac schools and have many friends who are educators in public school systems. Teachers in a well paid school system earn an average salary of between $4,500 and $5,000 per year. They're paid on a ten-month basis, but break it down on a 12 month basis and you'll see these teachers who put themselves through college earn a weekly wage of $83 a week and many have families. Besides they put in a lot of overtime work, for which they receive no pay. On top of this, they are expected to and many do attend summer classes, which uses the small savings they've managed to put away.

Hardput Taxpayer is not only a poor citizen, who jeopardizes today's children, but is uneducated in the modern way of living. I can hardly believe any PTA would entertain the backward, ignorant thoughts you put in your letter. And why didn't you sign your name?

R. W. Farrow

Birmingham

Couldn't help but chuckle at Hardput Taxpayer. They should have paid teachers more when he went to school. You can't have high quality teaching on salaries that can't compete with schools in surrounding communities. In fact, you're fortunate to get teachers at all.

And the three-month vacation. You're just plain laid off and I mean every year. Where do teachers run for compensation checks? As for palaces you mentioned, the model T Ford was transportation, too. It's thinking like yours, Hardput Taxpayer, that keeps us in constant challenge with Russia.

School Teacher's Wife

I'm certain Supt. Whitmer's talk wasn't pleasant. It isn't easy to tell one's fellow educators that Very Hardput Taxpayers think teachers are too insignificant to deserve consideration for a pay raise. Maybe there's nothing sacred about teaching, but if you think putting a screw or bolt on a car on an assembly line is harder and more important than educating tomorrow's citizens, you're suffering from a common ailment called misplaced values.

Maybe you'd like to return to your little red school house, but you'd also have to return to ravages of polio and tuberculosis and lose everything representing modern advancement brought by education.

Because you lack education or even common sense, you're laid off and can do nothing about it. Yet you would rationalize on your own misfortune by degrading the teaching profession. Rather a selfish motive, isn't it?

Says Hay Fever Started Early

Hay fever definitely has started a full two months early in our family. Have any doctors come up with a reasonable explanation? Could it be the unusually dry spring? Perhaps if all persons so affected would write, it would give a clue to scientists checking such phenomena.

Agrees on Single World Language

I certainly agree the world needs an international language. As a student of languages I have devised one for that purpose and believe it to be the true solution to international understanding. Called Feralingua, it has a vocabulary based mainly on English and Romance roots, phonetic-type spelling and extremely simple grammar of only 12 rules that can be printed on a single sheet of paper.

Gender is natural as in English, adjectives are invariable and there are no long conjugations or declensions to memorize. Best of all, it is simple without looking "artificial" and pleasant to both the eye and ear.

Interested persons may obtain information about Feralinqua by writing the Feralinqua League for North America at my address.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Hesitate to Adopt Children

Marilyn is like thousands of young married people. She should widen her outlook and realize that surnames didn't come into vogue until the 1500s. She can have 10 children within the next week or two by following the advice below. For true parent-child relationships are not based on blood kinship but on spiritual affinity. Let foster children read this case, too, for it will make them relax more happily.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-341: Marilyn M., aged 28, has been married for six years.

"Dr. Crane, I'm so unhappy," she said as she burst into tears. "And it is all because we have no children. Bob and I had planned to have a family.

DR. CRANE

"But my doctor says I can never bear a child. So I feel worthless and on the shelf. Should I give him a divorce so he can marry again and have the babies I can't give him.

"I love him with all my heart but I don't want him to be unhappy."

YOUTHFUL EGOTISM

When young couples marry, they usually look ahead to having children.

And they attach unusual virtue to having youngsters "all our own," meaning of their own flesh and blood.

But as you readers grow older, you begin to realize that husband and wife don't create children, even of the flesh-and-blood variety.

God Almighty started the germinal cells in the first human beings on this earth. Each parent generation simply passes along some of this germinal tissue to the next, much as pioneer housewives used to pass along some yeast to their neighbors to help make bread.

The true parent-child relationship is PURELY a mental or spiritual affinity. It has nothing whatever to do with "flesh-and-blood" kinship.

For you husbands feel closer to your wives than you do to your own blood brothers and sisters with whom you grew up as children.

And you wives likewise feel more akin to your husbands than to your own blood brothers and sisters, too.

Yet husband and wife are unrelated by blood. They were possibly total strangers till a few months prior to their wedding.

TRUE KINSHIP

Cain and Abel were the first blood kin on this earth, yet they fought until Cain killed Abel.

Absalom tried to kill his father, King David, showing there is no virtue in blood kinship, unless the spiritual affinity is also present.

And if that spiritual devotion is present, as between husband and wife, then why fret about minor things like blood relationships?

If you young married couples want children, then adopt them. If possible, pick out a couple of youngsters and legally become their parents.

If not, then adopt 10 or 20 boys and girls within the next few weeks by becoming their Sunday School teacher or Scout Leader or Camp Fire Girls adviser.

For whenever you voluntarily take children into your hearts and then help make them better boys and girls by your generous teaching and the planting of ideals and idealism in their youthful minds, then you ARE their parents.

Don't fret because they don't bear the same surname as you do. Indeed, surnames didn't come into vogue in Europe till the 1500s anyway.

Aristotle and Plato and Moses and other men of that vintage had no surnames, so why make such a fetish of having children who bear your own last name? It's a sign of juvenile egotism!

Grow up emotionally and take the proper scientific attitude. Pick your sons and daughters by an act of voluntary affection, as you selected your husband or wife.

Then invest in them your love and guidance. You'll be happier and they will become better citizens.

A lot of orphans' homes are full of kids who would be tickled pink to have a foster mother like Marilyn who would visit them every Sunday afternoon with wholesome comic books and a willingness to become their "pen-pal" Mother or Daddy during week days.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Hopes to Return to Mississippi

Negro Visits in Georgia After Release From Mental Hospital

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — Clennon King says he hopes to return to Mississippi where he was placed in a mental hospital after an unsuccessful attempt to enter the all-white University of Mississippi.

"I don't think any citizen should be forced to leave any state in this country," he said last night in an interview. "I haven't done anything wrong. I'm not an agitator or anything like that."

The 37-year-old Negro educator and minister left Jackson, Miss., by plane yesterday to spend a few days with his father in this south Georgia city where he was born.

"I just felt that I had to have a chance to pull myself together and arrange my thoughts," he said. "After that I hope to go back."

But he added, "I don't want to stay in Mississippi if I'm not wanted. I haven't been treated right in Mississippi.

"I think Gov. J. P. Coleman should apologize to me and that the state should reimburse my family for the expenses in setting me free. They know thye've done me wrong. I'm disillusioned. I don't feel free in Mississippi."

King was released Wednesday from the state mental hospital at Whitfield, Miss., He still faces charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest in Lafayette County, where the University of Mississippi is located.

Students Too Peaceful in Tranquilizer Town

MILLTOWN, N. J. (AP)—This community, noted for its production of tranquilizers, has an abundance of over-calm students, says the superintendent of schools.

Figures released by Superintendent Edward Rickards show that 25 per cent of Milltown's eighth grade students—13 out of 52—have failed a school year's work.

Rickards said earlier in the week that the pupils "simply refused to do their work" and that, in some cases, "parents did not cooperate with our efforts to prepare these children for high school."

Bees Swarming All Over His Car, He Carries On

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — R. H. Hackney was driving to his place of business the other morning when he began to realize that a swarm of bees, creeping up from the underside of his car, had found a resting place on his automobile.

They settled on his right front window. But Hackney, who declares that bees won't hurt you if you let them alone, continued to drive his car to work and lunch for a day and a half.

Yesterday Lester Foster, draftsman and amateur beekeeper, put on his hood and bonnet and debeed Hackney's car. Sure enough no stings.

Cruiser Explodes, Burns Off Lake St. Clair Shore

DETROIT (AP) — A 23-foot express cruiser exploded and burned to the waterline on Lake St. Clair last night. Neither of two men on the boat was injured seriously.

Louis Ashley, 30, owner, said he was moving toward his boat well when the craft exploded. A passenger, Gerald Lang, 31, was knocked overboard by the explosion.

Ex-Officials Appeal Prison Sentences

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner of the U.S. Court of Appeals said yesterday he expects to rule by tomorrow morning on an eleventh-hour bid by two former Truman administration officials to escape going to prison.

Mathew J. Connelly and T. Lamar Caudle are scheduled to surrender here tomorrow to begin serving two-year prison terms for conspiring to defraud the government in an income tax case.

Connelly, who was Truman's appointments secretary, and Caudle, former head of the Justice Department's tax division, have asked a stay of execution of their sentences until U. S. District Court disposal of their request for a new trial. They asked a second trial on grounds of new evidence.

New Labor Measure Will Double Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was told today the Senate-passed labor bill would at least double the cost, already above $300,000 annually, of administering the Taft-Hartley law non-Communist oath requirement.

The Senate voted to require employers to file oaths that they are not Communist party members in order to qualify for rights administered by the National Labor Relations Board.

NLRB Chairman Boyd Leedom told a House Labor subcommittee there are many more employers than union officials and NLRB would be dismayed if it had to extend oath administration to them.

Sucaet was about to throw the jar away when he noticed the corner of a $5 bill in a ball of mud inside the jar. He sent the jar and the mud to the Treasury Department.

The department notified Sucaet yesterday the remains of bills in the mud were worth $1,095 and it was forwarding a credit for that amount.

Death Interrupts Farewell Dinner in Manhattan

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Annie Visconti, 64, was retiring after 28 years with a cable and radio firm.

So 13 of her women co-workers planned a farewell dinner for her last night at a Greenwich Village restaurant.

Mrs. Visconti had been looking forward to the party. She had a fine new party dress for the big occasion.

But she had been ill for the past few days. She promised she'll get to the party "if I have to crawl."

So the women gathered at the restaurant early and had the stage set for the guest of honor's grand entrance at 6:15.

They waited, telling jokes, laughing. Then some of them began to look up at the clock. They grew uneasy. Came 7:30, and still no Mrs. Visconti.

Some one said they should telephone her home. No answer. The women became more anxious. Phone calls were made to Mrs. Visconti's husband, who was at work, and the superintendent of their apartment house.

They found Mrs. Visconti dead —apparently stricken with a heart attack while putting on her party clothes.

The news was telephoned to the restaurant.

Mrs. Visconti's friends ate in silence. Then they went home, taking her gifts with them.

Atom Secrecy Action Nears

Bill in Senate Would Clear Sharing Setup With Great Britain

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate was set to act soon, possibly today, on President Eisenhower's bill to relax atom secrecy. It would clear the way for a weapons know-how sharing arrangement with Great Britain.

The House yesterday passed 345-12 a bill to authorize greater exchange of atomic information with allies. It would permit exchanges of actual weapon manufacturing data and materials with friendly nations already making weapons. For the present this means Britain.

Also hanging on final legislative action on the bill are British negotiations to buy from an American commercial firm a nuclear submarine power plant.

Under the bill, the weapons information sharing agreement would be subject to a congressional veto for 30 days after it is submitted. Since Congress is aiming at adjournment early in August, the time is cut close.

The Senate was expected to reach the bill possibly late today or early next week.

For allies not far enough advanced in nuclear technology to qualify for weapons information exchanges, the bill would make possible transfers of such things as submarine reactors and more information about the characteristics of atomic weapons. This would be intended to facilitate training.

Niagara Falls Looms in Mammal's Dash to Ocean

Fugitive Sea Lion Roars Into St. Clair

TILBURY, Ont. (AP) — An errant sea lion entered the Great Lakes waterway to the sea last night unaware of the problems ahead as he swam steadily toward salt water.

Experts gave him a month in fresh water in his bid for freedom. After that they said his eyes would be damaged and his chances of returning to the sea would be little.

The bewhiskered, year-old sea pup slid under a fence in London, Ont.'s Storybook Gardens at Springbank Park early Tuesday. There the water was artifically salted.

Chugging along at 15 miles per hour he swam the 85 miles into this town southeast of London yesterday afternoon.

Ernest Duguette, 41, a Tilbury auto dealer who took an afternoon off to visit government docks at the mouth of the Thames River, said he thought he was watching a swimmer until the sea lion came close enough to identify.

SWINS 'TOO FAST'

He said three men in a boat were in the path of the sea-going mammal—then took a look at it and got out of its way.

"It looked like somebody swimming, then it went under and flopped up again—it was going fast, too fast—and I thought nobody swims like that.

"I thought it was a seal and wondered where on earth it came from, but there it was. We were about 100 feet away from it as it swam into the lake and headed for open water."

With him were George Terry and his son King Terry of Chatham. They watched as the sea lion, with no slackening of pace, swam out into Lake St. Clair.

Its general direction was toward Windsor, 35 miles away.

The sea lion, Zalophys Californianus by species, had a long swim and the Niagara Falls to face before it could escape salt-free water.

WASTES NO TIME

It made the winding swim to Tilbury in two-and-a-half days, almost amazing to the Public Utilities Commission at London which had been scouring the river for the marathon swimmer.

Earlier it had been spotted at Chatham as hundreds gathered to watch its progress downstream.

Zoo officials contacted the California aquarium it came from and got this advice:

Sea lions like to sleep on the bank in the warm sunshine. It might be caught that way. Or, if you want to try to catch it in the water, make enough noise and it will come around to investigate.

In February 1947 it was 82 degrees below zero as registered at Snag airport in the Yukon, one of the lowest marks in North American records.

Death Ends Short Liberty for Runaway Orangutan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A brief fling at liberty ended in death for the runaway orangutan, Gus.

The 6-year-old ape died in his griffith Park Zoo cage last night a short time after being recaptured. He had escaped Wednesday.

Gus was building a nest in a tree when zoo keepers spotted him.

They captured him by using a compressed air gun to fire a syringe loaded with tranquilizer into his body.

Dr. W. A. Young, zoo supervisor, said Gus died of heart failure.

Deny Salk Vaccine Damages Brain

CHICAGO (AP)—Two researchers said they failed to find any evidence that Salk polio vaccine might damage the brain or central nervous system. They added they were astonished that in their study of 852 cases they were unable to find a single person having such a reaction.

"We had not expected to obtain such completely negative results with a biologically potent material," said Mrs. Erna L. Gibbs and Dr. Frederic A. Gibbs, both of Chicago.

Results of the study were reported Thursday in the Journal of the American Medical Assn.

The study was undertaken because of reports circulating in the Chicago area that some children developed convulsions and other signs of central nervous system disorder after the mass Salk vaccine injections in 1956.

The study was carried out at Chicago, Rockford, Ill., and Richmond, Va.

Fish are the most numerous of the vertebrates with about 20,000 species.

200 4-H Delegates Give Eisenhower Indian Peace Pipe

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower was presented with an Indian peacepipe Thursday.

It was given to him in the White House rose garden by about 200 delegates to the 28th national 4-H conference.

The peacepipe, made of red stone from quarries at Pipestone, Minn., was given to Eisenhower as a symbol of world peace.

It was handed to the President by Elva Warner, 17, Yuma, Ariz.; August A. Williams, 19, Rochester, Minn.; Urmila Yadava, 20, of India; and Russell Mawby, 30, East Lansing, Mich.

Speaking for the 4-H Club people-to-people program for promotion of international understanding and friendship, Eisenhower told the delegates that because they are young they have a wonderful opportunity to help promote peace throughout the world.

Eisenhower said young people generally are free of emotional prejudices regarding race and color, and can help to foster better international understanding in that field.

"You can bring this old world to a better level of understanding than it has ever known before," Eisenhower said.

"I envy you your youth. I'd like to start in with you."

Well-Traveled Raincoat Keeps Returning Home

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Carl A. Carbone's itinerant raincoat has returned home again.

In the past several years Carbone has lent the coat to hitchhiking servicemen he has picked up while traveling as a salesman.

"It's been sent back from India, Hong Kong, and other far off places," he said today. "Sometimes as long as six months goes by, but the raincoat is always returned."

The body of Robert H. Just Sr., 44, was found about a half-mile downstream from the dam several hours later.

Witness told police Just had the middle of the rain-swollen Kankakee River when the motor failed.

Finds Radioactivity in Humans Doubled

WAYNESVILLE, N. C. (AP)—Radioactivity in human bodies has increased about 100 per cent in the last two years, but the amount still need not be regarded as harmful, says a nuclear medicine specialist.

Col. James B. Hartgering of Washington, D. C. yesterday addressed the Mountain-Top Medical Assembly, made up of doctors from seven states. He is director of the division of nuclear medicine and chemistry at the Institute of Research, Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

He attributed the increases of radioactive materials in humans to increases in nuclear testing by the United States, Great Britain and the Soviet Union.

Boy 'Helping' Railroad Causes 9-Car Pileup

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A boy, 10, explained to police he moved a switch handle last night because he thought it was in the wrong position.

The result: nine freight cars in a Wabash train were derailed. No one was hurt.

The boy was held for juvenile authorities.

French to Help Build Factory in Pakistan

KARACHI — Pakistan's Corporation for Industrial Development has signed an agreement with a group of French firms for construction of a $33,600,000 fertilizer plant at Multan in western Pakistan.

When completed in 1960 it will turn out 200,000 tons of fertilizer a year. The French companies will also train at their own factories in France the Pakistani chemists, engineers, and management personnel for the new plant.

The lakes impounded by dams of the Tennessee valley authority have an estimated total shoreline of approximately 10,058 linear miles.

Asks Creation of Mackinac Dock Authority

LANSING (UPI)—Creation of a Mackinac Straits Port Authority has been suggested by the chairman of a legislative committee studying means of disposing of the state-owned Straits ferry dock facilities.

"A special authority including representatives from Mackinaw City, St. Ignace and the Mackinaw Island Park Commission would be in the best position to control the docks," said Rep. Lloyd Gibbs (R-Portland), chairman of the House State Affairs Committee.

Gibbs also introduced a resolution directing the highway department not to make any permanent installations on the ferry dock site at the Straits until a "full and complete" study of disposition of the dock facilities is made.

The resolution, which was the first item of business considered when the legislature met for a special session at noon, would delay construction of a $250,000 maintenance garage and storage area dock at St. Ignace.

Fear Bloodbath Near in Hungary

Special U.N. Group Calls Closed Session on Crisis Tomorrow

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —The United Nations Special Hungarian Committee, under pressure from the United States, has called a closed session for tomorrow to try to head off a new bloodbath in Hungary.

Hungarian sources at the U.N. said at least 120 persons faced trial and possible execution in Budapest.

The five-nation special committee will sift a mass of charges against the Hungarian Communist regime. It was called into action after the U.S. State Department urged the U.N. to press a "full-scale" investigation of the execution of former Premier Imre Nagy, Gen. Pal Maleter and two other leaders of the 1956 revolution.

Both houses of Congress also approved resolutions condemning Russian "barbarism and perfidy" and expressing a "deep sense of indignation" over the deaths of the Hungarian patriots.

Washington dispatches indicated the U.S. might seek a special session of the General Assembly to consider the Hungarian situation, but informed sources here said such a move would be premature.

The committee was ordered to meet this morning by Australian Ambassador E. Ronald Walker but he later postponed the session until tomorrow because the Uruguayan and Tunisian ambassadors, who are members of the committee, had pressing duties in Washington.

The national Capitol building covers about three and one-half acres.

Engineers Halt Shipping in East

Five-Day-Old Strike Spreading Paralysis in Coast, Gulf Ports

NEW YORK (AP)—A five-day-old strike by marine engineers today continued its slow paralysis of American-flag shipping in East and Gulf Coast ports.

Negotiations between the Marine Engineers Beneficial Assn., and the American Merchant Marine Institute, the employer group, have been stalled since Wednesday.

Five voyages by Grace Lines ships were cancelled yesterday.

The huge liner America's scheduled sailing for Europe with 1,000 passengers late today also was threatened. An MEBA picket line was set up yesterday on the pier where the America is docked.

Officials of the International Longshoremen's Assn. said later they would not honor MEBA picket lines. The Masters, Mates and Pilots Union, however, announced it would respect the picket lines.

Possibility of the strike spreading to the West Coast was removed by a new three-year contract agreement between two maritime unions and the Pacific Maritimes Assn. The contracts with the Marine Engineers and the Masters, Mates and Pilots covers about 5,000 union members and 18 shipping companies.

Dime Sells for $3,200 at Coin Firm Auction

NEW YORK (AP)—A dime was sold for $3,200 at a coin company auction last night.

An anonymous collector won the bidding for the coin—one of 24 minted in San Francisco in 1894.

Six of them previously were in the hands of collectors. Seventeen are missing.

Greeks Expected to Do Likewise

Turkish Leaders on Cyprus Turn Down Britain's Plan

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Turkish Cypriot leaders have rejected Britain's partnership plan for governing this embattled island. The Turkish government agreed to talk about it and the Greek Cypriots awaited word from Athens today.

A Greek government source said Premier Constantine Karamanlis' Cabinet definitely would reject the plan, which calls for the Greek and Turkish governments to join Britain in governing the island. The NATO allies were putitng strong pressure on Greece at least to join in discussions and Britain planned to go ahead with the plan in any event.

Archbishop Makarios, exiled leader of the Greek Cypriot movement to unite the island with Greece, conferred in Athens with Cypriot mayors. He said he would send his views to the British today.

TROOPS STANDING BY

Thirty thousand British troops waited tensely to put down any new violence growing out of the three-nation tug of war which threatens the Mediterranean anchor of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Rioting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots has cost 17 lives this month.

The last week has been comparatively quiet, but today a 25-year-old Turkish Cypriot was critically wounded in the crowded market place at Limassol.

A crowd of Turk Cypriots gathered after the shooting, and four Greek Cypriots were stoned. The British clamped a rigid curfew on the city and rushed in large numbers of troops.

Although the Turks sent a note rejecting the plan as such, they agreed to negotiate on it and attend any conference with Britain and Greece. Earlier Turk Cypriot leader Rauf Denktash said the plan did not set up safeguards to keep the island from uniting with Greece and "we are not interested." The Turkish minority wants Cyprus partitioned.

OUTLINING PLAN

The new British plan calls for participation by the Greek and Turkish governments in the control of Cyprus for the next seven years and partitioning the island legislature, although not the island itself.

It gives a measure of self-government to the Cypriot people while Britain, in consultation with Greece and Turkey, retains control of defense, internal security and foreign affairs. The islanders could choose Greek or Turkish citizenship in addition to the British citizenship they now hold.

The Greek and Turk Cypriots would have separate Houses of Representatives for their community affairs, now controlled by the British. The Greek and Turkish governments would be represented in an Upper Council headed by the British governor.

So They'll Keep Fighting Grass Fires With Sacks

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP)—County officials are back to the damp reality of having to use wet gunny sacks to battle grass fires.

Nez Perce County commissioners excitedly dispatched a deputy to look over a $9,000 pumper truck they learned could be bought surplus for only $450. The deputy made a sad report after inspecting the vehicle at Williams AFB, Chandler, Ariz. It was no bargain, he said, and here's why:

No tires, tank rusted out, pumper unit rusted and not working, front badly bent.

"Well, $450 will buy a lot of wet gunny sacks," said another deputy.

Bird Knows Address

BERLIN, Conn. (UPI) — Chipper, a parakeet owned by Mrs. Nina Damico, flew the coop, but a week later it landed on a boy's shoulder. The bird was quickly returned to the owner after it said, "My name is Chipper Damico and I live at 100 Kensington Road."

Repentant Bus Driver Survives Death Leap

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP) — A Japanese bus driver, repentant over the death of one of his passengers and injury to five others in a collision with a train, today sneaked out of a hospital and threw himself in front of another train.

The 27-year-old driver, Shigeo Hirai, succeeded only in adding to the injuries he suffered in the collision yesterday.

The first car ferry is believed to have been put into operation in Scotland on the Firth of Forth in 1849.

Ike Attending Defense Meet

Top Military Brass at Conference May Hear More on Power Shift

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — President Eisenhower came to this Marine base today for a review of America's global defense strategy.

The President arrived in the rain after a 45-minute drive over the 35 miles from Washington. He had intended to make the trip by helicopter but heavy rain washed out that plan.

Old soldier Eisenhower is here for a Defense Department annual conference which brings together all the top brass—military and civilian—in the nation's defense establishment.

He was greeted on arrival by Secretary of Defense McElroy and Lt. Gen. Merrill B. Twining, commandant of the Marine Corps schools.

He went directly to a briefing on the Pacific situation by Adm. Felix B. Stump, commander in chief of all U.S. Pacific forces.

Stump presumably dealt with: Formosa defenses by the U.S. 7th Fleet and air units.

Th picture regarding the big U.S. base at Okinawa.

The demilitarization program in Japan.

The routine but always present problem of antisubmarine patrol and aerial patrol of the seaward extension of the dewline radar warning system.

The President also arranged to be on hand for morning talks by Allen W. Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Christian A. Herter, undersecretary of state.

Eisenhower planned a round of golf at the Marine base course during the afternoon, if the weather cleared.

The President was not scheduled for any formal talk at the defense sessions, but there was a possibility he would speak informally at one of the meetings.

About 175 civilian and uniformed leaders gathered here for the session.

While Montreal Parents at Dance

Nursemaid Says Kidnap Done on Spur of Moment

TORONTO (UPI) — A blond German-born nursemaid told police today she kidnaped Joel Reitman, 2½-year-old heir to a clothing chain fortune, for $10,000 ransom on the spur of the moment while his parents were at a dance.

Police said that after seven hours of questioning, Greta Goede finally admitted she carried out the abduction all by herself after telling five different stories, including one that claimed five men forced her to kidnap the child.

Joel Reitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Reitman of Mount Royal, a Montreal suburb, was kidnaped last Saturday and found unharmed in an Ottawa taxi driver's home Tuesday.

News of the abduction was withheld until he was returned to his family.

Mrs. Goede said the idea of kidnaping Joel came to her suddenly after the Reitmans went to a party last Saturday night.

"Jo-Jo didn't want to go to sleep," she said. "I played with him. At 8:30, Mr. Reitman called to ask how things were and I told him everything was fine.

"It was after that that wheels began churning in my head."

Mrs. Goede said she took the boy to Ottawa, a city she never had visited before, and checked into the Lord Elgin Hotel.

They spent the weekend there, she said, and she left the boy with a taxi driver and returned to Montreal by train.

She said she tried to telephone the parents to tell them the boy was all right, but the line was busy. Then she went by bus to Toronto, where she was arrested Tuesday.

Police said Mrs. Goede told about a number of broken romances and seemed to be "emotionally upset." They said she tried to commit suicide by taking an overdose of sleeping pills in British Columbia.

Greeting Friend Enough

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently my husband and I, accompanied by another couple, attended a movie. During the intermission we noticed a very close friend of ours seated two rows behind us. She was alone. We greeted her from where we sat and exchanged a few words.

"We later learned that she was offended because we neglected to invite her to join us. I feel that we were under no obligation whatsoever to ask her to join our party. What is your opinion on this?"

Answer: She should not have been offended because you did not invite her to join you and the other couple you were with. If she had been a close friend of theirs as well as of yours it would have been kind to have asked her to sit with you, but it was still not an obligation.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Another boy and myself have been discussing the following problem and would like you to settle it. When driving a young woman home after a date, is it necessary for the man to leave the car and walk up to the front door with her?"

Answer: In the bright daylight—especially in a busy street—waiting in his car in front of the house until she is in would be sufficiently polite. At night, he should of course go with her to the door,

No One's Satisfied

Some Too Thin—Others Too Fat!

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "Some of my friends tell me I am just right and would be crazy to gain any weight. My mother thinks the same. Two of my friends think I am too thin. What is your opinion? I am five feet 6 inches tall and weigh 105 pounds. I am small boned."

A. You did not give me your age but you are underweight whether you are grown or in your early teens. You should gain about 20 pounds.

Q. "Please tell me whether bicycle riding is good exercise except for general exercise. Is it good for the upper leg?"

A. Bicycle riding is splendid general exercise, and as any exercise, will help you lose pounds because it uses up energy. However, I would not classify it as a spot reducer. It will firm the legs.

Q. "Would exercising 30 minutes in the morning and another 30 at night help me reduce enough faster to be worthwhile?"

A. You will lose faster with two exercise periods than with one. However, just one 30 minute period will begin to show results in about two weeks. If you have time and are not fatigued by it, and wish to speed the process adopt the two exercise periods.

Q. "Please discuss how a woman with ulcers can diet successfully."

A. This is really a medical question and you should follow your doctor's advice. Usually ulcer patients are asked to drink so much cream and milk that they may add poundage. However, the scraped baby foods, both meat and vegetables, have made an ulcer diet easier to prepare and have also provided more variety. Discuss this with your physician.

Q. "A little more than a month ago I decided to part my hair on the left side. Well, to my surprise it looks just like I had had a lawn mower run over my head. It starts near the front and goes all the way to the top of my head. I am so worried I am not even myself."

A. I am not certain what you mean. I thought at first you meant the hair is unruly which it might well be when you have been parting it on the other side. But you seem so worried that I don't know what to think. Maybe you have bald spots underneath. If so, you should see your family physician or a skin specialist.

Q. "I am 58. My bust measures 35, waist 27 and hips 27 inches. I am putting on so much fat above the waist that I would like to exercise before I get more of it."

A. Your measurements are within the allowable for a good figure. However, you are wise to heed the signs of the time. If you would like to have my waist slimming exercises which will also reduce the diaphragm, send a stamped, self addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Dear Abby:

Fireman's Hours Burn Mom

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: My father is a fireman. As soon as the five o'clock whistle goes, so does he. He gets home by two in the afternoon and all he does is get under my mother's feet so she can't get anything done. This makes her mad and they fight. I think if he was not a fireman and didn't have such crazy hours they would get along better. What do you think?"

ABBY

FIREMAN'S DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Plenty of firemen manage to keep their own "home fires burning." Your Mom should manage her working hours to fit in with Dad's.

"DEAR ABBY: I met Don at the roller rink and although I was only 16 and he was 17 we fell in love. We got married in sort of a hurry and I had to quit school because of the baby which was on the way. I am expecting in August and Don goes out to roller skate almost every night.

"I can't go with him because the doctor says no skating past my sixth month. I am very lonesome. Should I go to watch him skate with other girls or should he stay home with me?"

CAN'T SKATE

DEAR CAN'T: Your husband should forego this recreation until you can resume it together. Sounds like Don is still going around in circles. Maybe your doctor can straighten him out.

"DEAR ABBY: I don't agree with you when you say parents who punish their children in public are cruel and foolish. Children who learn they can get away with murder in public are quick to take advantage of the situation.

"My children are grown now, but when they misbehaved, I used to take down their pants and raise welts on their bottoms no matter where we were and now one is congressman of his district and the other is regional president of the DAR."

FIRM MOTHER

"DEAR ABBY: I have a lady friend who is not poor by any means. She lives alone and gets around socially quite a lot. When she is at a luncheon or tea or even a dinner she is never "hungry" so she asks the hostess if she can put the the food in a sack and take it home. Naturally they give her plenty. Do you think this is all right?"

CURIOUS FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: It's all right with me. What's eating YOU?

"DEAR ABBY: I started to go with this boy last spring. On our first date he tried to kiss me and I stopped him saying, "I'm not that kind of a girl."

"I have grown very fond of him and we still date but now whenever we are together I put myself in a positior to be kissed and he turns my head away and says, "Remember, you're not that kind of a girl." How can I get him to kiss me without throwing myself at him?"

UNKISSED

DEAR UNKISSED: If your boyfriend has been sulking because you refused to be kissed on your first date, he is too young for you. Don't put yourself in any more kissable positions. Make him ask for it.

Got an Allergy? Switch Over to New Product

Developing an allergy to a certain beauty product is a fairly common annoyance. Doctors do not yet know why a woman may use a certain product happily for years and suddenly become allergic to it.

The solution, however, is fairly simple. It means a switch to another product of the same type or to cosmetics made especially for people with allergy. It does not mean that you must give up cosmetics forever.

The whole realm of allergies is a mysterious one so far, but unless they are extremely serious, most just constitute a mild nuisance.

So don't panic if you find yourself allergic to a cream, lotion or lipstick. Buy another product and go happily on your way.

Recession Heightens Interest in Money

By FAYE HENLE

This recession is heightening people's interest in matters financial. We have plenty of evidence of this. It comes to us daily in the mail.

The people I meet tell me they are frankly perplexed by the current turn of economic events. People who in the past gave little thought to money matters. All ask endless questions.

In former recessions, they recall, the prices they paid for food and clothing and shelter declined. This is not so today. Potatoes never cost as much and there is talk of raising the price of steel. When steel costs more, it is the prelude to higher price tags on a host of consumer items.

In their perplexity people everywhere are trying to solve this economic riddle. So far they have done two things: they are putting more money into savings and they are sharply reducing their indebtedness, that is they are showing much hesitancy in buying on time-payment plans.

These factors in themselves, however, give neither individuals nor the nation any clear-cut answer to that pervasive question: Where are we going, economically speaking? When the day comes to withdraw those stashed-away dollars, how much will they buy? Will the purchase you defer this year cost you less next year?

The answers we all seek are complex because this recession is unlike any we've ever seen before. What makes it different is the fact that inflation is not dead. Instead, all signs point towards its continuation.

Look at what has happened already. These figures have just been released by the National Industrial Conference Board:

A married man with two children earning $3,000 a year in 1939 kept a net income of $2,970. His federal taxes and social security cost him $30. His $2,970 bought him $2,970 worth of goods and services.

That same worker must earn $6,457 today in order to realize the same purchasing power. Of his 1958 earnings, $722 go to pay taxes and social security and $2,765 go down the drain in purchasing power lost to inflation! That dollar that bought 100 cents worth of goods and services in 1939 will only buy you 48.5 cents worth today.

This then is the basis for your concern with matters financial, my friends, and you'd better be concerned. It takes a lot of considered juggling — and how well you know this—for those 48.5 cents to make the present happy and future secure. Yet no one can promise that some of those 48.5 pennies won't continue to slide down the inflation drain.

He's in Dog House for Freeing Pooch

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP)—Archie Berkey is in a legal dog house today charged with liberating his dog from a real dog house.

Berkey, 47, a steamfitter of Massapequa Park, N. Y., was arrested last night and accused of breaking into an animal shelter.

Berkey's dog, a handsome boxer named Bob, was picked up without a license tag by a dog catcher last Friday. Although Berkey argued that Bob had lost his tag, the dog was sent to the shelter.

Wednesday morning shelter officials found a window broken and notified police. Bob also was missing.

Police found Berkey and the dog happily at home last night. Berkey's only plea when brought to jail here was that Bob be allowed to stay at home.

Walks 342 Miles From Turnpike to Straits Span

STRAITS OF MACKINAC BRIDGE, Mich. (AP) —If Marion Pearson takes a walk around the countryside today, it'll be a short one.

Pearson, 60, a Grand Rapids, Mich., businessman, yesterday finished a 342-mile walk from the Indiana Turnpike to the southern approach to the Straits of Mackinac bridge.

Resting 10 minutes every hour, he averaged about three miles an hour and made the trip by foot in 12 days.

"Gee, that was a long walk," he said.

It wasn't his longest walk, though.

Pearson, president of the International Walkers Assn., hiked from Toledo to Miami, Fla., a journey of more than 1,200 miles, in 1920. The trip took two months.

Score Executions of Nagy, 3 Others

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress and the State Department, in separate actions, have denounced the execution of leading figures in Hungary's ill-starred revolt in 1956.

By a 91-0 vote, the Senate late yesterday adopted a resolution accusing Russia of barbarism and perfidy in the execution of Imre Nagy, Hungary's revolutionary premier; Gen. Pal Maleter, Nagy's defense minister, and two others. The House then followed suit by a vote of 171-0.

The State Department said in a statement that the execution of the Hungarian freedom leaders "is an affront to all members of the U.N. and to the conscience of the world."

West Pakistan's Police Fire on Textile Strikers

LYALLPUR, West Pakistan (AP)—Police opened fire on striking textile workers today. Informed sources said 16 persons were killed and 20 injured. Police claimed there were 5 dead and 7 injured.

The police reportedly began shooting after they arrested the union president and the workers tried to free him. The strikers stoned the police.

No. 10 Downing Falling Down, Report Claims

LONDON (AP)—No. 10 Downing St., like a famous bridge, is falling down.

The official residence of British Prime Ministers—nearly 300 years old—is so shaky that a report by three lords and two knights recommends that Harold Macmillan move out as soon as possible.

The report urged that the chancellor of the exchequer, Derick Heathcoat Amory, whose home and office is next door, also move.

No. 10, said the committee, is structurally unsound and the risk of fire is substantial.

The report said the walls might collapse. Some floors are weak and need supports.

The wooden staircase is old and decayed. Roofs are bad. Beetles are at work in the rafters. The sanitary system needs constant repair. Because of movements in the foundations, a carpenter has to be around all the time adjusting doors and windows.

The committee estimated it will cost 1¼ million dollars to put matters right at No. 10, 11 and 12. But the facade, so familiar to tourists the world over, will remain unchanged.

U.N. Day Paid Holiday at McDonnell Aircraft

ST. LOUIS (AP) — McDonnell Aircraft Corp. will start observing United Nations Day as a paid holiday this year, and company executives hope the idea will spread throughout the world.

"We believe it is appropriate that all the people of this planet take one day off each year to celebrate the birthday of the United Nations," said J. S. McDonnell, president of the firm.

U. N. Day, Oct. 24, has been made a seventh paid holiday in contracts covering 15,000 union employes of the firm, which manufactures military airplanes and missiles.

Philippines Given $75 Million Credit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States agreed today to establish a new 75-million-dollar line of credit for the Philippines and provide 50 million dollars in development loan funds. The development loans are subject to congressional action.

The agreement was announced in a joint Philippines-U.S. statement issued by the White House at the conclusion of a three-day state visit by Philippine President Carlos P. Garcia.

The statement said Garcia and President Eisenhower reviewed economic development in the Philippines over the past years and examined the current economic problems which face the nation.

Garcia has been seeking a reported 350 million dollars in long-term credits.

Bridge Festival Activity Grows to Fever Pitch

With program arrangements for the Mackinac Bridge Dedication Festival rapidly falling into place, it looks like Mackinaw City, St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie, Cheboygan, Petoskey and Harbor Springs will be crammed with participants as well as visitors June 26, 27 and 28.

Preparatory activity is at fever pitch as armed forces and exhibitors plan to move in early to make their installations in the dock areas at St. Ignace and Mackinaw City.

Decorations are being installed, platforms and reviewing stands being built, food and sahitary facilities expanded. Hotel, motel and room eservations in the entire area are still available, but prompt reservations are advised. Persons planning to be in the area should call or write the chambers of commerce in the above cities for information.

Ace network radio and TV reporter, Ted Malone, is scheduled to announce events over the loud speaker system which will be installed on both sides of the Straits.

The Nicolet ceremony will be followed by the placing of a historic marker on the Old Fort, which was erected by the British in 1712, under the joint auspices of the Mackinac Island Park Commission and the Michigan Historical Commission.

Distinguished and historic persons in addition to the Dedication officials will join the Saturday ceremonies on the Mackinac Bridge at noon. His Excellency, Henri Courtemanche, P.C., M. P., the secretary of state for the Dominion of Canada, has accepted the invitation from Governor Williams to be Canada's official representative at the dedication.

He and Mrs. Courtemanche will be the Governor's guests at the summer mansion on Mackinac Island. By a happy coincidence, His Excellency is reported by Canadian archivists to be a descendant of explorer Jean Nicolet, although he personally makes no such claims.

Another distinguished visitor expected will be John Jacob Astor III, whose ancestor founded the American Fur Company on Mackinac Island early in the 19th Century, and was Michigan's first "big business" man, doing a volume of over $3,000,000 annually from his Mackinac Island fur headquarters.

Astor will be accompanied by his son, William Astor and daughter-in-law. Young Astor is a student at Rollins College in Florida where he is preparing for a career in government service.

Of especial interest is the announcement that the famous Interlochen Orchestra from the National Music Camp will perform at the festival Friday, June 27, at 4 p.m. from the band stand on Dock 3 at St. Ignace.

At the Ag-rama in the fair grounds at Cheboygan there will be two full days, June 26 and 27, of entertainment and education sponsored by the Festival Agricultural Committee and the Tourist Committee. Drill teams, folk dancers, horse shows, music, 4-H Club demonstrations, Detroit Mounted Police drill, the Chrysler Highlanders Bagpipers and many other acts will feature the agricultural day time show.

Evening shows at the Ag-rama by the Tourist Committee wil feature the Chapel Lake Indian Ceremony, the Chippewa Peace Pipe Ritual and Contest Dance of the Braves; also machine gun and side arms demonstrations by Lieutenant Lester Coykendall of the Michigan State Police, a nationally famous firearms expert.

Some food vendors, at least, we are told, will have some of Upper Michigan's famous pastys. Here is some pasty history which may be of interest.

In 1486, in the West of England, a Cornish housewife experimented in her 15th Century-modern kitchen with its swept dirt floor, scrubbed stone walls, and spits and copper caldrons gleaming in the firelight of her great cooking fireplace, and she made the first pasty.

It was so good that it not only has lasted 472 years and is still going strong in Cornwall, but it has been traditional in Michigan's Upper Peninsula ever since the boom mining days of the roaring 1880s when Cornish families migrated to the Upper Peninsula and brought with them the Pasty recipe.

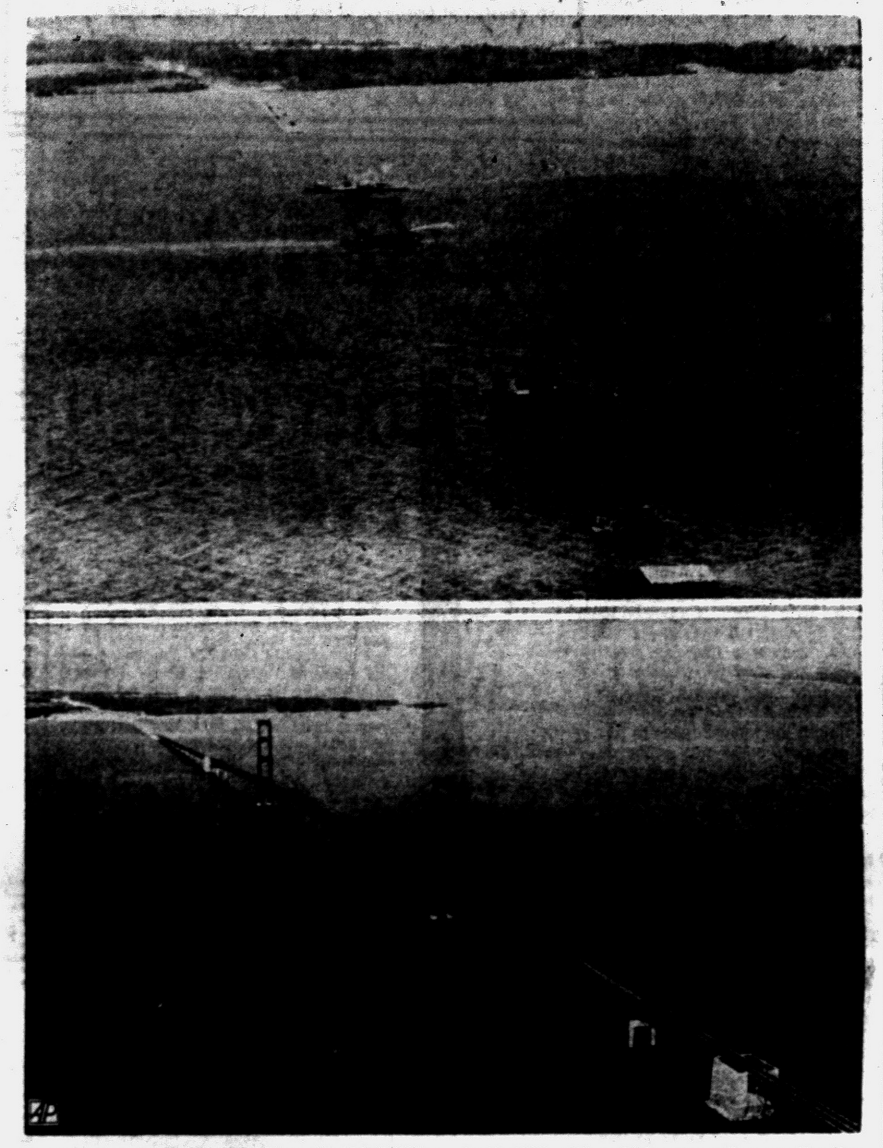

The 20th Century version which is giving that old favorite, the hot dog, a run for its mustard, is the size and shape of a hot dog — but instead of a roll around a wiener, (as are all pastys) is is crisp pie crust around steaming beef, vegetables and potatoes all nicely seasoned.

The Cornish miners called it a hot-meal-in-a-hand, because that is what it was, and thy wrapped it in newspapers where it stayed hot in the bottom of the mines until lunch when they needed more than a cold sandwich.

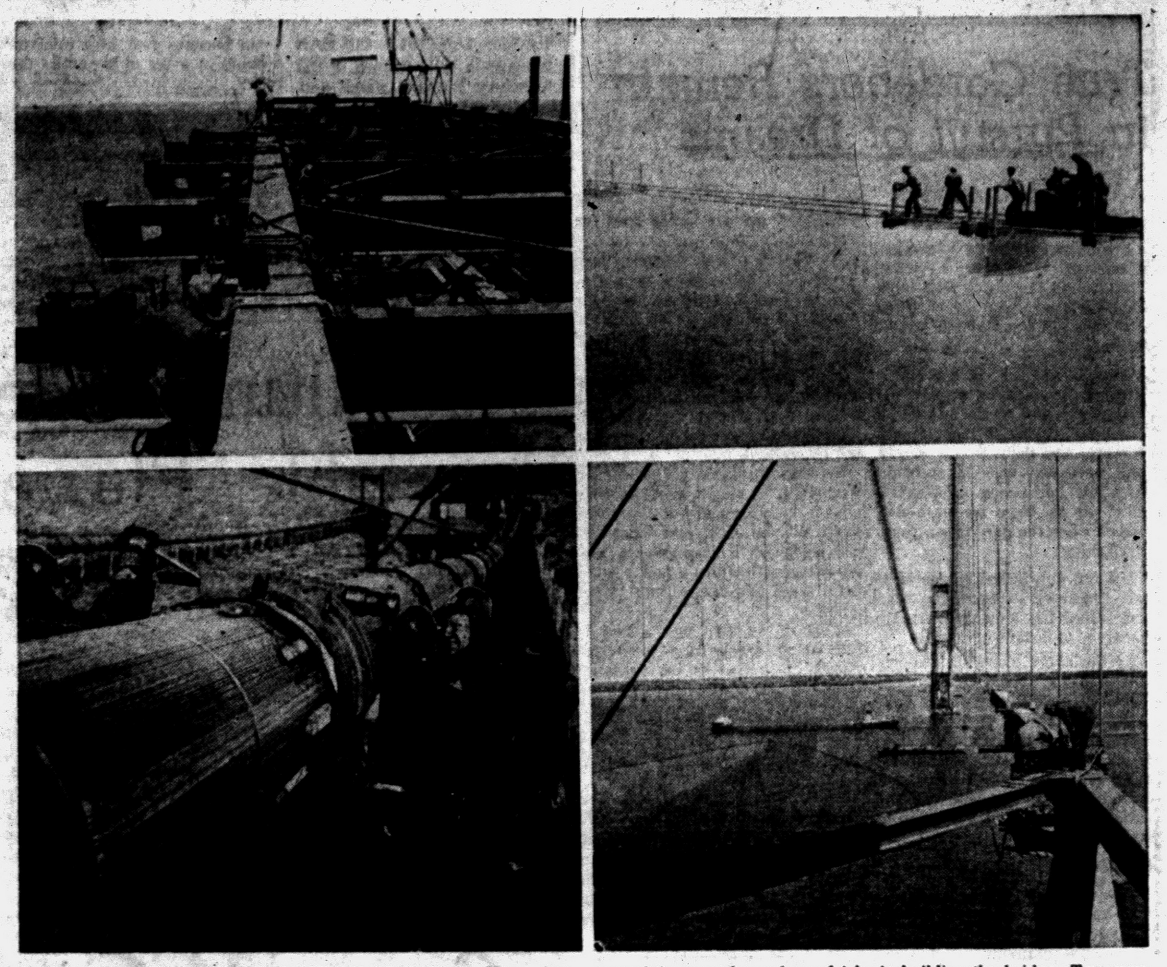

Members of the Lake Carriers Association whose ships will be in the area during the Festival days are expected to give salutes to the Bridge and celebrants as they pass under the Bridge.

Festival Committee workers are entusiastic about Festival plans and promise visitors a great show, lots of fun and something to be remembered. These listed are just a few.

AND NOW IT'S FINISHED — Top photo shows the great bridge at the Straits of Mackinac in April 1954 as caissons of steel were sunk — some of them to a depth of 200 feet in bedrock — and filled with concrete. Bottom photo was made from almost the same spot in the air in April 1958 with vehicles operating on its five-mile length, saving hours on the trip between Michigan's two peninsulas. The bridge has been in operation since November, 1957, but will be dedicated in ceremonies next weekend, June 25 to 28.

MEN WHO BUILT THE MACKINAC BRIDGE — Here, in four photographs, are some of the men who risked their lives to build the $100,000,000 Mackinac Bridge. Five workers lost their lives before the bridge was completed. Top left: Steelworkers bolting and riveting sections of steel together as the approaches snaked out over the Straits. Even here, near the shoreline, they worked at considerable heights over the water. Top right: The workmen stretch wire screen catwalk between the main towers — one of the most hazardous of jobs in building the bridge. Two men lost their lives in this operation when the catwalk gave way. Bottom left: Steelworkers tighten clamps on the main cables after they were spun between main towers that soared more than 500 feet above the water of the Straits. Bottom right: Business as usual with ore boats 150 feet below the workers as they attach suspender cables, strung from main cables aloft, to steel beams in the suspension section of the bridge.

Some Like, Others Dislike St. Lawrence Toll Fees

OTTAWA (AP)—First reactions to proposed shipping tolls for the St. Lawrence Seaway are sharply divided in Canada and the U.S.

The proposed tolls, giving a break to some Canadian and U.S. operators for the seaway's 50-year payoff period, were made public by Transport Minister George Hees.

RATES SUPPORTED

The U.S. Lake Shippers Assn. at Chicago and the Canadian Shipowners' Assn. here said the rates were reasonable and suitable. In Commons, support also was expressed. However, the Dominion Marine Assn. at Toronto voiced strong opposition, saying the toll charges would "kill trade."

The tolls must be approved by the seaway agencies and the Canadian and U.S. governments. They would provide a lower rate for domestic package freight than for foreign shipping of the same type.

Canadian package freight on the lake and river system now runs to an estimated 500,000 tons a year, a relatively small part of the traffic.

The Welland Canal linking Lakes Ontario and Erie now carries around 23 million tons a year, and the St. Lawrence River canal system about 13 million tons.

Under a rate system proposed by toll committees of Canada's Seaway Authority and the U.S. Seaway Development Corp., package freight between Canadian points and between U.S. points would get the same rate as bulk cargo. This is less than half that of general cargo.

The Canadian committee, in a report tabled in the House of Commons by Hees, said the lower rate is necessary to enable waterborne package freight to compete with rail and truck carriers operating along parallel routes.

The committee, with agreement of the U.S. committee, proposed these tolls:

1. Between Montreal and Lake Ontario, four cents a ton on a vessel's fross registered tonnage plus 40 cents a ton on bulk cargo and 90 cents a ton on general cargo. For partial transit on this stretch that has seven locks, 15 per cent of the total toll for each lock.

2. For the Welland Canal, two cents a registered ton plus two cents a ton of bulk cargo and five cents per ton of general cargo. A partial transit will be assessed half the total regardless of the number of locks used.

3. A charge of 50 cents per commercial passenger for each lock.

4. Pleasure craft will pay a minimum $2 per lock.

First reaction to the proposed tolls, which would go into effect when the seaway opens in the 1959 navigation season, was favorable.

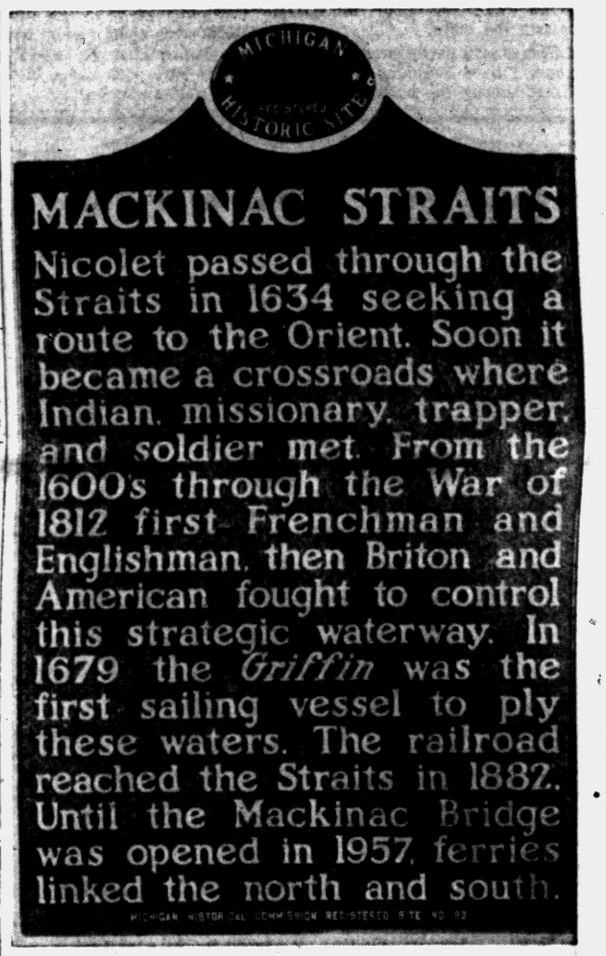

The tolls are aimed at wiping off the estimated 471 million dollar Canada-U.S. investment in 50 years and paying for operatpon and maintenance costs. The capital cost is being shared on the basis of 340 million dollars by the United States.

Tolls will be divided up in the same ratio. Over the 50 years they would be expected to yield an average of $20,800,000 a year to Canada and $7,200,000 to the U.S.

Canada will do the collecting, retaining all income from the all-Canadian Welland Canall and dividing the other tolls with the United States.

HISTORICAL MARKER — Visitors to the dedication of the Mackinac Bridge will find this marker, which records the history of the famous Straits. The marker was placed by the Michigan Historical Commission to trace the history of the Straits from 1634 to 1957.

Says Housing Available for Bridge Dedication

MACKINAC BRIDGE (UPI) — Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, reported today that a good supply of housing accommodations are still available in the Straits area for the bridge dedication, despite rumors and reports of a shortage.

Brown made his report following a personal canvass of the accommodations situation in the area for the Mackinac Bridge Dedication Festival. This canvass took in Sault Ste. Marie, St. Ignace, Mackinaw City, Cheboygan, Petosky, Charlevoix, Indian River and Harbor Springs.

Expect Huge Crush at Straits

Troopers to Handle Jams

STRAITS OF MACKINAC BRIDGE (UP)—Take half a million people, most of them in automobiles and all of them in a festive mood, and plunk them down in a few square miles of territory bordering the Straits of Mackinac.

If the weather's nice, that's the situation that likely will challenge Michigan State Police when the crowds gather for dedication of the 100-million-dollar Straits bridge next week.

Come what may, Capt. Fred Davids says his men will be ready to handle probably the biggest crush of traffic the Straits has ever known.

"Unless we do, people who get caught in traffic jams will never want to see the bridge again, and we can't have that," said Davids.

Eighty Troopers from State Police posts across the state have been assigned to control traffic during the three-day celebration. That's in addition to men stationed at St. Ignace and Cheboygan posts.

Working with members of the Bridge Authority, the dedication committee and local officials, Davids spent three weeks laying out a plan to keep traffic flowing smoothly.

Each man will be assigned to one location for the three days, and he'll get no relief.

From mid-morning till late at night, he'll be expected to man his post except when traffic volume is light.

"Despite those rough hours, we had no trouble getting volunteers," said Davids. "This assignment will give many Troopers their first look at the bridge and an opportunity to see friends from other posts."

Besides handling the regular flow of traffic, State Police will escort the 83 county queens to and from a Sault Ste. Marie dormitory once a day.

They'll also keep crowds in check at big parades planned for St. Ignace and Mackinaw City and handle a myriad other traffic chores.

If all goes well, non-resident Troopers will set up headquarters on the state-owned ferry Vacationland. Along with four other ferries in the state-owned fleet it went out of service with the opening of the bridge last November.

Million and Half Stamps Ready for Mackinac Sale

STRAITS OF MACKINAC BRIDGE (AP) — Thanks to a three-cent postage stamp, some three dozen men and women will go on the federal payroll in St. Ignace and Mackinaw City next week.

That's how many people it'll take to handle the expected crush of mail brought on by issuance of a stamp commemorating the dedication of the Straits of Mackinaw Bridge June 26-28.

Any new commemorative stamp brings requests from thousands of stamp collectors the world over for first-day issues and envelopes carrying the postmark of the site depicted on the stamp.

Postal authorities said 1½ million of the blueish-green stamps will go on sale here Wednesday just after a luncheon honoring Postmaster Gen. Arthur E. Summerfield.

Dedication ceremonies don't start officially till the following day but Summerfield, a Michigan man, will arrive Wednesday for the stamp send-off.

While dedication festivities are going on, 150 million of the stamps will go on sale at postoffices throughout the country.

At the direction of Gov. Williams, state agencies in Lansing will get 50,000 of them next Thursday for use on state mailings through the summer months.

The stamp gives a ground view of the 100-million-dollar bridge and focuses on the 7,300-foot suspension span between the two towers. An ore boat, the type of craft most frequently seen in the straits, is shown passing under the central span.

Using Kalamazoo Canoe

To Re-Enact Nicolet's Trip

Kalamazoo was awarded a Festival distinction when out of a flood of offers from all over Michigan, the Midwest and even Ontario and Quebec, the 13-foot birch bark canoe owned by Celer Stafford of the Stafford Marine Supply Co. of Kalamazoo was chosen for the Nicolet Ceremony at the Straits.

Stafford is also exhibiting in the boat show at the Straits. The canoe will be used in a re-enactment of Jean Nicolet's trip through the Straits in 1634, when he wore a colrful Mandarin costume because he thought China, instead of Wisconsin, was west of the Straits.

To play the role of Nicolet the Festival Committee was fortunate to secure Ralph Sawyer of the world's champion team long distance canoe racers.

Assisting him, as a coureur de bois of the period, will be his team champion partner, 2nd Lt. Tom Gildersleeve, who is also his partner in business. Both are from Oscoda.

The Nicolet ceremony will be at 10 a.m. starting from the shore of Old Fort Michilemackinac in Mackinaw City, near the Bridge. Simultaneously from the other side of the bridge, two stalwart Indian canoe men in full regalia will set out in another birch bark canoe laden with Beaver skins loaned by the Silberman Fur Corp. of Chicago and New York.

They plan to meet Nicolet under the bridge. To add a 20th-Century touch to 17th-Century history, it is expected the Air Force will fly over in a jet formation.

Bloomfield Hills Gardener Tells of Tree Benefits

By MRS. LESTER A. COLMAN
Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn., Inc.

(This is the seventh in a series of articles by a member of one of the 27 branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn., Inc., throughout the area which will be printed on the farm and garden pages this year.)

A bare hill, such as the one on our property seven years ago, can become your own miniature woods — a joy to the entire family.

Trees are a definite beauty aid to the home. Although one may not have the time to spray scrub apple trees sufficiently to bare edible fruit, their beauty alone provides pleasure for all.

Walnut trees are another good tree around the home. When they produce nuts they too offer enjoyment for the family during the picking and eating.

Dogwood, tulip trees and the Paul Scarlet thorne tree offer a wide variety of color to your yard. Fruit trees also attract the lovely birds in the area.

Growing trees from seed can also be fun. A good experiment would be to start with a horse chestnut or white peach tree.

Evergreens grown from seedlings are another joy for the gardner. Colorado blue, spruce, black hill spruce and balsam fir are a few suggestions.

These make lovely gifts for friends who are moving into their new home. Eventually they should grow large enough to be used for Christmas greens also.

A variety of trees on your property adds interest and become a challenge to the owner. Here is a list of the ones we have planted on our property in hopes of having a two acre woods.

The area includes: Pin oak, American beech, tulip tree, Crimson King maple, (which is red all season); Shagbark hickory, English walnut, black alder, hard maple, sugar maple, white birch, elm, flowering crab, flowering quince, Douglas fir, Norway spruce, Austrian pince, Colorado blue and black hill spruce.

The tree book which I enjoy most in learning about my trees is "Knowing Your Trees," by G. H. Collingwood, published by the American Forestry Assn.

True Gardeners Remain in Pursuit of Dreams

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
(AP) Newsfeatures Writer

A gardener's life is a constant pursuit of a dream: a garden vibrant and beautiful with color and fragrance from early spring to the final killing frosts of the late autumn.

This is not an easy achievement. It involves the use of flowering trees and shrubs as well as perennial, biennial and annual flowers. And there lives scarcely one gardener who is satisfied with his succession of blooms. Most of us have at least one period when the garden is a poor, drab thing.

My own dull period comes in the early summer — after the roses and before the annuals start producing a profusion of flowers.

As the early blooming material disappears, it should ideally be replaced by such sturdy and easy-to-grow blooms as cosmos, zinnia, marigold, scabiosa, California poppy, cleome, petunia, ageratum and many others. Then along comes calendula, dahlia, asters, chrysanthemum and a host of others for late color.

LET FOLIAGE DIE

The problem of the early summer garden is frequently directly traceable to the spring — flowering bulbs — daffodils, hyacinth and tulip. It is necessary to permit the foliage of these to die down in order to produce bloom the next year, and in the process of withering, the garden beds in which they grow are an unsightly mess. I try to cope with the problem by bending the foliage down in rows and pinning it to the ground with a series of light wire wickets. And I plant early blooming material among the bulbs.

This is only partly successful because I have forget-me-not established among the bulbs and they too must have a die-down period when they are producing seed for next year's crop.

Sometimes I think the best place for bulbs is mixed with pachysandra. Or I would seriously consider massing them in a border all their own and then ignoring them for the rest of the season.

The trouble with naturalizing bulbs in an area outside a garden bed is that during the die-down period, the grass around them can not be mowed.

In this business of producing succession of bloom, the gardener always is looking ahead at least a year. Hollyhocks started this year, are designed to bloom next; perennials, particularly when started from seed, take some time to get going.

Most of us can only afford to buy small shrubs and trees—the larger ones are not only proportionately more expensive, but too much for one gardener to handle.

Kill Vining Weeds

Chickweed, Speedwell and Veronica succumb to Scutl or 4-XD now that the soil is warmer. Though probably not as conspicuous as earlier in the spring, chickweed should be banished during this time when it is easiest to eliminate.

Horticultural Agent Suggests Fruit, Vegetable, Flowers Growing Tips

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
County Horticultural Agent

The following are a few home vegetable, flower and fruit growing hints:

Asparagus yields can be greatly increased by extra fertilizer.

Many home gardeners find their asparagus plants seem to run out or quit producing the large fat spears they had previously. Yet we know some plants seem to improve with age. The difference is often in the fertilizing.

Two applications of 10-10-10 fertilizer during the growing season really pay off. At the rate of 1½ pounds per 100 square feet, an application in early April before spears appear and again in mid-June seem most effective. At these times a shallow cultivation works the fertilizer into the soil and destroys weeds. Where straw mulch is used to control weeds, spread the fertilizer, but do not cultivate or disturb the straw.

When do you stop picking? The size of spears will gradually get smaller as the season progresses. When they are down to pencil size, stop harvesting. This is usually around June 15 but varies with vigor of planting.

At this time, spread your fertilizer and make last cultivation. From this period on allow all new spears to develop into normal fern growth. Do not disturb this fern growth until it is killed by frost.

Rhubarb is still a garden favorite. Have you been asked by your wife, "Why does the rhubarb next door seem to be bigger and more juicy than ours?" I must admit I have, and the answer proves to be a combination of good practices.

Probably the most important of these is plenty of fertilizer. This is one crop where plenty of barnyard manure can't be beat. A generous amount should be used as a top dressing every spring. If it is well rotted, it will probably pay to add fertilizer as well. Two pounds of 10-10-10 per 100 square feet in early April is most satisfactory. Where manure is not available, use 10-10-10 at the rate of ½-½ pound per hill in early April when light cultivating is being done.

Many have problems with seed stalks developing, but one should not worry. Break or cut these out as quickly as they appear. If not, the energy goes into these stalks and no new leaves develop.

If you have an especially productive or "sweet" plant, you may want to divide it and make a new planting. This dividing is done during the fall or early spring. Lift the whole crown and cut it onto many sections so a large bud and some roots are on each section. Promptly replant these divisions in your row. No harvesting should be done until the plant is two years old.

Tulips, hyacinths and daffodils soon to become dormant. Now that these faithful plants have passed their bloom, lets not be too quick to chop off the leaves and stalks. It is true that one should remove the seed pod or else the bulb may not develop quite as well. From the time the blossoms open until the foliage starts to turn yellow, new bulbs are being developed. If anything happens to the leaves during this period the bulbs are always smaller.

With tulips and hyacinths, this bulb development period is usually three weeks. When the leaves begin to turn gray, pull it out because the bulb is ripe and going dormant. If you are leaving the bulbs for another year, just jerk up on the stalk and it will snap off at the bulb without harming it. If you are planning on lifting them, do so at that time and lay the bulb and stalk away to dry. Replant your bulbs in August or by mid-September.

With daffodils, the foliage is hard to jerk out. It may be more safe to cut it off.

Ever have plums and peaches that would not bear fruit? Many back-yard fruit projects seem to be a discouraging failure because of the pesky plum curculio. Have you had fruit trees that seemed loaded with fruit every spring yet every one would drop off as soon as warm weather arrived?

An insect, the plum curculio, is the cause of this fruit drop, and is busy doing the damage right at this time. This insect gives "the sting of death" to young, tender fruits of peaches, plums and apples. This sting looks like a half-moon cut in the young fruit. If this young fruit is cut open, a worm is always found which will soon cause the fruit to drop.

Roselawn Dr., a retired Pontiac fireman. More than 1,500 roses are on the bushes which have been on the side of Ott's home for 25 years.

Garden Tip

MANGUM, Okla. (AP) — A sharp drop in temperature occurred just after Gordon Thomason planted a number of rose bushes.

He hooked up his electric blanket, spread it over the roses and then covered it with a canvas. The roses weathered the cold wave unharmed.

National Champ Leads With 69 in Flint Open

Only 7 of 140 Golfers Shoot Sub-Par on Long Warwick Hills Course

By BILL CORNWELL

GRAND BLANC — Somebody forgot to tell Tommy Bolt that he's supposed to suffer a letdown after winning the National Open Golf championship.

Tradition has it that a golfer doesn't play too well for a spell after he wins the U.S. Open. Gaining the Open crown takes a lot out of you, the story goes, and the strain hurts your game for a little while.

Some kind soul better wise up the reformed Mr. Bolt immediately or he'll be leaving this neck of the woods on Sunday night with another victory and $9,000 in his pocket.

The $52,000 Flint Open tournament began its four-day, 72-hole run here Thursday at Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club and the way Bolt played golf, that old story sounds like so much hokem.

Bolt defied tradition, Warwick's huge 7,280-yard course and 139 other golfers by shooting a three-under-par 69 yesterday to seize a one-stroke edge in the rich Flint tourney.

Bill Casper Jr., the stocky young professional from Apple Valley, Calif., held 2nd place with 70 after muffing a chance to tie Bolt for the lead by missing a three-foot putt on the 18th green.

There was a five-way deadlock for 3rd spot at 71 among Western Open champion Doug Sanders, long-hitting George Bayer, veteran Ted Kroll, Gene Littler and Tom Nieporte. Eight other pros, including Utica's Max Evans, came next with par 72's.

Bolt, the explosive-tempered Chattanooga pro who is liable to wrap his club around an elm tree one moment and wear a halo the next, was all smiles, peace and good will at the end of yesterday's opening 18-hole round.

Whether it's momentum provided by his newly-won Open title or his "new" disposition or both, the fact remains that the 39-year-old Bolt shot superb golf.

Tommy's scorecard read 34-35 compared to par 36-36. His 34 included birdies on the 1st, 2nd, 6th and 7th holes and a double-bogey five at No. 8. Coming home he birdied Nos. 14 and 15 and took a bogey five on the 10th hole.

He had a total of six "birds" and seven one-putt greens for his day's work. Only twice did he miss the green in regulation.

Casper fired three birdies and a bogey on the front nine for 34 and had one of each on the back side to card 36. His bogey five at the 18th where he two-putted from three feet cost him a chance to catch Bolt.

Of the quintet bracketed at 71, Kroll was the steadiest, reaching the last 17 greens in regulation while scoring 17 pars and one birdie.

Sanders missed just two greens, never found the rough off the tee and posted two birdies. Littler shot four birdies, Bayer collected three of them and Nieporte's round included a 40-foot putt for an eagle three on the 595-yard 7th hole.

Evans paced the Michigan delegation with his even par 72. Rochester's Jack Fleck fired 73, Joe Zakarian of Detroit had 74, Pontiac's Gene Bone carded 75 and Wally Burkemo, Tommy Shannon, Eldon Briggs and Lou Powers were tied at 76.

Leading the field's 11 amateurs into today's 18-hole session was young John G. Miles of Birmingham, a magazine advertising salesman. Miles went around in 40-37—77.

Chisox' Pitching Shines, but They're Still in 7th

By the Associated Press

Okay, so Al Lopez has made his point. Those winter trades that peddled power for pitching have helped give his Chicago White Sox four shutouts in five games. But they're still seventh in the American League race, 11½ games behind.

Jim Wilson, Dick Donovan and Billy Pierce, three old hands, pitched consecutive shutouts, and after taking a five-home run pounding from Boston Wednesday, the White Sox beat the Red Sox 4-0 yesterday on the two-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

The veteran right-hander, acquired from Cleveland, now has a pair of two-hitters for the season, and owns half of the six shutouts bagged by the Chicago staff. Yesterday's showpiece, in which he faced but 30 men and didn't give up a hit after the sixth, was his 36th major league shutout and his 10th two-hitter in the big-time.

Yet the White Sox didn't gain an inch on the first place New York Yankees, who rapped five homers and beat Cleveland 9-3 for a three-game sweep that left 'em nine games ahead of second place Boston. Washington junked its slump at five games, and ended Detroit's winning string at five, with a 4-3 decision. Baltimore jumped into fifth with a 4-2 victory at Kansas City.

Andy Carey hit two of the Yankee homers, giving him a total of eight. Both were off reliever Bob Lemon. Home runs by Enos Slaughter and Elston Howard gave New York a 3-0 lead in the second against rookie Gary Bell, who lost his first in three decisions. Hank Bauer got the other Yank homer, while Rocky Colavito hit his 11th, with one on, in the ninth for the Indians. Johnny Kucks (5-3) went all the way with an eight-hitter—after losing both games of a June 8 doubleheader in his last try against the Injuns.

The Orioles, in last place before sweeping three at Kansas City, took it on Gene Woodling's two-run homer in the eighth off Ned Garver, who has lost three in a row. Ken Lehman won it in relief for the Birds, now just a half-game out of third and two shy of second.

Tigers Go After Yankees Again

Bengals Out to Start New Win Streak After 4-3 Loss to Nats

DETROIT (AP) — It was a tough one to lose, said Bill Norman, and things are due to get tougher for his Detroit Tigers.

The New York Yankee juggernaut is rolling once more. Tonight it stops at Briggs Stadium for the first of a three-game series.

The Yankees are fresh from an easy three-game sweep at Cleveland in the wake of Detroit's four victories over them last weekend at New York.

The Tigers, meanwhile, came down from the clouds a bit yesterday. The last place Washington Senators beat them 4-3 after the Tigers had a good chance to pull out the game in the ninth.

"We could have won it," said Norman, who hates losing. "That pitcher's bloop hit killed us. But we gave those fans a good ripple for their money. We would have been .500 if we won."

The defeat was only the Tigers' second in nine games since Norman took over the managerial reins. It ended a 5-game Tiger winning streak and was Washington's first victory in six games.

Russ Kemmerer hit the blooper that haunted Norman. He scored what proved to be the deciding run in the top of the ninth when Albie Pearson followed with a triple. Pearson's double was the key hit in Washington's two-run seventh inning flurry that ended a pitching duel between Kemmerer and Paul Foytack.

The Tigers had the potential tying and winning runs on base when Billy Martin grounded out to end the game. Behind three runs in the ninth, Frank Bolling started the inning off with a single, only Detroit's fourth hit of the game. But he was erased when Ozzie Virgil bounced into a double play. Harvey Kuenn sent Kemmerer to the showers with a long double to center. Dick Hyde, a submarine balling reliefer, immediately got himself in trouble.

He dropped Roy Sievers' wide throw at first base on Charlie Maxwell's grounder as Kuenn scored on what could have been the final out. Then Al Kaline and Gail Harris touched Hyde for singles, scoring Maxwell, but Martin grounded to third baseman Eddie Yost killing the Tigers' hopes.

Kaline, who hit safely in his 16th straight game for a personal record, drove in Virgil with a sacrifice fly for the Tigers' first run in the fourth. It evened the score at 1-1 after Clint Courtney smashed a home run in the second.

"Foytack's pitching was okay," Norman said. "He hadn't pitched that far for a long time. His arm was all right."

Tonight's game will be a rematch of last Sunday's second game. Jim Bunning, who hurled a 3-0 shutout, will vie with Bob Turley, the Yankees' ace. Fireballer Turley has a 10-2 record. He set down the Tigers in a night game here last month. Bunning's log is 4-5.

Bonus Figures to Reach $3,000,000

Math Fine -- but There's $$$ in Baseball

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don't worry about the math and history marks, pop. The report card isn't everything. Raise your boy to be a baseball player and his pockets will be lined with $100 bills and a gold sports car will be parked out front.

Since the major leagues chucked the bonsu rule out the window last December, scouts have been competing with the TV gifts shows. They descend in hordes on graduation night and woe to the poor fellow whose pen runs dry.

Your guess is as good as the next on the total amount. One baseball man recently estimated that $3,000,000 would be dished out in bonus payments before the season is over.

Baseball people always are squeamish about talking of money. Their press agent ususally will give an off-the-record "but don't say you got it from me" estimate when a holdout signs. But it's hush hush about the bonus.

The most celebrated case since the death of the bonus rule (which restricted the movement of players who got more than $4,000 to sign) was the Dave Nicholson signing. Baltimore finally won the battle in St. Louis. Usually they set the figure at $100,000 but it has been printed as high as $125,000 and as low as $67,000. In any event it was a hefty sum for a high school outfielder who now is in Wilson, N. C. in the class B Carolina League.

Don't get the idea that Baltimore is alone in the field. Milwaukee has been shucking out wads of cash to corral such men as Denny Menke, a teen age shortstop from Bancroft, Iowa, high for $100,000.

Nobody can be sure who holds the all-time record. Frank Baumann, now with Boston, retorpedly was paid $125,000 and they tossed the $100,000 figure around when Pittsburgh signed Paul Pettit and Cleveland got Billy Joe Davidson. Things have changed since Detroit startled the baseball world by signing Dick Wakefield for $52,000.

The New York Yankees never pay a big bonus. They may have gone close to $50,000 for Dale Zeigler, a Southern California left-handed pitcher. Boston also is very close with its figures but estimates from the press say the Red Sox paid from $60,000 to $75,000 each for baseman Ken Knutson 18, of Iowa, shortstop Al Moran, 19, of Michigan State and Pitcher Don Schwall, 21, an Oklahoma basketball star.

The White Sox reportedly gave $50,000 to Paul Higgs, a 17-year-old outfielder signed June 16 and have 19 youngsters in the $4,000-plus bracket. Washington went as high as $25,000 for Ron Debelius, 19-year-old third baseman from Marquette, and Detroit paid over $25,000 to left-handed pitcher Doug Gallagher, 18, of Fremont, Ohio.

USC Baseball Champ

OMAHA (AP) — Southern California rules today as the champions of the college baseball world after having taken the long road to the throne.

The Trojans grabbed the NCAA World Series title last night by beating Missouri 8-7, the second win in two nights over the Big Eight Conference champions.

Cleaners 'Clean Up'

Berg Cleaners handed Johnson & Anderson a 19-9 thrashing Thursday in a Waterford Little League softball game at Drayton Plains. Waters and Dawe each made three hits for the winners. Play was stopped after five innings by the 10-run rule.

Milwaukee Pitching Star Loses 3rd Straight

Slump Epidemic Hits Spahn

By The Associated Press

First Stan Musial. Then Willie Mays. Now it's Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's standout southpaw, who has been hit by the slump epidemic that's sweeping the National League.

Spahnie, one of the all-time great left-handers, was off on a streak in pursuit of his ninth season of 20 or more victories. He set the major league pitching pace for six victories, then was the first to win eight, May 31.

He hasn't won since.

He lost his third in a row last night, again beaten by a gopher ball, as the Chicago Cubs hammered four home runs for a 5-4 decision that held the Braves' first-place edge to two games. Rookie Tony Taylor's first major league homer was the clincher in the ninth.

It was the 11th homer given up by Spahn in the three-game slump, nine of 'em by the Cubs—who started his skid with five home runs in a 9-6 decision June 10.

Second place San Francisco — with Mays sent to a New York hospital for a check-up — was beaten 6-5 at Pittsburgh. Philadelphia rapped Los Angeles 9-3. Cincinnati and St. Louis were idled by rain.

Spahn, now 8-4 has given up 18 home runs this season, 14 of them in the games he lost. He allowed only 23 homers all last year.

Walt Moryn, who now has hit 15, counted a pair off Spahn last night and Al Dark got the other. But it was Taylor who was in Spahn's hair from start to finish. He stole home for a 1-0 lead in the first inning, then cracked a 4-4 tie with his homer that chased Spahn with one out in the ninth.

Spahn, whose single was the only hit off Cub starter John Briggs for three innings, made his 20th career home run, first of the year, good for two runs as the Braves took a 3-2 lead in the fourth. Right hander Glen Hobbie, third Cub pitcher, squared his record at 5-5, blanking the Braves on three hits in his four innings. The former starter now has a string of 17 shutout relief innings—12 of them against Milwaukee.

Right-hander Ray Semproch won his eighth for the Phils and had a no-hitter for 6 1-3 innings. He had a three-hit shutout until the ninth, when Joe Pignatano, who hit his first major league homer Wednesday, socked No. 2 and Duke Snider belted his fifth. Stan Lopata hit a three-run homer in the first and the Phils then scored five in the third with six consecutive hits off starter-loser Johnny Podres (7-5) and Don Drysdale. Bob Bowman was 4-for-4 for the Phils, one his second homer.

Southpaw Don Gross fanned pinch-hitter Jim Finigan to save Ronnie Kline's seventh victory for the Pirates after the Giants had scored three in the ninth, two on rookie Bob Schmidt's ninth homer. The Pirates beat Al Worthington (5-3) with four in the seventh, triggered by Bob Skinner's two-run sixth homer.

AAU Meet Starts Tonight

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — The 70th annual National AAU Track and Field Championships get under way tonight with some 400 athletes competing for prestige and one of the plum trips abroad this summer.

Mixed with the Yankee contestants are several noted foreign performers, headed by mile runners Herb Elliott and Merv Lincoln of Australia, each hoping to break fellow Aussie John Landy's 3:58 world record for the mile.

The final is set for 10:55 p.m. EST tomorrow night with qualifying heats tonight.

Biggest target of the summer tours is a meet with Russia at Moscow next month. The first two American finishers in each event qualify for the squad.

Sprinter Bobby Morrow, broad jumper Greg Bell and discus thrower Al Oerter have indicated that they may not want to go to Moscow because of personal obligations at home.

Elliott and Lincoln are heavily favored to run one-two in the mile. But Don Bowden of the University of California, lone American to break four minutes will run in the mile instead of the 880 yard event.

Bowden gives the event added punch as he tries to redeem himself for his fourth place finish to Ron Delany, Jim Grelle of Oregon and Gail Hodgson of Oklahoma in the NCAA last week.

Morrow rates the favorite in the 100 over Ira Murchison, Western Michigan; Ray Norton, San Jose; Ed Collymore, villanova, and other sprinters.

Elias Gilbert and Francis Washington, Winston-Salem, rate one-two in the high hurdles. Hayes Jones of Pontiac is also in the hurdle event. Parry O'Brien should maintain his mastery in the shot-put, and the high jump poses a question.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Putting Troubles

DIAGNOSIS: Negative Approach.

Treatment: There are two ways to look at a problem in putting. One is to look at the number of ways the putt can be missed—short, long, left, right.

The other is to look for the way the putt can be made. This is the positive approach that results in making putts.

Picture the speed at which the ball will be rolling at various stages along the line. In short, try to get a mental picture of a perfect putt.

Once you've done this, don't fool around. Take your stance, give it a final sighting, and stroke away.

Publinx Meet Enters Semifinals

Possibility Is Strong to Have Pontiac Champ

Three of 4 Semifinal Players Saturday at PCC From City

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Four semi-finalists will return to match play Saturday morning in the bid for the State Publinx Championship at Pontiac Country Club, and odds strongly favor an all-Pontiac finale Sunday.

Three Pontiac golfers, Mike Andonian, Wally Smith and Paul Bada along with Doug Wilson of Ypsilanti will begin their 36-hole trek at 7:00 a.m. tomorrow.

Andonian, looking for his third straight publinx title, faces Wilson who put together some hot rounds last weekend during which time he eliminated state amateur champion Lloyd Syron.

Smith, who along with Andonian qualified for the National Public Links tournament, will face Bada, the tourney medalist in the other match.

The winners will then meet in 36-holes match play on Sunday.

Smith, a 41-year-old Royal Oak policeman, has been the top sub-par shooter of the tournament. After four rounds he stands at 14 under par.

He easily took care of Jim Briegal of Ann Arbor 3 and 2 and Charles Barker of Pontiac, 7 and 6 last Sunday.

Bada however had difficulties in winning his matches. He went the entire route before defeating Dick Preston 1-up, and then was forced to the 19th hole to beat George Dicesore.

Andonian could have trouble with Wilson whose six straight birdies spelled doom for Syron, 3 and 2. He was 7-under for the round and Syron was 5-under.

Should a showdown arise between city champion Bada and Andonian observers feel that Bada could win the match because he seems to hold somewhat of a jinx over the publinx champ.

They met in the playoff for the city title last year and Bada won out.

CATCH IT, SISTER — One of the 400 Cleveland Diocese nuns who attended the Yankee-Indian game yesterday stretches for a foul ball. When she dropped it the bat boy gave it back to her. Only one nun was a Yankee fan, so she had to sit in the last row and when the Yankees learned of this they presented her with an autographed baseball. She outcheered the other 399 to a 9-3 Yank victory.

Jets Win, 6-0, Behind Cloonan

Behind the four-hit shutout hurling of Richard Cloonan, Our Jets breezed to a 6-0 victory over Griff's Grill yesterday in a Class A City League baseball game at Wisner Field.

Jerry Kruskie, Griff's starting pitcher, yielded two runs in the 1st inning, then fired scoreless ball until the 7th when the Jets drove him to the showers with four insurance runs. Bill McGuire came to the mound and retired the side.

Cloonan struck out three, walked the same number and allowed nothing beyond a single. His teammates provided seven-hit support, two apiece by Dave Simmons and Gene Cox.

Rosewall Leads Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (AP)—This is tiny Ken Rosewall's schedule in the $15,000 Tournament of Champions — Pancho Gonzales tonight, Lew Hoad tomorrow afternoon. That's a 24-hour grind against the supreme sluggers of pro tennis.

"The good players always get an easy schedule," the little Australian laughed. "I better get some sleep."

If Rosewall wins both matches, he'll grab the $3,000 brass ring in the six-match round robin. His record is 4-0 after last night's 6-3, 6-3 victory over another Assie, Rex Hartwig.

Gonzales, the pro king from Los Angeles, is 3-0 and Aussie Hoad is 3-1. Hoad stopped 37-year-old Pancho Segura, 6-2, 9-7 last night before 5,000 chilled fans while Gonzales was idle.

Of the other four pros, only Tony Trabert has an outside chance to tie for first place. He's 2-2 after an 8-6, 8-6 triumph last night over Australian Frank Sedgman, who stands 0-3. Seguar is 1-3 and Hartwig 0-4.

Realty Rallies for 12-6 Win

O'Neil Realty and the Moose in the National League and Dostal Foundry and Franklin Products in the International loop were city softball winners last night at Beaudette and North Side parks.

On the Beaudette diamond, the Moose rapped out nine hits for a 9-1 victory over the American Legion as Wilbur Wright pitched a seven-hitter and O'Neil's overcame a 6-0 deficit to outscore Deni's Corner, 12-6, in a free-hitting battle.

At North Side, Jones hurled one-hit ball as the Foundry defeated Borden's, 5-3, and the 10-run rule was invoked after six innings of the nightcap with Franklin drubbing State Hospital, 13-3.

Hagge, Dodd Lead Women

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—In golf, which asset is more valuable—accurate putting or long-ball hitting?

The question was put to a test yesterday in the 29th Women's Western Open golf tournament at the Kahkwa Country Club.

But there was no decision as Marlene Bauer Hagge and Betty Dodd shot two-under par 71s to share first place after the opening round of the 72-hole medal event.

Mrs. Hagge, the leading money winner on the women's pro tour, chipped and putted excellently, carding two birds and no bogies.

Miss Dodd, long off the tees, got close enough to four greens to get down in one under pars, but bogeyed two other holes.

Beverly Hanson, another long-hitting pro, missed a six-foot putt on the final green and lost a chance for a three-way tie. She had a 72, one stroke ahead of Jackie Pung and Wiffi Smith.

Championship and other flights will be drawn up after today's round for the final two days of play. The pros are vying for $5,000 in cash prizes. There will be trophies for amateur leaders.

Rain Halts Class B Game

Thursday's scheduled Class B City League baseball game at Jaycee Park between Boys Club and Talbott Lumber was postponed after 1½ innings because of rain. There was no score when play was halted.

Two-Run 7th Wins for Pharmacy, 4-3

Lakeland Pharmacy rallied with two runs in the bottom of the 7th inning for a 4-3 triumph over Drayton Drug A in Waterford American League softball activity last night at Drayton Plains.

After Drayton took a 3-2 lead with one run in the top of the 7th, Lakeland loaded the sacks on two walks and a single and won the game with back-to-back singles by Dick Cooper and Bill Troyer. Gene Shell of Drayton and Lakeland's Norm Jennings both pitched the distance.

In National loop action, the Pontiac Lake Merchants exploded with nine runs in the 6th stanza for an 11-8 conquest of the Eagles. There were six hits and two errors during the wild inning and 15 men batted.

Gavilan Testifies in Fight Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — Kid Gavilan former welterweight champion, testified for half an hour Thursday before a grand jury investigating suspected fixing of professional fights as the probe continued under the guidance of Alfred J. Scotti, chief assistant district attorney.

Additional testimony was given for an hour each by Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, and IBC President Truman Gibson.

Scotti said that none of these three was asked to return, but that the inquiry was continuing.

Russians Offer Help to Mideast

Oil-Producing Nations Told They Can Get Aid at Bargain Rates

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Russia has offered technicians and equipment at bargain rates to oil-producing countries in the Middle East in an obvious move to undermine Western interests and strengthen Communist influence in the strategic region, it was reported today.

Sources said the specific details of the offer, and the countries to which it had been made, were not known here. However, they said it was understood Moscow was asking only 10 per cent of the profits in exchange for its help in tapping Mideast oil resources.

Such a cut-rate deal would hurt American and British oil companies which generally have operated on a 50-50 profit-sharing basis. Recently, however, a number of contracts with Middle East countries have been negotiated to give the government involved a bigger share of the profits.

The sources said the Soviets apparently were not interested in acquiring oil from the Middle East. The offer, they suggested, was designed to widen the Communist beachhead in the region while threatening the future flow of oil to the West.

It was noted that Russia had expanded its oil production steadily under the consecutive five-year plans. In fact, in recent years the Soviet Union has been exporting oil on a modest but steadily increasing scale in competition with the West.

Only today, Argentina announced conclusion of an oil agreement with Russia for one million tons of petroleum at prices below the world market quotations.

The sources said the Soviet oil deal emphasized Moscow's determination to miss no opportunity to broaden its foothold in the Middle East.

Russians to Treat A-Bomb Survivor

Miss Nagata, petite daughter of a Nagasaki school teacher, is the first Japanese atomic victim to be invited by the Soviet Union for free treatment. Three years ago a U. S. group brought 25 scarred girl victims of the Hiroshima A-blast to New York for plastic surgery.

Hisako was found near death in Nagasaki beside the bodies of her mother and sister. She survived with large throat scars and can now only whisper.

"All my friends told me not to become a Communist," she said as she boarded the plane for Copenhagen. "Why do they say such a thing to me? I am a baseball fan."

Ambush North Koreans

SEOUL (AP) — South Korean police ambushed a Communist landing party off the southeast Korean coast today, killing two armed North Korean agents and capturing a third in an exchange of gunfire.

Hal Boyle Says:

Let's Compile List of Things to Do Without

NEW YORK (AP)—Wives are always writing notes to themselves headed: "Things to do."

Every now and then, however, when the foibles of civilization become oppressive, mankind ought to compose a different kind of list—a list of things we could all do without, a catalogue of expendables.

The Russian problem, the Algerian problem, the Middle East problem — and the middle age problem.

The current vogue of "sick jokes" such as this one: "Papa, why is mama lying there so white and still?" "Shut up, and keep digging!"

Television Westerns in which every character needs a psychiatrist except the villain's horse.

People who greet you by patting your stomach and saying: "Still putting it on, eh?"

The word "No!" when used by women.

People who have given up smoking, drinking and thinking—all at the same time.

NOISY NEST — Waterford Township fireman Bud Goff checks to see if all of the chick-a-dees have left their nest back of the outside telephone bell on the township hall. Despite the magnified ringing of the bell 30 times a day, the birds continue to build a nest behind the bell each spring.

Chick-a-Dees Evacuate Fire Bell in Waterford

A mother chick-a-dee has finally taken her family from behind the big fire department bell on the outside of the Waterford Township hall.

Each year, the firemen have a regular mid-summer job of extracting the nest of the yearly chick-a-dee occupants — after the baby birds have hatched and flown from behind the bell.

Attached to the building, 20 feet above the town hall entrance, the bell is connected to both the private and outside telephones of the fire department and rings approximately 30 times each day, according to the assistant fire chief, Lewis (Bud) Goff.

If it is necessary for firemen to leave the station while on duty, and the phone rings, the blast can be heard for more than a block away, Goff said.

Long ago, a screen was wired to the back of the bell to protect the first batch of birds — who indicated that loud noise was not detrimental in raising a family.

Whether it is the same bird or not, fireman won't say, but each year the nest is made in the same way with hundreds of pieces of string, grass and feathers of other birds lining the inside.

Despite the clamor of the bell, more than a thousand times each spring, the mother bird and babies remain a full six weeks.

Bob Crosby's Son Arrested for 'Borrowing' Car

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Orchestra leader Bob Crosby's son Christopher, 15, and a companion were arrested early today. Police said they had pushed a sports car out of a Bel-Air driveway.

Young Crosby and Jeffrey Davidson, 16, were booked at the West Los Angeles police station on suspicion of "temporarily depriving the owner of a vehicle (joyriding)."

"Christopher said he didn't know why they did it, that it was a crazy idea and they just wanted to try it out," Officer W. R. Maxwell reported.

Young Crosby was released to his mother, Mrs. June Crosby, and Davidson to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davidson, West Los Angeles.

The youths said they were cruising in the fashionable Bel-Air district in a convertible owned by Christopher's father. When they spotted a 1958 Corvette parked in a driveway.

Peter Heisser, owner of the sports car, called police. He told them he had heard a noise, looked out of his house and saw two youths pushing the car out backward of his driveway. He said he ran outside, yelling, and the boys fled on foot. The elder Crosby's car was parked across the street.

Maxwell said he and Officer W. F. Dacey spotted young Crosby behind a bush at a nearby corner. En route to the station with Christopher, the officers picked up young Davidson, hitchhiking on Sunset Boulevard.

400 Waterford Children Take Swim Lessons

More than 400 Waterford Township children have registered for swimming lessons at six lake beaches in the township, according to Recreation Director Thomas Belton.

Registrations will be closed Saturday, June 28. Classes are now in session at Oakland Lake Beach, Pontiac Recreation area, Watkins Lake Beach, Family Beach at Elizabeth Lake, at the Crescent Lake Highlands Civic Association beach, and at the Lotus Lake beaches.

He Tells Newsmen: 'Fight for Marines'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marine combat correspondents of World War II are being urged to help save the corps from what Gen. Clifton B. Cates terms the dangers in President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan.

Cates, who was Marine commandant from 1948 to 1952, has sent out letters appealing "from one Marine to another" for help.

"We have lost in the House of Representatives, but we can still fight in the Senate," he said.

"We must try to amend the House bill to restore effective civilian control and to retain the constitutional responsibilities of Congress with respect to the balance and composition of the armed forces."

Cates made it plain that he does not believe the bill passed by the House last week, 402-1, is anything but the Eisenhower program for reorganization.

Hollywood Headlines

Marie McDonald Talks of Her New Romance

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I'm in love," said Marie McDonald, her large eyes unblinking.

Harry Karl again? No, no. That's all over, she said.

"I've got my final decree, thank heaven," she explained, speaking of the shoe manufacturer she has sometimes been married to.

The new man in her life is George Capri, a moneyed co-owner of Las Vegas' Flamingo Hotel. He's the reason she stayed over in Las Vegas last week after finishing a singing date at the Desert Inn.

Does this mean marriage?

"If we can work it out, it does," she replied. "He's trying to get a divorce from his wife, from whom he has been separated for seven years."

Though she's enjoying the upsurge in her career which began after her 24-hour disappearance a year and a half ago, she's willing to give it all up for George.

"He wants me to quit working, and I might," she said. "I like my work, but I am willing to make sacrifices for real values."

Marie disclosed these secrets on her first day of film work in seven years. She is returning to costar with Jerry Lewis in "Geisha Boy."

Marie seemed unharmed after her weekend adventure in Nevada, where she was taken to a hospital after an overdose of sleeping pills.

Her explanation: after a gay evening, she swallowed six tranquilizing pills—by mistake—and called her doctor. No after effects.

Marie said she still hopes to see justice done in her disappearance and reported the case is still being investigated. "If it's a hoax let them prove it," she challenged.

The actress told authorities in January 1957 that two men kidnaped her from her home and held her prisoner for 24 hours. A truck driver found her 150 miles away on the desert. Police and the county grand jury investigated, but no arrests were ever made.

Cut Korean Tours of GIs to 13 Months

SEOUL (AP)—The Korean tour of U. S. Army soldiers will be curtailed to 13 months from the present 16 effective July 1, it was learned today.

Members of the 8th Army Command here have been notified of the cut. Officially there was no comment from Army spokesmen, reportedly pending sanction from Washington.

The Army has two divisions in South Korea, the 1st Cavalry and 7th Infantry, plus headquarters of the 8th Army, the U. N. Command and I corps. Total manpower is estimated unofficially at 30,000.

Nationalist Chinese OK Bill to Control News

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Nationalist Chinese legislature completed passage of a government newspaper and magazine control bill today. It needs only President Chiang Kai-shek's signature to become law.

The bill permits the government to suspend publications after nine warnings or if convicted of sedition or treason.

Charles Anaitok, an Eskimo who lives on Hudson Bay, recently visited Montreal, his first sight of a major city. What shocked him most was seeing city people eating fried chicken without knife and fork. "I thought only Eskimos ate with their bare hands," he said.

Maybe You'd Prefer 2nd Journey to Moon

Space 'Trip' Goofs Up Perception

BOSTON (AP)—Perhaps, after reading this, you'd rather sign up for the second trip to the moon, instead of the first one.

Dr. Woodburn Heron of Montreal's McGill University reported today to a Harvard Medical School symposium on what happened to 60 college men when they were isolated — something like they might be in a space rocket. They had hallucinations—and that was not all. They didn't think so well. And straight lines looked like curves.

The Harvard conference today and tomorrow considers the question of what happens to human thought and emotions and other reactions as a result of relatively long-term isolation from normal life environments.

Here's what Dr. Heron said about his experiments:

The subjects were all men who had at least two years of college education. They were kept lying down in a nearby soundproof cubicle.

They wore goggles which caused light diffusion, preventing pattern vision. Perception of surroundings by touch was limited to some extent by cardboard cuffs over hands and forearms. The reason is that space pilots might have to wear special suits.

There was a steady noise from an air-conditioning system which masked their hearing to some degree.

The results? There seemed to be some decline in intellectual functioning. On some tests, the subject was poorer in performance while in isolation. On some others, he did worse after he got out of the cubicle.

After isolation, the subjects had some trouble with their eyes.

Things didn't seem to stay the same size. Tests of size-constancy showed that the experimental subjects were abnormal in this respect.

There were some other neurological effects which persisted for at least three hours after isolation, he added.

Dr. Philip Solomon, assistant clinical professor of psychiatry at Harvard, who organized the program, said, no one knows exactly how being deprived of ordinary perceptions and contacts works. "It is hoped that the Harvard meeting will lead men further along the road, at the end of which lies the solution to t he enigma of the mind," he said.

Question of Time Wins His Traffic Court Case

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—R. B. Knollenberg, irked because of a $20 parking violation fine, put up a simple argument in Traffic Court yesterday:

The signs don't specify whether the regulations apply to Central Standard Time or Daylight Saving Time.

Judge L. R. Curtis agreed and th fine was dismissed. Louisville switches to Daylight Saving Time in the summer. There was no indication of whether the signs will be changed.

Market Firming After Plunge

NEW YORK (AP)—Rails advanced in an irregular stock market early today. Trading was active.

The market was firmer in the wake of yesterday's late selling which cause the sharpest decline in more than a month. Key stocks made gains or losses which ran generally from fractions to a point or so.

Rails surged forward as they responded to the Senate vote to kill federal excise taxes on freight and passenger transportation. Airlines, which also would be affected by such legislation, were mixed.

American Motors dropped ⅝ to 12⅛ on successive blocks of 10,000 shares following word that financier Louis Wolfson was disposing of his 400,000 shares in the company.

Fractional gains were made by U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, American Telephone, Anaconda, Union Carbide, Chesapeake & Ohio and Eastern Air Lines.

Losers included Republic Steel, Sears Roebuck, Kennecott, American Can and American Airlines.

Opening blocks included New York Central up 1¼ at 17¾ on 7,500 shares; Pennsylvania Railroad up ⅜ at 13½ on 1,500; Bethlehem off ⅛ at 41⅛ on 3,000; and Royal Dutch up ⅜ at 44⅝ on 3,000.

Navy's Attempt to Fire Vanguard Delayed by Snags

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Navy attempt to launch a Vanguard satellite rocket was "scrubbed" at 4:30 a.m. EST because of technical difficulties.

A firing of a basketball-sized satellite originally was set for 9:30 p.m. yesterday. For several hours, the slender rocket sat outside its service tower, bathed in lights.

The Air Force also postponed a launching of its Snark intercontinental guided missile yesterday because of "technical difficulties."

No explanation was given of the unexpected difficulties.

The Snark is a 5,500-mile swept-wing pilotless bomber built by the Northrup Co. It has been flown successfully dozens of times from Cape Canaveral.

Sudden Flurry Boosts Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—A sudden flurry of buying boosted all grain futures substantially today shortly after an irregular opening of the Board of Trade.

Commission houses were good buyers of corn in large lots. One trader said there appeared to be a good volume, too, of short-covering.

Wheat was boosted along on reports that the harvest is being delayed in some areas by too much moisture. The flurry there also brought out some short-covering.

The flurry had subsided near the end of the first hour and some of the advances were trimmed. At that time wheat was ⅛ to ½ cent higher per bushel, July $1.84⅜; corn ⅜ to 1⅛ higher, July $1.32⅞; oats ⅛ to ½ higher, July 63½; rye ¼ to ¾ higher, July $1.27; soybeans ⅝ higher to ¼ lower, July $2.24⅞; and lard was 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.45.

The first new crop wheat of the season arrived in Chicago yesterday but it was consigned directly to a mill. The shipment of three cars was soft red variety from southeast Missouri. It tested 61 to 61½ lbs., 11 per cent moisture and graded No. 1.

Mrs. Donald Adams Heads Waterford School Board

Mrs. Donald Adams was elected president of the Waterford Township Board of Education at last night's regular monthly meeting.

Continuing as secretary will be Frederick J. Poole. Lester Carlson was elected treasurer, succeeding Marshall Smith.

In other business, the board awarded contracts for coal supply to nine district schools to the Waterford Farm & Supply Co. of Waterford Township and to the Gee Coal Co. of Pontiac. They submitted identical bids of $12.49 a ton for approximately 1,400 tons.

Out of nine bids submitted for workmen's compensation insurance, James Boaz, representing Auto Owners was awarded the contract for $5,575 for the school system's estimated $2,750,000 payroll. Second low bid was from Michigan Mutual for $5,590.

The board accepted Superintendent William Shunck's recommendation for nine teachers' contracts for next year, and the board also authorized Shunck to meet with a committee to further study a request for additional parking facilities at the Eliza Leggett Elementary School.

Two days of next school year will be put aside for a teacher's workshop.

The early approval of board members was cleared for planning purposes, Shunck said.

Although the subject was discussed, there was no action taken on the acquisition of a new high school site for the Waterford Township school district.

Wolfson Confirms Selling AMC Stock

NEW YORK (UPI)—Industrialist Louis E. Wolfson confirmed published reports today that he sold about 100,000 shares of American Motors Corp. stock and plans to sell the remaining 300,000 shares that he and members of his immediate family own.

"In view of my responsibility to devote full attention to the Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp. (a construction and marine salvage firm which he heads) I feel it best . . . to withdraw from my position as a major shareholder of American Motors," said Wolfson.

His large interest in the small car manufacturer was revealed about 15 months ago. In 1956 and early 1957 when the stock purchases apparently were made, American Motors ranged on the New York stock exchange between $8.88 and $5.25 a share.

Sandblasters to Work Nights

Courthouse Crew Will Use Lights to Avoid Business Hours Grief

Continued sandblasting of the courthouse will be done under floodlights at night after complaints from downtown merchants and businessmen forced the city to ask for a "cease fire" during the day.

"The sand was getting into everything and driving people crazy," said Carl F. Alt, city building inspector.

After the City Commission Tuesday night asked that steps be taken to curb the sand from blowing everywhere, Alt went to see John C. Austin, vice chairman of the Oakland County Board of Auditors.

After a hurried huddle with the contractor, it was decided work will continue only after downtown stores are closed tonight and Saturday.

Floodlights will be brought in at no extra cost to the county. The building is getting its first cleaning since it was erected in 1904.

If the job, which involves cleaning only the north and east walls, is not completed Saturday, Austin said, crews will return Sunday.

Sullivan Show Marks Decade

Birthday Program to Feature Highlights of First 10 Years

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ten years of pointing!

That, to borrow liberally, if not quite literally, from the late Fred Allen, will be commemorated Sunday night when Ed Sullivan rounds out the first decade of his CBS variety show.

Ten years on TV, four seasons a year, is a record for this type of program. Television mortality being what it is, that is practically a lifetime.

Obviously the people haven't been tuning in all those years to look at Sullivan, and no one knows this better than he does. That's why he points—at performers of every possible type from every possible place—and lets them do the entertaining.

Anyone want to argue that the master of ceremonies and his long-time producer, Marlo Lewis, don't have the smartest live operation in TV?

Sunday night's program will be a sort of review of the 10 years, and, of course, a review of the whole history of big-time commercial television because Ed not only got in on the ground floor — he helped build it.

Ed and Marlo have been culling the kinescope recordings of the program from the beginning for weeks, and have selected the items for repeating that they think best represent both the program and television as a whole.

Some of the items that will be shown are Luise Rainer enacting the telephone scene from the movie, "The Great Ziegfeld," Charles Laughton in his first on-the-air Bible reading, Yul Brynner singing "A Puzzlement," Jackie Gleason in a comedy sketch, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz getting ready to be interviewed by Sullivan, the singing debut of Margaret Truman, and comedy bits featuring Jack Benny, Phil Silvers and Bing Crosby. And many, many more.

Sullivan's first show was on June 20, 1948. He leaves for Boston immediately after tomorrow night's telecast for a round of events as the city celebrates "Ed Sullivan Week."

2nd Television Director Fired for His Silence

NEW YORK (AP) — The stage manager of the television show, "I've Got a Secret," has been fired for refusing to tell a congressional subcommittee whether he ever was a Communist.

Joseph Papp's dismissal by the Columbia Broadcasting System yesterday came just a day after Charles Dubin was fired as director of the NBC-TV quiz show, "Twenty One." Dubin had balked Wednesday before the subcommittee.

During two days of hearings by the House subcommittee on Un-American Activities, 17 witnesses invoked the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination. The other witness took the First Amendment, guaranteeing freedom of speech.

Arthur Lief, American guest conductor for the Moiseyev Russian dance company, also was dropped by the Ed Sullivan CBS-TV show for refusing to tell the subcommittee whether he is a Communist. He was to appear June 29 with the dance company on the Sullivan show.

"Our task is not an easy one," commented Rep. Morgan Moulder (D-Mo) chairman of the subcommittee, as the hearings concluded. "The Communist operations in the United States today are deeper underground, have a more clever camouflage and are accordingly more difficult to trace."

Dragnet Star Buys Marriage License

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Television star Jack Webb and Actress Jackie Loughery have a marriage license. But they haven't said when or where they will be married.

Webb, 38, and Miss Loughery, 28, former Miss USA, obtained the license yesterday.

Webb, producer as well as actor, has been married previously to singer Julie London and actress Dorothy Towne. Both marriages ended in divorce. Miss Loughery won her title in the 1952 Miss Universe contest when she competed as Miss New York. She divorced singer Guy Mitchell in 1954.

Pontiac Motor Division Reveals Plans for TV

Pontiac Motor Division today revealed its television plans for the forthcoming TV year.

Included is a special announcement show, the first independent production of Emmy-winner Bob Banner, specials starring Victor Borge, Mary Martin and Phil Silvers, a special Perry Como show and another hour-long spectacular from Roncom, the Como production company.

That Steak Represents 200 Pounds of Grass

CHICAGO (UPI)—It takes 500 square feet of grass to make enough steak to cover an ordinary dinner plate. Or 200 pounds of grass to make one pound of beefsteak.

Researchers at the University of Illinois said the first impression might be that the steer is a wasteful converter of grass to beef. But they point out that grass is 80 per cent water. So 160 of the 200 pounds in the stack of grass is water.

American Fair Exhibit Attracts Tired Visitors

WILSON

Translated, "World's Fair Feet."

Medical authorities, not exactly baffled, claim this is the same disease that hit New York and San Francisco in 1939 and 1940, and Chicago in 1933. The symptoms are simple. When somebody says, "My feet are killing me and I can't move another step," they've got it.

"Tired feet" — not to be confused with "tired blood" — have brought new popularity to the American Pavilion never envisaged by Howard Cullman, Jean Dalrymple, or the creator of our building.

Not due to any exhibits inside or outside, but to the beautifully artistic fountain and pool out in front where sufferers from the epidemic may take off their shoes and socks and dunk their feet.

I was amazed and angered to see the hundreds of people jamming the edge of the fountain desecrating its esthetic motif — until I noted some of them were pretty Belgian girls with skirts tossed high.

The big American footbath and the free American rest rooms—only free powder rooms here—are doing a lot to beat Russia in the propaganda parade. And nobody ever planned it that way.

One American exhibit that attracted attention was Orson Welles. He'd come here in connection with his movie, "Touch of Evil."

FAIR VISITOR

"It's a big hit," he said cheerfully. "But I think back home they're trying to hide it. They don't want anybody to know about it."

We pointed out that some people obtained publicity by employing publicity agents.

"I had one of those once," boomed Mr. Welles, "and I found out that they went about getting people to interview you. So I gave it up. I had thought you fellows made all those things up."

He slapped me on the shoulder, slightly dislocating it.

Mr. Welles said he would give us his Rome phone number only he didn't know what it was. Then he remembered he had it in his passport and wrote it down for us. We plan to look him up there and sit right down at a sidewalk cafe and rest all day. We confidently predict our World's Fair Feet will still be killing us.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN NEW YORK . . .

Donald O'Connor's tax experts have told him all he can afford to do in '59 are two cafe jobs, three TV shows, two films . . . NBC offered Peter Ustinov a casual, Garroway-type TV show . . . Farley Granger is dating Barbara Hutton's cousin, Pamela Hutton.

Ex-film star Turhan Bey, now a cameraman, has a fine assignment — a photo layout of Brigitte Bardot. . . Paul Newman's three kids'll spend July with him and Joanne Woodward, in L.A. . . . Roy Campanella will get $10,000 for his two-part profile in the Saturday Evening Post . . .

EARL'S PEARLS: You needn't worry about avoiding temptation as you grow older. That's when it starts avoiding you.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Most people's hindsight vision is 20-20. That's earl, brother.

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

POP ALBUMS: Hot sellers in this area currently are Ricky Nelson's LP (Imperial 9050); "I Wish You Love" by Keely Smith (Capitol T-914); and "Taboo" by Arthur Lyman (Hi-Fi R-806).

Nelson's album is big with the teenagers and features lotsa rock 'n' roll sounds for that Saturday night party. Keely Smith is selling to all age brackets. With Nelson Riddle she does a fine job, but I rather prefer her work with hubby Louis.

The Arthur Lyman album may have been more-or-less a Father's Day feature. It's definitely for the hi-fi addict. An LP of unusual sounds.

Three singers are currently proving how much can be lost when someone tries to sing or play someone else. This month's object of abuse is Bessie Smith.

Who is Bessie Smith? She was the "Empress Of The Blues," by title, and considered the best blues singer who ever lived. She has been dead for 20 years, eight months, and 25 days.

"Dinah Washington Sings Bessie Smith" (EmArcy MG-36130) is worth a listen. Miss Washington is in a sacred vein (Bessie wasn't) and the accompaniment is bad. Otherwise it's a fairly close match.

"La Vern Baker Sings Bessie Smith" (Atlantic 1281) is a bit further removed from the truth. The accompaniment is in a world apart from both the performer and performed.

Miss Baker does things "her" way (which isn't at all bad for La Vern Baker but a slap in the face to Bessie).

"Ronnie Gilbert: The Legend Of Bessie Smith" (Victor LPM-1591) is the worst of the bunch. Miss Gilbert lacks voice, understanding, phrasing, EVERYTHING — except a good accompaniment. It's a shame the fine work of Cootie Williams, especially, is wasted behind such inefficiency.

FIVE ACES — Sheb Wooly's "Purple People Eater" is still on the top in Pontiac as the best selling record this week. New to the top five is "Splish Splash" by Bobby Darin.

The Coasters are still coasting along in the big quintet with their "Yackety Yack" and Ernie Freeman ranks number four with "Do You Want To Dance." Number five in the area is "Endless Sleep" by Jody Reynolds.

Sales of Color TV Ahead of Last Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Color television set sales are running 30 per cent ahead of a year ago, despite the recession and a continuing decline in black and white TV sales, Printers' Ink states.

The advertising trade magazine reported a nationwide survey indicated about 325,000 color TV sets in use with sales so far this year about 50,000.

While the color TV total is a small percentage of the 43 million black and white sets, the growth of color TV takes on significance in comparison with the early spread of black and white, the magazine said.

Operatic Singer Bucks the Trend

Hopes to Use Humor by Starring in Musical Situation Comedy

By LEE BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Today's top women singers are trembling over the mere mention of TV—they're doing pretty poorly—but king-size Helen Traubel is nevertheless planning to launch her own show next season.

"I don't know how I'll make out," she laughed, "but with my build and a sense of humor maybe it'll work!"

Madame Traubel, lately of the Metropolitan Opera, is all for the pop musical circuit these days and with her opera definitely comes second.

"I have had many offers to sing in Europe," she said, "but I've turned them all down. I'm just not interested at this point and besides I'm too busy here with TV appearances and nightclub engagements."

She addmitted with her booming laugh that she had not been invited to sing at the Met since she broke with the famed institution in 1953. At the time she was roundly criticized by Maestro Rudolph Bing for performing in a nightclub. She said:

"Mr. Bing and I parted gentle enemies!"

SHE'S UNDECIDED

The great one-time Wagnerian singer admitted she's up a tree about what kind of show she'll be doing next year.

"It's not really definitely set yet," she said. "We haven't even decided on a format. All I know is that I cannot fit into any routine pattern. There's no cheesecake about me so what we do probably will be a situation musical comedy."

Helen has appeared with a long list of famous comedians, including George Gobel, Jimmy Durante, Red Skelton and Jerry Lewis. And that's as it should be for she is a veteran comedienne herself.

"I used to break up on the stage of the Metropolitan any old time," she recalled. "I remember once I was doing 'Tristan' with Lauritz Melchoir and had to wave a scarf 32 times. This seemed a bit too much for me so I cut down on the number and only waved it a few times.

"When Lauritz came onstage there wasn't anything left for him to do but bounce over to me. We came together like two Mack trucks and that was the end of the scene forever."

"No," she added thoughtfully, "I guess if I hadn't had a sense of humor I would have died a thousand times!"

Ike's Press Aide Receives Gift

Hagerty and Wife Feted as 'Special Guests' at Swank Resort Club

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty and his wife received free golf lessons, lodgings and meals to the tune of $260.97 from a swank resort club in 1957, the Tampa Tribune said today.

Hagerty and his wife vacationed for five-days as guests of the exclusive Ponte Vedra club near Jacksonville Beach from Jan. 27 through Feb. 1, the newspaper said.

J. P. LeMaster president of Ponte Verda Corp., told the newspaper, "when he got here, Hagerty insisted on paying his bill. We wouldn't let him do it."

Mayhugh Courson, assistant manager of the club, said honored guests don't receive bills.

In Washington, Hagerty said:

"The account is correct as reported, except for one thing. I did pay for my golf lessons. I personally paid the club pro.

"I did insist, as the account says, on paying my entire bill, but the club would not let me do so.

"Under the circumstances, there was nothing wrong in this. I don't see how anyone could make anything of my being a guest of the club at their insistence."

Rick Fanlin, the club's golf pro, said the Hagertys spent most of their time golfing.

LeMaster said there was no thought of gaining a favor by paying Hagerty's bill.

"I thought we were very fortunate in having him here," LeMaster said. He explained that the publicity gained by the press secretary's visit more than offset expenses borne by the club.

West Virginia Marking 95th Birthday Today

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia, a state born amid blood and strife during the Civil War, marks its 95th birthday today.

In the middle of the Civil War, the mountainous western counties of Virginia, then a member of the Confederacy, decided to form a new state at a convention in Wheeling.

Creation of the new state was encouraged by officials in Washington and by neighboring Ohio. The 26 counties had voted overwhelmingly against secession at the start of the war, and in 1863 they came back to the Union as its 35th state.

California leads the nation in the production of peaches for both the fresh and canned fruit markets.

Feet to Hurt No More

Surgery Banishes Corns

DALLAS (AP)—If your feet hurt and it's corns, then hark to good news from Dr. Lester A. Walsh of Midland, Tex.

He says there's a simple new operation that makes corns go away forever. Dr. Walsh told the Southwestern Chiropody Congress yesterday the surgery consists of slicing open a toe and removing a small piece of bone that isn't needed to support the foot. Pressure on the bone causes the corn to form.

Removal of the bone eliminates the pressure, the corn on top of the toe and any corns between the toe and the next one, he said.

The operation takes 15 minutes. Patients are kept off their feet 24 to 48 hours.

"The corn is gone permanently within two weeks," Dr. Walsh said.

The operation, he said, was developed by members of the American College of Foot Surgeons.

We May Be Turning On the Windows for Light

CLEVELAND—In the house of tomorrow a routine request may be, "Turn on the windows; it's getting dark."

Scientists, who have already produced strong light from a phosphor-coated sheet of glass, are now working to produce transparent phosphors.

These would make possible a window that is transparent in daylight and a source of light at night.
