FITZ BITZ EXTRA : POLITICAL SONGS 67

For some unknown reason the Detroit and Pontiac papers failed to give coverage to the 82nd Gridiron dinner at which the new political songs for 1967 were introduced. Fitz Bitz is the only paper in the Detroit area to offer these gems beginning with the GEORGE ROMNEY SONG (sung to the tune of No No a Thousand Times No):

He's been a big biz-ness leader
And he has met payrolls galore
Still he's not sure about treading
Where he's never trodden before.

The Governor's shaky on foreign Affairs;
National problems as well.
And when they ask him to run if he dares,
These are the words he will yell:

No, no, a thousand times no.
Right now I can't acquiesce
No, no, a thousand times no
But in the end I'll say YES

THE EV DIRKSEN SONG

Chuck Percy is only a freshman
As junior as junior can be
So why does he act like the leader?
Oh bring back Paul Douglas to me

ONE OF THE SHOW STOPPERS WAS A DUET
BETWEEN GEORGE MURPHY AND RON REAGAN

Both: There's no biz-nes like show
biznes--

When you're after the votes
Murphy: When you start political campaigning
Though you don't know what it's all about

8 P.M.-12

Fitzgerald House will have a special open house tonight from eight p.m. til midnight. This open house is due largely to the efforts of House Council member Warren Turski. Please remember that when females are in the room the door must be left partially open.

HOUSE COUNCIL NOTES:

The House Council last week voted to purchase a punchbowl for the house. This act was necessitated by the fact the food service charges an outlandishly high rental charge to use one of theirs.

DON'T FORGET THE HOUSE NOW HAS SCRABBLE AND MONOPOLY GAMES. THEY ARE AVAILABLE FROM 112. JUST SIGN THE SIGN OUT SHEET.

SUGGESTION OF THE WEEK:

The VW in its Volkswagon awards should award itself the "MOHAMMED ALI AWARD"

THREE NEW RESIDENT ASSISTANTS NAMED

Fitzgerald will have three new RAs for the fall. They are Ron Ewalt, Bob Webber and Jim Symons.

Fitz Bitz: An independent newspaper published the first and ~~fifteenth~~ fifteenth of every month.

Mack Truslow - Editor
Jim Batchelor - Asst Editor
Dale Greene - Sports?
Seymour - columnist

REAGAN: Though you couldn't tell if it is raining
Ask Spencer Roberts, and you'll find out

BOTH: There's no biz-nes like show
biz-nes-
And friends heavy wiyh dough

MURPHY: Though you don't know civil lefts from civil rights

REAGAN: If you look good in those late show ~~kiss~~ lights

BOTH: There's no limit to how high you set your sights-
Lets go on with the show.

THE RICHARD NIXON SHOW starred Dick singing:

Someday I'll find someone that I can beat
It is not too late to come back from defeat.
My Law firm said: "now please don't hesitate
You want time off? Take all of sixty-eight"
I'll go ev'ry step of the way
To hell and back against LBJ.
Him I can beat, If I get all the break
But if I don't-well, we all make mistakes....
Don't make me wait til nineteen sev'nty-two
And run against young Bobby You-Know-Who

THEN THERE IS THE REPUBLICAN THEME SONG:

Give me some men who can win now and then
That is really not asking for much.
Give me a way to defeat LBJ.
And take over in Congress, and such O!
Please think of this, you-and give me an issue
To put our opponents in Dutch.
Then there's nothing in this world can stop the GOP
When our gallent men will snatch defeat from Victory

THE ADAM POWELL SONG:

My momma done tol them
She was on the payroll
My mma done tol' them that
Her man gave her small change
But none of the big dough.
Now that the money is gone
A woman's a two-faced
A bothersome thing
WHEN SHE STARTS TO SING
THE BLUES IN THE NITE.

THE SWEETHEART OF CIA

The girl of my dreams-is a snake eyed girl
With a gift for conspiracy
She wears her charms
Like a call to arms
And she works for a secret fee.

The hair of her head-is a copper red
It emits a radio ray
And she gets her man
As a lady spy can
She's the sweetheart of CIA.

The gold of her teeth-is tran-sis-tor-ized
Her bosom conceals a mike,
And she wears high heels
That are sharpened steels
She's ready to Kiss or strike.

The cloak on her back-is a subsidized black
And her mask is expense paid gray
And her bank account
Continues to mount
She's the sweetheart of CIA.

CIA CONTEST WINNER

The winning entry in the Fitz guess who the CIA man on campus is was submitted by the Vandenberg After Hours Receptionists

"WE WISH TO NOMINATE THE AFTER-CLOSING
HOURS RECEPTIONISTS AT THE VB RECEPTION
DESK AS THE CIA MEN ON CAMPUS. THIS NOMINATION IS BACKED BY SOUND EVIDENCE
THESE MEN HAVE A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF RESPONSIBILITY IN SECURING THE BUILDING
BUT WE WON'T SAY HOW. THEY ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR HANDING OUT MONEY TO STUDENTS, OFTEN OUT OF THEIR OWN POCKETS. EACH IS RESPONSIBLE FOR KNOWING WHAT THE CONDUCT
IN THE FIRST FLOOR AREA IS, A USEFUL INTELLIGENCE.

FINALLY SINCE THIS ORGANIZATION (CIA)
IS SO HUSH HUSH, THE FACT THAT WE ARE NOMINATING OURSELVES IS THE CLINCERR.
ANYTHING FOR THE SECRET GLORY OF THE CIA.

THE VB RECEPTIONISTS
AFTER HOURS

Congradulations to the after hours receptionsists and we had doubts about their literacy. Which goes to prove even a great paper like Fitz Bitz can be mistaken.

The prize (cheese, very appropriate for a Vandemburger) will be awarded shortly.

SOUNDS LIKE GEORGE ROMNEY DEPARTMENT
Michigan legislators have before them a bill that could only be proposed in Michigan. The bill reads:

"There shall be erected on the present site of the State Capitol building a new State Capitol building. The present Capitol shall be maintained and used until the new Capitol...is erected. The new Capitol....shall not be erected until the present Capitol... is demolished."

THIS WEEKS BEST BET DEPARTMENT

This weeks time tunnel (Fri. 8p.m.) should hold particular interest for history majors and every student. The show is described in a national T.V magazine:

The Battle of Khartoum in 1883 takes on added dimension as the time travelers arrive in time to be captured by alien creatures who plan to reap the spoils of battle and take over the world

Poor Gordon never knew what he was up against.

INSULT DEPARTMENT:

When he says hello, he tells you all he knows.....THE ONLY THING HE HAS EVER ACHIEVED ON HIS OWN IS DANDRUFF Until you have met him, you are sure the largest prune is six inches in diameter.... LOTS OF GIRLS MAY NOT RECALL HIS NAME BUT HIS HANDS ARE FAMILIAR.

HOLIDAY CHEER DEPARTMENT

Today is Transfer Day in the Virgin Islands. Why not celebrate with a batch of Admiral Russells Punch. Take 4 hogsheads of brandy (64 gallons), 250 gallons of Malaga wine, 20 gallons of lime juice, 2,500 lemons, 1,300 lbs of sugar, 5 pounds of grated nutmeg and 8 hogshead of water.

OUT ON A LIMB DEPARTMENT:

There have been several requests for Seymour to predict the outcome of the American League this season. No doubt the requests are due to the success of our election predictions last fall. There will undoubtedly be all kinds of letters next fall when the standings are in but what the h*ll:

1) Minnesota - unbeatable power and excellent pitching with Kaat, Grant & Chance.

2) Baltimore - should make it close but pitching may fail in the stretch.

3) Chicago - best pitching in the league should score enough to be in the race.

4) Detroit - most overrated team in the league. Pitching was next to last in the league last year. Sain may help but not enough.

5) Cleveland - must have good years from veterans to make a serious go at it.

6) Washington - most underrated team Excellent pitching with Richert, Pasquel and Ortega. New batting stance by Frank Howard should provide more power.

7) California - not enough pitching

8) Kansas City - could go higher if pitching comes up to last years. Major problem no hitting.

9) New York - Not much improvement

10) Boston - dissention and lack of pitching doom the sox.

THE DALE GREENE SPORTS CORNER

On Monday of this week a valiant team of men from the First floor of Fitz South tried to defeat the adept team of the second floor Fitz South at a game of Volleyball. But alas, they lost. They then proceeded to lose a second, a third, and yet a fourth game. The 1st floor team played very well but could not overpower the tremendously agile players of the second floor, who consisted of: Bob Weber, Steve Cohen, Bill Delamarter, Van Thornton, Bill Pankow (the only outsider) and Dale Greene. The second floor is now accepting all challenges.
