Elliott Drops Out of State Race

ARTHUR G. ELLIOTT JR.

Announcement Shock to Many Party Workers

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Oakland County Republican Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. today announced he would not be a candidate for state chairman.

The official announcement, made at a 10 a.m. news conference at the Birmingham Community House, surprised many of Elliott's fellow party workers.

Many had him in the race for the $21,000-a-year job being vacated next month by Lawrence B. Lindemer.

Elliott said his decision not to be a candidate at the Feb. 3-4 state convention in Detroit was based primarily on "personal and business considerations."

He declined to elaborate, although an aide said the long, tedious hours as state chairman would take him away from helping raise his two youngest sons, Tom, 14, and David, 12. His third son, Arthur III, is 17.

Chairman of the Oakland Republicans since 1957, the 44-year-old Royal Oak realtor, insurance man and builder had been considered one of the top contenders for chairman of the state party after he led county Republicans to a near sweep of 24 out of 27 contests Nov. 8.

The race apparently is now wide open between former Congressman Robert J. McIntosh of Port Huron and John R. Stiles of Grand Rapids. McIntosh is believed to have the edge.

Stiles, a realtor, called a news conference in Detroit this afternoon. There was no indication why it was being called.

A spokesman for the local GOP said since some party leaders had learned prematurely of Elliott's decision yesterday, the "wires were hot" trying to solicit someone else from Oakland County to run for state chairman.

There was some talk that delegates at the county convention in Pontiac tomorrow night might try to change Elliott's mind. Close associates of Elliott said his mind is made up.

In a prepared statement, Elliott, of 17 Kemberton St., Pleasant Ridge, promised he would "continue to serve where needed."

He stressed that he was not a candidate "at this time." He left the door open possibly for two years hence, saying, "I'm not writing myself out of the party by not being a candidate today."

"For the time being I plan to continue as chairman of the Oakland County Republican Committee," Elliott said. He was first elected in 1957 to succeed former

McNamara Shuns Unionist

Defense Chief Irks Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert S. McNamara is choosing his own Defense Department team—but in doing so the secretary-designate has gotten himself and the incoming administration in a jam with leaders of organized labor.

★ ★ ★

McNamara, 44, former Ford Motor Co. president, turned down a union chief reportedly recommended for a key defense post by President-Elect John F. Kennedy himself.

★ ★ ★

It is understood, moreover, that McNamara, a Republican, rejected several other persons outside of labor ranks whose names were sent to him for appointment to important posts in his department.

★ ★ ★ ★

Joseph D. Keenan, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and an AFL-CIO vice president, is the labor man McNamara turned down.

★ ★ ★

Keenan, who had built up a World War II reputation as a successful labor trouble shooter, was tagged to become the assistant defense secretary for manpower.

★ ★ ★

"I was told McNamara is picking his own team and I don't fit," Keenan said.

Meany said Keenan's name was suggested because Kennedy wanted a union official placed in a high defense post.

Last Friday morning, McNamara, having gotten wind of the ruckus he had caused, visited Meany's office and came away thinking things had been smoothed over.

They hadn't been because Meany, when asked about the situation Monday, said McNamara's visit was a "gratuitous insult."

McNamara declined comment on the Keenan rejection. But he did say he wanted it known that "I am not antilabor."

Kennedy after telling Keenan he couldn't name him to the Defense Department offered an appointment, instead, as ambassador to New Zealand. Keenan turned down that offer.

★ ★ ★

The labor official said he never wanted a political job anyway, and as for the fuss, "It's all in the game, I guess."

'Conflict' Quiz for McNamara

He'd Change Trust Plan —Defends Rejection of Unionist for Top Job

JOSEPH D. KEENAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert S. McNamara ran into questions about possible conflict of interest today because of a trust he offered to set up before he becomes secretary of defense.

★ ★ ★

The 44-year old auto executive was told by veteran Harry S. Byrd, D-Va., that his proposed trust, from sale of about $1.5 million worth of Ford Motor stock, might violate an 1873 law.

"I will be quite happy to modify the agreement anyway you suggest," McNamara told Byrd and other members of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

"It's not my purpose to be harsh," Byrd said.

He recalled that the Senate had required Charles E. Wilson, former president of General Motors, to sell some $2.5 million of GM stock in 1953 before it approved his nomination to be secretary of defense in the Eisenhower Administration.

★ ★ ★

To the same committee, McNamara testified it is not appropriate to say that he vetoed appointed of labor leader Joseph D. Keenan to be a top defense official.

★ ★ ★

It has been reported that Keenan, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and a member of the AFL-CIO Executive Council, had just about been chosen for the defense job at one point.

McNamara testified he wanted to go on record that he not only does not oppose naming people from organized labor to posts on his staff but would "rather lean toward" the idea.

Skies will be cloudy and temperatures somewhat colder tonight and tomorrow, the weatherman says.

★ ★ ★

The lowest reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 26 degrees. The thermometer recorded 38 at 2 p.m.

Commissioners Study Pay Hikes

City Employes Asking Raises and Benefits to More Than $230,000

By PETE LOCHBILER

Requests for more than $230,000 in municipal pay raises and benefits were under study by city commissioners today as they prepared for a public hearing on the proposed 1961 budget tonight.

Employe representatives detailed requests last night through their Joint Council of City Employes in an informal session with commissioners at City Hall.

Six commissioners were present, but Commissioner Milton R. Henry, who has said he would quit as commissioner tonight, was absent.

★ ★ ★

Included in the employe demands were:

1. A four-cent-an-hour cost of living raise, estimated at $72,000.

2. Broader hospitalization and insurance plans, plus night differential for all employes except police and firemen, all estimated at $160,000.

These requests are in excess of the $300,000 in pay raises due under full implementation of the new pay plan, adopted by the commission last fall.

In City Manager Walter K. Williman's proposed $6,612,000 budget salaries and wages amount to $4.6 million, including the $300,000. There is no provision for further benefits.

★ ★ ★

Because of Willman's absence from Pontiac this week, due to a death in the family, the commission will probably not be asked to act on the budget until the Jan. 31 deadline, Mayor Philip E. Rowston told the employe representatives.

★ ★ ★

Rowston said an important factor would be the tax rate, expected to rise this year from the 13.27 mill figure of the past four years.

"The tax rate the commission decides on will determine what we ran, or cannot do, as far as your requests are concerned," he said.

Cashier Admits $2-Million Theft

Iowa Bank Case Now in Hands of Grand Jury and FBI

SIOUX CITY, Iowa (AP)—U.S. Dist. Atty. F. E. Van Alstine said today that Mrs. Burnice Iverson Geiger, 58, had admitted embezzling $2,126,859.10 from the Sheldon National Bank of which she was assistant cashier and director.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. attorney said Mrs. Geiger is now in the custody of federal authorities in Sioux City and has waived to the grand jury. It will consider the charges at its next session.

Mrs. Geiger is married. She and her husband have no children. She is the daughter of W. P. Iverson, president of the bank for the past 45 years and a widely-known and respected citizen of Sheldon.

The Sheldon National Bank, Van Alstine said, has been closed temporarily. Bank officials at Sheldon said that Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. officials were on their way and that payments to depositors would probably be started Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents are investigating the shortage, one of the largest ever reported in an Iowa bank case, officials said. The FBI arrested Mrs. Geiger.

Just how the reported embezzlement was accomplished officials did not say.

"She had a way of covering up," the district attorney said, "but I can't give you any details."

★ ★ ★

Fred J. Pylman, bank cashier, said that "apparently there are some things that examinations just don't reveal."

No Answer to Taps on Submerged Tower

NEW YORK (AP)—A diver who reached the personnel quarters of the storm-sunk radar tower today reported he received no response to taps on the side of the structure.

It had been believed some men might have survived in watertight compartments.

Underwater noises, of possible human origin, were reported detected in the vicinity Monday and early today by Navy underwater listening devices.

This gave rise to hopes some of the 28 men aboard the so-called Texas tower in the Atlantic might have managed to remain alive after the tower collapsed in a storm Sunday night.

A diver whose name was not immediately reported from the scene came to The surface shortly before noon and said he got no response to taps of his own on the tower structure.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

According to the New York Journal-American, another diver coming up about midmorning said air bubbles were rising from the underwater wreckage—another sign there might have been a chance for life inside.

★ ★ ★

The renewed rescue effort at the scene, 70 miles southeast of New York City, began at dawn today. At 8:20 a.m. the Coast Guard here was notified that there was nothing more to indicate anyone was alive in the submerged debris.

MILTON R. HENRY

Milton R. Henry Quits City Post

Flying to Ghana Feb. 3 to Work on Promotion of African Nation

City Commissioner Milton R. Henry said he will submit his resignation from the city commission tonight.

★ ★ ★

He said he was resigning in order to devote full time to establishing a "pioneering corporation" in the young Gold Coast nation of Ghana in Africa.

Henry, 41, said he was leaving New York Feb. 3 by jet for the 11-hour flight to Dakar on the eastern tip of Africa.

It is expected that Henry's successor will be named by the remaining six members of the commission. Henry's present two-year term expires in April 1962.

★ ★ ★

Henry, first elected to the commission in 1958, said he is a partner in the Ghanita Enterprises, a Delaware corporation established five months ago as the ground work for creating the foreign corporation designed to help Ghana develop.

Train Rams Gas Truck; Nine Killed

MAGNOLIA, Miss. (AP) — The crack passenger train City of New Orleans, barreling through Magnolia en route to Chicago at about 80 miles per hour, rammed into a gasoline truck at a whistle-stop crossing today, killing nine persons and injuring six others.

The streamliner, en route to Chicago from New Orleans, streaked 300 yards after smashing into the truck with flames sweeping the length of its nine cars.

Illinois Central authorities said the City of New Orleans was not due to stop in Magnolia, about 100 miles north of New Orleans. The truck driver, they said, apparently did not hear the train or realize it was approaching.

6 Men Missing in Navy Blaze

From Our News Wires

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Navy rescuers searched the banks of the Cooper River today for six men, missing and presumed dead in a flash fire at a Navy pier here Monday night.

★ ★ ★

Six men were injured in the Charleston fire which was whipped along the 250-yard pier by a 15-to-20 knot breeze.

★ ★ ★

The missing men reportedly were working near a building on the pier that was demolished. Two explosions leveled the building.

The fire occurred at a facility known as a degaussing station, where ships are demagnetized. This process is necessary to prevent them from setting off magnetic mines.

★ ★ ★

One 50-foot fireboat was burned and sinking before it could be put into use. A 40-foot motor launch also burned and sank.

The Navy said it would investigate the cause of the blaze. No estimate of the damage was available.

Three of the missing men were Navy men, and three were civilians.

MISSING:

Kidnaped Girl's Body Is Found

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — The body of a 6-year-old girl with a heart condition, kidnaped from a farm labor camp last Thursday, was found today in a field.

A search party found the remains after the pregnant wife of a former mental patient, accused as the kidnaper, confessed that her husband had abducted pretty Rose Marie Riddle. She told them where to look.

Sheriff's Capt. Al Loustalot said the body was in open rangeland about a half mile north of Highway 466 and about 60 miles northwest of Bakersfield.

Chief Criminal Deputy Loren Fote said Mrs. Dixie Elaine Lindsey, 23, told deputies Monday night that her husband Richard, 30, took the tot and:

"He drove north several miles. He made me get out of the car and he drove off across a field with the girl. When he came back later, the little girl was gone and the whole front seat was covered with blood."

★ ★ ★

Rose Marie, a blue-eyed blonde, was stricken with a serious heart disorder shortly after birth and knowledge of this condition made the days of waiting especially trying for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Riddle.

Riddle, a farm laborer, made television appeals for the child's return—as did Mrs. Riddle. They have another daughter, Janet Sue, 7.

Parking-Lot Assessment Delayed at Least a Week

BIRMINGHAM — Confirmation of the assessment roll on the Island View parking lot has been delayed at least another week.

City commissioners changed their minds again on the portion of the cost the city will pay for the improvement and sent the assessment rolls back to the assessor to be respread.

The revised assessment rolls will be brought before the commission for action Monday.

Commissioners last night agreed unanimously to have the city pay 7½ per cent of the $135,000 cost for the north Woodward Avenue parking lot behind the Reid Building.

The merchants in the area benefiting from the parking lot will be assessed the remaining 92½ per cent. Businesses will provide $124,875 in funds for the lot and the city, $10,125.

Until last night commissioners were considering an assessment ratio of 85-15 per cent.

When the improvement first was proposed, merchants were to pay the entire cost of the lot. However, after objections were heard at a public hearing the assessment confirmation was delayed until a satisfactory agreement could be reached.

City commissioners authorized the preparation of final plans for the new Oak Street bridge last night and rescinded a similar action taken last week on the proposed Willits Street bridge. Both structures are over the Rouge River.

Preliminary plans for the Oak Street bridge call for a 40-foot-wide roadway with 6-foot-wide sidewalks being constructed at a cost of $59,000.

The action to go ahead with the Willits Street bridge was rescinded after the commission learned that an error had been made in the cost estimate of about $36,000.

When the Willits Street bridge was first proposed the commission was informed that it would cost about the same to construct either a culvert-type roadway over the river or a regular bridge.

The commission decided on the normal bridge design instead of the culvert type bridge.

In studying the plans this week, city engineers discovered an error had been made in the two cost estimates and that it may be less expensive to build the culvert.

A 64-year-old Romeo man was burned to death shortly before noon today while attempting to put out a fire in his home, according to Romeo state police.

Police said the fire, apparently caused by sparks from a small coal stove, did little damage to the home.

Gets YMCA Vice Chairmanship

Frederick J. Poole, vice president and general manager of the F. J. Poole Lumber Co., has been named vice chairman of the YMCA's $650,000 fund-raising campaign.

In announcing the appointment today, Robert M. Critchfield, general chairman of the drive, noted that Poole is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Poole whose gift sparked the appeal for funds to purchase the present YMCA building at 131 Mt. Clemens St. 24 years ago.

A former president of the Downtown Kiwanis Club, he has served as Commercial Division chairman of the Pontiac Area United Fund drive and as president of the YMCA Camp Mahn-Go-Tah-See. He is a member of the Waterford Township Board of Education.

In accepting the vice-chairmanship, Poole, who lived at 1238 Helisch Road, Waterford Township, said:

"There have been no additions to the Y building since it opened its doors in 1938. But there has been an almost unmanageable increase in the membership which now exceeds 4,000.

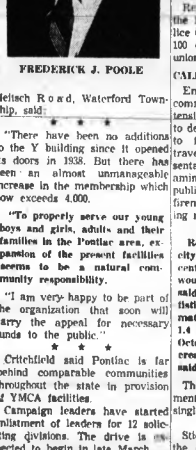
"To properly serve our young boys and girls, adults and their families in the Pontiac area, expansion of the present facilities seems to be a natural community responsibility.

"I am very happy to be part of the organization that soon will carry the appeal for necessary funds to the public."

★ ★ ★

Critchfield said Pontiac is far behind comparable communities throughout the state in provision of YMCA facilities.

Campaign leaders have started enlistment of leaders for 12 soliciting divisions. The drive is expected to begin in late March.



FREDERICK J. POOLE

City Commissioners Ponder Pay Raises

was M. Robert Sartell, president of Pontiac Fire Fighters Local 376.

"The new pay plan took into account raises due us as of Jan. 1 of last year," he said. "It does not take into account the rise in the cost of living during 1960."

Represented in the council are the fire fighters, the Pontiac Police Officers Association and Local 100 of the government employes union.

CALL FOR JOINT STUDY

Employes also called for a joint committee study of longevity, extension of emergency leaves due to deaths in the family from three to five days when out-of-state travel is necessary; union representation during promotional examinations in the department of public works; and overtime pay for firemen called for extra duty during major fires.

★ ★ ★

Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, estimated a one-cent-an-hour cost of living raise would cost the city $18,000. He said the Bureau of Labor Statistics report in October estimated the cost of living rise at 1.4 per cent over the previous October. A 1 per cent pay increase would cost $46,000, he said.

Stierer said the added cost to the city would be about $82,000 at the present Blue Cross rates.

Employes asked for double the current amount of life insurance, from the present limits of $3,000 and $5,000, depending on the employe, to $4,000 and $10,000. Stierer said the added cost to the city would be $18,000.

The night premium would cover skeleton crews at the sewage treatment plant, water works, Lake Street Yards and City Hall. The cost to the city was estimated at $4,000-$5,000.

Firemen get no overtime at present. There were only two major fires last year that would have affected the overtime plan as they proposed it.

Jurors Hearing Harrelson Trial

Assault, Battery Case Started 9:30 Today in Justice Court

A retrial by jury of Leaun W. Harrelson, 26-year-old son of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614 President Leaun Harrelson, on an assault and battery charge was still being conducted at 1 p.m. today in West Bloomfield Township Justice Court.

★ ★ ★

The trial began at 9:30 a.m. today with only a brief recess called by Justice of the Peace Elmer C. Dieterle before noon.

The younger Harrelson has been accused by Mrs. Gerald Dodd, 42, of 57 Mark St. of ripping off her dress during a bar-room fracas in Bloomfield Township Aug. 2.

A trial on the same charge Dec. 13 ended when the jury split 5-1 after 2½ hours of deliberation. Harrelson had requested a jury trial at his arraignment in August.

Mrs. Dodd is a niece of the late Vida M. Coon of Pontiac, who died in 1953 after being struck down by a car driven by the younger Harrelson.

He was convicted of negligent homicide in Circuit Court March 8, 1954, and sentenced to two years probation.

He was placed on probation again last year when he pleaded guilty to forging names on nominating petitions for an unsuccessful August primary election candidate.

Eisenhower and Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker this morning signed a treaty for joint U.S.-Canadian development of the Columbia River resources. They hailed it as a milestone in international relations.

The pact is to run for at least 60 years and contemplates billions of dollars of construction.

Ben-Gurion Lights Fuse of New Crisis

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion touched off a new government crisis today when he refused to withdraw all his criticism of a cabinet security decision.

Then he agreed to revise his criticism of a cabinet committee which cleared former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon of responsibility for a 1954 "security mishap."

Chairman Chad M. Ritchie, who resigned.

Elliott, one of Michigan's 10 delegates-at-large to the GOP National Convention last July, was re-elected to a second two-year term last August.

Although Elliott refused to specify who his choices might be for chairman, he took an indirect slap at McIntosh when he said "the next state chairman must have a proven background of successful campaigns."

McIntosh, former Port Huron postmaster, was elected to Michigan's 7th District in 1958. He was upset by present Congressman James G. O'Hara in 1958 and lost a second time to O'Hara last November.

Elliott said McIntosh called him yesterday to arrange a meeting. Elliott said he didn't know the purpose. He left it open to McIntosh to set the date.

"The office of Republican state chairman is tremendously important," Elliott said, "particularly at a time when the executive branch of our state government has for 12 years been dominated by a political party whose policies have been influenced to an unreasonable degree by a well-financed minority group."

Indianapolis-born Elliott, who returned early Monday from a two-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla., directed the local party workers to victory in November despite a revitalized opposition party which rolled out all stops in an effort to take Oakland County from the GOP column—where it has been quite consistently.

Elliott urged that the next state chairman, who will be selected by the vote of 1,508 delegates gathered in Detroit's Cobo Hall, "must be prepared to develop organizational activity to its fullest—introduce educational programs to offset the unwholesome influence of publications and broadcasts that present a controlled viewpoint of political affairs and expand our party's public relations activities to new effectiveness."

Mentioned in the local search for talent to fill the shoes Elliott will not fill now are Gordon T. Getsinger of Bloomfield Township, an Oakland member of the State Central Committee, and Richard C. Van Dusen, who ran for attorney general in 1956.

Getsinger said he was not considering running.

When informed by Getsinger of Elliott's decision not to be a candidate, Lindemer said this would not change his mind any. Lindemer, like Elliott, said "the press of business and personal matters" ruled out his seeking a third term.

Besides Getsinger and Van Dusen, Elliott at the press conference cited the committee's Executive Secretary John A. Gibbs as being among the "other competent people in Oakland County who could do the job."

Gibbs ruled himself out immediately.

Van Dusen, who said he chose rather to be a delegate to the proposed constitutional convention said he "wasn't available" for the state chairmanship.

Milton Henry to Quit; Is Bound for Ghana

son Copeland, an engineer, as other members of the corporation.

Copeland, Henry said, was already in Accra, the capital of Ghana, helping map plans for the time the group will submit its proposal to the Ghana Parliament.

Henry said should the move prove successful, which he was quite optimistic it would, he would move permanently to Ghana and give up his Pontiac law practice.

Ghanita Enterprises is a $75,000 investment to date, the commissioner said. He declined to say how much he had invested.

The Pontiac attorney, a 1950 graduate of Yale Law School, said the move to Ghana had nothing to do with former Gov. G. Mennen Williams' new State Department position with Africa affairs, or his request of the Oakland County Democratic Committee for endorsement for a foreign affairs position in Africa.

"This is strictly private enterprise in which I am involved with these fellows," he said.

He mentioned the great need for helping the nation of 15 million grow in relation to housing, sanitation and business. He said there was a need for 30,000 homes there today.

"One thing they need desperately is decent housing," the commissioner said.

About the scope of the corporation's proposed development of Ghana, Henry said, "We expect to embrace every field of activity we can get into and hope to procure proper loans from proper people."

The corporation later might branch out into Nigeria, Henry speculated.

'Lumumba Flown to New City'

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Semiofficial sources said deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba was flown here today from Leopoldville under close guard.

They said two other Congolese officials who had been jailed in Leopoldville accompanied him aboard a DC4 plane.

The report came from officials of the Belgian Airline Sabena who said they saw the firebrand Congo leader arrive, by an official of the local air force and by some government official commanding unofficially.

About 500 rebel Baluba tribes men launched four attacks today on Swedish U. N. troops guarding a train in central Katanga Province but were repulsed with heavy losses, a U. N. spokesman said.

The fourth attack came after the Swedes, warding off three morning attacks, took the train into the town of Luena and dug in around the station.

Graham Tells Kennedy Election Helps Religions

Newsmen covering Kennedy, the first Roman Catholic to be elected president, knew he and Graham had a lunch and golf date but they caught their breaths when the president-elect and the evangelist, both sunburned and in high spirits, strolled into the press room.

Yes, Graham said in reply to questions, they had talked about religion and, "I told the president-elect I thought his election had helped relations between the churches. Certainly a better understanding between the Protestant and the Catholic churches in the United States has emerged from the election."

★ ★ ★

Appointment of a Nobel prize-winner in chemistry, Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg of the University of California, as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission filled one of the few remaining vacancies in the upper levels of the Kennedy administration.

Kennedy said he had finished the main job he set for himself during this Florida visit—drafting the address he will make Friday after taking the presidential oath of office on the Capitol steps.

Kennedy is scheduled for a stopover in Washington to attend a pre-inauguration dinner party being given by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Smith, his brother-in-law and sister. Then he goes on to New York, to remain until Wednesday evening. His only announced appointment there is with Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico.

John E. Horne, administrative assistant to Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., was named administrator of the Small Business Administration.

Horne, a graduate of the University of Alabama and a Navy veteran of World War II, has previous experience as administrator of the Small Defense Plants Administration. He was active in the 1956 and 1960 Democratic presidential campaigns.

Benson Ford National Head of UF Drives

DETROIT (UPI)—Benson Ford, vice president of Ford Motor Co., today was named national chairman of United Community Campaigns for America for 1961.

He succeeds Oliver G. Willis, chairman of the board of Campbell Soup Co.

United Community Campaigns of America provide national support for the nation's 2,200 united funds and community chests which raised a record $470 million for health and welfare services last year.

Mandel Resigns Board Position

Would Devote Time to Justice of Peace Job in Waterford Twp.

Waterford Township Attorney Paul M. Mandel of 3549 Baybrook Drive last night formally submitted his resignation to the township board, due to his acceptance as Waterford Township Justice of the Peace.

In his letter of resignation, Mandel stated that although the two positions were compatible, he preferred to devote more time to his newly appointed job, and his own position as a local attorney.

Mandel has been attorney to the township board for the past four years, and was recently appointed to the justice position left vacant by Donald E. Adams who is now an Oakland County probate judge.

In other business, a survey report was submitted regarding the installation of traffic signal lights at the intersections of M59 at Pontiac Lake Road and M59 at Cass Lake Road. The report was presented by State Highway district manager Samuel Levine, who asked the board to forward the recommendations to the Oakland County Road Commission.

The board appointed two new members to the township zoning board, replacing Russell Hicks and Norbert Wise. The two are Mitchell Sioma of 3655 Aquarius Drive and Orlen Younger of 4260 Elizabeth Lake road.

A hearing date for street lighting in the Lotus Lake subdivision was set for 7 to 9 p.m. Jan. 30.

A report from the township's insurance agency, the Hartford Insurance Co., asked that several precautionary measures be projected to further the safety of township employes.

Among the suggestions was that all township trucks should have respirators for workers, gas masks for people working with chlorine and that new side rails be installed and the split rails replaced on the grandstand at the Drayton Ball park.

Clerk James E. Secterlin told the township board that he and an inspector, Raymond Grassie, looked at the grandstand, and authorized it torn down immediately, as it was unsafe for spectators.

The request of police chief Millard J. Pender to give policeman Arthur Holmes a $158 raise in salary plus $150 for clothing was approved. Holmes' salary will now be $5,408 annually.

The board also authorized overtime pay for dog warden Neil King to issue licenses during a two-day vaccination session at the Animal Shelter, Feb. 18 and 25.

The committee's recommendation was disclosed today by Gov. Swainson, who named the group to explore the possible need for legislation and other action leading up to a convention.

Over Billion Put in City Banks

The busiest month last year was May, when transactions hit $92,259,485. The slowest month was February when the figure was $83,016,957.

Rabies on Run; No City Cases in Past 6 Years

Although there has not been one case of rabies in Oakland County since 1954, because of the cooperation of residents who have their dogs vaccinated, officials have urged dog owners not to let down on this project.

Both Dr. John Monroe, Oakland County health director, and Dr. Frank R. Bates, director of animal welfare, pointed out that a new law has been passed permitting veterinarians the use of avanized ravies vaccine.

Before the six-year period without a rabies case, Bates said there were more than 100 cases annually, and added.

"Rabies still is a problem in other parts of Michigan, and if people fail to have their dogs vaccinated, it could again become a major problem."

★ ★ ★

Records show that the number of people obtaining dog licenses, which require vaccination, has dropped considerably.

Ike Asks for Cash to Fight Lampreys

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday asked Congress to appropriate $967,000 for the Great Lakes sea lamprey eradication program during the fiscal year which begins July 1.

The creatures, which resemble eels, suck the blood from lake trout, white fish and other game fish. Most lake trout and white fish have disappeared from Lake Michigan because of lampreys.

The program includes erection of barriers in spawning streams emptying into the Great Lakes and use of poison that kills the lamprey but has little effect on fish.

Bids to Open Again on Adrian Plant Sale

The government has invested about $20 million in the plant and the best offer received in the previous effort was just over $3 million.

The General Services Administration announced today offers are being asked on two alternatives—(1) bids for the entire plant and property, including all machinery and equipment; and (2) bids for the entire plant and property and all machinery and equipment except a drop forge press, an extrusion press and a large electric forging manipulator.

★

GSA said bidders will be encouraged to submit bids on both alternatives.

22 Voided Petitions Are Recalled by City

The city has called for the return of 22 rezoning petitions under the 90-day time limitation adopted by the planning commission last fall.

Notices that deposits of $25 a petition will be refunded upon return of the petitions have been mailed by Henry C. Smith, planning secretary.

* * *

On Aug. 4, planners decided that petitions not returned with signatures to City Hall within 90 days of issuance will be void.

* * *

In the list of the first 22 petition declared void, the earliest date of issuance was May 1, 1957. The most recent was Sept. 30, 1960.

Archbishop Dr. Fisher Is Resigning

"The archbishop's successor has not yet been named," added the spokesman at the palace, which is the home of the archbishop, the Church of England's highest ranking prelate.

Dr. Fisher, now 73, has been archbishop of Canterbury since 1945.

Some dealers forecast that the metal may hover around the $35.50 an ounce level while awaiting President-Elect John F. Kennedy's inaugural statement.

Point System Still Being Used in Grosse Pointe

DETROIT (UPI) — The controversial point system is still being used to screen prospective home buyers in the plush Detroit suburbs of Grosse Pointe.

Bernard Whitley, a real estate salesman, testified in court Monday that he used a book giving screening rules as recently as Sunday.

The testimony came in a $1-million damage suit brought by Teamsters Union official William E. Buffalino who was refused an opportunity to buy a home in Grosse Pointe last year.

The point system by which prospective buyers were graded according to their ethnic, religious, educational, social and occupational backgrounds, was exposed last spring.

Faulty Taillight Pair's Downfall

Found With 12 Guns, Ammunition in Car — Break-Ins Reported

A faulty taillight led to the arrest of an 18-year-old Auburn Heights youth and a Pontiac man in Avon Township early this morning minutes after an Auburn Heights hardware store had been broken into and eight guns stolen.

Sheriff's deputies discovered 12 guns, including eight revolvers, 30 boxes of ammunition, several hunting knives, flashlights, a watch, a dictaphone and several cartons of cigarettes in the suspects' car.

Jerry W. Key, 18, of 3107 Caroline St. and James O. Vandervoer, 22, of 650 St. Clair St. were caught after a short race in the township, which resulted when deputies noticed a faulty taillight on their car.

Upon questioning about the guns, Vandervoer admitted breaking into the Keego Hardware Store at 3320 Auburn Road and Avondale High School, deputies said.

* * *

Entry to the hardware store had been gained by blasting out the front window with a 16-gauge shotgun. Eight of the 12 guns were reported missing from the hardware.

The dictaphone had been stolen from the high school, deputies said.

Entry there had been forced by smashing a glass door. Several interior glass doors also were smashed by the intruders.

Deputies suspected that the other four guns and the rest of the items found in the car were stolen in other area break-ins. They were to question Vandervoer and Key further today before arraigning them.

New Wonder Drug Cosmetic Restores Young Look to Skin
Medical tests show Helena Rubinstein's Ultra Feminine reduces wrinkles due to dryness and restores young tone to mature skin.
Now you can look younger. Medical research proves that the action of two vital female hormones, estrogen and progesterone reactivates specific skin cells. Wrinkles due to dryness are reduced. Young skin tone is restored.
The discovery that has made this possible is Helena Rubinstein's Ultra Feminine® Face Cream, the only face cream with both vital female hormones. These are the very hormones that have helped shape every woman from Venus to you—the same hormones that abound in a young woman's skin.
The chart below shows you how nature reduces estrogen and progesterone supplies with maturity. Here's what happens when Ultra Feminine resupplies estrogen and progesterone daily to your skin.
What the doctors report
Skin cells can hold maximum moisture again. These cells, plumped out once more, support the surface firmly. Lines smooth out. Wrinkles due to dryness are reduced. Young skin tone is restored.
Oil glands produce at a more youthful rate again. Tissue sections and skin surface tests show an amazing increase in oil production. The skin is soft, dewy, protected.
Start looking younger
Start using Ultra Feminine now. In just 30 days, see your skin take on a definitely younger look. Such rapid results are possible because Ultra Feminine is an actual wonder drug cosmetic that works within the skin to replenish loss of physiological substances. The whole process, miraculous to behold, is like nature's own because estrogen and progesterone are the female hormones which power these cells in youth. Because your skin can't store up hormones for the future, you must use Ultra Feminine faithfully each night. This assures your daily hormone requirement.
This medically tested treatment costs only pennies per use. See your skin look young again, and stay younger looking.
"Lifetime Guarantee
Helena Rubinstein states: "Your skin must look younger in one month, then stay younger looking with continued daily use of Ultra Feminine, if used as directed, or return your latest purchase for full refund."

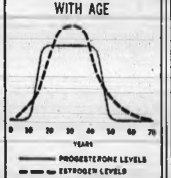
HOW FEMALE HORMONE PRODUCTION DECLINES WITH AGE



These curves show the relative changes in the amounts of estrogen and progesterone during the life of the female. Note how rapidly they decline after 35—the estrogen first, then the progesterone.

ONCE-A-YEAR SALE!

Georgia's Game Defeat May Have Led to Riot

The relapse that exploded on the campus of the University of Georgia last week was a sorry and saddening demonstration. Just when things were looking up in this long and bitter integration hassle along comes a basketball game which may have triggered the demonstration.

★ ★ ★

For one day the Georgia students behaved as ladies and gentlemen. They showed the maturity that should come with going to college. After the first day that the two Negro students had been in school it appeared that the student body of this Georgia university would set an example which might be followed.

★ ★ ★

But what happened was mob violence at its worst. Rock throwing, banner waving students swarmed in and about the dormitory where Miss Hunter was living. They behaved like mad dogs. And it took the police with tear gas and riot squads to break up the demonstration.

School authorities were forced to take action and suspend the two Negro students for their own protection.

★ ★ ★

No one is certain just what caused the trouble, but it is suspected, sorry as it may sound, that Georgia's defeat to Georgia Tech in a hotly contested game may be the reason. The students left the game in an exceptionally angry mood and proceeded to Miss Hunter's dorm. Here they let off their steam on a completely innocent target.

★ ★ ★

Childish disappointment by college students such as this is a disgrace. Undoubtedly many were exempted from military service to finish school. We wonder whether they were mature enough to be in college at all.

Such demonstrations have no place in college. Perhaps the armed services could teach these students something about discipline and self-control. Perhaps we should revoke their exemptions until they learn to live with their fellow men.

New Loans and Credits Strengthen Yugoslavia

The United States and seven other Western nations have granted Yugoslavia's President Tito loans and stand-by credits totaling $275 million, $100 million of which comes from this country.

Only the day before Tito had blamed the West for "lack of efforts toward rapprochement and readiness to renew contacts" with Communist nations. He blamed the cold war on the West and added that Yugoslavia and other Communist countries have the same attitudes on major world affairs.

★ ★ ★

At the same time Tito lashed out at Peiping for false charges leveled at his country. The Communist manifesto issued at the recent meeting in Moscow condemned Tito for heresies. While the 68-year-old marshal generally gives verbal support to Moscow's foreign policies, he has followed a neutralist course for some years.

★ ★ ★

Tito is steering his country over a perilous course. He known that his Western ties are not likely to be broken even when he attacks us to impress Communist nations. But he can't criticize Russia very much while sitting under Khrushchev's guns.

During the U.N. assembly session just ended, Tito strengthened his country's ties with neutral African and Asian nations. Privately on his many trips abroad he has spoken out against Red China's ambitions although endorsing basic Communist doctrine.

All the while Tito has been building up trade with the free world. At the present time about 75 per cent of Yugoslavia's trade is with the West. The new credits will strengthen those ties.

About a Primary Reason for Seeking Marriage

Determined: What some folks are to lay the egg that kills the golden goose.

The 1960 records of the Oakland County Clerk's office show that the smaller number of marriage licenses issued in a single month was in January when only 222 such permits were made out.

August was the largest month, with 531. It almost ran a dead heat with June, the old time month of weddings, when 530 were issued.

This somewhat gives the lie to an old assertion, and brings to mind a recent remark by one of the few remaining TV blabbers worth listening to.

His Finest Memento

David Lawrence Says:

Others to Determine JFK Success

WASHINGTON — What kind of president will John F. Kennedy make? All over the world that very question is being asked. But the answer will not be found in his campaign speeches. Nor will it be obtained by analyzing his personality or career in public service.

LAWRENCE

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain.

President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany.

These five men control the future "prestige" of the Kennedy administration. For the United States cannot go it alone—it cannot overrule its allies or force its potential enemy to retreat. The Soviet Union, moreover, can produce crisis after crisis based on disunity or differences among the Western Allies.

The notion that John Kennedy has become dictator of the world's destiny is fallacious. His hands are tied—just as were those of President Eisenhower.

All the hysterical rantings of the critics about lowered "prestige" or lack of "leadership" by President Eisenhower ignores a simple fact—that the head of the American government is not the boss and that he has only one choice, between war or peace.

If he chooses peace, then patience and furbearance, which are easily misjudged as weakness, can be criticized once more. Significantly, W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to Russia and designated as ambassador-at-large in the new administration, said on a radio program, taped last Friday, that Americans will have to learn to live with the cold war for a long time.

McCORMACK SPEARS

But Rep. John W. McCormack, the Democratic party's leader in the House of Representatives, in "Radio News Conference" on Sunday, took a different view as he accused President Eisenhower of "very weak leadership on the world level" and called for sacrifices to roll back Communist gains. He said:

"The American people in my opinion are warriors. We're not quitters. But the people should be given the truth, and they're commencing to get it now through the newspapers."

McCormack discussed Laos, Cuba, Berlin, the Congo and relations with the allies. He spoke of Gen. De Gaulle as "concerned with his internal problems—a courageous man, but uppermost in his mind is France internally, and he's compelled to disregard the world situation."

While not saying so directly, McCormack implied that Prime Minister Macmillan is inclined to be an appeaser. He remarked that he was sorry to say that Macmillan is "following the pathways that Chamberlain took" when the latter "gave away to Hitler in the hope that Hitler would be satisfied." McCormack added:

"And Hitler showed that the road to appeasement is the road to war. We need firmness. It means one has got to be capable and have to take the calculated risk of action and firmness against the calculated risk of inaction."

The House Democratic majority leader also declared that defense expenditures should be stepped up because "that's a message to the Communists, to Khrushchev and them that they understand."

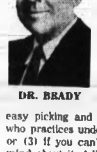
Dr. William Brady Says:

Abundant Use of Salt Isn't Necessarily Bad

It may well be that habitual use of too much salt in or on food is particularly harmful to heart and arteries, although it is remarkable that one finds so little scientific discussion of this in medical literature and so much in popular publications.

If this catches you on a "salt-free" or salt-poor regimen don't let it disturb you. In any case you have three alternatives: (1) dismiss my comments or (2) break away from the trick specialist or klinickateer who finds you such easy picking and consult a doctor who practices under his own name or (3) if you can't make up your mind about it, follow the salt-poor regimen (as approved by your doctor) faithfully for three weeks and let the results" show whether it does any good.



DR. BRADY

Ordinarily a healthy person requires approximately a level teaspoonful (3 or 4 grams) of salt a day — the salt naturally present in milk, meat, fish and the salt added in cooking or at table as seasoning.

Some persons habitually consume too much salt. One ill effect of this habit is swelling of the feet towards the end of the day. Excessive use of salt makes the accumulate slacker flesh — flabby tissues, due to retention of more than the normal amount of water.

My answer to the question, "Why do doctors forbid the use of salt?" is that I don't believe it is a health question. In other words, don't monkey with salt-poor or salt-free diet! If any such measure is necessary, leave it to the judgment of the doctor who observes the condition of the patient from day to day.

For, while it may not be dangerous to take too much salt, it is dangerous to try to do without salt or unduly restrict the natural daily ration of salt.

In extremely hot weather or whenever people work or play hard, a good deal of salt is lost in sweat. The loss of salt in this way is largely accountable for heat exhaustion, sunstroke, heat cramps, hot weather fatigue or weariness.

For this reason it is now the general custom to encourage workers in foundries, industrial plants, steel mills, paper mills and so forth to take some salt with every drink of water.

A good pinch of salt, maybe a five grain tablet, with each glass of cold water or other beverage makes the drink more refreshing.

When the body's salt content has been greatly reduced by extreme sweating, drinking water to slake thirst may induce cramps. This is sometimes called "water intoxication," but of course it is a manifestation of salt deficiency.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, but diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

"Some of our upstanding citizens got that way because their parents gave proper attention to that part of their anatomy on which they sit."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Neurotic Wife Problem to Husband

Eloise's husband would have saved himself $7,000 if he had read this newspaper and sent for the sex booklet below. These non-profit medical and psychological booklets are offered as a public service by your newspaper, so pass them around. And make a scrapbook of the daily column, for these are all true office cases.

★ ★ ★

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case C-480: Eloise D., aged 30, has been married nine years.

DR. CRANE

"In fact, I have spent over $7,000 on her since we were first married.

"She has submitted to five surgical operations, including one at the Mayo Clinic.

"But still, she complains and must see additional doctors for she has vague pain in her pelvis or lower abdomen.

"Three months ago a psychiatrist even gave her a series of shock treatments, but she is now just as much a 'Worry Wart' as ever.

WORRY WARTS

Eloise is a typical example of a neurotic, not an insane patient, so shock treatment obviously would be of little value to her.

After a lengthy interview, during which she subconsciously tried to sidestep the basic core of her problem, I finally got her to put it into words.

"So I have wondered if something might be wrong with my anatomy. Because I have been shy about discussing such frank topics, I haven't told any of the doctors just why I consult them.

"If so I figure if I have pelvic pain, this will require a complete medical examination and then they'll be sure to find out if I have an infantile womb or some other deficiency.

"The first doctor decided it was my appendix, so he removed that.

"Another thought I had an ovarian cyst. I have been circumcized and also had my womb straightened.

"Finally they decided my vague symptoms might be due to the gall bladder so I had that out, too.

"It has cost my husband $7,000, but I still don't derive any great pleasure out of marriage, so I am still right where I started."

HIGH SPEED MACHINE

Because of the shortage of physicians, doctors often are too pressed for time to engage in lengthy personal interviews.

Just think what would happen, therefore, if we ever got socialized medicine like England where a doctor allots you about two minutes per interview!

Dr. James C. Doyle (University of California) studied 8,248 hysterectomies (womb removal) and found that two out of every five (40 per cent) were both unnecessary and unwarranted as per the pathology reports.

Dr. Walter Alvarez studied 225 appendectomies performed though symptoms of acute appendicitis were missing, and found that 223 of these were still uncured, despite the operation.

(For more of such data, see Chapter 21 in my college textbook, "Psychology Applied" at your local library.)

★ ★ ★

Eloise is typical of these many thousands who are needlessly operated on for lack of proper psychological investigation of the patients.

I gave her the booklet, "Sex Problems in Marriage." You can order this nonprofit booklet for

Within a single week, she was over her nine-year marital problem. That 20-cent newspaper booklet would have saved her husband $7,000 so be very grateful to your progressive newspaper for this daily clinical column.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Anyone who would complain about a gift of God such as a man's smile might have a warped mind. Everyone's smile looks good. This would be a better world if we had less people going around grouching about what others look like.

In reference to the letter written by "I Still Like Ike," I find that people who speak in disparagment about other people's physical detriments or attributes show a small and narrowmind.

I could never bring myself to say that I thought Mr. Nixon had a shifty-eyed quality about him. And it is below me to state Mr. Eisenhower's continual nervousness shows a diffident in character.

I'd like to rise and see the dawn . . . Draw back the shades of night . . . And cast upon the cool still earth . . . Its rays of rainbow light . . . I'd like to watch the morning sun . . . Upon the heaven stand . . . And in its warm and tender arms . . . Embrace the fertile land . . . I'de like in later afternoon . . . To walk around the park . . . Until the twilight shadows fall . . . And lanterns slight the dark . . . I'd like to see the orange moon . . . In gown of midnight blue . . . And wear'a crown of silver stars . . . With strings of pearly dew . . . I'd like to see such lovely things . . . But it can never be . . . For I must work too late each day . . . In chained reality.

Training Called 'Routine': No Cuba Invasion Seen

Guatemala's 'Mystery Base' Is No Mystery at All

By MARIO ROSENTHAL

RETALHULEU, Guatemala (AP) — The "mystery base" at Retalhuleu gives the appearance of being just what Guatemala claims — an army guerrilla training camp and not, as Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro charges, a jump off spot for an invasion of Cuba.

This reporter made a tour of the base, tucked away in the mountains of western Guatemala, and found nothing to indicate it is an invasion staging area.

There were no signs of anti-Castro mercenaries drawn from throughout the Americas, no jet aircraft and no training that could be called invasion preparation.

The fact that Retalhuleu is on the Pacific coast of Guatemala, 700 miles from Castro's Caribbean fortress, makes it hard to believe the base is the staging area for an invasion of Cuba.

Existence of the base was disclosed recently along with reports that U.S. military advisers were training anti-Castro guerrillas flown to Retalhuleu from throughout the Americas, including the United States.

DENIES INVASION PLOT

A U.S. Embassy spokesman denied to this reporter that the United States is involved in any invasion plot but confirmed U.S. military advisers are in Guatemala, as in most friendly nations.

"Our Air Force and Army mission combined is 15 men in all," he said, "eight officers and seven noncommissioned officers. Our missions cooperate with Guatemala as with all our friends."

There was no indication the United States had aircraft or personnel in the training area when this reporter toured 'Retalhuleu. There were, however, five airplanes parked on the base's 6,000-foot airstrip — three B26s and two C47 transports.

★ ★ ★

Guatemala denies the base is being used to launch any invasion or that there is anything unusual about the presence of U.S. military advisers in Guatemala.

"There are no aggressive intentions in connection with the activities at Retalhuleu," said Defense Minister Enrique Peralta Azurdia. "They are just routine activities by the Guatemalan army.

"It should be remembered," he added, "that American military and air missions are in Guatemala and normally give valuable advice to our army."

DEFENSIVE TRAINING

Col. Alfonso Algara Pilona, commandant of the base, said his troops receive purely defensive training in guerrilla warfare. The rugged mountain area of Retalhuleu was chosen, he said, because "we want our men to get accustomed to the rigors of guerrilla warfare and to learn to live off the countryside."

★ ★ ★

"We send out a platoon with one day's provision and they stay for three," he said. "During that time they fend for themselves from plants and fruits."

Guatemalan officials would not say how many troops are at Retalhuleu but said there is a constant rotation of men and that eventually the entire army will undergo intensive training at the base.

★ ★

The base was set up on land owned by the Guatemalan ambassador to the United States, Carlos Alejos, and his brother Roberta, who from his plantation in nearby Helvetia directs the nation's biggest independent coffee growing operation.

★ ★ ★

Roberto Alejos said he and other Guatemalan businessmen financed the base's airstrip to guard against invasion by pro-Castro forces.

Guatemala has broken off diplomatic relations with Cuba and charged Castro with complicity in an unsuccessful revolt here last November.

Both nations repeatedly have stated they expect the other will start trouble.

"We are not afraid of Castro," Alejos said. "We are prepared and getting more prepared every day. But we will not move one man out of Guatemala or allow these bases to be used for aggression."

TROOPS TRAIN AT RETALHULEU — Troops climb and jump from a fence made of wooden poles at the so-called 'mystery base' in Retalhuleu, Guatemala, last week. The Guatemalan government claims the base is an army guerilla camp and not, as Fidel Castro charges, a jump off spot for an invasion of Cuba. Guatemala broke off diplomatic relations with Cuba late last year and charged Castro with complicity in an unsuccessful revolt in Guatemala last November.

Industry Output Falls 2 Per Cent

December Drop Is 4th in 5 Months; Index Hits Lowest Level Since '59

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Output of the nation's mines, mills and factories dropped in December for the fourth time in five months, hitting its lowest level since the crippling 1959 steel strike, the Federal Reserve Board reported Monday.

The drop of nearly 2 per cent in the board's index of industrial activity reflected sharp cutbacks in steel, auto and other production. As a result, the index slid to 103, down seven points from mid-1960.

The December reading was the lowest since November 1959, when the industrial production was badly crippled by a long steel strike.

The Reserve Board said steel production was "cut back sharply in the final weeks" of 1960 but bounced back more than normally would be expected in early January.

Auto assemblies fell 10 per cent in December and there were further cutbacks in early January as the volume of unsold new cars set a new high for the month.

Bar Cuba Trips 'for Safety Sake'

Only Those With Vital Business Will Be Given Travel Permission

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States Monday halted tourist travel to Fidel Castro's Cuba because it is no longer able "to extend normal protective services" to American citizens there.

Travel to the island will be limited to trips considered "in the best interests of the United States." Boiled down, this means newsmen and businessmen "with previously established business connections in Cuba."

The State Department action put Cuba in the same category with Red China, North Korea, North Viet Nam and Albania, all Communist countries, where travel by Americans is banned without special permission.

But the regulations on Cuba probably will not be enforced as severely as they are towards those other countries.

However, any U.S. citizen wishing to go to Cuba must have his passport especially endorsed by the State Department.

★ ★ ★

The department said the restrictions were issued "in conformity with the department's normal practice of limiting travel to those countries with which the United States does not maintain diplomatic relations."

★ ★ ★

When the United States broke with Castro's regime Jan. 3, it asked the Swiss Embassy in Havana to look after American interests in Cuba.

Since the United States no longer has either an embassy or a consulate in Cuba, it can no longer extend "protective services" to U.S. citizens.

Local Woman Pleads Innocent in Death

A plea of innocent was entered by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams yesterday for Mrs. Mary S. G. Kennedy, accused of manslaughter in the fatal Christmas night shooting of a 59-year-old Pontiac man.

She said it was self-defense after Oscar E. McCloud of 147 W. South Blvd., had threatened to shoot other persons in her home at 442 Harvey St.

Mrs. Kennedy, 61, was released on a $1,000 bond pending her trial. No date was set.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. Our 8-year-old boxer has scabby elbows. What can we do for him? Mrs. John Jenks, La Fayette, N.Y.

A. Scabby elbows are much easier to prevent than to treat. Just don't let your dog lie on hard surfaces. These unsightly marks are seen quite often in larger dogs, particularly when the dog's favorite resting spot is on a concrete floor.

★ ★ ★

But in addition to their ugliness, the scabby pressure spots can become easily infected, and then are quite painful. I have best results treating them with iodine ointments.

★ ★ ★

Truman to Guest at Inaugural Day Luncheon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Harry S. Truman will attend a special inaugural luncheon Friday for governors of 44 states, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The governors inaugural reception committee said Mrs. Truman, daughter Margaret and husband Clifton Daniel also would attend the luncheon for the governors, their wives and guests to be held following swearing-in ceremonies at the capitol.

Not expected to attend the luncheon were the chief executives of Georgia, Montana, Mississippi, New York, Utah and Wyoming.

★ ★ ★

Following the luncheon, the governors will watch the inaugural parade for President-Elect John F. Kennedy, until each must go to his automobile to join the procession.

Hearst Thinks U.S. Can Halt Red Drive

BOCA RATON, Fla. (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev believes Russia can win the cold war but America "possesses the moral and material fiber" needed to defeat the Communist drive, William Randolph Hearst Jr. said Monday.

Khrushchev "is our foremost adversary and we would be well advised to take him seriously at all times," Hearst told the opening session of the 50th annual convention of the National Coffee Association.

The Hearst newspapers editor-in-chief said international communism now is aiming at Africa and South America in its drive for world domination.

Jailed in Fraud Case, Georgia Mayor Resigns

WARNER ROBINS, Ga. (AP) —Mayor Kemp A. Harrison, 49, imprisoned on federal bank fraud charges, has resigned despite a state court finding he could continue as mayor while in jail.

Harrison, who won re-election to a second 4-year term in November while serving a year and a day on federal bank fraud charges, submitted his resignation to City Commission Monday night.

Senate Conservatives, Liberals at War

State Legislature Will Convene Tonight

LANSING (AP) — The 1961 legislature convenes tonight for the second week of a session in which Senate Republicans already are embroiled in a power struggle between conservatives and liberals.

At stake is the chairmanship of the Senate Business Committee, which has the important duty of screening Gov. Swainson's administrative agency appointments.

Sen. Charles R. Feenstra of Grand Rapids is the choice of the conservative bloc, while Sen. John W. Fitzgerald of Grand Ledge has the backing of the relatively liberal group.

Fitzgerald was backed by a GOP caucus last week in his determination to get the chairmanship.

But the conservative-controlled committee on committees insisted on Feenstra for the job. That was where matters stood when the Senate adjourned for the weekend.

CLAIMS NEWCOMERS

Fitzgerald, son of a former governor, claimed he has the backing of all of the GOP newcomers to the Senate, and threatened to take the fight to the floor if necessary.

There he is virtually assured of getting all 12 Democratic votes.

Fitzgerald and one of his backers, Sen. John H. Stahlin of Belding, said they learned that considerable pressure was applied by lobbyists and others over the weekend in an effort to swing the votes of some of the liberals.

"But as far as I know, there has been no wavering of support," Fitzgerald said, adding that he himself had been offered other committee chairmanships as a compromise but had turned them down.

Gov. Swainson told newsmen he is maintaining a hands-off policy in the squabble.

Swainson said he may have his budget message ready for the lawmakers when they reconvene tonight, otherwise it will not be submitted until he returns from the inauguration of President-Elect Kennedy in Washington.

The governor and his party plan to leave on a National Guard plane for the nation's capital this afternoon.

Family Service Able to Explain Why

Tom Ran Away From His Problems . . .

(Editor's Note: The prevention of social and emotional breakdown is the concern of Family Service of Oakland County, a member agency of the Pontiac Area United Fund. This is the third of six articles in which the Agency will direct the spotlight on causes of unhappy living. The material and case history in the articles is disguised to protect the families served.)

Tom, a graduate engineer, had already gone through several good jobs because he was constantly dissatisfied. When he came to Family Service, a United Fund agency, having been referred by his employer, he was ready to quit, pack up his family, and move to another job.

His employer saw his long-range possibilities and felt that letting Tom continue to run away was not the answer.

★ ★ ★

Tom knew this, too, and that was why he readily came to our agency. He knew this running was not giving economic security to his family or a chance for them to set roots in a community.

★ ★ ★

Lack of economic security will sap the strength of any family. Statistics tell us that there are staggering numbers of man hours lost in employment by men constantly changing from job to job or by men wasting time on the job due to worries at home.

A man's wife may be sick or walking out on him or his kid may be acting up again. We know that these conditions at home may affect his production as a worker.

On the other hand, we know that worry and strain can be carried over from the job into his home relationship. A wife's normal requests can become outlandish demands.

If he is not understood and accepted on the job, his wife is a recipient of pent-up anger that is related to his boss. A child's normal bickering, yelling and requests can send him out of the house "seeing red."

★ ★ ★

Oftentimes these reactions are due not to what actually happens on the job, but the man's individual emotional reaction is to what happened and oftentimes it is built up out of all proportion to the actual case.

THIS WAS TOM

We could see some of this in Tom and in his job adjustment and his feelings concerning his marriage were dependent upon how well he could adjust unresolved feelings, developed through his past life experiences.

Tom, a Phi Beta Kappa in college, placed his trouble on the basis of inferior feeling, and the fact that he was never sure of himself. As he unraveled his life experiences, we found that much of it centered on his relationship with his father. Because the family was divorced, his father had custody of him and outwardly his mother had deserted him.

★ ★ ★

Actually, Tom knew his father drove his mother out and felt that his father was really the one who ran from marriage. Tom also wasn't sure he could take the responsibility of marriage and he was afraid he would run away like his Dad.

★ ★ ★

Also, his father was hypercritical, constantly belittling, so Tom alternated by being extremely resentful and fearful of criticism or by sitting back and being totally dependent on his father. Certainly this latter way was the easier.

Tom needed to see that his dependency on other people's approval was a flashback to his childhood. His present capacities did not indicate that he needed to be afraid of criticism. Because he is different than his father, he does not really want to or have to run away. Otherwise, he wouldn't have wanted help.

As Tom could see, understand and then handle these feelings, he settled down on the job and produced the way his employer and he knew he could. As the case was closed, Tom was planning to buy a house in his community. He and his family for the first time felt what it was like to be at home in their own community.

Any man who takes his domestic problems to work or brings his dissatisfaction of work to the home can be helped to produce at his best capacity by seeking professional counseling. This can be found at Family Service of Oakland County.

Yes, when he comes in, he will say he has tried. He means it, but there are times when he needs help to help himself. It is not a sign of weakness when an individual man or woman turns for professional help at Family Service, but rather a sign of strength.

It is important that people have satisfaction in their work but many times they are still left with financial problems in the home. Don't miss the next article on this subject.

Women's Section

Will Discuss Retarded

The mentally retarded child will be considered at the Oakland County District Nurses Association's 7:30 meeting in Pontiac General Hospital this evening.

Reflecting on the estimate that only some 9,000 of Michigan's 210,000 mentally retarded children are in institutions, the panel will discuss the problems of the retarded child in the community.

Moderator will be John Holland, assistant executive director of the Michigan Association for Retarded Children. The means of physical and psychological diagnosis will be explored by Dr. Robert Jaslow, director of the Plymouth Home and Training Cchool. George Bouwn, director of social service at the Plymouth institution, will outline the resources in the community available for assistance to the retarded child and his family.

★ ★ ★

Sam Brenner, a member of the Oakland County Friends and Relatives group, a unit of the MARC, will present the parents' view of the problem. Mr. Brenner is president of the Down River Association of the MARC.

Area nurses have been invited to attend the formal meeting, which will be preceded by a coffee hour.

Scholarship Winner in Address

Karla Stoddard, recipient of the Pontiac Woman's Club 1957 nursing scholarship, spoke to the group Monday at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building.

★ ★ ★

"What Nursing Means to Me," was Miss Stoddard's subject. A Waterford Township High School graduate, she attended Grace Hospital School of Nursing, Detroit. She represented the Detroit Student Nurses' Association at the Michigan State Convention of Nurses at Traverse City in 1959. Miss Stoddard would like to specialize in psychiatric nursing.

★ ★ ★

Following the talk, Mrs. Hayden Henley, club president, reported on the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs "Cavalcade of Events."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William H. Bedard was chairman of the day, assisted by Mrs. William Georgia, Mrs. H. F. Going, Mrs. W. H. Eustice, Mrs. F. L. Becker, Mrs. Howard Hall and Mrs. N. P. Warrener. Others helping were Mrs. Guy Bevington, Mrs. W. M. Morgan and Mrs. William Wright.

Better Drop Into House for Visit

By The Emily Post Institute

Question: Last Saturday my husband stopped at his brother's house to pick up some tools. I went along with him as we were going to do some shopping afterwards. I did not bother to get out of the car as he was only going to be a short while.

★ ★ ★

When my sister-in-law discovered that I was in the car she became highly indignant and told my husband that I could have at least come in to say hello.

She has made quite an issue of this and considers it a slight to her. For my own satisfaction, I would like to know if I committed a breach of good manners by not going into the house?

★ ★ ★

Answer: If your husband was going to stop long enough to have a chat, you should have gone into the house with him, especially as you must have known that your sister-in-law is easily offended.

★ ★ ★

Question: Should a secretary knock at her employer's door before entering his private office when he has not rung for her to come in.

★ ★ ★

Answer: She should not knock, unless her employer has told her he wishes her to do so.

Many Prob, Cons, Says Abby

Should Wife Leave or Stay With Mentally Ill Husband?

DEAR ABBY: You did a great disservice to the young wife of the mentally sick husband when you advised her to stick with him.

Would you have us adopt the ancient Hindu custom which compels the widow to throw herself on the burning bier of her husband and join him in death.

ABBY

We are not Hindus, Abby.

And a woman who will put up with a husband who has become a mental case is only making a martyr of herself.

Sincerely yours,
NO MARTYR

DEAR ABBY: How dare you compare mental illness with cancer? Cancer affects only the person who has it. Mental illness can destroy an entire family.

I knew a woman psychiatrist who said most mental patients who resist treatments are just mean and selfish and use their "illness" to dodge responsibility. She also said she never saw a mental patient who couldn't get well if he wanted to.

You should have advised the wife to divorce her husband immediately. Just because HIS ship is sinking is no reason for her to go down with it.

ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: "Been Through It" disgusted me. In my opinion her attitude is the reason her husband stayed mentally ill for so long.

We were married only six years when my husband entered a mental hospital. It took faith in God, good state doctors, and plenty of love, but he hasn't had to go back.

He wasn't easy to live with for a while, but I couldn't just leave him to suffer alone and make my own life with the children.

We've been married 10 years now. The battle is not completely won but we're happier now than we've ever been. His illness has brought our family closer together. I'm glad I stuck.

"ALSO BEEN THROUGH IT"

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been in psychotherapy for a year. Sometimes he's fine, and other times he's a mean, foul-mouthed drunken animal. This is no atmosphere in which to raise children. His doctor tried to explain his case to me, but I can't buy it.

The cost of psychiatric treatment makes a polio or cancer patient's bills look like chicken feed.

I am giving him just one more year in which to get well. If he doesn't, then I am leaving. I am no cruel or selfish. I am only thinking about my children.

"GOING THROUGH IT"

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Please ask "BEEN THROUGH IT" if she recalls the vows she made on her wedding day.

"I take thee—for better or for worse, in sickness and in health . . . 'till death do us part."

She replied, "I will." But did she really mean it?

"WIFE OF A MENTAL PATIENT"

DEAR ABBY: Your statement, "Victims of mental illness are just as blameless and helpless as victims of cancer" shows how little you know about it.

You remind me of that judge who ruled that my sister was sufficiently mentally competent to handle the inheritance our father left her. It took her exactly one year to go through $60,000.

Then her family had to support her. She still runs up bills all over town, but the judge doesn't have to pay them. We do. I am beginning to wonder if maybe WE aren't the ones who are mentally unbalanced.

HER FAMILY

COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Home from the hospital . . . a bundle of love in your arms . . . who wouldn't be enthusiastic? But many a new mother forgets that her body is still undergoing a dramatic change and therefore tires more quickly. During the first two weeks it's wise to take advantage of as many helping hands as you can. Then, try to organize your day in terms of baby's needs and your footsteps. Let the household chores that can go hang, go hang. Dusting can wait, a little heart that needs you can't!

Do you know why baby needs specially prepared cereal? Because they supply iron to replace the diminishing store of iron baby had at birth. Gerber Baby Cereals provide iron to spare . . . 6 tablespoons give him more than 100% of the Recommended Daily Dietary allowance for infants. Then too, Gerber Cereals are enriched with B-vitamins and calcium, are brimming with calories too.

Mother savers. An inexpensive high stool is a good investment for sitting out chores like ironing, peeling vegetables, etc. If you alternate sitting and standing chores and change shoes once a day, you'll reduce fatigue considerably.

Reassuring resolutions: trust your mother instinct to help you hurdle the so-called hazards of baby care. Trust your trusting one to tell you his needs. Be surprised how soon you learn what cry means what.

As you probably know, babies, like adults, need a daily ration of vitamin C. Gerber Strained Orange Juice is just the thing to give baby for plenty of this important vitamin. Ever so mild, it's pasteurized for baby's protection and finely strained for easy feeding. Other excellent juices: Gerber Strained Apple Juice and Apple-Cherry. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The Andrew J. Browns of South Tasmania Avenue were hosts at their daughter's reception in the Community Activities Building, Waterford. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John W. Black of North Anderson Street and the late Joseph Younker.

Fingertip veiling of French illusion held by a tiara of seed pearls complemented the bridal gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Leaving for a brief honeymoon, the new Mrs. Younker was wearing a pink wool sheath dress. The couple will be at home on Norton Street.

★ ★ ★

Housing the series has presented a problem since the Oakland Theater fire.

Author of "Only in America," "For 2c Plain" and the newly published book "Enjoy! Enjoy!" Mr. Golden is reputed for his wit and homespun philosophy.

In addition to his books he publishes The Carolina Israelite, considered an unconventional liberal newspaper and is a syndicated newspaper columnist.

Following Mr. Golden's lecture, a celebrity luncheon and question session will be held at Devon Gables. Mrs. Clyde Dearing of Ottawa Drive is handling reservations.

By MARY ANGLEMIER

Some 70 members of the Pontiac Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association heard Mrs. J. P. Caritte speak on "Gardens of the Bible" when Mrs. Milo J. Cross opened her North Hammond Lake Drive home Monday.

Mrs. Caritte of Pleasant Ridge, daughter of the late Rev. S. S. Marquis, first rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, was introduced by Mrs. Philip M. Hubbard.

The speaker said when she first took an interest in studying gardens of the Bible she thought she had struck a new idea but discovered the research had been going on for hundreds of years and she wasn't at all original.

"In digging up reports of geologists and archeologists I learned scientists use the Bible to confirm things they have found.

"Researchers have never discovered a city that flourished up to 6,00 years ago that could not be found in the Bible," she said.

"Gardens in Biblical times consisted of trees, although vegetables we now use could all be found there. Trees furnished food, a place of meeting, and a place for children to play.

"One of the most revered trees is the olive. According to records, it is believed the olive trees in the Garden of Gethsemane are the very ones under which Jesus knelt," said Mrs. Caritte.

IN MOROCCO

Mrs. Caritte told of visiting the beautiful Moslem gardens in Morocco. Walking down a tiny path she came upon the Holy of Holys —a small garden about 10 feet square with a small river running beside it.

She found three men there — a Franciscan monk, a Spanish priest and a Moslem. There was a profound silence as all meditated and prayed silently, she said.

"As I sat down and leaned against a tree, a favorite Bible verse came to my mind "Be still and know that I am God," she stated.

"When I rose to leave, each man bowed and in his own language said 'God Bless You.'

"There is no communication between two minds unless one will sit and listen. We don't listen enough. We can't hear God's plan for us if we are constantly making noises of anxiety, fear, distrust and hatred.

"I think we must cultivate a silence within ourselves — the kind of silence in which we can sit and hear — 'Be still and know that I am God,'" she added.

Mrs. Russell Galbraith reported several books have been ordered for the Pontiac City Library in memory of the late Mrs. Mel T. Werden, a former member.

Mrs. William B. Hartman, chairman of the tea, was assisted by Mrs. Vernon C. Abbott, Mrs. James C. Clarke, Mrs. Glenn H. Griffin, Mrs. B. Jack Habel, Mrs. Charles W. Hayner, Mrs. H. Russel Holland and Mrs. Harold G. King.

Others were Mrs. Alvin R. Larson, Mrs. Robert B. Oliver, Mrs. John H. Patterson, Mrs. Aaron D. Riker, Mrs. Goodloe H. Rogers, Mrs. Stuart E. Whitfield, Mrs. G.R. Williams and Mrs. Arthur R. Young.

Pussy willows, daffodils and iris arranged in a bark plank centered the tea table covered with a sandalwood linen cloth. Candles were mahogany brown.

The table was arranged by Mrs. Clifford T. Ekelund.

Encouraging expression and appreciation are the aims of the school's fine arts department. With classroom aids, including record player and tape recorder, the children learn of the works of renowned and less known artists.

The elementary and junior high bands will perform under the direction of Charles Joss, and the mixed glee club, led by William Kershaw, will sing.

Poems will be recited and dramatized by third graders, and second graders will perform rhythm band numbers.

Don't Just Sit and Sit

Perk Up Your Own Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

So many people fail to realize how much a new project, a new hobby, or even a new game or some new records, can pep up home life. It's not that we become bored with one another, but that we get into ruts and forget that a new interest can jog up family fun in a wonderful way.

The father has his work cut out for him, the mother has her work cut out for her, and so do the children, and unless something is done, the whole thing will be "cut and dried."

We cannot sit at home and hope that something exciting will happen. We have to do something about it and make it happen. This goes for married couples, for lonely persons who want to make new friends, and is especially important from middle age on.

Just a little push on your part may open doors you never dreamed of. The ripple from your first effort expands continually.

Not long ago I wrote about handicrafts, especially about leathercrafting. Today I want to tell you a human interest story which really happened.

Tom and Wilma are both in their later middle years. They met at a leathercraft guild and had a lot of fun with this shared project. Wilma started as a complete amateur.

She had purchased a beginner's kit and materials for about $17. Tom helped her and now, 18 months later, she is as deft and clever as Tom, and sketches out her own designs.

Also, this story has a romantic ending because Tom and Wilma fell in love and married. Today they earn from $2,500 to $3,000 a year between them from their leathercraft hobby.

Money is important to all of us, but the most important thing is to use what talents we have and to discover some we did not know we had.

Wilma had made only a few of her own clothes but now she has designed suede blouses for chilly days and personalizes belts and moccasins for her customers.

HE'S HAPPY, TOO

What about Tom? He seems as happy as Wilma. He still keeps up some of his life insurance sales contacts, and along the way he sells almost as much leather as he does insurance.

Most lives can stand a little activation, and so many people who are bored and frustrated would be surprised by the results of that first self-effort to get out of a rut.

The important thing is not to become "becalmed" like a sailboat which must wait for the wind to rise. Why not blow up a little breeze of your own?

'Lighting' Topic of Club Meeting

Mrs. George Hotchkiss presented the program "Better Lighting for Better Living" at Wednesday's meeting of the Maceday Garden Extension Club. Mrs. Earl H. Hotchkiss of Warringham Street, Waterford Township, was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dennis Burling.

New members are Mrs. Richard Kruger and Mrs. Martin Downs.

Carmakers Reveal Answers to Auto Show Quiz

By BEN FILEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT—A favorite gripe of automobile owners is that nobody ever asks them what they like or don't like about cars.

The gripe becomes more vigorous when it's pointed out the auto companies constantly are engaged in consumer research with lots of people asking lots of people lots of questions.

"They still haven't asked me, and believe me, brother, I could tell them a thing or two" is a favorite response.

Visitors to the National Auto Show in Detroit last October got the chance to express themselves on a typical consumer research questionnaire. The sponsoring Automobile Manufacturers Association finally has compiled the answers.

In its typical conservative fashion the AMA cautions against drawing any conclusions. It says among other things the exhibit was primarily for demonstration purposes, the answers are "an interesting by-product" and results shouldn't be considered representative of the total population, or even of the people who attended the show.

All of this may or may not be true. But the AMA adds one well-proved comment—one which causes many sleepless nights for auto company executives.

It is: "People's stated opinions as to what they plan to do in the future often fail to reflect what they actually do when the time comes to take action."

After all these disclaimers the AMA got down to summarizing the answers. All in all they were interesting but not sensational. About the closest the public came to outright dissatisfaction was in response to a question on the quality and workmanship, cost of operation, safety, performance and handling of present American cars.

—VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

More than half of those answering graded the cost of operation fair to poor and more than one out of five who answered this section said flatly it was poor.

★ ★ ★

Performance and handling rated highest with more than 80 per cent who answered marking it good to excellent. Saefty was next highest — about 75 per cent good to excellent.

"On quality and workmanship an enthusiastic 15 per cent rated it excellent; 41.2 per cent called it good; 30 per cent only fair and 11.5 per cent poor. The rest left the question blank.

When it comes to buying a car quality received a strong vote as the most important factor. Low operating cost was second followed by low purchase price, attractive appearance, comfortable ride and roomy interior.

A majority said their next car will be in the same price class as the one they now own. A few more indicated a willingness to move up in price than said they will move down a notch.

Station wagon owners proved the most loyal. Of those who said they now have a wagon 63.4 per cent said their next car also will be a wagon. Next on the list were convertible owners (61.8 per cent want the great outdoors again), followed by hardtop owners (52.5 per cent) and other sedans (44.2 per cent).

★ ★ ★

Participants also were asked a number of questions about driving and traffic. A majority said city speed limits are about right, driving tests should be more strict and traffic law enforcement is about right.

About 32 per cent felt traffic tickets cost too much and 17 per cent said drivers today are worse than they were 10 years ago.

But no one question there wasn't much division of opinion. Should wives be taught to drive by their husbands, by friends or by driving schools? Almost 85 per cent of the women voted for driving schools. Only 14 per cent of the husbands ventured a vote for themselves.

Pontiac Water Pumpage Drops Off During 1960

The Pontiac Water Department pumped about 150 million fewer gallons of water last year than the year before.

★ ★ ★

The 1960 pumpage was 3,798,894,000 gallons, according to a report from Joseph W. Gable, water superintendent. The 1959 figure was 3,929,943,000.

The busiest month last year was July. There were 394,045,000 gallons pumped during that hot month, compared to 468,118,000 during July of 1959.

From January through April there was more water pumped last year than the year before. For the period May through October the 1959 figures were higher.

November of 1960 saw more water pumped than during the comparable period of 1950, when the steel strike caused an industrial slowdown. December 1959 topped December of 1960.

Pontiac's record year was 1955, when the pumpage was 4,482,927,000 gallons. The biggest month was July 1955, when he pumpage hit 472,196,000 gallons.

Pianist Arrives Late Due to Own Clacking

BALTIMORE (AP) — Madame Agi Jambor, concert pianist, told Ernest R. Fink of Baltimore about the incident at a musical festival in Pennsylvania.

En route by train to an engagement in Kalamazoo, Mich., Madam Jambor opened up her portable practice keyboard in her sleeping car berth and clacked away on the gadget to keep her fingers limber.

Next day, the train arrived in Kalamazoo two hours late. When Madame Jambor asked why, the conductor said they had stopped for two hours during the night to make a fruitless search for the source of a dangerous clacking noise in one of the sleeping cars.

All-Out Vote Drive in Romeo

School Officials Conduct Whistle-Stop for Bond OK

ROMEO — Officials of the Romeo School District are conducting their own version of the pre-election "whistle-stop" campaign in hopes of getting voter approval on a $700,000 bond issue for school expansion.

School Supt. T. C. Filppula said board education members and school principals are explaining the bond issue to all clubs and civic organizations in the school district.

"We are trying to meet with as many groups as possible before the issue is voted on Feb. 3," reported Filppula.

One of the major stops on the school officials campaign trail will be Romeo High School at 8 p.m. Jan. 26.

Filppula and all board members have been asked to attend a meeting of the newly combined junior and senior high school parent-teacher associations that night.

They will answer questions regarding the bond issue for parents, teachers and guests attending the session, said the school superintendent.

Besides the bond issue, voters in the district also will be asked to pass a three-mill tax increase for school operation. It would be leveled for seven years.

Based on present plans, the $700,000 would be used to finance construction and renovation projects which would add 27 new classrooms and handle classroom needs in the district through the 1964-65 school year.

The building program would provide a new elementary school containing seven classrooms and special education rooms. Existing schools would be remodeled and enlarged and a new 10-acre elementary school site would be purchased.

A multipurpose room, two classrooms and a special education room would be added to the Washington Grade School. Officers and faculty rooms at North Grade School would be remodeled.

Seven classrooms, a special education room and auxiliary space would be added to Romeo High School. The same number of rooms plus a new boiler are planned for construction at the junior high school if the bond issue is approved.

Voters in the district gave the board authority last March to levy a four-mill operational tax for one year. The board now wants to replace the one-year, four-mill levy with three mills for seven years.

EXPLAINS CONTROL PANEL — It looks simple on the outside but the big $10,000 electric control panel installed in the Clarkston High School has hundreds of tiny wires running to work tables in three science laboratories, according to instructor David Skillman, on left. He is showing Lee Pike and Margaret Fife how he can start or stop AC or DC current at 24 tables where students experiment with capacitors and condensers. The panel is one of only a few installed in schools in Michigan, and is a feature of the $2½-million high school which opened in September.

10 Vie for Two Oak Park Posts

All in Race for City Council Seats; Four Seek 1 Judgeship

OAK PARK—A lively campaign for two vacant seats on the city council is expected here before the Feb. 20 primary election following the entry of 10 candidates in the race for the posts.

★ ★ ★

Besides the 10 council hopefuls, four candidates also filed nominating petitions before yesterday's 5 p.m. deadline for the single four-year term as municipal judge.

Incumbent Mayor R. J. Alexander, who is director of the Oakland County Department of Public Works, will have no opposition, however. He is the only candidate for the two-year mayoralty post.

Among those who filed for four-year terms as councilmen are the two incumbents, David H. Shepherd and Joseph Suiter.

★ ★ ★

The first candidate to file for the judge's position was incumbent Judge Burton R. Shifman, who has been on the municipal bench since 1957.

Opposing him for re-election will be Isadore Goldbaum, Erwin A. Holzman and Jerrold P. Friedman.

Filter Cleans Up Pollution Problem

By JIM LONG

WALLED LAKE—A water pollution problem that has been sloshing around for more than a year seems to be cleared up with the installation here yesterday of a filter unit at an automatic laundry.

Tests yesterday showed that the detergent-filled water gushing from the Lake Automatic Laundry, 132 W. Walled Lake Drive, was crystal clear and "drinkable" after passing through the filtering machine, the first in Michigan.

Pollution of the lake water necessitated the installation of the unit by the co-owners of the laundry, Andrew Johnson and Neal Heymes.

Unless they could end the pollution, they were threatened with closure of their business by the State Water Resources Commission, the State Health Department and the City of Walled Lake.

The final test comes Thursday when state officials take samples before and after the laundry water is circulated through the filtering plant.

According to Rice, who arrived in the city Sunday to supervise the installation of the unit, Michigan has the most rigid restrictions of any state on water pollution.

He said, however, that he was sure the unit would pass inspection by the state. Holding up a bottle of the purified water, Rice pointed out that the color of the water was clearer than the city water after passing through the filter.

★ ★ ★

Similar units, but of earlier design, have been in use four years in Florida, Ohio, Kentucky and New Jersey.

"The filtering possibilities of the unit in the future, I think, are limitless," Rice said. "Anywhere a filter is needed the unit could serve a purpose."

Rice said Tel Aviv, Israel, has shown an interest in procuring 800 machines to be used in food processing plants. "Because of the water shortage there the purified water could be recirculated as often as needed to wash the vegetables," explained Rice.

Plans, he said, are being made by his firm to test the filter potential of the unit with sewage.

Apartment Plan Near Fruition

Road-Width Ruling Is All That's Awaited by Farmington Group

City councilmen directed City Attorney Robert J. Kelly to give an opinion in two weeks on the legality of the board of appeals' action granting a variance in the width of the private road leading to the planned apartments.

The Farmington Interest Corp. is proposing to construct six 8-unit apartments on the north east corner of Fyredom and Farmington roads.

City Manager John Dinan estimated the development will cost more than $500,000.

The building corporation has proposed to provide off-street parking and stipulated that there be no parking on the private drive.

With this provision of no-parking, the board of appeals said the drive will have to be only 24 feet wide. The city asks that new roads be constructed with a width of 31 feet.

All persons interested in the theater — not only in acting but also as production workers for staging plays — are urged to attend the Thursday meeting, she said.

Lathrup Sewer Due for Vote

LATHRUP VILLAGE—A $519,000 bond issue for construction of a complete storm sewer system here will be placed on the ballot in the April 3 election, it was decided last night by the Lathrup Village City Council.

★ ★ ★

It will mark the third attempt by the council to get voter approval on funds for construction of a storm sewer system.

In two previous elections, bond issues for the system were turned down by voters who thought the project would be too costly.

The former bond issues were in the neighborhood of $700,000 based on recommendations of the Detroit engineering firm of Pate and Hirn.

The figure set for the April 3 election is recommended by another firm of engineering consultants, Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May of Ann Arbor.

The city presently is under court order to end pollution of the Rouge River. A new sewer system must be installed by June 1962, under the circuit court ruling.

No. 13—Baseball's Unforgettable Games

Brooklyn Bums Have Darkest Day When Mickey Owens Drops 3rd Strike

By JOE REICHLER and BEN OLAN

The sun was shining brightly on October 5, 1941. It was just about the warmest, brightest afternoon in World Series history. But to Brooklyn, it was the darkest day that ever dawned.

Ironically, not one of those 33,813 fans who packed Ebbets Field had the slightest thought of the calamity that was to fall. Everyone—that is, everyone who was a loyal Dodger rooter—was happy and gay. Their beloved Bums had Joe McCarthy's American League champions hog-tied, ready for the final hitch that would even the Series at two games each.

True, the Yankees were leading two games to one, but nobody worried. Each team had won a 3-2 game in Yankee Stadium. And if Freddie Fitzsimmons hadn't gotten his kneecap in the way of a line drive, the Yankees might not have walked off with a 2-1 decision in the third game.

Now Manager Leo Durocher was starting his ace. He had held back Kirby Higbe, winner of 22 games during the regular season, just for this one. He was sure to trim the Yankees, and the Dodgers would go on from there.

It soon became apparent that Higbe was not going to make it. The Yanks leveled off him for keeps in the fourth, and the New Yorkers had a 3-0 lead by the time Larry French came on to retire the side.

But Atley Donald, the Yankee pitcher, was doomed to get his lumps too. In the Brooklyn half of the fourth, pinch hitter Jimmy Wasdell smashed him for a double to drive in two runs. Now it was Yanks 3, Dodgers 2.

Brooklyn fans resumed breathing once again, but it was short-lived as the Yanks went to work on relief pitcher Johnny Allen, filling the bases in the fifth. But in from the bull pen strode one of the greatest firemen of them all — Hugh Casey.

Redlam broke loose as the mighty Casey set the Yankees down without allowing a runner to cross the plate. But Fate, lurking in the shadows, was snickering.

ALL BUT OVER

Flatbush Faithfuls knew this was their day when Dixie Walker, the "peepful's cheece," doubled and rode home on Pete Reiser's four-bagger over the right field wall to put the Dodgers in front for the first time, 4-3.

★ ★ ★

This was the end for Donald but not for Casey, who continued to hurl large goose eggs at the Yankees through the sixth, seventh, and eighth innings. The Dodger's 4-3 lead looked like a million as the game entered the ninth inning.

Two down. Nobody on. One more and it would be all over.

The confident Brooklyn crowd was starting for the exit gates. All Casey had to do was to retire Tor my Henrich. Henrich had been an easy out all afternoon.

Casey worked carefully. He ran the count to 3-2 on Tommy. Mickey Owen, who was catching a great game and had scored the Dodgers' first run, gave his sign. Casey shook it off. Again Casey shook off a sign. Now he was ready. And here it is.

It was a low breaking curve. Very low and very sharp. Henrich started to go after it, tried to check his swing — but couldn't. It was a swing and a miss. Strike three and the game was over. The Dodgers win! But wait!

Henrich wasn't the only one fooled by that deceitful curve. It also fooled Mickey Owen. The cheers died in one awful gasp as the ball sped by Owen to the Brooklyn dugout.

Mickey turned frantically and made a mad dash after the ball. Henrich, about to return to the Yankee dugout, suddenly realized that Owen hadn't caught the ball, turned, and tore out. Before Owen could retrieve the ball, Tommy was perched safely on first.

It was a shock, indeed, for the Dodgers and their followers, but the game wasn't lost yet. The Dodgers still held their 4-3 lead. The Yanks merely had a man on first with two out. All Casey had to do was get the next batter. All right, Casey, let's get this guy out and end this thing!

Joe DiMaggio stepped up, and Bang! A single to left. Henrich was now in scoring position. Charlie Keller swung at the first pitch, and Bam! The ball banged off the right field wall, scoring both Henrich and DiMaggio. The Yankees were now leading, 5-4.

Casey, obviously shaken, walked Bill Dickey on four pitches. Joe Gordon doubled, scoring Keller and Dickey. The score was Yankees 7, Dodgers 4.

That was it. Phil Rizzuto ended the inning, but the damage had been done. Four runs after three out — or what should have been three out.

The Dodgers were done. John Murphy, the Yankees' ace fireman, downed the Dodgers in order. Pee Wee Reese, Walker, Reiser, none got the ball out of the infield?

Now, instead of a Series deadlock at 2-2, it was Yankees three games to one. The Dodgers were dead pigeons, ready to be plucked on the morrow when the Yankees would wrap it up. They did with a 3-1 victory.

Iowa Stays Game Ahead of Bucks

United Press International

Don Nelson may be Iowa's answer to Ohio State's All-America Jerry Lucas in the (Hawk) eye for (Buck) eye battle to net the Big Ten Conference basketball championship.

Nelson gave conference leader Iowa its fourth straight league victory Monday night when he scored 25 points in leading the fourth-ranked Hawkeyes to a 78-71 triumph over Illinois.

The top-ranked Buckeyes of Ohio State, carrying an unbeaten string of 12 games this season, are idle until Saturday when they resume conference play against Minnesota. The Bucks are 2-0 in the current Big Ten standings.

Iowa, which has lost only to St. Louis in 13 games this season, allowed Illinois a slight 36-35 intermission lead. But the deficit was of short standing as the Hawkeyes grabbed a 12-point lead in the second half.

Nelson sparked the drive by scoring 19 of his 25 points during the last 20 minutes. Ron Zagar was a more than adequate aide with 18 for the game. Jerry Colangelo paced the Illini with 20 points.

Doug Moe and York Larese, the two "Yankee" scoring leaders for North Carolina, led the Tarheels to their fourth straight Atlantic Coast Conference win.

Moe was especially devastating from the foul line as he sank 12 of 13 free throws. The Brooklyn bombardier paced both teams in scoring with 28 points. Larese tallied 17. Paul Jelus netted 13 for a Maryland high.

Conference standings were altered in the Southwest, Big Eight and Southern loops.

Defending champion Texas moved into the SWC lead as Al Almanza scored 23 points in an 81-76 victory over Texas A&M. The Aggies' Carroll Broussard, however, came off with game honors by tallying 37 points.

Oklahoma State knocked Kansas out of the Big Eight lead with a 54-49 triumph, leaving fifth-ranked Kansas State the only team with a perfect conference record.

Jerry Smith poured in 28 points in Furman's 92-84 victory against Citadel to yank the Bulldogs out of a three-way tie for the Southern Conference lead with West Virginia and Virginia Tech.

The Minnesota Gophers defeated Northwestern 68-54.

Elsewhere, Len Chappell scored 33 points as Wake Forest toppled Clemson 86-65; Oklahoma won its first Big Eight game by downing Colorado 56-47; Murray State romped over East Tennessee 92-64; Mississippi handed Vanderbilt its second straight setback 74-72, and Mississippi State edged Georgia Tech 62-61 in overtime.

Johansson Has Secret on Error in Loss to Floyd

NEW YORK (AP)—Ingemar Johansson has a secret and he's not telling a soul.

"I know for sure what I did wrong in my last fight with Floyd Patterson," he said today, "but let it be a secret with me."

Then he proceeded to list an armful of reasons why Patterson won the heavyweight championship from him with a fifth-round knockout last June 20.

1. He fought too many exhibitions after winning the title from Patterson in 1959, and that made things too easy for him.

2. He lost six pounds the night before the fight and entered the ring at 192. This time he wants to hit 196 or 198.

3. Anynow, it was a sucker punch that caught him on the button.

★ ★ ★

Johansson arrived Monday night from Paris, and will attend the New York Boxing Writers dinner tonight where Patterson will get the Boxer of the Year award. Then he heads for Florida to look for a training camp. The third go in their series is scheduled for Miami Beach on March 13.

Three Canadiens, Two Leafs Complete First Group

MONTREAL (AP) — Three members of the Montreal Canadiens, two of the Toronto Maple Leafs and one from the Detroit Red Wings were named to the National Hockey League's All-Star first team in mid-season balloting announced today.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Named to the second team were: Glenn Hall, Chicago Black Hawks, goal; Carl Brewer and Allan Stanley, Toronto, defense; Henri Richard, Montreal, center; Gordie Howe, Detroit, right wing; Dickie Moore, Montreal, left wing.

All players named to the first team except Pronovost received close to the maximum 90 points in the mid-season vote. Points were awarded on a 5-3-1 basis for first, second and third choices, voting was done by hockey writers, broadcasters and telecasters in the six NHL cities.

Mahovlich and Geoffrion each received the highest point total, 87. Bower had 84, Harvey 83, Beliveau 80 and Pronovost 50.

Sugar Suggests 'Sudden Death' if Draw Occurs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—If the Sugar Ray Robinson-Gene Fullmer rematch here Feb. 25 ends in another 15-round draw, Robinson wants an additional "sudden death" round to decide the issue.

So says Steve Ellis, Robinson's spokesman. Ellis made the statement before going to Southern California to set up Robinson's San Jacinto training camp. Robinson is still in New York.

It will be the fourth Robinson-Fullmer fight. Fullmer won the NBA middleweight title in 1957 but Robinson regained it with a fifth round knockout the following year. They fought to a draw in Los Angeles last Dec. 3.

Ohio State Leads AP for 5th Week

Poll Unanimous for Buckeyes in Repeat Vote

St. Bonaventure Now Second as Bradley Drops to 3rd

By The Associated Press.

Mighty Ohio State, one of the two remaining undefeated teams in the country, rolled along as the No. 1 outfit in the Associated Press basketball poll for the fifth straight week today. The Buckeyes again were the unanimous choice of the 26 sportswriters and sports writers from all sections of the country who comprise the panel.

That gave Ohio State the maximum of 360 points on a 12-0 record. DePaul, the other undefeated team (13-0) jumped into seventh place.

St. Bonaventure (13-1), after scoring a couple of more victories last week, pushed up to second place behind Ohio State, dropping Bradley (13-1) into third place.

The Bonnies had 277 points and Bradley compiled 247 on the usual system of 10 points for first place, 9 for second, etc. Bradley went down to its first defeat last week, a 60-59 loss to Houston.

DePaul's victory over previously undefeated Louisville last Saturday tumbled out UCLA, 10th a week ago.

All the others in the top 10 last week remained, but there was considerable shaking up. Iowa 11-1 moved up from sixth to fourth and North Carolina (10-2) from seventh to sixth.

St. John's (10-2) plummeted from fifth to ninth after dropping its second game of the season. Louisville (13-1) slipped from fourth to fifth. Duke (13-1) remained in the No. 8 spot and Kansas State (11-2) went from ninth to 10th.

Both Iowa and North Carolina won games Monday night, but the poll includes only games to last Saturday night.

The leaders with won-lost records and first-place votes in parentheses and points based on 10-9-8-7 basis (records through Saturday, Jan. 14):

1. Ohio State (26)	(13-0)	360

Western Michigan Dumped

Calvin Keeps Winning

By The Associated Press

★ ★ ★

Calvin had just shot to its 10th straight cage triumph, a 72-45 trouncing of the Albion Britons.

The victory Monday night was Calvin's sixth straight in Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Conference play. Albion has won two of five conference starts and is 8-8 over-all.

Forward Ralph Honderd and guard Carl DeKiper each collected 18 points to lead the Knights to victory. Larry Pratt came off the bench to lead the Britons with 14.

Western Michigan fell to Southern Illinois 84-80 in a non-conference clash at Kalamazoo. The visitors came from behind twice to win. Western had held at 44-32 lead at halftime.

Southern Illinois has amassed 12 victories in 15 games. Western now is 5-5.

Another MIAA encounter saw Adrian whip Alma 72-47 with Vince Giles and Ron Schult each pouring in 21 points for the victors.

Adrian has four triumphs in six conference games and an over-all 6-3 season slate. Alma is yet to win in league play after four trys and is 2-8 over-all.

Bruin Coach Fines Absentee, Fighter

BOSTON (AP)—Beset by injuries, apathy—and last place, Boston Bruins' coach Milt Schmidt has answered a disciplinary problem with rare fines.

Schmidt's "hit 'em in the money belt" policy for the National Hockey League tailenders was leveled at missing goalie Bruce Gamble and feuding winger Vic Stasiuk.

Rookie Gamble drew a $50 fine and Schmidt's wrath for not showing up for a scheduled practice Monday. Stasiuk, relegated to the role of a spare, got a misconduct penalty Sunday night while two other Boston right wings were in the dressing room under repair. It was an automatic $25 fine from the league. Schmidt made it $25 more.

Bill Loss Will Not Stop AFL

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Is the American Football League, losers of millions of dollars in its first year of operation, whistling past the graveyard these days?

"There were plenty of people waiting for us to slip into a manhole so they could put the cover on us and weld it up. Well, we're sorry to disappoint 'em.

"We're going full speed ahead."

Ed McGah, Wayne Valley and Robert Osborne bought out their five partners Monday. Under the new setup McGah is president of the Raiders, Valley is vice president and Osborne is treasurer. McGah and Valley are wealthy contractors, Osborne, a city councilman, manufactures construction equipment.

EAST LANSING (AP) — A strong first half attack and sharper rebounding helped Michigan State to its first Big Ten basketball victory, 81-69, over traditional rival Michigan here last night.

The victory broke a six-game losing streak for the Spartans, their longest under Coach Forddy Anderson. MSU now is 1-3 in the conference and 4-8 over-all. Michigan has a 3-9 over-all record and is 0-3 in the Big Ten.

Michigan State took command at the start, jumping to a 22-11 lead midway in the first half. The Wolverines closed the gap to 23-20, the closest they came to catching up, but Michigan State had a solid 44-27 halftime advantage.

The visitors outscored the home team 42-37 in the second half but the closest Michigan could come was six points behind.

Dick Hall scored 25 points and Ted Williams 16 as high men for Michigan State. Don Petroff made 23 points for Michigan and John Tidwell, playing with one leg wrapped in bandages, scored 20.

Free throws were important for both high scorers. Hall hit 11 of 12 gift shots and Petroff 9 for 9.

State grabbed 60 rebounds against 48 for Michigan. Both shooting averages were poor, Michigan hitting 38 per cent and Michigan State 35 per cent.

"The second 10 minutes of the first half told the story," said Michigan coach Dave Strack. "They ran up nearly 20 points on us and we never could catch up.

BOWLING BEAUTY

By DEE PURCELLO
AMF Staff of Champions

It's been my experience that the most perplexing problem among women bowlers is the back-up ball bugaboo.

How many times have you watched a gal take four smooth steps to the foul line, roll the ball directly over her target, and then miss the head pin on the right by up to a foot, leaving four to six pins remaining?

She's probably holding the ball back at her stance with the wrist bent at a right angle. This bent wrist will stay with her right up to the time she releases the ball. It's this poor technique which produces reverse spin that makes the ball break from left to right as it rolls up to the 1-3 pocket.

Huskies Travel to Lake Orion; St. Fred Away

Waterford Is at Home Against Cranbrook 5; Maples vs. Dales

Lake Orion's basketball team, which has been having its troubles, tackles its biggest problem of the season tonight.

The Dragons will be definite underdogs when they meet powerful Pontiac Northern on the Lake Orion court. A combination of the home floor advantage and the Huskies being overconfident appears to be the only hope the Dragons have of posting a win.

In another contest, Cranbrook ends its one month layoff at Waterford.

A Suburban Catholic League encounter of importance has St. Frederick at Orchard Lake St. Mary. Troy travels to Rochester and Emmanuel Christian plays at Dearborn Haston.

PNH set a school record by scoring 96 points in the rout at Berkley Friday night. This, and the fact that Orion has but a mediocre record, could cause Coach Dick Hall some problems trying to keep his starters in the Berkley game too lightly.

Steve Thompson, the leading rebounder, and Mike Fedynik have been the top scorers in Northern's drive to a 5-1 overall record. Jim Capistrante turned in an 18-point effort in the last game.

Tom Reed, 6-3, of Lake Orion will have the chore of battling Thompson, 6-1, for control of the backboards. Guard Bucky Craven is another key player in the Dragons attack. Lake Orion has a 3-4 record.

Cranbrook ended the 1960 portion of its season by upsetting Walled Lake and South Lyon. But the Cranes have not played since Dec. 16 and this will be a help to the Waterford cagers.

The Skippers posted their first win last Friday. Ed Stigers, the team's sparkplug, appears to be over an ankle injury that slowed him for several games. Center Dick Shipman is beginning to score. This has helped Coach Jerry Wallace in his efforts to get the Skippers on the winning road.

St. Frederick can gain a tie for first place in the SCL by defeating Ot. St. Mary. The Rams will be favored, but the Eaglets have one big advantage — their small gym.

Mike Reed has been the big scorer for St. Fred. He received help in the last outing from Pete Vasquez, Glenn Maas and Tom Tomaszewski had big nights for St. Mary in the close win over St. Benedict.

Birmingham Seaholm meets Ferndale, fourth rated Class A team in the state. The Eastern Michigan League encounter will be on the Ferndale floor.

Ferndale, Holly PCH in Top Ten

Ferndale and Pontiac Central are rated among the top 10 Class A teams in the first Associated Press high school basketball poll of the season.

★ ★ ★

All three teams are among the leaders in the UPI ratings, too.

Lansing Sexton, the miracle team of the 1960 state high school basketball season, has won the top spot in the Associated Press' first weekly rankings.

The AP sports writers and broadcasters who serve on the panel of electors named Lansing Sexton to the top spot in Class A by a slim margin over unbeaten Saginaw.

Both have stern tests awaiting them this week. Saginaw faces always-tough Pontiac Central Friday night on the Saginaw court after meeting Bay City Handy on Tuesday.

River Rouge and Ludington tied for the top spot in class B. Rouge had two losses, to Toledo Macomber and Highland Park in Class A, but reversed the Highland Park defeat.

No Point Race Change

There was no major change in the Oakland County Individual scoring race during the past week although two cagers made good jumps in the standings and became solid contenders.

Ron Morlan of Holly zoomed from a tie for 8th to 4th at 19.3 with a 28-point game. Bill Pyles, who had been even with Morlan, advanced to 5th.

Big Larry Tregoning of Ferndale maintains the best average with 24.2 on 145 points in six outings. No. 2 man Neil Kiernan of St. James has 154 points in one more game for 22. George Blanchard has been idle and moves up to 2nd at 22.7 for just three games. His Cranbrook team finally returns to action tonight after a month's layoff.

Newcomers on the county list this time are Tim Burt of Avondale, Bruce Billings of Bloomfield Hills and West Bloomfield's Bob Sias.

Burt topped 20 three straight games to move up. Billings set a school record Friday with 32. Sias has 51 for the last two starts. Dropping out were Bill Powell of Clarkston and Hank Akin, Troy.

There is little difference in the county area race as Dugne Soine of Roseville continues to lead at 23.6 followed by Lapeer ace Dick Schwerin with 22.4. Juliiv Traub of Armada gained a notch with a 31-point contest.

Returns Signed Contract From Hospital Bed

DETROIT (AP) — Left-hander Wyman Carey, 24, who returned his signed Detroit Tiger contract for 1961 yesterday, probably will be idled for six weeks while recovering from an appendectomy.

Carey had a 14-14 record last season at Birmingham of the Southern Association.

The Tigers also said yesterday that their American Association farm club at Denver had sent outfielder Neil Chrisley to Louisville, a Milwaukee farm club in the same league.

The Chrisley transfer completes the Dec. 7 trade in which the Tigers gave up second baseman Frank Bolling and a then unspecified minor league player to get outfielder Billy Bruton, second baseman Chuck Cottier, catcher Dick Brown and pitcher Terry Fox from Milwaukee of the National League.

Mantle Inks $75,000 Pact, Tops in AL

NEW YORK (AP) —Is Mickey Mantle going to be baseball's next $100,00-a-year baseball player?

"We hope so," General Manager Roy Hamey of the New York Yankees said after signing his star center fielder to a $75,000 contract Monday. "We'd like nothing better than to pay — that is, if Mickey shows he's worth it.

"I don't doubt he will. Casey Stengel always insisted the boy was going to make it."

Mantle's new contract is the best he's signed in his 11 years with the Yankee organization — a $10,000 hike over the reduced wage he got last year.

After signing, Mickey, 29, said he felt he had not reached his real potential as a player. "I don't remember when I have felt better at this stage," he said. "I ought to have my best year."

He added that he had disposed of a Dallas bowling alley, which caused him some concern last year, and had divested himself of all outside interests which might take his mind off baseball.

"I still have a small hand in a motel and a boat company but I'm letting other people worry about them," Mickey said. "I have no other business now but baseball."

At $75,000, Mantle is the highest paid performer in the American League and only a notch behind the National League's top salaried star, Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, at $85,000.

Joe DiMaggio, Mantle's predecessor, was paid $100,000 a year before he retired at the end of the 1951 campaign. Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, now also retired, once received $125,000.

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals drew down $100,000 for each of the 1958 and 1959 seasons, according to unofficial reports.

West Rated Underdog in All-Star Contest

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI) —The East was a six-point favorite to beat the West in the National Basketball Association's All-Star game tonight chiefly because of Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell, and despite a boast that the West has the "strongest" team in years.

Unmindful of the odds, coach Paul Seymour of the western division All-Stars said, "I believe we have a fine chance of winning even though the East has Chamberlain and Russell going for them. This is the strongest West team in my memory."

The professional odds-makers saw it differently, however. They liked Chamberlain and Russell, the NBA's top two rebounders, plus the fact that the eastern division All-Stars have more experience and a stronger bench.

Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals and Tommy Heinsohn of the Boston Celtics will start for the East in the forecourt, with Chamberlain, the Philadelphia Warriors' ace, at center. Russell, Boston's rebounding whiz, will alternate at center with Chamberlain.

Bob Cousy of the Celtics, who has never missed an All-Star game and is appearing in his 11th one tonight, will start in the backcourt for the East along with Richie Guerin of the New York Knickerbockers.

The West's starting lineup will be composed of Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks and Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers at forwards; Clyde Lovellette of the Hawks at center, and Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals and Gene Shue of the Detroit Pistons in the backcourt.

Schayes will be playing in his 10th game and eastern teammate Paul Arizin of the Warriors in his eighth. By contrast, four of the 11 players on the West squad are rookies to All-Star competition. They are Robertson and Wayne Embry of the Royals, Jerry West of the Lakers and Bailey Howell of the Pistons.

Coach Red Auerbach's East reserves in addition to Russell are Arizin and Tom Gola of the Warriors, Willie Naulls of the Knicks and Larry Costello and Hal Greer of the Nats. Costello is suffering from groin and leg injuries and may be available for only limited service.

Moore Back to 2nd in Points

Geoffrion Still First; Toronto's Bower Top Goalie

MONTREAL (AP) — Dickie Moore of the Montreal Canadiens came up with the best point production last week among the top men scrambling for the National Hockey League scoring lead and regained second place.

Moore collected four goals and two assists for six points. With his present total of 55 points he is seven behind teammate Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion in second place. Geoffrion is one ahead of Frank Mahovlich of the Toronto Maple Leafs, according to official statistics released today.

Geoffrion, who missed Montreal's last game because of an injury, scored one goal and three assists in two previous games during the week. He has 62 points on 27 goals and 35 assists. Moore has 56 on 30-25 count.

Mahovlich tapered off in his prodigious goal production, scoring only one—and no assists—in three games. But he is still well out in front on goals scored, with 37. Moore is closest with 30. With 27 assists, Mahovlich's point total is 54.

The scoring leaders:

Huskie Matmen Invade Central

Press Trophy Points Are at Stake Tonight; Northern Favored

Once-beaten Pontiac Northern will be heavily favored to score a repeat victory over Pontiac Central when the city rivals tangle again tonight at the PCN gym.

Coach Bill Willson's Red and White team has bowed only to unbeaten Hazel Park in five dual outings. Central, coached by Steve Szabo, has divided six matches despite a 3-1 start.

Art Fowlkes, Bill Cunningham and Wayne Lee join Eichhorn as top Chief hopefuls.

The teams will be battling for 50 points towards the coveted Pontiac Press traveling trophy won last year by Central. The Huron Street athletes hold a big 300-50 edge this season.

Six City Cage Tilts Feature High Scoring

The action was hot-and-heavy on the city basketball scene last night with some close games and plenty of high scoring.

Lakeside Royals came up with a big last half to trip the Avondale Merchants 72-58 led by Sam Soles, who hit 18 of his 20 after the intermission. Bill Davis hit 22 in defeat. Newman A.M.E. took Clarkston 67-56 sparked by Jerry Williams' 25. Bob Yankee had 16 for Clarkston.

Booth Builders had to hold off a big Police rally in the 4th period to win 51-49. Mayo tallied 18 for the winners. John Bridgewater's 10 headed a balanced Police attack. 300 Lounge used a last half surge to overtake Buckner Finance, 79-70. Al Barkley rung up 26 for 300 as did Gillis for Buckner.

Leroy Campbell swished 13 and Al McClaramore 12 to pace Elks 703 over Tuck's, 55-40. Larry Blackburn and Travis Tucker canned 12 apiece for the losers. The All Stars nipped Westside Kiwanis 40-36 with Paul Wilson scoring 23. Dave Brandenburg's 14 was high for Kiwanis.

Lane Signs Bauer in Repeat of 1946

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A little history was involved Monday when veteran outfielder Hank Bauer became the first of the Kansas City Athletics to sign a 1961 contract under supervision of the new general manager, Frank Lane.

★ ★ ★

Lane signed Bauer to his first professional baseball contract in 1946.

★ ★ ★

Lane then was boss of the Kansas City Blues in the New York organization. He went to Bauer's home in East St. Louis and signed him to a contract with Quincy, Ill., of the Three-I League.

Laughs Come High in United States

Rags to Riches---That's Shelley Berman

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the land that pays for laughs.

In 1961 Shelley Berman will gross about three quarters of a million dollars — several times President - Elect John F. Kennedy's take-home pay — for being funny.

BOYLE

Today Berman, a Navy veteran, is one of the darlings of the sophisticates. He has been paid $15,400 for a one-night stand. He has been paid $12,500 for a seven-minute appearance on television.

Before he hit the big time with his wry portraitures of civilized man adjusting to the problems of civilization, Shelley worked as a cab driver, a speech teacher, a drug clerk, a ballroom dancing instructor, and a free-lance writer.

FAILURE THEN SUCCESS

What has success meant to him after a dozen years of failure which he still remembers as "the jinx time?"

"There are a lot of superficial differences," he said. "You eat better and you wear better clothes, but the big difference is that I now have a wholesome self-respect.

"I foundered for a long time and envied people around me who had found what they wanted to do and were content.

* * *

"And now I am. Well, anyway I am more content with my discontent. I am doing something."

Shelley's humor is based on the ordinary man's plight in this extraordinary time. He jokes about taking an airplane flight, beatniks, the problems of parenthood.

In one show he lights about five cigarettes, really smokes only two — but feels completely dependent on them.

HIS ESCAPE

"Without those cigarettes, I might as well not come out," he said. "The cigarette is my escape from the audience. It gives me a chance to think, to listen, to present a kind of action while I am deciding what to do next."

He writes his own material. Sometimes, he sounds like Mark Twain at his bravest moment of social criticism, and the next moment like William McKinley at the peak of conservatism.

"I believe it is important to say what you think," he said. "I don't believe in taking the soft, sweet, safe route.

"I despise comedians who mock tragedy and who insult religion and human infirmity.

"Most people don't like to wear a suit that is 10 years old. They feel the same way about humor. They want something new and up-to-date, and they resent it if you don't give it to them.

"But some people still do like to wear a three-inch lapel and they have a right to their own style of humor too."

Couple Sues GM for Cadillac Ideas

The Van Rensselaers said they suggested, among other things, special shade visors, built-in baby seats and built-in lighting enabling passengers to read by individual lighting in Cadillacs. They said the firm used the ideas, but didn't pay them.

There was no immediate comment from GM.

Vermont fish hatcheries have vending machines available to dispense trout food in penny packs. These are expected to satisfy the urge of visitors who toss pebbles, food and other articles at fish in pools and raceways. The devices not only provide approved nourishment for fish but help reduce litterbugging.

New N-Cruiser to Get Polaris

The Long Beach Will Be First Surface Ship to Be So Armed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Navy has won Defense Department approval to convert its long-delayed nuclear-powered cruiser Long Beach into the first surface ship armed with long-range ballistic missiles.

* * *

Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr., a former Navy secretary, has rejected Navy proposals for arming a number of surface ships with Polaris ballistic missiles, but made an exception in the case of the Long Beach.

The cruiser, first nuclear powered surface ship ordered by the Navy, has slipped about nine months behind schedule and the estimated cost has risen from an original $250 million to $320 million.

Gates has authorized the Navy to spend an additional $58 million to equip the ship with eight Polaris missiles, bringing the total cost to $378 million.

* * *

He told the Navy, however, that it will have to get the money by cutting back on other projects and not by adding to its budget.

Kennedy Is Told to Protect U.S. Water, Forests

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Advisers reported to President-Elect John F. Kennedy today that the nation needs "vigorous new leadership" in conserving and developing its natural resources.

* * *

They predicted that the new Democratic administration "will establish landmarks of achievement toward a constructive program that will protect the rightful heritage of all Americans."

* * *

The report, submitted by the Kennedy-Johnson natural resources advisory committee, said full development of water, soil and forest resources "is necessary to make possible the growth of our economy essential to America's role in the free world."

Has Oft-Tried Formula

CHICAGO (UPI)—Cosmo Battaglia, two days past his 100th birthday, today credited his long life to the fact that when he came home from work he "always headed for the sofa and lots of rest. You can't let your wife push you around."

Electricity Output Up in City

About 67 million more kilowatt hours of electricity were sold in Pontiac last year than during the year previous.

There were 578,413,791 KWH of electricity sold last year, according to unofficial figures from Consumers Power Co. and Detroit Edison Co.

Comparable unofficial figures from Detroit Edison in Pontiac were 147,365,667 KWH in 1960 and 134,523,819 KWH in 1959.

Monthly consumption of electrical power ranged from a high of 52,719,672 KWH in November to a low of 41,861,232 KWH in August.

Waterford Man Mute on Traffic Fatality

Elmer J. Smith, charged with manslaughter in the Christmas Eve traffic death of a Waterford Township man, yesterday stood mute when arraigned in Circuit Court before Judge Clark J. Adams.

Police accuse Smith, who said he had been drinking, of leaving Horace F. Shaw, 42, of 1745 N. Telegraph Road near death following the accident. Shaw was a passenger in Smith's car, which struck another stopped to pick up mail at a rural mail box.

* * *

Smith remained free under $1,000 bond.

Car Sales Less This January

14,967 Daily Average Compares With 16,900 Same Time in 1960

DETROIT (AP)—The daily selling rate of new cars dropped to its lowest point of the 1961 model year during the first 10 days of January, Ward's Automotive Reports said Monday.

The statistical service estimated sales of 14,967 new cars daily from Jan. 1 through Jan. 10. Previously the lowest rate had been 17,732 in mid-December.

The 14,697 daily selling rate compared with 16,900 daily in January of last year when demand was rising following the steel strike and with 15,500 in the opening 10 days of the month in 1959.

In the recession year of 1958 the daily selling rate for the first 10 days of the year was 14,700.

The selling rate this year was off 27.6 per cent from the final 10 days of December.

Ward's said compact cars continued to increase their share of total sales, running 32.3 per cent in the first 10 days of January. During October they took 28.9 per cent. This rose to 30 per cent in November and 31.5 per cent in December.

Fifth-Amendment Actor Does TV Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

* * *

It was a good role, though not a showy one. What made his performance news was that it was the first film acting he had done in exactly 20 years. It marked his return from the shadowy exile of film personages who refused to answer questions about Communist connections before a congressional committee.

THOMAS

Corey's most famous role was as the psychiatrist in "Home of the Brave." He acted in 60 other movies and says he was the busiest actor in Hollywood during the late 1940s. Then he was mentioned in hearing testimony as having attended certain meetings. He was called before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Los Angeles hearings. He took the Fifth Amendment.

* * *

"To most of us who were called to appear, the questions were hysterical," he says now. "If I thought security was involved, I would have answered freely. But it wasn't.

"I knew what was required if I wanted to continue in my profession. All I had to do was drop the two required names in the basket, and I would have been permitted to work. I didn't choose to. I thought it degrading, and a man has to live with himself."

Corey made his choice and drew the expected results. His agent told him it would have been useless to apply for movie jobs. Corey has a wife and three children.

ENROLLED AS FRESHMAN

"I appeared before the committee on a Friday," he said. "On Monday, I enrolled as a freshman at UCLA. I attended the university for four and a half years, including graduate work to qualify as a speech therapist.

* * *

"How did I support my family? I worked as a manual laborer on a construction project. Then I started coaching dramatic students. I was quite surprised by the results. Today I am conducting 10 classes a week with as many as 20 students in a class, and there is a long waiting list."

He also coaches privately. Some of his students include Academy Award winners and nominees, big names in the movie world.

Corey made no move to get back into films until his agent told him he was up for "the Untouchables." His return went without incident and now he hopes other roles will follow. He shows no bitterness about his experience.

"I'm happy to say my children are unscarred by it," he said. "In fact, there were never any untoward incidents. I think it is a tribute to the community. My only frustration is in not being able to function in my own profession."

Egypt exported 150,000 tons of grain annually to Rome in the days of the Roman empire.

* * *

One Demands Examination, Other Waives It

One of two men accused of breaking into Felice's Market, 238 S. Telegraph Road, early Saturday waived examination yesterday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum.

Chester J. Knickerbocker, 47, of 1000 Myrtle Ave., was bound over to Circuit Court for arraignment Jan. 23. His bond was set at $5,000.

Calvin Church, 36, of Detroit demanded examination. The pretrial hearing was set for Jan. 25 by McCallum, who set Church's bond at $10,000.

The two men were apprehended by Bloomfield Township police shortly after the burglary.

* * *

Officers found some 50 bottles of liquor in the car plus several cartons of cigarettes. Knickerbocker was carrying $103 he admitted taking from cash registers, police said.

Police said the two men admitted entering the store by breaking the glass in a front door.

UP Iron Mining Firm to Lay Off 500 Employes

IRONWOOD (AP) — Pickands, Mather and Co. announced today it will lay off 500 employes at five Gogebic Range iron mines Jan. 23.

It will be the second force reduction in recent weeks by Pickands, Mather.

E. J. Jones, Lake Superior Mining Division manager for Pickands-Mather, said the layoffs are planned because of a decrease in demand for iron ore.

Fear Fires in California

Meteor Buzzes Coast

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A huge fiery meteor flashed across California last night, touching off widespread fear of fires.

The bright flash was sighted from San Diego at the Mexico border to north of San Francisco, a distance of about 600 miles, and as far as 300 miles inland in Nevada.

It was the second bright flash sighted on the West Coast in two nights and it brought about a series of near-panicky reports that fires were raging in much of California, caused by falling embers.

Other reports included findings of metal pieces supposedly debris from the fireball and, the belief that it was a missile or satellite breaking up in the sky.

All were false.

★ ★ ★

Astronomers at Mount Wilson Observatory in Southern California said they believed it to be a meteor. They said periodic showers of meteors were common.

★ ★ ★

Some hours after the fireball flashed across California about 6 p.m. PST, a similar bright flash was sighted in Holland. It also was believed to have been a meteor burning up in the earth's atmosphere.

Laos Troops Have Pro-Reds on Run

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Laotian government troops captured the Red stronghold town of Vang Vieng and its strategic airstrip north of Vientiane and U.S.-supplied planes poured rocket fire at retreating pro-Communist troops, advices from the front said today.

★ ★ ★

The pro-Western regime of Premier Boun Oum, moving to consolidate its hold on the key area, about 68 miles from Vientiane, took immediate steps to establish an advance outpost at Vang Vieng.

Windsor Plumber Charged in Blast

TORONTO (AP)—Charles Ingram, owner of a Windsor plumbing company, has been charged with "failing to take reasonable care when handling an explosive substance" in connection with the Metropolitan Store explosion in Windsor which claimed 10 lives last November.

★ ★ ★

The charge carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, Deputy Atty. Gen. William B. Common said.

★ ★ ★

No charge will be laid against Union Gas Company Ltd. or one of Ingram's helpers who was working on a gas furnace installation in the basement of the store at the time of the explosion.

Plea of Innocent in '59 Slaying of Ex-Beau's Wife

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams entered a plea of innocent yesterday for Mrs. Sarah Sue Lawrence. The former Berkley housewife was arraigned in the 1959 first-degree murder of the wife of her ex-boy friend.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long said Mrs. Lawrence, 34, probably would be tried during the January jury term of Circuit Court which begins today.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Lawrence's attorney, James Renfrew, indicated he may file a second motion to quash the charge against Mrs. Lawrence, who spent 1½ years in a mental hospital following the April 1959 murder of Mrs. Donald Crenshaw, 32, of 4230 Snow Apple Drive, Independence Township.

★ ★ ★

Judge Adams refused to grant a similar motion in December soon after Mrs. Lawrence's discharge from the hospital.

She was returned to the county jail without benefit of bond pending her trial.

Agree on Property Split

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dick Powell has agreed to a $2.5 million property settlement with June Allyson and she will file a divorce suit soon, her attorney said today.

Business and Finance

Market Is Busy but Down a Bit

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was down a bit in moderately active trading early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .10 at 227.10 with the industrials down .50, rails off .20 and utilities unchanged.

Key stocks declined from fractions to about a point mostly.

Price cuts in the copper industry brought a string of losses to stocks of the major producers. Gold mining stocks backed away further from their early rally of Monday, now that the price of bullion was slipping again in London.

Despite a good rebound for steel production last week, steel shares declined. Autos were unchanged to easy.

Tobaccos, building materials and drugs were mostly higher.

Profit taking was overdue, brokers said. It was the first clear-cut market decline since the opening market session on Jan. 3.

As a proxy fight seemed to be shaping up for control of Chance Vought, up a fraction, Ling-Temco, which has announced it has a substantial ownership of Chance Vought stock, was under some selling pressure. Ling-Temco opened about an hour and a half late, down 1¼ at 30¾ on blocks of 8,100 and 2,000 shares.

Anaconda, Kennecott and Phelps Dodge lost fractions as coppers gave ground.

Chrysler and General Motors were easy. Standard Oil (New Jersey) was down almost a point and American Telephone a fraction. DuPont dropped more than 2 and Eastman Kodak well over a point.

Soy Futures Selling Is Surprisingly Light

CHICAGO (AP) — Profit selling weakened soybean futures today in early transactions on the board of trade but dealers said it was surprisingly light in view of the broad runup of Monday.

★ ★ ★

Setbacks ran to a little more than two cents a bushel in soybeans, leaving more than five cents of Monday's advance. Brokers said liquidation was a normal reaction to such a broad advance but that it was rather well absorbed and indicated a generally bullish outlook remains in the trade.

★ ★ ★

Losses in the grains were limited generally to small fractions. Activity in those pits was very light with commercial demand virtually absent.

But None From Pontiac

14 Girls Seek Junior Miss Crown Here

With less than a week until deadline, 14 girls so far have entered the Michigan Junior Miss Pageant to be held in Pontiac Jan. 28. But none of these contestants is from Pontiac.

"We had hoped to see Pontiac represented," said pageant chairman Richard Jorgensen of the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the event.

* * *

Girls from 16 to 18 years old from throughout the state are eligible to compete in the pageant. The winner will receive a $500 college scholarship and represent Michigan in seeking the national title of America's Junior Miss at Mobile, Ala., March 18.

* * *

Contestants for the state title so far are from Rochester, Milford, Royal Oak, Madison Heights, Clarkston, Flint, Dearborn, Warren, St. Clair Shores, Harper Woods, Marshall and Romulus.

Deadline on entries in the Michigan pageant is Jan. 23. It will be held in Pontiac Northern High School Auditorium.

Selected as judges are Ray Storm, Pontiac area manager of Bell Telephone; Dr. Mary Ann Cusack, dean of women at Michigan State University Oakland; and Fred Warner of Sandusky, past president of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The pageant stresses talent, personality, poise, and beauty. "It is not a bathing suit contest," Jorgensen pointed out. Good taste is the only limit on the talent prerequisite, he added.

The Pontiac Jaycees are sponsoring the state contest for the third consecutive year. Last year's winner was baton twirler Sharon Sutty of Oak Park. A dancer, Shirley Ann Hutchison of Bloomfield Township, won here the year before.

Both now are attending colleges of their choice on the scholarships they won.

* * *

Court Overturns Commie Ruling

High Bench Maintains Ex-Unionist Travis Was Tried in Wrong Place

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court Monday overruled the conviction of a former Denver union leader for filing a false non-Communist oath with the government on grounds he was tried in the wrong court.

The 6-to-3 decision set aside the conviction of Maurice E. Travis, secretary-treasurer of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union.

The majority opinion said Travis should have been tried in Washington, D.C., rather than Denver.

In other actions Monday, the court:

—Gave California and other interested parties until Feb. 27 to object to a formula for dividing water from the Colorado River as proposed by a court-appointed master, Simon H. Rifkind, last May. Arizona and California have been feuding over the allocation of the water for years.

—Dismissed an appeal by 30 New York pacifists convicted under New York's Defense Emergency Act for refusing to take shelter during a practice air raid alert.

—Refused to interfere with an order granting a new trial to Henry M. Griffith who was sentenced to death in Washington State for a 1956 murder.

Consumers' '60 Gas Sales to City Top 1959 Figures

Sales for 1960 totaled 3,663,896,700 cubic feet, according to unofficial figures. The 1959 figure was 3,291,149,000.

Waterford Twp. OKs 2 Additions

Property Owners Protest Requested Rezoning in Lambert Subdivision

In an action-packed meeting last night, the Waterford Township Board authorized the hiring of an additional fireman, approved a recommended policeman and listened to 16 residents object to rezoning of township property.

Fire Chief Elmer Fanghoner had submitted a request for a fireman to replace Lewis Goff and requested that Goff be hired as a full time fire marshal. His present salary as assistant chief would not change.

After much discussion on whether to place Goff on a part time inspection basis to save money, trustee Joseph McGee said, "Let's face it. We are moving forward — not backward and if we need more firemen and patrolmen, let's have them."

Hired as a new policeman was Richard Rosner, 25, of 2798 Chadwick Drive. He is married and has a four-year old son. He spent four years in the Pacific area with the U.S. Navy. Rosner has been assistant manager of the Knollwood Country Club in Birmingham.

The hiring of a new fireman will be the first job of the newly organized Civil Service Commission, and applications will be received and screened by that group for recommendations to the township board. The starting salary is $4,900.

Fanghoner also requested a car and mileage allowance and after consideration the board decided to wait until the three new ordered police cars arrive. The ones now in use will probably be distributed to the fire and water departments.

Strenuous objection was heard from property owners living in the Lambert Shores Acres subdivision on Cass Lake Road protesting the rezoning of proverty owned by Eugene Cole of 3019 Warner Drive, Commerce, from residential to commercial.

They contended the change would mean additional spot zoning and that there was mostly residential proverty in the area. The board denied Cole's request and the property remains residential.

In another requested change from residential to commercial, the board approved the request for the change on property at M59 and Forest Street, owned by John A. Kosky of 1016 LaSalle St. Waterford Township.

Fire in Berkley Guts Two-Firm Building

BERKLEY — A fire, which burned for two hours before it was discovered by police early today, gutted the interior of a building housing insurance company offices and a beauty shop.

Only the walls of the one-story building at 2965 W. 12-Mile Road were left standing. Berkley firemen estimated damage at $20,000. The contents of the Cut and Curl Beauty Shop and the Farmers Insurance Group Co. were destroyed.

There also was considerable smoke damage to the Wayne-Oakland Bank building on one side of the burning structure and to a restaurant on the other side, according to firemen.

A passing Berkley scout car spotted the blaze at 1:44 a.m. The cause of the fire is still unknown.

Asks NAACP to Detail Charge

Detroit Police Head Hurls Challenge in Wake of Gathering

DETROIT (UP) — Police Commissioner Herbert Hart called on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People today to detail its charges that police have abused their powers.

Hart's challenge was hurled in the wake of a NAACP meeting attended by at least 2,000 Negroes at Ford Auditorium last night.

Handbills said the meeting was to "get the facts about crime in Detroit, about the police crackdown and about your constitutional rights as a citizen."

The commissioner said he repeatedly had "asked for specific details" on NAACP charges that civil rights were being violated and police power was being abused during a stepped up drive on crime.

"No such information has been advanced," Hart said. "It seems pointless to state again that the policy of the police department is to protect the life and property of all citizens."

Handbills distributed by the Socialist Workers party at Ford Auditorium last night asked labor unions and the NAACP to demand ouster of Mayor Louis Miriani, Hart and members of the city council.

"We do not move into local operations unless we are convinced local police aren't handling their problems carefully. I don't think that's the case here," he said.

First Certificate Issued for City's Urban Renewal

The city has issued its first certificate of eligibility for a Section 221 FHA-insured loan for urban renewal relocation housing.

The certificate was issued yesterday to Frank Durso, whose home at 168 E. Pike St. is for acquisition and clearance under the urban renewal program.

The FHA has authorized up to 300 certifications for Section 221 loans in connection with the Pontiac project.

Section 221 provides easier terms than the usual FHA-insured loans. The urban renewal loans provide for 40-year terms on up to 100 per cent of appraised costs, with no down payment and a maximum of $200 in closing costs.

WILSON

Anthony Quinn and Sir Laurence Olivier, co-stars in "Becket," did it last week — with fist-clenching, arm-waving and even some dancing, in a sketch at the Democratic Victory Ball at the Plaza.

Olivier gargled with water, Quinn with something from a flask.

Emoting through the A's, AA's and AAA's from the All Souls Maternity Home to the Au Revoir Funeral Home, they showed it could be done brilliantly. New York Central Trains Halted by Harbor Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Central Railroad today halted all commuter and long-distance service in and out of Grand Central Terminal because of picketing by harbor craft crewmen employed by railroads.

The railroad earlier had suspended commuter and outbound long-distance service but had said it would try to bring in trains from distant points.

The Central said its last train on the road was the "Pacemaker" from Chicago and that its run was terminating in Albany. It had been due to arrive in New York City at 1:30 p. m.

Tens of thousands of commuters were forced to seek other means of transportation.

DETROIT (UP)—The three New York-to-Detroit passenger trains of the New York Central railroad were cancelled today because of the boatmen's strike. The three are the Wolverine, Empire State Express and North Shore Limited.

Blasted out of solid rock, this Butane storage cavern is located 432 feet straight down beneath Shell's refinery in Wood River, Illinois. Some 230,000 tons of limestone were removed to clear a total area that's larger than two football fields—and holds 22 million gallons. Storage space consists of many corridors, each as high and wide as a good-sized suburban house, and many times as long.

BULLETIN:

40 stories down, in caverns no tourist will ever see, lies the secret of the quicker starts you get with today's Super Shell—the gasoline for top performance

The 9 ingredients in today's Super Shell are specially blended every season to give you top performance in any weather.

While colder, harder-starting mornings are here, today's Super Shell is primed with extra Butane—an ingredient so volatile it has to be stored under pressure all summer to stop it from vaporizing by itself.

Think what this high volatility means on cold days. Faster firing. A big strain off your battery. And an even bigger one off your patience.

But you might wonder why Shell goes to so much trouble to store this quick start ingredient underground. Here's why.

Butane is stored as a liquid. But it is so eager to vaporize that it has to be kept under pressure. This can be done in tanks of course. But Shell's refinery experts decided that a cavern would be safer and more economical. They didn't have a cavern handy. So they built one.

It was no mean task. For instance, the whole cavern had to be leakproof, airtight—and had to have the smallest possible opening (see cut) that could take men and machinery. This tiny entrance posed quite a problem when it came to getting a bulldozer down. But our "spelunkers" simply cut up the bulldozer to fit the hole.

The very thing that makes Butane a problem to store makes it work wonders in stone cold engines.

Low temperatures make ordinary gasoline reluctant to fire. But when you add Butane, volatility increases dramatically and even the coldest engine finds it easier to start.

That's why an extra dose of Butane is added to today's Super Shell whenever the weather is likely to be wintry. It takes a strain off your engine, your battery and your patience.

Only link to surface was pipe 42" wide, 40 stories deep. Hefty equipment was dismantled, lowered and reassembled on the cavern floor.

Butane has hot-weather benefits, too—an odd little paradox

Shell's refining experts always add a certain amount of Butane to Super Shell—even in mid-summer. This may sound paradoxical. But it isn't.

Volatile Butane also happens to have an unusual anti-knock value at high temperatures. So this winter-start ingredient has a summer benefit, too. It helps to smooth out your car's performance just as much in June as it does in January.

Now that you know about Butane, why not take a couple of extra minutes and learn about the eight other ingredients in today's Super Shell? It's essential reading if you want to know the secret of top performance.

Ingredient #2 is TCP for power, mileage and longer plug-life

Super Shell now contains an even better version of this famous additive. Its chemical name is cresyl-diphenyl-phosphate.

TCP additive can give your car up to 15 per cent more power; up to 17 extra miles per tankful; and can make plugs last up to twice as long.*

New TCP does this by neutralizing certain harmful effects of combustion deposits. It is scientifically formulated to keep them from glowing when hot—a major cause of power loss. Also to keep them from diverting your spark—a major cause of "missing."

This is petroleum that has actually cracked under 900-degree heat and catalytic action. Its heavier molecules have been shattered into livelier, lighter ones.

The result is a super-octane ingredient that makes your engine purr with power the moment you put your foot down.

NOTE: "Cat-cracking" refers to the use of a catalyst—the mysterious substance that can alter molecules without changing itself.

Ingredient #4 is Alkylate, noted for knock control in hot engines

Alkylate—the ingredient that took the dream of 100-octane gasoline out of the lab and put it into the skies—is now in Super Shell. It controls knocking in hot engines at high speeds better than anything else yet available.

NOTE: Speaking of controlling knocks at high speeds, remember that car engines frequently turn even faster than the engines of a DC-7.

Ingredient #5 is anti-knock mix for extra resistance to knocks

You might think that two high-octane ingredients are enough for knock-free performance. But Shell's scientists have ears like musicians.

They insist on adding a special anti-knock mix. A mix, so effective, one teaspoon per gallon can boost anti-knock rating by five points.

This mix has the tricky job of regulating combustion so that Super Shell gives each piston a firm, even push—rather than a sharp blow which would cause a knock.

Ingredient #6 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups on cold days

Pentanes are made by tearing gasoline apart, much as you split kindling to start a log fire.

NET RESULT: Fast warm-up and top performance in a hurry.

Ingredient #7 is an "anti-icer" to check cold-weather stalling

Super Shell's formula is adjusted as often as eight times a year to beat the weather. For example, whenever the temperature is likely to be less than forty-five degrees, a carburetor anti-icer is added.

Why add anti-icer at forty-five degrees? Because, even then, frost can form in your carburetor just as it does in your refrigerator. It can choke your engine dead.

Ingredient #8 is gum preventive to keep carburetors clean inside

Even the purest gasoline can form gum when stored. This can clog carburetors and foul automatic chokes. But, with Super Shell, you needn't worry. A special gum preventive does the trick.

Ingredient #9 is Platformate for extra energy, more mileage

It takes eight million dollars' worth of platinum catalyst for Shell to produce Platformate. But fortunately for you and for us, this precious stuff can be used over and over again.

The platinum re-forming process, which gives Platformate its odd name, converts petroleum into super-energy components—such as benzene, xylene and toluene.

These three alone release 11 per cent more energy per gallon than the finest 100-octane gasoline.

But make no mistake. This is not untamed energy. Far from it. The super-energy of Platformate is harnessed by the eight other ingredients in Super Shell, where it behaves so well you scarcely know it's there. That is until you note your extra mileage. After that, there is no doubt.

Test Super Shell for yourself

Try Super Shell next time you fill up. You'll soon feel and hear a difference in the way your engine runs.

That difference is top performance.

Commissioners Study $230,000 in Pay Hikes

City Employes Asking for Raises; Hearing on Budget Tonight

By PETE LOCHBILER

Requests for more than $230,000 in municipal pay raises and benefits were under study by city commissioners today as they prepared for a public hearing on the proposed 1961 budget tonight.

Employe representatives detailed requests last night through their Joint Council of City Employes in an informal session with commissioners at City Hall.

Six commissioners were present, but Commissioner Milton R. Henry, who has said he would quit as commissioner tonight was absent.

★ ★ ★

Included in the employe demands were:

1. A four-cent-an-hour cost of living raise, estimated at $72,000.

2. Bruader hospitalization and insurance plans, plus night differential for all employes except police and firemen, all estimated at $160,000.

These requests are in excess of the $300,000 in pay raises due under full implementation of the new pay plan, adopted by the commission last fall.

In City Manager Walter K. Williman's proposed $6,612,000 budget salaries and wages amount to $4.6 million, including the $300,520. There is no provision for further benefits.

★ ★ ★

Because of Willman's absence from Pontiac this week, due to a death in the family, the commission will probably not be asked to act on the budget until the Jan. 31 deadline, Mayor Philip E. Rowston told the employe representatives.

★ ★ ★

Rowston said an important factor would be the tax rate, expected to raise this year from the 13.27 mill figure of the past four years.

"The tax rate the commission decides on will determine what we can, or cannot do, as far as your requests are concerned," he said.

Speaking for the joint council was M. Robert Sartell, president of Pontiac Fire Fighters Local 376.

"The new pay plan took into account raises due us as of Jan. 1 of last year," he said. "It does not take into account the raise in the cost of living during 1960."

Represented in the council are the fire fighters, the Pontiac Police Officers Association and Local 100 of the government employes union.

McNamara's Choice Makes Labor Sore

WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert S. McNamara is choosing his own Defense Department team—but in doing so the secretary-designate has gotten himself and the incoming administration in a jam with leaders of organized labor.

McNamara, 44, former Ford Motor Co. president, turned down a union chief reportedly recommended for a key defense post by President-Elect John F. Kennedy himself.

It is understood, moreover, that McNamara, a Republican, rejected several other persons outside of labor ranks whose names were sent to him for appointment to important posts in his department.

Joseph D. Keenan, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and an AFL-CIO vice president, is the labor man McNamara turned down.

★ ★ ★

Keenan, who had built up a World War II reputation as a successful labor trouble shooter, was tagged to become the assistant defense secretary for manpower.

A week ago in New York, Kennedy had to call in Keenan, who had accompanied him on his campaign, to convey the bad news.

"I was told McNamara is picking his own team and I don't fit," Keenan said.

★ ★ ★

Meany said Keenan's name was suggested because Kennedy wanted a union official placed in a high defense post.

Last Friday morning McNamara, having gotten wind of the ruckus he had caused, visited Meany's office and came away thinking things had been smoothed over.

★ ★ ★

They hadn't been because Meany, when asked about the situation Monday, said McNamara's visit was a "gratuitous insult."

McNamara declined comment on the Keenan rejection. But he did say he wanted it known that "I am not antilabor."

Kennedy after telling Keenan he couldn't name him to the Defense Department offered an appointment, instead, as ambassador to New Zealand. Keenan turned down that offer.

★ ★ ★

The labor official said he never wanted a political job anyway, and as for the fuss, "It's all in the game...I guess."

Divers Finding No Sign of Life

Tappings Cease From Sunken Radar Tower, Rescue Workers Say

NEW YORK (AP)—Salvage workers reported today that there was "no further sign of life" from the sunken wreckage of a radar tower which collapsed in the sea Sunday night.

Salvage rescue operations were resumed at 6:30 a.m. At 8:29 a.m. the Coast Guard here was notified there was nothing more to indicate anyone might be alive in the underwater debris.

Tappings resembling the work of humans had been heard from below the surface Monday, giving rise to hope that some of the 28 men aboard the tower might have survived in an air tight compartment.

A sea search of the area was abandoned and rescuers concentrated on salvage and diving operations at the tower site, 70 miles southeast of New York City.

The ice-called Texas Tower was wrecked by high winds and stormy seas. One body has since been recovered and another sighted but lost.

Divers were forced to halt their plunges into the icy and tumultuous Atlantic during the early morning hours but resumed with daylight.

Rescue operations had been dramatically spurred Monday when enigmatic tappings and a sound which was likened to a human voice were heard coming from the tower.

Then the rappings failed stopped — and were not heard again.

State Chairman Job Decision Shocks Party

Royal Oak Man Says Personal Matters Stop His Taking On Work

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL

Oakland County Republican Chairman Arthur G. Elliott Jr. today announced he would not be a candidate for state chairman.

The official announcement, made at a 10 a.m. news conference at the Birmingham Community House, surprised many of Elliott's fellow party workers.

Many had him in the race for the $21,000-a-year job being vacated next month by Lawrence B. Lindemer.

Elliott said his decision not to be a candidate at the Feb. 3-4 state convention in Detroit was based primarily on "personal and business considerations."

Chairman of the Oakland Republicans since 1957, the 44-year-old Royal Oak realtor, insurance man and builder had been considered one of the top contenders for chairman of the state party after he led county Republicans to a near sweep of 25 out of 27 contests Nov. 8.

The race apparently is now wide open between former Congressman Robert J. McIntosh of Port Huron and John R. Stiles of Grand Rapids. McIntosh is believed to have the edge.

A spokesman for the local GOP said since some party leaders had learned prematurely of Elliott's decision yesterday, the "wires were hot" trying to solicit someone else from Oakland County to run for state chairman.

There was some talk that delegates at the county convention in Pontiac tomorrow night might try to change Elliott's mind. Close associates of Elliott said his mind is made up.

In a prepared statement, Elliott, of 17 Kemberton St., Pleasant Ridge, promised he would "continue to serve where needed."

★ ★ ★

"For the time being I plan to continue as chairman of the Oakland County Republican Committee," Elliott said. He was first elected in 1957 to succeed former Chairman Chad M. Ritchie, who resigned.

Elliott, one of Michigan's 10 delegates-at-large to the GOP National Convention last July, was re-elected to a second two-year term last August.

Although Elliott refused to spe-

Six Missing in Navy Fire

From Our News Wires

CHARLESTON, S. C. — Navy rescuers searched the banks of the Cooper River today for six men, missing and presumed dead in a flash fire at a Navy pier here Monday night.

★ ★ ★

The blaze, reminiscent of the tragic fire at the Brooklyn Navy Yard last month, was touched off by a spark from a welding torch. Six men were injured in the Charleston fire which was whipped along the 250-yard pier by a 15-to-20 knot breeze.

The missing men reportedly were working near a building on the pier that was demolished. Two explosions leveled the building.

The fire occurred at a facility known as a degaussing station, where ships are demagnetized. This process is necessary to prevent them from setting off magnetic mines.

One 50-foot fireboat was burned and sinking before it could be put into use. A 40-foot motor launch also burned and sank.

The Navy said it would investigate the cause of the blaze. No estimate of the damage was available.

Three of the missing men were Navy men, and three were civilians.

★ ★ ★

MISSING:

Jimmie Ronald Craft, storekeeper 2.c., Rt. 4, Winnsboro, S. C.

John Robert Barrett, fireman, of Flint, Mich.

Civilian employe Paul Bromoda said he saw "a little black smoke and watched the fire spread — real fast."

He said some of the men who were burned jumped into the chilly water of the Cooper River.

Three Navy fire boats and fire-fighting units from the naval base and Charleston and North Charleston fought the blaze for 50 minutes before bringing it under control.

One Man From Michigan

M. Henry Resigning; Eyes Ghana

MILTON R. HENRY

City Commissioner Milton R. Henry said he will submit his resignation from the city commission tonight.

He said he was resigning in order to devote full time to establishing a "pioneering corporation" in the young Gold Coast nation of Ghana in Africa.

Henry, 41, said he was leaving New York Feb. 3 by jet for the 14-hour flight to Dakar on the eastern tip of Africa.

It is expected that Henry's successor will be named by the remaining six members of the commission. Henry's present two-year term expires in April 1962.

★ ★ ★

Henry, first elected to the commission in 1958, said he is a partner in the Ghanita Enterprises, a Delaware corporation established five months ago as the ground work for creating the foreign corporation designed to help Ghana develop.

LISTS MEMBERS

He named Detroit attorney Herman Stallings, retired Detroit builder Joseph MacQueen, and Wilson Copeland, an engineer, as other members of the corporation.

Wilson Henry said was already in Accra, the capital of Ghana, helping map plans for the time the group will submit its proposal to the Ghana Parliament.

Henry said should the move prove successful, which he was quite optimistic it would, he would move permanently to Ghana and give up his Pontiac law practice.

Ghanita Enterprises is a $75,000 investment to date, the commissioner said. He declined to say how much he had invested.

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac attorney, a 1950 graduate of Yale Law School, said the move to Ghana had nothing to do with former Gov. G. Mennen Williams' new State Department position with Africa affairs, or his request of the Oakland County Democratic Committee for endorsement for a foreign affairs position in Africa.

"This is strictly private enterprise in which I am involved with these fellows," he said.

He mentioned the great need for helping the nation of 12 million grow in relation to housing, sanitation and business. He said there was a need for 30,000 homes there today.

One thing they need desperately is decent housing," the commissioner said.

About the scope of the corporation's proposed development of Ghana, Henry said, "We expect to embrace every field of activity we can get into and hope to procure proper loans from proper people."

Train Hits Truck —at Least 5 Die

Streamliner Erupts in Flames After Colliding With Butane Carrier

MAGNOLIA, Miss. (AP)—The crack passenger train City of New Orleans rammed a butane gas truck at a downtown crossing in Magnolia early today. First reports indicated five persons killed and six others injured.

Illinois Central authorities said the train's engineer, S. E. Livingston, and its fireman, W. P. Collins, were both killed, along with the truck driver, who was not identified.

Reports said the other two killed were workmen unloading freight from a train.

There was no immediate determination how many passengers were injured.

"We just don't know," said an IC spokesman in New Orleans. "But with that kind of stop, there must have been some injured."

Reports from Magnolia — about 100 miles north of New Orleans— said several men unloading the freight were burned.

At the IC office in New Orleans, spokesmen said all train communication lines apparently were severed by either the crash or the fire.

The train left New Orleans at 7:10 a. m. and was due in Chicago at 11:40 p. m. IC authorities said they could not give a count on the number of passengers on the train.

Says Husband Kidnaped Girl, 6

Ex-Convict's Wife Tells of Blood-Covered Seat in Car After Abduction

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Sheriff's officers said the wife of a former Texas convict admitted today that her husband kidnaped a 6-year-old girl last Thursday. She then related gruesome details of the child's probable fate.

Chief criminal deputy Loren Fote said Elaine Lindsey, 23, made the admission after hours of questioning in the Kern County jail.

Mrs. Lindsey gave this account, Fote said:

Her husband, Richard Arlen Lindsey, 30, an acknowledged one-time mental patient, abducted young Rose Marie Riddle from a farm labor camp near Shafter, Calif., Thursday afternoon.

Her husband drove a few miles north of that community, then ordered his wife from the car. Lindsey drove off with the child across a field.

When he returned some time later, the little girl was missing and "the whole front seat was covered with blood."

Mrs. Lindsey said the couple then proceeded to San Francisco, checked into a cheap hotel and engaged in a drinking bout that lasted several days.

★ ★ ★

Authorities attempted an immediate search of the area described by Mrs. Lindsey for some trace of the kidnap victim but were hampered by a heavy ground fog.

Fote said Lindsey was again questioned about the case but stuck to his story that he blacked out for the whole period involved and had no recollection of being with the child.

Rose Marie, a blue-eyed blonde, was stricken with a serious heart disorder shortly after birth and knowledge of this condition made the days of waiting especially trying for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Riddle.

Riddle, a farm laborer, made television appeals for the child's return—as did Mrs. Riddle. They have another daughter, Janet Sue, 7.

GRIM FATE?—Missing 6-year-old Rose Marie Riddle (inset) may well have suffered a gruesome death, Bakersfield, Calif., sheriff's officers say they were told by the wife of a former Texas convict. The man and his wife are shown shortly after capture at Altamont, Calif., Sunday.

Asks NAACP to Detail Charge

Detroit Police Head Hurls Challenge in Wake of Gathering

DETROIT (AP) — Police Commissioner Herbert Hart called on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People today to detail its charges that police have abused their powers.

Hart's challenge was hurled in the wake of a NAACP meeting attended by at least 2,000 Negroes at Ford Auditorium last night.

Handbills said the meeting was to "get the facts about crime in Detroit, about the police crackdown and about your constitutional rights as a citizen."

The commissioner said he repeatedly had "asked for specific details" on NAACP charges that civil rights were being violated and police power was being abused during a stepped up drive on crime.

"No such information has been advanced," Hart said. "It seems pointless to state again that the policy of the police department is to protect the life and property of all citizens."

Handbills distributed by the Socialist Workers party at Ford Auditorium last night asked labor unions and the NAACP to demand ouster of Mayor Louis Miriani, Hart and members of the city council.

"We do not move into local operations unless we are convinced local police aren't handling their problems carefully. I don't think that's the case here," he said.

Gets YMCA Drive Vice Chairmanship

Frederick J. Poole, vice president and general manager of the F. J. Poole Lumber Co., has been named vice chairman of the YMCA's $650,000 fund-raising campaign.

In announcing the appointment today, Robert M. Critchfield, general chairman of the drive, noted that Poole is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Poole whose gift sparked the appeal for funds to purchase the present YMCA building at 131 Mt. Clemens St. 24 years ago.

A former president of the Downtown Kiwanis Club, he has served as Commercial Division chairman of the Pontiac Area United Fund drive and as president of the YMCA Camp Mahu-Go-Tah-See. He is a member of the Waterford Township Board of Education.

"There have been no additions to the Y building since it opened its doors in 1928. But there has been an almost unmanageable increase in the membership which now exceeds 4,000.

"To properly serve our young boys and girls, adults and their families in the Pontiac area, expansion of the present facilities seems to be a natural community responsibility.

"I am very happy to be part of the organization that soon will carry the appeal for necessary funds to the public."

★ ★ ★

Critchfield said Pontiac is far behind comparable communities throughout the state in provision of YMCA facilities.

★ ★ ★

Ike Sets Final Report to Nation

All Major Neiworks Will Carry Address at 8:30 Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower makes a final report to the people tonight on his two terms as president.

The speech from his White House office is only part of the flurry of activity in the fading days of the Eisenhower administration. The address at 8:30 p.m. EST will be carried by all major television and radio networks.

Television channels 2, 4 and 7 will carry the address live, as will radio stations WJR, WWJ, WXYZ, WCAR and WKMH.

Eisenhower and Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker this morning signed a treaty for joint U.S.-Canadian development of the Columbia River resources. They hailed it as a milestone in international relations.

Property Owners Protest Requested Rezoning in Lambert Subdivision

In an action-packed meeting last night, the Waterford Township Board authorized the hiring of an additional fireman, approved a recommended policeman and listened to 16 residents object to rezoning of township property.

Fire Chief Elmer Fangboner had submitted a request for a fireman to replace Lewis Goff and requested that Goff be hired as a full time fire marshal. His present salary as assistant chief would not change.

After much discussion on whether to place Goff on a part time inspection basis to save money, trustee Joseph McGee said, "Let's face it. We are moving forward — not backward and if we need more firemen and patrolmen, let's have them."

Hired as a new policeman was Richard Rosner, 25, of 2736 Chadwick Drive. He is married and has a four-year old son. He spent four years in the Pacific area with the U.S. Navy. Rosner has been assistant manager of the Knollwood Country Club in Birmingham.

The hiring of a new fireman will be the first job of the newly organized Civil Service Commission, and applications will be received and screened by that group for recommendations to the township board. The starting salary is $4,900.

Fangboner also requested a car and mileage allowance and after consideration the board decided to wait until the three new ordered police cars arrive. The ones now in use will probably be distributed to the fire and water departments.

Strenuous objection was heard from property owners living in the Lambert Shores Acres subdivision on Cass Lake Road protesting the rezoning of proverty owned by Eugene Cole of 3019 Warner Drive, Commerce, from residential to commercial.

They contended the change would mean additional spot zoning and that there was mostly residential property in the area. The board denied Cole's request and the property remains residential.

In another requested change from residential to commercial, the board approved the request for the change on property at M59 and Forest Street, owned by John A. Kosky of 1016 LaSalle St. Waterford Township.

City Commissioners Ponder Pay Raises

tension of emergency leaves due to deaths in the family from three to five days when out-of-state travel is necessary; union representation during promotional examinations in the department of public works; and overtime pay for firemen called for extra duty during major fires.

Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, estimated a one-cent an-hour cost of living raise would cost the city $18,000. He said the Bureau of Labor Statistics report in October estimated the cost of living rise at 1.4 per cent over the previous October. A 1 per cent pay increase would cost $46,000, he said.

Stierer said the added cost to the city would be about $82,000 at the present Blue Cross rates.

Employes asked for double the current amount of life insurance, from the present limits of $2,000 and $5,000, depending on the employe, to $4,000 and $10,000. Stierer said the added cost to the city would be $16,000.

The night premium would cover skeleton crews at the sewage treatment plant, water works, Lake Street Yards and City Hall. The cost to the city was estimated at $4,000-$5,000.

★ ★ ★

Firemen get no overtime at present. There were only two major fires last year that would have affected the overtime plan as they proposed it.

First Certificate Issued for City's Urban Renewal

The city has issued its first certificate of eligibility for a Section 221 FHA-insured loan for urban renewal relocation housing.

The certificate was issued yesterday to Frank Durse, whose home at 168 E. Pike St. is for acquisition and clearance under the urban renewal program.

The FHA has authorized up to 100 certifications for Section 221 loans in connection with the Pontiac project.

Section 221 provides easier terms than the usual FHA-insured loans. The urban renewal loans provide for 40-year terms on up to 100 per cent of appraised costs, with no down payment and a maximum of $500 in closing costs.

U. N. Troops Repel Mob of Balubas

From Our News Wires

ELIZABETHVILLE, the Congo, —Swedish U.N. troops fought off hundreds of rebel Baluba tribesmen who made three attacks on a train the Swedes were escorting in central Katanga Province.

A U.N. spokesman said the Swedes inflicted "heavy casualties" on the Balubas but that no Swedes were hurt.

A massive roundup of suspects in an alleged assassination plot against Katanga President Moise Tshombe and other officials touched off new fears among Europeans in this copper-rich province.

In Leopoldville, Congo President Joseph Kasavubu was reported to have demanded once again that U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold recall his special representative, Rejeshwal Dayal of India.

Hammarskjold rejected a demand Monday by Kasavubu that Dayal be recalled. Kasavubu was reported today to have warned that he would end the "good offices" mission of the U.N. unless Dayal were replaced.

Fire in Berkley Guts Two-Firm Building

BERKLEY — A fire, which burned for two hours before it was discovered by police early today, gutted the interior of a building housing insurance company offices and a beauty shop.

★ ★ ★

Only the walls of the one-story building at 2965 W. 12-Mile Road were left standing. Berkley firemen estimated damage at $20,000. The contents of the Cut and Curl Beauty Shop and the Farmers Insurance Group Co. were destroyed.

★ ★ ★

There also was considerable smoke damage to the Wayne-Oakland Bank building on one side of the burning structure and to a restaurant on the other side, according to firemen.

A passing Berkley scout car spotted the blaze at 1:44 a.m. The cause of the fire is still unknown.

Graham Tells Kennedy Election Helps Religions

Newsmen covering Kennedy, the first Roman Catholic to be elected president, knew he and Graham had a lunch and golf date but they caught their breaths when the president-elect and the evangelist, both sunburned and in high spirits, strolled into the press room.

Yes, Graham said in reply to questions, they had talked about religion and, "I told the president-elect I thought his election had helped relations between the churches. Certainly a better understanding between the Protestant and the Catholic churches in the United States has emerged from the election."

★ ★ ★

Appointment of a Nobel prize-winner in chemistry, Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg of the University of California, as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission filled one of the few remaining vacancies in the upper levels of the Kennedy administration.

Kennedy said he had finished the main job he set for himself during this Florida visit—drafting the address he will make Friday after taking the presidential oath of office on the Capitol steps.

Kennedy is scheduled for a stopover in Washington to attend a pre-inauguration dinner party being given by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Smith, his brother-in-law and sister. Then he goes on to New York, to remain until Wednesday evening. His only announced appointment there is with Gov. Luis Munoz Marin of Puerto Rico.

John E. Horne, administrative assistant to Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., was named administrator of the Small Business Administration.

Horne, a graduate of the University of Alabama and a Navy veteran of World War II, has previous experience as administrator of the Small Defense Plants Administration. He was active in the 1956 and 1960 Democratic presidential campaigns.

The Day in Birmingham

Parking-Lot Assessment Delayed at Least a Week

BIRMINGHAM — Confirmation of the assessment roll on the Island View parking lot has been delayed at least another week.

City commissioners changed their minds again on the portion of the cost the city will pay for the improvement and sent the assessment rolls back to the assessor to be respread.

Commissioners last night agreed unanimously to have the city pay 7½ per cent of the $135,000 cost for the north Woodward Avenue parking lot behind the Reid Building.

The merchants in the area benefiting from the parking lot will be assessed the remaining 92½ per cent. Businesses will provide $124,875 in funds for the lot and the city, $10,125.

Until last night commissioners were considering an assessment ratio of 85-15 per cent.

When the improvement first was proposed, merchants were to pay the entire cost of the lot. However, after objections were heard at a public hearing the assessment confirmation was delayed until a satisfactory agreement could be reached.

City commissioners authorized the preparation of final plans for the new Oak Street bridge last night and rescinded a similar action taken last week on the proposed Willits Street bridge. Both structures are over the Rouge River.

Preliminary plans for the Oak Street bridge call for a 40-foot-wide roadway with 6-foot-wide sidewalks being constructed at a cost of $50,000.

The action to go ahead with the Willits Street bridge was rescinded after the commission learned that an error had been made in the cost estimate of about $36,000.

When the Willits Street bridge was first proposed the commission was informed that it would cost about the same to construct either a culvert-type roadway over the river or a regular bridge.

The commission decided on the normal bridge design instead of the culvert type bridge.

In studying the plans this week, city engineers discovered an error had been made in the two cost estimates and that it may be less expensive to build the culvert.

★ ★ ★

New York Central Trains Halted by Harbor Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Central Railroad today halted all commuter and long-distance service in and out of Grand Central Terminal because of picketing by harbor craft crewmen employed by railroads.

The railroad earlier had suspended commuter and outbound long-distance service but had said it would try to bring in trains from distant points.

DETROIT (AP)—The three New York-to-Detroit passenger trains of the New York Central railroad were cancelled today because of the boatmen's strike. The three are the Wolverine, Empire State Express and North Shore Limited.

The Central said its last train on the road was the "Pacemaker" from Chicago and that its run was terminating in Albany. It had been due to arrive in New York City at 1:30 p. m.

Tens of thousands of commuters were forced to seek other means of transportation.

Elliott 'Won't Run' for Lindemer Post

city who his choice might be for chairman, he took an indirect slap at McIntosh when he said "the next state chairman must have a proven background of successful campaigns."

McIntosh, former Port Huron postmaster, was elected to Michigan's 7th District in 1956. He was upset by present Congressman James G. O'Hara in 1958 and lost a second time to O'Hara last November.

"The office of Republican state chairman is tremendously important," Elliott said, "particularly at a time when the executive branch of our state government has for 12 years been dominated by a political party whose policies have been influenced to an unreasonable degree by a well-financed minority group."

Indianapolis-born Elliott, who returned early Monday from a two-week vacation at Pompano Beach, Fla., directed the local party workers to victory in November despite a revitalized opposition party which pulled out all stops in an effort to take Oakland County from the GOP column—where it has been quite consistently.

Elliott urged that the next state chairman, who will be selected by the vote of more than 1,000 delegates gathered in Detroit's Cobo Hall, "must be prepared to develop organizational activity to its fullest—introduce educational programs to offset the unwholesome influence of publications and broadcasts that present a controlled viewpoint of political affairs and expand the party's public relations activities to new effectiveness."

★ ★ ★

Mentioned in the local search for talent to fill the shoes Elliott will not fill now are Gordon T. Getsinger of Bloomfield Township, an Oakland member of the State Central Committee, and Richard C. Van Dusen, who ran for attorney general in 1956.

Getsinger said he was not considering running.

Van Dusen, a Detroit attorney from Bingham Farms, could not be reached immediately.

When informed by Getsinger of Elliott's decision not to be a candidate, Lindemer said this would not change his mind any. Lindemer, like Elliott, said "the press of business and personal matters" ruled out his seeking a third term.

Budget Revision Seen by Dems

Surplus Disappears at Close Inspection, Says Sen. Mansfield

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders predicted today that the incoming Kennedy administration would ask substantial revisions in President Eisenhower's budget.

★ ★ ★

In view of the lagging economy, some Democrats challenged Eisenhower's contention that his $80.9 billion financial blue print submitted to Congress Monday would provide enough income for a $1.5-billion surplus in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

★ ★ ★

Republicans generally defended the Eisenhower estimates. But some of them were critical of the proposal to put another $4 billion into foreign aid.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Eisenhower had set aside only "minimum amounts" for housing, urban renewal and aid to education programs expected to be pushed by President-Elect John F. Kennedy.

Mansfield said that Congress is likely to provide at least $100 million in depressed area assistance instead of the $10 million Eisenhower budgeted.

★ ★ ★

The Democratic leader said the balance in the budget "disappears on close inspection." He indicated he doesn't believe Congress will raise postal rates $843 million or increase gasoline taxes $900 million. Eisenhower used these figures to bolster an estimated $82.3 billion in receipts.

JFK's Moves Will Determine Exact Budget

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The budget that President Eisenhower submitted to Congress Monday opens up a guessing game rather than setting a final guide for taxpayers and business.

In spending there's always the question of what Congress will finally do with any presidential budget. Added this time is the uncertainty of the task force reports to President-Elect John F. Kennedy.

If all their suggestions were adopted spending would rise well above the $80.9 billion the outgoing President calls necessary, and which itself is 92 million more than in the current fiscal year.

In receipts, his estimate of $82.3 billion will be obtained only if the current business slide is reversed so that tax collections will swell, and only if Congress votes higher gas taxes and increased postal rates.

So the budget leaves business and the taxpayer about where they were — that is, guessing how much the Kennedy administration will want to spend, how much Congress will approve, and how far the business slackness is likely to go and when a recovery can be expected.

MUST ULTIMATELY PAY

The taxpayer, and that includes both individuals and business, is concerned in what happens to the budget because ultimately the bills have to be met. And if the Treasury doesn't achieve the $1.5-billion surplus that President Eisenhower hopes for, but runs up a deficit instead, both individuals and business could be under revived inflationary pressures.

★ ★ ★

Business is further concerned because just how much the government spends and for what it puts out its money vitally affect many companies and whole industries. Eventually this widens out to take in most of the economy.

Studying the proposed budget, business notes that only two items call for less spending in fiscal 1962 than in the current fiscal year. These are interest on the public debt, down because interest rates are down, not because of any drop in the total debt; and for commerce, housing and space technology.

ALL ELSE HIGHER

Everything else is up. Defense spending is up $1.5 billion, but this was expected. So was the increase in outlay for veterans services and benefits. President Eisenhower wants more for foreign aid than Congress voted for this fiscal year.

Purely civilian projects that are asking more money for the next fiscal year are labor and welfare, agriculture and agricultural resources, natural resources, and general government costs.

Some projects don't come under the regular budget at all. These are the sums collected and spent for such endeavors as Social Security, jobless payments and superhighways.

Adding these, the total cash to be spent in fiscal 1962 becomes $101.8 billion, or $3.9 billion more than this year. And the total money expected to be collected from the public becomes $193.1 billion, or $4.1 billion more than this year.

★ ★ ★

These are figures that business studies, since they furnish a better idea of how much government will withdraw from the public's pockets and just how much could be available sooner or later to business either in government orders, or in cash in the pockets of those who get salaries, or payment from the government.

The popular early American flintlock called the "Kentucky Rifle" actually was developed in what is now the state of Pennsylvania.

4th-Class City Can Aid Workers by Insurance

LANSING (UPI)—A fourth-class city in Michigan can purchase and assume part of the cost of group insurance as part of the compensation to its employes, Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams said Monday.

In an opinion issued at the request of State Rep. Louis Mezzano, D-Wakefield, Adams said the City Council of the city can fix the compensation of its employes and include group insurance as part of the compensation.

The city does not need to call for bids on the letting of group insurance, Adams said.

★ ★ ★

Mezzano said the request for an opinion was prompted by officials in Bessemer, who wanted to place all city employes under group insurance.

Faulty Taillight Pair's Downfall

Found With 12 Guns, Ammunition in Car — Break-Ins Reported

A faulty taillight led to the arrest of an 18-year-old Auburn Heights youth and a Pontiac man in Avon Township early this morning minutes after an Auburn Heights hardware store had been broken into and eight guns stolen.

Sheriff's deputies discovered 12 guns, including eight revolvers, 30 boxes of ammunition, several hunting knives, flashlights, a watch, a dictaphone and several cartons of cigarettes in the suspects' car.

Jerry W. Key, 18, of 3107 Caroline St. and James O. Vanderver, 22 of 820 St. Clair St. were caught after a short race in the township, which resulted when deputies noticed a faulty taillight on their car.

Upon questioning about the guns, Vanderver admitted breaking into the Keego Hardware Store at 3320 Auburn Road and Avondale High School, deputies said.

* * *

Entry to the hardware store had been gained by blasting out the front window with a 16-gauge shotgun. Eight of the 12 guns were reported missing from the hardware.

The dictaphone had been stolen from the high school, deputies said.

Entry there had been forced by smashing a glass door. Several interior glass doors also were smashed by the intruders.

Deputies suspected that the other four guns and the rest of the items found in the car were stolen in other area break-ins. They were to question Vanderver and Key further today before arraigning them.

New Wonder Drug Cosmetic Restores Young Look to Skin
Medical tests show Helena Rubinstein's Ultra Feminine reduces wrinkles due to dryness and restores young tone to mature skin.

Now you can look younger. Medical research proves that the action of two vital female hormones, estrogen and progesterone reactivates specific skin cells. Wrinkles due to dryness are reduced. Young skin tone is restored.

The discovery that has made this possible is Helena Rubinstein's Ultra Feminine® Face Cream, the only face cream with both vital female hormones. These are the very hormones that have helped shape every woman from Venus to you—the same hormones that abound in a young woman's skin.

What the doctors report

Skin cells can hold maximum moisture again. These cells, plumped out once more, support the surface firmly. Lines smooth out. Wrinkles due to dryness are reduced. Young skin tone is restored.

Oil glands produce at a more youthful rate again. Tissue sections and skin surface tests show an amazing increase in oil production. The skin is soft, dewy, protected

Start looking younger

Start using Ultra Feminine now. In just 30 days, see your skin take on a definitely younger look. Such rapid results are possible because Ultra Feminine is an actual wonder drug cosmetic that works within the skin to replenish lots of physiological substances. The whole process, miraculous to behold, is like nature's own because estrogen and progesterone are the female hormones which power these cells in youth. Because your skin can't store up hormones for the future, you must use Ultra Feminine faithfully each night. This assures your daily hormone requirement.

This medically tested treatment costs only pennies per use. See your skin look young again, and stay younger looking.

Lifetime Guarantee

Helena Rubinstein states: "Your skin must look younger in one month, then stay younger looking with continued daily use of Ultra Feminine, if used as directed, or return your latest purchase for full refund."

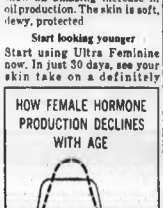
HOW FEMALE HORMONE PRODUCTION DECLINES WITH AGE



These curves show the relative changes in the amounts of estrogen and progesterone during the life of the female. Note how rapidly they decline after 30—the estrogen first, then the progesterone.

ONCE-A-YEAR SALE!
Because Helena Rubinstein is convinced that Ultra Feminine is her greatest cosmetic achievement, she makes this special offer so that you may discover for yourself that you can look younger. One jar will convince you!

Bar Cuba Trips 'for Safety Sake'

Only Those With Vital Business Will Be Given Travel Permission

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States Monday halted tourist travel to Fidel Castro's Cuba because it is no longer able "to extend normal protective services" to American citizens there.

Travel to the island will be limited to trips considered "in the best interests of the United States." Boiled down, this means newsmen and businessmen "with previously established business connections in Cuba."

The State Department action put Cuba in the same category with Red China, North Korea, North Viet Nam and Albania, all Communist countries, where travel by Americans is banned without special permission.

But the regulations on Cuba probably will not be enforced as severely as they are towards those other countries.

However, any U.S. citizen wishing to go to Cuba must have his passport especially endorsed by the State Department.

* * *

The department said the restrictions were issued "in conformity with the department's normal practice of limiting travel to those countries with which the United States does not maintain diplomatic relations."

* * *

When the United States broke with Castro's regime Jan. 3, it asked the Swiss Embassy in Havana to look after American interests in Cuba.

Since the United States no longer has either an embassy or a consulate in Cuba, it can't no longer extend "protective services" to U.S. citizens.

Local Woman Pleads Innocent in Death

A plea of innocent was entered by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams yesterday for Mrs. Mary S. G. Kennedy, accused of manslaughter in the fatal Christmas night shooting of a 58-year-old Pontiac man.

She said it was self-defense after Oscar E. McCloud of 147 W. South Blvd., had threatened to shoot other persons in her home at 142 Harvey St.

Mrs. Kennedy, 61, was released on a $1,000 bond pending her trial. No date was set.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Moller, D.V.M.

Q. Our 8-year-old boxer has scabby elbows. What can we do for him? Mrs. John Jenks, La Fayette, N.Y.

A. Scabby elbows are much easier to prevent than to treat. Just don't let your dog lie on hard surfaces. These unsightly marks are seen quite often in larger dogs, particularly when the dog's favorite resting spot is on a concrete floor.

* * *

But in addition to their ugliness, the scabby pressure spots can become easily infected, and then are quite painful. I have best results treating them with iodine ointments.

* * *

LLOYD J. HEUSSNER

Officers Are Elected by Auto Trade Assn.

New officers of the Pontiac Automotive Trade Association were announced today.

President for the year will be Lloyd J. Heussner of Lloyd Motors, Inc. He succeeds John H. Braid of Braid Motor Sales.

* * *

John A. Noreen of Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., will serve a second term as secretary-treasurer.

Truman to Guest at Inaugural Day Luncheon

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Harry S. Truman will attend a special inaugural luncheon Friday for governors of 44 states, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The governors inaugural reception committee said Mrs. Truman, daughter Margaret and husband Clifton Daniel also would attend the luncheon for the governors, their wives and guests to be held following swearing-in ceremonies at the capitol.

Not expected to attend the luncheon were the chief executives of Georgia, Montana, Mississippi, New York, Utah and Wyoming.

* * *

Following the luncheon, the governors will watch the inaugural parade for President-Elect John F. Kennedy, until each must go to his automobile to join the procession.

Hearst Thinks U.S. Can Halt Red Drive

BOCA RATON, Fla. (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev believes Russia can win the cold war but America "possesses the moral and material fiber" needed to defeat the Communist drive, William Randolph Hearst Jr. said Monday.

Khrushchev "is our foremost adversary and we would be well advised to take him seriously at all times," Hearst told the opening session of the 50th annual convention of the National Coffee Association.

The Hearst newspapers editor-in-chief said international communism now is aiming at Africa and South America in its drive for world domination.

Jailed in Fraud Case, Georgia Mayor Resigns

WARNER ROBINS, Ga. (AP) —Mayor Kemp A. Harrison, 49, imprisoned on federal bank fraud charges, has resigned despite a state court finding he could continue as mayor while in jail.

Harrison, who won re-election to a second 4-year term in November while serving a year and a day on federal bank fraud charges, submitted his resignation to City Commission Monday night.

Senate Conservatives, Liberals at War

State Legislature Will Convene Tonight

LANSING (AP) — The 1961 legislature convenes tonight for the second week of a session in which Senate Republicans already are embroiled in a power struggle between conservatives and liberals.

At stake is the chairmanship of the Senate Business Committee, which has the important duty of screening Gov. Swainson's administrative agency appointments.

Sen. Charles R. Feenstra of Grand Rapids is the choice of the conservative bloc, while Sen. John W. Fitzgerald of Grand Ledge has the backing of the relatively liberal group.

Fitzgerald was backed by a GOP caucus last week in his determination to get the chairmanship.

But the conservative-controlled committee on committees insisted on Feenstra for the job. That was where matters stood when the Senate adjourned for the weekend.

CLAIMS NEWCOMERS

Fitzgerald, son of a former governor, claimed he has the backing of all of the GOP newcomers to the Senate, and threatened to take the fight to the floor if necessary.

There he is virtually assured of getting all 12 Democratic votes.

Fitzgerald and one of his backers, Sen. John H. Stahlin of Belding, said they learned that considerable pressure was applied by lobbyists and others over the weekend in an effort to swing the votes of some of the liberals.

"But as far as I know, there has been no wavering of support," Fitzgerald said, adding that he himself had been offered other committee chairmanships as a compromise but had turned them down.

Gov. Swainson told newsmen he is maintaining a hands-off policy in the squabble.

Swainson said he may have his budget message ready for the lawmakers when they reconvene tonight, otherwise it will not be submitted until he returns from the inauguration of President-Elect Kennedy in Washington.

The governor and his party plan to leave on a National Guard plane for the nation's capital this afternoon.

The annual art exhibit will be on display in the new gymnasium, beginning at 7:30. Winners will be announced later in the evening. The display includes entries by students from kindergarten through the 12th grade.

Encouraging expression and appreciation are the aims of the school's fine arts department. With classroom aids, including record player and tape recorder, the children learn of the works of renowned and less known artists.

The elementary and junior highbands will perform under the direction of Charles Joss, and the mixed glee club, led by William Kershaw, will sing.

Don't Just Sit and Sit

Perk Up Your Own Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

So many people fail to realize how much a new project, a new hobby, or even a new game or some new records, can pep up home life. It's not that we become bored with one another, but that we get into ruts and forget that a new interest can jog up family fun in a wonderful way.

The father has his work cut out for him, the mother has her work cut out for her, and so do the children, and unless something is done, the whole thing will be "cut and dried."

We cannot sit at home and hope that something exciting will happen. We have to do something about it and make it happen. This goes for married couples, for lonely persons who want to make new friends, and is especially important from middle age on.

Just a little push on your part may open doors you never dreamed of. The ripple from your first effort expands continually.

Not long ago I wrote about handicrafts, especially about leathercrafting. Today I want to tell you a human interest story which really happened.

Tom and Wilma are both in their later middle years. They met at a leathercraft guild and had a lot of fun with this shared project. Wilma started as a complete amateur.

She had purchased a beginner's kit and materials for about $17. Tom helped her and now, 18 months later, she is as deft and clever as Tom, and sketches out her own designs.

Also, this story has a romantic ending because Tom and Wilma fell in love and married. Today they earn from $2,500 to $3,000 a year between them from their leathercraft hobby.

Money is important to all of us, but the most important thing is to use what talents we have and to discover some we did not know we had.

Wilma had made only a few of her own clothes but now she has designed suede blouses for chilly days and personalizes belts and moccasins for her customers.

HE'S HAPPY, TOO

What about Tom? He seems as happy as Wilma. He still keeps up some of his life insurance sales contacts, and along the way he sells almost as much leather as he does insurance.

Most lives can stand a little activation, and so many people who are bored and frustrated would be surprised by the results of that first self-effort to get out of a rut.

The important thing is not to become "becalmed" like a sailboat which must wait for the wind to rise. Why not blow up a little breeze of your own?

'Lighting' Topic of Club Meeting

Mrs. George Hotchkiss presented the program "Better Lighting for Better Living" at Wednesday's meeting of the Maceday Garden Extension Club. Mrs. Earl H. Hotchkiss of Warringham Street, Waterford Township, was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dennis Burling.

New members are Mrs. Richard Kruger and Mrs. Martin Downs.

By MARY ANGLEMIER

Some 70 members of the Pontiac Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association heard Mrs. J. P. Carlile speak on "Gardens of the Bible" when Mrs. Milo J. Cress opened her South Hammond Lake Drive home Monday.

Mrs. Carlile of Pleasant Ridge, daughter of the late Rev. S. S. Marquis, first rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, was introduced by Mrs. Philip M. Hubbard.

The speaker said when she first took an interest in studying gardens of the Bible she thought she had struck a new idea but discovered the research had been going on for hundreds of years and she wasn't at all original.

"In digging up reports of geologists and archeologists I learned scientists use the Bible to confirm things they have found.

"Researchers have never discovered a city that flourished up to 6,00 years ago that could not be found in the Bible," she said.

"Gardens in Biblical times consisted of trees, although vegetables we now use could all be found there. Trees furnished food, a place of meeting, and a place for children to play.

"One of the most revered trees is the olive. According to records, it is believed the olive trees in the Garden of Gethsemane are the very ones under which Jesus knelt," said Mrs. Carlile.

IN MOROCCO

Mrs. Carlile told of visiting the beautiful Moslem gardens in Morocco. Walking down a tiny path she came upon the Holy of Holys —a small garden about 10 feet square with a small river running beside it.

She found three men there — a Franciscan monk, a Spanish priest and a Moslem. There was a profound silence as all meditated and prayed silently, she said.

"As I sat down and leaned against a tree, a favorite Bible verse came to my mind 'Be still and know that I am God,'" she stated.

"When I rose to leave, each man bowed and in his own language said 'God Bless You.'

"There is no communication between two minds unless one will act and listen. We don't listen enough. We can't hear God's plan for us if we are constantly making noises of anxiety, fear, distrust and hatred.

"I think we must cultivate a silence within ourselves — the kind of silence in which we can sit and hear — 'Be still and know that I am god,'" she added.

* * *

Mrs. Russell Galbraith reported several books have been ordered for the Pontiac City Library in memory of the late Mrs. Mel T. Wenkes, a former member.

Mrs. William B. Hartman, chairman of the tea, was assisted by Mrs. Vernon C. Abbott, Mrs. James G. Clarke, Mrs. Glenn H. Griffin, Mrs. H. Jack Habel, Mrs. Charles W. Hayner, Mrs. H. Russel Holland and Mrs. Harold G. Ring.

Others were Mrs. Alvin R. Lar son, Mrs. Robert B. Oliver, Mrs. John H. Patterson, Mrs. Aaron D. Baker, Mrs. Goodloe H. Rogers, Mrs. Stuart E. Whitfield, Mrs. G. R. Williams and Mrs. Arthur R. Young.

Pussy willows, daffodils and iris arranged in a bark plank centered the tea table covered with a sandalwood linen cloth. Candles were mahogany brown.

Automobile manufacturers use nearly 30 million new tires a year. In addition, American motorists purchased more than 66.7 million replacement tires.

Market Lower, Trading Active

Most leading stocks took fractional losses. There was a scattering of small gains.

Steels, which have found new strength in recent sessions, continued to back away from their 1961 gains even though the latest week of steel production was reported at the highest level since October.

Autos were very narrowly mixed. So were rails. A cut in the copper price found stocks of copper producers moderately lower. Kennecott was down close to a point. Anaconda and Phelps Dodge took fractional losses.

Du Pont dropped more than 2 points in a ragged chemical section. Union Carbide was firm. Eastman Kodak and American Cyanamid were slightly lower.

Building material issues moved ahead moderately. U.S. Gypsum and Johns-Manville were on the plus side.

Mandel Resigns Justice Position

Waterford Board Hears Report on M59 Traffic Signals

Waterford Township Attorney Paul M. Mandel of 3549 Baybrook Drive last night formally submitted his resignation to the township board, due to his acceptance as Waterford Township Justice of the Peace.

In his letter of resignation, Mandel stated that although the two positions were compatible, he preferred to devote more time to his newly appointed job, and his own position as a local attorney.

Mandel has been with the township board for the past four years, and was recently appointed to the justice position left vacant by Donald E. Adams who is now an Oakland County probate judge.

In other business, a survey report was submitted regarding the installation of traffic signal lights at the intersections of M59 at Pontiac Lake Road and M59 at Cass Lake Road. The report was presented by State Highway district manager Samuel Levine, who asked the board to forward the recommendations to the Oakland County Road Commission.

The board appointed two new members to the township zoning board, replacing Russell Hicks and Norbert Wise. The two are Mitchell Sloma of 3635 Aquarina Drive and Orlen Younger of 4260 Elizabeth Lake road.

A hearing date for street lighting in the Lotus Lake subdivision was set for 7 to 9 p.m. Jan. 30.

A report from the township's insurance agency, the Hartford Insurance Co., asked that several precautionary measures be projected to further the safety of township employes.

Among the suggestions was that all township trucks should have respirators for workers, gas masks for people working with chlorine and that new side rails be installed and the split rails replaced on the grandstand at the Drayton Ball park.

Clerk James E. Secterlin told the township board that he and an inspector, Raymond Granda, looked at the grandstand, and authorized it torn down immediately, as it was unsafe for spectators.

The request of police chief Millard J. Pender to give policeman Arthur Holmes a $156 raise in salary plus $150 for clothing was approved. Holmes' salary will now be $5,408 annually.

The board also authorized overtime pay for dog warden Neil King to issue licenses during a two-day vaccination session at the Animal Shelter, Feb. 18 and 25.

Alleges Cost of Idle Pay Hurts State in World Mart

DETROIT (AP)—Joseph A. O'Reilly, president of the Michigan Employers' Unemployment Compensation Bureau, says increasing cost of unemployment compensation may price Michigan industry out of world markets.

* * *

O'Reilly and two others addressed the Economic Club of Detroit Monday on steps they said should be taken to hold down the cost of idle benefits.

He blamed soaring costs on poor selection of risks, and deviation by appeal boards and courts from what he called previously sound interpretations of eligibility and disqualification conditions.

O'Reilly cited a State Supreme Court ruling which granted unemployment benefits to members of the United Auto Workers Union who were idled in Michigan by a UAW strike at a plant in Ohio.

* * *

"In effect, unions have been given a license to use the state unemployment compensation fund to finance their strikes," O'Reilly said.

Russell L. Hibbard, compensation director for General Motors Corp., proposed that employers take three steps to restore stability and soundness to the program.

He suggested employers: 1) Inform the legislature of problems created by the program; 2) Cooperate with the state in enforcement of the law's eligibility and disqualification provisions; 3) Institute policies to stabilize employment.

* * *

Frank E. Cooper, counsel for the Employers' Association of Detroit, said "federalization" of the state program must be resisted. He also said "we must see that those who are appointed to administer and interpret the law follow the legislative intention."

Griffin Proposes Freedom School to Teach of Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal to create a "freedom academy" to teach Americans scientific ways of combatting communism was advanced Monday by Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich.

Griffin's bill, similar to one he and other Congress members sought to make law last year, also would form a "freedom commission" charged with developing a "science of anticommunism."

He said the freedom academy, "the place where the science would be taught," would operate along the lines of the National War College, the Army and Navy war colleges and the Air University.

Griffin said the Soviet Union and Communist China are far ahead of the United States in teaching cold war techniques and activities.

Shut Most Chrysler Plants for a Week

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. has shut down all but one of its Detroit-area car assembly lines for one week, effective Monday.

A company spokesman said about 7,500 workers are involved with the suspension of operations at the Plymouth assembly plant, Huntramck, which builds Dodge Darts, Lancers and Plymouth Valiants, and the Imperial assembly plant.

* * *

* * *

Chrysler said the moves were necessary to balance field inventories.

McDonald Will Speak

CHICAGO (UPI) — David J. McDonald, president of the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America, was scheduled principle speaker tonight at a Chicago combined Jewish appeal benefit and dinner honoring Arthur J. Goldberg, labor secretary-designate in the Kennedy administration.

Raps Defense Dept. for Taxiing Stars

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department was sharply criticized Monday by Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, for providing a uniformed military driver for entertainers Frank Sinatra and Peter Lawford.

* * *

Gross said department officials assured him "it won't happen again."

He said his protest stemmed from a uniformed Air Force enlisted man meeting the entertainers at the airport when they arrived last week to begin preparations for the inaugural gala Thursday night.

* * *

Telephone Directory Acted Out in Sketch

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — You've heard the ancient compliment to actors Lunt and Fontanne, "They could read the phone book and make it exciting . . ."

WILSON

Anthony Quinn and Sir Laurence Olivier, co-stars in "Becket," did it last week — with fist-clenching, arm-waving and even some dancing, in a sketch at the Democratic Victory Ball at the Plaza.

Olivier gargled with water, Quinn with something from a flask.

Emoting through the A's, AA's and AAA's from the All Souls Maternity Home to the Au Revoir Funeral Home, they showed it could be done brilliantly. Composers Betty Comden and Adolph Green had written the sketch—by coincidence Green's wife Phyllis Newman had a son five or six hours before whose name—keeping the A motif intact—is Adam.

* * *

Lovely Constance Towers—who opened triumphantly at the Plaza Persian Room — wore an all-fringe dress and showed us a closet of other all-fringe dresses, about $10,000 worth. She's sure a fringe benefit. Her wardrobe so excites her husband Gene McGrath that he's been known to call her "Dear Fringe."

Critic Pleads Innocent of Video Poll Results

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—Before the razzing gets beyond control, I want to assure my friends that I didn't vote in the latest poll of TV critics and columnists.

I refer to the poll by sister trade publications, "Television Today" and "Motion Picture Daily." Naturally, since I'm a nonvoter, I'll exercise the great American right of griping about some of the results.

The 1960 balloting, made public Monday awarded the "Champion of Champions" title to "The Untouchables." The ABC-TV crime series, a pale imitation of itself these days, won as "Best Network Television Program" and "Best Dramatic Program." And in each category "Hallmark Hall of Fame" was the runner-up.

If all TV viewers and reviewers feel that way then TV has at last reached the plateau of perfection and nothing more can be asked of it.

* * *

I like to keep my readers up-to-date on syndicated TV shows, for this is an area that reveals a lot about TV itself.

Take "Mister Ed" and "The Play of the Week" for example.

"Mister Ed" stars Alan Young and a palomino horse that talks. The series boasts a boisterous, trigger-happy laugh track, at least one chuckle in each silly episode and was especially designated for family viewing.

Committees made up of auto dealers approved the pilot film before the automobile company sponsor gave the show a go-ahead. They got what they were after—a noncontroversial, nonviolent, ho hum program.

"The Play of the Week," unlike "Mister Ed," doesn't shy away from controversial themes. It normally presents two-hour productions of plays that have concluded Broadway runs, successfully or otherwise. As a switch, the latest "the play of the week" release is a new play by Reginald Rose in a pre-Broadway run.

The play, "Black Monday," deals with the impact of school integration upon a small Southern community. A series of connected vignettes reveals the fashions in which the lives of those in this community would be altered after "Black Monday," whether they wake up on that fateful day as partisans or not.

* * *

Anyhow, as far as syndication goes, "Black Monday" will be seen in about 60 TV markets, if it's lucky. "Mister Ed," so carefully sugar-coated by a panel of experts, is seen in about twice as many areas.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "X-Pilot," a half-hour documentary about test pilot Scott Crossfield and the space rocket ship X-15, is scheduled for Monday, Feb. 6 as ABC-TV's "Bell & Howell Close-Up" special.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., representing the conservative viewpoint, and Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., representing the liberal viewpoint, will debate the role of the federal government in national life when CBS-TV's new hour-long "Face the Nation" series is launched on Thursday, Jan. 26.

* * *

Hans Conried and Pat Carroll have joined the cast of "Private Eye, Private Eye," The Max Liebman comedy special that will star Ernie Kovacs and Edie Adams. Air date: Wednesday, March 8 on CBS-TV.

Sentenced to Jackson for Try at Break-In

Arthur Medley, 43, of 280 Fisher Ave., was sentenced yesterday by Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland to 2 to 7½ years in Jackson Prison for attempting to break into a Pontiac metal fabricating plant last October.
