Adenauer's West-Red Pact Plan Gets Icy Eye From U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—While keeping silent officially, U.S. diplomats today privately turned thumbs down on West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's proposal for an eventual nonaggression pact between the free West and the Soviet bloc.

Requests for official reaction to Adenauer's suggestion, made in a speech here yesterday, were met with a "no comment" at the State Department.

However, officials familiar with American policies over the past several years confided the Adenauer proposal goes far beyond any position the U.S. could take in the foreseeable future.

The chief reason cited was that neither President Eisenhower nor Secretary of State Dulles has any intention of sanctioning, even indirectly, Red domination of great areas of the world.

Felix von Eckhardt, West German information chief, apparently sensed the possibility of U.S. objections to the Adenauer plan because he called a news conference several hours after the chan-cellar's talk to the National Press Club.

Von Eckhardt told newsmen that what Adenauer had in mind was a series of agreements to be undertaken one at a time, rather than a sweeping East-West pact.

The West German information of-cial also said the first such agreement logically could deal with disarmament, which he termed "the decisive point of tension."

Adenauer was to fly to New York today after winding up his brief Washington stay with a dinner last night in honor of Dulles.

A few hours after receiving an honorary degree from Columbia University tomorrow afternoon, Adenauer is scheduled to leave for home.

Adenauer's visit to Washington, American officials said, has been a success from the point of view of building good will between the United States and Germany.

City Unemployment Lowest Since June

Unemployment in the Pontiac area this week hit the lowest level since June 17, it was reported yesterday by Luther Olson, manager of the Pontiac office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Figures showed 2,762 persons applied for unemployment compensation this week, a decline of $31 from the previous week.

Olson, who several weeks ago predicted unemployment would level off at around 2,500, revised his estimate to 2,000. "Maximum production has not been reached and the plants are still hiring," he said.

Here's How to Make It

You Can Split Your Ticket

Rumors are circulating that voters cannot split their ticket in Tuesday's general election.

This just isn't so. You may vote a straight party ticket; mix your vote between candidates of the several parties; or vote a 'split' ticket.

Here is how, as outlined in state election laws:

Straight Party Ticket—Place a cross in the circle at the top of your party ticket. That is all you need to do to vote for all candidates of that party.

Mixed Ticket—Instead of placing a cross in the party circle, place a cross in the square opposite the name of each candidate you choose, regardless of party, and your vote will be recorded for each candidate you designate. (Be careful, of course, not to mark for more than one candidate on the general ballot for the same office).

Split Ticket—If you want to vote for most of the candidates in one party and only a few in another party, place a cross in the circle above your party, and then mark crosses in the squares after the names of the several candidates you prefer in other parties.

In operating a voting machine the split ticket is accomplished in this manner:

Trip the party name lever which sets your machine for a straight ticket. Then raise the small lever above any name you want to eliminate from your vote in that party's list of candidates. Trip the corresponding lever of the candidate or candidates in other party rows whom you have selected in the other parties.

The voting machine then records your vote as you move the red handle to the left to clear the machine and open the booth curtains.

Trick or Treat Slayer Sought

Police Hunt 'Thin Man' After Girl's Nude Body Is Found in Graveyard

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 30 (AP)—Nine state policemen pressed relentlessly today to find the slayer of 6-year-old Karen Mauk, killed while she was making a "trick or treat" tour of the neighborhood in true Halloween fashion.

Sgt. J. A. Blair, a veteran of the force and the father of three children, heads the squad which has been ordered to stay on the case indefinitely.

Blair says there's only one real clue to the man who killed Karen and left her unclothed body in a cemetery at nearby Conemaugh Borough where it was found early yesterday by a volunteer fireman. He declared:

"A tall thin man has been reported seen in the Conemaugh area the past two days. We've had different descriptions of him and he is reported to have approached several children. . . . Just before Karen was reported missing a 14-year-old girl told us the man walked along the street but she broke away quickly and went home."

Police said a "trick or treat" bag of candy lay near her head. An apple was near one of her clenched fists.

British Dock Strike Settled

Workers Vote to End 27-Day Walkout During Mass Union Meetings

LONDON (AP)—British dock workers voted today to end their 27-day strike and return to work Monday.

The walkout of 43,000 dockers crippled Britain's major ports and struck a heavy blow to her foreign trade, the lifeblood of this island nation.

The back to work vote was taken at a nationwide series of mass meetings called by the strike leaders.

The men agreed to go back on condition that the question of compulsory overtime be submitted to further negotiations and that men who refuse to work overtime until the issue is finally settled will not be disciplined.

The walkout started in the Port of London to support demands that overtime be on a voluntary rather than compulsory basis. Management maintains that the dependence of ship arrivals and departures on the tides makes compulsory overtime a necessity.

Snow Flurries, Wintry Weather Predicted Here

Winter weather descended on Michigan last night, bringing very light snow flurries to the Pontiac area but not predicted freezing temperatures.

Four inches of snow blanketed the Houghton area in the upper peninsula, where the heaviest snowfall and lowest temperature, 24 degrees, were recorded.

Fairly heavy snows also blew into lower Michigan, as cheerleaders at a Grand Rapids football game amused themselves by tossing snowballs.

Detroit was hit by rain and sleet for a while yesterday, but left in time for a sunny afternoon.

The forecast for the Pontiac area is cold with snow flurries again tomorrow. U. S. Weather Bureau forecasters say the low tonight will be 36-34, high tomorrow 38-42.

Downtown temperatures yesterday zig-zagged all over the chart, reading 40 at 7 a.m., 47 at 1:30, 40 at 2, 45 and 3 and back down to 40 at 4:30. Today at 8 a.m., the mercury registered 36, rising to only 39 by 1 p.m.

New Pontiacs Displayed Today With Motorcade

Crowd Braves Weather to See Procession and Unveiling Ceremony

Spectators braved icy winds and snow flurries this morning to witness the motorcade of new 1955 Pontiac cars.

Shoppers came out of stores to stand, shivering, on the sidewalks as the 17-car procession led by Pontiac High School band rolled northward up Saginaw street.

At the courthouse, the motorcade stopped for a ceremony in which Chief Pontiac, complete with feathered headdress and buckskins, unveiled a 1955 Star Chief 4-door sedan which will be given away Nov. 20 by the Retail Merchants Assn. The car will be on display on the courthouse lawn until that date.

Assisting in the unveiling were 25 members of Boy Scout Troop 244, sponsored by Grace Lutheran Church. Four senior patrol leaders who uncovered the auto were Duke Cummings, Jerry Powers, Ray Smith and Gordon Jackson.

The scouts, also in Indian costumes, then performed a war dance around the car while the band under the direction of Dale Harris played the Pontiac Fight Song.

UF Goal Topped at Pontiac Motor

90 Per Cent of Division Employees Contribute to Campaign

The United Fund drive at Pontiac Motor Division ended last night with preliminary reports indicating the employees had exceeded their goal of $118,361.08 this year. Over 90 per cent of all employees contributed.

The progress of each department, kept posted in the plants where employees could determine the percentage of participation at a glance did much to promote a spirit of competition between different departments and shifts.

Davidson Caterers, which services the Pontiac Motor caterers also turned in a fine record with its 165 employees contributing $1536.65. About 95 per cent of the Davidson employees participated in the drive. W. L. Davidson, owner, gave $150.

Predicting victory Nov. 2, the campaign said, "I've talked to miners, farmers, laborers, businessmen and persons representing all other groups throughout the state."

"I know there's a demand for a new face in Lansing and we're going to have that change."

He stressed the importance to Republicans of bringing out every possible vote in strong GOP county.

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

Charges of irresponsibility in office and distortion of facts were hurled against Michigan's Democratic Governor G. Mennen Williams here yesterday by Republican gubernatorial candidate Donald S. Leonard.

Leonard addressed a GOP rally in the Elks Temple at 1:30 p.m., following a meeting with President Eisenhower in Detroit.

"I feel confident of a resounding Republican victory next Tuesday," he stated.

Leonard termed as "crucial" the election of a Republican governor to work with a GOP legislature and also called for continued Republican control of the U. S. Congress to implement Eisenhower's program.

"The Governor knows he can propose any sort of a give-away program," said Leonard.

This is possible, he asserted, because Williams knows any irresponsible program he proposes will be studied and ruled out by Republican legislators.

Williams is not responsible to the Legislature and can blame them for the resulting stalemate, Leonard declared.

"But if the people send a Republican governor to Lansing he must have responsibility to his party majority in the Legislature and work in harmony with them. He can't pass the buck to the other branch."

Predicting victory Nov. 2, the campaign said, "I've talked to miners, farmers, laborers, businessmen and persons representing all other groups throughout the state."

Plans Pyramid Telephone Calls to Swing Victory

Ike Happy Over Detroit Welcome Yesterday as Sun Decides to Shine

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, happy over his get-out-the-vote tour of four states, was reported ready today to try personally to set off a nationwide "telephone your neighbors" campaign to win votes for Republican congressional candidates.

A Republican official said that starting at 11:35 a.m. EST Eisenhower will start telephoning 10 "plain ordinary" persons around the country.

The President will ask each to vote and to phone the same request to 10 others, he said, to touch off a "pyramid system" aimed at reaching every citizen who might go to the polls next Tuesday.

The GOP informant declined the use of his name. He was not a member of the President's staff, but it was known the idea of chain phone calls in a drive to turn out a big pro-GOP vote was "getting serious study at the White House."

Eisenhower tried out the idea on an audience at Wilmington, Del., last night at the conclusion of his swift aerial tour into Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Delaware.

He said in advance of the 1,400-mile trip that he was making it to try to dispel what he termed puzzling voter apathy. But he told a police-estimated crowd of 4,000 at the Wilmington Airport that he had been pleasantly surprised—that instead of apathy all along the way he had "encountered enthusiasm, belief and confidence" that the Republicans will win continued control of Congress.

"If everybody votes, we're in," Eisenhower declared, touching off a round of cheers.

Then, dealing with the more practical problem of persuading citizens to go to the polls, the President said:

"You know, if everybody in this audience would go home this evening and start calling up—would call up 10 voters and ask them to call 10 voters, you cover the state of Delaware with every man, woman and child in it in about two hours."

"You would reach millions in that time. That is what we want."

Presidential associates said later the chief executive had made no (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

The Day in Birmingham

Predict Heavy Vote Tuesday for City, Bloomfield District

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—Cautious predictions of a fairly heavy vote next Tuesday are being offered in Birmingham, Bloomfield Township and Bloomfield Hills.

Local City Clerk Irene Hanley said 300 absentee ballots already issued here are a good indication of the citizenry's interest in the current election. An increased registration figure since the August primary shows a possible vote of 12,600.

This same situation holds true in Bloomfield Township, where absentee voting applications have been given to 136 of the 4,500 registered voters, according to Mrs. Ann Birrell, deputy clerk.

Bloomfield Hills City Clerk Robert Stadler also predicts a heavy turnout of the 1,145 voters who are registered.

Of six proposals to be voted on in Birmingham, only one is a local issue, on the proposed sale of lots 505-513 in Sheffield Estates Subdivision No. 1. The city-owned lots are located on the north side of Lincoln avenue near Elton road.

Surrounded on three sides by industrial property, the logical use for the lots is for industrial purposes, the city believes. Rather than hold the land the city proposes to sell it, using the tax income derived from the sale for park improvements. A buffer area would be planted for the protection of nearby residents.

Birmingham can claim two of the candidates running for state office, with Philip A. Hart, 577 Westwood Dr., running for lieutenant governor; and Richard C. Van Dusen, 1723 Pine St., candidate for state representative in the third district.

Two other Birmingham men seeking county office are Ralph A. Main, 1519 Fairview Dr., running for re-election as drain commissioner; and Robert L. O'Connell, 1587 Henrietta, competing for the job of prosecuting attorney.

Reformation Sunday will be marked here tomorrow with the sixth annual observance sponsored by the local Council of Churches. Guest speaker at the 8 p.m. service at the First Methodist Church will be the Rev. Frank D. Stutz, noted lecturer and writer of Dayton, Ohio.

A Christian layman and a lay preacher of the Methodist church, Dr. Stutz will speak on "The Best News in the World." The former school principal has also authored several books.

Dr. Harry G. Martin, president of the church council, will preside over the observance, with Rodney M. Peterson, minister of music at the First Methodist Church, in charge of their music.

The service will be opened by Dr. Martin and closed by the Rev. William C. Norvell, one of the ministers at Christ Church Cranbrook. Along with cooperating churches, the public is welcome.

Holding a speedy meeting this week, Recreation Board members passed a motion asking the City Commission to build a shelter house at Elton Park, and complete a softball diamond for Little League play. These are at the top of the board's list of projected park improvements.

It was also decided to purchase a new diving board for the Barron school swimming pool, since the board is granted the use of the pool all summer and on Saturdays during the winter months by the Board of Education, as part of the city recreation program.

Holding its first service at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow will be the newly-established Presbyterian Church here. Since the church building itself is not yet a reality, the Rev. MacKay Taylor and his wife will begin holding services, complete with church and nursery school, at their home at 2583 Windemere, on the corner of St. Andrews.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor was brought here by the Detroit Presbytery. He invites all those interested to attend the service or send their children to the church school.

Idle, spur-of-the-moment suggestion.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat said in a Washington dispatch that, in addition to 10 calls by Eisenhower today, party leaders expect the 33 Republican governors will start a similar telephone campaign in their states.

Eisenhower, his hat in his hand and a smile on his face, never appears to be too busy to greet someone—and worry secret service agents in the process.

He left Detroit's City Hall yesterday after speaking to a crowd of 50,000 and caused a quick shuffling of a dozen secret service agents who were following him around.

A double line of Detroit Police snapped to attention, forming an honor guard that would see him out of the building. Silence prevailed until a song filled the air.

Three Republican women were singing "When the Cannon Goes Rolling Along"—with lyrics to fit Eisenhower.

Suddenly Ike stopped. He jerked toward them, shook hands and said "God bless you," while the secret service agents stopped short, shoving around him.

Later, when he stepped to the ramp to board the presidential plane to leave, another stir took place.

Five-year-old Michele (Mimi) Cashman, the daughter of a Detroit Air Force captain, pushed away the agents.

He looked up and stepped her way. "Here is a bouquet of fresh flowers I picked from our yard for you to take home, Mr. President," she said.

"I'll take these home to my Mamie."

And the weather-almost like magic—paved a bright path for the President.

From the moment the presidential plane touched the ground, a drizzling rain stopped and the sun broke through. A light sprinkle started again as the motorcade neared Wayne Airport where his plane was waiting to leave.

Claims Gov. Williams Has Distorted Facts

ties to overcome the Democratic majority in Wayne County.

"The only thing I'm disgusted about in this campaign is that the Democrats were allowed to assume the initiative and point out phony issues to cover 20 years of fumbling."

He warned the group that if a Republican majority was not returned to the U. S. Congress both the President and foreign powers would consider it a repudiation of Eisenhower's program.

"It could mean the difference between peace with prosperity and World War III."

Speaking of unemployment, Leonard charged that Williams knows the jobless rate was higher prior to World War II and under Truman than it is now.

In 1938 there were nearly 12,000,000 unemployed under the Democrats, he stated, "but they're now trying to create an unemployment issue."

Citizens understand that the present situation results from the war to peace changeover and they're thankful bloodletting in Korea has stopped, he asserted.

Williams has said around the state that I advised Michiganders to tighten their belts, but I simply stated that people realize what is necessary in establishing peacetime prosperity."

He termed 1954 as the "most prosperous peacetime year" and said "Michigan farmers are aware of this. They want to farm competitively, not have their acreage controlled."

The GOP is not anti-labor as Democrats claim, Leonard declared, and said all the state's progressive labor legislation has been passed by Republican legislatures.

The candidate asserted that injured workmen had hundreds of legitimate claims pending with the Workmen's Compensation Commission and this administration passed the St. Lawrence Seaway Act.

The health of the people has engaged the attention of the Congress and the administration. Great new hospitals are being built to fill the requirements of our big cities and our rural population alike.

By every measure, by every index, this is by far the best peacetime year of our whole history, and I am quite sure that Americans don't want to pay for any pseudo or false prosperity in the blood of their sons and brothers on the battlefield.

The great employers of this city have reported to me that they are calling back men to work every day, and on Oct. 15, in this city alone, 60,000 more people were working than on Sept. 15.

Teachers Study Social Security

Three Retirement Plans Considered at Meeting of Pontiac Group

To be or not to be under social security was the question posed Thursday night before 150 members of the Pontiac Education Association.

Conceding that the present Michigan Teacher Retirement Fund is not completely equitable, local teachers heard experts discuss their retirement future under (1) social security, (2) teacher retirement fund, and (3) social security combined, 3) present system.

Panel members included Gus Christie, director, Detroit School Retirement System; Don O'Hara, director Michigan State Employees Retirement System; Rex A. C. Attwood, district manager, Social Security Administration; Russell J. Buller, assistant librarian, Pontiac Senior High School; Dick Adams, field representative, Michigan Education Assn.; C. A. Gordon, vice-president, PEA and moderator for the group.

Michigan teachers now receive on the average of $55 per month when they retire. Across the nation other states are paying from a minimum of $74 to a maximum of $203 (Massachusetts, they were told).

Delaware, Iowa, Oregon, Wyoming and other states have adopted the well-known Virginia Plan. This is a combination of social security and a state retirement plan.

In this state, said panel members, it would be necessary to pass enabling legislation before this "package plan" would be possible.

Benefits to be derived for teachers under social security, they said, included low individual contributions; reciprocity factor and survivor benefits not possible under the present retirement system.

Henry Eling, president of PEA, presided at the meeting.

Youth Sentenced for Stripping Cars

Gerald Stamp, 18, of 1335 Holland Ave., Birmingham, pleaded guilty to a simple larceny charge when he appeared before Keego Harbor justice Elmer Dietertle yesterday. He was fined $25 and sentenced to 5 days in Oakland County jail.

Stamp was one of three youths apprehended Thursday by Police Chief Clark Green for investigation of siphoning gas and stripping cars at the Grand Trunk Railroad parking lot near Charing Cross road.

Another boy, Gerald Walsh, 17, of Royal Oak, was turned over to Royal Oak police after he admitted stealing a jacket from a Royal Oak school, according to Green. The jacket was found in the boys' car.

Released was James Wright, 18, also of Royal Oak.

Nondenominational School Is Planned

By Religious News Service
MIAMI, Fla. — A non-denominational Christian elementary school will open here next fall. Trustees for the Miami Christian School were elected at a meeting here and officers were instructed to complete negotiations for a six-acre building site.

Lutherans operate two elementary schools here and there are 16 Roman Catholic parochial schools, but this will be the only non-denominational Christian school in the area.

Frank Esty, an insurance salesman and president of the local Gideon organization, is temporary president of the group of parents who are backing the school.

Everyday Religion

Barbershop Benevolence
By DON D. TULLIS

People who are interested in everyday religion as well as the Sunday-go-to-meeting type, appreciate the many striking examples of practical service to those in need offered by various groups outside the bounds of organized religion.

The New Hampshire Association of Journeymen Barbers of the American Federation of Labor has set up a "UNION BARBERS' DAY FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN." Each member is pledged to give one day's wages, including tips, to aid these unfortunate youngsters.

If Peter, James and John were here today I believe they would sacrifice their long locks and get themselves "crew-cuts" in order to have a part in this splendid project. Even Elijah and Elisha might join the march to some near-by tonsorial parlor. Surely the Master would pause at the shop door to say "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these, ye did it unto Me."

If each citizen would donate one day's income; if Hollywood would give one half of its divorce court costs; if everyone would pledge a like amount of what they spend for gambling and guzzling, for the education, housing, health, happiness and moral uplift of less fortunate folks, it would not mean a new heaven, but it would be a long step towards a new earth.

Excellent as is this special day for crippled children, barbers as well as others, give other days to charity, for which there is no publicity. After all, charity is a full time task.

But our gifts are meager compared with God's gifts to us. He gives not one, but everyday to our care and keeping. If He limited the earth's nurture of seeds to one day, we would all starve. If He provided oxygen for one day only, we would stop breathing. If He stoked the sun but once a year we would freeze in a ball of ice.

And these gifts through Nature are surpassed by His gifts through grace. Man's longing to see beyond the skyline, his yearning for the unknown, his wishing to do God's will, his capacity for friendship and his love of the beautiful, these are but a few of God's charities, without which man would be companion to the beasts.

We give one day, two days, three days mayhap for "His sweet sake, and charity" but He gives everyday, all day, and for good measure throws in ETERNITY.

St. Louis School Is Microfilming Vatican Papers

By Religious News Service

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — About 100,000,000 pages of books and documents in the Vatican library already have been copied on microfilm for preservation at the University of St. Louis, the Rev. Joseph Donnelly, S.J., the university's director of libraries, said here.

He predicted that the entire project, which calls for duplication of more than 600,000 manuscripts, would be completed next year. The university plans to build a new Pope Pius XII Memorial Library to house the collection.

Father Donnelly said the project had "done more for scholarship in America than any other single thing."

Permission to duplicate the aged and valuable documents was given by Pope Pius XII, who commented that only Americans had time to pursue scholarship on a large scale.

Some of the papers in the collection date back to 5,000 B.C. They deal with "just about everything outside the Church," said Father Donnelly, including law, medicine, astronomy, literature and physics.

Following the talk, Rabbi Kieval will answer questions raised by the audience. Chairman of the Institute and of the evening is Morris Kampner.

Martin Luther Sermon Subject

Reformation Day Will Be Observed in Pontiac Churches Tomorrow

Four hundred and thirty seven years ago on October 31, 1517, Martin Luther posted on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenburg, Germany, 95 arguments against indulgences and for a right understanding of repentance.

What Luther proposed as a theological debate became a turning point in history. In commemoration of the event Protestant churches in more than 350 countries across the nation are planning interdenominational observances on Reformation Sunday tomorrow.

Three Pontiac churches are observing Reformation Day with special sermons Sunday.

At the morning service at St. Trinity Lutheran Church on Auburn Ave., the Rev. Ralph C. Claus will use as his sermon topic, "Ye Are Purged from Dead Works to Serve the Living God."

"Here I Stand," will be the subject of the message given by the Rev. George J. Mahder at the St. Paul Lutheran Church on Joslyn Ave. at 4th St.

The Rev. Otto G. Schuitz of Grace Lutheran Church on Genesee St. will preach on "Martin Luther" at the 9 a. m. service and "The Reformation" at 11 a. m.

The National Council of Churches is the national sponsor of the day.

Jet Crash Kills Three of Crew

Six-Engine Stratofort Goes Out of Control After Kansas Takeoff

OLATHE, Kan. (AP) — An Air Force jet reconnaissance plane crashed in a flaming power dive about eight miles southwest of here last night, killing three of the four crewmen.

The pilot parachuted but suffered fractures of the left shoulder and right arm.

The names of the victims were withheld until next of kin could be notified.

The plane, a six-engine RB47E reconnaissance version of the B-27 jet bomber, had taken off from Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, Kan., where it was stationed, just 25 minutes before the crash.

A witness, Dr. Jack Klueger of Baldwin, Kan., said the burning craft went into a vertical dive at 1,000 to 2,000 feet and plunged straight into the ground.

It blasted a hole 40 feet deep.

Lt. Allen Oppgaard, air information services officer at the Olathe Naval Air Station, said the pilot told medical personnel from the base that the plane went out of control at about 10,000 feet but that he did not know why.

Masked Woman Attempts Stickup of Toledo Bank

2 Killed as Panicky Rider Attacks Pilot

LARKSPUR, Colo. (AP) — Two Oklahoma City women were killed in a swirling nighttime snowstorm when one of them panicked and pulled the pilot of their light plane away from the controls.

Killed in the crash southeast of here were Mrs. Allie Dixon, a receptionist for Stephens Petroleum Co. in Oklahoma City, and Miss Juanita Johnson, a saleswoman for an Oklahoma office supply firm. Both were about 35 years old.

John P. Lippott, 36, of Denver, pilot of the plane, was hospitalized in Denver with a broken collar bone and possible leg fracture.

Mrs. Dixon became hysterical, he said.

"I told her to sit down and fasten her safety belt. She wouldn't, and suddenly grabbed me around the neck and pulled my head back," Lippott said the plane went into a spin. He freed himself in time only to level it out before they skidded across a clearing into a clump of trees.

$11 Million in Sales Tax to Be Mailed to Counties

LANSING (AP) — Checks totaling $11,023,375 will be mailed to county treasurers today for distribution of sales tax diversion money to cities, townships and villages.

French Villagers

BANDOL, France (AP) — Actor Marlon Brando's engagement to the stepdaughter of a local fisherman has caused more excitement in this seaside village than anything that's happened since the war. But everyone is vague about the happy couple's plans — especially the wedding.

Brando and his fiancée, Josane Marini-Berger, are ending today what French newspapers are calling their "idyllic on the Riviera." They are leaving town, her mother reported. She refused to say where they are going.

Josane told a reporter last night "there is no hurry" about the wedding. She said it would not take place until Brando completed work on two pictures in England.

The 19-year-old bride-to-be is a painter's model and beauty contestant. She and the actor met in New York where she was working as a French teacher for the children of an American doctor.

Brando has been a much sought-after bachelor since his stage and screen successes.
