Plane Down With Nuclear Bombs Aboard

Crash in Mountains Kills U. S. Crew of 5; No Explosion Danger

CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP) —A huge jet bomber of the Strategic Air Command carrying two unarmed nuclear weapons and a crew of five aboard crashed and burned in the Appalachian Mountains today.

"There is no danger of nuclear explosion," said Air Force officials, adding that explosive experts were en route to the scene.

The eight-engine B52 fell to earth in a blinding snowstorm at the foot of Big Savage Mountain in Western Maryland, about 20 miles west of Cumberland.

It was en route from Westover Air Force Base, Mass., to its home station at Turner Air Force Base, Ga.

★ ★ ★

"In the interest of public safety, national security, and to facilitate the removal operations, visitors are asked to stay from the area," said the Air Force announcement from Westover.

NO EVACUATION

"There is no need of evacuation."

The Air Force explained that an unarmed nuclear weapon contains nuclear material but cannot explode until a crewman takes action to activate it.

State troopers immediately pulled back upon reaching the scene and put up a security ring with a 1,500-foot radius around the area of the wreckage.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force said three teams of experienced explosive ordnance disposal teams were dispatched from Westover, Turner and Andrew Air Force Base, Md., but said this was routine.

TOOK FIVE HOURS

It took the troopers from Cumberland five hours to reach the rugged, isolated area at the foot of the 2,788-foot mountain which runs north and south.

There was 15 inches of snow on the ground and it was still snowing.

★ ★ ★

Air Force investigators were en route to the crash scene from both Massachusetts and Georgia bases. State police said they would maintain their security guard until the Air Force could take over.

Panama, U.S. Okay Peace Unit

PANAMA CITY (AP) — The United States and Panama agreed today to the creation of a joint authority in cooperation with the Organization of American States to keep peace on the Canal Zone border.

This was announced by Ambassador Manuel Trucco of Chile, who will be chairman of the authority. He is a member of the five-man OAS peace mission to Panama.

There were these additional signs that calm was returning to the Canal Zone area, and tension was lessening between the United States and Panama:

● U. S. personnel returned to the embassy building in downtown Panama.

★ ★ ★

● Official sources said Gen. Andrew O. O'Meara, commander of U. S. forces in the Canal Zone, would hand back control of the Zone during the day to

House Burns; Area Family Left Homeless

A young Waterford Township couple and their three small children were left homeless yesterday when their single-story frame house was destroyed by fire.

Routed from their house at 2881 Rowan by the 2:40 p.m. blaze were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Canning and the children.

The $10,000 house was termed a total loss by firemen. Additional damage of $4,500 to contents was estimated.

★ ★ ★

Firemen said the blaze started when drapes at the living room picture window ignited.

HEAT FROM DRAPES

Heat from the drapes broke the window and a strong east wind quickly spread the fire throughout the house, firemen said.

An investigation on how the drapes caught fire is being conducted.

The Canning family took refuge in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Voorheis next door at 2961 Rowan.

Several neighbors brought clothing to the Cannings and others indicated a willingness to financially aid the distressed family.

Heavy Smoke Fills Building

Residents Gain Safety Going Down Ladders

By JIM LONG

A fire in a Pontiac apartment house killed one man and routed 100 other tenants into subfreezing weather early this morning.

It was one of three major fires in the area since Saturday.

The blaze at the Parkside Apartment, 101 Mechanic, today proved fatal to Russell Nacarato, 51, who was overcome by smoke in his third floor apartment.

★ ★ ★

Some 40 occupants of the 35-year-old building were rescued by Pontiac firemen using ladders to reach the top floors of the three story, 49 unit dwelling. Others were led out.

The four - alarm blaze brought most of Pontiac firefighting equipment to the scene, three ladder trucks, six engines and one rescue vehicle.

The Birmingham Fire Department, responding under a mutual aid pact, sent one piece of equipment to Pontiac to standby. They were called into duty on a resuscitator run.

★ ★

Sixty Pontiac firemen battled the apartment fire, according to Chief James R. White, who also called in 10 additional off duty firefighters to man the Central fire station on East Pike.

NEAR FIRE HALL

The Parkside Apartment is about three blocks from the central fire hall and just west of Douglas.

Chief White set a preliminary estimate on the damage to the apartment building at $50,000 but was not immediately able to determine the loss to the six apartment units ravaged by the fire.

The burned apartments were those on the three floors directly above where the fire is believed to have started in the BLAZE VICTIMS—Unidentified tenants of the Parkside Apartment, 101 Mechanic, flee with some of their belongings this morning as fire and smoke filled the 49-unit building. One occupant, Russell B. Nacarato, 51, died of asphyxiation. The fire was reported shortly before 3 a.m.

Factory Hopes Hurt as Building Burns

Hopes for a new industry in Pontiac were dimmed slightly when a fire Saturday ravaged the vacant factory which once housed the American Forging and Socket Co.

Bruce Annett, president of the Bruce-Roy Corp., which now owns the property on Branch Street, said he was negotiating with a Detroit manufacturing firm to buy the 117,000 square foot building.

Annett said that the fire ruined 40,000-50,000 square feet in the center of the main manufacturing area.

Purchased last spring by Annett, the property has been offered for sale for $230,000.

"The Detroit firm was deeply interested," said Annett. "I had an appointment with officials at 10 a.m. Sunday (twelve hours after the fire)."

"They were upset," said Annett. "They figured it for an ideal plant."

Annett, who did not reveal the name of the Detroit firm, said the company, however, had outgrown its present facilities and needed more space.

"It would mean a boost to Pontiac's economy since about 200 workers would be employed," said Annett.

"I don't know what I will do," said Annett. "The future will depend on the insurance adjustment."

Reported at 9:18 p.m., the fire was brought under control in an hour, but firemen did not leave the scene until 3:30 to make sure there were no flare-ups in the debris.

NO ESTIMATE

Neither the fire department nor Annett could estimate the damage.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Annett said he believed that vagrants probably entered the building and started a fire to get warm and it got out of control.

The building has been forcibly entered in the past, according to Annett.

Located on five acres near Houston Street, the one-story factory building did not contain any manufacturing equipment, Annett said.

Two other buildings on the property, an office and a warehouse, each containing 6,400 square feet were not touched by the fire, which collapsed a section of the roof of the main factory.

FLAMES' HAVOC—Charred steel skeletons indicate the intense heat when fire gutted a portion of this factory, once the plant of the American Forge and Socket Co., Saturday night. The building, vacant for about two years is now owned by Bruce-Roy Corp., headed by Bruce Annett. The building was under consideration by a Detroit manufacturing firm planning to relocate.

Would Alter Way to Elect Commission

Opponents Pass Out Handbill Blast at Jaycees, Proposal

Pontiac voters began casting ballots at 7 a. m. today in a special election to decide the fate of a proposed charter amendment.

By 1 p.m., precinct reports indicated the voter turnout might be better than expected throughout the city.

City Clerk Olga Barkeley said the total vote would "probably run higher than 5,000, which was the preelection estimate."

The amendment, sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, proposed that city commissioners be nominated by voters of their own districts, but elected by voters throughout the city —all electors voting for one candidate per district.

Presently, they are both nominated and elected by individual district vote alone.

★ ★ ★

A last-minute handbill opposing the proposed charter amendment was distributed in Districts 1, 4, 5, 6 and 7 yesterday.

SLAMS JAYCEES

It charged that the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce was "the scapegoat to push this foolish attempt to steal your voting right to nominate and elect your own city commissioners."

Jaycee officials termed the handbill "a last desperate effort to divide and confuse the voter . . . by setting class against class; the east side against the west."

Jaycees claimed the charges were made "without regard to fact or truth" and were timed so proponents had no chance to reply.

★ ★ ★

A spot check of all seven districts began to indicate an average to heavy turnout by noon.

SOME LINE UP

"We had people standing in line at times this morning," said one official.

★ ★ ★

Most precincts expected more activity late this afternoon, however weather was expected to be a major factor in the final vote total.

★ ★ ★

While the first half of the day was rather mild, the U.S. Weather Bureau predicted wind and snow for this evening.

PETITION REQUESTS

Today's election was requested by petitions circulated last summer during hearings which eventually resulted in the firing of former City Manager Robert A. Stierer.

Some 11,500 persons signed the petitions, about double the number needed to force the election.

A majority of the City Commission has gone on record opposing the proposed change.

★ ★

Professional experts in municipal finance and management have favored it.

Cigarettes Decline; Cigars Up on Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Cigarette company stocks declined and cigar issues advanced in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

The tobacco stocks reacted to the U. S. Public Health report linking smoking and disease.

Cigarette issues were down sharply at the start but cut their losses considerably.

The cigar stocks made sizable gains at the opening and kept them. The government report ascribed only mild effects on health to cigar and pipe smoking.

Liggett & Myers, down nearly 3 in early trading, cut its loss to a bit more than a point. Reynolds Tobacco erased an early 1-point decline, although it sold on blocks of 6,000 and 10,000 shares, at 41, a loss of 1½. Philip Morris halved a 1-point loss.

★ ★ ★

American Tobacco, which opened fractionally lower on a 20,000 - share block, almost erased its loss. U. S. Tobacco also trimmed an early fractional loss. Lorillard canceled a point of an early decline exceeding a point.

CIGARS GAIN

Meanwhile, General Cigar held a gain of more than 2. D. W. G. Cigar was about 2 points higher and Consolidated Cigar was up more than a point.

★ ★ ★

The surgeon general's report, issued Saturday, indicated that cigars were not as harmful as cigarettes.

Race Label Illegal on Election Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today struck down as unconstitutional a Louisiana law requiring that the race of political candidates be listed on ballots in all state elections.

The decision was given on an appeal by two Negroes who were unsuccessful candidates for nomination as school board members of East Baton Rouge Parish in a Democratic primary election.

The Supreme Court decision declared that "by placing a racial label on a candidate at the most crucial stage in the electoral process — the instant before the vote is cast — the state furnishes a vehicle by which racial prejudice may be so aroused as to operate against one group because of race and for another."

Castro Greeted by K at Moscow Airport

MOSCOW (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro arrived today on a visit to Soviet Premier Khrushchev with more Soviet economic aid for Cuba presumably his aim.

★ ★ ★

The Cuban leader may have trouble getting an increase in help. Khrushchev is spending hundreds of millions of dollars to buy wheat from Canada, Australia and the United States, and he has embarked on a massive expansion of the Soviet chemical industry.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev gave Castro the same red carpet welcome he gave the Cuban last April, when Castro visited the Soviet Union for five weeks. The Soviet premier was at the airport along with other Soviet officials and the diplomatic corps — minus U.S. Embassy representatives. There was a 21-gun salute.

Castro said his visit would be considerably shorter than his stay last year because he had to return to Cuba for the sugar harvest now under way.

His visit took the Western diplomatic colony and the State Department in Washington by surprise.

With the temperature at 23 degrees, Khrushchev wore a heavy, fur-collared coat and black fur hat to the airport, but Castro was dressed in his usual olive-green fatigue uniform and beret.

★ ★ ★

The welcoming speeches gave no hint of the real purpose of the visit. A communique said Khrushchev had invited Castro "to exchange opinions on questions of interest to both sides and also to rest, to become acquainted with the winter landscape and to hunt in the snow-clad forests of the Soviet Union."

A Cuban economic delegation has been in Moscow for 11 days, reportedly asking for a big increase in aid. It seemed likely that Castro came to add his pleas to the delegation's.

PARTLY TO BLAME

It also appeared likely that Khrushchev and Castro would join in a denunciation of U.S. policy in Panama. U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Sunday that Castro is partly to blame for the rioting along the border of the Panama Canal Zone.

Khrushchev greeted his guest as "the head of the Cuban nation, the first in America to choose the socialist road." He said the Cuban revolution was "an example for all Latin America."

★ ★ ★

The Soviet premier said in the five years since the victory of Castro's revolution, "imperialists have been forced to recognize the great power of the Marxist ideas that have triumphed in Cuba."

Then, in a clear reference to the United States, he said: "No attempt of Cuba's enemies, no economic blockade of the imperialists, can block the grand march of the great Cuban people."

CASTRO'S REPLY

Castro in reply praised Soviet help to mechanize Cuban agriculture. He expressed confidence that Soviet engineers would soon solve the problems of complete mechanization of the cutting and processing of sugar cane.

Moscow radio and Pravda, the only Moscow newspaper published this morning, joined in the welcome. Pravda's entire front page was devoted to Castro.

CUBAN GUEST—Premier Nikita Khrushchev of Russia welcomes an old friend to Moscow—Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba. They're shown at Vnukova Airport with a Soviet honor guard. Castro's surprise visit is presumably to seek more Russian aid to Cuba.

Exec Claims Baker Payoff

'Paid $5,600 to Get a Vending Contract'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Washington businessman swore today that former Senate aide Robert G. Baker demanded and received $5,600 in cash—mostly in bills of small denomination—after helping him obtain a vending machine contract in a defense plant.

Ralph L. Hill, former president of the Capitol Vending Co., Inc., told the Senate Rules Committee Baker had demanded $1,000 a month payments from him, but settled first for $250 a month and later for $650 a month.

The committee is investigating whether Baker, former secretary to the Senate Democratic majority, or other Senate employes engaged in outside business which conflicted with their official duties or committed any other improper acts.

★ ★ ★

Hill testified that the payments were made to Baker and recorded in Capitol Vending's books of business expenses under such headings as "promotion" and "consultant."

TRYING TO PROTECT

"I was trying to protect Mr. Baker," Hill explained. "I also was trying to protect our company."

★ ★ ★

Hill said Baker once told him that another firm was offering to pay him $1,000 a month for the contract, but wanted to pay the money by checks made out to Baker's law firm.

★ ★ ★

The witness quoted Baker as shying away from payment by check.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Snow showers are expected tonight in New England, the eastern Lakes area and the northern Rockies while the north Pacific Coast will have rain. It will be colder east of the Mississippi; warmer from the Mississippi to the Rockies.

Hundreds Stranded

Winter's Worst Blizzard Covers East

CHICAGO (AP)—A massive blizzard, described by the U. S. Weather Bureau as the winter's worst, drowned the eastern United States today in a sea of drifting snow.

Numerous highways were blocked, hundreds of motorists stranded and communities isolated as gale-force winds piled the snow into drifts as much as 10 feet deep.

From two to five inches of snow has fallen on greater New York and up to six inches were expected before the storm blows out to sea this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington issued a heavy snow warning for New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and all but the northern part of New England.

ONSHORE WINDS

The warning bulletin said strong onshore winds were expected to cause tides up to five feet above normal with consequent lowland flooding along the Atlantic Coast from the Virginia cape to southern New England.

Western Pennsylvania received from 5 to 10 inches of snow which began falling yesterday afternoon and was still coming down Monday morning.

Pittsburgh was hit by a 5-inch snowfall and road crews in the area were hard pressed to keep highways open. Operations at greater Pittsburgh airport were halted briefly due to poor visibility.

★ ★ ★

Huge snow drifts were reported in central Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The drifts were the work of winds up to 50 m.p.h.

RUN RISK

The weather bureau urged motorists in the Midwest and East to stay off the highways in storm areas or run the risk of becoming snowbound in near-zero weather.

That fate already has befallen hundreds of motorists.

In Illinois, some 500 motorists became overnight guests of the 1,200 citizens of Neoga, a farm community which opened up the stranded travelers.

★ ★ ★

In Indiana and Ohio, other hundreds of motorists abandoned autos on snow-clogged highways and sought shelter at service stations, road house and farms.

See Story, Page 21

Springfield, capital of Illinois, was virtually isolated with only one main highway into the city open. A few miles south of Springfield 25 Boy Scouts on a weekend camping trip awaited rescue at their snowbound campsite.

SCHOOLS CLOSE

Schools were closed in the suburbs of Washington, D.C. In the nation's capital stringent snow plans which forbid motorists to block traffic or park on main streets being plowed were put into effect.

Hundreds of schools in the Midwest, Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania were closed.

Snow plows were laboring to reopen communication with several rural towns in Illinois which have been cut off for hours by the raging blizzard.

The gigantic storm system—which began as two separate storms, one from the Midwest moving east and the other moving northeast along the Atlantic states — generated high tides and gale force winds along the Atlantic coastal regions.

INTO THE SOUTH

The snow and ice dipped into the South with light snow and freezing rain reported in Tennessee, North Carolina, Alabama and Georgia.

A 6-inch snow fall forecast for Baltimore forced cancellation of the Monday horse racing program at Charles Town track.

West of the Mississippi, clear skies and cold temperatures were the rule. Below zero temperatures prevailed over much of the northern and central Plains states and the western interior.

Fishermen Rescued as Lake Ice Drifts

DETROIT (AP) — Naval flyers and Coast Guardsmen rescued 25 fishermen from drifting Lake Erie floes yesterday in two separate efforts.

Helicopters from the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station plucked 11 men from ice floes a half-mile off the Canadian shores between Pt. Pelee and Leamington, Ont.

In addition, the helicopter crews removed the body of a man who apparently had died of a heart attack. He was identified as John Gruenberg, 79, of Dearborn.

All of this group, except for one Canadian, were from the Detroit area.

Off the Ohio shore west of Toledo, ice skiffs of the Marblehead Coast Guard Station and Port Clinton and Catawba firemen saved another 14 fishermen from drifting ice west of Catawba Island.

The fishermen off Leamington had gone out for perch on Pigeon Bay and were trapped when the ice cracked.

OTHERS LEFT

Another 200 fishermen were reported to have left the ice earlier. A sound truck had patrolled the area, warning the men to leave.

Constable Ian MacInnes of Leamington asked the Naval Station for help when he saw the ice starting to crack.

One of the rescued fishermen, Robert H. Karla, 25, of Detroit, said wind-driven snow hid most of the men from his sight.

★ ★ ★

"We didn't see anyone outside our own little group," Karla said. "That wind was blowing so hard we thought we'd be in Ohio before we got rescued."

William Willuwbit, 43, of Mount Clemens, said he saw Gruenberg collapse on the ice. Gruenberg's body was taken to the Air station.

Family Dead in Plane Crash

CHEBOYGAN (AP) — A recovery party plowed through snow in a northern Michigan forest today and retrieved the bodies of six members of a Chicago area family killed when their plane crashed on a skiing trip.

Ground crews, using a bulldozer, pushed to the wreckage site more than six miles in the forest some 30 miles from the top of Michigan's Lower Peninsula.

★ ★ ★

A civilian observer in a state police plane had spotted the wreckage in a dense stand of trees shortly before dusk Sunday.

Authorities identified the victims as H. J. Cummings, 36, River Forest, Ill., insurance broker, his wife, Patricia, 32, and four of their six children, Kathy, 11, Michael, 10, Susan, 9, and Mary, 6.

SKI WEEKEND

Cummings, who piloted and owned the Cessna 205, was last heard from Friday evening when he radioed he couldn't find a landing strip. The family was bound for a weekend of skiing at Boyne Mountain Lodge, a winter resort.

The Cummings apparently died as a result of the crash, which ripped the plane into five sections, and not from exposure to temperatures ranging down to 12 below zero, a coroner's findings indicated.

Safe Broken Into in Birmingham

Birmingham police are investigating a safe breaking at the A and A Asphalt Co., 1045 Haynes.

★ ★ ★

About $100 and two men's wrist watches were stolen from a floor safe, the door of which had been ripped off, according to police.

They said entry to the building was gained sometime after 4:30 p.m. yesterday by prying the front door open.

Chinese Back Panama

TOKYO (AP) — More than 100,000 people in Peking staged demonstrations today in support of Panama in its crisis with the United States, the New China News Agency said.

County Dems Back Staebler

Prominent Members Announce Support

Evidence of strong support for Neil Staebler among Oakland County Democrats came today with announcement of support for Staebler for governor by a group of 155 prominent party members.

Among the 155 were two former Democratic county chairmen — Carlos Richardson and James Ginn — White Lake Township Supervisor Edward Cheyz, Waterford Township Treasurer Mrs. Dorothy Olson, and four members of the Ferndale city commisson.

Also in the group were 15 members of the party's county executive committee and chairmen of 11 local Democratic clubs (Royal Oak, Oak Park, Clawson, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Berkley, Southfield, Milford, Birmingham, Commerce and Avon-Oakland).

A number of former Democratic candidates for county office and state legislative posts also were included, along with university professors, local school board members, members of the county board of supervisors and city and township officials.

ONE IS COOL

One—Robert Rosenfeld—is a member of the legal staff of the UAW, which reportedly was cool toward Staebler, the only announced candidate for governor of Michigan in 1964.

Staebler announced Jan. 4, one week after former Gov. John B. Swainson, whom the UAW was said to prefer, said he would not run.

Although most of the officers of the Oakland County Democratic party are known to be Staebler backers, none of their names were among the 155.

County Democratic Chairman Sander M. Levin said today that party officers have traditionally observed a policy of nonendorsement of candidates before a primary.

Levin said he and other officers are studying the question of formal endorsement of a candidate.

In the aftermath of that incident, Panama broke relations with the United States and demanded revision of the 61-year-old Panama Canal treaty.

The new authority will be made up of two Americans and two Panamanians in addition to the chairman.

The Americans are William Beldon, political adviser to O'Meara, and Lt. Gen. George Mabry, chief of U. S. military operations in the Canal Zone.

WAS RECALLED

Zoning Decision Near in Bloomfield Hills

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — A decision on the proposed new zoning ordinance for Bloomfield Hills is expected after Wednesday night's public hearing in the Cranbrook gymnasium.

The controversial ordinance has been 2½ years in preparation. One was turned down after a public hearing last spring.

The City Commission has been working on the present proposal since receiving it from the planning commission in August.

★ ★ ★

One major change has been made this fall. City commissioners slashed the provision for a slightly larger area designated for commercial office use, thus maintaining the present amount.

WOULD INCREASE

The proposed code would increase from three to 4½ the number of families allowed per acre in a multiple residence zone.

It also would allow three-story structures in that zone.

Minimum lot size would be altered in a few sections of the city, notably the area bounded by Lahser, Hickory Grove, Woodward and the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Wednesday night's meeting is scheduled for 8. Copies of the proposed ordinance and zoning map are available at the Municipal Building.

Bloomfield Township Supervisor Homer Case is expected to name tonight approximately 20 members to a group to study various forms of government for the township.

Case has proposed that the township adopt a charter in order to meet more efficiently the needs of a rapidly increasing population.

However, he said, the citizens' committee which he plans to present to the Township Board tonight also will study other methods of dealing with the growth problem.

★ ★ ★

Township population has reached an estimated 27,500. It was 3,851 in 1950 and 22,530 in 1960.

A blood bank cosponsored by the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce and Pilgrim Congregational Church will be held Wednesday at the Community House.

Directed by the Birmingham-Bloomfield branch of the American Red Cross, the blood bank will be open from 3 to 4:15 and 5:30 to 8:45 p.m.

"We had trouble getting some down the ladders because of their shock," said White. "And you have to move fast because some might jump."

TRIES TO ESCAPE

One woman tied two sheets together and had dangled it out the window to climb down.

But firemen got to her before she got too far, according to White.

Several persons had to be given oxygen for smoke inhalation, but other than the one fatality there were no injuries.

Nacarato, a foreman at GMC Truck & Coach, was found by firemen lying on the floor under his front room window.

WAS BREATHING

He was breathing when discovered but was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, Henrietta; a son, James in California, two brothers and six sisters. Nacarato's body is at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

"This is the worst kind of fire, when people are sleeping," said White. "It could have been more serious, since the fire had a good start when we arrived."

Fire Marshal Charles Metz was to investigate the building today to determine what caused the fire.

Jordan River Squabble

Eye Arab Unity Against Israel

CAIRO (AP) — The top leaders of the Arab world gathered in Cairo today seeking united action to block Israel's plan to divert waters of the Jordan River for irrigation of the Negev Desert.

The Arab summit meeting was preceded Sunday night by suspension of the bitter feud between the United Arab Republic and Jordan, which fell out in 1961 when Jordan recognized the Syrian regime that pulled out of the U.A.R.

★ ★ ★

Informed sources said President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R. and King Hussein of Jordan agreed to resume diplomatic relations after a two-hour conference.

★ ★ ★

Nasser called the conference ostensibly to counter Israel's threat to put its 15-year-old irrigation project into operation this summer. But some observers saw the conference as an attempt by Nasser to reassert his leadership of the Arab world.

THREATEN WAR

In the past, Arab leaders have threatened war if Israel goes ahead with the scheme. Israel, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon all draw water from the river.

Recently, Nasser's controlled press has been saying war is virtually impossible because of Israel's membership in the United Nations and certain intervention by the United States. Israeli leaders say they are not worried because their army can defeat the Arabs.

★ ★ ★

Observers said one aim of the conference would be to get the squabbling Arab nations to agree among themselves.

Hussein said in a speech on the eve of his departure for Cairo that he would take with him "the determination of the united Jordanian family to sacrifice everything for the sake of Arab unity and glory." He expressed hope the session would not only deal with the Jordan River problem but would lead to a united effort to solve the overall Palestine question.

Maj. Gen. Amin El Hafiz, the Syrian strongman who has bitterly opposed Nasser, expressed hope the conference would adopt a unanimous decision to prevent Israel from diverting the Jordan's waters.

Arab leaders have discussed various ways of preventing Israel from pressing the irrigation scheme. In addition to the threat of war, there have been threats to divert headwaters of the Jordan which lie in Arab nations. However, this would be a long and expensive process.

Soviets Make Arrest in Ax Murder Cases

MOSCOW (UPI) — A 27-year old Soviet draft dodger has been arrested and accused of the "Ivan the Ripper" ax murders of three schoolboys and two women, it was announced today.

Tass, the official Soviet News Agency, made an unusual excursion into crime news to report that Vladimir Ionesyan and his "mistress and accomplice, A. Dmitriyeva," were arrested for murders in Moscow and the town of Ivanovo.

Ionesyan also was charged with rape and assault.

★ ★ ★

The arrest of the ax killer who has been terrorizing Moscow was first reported last night by semiofficial sources.

GOOD NEWS

Passengers on Soviet buses were told the good news last night over loudspeakers: "Citizens, don't be alarmed. The murderer has been caught."

The killer's trail of murders caused Muscovites to lock and bolt their doors for many days. Rumors swept the capital, although until today not a word appeared in the official news media.

"The militia (police) found a hatchet and other material evidence bearing on the crime," Tass said.

★ ★ ★

"At the first interrogation, Ionesyan admitted committing these crimes. The investigation is continuing and soon the criminal will be arraigned before court."

WILD RUMORS

An ax murderer, nicknamed by Moscow as "Ivan Potroshitel" (Ivan the Ripper) had been terrorizing the Soviet capital for the last few weeks, and wild rumors spread that he had hacked to death from a dozen to several dozen people.

Nothing was published about the murderer in the Moscow press or broadcast over the radio or television.

★ ★

But in Moscow, word - of - mouth has been a tried and tested form of communication for decades, and by the end of last week there were few Muscovites who didn't know about "Ivan the Ripper."

From Birth to Death

U.S. Governed by Mountain of Laws

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A mountain of laws — An estimated 2 million of them — governs the waking and sleeping lives of all Americans. The following dispatch, first of a three-part series by Barney Seibert of United Press International, explores how many laws we have and how they piled up.)

By BARNEY SEIBERT

There is a legal rule often quoted in courts and law schools that "Every man is presumed to know the law."

It ought to be repealed. So should thousands of the outmoded and obscure laws which purport to govern the lives of Americans from the moment of their birth to the instant of their death. But it isn't easy.

The fact is that even the experts not only do no know all the country's laws but don't even know how many there are.

★ ★ ★

The American Bar Association (ABA), which should know, is in the process of preparing an automated index of state laws and is using computers in hopes of extracting the law from court decisions.

NATION SWAMPED

One estimate is that the country's legal explosion has swamped the nation with 2 million laws.

But in a United Press International survey of 25 states, only one — Florida — was able to tell exactly how many laws it has on the books.

Many states measure their laws in sections or "articles." Some count them in chapters. A few — like California and New York — count their laws by the volume.

★ ★ ★

Things used to be simpler. About 4,000 years ago, a Babylonian king named Hammurabi ordered all the laws of his kingdom inscribed on a stone stela 8 feet high. It contained 288 laws.

COMPRESS LAWS

Some 2,500 years later, the Roman Emperor Justinian managed to compress all his empire's laws into a single "corpus juris civilis" code of 175 new laws, 50 old ones and a "digest" of 150,000 written lines of precedent-making decisions.

The whole thing would have fitted neatly into one of California's volumes with plenty of room left over.

Nowadays, the state of Georgia has added 381 amendments to its Constitution since 1945, together with an annual output of about 600 new laws for the state code.

★ ★ ★

California has 80 volumes of laws with 850 pages in each volume. Commerce Clearing House, the Chicago legal reporting agency, lists 25,745 new state laws enacted this year, with the total in seven states still incomplete.

TOTAL OUTPUT

The ABA estimates the total output of state legislatures at about 35,000 new laws each year.

The 87th Congress, which adjourned in 1962, enacted 885 public laws, 85 more than its predecessor, Commerce Clearing House reported.

But the output of the state and national legislatures is only a small part of the total.

★ ★ ★

Each county, city, town and village in the nation has its own set of ordinances. Despite the efforts of the ABA, the International City Managers Association (ICMA) and the National Municipal League, they are far from uniform.

NATIONAL LEVEL

At the national level, in addition to the legal production of Congress, there are the rules of the federal regulatory agencies which have the effect of law under certain conditions.

Finally, there are the thousands of school districts, park districts, fire protection districts and drainage districts which have certain limited law making powers.

In the past 55 years, the federal Constitution has been amended nearly twice as many times as in the preceding 115 years.

★ ★ ★

The number of federal regulatory agencies with limited lawmaking powers has increased from one in the 19th century to a dozen or more.

TO INTERPRET

To interpret the outpouring of legislation from the nation's lawmakers, there are nearly 200,000 practicing lawyers and more than 8,000 judges in the United States.

The number of lawyers engaged in private practice is increasing at the rate of about 1,000 a year, and the number of judges is rising at the rate of about 100 annually.

(Tomorrow: Why the legal explosion has occurred.)

Flagship Plans Visit to Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — The flagship of the U.S. 7th Fleet, the guided missile cruiser Providence, will steam up the Saigon River next Saturday for a three-day goodwill visit to the South Vietnamese capital.

The 7th Fleet commander, Vice Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, will be aboard.

While 7th Fleet ships visit Saigon from time to time, this will be the first visit by the flagship in several years.

★ ★ ★

It is generally believed that the visit is planned as a strong hint to the Communists that the U.S. military establishment stands solidly behind the new Vietnamese military government.

WAR GOES BAD

The war has been going badly for the government since before the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Many Vietnamese say they think the United States soon will grow tired of the burden of war and abandon Viet Nam to the Communists.

Single Girls Have Problem: Outnumber American Males

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

BOYLE

The average person speaks about 25,000 words a day. That doesn't include the telephone conversations of teenagers.

The parakeet can consume nearly 100 times its own weight in food each year.

The world's heartiest eaters are the Irish. According to United Nations figures, they put down 3,500 calories a day each, compared to 3,100 calories for Americans.

No man, not even a genius, begins to tap the full potential of his brain. It has been estimated that the human mind could store several hundred memories an hour for a lifetime of 75 years and never show the strain. I forget where I learned this.

SUICIDE RATIO

The suicide ratio is twice as high in Japan, Hungary, Denmark and Sweden as in the United States.

Our quotable notables: "The best way to get on in the world is to make people believe it's to their advantage to help you" —Jean de la Bruyere.

Single girls, here's your problem in finding a mate during the present Leap Year: There are 2½ million fewer men than woman in this country — so some of you have to lose.

Japan, which lost the war, is finding peace pretty wonderful. A survey disclosed 91 per cent of Japanese families had television sets, 70 per cent had electric washing machines, 52 per cent had electric refrigerators, and 60 per cent owned cameras.

NEED LICENSE

On the other hand, in East Germany a woman must show a marriage license in order to buy white shoes. The Communists decreed that only intended brides can buy white shoes which are in short supply because leather, dyes and bleaches must be imported from capitalist countries.

It has been found that time passes about a third faster when you're working than when you're loafing.

Last year the cost of a gallon of gasoline averaged more than 30 cents, including 10.28 cents in taxes. The price 20 years ago averaged 20.43 cents a gallon, including 5.97 cents in taxes.

It Seems to Me....

GOP Presidential Selection Now a Convention Grab Bag

The death of President KENNEDY has had a marked effect on the Republican outlook for the nomination.

BARRY GOLDWATER may head the pack but his position is weakened by the situation in the South. All agreed that GOLDWATER was an odds on favorite to "carry the South."

But the picture changes.

The new President's a Texan.

★ ★ ★

Dixie delegates look upon LBJ with approval and thus Goldwater's flying start is suddenly discounted. The hardest working candidate, Nelson Rockefeller, is still "in there pitching" and plans to enter every primary. You can't view him lightly. Some feel the current domestic happenings have increased his chances. If "Rocky" were injured by the double divorce — and he was — a new factor bobs up.

The Rockefellers expect an heir.

Heirs have warm, human appeal.

★ ★ ★

There seems to be a new boom for Gov. WILLIAM SCRANTON, Pennsylvania. SCRANTON amazed the political soothsayers in Pennsylvania by walking away with the Gubernatorial election and his star flashed across the national horizon. Then it faded but now it's in the ascendency again. Don't write him off.

★ ★ ★

There's always former Vice President Richard Nixon who is standing alertly in the wings, just waiting for a casual nod. This stalwart warrior only lost the Presidency itself by a tiny fraction of one per cent. There are still those who insist if the votes had all been counted in suspicious sectors he would be in the White House right now. And Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge is another entry.

★ ★ ★

And how about GEORGE ROMNEY? Many observers feel that GOLDWATER and ROCKEFELLER are far enough in front to hammer each other into the land of nod and political oblivion before the big convention is called.

This could well be.

Timing is all-important.

★ ★ ★

Michigan's Governor once declared he was not a Presidential candidate and that the job in Michigan would take more than two years. I agree. The task is far from finished. Further, it isn't fair to Michigan to temporize until July. At the same time there has been a radical shift in the national scene and Romney isn't ignoring it. The former time table has been knocked into a cocked hat and the deck is sharply shuffled.

Johnson's an imponderable.

Hence Romney seems to modify his former stand sufficiently to suggest he would "consider a draft."

★ ★ ★

ROMNEY'S a strong man. (And if the Pontiac City Commission wants to make something of it, I donated to his campaign, too.) However, a draft is very unlikely for anyone. Rather, the nod will go to the warrior with the most horses and one who swings from the heels when his managers nod. There are too many eager beavers in this pond to allow someone to twiddle idle thumbs and glory in a draft.

★ ★ ★

If this conclusion is correct, George Romney is a very distant candidate. But — and this is important — he can well be in a very strategic position to play a leading role behind the scenes. Michigan is a big and influential state. We have a sizeable vote of our own and others are willing to follow our lead. Strategically, this could place Romney in one of the most commanding positions of the entire gathering. If a steam roller unexpectedly drags one candidate quickly into the nomination, that's that. But if the knock-down, drag-out fight develops, the Governor of the great State of Michigan could well wield a potent leadership and play a top role in the ultimate decision.

★ ★ ★

That's what I look for ROMNEY to do. We still face that job in Michigan which he said would take more than two years. As a rather remote Presidential possibility himself, he can add to his stature as an individual to play an important part in the ultimate decision, rather than as an athlete in uniform with a number on his back.

Up to YOU....

Today we vote.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac's alive, assertive Jaycees have championed a cause for better government and a stronger commission. Both sides have presented their case fully. The decision rests with the electorate. That's the way in a democracy. Each citizen makes up his own mind which method seems to build a stronger Pontiac and a better city.

'Mind If I Look Over Your Shoulder?'

David Lawrence Says:

Speech Analyzed Race Problem

WASHINGTON — Sometimes a prominent man known best in his own city or state makes a speech that deserves the attention of the whole country especially when it concerns what has been called the social "revolution" in America.

Richardson DILWORTH

LAWRENCE

Dilworth, a former mayor of the City of Philadelphia who was the unsuccessful democratic nominee for the governorship of Pennsylvania in the 1962 election, is unquestionably an ardent advocate of "civil rights."

Yet if the same things which he has just said had been spoken by Govs. Barnett of Mississippi, Wallace of Alabama or Faubus of Arkansas, there would have been a tirade of criticism leveled in their direction, and they would have been called "racists" and enemies of the Negro.

Mr. Dilworth had prepared the other day a speech on transportation for a seminar of 300 business executives of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Philadelphia.

He suddenly asked for more time and, in an impromptu manner, supplemented his remarks. He declared that the time has come for the Negro to stop following "demagogue" leaders.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Dilworth added that he believed the furor recently over the use of "blackface" in the annual "Mummers Parade" in Philadelphia was unfortunate and that it "set the Negro community back 10 years."

HE ADDED

He added: "It's these inconsequential things that cause the whites to be set against the blacks."

"And the time has come for the Negro to stop feeling so damned sorry for himself. Some of their leaders are demagogues . . . but they've got to learn to help themselves, and not take an attitude that just because they are a minority they can get nowhere here.

"That's just not true. Look at the Irish and Italians of years past. One of them even went on to become president of the United States. They (the Negroes) have got to get some of the same kind of spirit that these people had."

What Mr. Dilworth said is not surprising. The same point of view has been expressed before in local communities by conscientious persons who really would like to help solve the racial problems.

ARE RELUCTANT

But the sensitiveness about giving advice to the Negroes has risen to the point where even prominent Negroes themselves are reluctant to speak out because they are promptly attacked by Negro leaders in the demagogic category.

The use of the technique of street demonstrations, moreover, has not been of as much assistance to their cause as some of the Negro leaders had hoped.

Additional improvement will come in racial relations in America when the Negro leaders themselves begin to speak out plainly against the demagoguery and misguided advice that so many of their brethren have been giving, only to stir up resentments and bitterness in many a community — which is exactly what former Mayor Dilworth pointed out in his recent address.

Bob Considine Says:

They Don't Make Them Like Cardinal Spellman

NEW YORK—The Pope's trip to the Holy Land eclipsed to a degree another remarkable but much longer voyage taken during the Christmas season by another distinguished man of the church, Francis Cardinal Spellman.

CONSIDINE

His Eminence celebrated midnight Mass at the Amundsen-Scott U. S. South Pole station, as it is well enough known. But it took a bit of doing.

Navy doctors were worried about how the cardinal would make the trip to the bottom of the planet. He will be 75 on May 4, the last 25 years of which he has served as archbishop of New York's archdiocese, a grueling job.

The Navy did not feel it could very well order him to take a physical before his flight to the Pole, but after some cajolery His Eminence submitted.

"They found that the only thing wrong with me was that I needed a haircut," he reported after the examination.

A LITTLE SLEEP

The indestructible cardinal slept a couple of hours at McMurdo, celebrated Mass there at noon, had Christmas dinner with the men at 2:30, climbed into a helicopter at 4:30 and flew over a stretch of the Antarctic to the Navy's largest ice-breaker, U.S.S. Glacier.

There he heard confessions and celebrated his third Mass of the day at 6:30 for the Crew of 300.

It was an average day's work for the industrious Prince of the Church.

For many years he has spent his Christmas with servicemen in the field, sharing most of their discomforts, and has always brought a note of cheer and hope to them.

The cardinal did most of his flying in cargo planes while in Antarctica.

When he and his little party transferred at last to a Pan Am 707 leaving Christchurch for the long trip home via Honolulu, the cardinal looked at the plush appointments, sighed, and said, "Now I can wash my hands without being accompanied by three men."

Readers Comment on Barry Goldwater

Barry Goldwater seems to be the most outrageous politician to come upon the national scene in 150 years. His four-point program of U. S. withdrawal from the United Nations, breaking off relations with Russia, reneging on the nuclear test-ban treaty and an attack on Cuba is the most dangerous platform an American could advocate.

I hope the national Republicans will prevent this radical conservative from getting the nomination. Only men like Lodge and Romney represent the sensible GOP. These are the two giants who have any chance against the tall timber from Texas.

An Independent

I see Sen. Goldwater gave Gov. Rockefeller a great boost when he said he talked like a Democrat. I guess that's why he has been governor of New York so long.

If more Republicans would talk like Democrats we would have a better government and would get things done in Washington.

Perseverance

Michigan Out-of-Doors

A bill providing for the establishment of a Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore area has been passed by the Senate, due largely to the dedicated perseverance of one man. The struggle is not yet over. The Senate proposal for an area of 47,600 acres faces rough going in the House of Representatives, which holds a proposal recommending a much smaller preserve.

★ ★ ★

But the holiday season was brighter for Sen. Phil Hart for this breakthrough after his years of untiring work. Those who tend to quit when the going gets tough can gain inspiration from his performance. The bill that passed the Senate was the fourth Hart submitted. He had rewritten, he had compromised. In Michigan and Washington, he patiently worked year after year to find reasonable solutions to honest differences.

★ ★ ★

The bill is not perfect—nothing in this world is. No one faction received all it wanted. But the heart of successful government is the art of compromise. And we can no longer see justification for opposing the Sleeping Bear Dunes proposal of Sen. Hart. We can see an excellent opportunity for Rep. Robert P. Griffin to enhance his own reputation by forsaking partisan politics and helping to guide through the House this compromise bill.

If we do not make far-sighted provision now, our children will not be able to enjoy the outdoors we love and revere. Tourism is Michigan's second largest industry and growing. Our state can be viewed as funneling our citizens and people from states south of us north straight to Canada on our super highways.

★ ★ ★

What will keep these tourists in Michigan? Outstanding national lakeshore areas at Sleeping Bear Dunes and at Pictured Rocks in the Upper Peninsula, Sen. Hart points out, will attract these visitors as nothing else could.

The state owes a great debt of gratitude to Sen. Hart for his vision and perseverance.

'State of State'

Jackson Citizen Patriot

Gov. George Romney's "State of the State" message was a mere framework on which his specific recommendations will be hung. And, again, he is doing nothing that G. Mennen Williams and John B. Swainson didn't do when they were occupying the golden chair in the front office.

★ ★ ★

The most interesting item in the governor's message is his pitch for vastly expanded spending for higher education. In this case, he is facing facts. The pressure is on, as we have said many times. The "war babies" now are knocking at the doors of the colleges. They must be served.

He also is being realistic when he asks greater support of public school education. The poor old property taxpayer is beginning to hurt. Beginning?

He has been hurting for years as the state held its level of support more or less steady while the good people in the local communities picked up the expanding tab.

More interesting than that is the governor's pledge to cut costs of government by applying strict business principles to the operation.

If he can do that he will achieve what seems to be the impossible. We shall reserve judgment until we see whether he can overcome what an engineer might call the "momentum factor."

Again, we shall wait for his messages on specific functions of government. More than that, we shall wait to see how the Legislature responds to the leadership of the first governor in 14 years who represents the political faith of the majority.

If they cross him up . . .

There are worse things than getting rich selling automobiles.

There are worse things than sacrificing good government and effective leadership for the sake of control of the party.

However, we can't think of one at the moment.

Junior Editors Quiz on MILK

QUESTION: What is homogenized milk and how is it made?

ANSWER: When milk comes from a cow, it is composed mainly of globules of butterfat floating in water — this combination of an oily or fatty substance with a watery one being called an emulsion.

As the milk stands, the butterfat globules come together and form a layer of cream at the top of the bottle.

This is fine for people who want to use cream in various ways; but most people, like the boy at the right, like to drink milk which has the cream evenly distributed so that it has a rich, full taste.

To do this, milk processors force the milk through machines which bring great pressure upon it — about 2,000 pounds per square inch. Under this pressure, the milk goes through many minute holes, and these break up the large butter fat globules into smaller ones.

This process is called homogenization and it results in the butterfat being evenly distributed, so that each drop of the milk has the same butter fat content as every other drop.

Americans are so fond of homogenized milk that three fourths of the milk produced in the United States is treated in this way.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: After homogenizing some of the milk, the next step is to "pasteurize" it. Find out what this means and how it is done.

Scranton Expected to Run for President Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller says he has been assured by persons close to Gov. William W. Scranton that they expect the Pennsylvanian to seek the GOP presidential nomination.

Miller said yesterday he had received no assurance from Scranton that he would enter the race. The governor has insisted he will not seek the nomination, though he's willing to accept it if drafted.

In Harrisburg, Pa., Scranton said he had no knowledge of Miller's statement and no comment on it.

But Craig Truax, Pennsylvania Republican chairman, said: "I and many others believe that he (Scranton) will be involved in it (the nomination scramble) before the year is over."

Miller made his remarks on the CBS radio and television program "Face the Nation."

"I would say I have heard more talk of Scranton this week than in a long time," Miller, a New York congressman, said.

He said this was partly the result of Scranton's appearance last Thursday at a four-day GOP meeting.

Miller said that if either Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona or N.Y. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller were to win the GOP presidential primaries in New Hampshire, Oregon and California, that candidate would be in a very strong position to capture the nomination at the Republican convention, which starts July 13 in San Francisco.

Another Republican possibility, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, plans to speak Feb. 12 at the annual dinner of the Germantown Republican Club in Philadelphia. Jerome A. O'Neill, president of the organization, said he sees no political significance in Nixon's appearance.

The former vice president, defeated by the late President John F. Kennedy in the 1960 election, says he is not a candidate for the nomination.

Meanwhile, Louisiana Democrats showed opposition to civil rights legislation still runs strong. They nominated 45-year-old John J. McKeithen, a conservative, for governor over moderate Delesseps S. Morrison in a runoff campaign dominated by the racial issue.

McKeithen had accused Morrison of dealing with Negro leaders to gain support from a "block vote."

McKeithen upset the 51-year-old Morrison by 41,000 votes Saturday and is rated a sure winner in the March general election over Republican Charlton H. Lyons Sr., a wealthy oilman.

Public Response to Smoking Report Eyed

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American smoker—still lingering over the grim facts of a federal report branding cigarettes a health hazard—is center stage to a big audience this week.

Legislators, investors, tobacco growers, cigarette manufacturers, legal and health authorities want to know first and foremost: Will he quit or not? Will he cut down? What will happen to cigarette sales?

★ ★ ★

Just how loud will the public reaction to the federal report be?

On those questions hinge a number of important decisions in coming days:

1. The tobacco companies have been invited to meet with the Television Code Review Board in Miami Beach, Jan. 22-23. Subject: the federal report and what it means to cigarette advertising on television.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

2. The american Cancer Society's board of directors meets this month to assess educational campaigns against cigarette smoking, called by the federal report the major cause of lung cancer, the leading fatal malignancy in men.

3. Several ills will be introduced designed to better arm federal agencies to regulate the sale and advertising of cigarettes and to force the cautionary labeling of cigarettes as potentially hazardous.

★ ★ ★

4. Federal courts may be the scene of another test of the scientific report. Will it encourage further damage suits against tobacco companies by lung cancer victims? Will it improve their chance of collecting?

The new report—14 months in the making — cited cigarette smoking as the major cause of lung cancer, a significant cause of cancer of the larynx, and associated it with a number of other cancers from those of the oral cavity to the bladder.

HEART DISEASE

And there was a association—but not yet a proof of cause—between cigarettes and heart and blood vessel disease, and peptic ulcers.

So strong is the evidence of health hazard, the committee said, that it called for corrective action.

★ ★ ★

The Surgeon General's Advisory Committee on Smoking and Health surprised most observers with the strength of its denunciation of cigarette smoking. Even an official of the American Cancer Society, long an enemy of cigarettes, said he was pleasantly surprised by the forthrightness of the report.

But there appeared to be initial caution on the part of regulatory federal agencies—despite assurances the report would be studied closely and that there would be no foot-dragging in filling what the scientific committee called a need for remedial action.

REITERATE STANDS

The Tobacco Institute, speaking for the industry, reiterated earlier stands it has made to the lung cancer charges.

George V. Allen, institute president, said the suregon general's report would get careful study—and that it was not the last chapter in the cigarette sory. He called for more research.

★ ★ ★

Few persons close to the situation—even avowed enemies of smoking—consider the possibility of a prohibition of cigarettes. Even Sen. Maurine Neuberger, D-Ore., said in her recent book attacking smoking that prohibition would not work.

But she does plan to introduce two bills this week, one to put a cautionary label on cigarettes, the other to start a federal educational program against cigarette smoking.

PUBLIC RESPONSE

The success of either proposal in Congress will certainly depend on public demand, and how heavy it weighs against a $8-billion-a-year industry and tobacco-producing farm famithe economic impact on 750,000 lies.

In the courts, the question will be how much it will alter the established pattern in damage suits against tobacco firms. One federal court — in a prereport decision — had agreed with a lung cancer victim that his disease had been cigarette-caused, but said he must share the blame with the company that made the cigarettes.

As for sales, judging by past examples, the federal report is not likely to have a great or lasting effect.

Sales slid when the American Cancer Society in 1954 linked smoking to a shorter life, lung cancer and other disease, but they soon recovered.

In England, there was a 12½ per cent drop in cigarette sales after the British Ministry of Health and the Royal College of Physicians indicated cigarettes as a lung cancer cause. But the scare had little lingering effect, and sales went back to normal levels.

In the United States sales of cigarettes continue to grow each year. So do the numbers of deaths from lung cancer. The yearly toll is now 41,000.

Tobacco stocks on the New York Stock Exchange have never quite got over the traumatic linkage of cigarettes and lung cancer. The levels are on the low side of some middle ground, and far from historic highs.

Report Nehru Eying Deputy

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indian newspapers are speculating that ailing Prime Minister Nehru may appoint a deputy prime minister.

Nehru's closest political confidant, former Home Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri, is most frequently mentioned.

Shastri, 58, is seen as the best compromise between leftist and conservative forces in the 74-year-old prime minister's ruling Congress party.

Nehru became ill last Tuesday while attending the Congress party's annual meeting in Bhubaneswar. He was flown back to New Delhi yesterday.

The effects of his illness showed clearly on Nehru's face and movements when he returned. But in a brief chat with well-wishers at the airport, he smiled wanly and said in a low voice:

"I am feeling fine."

A medical bulletin issued five hours later said the prime minister "stood the journey very well. His blood pressure continues at a satisfactory level. There is all-round improvement in his general condition."

The prime minister's doctors have said he is suffering from high blood pressure and fatigue.

Before his return, Nehru appointed two colleagues to conduct his routine duties. His doctors have said Nehru may have to rest for about a month.

Home Minister G. L. Nanda is handling domestic matters and Finance Minister T. T. Krishnamachari is assuming the prime minister's second post of foreign minister.

Center Developers to Air Troy Zoning

AREA NEWS

TROY — Developers of a proposed K-Mart shopping complex at 15 Mile and Stephenson are scheduled to again discuss their rezoning request at tonight's City Commission meeting.

Also on tap for consideration are the Dupont Co.'s expansion plans.

Last month, the commission voted 5-2 to close the door on possible development of the 35-acre K-Mart site, by maintaining the present light industrial zoning in the area.

However last week developers John P. Frazer Jr. and Robert Werbe said they had information discounting the position taken by owners of adjacent and neighboring property, zoned for industry.

★ ★ ★

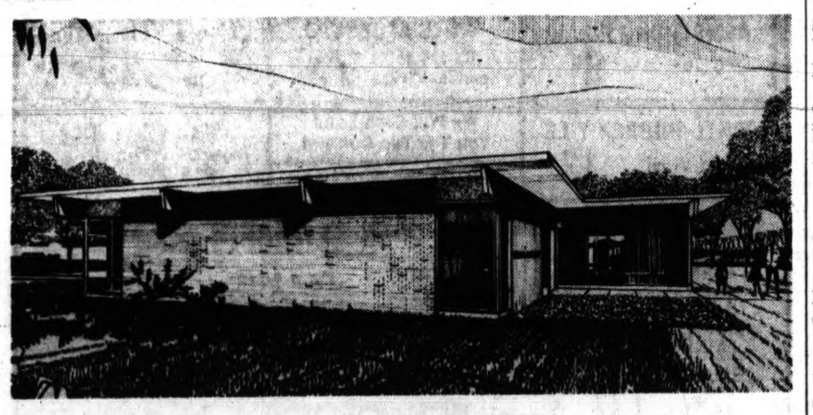
The property owners agreed with the city's planning consultants Vilican-Leman & Associates of Southfield, that there is sufficient land already zoned for commercial and that building the complex at that site would create a traffic burden.

Tonight the commission also is scheduled to make a decision on rezoning land surrounding the DuPont Co., located north of Long Lake Road and east of the I-75 expressway.

The company wants six lots on its north side rezoned from residential to industrial use for future expansion.

Commissioners tabled the issue last month and expressed hope that representatives of the company and area homeowners' associations would meet prior to tonight's session.

In other business tonight the commission will take a look at current plans for the new civic center here.



Architect's Conception Of New Orion Twp. Library

New Orion Twp. Library Will Be Open Before 1965

ORION TOWNSHIP — The new $100,000 library proposed for construction on Lapeer Road (M24) opposite Buckhorn Lake will be serving village and township residents before the year is over.

Bids for the one-story building are scheduled to be opened on Jan. 29, with construction beginning sometime next month.

Official opening of the library will take place in the late summer or early fall.

To house 4,600 square feet of floor space, the structure will be divided into three main areas—a meeting room, work room and a large reading and book section.

PARKING SPACE

Parking facilities will be available at the sides and rear of the building.

Of basically modern design, the library will feature a facebrick exterior and overhanging roof of laminated wood beams.

Orion Township Supervisor John Lessiter said the facility is being financed by a combination of federal funds, from the Housing and Home Finance Agency, and money accrued in the township library fund.

★ ★ ★

The firm of Louis G. Redstone, Architects, Inc., of Detroit is designing the structure.

REMAIN OPEN

The present library, located on Lapeer Street, Lake Orion, will remain open until the new one is operational, although Community National Bank, Pontiac, has an option to buy it for $12,000.

★ ★ ★

"The library board has been working toward a new facility for quite a few years," Lessiter said. "Now we all can see that it isn't so far away."

★ ★ ★

Library board members are Mrs. Margaret Slater, president; Mrs. Eula Abbey, secretary; and members Mrs. Helen Chapin, Mrs. Maude Becker, Mrs. Aurora Robinson and Mrs. Mary Scribner.

Romeo State Police said that Theodore Korte, 78, and Arnold Reah were living in the house, which is owned by Joseph Tournier of Detroit.

Arabs Meet at Summit Over Israeli Use of Jordan River

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

JERUSALEM, Israel Sector (AP)—Israel pictures herself as ready to counter any action that may be taken by the Arab rulers gathering in Cairo today for their summit meeting.

Arab leaders are meeting to plan action against an Israeli program to channel irrigation water from Galilee in the north to the Negev Desert area in the south.

★ ★ ★

To halt the Israeli project the Arabs have been talking about a variety of measures, ranging from diversion of Jordan headwaters to creation of a new Middle East crisis.

Few here expect the Arabs to go to the brink of war since the Arabs are viewed as lacking unity and in no condition to undertake hostilities against a militarily strong Israel. But the summit meeting in itself contains elements which could lead to a crisis.

ONLY TOO HAPPY

"If the Arabs want peace tomorrow they can have it and we would be only too happy," said a senior Israeli Foreign Ministry official.

He added: "We are full of confidence. We are strong enough to withstand any Arab attempt to use force."

Israel contends the Arabs have no legal basis for their complaints and that the only Arab consideration is to prevent any measure which might help the Israeli economy. The Israelis also contend the Arab approach to the Jordan River issue is emotional and political, without a basis in logic.

Indeed, suspicion is being voiced here that President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic called the summit meeting not so much to challenge Israel as to challenge the Arab leaders, to demonstrate to them that because they are not unified they cannot dream of taking measures against Israel without accepting Cairo's leadership.

GOING AHEAD

The Israelis, at any rate, are going ahead with their water program as scheduled and likely will begin drawing water from the north this summer. Israel contends she is doing nothing more than transferring surplus water which is rightfully hers from the north to the south of Israel.

The Jordan water situation has been debated 11 years without any sign of Arab agreement to a solution at a political level.

The headwaters are in Israel, Syria and Lebanon — the Dan, Banyas and Hasbani rivers combine as the Jordan and flow into the Sea of Galilee, then down through Israel and the kingdom of Jordan.

Israel, the Arab and the United Nations have all had plans for use of the waters as far back as 1953. President Dwight D. Eisenhower sent Eric Johnston to the Mideast to study the situation and he came up with what was called a unified plan. This was accepted by all at a technical level but the Arabs rejected it at the political level. It would have given Syria Lebanon and Jordan all they needed for irrigation with the residue, about 40 per cent, going to Israel.

CANAL PROJECT

The Jordan kingdom on its own began in 1961 to draw water from the Yarmuk River. It now has the East Ghor canal project which is using Yarmuk water to irrigate part of the Jordan valley. Israel got up its own plan to draw water from the Sea of Galilee (Lake Tiberias) and use part in Galilee and the coastal plain areas and the rest in Negev.

Israel said she would stay within the allocation of water laid down in Johnston's plan and was ready to sign an international agreement with the Arabs.

The Arabs protest that withdrawal of the water will increase salinity and decrease the usefulness of the Jordan River. Israel counters that Jordan's use of the Yarmuk waters already is contributing to greater Jordan River salinity whereby Israel farmers suffer.

The Arabs have been accusing Israel of planning to settle two million new immigrants in the Negev with the irrigation program but Israel says only 100,000 live there now and the area can add no more than 200,000 in the next five years.

★ ★ ★

The Israeli spokesman denounces as "poppycock" Jordanian King Hussein's complaint that Israel's program would change the course of the historic river. The spokesman said Israel is not diverting the river itself but only the water from the Sea of Galilee.

The Israelis do not rule out completely the possibility the Arabs will vote action such as interfering with the headwaters of the Jordan. In such a case, the spokesman said, Israel would have to consider appropriate steps. He did not elaborate but Arab interference with the headwaters is likely to be regarded by Israel as tantamount to an act of war.

Senator Said Not in Shape to Campaign

LOS ANGELES (AP) — State Democratic Chairman Eugene Wyman says that as of now, U.S. Sen. Clair Engle "is not in any condition to campaign."

★ ★ ★

Wyman, returned to Los Angeles Sunday with Tom Carvey Jr., president of the California Democratic Council, after meeting with Engle and said the senator "looks good. But he has difficulty in his ability to speak. He's very hesitant.

"He has difficulty composing sentences. He walked with a limp and one arm had no mobility. He talked very little," Wyman said.

BRAIN SURGERY

The senator from Red Bluff, Calif., underwent major brain surgery last August. He recently announced he will seek re-election next November.

Carvey said Engle "was not very happy" about party leaders' demand for a public medical report before they would support his candidacy. Engle has said doctors gave him the green light to campaign.

Gift Depends on Tax OK

TECUMSEH (AP)—A $550,000 gift to the Tecumseh School District hangs in the balance in a special tax election Feb. 17.

Supt. James McDowell says the donor will make the gift if the tax passes.

But his name is never to be made public.

McDowell said the school board tentatively has accepted the offer.

"The gift isn't anonymous," McDowell said, "but we're not going to discose the donor's identity."

The voters will decide in the election whether to renew a special $4 tax for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Congress Agendas Allow for Key Bills

WASHINGTON (AP)— Congressional leaders are keeping floor calendars light again this week in hopes of spurring committee action on top-priority tax cut and civil rights bills.

Only three bills are scheduled for House action, and none is controversial enough to keep more than a bare quorum of members on hand. They deal with rice acreage allotments, airport construction and legal representation for indigent defendants.

In the Senate, a "gentlemen's agreement" is likely to forestall any decisive votes on two proposals to be debated:

A requirement that three hours each day be devoted to germane debate on pending legislation, and a House - passed bill to increase the capital stock of the inter-American development bank.

★ ★ ★

The bob-tailed sessions are designed to permit the House Rules Committee and Senate Finance Committee — considering the civil rights and tax cut bills — to meet both morning and afternoon.

DON'T MEET

Committees normally do not meet while their chambers are in session.

The House Rules Committee has scheduled three more days of hearings this week on the broad civil rights bill. Leaders hope to have the measure ready for a long House floor fight early in February.

The Senate Finance Committee will continue closed-door consideration of the House-passed $11-billion tax reduction bill which is the number one proposal on President Johnson's legislative program.

★ ★ ★

The Senate Rules Committee continue hearings into the business dealings of Robert G. Baker, who resigned under fire last fall as secretary to the Senate Democratic majority.

QUICKLY SENT

Last week, Congress quickly sent to the President a bill to name a proposed national cultural center here in honor of the late President John F. Kennedy and to authorize almost $31 million in appropriations to help build it.

Hearings on Park to Be Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said today he will ask Rep. Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., chairman of the House Interior Committee, to hold hearings soon on his bill to create a Sleeping Bear Dunes national park in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The Griffin bill differs materially from the one passed Dec. 22 by the Senate. The Senate bill was sponsored by Sens. Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara, Michigan Democrats.

The Hart - McNamara bill originally called for a 77,000-acre national lakeshore fronting on the eastern edge of Lake Michigan. The Senate, however, cut this to 51,800 acres. The Griffin bill would include only 37,000 acres.

SEEKS EARLY ACTION

Griffin, who expects to decide within the next three weeks whether he will seek the Senate seat now held by Hart, said he hopes the House committee will meet early to act on his bill.

Also before the House committee is a bill by Rep. Neil Staebler, D-Mich., who announced recently he will seek the Democratic nomination for governor of Michigan. The Staebler bill is similar to that proposed by Hart and McNamara.

★ ★ ★

Thus, if Griffin makes the decision to try for the Republican senatorial nomination, the touchy Sleeping Bear Dunes park issue likely will receive a lot of attention during the 1964 campaign.

Staebler hopes to win the governorship nomination in the Democratic primary to meet Republican Gov. George Romney, who is expected to seek a second term.

Bearded Prophet Loses

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Why do so many women object to a man's growing a beard?

I am sure that the good Lord didn't put hair on the faces of men so that a razor company could sponsor boxing matches.

ABBY

And you line right up alongside the rest of the women and say, "If the beard scratches — scratch him!"

★ ★ ★

Men parted with their beards about the same time women were given the right to vote and permitted to drive automobiles (you can do neither intelligently) but knowing how you women stick together I'll bet ten bucks this never sees print.

TED W.

DEAR TED: You lose! Now send that ten bucks to the Cancer Society.

DEAR ABBY: I've never seen a problem like ours in your column, and hope you can help us.

★ ★ ★

Three years ago my husband accidentally hit a boy on a bicycle, and the boy was killed instantly. It was a foggy night, the boy darted out in front of the car, and my husband was not exceeding the speed limit; so no charges were brought against him.

He was so heartsick he lost 30 pounds. Our problem is: Every Christmas since that happened we have sent the boy's family a lovely basket of fruit and a large wreath of flowers for the boy's grave.

★ ★ ★

I have the feeling that perhaps we shouldn't do this because it reminds them that their son is dead and my husband is still living.

We surely don't want to cause them any more heartaches in the future. Can you or someone who has been through this advise us?

STUMPED

★ ★ ★

DEAR STUMPED: You didn't say how the family reacted to your gifts. If they appear appreciative, by all means continue.

If your gifts are acknowledged coolly, or not at all — discontinue the practice.

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to "NOT MOVING" gives me the impression that you are plain stupid.

I agree with the letter, NOT with your answer. I have 30 minutes for lunch and I don't aim to spend it moving around so that people can sit together at a lunch counter.

★ ★ ★

I also refuse to move. Why should I? I've never asked anybody to move for me.

I'll bet you would stand in line at a grocery check-out with 6 or 7 people who each had about $15 worth of groceries, and you'd let someone ahead of you with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter.

I wouldn't, but I think you are stupid enough to. Yours truly,

HOMER IN SOUTH GATE

DEAR HOMER: You sure have me pegged, Buddy. I frequently let someone ahead of me with a loaf of bread and a pound of butter. And I'm stupid enough to enjoy it.

Let Guests Decide on Presents

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I am giving a shower for a friend of mine. The bride-to-be has already collected many household items and so I thought it would be helpful to explain this and offer gift suggestions to the guests when they telephoned to let me know whether or not they were coming.

★ ★ ★

One of the guests became highly indignant and said I had no right to tell her what to buy. I do not feel that I was out of order but, on the contrary, helpful in preventing the exchanging of duplicate articles which the bride could not use. Will you please tell me if I was wrong?

★ ★ ★

A: To give helpful suggestions to any of those who asked you what they might get for her, was certainly not wrong.

★ ★ ★

But if suggestions were not asked for, you should not have offered them because, as this woman so rudely demonstrated, many people resent being told what they should give for presents.

Q: What is the proper way to eat a shrimp cocktail? I go to a place quite often that serves jumbo shrimp in a glass receptacle.

They are too large to put into the mouth whole. Should they be picked up on the fork and bitten in half, or should they be cut with a knife on the plate underneath the glass containing the shrimp?

A: They should be cut in half with your fork by pressing them against the inside of the glass receptacle.

Q: Will you please tell me if a lace mantilla could properly be worn instead of a hat by a wedding guest at an 11:00 morning wedding?

A: A lace mantilla would be an entirely proper head covering at an evening church wedding, but at a morning wedding a hat is in best taste.

The clothes of the bride's and groom's parents as well as those of the wedding guests are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Correct Clothes for a Wedding Reception."

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

Hand, Glove With History

Give your glove to another as a sign of consent or authority.

Adopted first by the throne, gloves were imbued with dignity and meaning. From earliest feudal times the king's glove represented regal power.

By sending his glove with an envoy the sovereign delegated powers to others. His glove served as his ambassador.

One of the most important occasions to which the king's glove gave royal sanction was that of holding public fairs or markets.

It was customary to display at the entrance to the fair or market a large glove, dyed or gilded.

5 Killed, 50 Hurt in Chemical Blasts

ATTLEBORO, Mass. (AP) — A series of explosions heard 50 miles away shattered a building of a chemical company plant Sunday night.

At least five persons were killed by the blasts and a subsequent fire that roared out of control for five hours, endangering more than 100 homes.

★ ★ ★

Eleven other persons were hospitalized. Three were in critical condition.

Authorities feared more victims might be found in the ruins of the Thompson Chemical Co. building. Blackened and weary fire fighters had a snow storm to contend with as they began the search.

MANY INJURED

Forty to 50 persons, including many nearby residents, were injured. Many suffered concussions and cuts.

The blasts, heard in towns north of Boston, came shortly before 7 p.m., just 65 hours after a smaller explosion last Friday at the same plant when a safety cap blew off a vaporizer.

★ ★ ★

It took firemen from communities as far away as 30 miles five hours to contain the blaze. Fire Chief Melton Churchill said firemen were held back for 20 minutes because the plant chemist feared another explosion.

About 100 persons are employed at the plant near the Rhode Island border. Company President Irving Jay Fain said there were only about 10 employes in building V-1 when it blew up in what observers said was two or three explosions. Polyvinyl chloride resin, a plastic used in the manufacture of toys, phonograph records and insulation, was produced in the building.

500 EVACUATED

About 500 persons living in the immediate area were moved out shortly after the explosions because officials feared further blasts. Most were allowed to return several hours later.

Henry Cutler, 89, who lives next to the plant, said every window of his house was blown out. The first thing he heard was "a little whistling sound," he said, followed by a noise "just like a bomb."

★ ★ ★

Cutler's wife, ill with pneumonia, was covered with glass from the shattered windows but was unhurt, he said.

The identified dead were:

William Ganiglia, 35, of North Providence, R.I.

Gilbert Loranger of Seekonk, Mass.

Norman Girouard of Pawtucket, R.I.

Look for Survivors of Soviet Freighter

LONDON (AP) — A sea search was pressed today for crewmen of the 5,628-ton Soviet freighter Uman which sank off the coast of Portugal. Ten to 14 men were believed missing.

The 3,421 - ton German freighter Byblos said it had abandoned the search after picking up 23 survivors and was heading for Gibraltar.

The Byblos said the 5-year-old Soviet freighter sank early today midway between the southern tip of Portugal and Gibraltar.

★ ★ ★

The 24,496 - ton Italian liner Vulcania, en route from New York to Naples, radioed that it was searching for survivors. A squadron of U.S. Navy patrol planes at the U.S. Naval Air Base in Rota, Spain, were ordered to stand by in case their help was needed.

FAILS TO BLOCK SHOT — Defenseman Harry Howell of the New York Rangers falls to the ice in a futile attempt to block a shot by Detroit's Larry Jeffrey last night. But goalie Jacques Plante deflected the puck. Detroit won, 5-3.

More Goals Aid Wings' Playoff Bid

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's sudden spurt in goal production has enabled the Red Wings to open a seven-point bulge over New York in their race for the National Hockey League's final playoff position.

★ ★ ★

The Red Wings bowed to Chicago 6-3 Saturday night, but scored four straight goals Sunday to take a 5-3 decision over the fifth-place Rangers.

The Red Wings have scored 18 goals in their last four games while winning three of them.

The Rangers, who have started a five-game road trip, won four straight before taking the ice Sunday.

STREAK SNAPPED

Boston snapped an 11-game winless streak Sunday with a 6-3 triumph over Toronto after bowing to the Maple Leafs 3-1 Saturday night. Montreal downed Chicago 2-1 in Sunday's other game.

Gordie Howe scored two goals and assisted on a third to spearhead the Red Wings' victory over New York. He was hit on the forehead by a puck after scoring a first period goal, but showed no ill effects as he assisted on Eddie Joyal's tie-breaking tally early in the final period and netted his second with a little more than a minute remaining in the game.

★ ★ ★

The goals were Howe's 13th and 14th of the campaign—all of them coming on home ice.

The Rangers opened the scoring at 2:44 on Andy Bathgate's goal.

New York went two points ahead in the second period when Rod Gilbert scored at 6:14 and Earl Ingarfield tallied 17 seconds later.

But the Red Wings rallied later in the period and tied it again as Parker MacDonald scored at 13:04 and Pit Martin beat Ranger goalie Jacques Plante in the last minute of play.

FIRED 22 SHOTS

Joyal's marker came in another Detroit rally which continued through the period as the Red Wings sent 22 shots on the Ranger net.

Plante finished with 48 saves, 20 more than Sawchuk.

★ ★ ★

General Manager - Coach Sid Abel praised the Detroit effort and said "it's a lot better being seven points up than only three."

He added that despite Sawchuk's fine work in the nets, he would probably go with Roger Crozier at Boston Thursday and then start Sawchuk in Montreal Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

Johnny Bucky scored twice to lead Boston's victory over the Maple Leafs.

Toronto, which had lost only two of its previous 10 starts, jumped to an early lead on Bob Pulford's marker and tied the score at 2-2 when Dick Duff scored in the middle period.

Murray Oliver and Dean Prentice put the Bruins ahead to stay later in the middle period and Forbes Kennedy and Leo Boivin added tallies in the third period. George Armstrong notched Toronto's final goal

LONG DROUGHT

The triumph was only the second in the last 15 games for the last-place Bruins.

Bernie Geoffrion's goal midway through the second period proved to be the winner in Montreal's triumph over Chicago.

'Creeping Platoonism' Label Placed on Gridiron Sub Rule

By The Associated Press

Labeled "creeping platoonism" by Doug Weaver of Kansas State, college football's new, nearly unlimited substitution rule has received overwhelming approval from the country's coaches.

★ ★ ★

One vociferous exception is Auburn's Ralph Jordan who sees Sunday's development as "a sad day for intercollegiate football."

Paul Dietzel of Army and Ara Parseghian, recently named coach at Notre Dame, agree that the rule appears to be much more liberal than that of the past season.

'I LIKE IT'

"If this is true," Dietzel said, "I'm pleased about it. . .I like it very much."

"I'm pleased that they have gone as far as they have," Parseghian commented.

Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech was "delighted." "The closer to free substitution the better I like it," he declared.

★ ★ ★

The rule adopted by the NCAA Football Rules Committee in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., is the most liberal since free substitution went out after the 1952 season.

Under the new rule, entire teams may enter a game whenever the clock is stopped. If the clock is not stopped by an incomplete pass, measurement for a first down or a similar circumstance, and a team wants to send in a new platoon, it must give up a time out.

Two players may enter a game on any down when the clock is running.

CLOCK STOPPED

The 1963 rule permitted platoon substitutions only on second and third downs with the clock stopped. Two players could enter a contest at any time.

Jordan, declaring he is "utterly opposed to free substitution," said football "is out of the educational field and into the entertainment field."

Football, he added, "is now a game where coaches will strictly exploit the talent of a particular boy without having to particularly teach him anything."

Many coaches, however, feel two-way football will remain a part of the game.

★ ★ ★

"I think the rule change will help us quite a bit," said John McKay of Southern California. "In spring practice we'll try to develop boys who work both ways, then decide in the fall who will play mostly offense or defense.

"You are still going to have to have the boys ready to play a little offense and a little defense in case they get caught in there."

Charlie McClendon of Louisiana State, where Dietzel popularized the three-platoon system, said:

3-WAY SYSTEM

"It will still allow people—who wish to—to play two-way football. And it will enhance our chances to do a better job with our three-way team system."

"I know we will still use two-way players," Yale's John Pont said, "and I don't think you will see 11 substituting for 11 right away."

Bob Blackman of Dartmouth disagreed. ". . . I feel many schools will go almost completely to two platoons, with two staffs and separate practices," he said. "To do this, they'll have to guide the play to get the clock stopped. That might hurt the players and the spectators."

The question of strategy in stopping the clock when the ball changes hands also came up.

ROSM Trims Eaglets; Groves Edges Cranbrook

The Irish of Royal Oak St. Mary passed a basketball milestone Saturday evening in knocking off Orchard Lake St. Mary, 68-50.

The win marked the first time in more than 20 years that the Irish were able to defeat OLSM twice in one season. They turned the trick back in December, 65-44.

★ ★ ★

In a non-conference contest, Birmingham Groves halted Cranbrook's winning streak at four games and avenged an earlier defeat with a 38-36 triumph Saturday evening.

PAD LEAD

ROSM was never in trouble in handing the Eaglets their third loss of the season (3-3), and the win raised the Irish league mark to 8-0.

Don Wells sparked the Irish attack with 23 points followed by Doug Young and Tom Wagner with 16 each.

Frank Rompel paced the Eaglets with 17 markers.

OVERCOME DEFICIT

Groves overcame a 19-15 halftime deficit in halting Cranbrook and winning its second game of the season (2-5).

A 15-point spurt in the third quarter pushed Groves into a 30-27 lead at the start of the fourth quarter.

Cranbrook battled back to tie the game at 36-36, but Dennis Rafferty ended the game when he drove in for a layup with only seconds remaining.

Rafferty led the Groves attack with 12 points. Doug Fisher tossed in 13 for Cranbrook.

Shutouts Mark Play in Hockey League

Two shutouts were recorded in the opening games of Waterford Township hockey action Saturday.

Phil Ragatz scored twice as the Waterford Blades trimmed Lakeland Pharmacy, 10-0, in a senior division contest. Mike Hoskilla was in the nets for the winners.

★ ★ ★

In an intermediate game, Mountain View dumped Richardson Dairy, 3-0, with Mark Rose posting the shutout. Steve Parker bagged two goals for the winners.

★ ★ ★

Kettering Risks Unbeaten Mark

SPORTS

Captains, 5-0, Will Entertain Waterford, 1-4

Arch Rivals Eying 50 Trophy Points; Northern on Road

One of the top basketball records among local high schools will be at stake tomorrow night when Waterford visits arch rival Waterford Kettering.

The resumption of the big rivalry will find the home five sporting a 5-0 record, second only to Clarkston's 7-0 log.

Waterford's Skippers will enter the contest with one win and four straight defeats on their record; but they know their poor performances could be diminished in importance with an upset of the Captains.

Past records of the four games between the two indicate a plus factor for Waterford. The Skippers have won the first game each season against the Captains while losing the later decisions.

Both schools have a victory on the other's court. Kettering will have its team back from last year that topped the Skippers, 48-42, after dropping an earlier 48-45 verdict.

This includes the steller guards, Earl Hook and Rick Pankey, sharp shooting Bob Bogert at one forward, and Bill Graham teams with center Jim Nyberg to round out the front line.

Waterford has several returnees also from last year's squad. Rick Russ, Bill Lemaux, Chuck Swenson and Dick Miller are the principal regulars back. However, sophomore Rick Ziem has been the top scorer this season.

The game will have 50 points at stake in the competition for the All Sports Trophy. The Captains lead this year's race with victories in football and cross country for 200 points.

Waterford retained the cup last season but must get busy if it is to put up a fight to hold it another year.

OTHER GAMES

Pontiac Northern will be out to snap a two-game losing streak and to find a replacement for injured Dick DeWeese at forward when it journeys to Detroit Catholic Central Tuesday.

The Eastern Michigan League will have the busiest schedule tomorrow with six of the eight teams playing league games.

Topping the schedule are the four leading teams. Ferndale will travel to Hazel Park hoping to hand that quintet its second straight loss after five opening wins.

If that happens then Royal Oak Kimball will stand alone atop the race or four teams will be tied if Birmingham Seaholm should knock off the Knights at Royal Oak tomorrow.

The other EML game has East Detroit at Roseville with the visitors also in a position to tie for the lead should Hazel Park and Royal Oak Kimball both fall.

Other contests Tuesday will find Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows playing host to Orchard Lake St. Mary and Imlay City will visit Capac. Only the first contest is a league game.

East All-Stars Lose

NFL Case Favors West

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If the court please, counsel for the Western Conference of the National Football League wishes to offer a third exhibit in support of its claim to superiority over the Eastern Conference. It asks that this be marked Exhibit C and placed in evidence.

★ ★ ★

The jury will recall that Exhibit A was introduced Dec. 29. That was when the champion Chicago Bears of the Western Conference won the NFL title by defeating New York's Eastern Conference champions 14-10 at Chicago.

Exhibit B was the Playoff Bowl game at Miami Jan. 5. In that one the West's No. 2 team, Green Bay, scored a 40-23 victory over Cleveland, the Eastern Conference runner-up.

EXHIBIT C

Exhibit C is the NFL's 14th annual Pro Bowl game, played Sunday before a crowd of 67,242 and won by the Western Conference All-Stars 31-17.

The Western Conference submits that this sort of thing has been going on, almost without interruption, since 1957. It suggests that since that time the Eastern Conference has probably suffered more reverses than it has pulled in post-season games.

★ ★ ★

Of the last seven NFL title games, Western Conference teams have won six. In the Pro Bowl, the West has won six of the last eight.

STARS FOR WEST

Baltimore quarterback John Unitas threw two touchdown passes and Green Bay fullback Jim Taylor gained 98 yards rushing Sunday as the West scored its ninth Pro Bowl victory in 14 tries.

Unitas, for the third time in this series, was named Player of the Game. And Baltimore's retiring defensive end, Gino Marchetti, was named Lineman of the Game.

The West, ahead 14-3 at the half, ran its lead to 25 points early in the third period. First Jessee Whittenton of Green Bay intercepted a pass by Washington's Norm Snead and returned the ball 26 yards for a touchdown.

COGDILL SCORES

Bobby Mitchell of Washington fumbled returning the next kickoff and Herb Adderley of Green Bay recovered on the East 21. Unitas passed 14 yards to Mike Ditka of Chicago and, on third down, threw a five - yarder to Gail Cogdill of Detroit for a touchdown.

That made it 28-3 and the East was deceased.

Pontiac Baptist 11 Takes First Place

The Falcons of Pontiac Midwestern Baptist College took over first place in the Michigan Central Christian Association Saturday with an 85-74 triumph over Grace Bible College of Grand Rapids.

The win boosted the Pontiac school's league record to 4-0. Grace Bible holds second place with a 3-1 mark.

Larry Thompson paced the winners with 23 points with George Minton and Mike Montgomery also hitting double figures.

The Falcons will play host to Grand Rapids Bible Music School next Saturday at 7:30 p.m. on the Emmanuel Christian court.

Wall Wins at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Art Wall Jr., back in the tournament golf spotlight after his victory in the $30,000 San Diego Open, led the professional contingent Monday to one of his favorite shooting grounds.

★ ★ ★

That would be the Bing Crosby National this weekend, an event in which Wall tied for second a year ago and won in his last really big year in the golfing wars, 1959, when the famed Masters came his way.

The personable, rather retiring Wall returned to national attention Sunday when he polished off the opposition with a carefully-carved par 70, a 72-hole score of 274, six shots under par for the attractive, rolling par 35-35-70 Rancho Bernardo Country Club course.

Tony Lema finished with a rush—30 on the backside—and tied with Bob Rosburg at 276 for second. Rosburg had a 70.

This was Arthur Jonathon Wall Jr.'s first major victory since the 1960 Canadian Open.

Skaters Miss Goal at Home, on Road

By The Associated Press

Michigan's and Michigan State's hockey teams both traveled to Minnesota Saturday and both were beaten. Michigan Tech stayed home and lost.

Minnesota edged Michigan 6-5, protecting its one-goal margin by matching the Wolverines' four-goal surge in the final period.

Minnesota Duluth whipped Michigan State 6-1. The Spartans averted a shutout only with Mac Orme's goal with 39 seconds left.

Michigan Tech's Albert Holm scored in the third period to spoil Denver goalie Buddy Blom's shutout bid as Denver beat Tech 4-1.

Cage Game Postponed

Tuesday's basketball game between Walled Lake and West Bloomfield has been postponed because of the death of West Bloomfield team-member Jim Smith. The game will be replayed at a later date.

SATELLITE LAUNCHED — Cincinnati's Wayne Embry (15) loses his grip on the ball after colliding with Detroit's Bob Ferry (16) in last night's NBA game. Ray Scott (12) of the Pistons recovered the ball ahead of Cinci's Jerry Lucas (16). The Royals romped, 120-88.

Pistons Snowed Under by Cincinnati Quintet

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The crowd at last night's Cincinnati-Detroit National Basketball Association was held to 1,350 because of the heavy snowstorm in Cincinnati.

It's too bad the Piston's weren't snow out, too.

Cincinnati blasted Detroit, 120-88, behind their 1-2 punch of Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas.

Robertson poured in 34 points and Lucas added 25.

Cincinnati led only 28-24 and 54-44 at the end of the first two periods but turned the game into a complete rout in the second half.

The Pistons were outscored 31-24 and 35-20 in the last two periods as they slumped deeper into the western division cellar.

The Pistons are three games behind fourth place Baltimore and 11 behind third place San Francisco and the last playoff spot.

No Piston player managed more than 15 points — the total received by Bailey Howell. Bob Ferry was second "high" with 12.

Detroit now gets the next two days off for the all-star game before coming home Wednesday night to host San Francisco. It'll be the first time Wilt Chamberlain, all seven-feet of him, has ambled into town this season because of the erratic NBA schedule.

Jones Backed for Oklahoma Football Post

Petition by Players Urges Selection of Assistant Coach

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Dr. George L. Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma endorsed a players' petition Sunday night asking that line coach Gomer Jones be named to succeed Bud Wilkinson as head football coach.

Cross' action should boost the chances of Jones, also believed to be the choice of Wilkinson, who still is athletic director. Wilkinson resigned Saturday as head coach.

However, several members of the Board of Regents which will make the final decision, have said privately they would like to hire a coach from outside the present staff.

The petition urging the appointment of Jones was signed by 46 members of the squad who played under Wilkinson and who will be back for more competition. Freshmen and graduating seniors did not participate.

ALL BUT THREE

Team co-captain Newt Burton said all but two or three members of the squad who were out of town signed the petition.

"We feel we have as much interest in this thing as anybody and we're trying to go through the proper channels so the people in charge will know how we feel," Burton said.

Burton said the petition probably would be submitted to Cross today.

"I favor the desires said to be expressed by the players in the petition and I will favorably endorse it and send it immediately to the Regents' Athletic Committee if and when it is presented to me," Cross said.

★ ★ ★

The three members of the Regents' Athletic Committee said they didn't feel they should comment on the petition.

Jones, who will be 50 next month, served as line coach during the 17 years Wilkinson was coach. The former Ohio State lineman previously had served at John Carroll, Ohio State and Nebraska.

Jones, who has developed 10 All-America linemen at Oklahoma, has turned down several head coaching jobs at other schools but could be expected to accept the Oklahoma job if it is offered.

State Cage Teams Victorious

By The Associated Press

Things couldn't have gone better for the state's four major colleges Saturday as each turned in a basketball victory and two set school scoring records in the process.

★ ★ ★

Michigan won its second straight in the Big Ten and 11th in 12 starts, edging Purdue 77-70. Michigan State won its second in the league in three starts with a 107-103 triumph over Indiana.

Western Michigan got back on the right track in the Mid-American conference by downing Bowling Green 95-85, and Detroit showed no mercy in romping over tiny Western Ontario 115-43.

The scoring records were set by MSU and Detroit.

In MIAA action, league-leading Calvin thumped Adrian 104-75, Hope edged Olivet 68-65 and Alma joined the record - setting parade with a 110-67 pasting of Albion.

EASTERN WINS

President's Athletic Conference action saw John Carroll nip Wayne State 69-66 and Eastern Michigan hold on to edge Case Tech 46-44.

Michigan found Purdue troublesome, but pulled out its victory with 13 straight foul shots in the last six minutes of play. The score had been tied at halftime, 36-36.

★ ★ ★

Purdue outshot the Wolverines 30-27 from the floor, but got only 13 shots from the foul line and clicked on 10.

Bill Buntin's 23 points topped all scorers. Dave Schellhase got 20 to pace Purdue.

★ ★ ★

The Wolverines compensated for their poor shooting from the floor by outrebounding Purdue 55-41.

Michigan State's triumph over Indiana was its fifth straight on its home court, and the Spartans have scored over 100 points in all of them.

The 107 points scored was one better than the old school record set against Wisconsin just last week.

★ ★ ★

MSU, which held a 53-52 halftime edge, had seven men in double figures with Fred Thomann high with 20. Thomann sparked the Spartans' early rally by netting 11 of their first 13 points in five minutes of play.

Steve Redenbaugh led all scorers with 27 points, while the Van Arsdale twins — Tom and Dick — each had 23 for Indiana.

Western Michigan's Manny Newsom held on to his national scoring leadership with 39 points against Bowling Green. The No. 2 man in scoring, BG's Howard Komives, had 42. Newsome leads in scoring percentage because of fewer games played.

★ ★ ★

Western pulled to an early lead and was never headed. The Broncos held a 20-point lead at one point.

TEAM SHAKEUP

It was WMU's first game since a team shakeup in which three players were dropped from the squad, including No. 2 scorer Bill Street.

Detroit not only set a school record, but recorded its biggest victory margin in history with the 72-point bulge over Western Ontario.

Diddle One-Man Club

Iba, Rupp Nearing '700' Membership

By The Associated Press

Hank Iba can catch Adolph Rupp tonight on the way to Ed Diddle's Club, an exclusive organization which has 700 prerequisites.

Diddle, basketball coach at Western Kentucky currently is the board of directors and the entire membership of college basketball's 700 - victory club. But Iba and Rupp are just about ready to have their applications processed.

Iba can make it 696 victories in a 35-year career if his Oklahoma State Cowboys, co-leaders of the Big Eight Conference, defeat Kansas State tonight. That would move Iba into a tie with Rupp, whose 34 Kentucky teams also have won 696 games. Diddle, the dean, has 755 victories.

Both unranked Oklahoma State and Kentucky, second-ranked in the nation, improved their records on a form-filled Saturday night program — the first this season in which not one member of the Top Ten came out without a victory.

TIE FOR FIRST

Oklahoma State rode Gary Hassman's 20 - point performance to a 67-56 triumph over Oklahoma, a 10-3 over-all record and a tie with Nebraska for the Big Eight lead at 2-0. A victory against Kansas State tonight will give the Cowboys undisputed possession of first place.

Cotton Nash's 34 points triggered a Kentucky offense that ripped Tulane 105-63, brought the Wildcats' record to 12-2 and left them with a 2-2 Southeastern Conference mark. Kentucky next meets Tennessee, leading he SEC with a 3-0 record.

Besides Kentucky, eight other members of the Top Ten were in action Saturday—and all won. Third-ranked Loyola of Chicago took the night off.

Top-ranked UCLA and fifth ranked Davidson, along with DePaul the only remaining major college unbeatens, had difficulty before subduring stubborn foes.

★ ★ ★

But DePaul, bidding for a national ranking, ran its record to 11-0 by running over Portland 111-83.

13TH STRAIGHT

UCLA won its 13th straight behind Gail Goodrich's 23 points and fought off a late bid beating Southern California 78-71. Davidson overcame a six-point deficit behind Barry Teague and Charlie Marcon and made Virginia its 12th victim, 64-62.

Hills' Skater Wins Skating Championship

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tim Wood of Bloomfield Hills won the junior men's figure skating championship here Saturday night.

Only senior champions and the two and three finishers in senior skating earned Olympic berths.

Leading the men's contingent is the youngest U. S. national champion ever, 14-year-old Scott Ethan Allen of Smoke Rise, N. J.

The women's division will be led by freckle-faced Peggy Fleming, 15, of Pasadena, Calif.

New Leftists Start in July

Partly Wants to Fight Premier's Coalition

ROME (AP) — A new far-left Socialist party began life today with the aim of fighting Premier Aldo Moro's center-left coalition government.

But creation of the Italian Socialist party of Proletarian Unity likely will be more help than hindrance for Moro's Christian Democrats and Pietro Nenni's Socialists.

The Proletarian-Unity members are Nenni party left-wing rebels who broke away yesterday under Tullio Vecchietti. They acted in protest against Socialist entry with the Christian Democrats into an Italian government supporting NATO.

★ ★ ★

The Socialists had been out of the government 16 years when Nenni became Moro's deputy premier last month.

NEW PARTY

Over the weekend, 700 dissidents, including 25 deputies and 12 senators, who were suspended from the party for refusing to vote parliamentary confidence in the government, met in Rome and set up the new party.

Vecchietti, 49, was elected secretary. He is a Roman who was a member of the wartime resistance, a journalist and served as a Socialist party director during 10 years as a deputy in Parliament.

In Turin, leftist rebels occupied the party offices in the north Italian industrial city, then agreed to evacuate them providing the loyalists did not take possession.

Both sides agreed to meet later today to split up the desks, chairs, files, etc.

MINORITY RULE

In many towns where coalitions of Socialists and Christian Democrats govern, the defection was likely to put municipal governments into a minority, possibly opening the way for Communist-Socialist rebel coalitions.

The new opposition party could take Christian Democrat right-wing pressure off Moro, whose rightists have long resisted Socialist party participation in the government.

Britain Warns War May Come Over Malaysia

SINGAPORE, Malaysia (AP)—Indonesian raids on Malaysian territory on Borneo Island could lead to a full scale war, British Defense Minister Peter Thorneycroft said Sunday.

Speaking to newsmen before his departure for London, Thorneycroft said a peaceful solution must be found to solve the issue.

"Otherwise, it will escalate into a full scale war," he said.

Relations Restored by U.A.R., Jordan

CAIRO (AP)—Jordan and the United Arab Republic have agreed to restore diplomatic relations, informed sources said early today.

The sources said President Abdel Gamal Nasser and King Hussein of Jordan agreed to resume relations Sunday at a two-hour conference.

★ ★ ★

The U.A.R. broke off relations with Jordan in 1961 after Jordan recognized the Syrian regime which had pulled out of the U.A.R. after three years of unity.

Officials Open Cyprus Talks

Hope to Bring Peace to Strife-Torn Island

LONDON (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler and Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys met today with Turkish Foreign Minister Feridun Cemal Erikin in a cautious opening move to restore peace and stability to Cyprus.

Their conference opened negotiations which the British hope will produce a formula enabling the feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities to live in peace.

Butler and Sandys were to meet later today with Greek Foreign Minister Christos Xanthopolous-Palamas.

★ ★ ★

The Cyprus dispute presents Britain, Greece and Turkey with the need to prevent the island's troubles from rupturing the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, to which all three nations belong. In this context, Cyprus also is important to Washington, and every other NATO capital.

U.N. INVOLVEMENT

British policy seemed to be moving toward involvement of the United Nations in a Cyprus settlement.

The British do not want their troops endlessly employed in keeping the two islnd communities apart—a role British troops have been filling since fighting between the two communities began last month.

Cyprus has an area of 3,572 square miles and a population of just under 600,000, 20 per cent Turkish-speaking, 80 per cent Greek-speaking.

★ ★ ★

The Greek Cypriots want to amend the island republic's constitution to remove the Turkish community's veto over legislation. The Turkish Cypriots contend that rights guaranteed to them by the constitution are threatened by the majority.

PARTITION SUGGESTED

Turkish Cypriots have suggested partition of the island, a solution opposed by the Greek-speaking majority.

Butler and Sandys will entertain the Greek and Turkish foreign ministers at lunch tomorrow.

The first research laboratories to be organized by any good trade group were set up in 1913 by the National Canners Association.

Film Exec One of Hollywood New Breed

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Forty years ago, a Los Angeles boy used to be taken by his father to do gymnastics on Santa Monica Boulevard.

THOMAS

One day they got the attention they were seeking. Douglas Fairbanks saw the boy and hired him to teach tumbling to Doug Jr. The youthful coach was working out at the movie lot when Director Ernst Lubitsch tabbed him to play a choirboy in "Rosita" with Mary Pickford.

★ ★ ★

That was Mike Frankovich's first movie job. Today he occupies the office of the late Harry Cohn as chief of Columbia Picture's worldwide film making.

In the intervening years, Mike has done about everything in the film business, from writing serials to acting as bodyguard for J. L. Warner during a movie strike. So it's only natural that he would slide easily behind the desk he assumed at the first of the year.

"I'm optimistic about the film business," he said. "I feel sure we're going to get our heads above water again.

"The problem is not getting people to go to movies; they're doing that now. The main difficulty is that pictures cost too darned much. I'll pay anything for a good story, and I don't mind paying the truly creative people what they're worth. But some of the others have got to make their prices more realistic. They've got to share some of the risk with us."

★ ★ ★

Frankovich is a prime example of the new era movie executives who have followed in the wake of empire builders like Cohn and Louis B. Mayer. He is a deal-maker, and was well schooled in the rough and tumble of European film making.

"I first went over there to make an Italian picture which I thought was all set," he said. "When I got there, I found nothing had been arranged at all."

WHEELING, DEALING

He soon learned the wheeling and dealing of independent production.

In 1955 he became head of Columbia's European operation and helped oversee such projects as "The Guns of Navarone" and "Lawrence of Arabia." Then came the call to return to Hollywood.

It was a tough decision for him and his wife, actress Binnie Barnes, he said. They were influenced by the fact that their married daughter and grandchild live here. They also have a son studying in Oregon and another as assistant director on "Lord Jim" in Cambodia.

★ ★ ★

Frankovich, 53, was quarterback at UCLA. It was there that he made his first real plunge into film making, acting as player and technical adviser on football pictures. He was aided by his close relationship with Joe E. Brown.

"I used to play on Joe's baseball team and I was often around his house," Mike said. "They'd have me stay with the kids when they went on trips. Once they went to the Orient for three months. When they came back, Joe Jr. cried because he didn't want me to leave. I stayed with the Browns for eight years, off on on."

★ ★ ★

ACLU Seeks Talks With Mrs. Oswald

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A Dallas official of the American Civil Liberties Union says his group will continue efforts to talk to Marina Oswald, although she stated in a letter she is satisfied with her seclusion and Secret Service protection.

★ ★ ★

Greg Olds, president of the Dallas chapter of the ACLU, said his group wants to interview the widow of the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy "to see that her rights are being observed."

Lee Harvey Oswald, Marina's husband, charged with killing Kennedy, was shot down himself two days later.

Mrs. Oswald and her two daughters live at an undisclosed spot in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

More and more London clubs are admitting female guests into certain areas, usually the dining rooms, of their hushed chambers.

The grunion, a slender fish, averaging five to six inches in length, exists only in the waters off southern California.

Is Democratic Convention Realignment Too Bulky?

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic party has taken a big step toward solving one of its convention problems, that of proportionate representation. But another problem has, if anything, been aggravated.

The party began back in 1952 to ignore the fact that some states were growing and others were losing population. The result: some smaller states had a disproportionately loud voice in the convention.

There were two says to correct this situation — take votes away from some states or give votes to others. The first seemed too painful. So Saturday the Democratic National Committee approved a vote allocation formula for the 1964 convention which recognizes both population and zeal for the party — and greatly increases the number of votes to be cast.

★ ★ ★

But the other problem, size of the convention, is thornier than ever. To cast the 2,316 votes authorized for the August convention, the committee approved a total of 3,056 delegates and 2,208 alternates.

FLOATING AROUND

This means that about 5,264 of them will be floating around Atlantic City's mammoth Convention Hall compared with 4,509 four years ago at Los Angeles. As usual at Democratic conventions, most of them will be casting only one-half of a vote.

By contrast, the Republican convention in San Francisco will have only 1,308 delegates, to cast a like number of votes. Another 1,308 alternates are authorized, meaning that physically the GOP convention will be about half as large as the Democratic conclave.

Democratic leaders say they don't mind. The additional alternates and delegates give them more openings to spread among the party faithful. But convention floor managers may be gnashing their teeth come next August.

HOW IT WORKS

Here's how the vote allocation formula works:

Each state will get three convention votes for each electoral vote. Since the Electoral College is based mostly on population, this helps solve the representation problem.

★ ★ ★

Likewise, each state gets a convention vote for every 100,000 Democratic votes cast in 1960. Thus bigger states with more voters will benefit.

Furthermore, each state voting the Kennedy-Johnson ticket in 1960 will get a bonus of 10 votes.

By and large, the northeastern industrial states gained the most at the expense of Great Plains, Rocky Mountain and Southern states.

The tier of states from Illinois eastward through Maryland and north through New England jumped from 41.2 per cent of the convention votes four years ago to 44.1 per cent this year.

Conversely, the tier of Plains states from North Dakota through Texas and westward—but excluding Alaska, Hawaii and the Pacific Coast states — will be down from 18.3 per cent of the convention votes to 15.4 per cent.

★ ★ ★

The 11 Southern states, counting Kentucky, will be down from 21.1 per cent to 19.7 per cent of the convention strength.

Some states made big gains. Hawaii, for instance, jumped from 9 votes to 25, a 177 per cent increase. Other big gainers are Connecticut, 21 to 43 votes, 109 per cent; Delaware 11 to 22 and Maryland 24 to 48, 100 per cent; California 81 to 154, 90 per cent, and New Jersey 41 to 77, 88 per cent.

At the other end were Montana and Wyoming. Neither gained a single vote. Oklahoma went from 29 to 30 votes, up 3 per cent. Mississippi, Maine, Kentucky and Colorado all gained less than 10 per cent.

Small Town Hosts 500 in Storm

NEOGA, Ill. (AP) — This little central Illinois community of 1,200 residents was bulging today with some 500 unexpected guests — motorists stranded by a snowstorm.

"We have them bedded down all over the place," said Dean Swengel, Neoga fire chief. "Some are staying at the Masonic Lodge and some are in the basement of the Methodist Church. But mostly they're staying in homes.

"There's hardly a place in Neoga that hasn't got somebody staying with them."

It all started Sunday afternoon when U. S. 45, a main North-South highway became blocked north of Neoga.

JUST PILED UP

"Folks just kept piling up here," said Dexter Greeson, a former Neoga mayor. "We opened up the churches and the American Legion Hall and the Masonic Lodge.

"People around town brought food over to the churches to feed everybody. Then they'd invite as many as they could back home with them. Some people had to stay in the churches, though, because there just wasn't enough room in the homes.

"An Illinois Central train came through and took a lot of them out that way. That helped. Otherwise, we would have had people staying in cars.

★ ★ ★

"I never realized so many people used that highway on Sunday."

The state police said U. S. 45 was still blocked by snow drifts four and five feet high. It was not known when the road would be cleared.

"Connecticut Will Glitter If You Don't Litter" is a widely-used anti-litter slogan in the nutmeg state.

Special Programs Aid Average Learner

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.

The question often is asked, "Are we neglecting the great body of average students by centering our attention on the gifted and on the slow learners?"

Fortunately, the average student eventually does reap benefits from such attention.

Many of the programs of individual study, released class time, special reporting projects and community projects originally designed for gifted students, have been found to work equally well for the average group.

Educators are just beginning to realize materials written for slow learners can be beneficial to all.

★ ★ ★

The average student finds his approach to the standard textbook eased through use of "slow learner" materials as an introduction to each new phase of the subject.

SPEEDED PROCESS

This background for listening in class and mastering the textbook material speeds up the learning process.

Materials written for the slow learner omit anything which would detract from the student's grasp of the overall ideas. The student's learning problems take precedence over detailed coverage to a much greater extent than is possible in a standard textbook.

The usual high school textbook in American history is a good example. It is packed with valuable information. However, students find it difficult to get a preview of each section to serve as background for organization of material and for efficient class listening.

★ ★ ★

DR. NASON

A new series of pamphlets, "American History Study Lessons," has been written by Dr. Jack Abromowitz to meet these needs. The series is published by Follett Publishing Co., Chicago, Ill.

These pamphlets describe the flow of American history in broad terms. Included are simple maps which serve all students, slow learners and average as well, as memory devices. The student can visualize on the map where an event took place.

The simplified version leaves room for more pictures. These can be useful since events are better remembered when dramatized in the student's mind.

Time lines are described and illustrated. This device used by college history majors, is just as valuable for the average student as for the slow learner.

When high school and college students read the appropriate pamphlet before reading each section of their textbook, they report greater enjoyment in reading, and greater success in organizing and remembering material.

★ ★ ★

Before a student can assimilate the details of any subject, he must have in his mind a relatively simple outline of the topic.

As more materials for the slow learner become available they will meet a hitherto unsupplied need of the average and gifted student.

(You can get Prof. Nason's helpful booklet by sending $1 to "Better Grades," Box 2160, General Post Office, New York City.)

Opening lead—♦ 2

The late Louis Watson once conceived the idea of making a fortune by offering to listen to any bridge story for one dollar and to express sympathy if given a double fee.

JACOBY

I was reminded of that when West came to me with his hard luck story. He started by telling me his hand and asking, "Everyone vulnerable. Your partner opens one spade. Second hand bids two hearts. What do you do?"

Before I could reply he gave me all the bidding up to his double of seven hearts and said, "Naturally, I led my deuce of clubs.

"South's ace pickled my partner's king. South drew trumps, finessed against my partner's jack of clubs and made his contract. Do you think I am the unluckiest player in the world?"

He paused for breath and I made a reply that probably made me a mortal enemy. The reply was, "No. But your partner may well be."

My full sympathy goes out to poor East and I am sure even Watson would have failed to charge for sympathy had East come to him for condolences.

East picked up a beautiful hand and bid it right up to six spades. He would have had no trouble making it, but South went to seven hearts whereupon West doubled and picked out the one opening lead that gave South the contract.

Of course, had West made his normal spade lead, South might still have guessed the club situation, but the chances are that he would have taken a simple finesse and gone down two tricks.

East and West still would not have been happy, but at least they would have shown a profit rather than a 2,470-point loss.

Q—You, South, open the bidding with:
♠ A K Q J 9 7 3 2 ♥ 2 ♦ 3 ♣ 8 6 4
What is your bid?

A—Bid four spades. You have eight sure tricks and no defense against your opponents in case your partner holds a bad hand.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner raises to five spades. What do you do now?

Arabs Ousted on Africa Isle

Nationals Take Over in Zanzibar Violence

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanganyika (AP) — Shooting and looting were reported today on Zanzibar, newest member of the British Commonwealth whose Arab government was overthrown by African nationalists.

The ousted sultan, Seyyid Jamshid Bin Abdulla, was believed to be fleeing up the coast in his yacht, leaving the Spice Island republic in the hands of his political foes after yesterday's coup.

Frederick P. Picard, U.S. consul in Zanzibar, said by telephone the situation is still delicate and he is trying to get 21 U. S. women and children removed from the island off Africa's East Coast.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department said today it was informed that the destroyer Manley had put into Zanzibar and launched a small boat to begin removing Americans from the island.

SATELLITE STATION

There are 57 Americans stationed at a tracking station for the Project Mercury satellite program.

They appeared in no immediate danger, but Picard told the U. S. Embassy in Dar Es Salaam he wanted to get the dependents on the destroyer Manley cruising off shore.

Authority for the Manley to dock was being sought from Washington by consular officials. They feared there might be repercussions if the destroyer docked.

The rebel government has declared a state of emergency and warned all ships to keep clear of Zanzibar's territorial waters.

The report of the latest shootings, described as sporadic, came from Picard over a telephone line that is one of the few communication links still open out of Zanzibar.

Grains Are Steady; Soybeans Weaken

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures weakened under moderate selling pressure but the grains held generally steady to firm today in rather quiet early transactions on the board of trade.

A good deal of the soybean weakness was ascribed to the government report after the close of trading on Friday which showed soybeans stocks of 261.6 million bushels still remaining on farms on Jan. 1. That figure compared with 220 million a year ago.

After about an hour wheat was ⅛ to ¾ cent a bushel higher, March $2.22⅝; soybeans 2⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, January $2.73¾, corn ¼ lower to ¼ higher, March $1.20¾; oats unchanged to ⅛ higher, March 72 cents; rye ¾ to 1½ higher, March $1.53½.

Competition Keen

Interest Levels Eyed

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Commercial banks are wondering if interest rates must go up again if they're to hold their quota of savings accounts. Right now, they're slipping a bit.

DAWSON

This month is dedicated to paying, or at least pondering, the Christmas bills. So banks are resigned to having their savings account volume likely to fall. Recovering lost ground is the question mark.

This year the competition is rougher than ever—and from some different angles than a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Consumers have been spending more, for one thing, and saying they plan to spend still more for the things for which they have to borrow as well as make down payments. Some of them apparently are running low on cash, since delinquent loans have risen in volume, although about normally for the season.

A buoyant stock market also is a rival of the banks for any dollars the public has left over after meeting the pressing bills.

HIGHER RATES

Other types of savings institutions have been tempting those who do save by offering higher interest rates than commercial banks may legally do.

Even the U.S. Treasury's savings bond drive is bringing in the most sales in seven years, although there has been considerable talk of the need to raise the interest on these if they are to compete in today's market.

Under federal regulations, the commercial bank interest rates are limited to 3½ per cent for the first year of deposit and 4 per cent thereafter. This is now being paid in most sections of the nation.

Savings banks' rates, however, have gone above this. In New York many now pay 4¼ per cent in the first year of deposit.

WEST COAST

Savings and loan associations often pay still higher returns, especially on the West Coast.

Home mortgage returns are traditionally higher than any of these, but attract the larger investor rather than those the banks cater to.

★ ★ ★

Competition for savings may take on a new aspect if the federal tax cut goes through. There will be more take-home pay—maybe only a little more in individual paychecks, but a sizable national total. How much of this is spent and how much saved will be up the consumers, but they'll have plenty of advice from salesmen and bankers.

★ ★ ★

If the additional money boosts business activity as hoped, savings will pay a role in providing funds for investment and expansion. If the rise is more than a boomlet, interest rates might easily climb—both what lenders can get from borrowers because of the increased demand for loans, and also what the savers can get from institutions looking for funds to lend out at the more lucrative rates.

★ ★ ★

This in turn could add pressure to the move to seek relief from the mixture of federal and state regulations that govern the operations of the savings and lending institutions.

Police Say Phone Calls Were Phony

TROY, N.Y. (UPI)—A Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute student was under arrest today for making fraudulent long distance telephone calls through an electronic device he allegedly developed to bypass telephone company equipment.

Michael T. Spencer, 19, Franklin, Mich., was scheduled for a hearing today in Troy police court on a charge of illegal use of a telephone.

Spencer, an engineering student, was arrested Saturday after officials of the Troy district of the New York Telephone Co. became aware that fraudulent calls were being made.

Richard Merriman, manager of the district, described the device as an electronic "box."

BYPASSED EQUIPMENT

Merriman said the device allowed a caller to "partially bypass" company equipment when making long distance telephone calls through direct dialing.

He said the bypass "did not create a proper charge" to allow the company to bill the caller.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We wish to provide a fund for our grandchildren. We would like to give them from our own holdings one share of stock on each of their birthdays until they are 21. We now own Sterling Drug General Telephone, Cooper Tire, and Pure Oil. In your opinion, which of these should we utilize for this purpose?" M.F.

I would give them shares from your best growth holdings — which can expand in value over the years ahead. In this category, I would place Sterling Drug first, and General Telephone second.

Sterling has had a long and consistent growth rate, and General Telephone has been developing one since 1961. Cooper Tire is a good small company in a group which is showing earnings gains this year but is subject to cyclical changes. Pure Oil has shown no growth over the past decade.

Q. "I am 50 years old and have $25,000 cash. I would like to buy 1,000 shares of ANelex Corp., selling around 23. I believe this stock could be a small I.B.M. Do you agree?" J.D.

A. I like ANelex, which is the largest independent producer of high-speed printers, for use with computers. It does not make computers, as I.B.M. does, and I don't believe the two issues are at all comparable.

ANelex is quite small but has developed an excellent growth rate. I believe it is an attractive purchase where some speculative risk can be assumed.

Whether or not you should buy 1,000 shares — which would require about $25,000 — depends on what other capital assets you own. If this amount represents most of your principal, I would adhere faithfully to the rule of safe diversification.

Put no more in ANelex, or any other stock, than you can afford to lose. All stocks — including those I like — have a measure of risk.

Drive to Cut Litter Gets Very Litter-ary

NEW YORK (AP)—Catchy slogans, rhymes and even songs are being employed to fight litter in all sections of the country, in a campaign spearheaded by Keep America Beautiful, Inc., the national antilitter organization with headquarters here.

Connecticut's "Glitter, Don't Litter" educational program has cut highway and roadside clean-up costs in that state from $400,000 in the 1961-62 fiscal year to less than $150,000 in 1962-63.

Visitors to the Bluegrass territory are reminded not to litter through posters and booklets imprinted with "Kentucky's Beauty—Everyone's Duty."

★ ★ ★

Songwriter Thelma Matesky has written "The Big Sweep Song," "Don't Litter Our Land!" and "A-Tisket, A-Tasket, A Corner Litter Basket" for school and community use.

GOP Sets Up District Group

15 Picked to Plan for Congress Campaign

Republicans in Oakland and Livingston counties have set up a temporary organization for the new 19th Congressional District, Oakland County GOP Chairman Charles L. Lyle announced today.

A joint subcommittee of 15 members was formed to establish a working relationship between the two parties in conducting party business concerning congressional candidates and elections in the district.

Lyle said he named the 10 Oakland County members of the subcommittee after consulting with city and township GOP directors in the county's part of the 19th district.

★ ★ ★

Five subcommittee members from Livingston County were appointed by that county's GOP chairman, Charles Ward.

EX-OFFICIO

Both county chairmen will serve ex-officio on the subcommittee, which will select party officers for the district.

The organization of the district was accomplished according to plans by the GOP to keep party power and finances concentrated at the county level instead of transferring them to the district.

State law makes the district organization the base unit for political organization in counties having two or more congressional districts.

But it's uncertain whether this applies to the local situation in which Oakland has all the 18th district but only part of the 19th.

GAINED IN CENSUS

The 19th — gained by Michigan as a result of the 1960 census — contains the northern and western parts of Oakland and all of Livingston.

Mail Pilot Succumbs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — C. N. (Jimmy) James, 65, who in 1926 piloted the first mail plane into Los Angeles, died Saturday in his sleep. James, one of the original four pilots of Western Air Express, made the first mail run from Salt Lake City on April 17 of that year. In later years he became vice president in charge of operations for Western Air Lines and, since 1950 head of his own firm of security guards.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Lump in Breast Not Necessarily Cancer

Q — I am a 31-year-old housewife. I have had a lump in my breast for seven years and I worry constantly about cancer.

My doctor tells me that I have mastitis and that I'll always have the lump but I recently read that all lumps in the breast become cancerous. Is that true?

★ ★ ★

A — Your doctor is right. All lumps in the breast do not become cancerous. Furthermore, any lump that has been present for seven years is not a cancer.

This does not mean that you shouldn't have a physical checkup once a year. Worry will neither cause nor prevent cancer. Let your doctor do the worrying for you

Q — I have a small skin cancer. My doctor says it isn't necessary to do anything about it yet. Isn't it always best to treat a cancer early?

A — If your lesion is definitely cancer, it should be removed at once, but I suspect that what your doctor found was one of those lesions that are classed as precancerous or cancer precursors.

In that case, he would be right to watch it for a while.

Q — I had my uterus removed when I was 51. Is it necessary for me to have a routine pelvic and breast checkup for cancer the way I did before the operation?

★ ★ ★

A — You should continue to have annual checkups because cancer sometimes recurs in the tissues adjacent to the uterus that was removed or in the breast after a hysterectomy.

Q — Why is it much easier for some persons to cry than for others? I can't cry, but I envy those who can.

★ ★ ★

A — Were any of your ancestors American Indians?

Among the Indians, the cry of a child might reveal to an enemy the location of a place of safety. So crying had to be suppressed throughout life.

In our own society, crying is strongly discouraged in children in some families, especially in boys. Such persons rarely develop a pattern of crying in later life.

In other persons, there exists an inability to sympathize with another person or to imagine oneself in another's place. Such persons would see no reason to cry unless their own body was injured or their own wishes were thwarted.

USEFUL PURPOSE

Crying does serve a useful purpose in that it releases emotions which, when pent up, might eventually result in high blood pressure of a personality defect.

Await Hospital Reactions to Psychiatric Clinic Plan

Oakland County's new Community Mental Health Board today was waiting to hear from general hospitals in the area to learn if they are interested in having psychiatric outpatient clinics.

The board has sent written requests to Pontiac General Hospital and William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak.

Friday, the board agreed to make the same request of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac and of the new Providence Hospital currently under construction in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the board's earlier consideration of establishing the county's first outpatient clinic at Pontiac State Hospital is being held in abeyance.

TWO REASONS

Board Chairman Paul N. Averill said there are two reasons why general hospitals would be preferred locations for the proposed clinics.

County funds would be hard to keep track of, once expended at the state hospital which serves several counties, he said.

The other reason quoted was that persons would be more likely to seek psychiatric help at a general hospital than at the state hospital.

★ ★ ★

The proposed outpatient clinics are intended to encourage mentally ill persons to seek early treatment so that they won't have to be committed.

ENTIRE PROBLEM

The board was urged Friday by Clare Gates of the United Community Services not to limit its interest to outpatient clinics alone, but to tackle the over-all problem of mental health.

The problem includes need for increasing clinical treatment of emotionally disturbed children and facilities for care and education of mentally retarded youngsters, he said.

The United Community Services has agreed to provide the mental health board with direct staff assistance to perfect the local program.

★ ★ ★

The board also is considering hiring a full-time program director. It hasn't decided yet whether he should by a psychiatrist.

In other action, the 12-member board agreed to dispatch four of its members to New York City Jan. 23 for a two-day study of a community mental health program in action.

Dry Ice Inhibits Mold on Berries

NEW YORK (AP) — The frigid temperature of dry ice, -110 degrees Fahrenheit, makes it valuable for refrigerating perishable foods but that isn't why it is used to keep California strawberries fresh on 3,000-mile trips to the East Coast, says Cardox Division of Chemstron Corp.

★ ★ ★

Chunks of the ice packed into the berry-loaded boxcars vaporize into odorless, nontoxic carbon dioxide gas which inhibits growth of fruit - destroying molds by excluding oxygen necessary for their growth.

★ ★ ★

About $35 worth of dry ice protects a $5,000 shipment of strawberries.

Fatal Shot Ruled an Accident

Redford State Police today closed the case on Friday's fatal shooting of a 38-year-old Farmington Township construction worker. Detective Lt. Melvin Kaufman called it "an accident and a drunken brawl."

Charles Ryder, formerly of Montana, was living at the Wayside Cabins, 31795 Nine Mile.

He died from a pistol shot in the head during a drinking session with a companion, George B. Rodges, 30, of Clarksdale, Miss., who had also been staying at the cabins.

★ ★ ★

Police said Ryder called a cab Friday night, about 9:30 p.m. When the cab driver appeared at the cabin door, Rodges said "we'll be right out."

RAN SHOUTING

A few minutes later Rodges ran out shouting that Ryder had shot himself.

Rodges submitted to a lie detector test this morning and was then released.

Kaufman said police investigation showed Ryder was "always fooling with the gun," a 45-caliber pistol, and that there was no indication of intentional suicide.

★ ★ ★

He said Ryder was making shooting motions with his fingers even while phoning for the cab.

Robs Wrong Guy; He's a Policeman

A 23-year-old man has been charged with the armed robbery of a Pontiac police officer.

Patrolman Norman Kilmer, 23, was accosted by three men while driving in the Bagley-Wesson area Saturday night.

After they took his wallet and started to run, Kilmer pulled his service revolver and ordered them to halt. Only one stopped.

★ ★ ★

Charged is Robert Miles of 506 S. Paddock. Miles is expected to be arraigned on the charge today.

Can't Live in States

Bride Allowed Visit to U.S.

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — A former Hungarian Air Force pilot who married his German sweetheart in Windsor Saturday is allowed to take his new bride to his Toledo, Ohio, home for just one month.

Erny Nagy, 28, married Erika Wczowicz, 21, in Windsor because she could not enter the United States. Then U. S. officials allowed the new Mrs. Nagy to visit Toledo for one month.

POLAND RESIDENT

She cannot officially take up residence in the United States because she lived in a section of Germany which now is considered a part of Poland. Residents of Poland are not eligible to enter the United States.

Nagy met his bride while serving with the U. S. Army in Germany. He joined the Army after his escape from Hungary during the 1956 revolt.

Canadian authorities have told Mrs. Nagy she could spend three months in Windsor. She arrived here Dec. 30.

Dirksen Has Doubts on Current Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

DIRKSEN: Congressional approval of tax reduction and civil rights legislation has been forecast by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

But the Illinois Republican said he had grave doubts that the civil rights bill now pending in the House Rules Committee can win approval in its present form.

★ ★ ★

Appearing Sunday on a taped radio-television program with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., Dirksen recalled he had told the late President John F. Kennedy he could not go along with the controversial section to desegregate such public accommodations as privately owned hotels, motels and restaurants.

★ ★ ★

He said there were others who shared his view that the provision should call for voluntary desegregation and added he thought it would be difficult to get support of two-thirds of those voting to stop the certain Southern filibuster against the bill.

Dirksen said he believes the House-passed tax cut bill will be approved in time to be made retroactive to Jan. 1.

MANSFIELD - AID: Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says he favors retaining the Agency for International Development but thinks foreign military aid should be put under the Defense Department.

★ ★ ★

The Montana Democrat said in an interview Saturday he formerly favored putting all foreign economic assistance under the State Department "but times have changed and so have my views on the subject." He didn't elaborate.

A special commission headed by Undersecretary of State George W. Ball is reviewing the entire structure of the foreign aid program. It is scheduled to make its report on Wednesday.

FEDERAL SPENDING: Six Republican members of the Senate-House Economic Committee plan to sponsor legislation for a two-year study of federal spending policies.

Bills to be introduced in both houses of Congress would establish a bipartisan commission, including congressmen, representatives of the executive branch and private citizens from business, labor and the professions.

★ ★ ★

The commission would be directed to study and make recommendations on possibilities of turning some federal functions over to the private economy or state or local government, charging of fees for some government special services, spending priorities among government programs and improvement of budgetary processes.

Plans for the legislation were announced Saturday by Sens. Jacob K. Javits of New York, Jack Miller of Iowa and Len B. Jordan of Idaho, and Reps. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri, Clarence E. Kilburn of New York and William B. Widnall of New Jersey.

MCCLELLAN-CRIME: Chairman John L. McClellan plans to resume in March the inquiry into organized crime by his Senate Investigations subcommittee.

The Arkansas Democrat said the hearings would help in the consideration of legislation to deal with crime. Hearings last fall made headlines as mobster Joseph Valachi detailed activities of the "Cosa Nostra" crime syndicate.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS — Alabama Gov. George Wallace gestures at an audience in San Francisco last night, where he said GOP presidential contender Sen. Barry Goldwater, Arizona, could conceivably carry Alabama in 1964. Behind Wallace is Thomas Berkley, attorney and publisher of the Post, a weekly Oakland, Calif., paper.

Diver Has Shark's Tooth

Proof of Brush With Death

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — John Rochette, a 21-year-old skin diver, displayed a jagged shark's tooth today as a reminder of his battle with a 25-foot killer — and an act of heroism which enabled him to live to tell it.

Doctors dug the tooth from Rochette's leg Saturday shortly after the Burlingame, Calif., youth was attacked by the giant shark near the Farallon Islands, 30 miles west of San Francisco.

Rochette, who suffered deep gashes in both legs, was reported "doing fine" today at U.S. Public Health Service Hospital. He had high praise for fellow skin diver Jack Bolger, 40, who dived into the water without gear and pulled him back from the brush with death.

Bolger shrugged off talk of heroism, with the explanation that "It's just something you do."

"Rochette was bleeding badly and he needed help," Bolger said. "I wanted him to know there was someone standing by to help him."

The attack occurred while Rochette was spearfishing with other members of the Southern Pacific Scuba Club, made up of employes of the Southern Pacific Railroad. They were diving from a chartered 42-foot boat, the Salmon Queen.

"The shark grabbed me in the thigh and flung me around like a rag doll," said Rochette. "It felt like a mountain hit me."

★ ★ ★

The injured youth jabbed the shark with his spear gun until it let go, and then drifted to the surface. At that point, Bolger dived in to assist him.

GASHED LEGS

Rochette was pulled aboard the boat, and a tourniquet was applied to stop the blood streaming from his gashed legs. A Coast Guard helicopter, called from San Francisco, flew the injured man to the hospital.

★ ★ ★

There he was given blood transfusions and emergency surgery. A nerve in his right foot was severed, but Doctor Herbert Goodman said future surgery could correct any paralysis.

'Honesty Is Best Policy' — but It Cost Actor His Gal

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Honesty is the best policy — for getting hated.

A sad-eyed young French actor named Alain Delon, the most romantic thing to come out of Paris since Charles Boyer had hair, recently decided to tell the truth to beautiful Romy Schneider, with who he had enjoyed a "short engagement" lasting only about six years.

WILSON

"Cheri," he said, "you will never be a Marilyn Monroe, an Ava Gardner, a Rita Hayworth. You haven't that 'miracle' . . . that electricity . . . that appearance of a great star . . ."

The girl who was thinking of marrying him bit her lips and asked if that was all.

★ ★ ★

"No," he said. "You are deefrent from Marilyn Monroe, as Henry Fonda is deefrent from Gary Cooper. Fonda, a great actor, hasn't that electricity. Paul Newman doesn't have it as Marlon Brando and Jimmy Dean had it. Maria Schell couldn't be a Dietrich because she doesn't have it."

Do you know what sexpot Romy Schneider said to him? She said, "Forget it!"

★ ★ ★

Delon's touring the country on behalf of a picture called "The Love Cage." He visits Cleveland, Minneapolis, Detroit, Chicago. If he's just as honest everywhere, he'll be a barrel of laughs for the boys at MGM studios.

We happen to respect him enormously. We asked him, now that he's broken up with Romy Schneider, if he might be deeply interested in Jane Fonda.

"Oh, NO" he exclaimed. "SURELY not Jane Fonda!"

He's a delightfully frank young man who in today's society is likely to go far — to someplace that's the equivalent of Siberia.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson's leading lookalike hereabouts is well-known good-looking Neal Lang, vice prez and general mgr. at the Hotel Gotham. Also lookalikes: Joe E. Ross and Yogi Berra . . . When Jack E. Leonard taped an album at Danny's Hideaway, he chided friends in the audience about their response. To Jack Carter, Leonard said, "Don't encourage me too much. The last time you encouraged me, I flopped at the Paramount . . . Choo Choo Collins, the sexy singer, has been dating Vince Edwards in Hollywood. "Isn't he engaged?" I asked Choo Choo. "If he is," she said, "he never mentioned it to me!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jack Paar and Johnny Carson met at a "Dr. Strangelove" screening; no thunder and lightening — they just shook hands . . . Bullets Durgom, who's suing Jackie Gleason, may find himself in court on a back alimony charge.

Sugar Ray Robinson said at Basin St. E. he's in good shape, then hopped onstage to prove it .

Dem Leader Raps Romney

Ferency Says He's Just 'Using' State

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's top Democratic Party spokesmen Sunday assailed Gov. George Romney as a man who's "using Michigan to serve his purpose nationally."

★ ★ ★

At the same time, state chairman Zolton Ferency promised that Democrats in the legislature "will support all of Romney's (1964 legislative) recommendations that are consistent with past and present Democratic programs."

★ ★ ★

Rep. Neil Staebler, D-Mich., the only declared candidate for governor, said "George's mind is on higher things than being governor. He's using Michigan to serve his purpose nationally."

★ ★ ★

Staebler and Ferency spoke to more than 200 persons at a meeting to organize the Sixth Congressional District Democratic Committee. Persons attending represented Eaton, Jackson, Ingham and Clinton counties.

BOOST PROGRAMS

Democratic support for any Romney programs consistent with the party's aims "will happen regardless of any favorable boost to Romney's national political aspirations which may come from a record of legislative achievement," Ferency said.

"The sole consideration is whether Michigan will benefit from these programs, not GOP sacrificial lamb for the 1964 election," he said.

★ ★ ★

Romney announced last week he would accept a draft for Republican presidential nomination. He said he was not a candidate, however.

★ ★ ★

The new Sixth District is the result of changes approved by the legislature last spring. Formerly, the Sixth District included Genesee, Shiawassee and Ingham counties.

Husband "too tired" for good times?

If your husband keeps coming home too "beat" to be gay and stimulating, too worn out to take you out, remember—the hectic "rat race" of today's business requires men to perform like human dynamos day after day, which builds up churning tensions that rob literally millions of husbands of energy and vigor they might otherwise enjoy!

• What can you do to help counteract this tension-caused loss of vitality?

Hindu-Moslem Fighitng

Troops Patrol Calcutta After Violence

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—Indian Army troops patrolled Calcutta and its suburbs today with shoot-to-kill orders to check Hindu-Moslem violence that has claimed at least 75 lives. Most of the dead are Moslems.

Widespread looting and arson was reported in and around Calcutta. The city, India's largest, is in West Bengal State. More than 4,000 persons were arrested.

It was the worst communal outbreak since 1947, when the Indian subcontinent was partitioned and hundreds of thousands were massacred. Refugees from neighboring East Pakistan have reported 29 dead there in attacks on Hindus.

★ ★ ★

Home Minister G. L. Nanda said "martial law without the name" was ordered for 11 areas where the worst violence was reported. He pledged the army and police would show "no mercy" in suppressing the communal attacks which developed into widespread looting and arson Sunday.

'DO THE JOB'

"Make no mistake about it," Nanda said. "They are going to do their job. It is more merciful to do the job quickly and well than to have it long and drawn out."

Sunday 15 persons were killed, six by police or army gunfire and the remainder in violence between Moslems and Hindus.

★ ★ ★

P. S. Sen, chief minister of West Bengal, said "miscreants" threw fireballs made of jute twine soaked in gasoline into Moslem huts. Black smoke swept over the city from a burning Moslem tire factory. Officials said many huts, houses and shops were set afire.

Nanda, one of two men appointed to direct the Indian government during the illness of Prime Minister Nehru, expressed fears of Moslem reprisals against Hindus in neighboring East Pakistan.

HELD RESPONSIBLE

Pakistani Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto held Indian officials responsible for the anti-Moslem violence in West Bengal, charging that "if the Indian authorities really meant to stop lawlessness in West Bengal, it could have been done so in 24 hours."

He told a students' meeting "Pakistan cannot remain unconcerned while Moslems in India are being killed in riots."

★ ★ ★

The religious rioting followed reports that Moslems were slaughtering Hindus in the East Pakistan city of Khulna, 75 miles east of Calcutta, in retaliation for the disappearance of a hair said to have come from the beard of the Moslem prophet Mohammad. The hair, which disappeared from a shrine in Srinagar, capital of the Indian-controlled section of Kashmir, has been recovered.

Frightening Asthma Attacks End In Minutes As New Formula Unblocks Lung Passages Fast

New Medical Formula Restores Free Breathing Without Vaccines, Shots Or Narcotics. Calms Anxiety. No Prescription Needed.

New York, N.Y. (Special)—A team of scientists has announced a new formula that stops frightening asthma attacks in minutes and unblocks lung passages fast.

Medical tests prove this formula promptly restores free breathing, so calms anxiety and relieves the worst symptoms of asthma—the straining for breath, the gasping, the wheezing, the terrible fear of suffocation. All without vaccines, painful shots or habit-forming drugs. This formula is so safe when used as directed, it can be sold without prescription in tiny tablets called BRONITIN®.

Doctors know that when asthma strikes, breathing tubes become swollen, lung passages become blocked, so air is "trapped" inside lungs and less and less oxygen can enter. Now BRONITIN, with two asthma relieving medicines that doctors prescribe for their patients, acts quickly to open bronchial tubes and loosen the mucus that blocks lung passages. Trapped air is released and new vital oxygen enters the lungs.

The result is: free breathing is restored, tension eased and so fears are calmed in minutes. Sufferers can now look forward to restful sleep.

Get BRONITIN—available at all drug stores without prescription.

U. S. Employes Back at Work in Panama City

Crisis Eases as Both Countries Agree to Peace-Keeping Team

PANAMA CITY (AP) — Amid some signs of diminishing tension between the United States and Panama, U. S. personnel returned today to the embassy building in downtown Panama City.

Diplomatic sources reported that the United States and Panama agreed to set up a joint authority with the Organization of American States (OAS) in an effort to keep peace along the restive Canal Zone border.

But agreement on machinery for the peace - keeping operation remained to be worked out in a final meeting of the five-man OAS mission with U.S. and Panama representatives before the mission returns to Washington.

U.S. personnel quit the embassy building and burned secret papers on Saturday, fearing that the building might become a target for anti-U. S. demonstrations.

★ ★ ★

Panama has broken relations with the United States and demanded guarantees for revision of the 61-year-old Panama Canal treaty in the wake of U.S.-Panamanian clashes on the Canal Zone border.

Under a formula proposed by Argentina, the United States and Panama would each have one military and one civilian representative on the peace-keeping authority with a neutral OAS representative chairman. Informants said Alfredo Vazquez Carrizosa, the Colombian member of the OAS mission, would be chairman.

The sources said it had not been decided whether military or civilian forces would be used by the peace-keeping group on the border area.

One plan under discussion would have the United States troops withdraw from critical points along the Canal Zone, and Panama put its national guard on duty.

★ ★ ★

Informants said Panamanian and U.S. civilian authorities had agreed on the plan, but that it ran into opposition from U.S. military authorities in the Canal Zone.

NO WITHDRAWAL

They issued a statement saying no withdrawal could take place until peace has been definitely restored.

Business places opened in Panama City for the first time since the outbreak of violence

Rusk Says Castro at Fault in Rioting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk says Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro is partly to blame for the rioting in Panama. Rusk declared the United States cannot afford to pull out of the Canal Zone.

Rusk's statements on the crisis were made in a television interview yesterday.

The Johnson administration, it was learned today, has warned U.S. leaders in the Canal Zone that it will not tolerate any departure from the agreement between the United States and Panama.

House Burns; Area Family Left Homeless

A young Waterford Township couple and their three small children were left homeless yesterday when their single-story frame house was destroyed by fire.

Routed from their house at 2881 Rowan by the 2:40 p.m. blaze were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Canning and the children.

The $10,000 house was termed a total loss by firemen. Additional damage of $4,500 to contents was estimated.

★ ★ ★

Firemen said the blaze started when drapes at the living room picture window ignited.

HEAT FROM DRAPES

Heat from the drapes broke the window and a strong east wind quickly spread the fire throughout the house, firemen said.

An investigation on how the drapes caught fire is being conducted.

The Canning family took refuge in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Voorheis next door at 2961 Rowan.

Several neighbors brought clothing to the Cannings and others indicated a willingness to financially aid the distressed family.

Heavy Smoke Fills Building

Residents Gain Safety Going Down Ladders

By JIM LONG

A fire in a Pontiac apartment house killed one man and routed 100 other tenants into sub-freezing weather early this morning.

It was one of three major fires in the area since Saturday.

The blaze at the Parkside Apartment, 101 Mechanic, today proved fatal to Russell Nacarato, 51, who was overcome by smoke in his third floor apartment.

★ ★ ★

Some 40 tenants of the 35-year-old building were rescued by Pontiac firemen using ladders to reach the top floors of the three story dwelling.

LED THEM OUT

It contains 49 units. Others were led out.

The four - alarm blaze brought most of Pontiac fire-fighting equipment to the scene, three ladder trucks, six engines and one rescue vehicle.

The Birmingham Fire Department, responding under a mutual aid pact, sent one piece of equipment to Pontiac to standby. They were called into duty on a resuscitator run.

★ ★

Sixty Pontiac firemen battled the apartment fire, according to Chief James R. White, who also called in 10 additional off duty firefighters to man the Central fire station on East Pike.

NEAR FIRE HALL

The Parkside Apartment is about three blocks from the central fire hall and just west of Douglas.

Chief White set a preliminary estimate on the damage to the apartment building at $50,000 but was not immediately able to determine the loss to the six apartment units ravaged by the fire.

The burned apartments were those on the three floors directly above where the fire is believed to have started in the BLAZE VICTIMS—Unidentified tenants of the Parkside Apartment, 101 Mechanic, flee with some of their belongings last night as fire and smoke filled the 49-unit building. One occupant, Russell B. Nacarato, 51, died of aphyxiation. The fire was reported shortly before 3 a.m.

Factory Hopes Hurt as Building Burns

Hopes for a new industry in Pontiac were dimmed slightly when a fire Saturday ravaged the vacant factory which once housed the American Forge and Socket Co.

Bruce Annett, president of the Bruce-Roy Corp., which now owns the property on Branch Street, said he was negotiating with a Detroit manufacturing firm to buy the 117,000 square foot building.

Annett said that the fire ruined 40,000-50,000 square feet in the center of the main manufacturing area.

Purchased last spring by Annett, the property has been offered for sale for $230,000.

"The Detroit firm was deeply interested," said Annett. "I had an appointment with officials at 10 a.m. Sunday (twelve hours after the fire)."

"They were upset," said Annett. "They figured it for an ideal plant."

Annett, who did not reveal the name of the Detroit firm, said the company, however, had outgrown its present facilities and needed more space.

"It would mean a boost to Pontiac's economy since about 200 workers would be employed," said Annett.

"I don't know what I will do," said Annett. "The future will depend on the insurance adjustment."

Reported at 9:18 p.m., the fire was brought under control in an hour, but firemen did not leave the scene until 3:30 to make sure there were no flare-ups in the debris.

NO ESTIMATE

Neither the fire department nor Annett could estimate the damage.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Annett said he believed that vagrants probably entered the building and started a fire to get warm and it got out of control.

The building has been forcibly entered in the past, according to Annett.

Located on five acres near Houston Street, the one-story factory building did not contain any manufacturing equipment, Annett said.

Two other buildings on the property, an office and a warehouse, each containing 6,400 square feet were not touched by the fire, which collapsed a section of the roof of the main factory.

Pontiac Press Photo

FLAME'S HAVOC—Charred steel skeletons indicate the intense heat when fire gutted a portion of this factory, once the plant of the American Forge and Socket Co., Saturday night. The building, vacant for about two years is now owned by Bruce-Roy Corp., headed by Bruce Annett. The building was under consideration by a Detroit manufacturing firm planning to relocate.

Would Alter Way to Elect Commission

Opponents Pass Out Hand-Bill Blast at Jaycees, Proposal

Pontiac voters began casting ballots at 7 a. m. today in a special election to decide the fate of a proposed charter amendment.

Early indications were that the voter turnout would be about average, or about the same as normally experienced in a local primary election.

The amendment, sponsored by the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce, proposed that city commissioners be nominated by voters of their own districts, but elected by voters throughout the city —all electors voting for one candidate per district.

Presently, they are both nominated and elected by individual district vote alone.

★ ★ ★

A last-minute hand-bill opposing the proposed charter amendment was distributed in Districts 1, 4, 5, 6 and 7 yesterday.

SLAMS JAYCEES

It charged that the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce was "the scapegoat to push this foolish attempt to steal your voting right to nominate and elect your own city commissioners."

Jaycee officials termed the literature "a last desperate effort to divide and confuse the voter . . . by setting class against class; the east side against the west."

Jaycees claimed the charges were made "without regard to fact or truth" and were timed so proponents had no chance to reply.

★ ★ ★

A spot check of all seven districts this morning failed to set any decisive citywide pattern regarding early voter turnout.

SOME LINE UP

"We had people standing in line at times this morning," said one official.

Most precincts expected more activity late this afternoon, however weather was expected to be a major factor in the final vote total.

★ ★ ★

While the first half of the day was rather mild, the U.S. Weather Bureau predicted wind and snow for this evening.

PETITION REQUESTS

Today's election was requested by petitions circulated last summer during hearings which eventually resulted in the firing of former City Manager Robert A. Stierer.

Some 11,500 persons signed the petitions, about double the number needed to force the election.

A majority of the City Commission has gone on record opposing the proposed change.

★ ★

Professional experts in municipal finance and management have favored it.

EARLY VOTER—Former city commissioner from District 4 Floyd P. Miles cast his vote in today's special election shortly after the polls opened at 7 a.m. Polls are scheduled to close at 8 p.m., but anyone in line then will be allowed to vote. Fishermen Rescued as Lake Ice Drifts

DETROIT (AP)—Naval flyers and Coast Guardsmen rescued 25 fishermen from drifting Lake Erie floes yesterday in two separate efforts.

Helicopters from the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station plucked 11 men from ice floes a half-mile off the Canadian shores between Pt. Pelee and Leamington, Ont.

In addition, the helicopter crews removed the body of a man who apparently had died of a heart attack. He was identified as John Gruenberg, 79, a Dearborn.

All of this group, except for one Canadian, were from the Detroit area.

Off the Ohio shore west of Toledo, ice skiffs of the Marblehead Coast Guard Station and Port Clinton and Catawba firemen saved another 14 fishermen from drifting ice west of Catawba Island.

★ ★ ★

The fishermen off Leamington had gone out for perch on Pigeon Bay and were trapped when the ice cracked.

OTHERS LEFT

Another 200 fishermen were reported to have left the ice earlier. A sound truck had patrolled the area, warning the men to leave.

Constable Ian MacInnes of Leamington asked the Naval Station for help when he saw the ice starting to crack.

One of the rescued fishermen, Robert H. Karla, 25, of Detroit, said wind-driven snow hid most of the men from his sight.

★ ★ ★

"We didn't see anyone outside our own little group," Karla said. "That wind was blowing so hard we thought we'd be in Ohio before we got rescued."

William Willuwbit, 43, of Mount Clemens, said he saw Gruenberg collapse on the ice. Gruenberg's body was taken to the Air station.

Cigarette Stocks Fall Sharply

NEW YORK (AP)—Cigarette issues fell sharply in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was active.

The cigarette stocks declined following weekend publication of the U.S. Public Health Service report on smoking and health.

Stocks of cigar companies rallied because the report stressed that cigarette smoking was linked with more disease than cigar smoking.

Gains and losses of most key stocks throughout the list were fractional. Hesitancy by investors was ascribed partially to the Panama crisis.

FAST TO OPEN

Philip Morris was the first cigarette stock to open, losing ¾ at 74¼ on 2,000 shares and quickly extending its loss to more than a point. Then came Liggett & Myers, down 1¾ to 72½ on blocks of 3,200 shares and 600. It widened its decline to about 3 points.

★ ★ ★

Consolidated Cigar advanced 2½ to 40 on an opener of 4,300 shares. General Cigar rose ¾ to 40¾ in its first trade.

★ ★ ★

Narrow changes and mixed prices prevailed among steels, autos, oils, rails, utilities and nonferrous metals.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler's new stock based on the 2-for-1 stock split was off a fraction from the last price on the when-issued stock.

OTHER BLOCKS

Other opening blocks included: General Dynamics, up ¾ at 26 on 7,500 shares; General Motors, off ⅛ at 79 on 6,300; and Anken Chemical, up ¼ at 20⅞ on 5,000.

On Friday the Associated Press average of 60 stocks closed unchanged at 289.4.

★ ★ ★

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Most changes were narrow.

Charges Filed Against Mogul

Said to Be in Debt at Least $27 Million

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI) — Paul Amos Sandblom who a court - appointed receiver said owes at least $27 million to "solid people from California to the East coast," sat in jail today and waited for his lawyers to post $25,000 bond.

Sandblom, who made millions by selling investments, turned himself in to a U.S. marshal yesterday and was arraigned on charges of using the mails to sell securities not properly filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Bond was set by U.S. Commissioner James C. Martin.

Sandblom had been missing for almost a week.

★ ★ ★

The investments magnate left Corpus Christi last Monday. His lawyers filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition on Tuesday, and on Friday the federal government brought charges against him.

LAST PAYMENT

On the morning the bankruptcy petition was filed, the last payment on Sandblom's $55,000 home was made.

Robert Burke, a court-appointed receiver, said Sandblom owed at least $27 million, and added, "and that figure could easily be doubled." He said Sandblom's creditors might number 4,000.

One of the creditors is a company in California owned by Bing Crosby, but the biggest loser was a Dallas investment house which was reported to have lost $1.5 million.

★ ★ ★

Sandblom's lawyers said their client's cause might not be hopeless.

Oscar Spitz, one of Sandblom's attorney, said the securities tycoon could save much of his fading fortune by suing some of his creditors for charging too much interest.

★ ★ ★

He said Sandblom might even get enough money to make his businesses solvent if he pushed his claims. The highest legal interest rate in Texas is 10 per cent.

Police Say Phone Calls Were Phony

TROY, N.Y. (UPI)—A Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute student was under arrest today for making fraudulent long distance telephone calls through an electronic device he allegedly developed to bypass telephone company equipment.

Michael T. Spencer, 19, Franklin, Mich., was scheduled for a hearing today in Troy police court on a charge of illegal use of a telephone.

Spencer, an engineering student, was arrested Saturday after officials of the Troy district of the New York Telephone Co. became aware that fraudulent calls were being made.

★ ★ ★

Richard Merriman, manager of the district, described the device as an electronic "box."

BYPASSED EQUIPMENT

Merriman said the device allowed a caller to "partially bypass" company equipment when making long distance telephone calls through direct dialing.

He said the bypass "did not create a proper charge" to allow the company to bill the caller.

Competition Keen

Interest Levels Eyed

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Commercial banks are wondering if interest rates must go up again if they're to hold their quota of savings accounts. Right now, they're slipping a bit.

DAWSON

This month is dedicated to paying, or at least pondering, the Christmas bills. So banks are resigned to having their savings account volume likely to fall. Recovering lost ground is the question mark.

This year the competition is rougher than ever—and from some different angles than a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Consumers have been spending more, for one thing, and saying they plan to spend still more for the things for which they have to borrow as well as make down payments. Some of them apparently are running low on cash, since delinquent loans have risen in volume, although about normally for the season.

A buoyant stock market also is a rival of the banks for any dollars the public has left over after meeting the pressing bills.

HIGHER RATES

Other types of savings institutions have been tempting those who do save by offering higher interest rates than commercial banks may legally do.

Even the U.S. Treasury's savings bond drive is bringing in the most sales in seven years, although there has been considerable talk of the need to raise the interest on these if they are to compete in today's market.

Under federal regulations, the commercial bank interest rates are limited to 3½ per cent for the first year of deposit and 4 per cent thereafter. This is now being paid in most sections of the nation.

Savings banks' rates, however, have gone above this. In New York many now pay 4¼ per cent in the first year of deposit.

WEST COAST

Savings and loan associations often pay still higher returns, especially on the West Coast.

Home mortgage returns are traditionally higher than any of these, but attract the larger investor rather than those the banks cater to.

★ ★ ★

Competition for savings may take on a new aspect if the federal tax cut goes through. There will be more take-home pay—maybe only a little more in individual paychecks, but a sizable national total. How much of this is spent and how much saved will be up the consumers, but they'll have plenty of advice from salesmen and bankers.

★ ★ ★

If the additional money boosts business activity as hoped, savings will pay a role in providing funds for investment and expansion. If the rise is more than a boomlet, interest rates might easily climb—both what lenders can get from borrowers because of the increased demand for loans, and also what the savers can get from institutions looking for funds to lend out at the more lucrative rates.

★ ★ ★

This in turn could add pressure to the move to seek relief from the mixture of federal and state regulations that govern the operations of the savings and lending institutions.

Business Notes

The appointment of a new building manager for Community National Bank was announced today by A. C. Girard, president and and chairman of the board.

Donaldson has been with Community National since 1956 in a variety of building management responsibilities.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We wish to provide a fund for our grandchildren. We would like to give them from our own holdings one share of stock on each of their birthdays until they are 21. We now own Sterling Drug General Telephone, Cooper Tire, and Pure Oil. In your opinion, which of these should we utilize for this purpose?" M.F.

I would give them shares from your best growth holdings — which can expand in value over the years ahead. In this category, I would place Sterling Drug first, and General Telephone second.

Sterling has had a long and consistent growth rate, and General Telephone has been developing one since 1961. Cooper Tire is a good small company in a group which is showing earnings gains this year but is subject to cyclical changes. Pure Oil has shown no growth over the past decade.

Q. "I am 50 years old and have $25,000 cash. I would like to buy 1,000 shares of ANelex Corp., selling around 23. I believe this stock could be a small I.B.M. Do you agree?" J.D.

A. I like ANelex, which is the largest independent producer of high-speed printers, for use with computers. It does not make computers, as I.B.M. does, and I don't believe the two issues are at all comparable.

ANelex is quite small but has developed an excellent growth rate. I believe it is an attractive purchase where some speculative risk can be assumed.

Whether or not you should buy 1,000 shares — which would require about $25,000 — depends on what other capital assets you own. If this amount represents most of your principal, I would adhere faithfully to the rule of safe diversification.

Put no more in ANelex, or any other stock, than you can afford to lose. All stocks — including those I like — have a measure of risk.

Fire Hits Art Gallery

LONDON (AP) — A fire blamed by police on hooligans destroyed or badly damaged paintings worth more than $500,000 in a Piccadilly art gallery today.

A hole was burned through a Canaletto entitled "Roman Scene" which the gallery valued at 35,000 pounds ($98,000). Dozens of other works were ruined.

The fire was in the William Hallsborough galleries. An official said it might be days before an accurate estimate of the damage could be made.

★ ★ ★

The fire started in the gallery basement and spread to the ground floor and second story of the building. Police said it might have been started by a burning object dropped through a basement ventilator.

SMASHED WINDOWS

Vandals also smashed windows in three adjoining shops and set fire to a liquor dealer's office on a nearby street.
