Children Killed, House Burned; Mother Booked

DUNSTABLE, Mass. (AP) — The bodies of four children, all of whom had been shot, were found this morning following a fire at their Main Street home.

Dist. Atty. John J. Droney of Middlesex County said the children's mother, Mrs. Mary Connolly, about 40, had been booked and that the charge would be murder.

Droney said the four children had been shot and apparently had been dead since last night.

The victims were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Connolly Jr. Officials said the parents had returned to their home at 7 a.m., after the fire, which was discovered by a neighbor about three hours earlier, had been extinguished.

★ ★ ★

The victims were identified as Brenda, 16; Gregory, 11; Gary, 7; and Thomas, 3. Droney said three of the bodies were discovered in the living room, two of them on a mattress. The fourth child's body was found in a first-floor bedroom.

Capt. Daniel Murphy of the state police said the mother admitted shooting the children last night and setting fire to the house about 3:30 this morning.

He said she then drove to the town dump intending to commit suicide by carbon monoxide poisoning. The attempt failed and she was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital in nearby Lowell.

Dunstable is a small town in northeastern Massachusetts near the New Hampshire border.

A fifth Connelly child, Debbie, 18, who is working as a waitress on Cape Cod, was not at home at the time.

AUTOPSIES ORDERED

Medical examiner D. Lawrence V. Churchville of Townsend summoned the state pathologist to perform autopsies.

Firemen who battled the blaze for about two hours in the two-story frame house, reported that the front hallway was a mass of flames when they arrived.

Crittenton Branch Has Open House, Formal Dedication

More than 10 years in the planning and construction stage, the Rochester Branch of Crittenton General Hospital took 20 minutes to dedicate Saturday.

Some 550 invited guests were present for the ceremony and a tour of the $6-million facility. Another 5,000 sought their first view of the 207-bed hospital in public open house yesterday afternoon.

Located at 1201 W. University, the unit will boast a combined staff of 300 medical and osteopathic physicians, including those on the Detroit Crittenton staff. Some 95 nursing personnel have been engaged for the opening weeks.

The hospital, recipient of a $1,950,000 Hill-Burton federal grant, has been paid for in large part by local donations. The site was a gift of Howard L. McGregor Jr., vice president of the Crittenton board of trustees.

★ ★ ★

A $2-million mortgage remains to be paid, said A. Riley Allen, hospital administrator, and one of the dedication speakers.

SUSPECT SOUGHT—West Bloomfield Township and State Police today released this drawing of a woman who accompanied three men in the robbery-murder of West Bloomfield Township Trustee Emmett E. DeConick. The description was given to police by DeConick's sister, Kathleen, who was shot and left to die. The woman was described as white or a light skinned Negro, about 5 feet 6, with a stout build, broad shoulders and straight hair.

Police Have Clue in DeConick Killing

West Bloomfield Township police have another clue in their hunt for the killers of Edward Emmett DeConick, 63, township trustee.

His sister, Kathleen DeConick, 73, one eye destroyed by the intruders, has recovered sufficiently to help police make a composite drawing of the woman in the case.

On July 3, three men and the woman broke into the home of DeConick, at 4857 W. Maple. They beat the pair and shot DeConick to death.

Miss DeConick was shot through the left eye, but survived.

Her eyesight had been poor before the robbery, and the bandits shot out her better eye, police said.

The composite drawing was made with the help of a specialist from the East Lansing police force.

The woman suspect was described as light-skinned, and the three men as Negroes. About $25,000 in cash, jewelry and bonds were taken.

Rewards totaling $6,600, including $1,000 from The Pontiac Press, have been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

2 Cyclists Jailed in Police Attack

Two Pontiac motorcyclists were arrested yesterday after they allegedly attacked Waterford Township police officers in an argument over a traffic ticket.

More than a dozen cyclists were involved in the incident in a tavern parking lot.

In Oakland County Jail after their arraignment yesterday are Leo K. Smith Jr., 21, of 297 N. Saginaw and Felix E. Murphy Jr., 30, of 795 Kettering.

Smith, charged with assaulting a police officer, is held under $5,000 bond.

Murphy was placed under $25,000 bond for the more serious charge of attempted murder.

EXAM THURSDAY

Both face examination Thursday in Waterford Township Justice Court.

Patrolman Richard Dorrance said he was writing a reckless driving ticket for Smith when the other cyclists entered the lot.

He said Smith shouted for help, and a man identified as Murphy hit Dorrance with a helmet, knocking him down.

Sgt. Merrille Finkle and Patrolman Roger Allen, who were cruising in the neighborhood, were directed to the scene by passerby.

The cyclists reportedly fought with the other two officers and at one point Allen's gun was taken from him.

Officers said Murphy attempted to fire the weapon.

Weatherman Caught in Sporadic Showers

Looks like the U.S. Weather Bureau is in a rut as it predicts this morning's showers will continue sporadically throughout tonight and tomorrow.

Tonight's low will fall in the 60 to 65 range.

Accompanying tomorrow's showers will be cloudy skies and warmer temperatures.

The showers are due to end by Wednesday as the mercury declines.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 50, tonight 30, and tomorrow 20.

45,000 to Go to Viet

Key Troops Tapped

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans to order to Vietnam large chunks of the last remaining combat divisions in the United States — and may not replace these units, sources report.

This would help meet President Johnson's new troop authorization for Vietnam which would raise the U.S. manpower commitment in the war to 525,00 by next summer.

Two top White House advisers indicate that meanwhile, U.S. allies in Vietnam are considering what additional troops they might send to back up their reported agreement on the need for increased pressure now against the Communists.

The advisers, Clark Clifford and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, reported to President Johnson Saturday upon their return from a visit to South Vietnam, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand and South Korea.

"Everyone feels now is the time for maximum effort," said Taylor, a former ambassador to Saigon. But both said they did not directly ask allies for more troops.

The 45,000-man increase in U.S. strength over the currently authorized 480,000 will go to Southeast Asia between October and next July and will consist mainly of units now classed as part of the Strategic Reserve.

This is an active duty force kept at home primarily to meet sudden contingencies aboard.

Sources say Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara probably would defend this approach on two grounds:

- The Strategic Reserve exists to be used.
- President Johnson has directed McNamara to help hold down military expenditures.

Hijacked Airliner in Cuba; Captive Exiles Tied to CIA

HAVANA (AP) — Five partisans of Fidel Castro hijacked a Colombian airliner with more than 70 persons aboard to take them to Havana yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the Cuban government displayed six captured invaders from Florida whom it accused of planning to kill Castro.

The Cuban government said the plane, whose passengers included four U.S. citizens, was free to resume its flight today. All the passengers were reported safe.

The six captive Cuban exiles, paraded at a four-hour news conference, all said they were recruited and trained by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency in Florida.

Two said they carried poisoned bullets intended for Prime Minister Castro.

Two others said they were CIA agents. Cuban authorities declined to say whether the captives would be shot.

Guests at the news conference included delegates to the meeting of the Latin American Organization of Solidarity—OLAS — a gathering of revolutionaries from 27 nations.

Havana Radio said the plane had 78 passengers and four crewmen and that the armed men who took it over were four Colombians and an Ecuadorean.

It said the hijackers asked to remain in Cuba and the government was considering the request.

One passenger, U.S. Army Capt. Harris Wheeler, 25, honeymooning with his wife, Helga, 19, of Modesto, Calif., said the pilot announced the plane was being diverted to Panama.

"I didn't know we were coming to Havana until I saw a MIG over the airfield and I was sure I wasn't in Panama," Wheeler said.

The Wheelers were married Saturday. His parents live in Barranquilla, Colombia, where the plane made a stop. Along with the rest of the passengers, they were taken to a downtown Havana hotel by bus. The other U.S. citizens on the flight were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Estrada of Chicago.

The passengers said they never saw the armed men.

2 Charged as Killers

DETROIT (UPI)—Two white policemen were charged with murder today in the shotgun slayings of two Negroes in a motel during the Detroit riot.

Prosecutor William Cahalan said murder charges were filed against Patrolman Ronald August for the slaying of Aubrey Pollard, 19, and against Patrolman Robert Paille for the slaying of Fred Temple, 18.

Pollard, Temple and Carl Cooper, 17, were found shot to death in the Algiers Motel in West Side Detroit before dawn July 24.

A former paratrooper who allegedly witnessed the slayings told police that the three men were victims of "cold-blooded murder" at the hands of a National Guard warrant officer, aided by police and other National Guardsmen.

Cahalan also said a third policeman was being investigated in connection with the death of the only policeman killed during the riot, Patrolman Jerome Olshove, 32.

OTHER OFFICER'S GUN

Olshove was killed, police said, when the other officer's gun fired accidentally, allegedly while he was struggling with a looter.

Cahalan filed the charges today after receiving a 14-page report on the motel slayings from the police homicide bureau.

August and Paille both are assigned to the 13th Precinct. August is married and Paille is single.

Cahalan said he had not issued charges yet against the National Guard warrant officer whom the witness, Robert L. Greene, 26, said fired the shots which killed at least two of the three victims.

Holly's War Hero to Be Buried Today

The body of Lt. Karl Richter, Holly's 24-year-old Vietnam war hero, was to be laid to rest today among the Ponderosa pines at the U.S. Air Force Academy Cemetery, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Full military honors, including the Air Force's flyby and a 21-gun salute, were to be offered in his honor.

The ceremony was to have little in common with the going-home party planned by Air Force buddies for Richter after he had completed two more missions — his 200th over North Vietnam.

One of his fellow pilots told today of the celebration planned for the Holly hero, whose decorations included the Distinguished Flying Cross with one oak leaf cluster, the Air Medal with 13 oak leaf clusters and a recently presented Vietnamese Distinguished Service Medal.

Maj. Robert B. Piper, 36, of Salt Lake City, Richter's instructor at the Air Force Academy in 1964 and his best friend at Korat Airbase in Thailand, said Richter was on an easy mission preparatory to leaving for instructor's duty in the states. He was out to check a new pilot.

Piper said they saw a bridge and Richter told the new man to stay above him and watch. He rolled and dived toward the bridge. The Communists opened fire and hit the F105 Thunderchief on the way down. Richter still managed to pull up and head for home.

Piper reported the Holly pilot ejected safely and his parachute opened properly. The territory below was not swarming with hostile North Vietnamese. It was relatively safe, Piper said.

But something happened as Richter floated down. He either swung into the side of a sandstone cliff or his chute snagged on a protruding tree. No one is sure.

★ ★ ★

The parachute collapsed, and Richter plunged 200 feet to the ground.

It was the 198th flight for the war ace, who had gained national fame as the youngest pilot to shoot down a MIG last September in Southeast Asia.

The burial service today, following the home town funeral Saturday, carried out one of the hero's wishes.

He had earlier told his parents that he wanted the Academy Cemetery as his final resting place.

VC Down Copters, Hit General

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist guerrillas shot down five American troop helicopters making an assault in Saigon's suburbs today. They also wounded a U.S. brigadier general trying to help his men caught in the trap.

* * *

The Communist guns poked up from camouflaged foxholes just as the helicopters prepared to land on the guerrilla-infiltrated banks of the Saigon River four miles north of the city limits.

Their fire brought the five helicopters crumpling to earth in a few seconds. The general, circling in his command helicopter above, whirled down to help the 20 troops reported wounded.

There was no immediate report on the general's injuries. His name was withheld pending notification of his family.

The Communists set up a vicious cross fire against the helicopters, small, swift assault craft which usually carry about six combat troops each plus crewmen.

The Americans attacked the area in hopes of wiping out more of the Vietcong units which have been harrassing the capital. The sound of the battle could be heard on the city's northern outskirts.

The American troopers were making a helicopter assault along the river bank where intelligence reports had indicated guerrilla activity. They apparently ran into an ambush.

Communist gunners waited until the helicopters, each with a five-man crew and seven assault troops, got well within range, before opening up.

* * *

The general flying over the scene spotted several wounded men lying in a rice paddy and ordered his command chopper to pick them up. Communist fire splattered through his helicopter, injuring him and his aide. The pilot managed to nurse the copter back to a safe landing.

WOUNDED GENERALS

Several American generals have been wounded slightly in the war, including Lt. Gen. Lewis Walt, former U.S. Marine commander here.

In the Quang Ngai coastal areas 300 miles north of Saigon more than 10,000 American and allied troops were closing in on a Communists Shangri-La in search of 1,200 North Vietnamese invaders and two stolen 105 millimeter howitzers.

Eight miles from Quang Ngai the Vietcong overran a compound of the Vietnamese junk navy, drove off the compound's force of 116 South Vietnamses naval officers with their families — about 200 persons — and killed an American adviser in the camp.

* * *

The South Vietnamese reoccupied the headquarters four hours later.

Youth's Parents, Sister Were Shot to Death

GEORGETOWN, Tex. (AP) — James Wolcott, who won't be 16 years old until Aug. 14, was held today for a juvenile delinquency hearing after gunfire killed his father, mother and sister.

Victims of the slayings in their home early Saturday were Dr. Gordon Wolcott, 56; his wife Elizabeth, 43, and their pretty daughter, also named Elizabeth, 17.

The father was a biology professor at Southwestern University in Georgetown. He formerly worked with the U.S. Public Health Service.

* * *

Funeral services for young Wolcott's family were set for today at the First Methodist Church.

WON'T ATTEND

Late Sunday night the youth said, "For all concerned it is best that I don't attend."

Officers said he had made an oral statement about the three deaths but they disclosed no details. He has been held in th Williamson County jail since the shootings. No charges had been filed.

County Judge Sam Stone said he would set the juvenile delinquency hearing, a civil proceeding, after burial of the slain Wolcotts.

Police Chief Frank Masur said seven shots from a 22-caliber rifle killed them.

The professor was found on a living room floor, two bullet wounds in his chest, his daughter, in her room, apparently shot twice as she prepared for bed. Mrs. Wolcott apparently was sleeping, the police chief said, when she was struck with three bullets.

Law Fails to Provide Equal Opportunity--VP

HONOLULU (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the American Bar Association today the law is losing its "stabilizing influence" because it has failed to provide equal opportunity while guaranteeing equal rights.

"Frustration, alienation and unrest are not surprising consequences," he said in a prepared speech at the ABA's 90th annual convention.

* * *

Humphrey pledged that "flagrant disregard for the law" will not be tolerated.

"You know, and I know and the rioters themselves must know that riots will be suppressed," he said. "Order will be restored. Those malicious individuals who spark disorders will be found and prosecuted."

'INTENSE FRUSTRATION'

At the same time, Humphrey said the current wave of urban riots is rooted in an "intense frustration" among poor people. He said this "comes from watching the other America at work and play on television and knowing that it is beyond their reach."

Humphrey spoke of "a frustration that comes from paying higher prices in the ghetto shops than those charged in the supermarkets of suburbia—and knowing it;

* * *

"A frustration that comes from paying exorbitant interest rates for shoddy goods—and knowing it;

"A frustration of being unemployed for lack of training—and knowing it."

BEING HOPELESS

"The consequences of being poor and hopeless in a society where most are not produces a deep sense of alientation" he said. "This feeling is nowhere more fully expressed than in the attitudes of some ghetto dwellers toward the law."

Tickets Available for C. of C. Event

Tickets for Wednesday's annual Pontiac Chamber of Commerce summer meeting and golf outing are still available, a Chamber spokesman said today.

Tickets for the day-long event at Morey's Golf and Country Club are $12.

Scientists Await Orbiter Photos

Craft to Send Home New Views of Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists engaged in mapping the moon awaited results from Lunar Orbiter 5 today—hoping for new, clear views of the rugged, pock-marked lunar surface.

The 850-pound craft's mission was to photograph five possible new astronaut landing sites and work at clearing up the old riddle of whether the moon's features were caused by meteors or volcanos.

* * *

Spokesmen at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said the first pictures would be flashed on television monitor screens at the laboratory.

The shiny craft's camera system began working Sunday as it swooped low over the moon's surface. Scientists said after the landing site survey it would begin mapping most of the hidden side of the moon.

'HOT SPOTS'

They hoped, through the new photographs, to see what causes "hot spots" on the moon's surface that are observable from earth. Some contend they may be sunlight reflecting off clouds of gas escaping through volcanic fissures.

Others believe the spots are merely lighter-colored materials on the surface.

* * *

Of particular interest were the craters Aristarchus, Censorinus, Dionysius, Dawes and Tycho—the hot spots.

* * *

Lunar Orbiter 5, the last in the lunar orbiter series, ends the program that sent successful craft to explore the moon's features. Earlier craft mapped eight potential landing spots for American astronauts, and provided some of the most detailed photos ever taken of the lunar surface.

One craft returned a spectacular picture of earth, taken looking over the horizon of the moon.

Family Takes Picnic Prizes, Leaves Child

A 12-member family of Pontiac snatched up all the top prizes at a picnic yesterday but drove their loaded station wagon away without the cutest prize of all.

Three miles later, Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Mendieta of 1587 Vinewood counted the heads of their 10 daughters among a load of groceries, flowers and a broiler and came up one short.

Missing was the toddler, 2-year-old Julie, who herself won a bunch of flowers for being the youngest child at the Michigan Kidney Foundation affair in Kensington Park in Milford Township.

A cleanup crew back at the park discovered the bawling Julie, who was screaming for her mother, Esperanza. The crew immediately called in State Police to search the highways for the loaded station wagon.

Police located the Mendieta car on the way back to the park.

"We felt pretty silly forgetting her," Mrs. Mendieta commented.

But today the Mendietas are all together and enjoying their prizes for being the largest family, the family who traveled the farthest and the door prize winners.

Maple Parking Ban Opposed

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission tonight will consider a recommendation by City Manager Robert S. Kenning that a plan to permanently ban parking on Maple in the central business district be turned down at this time.

* * *

In a report prepared for the commission, Kenning says that a test ban, May 19-June 17, had a "negative impact" on the business district that was not offset by the "ease of through traffic movement and lessening of traffic congestion."

He recommends that the ban not be reimposed in the immediate future unless necessitated by road construction.

In other business, the commission will consider three amendments to the proposed rules and regulations for parks and other public properties.

The amendments, suggested by Department of Parks and Recreation Supt. Darrel C. Middlewood, ask that all animals be banned from playgrounds and tot-lots within parks and that games involving physical activity be restricted.

USE OF INTOXICANTS

A slight modification of the present ordinance governing use of intoxicants is also requested.

* * *

The commission will also hear an opinion by City Attorney James L. Howlett stating that the city has the power to require utility companies to place their lines and cables underground.

* * *

A report to be submitted to the commission by the city manager, asks that the city attorney be directed to prepare an ordinance which would require electrical wires and cables to be installed underground in the central business district.

Avon Accident Injures Youth

A Royal Oak youth was injured yesterday when the car he was riding in went out of control and left the road in Avon Township.

National Guard Withdraws

Emergency Lifted for Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney has lifted a two-week state of emergency but there were reminders during the weekend of the riots that erupted in the nation's fifth largest city.

Romney lifted the state of emergency after a meeting with state and local officials Sunday.

* * *

"Recent days and nights have indicated a return to normalcy in the metropolitan area," the governor said.

That was the signal for withdrawal of the last of some 7,000 National Guard troops ordered to the city and the return of law enforcement responsibilities to local officials in Detroit and the suburbs of Highland Park, Hamtramck, River Rouge and Ecorse.

EXTENDED TO SUBURBS

The state of emergency had been extended to the suburbs, largely as a precautionary measure.

Three more deaths were added to the city's riot toll over the weekend, raising it to 42. A Detroit fireman injured by a falling power line while fighting a fire died Friday. Two Negroes shot and wounded by National Guardsmen died Saturday.

The list had numbered 41 victims until the weekend, but two fatalities were found to have resulted from nonriot causes and were dropped. Then three weekend deaths brought the list to 42.

* * *

Romney and Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh attended an interfaith memorial church service Sunday with about 300 Negroes and whites. Six clergymen, representing Protestant, Jewish and Catholic faiths, led the service.

Detroit, Aug. 7... Hudson's Campus College, an independent publication covering the college scene, made one more big move to the underworld. Making headlines—the coeds' answer to the 'now-what-do-I-wear-under-this' problem. Main issue under discussion—just-for-junior size underlings—all nifty new ideas just great for the mini look. And to complete the picture—all agreed—fishnets are first-rate. The delectables, ecstatic with their solutions, move to rally 'round Hudson's. The coeds' choice under absolutely everything—Hudson's Own Brand Fishnets. Decision unanimous! A great headliner for your fall fashion act. And in all sorts of flashy, dashy colors—in two versions, too. A. Fishnet stockings—timely textures in rich brown, gold, white, camel, copper, navy, red, green. A color for every mood. One size of stretch nylon fits sizes 9 to 11. 1.19 pair B. Fishnet panty hose top—definitely for under those hip hugging skirts and slacks—and for the minis—ideal. White, black, oatmeal, brown, and curry. Available in 4 sizes. Please give regular hosiery size and height when ordering. $3 pair PATIENT PATIENTS—The Rochester Branch, Crittenton General Hospital, though dedicated last weekend, will accept no patients until Aug. 15. And nobody said it would take elephants. Staked out on nearby grounds, the behemoths caused some head-turning in connection with their appearance at a one-day circus Friday.

Shelby Twp. Votes on Taxes to Boost Police, Fire Service

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — A bid to beef up township police and fire services through a 4.5 mill increase in taxes went before property owners here today.

★ ★ ★

Offered in three separate questions, the proposals are for 2.5 mills for operation of the police department, 1.5 mills additional for the fire department, and five-tenths of a mill for a police and fireman's pension program.

Township Supervisor Kirby Holmes said earlier that even if only 1,000 of the township's 6,000 qualified voters turn out, all three issues should pass.

Today's rain was expected to have little effect on the outcome of the voting.

A favorable vote was looked on as a solution to township financial troubles made evident last June when the budget proved inadequate to meet current bills.

BUILDING PERMIT SLUMP

A fall-off in building permit revenue was blamed and the township board found it necessary to take emergency measures to meet the payroll. The receipt of state monies averted the need.

Approval of the police millage today would mean, Holmes said, that $130,000 for the general fund now budgeted for the department, could be freed for other township expenses. The millage is expected to raise $183,000 for the department.

The fire department millage is contained on the ballot as a bond issue — $900,000 for the erection of four new stations and up to eight trucks to equip them, Holmes said.

★ ★ ★

Slated for payment at the rate of 1.5 mills or about $109,000 a year, Holmes said the issue could be paid off in seven to eight years.

PENSION PLAN

The pension plan, petitioned by employes, seeks to have some $36,000 a year set aside to be augmented with five per cent of police and fire salaries.

★ ★ ★

Some confusion at the polls was expected today as voters for the first time were assigned to new precincts. A recent split of the township's eight polling places has created 15 new precincts.

The polls will be open until 8 p.m.

Fair Attendance Far and Away a New Record

About 50,000 people, more than double previous years' attendance, were guests last week of the Oakland County 4-H Fair.

Emil Fimbinger, 4-H county extension leader, credited good weather, interesting programs and a good midway for the increased turnout.

"The grounds were packed every night," said Fimbinger.

He said no tally had yet been made on receipts, but that the money would be used to pay off existing debts.

★ ★ ★

Highlight of the fair was the livestock auction Thursday night in which prices of up to a $1 a pound were bid for 4-H animals.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY

The fireworks display, also Thursday night having been canceled because of drizzly weather Wednesday, was rated as tops.

★ ★ ★

Horse costume classes Friday night created a spectacle of unexpected beauty for the city guests.

The fair closed Saturday night, the day having been devoted to horse judging classes.

Youngsters Finish Exhibits for Lapeer County 4-H Fair

Some 750 Lapeer County youngsters, members of 4-H Clubs, are putting the finishing touches on an estimated 1,800 exhibits which will go on display this week at the annual Lapeer County 4-H Youth Fair.

Slated for tomorrow, Wednesday and Thursday at the County Center Building, Lapeer, the affair will be highlighted by a beef, ham and lamb barbecue expected to feed about 500 people tomorrow evening.

The dinner, which begins at 5 p.m., will be followed by the annual livestock sale at 8 p.m. Al Evans of Burville has been retained as auctioneer.

Richard Strong, county 4-H extension agent, said Wednesday's program will feature the judging of 30 different type of projects. They vary from animals to produce.

Thursday is horse day at the fair with junior leadership interviews slated for 10 a.m.

State Waters Claim 4 Lives

By The Associated Press

At least four persons drowned over the weekend in Michigan waters, and a youth was presumed drowned.

The Associated Press count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ends midnight Sunday.

These are the victims:

Dan Carey, 55, of Byron Center, and his son, Herman Fred, 9, when the small speed boat they were riding in swamped and sank in Perch Lake in Montcalm County. The four other persons in the boat swam to safety.

Charles Swift, 18, of Flint, whose body was found floating in Saginaw Bay three miles south of the Gravelly Shoals Lighthouse. The sailboat which Swift and Kent Silverton, 17, also of Flint, were sailing was found capsized in the bay. Silverton is presumed drowned by authorities.

★ ★ ★

Regis Butler, 18, of Detroit, who drowned while apparently swimming in the Clinton River in Macomb County before dawn Saturday.

Farmington Ponders Water Cost Increase

FARMINGTON — The City Council will consider a substantial increase in the cost of water at its meeting at 8 tonight at the City Hall.

The Detroit water system, which supplies the city with water, has asked the city to enact a 15 per cent rate hike and a 25 per cent surcharge, said City Manager John Dinan.

The council will also conduct two public hearings.

One is the second and final hearing on the paving of Brookdale between Grand River and Nine Mile.

★ ★ ★

The other hearing is for a general commercial rezoning request on half an acre of land on the west side of Orchard Lake Road and adjacent to a Detroit Edison transformer.

Two Children Riding Bikes Among Traffic Toll of 17

By The Associated Press

Seventeen persons, including four motorcyclists and two children riding bicycles, were killed in Michigan traffic accidents during the weekend.

The Associated Press count of weekend traffic fatalities began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended last midnight.

The victims:

Donal J. Sagash, 31, of Beaverton, when his motorcycle pulled off a shoulder of M 18 and struck an auto pulling a trailer last night near Gladwin.

Gerry J. Ferkowicz, 22, of Silverwood, in a single-car crash last night on a county road near Mayville.

★ ★ ★

Jenny Muzyczka, 49, of Caro, in a two-car collision last night on M 53 south of Cemetery Road near Marlette.

PEDESTRIAN KILLED

2 Novi Teens Attend Citizenship Seminar

NOVI — Two Novi teens attended the Fourth Annual Young People's Citizenship Seminar recently at Camp Kett near Cadillac.

Oakland County delegates were Patricia Erwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erwin, 40401 10 Mile, and John Van Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Wagner, 23710 Maud Lea Circle.

Both will be juniors in high school this fall. They are active in student government.

The Michigan Farm Bureau sponsored the seminar for about 150 young people. They discussed American value systems, various governmental and economic systems, and two-party politics.

De Gaulle: Safe Despite Storm

PARIS (UPI)—Could Frenchmen angry over President Charles de Gaulle's Canadian performance possibly throw him out of office over the incident? Not a chance.

But if the popular sentiment which appears to be highly critical of the French leader develops into a political force, the general's opposition could make things pretty rough for him at home.

Nothing can happen to de Gaulle in France as far as staying in power goes. But undoubtedly his enemies at home and the rest of the world will look at his pronouncements from now on with a more jaundiced eye, most observers believe.

De Gaulle holds office, no matter what, until 1973 under the seven-year term he won in a squeaking runoff victory last December.

His cabinet can fall and his legislative hold can be jarred—but the president stays on as chief of state.

And Frenchmen well know that de Gaulle is the type of politician who operates best under just those circumstances. Since the start of World War II he has fought most successfully when the odds against him seemed most overwhelming.

De Gaulle is expected by some observers to appear at his toughest and shrewdest in coming weeks, not only to counter the adverse criticism of the Quebec fiasco but to push through a series of controversial ordinances his cabinet has decreed, under near-dictatorial powers given it by the parliament earlier this summer.

The domestic problems probably will occupy more public attention in France than de Gaulle's Canadian trip, at least until later in the fall.

★ ★

The Quebec incident tends to be more difficult for the man-in-the-street to understand, but the domestic problems go right to the pocketbook, affecting social security health payments, payroll deductions, and a plan to give workers profit-sharing benefits.

CRIMP IN HIS STYLE

The combined leftist and Communist opposition and even some of his coalition partners in the Republican Independence party are out to gun down the government of Premier Georges Pompidou and thereby crimp de Gaulle's style.

★ ★ ★

Now, armed with his controversial performance in Quebec, the opposition can be expected to hit even harder at the Gaullists. But in principle they cannot touch de Gaulle himself.

★ ★ ★

There is no doubt that the opposition will put up a tough battle to capitalize on the public feeling around by the Quebec trip and its worldwide repercussions, but there also is little doubt that de Gaulle will do all he can to counter the attack.

U. S. Justice, 68, Is Hospitalized on Bangkok Visit

BANGKOK (AP) — U.S. Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark has been admitted to a U.S. Army hospital in Bangkok with an intestinal disorder.

Clark, who arrived here Aug. 2 for a series of lectures to university students, became ill Friday night, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said.

He was taken to the U.S. Army's 5th Field Hospital. The embassy spokesman said Clark was suffering from gastroenteritis and would remain in the hospital "a few more days."

The 68-year-old jurist, who is retiring from the Supreme Court, came to Bangkok after a visit to Australia.

It Seems to Me . . .

Our Governor's Nationality Settled by First Congress

Isn't it about time those petty souls around the Nation stopped straining at the leash in regard to Governor ROMNEY'S "nationality?"

He's an American.

He's an American "by law."

★ ★ ★

In an act to Establish a Uniform Rule of Naturalization, our first Congress said:

"The children of citizens of the United States that may be born beyond the sea or outside the limits of the United States, shall be considered as natural born citizens of the United States."

★ ★ ★

Doesn't this settle everything above and beyond future discussion of any kind or type? Our Governor's parents were as American as Chief Pontiac and he was born during a visit to Mexico. This contingency is covered by unassailable logic and law.

★ ★ ★

What more is there to say? Congress has spoken.

These small-time agitators that want to stir up trouble over practically nothing seem to die hard. They arise at periodic intervals in widely scattered locations — and attempt to argue about something that was settled nearly 200 years ago.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT JR., was born outside the continental United States but he was elected and served in Congress.

What's all the shootin' about.

Puerto Rico's Status . . . .

Puerto Rico's recent vote to retain the status quo is far and away the best answer. They are under a protectorate of the United States and they're lucky.

★ ★ ★

There are two alternatives:
Statehood
Independence
The former is a dubious proposition — for them. They face a tremendous tax increase.

Independence would be fraught with tremendous danger. If they cast off Uncle Sam, they're on their own —permanently. How long would it be before a Russian warship dropped into the harbor and announced placidly:

"We're taking over.

"Be quiet and you won't get hurt."

From times immemorial, the British Isles have exported and imported goods hither and yon, always with a very comfortable balance of trade in their favor. Britain looked and dealt far and wide — casually.

It's "This Changing World."

Currently, the great House of Commons has echoed and reechoed with stirring speeches deploring a catastrophic situation.

"It's awful," they say.

Well, it really is.

Worldwide competition is terrific for everyone everywhere. American firms have been especially devastating in their entrance into the British market. Britain no longer rules the waves and the sun finds time to set every day on the British Empire. A glorious situation existed for centuries and Britains accepted it with complete equanimity.

But this is a new deal.

It can happen to any nation. (Including this).

And in Conclusion . . . .

The Ship That Won't Sink!

David Lawrence Asks:

Why Did LBJ Delay on Detroit?

WASHINGTON — Strange paradoxes confuse the American people nowadays as they try to understand just why President Johnson delayed for several hours the sending of federal troops into riot-torn Detroit a fortnight ago while President Kennedy in 1963, without waiting for a request from the governor of Alabama, ordered federal troops to Alabama when there were threats of or actual disturbances.

LAWRENCE

Also, President Johnson sent federal troops into Selma, Ala., in March 1965 to protect a five-day march to Montgomery, even though no state of insurrection had developed, nor was anything of the kind so certified by Gov. Wallace.

It is true that both the governor and the state legislature declined to spend the extra money for safeguarding the 55-mile march and advised the federal government that the financial burden was already too heavy. As it developed, the federal government did spend at least $490,000.

President Johnson last week at a news conference endeavored to interpret his own obligations as follows:

"Under the Constitution and laws of this country and the uniform practices of all past presidents, before troops can be used in any civil disorder, the following elements must be present when a state seeks assistance:

"First, a request for troops by the legislature, if the legislature can be convened, or if the legislature cannot be convened, by the governor.

★ ★ ★

"Two, certification of insurrection or domestic violence.

OUT OF CONTROL

"Three, the demonstration of a clear inability of state and all local authorities to control the situation despite the use of all law enforcement resources which can be brought to bear."

But the Constitution doesn't mention any such step as "certification."

It says simply that the federal government "shall protect" each state against domestic violence."

Some members of Congress now are saying that the contrasting experiences in Michigan and Alabama show how, when an administration in power in Washington wants to support a Negro march, it sends in federal troops, but when confronted by violence in a state whose governor happens to be an aspirant for the Republican presidential nomination, the same instantaneous protection is not forthcoming.

Bob Considine Says:

Rap Brown, Carmichael Endanger U.S. Security

NEW YORK — Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown can plead, if they ever have need of pleading, that their recent free-speech calls to arms and their other invitations to violence are constitutional.

CONSIDINE

They would not want for legal aid from the Civil Liberties Union, nor would the Supreme Court turn a deaf ear to their appeals from any decision by a lower court that they endanger the security of all the peoples of the United States.

They are as involved with U.S. security as were the Rosenbergs, Klaus Fuchs, Harry Gold and the Greenglasses.

But there is little likelihood that "the book" will ever be thrown at them, unless some group that warrants the confidence and respect of Americans of all colors plucks them legally from under their protective covers and makes the legal case against them as clear-cut as is America's emotional case against them.

Carmichael, a product of Washington, D.C.'s distinguished Howard University, on which the government has bestowed millions of dollars, gave as much comfort to the enemy in Havana this past week as, say, Toyko Rose (daughter of a Midwestern shopkeeper) provided in World War II. She went to the can.

'SEVERER FATE'

William Joyce, Lord Haw Haw, suffered a somewhat severer fate when his fellow Englishmen got their hands on him after his propaganda services in behalf of Hitler. Nobody mentioned freedom of speech. Treason was the word.

Rap Brown, incredibly offered the pulpit of St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church in Washington from which to vent his peculiar venom, waded into his remarks as if he were using the 2nd Amendment as a shield.

The "affable" man, as the New York Times referred to him, preached the seizure of weapons and the shooting of whites. He suggested that he might even take a shot at the wife of the President of the United States.

The suggestion one hears about these two mavericks is that the U.S. news media should stop quoting everything that spills from them, since they in no way represent any responsible segment of American life and constant exposure ignites more strife. But there must be some more positive and efficient way of dealing with them.

'Program to Curb Crime Should Be Carried Out'

Judge Moore's points to curb crime are excellent and should be carried out. However, I do not agree that the public is apathetic. People are discouraged and feel that any effort on their part would be ignored or useless, especially when it came to the courts.

★ ★ ★

Many criminals are caught but not many receive sentences to match their crimes. Teenagers are let out on probation or let go entirely to act again. Some get off with light sentences at most, and these young hoodlums are even protected sometimes by not naming them in the news.

★ ★ ★

Crime in any form should be exposed and punished. I hope Judge Moore can persuade the courts to carry out his points and that he will always uphold these views in his sentences and decisions.

'Governor Couldn't Make Positive Decision'

After following the sickening recent events I think we really got a prime example of our top state leadership (Gov Romney.) Not so much that it's going to cost multi-millions of dollars, but the fact that our leader couldn't make a positive decision in a time of crisis. Any politician who blunders because his political future is at stake should quit.

Question and Answer

This question may be of interest to families with boys in service. If it is 1 p.m. Sunday in Michigan, what is the day and time in Vietnam?

R. K. NAILE
HIGHLAND

REPLY

Vietnam time is 12 hours ahead of ours, so it would be 1 a.m. Monday. However, if you need to know this for purpose of telephoning, you will need additional information. Telephone service to Vietnam is available only 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. every day but Saturday. There is no Saturday service. The overseas operator tells us the load is so heavy that all calls are booked until Oct. 6. She advises those wishing to talk to servicemen in Vietnam to write them and have them call home collect. Calls will get through much faster.

Doctor Shortage

Life Magazine

The American Medical Association made news by recognizing a fact known to most for 10 or 15 years: a serious shortage of doctors in the U.S. The A.M.A. called for "an immediate and unprecedented increase" in the intake of medical schools.

★ ★ ★

Who's surprised that there is a doctor shortage? Not the people who call for an appointment and are told they can be accommodated on Wednesday of next week. The number of M.D. degrees in recent years has kept approximate pace with the increase in population.

But — and this is one of the most significant bets around — Americans have chosen to spend a large part of their increased income on medical care. This demand for physicians' services will continue to rise.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Milford O. Rouse, as president of the A.M.A., observed, that his profession was faced with many challenges. Displaying a remarkable talent for the wrong phrase, the first challenge he mentioned was "the concept of health care as a right rather than a privilege."

★ ★ ★

For more than two decades the average income of physicians has been rising much faster than that of Americans generally, and the "working conditions" of physicians have been improving.

Expectably, large numbers of college men have tried to break into this socially useful and lucrative profession. But half the applicants for medical school have been rejected.

The resulting shortage is very different from the shortage of nurses. The physician's profession, is one that thousands of bright young men and women have been vainly clamoring to enter.

★ ★ ★

The A.M.A., by its power to accredit schools and to approve hospitals, exercises a far greater control over entry into its profession than any other professional group.

It should have taken the lead years ago in demanding a rapid expansion of medical education. Instead A.M.A. leaders until this year expressed doubt that a shortage of doctors existed.

American medicine has dealt with the artificially created shortage of U.S.-trained doctors by giving employment to astounding numbers of graduates of foreign medical schools. Every recent year, some 2,500 of these — nearly a third of the total number of M.D. degrees granted last year by American medical schools — find work in the U.S.

★ ★ ★

A high proportion of the foreign-trained doctors come from countries desperately in need of medical services. The artificial distortion in the U.S. medical market has the side effect of depriving these countries of physicians. This drain is bitterly resented in low-income countries which think the U.S. is rich enough to train its own doctors.

The A.M.A.'s critics have accused it of restricting the number of doctors in training for the purpose of increasing the incomes of licensed physicians. This ascription of a crass economic motive does less than justice to the dedicated men who pursue one of the most difficult of all professions.

★ ★ ★

The A.M.A., obsessed with its struggle against "socialized medicine," has been slow to grasp the immense opportunities implicit in the rising demand for medical care. Now it has resolved any lingering doubt that a shortage of doctors exists. By 1980 the public will begin to appreciate the results of a 1967 A.M.A. decision that should have been made in 1947.

Children of the Great Often Can't Find Own Identities

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pity the children of the great.

How would you like to be the son or daughter of a distinguished prime minister, a famous president, an actor or actress toasted in all the capitals of the civilized world?

Could you live up to them? What about your own personality, your own life? Could you develop the one or live the other satisfactorily in the shadow of another's greatness?

According to Dr. Milton H. Miller, chairman of the psychiatry department of the University of Wisconsin, the children or prominent individuals often find it hard to discover their own identities.

This will surprise no one who has lived long enough in this world to make a few observations about the fate of children born into it.

Who hasn't known of the wayward son of the celebrated preacher, the bum whose father was his state's finest senator, the five-times-married beauty who couldn't transmute papa's gold into even transient happiness?

A CARICATURE

"These children," Dr. Miller said, "try to be what they are not.

They try to be either a caricature of their family image or the opposite of what the family expects."

They do not, in any case, act themselves. They suffer from a sense of disappointment, impotence, inadequacy, failure, and resentment.

The great father, or great mother, as the case may be, is a "charismatic person."

MAKES THINGS HAPPEN

"A charismatic person," according to Miller, "is one who is known in his profession, industry, or social group as having superior intelligence, drive, and inspirational ability.

"He is a person who seems to make things happen, who moves people, who believes he can control his own and often others' destiny."

The family of such an individual becomes psychologically starved. It "goes hungry while the 'great' man or woman feeds the world."

* * *

The child of such a parent has to find out who he is and what niche he can fill which has not already been preempted by his famed father or mother.

* * *

It is up to the psychiatrist, according to Miller, to help the emotionally disordered young adult in such a family "to discover himself as an individual and to realize that the world is broader, wider, and deeper than the 'exciting" world of his esteemed parent."

2 Envoys Report on Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Special White House emmissaries Maxwell Taylor and Clark Clifford, convinced that the U.S. offensive in Vietnam is "headed on the right track," say there should be a continued buildup of pressure on the Communists.

The envoys, reporting to President Johnson over the weekend on their two-week tour of five nations, said most U.S. allies favor continued bombing of North Vietnam and a second Asian summit meeting to review progress of the war.

Taylor and Clifford met with top officials in each country to transmit Johnson's views on the war, report on the military situation and solicit suggestions.

"The consensus, without exception, was that the allies were headed on the right track," Clifford said.

U.-M. Grad Students Plan Rent Strike

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—The executive board of the University of Michigan's graduate assembly voted last night to authorize a rent strike by graduate students at the university.

The assembly, representing more than 900 families who live in school-owned housing facilities, said it was protesting a 10 per cent rent increase authorized by University Housing Director John Feldcamp.

A spokesman for the student group said the protest was because Feldcamp only gave students a 30-day notice that rent would be increased.

The spokesman charged the short notice wasn't fair because students must give 60-day notices to terminate their leases of the school-owned facilities.

* * *

"The increase came at a bad time," the spokesman said. "The fall term starts in 20 days and many students are facing a 20 to 30 per cent tuition increase then. With the 10 per cent rent increase, it would be cheaper for many students to live in privately owned houses."

* * *

A university spokesman would not comment on the student board's action.

WON'T PAY HIKE

The student group's action will mean that the 10 per cent rent increase will be withheld by students living in the facilities, the student spokesman said.

The spokesman said the rent increase would be withheld until the housing director's action and the students' position can be presented to the university board of trustees.

The trustees meet tomorrow, when they will act on tuition increases as well as the housing dispute.

Asked whether they feared eviction, the student spokesman said: "We don't expect any eviction problem . . . at least until the trustees either uphold the rent increase or rule in our favor."

2 Manhandle Teen in Holdup

A teen-aged service station attendant was manhandled by two men who made off with more than $200 from the firm's cash register, Pontiac police were told late Saturday.

Storm Sidock, 15, told officers the men entered Jerry's Gulf Station, 1153 Baldwin, about 11 p.m. and asked for change.

He said one of the men grabbed him by the throat and forced him into a rear room [illegible] he opened the cash register.

Death Toll Now at 132

Carrier to Head for U.S.

MANILA (AP) — The aircraft carrier Forrestal is tentatively scheduled to leave Friday for repairs in the United States, probably at the Norfolk, Va., Navy yard, a spokesman at the Subic Bay naval base said today.

The spokesman said the death toll in the disastrous fire aboard the carrier had risen from 131 to 132, presumably because an injured man had died, while one crewman previously reported missing had turned up and the number of missing was now two.

* * *

He said minor repair such as patching of some of the holes on the flight deck were being rushed so the ship could depart.

Although the fire and bomb explosions caused vast destruction in the after-part of the ship, her main engines and steering mechanism were not affected and she made the trip from Vietnam to the Philippines at 27 knots.

Violinist Gets Ovation for Saturday Concert

By RICHARD MORSE

With Sixten Ehrling conducting in top form and Itzhak Perlman, gifted young violinist, as soloist, a rare musical treat unfolded Saturday evening at Meadow Brook Music Festival.

★ ★ ★

The program opened with an orchestra standard, the Dvorak Symphony No. 9, better known as "The New World Symphony." Negro and American Indian themes served as the composer's musical inspiration.

The work was composed during Dvorak's short stay in the United States. The composer showed American composers what could be done with folk-style themes in the larger forms, in this case, the symphony.

FIRST MOVEMENT

In the first movement, an Adagio, allegro molto, the music follows the pattern used by classical composers such as Haydn or Mozart. The sonata form of that period is effectively used as a framework for Dvorak's short but melodic themes and brilliant use of orchestral instruments.

The Detroit Symphony gave an inspired reading, showing beautiful tonal balance and dynamics, building to the great dynamic climax demanded by this movement.

The second movement, a Largo, one of the most famous in all symphonic literature, is in song form. The theme is stated by the English horn and the middle section in quicker tempo by the woodwinds and strings, followed by a return to the haunting English horn theme, known to many as "Goin' Home."

★ ★ ★

The English horn solo, acknowledged by the conductor at the conclusion of the symphony, was superbly done.

The third movement, a Scherzo, a form which gives briskness and cheerfulness for contrast, was impeccably played.

The closing Allegro con fuoco contains three musical references to the earlier movements plus two new main themes. The liquid sound of the clarinet, the full brass, the change of tempi, all create a fitting closing movement to this ingratiating work. No better introduction to symphonic literature can be found.

PERLMAN

Itzhak Perlman performed the Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major, Opus 77, by Brahms. This work was written as a kind of collaboration between Brahms and Joseph Joachim, the great violin virtuoso. Joachim even furnished a cadenza and the fingering and bowing still used.

The concerto is broadly classical in form, yet reflects warmth and melody in the romantic vein.

Perlman played the first movement, an Allegro ma non troppo, with beautiful tone, style and technical mastery.

The Adagio, the second movement, was sensitively played by both soloist and orchestra. The fine wood-wind and French horn work in the opening passages gave the soloist the proper sympathetic background for the solo line, first stated by the oboe, then the violin.

This beautiful theme, first shared between violins and oboes, then intricately developed, rhythmically, showed his mastery of Brahms' composition.

The closing movement, an Allegro vivace, was played with complete technical command of his instrument and fiery interpretation as a fitting climax to this great work.

He received a standing ovation and was called back to the stage a number of times.

New Grandchild to Be Tenth for the Romneys

BLOOMFIELD HILLS (UPI) — Mrs. Loren Keenan, Gov. George Romney's elder daughter, Sunday gave birth to her seventh child—an eight pound-10 ounce girl.

The baby, named Alyson Lenore Keenan, is the 10th grandchild of the Governor and his wife Lenore.

Romney's other daughter, Mrs. Bruce Robinson has three children.

Alyson was born at two a.m. Sunday at New Providence Hospital in the Detroit suburb of Southfield. Doctors reported today that both Mrs. Keenan and her daughter were in excellent condition.

Darrell Lauers Wed in Candlelight Rite

A reception in the Forest Lake Country Club followed a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening in which Kristin Lee Olson became the bride of Darrell Lynn Lauer.

Their parents are the Bert T. Olsons of Bloomfield Hills and Dr. Howard Lauer of Dayton, Ohio and the late Mrs. Lauer.

The new Mrs. Lauer chose an A-line gown of white peau de soie. The hemline, sabrina neckline and cap sleeves were banded in Chantilly lace, as was the detachable full court train.

Her veil was a full-length mantilla of imported English net edged with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis.

HONOR ATTENDANT

Mary Kathrine Olson was maid of honor for her sister with attendants Mrs. Norman Lobdell of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Lawrence Crosby of Dayton, (the bridegroom's sister), and Karin Olson of Bloomington, Ind., another sister of the bride.

Mate Wrong in Not Trying an Introduction

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently we attended a play. During intermission a friend of my husband's came over to talk with him. Not remembering his name, he did not introduce me, which was very embarrassing.

How could he have handled this?—Mrs. K. F.

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. K. F.: Your husband was wrong in not attempting an introduction. Ideally, he would have said to his friend, "Glad to see you, I don't think you've met my wife, Jane," and the friend would have risen to the occasion and said, "I'm Bob Jones. I'm delighted to meet you."

Even if the friend didn't give his name, it would have served to introduce you — far better than ignoring you completely.

Dear Mrs. Post: I would appreciate knowing what is the proper way of tipping when parking a car at a restaurant where an attendant is present to park it.

Do I tip him when he parks the car or when he gets it after we have eaten, or am I expected to tip for both services? — Michael J.

Dear Michael: The attendant is tipped once — when he returns the car to you when you leave, not at the time of your arrival.

Be Firm With Casanova

Decorator Has 'Funny Ideas'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I decided after many years to refurnish our home. I am now in the midst of it and am quite pleased with the results so far, but I've encountered a problem.

ABBY

My decorator makes uncalled for advances toward me when he comes to my home and also at his shop when no one is around. He is a very unattractive, middle-aged family man.

I prefer not to change decorators at this point, but I am getting tired of ducking and dodging and avoiding his pinches and pats. Please don't advise me to put him in his place as it won't work. And don't suggest I report him to his boss, as he owns the studio.

VALLEY CLIENT

DEAR CLIENT: For you to go on ducking, dodging, and using fancy footwork to escape the clutches of this self-styled Casanova type merchant is ludicrous.

Stop playing games and tell him to keep his mind on his business or you will take your business elsewhere. I guarantee you from that time on you won't have any trouble with him.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband died four years ago. He was a heavy drinker and habitual gambler, and our children knew their father for what he was. I worked all my married years to give our children the necessities. (I had six — all married now.)

A year ago I married a good man who neither drinks nor gambles. He was divorced and walked out leaving his wife everything, so it was only common sense that he move into my home, which is completely furnished.

★ ★ ★

One of my daughters is making me miserable. She resents my new husband. She never got along with her father when he was living, but now she says she can't stand to see another man living in her father's house, sleeping in her father's bed, and sitting in her father's chair.

Abby, my new husband treats me better than I've ever been treated in my life, and I think I'm lucky to have him. Why should we go into debt to refurnish the house so my daughter won't keep making these nasty remarks? I can't take it anymore. What should I do?

MRS A.

DEAR MRS. A.: Tell your daughter that if she can't stand to see another man using the same furniture formerly used by her father, she should spare herself the agony and stay away.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Today is our 38th wedding anniversary. We have two married children and one still at home. I (the Mrs.) have worked most of my married life. Ever since I quit my job six years ago my husband has insisted that I prepare a lunch for him at home. He has only an hour for lunch, and there are plenty of good restaurants only a block away from where he works.

Thank God, money is no problem.

★ ★ ★

I have always hated to make these lunches, but I have never complained. Would I strike you as being a selfish or lazy wife if I were to tell my husband he should buy his lunch out?

THE MRS.

★ ★ ★

DEAR MRS.: Since you "hate" the lunch-making routine, and it wouldn't be a hardship for your husband to buy his lunch, go ahead and tell him what's on your mind. If he still insists, then he's selfish.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: A girl in our office is getting married, and since there are 25 of us we thought we would all go in together and buy her one nice gift.

Two girls were selected to purchase the gift.

They bought a $4 habachi and added to it a 25-cent card on which they wrote this long list of donors. It came to the grand total of 16 cents apiece!

All 25 of us are going to the wedding, and I am embarrassed to tears.

Should I go ahead and buy something on my own at the risk of starting a war? Or should I just let it go?

SURROUNDED BY CHEAPSKATES

★ ★ ★

DEAR SURROUNDED: Buy something on your own and quietly send it. And by the way, the usual procedure is first to collect so much from each girl, and then buy a gift in that amount. There is no excuse for having been "surprised" the way you were.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "Friday's Child": The woman who is more concerned with how she looks than with the man who is looking at her bats zero in sex appeal.

Local Couple Returns From Hawaii Meetings

Returning Sunday, their 29th wedding anniversary, from Hawaii, were Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Priestley of Edgefield Drive.

They attended the American Bar Association convention there for a week and vacationed in Seattle and the Pacific Northwest prior to the meetings.

Priestley is chairman of the Association's committee on National and State Legislation concerning real property.

Nick A. Neiras Exchange Vows in a Saturday Evening Ceremony

Yolanda Kathleen Perazzo became the bride Saturday evening of Nick A. Neira.

For vows spoken in the First Presbyterian Church, the bride wore floor-length white silk peau de soie with an Empire waist and A-line styling.

Alencon lace trimmed the bodice and sleeves. Matching lace was fashioned into a detachable Watteau chapel train.

★ ★ ★

Her veiling of illusion fell into two lengths, one touching the floor and the other elbow length. Both were held by a matching silk pill box.

White Eucharis lilies, daisies and yellow roses were the bridal bouquet.

HONOR MAID

Suzanne Walcutt of Daggett was maid of honor. Paulette Gallardo, Sharon Rodden, Mrs. Michael Hicks and Mrs. Larry Fisher were bridesmaids.

Larry Fisher served as best man.

Ushers were Eugene and Robert Perazzo, brothers of the bride, with Charles Nurek and Arthur Larsen.

Jeffery Lamphere was ring bearer.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Perazzo of West Kennett Road and the Tony Neiras of West Hopkins Street.

The couple are honeymooning in Florida following a reception in the Auburn Heights American Legion Hall.

They will make their home in Rochester.

H. C. Busches Repeat Vows

Calvary Baptist Church in Goderich, Ont. was the site of Saturday afternoon vows by Rosalie Jean Westlake and Henry Craig Busch of Balboa Street.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Westlake of Bayfield, Ont., wore a bouffant gown of French Cuipure and peau de soie.

A-LINE

An A-line skirt fell from the empire waist. Lilies of the valley held her triple illusion veil.

She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

* * *

Sandra Westlake was her sister's maid of honor with another sister, Barbara, Nancy Donaldson and Lynda Typpi as bridesmaids.

* * *

Ronald Busch was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Henry L. Busches of Chesaning.

Ushers were Ronald Westlake, Jonathan Busch, Larry Thompson and James Francis.

Afternoon Ritual Unites Mr. and Mrs. Beaupre

MRS. ERIC O. BEAUPRE

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed an afternoon ceremony Saturday which united Regina Kay Roos and Eric Otis Beaupre in marriage.

SILK ORGANZA

For the ceremony in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church in Livonia, the bride chose a gown of silk organza with bodice of Venise lace.

Its square neckline and chapel train were accented with matching lace.

She wore a shoulder length veil of silk illusion secured with organza and velvet flowers. Her bouquet was of white baby's breath.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Walsh Jr., of Birmingham, served as honor attendants for the couple.

Ushers were the bride's brother, Dennis Roos, and Stanley Harris.

* * *

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Roos of Livonia and the Edward A. Beaupres of Westwind Drive, Commerce Township.

Following a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the pair will make their home in Garden City.

Saturday Rite for the Moats

A floor length gown featuring Swiss embroidered flower appliques was worn by Susan Joel Conrad for her marriage to Richard Dale Moats.

WATTEAU TRAIN

A sweeping Watteau chapel train complemented her wedding ensemble for the ceremony Saturday in Our Lady of Refuge Catholic Church.

A bouquet of Stephanotis and ivy was carried for the rite.

Mrs. Terry Luenberger was matron of honor for the daughter of the Grey J. Conrads of Cranberry Lake, White Lake Township.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Winski and Mrs. Ronald Conrad.

Robin Conrad was flower girl and Ernest Green ring bearer.

Ronald Kasher was best man and Joe Wood and Ronald Conrad ushers.

* * *

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Moats of Canterbury Drive.

A northern Michigan honeymoon followed the reception in Rotunda Country Inn.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. I have bleached hair, but I shampoo and set it myself. I do not use rollers because pin curls are much better for me with the type hair I have. However sometimes the clips leave marks. Why is this and what can I do?

* * *

A. This happens because your hair is extremely porous. Never use more than one clip to a curl. You can use a tape on bangs. That is where the marks would be most noticeable.

* * *

Q. The ends of my hair are split. What could have caused this? What can I do about it?

* * *

A. Permanents and coloring can cause this. Hair that is extremely dry for any reason can lead to split ends. Cut the ends off and give your hair some conditioning treatments. There are excellent products on the market. Use cream shampoos and cream rinses.

* * *

Q. I always had a very dry skin, but as I grow older it is getting very dry. I can't seem to combat it. What causes this increasing dryness?

* * *

A. The complexion does become drier as the years pass. This is due in part to the fact that the little oil glands become less active. However, lack of moisture can also cause dryness. The use of moisturizers is very helpful.

* * *

Q. I am always reading that a woman should not cut the cuticle around her fingers. What is she supposed to do, just let the hangnails stay there sticking out? It doesn't seem to me that this advice is very practical. Of course, I know we should try to avoid hangnails with preventative care but if we don't or can't, what then?

A. You are right. A woman should try to avoid them by using a cuticle cream or oil regularly and by wearing rubber gloves when doing wet work and cotton gloves when doing regular housework or gardening.

However, if some hangnails do appear regardless, there are cosmetic products today which will dissolve them chemically.

* * *

Q. Are flat feet inherited? It seems that almost everyone in my family has flat feet.

A. Yes, the bony structure and type of musculature in the feet could be inherited.

Sweaty Palm May Cause Dress Mark

SILVER SPRINGS, Md. (UPI) — Men with sweaty palms shouldn't pat the back of the beautiful creature in a blue acetate gown.

Clothing sleuths at the National Institute of Drycleaning say that's what caused the mysterious appearance of a handprint on the back of such a gown after it was drycleaned.

* * *

The garment analysts explained that the blue to almost white color change was caused by an alkaline solution.

The alkali can be found in perspiration.

The investigators said a nervous hand probably caused the damage in that dress.

When? "Apparently while a couple were dancing," they said.

MRS. A. E. SEYFFERTH

Lace Chosen by Miss Arno for Ceremony

Linda Margaret Arno became the bride of Allen E. Seyfferth Saturday in a morning ceremony in St. Michael's Catholic Church.

The newlywed couple later greeted guests at an evening reception in the Italian-American Club.

PARENTS

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus J. Arno of McKinley Drive and the Walter H. Seyfferths of Center Line.

* * *

For the rite, the bride was attired in a full length underdress of taffeta with bouffant nylon overskirt and fitted lace jacket. Her shoulder length double illusion veil was capped with a cluster of flowers.

She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and ivy.

* * *

The bride's cousin, Kathryn Lemanski, was maid of honor with attendants Mary Ogles and Norma Schael. The bridegroom's niece, Patty Seyfferth, served as flower girl.

* * *

Best man was Walter A. Seyfferth, the bridegroom's brother. Theodore Lemanski and Ralph Seyfferth, another brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

The pair departed for a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

Population Explosion—5

Age of Famine Approaching

By LEWIS C. FRANK JR.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In less than eight years we will embark on a new age — an age of widespread and disastrous famines. Nothing will avert this crisis.

In the new age it won't be the possession of atomic weapons that will have the greatest strategic value, but the possession of food.

These are the premises of a new book, "Famine 1975," by a leading agronomist and a retired State Department officer to be published by Little, Brown and Co.

The authors are brothers, William and Paul Paddock. They say that it is too late for birth control or mammoth agricultural programs to avert the crisis.

* * *

They urge that the United States write off as hopeless cases a number of underdeveloped and developing nations.

MILITARY LOGISTICS

They suggest that American resources be used in the fashion of military logistics and that they can be used in the "time of famines" as a catalyst for a new period of American greatness.

The nations and governments who are written off as hopeless by the Paddocks may see in the work a possible blueprint for an official U.S. policy that would be hostile to them.

Far from endorsing the premises of the Paddock's despair or their projected program to build American strength on the hunger of others, we may still be grateful if their work provokes controversy.

* * *

The time is now (the Paddocks say it is too late) when peoples and governments must be shaken to get proper perspectives on population problems.

'CULTURE OF POVERTY'

In his new best-selling book, "La Vida," anthropologist Oscar Lewis sets forth a theory of "the culture of poverty."

He suggests that it is characteristic of impoverished people to live for the day and to fail to plan for the morrow.

Another writer reporting on a family planning project in an Asian village decries the people's inability to plan, their lack of "future orientation."

* * *

These observations about the poor are doubtless valid. But if we are to decry the shortsightedness of the poor, we should be screaming at the myopia of wealthy governments and at the relatively well-educated people who elect or tolerate those governments.

FAR AHEAD

The governments of all major world powers know that population growth is outstripping world food production. And in proclaim awareness our own government is far ahead of the others.

Yet awareness has not been matched for either food production or fertility control.

Sen. Ernest Gruening, who has been conducting important but too-little-publicized hearings on the "population crisis," has pointed out that fewer than 20 persons in the federal government are working full time on birth control problems.

A special study group of the U.S. Public Health Service recently submitted a report calculating how available money or money to become available could best be spent to save lives.

SEAT-BELT PROGRAM

For example, they estimated that a $2-million program to get the public to use auto seat belts could avert 23,000 deaths over a five-year period; a $119 million program for early detection of cervical cancer would save 34,000 lives. The seat-belt program would cost $87 a life saved; the cervical cancer program would cost $3,500.

Let's use the same approach. Let's treat the "unwanted pregnancy" as the health problem it is.

What could health administrators, Congress, and voters expect from a $100-million-a-year program that would serve five million medically indigent women in the childbearing years with family planning advice and supplies on a voluntary basis?

The 5 million is a minimal figure. We have approximately 39 million women in the child-bearing years and our poverty ratio is roughly about 20 per cent.

In 1965 approximately one out of 10 women in the childbearing years gave birth. Using the same figure for the poverty group, where contraception is practiced less effectively, when it is used at all, our group of 5 million gave birth to 500,000 babies.

* * *

Including abortions and miscarriages, we had a total of more than 650,000 pregnancies.

60 PCT. WANTED

We have shown earlier that a maximum of 60 per cent of pregnancies are desired, including those that are unplanned.

Using the same figures for the poverty group, we come up with a staggering total of 300,000 unwanted babies.

But this is only part of the tragedy. Using the national figures of the March of Dimes, at least 18,000 of these unwanted babies were born with serious birth defects.

INFANT DEATHS

And based on U.S. government figures, the fetal deaths, neonatal deaths, and infant deaths, (under 1 year) experienced among this group of women would exceed 17,000 in the single year.

To the nation and communities these personal tragedies add up to staggering costs.

A $100-million program today would provide the finest family planning assistance for every one of the 5 million or more women in the poverty group who would want it and use it.

* * *

It would include all the costs of supplies, medical examinations, educational materials and personnel.

* * *

It could include complete freedom of choice as to method — the virtually 100 per cent effective oral contraceptive compounds, the less effective but useful intrauterine devices and diaphragms, the aeresol foams, or instruction in the use of the temperature rhythm method.

Arab Split Is a Major Barrier to Peace

By LEON DENNEN
Foreign News Analyst
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — To convince the Arabs that Israel has a right to exist is only one of the crucial issues facing the Middle East peacemakers.

Other major obstacles to peace are the deep-rooted conflicts among the Arab themselves which have been a source of tension long before the emergence of the State of Israel.

Even in adversity, Arab leaders continue their ideological and political quarrels.

The Moslem world is split between pro-Russian socialists like Egypt's President Nasser, conservatives led by Saudi Arabia's King Faisal and moderates whose spokesman is Tunisia's shrewd President Habib Bourgiba.

* * *

Charting a lonely and precarious course is Jordan's young King Hussein.

FOUGHT VALIANTLY

He fought valiantly against Israel and lost vastly more than Egypt and Syria in a war he did not want.

He would probably make peace with Israel if it were not for fear of Nasser's assassins.

"I am convinced that Nasser would kill me an hour after I made peace with Israel," Hussein once told this writer in Amman.

The idelogical differences among Arab leaders were blurred only briefly by their antagonism toward Israel and mutual sympathy in defeat. They have now reappeared in even greater intensity.

ANGER, INDIGNATION

According to Radio Moscow's Cairo correspondent, "There is anger and indignation" in Egypt over Saudi Arabia's decision to resume deliveries of oil to the United States and Britain.

This action by King Faisal, the Russian newsman reported, was seen by President Nasser as "a betrayal of the national interests of the Arab peoples."

Egypt's president was angered by Faisal's statement that he was revoking the oil embargo because there was no proof that the United States and Britain helped Israel to defeat the Arabs.

* * *

Even the Russians never charged Washington and London with direct participation in the Arab-Israel war. But Nasser wants to keep this fiction alive.

Like the cry of "a stab in the back" raised by German militarists after World War I, it is his stock alibi for Egypt's defeat.

Saudi Arabia's reply to Nasser and his Russian sponsors was equally blunt. Radio Jidda said that the Soviet Union "is still deluding Arab public opinion with the illusion of friendship and support" while the Kremlin leaders are preparing to deal "a deadly blow to the Arab countries."

Faisal's radio accused the pro-Soviet Arab leaders of conveniently ignoring the fact that the Russians were the first to show readiness to supply the West with oil even as they urged the Arab countries to tighten the oil embargo.

* * *

"In other words, the Soviet Union is prepared to deal a deadly blow to Arab countries knowing that such a blow would serve its aim of spreading hunger and chaos and would ultimately bring the whole of the Middle East within the sphere of its colonialization."

New Evidence of Continental Drift

By Science Service

WASHINGTON—New evidence strongly supporting the theory that the continents are drifting apart was reported here this week. The evidence comes from both the Pacific and Atlantic.

Dating of rocks from South America and Africa have shown an "almost identical" geological age boundary between regions in Ghana and a counterpart in northern Brazil.

The radioactive datings are reported in the Science by Dr. Patrick M. Hurley and his co-workers at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in cooperation with geologists at the University of Sao Paulo in Brazil.

West of the geological boundary in both Ghana and Brazil, rock specimens were dated as about 2,000 million years old. East of the boundary, the rocks are only 500 million years old. The datings support the theory that Africa and South America were once joined together.

* * *

Controversy regarding continental drift is now some 40 years old, a major problem being how it started and what causes it to continue.

The theory most widely accepted is that the ocean floors act like a vast soup kettle, slowly churning over as does soup being heated in a pot; the time scale, however, is in hundreds of thousands of years. The heat source for the earth's churning is believed to be either its molten interior or radioactivity.

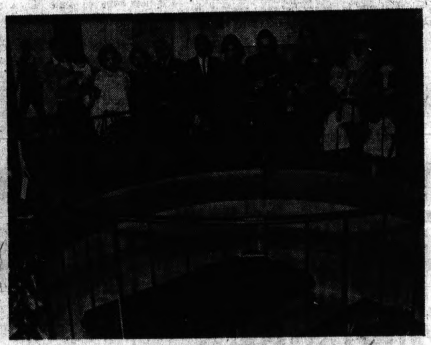
MAC'S MEMORIAL

"In my final dreams I hear again the crash of guns, the rattle of musketry, the strange, mournful mutter of the battlefield..."

Evidence of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's eloquent words, military deeds and administrative accomplishments during the half century of his service to America have been permanently enshrined at Norfolk, Va.

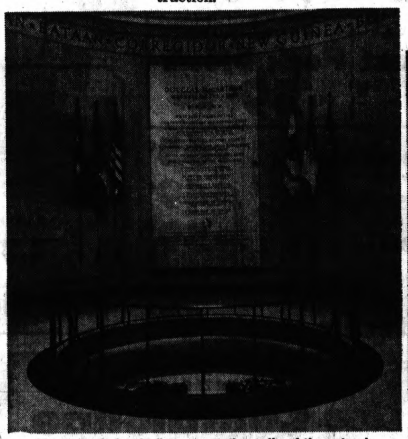
There the MacArthur memorial, a stately old courthouse renovated by the city at half a million dollar cost, is the final resting place of the five star general, and the depository for his personal effects, his military decorations, and his papers. It has become a highly popular tourist attraction.

Prominent among the exhibits in the memorial building are the general's dark eyeglasses, his distinctive hat and his corncob pipe.

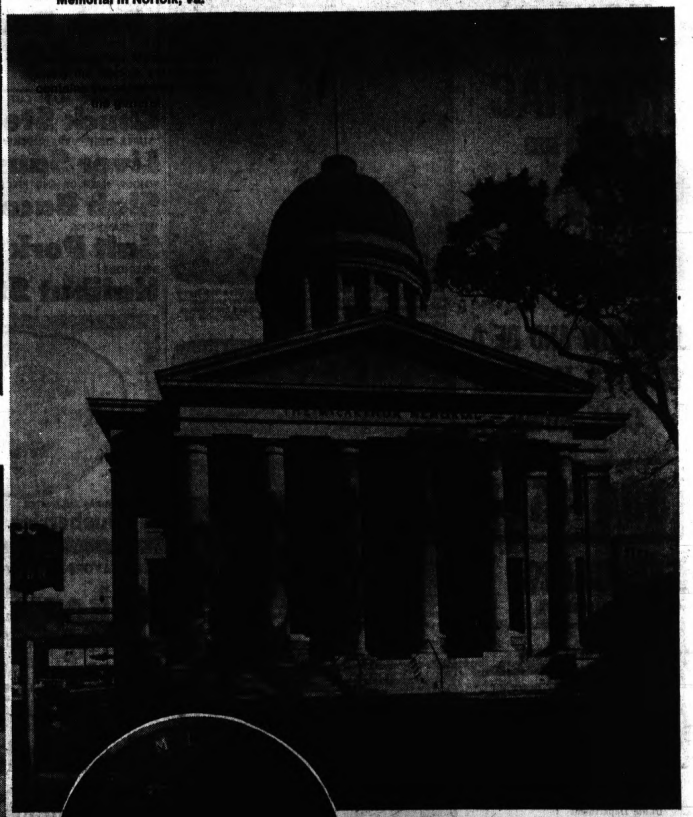


Gen. Douglas MacArthur's widow and son, Arthur, place a wreath above his tomb in the MacArthur Memorial in Norfolk, Va.

A group of visitors from the Philippines pause at the crypt in which Gen. MacArthur is entombed.



MacArthur's battle flags grace the walls of the rotunda and surround the crypt in which lie two tombs. One (at left) contains the general's body. Mrs. MacArthur will be buried in the other.



This portrait of MacArthur was painted in 1946 by Filipino artist Garcia Llamas.

This plaque was presented to the MacArthur Memorial by the Association of the United States Army after the general's death.

Youngsters examine a duplicate of the plaque aboard the battleship Missouri commemorating the Japanese surrender. (Plaque is shown in inset above.)

Minnesota Republican: Thorn in LBJ Side

By DAVE BURGIN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — A Democratic congressional aide interrupted Republican Congressman Albert Quie's salad and iced tea lunch to ask if he could borrow a pen.

"I have two," Quie (pronounced Kwee) said. "One with red ink, one with blue. Which do you want?"

"Oh, the red will do fine," the Democrat said.

"Great," Quie answered. "That's my LBJ budget pen."

The Democrat gave one of those polite chuckles.

He might have taken it as a compliment, though, because he had just felt the point of Washington's resident Republican thorn in President Lyndon Johnson's side.

"Not a thorn for the sake of being a thorn," says Quie, 42, in his sixth term representing Minnesota's 1st District.

"Some presidential thorns in the past have been just plain old pains in the backside. I like to think I'm constructive about it."

* * *

Al Quie is perfect for the role, beginning with the name. "Quie is Norwegian," he said. "It means pregnant heifer."

FRIENDLY GRIN

He wears a big friendly grin. His crewcut in the era of the mop doesn't make him look square, just earnest with a touch of All-America.

His voice and diction are crisp and smooth. He sounds like television's Hugh Downs and probably could get a network job if Congress became a bore.

That won't happen any time soon, though. Despite a decade of congressional experience, Quie is just getting started.

As second-ranking member of the important education and labor committee, he knows political power.

ARTICULATE VETERAN

As a thinking, articulate veteran in the House, he is constantly sought for leadership and advice.

And his role as No. 1 House critic of President Johnson's War on Poverty keeps him in the public eye.

"But hold it," Quie said. "Being the thorn isn't all that easy. When Johnson's juggernaut gets rolling it can be quite an unsettling experience. I know, because he's got it rolling against me and some of my colleagues right now."

Earlier this year, when Quie was peppering away at the President's education program, Johnson reportedly asked an aide, "What's this Quie want anyway? What's his problem?"

ARM TWISTING

Johnson then began his well-known twisting of arms and, in May, the "Quie amendment" to the administration's aid-to-education bill was defeated, 197 to 167.

"I wasn't too disappointed," Quie said. "I feel our program is just a matter of time. We made a lot of progress even in losing, and I'm not just being a politician."

The administration's bill gives aid to local school districts for specified programs.

The "Quie amendment" would have given school aid to the states in the form of block grants.

"I want to see a federal partnership with state and local government, that's all. I want to promote the concept of community action.

"The administration's legislation is too federal, and there isn't enough brilliance on the federal level to get into all the different state and local governments to see what their problems are.

"Of course, the President doesn't think that way. But all you have to do is look at the state of things in Office of Economic Opportunity programs, for example, and you'll see that something's got to be done."

ALBERT QUIE

Social standing in the hierarchy of flocks of hens is so important that some ruffled grouse have been known to starve within a few feet of food when socially suppressed.

Way to Ease Tensions Is to Improve Conditions

By WHITNEY YOUNG
Executive Director
National Urban League

I'm getting pretty annoyed about the way some people are using this summer's riots as an excuse to avoid doing anything about the basic social problems which caused them.

YOUNG

Senseless and irrational as they are, the riots have shown America the deep frustrations and bitterness in the ghetto.

These feelings are the result of joblessness, poor housing, poor schools and discrimination.

The way to ease tensions is to improve these conditions, not to worsen them.

Injustices cannot be ended by blood and fire, but neither is justice served by vindictiveness and reprisals.

It is especially wrong to deny justice to all Negroes because a few took part in irresponsible violence.

MAKE ALL PAY

Too many Americans focus on the three per cent who rioted, and are willing to make the 97 per cent of Negro citizens who are law-abiding pay for it. But this is nothing very new; Americans have always practiced a double standard for Negroes.

Let one Cassius Clay refuse to go into the Army, and 100 white boys who flee the draft by running away to Canada are forgotten.

Let one Negro politician abuse his power, and dozens of crooked white politicians are forgotten.

BEARING ARMS

Let one Negro throw a brick in Detroit, and the thousands of Negro soldiers who are bearing the disproportionate burden of the fighting in Vietnam are forgotten.

It is time for reason to prevail. No other ethnic group in America is expected to be 100 per cent perfect.

Rather than embark on a narrow-minded program of reprisals and denial of justice, America must embark on a sincere crusade to end the injustice of discrimination and the exploitation of the ghetto.

Only a determined effort to create more jobs and better housing and decent education will end the underlying causes of rioting.

The overwhelming majority of Negro citizens reject violence and anarchy as a means of ending injustice. I hope the majority of other Americans will reject short-sighted reprisals and angry suppression of Negro rights as a means of dealing with the real problems which face us.

As President Johnson put it in his televised message to the nation: "This is not a time for angry reaction. But I think it is a time for action, starting with legislative action to improve the life in our cities."

We are in a race with time to end the poverty and bigotry which distort our national life. There is a need for reasonable men of both races to work together to solve these pressing problems.

The frustrations of the young won't be ended by cutting funds for youth programs, and the poverty of the jobless won't be helped by cutting funds for training programs. Constructive solutions to these problems are called for, and mean and petty reprisals won't solve them.

Airliner Hits Deer

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A deer was killed Sunday when it ran in front of a jet airliner landing at Greater Pittsburgh Airport. The plane, flight 69 from New York landed safely, though it had to have a hydraulic line replaced in its landing gear.

Gathering of Orientalists to Test U. of M. Kitchens

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Planning 22 meals for a week-long international convention requires more than just the talents of a dietitian.

The University of Michigan is using historians, a linguist, a political scientist and other experts in putting together a menu for the 27th Congress of Orientalists which meet here the week of Aug. 13.

About 700 Moslems, Hindus, Christians, Jews, Buddhists Confucianists will be living together during the Congress which will study Oriental history and present day policies.

* * *

If the dietitians, with the help of their advisers, have planned well, the group also will be able to eat together.

Among the guidelines presented to the dietitians were these helpful suggestions: "Serve rice with most meals. . . no pork or pork products for Jews or Moslems from the Near East . . . lots of fresh fruit and vegetables from India . . . unleavened bread . . . a wide selection of spices . . . frequent use of fish, lamb and chicken. . ."

Diabetes Study Aided by Mice

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — A sick mouse will help make humans well.

Fur million diabetics in the United States and another 30 million to 60 million around the globe could be indebted to a strain of diabetic mice being bred in Bar Harbor, Me.

In diabetic research, "this mouse is the best working-model to date," one of its discoverers, Dr. Katharine P. Hummel, says.

"It is the kind of discovery that is leapt upon by researchers, because the diabetes in the mouse resembles that in mature humans," and a satisfactory animal subject has so far eluded diabetes researchers, she points out.

* * *

The latest research with mice has given hope that their diabetes may be discoverable five days after birth instead of three weeks, when obesity becomes evident. Obesity is one of the signs of the disease.

WILL BE POSSIBLE

If the diabetes can be found early, study of the developing syndrome will be possible for the first time.

Dr. Douglas L. Coleman, a biochemist and collaborator on the mouse work at Jackson Laboratory, reported this and other progress in research recently in Stockholm, Sweden, at the International Diabetes Federation Congress.

He found that the mice — genetically — are cooperative enough to color-code themselves.

"The most recent genetic studies," he says, "have established that the diabetes is linked to two-coat color genes, brown and misty. This information can be used to establish lines in which all the diabetic mice will be of one coat color while the normals and the carriers will be another."

Marines Invaded Guadalcanal 25 Years Ago

WASHINGTON (AP) — The island was so little known that no reliable maps, much less charts of the surrounding waters, could be found.

These were not the only question marks. How many enemy troops were on the island? Where were their main defense positions? How much resistance could be expected on the beach? The operation was full of disquieting x-factors.

* * *

Nonetheless, on Aug. 7, 1942—25 years ago today—units of the U.S. First Marine Division attacked Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands and began the first American offensive in the Pacific war.

The ensuing battle, which lasted six months, snapped the chain of Japanese victories in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific. From that day forward, the Japanese were forced to fall back steadily until the final surrender, V-J Day, three years later.

BROKE SPIRIT

"After Guadalcanal in the latter part of 1942," said Capt. Ohmae Toshikazu of the Imperial Japanese Navy planning staff, "I felt we could not win."

* * *

In Japanese strategic planning, the island was a key to what might have been the expulsion of all Allied forces from the Pacific. Having overrun Indo-China, Malaysia, the Philippines, and the Netherland East Indies and reduced the British bases in Hong Kong and Singapore, the Japanese were preparing to deliver the coup de grace — the capture of Australia and New Zealand.

* * *

Moving southward, the Japanese Army was to take New Guinea. The Navy's mission was to establish a base for air and sea operations to protect the flanks of the invading forces. Guadalcanal had been selected as the site for this base. An airfield was under construction when the Marines suddenly struck.

Amphibious landings were to become a twice-told story to hosts of American fighting men in the later stages of the Pacific War. But at Guadalcanal—

* * *

"It was an experience you just couldn't visualize," says Col. David R. Griffin, who was then a Marine second lieutenant. "I think the reaction of most of us was apprehension."

NO RESISTANCE

However, there was no enemy resistance on the beach. The Marines quickly attained their first assigned objectives. A perimeter was established and enlarged. The first Japanese reaction did not come until two weeks later, on Aug. 21, and the attacking force was wiped out to the last man. The Marines soon acquired a healthy respect for the fighting qualities of the Japanese.

* * *

"They were tenacious, fearless, and convinced of their superiority," says Maj. Gen. Raymond G. Davis, who was a captain commanding a special weapons company on Guadalcanal. "They considered dying an honor and they just kept coming."

There were Americans, too, who "just kept coming."

U.S. PILOTS OUTNUMBERED

American fighter pilots were always outnumbered over Guadalcanal. But Capt. Joe Foss shot down 26 Japanese planes and was awarded the Medal of Honor.

And in one of the climactic battles for the island, Capt. Charles Davis of Gordo, Ala., led a unit of the Army's 25th Division against a strong Japanese position in the hills, capturing it. On the spot Gen. J. Lawton Collins, "Lightning Joe," wrote out a recommendation for the Medal of Honor for Davis. It was the first of the Pacific War.

* * *

What is the main difference between the Americans who fought on Guadalcanal and those in action in Vietnam today?

Without exception, Marine and Army officers say, "They are better educated today, better trained, better equipped. They exhibit the same devotion as we saw among the men on Guadalcanal."

Body of Teen-Ager Is Found in River

PORT HURON (UPI) — The body of a teen-age youth was found yesterday in the Black River.

* * *

St. Clair County sheriff's deputies said the victim, Johnny Simmons, 17, Port Huron, apparently tried to swim across the river to save himself a five-mile walk home from his girlfriend's house.

The boy had been last seen alive when he left the girl's house early Thursday.

Tour Canceled

DURBAN, South Africa (UPI) —An African clergyman, the Rev. Clifford Mngadi, said yesterday he has called off a preaching tour of the United States because of the race riots in that country.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids
And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N. Y. (Special): A scientific research institute has discovered a medication which has the ability in most cases — to actually shrink hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from the itching, burning and pain. Then this medication starts right in to gently reduce the swelling of inflamed, irritated hemorrhoids.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so. And it was all accomplished without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H® — an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! In addition to actually shrinking piles and relieving the painful distress — Preparation H lubricates, makes bowel movements less painful and soothes the irritated tissues. It also helps prevent further infection.

Preparation H comes in ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

Pete Green Wears GAM Crown; Terry Hoy Rules Publinxers

Beats Jackson 3-and-1 Sunday at Blythfield

Special to The Pontiac Press

GRAND RAPIDS—Pete Green's years of frustration in the Golf Association of Michigan match play championship are at an end.

The 26-year-old Green won the first GAM championship of his career here Sunday and he attained the goal at the expense of the tournament's defending champion, Pete Jackson of Oakland Hills.

★ ★ ★

Green, who registers from Orchard Lake, mounted a 3-up lead after 18 holes and fought off Jackson's second-round rallies to score a 3 and 1 triumph in their 36-hole championship final at Blythfield Country Club.

Sunday's duel brought together two old friends. Green and Jackson were golfing teammates in their prep days at Birmingham Seaholm High School.

Later, they were occasionally golfing rivals in their college days, Green as a member of the University of North Carolina team and Jackson as captain of the University of Miami (Fla.) squad.

Green closed out the match in spectacular fashion on the 35th hole, the 470-yard 17th, by stroking an 18-foot putt into the cup for an eagle 3 after reaching the green with a 5-iron.

Jackson also got home with a 5-iron, but his putt from 30 feet for an eagle rolled across the lip.

NEVER RECOVERED

The 28-year-old Jackson, bidding for his second consecutive GAM championship, bogeyed five straight holes on the back nine in Sunday's first round to go 4-down and he never recovered from that deficit.

Jackson tried to rally in the second round, but couldn't put his game together consistently enough to close the gap. He twice pulled within two holes of Green — on the sixth where he bagged a birdie 4 and on the 14th when Green pushed his second shot into the trees and slipped to a bogey 6.

The turning point of the match — if there was such a thing, came on the 150-yard 11th hole of the second round when Green holed out a 30-yard shot from the lefthand trap for a birdie deuce.

Green, a 1963 North Carolina graduate, has knocked at the title door several times, but this was the first success of his career.

He advanced to the finals of the North and South amateur in 1960 and lost to veteran Charlie Smith of Gastonia, N.C. Green reached the finals of the GAM tourney in 1962 at Grosse Ile, only to bow to Melvin (Bud) Stevens.

Married and the father of two children, Green was competing in this tourney for the sixth time. He entered his first GAM championship in 1960 and had been qualifying medalist in four of his tournament appearances. Green bypassed the GAM classic in 1963 and 1964.

'Christians' Devour Lions of NFL, 13-7

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DENVER, Colo. — What happened in Denver Saturday night wasn't an upset, it was a miracle.

It was supposed to be something similar of the Christians being thrown to the Lions, but the Denver Broncos, supposedly the Christians humiliated the Detroit Lions, 13-7 to give the AFL a proud moment of glory in its rivalry with the NFL.

The Lions committed error after error. On several occasions they lost their poise and as important as far as the NFL is concerned they lost face to a team which in 1966 was considered the worst in pro football.

★ ★ ★

Even though there was some question on a couple of key plays the Lions had no alibis, the Broncos showed unmatched speed with their many rookies, several of whom never played a pro game until last week.

The Broncos, who finished last in the Western Division of the AFL, were beaten 19-2 last week by Miami, the last place team of the Eastern Division. The Lions, likewise the cellar team of the Western Division of the NFL were heavy favorites to whip Denver.

A disappointing, but screaming, crowd of 21,228 watched the Broncos take control from the start. A Denver defensive unit which included three rookie linebackers and only two secondary men with more tham two years experience, held the Lions scoreless 10-0 after three quarters.

Karl Sweetan started the game for the Lions, while Scotty Glacken, also a second year quarterback, but with only one game consisting of 11 pass plays to his credit, started for Denver.

Glacken gave the Lions an exhibition ala Fran Tarkenton with his scrambing.

UNKNOWN ROOKIE

A 50-yard pass from Glaeken to flanker Al Denson set up a 35-yard field goal by Earl Mann and unknown rookie from North Dakota.

The next series of downs took the Lions to the Bronco 43 yard line with a 4th down and inches to go. Sweetan went for the gamble and called a perfect play. Bill Malinchak was all alone down the middle as Sweetan lobbed a short pass.

Out of nowhere came Lonnie Wright, a second year player who had never played a game. Wright, a basketball star at Colorado State went high into the air, picked off the sure touchdown pass and went from the 20 to the Denver 40 to end the threat.

The interception and a fake punt by Bob Scarpitto set the stage for Denver's lone touchdown.

Cookie Gilchrist, the mamouth fullback and problem child of the AFL tore through the Lions' defensive unit for big chunks of yardage and from the one foot line he went over to make it 10-0 with the conversion.

On the two plays prior to the touchdown the Lions were without poise. Two roughing penalties were involved and Alex Karras was ejected from the game.

With 46 seconds in the half, Wayne

BRIGHT SPOT—One of the bright spots in the Detroit Lions' 13-7 loss to Denver was the pass receiving of sophomore Bill Malinchak who moved into a starting role because of an injury to Pat Studstill.

Par Golf Wins for City Entry on First Try

Special to The Pontiac Press

SAGINAW — Terry Hoy, 25-year-old Pontiac golfer, put together a steady game to defeat Ed Thompson, of Redford Township, 5 and 4, to win the 18th annual Michigan Publinx Golf Tournament here Saturday.

Hoy, firing one-under-par golf for the match, won the first three holes to grab a quick lead and went five up by winning the 11th and 13th holes with par performances while his opponent was taking bogeys.

Hoy had shared medalist honors with Pat Coyne of Detroit by shooting a 72 Wednesday.

The Pontiac golfer wound things up with a par of the 14th to halve the hole with Thompson.

Hoy fired a birdie on the first hole and then parred the rest of the way to take the 1967 title.

Playing in his first publinx tournament, Hoy was one under par in defeating Ed Townsend of Royal Oak, 2 and 1 in the semi-finals Saturday morning.

Townsend had ousted defending champion Wayne Kramer of Flint Friday.

Gary Balliet, 17-year-old Pontiac Golfer, lost to Thompson in the semifinals 3 and 2.

Tigers Stay Within AL Reach Despite 3 Losses in Series

CLEVELAND (AP) — Somehow, the Detroit Tigers still are hanging in there, only three games off the American League pace despite dropping three games out of four to Cleveland.

The Tigers split a twin bill Sunday, winning the first 7-3 but booting away the second to the Indians, 6-3.

Detroit is off tonight and starts a series with Chicago at Detroit Tuesday.

Bill Freehan cracked a three-run homer to put the first game on ice for Detroit. But a three-run blast by Duke Sims in the first inning of the second game got the Indians off and running.

Detroit got three runs in the first inning of the first game. Dick McAuliffe hit a sacrifice fly and scored Lenny Green from third. Al Kaline tripled and scored Jerry Lumpe, then raced home on a passed ball.

The Indians touched starter Joe Sparma for one run in each of the first three innings, but Sparma shut out Cleveland the rest of the way for a 12-4 mark.

Lee Maye scored in the fist inning on a two-out, bases-loaded error by Lumpe.

Vic Davalillo drove in Larry Brown in the second with a triple in the second. Vern Fuller singled home Sims in the third and that closed out the Indian Scoring.

Freehan hit his homer in the fifth after McAuliffe singled and Kaline made first on an error.

The other Tiger run came in the second on a scratch single by Don Wert, a sacrifice bunt by Sparma and Green's single.

The nightcap, however, was a different story. Maye walked to open the game. Davalillo struck out and Leon Wagner hit into what looked like a double play. Maye was out at second, but McAuliffe threw wild to first and Wagner made second. Tony Horton singled Wagner home, Max Alvis singled and Sims blasted a homer.

Buffalo Loses End for Season

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Split end Bobby Crockett will be lost for the Buffalo Bills' American Football League season after tearing ligaments in his right knee during the 10-7 exhibition game loss to Miami Saturday night at Memphis, Tenn.

Bills' Coach Joe Collier made the announcement Sunday after Crockett, a sophomore pro from Arkansas, underwent surgery at Mercy Hospital here.

In another announcement, Collier said veteran fullback Jack Spikes had changed his mind about retiring and would rejoin the Bills late this week.

In other American League exhibitions Saturday night, Kansas City trounced Houston 24-9 and Oakland nipped San Diego 24-23.

Philadelphia whipped Cleveland 28-13 in the only all-NFL game.

There were no exhibitions Sunday.

Junior Girls Qualify

LA HABRA, Calif. (AP)—More than 100 girl golfers were entered today as the U.S. Golf Association junior girls championship began at the Hacienda Golf Club.

Qualifying rounds were scheduled today and Tuesday, and the low 32 shooters will then compete in match play through Saturday.

Salvages Win Against Toledo With One-Hitter

By The Associated Press

It was a series most of the Syracuse Chiefs would just as soon forget, but for a 20-year-old left-hander named John Cumberland, the weekend did have at least one memorable aspect.

Cumberland, facing a red-hot Toledo club Sunday in the fourth game of a five-game International League set, mowed down Mud Hen batsmen through eight innings without a hit, then yielded a lead-off single to Wayne Redmond in the ninth.

It was the only hit the young southpaw gave up as he pitched Syracuse to a 5-0 victory, the Chiefs' lone win in the series. Toledo won the nightcap of the Sunday doubleheader 4-1 in 13 innings.

Cumberland walked only one and struck out six in lifting his record to 4-5 against Toledo. Home runs by Tom Shopay of the Chiefs and Arlo Brunsburg of the Hens marked the only scoring in the nightcap until the 13th inning.

Tom Matchick drove in the winning run for Toledo with a sacrifice fly and Don Pepper tripled for two more.

Kenya Driver Victor in Tanganyika '1,000'

DAR ESDALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — Kenya rally ace Joginer Singh, a former winner of the East African Safari, was confirmed winner of the Tanganyika 1,000 rally here Sunday night.

He narrowly won from current East African Rally champion Bert Shankland of Tanzania, who was only one minute behind the Nairobi Indian at the finish Sunday after nearly 1,000 rough and dusty miles miles around Tanzania.

Singh drove a Swedish Volvo and Shankland his usual French Peugeot 404 fuel injection.

State Title to Bombers

MIDLAND (AP)—The aLnsing Bombers beat the Flint Stroh's 4-3 Sunday to capture the state Amateur Softball Association championship.

Canadians, U.S. Prosper as Pan-Am Games Finish

WINNIPEG (AP) — The fifth Pan-American Games, which many skeptics figured would never get off the ground in Winnipeg, has ended a highly successful 15-day run for the United States and Canada.

Uncle Sam's powerful squad romped off with a record-tying 120 gold medals and still caused an upset on the playing field by winning the basebal title for the first time.

Winnipeg and Canada earned accolades for staging a beautifully organized program, thanks largely to the community efforts of thousands of youngsters and adults in this mid-western city of 500,000.

Maybe as a reward for their herculean efforts, the sun shone brightly during the impressive and colorful closing ceremonies Sunday and Canada's Jim Day captured the final gold medal of the games — the individual Equestrian jumping. Brazil won the Nation's Cup team title.

Between 18,000 and 22,000 spectators thronged to Winnipeg stadium for the Equestrian finale and the closing ceremonies. In between appriximately 400,000 spectators paid above $800,000 to see various events, including such minor sports as field hockey and volleyball.

The United States, in tying the gold record of 120 set by it in 1959 in Chicago, swept 28 of the 33 golds in swimming and diving, 30 of 35 in track and field, all eight in wrestling, 11 of 12 in shooting, six of seven in rowing, 10 of 14 in gymnastics, five of seven in weight-lifting and swept the team titles in men and women's volleyball, water polo and men's basketbal.

CAGE WINNER

Brazil won the women's basketball crown from the defending United States and Mexico captured the soccer title.

In baseball windup Saturday night, America defeated Cuba 2-1 for a 2-of-3 victory after losing two games to Cuba in the preliminary round. In basketball, the Yanks trounced Mexico's smaller men 93-74.

In all, the United States had a total of 227 medals, 120 gold, 63 silver and 44 bronze. Canada was second in both golds and totals, with 12-37-43-82. Then came Argentina 9-14-11, Cuba 8-14-23, and Mexico 5-14-24.

STRESS AND STRAIN — United States gymnast Donna Schaenzer of Milwaukee puts a lot of effort into her routine on the uneven parallel bars, and the force of her exertion is shown by the bending of the sturdy wooden bars at both levels. Miss Schaenzer performed with the U.S. women's team in the Pan-American Games at Winnipeg.

SHORT OF HOME—Mickey Stanley of the Detroit Tigers is forced at home plate by catcher Duke Sims of the Cleveland Indians Sunday. Sims took a throw from Tony Horton on Dick McAuliffe's grounder. The Tigers split the twinbill in Cleveland, winning 7-3 and losing 6-3.

BIT OF DAYLIGHT—Amos Marsh gets some daylight with a block from John Gordy (right) in the Detroit Lions' 13-7 loss to the Denver Broncos Saturday night. Marsh took a screen pass from Karl Sweetan to gain the yardage.

Humiliation in Denver

Lions No Bronc Busters

Walker missed a 43 yard field goal try, and a moment later, Gilchrist brought the stands to their feet by going 49 yards over his right tackle to the Denver 28 before being knocked out of bounds by Wally Hilgenberg as the half ended.

Milt Plum took over at quarterback in the second half, and had three good drives going, but found the non-commital Broncos taking advantage of Lions' mistakes.

A poor punt by Lem Barney gave the Broncos good field position on one situation; an interception of a pass bouncing off Gail Cogdill's hands stopped another drive.

Plum then connected with Malinchak for a 15 yard touchdown and with 10:40 left, the Lions hopefully saw a comeback in the making.

The defense held again, and forced a Denver punt. Tom Watkins took the ball on the 35 ran to the 49 and fumbled. Denver thus had possession again.

At 2:11, Mann connected from the 32 to make it 13-7, but the Lions weren't finished.

PASSING SPREE

Plum went into the Layne series, also called the two-minute series. He started a deadly passing spree without going into a huddle on the second call.

On four passes Plum reached midfield; but then a holding penalty moved the ball back to the 27 and it was all over for the Lions.

Malinchak, subbing for the injured Pat Studstill, was Detroit's offensive star, grabbing seven passed for 113 yards, one of which was a fantastic one hander over the head catch for 34 yards in the first quarter.

Oddly, the Lions had the better side of the statistics, but not the clutch situation nor the scorebaord.

Next Monday night, the Lions will meet the AFL Eastern Division champions the Buffalo Bills at Tiger Stadium. Tickets are on sale.

Uneasy Ride in Dixie 500 Win

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Dick Hutcherson, leading the Dixie 500 for the last 35 to 40 laps, found the seat of his 1967 Ford Fairlane a pretty uneasy chair.

"I just knew something was going to happen," he said, "and I sat there praying that nothing would."

Nothing did. He crossed the finish line still in front Sunday to win his first super-speedway race since he joined the NASCAR ranks two years ago after several years on dirt tracks.

★ ★ ★

The 36-year-old Hutcherson, from Camden, S. C., said he played a waiting game with some of stock car racing's best before minor collisions and mechanical troubles eliminated them one by one.

"They don't pay the money until the checkered flag comes down," said Hutcherson, who averaged 132.248 miles per hour and picked up $16,505.

WAITING GAME

Hutcherson said he figured it was time to abandon his waiting game when he gained the lead after 258 laps of the 334-lap race at the 1½-mile Atlanta International Raceway. He went into first place while defending champion Richard Petty was making three pit stops under a caution flag, trying to remedy a leaky radiator.

Petty regained the lead momentarily but the engine of his 1967 Plymouth blew and he had to retire for the day. "When Richard did blow, we were really going racing then, I guarantee you," Hutcherson said.

Cale Yarborough of Charlotte, N. C., Jim Paschal of High Point, N. C. Buddy Baker of Charlotte and finally Petty held the lead, but all succumed to the mishaps and mechanical failures which left only 15 cars of the starting 44 running at the finish.

Little Rain Must Fall, but Dean Chance Happy

Twins Hurler in Abbreviated No-Hit Game

Minnesota Continues to Gain in AL Race as Chisox Lose 2

By the Associated Press

Fun-loving Dean Chance didn't let a little rain spoil his day.

In fact Chance was grateful for the precipitation that ended his mini-perfect game against Boston in the fifth inning Sunday.

The Minnesota right-hander had mowed down the first 15 batters he faced and was leading 2-0 after 4½ innings when the rain came. After a 57-minute wait, the game was called and Chance had a somewhat abbreviated no-hitter.

The victory was Minnesota's third straight over Boston and moved the Twins into second place in the American League, 2½ games back of the Chicago White Sox, who lost a doubleheader to Baltimore 5-2 and 4-0.

In other games, Washington dropped California 7-2, New York topped Kansas City 9-6 and Detroit split a doubleheader with Cleveland, winning 7-3 and losing 6-3.

COMPLETE GAME

Chance's game probably won't make it into the record books. He gets credit for a complete game but baseball records list perfect games and no-hitters only of nine innings or longer.

The Twins scored both their runs against loser Jim Lonborg, 15-5, in the fourth inning when Cesare Tovar walked and Harmon Killebrew singled. Bob Allison's double scored one run and Rich Rollins' single produced the other.

The White Sox were victimized by Russ Snyder's three-run pinch homer in the first game and Tom Phoebus' six-hit shutout in the nightcap.

Snyder connected in the seventh inning and Wally Bunker, who worked four innings of airtight relief, gained credit for the victory. Phoebus drove in two runs in the second game and Paul Blair hammered a homer as the Orioles completed the sweep.

★ ★ ★

Paul Casanova and Bernie Allen drove in two runs apiece for the Senators, who won their 20th game in the last 28. Camilo Pascual, 11-8 worked the first five innings and Darold Knowles finished up. Jim McGlothlin, 9-3, was the loser.

Tom Tresh and Jake Gibbs keyed two New York rallies with run-scoring singles as the Yankees overcame Kansas City and regained ninth place from the Athletics.

RAIL TIME—Cincinnati first sacker Lee May sprawls over the rail at St. Louis trying to take a pop foul by Orlando Cepeda of the Cardinals. Cepeda got another chance and clubbed his 20th homer of the season to help the Cards to a 3-2 victory over the Redlegs.

Women's City Play Champ Holds Role

The bride and the bridesmaid story of the Pontiac Women's Medal Play golf tournament remains the same.

Mrs. Chris "Bobbie" Miller won her fourth city championship, and her third in a row, and Mrs. Jewell Hammett was again the runnerup.

Mrs. Miller has dominated the women's city golf scene since 1961 when she took her first title and Saturday her 40-39—79 was 10 strokes ahead of the runnerup.

Mrs. Miller, an outstanding performer in the weekly Women's Metropolitan Golf Association tournaments, won the title in 1961, finished second in 1963 and has been untouchable on the throne since 1965.

Betty Pierce and Berthy Hickson were tied in third place with 90's, but Miss Pierce took low net honors with 72 and a second hole playoff with Dorothy Condon.

Miss Condon finished at the bottom of the gross scores but tied for handicap honors with Miss Pierce with 72.

*Won handicap championship by defeating Dorothy Condon on second playoff hole. Both were tied with net 72.

Midwest Title Won by Kathy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Iron-nerved Kathy Whitworth, a Texan wielding a steady putter, sank a 10-foot birdie on No. 17 and came home with a par on the final hole Sunday to win the Ladies Professional Golf Association's Midwest Open by one stroke.

Miss Whitworth turned back a last minute charge by 26-year-old Susie Maxwell of Oklahoma City in winning the second of three Midwest championships at the Walnut Hill Country Club and her fifth tournament this year in 17 LPGA stops.

A crowd of 8,900 fans watched the swinger from Monahan, Tex., sink a much-needed three-foot putt the final hole and claim $3,075 in prize money from the $20,500 purse.

APPLIED PRESSURE

Miss Maxwell, who sunk a 12-foot birdie putt on the final green to put the pressure on Miss Whitworth, earned $2,360 in second place money.

Removal From Davis Cup List Irks Riessen

U. S. Squad Captain Phones News; Netman Then Reaches Finals

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — There are many things wrong with amateur tennis in the United States, says Marty Riessen, and one is that Marty Riessen has been dropped from the Davis Cup team.

Of course, the Americans were eliminated from 1967 Davis Cup play by Ecuador some weeks ago but Riessen was sore anyway Sunday, three days after George MacCall, the U.S. captain, notified him that he was being dropped from the squad.

★ ★ ★

And it wasn't the more than $20 a day squad members get for expenses while on the continuing tournament circuit that was bothering Riessen.

"It's a matter of honor and prestige to be on the team," said. "It's the highest honor for an amateur tennis player in this country. The purpose of the Davis Cup team is to win the Davis Cup and I don't think personal philosophy should interfere."

★ ★ ★

According to Riessen, MacCall would not give him a reason for his being dropped. "He said he was unhappy with me but he kind of beat around the bush," Riessen reported, "although he did say he thought my views on tennis and the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association were way off base."

EXPRESSED VIEWS

Riessen expressed his views in a column he writes for Tennis, a midwestern magazine, and they came shortly after the loss to Ecuador.

The shock of MacCall's phone call didn't prevent the 25-year-old Riessen from gaining today's finals of the Eastern Grass Court Championships with an easy 6-3, 7-5 triumph over Australia's Owen Davidson.

★ ★ ★

Ironically, he will meet his Davis Cup doubles partner, Clark Graebner, who outlasted Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico, 13-11, 14-12.

Californians Dominate Net Junior Meet

KALAMAZOO (AP) — California continued its domination of junior singles Sunday in the finals of the national junior and boys tennis championships.

★ ★ ★

Jeff Borowiak of Lafayette, Calif. scored a straight set victory over F. D. Robbins, of Salt Lake City, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, to return the junior title to the West Coast for the fourth consecutive year.

The sixth-seeded Robbins, who upset favorite Zan Guerry, of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., in the quarter finals, committed 15 costly double faults on his service during the match while Borowiak had only three.

Borowiak, the No. 2 seed, did not lose a game on his own service until the final set.

The two finalists, both 17, rely on a strong service and thorough net coverage.

In the boy's singles finals, second-seeded Richard Stockton, of Garden City, N.Y., a six-foot 16-year-old, defated 130-pound Eddie Dibbs, of Miami Beach, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Second PBA Win for Indiana Kegler

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP) — Don Johnson of Kokomo, Ind., was $3,000 richer today after collecting his second victory on the Professional Bowlers" association tour this year.

The 26-year-old Johnson, who set a tournament record of 1,478 for six games in the opening round, finished the 40-game grind with 9,622 Sunday night in the $30,500 Brockton Open.

Johnson earned 550 bonus pins for winning 11 of his 16 matches Sunday and boosted his earnings for the year to $28,995, fourth among the tour's money winners.

Skee Foremsky of El Paso, Tex., was second with 9,343 pins, worth $1,500. Dave Soutar of Detroit was third with 9,301, good for $1,200.

State Driver Dies in Race of Mobile 300

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) — A driver from Grand Rapids was killed Saturday when his super-modified racer plugned over an embankment in warmups for Saturday night's world 300 race here.

Officials at Mobile International Speedway said Mort Anderson, 32, died enroute to a local hospital. He was the second driver to die in a racing mishap at the track in its three-year history.

A spokesman said Anderson's car left the track on a banked curve and overturned, severing the bolts which secured the driver's seat.

Alonzo Bobo pitched the Pontiac Astros past the Detroit Mohawks, 4-2, Sunday in an exhibition baseball game at Wisner Field.

Nicklaus Wins Western Minus Gallery Cheers

CHICAGO (AP) — Jack Nicklaus' left ear ached and he couldn't hear out of it. When he putted, that old click was gone. Some 21,000 fans followed him but it was just half that many to him.

A doctor treated him for a fungus brought on by swimming. He plugged up his ear, gave a shot of something, and what must be the world's greatest golfer went out and won the Western Open Sunday.

★ ★ ★

He did it by coming in the back door. It was left open by Doug Sanders' collapse with bogeys on the last two holes.

Nicklaus, playing ahead of Doug, sat on the last green and watched him come in—a struggling, brightly garbed veteran trying desperately to lick a slump that has left him with only one tourney victory this year.

After missing the green on the 17th and taking a bogey, Sanders found the same trouble on the 18th and bogeyed to finish with a 72 for 276.

WRONG CLUB

He had a chance until the last two holes. Nicklaus had three-putted the 18th to close with a 69 for a 274 total, 10 under par.

Sanders said later that "I just used the wrong club."

Nicklaus, picking up $20,000 for a year's bag of $101,148 to become the first to win a hundred grand for five seasons, had seven one-putt greens and three tapped only the 18th. He could see pretty well.

★ ★ ★

Miller Barber, one of a trio that aced the 125-yard 12th during the tourney, and Steve Opperman of Daly City, Calif., shared third at 278.

Tom Veech, the 300-pounder who brought smiles world wide to fat men who had hidden their clubs in mothballs, sweated to a final 74 to share fifth place.

Arnold Palmer was 283 and defending champion Bill Casper was 285 with a closing 68.

Tonight's Playoff Game
JAYCEE PARK — Booth Homes vs. Teamsters-614, 8 p.m.

An almost season-long uphill struggle for defending city champion Teamsters - 614 reached its peak Saturday night but M. G. Collision established itself Sunday as the team to beat in the men's baseball title playoffs.

The Teamsters qualified for the double-elimination playoffs by blanking Cranbrook, 2-0, after the two teams tied for fourth place during the regular season.

M. G. then drew firstblood in the post - season tourney by thrashing the R. T. Clippers, 11-0, last night at Jaycee Park.

Tonight, Booth Homes (the regular season pacesetter) meets the Teamsters at 8 o'clock under the Jaycee lights in a rematch of last season's city playoff finals.

M. G. handed the Clippers thier worst loss of the season. The losers were the league's best hitting, top slugging and most prolific scoring team during the season.

But Walt Miller, the circuit's premier pitcher, limited them to three harmless singles and a walk. Though it was the first shutout defeat for the Clippers, the whitewashing was the 11th such win for M. G., and the 7th Miller has participated in.

The left-hander whiffed 11 in registering his eighth win against one loss. Darrell Lovell continued his late hitting surge with two singles and a double for four runs.

Ron Kind matched this hitting performance while producing three runs.

The Teamsters - Cranbrook contest featured the strong hurling of Don Picmann who tossed a two-hitter and struck out seven.

Batterymate Chuck Johnson provided the only run Picmann needed when he doubled and scored on a two-base error in the second inning. Johnson later singled home the final tally.

Township Rec 9 Has Back to Wall

Waterford Township men's softball regular season leader Spencer Floor Covering tonight has its back to the wall at the Drayton Plains diamond.

It plays Midget Bar at 7 o'clock with the winner moving into tomorrow night's upper division playoff finale against Day's Sanitary. Spencer must win tonight, and then sweep a doubleheader Tuesday to win the post-season playoffs.

The Waterford Merchants play Buckner Finance in a lower bracket semifinal at 8:30 p.m. today with the survivor going into Thursday's finals against McAnnally Auto Sales.

Local Skater Wins in North American

Diane Downing led a small, but impressive, contingent of art skaters from Rolladium as the North American Roller Skating Championships came to an end Saturday at Lincoln, Neb.

* * *

Miss Downing won the novice ladies singles and four of the remaining five art entries placed in top four. By comparson, the 24-entry Rolladium speed team didn't do as well as expected.

Michael Lieneke and Robyn White placed second in intermediate pairs, Lex Kane fourth in juvenile boys figures, Barbara Schultz third in intermediate ladies singles and Ronald Gustafson third in senior men's figures.

* * *

Gayla Grammer gave University Club its first placing in the North American when she finished third in junior girls figures. She is the only University skater to have won a regional title.

3-Iron Shot Nets Ace

Ernie Dourlet fired a 3-iron shot on the 180-yard 8th hole for an ace at Forest Lake Country Club Sunday. It was his first hole in one in 20 years of golf and he had an 84 for the round.

Cardinals Stretch Lead in NL Chase

By the Associated Press

The year of the streak in the National League is continuing along and about all the opponents of the St. Louis Cardinals have to console themselves with is a bit of ancient history.

The Cards won their fifth in a row Sunday, edging Cincinnati 3-2, while the Chicago Cubs lost their sixth straight, 6-4 to Atlanta, and fell into third place nine games off the pace.

* * *

The Cardinals should beware, however. It was almost exactly 10 years ago today that they started a nine-game losing streak while the Milwaukee Braves—remember them?—won the first of 10 in a row and went on to the pennant.

In other National League games Sunday, San Francisco swept two from New York 9-7 in 10 innings and 4-1, Philadelphia beat Houston 8-4 and Los Angeles edged Pittsburgh 5-4.

If the Cards are to start losing games instead of winning them, they'll have to play an entirely different brand of baseball. Not only are they hitting the ball quite nicely—Orlando Cepeda hit his 20th homer Sunday—but also they are taking care of each other.

BREEZING ALONG

Nelson Briles was breezing along on a shutout until the sixth, for instance, when all of a sudden his curve ball straightened out and the Reds got two runs.

But Ron Willis came in and took care of things and not another run scored. In his last 12 appearances, Willis hasn't given up a run. Also two Cincinnati players were thrown out trying to steal, another was picked off first and a fourth was out trying to stretch a single into a double.

* * *

The Cubs, on the other hand, can't seem to do anything right lately.

"We need a win," moaned Manager Leo Durocher. "Any kind of win and I don't care how we do it. Just a little hitting and one lousy damned win."

Joe Torre's two-run homer went a long way toward denying the Cubs that one win Sunday. Adolfo Phillips hit one out for the Cubs.

The Giants moved into second place on the strength of their two victories over the Mets. Ty Cline drove in the deciding run in the opener with a single in the 10th and Willie McCovey's three-run homer in the eighth won the nightcap.

Bill White clubbed a three-run homer, highlighting a five-run Phillies' rally in the eighth inning. It was the sixth win in a row for the Phillies. Ron Davis and pitcher Dave Giusti homered for the Astros.

* * *

Len Gabrielson had three hits and Ron Hunt drove in two runs for the Dodgers, who ended a five-game loss streak. Bob Miller got the Pirates out with men on first and third in the eighth by getting Donn Clendenon to hit into a double play.

Makeup Tilts Bring Forfeits in Slow Pitch

The two city Slow Pitch Softball League makeup games Sunday at Northside Park resulted in 7-0 forfeit triumphs although by opposite methods.

* * *

Grubb's Kennels (2-11) won when Local-596 (3-10) couldn't produce 10 players to start the game.

Artco (7-7) had 10 players and took a 12-10 lead into the top of the seventh when one of its men was ejected for unsportsmanlike conduct.

No substitutes were available and under city recreation department rules, a team may finish with less than the official number only through illness or injury. The game was forfeited to Wagon Wheel Tavern (9-5).

* * *

The Slow Pitch circuit's upper division teams conclude their regular season tonight with three games, after which the playoff pairings will be drawn.

Honor Parks Graduate

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tommy Davis of the New York Mets will be honored tonight by the Department of Parks as the outstanding "graduate" of his publicschool playground area in Brooklyn. Davis won two National League batting titles with the Los Angeles Dodgers before being traded to the Mets.

Seattle Driver Is Gold Cup Hydro Winner

Miss Bardahl Victor With Bill Schumacher Going 101.8 M.P.H.

SEATTLE (AP) — A 24-year-old Seattle baker, who has been racing speedboats since he was eight, won the 1967 Gold Cup Regatta for unlimited hydroplanes Sunday, following a disastrous start in which two other drivers were seriously injured.

Billy Schumacher captured top prize money in the $55,000 race by pushing his Seattle entry, the Miss Bardahl, to victory in three preliminary heats and coasting to an easy second in the final heat.

★ ★ ★

The youngster's average speed for the 60-mile event on Lake Washington's three-mile course was 101.848 miles an hour. Schumacher's share of the prize included $7,900 in cash, a new sports car and a round-trip to Rome.

★ ★ ★

It was the fourth Gold Cup victory for the Bardahl in the past five years and the first for its driver. Schumacher moved up to the big-boat class early this year and has won four of the five major races the Bardahl has started, taking the national point lead for himself and his boat.

PLACED SECOND

Miss Lapeer, a Detroit boat driven by the veteran Warner Gardner of Bay City, Mich., placed second in the over-all point totals, averaging 100.111 m.p.h. Third place went to Detroit's Miss U.S., piloted by Bill Muncey of Seattle.

★ ★ ★

Mike Thomas of Harvey Cedars, N.J., worked his Tampa, Fla., racer, Miss Budweiser, to fourth. Miss Atlas Van Lines, with Bob Schroeder of Williamsville, N.Y., in the cockpit, was fifth over-all and Wayfarer's Club Lady, Owensboro, Ky., was wheeled to sixth by Jim McCormick, Owensboro.

★ ★ ★

Two drivers narrowly escaped death when the Notre Dame of Seattle and Harrah's Club of Reno disintegrated in a spectacular crash as they thundered across the starting line at more than 150 miles an hour in the first heat.

The Seattle boat, driven by 44-year-old Jack Regas of San Leandro, Calif., hit a swell on the rough water, bounced into the air, then nosed in and burst apart in a wild spray of water and debris.

Chuck Hickling of Bellevue, Wash., plowed into the wreckage and his Harrah's Club, the defending Gold Cup champion, also flew apart and quickly sank.

Regas and the 56-year-old Hickling were fished out of the water within seconds by divers from a Coast Guard patrol boat and helicopter.

It's Barry, Not Terry

Barr Joins Firebirds

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor Pontiac Press

Football has been a household habit for the six Barr brothers in their home near Grand Rapids.

Barry Barr, No. 5 brother in line, walked into the training camp of the Pontiac Firebirds this week and asked head coach Tom Tracy if he could try out for the team.

★ ★ ★

Without giving it a second thought, Tracy had equipment issued to the 19-year old candidate who asserted himself to be a pass receiver.

A short while later, the youth made a grab of a long pass, skirted away from a couple defensive players for a clean getaway.

"Barr?"

"Any relation to Terry Barr," asked Tracy.

"My brother," was the reply.

"I should have known," Tracy later said. "The resemblence, the way he runs, his moves are Terry's to the letter."

Terry, of course, was the most heralded of the Barr brothers. He is the No. 2 brother in the Barr clan, now retired from the Detroit Lions with whom he completed a fabulous career, after his All-America days at the University of Michigan.

"The boys never missed a game at Michigan when Terry was there, and there were very few games I ever missed while he was with the Lions," said Barry.

Barry was a three sport star at Rogers High School in Wyoming. He went to Ferris Institute in 1966 but withdrew because of scholastic problems.

WANTS TO PLAY

"I've been wanting to play football so bad," he said, "and as a joke one day I told Terry I was going to ask the Lions for a tryout.

"Terry told me it wasn't a wise move and if I didn't make it right away I'd probably be done. He suggested a couple of years of this brand of football for experience, so here I am."

Standing 6-feet at 180 pounds, Barry admitted he received a lot of valuable tips from Terry on offensive and defensive moves.

"I think there's a chance for most any guy to make the big leagues if he works hard at it, and that's what I aim to do," he said with confidence.

"If he has any part of Terry's talents," said coach Tracy, "he'll have plenty going for him."

Barry has a younger brother, No. 6, Mike Barr who will be a junior at Rogers High School this fall.

The Firebirds will test their young squad next Saturday at Rochester High School field when they face Ypsilanti in an exhibition game for the Crittendon hospital fund. It is being sponsored by teh Rochester Rotary Club.

U. S. in 4-0 Cup Lead

FOREST HILLS, N.J. (UPI) — James Skelton of Vancouver, B.C., prevented an American shutout in the Stevens Cup international seniors tennis championships Sunday by defeating Calvin MacCracken of Tenafly, N.J., 6-2, 12-10. The U.S. led Canada 4-0 after Saturday's action.

Win for English Horse

DEAUVILLE, France (AP)—English-owned Mehari won the 1⅞-mile, $55,000 Prix Kergorlay for 3-year-olds and up by three-quarters of a length over Pardallo Sunday.

Mrs. Fefel Inspired Golf Companions

"She was such an inspiration to our league," sums up the feelings of the members of the Tuesday and Thursday Silver Lake Ladies golf leagues for Mrs. Thomas B. (Edie) Fefel.

Mrs. Fefel is being laid to rest today at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, but her spirit will linger around the Silver Lake Golf Course.

The 74-year-old wisp of a woman died Thursday almost as she more than once wished — on a golf course.

Mrs. Fefel was stricken while playing in the Silver Belles golf league (one of two weekly leagues she belonged to), but recovered sufficiently to attend the women's picnic before returning home to her W. Walton apartment where she suffered a fatal attack that same night.

★ ★ ★

Totally deaf for nearly the past 25 years and plagued with failing health, the former Edith King of Louisville nonetheless was tied for the low average in the first flight of the Tuesday Silver Lake Ladies League.

LOWER

Her average in the Thursday circuit, 62, was even better; and she came in Thursday with a net of 37 while winning her match. Only three weeks ago her doctor reportedly predicted she wouldn't play, again.

But the King family determination and the love of the game — that prompted her brother Robert to become the only professional golfer on crutches — also carried her back onto the links last week.

Mrs. Fefel was 19 when she first learned to play golf from the pro at Louisville's Cherokee Golf Club where she ruled the women's tournament for 10 years, and set the women's course record of 72.

At age 30 she captured the city women's title, then in 1925 on the Cherokee course she captured the Falls City Women's Championship with a one-up victory in 23 holes, after trailing by three with four holes to play in a heavy rain.

After a stay in Michigan, she moved to Baltimore where she reigned as city champion in 1930. Upon her return to Michigan in 1932 Mrs. Fefel posted a 74 at Wise's (now Morey's) Golf Course for the women's record.

Six years later her 78 at Silver Lake set a mark for the women to shoot at ever since.

She is survived by her brothers Robert, George and Reyburn King, a sister Dorothy Fefel, a niece Gloria Hoyt, and a nephew C. King Stetler.

Spencer Ready for Challenger

WBA Heavyweight Unanimous Winner

HOUSTON (AP) — It is not known whether the winners in Saturday's Astrodrome quarter-finals of the world heavyweight elimination tournament will meet later in the series, but the man who manages Jimmy Ellis says his fighter is ready for Thad Spencer.

Ellis is the Louisville fighter who reminds some of another boxer from that town, Cassius Clay, who caused the World Boxing Association series to be set up when he refused to be drafted.

The man who trains Ellis, Angelo Dundee, predicted Saturday after Ellis finished off Leotis Martin of Philadelphia on a ninth-round technical knockout that Spencer would knock out Ernie Terrell, the 8 to 5 favorite.

Spencer managed a knockdown in the second, but no knockout, winning on points. He was aided by a two-point penalty Terrell drew in the 10th for hitting low.

The tournament continues Sept. 16 when Karl Mildenberger meets Oscar Bonavena. Floyd Patterson fights Jerry Quarry Oct. 28.

Legislative Hallmark: Tax Law

LANSING (AP) — It was, said House Speaker Robert Waldron, "the Legislature with the backbone."

It will be remembered, joked one Democratic lawmaker, as "the T. F. R. Legislature — taxes, fees and regulations."

It will certainly go down in history as the Legislature that passed Michigan's first state income tax.

But whatever it may be called, the 1967 regular session of the 74th Legislature is over. It ended last Thursday at noon, 50 days later than originally scheduled.

* * *

Waldron, presiding officer of the House and leader of the chamber's majority Republican party, praised the 74th Legislature for overhauling Michigan's tax structure and approving a revenue-raising income tax — chores earlier Legislatures have ducked.

'IT TAKES BACKBONE'

"It takes a lot of backbone to pass a program of this magnitude," he said last week in summing up the session.

The 1967 session was clearly the income tax session. The six-month fight over taxes almost hid everything else from view.

But other things there were.

* * *

There was an implied consent bill, a savings time exemption, a Mackinac Bridge bill, a Medicaid holdback. The unemployment compensation waiting week was eliminated for auto workers laid off by model changeovers.

ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS

Eligibility standards for extending workmen's compensation to farm workers were stiffened. A popular vote on graduated income taxes was approved. A billion-dollar budget was enacted.

Electronic voting devices were legalized. The governor was empowered to choose the chairman of the Highway Commission. The date for township officials to take office was changed.

Glue-sniffing was outlawed. The legal smoking age was lowered from 21 to 18. Intergovernmental organizations were authorized and strengthened.

* * *

The state's military establishment was reorganized and candidate listings on primary ballots were changed. Non-U.S. citizens were forbidden permanent teaching certificates, and six-member juries were permitted in Circuit Court civil cases.

SUNDAY LIQUOR

Considered but not passed during the 7½-month session were Sunday liquor, motor vehicle inspection, a ban on topless waitresses, legalized abortion in certain cases, Monday holidays, and a ban on retail store promotional games.

The state income tax was the most spectacular part of the "T. F. R." program, but there were others.

Bills were passed this year to raise the cost of fishing, driving, boating, poaching; relaxing in state parks, notarizing, suing in Circuit Court and getting married.

Not passed — but likely to be considered again this year in a special autumn session — were bills boosting cigarette and gasoline taxes and auto registration fees.

DEER LICENSE FEE

A boost in the resident deer license fee was killed by the Senate after winning approval in the House.

The marriage license fee went from $3 to $5, with an extra $10 charge for nonresidents. A resident fishing license will cost $3 instead of $2 and a driver's license renewal will cost $4 instead of $3.50.

"I never believed we could get out of here this soon and accomplish all this," Waldron said as the Legislature adjourned.

"It was," he added, "a fabulously successful session."

Is Sunday OK for Hanging?

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — The attorney general of Washington has been asked if it's all right to hang a man on Sunday.

A Superior Court judge in Vancouver sentenced John Hawkins, 28, to hang on Sept. 17 for the 1964 murder of a Vancouver teen-age girl.

Judge Robert McMullen intended to schedule the execution for a weekday, but because of an inadvertent flip of a calendar page, the hanging was ordered for a Sunday.

8 Hurt in Pittsburgh Youth Fracas

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Police say a crowd of 4,000 youths got tired of waiting for buses after a rock 'n' roll show and some of them started a rock and bottle tossing fracas in which windows were smashed and eight persons injured.

Most of the crowd was Negro, but police Supt. James A. Slusser said, "there were no racial overtones to the incidents" early Sunday.

Only Robert Thomas, 18, of Pittsburgh's Homewood section was hospitalized with face cuts.

Police used dogs to keep the youths, aged 11 to 17, moving along Forbes and Fifth avenues in the Oakland district, the city's cultural-medical center.

Two teen-agers were arrested and turned over to juvenile authorities.

Storefronts in the Oakland business district were broken. A few items were stolen from a sporting goods store.

"I never saw anything like it," said a hot dog stand owner. "These kids threw bottles at each other, threw food around the place. And they were like that—out of control—all over the neighborhood."

Supt. Slusser said the start of the rock 'n' roll performance at Forbes Field was delayed by rain, so when the youths filed out at 1 a.m. Sunday, bus service had dropped off and they couldn't find transportation home.

Slusser said the disturbance lasted about an hour and a half.

Man, Son Drown Near Greenville

GREENVILLE (UPI)—Montcalm County sheriff's deputies today reported that a Byron Center man and his son drowned late Saturday when their boat capsized on Bitch Lake near Greenville.

Authorities said the victims were Dan Carey, 55, Byron Center, and his son, Herman Fred Carey, 9.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Oswald: "Modern bidding is a strange and wonderful thing. Take the cue bid as an example. Once upon a time it was used to show first-round control and a very good hand. Today it may show almost anything."

JACOBY

Jim: "I notice that you seem to take to these modern cue bids as a duck to water. What are you complaining about?"

Oswald: "I'm not complaining at all. It is just a matter of getting used to them."

Jim: "Here's a hand that shows cue bids at their best, although most complicated."

Oswald: "South's double is a good one. West's heart raise presents to North a real problem. He doesn't like to bid no-trump with only one heart stopper. He holds only three spades and he has a maximum pass. A three-heart cue bid is a slight overbid but it does solve his problem temporarily."

Jim: "South's four-diamond bid is the normal response to the cue bid. He doesn't know where North is heading but he is ready to go."

Oswald: "If South had bid three spades, North would raise him to four. The four-diamond bid encourages North and he makes a repeat cue bid."

Jim: "He is still willing to settle for four spades if South bids it but South is after a diamond slam in spite of the fact that North has passed originally. He gets there by means of the Blackwood route."

Oswald: "The slam makes easily. Since diamonds break 2-2 and the jack of spades drops doubleton, South is able to discard one of dummy's clubs on his fourth spade; knock out the ace of clubs and ruff his third club."

Jim: "Otherwise, South might have had to locate the jack of clubs to make 12 tricks."

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Tuesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Conditions at work or home apt to be less than settled. Your own sense of order may appear abused. Key is to adjust to changing conditions. If you let go, you actually gain.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): Day to be an innovator. Bring forth inventive ability. Finer ways of expressing appear disturbed. This is but a temporary condition.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Conditions close to home base could change—suddenly. Don't depend too much upon support of older individuals. Create your own allies. Develop resources. Challenge waste, carelessness.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Not wise to wander with no purpose. You could ask for trouble and receive it. Say no to proposal of journey which lacks direction, meaning. Argumentative relative may be tolerated.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Don't permit one who talks a big game to sway you. Applies especially where investments are concerned. Take time to be thorough. Check reliable sources. Stick to conservative course.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Some ways of communicating require revision. Understand that associates, others around you are apt to be temperamental. Don't compound error. Take time to be analytical.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Some of your past could catch up. Means be aware of promises, resolutions, obligations. Important person makes reappearance. Maintain poise. Cycle begins to move up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Disputes among friends indicated. Strive to be fair, neutral. Those who battle today reconcile tomorrow. If you become involved, your intentions may be falsely interpreted.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Routine is disrupted. Changes are handed down from the top. Means what was established now is revised. Be ready, alert and versatile. You get chance to show off talents.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Dig deep for information. You discover special aspects of project which others overlook. Key is to be thorough. Check plans, information, travel instructions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Some beliefs may be shaken. Realize mate or partner has right of self-expression. If you disagree, do so in mature manner. Avoid tendency toward envy. Make necessary adjustment.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Steer clear of foolish dispute with mate, partner, close associate. Pressure applied to hurry you. Do your best to comply without giving up quality or principles.

AWAITING TURN — Billie, a Basset hound, has a full-time job caring for her brood of 11 puppies born July 30. Since momma has facilities for only eight of the pups at a time, three of them must be content to snooze or wait in line for a turn at nursing. The dogs are owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Pelham of Palermo, Calif.

Candidates Claim Ky Sabotage

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's civilian presidential candidates left 1,000 persons waiting to hear them and flew 425 miles back to Saigon in a huff Sunday after adverse winds forced them to land 10 miles from their reception committee.

Some accused the military government of sabotaging their campaign trip to Quang Tri city in South Vietnam's northernmost province. They refused the U.S. Marines' offer of two open trucks to take them to Quang Tri from the Leatherneck air strip at Dong Ha.

★ ★ ★

The group of 10 candidates or their representatives left while a Vietnamese welcoming committee was on its way from Quang Tri to pick them up.

The military regime of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu had arranged 22 all-candidate campaign trips to counter criticism that the Thieu-Ky ticket was making unfair use of government planes for campaign trips.

'PLANNED FIASCO'

Thieu and Ky, apparently confident they will be elected president and vice president Sept. 3, did not make the first trip Sunday. Some candidates charged this showed the government had meant the trip to be a fiasco.

Ky complained today that "The candidates wanted deluxe cars to meet them. We don't have cars for them up there."

★ ★ ★

He said he would go on future trips if all the other candidates go, but not if they merely send representatives. Previously, both Thieu and Ky had indicated they would ignore the trips.

At Quang Tri, information ministry loudspeaker trucks had gone through the surrounding countryside to advertise the candidates' visit. The province chief said a regiment of South Vietnamese troops was around the city to prevent any Vietcong attack.

REFUSED TO LAND

When the two planes carrying the candidates approached the city, the pilots refused to land because of strong crosswinds and went to Dong Ha.

★ ★ ★

Marines at Quang Tri said it is common knowledge that the planes—C47s—cannot land at the small Quang Tri airstrip at this time of year because of the winds. They said the Vietnamese air force should not have scheduled a landing there.

The candidates flew from Dong Ha to Da Nang, where six voted to return to Saigon, three wanted to stay in the northern area to continue the trip and one man was absent during the vote.

★ ★ ★

Former Premier Tran Van Huong, considered the leading civilian contender in the presidential race, argued that the candidates should make an issue of what he considered an affront. Candidate Nguyen Dinh Quat reportedly told the others they should issue a "proclamation to the people denouncing the incident."

PRESTIGE, SUPPORT

But vice presidential candidate Phan Quang Dan, representing the ticket headed by Provisional Assembly Chairman Phan Khac Suu, voted to continue the trip. He said Vietnam's prestige as well as U.S. support of the war depended on the election.

A trip was scheduled to Hue, the ancient imperial capital, today but the civilian candidates stayed in Saigon to hold a news conference.

Betty Furness Backs Credit Protections

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Betty Furness, who became famous selling refrigerators on television, urged Congress today to protect consumers who buy the iceboxes on easy payment plans.

Miss Funess, President Johnson's special assistant for consumer affairs, voiced support for truth-in-lending legislation in testimony prepared for a House banking subcommittee.

She told the panel the rising number of bankruptcies and unintentional defaults indicates "many people cannot manage credit as it is now constituted.

"Even a consumer who tries very hard to be a good comparison shopper for merchandise is now unable to cope with the complexities of comparison shopping for credit," she said.

★ ★ ★

"At a time when our lives are run more and more on credit, the least we can do is permit a person to know exactly how much he will be paying for an item."

STATEMENT OF CHARGE

The proposed legislation would require that carrying charges on credit sales be stated in both dollars and cents and as an annual percentage rate.

Miss Furness pointed out that the "creditor knows exactly how much money he will be receiving" when he makes an installment sale.

"It doesn't seem to much to ask that he reveal that figure to the man who will be paying him," she said.

★ ★ ★

The senate passed a truth-in-lending measure earlier this year, but exempted revolving credit plans and also excluded credit charges of less than $10.

ASKS FOR BOTH

Miss Furness recommended that both types of credit be included in the House bill.

"If revolving credit is excluded, more ond more businesses might switch to it as a loophole for avoiding full disclosure," she said.

"And we shouldn't discriminate against the man who purchases a small power saw, and who pays only $8 interest, in favor of the family that buys a $700 set of furniture and pays $100 interest."

Real, Fake Bombs Shake Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong police fired—but missed—today at fleeing men who had lobbed a fake bomb at them, while other officers narrowly escaped injury when a real bomb ripped the side of a building.

Authorities said the police fired without knowing the first bomb was a fake. In the other incident, police searching a village in this British colony on Red China's doorstep received 15 seconds advance warning from a 14-year-old boy who had seen a man light the bomb's fuse.

★ ★ ★

Real and false bombs are the latest harassment tactic by local Communists.

An army demolition expert was injured Sunday when a bomb he was defusing exploded. There have been few other injuries, but transportation has been disrupted while experts blocked off streets to search for and defuse the terrorist weapons.

Authorities are continuing raids on suspected Communist headquarters, arresting the occupants of buildings where they find stores of weapons and antigovernment propaganda.

Wong Kin-lap, vice chairman of the Anti-British Persecution Struggle Committee, was arrested in a massive raid by police and British soldiers and sailors Friday, and the Communists have demanded his release. Wong still has not been charged formally. Under a recent emergency law, he could be held for a year on suspicion of involvement in antigovernment activity.

★ ★ ★

The Hong Kong Star and the Japanese consulate general in the colony both reacted angrily today to charges by Lord Rhodes, parliamentary secretary to the British board of trade, that a lot of the propaganda and agitation in Hong Kong comes from Japanese trying to take away its business.

★ ★ ★

"I cannot understand how such a statement can have been made," a Japanese consular spokesman said.

NEWSPAPER REBUTTAL

The English-language Star, owned and edited by Australians, called on the Hong Kong government to "stop letting shirt makers meddle with matters they know nothing about."

Lord Rhodes visited Hong Kong at the invitation of the colony's Export Promotion Council and commented in London Saturday.

Pair Hurt in Car Bombing

NEW YORK (AP) — A union steamfitter, once sentenced to 15 to 40 years in Sing Sing, and his wife were under guard and in critical condition today after a bomb planted in their car nearly tore their bodies apart.

Doctors amputated the left leg of Charles Roberts, 55, and said they had not determined whether his wife, Evelyn, 53, would be able to keep her left leg. Its tissues were heavily damaged by the blast. Explosives placed under the floorboards and wired to the ignition of Roberts' car tore steel and shattered glass when he and his wife got in it near their Bronx home Sunday for a trip to visit their daughter in Queens.

Both were charged with weapons law violations when revolvers were found in the wrecked auto.

Roberts, who served 17 years in Sing Sing for robbery, told police he did not know who might want to injure him.

FUNCHAL, Madeira (UPI) — British adventurer Alec Rose, who is trying to duplicate Sir Francis Chichester's solo round-the-world voyage in a seven-ton sailboat, reported "all's well" in a radio message today. Earlier he had been reported missing.

Fake Sneeze Tests Tissue

NEENAH, Wis. (UPI) — An artificial sneeze machine helps a paper company here prepare its facial tissues for the fight against germs.

The device, installed in a Kimberly-Clark laboratory, combines half an ounce of water with pressurized air to simulate the moisture content and wind velocity of a typical human sneeze.

The mixture is blasted at a sample tissue mounted about two inches away to test its sneeze resistance.

Civil Peace Prevails After Relatively Quiet Weekend

By the Associated Press

Civil peace, with only a few minor exceptions, prevailed across the nation today amid federal, state and local efforts aimed at solving racial problems and preventing further rioting.

★ ★ ★

The trouble spots Sunday were: Wichita, Kan., where a white man was wounded by a sniper's bullet; Great Bend, Kan., where a Negro tavern was fire-bombed; and Pittsburgh, Pa., where teen-agers rioted after a rock 'n' roll show.

★ ★ ★

Reporting no disturbances were previously riot-wracked Detroit, Providence, R.I., Milwaukee, Wis., and Cambridge, Md.

★ ★ ★

While many Negro and white leaders and legislators sought ways to head off further racial storms, H. Rap Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), termed recent riots only forerunners of "revolution."

SECOND NIGHT

At Wichita, as the city entered its second night of police-enforced curfew Sunday, a sniper shot a man in the leg. Six policemen were injured, none seriously, in a collision of two patrol cars at the shooting scene. The sniper was not found. Tension had eased during the day in the wake of a dry goods store fire and the arrest of 19 curfew violators on Saturday night.

★ ★ ★

A fire-bombing early Sunday in Great Bend was followed by a meeting of white and Negro civic leaders Sunday night at which a spirit of cooperation was pledged.

★ ★ ★

Seven youths were arrested after three fire-bombs were thrown.

Earlier, police said, about 15 white and Negro youths battled at a drive-in parking lot, but the fight broke up before officers arrived.

Great Bend has had no racial trouble in the past. It has a population of about 18,500, with about 350 Negroes.

★ ★ ★

In Pittsburgh, police said about 4,000 youths got tired of waiting for buses after a show and tossed rocks and bottles. Windows were smashed and eight persons were injured, none seriously. A few items were stolen from a sporting goods store.

★ ★ ★

Although most of the crowd was Negro, said police Supt. James A. Slusser, "there were no racial overtones to the incidents."

★ ★ ★

At Providence, Mayor Joseph A. Doorley Jr. ordered a curfew and ban on liquor sales lifted Sunday in South Providence after four nights of calm.

GUARDSMEN LEAVE

Michigan's Gov. Romney Sunday ended a two-week state of emergency for Detroit and four nearby suburbs. The last of 7,000 National Guardsmen headed for home, a city spokesman said.

At Milwaukee, National Guardsmen were being gradually withdrawn Sunday, a week after rioting flaring in predominantly Negro sections. However, the nightly curfew remained in force. Police Chief Harold Brier said there were 279 arrests from 4 p.m. Saturday to 3 a.m. Sunday, but that most were for violation of the curfew and for drunkenness.

★ ★ ★

Cambridge, Md., officials reported an estimated $300,000 in property damage resulting from rioting July 24.

H. Rap Brown, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee chairman, addressed a rally Sunday in New York and told 700 cheering, stomping Negroes, that they should arm themselves against a white "conspiracy of genocide."

FURTHER STRIFE SEEN

Also in New York, Robert Mangum, chairman of the State Commission on Human Rights, predicted Sunday on a radio program that there would be further violence in the cities, adding: "I think the country is in trouble. I wouldn't be surprised to see it (violence) go on even beyond the long, hot summer."

William Booth, chairman of the New York City Commission on Human Rights, spoke Sunday on another radio program and criticized middle class Negroes for laxity when it came to helping minority groups.

★ ★ ★

Both Mangum and Booth are Negroes.

On Capitol Hill, the political implications of the summer riots were stressed by U.S. Sens. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the Senate minority leader.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy said Sunday the riot issue would have an impact on the 1968 elections. He said the political party that can maintain law and order and move to alleviate riot-inducing conditions "is going to receive support next year."

Dirksen said unless urban problems lessen before the election, "it's going to be one of the monumental issues in '68."

Red Factions Seek Power With Negroes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two rival Communist groups—bitter enemies of each other — are making an all-out effort to gain a foothold in the black power movement.

★ ★ ★

Neither has had much success to date, according to highly reliable sources.

The rival Red factions are the "official" Communist party U.S.A., which gets its line from Moscow, and the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), which looks to Peking for guidance.

The Communist party has been trying for years to infiltrate U. S. Negro organizations and to win Negro recruits into its own membership. It has even installed a Negro, Henry Winston, as its nominal head in a bid to convince Negroes that it is "their" party.

★ ★ ★

But the FBI, which long ago achieved virtually total penetration of the Communist apparatus, has reported to congressional committees that the party has very few Negro members and negligible influence in big Negro organizations.

FRANTIC EFFORTS

The party is still making frantic efforts, however, to identify itself with Negro unrest and to take claim for big city riots.

Two of the principal centers of this activity are the "people's voice" book stores in the Watts section of Los Angeles and in New York's Harlem. They distribute inflammatory literature urging Negroes to rise in armed rebellion.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has described RAM as "a highly secret, all Negro, Marxist-Leninist, Chinese Communist-oriented organization" which is dedicated to the violent overthrow of the U. S. government and which "advocates guerrilla warfare" by urban Negroes.

129 Drownings

TOYKO (AP) — Police reported that 129 persons drowned in Japan over the weekend as thousands flocked to beaches, rivers and lakes to escape a heat wave. Temperatures in Japan hovered around 90 degrees Fahrenheit Saturday and Sunday.

Early Gain Trimmed

Stock Mart Rally Slows Pace

NEW YORK (AP) — The summer stock market rally appeared to be pausing for breath early Monday afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

An early gain in the Dow Jones industrial average was trimmed away.

★ ★ ★

At noon, the Dow industrials were off .75 at 923.02.

In the over-all list, however, gains outnumbered losses by a ratio of 3 to 2 or more.

Weakness in some of the 30 blue chip industrials accounted for the drop in that average.

Following last week's robust advance on record weekly volume, brokers said some consolidation would not be surprising. They described the technical condition of the market as good and anticipated a further advance in then ear future.

★ ★ ★

The economic news was encouraging.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .5 at 342.1 with industrials off .5, rails up 1.4 and utilities unchanged.

A further gain of 11 points or more was made by Ling-Temco-Vought. This followed the stock's rise of 6★ Friday on news of its tender offer for "any or all" of the stock of Greatamerica.

Southern California Edison, which sold on an early blocko f 100,000 shares, was off a fraction and pacing the list on volume, just ahead of Sperry Rand, which gained a fraction.

★ ★ ★

Allis-Chalmer, boomed last week by merger rumors, continued strong, rising about 2 points more.

Brown Co. preferred, off 1½ on heavy volume, hit the spotlight on an early block of 76,200 shares.

Auto Talks Hit Halfway Mark

Lack of Progress Ups Likelihood of a Strike

DETROIT (UPI) — The possibility of a strike by the United Auto Workers next month loomed even stronger today as negotiations between the union and the nation's "Big Three" auto makers passed the halfway point with no signs of progress.

Negotiations with the union, representing 652,000 workers at the nation's biggest auto plants, and the companies reached the halfway point last Saturday.

Union and industry spokesmen agreed that nothing had been accomplished.

The second — and usually more dynamic — half of the negotiations starts today.

Douglas Fraser, head of the UAW's Chrysler division, called in local union leaders from Chrysler plants across the country to discuss the situation with them.

"We haven't even solved a small problem yet," Fraser said.

Ken Bannon of the union's Ford division used one word to sum up progress — "Nothing."

Union and industry leaders were hesitant to mention a strike when the current contract expires Sept. 6, but sources close to the negotiations said the strike possibility looms stronger every day little or no progress is reported.

The disagreements continued to be over strong union demands for a guaranteed annual income, substantial wage increases, profit sharing, and larger fringe benefits.

Nurse Center Graduates 73

Seventy - three practical nurses graduated yesterday from the Pontiac Practical Nurse Center, operated by the board of education.

Dr. Eugene Sibery, executive director of the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council, addressed the graduating classes.

The nurse center was established in 1963 and is operated by federal funds administered by the school board.

Group Protest of 'Socialistic' Pay Plan Set

Skilled workers plan a demonstration this afternoon at Pontiac Motor Local 653 in protest of the guaranteed annual income proposed by Walter Reuther.

★ ★ ★

William Erickson, president of the Oakland County chapter of the Oakland County chapter of the International Society of Skilled Trades, said petitions objecting to the plan will be presented to Local Pesident Wayne Anable at 3 p.m.

"I expect 100 or more persons to show up and not necessarily all skilled tradesmen," Erickson. said.

"We oppose the guaranteed annual income because it's another socialistic move," explained Erickson.

★ ★ ★

"As skilled tradesmen, we want to be treated as individuals," he added. "Socialism may be good for some who haven't anything but not for us.'

SEPARATION WANTED

For years, skilled tradesmen have been attempting to have a separate contract negotiated for them, and not just lumped in with production workers.

★ ★ ★

"We are fighting for the survival of the trades," said Erickson, a die maker at Pontiac Motor. "There's no incentive when someone on the line can make almost as much as a skilled worker."

GOP Rebels Back Moore on Crime Plan

The dissident Republican 19th Congressional District Executive Committee headed by Christian Powell has endorsed Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore's proposal for an enlarged war on crime.

★ ★ ★

The committee commended Moore and called upon all county communities to actively support such a program as the one presented by the judge last month at an anticrime conference.

"A special session of the Legislature to deal with crime is sorely needed to find ways to protect the public," said Powell, an attorney in West Bloomfield Township.

"The committee also feels that an appeal by petition to Congress for legislation to increase the abilities of law enforcement agencies to deal with criminal suspects is a wise suggestion," added Powell. "We too, question the advisability of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions in the crime area."

★ ★ ★

Powell's committee. is not recognized by county GOP leaders as the official group representing the 19th District.

Pontiac Man Is Accused of Killing Youth

A 25-year-old Pontiac man is being held in the Macomb County Jail today on a first-degree murder charge.

Willie J. Calhoun of 490 Nebraska, is accused of the shotgun slaying of Wardell Caldwell, 19, last night in New Haven.

Police said Caldwell, a New Haven resident, was killed by a shotgun blast in front of a tavern. His assailant fled.

Calhoun was arrested by police on a reckless drivig charge several minutes later. He was accused of the slaying after police questioned several witnesses who implicated him.

Waterford Man Robbed of $200, Beaten by Pair

A Waterford Township man was robbed and beaten in an alley by two men early yesterday, it was reported to Pontiac police.

Ralph Green, 54, of 6426 Harriet, told officers he was walking toward E. Pike from a nearby bar when the men approached and asked him for a ride.

★ ★ ★

He was struck on the head and some $200 was taken from his wallet, he told police.

The bandits fled on foot toward Lawrence, officers were told.

3 City Men Suspects in Tool Burglary

Three Pontiac men were arrested early yesterday in connection with a burglary at a city automobile dealership.

Held in Oakland County Jail for investigation of breaking and entering are Clarence E. Marotz Jr., 22, of 240 W. Princeton; Henry A. Davis, 24, of 38 Fairgrove; and Marvin F. Delgado, 25, of 103 S. Paddock.

They were arrested about 3:30 a.m. at Oakland and Montcalm by a police officer acting on the description of a car involved in a burglary moments before at Grimaldi Imported Cars, 900 Oakland.

A witness at the burglary scene told police he heard glass breaking and saw two men carrying a large box run from the building.

★ ★ ★

The men drove off rapidly when the witness approached them with a flashlight, officers were told.

TOOLBOX IMPOUNDED

A toolbox answering the description of the box taken from the dealership was impounded at the arrest scene, according to police.

Investigators said entry to the building was made by breaking through a large pane of glass.

★ ★ ★

They said other tools were moved near the window, apparently to be carried out later by the burglars.

OU Workshop to Instruct Extemporaneous Acting

A five-day workshop for teachers in extemporaneous acting will begin Aug. 16 at Oakland University.

Goals of the conference are to train teachers in extemporaneous acting, to provide further training and experience for volunteer resource teachers already in the program, and to provide liaison between volunteers and classroom teachers.

The workshop is a Project to Advance Creativity in Education (PACE) sponsored by OU's Division of Continuing Education and financed with federal funds.

Faculty for the workshop has been drawn from top professionals across the continent.

★ ★ ★

They include Jeff Henry, movement director of the National Theatre School of Canada; Margaret McKerrow, director of the Children's Theatre at the University of Michigan; and Audrey Suhr, field director of the Carnegie Project in Simulated Games at Johns Hopkins University.

PROJECT HEAD

Dr. Adeline Hirschfeld, assistant professor of speech at OU, heads the project.

Object of the specialized supplementary educational activity in the classroom is to improve language and reading skills, teach human values, increase creativity and imagination and to bring each subject of learning alive.

★ ★ ★

The workshop has been planned to provide actual classroom experience as close as possible to expected actual experience in Troy's Morse School Troy High School and oPntiac's McConnell School where the PACE program is being initiated.

Do you know the difference between a used car and a previously-owned
Cadillac?

Cadillac owners are known to take wonderful care of their cars. And they are inclined to trade more frequently than owners of other cars. Many of the older Cadillacs we have available right now are just nicely broken in . . . some of them hardly distinguishable from new.

KING OF THE MOUNTAIN—South Korean troops climb a steep rock outcrop in South Vietnam's Phu Yen Province 250 miles north of Saigon recently while conducting a search-and-destroy mission against the Vietcong. The enemy was using crevices and caves as sanctuary in the area, but the ROK troops ferreted them out.

$100,000 Fire Levels Factory by Benton Harbor

BENTON HARBOR (UPI) — Fire leveled the Aamco Transmission Plant in suburban Benton Township last night, causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

★ ★ ★

The building was completely leveled by the blaze, and witnesses reported seeing flames from the fire for six miles and smoke for at least 15 miles.

No injuries were reported.

Authorities said along with the plant's complete inventory, at least 15 cars in and near the garage were burned.

★ ★ ★

Fire departments from Benton Harbor, Benton Township, St. Joseph and St. Joseph Township fought the blaze for nearly three hours last night.

1,900 Will Get WMU Degrees

KALAMAZOO (UPI) — Western Michigan University will award degrees to 1,900 students at its summer commencement exercises Friday.

★ ★ ★

Doctor Paul W. Briggs, a WMU alumnus and now superintendent of the Cleveland, Ohio, public school system, will address the graduates.

★ ★ ★

The exercises were to be held in Waldo Stadium.

★ ★ ★

Briggs, a 1934 graduate of the university, was the superintendent of schools at Bay City before moving to Cleveland.

Court Restricts Persistent Suitor Again 'n' Again

LONDON (UPI) — An ingenious and persistent suitor is Thomas Ballard, 28. At the request of the object of his ardor, Gillian Arrowsmith, a court enjoined Ballard from telephoning her.

★ ★ ★

It later, again at the girl's request, enjoined him from calling upon her at home or at the job.

★ ★ ★

When once more the girl asked for legal relief from Ballard's attentions, he was enjoined from talking to her in the street.

★ ★ ★

Yet again court help was asked and given — this time enjoining Ballard, at risk of jail, from parking his car outside or near Gillian's home or in any of the eight parking spaces near her place of employment.

London Bus Gets Lost; Passengers Tell Course

LONDON (AP) — A big, red, double-decker London bus lost its way in the heart of London Sunday.

Instead of heading down Haymarket from Piccadilly Circus, No. 9 rumbled straight on to Leicester Square.

★ ★ ★

A woman passenger called out: "He's going the wrong way."

Since a thick glass panel separated the driver from the passengers and the conductress, the driver didn't hear.

TRAFALGAR SQUARE

At Leicester Square, he cut to the right and headed for Trafalgar Square.

"I'm late for work, stop him," yelled a passenger who was doing Sunday switchboard service in an exporter's office.

★ ★ ★

At Trafalgar Square the driver nosed down the Horse Guard's Parade—far off No. 9's route.

Near the houses of Parliament the driver drove with less certainty. The conductress pulled the stop cord, walked around to the front and gave some instructions. The driver headed back toward Trafalgar Square.

'FOLLOW THAT BUS'

Up ahead was a No. 15 bus.

"Follow the No. 15," shouted another passenger, sticking his head out of the window.

★ ★ ★

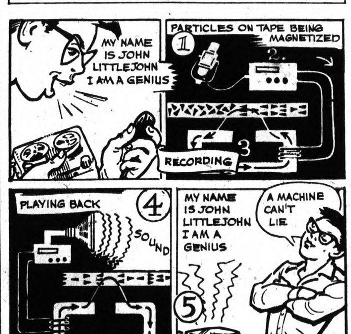
A London Transport spokesman explained:

★ ★ ★

"On Sundays various drivers are sometimes asked to drive routes they're not altogether familiar with. But we'd like to point out one thing—the bus arrived at the end of the route on time.

—Junior Editors Quiz on— TAPE RECORDERS



QUESTION: How do tape recorders work?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Tape recorders are becoming more and more important. They are used in business, in space flights, to record programs to be broadcast later and, of course, by many young people who get a lot of fun out of them.

It is the almost-magic magnetized tape which is the tape recorder's secret. This goes from feed reel to take-up reel passing over the recording head. The tape is coated with magnetic iron particles, arranged at random.

But the recording head, carrying electric impulses coming from a microphone (1) and which have been amplified (2), pulls the particles into certain patterns as the tape passes over an electromagnet (3).

These new patterns are permanently on the tape unless passed over an erasing head, when they are instantly shaken apart and the tape can be used for recording again.

When the tape, with its magnetized patterns, is played back (4) the patterns cause electric signals to be produced by an electromagnet, and these are made louder and then turned into sound by a loudspeaker.

NY Deserted, Says Wilson, Except for All the People

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — They say nobody's in town this miserable August—but everybody is.

Luci and Pat Nugent went to see "Cabaret" the other night with a couple of friends—and three security men. They had supper at Sardi's later — the security men at another table — before going to the "Plaza 9" show.

Nearby, at Sardi's, sat Loretta Young and two priests . . . And Bob Hope's around looking at some Broadway shows, hoping he can convert one into a TV special, starring himself . . . Great pedestrian Don Ameche could be seen walking from Toots Shor's to the Anta Theater where he's rehearsing with Carol Bruce in "Sweet Henry" for Broadway. That's how Don stays so slim—walking.

The Nugents' visit to "Cabaret" packed a special kick for Miss Penny Fuller, Jill Haworth's standby. Jill was out of the show and Penny's big night came with the President's daughter in the audience.

The Nugents didn't get much privacy here. Pat was looking in a restaurant window when a stranger came up and asked him, "How's the baby?" Pat said, "He's fine."

The Palace Theater opened its top balcony (first time in years) to accommodate Judy Garland's fans, and ABC Records is rushing an album, so her 125th (or whatever it is) comeback is officially a smash success.

Judy's succeeding nights are almost as big as her first, and very similar. Again she "forgets" the lyrics of "Entertainment" and gets huge applause, again a guy shouts a request for her to sing "Battle Hymn of the Republic," again a man in the audience throws a flower on stage—and she kisses it.

Informing on Marijuana Traffic Fruitful

By BILL STARR
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex — If you have a little imagination, there is a way to get rich along the Texas-Mexican border off the marijuana traffic — but not by smuggling it across. That is one of the least likely ways of making money.

The guys who squeal to the U. S. Customs officials are the ones who come out ahead financially.

Informing is big business along the border.

Last year six tons of marijuana were seized by customs agents when it crossed the border.

★ ★ ★

They didn't have to go looking for it, either. They were sitting there waiting for it when it came across, much to the surprise of the poor fellows who hoped to get rich off one trip to the Mexican dope fields and back.

AN AGREEMENT

There is an agreement between customs agents and Mexican informers that when the informer tips them off on a hot one, he, the informer, is entitled to 15 per cent of the value of the smuggled matter.

This includes the value of the car in which the dope is riding, also. At the least, the informer's take is $100 to $150 each time he squeals.

So, the very guy who sells you the stuff in Mexico, usually pockets his cash, picks up the telephone and tips the customs boy off to the make, color and license number of your car and gets additional gains from his 15 per cent as a legitimate informer.

★ ★ ★

The border Mexicans, for the most part, always enterprising, always tricky and always on the edge of starvation, had to devise a new means of injecting some life into a situation which was rapidly becoming staid.

SMALL CACHE

Raising the hood of some tourist's automobile outside a Mexican nightclub, the Mexican would plant a small cache of marijuana, wait until the tourist started back towards the bridge, call the customs officials, and collect his $150.

The unsuspecting tourist always wound up in the Texas state penitentiary at Huntsville, wondering what hit him.

Nobody would believe he was innocent.

★ ★ ★

It took the judges on the American side several years to figure that one out and put a stop to it.

LATEST TWIST

Latest promotional twist to the trade of the informer was discovered last year in Brownsville at the southernmost tip of the state, just across the Rio Grande from Matamoros.

It seems a Mexican cabdriver would approach tourists in Matamoros and offer to bring marijuana over to the U. S. side and deliver it to them for a price.

At one time 13 defendants were in the Brownsville jail because the same cabdriver had offered his services in such a manner and had been taken up on it.

★ ★ ★

"This same cabbie came to me five times trying to get me to buy," one of the men in the jail said. "He offered to bring the stuff across the river and deliver it to me on this side.

IN A HAMMERLOCK

"Finally, it looked so easy, I took him up on it. Ten minutes after he delivered it to me, the U. S. Customs men had a hammerlock on me."

Last August, Federal Judge Reynaldo G. Garza began to look into the possibility of customs enforcement agents using the Mexican cabbie to set up a trap for marijuana offenders.

Garza took the U. S. customs officials to task. "I don't care if the cabbie is a government employe or not. It's still entrapment. And if he's not working for the government, it's a violation of law. And the next time it happens, I'll have an investigation of my own."

★ ★ ★

Assistant Commissioner of Customs Lawrence Fleichman in Washington, said the bureau had "no policy allowing informers to work for it."

'NO ENTRAPMENT'

"It is not the policy of our department to allow methods which are illegal or of a questionable nature," he said. "We do not make cases which even remotely smell of entrapment.

Frantic attempts to hush the incident on the U. S. side were common.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Homer M. Lopez said: "Defendants in court will often try to throw the blame off onto someone who is not around," he said.

★ ★ ★

"They know good and well it's illegal to be in possession of marijuana.

'NOT COMPLETELY CLEAN'

"A man's mind is not completely clean when he goes to a place where marijuana is known to be available," he said.

★ ★ ★

But the publicity has apparently worked.

Practically nobody on the U.S. side of the river complains of entrapment now when they are picked up by the customs boys for having marijuana in their possession.

★ ★ ★

Old-timers along the Texas-Mexican border wait patiently to see what ingenious scheme the Mexican informers will come up with next.

FAST FRISK—When it's roundup time in Texas, it's usually the border guards who do the rounding up. This law enforcement officer on the Texas side of the Rio Grande is checking a marijuana smuggling suspect after receiving a tip-off from a Mexican.

Strategic Reserve to Be Sent to Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans to order to Vietnam large chunks of the last remaining combat divisions in the United States — and may not replace these units, sources report.

This would help meet President Johnson's new troop authorization for Vietnam which would raise the U.S. manpower commitment in the war to 525,000 by next summer.

Two top White House advisers indicate that meanwhile, U.S. allies in Vietnam are considering what additional troops they might send to back up their reported agreement on the need for increased pressure now against the Communists.

The advisers, Clark Clifford and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, reported to President Johnson Saturday upon their return from a visit to South Vietnam, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand and South Korea.

★ ★ ★

"Everyone feels now is the time for maximum effort," said Taylor, a former ambassador to Saigon. But both said they did not directly ask allies for more troops.

STRATEGIC RESERVE

The 45,000-man increase in U.S. strength over the currently authorized 480,000 will go to Southeast Asia between October and next July and will consist mainly of units now classed as part of the Strategic Reserve.

This is an active duty force kept at home primarily to meet sudden contingencies aboard.

Sources say Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara probably would defend this approach on two grounds:

● The Strategic Reserve exists to be used.

★ ★ ★

● President Johnson has directed McNamara to help hold down military expenditures.

A HERO'S HONORS — First Lt. Karl Richter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Richter, 11610 Dixie, Holly Township, received an Air Force tribute during funeral service Saturday morning at St. Rita's Catholic Church, Holly. Richter, Vietnam war ace, was to be buried today at the U.S. Air Force Academy Cemetery, Colorado Springs, Colo.

SUSPECT SOUGHT—West Bloomfield Township and State Police today released this drawing of a woman who accompanied three men in the robbery-murder of West Bloomfield Township Trustee Emmett E. DeConick. The description was given to police by DeConick's sister, Kathleen, who was shot and left to die. The woman was described as white or a light skinned Negro, about 5 feet 6, with a stout build, broad shoulders and straight hair.

2 Cyclists Jailed in Police Attack

Two Pontiac motorcyclists were arrested yesterday after they allegedly attacked Waterford Twonship police officers in an argument over a traffic ticket.

★ ★ ★

More than a dozen cyclists were involved in the incident in a tavern parking lot.

In Oakland County Jail after their arraignment yesterday are Leo K. Smith Jr., 21, of 297 N. Saginaw and Felix E. Murphy Jr., 30, of 795 Kettering.

Smith, charged with assaulting a police officer, is held under $5,000 bond.

★ ★ ★

Murphy was placed under $25,000 bond for the more serious charge of attempted murder.

EXAM THURSDAY

Both face examination Thursday in Waterford Township Justice Court.

Patrolman Richard Dorrance said he was writing a reckless driving ticket for Smith when the other cyclists entered the lot.

He said Smith shouted for help, and a man identified as Murphy hit Dorrance with a helmet, knocking him down.

★ ★ ★

Sgt. Merrille Finkle and Patrolman Roger Allen, who were cruising in the neighborhood, were directed to the scene by a passersby.

GUN TAKEN

The cyclists reportedly fought with the other two officers and at one point Allen's gun was taken from him.

Officers said Murphy attempted to fire the weapon.

Ike Ailment Minor, Physicians Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is back in the hospital with another digestive tract ailment. But this time doctors say the illness is so minor they plan to take advantage of his stay to finish up dental work and other routine medical checks.

He was not expected to be hospitalized long.

Eisenhower was flown by helicopter to the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital Saturday from his Gettysburg, Pa., farm. But by late afternoon he was watching television, and yesterday morning he shaved and had a light breakfast.

When Eisenhower, 76, was hospitalized in May for eight days with acute gastroenteritis, he was fed intravenously the first 24 hours or so. But in their report yesterday, the doctors said the upset this time was minor.

Holly Viet War Hero to Be Buried Today

The body of Lt. Karl Richter, Holly's 24-year-old Vietnam war hero, was to be laid to rest today among the Ponderosa pines at the U. S. Air Force Academy Cemetery, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Full military honors, including the Air Force's flyby and a 21-gun salute, were to be offered in his honor.

The ceremony was to have little in common with the going-home party planned by Air Force buddies for Richter after he had completed two more missions — his 200th over North Vietnam.

One of his fellow pilots told today of the celebration planned for the Holly hero, whose decorations included the Distinguished Flying Cross with one oak leaf cluster, the Air Medal with 13 oak leaf clusters and a recently presented Vietnamese Distinguished Service Medal.

★ ★ ★

Maj. Robert B. Piper, 36, of Salt Lake City, Richter's instructor at the Air Force Academy in 1964 and his best friend at Korat Airbase in Thailand, said Richter was on an easy mission preparatory to leaving for instructor's duty in the states. He was out to check a new pilot.

Piper said they saw a bridge and Richter told the new man to stay above him and watch. He rolled and dived toward the bridge. The Communists opened fire and hit the F105 Thunderchief on the way down. Richter still managed to pull up and head for home.

Piper reported the Holly pilot ejected safely and his parachute opened properly. The territory below was not swarming with hostile North Vietnamese. It was relatively safe, Piper said.

But something happened as Richter floated down. He either swung into the side of a sandstone cliff or his chute snagged on a protruding tree. No one is sure.

The parachute collapsed, and Richter plunged 200 feet to the ground.

★

Piper said a helicopter picked him up still alive, but he died en route to a hospital.

It was the 198th flight for the war ace, who had gained national fame as the youngest pilot to shoot down a MIG last September in Southeast Asia.

The burial service today, following the home town funeral Saturday, carried out one of the hero's wishes.

He had earlier told his parents that he wanted the Academy Cemetery as his final resting place.

Police Have Clue in DeConick Killing

West Bloomfield Township police have another clue in their hunt for the killers of Edward Emmett DeConick, 63, township trustee.

His sister, Kathleen DeConick, 73, one eye destroyed by the intruders, has recovered sufficiently to help police make a composite drawing of the woman in the case.

On July 3, three men and the woman broke into the home of DeConick, at 4857 W. Maple. They beat the pair and shot DeConick to death.

Miss DeConick was shot through the left eye, but survived.

Her eyesight had been poor before the robbery, and the bandits shot out her better eye, police said.

The composite drawing was made with the help of a specialist from the East Lansing police force.

The woman suspect was described as light-skinned, and the three men as Negroes. About $25,000 in cash, jewelry and bonds were taken.

★ ★ ★

Rewards totaling $6,600, including $1,000 from The Pontiac Press, have been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killers.

Hijacked Plane Taken to Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — Five partisans of Fidel Castro hijacked a Colombian airliner with more than 70 persons aboard to take them to Havana yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the Cuban government displayed six captured invaders from Florida whom it accused of planning to kill Castro.

The Cuban government said the plane, whose passengers included four U.S. citizens, was free to resume its flight today. All the passengers were reported safe.

The six captive Cuban exiles, paraded at a four-hour news conference, all said they were recruited and trained by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency in Florida.

Two said they carried poisoned bullets intended for Prime Minister Castro.

Two others said they were CIA agents. Cuban authorities declined to say whether the captives would be shot.

Guests at the news conference included delegates to the meeting of the Latin American Organization of Solidarity—OLAS — a gathering of revolutionaries from 27 nations.

Havana Radio said the plane had 78 passengers and four crewmen and that the armed men who took it over were four Colombians and an Ecuadorean.

Crittenton Branch Hospital Dedicated, Has Open House

More than 10 years in the planning and construction stage, the Rochester Branch of Crittenton General Hospital took 20 minutes to dedicate Saturday.

Some 550 invited guests were present for the ceremony and a tour of the $6-million facility. Another 5,000 sought their first view of the 207-bed hospital in public open house yesterday afternoon.

Due to open for treatment on Aug. 15, the building is still undergoing finishup work.

Located at 1201 W. University, the unit will boast a combined staff of 300 medical and osteopathic physicians, including those on the Detroit Crittenton staff. Some 95 nursing personnel have been engaged for the opening weeks.

★ ★ ★

MORTGAGE REMAINS

Weatherman Caught in Sporadic Showers

Looks like the U.S. Weather Bureau is in a rut as it predicts this morning's showers will continue sporadically throughout tonight and tomorrow.

Tonight's low will fall in the 60 to 65 range.

Accompanying tomororw's showers will be cloudy skies and warmer temperatures.

The showers are due to end by Wednesday as the mercury declines.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 50, tonight 30, and tomorrow 20.

VC Down Copters, Hit General

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist guerrillas shot down five American troop helicopters making an assault in Saigon's suburbs today. They also wounded a U.S. brigadier general trying to help his men caught in the trap.

★ ★ ★

The Communist guns poked up from camouflaged foxholes just as the helicopters prepared to land on the guerrilla-infiltrated banks of the Saigon River four miles north of the city limits.

Their fire brought the five helicopters crumpling to earth in a few seconds. The general, circling in his command helicopter above, whirled down to help the 20 troops reported wounded.

There was no immediate report on the general's injuries. His name was withheld pending notification of his family.

The Communists set up a vicious cross fire against the helicopters, small, swift assault craft which usually carry about six combat troops each plus crewmen.

The Americans attacked the area in hopes of wiping out more of the Vietcong units which have been harrassing the capital. The sound of the battle could be heard on the city's northern outskirts.

The American troopers were making a helicopter assault along the river bank where intelligence reports had indicated guerrilla activity. They apparently ran into an ambush.

Communist gunners waited until the helicopters, each with a five-man crew and seven assault troops, got well within range, before opening up.

★ ★ ★

The general flying over the scene spotted several wounded men lying in a rice paddy and ordered his command chopper to pick them up. Communist fire splattered through his helicopter, injuring him and his aide. The pilot managed to nurse the copter back to a safe landing.

WOUNDED GENERALS

Several American generals have been wounded slightly in the war, including Lt. Gen. Lewis Walt, former U.S. Marine commander here.

In the Quang Ngai coastal areas 300 miles north of Saigon more than 10,000 American and allied troops were closing in on a Communists Shangri-La in search of 1,200 North Vietnamese invaders and two stolen 105 millimeter howitzers.

Eight miles from Quang Ngai the Vietcong overran a compound of the Vietnamese junk navy, drove off the compound's force of 116 South Vietnamses naval officers with their families — about 200 persons — and killed an American adviser in the camp.

★ ★ ★

The South Vietnamese reoccupied the headquarters four hours later.

STRING OF SUSPECTS — A U.S. soldier and three captives tied to each other file through a muddy grassy area in the Mekong Delta about 40 miles southwest of Saigon. The three Vietcong suspects were taken during Operation Coronado II the past week. The soldier is Sgt. Glenn Keck of Springlake, N.C.

Youth's Parents, Sister Were Shot to Death

GEORGETOWN, Tex. (AP) — James Wolcott, who won't be 16 years old until Aug. 14, was held today for a juvenile delinquency hearing after gunfire killed his father, mother and sister.

★ ★ ★

Victims of the slayings in their home early Saturday were Dr. Gordon Wolcott, 56; his wife Elizabeth, 43, and their pretty daughter, also named Elizabeth, 17.

★ ★ ★

The father was a biology professor at Southwestern University in Georgetown. He formerly worked with the U.S. Public Health Service.

Funeral services for young Wolcott's family were set for today at the First Methodist Church.

WON'T ATTEND

Late Sunday night the youth said, "For all concerned it is best that I don't attend."

Officers said he had made an oral statement about the three deaths but they disclosed no details. He has been held in th Williamson County jail since the shootings. No charges had been filed.

★ ★ ★

County Judge Sam Stone said he would set the juvenile delinquency hearing, a civil proceeding, after burial of the slain Wolcotts.

Police Chief Frank Masur said seven shots from a 22-caliber rifle killed them.

★ ★ ★

The professor was found on a living room floor, two bullet wounds in his chest, his daughter, in her room, apparently shot twice as she prepared for bed. Mrs. Wolcott apparently was sleeping, the police chief said, when she was struck with three bullets.

Scientists Await Orbiter Photos

Craft to Send Home New Views of Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists engaged in mapping the moon awaited results from Lunar Orbiter 5 today—hoping for new, clear views of the rugged, pock-marked lunar surface.

The 850-pound craft's mission was to photograph five possible new astronaut landing sites and work at clearing up the old riddle of whether the moon's features were caused by meteors or volcanos.

★ ★ ★

Spokesmen at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said the first pictures would be flashed on television monitor screens at the laboratory.

The shiny craft's camera system began working Sunday as it swooped low over the moon's surface. Scientists said after the landing site survey it would begin mapping most of the hidden side of the moon.

'HOT SPOTS'

They hoped, through the new photographs, to see what causes "hot spots" on the moon's surface that are observable from earth. Some contend they may be sunlight reflecting off clouds of gas escaping through volcanic fissures.

Others believe the spots are merely lighter-colored materials on the surface.

★ ★ ★

Of particular interest were the craters Aristatchus, Censorinus, Dionysius, Dawes and Tycho—the hot spots.

★ ★ ★

Lunar Orbiter 5, the last in the lunar orbiter series, ends the program that sent successful craft to explore the moon's features. Earlier craft mapped eight potential landing spots for American astronauts, and provided some of the most detailed photos ever taken of the lunar surface.

★ ★ ★

One craft returned a spectacular picture of earth, taken looking over the horizon of the moon. Other photos, taken at low angles toward the horizon, showed rough, mountainous terrain, a forbidding view for men expecting to land on the moon.

Maple Parking Ban Opposed

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission tonight will consider a recommendation by City Manager Robert S. Kenning that a plan to permanently ban parking on Maple in the central business district be turned down at this time.

In a report prepared for the commission, Kenning says that a test ban, May 19-June 17, had a "negative impact" on the business district that was not offset by the "ease of through traffic movement and lessening of traffic congestion."

He recommends that the ban not be reimposed in the immediate future unless necessitated by road construction.

In other business, the commission will consider three amendments to the proposed rules and regulations for parks and other public properties.

★ ★ ★

The amendments, suggested by Department of Parks and Recreation Supt. Darrel C. Middlewood, ask that all animals be banned from playgrounds and tot-lots within parks and that games involving physical activity be restriced.

USE OF INTOXICANTS

A slight modification of the present ordinance governing use of intoxicants is also requested.

★ ★ ★

The commission will also hear an opinion by City Attorney James L. Howlett stating that the city has the power to require utility companies to place their lines and cables underground.

★ ★ ★

A report to be submitted to the commission by the city manager, asks that the city attorney be directed to prepare an ordinance which would require electrical wires and cables to be installed underground in the central business district.

Pair Found Dead in Mississippi; Inquest Slated

WEST POINT, Miss. (AP) — The bodies of two men, including one who was a member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, were found pinned in an overturned auto in a rural Clay County creek Sunday.

An inquest is scheduled Monday in the case.

★ ★ ★

Officers identified the two as William McFarland of West Point and George Best.

Police said papers found in the car indicated that Best was a student at Florida A & M University and a member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Police said the apparent cause of death was drowning.

Law Fails to Provide Equal Opportunity--VP

HONOLULU (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the American Bar Association today the law is losing its "stabilizing influence" because it has failed to provide equal opportunity while guaranteeing equal rights.

"Frustration, alienation and unrest are not surprising consequences," he said in a prepared speech at the ABA's 90th annual convention.

★ ★ ★

Humphrey pledged that "flagrant disregard for the law" will not be tolerated.

"You know, and I know and the rioters themselves must know that riots will be suppressed," he said. "Order will be restored. Those malicious individuals who spark disorders will be found and prosecuted."

'INTENSE FRUSTRATION'

At the same time, Humphrey said the current wave of urban riots is rooted in an "intense frustration" among poor people. He said this "comes from watching the other America at work and play on television and knowing that it is beyond their reach."

Humphrey spoke of "a frustration that comes from paying higher prices in the ghetto shops than those charged in the supermarkets of suburbia—and knowing it;

★ ★ ★

"A frustration that comes from paying exorbitant interest rates for shoddy goods—and knowing it;

"A frustration of being unemployed for lack of training—and knowing it."

BEING HOPELESS

"The consequences of being poor and hopeless in a society where most are not produces a deep sense of alientation" he said. "This feeling is nowhere more fully expressed than in the attitudes of some ghetto dwellers toward the law."

Favorite-Son Entry Seen in Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Republican State Chairman John C. Jordan said Sunday that campaign aides of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Michigan Gov. George Romney have agreed not to enter their names in Pennsylvania's 1968 presidential preferential primary election.

★ ★ ★

Jordan said it is anticipated that Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania will go to the Republican National Convention next August as a favorite son candidate.

★ ★

Neither Nixon nor Romney has announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

The state primary will be held April 23 and the preference vote is not binding on delegates to the national convention.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Showers and thundershowers are forecast tonight in portions of the Plateau region, the northern and southern Plains, the Ohio Valley and the lower Great Lakes. It will be warmer along the Gulf Coast states, the Ohio Valley and the mid-Atlantic coastal states.

National Guard Withdraws

Emergency Lifted for Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney has lifted a two-week state of emergency but there were reminders during the weekend of the riots that erupted in the nation's fifth largest city.

Romney lifted the state of emergency after a meeting with state and local officials Sunday.

"Recent days and nights have indicated a return to normalcy in the metropolitan area," the governor said.

That was the signal for withdrawal of the last of some 7,000 National Guard troops ordered to the city and the return of law enforcement responsibilities to local officials in Detroit and the suburbs of Highland Park, Hamtramck, River Rouge and Ecorse.

EXTENDED TO SUBURBS

The state of emergency had been extended to the suburbs, largely as a precautionary measure.

Three more deaths were added to the city's riot toll over the weekend, raising it to 42. A Detroit fireman injured by a falling power line while fighting a fire died Friday. Two Negroes shot and wounded by National Guardsmen died Saturday.

The list had numbered 41 victims until the weekend, but two fatalities were found to have resulted from nonriot causes and were dropped. Then the three weekend deaths brought the list to 42.

★ ★ ★

Romney and Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh attended an interfaith memorial church service Sunday with about 300 Negroes and whites. Six clergymen, representing Protestant, Jewish and Catholic faiths, led the service.

It Seems to Me . . .

Our Governor's Nationality Settled by First Congress

Isn't it about time those petty souls around the Nation stopped straining at the leash in regard to Governor ROMNEY'S "nationality?"

He's an American.

He's an American "by law."

★ ★ ★

In an act to Establish a Uniform Rule of Naturalization, our first Congress said:

"The children of citizens of the United States that may be born beyond the sea or outside the limits of the United States, shall be considered as natural born citizens of the United States."

★ ★ ★

Doesn't this settle everything above and beyond future discussion of any kind or type? Our Governor's parents were as American as Chief Pontiac and he was born during a visit to Mexico. This contingency is covered by unassailable logic and law.

★ ★ ★

What more is there to say?

Congress has spoken.

These small-time agitators that want to stir up trouble over practically nothing seem to die hard. They arise at periodic intervals in widely scattered locations — and attempt to argue about something that was settled nearly 200 years ago.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT JR., was born outside the continental United States but he was elected and served in Congress.

What's all the shootin' about.

Puerto Rico's Status....

Puerto Rico's recent vote to retain the status quo is far and away the best answer. They are under a protectorate of the United States and they're lucky.

★ ★ ★

There are two alternatives:

Statehood

Independence

The former is a dubious proposition — for them. They face a tremendous tax increase.

Independence would be fraught with tremendous danger. If they cast off Uncle Sam, they're on their own —permanently. How long would it be before a Russian warship dropped into the harbor and announced placidly:

"We're taking over.

"Be quiet and you won't get hurt."

★ ★ ★

The position they occupy now is the best.

British Market....

For the first time in the memory of man — including METHUSELAH — Great Britain is hurting over exports and imports.

★ ★ ★

From times immemorial, the British Isles have exported and imported goods hither and yon, always with a very comfortable balance of trade in their favor. Britain looked and dealt far and wide — casually.

★ ★ ★

But it's different now.

It's "This Changing World."

Currently, the great House of Commons has echoed and reechoed with stirring speeches deploring a catastrophic situation.

"It's awful," they say.

Well, it really is.

★ ★ ★

Worldwide competition is terrific for everyone everywhere. American firms have been especially devastating in their entrance into the British market. Britain no longer rules the waves and the sun finds time to set every day on the British Empire. A glorious situation existed for centuries and Britains accepted it with complete equinimity.

But this is a new deal.

It can happen to any nation. (Including this).

And in Conclusion....

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

Today's baseball players are fragile and ornamental or they lack the intestinal fortitude of days gone by. JOHNSON and WAGNER played 21 years, RUTH and SPEAKER 22, TY COBB 24 and EDDIE COLLINE 25. . . . . Newspapermen tell me it's rumored General WILLIAM WESTMORELAND will become boss of the whole shebang and General CREIGHTON ABRAMS will take over Vietnam. This should take place by the end of September. . . . . Overheard: "Life is a battle of wits, but too many people are unarmed."

—HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

The Ship That Won't Sink!

David Lawrence Asks:

Why Did LBJ Delay on Detroit?

LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Strange paradoxes confuse the American people nowadays as they try to understand just why President Johnson delayed for several hours the sending of federal troops into riot-torn Detroit a fortnight ago while President Kennedy in 1963, without waiting for a request from the governor of Alabama, ordered federal troops to Alabama when there were threats of or actual disturbances.

Also, President Johnson sent federal troops into Selma, Ala., in March 1965 to protect a five-day march to Montgomery, even though no state of insurrection had developed, nor was anything of the kind so certified by Gov. Wallace.

It is true that both the governor and the state legislature declined to spend the extra money for safeguarding the 55-mile march and advised the federal government that the financial burden was already too heavy. As it developed, the federal government did spend at least $490,000.

President Johnson last week at a news conference endeavored to interpret his own obligations as follows:

"Under the Constitution and laws of this country and the uniform practices of all past presidents, before troops can be used in any civil disorder, the following elements must be present when a state seeks assistance:

"First, a request for troops by the legislature, if the legislature can be convened, or if the legislature cannot be convened, by the governor.

★ ★ ★

"Two, certification of insurrection or domestic violence.

OUT OF CONTROL

"Three, the demonstration of a clear inability of state and all local authorities to control the situation despite the use of all law enforcement resources which can be brought to bear."

But the Constitution doesn't mention any such step as "certification."

It says simply that the federal government "shall protect" each state against domestic violence."

Some members of Congress now are saying that the contrasting experiences in Michigan and Alabama show how, when an administration in power in Washington wants to support a Negro march, it sends in federal troops, but when confronted by violence in a state whose governor happens to be an aspirant for the Republican presidential nomination, the same instantaneous protection is not forthcoming.

Bob Considine Says:

Rap Brown, Carmichael Endanger U.S. Security

CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown can plead, if they ever have need of pleading, that their recent free-speech calls to arms and their other invitations to violence are constitutional.

They would not want for legal aid from the Civil Liberties Union, nor would the Supreme Court turn a deaf ear to their appeals from any decision by a lower court that they endanger the security of all the peoples of the United States.

They are as involved with U.S. security as were the Rosenbergs, Klaus Fuchs, Harry Gold and the Greenglasses.

But there is little likelihood that "the book" will ever be thrown at them, unless some group that warrants the confidence and respect of Americans of all colors plucks them legally from under their protective covers and makes the legal case against them as clear-cut as is America's emotional case against them.

★ ★ ★

Carmichael, a product of Washington, D.C.'s distinguished Howard University, on which the government has bestowed millions of dollars, gave as much comfort to the enemy in Havana this past week as, say, Toyko Rose (daughter of a Midwestern shopkeeper) provided in World War II. She went to the can.

'SEVERER FATE'

William Joyce, Lord Haw Haw, suffered a somewhat severer fate when his fellow Englishmen got their hands on him after his propaganda services in behalf of Hitler. Nobody mentioned freedom of speech. Treason was the word.

Rap Brown, incredibly offered the pulpit of St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church in Washington from which to vent his peculiar venom, waded into his remarks as if he were using the 2nd Amendment as a shield.

The "affable" man, as the New York Times referred to him, preached the seizure of weapons and the shooting of whites. He suggested that he might even take a shot at the wife of the President of the United States.

The suggestion one hears about these two mavericks is that the U.S. news media should stop quoting everything that spills from them, since they in no way represent any responsible segment of American life and constant exposure ignites more strife. But there must be some more positive and efficient way of dealing with them.

'Program to Curb Crime Should Be Carried Out'

Judge Moore's points to curb crime are excellent and should be carried out. However, I do not agree that the public is apathetic. People are discouraged and feel that any effort on their part would be ignored or useless, especially when it came to the courts.

★ ★ ★

Many criminals are caught but not many receive sentences to match their crimes. Teenagers are let out on probation or let go entirely to act again. Some get off with light sentences at most, and these young hoodlums are even protected sometimes by not naming them in the news.

★ ★ ★

Crime in any form should be exposed and punished. I hope Judge Moore can persuade the courts to carry out his points and that he will always uphold these views in his sentences and decisions.

Question and Answer

This question may be of interest to families with boys in service. If it is 1 p.m. Sunday in Michigan, what is the day and time in Vietnam?

R. K. NAILE

REPLY

Vietnam time is 12 hours ahead of ours, so it would be 1 a.m. Monday. However, if you need to know this for purpose of telephoning, you will need additional information. Telephone service to Vietnam is available only 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. every day but Saturday. There is no Saturday service. The overseas operator tells us the load is so heavy that all calls are booked until Oct. 6. She advises those wishing to talk to servicemen in Vietnam to write them and have them call home collect. Calls will get through much faster.

Doctor Shortage

Life Magazine

The American Medical Association made news by recognizing a fact known to most for 10 or 15 years: a serious shortage of doctors in the U.S. The A.M.A. called for "an immediate and unprecedented increase" in the intake of medical schools.

★ ★ ★

Who's surprised that there is a doctor shortage? Not the people who call for an appointment and are told they can be accommodated on Wednesday of next week. The number of M.D. degrees in recent years has kept approximate pace with the increase in population.

But — and this is one of the most significant buts around — Americans have chosen to spend a large part of their increased income on medical care. This demand for physicians' services will continue to rise.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Milford O. Rouse, as president of the A.M.A., observed, that his profession was faced with many challenges. Displaying a remarkable talent for the wrong phrase, the first challenge he mentioned was "the concept of health care as a right rather than a privilege."

★ ★ ★

For more than two decades the average income of physicians has been rising much faster than that of Americans generally, and the "working conditions" of physicians have been improving.

Expectably, large numbers of college men have tried to break into this socially useful and lucrative profession. But half the applicants for medical school have been rejected.

The resulting shortage is very different from the shortage of nurses. The physician's profession, is one that thousands of bright young men and women have been vainly clamoring to enter.

★ ★ ★

The A.M.A., by its power to accredit schools and to approve hospitals, exercises a far greater control over entry into its profession than any other professional group.

It should have taken the lead years ago in demanding a rapid expansion of medical education. Instead A.M.A. leaders until this year expressed doubt that a shortage of doctors existed.

American medicine has dealt with the artificially created shortage of U.S.-trained doctors by giving employment to astounding numbers of graduates of foreign medical schools. Every recent year, some 2,500 of these — nearly a third of the total number of M.D. degrees granted last year by American medical schools — find work in the U.S.

★ ★ ★

A high proportion of the foreign-trained doctors come from countries desperately in need of medical services. The artificial distortion in the U.S. medical market has the side effect of depriving these countries of physicians. This drain is bitterly resented in low-income countries which think the U.S. is rich enough to train its own doctors.

The A.M.A.'s critics have accused it of restricting the number of doctors in training for the purpose of increasing the incomes of licensed physicians. This ascription of a crass economic motive does less than justice to the dedicated men who pursue one of the most difficult of all professions.

★ ★ ★

The A.M.A., obsessed with its struggle against "socialized medicine," has been slow to grasp the immense opportunities implicit in the rising demand for medical care. Now it has resolved any lingering doubt that a shortage of doctors exists. By 1980 the public will begin to appreciate the results of a 1967 A.M.A. decision that should have been made in 1947.

Way to Ease Tensions Is to Improve Conditions

Executive Director
National Urban League

I'm getting pretty annoyed about the way some people are using this summer's riots as an excuse to avoid doing anything about the basic social problems which caused them.

YOUNG

Senseless and irrational as they are, the riots have shown America the deep frustrations and bitterness in the ghetto.

These feelings are the result of joblessness, poor housing, poor schools and discrimination.

The way to ease tensions is to improve these conditions, not to worsen them.

Injustices cannot be ended by blood and fire, but neither is justice served by vindictiveness and reprisals.

★ ★ ★

It is especially wrong to deny justice to all Negroes because a few took part in irresponsible violence.

MAKE ALL PAY

Too many Americans focus on the three per cent who rioted, and are willing to make the 97 per cent of Negro citizens who are law-abiding pay for it. But this is nothing very new; Americans have always practiced a double standard for Negroes.

Let one Cassius Clay refuse to go into the Army, and 100 white boys who flee the draft by running away to Canada are forgotten.

Let one Negro politician abuse his power, and dozens of crooked white politicians are forgotten.

BEARING ARMS

Let one Negro throw a brick in Detroit, and the thousands of Negro soldiers who are bearing the disproportionate burden of the fighting in Vietnam are forgotten.

It is time for reason to prevail. No other ethnic group in America is expected to be 100 per cent perfect.

Rather than embark on a narrow-minded program of reprisals and denial of justice, America must embark on a sincere crusade to end the injustice of discrimination and the exploitation of the ghetto.

Only a determined effort to create more jobs and better housing and decent education will end the underlying causes of rioting.

The overwhelming majority of Negro citizens reject violence and anarchy as a means of ending injustice. I hope the majority of other Americans will reject short-sighted reprisals and angry suppression of Negro rights as a means of dealing with the real problems which face us.

As President Johnson put it in his televised message to the nation: "This is not a time for angry reaction. But I think it is a time for action, starting with legislative action to improve the life in our cities."

We are in a race with time to end the poverty and bigotry which distort our national life. There is a need for reasonable men of both races to work together to solve these pressing problems.

The frustrations of the young won't be ended by cutting funds for youth programs, and the poverty of the jobless won't be helped by cutting funds for training programs. Constructive solutions to these problems are called for, and mean and petty reprisals won't solve them.

Airliner Hits Deer

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A deer was killed Sunday when it ran in front of a jet airliner landing at Greater Pittsburgh Airport. The plane, flight 69 from New York, landed safely, though it had to have a hydraulic line replaced in its landing gear.

Gathering of Orientalists to Test U. of M. Kitchens

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Planning 22 meals for a week-long international convention requires more than just the talents of a dietitian.

The University of Michigan is using historians, a linguist, a political scientist and other experts in putting together a menu for the 27th Congress of Orientalists which meet here the week of Aug. 13.

About 700 Moslems, Hindus, Christians, Jews, Buddhists Confucianists will be living together during the Congress which will study Oriental history and present day policies.

★ ★ ★

If the dietitians, with the help of their advisers, have planned well, the group also will be able to eat together.

Among the guidelines presented to the dietitians were these helpful suggestions: "Serve rice with most meals. . . no pork or pork products for Jews or Moslems from the Near East . . . lots of fresh fruit and vegetables from India . . . unleavened bread . . . a wide selection of spices . . . frequent use of fish, lamb and chicken. . ."

Israelis Report

Arab Brigade's Arms Found

TEL AVIV (AP) — The equipment of an entire Soviet-armed Egyptian reconnaissance brigade has been found intact in the Sinai desert by Israeli army survey units, army sources said today.

The unit includes seven ultramodern amphibious tanks, seven armored troop carriers and a large quantity of reconnaissance armed jeeps. The Israelis also found considerable numbers of antitank Soviet rockets.

★ ★ ★

The equipment was discovered last weekend by an Israeli survey unit in the Sinai desert between Kuseima and El Kuntilla. The army sources reported that units have come across ammunition, tanks and vehicles abandoned by the Egyptian army in its flight to the Suez Canal.

Other items found in various parts of Sinai include 12 heavy Stalin tanks abandoned intact by their crews. The tanks were either camouflaged or embedded in the earth.

Other army units reported finding nearly complete equipment for a tank brigade in good condition south of Kuseima consisting of 30 T34 and T54 tanks, with artillery, shells and trailers nearby.

Auto Talks Hit Halfway Mark

Lack of Progress Ups Likelihood of a Strike

DETROIT (UPI) — The possibility of a strike by the United Auto Workers next month loomed even stronger today as negotiations between the union and the nation's "Big Three" auto makers passed the halfway point with no signs of progress.

Negotiations with the union, representing 652,000 workers at the nation's biggest auto plants, and the companies reached the halfway point last Saturday.

Union and industry spokesmen agreed that nothing had been accomplished.

The second — and usually more dynamic — half of the negotiations starts today.

★ ★ ★

Douglas Fraser, head of the UAW's Chrysler division, called in local union leaders from Chrysler plants across the country to discuss the situation with them.

NO SOLUTIONS

"We haven't even solved a small problem yet," Fraser said.

Ken Bannon of the union's Ford division used one word to sum up progress — "Nothing."

Union and industry leaders were hesitant to mention a strike when the current contract expires Sept. 6, but sources close to the negotiations said the strike possibility looms stronger every day little or no progress is reported.

★ ★ ★

The disagreements continued to be over strong union demands for a guaranteed annual income, substantial wage increases, profit sharing, and larger fringe benefits.

BARGAINING TO BEGIN

Union and industry sources indicated, however, that hard-line bargaining will begin in about two weeks.

General Motors' leading bargainer, Louis Seaton, said it was still too early in negotiations for agreements to be nailed down.

"There are three phases in our bargaining," he said.

★ ★ ★

"First is the presentation of union demands and the detailing of those proposals. Second, the digestion of the union package and the company's proposals. And third, the settlement," he said.

THIRD PHASE

A union spokesman offered another alternative to Seaton's phase three: "A strike."

Phase one of Seaton's pattern has been followed during the first half of negotiations. Most of the work has been regulated to subcommittees which worked to hammer out mechanical details.

By Aug. 15, the industry is expected to lay its own proposals on the table. They will counter union demands.

★ ★ ★

Fraser said the company had set the pace for negotiations and progress depended on the auto makers.

'COMPANY CONTROLS TIMING'

"The lack of progress to date is not totally unexpected," he said. "It's the company that has to make the time — they control the timing and the progress."

After-Tax Income Up for Parent Firm

White Consolidated Industies, Inc., has announced corporate sales for the six months ended June 30, parent company of Briney Bushing Inc., 454 N. Cass, 1967, totaling $79,464,688 with net after-tax income of $6,296,410, equal to $1.73 per common share after provision for preferred dividends.

This compares with 1966 first-half sales of $81,833,826 with net after-tax income of $4,232,330, equal to $1.16 per share.

Group Protest of 'Socialistic' Pay Plan Set

Skilled workers plan a demonstration this afternoon at Pontiac Motor Local 653 in protest of the guaranteed annual income proposed by Walter Reuther.

★ ★ ★

William Erickson, president of the Oakland County chapter of the Oakland County chapter of the International Society of Skilled Trades, said petitions objecting to the plan will be presented to Local Pesident Wayne Anable at 3 p.m.

"I expect 100 or more persons to show up and not necessarily all skilled tradesmen," Erickson. said.

"We oppose the guaranteed annual income because it's another socialistic move," explained Erickson.

★ ★ ★

"As skilled tradesmen, we want to be treated as individuals," he added. "Socialism may be good for some who haven't anything but not for us.'

SEPARATION WANTED

For years, skilled tradesmen have been attempting to have a separate contract negotiated for them, and not just lumped in with production workers.

★ ★ ★

"We are fighting for the survival of the trades," said Erickson, a die maker at Pontiac Motor. "There's no incentive when someone on the line can make almost as much as a skilled worker."

GOP Rebels Back Moore on Crime Plan

The dissident Republican 19th Congressional District Executive Committee headed by Christian Powell has endorsed Circuit Judge Arthur E. Moore's proposal for an enlarged war on crime.

★ ★ ★

The committee commended Moore and called upon all county communities to actively support such a program as the one presented by the judge last month at an anticrime conference.

"A special session of the Legislature to deal with crime is sorely needed to find ways to protect the public," said Powell, an attorney in West Bloomfield Township.

"The committee also feels that an appeal by petition to Congress for legislation to increase the abilities of law enforcement agencies to deal with criminal suspects is a wise suggestion," added Powell. "We too, question the advisability of recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions in the crime area."

★ ★ ★

Powell's committee is not recognized by county GOP leaders as the official group representing the 19th District.

Tirrell Talk Set

"The Architecture for Learning" will be discussed by President John E. Tirrell of Oakland Community College at the third annual conference on Education and Training of the American Management Association at the Americana Hotel, New York City, on Wednesday.

3 Visits Slated by Bloodmobile

The need for blood on a day-to-day basis still continues, although hundreds of area persons donating blood have helped the Red Cross to meet the emergency situation during the recent crisis.

Red Cross bloodmobiles will be at three sites from 2 to 8 p.m. on three days this month.

★ ★ ★

On Aug. 21, there will be a bloodmobile at the Moose Lodge, 350 University Drive; on Aug. 28, one will be located at the Elks Lodge, 114 Orchard Lake; and Aug. 30, a bloodmobile will be at the Pontiac Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke, Pontiac Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke, Pontiac Township.

★ ★ ★

Contact the local Red Cross office, 118 Franklin Blvd., for an appointment to donate on any of these days.

Young GOP to Hear Police Group Head

Carl Parsell, president of the Detroit Police Officers Association, will be the guest speaker tomorrow a ta meeting of the Oakland County Young Republicans at the Belanger House, 12 Mile and Main, Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

Parsell will discuss "The Cost of Crime Versus the Cost of Reducing Crime" at the 8 p.m. meeting.

★ ★ ★

The club is open to young adults between the ages of 17 and 36 with the meeting open to the general public.

Pontiac Man Is Accused of Killing Youth

A 25-year-old Pontiac man is being held in the Macomb County Jail today on a first-degree murder charge.

Willie J. Calhoun of 490 Nebraska, is accused of the shotgun slaying of Wardell Caldwell, 19, last night in New Haven.

Police said Caldwell, a New Haven resident, was killed by a shotgun blast in front of a tavern. His assailant fled.

Calhoun was arrested by police on a reckless drivig charge several minutes later. He was accused of the slaying after police questioned several witnesses who implicated him.

Waterford Man Robbed of $200, Beaten by Pair

A Waterford Township man was robbed and beaten in an alley by two men early yesterday, it was reported to Pontiac police.

Ralph Green, 54, of 6426 Harriet, told officers he was walking toward E. Pike from a nearby bar when the men approached and asked him for a ride.

★ ★ ★

He was struck on the head and some $200 was taken from his wallet, he told police.

The bandits fled on foot toward Lawrence, officers were told.

3 City Men Suspects in Tool Burglary

Three Pontiac men were arrested early yesterday in connection with a burglary at a city automobile dealership.

Held in Oakland County Jail for investigation of breaking and entering are Clarence E. Marotz Jr., 22, of 240 W. Princeton; Henry A. Davis, 24, of 38 Fairgrove; and Marvin F. Delgado, 25, of 103 S. Paddock.

They were arrested about 3:30 a.m. at Oakland and Montcalm by a police officer acting on the description of a car involved in a burglary moments before at Grimaldi Imported Cars, 900 Oakland.

A witness at the burglary scene told police he heard glass breaking and saw two men carrying a large box run from the building.

★ ★ ★

The men drove off rapidly when the witness approached them with a flashlight, officers were told.

TOOLBOX IMPOUNDED

A toolbox answering the description of the box taken from the dealership was impounded at the arrest scene, according to police.

Investigators said entry to the building was made by breaking through a large pane of glass.

★ ★ ★

They said other tools were moved near the window, apparently to be carried out later by the burglars.

OU Workshop to Instruct Extemporaneous Acting

A five-day workshop for teachers in extemporaneous acting will begin Aug. 16 at Oakland University.

Goals of the conference are to train teachers in extemporaneous acting, to provide further training and experience for volunteer resource teachers already in the program, and to provide liaison between volunteers and classroom teachers.

The workshop is a Project to Advance Creativity in Education (PACE) sponsored by OU's Division of Continuing Education and financed with federal funds.

Faculty for the workshop has been drawn from top professionals across the continent.

★ ★ ★

They include Jeff Henry, movement director of the National Theatre School of Canada; Margaret McKerrow, director of the Children's Theatre at the University of Michigan; and Audrey Suhr, field director of the Carnegie Project in Simulated Games at Johns Hopkins University.

PROJECT HEAD

Dr. Adeline Hirschfeld, assistant professor of speech at OU, heads the project.

Object of the specialized supplementary educational activity in the classroom is to improve language and reading skills, teach human values, increase creativity and imagination and to bring each subject of learning alive.
