'Letter' From FBI Derided As Phony

Army Counsel Calls Document Copy of Nothing

Hoover Tells Lawyer Warning Didn't Come From His Agency

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army counsel derided as "a perfect phony" today the letter Sen. McCarthy injected into hearings on his row with Army officials and identified by McCarthy as a communication from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to the Army on Jan. 26, 1951. McCarthy scrapped back that the substance was essentially the same as warnings the FBI had sent the Army about security risks and radar secrets.

Collier was given the job of checking up on the document after McCarthy produced it late yesterday.

The committee attorney went to the witness chair to give his report. He testified he had taken the document to Hoover and that the FBI director had told him:

"This letter produced is not a carbon copy or copy of any communication prepared or sent by the FBI to Gen. Bolling Jan. 26, 1951 or any other date."

McCarthy and Roy M. Cohn, McCarthy's counsel, had described the three-page document yesterday as a copy of a letter from Hoover to Maj. Gen. A.R. Bolling, dated Jan. 26, 1951, when Bolling was intelligence chief for the Army.

Collier testified that Hoover told him there is in the FBI files a 15-page interdepartmental memorandum, written in a different form and with no signature at all.

McCarthy put in that the document he and Cohn sought to introduce contained verbatim quotes from the 15-page memo. He said the document itself included the notation that certain security information had been omitted.

Joseph N. Welch, Army counsel, moved in with obvious enthusiasm to question Collier. It was in his queries that he termed the McCarthy document "a perfect phony" and "a carbon copy of precisely nothing."

Even while this was going on, President Eisenhower told his

Gov. Williams Signs Act to Hike Employe Benefits

LANSING (UP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams today signed a legislative act providing a $4 weekly across-the-board increase in workmen's compensation benefits.

Animals at Zoo Full of Vitamins for Opening Day

The Detroit Zoo will open its gates Thursday on one of the healthiest bunch of animals in its history.

He's the person responsible for treating the giraffe's sore throat and the lion's toothache.

His work has paid off.

"I don't believe there are over a half dozen animals on the sick list," said Dr. Applehof. "This is about the healthiest bunch we've ever had."

Dr. Applehof's job is to keep them that way. And his work is nothing to sneeze at.

"Take the giraffe," he said. "They are extremely difficult to doctor. We give them medicine in their feed, but our main medication is simply crossed fingers."

While the giraffe is just too tall to doctor properly, the rhinoceros is just too downright mean.

"There's hardly anything you can do with them. They are too treacherous. They are nervous, flighty

Clardy Witness Raises Uproar

Refuses to Yield Records of Labor Youth League of Michigan

DETROIT (AP)—A witness under questioning about Communist youth activities gave a House un-American activities subcommittee another uproarous session today.

The witness was Bolza Baxter Jr., 28, former Flint taylor identified by subcommittee sources as chairman of the Labor Youth League of Michigan.

Baxter flatly refused a demand from the congressional group to submit the league's books and records and feuded with subcommittee members at every turn.

Baxter cried "stool pigeon" when he was confronted with testimony from a secret witness given at an executive session of the House group. Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich), subcommittee chairman, said the witness must remain secret "for security reasons."

The witness had told House investigators that the old Communist Youth Club's state unit was dissolved after a meeting at a Lapeer County farmhouse in 1949. It was attended by many Flint persons. Baxter at that time was living in Flint.

That witness said the reason for dissolving the Communist Youth Club was that two other organizations "would make a far more valuable contribution." These were identified as the Labor Youth League and the Youth Progressives.

Baxter said he would not answer questions based on the "testimony

M'Carthy-Army Row Damaging U.S. Prestige

President Hopes for Counter Gains; Backs Stevens to Limit

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower said today the McCarthy-Army hearings have damaged America's international prestige and its national self respect.

The only thing America can hope now, Mr. Eisenhower told a news conference, is that advantages will be derived from the hearings comparable to the damage he said has been done.

The chief executive praised Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens highly and said he knows of nothing which would cause him to lose confidence in Stevens.

On that basis, he declared, he backs Stevens to the limit in his row with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.)

The President explained that when he expressed hope last week the hearings would be concluded quickly he meant that effective answers should be produced to the principal issues involved.

Mr. Eisenhower smilingly noted that most of the stories about his statements on the subject last week stressed his attitude — his obvious anger — rather than what he actually said.

For that reason, he said, he was going to be careful this time.

But he spoke with stern emphasis as he said our only hope now is that America may derive from this incident advantages which may be comparable to the damage we have suffered in international prestige.

And in national self-respect, too, the President added, judging from the mail he has received on the subject.

The President made the statement in response to a question as to whether he saw any conflict in his own call for an early windup of the hearings and the Army's refusal to agree to a Republican attempt to shorten them by limiting the witnesses to Stevens and McCarthy.

His Bones Scattered, but Pedestrian All Right

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Police and spectators feared the worst when they saw 45-year-old Henry Watkins lying in the street with bones scattered around him last night.

However, a hospital interne found no injuries. Watkins was carrying several large fresh beef bones home to his dog when he walked into the side of an automobile.

Where Three Lads Died in Early Morning Fire

SEARCHING RUINS—Firemen are shown searching ruins of a home at 2943 Auburn Rd. early this morning after a fire raced through the frame home, killing three boys who were asleep. Parents escaped with severe burns but were unable to reach their sons. Efforts of the father to reach the second floor with a ladder from outside were unsuccessful.

Bodies Located Amidst Rubble of Avon House

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Keel in State of Shock After Failing in Rescue

Three young brothers were killed and their parents were burned seriously when fire swept through their Avon Township home early today.

The dead are Norman Keel, 14, Douglas, 12, and Kenneth, 10. They were the only children of Jesse Keel, 43, and his wife, Jean, 48, who lived at 2943 Auburn Rd., 1½ miles east of Auburn Heights.

Suffering both burns and shock, the parents could speak only in incoherent phrases at Pontiac General Hospital where both are reported in fair condition.

Keel's brother, Carl, of 764 Melrose Ave., Pontiac, who talked to the couple at the hospital, said the parents were awakened by smoke at about 2:40.

"Jesse said he made an attempt to go up the stairs to the boys' rooms, but flames drove him back," Carl said.

Keel's shouts up the stairs failed to rouse the boys, the brother said.

An unidentified passing truck driver discovered the fire at about 2:45 a. m. and notified Edward A. Owen, of 2507 Auburn Rd., who operates a nearby filling station. Owen summoned Rochester firemen and an ambulance, then raced to the scene.

When he arrived, Owen said, the father, dressed in trousers and nightshirt, and the mother in nightclothing were in the yard screaming in the near-freezing temperatures.

Keel dragged a ladder from a garage and made two unsuccessful attempts to rescue the boys through an outside second floor window. Each time, flames roaring from the 1½ story frame house drove him back.

On his second attempt, he slipped and fell, neighbors said, sustaining scratches and bruises.

Albert Jesse, 43, of 2931 Auburn Rd., one of the neighbors said: "The screams woke me up and I saw my bedroom all lighted up by the fire. I ran over to the Keels, but there was nothing I could do. Flames were sweeping across a field to my house and I ran home to put it out."

Although he saved his home, Jesse's garage, only a few yards from the Keel residence was destroyed.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies William F. Smith and Michael Felice raced five miles to the scene. Both said they could see flames from a mile away.

"When we got there, the roof was a mass of fire and flames were leaping out all the windows. Firemen got there a minute later, but it was hopeless. They poured water on a neighbor's house that was smouldering," Smith said.

"Both Mr. and Mrs. Keel were running around the house

May Vote Tomorrow

Dondero Hopefully Waits for House OK on Seaway

WASHINGTON (INS) — A key supporter of the St. Lawrence Seaway urged today that the House approve the 105 million dollar project because Congress "will never have another opportunity to vote on it."

Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich), chairman of the Public Works Committee which was the first ever to approve the seaway, said that Canada "is ready to move in an hour" on construction if Congress fails to give its consent this year.

The House begins debate today and plans to vote tomorrow in what the House chairman described as "one of the historic battles of the American Congress."

Regarding chances for approval, the congressman said he was "not enthusiastic and not discouraged but hopeful and prayerful."

The proposal has been before Congress either in treaty or legislative form for more than two decades but has never been approved by a single committee. Every President since Warren Harding has advocated construction.

This amendment would require the St. Lawrence Seaway Develop-

Charges Union Disobeys Order

Pontiac Cab Firm Files Complaint, Says Local Using Violence

The Pontiac Cab Co. today charged officers and members of Teamsters Local 614 with violating a temporary injunction restraining the union from interfering with the operations of the cab company.

A bill of complaint filed in Oakland County Circuit Court asserts that the unionists have used violence, abusive language and other unlawful tactics since being restrained from such action in an Oakland County Circuit Court injunction issued April 27.

The complaint alleges that union members are in contempt of court by violating the restraining order and should be punished accordingly.

Local 614 representatives are scheduled to appear in court Monday to show why the temporary injunction should not be made permanent.

In an earlier development Pontiac City Commission last night received a petition signed by 12 alleged employes of the cab firm charging the company with violations of the city taxicab ordinance.

The cab company owners and management were charged with depriving employes of unemployment compensation, workmen's compensation and old age benefits.

The petition said the company refused to meet with members of AFL Teamsters Local 614 and would not submit the dispute to the Michigan State Mediation board.

William F. Dohany, attorney for the union, said he thought Pontiac Cab was violating a city ordinance by leasing its 16 cabs to individual drivers. He also asserted the cabs

Ike Backs Plan for United Asia

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower today declared his unqualified support for Secretary of State Dulles and for Dulles effort to form a united front against communism in Southeast Asia.

The President made his declaration in answer to questions at a news conference. He also issued a formal statement expressing optimism that the united front movement will show progress.

In answer to a question whether he thought the Geneva conference on Asian peace problems had been a major defeat for American policy, Eisenhower replied crisply that no one can count a battle lost while it is still going on.

Dulles returned from Geneva last night and reported to Eisenhower just before the news conference, on his efforts there to find peace for Asia and a way to save Indochina from Communist conquest. The secretary himself told newsmen as he left the President's office that he does not know of any basis for the idea that he suffered a diplomatic defeat at Geneva.

The President's statement declared that the United States and most of the free nations with a direct interest in the security of Southeast Asia are working on the problem of a united front with "a general sense of urgency."

Apparently referring to the idea that the united front project could bolster France's diplomatic position at Geneva, the President also declared:

"The fact that such an organization is in process of formation could have an important bearing upon what happens at Geneva during the Indochina phase of the conference."

County Offices Plan Friday Evening Hours

Oakland County prosecutor's office will remain open Friday evenings until 8 beginning this week, according to Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

A prosecutor will also be available at Oakland County Jail on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon, Ziem said, so that persons booked on minor offenses won't have to spend the weekend in jail awaiting examination.

Other county offices remaining open Friday evenings are the county clerk's office in the courthouse building; county treasurer; drain office; register of deeds and friend of the court, at 1 Lafayette St. Friend of the court will be located in the treasurer's office during the evening hours.

These offices will be closed all day Saturday.

Rain Delays Attack on Dien Bien Phu

HANOI, Indochina (INS) — A driving rain turned the Dien Bien Phu valley into a morass today as the Vietminh rebels paused before resuming their all-out annihilation attack on the encircled French garrison.

The weather prevented French fighter-bombers from striking at the rebels, now entrenched at several points only 500 yards from the center of the circular Dien Bien Phu defenses.

Obviously preparing for a new attack, the Communist-led rebels cut new trenches in the muddy terrain.

It was reported that French and Vietminh "suicide squads" were stalking each other with bare knives in the network of trenches in and around the bastion.

Five Right Words Are Worth $5 Here This Week

There's a five-dollar bill waiting for some lucky person who says five words to the proper individual.

The phrase is, "Are You Proud of Pontiac?" And the proper individual is a man designated by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The "Proud of Pontiac" campaign is part of the Jaycee sponsored "Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up" week now in progress here. The money carrier is spending most of the day on downtown Pontiac streets and would be extremely happy to give the $5 away.

Thursday to Be Warmer; County Misses Bad Frost

Oakland County escaped frost predicted for last night that could have added to the damage already done to early tomato plants and low-lying orchards.

Although more cold weather is forecast for tonight, the mercury is expected to stay 3 to 6 degrees above the 32-degree freezing mark.

Warmer weather is in store tomorrow, with a high of from 52 to 56 degrees expected. The thermometer dropped to 35 at 6 a.m. today, 6 degrees above the all-time low for this date and 4 degrees above Tuesday's record May 4th low.

County farmers breathed easier when a blanket of clouds dissolved frost conditions last night.

Edmond W. Alchin, county agricultural agent, said the extent of damage from the freeze-up early Tuesday won't be determined until fruit starts forming.

But he said the mid-spring cold wave undoubtedly caused some damage and retarded the development of fruit.

Early tomato plants suffered the heaviest damage.

"Unprotected plants were wiped out," said Alchin. "But the acreage is small and those who planted them commercially knew they were taking a chance by putting them in so early."

Farther south of this area, some orchards were reported virtually "knocked out."

Alchin said the county's largest fruit crop, apples, probably weathered the cold snap in good shape. Only moderate damage is reported from orchards in low, damp areas.

A few light snow flurries were reported in the Pontiac area this morning, but they didn't compare with yesterday's squalls that swirled into the city about half a dozen times.

The temperature rose gradually today from 38 degrees at 8 a.m. to 44 at 2 p.m. in downtown Pontiac. Yesterday's temperature ranged from 31 to 42 degrees.

Mayor Dunn of Emmett Takes Over Birmingham as Part of Michigan Week

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Several neighboring southeastern Oakland County communities banded together to participate in today's mayor-exchange activities as part of the statewide observance of Michigan Week.

Sitting in as Birmingham's mayor was Mayor Edsel E. Dunn of Emmett, a small community about 35 miles northwest of here.

Officials from Birmingham, Clawson, Huntington Woods and other municipalities met with the visiting mayors for luncheon at Northwood Inn this afternoon.

An outline of how mutual problems are being solved in southeastern Oakland County highlighted the meeting.

Returning to Birmingham with Mayor Dunn, City Manager Donald C. Egbert toured city offices with the visitor. A discussion of city problems concluded the day.

Substituting for Mayor Charles Renfew, who was unable to attend the activities in Emmett, was City Commissioner James C. Allen.

Baxter refused to say whether he is or ever was a Communist. Harold Mikkelsen former undercover agent for the FBI, identified Baxter yesterday as a Communist.

Rep. Scherer (R-Ohio) accused Baxter of using "typical Communist tactics" on the witness stand in the third day of the investigation of communism in Michigan.

Baxter did win one point. He appeared at the hearing with his attorney, Milton R. Henry, of Pontiac, despite a subcommittee order Monday to get a different lawyer. Henry at that time was forcibly ejected from the hearing after a run-in with Clardy.

Subcommittee members said Baxter was born in Florida and trained in a Communist party school in New York City. They said he was sent into Flint as a "colonizer." He now lives in Detroit.

Rep. Leaun W. Harrelson spoke for the union in support of Dohany's statements.

Attorneys Robert G. Isgrigg and Edward P. Barrett, representing the cab company, denied all charges saying the firm is operating legally under the city ordinance and is properly insured.

They said the union did not represent any drivers of the company's cabs.

They said prior to the union's move to organize the cab drivers there was no labor dispute between drivers and the company.

They stated the cab drivers were satisfied with their contractual agreements and had no wish to be organized. The two stated the state mediations board was not interested in the affair as a labor dispute.

The attorneys charged the union with using violence and abusive language in interfering with drivers and passengers.

Commissioners referred the matter to City Manager Walter K. Willman and City Attorney William A. Ewart for study.

Reds May Favor Indochina Co-Rule

GENEVA (AP)—Western sources said today they have received information indicating the Communists may favor the creation of coalition rule in Indochina rather than partition.

No high-level conversations between East and West have been held on the form of an eventual Indochinese settlement, they said. But an impression of the Red position was obtained through other contacts.

This estimate of the Communist plans came in a two-day recess of the plenary meetings of the Korean conference.

Western diplomats were reported ready to break off the Korean phase of the conference once they are sure the Communists will not modify their opposition to unifying elections supervised by the United Nations. A recess until Friday gives the delegates a chance to hold private consultations and clarify their positions.

and fast on their feet. We treat them with kid gloves and hope for the best."

Chimpanzees are the easiest to treat, said Dr. Applehof, and elephants also rank high on the model patient list.

Recently she developed blisters on her hind legs. These were treated by Dr. Applehof, but Ruth thought she could do a better job herself.

Dr. Applehof decided to experiment. He tied a medicated swab on Ruth's tail in hopes that she would flail the blisters with it and spread the ointment over the sores.

Ruth refused to cooperate—she managed to knock the swab off in less than a minute.

Although the treatment proved unsuccessful, Dr. Applehof was undaunted.

"Most of the treatments we use are discovered by trial and error. We don't have any book."

The 37-year-old veterinarian started working part time at the zoo in 1946 and became a full-time employe four years later.

Despite getting his fingers nipped periodically and being called out late at night to care for a sick bear, Dr. Applehof admits his work is a "labor of love."

The results of his labor will be fully appreciated tomorrow when the visitors see a bunch of vitamin-packed animals greeting the new season with howls and growls—but no wheezes or sneezes.

Commission OKs $264,000 in Construction Contracts

Pontiac City Commission last night awarded contracts totaling over $264,000 to building firms for construction of three projects.

The A & A Asphalt Paving Co. of Birmingham was granted a contract for $244,371 to construct the two-inch recap planned for city streets during 1954.

George Tripp Inc. of Pontiac will build a 4,000-foot-long water main at cost of $14,409 to connect the three new water wells near the Hawthorne School with the present city water system.

Installation of the three new water pumps at Hawthorne School will be done by the Layne-Northern Co. of Lansing for $6,258.

All work on the new water-supplying equipment is scheduled for completion by June 15. A & A Asphalt will start the relocation and widening of Walton boulevard immediately and will complete the recapping by July 26.

In other action commissioners received a resolution from the Oakland County CIO Council supporting a request by Local 100 of Government and Civic Employes Organizing Committee, CIO, that the union be allowed to meet with the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees.

Representatives of Local 100 present at the meeting claimed that unsettled employe grievances were piling up at the hospital because the union-hospital working agreement is not functioning properly.

The CIO Council resolution listed grievances including:

"Manhandling of a nurse's aide by an orderly, refusal of pregnancy leaves, forcing an employe, who owes them (the hospital) money and is leaving the payroll, to sign over his entire last pay check without obtaining a judgment and forcing an employe on sick leave to sign his retirement papers which automatically cost him approximately 56 sick days which he had accumulated over the years."

The local 100 representatives said they had only been allowed to meet with the whole hospital board once in two years and asked that a meeting be arranged to set up a policy for ruling on grievances.

They said, however, that they had met numerous times with committees of the hospital board.

Commissioners asked City Manager Walter K. Willman to bring the union's resolution to the attention of the hospital board.

A request from Victor C. Adler, representing the owners of about 400 acres of land along M24 between Auburn avenue and Featherstone road, for development of water and sewer service in the area was referred to the city manager. Adler said the owners wanted the services so they could develop housing on the site.

A request from the Don R. MacDonald Co. Inc. to lease part of lot 6, assessor's plat 88, for a parking lot was referred to the city manager.

Commissioners approved the addition of William J. Archambeau as a partner in a beer and wine wholesale business at 28 Mariva St.

A request was approved for a new warehouse license at 70-76 Cass Ave. for the Gold Label Distributors, division of Coca Cola Bottling Co.

House Seaway Vote Expected Tomorrow

ment Corporation, set up under the bill, to finance construction by selling bonds to private investors rather than to the treasury department as other government corporations do.

GOP leaders, who are optimistic about chances for the bill, are not as ready to predict defeat of the Brownson proposal.

Dondero conceded today that it had a chance, adding quickly that it "would kill the bill because it would make it impossible to finance the project."

The Michigan Republican said every agency of government that has anything to do with finance has said the Brownson amendment is completely opposite to the policy of the government.

The authority created under the proposed law would have the power to work out arrangements with Canada to build and operate the seaway as well as to work out a division of revenue from tolls which would be used to repay the bonds.

The seaway, which would have a 27-foot-deep channel, would be built partly in New York state and partly in Ontario, replacing the present 14-foot channel now bypassing the International Rapids section of the St. Lawrence River. The deeper channel would allow ocean-going ships to travel all the way to Great Lakes ports.

3-Year-Old Detroit Boy Injured in Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM — A 3-year-old Detroit boy was reported in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac after he was struck by a car on Woodward in front of the Cheer Shop yesterday afternoon.

The child, John Sharpe, suffered a severe mouth cut and possible internal head injuries.

Police and witnesses said he ran from between parked cars into the path of an auto driven by Richard McTaggart, 16, of 975 Purdy.

'Letter' From FBI Derided as Phony

news conference the McCarthy-Army row has lost international prestige for the United States. He said he hoped the country could derive advantages from it to offset this loss.

Eisenhower said too he has every confidence in Secretary of the Army Stevens' administration of the Army department.

Stevens—now in his 10th day as a witness—was temporarily excused from the stand so that Collier could give his report on his visit with Hoover.

The committee lawyer still had the chair when the investigating committee recessed for lunch.

McCarthy, without saying so directly, suggested that possibly what he had offered was a copy of a summary of the FBI material, prepared in Bolling's office.

McCarthy asked Collier if he had checked Gen. Bolling's office to find out if it had "made a summary" of the 15-page FBI letter. Collier said he had not had an opportunity to do that.

McCarthy then suggested to Mundt that the subcommittee find out if Bolling's office did have such a summary made and, if so, what distribution was made of it.

Mundt said the committee would consider that at a closed meeting in the afternoon.

Collier testified that Hoover told him "in some respects the language was the same" in the McCarthy document as in the 15-page FBI document.

Collier, under questioning by Welch, said he had not read in detail either of the two documents.

He would not agree, as Welch asked him to, that he was "as sharply aware as I am that to carry these documents around" is against the security laws.

Welch then asked Collier to "hand me this hot document"—the three-page, single-spaced carbon copy produced by McCarthy yesterday.

"This document," Welch asked, "is a carbon copy of precisely nothing, is it not?"

Collier's first response was that Hoover had told him it was not a carbon copy of anything in the FBI files. But Welch was not satisfied and he repeated the question.

"So far as I know," Collier responded, "it is."

"This document sprung by McCarthy in this courtroom is a perfect phony, is it not?" Welch demanded.

When Collier did not come through with a flat yes or no, Welch asked which he would say if he had to choose between saying it was either "the real McCoy or a phony."

His reply was that he would pick neither.

Ray H. Jenkins, committee counsel, put in that Welch's question, offering such a choice of language, was not a proper one.

McCarthy broke in with a point of order. He asked Collier to look at page 2 of the copy he had sought to introduce. It would show there, McCarthy said, that certain security information was purposely omitted, accounting for the shortening from 15 pages to 3.

But Collier steadfastly refused to read it. He had said earlier that Hoover told him the question of whether material in the document could be made public should be checked to Atty. Gen. Brownell.

State Hospital Open House Ends Tonight at Nine

Pontiac State Hospital's annual open house, scheduled to end tonight, has drawn 2,672 visitors since Sunday.

Another 667 men and women who came to visit patients stayed to take part in open house tours, movies, discussions and programs, the hospital said today.

Hospital staff people and volunteers will show guests through the 3,000-patient institution from 6:30 until 9 p.m. tonight, with the last tour starting at 9. Special movies, "It's a Big Problem" and "Psychodrama," will be shown at least twice.

Youth Enters Guilty Plea to Having Illegal Liquor

An Independence Township youth pleaded guilty to being a minor in possession of alcohol Tuesday before Waterford Township Justice Willis D. Lefurgy, while a second youth pleaded not guilty to the same charge.

The two were arrested along with five juveniles, four of them girls, by Waterford Township Police last Monday night. The juveniles were turned over to their parents.

Norman Smith, 17, of 3530 Maybee Rd., was fined $15 and placed on 90 days probation when he pleaded guilty to the charge. Boyd D. Elkins, 20, of 6975 Mather Dr., Waterford Township, pleaded not guilty to the charge and has been released on personal bond. His trial will be held May 6.

JESSE KEEL

Three Boys Perish When Home Is Razed

screaming "The children, my three boys, they're in there,'" said Smith.

Rochester Fire Chief George Ross, who said the fire apparently started in the basement, reported that they were too late to save the home. He said the underside of the first floor was more extensively charred than the floor surface, indicating the blaze apparently originated in the cellar.

Firemen battled the flames two hours.

Rochester firemen, along with Avon Township firemen, recovered the charred bodies of the victims in the basement into which the flaming home finally collapsed. Only one wall was left standing, Ross said. The bodies were removed to the Dudley H. Moore Funeral Home, Auburn Heights, where arrangements are pending.

Keel is employed at General Motors Truck and Coach Division as a welder. The family moved to Pontiac 14 years ago from Illinois.

They moved from Pontiac two years ago. Keel's brother said they moved there "because Jesse said the country was a better place to rear his three boys."

"Jesse was planning to build a new home as soon as he had the property where their house was located paid for," the brother said.

Norman was a student at Avondale High School and the other two boys attended Elmwood Elementary School in Avon Township.

2 Royal Oak Men Hurt as Auto Rams Tree

Two Royal Oak men were injured last night when the car in which they were riding went out of control on Third street near Troy street in Royal Oak, and hit a tree, according to Royal Oak Police.

Duane J. Stoll, 23, of 28449 Everett, driver of the westbound car, told police he did not know what happened. He and a passenger, Paul Maison, 25, of 418 N. Center, are both reported in good condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with leg fractures.

Wayne County Planning Modernization of Eloise

DETROIT (AP) — The Wayne County Board of Institutions is considering a $30,000,000 modernization program at the Wayne County General Hospital in Eloise.

The board siad it was considering a recommendation by a citizen's group survey which includes 1,000 beds, enlargement of the power plant and a nurse residence.

Cpl. Dickenson Given Ten Years

Found Guilty by Army of Collaborating With Enemy While Prisoner

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson faced 10 years in prison today after his conviction on collaborating - with - the - enemy charges in a case that may set a precedent for Army handling of other Americans under suspicion for their conduct while war prisoners in Korea.

An eight-man Army court-martial yesterday returned a guilty verdict on charges that Dickenson, a 23-year-old farm boy from Cracker's Neck, Va., dealt unlawfully with his Red Chinese captors and informed the Reds about the escape plans of a buddy, former Pfc. Edward M. Gaither of Philadelphia.

The court reached its decision after more than 10 hours of deliberation, then retired and nearly an hour later brought in a sentence of 10 years in prison at hard labor and a dishonorable discharge. Dickenson could have drawn life imprisonment.

The court's verdict and sentence are headed for study by an Army board of review. Dickenson's lawyer, Guy Emery, said he would appeal, if that board does not reverse the court-martial action.

A few hours after the Dickenson court-martial had returned its findings, the Air Force announced it would not lodge court-martial charges against 83 of its men who allegedly made false germ warfare confessions or were suspected of misconduct while in Red prison camps.

The Air Force cleared 69 officers and airmen of all taint, but it held that 14 others must show cause why they should be allowed to remain in uniform.

Dickenson remained silent, his eyes cast down, when the court-martial verdict was returned. But Emery called the decision "a travesty." He said the young soldier had faced a "stacked deck."

Dickenson's trial was the first ever held under a section of the Military Code of Justice which makes it a crime for a U. S. serviceman to give an enemy information for use against a prison comrade.

Dickenson and Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor of Kermit, Tex., first decided to remain with the Reds when a truce was declared along the Korean fighting front. Later, they changed their minds and returned to U. S. control. Twenty-one other GIs elected to stay with the Reds and have vanished behind the "Bamboo Curtain."

Batchelor is in Army custody in San Antonio, Tex. Like Dickenson, he is charged with improper conduct while a POW. Joel Westbrook, his lawyer, said in San Antonio last night that he intends to call at least six of the witnesses who appeared for the Dickenson prosecution when Batchelor's court-martial convenes. Westbrook said he wants to use these witnesses to point up what he termed "some very basic differences" between the two cases. He did not elaborate.

BLACKSMITH'S ANVIL RINGS AGAIN—Keen interest in wrought iron has started the old blacksmith's anvil ringing again in Henry Van Dyken's shop at Kalamazoo. Working in his shop, Henry learned the trade from his father who brought the knowledge of iron work from Holland. Since the use of wrought iron is booming, orders are coming in for stair railings, scrolled porch columns, book cases, tables, flower stands and dozens of other items. "Don't think we've had a horse in here for 25 years," Henry said. "We kept going with welding and commercial jobs and practically forgot how to work iron."

State's Supply of Minerals Appears Almost Limitless

By HARRY J. HARDENBERG
State Mining Geologist

LANSING (AP)—Michigan — a virtual underground storehouse—has such bounteous wealth packed away under its surface that hundreds of millions of dollars worth of minerals can be taken, year after year, from state mines and ore pits.

In 1951, for example, more than 217 million dollars' worth of minerals and mineral products were realized from state mining operations.

Of this total, about 90 million dollars came from iron and copper, while the remainder was represented in other minerals—limestone, sand, gravel, gypsum, salt and marl.

Nationally, the state ranks at the top in production of some minerals and near the top in others.

The Wolverine State, for example, was first in the nation in 1951 in production of gypsum, salt, marl and calcium magnesium chlorides; second in iron ore, sand and gravel, bromine and magnesium compounds; third in stonefourth in peat; and fifth in Portland cement manufcture.

Iron ore represents the largest single source of mineral wealth at present being produced in the state. First shipments from the Western Lake Superior mining region came down the lakes in 1852—six barrels of ore bound for a smelter in Newcastle, Pa. Since then, more than 735 million tons of ore have been shipped from Michigan mines, mostly to Great Lakes area steel mills.

In 1951, the state provided more than 14 per cent of all U. S. iron ore used at American furnaces, second only to Minnesota.

State copper production, however, has run a different course. Michigan mines have produced nearly 10 million pounds of copper since first shipments were made from the western Upper Peninsula in 1845. Production slackened in recent years because of development of other sources. Recently, however, a huge recovery plant was constructed in the western part of the peninsula and soon will be producing at top capacity.

Michigan salt production topped the nation in 1951—as it has nearly every year since 1880 — with more than five million tons. Three-fourths of this production comes from mines in the Detroit area.

Bromine, calcium - magnesium and potash—all recovered from brine wells—all ranked high on the list of Michigan production and have in recent years been on the increase. The chemicals mostly are used in industry, as dust controls on roads and for manufacturing purposes. Most recovery work of this nature is done in Midland County.

About 21 million tons of limestone and dolomite were extracted from Michigan in 1951 and represented a 17 million dollar enterprise that year.

For the seventh consecutive year, Michigan ranked first in the nation in production of crude gypsum, producing 18 per cent of the total tonnage. Two quarries in Iosco County and two mines in Kent County provided the total.

Other minerals also contributed to the total; peat, marl, clay products and sand and gravel being foremost.

Many of these stocks of mineral wealth appear at present almost limitless, again indicating the vast accumulation of wealth nature has packed away in Michigan.

Expert Stresses Father Role in Rearing Junior

NEW YORK (UP) — A New York University sociologist advises fathers to take a more active part in bringing up junior.

Dr. Margaret C. Benz, associate professor of sociology at NYU and member of the American Association of Marriage Counselors, says a "proper father-child relationship will lead to development of a better personality in a very young son or daughter." The sociologist, mother of two teenagers, said that "parenthood should be as much a partnership as marriage."

In 23 years of competition in five different conferences, San Jose State has won nine basketball championships.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Clardy Inquiry Useful

This newspaper differs with those who have criticized in advance the Michigan hearings of a House Un-American Activities subcommittee.

It doesn't take a great deal of mental power to charge that the sessions have been arranged to further Rep. CLARDY'S campaign for re-election. Nor is it difficult to accuse members of the subcommittee of operating a smear machine.

If Chairman CLARDY and his colleagues accomplish their announced objective, the Detroit, Lansing and Flint hearings will prove useful. That objective, in Rep. CLARDY'S own words, is to show the pattern and extent of Communist infiltration in Michigan.

For that reason special emphasis is being laid on the testimony of ex-Communists, minor public officials, educators, lawyers, physicians and union leaders. Chairman CLARDY'S belief in the need for such testimony obviously is in harmony with his report that Detroit is one of the country's strongest Red centers.

Another aspect of the hearings is the advance notice by some of the subpoenaed educators that they would refuse to co-operate with the subcommittee.

It long has been our belief that persons who won't or can't say they aren't Communists have no right to teach in our schools and colleges. This also is the belief of the Detroit Board of Education which controls schools of that city and Wayne University, and of the University of Michigan regents.

Detroit or Wayne University teachers who refuse to answer sub-committee questions will be subject to immediate suspensions and later hearings. Regents have made it clear that they will handle such cases according to their own rules and will not knowingly employ or keep a Communist teacher.

We can't afford any less protection.

Allies Irked By France

There is increasing Allied impatience with the attitude of France at international conference tables.

While this hasn't been emphasized, it recently has become more and more apparent. Commenting on a recent Paris conference on European unity, one Dutch newspaper said the French delegation was "in favor of nothing at all."

Five nations favored a Dutch proposal for a common market. The French were against it. A suggestion that a start be made on economic integration also was opposed by France.

As everyone in this country is well aware, the French have been stalling on ratification of the European Defense Community they first proposed. Though every objection they've raised has been met, they still quibble.

An example is the French demand that Britain pledge itself to cooperate closely with EDC for French protection against Germany. London agreed and immediately the British were accused of not going far enough and of seeking EDC control for their own interests.

In this country there has been much criticism of the French for not making an all out effort in Indochina. They have been asking greater help from us, Britain and free Asiatic nations, though we are paying 75 per cent of France's financial costs in that struggle.

Small wonder that her Allies and neighbors are beginning to question the value of France as a partner in any undertaking.

Silent Sound a Tool

One of the latest and most spectacular developments in industry is the employment of silent sound as a worker of near miracle production feats.

By the term "silent sound" is meant those ultrasonic waves which vibrate so rapidly, more than 20,000 times a second, that they can't be heard by the human ear. Although the use of these waves is still in its infancy, they already serve a wide and growing number of purposes.

For example, they are slicing with ease through the hardest of material. They also are probing solid metals to detect sub-surface flaws, searching out fish for commercial fishermen and cleaning tiny precision parts.

Before long, says the Wall Street Journal, experts believe this new tool can be used to mix paints so they stay mixed, wash clothes, pasteurize beer and homogenize milk.

Among fastest growing uses is in the cleaning of small parts. For this purpose waves as rapid as 300,000 to one million cycles per second are directed through a liquid solvent in which the parts have been immersed. The vibrations shake loose all dirt at a great saving over older methods.

All this progress in putting ultrasonics to work is the fruit of unceasing search for new products and new methods. That search, in turn, is one of the biggest factors in American productive genius.

IF THIS is the best of all possible worlds, as the optimists contend, it must be that possibility operates within rather narrow limits.

THE main thing one wonders about people is how they can have so much sense and yet do so many foolish things.

Richard Huff Claims Special Drag Strip Will Cut Down Hot Rodding on Highways

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Recently I read the article in the Press about what police plan to do about "Hot Rodders."

This business of racing cars is something that has been going on for years and we think it will be going on for a good many years to follow. The number of fellows I have talked to all agree on one thing. We are in the wrong for racing on public highways and a few of us have been going on roads that are not used too frequently but again that's not the safest place.

Instead of all the post planting, fines and jail sentences, why don't they let us work with them instead of us both working against each other? There must be some place we can go to have our drag races.

We know that states in the west have tried the drap strips and have succeeded. We need some place where we can all plan to meet and get it out of our systems.

I, for one, am afraid that when you start placing jail terms on the fellows that they might try to out-run the police cars.

Dulles Accomplishes Important Steps at Geneva on His Broad U. S. Program

By DAVID LAWRENCE

GENEVA — Efforts are being made to repair the cleavage that developed 10 days ago between Great Britain and the United States, and it may be said there is a fair chance of getting back on the track of allied unity.

Whatever the basic cause of the misunderstanding, the fact is that a painful impression of disunity was created upon the minds of American officials both here and in Washington when the British cabinet seemed to veer away from the principle of "united action" which Secretary Dulles had carried away as approved after his last visit to London just before the Geneva conference began.

It is most discouraging to read here the erroneous interpretations which have appeared in some American newspapers concerning the efforts of Secretary Dulles.

It is just as wrong to say he lost his leverage here because of what various Republican senators back home were saying as to argue that an alleged American desire to intervene immediately in Indochina was rebuffed by the British.

What went wrong was the timing. There was a sudden reversal in London due to the discovery—after the original commitment to Dulles was given—that the conference of Asian prime ministers in Ceylon was about to meet and that any implementation of a collective-action policy might thereupon muddy the waters there.

As it happened, while the resolutions adopted at Ceylon were by no means palatable, they were not as bad as might have resulted if the British government had not exercised a restraining influence.

What some American readers perhaps do not realize is that the United States came here with a constructive and far-reaching policy of collective security to be worked out for Southeast Asia and that the departure of Dulles, far from being a retreat as the Communists are picturing it was really an important step on his part toward a reinvigoration of the broad American program from the vantage point of Washington rather than Geneva.

There are better opportunities in Washington than there are here for consultation between the various nations concerned on a specific project like the Southeastern Asia alliance, especially the military aspects.

America's policy has for its object the building up of a deterrent factor which is designed to bring peace rather than war to Southeast Asia.

But it requires a firm hand and a resoluteness of spirit to which political leaders on both sides of the aisle in Congress can contribute a great deal by studying the basic principles involved rather than going off half-cocked with criticism of the piecemeal details.

These mistakenly portray the administration as being eager to get into the Indochina war but being prevented either by a British cabinet rejection of such proposals or by the lukewarm attitude of American public opinion.

The truth is Secretary Dulles is working on a plan for the Southeast Asian problem which viewed in either its long-range or short-range aspects, can become a historic move in the world toward assuring peace for a large area of the earth's surface.

American public opinion, of course, is not ready for such concrete proposals as the submission to Congress of a joint resolution empowering the President to use our armed forces to maintain peace in Southeast Asia.

There is as yet no understanding in America that the checkmating of aggression in Southeast Asia can have as direct a bearing on the safety of the United States as the American policy of repelling aggression in Korea was a step taken for the protection of our interests in Japan and the Philippines.

Just because the British cabinet hesitated and an ephemeral phase of the problem—the rise and fall of military fortunes in Dien Bien Phu—got the headlines is no reason to underrate the main value of the Dulles policy.

Though stymied last week it now bids fair to progress toward a logical and deserved acceptance.

It should be borne in mind that if the thesis is accepted that military force is the only language the Communists understand, then assembling of local allies in and around Indochina is of crucial importance, whether consummated next week or next year.

For the relevant fact is that, when America and her allies act in unison to plan a military alliance for Southeast Asia, the Communists are put on notice.

It would be better for them to agree to a withdrawal of their forces and a peaceful solution now in Indochina than to assume, as they mistakenly do today, that the western allies have weakened and that the Dulles plan was torpedoed in Paris or London or both.

The truth is collective action for collective security is irresistible as a policy. Its acceptance is inevitable by our allies, and the Geneva conference before many days have passed will reflect this very important turn of events as American leadership once more comes to the fore.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Pay Sincere Compliments to Guarantee Popularity

Martha almost ruined her husband by failing to toot the horns of his parishioners. Instead, she invariably tooted her own horn. But this deflated their ego. When she reversed her lifelong habit, a remarkable change occurred and her husband now has a big city church.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-393: Martha Z., aged 36, is a clergyman's wife

"Dr. Crane, my husband doesn't advance to bigger churches," she said unhappily, "and it is chiefly because of me.

"People just don't take to me. I'm not exaggerating for at our last church, one of the deacons said that in a letter when he explained why my husband wasn't asked to return for the next year.

"They like him but they think I am aloof and snobbish. But I have tried and tried to be different. And I feel terrible to think I am a millstone dragging him down.

"What more can I do than I have done in the past?"

Many people can't see the simple obvious laws of science that produce good results. They actually hunger for complexity and jawbreaker terminology.

Because of their past highbrow training, they think simple language is lowbrow. That's one reason why Christ was crucified for the High Priests disdained his direct approach to life's problems.

For example, Martha walked over to a group of church folks where one of the women was exclaiming about the beautiful flowers that her neighbor grew.

"Oh, that's nothing to what my aunt used to have back in New York!" exclaimed Martha.

What did that tactless remark of hers do? It lowered the pride of the member of her husband's church who had the flower garden.

"If you think New York is the Garden of Eden," the women figuratively thought though courteously refrained from saying, "then why didn't you stay back in New York?

"Why come out here to Illinois to have us pay your husband's salary if you are so partial to New York?"

Martha simply didn't see that universal motto on the chests of the other parishioners, which reads "I want to feel important."

Actually, Martha's remark was made to make the other women think that Martha was important.

But to win friends you must make the other person feel important, even if you temporarily refrain from tooting your own horn.

To win friends and increase the success of your husbands in their professions you wives must thus learn to toot horns.

But toot the other fellow's horn instead of your own! Martha failed on this score for she always brought conversation back to her home state of New York and thus tried to toot her own horn.

Since that failed to inflate the ego of the other wives, they disliked her.

"Don't you read my column in your newspaper?" I casually inquired.

"Oh, once in a long time," Martha pertly replied. "But it doesn't pertain to people like me you know, for I have a college education!"

"But you are a total failure to yourself and your husband," I bluntly replied and didn't even employ the "sandwich method," "so if I were you I wouldn't mention the college education."

College diplomas don't give people "horse sense." And the payoff in life is based on your gumption or "horse sense."

Many people without even a high school education can run circles around college graduates with Phi Betta Kappa keys.

Martha was an intellectual snob, so she was a tough nut to crack. I had to resort to 5-syllable words and flash my erudition before her in order to impress her.

But I finally "sold" her on trying the "Compliment Club" for 30 days and it changed her personality entirely. She now toots the horns of parishioners!

Baering Down

One terminal emolument of these roving peace conferences is the standardization of the impedimenta.

We now have interchangeable oratorical smog and universal stalemates. We have evolved a stenciled pattern of touch-tagness in which one diplomat substitutes for another at a deadlock's notice.

In addition we are touching up the speeches of the immortals for use in interlocking rebuttals and permanent lulls.

Sheridan's denunciation of Hastings in the India Company investigation around 1800 adapts itself neatly to ear-phones akimbo. Just switch the names, dates and places and you have as corrosive a squawk as ever scalded a cat.

From long-playing records over the Eustachian conduits we have Daniel Webster's reply to Powhatan's accusation against the greed of the colonist. Daniel was a century late but he puttied in the gaps beautifully. We recommend this for plentipotentiaries without portfolio at the proxy level.

Washington's farewell address, Burke's maiden speech in Parliament, Napoleon's diatribe at the Pyramids and Hamlet's soliloquy in the sand trap are all available in package deals. Just add punctuation and serve al fresco.

There hasn't been a good speech unloaded from the complaint platform since UN laid the egg that passeth all understanding.

Where are the Gladstones, the Beaconsfields and the Henry Clays, quoting authoritatively from an extensive library of two cuffs?

Saturday Night Bath Rule Is No Joke, Especially for Those With Dry Skin

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

A man has had dry skin trouble for years, especially in cold weather, when it itches most and becomes somewhat scaly.

He consulted a skin specialist who said it is xerosis, but there was nothing much that can be done for it (D. B.)

Other names for the condition are ichthyosis (fishskin disease), xeroderma (dry skin), alligator hide.

Anything else you want to know: That's all I know—and everybody knows I know it all.

Such abnormal dryness, harshness and scaliness of the skin is a common complaint, particularly of young women.

I mean the appearance of the outer surface of legs, and backs of elows is "dirty," even though they bathe every Saturday night.

For intense itching of the dry skin after a bath use the Skin Oil or the Dew of Sahara, instructions for preparation of which are given in Save Your Skin booklet, for which send 25 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The allusion to the Saturday night bath is no joke. Any one with the slightest degree of xeroderma should use as little soap and water on the skin as the law allows.

Instead of soap and water, use oil, real oil, not so-called mineral oil, to cleanse the skin. Freshly made cold cream, ointment of rose water, unguentum Aquae Rosae, U.S.P., is excellent if perchance real pharmacist will prepare a pound of it for you.

But don't use so-called cold cream (cerat cosmetique or creame froide) that is months old.

The coarsest skin and poorest complexion is generally the one least exposed to sunshine.

The skin and complexion of patients under systematic sun bathing treatment (for bone and joint tuberculosis) becomes soft, smooth and fine in texture as it tans.

The skin of a young person generally has enough, often too much natural oil (sebum), and therefore it is a mistake for a young person to use any kind of cream or oil on the skin.

The skin of an oh-oh, well, say one of mature age is likely to have insufficient natural oil and therefore should be judiciously oiled with a wee drop of fresh lard, castor oil, freshly made cold cream or what have you other than "mineral" oil.

It is not the cold that makes the winter season hard on dry skin, but rather the excessive dryness of the artificially heated air in home, school, office, shop.

Humidifying installations protect the complexion as well as nose, throat, sinuses, bronchi, furniture, books, instruments, paintings and growing plants.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

CROW'S-FEET? How To Check Them!

Lanolin Plus LIQUID is concentrated lanolin, some components of which penetrate your skin to do wonders for it. Used as a cleanser before retiring, then a few more drops quickly massaged in, and you'll awaken next morning to discover that a very definite miracle has happened. No feeling of skin dryness at all—and an extra softness and extra smoothness that is new. But more!

As your skin becomes softer and softer and smoother and smoother, those disturbing, premature, dry-skin crow's-feet and other tiny lines really fade. Get your bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid today. Use it tonight. You'll be a happier woman tomorrow morning.

If you spend $1,000, you could not get more beauty help than you get from a $1 (plus tax) bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid.

New Hope Seen in Schizophrenia

Psychiatrist Explains Word or Action Bridge to Reach Patient

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The sickest of all the mentally sick — schizophrenics—can be drawn back to reality over a bridge of words and action, a prominent psychiatrist reported today.

Dr. Frieda Fromm-Reichmann of Rockville, Md., told of new successes by psychiatric treatment that give more hope for saving hundreds of victims of this disease, once regarded as hopeless. Insulin and electric shock treatments sometimes work. This is another and useful way to save them, said Dr. Fromm-Reichmann of the Chestnut Lodge Sanitarium.

Schizophrenia, often called split personality, means escaping into an unreal world of the person's own making.

The same approach which heals other mental illnesses can be used to reach the schizophrenic, help him understand why he is sick, help him get well, Dr. Fromm-Reichmann told the American Psychiatric Assn.

She believes no matter how sick the schizophrenic seems to be, he still has some core of health, some contact with the real world. The psychiatrist can create a bridge of understanding with the patient and eventually help him get well. The psychiatrist becomes a part of the real world for which the sick mind can grope.

Dr. Fromm-Reichmann said schizophrenics are victims of pent-up hostility which they can't handle. They withdraw into themselves, and actually are afraid usually of taking out their anger against themselves or against other persons.

She believes they are not really withdrawn from contact with the world but simply have tried to cut off all communication with it. Even patients in an apparent state of stupor are frequently keenly observing what is going on and can remember it. But they give no signs of knowing.

What the psychiatrist says or does therefore can influence the patient and start building the bridge of communication.

Hal Boyle Says:

We Need Pill to Prevent Blues---Not Cure Them

NEW YORK (AP)—A pavement Plato views the news:

Science is always handing man a new drug to make himself feel better—or a new weapon to destroy himself, so he won't have any feeling at all.

The latest magic pellet, reported to a convention of psychiatrists in St. Louis, is a pill to cure the blues. It is reported to lift people out of mild depressions caused by broken hearts, retirement and family problems.

The pill is said to lack the bad side effects, such as sleeplessness, or other drugs used for the same general purposes. But it would still seem only a half way measure.

Men have leaned on many magic cure-alls for the blues over the centuries—such as liquor, tobacco, coffee, tea, bromides, aspirin, opium and marijuana. And all let him down in one way or another. He has gained more actual serenity from three palliatives of physical and spiritual unrest that science had no part in developing—sleep, marriage and religious faith.

Science, it would seem, would do better to quit searching for a pill to cure the blues and seek one that would prevent them altogether. The goal should be a simple capsule that would enable a man to win the girl of his choice, get the job and salary he feels he deserves and enable him to pick the right horse at a racetrack.

Naturally it ought to be a small capsule. Some of us have difficulty swallowing a large capsule, even for a worthy purpose.

Romantics who dream of a pleasant life on an island far away might as well strike Bali off the list.

Before the last world war the Balinese, at least to the eyes of a visitor, were among the happiest, least sophisticated people on earth.

Riots might sweep through the rest of Indonesia, but a Dutch official said:

"It won't happen in Bali. These people aren't interested in politics. They are unspoiled and want to stay that way."

But politics did come to paradise. One of the first things the politicians told the beautiful, bare-bosomed ladies of Bali was to cover up and look more civilized.

Envy also seems to have come to Bali, too. Sampih, a famous male Balinese dancer who made a big hit in New York, was murdered the other day. He had made the error of returning home loaded with civilized loot—a fountain pen, a camera, enough money to buy himself a rice field.

Yes, anyone looking for a land of lost delight today might as well forget Bali. It is only another port of call for the bubble gum and brassiere salesman.

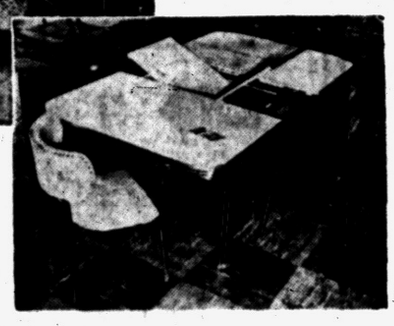

This Is Progress?

HARTFORD, Conn. (UP) — City Assessor Fred H. Newton discovered that the men who held his job 150 years ago received 25 cents for every $1,000 on the grand list. At that rate, his salary now would be $129,101 annually — or 16 times greater than he actually receives. Newton doesn't plan to ask for the old rate, although he'd like to.

Pumps Winning Battle to Recover Gold Vein

NOME, Alaska (UP) — Modern mining methods and the know-how of Alaskan miners are winning a battle against water that has seeped into a deep pit and sealed off a rich treasure of gold.

T. P. Lane, manager for the Big Hurrah gold mine, said large pumps installed at the mine were "licking the water problem." He said miners now have been able to reach the glittering seam of ore that will give about 20 men employment at the mine for several years.

For half a century mining men have despaired of ever tapping the riches of the Big Hurrah because of the heavy water seepage that flooded the diggings.

Elyria, Ohio Proves Many Troubles Only Imaginary

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
(International News Service)

I'll always be grateful to Elyria, Ohio, for wising me up—an outsider and stranger—to a ridiculous foible I've fallen for for years.

Other outsiders may not know that Elyria is an industrial and retail community southwest of Cleveland on the Black River. It makes aircraft and cars, plastics and bicycles, and its 30,000 or so souls are as reasonable, logical and nice a 30,000 as you can find anywhere in the U. S.

To these 30,000 in Elyria there recently came official news that on Thursday, the 22nd day of April, certain chemicals known as fluorides were to be added to the city water supply, to purify it and protect its drinkers.

By Friday the 23rd, the local water department began to receive complaints about the taste of Elyria's water. For a full week the calls mounted, while the descriptions of brackishness, brassiness, and general all around no-goodness waxed more and more annoyed and eloquent.

It turns out, however, that because of a delay in a certain preliminary tests, the fluorides had not been added for one solid week after the announced original date.

My gratitude to Elyria's citizens arises in part from the wonderful example they've provided for future arguments with friends and family on the subject of imagination, borrowing trouble, and psychosomatic aches and pains.

For by expecting brackishness and brassiness, those irate telephoners had created it on their own taste buds, and half of us do something like that a dozen times a year without finding out so clearly a week later that we were doing it.

"Coffee keeps me awake," for instance, may be true for some people — especially these days when you have to hock your husband's watch to buy a couple pounds of it.

But for other people, the wakefulness may come only from expecting it and waiting around to see it happen.

"I like cucumbers, but cucumbers don't like me"—or radishes, or melons, or milk with a shore dinner — all of these frequently heard statements may be literally true for some people with allergies or other troubles, but for many others who say them just as fervently, they often bespeak only self-induced miseries.

Speaking of miseries takes me straight to my aforesaid foible —my largest occupational hazard.

How often I've heard myself tell my family, in complete sincerity too, that whenever I write late at night, I get so wound up I can't go to bed for a couple of hours after quitting the typewriter.

Yet at six in the afternoon, say, after writing just as hard and being just as keyed up, I can lie down for a nap and be out like a light in two minutes flat.

Until I came across that little yarn from Ohio, I never once wised up to the discrepancy and illogic of these two phenomena nor realized that one of them was a phony.

Is it any wonder I feel grateful to Elyria? Something new has been added to my own local supply of what I call clarity—and it isn't fluorides.

Energy Punished

LONDON (INS) — Workers can be and are punished for working "too hard" in Britain. Cutter Ed Prosser was fined ten shillings and sixpence by the local branch of the National Union of Tailors and Garment Workers for cutting two suits above his alloted weekly output of 46. The official union explanation was that Prossner's action was "against the principle of fair shares at a period when work was not plentiful."

Selfridge Plans Show

All of the nation's armed forces are uniting in an air show and ground exhibit at Selfridge Field in celebration of Armed Forces Day May 15-16. A four-hour show is planned.

Death Row Author Will Ask Last Minute Appeal

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Caryl Chessman, 32-year-old prison author of a book about life on 'death row" who is scheduled to die in San Quentin in 10 days, hired an attorney today to make a last-minute appeal.

Gov. Goodwin Knight yesterday refused an appeal for clemency. The new attorney, Berwyn A. Rice of San Rafael, Calif., said he had some new information on the case he expected to develop.

Omitted Clause Causes Mixup

Administrative Board to Proceed With Building Despite Confusion

LANSING (UP) — The State Administrative Board decided Tuesday to proceed with new state construction projects despite a legislative mixup over appropriations for capital improvements.

The board agreed informally that omission by the Legislature of a single clause in the capital outlay bill would not impair legality of letting contracts for new projects.

The mixup primarily affects new construction projects for which the Legislature approved only "down payment" appropriations sufficient to get building underway for the first year.

In previous years the Legislature has included a clause allowing the administrative board to let contracts for the full construction cost, although only a portion of the money was actually voted. The clause, however, was omitted unintentionally from the current appropriation bill.

The board decided the flaw would not halt letting of contracts for the projects, but delegated Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid and Controller John Lederle to contact legislative leaders on the problem.

The board also referred to Attorney General Frank G. Millard the problem of reducing rental charges against the Michigan Employment Security Commission for use of space in the state-owned Boulevard Building in Detroit.

Federal officials have declined to approve the rental charges on grounds that cost of the structure already have been amortized.

Detroit Trucker Injured Critically Near Saginaw

SAGINAW (AP) — Edward Galloway Detroit trucker, was burned and critically injured Tuesday when his truck collided with a Flint dairy truck on M46 about 12 miles west of Saginaw. Sheriff's men said Galloway was apparently headed for Detroit with a load of fish when a front tire blew out.

They said his truck struck the dairy truck and caught fire. They said the other driver was uninjured, but damages were about $25,000 to both trucks and their loads.

Senate Votes Approval of Tiny Chapel at Capitol

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Senate has voted to fix up a small room at the Capitol as a chapel "for prayer and meditation" of members of Congress.

The House adopted the measure last summer and it now goes to the White House.

4 Airmen Hurt in Car

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) —Four airmen were injured, one critically Tuesday in a two car collision on US32 near Sault Ste. Marie. The airmen, all from Kinross Air Force base, were William Goodwin, William Schlote, Claude Murphy and Russell Allen. Goodwin was the worst hurt.

Discovery of Button Baffles Scientists

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y. (UP) — Archaeologists are puzzled by a British insignia button uncovered from Fort William Henry, which was burned six years before the British began marking such buttons.

A button and a rifle plate which bore the markings of the King's 8th Regiment were found. The fort was burned and its occupants massacred six years before the British began marking such metal pieces in 1763.

Stanley Gifford, fort archaeologist, says the find was more puzzling because the 8th was stationed in New York City during the Revolution and there was no reason for it to have been in the vicinity of the fort.

Wind cave, most widely known of the many caverns in the Black Hills area, has been explored so far for a distance of approximately 10 miles.

St. Joseph Plans for Open House Tours May 9-15

Invites Girls Interested in Nursing for Sunday Afternoon

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and its McAuley School of Practical Nursing have planned six days of "Open House" Festivities for National Hospital Week May 9-15.

McAuley School is inviting all young women interested in nursing careers to its open house Sunday May 9 from 1:30 until 4:30 in the hospital nurses home.

The hospital's own open house Monday through Friday features tours and demonstrations of hospital equipment.

Alumnae of the hospital school of nursing will guide visitors on tours of the 300-patient institution from 2 until 4 p. m. Monday through Thursday. A special program Friday night will climax the open house.

"Most people—even the ones who come here as patients—only see a small part of our hospital," Sister Mary William, hospital administrator, said. "We'd like them to have a chance to see the whole hospital and the way it works.

"We want to be a part of community life," she said. "Cooperation is the common denominator between hospitals and the public—and it's a 'must' in providing service to the community."

National Hospital Day, established in 1921 on Florence Nightingale's May 12 birthday, has grown to a week-size celebration this year.

Chairman of St. Joseph's open house is Miss Marie Hickey, director of nursing. Harold Brady, assistant administrator and Sister Mary Columbine, administrative intern, are co-chairmen.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Alumnae, with Mrs. William Pardee as president, has named a special committee headed by Mrs. James Greene to organize tours of the hospital.

Each group of visitors will see the hospital chapel, nursery for newborn infants, hospital wards, medication rooms, X-ray rooms, operating room and supply depot. All visitors will also see the hospital's pharmacy, blood bank, purchasing department and linen storage, the sterlizing room, kitchen, cafeteria, out-patient clinic, auditorium and physiotherapy department, where youngsters and adults crippled by disease exercise their way to health.

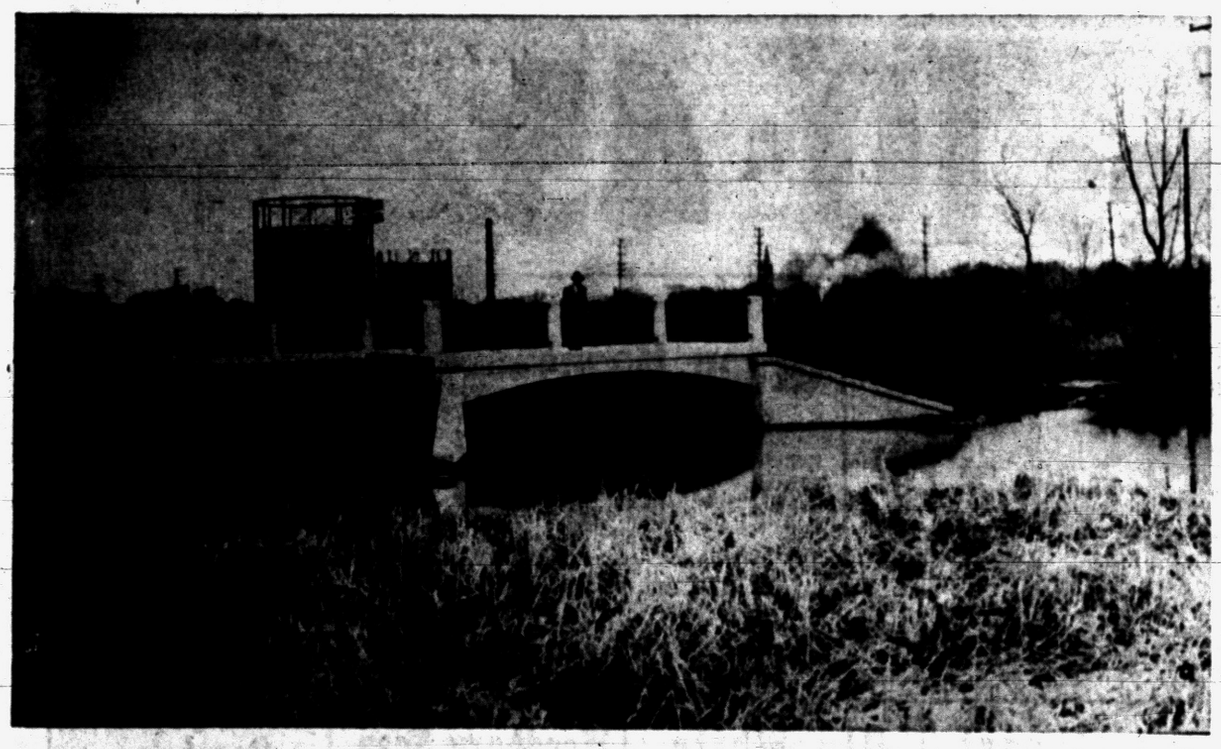

Girl, 10, Bitten by Black Widow, Saved by Serum

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (INS) —The life of a 10-year-old child bitten by a deadly black widow spider was saved today by a housewife who herself had been bitten by a black widow less than a month ago.

Mrs. Martha Moore was rushed to Centinella Hospital in Inglewood, early this morning after a frantic six-hour search showed she was the only person in Los Angeles who could save the life of little Sharon Ann Strealey.

Mrs. Moore had been bitten by a black widow last April 19 and her blood contained the anti-toxin doctors needed to produce a serum that would save the child's life.

A draft of Mrs. Moore's blood was taken immediately after she was sped to the hospital and physicians quickly compounded a serum and injected it into the child's bloodstream. The reaction was quick — Sharon Ann improved almost instantly and was soon take off the critical list.

Dems in Congress Holding Fund Rally, Plan to Echo Cry, 'Mess in Washington'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats, back in Washington in force, open today a National Democratic conference to rally forces and repair finances for their effort to capture Congress in November.

The party faithful will prove their loyalty by paying $100 a plate at a Jefferson-Jackson dinner tomorrow night, after two days of airing Democratic policies and current Republican embarrassments.

Gibes concerning "The Mess in Washington"—A GOP battle cry in 1952—were standard among the members of the national committee, state leaders and Democratic mayors and governors. The phrase was applied to the Army-McCarthy hearings, the business slump and to criticism of U.S. policy on Indochina.

Delegates did not soft-pedal their belief that GOP problems and internal conflicts would better the chances for a Democratic victory in the off-year elections. They already have a slight margin in the Senate and almost equal GOP strength in the House.

A national committee spokesman said the Democrats believe a House majority is "practically certain," and consider their Senate chances "excellent."

Public uncertainty over employment, business activity and farm income will strengthen Democratic candidacies, the spokesman held. These and other issues were due for panel discussion at sessions today and tomorrow.

The Democrats would moan about "recession," Simpson said, but "probably won't even mention the 1950 situation under President Truman when 4,700,000 persons went jobless."

Judgment on Army Hearing Should Be Withheld Till End

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Shafer (R-Mich) today suggested the public withhold judgment on the McCarthy-Army row until all the evidence is in.

Shafer, a member of the House Armed Service Committee, said that on a recent quick trip to Michigan he found "temptation to pass an exasperated and adverse (to Sen. McCarthy) snap judgment" on the controversy.

"It is significant and ironical," Shafer continued in a newsletter to his constituents, "that the pressures for a snap judgment, and one hostile to Sen. McCarthy, are strongest from the professional McCarthy-haters.

"This is the same crowd that has ceaselessly clamored for the adoption of regular courtroom procedures in congressional investigations—particularly the right of cross-examination of witnesses.

Knowland Favors T-H Change

Three Fight State Control Over Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Republican senators came out today against a proposal aimed at giving the states greater control over labor-management relations.

The proposal—offered by Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) as an amendment to a Taft-Hartley revision bill—yesterday won the support of Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California.

But Republican Sens. Ives of New York, Purtell of Connecticut, and Flanders of Vermont, all spoke out in opposition to the Goldwater proposal. Sen. Cooper (R-Ky) also was known to be against it.

The Senate is debating a bill that would carry out most of President Eisenhower's recommendations for revising the Taft-Hartley Act, which the President has called basically "sound legislation."

The Senate Labor Committee wrote a states rights provision into its revision bill, but Goldwater's proposal apparently would go farther in empowering the states to write and enforce their own labor laws. The Supreme Court has set aside a number of such state statutes because they conflicted with the federal labor-management relations law.

Bad-Check Passing More Prevalent

Oakland County merchants have cashed $14,468.86 in worthless checks since Jan. 1, according to Robert Miller, chief investigator for the Oakland County Prosecutor's office.

That amount is almost double the value of bad checks cashed during the same period a year ago when $8,528.56 was handed out by merchants.

A total of 223 bad checks was passed during the first four months this year, an increase of 117 over the same period last year.

Miller blamed the increase on greater unemployment and warned that merchants should be doubly careful.

One important safety rule to be followed, Miller said, is to ask for proper identification, such as a driver's license, and then check the physical description against that given on the document.

By doing this merchants can safeguard themselves against somebody's using a lost or stolen means of identification, Miller said.

If a driver's license is used for identification purposes the merchant should jot down the license number on the back of the check before cashing it, he said. This way police have a lead if the check bounces.

More bad checks were passed in April than in any month previously, with 59 checks being honored for a total loss of $7,312.31. In South Oakland County alone 14 checks were passed totaling $4,244.52.

Most of these checks were on accounts with insufficient funds or on closed accounts, Miller's records show. The largest bad check cashed this year was for $950. One cashed last year was for $1,000.

In January this year 56 checks were cashed for $3,050.86; February saw 30 with a net value of $891.63; 78 in March for $3,214.06, and 59 this month for $7,312.31.

"The only effective means we have to combat this alarming increase is to insist that merchants demand proper identification and to call authorities immediately if they feel they have been duped," Miller said.

Guest Pianist's Artistry Thrills Audience Tuesday

Orchestra Concludes Triumphant Year With Stirring Performance

By DONNA ANDERSON

An overture to a new and more triumphant year was played by the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Tuesday evening.

Held in Lincoln Junior High School, the final concert of the season ended on a note of prediction—that the young, but growing organization will become an even greater asset to our community.

An experience that Pontiac concert lovers will not soon forget was the performance of pianist Joann Freeman, guest artist.

Her skill and remarkable technique in interpretation of Mendelssohn's "Concerto in G Minor, Op. 25" left her audience with a feeling of reluctance to let her go.

The concerto's three movements, Molto Allergo Con Fuoco, Andante and Presto, Molto Allegro e Vivace, with their varying moods and rhythms, afforded a comprehensive display of the artist's virtuosity.

It seemed, however, that the concerto ended far too soon. Certainly the audience wanted to hear more from its charming, sensitive guest as she combined her artistry with the rich interpretation of the orchestra.

Orchestral offerings began with Beethoven's dramatic "Overture to Egmont, Op. 84" played by the 66 musicians in all its fervor.

The overwhelming, sometimes electrifying works of Jean Sibelius found their way into the program on two occasions. The symphonic poem "Finlandia" was interpreted by the orchestra to the full extent of its questioning and prayer-like feeling.

The martial moods and crashing intensity of "Finlandia" were a pleasing contrast with the well-known "Valse Triste, Op. 44" by the same composer.

The somber, yet calming melody in its flowing waltz rhythm was conveyed with authentic feeling in interpretation.

Nothing is more refreshing than to hear a symphony orchestra use its skill and versatility in the presentation of music in a lighter vein. And what could be more pleasant than selections from Richard Rodgers' "South Pacific."

The imaginative, picturesque arrangement was presented with utmost perfection. The modern "Pavan" by Morton Gould was chosen for the encore number.

If future success can be predicted by Tuesday evening's performance and resulting enthusiasm, there is the certain vision of a bright new season for Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, its conductor Francesco DiBlasi and associate conductor Celia Merrill Turner.

Child Study Clubs Hear Discussion of Adolescence

"If you have good material to begin with and reasonably good growing experiences, the proper kind of youngster will develop," Mrs. Belle Farley Murray told members of the joint Child Study Clubs Tuesday.

Mrs. Murray, who is lecturer and consultant in the Family Life Service of the University of Michigan, and a specialist in the Parent Education Group of Merrill Palmer School, spoke to the group on "Living With the Adolescent."

Mrs. Murray paralleled the anxieties of today's parents with those of the parents of Jesus.

As an example, Mrs. Murray told of the three-day journey Mary and Joseph took with their 12-year-old son, of their anxieties when they found he had strayed from them, and of their mixed feelings of anger and relief when they found him after returning from part of the journey.

Members of the four child study groups were reminded of their mixed feelings when their adolescents come home after the deadline hour.

She told her audience not to fear the teenage years, but to learn to grow with the youngsters. If parents do not grow in their understanding, there will be more anxiety and frustration on the part of the adolescent and teenager.

Continuing the story of Jesus, Mrs. Murray said that his parents scolded him for straying from them and told him of their anxieties just as parents do today.

In the language of the day, Jesus explained to his parents that he must live his own life. Children today, in much different language, remind their parents of this same need.

The speaker cautioned her audience to give their children credit for the things they do and not look too closely at the irritating things, for if we do, the speaker said, "We obscure all the fine development that is taking place in our youngsters."

Child Culture Club was hostess for the luncheon and President Mrs. Frank Grosse introduced presidents from Child Study Group Three, the Junior Child Study Club and the Waterford Child Study Club.

Mrs. John Jess gave the invocation and Mrs. James MacDonald arranged for the program and speaker. Mrs. Charles Bowers was chairman of the decorations. St. Trinity Lutheran Church was the setting for the program.

Two Return From Hospital Convention

Mrs. William J. Dean, president of Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary, and Mrs. P. Eugene Miller have returned from a tri-state convention held Monday in Chicago.

The convention theme was "Coordinating Auxiliary Programs With Hospital Needs." Phases of the subject were discussed by four administrators.

Mrs. Dean announce tours of the hospital to be held during Hospital Week, May 10 through 15. Open house will be May 13 and 14 and special group tours will be arranged by appointment on the other days. Mrs. Arthur Vernon will arrange all special tours.

Mother's Day Event Planned by Sorority

Plans for Mothers Day dessert luncheon were made at the final business meeting of the year of Gamma Psi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Betty Bryan is in charge of reservations for the event which will be held May 18 in Hotel Waldron.

Officers for the coming year were installed at the Tuesday meeting held in Hotel Waldron. Guests at the meeting were Myrtie Lou Galardi, a member of an out-of-town chapter, and Jane White of Zeta Lambda Chapter.

Committee chairmen reviewed the year with reports of the progress and accomplishments of each committee.

Officers Elected by Golf League

New officers for the season were elected at a recent meeting of Tuesday Tee Golf League. Mrs. Leroy C. Johnson is president; Mrs. Floyd Levely, vice president; Mrs. Rupert Wooster, secretary, and Mrs. James Haggard, treasurer.

Mrs. Clinton Richards, Mrs. Virgil Lake, Mrs. Wallace Schiel and Mrs. Norman LaLone rejoined the league and new members are Mrs. Nicholas Contar, Mrs. Barrett Harrison, Mrs. Robert Taft, Mrs. William Talbot and Mrs. P. A. Marz.

The league will begin golf Tuesday at Pontiac Country Club, and will play each Tuesday morning through the summer. Several cooperative luncheons have been planned by the social committee.

Beauty Clinic

By Edythe McCulloch

COSMETICS

The art of compounding and applying cosmetics had its beginning back in the pre-Christian era. At least we know that Cleopatra was quite an expert and that she was not the first to indulge in this interesting pastime.

Although we have progressed in the art of applying make-up, there are a few simple facts about the skin which haven't changed in all these years. The skin is an organ of the body, it has a function . . . and as such is depends primarily on the body for its heath and beauty. The skin can also be irritated from external causes such as sun, wind, too strong cleansing agents, infection . . . so what we must do to gain that fine, smooth, glowing skin which is everyone's ideal.

Good health comes first, perhaps you will find as many do that healing properties of lanolin will give the lubraction you need.

Beat Sponge Cake Well

Inadequate beating of the egg yolks and sugar will result in a sponge cake with a rubbery layer on the bottom. These two ingredients, plus water or lemon juice in the recipe, should be beaten until very light and fluffy. Beat them rapidly with an electric or rotary beater rather than a whisk.

Coming Events Reported

MOMS Unit Two Meets

Reports of coming events were announced when Unit Two, MOMS of America, Inc., met at the North Johnson avenue home of Mrs. Clarence E. Hickmott Tuesday morning.

Invitations were read from Pontiac Toastmistress Club to attend a demonstration meeting Tuesday and from Pontiac General Hospital to attend the open house May 13. MOMS State Board of Michigan will sponsor a card party at the Alfred G. Wilson estate June 24, open to all members and friends.

Mrs. E. K. Vanderlind, chairman of gifts for men leaving for service, reported more than 1,200 packages have been given to date. A donation was sent to the national board.

After luncheon, members attended open house at Pontiac State Hospital.

It was announced that Mrs. Edgar Thomas and Mrs. Carl Cox will leave next week for the national convention to be held at Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Vanderlind will hostess the May 18 meeting.

Coming Events

Gen. Richardson Chapter, DAR, will meet Thursday with Mrs. Earl L. McHugh, 2780 Sylvan Shores Dr., for a 1 p.m. dessert luncheon.

Ladies Aid of Trinity Lutheran Church will meet in the church Thursday at 2 p.m. Luncheon will be served at noon.

Francis E. Butterfield Tent Nine, DUV, will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Grotto Hall, 128 W. Pike St. At 6:30 the group will meet for dinner at Beth's Restaurant, 476 W. Huron St.

Scout Camp to Celebrate Silver Year

Jubilee Program to Be Held May 22 at Sherwood

It's back to Camp Sherwood on Davis Lake for many veteran campers May 22.

Camp Sherwood Silver Jubilee committees have set that date for a day of celebration under the chairmanship of Mrs. James McBrearty.

Mrs. Richard Balmer will act as hostess as Brownies, Girl Scouts, leaders, parents, past campers and counselors are welcomed to view the accomplishments of 25 years, from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m.

Senior Scouts, under the direction of DorothyHollister, will meet arriving guests, guide them to the parking lots and conduct them on a tour of each unit in the camp.

Mrs. Balmer has delved into the history of the camp and made a story of her findings. Lincoln Junior High School students have set it up into the programs for the day, carrying out the 25th anniversary theme.

Program Chairman Mrs. Warren Allen has named her committee to represent all four districts of the council. The members are Mrs. Raymond Ruggles, Mrs. John Warren, Mrs. Boris Popoff and Mrs. Wesley Allen.

Parking at the camp will be under the supervision of Russell Kneale, Mr. Balmer, Ray Bush and Edwin Amidon.

Hot-Cold Method Provides Best Way of Relaxing

In this day of fast-paced living and harrowing headlines, there are few people fortunate enough to escape tension. Most of us have a day now and then that leaves us thoroughly exhausted.

Some think the only solution is to get away for a while. Vacations and weekends in the country certainly will do the trick, but doctors claim we can do a lot to check tension when such relaxation is not in the offing.

They say it's possible to relax completely by taking a hot bath with an ice pack at the back of the neck. This hot-and-cold method eases the taut nerves and tightened muscles that are responsible for that exhausted feeling.

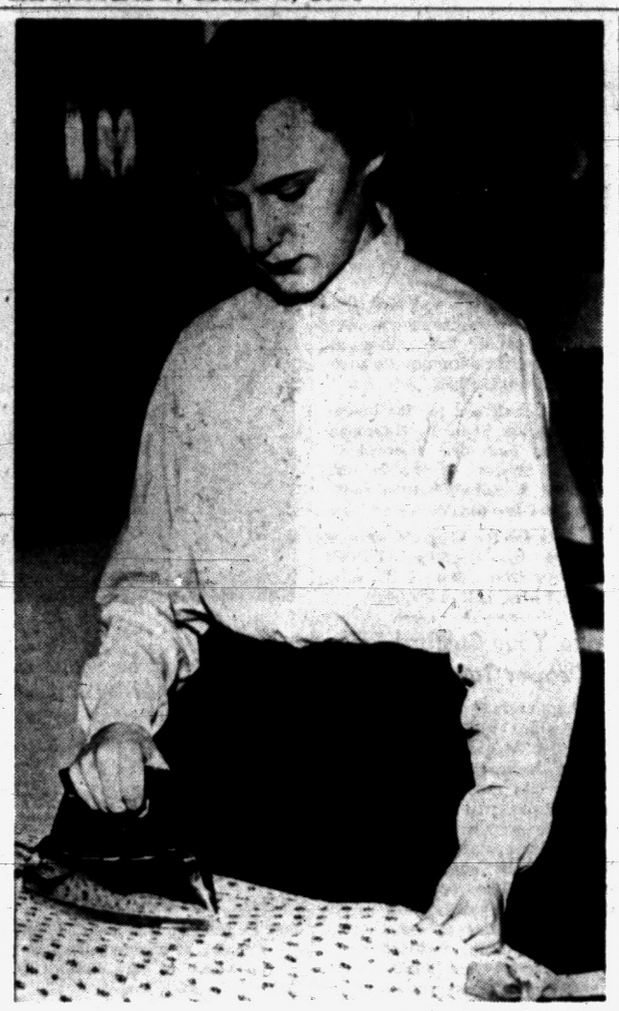

After an hour of the treatment one should feel as thoroughly relaxed as if she had had that country weekend.

To permit your body to relax completely during the bath, put a rubber bath pillow underneath the ice pack. Then you can lean back and enjoy the soothing actions of the waters.

After you have finished bathing, pamper your body by patting on a delicately-scented lotion, slip into a nightgown that will not constrict circulation and spend a while reading or listening to soft music.

Then you'll be completely prepared to fall off into a deep sleep that will bring you to morning with renewed vigor.

Spring Banquet Planned May 19

The annual spring banquet of Oakland County Alumni of Michigan State College is planned for May 19 at Hotel Pontiac.

Principal speaker for the banquet will be Dean Edgar Harden, official faculty representative to the Big 10. He will speak on "MSC's Future in the Big 10."

Also on the program will be the MSC Men's Glee Club Quartet. An Oakland County girl will receive a four-year scholarship to the college and new officers of the club for the coming year will be announced. Tickets for the affair, which begins at 6:30, may be obtained from any board member.

Tablecloth of Lace Needs Special Care

There are few things these days that can't safely be trusted to your washing machine. But perhaps your precious lace tablecloth is one possession you still prefer to wash by hand.

Squeeze the soap suds through it gently, and then squeeze them out gently in the rinse water. And always use a protective cloth when ironing a lace cloth because an exposed surface may get snagged by the point of the iron.

Annual Luncheon to Be Held Tuesday

Duo-Pianists to Entertain Musicale

Duo pianists Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer and Mrs. Addison Oakley will present the program for Tuesday Musicale when the group holds its annual luncheon Tuesday at 12:30 in Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Gaensbauer, was graduated from Parsons College in Fairfield, Iowa, and received her master's degree from Columbia Teachers College in New York.

She also studied with Charles Lautrop in New York City. Before coming to Pontiac she was a teacher of music in Ann Arbor. Currently she is director of the Tuesday Musicale Chorus.

Mrs. Oakley, accompanist for Tuesday Musicale Chorus, is a graduate of the Sherwood Music School in Chicago. She studied with Lawrence Goodman at Ward-Belmont School in Nashville, Tenn., and with Maud Okkelberg at the University of Michigan School of Music.

Mrs. Gaensbauer and Mrs. Oakley have presented their duo piano works for many local clubs and have recently returned from a concert in Lorain, Ohio.

Social chairmen for the luncheon will be Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson and Mrs. Howard C. Marsh. Mrs. C. H. Purdy and Mrs. G. A. Sutton will be hostesses for the day.

Tickets for the program may be obtained by Tuesday Musicale members from Mrs. B. B. Kimball and Mrs. O.H. Lundbeck.

Bake Your Custard Pies at Proper Temperature

Baking custard pies at the proper temperature spells success. Custard pies become doughy on the bottom because the filling has soaked into the crust. Place the unbaked pie crust in the refrigerator while preparing the filling.

Fill with custard and bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) about 30 minutes or until a silver knife, inserted halfway between the edge and center of the custard, comes out clean. Pastries brown more readily when baked in oven glassware or aluminum pie tins.

Waldemar Adams (left) has more than a ghost of a chance with Mrs. Stephen Booth as Robert Snyder helps them unfold the plot of "Lo and Behold," a St. Dunstan Guild production. The story of the ailing author who comes back in another life to the privacy of his own home, only to be haunted by other spectors crowding his lodging, will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday in Cranbrook Pavilion.

At Personal Shower

Doris J. Haney Honored

Doris Jean Haney, bride-elect of Jack H. Nichols, was honored Monday evening at a personal shower at the home of Mrs. James O. Fink of Prospect street.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Vernon Haney and Mrs. Jack McKinney, Doris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Haney of Clarkston, will speak her vows with Jack May 15 at First Church of the Nazarene. Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols of Stout street.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. George Rhodes, Dorothy Hawley, Maxine Godfrey, Lucille Yapo, Mrs. James White, Betty Lou DeArmon and Deborah Green.

Others were Mrs. Nichols, Sue Nichols, Sue Sawdon, Norma Coleman, Carol McManagal and Kim and Kay Fink.

Out-of-town guests included the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Haney of Clarkston, Mrs. Cora Haney of St. Charles and Janet Ferguson of Holly.

Bride-Elect Is Honored at Shower

Marlene Coin was honored Sunday afternoon with a bridal shower at the home of Nancy Gray on Lake Angelus Shores. Cohostess for the party was Sue Dickie.

Marlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coin, will speak her vows with David Bess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bess of Drayton Plains, June 5, at First Presbyterian Church.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. D. B. Millirons, Mrs. Clarence Boyer, Mrs. Esco Hurst, Shirley Slaughter, Mrs. Charles Salzman and Mrs. Edward Weston.

Plan Future Activities

Catholic Women Gather

Coming events planned by the League of Catholic Women include attendance at the state league meeting May 26 in Detroit. Mrs. Arthur Crawford and Mrs. Dan Call will attend, and officers will be elected.

Also in the near future is the City Federation of Women's Clubs dinner at 6:30 May 12 in Grace Lutheran Church. Mrs. James Clark will handle reservations.

The annual May breakfast is planned for May 23 at the league building on South Parke street. Mass at St. Vincent de Paul Church at 7:30 will precede the breakfast. Mrs. Crawford is general chairman for the event.

The group has also planned a fund-raising project for Saturday in the league building under the direction of Mrs. William Dean.

Auxiliary Names Representatives for Convention

Delegates were selected to attend the National Convention of Ladies Auxiliaries to Metropolitan Clubs in Flint in August. They were named at the Tuesday meeting of Spirit Six Auxiliary in the clubrooms on South Perry street.

Mrs. Reuel Baker, Mrs. Cliff Hickmott and Mrs. Joseph Koren are delegates. Alternates are Mrs. John DePauw, Mrs. John Morse and Mrs. John Harrington. Mrs. Howard Freeman, past national delegate, will also attend.

Reports of the round table meeting at Sturgis were given by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Ralph M. Dean and Mrs. Howard Fairman.

A memorial service has been planned for May 24 at 5 o'clock in the clubrooms by the Metropolitan Club Spirit Six. The auxiliary was asked to attend.

Mrs. George Hermoyian was welcomed as a new member of the group and Mrs. John Harrington was appointed recording secretary. Mrs. Ray Wilson is the new two-year trustee.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. James De Florio and Mrs. Earl Luchenbach.

Moist Cake Depends on Baking Time and Liquid

Substituting cream of tartar and soda for baking-powder in cake recipes won't necessarily produce a moist cake.

If your butter-type cakes are dry, it's probably because the recipe calls for too little shortening or liquid, or too much leavening or flour. Baking cakes too long in a slow overn will also make them day.

ROXANNE KAY ANTHONY

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Anthony of Mount Clemens street announce the engagement of their daughter, Roxanne Kay, to Billy Wiseheart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiseheart of Devondale road. The couple has not announced wedding plans.

After-Bath Liquid Holds Freshness

There's nothing like a bath to help one cool off in hot weather. But sometimes the heat starts to take its toll before a girl has a chance to finish dressing.

In an effort to combat this problem, one cosmetic house has just introduced an after-bath preparation they say has a very cooling effect.

Light textured with a translucent glow, this new liquid is designed to both tone and refresh the body. It contains a moisture-giving ingredient that's said to soften the skin without leaving a trace of stickiness.

In addition, it's supposed to act as a talcum, enabling stockings and girdles to slip on easily.

As an added feature for the girl who seeks treat as well as treatment, the company points out that this body toner combines an invigorating tingling effect with the gentle fragrance of its lace-inspired scent.

Officers Elected by Education Society Tuesday Evening

Iva O'Dell was elected president of Alpha Beta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society at Hotel Waldron Tuesday evening.

Others elected include Mrs. Fay Ealy, first vice president; Mrs. Irene Olczac, second vice president; Mrs. Harvey Bidstrup, recording secretary; Mabel Double, treasurer; Mrs. David Turo, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Theodore Wiersema, parliamentarian.

After dinner, Louise Burkett showed pictures of her recent visit to Europe and spoke on her trip from Scotland to England, France, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain and home to America.

Mrs. Albert Kohn announced plans to attend the state convention in Saginaw May 14, 15 and 16, and she summarized the events of the year.

Among the projects of the past year were a lecture on the society's founders by Ola Hiller of Flint, a reception for two foreign teachers sponsored by the society, a first anniversary dinner with Ann Ess Morrow, sponsor of the Pontiac Future Teachers Club, as guest speaker, and a lecture by R. A. Ambrose, superintendent of Oxford Schools, on school laws, bills and suggested legislation.

Other highlights were a visit to Oakland County Jail and a lecture at Walled Lake by Morris Carmany, MEA public relations director, with Pontiac Future Teachers as guests.

Write Out a List Before Packing for Summer Trip

Going some place this summer? Of course you are. Maybe it's just a weekend jaunt or your annual two-weeks-with-pay. Wherever you go, the success of your trip will depend largely on your luggage and how you pack it.

The written word is best in preparing for a trip, say packing experts. Make a list of all of the things you are going to need from toothpaste to rain coat, and use it as a blueprint for your packing.

Do this several days before you leave, and it will save you the annoyance of having forgotten a much-needed sewing kit or sunglasses.

Using your list as a guide, put your clothes into separate piles. Suits and dresses go into one, group lingerie in another, shoes in a third and don't forget accessories and cosmetics.

Now, you are ready to start packing. Be sure to have plenty of tissue paper on hand, and use it generously. The secret of using tissue paper effectively in packing is to fold it accordian-wise—that takes up the pressure and keeps your clothes wrinkle free.

Experienced travelers always pack in layers. Heavy garments and shoes go in first, sweaters and swimsuits next, lingerie and light blouses go near the top. Put your nightwear, robe, slippers and pajamas on the top. You'll probably need them first when you open your bag.

And a last thing—don't overload your bag. It is a strain on your fine luggage, and it makes clothes wrinkled no matter how carefully they have been packed.

Eggplant Tasty Dish

Eggplant, not too common a dish in this country, is a tasty one and very easily prepared. You need only wash, pare and cube it, then cook from 15 to 20 minutes in boiling water. Have about one inch of water in the pot and cook with cover on.

MRS. CARL B. NIEMI

Married Saturday at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church were Gladys L. Wiscombe and Carl B. Niemi. The Samuel Wiscombes of West Pike street and the Peter Niemis' of South Telegraph road are their parents.

Gladys Wiscombe Speaks Vows in Double-Ring Rite

In a double-ring ceremony Saturday at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, Gladys L. Wiscombe spoke her nuptial vows with Carl B. Niemi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Niemi of South Telegraph road.

The Rev. Dr. Andrew S. Creswell performed the 8 o'clock ceremony before 250 guests.

A Juliet cap edged with seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of white roses. She wore the bridegroom's gift of pearls.

Following a wedding trip to the East, the newlyweds will reside in Drayton Plains.

Nylon fashions for youngsters are a boon for mothers, and this season something new has been added, a three-dimensional pattern. A contrasting high midriff sets off the sculptured pattern of this little girl dress which never needs ironing.

New Patterns Are Featured in Modern Hose

Now that stockings have reached the ultimate in sheer beauty and fit, hosiery designers from Paris to California are introducing innovations that range from the subtle to the extravagant.

Leopard patterns and polka dots are being featured in Paris. And California, not to be outdone, is coming up with such color tones "as "Actress Sunburn" and "Tragedy Black."

Built-in gold ankle bracelets and tiny china flowers are decorating some of the dressier nylons. Jeweled toe rings of gold-colored plastic sparked with rhinestones are also being offered.

In a more conservative vein, nylons are now being matched with other accessories, including belts and umbrellas. Both texture and color are very important in the hosiery picture for spring and summer.

Many women will find that the new pastel shades, such as Frosted Apricot, Frosted Lime and Pink Freeze, are flattering and underline beautifully the delicate hues of spring and summer outfits.

Whether you are inclined to the conservative or the flamboyant, be assured that none of the decorative touches will put any burden of upkeep on you.

The new hose are all capable of going in and out of soapsuds as often as they're worn. In fact, the way to preserve your fragile hose is to keep them immaculately clean.

As an extra precaution in caring for your most fragile stockings, wash and rinse them in either a mesh bag or a capped jar.

William Emerson Speaks to PTA Council

Asks Support of Special Education

'Over 4,000 handicapped children of Oakland County will benefit by having the same education opportunities as other children, if the people accept the special education act at the school election on June 14," said William Emerson, Oakland County superintendent of schools, at the meeting of the Pontiac Council of PTA at Owen School Tuesday afternoon.

This Public Act 18 favoring a one-half mill levy has been endorsed by the Michigan Congress of PTA, by District Seven, and by various groups of school superintendents throughout the state.

Mr. Emerson, with J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of Pontiac Schools, answered questions concerning millage in a discussion period following the talk.

The incoming president, Mrs. William Wright, and the incoming vice president, Mrs. William Mihalek, were chosen to represent the Pontiac Council of PTA at the Higgins Lake Conference this summer.

The annual School of Instruction will be held at the Central Methodist Church on May 18. Registration will be at 9:15 a. m., with the workshop conferences slated for 9:30 a. m. All reservations for the luncheon to be served at this affair should be given to Mrs. Wayne Weaver by May 11.

Annual reports of council officers and PTA presidents were read.

Reports were given on the progress of the PTA-sponsored Teacher Scholarship Fund. All schools should have their contributions in before June 1. The selected candidate will be the guest of the PTA Council at the School of Instruction.

Announcement was made of the TB mobile units coming to the Pontiac High School on June 9. All persons 15 years and older may receive chest X-Rays when these units are at various points in Pontiac from June 14 through July 2.

The executive board of the PTA Council met at 11:30 preceding the councils luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Ford Drumm was chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Cleatus Garner, Mrs. Harry Eaton and Mrs. Eugene Chisholm.

Mrs. Hinckley Attends State ACE Meeting

Participating in the annual spring conference of the Michigan Association for Childhood Education last weekend at Kalamazoo was Mrs. Claire J. Hinckley of Elsinore drive. Mrs. Hinckley is secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Keynote speaker was Dr. Leland Jacobs of Columbia University. Constance Carr of the international office in Washington, D. C., described the functions and services of the headquarters.

Mrs. Hinckley will give a report of the conference at the ACE May breakfast to be held Saturday morning at Devon Gables.

BARBARA LIEDTKE

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Robert L. Pickett are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Liedtke of Premont street. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pickett of West Chicago avenue. The couple have set June 5 as their wedding date.

Protect edges of leather heels from scuffs and scrapes by coating them with colorless nail polish.

Benefit Planned by Better Home and Garden Club

Plans are being made by members of Better Home and Garden Club to raise funds for the purchase of flowering crab apple trees to be placed at the Woodward avenue entrance to Pontiac.

On May 11 a benefit pillowcase, card and luncheon party will be held at the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue. Luncheon will be served at noon, and reservations must be made by Friday with Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh of Glenwood avenue or Mrs. J. M. Beachamp of State Park boulevard.

Each member of the club will donate a pair of handmade pillowcases to be given as prizes.

Fry Fritters of Golden Corn Batter

Mrs. John View's Southern Dish Will Please Family

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Corn fritters and bacon or sausages are a delightful combination for brunch, supper or luncheon. Make some of Mrs. John View's southern corn fritters and please your family. She says to serve them with applesauce and salad, too.

Mrs. View is a Navy wife who now has a permanent home in Pontiac; her husband expects to retire in three years.

Until that time Mrs. View keeps the home fires burning all by herself for her three young children. She is a member of the Fashionette Club.

SOUTHERN CORN FRITTERS
By Mrs. John View

1 No. 2½ can cream-style corn
3 tablespoons flour
2 eggs
2 teaspoons baking powder
Pinch of nutmeg
Pinch of cinnamon

Blend eggs into corn, add dry ingredients, blend well and drop by tablespoons into hot fat. Fry until golden brown and drain on paper towels.

Children Differ on Eating Habits

Just as children's physical characteristics and personalities vary widely, so do their capacities for eating. Some children eat very little and yet are quite healthy.

Less excitable and strenuous in their play, they burn up less energy than their more active playmates. So don't urge Baby to eat more than he wants. This can be very upsetting to his nervous system.

Correct Use of Screws Is Important

By HUBBARD COBB

We once knew a man who used to drive in wood screws with a hammer. He figured it was a much quicker and more efficient method than using a screwdriver.

He used his screwdriver for stirring paint and chisels for prying boards apart. He was a very interesting character and there are many like him.

But to get back to wood screws, these very common kinds of fasteners are seldom used the way they were intended.

Inserting a wood screw in the correct manner takes a little time but it's really worth it in the long run for it produces the best results.

Suppose you have two pieces of wood to be joined together with a screw. Select the proper size screw and decide where it is going to be inserted.

In the lower piece of wood drill a hole about the same diameter as the core of the threaded portion of the screw. This should be about equal to the depth that the screw will penetrate to when it is turned down.

In the upper piece of wood drill a hole the size of the shank of the screw. This is the unthreaded area directly below the screw head.

If you are using flat head screws you want to make a countersink so that the head of the screw will set into the wood with the upper surface flush with the wood surface.

After you've done all this you can insert the screw. The screw should slip easily through the larger hole drilled in the top pieces of wood and then the threads will bite into the smaller hole drilled in the lower piece of wood.

You'll find that as the screw is run down there won't be a tendency for the two pieces of wood to be spread apart and when the job is done you'll have the strongest type of joint that can be made with a screw.

Encourage Girl's Language Interests

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"My daughter intends to enter business," a mother writes me, "and is taking the commercial course at high school. But she is fascinated with languages, and is studying both French and Spanish.

"It is difficult to work them in with her other courses, so she has joined a French conversational group and also a Spanish one, after hours.

"I think this is a terrible waste of time. She doesn't want to teach languages; she just says she loves them.

"Now, I had a cousin who was a language major at college, and she could never get a job at it.

"Isn't it true that, speaking from a business point of view, foreign languages are just a waste of time?"

No, this isn't true, largely because we can never, as you put it, "speak from a business point of view."

As the saying goes, "The whole person goes to work." Nothing that we do in our free time is irrelevant to our lifework.

We bring to our work all that we are and all that we know, and who is to say what will be important in the long run?

If your daughter finds languages fascinating, she will undoubtedly gain a great deal from them.

It is true that straight language jobs, as such, are rare. Interpreters and translators have a tough time.

But there are many jobs where a knowledge of languages is a valuable extra accessory: Jobs in import and export, in advertising and public relations, in all kinds of office work.

We are rapidly becoming an internationally minded world, and that holds for business as well as government.

Moreover, as an intellectual training, languages are helping in your daughter's overall growth and development. A knowledge of how other people think and speak is an excellent thing for one's own maturity.

There is also the whole new world which will open to your daughter socially.

She will meet French and Spanish people, find interests and form friendships which may open up all kinds of interesting horizons that might, indeed, revolutionize her whole life.

In short, any interest which a child has should be allowed to develop.

It is not for us to decide what will come of it. If it is a genuine interest, it will bring its own rewards—and they may be very tangible, down-to-earth commercial ones!

Don't Yield to Children Resentfully

They Desire Only What Is Granted to Them Gladly

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Mrs. F. says that her 8-year-old Jane has become an "over-demanding child."

Insistence on what she wants has reached a point where the most reasonable denial produces violent weeping and rebellion.

"I know that over-demanding children are supposed to be starved for love," writes Mrs. F. "As I have lavished it on Jane all her life, granting her every wish, I do not understand this result . . ."

Maybe she can begin to understand it if we suppose she and Mr. F. decided to buy a suburban lot. What would be nearly the first thing they would want to know about it? The measurements of the lot, of course.

Why? Because without knowing the property limits, they could never be certain that whatever they did would not become intrusive and resented by their neighbors. With the possibility of displeasing the neighbors constantly in her mind, Mrs. F. could not so much as plant a dahlia bulb without anxiety.

If we deny Jane limits to her action, we are denying her freedom of action. For any action she takes is constrained by fear of displeasing us.

She can no more act with joyous certainty in a home that places no limits on her than we could plan peacefully for a piece of property we were never sure belonged to us.

Love? Let's not call such unawareness love. One of love's jobs is thinking in terms of another's peace.

Is it peaceful to wring a lot of unimportant desires from a person whose love is supremely important to you, knowing that she resents your wringing them from her? That she regards you as "overdemanding."

No, that is not peaceful. If that person is encouraging such serious frustration in you, you may not be able to ask for anything without belligerence. For belligerence is your only defense against her power to make you feel uncertain and resented.

Let's stop listening to what Jane demands of us with her mouth. It isn't telling us the truth of what she wants. Let's begin to listen to what her heart wants, for like us, she uses words to hide herself.

What Jane is really telling us with every demand she makes is, "Mother, please give me only what you can give me gladly. I am desperate when you give to me resentfully, because your love is my most important wish."

get rid of fat by "dietless reducing"

Lose up to 20 lbs. in 10 weeks or receive your money back

All of those uncomfortable things which have always been considered necessary in order to lose weight have suddenly become outmoded.

Now, with this new "slimming" formula, you can reduce automatically—without dreary dieting, massage exercise or drugs.

Over-Indulgence Control is the Secret!

TEK-TROL actually works while you eat! Because it provides the bulk your stomach craves—without the elements that build fat.

Here's how it works. Before each meal, you simply take three small TEK-TROL Tablets with a glass of water. That's all. Your meals look just as good—taste just as good—and you eat all you want of all the foods you like. But you won't eat as much—and the pounds drop off.

Absolutely Safe

Dietless — drugless — reducing with TEK-TROL is safe! Try TEK-TROL and watch the extra pounds and years of discomfort slip away.

Check these Features

• Easy to swallow tablets—no chewing • Tasteless—no cloying sweet—no saccharin from coal tar • Aids elimination through bulk stickage

Round Table Installs Slate of Officers

Final Gathering of Club Addressed by Walter Willman

Officers for the coming year were installed by Round Table Club at the final meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon. Rotunda Inn was the setting for the meeting at which Walter Willman, city manager, was guest speaker.

A talk on public affairs was given by Mr. Willman. He told of the ambitions of our rapidly growing city and of the long-range program. He expressed the hope that the city will receive cooperation in making the needed improvements.

Mr. Willman said that these improvements include the new city hall which is expected to be completed in five years at a cost of one million dollars.

Other improvements, according to the speaker, will be a new sewage plant and bridges, changes in the course of the Clinton River and resulting park improvements, a branch library, new sidewalks, correction of water problems, hospital expansion, more parking lots and railroad grade separations.

In closing, the speaker said that these proposals will become definite drives for the growth and development of the city.

Mrs. H. E. McCulloch is president of the club and Mrs. A. T. Anderson is first vice president.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Smith Falconer, second vice president, and Mrs. E. L Guy, financial secretary.

Future plans of the group include a breakfast to be served in the Silver Lake home of Mrs. McCulloch.

Moose Group Hears Address

Women of the Moose held their Hospital Guild Chapter Night program Monday evening with Lauretta Paul, director of Pontiac General Hospital, as guest speaker.

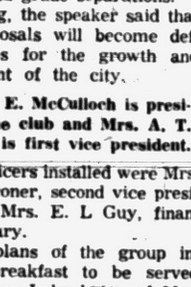

Miss Paul spoke on the hospital association and the function and management of a hospital. Mrs. Cecil Lesley was chairman of the program, which was held at Moose Temple.

Initiated into the order in honor of Mrs. Roy Post was Mrs. Bryan Cullens.

Attending the State Academy of Friendship sessions in Dearborn Sunday were Mrs. Michael Blahut, Mrs. Anna Page, Mrs. Lloyd LaBarge, Mrs. Lawrence Huck, Mrs. Ann Ulman and Mrs. Lawrence Cavalier.

Plans for the annual mother-daughter banquet were discussed. The banquet will be held at Moose Temple May 20 and reservations may be made through the senior regent, Mrs. Howard McCandless.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS LARRISON

Married Saturday morning in St. Michael Church were Grace Robinson, daughter of the David Robinsons of West Ann Arbor avenue, and Thomas Larrison. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Larrison of Otter drive.

Grace Robinson Becomes Bride of Thomas Larrison

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson of West Ann Arbor avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Larrison of Otter drive are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Michael J. OReilly performed the service.

For the occasion the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of nylon lace over net. Her illusion veil fell from a pearl tiara and she wore the bridegroom's gift of pearls. White carnations on a mother-of-pearl prayerbook formed her corsage.

Mrs. C. A. Gill was matron of honor in pink net. She carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Mr. Folsom was best man, and seating the guests were Jack Teachen of St. Mary's, Ont., and Mr. Gill.

You Can Develop Habit of Eating Good Breakfast

If you are a breakfast skipper, try changing you ways — a little at a time. Start out with small portions of a balanced breakfast which should consist of fruit or juice, a main dish such as cereal or eggs or meat, enriched bread — either toast or rolls and butter, and milk.

Some people think that they can keep from gaining weight by skipping or skimping on breakfast. It is better to eat a good breakfast and divide your calories among three meals.

Know enough "calorie arithmetic" to get at least one-fourth of the day's calorie needs at breakfast time.

Educators agree that the most neglected meal of the day is breakfast. Many reasons given for either skipping or skimping on breakfast reflect parental attitudes or situations controlled by parents, such as: the mother works, parents do not get up in the morning, parents do not insist on proper diet and lack adequate dietary knowledge.

Surveys of school children reveal that at least one out of two children fails to consume one-fourth of his daily calorie needs at breakfast.

School age children need about 600 calories to carry them through the morning hours.

According to a leading university, school children who had good breakfasts more nearly met their food requirements, including the needed calories and protein for the day, than did those children who had poor breakfasts.

At Panhellenic Meeting

Fabric Trends Discussed

Mrs. Marge Elliott spoke on the effect of new fabrics on decorating Monday evening when Pontiac Panhellenic met with Mrs. Charles Campbell of South Shore drive.

Stressing new fabrics, Mrs. Elliott said sheers are in the limelight for summer. As examples, she mentioned fiberglass print, light, airy and fireproof; nylon sheer with a cross-thread, sagproof, and chromespun taffeta, a byproduct in the manufacture of film, dyed in the liquid state.

She said the modern trend is for soft colors and she suggested the use of abstract designs with provincial and modern furniture. Mrs. Elliott emphasized that modern living has changed drapery styles, citing the new emphasis on television and dens.

Mrs. Gordon Reynolds and Mrs. E. D. Foley were hostesses for the evening and Mrs. Charles Allen reported on her committee.

Named cochairmen of a tea to be held June 6 at the YWCA were Mrs. Thomas Moffat and Mrs. William Brace. An invitation from Lauretta Paul was read, inviting the group to Pontiac General Hospital's open house May 13 and 14.

MARGUERITE RAYMOND

Announcing the engagement of their daughter, Marguerite, to Gerald McHaney are Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond of East Ypsilanti avenue. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McHaney of Midvale street. The couple have set Oct. 9 as their wedding date.

Graduation Held for New Citizens

Mrs. William Todd, Americanism chairman of the DAR, and Mrs. Joseph Phillips, Americanism chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary to Chief Pontiac Post, spoke and presented Flags to the new citizens.

Don't Let Bread Dough Rise More Than Double

There may be several reasons why your bread refuses to rise, even though while baking you pay close attention to the proper time and temperature. Whether you use compressed or active dry yeast, it is important to start with fresh yeast.

Let your dough rise in a warm place (80 to 85 degrees). If all or part of the dough gets too warm your loaves will be small. Dough needs to rise only until it is doubled in bulk and a dent remains when it is gently touched with a finger. Doughs allowed to rise too much will have no stretch left when put in a hot oven, and loaves will fall.

When Abraham Lincoln's family moved to Indiana in 1816 they settled in what is now Spencer county.

Leather Industry Unveils Latest in Textures, Colors

Enough leather to put shoes on the entire population of a middle-sized city was assembled in the Grand Ballroom of New York's famed Waldorf-Astoria Hotel recently, as shoe manfactures shopped around for the leathers they are going to put on your feet next fall and winter.

The occasion was the semi-annual leather show, which fills an entire floor of the Waldorf with leather in 156 different colors ranging from silver kid with a delicate lace design to huge, rugged cattle hides. The rich, spicy aroma of genuine leather permeated the entire hotel for the several days of the show.

To the leather show come tanners from all parts of the country, eager to display the beautiful new colors and textures that have been developed in their laboratories and tanning vats during the preceding six months. Some of the fascinating new leathers you are going to find in the shops next September include:

Cattle and calf leather tanned by a new process which raises the grain and produces a real "leathery" appearance.

Pigskin suede in gray and tan tones; and regular pigskin, but with a waxed finish that gives a mellow look to the leather.

New aniline leathers in green, red, and even black and white. The anilines are those wonderful leather—now so popular—which allow the beautiful natural grain to show through the transparent finishes.

Unborn calfskin—which so many people mistakenly call poneyskin—tanned with the hair on, and available in the natural black and white and brown and white colors of the animal.

The stable leathers, which account for most of the shoes produced in the U. S., were also on view in large amounts: Gleaming, smooth calf, tough, supple cattle hide (called side leather in the trade), glowing bright kid and smooth, velvety suede.

These are the basic leathers that go not only into shoes, but handbags, belts and other accessories. Here the emphasis was also on new colors—54 for women, 37 for men.

So comes next winter, shoe store windows should sparkle like Christmas trees, and twinkling toes will be yours for the asking—or maybe we should say, the buying.

Girl Indignant Because Boy's Mother Arranged Their Dates for Them

He May Not Be a Baby

She's Judging Too Hastily

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: His mother is what bothers me! She babies him too much and tries to run his life—and he's 19!

"I've been out with him a couple of times and I like him very much. But he didn't ask me for those dates—his mother did! Each time she would call me and say, 'Pat would like to go to a show—do you think you can make it with him?'

"That boy has no mind of his own! His mother judges everything for him.

"I thought it was his duty to call me himself—I figured why should his mother ask me for a date?—and I sort of made him understand I didn't go for the idea at all. And I haven't been out with him since.

"He's a neighbor, so I see him once in a while, though. His mother is a friend of my mother's—but mother agrees with me that his mother wants to keep Pat all to herself—he is all she has.

"Though I'm still afraid of his mother, I do like him a lot and want to get him back. What do you suggest that I do?"

It might be a good idea, first of all, not to jump to too many conclusions. You've formed some very strong opinions about Pat's family which may not be based on fact.

Though they're neighbors of yours, you can't possibly know all the ins and outs of their family relationships. You may be misinterpreting the signs.

Your two dates with Pat may, or may not, have shown up some qualities that would make it easier to understand him. If he was on the shy and timid side with you, it's easy to see why his mother did the phoning for him.

If his conversation revealed that he didn't date around very much, she may have prodded him out of his laziness. If he was afraid you wouldn't go with him, he may have figured you wouldn't refuse his mother if she asked you.

And maybe he's so busy he needs a secretary. Maybe his mother was making plans for herself for the evening and wanted Pat's evening arranged—and being quicker on the trigger than he is, lifted the phone and called you without even thinking how you might take it.

Anyway, your scolding of Pat has kept you from seeing him again. No more dates because you laid down the law as you see it. And since you may not have seen it correctly, perhaps you'd better undo the damage by calling him.

Invite him over to the house to spend the evening, invite him to go somewhere with you, invite him to escort you to a party or a dance.

If he has to ask his mother if he can come—you'll know you have a baby on your hands. And bringing him up the way you want him to grow will take patience, gentleness and a lot of gracious firmness.

If he jumps at the chance to see you again, you'll know he does really have a mind of his own—and your fears of his mother are completely misplaced.

Fraternal Pin Best Seller

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Despite the continuing high level of marriages, U. S. jewelry stores sell more fraternal emblems than wedding rings. Moreover, the number of elegant, jeweled fraternal designs being bought is growing, according to a prominent manufacturer here.

The popularity of emblem jewelry is due to the enormous number of Americans who join organizations of one type or another, says designer Charles Birnbaum.

It is estimated that eight out of every ten men belong to a lodge, society or club. Joining reached its peak shortly after World War II and has declined slightly since then, he noted.

The big news is that men are wearing many more elegant fraternal rings, pins and tie clasps than ever before. For example, many are sporting fashionable new styles in the white precious metal palladium, in gold, or a combination of both.

With greater frequency, diamonds and colored gems are added to the insignia of such groups as the Shriners, Lions, Elks, Masons, Knights of Columbus, Rotary and Pythians.

Palladium is gaining wider use because of its greater ductility, making it a secure gem setting, and its effective color contrast with gold. The most favored gem is the round-cut diamond.

"Nowadays, wives find that a glamorized fraternal ring or pin makes an ideal birthday or anniversary gift," the designer says. While most emblems are modestly priced, he adds, lodges often present retiring officers with luxurious $2,000 and $3,000 lapel pins.

May Guest Ask to See TV Show?

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter asks: "When invited to a friend's house, is it proper for a guest to ask the host (or hostess) to turn on the television set so that he may watch a certain program that he looks at regularly when at home? I do not think this is good manners, but my husband doesn't see why not. What is your opinion?"

Answer: If you are the only guest in the house of really intimate friends, you could, not improperly, ask permission to turn on the television set.

But if there are other guests present, you couldn't do this unless you happened to know that the others shared your habit of watching this particular program — and explaining this to your hostess.

Dear Mrs. Post: My parents will soon celebrate their silver anniversary. I have asked a girl whom I have been dating for the past several months (we are not engaged) to the dinner that is being given at a hotel in my parents' honor.

My sister and I will be seated at the head table with my parents, and my mother thinks that this girl should be seated nearby but not at the head table, which is reserved for the family. What is your opinion?

Answer: Sorry, but I have to agree with your mother. Seating her at the family table would indicate your engagement.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been invited to an announcement tea and have been told it is the custom to bring the prospective bride a gift of a cup and saucer. I have never heard of this before and want to be sure to do the correct thing.

Answer: It was an established custom 50 years ago, but so far as I know it is no longer practiced. In fact, it is almost unknown to those of the present day.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Senior Citizens Are Given Long-Overdue Attention

Thank goodness the right people are on the warpath at last and starting to do something about wasteful and cruel discrimination against one of the largest divisions of our population. I'm talking about the men and women sometimes euphemistically called "senior citizens" but more often labeled plain aging, aged or old.

MISS McBRIDE

There's a long way to go, however. Too often older workers are still being retired summarily regardless of fine physical health and ability, and made to feel so useless and unwanted that they become mentally and physically ill and even wind up as expensive public charges.

As a beginning in New York state, May has been named Senior Citizen Month, and among the promising New York experiments is one in Cold Spring, not far from New York City. Here 10 women and a man, all college graduates between 60 and 80, have had several months of special training to prepare them for the third period of man's life.

Doctors examined them, psychologists tested abilities and aptitudes, experts lectured on subjects ranging from international relations to diet. Complete findings on the project are now being tabulated for use when the next set of students convenes in October on this new kind of college campus.

Some of the exciting results have leaked out ahead of the final report, including the fact the one male student, a retired surgeon of 80, has written two books. A former teacher has compiled a methematics textbook.

Two women, who had been executives and were about to accept the ruthless dictum that they were finished because of age, went home and landed clerical jobs that keep them pleasantly occupied but allow ample time for painting and piano lessons.

The New York Adult Education Council argues that the candidate for retirement should have schooling ahead of time to help him decide what to do about finances, where he'll live, what he'll work at and how he'll amuse himself when actual retirement comes.

During the council's lecture and discussion course, recently held, a middle-aged real estate broker who had rather haphazardly planned to buy a dairy farm some day prudently decided instead to utilize his experience by setting up as a leisurely real estate consultant.

A textile man who has saved a comfortable amount is now planning a weaving enterprise that won't make him much money but will allow him to feel useful. A teacher who thought she would have to do something like hostessing in a restaurant to have enough to live on has been encouraged to put her talents to work in an educational counseling agency.

"You can't run off from being old merely by finding a new place to live," a member of the class said decisively. "Going back to school taught me, first, that it's better to face getting old in familiar surroundings with old friends about me, and, second, that I can best beat the game by using what talents I have to help not only myself but others."

Keep cool and look like a cool million all summer in this halter dress and jacket. Molded bodice above a whirling skirt—this line is magic for any figure. Choose a gay print cotton—accent the bodice with contrast color, white eyelet or lace.

Buff Nails Regularly

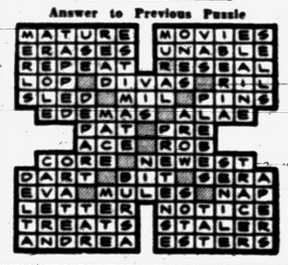

If you do not care to wear nail polish, get into the habit of buffing your nails. Use one buffer to apply powder polish and another to polish them to a satiny finish. Do this once a day.

Parked Truck Hits Man, Sends Him to Hospital

RAHWAY, N. J. (AP)—Police report that Westley Dallas, 40, was on the corner waiting for a bus when (1) an out-of-control auto hit a parked truck and (2) the truck was propelled into Dallas.

CHEJU ISLAND, Korea (AP) — A half-dozen die-hard Communist guerrillas are preventing resettlement of this isolated island just off the southern tip of the Korean peninsula.

The guerrillas — two women and four men — are known by name in the settlements which they terrorize. They now act more like simple bandits than political warriors.

Others who once roamed the rugged volcanic hills with them have returned to their fields as peaceful farmers or artisans. They have been forgiven and accepted into the communities.

But because of the bitter holdouts, villagers must withdraw each night behind the lava stone walls ringing their towns. They lock and bar the gates and mount guards throughout the night. Raids continue at irregular intervals.

The slopes of 6,000-foot Mt. Halla are designed by nature and man to harbor the hunted.

At the end of the war in the Pacific, Japan planned a last stand from this rugged mountain island. She garrisoned it with more than 200,000 troops and covered the lower slopes of the mountain. The Japanese and Korean troops have gone but the fortifications and hideouts remain.

Armed with abandoned Japanese rifles and machine guns, the six guerrillas apparently continue their activity simply because it is an easy way to live well on an island knowing few luxuries.

Ancient Egyptians are said to have performed amputations and various operations on the eye.

Horseman to Motorize After Horse Treachery

'Podnah, all my life I sat on a horse to earn my keep and I never got hurt until this happened," he drawled.

Bob Considine Says:

2 Little Words---Yes, No---Go Unspoken at Hearings

WASHINGTON (INS)—McCarthy vs. Army is a rhurbarb wherein the hardest words in the English language to wring from witness or prosecutor are yes and no.

Take the question of whether Dave Schine absorbed large quantities of filet mignon and champagne at a time when he should have been de-nuding spuds for Uncle Sam. Sen. McCarthy wanted to know if Secretary Stevens had ever heard about that there dastardly report.

"You can answer yes or no," instructed special counsel Ray Perkins. "But I didn't testify to that effect," Stevens protested. "You can answer it yes or no," Perkins insisted.

"Then I would like to have the recorder read it back," Stevens said, leaning back in his chair.

Mundt said, wearily: "The reporter will read it and perhaps we can get a yes or no answer."

It was read back, and then Jenkins said, "Did you have any knowledge that such was the fact You can answer yes or no."

"This yes or no business is very difficult, Mr. Jenkins," Stevens protested.

"Surely seems to be," grumbled Jenkins, who wants to get back to Knoxville, Tenn., by next November, to run for the Senate.

"Do you know whether or not anybody ever told you, any person, any newspaper account, whether or not you had any knowledge that Private Schine was enjoying filet mignon when he should have been peeling potatoes?" Jenkins again asked.

In the end, Stevens said he had no personal knowledge of Schine's plushy life. But that didn't end it. McCarthy wanted to hear Stevens say either of those two little words. This bickering led to another request that the original question be read back. And while the stenotypist was trying to find it, Sen. Mundt sighed:

"The chair again suggest that those who ask the questions ask them so they can be answered yes or no; that those who answer them say yes or no; and that those who ask them listen to the answer."

After a two-hour double-talk debate on a McCarthy press release (prepared, bewilderingly enough, by the Army) and which McCarthy never release, I put a sawbuck down on a one-way ticket to Juneau.

Frieda Gets in Trouble Playing Scribble Game

By BILLY ROSE

Yesterday afternoon my private phone rang. It was my Uncle Charlie.

"In case you can come to supper," he said, "come."

"What's the trouble now?" I said.

"Your Aunt Frieda is talking incessant," said Charlie. "On all sides of the mouth and simultaneous. But what she is talking, I am not understanding . . ."

When I got to their flat on Rivington Street, BILLY ROSE Frieda met me at the door. "Is supper in five minutes," she said. "Go lave the hands in the bathroom."

I looked at Charlie. He nodded sadly. "Now you know," he said. "Your aunt is every afternoon playing Scribble with the ladies."

"Scrabble," said Frieda firmly. "Like they eat in Philadelphia."

"Scribble, Scrabble," said Charlie, "Anyway, Frieda is learning words you shouldn't tell to a dog."

My aunt pointed proudly to a massive dictionary on the sideboard. "Is the latest unabreached," she said . . .

That evening as per usual, Frieda's sauerbraten and candied red cabbage were the best cooking this side of the Tour d'Argent. The angry Charlie, however, made the mistake of criticizing the applesauce which was served with the potato pancakes.

"Hold the mouth," said my aunt. "In the matter of cuisine, you are a tyro."

"How can I be a tyro when everybody knows I'm a Litvak?" said Charlie. "Tyro is a place in Switzerland where they yodel."

"Your uncle is uncouth," said Frieda. "He is as much uncouth as Schlaegel, the butcher, who this morning is trying to slip over on me a rooster when I am ordering a partlet."

"A what?" I said.

"You get paid to write, you should know English," said my aunt. 'A partlet is a tender young hen. When Schlaegal is handing me the rooster, I am refusing and telling him he is a picaroon person."

"Didn't you mean picayune?" I said.

"Picaroon," said Frieda loftily, "means mean and small."

"Better look it up in the dictionary," I said. "As I remember it, picaroon means something else."

"Anyway," said Frieda, "the customers is hearing the whole thing and laughing, and Schlaegel is hitting the chopping block with a two-foot salami. Also, his son Herman, the lawyer, is looking snees."

"Gesundheit!" said Charlie.

"A snee is a dagger," explained my aunt. "Is too bad that your uncle, after 40 years in this country, is still a greenhorn . . .

While we were having dessert—a 12-layer chocolate cake less than an inch thick — the door suddenly opened and Herman Schlaegel the butcher's son walked in. He handed Frieda an official looking paper.

"Consider yourself served," he said. "My father is suing you for criminal slander."

"A nice 15-point word," said Charlie.

"In front of witnesses," the young lawyer went on, "Frieda called my father a picaroon which, according to Funk and Wagnalls, is 'one who lives by cheating or robbery.'"

"I'm afraid Mr. Schlaegel has got a case," I deadpaned. "When you call a butcher a picaroon in front of customers you impair his capacity to earn a living."

Herman winked at me. "I think I can persuade my father to settle," he said. "But something tangible will have to change hands as evidence of good faith."

"How about a ten-spot?" I said.

"That wouldn't satisfy my father," said Herman. "He's too deeply hurt."

There was what the lit'r'y boys call a pregnant pause.

"I got a idea," said Charlie, and the smile on his face was a pretty thing to see.

He went to the sideboard, picked up the dictionary, and presented it to Herman.

Charlie and I shook hands with the butcher's son and showed him to the door.

When he had gone, my uncle shook his finger at Frieda, "Next time, Mrs. Fink and Wagnoff," he said, "before you are making with big words, first lave out the mouth with soap."

Nature Aids Parkers

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (INS) — A dust storm here gave city motorists plenty of free parking time. City officials reported 500 parking meters were out of commission from the dust which sifted into their mechanisms.

Gen. Dean Scores U.S. Complacency

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, who spent 38 months in a Communist prisoner of war camp in Korea, said last night he sees "complacency everywhere" in America.

He said "a great many people are becoming complacent" because the West has the atomic bomb and the H-bomb.

He told a dinner meeting of the Peoria Assn. of Commerce:

"Complacency is the Communists comrade."

Dean said the Communists still are counting "on our moral disintegration, disunity among ourselves, any factionalism, any racialism and a capitalist depression every 10 years."

Van Fleet in Tokyo

TOKYO (AP)—Retired Gen. James A. Van Fleet arrived in Tokyo today on an extensive two to three-month survey of military assistance needs for Japan, South Korea and Formosa.

Jane Withers Seeks Divorce From Oilman

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Jane Withers, 28, former child actress, has asked that her pending separate maintenance suit against oilman William Moss, 33, be changed to a divorce action.

Superior Judge Allen T. Lynch granted her request and set a pretrial hearing for June 9. Miss Withers, who has 10 days in which to file the divorce suit, said it will charge mental cruelty.

They were married in 1947 and have three children.

To Set Up New Security Agency

Paper States Justice Department Will Have the Division

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today that Atty. Gen. Brownell will announce soon the establishment of a Division of Internal Security in the Department of Justice.

The new unit, the Times said, "will handle cases involving espionage, treason, sabotage, federal employe loyalty or security risks and subversive activities—in fact, all court proceedings dealing with matters affecting the internal security of the United States and its possessions . . ."

It was understood that the new division would supplement the work of the FBI. Internal security investigations now constitute a substantial part of the workload of the FBI, which will continue to operate as in the past.

Prosecution of cases developed by the FBI, however, would be a function of the new division, it was understood. Presumably its aim would include tightening the enforcement of internal security laws and expediting such cases through the courts.

Son of Ex-Mayor Put on Probation

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Municipal Court has fined two youths, one the adopted son of former Mayor Fletcher Bowron, $50 each for stripping cars.

Barry Bowron, 20, and Robert Garber, 19, who pleaded guilty yesterday, also were placed on probation for one year. The former mayor was in the courtroom when Judge Martin Katz counseled the youths:

Both of you should make amends to society by becoming law-abiding citizens. This is your first offense, and you are fortunate not to get jail sentences. Be careful in the future not to tamper with someone else's automobile."

Charge Man Operated Gambling for Children

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Charles Wesley Readshaw, 53, Kansas City, was fined $20 last night on a charge of operating a gambling game at a children's carnival.

Detective Jack Mullenix said he arrested Readshaw after watching him make bets "from five cents on up" with children throwing baseballs at rag-doll targets. Readshaw was with a professional carnival hired by merchants in a May Day promotion.

Snow Delays TV Work on Vermont Mountain

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—C. P. Hasbrook, president of radio station WCAX, says there will be a slight delay in opening Vermonts first television station here.

Work on the transmitter being built atop Mt. Mansfield is held up by 10-foot snowdrifts.

Ceylon Again OKs Indochina Airlift

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—A government source said today that Ceylon will continue to permit the landing and servicing of troop-carrying planes for Indochina until a cease-fire is agreed on and takes effect there.

He was referring to press reports the U.S. Air Force soon would fly a second batch of French troops to Indochina. The first American airlift last month detoured via Ceylon after India and Burma refused to let the planes fly over their territory.

Ceylons policy on Indochina was outlined last night in Parliament by the government leader in the House, J. R. Jayawardene.

Gov. Gregg Asks Ike to Halt Hearings

CONCORD, N. H. (AP) — Republican Gov. Hugh Gregg has called on President Eisenhower to end "the degenerating nature" of the McCarthy-Army hearings.

"The Republican party is losing prestige and honor due to the prolonged and ineffectual Senate hearings in which Sen. McCarthy and Army Secretary Stevens are playing the leading roles," Gregg said in a telegram to the President.

"Because we look to you as the leader of our party and as a Republican, I respectfully suggest a shift of emphasis by our leadership from the degenerating nature of these hearings to the more constructive issues on which the Republican party was elected to office."

Woman's Pigeon Won't Get Off Telephone Pole

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Harry Esquibels says a pigeon she owns has been perched determinedly atop a telephone pole in Oakland's Sunnymere district since early Monday.

"He escaped when we were trying to get him into the mating cage," she says. We've sent all the best females up to get him, but he just sits and lets them fly by. He hasn't even come down to eat.

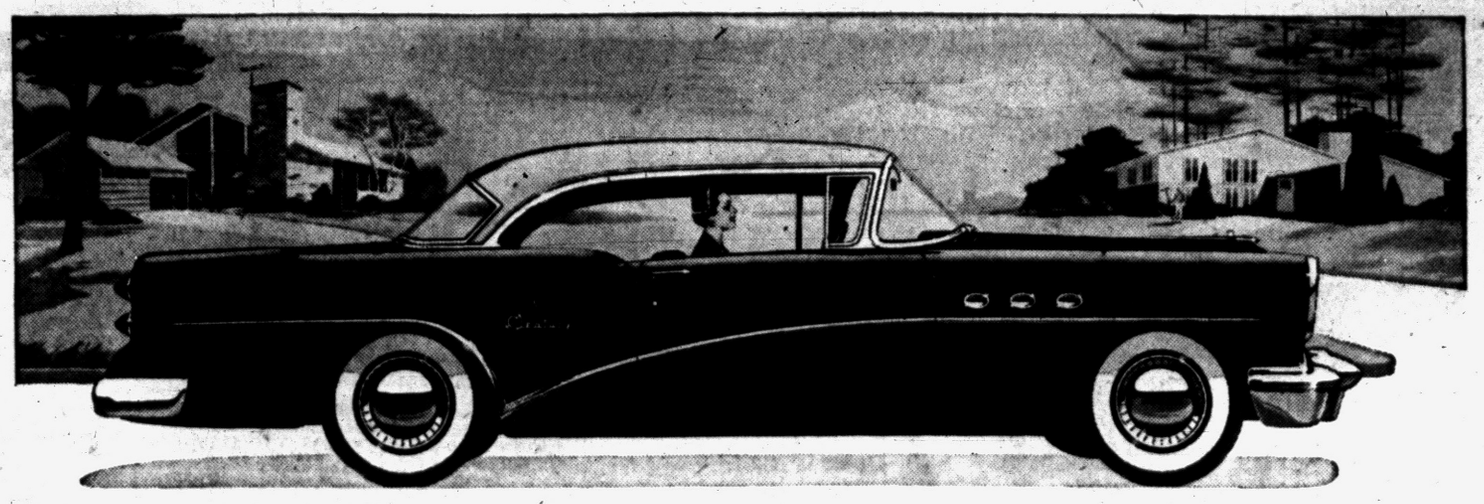

"I don't know what to do."

She asked that the registration number of the reluctant pigeon not be mentioned because: I don't want to hurt his reputation."

Want McCarthy Road Changed to Better Name

AMES, Iowa (AP)—The City Council has received a petition signed by 30 Ames citizens asking that the name of McCarthy Road here be changed "to some other, wholesome name."

Ever See around a Corner?

THE stunning new windshield you find in every 1954 Buick does a lot more than merely keynote the most modern beauty of the times.

It puts more safety in your seeing. It lets you see more of what's coming from the sides—and quicker and easier, too—because the corner posts are pulled 'way back.

This, you realize, is true panoramic visibility—and makes anything else seem as outdated as long skirts.

But you ought to look into what else goes with the dream-car styling of these great new Buicks.

You ought to look into the whip-like performance of true high-compression V8 engines that reach new horsepower highs.

Most of all, you ought to look into the sensational new Buick CENTURY that's taking the country by storm—the great new Buick performer that gives you more horsepower per dollar than any other car in America.

We cordially invite you to come in today or the first thing tomorrow—to see and drive one of these great new Buicks—and judge for yourself that here is the beauty and the buy of the year, by far.

AUTOMOBILE FACTS AND FIGURES

Around L. C. Anderson, Inc., we have definite ideas about selling. We believe that large volume at low profit is better for everyone concerned, our customers and ourselves, than low volume at high profit. We want plenty of customers, year in and year out.

And we believe in letting the facts of our business speak for themselves. We know of no better way to tell our sales and service story.

You won't often see facts of this sort published by an automobile dealer, or any other retail business for that matter. They're usually top drawer information, reserved for the management of the company. We feel differently about it.

Let's put it this way:

Question: Have you decided where to buy your next car?

Answer: In six years—1948 through March, 1954—7,252 decided they would buy from L. C. Anderson, Inc., in Lake Orion.

Question: Have you decided which it will be, a new or used car?

Answer: 3,661 of the 7,252 bought new Chevrolets, Pontiacs and Buicks from us and 3,591 bought our reconditioned used cars.

Question: Have you decided when to buy?

Answer: Of the 7,252 new and used cars 3,989 were purchased in the first six months of the year, for a six-year average of 55%. Our volume is 25% ahead this year over 1953.

You'll get the correct answers to these and many other questions at the Anderson Landmark in Lake Orion. Above all you'll get the best attention and consideration we know how to give.

That's why we rate being called "America's Greatest Small Town Dealership"! Try us when you're ready for your next car, new or used. You'll find us mighty cooperative.

Skippers Favored in I-L Meet

By JACK SAYLOR

Eighth annual Inter-Lakes Conference track meet will be held Thursday afternoon at Jefferson Field, Ferndale.

After winning the championship for the past six years, Walled Lake finds itself in the strange role of underdog. Jack Hackett's Waterford squad looms as the favorite.

Prime reasons for the Skipper's championship hopes are Ray Campbell and Kerry Keating, a pair of brilliant sprinters. Four Inter-Lakes' records are endangered as a result of their presence.

Campbell and Keating took 2nd and 4th, respectively, in the recent Central Michigan Relays. Campbell's best time was 10.1 seconds, while Keating was clocked in 10.2. Inter-Lakes record is 10.3.

The longer sprint will again be 200 yards on the Ferndale track this year, rather than 220 and either or both of the Waterford dash men are capable of topping the 20.5 second-mark established as the conference record for the distance last spring by Keego Harbor's Dennis Singleton.

Keating has broad jumped 20 feet, 9½ inches this season, which is 4½ inches better than the league mark. Campbell also hits close to the 20-foot mark. Waterford could also threaten the 880-yard relay record of 1 minute, 37.4 seconds.

Skipper hurdler Laine Hetherington looms as the man-to-beat in his specialty and Hackett also has standouts in the half-mile (Walt Perry, 2:10), and shot put (Jim Holtom, 44 feet, 3 inches).

Foremost in the east for new Walled Lake coach Don Smith is Capt. Don Hanley, who trailed his record-breaking teammate, Ron Revitzer, in the high hurdles last year; Bob Parent, who won a quarter-mile heat; half-miler Don Pounds; and dash man John Reid.

Vikings will miss Revitzer badly. He set records in both hurdle events last year and tied the pole vault mark. Also out of competition is Singleton, who won the broad jump and 200-yard dash and took 2nd in the 100.

He and his Keego mates now compete only in the Wayne-Oakland League. None of the other Inter-Lakes' members, Southfield, Farmington, Berkley or Van Dyke, appear to be title threats in track.

Southfield, however, does have a potential record breaker in shot putter Bob Quirk. He has bettered the existing I-L mark by nearly a foot with a toss of 48 feet, 4 inches.

Idle Tigers, Still in Second Place, Will Use Ned Garver

DETROIT (AP)— Detroit Tigers lead a charmed, but inactive life. They will try to speed up the tempo today, weather permitting.

For the 3rd time in the young American League season yesterday, Tigers were rained out. This time, they failed to meet the Boston Red Sox.

Tigers expected to send Ned Garver against the Sox today. The Red Sox were expected to use Willard Nixon. But unless someone gets out with a mop at Fenway Park, there may be no game.

By the grace of a Philadelphia win over Cleveland last night 3-2, Tigers are still in sole possession of 2nd place. But Chicago took the opportunity to edge a half game away with an 8-6 win over Washington.

Cleveland and Philadelphia are tied for 3rd 2½ games out of 1st place. The 2nd division, supposedly containing much of the American League power, trails by 4½ games and worse.

Al Kaline, Tigers speedy rookie outfielder, collapsed yesterday from heat exhaustion, as manager Fred Hutchinson tried to keep the Tigers in shape over the lull. Hutchinson took them out to nearby Medford to practice at the Tuft College field.

It was there that Kaline collapsed. He was taken to Lawrence Memorial Hospital in Medford, where he was later released. He was expected to be able to play.

Meanwhile the Red Sox were heartened that heavy hitting Ted Williams might be ready for their upcoming western trip.

Public Hearing on 'Coddling' Starting Today

Service Histories of 10 Athletes to Be Studied by House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Hess (R-Ohio) of a House armed services subcommittee said today "it appears the Army has pleaded guilty" to charges of "coddling" star athletes after inducting them.

Nevertheless, Hess said his subcommittee intends to explore the service histories of Dick Brodowski, Boston Red Sox pitcher, and nine other top athletes in public hearings starting today (1 p.m., EST). The sessions may run three days.

Hess said in an interview that Hank Bauer, New York Yankee outfielder, "is not involved" in the probe, adding "I understand he has quite a favorable record."

Hess' subcommittee admittedly made the mistake of listing Bauer, when he said he meant Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs.

In Chicago, Sauer denied that he was coddled while in service, and he pointed out that he served in the Coast Guard, not the Army.

And Maj. Forest A. Jones, public information officer at Fort Eustis, Va., said it wasn't true that Larry Hennessy, a former LaSalle University basketball star, had been given special consideration there.

* * *

Hess stressed that none of the athletes named is under suspicion, and that the subcommittee is probing only the Army's handling of their assignments. He added that any of the athletes could request to be heard, but present plans are not to ask them to testify.

North Coach Named

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y., May 5 (AP)— Roy Simmons, veteran Syracuse University mentor, Tuesday was named coach of the North squad for the 1954 North-South game of the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Assn. It is scheduled for June 11 in the Freeport (N. Y.) Municipal Stadium.

Dykes Quiets Rumor Sending Pitcher to NY

Rates Young Hurling Star in Class With Lyons, Shantz

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Dykes, the cigar-puffing manager of the Baltimore Orioles, doesn't claim his team is a pennant threat, but he said today he wants two things understood:

1. Don't confuse the current Orioles with the St. Louis Browns of last year.

2. Young Bob Turley is not on the market.

"No, sir," said Jimmy, the one-time firebrand who has mellowed with the years. "This club should not be confused with anything that even resembled the Browns. We're in seventh place, all right, but our pitchers have gone all the way in 10 of our 14 games.

"But we're not hitting and you can't expect the pitching staff to carry the club through the season. We've scored only 30 runs in 14 games."

That's far from sensational, but Dykes has been thinking things over and he's come to the conclusion that perhaps the pitchers have the upper hand all around.

"Nowadays you've got to call the American League a pitchers' league," he observed. "I'd say the National League has much more power than the American. Look at our staff. We've had some wonderful pitching, but we haven't been able to score.

"We'll improve, though. And, get this. We'll go out and get hitters if necessary since the Baltimore people have money for just such purposes and won't hesitate to spend it, even for bonus players."

"That rumor that's been going around that we're going to trade Turley to the New York Yankees isn't true," he frowned. "Why, if we sent him to the Yanks, we'd all have to get out of Baltimore. But we're staying and he's staying."

"Turley is probably the only pitcher in the league who can keep overpowering batters with strictly a fast ball. His fast one is alive. With his delivery he reminds me a lot of Red Ruffing in his prime.

"I've managed some pretty good pitchers—the likes of Ted Lyons and Bobby Shantz—and Bob belongs in the same class. He's still learning and once he gets the experience he'll be tops."

Bucs Deny That Gordon, Rice Deals Are Pending

PITTSBURGH, May 5 (AP)—General Manager Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday denied reports that third baseman Sid Gordon has been placed on the waiver list and that outfielder Hal Rice is on the auction block.

Rickey said:

"I have no deals pending of any kind, not any. Something might come up before May 13, but I have nothing doing now."

Hole-in-Nothing!

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The shot Mrs. Hilda Rogers made on the 12th hole at Recreation Park's Golf Course yesterday was recorded as a hole in nothing.

Playing in a handicap tournament, Mrs. Rogers had a one-stroke handicap on the 162-yard hole. Her tee shot rolled into the cup for what, without the handicap, would have been a hole-in-one.

Court Action Is Threatened to Stop Title Bout

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—John De John, manager of Carmen Basilio, has threatened court action to prevent the Johnny Saxton-Kid Gavilan welterweight title bout scheduled for late June or July in Philadelphia.

In a telegram last night to New York State, Pennsylvania and National athletic officials, De John complained that Basilio, rated by ring magazine and the National Boxing Assn. as the No. 1 welterweight contender, was being "sidetracked."

Birds Reported Returning North Earlier Than Usual

This week's unseasonably cool weather probably has come as a disagreeable surprise to the thousands of birds returning from their southen migatory flights.

Dr. Richard E. Olsen of 3325 Franklin Road reports that he has observed most birds returning to his sanctuary earlier than usual.

He has seen 76 different species thus far, and hopes to sight 120 by the end of the year. Ordinarily, he says, he would expect to have seen only 65 species this early.

Dr. Olsen has been operating his bird sanctuary since 1947. He has been adding trees and has built a pond, and five feeding stations are in operation during the winter months.

Wildlife apparently flourishes in the area of Dr. Olsen's residence. A neighbor, Earl Treadwell, found an unusually large softshell turtle, measuring about two feet in length, on his property.

Albion Thinclads Swamp Hillsdale in Dual Meet

ALBION (AP)—Albion's trackmen, competing so hard that three of them had to share two 1st places, outclassed Hillsdale College 82½-43½ yesterday for their 6th straight dual meet win.

Albion's Jim Chapman won the two-mile in 10:24.2. Then he tied with teammate Dick Lawson for 1st in the mile. Lawson then tied for 1st in the half-mile with Albion's Dick Cooley.

Derby Rider Suspended

LOUISVILLE, Ky. May 5 (AP)—The board of stewards at Churchill Downs announced Monday the suspension for rough riding of Howard Craig, jockey on Timely Tip in Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

The suspension is for 20 days, beginning tomorrow.

Chiefs' 9 Adds Fourth Straight Diamond Victory

Blanks 'Jacks Behind 3-Hit Pitching Chore by Marv Caswell

Pontiac High's baseball team won its 4th straight victory here yesterday, blanking Saginaw Arthur Hill 2-0 behind the 3-hit pitching of Marv Caswell.

Caswell struck out 15 batters and gave up only three scattered singles. Chiefs collected four hits, including a triple by Colle Hunt and a double by Caswell.

Only nine Arthur Hill men got on base, and eight of them were left stranded. Two of the nine advanced as far as 3rd.

Pontiac scored its runs in the opening inning. Dick Slade went to 1st base on an infield error, Walt Poe drew a base on balls and Caswell drove in Slade with a double. Daniels walked to load the bases, and Poe raced in with the 2nd run on a wild pitch.

"That rumor that's been going around that we're going to trade Turley to the New York Yankees isn't true," he frowned. "Why, if we sent him to the Yanks, we'd all have to get out of Baltimore. But we're staying and he's staying."

That's highly understandable. The 23-year-old speedballer is leading the majors in strikeouts with 32 in 27 innings.

"Turley is probably the only pitcher in the league who can keep overpowering batters with strictly a fast ball. His fast one is alive. With his delivery he reminds me a lot of Red Ruffing in his prime.

"I've managed some pretty good pitchers—the likes of Ted Lyons and Bobby Shantz—and Bob belongs in the same class. He's still learning and once he gets the experience he'll be tops."

Celebration Planned

30 Years Gone Since Grantland Rice Labeled Irish Backfield '4 Horsemen'

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — This coming fall will bring the 30th anniversary of the christening of the most famous football backfield in the history of the game, the Four Horsemen of Notre Dame.

It doesn't seem that long, but the beloved Grantland Rice recalls that it was on a cold, murky day in 1924 that he watched the peerless quartet of Harry Stuhldreher, Elmer Layden, Jim Crowley and Don Miller rip an Army team apart here and proceeded to immortalize them on his gifted typewriter.

Plans are being laid to celebrate the event fittingly when the Irish team invades Pittsburgh to play the Panthers next winter. Stuhldreher, now a steel company executive in that city, will be the host. Terry Brennan, the new coach of Notre Dame, will only be invited to look on and listen, as he had not been born when the Horsemen rode.

Three of the famous foursome—all except Miller, who had been caught aloft in a storm and couldn't make it — sat at a table here the other day and batted around the days of their glory together. All are prosperous and successful men today, with a total of 16 children between them. It was good to hear them express their gratitude to Rice.

* * *

"Granny," said Layden, "no one would remember us today if it hadn't been for you. We would just have been another good backfield."

For the benefit of those who came in late, the Notre Dame teams on which the Horsemen played in 1922-3-4 set an over-all record of 27 victories, 2 losses and 1 tie. Both losses were to Nebraska.

Problem Unsolved

Olympic Horse Event Still Puzzles Officials

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—The executive council of the International Olympic Committee went into the final session of its three-day meeting today with the problem of the equestrian events of the 1956 games still unsolved.

Otherwise, all seemed shipshape in Australia and Ernest Holt, who is handling most of the arrangements for Australia, told the committee he was confident the path would be cleared for Melbourne to stage the games.

All preparations are on schedule in Melbourne, he told the council, which will meet with the entire committee in Athens next week to iron out all the remaining problems.

Holt indicated the equestrian competition would pose the only serious problem and even he could not provide an answer.

The Australian government has a strict ban against importing horses until after a six-month quarantine in Britain or New Zealand and so far has shown no disposition to relax the rules.

"If the laws aren't changed, Australia will have to prepare for the equestrian events provided entries are received from at least six nations for each of the three events—dressage, endurance and show jumping," Holt said.

* * *

Most observers here agreed that Holt's statement would solve no problems because there is bound to be six nations entered and the government is determined not to relax the laws.

Cranes, Vikings Win on Track

COUNTY TRACK
Flint Northern 80½, Pontiac 49½
Cranbrook 65, Romeo 44
Walled Lake 72, Southfield 37

Romeo's individual brilliance was not enough to offset Cranbrook depth Tuesday as the Cranes took a 65-44 track victory at Cranbrook.

Nineteen boys scored points for the Birmingham school, while only five were point-winners for Romeo. Cranes piled up 2nds and 3rds and won both relays as well as the quarter, half-mile and mile runs.

Bernie Carter, Romeo's great little sprinter, won both dashes and added the broad jump with a 20 foot, 6½ leap. Dick Marshall won both hurdle events, Jim Lothery won the shot and tied for 1st with teammate Bob Stewart in the high jump.

Stewart also was 2nd in the pole vault and Jack Wiggins was 2nd in the mile.

COUNTY BASEBALL
Pontiac 2, Arthur Hill 0
OL St. Mary 9, St. Freds 6
Waterford 3, Berkley 1
Roseville 8, Madison 0
Clawson 7, Fitzgerald 1

Waterford pulled into a 1st place tie with Berkley in the Inter-Lakes Conference baseball race Tuesday by beating the Bears, 3-1, behind the 3-hit hurling of sophomore Jerry Kruskie.

Kruskie fanned seven in besting Bob Blackwell, who also yielded only three hits, but was hurt by his own wildness.

Skipper scored in the 1st when Steve Ryeson walked, advanced on two wild pitches and scored on an infield out. In the 3rd, Bill Gard singled and Ryeson followed with a bunt single.

Blackwell threw the ball into right field, Gard scoring and Ryeson tallied a moment later on Bill Wood's safety. Two singles and a wild pitch gave Berkley its run in the 5th.

Waterford and Berkley now share the lead with 3-1 records. The day's other two Inter-Lakes games were postponed due to the cold.

Clawson and Roseville stayed knotted for the Oakland-B lead with easy victories while Troy and Avondale did not play. Roseville got shutout pitching from Mike Hutzman and blanked Madison, 8-0, to spoil the Eagles' 1st game under their lights.

Clawson whipped Fitzgerald, 7-1. Roseville and Clawson each have three straight wins.

New York Race Czar Hopes to Avoid Strike

YONKERS, N. Y., May 5 (AP)—George Monaghan, czar of New York harness racing, met yesterday with representatives of the Yonkers Raceway and the Standardbred Owners Assn. in an effort to head off a strike scheduled for Thursday at Yonkers.

None of the three parties reported any progress.

Monaghan said he had asked both sides to meet with him again. He added that any further statement from him now might prejudice the proceedings.

Swiss Dedicate Stadium, Hope for Olympic Bid

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, May 5 (AP)—Lausanne's new Olympic Stadium with a capacity of 84,000 was dedicated here Tuesday with the executive council of the International Olympic Committee as honored guests.

The stadium will be used for the world soccer championships this summer and to bolster Lausanne's bid for the 1960 Olympics.

The structure was completely rebuilt from the old Lausanne soccer stadium at a cost of $1,700,000.

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK — I recall, looking back to last winter at Santa Anita, the tremendous pride Andy Crevolin had in Determine, the winner of this year's Kentucky Derby.

"He's small," Andy would tell you, "but of his 870 pounds at least 800 is heart. He's the gamest horse I ever saw. As long as there is a horse ahead of him in a race you can see the determined effort he makes to pass him. I guess we got the right name in 'Determine'."

* * *

"Do you think," I asked Andy at the time, "that he's big enough to be a Derby candidate—I mean a real one?" "I should say he is a real candidate," was Andy's reply. "Just watch him run while you are here."

I watched Determine run and win three or four races during the winter season in California. As I recall it, he always had to come from behind in the stretch. He won nothing easily—but he always won.

Determine had won six races until Hasty Road just nailed him with a 1.35 mile. And Native Dancer can't run a mile that fast. Maybe Crevolin now will point Determine for Hollywood Park's big season which is on through June—Hollywood also has its $100,000 race.

Andy is a good judge of fast horses for he has many others in his stable, including Imbros, about as fast a miler as I ever saw. I saw Imbros break two world's records in succession at Santa Anita last winter—one being a 7-furlong run in 1.20—two-fifths of a second off the old mark.

Getting back to Determine, all through the winter Crevolin followed him around as if he were one of his puppies. His faith in the little thoroughbred was amazing. He laughed one day when someone told him that Calumet's crack runner, Duke's Lea, would win the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby.

"Nobody's going to beat Determine," Andy said. "He's too game."

Yet Andy didn't spare his horse. He had run him in stake races at Santa Anita, again at Keeneland and then the Derby on Saturday.

"Determine is small," Crevolin would say, "but the odd part is that he loves to run and race. He gives you the idea that he needs work.

UD Routs Rocket 9 as Sparrow Stars

TOLEDO, O. (UP)—University of Detroit baseball team, reaping some glory against a favorite foe, clobbered Toledo Tuesday, 28-4.

Titans bunched 14 runs in the seventh inning. Guy Sparrow (of Pontiac) drove home five of the markers with a bases loaded double and a two-run single.

It was the 2nd straight year that Detroit has torn the Toledo nine apart. Detroit trounced the Rockets 28-8 in 1953.

13-Year-Old Scores Ace at Stonycroft

Dick, who lives at 115 E. Square Lake road, looped a 5-iron shot over the pond on the 140-yard 9th hole. The ball bounced twice and plopped into the hole. A golfer for only two years, young Mr. Kast was so excited, his 15-year-old brother, Ed, had to tell of the feat.

Marciano, Charles Title Bout Will Go on Radio

NEW YORK, May 4 (AP) — The heavyweight title bout between champion Rocky Marciano and Ezzard Charles at Yankee Stadium, June 17, will be radio broadcast by the American Broadcasting Company.

President Jim Norris of the international Boxing Club made the announcement today. The bout will not be telecast into the homes but will be sent over a closed circuit into theaters across the country.

City Softball Leagues' Final Meeting Set

Final men's softball managers' meeting is set for Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's office.

All managers of men's softball teams considering entry in the Parks and Recreation Class A and Class B softball leagues should attend, or be represented at this meeting. Only teams represented at this final meeting will be entered in league schedules.

To date there is only one team enrolled in Class A. At least three more teams are needed for a Class "A" league to materialize. In Class "B" there are nine teams fairly definite.

Final league plans, schedules, contracts and rules will be discussed at the meeting.

Surgery on Campanella's Wrist Is Termed Success

The most valuable player in the National League last year went under the knife yesterday rather than postpone the operation one day. Herbert Fett, orthopedic surgeon at the hospital, performed the surgery to remove a bone chip.

Dr. Fett told Campanella he would be back in action in about three-and-a-half weeks.

"The doctor told us not to be surprised if Campy is back even before that time," said Brook Vice-Buzzy Bavasi. "There's no question that we're going to miss him. But I'm glad he consented to the operation. It was our desire that he submit to surgery before this, but you can't force anyone to go under the knife."

Campanella, even until the last minute, was hesitant. Just before was X-rayed, the catcher grumbled:

"A few good base hits and I wouldn't have given this operation a thought."

Campanella will rest for the next week and rejoin the Brooks when they get to Ebbets Field next Wednesday. Then he will be able to engage in running workouts to keep his weight down.

PHS Loses 1st Dual Test in Nine Years

By BILL MARTIN

A 9-year undefeated outdoor dual meet streak came to an end for Pontiac High's track team here yesterday, when defending state champion Flint Northern defeated the Chiefs, 59½-49½.

Vikings swept nine 1st places in handing Pontiac its 1st loss in outdoor dual competition since a 1-point defeat by Ann Arbor in 1946. Five Wisner Field records were broken and another new mark established in the meet.

Junior hurdler Willie Wilson accounted for two of Pontiac's 1st places and was involved in two of the six new records. He won the high hurdles in 16.1 to shave a tenth of a second off the former standard, set by Hamtramck's Niemczak in 1950.

Wilson and Ed Ringgold finished in a dead heat in the 180-yard low hurdles in the excellent time of 20.1 seconds to post a new school mark and establish a field record. It was the 1st time the event had been run at 180 yards at Wisner Field.

Pontiac's other two 1sts were scored in the half-mile by John James and the pole vault, with George Thrasher and Steve Sekulich trying for 1st at 10 feet.

Chief lost expected points in the high jump when Ringgold, who has twice cleared six feet this season, was eliminated at five feet four inches. Northern's Norm Bryant won the event at 5-6.

Northern runners broke existing field records in the 220, the quarter-mile and both relay events. Art Johnson's 23.7 clocking in the 220 cut a tenth of a second off the mark set by Pontiac's great Alonzo Harris in 1952.

The versatile Johnson also scored 1sts in the century and broad jump and anchored the half-mile relay team.

Meet served as a final tuneup for both teams before next Saturday's annual Saginaw Valley Conference test at Saginaw.

220-yard dash—Johnson (N) 1st; Lansdowne (N) 2nd; Watkins (P) 3rd. Time 22.7 seconds (new record—old mark 22.8, set by Alonzo Harris, Pontiac, 1952).

Quarter mile—Logan (N) 1st; Shorter (P) 2nd; Gracey (P) 3rd. Time 53.9 seconds. (New record—old mark 54.5, set by McCrea, Hamtramck, 1954).

Mile—Garvins (N) 1st; Watson (P) 2nd; Douglas (P) 3rd. Time 4 minutes 52.5 seconds.

180-yard low hurdles—Wilson (P) and Ringgold (P), tied for 1st; Thompson (N) 3rd. Time 20.1 seconds. (New distance for field, establishes record. New school record—old mark 20.3, set by Wilson in 1954).

High jump—Bryant (N) 1st; Cagle (P) 2nd; Taylor (P) and Brooks (P) tied for 3rd. Height 5 feet 6 inches.

Pole vault—Thrasher (P) and Sekulich (P) tied for 1st; Boulton (N) and Munger (P) tied for 3rd. Height 10 feet.

Medley relay—Northern (Rolfe-Fields-Pool-Copeland) 1st. Time 3 minutes 39.1 seconds. (New record—old mark 3:42.4, set by Pontiac in 1954).

Half-mile relay—Northern (Lansdowne-Bryant-Logan-Johnson) 1st. Time 1 minute 36.2 seconds. (New record—old mark 1:36.6, set by Pontiac in 1952).

Spartans Hold Football Clinic for Three Days

More Than 600 Prep, College Mentors Will Attend Sessions

EAST LANSING (AP) — Football lessons from the Rose Bowl winner will be the attraction at the three-day Michigan State College football clinic opening Thursday on the MSC campus.

Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty, Red Sanders of UCLA and Bud Wilkinson, who took his Oklahoma team to the Sugar bowl, will head the faculty.

More than 600 high school and college coaches, mostly from Michigan, are expected to attend.

Registration Thursday will be followed by an evening dinner with Biggie Munn, who is moving up to MSC athletic director, the principal speaker.

Football lectures and team demonstrations will occupy all of Friday and Saturday morning.

Annual green and white intersquad game, windup of spring practice, will be staged Saturday afternoon in Macklin Stadium.

The "green" squad will have the 1st and 2nd practice teams to go against the 2nd and 4th "white" football candidates.

Johnson, Mims Tilt Set for TV Showing

BALTIMORE (AP) — George Johnson, latest knockout sensation, comes up tonight against Holly Mims, who has never been stopped, in a scheduled 10-round fight to be televised nationally (10 p.m., EDT, CBS).

Johnson has won 17 straight fights and 21 of his 27 victims have failed to last the limit. He has lost only three times, the last in February of 1952.

Mims is a cagey, experienced fighter with 34 victories, 11 losses and four draws. He is ranked sixth among the middleweights and is expected to enter the ring a 6-5 favorite.

Pennsylvania Prep Nine Extends Streak to 47

POTTSTOWN, Pa., May 5 (AP) — Pottstown High School's baseball team Tuesday had a 47-game winning streak, believed to be a national scholastic record.

It defeated Downingtown 15-4 Monday to top the 46-game streak of Baldwinville, N. Y., High School, compiled from 1946 to 1950. A plaque at the baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., commemorates the Baldwinville feat.

Gets New Olds, Too!

147-Pound Cheese Sandwich Among Gifts Presented Retiring Ralph Young

Ralph H. Young, who was given a nine foot long 147½ pound ham and cheese sandwich to keep growing on last night.

Gov. Williams has proclaimed it "Ralph H. Young day" in honor of the roly-poly Michigan State athletic director retiring this June after 30 years with the college.

Ralph sat in an easy chair on the stage while some 800 friends revived memories of his years with Michigan State and his previous experiences at Illinois, Washington and Jefferson, DePaul, Michigan, and Kalamazoo College.

Gifts and honors included:

A Ralph Young scholarship, the christening of the MSC track field in his name, plaques by the score, the kingsize sandwich, a blanket, a ring, a diamond-studded wristwatch for Mrs. Young, various life memberships, a poem by Edgar A. Guest, and a green and white air conditioned 1954 Oldsmobile sedan.

The theme was "this is your life." Ralph, with a ready wit, carried the show.

Excerpts:

Ralph recalled that Alonzo Stagg, the then Illinois coach, would bawl out a player with the mild curse of "Jackass"—his worst words.

"I was a double jackass because I played both ways," he said. "It wasn't illegal then."

The minister who married him, Wilfred Smith, of the Chicago Tribune who played under Young at DePaul and a host of other former associates and friends were presented as mystery voices. Ralph identified each one.

An old time associate at the college gave a formal and solemn farewell. "I'll be around at meal time" Ralph promised.

As the evening ended, Ralph was host at a private buffet dinner. There was roast beef, turkey and ham. He was carving.

Champion-Studded Field Waits Start at Ardmore

The third annual tournament brought out a field of 240 players with 191 participating in a qualifying round yesterday.

Charles (Chuck) Klein of San Antonio, Tex., and Leon Pounders, Sarasota, Fla., led qualifiers with one-under-par 69s. Top amateurs were L. A. Young, Tulsa, Oklahoma champion, and Allan Pease, Oklahoma City, with 73s. A score of 80 was good enough to get into the championship round.

The extravaganza, listed by the co-sponsoring Professional Golfers Assn. as a $15,000 events, the second on the summer tour, has gained stature in the golfing universe because of a unique bonus plan.

This provides $15 for each birdie, $25 for a chip-in, $500 for an eagle and $500 for the day's best score.

Then there is a special award of $2,500 for a hole in one. But if, after three days of play, no player is lucky enough to stroke an ace, this will be added to the official prize money.

Stan Musial's Big Bat in Hall of Fame

ST. LOUIS, May 5 (AP)—The bat with which Stan Musial hit five home runs Sunday will go into baseball's Hall of Fame Museum.

Keener told Stan he wouldn't insist on the donation—Musial might have some more home runs in the bat, but the St. Louis Cardinal outfielder said, "I have lots of bats."

Ted Williams Weighs Return

The Sox big belter was scheduled to talk with Manager Lou Boudreau on whether he would make the western trip with the club starting Monday.

Trainer Jack Fadden removed the last three stitches in Williams' shoulder yesterday, then pronounced it as sturdy as it was before he broke his collarbone in spring training March 1.

Price Is Unanimous Victor Over Parker

DETROIT—Chuck Price, a 150-pound Detroit boxer with a heavy right hand, followed elusive Gene Parker for four rounds before forcing the issues in an 8-round feature event last night at Motor City Arena.

It was the 2nd time in two weeks that Price and Parker had met over the statewide televison hookup. Two weeks ago Parker won. This time Price won.

Price was behind in the 1st four rounds. But in the 5th he moved in and didn't come out until he had a unanimous decision.

Brennan Better Prepared Than Rockne, Leahy

Many Catholic Schools Quit Football, Players Head for Notre Dame

NEW YORK (INS)—Take it from Jim Crowley, one of the famous Four Horsemen of Notre Dame, Terry Brennan, the youthful and new N.D. football coach, is better prepared for a tough season than the late immortal Knute Rockne or Frank Leahy every were.

"No, I'm not kidding," said the wittiest of the Horsemen. "Look at it this way. Many of the Catholic colleges in the country who used to have great teams have either abandoned or curtailed football in recent years, are not drawing their usual quota of football stars.

"So where are they going? Why, naturally to Notre Dame.

"That means Notre Dame will have a greater quota than ever from which to draw its stars. Boys who might normally have gone to any Jesuit college are now going to wind up at Notre Dame."

This is an opinion which brings no dissent from the three other of the Four Horsemen.

Eaglets Hand Rams Second League Loss

St. Frederick dropped its 2nd straight Suburban Catholic League baseball loss yesterday, bowing to St. Mary at Orchard Lake, 9-6.

Eaglets overcame a 5-3 deficit with a 5-run outburst in the 5th inning. A home run by Dan Nebus, a triple by Ed Balazy, doubles by Jim Choike and pitcher Pete Ziebron and two errors produced the five runs.

Ziebron, who relieved OL start-starter Szwarc in the 4th, was given credit for the victory.

Rifle Match Ends Gallery Loop Year

Southeastern Gallery Rifle round-up match, held last weekend at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, closed the league indoor gallery season until next fall.

A total of 295 shooters competed in the league during the past season, representing the largest number of competitors since the league started. Round-up shoot drew 131 entries.

G. Ouelette of Windsor was high shooter in the match with a 195 score, while Lin Bush of Multi-Lakes was 2nd with 193. Maggie Guy, Detroit Edison, led women with 192.

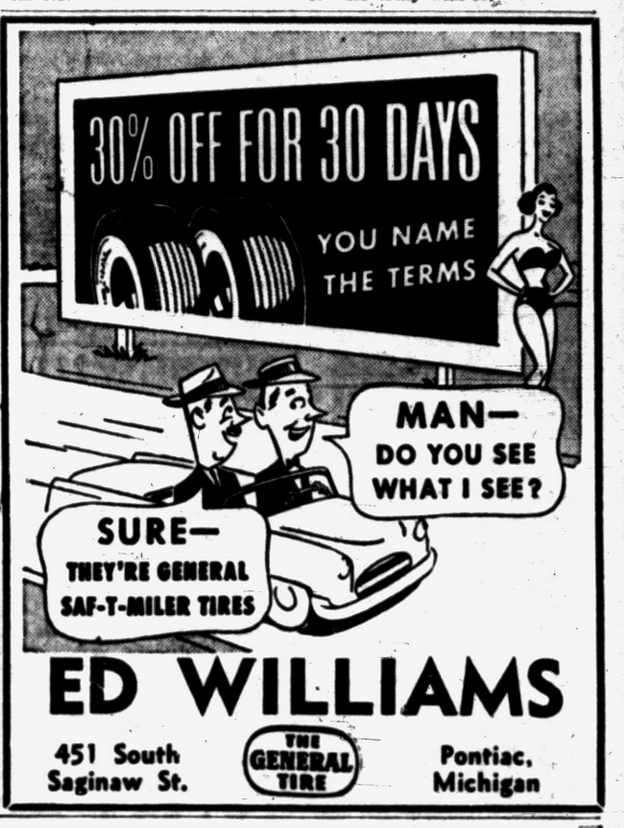

League will meet soon to discuss next fall's awards and schedules.

Waterford, Clarkston Victors on Links

Waterford and Clarkston High School golfers ignored the cold weather Tuesday afternoon to win matches against Van Dyke and Holly, respectively.

Skippers defeated their Inter-Lakes rival, 183-223, over the Pontiac Country Club course. Jack Reynolds took medal honors with a 39. John Wettlaufer followed with 45.

Bill Shanks and Ed Dubats each fired 45s as Clarkston out-shot Holly 197-222. Dave Dunlap had 48 for the Wolves, while Ken Burgess was low for Holly with 50.

Skin Diving Called Fastest Growing Sport in U.S., With Over Million Fans

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — The fastest growing sport in the country, we are solemnly informed, is skin diving. At the end of World War II there were no more than 500 of the wet fraternity, counting some of them twice, and now there are more than a million, with the number growing daily.

Skin divers, as the name implies, are men and women who put on bathing suits and goggles and swim fins to kick with and go helling down into deep water. Some of them spear fish while they are down there, but many just like to look around and see how the other fish live. Devotees of the new craze claim there's nothing like it for pure pleasure.

At the most recent count there were more than 400 skin-diving clubs in this country alone, all of them affiliated with the recently formed International Underwater Spearfishing Assn., which is quartered at Helms Hall in Los Angeles. California leads the states with some 100,000 of the human submarines and Florida is second with about 40,000.

Manufacturers of equipment for the sport looked up suddenly and found they had a bonanza. It is estimated that 40 million dollars was spent in this country last year for breathing tubes, masks, swim fins, "lungs," photographic equipment and spear guns.

There are, it seems, two distinct schools of skin diving. In the first stage the embryo addict stays fairly near the surface and contents himself with looking at the sights. This is described as invigorating and habit forming.

When the tyro gets enough of that and is firmly hooked, he straps a cylinder of compressed air or oxygen on his back and begins going deep, down among the big bull fish.

Missouri Hunter Shoots Goose, Banded in '36

LANSING — A Canada goose, banded on the Muskegon River marshes in April, 1936, was shot December 16, 1953 near Commerce, Missouri, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service reports.

Band number A-718391-09 was found on the bird's leg.

The bird was banded by Willard Ferguson of the state conservation department and the kill was reported by Mrs. Margaret W. Chalmers of Eureka, Missouri.

Rainbow Trout Fishermen Here Report Union Lake Producing Good Catches

By JACK PATTERSON

Knew it was too early to bring the snowshoes in off the back porch even though our wife has been after us to do it for three months. Yesterday we got around to it and look what happened. Snow flurries. Whether or not it's due to the weather, area fishing particularly for bluegills and pike hasn't been up to snuff. But local rainbow fishing has been somewhat better. And personally we can't see why anyone should worry about panfish when there are trout to be caught.

PATTERSON

Be that as it may, there is good rainbow water close at hand. Norm and Doris Danielson of Union Lake report that some good ones are being taken there, although knowledge of the lake is a big help to the successful fisherman.

Lake Angelus is producing nicely, according to Ken Strickland, but being a private lake it can't be fished without permission. It's of interest to note, however, that rainbows taken in Lake Angelus are currently coming from shallow water—four feet or less—a bit of information that can be applied to open lakes.

Some of the better open lakes are Maceday, Orchard, Square and Deer. Chances are that fishermen spending any great amount of time after rainbows without much success are fishing too deep. Later in the season, when surface waters are warm the fish will be found in the deeper reaches and spring holes, but right now they're apt to be roaming the shallows.

If the choice were ours, then, we'd stick to the shallows for the time being, with a squirrel tail streamer, or a worm, depending upon whom or what we professed to be at the moment, and put off the deep trolling until warmer weather.

George Wasserberger, 91 Illinois, reports that the rainbows in the Bald Mountain trout pond are every bit as choosy as their wilder brethren in the north. Only recommendation is to keep trying. You know the fish are there.

Ran into Ben Hardesty the other day, just back from a weekend of fishing—the first he's done since he returned from Chile. Ben floated the Au Sable's main stream and reports that while he didn't take any whoppers comparable to the one's that infest the cold Chilean lakes, he caught more brooks than he knew what to do with, and some very decent browns.

'Big Fish Derby' Wide Open for County Anglers

Early Season Activity, Slowed by Weather, Is Expected to Rise Soon

After Tuesday's snowstorm, fishermen will be hard to convince that really good angling weather is near. But it's certain the cold, disagreeable kind dispensed the last few days can't last much longer. And when those balmy days come along, most any time now, activity on Oakland county's lakes will receive a big boost.

Up to now things have been rather slow on the fishing front. Entries in the 1954 Pontiac Press have been hit by the weather. The race for top awards in the 3-way contest is wide open. It will take on added interest, too, when the black bass season opens June 19. Competition now is under way in the pike and bluegill divisions.

Entries will be received from any full-time Oakland county residents, and these should be brought to the Pontiac Press sports department between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. weekdays, except that on Saturdays they may not be brought in after 12 o'clock noon. None will be taken Sundays.

Leon Johnston, 80 Parkhurst street, Pontiac, and James Coan, 2979 West Maple, Milford, entered identical fish. Johnston's 'gill was caught June 28 in Elizabeth lake, while Coan's prize was hooked in Child's lake, July 24. Each weighed 1 pound 6 ounces.

George A. Bubnes, 19 South Paddock, Pontiac, took the honors in the pike division with a 10 pound 9 ounce northern, landed in Cross lake June 9.

A 6 pound 15 ounce largemouth won bass honors. It was brought in by Arnold Richards of Walled Lake, July 11. The lunker was snagged in Lower Straits lake.

It's almost a certainty that new "champions" will be listed this year. Anglers who repeat in this contest have been few, and very, very far between!

Controlled Smelt Dips Are Becoming Popular

By MORT NEFF

The casual form of smelt dipping enjoyed by thousands for many years, may soon be overshadowed by controlled dips. The Grand Daddy' of controlled dips was the one on Cold Creek near Beulah . . . since abandoned. The only controlled dip now operating at peak is held yearly at the little town of Advance across the lake from Boyne City. Here, on the banks of Porter Creek, four regular nightly dips are held. A visit to enjoy the fun is a week-end well spent in Michigan outdoors.

NEFF

On the night your reporter covered the event a crowd of 2,300 were lined behind a Chamber-of-Commerce-installed rope barricade. It was dark, pitch dark, and folks were grouping and jockeying for better positions.

Then, as the clock struck ten, there was light! A tiny string of naked electric bulbs hanging over the peaceful stream was turned on and bedlam reigned supreme. The women shouted encouragement to their mates as the crowd charged down the banks toward the water with one collective thought . . . death to the smelt!

Tubs were rapidly filled and pails were soon overflowing as midstream dippers, shoulder to shoulder, lifted their dripping catches high in the air and swung them shoreward.

There was more than enough to go around and, after fifteen busy minutes, the overhead lights blinked once as a signal for dippers to leave the stream. Soon the scene was plunged in darkness and the surviving smelt were on their own once more. Two hours hence, under the same set of ground rules, the dip would be repeated. Truly a wonderful time was had by all in this sensible way to dip smelt.

Church League Meets

All churches interested in playing in the Church Softball League are requested to have a representative at the Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church, Cadillac at Oakland Ave. Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Notre Dame's last bowl game was a 27-10 win over Stanford in 1925.

Boys' Club to Promote Heavy Spring Program

Pontiac Boys' Club spring physical education program, which includes formation of 24 baseball teams, is now under way.

During the next three weeks, a clinic will be held daily at 6:30 p. m. and from 1-4 p. m. on Saturdays at the Eastern Junior High playground. All fundamentals of baseball are covered in the sessions.

Boys will be observed and rated during the 3-week period and then placed on intramural league teams. Outstanding players will be placed on varsity teams which will compete in the City Recreation Junior Leagues.

Regular gymnasium program and other activities will continue to function.

Most of Deer Poll Cards Are Returned

LANSING—About 93 per cent of the post cards mailed to firearm hunters in the conservation department's annual poll of deer information have been returned, game workers report.

Meanwhile, archery hunters are close on the heels of firearm operators. Game workers sent cards to 1792 bowmen in a special archery survey and to date 87 per cent have been returned.

Convictions Reported in 148 Game Violations

LANSING — Reports of convictions of 148 conservation law violations were received here last week, the conservation department notes.

Fishing without a license and taking smelt with a seine were the two most common causes of trouble for violators.

The unusually large list was attributed to pre-trout season activity in the field. Generally, during March and early April, about 40 violators a week were arrested.

Take Part in Trail Ride

Sue and Johnny Braid, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Braid of [redacted] were among 46 who participated in the Justin Morgan Horse Association's 1st 1954 trail ride party at Kensington Park over the weekend.

Prior to the ride, the group was treated to breakfast by the Barth Zeunen's of Clarion Farms, Clarkston.

'Road' Losses of Wildlife Up in Spring

LANSING — Now that winter is about over and wildlife and humans are on the go again, the time has come to give birds and animals chance to move off the highways.

Also, now that nesting seasons are in the offing, the death of one adult bit of wildlife also means the loss of all its youngsters.

Braves Win, Despite Blizzard

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

When you're in last place and you've got a team in town you think you can beat, you play the game even if it snows.

That seems to be the current theory in Milwaukee. The Braves, who have had a rough time this spring, beat Pittsburgh 6-1 last night in a game interrupted in the sixth inning by a miniature blizzard.

The victory pulled the Braves out of last and dropped the Pirates to the bottom.

Almost every spring one or more of the major league games are postponed because of snow. But the records fail to show one that was started, halted by a snowstorm and then resumed.

Although the temperature was within five degress of freezing at game time, 12,383 of the Milwaukee faithful paid their way into the park and had such a good time during the snow that they serenaded the chilled players with "Jingle Bells."

The wintry blasts that couldn't halt the action in Milwaukee knocked three other games from yesterday's schedule and rain washed out a fourth.

In games that were played the Chicago White Sox increased their American League lead to a game and a half over Detroit by whipping Washington 8-6, Bob Trice won his fourth straight as Philadelphia shaded Cleveland 3-2 and the Philadelphia Phillies whipped St.Louis 14-10 in 11 innings.

The Phils-Cardinals struggle ran 4 hours 31 minutes, finished up in the early hours of this morning and saw a major league record set for the total number of pitchers.

The two clubs tossed 15 assorted pitchers into the marathon, starting with two of the league's best—Harvey Haddix and Robin Roberts—and winding up with Hal White for the Cards and Murry Dickson for the Phils.

Dickson got the credit, his fourth success against one loss since moving to the Phils from the Pirates. Ellis Deal, seventh of the record-tying eight St. Louis pitchers, was pinned with the loss as the Phils poured across four runs in the 11th.

The deciding run came on a walk, a single by Earl Torgeson and a sacrifice fly. Singles by Granny Hammner and Bobby Morgan and a double by Jonny Wyrostek produced three more.

Four Schools Seek Big 10 Team Honors

Michigan Squad Strong in 2-Mile Relay, High Jump and Weights

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — At least four schools — Illinois, Michigan, Purdue and Indiana—are expected to take most of the team honors Saturday in the 1st annual Big 10 outdoor relays at Illinois' Memorial Stadium.

Illinois will be favored in three of the baton races, the standard 1-mile event, the 440 and the sprint medley.

Joe Corley, Cirilo McSween, Gene Maynard and Ralph Fessenden last month carried the Illini colors to a Drake Relays 1-mile record of 3:12.6. Michigan and Indiana will be their main rivals Saturday.

Corley, Nagle, McSween and sprint champion William Williams will name the Illini the choice in the 440 relay with Indiana, Iowa and Michigan State contenders.

Fessenden, Corley, Williams and Maynard will team up for the sprint medley to try to beat down a good challenge from Michigan. The foursome finished 2nd to Kansas at Drake with a fine 3:21.5 job, good enough to win any meet without Wes Santee.

Michigan's George Lynch, John Ross, Roy Christiansen and Pete Gray rank as the nation's top 2-mile relay team and only Michigan State may give the Wolverines trouble. Michigan is also favored, along with Indiana, in the distance medley.

Purdue rates 1st call in the 880-yard event with Tom Hughes, Bob Hoey, Ben Youtsey and Hugh Wiley. Michigan State and Iowa also have high caliber squads.

Field events and hurdle races will provide a preview of individual performers for the Big 10 outdoor track meet at Purdue May 28-29.

Illinois' Ron Mitchell, who has cleared 6 feet 9¼ inches this season, will face an able crop of contenders in the high jump, including basketball star Milt Mead of Michigan who missed the indoor track campaign.

Michigan's Fritz Nilson is a sure bet to take both the shot and discus.

Yanks Fume Over Bauer-Sauer Mistake by Probers

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP) — New York Yankee officials Tuesday charged the House Armed Services Committee with "recklessly bandying around names" and "placing innocent persons under a cloud" following its listing of athletes' names, including that of Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer, as having been coddled by the Army.

Rep. Hess (R-Ohio) later corrected the list, naming Hank Sauer, Chicago Cubs' outfielder instead of Bauer, a Purple Heart Marine veteran of World War II, but that failed to pacify the Yankees.

"It seems a shame," one Yankee official vehemently declared, "that responsible people in Washington should so recklessly bandy around names and place innocent persons under a cloud without checking thoroughly."

Yankee General Manager George Weiss was so disturbed by the subcommittee's release of Bauer's name that he called a press conference and delivered a written statement giving Bauer's service record in detail. It showed that Bauer served four years in the Marines, from 1942 through 1945, earned 11 campaign ribbons, two Purple Hearts, two Bronze Stars and took part in four island invasions in the South Pacific.

Scot Awarded AAU's Trophy

Beat Whitfield, but Ran as Pacesetter, in Boardwalk Mile

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP) — Alec Breckenridge, Scot runner now a freshman at Villanova, is entitled to the first place trophy for beating Mal Whitfield at Atlantic City Sunday, the AAU has decided.

Breckenridge was entered as a pace-setter for the first half mile but kept right on running and finished ahead of Whitfield in 4:06.3 on the Boardwalk course. The race had been designed to give Whitfield, Olympic 800-meter champion, a crack at the mile, so flabbergasted officials gave him the trophy. He was second to Breckenridge in 4:06.8.

"If Breckenridge was permitted to start at all, then he was an official starter and entitled to any prize he won, even as a post-entry," said Dan Ferris, AAU secretary-treasurer.

DRAYTON PLAINS — Steps to organize a branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn. will be taken at a meeting at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Arthur Arnold, 6756 Desmond St., Williams Lake.

Mrs. William McCallum of Birmingham, state organizer, and Mrs. Gordon Weeks of Highland Park will be on hand to assist the new group. Mrs. Howard Huttenlocher of the Clarkston branch will attend also.

Mayors Mark Michigan Week

Five in South Oakland County Exchange Jobs in State

Five south Oakland County mayors are observing Michigan Week today by exchanging posts with mayors from other Michigan communities.

Mayor and Mrs. Howard K. Kelley of Royal Oak have gone to Cadillac for the day. Cadillac Mayor Robert L. Kendall was received at Royal Oak's city hall this morning by Mayor Pro-tem Arthur H. Fries and other city officials.

A noon luncheon at Red Run Golf Club was followed by a tour of the city. Tonight, former Cadillac residents will be hosts to the mayor and his party at a dinner at Northwood Inn.

Kenneth N. Milliman of the village of Tekonsha has swapped seats with Mayor Bruce D. Garbutt of Ferndale, while Mayor John R. Darbee of Clawson has traveled to Sturgis. That community's mayor, Raymond Parker, accompanied by his wife, are Clawson's guests for the day.

Berkley Mayor Harvey C. Van Buhler has switched with Mayor E. J. Williams of Whittemore, who was a guest at a noon luncheon of south Oakland County city managers at the Northwood Inn.

Mayor David R. Calhoun of Huntington Woods has swapped jobs with Mayor Fred T. Veldsma of McBain.

Abe Kole, village president of Lawton, will wait until May 15 to visit Hazel Park, when Mayor Zigmund Niparko will be able to make the trip to Lawton, which is located near Kalamazoo.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Incumbents Win Primary Races

Sparkman Sweeps to Alabama Victory; Ohio GOP Picks Bender

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Members of Congress appear to continue leading charmed political lives at the polls this year as the count of yesterday's primaries in five states gave leads to all incumbents seeking renomination.

A hard-fought race holding nationwide attention saw Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala) sweep to an apparent victory in his bid for renomination. A primary triumph would be tantamount to election in the heavily Democratic state. And in an important Ohio contest, Rep. George H. Bender won the Republican Senate nomination.

The Alabama campaign featured a charge by Sparkman's closest opponent—Rep. Laurie C. Battle—that he was trying to carry "water on both shoulders" on the race question.

Sparkman, vice presidential candidate on the 1952 Democratic national ticket, denied he ever had varied on the issue. He faced in the four-man race one of his strongest challenges since he entered the Senate eight years ago.

Other primaries yesterday were in Indiana, Florida and New Mexico.

All told, voters yesterday picked candidates to run in November for 4 governorships, 3 U.S. Senate seats and 53 places in the House.

In two earlier primaries this year, all incumbents seeking renomination won. And that pattern appeared to hold true yesterday. Earlier primaries were in Illinois and New Jersey.

In Alabama, former Gov. James E. Folsom ran far ahead in a seven-man competition for the Democratic nomination for governor. Folsom, whose antics as governor gained him the nickname "Kissing Jim," moved within range of a majority of all votes cast.

Failure to get a majority would put Folsom in a runoff June 1 with his nearest opponent, State Sen. Jimmy Faulkner.

Bender, long-time Ohio political associate of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, goes into a November race with Sen. Thomas A. Burke for the remaining two years of Taft's term. Burke, a Democrat, was appointed to succeed Taft until the November election.

Bender defeated Ohio House Speaker William Saxbe. Burke was unopposed in the Democratic primary.

In Florida, incomplete returns indicated neither Acting Gov. Charley E. Johns nor State Sen. Leroy Collins could gain a clear majority in a three-way race for the Democratic governor nomination. Failing that, they'll go into a primary runoff May 25.

Indiana's 11 incumbent congressmen—10 Republicans and one Democrat — took commanding leads. Most interest in the Hoosier primary centered on local issues.

However, the vote eventually will determine who wins a bitter Republican factional dispute between Gov. George N. Craig and Sens. William E. Jenner and Homer E. Capehart. They're battling for control of the state GOP organization.

The 4,341 precinct committeemen elected yesterday will choose county chairmen who, in turn, will name district chairmen. The district chairmen will elect the state committee that will determine whether the Capehart-Jenner group retains its control of the state organization.

Week Set Aside for White Cane Project of Lions

The program is part of the statewide movement currently sponsored by the Michigan Lions Clubs.

The mayor's proclamation states, "For nearly a quarter of a million blind men and women, many of whom are Michigan residents, the white cane is a passport which enables them to carry on their daily activities in the face of expanding motor traffic."

The local Lions Club carries on an intensive yearly program to help persons who carry the white cane.

Dentist Reports Putting Teeth Back Into Jaw

If you get there fast enough and the teeth are in good condition, the dentist may be able to replant them, Dr. H. A. Maxmen, Detroit dental specialist, told the Cleveland Dental Society yesterday.

Dr. Maxmen said such replanted teeth can grow into the jawbone again and last as long as 15 years.

Shots Scheduled at 38 Schools

All Oakland Children Involved to Get 1st of 3 by Friday

Doctors will give children in 38 Oakland County schools their first shots in the field test of Dr. Jonas E. Salk's new polio vaccine.

Pontiac's Bagley, Longfellow and Wisner schools will get their shots Thursday.

All Oakland youngsters taking part in the test will have had the first of the three shots by Friday.

Children of the Oxford area schools — Thomas, North Oxford, Lakeville, Arnold, Leonard and Kingsbury and Daniel Axford — will go to Daniel Axford School Thursday for their injections. Doctors will give shots at Rochester's Woodward school for first, second and third graders of Woodward, Baldwin, Snell and Stoney Creek.

Other clinics are planned Thursday at West Bloomfield's Roosevelt School; Berkley's Angell and Hamilton schools; Ferndale's Coolidge and Grant schools; and Hazel Park's Hoover and Wanda schools.

Other children will get shots Thursday at Longfellow and Parker schools in Royal Oak; Roosevelt in Royal Oak Township; Birmingham area's Franklin, Walnut Lake, Wing Lake and Terry schools; Farmington's Ten Mile school.

Children of Southfield School 10 and Southfield's Lathrup, Magnolia and McKinley schools and youngsters at Walled Lake's Glengary and Wixom schools will get shots Thursday.

Friday clinics are planned at Thomas Edison school in Hazel Park and Berkley's Tyler and Pattengill schools.

Six County People Attend UF Parley

Six Oakland County people are among 130 men and women attending Michigan United Health and Welfare Fund's budget conference Tuesday and today in East Lansing.

Serving on panels are James F. Spence, executive secretary of Pontiac Manufacturers Association; Marshall B. Smith, attorney; Robert Nelson, general manager of Universal Oil Seal Co., and Dwight S. Adams, executive director of Pontiac Area United Fund.

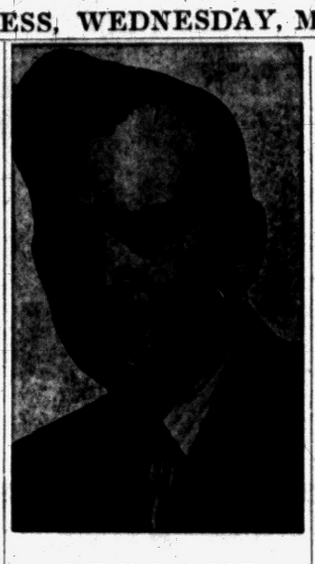

Vern Willard of Farmington and Mrs. Bert E. Norton, Rochester, are representing Oakland County Townships United Fund.

Each state budget panel goes over the requests of five or six health and welfare agencies who want the State United Fund to raise money for them next fall. The total of the agencies' quotas will be the goal for the State United Fund this year. Last year's goal was $2,705,829.

Washers Won't Strike

DETROIT (INS) — Things were a lot clearer for downtown office workers today when a threatened strike of 300 members of the window washers local 139-AFL was averted.

The workers accepted a five-cent-an-hour wage offer from 40 Detroit-area window washing contractors.

REV. M. A. McCONE

Reverend to Close Bible Series Sunday

WATERFORD—The Rev. M. A. McCone, currently speaking at evangelistic meetings each evening at Waterford Community Church, will close his series of Bible messages Sunday.

Subject of his talks for the remaining evenings include "What the Bible Says About the Fall" on Thursday; "In the Hands of God's Sheriff" on Friday; "What the Bible Says About Satan" on Saturday; and "Life's Greatest Decision" on Sunday.

A combined Sunday School lesson will be taught by the evangelist Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

At Sunday's 11 a.m. worship hour mothers will be honored with awards being presented to the oldest, the youngest and the mother with the greatest number of children. The Bible message by Rev. McCone will be entitled "God's Blueprint for the Church."

Society Holds Breakfast

IMLAY CITY — A mother and daughter breakfast was held by the Sacred Heart Catholic Church Altar Society Sunday. Breakfast was served by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Jaycees Plan Teen Road-e-o

Waterford Group Sets Driver Competition for May 16

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A teenage road-e-o, sponsored by the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce, is being planned for Sunday, May 16.

The road-e-o will include entrants from Keego Harbor, Clarkston and Waterford Township high schools. All participants must be teenagers and must have drivers' licenses. Applications are now available at each of the schools.

Included in the competition will be an actual skill test to be made at the A&P parking lot on Dixie highway and a written test to be given at Waterford High School.

Judges for the contest will be announced later this week.

Trophies will be awarded for the road-e-o and a winner will participate in a state contest. Funds for the trophies have been donated by Filmore Hardware and Les Hutchinson.

Road-e-o chairman will be Philip Nelson. He will be assisted by Gene Shon, Gerald DeWees, Claude Goulet, William Christos, Gerald Walling and Byron Merritt.

"By sponsoring the contest, Jaycees hope to make teenagers proud of their skillful driving and thus cut down on teenage accidents," said Bernard Heaney, Jaycee publicity chairman.

Sylvan Lake Council to Confer With Lawyer

The Sylvan Lake City Council and bond attorney Claude H. Stevens will meet tonight to consider calling an election to gain voter approval of a $225,000 municipal water system.

City Manager Ernest Ethier says a method of financing the project will have to be determined. A three-fifths vote of Sylvan Lake electors would be needed to authorize a bond issue, he said.

NINA MAE STONE

Mr. and Mrs. John Stone of Drayton Plains announce the engagement of their daughter, Nina Mae, to James Schumaker. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Schumaker of Eddyville, Ill. No date has been set for the wedding.

Explorer to Show Movies of Vacation at Isle Royale

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Color motion pictures of an "Isle Royale Vacation" will be shown by Dennis Glen Cooper, explorer and travel lecturer at 8 p. m. tomorrow at Stringham School.

Highlights of the showing, sponsored by the Stringham PTA, include a lake cruise to Houghton, followed by a shorter trip to Isle Royale, and a tour of the island wilderness.

A native Detroiter, Cooper was awarded the first master's degree in geography issued by Wayne University. He is head of the exact science department at a Detroit intermediate school.

Photography has been his hobby for many years and his camera expeditions have taken him all over the United States, into Canada and Mexico and through the South Seas.

Cooper's film trip of Isle Royale includes fishing for lake trout, sight seeing treks by boat and trail, hunting for precious stones and a harrowing experience in a raging forest fire.

Visits to abandoned copper mines and ancient copper diggings of primitive man and photo taking jaunts to the wild homes of beaver and moose are also featured.

DENNIS GLEN COOPER

Cooper was a major in World War II, serving as chief rescue intelligence officer of the Fifth Air Force. He holds eight major campaign stars and two distinguished unit citations, as well as the Bronze Star for meritorious service in the Philippines campaign.

Native of Turkey Cites Custom in Divorce Suit

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. Ayse Sebahat Southerland, a native of Ankara, Turkey, complained in a cross petition for divorce, filed in District Court yesterday, that her husband of less than a year embraced and kissed another woman in her presence and then explained to her that it was an old American custom.

TV Teacher Has 6.5 Million in Her Class

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Like many other American women, Frances Horwich is a schoolteacher. The only difference is that her class numbers 6½ million.

Dr. Horwich is the originator and sole proprietor of Ding Dong School, a Chicago TV show that delights and informs pre-school children from coast to coast every weekday.

But we also have viewers from 7 months to 87," said Dr. Horwich, who visited here for a couple of speeches. You'd be surprised how many arthritics watch the show for exercises in using the hands. Also a number of teachers' schools and hospitals watch regularly so future teachers and internes can learn how to deal with young children."

Among most children's TV shows, Ding Dong School stands out like a rose amid thistles. While other programs parade violence and clownish antics before the young viewers, Dr. Horwich entertains and instructs her audience with gentle games and knowledge. Her efforts have earned her 29 different awards, among them Associated Press Woman of the Year in Education.

That pleased me very much," she reflected. My friends in education had begun to think that I had lapsed into the entertainment field."

Dr. Horwich has taught kindergarten through third grades since 1929 and has acquired degrees from Chicago, Columbia and Northwestern (Ph.D). As president of a national group for day nurseries, she was approached by NBC for advice on a program for children from 3 to 6.

She emphasized that the show should be done by an educator, not an entertainer. Ten days later she was on the air with Ding Dong School. That was 19 months ago, and she has been on every day since.

I asked for her secret.

"Perhaps it was because I had been in education so long and was not easily swept away," she observed. I had to stand my ground on a number of things. When I first started, the men on the show didn't like the name of it. They were ashamed to say 'Ding Dong School' to their friends. I told them not to talk about it then. It was easy for children to say and it belonged.

They also wanted more production on the show; I thought that was wrong. I also insisted on sponsor approval. They argued that they certainly wouldn't allow any beer or cigarette sponsor, but I held my ground. Recently the sales department brought forth an aspirin sponsor. I wouldn't allow it. It's up to a pediatrician to prescribe aspirin for children."

Laniel Victory Seen Thursday

Expect Premier to Win Confidence Vote Unless Dien Bien Phu Falls

PARIS (AP) — Parliamentary observers expect Premier Joseph Laniel's government to win a National Assembly vote of confidence tomorrow unless the besieged Indochina fortress of Dien Bien Phu falls to the Vietminh rebels in the meantime.

Laniel told the Assembly last night it would have to look for a new government or postpone demands for a debate on Indochina beginning May 14. When deputies, including some of his own supporters, persisted in their call for the debate, the Premier made the issue one of confidence in the Cabinet.

This would require the government's resignation if the Assembly does not uphold its demand for a postponement of the discussion.

Laniel's chances of survival looked good today. Few of the deputies wanted to risk a government crisis at a time when the fate of Dien Bien Phu was in the balance, and when the Geneva talks on peace in Indochina were about to start.

But if Dien Bien Phu should fall to the Communist-led rebels before the vote, most observers felt sure the Cabinet would collapse too. That would pull the rug out from under France's delegation at Geneva.

Another section of Parliament wanted to put more pressure on the government to hurry the negotiations at Geneva and end the Indochina fighting at almost any cost.

'Headless' Driver Wakes Autoists in Sleepy Filmland

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An apparently headless motorist drove through Hollywood traffic, to the astonishment of pedestrians and fellow drivers.

The driver without a head, however, turned out to be Spike Jones, the zany band leader. He had rigged up an oversize jacket and scarf to conceal his head.

The stunt, in which Jones was accompanied yesterday by his wife, singer Helen Grayco, was to dramatize the slogan of The Greater Los Angeles Chapter of The National Safety Council: "Don't lose your head in traffic."

Turkey Is Political Rock and a Stout Friend to U.S.

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Turkish voters have strengthened their country's position as the keystone of the Middle East.

Where Turkey's neighbors from Iran to Egypt are crisis-ridden on occasion, Turkey stands like a political rock.

It is a firm and powerful friend of the West in general and the United States in particular, and it has opposed stoutly every attempt by Soviet Russia, on its eastern border, to bully it.

Whatever had been its result Turkish foreign policy would have remained unaltered.

The issue was free enterprise against socialistic government ownership.

President Celal Bayar's Democratic party stood for free enterprise, as the two great American political parties see it, and for the attraction of private capital investment to strengthen the country's economy.

The opposition Republican People's party stood for government ownership of primary war and heavy industries, communications, power stations, irrigation projects and strategic mineral wealth. Its platform in this respect approximated that of the British Labor party.

Bayar's Democrats won a victory so overwhelming that it surprised even optimistic party leaders.

The rise of the Democrats has been phenomenal. Bayar formed the party only after World War II. It won 30 seats out of 487 in the national assembly in the 1946 election. In the 1950 election it won 408 out of 487.

It was expected that the party would lose some seats in Sunday's election. Instead it won some more.

Bayar is 70. He is bald, of medium height, with black eyebrows and keen eyes behind his horn-rimmed spectacles. One of his two sons is a student at Cornell University.

He is a banking and economic expert. He joined the national liberation movement of Mustafa Kemal Ataturk, founder of modern Turkey. He became Ataturk's chief economic adviser.

The Republican People's party was that of Ataturk. After Ataturk's death in 1938, Bayar gradually became estranged from the party, especially opposing its economic policies.

This opposition crystallized during the years of World War II. Bayar, in the interests of national unity, awaited the war's end to form his own party. Then he rocketed to leadership.

Long Eye of the Law Nabs Parking Violator

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (UP) — It was not only the long arm of the law but also its good eyes that caught James B. Alston, 30.

A police lieutenant, watching from the third floor of city hall, thought he saw Alston tear up the ticket. He sent a patrolman to check and the patrolman found Alston parked at the same angle in front of city hall.

Alston was charged with two parking violations and destruction of city property (the ticket).

State Is Licensing Foreign Doctors

DETROIT (UP) — Michigan is granting temporary licenses to young foreign doctors who wish to become specialists in some branch of medicine or surgery.

The program was designed to help raise "medical standards throughout the world," according to Dr. J. Earl McIntyre, executive secretary of the state board of registration.

The temporary licenses, which can be renewed up to five years, allow the doctors to practice as residents in hospitals approved for such training.

To qualify as residents, candidates are required to pass comprehensive oral tests in basic sciences and clinical medicine and serve one-year internships in approved U. S. or Canadian hospitals.

Medical graduates from India, Mexico, South Africa, the Philippine Islands and Ireland, were among the first candidates. They enter the United States on temporary visas.

Grains Advance, Even Soybeans

CHICAGO (AP) —Grains advanced in fairly active dealings on the board of trade today. Even the old crop soybeans futures moved up after a shaky opening.

Brokers were inclined to attribute the advance mainly to a drying up in liquidation rather than to any specific news developments. Some buying in wheat was based on a private crop forecast lowering estimated production from that forecast by the government on April 1.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅝ to 2⅛ higher, May $2.01¾, corn ⅛ to ⅝ higher, May $1.52¼, oats ⅛ to ¾ higher, May 72, rye 1 to 1¼ higher, May 93, soybeans 1⅞ to 4 cents higher, May $3.92½ and lard 27 to 55 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $18.20.

Strike Curtails Phone Service to Muskegon

MUSKEGON (AP)—Greater Muskegon was cut off from any but emergency long distance telephone calls today by a work stoppage in the headquarters of the General Telephone Co.

A reported 175 long distance operators and plant maintenance and construction employes staged a sit-down strike which union officials said was unauthorized.

Railroads Lead in 6th Advance

Last Thursday, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks got into new high ground for the year and has kept pressing forward since to the best levels of the past 24 years.

The advance carried prices up between 1 and 2 points while losses usually were under a point.

Volume expanded as prices increased and kept to a pace around the two million mark. Yesterday's total was 1,990,000.

Doing well with the railroads were the oils, coppers, and the electronics. Aircrafts were mostly lower. The steels and motors were mixed.

Pan American World Airways stood out after declaration of a dividend of 20 cents, the same as paid in March. Last year, a total of 65 cents was paid.

General Foods ran into trouble and fell between 2 and 3 points after directors declared a dividend of 70 cents as compared with 60 cents and a 25-cent extra paid a year ago.

Governor Vetoes Bill to OK Secret Corporate Filing

LANSING (AP)—A bill which would have permitted corporations to file secret reports with the state was vetoed today by Gov. Williams.

This was his third veto of the 1954 legislative session.

The measure would have permitted corporations to file two reports.

The first, which would be open to public inspection, would contain only the corporation's location and the names of its officers and directors.

"The privilege of holding a corporate franchise in Michigan is a valuable privilege conferred by the people of Michigan," the governor said. "In return for this privilege it has been traditionally deemed equitable that the people should have the right to obtain periodic information about the exercise of such a franchise.

"Sound public policy requires the continued public disclosure of pertinent public information about the operation of Michigan corporations."

Business Notes

MIDLAND, Mich., (AP)—Dow Chemical Co. board of directors declared a dividend yesterday of 25 cents per share on common stock payable, Aug. 2 to stockholders of record July 7. Directors also declared a dividend of $1 per share on Dow preferred stock, seriesA, payable July 15 to stockholders of record June 23.

Grocery chains chalked up a nationwide sales gain of 6.2 per cent in March over the same month in 1953, according to a regional survey of Chain Store Age magazine. The study covered 14,466 stores.

The Ohio Oil Co. at Findlay has declared a dividend of 51 cents per share of common stock according to a board of directors' report. The dividend is payable June 10 to stockholders of record at the close of business May 13.

NEW YORK (AP) — General Foods Corp. today raised the dividend on the common stock to 70 cents from 60 cents paid in previous quarters. The higher payment will be made June 5 to stock of record May 14. In June, 1953, the company paid an extra of 25 cents.

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — The Hayes Manufacturing Corp.'s consolidated net earnings for the six months ended March 31 totaled $52,703 or five cents a share, compared with $344,049 or 33 cents in the similar period of the preceding fiscal year.

The appointment of three new department managers of Ford Motor Co.'s Tractor and Implement Division in Birmingham is announced by O. L. Wigton, general sales manager.

Wendell E. Butler, former manager of the service department, has been named manager of the implement sales department; J. B. Nicolls Jr., former manager of the customer service department at the Ford Highland Park Tractor Plant, now heads the service department and J. H. Zich, former manager of the implement sales department, has been made chief engineer in charge of harvesting equipment.

J. A. Carr has been named Michigan sales representative for Bear Manufacturing Co. of Rock Island, Ill. The firm manufactures automotive service testing and correction equipment.

Second U.S. Airlift Leaves for Indochina

WIESBADEN, Germany (UP)—The U. S. Air Force in Europe announced officially today that the second airlift of French troops from France to the battle lines of Indochina has begun.

The first movement of French reinforcements by American airlift was carried out, beginning April 20 from Orly Field, outside Paris.

"The military airlift, which is in conformity with the present United States policy and the existing military assistance program was undertaken by the United States at the request of the French government," today's announcement said.

East Detroit Boy Killed

Steel Mills Get Color Paint Job

Restful Decor Effect All-Time Safety Score for One Shop

NEW YORK (UP)—The idea of interior decorating in a steel mill may seem unusual—but it's been tried and with some remarkable results.

Scientific application of color was so effective in one mill, in fact, that the mill soon was chalking up an all-time safety record, according to an article in Steelways, magazine of American Iron and Steel Institute.

The superintendent of the mill had heard about the beneficial results of dynamic painting, as it is known. When he got the green light from management to try it, the color experts were called in.

First they worked out a color code for the machines in the finishing department—green for noncritical parts, cream for critical parts, red for controls, orange for electrical system. A paint crew went to work on the machines. Formerly dull surfaces now had big areas of soft, restful green, interspersed with a light, airy creamy color and spiked with gay touches of red and orange.

With less eyestrain in the brighter surroundings there was less fatigue, and everyone felt better at the end of each day.

By making workers more safety conscious, focusing their actions and minimizing fatigue, dynamic painting helped to lower the accident rate.

The department's best previous safety record stood at 1,027,000 man-hours without a lost time accident; since the addition of color the mill has set a new record of 4,858,579 man-hours.

Dynamic painting was extended into other parts of the mill and workers learned to live with color in their lives.

Junior Achievement Banquet Scheduled

More than 4,000 Michigan businessmen, civic leaders and teenage "Junior Achievers" will attend Junior Achievement's "Future Unlimited" banquet in Detroit May 13.

James J. Nance, president of Packard Motor Car Co., will speak on "Achievement for Tomorrow" at the banquet in Detroit's Masonic Temple. Special awards will be given boys and girls and several businessmen for outstanding work in Junior Achievement this year.

"Junior Achievement" strives to teach high school boys and girls the principles of free enterprise by letting them organize companies, sell stock and manufacture products.

Society Gives Banquet

NORTH BRANCH — SS Peter and Paul Rosary Altar Society sponsored a mother-daughter banquet Sunday evening, with Mrs. Norman Robinet speaking for the mothers and her daughter, Marie, responding for the daughters.

Spring Upturn Being Watched

Total Jobs in Detroit Area High, but Still Under '53

By SAM DAWSON

DETROIT (AP)—With 9 per cent of its labor force officially listed as out of work, Detroit has a special interest this year in the health and sticking powers of the spring business upturn.

And so do numerous other cities in Michigan, Indiana and Ohio where cars, their parts or their raw materials are made.

For traditionally, as spring and early summer sales go, so goes the year in the auto industry.

Merchants, bankers and auto men here agree today the spring business upturn is coming along on time schedule. But some say it hasn't been as vigorous as hoped. And some labor leaders call it disappointingly frail.

In all, the state labor force gained 269,000 between June 1947 and the peak set in June 1953, the Michigan Employment Security Commission reports. Unemployment in the state at that booming time was 45,000. Since then the jobless total has risen by 171,000 to stand at 216,000 for Michigan as a whole.

Total employment in the Detroit area still is high, by any but 1953 standards, the commission stresses. Some 1,357,000 are working now at nonfarm jobs — just about the same as in 1952, when times were considered pretty good.

Retail trade lags behind last year — but is better than might be expected in a city with 135,000 officially listed as unemployed. Apparel shops and appliance dealers complain the most.

People are slow to take on new installment debts, but while collections are a little slower, repossessions haven't risen much, bankers say. They say total savings are holding high in spite of a drop in payrolls.

And the number of families on relief is a little lower now than a year ago, although welfare officials can't give a reason for it.

In many quarters hope now centers on a leveling-off of business activity for the next few months, or at worst only a moderate further drop. Fears of a sharp decline are now pretty well lulled — perhaps because the economy didn't drop as sharply or as far as first feared, and because things look better now than a couple of months ago.

This cheerier feeling on the part of businessmen isn't shared, of course, by many labor leaders. They stress the number of those out of work and express fear the total will grow — especially if the auto industry's gamble on a good spring - summer sales season proves a bad one.

Employment and unemployment figures have been questioned nationally, but here they are a storm center.

Some argue the figures shouldn't be compared with "unusual" 1953. They contend earlier labor shortages in the auto industry attracted many workers from outside the state — large numbers of whom went back home when their jobs later petered out.

It is estimated 115,000 workers came into the state from 1947 to 1953. Around 48,000 are believed to have left in recent months.

Lush days brought others into the labor force — married women, youngsters who quit school, oldsters who went back when needed.

State Police Get Traffic Orders

Must Be Rigid on Law; Accident Rate Causing Great Alarm

LANSING (AP)—A stepped-up policy of rigid enforcement of the traffic laws was ordered today by State Police commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

"The Michigan traffic accident situation has reached such proportions as to cause widespread concern and alarm," Childs said in a bulletin to all district and post commanders.

"The officials and the people of the state are relying upon the Michigan State Police to do all in their power to combat the trend by rigid enforcement of the traffic laws," the bulletin said. "They are entitled to feel we will expend such effort and this we will do."

Childs ordered "a policy of strict enforcement to be instituted at once and followed thereafter without exception or lessened effort."

Childs said the policy was to be "permanent" and was not just being established temporarily or just for the summer months.

"We mean just what the bulletin says," Childs said, "strict enforcement with no letdown. Violations are the cause of most accidents, so we are going to redouble our efforts to discourage drivers from violating."

The police commissioner noted that traffic accidents increased 14 per cent over last year in the first three months of 1954.

Woman Returns for Gaming Cure

Grandmother's Betting Results in Bad-Check Charges Against Her

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Twice Mrs. Sula Bell Stimson, 54, a grandmother, has undergone psychiatric treatment seeking a cure for gambling. But she is back in custody again for writing worthless checks to finance her poker-playing propensity.

The Long Beach widow, who has seven grown children, was sentenced yesterday to an indeterminate term in a state prison. She pleaded guilty last April 2 to passing fictitious checks totaling $275.

Police records show she was first arrested on check charges in 1948 and served 30 days in jail as a condition of a year's probation. In 1949 she was arrested again under similar circumstances and charged with violating probation.

Examination suggested a psychological disorder, and she was sent to Los Angeles County General Hospital for treatment. Released as 40 per cent cured, she was back in custody again two months later on fresh check charges and returned to the hospital for more psychiatric treatment.

"The shots did me a world of good," she said then, but after her latest arrest she said she had been gambling again.

Solon Urges Federal Aid to Fight Delinquency

WASHINGTON (UP) —Rep. Jacob K. Javits (R.-N.Y.) believes the federal government should help state and community organizations combat juvenile delinquency.

He has introduced a bill to provide $50,000,000 in federal aid to state, municipal or private agencies for youth programs. The recipients would have to match federal aid funds on a 50-50 basis.

Javits stated that "the large number of rejections for the armed services of youth for physical and mental reasons and the serious incursions of crime, . . . emphasize the need for this legislation."

The bill would make state youth programs eligible for federal support to provide educational facilities, psychiatric health service, vocational training, and actual employment projects.

Student Opinions Differ

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (UP) — High school students, trying out voting machines in a campaign for their use in Jackson County, gave their parents something to think about. One of the questions put to the students was: "In your belief is discipline in the modern home strict enough? The count showed 363 students voted "yes" and 358 voted "no."

Wine, Supine, Crime

Sometime later he woke up with a headache and minus his new shoes. The fellow did leave him an old pair of shoes, though.

Contest Carnival Name of Show

Has Gift of Gab, Lives With Husband and Their Cat in the East

Upon graduation from Eastern High School in her native Baltimore, Joan set her sights on a career as a fashion model. Working days as a salesgirl in a department store, she put in her evenings at Walters Academy, a modeling school.

She thought she'd hit the ultimate when she lined up a job as receptionist in a beauty salon. But this soon began to pall and she applied for a position at WMAR-TV.

After two weeks of answering the phone, she was boosted to script typist. A month later, a local television personality called her to his office, informed her he could use "her chattery, irrepressible personality" on his upcoming TV show.

After working hours, Joanie attended Baltimore's De Luce Academy for diction, signing and dancing lessons. In this period, Joanie married David Henderson.

When he was offered a job with a Philadelphia advertising agency, Joanie decided to go along, to take potluck in building up a career in the Quaker City.

Things shaped up quickly. She lined up a half-hour musical show of her own on a local station. Tehn Joanie was asked to come to Manhattan regarding a new television show. She was signed up for "Candy Carnival."

When the program went off the air, Joanie and David did a local husband-and-wife show of their own on WCAU-TV, "Man Around the House," Then came "Contest Carnival."

She's 5'2" tall, weighs 105 lbs, has blue-green eyes.

Father, 59, to Graduate One Year Ahead of Son

DUSTIN, Okla. (UP)—Retired Navy veteran A. C. Cook, 59, is scheduled to graduate from Dustin High School this month only one year ahead of his son.

50-50 Chance Fails

DERBY, Conn. (UP)—Burglars had a choice of two safes when they broke into an automobile agency. The one they broke open was empty. The other one contained the receipts which they didn't get.

Gen. Hull in Hong Kong; Won't Go to Indochina

TOKYO (UP) — Gen. John E. Hull, Far East commander, is visiting in Hong Kong at the invitation of British officials there, a spokesman said today.

The spokesman said there are no plans for Hull to go to Indochina. He planned to return to Tokyo next week.

Carpenter Tries to Break Into Yoshida's Homes

TOKYO (UP) — A 23-year-old carpenter) who aid he was determined to do what I think necessary to save the nation" was seized by police last night as he attempted to force his way into Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's heavily guarded seaside home.

The man immediately gulped sleeping pills.

Club Reports Dampness Is Autoists' Big Enemy

DETROIT (UP) — Damp weather can give motorists more trouble than snowdrifts, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

On a recent damp morning, the club received well over 2,000 calls for help from stranded motorists. The club said that is more than it received during any day during two previous winters when the snowdrifted along the highways on many occasions.

A club spokesman suggested that motorists try wiping off their ignition wires if cars won't start on damp mornings. If that doesn't work, a shove by another car may help.

Gov. McKeldin Gripes at Ike's Ingratitude

FT. MEADE, Md. (UP)—Talking to a group of Army officers here yesterday, Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin of Maryland told this story:

"Thomas Johnson, the first governor of Maryland, nominated George Washington to be commander in chief," McKeldin said at a dinner in his honor. "Later, when Washington became President, he offered Johnson the position as chief justice of the United States.

"I nominated Gen. Eisenhower to be president of the United States and he was elected.

"He hasn't offered me anything yet."

Husband, 66, Charged in Wife, 26, Shooting

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UP)—Mrs. John Mangum, 26, was shot through both legs by a .22 rifle. Her 66-year-old husband was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Lawsuits Ending Western Stables Horseback Riding

TUSCON, Ariz. (UP) — Lawsuits and not automobiles are finishing off the era of the Westerner on horseback.

Two more riding stables — the last two in the Tucson area—have gone out of business.

There have been many lawsuits in recent years. As a result, insurance rates are considered prohibitive by stable owners.

Forms of Steel Speed Work on Dam Project

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Use of steel forms instead of conventional wood forms for concrete operations is a factor in putting construction of Chief Joseph Dam on the Columbia River far ahead of schedule. Power production is scheduled for 1958.

An example is a single steel form weighing 17 tons being used to mold the 25-foot openings of the penstocks through which the water will spill 165 feet down into the turbines. The openings will be formed by the single steel frame.

Can't Sell Bank Building So Teacher Lives in It

TIOGA, Tex. (INS) — An 89-year - old retired Texas school teacher has her own version of a modern home — she lives very comfortably in an old bank.

Mrs. Florence B. Waddill, who taught school for 30 years tried to rent the building when Tioga's first bank closed in 1920.

When she couldn't rent it, she decided to make the building, which she owns, her home.

She says conversion wasn't too difficult, except for the massive steel vault, in which now are stored such items as potatoes, flour, sugar and home-made preserves.

The Cincinnati Redlegs led the National League in 1953 in executing the most double plays (176). The team also made the only triple play of the season.
