House Sidesteps Decision on Civil Rights Bill

Defense Post Nominee

McElroy Expected to Win Swift Senate Confirmation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders said today that Neil H. McElroy, soap company executive, should win speedy confirmation as secretary of defense.

But he must wait at least a week and agree to dispose of his holdings in some corporations that now have defense and government contracts.

The nomination of McElroy, 52, president of Procter & Gamble Co., went to the Senate yesterday afternoon a few hours after President Eisenhower had described him as "one of the most capable men and the highest type of people that I know in the country."

He succeeds Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, 67, whose formal resignation was sent to the White House.

"He's a fine man," Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), Senate Republican leader, said of McElroy. "As far as I know there will be no trouble about confirmation."

★ ★ ★

No date was announced for McElroy's taking over the post, but in Cincinnati McElroy said it probably would be a couple of months.

PAVES THE WAY

It was learned that Wilson, former president of General Motors who ran into some delay before winning confirmation in 1953, already had helped McElroy pave the way for confirmation.

Kalamazoo May Subsidize Buses

Considers Taking Over Company and Leasing It Back to Owners

KALAMAZOO (AP)—A citizens advisory committee recommended today that the city of Kalamazoo take over the Kalamazoo City Lines, Inc., bus company after the manner of the so-called "Jackson Plan."

The city would take control of the company and lease it back to the original management with a possibility of future municipal subsidy to keep it in operation, if necessary.

Troubled for years by patronage losses, Kalamazoo City Lines faces serious financial problems although currently operating in the black.

Under the "Jackson Plan," the city would bypass the bus company tax payment. Any subsidy to follow would mean that taxpayers would be footing an underwriting of costs. The city of Jackson already has taken such a step in connection with its bus company.

Kalamazoo, population 85,000, has had the same experience as other American cities in trying to keep and maintain mass transportation.

Since 1947 bus company patronage here has fallen from 3,000,000 a year to barely 1,000,000. Fares have tripled, as have costs.

Hope Wanes for Woman on Pikes Peak

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo (AP)—Hope waned today for Mrs. Inestine B. Roberts, who is 88 and loves to climb mountains. She has been missing on Pikes Peak since Monday.

"We won't leave until we find her," said Sheriff Earl Sullivan, who led searchers in combing a 20-square-mile area yesterday.

Mrs. Roberts left her home in Colorado Springs Saturday on her 15th climb alone up the 14,100-foot peak. She reached the summit Sunday evening and started down Monday morning.

The area in which she disappeared is filled with crevices and wooded ravines. Brown bears, bighorn sheep and other wild animals roam the rugged terrain. Night temperatures fall almost to freezing and there are deep snow drifts near the summit. Mrs. Roberts wore only light clothing and carried a cloth coat.

Expect Return of Accused Spy to East Today

Whereabouts of Alien Being Held in Texas Sudden Mystery

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP)—Rudolph Ivanovich Abel, a thin, balding alien accused of being a top Russian spy, was expected to be returned to New York today where he was indicted yesterday.

He was being held in a detention camp at McAllen, Tex., awaiting deportation when the spy indictment was returned.

There was a mystery this morning as to Abel's whereabouts. The jailer here told newsmen he still was in the county jail, but other officers indicated he wasn't.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Gerald Jones could not be reached and police Chief Leroy Eston said he understood Jones got up at 2 a.m. to go on a trip.

Commercial airlines in this area said they had no overnight booking for the prisoner.

Federal Judge Allen B. Hannay late yesterday signed an order at Houston for Abel's removal to New York. The deputy U.S. marshal was to arrange for Abel's quick return.

Abel, who entered the United States from Canada in 1948, was being held for deportation in the nearby McAllen (Tex.) Detention Camp for Aliens when the indictment was returned yesterday.

He had been held only as an illegal alien under the name of Emil R. Goldfus, an alias he assumed while working as an obscure photographic artist in Brooklyn.

50 Top Planning, Governmental and Highway Officials Meet in Pontiac

Outline City Transportation Study

Plans for an intensive study of Pontiac's transportation needs were outlined yesterday to 50 top planning, governmental and highway officials from this area and the state at City Hall.

City Manager Walter K. Willman announced that the firm of Geer Associates, of Birmingham, has been retained by the city to bring planning up-to-date and to do general city planning work, including land use studies and population estimates.

The Birmingham firm will work closely with one of the top traffic engineer consultants in the country, George Barton and associates of Chicago, which will analyze the data and develop a transportation plan, Willman said.

The Downtown Pontiac Assn. has provided $17,442 to pay for the study. It is expected to be completed in six months.

City officials propose to use the transportation study as a basis of long-term planning for improvement of the city's major thoroughfares and all other forms of transportation.

PLAN CONNECTING LINKS

Many of the routes to be examined will be connecting links between Pontiac and neighboring areas, State and county officials were urged to work closely with the city in developing the plan.

Studies will also be made to determine which of the proposed routes for the interstate expressway would best serve the city's interest.

One of the purposes of the study, stated Mayor William W. Donaldson, is to make the downtown business district more attractive so that more trade will be received from surrounding areas.

The consultant firms will study location of routes to the city's central business district, facilities for diverting crosstown travel around the district, general location and quantity of parking facilities and any special facilities for pedestrians.

Later studies to be made will deal with traffic control and one-way systems within the downtown district, exact location of parking units and design of parking facilities.

Harold A. Fitzgerald, vice president of the Downtown Pontiac Assn., revealed that the organization has received pledges of $40,000 for the transportation studies.

Warm Tonight, Warmer Friday

Following generally fair and warm weather today and tonight, the U.S. Weather Bureau says Pontiac area residents can expect partly cloudy and warmer weather tomorrow.

The low tonight will be 66-70 and the high tomorrow, 90-94.

The lowest temperature reading in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 66. At 2 p.m. the thermometer registered 83.

Dio Loses Temper at Hearing; Throws Punch at Cameraman

WASHINGTON (INS)—Infuriated hoodlum Johnny Dio slugged a newscameraman today after causing a commotion which disrupted a Senate hearing on his leadership of labor racketeering in New York.

Dio threw the punch at United Press photographer Stanley Tretick after the mobster was ordered out of the hearing room by Senate rackets committee chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark), because of the hubbub which arose when he strode in.

Dio—scheduled to testify this afternoon—had come into the staid Senate caucus room while one of his accused henchmen was testifying.

He walked behind spectators to the back of the chamber, remaining there about five minutes. Cameramen clustered around him, popping flashbulbs.

Dio started walking out and McClellan banged his gavel and angrily demanded: "Either get out of here or remain quiet."

He walked down a marble staircase, ducking behind pillars and trying to evade pursuing cameramen, until he reached a revolving door at the main entrance of the Senate office building.

Dio and Tretick both made for the door and Dio, fist clenched, struck the camerman.

Tretick told reporters: "He hit me on the left ear. I felt his knuckles."

He added that "it didn't hurt much" and said he didn't know whether he would press charges.

The slugging occurred in view of about a dozen other newsmen and photographers who trailed through the revolving door while Dio headed for a taxi.

SWORE AT CAMERAMAN

Dio swore at the cameraman as he brushed past them in the building.

According to Tretick, Dio followed the punch by saying: "You — — —, I have a family."

Air Force Plane Limping Toward Hawaii

65 Facing Pacific Crash

HONOLULU (AP)—An Air Force C97 with 65 passengers today was limping back to Hawaii with two of its four engines out. The Air Force said the plane may be forced to ditch in the Pacific.

The Air Force said the pilot radioed that he had fuel enough to remain airborne for five hours and four minutes.

The Air Force said the pilot indicated he could make the trip within five hours, landing at Hilo with dry tanks.

Air-sea rescue personnel, however, expressed doubt whether the gas supply would hold out.

Gets Measure in Weakened Senate Form

Ike May Call Congress Into Special Session if Revisions Aren't Made

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House temporarily sidestepped a decision today on what to do about the civil rights bill.

The bill, which the Senate passed last night by a 72-18 vote, was laid on the speaker's desk to give House leaders more time to sound out sentiment and consider compromise proposals.

For the time being, no attempt will be made to send the measure to a Senate-House conference to resolve differences with the bill that the House passed 286-126 on June 18.

The House bill, closely following administration recommendations, is broader in scope and more stringent in enforcement provisions.

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts added substance to reports that President Eisenhower may call Congress back into special session unless he gets a measure he feels he can sign.

Eisenhower has objected particularly to a provision added by the Senate to require jury trials in all criminal contempt cases in the federal courts.

★ ★ ★

Martin told newsmen that if Congress finally passes a bill that fails to meet Eisenhower's specifications he would personally recommend that the President veto it and call Congress back in November to try again.

STATEMENT DUE

Speaker of the House Rayburn of Texas, spokesman for the Democratic House majority, said he would have a statement tomorrow on what he thinks should be done. It was expected the House would decide then what action to take.

★ ★ ★

There was backstage maneuvering to line up supporters for a compromise that would limit the jury trial amendment to cases involving only the protection of voting rights.

Some civil rights advocates expressed hope that by some such compromise a bill they could consider worthwhile might be salvaged.

Consumers Power Says Heating Gas Unavailable

Gas for additional space heating in the Pontiac area is still unavailable, Edward Karkau, district manager of the Consumers Power Co. said today.

His statement came on the heels of an announcement by the State Public Service Commission that it is taking steps to withdraw from the field of control over public utility sales of gas for space heating.

Otis Smith, chairman of the commission, said that the commission will proceed by ordering six distributing utilities to show cause why restrictions on gas for space heating should not be removed.

The order will be returnable in 60 days with hearings to follow.

Karkau stated that in the Pontiac area there is a backlog of 35,211 applications from homeowners seeking gas for heating purposes.

The following companies will be cited by the commission:

Consumers Power Co., which has a waiting list of 174,000 applications; Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., which this week was authorized to add 80,000 space heating customers; Citizens Gas Co., Adrian; Michigan Gas Utilities Co., which services Monroe and Coldwater; Michigan Gas and Electric Co., which has principal operations in Niles, Dowagiac, Holland, Zeeland and Three Rivers.

3 OR 4 MAY ACT

Smith believes that three or four of the six companies will "avail themselves of the opportunity to move out from under restrictions" originally imposed during World War II.

★ ★ ★

But, he said, he is "sure" that Consumers will argue in favor of customer limitations by the state.

Restrictions on gas first were imposed by the federal government during the war. Most of the states entered the field shortly

East Orion Wins 4-H Fair Prize

Event Enters Third Day With Dress Review, Talent Show Tonight

East Orion 4-H members won first place last night over 11 other entries in the parade of floats contest at the Oakland County 4-H Club fair which begins its third day today.

Champion of the pig scramble for the girls, ages 12 to 14 was Diane Waltman, Joe Kehoe, 11, of the Rochester Trailblazers Club, Rochester, won the title for the contest of boys from 12 to 14 years old. Dick Caron, 16, of the newly organized East Oxford Club, Oxford, caught the greased pig in the older boys contest.

More than 100 boys and girls scrambled for the greased-up porky. Each of the three winners won the pig they captured.

The second night of the fair had 3,000 attendance bringing the grand total to more than 5,500 for two of five scheduled days.

Second place in the float contest which carried a 1957 theme, "Grow With 4-H" went to the Busy Bee's Club of Ortonville.

The Ortonville Wonderworkers club won third prize for their float.

Float judges Lynn Allen, County clerk; Rex Shepherd, of Detroit Edison Co.; and Clare Cummings, member of the county board of supervisors, gave honorable mention awards to the Galloway Lake club of Pontiac and the Variety 4-H club of Rochester.

Several of the floats are expected to participate in the parade August 27 held to celebrate Pontiac Motors' 50th Anniversary. The program is being planned by the Downtown Pontiac Merchants Assn. Other 4-H floats will also be selected to enter the Michigan State Fair held in Detroit at the end of the month.

Headlining tonight's program is a dress review scheduled for 8. The female members of the county clubs will take over when they display one of their homemaking talents by modeling garments they made.

Several boys were reported planning to enter the show and model sport shirts they created with the help of needle and thread.

A talent show will also be conducted at 8:45 p.m. Preceding the dress review, Roy Hess and his orchestra will perform at 7 and 4-H members will ride in a cavalcade of horses at 7:30.

Tomorrow morning judges will pick the winning hogs and sheep at 9 a.m. Beef and goat judging is scheduled for 1 as well as the beef showmanship contest.

Deadline Today for Tax Payments

Today is the deadline for payment of 1957 city and school taxes.

City Treasurer Walter A. Giddings said that starting tomorrow taxpayers will have to pay an additional one per cent collection fee.

On the first of each month, thereafter, an additional one per cent fee will be levied.

Senate Approves Civil Rights Bill

roundly criticized the jury trial provision, but they helped supply the votes for Senate passage of this first bill of its kind to go through the Senate in more than 80 years.

Because of the uncertainties, Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California told a reporter it was "too early to say" whether a special civil rights session might be called in November.

Other senators said Knowland had told the Senate Republican Policy Committee in a closed meeting that a special session is a definite possibility if the Senate's version of the bill is not amended to conform more nearly to Eisenhower's wishes. Either the House or a Senate-House conference committee could make the changes, but in either case the Senate would have to approve later.

Eisenhower declined at his news conference yesterday to shed any light on a possible veto. But responsible administration officials have said he will reject the measure if the jury trial provision inserted by the Senate is not revised.

No Republican senators voted against passage of the bill when the roll was called last night after nearly five weeks of debate. The 18 Democrats who voted against it were all Southerners except for Sen. Morse of Oregon.

In all, 43 Republicans and 29 Democrats voted for passage.

As it passed the Senate, the bill would authorize the attorney general to seek court injunctions to enforce minority voting rights. The House had voted for similar authority also to enforce civil rights in general but the Senate knocked this out of the measure.

★ ★ ★

The House rejected all proposals for jury trials. The Senate wrote into the bill a far-reaching provision for jury trials in any federal court criminal contempt case involving issuance of an injunction. Eisenhower said this would be "most damaging to the entire federal judiciary."

Abel apparently was linked to a Kremlin master spy who was involved in the first big espionage scandal after World War II.

Four Russians were named as co-conspirators with Abel, but not as defendants. They included Vitali G. Pavlov, who headed a Russian secret police network based in the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, Canada. It was broken up in 1945 after the arrest of atomic-traitor Dr. Alan Nunn May.

Exposure of the spy plot reportedly resulted from Reino Hayhanen's defection to the West. He was named as a co-conspirator in the Abel indictment and appeared yesterday before the grand jury.

Dio Loses Temper at Rackets Hearing

Senate investigators in advance of the gangster's own appearance for questioning on his role in labor racketeering in New York.

In rapid succession, Dio's lieutenants in locals of the Teamsters Union and the old AFL-United Auto Workers Union refused to answer scores of questions on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

Senate Rackets Committee Chairman McClellan assailed the witnesses for refusing to help "clean out the racketeers and thugs and crooks and chiefs and frauds from the union movement."

The No. 1 target, Midwestern Teamsters boss Hoffa, was expected to debut before the Senate rackets squad next week.

Senators, who for the past week have listened to tales of Dio's avarice and contempt for the workers he supposedly represented, hoped to pry more deeply into the Dio-Hoffa relationship.

Two witnesses have documented "protection" payments made by New York employers to Dio's Equitable Research Association in an effort to maintain labor peace and to prevent the signing of union contracts that would pay illiterate Puerto Ricans and Negroes a living wage.

Other witnesses have described Dio and Hoffa as the architects of a massive "paper" local structure erected in an effort to gain voting control of all-powerful New York Teamsters Joint Council 16.

Board Names L. R. Gare to Post of City Manager

BIRMINGHAM — Official confirmation of the appointment of L. R. (Dick) Gare, 54, as the new city manager will be made by commissioners Monday night.

In a special session this week the appointment was made elevating Gare from Department of Public Works superintendent to the post vacated by Harold K. Schone.

Gare was serving as acting city manager, a post he also held a year ago between Schone's arrival here and the resignation of Donald C. Egbert.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Gare served as assistant city engineer and later as engineer for the City of Dearborn, immediately after his graduation, in 1925. Following that he was city engineer at Ecorse before coming to Birmingham.

L. R. GARE

He entered the engineering department here and received the DPW position a few months ago. Commissioners were unanimous in their selection of Gare. In making public his appointment they said that Robert Kenning would continue in the post of assistant city manager.

Gare, with his wife Margaret, resides at 777 Wimbleton. In commenting on the promotion Gare said he appreciates the confidence shown in him and will continue to do the best he possibly can for the city and residents of Birmingham.

Harvard in 1925. He rose to the top through the sales and promotion end of the big organization.

He is a large man, 6 feet 4, and weighs 210 pounds. He has gray wavy hair and blue eyes and plays bridge and poker for relaxation.

There was no comment from Wilson, whose formal resignation was sent to the White House yesterday shortly after the choice of McElroy was announced.

As a corporation executive, McElroy has been paid $285,000 a year, more than 10 times the $25,000 pay of the secretary of defense.

But the sacrifice, both of salary and stock holdings, is strictly in character, close friends said. Over many years McElroy has devoted at least a third of his time to voluntary public service.

Yesterday he termed his nomination "an opportunity to serve . . . in the area of being a good citizen."

If he has one personal trait that marks him—in the words of close friends—as a "well-balanced individual," it is the ability to make a quick turn from business to relaxation.

Having obtained the facts on a given matter, he is quick to reach a decision and in seeing that the decision is carried out immediately.

Consumers Say Gas Unavailable

after, although generally speaking not as to industrial sales.

"What we are trying to do," said Smith, "is to get the state out of the gas-rationing business. These restrictions were not of our making, but were asked for by the utilities to avoid harrassment from homeowners."

"The commission feels very strongly that proper regulating philosophy would indicate that in an area such as this of procurement and supply it should return the prerogatives to industrial management," he said.

'VERY OPTIMISTIC'

Regarding Consumers and its heavy backlog of applications, Smith said, "The commission is very optimistic as to an improvement in its supply situation."

He doubted that Consumers would have gas available for more home heating during the coming winter. "But I have every reason to believe that the situation will improve in the near future," he said.

Smith admitted that the restrictions provide an "umbrella" under which companies can operate until the necessary supplies of gas for home heating are available.

Other communities served by Consumers include Flint, Saginaw, Lansing, Bay City, Jackson and Kalamazoo.

Dan E. Karn, president of Consumers, stated that the company is "serving all the gas space heating customers it can with the supply of gas now available. We do not intend to relax our efforts until everyone who wants to heat his home with gas can do so," he asserged.

Khrushchev Warns West, Urges Defeat of Adenauer

BERLIN (INS) — Nikita S. Khrushchev warned today that Soviet guided missiles could blast the United States with hydrogen bombs in a nuclear war for which, he charged, West Germany is preparing.

In a two-hour harangue before the East German puppet Parliament, the Soviet Communist Party boss lashed out with a litany of direct and indirect threats.

He called on the voters of West Germany to defeat Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his coalition in next month's general elections or risk the peril of atomic war. Adenauer, Khrushchev said, is preparing for such a war.

If it comes, he said, Britain and France would be atom-bombed and the U. S. the target of long-range Soviet missiles armed with H-bomb warheads.

Khrushchev said Russia and all other Communist states are ready to fight to defend Germany if need be. He made clear that his terms for a unified Germany are simply that it must be a Communist Germany. "A reunified Germany must be a peace - loving democratic state," Khrushchev said.

★ ★ ★

Khrushchev devoted the first half of his speech to boasts of growing unity in the Communist world. He claimed that his talks with Yugoslav President Tito last week achieved "a further contribution to the strengthening of the unity of the Socialist countries."

POLITICAL SPEECH

The second half was largely a political campaign speech against Adenauer and his pro-Western government although Khrushchev perhaps with tongue in cheek, denied that the Russians were interfering in West German internal affairs.

Khrushchev risked this political prediction:

"We are confident the working class (in West Germany) will raise its voice and stop the growing forces of militarism and the growing danger of war."

He compared Adenauer to Hitler, charging that the Chancellor is following the same kind of "policy of strength" that led to Hitler's downfall and to "enormous" suffering by the German people.

★ ★ ★

He accused Adenauer of being a "determined adversary" of disarmament and added: "The way Adenauer is leading is dangerous for the German people. Therefore all sound forces among the German people who want to avoid an aggressive war oppose him."

BID RENEWED

Khrushchev renewed his bid to get U. S. troops out of Europe. Russia, he said, would withdraw the Red army from East Germany, Poland, Hungary and Romania if the U. S. pulls out of Britain, France and "some other countries."

★ ★ ★

A short time before, East German president Grotewohl had tried to rebut the U. S. argument that such a withdrawal would leave the Russians free to rush back into central Europe but leave the Americans cut off from the continent.

This contention, Grotewohl said, means the "Americans never want to go home."

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

Does the moon really exert an influence on crops? Should certain crops be planted according to the phases of the moon?

The belief that the moon affects the weather and that crops should be planted according to its phases is largely discredited today by astronomers—though many hold faithfully to the belief.

The moon does exert a powerful influence on the tides and on certain earthly functions, but it is not now thought to exert any appreciable influence on our daily weather.

The moon, interestingly, is the earth's only satellite. Some of the other eight planets we know of have more than one satellite. Jupiter, the largest planet, has twelve moons, and three of the planets have no satellites.

A halo around the moon indicates rain is probably on the way.

Prisoners Reverse Roles After Fight

RICHMOND, Va (AP)—When a prisoner was released from jail here a friend he had made among the inmates asked him to make a long distance telephone call asking for money to pay a fine. The released prisoner did. The money came. The released prisoner tried to collect. The telegraph company questioned his identity. The released prisoner became angry, was arrested for being disorderly and using loud and profane language.

Result: The prisoner in jail got out. The previously released prisoner got back in.

Girls Aim at Career, Wouldn't Be Housewives

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Most teenage girls look forward to both a career and marriage, but they don't want to become housewives.

The University of Michigan Survey Research Center reached this conclusion after interviewing 1,925 girls aged 11 to 19 in 66 counties of the United States. The survey was made at the request of the Girl Scouts.

Only three per cent said they want to be housewives, although 94 per cent hope to be married "some day."

★ ★ ★

Some 80 per cent of the girls said they want to be like their mothers when they grow up.

Try Your Own Ideas for Once

Ever Attempt to Be a Square Man?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — It recently was revealed that inside one mature human brain, there is stowed away more than ten times the amount of information contained in all the books on the jammed shelves of the National Library of Congress.

No wonder nobody does much original thinking for himself any more. Why trouble to bake a fresh pie when there ar a million of 'em stacked up in your cupboard?

But there's more to it than that, of course. There is the danger, in being original and a non-conformist, of being labeled a "square." In American idiom, a square" is any man, woman or apprentice to adulthood who is not "with it."

What "it" is that one is expected to be "with" has never been made completely clear; but presumably "it" refers loosely, to what the majority of the people in one's vicinity are doing or thinking at the given moment when the "square" is doing or thinking otherwise.

Thus, if everybody in the neighborhood feels like getting drunk on Saturday night, and you want to go to bed instead, you are a cool cube and the "normal" ones might send you up-state to be studied, if they only had the time.

A SQUARE MAY ALSO BE . . .

This is a simplified example. In other instances, a square may be the guy who socks his money away in oriental vases, who breeds Russian wolfhounds and the heck with the diplomatic climate, who refuses to marry on the grounds that women and kiddies make him nervous.

Who is to say he is wrong?

Plenty of people . . . busybodies, bigots and that large, lethargic group of society who have been carefully taught their local mores, manners, fashions and proper banking procedures, and consider them law. It is so much easier to think as father thought, and do as mother did, then to risk ridicule by being different.

A new book titled "The Square Pegs" by Irving Wallace, tells the story of some Americans who "dared to be different," and all of them were fairly widely despised, or laughed at. They were eccentrics, thinkers and actors who broke loose from custom, thus making their fellow men feel consciously indignant—and subconsciously jealous.

Interestingly enough, most of the "squares" therin listed wound up their lives as wealthy men and women. Which may hint at the fact that if a man has the self-reliance to rise above public opinon, there's no telling how far he may soar. Call him eccentric if you will, but a million dollars in the vase is worth two bucks in the bank any day.

Remembering high school and college term papers, where students were required to submit seemingly endless pages of footnotes of reference material, I have come up with an idea so revolutionary as to make me, for once and all, a square.

A SUGGESTION

It is hereby suggested that, every now and then, the student of today put down—beside his asterisk in the referendum of footnotes — the words, "My Own Idea; I.E., Vol. 1, Personal Brain."

He may flunk for using such an unrecognized library for information. But he may well be on his way to great wealth in ideas—and banks.

British Queen, Philip to Bypass Michigan

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip aren't coming to Michigan on their fall trip to the United States.

D. T. Muirhead, first secretary to the British ambassador in Washington, wrote Robert Topp, president of the Kalamazoo Junior Chamber of Commerce the royal couple's visit would be limited to stops in Jamestown, Williamsburg, Washington and New York.

And he added, "Indeed no other part of the United States" will be visited.

Topp's Jaycees first extended an invitation to Prince Philip, explaining everybody else seemed to be inviting the Queen but nobody was asking Philip. They invited him over for "a visit with the boys."

Told by Buckingham Palace any invitation should go to the British ambassador, the Jaycees then included the Queen and wrote Washington.

Muirhead said the couple's visit to New York would be en route home and said that the Jamestown and Williamsburg stops would be for one day only.

Enforcement Officers See Help in Ruling

Michigan law enforcement officers were cheered by a recent ruling of the State's Supreme Court. They believe the ruling will be of material aid to them in many cases.

★ ★ ★

The State's highest court ruled that a witness' statement to police officers may be admitted as testimony in a case even though the witness will not repeat it during a court trial. Thus the "forgetfulness" of a witness in the future will not have as damaging an effect on the outcome of a case as it has in the past.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps, too, fewer witnesses will have faulty memories when they realize that their original statements may still be introduced.

★ ★ ★

Previously, the Supreme Court had held that witnesses' testimony introduced in a lower court could be used, even though they were unable to remember the facts when on the stand in a higher court. The new ruling follows the same line of reasoning but carries it further to include statements made to police officers.

U.N. Revision Needed

Sir WINSTON CHURCHILL told the American Bar Association meeting in London that improvements must be made in the United Nations if it is to maintain international peace and justice.

The former Prime Minister pointed out that new members have increased the General Assembly to 81 and that Great Power disputes have thrown increasing responsibilty on the Assembly. "The shape of the U.N. has changed greatly from the original form and from the intention of its architects," he declared.

In disputes involving the free and Communist Worlds, the single power veto in the Security Council nullifies any action. The result has been that the General Assembly gradually has assumed wider powers and small nations have made increased use of bloc voting. Each member nation, no matter what size, has one vote.

Five per cent of the world's population can outvote 95 per cent. Half of the population of the world is represented by four delegates from the U. S., India, Soviet Russia and the United Kingdom. The other half is represented by 75 delegates.

Blocs have been formed along geographical, racial and religious lines and decisions have been made, as CHURCHILL says, "on grounds of enmity, opportunism or merely jealousy and petulance."

The United Nations is the world's best hope so far and it has done much. However, it appears to need a new system of voting and perhaps a revised charter.

THERE are many things worse than being an old maid. One of them, in quite a few cases, is being married.

State Plans to Study Pollution of Clinton

At last preliminary steps are being taken to determine what, if anything, Pontiac must do in regard to sewage disposal.

Last May the city's voters defeated a bond issue which would have financed an auxiliary disposal plant. This fact has been brought to the attention of the State Water Resources Commission.

So now the Commission, in cooperation with the State Health Department, will test the Clinton River during the next few months. If sufficient pollution is found to endanger communities lying along the river between Pontiac and Lake St. Clair, the Commission has the power to order the city to take steps to see that the pollution is reduced.

★ ★ ★

For the most part the pollution results from an overflow of untreated sewage which escapes into the river when the facilities in Pontiac's sewage disposal plant prove inadequate. The city was advised back in 1951 to stop such overflows.

★ ★ ★

Since that time the capacity of the treatment plant has been increased, but the city's population has now grown to such an extent that the existing plant once more is inadequate. The State's findings will be awaited with interest. The promised tests are important to Pontiac taxpayers as well as to the residents of the down-river communities.

On His Doorstep

David Lawrence Says:

Dems Have Planned Attack on Ike

WASHINGTON—Why is the obvious so often overlooked? This question might well be asked as one reads the many thousands of words being spoken and written about President Eisenhower's problems in dealing with Congress.

LAWRENCE

The obvious — that Congress is controlled by the Democratic party, while a Republican administration occupies the White House — is hardly ever stressed as the basic cause of the differences between the executive and legislative branches of the government nowadays.

But the ill effects of divided government cannot be suppressed.

It is, for instance, the objective and goal of the Democrats to win the next elections—both Congressional and Presidential. Plainly, Dwight Eisenhower gives prestige to the Republican party. So the strategy of the Democrats is to see to it that Ike is discredited, ridiculed and sniped at, in order that his hold on the people may be broken down.

WEEKLY BARRAGE

Speeches are prepared for Democratic members of Congress to issue, and a whole barrage of publicity comes from the Democratic headquarters each week aimed at the President personally.

The drive was begun months ago to give exaggerated emphasis to Ike's illnesses. When this didn't impress the public, the next step was to hammer away at his absences from the White House or his playing golf or taking vacations.

The statistics, of course, show that other Presidents — notably FDR—averaged more days per year away from the White House than Ike has. But the people are presumed to have forgotten this —if, indeed, it ever was stressed by the partisans of other days.

Next in importance in Democratic strategy is to spread the impression that Ike doesn't work on the job—that the man who took an oath to execute faithfully the duties of his office, the man who commanded one of the biggest armies in the world in the biggest war of all history, is so lacking in conscientiousness that he would play "while Rome burns."

The public reads about official visitors and ceremonies and golf playing, but little is available to the press on what any President does from morning to night — the telephone calls, the cablegrams, the secret messages, as well as the many memoranda on complex problems that come to him from numerous executive departments and agencies for decision in the unspectacular phases of every-day government.

Much of this detail at present is channeled through President Eisenhower's staff, but even four or five knotty problems a day are enough to make anybody want to get some relief from tension and make a break for the golf course.

What a cruel form of propaganda it is to deny the man in the White House an easing of his physical burdens by attempting to picture him before the public as lacking in fidelity to his job!

Some of the attack is cautiously and unctuously applied. the President, it is argued, is an honest man but he is "incredibly naive," or he is easily "imposed upon" or he is "bewildered" by his job due to "lack of experience." There have been many Presidents who have been imposed upon or misled.

Some of their official advisers in past administrations have gone to jail for fraudulent behavior. The public recognizes that no President can be responsible for the occasional misbehavior of his appointees. Eisenhower may not have enough experienced politicians on his staff, but at least they are an honest group of advisers.

When all the attacks are appraised, it must be said that, as of this month—less than a year after his re-election for a second term —the prestige of President Eisenhower still seems to the Democrats very important to break down.

It's a curious contradiction — there has been so much said about the waning influence of a second-term President, yet there is so much effort being exerted to weaken an influence that is supposedly nonexistent.

Eisenhower's prestige with the people is not going to be affected by partisan attacks, because the public believes he is doing the best he can while a Democrat-controlled Congress attempts every day to sabotage his administration.

The next election will not be decided on the issue of whether Ike played too much golf but on whether his administration was able to maintain the kind of conditions that permit Americans to play golf instead of poring over the casualty lists of their sons killed in action "on the Western front."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Try Bellows Breathing for Weakness, Exhaustion

One who is very weak doesn't inflate his bellows. Hence his breathing is slow and shallow. His oxygen-carbon dioxide exchange is a fraction of what it should be. His entire metabolism is low — the rate of oxidation in the body.

DR. BRADY

What his condition calls for primarily is stimulation which stimulant depends on cause of the exhaustion or weakness. Fresh, strong, hot coffee is always good. Alcohol is only a narcotic and depressant.

Weakness or exhaustion from deprivation, starvation, or exposure to cold causes slow, shallow breathing which permits accumulation of blood in the splanchnic pool — the vast network of veins in the abdomen, capable of holding one-fourth of all the blood — stagnating so to speak, in the pool.

If the weakness or exhaustion continues, the venous blood next accumulates in the lower part of the chest cavity.

This congestion or stagnation of blood in the back or base of the lung is too often regarded as "pneumonia," especially when it occurs after a major operation — "post - operative pneumonia." Even if symptoms indicate some infection, the patient's principal trouble is still shallow breathing.

Inhalations of carbon dioxide, 6 to 8 per cent mixed with air or oxygen, now constitute routine post-operative treatment to improve breathing, prevent hypostatic congestion of lungs, and hasten elimination of ether through the lungs.

EMERGENCY TREATMENT

Such inhalations are good emergency treatment for persons asphyxiated by carbon monoxide, or other gas and poisoned by alcohol, gasoline, or other cleaning fluid.

A study of the anatomy and physiology of the valves in the veins may help you to appreciate how much good people derive from belly breathing. Required reading for the course is Colmnette 21 of the Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, How to Breathe, for which send 35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

I recommend regular practice of the deep-breathing exercise for prevention and-or relief of varicose veins; menstrual difficulties, inability to relax and get to sleep at night; high blood pressure; chronic bronchitis, emphysema, bronchiectasis, asthma, winter cough; chronic gall-bladder trouble; angina pectoris.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Suggests Prisoners Work to Beautify Roads in State

I'm glad to see Pontiac is finally starting to beautify its city streets. The flower boxes at the Courthouse certainly look nice and are a real improvement.

I wish something could be done about the boulevard on M-24 between Pontiac and Lake Orion. We have a nice double lane highway, but the center has grown up in weeds and looks awful. When I've been traveling through Southern states, I've noticed they make their prisoners work for them by doing gardening and road repairs, and Michigan should do the same thing. Let them work for their bread and butter instead of sitting around in jails doing nothing. It would save the state some money.

The boulevard could be made very attractive if some grass and trees were planted and taken care of. It would give our visitors a good impression of our county.

One Who Loves Beauty

Tells Background of Barber Poles

Someone wanted to know why barber poles are in front of barber shops. The barber pole with spiral stripes is a relic of the old days when barbers were also surgeons.

As early as the fifth century A.D. barbers fi Rome extracted teeth, treated wounds and bled patients as part of their professional work. In those days few people could read, so pictures and emblems were used as signs. The red represented blood and the basin represented the vessel used to receive the blood.

Strangely it has been the barbers and not surgeons who have retained this ancient symbol of their profession. American barbers have omitted the basin and added a blue stripe.

Asks Same Law Be Used Here

I see in Detroit there is a new law whereby police can go on private parking property, such as drive-ins, and make arrests. In some drive-ins there is screaming, horn - blowing and racing of motors, and the dirty language some of the teenagers use is not fit for a dog to hear.

Residents in the neighborhood of drive-ins here in town have made many complaints, but nothing seems to be done. Maybe such a law as Detroit has would bring about a solution.

Under the law, a drive-in owner who doesn't do anything about disturbances can lose his license. Why wait? Clean up the mess now.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Treats Cause and Cures Drinking

Hilda was cured of her liquor habit and without the use of drugs to nauseate her when she tasted whisky. We simply put out the inner "fire" that had driven her to use drunkenness as a fire escape. Put out the fire and chronic drunks no longer need their liquor.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-358: Hilda K., aged 29, is the drunken wife described yesterday.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane, if only I could have a baby, I know I'd stop drinking," she vowed.

DR. CRANE

Her sterility had thus been one of the inner torments that had driven her to taverns.

For when a wife finds she cannot have a baby, then she will often develop a mania to become pregnant.

So I explained to Hilda that she might still become pregnant since the various medical tests by several doctors had revealed no organic omstacles to conception.

Recent medical research has revealed the simple fact that the ovulation (pregnancy) date in the female menstrual month is approximately the 15th day before the onset of the next period.

If a wife is on a 28-day cycle, then this 15th day from the next onset will mean the 13th from the last.

But if she is on a 35-day cycle, the 15th from the next would be the 20th from the last.

Hilda's periods for the past year had been 29, 28, 29, 30, 29, 28, 28, 27, 29, 28, 26, 28 and 28 days.

They varied from 26 to 30 days, and such variation is quite normal, for the body doesn't operate with the precision of railroad trains.

An attack of the flu or changes in climate or the number of hours spent in sleep, and possibly varying foods or beverages may have a slight effect.

HILDA'S BABY

Since Hilda's periods averaged about 28 days, we used that as the basis for computation.

And to help increase the likelihood of conception, we suggested the baking soda douche, consisting of a teaspoon of baking soda per quart of warm water.

For sperm cells are more vigorous in an alkaline medium and become paralyzed by acid.

By using these facts and the additional information in the booklet named below, Hilda and her husband within the next two months were elated to learn they were going to have their first baby.

Meanwhile, I urged them to move to a different town, for his work didn't force him to remain in their old location.

And one of the best ways to break the liquor habit is to get away from the old cronies and temptations that cause a person to have a relapse.

Next, I insisted that Hilda become active once more in a church, for she had originally been a regular attendant, but had quit attending for several years during her drunken sprees.

LATER RESULTS

Before the next year had passed, Hilda bore a baby boy. She and her husband were now active members of a neighborhood church.

★ ★ ★

Hilda's church companions did not use liquor or have it in their homes, so she thus avoided any tendency to slip back into drunkenness.

Besides, she had no great urge after her sexual inferiority complex had been banished by her realization that she was going to have a baby.

Similar feelings of sexual inferiority often drive middleaged husbands into drunkenness, too. Their dread of a platonic marriage scares them to the point where they flee into an alcoholic stupor to hide from their terror.

They often think drunkenness will also serve as a camouflage to divert the attention of their wife and thus keep their secret hidden.

So send for my booklet, "Facts About Pregnancy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

★ ★ ★

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Legal Aid Unit Assists Needy

Destitute Persons Given Help From Groups Springing Up in Nation

LANSING (AP)—If a man is broke, debt-ridden, friendless and suddenly confronted by a serious lawsuit or criminal charge, where does he turn?

Once there was virtually no answer, and even now if such misfortune struck, in many parts of the country a destitute man would find himself at the mercy of the judge or his legal antagonist.

For lack of the price of a lawyer's help, he might go to jail or become caught in a legal web with lifetime ramifications.

But increasingly in recent years an answer to such distress has been provided by local legal aid societies bound together at the top by the National Legal Aid Assn., an offshoot of the American Bar Assn.

Perhaps oddly, a foremost champion of the destitute in this field is William T. Gossett, a vice president and general counsel of the Ford Motor Co.

Gossett heads up the ABA unit seeking to strengthen legal aid activities across the country. He discusses the overall effort and Michigan's place in the picture in the current issue of the Michigan State Bar Journal.

Gossett said the eight-man staff of the Legal Aid Bureau in Detroit handled nearly 18,000 new cases in 1955, but that generally outstate has not kept pace.

Outside Detroit, legal aid societies now function in the state at Flint, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

Lansing has a legal aid bureau which operates as part of a social agency, and there are legal aid committees of the Bar in Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor, northern and southern Oakland County and Mt. Clemens.

"It is our view that legal aid services should be organized or expanded in Ann Arbor, Bay City, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Muskegon, Pontiac, Royal Oak and Saginaw," Gossett said.

He said there are at least stirrings of activity in nearly all these cities.

Gossett called it "essential" that legal help should be provided for the defense of indigents in criminal cases.

Colorado Offers Man's Guideposts

DENVER (INS) — Beautiful scenery, warm weather, gambling and sports may entice the masses, but for a few select travelers the growing cities, mushrooming industries and guideposts of man's progress have a far greater attraction.

★ ★ ★

And no place is quite so lucrative a field for you as Colorado. In one fell swoop you can view the booming voraciousness of a modern city, the transformation of nature's wildness to man's powers and hear the voices of man's creative urge — all on a shoe clerk's salary.

★ ★ ★

Let us take a short sample tour of the Centennial State, to show you what can be done for a really modern vacation.

★ ★ ★

We'll start in Denver. The Mile High City is a mushrooming metropolis, whose downtown area is ringing with construction hammers. Skyscrapers, some of the most modern in the world, are being slammed up toward the heavens at an amazing rate.

In the suburbs, a bursting population is filing into model subdivisions. Here is a view of architecture at its most instructive stage. Churches of concrete, homes of logs, schools of steel — an array of modern Americana such as few cities in the U. S. can offer.

On Denver's west side, the Federal Center houses one of the largest collections of government field offices outside of Washington, D.C. Here, for the trouble of asking, one can see working models of the Hoover and Grand Coulee dams, see the cartographers of the U. S. Geologic Survey make maps with intricate electronic instruments and talk with Atomic Energy geologists about the great uranium boom.

PRESENCE OF MINING

A few miles northwest, one can visit the fabulous Swartzwalder pitchblende mine. In Golden, just west of Denver, one can visit the Colorado School of Mines to learn the fabulous history of the Front Range ore deposits. It was silver and gold that made the West, but uranium's remaking it.

In Grand Junction and heading southward into the Four Corners area, you'll see a desert country alive with progress. For this is the fabled land of uranium. Watch mills process out the "yellow cage" — fuel of the atomic age.

Proceed back into the high mountains, to the Harvard Observatory atop Mount Evans, where some of the nation's wisest astronomers will train their telescopes and cosmic ray equipment on tiny satellites whirling through outer space during the International Geophysical Year.

As a follow-up, stop at the National Bureau of Standards Laboratory in Boulder, Colo. Here I.G.Y. data from throughout the western hemisphere are being collected — a massive tribute to the internationalism of science which knows no commercial or political barriers.

Heading into the resort town of Colorado Springs, one can see the jet-age in its human terms. Downtown, almost obscure amid its quiet residential surroundings, is Continental Air Defense Command headquarters, the vital nerve center of our nation's military preparedness.

Unfortunately you won't be able to tour this installation completely.

SOME MODERN CULTURE

And let's wind up the vacation with a little modern culture. Here we have a choice. We can attend one of the magnificent concerts at the Red Rocks amphitheater near Denver. It's one of the few natural acoustical auditoriums — and with top stars of the concert hall and stage available during the summer months.

Or we can take in a night at the opera — in the old mining town of Central City, a mere 30 miles from Denver. The Opera will feature two favorites this season.

Perhaps we can visit Aspen, a year-round alpine resort town high in the mountains. Its music festival is world famous and its annual Humanities Institute attracts some of the globe's most enlightened thinkers and speakers.

Positano Beautiful, Cheap but, Oh, Those 342 Steps

By E. T. STONE
Managing Editor,
Seattle Post-Intelligencer

POSITANO, Italy (INS) — There are two directions in Positano—up and down. I won't go so far as to say that you have to sleep on a vertical plane here but you can thank the tenacity and the ingenuity of the Italians who have managed to attach bits of masonry here and there to the sheer cliffs and rocks above the Gulf of Salerno, allowing you to assume a horizontal position at night and ease into a sitting posture by day.

Only an Italian or a mountain goat would view the towering cliffs and mountain walls of Positano in terms of a place to live.

It was some 800 years ago that the Italians ousted the goats and took over and they added a refinement in living which had never occurred to the stupid goats—steps.

There are steps everywhere in Positano. There are stone steps, concrete steps, broad steps and narrow steps and steps cut from the living rock.

At the base of the cliffs are two tiny pebbly shelves which the Positanans grandly refer to as "beaches." From either one of these shelves you can dunk yourself in the deep blue Mediterranean.

However, this takes some doing. From our white-washed, cliff-hanging casa it's 342 steps down to the nearest beach and T-H-R-E-E H-U-N-D-R-E-D (Puff, puff) A-N-D FO-R-T-Y (Puff, keep going, you're almost there, puff) T-W-O back! This is by actual and painful count.

It would be inaccurate to say that Positano has not been "discovered."

The four or five small hotels here and as many more "pensiones" testify that Positano has been an attraction for some time to knowledgeable Europeans who glory in its rugged and beautiful setting, perhaps unexcelled anywhere in the world.

But certainly it is a fair statement that the international colony here is much smaller and much more sophisticated than the crowds in nearby and noisy Sorrento, or on the isle of Capri which are out and out tourist traps.

There are mostly Germans and French and better-heeled Italians here and, of course, the English, always expert at smelling out bargains in good living.

It may be that the clientele at Positano will always be limited because—it is a town that definitely requires a stout heart, good lungs and strong muscles. It is not an old folks' resort.

You can live here quite reasonably and recover somewhat from the financial bleeding you have suffered in Rome and Florence.

Our small white casa, prosaically named "61," has a sign proclaiming that it is a place of "tranquilite e panorame" meaning it's quiet and has a swell view. The sign is superbly right on both counts. It is quiet, indeed.

And from the little balcony of our room we can look out over the sparkling blue Gulf of Salerno or at a couple of rocky, off-shore islands or at a jutting cliff along the world-famous Amalfi Drive or at Positano itself, spilling down the side of the mountain.

Auto Salesman Faces Charge

Allegedly Posed as City Police Officer, Using Dime Store Badge

Charges of impersonating a police officer were filed today against an automobile salesman who allegedly passed himself off as a detective lieutenant.

According to police, James P. Bennett, 26, of 3200 E. Walton Blvd., approached a teenage couple Tuesday night sitting on the grass near Walton, flashed a badge and identified himself as a "Lt. Jim" of the Pontiac Police Dept.

The couple answered his questions; they told police, and he learned that the girl's mother objected to her seeing the boy, who is crippled and confined to a wheelchair.

Using this knowledge as a threat, the pair said, the bogus officer told the girl he would call her the next day at her home. The girl said Bennett did call her and said he wanted to see her to ask more questions.

She agreed to meet him at the 4-H Fair grounds on N. Perry street yesterday afternoon.

The girl then told her boyfriend and he called police and asked if there was a "Lt. Jim" there. When told there was no such officer, he reported the whole story.

Detective James Bale met Bennett at the fair grounds, showed him his badge and said, "I'm a city detective, I hear you are too."

Bennett at first denied the entire affair, Bale said, but later admitted his role in it and asked for psychiatric examination. A dime store detective badge was found on Bennett's person, Bale said.

He is to be arraigned today in municipal court.

License Bureau Open for Keego

Drivers May Obtain Permits From Police Department

KEEGO HARBOR— A Driver's License Bureau has been established in this city and licenses may be obtained through the Keego Police Department daily, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

According to an announcement of Eileen Van Horn, city clerk, summer taxes are now being collected —with penalty.

A total of $33,987.05 has been received to date, she said, with $48,132.10 as the total roll figure.

A special meeting has been held and inspection made of all complaints received from residents on the drainage situation. An appropriation of $1,000 has been made from the capital improvement fund to be used in relief of the problem. A pump currently is in operation to help eliminate the trouble.

Time changes for city parking, recently installed, are under consideration. Present hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. may become 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., the clerk said.

11 Communities to Discuss Drain

Will Reappraise Long-Delayed Twelve-Town Storm Relief Sewer

Eleven South Oakland County communities have been invited tonight to reappraise the long-delayed Twelve-Town storm relief drain.

Ferndale Mayor Bruce D. Garbutt, who called the meeting, said that is the Oakland County Drain Board can not come up with a "dependable plan with a definite target date to complete the project," as many communities as want to share the cost will proceed on their own.

"We can't keep on waiting while the country is involved in negotiation after negotiation," Garbutt said.

"It's no fun for South Oakland County to keep on biting its fingernails in fear of flooded basements every time it rains. This is a very serious problem of too much concern to too many people to keep on delaying."

★ ★ ★

Garbutt believed that the majority of the Twelve-Town communities are prepared to act on their own outside of the county proposal, which has been five years in the planning stage.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the conference room of the Ferndale Public Library.

The county, which proposed the giant, $39 million project to eliminate flooding where suburban building has caused an overload on storm sewer lines, has not been invited, Garbutt said.

★ ★ ★

The drain was held up last year by an eleventh hour law suit brought by Troy and Southfield Townships, which objected to their shares of the apportioned cost.

The suit has not been settled.

Rochester Seed Man Will Get U. S. Award

The national award of the American Seed Trade Assn. to be presented at a forthcoming meeting will go to Harm Drewes, plant breeder and superintendent of Eastern Research and Seed Breeding Station of the Ferry-Morse Seed Co., Rochester.

Announcement is made by directors for the Council of All America selections, sponsored by American Seed, that Drewes has been unanimously chosen to receive this year's silver medallion of honor for horticultural achievement.

The council decided that "Mr. Drewes' breeding work, especially in spinach, cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli has been a great contribution to gardening, to the American seed industry and the AAS."

Besides developing important new cabbage varieties he cooperated in the successful seed production of snowball types of cauliflower in the U. S. and in the breeding of special cauliflower strains.

Drewes is the author of several special bulletins written for Michigan State University and is past president of AAS, and member of the American Society for Horticultural Science, as well as other national and international horticulture groups.

The third Ferry-Morse representative to win the coveted award, Drewes began his work as a plant breeder in the Netherlands, where he was born.

City Man Bound Over on Statutory Charge

John Delgado, 29, of 401 Midway St., was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court on a charge of statutory rape by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum yesterday. He was released on $1,000 bond pending arraignment Friday.

Police alleged that Delgado, for immoral purposes, harbored three minor girls who were escapes from the Oakland County Children's Home.

Link to 'Ex-Criminal' Cited in Flint Killing

FLINT (INS) — Flint police today quoted James H. Fisher, prominent local businessman, as saying he shot his wife to death because she was "running around with an ex-criminal."

The 42-year-old Fisher, owner of a chain of dry cleaning shops, killed his wife, Maxine, 40, early yesterday with a single shot from his deer rifle.

★ ★ ★

The man ordered his two children to view the body of their mother, called police, then shot himself twice in the chest.

He remained in serious condition today in Flint's St. Joseph Hospital.

Capt. Loren Herfurth, of the Flint police, said Fisher made the statement to him about his wife's alleged activities.

★ ★ ★

Fisher's attorney, Morris Pelavin, said his client did not know his wife was dead until told by a hospital physician.

Pelavin said "Fisher is a very confused man."

Meanwhile, a petition has been filed in probate court requesting that a guardian be appointed for Fisher's three children.

Oakland GOP Publishing Small Paper

The Oakland County Republican Committee has begun publication of a small-size, bi-monthly newspaper to bolster its power at the polls next year.

Arthur G. Elliot Jr., Republican County Chairman, said the newspaper's main purpose "is to get our story, our objectives and our needs, across to all Republicans in Oakland County."

Elliot, who called for strengthening and broadening the party when he took over as chairman in April, hoped the new publication would increase inter - party communication.

The newspaper, he pointed out, cover the activities of Oakland County Republicans locally, on the state level and nationally.

Eight thousand copies of the original issue were published, Elliot said.

Young Child Injured When Hit by Truck

A two-and-a-half-year-old girl is in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today following injuries received from an ice cream truck yesterday in front of her home.

Sandra K. Huff, of 274 Flora Wood, Waterford Township, according to witnesses, darted out from the sidewalk and ran into the side of the truck as it was pulling up to the curb.

Her mother, Mrs. Richard Huff, saw the accident from a next door neighbor's porch.

The driver David Schroeder, 19, of 141 Dwight St., Pontiac, told Sheriff's officers he did not see the child.

The girl suffered injuries to her chest and abdomen, but doctors have not yet diagnosed their extent.

Seek Speedup in Flood Control

Oakland County Ready to Cooperate in Curbing River Rouge

Oakland County has been asked to help speed up steps to provide flood control in the lower River Rouge Valley.

★ ★ ★

The county promised cooperation but made no definite commitments at a meeting yesterday in Detroit, attended by officials from Detroit, Wayne County and the Army Corps of Engineers, which has begun a flood control survey.

With cooperation, Army representatives said, the proposed two-year survey could be finished sooner, perhaps in as little time as six months.

Oakland's help is important, it was stated, since almost half of the River Rouge's waters come from north of Eight-Mile road, the southern county line.

Although flooding is mainly within Wayne County, a representative of the Oakland County Drain Board said, control of the river is important to Oakland communities that use it as an outlet for storm waters.

The representative, James Pemberton, an engineer in the drain commissioner's office, also pointed out that three new proposed drains in the Southfield area would empty into the Rouge, increasing the flow of Oakland County waters into the already overloaded outlet.

It was agreed at the meeting that if the survey is completed in time, funds for flood control can be sought at the next session of Congress. A preliminary estimate placed the total cost at $20 million.

The University of Texas executive development program, a section of the College of Business Administration, is conducted on the Bar K Guest Ranch.

Crash Injures Couple in Waterford Township

A couple was injured yesterday afternoon when their auto collided with another on Cypress and Cooley Lake road, Waterford Township.

Mrs. Dorothy Cheng, 54, of 7350 Cooley Lake Rd., suffered a fractured right leg and face lacerations, while her husband, James, 58, had lacerations of the forehead and contusions of the knees. She was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital, where he was also treated and released.

The other driver, George J. Lapear, 8125 Marshallsea, West Bloomfield Township, was not injured.

Recover Body of Man From Boardman River

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The body of Peter A. Manuel, about 50, was recovered from the Boardman River here last night by police.

Officers said there were no signs of violence on the body. They said an autopsy would be held. They said the body apparently had been in the river for "several days."

In primitive Samoa the natives built a double canoe which was capable of carrying 500 people. The Norsemen's famous long boats could carry only about 200.

'New Type' Light Bill $1,286.80

Progress Costly for Them

NEW YORK (INS) — A Long Island cement company executive hasn't much faith in electronic computing machines.

★ ★ ★

Raymond Carr, 50, of Floral Park, L. I., received a bill from the Long Island Lighting Co. of $1,266.80 for electric power in July. Carr, who lives with his son, usually gets a monthly bill for under $20.

★ ★ ★

Along with the bill came a brochure from the company entitled "Facts About Your New Type of Bill." It told of installation of computing machines to calculate the bills.

Carr and son prefer the old type bills.

4-H Folks Take Part in Many Worthwhile Projects

By SYLVIA de STEIGER

Contrary to some "city slickers" opinions, 4-H members don't spend all of their time learning about animals, how to feed them, or make them prize winners.

Many worthwhile and useful projects, such as child care, clothing, personal money management, photography, and general home improvements are activities of use to all.

Of the 188 sewing entries judged yesterday at the 4-H Oakland County Fair in progress this week, 16 girls were placed on the honor roll or the top 10 per cent of the blue ribbon winners.

Those on the honor roll for their first year sewing projects includes: Gwen Bennett of the Rolling Acres club, Milford; Gail Carnegie, Troy 4-H club, Birmingham; Mary Cummings, 4-H Variety, Rochester; Ginger Dodge, Bald Mountain club, Pontiac, and Shirley Ann Devine, Clinton Valley 4-H club, Rochester.

Second year honor roll sewing winners were Janet Foster and Mary Murrish, both of the Bald Mountain club, Rochester; Linda Henderson and Judy Nimeth, both of the Bloomfield 4-H club, Birmingham; Carole Orr, Flying Fingers club, Clarkston and Susan Swank, Rochester Craft club.

Vera Esinschenk, of the Clinton Valley 4-H club, Rochester, was the single winner of the third year sewing honor roll position. Joan Fodrea, of the Rochester Variety 4-H club was the lone honor roll winner of the fourth year wool class.

Complete clothing honors went to Judy Eastburn, of the Bloomfield 4-H club, Birmingham and Jane Booth of the Rochester Craft club. Miss Booth also took the top position in the children's clothing class.

Those who entered the foods contest and are now eligible to compete in the 4-H state show include: Phyllis Sanders of the Busy Bees, Ortonville, brownies; Barbara McGee, of the Avondale Cooking club, Rochester, cookies; Sandra Brown, of Oxford, cupcakes; Jane Bixler, of Seymour Lake club, Ortonville, yeast bread.

Others are Barbara McGee, Avondale Cooking, Rochester, pies; Delores DeNise, Sashabaw club, Pontiac, yeast coffee cake; Margaret Braid, East Orion club, Lake Orion, sponge cake; and Jean Mahoney, of the Busy Fingers club, Milford, frosted cup cakes.

Outdoor meal top winners eligible for the state contest are: Denis McAvoy of Troy; Sidney Trevethan of Rochester; Marilyn Duncan of Wixom; Sue Byrd of Holly and Mary A. Cromie of Rochester.

Entries in the freezing contest headed for East Lansing are Bud Williamison of Pontiac; Margaret Wiggins, of Rochester and Carolyn Bowers, of Milford.

The highest canning awards went to Sharon Templeton, of New Hudson; Carolyn Bowers, of Milford and Jane Booth, of Rochester.

House Allows Chapel Funds

Reverses Decision on Building 'Monstrosity' at Air Force Academy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House reversed itself yesterday and agreed to allow funds to begin a new chapel at the Air Force Academy. Then it passed a 1½ billion-dollar appropriations bill, mostly to finance military construction.

★ ★ ★

The bill now goes to the Senate.

The dispute over the chapel revolved around its proposed design. One House member called it a "monstrosity." On Tuesday, the House tentatively approved 102-53 an amendment to bar use of any money in the bill on the chapel at Colorado Springs, Colo. But yesterday the amendment was knocked out on a standing vote of 147-83.

★ ★ ★

The House also rejected 150-59 a move to delete 12½ million dollars to start construction of a second airport for the Washington area. The airport, to be built at nearby Burke, Va., will cost 50 millions.

The bill, passed 330-75, contains $1,581,590,587—all but about 60 millions of the total for military public works projects. The bill's total is more than 279 million dollars below President Eisenhower's original request.

Calls Christian Way 'Only True Objective'

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham says the Christian way "is thrilling and exhilarating and gives the only true objective to life."

★ ★ ★

Graham also told 16,000 persons at Madison Square Garden last night: "Modern pressures in this push button and sleeping pill age have produced the disease of anxiety. Annually we have 15,000 suicides because thousands live in a spiritual vacuum."

★ ★ ★

"God meant for people to have something to be dedicated to," he said, adding that the something was Jesus Christ.

★ ★ ★

On the 75th night of his New York crusade, 414 persons came forward to make "decisions for Christ." The over-all total of such decisions is 43,462. Attendance now totals 1,429,300.

Legislator Can Do All— Except Bridge Potomac

By ARTHUR EDSON
AP Feature Writer

WASHINGTON—A congressman is a remarkable creature.

He can decide how big a military force should be, and how far it can be cut without endangering the nation.

He can decide on an atomic program that (he hopes) will not end in blowing up the world.

He can talk of billions, of global strategy, of satellites that soar far from us earth-bound people.

Yet he also can stand in the capitol and stare out at the Potomac and be baffled completely on how to cross it.

For 10 years now Congress has been debating a bridge across the Potomac. How? When? Where?

NO QUESTION OF WHY

There hasn't been much argument over why? As every tourist knows, Washington is a city of big, beautiful streets that during rush hours tend to be clogged with traffic.

On good days, traffic moves at a crawl. On bad days, it just stands, giving us bus riders lots of time to read about why Congress can't make up its mind on another escape hatch for the ever increasing traffic.

Once Congress voted nine million dollars to build two bridges, one to take traffic out of the city, the other to fetch it in from Virginia. But almost all of the money ran out building the bridge into Washington. So you get out at your own peril.

Everything in Washington soon becomes immensely complicated.

Take the simple question of who is to pay for the bridge. How about Virginia? The bridge leads to Virginia, doesn't it?

Well, Virginia isn't eager to pick up the tab. It points out that much of the traffic is caused by persons going back and forth to work in the Pentagon, on Virginia's side of the river.

WHY SHOULD VIRGINIA PAY?

Anyway, Virgini's boundary runs right down the river's edge. Why should it pay for a bridge over water it owns no part of?

Other congressmen point out that back where they come from they build bridges without help from the federal government.

That leads to exchanges like this:

Rep. H. R. Gross (R) of Waterloo, Iowa: "Mr. Chairman, I, too, want to commend the gentleman from Virginia when it comes to tapping the federal treasury for the benefit of his people. He is always on the job. I want to commend him for that."

Rep. Joel Broyhill (R) of Arlington, Va.: "I think the gentleman. I think all of us are equally concerned, or should be equally concerned, with the welfare of our nation's capital."

★ ★ ★

Well, the argument goes on. The House begins by considering a plan to build a tunnel under the river, then votes to put a bridge across it instead, and finally winds up killing off the whole thing by sending it back to committee.

AND WHAT ABOUT THE BOMB?

Along the way the congressmen found time to wonder about whether it's better to have a bridge or tunnel if a bomb were to hit.

Rep. Wayne Hays (D) of Flushing, Ohio, asked: "Does not the gentleman feel that if an atomic bomb were dropped on Washington, the question of crossing the Potomac would become academic, anyway?"

Rep. James C. Davis (D) of Stone Mountain, Ga: "It would be for most of the people."

It certainly would be. If the bomb ever comes, heaven forbid, we bus riders probably will be sitting there reading about the bridge that isn't.

The talk, like the river, appears unabridgeable.

Capture U.N. Officials With Dope, Paper Says

CAIRO (AP)—The newspaper Al Ahram said today Egyptian authorities seized a U.N. Emergency Force car loaded with narcotics and arrested two Canadian non-commissioned officers.

Al Ahram said the two men, stopped while trying to cross the Suez Canal from Sinai into Egypt.

The U.N. office in Cairo said it could not immediately confirm or disprove the newspaper report.

Aged Patients Get Out of Bed?

Therapist Urges Old People Not to Become Completely Dependent

DETROIT (AP)—The aged patient should be encouraged to get out of bed and to care for himself as early as possible, a leading physical therapist states.

Miss Geneva Johnson, chief physical therapist of Talmadge Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, Ga., said too often an older patient is hospitalized to save his life and the bedside care provided encourages him to become completely dependent.

★ ★ ★

She said that although a physical therapy program begun early will be most effective, gratifying results are still possible from treatment of patients hospitalized for a time.

"A display of confidence in the patient's ability to perform will encourage him to attempt new activities," Miss Johnson said. "The aged patient requires constant encouragement and praise for his smallest achievement. Emphasis should be on accomplishment."

Miss Johnson said that "when the patient is ready for action, it is important to provide activity which will challenge his ability." The patient, she said, should understand that exercises he is asked to perform will enable him to care for himself more ably.

She urged that development of skills and interests for their own sake be encouraged.

Berlin Sees High Point in 'This Is the Army'

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Writer

The greatest satisfaction of Irving Berlin's career, he says, was a non-commercial venture: his production of "This is the Army," a brilliant musical revue.

It was a morale show in World War II. Berlin, in uniform and past middle-age, spent several years taking the show to Allied war theaters in Europe and in the Pacific to boost morale.

"I was busy doing something I liked," said Berlin as he recalled the "kick" he got out of the experience.

The show, with an all-soldier cast, was a big hit in New York in 1942. It visited many other large cities and eventually was made into a motion picture.

★ ★ ★

At the request of government officials, who remembered the World War I Berlin production of "Yip Yip Yaphank," Irving took the show overseas.

Hhe was the volunteer impresario. He had written the book for the entire show and the words and music for all of its songs.

PROCEEDS WENT TO ARMY

Berlin turned all the proceeds over to the Army. It was one of many patriotic and charitable acts of his career.

More than 3,000,000 Allied soldiers saw the show in the United Kingdom, in Italy, in the Pacific and at various Air Force bases. It was a smash hit everywhere.

Up to 1956 "This is the Army" earned $9,761,000 for Army emergency relief. In addition to the fortune realized by the Army agencies, a vast amount of war bonds was sold through various exploitation stunts in connection with its performances.

I remember when Berlin arrived with the show at Naples. He was brought by the Army brass to the Allied Forces headquarters to be interviewed by American and British war correspondents. They quizzed him about the many songs he had written.

WHAT SONG FAVORED?

A British correspondent suggested that "White Christmas" was his favorite song.

Berlin shook his head indecisively and remarked he had written a song away back in 1911 — "Before you fellows' time" — that he thought a lot of. Whereupon this writer spoke up:

"You mean 'Alexander's Ragtime Band?'"

"Right," said Berlin, surprised there was a newspaperman around who recalled that one.

The "This is the Army" show stayed in Italy more than four months. It played to large gathering of troops and at various hospitals.

It was a sprightly show, made to order for soldiers. Its songs included "This is the Army, Mr. Jones," "I Lost My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen," and "I'm Getting Tired So I Can Sleep."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower caught the show in London. He was so impressed he suggested to Army Chief of Staff Gen. George Marshall that it be played in all theaters of operations.

While it was playing in London, Berlin composed a song, "My British Buddy," which was enthusiatically received in England.

Assistant Secretary of War Robert Patterson said to Berlin: "Irving, you did a great job with this Army show. We've got a lot of money in the treasury as a result. But the important thing is what it did for morale."

The government was truly grateful to Berlin for his war work.

On the wall in Berlin's New York office is a photograph of a medal presented to him by President Eisenhower "In recognition and appreciation for his services in composing may patriotic songs.

Man Bound Over on Assault Charge

Richard Tunny, 18, of 11 Prospect St., was bound over to circuit court after examination yesterday in municipal court.

He is charged with felonious assault and was released on $200 bond pending his arraignment Aug. 9.

Tunny, with three companions, allegedly threatened a gas station attendent with a knife when he refused to sell them seven cents worth of gasoline. The other three youths were charged with disorderly conduct and their case will be heard Aug. 21.

Arrest Rich Peasants, Landlords in Red China

HONG KONG (INS) — Radio Peiping reported today that Communist Chinese security police had arrested 51 landlords and rich peasants in Yangchow and charged them with conducting illegal trade in grains.

The radio said the defendants were also accused of spreading rumors slandering the government's grain purchase policy in "an attempt to undermine the relation between the government and the peasant."

Research Money Cut Off by Dems

Republicans Seek Funds for Monroe Atomic Plant

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans said they would try today to restore to the atomic energy construction authorization bill research money for a privately owned reactor in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Cole (R-NY), ranking GOP member and former chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, told a reporter he would offer such an amendment.

Cole said he would try to restore authorization of $4,200,000 in research funds for a proposed fast breeder reactor to be built near Monroe, Mich., by Power Reactor Development Co. (PRDC). That figure was recommended by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) and the Budget Bureau.

The Democratic - controlled Atomic Energy Committee eliminated any mention of PRDC from the bill and substituted 1½ million dollars for fast breeder reactor research in general. The action was taken in a party line vote.

If the strict party division were to continue in a floor fight, Cole's amendment would be doomed in the Democratic-controlled House.

Democrats said they eliminated a specific authorization for PRDC from the bill because of proceedings now in progress before the AEC.

Michigan labor leaders, headed by President Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers, have protested a temporary construction permit granted PRDC by the AEC. They contended a reactor so close to the Detroit and Toledo, Ohio, metropolitan areas would pose a hazard.

But a GOP minority report drafted by Cole and three other House Republicans accused the Democrats of discriminating against PRDC because it is privately owned.

★ ★ ★

Order Man Tried for Shooting Mayor

DETROIT (AP)—Contractor Lester Ellerhorst, 52, has been ordered to stand trial in Circuit Court on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder in the shooting and wounding of suburban Garden City Mayor James Tierney.

Dearborn Township Justice John L. Mokersky made the ruling yesterday at Ellerhorst's examination. No trial date was set and Ellerhorst was freed on $10,000 bond.

The 52-year-old Tierney still is in critical condition at Wayne County General Hospital. Doctors have operated on him twice.

Tierney was shot July 25 during a meeting of the Garden City Planning Commission at which a police station constructed by Ellerhorst's firm was criticized by the mayor.

Detroit Naval Reservist Unhurt in Plane Crash

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—A Detroit Naval Reserve flyer was unhurt last night when he set his Skyraider down in a farm field five miles west of Fremont.

Lt. Earl B. Bostic, 34, said he developed engine trouble. The plane was damaged to the extent that it probably will have to be dismantled.

Bostic, on two weeks active duty, was on a training flight from the Jacksonville, Fla., Naval Air Station to the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station near Detroit. He left Jacksonville at 4:52 p.m., EST, and made the forced landing at 8:15 p.m.

Indians Cashing In Big on New Mexico's Uranium

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (INS) — A once-impoverished Indian tribe of New Mexico is undergoing a dramatic rejuvenation today, thanks to the modern miracle-maker, uranium.

Four years ago the Laguna Tribe, numbering 3,600 members, had less than $1,000 to sustain itself on the backward, barren reservation south of Albuquerque.

★ ★ ★

Today their homes are being modernized, electricity has been brought in, and even television antennas are beginning to dot the adobe rooftops.

Long-range plans include an elaborate tribal court, assembly hall, prison, police force and all the other facilities that mark a modern community.

The tribe can afford the best. Collectively speaking, the Lagunas are rolling in wealth.

This modern tale of "rags to riches" began in 1953 when uranium was discovered on the reservation.

LEASE OFFERS

The discovery brought juicy offers for lease rights from several large corporations.

Ulysses Paisano, chairman of the tribe's 14-member Finance and Planning Committee, said Anaconda Co. made the best offer. It got a prospecting permit with option to lease.

Result: The jackpot discovery — the largest uranium find in the nation.

Anaconda took out a 10-year lease, with option to renew. The Laguna Tribe got the royalties.

Paisano said the tribe has close to three million dollars now, although the mine did not begin to operate until 1955.

"Present royalties," he said, "average a little over $100,000 per month" — well over a million dollars a year.

The tribe is benefitting also from another part of the bargain with Anaconda. The company agreed to train the tribesmen to operate the heavy equipment, and to employ Lagunas as long as the company operated in the area.

As a result, many tribesmen, unable to find employment before, are now drawing top wages at the mine and at the new mill at Bluewater.

The planning committee was elected to advise the tribal council what to do with the money.

And what are they doing with their new-found wealth?

HEAVY INVESTORS

Paisano says, "We have a little over one million dollars invested in corporate and government bonds, and we plan other types of investments. A portion of the money, not yet determined, will be distributed on a per capita basis to members.

"We plan to set up an educational program. We want to send our best qualified men and women to colleges to learn law, engineering, medicine and other professions in order to develop future leadership."

The tribal village dates back to about 1600 when a reservation was established under the Spanish government.

The tribe numbered about 1,800 at the turn of the century. The tribe barely made a living on its livestock and "large gardens." As the tribe increased the living became more difficult.

Many tribe members were forced to leave the reservation and Lagunas now have settlements in Barstow and Richmond, Calif., Winslow, Ariz., Gallup and Albuquerque.

Now many of the Lagunas are coming home.

There is a lot of work to do at the reservation. The villages have a long way to go before they can be considered modern. But they have the money to carry out their elaborate plans.

The future looks bright — thanks to uranium.

Decorum the Rule at Trial

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Boisterous scenes, familiar to many Hollywood gatherings, will be absent from the criminal libel trial of Confidential and Whisper magazines.

For Los Angeles Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker, in whose court a jury will hear the case, demands strict courtroom decorum.

If the predicted boudoir testimony of Hollywood's great materializes the 57-year-old, bespectacled judge will demand that it be given in a manner befitting the confines of his courtroom in the Los Angeles Hall of Justice.

Forthe bushy-browed Walker is all business when garbed in the robes of his calling. Attorneys who appear before the San Francisco born-University of Southern California educated Walker must be prepared to toe the mark.

Legal showmanship is always welcome in Judge Walker's court but the jurist does not permit either the prosecution or the defense to violate the code of courtroom conduct.

COMES FROM EXPERIENCE

Walker's courtroom strictness comes from experience gained on both sides of the bench.

He was named a deputy commissioner of corporations for the state of California shortly after he was graduated from USC in 1929, a post he held until March 1943 when he was named Assistant District Attorney for Los Angeles County.

Three months later Walker was upper to Chief Depoty District Attorney.

Walker returned to the private practice of law in 194? and, in Aug. 1953 was named to the bench by then Gov. Earl Warren.

He has presided at numerous headline cases, among them the divorce trial of stars Susan Hayward and Jess Barker and the bribery trial involving boxers Art Aragon and Dick Goldstein. He also served a term as presiding judge of the court's criminal division.

When Judge Walker hangs his judicial robes up for the night and heads for home in suburban Glendale, he often is greeted by the full family circle that includes his wife Alice, two sons and a daughter plus four grandchildren.

$6.3 Billion for Study

CLEVELAND—Manufacturers of electrical goods are spending 20 per cent of the total earmarked this year by American industry for research and development programs. United States companies have spent more on research since 1950 than in the previous 180 years and will spend $6,300,000,000 in this year.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — H. R. Eves told officers a thief stole two of his hives loaded with bees and honey worth $120.

Motion Sickness Can Be Avoided

CHICAGO — According to a Minneapolis doctor writing in the American Medical Association's magazine, Today's Health, you don't have to worry any more about that old vacation bugaboo, motion sickness.

Under most circumstances, he says, motion sickness can be warded off, and even when preventive measures fail, drugs are available to give relief. Motion sickness results from "too much nerve-tickling action" in the ear's labyrinth, the organ that helps a person keep his balance, the article says.

Keeping the head steady reduces this action, the doctor advises, and the head can be steadied by leaning it against a backrest, bracing it in position with pillows, or by focusing the eyes on the horizon.

George Washington personally hung the wallpaper in the dining room at Mount Vernon.

Wants Prices Adjusted

CORN, Okla. (AP) — Four-year-old Ernie Koop decided he'd venture downtown and took a handful of dimes his parents had been saving for him.

When his parents finally found him, the dimes were gone. Ernie had been having the best fun putting them into penny weighing machine slots and other vending machines.

French Impose Spending Limit

Cabinet Agrees to Keep Budget Deficit Down; Finances Exhausted

PARIS (AP)—The French Cabinet agreed in emergency session last night to keep its 1958 budget deficit down to 15 per cent by imposing rigid ceilings on government spending.

Faced with virtual exhaustion of the government's financial reserves, the Cabinet approved the 15-billion-dollar budget demanded by 37-year-old Finance Minister Felix Gaillard. Original estimates were nearly two billion dollars higher.

★ ★ ★

Gaillard had threatened to resign if his demands were not met. That would have brought down the government in the middle of Parliament's — and France's — annual vacation.

Premier Maurice Bourges-Maunory said later his government would continue to cut expenses whenever possible.

Defense Minister Andrew Morice agreed to save about half a billion dollars on the military program. The largest item in his expenses now, and a major drain on French finances, is the military campaign in Algeria.

Men called into the army for 18 months will be held no more than 24 months, Morice agreed. This will save bonuses paid for overtime service now often running to 10 extra months, and will release about 130,000 men to bolster production at home.

Morice said the curtailment will not affect military strength in Algeria, where more than 400,000 troops are deployed against the nationalist rebels.

Six-Year-Old Handles Trouble Like an Expert

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Six-year-old Scott Sonken handled the emergency like a man last night.

He dialed "operator" on the telephone and told her:

"My daddy has fallen out of bed and won't talk to me. What shall I do? What shall I do if the baby starts to cry?"

★ ★ ★

Miss Juanita Hobdy, the operator, kept Scott on the line and summoned police. They found Joseph E. Sonken Jr. dead of a heart seizure. The 34-year-old vice president of Sonken-Galamba Steel Co. of Kansas City had been under treatment for a heart ailment.

Mrs. Sonken had gone to a meeting and Sonken was baby-sitting with their three youngsters, Scott, Gregg, 4, and Lori Jo, 1.

Fair Shows Busy 4-H Youngsters in Action

Throughout the year, approximately 1,500 Oakland County 4-H club members and their 200 leaders join with more than two million boys and girls who are members of 4-H clubs in the United States to carry out their national club creed.

Their thirst for knowledge continues year round while they undertake numerous projects. But, one week per year, they really shift into full swing and show their stuff.

★ ★ ★

This is the week of the 17th Annual Oakland County 4-H Club fair. Here, members proudly display their talents to the public.

There's lots of work before, during and after the fair but since thousands are coming to see their exhibits and displays, it's worth it.

And, you can't deny, it . . . a fair is lots of fun . . . to the spectator as well as the participants.

★ ★ ★

The fair is not just a one night affair. Each evening different special events are included in the program plus the many exhibits, demonstrations, and prize animals on display daily.

The comical clowns with noses that light up, the carnival of rides from the ferris wheel to the merry-go-round, the cotton candy, carmel corn and hot dogs all add to the fun and excitement.

Most important of all, boys and girls are having the chance to show the public they are living up to the 4-H motto, "To make the best better."

They have the opportunity to put into full use their creed which says "I believe in:

"4-H Club work for the opportunity it will give me to become a useful citizen.

★ ★ ★

"The training of my Head for the power it will give me to think, plan, and reason.

"The training of my Heart for the nobleness it will give me to become kind, sympathetic, and true.

"The training of my Hands for the ability it will give me to be helpful, useful, and skillful.

"The training of my Health for the strength it will give me to enjoy life, to resist disease, and to work efficiently.

"My country, my state, and my community, and in my responsibility for their development.

"All these things, I believe, and I am willing to dedicate my efforts to their fulfillment."

COTTON CANDY IS GOOD . . . AND MESSY —Besides the animals and exhibits, the 4-H Fair offers a carnival of rides and that all important item — cotton candy — in blue or pink. Cousins from Holly, L. C. Scramlin, 7, Pamela Larson, 6 and Pam's sister Sandy, 3, were found in a corner relaxing while they enjoyed a treat.

FAIR'S INTEREST — Curious 4-H member-to-be Dale Boyd, 1½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Boyd, of 1740 W. Clyde Rd., Milford, found the bright yellow identification signs on each of the animal stalls as interesting as the animals behind the boards.

PREPARE BEDS FOR HORSES — 4-H members of the Rochester Trailblazers who concentrate their efforts on horse projects, tug on a bale of straw to prepare beds for their pets during the five day fair. Left to right are: Cookie Taylor, 14; Sandra Bolinger, 15 and Jody Schafer, 14.

NICE BOY — It's usually more fun to touch than look when browsing around the fair. The neatly groomed animals with shining coats are always a temptation to pet as in the case of this group of young men.

PREPARES FOR JUDGES — This is the first summer fair 11-year-old Laura Jean Liss, of 1960 E. Long Lake Rd., Birmingham, entered. One of her projects was food preservation. She's dusting off delicious-looking jars of strawberries, applesauce, sauce, peaches and blue berries she canned.

Queen of Fair Scores Again

Sharon Brodie Wins Photographic Event; to Enter State Contest

Within 24 hours after she was named queen of the 1957 Oakland County 4-H Club fair Tuesday, Sharon Brodie won another high honor at the five day festival.

★ ★ ★

This time it was for her ability to be behind the camera instead of in front with a winning smile for the judges.

★ ★ ★

Miss Brodie will be one of four boys and girls representing Oakland County in the photographic competition at the 4-H state show held at Michigan State University this month.

The 15-year-old member of the Bloomfield 4-H club, Birmingham, was the only one yesterday to receive the right to enter the state photography contest in the advanced class.

The honor roll winning photos were five portraits. They were of her father, best friend and three friends from LaCanada, California where Miss Brodie vacationed recently.

★ ★ ★

Her project, an album of 27 photographs, included a series of her mother making raspberry jam, five flash and five color shots which she had taken, developed, enlarged and printed.

★ ★ ★

Of the 180 entries including Miss Brodie, three other county youths are eligible to enter the state contest.

★ ★ ★

They are John Rose, for the first year competition and Katherine Gasgitt, second year, both of East Orion club, Lake Orion, and Sharon's sister, Carol Brodie, third year, also of the Bloomfield club, Birmingham.

'A' Ratings Awarded to 21 4-H Members

"Learn by doing" is the 4-H slogan and 21 county boys and girls proved they had learned their lesson well yesterday when they received "A" ratings from judges after demonstrating a variety of how-to-do-it or make-it projects.

The following 21 "A" winners of the demonstration contest will now be eligible to enter the district elimination contest next week at Michigan State University or a similar contest at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit later this month.

Seven of them are members of the East Orion 4-H club, of Lake Orion.

They are: Jim Brown, 13, and Tom Middleton, 11, vegetable gardening; Todd Young, 13, leathercraft; Karen Winship, 13, knitting; Walter Cudnohulsky, 17, and Larry Middleton, 15, farm pond; Judy and Rose Cudnohulsky, 15 and 14 years old respectively, a cherry pie.

Clinton Valley 4-H club winners from Rochester were: Beverly Sanders, 18, how to cut off a lamb's tail; her sister Gloria, 16, potato soup and Mary Ellen Devine, 13, photography.

Other "A" winners were: Patricia Rader, 10, grooming; Carmen Miller, 11, skin care and Sandra Brown, 12, freezing blueberries, all of Seymour Lake 4-H club, Ortonville; Cordree Heard, 15, of Milford, hair styling; Laura Guthrie, 16, of Galloway Lake club, Pontiac, milk drinks; and five 10-year-old girls from the 4-H Variety club, of Rochester who demonstrated how to make relish plates.

Mary Pickford Doesn't Want Her Films on TV

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mary Pickford is all for letting sleeping dogs—and old silent movies—lie.

America's sweetheart of the silent screen era told a press conference yesterday:

★ ★ ★

"I don't think I'll ever let my old pictures be shown on television. We were watching them at Pickfair once when Lionel Barrymore was alive and everyone began to laugh at our funny clothes. There were tears in Lionel's eyes."

Ike Asks Fund to Combat Flu

Calls for $500,000 to Prepare for Outbreak of Asiatic Disease

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower asked Congress today for $500,000 to enable the Public Health Service to get set for any outbreak of Asiatic flu.

He also asked authority to transfer about two million dollars of Public Health Service funds for use against such an epidemic if it begins to develop.

★ ★ ★

Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said last week "there is a very definite probability" of a large U. S. outbreak of the disease this fall or winter. He said he does not anticipate a high death rate.

★ ★ ★

Announcing Eisenhower's requests, the White House said the supplemental appropriations would not increase the 1957-58 spending total since the money was contemplated in Eisenhower's budget.

The money would be used for three purposes:

1. Development at the Public Health Service's communicable disease laboratory at Atlanta of materials used in detecting the disease, which recently has spread from Asia to the Western Hemisphere.

2. Provide the services of 10 new specialists in epidemics to work with state authorities.

3. Prepare educational material to encourage people to take advantage of commercially manufactured vaccine.

Man Beats 600-1 Odds, Gets Duplicate Car Key

DETROIT (AP)—The odds against a key to one car fitting another auto are roughly 600-to-1, but Charles Wood beat the odds.

Wood borrowed his brother-in-law Richard Maser said "that's not my car." The auto was of the same make and year as Maser's but differently colored.

★ ★ ★

The brothers-in-law went to police who turned them over to Mary Gadawski. It turned out Miss Gadawski had parked her car in the same lot as Wood. The key to her car was a duplicate of the one to Maser's car.

It's a Dog's Life

STAMFORD N. Y. (AP)— Nick Farmakis of Oneonta swerved his 1956 automobile to avoid hitting a dog. It skidded on a wet highway overturned and was wrecked. Farmakis his wife and their two children were treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises. The dog sauntered off unhurt.

Bob Considine Says:

Adlai Can Name Ceylon's Prime Minister

NEW YORK (INS)—Adlai Stevenson isn't bucking for ambassador Maxwell Gluck's post at Ceylon, but he knows the name of that country's prime minister.

The twice-defeated and probably never-again White House candidate was interrupted the other day in a press conference, as he blasted the Gluck appointment, by a reporter who asked, "Do YOU know the name of Ceylon's prime minister?" Gluck had flunked on this question, when grilled by Sen. Fulbright.

"Solomon W. R. D. Bandaranaike!" Adlai boomed with the joyful emphasis of a man winning the $64,000 questioner's final question.

It was a frustrating kind of press conference. It is of little interest to the public, but for some time now there has raged a running war within the world of news on the question of which media has priority at such affairs, those who work with the written word or those who deal with the spoken and the pictures.

When reporters arrived for the 4 p.m. meeting with Stevenson, his desk was almost completely surrounded by camera gear, cables, lights, as well as with newsreel, TV and radio people who had been there—setting up shop—for three hours.

One of the older reporters said, "I'll be dam'd if I'm going to serve as an unpaid TV actor." He nailed Stevenson as the balder and more benign Democrat entered the room and requested that Stevenson first talk to the reporters and have his pictures taken later.

"I thought I got finished with that kind of argument last November," Stevenson said with a laugh. He threaded his way to his desk and explained the request to the waiting cameramen. "I'll hurry through it with the reporters," he apologized.

And he was a man of his word. We were out of there before we could ask him how he melded his assertion that Eisenhower didn't fight for civil rights legislation and his (Stevenson's) feeling that the watered-down bill is better than none.

Stevenson would have "taken the lead" in demanding of the United Nations that it send inspection teams into Hungary at the time of the uprisings and their brutal repression, he said. He approved of the administration's loans to Poland.

I asked him the question about his own political future. He said he couldn't conceive of any situation in 1960 which would prompt him to run again. He wouldn't name the "obvious half dozen" prospects for the Democratic nomination.

PEACHIEST PEACH — Jody Shattuck will carry the flag for beauty. And it's plain to see that she'll be Miss Georgia because that's the state flag she's draped in. A coed at University of Georgia, Athens, she'll compete in the Miss America contest at Atlantic City.

Coast Guard Rescued

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (AP)—In a reversal of the usual sea drama, a yachtsman rescued the Coast Guard. Mr. and Mrs. William Welch were cruising in their power boat when they spotted a small vessel aground. Pulling the vessel free with a tow line, Welch discovered it was a Coast Guard patrol boat from Gloucester.

Will Decide Trial on Dog's Wagging of Stubby Tail

CHICAGO (AP)—Was Tobey, a 3-year-old Boston bull terrier, "dognapped" from his master or not?

Refusing to rely on mere human testimony a Circuit Court judge yesterday ruled Tobey himself — through a wag of his tail — will solve the dilemma.

Judge Jacob M. Braude ordered the terrier brought before him Aug. 22 to determine whether Tobey wants as his master an Omaha divorcee or her former husband.

Clarence Gaughen, 49, Chicago, told the court yesterday his former wife took Tobey, now in Omaha, out of his back yard "while I wasn't looking." He asked that she be cited for contempt and he be allowed to stop alimony payments.

Mrs. Gaughen was not in court, but her attorney Charles C. Cooley said his client was not a dognapper.

★ ★ ★

"She came to Chicago and dropped by her former husband's home for a visit," Cooley said. "She could sense Tobey was terribly unhappy. It could not be 'dognapping' because Tobey accompanied her willingly—wagging his stub tail."

Judge Braude says it's now up to Tobey and his stub tail.

Parakeets Perk Mental Patients

Colored Birds Prove Good Medecine for Vets at Battle Creek

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Perky parakeets are proving themselves good medicine for hospital patients here.

The birds began as an experiment a year ago when six were placed in wards at the Fort Custer veterans administration hospital.

Now the "pioneer" flock has grown to a twittering group of almost 50, with one or two birds in each of the hospital's 22 wards.

The bright-colored parakeets do more than cheer patients undergoing the monotony of hospital routine. It has been found they actually help therapeutically in treatment of the mentally ill.

NOTABLE CHANGE

Nurses and attendants report a notable change in patients' behavior since the birds appeared.

The hospital proudly reports on the patient who had refused to speak to anyone. The man showed some improvement under treatment with tranquillizing drugs, but still showed little interest in the world around him.

Then a parakeet was placed in his ward. Soon afterwards the patient was found trying to teach the bird to talk. Next he began talking to nurses, telling them that he knew about parakeets and other birds from studying ornithology in college.

Now the patient is president of the hospital's bird club, with 15 members who hold monthly meetings. They plan to set up an aviary in the hospital greenhouse where they can raise their own parakeets.

Eighty-two graduates of classes through 1947 whose performance on the job has warranted recommendations by their divisions will be awarded graduate keys.

Thomas H. Keating, General Motors vice president and group executive in charge of passenger car divisions, will deliver the commencement address. More than 8,000 friends and relatives of the graduates are expected to attend.

★ ★ ★

Graduates from Pontiac and Oakland County are in two major groups — those sponsored by GMC Truck and Coach Division, and those sponsored by the Pontiac Motor Division.

Mexico Sentences 2 in Detroiters' Slaying

CIUDAD VICTORIA, Mexico (AP) — Two American motel owners have been sentenced to 30 years in prison for the robbery-slaying of a Detroit couple in 1956.

William A. Shelton of Dallas, Tex., and Joseph P. O'Brien of New York, both 31, were convicted and sentenced yesterday for the March, 1956 murder of Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Kennison of Detroit.

The men were accused of luring the Kennison's on a hunting trip and then robbing and killing them.

The bodies of the Kennisons were discovered in a forest about 16 miles from here five days after the slaying. Both bodies had been mutilated.

Shelton and O'Brien were arrested in June, 1956 in the village of Cozuchuautla, Chiapas, near the Guatemalan border.

Home of Alexander May Be Exhumed

WASHINGTON—Pella, the birthplace of Alexander the Great in Greek Macedonia, may be exhumed soon from its ancient grave.

Ironically, while Alexander was changing the face of the known world, his own home town and capital sank into the dusty obscurity of time. It was finally destroyed by Romans before the Christian Era, and has long lain buried in Macedonia's ruggedly beautiful mountains, the National Geographic Society says.

The Greek Government recently started excavations, however, after a farmer, who was digging a cellar, chanced upon fragments of Ionic columns. Discovery of other relics spurred the search.

The ruins lie in a region steeped in legend and history. One road leads down to the Aegean Sea and Stagira, the birthplace of Alexander's teacher, Aristotle. At Philippi, St. Paul first preached Christianity on European soil.

From Pella's site, a road leads west to Edhessa, seat of earlier Macedonian courts. Though the town's glory has faded, it commands a view of distant Olympus and the holy heights of Mount Athos.

★ ★ ★

Properly speaking, Pella was the capital of Alexander's warlike father, Phillip II. It was a crude, bustling city. Streets were stairways leading up and down the hillside. Granite buildings, for all their pillared porticoes, lacked the grace of Greek architecture. The most imposing structure was Phillip's hippodrome by an adjacent lake.

Smoking, Drinking Rise

WASHINGTON — New federal excise-tax figures indicate Americans are drinking more and smoking more, but playing cards less. This trend is illustrated by increases in collections of 8 per cent in alcoholic-beverage taxes and 3 per cent in tobacco taxes during the last six months of 1956 compared with the like period of 1955. Collections on playing cards were down 3 per cent.

Air Watchdog of Western Pacific

Tiny Guam Big U.S. Defense Link

(Guam is a small, isolated island in the western Pacific, but it is a key link in the United States defense chain in the Far East. Here's a profile of this strategic island.)

By JIM BECKER

AGANA, Guam (AP)—Bitter agitation against American bases in Japan, Okinawa, Formosa and even the Philippines has suddenly spotlighted the key role of this west Pacific possession in the U. S. defense picture.

Guam already is the hub of the Pacific defense ring, site of a first class harbor and home base of the mightiest American bombers in the Far East.

But more important, Guam is American soil. As such it presents a firm footing for American striking power in the Far East —one not subject to cries of "Yankee, go home," or other political pressure.

This fact emerges strongly from the series of recent developments that have included anti-American riots on Formosa, hassles over American bases on Okinawa and in the Philippines, and the agreement to withdraw promptly U. S. combat troops from Japan.

3 HOURS BY JET

Guam is about 1,700 miles from Red China — three hours by jet bomber—and about the same from Tokyo and Manila.

The island is 30 miles long, 7 wide, and is shaped like a kidney bean. It is half volcanic, half coral rock, covered with a mixture of palm trees and stubby undergrowth.

Caribous, the beast of burden, and high-speed American cars mingle in traffic, over superhighways and dusty jungle paths.

70,000 PERSONS

Some 70,000 persons live here—in modern concrete homes and apartments, U-shaped quonset huts, or in clutered villages set in lush, tropical settings.

About 30,000 are Guamanians, or "islanders" as they are called here.

Another 15,000 are Filipinos, hired by the military forces for chores ranging from driving bulldozers to tending bar.

The other 25,000 are sailors and airmen, and their families, plus a scattering of Army and Coast Guard personnel and American civilians.

Mighty Andersen Air Force Base, where the swift, swept-wing B47s of the Strategic Air Command — the supersecret nuclear wing of the Air Force—are stationed, is on the island's northern tip.

The screaming jets make daily practice bombing runs. It seems logical that their nuclear weapons are nearby.

New crews are flown in every 90 days, to replace the ones here. This rotation plan will eventually give every career pilot in SAC intimate knowledge of potential H-bomb targets in the Far East.

The Navy's role here is one of standby readiness. "We have to keep things running, and ready for the enormous expansion that would come if something broke out, out here," says Rear Adm. William B. Ammon, bespectacled, articulate Navy commander.

Poultry, Not Red Meat, Is Best Buy to Go With Corn

More flavor for less money can be yours when you shop for fresh foods of the season reminds the MSU Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. The first week of August brings more corn and tomatoes. Blueberries, melons, new apples and seedless grapes are in the fruit spotlight. Price conscious shoppers will look for special prices on poultry, pork, veal and beef. Large size eggs are scarce and there are more small size eggs in the market.

PRODUCE — With larger supplies of sweet corn come lower price tags. Many stores are selling ears at 3 to 5 cents each.

From the time sweet corn leaves the stalk to the minute it is cooked, it is important to keep it cool. When corn gets warm the sweet thin milk of the kernel turns to a thick flat tasting starch. If corn is not cooled when picked, 40 to 50 per cent of the sugar will change to starch in 24 hours.

This is the reason why more corn is being hydrocooled (cooled in water). The corn is held in ice water until the heat of the field is gone and the corn is about 50 degrees F. Then the corn is hurried to the retailer who in turn keeps it in refrigerated rooms and displays it on ice or on refrigerated counters.

If you must store corn always refrigerate. If the corn is in the husks, wrap the ears in a damp cloth. If the corn is already husked, place the ears in a cello bag or covered dish.

Most grocers are now handling homegrown tomatoes and quality is improving. A medium size red-ripe tomato will supply about one half of your Vitamin C for the day.

Blueberries and new apples for cooking are Michigan's fresh fruit contribution. If looking for blueberries to freeze, then ask for Jersey, Pioneer, Rubel or Rancocas variety. Wild berries may be frozen, but will be more tender if scalded 20 to 30 seconds in boiling water before putting them in freezer containers.

If planning to use blueberries for pies or salads during the winter, just dry pack and freeze. You may freeze blueberries for other dishes with a 40 per cent syrup made with 3 cups of sugar to 4 cups of water, or mix 1 cup of sugar with each 5 cups of berries.

Seedless Thompson grapes, the small pale green to light gold-colored ones, are in better supply. Cantaloupe and watermelon are the pick of the melons; quality is good.

The first Michigan peaches have come to market in the Benton Harbor area. This means you may expect to see peaches in volume by August 10 to 15.

MEATS — Poultry is one of the wisest choices for main course dishes. This is especially true during current high prices of red meats. Big supplies of turkeys make them an outstanding buy. The popular 7 to 12 pound size and those over 18 pounds are in heaviest supply.

Your demand for "lots of chicken in summer" has kept fryer prices fairly stable.

Studying food ads before going to the store will help you to know which red meats are featured where. Ham, pork chops and loin, bacon, beef steaks and roasts, and veal cuts are items to check this week.

EGGS — Large grade A eggs are scarce. Small size eggs now make up about 12 per cent of the total in the market. Small size grade A eggs at 39 cents give the most weight for the money. They are 35 cents per pound compared with large eggs of the same grade which are 38 to 40½ cents a pound.

System Aids Amazon Ships

New Channel Puts Brazil's Minerals 400 Miles Closer

WASHINGTON — A new system of navigation aids at the mouth of the Amazon River will bring one of the world's latest and richest sources of manganese 400 miles closer to United States markets.

The manganese fields, holding reserves estimated at up to 20 million tons, lie in northern Brazil's Amapa Territory, 120 miles from the broad Amazon estuary.

Shipped by rail to the recently opened port of Santana, the ore now reaches the Atlantic by detouring around the southern coast of huge Marajo Island. A direct northeasterly channel, 400 miles shorter, is expected to be available in the fall, after the Brazilian government has completed charting, lighting and marking the route.

Brazil has long been known as a treasure chest of minerals useful in peace or war, says the National Geographic Society.

PURE MANGANESE

Besides its remarkably pure manganese deposits — found in the states of Minas Gerais, Bahia, and Mato Grosso as well as Amapa — the South American colossus is believed to contain more high-grade iron ore than any other country on earth.

Its iron production has increased sharply in recent years, providing not only substantial amounts for export, but raw material for an important steel industry that has grown up since World War II.

Much coal is mined, while crude-oil output, though still far below needs, doubled in 1956, when 47 new wells were drilled.

Brazil is endowed, too, with large deposits of chromium, aluminum producing bauxite, and tungsten. Widely distributed gold, semi-precious stones, and diamonds — industrial and jewel — add glitter to the pile.

Suggest Mayflower Visit Superior Ports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thye (D-Minn) urged yesterday that Lake Superior ports be included as stops on the proposed Great Lakes tour by the Mayflower II.

In a letter to Under-Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, he said:

"I have had the opportunity to visit this ship when it was at Hains Point here in Washington and also at Jamestown.

"Therefore, I know personally how much it would mean to the children of the inland states to also have the opportunity to see the vessel.

"Inasmuch as the Mayflower II is considerably smaller than the freight ships which travel the Great Lakes to Duluth, I feel certain it would have little difficulty in visiting the Lake Superior ports."

Governor Tops Picnic Guest List for Troy Dems

Gov. G. Mennen Williams has been invited as the main guest of the Troy Democratic Club at its annual picnic Sunday afternoon.

Other guests invited include party chairmen throughout the county as well as members of the county and state committees, said Mrs. Myran C. Rightmyer, chairman.

Gov. Williams has indicated he will attend between 3 and 4 p.m., Mrs. Rightmyer said. The picnic will be at the Sutermeister Farm, 4610 Livernois Rd.

People Approved Purge, Moscow Radio Claims

LONDON (INS) — Moscow radio, quoting Pravda, said today that the entire Soviet population unanimously condemned the "anti - party group" recently purged from the Kremlin.

Commenting on the 40th anniversary of the sixth congress of the Bolshevik Party, Pravda said the purged group "didn't believe in the creative powers of the people and they also tried to break up the unity of party ranks."

So Claims British Economist

America Has More Poor

ANN ARBOR (INS) — Oxford University economist Harold F. Lydall said today there is a higher proportion of poor families in the United States than in Great Britain.

Lydall, senior research officer at Oxford, made the first public report of an extensive comparison of family incomes in the U.S. and Britain at the University of Michigan's 10th annual Institute on Survey Research Techniques.

He said most Americans enjoyed between 1½ to 2 times the real income of Britons. However, he continued, a larger proportion of American families have incomes below the national average than in the case of Britain.

The economist said distribution of income from property, on the other hand, is more equal in the U.S. than Britain. Property income includes rent, interest and dividends.

Commenting on the general economic health of the two countries, he said Americans enjoy far more automobiles and consumer durables, but they are also much more deeply in debt than their overseas counterparts.

His report said about 10 per cent of the British population own cars, refrigerators and other durables, compared to around 80 per cent in America.

Man Found Wandering on Chicago's North Side

CHICAGO (AP) — A Kansas City man, who police said was a victim of amnesia, was found walking aimlessly on a near north side street yesterday.

He was identified from personal papers as Earl S. Babcock, 59, of 418 W. 10th St., Kansas City, a laborer. Babcock was unable to tell police who he was or how he got to Chicago.

A sister, Mrs. Jessie Powers of 1181 Adams Rd., Flint, also was notified. She told police she would come to Chicago and bring her brother to Flint.

Resident Bound Over on Stabbing Charge

Billy J. Tidwell, 27, 1045 Durant St., accused of stabbing a man over a cup of coffee, was bound over to circuit court yesterday by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum.

Tidwell will be arraigned Aug. 16 and is held in jail on $500 bond.

He is charged with assaulting Roscoe Wilson, of 43 Hillsdale Dr., with a knife, after the latter ordered him from his house. Tidwell had allegedly thrown a cup of coffee at Wilson during an argument.

Expect One-Cent Hike in Flint Milk Prices

FLINT (INS) — A penny-a-quart hike in milk prices in Flint was expected now that five dairies have agreed to pay farmers 35 cents more per hundredweight of drinking milk.

The new $5 a hundredweight price was granted last night.

Douglas Carmichael, president of the Flint Local of Michigan Milk Producers Association, said the new price is now on par with that paid by creameries in Detroit and Saginaw Valley.

Mineral Value Rises in State

'55 Totals Topped by 7 Pct.; Michigan Second in Iron Ore

LANSING (AP) — Value of Michigan's mineral production last year amounted to $390 million, a 7 per cent increase over 1955, reports from the U. S. Bureau of Mines showed today.

The state continued to rank second behind Minnesota in iron ore production, although output dropped from 14,180,000 usable long tons to 12,340,000 last year. The downturn largely was a reflection of work stoppages caused by steel and shipping strikes, the federal agency said.

With price increases in effect, however, value of iron ore production in the state fell only about 10 per cent from the 1955 figure of $187 million.

Copper production climbed 20 per cent to 61,450 tons and its estimated value went up 38 per cent to $51 million.

Cement production, ranking second behind iron ore in total value, came to 22,775,000 barrels and was valued at some $71,300,000. Plants produced 19,700,000 barrels worth 58 million dollars in 1955.

Michigan also produced 10,753 barrels of crude petroleum worth $31,400,000; 42 million tons of sand and gravel valued at $37,800,000; 33,700,000 tons of stone worth 29 million dollars; and 8,700,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas valued at $1,200,000.

MECHANICAL HEN? — "Fresh from the nest" is the advertising claim on the side of this egg vendor in Austinburg, O., and most children think that means right from the wooden hen perched atop it. The first of its kind in Ohio, Lewis Enquist, a local poultryman, gives it the once-over. So far it has been very successful, with many people who may not really need eggs putting their money in just to see how it works.

Farmer Given Tractor After Fire Destroys Barn

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP) — A man named Cannon got a pleasant bang out of his neighbors' generosity.

J. W. Cannon's barn burned two weeks ago, destroying a lot of equipment.

Cannon said yesterday some of his neighbors talked him into going to a stockyards with them. When he returned, a new tractor was sitting in his garage.

"When you read so much about the bad things going on in the world, sometimes you forget all about the good," he said. "To have neighbors like I have is really something to make a fellow think twice."

Trivia Facts of Doubtful Implication

NEW YORK (AP)—The U. S. housewife is becoming more and more electric—or at least electricity-minded.

Did you know that about one out of every 10 American women now uses an electric shaver?

★ ★ ★

This electrifying nugget of knowledge was disclosed in a survey which also found that 96.2 per cent of modern homes now have radios and 81 per cent have television sets.

In most families, however, father still has to mix his drinks and do the dishes by hand. Some 94.3 per cent of our homes are without blenders and 94.3 per cent have no automatic dishwashers.

A German zoologist set out with typical Teutonic thoroughness to learn that the elephant, which has a 13-pound brain (slightly larger than that of the average Harvard freshman) does forget—but, by and large, appears to have a pretty fair memory.

He found that one female elephant, when presented again with 13 pairs of cards she had learned before but hadn't viewed for a full year, had a recognition rating ranging from 73 to 100 per cent in 500 trials. The zoologist thought that was pretty good.

Nordics Map A-Plans

HELSINKI—The Nordic Council, a consultative body including delegates from the National Assemblies and Governments of Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, and Iceland, recently decided in its fifth session, held in the Finnish capital, to ask member Governments to plan a Nordic institute for theoretical studies of nuclear energy, to coordinate applied atomic research, and to co-operate in the manufacture of reactor parts.

Crusade for Freedom relays the story of the Romanian Communist who died and went to hell. When he arrived at the entrance, he was surprised to find two doors.

"Which do you choose?" he was asked.

"The Communist hell, of course," he replied. "There is bound to be a fuel shortage!"

$440 Million More Per Year

Inflationary Spiral Spins Into Railroad Freight Bill

WASHINGTON (INS)—The inflationary spiral has taken another spin with the addition of 440 million dollars to the nation's annual freight hauling bill.

The Interstate Commerce Commission Tuesday authorized the railroads to hike freight rates by about seven per cent in Eastern and Western territories and four per cent in the South.

This was the 14th across-the-board increase permitted by the ICC since World War II and the cumulative boosts now total more than 100 per cent over rates in effect early in 1946.

The Commission estimated that the new boosts would cost $442,800,000 dollars annually, if all railroads put them into effect. Added to interim increases authorized last December and February, the coming 12 months' freight rate will be $897,800,000 more than it was in 1956.

The ICC order is subject to exceptions and hold-downs of some services and commodities. It was designed largely to offset increased costs due to labor contracts tied to the cost-of-living index, and steel price raises.

REVENUE ABOVE COSTS

For Eastern and Western lines, however, the Commission said the new rates would "provide some revenues over and above such costs."

The ICC warned that the railroads may not be able to maintain rate increases unless motor carriers make similar boosts.

One carrier, the Southern Railway System, promptly announced it would not take advantage of the Commission ruling. Harry A. Debutts, president of the company, said his firm believes the upward spiral of freight rates is pricing rail hauling out of the market.

But most other lines were expected to go ahead with the boosts—which require 15 days' notice to shippers to become effective.

The authorized increases totaled only about a third of those requested by the carriers, and before the decision was announced railroad spokesmen said additional hikes may be asked for in the near future.

NOT AS MUCH AS ASKED

Eastern Lines asked 15 per cent above the seven per cent increase authorized in December and were granted seven per cent. Western Railroads asked 17 per cent above the five per cent hike of December and got seven per cent.

Southern Railroads asked 10 per cent in addition to the five per cent allowed in February and got four per cent.

The Pocohantas region, embracing most of West Virginia, parts of Virginia and Southwestern Pennsylvania, had received a seven per cent interim increase but were granted only two per cent more.

No Serious Injuries Reported

Explosion Rocks Boston

BOSTON (AP) — A construction project shed containing dynamite cap detonators exploded early today, damaging homes over a mile-square area and endangering thousands of persons.

Despite the terrific force of the predawn blast, there were no reports of serious injury. Minor cuts from flying glass appeared to be the extent of personal injuries.

★ ★ ★

The explosion blew debris, including steel pipes and wooden beams, over a wide area.

Broken windows and fallen plaster were reported in hundreds of residences in the South Boston, Dorchester and Hyde Park districts of Boston, and in Milton, Dedham, Hull and Squantum.

The blast was in a 25-foot metal shed at the South Boston entrance to a sewage tunnel project. A nearby shed containing a "mound" of dynamite was not affected by the explosion.

Fearing the possibility that the dynamite would be touched off, police roped off a wide area and ordered away all police and newspaper radio cars.

Some workmen were inside the tunnel, but were some distance from the opening and were not affected.

A timber 10 feet long and a foot thick went through a wall into the third-floor apartment of a building about 75 yards away. Barbara Ann Nanyokas, 11, asleep in bed, was showered with debris. She was not seriously injured.

★ ★ ★

A huge chunk of steel tore out a bay window in a second floor apartment of a South Boston home and then dropped to the street.

John Madden reported the blast blew out two windows from his home in Squantum, about four miles away.

What caused the explosion could not be determined immediately.

A fire broke out in a shed 100 yards from the shed containing the dynamite cap detonators shortly before the explosion, but an engineer at the site said it was doubtful if the fire had any connection with the blast.

Some residents of homes nearby reported it was a near miracle they were not killed. Many said they were knocked from bed. Several went to doctors and hospitals for treatment of cuts from flying glass.

Mrs. Gertrude Young of South Boston said the blast not only knocked her from bed, but also toppled her kitchen stove, spilling fuel oil all over the apartment.

The front of a home on East 8th street, South Boston, was blown in, either from the force of the blast or debris.

Challenges U. S. Fleets

Russia Building Great Naval Strength in Far Pacific

TOKYO (INS) — A new naval power is rising in Asia to fill the vacuum left by the sinking of the Japanese Imperial Navy. It is the Soviet Union.

And for the first time in its history, Russia appears to be getting up enough steam to seriously challenge the United States, whose fleets have reigned supreme in the far Pacific for more than a century.

The tip-off that the Russians are in dead earnest is the sealing off of their great port and naval base at Vladivostok from all foreign eyes.

With the exception of a few months after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, American armadas have dominated the Pacific Ocean from San Diego to Shanghai.

Today, for example, the biggest fighting force anywhere — the U. S. Seventh fleet — ranges off the hostile China mainland in constant combat readiness. American warships are at home in Yokosuka, Keelung, Hong Kong, Singapore and a half-dozen other Asian ports.

NOT SURE OF SCHEME

Authorities in Tokyo are not quite sure what the Russians are up to, but both Japanese and American naval authorities know enough about Soviet intentions and equipment to piece together a fairly conclusive picture.

One day last month Moscow announced that from now on Vladivostok and its immense bay was closed to navigation by foreign ships and airplanes.

A rough equivalent would be if Washington decided to put Norfolk and all Chesapeake Bay off limits to foreign vessels and observers.

The Soviets have always been secretive about their activities at Vladivostok, one of the few fine, all-weather, deep-water ports the Russians possess.

Starting in 1951, American reconnaissance planes ran into trouble whenever they were caught near Vladivostok, which is on the Japan Sea. That year a U. S. Navy Neptune patrol plane was shot down by the Reds. In 1953 an Air Force B50 with 16 men aboard was shot down by a Soviet jet over the Japan Sea and in 1954 another Navy Neptune was destroyed in the area.

Events indicated some of these planes were not within 50 miles of Vladivostok when the Russians savagely went after them.

The first reactions to the closure of Vladivostok came from Japan, whose fishermen hauled nets within three miles of the port. What has been put off limits is a bay with a mouth more than 100 miles wide.

And in this great bay a nation could deploy a fleet to stagger the imagination.

In these days of atomic warfare, it might not be good sense to put all those eggs in one basket, but the Russians have very little choice in Asia.

STARTED BUILDUP

The Soviets started their Far East buildup — and the Pacific Russian fleet is only one of four equal fleets — nine months ago with the transfer, reported by Japanese fishermen, of 30 warships from Murmansk via the Arctic Ocean.

This fleet included two 13,000-ton cruisers of the new Sverdlov class, some 10 large destroyers and an untold number of submarines.

Russian sub strength in the far Pacific is estimated at "more than 100" by Naval intelligence. Seventh Fleet commander Vice-Admiral Wallace Beakley told this reporter last month that U. S. Navy ships had contacted some Red subs as far south as the Formosa Straits, where the Seventh regularly patrols.

The Russians very probably also have some 10 cruisers and 50 destroyers, plus tankers, in Vladivostok.

The U. S., with at least four big aircraft carriers in Far Eastern waters at any one time, still maintains the upper hand.

REAL THREAT IS SUBS

The big Soviet threat is her submarine force. Her 16,000-mile, snorkel equipped raiders are the deadliest underwater fleet ever assembled, twice as powerful as Hitler's.

The day after the Russians closed Vladivostok from prying Japanese fishermen — Japan, after all, is an ally of the United States — two Russian destroyers and a tanker were sighted cruising north of the Philippines.

It was the first time the Russians had sortied openly into these traditionally American-dominated waters. Obviously, the Russians no longer consider the vast Pacific America's private "lake."

Ex-Mrs. America Sticks to Truth Now

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Leona Gage Ennis, the "queen for a day" in the Miss Universe beauty contest, apparently meant it when she promised to tell no more falsehoods.

★ ★ ★

The tall Maryland beauty lost her U.S.A. title at Long Beach, Calif., last month when pageant officials discovered she was married and the mother of two children.

"I'm never going to tell another lie," she reaffirmed yesterday at the Tropicana Hotel, one of Las Vegas' biggest gambling casinos, where she is rehearsing for a Sept. 4 night club debut.

★ ★ ★

Testing, a newsman asked how she felt about gambling.

"I don't believe in gambling," Miss Gage replied. And, while a casino press agent shuddered, she added: "That's a good way to go bankrupt."

9 New Markers to Point Events in State's History

LANSING (AP)—Nine more official historical markers will be dedicated in August, the State Historical Commission reports.

The new dedications will bring the state's total of markers to more than 40 by the end of the month, the commission said.

The story of the passenger pigeon is told in a marker at Oden.

A marker at the Gros Cap Highway Park near St. Ignace will tell the story of the discovery and exploration of Lake Michigan while a similar marker near Munising deals with Lake Superior.

Large map markers showing the location of major mines are going up for the Copper Country on a park on U.S. 41 near Calumet and for the Marquette iron range at Negaunee.

Another map marker placed at Burt Lake State Park shows the route of Michigan's inland waterway. A marker at Baraga State Park will tell the history of tthe Keweenaw Bay area and one at Fort Wilkins State Park will tell the story of the founding of that fort.

At Three Rivers, a marker to be dedicated during the homecoming celebration will tell the importance of the junction of the three water routes.

Detroit Traffic Hazard: One Stampeding Steer

DETROIT (INS) — A runaway 900-pound steer startled rush hour motorists on Detroit's busy Gratiot avenue yesterday before it was captured and shot to death in a backyard at 2670 Waterloo.

The animal escaped from a pen at the Monarch Packing Company.

Three policemen who pursued the beast said they fired a total of 10 shots when the cornered animal began pawing the ground in a menacing manner.

Constant Crises Plague Caribbean

By LARRY ALLEN

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Trouble—and probably more of it—is holding the spotlight in the key island republics of the Caribbean.

★ ★ ★

Strife-torn Haiti, engulfed by bitter, unreasoning political passions, seems headed for national suicide unless someone appears on the scene strong enough to end political warfare and halt the country's plunge into economic chaos.

Seventy-five per cent of Haiti's poverty-stricken four million people are suffering what United States relief agencies call "shocking malnutrition and acute hunger."

But it is not the poor, hungry Haitains who have led this land into a dark future. It is a handful of politicians, seeking election to Haiti's presidency, who keep the nation in turmoil.

★ ★ ★

The political struggles have produced widespread general strikes, which have virtually destroyed the nation's economy, left the national treasury bankrupt, and the country with staggering internal and foreign debts.

STARTED LAST DECEMBER

It all started last December when President Paul Magloire, completing a six-year term, attempted to perpetuate himself in office.

He made himself provisional president. Striking Haitians forced him to flee the country to Paris. Subsequently, three more provisional presidents were ousted. The latest, Daniel Gignole, was overthrown by a military clique now ruling the nation as a junta. It is the seventh "government" Haiti has had since December.

The recurring political upheavals have already erupted into a brief civil war and street fighting. Within the last month, an estimated 500 to 700 Haitians have been killed or wounded in clashes with troops and police.

No one thinks the present junta will hold power long. The general opinion is that another "coup" is coming, and more bloodshed.

Haiti occupies the western third of the big island called Hispaniola. Next door is the lush, prosperous Dominican Republic.

None of the basic economic essentials for revolution exist among its 2,600,000 people. But there is an overriding principle—the desire for full human liberties—that one day may end the 27-year rule of Generalissimo Rafael Leonidas Trujillo.

There is no freedom of press or freedom of speech in the Dominican Republic. It is a "silent land"—but smouldering resentment may one day flare into open revolt.

★ ★ ★

Trujillo has his enemies. They now claim that a "powerful underground" is operating inside the capital, Ciudad Trujillo, and in the country districts.

HOW MUCH LONGER?

Next door to Hispaniola, Fulgencio Batista rules the rich island of Cuba—not knowing from hour to hour or day to day for how much longer.

★ ★ ★

Cubans are prosperous. They're well-fed, well-clothed, and well-entertained. They never had it so good.

It isn't enough. They want full, democratic liberties that they feel are denied to them under the "dictatorship" of President Batista.

Almost nightly in Havana and the outlying provinces, there are bomb blasts, sabotage of communications, the derailing of trains, and sometimes attacks on military posts.

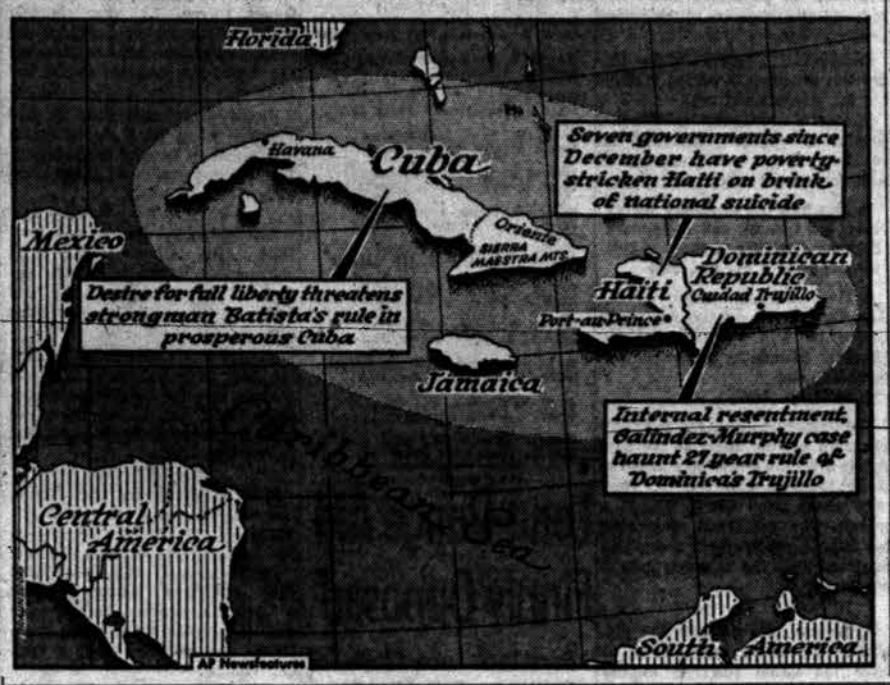
Down in Cuba's easternmost Oriente province—the "cradle of revolutions"—opposition to Batista centers around 30-year-old Fidel Castro, a former student at Havana University.

From hideouts in the Sierra Maestra mountains, surrounded by a force of "revolutionaries" that has risen from an original 81 to 400 or more, Castro wages guerilla war against government troops.

Whether Castro's armed movement against Batista can ever reach the point of stirring up enough revolutionaries to overthrow him appears doubtful.

Batista, in the heavily guarded presidential palace in Havana, doesn't regard Castro as much of a threat, and he says he intends to serve out his term which would expire in February, 1959.



Labeled Objects Help Child Read

The printed word is life's greatest mystery for a child until he learns to "attach" that word to its proper object.

For young children, attachment of a word form should be physical until mental patterns are firmly fixed. Labeling objects as a beginning reading help has become increasingly important.

Kindergarten teachers, for example, label familiar objects in the room. Many children learn to identify words by sight and to use them in reading this way.

Around the home, label objects such as a child's bed, chair, glass or toys with self-stick tape.

Bermuda has a geological formation where wind, sand and waves have cut up a series of vari-colored rocks to resemble a checkerboard.

Big Monster Whales Still Swim in Seas

WASHINGTON — The biggest animal ever known to exist still bulldozes through the sea — but not, perhaps, for long.

It is the much-hunted blue whale, a monster that can grow more than 100 feet long and weigh 150 tons. Its bulk equals 35 elephants and more than twice the weight believed attained by the largest dinosaur.

Blue whales are able to reach their great size because the water, denser than air, supports them. On land their own weight would push down on internal organs and kill them.

These whales get a big start in life. Newborn babies are up to 25 feet long, says the National Geographic Society. The females nurse their young in the water, pumping as much as 200 pounds of milk into each in a single day. The milk is much like a cow's, but extra rich in minerals, proteins, and fats.

Eight months after birth the calf is graduated to solid food. It is then 50 feet long. It swims through concentrations of a shrimplike creature called krill, its mouth agape, taking in water, tidbits and all. Then the great scoop closes, and the water is forced out through filters of whalebone — an important source of income for whalers in the days when it was used in corset stays.

Japan Expecting Tourist Boom Throughout 1957

TOKYO (INS) — The year of the rooster — 1957 — is expected to bring a tourist boom unprecedented in Japanese history to the land of picturesque Mt. Fuji and cherry blossoms.

★ ★ ★

Favorable worldwide economic conditions generally have boosted the international tourist trade, and Japan, the gateway of the Orient, has noted a steady influx of foreign visitors in recent years.

Last year, the figure jumped to 120,000 and Japanese tourist officials expect the figure to be even higher this year.

The Japan Tourist Bureau said the number of tourists visiting Japanese shores in 1957 is expected to increase by at least 15 per cent over the preceding year. Airlines, shipping firms and hotels are being showered with orders for reservations in preparation for the tourist season which commences in the spring with the coming of the cherry blossoms.

★ ★ ★

The tourist trade isn't to be taken too lightly in this dollar-hungry nation since foreign visitors spent some 53 million dollars in 1956, a fabulous sum when converted into yen.

★ ★ ★

The tourist boom in Japan has been attributed to the encouragement given by the U. S. Government on overseas travel and the uneasy political situation which prevailed in the Middle East last year. This resulted in many American tourists visiting Japan instead of European countries.

Ignoring the generally accepted three-mile limit, four nations — Chile, Ecuador, Peru and El Salvador — now claim 200-mile priorities off their coasts where foreign fishermen cannot drop their nets.

Boy Doesn't Panic, Saved From Well

ARCATA, Calif. (AP)—A little boy who didn't panic although imprisoned 15 feet down in the darkness of a dry well clutched a looped rope and was pulled out safely yesterday on the fourth try.

★ ★ ★

Three other times, just as firemen got 3½-year-old Michael Swenson near the surface, he lost his grip and fell back, pulling sand down on him.

His anxious mother, Mrs. Dale Swenson, gasped: "I was more frightened than Mike was."

Mike fell feet first into the eight-inch-wide hole on the farm of T. F. Aultman, who had drilled the well in sandy soil yesterday and covered it. Children removed the cover.

Mike's cries attracted his mother. He was pulled out 30 minutes later.

A doctor said he was in good condition except for nausea, caused by swallowing sand.

Arcata is near Humboldt Bay in northern California.

Medical experts estimate there will be a shortage of 50,000 nurses in the United States in 1960.

Carnegie Hall Will Be Razed Within 2 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—Venerable Carnegie Hall will come tumbling down in 1959 to make way for a red-paneled, 44-story office building.

Louis J. Glickman paid five million dollars last year for Carnegie Hall, built by Andrew Carnegie in 1891 and since then a music mecca of world renown.

Glickman said the new building, costing 22 million dollars, would be set back 40 feet from the street and would feature a sunken landscaped plaza to be used for outdoor cultural exhibits.

The Philharmonic-Symphony Society, long a fixture at 57th Street and 7th Avenue, plans to move to a new concert hall in the projected Lincoln Square Center for the Performing Arts in the Central Park West area a few blocks north of Columbus Circle.

It's an Anniversary

Review of New Social Security Law

By RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

It was just a year ago that President Eisenhower signed the bill which made it possible for:

1. Women to qualify for monthly Social Security payments at age 62. The minimum retirement age had been 65.

2. Severely disabled persons to qualify for monthly payments at age 50. This was an entirely new program.

Since then, nearly a million people in the two groups have been added to the Social Security rolls. Women under the reduced age set-up could qualify for payments on Nov. 1, 1956. The disability payment program went into operation July 1.

Because anniversaries are often occasions for special note, this is a good time to review some of the details of the two programs.

RETIREMENT AGE FOR WOMEN—With the lowering of the retirement age for women, the Social Security law set up three classes of women for the purposes of drawing payments: (1) widows and dependent mothers, (2) working women and (3) wives.

TREATED DIFFERENTLY

And, under the law, they are treated differently when they apply for payments.

Widows and dependent mothers of deceased workers who were covered by Social Security are able to collect payments at 62—just as if they had waited until they reached 65.

WORKING WOMEN—That is, women who have worked and paid Social Security tax on their earnings—may qualify for payments at 62. But their payments, if they decide to draw them between 62 and 65, will be lower than if they'd waited until 65 to collect. In all cases, they can collect at least 80 per cent of what they would be eligible for had they waited until 65 to collect.

Wives of retired workers are eligible to receive payments at 62. But, if a wife starts drawing payment at 62, her payments will only be 75 per cent of what she could get at 65. Each month that she waits to draw her payments after she reaches 62 will increase the percentage of what she could get if she waits until 65.

710,000 FILE

By June 30, about 710,000 women had filed for payments under the reduced age provision of the Social Security law.

DISABILITY PAYMENTS — Under this program, a person is eligible for payments if he:

1. Has a medically established mental or physical disability so severe that he can't engage in any substantial work, and

2. Has had the disability for at least six months and it appears that the disability is likely to last for the rest of his life, and

3. Has worked under Social Security for five of the ten years before he was disabled and for 18 of the 36 months before he was disabled, and

4. Is 50 or older.

The payments under the disability program are the same as the payments a person would be entitled to if he were 65 and retired. They may range from $30 to $108.50 a month. No additional payments for dependents are paid under this program until the disabled person reaches 65.

★ ★ ★

A person who applies for disability payments, can expect to have his name referred to the vocational rehabilitation agency of his state. This is done so he may get help to put him back in a job.

By June 30, some 230,000 disabled persons had applied and qualified for payments under the program.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service.)

Sees Possibility of Flood Control

Drain Commissioner Feels Clinton Relief Would Follow Survey

If a federal survey of flood conditions on the Clinton River is made, Oakland County Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry is convinced flood control funds would be forthcoming.

Barry, who was in Washington earlier this week, believes the project could capture a high priority among the more than 100 flood control proposals being contemplated in Congress.

★ ★ ★

The Washington conference, he said yesterday, was called by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) for representatives of Oakland and Macomb Counties and the Army Corps of Engineers, which would conduct the survey.

Barry drew Army representatives' attention to the pressing need of the Clinton survey in an effort to schedule it at an early date, possibly this fiscal year.

"Although $60,000 has been earmarked for the survey," he said, "this money will not actually be available until the survey is definitely scheduled."

AREA OF SURVEY

The survey would cover widening, deepening and clearing of the Clinton from a point near Utica to its mouth on Lake St. Clair at Mt. Clemens.

This portion of the river, which starts at Sylvan Lake on Pontiac's western city limits, lies wholly within Macomb County, but its improvement would affect drainage of flood waters in the southeastern part of the county, Barry stated.

"We're afraid that costly floods may occur unless the outlet for Oakland County waters is improved," he said.

The Swiss Federal Railway has cats on its payroll. They get milk and cat tidbits to keep the railroad's Simplon Tunnel free of mice.

Long-Range Aid Firmly Opposed

Senators Lose Hope of Getting Full Program From House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate conferees virtually abandoned hope today for the full long-range features of President Eisenhower's foreign aid program.

They arranged another meeting with House conferees, with whom they argued all day yesterday over a proposed revolving fund for making loans for economic development of underdeveloped nations.

Eisenhower asked, and the Senate approved, authority for a three-year program with a 500-million-dollar appropriation this year plus authority to borrow 1½ billions from the Treasury over the next two years to enable friendly nations to get loans for long-range projects.

★ ★ ★

The House voted authority for 500 millions in appropriations for this year, but declined to go beyond that.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) said he saw no prospect that the House would agree to the full three-year program approved by the Senate.

★ ★ ★

Senate conferees sought to compromise on a two-year program with authority for the fund to borrow 750 millions for its second year of operation. They got no agreement on that, but said there were indications the House might agree to authorize a 500-million-dollar appropriation for the second year under certain conditions.

Child Accuses Mom in Slaying

Claims She Handed Her Gun With Which Mate Was Shot in Bed

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. David Payne, 33, was charged with the slaying of her husband yesterday and accused of inducing her 8-year-old daughter to fire the shot.

Payne was found dead in bed Tuesday night at their two-room apartment in nearby Burkburnett, Tex. He had been shot in the head with a .410 shotgun.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff Weldon Bailey and Asst. Dist. Atty. Gene Richie said Sharon Sue Payne told them her mother suggested they kill her father so they could have a better life.

Sharon Sue was quoted as saying her mother handed her the shotgun and she went into the bedroom, held the barrel about an inch from her father's head and pulled the trigger.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Payne denied the charge. She said she was in the bathroom, heard a shot and found Sharon Sue in the bedroom with the gun.

Payne was a 38-year-old auto body repairman. Sharon Sue and a 7-year-old brother, David, were sent to a children's home. Mrs. Payne was held in jail on a murder charge.

SAM BENSON SAYS:

WHY?
ARE SOME MEN SO STUBBORN?
WHEN?
I THINK ABOUT IT I GET MAD!
THIS IS A FACT!

I've been in the clothing business for over thirty years and I pride myself on knowing clothing, the fabrics, the construction, the tailoring. That should make them fit perfectly. I know what's on the inside that's hidden, that the majority of men buying suits don't know. I definitely know when a suit or topcoat is a good value, yet after I've combed the clothing market, spent days at some of the country's leading manufacturers in order to select the finest clothing possible . . . and believe me, if I don't find what I believe is a value, I shop elsewhere "and you men have the same privilege."

Yet . . . I've heard some of my customers say to me . . . "Sam, is there anything wrong with these suits, because of the low discount prices?" . . . LET ME SAY HERE & NOW! I buy only the finest possible, from manufacturers who sell their suits and topcoats to some of the finest stores in America. AND I KNOW my prices are at least $10 to $20 less.

That's why I get mad when someone tells me they were told my suits are not what I claim they are.

If you need a new suit or topcoat, come in, let me show you the finest clothing at $10 or $20 savings, and I promsie you this, if it isn't the best fitting suit you ever bought, you can't take it home with you . . .

I hope to see you soon for your new suit.

It's Easy Way to Make Living in Rome

Three Boys Steal Coins From the Fountain

ROME (INS)—Three coins today tell a modern classic of Rome.

They open the pages of a legend, unlock three hearts of the city.

CARRY COINS

Three boys of Rome carry these coins — "Three Coins From the Fountain"—the Fontana Di Trevi in the heart of the Eternal City.

Legend says that if lovers—or a man from anywhere—throw a coin in the Fountain of Trevi they will some day return to Rome. No one can recall for how many generations this belief has lived.

But it lives today for Mario Maiocchetti, 15, Aldo Marchangeli, 17, and Antonio Masci, 34. The three coins represent their profession. The trio steals the coins of love from the Fountain of Trevi.

GRANDFATHER FISHED

For Aldo, the profession has passed from generation to generation:

"My grandfather fished in the Fountain of Trevi and his grandfather, too. We call it 'fishing' because in the old days they used small boats. We are all called fishermen now. Instead of fish, we catch coins."

The fountain is the largest and grandest of all Rome. It was erected by Pope Clement XIII in 1735. Above a mass of sculptored rocks, stands a colossal statue of Neptune.

In the niches to each of Neptune's arms are statues of health and abundance and above them two basreliefs—one of the old Roman general Marcus Agrippa and the other of a girl showing the spring to Agrippa's troops. On the top are statues representing the four seasons.

WATER POURS

From Neptune's sea shell, and from every side of the massive rocks, jets and streams of water spawn out and fall into the large basin of the fountain.

The visitor who knows the legend of return to Rome will take one last look at the waters, turn his back, toss his coins over the shoulder and never turn to look again until his return.

The Big Three — as they call themselves—come in the dead of night to fish. In shorts, they plunge into the waters of the fountain to make their day's wages. Their "working" hours change from night to night — and sometimes no fishing—because the Italian police are trying to net the boys.

JAILED 3 TIMES

"I have been caught and jailed three times," Aldo said. "A man from Germany pitched me into the fountain," Mario related, after the German became angry because he was retrieving the coins. "It's terrible," added Antonio. "A man can't earn ad day's wages any more."

But the three contend they buy off some of the police with coins, candy and cigarettes.

"It was easier five or six years ago," Mario explained, "even though there were 10 gangs fishing then. I will tell you . . .

* * *

"The fountain was divided into three territories. Three gangs worked each part. The tenth gang was the timer—five minutes for each gang—and this rotated. In five minutes, you sank or swam," Mario laughed.

Antonio is now "retired" from the fountain. The unwritten law is that you quit at 30. Antonio, 34, now acts as a kind of advisor.

Despite the present police crackdown, Aldo and Mario fish out about 5,000 lire for a night's work. "That's more than eight dollars," Marion cracked, "not bad, eh!"

* * *

"Ah, the old days," Antonio sighed. "They were better. Ten years ago, tourists used to throw rings and bracelets into the fountain.

"In 1947, I had the biggest wedding in Rome with my coins from the fountain. It was fit for a king. It's not like that any more."

CREEPING EYEBALLS — When building a pipeline it is now the thing to use the magic of X-ray to check the perfection of each weld. This is from the inside out — and the X-ray eye can crawl down the pipe by itself. Above, a Texas Corporation technician is starting the mechanical monkey on its journey. It will be stopped at a joint and rays emanating from it will be picked up on film on the outside of the pipe. Later technicians study the developed film for any defects which might make a weld unacceptable.

1957 Supply a Million Over 1956

Let's Eat Turkey This Month

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

This year there are about a million more turkeys on hand than there were a year ago at the same time. The USDA reports that we now have more summer birds to buy than we used to have at Thanksgiving time.

Start the turkey on one side, then turn to the other, and then to the back, with a shift in position about once an hour during cooking. The bird should be basted with pan drippings each time the turkey is turned.

Oven temperatures should range from 325 degrees for a small bird to 250 degrees for a bird above 20 lbs. ready-to-cook. Roasting time will range from 2½ hours for a 5 lb. bird to 9 hours for a 25 pounder. The bird is done when joints can be moved easily.

In this season of outdoor meals why not try turkey for a change? Choose the tender four to five pound bird. Quartered, these will serve four. Grill slowly, 1¼ to 1½ hours. When the leg joint comes apart easily when twisted, the bird is done.

Perhaps you would prefer to barbecue these small turkeys, or even turkey parts. Here are a couple of sauces that are a little different. Brush turkey before cooking, turn often and baste every time the bird is turned. Just before serving brush with any left-over sauce or use for dunking.

Bar-B-Quick

¼ cup prepared mustard
¼ cup unsulphured molasses
¼ cup salad oil
¼ cup vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Tabasco

Put mustard and then unsulphured molasses in 1-cup measure. Stir to blend. Add salad oil, vinegar, salt and Tabasco; mix well.

Simple Barbecue Sauce

1 can (8 oz.) spaghetti sauce with mushrooms
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 tablespoon sugar

Mix spaghetti sauce, vinegar and sugar until thoroughly blended. Simmer until heated through. Brush turkey or chicken while roasting.

Earlier this summer the turkey growers of Michigan held a smorgasbord at which turkey in fourteen different ways was served. Many of the recipes were adaptations of foreign recipes, such as Suki Yaki and Swedish Meat Balls. Other recipes were original inventions of home economists. We thought you might like to use some of these recipes.

Suki Yaki is also known as Japanese Stew and can be made with a variety of vegetables, other than the ones specified. Note that you use RAW turkey to start with.

Suki Yaki

2 tablespoons butter
1 pound raw boned turkey, sliced paper thin
1 green pepper, cut in thin rings
½ cup mushrooms, sliced
Salt and pepper
2 medium onions
¼ cup green beans, slivered
½ cup celery—thin strips
6 green onions—cut diagonally
Turkey broth, soy sauce to taste

Melt butter. Add turkey and vegetables. Saute. Add turkey stock to cover the bottom of the pan. Cook three minutes. This may be thickened with corn starch, if desired.

Another recipe using raw turkey is this one that can be a main dish for a luncheon or a treat for a cocktail party.

Turkey in a Blanket

1 pound uncooked turkey (ground fine)
Salt and pepper—pinch of garlic salt
¼ teaspoon fine sage

Shape into two inch pencil size sticks. Place on lightly oiled baking dish. Bake in moderate oven until just beginning to brown. Roll in biscuit or pastry rounds. Place on baking tray — bake in hot oven until brown.

Are you often at a loss to know what to do with giblets? We are and usually end up feeding them to the cat! Pickled giblets would be an interesting addition to the relish tray.

Pickled Giblets

2 cups coarsely diced turkey giblets
1 large onion sliced

Let stand in the following sauce at least one day.

¾ cup vinegar
1½ teaspoons salt
1½ teaspoons celery seed
1 tablespoon whole allspice

If you buy just a turkey thigh you might prepare it in the following manner:

Turkey — German Style

Place large pieces of boned out turkey breast or thigh in the following:

1 cup vinegar
½ cup water
1 teaspoon Salt

Bring to boil

Add:

½ teaspoon peppercorn
2 tablespoons dry mustard
Garlic

Marinate 6 to 12 hours. Remove from marinade,. Roll in seasoned flour. Heat butter in heavy skillet. Brown meat. Simmer 1 and ½ hours or more until meat is tender. Remove. Thicken marinade.

★ ★ ★

Any leftover turkey can be used to make a delicious picnic loaf. It may be served hot or cold. At a picnic serve it sliced on a split bun.

Turkey Picnic Loaf

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
1 cup broth
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup milk
2 eggs
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon ground pepper
⅛ teaspoon ground nutmeg
¼ teaspoon ground mace
3 cups minced, cooked turkey
1 cup minced celery and leaves

Sprinkle gelatin over broth. Set over direct heat to dissolve gelatin; stir constantly. Beat together bread, broth-gelatin mixture, milk, and eggs to a smooth consistency. Blend in seasonings. Stir in turkey and celery.

★ ★ ★

Spoon into greased 9½ x 5¼ x 2¾-inch loaf pan or 5-cup mold. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F) for one hour.

For serving cold, refrigerate several hours or overnight, then cut in slices. For serving hot, cut in squares. Serve with desired relish such as cranberry sauce or relish, or pickle relish. Makes 10 servings.

★ ★ ★

Let's get used to thinking of turkey as a year-round food. Dieters can be grateful for it, as poultry has a low calorie count (if it's been fried or barbecued, you can always remove the skin and eat just the flesh). Hostesses will bless it as an easy means of entertaining a large group.

BARBECUED TURKEY — At a recent Turkey smorgasbord held by the Michigan Turkey Growers, there were hundreds of pieces of turkey and turkey kabobs grilled over charcoal fires. Jay Poffenberger, Assistant Agriculture Agent for Oakland County, was a chef for the day. In the above picture he is the man in the center, the one without a chef's cap. With about a million more birds this year than last, everyone can eat turkey during Midsummer Turkey Time.

HONEY FRENCH DRESSING — Honey in a salad dressing gives it a subtle flavor and doesn't mask the fruit it tops. Citrus fruit and cherries are shown in the above picture, ready to have Honey French Dressing poured over them. The dressing is made with salad dressing mix.

Honey Dressing Tops for Fruit

The weather sets the style for many foods as well as fashion. And since all-time is salad-time, fruit salads become more important than ever. Their refreshing flavor and color are welcome in any weather.

Slice and section the prettiest citrus fruits your grocer has to offer, and combine with colorful peaches, pears, cherries, or grapes on a fruit tray. Arrange attractively in a bed of lettuce on a salad server, and let guests help themselves.

To heighten fresh fruit flavor, add honey to a dressing made from a salad dressing mix. This bit of sweetness blends perfectly with the combination of herbs and spices in the dressing, and won't mask the subtle flavor of the fruit.

Honey French Dressing

1 package Old Fashion French Salad Dressing mix.
Add vinegar, water, oil
½ cup mixed salad dressing
4 tablespoons honey

Combine salad dressing mix, vinegar, water, and oil as directed on the bottle or package.

Combine ½ cup of the dressing and honey. Mix or shake well. Serve with fruit salad. Makes enough dressing for 6 to 8 servings of salad.

Serve Rice With Eggs in in Chinese Style

Probably you haven't spent much time wishing you lived in China, but there may have been times when you wished you knew how to prepare some of the delicious dishes served in a Chinese restaurant. With eggs on the Department of Agriculture's list of Plentiful Foods, and so cheap that an hour's wages will buy more eggs than ever before, why not experiment a little?

Let's gamble with a half dozen eggs. That represents only about seven minutes wages for the average factory employe, even though it takes a hen a week to manufacture six eggs. We're going to make EGG FOO YUNG.

Beat a half dozen eggs. Add a can of well drained bean sprouts, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, a half cup of shredded onion, and a little salt and pepper. It's best to use a small skillet, enough for one cake.

Melt fat in a skillet and for each cake you want to make pour out a half cup of the egg mixture, leveling the vegetables evenly over the surface of the cake. Brown on both sides, a little over two minutes to a side.

Rice, of course, is the traditional food to serve with Egg Foo Yung.

FLUTED BANANA SLICES — It's easy to dress up familiar foods in new ways. Bananas, for instance, look festive when they are fluted on the edges. You achieve this picot effect with a fork. Then cut crosswise or diagonally before adding to salads.

Picot Edge on Bananas Adds Glamor to Salads

"Picot-edged" banana slices are so easy to do, and add glamour to summer salads and fruit cups. You can achieve this frilly effect as shown in the picture by simply running the tines of a fork down all sides of a peeled ripe banana. Cut crosswise and you'll have the lacy edging on each slice.

Banasan are so good, and they have a well-rounded supply of vitamins and minerals too. The mellow flavor of bananas combines well with any fruit. Here are delicious summer salad recipes to prove to you what a decorative touch you'll find in fluted banana slices. Be sure to use fully ripe bananas, yellow peel flecked with brown.

Salmon Salad Tropical

1 cup diced ripe banana*
½ cup diced pineapple
1½ cups flaked salmon
½ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickle
1½ teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
Crisp Lettuce

Use fully ripe banana . . . yellow peel flecked with brown.

Mix together lightly and arrange on crisp lettuce leaves. Garnish with fluted banana slices. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Banana Pear Salad

2 fresh or canned pear halves
Crisp salad greens
1 ripe banana
Sweet or tart dressing

Peel and cut banana into fluted slices. Arrange pear halves, banana slices and garnish with berries or cherries. Serve with your favorite dressing. Makes 1 salad.

When you are baking a sponge cake for a jelly roll, grease the pan and line bottom almost to edges with waxed paper; rub the paper with salad (not olive) oil. The oil seems to make it fairly easy to remove the paper after the cake is baked.

Dried Beef New in Old Favorite

Cowboys of all ages, and cowgirls too, love hearty and taste-tempting Western Dried Beef Sandwiches. It's easy to see why, when they taste so good and provide the kind of energy it takes for hot weather fun. Dried Beef is a versatile meat as it can play a variety of roles. As an ingredient in our Western Dried Beef Sandwich, in combination with casseroles, soups and gravies, it adds a generous measure of flavor.

Next time you're trying to think of something easy to "russle up" for lunch, you'll bring the rangers running with Western Dried Beef Sandwiches.

Western Dried Beef Sandwich

½ package (2 ounces) dried beef
2 eggs
3 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
8 slices bread or toast

Cut dried beef into pieces (use scissors for this). Pour hot water over dried beef and drain well immediately. Add beef to eggs, milk, green pepper and onion in a bowl. Beat with a fork to blend. Melt butter in a skillet. Add beef and egg mixture to hot skillet and cook quickly. Stir once or twice.

When eggs are cooked but still moist, divide them into fourths and place each on a slice of buttered bread. Cover with remaining 4 slices of bread. Cut into halves to serve immediately.

NEW WESTERN SANDWICH — Western sandwiches have long been a favorite. Most recipes call for ham, but this one uses dried beef instead. Try these wild west tasty offerings for lunch and watch the family dig in. They'd even make good breakfast eating.

Password for Onions 'Smelly but Tasty'

If you have a nose for bargains, you are probably smelling onions at the produce counter. The late spring crop was about 10 per cent larger than average and the early summer acreage is expected to be about 60 per cent larger than last year.

Mild flavored onions such as Bermuda and the Sweet Spanish or Valencia are the ones to choose for summer picnics, cookouts or barbecues. Choose those that are dry enough to crackle. They should be hard, solid, and have a bright shiny appearance relates the MSU Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. At home keep the onions in a cool dry place using supplies quickly to prevent waste from sprouting.

Pieces of chicken breast get overcooked during frying? Add the other thicker pieces of the bird to the skillet first and let them cook a while before adding the white meat.

Ever Put Leftover Beans in Hearty Sandwich?

Sandwiches can be dainty or hearty, a snack or a full meal and everyone seems to have a favorite. Although a titled Englishman is credited with originating this "bread with a filling," the sandwich is a typical American standby. Generally little known but immensely popular with all who try it is the sandwich using the canned variety or leftover home baked beans. Here are three delicious versions.

Party Franks

Partially split five frankfurters lengthwise and place each on a bun. Fill each frank with heated baked beans. Cover with a slice of sharp cheese; bake in moderate oven till cheese melts. Serve hot, garnished with green onions for a real he-man sandwich.

Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in a saucepan, add 2 cups mashed beans, and stir over the heat for 5 minutes. Add about 1 cup of milk, 1 cup of grated American cheese, salt and peper to taste. Cook till cheese is melted, stirring constantly. Serve on bread or toast, topping each with watercress, sliced tomatoes or onion.

Bean and Egg Spread

Mash 1 cup of drained, canned Boston-style beans well. Blend in ¼ cup finely diced dill pickles, 2 minced hard cooked eggs, 2 tablespoons catsup, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard and 1 tablespoon grated onion. Spread generously on pumpernickel or rye bread.

Old Timer Still Tempts

Ever prepare old-fashioned eggs goldenrod-style? Just add the slivered whites of hard-cooked eggs to well-seasoned cream sauce and heat. Pour sauce over toast and sieve the hard-cooked egg yolks over the whole thing.

Lobster Tails Come in Smaller Size

South Africa is now sending small sized frozen South African rock lobster tails to the United States. These 3 to 5 ounce sizes lend themselves very well to summertime recipes — salads, barbecues, and appetizers.

A colorful appetizer idea is to boil the 3 and 4 ounce frozen South African rock lobster tails for 6 or 7 minutes, drain, chill and remove the undershell. Then the meat is served right in its own bright red shell.

PIZZA ROLLA — Here's a new twist on Pizza. Instead of the filling being on top of the yeast dough, it is folded inside before baking. A basic filling is suggested, but you may add any ingredients you like especially well. Serve with a tomato sauce.

New Twist on Pizza Hides Filling in Dough

Tourists in Italy have always been fascinated by the pizza bakers who work in front of their shops so passers-by can watch and be tempted to try a hot pizza. Tourists are intrigued as they watch the pizza bakers toss and whirl the dough into a round disk and garnish it according to the customer's order. Most people are struck by the grace, speed and skill with which the pizza baker works.

Whether or not you've been in Italy, you've no doubt enjoyed pizza—one of those large tomato cheese pies with the chewy yeast-raised crust. Here it is in a brand new shape with an American accent. If you like pizza, you'll want to try Pizza-Rolla.

Pizza-Rolla

½ cup milk
2½ tablespoons sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons shortening
½ cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast)
1 package of cake yeast, active dry, or compressed
3 cups flour (about)
1 egg yolk
1 tablespoon water

Scald milk. Stir in sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into a large mixing bowl (warm, not hot water, for active dry yeast. Lukewarm water for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Stir until dissolved, stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Add about half the flour and beat until smooth. Stir in additional flour.

Turn out on lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about an hour.

Punch down and turn out on lightly floured board. Roll into a rectangle 16x9 inches. Spread the Pizza Filling down center third of the length of the rectangle. Cut 15 slits in dough along each side of filling, making strips about 1 inch side. Fold strips at an angle across filling, alternating from side to side. Place on greased baking sheet.

Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Brush with egg-yolk combined with water. Bake at 350 degrees (moderate oven) about 35 minutes. Serve hot with tomato sauce.

Pizza Filling

½ cup tomato paste
1 tablespoon salad oil
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon oregano
1 cup grated American cheese

Combine tomato paste with salad oil, salt and organo. Spread on dough. Sprinkle with grated cheese.

Keep Coffee Pot Spotless

To get the invisible oily film off your coffee maker, fill the pot with water, add detergent, place over the heat and allow it to go through the regular brewing cycle. Empty the contents and rinse the parts thoroughly with clear hot water.

More Trouble for Mothers!

NEW YORK — Cake frosting, barbecue sauce or even ice cream in a pressurized can may soon be a reality because of technological developments in the pressure packing of foods by Continental Can Company.

Heretofore, the only foods packed in pressurized cans have been foamed products like whipped cream and dessert toppings. That was because of problems involving (1) the attainment of sufficient pressure, using as the propellents gases approved by the Food and Drug Administration as being nontoxic, and (2) the dispensing of a great enough proportion of the product to make the container economically acceptable.

Continental's extensive experimentation with different propellents and valves, and with a wide range of food products, leads the company to predict a great future for pressure packing of such foods as barbecue sauces, cake toppings, catsup, chocolate syrup and other sundae toppings, grill oils, ice cream, liquid smoke, maple syrup and other table syrups, meat sauces, meat tenderizers, mustard and salad dressings.

Most products will probably be packed in 12-ounce, 16-ounce and even larger pressurized cans, Continental estimates, because these are most economical from the consumer's point of view.

Pork and Beef Combine in Loaf That Slices Well

A meat loaf that's a little different for a change.

Beef and Sausage Loaf

1 pound ground lean beef chuck
1 pound bulk-style pork sausage
1 egg
¾ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 medium-sized raw potato (peeled and finely grated)
1½ teaspoon salt
1 small garlic clove (peeled and crushed)

Mix together the beef, sausage and egg with a wide fork or your fingers. Mix in thoroughly the bread crumbs, grated potato, salt, pepper to taste and garlic. Park into a loaf pan (about 9 by 5 by 2 inches).

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour. Drain off fat and turn out. Sprinkle lightly with paprika and garnish with parsley if desired.

This loaf has to be cut carefully while it is hot; it slices beautifully when cold. Thin slices of the left-over loaf are delicious reheated in a little butter in a skillet. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Flavor Will Be Better

Cheese (except cottage cheese) tastes its best when served unchilled. Take it from the refrigerator long enough before serving to reach room temperature, suggest Michigan State University foods specialists.

Do Family's Meals Promote Health?

We all eat, but all do not eat right. This has been proven just last year in the latest Food Consumption Survey made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. This means that some families do not get the best health from the foods they eat, reminds the MSU Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer.

Why not check your weekly marketing lists against the food groups recommended by nutritionists? In this part of the country, 26 per cent of the families do not get enough Vitamin C which you buy mainly in citrus, tomato, raw cabbage and some other fresh fruits. Families in this area rate below the amount they need of three other vitamins and protein.

How does your family score when you check the body needs against the food you buy, serve and eat?

Low Calorie Fruit Desserts Look Rich

Summer fruits combine with economical and nutritious instant nonfat dry milk for a luscious array of cool desserts ideal for hot weather menus.

From the Borden Test Kitchen here are three frozen dessert recipes offering variety and an interesting twist but less calories than most tempting desserts: Minted Strawberry Delight, approximately 82 calories per 2-3 cup serving; Gingered Peach Dessert, approximately 121 calories per ¾ cup serving; and Banana Orange Frost, approximately 119 calories per ¾ cup serving.

Minted Strawberry Delight

½ cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
⅓ cup instant nonfat dry milk powder
1 cup (½ pt.) sliced fresh strawberries
6 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons (about 5 sprigs) finely chopped fresh mint OR ½ teaspoon peppermint extract

Set refrigerator control at coldest point. Combine water and lemon juice in deep 1-quart bowl. Sprinkle instant nonfat dry milk powder over surface of water. Beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until stiff, about 8 to 10 minutes.

Combine strawberries, sugar and mint; fold strawberry mixture into whipped milk. Pile lightly into 1-quart refrigerator tray. Freeze until firm, about 4 hours. If desired, spoon sweetened sliced strawberries over sherbet. Calories per 2-3 cup serving, approximately 82. Serves six.

Gingered Peach Dessert

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
6 tablespoons sugar
1¼ cups hot water
2½ cups peach puree (canned, frozen or fresh peaches)
6 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup cold water
⅓ cup instant nonfat dry milk powder
1 tablespoon finely chopped crystallized ginger

Set refrigerator control at coldest point. In a deep bowl, mix gelatine and sugar together. Add hot water; stir until gelatine is dissolved. Blend in peach puree and lemon juice. Place over bowl of ice, stir mixture until the consistency of uncooked egg whites.

Pour water into deep 1-quart mixing bowl; sprinkle instant nonfat dry milk powder over surface. Beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until stiff, 8 to 10 minutes. Fold whipped milk into gelatine mixture; pour into two small (3 cups) refrigerator trays. Freeze until almost firm.

Place mixture in a chilled bowl; add ginger; beat with electric mixer or rotary beater until mixture is smooth and fluffy. Return to trays. Freeze until firm, about 2 hours. Calories per serving, approximately 121. Serves eight.

Note: For Parfaits approximately one additional cup of peach puree needed.

Starting with peach puree, spoon alternate layers of puree and ginger peach sherbet into parfait glasses and serve.

Banana Orange Frost

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
⅔ cup sugar
½ cup very hot water
½ cup lemon juice
1½ cups orange juice
¾ cup (2 medium size) mashed ripe bananas
½ cup cold water
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup instant nonfat dry milk powder

Set refrigerator control at coldest point. In a deep bowl mix gelatine and sugar together. Add hot water; stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add fruit juices; blend in bananas. Place over bowl of ice, stir mixture until the consistency of uncooked egg whites.

Pour cold water and vanilla into deep 1-quart mixing bowl; sprinkle instant nonfat dry milk powder over surface. Beat with rotary beater or electric mixer until stiff, 8 to 10 minutes. Fold whipped milk into gelatine mixture; pour into two small (3 cups) refrigerator trays. Freeze until almost firm.

Place mixture into a chilled bowl; beat with electric mixer or rotary beater until mixture is smooth and fluffy. Return to trays. Freeze until firm, about 2 hours. Calories per serving, approximately 119. Serves eight.

Add Cheese to Mix for Tasty Muffins

Chee-Corn Muffins can be chalked up as a speedy standby for they are so easy to make. Use a package of your favorite corn muffin mix, add some sharp Cheddar cheese and presto—Chee-Corn Muffins! The fresh flavors of the corn meal and tangy cheese produce a muffin with winning ways to go with any of your favorite summer salads.

Chee-Corn Muffins

1 12-ounce pkg. corn muffin mix
1 egg
⅔ cup milk
1 cup grated sharp cheese
¼ teaspoon oregano

Heat oven to hot (400 degrees). Empty contents of corn muffin mix package into bowl; add egg, milk, grated cheese and oregano. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened, but not smooth.

Pour batter into greased medium-sized muffin cups filling half full. Bake in preheated oven (400 degrees) about 15 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 10-12 muffins.

Neither Cold Nor Hot Will Spoil Food

DETROIT (INS) — Keep it hot, keep it cold or don't keep it at all.

This was the annual summer warning from Detroit health commissioner Dr. Joseph G. Molner concerning storage of food.

He said ptomaine poisoning strikes many people who don't observe this rule. Meats, fish, milk, salad dressing, cream fillings, gelatines and puddings may be unfit to eat if left at room temperature for an hour or two.

Dr. Molner cautioned that taste odor and appearance may remain the same, but such foods can be dangerous.

He added that picnic lunches may spoil when transported long distances without being packed in ice or in insulated containers.

Give hash ample time to cool slowly to achieve that good crisp browned bottom crust.

Shrimp Adds Protein to Salad

Vegetables are coming thick and fast from gardens. They're piling high in grocery stores, too. To make use of them in as many ways as possible not only adds interest to menus but also insures our getting our share of nutrients with which these vegetables are so well endowed.

Adding a protein food to chopped raw vegetables for a summer salad is not new, of course but to know what vegetables combine best in order to please our taste buds and make an attractive dish makes an easy-to-follow recipe especially welcome. For example, this recipe from the Shrimp Association of the Americas uses chopped shrimp with its delightful flavor and color—plus lettuce, celery and cucumber, crisp and appetizing.

Chopped Shrimp and Vegetable Salad

1 pound shrimp, fresh or frozen
1 cup shredded lettuce or other salad greens
Few sprigs parsley or watercress, chopped
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped cucumber
1 teaspoon chopped onion
Mayonnaise
Salt and pepper
Lettuce leaves

Cook and clean shrimp. Reserve a few shrimps for garnishing. Chop the remaining shrimp. Combine vegetables and chopped shrimp. Moisten with mayonnaise. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Mound salad in lettuce leaves. Garnish with whole shrimp. Makes 4 servings.

Fish and Asparagus Broiled Together

Easy and quick to prepare.

Salmon and Asparagus Broil

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 teaspoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup (¼ pound) grated cheddar cheese
Toast triangles
1 can (14½ ounces) asparagus stalks (drained)
1 can (6½ ounces) salmon (drained and flaked

Method:

Melt butter in 1-quart saucepan over low heat; stir in flour and salt. Add milk all at once; cook over and stir constantly over moderately low heat until thickened and bubbly. Remove from heat; add cheese and stir until melted; return to very low heat stirring constantly if necessary to melt cheese completely.

Arrange toast triangles in bottom of buttered baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches). Arrange asparagus over top. Top with salmon and cheese sauce. Broil 4 or 5 inches from source of heat for 5 to 6 minutes or until thoroughly heated. Makes 4 servings.

Buffet Style Breakfast Is Much Faster

EAST LANSING (INS) — Buffet-style breakfasts spell speed in the kitchen.

Or so home economics experts have found in developing food serving techniques at Michigan State University keyed to modern living.

Teachers developed the kitchen buffet method for coeds who live in groups of eight for several weeks in a house, managing it like a home and sharing all the tasks.

One college girl serves as cook for all the meals. To get everybody out of the house on time in the morning, the cook plugs in the automatic coffee maker; puts eggs to cook on the range, pours orange juice and milk into pitchers.

The cook also stacks dishes, knives, forks and spoons buffet style on the dining table along with individual trays.

"In 15 minutes, breakfast is ready on a help yourself basis," said a spokesman for the University's "home management house."

Each girl takes a tray, helps herself to breakfast and leaves to eat elsewhere in the house or on the porch—away from the kitchen clutter.

The spokesman said coeds who have gone on to marry have adopted the kitchen buffet breakfast in their own homes.

"The only change," she said, "is in the cleanup. On campus, each girl washes and dries her own dishes. At home, the dishes are stacked for the wife to wash."

Recommended Varieties Best to Can or Freeze

Snap up snap beans while they are in season reminds the MSU Marketing Information Agent, Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. A pound of green beans will serve four or five depending upon the size of appetites.

For canning or freezing this is a good time to buy by the bushel. A bushel will yield about 40 pints of frozen beans or 35 to 40 pints canned. It pays to check variety and use one recommended for Michigan. Look for Fullgreen, Wade, Kentucky Wonder, Tendergreen, Top Crop, Blue Lake or Black Valentine.

Be It From Beet or Cane Sugar Is Still Sugar

Beet and cane sugar have the same chemical formula, purity, sweetness, and appearance. Compare price, then decide which you will use for cooking, canning or jelly making.

One pound of granulated sugar measures 2¼ cups. Keep sugar in a tight container in a dry place.

Liquid Smoke Gives Hot Dogs a New Taste

Last year there were over 5 billion "Hot Dogs" sold—and a substantial increase predicted for this year—and while there are many ways in which to prepare them—barbecuing or smoke flavor cooking is most popular—and becoming more so—So, let's barbecue "Hot Dogs"—

Here Is How

SIMMERING—Add 2 tablespoons Liquid Smoke to each pint of boiling water—drop in "hot dogs"—cover—and so water will not boil, heat for 10 minutes. Remove with tongs so as not to break the skin.

PAN BROILED — Melt 2 tablespoons fat in skillet or griddle. Add 2 tablespoons Hickory Liquid Smoke Seasoning — heat over a slow fire until brown—remove with tongs so as not to break skin.

BROILED — Brush each "hot dog" with Hickory Liquid Smoke Seasoning —arrange under broiler about 4 inches from broiling unit —however, we like to split our "hot dog" down the center and brush with Liquid Smoke and broil 5 to 8 minutes—truly delicious.

CAMPFIRE GRILLED—Let the fire burn down to glowing coals—brush the "hot dog" with Hickory Liquid Smoke and stick on a long fork or green stick and broil to a crusty brown.

Cold Eggs Separate Best

When cooking with eggs, take them out of the refrigerator just before you use them. The only exception to this rule is when you have separated yolks from whites and plan to beat the whites. Take the eggs from the refrigerator, separate and return the yolks to the refrigerator in a covered container. Let the whites come to room temperature before beating.

Elegant Whip Made With Champagne

By International News Service

In an era of plenty, 1957 marks the year when champagne was first served with whipped cream.

This dessert recipe was developed for a "champagne flight" out of San Francisco and will serve 35 or 40 for a club gathering.

You will need one pound of lemon gelatin, half a pound of apple gelatin, one quart of hot water, two quarts of ice and water and a bottle of champagne.

Dissolve the gelatin in boiling water. Add ice and water, stirring hard to cause bubbles to form. Add champagne before gelatin is completely thickened. Stir again before pouring into individual cups.

When set, top with whipped cream and stemmed red cherry.

Not So Near the Heat!

You can broil frozen steaks either hard frozen or only partially thawed. Since it will take a little longer, you'll have to place the broiler farther from the heat than you would for unfrozen steak.

Peach Fritters Are Summer Delight

Peach fritters stand in a class all by themselves. Imagine, if you can, golden luscious peach halves, dipped into a fritter batter and deepfat fried. Coated with confectioners' sugar, these fruit gems will certainly bolster dessert and snack suggestions.

Peach Fritters

1 cup sifted enriched flour
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg, slightly beaten
¼ cup milk
2 teaspoons melted lard
6 to 8 Cling peach halves, cut into quarters
Lard for deep-fat frying

Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Combine egg and milk and add gradually to dry ingredients. Stir until batter is smooth. Add melted lard.

Dip each peach quarter into fritter batter. Cook in deep hot lard (350 degrees F.) until golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Serve immediately with confectioners' sugar, if desired. Yield: 12 to 16 fritters.

An eight-inch berry pie generally needs about three cups of the fruit, three-quarters cup of sugar, two tablespoons of flour and a good dash of salt.

9th Grade Students Ought to Be Aiming at College Careers

(For young men and women entering college this fall, for those who hope to in the next few years—and for their parents—there's a great deal to know. Following is the first of two articles by one of Washington's best-known correspondents presenting the expert views and advice of leading educators.)

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON (INS)—Would you like to spare your youngster the heartbreak of a college entrance rejection?

★ ★ ★

It's happening every day, in this era of mass education and crowded universities, as high school graduates dolefully watch their better-prepared friends assemble a college wardrobe and talk gaily of fraternity bids.

THE TIME IS NOW

For parents of early teenagers who are preparing to enroll in the ninth grade this fall, the time to give serious thought to college is now. Otherwise, your own child may be denied the advantages of higher education, and the opportunity for a preferred career.

Getting into college these days is a highly competitive business, but it will become more so as the "war babies" born in the early 1940s proudly claim their high school diplomas during the next few years.

Colleges today are inundated with more than three million students, better than a third of them freshmen. With only 2,189 colleges from which to choose, and with 22,000 kinds of careers available to their graduates, a high school beginner hasn't a moment to lose.

★ ★ ★

High grades are vitally important, but parents who matriculated in a less selective educational era may not realize that it is equally as urgent for their youngsters to participate in extra-curricular activities.

LEADERS FAVORED

It is a fact that if two youngsters with identical grades apply for college admission, and only one vacancy is available, the dean will solve the dilemma in favor of the boy or girl who has exhibited leadership, a particular skill or talent in high school.

★ ★ ★

As early as the ninth grade, today's student should write to several colleges of his choice for entrance requirements. He will then discover that active, well-rounded students are infinitely preferred to the inactive "bookworm" type.

Since some of the better colleges receive 10 times as many applications as they can accept, the ninth grader who begins aiming toward his ultimate goal will have an enviable advantage over the high school senior who suddenly begins to look around.

★ ★ ★

The four criteria of most colleges, in selecting prospective students, are good grades, high school subject matter studied, character and personality ratings, and participation in extra-curricular activities.

SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS

It is well, before selecting freshman year high school subjects, to know exactly what entrance requirements are required by your favorite colleges. Getting their bulletins helps to decide what to study in high school.

Practically all universities demand four years of English, two years of mathematics—one in algebra and one in plane geometry—at least one year of science, such as chemistry, physics or biology; one year of history or social studies; and two years of a foreign language.

Many colleges require two kinds of entrance examinations: One given by the university itself, and the other by the College Entrance Examination Board. Beginning this year, the latter tests are given six times an academic year, in December, January, February, March, May and August.

★ ★ ★

The knowing high school student will take this examination in his junior year, for practice, and again in his senior year, when it really counts. These College Board examinations are divided into two parts to test scholastic aptitude and achievement.

INDIVIDUAL TESTING

The individual university tests are usually given during the spring or summer of the senior year in high school, and may be taken at the high school, or in a college near your home.

★ ★ ★

It is increasingly important to select the exact type of college which best suits your youngster's needs. Only those students who stand at the head of their classes should aim for a college with extremely high scholastic requirements, since admission to such a school spells grueling study and the possibility of flunking out.

Five pages today in Women's Section

Educators strongly urge that every potential college student, no matter how high his grades, apply for admission to at least six universities to increase his chances of a college education.

★ ★ ★

High school principals can supply information about the scholarships available at various universities, but it is a mistake to think that football or basketball are the most important extra-curricular activities for a college-minded high school lad.

BEST ACTIVITIES

Except for the sports scholarships, a boy or girl is more apt to be accepted by the university of his choice if he has made a name for himself in the glee club, the debating society, a church group, the high school newspapers, an orchestra, or even on the golf links.

★ ★ ★

During their junior year, high school students should, if possible, make appointments to visit the campuses of several colleges of their choice. The cost of such trips can be counted as part of the overall expenditure for a college education.

It's worth the struggle when you consider that recruiters from industry who interview college seniors nowadays are willing to offer from $300 a month to an occasional $10,000 a year as a starting salary.

★ ★ ★

The nation badly needs more scientists, engineers, teachers, physicians, dentists, veterinarians and other professionals. College opens the magic door to those facinating careers.

C. E. Wilson Retirement Makes His Wife Happy

PETOSKEY (AP)—Jessie Ann Wilson, who married her husband when he was an $80 a month electrical engineer and accompanied him on his long climb to success, says she is happy Charles E. Wilson is retiring as defense secretary.

AP Wirephoto

Mrs. Neil M. McElroy, whose husband was named secretary of defense yesterday by President Eisenhower, is shown in this informal portrait in the dining room of her home in Cincinnati.

"The news looks good," Mrs. Wilson said at the family's summer cottage at Walloon Lake near here. "After all, Mr. Wilson is 67. He has earned a rest."

A BIT CONCERNED

Mrs. Wilson said she was a bit concerned over the possibility that her husband's retirement may be delayed by a Senate probe of his successor.

★ ★ ★

President Eisenhower has nominated Procter & Gamble Soap Co. President Neil H. McElroy to replace Wilson in the Cabinet lineup.

As to the possibility of a long Senate investigation of McElroy, Mrs. Wilson said, "How futile it all seems, Mr. McElroy is a splendid person, fine and upright, and willing to serve the nation in a vital job. Perhaps his company does sell some soap to the government, but I understand it's a trivial contract."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wilson, who said "I've always made it a point to remain in the background' when her husband was named defense secretary, said neither she nor her husband ever regretted his leaving the presidency of the huge General Motors Corp. to serve his country.

WASHINGTON NOVELTY

"Mr. Wilson, of course, was a complete novelty in Washington," she said. "He spoke simple truths in a place where politics is more generally the native tongue. He came as a great shock."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Wilson emerged from the background only once—

MRS. C. E. WILSON

and then to defend her husband.

When President Eisenhower criticized Wilson for making his famous draft-dodging remark in connection with the National Guard, Mrs. Wilson leaped to her husband's defense.

★ ★ ★

"I think the President should have stood back of Mr. Wilson," she said then. "I think you need a little pat on the back once in a while. Mr. Wilson has been trying to do a good job, and I think he has done a good job."

Now that Wilson's days in the political limelight are almost ended, Mrs. Wilson said she and her husband hope to take a vacation at the Walloon Lake cottage later this month.

Hepburn Stars in New 'Much Ado'

Shakespeare Becomes Poet Laureate of Texas

By JOAN HANAUER

STRATFORD, Conn. (INS)—Katharine Hepburn and Alfred Drake opened in a novel version of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" — the scene was set in Texas.

★ ★ ★

Turning the Bard of Avon into the poet laureate of the Rio Grande, in order to make Shakespeare more American, meant setting the scene in Texas near the Mexican border in the mid 19th Century.

It also meant jangling spurs, draped serapes, gorgeously embroidered south of the border cowboy outfits and Mexican-type background music.

TIMING AND DICTION

Miss Hepburn proved again that she can turn a Shakespearean quip with clean-cut comedy timing and immaculate, precise diction.

★ ★ ★

She and her verbal sparring partner, Alfred Drake, plucked every possible laugh from the Elizabethan comedy as they battled each other into love and marriage.

In contrast to these two witty lovers, both determined not to marry, were Richard Easton and Lois Nettleton as the sweet and swooning lovers who are separated by a villainous plot and then brought together for a double wedding with Drake and Hepburn.

★ ★ ★

The settings of the American Shakespeare Festival Theater production were imaginative and mobile, the costumes colorful in the extreme and the acting broad comedy played for belly laughs.

NO HARM TO 'ADO'

New York morning newspaper critics agreed that the change of scene did "Much Ado" no harm. Both lauded the production generally and singled out the nicely matched comedy styles of the two principals for special praise.

★ ★ ★

In the Times, Brooks Atkinson suggested the transfer to a comparatively modern locale was "a brisk idea for one excellent reason. Katharine Hepburn is very much the modern actress."

The Herald-Tribune's Paul Beckley observed, "(The play) may have taken on a bit of hacienda-like leisure . . . and certainly every feminine touch has been brushed in with a light and dainty style, but there is sufficient corseting to keep it well-shaped and firm."

Auxiliary Chairmen Are Named

Mrs. Leslie Hotchkiss was named director of the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary when the group met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Cole Jr. on Old Orchard drive.

Other chairmen are Mrs. Cole, who heads program, Mrs. Donald Anderson and Mrs. Byron Zink, dance committee. Mrs. Leonard Buzz and Mrs. John Napley head the directorship committee and Mrs. Robert Weddle is ways and means chairman.

Refreshments were served at the meeting by Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Zink and Mrs. Wilkinson.

A simple tweed suit could easily become a basic in your wardrobe. This wearable suit is in a pebbly Scotch tweed cut with a slim skirt and straight jacket with slash pockets. A fine frosting of black mink is added for the final accent.

Cartoon Service Keeps Aunt Busy

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"You seem to collect anecdotes about elderly people who have interesting hobbies," a young woman writes, "so I am submitting my great-aunt as a real gem.

"In her early 80's Aunt Louise is as spry, as busy and as happy an old lady as you have ever seen.

"Her hobby is clipping cartoons and jokes that are just perfect for the people she sends them to and which they otherwise might have missed.

WONDERFUL CARTOONS

"Once a week my husband and I get an envelope full of the most wonderful cartoons about young families with lots of children. That's the category we're in.

"On days when nothing seems to work out right, and we're feeling depressed, along will come a batch of Aunt Louise's cartoons. They help us to see the amusing side of our own problems and we're soon feeling much better."

My young correspondent gave me Aunt Louise's name and address, so I wrote to her. She replied promptly, in a firm, old-fashioned hand.

Her "service," she told me, goes to many friends and relatives. If she finds out that someone is in a special situation, or has a special interest, she puts him or her on the list and sends clippings of special interest to that person.

ONLY FUNNY ONES

"But only funny ones," she told me. "Only cartoons or jokes or funny items."

★ ★ ★

Then she went on to say how it all began.

"When I was young and raising my family, I didn't know many people and I hardly ever received mail. I used to long for letters, but they hardly ever came.

"When one did come, it was the weekly letter from my mother-in-law who was one of the gloomiest, dreariest women you ever met.

"She was always complaining and her letters were just like that, too. After reading a letter from her, I'd feel miserable for a whole day.

CHEERY LETTERS

"Of course, that was ages ago. But I remember thinking that, if I ever had the time, I'd send people cheery letters, full of things that would make them laugh.

"I'm not much at writing, but I do make up for it by collecting funny things. It gives me a real interest and gives my life some purpose!"

The nicest part of this story is that I, too, have evidently been added to Aunt Louise's list. Every so often she'll write and enclose a number of vocational cartoons and jokes — all very, very funny.

'Why Everybody Does It!' Exclaims Brooklyn Boy

Practice of Party Crashing Is Widespread Among Teenagers

By EUGENE GILBERT

Hawaii, famed for hospitality, has been wondering whether it suffers lately from too much of a good thing.

A Honolulu editor wrote us that gate - crashing teenagers there have turned parties into open-house affairs; he asked us to look into the situation generally.

After making a nationwide survey, we found that Hawaii was not alone in suffering from this "come-one-come-all" disease.

The returns show that party crashing, while not approved by most teenagers, has become such a widely established practice that we seem on the verge of raising a generation of free loaders.

★ ★ ★

"Why everybody does it!" exclaimed a 15-year-old Brooklyn boy.

AT LEAST ONE PARTY

Not everybody does it, but fully 73 per cent of all boys and 13 per cent of all girls in the 13 to 15-year-old bracket admit to having crashed at least one party.

★ ★ ★

From the figures it would appear that party crashers usually go stag, with the girls getting in by old-fashioned invitations.

Most of the girls in the 13 per cent who went party crashing were accompanied by a boy friend, thereby increasing the woes of the already harried host or hostess.

"My date last week took me to a party to which neither of us was invited," confessed a 15-year-old Norwalk, Conn., girl. "I'd never crashed before but it was fun."

★ ★ ★

Another New England miss wasn't so sure whether it was fun or not but said she had no choice.

"We girls can't tell our escorts what to do," she said. "If they tell us to go crashing, we have to go along."

WITHOUT WAITING

But some of the weaker sex said they have struck out on their own without waiting for an escort or an invitation.

★ ★ ★

"There's nothing wrong with girls party-crashing," insisted a 16-year-old feminist from Virginia. "Many of my girl friends do it. At least the girls don't get rough, like the boys do at a party."

Despite the number who admit to having crashed parties from time to time, most teenagers are opposed to the practice and seem to realize it can lead to trouble. Especially the older ones.

Among boys in the 13 to 15-year-old group, 40 per cent regard party crashing as "harmless fun," 23 per cept see it as "normal" and 35 per cent think it "can lead to trouble."

Girls in the same age group are even more lenient. Some 46 per cent regard party crashing as "harmless fun," even though only a few of them indulge.

About 19 per cent consider it normal and 34 per cent believe it can lead to trouble.

FUN DIMINISHES

The fun of party crashing diminishes considerably as youngsters advance in wisdom and age to the 16 or over age bracket.

★ ★ ★

Among the boys at this ripe old party-going age, 11 per cent look upon crashing as a harmless diversion, 21 per cent think it normal and a sober-minded 64 per cent think it can lead to trouble.

The girls over 16 do not see the dangers as readily. About 27 per cent still think crashing is harmless, 23 per cent regard it as normal and 47 per cent think it can lead to trouble.

Do the young partygoers have any advice on how to get rid of a crasher or group of crashers?

"They should be asked politely to leave," answered 43 per cent of the boys and 29 per cent of the girls.

It is interesting to note that the boys, who account for most of the crashing, were more firmly insistent on a quick ouster than the girls.

JOIN THE FUN

"They should be invited to come in and join the fun," answered 20 per cent of the boys and 24 per cent of the girls.

★ ★ ★

A minority element of 10 per cent of the boys and 12 per cent of the girls thought the host should "get rough" with party crashers and the remaining 8 per cent of the boys and 12 per cent of the girls were in favor of calling the police.

MR. AND MRS. D. A. MEIXSELL

Margery D. Robinson and Donald A. Meixsell were united in marriage at St. Mary in the Hills Church Saturday. Mrs. Charles Robinson of Murphy avenue is Margery's mother. Donald is the son of Mrs. Guy E. Meixsell of Seneca street.

Margery Robinson Weds in Double-Ring Ceremony

St. Mary in the Hills Church was the setting for the wedding of Margery D. Robinson and Donald A. Meixsell Saturday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. William Hamm performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

★ ★ ★

Margery is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Robinson of Murphy avenue, and Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Meixsell of Seneca street.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white lace over taffeta, with sequins on the bodice, which featured a sweetheart neckline, and scallops from the bodice to the hem.

A crown of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was comprised of white roses and carnations.

★ ★ ★

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Tricker, wearing a white nylon over yellow taffeta dress and carrying yellow feathered carnations.

Judith Robinson, wearing white nylon over blue taffeta with matching cummerbund and carrying bi feathered carnations, was bridesmaid.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

Earl Schram was best man and Edward Rondo, Robert C. Tricker and Robert Tricker Jr. ushered.

★ ★ ★

A reception was held in the Knights of Pythias Hall following the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Robinson chose a black and white ensemble with a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Meixsell wore a navy and white ensemble and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

For traveling in northern Michigan, the bride chose a black and white ensemble with a rose corsage from the bridal bouquet.

Sandals Ridiculous

Come, girls, let's be honest when buying shoes. Admit sandals with straps look ridiculous with pudgy ankles. Have your shoe salesman help you pick a more flattering style.

Select New Stockings

When you buy stockings for summer wear, remember that sandals call for sheer stockings, and that tanned legs call for a different shade than that you wear in spring.

Thank-You Note Sent to Only One

Other Giver Feels She Was Slighted by Recipient

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Two of the girls with whom I work sent me a very pretty nightgown while I was in the hospital." I wrote a thank-you note and sent it to one of the girls.

"At the bottom of the note I asked her please to send the note to 'Mary' after she had finished reading it. I understand Mary was hurt over this and feels that she received second-hand thanks. Will you please tell me if what I did was wrong?"

Answer: Yes, you should really have sent a note to each of them. If they live together one note addressed to them both would have been sufficient.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon and would like you to answer the following question: Does the bridegroom's family send out the invitations to their own relatives and friends, or does the bride and her family send out all the invitations?"

Answer: Usually the bridegroom's family sends their list to the bride's family, who sends out the invitations. But it would not be incorrect, especially if the families live in different cities, to ask the bridegroom's family if they would like to send out their own, and if so, send them however many invitations they require.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A friend has just told me that her sister, newly married, has informed her that she must in the future address all letters to Mr. and Mrs. as it would be an insult to her husband to write to her alone.

"This sounds like nonsense to me. Has a sister no right to write to a married member of her family without addressing the letter to both parties? Friendly family chats dealing with matters of no particular interest to the husband should be permitted in democratic America, should they not?

"The new bride says she expects to let her husband read everything and therefore all letters should be addressed to them both. What is your opinion?"

Answer: I agree with you, but as the new bride has every right to show her letters to her husband, the sister should write nothing she does not wish him to read.

Work Routine Made Easier by Appliances

Marriage is no way for a woman to avoid working for a living these days.

It is estimated that 1,280,000 of this year's 1,600,000 brides will continue to work after marriage.

Reasons are usually either that the bridegroom is still going to school or that money is needed to pay for such items as furniture and furnishings, car or even the diamond engagement ring.

To help the bride live a double life as housewife and working girl, surveys reveal she usually has an electric iron, toaster, waffle iron and deep fat fryer. Other popular items include electric juicers, skillets, roasters and-or food mixers.

But the working wife will still find plenty of "homework" to do.

Young Wear Shorts

Short shorts are for the very young only. If you're past your teens, stick to the longer length. And if you've a leg or thigh problem, slacks or Bermuda shorts are your best bet.

Diet and Exercise Gild the Lily

Marathon Banishes Tired Feeling

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Today I want to bring you another letter from a Marathon winner. As most of you know I run my Eight-Week Self - Improvement Marathon each January and print a few of the most interesting letters from successful contestants. Today's letter:

"Dear Mrs. Lowman: I had wonderful success with your Marathon. When I started I was not only 20 pounds overweight but was tired all of the time. It was an effort for me to do my housework, although doctors found nothing wrong with me.

* * *

"Well I lost the 20 pounds I needed to and also 3½ inches from my waist, 5 from my abdomen and 4½ from my hips. You can imagine how happy that made me, but that's not all.

"I no longer feel tired so that my chores are an effort. I no longer am troubled with constipation which had been a problem for years, AND, a sore, stiff shoulder disappeared — not my shoulder but the stiffness and soreness.

"I never will stop my exercises —they make me feel so much more alive; and neither will I go back to stuffing myself with rich food as I used to. Thank you."

* * *

Diet and exercise certainly will gild the lily. A woman can make tremendous improvement in her appearance with a routine of this sort. However, I think that one of the most exciting byproducts is the uptake in energy and the loss of many small discomforts.

A PLAN FOR LIFE

Another by product comes from forming habits, or becoming accustomed to a way of life, which could act as a skeleton plan for life.

* * *

Today the benefits of exercise are undisputed (unless there is some special reason for not exercising) and it is a well-recognized fact that most of us eat too much rich, heavy, devitalized food.

The well-planned reducing diet has all of the food elements essential for health. If you will use this as a basis for your menus, adding only the number of calories necessary to maintain your ideal weight, you will have taken a big step toward the prolongation of the youthful portion of life.

If you missed my Eight-Week Self - Improvement Marathon in January, you may want it now. If so, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the booklet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

* * *

Tomorrow: "Girl, 12, Should Feel Free to Remove Hair From Legs."

A constant check is necessary to keep weight down during a diet.

Hand Wash Swim Suits

It pays to give your bathing suit proper care to maintain its shapeliness, color and fit. Treat it gently. Unlike most other apparel in this automatic appliance age, bathing suits should not be tossed into the machine for either washing or drying. The following procedure for care of swimsuits is advised.

1. Wash all bathing suits by hand only—machine washing will damage any elastic or other rubber in the suits.

2. Rinse bathing suits in lukewarm water immediately after wearing. If perspiration, dirt or suntan oil stain the suit, wash in mild soap and lukewarm water, rinsing at least twice in lukewarm water. Do not use strong detergents or bleach.

3. Roll suit in towel to remove excess moisture. Shape the bra cups and smooth out the rest of the suit. Never twist or wring.

4. Dry the suit in the shade, placed flat on a towel or hanging from the waistline. Do not hang suit by the straps or put clothespins on any elastic section. Dry completely.

5. Never press lastex suits or elastic parts in other suits.

Mix Styles in Divider Decoration

NEW YORK (INS)—You can combine old-fashioned Oriental styles with modern geometric designs when setting up room dividers.

This field of home decoration is left up to your imagination, without creative decor becoming too expensive.

BEADED CURTAINS

For example, a recent furniture display combined the old-time beaded curtains, now coming back into style, with the very latest thing in dramatic and daring geometric prints for a combination fabric group of room dividers.

* * *

To top it off, the room itself boasted furniture in the slim, trim, rather austere Scandinavian manner.

The whole trick is in having a good eye and a healthy supply of self-confidence.

PRINTS AND STRIPE

For a period room, for instance, you can combine the small and dainty prints that are top style right now with a bold regency stripe in the second section of the room divider. This mix-and-match trend extends to furniture period as well as room divider pattern.

No matter what the purists may say, the high-fashion room displays at New York department stores often contain several periods of furniture in one room, just so they blend well and complement each other.

No. 8120 with Patt-o-Rama included is in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 12, 32 bust, jumper 3¾ yards of 35-inch; blouse, short sleeve, 2 yards.

For this pattern, send 35c in coins, your name, address, size desired, and the Pattern Number to Sue Burnett, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy Street, Chicago 6, Illinois.

Ease Freezer Fret

Long, complete electrical power failures are rare in most communities. But if you are a freezer family, here are a few points to ease your worries: frozen meat takes longer to warm up than baked goods and a full freezer takes longer to warm up than a partly-filled one.

Let Sunburn Reduce Skin Blemishes

Solar Rays Dry Oil, Could Help Acne, Adolescents Told

(AP Newsfeatures)

Sunburn is one of the best beauty treatments for youthful skin, says Dr. Betty Ettinger, a physician specializing in determatology and a consultant for a cosmetics firm.

Why? Because adolescent blemished skin usually is too oily. The ultra-violet rays of the sun may dry the skin's surface oiliness, and that will lessen the chances of the oil condition aggravating acne, she says.

"Length of exposure varies with the lightness of the skin," Dr. Ettinger advises. "Blondes and redheads who burn easily should spend no more than a half-hour in direct sunlight."

A good idea is to start acquiring a burn in the middle of the afternoon when the sunlight is waning rather than late morning or around noon when the sun is strongest. A sunburn lotion with an alcohol rather than an oil or cream base gives best results.

BUT WATCH WRINKLES

The physiological process that explains the improvement in adolescent skin after sunburn and peeling is based on the premise that sunshine will dry skin. This is not a disadvantage for everyone, but it is what leads to wrinkles.

★ ★ ★

If the skin is overly-oily, the kind that sprouts acne, the drying effect of the ultra violet rays is likely to remove excess oil, drying the entire area. After peeling, the new skin will be drier and continued careful exposure of the skin to the sun will be helpful.

It is not a good idea to burn and peel continuously, Dr. Ettinger says, and young people who want the sun to improve their skin should continue to watch their diets. Skip items like chocolate, nuts and shellfish and eat a well-balanced diet of meat, vegetables and fruit.

Once you have had a good sunburn and a peeling, it's better to be very cautious when sailing, swimming or sunning, Dr. Ettinger advises. Sun lotion should be applied about every hour as it may be washed away by swimming or in perspiration.

★ ★ ★

"Dry off quickly when you come out of the water after swimming, too," Dr. Ettinger advises. "Droplets of water that adhere to the skin not only wash off protective lotions but act as tiny lenses which strengthen the sun's rays and intensify the possibility of a painful burn.

"If you swim in salt water, a residue tends to dry on the skin and can irritate it."

Bath Is Educational

Baby's bath is more than a cleansing ritual, says an eminent doctor. By learning how to handle the washcloth, how to keep the soap from slipping through fingers, the child gets important experience in muscle coordination.

Silk can be harmed by heat, so in pressing it use a warm iron and a press cloth and work with care.

Turn Cold Shoulder to Torrid Weather

For nine infallible ways to put your best face forward in muggy 92-degree heat and keep your your temper under leash, listen to a famous Hollywood beauty expert:

1. If you play tennis, golf or toil long hours in your garden under a murderous sun, wear a shade-making hat or cap, and be sure it is ventilated.

2. Keep cologne and astringent in your desk drawer, by your bedside, for mop-ups in non-air-conditioned officers, or during hot summer nights.

3. To keep cool, keep tight bracelets, cuffs of gloves off your wrists, one of your main pulse spots which telegraphs heat to the entire body.

4. To make a wilted face look daisy-fresh, when away from home, wring out a large handkerchief in cold water, bury your face in it, fan moisture dry, and reapply powder and lipstick.

5. For a pick-me-up, take a warm bath — a cold one will only make you feel warmer.

6. Wear loose, lightweight, peek-a-boo (keep it decent) clothing, especially porous girdles, that provide entry to air, exit to moisture before it has a chance to chill you.

7. Hot weather is no time to smear on cream during the heat of the day. Instead apply it at night after the temperature begins to fall.

8. Stash your lipstick and eyebrow pencil in the refrigerator before using. They'll feel cool to the touch, will stay primed for the work they've got to do.

★ ★ ★

9. Keep your neck, which has the lowest heat tolerance of any part of your body, clear of hair, collars, necklaces. Better than cutting hair short for summer comfort is to leave it long and scrag it up.

Who Says Venus Has Ideal Shape?

Famous Sculpture Is No Match for Movie Queens

PARIS (INS)—Whoever saw the "ideal woman" in the Venus de Milo should have his eyes examined.

The classic sculptured feminine figure represents such a hefty chunk of womanhood that, if alive, she would have trouble finding a man that could measure up to her.

CAN'T MATCH M.M.

And even if you chipped her down to size with a chisel, you wouldn't get a silhouette to match Marilyn Monroe's.

★ ★ ★

Venus' custodian, the Louvre Museum, said today her vital statistics are:

Height, 6 feet 7½ inches; bust, 43.68 inches; waist, 38.77 inches, and hips 44.13 inches.

Miss Monroe stands 5 feet 5½ inches in her stocking feet. Her measurements are 38½-23-36.

★ ★ ★

Venus reduced to Marilyn's height would proportionately offer the following measurements: 36-32-36½.

OTHER FAMOUS SHAPES

Here are how some other famous living shapes stack up: Jayne Mansfield, 40-18-35; Italy's Sophia Loren, 39-25-39, and Britain's Diana Dors, 36½-24-35.

★ ★ ★

The British Board of Trade in a white paper issued last week said the average British woman had a 35-25-37½ figure and compared it to the Venus de Milo's measurements which it gave as 37-26-38.

Louvre officials said they had "no idea" how the British Board of Trade could have given Venus such an hour-glass figure.

If Venus fails to meet present-day standards in the streamlined feminine form, she has drawn approving glances from nutrition experts.

Her silhouette was praised as that of "a healthy woman" by those present at the fourth international Nutrition Congress that brought more than 1,000 specialists on food to Paris last week.

Auxiliary Meets

Ladies Auxiliary of the Metropolitan Club Number Six met Tuesday evening at the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue. A memorial service was held in memory of Mrs. John Ott. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John DePauw, Mrs. Harold Wright and Mrs. Joe Koren.

Keeps Tot Busy

Little girls like to play house. For a few hours' peace mother can provide a child with a small size laundry set. The youngster will keep busy with her washtub and suds, scrub board, ironing board and play iron.

Protect Buttons

Nothing is more annoying than buttons that chip or break on washday. Protect novelty pearl or glass buttons by enclosing the garments in a mesh bag or pillowcase before drying in your automatic clothes dryer.

For Portrait Girl — the Fragile Look

NEW YORK (NEA) — A soft, ladylike, portrait look is the ideal summer look for girls who stay with white skin and delicate make-up all summer long.

The sleek sheaths and vivid makeup are for their suntanned sisters.

For the portrait girl, there are the soft, drifty dresses that create an instant impression of fragility.

This summer, such dresses can go to an afternoon party, to cocktails or to dinner. They come in layers of silk organdy and in petal colors. The very full skirts are belled out over several petticoats.

★ ★ ★

And such dresses are at their prettiest when they're worn with short, white kid gloves, big hats, simple pumps and frosty white jewelry.

TWO DESIGNS

We show two such dresses here, both Suzy Perette designs. Both are polka-dotted silk organdy.

Late afternoon dress (left) has small white dots on beige. Draped off-shoulder neckline has large bow beneath white dickey inset at front.

The shirtwaist dress (right) has puffed sleeves with buttoned cuffs and wide self-belt.

SUNSHADE IS PROP

A good prop to wear with such dresses is the sunshade in a pastel. It's a pretty and feminine touch but also serves the very practical purpose of warding off the sun and thus keeping a fair skin looking creamy and pastel.

Makeup, of course, should be cued to the pale pinks and a natural look with a light hand for the eye shadow.

And if the dress is, like one we show here, slightly off-shoulder, then makeup should extend to shoulders as well.

White leather, black leather, bell tweed, all lengths, fitted or loose—if leather makes you glow, choose your silhouette.

White and black leather in mat or shiny finish is featured in sports coats. Leather is handled like fabric with which it is combined for some of the smartest casual costumes seen in years.

Try These Hints for Removing Clothing Stains

For removing common stains, here are a few hints:

Grass: Rub heavy sunds on stain with a soft brush. Wash in hot suds. If stains remain, use bleach (highly diluted for multi-colored fabrics).

Mildew: Treat stains when fresh and before the mold growth has a chance to weaken the fiber. Wash in hot, sudsy water, or spread salt and lemon juice on the stain and place in direct sunlight.

Iron rust: Apply oxalic acid solution (three tablespoons of the crystals to one pint of water). When the stain disappears, apply a weak ammonia solution. Rinse well. Or, moisten with lemon juice and salt and dry in the sun. Do not soak in a tub or washer.

Lipstick: Moisten spot with full strength Pine-Sol, then wash with soap and water.

Paint: Scrape off as much fresh paint as possible. Soften remainder with vaseline. Then soak in pure turpentine, rubbing occasionally. Wash in warm suds.

Candlewax: Scrape off all excess wax with a dull blade. Place stain between clean white blotters, cleansing tissues or paper towels. Press with warm iron, changing blotters as they become soiled. Then, sponge with carbon tetrachloride.

Equal Work Status for Women?

By JOHN HANAUER

NEW YORK (INS)—The U.S. Constitution may grant women equal rights, but those working for the federal government have yet to achieve equal status with men.

★ ★ ★

Girls who want to work for the government have certain advantages—job security and the glamor of working in the nation's capital.

But although federal government employment of women has risen 200 per cent since 1939 and job opportunities, particularly in non-clerical capacities, have made great gains, the girls are still lagging behind.

Federal jobs are classified in grades from one to 18, and the higher your grade number, the better the job and the salary. Latest government figures show that the average salary per year was $3,562 for women; $4,618 for men. Median grades for all white collar jobs were grade four for women, grade six for men.

Your success as a government girl depends partly on what type of work you are interested in. Your chances are good as: an accountant, legal documents examiner, mathematician, medical technician, nurse or statistician.

But women's status has changed least in these federal government categories: administrator, doctor, engineer and lawyer.

Finish Rids Mildew

A mildew-resistant finish is important to fabrics that are to be worn in a humid, warm climate. It's used especially for cotton, linen and rayon.

Couple Married in Arkansas

Mrs. Richard M. Warner of Flint announces the marriage of her sister, Gladys Hyatt of LaSalle street, to Arnold Phillips of Warren.

The ceremony was performed July 31 by the Rev. David P. Congers in the chapel of First Methodist Church, Clarksville, Ark. The couple will live on LaSalle street.

Let Friend Decide

If a friend takes you to a party in her car you should let her be the one to decide when to leave. Telling her you have to leave the party before she is ready to go is not very considerate. If you know ahead of time you must leave early, say so when she offers to take you.

Junior Editors Quiz on HURRICANES

QUESTION: Are hurricanes worse than tornadoes?

ANSWER: Hurricanes do more damage because they affect a far larger area than tornadoes do. Their peak velocity, however, is only 125 miles an hour or so, while a tornado's probably reaches 300 and causes damage like that of an explosion.

A hurricane is a widespread tropical storm that often forms in the Caribbean area and sometimes reaches parts of the United States. Similar storms in other regions of the world have other names. A hurricane may spread destruction 200 miles wide, while a tornado funnel causes damage only in a path about 200 yards wide. The wind in a tornado moves in a very tight circle; that in a hurricane travels in a very wide one.

Roughing It? --Not Camper of Today!

AP NEWSFEATURE

The man who used to bid farewell to all the comforts of home when he set off on a wilderness vacation now can take most of them with him.

The fact that he probably will, with enthusiasm — thus making camping into an eat-your-cake-and have-it-too proposition—may stir some viewers with alarm to cook up a dismal commentary on how Americans are getting soft.

But let it be noted that few such commentaries are produced by those who have firsthand experience with a cold-water shave, or a pine bough bed in a hailstorm.

The production of portable gadgetry design to turn a quick campsite into comfortable quarters for a large family, if necessary, apparently has been quietly growing for some time.

It took an extensive research program, however, to scout out many of the items, since some of the most ingenious are the products of small shops and indeed the basement workrooms of hobbyists.

The whole show now has been put on the road in a setup called "an Exhibit of Station Wagan Living," with one of the big auto companies footing the bill.

The tour opened in Detroit, traveled to Chicago and Milwaukee, moved to Cleveland and thence heads east—to Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Washington and New York. It's scheduled to stay out until Christmas, touring west, then following the sun season to California and cross country again to Florida.

It's what the industry calls a "soft sell"—a demonstration for the uncounted millions of real and prospective campers as to just what equipment is available, and where.

Here is a rundown of major innovations, all field tested, which can bring civilization to the wilderness in a few fell-planned bundles stacked in the back of the car. Minimum outfits can be put together for less than $200, excellent outfits for a family of four at around $500.

NEW TENT DESIGNS

Tents—new lightweight materials, new designs. Nearly all can be put up by one man in a jiffy, some open with a pop like an umbrella. Most are engineered with no center poles and maximum floor space. Ventilation systems will make old puptenters sigh.

Cooking and lighting—the gasoline stoves and lanterns still are with us, in improved forms. But so are the same items in bottled fuels, some in pressurized cans so there's no variation and no pumping.

Units also are designed to heat tents, duck blinds and car interiors. And there are electric lighting units — fluorescent fixtures that plug into the car lighter and put little strain on the battery.

Food—improved coolers, chairs and tables that practically fold to fit the pocket, and dish kits. A show stopper is an overall unit dreamed up by a Californian who still builds them to order: a kitchen rig that takes up the first foot or so of a wagon's load space or a trunk, compartmentalizes all foods and dishes, includes counter space, place for stove and cooler, a pressured water tank and still leaves a sturdy top surface big enough for sleeping bags.

Recreation—you now can get a full sized boat into the car, along with the family. A couple of models are shown—a domestic product that inflates with a pump and carries two persons, and an elaborate German-made collapsible runabout. Both fold into an oversize suitcase.

That cold water shave? Well, there's a shaver you can wind up like a toy train and use while your wife is using the car lighter to warm the baby's bottle, or boil a pot of coffee.

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N.S. (AP) — Harness racing is getting to be popular in Nova Scotia. Three tracks are in operation this summer.

Sackville Downs Raceway opened in late May and will continue through Nov. 11 with events every Wednesday and Saturday nights. It is the third track in this province and is 13 miles from Halifax.

Idaho Senator Has Promise

Church a Good Liberal

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Frank Forrester Church, the "boy orator of the Snake River," is the Senate's youngest member and one with promise of someday becoming its most distinguished.

Rarely have members of the Senate "Club" been as impressed with a freshman colleague as they have with 33-year-old legislator from Boise, Idaho.

Democrats see him as a liberal in the tradition of Idaho's William E. Borah, Nebraska's George Norris and Wisconsin's Robert LaFollette.

Last week, they were happy to see him as the instrument of compromise; the who offered the jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill which enabled the Democrats to carry the day on that issue. All but nine Democrats supported the amendment.

Church, who could be mistaken for a college student on any campus, won his oratorical spurs early. A graduate of Stanford University and its law school, he won the American Legion's oratorical contest in 1941. On the day Pearl Harbor was attacked, he enlisted as a private in the Army.

He received a commission after 18 months, on his 20th birthday, and saw service in India, Burma and China. Returning home to Idaho, he practiced law and interested himself in Democratic affairs.

Church was state chairman of the Young Democrats from 1952 to 1954, steadily building toward his big race. In 1956 he was elected to the U. S. Senate, defeating Republican Herman Welker.

He is married to the daughter of a former Idaho governor, now Federal Judge Chase A. Clark; and has an eight-year-old son.

★ ★ ★

Church's speech this session in favor of a government-built high dam at Hells Canyon on the Snake River — and in opposition to the Eisenhower Administration's low-dam private project — was one of the best ever delivered on the subject.

"We've got something here," said one Democrat of Church last week. "He's a real thinker. Watch him go."

Actress Scores Victory in Fight to Save Theater

LONDON (INS)—Actress Vivien Leigh has scored a major victory in the battle to save the historic St. James Theater in London.

She was informed by the company that bought the theater site that it is holding up plans to demolish the 200-year-old building for the time being.

The firm said that "in view of t existence of a body of feeling that the theater should remain" it was prepared to take no further action for a "reasonable time."

The tempestuous British star has been leading the fight for some time to prevent the St. James from being razed to make way for a modern office building.

The company's statement warned that a sum of at least $980,000 would be required to purchase and take care of other expenses involved in saving the theater.

If Vivien and her famed husband, actor Sir Laurence Olivier, start a public fund to preserve the St. James, Sir Winston Churchill will head the list with a $1,400 gift. Churchill promised the money during the early stages of the battle.

POINTER FROM MOM — Former child star, Shirley Temple Black, keeps a watchful eye on things in her real-life role as mother, as she makes sure her children, Charles Alden, 5, and Lori Alden, 3, stay on the right track in their backyard railroad at Atherton, Calif. Movie fans will have a chance to see the star when she was young as her children are now, as films that carried her to fame are to be reissued.

Ewart Rules on Promotions

Upholds Advancement of Three Police Officers; Say One Is Invalid

Although it was the Fire Department's night at the Civil Service Commission meeting yesterday, the police department supplied the fireworks.

City Attorney William Ewart was present and gave an opinion on the legality of four promotions made before the Civil Service Act was adopted.

Ewart ruled that the promotion of Det. Lt. John A. DePauw was definitely made within six months before the act was adopted, and hence was not valid.

However, he upheld the promotions of Capt. Joseph Koren and Lts. Harry E. Nye and Charles W. Gale.

★ ★ ★

He was challenged on the latter decision by Chairman Theodore Carlson, who insisted that the dates given for the three promotions were not correct because their pay increases were not started until later dates.

Carlson claimed a check of the records would show from the cancelled pay checks that the supposed promotion dates were not correct.

A public hearing was set for next Wednesday at which Ewart said he would produce the pertinent records.

The city attorney also challenged a set of tentative rules for the police and fire departments drafted by Chairman Carlson. "These rules in effect rewrite the state Civil Service Act to give much wider powers to the Civil Service Commission than is lawful," Ewart said.

The commission has no statutory powers to assume job reclassifications and other jurisdiction over the police department, as these rules provide, he added.

According to Carlson, Ewart's ruling means a delay in adopting rules until September at the earliest.

In other action the commission approved the promotion of fireman Albert H. Rayner to be a training officer and approved four new firemen, pending physical examinations. They are Clyde Soucie, Larry Finkle, George Hilborn and Gerald Fritz.

The commission also asked the city manager to name two fire department lieutenants as drivers for the emergency truck at station No. 1. The action followed discussion of an allegation that the truck was not always manned by fully qualified persons.

Candidate Files Suit on Phone Number

DETROIT (AP) — Arthur J. Mader claims Michigan Bell Telephone Co's. failure to list his name in the telephone book is worth $100,000.

Mader, a candidate for Detroit's Common Council, filed a suit in circuit court yesterday which contended that he has lived at the same address and has had the same telephone number listed in previous phone books for 25 years.

Mader contends the failure to list his name this year is costing him friends and votes because his friends think he has an unlisted number and is trying to avoid them.

Surface of the lake in Chubb crater in Northern Quebec is 500 feet below rim level. The lake is 825 feet deep and the diameter of the crater is about 11,500 feet.

Gave a Tip to Escape, but Forgot One Detail

WASHINGTON (AP)—When police blocked the exits against two men holding up his delicatessen store, owner Joseph Wilder offered to help them escape.

★ ★ ★

"Go upstairs and jump out the window," he told the two after working loose the gag they had put on him.

He didn't tell them the upstairs windows were heavily barred. The police, called by a customer, caught them there after breaking a locked door.

Old Hollywood Mourns Death of Oliver Hardy

Editor's Note—The writer of the following story is the Associated Press chief of bureau at Los Angeles. He went to Hollywood 27 years ago to report movie news for The AP.

By HUBBARD KEAVY

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The face of Hollywood changed some with the death of Oliver (Babe) Hardy and we old-timers who covered Movieland in the heyday of Laurel and Hardy are saddened.

Both the 300-pound Hardy, who died yesterday, and his shy, slim, hand-wringing partner, Stan Laurel, have been ill for a long time and absent from the movie lots. But we who found them interesting off-screen as well as funny on it held hopes, probably false, that they would come back.

They both talked frequently of a television series, after their quarter-century-old films reached a new generation on TV. They said they saw a new life, new glory, new fortunes. At least they talked of these things, but in their hearts they must have known they never could reach the peak again.

Both were sensitive, intelligent men, despite the buffanery that catapulted them to stardom. In money matters, they were as unwise as most actors of the old days. They worked together for a dozen low-tax years, spending money as if it grew on trees, before they formed a corporation with a vice president to countersign checks.

Laurel told me in 1940 that "we haven't been so smart financially. We used to invest and then think about it." He and Babe dropped a wad in gold mines and oil wells.

Alimony was an expensive luxury too. Hardy was married three times, Laurel seven times — to four different wives. In 1938, Stan said he was insolvent—"too much alimony." It is not a matter of record, but knowing Laurel and Hardy I can well believe that Hardy supported Laurel during this period.

★ ★ ★

They were teamed accidentally. Stan, who came here from England with a troupe starring Charlie Chaplin, became a script writer for Hal Roach. Babe, long-time stage actor of no outstanding fame, drifted to Hollywood. He was playing a comedy heavy in a Roach two-reeler. An actor hired as a butler became ill and Laurel took his place. Roach, who could pick talent, saw the skinny guy as perfect foil for the fat one. And Laurel and Hardy became a team.

★ ★ ★

Laurel and Hardy were distinguished because, unlike other comedy teams, they never had a feud. They were separated once by contractual troubles, not of their own doing, and the pictures they made apart were dismal flops. In 1949 Babe played a few character roles because Stan was too ill to work "and I need the money." But his salary went to the L&H Corp., and ailing Stan shared in his partner's pay.

★ ★ ★

Stan said yesterday when he heard about Babe: "That's the end of the history of Laurel and Hardy."

But some of us never will forget their finger-in-the-eye and brick-on-the-foot humor.

Man Given Sentence, Probation in Stabbing

DETROIT (AP)—Claude Deese, 42, was sentenced to 60 days in jail and placed on two yeras probation yesterday for his part in a fight which a Sanilac County farmer was stabbed to death.

Deese was sentenced after being found guilty on a charge of felonious assault.

Walter W. Kreiner, 59, of Melvin, was fatally stabbed in a fight March 23 at a Detroit market and two police officers were slashed.

Rayford Butler, 44, Detroit, Deese's companion in the brawl, earlier was sented to 10-15 years in prison for manslaughter.

Irish Welcome Warm for Tourists From U. S.

BY HUGH A. MULLIGAN

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — When the big waves of American tourists sweep into Ireland this year, they are sure to be accorded a warmer reception than the mainstream of Irish tourists received at our shores 100 years ago.

No one will try to sell them O'Connell Bridge, Nelson's Pillar or a half interest in a Wicklow shillelagh factory. No one will return the old Tammany greeting of a century ago by asking them to join Fianna Fail or the I. R. A. or present a letter from Lord Mayor Briscoe to get a lodging for the night.

STAY FOR YEARS

And, unless they go round recklessly humming "My Country Tis of Thee," which has the same tune as the British national anthem,

"God Save Our Noble Queen," they can stay for days, months, even years without having their skulls creased by an aforementioned shilleleagh, which weapon, sad to say, has become exceedingly rare.

So rare, in fact, it is now made only for the tourist trade not for hand to head combat.

The plain fact of the matter is that Americans are popular in Ireland, perhaps more genuinely popular than anywhere else in Europe or the rest of the world. They speak almost the same language, dress in a reasonably similar fashion — sports shirts, sun glasses and cameras excepted — and have a common interest in such tweedy pastimes as hunting, fishing and horseracing.

GRAND CAUSE

Because of our two successful donnybrooks with England in the early days of the Republic, the Irish tend to look upon us as brothers under the skin, corevolutionaries in the same grand and glorious cause.

Geographical ties, in many cases, are even closer. The Irish can be pardoned if they sometimes look upon the United States as a thriving suburb of Dublin. Two centuries of emigration have resulted in our having more people of Irish descent than Ireland itself. You'll travel a good many miles before encountering someone who does not have a brother or a nephew or a cousin in New York, Boston, Philadelphia or any of dozens of other cities from Maine to California where the Irish settled in large numbers.

Call for Stricter Boating Laws

Enthusiasts Think That Enforcement Answers Water Safety Problem

CHICAGO (INS) — The nation's boating enthusiasts feel that stricter enforcement of present boating laws—not more legislation—would be best for their sport.

The Outboard Boating Club of America recently completed a survery of 24,048 persons who pursue boating for busuiness or pleasure. The survey brought responses from every state and the District of Columbia.

★ ★ ★

The survey revealed that 65.5 per cent fouund enforcement of present laws inadequate or nonexistant. A larger percentage—75.9 said that adequate enforcement of laws already on the books would eliminate the need for new regulations.

The questions and opinions covered such issues as federal registration of small boats, inspection of boats and safety equipment and regulations governing the speed of craft of various classes.

On one issue, 98 per cent agreed —that "common sense afloat" education should be expanded to spread the doctrine of boating safety.

A tremendous majority reported that boating facilities in their areas were not sufficient—launching ramps and storage space heading the shortages.

Officials of the Outboard Boating Club said the survey would serve two functions—first, to bring the opinions of average boaters to lawmakers considering new legislation, and second, to guide the club in its own program for boaters.

It is normally accepted that professional football gets the cream of the crop out of college grid ranks.

Great names are spotted all over the rosters of NFL teams. Many of the long remembered names include such players as Dutch Clark, Red Grange, Arnie Weinmeister, Sammy Baugh, Sid Luckman, Otto Graham and Don Hutson.

★ ★ ★

Many players of today will fall in line with these, but as the 1957 football season moves closer there's one argument which has already been started.

The question is, "Who is the best defensive linebacker in the NFL today?" They argued this last year and the year before.

The '57 pro football magazine lists all the great oldtimers at every position. For those listed as "players in waiting" who are expected to be added to the list after retirement, the linebacker position lists three names—Joe Schmidt of the Lions, Chuck Bednarik of the Eagles, and Les Richter of the Rams.

LIONS SAY SCHMIDT IS BEST

The Detroit Lions, pointing to their outstanding defensive reputation, claim the player responsible is Schmidt, a 220 pound veteran of five years from Pitt.

★ ★ ★

"He's tops in the league, "says Lions' publicist Bud Erickson in his team brochure.

Los Angles publicist Bert Rose claims that Richter has such a strangle hold on the position, "no one in the NFL can dislodge him."

Eddie Hogan of the Eagles points to Bednarik's seven straight all-pro years and concludes, "Chuck is the greatest linebacker in football."

★ ★ ★

Bednarik is 6-foot-3 at 235 pounds and starred at the University of Pennsylvania. He has a career total of 13 interceptions for 154 yards and a touchdown and "is a vicious tackler, fiery competitor and really jams the opposition," according to Hogan.

Richter, at 243 pounds "is a savage tackler, and with his speed he defends exceptionally well against passes," is the statement of Rose.

Schmidt led the NFL in fumble recoveries in 1955, made twice as many tackles as any member of the Lions last year.

★ ★ ★

"He is a great morale booster and team leader, and hits with bruising impact," says Erickson.

There's the argument. Which is the greatest of the three?

Martin Gets Ace at 'Frolic'

It's Happy Day for Luke

The Pontiac Retail Merchants Association held its 21st annual "Frolic" yesterday at Pontiac Country Club. Naturally, golf played a big part in the occasion.

From the comments flying around the clubhouse afterwards, one gathered that many would-be par-busters were unhappy about their efforts. Moans and groans were heard everywhere as scores soared all over again in post-mortems.

But at least one city golfer was deliriously happy over the "hole" affair. The satisfied gentleman was Luke Martin, a merchandiser at Waite's Department Store.

Martin made a hole-in-one, the 1st of his career, on the 135-yard 2nd hole. Martin's 6-iron shot landed on the green, took a couple of bounces and plopped into the cup.

Witnessing Luke's ace were Bob Weddle, Russ Woodbury and Chuck Henderson.

Hoeft OK, and Indians Bow

DETROIT (AP) — It's just like everyone has been saying all season long: when Bill Hoeft is "right," he's one of the finest pitchers in the American League.

Hoeft was just right yesterday, striking out 10 Cleveland Indian batters in a 4-1 Detroit Tiger triumph.

The big lefty has showed recent signs of shaking his most disastrous pitching slump. He has been effective his last three times out and yesterday's effort —his fourth consecutive solid showing — prompted manager Jack Tighe to say:

"He looks like the pitcher who won 20 games last year."

Hoeft's fast ball was particularly good—or as they say in the trade—he was "humming that seed." He never walked a batter and was in just two jams. In the ninth inning, after the manager made one trip to the mound and decided to stick with his starter, Hoeft ended the game by striking out pinch batter Russ Nixon with the bases jammed.

Tigers got to the Cleveland pitching early—and it's a good thing they did. Cal McLish and Bud Daley held the Tigers to one hit over the last six innings.

The Tigers scored three times in the first inning, rocking starter John Gray for three safeties and taking advantage of a leadoff walk to Bill Tuttle. Jim Small and Ray Boone put together doubles and Al Kaline drove in a pair of runs with a single over second base.

McLish yielded a run in the second inning. Tigers got three hits—a double by Hoeft and singles by Tuttle and Small before McLish could retire a batter. But they counted only one run as McLish got Boone on a pop up and forced Kaline to ground into a double play.

While the hitting ceased, Hoeft's pitching was good enough. At one stretch he retired 16 straight batters and had a one-hitter for six innings. Indians got their only run in the seventh on singles by Gene Woodling and Vic Wertz and a sacrifice fly.

Wertz singled three times in four trips to account for half the Cleveland safeties.

Duke Maas (8-7) was to oppose the Indians' Ray Narleski (8-1) in the windup of the three-game series and the Tigers' brief home stand today. Tigers open a weekend series in Chicago Friday and will return home Friday, Aug. 16.

Braves Boost NL Lead

Conley Whips Redlegs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gene Conley, who last spring figured "to have myself the best season of my major league career," then went winless for two months, has found the touch again to keep the pennant-pressing Milwaukee Braves perking in the National League pennant race.

★ ★ ★

The big righthander helped the Braves pad their lead to 1½ games last night, winning for the seventh time in his last eight decisions with a seven-hitter that beat fourth-place Cincinnati 12-2. The Braves have won 10 of their last 12 in a battle with St. Louis for the top spot, and Conley, now 7-5, has claimed four of the victories—the top contribution from Milwaukee's pitching staff.

Milwaukee edged farther ahead as the seventh-place Chicago Cubs winning five straight for the first time since 1955, socked second-place St. Louis for the second time in a row, this time 5-1.

★ ★ ★

Third-place Brooklyn fell four games behind, losing 8-5 as the New York Giants scored five in the ninth and handed Don Newcombe his fourth consecutive defeat. Newk, who led the majors with a 27-7 record last season, made a spitting gesture toward the booing fans at Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium as he walked off, still burning from Hank Sauer's pinch hit three-run homer that triggered the uprising.

Fifth-place Philadelphia, now seven games behind, and Pittsburgh were not scheduled.

In the American League Wednesday, Washington scored three in the ninth and beat New York 3-2, whittling the Yankees' lead to six games over Chicago's second-place White Sox, who whipped Kansas City 7-0 on Jim Wilson's two-hitter. Boston defeated Baltimore 5-2 in 11 innings as Ted Williams hiked his batting average to .389 again.

The Nats, who didn't have a hit for six innings and only two singles after eight, got to Tom Sturdivant when Roy Sievers hit a pinch single to open the ninth and Eddie Yost followed with a home run. Two singles, a sacrifice and Art Schult's sacrifice fly scored the clincher. Hank Bauer homered in the first for the Yanks and Mickey Mantle hit his 30th home run in the ninth. The Mick, Williams and Sievers, out of the starting line-up because of a swollen instep, are tied for the AL home run lead. Bud Byerly won it in relief.

Kroll and 77 Others in Golfing Marathon

CHICAGO (INS) — Defending champion Ted Kroll and 77 other stars of golf's pro circuit tee off today in the $100,000 "world championship" tourney at Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Challenging Kroll for the $50,000 first prize and another $50,000 to be earned by the winner during a world exhibition tour were sharpshooters like Doug Ford, Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City, Sam Snead, Jimmy Demaret, Lloyd Mangrum, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Ed Furgol and Gene Littler.

★ ★ ★

The reward for the runnerup in the 72-hole marathon which ends Sunday is $10,000. The third best scorer gets $5,000.

Pre - tourney speculation put Ford, this year's money leader in the Professional Golfers' Association standings with $38,475, and de Vicenzo, winner of the All-American Monday with a 273 total, in the category of "the men to beat."

Foreign entries include the steady playing Peter Thomson of Melbourne, Australia. Thomson is hoping to enter the charmed circle this time. He led the field in 1954 and 1956 going into the final round but failed to win when his irons turned cold.

Mrs. Marlene Bauer Hagge of Sarasota, Fla., led a field of 32 in the women's pro division where the winning award is $6,000.

Other competitors include Louise Suggs, Patty Berg, Betty Jameson, Betsy Rawls, Jackie Pung, and Fay Crocker.

MERRY MAN — Maurice Podoloff, National Basketball League prexy, was a merry man, yesterday awaiting his turn before the House antitrust committee hearing on pro sports. He appeared with players Bob Pettit and Ed Macauley of the St. Louis Hawks.

Dave Gaddis Stars in One-Hit Shutout

Milford Junior American Legion nine turned on a shining light, last night, in blanking Birmingham 6-0, in an 18th District 2nd-round league contest. The "light" was pitcher Dave Gaddis who not only let his foes down with a single hit, but whiffed 13; walked only one. Rondeau for Birmingham also was good as long as he stayed in the game (5⅓ innings), striking out 13 for his season's best job.

★ ★ ★

Gaddis also led in batting with a pair of doubles, both in the 5th, accounting for two runs.

★ ★ ★

Birmingham's Bob Woods was hit by a pitched ball on the left side, suffered some ruptured cartileges. He was taken to Pontiac General Hospital, released later.

★ ★ ★

Rochester is at Berkley tonight. A change makes Milford site for Sunday's first district twin-bill, against Clawson.

Chicago Booms at All-Star Time

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

CHICAGO — The "Windy City" of Chicago becomes a convention city this weekend for players, coaches, writers, broadcasters, fans, sporting goods salesmen and everyone else who has made the football All-Star game as the date for their annual gathering.

It seems everyone has some kind of meeting he is attending, and it almost appears that the game itself is becoming just an incidental affair for an All-Star weekend.

★ ★ ★

For the two teams, the College All-Stars and the New York Giants however, there is the honor and prestige of playing in the 24th annual classic before an expected crowd of 80,000.

The collegians, coached by veteran pro coach Curley Lambeau, boast one of the best quartet of quarterbacks ever assembled on the All-Star squad.

Who will start calling the signals is still in doubt, however, it appears that either Paul Hornung of Notre Dame or John Brodie of Stanford have the best chance.

★ ★ ★

Hornung is the local favorite but Brodie is considered the best passer in the group. Len Dawson of Purdue and Jim Harris of Oklahoma are also highly touted quarterbacks.

In the backfield the All-Stars may be able to match the Giants and Lambeau also feels the end play should be pretty even, but the pros definitely have the advantage in the midle line.

Outstanding runners such as Clarence Peaks of Michigan State, Jimmy Brown of Syracuse, Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma, Jon Arnett of Southern California, Abe Woodson of Illinois and Del Shofner of Baylor are considered a highly potent crew to match Giant players such as Chuck Conerly, Frank Gifford, Alex Webster, and Mel Triplett.

★ ★ ★

One of the best collegiate end combinations of 1956, Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz, both from the University of Michigan, plus Lamar Lundy of Purdue, Steve Junker of Xavier and Brad Bomba of Indiana are leading terminal selections.

All of the pro teams of the NFL except the Lions will keep an eye on their number one draft choices. Detroit picked Bill Glass as first choice, but the big tackle is now playing Canadian football.

The Lions still have John Gordy, tackle from Tennessee in the lineup, along with Junker and defensive back Terry Barr.

These are the top choices of the other 11 clubs:

Kramer (Green Bay), Peaks (Philadelphia Eagles); Arnett (Los Angeles Rams); Brown (Cleveland Browns); fullback Don Boessler of Miami (Washington Redskins); Dawson (Pittsburgh Steelers); Leggett (Chicago Bears); Parker (Baltimore Colts); Shofner (New York Giants, traded to Rams); and center Jerry Tubbs of Oklahoma (Chicago Cardinals).

The game will be televised at 8:30 p.m. on Channel 2 in Detroit.

All-Star Game Roster

CHICAGO (AP) — For television purposes, here are the numerical rosters of the College All-Stars and the New York Giants for the All-Star game at Solldier Field Friday night. The game will be telecast via ABC at 8:30 p.m., EST.

3,500 Entries for Grand American Test

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — America's straight-shooters are about to launch the nation's noisiest sports events.

The loud competitions are the National Rifle and Pistol matches at Camp Perry, first held in 1903, and the 58th Grand American Trapshoot at Vandalia.

Some 3,500 competitors are slated to face the mile-long firing line at Camp Perry for the Aug. 9-Sept. 10 rifle-pistol matches, in which all the armed services, national guard units, civilians, women and children will be represented.

Louie's Class B Champion, Policemen Take 'C' Crown

Louie's Tavern is the new city Class B softball champion and the Pontiac Police holds the same distinction in Class C.

Louie's annexed the 'B' title Wednesday night with a 6-5 victory over CIO Local 653 in a hectic battle at North Side Park. The Policemen coasted to a 10-0 triumph over Franklin Products at Beaudette Park for 'C' honors.

District tournaments now come next for the winners. Louie's wades into the 'B' district tourney Aug. 15-18 at Mt. Clemens while the Police enters 'C' district action at Waterford on the same dates.

Only the city Class A crown remains to be decided and that one goes on the block tonight when Bicmar Inn clashes with Stadium Inn on the Beaudette diamond.

Louie's was breezing along with a 4-0 lead last night. Then the CIO staged a giant 7th-inning rally, scoring five runs as nine men batted.

Undaunted, Louie's bounced back with two runs in the bottom of the 7th to send everybody home. Back-to-back doubles by Mike Haines and Tom Stilwell tied the score and Jack Turner ended the wild tussle with a single.

The Policemen had no difficulty with Franklin, their top contender during the regular season. Elmo Burgess pitched a four-hit shutout while his teammates were collecting 11 safeties, three by Bill Newman.

Tonight's Stadium-Bicmar game gets under way at 7 o'clock. If a 2nd game is required, it will be played immediately following the 1st one.

State Studies Deer Season

HIGGINS LAKE (AP) — Pattern proposed for this fall's "any deer" season was up for discussion today before the state conservation commission.

The commission will receive recommendations from its game division and hearing any objectors at today's informal meeting. A vote on the proposals will be taken Friday.

Clifford Ketcham, commission secretary, said the conservation authority had not yet received any requests to be heard from groups opposing the killing of does and fawns.

Boxer Leads Life of Jekyll and Hyde

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Mickey Crawford would be a good subject for the TV program "What's My Line."

There's something similar to Jekyll and Hyde in his life.

When the good looking welterweight boxer picks up his artist's brush, puts on his beret and heads for the drawing board at his regular job every day in a Detroit art studio, very few people could hardly imagine him in the fight ring.

Many people think that all the attention Crawford has been given as an artist is just a publicity gimmick. When the doubter comes along Crawford merely invites the person to watch him paint.

★ ★ ★

"He won't be fighting forever, but Mickey has a great future as an artist," said Greenwald. For that reason Crawford has to put his time in like every other employe. "It's for his own benefit," Greenwald added.

Between the studio and the ring Crawford hasn't found time for anything else. He follows a daily routine which starts with the 5:30 a.m. alarm.

With his trainer (following in a car), Crawford then goes to Belle Isle and runs for five miles. After this he gets back to his quarters, has breakfast and goes back to bed until 2:00 p.m.

★ ★ ★

The next two hours is spent sparring and working out and after a 5:00 p.m. dinner, he goes to work.

tihg time is 10:00 p.m. Starting time is 6:00 p.m. and quitting time is 10:00 p.m.

This is a six-day schedule, except on fight weeks it goes through seven days, Sunday he usually heads for Saginaw to be with his family, and unfortunately no one special, yet.

"When I went to Saginaw High, my grades were average, but my mark in art was always the best, so it encouraged me to continue in commercial art," says Crawford.

He gained his boxing know-how from his dad Patsy, a flyweight in the 1920's.

As an amateur Crawford had a bushel of titles, including Golden Gloves, AAU and Army championships. Since turning pro he has won 17 bouts, including victories over former champions Paddy DeMarco and Bud Smith.

Actually during his pro career, Crawford really never took a beating and many wondered if he could take physical punishment when the puncher came along.

★ ★ ★

His last fight in Saginaw settled that point. Pat Lowry opened a gash on his nose in the second round and kept it bleeding throughout the fight, but Crawford gamely came back and took the decision.

When he meets Sammy Rodgers next Tuesday August 13th at Wisner Stadium, he will face a fighter with a similar style.

Crawford is a jabber. He moves quickly. He almost made the mistake of trying for the kayo against Lowry. Rodgers, who hails from Benton Harbor, lost a disputed 10-round decision to Lowry in Grand Rapids earlier this year.

★ ★ ★

The card begins at 7:00 p.m. with the feature set for 8:30 next Tuesday.

Life of Mickey Crawford

CRAWFORD THE ARTIST — This is Mickey Crawford in his studio and his own work of art, with beret and brush. The gentleman next to him is another fighter and also a skilled painter, Mickey Walker. Crawford is employed by his manager, Art Greenwald, in his Detroit studio.

$50,000 Offer for Title Bout

GRAND RAPIDS, (AP) — President Floyd Stevens of the National Boxing Association today said lightweight champion Joe Brown has been guaranteed $50,000 if he will give No. 1 contender Kenny Lane a title fight here this fall.

Stevens said he received a check covering the guarantee from Jack (Doc) Kearns, Lane's co-manager. The NBA president said he would try to contact Brown's manager, Lou Viesi, today to see if the offer wil be accepted.

Lane is from Muskegon, Brown fights out of New Orleans.

★ ★ ★

If the bout materializes, plans call for the fight to be held in an open air arena. No definite date has been mentioned.

Hockey Takes Over at Sports Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Antitrust Subcommittee hoped to wind up its hearings today on the business status of professional sports with testimony from spokesmen for hockey.

Listed as chief witness was Clarence S. Campbell, president of the National Hockey League.

So far, the subcommittee has heard from officials and players in baseball, football, and basketball.

The Supreme Court has held that the federal antitrust statutes do not apply to baseball, but that they do cover pro football. The subcommittee is considering legislation to spell out the status of all pro sports in relation to the antitrust laws.

Yesterday, Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., defended various practices including the player draft system, the reserve clause in player contracts, and the exercise of territorial rights by member teams.

But Podoloff—describing himself as the NBA's "chief cook and bottle washer"—aroused some subcommittee members when he made disparaging remarks about some lawyers taking a hand in basketball negotiations with players. All the subcommittee members are lawyers.

Podoloff, himself a lawyer, said he favored a players' association if it didn't have what he called a "foreign element."

Gidley, Drug Take 1st Round Battles

Gidley Electric and Drayton Drug were 1st round winners last night in the Waterford League softball playoffs at Drayton Plains.

Terry Walsh tripled and scored the winning run on a wild pitch in the 7th inning as Gidley edged Welden-Thrifty, 3-2. Al Cuthrell posted a two hitter to outpitch Wayne Janks.

Drayton shaded White Brothers by the same 3-2 score when Stu Hutchinson stole home for the deciding run in the 6th. Walt Kunkle and Gary Boe combined to hurl a two-hitter with Boe getting the win.

League champion Emmanuel Baptist meets Gidley at 7 o'clock and Drayton faces Lakeland Pharmacy at 8:30 in tonight's playoff games.

CONGRATULATIONS—Frank Bolling, Tigers second baseman, rushes in at left to congratulate Billy Hoeft, Detroit pitcher, as the Tigers defeated Cleveland 4-1 yesterday. Hoeft struck out 10 men, gave up six hits in registering his fourth win of the season against six losses. In center is Harvey Kuenn, shortstop, who went hitless at bat.

Tighe Reported OK

DETROIT (AP) — Scattered rumors that Jack Tighe is about to be fired as manager of the Detroit Tigers are "the products of somebody's wild imagination," general manager John J. McHale said today.

"We've heard the rumors, too," said McHale, "but there's absolutely nothing to them. Every time a club is going badly these reports crop up."

Reports that the Tiger front office is dissatisfied with the rookie skipper have been circulating on and off for about a month. Not long ago there was a published report that Tighe soon would be replaced by Joe Gordon, former Cleveland and New York second baseman and a Tiger coach for part of the 1956 season.

Tighe, whose Tigers have failed to live up to pre-season expectations, said he, too, had heard the reports and added: "It doesn't surprise me. When you're having a bad year things like this happen."

McHale said he feels Tighe "has done a good job. A manager can't go out there and hit and pitch — he can only do so much. As far as I know, everyone in the organization is satisfied with the kind of job Jack has given the club."

McHale said the recent firings of Lou Boudreau by the Kansas City Athletics and Bobby Bragan by the Pittsburgh Pirates "starts people dreaming up things."

Tighe, who succeeded Bucky Harris last year, has a one-year contract.

A source high up in the organization who asked not to be identified said he believes the board of directors will announce shortly that Tighe is being awarded a contract for the 1958 season.

Birdie Says 'Red' Makes Difference for Braves

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Birdie Tebbetts, whose lackluster Cincinnati Redlegs lost their 10th game in 12 starts against Milwaukee last night, says Red Schoendienst is "the difference" on the National League-leading Braves.

★ ★ ★

"This is the best balanced ball club Milwaukee has had since I've been in the league," the Redlegs' skipper said after the Braves' 12-2 walkaway, "and Schoendienst is the difference."

★ ★ ★

Tebbetts is not alone in his estimation of the veteran second baseman's value to the Braves. Schoendienst's teammates and opposing players, like the Dodgers' PeeWee Reese, also pulled out the stops when talking about Red.

The Braves acquired the 34-year-old infielder from the Giants on June 15, the major league's trading deadline. To get him they gave up Bobby Thomson, Danny O'Connell and Ray Crowe.

★ ★ ★

So far, the deal shapes up as probably the best engineered by John Quinn, the Braves' general manager.

★ ★ ★

In 46 games in a Milwaukee uniform, the freckle faced native of Germantown, Ill., has batted .317—five points higher than his over-all average for the entire season.

Talbert Scouts for Cup Talent

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Casting a critical but hopeful eye on this year's U.S. junior chamber of commerce junior and boys tennis championships is Billy Talbert, captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team.

"Tournaments like this may be the answer to bringing the Davis Cup back from Australia," says the 38-year-old New Yorker.

Nearly 150 youngsters were entered in the nationwide tournament from which Talbert will select two and perhaps three players for the Davis Cup junior squad. They will join other team members in Orange, N. J., later this week.

Webb Evens Score With Chas. Joseph

CHICAGO (INS) — Ellsworth (Spider) Webb evened his score with Charley Joseph of New Orleans last night as he won a split decision in a nationally televised middleweight 10-round bout in Chicago.

Avenging an upset by Joseph last June 18 in New Orleans, the Chicagoan slugged it out with the aggressive southerner to take the winning margin on the cards of the referee and one of the judges. The other judge scored it a draw.

Webb weighed 157½ pounds, to Joseph's 158½.

Czech Discus Champion Vies in Women's AAU

CLEVELAND (AP)—Olga Fikotova Connolly, the Czech woman discus champion who married an American hammer-thrower, gets her first shot at the American outdoor AAU women's championship here this weekend.

She will compete Saturday against Earlene Brown of California, holder of the American discus record.

Lions Ease Off Drills

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions run through their 1st full-scale scrimmage of the training season today at their camp at the suburban Cranbrook school.

The session will send the best offensive team against the best defensive team under game conditions and is expected to be the last chance the rookies in the camp will get to prove they belong on the 35 man squad which will start the season.

The Lions will get their first real workout Wednesday when the Cleveland Browns come to Detroit for an exhibition game.

Report that the Detroit Lions plan to trade halfback Lew Carpender and a future draft choice to the Cleveland Browns for Linebacker Roger Zatkoff has been branded as untrue by Lions coach Buddy Parker.

★ ★ ★

"There's no deal now and there never may be," Parker said.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the Browns also denied that such a trade was in the offing.

Buy Cuban Catcher

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The newspaper Esto says the Brooklyn Dodgers have purchased Cuban catcher Rene Friol from the champion Mexico City Red Devils and he will report to the Dodger spring training camp in 1958. Friol has been batting .350.

Two Detroit Boats Join Cup Qualifiers

SEATTLE (AP)—The two fleet Gale boats of Detroit joined the qualified list for the 1957 Gold Cup race despite wind and rain which swept the Lake Washington course here yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Wild Bill Cantrell pushed the Gale V around three laps of the 3-mile course at an average sped of 105,305 miles an hour to become the first of Detroit's six hopefuls to qualify for Sunday's classic.

Late yesterday after waiting out adverse weather conditions, Lee Schoenith drove his revamped Gale VI to an average speed of 98.848 miles an hour.

Tuttle Was Called Lake's Greatest

Remember the Sports Stars of Yore?

(This is the 16th of a series of articles about former outstanding athletes from Pontiac and Oakland County and what they are doing today. We feature today Doug Tuttle, considered as Walled Lake's greatest athlete. Tomorrow we feature Harry Hacker of Lake Orion, and Saturday the sports star is Fred Ziem.)

It is very unusual and a rare occasion when a school or city goes on record as selecting the outstanding athlete in its history but they did just that out at Walled Lake two years ag.

The fellow honored was Douglas Tuttle of the 1929-33 era. He is still considered the Vikings' all-time great athlete although there have been a couple of pretty fair boys named Johnny Walker and Larry Hughes at WLHS during the last two years.

Tuttle, who excelled in four sports, was named in a poll of oldtime and modern day coaches, officials and fans as the top man on a list of the ten greatest athletes in history. Listed as No. 2 was a fellow named Rollie Tuttle, Doug's brother.

TUTTLE IN 1939

Doug went on to play pro baseball and was considered an outstanding major league prospect but his career came to an end after only one month due to a sliding injury.

The short minor league stint was at Charleston, W. Va., then in the Middle Atlantic League. Tuttle was hitting and fielding well when he was felled by the injury.

He was a roommate of present Tiger manager Jack Tighe and a good friend of former Detroit ace Boots Poffenberger as a Tiger farmhand.

Playing football, basketball, baseball and track under such coaches as Hal Hersh and Waldo Proctor, Tuttle was a big reason why the Vikings were able to dominate the Southwestern Oakland County League in each sport.

All-star honors were few and far between in those days but Doug did get honorable mention in football on the All-State contingent one season. He also set some scoring records in basketball which he says "were small by today's standards." His brother's broad jump record of 23 feet, 9 inches still stands at the school.

★ ★ ★

Tuttle cavorted at end on the gridiron and possessed one of the largest pair of hands among preps in this sector. No one can remember a time when he ever dropped a pass.

His sports activity now is confined to golf in a plant league. Living near a Commerce Township course also helps along that line.

Tuttle continues to be an ardent fan of all sports. Despite working near Detroit, he has never renewed acquaintances with Tighe but hopes to sometime.

Doug spent his 1st 19 years with Fisher at the local plant before being transferred to Livonia. He is now Supervisor of Cost Accounting there.

Light-Heavy Contender Sought

Elimination Bouts Planned

LONDON (AP) — British boxing promoter Jack Solomons said today he intended to arrange a series of elimination bouts in an effort to turn up a challenger to the world light-heavyweight championship.

★ ★ ★

"I am preparing myself for a world light-heavyweight title fight," announced Solomons, who has concentrated—without success—on heavyweights in the past few years.

★ ★ ★

Then he disclosed a two-bout program he will arrange, matching Yolande Pompey of Trinidad with England's Johnny Sullivan, and former world middleweight champ Randy Turpin of Britain against a Continental fighter still to be chosen.

His Continental, Solomons indicated, probably will come from among Artenio Calzavara of Italy, and Gerhard Hecht and Willie Hoepner, both of Germany.

★ ★ ★

Current world ratings place Pompey third in the light-heavy class, Calzavara fifth, Hecht sixth and Hoepner eighth. Turpin and Sullivan are not in the top 10, although Turpin currently holds the British light-heavy title.

Rademacher Drills in Public Workout

SEATTLE (AP)—Former farmboy Pete Rademacher, deadly serious about his Aug. 22 outing with Floyd Patterson, settled down to an austere training schedule today after his premiere public workout.

★ ★ ★

Some of Rademacher's friends from his Yakima Valley home area in Washington State were among the 190 persons who paid admissions to watch the former Olympic heavyweight champion box three practice rounds, punch the bag and run through calisthenics.

Did He Spit? Don Newcombe Can't Recall

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Dodgers' Don Newcombe was mad enough to spit today. But did he expectorate at the crowd in Jersey City last night?

★ ★ ★

Press box occupants at the Brooklyn-New York Giant game thought they caught a spitting gesture directed at the booing, hooting crowd as the star pitcher trudged off the field after another ninth-inning blowup. Ever since Big Newk blew up in the World Series last fall the writers have watched every move of the controversial righthander.

★ ★ ★

Asked about it later, a fuming Newcombe snapped: "Maybe I did, maybe I didn't. I was too damn mad to remember."

Monmouth Sapling Stakes Taken by Newcomer Plion

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Plion, a newcomer to the list of 1957 star 2-year olds, heads for Saratoga Springs, N.Y. today to take on some New York competition after winning the $59,300 Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park.

★ ★ ★

And while the brown son of Greek Ship pointed for the rich traditional Juvenile Stakes at the up-state New York track, the racing scene in New Jersey shifted to Atlantic City today with the $15,000-added King Neptune Handicap the opening day feature.

★ ★ ★

King Hairan, with Eddie Arcaro in the saddle, heads a field of 12 classy 3-year-old sprinters in the six furlongs of the King Neptune. The King, topweighted under 124 pounds, was the nation's leading stake winner last year and this year has chalked up two more.

Willie Hartack, the nation's leading jockey, and Dick Winant, 21-year-old Ozone Park, N.Y. apprentice, made the riding news Wednesday. Each had four winners. One of Hartack's winners was Rosewood ($10.20) in Washington Park's $22,250 Misty Isle Handicap for his 29th stakes victory of the year.

Gold Cup Boats Wait to Qualify

3 Detroit Craft Among Half Dozen Qualifiers for Annual Race

SEATTLE (AP)—On this Gold Cup week in speedboat-wacky Seattle, everybody tries to get into the act.

★ ★ ★

A dozen or more boats are lined up on the broad pier at the pits, waiting for a chance to qualify if they haven't already turned in their three laps at 95 miles per hour or better. Others are in the water, or perhaps at home in the owner's back yard, commuting to the pits by trailer.

★ ★ ★

Many of the big hydros, especially the Seattle entries, are "back-yard built" — put together by an amateur designer-mechanic with neighborhood help. Although it costs about $45,000 to build a boat, from first idea to first race, lack of cash doesn't deter the determined.

★ ★ ★

Six of the 21 entries have officially qualified for the race thus far. They are Gale V, Gale VI, and Short Circuit, all of Detroit, and Miss Wahoo, Maverick and Shanty, all of Seattle.

The race is programmed as a 90-mile affair of three 30-mile heats.

Two Americans Left in Canadian Amateur

MONTREAL (AP) — Two Americans were among eight survivors taking dead aim at the Canadian Ladies Open Amateur golf championship today after the upset of Marlene Stewart Streit threw the title chase wide open.

Mrs. Streit, winner of her seventh straight Closed Amateur title last weekend, was bounced to the sidelines yesterday by Mary Gay of Calgary, 1-up in 19 holes.

Her loss left eight darkhorses in today's quarter-finals, including Marjorie Burns of Greensboro, N. C., and Mrs. C. F. Spalding of Greenwich, Conn.

It takes a GIANT to reach across a river

A giant bridge stands as a familiar landmark on the local scene, conveying its traffic to a specific destination. And just as familiar is the daily newspaper, a giant medium continually conveying news and advertising into almost every home in the nation.

More than 57,000,000 newspapers are bought daily, reaching almost every prospective customer in the land. And just as a mighty bridge connects two groups of people on opposite shores, so does the mighty medium, the daily newspaper, link two groups on opposite sides of business—the buyers and the sellers of products and services.

For wholesalers, distributors, retailers and regional manufacturers the newspaper is an indispensable courier of news about their products and services. Not only does it call on practically every family in the local market, it remains to be read at the readers' convenience.

If you want the fastest, most effective way to get your story across to your customers, you should be using the daily newspaper. It's the widest, strongest, surest bridge between you and the people you want to sell.

All business is local . . . and so are all newspapers.

New Atomic Battery Size of Cough Drop

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Science now has come up with an atomic-powered battery — no bigger than a cough drop — capable of providing electric current continuously for five years.

The battery, which can be used to power hearing aids, miniature radios and probably even wrist watches, is said to be the first such device completely safe for personal use without special precautions.

It was developed by Walter Kidde Nuclear Laboratories, Inc., and the Elgin National Watch Co.

United States Steel Board Chairman Defends Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Roger M. Blough, board chairman of United States Steel Corp., told senators today it was "sheer economic superstition" to contend the recent steel price rise will touch off a new round of inflation.

Blough, first witness in a new congressional inquiry into the steel industry and its pricing policies, said that "viewed in its true perspective, the price of steel is amazingly low."

* * *

"Steel is not only the cheapest, by far, of all the common metals," he said, "but with surprisingly few exceptions, it is also cheaper—pound for pound—than almost anything else you can buy.

"To put it in the politest possible terms, therefore, let me just say that the so-called 'high price of steel' is, in my opinion, another myth, pure and simple."

Blough appeared before the Senate Antitrust subcommittee.

The steel hearings at this time were prompted by the $6-a-ton price rise for the metal, which became effective July 1. This was announced first by U. S. Steel, the industry's biggest producer. Other steel producers followed suit.

* * *

Blough quoted several economic authorities in support of his arguments that the steel price boost need not be inflationary.

He said that Dr. Ewan Clague, U. S. commissioner of labor statistics, said last August that a rise in steel prices has only a "negligible" effect on the cost of living.

Blough said he wanted to dispel what he called a "delusion" that U. S. Steel dominates a monopolistic industry or that it reaps "fabulous profits, the public interest to the contrary notwithstanding."

U. S. Steel produced 66 per cent of the nation's steel when it was founded in 1902, he said, but now its share is down to 30 per cent.

* * *

As to profits, he said his corporation ranks third in the nation in assets and invested capital and fourth in sales. But he said it stands 123rd on the basis of profits as a percentage of sales, and 243rd in profits as a return on invested capital.

* * *

Blough said U. S. Steel had been blamed for surrendering to union demands for wage increases "because we can easily pass them along to our customers."

But he said the corporation has had five "costly strikes" in the past five years and that, each time, a nationwide demand arose from steel users and the government for quick settlement.

* * *

These wage settlements have meant increased prices, Blough said, but the company has had to absorb a part of higher payroll costs. For instance, he contended, the recent price increase amounted to an average of 4 per cent but a wage raise effective the same day amounted to "about a 6½ per cent increase in our total costs per man hour."

* * *

The industry said the price increase was made necessary by a contract signed a year ago with the union. This pact called for a wage hike July 1 this year.

* * *

U. S. Steel has said the price increase was less percentagewise than the boost in payroll costs. Some steel companies complained that the $6-a-ton figure was too low.

Rambler Sales Rise

DETROIT (AP)—American Motors Corp. has sold 74,561 Rambler cars in the first 10 months of its current fiscal year, George Romney, president, announced. This compares with 55,142 Ramblers sold in the comparable 10-month period a year ago. The company's fiscal year ends Sept. 30.

Foreign Car Sales Boom

U. S. Market Will Absorb More Small Cars in 1957

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP)—The American car market will absorb close to 200,000 smaller, lightweight passenger cars this year and if predictions in trade quarters are sound next year's volume will more than double that figure.

* * *

The potentialities of the smaller car market apparently have become evident to the larger American car makers. General Motors soon will have two of its European-built small cars in the American market; Ford already is in; Chrysler reportedly is seeking an arrangement with a foreign car maker to get into the market, too.

Meanwhile, American Motors will revive its shorter wheelbase Rambler, built in its American factories. At the same time it will continue importing its English-built Metropolitan model.

American Motors will incur some expense to return its 100-inch wheelbase Rambler to production, although the expense should be relatively small. For General Motors and Ford the cost of entering the small car market with their own foreign-made units will be comparatively nominal.

* * *

So the American car makers are not risking much to learn whether the demand for smaller—and lower priced—cars is based on something more than novelty appeal. The surge in demand for the smaller cars has been virtually all in the lower price field.

NO UPTURN ABOVE $3,500

There has been no major upturn in the deliveries of units like Chevrolet's Corvette or Ford's Thunderbird or any of the foreign-built cars with price tags that range upward of $3,500.

The lower price field of the smaller cars is mainly in the $1,600-$1,800 area. There has been a lot of guessing about the price tags General Motors will put on its imported Vauxhill Victor and Opel Rekord cars. The surmise generally has been that the price will be "under $2,000."

Trade comment has been that prices will have to be below that figure if volume demand is to be expected.

Automotive trade analysts say there is a large market for the smaller, high fuel-mileage cars among families with a need for a second vehicle.

American car company sales managers long have emphasized the growth of two-car families as assuring an expanding market for automobiles. But they have counted these largely as customers for more American built conventional type vehicles.

VOLKS WAGON BIG HIT

The phenomenal success of the German-built Volkswagen in the American market caused some of these sales experts to take a second look at the multiple car family possibilities.

Auto industry experts will tell you there is nothing static about the automobile market; that motorists' tastes switch quickly from one styling or design feature to another. Few of them, however, are venturesome enough to suggest demand for the smaller, cheaper car will grow to proportions threatening the over-all market of the present conventional size American-built vehicle.

George Romney, American Motors' president, is an ardent advocate of the smaller compact car. He predicts a growing market for it. And Romney probably has good reason for his viewpoint. Most of his company's car business is in the Rambler field.

At the same time Romney did introduce a Rambler model with a big V-8 engine and other features that put its price tag considerably above the figure usually associated with the small-lightweight, foreign-built units.

* * *

However, the revived 100-inch wheelbase Rambler with a six cylinder engine and optional equipment similar to that on the imported models should put it right in the middle of competition in that price bracket.

Night Business Boosts Wheat

CHICAGO (AP)— Overnight flour business caused a mild boost in wheat futures prices in early board of trade dealings today.

* * *

Soybeans also were as much as a cent higher at times in buying which reflected a slightly bullish government cotton crop forecast of 11,897,000 bales, compared with 13,310,000 bales harvested last year. This was slightly below expectations.

Rye climbed around a cent or more on reports of substantial rye flour business. Corn reacted somewhat from recent gains, and oats showed little change.

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat was ⅝ higher to ⅛ lower, Sept. $2.13⅞; corn was unchanged to ¾ lower, Sept. $1.30½; oats were unchanged to ⅛ lower, Sept. 64⅝; rye was unchanged to ⅛ higher, Sept. $1.33¾; soybeans were ½ to 1¼ higher, Sept. $2.47; and lard was 8 cents a hundred pounds lower to 2 cents higher, Sept. $12.92.

Decline Follows Higher Opening

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market drifted lower in early trading today after a higher opening.

Turnover was slow after an active start.

Most losses ran from fractions to a point. Gains generally were held to fractions.

* * *

Steels were irregular at the start, then lost ground following testimony by Roger Blough, chairman of U. S. Steel, that a rise in steel prices has only a "negligible effect" on living costs. Blough appeared before the Senate Judiciary subcommittee.

Motors and aircrafts were mostly off fractions after a higher start. Most oils held to the upside.

Brokers said investors were exercising caution amid reports that the Federal Reserve Board soon would raise its discount rate—the fee charged on loans to member banks.

* * *

The board has had an increase in three per cent rate under consideration for some time. The board holds its regular weekly meeting after the close of the market today.

A hike in the discount rate would represent a further tightening of credit and could give the market a "psychological setback," some brokers said.

High-priced International Business Machines was ahead about three points after opening up six.

Amerada dropped more than two points, while Gulf Oil, Royal Dutch and Texas Co. worked upward.

In the steels, Lukens and Youngstown Sheet & Tube were off around a point. Republic, Bethlehem and U. S. Steel declined fractions.

Other losses included Douglas, International Nickel, Anaconda, Illinois Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Rayonier, and General Electric.

Car Outout in July Shows Slight Drop

DETROIT (INS) — Automotive News said today July car output in the U. S. totaled 495,629 units, a .9 per cent drop from June.

However, the trade paper said the total was 10.4 per cent better than production in July 1956.

This week's output, Automotive News said, is expected to total an estimated 1,20,835 units.

An estimated 18,623 trucks will be completed during the week.

The paper said Canadian car and truck production is at a standstill this week because all makers are shut down for vacations.

Oakland Man Leads Recruits

Named Commander of One of Two State Groups at Great Lakes

An Oakland County man has been named company commander of one of the two special "Michigan companies" of naval recruits, now training at Great Lakes, Ill.

Frank E. Hunt, chief boilerman, than of Rochester; Marilyn Dun- of Clarkston, is commander of company 255. He will direct the activities of the Michigan men in his outfit during the nine-week recruit training period culminating in graduation, Sept. 21.

First week activities are reported to have kept his men on the go. After learning how to clean, stencil, and stow their clothes properly, the recruits started military drill, took their first swimming lessons, and learned how, when, and where to salute.

Also a part of first week instruction was learning how to survive in atomic, biological, and chemical warfare through the proper use of gas masks and other types of emergency equipment.

Much of their time was devoted to classroom lectures on subjects ranging from navy ship types to democracy vs. totalitarianism. The Michigan Company is scheduled to graduate during "Salute To Michigan" week, Sept. 16 through 22, a highlight of the Great Lakes Navy homecoming ceremonies.

Great Lakes Steel Mills Still Closed by Strike

DETROIT (AP) — For a fifth straight work day the mills of Great Lakes Steel Corp. and their 11,000 employes were idle today.

Local 1299 of the United Steelworkers called a membership meeting (10 a.m.). Otherwise, there was no announced attempt at breaking a deadlock.

A wildcat strike over disciplining of employes closed the plant last Friday.

Since, the company has said it will not reopen until assured there would be no more wildcat strikes and the union has charged management with a lockout.

Expose Likely for Confidential

Trial May Bring Out Scandal Publication's Own Secrets

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Confidential magazine's own secrets may be exposed when its trial on criminal libel charges is resumed tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Dep. Dist. Atty. William L. Ritzi planned to present testimony by Howard Rushmore, former editor of Confidential.

The trial is in recess today so that Superior Judge Herbert V. Walker can consider other court matters.

★ ★ ★

Before the trial resumes the judge will hear arguments on a motion to quash the subpoena of actor Tab Hunter. Hunter's attorney filed the motion yesterday.

Rushmore's appearance as a witness will await completion of testimony intended to link Hollywood Research Inc., and its operators, Fred and Marjorie Meade, to Confidential and its sister scandal magazine, Whisper.

Later the prosecution plans to read to the jury 10 articles in which Confidential purported to tell of lurid activities of Hollywood celebrities.

Confidential, Whisper, Publisher's Distributing Corp., Hollywood Research and the Meades are being tried on charges of conspiracy to publish lewd and obscene material and to commit criminal libel by publishing defamatory matter.

Ants Building Houses Out of Their Own Bodies

PANAMA CITY—On Barro Colorado Island, the tropical-life preserve of the Smithsonian Institution in the Canal Zone, there are ants that build complex, air conditioned hanging houses out of thousands of their own suspended bodies.

The queen is sheltered, eggs are laid, and young hatched and reared within these structures, which are built anew each night much of the time.

Education Brings Rise in Newspaper Reading

ANN ARBOR — As educational levels of the nation increase, the proportion of non-newspaper readers in the adult population probably will diminish, results of a University of Michigan study indicate.

★ ★ ★

In a special analysis on readership of major metropolitan Detroit and Pontiac newspapers, the U. of M.'s Detroit Area Study found that more than one-fourth of these adults with only six years or less of formal education did not read newspapers.

According to DAS Director Harry Sharp, the study found non-readership in the 60-and-over group was about 14 per cent, compared to less than 7 per cent for the 21-to-60 group. For all adults, the study found non-readership in the population. The proportion averaged 7 per cent of was identical for both sexes and for whites and Negroes.

Differences in readership by place of birth, income and occupation of family head were relatively small. Foreign-born adults, families with incomes less than $5,000, and operatives and service workers tended to show higher levels of non-readership than the balance of the population.

★ ★ ★

How do individuals regard newspaper reading? Those who like it gave DAS interviewers comments like these:

MORE FUN THAN TV

"Well, it's really a habit. If you can sit down and read the paper, you get more out of it than listening to TV or radio. You can't always hear everything if you're busy working."

★ ☆ ★

"I read it thoroughly every night. I like to see what's going on in the city and nation."

"If I don't have a paper, I don't have anything to do in my spare time. I just sit around and look."

"It's the only way to get ALL the news."

Those who didn't feel so favorably about papers or didn't read them said things like this:

"I don't have too much time to read it. We have other facilities for news."

"Why read it? It's all advertisements anyhow."

"They are neither thrilling, informing nor amusing on most days."

★ ★ ★

"I used to read them, but don't anymore. There's nothing but murder, war, and sex in the papers these days."

★ ★ ★

The DAS gets its data from interviews with a scientifically selected random sample of the adult population of Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties.

Politics Plentiful at Ionia's Fair

Williams Stars Along With Bee Royalty, Ram and Huge Pig

By ROGER LANE

IONIA (AP)—Gov. Williams crowned Michigan's Mrs. Queen Bee and Mr. Lazy Drone, inspected the Suffolk ram of a former lieutenant governor's grandson and stopped to stare at a panting pig.

★ ★ ★

And so it went yesterday on the traditional Governor's Day observance at the Ionia Free Fair—not to mention the traditional politicking, freely mixed in.

Looking in amazement at what was billed as "the world's largest swine," Williams asked:

"How much does that one weigh?"

★ ★ ★

Told 1,420 pounds, the governor exclaimed: "Holy crow."

The ram, being readied for show in the Sheep Pavilion, was tended by Larry Stebbins of Ionia, who told the governor that his grandfather occupied the second highest elective state office in 1934.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. George Seidleman, who live outside Ionia, were crowned on the track before 5,000 persons seated in the grandstand after award of the honorary titles by the Michigan Beekeepers Assn.

At the time, Williams was wearing a pearl gray Western topper presented to him by Allen Williams, fair president, who called it a deputy's hat.

REPUBLICAN STARS

Vying in the bright sun with Williams and his Democratic colleagues on the State Administrative Board for political attention were a number of Michigan Republican stars.

★ ★ ★

Heading the GOP delegation were Alvin M. Bentley, Republican congressman from Ossowo; John B. Martin Jr., the party's new national committeeman; Mrs. Rae Hooker, Republican national committeewoman; and House Speaker George Van Peursem.

★ ★ ★

Other Republican legislators were on hand, as were former GOP state and party officials.

In the brief speechmaking allowed, Williams struck a political spark by referring to the Highway Department as "demoralized" when Democrats inherited it last month.

A snort of "nuts" came from Sen. Bert Storey (R-Belding), seated four places away at the head table of a luncheon attended by 500 in the high school gym.

★ ★ ★

Williams and others nearby heard it, and Williams shot a glance Storey's way as he sat down. Several Republicans regarded the remark lightly.

★ ★ ★

The governor was asking for public patience and understanding for the Democratic highway commissioner, John C. Mackie.

"He's working to the best of his ability, but he can't build all the roads at once," Williams said. He observed that Mackie had reorganization and rebuilding to do within the department.

NBC to Present Three Las Vegas Programs Next Season

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Ethel Merman signed for CBS-TV's first (Sept. 19) big music spectacular, "Crescendo," joining Rex Harrison (at least they're starting with class) . . .

Harrison's roll in "Crescendo" will be as a Britisher being taken for a tour of American music . . .

Marine Corps files will form the background for "Combat Correspondent," creation of Ed Stodel, who was a USMC combat scrivener . . .

NBC will do three Saturday spectaculars from Las Vegas next season. The first, Nov. 16 . . .

If Ernie Kovacs is as good in the movie "Operation Madball" as we've been informed by absolutely neutral previewers, by-bye TV . . .

RODEO ON VIDEO

The big annual Pendleton, Ore., rodeo will be an afternoon NBC spectacular Sept. 14 . . .

Jane Powell, about to dunk into TV, will do five or six shows for the movie-star corporation making films for next season's Goodyear-Alcoa Playhouse (David Niven, Charles Boyer, Jack Lemmon, Robert Ryan, too) . . .

MGM has great plans for "The Thin Man" series, as witness assigning to Peter Lawford and Phyllis Kirk dressing rooms formerly lolled in by Spencer Tracy and Lana Turner . . .

Goodyear Playhouse bought "Dark Side of the Moon," by Arthur Sainer, for an NBC airing Aug. 19 . . .

Charlie Isaacs, writer of the first and best Jimmy Durante NBC shows, gets a real plum—producer of Gisele MacKenzie's Saturday night series . . .

DESILU EXPANDING

Desi and Lucy now are making so many separate TV series they've spilled over into their fourth movie lot (Paramount) where the Walter Winchell "File" will be shot . . .

As we printed months ago, Harry S. Truman and ABC-TV officially are headed for a TV pact . . .

A St. Louis firm has an automatic control which lowers the TV sound when you pick up the phone, raises it to normal again when you replace the receiver . . .

The controversial Mike Wallace ABC-TV show starring (in its audition) Drew Pearson, Fulton Lewis Jr., Roy M. Cohn and ex-Sen. William Benton was such a two-fisted shambles in its tryout—one big undisciplined argument—it will have to be tried out again . . .

NBC's soap opera "Hilltop House" will be dismantled . . .

Finishes Color Films of Prayers for TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Hollywood producer Lew Kerner has completed a series of color prayer films for television. The one-minute shorts were photographed in places of worship throughout the United States.

★ ★ ★

The filmed prayers are recited, sung, or chanted, sometimes by a single voice, sometimes by a full choir. Ministers, rabbis and priests assisted in preparing the series, which Kerner described as non-sectarian in character.

The producer reported some 200 TV stations have expressed interest in telecasting the prayer films. The series took three years to complete.

When Gamblers Aided Local Church Offering

DURANGO, Colo. (AP) — During the early 1880s, there was a church here that was maintained largely by cattle rustlers, bank robbers and roustabouts.

Everyone liked the minister and on the wall of the principal gambling casino there was a box which bore this legend: "Don't Forget Parson Hoge."

The casino's patrons contributed generously.

Here's the Way to End Curse of Superstitions

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—If you're just a teeny-weeny bit superstitious, I've got hot news for you.

★ ★ ★

The terrible curse that comes from putting a stocking on inside out, can now be obliterated by counting to 14. Or is it 16? (It might even be 18.)

WILSON

Anyway, it's a device thought up by our TV stars who are great minds and want everybody to know that they don't believe in superstitions the least little bit.

It seems that Lucille Ball, Desi Arnaz, Betty White and others decided that in these hustly-bustly days superstitions had to be made more efficient.

Take that old favorite—if you forget something, you have to go back and get it, sit down, and take your left shoe off. Well, now, you don't have to take your left shoe off. You count to 10—and under the new Hollywood speedup efficiency plan, you only have to count to 5.

"We are putting a committee to work on amending the one about dropping your gloves," Betty told me. "The way it works now, somebody else must pick them up for you or you leave them there."

Miss White, who gives each one of her automobiles a proper name ("Doesn't everybody?" she says), was amazed when I told her that Joe DiMaggio once started a hitting streak after dating a certain girl; so for 25 nights after that he dated the same girl and they did the same thing.

He was glad to break the hitting streak because he had gotten to dislike the girl.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Marion Marlowe was placed in an oxygen tent at Doctor's Hospital to ease her breathing . . . Victor Borge bought a moving van to lug his piano on tour . . . Marie McDonald denies she and Harry Karle — recently reconciled—will go on a second honeymoon. "That's pretty corny," she says, "for a couple married ten years" . . . Pretty Devra Korwin is the latest "Lola" in the long-running musical, "Damn Yankees."

DEVRA

Joni James says her new 11-gown cafe wardrobe will be very daring—all high necklines!

EARL'S PEARLS: A Hollywood actress has changed the old saying to: "It is better to have loved and lost than never to have had the publicity in the first place."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "It's certainly true that a good day's work never hurt anybody—but neither did a good day's rest." That's earl, brother.

Expect Over $1½ Million Cost for Guard Training

LANSING (AP)—More than a million and a half dollars will be spent to train Michigan National Guardsmen this summer, the State Adjutant General's Office estimated today.

Total bill for the field exercises for some 13,500 officers and men was estimated at $1,611,024.

The major item is pay and allowances, set at $1,256,246. The 10,000 guardsmen to train at Camp Grayling starting next week will receive $970,045 of the total.

Since the men won't be paid until their last day in camp, most of the payroll will be taken back home to be spent in the state's 57 communities with guard units, the Adjutant General's Office said.

Dropouts Earn Less

WASHINGTON — The Labor Department reports that a survey shows that teen-agers who drop out of high school will probably earn 30 per cent less in their lifetimes than their friends who graduate. The typical high school graduate will earn $50,000 more in his lifetime than the eighth-grade graduate and $30,000 more than the high school dropout.

Tallow Fed to Poultry

DES MOINES — Agricultural research scientists have found that adding tallow to poultry feed produces good results. Tests indicate that it takes up to 18 per cent less of feed containing tallow to increase the weight of a broiler by a given amount than of tallowless feed.

Office Crooks' Toll High

LOS ANGELES — A recent study of office crimes indicates that crooked employees account for an annual business loss of $500,000,000 in the United States.
