10,000 More GIs Going to Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten thousand more GIs will go to South Vietnam this month, boosting the U.S. force there to 405,000, Pentagon sources said today.

These officials predicted that by the end of the year the United States will be supporting a force of 475,000 in the Southeast Asian country.

At present there are 395,000 American servicemen in South Vietnam.

The over-all Southeast Asian commitment stands at nearly 500,000, including 50,000 to 60,000 Navy men aboard ships of the 7th Fleet off Vietnam plus around 30,000 men, mostly Air Force, based in neighboring Thailand.

★ ★ ★

The steadily expanding build-up was signaled yesterday by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who told a Pentagon news conference there has been no change in President Johnson's policy stated in 1965.

DISAGREEMENT REPORTED

That policy, he said, is that Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in South Vietnam, will be supplied the men and materials he needs.

Published reports have said that the Joint Chiefs of Staff disagree with what was described as an administration-set ceiling of 460,000 to 460,000 men in Vietnam.

Wheeler said Gen. Westmoreland does not differ with Washington officials over what force is needed in South Vietnam.

Wheeler, a four-star general, said he would "stick his neck out" by saying flatly the Communists have lost any chance they once may have had for a military victory in South Vietnam.

Does this mean the United States is bound to win, Wheeler was asked.

"I think so," he replied, declining to pick a date when the moment of victory will come.

S. Viets Reject Cong Proposal for Longer Lull

Stand Firm on 4-Day Truce Offer for Asian New Year Holidays

SAIGON (UPI)—The South Vietnamese government today rejected a Vietcong proposal for a seven-day cease-fire during the Asian New Year (Tet) celebration in February.

The government agreed, however, to abide by its original proposal for a four-day truce through the Tet holiday. It would begin at 6 p.m. EST Feb. 7 and end at 6 p.m. EST Feb. 11.

It was not until after the South Vietnamese truce proposal that the Vietcong offer of a seven-day cease-fire was made.

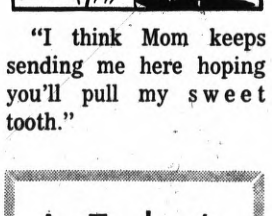

South Vietnam replied today that it decided to stick by its four-day proposal following "consultation with the Allied governments."

U.S. military officials were openly opposed to an extended cease-fire on grounds it would enable Communist forces to regroup and ship supplies freely into South Vietnam.

300 'INCIDENTS'

During the recent 48-hour cease-fire periods over Christmas and New Years, American military spokesmen reported a total of 300 truce violations—or "incidents" — by the Communists.

AWARD WINNERS — Calvin E. Patterson (left) was named Boss of the Year and Ted McCullough Jr. won the Outstanding Young Man of the Year Award as the Waterford Junior Chamber of Commerce staged its 13th annual Bosses' Night Banquet that attracted a record crowd of some 75 Jaycees, bosses and guests.

Waterford JCs Heap Honor on Colleague

Ted McCullough Jr., who was named Boss of the Year by the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1966, last night was designated Outstanding Young Man of the Year. He is the first Waterford Jaycee ever to win this double honor.

Calvin E. Patterson, an attorney who is active in civic affairs, was named Boss of the Year.

Plaques to the winners of the two traditional Jaycee awards were presented at the 13th annual Bosses' Night Banquet at Fortino's.

A new award was introduced last night by the Jaycees and it went to James Matteson who was designated Outstanding Young Educator. Matteson teaches English and social studies at Mason Junior High School.

McCullough, 34, of 3569 Brookdale has been a Jaycee for five years.

★ ★ ★

He was elected president of the Waterford Jaycees for a one-year term in 1964-65 and in 1965-66 served as District 10 Jaycee vice president.

ELECTED TO BOARD

A real estate man, McCullough was elected last November to the Waterford Township Board and outpolled all other candidates. He will take office as a trustee in April.

Patterson, who is the father of Waterford Jaycee President Michael Patterson, was judged the area's outstanding boss.

"He's the best friend the Waterford Jaycees have," said First Vice President Dick Womack who presented the two traditional awards.

Jaycee Bruce Sias presented the new award to Matteson.

Guest speaker was Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

Cook School Adds 2 Prizes

Two more grand prizes for The Pontiac Press Cooking School — a Westinghouse refrigerator and a television set — will be given to lucky winners next week. Both prizes are being donated by World Wide Furniture Co.

The school opens Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Pontiac Central High School. The east entrance doors will open at 6:30 p.m. These are the only doors to be used.

Parking will be available behind the First Nazarene Church and west of Crofoot School by showing cooking school tickets. There will be an attendant on duty.

Robert Lilleyman will play on a Baldwin home organ before each session of the school. Free Coca Cola will be served in the lobby.

Everyone attending the school will receive one copy of the cookbook prepared by Consumer Power home economists, Barbara Zimmerman and Harriet Cannon. This is to be brought back to any second session attended.

There are still some tickets available for Monday, Wednesday and Thursday night sessions.

6 Below Zero Possible

Temperatures will skid to winter lows of 6 below zero to 3 above tonight. Occasional snow flurries will accompany the arctic air.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and very cold.

Partly cloudy skies and a slight warming trend are predicted for Thursday.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature reading prior to 8 a.m. was 20.

By 2 p.m. the advancing cold wave sent the mercury tumbling down to 17.

3 Minutemen Are Sentenced

Appeals Planned in Firearms Act Case

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Robert B. DePugh, leader of the national Minutemen organization, and two of his lieutenants drew prison sentences today for violating the Federal Firearms Act.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Elmo Hunter sentenced DePugh to four years, to be followed by five years of probation.

Walter P. Peyson, 24, Norborne, Mo., was sentenced to two years in prison and three years' probation.

Troy Houghton, 33, San Diego, Calif., was sentenced to three years, with no probationary period.

Counsel for the defense announced an appeal would be made.

RELEASED ON BOND

The three defendants were released on bonds of $5,000 each.

Hunter said that the conditions of probation for DePugh, 43, or Norborne, national coordinator of the anti-Communist Minutemen, and Peyson would be a requirement that they not belong to any group encouraging acquisition or transfer of illegal firearms.

The three men were convicted last November.

Liberal Wins Seat on Key House Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Liberal Rep. Jacob Gilbert, D-N.Y., defeated conservative Rep. Omar Burleson of Texas today in a close fight for a Democratic seat on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

The Gilbert victory means that the committee, which will handle such crucial legislation as Social Security and the proposed income surtax, will remain evenly divided between liberals and conservatives with Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., holding the decisive vote.

Over 1,000 Firebirds Built to Date

DETROIT (AP) — A new name, Pontiac's sporty Firebird, appeared in production reports for the first time this week as the General Motors division reported over 1,000 had been built to date.

The appearance of the new challenger in the field now populated by Mustang, Camaro, Cougar and Barracuda was a bright spot in an otherwise not too glowing production picture.

Auto makers continued to juggle production schedules this week with a target of about 175,000 cars.

Last week's output of 165,654 cars was the smallest in about three years, insofar as normal work weeks were concerned.

The industry defined a "normal" week as one not affected by holidays, work stoppages, supplier problems, model changeovers or bad weather.

SLIMMEST OUTPUT

Using that criteria, the week's output was the slimmest since March 16-21, 1964 when 164,807 cars were turned out.

American Motors' assembly lines remained closed for the last half of a two-week shutdown this week.

Ford's Atlanta plant was idle for one day today, while Mahwah, N.J., St. Louis and Lorain, Ohio, also had abbreviated work time this week.

General Motors had its plants in normal operation today after making some line adjustments last week as it laid off 2,800 workers at six of its plants, leaving the work force at well over 85,000.

Romney Denial

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney denied today that he expressed specific opposition to escalation of the Vietnam war during a weekend breakfast meeting with newsmen in Washington, D.C.

He added one of the points he tried to make there was that "I don't think there is any simple panacea in Vietnam."

Pontiac General Hospital Gets $292,998 Federal Aid

A federal grant totaling $292,998 has been approved for a major addition to Pontiac General Hospital, it was announced today.

Also, project approval has been given to a proposed Pontiac School district program. The latter could mean a possible $136,700 in federal aid.

U.S. Sen. Philip Hart said the grant to the hospital under the Hill-Burton program was for expanded emergency room and physical rehabiliation facilities.

The added hospital facilities, expected to cost a total of $727,000, are to be located south of the present hospital complex at Huron and Johnson.

Hospital Administrator Harold B. Euler said 19,640 square feet were to be added with the new wing. Construction bids are to be received in May with construction time estimated at 10 months.

★ ★ ★

Plans for the Pontiac School District project have been developed by B. C. VanKoughnett, the district's school community action director.

CURRICULUM

It is aimed at development of an elementary school curriculum that will place as much importance on the building of personal traits, including citizenship, as on academic progress, he said.

Grant on Way for Rec Area in Orion Twp.

A federal grant of $139,750 has been awarded to the State Conservation Department to help acquire land for the Bald Mountain recreation area in Orion and Oakland townships.

To become eligible for the grant from the Land and Water Conservation Fund of the U.S. Interior Department, the state had to make matching funds available.

The Legislature appropriated $80,000 last year and the balance was transferred from the state park motor vehicle permit fund.

Alfred Masini, district parks supervisor at the Conservation Department's Pontiac Lake office, said the total of $279,500 would be used to consolidate holdings in the recreation area.

"We should have this accomplished by the end of this year or early in 1968," he said.

Masini also said work will begin early this year on a new entrance road, picnic areas and sanitary facilities at Bald Mountain. The total cost of $400,000 will come from vehicle permit

Dr. Stubblefield Checks Portable 'Blackboard'

By PAT McCARTY

There's an Oakland University faculty member who's convinced he can teach mathematics by telephone.

★ ★ ★

There are two classes of OU students who are going to find out next week if they can learn about mathematics from an instructor who's 1,105 miles away.

The long-distance class sessions will constitute a "dry run" of a scheme Dr. Beauregard Stubblefield has to help make up for an acute shortage of mathematics educators at the college level.

Stubblefield, an associate professor, has been intrigued with the classroom application of telephones since 1964.

He plans to take a sabbatical leave during the next academic year to develop a telephone course for the geometry textbook he wrote.

CHANCE FOR TEST

Next week, when he attends the American Mathematical Society's convention in Houston, Stubblefield will get a chance to test his idea.

Baker Loses Dismissal Bid

Attorneys Claimed Bugging a Violation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Oliver Gasch today denied defense motions to dismiss charges against Bobby Baker because of "bugging" incidents.

Baker, former secretary to the Democratic majority of the Senate, is on trial on multiple charges, including income tax evasion and converting to his own use $80,000 intended as senatorial campaign contributions.

Defense Attorney Edward Bennett Williams, in moving for the suppression of certain evidence and dismissal of charges, alleged that the Justice Department violated Baker's constitutional rights by electronic eavesdropping.

For one thing, he noted that the government equipped Wayne L. Bromley with an electronic transmitter and sent him to a conference in 1965 with Baker at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in Los Angeles.

Bromley, former lobbyist and former Baker associate, is now testifying for the government at the trial.

New McCormick Place Vowed

CHICAGO (AP)—City officials promised today that a new McCormick Place soon will rise from the old one's ashes.

But opponents of the lakefront exhibition hall, which has aroused controversy since its construction in 1960, called its destruction by fire yesterday "a marvelous opportunity."

★ ★ ★

Some local civic and professional groups have criticized its financing, its aesthetics and its encroachment on Lake Michigan shoreline which, they said, should be preserved for scenic and recreational reasons.

Recently, controversy grew heated over plans for a $15-million expansion. Opponents said the flat, oblong, three-block-long building already was too large for beauty or convenience and that enlarging it would further deface the lakefront.

MIGHT ENDANGER BONDS

Some groups argued that the expansion might endanger the $20 million in bonds owned by the State of Illinois with which it was financed.

★ ★ ★

Flames destroyed the 10-acre, three-level structure as firemen worked desperately to unfreeze hydrants for water that might have quenched the blaze that roared through the $40-million convention hall. But Fire Commissioner Robert I. Quinn said, "All the water in Lake Michigan wouldn't have helped much."

One man was killed. Firemen discovered the body of Kenneth S. Goodman in the debris.

Conventions were being canceled and conventioneers were seeking transportation out of town. The conventioneers who were staying were bidding for display space at Navy Pier, the International Amphitheatre, the Merchandise Mart and other facilities.

ESTIMATES VARY

Damage estimates ranged from the official one — $10 million to the building only, made by Commissioner Quinn — to $40 million for the building plus $150 million to the contents.

The $150-million figure was derived from exhibitors at the National Houseware Manufacturers Association show, which would have opened Monday. Its exhibits had jammed almost every available square foot of display space.

★ ★ ★

Edward J. Lee, McCormick Place general manager, said the building was worth $40 million — $32 million to construct in November 1960 plus $8 million since then in improvements.

"We will have another McCormick Place," Mayor Richard J. Daley told a news conference. He said that in the meantime, labor, hotels and businesses are cooperating to make sure such major scheduled conventions as the Auto Show, Sports Show and Boat Show stay in Chicago.

Conventions Seek Move to Detroit Hall

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit convention officials report several major conventions have contacted Cobo Hall officials seeking to transfer their meetings from Chicago's fire - damaged McCormick Place.

★ ★ ★

The huge Chicago lake-front exposition hall was 50 per cent destroyed by fire early Monday. Damage was estimated at upwards of $100 million.

★ ★ ★

Officials at Cobo Hall, Detroit's river-front convention center, said spokesmen from 8 to 10 major conventions scheduled for Chicago asked information about transferring their meetings. The groups requested their names not be used but they ranged in size from 3,500 to 60,000 delegates, the spokesman said.

EXPECT 3 SHOWS

Leonard E. Rolston, executive vice president of the Detroit Convention Bureau said at least three additional trade shows originally booked for Chicago are expected to come to Detroit this year.

★ ★ ★

Rolston said Detroit and Chicago officials were working together to accommodate conventions that cannot find meeting room in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"We have been fierce competitors for convention business," said Rolston. "But we are not going out of our way to cut Chicago's throat at a tragic time like this."

EXPOSITION HALL RUINS — Chicago's McCormick Place, once described as more durable than Rome's Colosseum, lies in ice-sheathed ruins today following a disastrous fire that swept the three-block exposition hall yesterday. Firemen carry a traffic barrier past the collapsed walls and tangled girders. Damage estimates range from the official one—$10 million to the building only—to $40 million to the building plus $150 million to the contents.

JFK Book Dispute Ends

NEW YORK (AP)—Many changes made in settling the Kennedy book controversy out of court with Harper & Row involved what the late president's two children said and did in the immediate period following his assassination, it was learned today.

★ ★ ★

A source close to the Kennedy family said that in all roughly 6,000 to 8,000 words figured in the changes in William Manchester's book, "The Death of a President."

★ ★ ★

"Many changes involved the children and their reaction in the period of the assassination and what they said and did," the source said.

National Drive Planned to Reduce Thefts of Autos

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is planning a national campaign against car theft and is seeking — through persuasion or legislation — to have automobile manufacturers make their cars harder to steal.

★ ★ ★

Announcing this today, Asst. Atty. Gen. Fred M. Vinson Jr. said steering wheel, transmission and hood locks and more secure ignition systems are devices which would help reverse the rising trend of automobile thefts.

Vinson said the Justice Department has conferred with industry representatives "with a view to installation of feasible and effective devices at the earliest practicable date.

"We are following with interest the automobile industry's activity in this regard and we are considering legislation, if necessary, to require installation of antitheft devices at the point of manufacture or assembly," he said in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., the subcommittee chairman, said his group also is considering legislation which would require antitheft devices on new cars.

★ ★ ★

Their talk of possible new laws dealing with automobile equipment came with manufacturers and the government at odds over the number and nature of safety devices to be required on 1968 model cars under a law passed by the 89th Congress.

Man Is Fatally Injured at Troy Construction Site

A Detroit man was fatally injured this morning in an industrial accident at a construction site in the Somerset Apartment complex in Troy.

He was apparently working under the vehicle with the motor running when it accidently rolled forward, crushing him, police said.

Sukarno Asked to Step Down

Move Is Suggested by Foreign Minister

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian Foreign Minister Adam Malik disclosed today he has asked President Sukarno to step down "in the interest of the nation."

Malik told newsmen after meeting Sukarno at his palace he advised the president to make this move before he was brought down in dishonor.

Testimony at various treason trials has tended to connect Sukarno with the attempted Communist coup Oct. 1, 1965. But in a statement last week to Congress, Sukarno denied he had anything to do with it.

After the coup, the army cracked down on the Indonesian Communists and gradually took away Sukarno's powers. Since last March, when Gen. Suharto took over as the actual head of Indonesia, Sukarno has been little more than a figurehead.

ON REACTION

Malik gave no indication what Sukarno's reaction was to his request.

He asked Sukarno to dissociate himself from everything connected with the presidency, he said.

Elaborating on a meeting with Sukarno during a ceremony at the Foreign Office, Malik said, if necessary, Sukarno should appoint someone else until general elections scheduled for 1968 are held.

Speaking to Sukarno "as a comrade in arms for tens of years in the past," he told the president they needed his help to maintain peace in Indonesia.

Malik warned that if Sukarno faced the present situation without "a clear head and greatness of spirit," he would face serious issues.

SGT. YOST

Dropout Cited for Valor in Vietnam War

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—He was a high school dropout at age 17, but a hero home from Vietnam at 22.

He is Army S. Sgt. Burwood Yost Jr., who has been recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross and a second Bronze Star with a "V" for valor.

★ ★ ★

Monday was Yost's day of glory. A crowd of 1,000 sang "The Star-Spangled Banner," the high school band played and city fathers gave speeches.

Yost received citations from the City of Cambridge, from the Dorchester County commissioners and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

★ ★ ★

A member of a so-called hard-core squad that has been operating in the jungles of South Vietnam's central highlands, Yost was cited for running through 50 meters of hostile fire to deliver ammunition to a machine gun.

Birmingham Area News

Street Work Said a Necessity

BIRMINGHAM — The paving of two remaining unimproved streets in the south portion of the city was declared a necessity last night by the City Commission.

Scheduled for improvement later this year are Catalpa from Pierce to Grant, and Cedar from Lincoln to Catalpa.

The commission, following a public hearing on the two projects, directed the engineering office to prepare plans and construction costs.

The cost of constructing pavement on each street is estimated at $27,000. The city would pay 15 per cent of the $54,000 total with benefiting property owners sharing the remainder.

★ ★ ★

A hearing confirming the assessment district and individual cost to property owners is expected to be scheduled within three months.

ADJOURNMENT

Another hearing for the proposed improvement of Edgewood between Catalpa and Smith, was adjourned until Feb. 20.

At that time, the commission will consider the construction of a cul-de-sac to serve the rear of a housing development being built on Grant, one block east of Edgewood.

The portion of Edgewood under consideration is presently closed to traffic, and a number of residents have objected to it being opened as a thoroughfare.

★ ★ ★

It has not been decided whether the cul-de-sac would enter from Southlawn on the north or from Smith on the south.

REC PROGRAM

The commission, in other business, directed the administration to draft an ordinance reorganizing the city recreation program.

Under the plan, the present Forestry and Parks Department will be renamed the Parks and Recreation Department, with the present Forestry Superintendent Darrel Middlewood in charge.

The reorganization was recommended by City Manager Robert Kenning after the Birmingham Board of Education withdrew from a joint recreation program on the first of the year.

BIRMINGHAM — The board of education will receive a survey of current transportation procedures at their meeting tonight.

Included is a report on the possible need for bus schedules in the evenings to serve students on extracurricular activities.

GOP Rebuttal to Johnson to Call for Budget Cutting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican rebuttal to President Johnson's State of the Union message will demand a budget-cutting drive to avert the 6 per cent surtax on most incomes that Johnson has proposed.

But while opposing the surtax, the GOP will endorse the U.S. position in Vietnam which, in part, is causing the need for additional income. At the same time, it will accuse the administration of foreign policy blunders elsewhere in the world.

★ ★ ★

The Republican leaders of Congress, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Gerald R. Ford, will outline their view of the State of the Union Thursday night in a 30-minute nationally televised report from the Capitol's old Supreme Court chamber.

Their speeches are still in preparation, and all the decisions have not yet been made. But a Senate source familiar with the GOP's basic points provided an advance account today.

FOREIGN POLICY

Dirksen will deal with foreign policy, reaffirming GOP support of the President's course in Vietnam. But his report also will raise critical questions about policy elsewhere, the source said.

Dirksen will criticize administration handling of the Alliance for Progress programs in Latin America and also complain of disarray in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the source said, Dirksen will have critical words about U.S. policy in Africa and the Middle East.

There will be criticism, too, of American trade policies, alleging that they have caused harm to some U.S. industries, the source said.

phone hook-up, he will lecture to his students on the Oakland University campus while conducting a class at Texas Southern University.

Stubblefield's voice will be broadcast over a loudspeaker in the OU classroom.

★ ★ ★

Instead of the blackboard which normally is used throughout a math lecture, Stubblefield will illustrate his points on transparencies projected onto a screen by an assistant here.

INNOVATION

This is the innovation, the facet of telephone teaching Stubblefield believes has not been attempted before.

Just plain telephone lectures are quite common on the collegiate level, he said.

If his idea works, an instructor at one university could teach four or five classes at other universities simultaneously.

★ ★ ★

Stubblefield is confident enough of his success to put his own money into next week's project, which should cost about $300 for installation of the equipment and the six one-hour telephone calls involved.

LOWER COST

Stubblefield favors this method over television for two reasons. One is the lower cost and the other is feedback.

Students here and in Houston will be able to ask questions during the class without leaving their seats. And they will be heard by other students in both classrooms.

Stubblefield's only concern is that the students may freeze up and the class lose its informality in this initial experiment.

★ ★ ★

He's been careful not to rehearse them.

Nevertheless, they have shown unusual interest in next week's classes and they've volunteered to help him prepare the materials he needs.

The word is spreading on the OU campus, so Stubblefield has had to adopt the motto: "You must have a pass to attend this class."

5,713 Electors Are Suspended

Notices of suspension are being mailed this week to 5,713 Waterford Township electors who have not voted since the November 1964 election.

An elector must vote at least once every two years to keep his registration active.

According to the township clerk's office, voters' registrations will be reinstated if they sign the notices and return them within 30 days.

Otherwise, voters' registrations will be canceled and they must reregister before they can vote again.

★ ★ ★

Persons can contact the clerk's office for further information.

The 5,713 voters whose registrations have expired represent less than 25 per cent of the township's 24,222 registered electors as tallied in October 1966.

Psychiatrist: 'Strangler' Is Sick, a Threat

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—A prosecution psychiatrist, under rapid-fire prodding of defense counsel F. Lee Bailey, today described the admitted Boston strangler as "sick and dangerous."

The psychiatrist said the defendant should be committed to a mental institution.

Dr. Samuel Allen, acting director at Bridgewater State (mental) Hospital, gave the testimony at Albert H. DeSalvo's trial on sex, burglary and assault charges after withering interrogation by Bailey.

At one point Bailey, in an obvious attempt to discredit Allen's qualifications, accused him of "learning psychiatry by on-the-job training."

★ ★ ★

Q. "What do you mean by your diagnosis that DeSalvo is legally insane and mentally ill? Does that mean you deem him committable?"

A: "Yes."

Witness to Teen Battle Tells About Warning

ROYAL OAK (AP)—A witness testified Monday that accused slayer Robert J. Quinn told another youth "I'm going to kill you" during a fist fight outside Dondero High School Dec. 21.

Quinn, 16, is charged with second degree murder in the slaying of Gregory Barrett, 18.

★ ★ ★

The testimony by Robert Hoffmaster, 16, a Dondero student, came during Quinn's examination before Municipal Judge Keith J. Leenhouts of Royal Oak.

Hoffmaster testified he and three friends were leaving the school when their attention was attracted to a crowd of 100 spectators watching the fight.

He testified he saw both Quinn and Barrett land punches before falling to the ground.

"Bob Quinn was gouging at Gregory Barrett's eyes and face," Hoffmaster testified. Barrett was on his back and Quinn was over him. He (Barrett) was getting hurt and he said 'I want to quit.' "

★ ★ ★

At that point, Hoffmaster, said, Quinn said, "I'm not quitting yet because I'm going to kill you."

Hoffmaster said the fight continued until Barrett appeared to be hurt.

"He (Barrett) was shaking like he was cold and mumbling, but nobody could understand him," said Hoffmaster. "Quinn rolled over and got on his knees and kept striking Barrett on the head."

Anti-Romney GOP Group in State

DETROIT (UPI)—A right-wing Republican group yesterday launched a statewide drive pledged to fight Gov. George Romney if he tries for the GOP presidential nomination.

The United Republicans of America (URA) said the campaign would expand this week into Bay City, Flint, Lansing, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

D. Bruce Evans, chairman of the Washington-based URA, said the organization is a right-wing vehicle within the GOP, not a third party, and will hold its first national convention in February 1968 in Dallas.

Evans said the URA would fight Romney at Republican primaries and at the GOP convention in 1968, giving the governor's refusal to support Barry Goldwater in 1964 as a prime reason for the opposition.

★ ★ ★

Possible URA nominees would include California Gov. Ronald Reagan, Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio and Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., Evans said. He added, however, that the URA would support the final national Republican convention nominee, even if it would be Romney.

KEY FIGURE

One key figure in setting up the Michigan URA campaign was Richard Durant, of Grosse Pointe, the conservative chairman of the 14th Congressional Republican Organization.

City commissioners tonight will be asked to approve temporary appropriations pending adoption of a revised 1967 budget.

Although drafted once and the subject of a public hearing, the proposed budget is to be revised to reflect recent changes in municipal costs.

These changes include deletion from the budget of appropriations and revenue involving the Pontiac Municipal Airport, which is to be transferred to Oakland County.

In other business; the commission is slated to make several reappointments to the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee.

★ ★ ★

Also, bids are to be received on the sale of $1,014,000 in temporary loan notes to finance the R44 urban renewal project for six months.

In still other business, City Manager Joseph M. Warren is to report on the status of negotiations with Pontiac Transit Co. officials on renewal of the bus contract.

Prison Camp Ripped in Arkansas Report

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has released a state police report in which inmates tell of torture, beatings and extortion at Tucker State Prison Farm, where one said "almost anything could be had" if the prisoner had the money.

Rockefeller called the 67-page report shocking and urged the legislature to create a commission to study conditions in the prison system and recommend improvements.

He said he hoped the report would "shock the legislature and the people of this state into action."

The report released Monday was based on an inquiry made by the criminal investigation division of the state police last August, when prisoners were reported on the verge of a riot because of conditions. Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus ordered the investigation, but withheld the report.

The report was accompanied by pictures of torture devices and confiscated weapons and prisoners who had been beaten.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller, a Republican who assumed office Jan. 10, said he did not doubt its validity. State Rep. Bill Wells, however, said in the Arkansas House that he questioned the source of information — "Convicts planning a prison break certainly cannot be considered the most reliable source."

★ ★ ★

O. E. Bishop, who became superintendent of the prison system Jan. 1, 1966, declined comment because he said he hadn't read the report. He said, however, that he believed conditions had improved since he became superintendent.

He said he wasn't aware of the allegations that prisoners were tortured.

LEATHER STRAP

Former Supt. Dan D. Stephens, who resigned a year ago after a controversy over the use of a leather strap to punish prisoners, declined comment.

Rockefeller said he didn't know how much of the alleged conditions still existed.

★ ★ ★

The report offered a look from the prisoners' viewpoint into one of two Arkansas prison farms that Rockefeller has said penologists have described as the worst in the nation. Convicts told of traffic in liquor and narcotics, sex and filthy living conditions.

★ ★ ★

The investigators quoted unnamed prisoners about being "rung up" on the "Tucker telephone" — a device described as a crank-type telephone with two dry cell batteries and electrodes. The investigators said they were told inmates were strapped to a table and given charges of electricity for punishment or to extract information.

EVIDENCE SEIZED

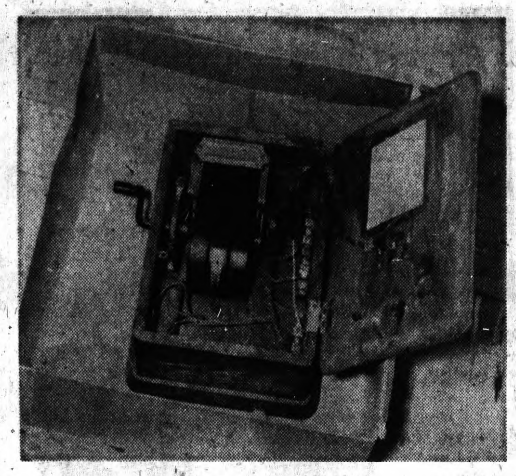

Investigators said they seized from the main prison building torture devices, whisky bottles, keys to open cell doors, playing cards and loaded dice, narcotics and recording equipment.

Rockefeller said he had not planned to release the report so quickly, but decided to go ahead after Eugene Hale, a former aide to Faubus, divulged details of the investigation in a newspaper article.

★ ★ ★

Hale, who was in charge of prison affairs for Faubus, was named an assistant attorney general last week, but resigned the position Monday at the request of Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell.

Hale said he decided to release some of the contents of the report because he was fearful that Rockefeller would make it public in a way that would be unfavorable to the Faubus administration.

'TUCKER TELEPHONE' — This crank-type telephone was one piece of equipment used to torture prisoners at the Tucker (Ark.) Prison Farm, according to a 67-page report released yesterday by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. The report, in which inmates described conditions at the prison, told of beatings, torture and extortion.

Romney Prods Cities on Rights

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Gov. George Romney yesterday urged local officials to do more in their communities for civil rights, while a handful of mayors asked for a state open housing law and an NAACP spokesman warned of more racial violence if more community action isn't taken.

★ ★ ★

Romney addressed nearly 100 city officials at a state Civil Rights Commission Conference of Municipal Officials and urged them to be more responsive to the demands of Negroes and other minority groups.

One group of mayors said a key to solving the basic needs of minority groups, particularly Negroes, was a state fair housing law.

"Further state legislation is needed in the housing area to create uniformity throughout the state. There's no point in making local battlegrounds out of each city for a state and national problem," said Lansing Mayor Max Murninghan.

Romney said, "Local leaders have got to stand up and take a public position. They have to provide the example to encourage private and individual efforts."

Elly Seeks Return to GOP Post

LANSING (AP) — Republican State Chairman Elly Peterson said Monday she will seek reelection at the party's state convention in Detroit Feb. 25 and announced a new GOP "Project Grass Roots" for local service.

Mrs. Peterson, elected to the party leadership post in 1965 after an unsuccessful campaign to unseat U.S. Sen. Phil Hart, D-Mich., is the only woman GOP state chairman in the nation.

The Charlotte Republican, a former national vice chairman, said Gov. George Romney had told her the reelection bid was "fine with him," but added that she had not asked him for an endorsement.

She said she did not know of any other possible candidates for the party post.

DECLINES PREDICTION

Questioned regarding Romney's possible candidacy for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, Mrs. Peterson said she "would hope he would announce," but declined to say whether she expected him to seek the nomination.

She said she had not discussed the subject with Romney in detail, but added that she saw no need for haste since most presidential candidates do not announce until the February of election year.

Asked what her role would be if Romney should seek nomination, she said she "would want to do everything I could to help him," adding that she probably would be helpful in working with other state chairman.

Mrs. Peterson said the new program—"A dream of mine since I took office"—is designed to "prove that Republicans care that they are willing and able to become deeply involved in in community affairs and with the problems of people."

PROJECTS PLANNED

She said the program, to turn GOP headquarters into "local service centers," would cost an estimated $20-25,000. It is now in the planning stage with several pilot projects to be launched in the next several weeks, she added.

She said projects could include assistance to senior citizens, establishment of local youth centers, providing nursery or similar help for low income mothers, beautification projects, turning district headquarters into voter information centers, and possibly privately financed job retraining.

"We have, for example, plans for a service center in the core city of Detroit that will put real meaning into our theme of 'involvement,'" she said.

She said the program could be "an answer to the War on Poverty."

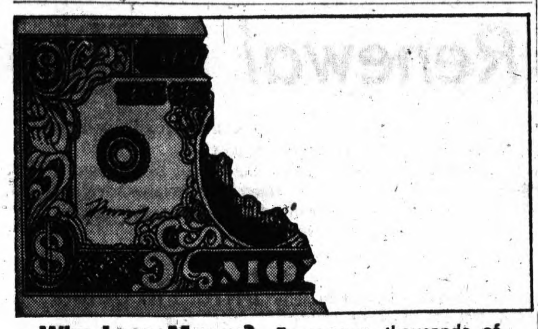

"Despite our great victory of 1966, we have no intention of relaxing or resting in this off-election year," she said. "As a matter of fact we expect to be as busy as we were last year, but along different lines."

She said the program, approved by both Romney and U.S. Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Mich., will follow "the philosophy of Gov. Romney in trying to stimulate individual and private action in many areas that now are the concern of government alone."

Novi Cityhood Bid Brews Battle Royal

By JANICE KLOUSER

NOVI — An all-out battle appears to be shaping up between the village and the township as suit upon countersuit is filed on the matter of incorporation.

A group of village residents are attempting, through court action, to prevent the township from interfering in an April 4 vote on incorporation of the village as a home rule city.

In response to the township's recent action in seeking a permanent injunction to prevent the vote, the residents obtained a temporary injunction in Oakland County Circuit Court restraining officials from "interfering or enjoining" the election.

AREA NEWS

The defendants were also ordered to appear at a hearing on Jan. 30 to show cause why the injunction should not be issued.

C. A. Smith, a spokesman for the citizens group which was formed Saturday, said that through court action the group hopes "to give Novi residents an opportunity to decide for themselves the form of government they desire."

'NOT DEMOCRATIC'

"To deny this opportunity to the residents of any community is not a democratic method," he said. "In fact, it it definitely undemocratic and dictatorial.

"It is my conviction that the Novi Township officials should not use taxpayers money to prevent the taxpayers from determining the form of government they desire," he said.

An incorporation vote was set for April 4 after Circuit Judge James S. Thorburn ruled that Novi, as an incorporated entity, is not bound by a state statute requiring a population of 500 residents per square mile in order to incorporate as a home rule city.

★ ★ ★

Shortly after the ruling, the township, which stands to lose the bulk of its tax money if the village incorporates, sought an injunction to prevent the vote on the grounds that the incorporation is illegal.

FORMED SATURDAY

The citizens committee, which was formed Saturday, will meet with numerous community groups to "present to the voters the reasons why Novi should and must become a home rule city."

Smith said opponents will also be permitted to state their views.

At Saturday's meeting, Richard Bingham was named director of education; Edward VahlBusch was appointed treasurer and financial director; J. F. Buck was named vice general chairman; and Mrs. Dorothy Farrar was chosen secretary.

Avondale OKs Mott Venture

School Board Vote Backs Participation

The Avondale Board of Education last night approved participation in a Mott Foundation-financed community school program.

Schools Supt. John W. Dickey said he had received assurance that between $5,000 and $10,000 would be forthcoming from the foundation for such a program.

The board also voted to ask for assistance from the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Dickey said a community school director would be hired to prepare a program schedule making fuller use of school facilities for all members of the community.

★ ★ ★

John H. Hazlett, 36, of 6653 Shelley, Independence Township, was named assistant principal at the Avondale Junior High School. He has taught eight years in the Avondale district.

APPOINTEE

The board appointed Herbert E. Mills as its president pro tem. Being representative of a fourth class school district, Dickey said the board did not qualify for a regular vice president elective office.

The contracts of two assistant superintendents, Charles Johnson and William Saville, were extended until June 30, 1970.

Dickey reported that the entire high school faculty had spent two hours with the faculty of Lamphere High School, Madison Heights, to discuss team teaching and ungraded classes.

★ ★ ★

The information was gathered in anticipation of Avondale's new high school, already approved by voters, Dickey said.

WHEE-E-E — Wixom city officials appear jubilant in spite of the freezing temperatures as they turn the first spadeful of dirt to get their new sewer project under way. Taking part in the ground-breaking ceremonies yesterday are (from left) Mayor Wesley E. McAtee, Councilwoman Mrs. Lottie Chambers and R. J. Alexander, director of Oakland County Department of Public Works.

Wixom Ground Breaking

Sewage Plant Ceremony Held

WIXOM — Ground-breaking ceremonies yesterday marked the beginning of the city's long-awaited sewer system and treatment plant.

City officials and representatives of surrounding communities and of the Oakland County Department of Public Works were among those on hand at the Holloway Construction Co. to witness the start of the project.

Holloway was recently awarded the construction contract for the sewer. The treatment plant contract went to Gay Brothers Construction Co. of Pontiac.

Construction of the $4.6-million system is scheduled for completion by December 1967.

★ ★ ★

General obligation bonds, which were approved by the DPW last week, will be used to finance the project. The city had applied for a $1.5-million federal grant but it was not approved.

Imlay City Schools Face Vote Feb. 27

IMLAY CITY — The school district will take its problems in financing to the voters of the district on Feb. 27 — the third time in less than a year.

A bid will be made to obtain a total package of 8.5 mills — five of them a renewal of millage previously levied by the district but which expired last month.

The actual addition in taxes amounts to 3.5 mills, Schools Supt. Alvin P. Norlin said, and due to the efforts of a citizens' committee and an aroused public, the board of education has hopes the millage will pass.

Similar attempts to raise an additional two mills were defeated twice last year, in June and again in September, and led to a major revision in the district's budget.

★ ★ ★

One of the results was the dropping of the Head Start program, which while federally financed, was looked on by the board as an unneeded and unnecessary expense.

HEIGHTENED

This view was heightened with the federal announcement that local participation costs would be raised above that taken out in the use of local buildings and teaching materials, Norlin said.

The district, before deciding to ask again for additional millage, has explored the possibilities of year-around school and half-day sessions. Neither were feasible in the minds of school board officials and teachers.

Such items as increased teaching hours and double bus runs were cited. And, since state aid is based on attendance the fourth Friday of September, a district deciding to operate all year could possibly lose one-fourth its revenue.

★ ★ ★

The Imlay City District looks on four additional classrooms as a must due to increased enrollment, and needs the teachers to go with them, Norlin said.

MINIMUM AMOUNT

Investigators feel the additional 3.5 mills to be the minimum amount the district can operate with at the present time.

Norlin said it is essential that some increase in taxation be met in order for the district to participate fully in state aid.

New legislation, he said, provides that a district must levy at least 10 mills to get full benefits. Imlay City is presently allocated 8.1 mills. It has no voted increase.

He said the total package should cost a resident owning a home with a $7,000-state-equalized valuation less than $2 a month.

Utica Holding Renewal Vote

UTICA — Residents here are voting today on participation in a $1.2-million downtown urban renewal program.

Local costs of such a program are estimated at under $300,000, though Stanley Swierczynski, urban renewal director, said approval is being sought to sell a full $300,000 in bonds if necessary.

There are some 1,200 registered voters in Utica and Swierczynski hopes that a majority will determine the city's future.

Allusions have been made in recent weeks to downtown Utica's becoming a "ghost town" unless steps are taken to update the area.

★ ★ ★

The plan calls for renewal and rehabilitation of some 17½ acres into a mall-type shopping complex.

Only about 25 per cent of the merchants involved are in favor of such a plan, Swierczynski reported.

Brandon Joins Library Setup

BRANDON TOWNSHIP — Increased library facilities will be available after Feb. 1. The township has joined the Wayne County Library System to replace membership in the North Oakland Library Contract System, which is dissolved.

★ ★ ★

Dorothy Grovesteen, librarian, said films and counseling service will be available as well as more books at a discount.

Drivers to Guide Schoolchildren

MILFORD — Two Huron Valley School District buses are to be equipped with inside and outside speakers in an effort to improve transportation safety.

★ ★ ★

The two buses, which are equipped with an audio system, pick up children along M59. The driver will use the speakers to control children crossing the highway.

★ ★ ★

Small spot convex mirrors have also been added to all 1963-67 buses to give drivers a side view and enable them to maintain visual observation and control of the entire length of the bus.

The two systems will be extended to all buses if, after a thorough study, they prove effective.

Planning Unit to Meet

LAKE ORION — The village's newly appointed planning and zoning commission will meet for the first time at 8 p.m. Jan. 25 at the village hall, according to Dr. Richard McNeil, chairman.

Rochester Schools

Attendance Areas Eyed

ROCHESTER — The development of attendance areas for elementary schools in the district next fall loomed large as the board of education met last night.

Schools Supt. Douglas Lund reported that changes would have to be made by which students who will attend Longmeadow Elementary School will be absorbed by other schools until Longmeadow is complete.

Contractors have given the district a 300-day limit on Longmeadow's completion. That would put the opening sometime in November. Lund said extra allowance would be made to take care of any delays.

Lund also said changes were being contemplated for the senior high school to absorb an additional 200 students next year.

★ ★ ★

Lund announced that bids for construction of a pool and auditorium at the senior high would be opened Jan. 25. The bids will also include quotes on an enclosed bridge from the present gym to the new auditorium.

NO PROGRESS ON SITE

The bridge was incorporated in initial plans for the school some 13 years ago, Lund said.

He reported no further progress on selection of a second senior high school site.

Assistant Supt. Harlan Johnson reported on the Oakland University student observer program for its sophomore students and the intern teacher program and the intern teacher program. He said that 25 student teachers would participate in the Rochester School District for ten weeks this spring.

An intramural basketball program for fourth, fifth and sixth graders and another for seventh, eighth and ninth graders was reported by Johnson.

Fire Fighters Need Quarters

AVON TOWNSHIP — Brooklands Fire Department's new chief, Al Rouse, faces the immediate problem of finding larger quarters for his equipment, he said.

Elected recently, he reported the present department garage at 1725 Auburn is too small for adequate housing.

Rouse was elected to replace Harold Spangler, who became assistant chief.

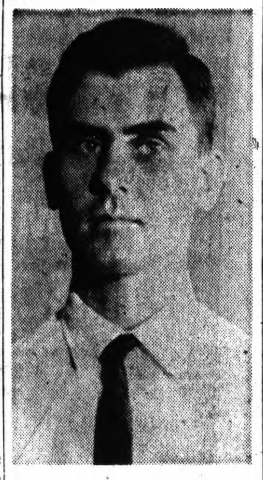

The department is responsible for that portion of the township bounded by Rochester, 20 Mile, Dequindre and Avon Roads.

★ ★ ★

The department also named Milan Matthews and Mel Schiebel as battalion chiefs; Nick Verburggen and Al Runke, captains; and Frank Matthews, Arthur Allen, Russell Griffin, Kenneth Guyette and Howard Felton, engineers.

Dad's Night Thursday

Auburn Heights Elementary School PTA will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday for a "Dad's Night" program. Refreshments will be served. Baby sitting service will be provided.

★ ★ ★

Both volunteers are graduates of Oakland University. They finished a 13-week program in the Peace Corps last month and were given the Malaysia assignment to work as teachers.

Troy Chooses Architects for Library Plans

TROY — An architectural firm was chosen by the City Commission last night to make preliminary plans for a $500,000 library proposed for the city.

The issue involving an additional one-half mill levy is expected to be placed on the April ballot.

The firm chosen is Louis G. Redstone Associates, Inc., of Detroit.

Preliminary plans are to be prepared prior to the election and if the proposal is accepted by the voters, the firm will then proceed with designing.

★ ★ ★

A sewer project totaling $31,350 was approved and public hearing on the assessment roll set for Feb. 27.

TOTAL ASSESSMENT

The project at Enterprise and Maple will involve assessment of $8.31 per front foot and $.049 per square foot for a total of $26,630 assessed.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Karl Koerner, 1820 Crooks was appointed to the hospital study committee. Resignation of Harriet Barnard from the historical committee was accepted in other business.

Women's Club to Hear Speaker

TROY — The Troy Business and Professional Women's Club will meet at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Pagoda Inn, Maple and Livernois.

Mrs. Donald Lance of the Troy Historical Society will speak on "Save Caswell House."

PTA Slates Film

Stone School PTA will show a film entitled "If These Were Your Children" at 8 p.m. Thursday at its regular meeting at the school.

The film is a treatment of the backgrounds of delinquency.

Weevil Threat to State's Farmers

EAST LANSING (AP) — A 3/16 inch-long bug which arrived in Michigan in 1966 threatens to take $8.80 an acre from the pockets of the already troubled dairy farmer and the potentially strong beef raiser.

It won't happen right away, but alfalfa weevils are expected to build up a big enough army in two or three years to upset any farm operations based on forage crops.

They caused $7 million in losses to Ohio farmers in 1965.

Ohio's Cooperative Extension Service reported that it generally is cheaper to pay $8.80 an acre to spray insecticides on alfalfa fields than to change to another forage crop.

NEW IN MICHIGAN

The weevil was first found in the United States near Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1904. The first one found in Michigan turned up in Livingston County last May 31.

The state had about 1.3 million acres in alfalfa in 1965 and produced about 2.7 million tons.

"If the weevil operates in Michigan as it has in many areas, it could completely change the economics of such things as forage growing, dairy farming and beef raising," said Dr. Gordon Gayer, chairman of Michigan State University's entomology department.

"A farmer with 60 acres, for example, would pay about $500 a year for control," he said.

ONLY CHEMICALS

"This pest is completely different than the cereal leaf beetle," he added. "Scientists haven't come up with an answer other than chemicals, and they have had the weevil to work with for years."

For the cereal leaf beetle, he said, some progress has been made in developing parasites, resistant grain varieties and other weapons.

Even chemical warfare against the weevil is restricted, Guyer said.

"The real effective chemicals can't be used because of residue problems," he explained.

Federal law says there must be absolutely no pesticide residue in milk, while many other food products may have small amounts — several parts per million.

★ ★ ★

C. A. Boyer, who just retired as chief of the plant industry division of the State Agriculture Department, has argued that there should be a tolerance established in milk standards, too.

"There was a scare about pesticides — maybe rightfully so — but it got way out of proportion," he said.

"The whole dairy economy is based on alfalfa," added Dean Levitt, new chief of the division.

"Dairy farmers are in a bind financially and they'll have to pass control costs on to the consumer or we'll have to quit having milk," he said "This is not just a matter of helping the farmer."

Ohio's report said that because of alfalfa's high protein content, dairy farmers who use it need to add very little protein supplement to the cow's diet.

Switching to other forage crops might require spending as much as $26 a cow for additional protein suppliment each year, the report said.

Farmers who raise forage crops for sale probably would earn about $12 less an acre if they switched from alfalfa to grasses, it added.

Bombing Foe Suggests Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Vance Hartke, a foe of bombing attacks on North Vietnam, proposed today that President Johnson set up a board to determine if the bombing is serving "our own interest."

As Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, defended the bombing, the Indiana Democrat said the President should have impartial advice on whether the raids are accomplishing goals of boosting South Vietnamese morale, cutting supply lines and prodding Hanoi toward negotiations.

Hartke recalled in an interview a bomb survey after World War II which he said showed that despite heavy bombardment German production and the will to resist increased.

In other developments:

Wheeler, at a Pentagon news conference, defended the bombing raids as "an integral, indispensable part" of American operations.

TO CONTINUE

Rusk told newsmen following a four-hour closed session with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that bombing would continue while American diplomats "keep trying to find out" whether a halt in the raids would be a move toward peace.

Widow of Artist Dies in Austria

Mrs. Carl W. Milles, widow of the artist who created the sculpture work on the grounds of Cranbrook, died in Austria early this month. She was 92.

Burial was in Stockholm, Sweden, alongside her late husband in the garden of their former home, now a foundation and museum run by the Swedish government.

Mrs. Milles lived with her husband at Cranbrook for 21 years. He was resident sculptor beginning in 1929 and 72 of his works are on the grounds. He died in 1955.

Mrs. Milles was born in Leibnitz, Austria, and was a trained artist. She gave up her career after meeting her future husband in Paris in the 1920s.

Some of her etchings are on display in the couple's former home in Sweden.

2 Homes Burn; None Injured

Two house fires yesterday afternoon occupied members of the Orion Township and Gingellville fire departments.

The first fire at 425 Dell Court, a home listed as belonging to Edward W. Clark Jr., occurred at 4:04 p.m. and necessitated the standby assistance of the Oxford department.

Assistant Fire Chief Cecil Ryckman said the blaze in the one-story home apparently started around a pump in a utility room.

Flames spread into an attic storage space and to the heating plant there, Ryckman said. No estimate on damage was available.

★ ★ ★

The Gingellville station was called out at 6:18 p.m. for a four-hour fire fight at the home of Albert Kotoskie, 1427 Brown.

HEAVILY DAMAGED

The frame ranch home was counted as heavily damaged by Fire Chief Michael Flood. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

★ ★ ★

Safecrackers Get $800 at City Firm

Safecrackers made off with $800 in cash from the Pepsi Cola Bottling Co., 960 Featherstone, it was reported to city police yesterday.

Investigators said they found three sets of fresh tracks leading from the scene. The said entry was made by forcing open a door on the side of the building and the safe was opened with company tools stored in the building.

An undetermined amount in change was taken from two vending machines, but some $4,000 in checks was left in the safe, according to the report.

Neighbors Keep Togetherness in Sickness, Health

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Togetherness is the word that best describes the families of Barney Cecil and Al Wohlleb.

They first lived side by side in one neighborhood for five years.

★ ★ ★

The Cecils then bought a lot in a new subdivision and the Wohllebs moved next door.

Later, Wohlleb moved his bakery to a new location and Cecil followed, opening an adjoining real-estate office.

Recently, Cecil was hospitalized with a mild heart attack. A short time later Wohlleb showed up for minor surgery.

The hospital placed them in the same room in neighboring beds.

Intensify Hunt in Triple Killing

NEW YORK (AP) — Police fanned out through a Bronx neighborhood today seeking a weapon and questioning neighbors in the fatal shootings of a man, his pregnant wife and a second man.

The victims were found shortly before midnight Monday in a basement apartment in the Bronx. Each had been shot in the head. No weapon was found.

★ ★ ★

Found dead in the kitchen were George Suflita, 26; and William Cassidy, 24. Suflita's wife, Maureen, 23, about nine months pregnant, was found in the bedroom lying on a bed fully clothed.

Police were called to the scene when Victor F. Gurrielio, who owns the apartment building and lives on the top floor, heard shots.

★ ★ ★

Police said Suflita was sentenced in 1960 to 1 to 2 years in state prison in connection with an armed robbery.

★ ★ ★

This made seven suits, asking a total of $3.3 million, filed in U.S. District Court here in connection with the Morrell disaster.

Named as defendants in the four suits were the Cambria Steamship Co. and the Bethlehem Steel Co.

People Firm on Viet--Lodge

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge returned to Saigon today and said he found the American people "completely determined" on Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

"They want to do everything possible to support the young Americans who are here," Lodge told newsmen on his arrival.

★ ★ ★

Lodge left Vietnam Dec. 12 to spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays in the states. He said he talked with President Johnson and other U.S. officials in Washington, and on his way back with Pope Paul VI and Italian government leaders in Rome. He declined to talk about what they said.

★ ★ ★

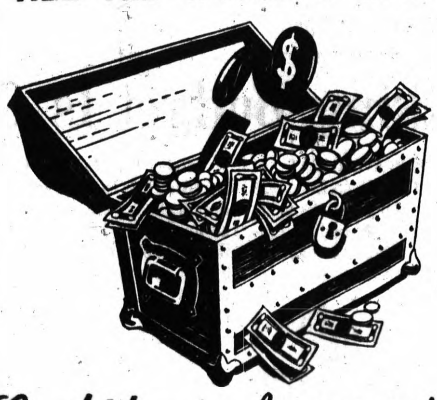

At the time Lodge left Saigon, there was speculation that he might not return.

★ ★ ★

He said on his return: "This is where I want to be, and I am glad to be back."

Local Jail Has Served Its Time

Few would argue against Oakland County's need for a new jail. The present 46-year-old building is structurally obsolete and its 250-prisoner capacity inadequate for today's requirements, to say nothing of future.

The building and grounds committee of the County Board of Supervisors has recommended that a complete survey of jail facilities be made and plans prepared for a new building in the County Service Center on N. Telegraph. Approval of funds to implement such action is on the agenda of the Jan. 20 meeting of the County Board of Supervisors.

It would be pleasant to think that society's need for jail capacity would progressively lessen with enlightenment and a higher level of public morality born of passing years, but there are no present indications of such a trend.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the degree of reformation awakened in those imprisoned will indubitably be influenced by the manner in which their physical needs are met. The community figures to be the loser when jail facilities are both excessively crowded and substandard.

★ ★ ★

The PRESS strongly advocates that the steps initiated for a new jail be vigorously pushed, from which a project may emerge that will provide a facility worthy of the State's second-largest county.

'Here's Heartening News From Home . . .'

Voice of the People:

'Traffic Light Is Needed in Addition to Overpass'

There appears to be a difference of opinion as to the need of a traffic light on West Huron near Webster School. We are concerned with this matter, essentially because we are the parents of four small children. We are thankful that the safety of our children is not in our hands alone because as we see and understand it all children have the right not to be concerned with something they know little or nothing about.

★ ★ ★

The overhead bridge at Webster School was an absolute must to insure the safety of children. However, we feel there has been a misunderstanding as to what the bridge itself would do. To valuate the bridge independent of a traffic light is unreasonable and unforgivable.

★ ★ ★

Since the traffic light has been removed it seems the public has found it fit to travel at a faster rate of speed. It is next to impossible to enter West Huron from the side streets in this area during most hours. Anyone that would be reluctant to see the need of a traffic light in this location would be in need of an ophthalmologist.

MR. AND MRS. A. J. LINDSAY
255 CHEROKEE

There is a need to restore the traffic light by Webster School on Huron. Children who have been riding their bikes to school will not be able to do so as there is no safe crossing.

★ ★ ★

Teen-age girls do not cross Huron by the overpass because it is embarrassing to do so in a skirt. With any other types of shoes than tennis shoes, heels get caught in the wire mesh and they risk getting hurt. For older citizens the act of climbing those high stairs can be dangerous.

★ ★ ★

It's almost impossible to turn left into Huron without risk. It is surprising that fatal accidents have not occurred. There is no slowing traffic from Genesee to Johnson.

Hopes All People Work Together in 1967

Pontiac is becoming a geographical ghetto . . . where white "white-collar" workers and white "blue-collar" workers flee to their suburban garrisons after work or after shopping. The ghettos in Pontiac, except for barbed wire, are nothing more than a concentration camp. African Americans (not the token Negro) are the unwilling victims of racism in this country.

★ ★ ★

The failure of white America to use power to enforce laws is the problem of white America. Let's hope that both black and white people work together in 1967.

Question and Answer

Who were the Nazi war criminals hanged after conviction at Nurenberg, and was there a mass execution?

IN AN ARGUMENT

REPLY

Hans Frank, Wilhelm Frick, Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl, Gestapo Chief Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Alfred Rosenberg, Fritz Sauckel, Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Julius Streicher and Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop were hanged separately. Hermann Goering was scheduled to be hanged, but committed suicide two hours before the appointed time.

Public's 'Right to Know' Safeguards Freedom

Two reports, both bearing on the vital issue of freedom of the press guaranteed by the 1st amendment to the Constitution, are of significance for the people of America.

The first, made by a committee of the American Bar Association and released three months ago, recommends that lawyers, policemen and other law enforcement officials be prohibited from disclosing any but the barest facts of a suspect's arrest and the charge placed against him. It calls for "limited use" of the contempt power of courts against any person who during a trial "disseminates by any means" information beyond the public record of the court "calculated" to affect the outcome of trial.

In other words, the report advocates, in effect, that the judiciary have power to exercise a form of news censorship over court business in many cases of paramount interest to the public.

The second report, two years in preparation and just issued, is the work of an American Newspaper Publishers Association committee and correlatively voices strong rebuttal to the Bar Association recommendations.

It points out that infringement of the "people's right to know" is but a first link in a chain of news suppression that could ultimately keep the citizenry in ignorance of the form and extent of the criminality that currently holds menace for our Nation.

★ ★ ★

Efforts to muzzle the press are not new. It is the first device employed by those with dictatorial ambitions in the area of government, and its evil effects are clearly evidenced in countries the world over.

Freedom of speech and freedom of the press are inherent in democracy. Dilution or abolition of these priceless heritages foreshadows the end of government by the people.

David Lawrence Says:

Pacifist Profs Abuse Yale Link

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has received a letter from 462 members of the teaching staff at Yale University urging him to "declare an unconditional halt to the bombing of North Vietnam."

If, after the name of LAWRENCE each of the signers, the simple notation "college professor" or "instructor" had been made, there could be no criticism, as this would be the proper exercise of the right of free speech. The letter, however, formally referred to the signers as "members of the Yale faculty."

Are these same college professors, it may be asked, justified in using the name of Yale University to lend prestige to their communication?

It is true that a spokesman for the signers declared that they "by no means purport to represent the position of the university." But every news article correctly stated that "462 members of the Yale University faculty" signed the letter.

★ ★ ★

If Yale University were to discipline these professors for using the name of Yale in a communication on a political issue, a hullabaloo would immediately be raised that the right of free speech was being impaired.

CAN INSIST

But a university also has rights, and it can insist that the members of its faculty refrain from using the name of the institution in any public controversy, political or otherwise.

The 462 professors who sent the letter to President Johnson represent less than 25 per cent of the Yale faculty which numbers about 2,000.

All the members of the faculty had an opportunity to endorse the letter if they wished to do so. A number expressed open dissent, and the vast majority either were opposed or just did not want to have anything to do with it.

Signers of the letter included the heads of 15 departments, and the deans of the schools of medicine, law and divinity.

Certainly the impression could be created in the minds of parents of the students at Yale University that there are members of the faculty who, in the middle of a war, believe the United States should suddenly stop military operations and, in effect, surrender to the enemy.

It is the identification with Yale University that made the headlines.

The institution itself has a right to insist that its name shall be respected and that, while members of the faculty may say anything they like as individual citizens, they should not, in their public utterances on political issues, identify themselves with the university.

Bob Considine Says:

What's Behind Warmth Between U.S., Russia?

NEW YORK — Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson took with him to Moscow, as he resumed as our man there, a special message to the Soviet hierarchy from President Johnson. He made it clear that it was a friendly message.

CONSIDINE

A Soviet ship in the Gulf of Tonkin sent a cordial Christmas greeting to a passing American warship.

A flier on the carrier Kitty Hawk told us recently that he and other U. S. airmen always wave to the deck crews of Russian tankers, supplying North Vietnam with vital fuel. The Russians wave back.

One of these days, pretty soon, Pan Am and Aeroflot will begin round-trip air service between New York and Moscow.

The Russians have told us quietly that they are sorry they pulled out of that California track meet and they'll be seeing us at Mexico City for the '68 Olympics, if not before.

Another symbol of the changing times, and the new footsiness, was the appearance the other night on the Merv Griffin television variety show of the permanent representative of the U.S.S.R. to the United Nations, Ambassador Nicoli T. Fedorenko.

It all adds up. We're friends, the Russians and the Americans. We're pals for the first time in many years.

What's up, Sam?

What's up, Ivan?

Let the rest of us in on it. Is it as simple as the sudden realization that we have a menacing foe in common — Mao Tse-tung?

Or have we entered into that realm of peaceful coexistence which Khrushchev used to say was possible.

Are there formal agreements to lay off the rough stuff?

How is it that the Russians, while continuing to brand us as beasts for bombing North Vietnam, never get around to beefing about the Russian technicians we have certainly killed during strikes at SAM sites?

Why has Russia risked its position as "first among equals" in the Communist world by not helping Communist Hanoi as actively as the U. S. has helped more or less dictatorial Saigon?

What, if anything, have we promised to do in return for this reluctance on the part of the Kremlin? More trade with the Soviet bloc? A let-up on the pressure of the noose we have around Cuba?

Perhaps we should be grateful that this tacit peace between the two greatest powers is here, present, and in operation, and not ask too many questions about it.

Powell Called to Account by New Congress

The PRESS heartily concurs with action taken by the new Congress in voting 364 to 64 to deny ADAM CLAYTON POWELL his House seat until a special committee passes on his fitness to fill it.

★ ★ ★

POWELL'S long indifference to the responsibilities of his office, his legal embroilment related to an unsatisfied court judgment against him, his apparently flagrant abuse of expense account privilege and his open flouting of moral convention combine to cast serious doubt on his right to serve as one of the Nation's lawmakers.

No better indication of his unfitness to serve as a Congressman is needed than his exhortation to a group of followers after he was denied his seat to "stop paying taxes" in protest of the congressional action taken.

Certainly one of the first obligations of an elected official and a necessary qualification for holding office is to set an example of good citizenship. POWELL has failed to do so.

Mixed Bag of Vietnam Ideas

BY JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Eight men in public life, giving their views on how to handle the war in Vietnam, produced a hodge-podge.

MARLOW

But, at least it gave an insight into the lonely job of President Johnson who must make the decisions.

The most indisputable fact of the war so far is that Johnson, criticized no matter what he does, can't please everyone if only because, it seems, everyone has his own ideas on what should be done.

The eight men demonstrated it over the weekend: six Republican senators, one Democratic senator, and Michigan's Republican governor, George Romney.

All, except Romney, had their say on television and radio.

★ ★ ★

Romney said he wonders if there hasn't been too much Ameriean reliance on bombing North Vietnam in an effort to destroy enemy supplies.

NO EXPLANATION

But he didn't explain what he would have done to do better.

Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, one of the Democratic leaders in the Senate, urged that the United States "bear down" harder to win the war.

For example, by intensifying and expanding the bombing.

★ ★ ★

But the Republicans' Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen, expressed misgiving about another part of the struggle with the North Vietnamese Communists.

NO OPPOSITION

Dirksen didn't oppose the bombing but questioned whether the Johnson administration is prepared for an end to the fighting.

He said it would be surrender to let the Vieteong take part in the peace talks.

But it was on another show that viewers had a chance to see how thoroughly views on the war can get mixed up.

On this program, five newly elected Republican senators were asked what they thought.

A QUESTION

One of them, Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, said the bombing has been unsuccessful "so I ask the question, why continue it?"

Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts was less emphatic, sounded more undecided.

He called for a reevaluation of the bombing policy. He said he would stop the bombing if it would bring peace but said, "I favor reevaluation."

★ ★ ★

But the Johnson administration already has expressed willingness to end the bombing, provided the North Vietnamese first give some solid indication to slow the fighting.

This was the view held by the other three Republican senators: Charles H. Percy of Illinois; Dirksen's son-in-law, Howard H. Baker, Jr., of Tennessee; and Clifford P. Hansen of Wyoming.

★ ★ ★

Percy pretty much expressed the views of the other two.

In Washington:

Rising Budget Is Grim Reality

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If President Johnson sticks to his preliminary 1968 budget estimate of $135 billion, then federal expenditures will have risen $100 billion in just 20 years.

BIOSSAT

Harry Truman's fiscal 1948 budget was $33 billion. Since then it has bounded upward by small and large leaps, in all but four of the intervening years.

The first Korean war budget sent federal outlays soaring $21.3 billion. That was the highest single post-World War II boost until we got into the thick of the Vietnam struggle.

Johnson now says he may just shave that figure in the current fiscal year, with a projected increase of $20.3 billion.

Against the uncertain backdrop of this war, it has to be guessed that this estimated increase may prove conservative. A rise of $25 billion in fiscal 1968 is within the probabilities.

Congress may be cool to the President's tax increase proposals, but it may be working against increasingly harsh realities.

Deficits have been running higher through most of the 1960's. In five of the last six years, the red ink has annually added up to $6 billion or more. This current year the deficit likely will exceed $10 billion, despite Johnson's marked-down estimate of $9.7 billion. In any event, the total will be the greatest since the Eisenhower recession figure of $12.4 billion in fiscal 1959.

The lawmakers may not be able to duck out on this problem, no matter what smokescreens they throw up about the "damaging effects on the economy" of an across-the-board tax boost. Favorable business reaction to the President's proposals suggests, furthermore, that Congress may be misjudging the responses.

In the light of recent events, Johnson's little charade of two and three years ago, keeping the budget under the magic $100 billion mark, now looks ludicrous. Totals a third again as high are talked of almost routinely.

Yet the task of getting up the money gets harder all the time. Johnson feels safe, obviously, in asking for a tax hike which would wipe out only part of the tax cut granted the nation by Congress in 1964. Like Truman in 1950-51, he might even come back next year and ask for more — on the ground he is just balancing things out.

★ ★ ★

A Congress that resists such increases will have to live uncomfortably in the next two years, staring at a mountain of unpaid federal bills.

But if the lawmakers seem on the one hand to be shunning reality, they may on the other be sensing the approach of a crucial turn in U.S. fiscal history.

The nation's tax load, overall, is nearing the unbearable level. Lawmakers and governing executives are compelled in the end to be realistic about the need for money. They are growing impatient, however, with educators, social specialists and others (protected in every case from the voters' wrath) who tell them they must get up more and more and more.

Johnson's State of the Union message spoke, as politicians often do these days, of improving the "quality of life" in America. But running through it was an unmistakable theme — that, war or no war, money alone will not do the job ahead; that new devices of administration, of governmental partnership, of extracting value from the dollar are required.

In his frank discussion of these necessities, the President seemed to be saying that the day may soon be gone when betterment is equated largely with the spending of money.

Consumers Power Reports to Your Community...

The many hats of...

Consumers Power Company

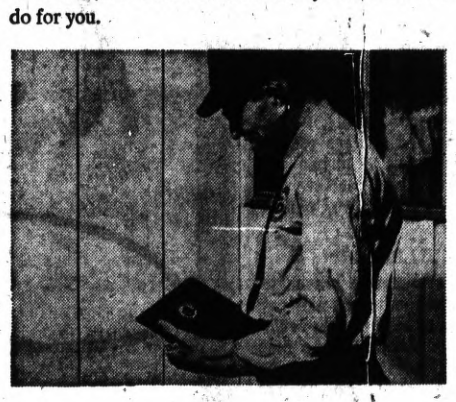

CP - Careful Planning

Count all the uses of natural gas in your home—cooking, drying, cooling, and heating—and you'll realize that you do enjoy life more because of it. Fact is, the average Consumers Power customer is paying only slightly more per unit today for his gas service than he did way back in 1947. Any way you look at it, this hatful of value from Consumers Power is one of the biggest bargains in your family budget.

CP-Customer-minded Personnel

New tools and techniques constantly are being employed to improve customer service and safety. Pliable plastic-coated gas pipes now can be inserted into the ground without messy trenching. Electronic computers are being used to speed customer inquiries and requests for service. Other computer developments will enable us to monitor our entire, statewide natural gas transmission system every two minutes, to avoid service interruptions or irregularities. For at Consumers Power, our first concern is always what we can do for you.

CP-Community Participation

Taxes, payrolls . . . however you figure it . . . Consumers power expansions mean more money in circulation . . . more natural gas for a growing Michigan. Our 1965 state and local tax bill of more than $22 million helped support the activities of schools, hospitals, and other public services. And $80 million in payroll dollars went for houses, food, clothing, charities, etc. Consumers Power, through extensive area development, conservation and other programs, also continually seeks needed improvements for a better economic, social, and cultural life for all.

CP-Continuing Progress

It means a lot to know that natural gas is on tap whenever it's required. It takes the combined skills and efforts of some 3,970 Consumers Power employees to provide that dependability. And to insure sufficient gas to meet all future requirements, the total volume of gas being purchased by Consumers Power is being increased 50% in the next five years. ABANDONED CHILDREN — Two children stand in tall grass before a South Vietnamese ranger after emerging from a bunker in the Long Toan district of the Mekong Delta, 80 miles south of Saigon. The children were left behind by their parents as the rangers approached the Vietcong complex last weekend.

AP Wirephoto

OX CART SWALLOWED UP — A South Vietnamese ox cart is loaded into the hold of a U.S. Army Chinook helicopter near the village of Ben Suc in the Iron Triangle 30 miles northwest of Saigon. About 3,800 people and their belongings are being evacuated to isolate them from the Vietcong during allied operations in the zone.

Viet Vote Near, Politics Stirring

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Party politics are stirring anew in Vietnam in preparation for civilian elections promised for later this year.

A new constitution is scheduled to be completed by March 27. Village and hamlet elections are expected in May or June. National elections are supposed to take place within six months after the constitution goes into effect, probably in November or December.

★ ★ ★

There is political ferment at the top in Saigon in Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's war cabinet, in the Constituent Assembly which is writing the constitution, in the Army-People's Council, an advisory body, and among old-line politicians who hold no office.

Politicking is also reported at the rice roots, especially in the five northernmost provinces which include the cities of Hue and Da Nang.

'TICKET BALANCING'

Political observers are already "ticket balancing" — speculating over possible candidates for president and vice president. Some feel the best accommodation for these offices would be a military man and a civilian, one from the north and the other from South Vietnam.

One possible combination, sources said, is Constituent Assembly Chairman Phan Khac Suu and the present premier, Air Vice Marshal Ky. Suu was chief of state in previous regimes in the past three years and is a southerner. Ky is a refugee from what is now North Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

The draft constitution blends American presidential government with the British parliamentary system. In practice it will most closely resemble the Korean or French forms of government.

The president and vice president are to be elected. An estimated six million persons over 18 are eligible to vote. A National Assembly is to be elected several weeks after the president and vice president.

★ ★ ★

The Cabinet is to be selected by the president, but individual ministers can be unseated by a simple majority vote in the lower house of the assembly. The Cabinet could be turned out by a two-thirds majority.

"repent" me?

The world around us is always changing, and so are we. It's the only way we can progress. That basically is what "repent" means — to change our thinking, for the better. At the deepest level, it's a spiritual liberating process, impelling man towards his divine destiny. Hear this public lecture, "Why Not Change Your Thinking?" by ROY J. LINNIG, a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

READY FOR '68—A spectator at the marathon inaugural parade for Gov. RESTING HIS 'FEET' — Pedestrians at Sixth and Race streets in downtown Cincinnati were amused yesterday as an unidentified street cleaner tugged his cart along. What caused the second look was his extra "feet," a pair of galoshes hung on the cart supports. He probably heard that a blizzard in the West was headed this way.

Fire Victim Gets Big Letter

Add the names of President and Mrs. Johnson to the list of those cheering Dennis McDowell on to recovery.

The 7-year-old boy, who has spent nearly a quarter of his life in Pontiac General Hospital, recently received a letter and autographed picture from the chief executive.

Dennis has been under treatment at the hospital since Jan. 22, 1965, when he was seriously injured in a fire which destroyed his Commerce Township home and took the lives of his sister, a brother and their uncle.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDowell, now live at 43 Lyford, Waterford Township, with their two other children.

★ ★ ★

In his letter, President Johnson referred to Dennis as "one of the spunkiest young men in our entire country."

NUMEROUS OPERATIONS

Dennis, who will celebrate his eighth birthday, Feb. 9, has undergone numerous operations and twice-daily physical therapy sessions to heal the burns which covered 70 per cent of his body.

"Because of all that you have been through, Dennis, you are a bit older and wiser than most of up in appreciation of the gift of life itself," Johnson wrote. "So we look up to you as an inspiration for our own days on this good earth.

"You have many, many people cheering you on. Mrs. Johnson and I are among them."

★ ★ ★

The President said he had learned about Dennis "through some of your close friends."

30 Children Rescued From Stranded Bus

CHOKIO, Minn. (AP) — The folks in tiny Chokio were talking today of how six handy, weatherwise men helped lead a bulldozer plow to the rescue of 30 children stranded on a school bus.

It happened Monday when a bus driven by Clayton Kolling set out at 9:30 a.m. from this western Minnesota community. A vicious blizzard had whipped in, and Kolling hoped to get the kids back home before the farm roads were blocked with drifts.

★ ★ ★

About three miles out of town the big vehicle skidded into a snow-filled ditch. Kolling walked a half-mile to a farmhouse and telephoned school Supt. Burton Nypen, then returned to the bus with blankets for the youngsters, ranging from first-graders to high school pupils.

Early efforts by two plows to push through to the bus had to be abandoned. Finally, a band of determined citizens rounded up a bulldozer, a mobile telephone truck and another bus, equipped with a stove, blankets and food.

LEAD BULLDOZER

The six men who braved the storm marched along the road 3½ miles to keep the big vehicle on course. About 5 p.m., more than five hours after heat gave out in the stranded bus, the rescue caravan reached it.

The boys and girls had huddled together to keep warm as temperatures skidded to 10 below outside.

Junior Editors Quiz on CLOUDS

QUESTION: Why are there different kinds of clouds?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The air always contains some water in the form of tiny droplets of water vapor. On a clear day, these are invisible. But if the air is cooled to a certain extent, these droplets condense or become visible—becoming clouds.

There are 10 main types of clouds, caused by different conditions of temperature and wind. We haven't space to list them all, but a good way to get acquainted with them is to learn about the four kinds we show, for the others are combinations of these.

Cirrus are feathery wispy clouds very high in the sky. They are composed of ice crystals; wind often follows their appearance. Cumulus clouds, puffy shaped like cauliflowers, often drift lazily across the summer sky, and are signs of good weather. When they gather and pile up high into thunderheads, however, watch out — a thunderstorm or squall may be on the way. Stratus is low and sheet-like; it is like fog. When this becomes nimbostratus, however, which look darker, with rain streaks coming down, it's best to head for home. Rain may come, with strong wind as well.

Dems Left at Gate in Race for Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional Republicans are off and running in fund-raising for the 1968 campaign, but Democrats are waiting to see what trends Congress takes before starting their drive.

Sen. George Murphy of California, newly elected chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, said he is beginning to deploy GOP "fresh faces" across the country for what he hopes will be an uninterrupted appeal for votes up to election day next year.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, chairman of Democratic senatorial campaigners, took the position in a separate interview that it's too early to get excited about an election so far away.

Under the party custom, Magnuson must be replaced as chairman because his own seat is at stake in 1968. But he said Democrats decided to postpone any decision on a successor "until things shake down."

CAMPAIGN COSTS

Reports to the clerk of the House show that Magnuson's committee spent little more than half what its counterpart GOP group spent in the 1966 campaign: Democrats $356,457, Republicans $639,640.

Murphy said congressional Republicans are staging a $500-a-plate March dinner in Washington to honor the party's new members of the House and Senate. Magnuson said Democratic dinners are only in the preliminary planning stage.

★ ★ ★

Most of the GOP dinner money will be spent nationally. Murphy said the five new GOP senators elected last November and the 11 whose seats will be at stake next year will be asked to fill speaking engagements at fund-raising dinners across the country.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois took on such an assignment Monday night when he told a Republican "victory" dinner in Harrisburg, Pa., that Congress should not abandon humanitarian programs by escalation of the Vietnam war in search of "total victory."

2 Tax Tables Serve as Deduction Aids

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Deductible taxes on your income tax return generally include real estate taxes, state and local gasoline taxes, state and local income taxes and personal property taxes.

The instructions mailed with your income tax blanks by Internal Revenue include tables for determining the sales tax and gasoline tax allowances.

The sales tax chart allowance is based upon income and the number in your family.

If you can prove you paid more sales tax than the chart allowance, claim the higher figure.

★ ★ ★

RESERVE ACCOUNT

Real estate taxes are deductible in the year paid. This does not necessarily mean the total of real estate taxes collected on your monthly mortgage payment.

Your bank, savings and loan or mortgage firm put such payments into a reserve account to guarantee payment when taxes became due.

They should be able to tell you the exact amount of real estate taxes they paid for you in 1966.

You may also deduct interest charges paid on debts for which you were legally responsible.

INTEREST PORTION

However, if you made a mortgage payment on your daughter's home you could not deduct the interest portion of the payment.

Deductible interest generally includes interest paid on a home mortgage, home improvement loan, personal loans from banks and credit unions, auto purchase loans and installment purchases.

So-called "point" paid on the purchase or sale of property do not constitute deductible interest. The purchaser adds this charge to the cost basis of his home. The seller uses it as a selling-expense item.

★ ★ ★

To arrive at the hidden interest on installment purchases total the unpaid balance on the first of each month, divide by 12 to get the average unpaid monthly balance and multiply by 6 per cent to get the allowable interest deduction.

NEXT: The "other deductions."

AT HOME AT SCHOOL — Susie, a mixed pointer and spaniel who can neither read nor write and who sleeps through most classes, has the run of Adams School in Stockton, Calif. After attemtps to keep her out resulted in psychological problems for the dog, school officials agreed to allow the dog in.

And Schoolchildren's, Too

This Susie Is the Teacher's Pet

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—If you knew Susie, as the Adams School third-graders know Susie, you'd know this: No one loves school more than Susie.

A canny old canine, Susie knows what she wants. That is to spend her days with Mrs. Stewart Brown's third-graders in class and on the playground.

★ ★ ★

Susie is an 18-year-old mixed pointer and spaniel. Three years ago the Bennie Mendoza family, Susie's owners, feared she was a bother at the school. They tried to keep her locked up in the back yard.

Susie developed such a case of shudders and shakes that the Mendozas pushed her to a vet. He diagnosed a severe case of nerves and a heart condition.

BACK TO SCHOOL

The Mendozas gave up. Susie went back to school.

She adopted the third grade. No one knows why. None of the Mendoza children has been in this grade.

Susie leaves home early, arriving at school about 7:45 a.m. When school is dismissed, Susie goes home for dinner.

★ ★ ★

She loves fire drills. At the sound of the bell she takes off like a pup.

She spends noontime lunch breaks in the faculty lounge where teachers have provided her with a small couch.

They also have posted Susie's picture in the panel displaying pictures of all the teachers.

If you knew Susie, you'd know she has it made.

'Mouse Roars' at Utica High

By SUE OWEN

Utica High School's all-school play, "The Mouse That Roared" was recently presented.

Due to illness, James Hagle (Prof. Kokintz) had to be replaced by director Perry Mallette. Kay Vanderhoff of the faculty was producer.

Student Council is adopting public relations plans so that the student body can be better informed about the council's work through the use of the public address system.

An activities committee is now working primarily on next year's calendar of events.

A "watchdog" committee will soon require charters, rosters and tentative plans from all clubs connected with Utica High School.

Only those providing this information will be recognized and considered by the activities committee in the '67-'68 calendar of events.

Student Council representatives stress that students don't get all the activities because the council doesn't know their ideas. A good council needs and thrives on the ideas and support of the student body.

Kettering Will Aid Tanzanians

By JUDY FRANCIS

Students at Waterford Kettering High School will launch their second schoolwide project this week.

This project was started by the Peace Corps to build a school in a Tanzanian community where no educational facilities are available.

WKHS must raise $750 to buy the building materials for the school. Construction will be done gratis by members of the community.

The Peace Corps will find a teacher, obtain land and secure enough interest in the community to build the school.

Although the minimum amount to be raised is $750, the more money Kettering can collect the bigger the school which will be built.

The WKHS play production class is readying "Alice In Wonderland" for presentation at elementary schools during January and February.

Cast for the play will be Shirley Pachoud, Alice; Carmen Hirneisen, the Cat; Rodney Reinhart, the Gryphon; Sue Graham, the Mad Hatter; Mike Wall, the Knave of Hearts; Gary Biron, King of Hearts and Ellen Kaul, the White Rabbit.

Also included will be; Jenny Mobley, the Queen; Brenda Cook, the Duchess; Sue Wade, the Mock Turtle; Carol Biron, Margaret; Rosemary Smiley the Hare; Janice Coryell, the Dormouse; and Dianne Chapel, the narrator.

Students deserving special recognition are Ed Gallety, for designing a portable set, and Rose Appeling, for posters.

Elementary schools interested in seeing the production are asked to choose a date and time that would be most convenient for them and call Kettering High School to make a reservation.

The play will take no longer than one hour and it will be necessary to charge 25 cents per person admission to cover royalty charges. All that is needed to present this performance at a school is a large room or lobby.

SCHOOL NEWS ROUNDUP

Brother Rice

By GARY MILLER

A Brother Rice exchange student Edward Sanchez will return home Saturday.

Home for Eddie is Mexico City which he left shortly after Thanksgiving for the United States.

During his stay, Eddie became a full-fledged junior and went to all classes, trying to learn as much as he could.

Just like a regular junior, his school life didn't end with the last period of each day. He went to parties, dances and other functions.

While here, he has stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs .Carl Hoffman of 20159 Cobblestone, Birmingham.

PARTING COMMENTS

In commenting on his stay, Eddie said he would like to come back. He also said he like American education methods and has learned a lot about the United States and its ways.

Later this month members of Project '67 will go to the St. Francis orphanage and set up intramural sports. This will give the children their first chance of competing in organized sports.

Project '67 workers also go into the inner city every Saturday morning to tutor boys who need help in their studies. They also cleaned and painted a house in Detroit for a group of people who help dope addicts.

Semester exams at Brother Rice are Monday through Thursday. Friday will be a holiday.

Two seniors, Jon Pavloff and Richard Bosley, were recently selected as Cranbrook School's candidates for the John Motley Morehead Scholarship at the University of North Carolina.

Each year the University accepts two nominations from the Senior class of each participating school. There are over 50 schools involved in this scholarship program.

In March, candidates will take an all-expense-paid trip to the University at Chapel Hill. At that time they will tour the University and be interviewed by the Admissions officers.

If a nominee is certified, he will receive a scholarship which covers his tuition, food, room, laundry, books, travel and pocket money.

Christine DeArk, a senior at Adelphian Academy, who resides at 15393 Fishlake, Rose Township; has been named the Academy's Co-ed correspondent for the 1966-67 school year.

Christine was appointed by Mrs. Anita Spalding, home economics teacher, because of the enthusiasm and leadership she has shown in home economics class.

Christine and approximately 4,000 other Co-ed correspondents throughout the United States and Canada will report regularly about campus fashions and events at their schools.

An honor student, Christine is active in the Adelphian band, school newspaper, and Temperance Society.

Kingswood

By CATHY SHINNICK

This is the second year of Kingswood's Dramatic Club

AMARD, and for next semester more girls are clamoring to join the 50 eager members.

President Kathy McLaughlin is hoping that each girl will get a chance to take part in the activity she prefers, whether it's acting, directing, makeup, or all three.

If a girl would rather sit back and learn something without taking part, she should appreciate Becky Minneg's earnest efforts to provide guest speakers.

In the future, AMARD will be hearing from Candy Ceder, sister of Chris Ceder here at Kingswood, who participated in Cranbrook's Summer Theater and learned a great deal about makeup.

★ ★ ★

Meetings are held after school every other Wednesday and rehearsals take place all through the week until a Wednesday is picked for the performance.

Kingswood has its own stock of costumes and scenery, making the plays already seen such as "She Stoops to Conquer" "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet," and "Christmas Incorporated," surprisingly professional.

Plays to be seen in the future are "The Lottery," and "Jazz and Minuet". April 21, an evening performance of three favorite plays will be presented.

Marian

By PATRICIA POLMEAR

Marian High School's Future Teachers Club officers are Anne O'Brien, president; Sharon Sobotka, vice president; Susan Slavin, secretary; and Susan Cooper, treasurer. All are seniors.

Sister M. Veronita, I.H.M., is moderator for the club which is open to juniors and seniors.

The purpose is to provide an opportunity for study and practical experience to students who are considering education as a career.

The meetings are held the third Tuesday of the month.

Officers and moderator are presently writing the club's constitution.

"Judging will be based on originality and quality," states senior Joan Dorsch, club president.

Cash prizes will be awarded the best entries.

The Spanish Club at Marian held its annual initiation Jan. 12.

Each membership candidate was required to perform a feat of "great skill or knowledge" before acceptance.

Following inductions, refreshments were served and the movie "Antonio," the story of a young Mexican boy, was shown.

St. Lawrence

By JAMES PAKLEDINAZ

This is the week before exams at St. Lawrence High School and the students can feel it.

The end of semester tests have students' minds occupied with thoughts of past classes.

Most classes are reviewing because of the importance of these tests. Which are especially important to government students whose final grades could be the difference between failing and passing.

"Two meetings a week for the yearbook staff hardly seems enough," remarked one writer for the yearbook.

The closing of the semester will mean more work and less time for the staff.

Though the staff claims the yearbook is coming along fine, it admits there is still plenty of work to be done.

A TB skin test was held Monday for the freshman class.

Seaholm Ski Devotees Plan Excursions

By HOLLY ALFS

Skiing is rapidly becoming one of the most popular winter sports at Seaholm.

At least once each week after school the Schusmasters, the school ski club, sends a bus load of skiers to the local hills. About once each month the ski club plans a big ski weekend in northern Michigan.

The Girls' Athletic Association also has ski enthusiasts.

A three day ski trip is planned for this weekend. The girls will lodge at Camp Thunderbird near Cadillac.

Vivian Ross, a member of GAA, made all arrangements for the trip. A. A. Winchell is GAA adviser. She will accompany the girls, along with other teachers.

Seaholm's publications department is putting out another Bairn, the pictorial magazine supplement to the paper in about two weeks. Like the last Bairn, it will be 16 pages long, mostly pictures.

This magazine will be devoted to Teen-age Recreation, including the Birmingham-Bloomfield Teen Center, bands with at least one member attending Seaholm, folk singing groups and others.

The last Bairn sold over 1,400 copies and it is estimated that the second edition should be just as high if not higher. Cory Beneker and Barb Darling are editors of the Bairn this year.

Seaholm High School is having quite a few problems in its cafeteria lately. It seems the students do not know how to behave. Food has been thrown on the floor, trays left on tables, and general confusion.

Teachers have come to the Student Congress and members of Senate asking their help in solving this problem. A cafeteria patrol will be established to help keep order.

It has been proposed that each homeroom in turn shall be scheduled for "cafeteria duty."

It would be competitive to see which homeroom could do the best job in the lunch room.

This experimental system will probably go into effect in the near future.

Student Congress elections are under way. Friday was the two-party system convention when candidates were nominated, kicking off the campaigns.

This Friday will be election day and the officers for the second semester Student Congress will be elected.

Seaholm High School is helping the Peace Corps by trying to raise money to build a much needed school in Tanzania.

Jay McAullife and Amby Burliegh, both members of Student Congress are campaigning for this cause.

Last week they asked the different clubs to donate American Field Service and Youth for Understanding each contributed $100. The Birmingham United Nations (BUNA) and Student Congress also contributed $100 each.

This brings the grand total up to $400 to start off the campaign. Homerooms will have individual projects to raise additional money.

AFS-YFU is again having a school-wide candy sale to raise money to have foreign students attend Seaholm next fall.

Last year the Heath Candy Company had the order and students raised $4,800 for the organization.

COMPETITIVE

Both companies will come to the school and present their product in front of representatives from each homeroom who will vote on which company to hire.

AFS-YFU will have a chapter meeting Thursday honoring Scandinavian countries. All returnees, students who went abroad on either program last year, and students applying to go this year, will attend along with the chapter members.

Students who lived in Norway, Denmark or Sweden for the summer will each show favorite slides.

★ ★ ★

Food native to those countries will be served. This gives the students an opportunity to share their experiences and helps those planning to go abroad this summer to know what to expect.

Philippines Guest Talks at Rochester

By KARIN HEADLEE

"My country is a bit behind on dating," said Nora Magpale before a Student Council-sponsored assembly Jan. 10 at Rochester High School.

Nora, a foreign exchange student from the Philippines, was sent to RHS by the American Field Service.

In describing the school system of her homeland, she said education consists of six years of elementary school and four years of high school.

Subjects are required, not elective, except for three classes taught in the third and fourth years of high school.

School begins at 7:30 a.m. with lunch recess at 11:30 p.m. It reconvenes at 1:30 p.m. and lasts until 5 p.m.

While dating is not as informal or begun as early in the Philippines, it does exist. The teenagers have parties but socialize in groups with chaperons.

Dating as we know it begins in college.

The Youth Fellowship Service, better known as the "Syndicate," recently elected Jim Ball, president, Mike Monaghon vice-president, Kathy Nowicki secretary and Georgia Collins treasurer.

The senior adviser is Laurey Kesel and Gary Campbell is the basketball representative.

According to Craig, "The club is designed to promote school spirit." Clifford Lilly serves as club sponsor.

Exam schedules have been issued in the Romeo schools. Exams will take place on Jan. 24-25. School will be dismissed at 3 p.m. on each of these days. There will be a vacation Jan. 26 and 27.

Shop Meets Needs at Clarkston High

By LINDA HEATH

Students at Clarkston High School need not waste valuable time running to the nearest store in town for all their school needs.

School necessities are available right in the high school's own store, the Wolves' Den.

Besides supplying a complete line of school necessities, such as paper, pencils, etc., the Wolves' Den carries the latest styles in jackets, sweaters and sweat shirts.

The Den is under the direction of the business department and department head Roger Thompson.

★ ★ ★

Operation of the Den is open to juniors on a business curriculum. They are required to take one semester each of retailing and salesmanship to obtain the necessary background for working in the school store.

BUSINESS KNOW-HOW

In this position, students gain actual business experience. Various duties include dealing with customers, following a work schedule, building display and store decorations, buying for the store, advertising and learning the operation of a cash register.

The majority of these students go into the senior co-op program, which gives them on-the-job training in the community.

Tryouts for the play, "Tea House of the August Moon," were held last week.

★ ★ ★

Leading roles are held by Paul Taylor, Mark Hood, Mark Taylor, Hugh Rose, Diane Lundy, Stewart Moore, Chris Quinlan, Scott Embrey and Mark Adams.

OTHER MEMBERS

Other cast members include Mary Sellows, Carol Taylor, Dawn Evely, Georgia Saylor, Ann Miller, Kathy Cummings, Tim Wall, Tom Wilford, Jack Sansom, Terry Dutcher, Chris Rose, Neil Stalker and Lady Astor, a goat.

A play night, sponsored by the freshman class, will be held Wednesday in the gym. It will be from 7-9 p.m.

Organizers of the event are freshman class officers David Lepere, president; Jane Richard, vice president; Carla Dutcher, treasurer; and Anne McGrew, secretary.

Advisers are Harold Webster and Paul Tungate, members of the faculty.

SOFT SELL — What Charles Boggs of 6265 Clarkston-Orion, Independence Township, is going to do with all the locks is anybody's guess but Clarkston High School business student Rosanna Ragatz of 9930 M15, Clarkston, is delighted with the success of her salesmanship. The in-school store, the Wolves' Den, is operated under the direction of the business department and Roger Thompson, department head.

Concert to Benefit OU Music School

Monday was rally day for all committee members for the special Detroit Symphony concert to benefit Oakland University's Meadow Brook School of Music scholarship fund.

The event, scheduled for Feb. 12, at 3:30 p.m., in Ford Auditorium, will show-case the potent forces which have been assembled to create the nation's newest and most refreshing concept in music study.

MAESTRO CONDUCTS

The concert, which Sixten Ehrling will conduct, features the 150-voice Oakland University Chorus trained by John Dovaras, and violinist Eugene Fodor, phenomenal 16-year-old talent who emerged from last summer's Meadow Brook session.

PROGRAM

The program will include Carlos Swinack's "Melorhythmic Dramas," a work commissioned by the Meadow Brook Festival committee for world premiere last summer.

Also to be presented are Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 4, Brahms' "Song of Fate" for Chorus and Orchestra, and Wieniawski's Violin Concerto No. 2.

★ ★ ★

To make sure this is one of the musical triumphs of the year, more than 100 committee members met Monday for a tea in the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. H. S. McFarland to spearhead ticket sales.

Highlight of the tea was a preview program of a capella works by 12 members of the OU Chorus under the direction of Dovaras.

Chairman of the special concert is Mrs. Vernon L. Venman. Key chairmen are Mesdames John K. Bagby, Russell Nowels, Harry Taylor, H. Glenn Shutes, Duncan Augustine, I. W. Robertson, Mark Van Wagoner, Ralph Curtis, Eugene Albright, Dorothy Roosevelt, Teruko Yamasaki, Franklin Read, and Frederick Betz.

Tickets are also available from the Festival Office, Oakland University.

The engagement is announced of Pamela Jo Whipple, daughter of Mrs. Merle R. Whipple of Birmingham and the late Mr. Whipple, to Leonard Theodore Lewis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis of Birmingham. She is an Olivet College sophomore.

Offer Them Negatives for Prints

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My parents recently observed their golden wedding anniversary. Their four childrened traveled considerable distances, and hosted a nice occasion for quite a number of our parents' friends. Photographs were taken and colored proofs are now ready.

We had some overall candid shots of the group, which came out very well. None of us is in a position to have photos made to give everyone, yet, since most of the guests are mutual friends and the photos are so good, I feel that many of them might like an opportunity to order prints. Is there some way to offer this opportunity, with propriety? I hope you can give your reply soon. Thank you very much. — Loretta L.

Dear Loretta: No one could possibly expect you to give prints to all the guests. There is no impropriety in offering to lend the negatives to those who see, and would like to order, duplicates. Have your parents tell their friends, and mention it to those you see yourself.

My husband and I have done this frequently, after having a set of the best prints made as a gift for the guests of honor.

"So You're Planning to Give a Shower" a new booklet by Elizabeth L. Post tells you everything you need to know — for a bridal shower, a welcome party for a new neighbor, the local minister or anyone else.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Adult Responsibilities Scare This Juvenile 'Swell Guy'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last summer I fell in love with a swell guy. He was on leave (I thought) from the service, but he seemed to be staying around for an awfully long time. Then it turned out he was A.W.O.L. I told him if he didn't go right back we were through. He went back and faced the ordeal which wasn't as bad as I had expected for being A.W.O.L. for 58 days.

ABBY

To make a long story short, five days after he squared himself for the first A.W.O.L., he went A.W.O.L. again and now he is in the stockade at Fort Bragg, N.C. I understand he will be there for quite a while.

We planned on getting married as soon as he gets out of service, Abby. My problem is, should I go through with those plans? He is really a swell guy.

GOING TO PIECES

DEAR GOING: Wait until this "swell guy" gets out of the stockade, out of service, and into civilian life again and then take a good, hard look at him. You have plenty of time before making a decision.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: On Thanksgiving day you published your favorite blessing to be said before meals. It was the most meaningful "grace" I have ever read, so I clipped it and said it before our Thanksgiving dinner. All of our guests agreed that it was wonderful, and they asked for a copy. A question arose, however, about which there was a difference of opinion.

In the line, "May these remembrances STILL us to service," Abby, by "still us" did you mean to "instill in us"? Or did you mean "steel," to make hard or resolute? Thank you.

BOSTON FAN

DEAR BOSTON: Neither. It was a typographical error. The line should have read, "May these remembrances STIR us to service, that thy gifts to us may be used for others. Amen."

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: You will never know what marvelous relief and fond memories were revived when I read about the bride who received a silver candle snuffer and wrote to thank the giver for "the darling little gravy dipper."

When my husband and I were married, he was a struggling medical student who worked after school for a distinguished radiologist. For our wedding gift, this man and his wife sent us an elegant sterling silver angel food cake slicer and server.

Being unaccustomed to such luxurious items, neither my husband nor I could figure out what this utensil was supposed to be used for. We finally agreed, and I wrote to thank them for the "lovely meat tenderizing tool."

Many months later, to my horror and humiliation, I saw a similar "meat tenderizing tool" being used to serve cake at a Christmas party. The lovely lady never mentioned my faux pas, and I hopefully told myself that she probably thought I got my gift cards mixed up when I wrote my thank-you notes.

FULLERTON

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a mother who would entertain her sewing club by reading them the letters her son received from his girlfriend? The son was away fighting a war at the time, and girlfriend happened to be MY DAUGHTER!

When I heard this, my blood just boiled. It was back in 1943, but every time I think about it I get upset all over again.

My daughter is married and I don't know what happened to the boy, but I still think that mother had her nerve. Every so often I get the strongest urge to call this woman up and give her a piece of my mind. Should I?

STILL MAD

DEAR STILL: No.

After Punishment Be Honest With Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Children whose parents remain angry at them after punishment grow up to be more anxious than those who are restored to favor after punishment, according to a study reported in a recent issue of Mental Hygiene, quarterly publication of the National Association of Mental Health.

It is a finding that typifies what is so often misleading to us parents in psychological studies.

For, of course, it is not our continuing anger at a child after punishment that makes him anxious. It is the suspense of not knowing whether or not we ever intend to restore him to favor that creates the anxiety — his fear that our permanent isolation from our good will. Such suspense, such fear may indeed have harmful effects on his self-confidence.

But if we tell hm that we intend to recover from our annoyance with him as soon as we can manage it, he is relieved of his suspense. He does not experience destructive anxiety so long as he receives our promise to get done with our anger at him.

Yet these psychologists completely ignore this essential point in coming to their conclusion. So parents reading about this finding could swallow it wholesale and produce a false reconciliation with the child. This dishonesty would be just as confusing, just as disturbing as the prospect of our eternal disfavor.

Sometimes we cannot recover from anger at a child merely because we have punished him. If we love him very much for example, spanking him for running across a traffic-filled street may not be enough to rid us of the resentment we feel at him for afflicting us with terror of his injury or death.

The more we love him, the harder it may be to come up with forgiveness after the spanking. I see no reason whatever for pretending that we have come up with it if we have not. We're entitled to take as much time as we need to recover from our experience of terror.

Taking it, we should say to the child: "You scared me so I can't be nice to you yet. Don't worry about my still being mad at you because I'll get over it after a bit. But I need more time to get over it after such a scare as you gave me."

Mrs. Lawrence welcomes letters from readers but because of the volume of mail she cannot answer all letters personally. Questions of general interest will be discussed in the column.

Bringing Up Baby®

Hints Collected by Mrs. Dan Gerber, Mother of Five

ADVICE ON VISITS

Is your baby old enough to do a bit of visiting? When you and baby go calling, it's sometimes a bit of a problem to keep your cherub contentedly occupied in unfamiliar surroundings. One happy solution: a toy kit used only for that purpose. Secret is to choose a few toys baby hasn't played with for a while. In the joy of rediscovery, he's apt to forget the fact that he's not in his own home.

Happy mealtime hints. Mealtimes are usually "looking-forward-to-times" when you serve a variety of Gerber Strained Foods to keep menus interesting. (Variety is desirable, too, to give baby the many different nutrients he needs.) Like all Gerber Baby Foods, the strained foods are "custom-cooked" according to their individual requirements to help preserve true colors and flavors... and more important, their natural nutritive values.

Mock Poached Egg

Eye-appeal for toddlers and older children: heat Gerber Junior Carrots and place a spoonful in the center of each mound of mashed potatoes.

Shoe cues. (1) If you've a creeper whose shoes have gotten badly scuffed, try rubbing them with a raw potato before you apply a new coat of nontoxic polish. (2) It's good to have an extra pair of shoelaces on hand when one pair needs washing. (3) Laces should not be tied too tightly. Creepers need room for ankle-flexing.

Pleasure personified. Seconds are usually in order when you treat your baby to Gerber Strained Oatmeal, Rice Cereal or Mixed Cereal with Applesauce and Bananas. The fruit is cooked right with the cereal for a delicate flavor blend. The texture is smooth and wonderfully moist to pamper a delicate palate. As for nutrition, these delicious combination dishes are enriched with important B-vitamins. Gerber® Baby Products, Box 33, Fremont, Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Blood can only be released from the PTA Council Blood Bank by contacting the local PTA president who contacts the Council Chairman and she in turn contacts the Red Cross.

Removes Stains Left by Smoke

The bricks of your fireplace will probably have smoke stains. To remove the stains from them, rub with a paste of two ounces of baking soda, one ounce of powdered pumice stone, and one ounce of salt, mixed with just enough water to form a paste.

★ ★ ★

Allow the paste to remain on the bricks for a few minutes then brush it loose.

Outfits Baby Twice

DEAR POLLY — I find rubber pants are not only useful for putting on baby for the intended purpose but as a bib, too. Just snap a clean pair around the neck and you are set. They cover from the neck to the waist. This saves money as you get two uses out of one pair of pants. — FREIDA

DEAR POLL Y— My boys had more than enough white shirts but were asking for new ones in pastel colors, so I used the washing machine dye that is so easy to use and made them the colors the boys wanted.

In order that the colors would not be too dark, I dyed one pair of white pillowcases with each shirt. These cases are ones I had made from the best parts of worn-out sheets. Now I have happier boys and a prettier linen closet. — MARY V

DEAR POLLY — When I need a small ironing board to iron my little daughter's skirts that were too narrow for the regular board, my husband took the top off the girl's broken play ironing board, attached it to a U-type frame made of two by fours. The narrow skirts with elastic waists are easy to iron on this. — MRS. W. D. S.

DEAR POLLY — Please tell Mrs. C. Z. she can remove the plastic from the glass door of her broiler very easily if she will scrape it off with a razor blade while the door is still warm. — IVA

DEAR POLLY — My mother does a lot of embroidery. When she is ready to start using a new skein of floss, she cuts off about three inches, and loops it through the tube around the skein so if more thread is needed she knows the color and brand to buy. — BARBARA

Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Henricks of Silverbirch Drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Louise, to Frederick Nathaniel Delafosse of West Huron Street, son of Mrs. Howard Andrus of Villa Platte, La. and the late Mr. Ned Delafosse. A June wedding is planned.

Honeymoon in Tennessee for Couple

At home on North Edison Street following their honeymoon in Tennessee are the Julius Bernard Cagles (Jacqueline Louise Woods) who were wed recently in the First Christian Church, Michigan City, Ind.

* * *

Attending the candlelight rite and church reception were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woods of Michigan City and the Howard S. Cagles of Shawnee Lane.

* * *

With her tiered gown of white Chantilly lace and organza over satin, the bride wore an illusion veil. An orchid centered her colonial bouquet of white carnations and Baker's fern.

* * *

Dierdre Osborne was maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Ruth Cagle, was bridesmaid.

* * *

With best man, Rev. James Lemmons were William Minch, groomsman, and the ushers, Chester Beebe and Robert Courington, both of Michigan City who ushered.

* * *

The bride was graduated from Great Lakes Bible College where her husband was a former student.

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

The bidding system used by Benito Garrozzo and Omar Sharif is the Neapolitan Club plus certain variations developed by Garrozzo.

JACOBY

Like many European systems it uses what is known as canape bidding. One bids the shorter of two suits first and the longer one later on.

We cannot see any real advantage to this style of bidding even though it does produce some swings in its favor.

When today's hand was played in the Men's Pairs at the Pittsburgh Nationals, the normal American bidding started with one diamond by South. North responded one spade. Most pairs proceeded to four spades although a couple got al the way to six.

In all instances East made his normal opening lead of the queen of hearts and the defense gathered in the first two tricks.

Omar Sharif opened with the canape bid of one spade. Benito jumped to three spades. Omar showed his real suit by bidding four diamonds. Benito's bid of five clubs was a slam try and Omar's five diamond call was a mild acceptance. With the ace of hearts Omar would have bid five hearts. Without the king of hearts Omar would have signed off at five spades.

Benito needed no more encouragement to contract for the small slam. There was nothing to play. Omar won the first trick with dummy's ace of clubs and drew trumps. Then he discarded dummy's hearts on his long diamonds and conceded one club trick. A real top score because four spades bid and six made would have been just as good at match points.

♥♣ CARD Sense ♠♦

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♦	Pass	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	2 ♣	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q 7 6 5 ♥ 4 3 ♦ K 8 3 2 ♣ 7 6
What do you do?

A—Pass. Your partner's new suit bid after your overcall is not a forcing bid. He merely likes clubs better than spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You pass. West bids two hearts and your partner doubles. What do you do?

Turtle Taker Free on Bond

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — An American who spent the weekend in jail for stealing a turtle is free in $150 appeal bond today.

Mark William Lavelly, 21, of Columbus, Ohio, and an Australian, Joseph E. Cooke, 24, were sentenced to a month in jail. Cooke was trying to raise his bail.

★ ★ ★

The two said they took the turtle as a prank. At the court's order Saturday, the turtle was returned to the tank of a tortoise shell manufacturer from where it was taken.

Award Slated for MSU Prof

EAST LANSING (AP) — A scientist who developed spray techniques to make apple trees bear fruit at an earlier age will receive the Junior Research award of Michian State University's Sigma Xi chapter Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Martin Bukovac, 37, a professor of horticulture, will receive the scientific honorary group's annual award for an outstanding contribution by a scientists under 40. A senior award will be made later.

Bukovac developed the practice of spraying young apple trees to induce flowering and fruiting and pear trees to induce fruit thinning.

★ ★ ★

Spraying some trees which ordinarily do not bear fruit until their eighth year can make them flower and bear fruit as early as the fourth year, he explained.

Three State Men Killed in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department listed three Michigan men Monday among the latest casualties in the Vietnam War.

★ ★ ★

Killed were Sgt. Larry Butgereit, son of Mrs. Helen Butgereit, Benton Harbor; Spec. 4 Lyle Stetten, son of Mr. George Stetten, Adrian; and Pfc. Jerry Dusseau, husband of Mrs. Victoria Dusseau, Blissfield.

China Entry Into War Is Remote---Wheeler

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's top li iymdratdent Johnson's top military adviser is convinced Communist China will not enter the Vietnam war unless the United States attacks the Chinese mainland.

★ ★ ★

Though "a number of people" do not share his view, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler told reporters yesterday, he has "no particular apprehension" that the Chinese will eventually join the war.

Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he thought "it would take an overt action on our part, such as an attack on Communist China itself, to trigger Chinese intervention."

The question of whether China can be expected to stay out of the war lost its academic nature with a report from a French editor that a secret U.S.-Peking understanding existed on Red China's terms for non-intervention.

★ ★ ★

Rene Dabernat, foreign editor of Paris Match magazine, was quoted as saying Red China had promised, in a message conducted to Washington by the French Foreign Ministry, to stay out of the war as long as the United States did not attack China, did not invade North Vietnam and did not bomb the dikes of the Red River in North Vietnam.

ACCEPTED TERMS

According to a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report, Dabernat said the United States accepted the terms through public remarks of special significance to Peking made in various speeches by U.S. officials.

The Red Chinese message reportedly was transmitted last spring.

The White House refused comment on the report, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk denied any secret agreement existed.

★ ★ ★

Rusk, speaking to reporters after a four-hour closed session with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also said "there is no major movement" toward settling the war discernible on North Vietnam's part, either on the diplomatic front or in the reduction of infiltration in the South.

HOSTS — Kenneth J. Cooper (second from (left), principal of Four Towns School, 6370 Cooley Lake, Waterford Township, and teacher Rita Bergsrud (right) play host to Tim Wittenbach of Flat Rock and Dolores Kulsea of Ann Arbor during a visit to the school yesterday by 21 members of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of School Studies. The educators visited Four Towns to observe the merits of the Robert linguistic program, being conducted there on a third through sixth grade level.

Observe New English Program

Educators Visit School in Waterford

A Waterford Township elementary school was the center of attraction for 21 members of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of School Studies yesterday.

The educators visited Four Towns School, 6370 Cooley Lake, to the observe the merits of the Roberts linguistic program — a new approach to the teaching of English.

Four Towns is the only school in the county and one of six in Michigan currently conducting a pilot program in the unique linguistic program for third through sixth grades.

The program is a writing series using transformational grammar and literature in a thorough and sequential manner, said Kenneth J. Cooper, school principal.

Continuity and sequence of instruction develops from one grade to another, noted Cooper. "Selections of good literature—poetry and prose—are used and studied in a definite order of development."

Council members visiting the school yesterday consisted of professional educators from Southeastern Michigan.

The visitation stemmed from a discussion about the linguistics program at a meeting of the elementary school improvement committee seminar last November.

The educators visited classrooms, examined materials used in the program and met with teachers to discuss and relate their impressions.

80 Courses, Activities Are Offered for Adults

More than 80 courses and activities, several of them new, are being offered for the next session of Waterford Township Community School Services program.

Most classes will commence the week of Feb. 5, according to Donald Youmans, coordinator of community school services. Bishop sewing classes will begin Jan. 23.

Registrations will be accepted from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Jan. 23-26 at the Waterford Township High School library, 1415 Crescent Lake.

Interested persons also can register by mail. Further information can be obtained by contacting Youmans at the community school services office, 3835 W. Walton.

★ ★ ★

The program, which consists of adult education and recreation activities, is financed jointly by the school district, township and Mott Foundation.

CATEGORIES

Classes are offered in the following categories: art, do-it-yourself, food preparation, home arts, special interests, business and recreation.

New courses planned are plastic art, general carpentry problems, household mechanics, landscaping your home, diabetic, Oriental foods, kitchen demonstration workshop, and basic crocheting.

Other new offerings are introduction to computers, beginning Russian, guitar hootenany, about the Jewish people — America Israel, the Negro in American history, badminton club, table tennis club and family gymnastics.

★ ★ ★

If sufficient interest is shown, a women's swimming instruction program will be offered at the Oakland University pool from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Saturdays beginning Jan. 21.

WOMEN NEEDED

At least 50 women are needed to form a class.

Among the other classes offered are china painting, income tax, coin collecting, modern math for parents, armchair (vacation) tours, handwriting analysis, poodle grooming and trimming, amateur radio, beauty, poise and personality and a fashion-your-figure club.

February Confab

EAST LANSING (AP) — Training adults for the changing occupations of the future will be the featured topic at the 13th annual Trade and Technical Teachers Conference, expected to attract about 500 teachers at East Lansing Feb. 24-25.

Per capita consumption of beer and ale was 16 gallons in 1965.

Senators View Problems of Aged Buyers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee opens hearings today on the pocketbook problems of the elderly.

★ ★ ★

Unscrupulous salesmen and gyp-laden installment contracts aren't the only challenges awaiting elderly consumers, Sen. Harrison A. Williams, D-N.J., said.

★ ★ ★

"We decided," said Williams, chairman of the subcommittee on Consumer Interests of the Elderly, "that confusion or lack of information can be as troublesome as actual deception or fraud."

★ ★ ★

Williams offered his remarks in a prepared statement at the opening of hearings on a broad range of questions concerning elderly consumers and their handling of money.

GYP SCHEMES

In previous years, the subcommittee concentrated on gyp schemes. But these investigations, said Williams, "did not adequately deal with all problems that affect older Americans in the marketplace."

★ ★ ★

He said federal agencies will be asked what can be done to help state agencies concerned with laws or programs intended to protect or inform consumers.

★ ★ ★

Elderly persons, Williams said, have a buying power of about $40 billion a year — "an alluring target for pitchmen inside or outside the law."

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee wants to find out just how much is known about elderly consumers and their special needs, he said. "They may, in fact, be the forgotten market in today's merchandising boom."

Week Is Special

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has proclaimed this week as Jaycee Week in Michigan in recognition of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce. The same period also was proclaimed Printing Week in salute to the printing and graphic arts industry.

Eyebrows Up ...So Hemline Goes Down

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oklo. (AP)—A state senator's young secretary has lowered her hemline on the miniskirt that raised some eyebrows and drew some complaints at the Capitol last week.

The complaints came mostly from older, rural senators and some other secretaries.

"That dress is just something my constituents wouldn't understand," said one senator. "They'd walk in and say that girl forgot her dress."

A secretary commented, "It's all right until she starts filing in the bottom drawer of the file cabinet."

But the 23-year-old lass will have strong support in case the Senate tries to legislate the matter.

One of the younger senators said, "With us around to vote, I don't think they'd ever get it out of committee."

BOX OFFICE OPENS 6:30 P.M.

Judge Gets 30 Days and He Enjoys Them

Birmingham attorney Daniel C. Devine considers himself one of the most fortunate men in his profession.

The reason is his month-long service as an Oakland Circuit Court judge.

"I'm one in 10,000 lawyers who have had the opportunity to sit as a judge," explained Devine, who recently returned to private practice.

At 32 years of age, Devine is believed to be the youngest circuit judge ever to serve in Michigan.

★ ★ ★

"It was a fantastic experience," said Devine. "I could never buy the experience and exposure that I received in those 30 days."

STICKER CANDIDATE

Devine joined other members of the bench Dec. 1 after having won the abreviated term in the Novenber election as a sticker candidate.

In waging the successful campaign to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge Stanton G. Dondero, Devine spent a total of $98. He received a $2,400 salary in return.

"I got a lot of ribbing when I announced my candidacy," said Devine, "but the snickering stopped when I was sworn in."

★ ★ ★

Before taking office, Devine disassociated himself legally as a partner in the law firm of Condit, Denison, Devine, Porter and Bartush in Bloomfield Township so that there would be no possible conflict of interest.

DANIEL C. DEVINE

BURDEN HEAVIER

"I remember thinking after my first day in the bench that the burden of being a judge was much heavier than I thought possible," added Devine.

"Then as the days went by, I found that I could make quicker decisions."

Devine's month on the bench was by no means a lark.

During his four weeks in office (20 actual court days), Devine presided over six criminal trials (more than any other county judge in December); sentenced five persons to prison; conducted three divorce trials; determined a property rights case and a condemnation matter; decided 75 miscellaneous motions and heard 25 uncontested divorces.

TOUGHEST DECISION

"The toughest decision involved the setting of visitation hours on Christmas for children of a separated couple," said Devine, the father of four young boys and a daughter.

"I suppose any judge with children has this problem," said Devine. "There's a tendency to identify with the case."

A third generation attorney, Devine said that being a judge and on a regular schedule did give him more time to spend with his children.

A practicing attorney for five years, Devine is a former county assistant prosecutor.

WHETTED APPETITE

Devine said that his short term whetted his appetite for the judiciary, and that he has no immediate plans to run for a full-time post.

2 Boys Rescued From Ice Adrift in Detroit River

DETROIT (UPI) — A boat from the Detroit Harbor Master's unit rescued two Windsor teen-agers adrift on an ice floe in the Detroit River late yesterday.

A spokesman for the Harbor Master's unit said the two, Wayne Daniher, 15, and Eric Hansen, 16, were walking on the ice on the Canadian side of the river, when a piece they were walking on broke loose.

★ ★ ★

A swift wind pushed the floe across the river, where the boys were spotted and rescued.

A spokesman said the boys were taken to Detroit's Deaconess Hospital for examination.

Metal-Studded Tire Use Urged

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — Safety experts, including Indiana State Police who have been subjecting metal-studded tires to a road test, yesterday urged the Senate Public Safety Committee to approve use of the tires during cold weather months.

Sgt. Richard Burger, director of crash injury research for the Indiana State Police, said if the tires saved a single life, they would be worth the chance of causing some damage to blacktop roads.

He said he believes they might save as many as 15 lives a year.

Trooper Gary McPherson, who has been driving with the tires for the past 3,500 miles in his police car, testified that he found a 60 per cent improvement in stopping on wet surfaces.

★ ★ ★

He said he found the wear about the same as ordinary tire and had not noticed any of the tungsten carbine studs working out of the tire.

Indiana and Michigan are among states which now ban studded tires from their highways.

U.S. Admits Withholding Czech Visas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials have confirmed reports from Czechoslovakia that the United States is withholding visas from Czechoslovaks in retaliation for the continued detention of a Czech-born U.S. citizen.

Although U.S. officials have not banned travel to Czechoslovakia, they are advising travelers that relations between the two countries are tense.

★ ★ ★

The current situation resulted from the arrest last Oct. 31 of Vladimir Kazan-Komarek, a Cambridge, Mass., travel agent, when his plane from Moscow made what was described as an emergency landing in Prague. He was charged with espionage.

The administration reluctantly confirmed the withholding of visas Monday after news dispatches from Prague quoted Rude Pravo, the official Communist party paper, as charging the United States with pressuring the Czech government by denying visas.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman explained the administration did not want to make public its diplomatic maneuvers to help Kazan-Komarek while there is still hope the Czechoslovak government will reconsider the case.

OFFICE VANDALIZED — A New York Welfare Department official stands in the record-strewn office in Brooklyn where vandals made a shambles of files and cut telephone wires in one of a dozen attacks around the city last night. Striking union officials denied members were involved. The union is striking for more pay.

Welfare Offices Raided

Mediation OK'd in NY Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking Welfare Department workers and the city have agreed to call in a mediator to try to break their deadlock on salary negotiations, the major issue in their dispute.

The strike began Monday morning amid widespread reports of vandalism as more than 7,500 members of the Social Service Employes Union struck for the second time in two years.

★ ★ ★

Services were curtailed but all the welfare centers were open and handling emergency cases, the department said. Some 600,000 welfare recipients were assured they would continue to receive their checks.

The vandalism was discovered at 15 of the 32 centers when supervisory personnel arrived in the morning. Telephone wires had been cut, records destroyed and door locks sealed with glue and solder.

Welfare Commissioner Mitchell I. Ginsberg said responsibility for the damage was a matter for police to decide. "I can only say I'm very disappointed," he said.

Judith Mage, president of the striking independent union, was highly critical of the acts. "We are categorically opposed to vandalism," she said. "It is very unfortunate."

Negotiations continued until 6:30 p.m. Herbert L. Haber, city labor relations director, said afterward "some progress" had been made.

Macao Crisis Worse; 250 Flee

MACAO (AP) — Some 250 Portuguese women and children fled to Hong Kong today after negotiations between Macao's Portuguese government and the Chinese Communists deadlocked over wording of an apology for suppression of the Communist riots in Macao last month.

The Portuguese refugees refused to talk to newsmen, but nearly 400 Macao Chinese also fled, and several said the situation was "about to blow up."

★ ★ ★

Friends of one of the Portuguese negotiators reported he felt the impasse was so hopeless that he was sending his family back to Lisbon.

Macao Chinese began a run on money changers and banks to convert their local currency into Hong Kong dollars. The Hong Kong currency was exhausted in an hour and the Macao dollar dropped four points.

8 KILLED

Eight persons were killed and more than 100 wounded in the riots Dec. 3-4. Communist Chinese negotiators demanded that the island's Portuguese government brand the riot deaths as "murders" and the police and troop commanders who quelled the riots as "assassins."

Although Macao authorities capitulated to most of the Communist demands, they balked Monday night at including those words in an apology for making "mistakes" in handling the riots.

Both pro-government and pro-leftist sources said the Communists gave Gov. Jose Nobre de Carvalho 24 hours to agree to the wording. The pro-Communist Macao Daily News warned that unless the conditions were met, the Communists would demand the governor leave the colony.

To appease the Chinese, the Macao government fired the army and police officials who led the antiriot units, agreed to compensate riot victims and agreed to close pro-Nationalist Chinese agencies on the island. The Communists contended the Nationalist agencies were fronts for subversion and sabotage against the mainland.

Georgia Defeats Kentucky in Slow-Down

Upsets of Rated Quintets Mark Hectic Collegiate Card

By the Associated Press

Tennessee upset 10th-ranked Florida and Georgia upset sinking Kentucky, but Adolph Rupp of the Wildcats was more upset than anyone Monday night. And another defeat was not the reason.

★ ★ ★

"If I had 13,500 seats, I'd try to fill them," said the Kentucky Baron, whose Wildcats lost 49-40 after Georgia's stalling tactics left visiting Kentucky leading 8-6 at the half.

Rupp pointed out that the fans normally object to low-scoring games, then added cuttingly, "Of course, it looks like they outsmarted us. After all Ken Rosemond won. He's the fair-haired boy and I'm just the old man."

★ ★ ★

"I know the fans don't like it," said Rosemond, whose Bulldogs beat Kentucky for the first time since 1950, "but you can't let the fans dictate how you play the game."

SECOND YEAR

Rosemond, whose team has won only six of 12 games, is in his second year at Georgia.

★ ★ ★

Kentucky, a regular college basketball power with a 572-152 record entering its 38th season under Rupp, fell to 5-7. A preseason pick for the Top Ten after finishing second in the NCAA playoffs last March, the Wildcats are on their way to possibly their worst season under Rupp.

Jim Youngblood, who finished with 20 points, scored two driving layups as Georgia opened up at the start of the second half and took a 10-8 lead. Kentucky never caught up. The Bulldogs pulled away with 12 free throws in the closing minutes. Georgia took only 20 shots from the floor and connected on 13.

Tennessee moved faster than Florida, but still relied on a deliberate game to upend the Gators 66-53 and tumble them out of first place in the Southeastern Conference.

★ ★ ★

Ron Widby had 18 points and Tom Hendrix and Phil Justus 16 each as the Vols took a 36-27 halftime lead and fought off a Florida challenge that carried it within 38-35.

★ ★ ★

Vanderbilt took the lead in the SEC by riding Bob Warren's 18 points to its 13th victory in 15 starts, 71-65 over Auburn.

In a duel between two small college giants, top-ranked Southern Illinois nipped runner-up Kentucky Wesleyan 52-51.

In other games, Memphis State used its top-ranked defense to nip Florida State 46-42; Georgia Tech's 14 straight points overcame an early nine-point deficit and carried it past Ohio State 84-73 and Carl Head's 31 points lifted West Virginia over Virginia Military 91-77.

★ ★ ★

Maryland trimmed Clemson 68-48; Utah State outshot Seattle 103-91 and Wally Anderzunas scored 24 points in Creighton's 85-77 victory over Air Force.

AP Rankings Put Captains in 9th Spot

Unbeaten Groves Is Rated No. 5; St. Mike in 'D' Elite

The Captains, with coach Joe Duby at the helm, have romped to a 6-0 record on the basketball court and this week broke into the Associated Press' list of the state's top Class A squads.

The latest poll finds Kettering occupying the ninth rung on the Class A ladder with Muskegon Heights (9-0) sitting on top.

Oakland County also has the No. 5 team in unbeaten Birmingham Groves (9-0), which held the No. 7 position last week.

South Haven (9-0) holds the top spot in the Class B division and L'Anse (7-0) owns the No. 1 position in the Class C lineup.

Another big game in the county this evening will find Hamtramck (8-0), ranked No. 2 in the Class A poll, invading defending state champion Ferndale (5-1).

Two Saginaw Valley Conference quintets are among the top ten 'A' teams.

★ ★ ★

Saginaw (7-0), heading the SVC with a 5-0 mark, sits close behind Hamtramck in the No. 3 position while Flint Central (5-1) has moved into the No. 10 spot.

In the Class B lineup, Royal Oak Shrine (7-1) shares the No. 10 spot with Detroit Servite (7-0).

MSU Sees 'M' Five Better Than Record

EAST LANSING (AP) — Despite Michigan's 0-3 record in Big Ten basketball, Michigan State isn't looking for a breather when the Wolverines and Spartans tangle at Ann Arbor Saturday.

MSU, 2-0 in the conference and fresh from a 79-70 victory over Iowa, sees Michigan as a "super last place team," says assistant coach Gus Ganakas.

Michigan, which has won or shared the Big Ten title for the past three years, will be out to avenge a 86-77 loss to MSU in the final conference game last year.

"I don't think they'll be in last place very long," Ganakas added. "They never have a slump where they're not scoring. They've made some critical errors, but they're stronger than their conference record shows."

"They're in the same spot we could have been in," coach John Benington said.

TWO WINS

The Wolverines, after losing to Northwestern at home, lost road games to Wisconsin and Illinois. MSU also has a league schedule with two of its first three games on the road, but it managed to beat Illinois at Champaign before dumping Iowa at home.

MSU is 7-3 over-all and Michigan is 6-7.

Asked about Michigan's defense, Ganakas said, "obviously they're not strong there. They have been scoring in the 90s and getting beat."

But potentially, said Benington, "Michigan is one of the toughest teams in the conference. That's an awfully good zero-and-three team."

Crosby List Is Completed

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) —The entry list was complete today for the three-course Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament, starting Thursday, and PGA officials began adjusting the new Spyglass Hill layout for its introduction as one of the tourney battlegrounds.

Bob Tuthill of the PGA Tournament Field Staff set up Spyglass as he felt it would probably play for the tournament.

★ ★ ★

The championship tees of Spyglass Hill play at a gruelling 6,972 yards. Its medium tees cut the distance to 6,609 and some of these may be used out of consideration for the amateurs paired with the pros.

Pebble Beach and Cypress Point courses will be the same as they always have for this 26th Crosby on California's Monterey Peninsula.

Twenty-eight openings on the pro entry list were filled in medal play Monday on the 6,747-yard Pebble Beach course by a field of 122.

Lombardi Makes Final Observations

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Coach Vince Lombardi, an acknowledged hunch player, almost played one during the Super Bowl game when he toyed with the idea of sending in onetime Golden Boy Paul Hornung to give the Green Bay Packers a psychological lift.

Lombardi made that revelation Monday when he made his final observations on the game, saying pointedly:

"In the first half, a couple of times, I seriously considered using him. I thought he might give us a lift. There's no question what he means to the Green Bay Packers. He's a great leader."

Lombardi also said that Hornung's status remains up to the doctors. The longtime star of the Packers has been having trouble with his left arm ever since he suffered a pinched nerve during the 1960 season.

"I think Hornung's arm is okay," Lombardi said. "If he gets hit on the head the arm will go limp. When that happens, he's in trouble. But it's really up to the doctors."

Hornung, meanwhile, was preparing to leave on a honeymoon after his marriage Wednesday and said he would wait until he has a thorough physical before deciding on his pro football future.

"I'm going to wait and see what happens to the arm," Hornung said. "I'll wait on the doctor. I should know something along about March."

★ ★ ★

While Hornung remained a question mark, the status of fullback Jim Taylor also has not been determined and there was some doubt about the future of three other key team members.

Taylor played out his option with the Packers this year and did not sign a contract. There have been reports he would like to play for the New Orleans franchise which becomes operative next season as the National League's 15th team.

Lombardi didn't seem too concerned either about Taylor or the retirement stories beginning to crop up about receiver Max McGee, one of the hero's of Sunday's 35-10 victory over Kansas City, and guards Fuzzy Thurston and Jerry Kramer.

Team Greeted by Chief Fans

Coach Stram Promises Super Bowl Return

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs, Super Bowl losers, were greeted by about 3,000 enthusiastic fans in windy, sub-freezing weather at Mid-Continent International Airport Monday night.

Owner Lamar Hunt, coach Hank Stram and general manager Jack Steadman expressed gratitude for the turnout and vowed they would be back in the world title game next year.

★ ★ ★

Their words were partially drowned out by the roar of the chartered jet's engines, but each sentence was punctuated by a roar from the crowd. Stram introduced 15 players and his coaching staff. Each received a loud cheer. Hunt said he was sorry many of the players had to stay behind to play in the AFL All-Star game.

Green Bay whipped the Chiefs 35-10 in Sunday's big game and the club's plane was 45 minutes late, but the fans didn't mind.

Stram said he and his squad were "very disappointed we didn't win...but I'm proud of these men.. any time you play 20 games, win 16 of them, lose three and tie one, you can be proud.

"I assure you every thought and action will be directed now toward winning the AFL title again and then the Super Bowl."

The two, both averaging more than 10 points a game, will be in the lineup this evening when the Eaglets (7-2) entertain Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows (9-1) in a key Northwest Parochial League outing.

Black Hawks Lead 1-2-3 in NHL Points

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Hull's recent goal scoring spree has given the Chicago Black Hawks a 1-2-3 lock in the National Hockey League's individual point race.

Hull fired seven goals in four games last week, lifting his season output to a league-leading 26 and moving into third position — behind teammates Stan Mikita and Ken Wharram — in point production. Hull, who set all-time records for goals, 54, and points, 97, last season, now has 37 points in 36 games, according to weekly NHL figures released today.

★ ★ ★

Mikita continues as the runaway leader, with 19 goals and a league-high 36 assists for 55 points. Wharram has 19 goals and 19 assists for 38 points, one more than Hull.

Goalie Ed Giacomin of the Rangers fashioned two shutouts in three games last week, taking the league lead with a total of six.

The leading scorers:

Ailing Back Slows Toronto's Sawchuk

TORONTO (AP) — Goalie Terry Sawchuk of the Toronto Maple Leafs arrived here Monday from his Union Lake home to undergo treatment for a recurring back ailment that has kept him out of National Hockey League action since Dec. 7.

His doctors have ordered swimming and back physiotherapy treatment. An announcement on when he can resume skating is expected next week.

Sawchuk had undergone surgery for a recurring back ailment last summer.

After several weeks in a hospital here, Sawchuk was released to spend the holiday season with his family.

Clay Even Has 'Super-Strength' Ideas

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay turned 25 today, a day he began like most training days, up before dawn to run in a wooded park in west Houston, jogging through the cold in the patch of brightness from the headlights of his white and tomato-red Lincoln Continental.

Trainer Angelo Dundee, driver of the trailing car, said Monday night Clay still is growing at age 25.

★ ★ ★

"His arms, his shoulders, his back muscles — they're all getting bigger," Dundee said. "He's going to be a super-heavyweight."

By his own testimony, Clay is ready for Feb. 6, the night he meets Ernie Terrell in the Astrodome to settle the world's heavyweight championship.

Clay, the consensus champion, said so Monday when he ran into Terrell, the World Boxing Association's champion, in the exhibit hall both share as a gym.

FIRST DAY

It was Terrell's first day in town and Clay was late clearing out after a workout without sparring partners. The crowd was gone and only a dozen or so of the two boxers' followers saw what happened.

"I'm ready, I'm ready," Clay said, throwing a shoulder against Terrell.

★ ★ ★

Terrell clutched at Clay's arms and the two went into a bear hug which lasted two or three minutes while trainers and promoters and bucket-bearers plucked and tugged at them, coaxing them to break the clinch, but not to start swinging.

The circling, sizing up and exchange of boasts went on for about 15 minutes and then it was over.

★ ★ ★

Clay's last defense was in November, against 34-year-old Cleveland Williams, who was through in three. Terrell is 27.

OU '2nd Best'

Oakland University took every second place but only one first Saturday in dropping a 66-38 swimming decision to the University of Illinois' Chicago branch.

★ ★ ★

Rick Bishop took first place in the backstroke with a 2:18.5 timing. The Pioneers are 1-3 and will invade Wayne State Friday night.

Montreal Regains Punch

MONTREAL (AP) — Toe Blake, the combustible coach of the Montreal Canadiens, intends to find out very quickly whether young Gary Bauman is for real.

Bauman is the 26-year-old rookie goaltender who rallied the slumping Canadiens to a 3-1 victory over Boston Sunday night, 24 hours after the Bruns had scored three third-period goals against Charlie Hodge for a 5-4 victory.

★ ★ ★

The performance earned Bauman a shot at the National Hockey League All Stars, who'll meet the Canadiens in the 20th annual classic here Wednesday night.

"I thought Hodge started to look tired against the Bruins Saturday night," said Blake. "That's why I decided to play Bauman."

The youngster came up with 32 saves and now Blake is toying with the idea of keeping him in the nets for awhile. He's expected to split the All Star assignment with Hodge.

BIG TEST

If Bauman holds up against an All Star frontline that includes Detroit's Gordie Howe, Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita of Chicago, Toronto's Frank Mahovlich and Rod Gilbert of New York, the Canadiens' netminding job could be his for awhile.

Bauman won't know until just before game time whether he'll be starting against the All Stars. That's the system Blake used against Boston. "I didn't want him to get nervous" Toe said.

But Gary suspected that he might get the call and was prepared for it. "It kind of shakes you up a bit," he admitted. "But I tried to keep everything normal."

That will be tough to do against the All Stars, who have dominated this game in recent years. The Stars have won two straight and have lost only once in the last six tries against the Stanley Cup champions.

Last year Howe, who passed the 700-goal plateau two weeks ago, put on a one-man show, scoring two goals and assisting on two others. The Detroit great holds the All Star record with nine goals and will be playing in his 11th classic.

Hull, who set NHL records of 54 goals and 97 points last year, is on a hot streak with 11 goals in his last six games. He leads the league with 26 for the season.

Mikita, Chicago's slick center, has the NHL scoring race all to himself with 55 points and if he continues his present pace, he could shattered Hull's one-season point mark.

Gilbert's 22 goals have been the key for the surprising Rangers, who share first place with the Black Hawks.

★ ★ ★

This is the first time that the All Star Game is being played at mid-season and the NHL's Board of Governors is taking advantage of the three-day schedule hiatus to hold executive meetings.

Pistons Obtain LaRusso to Bolster Playoff Hope

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Pistons, fighting for a playoff spot in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association, acquired forward Rudy LaRusso from the Los Angeles Lakers Monday.

The three-cornered deal saw Detroit send Ray Scott to the Baltimore Bullets who then sent reserve center Mel Counts to LA. The Lakers passed LaRusso to Detroit.

★ ★ ★

"LaRusso was the key to the trade," said Dave DeBusschere, Pistons' player - coach. "We needed a change on our club, but wouldn't take anyone but a strong, good-scoring player."

★ ★ ★

But LaRusso, 29, hinted that he might retire from NBA play. He said he will notify the Pistons soon whether he will join them.

Scott scored 6,724 points in five years with Detroit, averaging 17.9 points per game last season. His scoring average dwindled to 14.7 this season and he was replaced in the starting lineup two weeks ago by John Tresvant.

REBOUNDER

LaRusso has averaged 14.2 points per game for the Lakers this year, but was used primarily as a rebounder to back up the high-scoring duo of Elgin Baylor and Jerry West.

"LaRusso has always hurt the Pistons although his primary assignment with the Lakers was to set up and block for Baylor and West," said DeBusschere.

The 6-foot-8 graduate of Dartmouth has made the NBA all-star team three times and is considered the same caliber player as Scott by league coaches.

"We hope he will be able to play with us Wednesday when we meet the Philadelphia 76ers at Cobo Arena," said DeBusschere.

Miss Whitworth Repeats as Top Female Athlete

JAL, N.M. (AP) — The Whitworths are proud about their daughter being named Female Athlete of the Year again, but they're the type of parents who "don't let me get carried away with myself."

So says 27-year-old golfer Kathy Whitworth, who was named the Associated Press top 1966 female athlete Monday by 428 sports writers and radio and television broadcasters who gave her 185 first-place votes and a 729-vote total.

It was the second straight year she won the honor.

"I'm thrilled of course," she said Monday, "but nothing can take the place of last year's first award. Last year I never even thought about winning and it came as a big surprise. This year I had some warning."

Miss Whitworth is the youngest of three daughters in the Morris Whitworth family in this small southeast New Mexico town. Her father owns a hardware store. She says her parents won't build up her national fame.

RIGHT LEVEL

"They're great parents. They keep me on the right level."

Her 729 votes in the female athlete poll gave her a big edge against runner-up Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., the Wimbledon singles tennis champion who finished with 521 points including 88 first-place votes.

Points were awarded on a basis of 3 for a first-place vote, 2 for a second and 1 on third.

Race Tightens in Rec League

Amigo, Booth Post Wins in AL

The race tightened a little in Pontiac American League basketball last night, but one of the coleaders joined the ranks of the beaten in National League recreation action.

In the American loop, Amigo (2-1) moved within a game of league-leading Perry Drugs (3-0) by trimming Oxford Hills, 89-55, while Booth Homes (2-2) was disposing of Oxford Merchants (0-3), 54-45.

John Hunt collected 15 points to pace the Amigo attack. Felix Brooks sparked the losers with 16. Larry Blackburn's 14 markers topped Booth Homes while Jerry Wagner grabbed scoring honors for the losers with 18.

In the National loop, the Packers (2-2) knocked the All-Star (3-1) from the top spot they had shared with idle Amigo's Club (3-0) by posting a 68-55 decision behind the scoring of Cecil Jones (26).

In other games, Acker Construction (3-1) moved into a tie with the All Stars for second by downing McDonald's (1-2), 65-62; Auburn Hills (2-1) shaded Highland Lakes (0-3), 39-37; and Local 653 (1-3) broke into the win column by downing the Unbeatables (1-3), 82-73.

The scoring mark toppled and the list of unbeaten teams dwindled to two last night in Class C Waterford Township recreation basketball action.

Ross Ludwick flipped in 34 points and Jim Douglas contributed 27 to the Auto Sales attack. Mike Pantal tossed in 16 for the losers.

In other games, Chetolah Grocery (2-0) handed Hillcrest Nazarene its first loss, 64-58, to remain tied for the league lead with Buckner Finance (2-0), a 56-41 winner over Mattingly Insurance (0-2).

★ ★ ★

Hal Bandon (22) and Gary Adams (20) supplied the punch for Chetolah. Bob Sutton scored 20 points for Hillcrest.

Jerry Paul flipped in 21 points in Buckner's foul-filled win over Mattingly. Gary Mets collected 10 points to pace the losers.

It is important to select a cue stick that feels good to your touch. But the best cue stick in the world will prove ineffective unless the cue tip is shaped properly. The cue tip should never be flat, as it is almost impossible to chalk a flat tip.

Likewise, the cue tip should not be too pointed, because then you will not have enough traction to execute certain shots. The ideal tip is oval in shape. This tip gives you enough traction, and at the same time, chalk will adhere to the surface.

A new type of cue tip has been introduced which does away with the old-fashioned way of replacing cue tips. In other words, the clamp glue and the 48-hour waiting period is not necessary with the introduction of this new cue tip.

BOWLING

Three teams swept their opposition and Ed Jostock hit one of the higher scores in the league this season during Thursday's 300 Bowl Classic action.

Jostock rapped the pins for 246-266—658 to overshadow a fine 235-209—629 by Al Pietz. City Glass, Felice Market and Hobby Paint all took four points to feature the team action.

Friday at Howe's Lanes, Ed Solecki paced the Senior Classic with 246-238—656 and Ron Kind hit a 243. Phil Cristos had 227-212—619, Chuck Larr 235—614 and Jim Carr a 237.

10-Million-Share Day?

Mart Mounts Strong Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market mounted another strong advance with trading heavy early this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

It looked like another ten-million-share day as traders and investors climbed aboard what seemed to be a stock market bandwagon which barely paused yesterday after a string of nine straight daily gains.

★ ★ ★

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 8.07 at 841.31.

After a mixed opening, gains rapidly began to exceed losses and the market was off and away on another rally.

ENCOURAGING COMMENT

Encouraging Wall Street comment, much of it based on expectations of further easing in money and credit, backgrounded the advance. This was underlined by news of further interest rate cuts in commercial paper.

★ ★ ★

Blue chip chemicals, motors, metals, and steels helped boost the averages but most of the action was among the more glamorous electronics, office equipments, aerospace, photography, science and technology stocks.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 2.1 at 311.0 with industrials up 4.2, rails up 1.1 and utilities up .1.

Prices were higher in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange. Solitron Devices ran up half a dozen points. Gains of 2 or better were made by Flying Tiger and Williams Brothers. Up a point or so were AMK Corp., Dennison, Diversified Metals. LTV Aerospace, Pall Corp. "A," and Statham Instruments. O'Okiep Copper slid 1½.

Truckers Open Pay Demands

75-Cent Hourly Hike Is Pushed by Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union demanded today pay hikes of 75 cents an hour over three years for some 450,000 workers in the nation's trucking industry.

The wage hikes asked by the Teamsters in opening negotiations with representatives of 12,000 trucking firms amount to about 7 per cent a year on top of the current base rate of $3.32 per hour.

Hoffa, who could be in prison before the contract negotiations are over, also presented demands for an additional ½ cent per mile for truck drivers who get mileage rates. The current mileage rate is a little more than 11 cents per mile. Many cross-country truck drivers who get the mileage rate earn $5.00 or more per hour.

The Teamsters demands also included an additional $2 room allowance for long-distance truck drivers, premium pay of ½ cent per mile and 15 cents per hour for handling shipments of warheads and light ammunition.

The union also asked an additional $2 per week in employers' pension contributions in the first year and $1 each in the second and third years of the new contract.

Role of Silver at Crossroads

WASHINGTON (AP) — Silver is at the crossroads in its historic but fast diminishing role as a storehouse of U.S. monetary value.

But Treasury officials are convinced enough silver is available to carry the nation through to late 1968, expected end of the transition period for the new copper-nickel coins.

And officials have some aces in the hole to make sure the silver supply will be sufficient.

Future government policy on silver is in the hands of a 24-man commission on the coinage set up by Congress in 1965 when it took all silver out of dimes and quarters and reduced the silver content of half dollars from 90 to 40 per cent, thus averting a silver crisis.

That commission — all its members have not yet been named — will look into the time and circumstances when the Treasury should stop maintaining the price of silver, future policy and other silver matters.

The mining industry foresees an increase in price — now maintained by the Treasury at $1.29 an ounce — as inevitable.

Leaves Enemy Behind

Lost GI Takes Wild Walk

By TOM TIEDE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

CU CHI, Vietnam — Pfc. Mike Valesco was hot and frightened and wary but he pushed on with the rest of his outfit.

Theirs was a mission of mercy.

Ahead in the jungle, somewhere, was Charley Company of the 25th Infantry Division. Early in the day, Communist guerrillas had severed that unit — about 150 men — from their main force.

They had to be reinforced, of course.

★ ★ ★

And Valesco's outfit set out.

OBSTACLES

The going was slow. Jungle vegetation formed solid curtains which had to be hacked down.

Nettles, vines and bamboo shoots wrapped around men's legs and almost angrily tugged and struggled with the stumbling GIs.

Then there were the sniper shots. Hollow whomps which clearly stood out from the sounds of struggling soldiers. Crackling streaks of wind whipped through the underbrush.

★ ★ ★

Fortunately most of the shots missed. Occasionally, they didn't.

One struck a man in front of Mike Valesco. The man gave a small groan and dropped to his knees. His leg was bleeding.

Valesco grabbed him. He sank his hands into the man's armpits and pulled him to his feet. The man grimaced in pain. Valesco wobbled with the extra weight.

★ ★ ★

"I'll get you to a medic."

The way was obscured by the camouflage of jungle growth. And with darkness setting in, Valesco had to escort the sniper victim largely by listening for the sound of medical helicopters.

HEADS BACK

It took him several minutes to find a cleared-out evacuation point and by that time it was dark. He deposited the casualty, swallowed some canteen water and set out to rejoin his unit.

"Where are you going?"

"Back to my company."

★ ★ ★

"In the dark?"

"I'll find it."

RUNS INTO TROUBLE

Valesco was confident. Coming out of the jungle he had made a sizable path. He would now simply follow that path back in.

The plan worked well for about 20 yards.

Then, into the brush, he realized he was wandering. Or perhaps it was his imagination.

★ ★ ★

But it did seem thicker going in than coming out.

USE SOUND, FLASHES

He knew, however, he was generally on course. The battle had intensified to the front and he maneuvered by sound and sight of flash.

From time to time he saw the outline of men in the thicket. They heartened him considerably.

They said nothing to him, however, and he knew that silence was always a combat regulation.

★ ★ ★

He walked for five minutes. Then 10. Then 15. Strange. He must be getting close. Any moment somebody would recognize him.

KEEPS WALKING

Then, abruptly, a spit of machinegun fire opened up from his flank. It formed a stream of tracer rounds which laced through the darkness in an upswinging motion.

Valesco, of course, just kept walking. Past several brilliant glints of rifle fire. In between two sandbagged bunkers. Alongside shadowy figures. On top of ground littered with cartridge shells.

And, finally, a noise from the front.

★ ★ ★

"Hey!"

Valesco smiled, relieved.

"Who's there?" the voice asked.

SURPRISE MEETING

"It's me, Valesco."

"Who?"

The men joined up. Valesco eyed the others queerly. What outfit, he asked, did they belong to? Charley Company?

"You're kidding! But you guys were cut off . . . I was just . . . my unit is . . ."

★ ★ ★

Suddenly, Mike Valesco understood. In the dark of the jungle he had passed up his own company and reached instead the surrounded GIs.

"God!" he yelped.

He had just walked through the enemy lines.

REEF SAVES DAY — Its stern under water, the Pacific Far East Lines freighter Guam Bear rests with its bow on a coral reef inside the harbor of Apra, Guam, after being involved in a collision with the tanker Esso Seattle last week. The freighter, with the aid of a tug, managed to maneuver its bow onto the reef. Only one injury was sustained in the collision, and it was a minor one.

Mao Appears on Top in Chinese Struggle

TOKYO (AP) — Mao Tse-tung and his faction appear to have gained the upper hand in Communist China's power struggle and there are signs the threat of violence in Peking and other major cities is dissipating, the Peking correspondent of the Tokyo newspaper Yomiuri reported today.

The Japanese correspondent said the chaotic situation on the mainland appears to have "passed its peak and the tense situation prevailing over Peking, Shanghai, Nanking and other major cities appears to be subsiding following Mao's personal leadership of the purge."

★ ★ ★

Wall newspapers in Peking last week reported Mao had returned to the capital, quoting Premier Chou En-lai and other high Communist party officials.

"There is no doubt Mao's appearance played a decisive role to turn the tide of the crisis," the Yomiuri report said but added that the 73-year-old party chairman has not made any public appearances.

★ ★ ★

He reported that 30,000 anti-Mao workers left their jobs in Shanghai and set out for Peking but were intercepted and persuaded to return.

"Hundreds of thousands of workers had poured into Peking, creating tension last week," the dispatch continued, "but disappeared from the streets after Mao's support to an urgent appeal from Shanghai revolutionary (pro-Mao) rebels was reported in the People's Daily Thursday."

★ ★ ★

Earlier, Mao's faction had hinted at divisions in its ranks with a call on all pro-Mao organizations to rally around the Red Chinese army.

★ ★ ★

The call for unity—with its implication that Mao's offensive against President Liu Shao-chi and his followers has split—appeared in the Kwang Ming Daily, the organ of the Maoist intellectuals, and was broadcast by the official New China News Agency.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

Quoting Mao as saying "the Chinese Red army is an armed body for carrying out the political tasks of the revolution," the paper asserted: "This is the fundamental principle of the great alliance of proletarian revolutionary groups."

★ ★ ★

There were these other developments in the continuing struggle on the mainland:

The Albanian Communist party organ Zeri I Popullit said Mao's "revolutionary line has crushed the reactionary maneuvers of a handful of revisionists and plotters." It was the first time the Albanian party, the Chinese Communist party's chief European ally, had taken a clear-cut stand against Liu's faction and was considered an indication that the Albanians, whose defense minister is now in Peking, believe Mao has won or is winning.

STUDENT TAKE JOBS

NCNA reported Red Guard students had taken over many of the jobs of striking pro-Liu workers in Shanghai and Peking and that "serious losses to the state economy" had resulted from paralysis of rail and passenger traffic 10 days ago between Shanghai and Hangchow and Shanghai and Nanking.

★ ★ ★

The agency also said pro-Liu laborers had interrupted harbor operations in Shanghai, China's biggest port, but gave this report on Shanghai today:

"Traffic is moving smoothly along the Shanghai-Nanking and Shanghai-Hangchow railway lines. With the support of revolutionary college students, dockers at the Shanghai port have resumed regular loading and unloading work to ensure proper cargo handling. The local branch of the People's Bank has been taken over by six revolutionary rebel (pro-Mao) organizations. With the revolutionary rebels (Mao's) in over-all control, the whole production command at the Chiuhsin shipyard is operating well."

Macomb Photos of UFOs May Not Be Hoax---Expert

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI) — The Air Force's chief consultant on unidentified flying objects said yesterday photographs of what is said to be UFO over Michigan may not be a hoax.

★ ★ ★

Dr. J. Allen Hynek of Northwestern University said the pictures taken Jan. 9 near Detroit are "startlingly" similar to descriptions he has heard of UFOs.

"At first glance," Hynek said, "it isn't an obvious hoax. With many photographs we get it takes only one glance to see that they're lens smears or hoaxes. As far as we've gone, there is no evidence of a hoax."

The pictures were taken about 2:30 p.m. by Dan Jaroslaw, 17, and his brother, Grant, 15, near Mount Clemens, a Detroit suburb.

★ ★ ★

The boys' mother has refused to release the original four photographs. But a reporter for the Detroit News made copies of the photos and flew to Chicago Saturday to show them to Hynek.

HOVERED SILENTLY

The Jaroslaw brothers said the object they saw hovered silently over Lake St. Clair.

The boys also photographed a Coast Guard helicopter about the same time, but neither the helicopter pilots nor any one else reported strange aerial phenomena.

The saucer-shaped object in the photographs has a rounded top and an almost flat bottom with a protrusion resembling an antenna jutting up from one end.

Hynek said he will continue examining the photographs and hopes to have "something definite in a day or two."

Hynek said he has examined many pictures of objects described as UFOs, but only "half a dozen of them" could not be proved hoaxes.

Ask Antimissile Talks--Senator

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The United States should undertake "in the most direct and impressive manner" to reach an agreement with the Soviet Union on the question of antimissile systems, Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said Monday.

Gore, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the Soviet Union is installing an antimissile defense system around Moscow and 26 other cities.

The Soviet system "is well out of the theoretical stage" and is being constructed, he said.

"We should either bring the Soviets to an agreement on this or Congress should appropriate the money this session to initiate our own system."

'MAY BE WISE'

Gore said President Johnson in his State of the Union address last week told the Russians that if they would agree to stop installing their antimissile system, the United States would not begin to install its system.

"I think this may be wise," he said, "but I did not detect a sufficient sense of urgency in the President's speech."

★ ★ ★

On Nov. 10, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said there was "considerable evidence" that the Russians were deploying an antimissile system.

Look Threats Shrugged Off by Der Stern

HAMBURG (UPI) — A second uncut installment of William Manchester's "The Death of a President," containing passages objectionable to Mrs. John F. Kennedy, was on German newsstands today.

Der Stern magazine, which bought German serialization rights from Look magazine for $72,500, shrugged off threats by Look to sue for alleged breach of contract.

Look agreed to make cuts in its serialization after court action by Mrs. Kennedy. But this was after it had sold European rights.

Stern News Editor Norbert Sakowski said Stern paid for an uncut serialization.

★ ★ ★

Look's attempts to force it to use the expurgated version instead, Sakowski said, "were as if a dealer sold someone a red automobile and then told the buyer he must take it back to be repainted because it really should be green."

HOLD CONFAB

Look Editor William Attwood and attorney William Vanden Heuvel, a close friend of the Kennedy family, met with Stern's chief editor, Henri Nannen yesterday in an attempt to halt publication of the edition.

Nannen said, however, "there is no cause for abridging or changing the manuscript." There was nothing in it, he said "that goes beyond the limits of humane consideration for Mrs. Kennedy."

'Bombing Raid Killed 200 VC'

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — A captured Viet Cong major reported that a B52 raid near the "Iron Triangle" killed 200 Communist soldiers and dispersed a regiment of enemy troops, U.S. military headquarters said today.

A U.S. spokesman said the major was assigned to a rear-echelon service regiment and was taken prisoner after a heavy bomber raid Jan. 8 near Ben Cat, about 25 miles northwest of Saigon.

★ ★ ★

The spokesmen said the major told his interrogators the Viet cong regiment — about 1,500 men — dispersed after the raid and the bombing also destroyed 3,000 tons of rice.

The major also said the regiment's commanding officer was AWOL — absent without official leave — at the time of the raid, the U.S. spokesman said.

State Man Is Charged

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A 24-year-old mechanic has been charged with bringing a 16-year-old girl from Michigan to Miami Beach for prostitution.

★ ★ ★

The girl, who is pregnant, is in the custody of Dade County juvenile officials, officers said.

The FBI said Michael Murray Kennedy, Greenville, Mich., left Grattan, Mich., Jan. 6 with the 16-year-old and two 18-year-old girls.

★ ★ ★

The four moved into a motel, police said. Kennedy, charged under the Mann Act, and two of the girls were picked up last Thursday. The FBI said itis looking for the third girl.

Israel and Syria Agree to Emergency Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel and Syria have accepted U.N. Secretary General U Thant's appeal for an emergency meeting to ease border tensions, but the meeting does not appear imminent.

Thant urgently requested the two governments Sunday to agree "without delay or preconditions" to a meeting of the Israel-Syria Mixed Armistice Commission after he received reports of a major military buildup on both sides of the border which he said threatened to touch off large-scale fighting.

★ ★ ★

Syrian Ambassador George J. Tomeh informed Thant Monday that his government would attend the meeting "without any condition."

Ambassador Michael F. Comay of Israel told Thant his government is willing "in principle" to participate. But he told a news conference his government agreed on the understanding that the meeting would have general attitude toward the an agreed and limited agenda and would not prejudice Israel's general attitude toward the commission.

WRITTEN REPLY

Comay said he would deliver a written reply to the secretary general's proposal soon.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban said in Jerusalem that Syrian "shooting and bombing has first to stop to make such a meeting possible."

Israel has boycotted regular meetings of the Israel-Syria Mixed Armistice Commission because of Syrian insistence that priority be given to discussion of sovereignty over demilitarized zones along the border. Israel claims the territory for itself.

U.S. officials expressed concern over the continuing border violence and resulting tension in the area.

U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Arthur Goldberg said, "We have consistently endorsed the use of United Nations machinery to maintain peace in that area and continue to do so."

URGES CONFERENCE

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., proposed Monday night that President Johnson call a conference of the United States, France and Britain to secure "some measure of stability to this region" and "to prevent another Middle East war."

Israel and Syria continued to exchange harsh words with each blaming the other for the tension.

★ ★ ★

The Syrian Foreign Ministry said Israel displaced "aggressive intentions" by building up its forces along the border. It accused Israel of starting the shooting exchanges along the 50-mile frontier and said Syria is ready "to crush any aggression from Israel."

Eban told newsmen that his country cannot tolerate any more "aggressive acts" from Syria and warned that Israel has "the strength and will" to halt Syria's hostile acts.

★ ★ ★

Eban charged that Syria escalated the border clashes by using tanks and mortars in violation of the armistice agreement forbidding heavy armament in defensive zones. He said this forced Israel to bring tanks into the area.

The frontier area has been the scene of numerous shooting exchanges and mining incidents in the past two weeks.

Police Hold Sturgis Man in Fatal Shooting of Wife

STURGIS (AP) — Robert L. Comstock faced a murder charge today 24 hours after he allegedly shot his wife to death, beat his 4-year-old daughter and set his home afire.

Comstock, 37, a foundry worker, was arrested Monday while trying to open a $2 account at the Bank of Lima in Howe, Ind., five miles from his Michigan home.

★ ★ ★

Earlier in the day, firemen found the body of Comstock's wife, Alellia, 35, and the beaten child, Judith Marie. Police said Mrs. Comstock was pregnant.

The beaten child was taken to Sturgis Memorial Hospital where she was listed in fair condition with a fractured collarbone and multiple bruises. Comstock has five other children.

PUDDLE OF OIL

Firemen put out the blaze before it could spread from the basement, where newspapers were burning in a puddle of oil from a cut fuel pipe.

"He said he realized what he was doing while he was choking the girl after he hit her," said Sheriff Jack Bowen of LaGrange County. "And he left her in bed beside her mother's body."

★ ★ ★

Bowen said Comstock's only explanation was that his wife had been "nagging him a lot."

Michigan authorities returned Comstock to Sturgis Monday night after the accused man waived extradition before Judge Jack Dunten of LaGrange Circuit Court.

WALKED 5 MILES

Comstock apparently had walked the five miles to Hoye when police caught up with him in the bank.

One of the Comstock children, Dora, 11, found her mother's body after Judith had awakened the girl. Judith was covered with blood, police said.

Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially on the first day of May in each year as follows: $35,000.00 in each of the years 1968 through 1972, $40,000.00 in each of the years 1973 through 1977, $45,000.00 in the year 1978, and $60,000.00 in each of the years 1979 through 1996. A likewise qualified co-paying agent may also be so designated.

The bonds are to be the second and final part of a total issue of $3,000,000.00 voted for the purpose of erecting, furnishing and equipping school buildings and additions to school buildings, remodeling school buildings, and acquiring school sites and additions to school sites and developing and improving the same, all in said school district, and will be the general obligations of the school district, which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount, as provided in Section 16, Article IX, of the Constitution of Michigan.

The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $30,000, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. Abbe Kids About Cabinet if Reagan Gets Presidency

NEW YORK—When Abbe Lane brought her singing act back to the Plaza Persian Room, she interjected some kidding about the Cabinet of show people we might see in Washington if Ronald Reagen should be elected President.

"Health and Welfare: Dean Martin; Youth Development: Frank Sinatra; Secretary of the Treasury: Jack Benny.

I gave this a lot of thought and would like to add a couple of nominations on my own:

"Secretary of Defense: George Hamilton; Secretary of Labor: Ethel Kennedy."

WILSON

Abbe said there's a lot of similarity between New York and California: "We have a governor who's trying to get out of show business and you have a mayor who's trying to get into it."

Owners of Lion Sued by Jayne

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Jayne Mansfield has filed a $1.6-million suit against the Jungleland animal compound for injuries suffered last November by her son, Zolton, 6, who was mauled by a lion.

In the action filed yesterday, Miss Mansfield charged the boy was bitten by a lion she had been told was tame.

The boy underwent three major operations during four weeks at Conejo Valley Community Hospital in nearby Thousand Oaks. He was released Christmas Day.

The suit asked $1 million in punitive damages and $500,000 general damages on behalf of Zolton, and $100,000 in general damages for "mental suffering" caused Miss Mansfield.

★ ★ ★

The actress said she and the boy were guests of Jungleland and had been told the animal was tame — "even though the defendants knew of the dangerous propensities" of the lion.

MUSCLEMAN'S SON

Zoltan, the actress' son by Mickey Hargitay, suffered a skull fracture and punctured spleen in the attack and later contracted meningitis. The latter illness was not mentioned in the suit.

★ ★ ★

Attorney Samuel S. Brody, who was with Miss Mansfield when the attack occurred, filed the suit.

Senator Hits Hike in Seaway Tolls

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., has denounced a recent recommendation of the St. Lawrence Seaway Corp., that tolls on the seaway be hiked 10 per cent.

★ ★ ★

"I sometimes wonder if advocates of higher tolls aren't more interested in killing the Seaway than they are in seeing it survive and prosper," he said in a statement.

The senator called for a "full-scale congressional review" of the 1954 statute establishing the Seaway.

Reagan Sees No Way Out of Tax Boost

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan has made it clear to Californians that he sees no way to avoid a tax increase and isn't backing down in the furor over raising the cost of going to college.

★ ★ ★

The chance of tuition being imposed at the state university and colleges continued to stir more unrest than the prospect of more taxes.

The man Reagan succeeded, former Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown, viewed the tuition possibility with dismay. But the legislature's top Democrat, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh of Inglewood, warned critics of the proposal Monday to temper their protests.

★ ★ ★

Reagan said in a three-minute program distributed by his office to television stations for broadcast Monday night that he must balance the fiscal 1968 budget, which he says appears to have a $473, million deficit.

COMBINATION ROUTE

Getting it out of the red, the Republican governor said, means either raising taxes, cutting governmental costs or a combination of both. He made it clear he will take the combination route, saying "distasteful as it is to me, we are going to have to do this."

However, he added, "Taxes will only be raised after we are certain government is operating at peak efficiency."

★ ★ ★

He also took time out to praise California's higher education system and pledge to maintain its high quality. But, he declared, "So far, those receiving this education have not been required to share in this cost."

Smoking Talks

EAST LANSING (AP) — Specialists in both biology and behavior will discuss recent information on the relationship of smoking to health at a three-day conference starting tomorrow for Michigan physicians and other health workers.

Trade Missions for State Urged

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — State-subsidized trade missions seeking increased foreign trade for Michigan manufacturers are necessary if Michigan is to stay economically competitive, a Republican state senator said Monday.

Sen. Gilbert Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, told the Kent County Republican Women's Club increased exports could add $100 million to the state economy.

★ ★ ★

Bursley said exports in 1966 amounted to $1.5 billion and that establishing foreign outlets for small firms would create 5,000 jobs in Michigan.

For the past two years Bursley has been chairman of an interim legislative committee studying foreign trade.

EXPERIENCED

Bursley, who spent 15 years in the foreign service, said Michigan lags behind several states in promoting foreign trade.

3,000 Opel Workers Will Be Dismissed

RUSSELSHEIM, Germany (AP) — A spokesman for the workers' union at the Opel car plant said Sunday that 3,000 workers will be dismissed by the company.

The spokesman said a large number of office and clerical employes were included in those facing dismissal.

★ ★ ★

A slump in sales in the German motor industry was the cause of the layoffs, management was quoted as saying.

It is the second notice of layoffs in the Opel plant, a subsidiary of General Motors Corp. At the end of December 1,400 workers were laid off. At the same time Opel announced a series of staggered production curtailments lasting to the end of March.

INDUSTRY CUTS

Other major motor companies also announced similar production cuts in the flagging German car industry.

Ford-Werke A.G. of Cologne, the wholly owned German subsidiary of the Ford Motor Co., said it would close production on a total of 13 days this month and next.

Volkswagen, Germany's largest auto producer, began the first of a series of staggered cutbacks this week. The firm said it intended stopping production on 14 days in the first three months of this year.

Gambler Hears Shocking Order

SHEFFIELD, England (AP) — Alfred Morfitt is going to take electric shock treatments in an attempt to end his passion for gambling.

A Sheffield court ordered the 41-year-old factory worker to have "aversion therapy" to stop his betting or go to jail for swindling fellow workers out of money he spent on the horses.

★ ★ ★

Psychiatrists prescribed this course of treatment: "A movie will be made showing Morfitt's wife and three children in some scenes and in others Morfitt at race tracks and in betting shops."

The film will be played back for Morfitt, and he will get painful electric jolts every time he is shown at the races or talking to bookies. The psychiatrists hope he will associate gambling with pain and discomfort and give it up.

'Bridge Toll Collectors 99 Pct. Accurate'

ST. IGNACE (AP) — Toll collectors on the Mackinac Bridge are better than 99 and 99-100 per cent accurate, says Prentiss M. Brown, Bridge Authority chairman.

"More than 1,418,000 drivers handed money to 10 permanent and seven seasonal toll collectors in 1966," Brown reported today.

★ ★ ★

"However, only 33 persons complained that they had received incorrect change," he added.

Brown said that the statistics could be reduced to one complaint out of every 43,000 drivers.

Only 20 of the 33 complaints were substantiated by audit, said Brown. That further reduces the figure to one error in every 71,000 transactions.

★ ★ ★

"This record seems phenomenal when one considers that each toll collector often handles up to four transactions per minute; must keep in mind 12 different vehicle classifications; answer unlimited questions; provide road directions and frequently convert Canadians currency to U.S. rates," said Brown.

Salty Thieves

BRILON, Germany (AP) — Thieves who stole a heavy truck Monday night with beer advertisements painted on its side are due for a letdown, police reported today. The truck contained no beer — just 200 sacks of salt.

Philadelphia was the first city in the U.S. to turn to income taxes in a search for new revenue, enacting an income tax in 1939.

Traffic Ordinance Is Introduced for OCC, School District

The Waterford Township Board last night unanimously introduced a combined traffic ordinance for Oakland Community College and the township school district.

★ ★ ★

Steps will be taken to adopt the ordinance and to repeal an existing 5-year-old statute which pertained only to the local school district.

In addition to including the college, a major change from the old ordinance is the increasing of the speed limit on school grounds from 10 to 15 miles per hour.

The combined ordinance was recommended by Township Attorney Paul M. Mandel to simplify enforcement by the local police department.

Expenses for preparation and publication of the ordinance will be paid from township funds.

FIRST NOTICES

In other business last night, the board read first notices on two rezoning requests. Final action on each will be taken at the board's Feb. 6 meeting.

One of the proposals is to rezone from single family residential (R-1A) to general business (C-2) a lot on the northwest corner of Island Park and Sashabaw in Eyster's Woodhull Lake Farms Subdivision to complete a building for a restaurant operation.

The other request is to rezone from local business (C-1) to single family residential (R-1B) a lot on Cass Elizabeth near Robinwood.

★ ★ ★

Both requests were given favorable recommendations by the township planning commission and county coordinating zoning and planning committee.

REQUEST TABLED

A request to transfer ownership of a 1966 Class C and SDM licensed business from Primrose Lanes, Inc., to Lighthouse Lanes (William Forcier and Earl H. Tuttle) was tabled pending approval by the township fire marshal.

★ ★ ★

Also tabled was a lot split requested by Lloyd E. Smith Homes, Inc., for lot seven of Lakes View Subdivision, subject to review by the township planning director and assessor.

Following last night's regular meeting, negotiations resumed between the board and Waterford Township Professional Fire Fighters, Local 1335, toward a 1967 contract for firemen.

The American beer industry is a $7 billion a year business.

Police Probing State Slaying

DETROIT (UPI) — Police today were searching for the slayer of a man found stabbed to death in his Canton Township apartment.

The body of Thomas Genack, 48, was found by his landlord late Sunday when he noticed the door to his apartment was ajar.

Detectives from the Wayne County Sheriff's Office said Genack was found lying on his bed in the three-room apartment with a butcher knife in his chest.

They said he had also been struck on the head with a blunt instrument and that his wallet was missing.

★ ★ ★

Genack's 1963 white Chevrolet was missing when the body was discovered but was found yesterday at a Moose Lodge he belonged to in Detroit.

AWARD WINNERS — Calvin E. Patterson (left) was named Boss of the Year and Ted McCullough Jr. won the Outstanding Young Man of the Year Award as the Waterford Junior Chamber of Commerce staged its 13th annual Bosses' Night Banquet that attracted a record crowd of some 75 Jaycees, bosses and guests.

Waterford JCs Heap Honor on Colleague

Ted McCullough Jr., who was named Boss of the Year by the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1966, last night was designated Outstanding Young Man of the Year. He is the first Waterford Jaycee ever to win this double honor.

Calvin E. Patterson, an attorney who is active in civic affairs, was named Boss of the Year.

Plaques to the winners of the two traditional Jaycee awards were presented at the 13th annual Bosses' Night Banquet at Fortino's.

A new award was introduced last night by the Jaycees and it went to James Matteson who was designated Outstanding Young Educator. Matteson teaches English and social studies at Mason Junior High School.

McCullough, 34, of 3569 Brookdale has been a Jaycee for five years.

He was elected president of the Waterford Jaycees for a one-year term in 1964-65 and in 1965-66 serve das District 10 Jaycee vice president.

ELECTED TO BOARD

A real estate man, McCullough was elected last November to the Waterford Township Board and outpolled all other candidates. He will take office as a trustee in April.

Patterson, who is the father of Waterford Jaycee President Michael Patterson, was judged the area's outstanding boss.

"He's the best friend the Waterford Jaycees have," said First Vice President Dick Womack who presented the two traditional awards.

Jaycee Bruce Sias presented the new award to Matteson.

Dispute Settled on JFK Book

NEW YORK (AP)—Many changes made in settling the Kennedy book controversy out of court with Harper & Row involved what the late president's two children said and did in the immediate period following his assassination, it was learned today.

A source close to the Kennedy family said that in all roughly 6,000 to 8,000 words figured in the changes in William Manchester's book, "The Death of a President."

"Many changes involved the children and their reaction in the period of the assassination and what they said and did," the source said.

"It was nothing embarassing, but it was very sensitive and could be difficult for the children in the future."

An official of Harper & Row said that the changes involve a cumulative total of about 8 pages out of 654.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy's lawsuit to block publication of the book was withdrawn yesterday when Harper & Row and Manchester agreed to delete or modify certain personal passages of concern to President Kennedy's widow.

S. Viets Reject Cong Proposal for Longer Lull

Stand Firm on 4-Day Truce Offer for Asian New Year Holidays

SAIGON (UPI)—The South Vietnamese government today rejected a Vietcong proposal for a seven-day cease-fire during the Asian New Year (Tet) celebration in February.

The government agreed, however, to abide by its original proposal for a four-day truce through the Tet holiday. It would begin at 6 p.m. EST Feb. 7 and end at 6 p.m. EST Feb. 11.

It was not until after the South Vietnamese truce proposal that the Vietcong offer of a seven-day cease-fire was made.

South Vietnam replied today that it decided to stick by its four-day proposal following "consultation with the Allied governments."

★ ★ ★

U.S. military officials were openly opposed to an extended cease-fire on grounds it would enable Communist forces to regroup and ship supplies freely into South Vietnam.

300 'INCIDENTS'

During the recent 48-hour cease-fire periods over Christmas and New Years, American military spokesmen reported a total of 300 truce violations—or "incidents" — by the Communists.

BEATING THE ODDS — The odds, according to those in the know, are 86 to 1 that an expectant mother will give birth to twins. But those odds have been bested five times since last Wednesday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Over 1,000 Firebirds Built to Date

DETROIT (AP) — A new name, Pontiac's sporty Firebird, appeared in production reports for the first time this week as the General Motors division reported over 1,000 had been built to date.

The appearance of the new challenger in the field now populated by Mustang, Camaro, Cougar and Barracuda was a bright spot in an otherwise not too glowing production picture.

Auto makers continued to juggle production schedules this week with a target of about 175,000 cars.

Last week's output of 165,654 cars was the smallest in about three years, insofar as normal work weeks were concerned.

The industry defined a "normal" week as one not affected by holidays, work stoppages, supplier problems, model changeovers or bad weather.

SLIMMEST OUTPUT

Using that criteria, the week's output was the slimmers since March 16-21, 1964 when 164,807 cars were turned out.

American Motors' assembly lines remained closed for the last half of a two-week shutdown this week.

Ford's Atlanta plant was idle for one day today, while Mahwah, N.J., St. Louis and Lorain, Ohio, also had abbreviated work time this week.

General Motors had its plants in normal operation today after making some line adjustments last week as it laid off 2,800 workers at six of its plants, leaving the work force at well over 85,000.

Pontiac General Hospital Gets $292,998 Federal Aid

A federal grant totaling $292,998 has been approved for a major addition to Pontiac General hospital, it was announced today.

Also, project approval has been given to a proposed Pontiac School district. The latter could mean a possible $136,700 in federal aid.

U.S. Sen. Philip Hart said the grant to the hospital under the Hill-Burton program was for expanded emergency room and physical rehabiliation facilities.

The added hospital facilities, expected to cost a total of $727,000, are to be located south of the present hospital complex at Huron and Johnson.

Hospital Administrator Harold B. Euler said 19,640 square feet were to be added with the new wing. Construction bids are to be received in May with construction time estimated at 10 months.

★ ★ ★

Plans for the Pontiac School District project have been developed by B. C. VanKoughnett, the district's school community action director.

CURRICULUM

It is aimed at development of an elementary school curriculum that will place as much importance on the building of personal traits, including citizenship, as on academic progress, he said.

"Our thought is that the challenge facing schools is to develop citizens who will perpetuate and improve our society," VanKoughnett said.

Grant on Way for Rec Area in Orion Twp.

A federal grant of $139,750 has been awarded to the State Conservation Department to help acquire land for the Bald Mountin recreation area in Orion Township.

To become eligible for the grant from the Land and Water Conservation Fund of the U.S. Interior Department, the state had to make matching funds available.

The Legislature appropiated $80,000 last year and the balance was transferred from the state park motor vehicle permit fund.

Alfred Masini, district parks supervisor at the Conservation Department's Pontiac Lake office, said the total of $279,500 would be used to consolidate holdings in the recreation area.

"We should have this accomplished by the end of this year or early in 1968," he said.

Masini also said work will begin early this year on a new entrance road, picnic areas and sanitary facilities at Bald Mountain. The total cost of $400,000 will come from vehicle permit monies.

Dr. Stubblefield Checks Portable 'Blackboard'

By PAT McCarty

There's an Oakland University faculty member who's convinced he can teach mathematics by telephone.

There are two classes of OU students who are going to find out next week if they can learn about mathematics from an instructor who's 1,105 miles away. away.

The long-distance class sessions will constitute a "dry run" of a scheme Dr. Beauregard Stubblefield has to help make up for an acute shortage of mathematics educators at the college level.

Stubblefield, an associate professor, has been intrigued with the classroom application of telephones since 1964.

He plans to take a sabbatical leave during the next academic year to develop a telephone course for the geometry textbook he wrote.

CHANCE FOR TEST

Next week, when he attends the American Mathematical Society's convention in Houston, Stubblefield will get a chance to test his idea.

U. S. Strength in Asian Nation to Hit 405,000

An American Force of 475,000 Is Forecast by End of This Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten thousand more GIs will go to South Vietnam this month, boosting the U.S. force there to 405,000, Pentagon sources said today.

These officials predicted that by the end of the year the United States will be supporting a force of 475,000 in the Southeast Asian country.

At present there are 395,000 American servicemen in South Vietman.

The over-all Southeast Asian commitment stands at nearly 500,000, including 50,000 to 60,000 Navy men aboard ships of the 7th Fleet off Vietnam plus around 30,000 men, mostly Air Force, based in neighboring Thailand.

★ ★ ★

The steadily expanding buildup was signaled yesterday by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who told a Pentagon news conference there has been no change in President Johnson's policy stated in 1965.

DISAGREEMENT REPORTED

That policy, he said, is that Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in South Vietnam, will be supplied the men and materials he needs.

Published reports have said that the Joint Chiefs of Staff disagree with what was described as an administration-set ceiling of 460,000 to 480,000 men in Vietnam.

Wheeler said Gen. Westmoreland does not differ with Washington officials over what force is needed in South Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

Wheeler, a four-star general, said he would "stick his neck out" by saying flatly the Communists have lost any chance they once may have had for a military victory in South Vietnam.

Does this mean the United States is bound to win, Wheeler was asked.

"I think so," he replied, declining to pick a date when the moment of victory will come.

Baker Loses Dismissal Bid

Attorneys Claimed Bugging a Violation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Oliver Gasch today denied defense motions to dismiss charges against Bobby Baker because of "bugging" incidents.

Baker, former secretary to the Democratic majority of the Senate, is on trial on multiple charges, including income tax evasion and converting to his own use $80,000 intended as senatorial campaign contributions.

Defense Attorney Edward Bennett Williams, in moving evidence and dismissal of for the supression of certain charges, alleged that the Justice Department violated Baker's constutional rights by electronic eavesdropping.

For one thing, he noted that the government equipped Wayne L. Bromley with an electronic transmitter and sent him to a conference in 1965 with Baker at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

Bromley, former lobbyist and former Baker associate, is now testifying for the government at the trial.

New McCormick Place Vowed

CHICAGO (AP)—City officials promised today that a new McCormick Place soon will rise from the old one's ashes.

But opponents of the lakefront exhibition hall, which has aroused controversy since its construction in 1960, called its destruction by fire yesterday "a marvelous opportunity."

★ ★ ★

Some local civic and professional groups have criticized its financing, its aesthetics and its encroachment on Lake Michigan shoreline which, they said, should be preserved for scenic and recreational reasons.

Recently, controversy grew heated over plans for a $15-million expansion. Opponents said the flat, oblong, three-block-long building already was too large for beauty or convenience and that enlarging it would further deface the lakefront.

MIGHT ENDANGER BONDS

Some groups argued that the expansion might endanger the $20 million in bonds owned by the State of Illinois with which it was financed.

★ ★ ★

Flames destroyed the 10-acre, three-level structure as firemen worked desperately to unfreeze hydrants for water that might have quenched the blaze that roared through the $40-million convention hall. But Fire Commissioner Robert I. Quinn said, "All the water in Lake Michigan wouldn't have helped much."

One man was killed. Firemen discovered the body of Kenneth S. Goodman in the debris.

Conventions were being canceled and conventioneers were seeking transportation out of town. The conventioneers who were staying were bidding for display space at Navy Pier, the International Amphitheatre, the Merchandise Mart and other facilities.

ESTIMATES VARY

Damage estimates ranged from the official one — $10 million to the building only, made by Commissioner Quinn — to $40 million for the building plus $150 million to the contents.

The $150-million figure was derived from exhibitors at the National Houseware Manufacturers Association show, which would have opened Monday. Its exhibits had jammed almost every available square foot of display space.

★ ★ ★

Edward J. Lee, McCormick Place general manager, said the building was worth $40 million — $32 million to construct in November 1960 plus $8 million since then in improvements.

"We will have another McCormick Place," Mayor Richard J. Daley told a news conference. He said that in the meantime, labor, hotels and businesses are cooperating to make sure such major scheduled conventions as the Auto Show, Sports Show and Boat Show stay in Chicago.

Conventions Seek Move to Detroit Hall

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit convention officials report several major conventions have contacted Cobo Hall officials seeking to transfer their meetings from Chicago's fire - damaged McCormick Place.

★ ★ ★

The huge Chicago lake-front exposition hall was 50 per cent destroyed by fire early Monday. Damage was estimated at upwards of $100 million.

★ ★ ★

Officials at Cobo Hall, Detroit's river-front convention center, said spokesmen from 8 to 10 major conventions scheduled for Chicago asked information about transferring their meetings. The groups requested their names not be used but they ranged in size from 3,500 to 60,000 delegates, the spokesman said.

EXPECT 3 SHOWS

Leonard E. Rolston, executive vice president of the Detroit Convention Bureau said at least three additional trade shows originally booked for Chicago are expected to come to Detroit this year.

★ ★ ★

Rolston said Detroit and Chicago officials were working together to accommodate conventions that cannot find meeting room in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"We have been fierce competitors for convention business," said Rolston. "But we are not going out of our way to cut Chicago's throat at a tragic time like this."

EXPOSITION HALL RUINS — Chicago's McCormick Place, once described as more durable than Rome's Colosseum, lies in ice-sheathed ruins today following a disastrous fire that swept the three-block exposition hall yesterday. Firemen carry a traffic barrier past the collapsed walls and tangled girders. Damage estimates range from the official one—$10 million to the building only—to $40 million to the building plus $150 million to the contents.

Blast Slightly Damages Car of Ex-Syria Chief

BEIRUT (UPI) — An apparent assassination attempt failed today against former Syrian Premier Salah Bitar at his home in Beirut.

★ ★ ★

Police said a small explosion slightly damaged the former leader's car, parked outside his home in Beirut's sea front quarter.

Bitar was in the house at the time. No one was injured.

The 54-year-old Syrian was placed under house arrest in Damascus after being ousted last Feb. 23 by the military coup which swept the current leadership to power.

★ ★ ★

He escaped in September and fled to Beirut.

National Drive Planned to Reduce Thefts of Autos

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is planning a national campaign against car theft and is seeking — through persuasion or legislation — to have automobile manufacturers make their cars harder to steal.

Announcing this today, Asst. Atty. Gen. Fred M. Vinson Jr. said steering wheel, transmission and hood locks and more secure ignition systems are devices which would help reverse the rising trend of automobile thefts.

Vinson said the Justice Department has conferred with industry representatives "with a view to installation of feasible and effective devices at the earliest practicable date.

"We are following with interest the automobile industry's activity in this regard and we are considering legislation, if necessary, to require installation of antitheft devices at the point of manufacture or assembly," he said in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., the subcommittee chairman, said his group also is considering legislation which would require antitheft devices on new cars.

Their talk of possible new laws dealing with automobile equipment came with manufacturers and the government at odds over the number and nature of safety devices to be required on 1968 model cars under a law passed by the 89th Congress.

LBJ Will Turn to Excise Tax ---Economist

DETROIT (AP) — A leading economist predicted Monday that Congress will reject President Johnson's proposed income tax increase and the chief executive will turn to a sharply increased excise tax to meet mounting federal spending.

Economist Eliot Janeway told the Economic Club of Detroit the drive for increased excise taxes will begin with the automobile industry.

★ ★ ★

Janeway said an excise tax hike would bring in "a quick $5 billion."

He said the President's proposed 6 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate incomes might not bring extra funds to the federal government.

"I am dubious as to whether tax collections would go up because of the squeeze on earnings," said the economist.

★ ★ ★

Janeway accused Johnson of trying to place the burden of a tax boost on Congress.

Sukarno Asked to Step Down

Move Is Suggested by Foreign Minister

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian Foreign Minister Adam Malik disclosed today he has asked President Sukarno to step down "in the interest of the nation."

Malik told newsmen after meeting Sukarno at his palace he advised the president to make this move before he was brought down in dishonor.

★ ★ ★

Testimony at various treason trials has tended to connect Sukarno with the attempted Communist coup Oct. 1, 1965. But in a statement last week to Congress, Sukarno denied he had anything to do with it.

After the coup, the army cracked down on the Indonesian Communists and gradually took away Sukarno's powers. Since last March, when Gen. Suharto took over as the actual head of Indonesia, Sukarno has been little more than a figurehead.

ON REACTION

Malik gave no indication what Sukarno's reaction was to his request.

He asked Sukarno to dissociate himself from everything connected with the presidency, he said.

Elaborating on a meeting with Sukarno during a ceremony at the Foreign Office, Malik said, if necessary, Sukarno should appoint someone else until general elections scheduled for 1968 are held.

Speaking to Sukarno "as a comrade in arms for tens of years in the past," he told the president they needed his help to maintain peace in Indonesia.

Malik warned that if Sukarno faced the present situation without "a clear head and greatness of spirit," he would face serious issues.

Dropout Cited for Valor in Vietnam War

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—He was a high school dropout at age 17, but a hero home from Vietnam at 22.

He is Army S. Sgt. Burwood Yost Jr., who has been recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross and a second Bronze Star with a "V" for valor.

★ ★ ★

Monday was Yost's day of glory. A crowd of 1,000 sang "The Star-Spangled Banner," the high school band played and city fathers gave speeches.

Yost received citations from the City of Cambridge, from the Dorchester County commissioners and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

★ ★ ★

A member of a so-called hard-core squad that has ben operating in the jungles of South Vietnam's central highlands, Yost was cited for running through 50 meters of hostile fire to deliver ammunition to a machine gun.

"This can not be done with academic subjects only."

An elementary school will be chosen for the pilot project after all in the district have been evaluated, he said.

School staff members and community representatives will work on the project during this academic year before a team of teachers designs a specific curriculum and program for the entire school, VanKoughnett said.

Anti-Romney GOP Group in State

DETROIT (UPI)—A right-wing Republican group yesterday launched a statewide drive pledged to fight Gov. George Romney if he tries for the GOP presidential nomination.

The United Republicans of America (URA) said the campaign would expand this week into Bay City, Flint, Lansing, Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo.

D. Bruce Evans, chairman of the Washington-based URA, said the organization is a right-wing vehicle within the GOP, not a third party, and will hold its first national convention in February 1968 in Dallas.

Evans said the URA would fight Romney at Republican primaries and at the GOP convention in 1968, giving the governor's refusal to support Barry Goldwater in 1964 as a prime reason for the opposition.

★ ★ ★

Possible URA nominees would include California Gov. Ronald Reagan, Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio and Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., Evans said. He added, however, that the URA would support the final national Republican convention nominee, even if it would be Romney.

KEY FIGURE

One key figure in setting up the Michigan URA campaign was Richard Durant, of Grosse Pointe, the conservative chairman of the 14th Congressional Republican Organization.

Birmingham Area News

Street Work Said a Necessity

BIRMINGHAM — The paving of two remaining unimproved streets in the south portion of the city was declared a necessity last night by the City Commission.

Scheduled for improvement later this year are Catalpa from Pierce to Grant, and Cedar from Lincoln to Catalpa.

The commission, following a public hearing on the two projects, directed the city engineering office to prepare plans and construction costs.

The cost of constructing pavement on each street is estimated at $27,000. The city would pay 15 per cent of the $54,000 total with benefiting property owners sharing the remainder.

★ ★ ★

A hearing confirming the assessment district and individual cost to property owners is expected to be scheduled within three months.

ADJOURNMENT

Another hearing for the proposed improvement of Edgewood between Catalpa and Smith, was adjourned until Feb. 20.

At that time, the commission will consider the construction of a cul-de-sac to serve the rear of a housing development being built on Grant, one block east of Edgewood.

The portion of Edgewood under consideration is presently closed to traffic, and a number of residents have objected to it being opened as a thoroughfare.

★ ★ ★

It has not been decided whether the cul-de-sac would enter from Southlawn on the north or from Smith on the south.

REC PROGRAM

The commission, in other business, directed the administration to draft an ordinance reorganizing the city recreation program.

Under the plan, the present Forestry and Parks Department will be renamed the Parks and Recreation Department, with the present Forestry Superintendent Darrel Middlewood in charge.

The reorganization was recommended by City Manager Robert Kenning after the Birmingham Board of Education withdrew from a joint recreation program on the first of the year.

BIRMINGHAM — The board of education will receive a survey of current transportation procedures at their meeting tonight.

Included is a report on the possible need for bus schedules in the evenings to serve students on extracurricular activities.

GOP Rebuttal to Johnson to Call for Budget Cutting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican rebuttal to President Johnson's State of the Union message will demand a budget-cutting drive to avert the 6 per cent surtax on most incomes that Johnson has proposed.

But while opposing the surtax, the GOP will endorse the U.S. position in Vietnam which, in part, is causing the ned for additional income. At the same time, it will accuse the administration of foreign policy blunders elsewhere in the world.

★ ★ ★

The Republican leaders of Congress, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Gerald R. Ford, will outline their view of the State of the Union Thursday night in a 30-minute nationally televised report from the Capitol's old Supreme Court chamber.

Their speeches are still in preparation, and all the decisions have not yet been made. But a Senate source familiar with the GOP's basic points provided an advance account today.

FOREIGN POLICY

Dirksen will deal with foreign policy, reaffirming GOP support of the President's course in Vietnam. But his report also will raise critical questions about policy elsewhere, the source said.

Dirksen will criticize administration handling of the Alliance for Progress programs in Latin America and also complain of disarray in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the source said, Dirksen will have critical words about U.S. policy in Africa and the Middle East.

There will be criticism, too, of American trade policies, alleging that they have caused harm to some U.S. industries, the source said.

Prof to Test Math Course by Telephone

phone hook-up, he will lecture to his students on the Oakland University campus while conducting a class at Texas Southern University.

Stubblefield's voice will be broadcast over a loudspeaker in the OU classroom.

★ ★ ★

Instead of the blackboard which normally is used throughout a math lecture, Stubblefield will illustrate his points on transparencies projected onto a screen by an assistant here.

INNOVATION

This is the innovation, the facet of telephone teaching Stubblefield believes has not been attempted before.

Just plain telephone lectures are quite common on the collegiate level, he said.

If his idea works, an instructor at one university could teach four or five classes at other universities simultaneously.

★ ★ ★

Stubblefield is confident enough of his success to put his own money into next week's project, which sould cost about $300 for installation of the equipment and the six one-hour telephone calls involved.

LOWER COST

Stubblefield favors this method over television for two reasons. One is the lower cost and the other is feedback.

Students here and in Houston will be able to ask questions during the class without leaving their seats. And they will be heard by other students in both classrooms.

Stubblefield's only concern is that the students may freeze up and the class lose its informality in this initial experiment.

★ ★ ★

He's been careful not to rehearse them.

Nevertheless, they have shown unusual interest in next week's classes and they've volunteered to help him prepare the materials he needs.

The word is spreading on the OU campus, so Stubblefield has had to adopt the motto: "You must have a pass to attend this class."

5,713 Electors Are Suspended

Notices of suspension are being mailed this week to 5,713 Waterford Township electors who have not voted since the November 1964 election.

An elector must vote at least once every two years to keep his registration active.

According to the township clerk's office, voters' registrations will be reinstated if they sign the notices and return them within 30 days.

Otherwise, voters' registrations will be canceled and they must reregister before they can vote again.

★ ★ ★

Persons can contact the clerk's office for further information.

The 5,713 voters whose registrations have expired represent less than 25 per cent of the township's 24,222 registered electors as tallied in October 1966.

U.S. Jets Hit Hanoi-Area Railroad Yard

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — American jet bombers returned to the heavily defended Hanoi area today for two raids on a sprawling railroad yard 40 miles north of the Communist capital.

A U.S. military spokesman, reporting on strikes in the Red River Delta for a third straight day of clear weather, said Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs pounded the Thai Nguyen rail yard in the morning and again this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

As the pace of the air war over the north quickened, U.S. headquarters reported two Air Force photo reconnaissance Phantom jets went down over North Vietnam Monday and said the four fliers are missing. A spokesman said one plane was downed by Communist ground fire and the other is missing from unknown causes and presumed down.

This brought the number of U.S. planes reported lost over the Communist north to 459.

'Threat Made in Fatal Fight'

Witness to Teen Battle Tells About Warning

ROYAL OAK (AP)—A witness testified Monday that accused slayer Robert J. Quinn told another youth "I'm going to kill you" during a fist fight outside Dondero High School Dec. 21.

Quinn, 16, is charged with second degree murder in the slaying of Gregory Barrett, 18.

★ ★ ★

The testimony by Robert Hoffmaster, 16, a Dondero student, came during Quinn's examination before Municipal Judge Keith J. Leenhouts of Royal Oak.

Hoffmaster testified he and three friends were leaving the school when their attention was attracted to a crowd of 100 spectators watching the fight.

He testified he saw both Quinn and Barrett land punches before falling to the ground.

"Bob Quinn was gouging at Gregory Barrett's eyes and face," Hoffmaster testified. Barrett was on his back and Quinn was over him. He (Barrett) was getting hurt and he said 'I want to quit.'"

★ ★ ★

At that point, Hoffmaster, said, Quinn said, "I'm not quitting yet because I'm going to kill you."

Hoffmaster said the fight continued until Barrett appeared to be hurt.

"He (Barrett) was shaking like he was cold and mumbling, but nobody could understand him," said Hoffmaster. "Quinn rolled over and got on his knees and kept striking Barrett on the head."

From Commission

Funds OK Is Sought

City commissioners tonight will be asked to approve temporary appropriations pending adoption of a revised 1967 budget.

Although drafted once and the subject of a public hearing, the proposed budget is to be revised to reflect recent changes in municipal costs.

These changes include deletion from the budget of appropriations and revenue involving the Pontiac Municipal Airport, which is to be transferred to Oakland County.

In other business, the commission is slated to make several reappointments to the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee.

★ ★ ★

Also, bids are to be received on the sale of $1,014,000 in temporary loan notes to finance the R44 urban renewal project for six months.

In still other business, City Manager Joseph A. Warren is to report on the status of negotiations with Pontiac Transit Co. officials on renewal of the bus contract.

Outfits Baby Twice

DEAR POLLY — I find rubber pants are not only useful for putting on baby for the intended purpose but as a bib, too. Just snap a clean pair around the neck and you are set. They cover from the neck to the waist. This saves money as you get two uses out of one pair of pants. — FREIDA

DEAR POLL Y— My boys had more than enough white shirts but were asking for new ones in pastel colors, so I used the washing machine dye that is so easy to use and made them the colors the boys wanted.

In order that the colors would not be too dark, I dyed one pair of white pillowcases with each shirt. These cases are ones I had made from the best parts of worn-out sheets. Now I have happier boys and a prettier linen closet. — MARY V

DEAR POLLY — When I need a small ironing board to iron my little daughter's skirts that were too narrow for the regular board, my husband took the top off the girl's broken play ironing board, attached it to a U-type frame made of two by fours. The narrow skirts with elastic waists are easy to iron on this. — MRS. W. D. S.

DEAR POLLY — Please tell Mrs. C. Z. she can remove the plastic from the glass door of her broiler very easily if she will scrape it off with a razor blade while the door is still warm. — IVA

DEAR POLLY — My mother does a lot of embroidery. When she is ready to start using a new skein of floss, she cuts off about three inches, and loops it through the tube around the skein so if more thread is needed she knows the color and brand to buy. — BARBARA

Spray Outside Too

When spraying the inside of closets with a moth repellent, always spray the floor outside the closet.

China Entry Into War Is Remote---Wheeler

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson's top li iymdratadent Johnson's top military adviser is convinced Communist China will not enter the Vietnam war unless the United States attacks the Chinese mainland.

★ ★ ★

Though "a number of people" do not share his view, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler told reporters yesterday, he has "no particular apprehension" that the Chinese will eventually join the war.

Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he thought "it would take an overt action on our part, such as an attack on Communist China itself, to trigger Chinese intervention."

The question of whether China can be expected to stay out of the war lost its academic nature with a report from a French editor that a secret U.S.-Peking understanding existed on Red China's terms for non-intervention.

★ ★ ★

Rene Dabernat, foreign editor of Paris Match magazine, was quoted as saying Red China had promised, in a message conducted to Washington by the French Foreign Ministry, to stay out of the war as long as the United States did not attack China, did not invade North Vietnam and did not bomb the dikes of the Red River in North Vietnam.

ACCEPTED TERMS

According to a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report, Dabernat said the United States accepted the terms through public remarks of special significance to Peking made in various speeches by U.S. officials.

The Red Chinese message reportedly was transmitted last spring.

The White House refused comment on the report, but Secretary of State Dean Rusk denied any secret agreement existed.

★ ★ ★

Rusk, speaking to reporters after a four-hour closed session with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also said "there is no major movement" toward settling the war discernible on North Vietnam's part, either on the diplomatic front or in the reduction of infiltration in the South.

Observe New English Program

Educators Visit School in Waterford

A Waterford Township elementary school was the center of attraction for 21 members of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of School Studies yesterday.

The educators visited Four Towns School, 6370 Cooley Lake, to the observe the merits of the Roberts linguistic program — a new approach to the teaching of English.

Four Towns is the only school in the county and one of six in Michigan currently conducting a pilot program in the unique linguistic program for third through sixth grades.

The program is a writing series using transformational grammar and literature in a thorough and sequential manner, said Kenneth J. Cooper, school principal.

Continuity and sequence of instruction develops from one grade to another, noted Cooper. "Selections of good literature—poetry and prose—are used and studied in a definite order of development."

Council members visiting the school yesterday consisted of professional educators from Southeastern Michigan.

The visitation stemmed from a discussion about the linguistics program at a meeting of the elementary school improvement committee seminar last November.

The educators visited classrooms, examined materials used in the program and met with teachers to discuss and relate their impressions.

80 Courses, Activities Are Offered for Adults

More than 80 courses and activities, several of them new, are being offered for the next session of Waterford Township Community School Services program.

Most classes will commence the week of Feb. 5, according to Donald Youmans, coordinator of community school services. Bishop sewing classes will begin Jan. 23.

Registrations will be accepted from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Jan. 23-26 at the Waterford Township High School library, 1415 Crescent Lake.

Interested persons also can register by mail. Further information can be obtained by contacting Youmans at the community school services office, 3835 W. Walton.

★ ★ ★

The program, which consists of adult education and recreation activities, is financed jointly by the school district, township and Mott Foundation.

CATEGORIES

Classes are offered in the following categories: art, do-it-yourself, food preparation, home arts, special interests, business and recreation.

New courses planned are plastic art, general carpentry problems, household mechanics, landscaping your home, diabetic, Oriental foods, kitchen demonstration workshop, and basic crocheting.

Other new offerings are introduction to computers, beginning Russian, guitar hootenany, about the Jewish people — America Israel, the Negro in American history, badminton club, table tennis club and family gymnastics.

★ ★ ★

If sufficient interest is shown, a women's swimming instruction program will be offered at the Oakland University pool from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Saturdays beginning Jan. 21.

WOMEN NEEDED

At least 50 women are needed to form a class.

Among the other classes offered are china painting, income tax, coin collecting, modern math for parents, armchair (vacation) tours, handwriting analysis, poodle grooming and trimming, amateur radio, beauty, poise and personality and a fashion-your-figure club.

EAST LANSING (AP) — Training adults for the changing occupations of the future will be the featured topic at the 13th annual Trade and Technical Teachers Conference, expected to attract about 500 teachers at East Lansing Feb. 24-25.

Per capita consumption of beer and ale was 16 gallons in 1965.

Senators View Problems of Aged Buyers

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee opens hearings today on the pocketbook problems of the elderly.

★ ★ ★

Unscrupulous salesmen and gyp-laden installment contracts aren't the only challenges awaiting elderly consumers, Sen. Harrison A. Williams, D-N.J., said.

★ ★ ★

"We decided," said Williams, chairman of the subcommittee on Consumer Interests of the Elderly, "that confusion or lack of information can be as troublesome as actual deception or fraud."

★ ★ ★

GYP SCHEMES

In previous years, the subcommittee concentrated on gyp schemes. But these investigations, said Williams, "did not adequately deal with all problems that affect older Americans in the marketplace."

★ ★ ★

He said federal agencies will be asked what can be done to help state agencies concerned with laws or programs intended to protect or inform consumers.

★ ★ ★

Elderly persons, Williams said, have a buying power of about $40 billion a year — "an alluring target for pitchmen inside or outside the law."

★ ★ ★

The subcommittee wants to find out just how much is known about elderly consumers and their special needs, he said. "They may, in fact, be the forgotten market in today's merchandising boom."

Week Is Special

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has proclaimed this week as Jaycee Week in Michigan in recognition of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce. The same period also was proclaimed Printing Week in salute to the printing and graphic arts industry.

Eyebrows Up ...So Hemline Goes Down

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oklo. (AP)—A state senator's young secretary has lowered her hemline on the miniskirt that raised some eyebrows and drew some complaints at the Capitol last week.

The complaints came mostly from older, rural senators and some other secretaries.

"That dress is just something my constituents wouldn't understand," said one senator. "They'd walk in and say that girl forgot her dress."

A secretary commented, "It's all right until she starts filing in the bottom drawer of the file cabinet."

But the 23-year-old lass will have strong support in case the Senate tries to legislate the matter.

One of the younger senators said, "With us around to vote, I don't think they'd ever get it out of committee."
