OU launches new Alumni Web site

By Jeff Samoray, OU Web Writer

The Oakland University Alumni Association recently launched a redesigned Web site that provides the latest alumni news and information as well as helpful resources to allow alumni and friends to make the most of their memberships.

Site visitors can:

- read the latest campus and OUAA news;
- find out about OUAA events such as the upcoming Charter Class Reunion;
- learn about the benefits of OUAA membership and how to apply;
- update your contact information and help find lost alumni;
- read about OUAA trips such as the upcoming visit to Ireland;
- obtain an OUAA Board of Directors application or OUAA Award nomination form;
- find out about student alumni scholarships and how to apply;
- access the Grizz Store or OU Bookstore for OU merchandise;
- learn about the newly formed Future Alumni Network;
- and so much more.

"The Alumni Relations Department is pleased to have the many new Web pages that showcase the Future Alumni Network student organization, the Charter Class Reunion and OUAA scholarships for students, to name only a few," said OUAA Assistant Director of Information Technology Linda Oliver. "The Web site has a different look and feel. The information is well organized, and our alumni will enjoy the increased assortment of useful information and links the site provides. As our programs expand and change, so will our Web site."

If you have comments or questions about the new Web site, you may submit the Comments and Questions form on the site.
