Clear Skies Encouraging Voters in Pontiac

Clear skies greeted voters at the polls in today's biennial spring election of seven City Commissioners to represent Pontiac's seven doting districts.

Polls open at 7 a.m. in the city's 44 precincts.

Balloting was "picking up steadily" by noon, with indications the total vote might exceed that of two years ago, the City Clerk's office said.

Voting was considerably heavier today than during the early hours of last month's light primary balloting, City Clerk Ada R. Evans said.

Polls will remain open until 8 p.m. Voters standing in line at that time will be allowed to vote.

In the 1956 election, about 8,600 out of approximately 37,000 registered voters cast ballots. There are about the same number of registered voters in Pontiac this year, Mrs. Evans said.

Election results can be obtained by calling The Pontiac Press, FE 2-8181, after 9 p.m. tonight. Complete results will be published in tomorrow's Press.

Today's candidates:

District 4—Gerald W. Kehoe and Floyd P. Miles.

District 5—John A. Dugan and Ronald C. Hallenback.

District 7—Robert A. Landry and Gilbert W. Long.

The seven winners will serve two terms, beginning at an organizational meeting Monday night, at which time they are expected to select a mayor from among their membership.

The 1956-1958 commission will hold its last regular meeting tomorrow night and convene for a final time Thursday night to canvass the ballots.

Former Janet Adams, Duane Barkeley Killed

He Pilots Small Craft Into Fatal Rainstorm on Way Home

By PETE LOCHBILER

Circuit Judge and Mrs. Clark J. Adams' younger daughter and her husband were killed yesterday when their small plane crashed in a violent rainstorm 100 miles northwest of Pontiac.

Killed when their rented craft smashed to pieces on a gravel road two miles south of Alma were Duane D. Barkeley, 26, a "week-end" pilot, and his wife, Janet, 23.

The couple was returning to the Pontiac area after an overnight visit with friends in Mt. Pleasant. Barkeley was the son of Mrs. Olga Barkeley, of 554 Lennox St., a clerk in the Pontiac City Clerk's office the past nine years.

The accident occurred at approximately 10:15 a.m., only a few minutes after the young couple had taken off from a small field at Mt. Pleasant.

Their plane, striking the ground at a steeply inclined angle, burrowed itself into a Tyler road, in Gratiot County's Acada Township, a relatively unpopulated farming area. The engine was buried two feet deep.

State troopers, who removed the bodies with the help of sheriff's deputies and a Civil Defense crew, said the plane had "crumpled up like an accordion." It did not burn.

They believed that Barkeley, an experienced amateur pilot, was trying to avoid the sudden furious rain and fog into which the plane was headed.

A farmer told them he saw the plane turn around when it reached the squall area and try to head back north. It crashed seconds later, he said.

Civil Aeronautics authorities blamed the storm as the cause of the crash.

Possible Budget of $12,762,280 OK'd by County

Expected Floor Fight Over Child Clinic Fund Fails to Develop

An expected floor fight over an extra $15,000 appropriation for the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic failed to materialize at the Board of Supervisors meeting this morning and a record 1959 budget was passed unanimously.

The clinic's request for additional funds was the only item debated on the floor. The supervisors voted 71-0 to present a $12,762,280 tentative budget to the County Tax Allocation Board.

Expected opposition and a move to hike the present $32,500 allocation collapsed today when it was pointed out that the supervisors' Ways and Means Committee would have ample time to study the proposed boost before final action was taken on the budget next fall.

Supporting the clinic's request was Royal Oak Supervisor Howard K. Kelley who passed out information showing that some 200 organizations were behind the extra appropriation.

The clinic originally had asked for $72,467 but this was trimmed to $32,500 by the Ways and Means Committee and the Board of Auditors.

Kelley charged that the county's expanding "welfare load is furnishing a very good excuse for not

Ice Floes Jam Up Again, Clog Lower St. Clair

ALGONAC (INS) — Icebreakers are being pressed into service again today in the St. Clair River as huge ice floes once more jammed up near Algonac.

Freighter traffic was closed as large masses of ice clogged the lower river near Harsen's Island.

Commander Gordon MacLane of the U.S. Coast Guard reported ships were getting from Port Huron into Lake Huron by escort from the Kaw, Acacia and Mackinaw, all ice breakers.

Earlier today, freighters had been able to move through the floes without assistance.

Williams Gives Hint of His '60 Ambitions

(By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Governor Williams hinted broadly at the presidential nomination and proposed a Middle East program while in the Pacific Northwest on the weekend.

To a question about his intentions toward the Democratic nomination in 1960, Williams replied:

"I'm a big man, but they might not have to push me very hard."

That was at Spokane where he stopped for a meeting with party officials.

Last night in Seattle he called for creation of a Middle East Development Corp. in a talk at a celebration of the 10th anniversary of the founding of the State of Israel.

Such a corporation, in which the United States would join with Israel and the Arab states, is needed, he said, "to develop massive programs for the massive problems of the whole area."

A start on such a program could be made through the 100 million dollar United Nations fund for development projects in underdeveloped areas, Williams said.

"This fund," he continued, "we set up on the initiative of the United States, and we need now to take the further step of expanding it for use in regionwise projects to solve problems that do not stop at national boundary lines.

"While we work to resolve the political and military tensions of the area, we should at the same time proceed to. . . do everything we can to raise the standard of health and prosperity of all the people in the middle east."

Plane With 47 Aboard and Jet Crash in Air

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS) — A United airliner with 47 persons aboard collided with a military jet in flight above Las Vegas today. And both planes plunged into mountains about 20 miles from the gambling resort.

A parachute was seen descending from the stricken, single-engine jet, and the air force said later that it has picked up an unidentified airman.

There was no immediate word on the fate of the 42 passengers and crew of five.

The two planes collided above Las Vegas' famed "strip" of lush resort hotel-casinos and crashed 20 miles to the Southwest in the vicinity of Mount Potosi, where actress Carole Lombard was killed in a plane crash during World War II.

It was due over this desert gambling resort at 8:31 a.m. but was not scheduled to land here.

A few minutes after 8:31 the big craft crashed in a hilly desert area about 15 miles southwest of here.

The area is known as the Blue Diamond area, and the only town is the small mining community of Arden, about eight miles from the crash area, the CAA said.

Helicopters, ambulances, and rescue crews were dispatched to the isolated area.

Complains About Food; Husband Killed by Wife

DETROIT (AP)—A 23-year-old mother of three children was held by police today in the fatal shooting of her husband after a quarrel at the dinner table yesterday.

Mrs. Dorothy Syme was quoted by police as saying she shot her husband James, 28, because he called her "a lousy cook" and threw his plate of food on the floor of their apartment.

Mrs. Syme said she became frightened at her husband's action, went into a bedroom and got a .22 caliber revolver and fired twice at him.

She said she continued to shoot as he fled outside. He was dead beside the driveway when police reached the scene.

The couple's oldest children — Leigh, 4, and James Jr., 3 — were at the table when the shooting took place. The youngest, Garth, one, was asleep.

Mrs. Syme told police she and her husband, a gasoline station attendant, had quarreled frequently since moving here from Kalamazoo last July.

A neighbor said the couple had quarreled Saturday when Mrs. Syme left home at 10:30 a.m. and did not return until 7 p.m. The neighbor said Syme asked a relative to stay with the children when he had to go to work on the afternoon shift.

Mrs. Syme collapsed when she learned her husband died of a bullet wound in the chest. She told police:

"He hit me twice yesterday afternoon when I refused to give him money. I had the money, but it was for bills. He left and returned in 15 minutes demanding dinner. All the time he kept calling me horrible names."

Plenty of Work Seen in Oakland

County Heads Planning Jobs Relief Program for Unskilled

Oakland County supervisors decided today there was plenty of work in the county to help scores of residents presently without work.

They made preliminary plans for a work relief program for unskilled workers who are among hundreds of persons receiving welfare payments from the county.

George H. Burt, director of the social welfare department, was instructed to find out how many unemployed might be put to work on county improvement projects.

Burt informed several committees of the Oakland Board of Supervisors that there was probably close to 1,000 who might do this work. The proposal would mean that they would be paid from relief funds at an hourly rate mentioned at around $1.50.

Several county officials said their departments could use this help. William J. Emerson, county Board of Education superintendent, said they could be used on cleaning up township schools. Sol D. Lomerson, road commission chairman, said they might be used on cleaning local roads.

Similar work relief programs are under way in Wayne and Macomb Counties.

Figures Can Deceive

WASHINGTON (INS) — The average American family earned $6,130 last year — $2,000 more than in 1947. However, the Commerce Department reported that the 50 per cent increase in dollars amounted to only about 20 per cent in real income, or, purchasing power.

Watch in Terror as Divers Fail to Free Doors

5 Aged Women Die in Sunken Car

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Five women residents of a nursing home—the youngest 80, the oldest 96 — were trapped and drowned in a driverless automobile yesterday when the car slipped its brakes, rolled down a grade and into a lake.

William L. Bruce, 34, an assistant dean at Harvard Law School, dived after the car but could not open its doors because of water pressure. He said the women inside "looked terrified — numb with fear."

He said that for five minutes, as the air-filled car slowly settled into the water, the women fought desperately to escape and stared through the closed windows in horror as four men tried to free them.

One of the victims was Mrs. Ina Dowling, 85, who precipiated a Miami court scandal in 1954. Her accusations that a Florida court had mishandled her husband's two-million-dollar estate led to grand jury inquiries into court officers' conduct and to the impeachment of a judge, later acquitted.

The others were identified as Mrs. Gertrude Cummings, 85; Mrs. Hattie Gordon, 96; Mrs. Esther Ross, 92; and Mrs. Dothilda Hinrichs, 80.

"The women were frozen with fear," Bruce said. "One woman had her face pressed against the back seat of the car — blocking out the sight of the rising water."

Mrs. Kenneth Watson, 58, owner of the nursing home, said she was about to drive the five women on a ride into the country when the accident occurred at 3:40 p.m. The car belonged to Mrs. Dowling.

Police quoted Mrs. Watson as saying: "I had just helped the women into the car and was going back into the house after a coat. I shut the door on the driver's side and left the motor running and the brakes on."

Mrs. Watson said that as she walked away the car lurched forward and moved down the driveway. She ran after it but couldn't get near it.

Police guessed that one of the women may accidentally have shifted the automatic transmission lever into drive position.

The car knocked down a 3-inch flagpole, plunged 30 feet down an embankment, rolled further and took another 30-foot dip into Crystal Lake. It settled in 12 feet of water, three car lengths from shore.

Mrs. Watson ran back into the house and fainted.

Judge Holland Will Rule on Van Horn Confession

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland will decide by Thursday whether the confession of Billy Ray Van Horn, accused slayer of a Waterford Township housewife, will be used against him or not when trial begins next Tuesday.

Court-appointed counsel for Van Horn argued his rights had been violated because he was held by police four days before being formally charged with the Jan. 24 killing of Mrs. Hazel Murdock, 39, of 127 N. Josephine St.

The confession, obtained by police and Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem 22 hours after Van Horn was arrested, was therefore illegal, argued the attorney, Brakie J. Orr.

Ziem countered by contending Van Horn had turned himself in voluntarily and had confessed of his own free will, after being first forewarned of his rights.

He said that if the court ruled against the confession and the method by which it was obtained, the result "would be to handcuff law enforcement officers and rob them of power to detain suspects for reasonable questioning."

★ ★ ★

Orr cited a U.S. Supreme Court ruling to bolster his argument. Ziem argued this ruling happened to be on a District of Columbia crime, in which the high court was acting only in its capacity as appeal court for Washington, D.C., not as supreme court for the nation.

Gives Himself Up After Talk

2 Ministers Persuade Youth to Surrender Following a Shooting

LANSING (AP) — Two ministers talked an armed, defiant 16-year-old boy into laying down his gun and surrendering to a posse last night after a shooting escapade.

Wanted in the shooting and wounding of a farmhand, Douglas Martin, ward of a court as a delinquent, was trapped in a corn field 10 miles southwest of here. A posse of 50 men had chased him.

Sheriff's men said that Douglas, at times threatening to turn his shotgun on himself, stood his ground for two hours from a vantage point near a fence corner.

Then he asked to talk to a minister.

The Rev. M. L. Schreffer, pastor of the nearby Grace United Brethren Church, was summoned, and later was joined by the Rev. John Pruden, pastor of the North Aurelius Community Church.

A friend of the boy's, Clayton Haywood, 17, accompanied Mr. Pruden to the scene.

For another hour the ministers and Haywood pleaded with Douglas, and the boy put down his gun and gave up. He was taken temporarily to the Shiawassee County Jail.

A search of the better part of southwest Shiawassee County had ensued after the shooting and wounding of Charles Fox, 35, hired hand at the Daniel Quicks farm in Venice Township. Douglas, a ward of Ingham County Probate Court since a theft of a year ago, has boarded at the farm.

Officers said Douglas and Fox had argued over the former's demand for use of the hired man's car. Fox was shot in the shoulder and neck, and Douglas fled in the car.

Fox was treated at Corunna General Hospital. His wounds were reported not critical.

Driving Lesson Lands Teacher in Hospital

Joan M. McMahon, 20, of 261 Judson St., took the lesson in the empty parking lot of Pontiac Motor Division, near Joslyn street.

With her was Thomas Flanigan, 23, of 151 Edison St., who was prepared to offer some helpful hints on the fine points of driving.

Miss McMahon lost control of the car and drove into a utility pole.

Flanigan smacked his face and knee into the dash panel and wound up in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. His condition is satisfactory today.

What are some of the weird effects of phosphorus? Are these signs or lights indicative of the weather ahead?

As the reader probably knows, phosphorus produces light, which can be noticed readily at night. In water, especially sea water, splashes, waves, and many other things cause water to show phosphorus light.

But phosphorus sometimes appears in the earth too. It is said to float in the air when a low pressure system exists, over old cemeteries, and may come from decomposing bodies beneath the ground!

Phosphorus glow inland usually indicates low pressure and thus bad weather.

Economy Hits Auto Plates

1959 Licenses Will Be Renewed With Corner Tabs to Cut Prices

LANSING (AP) — Auto license plates will reflect the economy course charted by the Michigan legislature.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said today that the state will go on a three-year system with issuance of 1959 plates, renewable by corner tabs in 1960 and 1961. A three-year saving of $150,000 is expected.

However, next year's forest green plates with gold-yellow lettering and numerals will cost an extra $60,000 because of need of a primer coat of paint, a more durable finish coat and extra handling expense.

Savings in 1960 and 1961 will come about mainly through reduced steel cost in furnishing the tabs, of as yet undetermined contrasting color and measuring about 2½ by 1½ inches.

Hare said the tabs can be produced for five or six cents a pair.

Annual plates will continue for trucks, which give them harder use.

The tabs will be punched with a single hole so placed as to permit attachment with one of the bolts required to hold the full sized plate.

Tabs last were used in Michigan in 1943 to validate the regular 1942 plate. They were issued in that year because of wartime inability to get steel.

Far Scattered Showers to Fall Across Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showery weather in widely scattered sections of the country was the outlook today, with a continuation of fairly mild temperatures in most areas.

Heaviest precipitation during the night was in a belt from the lower Great Lakes southwestward across the Ohio Valley and Tennessee and into Mississippi and northern Alabama. Amounts of more than half an inch in a six-hour period were reported throughout the wet area.

Strong winds lashed some sections including Jackson, Miss., which reported some trees uprooted. Hail fell in some areas.

The showers and thunderstorms were expected to continue during the day in broad areas from the central southern Plains eastward into Atlantic Coast states.

Showers sprinkled sections of New England but it was fair and warm southward into most other parts of the Atlantic Coast states.

Bull Kills Farm Hand

MEMPHIS (INS) — State Police said today a 2,700-pound enraged Holstein bull killed a 57-year-old St. Clair County farm hand. The battered and gored body of Albert Partaka was found behind a barn yesterday on the farm of Roman Lewandowski in Memphis. At first police said they thought Partaka was murdered but further investigation revealed the bull's horns were covered with the man's blood.

Surrenders, Tells of Visions

Angered Over Religion, Youth Wounds 3 Nuns

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) "I wanted to kill some nuns and priests."

That, police said, was the explanation offered by a 24-year-old father of two who burst into a convent Saturday night and wounded three nuns with a shotgun.

They said Louis Felipe Marrero signed a statement in which he admitted shooting the nuns and turning the area around St. Joachim's convent and school into a battleground as he fought off police and National Guardsmen for more than an hour.

The youth, who spoke of seeing visions of the Virgin Mary, finally slipped from the building and walked to the Delaware River 10 blocks away.

He got into a rowboat and crossed over to Pennsylvania, where he surrendered to a guard at the Fairless works of the U.S. Steel Corp.

Mercer County Prosecutor Stanley E. Rutkowski said Marrero would not fight extradition. He said the youth would be brought here and charged with atrocious assault with intent to kill.

The prosecutor quoted Marrero as saying he had sent a series of suggestions to such prominent Catholics as Bishop Fulton J. Sheen and then became resentful when his suggestions were ignored.

Among other things, Marrero suggested a religious medal for spacemen in the U.S. armed forces and also sent Bishop Sheen his own version of the Bible.

Two nuns wounded seriously in the shooting spree were reported out of danger. They are Sister Lorenzina Sassani, 50, who was shot in the chest, and Sister Madeline Fussile, 23, Bayonne, N.J., who suffered a shotgun blast in the thigh.

The third nun, Sister Angela Bulla, 24, Torrington, Conn., and Asbury Park, N.J., was wounded in the arm and was listed in good condition.

A passer-by was hit in the mouth by pellets fired by Marrero from a convent window.

The prosecutor said Marrero has no police record or record of mental illness.

The handsome, wavy-haired youth sat in the Falls Township, Pa., police station and spoke calmly of his "visions."

"I have been having visions and signs from the Virgin Mary for about two years," he said. "I've never spoken to her. I've never seen her. Just the signs."

Marrero an $80-a-week press operator who lives only two blocks from St. Joachim's, was married in the church and was known in the neighborhood as a regular churchgoer. He has two children, aged 1 and 3.

Report Sir Winnie Getting Over Cold

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill today was reported nearly recovered from a heavy cold which he caught last week.

A spokesman at Chartwell Manor, his country estate in nearby Kent, said the 83-year-old former prime minister was remaining indoors but that there was no cause for alarm.

Sir Winston's cold came only a month after his recovery from a serious case of pneumonia and pleurisy while vacationing at the home of his publisher on the French Riviera.

The spokesman said Sir Winston is still weak and inactive after his latest bout with illness but that there was no question of a pneumonia relapse.

Barkeley was a designer for Bourne Manufacturing Co. in Detroit. His wife taught English and Spanish at Grant Junior High School in East Detroit.

They had rented a four-passenger, single engine Piper Tri-Pacer at 5 p.m. Saturday from the Berz Airport on Maple road in Troy, announcing they would return Sunday morning, according to Theodore Berz, assistant manager of Berz Flying Service.

Using the GI Bill, Barkeley had earned his private pilot's license about 1½ years ago at the Berz Flying School and had logged more than 100 hours flying time, Berz said. Barkeley was studying for a commercial license, Berz added.

He said the Barkeleys' had frequently rented planes for weekend pleasure trips.

The bodies were taken last night to the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home. Arrangements for service and burial have not yet been completed.

Besides her mother and father, Janet is survived by an older sister, Dorothy, 26, married to Vernon C. Burris, of 4715 Sylvester St., Waterford Township.

Barkeley is survived by his widowed mother, two brothers and a sister. They are Norman Barkeley, of Grand Rapids; Alan, of Marshall, and Beverly, a junior at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

The young couple met at Michigan State University, which both attended.

Janet, born in Pontiac, graduated from Waterford High School in 1952. She attended State University 1½ years, then transferred to Central Michigan College in Mt. Pleasant. She was graduated in January last year with a degree in education. The couple married a few days after.

Barkeley, born in Grand Rapids, was graduated from Pontiac High School in 1949. He attended Highland Park Junior College and State University before entering the Army in 1952 for two years. He attended State again after leaving the Army.

Judge Adams said the couple was visiting friends whom his daughter had met during college days. He and his wife, Adeline, were notified of the tragedy yesterday at Tawas, on Lake Huron, where they were enjoying a weekend fishing trip.

The Day in Birmingham

Will Urge Cabs Be Limited to Single Company in City

BIRMINGHAM—The City Taxicab Board said it will recommend to Birmingham City Commission tonight that it grant three additional licenses to the Birmingham Veterans Cab Co. and deny the Bloomfield Cab Co.'s request for permission to operate in the city.

The Bloomfield Cab Co. made its bid to serve Birmingham after the AAA Cab Co. suspended operations in the city.

Taxicab Board members said, however, they feel one large fleet would prove more satisfactory in the long run. They will ask the commission to accept their findings.

The board also is expected to report on the request of the AAA Cab Co. for a refund on the unused portion of its paid license fees.

Other business on the Commission's agenda will be the report of Andrew Butt, building inspector, and L. R. Gare, city manager, on the proposed sign for the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Action was held over last week on the Jaycees' request to place signs at the north and south entrances to the city, pending an official report on whether such signs would conflict with the city's sign ordinance.

Persons planning to attend the annual Birmingham Chamber of Commerce dinner April 30 at Devon Gables have been asked to make reservations before Saturday. The meeting will be open to members, their wives and guests.

Report Monkey Business at County Shelter

There's some monkey business going on today at the Oakland County Animal Shelter. It consists of one unidentified first class tree climber who is saying nothing about his permanent address.

The monkey was "rescued" from a tree in front of 683 Englewood Sunday afternoon by Pontiac firemen.

They were summoned by the police who found the job beyond their talents.

The firemen wrapped the wet, shivering stray in a raincoat and took him to Station 4 where they kept him until this morning when the dog warden called for him.

So far there has been no report of a monkey missing. Pontiac Central High which has a monkey in its biology class denies ownership.

★ ★ ★

"Our monkey went home with a student over the weekend, but unfortunately the girl brought him back today," said Principal Francis Staley.

Ike Back at His Desk

Defense Issue Before Congress

Texas Representative Cites Mistake in Belief Ike Delaying Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) said today the issue of giving the secretary of defense a bigger say in the use of military funds is squarely before Congress now.

Kilday, a senior member of the House Armed Services Committee, said it is a dangerous mistake to think that President Eisenhower has postponed for a year this aspect of his defense reorganization plan — perhaps the most controversial part of it.

★ ★ ★

When Eisenhower sent Congress the draft legislation last Wednesday, he said the secretary of defense needs "greater flexibility in money matters." He added that no legislation was required, but that he had directed that the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1959, should be prepared on a new basis.

★ ★ ★

This was generally interpreted as a move to delay the battle in Congress over the major fiscal aspect of defense reorganization until this budget comes up for consideration after next January.

★ ★ ★

But Kilday said there is one section in the Eisenhower draft bill which, if adopted by Congress in the meanwhile, could greatly position on military appropriations.

This section would delete the word "separately" from the following passage in the existing law: "The Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force shall be separately administered by their respective secretaries under the direction, authority and control of the secretary of defense."

Festive Romans Fete City's 2,711th Birthday

ROME (AP)—Rome celebrated its 2,711th birthday today.

Flags fluttered over the ancient city. Streetcars and buses were decorated with bunting. Schoolchildren had a holiday.

According to tradition, Romulus and Remus, sons of the god Mars, founded Rome in 753 B.C.

Typical Small U. S. Town Hardly Feels Recession; Finds Sales Up, in Fact

HARRISON, Ark. (INS) — The U. S. business recession may have cut deeply into the economy of some of the big cities but it has hardly been felt in the typical small American town of Harrison.

Interviews with businessmen indicate that this Ozark Mountain community of some 6,000 population has been hurt only slightly by the nationwide recession. One merchant went so far as to ask the interviewer, "What recession are you talking about?"

Consumers generally agreed that they are almost as well off as in previous years. Unemployment is up only slightly. Businessmen in most fields reported sales increases of from ten to 28 per cent over the first quarter of 1957.

But there are a few dark signs. New car sales were off in March, although they had been good in January and February. One furniture company credit manager said his concern has been repossessing larger quantities of "used furniture sales."

But while new car sales dropped, automobile repair shops reported their business up. And the manager of a furniture store said his firm's profits were above those of 1957.

Construction appears to have eased off a bit, but current spring weather is expected to increase building.

The economy of Harrison is based chiefly on agriculture but a new factory is moving in. Another is expanding. Both these moves will decrease unemployment.

A gas price war has stimulated gasoline sales. There's a slight increase also in gardening and flower seed sales over last year.

Higher beef, pork and dairy prices have put more money into the farmer's pocketbook in Harrison, and he is spending some of this extra cash. But non-farm families are complaining that prices are high. That complaint, of course, isn't indigenous to Harrison.

Dean Rogers, owner of a men's store, said his sales were up because he recently moved to a new location. Jim Hawkins, furniture company manager, said sales were off slightly but that overhead was reduced and profits were up. A drug store owner said his sales were climbing above previous figures.

Rogers asked the interviewer, "What do you mean a recession? We certainly don't have one here."

Another prominent businessman summed up the general feeling this way:

"If this is a recession, I wish we had one all the time."

Livestock are processed and packed in more than 380 meat plants in Illinois.

First Lake Boat Opens Port of Duluth for '58

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Arrival of the grain carrier Sultana from Detroit opened the Great Lakes shipping season here yesterday.

Two sister ships, the Perseus and the James Watt, are scheduled to arrive here this week, also for grain.

WILLIAM R. McCARTHY

Named to Head Child Service

McCarthy Will Direct New Oakland Division to Train Youngsters

The former director of children's services for Oakland County has returned here to serve as director of a new Children's Protective Services Division being created by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore.

William R. McCarthy, 46, of 2405 Walce Rd., West Bloomfield Township, served as director from October 1948 to April of 1954. Before returning here he was administrative assistant in the Catholic Charities in Seattle, a position he held four years.

The new division which McCarthy will direct will be another of Judge Moore's attempts in helping children in the county "in becoming an asset rather than a liability of the community."

Judge Moore will soon name a Pontiac committee of leading citizens which, along with McCarthy and his staff, will see that those children in need of help get it from available social agencies in Oakland County.

Similar protective committees are being created under McCarthy's direction in several communities.

Puzzling Sky Object Sighted in Six States

ATLANTA (AP) — A strange bullet-like object with a fiery tail was sighted in at least six states last night as it streaked high across the Southeastern sky. An astronomer said it probably was a giant meteor.

Newspapers and radio stations were flooded with calls. Several observers said the object appeared to disintegrate and fall toward the earth.

The Atlanta Weather Bureau said it had reports of the object from as far north as Martinsburg, W. Va., and Corbin, Ky., and as far south as 20 miles north of Albany, in south Georgia.

B. L. Seward, U.S. weather observer at the bureau, said, "From all we can figure, the ball made that trip in about 25 seconds. One jet pilot was flying at 39,000 feet and he reported the fiery ball to be well above him."

Dr. William F. Calder, astronomer for Agnes Scott College near Atlanta, said: "Both the Russian Sputniks are down, and the reported ball of fire was too big to have been made by one of our satellites. There is a possibility that it could be a rocket case or something like that, but my guess is that it was a meteor."

The object was also reported sighted over Birmingham, Ala., Chattanooga, Tenn., and in the vicinity of Asheville, N.C.

Auto Crashes Kill 3 in Family in 10 Years

MEDINA, Ohio (AP) — Three separate traffic accidents over a span of 10 years killed two brothers and their father.

In December 1948, Willard Hill, a Marine, died in a traffic accident near Camp Lejeune, N.C. The following June his father, Charles W. Hill, was killed on a highway in Arizona, where he had moved for his health.

Yesterday, Charles J. Hill, 21, brother of Willard, was killed when his car struck a concrete bridge abutment half a mile north of here on Ohio 3.

★ ★ ★

"The boy was the last one I had left," said his mother, Mrs. William B. Miller. She has since remarried and Charles had lived with her.

Saudi Arabia Avoids Both Arab Alliances

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Saudi Arabia's government says it is not joining either President Nasser's United Arab Republic or the Arab Federation of Jordan and Iraq.

★ ★ ★

Transfer of control of the government recently from King Saud to his brother Crown Prince Faisal had aroused speculation that Faisal, beleved to have pro-Nasser sympathies, would line up with the U.A.R.

★ ★ ★

A communique broadcast by Mecca radio reaffirmed a statement Feb. 25 that the Saudi regime would stay out of both the rival Arab groupings. The declaration added that Saudi Arabia declared its good wishes for both groupings and wanted to cooperate with both.

Hoover's Recovery Said Satisfactory

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover was reported recovering satisfactorily today from his gall bladder operation.

Hoover sat up, scanned the newspapers and chatted for 45 minutes with his two sons yesterday.

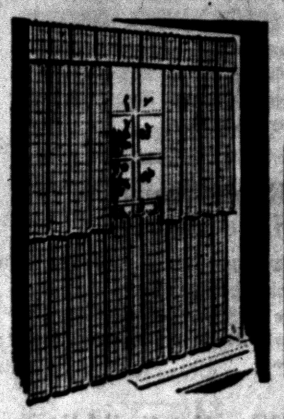

His gall bladder was removed Saturday in a 75-minute operation at Harkness Pavilion of Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

The 83-year-old former President is receiving nourishment by intravenous injection. He also received a small amount of antibiotics.

Two Area Residents Honored for Y Work

Two well known Pontiac business men received service awards recently from the YMCA for their continued work for the Ponitac Y.

Receiving the awards were Milo J. Cross, President of the Pontiac State Bank, and John C. Cowe, oil producer and former Pontiac mayor.

Mr. Cowe has served on the Y board for nine years during which time he has devoted many long hours of work on the dormitory committee in connection with the anticipated new addition.

Serving as treasurer for the last seven years, Mr. Cross deserves the thanks of the community for helping to steer our local Y into a sound financial position.

It is a service such as this which falls in the category of above and beyond the call of duty that is so very important to any community.

Pontiac has been fortunate in the past in having many citizens who have given freely of their time. We sincerely hope that more civic minded residents will join in to help promote and sponsor our many worthwhile projects.

If You Haven't Voted You May Have Time

If you have not done your civic duty by voting, you may still have time to hurry over to the polls. This should be everyone's No. 1 obligation today.

★ ★ ★

This citywide election will determine the people that will form the governing body of Pontiac for the next two years. We should all have enough interest to take just a few minutes of our time and express our personal feelings toward the candidates from our district.

★ ★ ★

Far too few people turned out at the primary election to have a true representative picture of just what the electorate wanted.

This is your last chance for two years, so if you have not already voted, go to the polls and vote for the candidate of your choice.

Khrushchev Irritated by Visit to Hungary

During Premier KHRUSHCHEV's recent visit to Hungary, the people showed as clearly as they dared just what they thought of his government.

Russia's new chief of state warned them that the Soviet Union intended to be the economic leader of the world and that satellite countries would be kept under Russian control, by force if necessary.

★ ★ ★

In a speech to the workers at the Csepel iron and steel plant, scene of some of the fiercest fighting in the 1956 revolt, KHRUSHCHEV sought to warm up his audeince. He mentioned the presence outside the gates of Western newsmen and asked his audience to show the real relationship between the Csepel workers and himself. A Reuters dispatch reports that thousands of workers walked straight out the main factory gate while KHRUSHCHEV was speaking.

★ ★ ★

"The moment the Hungarian people and government ask us to withdraw our troops, we will march them out," Khrushchev told Hungarians. When they did that in October and November, 1956, the request was denied. The people then revolted and were brutally crushed by Russian troops who still occupy the country and keep a Communist regime in power.

★ ★ ★

Hungarians have not forgotten the brutality of the revolution. All they can do for the present is register subdued and silent resentment. KHRUSHCHEV was well aware of the people's rebuke and as the tour lengthened his temper shortened. His frustration became apparent when he shouted:

"If you don't like my criticism, swallow it anyway and see that it does not leave a bitter taste in your mouth."

All this is a warning to the world that KHRUSHCHEV intends to wield his power ruthlessly because he fears the hidden fires of resentment in all satellite countries.

Kuenn Is Favored

He Gets Far More Contest Votes Than Any Other Man

Vacation: Sometimes what you take when you no longer can take what you've been taking.

Good sports to the number of 2,848 registered in our baseball contest. They made their entries in good order before the closing time Friday.

The one who is nearest to forecasting the batting average of the player who will be leading the American League on the night of May 1 will receive the prize of $250 in U.S. Savings Bonds.

This number is the largest of any year since the contests were first started 12 years ago. It is 610 larger than last year, which was the largest up to that time.

Among the 122 players for whom votes were cast, of the Detroit Tigers received far more than anybody else.

Harvey Kuenn

Divided among 46 players were 2,474 votes. The other 174 votes are scattered among 76 players. The 46 receiving 10 or more votes each are:

"Eureka!"

David Lawrence Says:

Summit Conference Not for Ike

WASHINGTON — Should any president of the United States ever go to a "summit" conference and attempt to negotiate with the heads of other governments?

LAWRENCE

This question has been raised because of the tendency nowadays to ignore the lessons of history and to imagine that newfangled methods can bring peace when, in truth, the "summit" conference idea means a return to the discredited practice of the past when monarchs made private deals which assumed the people were but pawns in their hands.

Perhaps the most sensible comment and the most persuasive criticism of the "summit" conference method has come from Dean Acheson, secretary of state in the Truman administration. He puts his finger on the real weaknesses involved in making a president do his own negotiating instead of through the customary channels.

"I should hope," says Mr. Acheson in a public address, "that our government would disentangle itself from the coils of the conference 'at the summit' insofar as that means that our Chief of State and head of government, the President of the United States, in his own person, should be the negotiator and front-line commander.

"This involvement of the presidency is a long subject in itself. It is enough to say here that it has been amply proved wrong in practice. The two applicable precedents of Paris in 1919 and Geneva in 1955—the military war conferences were not of the same nature—were both failures.

"To involve the President in these meetings impairs the detached and final judgment which he must reserve. His action is far too likely to be corrupted by the intense pressures for a success, even though a spurious one. His failure involves not only the whole government, but the nation as well."

This point of view, it so happens, is shared by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles who, not many days before the Acheson speech, was saying some of the same things to a group of friends. Indeed, anyone who has studied the history of diplomacy would come to the same conclusion.

Great danger lies in the fact that a President must forthwith say "yes" or "no" in person when a vital question is raised at a "summit" conference. He has no adequate opportunity to consult with his colleagues in the other branch of the government at home.

It would be much better if a President of the United States stayed in Washington and received messages from his secretary of state and from the members of Congress chosen to participate in the conference. Then the President could discuss each important point with other members of the Senate and House and talk things over with leaders of public thought before reaching a final decision.

The holding of top-level conferences in wartime is, as Mr Acheson says, a different thing. This is because military matters are entrusted solely to the Commander-In-Chief under the American Constitution and secrecy is essential.

For a ruler to negotiate a final agreement without a chance for the people to know beforehand what the commitments proposed really mean is natural in an autocracy such as Khrushchev maintains by force in the Soviet Union, but it is the wrong way for true democracies to function.

The President is the servant and not the master of the people. The "summit" conference is a throwback to the reactionary and undemocratic methods of the 19th Century.

It is a good thing Mr. Acheson spoke out so courageously in urging the abandonment of the concept. There now may be less of a temptation in Washington to take partisan advantage by exaggerating the value of propaganda hippodromes in present-day diplomacy.

The Country Parson

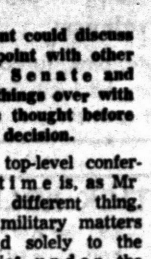

"Faith isn't something you describe — it's something you experience."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Staphylococcus Pyogenes Stalk Hospital Patients

Today there is ample and often tragic evidence that there are too many hospital-acquired infections with Staphylococcus pyogenes. This is the name of the common pus-producing or inflammation-producing germ which is ubiquitous. It is on dirty hands as well as on clean looking hands.

DR. BRADY

It causes minor wounds to fester. It complicates otherwise successful operations by causing stitch abscess or delayed healing of the wound — and this may be disastrous in plastic or cosmetic surgery.

★ ★ ★

Staphylococcus infection, in the opinion of good physicians, makes "Asian" influenza fatal and is usually responsible for terminal pneumonia.

Acute tonsillitis, quinsy (abscess around tonsil), acute pharyngitis (sore throat), acute coryza ("head cold" to you), and acute sinusitis are commonly due to Staphylococcus pyogenes.

From time to time outbreaks of infectious diarrhea kill off many or most of the newborn infants crowded together in the show window of a 19th century lying-in institution.

When the hospital managers are unable to cover up for such hospital-acquired infection, they sometimes sullenly consent to abolish the show window "nursery" and introduce in its stead the newfangled "rooming-in" — the practice of keeping the new baby with the mother, who can watch her baby every minute. This gives her a better chance to take home her own baby. But that's only incidental.

MOTHER CARES FOR BABY

The chief advantage of "rooming-in" is that it protects the very susceptible infant from many unnecessary and maybe dangerous contacts with nurses and other attendants who may carry Staphylococcus pyogenes. Only mother takes care of the baby, cuddles, nurses or feeds, croons a lullaby and otherwise endears herself to her baby. Nurses keep away unless mother asks for their help.

In some hospitals where "rooming-in" has been tried recently, the trick specialists have managed to retain the most dangerous part of the old show-window business — that is, the institution still whisks the newborn infant away to the "nursery" for a 24-hour "observation" period. Infections carried to the helpless infant by handlers in the 24-hour period make the "rooming-in" innovation seem questionable.

Crowding in nurseries is a common fault in poorly managed hospitals. Instead of 20 square feet of floor space for each bassinet, the minimum by sanitary rules, sometimes crowding makes it almost impossible to go between beds. This facilitates the transfer of infection from one infant to the next by the nurse or other attendant who fails even to wash his or her hands between contacts.

Home is the safest place to have a baby. Home — that's an old-fashioned place where love abides.

Signed letters, not more than one par- or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped an addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

College Girls Get Crane's Column

Marie offers a dandy idea to use in rating the popularity of newspaper features. In your own family how often do you find "holes" where printed items used to be? Newspapers are really your "University in Print" and offer you the latest information about science, politics, current history, sports, etc. So the 5 cents to 10 cents you pay for a paper is simply "tuition."

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE X-385: Marie B., aged 18, attends college in Pennsylvania.

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I get to read all of your daily columns," she told me recently.

"For Mother cuts them out of our home town paper and sends them each week.

"And I guess that must be a common practice of mothers, for 14 other girls in my dormitory also receive your column from their mothers, too.

"It is thus interesting to compare the way the various newspapers arrange the column.

"If popularity of features is based on the number of 'holes' in the newspaper where items are cut out of the paper, I imagine your 'Worry Clinic' must rate at the top."

"HOLE" TEST

Marie has raised an interesting point that could well be included in the various survey methods now used to determine popularity of various newspaper features.

Many housewives make a report much like Marie's.

"Dr. Crane," they will begin, "my husband expresses disinterest in your column whenever I try to get him to read a case that fits him.

"He will even say psychology is all the bunk and tell me he NEVER pays attention to your column.

"Yet he will tear out your feature every time you have a case that steps on my corns, so to speak, and lay it beside my plate at the table.

"If he NEVER reads your column, then how does he know whenever you expose some faults that I possess?"

NEWSPAPER SCRAPBOOKS

From your letters and personal comments given me whenever I make a lecture in your city, I have learned that thousands of you readers maintain neat scrapbooks.

Some of you have shown me your very attractive albums of these cases, which put my own office scrapbook to shame.

And a survey in Wisconsin a few years ago revealed the fact that 43 per cent of all the clergy interviewed, reported they had scrapbooks of this daily psychology column.

Dentists and physicians, too, often have their office nurses maintain similar scrapbooks of the "Worry Clinic."

I mention these facts because some of my "ivory tower" psychology colleagues have criticized me for "wasting time writing for newspapers."

They are obviously out of touch with reality! The daily newspaper is now the major educational agency in America, and I am not exaggerating at all!

See for yourselves! After the age of 18, 85 per cent of Americans are no longer in school. Where do these 85 per cent get their ideas about politics and the stock market, psycology and medicine, sports and the theater.

NEWSPAPER UNIVERSITY

In daily newspapers, of course, for your newspaper is actually your local "University in Print."

Its publisher might very properly be called Chancellor and the editor functions like a President of your State University.

★ ★ ★

year (not including Sundays) and for the entire lifetime of its "students."

Even the 15 per cent of Americans who go on to college average but two years there, and then they, too, rely on the "Newspaper University" for most of their knowledge those final 50 years here on this earth.

So never minimize the educational value of the newspaper. It gives you the latest scientific information, plus current history hot off the griddle.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Republicans Have Had It'

The Republicans will take the worst beating they ever had in the 1958 and 1960 elections. They won't be in power again for 50 years.

'Why the Quibbling Over Foreign Aid?'

Why do people complain about a few billion in foreign aid? In the midst of all we spend, it isn't much and it may keep millions of people on our side instead of the Russians. Roosevelt started it with a big hand, Truman continued and Eisenhower approves. It must have common sense behind it.

'We Need to Teach All These Things'

What's wrong with progressive education? Isn't it just as necessary to learn how to make applesauce as it is to find out how much 12 times 12 is? And isn't understanding the boilers just as important as learning some silly French? I believe in practical schools.

'Why Doesn't Ike Listen to Hoover?'

I read former President Hoover's solution for the recession. He favors a huge slash in government spending except for defense and a moratorium on wage and price increases. This is a good solution and may be salvation for all, now and in the future.

Then I read about President Eisenhower asking for $670,000 to make filmed copies of public papers of all U.S. Presidents. This is ridiculous at a time when government should be cutting spending. Why doesn't Ike do as Hoover suggests and cut out this fooling around?

Compares Revenue From Police Fines

Waterford had its "speed trap" and now Orchard Lake has one. Tickets are given in large numbers for exceeding 35 m.p.h. on M218 on the last mile of village limits going west, even though it's void of all speed signs.

★ ★ ★

Michigan Manual of Uniform Traffic Control Devices requires speed signs to "be installed at approximately half-mile intervals within any zone of given speed to confirm the speed of the zone." The State Highway Department now intends to erect two additional speed signs on M218 at Arrowhead drive.

Orchard Lake, population 1,100, collected about $33,000 in police fines in 1957, most of which were for speeding. Bloomfield Hills, population 2,300, got police fines totaling $14,6505 the year ending June 30, 1957, about half for speeding. Birmingham with 25,000 people, collected $52,217.13, less than half speed fines. Orchard Lake misuses the law by collecting such excessive police fines.

Security for You

Quiz: Any Guarantee of Second GI Loan?

From R.L. of New Orleans: "I was an officer during World War II and, as a veteran, I used my GI home loan rights to buy a home. I expect to retire from my job soon. If I sell my home and move to another city, could I get the Veterans Administration to guarantee another GI loan to buy a home?

Yes, provided the Veterans Administration is no longer responsible for the loan on your present home when you apply for the second loan.

From A.O. of Washington: "I worked for the government from 1943 until 1954. Because of illness, I had to quit my job and go home to Iowa. I took out of the retirement fund the money again working for the government and would like to get retirement credit for my earlier service. How can I do this?

You may redeposit the money you withdrew from the retirement fund. Payment may be made in a lump sum or in installments of not less than $10 each. You must pay interest on the money you withdrew for the period from the time you quit your government job until you returned to the government.

From W.W. of Pontiac, Mich.: "A neighbor of mine recently told me that any unemployment pay I collect before I reach 65 will be deducted from my Social Security payments. I told him I'd never read anything like this in your column, but he insisted he was right. Is he?"

No. The unemployment pay program and Social Security are separate from each other.

From Mrs. B.R.J. of St. Petersburg, Fla.: "My husband is retired and drawing $106.50 a month from Social Security. I'm drawing $54.30, based on his record. If my husband should die, how much would I collect?"

You would draw an amount equal to three-fourth of your husband's payments — $81.40 a month.

From Mrs. E.L. of Pittsburgh: "My husband has worked under Social Security since 1937 and will be 65 in September of this year. He isn't well but wants to try to work until his retirement age. How soon should he apply to collect payments for September?"

He can file his claim late in August or early in September. His application can't be completely processed until he becomes 65, however, and in no instance would he get a check before October which would be for September. Social Security checks are paid one month late.

From N.N. of Oakland, Calif.: "Recently I applied for Social Security payments, but was turned down on technical grounds. I still feel I'm entitled to payments. What's the next step I can take to try and get the payments?"

You may ask your Social Security office to reconsider your case or you may request that your application be reviewed by a referee of the Appeals Council of the Social Security Administration.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service. You may obtain Ray Henry's new social security handbook by sending 35 cents in coin to this newspaper and requesting "Security for You" booklet.)

Japan Unites in Demand to End Nuclear Arms

TOKYO (AP) — The upper house of Japan's Parliament today adopted unanimously a resolution calling for immediate cessation of nuclear weapon tests.

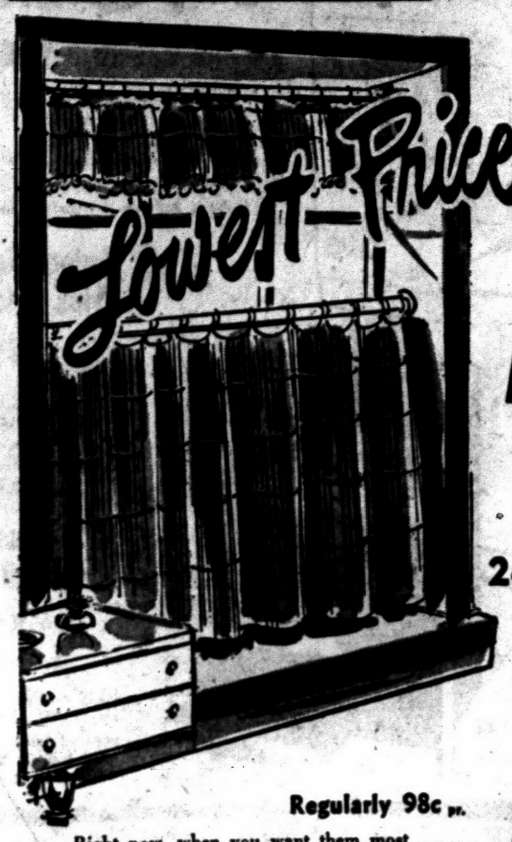

The resolution was drafted jointly by the ruling Liberal-Democratic party and the opposition Socialists. It was approved by the lower house Friday.

The resolution urged all powers having atomic and hydrogen weapons to conclude a treaty also banning their production, storage and use.

Israel Denies Tanks Menacing Jordan

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel today denied she has menaced Jordan's security by bringing armed forces and tanks into this divided city for her 10th anniversary parade.

★ ★ ★

An authorized Israeli source issued the denial after Jordan charged that the move breached the 1949 armistice. The parade is slated for Thursday in the Israeli sector to commemorate Israel's birth as a nation.

★ ★ ★

Jordan countered by ordering her own troops moved into her sector of the city. An Amman communique said the United States and Britain had been informed of the countermove. It added that U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold had been asked to order the parade called off.

Strategic Air Command Chief

Got 'Flying Fever' Early

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

The chief of the Strategic Air Command caught "flying fever"—while his boyhood friends were struggling with whooping cough—from the pioneer aviators who swarmed over make-shift airfields near Great Neck, Long Island, where he was born.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, in the parlance of his SAC airmen, has been a "good two-fisted bird" ever since.

He went straight from prep school into the Air Corps Primary Flying School, won a reputation as a junior officer with strong opinions, hatred of red tape and blood-chilling fearlessness.

In flight training, Power throttled his bi-plane to such high speeds that he once peeled off its wings. He escaped unmarked just as he did 15 years later when he piloted the lead plane on the first big, low-level fire raid on Tokyo.

A tough, stocky, 52-year-old, Power abhors wasted time or energy and tolerates no delay. When taking a trip, he arrives at his private plane precisely one minute before take-off. One engine turns over as he leaves his car, the other is started as he step aboard. Everything must be ready when he takes the controls.

Power, a vice commander of SAC for six years, exhibits the same dour, sober, tight-lipped attitude of his old boss, Gen. Curtis Lemay. Some say he is "overly ambitious," but few doubt his brilliance.

In his rare free moments, he is a dedicated fisherman, and a high-70 golfer. Power regularly loses at gin rummy to his wife (they have no children) but just as regularly retaliates at bridge. He is noted for his proficiency at nursing one drink through a long, official cocktail party.

The general served as deputy chief of operations for the atom raids on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Between serving as Lemay's sidekick and becoming boss of SAC last May, he ran the Air Research and Development Command for three years.

Power takes special pride in two achievements—his "black belt," or top rating in judo, learned in SAC's school of wrestling; and the fact that he has flown every type of military aircraft from the 1920 bi-plane to the supersonic B58 bomber.

Rebels Flaunt Sukarno Troops

Wage Bitter Battle Against Army on Road to Bukittinggi

SINGAPORE (AP) — The Sumatran rebels are reported to be making their first determined military stand in the two-month-old Indonesian civil war.

One of their leaders, meanwhile, came out in the open in recaptured Padang, defying threats of reprisal by President Sukarno's forces.

Mohamed Natsir, leader of the Moslem Masjumi party, appeared yesterday and spoke at a mass prayer meeting on the outskirts of Padang, the Central Sumatran port city captured by 6,000 Sukarno troops Thursday. The rebel radio reported the occupying forces left him alone.

★ ★ ★

The bulk of Sukarno's invasion force was pushing up a tortuous mountain road toward the rebel capital of Bukittinggi. Although the outnumbered rebels melted away during last week's assault on Padang, a high military source in Jakarta reported the Sukarno troops ran into heavy opposition and had advanced only 18 miles from Padang in three days.

★ ★ ★

According to the invasion timetable, Bukittinggi should have fallen yesterday, but the central government troops still had 40 mountainous miles to go then. Help could come from a government column pushing north.

The rebel radio claimed the push on Bukittinggi had been stopped.

Manhattan's Punks Bombard Tourists

NEW YORK (AP) — Four tourists were injured yesterday on a round-Manhattan excursion boat in the Harlem River when a group of teen-agers hurled bricks and stones from the Highbridge pedestrian bridge.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Edith Silverman, 43, and Abraham Levin, 41, both of Pennfield, Pa.; Cynthia Bull, 12, Princeton, N.J.; and Louis Lambert, 30, the Bronx, were treated at Fordham Hospital.

Mrs. Silverman and the girl suffered head injuries, while Lambert and Levin suffered hand and arm cuts.

★ ★ ★

An official of the excursion line said boats had been bombarded from the same 250-foot-high bridge on two occasions last year and they have asked a police guard be posted on the span.

Aids in Delivery at 19,000 Feet, to Be Godmother

PARIS (AP) — An airline hostess who helped deliver a baby boy at 19,000 feet was asked today—and quickly agreed—to be the infant's godmother.

The baby, to be baptized Windred Jose, was born to Mrs. Lillian Shaw, Kansas City, Kan., Friday on a flight from New York. The flight stewardess, Helen McNeil of Salem, Mass., assisted in the delivery and accompanied Mrs. Shaw to the hospital when the plane landed in Paris.

Mother and child were reported doing fine and due to leave in a few days for the home in La Rochelle of Mrs. Shaw's French parents. The baby will be baptized there, and Miss McNeil's employers said her schedule would be juggled so she could be on hand.

Powder Puff Car Kills 'Suicide Bowl' Spectator

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — A woman driver's runaway car hurtled into the stands during a Powder Puff Derby and killed a spectator at a race track called Suicide Bowl yesterday.

Spinning out of control, the auto fatally injured Edward L. Sheppard, 50, truck equipment firm employe.

Mary Tyler of Odessa, the driver, was not hurt.

Brooklyn Hoods Terrorize Riders

Subway Fights, Knifing Result in Arrest of 44 Teen Gang Members

NEW YORK (AP) — A screaming horde of more than 50 teenage boys terrorized subway passengers on a trip from Coney Island into the heart of Brooklyn yesterday.

The youths, all Negro members of three notorious Brooklyn gangs, stabbed three teen-agers, one critically. Two of the stabbing victims were white, one Negro. Two other white boys were roughed up.

★ ★ ★

The toughs boarded the subway after two boys were stabbed at Coney Island. For eight stops they ran through the cars, bullying passengers and picking fights with other youths.

Douglas Baldwin, 16, stabbed in the abdomen, was in critical condition at Coney Island Hospital.

A City Youth Board worker had told police that members of three Brooklyn gangs planned a rumble — all-out battle — at Coney Island. A short time later, Baldwin and Herbert Goggins, 17, staggered bleeding into Coney Island Hospital. They told authorities they had been attacked by a group of boys on Surf Avenue, the ocean resort's main street. Goggins had been stabbed in the nose.

The next report came from the Transit Authority, which said 50 or more rowdies were abusing the 40 passengers on the subway.

Two unidentified white boys among the passengers were beaten. Herbert Saunders, 19, a Negro, was stabbed in the neck and arm.

Police seized 44 boys — 25 of them 16 or younger — as they left the subway at 18th and McDonald avenues in Brooklyn. The others fled.

Nineteen others, charged with unlawful assembly, were held for Brooklyn Adolescents Court.

French Try to Put Over Male Pocketbooks

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — The French designers, who already are costing the American woman a not very pretty penny this season with their uppish new skirts, are now making a dramatic stab at revolutionizing her husband.

★ ★ ★

Ordinarily, this would be a cause for no concern, since the U.S. male—on the subject of French fashion—is the original Monsieur from Missouri.

TRICK SNEAKY

This time, however, the crafty couture is putting a sneaky trick. They're trying to get at the male pocketbook via the direct route: His pockets, and the elimination of same.

They actually have sealed up the sides of the new trousers in a wild attempt to make a man carry a pocketbook!

It ees not chic nor sleek, they are saying, to put ze francs or ze fists into ze pockets. Better you should buy our neat, gentlemanly carry-cases, to be worn over the shoulder or looped nonchantly over the wrist. They are priced between $84 and $210, plus a negligible 20 per cent luxury tax, and come in extremely masculine colors: Saddle pigskin, black grained calf, and soft brown calf.

ADVERTIZE PURSES

"Gentlemen's Quarterly," the apparel arts magazine for fellows of Fauntleroyan tendencies, is advertising the new purses as "for the man with the courage to champion the new." It shows pictures of four Parisian models now being sold in New York, and we must say they're just about as perfectly stunning a quartet of whimsies as you'd ever expect to see dangling from your foppish worst enemies.

They measure, roughly, 10 by 14 inches, and are as zippered and intricate as any lady's handbag. There are compartments (both outer and inner pockets) for money, eyeglasses, pencils, pens and keys; and they have dainty brass clasps for easy opening when the check comes.

Possibly the idea of slimming the male silhouette with pocketless pants is quite sound, actually, for men of vanity, a smooth silhouette, and an excessive sense of organization. Doubtlessly there are many men in this world who love shiny, orderly arranged keys, and neat, zippered-in bills, and calling cards in a lined compartment away from the pouch for the sordid tars and nicotine.

Somehow, I have always avoided this type, however—having had a lifelong affinity for the lovable American slouch sort of fellow: Keys on a plain chain, comb carelessly nestled over the heart, calling cards in the suit he isn't wearing, bills jammed indiscriminately in his pockets, pens peaking into his lining.

Maybe I'm being old-fashioned, but I don't feel that the men's pocketbook style will catch on. It takes a woman to convince a man to try a radical new fashion, and I don't believe females will take to this idea.

There may be a lot of things a woman would like to change about her man. But just show me the girl who objects to messy money. . .

Smoke Addicts Joining Group to Quit Habit

LONDON (AP)—Quitting smoking? It's easier as a gang enterprise than it is for one unhappy man trying on his own, insists Britain's National Society of Non-smokers.

The organization is inviting the addicts to make a big heave-ho together, lean on each other and exchange strength when the flesh weakens.

The technique resembles that of Alcoholics Anonymous.

A countrywide campaign will start in London next month.

Thee society has no magic method. It relies on will power.

"But it does seem to be easier when men and women make the great effort together, giving each other morale and pepping up the feeble," said the Rev. Hubert V. Little, a Baptist clergyman who is secretary of the society.

"Our method is to give pep talks, encourage social contacts among folks with a common weakness and arrange interviews with physicians who have volunteered their services.

"The movement has been stimulated, of course, by evidence that there is an association between smoking and cancer.

"I myself regard smoking without consideration for others as certainly antisocial, and under some circumstances could even be held anti-Christian."

Hal Boyle Says:

Eskimos Have No Native Word for Snow

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That the Eskimos have no native word for snow.

That grandpa and grandma were only half as likely to live to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary as a young couple marrying today. The chances in 1900 that a bridegroom of 25 and a bride of 21 would survive 50 more years was only 123 per 1,000 marriages. Now it's 296 per 1,000.

That 14 million American men can't swim. But this doesn't explain our own sinking feeling.

That the first hospitals were established in Ceylon five centuries before Christ. Incidentally, the federal government now owns 432 hospitals with a total of more than 184,000 beds.

★ ★ ★

That there is a hardware dealer in The Bronx named J. Bolts.

That singer Lisa Kirk points out a man "can marry a fashion plate and still not get a nice dish."

That since the dawn of time the most popular color for decorating has been red. It's still a prevalent hue in bank balances.

That dogs never had it better, as witness: No pooches are allowed in the giant Meramec Caverns at Stanton Mo. But the management has set up a special room with toys where the dogs wait in comfort while their owners trudge through the cave.

That job offers for 1958 college graduates are lagging far behind those available to the 1957 class at this time a year ago.

★ ★ ★

That Belgian actress Monique Monique van Vooren, in debunking the idea that European men are more romantic than Americans, said: "Kisses have no accent."

That it's so cold in Siberia frozen milk is sold wrapped in paper, just like bread.

★ ★ ★

That the custom of tipping one's hat has more behind it than male gallantry. As long ago as the Crusades armored knights raised the visor of their helmets in passing to determine whether the other guy was friend or foe.

★ ★ ★

That it certainly was no gentleman who passed this remark, overheard in the Astor Hotel's Hunting Room: "I miss my wife's cooking—whenever I can."

That more than 85 per cent of the drugs prescribed today were unknown 20 years ago.

That Buenos Aires National Labor Chamber issued an edict saying: "Any office girl who takes time off from work to have her nose reshaped will receive full pay while absent. Beauty is a valuable asset for working women."

★ ★ ★

That lightning, by combining nitrogen and oxygen, creates 100 million tons of plant food a year, raining down far more than is produced by all the commercial fertilizer plants. Mother nature is still the mightiest manufacturer.

★ ★ ★

That it was Simon Weil who said: "A science which does not bring us nearer to God is worthless."

Bidault Trying to Form Cabinet

Given Slight Chance of Securing Majority in National Assembly

PARIS (AP) — Georges Bidault, former premier and long-time foreign minister, today began trying to form a cabinet which would take a tough line toward Tunisia and rebuff any foreign intercession in Algeria except on France's side.

Bidault, veteran leader of the Catholic Popular Republican Movement, was given slight chance of lining up a majority in the National Assembly. Although his party is slightly left of center, his North African policy was likely to find outright favor only with the militant rightist minority.

★ ★ ★

Bidault was President Coty's first choice to try to end the crisis caused by the resignation last Tuesday of Premier Felix Gaillard. The MRP leader was one of three deputies from his party who sided with the rightists and Communists to overthrow the government by voting down the U.S.-British good offices mission's compromise proposal to smooth over the French-Tunisian dispute.

"Algeria is for us our heritage and our mission," Bidault told newsmen. "No intrusion, no concession to the spirit of abandonment can be tolerated."

For the first time in several years the death rate among life insurance policyholders in the United States showed an increase in 1957. The increase is credited to the epidemic of Asian Flu, which resulted in a rise in heart disease deaths.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID'S unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID, today!

At New Michael Reese Hospital

Offering Hope for Cerebral Palsy Tots

CHICAGO (INS) — A handsome five-year-old boy crawled over to the visitors and said proudly: "Petty soon, I am to walk."

The boy was one of 10 cerebral palsy victims who moved into new nursery quarters today at Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital.

As he scooted away to explore the rest of the cheerful rooms painted in "sky blue" and "sunshine yellow," Mrs. Louise Yum, director of the cerebral palsy nursery for 14 years, said:

"The children are all excited about their new quarters. They are larger, more beautiful and more functional than our old setup and will be of great help in our work."

Mrs. Yum, whose nursery has gained international fame, continued:

"We try our best to take the teachable and trainable cerebral palsy victims and help them so that they can enter a school for handicapped children and, in some cases, regular schools.

"We can't help all, but there certainly is hope for many of the formerly helpless victims who were kept in the shadows of society."

According to the United Cerebral Palsy Assn., there are 10,000 babies born every year in the U. S. who suffer brain damage resulting in muscular coordination problems, spastic paralysis and speech disturbances. Most of them are too far gone to benefit from therapy.

Mrs. Yum said one of the most important things for the children who can be helped is to stimulate interest and desire to try new things.

"It's a big step for us," she explained, "when one of our kids attempts to eat with a spoon or says: "I am to walk.'"

The striking feature about the Michael Reese setup is the amount of staff work that goes into helping the small group of children.

Each child is carefully screened before he is accepted at the nursery by a pediatrician, neurologist, orthopedist, and a doctor of physical medicine.

Once it is decided that he can benefit from therapy, he is slowly eased into the nursery. A social worker counsels with the family in this phase, seeing that financial and emotional pressures are relieved on the parents.

At the nursery, the staff ratio is nearly one-to-one with the child. In addition to Mrs. Yum, it consists of a physical therapist, a speech therapist, an occupational therapist, a teacher, a kitchen attendant, and a bus driver and bus attendant who takes the children to and from school each day.

The nursery also is unique in that it devotes almost as much consideration to the parents as the afflicted child.

"Think of the emotional pressures that build up in parents," Mrs. Yum said, "when the child can't respond to their love in a normal manner and when they can't take pride in their offspring.

"Coupled with financial problems, it can bowl over the most mature couple. We try to ease this by freeing them from the burden of a handicapped child for a certain part of the day and by showing them the child can do many things within his or her bounds."

Mrs. Yum said that sometimes the parents become depressed because the child learns things at the nursery that they feel they should have taught.

To correct this, parents are instructed to teach their children certain maneuvers which the child already has learned at the nursery.

Mrs. Yum said a parent usually returns in triumph and declares: "I taught my son to do this!"

The big step for many of the cerebral palsy victims is to learn to walk. Many devices used to help them stand and take their first steps were developed at Michael Reese.

These include a "chimney," a box-like structure in which the child learns to stand, and a "standerupper," a metal stand in which the child's legs are strapped.

Pilot Survives Crashing Jet

Parachutes to Safety; Navy Plane Explodes in Field Near Homes

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — An out-of-control jet trainer crashed and exploded in a field surrounded by a crowded residential area last night. The pilot parachuted to safety.

Capt. William T. Ball, 31, a Marine assigned to the Columbus Naval Air Station, said he ejected himself from the plane after its electrical system failed and the craft had gone out of control in a thunderstorm.

★ ★ ★

He landed on a roof of a house about four miles away, and suffered broken ribs.

The TV2 Navy jet trainer crashed into a 30-acre muddy cornfield. It exploded and shot a ball of flame about 200 feet into the air.

★ ★ ★

"The pilot was lucky and picked a good place to fall. Just two city blocks away in all directions are houses," County Police Maj. James Pendleton said. "It was close, awfully close."

The plane, diving almost straight down, hit only 200 yards from one of the city's busiest expressways. It was demolished. Wreckage was strewn a quarter of a mile in the mud.

★ ★ ★

Ball was listed in fair condition in General Hospital. A native of Gates, Tenn., he was on a routine navigational training from the naval air station at Pensacola, Fla., to Columbus, where he is assigned to the Marine Air Training Detachment.

Police Study Not Yet Received, Says Mayor

Mayor William W. Donaldson today denied that he had ever said that the recent study of the Pontiac Police Dept. was in Pontiac and was being withheld from the public.

The mayor refuted the statement attributed to him by Harold A. Grant, president of Fisher Body Local 596 and candidate for the State Legislature, at a meeting of the Pontiac Civil Service Commission Wednesday night.

Grant had stated that the mayor, at a public meeting, had said the report had arrived in Pontiac four to six weeks ago.

Mayor Donaldson said today, "The City Commission and the city manager deny that the report has been received as yet. We are unable to predict when the study made by the Public Service Administration, of Chicago, will arrive."

"We have made no attempts to withhold any information," the mayor concluded.

2 New Craters Erupting Atop Mount Etna

CATANIA, Sicily (AP) — Scientists said today a new series of eruptions has burst open two new craters atop Mt. Etna.

★ ★ ★

The famous old volcano has been increasingly active during the past six months. After a period of quiet it began spewing steam and lava again this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Officials of Catania's Volcano Institute said a lava stream was coming from one of two new craters which opened near the summit of the 10,758-foot mountain.

★ ★ ★

As yet the cultivated fields and hamlets on the lower slopes of the volcano appeared to be in no danger.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Speech Contest Is Held

It was the big game and the "All Stars" were out to win — to win the spring speech contest, that is.

Sponsored by Council Four, International Toastmistress Clubs, the contest conference was held at Hotel Waldron Saturday. The Pontiac Toastmistress Club was hostess group.

The all-stars were Mrs. Robert Bunce, contestant from the Pontiac Club, Mrs. Wilbur Dickson from Dearborn, and Mrs. Peter Schuitema from Redford.

The contest consisted of a 7-minute prepared speech by each contestant and a 3-minute impromptu speech.

For her prepared speech, Mrs. Bunce chose "Welcome Little Sputnik." She pointed out that our country's leaders must be bold and imaginative and that we must strive for a better educational program.

"Indifference is the enemy of peace," she stated, "And we must unite in the cause of freedom." With these strengths, the contestant said, the Sputnik can be welcomed.

Mrs. Dickson pursued "The Communist Mind" stressing that this country must keep its people informed, especially young people. They must be shown the blessings of a free country she pointed out, so that the Communist thinking does not appeal to them.

Mrs. Schuitema's speech was entitled, "When You're Smiling." She developed the theme that individuals are blessed with an abundance; that there are many things to be grateful for and that a smile to give to others is the greatest gift of all. Ending her speech, Mrs. Schuitema said, "When you smile, the whole world smiles with you."

The smiles paid off too, for Mrs. Schuitema came off the winner and will compete with District Five contestants in Cleveland May 25-26. The winner of that title will compete in the international contest to be held in Seattle July 13-16.

Mrs. John Simpson, chairman of Council Four, presided at the all-day program, and Mrs. Paul Jackson was toastmistress. Mrs. Roberta Webb, historian for International Toastmistress Club, brought greetings from ITC.

Married Saturday were Mary Lou Carr and Jerry J. Masters. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Frederic M. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Masters.

MR. and MRS. JERRY J. MASTERS

Mary Lou Carr Becomes Bride of Jerry J. Masters

Mary Lou Carr and Jerry J. Masters exchanged wedding vows Saturday at noon in St. Patrick Catholic Church, Oxbow Lake. The Rev. Lewis M. Ellis performed the ceremony before an altar banked with arrangements of white carnations, roses and stock.

She is the daughter of the Frederic M. Carrs of Malcolm boulevard, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Masters of Highland road.

The bride's floor-length gown of taffeta featured a fitted bodice of lace with the neckline and yoke etched in seed pearls and sequins. Appliques of lace were scattered over the nylon net overskirt of the gown which extended into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of nylon net was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of carnations, roses and lilies of the valley.

ATTEND BRIDE

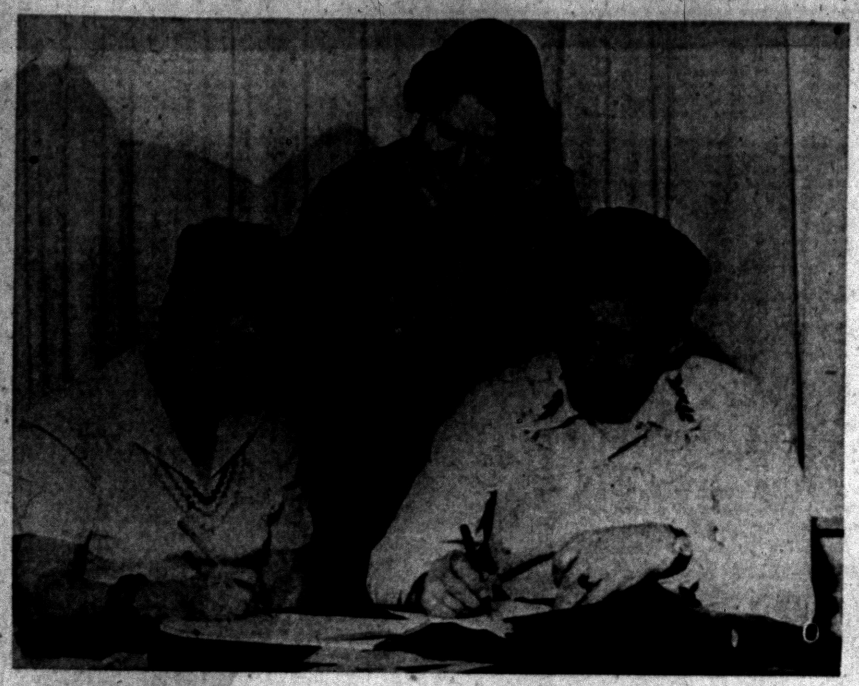

Esther Bentley was maid of honor, and Lorraine Hensel of Milford and Judy Boardman served as bridesmaids. All were gowned in frocks fashioned with draped bodices, scoop necklines and bouffant skirts.

Miss Bentley's dress was of mint green taffeta and the bridesmaids were gowned in crayon green. Each had a matching headpiece of shirred net. The maid of honor carried a cascade of rose pink carnations and the other attendants carried light pink carnations.

Best man was Robert Masters, and Donald Goodwin and Daniel Carr seated the guests. Richard Helsey presented the recital of bridal music with James Huellmantel, uncle of the bride, at the organ.

For receiving 150 guests at a buffet luncheon in St. Benedict Hall, Mrs. Carr wore a navy blue sheath dress with a bouffant taffeta overskirt. Her accessories were navy and white and she had a corsage of white tear drop roses. Mrs. Masters' choice was an ice blue lace dress with white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

For traveling to northern Michigan the new Mrs. Carr wore a black eyelet dress accented with pink accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live at Union Lake.

Dear Abby....

Teenager Has Car Trouble

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"Dear Abby: I am not exactly a popular girl but I was asked to the prom. I am 15 and the fellow is a sensible 17. He drives a car he rebuilt himself. My father has seen the car and says it may be okay for city driving but it's not safe for the highway.

ABBY

"The Prom is being held at a pavilion on the county highway so my father says he will call the boy and offer to let him use our 1958 car because he's sure it is safe. I am afraid my date will feel insulted and refuse to take me and I will die of shame. Please help me."

DYING OF SHAME

DEAR DYING: Tell your prom date how your father feels. If he is sensible he will not be insulted. P. S. I see a car in your future.

"DEAR ABBY: I am getting married this summer and my problem is this: I have made arrangements with a fine professional photographer to take pictures. I want to make sure that my guests who are amateur photographers don't bring their cameras.

"I have seen some beautiful weddings turned into circuses by guests with cameras. One man crawled behind the altar and almost hit the preacher on the head with an extension rod flash bulb. Please suggest a solution."

WORRIED BRIDE

DEAR WORRIED: Ask your ushers (when seating the guests) to request that no pictures be taken during the ceremony.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I do not agree with the answer you gave the 15-year-old girl who asked if she should discuss problems of sex and life with her boy friend. You said she should NOT, and told her to ask her parents. Like most young people I think there's no sense in going to our parents because they haven't had problems like that for 20 or 30 years."

A BOY WHO KNOWS

DEAR BOY: I have news for you. Twenty or 30 years ago the players might have been different, but the game was the same. Problems about sex and life should be answered by matured, qualified people.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for nine years to a man who travels. My husband trusts me but my mother-in-law doesn't. When she sees a car in front of my house she takes down the color, make and license number and gets in touch with her friend who works at the motor vehicle department and finds out who owns the car. I can always explain who was visiting me but I don't think I should have to. What can I do about it?"

WATCHED

DEAR WATCHED: Your mother-in-law ought to volunteer her services for civil air defense. Ignore her.

Work on Thick Diaphragm

Slimmer Figure Gives More Youthful Look

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Those of you who have been following my 9-Day Reducing Diet for four or five days now are beginning to feel the pressure lessen on the waist bands and belts and over the abdomen and hips. What a wonderful springlike feeling that is! In fact, you are getting slimmer and younger looking by the minute. More menus follow.

A general loss of weight reduces all of our measurements. The cosmetic value of exercise is its ability to speed the loss in inches where you most wish to and to increase other measurements as you desire.

The diaphragm is one spot which is often loss-resistant. By this I mean that many women who have slim measurements as a whole still have fat over this portion of the body (just under the bust). Therefore, today I want to give you an exercise for slimming the diaphragm.

Kneel on both knees. Bend over and place the hands on the floor in front of you and let the head drop forward. Raise the trunk and lean backward so that you feel the pull over the diaphragm. At the same time raise your arms and bend your elbows, palms facing forward and hands at shoulder level, head slightly backward. Again bend the trunk forward and place hands on the floor, head down, and continue.

The important part of this exercise is the lift through the ribs. PULL UP with the rib cage as you lean back.

★ ★ ★

On last Friday I gave you the 9-Day Reducing Diet menus for Saturday and Sunday, and on Saturday the menus for Monday in order to facilitate your shopping. Here are Tuesday's menus.

TUESDAY'S MENUS

Breakfast

One egg poached or boiled
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON

1 portion salmon
Celery sticks
One-half cup steamed carrots
One-half grapefruit

DINNER

Minute or club steak (small)
One-half cup string beans
One-half cup squash
One glass skimmed milk
Orange slices

As people grow older they are apt to become heavy in humor as well as in figure.

Those who give life a "light touch" always charm us. WHY? Because we find comfort in their warmth and approach to life. We also love the diversion with which their gaiety provides us. When in their presence we forget our troubles for a while.

EVERYONE HAS HARDSHIP

Yet we are very shortsighted and lack perception if we believe that there is one single human being on this earth who does not have his or her share of hardship. Some of the seemingly luckiest folks we know have some of the greatest difficulties—but we don't know about them.

Not only do we add charm to the lives of others if we can keep our sense of humor and an outgoing spirit even in the face of adversity and stresses, but we provide ourselves with an emotional shock absorber. It does no good to mull over our problems every waking hour. We only throw a shadow on the day for everyone we see and damage our own looks and health.

The art of happiness can be learned with practice. It will keep you youthful and well. There are reasons for laughter and humor every day—unless we develop the habit of dourness which blinds us to them. Many people form this habit without realizing that they have done so.

Why not give life a light touch in order to increase our own enjoyment and that of those we know?

If you would like to have my leaflet "Grace and Charm" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 57 to Josephine Lowman in care of this paper.

If you missed some of the menus and would like to have the whole series for future reference, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for the 9-Day Diet Booklet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Former Co-Op Owner Pays

Ex - Romeo Resident Makes Full Restitution to Farm Owners

ROMEO—The former owner of a defunct farmers' cooperative presented a check in Macomb County Justice Court, Mount Clemens, to cover the entire amount still owed his stockholders.

Leonard E. Freeman, a former Romeo resident now living in Flint, made full restitution in the amount of $2,374.

★ ★ ★

Freeman pleaded guilty to a second count Friday, that of being a disorderly person, or being engaged in an illegal occupation. He was placed on a year's probation and paid court costs of $20.50.

The investigation of Freeman's activities as head of Freeman's Farmers Co-op was begun by Romeo State Police on the complaint of a former stockholder, Jack Silipin of Lake Orion.

Freeman, investigating officers said, issued stock in his cooperative to farmers living mainly in the Romeo-Armada area. He failed, however, to register the stock and had no license to sell it.

The company folded more than a year ago, and Freeman began reiumbursing his stockholders. Silipin, holder of 100 shares failed to collect and asked a police investigation.

Other stockholders, it developed, also were owed money, some amounting to several hundred dollars.

To Build Canoe From Orange Crates

Prepare Scout-O-Rama at Walled Lake

WALLED LAKE — Examples of Boy Scout ingenuity, such as building a usable canoe out of orange crates, will be demonstrated this weekend at the fifth annual Ottawa District Scout-O-Rama at Walled Lake High School.

As an indication of its growth and popularity, the event his year will be held for two days instead of one. The show will run continuously from 2 to 9:30 p.m. Saturday and from 2 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Produced by more than 2,400 Cubs, Scouts and Explorers of the Ottawa District of the Clinton Valley Council with the help of 700 adult leaders, the 1958 Scout-O-Rama will offer an interesting "midway" of 60 exhibits. It will carry out the theme of "Scouting in Action."

The orange crate canoe will be built on the spot by Explorers of Troop 109 of Farmington. Outdoor sportsmen will be interested in this demonstration.

Another outstanding feature will be the zoology exhibit of the Boys Republic Post 11 of Farmington.

This exhibit could be classified as a zoo in miniature since it will display live muskrats, fox, racoon, skunks, wild rabbits, porcupine, many types of Michigan snakes, including the rattler, along with boa constrictors from Louisiana and a prairie rattler from Camp Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

The stage performance will offer 50 minutes of solid entertainment, scouts say. The all-scout cast lists nearly 100 performers.

★ ★ ★

Homes and Businesses Entered by Thieves During Weekend

Burglars made a heavy haul over the week, taking jewelry and furs valued at $7,756 from one house alone.

The thieves broke into the home of Arthur Rosenthal, 210 Ottawa Dr., Saturday evening and stole the following:

A mink stole valued at $1,750; a mink cape valued at $750; a diamond wristwatch valued at $950; a pearl and diamond bracelet, $800; a diamond pin and earring set, $3,000; pair of earrings, $150; two pins, $150; two gold chains, $20; one man's wristwatch, $150; three fifths of Scotch whisky, $36.

Rosenthal, owner of Arthur's Women's Apparel, 48 N. Saginaw St., told police the items were taken from a downstairs hall closet and from the master bedroom.

Entry was gained by breaking out a glass panel in a rear door after forcing a rear porch door open.

In other burglaries, National Life Insurance Co., 3½ S. Saginaw St., was entered, but nothing reported missing; Pontiac Recreation, a bowling alley at 18 N. Perry St., lost $163 from a cash drawer; Levi Nance of 318½ Wessen St. reported $300 taken from his home Saturday evening.

The Sunoco Service Station, 180 Orchard Lake Ave., lost cigarettes and coins from a machine to burglars, while Homer Putnam, 92 Astor St., reported the loss of his billfold and a woman's handbag containing $25 all together. The billfold and purse were later found at Michigan and Westway streets with the money missing.

Pontiac Catering Service, 644 Going St., reported cigarettes and chewing gum worth $11 taken in a burglary.

Police later apprehended two juveniles who confessed to this theft.

The police also nabbed a youth, 17, and a juvenile in the burglary of Cityside Market, 1716 Joslyn Rd., which occurred just after midnight today. Ten cartons of cigarettes were recovered.

Impetus for Tax Cut Slacks Off in Congress

WASHINGTON (INS) — Congressional sentiment for a tax cut appeared to be waning today as the administration reported the nation is "seeing the worst" of the recession.

However, a temporary tax cut of five to seven billion dollars was recommended by a Rockefeller Brothers Fund study panel of experts, and two other leading economists forecast continued worsening of the general economic picture for several months.

The developments followed an attack on the Eisenhower Administration by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson for its lack of "vigor" in tackling the recession, and a promise that he does not "intend to sit it out."

Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks, who refuted Johnson's charge, declared yesterday that the economic situation is "leveling out" and added: "I would hope very much that we might see some solid progress forward along in June or July."

He predicted "better results employment-wise" this month, and said March's employment figures —an increase of 300,000 in the total job force and only a slight increase in total unemployment — were "somewhat reassuring."

Weeks said he would favor waiting "a little longer," maybe another month," before making a decision on cutting taxes, but said this would be a more effective stimulus to the economy than public works spending.

He also defended President Eisenhower's veto of a 1.6 billion dollar rivers and harbors bill which sponsoring Democrats labled an anti-recession measure. The commerce secretary declared the projects in the bill would not help the economy this year and added there are already five billion dollars worth of such projects authorized and waiting to be implemented by Congress.

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM), chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee, disclosed meanwhile that he will wait until mid-May to begin hearings challenging Eisenhower's veto. But he added: "We're going to do our damndest to pass this bill over his veto."

★ ★ ★

The time table set up by Chavez bore out other reports the Democratic leadership will be in "no hurry" to move to override the vetoes of this bill and the farm price support freeze, mustering grass roots support in behalf of the projects in the meantime.

★ ★ ★

The Rockefeller report, in addition to a tax cut, recommended accelerating "already authorized public works projects" and initiating programs that can be started quickly and completed in 12 to 18 months. It also urged extension of unemployment insurance to all workers and boosting benefits and duration of payments.

Including One From Madison Heights

3 Men Killed in Collision

MOUNT CLEMENS — A Madison Heights man was killed early Sunday morning in a two-car collision in Macomb County which also claimed the lives of two other men and seriously injured a fourth.

Dead at the scene were Joseph A. Joyal Jr., 35, of 1360 Elliot, Madison Heights, and Clifford B. Whitmore, 26, of Mount Clemens.

The third victim, Howard A. Rippon, 42, of Detroit, was dead on arrival at Mount Clemens General Hospital.

Leonard C. Hoeft, 37, of Dearborn, suffered chest injuries and a possible broken leg.

The accident occurred on U.S. 25 (Gratiot avenue), just north of 27-Mile road. Macomb County sheriff's deputies are investigating the cause of the crash. The cars apparently collided head-on, they said.

Joyal and Rippon were passengers in the car driven by Hoeft. Whitmore was alone in his auto, police said.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark of 3410 White Lake Rd., Milford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Scramlin of 3694 Jossman Rd., Holly.

★ ★ ★

The bride chose a floor length gown of Schaiffi embroidery fashioned on princess lines and featuring a boat neckline, fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a bouffant skirt.

Her headpiece was a crown of lace and tulle, securing a fingertip veil of pure silk French illusion.

Marion Pickering of White Lake Township was maid of honor. Attendants were Carol Sue Lockwood of Hartland and the bridegroom's sister, Donna Scramlin of Holly.

David Diedrick of Holly was the best man. Ushers were Larry Scramlin of Holly, brother of the bridegroom; Bill Seavy, also of Holly, and James Ogden of Clarkston.

Acting postmaster Robert C. Miller and four Pontiac postal supervisors attended the bi-annual Post Office Department Management Meeting of the Detroit Operations District Saturday in Bay City.

The local supervisors attending the meeting were: Neil Ebey, mails; Clifford Hickmott, chief accountant; R. J. Featherston, collection and delivery and Floyd Gilson, motor vehicle service facility.

★ ★ ★

The meeting was sponsored by the Michigan chapters of the National Assn. of Postmasters and the National Assn. of Postal Supervisors.

Steal Equipment, Cash From Archery Store

Giles Archery Service, 6959 Highland Rd., Waterford Township, was broken into sometime Saturday night and approximately $70 worth of equipment and $17 in cash was stolen.

Entrance was gained by forcing open a rear door, according to Waterford Township Police. William Giles, 6351 Paramus St., Clarkston, is the owner.

Farm Girl Kills Her Stepfather

He Reportedly Abused Her Sister in Dispute Over Sunday Chores

MONROE (UP) — An 18-year-old farm girl shot and killed her stepfather Sunday as he reportedly abused her sister in a dispute over chores.

State police said the girl calmly went to a neighbor's home after the shooting and asked that authorities be called.

Kenneth O. T. Loewis, 50, the stepfather, was shot to death at his home at Lambertville, near Toledo and just north of the Michigan-Ohio state line.

Held for investigation was Joann Heaton, who police say admitted the shooting.

Officers said Joann told them she shot Lewis with a 20-gauge shotgun after he had struck her sister, May, 16, when Mary insisted that she was not to be expected to do chores on Sunday as on other days.

At the Erie State Police Post it was said that Joann, showing little emotion, declared her stepfather had beaten both herself and Mary often in the six years since he married their mother.

Huber Reported Out as Wings' Publicity Man

Pontiac Press Learns From Close Source of Conflict With Norris

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

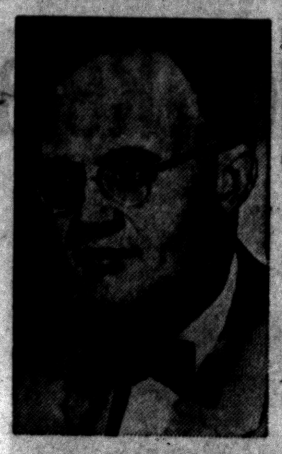

The Pontiac Press learned today from a Detroit source that Fred Huber, well known publicity director of the Detroit Red Wings, was fired by club president Bruce Norris last weekend.

No official announcement has been made by Red Wing officials, however, a source close to the Olympia scene said the firing resulted "because of a conflict between Huber and Norris in regard to certain stories which appeared in the newspapers."

The Ted Lindsay story and his trade to Chicago was considered a factor in the dismissal in as much as Norris did not believe it was handled properly.

Huber has served the Wings as publicity director for 18 years and he was vice president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States.

It was also reported that Huber would accept a position with a Detroit brewery which televises the Red Wing hockey games. Huber served as president of the Detroit broadcaster's association and was a regular member of the press box coaches' club which appeared on television between periods of the hockey games.

REPORTED OUT — Fred Huber, publicity director of the Detroit Red Wings for 18 years, was reported on his way out after a conflict with Bruce Norris, club president. A Detroit source said Huber was offered a position with a Detroit brewery which televises the Wing games. No public release has been made on the story.

Jones Sets New Hurdle Record

Breaks Own Mark While Beating Famed Davis in Ohio Relays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Eastern Michigan's Hayes Jones broke his own Ohio Relays' record in the 120-yard high hurdles covering the distance in 13.6 seconds Saturday in the 16th annual meet.

Jones last year set the mark of 13.9. In winning this year's event, Jones edged Ohio State's Glenn Davis.

Another Michigan runner, Mark Smith, competing for the Detroit track Club, set a meet record in the high jump with a 6-foot, 7-inch leap. Michigan's Milt Mead set the old mark in 1952 with a 6-6¾ leap.

Pint-sized Ira Murchison of Western Michigan won his specialty, the 100-yard dash, in 9.4 seconds, one tenth of a second short of world and relays record.

TRIBE GETS ALL FOUR RUNS OFF BUNNING ON HOMERS

Tigers Drop 'Gopher Ball' Game, 4-2

DETROIT (AP)—Manager Jack Tighe says he will not worry about Jim Bunning's home run troubles "until he quits winning."

The tall righthander allowed the Cleveland Indians four home runs yesterday in Detroit's 4-2 loss at Briggs Stadium but his manager shrugged it off as just one of those things.

Bunning allowed 33 home runs last year—an average of one every eight innings—and this season permitted five roundtrippers in his first two starts.

"Any guy who is around the plate all the time like Bunning will have the same trouble," said Tighe. "Look at Robin Roberts—he's allowed a mess of home runs. I refuse to worry about Jim until he quits winning."

Tighe conceded that Bunning might have fewer home run headaches if he were a little wild once in a while.

"He's not careless, though," said Tighe. "And he's tough out there."

Tighe reminded that Bunning hit Dick Brown with a pitch in the second inning after Roger Maris drove one into the right field pavilion, and that he knocked down Rocky Colavito after Brown connected in the ninth.

Colavito also hit for the circuit in the fourth and Minnie Minoso broke a 2-2 tie with a home run in the eighth inning.

Bunning compiled a 20-8 record last season but established a new club record by allowing 33 home runs. By yielding four of them Sunday he came within two of the record hit off a single pitcher in one game.

Ray Boone accounted for the Tiger runs with a sixth inning home run that followed a walk to Harvey Kuen. Thus home runs accounted for all the scoring.

The Tigers collected only six singles against Ray Narleski, who worked the first 8⅓ innings.

Cleveland manager Bobby Bragan pulled out all the stops to gain an edge in the three-game series. He called on Herb Score, the fastballing lefthander who used up 169 pitches in defeating the Tigers 7-5 in the Briggs Stadium opener on Friday.

Frank Lary, who lost his first start, was to oppose Chicago's Dick Donovan as the White Sox came in for a two-game series starting today. Donovan lost to Detroit last week when Frank Bolling reached him for three-run homer in the ninth inning for a 5-4 Tiger verdict.

Montreal Ends Cup Series

Canadiens Trim Bruins, 5-3, for Playoff Crown

Geoffrion Scores Two Goals to Lead Way to 3rd Straight Title

BOSTON (AP)—The mighty Montreal Canadiens returned home with hockey's coveted Stanley Cup for the third straight year today after a pressure-filled championship series with Boston's battling Bruins.

"I guess we'll be in the same trouble next year—everyone will pick us to win by a lot of games," said Coach Toe Blake before leaving for Montreal.

The Canadiens triggered a pair of goals in the first two minutes and held on for a 5-3 triumph and the championship last night in the sixth game of the best of seven competition.

The two goal margin in the windup was the same by which Montreal outscored underdog Boston—16-14—in the series. The bitterly fought series was just as close as that scoring indicates.

"I never saw so many players give so much—and that goes for both teams," said Blake.

Since Blake took over as coach three years ago, the Canadiens have won the Stanley Cup each season. Toronto, which won the Cup in 1947-49, is the only other team to capture the championship three straight years.

Blake said he couldn't pick an outstanding player because "they all played their hearts out." But he had special praise for Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion, who came back from a severe stomach injury after being feared lost for the season.

"I was very pleased the way he played," the Montreal coach said. "It took a lot of guts to get back out there after what happened to him."

Boom Boom, who scored a pair of goals and set up another in the championship finale, also recalled the injury as he relaxed in the dressing room."

★ ★ ★

"A month ago I thought I was dead," Geoffrion said. "I owe my life to Bill Head (a physiotherapist) and Doc (Dr. L. G.) Hampson. I thought I was finished for at least the season, but I managed to get back. Now I'm very, very tired."

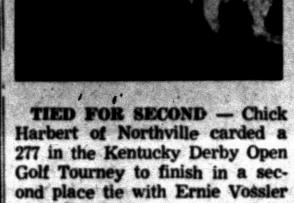

Blake and his players had high praise for the Bruins, who finished fourth in the regular season and were considered a pushover for Montreal.

★ ★ ★

"The Bruins are a tough club who just wouldn't quit," said all star defenseman Doug Harvey. "They skated well, hit hard and never gave up, even when things looked hopeless for them tonight."

Boston Coach Milt Schmidt called his squad "the gamest bunch of players I've seen" and praised them for their driving play against "a great hockey club."

"Almost, almost," said Schmidt with a weak smile. "I don't think any team can ever come closer. A couple of breaks and we would have made it."

Illustrating the all-out effort PCH's track team made at the big Mansfield Relays, Saturday, was what happened to Bob Benson, running in the medley relay. Bob ran himself out in his leg (mile) of the event, under a scorching sun, and collapsed later. He suffered from a nervous chill and too much sun and was removed to a hospital. He returned later, after treatment.

His final day 69 gave him a 72-hole total of 274, a robust 14 strokes under par for rugged Seneca golf course.

Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich., and Ernie Vossler of Midland, Texas, shared second money—$1,650 each—with 277's.

Moore Selected Top NHL Player

BOSTON (AP)—Montreal winger Dickie Moore, who enjoyed his greatest season by leading the National Hockey League in scoring, today was named the outstanding player for 1957-58 by The Hockey News, an international weekly publication.

Toe Blake of the Stanley Cup champion Canadiens was picked as coach of the year, while General Manager Lynn Patrick of the Boston Bruins was named top executive.

Veterans Fill 'M' Grid Jobs

Eight Vets Get First Crack at Vacancies in Scrimmages

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Veterans appear to be getting the first crack at the eight starting vacancies in Michigan starting football lineup.

The Wolverines held their first spring scrimmage Saturday. And coach Bennie Oosterbaan sent only one sophomore out with his first team. That was Don Deskins, who is in line for a regular guard job.

The rest of the lineup was filled with veterans, some of whom figure to be second stringers when the fall rolls around and a complete squad reports.

Oosterbaan started a backfield of quarterback Stan Noskin, left halfback Bob Ptacek, right halfback Fred Julian and fullback Gene Sisinyak. Julian was used in place of Brad Myers, who was ill. Sisinyak is expected to be a second stringer behind Capt. John Herrnstein.

Noskin's sharp passing and Ptacek's strong running featured the scrimmage.

Homer Produces Series Sweep; Yanks, KC Keep Rolling

Sievers 'Murder' to Boston

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No wonder the Boston Red Sox have been trying to lure Roy Sievers from Washington during the past few years. The guy simply murders 'em.

Sievers was at it again Sunday at Washington made it three in a row over the Red Sox with a 6-5 triumph. The big outfielder walloped a tenth inning home run against his "cousins" to hand Boston its fifth defeat in six starts this season.

The victory moved the Senators into a second place tie with Kansas City, which also won its third game in five starts, an 8-2 defeat of the Chicago White Sox. The League leading New York Yankees made it five victories in six starts when Bob Turley hurled a 7-0 shutout over Baltimore Orioles. Cleveland hit four home runs to edge out Detroit 4-2 and deadlock the Tigers for fourth place.

In addition to his game winning homer, Sievers collected a double and triple to give him five hits in the three games against Boston. The 31-year-old slugger had only a single in the season's opener against the Red Sox but it drove in the tying run. In Saturday's victory over Boston, he again tied the score with a ninth inning home run.

Since joining the Senators in 1954, Sievers has used Red Sox pitchers to fatten up his batting average. His lifetime batting average is only .266 but against Boston pitching it is .320. He started off modestly with .247 in 1954, but then came marks of .338 in 1955, .337 in '56 and .345 in '57. In those four years, he socked 15 home runs and drove in 68 against Boston pitching.

Bud Byerly, third Washington pitcher, was the winner, and Murray Wall, fourth Boston pitcher, the loser.

Five hit pitching by Jack Urban and three-run homers by Bill Tuttle and Billy Hunter featured Kansas City's victory over Chicago. The homers were hit off Bill Fischer, who had gone 100 2-3 innings without giving up a four-bagger. The last home run ball he pitched was May 28, 1957, to Hal Smith of Kansas City. Urban lost his shutout in the ninth when pinch hitter Ron Jackson doubled in both White Sox runs.

Turley became the second Yankee pitcher to hurl a shoutout this season. He limited the Orioles to four hits and faned eight. Yankee pitchers have allowed only eight runs in six games. The Yankees got eight hits against loser Connie Johnson and two relievers, the biggest being an inside-the-park homer by outfielder Norm Siebern.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: Wild Drives.

Diagnosis: Careless Ball Positioning.

Treatment: An important part of aiming your shot is placing the ball right with reference to your feet. (Perhaps it would be more accurate to say playing your feet right with reference to the ball. Anyway, what I mean is placing ball and feet right with reference to each other). If you're haphazard about this matter, you can bet that your shots will be haphazard too.

For the drive, the ball should be lined up even with the instep of your left foot. The idea is to spot the ball where the bottom of your swing arc will come. You want to sweep the ball off the tee with the driver just as the downswing ends and the upward arc of the follow-through begins.

If you keep lining up to the ball differently each time, you must also keep changing your swing pattern; but this doesn't make for consistency. It only takes a couple of seconds to check and be sure you're lined up right for the shot. And those few seconds will certainly be time well spent.

Chiefs Win 2nd Ohio Relays Title

Team Effort Produces 39 Points; 5 Michigan Teams in Top 10

By H. GUY MOATS

MANSFIELD, Ohio — With a squad of 13, including less than a half-dozen participants in the 1957 event, Pontiac Michigan's gritty thinclads Saturday battled to their second Mansfield Relays crown, winning after a long and arduous effort, with a total of 39 and five sixths points, with Pennsylvania's Mt. Lebanon runnerup, with 26.

Other top finishers included Akron (O.) North, 3rd with 16; Flint Northern, (5th) 13 and one fifth; Flint Central (6th) 11; Willow Run, (8th) 10 and one third; Birmingham 9, and River Rouge 9 (11th).

Chiefs, coached by Dean Wilson, trailed early in the colorful meet that drew 1765 young athletes from 145 schools in four states. They moved to the front with the half-mile relay victory and stayed there although the Lebanese came within a point or two once.

Four records fell in the onslaught, the high hurdles (14.4); shot put (57 feet 3¼ inches); 4-mile relay (18:49.2); 440-yard (49.8).

Pontiac, spearheaded by the brilliant Hayes Jones, won in 1956 with 34½ points, to become the first out-of-Ohio team to win the championship. Pittsburgh Central Catholic won last year. Pontiac was in a 11th place tie with only 10 points.

"Determination, a searing desire to win, plus the help of a couple of transfers were biggest factors in the very sweet victory." Wilson commented after the issue had been decided, with slight Charley Barge's first-place tie in the high jump. Barge and Judge Dickson of Clairton, Ohio cleared 6-2. In the draw Barge got the gold medal, his first. Fred Brooks drew for him. Brooks tied for 4th.

The happy PCH squad brought back 17 medals, and the 3-foot tall rotating championship trophy. Pontiac also won about all the special trophies, and these will be sent on soon.

The most brilliant effort, individually was Bob Manning's decisive win over the highly touted Otis Drayton of Cleveland Latim. This race, the 100, had been figured as the "big" event — and it was.

Manning was a little slow leaving the blocks, but caught Drayton at the midway point, then boiled out in front to win in 9.8, by 6 feet. The race was Bobby's 2nd 9.8 of the season.

Drayton later took revenge by beating Manning soundly in the 220 in 21.4.

Among other Pontiac firsts was that of Larry Beamer in the mile, a good 4:37.4 performance. Larry set a fast pace most of the way, but had to turn on the power, 15 yards from the tape to win by a scant yard.

The summary (winners, Michigan places):

120-yard high hurdles—1. Don Lee (Mt. Leb.); 2. Scott Tyler (Cln. Hughes); 3. Sowell (P); 4. Don Gardner (Riv. Rouge); 5. Mal Porter (Inkster). Time: 14.8 (Lee set record 14.4 in prelim.)

100-yard dash—1. Manning (P); 2. Dave Mills (Lak'wd, Ohio); 3. Drayton (Clev. Latin). Time: 9.8

Broad jump—1. Prewitt (Wil. Run); 2. Reg. Gillard (FN); 3. Sowell (P). Distance: 23 feet 8 inches

Seattle, Three Others May Get Punishment for Infractions

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The executive committee and council of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. today put the final touches on the report from its rules infractions committee.

★ ★ ★

There were unconfirmed reports that Seattle and three Southeastern Conference schools were due for punishment, but NCAA Executive Director Walt Byars refused to comment what schols, if any, would be penalized.

★ ★ ★

Byars told newsmen at a press conference last night the docket of cases was not unusually heavy.

★ ★ ★

Auburn, nearing completion of a three-year probation handed out in May, 1956, was one of the schools reportedly in for censure. Athletic Director Jeff Beard reportedly met with the committee in a long session Saturday. Byars refused comment.

★ ★ ★

The meeting yesterday was devoted primarily to organizational matters.

Meeting Opens Today

Detroit Site of NBA Draft

DETROIT (INS)—National Basketball Association Board of Governors opened a two-day meeting in Detroit today in conjunction with the NBA's annual player draft.

NBA President Maurice Podoloff and owners or representatives from the eight league teams were on hand along with coaches and scouts who will pick the cream of the college basketball crop beginning at noon tomorrow.

Most work before the board today was routine. One of the important items will be the naming of the site for the 1959 east-west all-star game next January.

About 80 of the nation's top collegiate basketball players will be drafted tomorrow.

Top choice like Archie Dees of Indiana, Dave Gambee of Oregon State, Barney Cable of Bradley, Connie Dierking of Cincinnati and George Kline of Minnesota are expected to be among the early draft selections.

Lightweights Step Up Drills for Title Scrap

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Lightweight Champion Joe Brown and challenger Ralph Dupas step up training this week for their May 15 title fight in the Houston Coliseum.

Brown will work out at Camp Holder, sparring twice a day. Dupas is training at St. Mary's gym in New Orleans, his home town. He will come here about May 1.

Texas Boxing Enterprises two days ago assumed Dupas' $5,000 bond, which the National Boxing Assn. demanded he post for the fight. Local promoters already had picked up Brown's $5,000 bond.

★ ★ ★

The NBA stipulated that both post the bonds, with the winner guaranteeing Kenny lane a title fight within 90 days. The NBA said Lane has been denied a title fight for more than a year.

Metz Lake Charles Champ on Long Putt

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP)—Dick Metz, never considered at his best around the greens, won the $5,000 Lake Charles Invitational golf tournament yesterday with a 42-foot putt.

The 49-year-old Fort Worth, Tex. professional picked up top money of $833.33 by sinking the shot in a sudden-death playoff with Buster Cupit of Fort Smith, Ark.

Metz and Cupit were tied with eight-under par 280s after 72 holes. Metz got into the playoff by firing birdies on the 17th and 18th holes of the last round for a two-under par 70. Cupit had a 72.

Detroit Pair Second in Doubles Qualifying

MOUNTAINSIDE, N. J. (AP)—A St. Louis, Mo. pair, Carl Richard and Steve Nagy, won the National Doubles bowling qualifying round yesterday.

Ed Lubanski and Lee Jouglard of Detroit followed them with 9,975 pins.

The eight qualifying teams today begin the $16,000 round robin tournament. Defending champs Lou Campi of Dumont, N. J., and Al Faragalli of Paterson, N. J., ended far down in standings.

Hershey Calder Cup Champ in 6 Games

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — The Hershey Bears won the American Hockey League Calder Cup championship Sunday night, defeating the Springfield Indians 2-1 in the sixth game of the best of seven series. The Bears won the series 4-2.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

The fair sex is taking a back seat to no one this year where top-flight golf attractions in Michigan are concerned. A glance at the 1958 calendar of events tells why.

Oakland County, the hub of golfing activity in this state, is once again the center of attention for women shot-makers. Tourney offerings range from the national down to the local level.

Highlighting the whole show, naturally, will be the USGA Women's Open, scheduled June 26-28 at Swank Forest Lake Country Club. The best professionals and amateurs in the trade will be on hand for that one.

It marks the second time in three years that Forest Lake has drawn a women's tournament rich in national prestige. The LPGA was played there in 1956 and Marlene Bauer Hagge took top prize.

Plum Hollow, one of Oakland's finest layouts, is the scene of two state tourneys for the lady golfers — the state closed championship July 14-18 and the Michigan Seniors test June 20.

County courses, as usual, will be host to a sizeable share of the tournaments copducted in the Pontiac-Detroit area by the Women's District Golf Association.

District competition for the ladies begins May 6 at Forest Lake and ends Sept. 30 when the annual WDGA meeting is held at Dearborn CC. Eighteen weekly tournaments are slated on Tuesdays with four days set aside for team play.

The three-day medal play tourney is scheduled June 30-July 2 at Country Club of Detroit and Knollwood is host to the WDGA match play championship Aug. 25-29.

Move over, men, and share the spotlight. The gals are teeing off.

SHORT PUTTS

Are you a victim of wild slices from the tee? Cheer up! For your information, there's a new guaranteed non-slice driver now in production after six years of design by Tony Penna, veteran pro and club stylist.

★ ★ ★

The new course manager at Rochester Golf and Country Club is Sye Schwerdtfeger, brother-in-law of head pro Jack Fleck.

Steve Isakov, who used to assist Joe Devany at Grosse Ile, is now the No. 1 pro at Lakelands CC. He was formerly the head man of Glen Oaks.

★ ★ ★

State Publinx champion Mike Andonian of Pontiac may try his luck in the Western Open tourney May 29-June 1 at Red Run.

Campbell Seeks 4th North and South Cup

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Bill Campbell, Huntington, W.Va., insuranceman who will be 35 years old in two weeks, seeks his fourth North and South Amateur golf tournament championship in nine years. Qualifying play was on tap today.

The 6-4, 200-pound Campbell, a member of last year's U.S. Walker Cup team, seeks to become the No. 2 man in this 58-year-old event's roll call of winners.

Only George T. Dunlap Jr. has won more often. From 1931 through 1942 he took seven North and South titles. Included is a string of four starting in 1933.

Offer Floyd $200,000

10 Marks Fall in Kansas Meet

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Oklahoma and Texas led the assault on the record books in the Kansas Relays Friday and Saturday.

The Sooners and Longhorns each set an intercollegiate record. Eight other meet standards toppled.

Eddie Southern Texas' great quarter-miler, did an unofficial 44.6 anchor leg as the Longhorns' mile relay team was clocked in 3:09.1, cracking the 17-year-old national record of 3:09.4 held by California.

★ ★ ★

Oklahoma's 3:19.5 in the spring medley relay Friday was an intercollegiate and American record. The old mark, 3:20.2, was set by Kansas in 1954. The Sooners came back Saturday for a Relays mark of 9:50.8 in the distance medley.

★ ★ ★

Bruce Parker of Texas shattered one of the meet's two oldest records by hurling the javelin 232 feet 8 inches, nearly four feet better than the distance by Alton Terry of Hardin-Simmons 21 years ago.

Roberts Beats Braves, Giants and Pirates Win

2 Musial Homers Stop Cubs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National League's best and worst streaks ended Sunday. The man responsible? Stan Musial. Who else?

Having seen his St. Louis mates drop their first four games this season—all to the Chicago Cubs—Stan the Man finally decided to take matters into his own hands. He crashed two home runs and drove in four runs to lead the Cardinals to a 9-4 victory over previously unbeaten Chicago.

Despite the defeat the Cubs managed to remain on top of the NL heap but their lead was cut to a half game by the San Francisco Giants who walloped Los Angeles 12-2 for their fourth victory in six meetings with the Dodgers.

The Phillies, behind Robin Roberts' five-hit pitching, defeated the Milwaukee Braves 3-2 and Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 4-3 on R. C. Stevens' ninth inning home run.

Musial, off to a fast start in pursuit of baseball's all-time greats in various lifetime hitting departments, drove his first homer and third of the season, in the first inning with a man on base.

With the Cards leading 4-3, he smashed a 3-0 pitch with one on in the fifth to launch a four-run rally that led to his team's first victory. Morrie Martin, in relief, was the winner. Jim Brosnan, first of five Cub hurlers, was the loser.

1. Gave him 2,967 hits, 20 behind eighth place Sam Rice (2,987).

2. Gave him 1,670 runs, 24 behind 14th place Billy Hamilton (1,690).

3. Gave him 385 home runs, 71 behind fifth place Ted Williams (456).

4. Gave him 1,579 runs batted in, 30 behind ninth place Goose Goslin (1,605)

5. Gave him 1,161 extra base hits, 29 behind third place Lou Gehrig (1,190)

6. Gave him 5,063 total bases, 38 behind third place Tris Speaker (5,101)

★ ★ ★

A crowd of 47,234 sweltered in the sun-baked Los Angeles Coliseum as the Giants blasted three pitchers for 15 hits including three home runs over the convenient left field wall. Danny O'Connell hit two and Daryl Spencer hit one. Carl Furillo walloped one for Los Angeles to raise the total of homers to 12 in the three game series. At least twenty-five persons fainted in the boiling heat which at one time shot the thermometer up to 100. The crowd brought the three-day attendance total to 167,209.

Ramon Monzant, who was beaten by Los Angeles at San Francisco, went all the way and hurled an eight-hitter. Don Drysdale suffered his second loss to the Giants.

Roberts, who was knocked out in his first start went all the way for his first victory. He helped his cause with three of Philadelphia's seven hits and scored the winning run in the seventh. He opened that inning with a single, advanced to second when loser Bob Rush walked Richie Ashburn and scored on Harry Anderson's single. The Milwaukee runs came on homers, by Henry Aaron and Harry Hanebrink in the seventh.

★ ★ ★

Bob Friend became the first Pittsburgh pitchers to go the distance in the Pirates' victory over Cincinnati. Rookie first baseman Stevens, who entered the game in the ninth as a defensive measure, came up with two out in the ninth and hit a Willard Schmidt serve out of the park to end the game. It was his second homer and his fourth hit of the season in four times at bat.

Chiefs Sweep 2 at Port Huron

St. Michael Romps to First Track Win Led by Trio

Pontiac Central's baseballers extended their winning streak to four by sweeping a doubleheader at Port Huron Saturday, 1-0 and 8-1.

Sunday, the St. Michael had the local sports scene all to itself and took advantage of it by walloping Our Lady of Sorrow of Farmington 98 and three fifths to 10 and two fifths in track at Wisner Stadium.

Bob Garrett allowed only two hits and one walk in hurling the PCH shutout with Bill Hayward's run-scoring double in the 5th the margin of victory.

An unearned run spoiled Dave Jones shutout hopes in the nightcap. He scattered three safeties after his mates scored all eight markers in the 1st frame. Chuck Johnson batted in two on a triple and Dan Kimmell a pair with a double to lead the barrage.

St. Michael swept all the 1sts in evening its dual meet record at 1-1. The Shamrocks had three double winners.

★ ★ ★

Speedster Bob Flanagan took the 100 in 10.7 and also won the 220, Bob Mineweaser won the 440 and broad jump featuring a leap of 19 feet, 6½ inches in the latter and Mike Flynn won the high hurdles and pole vault.

Ticket Offices Flooded With Requests

Russians Are Anxious to See U. S. Cagers

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet basketball coach Victor Geigoriev waved an ever-growing sheaf of telegrams above his head and yelled with some glee "they all want tickets to see the Americans play."

The telegrams were requests, please, and even demands for seats for the two-night series in which the United States men's and women's amateur basketball teams will meet the best players of the Soviet Union.

"They come from everywhere," said the Soviet mentor. "We just don't have that many seats. They come from Riga and the Ukraine, from Uzbekkistan, and all over Central Asia."

Geigoriev and deputy director Alexi Chikin of the All-Union Sports Committee said the Lenin Sports Palace would be packed of its capacity of about 15,000 both nights.

Tblisi, the Georgian capital, expects even greater crowds when the American teams appear there April 28 and 29, the men playing star teams representing the Estonian and Azerbaijan Republics and the women meeting Estonian and Georgian Republic champions.

These games will be fought out in the Tblisi Stadium where officials expect at least 20,000 of the 35,000 available seats to be filled.

The windup in Leningrad will be before smaller crowds since the Winter Stadium there seats only 5,000 to 6,000 fans. There in games on May 3 and 5 the American men play the Leningrad and Latvian champs while the American women meet picked teams from the Russian Federation and Latvia.

Gonzales snapped a five-match losing streak by defeating the former Australian Davis Cup ace 6-2, 7-5 before 1,315 yesterday at the Boston Garden.

Lana, Ex-Spouse to See Judge

Making Plans for Cheryl

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Stephen Crane says he and his former wife Lana Turner plan to present a custody proposal to the Juvenile Court Thursday regarding their daughter Cheryl Crane.

★ ★ ★

The girl has been in Juvenile Hall since April 4, when the actress' boy friend John Stompanato, 32, was fatally stabbed in her bedroom. Police said 14-year-old Cheryl told them she killed Stompanato with a butcher knife to protect her mother from his threats. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

★ ★ ★

Crane, Beverly Hills restaurant operator, said he will not wage a legal fight with Miss Turner for custody of their daughter, and that he doesn't know how such a report started.

Crane said he is confident that the court will make an equitable ruling in his daughter's case. He visited the girl yesterday. He said they talked about "the good times we had in the past," and that there was no mention of the stabbing.

You can often tell which restaurants along a street have the good food; they can afford to have the homely waitresses . . . Nowadays it seems the modern home has everything in it but the family.—Earl Wilson.

Solon Replacement Creates Opposition

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Two friends of the late Sen. W. Kerr Scott (D-NC) have spoken out bitterly against the man chosen by Gov. Luther Hodges to take Scott's place in the Senate.

B. Everett Jordan of Saxapahaw textile manufacturer and at one time a Scott political associate, received the appointment Saturday. Scott died last Wednesday after a heart attack.

★ ★ ★

The Jordan selection drew quick praise from Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., and John D. Lawkins Jr., state Democratic chairman, but brought a strong attack from Terry Sanford of Fayetteville and Ben Roney, Scott's administrative assistant.

★ ★ ★

Both Sanford and Roney suggested that Hodges had named Jordan to hold the Senate seat only until 1960, when Hodges' term as governor will expire. Before Scott's death last week, Hodges had been mentioned often as a possible candidate to rthe Senate in 1960.

The governor and Jordan declined comment.

Junior Editors Quiz on SOUND

QUESTION: Why does a sea shell roar?

ANSWER: Most of us at one time or another have held a large sea shell close to our ear and listened. The romantic idea is that we will hear the roaring and breaking of waves on an ocean beach. What we do hear does resemble the sound of waves far away.

However, doctors tell us that the air is full of slight noises which we do not ordinarily hear—in the same way the air is always full of a certain amount of dust which we do not see. When we hold a sea shell near our ear, it concentrates the small air noises. We hear them as a faint roar.

To prove that not only sea shells can produce this effect, cup your hand around your ear and listen. Once more you will hear a roar, but farther away. The hand does not make as effective a screen as the hard, smoothly lined shell.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Just because the sea doesn't really roar inside shells, don't lose interest in them. Shell collecting is one of the most fascinating hobbies you can have. It's great sport on visits to the beach. And you can find shells by lakes and rivers too.

He's a Tired Man at 72

Battered Poet Ezra Pound Remains the Bohemian

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fifty years ago Ezra Pound was fired from his teaching job at Wabash College for being too much the Bohemian. It was a time of sterility, soothing syrup and bleak Puritanism in American literature.

He protested and wanted to correct it. To do it, he left the America he grew up in and went to Europe. He spent the rest of his life there calling the mass of Americans dolts.

Last week in federal court he heard a judge dismiss a treason charge against him because doctors said he was hopelessly insane—although not the kind to hurt anyone.

Photographers wanted a picture. He posed with his collar open, his shirttails sticking out, a beat-up black felt hat on his head and a yellow scarf around his neck. He was still the Bohemian, but dilapidated now, and terribly tired-looking at 72.

What had happened in those 50 years? He had become a famous poet; a tremendous good and creative force in literature; a benefactor to many artists; and, the government charged, a traitor because he broadcast Fascist propaganda from Italy during World War II.

English literature is the greater for his having been alive. The debt to him is not so much for his own poetry—moments of brilliance amid acres of obscurity and incoherence—as for his creative influence.

He meant his great work to be his cantos. He worked on them for deades. An epic on the human comedy, he called them. Critic Edmund Wilson dismissed them as a "monument . . . to a kind of poetic bankruptcy."

But Carl Sandburg acknowledged years ago that Pound has "done the most of living men to incite new impulses in poetry."

By driving for new forms of expression; by breaking down in this country frozen or prudish barriers to the publication of new and original work; by his advice to other artists and the financial help and audience he got for them; and by the self-discipline he could impart to others but could never impose on himself entirely.

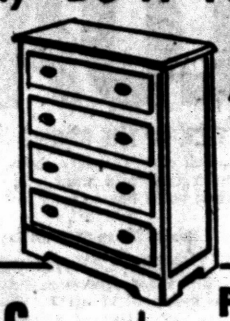

History may regard Pound not so much as an artist himself but what he set out to be at Wabash: a teacher.

Milk consumption in the United States is now about 13 per cent greater than the volume required in the period prior to World War II.

Public Demand Assures More Gangster Movies

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Personally I agree with J. Edgar Hoover that too many gangsters are being glorified in movies. But taking a realistic viewpoint of it, as long as they make money (which means that YOU are buying tickets) they will continue to be made.

Mickey Rooney has just been set to star as Killer Mears in "The Last Mile," Max Rosenberg's movie for United Artists. This makes Mickey's second criminal role this year. Like it or not, his "Baby Face Nelson" cleaned up.

At least the part of Killer Mears has a semi-sentimental value in Hollywood. "The Last Mile brought Clark Gable to Hollywood years ago in the stage version. Some jump for Mickey—he's just finishing "Andy Hardy Comes Home" at MGM and next up, Killer Mears. I was rooting for Mickey to win an Emmy for his performance in "The Comedian."

C. V. "Sonny" Whitney has named his former public relations man, Arthur Wilde, vice president of the Whitney Production Company.

Sonny plans to make about one picture a year. He will bring on the market very soon a new wide screen camera which was developed by Merian Cooper and is something different we are told.

Pat Wayne, young son of John Wayne, is the only actor under contract to Whitney Productions at the moment, and his latest picture "The Young Land" has not yet been released. I happen to know that Sonny has his eye on a very valuable property, but I was sworn to secrecy.

When I met Noel Coward at a party when he and Eva Gabor were here in "Present Laughter" he told me that Eva has a brilliant future in the theater.

I'm sure he'll be not in the least surprised that Eva will be starred this fall on Broadway in Alec Coppel's new comedy, "Gazebo," which Freddie Brisson is producing. As of now, it looks as if Tom Ewell will be the male star.

The youngest of the Gabors is due in New York in late summer to start rehearsals.

The only person outside her family who has seen and talked with Cheryl Crane since she has been in the custody of Juvenile Hall is Mrs. Harry Brand, vice president of the City Welfare Committee.

Sybil, who went not as an officer but as a friend of the family, tells me that Cheryl looks well and has no more favors or attention given her than is given the other eighteen girls in her ward.

"Cheryl seems to do everything that is right," said Sybil, "and was so happy to see her father she kept hugging and kissing him."

Elusive Cancer in Women Hard to Control

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A common type of cancer in women, which stays hidden for the first 10 years and then spreads quickly, could be fairly well controlled if caught when its first symptoms appear, a New York City surgeon reported today. However, it cannot be controlled at this time.

★ ★ ★

Ten years after operation, as many as 85 per cent of the women are alive in the cases in which the degree of malignancy is low. Where the cancer cells are wildly malignant, only 20 per cent of the patients survive 10 years or more.

If medical science had a good blood test that would reveal this hidden cancer during its decade of hibernation, a very high percentage of cures could be produced, said Dr. Carl T. Javert.

Dr. Javert addressed the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. He reported on 400 cases covering 20 years of practice.

This malignancy is cancer of the endometrium or inner lining of the womb.

Bleeding which cannot be otherwise accounted for is the most common symptom. But there could be some way of detecting it before this stage, Dr. Javert said.

Explanation for Robbery? It's Just Plain Silly

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "It looks silly. It sounds silly. It is silly."

That was how Joseph Wood, 28, an unemployed butcher from O'Fallon, Mo., explained his actions yesterday after he robbed a gas station attendant of $19, then changed his mind and had the attendant call police.

Wood told police, "I'd been doing a lot of beer drinking."

Iran Oil Well Blaze Felt 20 Miles Away

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A fire in one of Iran's richest oil wells today was shooting up a pillar of flame more than 70 feet high, forcing persons living 20 miles away to turn on their cooling systems and costing the government-owned National Iranian Oil Co. an estimated million dollars a day.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

America's best known oil fire fighter, Myron Kinley, took off from Houston, Tex., for Iran half an hour after getting a call to help. An official of the Iranian company said it will take months to put out the fire, started by an explosion Saturday.

Princess Meg Again Tours 'Calypso Isle'

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—Britain's Princess Margaret set out today to renew her acquaintance with this island of calypso which first captured her fancy two years ago.

The pretty, 27-year-old princess was greeted by cheering thousands who braved a drizzling rain to see her arrive yesterday. She is here on a state visit to open the new West Indies Federation Legislature tomorrow.

Later she will leave on an 11,000-mile tour of British Guiana, Jamaica, British Honduras and Nassau. She returns home May 7.

Orange, blue and white flags of the new federation festooned the airport as Margaret stepped from her plane wearing a summery knee-length dress, a perky hat tilted to one side and a new head-hugging hairdo.

Although she had flown off from London to the strains of calypso music, Margaret was greeted on arrival by a band from the Jamaica military regiment playing the national anthem.

Truck Strike Ties Up London's Meat Supply

LONDON (AP)—Some 1,700 truck drivers went on strike today, shutting off the normal flow of meat supplies to London butchers.

Tons of meat piled up around the big Smithfield Market, center of London's meat distribution network. Butchers converted in fleets of private cars but could carry only a trickle of their normal supply.

The Transport and General Workers Union said the strike was unofficial.

Market Inches to New Highs

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market inched forward into new high ground for 1958 early today. Trading was fairly active.

Gains of most key stocks were fractional. A number were unchanged and there were a few minus signs.

Oils, aircrafts, steels and some leading rails moved ahead, but there was no outstanding group activity. The market was a bit higher at the opening as a succession of good-sized blocks was traded. Some issues improved their gains in later dealings.

Over-all the weekend news was encouraging. The statement by Commerce Secretary Weeks that the economic recession had reached its lowest point was one factor. Debate over a possible tax cut was heightened by the report of the Rockefeller Bros. Fund advocating a major reduction.

Gulf Oil's rise of around a point was about the widest in early dealings of leading stocks. Royal Dutch, Standard Oil (New Jersey) and Texas Co. rose fractionally.

State Austerity Budget Rammed Through House

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's lawmakers took up their hometown chores again today after setting a course of rigid economy for the state.

★ ★ ★

Fighting Democratic opposition every step of the way, the Republican majority in the Legislature Saturday night rammed through a 332 million dollar austerity budget for 1958-59. The new spending program slashed nine million dollars from the current budget and 17 million from what Gov. Williams had asked.

Investigate Tax Embezzlement

Revenue Service Says $30,000 to $50,000 Missing in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — An investigation into alleged embezzlement of funds at the Detroit office of the Internal Revenue Service has been disclosed by a government tax inspector.

Raphael Nixon, an inspector in the agency's midwest office at Chicago, said yesterday the probe is centered on Stanley J. Mardeusz, 48, who was suspended in November and later fired.

No charges have been filed and the U. S. Attorney's Office here has declined comment.

Various published reports have placed the alleged embezzlement at from $30,000 to $50,000. Nixon declined to estimate the amount involved.

Mardeusz, father of 11 children, had been a collector since 1942. Nixon said Mardeusz' duties involved collection of delinquent taxes from several hundred accounts.

The inspector said the investigation is being conducted by the service and the FBI.

★ ★ ★

Nixon said findings in the probe would be turned over to the U. S. Attorney's Office here for possible Grand Jury action. He said the alleged discrepancies in the accounts were discovered in a routine check of office records.

Find Missing Man Alive on Island

BERKLEY (AP)—A Berkley fisherman, missing 21 hours after setting out on Lake St. Clair in an outboard motorboat, was found today by an Air Force helicopter on a small island about six miles off Metropolitan Beach.

Charles L. French, 43, of 3551 Tyler, said he spent the night in a cottage after his outboard hit a shallow reef. He waded ashore, built a fire in a cottage owned by Howard Hodgin of Detroit and slept there, he said.

French attracted the attention of the Selfridge Air Force Base helicopter by flashing rays of sun off a mirror he located in the cottage.

He was reported missing after his car and boat trailer were found at Metropolitan Beach between Detroit and Mount Clemens.

Cohen to Cite 5th Amendment in Testimony

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Local Teamster leader Raymond P. Cohen swears he will stay silent except to cite the Fifth Amendment when he returns to Washington tomorrow to resume testifying before the Senate Rackets Committee.

He shouted this promise yesterday over the welcoming roar of 2,500 teamsters of Local 107 in a Philadelphia hall. Cohen is secretary-treasurer of the local.

Union members and their wives carried Cohen on their shoulders from his automobile into the meeting hall. Over the doorway to the hall hung a dummy. It wore a sign reading: "John J. McClellan. We vote for who we want. This is not Little Rock."

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) is chairman of the Senate committee probing the alleged mishandling of union funds by Cohen and others.

Says U.S. Cars Too Big, Flashy

Dutch News Editor to Voice Opinion in Talk to Industry Leaders

DETROIT (AP) — A Dutch newspaper editor says American cars are too big and flashy—and he plans to tell leaders of the U.S. auto industry as much at a dinner here tonight.

"I plan to make a speech about the silly size of the new American cars," said J. M. Lucker, editor of the Amsterdam de Volkskrant, one of 50 foreign newsmen who will be guests at a banquet given by General Motors, Ford, Chrysler and American Motors.

The newsmen, representing 15 countries, visited the Plymouth assembly plant and the GM technical center today as part of a two-day tour of Detroit's auto industry. They went through the Ford plant in River Rouge yesterday.

"The group is visiting major American cities before returning home after a conference of the International Press Institute in Washington, D.C.

Space Vastness Hard to Imagine

WASHINGTON (INS)—4,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 miles! Nope, the typewriter didn't slip. Nor is that the size of the federal debt—yet.

That figure, 4,000 billion miles, comprises the distance from the earth of man's known frontier of the universe. It was given in an article of the official journal of the U.S. Air Force to tell airmen about "the wide new yonder" or what is outer space."

It was reported that scientists, working with the 48-inch lensed Schmidt telescope at Palomar, Calif., were able to capture photographs of heavenly bodies in environments as distant as a million light years. It then asked:

"Did someone mention anything about travel to 'outer space?' "

"It may be incomprehensible to most imaginations, but the Schmidt scope photographed celestial bodies so faintly luminous that the beams of light which carried their images had been in transit earthward for multithousands of centuries before the first primitive man walked our planet in the old stone age a mere million years ago."

Space, it was explained, "is an amazingly elastic word."

The article suggested, in effect, that it might become necessary to partition it, such as early U.S. frontiersmen referred to our own "West" as the Far West, the Pacific Northwest, the Southwest and Midwest. Thus definition of space may have to be broken up into different designations.

The apogee (highest orbital altitude) reached by man-made satellites has been only approximately 2,500 miles to date.

The magazine article concluded:

"So the initial question recurs: How outer can outer space be? A somewhat similar query put put to Dr. Wehrner Von Braun after our first satellite, Explorer, had orbited . . .

"Dr. Von Braun pondered his reply a moment in mock solemnity. 'Space is a pretty big place,' Dr. Von Braun said cautiously, then added with a ghost of a smile: 'Even bigger than Texas'."

Presents Skits in Intermissions

Humorous Emcee Job May Be Beginning of Television Trend

By JOHN BARROW

CHICAGO (INS) — Mustached Jerry Colonna of "Road to Mandalay" vocal fame is turning his zany talents to a television job which may become a trend.

Late movie viewers see the veteran movie comic perform live skits "between acts" of films over Chicago's WBBM-TV. Colonna's bosses feel Jerry is pioneering "television's answer to the disk jockey."

He provides a master of ceremonies touch for the Robert Taylor or Myrna Loy movie being televised. And for each show, Colonna tailors a "Colonna" routine springing from a comedy gift polished through vaudeville, radio, 30 motion pictures and almost endless tours with the Bob Hope troupe.

Adding zip—instead of drag—to the late movie takes a master's touch. Popping his eyes, Professor Colonna said:

"In short, be short. A minute and a half is the absolute longest I should be on at any spot."

★ ★ ★

Worldwide service camp tours since the wartorn 1940s have made the 53-year-old Colonna a movie star probably seen by thousands more persons in the flesh than in the movies. Pointing to last Christmas' appearances in the Far East, Colonna quipped:

"Hope says, 'Let's go to Seoul.' I say, 'Okay.' So there we are in Seoul."

HIS TRADEMARK

Possibly the only audiences to see Colonna without his famed mustache were vaudeville fans who caught his song-and-dance acts with two brothers back home in Boston at the age of 10.

"I wanted a mustache ever since I saw my grandfather's—jet black curving gently upward to points with a span of 10 inches," Jerry said. "I'll never be caught without mine."

Before the "On the Road to —" classics with Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour, Colonna made his film debut warbling "Singing in the Rain" and playing a trombone, a skill which he had expected to keep him in coffee and cakes the rest of his life.

"But in the middle of the number," he says, "the trumpets beside me began spouting water. That's the way it's been ever since.

★ ★ ★

"I thought last winter I'd get to do something 'different' — a dramatic television show with Dane Clark. Then the man explained the part: 'You're a playboy and at this party you give Clark a hot foot - - -'

"'But that's Colonna, isn't it?' I asked. 'Yeah,' the guy says, 'but don't play it like Colonna.'"

Fine With Wild Cats, but Monkey Revolts

BY EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Clyde Beatty came up to our apartment the other day—fresh from his lions and tigers — and I suggested that he train our one-pound money, "Scratchy."

WILSON

"I don't know," said Clyde. "Those little guys have to get used to you. You'll have a lot of fun with him—for a while."

Scratchy's been mischevious lately. He pulls guest towels down on the floor, swings on draperies, tear up whole packs of cigarets, hops up on the kitchen table—and I saw him rip open a box of marshmallows, eat one and throw the rest on the floor.

In a few minutes we brought Scratchy in to the living room to meet Clyde—but Scratchy didn't desire an introduction. He began chattering excitedly and pulled away. He nipped the wife, who was holding him, on the arm. The head monkey-trainer took him back to his cage before he could wreck the place.

"I finally met my match in a living room," grinned Clyde. "Maybe I could do better with Cookie."

Our Schnauzer succumbed to Clyde's blandishments and stood up—when he held out a piece of chocolate for her.

Harriman Cites Danger in Dip

Sees Reds Benefiting From U.S. Recession if Action Fails

WASHINGTON (AP) — The recession is endangering the United States' position in its struggle with Kremlin-led communism, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York said today.

If the government fails to act vigorously, Harriman added, it will be playing directly into the Kremlin's hands.

In testimony prepared for a House Banking and Currency Committee hearing, Harriman, a Democrat, put the blame for the nation's current economic condition squarely on the Republican national administration.

"This recession," he said, "was not necessary at least to the extent it has developed. It has been brought on by ill-advised policies, and inaction on the part of the administration has permitted it to deepen."

Harriman added: "For our future security, the administration must recognize its responsibilities."

★ ★ ★

The House committee chairman Rep. Spence (D-Ky), said in a prehearing statement that Congress must act immediately to help counter the business slump.

Spence's committee is holding a series of hearings on unemployment and other phases of the recession.

Spence predicted passage of his bill to provide a two-billion-dollar federal loan program for local public works.

Harriman, onetime secretary of commerce and ambassador to Russia, said that if the recession worsens, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the economy of the free world will be weakened.

★ ★ ★

Among the "tools" at hand which he said should be used, Harriman included relaxing tight money further by having the Federal Reserve Board purchase several million dollars worth of government bonds; speeding a large and diversified program of public works; and providing emergency tax relief, particularly to those in the low and middle-income groups.

★ ★ ★

Twins in Texas Celebrate 100th Birthday Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—This was a double red letter day for two lively sisters who boast a possibly unique distinction — they're 100th birthday and San Jacinto Day, the legal holiday marking the anniversary of the battle which won Texas independence.

★ ★ ★

For Mrs. Inez Ruiz and Mrs. Inecita Barrera, it's both their Day, the legal holiday marking

The sprightly twins were born April 21, 1858, at San Diego, Tex., about 240 miles south of here.

Their formulas for a long and healthy life?

Mrs. Barrera recommends relaxation and a daily diet of fried chicken, a glass of milk and bacon and eggs.

"I like to gamble with cards," she adds with a twinkle.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ruiz prescribes a daily bottle of beer with meals of meat and corn tortillas.

Mrs. Barrera, who made her living as a laundress after her husband died 28 years ago, lives with a daughter, one of her four children.

Mrs. Ruiz, mother of 14 children, makes her home across town.

FBI Arrests Spy Suspect

Charges Said Related to Soble Soviet Ring Case in 1957

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI announced today the arrest in Boston of Mark Zborowski, 50, on a perjury charge related to the Jack Soble Soviet spy ring case.

The FBI said the arrest grew out of testimony before a federal grand jury. The announcement did not disclose what the witness had said.

In that connection, the FBI said:

"The involvement of Zborowski with the Sobles is another development in the FBI's scrutiny of the clandestine activities of Vassili Zubilin, who reportedly once was a general in the NKVD (Russian secret police.)

★ ★ ★

"Soble, his wife Myra Soble, together with Jacob Albam, were arrested by FBI agents in New York City Jan. 25, 1957, on charges of conspiracy to commit espionage as members of a Soviet espionage ring. All three pleaded guilty and have been sentenced."

The arrest was made at Zborowski's home in suburban Brookline.

The FBI said Zborowski is Russian-born and has been a naturalized citizen since 1947. He came to the United States in 1941.

Radiation Negligible, Canada Concludes

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian Health Department concludes that nuclear explosions in the past year have not caused any appreciable increase in the level of longterm radioactivity in Canada.

Dr. E. A. Watkinson, a principal medical officer of the Health Department, said in an interview that radiation exposure from nuclear fallout still is only a small fraction of the radiation to which man has always been subjected from a variety of natural sources.

He added that radiation levels in Canada generally conform to those in the United States and Britain.

Too Much Royalty?

Baudouin's Ball a Bust

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Bachelor King Baudouin's first royal ball turned out to be more like a royal bust for the host. There were just too many people.

The 27-year-old monarch invited 11 princesses from all over Europe — some said he was hunting for a wife — but if he tried to get any of them off in a corner he probably would have been crowded out by some of his 6,000 guests.

The Belgian court hadn't given a ball for 24 years and in general the King has maintained a reserved distance between himself and his subjects during seven years on the throne.

He finally threw a party during the weekend to celebrate the opening of the 1958 Brussels World's Fair.

Decked out in the latest fashions, the guests stood on brocaded chairs, shoved and pushed each other to get a look at Baudouin and charged after him when he went for a snack at the buffet. One young girl fainted, and some of the ladies' long gowns were stepped on and torn.

Finally the King exercised his royal privilege, gathered up a handful of princes and princesses, archdukes and archduchesses, and swept into a second ballroom.

The party finally broke up at 3 a.m.

Cuba has a big oil drilling program in Orients, Pinar del Rio and Las Villas.

Monaco Festive for Baptism of Its New Heir

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP) — This tiny Riviera principality, which never passes up an opportunity to celebrate, threw a party again yesterday for the baptism of tiny Prince Albert Alexandre Louis Pierre.

The 37-day-old heir to the throne wore the same white lace dress in which his father Prince Rainier was baptized in 1922. The cathedral was packed for the ceremony.

Monegasques hauled up the flags of France and Monaco as well as the American flag in honor of the tiny prince's mother, the former Grace Kelly of the movies.

A palace guard released 2,000 pigeons, then the 5,000 persons left the palace square for a bullfight, nautical events, champagne and fireworks.

Prince Rainier freed the lone prisoner in the Monaco jail and canceled all fines since March 14, the day of his son's birth.

Two Cleric-Novices Die of Electrocution

CINCINNATI (AP) — Valery Lonteen, 19, of Albion, Mich., and a fellow student at a Roman Catholic Franciscan Friary near here were electrocuted by current from a 2,300-volt power line Saturday.

The other victim was Barrian Braunstein, 19, of Cincinnati. Two others suffered burns. All were cleric-novices at the St. Anthony Friary and Novitiate and would have taken temporary vows in the order next August.

Police said the youths were pushing a wood and metal basketball backboard across a field when it touched overhead wires supplying power to the Friary.

Lonteen was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Lonteen of Albion. He entered the Friary last August.

Unknown Sum Taken in Cleaners Robbery

The Huron Cleaners, 944 W. Huron St., Waterford Township, was broken into last night and an undetermined amount of cash was taken from the cigarette machine, according to Waterford Township Police.

★ ★ ★

Police report that an unsuccessful attempt was made to open a safe. Entrance was gained through an already broken window.

AP Directors Believe Facts Must Be First

NEW YORK (AP) — The government and press, radio and television have a duty to report the facts—unfavorable as well as favorable—directors of The Associated Press said today.

They cited the business recession and failure of the first Vanguard satellite missile as examples of unfavorable news that should not be suppressed.

"It would be a disservice to emphasize bad news out of proportion, but it would be unthinkable to attempt to suppress news viets of any kind," the directors said in their annual report.

"Nothing could be better calculated to destroy public confidence quickly and completely."

The report, read at the AP annual membership meeting in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, said, "The strength of democracy lies in an informed people."

The directors noted that the launching of two Soviet Sputniks was followed by a clamor for the United States to match the Soviets.

"With much advance notice and full news coverage, the attempt was made in December to launch the Vanguard—and it failed," the directors said.

"Both the armed services and the news media were blamed by some critics for creating a spectacle of the failure and injuring the United States in the eyes of the world. We believe this criticism shortsighted.

"A totalitarian government can release only the good news and hide its failures. In a free country, it is the duty of the government (in this case the armed services) and press, radio and television, to report the facts, good and bad."

Of the reporting of the business recession, the directors' report said: "As increased unemployment, slackening business and other factors added up to a recession, some individuals suggested seriously that news media had accelerated (or even caused) the able facts.

"Here again the function of a free press in a free country is misunderstood."

The directors said, "Associated Press coverage has provided what the public has a right to expect—thorough, fair and factual reporting."

As an example, they cited a series of articles last month on business conditions around the country, assembled from information gathered by AP domestic bureaus.

"This series reported evidences of downturns but some bright spots," the directors said.

"It was more widely published than any daily series in more than two years. The Associated Press did not undertake to prove anything; it merely reported what its staff and members found and what they were told."

Young Sisters Are Stranded

Parents Moved, Not Knowing They Were Due in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—For two young sisters the bus trip from Georgia to Baltimore was long and hard. But they didn't mind because they were finally going to rejoin their family.

Diane Nettles, 12 and sister Imogene, 10, got off a bus yesterday a little nervous about being in a big city. They looked around eagerly for their parents and five brothers and sisters. Then they waited . . . and waited.

Finally the girls went to the address where they knew their family had been living. They discovered that the telegram they sent a few days earlier had been delivered but never opened.

Their parents and brothers and sisters had moved away three days before the telegram arrived and had left no forwarding address.

There was one bright note in an otherwise dismal picture: the woman who had taken the Nettles family in several weeks ago made room last night for Diane and Imogene.

The woman, Mrs. Ruth Kondilas, said her brother, a taxicab driver, had brought John Nettles, his wife and five youngest children to her house last February after he had been unable to find a house or apartment for them.

Nettles, a merchant seaman, said he had left his two oldest children in Georgia. He said he would look around Baltimore for a permanent place to live.

Two heavy snowstorms and a lack of jobs for seamen kept the family from moving until last week.

New Baby Compounds Problem for Family

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When Nancy Kay Perkins came into the world she didn't know it, but she compounded a birthday problem for her family.

Mrs. Kenneth Perkins, 30, already had two boys, Gary, 8, and David, 5 — both born April 20.

Mrs. Perkins says the boys have battles at birthday time over how many boys of each age group to invite to their party. Now, there'll be a little girl in the act before long.
