Crackdown on Drivers Proposed by Governor

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Romney yesterday proposed a "get tough" program on drivers as part of a special message on traffic safety sent to the Legislature.

Driver education would be required for all new motorists — regardless of age — under the Romney safety program.

The secretary of state would be empowered to take corrective action against drivers involved in serious accidents or convicted of major traffic offenses, regardless of their point total.

Romney also backed implied consent legislation. This would hold that a motorist, in accepting a license, gives his consent to chemical tests for alcohol in cases involving drinking and driving.

★ ★ ★

Strengthening of the motorcycle law was advocated. This would include road tests for license applicants and a one-year probationary period for new motorcycle drivers.

COMPULSORY INSPECTION

Compulsory motor vehicle inspection is included in the governor's safety package.

"The automobile industry is being required by law to install more and more safety devices," Romney said. "Is it unfair to ask that the owner, by law, be required to maintain these safety devices in top operating condition?"

The governor noted that Michigan's traffic death toll last year hit a new high of 2,270. Delayed death reports may send the fatality figure still higher.

He estimated the total economic loss to Michigan from highway deaths, injuries and accidents at $410 million.

★ ★ ★

His program, Romney said, is planned to meet more rigid traffic safety standards, soon to be set by the federal government.

Romney's other recommendations in the field of traffic safety included:

- Regulation of commercial driving schools.
- Centralization of all driver licensing activities in the secretary of state's office.
- Acceleration of the State Police information network.
- Authorization for Michigan to join other states in a driver license compact for information exchange purposes.
- Legislation to make the State Police director the state highway safety coordinator to help Michigan meet federal safety standards.

Citizens Group Asks Taubman Plan Probe

By DAVID J. COOK

The immediate fate of the Taubman Plan for downtown redevelopment apparently lies in the hands of federal officials today following a stiff formal protest filed last night with the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

A detailed, 36-page document prepared by the Citizens Committee for Pontiac's Positive Progress (CCPPP) demands "an immediate thorough investigation" of the Taubman Plan; blocking of any disposal of urban renewal lands pending an inquiry; and "sustained surveillance" of future city redevelopment efforts.

A subsequent motion by District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin that the Taubman agreement be terminated died for lack of a second.

District 4 Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson then questioned CCPPP chairman Donald R. Frayer about any downtown solution Frayer had:

Frayer said they had nothing to offer at this time.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. remained firm, however, in his belief that the agreement reached between the city and A. Alfred Taubman last September is "valid and entirely legal."

"I don't think we have complied yet, either, with urban renewal regulations," he said, "but we had to get a good developer.

★ ★ ★

"And at our conference in Chicago, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) said there was nothing wrong with our proposal."

'SERIOUS PROBLEMS'

According to the protest read by Frayer, however, "many varied and serious problems" are presented by the city's agreement with Taubman.

The essence of the Taubman agreement is the granting to Taubman of an option to purchase downtown urban renewal property; an effort by Taubman to obtain lease commitments from at least two major firms; following that, purchase of the lands by Taubman and development by the city of adequate parking facilities.

Most preconceptions of the development have envisioned a mall-type shopping center straddling what is now Auburn Avenue between East and West Wide Track.

The CCPPP allegations include:

- Granting of an exclusive option to the developer, contrary to HUD regulations;
- "Designating for commercial use lands now planned for housing"; and,
- "Failure to (provide) for adequate parking."

MAY SEEK INJUNCTION

In support of the objections, Frayer said his group may seek a Circuit Court injunction against the Taubman Plan, but, he said, he "would prefer" to pursue the matter with HUD officials.

It was from the HUD office in Chicago that an order came last week "not to proceed" further with redevelopment plans.

CONVOY VEHICLE HIT — Lt. James R. Nabor of Tupelo, Miss., turns a fire extinguisher on flames in an armored personnel carrier destroyed by a Vietcong mine in War Zone C of Vietnam as supplies were moved up to the front in Operation Junction City. Reagan Bidding to Build Image

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan bids for more national political exposure today, determined to keep Michigan Gov. George Romney or anyone else out of California's 1968 Republican presidential primary.

REAGAN

The freshman GOP governor told newsmen yesterday he intends to enter the June primary himself, as a favorite son presidential candidate but not as an outright contender for the presidency.

He said he preferred that Romney and other potential contenders stay out of his state.

Reagan's goal: Party unity and to assure the nation's most populous state a policy-making voice at next year's national convention.

Reagan made the statement as he began preparing for some well-publicized political events in Washington, including a fund-raising dinner tonight at which Romney also will speak.

BACK TO WASHINGTON

Next week Reagan flies to Washington again for a speech at the Gridiron Club dinner and meetings with congressmen, he'll share the gridiron platform with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

California Republicans apparently were trying to avoid a repeat of the 1964 California primary brawl between New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and former U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"There wouldn't be any point in being a favorite son if the primary was going to result in factionalism and the danger of a split," Reagan said. He said he hadn't personally asked Romney forces to keep their man out.

City Code Revised on Deserted Cars

Abandoned automobiles are the target of an amended city ordinance passed last night by the City Commission.

The amendment, to take effect March 10, cites any person who "shall cause or permit" a vehicle to park or stand continuously for 48 hours to be guilty of abandoning the vehicle.

New language specifying responsibility of the owner was added to the ordinance by City Attorney Philip E. Rowston after Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum indicated the previous statute was unenforceable.

Police procedure for abandoned cars is to tag an automobile left on a street and cite the owner if the vehicle is not moved within 48 hours.

★ ★ ★

Captive Red: Cong Morale Low

PHUOC THANH, South Vietnam (AP) — A North Vietnamese lieutenant captured by Korean troops said today the failure of the lunar new year truce to produce peace negotiations has put "Vietcong morale at an all-time low."

★ ★ ★

"Night and day the Vietcong long for peace," said Lt. Truong Hiep, a platoon leader with the 3rd Company, 85th "Independence" Battalion, a Vietcong main-force element. "They had high hopes for negotiation. Now they know they cannot win without direct help from Russia or Red China," he said.

The lieutenant was interviewed through an interpreter at the wire-enclosed stockade of the Korean Tiger Division here in the central highlands, 290 miles northeast of Saigon. A Korean private captured him this week with a karate blow. The lieutenant was attempting to fire his German Walther pistol at a Korean patrol that surprised him as he was returning to duty from a Vietcong hospital hidden in the mountains.

A North Vietnamese regular, Truong infiltrated from Hanoi a year ago and was assigned as a special cadre to work with Vietcong main-force troops in Phu Yen Province, which actually was his home. Like many other idealistic young Communists, he went north during the 1954 armistice that followed the Geneva agreements and rose through the ranks of the North Vietnamese army.

★ ★ ★

The lieutenant said as a cadre officer he had been told to indoctrinate his troops with the idea that a truce would soon come about with a coalition government of Vietcong and South Vietnamese representatives ruling the country, following the immediate withdrawal of all American and other foreign troops.

GUARDED OFFICIALS

Truong's special job was guarding provincial officials of the Vietcong shadow government operating in the tactical area being swept by Korean troops. He was badly scalded in January while trying to boil water in an ammunition box and was taken to a Vietcong dispensary deep in the mountains. The hospital once had consisted of four buildings, but because of air strikes had been reduced to a single hut staffed by one doctor, two medics and a nurse.

Beautiful 'Toy' Gone With Boy

BASEL, Switzerland (UPI) — There it stood. The most beautiful toy in the world, a gleaming silver-bronze model of a crane, 3-½ feet high.

There also was a boy, about 9, and about 3½ feet high himself. The temptation proved too great and he picked it up and ran out the door before startled workers could catch him.

Police said the model on display at a construction machines exhibition was valued at $4,500. It was equipped with three electric motors and had been made by one of Switzerland's leading manufacturers.

The theft occurred yesterday while workmen cleaning up after the exhibition closed were taking a lunch break. The boy snatched the 20-pound model and ran like the wind.

Police said today they were looking for him.

Mercury Rising Across State

Pontiac area residents received a happy greeting this morning from the U.S. Weather Bureau which promised sunny and warmer weather throughout the state.

★ ★ ★

And the Michigan Automobile Club and State Highway Commission made life even brighter as they reported good driving conditions throughout the state, except for a few scattered slippery spots.

During the night the state shivered in below and near zero temperatures. In downtown Pontiac the low hit 3 above at 7:30 a.m. today.

★ ★ ★

The warming trend will continue through tomorrow. Temperatures may turn a little colder over the weekend. The high is expected to approach 40 tomorrow. The mercury climbed to 26 by 2 p.m.

Pontiac Press Sponsors Tour of Spain, Portugal

Plans for a 15-day conducted tour of Spain and Portugal the latter part of May were announced today by The Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

The scenic May 16-31 tour will be another in a series of expeditions arranged by The Press as a service to its readers.

Cost of the European trip is $765.

Plans call for an American Airlines flight from Detroit to New York May 16 where connections will be made for a TWA flight to Lisbon, the capital of Portugal. Arrival in Lisbon is slated for early May 17.

★ ★ ★

A three-day stay in Lisbon is scheduled. The time there will be divided between sight-seeing jaunts and leisure periods.

MOVE TO SEVILLE

Then, it will be on to Seville for two days of sight-seeing followed by two days of leisure at Marbella.

The next stop will be historic Granada and then the Pontiac-area tourists will travel to Madrid, the final stop before returning home.

Sight-seeing attractions in Madrid will include the Puerta del Sol, Carrera de San Jeronimo, the Palace of Cortes, the Prado Museum, Cibeles Square and the Palace of Justice.

While based in Madrid for four days, the tourists will depart for a full-day excursion by motorcoach to Toledo on the second last day of the tour.

The final day in Madrid will call for a morning of leisure before going to the airport for departure in the afternoon for the U.S.A.

Tourists will arrive home late that evening, May 31.

Fate of Four Dogs Uncertain

By JIM LONG

The fate of four dogs that attacked and viciously mauled an Independence Township boy Saturday is uncertain.

★ ★ ★

Donald Sheridan, chief warden at the Oakland County Animal Shelter, said that no decision has been made to destroy the animals.

This decision would be up to the owner, according to Sheridan, or based on a court order declaring that the dogs were vicious.

Three of the dogs are owned by Clyde Bierwirth, 75, of 4600 Indianwood, Independence Township. The other is a stray taken in by Bierwirth a week before the attack.

★ ★ ★

The dogs have been kept under observation since they mauled Peter Kohnen III, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kohnen, next door neighbors to the Bierwirths.

APPEAR NORMAL

The reason for the attack remains a mystery.

Officials at the animal shelter said the dogs appear to be completely normal. They noted, however, that often the wildest of dogs become docile when caged.

There is no indication so far that the dogs have rabies. They could be released Monday if the tests prove negative.

Licensing records show that Bierwirth's dogs were vaccinated for rabies a year ago, and that their licenses expired only a few days before the attack.

CONDITION IS SATISFACTORY

Since undergoing emergency surgery after being admitted to Pontiac General Hospital, Peter has improved to where his condition is listed as satisfactory.

He is allowed to sit in a wheelchair for short periods of time.

His lacerations, particularly those on the scalp, were so extensive that it was first believed that he might die.

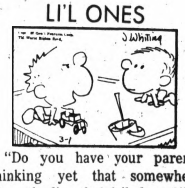
LI'L ONES



"Do you have your parents thinking yet that somewhere along the line they failed you?"

Educators Jam Capital; Romney Away

LANSING (AP) — Educators swarmed into Lansing today to demand more money for public schools, but Gov. George Romney was out of town.

Romney said last week that he regretted a previous commitment would take him to Washington today.

Michigan Democratic state chairman Zolton Ferency told newsmen Romney "may rue this day."

"This may very well be one of the issues shaping Romney's future," said Ferency, of Romney's all-but-declared GOP presidential nominee ambitions.

Romney was meeting in Washington with a Republican leadership group. He said earlier a conflict in dates prevented him from seeing the some 1,500 education leaders, teachers and parents gathered at Lansing.

"His absence in recent days and weeks could hurt Romney. He should be here today," said Ferency, who was badly trounced last November in an effort to upset the governor in his successful bid fo ra third term.

"Michigan's school system is teetering on the edge of disaster," Ferency said. "Romney's tax proposals and budget are doing nothing to keep it from going over the edge.

"Educators are told they must support his program. But if they support it they get nothing. If they don't, they are threatened with a 15 per cent cut." of Democrats in the Legislature cooperating to pass the Romney budget as it now stands.

"He might as well forget about it, unless he sits down and talks things over. His poor education budget is one of the things that has cut away public support for the so-called fiscal reform program."

The education group carried petitions signed by some 200,000 people asking for an increase in school budget funds. After a late morning meeting, they were headed toward the capital to buttonhole senators and representatives, and demand added school funds.

Groundhog Wise to Weather Wiles

When the local groundhog refused to get up for his annual interview with reporters, he knew what he was doing.

Either an advance report from the weatherman tipped him off or, psychically attuned to the whims of February, he was aware of the tricks on the meteorological agenda and figured that the best way out was to sleep, sleep, sleep.

Many area residents, tired of winter's wrath, agreed with him—sleep or a trip south were the only solutions to the shortest month of 1967.

Below zero temperatures, a snow accumulation of 12¼ inches plus six days of intermittent flurries punctuated the ten days of full sunshine.

★ ★ ★

Three of the bright sunny days were deceiving as temperatures plunged to the monthly lows of minus 8, Feb. 6; minus 8, Feb. 7; and minus 7, Feb. 8.

MONTH'S HIGH

A sweetheart of a day was the 14th when the month's high of 47 was recorded.

Rainfall during February totaled one-tenth of an inch.

Mean temperature of the month was 20.4 as compared to 23.3 last year.

19 Indicted in '64 Triple Rights Slaying

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — A Mississippi Ku Klux Klan leader has been added to the list of those the federal government contends were involved in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

★ ★ ★

Sam Bowers Jr., a Laurel coin machine distributor, was one of 19 men charged Tuesday on a federal conspiracy indictment.

★ ★ ★

Bowers, whom the FBI says is the imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan — the most violent and most clandestine of the various Klan groups — had not previously been named in the Philadelphia case.

★ ★ ★

He was, however, indicted last year in the Vernon Dahmer firebombing death at Hattiesburg.

TWO CASES

The federal grand jury which returned new indictments in the Philadelphia case also reconsidered the Dahmer case.

★ ★ ★

U.S. District Judge Harold Cox of Jackson said indictments were returned in the Dahmer case when the grand jury session ended at Jackson Monday. A federal source said these would be disclosed today at Hattiesburg.

★ ★ ★

Of the 18 arrested at Meridian in the Philadelphia case, 16 — including Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 43, and his chief deputy, Cecil Price, 28 — had been previously indicted on federal charges in connection with the slayings.

★ ★ ★

"He's showing real progress," said his father, the assistant principal at Lake Orion Junior High School.

'LONG WAY TO GO'

"He still has a long, long way to go," added Kohnen. "There will have to be plastic surgery."

Kohnen said Peter's morale has sparked up considerably since Monday.

"Yesterday, he received a large stack of letters and cards, many of them from people we don't know. These have really helped."

★ ★ ★

The dogs did not damage the boy's face or eyes, according to Kohnen.

NO EXPLANATION

Kohnen said that he was unable to explain the attack on his son, a second grader at Weber School in Clarkston.

"I've gone over this thing a million times in my mind, and can't come up with an answer," added Kohnen.

"Peter said that the dogs came over to play, but he doesn't remember anything after that."

★ ★ ★

"They've played with him every day since we moved there last April and there has never been any problem," said Kohnen.

BEHIND HOME

The attack took place behind the Kohnen's home, 4630 Indianwood, about 9:30 a.m. while Peter was shoveling snow to build a fortress.

The youngster was rescued by a neighbor, Paul Stephens, who lives across the road at 4651 Indianwood.

Stephens had to swing the butt end of a rifle to drive the dogs away.

★ ★ ★

Officials have dismissed the theory that it was the mating season and that Peter interferred. An examination showed that both of the female dogs had been spayed.

SCENT OF FEMALE

There is the possibility that the scent of a female dog in heat lingered on the boy's clothing, provoking the attack by the males.

A check of the neighborhood has turned up no such dog, according to Kohnen.

According to Mrs. Bierwirth, her husband would like one of the dogs returned, "but he won't do anything until he talks to Mr. Kohnen to see how he feels about it."

"The dogs have never caused any trouble," said Mrs. Bierwirth. "It must have been the stray. I understand it wouldn't let go when Mr. Stephens ran up.

★ ★ ★

Citizen Group Asks Probe of Taubman Plan

The order, directed to James L. Bates, city director of planning and urban renewal, was signed by Dean Swartzel, assistant regional administrator for renewal assistance.

★ ★ ★

BIGGEST TURNOUT OF '67

Presentation of the protest was made before the largest City Commission turnout of the year.

Upwards of 75 persons crowded the commission chambers, with members of the Frayer group and supporters of the University of Detroit plan prominent among the spectators.

★ ★ ★

Following a 10-minute introduction by Frayer of the protest aims, Irwin read a prepared statement on the document and then moved for "immediate termination" of the agreement.

★ ★ ★

The mayor asked twice for support for the motion, then gaveled the proposal dead as he and the remaining four commissioners sat silently.

COMMENTS ON MOTION

On vacation and absent from the meeting was District 7 Commissioner James H. Marshall.

Hudson offered comment after Irwin's motion, describing the city's agreement with Taubman as "a new approach — one that's never been tried before."

"If it (the approach) is wrong, then it has yet to be proven wrong," Hudson said.

★ ★ ★

Frayer conceded his group had "nothing" to presently offer in response to a challenge from Hudson.

★ ★ ★

"But," he said, "this protest is only 10 per cent of what we will offer constructively if given the chance."

Minister Quits Advisory Panel

City commissioners accepted with regret" last night a resignation from the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee (CIAC) and gave their approval to a new CIAC appointee.

Rev. William A. Teague cited "ill health" in submitting his resignation from the committee. A commission resolution commended Rev. Teague for his service to the committee.

Appointed to the committee was Delbert McLaughlin of 786 Owego. McLaughlin was named by District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin.

★ ★ ★

Formally accepted by commissioners was the resignation of City Attorney Rowston, who last Friday submitted a letter to that effect to Mayor William H. Taylor Jr.

★ ★ ★

A successor to Rowston, who will enter private practice April 1, has not yet been selected.

Kill Unborn Babies

Harmful Antibodies Identified

LOS ANGELES (AP) — New evidence that many mothers have substances in their blood that can kill or damage unborn babies was reported today by a medical research team.

★ ★ ★

The substances are a specific kind of antibodies — the tiny warriors the body produces to repeal invasion by foreign material.

★ ★ ★

Antibodies are helpful when they destroy disease-causing bacteria, but they also attack such things as skin grafts and transplanted kidneys.

★ ★ ★

A study completed by the University of California at Los Angeles Medical School of 271 women who had had two or more pregnancies showed more than half of them had antibodies capable of destroying tissues of the fetus.

HIGHER RATE

Women with the antibodies had a much higher rate of lost pregnancies or babies with congenital defects than those without antibodies, the school said in a report on the study by Drs. Paul Terasaki, Donna Vredevoe, James Yamasaki and M. R. Mickey.

★ ★ ★

These antibodies were not found in 16 women who had not been pregnant.

★ ★ ★

The researchers said a fetus is somewhat like a graft of foreign tissue and theoretically should be attacked by antibodies, but apparently the placenta is normally an effective barrier.

★ ★ ★

Sometimes, however, sloughed-off fetal cells do get through the placental filter, causing antibodies against them to be formed in the mother.

★ ★ ★

And just as fetal cells penetrate the placental barrier, so antibodies apparently get through to the fetus. The result could be death or damage to the unborn child.

What Lent Means to Me

OTIS LAWRENCE

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the 18th in a series of articles through Lent written by prominent Pontiac area citizens.)

By OTIS LAWRENCE
International Representative, UAW

During Lent, each Christian should practice penance, and mortification, and sacrifice enjoyment in his own way, as reparation for his sins.

The rituals of the church as carried out in their fullness, express the feelings with which the church wishes to inspire us, her children.

★ ★ ★

Penance and sorrow during the Lenten time reach a climax on Good Friday, when our Blessed Saviour suffered for our sins, and triumph and exultation follow on the glorious feat of our Lord's Resurrection because . . . "We know that Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more." (Rom. 6, 9).

Teachers to Lead Europe Trips

Two area schoolteachers will accompany student groups to Europe this summer for training programs. Both groups will study Spanish six weeks in Madrid and Lisbon.

Jacqueline A. Grycan, Spanish teacher at Groves High School, Birmingham, will lead one group and James R. Wolfe, Spanish and French teacher at Bloomfield Hills High School, the other.

Wolfe's wife, Kathleen, a teacher in Bloomfield Township, will also accompany the latter group.

The students will be part of a program of the Foreign Language League, a nonprofit, international school - affiliated group that supervises trips by some 5,000 students to 31 different European nations.

Both groups will fly from New York on July 11. Applicants are still being accepted.

BIRMINGHAM — Rolland F. Webber, of 160 Baldwin, a city representative on the county board of supervisors, has been named by Gov. Romney to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

He replaces Roy F. Goodspeed of Ferndale, whose term expired. Webber is serving on the county board of supervisors as a replacement for the late Luther Heacock.

Dwight Havens, president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, will be guest speaker at tomorrow's chamber of commerce executive breakfast.

It will be held 7:30 a.m. at the Community House auditorium.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — "Exploring the Arctic" is the first topic in the science series for 4th to 8th grades offered at Cranbrook Institute of Science, Lone Pine Road, starting 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

Color movies, demonstrations and use of museum materials will be in the program conducted by Martha Schaefer of the institute staff.

Future subjects will be heat, animals that fly and understanding the earth.

Program at OU Receives Funds

Approval of a federal grant of $80,746 for the Upward Bound program at Oakland University was announced today by Sen. Philip A. Hart.

Served by the grant will be 75 summer students and 50 others during the regular academic year.

Upward Bound is a program of the Office of Economic Opportunity funded directly by the OEO rather than through the local war on poverty agency.

Its intent is to provide an incentive for high school children of normal intelligence, but from poor families, to consider higher education.

Cultural enrichment experiences as well as professional counseling are two of the Upward Bound projects. Dr. Charles Morton conducts the program at OU.

A grant of $81,000 was allowed last year for a pilot Upward Bound program at the university.

OU Prof Calls Red China a Disturbed Adolescent

A view of Red China as an emotionally disturbed adolescent was put forth by an Oakland University professor last night as an explanation of the threat posed by that nation.

CLYDE B. SARGENT

"China is trying to find its place in a world new and strange, just as a teen-ager is doing," Dr. Clyde B. Sargent said. "Combined with this, China is intelligent, shrewd, calculating and capable."

Sargent, director of OU's area studies program, also described the Chinese as "hostile, bitter, tormented by hate, intoxicated by a sense of superiority and determined to 'right' injustices of the past by annihilating all that is incompatible with their values."

A former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency foreign area and language training program, Sargent has studied and worked in China.

★ ★ ★

His lecture at Oakland Center was sponsored by the Rochester Rotary Club. Approximately 150 persons attended.

PARANODIAL VIEW

"I believe that China is sick, sick, sick," he said. "I don't think she can be bludgeoned into health. Nor can she be blasted off the face of the earth. Nor, if left alone, will she just go away."

Sargent suggested that the Chinese view of the world is paranodial — that the Communist nation sees itself as being surrounded by a hostile, jealous world.

At the same time, China maintains its traditional idea of striving for a "one-world" concept with itself as the central, dominant force.

★ ★ ★

The Chinese have believed since ancient times that theirs is the "civilized" nation and that others should submit to Chinese paternalistic example, influence and superiority, Sargent said.

DOCTRINE

"China's traditional disdain and contempt and China's modern antiforeignism are two facets of China's own self-image of superiority," he said.

Communism provides for the Chinese both a doctrine that attracts wide support of the people and a system for concentrating human endeavor toward nation-building.

Unlike Americans, the Chinese calculate attainment of objectives in terms of decades rather than years, Sargent noted.

★ ★ ★

Therefore, China will not be able to carry out its intentions now or in the next five years.

"But, if we consider her potential in terms of 20 years, or 30 years, or 50 years, the negative must be much less certain," Sargent said.

Because China's paranodial tendencies may cause irrational moves, it is imperative that the U.S. devise strategies to restrain and redirect Chinese ambitions and energies, he said.

He commented the U.S. has no way of knowing China's industrial capabilities but that its potential for intellectual resources "vastly exceeds our own."

★ ★ ★

Continuing on its present plans, China could muster a military force of 100 million people in five years, including 50 to 60 million paramilitary Red Guardsmen, he said.

Getting China out of her self-imposed isolation should be one of the U.S., Sargent said.

Once the U.S. has come to understand China as a paranoid, it can attempt to direct her toward alternative methods of achieving stature in the world.

An attempt should be made, he said, to "convince China that the United States has no desire to impair the development of a healthy, peaceful China."

★ ★ ★

He suggested that the U.S. might better accomplish its goals through seduction rather than force.

Anticrime Parley

DETROIT (AP)—Mayor Jerome Cavanagh urged Tuesday that leaders in the fields of education, church work, business and labor attend a two-day anticrime conference in Cobo Hall March 10-11 to discuss ways of curtailing crime in Detroit.

Officials Fiddle, Head Starters Yearn

Project Head Start certainly isn't living up to its name locally. It should be called "Slow Start" or even "No Start."

The Oakland County Office of Economic Opportunity and the Pontiac board of education are locked in a power struggle which has effectively shelved the program designed to help economically - deprived youngsters prepare for schooling.

While the struggle continues, and it has been under way since last fall, some 320 youngsters fail to receive the benefits of this worthy program.

The board of education has made more than a half dozen attempts to get the show on the road. The OEO says "No" for a number of reasons. Currently the stumbling block seems to be just where the children would receive this benefit—what building, and where the building is located.

The project is not wholly funded by the federal government, and since the board of education puts up part of the cash, it feels it should have some say in its operation.

There may be merit in arguments of both sides, but the issue should be resolved before another batch of youngsters misses the opportunity to get a better start in life.

Some compromises have been made, but more will have to be considered if Pontiac is to get off dead center and get this project in operation. A meeting between the two factions and other interested parties in the near future may end the turmoil, we sincerely hope.

Let's put the interest of the children above other considerations.

A Non-Candidate Non-Campaigning

Powell Case Spotlights Government Nepotism

The nepotism practiced by Democratic ADAM CLAYTON POWELL in including his wife, who allegedly performed no duties, among his staff personnel again focuses attention on a question that periodically surfaces in Congress.

It is the tendency of many members of Congress to retain members of their families on their office payrolls at Government expense. In the new Congress, 41 members have relatives drawing Congressional salaries, some topping $20,000 a year.

There is nothing illegal about the lawmakers employing their kin to fill complements of office workers. In the House, office staffs number 10 or 11, while those of senators depend on the size of their states.

But nepotism on Capitol Hill goes beyond the question of legality. It impinges on the area of ethics. And on that ground, many think it is improper, leading frequently to favoritism and waste of taxpayers' money.

One who so thinks is Rep NEAL SMITH, D-Iowa, who for the fourth time has introduced a bill to prohibit hiring of relatives not only in the halls of Congress but anywhere within the Federal government.

While admittedly a sense of ethics is not ingrained by legislation, the Iowan's proposal, which we approve, would conclusively eliminate a practice that has little to recommend it.

Fall of Sukarno Seen Lift for Indonesia

Formal surrender of presidential authority over Indonesia by Gen. ACHMED SUKARNO brings to an end the 21-year span of dictatorial misrule he exercised over the island-chain republic.

Once a fiery patriot who liberated Indonesia from Dutch colonialism in 1945, SUKARNO as head of his country's government degenerated into an unprincipled tyrant and international playboy.

Sukarno's administrative ineptness and mercurial political policies brought Indonesia, rich in natural resources, to a state of bankruptcy aggravated by entrenched corruption within his regime.

In 1963, all semblance of Indonesian democracy vanished when the SUKARNO-dominated Congress voted him presidential tenure for life.

SUKARNO'S eclipse set in with the abortive Communist revolution in late 1965, which many thought he had fostered. The attempted coup was smashed by the Indonesian military headed by Gen. SUHARTO, who has continued as the country's de facto ruler. SUKARNO was stripped of executive power though permitted to retain the nominal title of president.

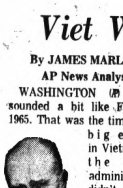
★ ★ ★

Though the 65-year-old firebrand is still idolized by a multitude of Indonesians as a symbol of national freedom, Sukarno's fall may well lead to the establishment of effective government in Indonesia and better days for its long-suffering and exploited people.

Viet War Tempo Is Mounting

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It sounded a bit like February 1965. That was the time of the big explosion in Vietnam but the Johnson administration didn't make a big thing of it at the time.



MARLOW

Now there can be no doubt this country is stepping up the war even more, but the Johnson administration is very restrained about saying so.

★ ★ ★

Two years ago this month, the United States really began to intensify the war against North Vietnam with bombing raids which have never stopped except for some brief holiday truces.

At that time, naval vessels — the north called them U.S. vessels, the U.S. embassy in Saigon said they were South Vietnamese ships — started shelling North Vietnamese shore installations 130 miles from Hanoi.

For weeks, the administration played all this in a rather low key, until it became apparent the war had entered a new phase and bombing had become routine.

★ ★ ★

At the time, the United States explained the bombing raids as retaliation for "provocations" from the north. An American airbase at Pleiku in South Vietnam had been shelled.

MINING RIVERS

Over the past weekend, U.S. Navy planes began mining the rivers of North Vietnam, long-range American guns began shelling the north, and the U.S. Navy began shelling the North Vietnamese coast.

But at his suddenly called news conference Monday, President Johnson — reminiscent of 1965 — didn't make these events sound momentous or the start of a new, stepped-up effort to force the north to the peace table.

Yet, despite all the soft-wording throughout his meeting with newsmen, he left little doubt the war has intensified to make the north start talking about how to end it.

Asked if the weekend actions were the start of a step-up, Johnson replied: "I would say there is some activity taking place that we would not say is normal through the past weeks."

UNDERSTATEMENT

This sounded like one of the understatements of the year. Johnson continued: "I think you could, if you searched, find some comparable action here and there, some similar actions.

"I wouldn't want to put my credibility in doubt by saying it never had happened before and then have somebody do a little research and find that on occasion something had happened that was at least comparable."

A little research showed the similarity to 1965.

You people just are not fair, comparing the cost of a postcard to the cost of a kilowat of electricity in your editorial. David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Thinking on N-Threat Jolted

WASHINGTON—Out of London comes a piece of news that reminds the world of its greatest danger—the possibility of a nuclear war that could destroy tens of millions of lives.

LAWRENCE

The American people and other peoples have heretofore been led to believe that progress was being made toward some sort of international agreement which would ban the use of nuclear weapons.

But as knowledgeable a public official as the defense secretary of Great Britain, Denis Healey, now says frankly that he fully expects, if war breaks out in Europe, to see Russia using nuclear weapons "from the word go."

This means, said the British secretary, that ground armies by themselves are no longer decisive and that the forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would be compelled to use nuclear weapons "within days of an attack."

Healey told the House of Commons that, since both East and West possess nuclear weapons, a long war in Europe would be difficult to imagine.

★ ★ ★

It has been assumed hitherto that no government would initiate a nuclear war. But even in the United States some military men have declared that, as between complete defeat and the possible employment of nuclear power to prevent the enemy from achieving a victory, the choice must be made finally to use nuclear weapons.

MISSILE DEFENSE

The Russians recently have been revealed as possessing what is known as an "anti-missile missile defense."

This means that the deterrent power which the United States for a long time has been counting on to prevent attack now may have been considerably weakened.

If the Soviets can intercept American missiles with missiles of their own, and the United States doesn't have a similar defense, America could suffer the loss of tens of millions of its citizens in a matter of hours.

A superiority in the nuclear field could mean an unparalleled power of blackmail.

★ ★ ★

On top of the fears that the oligarchy in Moscow might grow reckless and trigger a nuclear war, there is also the disturbing fact that the Red Chinese already have developed nuclear weapons.

AGAINST USE

World opinion is, of course, solidly against the use of nuclear weapons. Unfortunately, however, no way has been devised to prevail upon the tightly controlled Communist regime in the Soviet Union to agree to a disarmament pact.

Until the Russian people somehow are made aware of the catastrophe that may lie ahead, mutual trust will not be established and an effective system of international control will not be imposed. Hence, the threat of a nuclear war will continue to alarm people everywhere.

Bob Considine Says:

Der Stern Editor Gives His Side of Book Battle

NEW YORK — The editor of Der Stern, the popular West German magazine that balked at deletions and alterations demanded by the Kennedy family in the serialization of the Manchester book, gave his reasons in a recent editorial.

CONSIDINE

"In the last weeks I could only think of Jacqueline Kennedy with a little emotion," Nannen's editorial begins. "Not because of the very touching message in which she asked me to leave unwanted passages out of Manchester's manuscript. That may have been prepared for her by a clever lawyer and he had exaggerated a little the feelings of his employer.

"I belonged to a small dozen of newspapermen in Europe who have read the whole manuscript.

"Every morning, therefore, I found it remarkable to read in the world press the sensations which were presumably behind the demanded deletions. That was not only remarkable; it was at the same time touching.

"Remarkable, because the clumsiness with which Sen. Robert Kennedy handled this case corresponded not at all to the political style of this outstanding family.

"Did he really think he could manipulate all the quarrels between the Kennedy clan and Johnson supporters out of Manchester's writing — only so that Johnson would keep the president's chair warm for him for another four years?

"Was it really so terrible what was in Manchester's manuscript, and now at Jacqueline's wish, should not be printed? Did it touch her intimate life? However who could have refused a woman the wish not to see such passages published?

"But such changes! There was, for example, the wrinkle she discovered in her face—the first one. And that had to be extinguished for 'she found she looked tired.'

"As her secretary Mary Gallagher took out the contents of Jackie's purse — lipstick, comb, handkerchief, sunglasses and cigarettes — now Mrs. Kennedy wanted the cigarettes not to be mentioned, we were told.

"And where in her interview she needs a good hour before the mirror, now it has to read: 'She needed a long time before she got through with it all!

"Ridiculous? No, she is a woman, like others. Only an inhuman fate put her in a situation where she seems to believe she is not allowed to react humanly.

"And too human, too feminine, she wants to carry through and join her emotional objections with the ambitions of her brother-in-law.

"Nobody can blame me for opposing these mixed demands, even though I gladly have bowed for Mrs. Kennedy."

Mixed Up

The New York Times

President Johnson, mixing Humpty Dumpty with Vietnam, told a luncheon of farmers that: "We've reached a point where all the king's horses and all the king's men are not going to move us out of our position."

★ ★ ★

Unfortunately, United States policies toward Vietnam seem to be becoming as mixed up as Mr. Johnson's metaphor.

The publication of excerpts from Secretary of Defense McNamara's testimony before two Senate committees in January indicated that the bombing of North Vietnam is producing less than impressive results in halting Communist troop and supply movement.

★ ★ ★

In addition, he gave the Senators a version of American demands on Hanoi that differed from Secretary of State Rusk's.

Who speaks for the Administration? And how imperative is it to keep the bombing?

The advantages of the air attacks, according to Mr. McNamara, are to boost the morale of the South Vietnamese, to complicate the problems of infiltration and to raise the cost to North Vietnam.

These gains are more than offset by the lack of decisive military results and the political and moral losses in the eyes of the rest of the world.

President Johnson stands fast; Secretary McNamara has one version of our policy and Secretary Rusk another. Meanwhile, the war in Vietnam goes on.

The McNamara testimony strengthened the case for believing that there is little to lose by a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam. There is everything to lose by escalation.

Image Problem

The National Observer

Some top Republicans think that the political convention needs streamlining. The antics at those gatherings hurt the American image abroad, according to former President Eisenhower and others.

★ ★ ★

Certainly in the more advanced democratic countries the people must wonder why American politicians expose themselves to the helter-skelter of the convention hall.

Such a messy system; the voters get entirely too good a look at their statesmen in action, and that can spoil a lot of illusions.

This, of course, is the big worry among the leaders of both parties. Image is quite important to these fellows, but the problem is domestic, not foreign.

★ ★ ★

The convention can indeed be a bit of a bore for Americans; for many elsewhere, the convention may be nothing more than proof that politics needn't always be a grim exercise.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Most People Don't Drink Enough Water

BRANDSTADT

Q—Can a person drink too much water?

I was told to drink six to eight glasses of water a day while taking a prescription for sinus trouble. I did this and never felt better in my whole 27 years. My acne has cleared up, too.

A—A person can drink too much water.

One man, who drank a glass of water every five minutes in the belief that this would cure his constipation, had symptoms of water intoxication — agitated irrational behavior and convulsions—after two hours and had to be hospitalized.

Most people, however, don't drink enough water. Six to eight glasses a day is considered a bare minimal intake.

I'm glad your acne has cleared up but I can't be sure all the credit should go to the water.

* * *

Since it clears up in most persons in their early 20s, in your case this relief was overdue.

Q—Is it all right to drink water at meal times?

* * *

When you recommend so many glasses of water, do you mean six-ounce or eight-ounce glasses?

A—Since water leaves the stomach so quickly there is no reason not to drink it at meal time.

Much of the fluid a person takes at meal time may, however, may be consumed as tea or some other beverage.

A glass of water should be about eight ounces.

Q—I have heard that it is not good to drink soft water or use it in cooking. What harmful effect would it have?

Does bathing in soft water remove too much vitamin B and oil from the skin?

* * *

A—The idea that drinking soft water is harmful has been disproved.

Bathing will not remove any vitamins from the skin and the oils are removed by hot water and soap, not by the amount of mineral in the water.

Q—If a person drank distilled water all the time would it be harmful?

* * *

Is distilled water preferred for persons who have kidney trouble?

A—Distilled water would draw essential minerals, chiefly salt, from the tissues.

* * *

It is not recommended for any kind of kidney disease, even when the intake of salt in the diet must be restricted.

Firm Shelves Book by Bobby

Material Delay Laid to Jackie's Court Row

NEW YORK (AP) — The dispute between the Kennedy family and Harper & Row publishers over the book, "The Death of a President," apparently prompted Sen. Robert F. Kennedy to halt publication of a book containing the senator's major speeches, it was learned today.

An announcement of publication of the senator's book, "New Problems, New Proposals," appeared in Harper & Row's winter catalogue last November.

But Tuesday, Evan Thomas, vice president of Harper & Row, said the 150-year-old publishing house decided to drop the book from the winter schedule.

"The first indication that there would be a delay came last December when the senator failed to send us the introduction to the book," said Thomas. "We sent some inquiries to Washington, but received no reply."

'GOT A REPLY'

"He got a reply to everything he sent," a Kennedy aide said. "If he didn't, it was simply because the senator didn't have time. Some material was not furnished. It was not completely buttonholed."

Cass Canfield, chairman of the executive committee of Harper & Row, said that a few months ago, after part of the book already had been set in type, Kennedy suggested holding up publication for additional material.

★ ★ ★

"We both agreed to put in some more speeches," said Canfield.

The Kennedy aide said that to the best of his recollection, the decision to postpone publication of the book was made sometime in late October or early November 1966.

NO DISCUSSION

"There hasn't been any discussion since the postponement," the aide said.

Another source said the reason for the postponement was the anticipated controversy stirred up by author William Manchester's book, "The Death of a President," which Harper & Row is publishing in April after reaching an out-of-court settlement with Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

MULTIPURPOSE VEHICLE — Chevrolet's new TASC, a lightweight multipurpose military vehicle, is on display at the General Motors exhibit in Detroit. The vehicle climbs slopes, crosses ditches and swims streams. The exhibit runs through March 14 at the GM Building.

New Vehicle on Display

GM Exhibits Defense, Space Products

General Motors today opened an exhibit in Detroit showing the products and technical know-how its divisions are supplying to the nation's defense and space programs.

★ ★ ★

Items in the "GM in Defense and Space" exhibit in the General Motors Building range from ultra-high precision navigation systems being built for spacecraft and future military and commercial aircraft to a new "double-jointed" multipurpose military vehicle.

Sixteen of the GM divisions and staffs involved in the corporation's defense and space efforts are participating in the exhibit which will be open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday. The exhibit runs through March 14.

The opening marks the first time since February 1963 that GM has brought together its defense and space products in such a display.

★ ★ ★

Some of the highlights of the corporation's 1966 defense and space activities are:

● Allison Division began production of the M551 Gen. Sheridan armored reconnaissance airborne assault vehicle at the government-owned Army-Tank Automotive Plant in Cleveland.

● The design stage of the Main Battle Tank, a joint project of the U.S. and Germany, was completed and pilot models are now under construction by Allison.

● AC Electronics Division's guidance systems directed three successful space flights and the division also is developing a guidance system for intercontinental missiles with a capability of guiding and maneuvering a missile into space, through reentry and to its target.

● Allison received a development and production contract for the TF41 turbofan jet engine and a contract to develop a turbojet lift engine for use in a vertical rising aircraft. Both development programs are in cooperation with Rolls-Royce Ltd. of England.

GM SALES

GM's sales in the defense and space areas totaled $552 million in 1966.

Divisions and staffs represented in the GM Building display are AC Electronics, AC Spark Plug, Allison, Chevrolet, Delco Products, Delco Radio, Delco-Remy, Detroit Diesel, Euclid, GMC Truck & Coach, Harrison Radiator, Hydra-matic, New Departure-Hyatt Bearings, Saginaw Steering Gear, the Defense Research Laboratories of AC Electronics and the General Motors Research Laboratories.

U.S. Space Robot to Dig Trench on Moon

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A three-legged robot is scheduled to land on the moon in mid-April, unfurl an ungainly soil scoop and dig a narrow trench in the lunar surface.

Its excavating will be done under the watchful eye of a television camera to tell man on earth more about the land on the moon on which he hopes to walk within a few years.

The robot is Surveyor 3 and the surface sampler is the first of its type to be carried on a moon-landing spacecraft.

Russia's Luna 13 which landed on the moon's Ocean of Storms Christmas Eve was equipped with a mechanical plunger to test the firmness and density of the lunar surface.

★ ★ ★

America's Surveyor 3 will use a scoop and claw device mounted on a folding arm that will reach out and dig into the lunar soil to give scientists more clues to its makeup and its ability to support manned spaceships.

MAY DIG HOLE

The surface sampler, which replaces a landing approach camera that was carried but not used on the first Surveyor mission, will be able to dig a hole about 18 inches deep if the moon dirt is not too hard.

The 2-inch wide scoop, mounted on an expanding arm with a 64-inch reach, is equipped with a door like that used by power shovels on earth and should be able to pick up a scoopful of soil and release it in a different area.

Although definite plans have yet to be made, officials said the digger might also be raised above the moon's surface and then dropped to see how much of a dent it made. There also is the possibility it might be used to attempt to break rocks on the moon.

★ ★ ★

The device will not be instrumented and all of its results will come from pictures taken by the spacecraft's television camera. The camera is capable of spotting nearby objects the size of a sand grain.

Present plans call for the camera to take a detailed look at the area before the experiment begins. Then the digger will be unfolded and it will penetrate different areas of the surface with varying forces.

School Board to Open Bids

The Waterford Township Board of Education is slated to open bids tomorrow night for construction projects at two elementary schools, Stringham and Waterford Village.

The projects are estimated to cost a combined $572,000.

Earmarked for both schools are gymnasium-multipurpose room complexes, remodeling and other alterations.

Final architectural plans for construction projects at Adams and Donelson elementary schools also will be reviewed at the 7:30 p.m. meeting.

★ ★ ★

Budgeted for construction costs are $197,500 for Adams and $153,500 for Donelson.

Both schools will be provided with library-instructional materials centers and new classrooms. Adams also will get a gymnasium - multipurpose room complex.

Nursing Home Operators Irate

Resent State Request for Data on Finances

LANSING (AP) — Operators of Michigan's private nursing homes are up in arms over a state request for financial information which they feel is none of the state's business.

A spokesman says it's possible the operators will pull out of the state's Medicaid program rather than provide the data.

★ ★ ★

"This is a perfectly reasonable request," said Bernard R. Houston, director of the State Department of Social Services, which administers Medicaid.

"It's none of their business. This is un - American," said Carl Tuggle, executive director of the Michigan Nursing Homes Association.

REQUEST RESENTED

Tuggle said the nursing home owners resent the department's request for financial data and its decision that homes which do not provide it will be paid $8.50 per Medicaid patient per day.

The owners themselves have proposed a complex formula under which compensation would range from $10 to $14.68 and would average $12.59, Tuggle said.

Owners received the requests for data over the weekend. Houston said already three of the state's approximately 450 private nursing homes have replied they would rather refuse to participate in Medicaid than supply the information.

"In some cases they probably don't have good records and it would be hard for them to gather the information we're asking," Houston said in an interview Monday.

PROFIT PICTURE

"In other cases," he added, "I think it's clear they're just reluctant to have us find out how much money they make."

Tuggle said a statewide meeting of nursing home operators is planned for Friday and an association position against supplying the data may be taken then.

"When the state buys a ton of coal, it doesn't ask the seller for a statement of profit and loss," Tuggle said. "Do I have a right to come to you and ask how much you owe on your home or your car, or what your financial situation is?"

Scope Helps Space Safety

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — A 328-foot telescope designed principally to enable advance warnings of solar proton showers, which could be dangerous to men and equipment in space, is being built on schedule on — and in — a New Mexico mountain.

More than half of the instrument's length will be below ground when it is completed early in 1968 at the Air Force's Sacramento Peak Observatory near Sunspot, N. Mex.

The Air Force is anxious to complete the telescope on time, since 1968 is expected to be a year of high solar activity. In addition, the USAF Manned Orbiting Laboratory, planned for about then, will keep its crew in space for longer than any previous space flight, 30 days, and would be a particularly needful beneficiary.

Radio Scope for Data Urged

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — The construction of a very large array radio telescope to produce high resolution data on celestial objects has been proposed to the National Science Foundation by the National Radio Astronomy Observatory.

The very large array, or VLA, would consist of 36 paraboloid antennas, each 83 feet in diameter, that would be electronically controlled and function as one receiving system.

The antennas would be placed along three arms of a "Y," each of which would be 13 miles long. The antennas would be movable along the arms to change their configuration as required by the scientific studies under way.

The VLA has been called the radio equivalent of the 200-inch optical telescope atop Mt. Palomar in California — one that could produce a radio picture of the sky comparable in resolution and sensitivity to the giant Hale instrument.

Farmington Twp. Library Tax Vote Set

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—Township voters will be asked May 22 to approve a 1-mill tax to build and equip a new library on 12 Mile between Orchard Lake and Farmington roads.

Residents now use the city-township district library located within the city. The new library, officials explain, would benefit residents in the north area of the township.

The five-acre site is owned by the city and township district library.

The city can raise its portion of the project by levying the extra tax through council action but the township must seek approval of the voters.

★ ★ ★

PRESENT RATE

Residents presently pay one-half mill for library operation.

In other action Monday night, the township board entered into an agreement with the Oakland County Road Commission to improve Drake Road from Grand River to 11 Mile.

Plans are to straighten out a 90-degree sharp corner and swing the road over to meet with the continuation of Drake Road through a new proposed subdivision.

★ ★ ★

The cost would be paid on a shared - cost basis with the county.

Agreements were also entered into for improvement of Power between 10 and 11 Mile roads and 11 Mile between Orchard Lake and Power.

New Housing Slated in Troy

TROY — Two large subdivisions with an estimated total ultimate value of $10.5 million are expected to get under way this spring and have units open this fall.

Both developers are processing plats and engineering studies through the city procedures.

One of the developers has received final plat approval from the City Commission and has posted bonds to insure sewer, water and paving improvements that totaled almost $500,000.

The developer, Frank Winton of 1060 Ardmore, Birmingham, will build on 169 lots, on 56 acres north and east of Rochester Road and E. Long Lake.

His homes will be in the $25,000 to $35,000 range, he said. After final hearings on improvement matters, construction will begin and units are expected to be open for inspection early in the fall, Winton said.

SIZE OF LOTS

The lots will average just under a quarter acre each and will be about 80 feet in width.

Winton heads the F.J.W. Corp. at 15101 W. 8 Mile. The new subdivision will be called East Long Lake Estates.

In the other subdivision, for which a preliminary plat has been approved by the commission, the home price range will be $40,000 to $50,000.

It is to be constructed at Square Lake and Beach, just south of I-75 — 145 lots on 90 acres, to be called Hickory Heights North.

Paul Robertson of Robertson-Jamison Corp., Royal Oak, said his firm is the developer of the 460-lot Hickory Heights in Bloomfield Township.

The new subdivision is to include a central 15-acre park, Robertson said. "This area is heavily wooded and we will build around the trees as much as possible," he said.

His firm is "all geared up to go," said Robertson, and construction is planned to begin in May with units ready by early fall.

'69 Deadline Placed on Pontiac Twp. Sewers

By JEAN SAILE

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — Pontiac township is "under the gun" to provide sewers for its nearly 18-square-mile area, according to Supervisor Leonard Terry.

Terry, who April 10 exchanges his supervisor duties for those as head of his own excavating business, disclosed yesterday that the powerful State Water Resources Commission has placed a 1969 deadline on the installation of sewers for the Auburn road business district.

While the business district is the most specific of Terry's sewer problems, future growth in the township is also keyed to the provision of sewers and the extension of the Detroit water line farther into the township.

Terry is certain that the township's 12,000 population will increase right along with its tax roll once the way is made clear for developers.

★ ★ ★

A start has been made with the introduction of sewers to two separate areas serving a total of 650 units and the start of Detroit water service which now has about 800 customers, according to Terry.

'GOT TO WAIT'

"Right now we've got to wait on the Clinton-Oakland Interceptor," sid Terry, "and if that doesn't come through by 1969, we're going to have problems."

Terry chafes under the criticism handed down two weeks ago by the Water Resources Commission. Cited were the effects of the business areas' septic tanks in the pollution of the Clinton River and Galloway Lake.

Area News

"I know we don't pollute that water anything like the city of Pontiac does," he said and added, "But they (the State Commissioners) won't listen."

★ ★ ★

Terry affirms that a preliminary survey of laterals needed to connect township homes and businesses to the proposed interceptor has been made.

COST SPREAD

"The cost, according to the survey, would have to be spread on a basis of from $78 to $137 an acre," Terry reported.

"People are balking. It's just like water. It's going to cost money," he said.

Riding on the introduction of water and sewer service are several proposed developments in the township, the largest of which is probably the "total community concept" of the Meadowbrook Development Co. of Avon Township.

★ ★ ★

Some 300 acres of the 900-acre project lie in Pontiac Township.

"They won't be able to get financing money until we've got sewers," Terry opined.

INDUSTRIAL PLANS

Also at stake is further industrial development along Opdyke where the huge Utley-James Construction Co. settled last year.

"Once we get water along there, that'll open up fast," Terry believes.

He cited the need of Oakland Community College for sewer service and of a proposed third mobile home village in the township.

★ ★ ★

"Some people kick about trailers," said Terry, "but they're the same thing as apartments if they're run well."

TAX RETURN

"You can put 16 to 18 on an acre and the tax return is nearly the same."

Terry concluded, "People fight you every step of the way in improvements, but once they're in, your worst enemies are the first to sign up."

Oxford School Plans Weighed

OXFORD—A 2.4 million building program has been presented by architects for the consideration of the School Citizens' Advisory Committee and the district administration.

Schools Supt. Roger Oberg reported last night to the board of education on alternate building plans which must be decided "perhaps in time for a fall vote."

Under consideration is the construction of a "middle school" for grades 6-7-8 versus a junior high school for grades 7-8-9.

If the "middle school" concept is followed, which Oberg believes to be the best educationally but not economically, the district would need a four-room addition to Clear Lake Elementary and a six-room addition to the high school.

★ ★ ★

Under the junior high plan, Clear Lake would need a six-room addition, plus more elaborate vocational and science facilities in the junior high. The high school, Oberg said, should remain adequate another five years.

COST OF PLAN

Oxford's senior high now contains grades 9-12.

A middle concept school, Oberg said, would cost roughly $1,563,000.

Proposed improvements at Clear Lake school also include a library and enlarged multi-purpose room with kitchen storage facilities. Oberg reported lunches are currently transported to the school.

Also under consideration is a bus garage.

CURRENT LEVY

Oxford currently levies a total of 22.31 mills, including 4.8 for debt retirement. The building program would necessitate a jump of at least 2.2 mills and perhaps more, said Oberg.

He cited the difficulties encountered by Avondale and Walled Lake in regard to those districts' proposed participation in the school bond loan fund.

"It would take a total of about 9.5 mills in debt retirement to carry the program by ourselves," said Oberg.

★ ★ ★

He said a Citizens' Committee meeting had been called for next Tuesday night.

The board voted to let bids for the replacement of boilers at the present junior high school at an estimated cost of between $16,000-$20,000.

★ ★ ★

Reports on the third grade curriculum were made by teachers to the board.

Dog Attack Brings Call in Milford

MILFORD—A resident, concerned over the attack on an Independence Township boy by several dogs last weekend, has asked the Village Council to order stricter enforcement of its dog ordinance.

The council asked its part-time dog warden to devote more time to checking on loose dogs but pointed out the ordinance is enforced and that some persons have even complained it is too strict.

The ordinance requires a dog be under the verbal command of its owner, on a leash and not allowed to run loose.

In other recent business, the council approved a special assessment district for sidewalks extending from the Kroger Store property on Summit along North Milford Road to Fairview Hills Subdivision.

★ ★ ★

Residents of the area will be asked to vote on the special assessment by returning or not returning a voting card. A nonreturn will constitute a "yes" vote.

The estimated cost of the 2,700-foot sidewalk project is $9,500.

CAP Unit for Holly Area Forming; Meeting Tonight

HOLLY — A Civil Air Patrol unit for the area is forming, offering teens and young people the chance to learn to fly and wear the Air Force blue.

The first meeting of the group will be held at 7 tonight at the Holly Village police station. Those interested, but unable to attend, can contact Police Chief Omer Teeples. A second meeting is set for 7 p.m., Tuesday.

William Todd of 918 Delphine, Holly Township, a lieutenant in the CAP, explained some of the functions of the group.

He said volunteers will be members of the Holly-Fenton Tri-County Composite Group 6318, CAP. As an auxiliary group of the Air Force, members will be issued AF uniforms.

The groups will be divided into the junior class, 13 to 18 years of age, and seniors.

PREFLIGHT TRAINING

The juniors will take preflight training and some phases of regular AF basic training.

The older group will take flight training as well learn how to assist the other agencies in the case of emergencies.

Lt. Todd said after obtaining a flying license on the type of craft used by the CAP, the L19 over-wing type plane, it was possible to go on to jet craft training.

"This is a fine chance to learn to fly," he said. He pointed out the group is open to girl and women volunteers.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

As an auxiliary of the Air Force, most of the equipment is supplied. Special programs in which members are flown around the country for rallies and meetings are also held.

The Holly unit has the use of Nissle airfield at Grange Hall and Fish Lake. Planes and other equipment for use of the CAP group are to be supplied after the group is formed, Lt. Todd said.

Home base of the group is Selfridge Field. The state's CAP flew numerous missions last year in search and rescue.

School Study Chief Tells of Cost Spiral

BRANDON TOWNSHIP—"Our schools are definitely going to cost more money, a lot more," Norman S. Kapson of 174 Mill, Ortonville, said.

Kapson is the chairman of the Brandon School District's new committee on school needs.

He is currently looking for "interested citizens who can think logically" to be on the committee.

Henry Versnick, schools superintendent, said the task of the group will be to make a study and submit recommendations on a building program for the current five-year period.

He has pointed out projected enrollment figures that indicate the student total will rise from 1,591 at present to at least 2,000 by 1970-71.

Kapson said he hopes to attract persons from all categories to join the study—parents, contractors who know costs, lawyers, etc.

White Lake Girl Wins Art Award

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Lynn Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Wallace, 20 Pardyke, has been awarded a certificate of merit at the 1967 Scholastic Art Awards Contest sponsored by Scholastic Magazine, Inc., and Liberty Life Insurance Co. of Greenville, S.C.

She is a freshman at Bob Jones Academy in Greenville.

Dump Use Offered on Fee Basis

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Relief may be in store for township residents plagued with trash-disposal problems since closing of the Cooley Lake Road dump site early this year.

Pontiac City Commissioners last night directed the city's engineering staff to begin contract negotiations aimed at providing township residents — on a fee basis — with use of Pontiac's disposal site on Kennett Road.

The proposal was drafted by Joseph E. Neipling, city director of public works and services, following a Feb. 9 request for assistance from the Township Board.

Neipling described the service as "essentially" for individual citizens as opposed to commercial disposal operators.

★ ★ ★

Tentative fee schedule approved by commissioners would charge 50 cents per load delivered by car; $1.50 a load per car-trailer or pickup truck; and $1 per cubic yard of waste delivered by other means.

FEE TICKETS

The city proposes that citizens purchase fee tickets from the township and present the tickets when delivering trash to the disposal site.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac would then submit a monthly billing to the township based on an audit of the tickets received.

Initial term of the proposed contract would be one year.

JCs Invite Young Men

ROCHESTER — A meeting to acquaint young men of the area with the activities of the Rochester Jaycees is planned for 8 p.m. tomorrow at Stemmer's Hall, 116 E. Third.

Men between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to attend with an eye to future membership. The group's goal of "Leadership Training Through Community Development" will be explained by board members.

★ ★ ★

A social hour will follow. Questions regarding membership may be directed to P.O. Box 161, Rochester.

Concert in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Latin American music will be featured by the Central Junior High School Junior Varsity band when it plays its annual concert with the Cadet band at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the school gym.

Car Salesman Strike Looming

Three Area Agencies Likely To Be Affected

DETROIT (UPI) — Some 2,400 salesmen at 64 new car dealerships in metropolitan Detroit were set to strike today to protest the alleged refusal of owners to grant job security benefits.

★ ★ ★

Among those expected to protest in the Pontiac area are salesmen at John McAuliffe Ford, Inc., 630 Oakland; Mike Savoie Chevrolet, Inc., 1000 Woodward, Bloomfield Township; and Village Rambler Sales Inc., at 666 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

Agreements were reached yesterday with the owners of Suburban Oldsmobile Company, Inc., 565 S. Woodward, Birmingham, and Fischer Buick Inc., at 515 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

The strike was called by the Automobile Salesman's Association to seek provisions against layoffs along with medical insurance and pension programs.

RALLY STAGED

The association staged a rally last night in Ford Auditorium to outline its plans for the strike which would affect new car dealerships in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw counties in Southeastern Michigan.

Elmer Kolar, vice president of the association, said salesmen, mechanics and office workers planned "sympathy strikes" at up to 33 other dealerships in the area.

He said dealers have "laid off 60 guys in the last month to try to break the union," which won representation of salesmen at the 64 dealerships last year.

★ ★ ★

At the rally last night, several union leaders said they would walk the picket lines until "every last dealership signs a contract."

★ ★ ★

Kolar said there are 202 new car agencies in the four-county area but the larger ones are included among the 64 whose salesmen are represented by the union.

Chief Retires; Dismissal Asked by Grand Juror

HAMTRAMCK (UPI) — Police Chief Walter Jaros, 58, announced his retirement today less than 24 hours after a grand jury called for his dismissal on grounds of neglect of duty.

Jaros, a policeman in this Detroit suburb for 27 years, said he would retire April 1. He petitioned the City Council last night for permission to retire and it was quickly granted.

★ ★ ★

The chief began a vacation today, presumably lasting until his retirement.

★ ★ ★

Jew Charges GM With Bias

Firm Issues Denial of Local Worker's Claim

General Motors Corp. today denied a charge that it discriminated against a 30-year employe of the firm's Pontiac Fisher Body Division plant because of his Jewish faith.

The charge was made yesterday by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission on behalf of Philip Marlowe of Detroit, who has been employed at the plant since 1936.

The commission said the firm had declined to conciliate the issue and that Marlowe's accusations disclosed sufficient grounds for the complaint.

But GM officials issued a statement of denial today.

★ ★ ★

"At no time has Mr. Marlowe's religion been a consideration by General Motors with respect to his employment, or in making disposition of any grievances he may have filed personally or through his bargaining agent, the United Auto Workers Union," a spokesman said.

SKILLED TRADESMAN

Marlowe, a skilled tradesman at the plant, charged that GM discriminated against him by:

- Refusing to give him reasonable and equal opportunities to upgrade himself from his present job as a checking fixture builder.
- Permitting continuing harassment and discrimination by fellow employes and by supervisory personnel.
- Subjecting him to excessive and unequal discipline.

★ ★ ★

A GM spokesman said Marlowe has held numerous types of jobs and has progressed from production line work to the skilled trades during his years at the plant.

★ ★ ★

"On several occasions, it has been necessary to take disciplinary action against Mr. Marlowe in connection with his work," the spokesman added.

Gun Victim Dies

A 23-year-old Pontiac man died early today at Pontiac General Hospital of a self-inflicted gun wound.

★ ★ ★

The victim of the apparent suicide was Carlis D. Booker, 464 Branch, according to Pontiac police. Booker died three hours after the 11:45 p.m. shooting.

Spending Picture

EAST LANSING (AP) — The average Michigan resident will have about $900 more a year to spend in 1980 than he has now, Michigan State University researchers say. Disposable income probably will come to an average $3,000 per capita, they reported. They added that Michigan's 1965 wage rates were the highest in the nation.

Pressure Continues

Mobil Joins Price Rollback

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government sees encouraging holes in the formerly solid wall of major oil companies that recently boosted gasoline prices.

Mobil Oil Co. announced Tuesday that it was whittling off part of the increase it put into effect last month. A similar action was taken Monday by the Continental Oil Co., first to announce a rollback.

★ ★ ★

Neither company attributed its decision to the campaign of persuasion by the Department of the Interior for a rollback, but a third company implied that this was the underlying reason.

This firm, American Oil Co., said Tuesday it would not "yield to government pressure."

QUOTA ADJUSTMENT

The Interior Department has warned the companies that it may adjust import quotas to bring in more gasoline from outside the country and thus make high prices hard to maintain.

Mobil said it will cut two-tenths of a cent per gallon from the recently raised price dealers and industrial customers pay—and one-fourth of a cent from the price paid by distributors. These same reductions were reported Monday by Continental.

★ ★ ★

The end result of the original increase and the new decrease is that the dealer price will be four-tenths of a cent higher than it was a month ago.

Undersecretary of the Interior Charles Luce looked on the rollbacks as "further evidence that the effort to raise gasoline prices consumers pay for gasoline is weakening."

★ ★ ★

"These reductions are a step in the right direction," Luce said. "But they still leave both retail prices and net yields to the companies well above previous levels."

★ ★ ★

Humble Oil and Refining Co., with better than 10 per cent of the market, held back when other companies boosted prices.

Canada Tolerant of Draft-Dodgers

TORONTO (AP) — Scott, as he wants to be known, was a 23-year-old film editor in the United States. Last fall, a week after he received his draft notice, he decided to evade military service by coming to Canada.

Now he is among the growing number of American draft-dodgers whose presence in Canada has sparked exchanges in parliament. Canada has no draft.

★ ★ ★

Scott, unlike some draft-evaders in Canada, is not a pacifist. "If Communist China attacked United States shores, I'd feel compelled to go back," he says.

'REASON FOR WAR'

But he adds that until his country can offer what he considers an adequate reason for the Vietnam war, he wants no part of it. "I'm damned if I'm going to fight a war or aid in fighting a war for reasons I'm not perfectly sure of."

No one knows how many American draft-dodgers are in Canada. They are reluctant to draw attention to themselves.

Those interviewed talk only with the understanding they will not be fully identified.

Rich Paterak, 23, who directs from Toronto a program of assistance to draft-dodgers run by the Student Union for Peace Action, says he has heard estimates ranging from 50 to 2,000 but cannot vouch for their accuracy.

NUMBER

Former Prime Minister John Diefenbaker has cited in the House of Commons U.S. reports that between 1,500 and 3,000 Americans are in Canada to avoid the draft.

There are known to be draft-dodgers in Vancouver, Toronto's Bohemian Yorkville Village area harbors a number. David Depoe, a volunteer with a Canadian organization which runs a project in Yorkville, says there are usually up to a dozen draft-dodgers in the area.

★ ★ ★

On arrival, evaders can find a helping hand from the Student Union for Peace Action. Some individual members of the Society of Friends — Quakers — and the pacifist fellowship of reconciliation also help although the Quakers and the fellowship do not run aid programs.

The Student Union, an organization with interests in social as well as peace-related fields, helps the Americans find jobs and places to stay. Its pamphlet, "Coming to Canada," is distributed by U.S. organizations to explain to Americans the technicalities of immigration.

AID GROUP

The Calgary Committee to End the War in Vietnam also helps American applicants. A policy meeting was told recently that committee members could help by allowing Americans to use their names in filling out immigration applications.

The Americans say they encounter little hostility in Canada. Scott, who feels "a bit lonely, a bit out of place" after three months in Canada, thinks he can feel at home as he builds friendships.

★ ★ ★

He expected Canadians to disapprove of his draft-evasion and finds it "remarkable" that his co-workers at an appliance supply house are sympathetic.

But Steve, a 24-year-old New Yorker now working in construction in Toronto, is still reluctant to tell his union mates why he is here.

TOLERANT

Those interviewed report that the generally tolerant attitude of Canadians helps them fit in here. Says Ken, 23, who is working in a Toronto library:

"The nicest thing about Canada is probably the fact that the people aren't paranoid as they are in the United States. I can call myself an anarchio-Communist, for example, and people don't get excited."

Ken "just got fed up with the United States."

"The state touches more and more on every facet of the individual's life, and the draft is an aspect of this," he says.

"The only thing I regret about leaving is leaving my friends behind — and a girl."

Ken thinks that "unless immigration really clamps down, there are going to be more and more draft-dodgers" entering Canada.

GILL

Two Assigned to Pontiac Post

Two of the 59 recent graduates of the Michigan State police's recruit school will be assigned to the Pontiac post as probationary troopers effective Friday.

They are Leonard J. Gill of Byron Center and Robert Johnson of Adrian.

The graduation boosted enlisted strength of the State Police to 1,446, the highest it ever has been but 130 under the authorized complement of 1,576.

★ ★ ★

The next recruit school to begin Monday will include two women candidates for state policewomen positions, new to the department.

PIN-WORMS

1 OUT OF 3 DOES

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then — Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults.

CIA Reports

Soviets in Model T Age

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's not a single gas station on the 100-mile road from Moscow to Kalinin and only one garage in the 428 miles to Minsk, says the CIA.

★ ★ ★

Even under the Kremlin's much-touted plan to boost car output, the Central Intelligence Agency says the Soviets by 1975 will have no more autos on the road than the United States did in 1917.

★ ★ ★

The CIA report came to light in a study issued today by the House International Trade subcommittee on the Flat-Soviet auto plant and Communist economic reforms.

The Soviets are buying an $800-million Fiat manufacturing plant to increase their car production. The Italian firm wants to buy $50 million worth of U.S. machine tools for the deal. The House group under Rep. Thomas L. Ashley, D-Ohio, gave guarded endorsement Tuesday for such sales.

ONLY A TOEHOLD

"The U.S.S.R. has only a toehold in the automative age," CIA said. "Essentially, the new Soviet program is designed to produce automobiles for the bureaucratic and managerial elite — not for the average citizen."

It happens once in a while.

One of our customers gets to thinking: "A suit's a suit. And it doesn't make much difference where I buy it."

So he buys his next suit (or sportcoat or slacks) someplace else. And you know what? He isn't struck by lightning. And the world doesn't come to an end. But later he remembers how Osmun's fitters would fuss a little longer on a cuff. Or how his salesman would steer him away from blue because blue looked awful on him.

And you know what? For his next suit (or sportcoat or slacks) he comes back to Osmun's. A little sheepish maybe, but back in the fold.

Often our wandering customer could kick himself for wandering. But it gives us one more chance to prove what Osmun's is all about.

And that, you see, is what gives us our kicks.

Junior Editors Quiz on DEER

QUESTION: When do deer lose their horns?

ANSWER: There are two main types of horns on hoofed animals. Cattle, sheep, goats and antelope have hollow horns, made of a material which is like our fingernails or the shell of a turtle.

But deer's horns are different. They are properly called "antlers" and are solid, made of bone. The true horns of cattle remain with them all the time but the deer sheds his antlers every year.

It is in the winter that the male deer loses his antlers. Missing these formidable weapons, the male deer becomes shy and retiring.

As spring begins to come, new antlers start growing. These are mere stumps at first, tender and covered with soft, velvetry hair. With the arrival of summer, the antlers become much larger, develop different points and become harder.

By August they begin to look like the real thing but still have sofe covering. When in the fall, this is finally rubbed off, the solid antlers emerge in all their grandeur.

Program Tries to Save Boys at 'Crossroads'

CHICAGO (AP) — When a police sergeant was killed by two young men in 1965, an experiment was born to save youngsters at the crossroads of life.

The slaying was especially bitter for the workers at the Better Boys Foundation. The two men who killed the sergeant were among those the foundation was trying to help.

★ ★ ★

The incident convinced foundation workers they were failing with teen-agers. The board of directors decided to try to reach the boys before they entered adolescence.

Now there is hope and positive thinking by the small staff of a new program, "Operation Crossroads."

They work exclusively in the Lawndale area where the foundation is located. Perhaps better known by its residents as "K-town," it is predominantly Negro and a haven for teen-age gangs.

"Operation Crossroads" is a term unknown to about 50 boys, 9 to 12 years old, enrolled in the experiment. They simply submitted applications to join the "club program."

"We felt we were failing with the older boys," Eugene Saunders, secretary, explained in an interview. "We had simply gotten the boys too late. The whole ghetto syndrome had corroded his character."

Eugene Perkins, operation director, said the theory behind the program is that boys between 9 and 12 are at the cross roads in life.

How Do You Start Day? Check Hal's Typecasting

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — No drama about modern business life would be complete without an account of how people come to work each morning and meet the fresh challenge of a new day.

BOYLE

Just getting there, in many cases, is the biggest victory they may have in mind that day. It is a long way to go simply to find a place of rest in their home away from home.

★ ★ ★

If you are an inhabitant of an office zoo, some of these how-to-get-the-day-started types may be familiar to you:

The pioneer—as the first one in, he figures it is his empire. He walks around the empty place, picking up a pencil here, a paper clip there, then plods downstairs for a two-hour coffee break.

LIKE AN EXPLORER

The suburbanite—He arrives swathed like a polar explorer or a pilgrim from Siberia. By the time he takes off his boots, removes his coats, unwinds his muffler, sheds his sweater, stops his teeth from chattering and swallows his cough medicine, he has 15 minutes left to do his work for the day. Then he must start rewrapping himself or he'll miss his train back to the suburbs.

★ ★ ★

The procrastinator — With a bustle of importance he rushes to his desk and stares at the work he left unfinished yesterday. When no one is looking, he picks up the papers and drops them on an empty desk some distance from his own. He figures that by the time the papers are found and sent through channels back to him, it will be tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

The gossip—"I just peeked into the office of the junior executive, and there was a single wilted rose lying on his calendar," she says. "Who do you suppose left it there, and when, and why?"

The stoic—Plodding to his swivel chair, he begins to scribble furiously on a pad as if his ideas were coming too fast for one hand to put down. Finally, he relaxes and leans back. He just figured out that he has 19 years 7 months, 2 weeks, one day, 7 hours and 53 minutes to go until he retires.

ANY TROUBLE?

The semiofficial greeter—This chatterbox says "hello" to everybody, asks if they had any trouble getting home the night before, what they had for dinner, how they slept and whether they met any interesting bus drivers on the way to work this morning.

★ ★ ★

The office boy — Lifting his wisp of blond beard from a paperback copy of the selected works of Kafka, he pours the contents of the in-basket into the wastebasket. Marching out to the washroom, he stares lovingly into the mirror, combs his long hair with Moddy-fingers, murmurs aloud, "Life is chaos," and wonders what Proust would do if he had to earn his living in a business office.

Politics Peril Europe A-Unit

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Political difficulties between the six European Common Market countries threaten a large-scale technical breakdown in the European Atomic Energy Community (Euratom), European officials fear.

Community research networks which could be affected have involved expenditures of about $300 million. National research programs could be threatened as a result.

Research contracts in the community, which expired at the end of 1966, including one for an association with France on fast reactors, have not been renewed.

The Euratom Commission says that, failing a quick decision to extend the contracts, the association will have to be wound up.

Under the association, the community, that is all member states, owns part of the plant and all knowledge acquired in it. Halting cooperation could, it is feared, create a crisis of confidence between member countries.

DECISION OVERDUE

Abandoning research into them could undermine community research as a whole.

A further difficulty is that a decision is overdue on Euratom's third five-year research and development program. The second five-year program ends this year.

The commission has laid down guide lines for far-reaching changes in the character of joint research. But member countries have not yet considered them.

Euratom officials, many of whom blame the French, say that they doubt whether a third five-year program is to be adopted has jeopardized projects like the Belgian materials testing reactor at Mol, on which work is already slowing. Belgium could not operate Mol fully on her own.

Recording the findings of virus effects on live tissue is one of the demanding aspects of Jean Frailing's job as a scientist at the Rochester facilities of Parke, Davis and Co. One of a few women to have progressed in this man's world, Miss Frailing is convinced that the future holds great promise for young women about to complete training in this field.

Woman in a Man's World

Science Continues to Challenge

By JEANNE NELSON

Hidden potentials don't often come to light in a sudden and dramatic burst of recognition. But contrary to this general observation, this is exactly what happened to Jean Frailing.

★ ★ ★

Toward the end of her second year in college, Jean was performing a required biological experiment at Northwestern University when she found excitement in science for the first time.

And from that day on — 18 years ago — the excitement has continued to mount.

CHANGES PLANS

When the discovery first struck, she had been preparing for a career as a college English instructor, with perhaps some dramatic coaching too.

Now she had to change her educational direction. This took some convincing talk on her part, but talk she did, and managed to complete requirements for a B.A. degree in science.

★ ★ ★

Her first step into the working world was a year's internship in medical technology at Detroit's Grace Hospital. After this, she advanced to a supervisory position in the clinical labs of both the main and Northwest hospitals.

The more advanced research opportunities lured her to her present employer, Parke Davis and Company, Rochester. After nine years here she is just one step from senior scientist status.

★ ★

The nature of her work is developing new virus-combating vaccines and improving the ones already in use.

SHE SUPERVISES

The labs under her supervision are manned by male and female technicians. Jean told us happily that there are many areas of work as a technician where finesse and dainty procedures play an important part.

"It is here" she relates, "that the dexterity of a woman's hands and fingers are tailor made for the job." She adds, "Men sometimes find this part of the assignment troublesome."

★ ★ ★

Her group at the Rochester center must always be alert to the practical aspects of a scientific "find."

Storing vaccines to keep their original potency is a difficult task, often impossible.

Entering individual labs in these new facilities is somewhat like going through the "fun house" at a carnival. Once you start, there's no going back. Within the building, each lab is an island of its own.

The first step on this one-way route (each door is self-locking) is an air room where purified air is blown at the individual. Next, you step around into another stall-like closet for disrobing.

Then into the shower, around another corner for sterilized lab clothes and out into another cubicle for the final air purifying.

The maze finally leads to the lab. Here watched over constantly by technicians, are the hot and cold viruses working their destructive way through living tissue matter.

Incidentally, Jean had a hand in designing this unusual structure.

What of Jean Frailing, the woman? Well, her wardrobe for work is quite simple. A lab coat.

But after working hours this attractive brunette may be found in any number of ensembles. For the stage, too, is a big part of her life.

As an extremely active member of the Avon Players, she takes on the personality and appearance of the roles she portrays. She also has been known to handle the production end of things behind the curtain.

Jean is also involved in both Rochester Tuesday Musicale and her own church choir.

VITAL INTEREST

She is vitally interested in the high school "Science Fairs" which she marks as a great ad-

Give Him Deadline—Until Sundown

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I'm 50 different kinds of a fool for letting myself get into this predicament in the first place, but here's my story: I married a divorced man who had two pre-school children.

ABBY

We took the children because his wife traveled in her business and couldn't make a proper home for them. I should explain that my husband and his "ex" brag that they are sensible, civilized people who have a friendly divorce, and nobody is mad at anybody.

Three months ago my husband asked me if his "ex" could stay with us for about a week, following some minor surgery. I foolishly agreed.

It's been going on four months, she is fully recovered, is still making her headquarters here and shows no sign of leaving.

The children have taken to calling her "Mamma" which is what they also call me. The neighbors remember her from before and they are talking a blue streak. I am sick of the whole mess. How can I tactfully get this woman out of my home? SICK OF IT

DEAR SICK: Tell your "sensible" husband that he is too "civilized" for you, and if Wife Number One doesn't clear out pronto, YOU will. And give him a deadline. Like sundown.

Birmingham Actress Weds Costar of 'Peyton Place'

HONOLULU (UPI) — Two stars of the "Peyton Place" television show were married Tuesday night at the home of a friend.

The ceremony was performed for Leigh Taylor-Young, 22, and Ryan O'Neal, 25, by Circuit Court Judge S. P. King.

★ ★ ★

Miss Taylor-Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Young of Birmingham, joined the show last May.

She replaced Mia Farrow, who married Frank Sinatra. She got her start on Broadway in "Three Bags Full" and has not previously been married.

O'Neal, son of movie writer Charles O'Neal, recently was divorced by his first wife, actress Joanna Moore. He has two children by that marriage.

The brief ceremony was performed at the home of Keith Swinehart, manager of a Honolulu television station, with only a few friends present.

After the ceremony, O'Neal told newsmen he had kept his marriage plans secret because he had to wait for a divorce decree from Mexico. He said he also had to get a waiver on the three-day waiting period before he could get married in Hawaii.

"It wasn't until 4:30 this afternoon that we got everything squared away and could get married," he said.

O'Neal said he and his bride planned to leave today for Hollywood.

Commenting on the short honeymoon, he said, "We have to go back to work, but plan to visit with Leigh's parents in Birmingham later this month."

New Mexico Getting Known for Its Trees

SANTA FE, N.M. (UPI) — New Mexico, probably best known for its Indians and deserts, also is in the big leagues in supplying Christmas trees.

Each year, thousands of white and douglas firs, Scotch pines and pinon trees are loaded on railway flatcars or stacked on trucks and shipped across the United States.

The state's reputation for Christmas trees got its biggest boost in 1956 when former President Eisenhower had an 80 ft. douglas fir sent him by residents of Almogordo, N.M., erected on the capitol lawn.

* * *

Since then, business has boomed. Trees are sent annually to normal outlets as well as being ordered for Chicago's Lake Shore front and New York's Radio City Music Hall.

* * *

The majority of the trees come from among New Mexico's 8.6 million acres of national forests. The remainder are grown in special tree farms at altitudes reaching 7,000 feet.

* * *

Trees in the farms are cultivated year-round and tourists can pick out a likely looking one in summer months and have it shipped to them before Christmas.

The small town of Mora in northeastern New Mexico, tucked against the Santa Fe National Forest, is one of the state's largest supply centers.

* * *

Tree cutting begins in November. Professional lumbermen move into the area. The cut trees are packed and taken to a railhead or transferred to flatbed trucks for shipment.

The pinon, New Mexico's state tree, is growing in popularity across the country since it is grown exclusively in New Mexico in the southwest.

* * *

The pinon grows in high mountain country to heights of 50 feet, although average size ranges between 15-35 feet. Every four years, the cones bear nuts which are sold commercially in the state and exported.

vance in gaining the attention of young girls.

Jean firmly believes that science holds unlimited promise for the female student wishing to enter the field. She would like to see more encouragement of girls to pursue a scientific education.

We asked if working with high level men in her field was accompanied by any resentfulness on their part.

"Not at all" she answered, "in fact, I would say that there doesn't appear to be any conflicts on that score at all. And since most of the work done here is the result of team effort, it perhaps accounts for this attitude."

To young women now preparing for work in this area of science, she says "Learn everything you can now and be prepared to discover all kinds of new experiences in a wonderful world. "The pay is good and the rewards better."

Couple Goes North for Honeymoon

The Trevor Clinton Merricks (Shirley Marie Perkins) left for a northern honeymoon after their recent vows and reception in the Columbia Avenue Baptist Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William L. Perkins of Brooks Street and the Charles Merricks of Ortonville.

* * *

A double jeweled tiara held the bride's illusion veil complementing her floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace over white organza.

Here cascad bouquet held white hyacinths and carnations.

Attendants at the six o'clock rite were honor matron, Mrs. John Brooks and Millie Edwards. Sheila Perkins was her sister's flower girl. Robbie Perkins carried the rings.

With John Brooks, best man, were the ushers Edward Merrick, Mike Miller and Russell Cherry.

Care Labels the Big Topic in Textiles

"Care labeling" of clothing is under discussion in the textile and apparel industry these days.

Mrs. Esther Peterson, the President's chief adviser on consumer affairs, has appointed an Industry Advisory Committee on Textile Information which is to make recommendations how labels might tell the purchaser of a garment what is the best way to keep it clean and in good condition.

* * *

Albert E. Johnson, Director of Textile Trade Relations at the National Institute of Drycleaning and a member of this committee, is the author of a guide which may provide an answer. It is called the National Fair Claims Guide, and it introduces the concept of "implied warranty."

If a garment is so constructed that it will perform well when cleaned by methods one would normally expect to use, then the Guide would require no "care label."

In other words, the Guide would assume that absence of a "care label" would imply a warranty that the garment would respond well to the cleaning procedure one would reasonably expect to employ.

SEW ON LABELS

On the other hand, labels should be sewn into garments when special care instructions are needed to prevent washing a non-washable or drycleaning a non-drycleanable garment.

The Institute is sponsoring an application to the American Standards Association for recognition of the Fair Claims Guide as an American Standard.

Since its development two years ago, the Guide has been extensively used by Better Business Bureaus and in claims courts as well as by many drycleaners and firms in the apparel field to help where clothing has failed to perform well in use or cleaning.

A Modern Lesson in Tragedy of Hamlet

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Because William Shakespeare was a genius, his tragic hero Hamlet — that Prince of Denmark who just couldn't decide whether to be or not to be — means as many different things to people as there are different kinds of people.

To dithering intellectuals who can never make up their minds he represents the appeal of their own indecisiveness. To Freudian psychiatrists, he's a Danish Oedipus who wanted to kill his father and marry his mother.

But the view of Hamlet that makes sense to me is that of a brilliant young poet friend of mine whom I dearly love. Says he to me:

"Hamlet's tragedy is the tragedy of an overprotected kid. That's why Shakespeare made him a student. All his notions about people and the world were gotten out of books. So when he came up against the fact that his uncle was a killer and his mother was a fool, he couldn't take it.

"He had to kill himself and everyone involved with him because they hadn't behaved the way his book people had said that human beings should behave."

What he says seems so true to me that I commend it to a reader who writes:

"My son's seventh-grade teacher picks on him all the time. She makes him read his homework papers before the class and then makes fun of him.

"My husband thinks I should speak to the principal about the way she treats the boy. But I'm afraid to do this as I've met her and she's just the kind of person to treat him even nastier for telling on her. Have you any suggestions on how to handle this?"

Yes, I have. I suggest that you say to your son:

"Child, some people hate. That's how it is. They love to make us feel like a nothing so that they can feel like a great big something. So I'm not going to do one thing about Miss Barnes. Though I'm sorry she makes you so unhappy, I am also glad that you have met a hating person.

"You are going to meet a lot more of them and might as well get used to them. Incidentally, I love you most awfully."

Poor Hamlet. He had no grownup to say, "Listen, kid. Killers and fools exist. So as the Scotch say, 'Dinna fash yourself, laddie.' With killers and fools, our sole obligation is to outlive them."

Parent Expects Too Much

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I just read the letter in your column about little four year old Billy who shoveled his food in so messily at the wedding reception. I wondered if the mother or you have ever tried to eat food off a plate on a table the same height as your mouth.

I felt sorry for Billy. Another mistake busy mothers sometimes make is holding a small child's hand and walking so fast the little fellow's feet are running as hard as his short legs will let him.—A Great-Grandmother.

Dear Great-Grandmother: You have made two excellent points. I hope my readers who have small children will take them to heart.

It is thoughtless to criticize a child who cannot possibly eat nicely unless he is given a cushion or something to raise him up to a reasonable height.

If you're in a hurry, and you must take your child with you, rather than drag him along—and I, too, have seen toddlers literally dragged — pick him up and carry him.

Otherwise, slow down; the few minutes you may gain are not worth the discomfort to your child.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have a friend who considers herself quite a fashion expert. In fact, she likes to be outstanding wherever she goes. When she came to the funeral home recently to offer her sympathy on the death of my mother, she was dressed completely in WHITE, coat, hat, etc., and she does this at every funeral.

Wouldn't a little less conspicuous outfit be in better taste?—Mrs. D. F.

Dear Mrs. D. F.: You're right! A funeral or a visit to a bereaved family is no time to try to be a fashion plate. A white or pale dress would not be so inappropriate in the summer, but to wear it in winter when dark (not necessarily black), simple clothes are correct, does seem to be purely a bid for attention.

Letter Outlines Glue Sniffing Done by Teens

The subject of teen-agers sniffing glue was discussed at Tuesday's meeting of the Child Study Group III when it met in the West Iroquois Road home of Mrs. Robert Irwin.

★ ★ ★

A letter from the Osmun Area Block Club detailed the effects on teens who pursue this course and outlined plans for a city ordinance to prohibit the sale of this glue to persons under 18.

Businessmen Will Try

Theater Has Ray of Hope

YPSILANTI (AP) — Two groups of local businessmen have agreed to try to breathe life into the artistically brilliant, but financially tragic Ypsilanti Greek Theater.

The theater's board of directors had set Tuesday as a deadline for raising $500,000 before making plans for the coming season.

At last report, they had only a promise of $50,000 in the till.

★ ★ ★

But the board asked the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce and Ypsilanti Industrial Development Corp. to take over the business management of the theater.

The groups agreed Tuesday and the theater board gave itself another 30 days to find the money.

When it opened last year, the theater was the only major theatrical company to present classical Greek plays in English.

STILL ENTHUSED

Praise didn't fill the seats and the theater ended the season nearly $250,000 in debt.

John Mayhew, the theater group's president, said until now the theater's board of directors was composed of amateurs, volunteers and part-time workers.

"They are long on enthusiasm and dedication," he said, "but they need the help of an experienced full-time administrative establishment."

He said that with the businessmen taking over the business end, "We can ask foundations for grants from a sound business basis."

Already, he said, members of the theater board who have contacted prospective donors report that they are gleaning a far more favorable response than before.

"The strong endorsement by the local business community is important in itself," Mayhew said. "And it is an important factor in getting outside financial assistance."

★ ★ ★

But, he added, "You don't raise your hopes until you see the money."

EXCELLENT REVIEW

Critics ranked the company on a level with the Stratford Shakespearean Festivals and actors such as Dame Judith Anderson and Bert Lahr appeared in the plays.

But audience space was rarely more than 35 per cent full and a spokesman said, "We lived from week to week at the brink of financial disaster."

SEW SIMPLE
By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice Farmer,

I would appreciate information on how to make a sleeve pattern to be used when making a dress or blouse that only shows a sleeveless version. Mrs. M. I. L.

Dear Mrs. M. I. L.,

You must use another pattern with the type sleeve you wish. Also, use the front and back pattern to cut the armhole correctly.

Place the two patterns over each other, matching the shoulder seam and the center front or center back. Cut the armhole exactly the same as the pattern that you are using for the sleeves. It works beautifully!

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

Mrs. Frances Fenton of Columbia, Mo., is this week's Tailor Trix pressing board winner.

I am tall, and every dress that I have bought recently has had to be faced. Several of them are knit and I use matching cotton lace, about 2 inches wide, to face them. It allows a little give with the knitted material.

Dear Eunice Farmer:

I marked and basted some white material with red thread that was left over in my thread box. When I pulled out my basting threads, there were red marks on my dress. How can I get these out?

Mrs. R. E. H.

Dear Mrs. R. E. H.,

Red thread is the one color you should never use on another color fabric because the dye simply doesn't set well. There is always a chance it will bleed or rub off.

Take your dress to your dry cleaners and see if he can remove them. Often cleaning a dress will either eliminate or fade these marks so they won't be noticeable. I hope all of you remember that red thread is for stitching red fabric only.

AN AVERAGE FAMILY CAN SAVE UP TO 15%!

Farmer Jack says (and who's a better authority) "that the average family of four--can save up to 15% on their annual food bill!"

Top quality, low bushel an' case prices, plus eliminating waste--is the formula Farmer Jack gave for his yearly food savings!

"At low 'case' prices--Name Brands become a big saver! Or, fork tender Meat --that's table-trimmed--like you buy at Farmer Jack's--is another way t'boost your food savings!"

Farmer Jack cited the example of Name Brand Groc'ries, "because," he said, "they maintain a constantly high standard of quality!

FARMER JACK'S FACTS:

The facts about Farmer Jack's Supermarkets is--they keep on growin' an' expandin' b'cause Farmer Jack has been on the side of every Food Shopper!

He took the attitude that there had t'be an end t'spiralin' food prices! So, he's been wagin' a one-man battle t'give folks more for every food dollar--than they could get anyplace else!

When he opened his first Supermarket--he worked out a plan by careful buyin' so he could give folks low, 'bushel an' case' prices--regardless of how much or how little they bought!

Now Farmer Jack is a down t'earth man, who never fails t'give ever'body a square deal! But, when it comes t'buyin' food for his Supermarkets--he's the most particular guy you'll ever meet!

Farmer Jack's cust'mers are the big thing in his life! So, nothin' but the very best, famous Name Brand Groc'ries, or the finest U.S. Choice Meats--or Produce rushed daily from where it grows--is good enough!

An' he knows, too, that it makes good sense--for cust'mers t'be able t'buy one single can--at the same low price--as if y'buy a whole case!

Commission Unanimously Votes $35,000 for Pistol Range

City commissioners voted unanimously last night to appropriate $35,000 for installation of a pistol range in the basement of the public safety building.

★ ★ ★

Included in the monies — to come from the 1967 capital improvement budget — is a cost bid of $19,855 submitted by the Ginn Construction Co. for basic installation work.

The construction cost is in addition to an estimated $12,703 for purchase of additional range components.

Joseph E. Neipling, director of public works and service, pointed out the new cost figure represents a successful attempt by the city to trim initial estimates for the project.

★ ★ ★

Bids were originally received Dec. 27, with the low proposal at that time $23,409.

REJECTED

Commissioners — on Neipling's recommendation — rejected the bids and directed that construction specifications be changed.

In a related police matter, first reading was held of a proposed ordinance which would license and regulate private policemen in the city.

Philip E. Rowston, director of law, said the ordinance was drawn up following "serious incidents" involving private patrol services in neighboring communities.

★ ★ ★

The proposal applies principally to private guards working at places of "amusement, recreation or entertainment," and specifically excludes those whose work is carried on within a private business establishment.

TRAFFIC STUDY

Approval of the chief of police, a minimum age of 21, and designated markings on private uniforms are other requirements advanced by the proposed ordinance.

The proposal is subject to a second reading prior to consideration and possible adoption.

Commissioners also formally received the 1967 Barton-Aschman study of Pontiac's traffic problems.

City Affairs

The study proposes a three-phase improvement schedule for city streets, with a price tag for meeting all recommendations at an estimated $20.7 million.

AGREEMENTS

The report is presently being studied by the engineering staff, which Niepling said would bring forth "specific proposals as to . . . priorities."

Neipling was also authorized by commissioners to sign agreements on the city's behalf for traffic improvements at six city intersections.

Cost to Pontiac for the improvements will be about $5,734, with the state paying between 25 per cent and two-thirds of the cost at specific intersections.

★ ★ ★

The modifications are directed at facilitating traffic movement at the Oakland-Cass-Montcalm convergence.

Thant, N. Viets Unlikely to Meet

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — U.N. Secretary General U Thant said yesterday he had no plans to discuss Vietnam peace possibilities with two North Vietnamese officials visiting Burma.

Thant, upon departing Rangoon for a three-day vacation at the Burmese beach resort of Ngapali, told UPI it was unlikely he even would meet with the two minor officials of North Vietnam's foreign office.

Criminal Records Cause Hiring Woes

A thick sheaf of rejected applications — marked for recent criminal offenses — testifies to difficulties faced by the City of Pontiac in obtaining qualified help.

Personnel Manager Nicholas Santiwan pointed up the obstacles to hiring personnel as he continued a probe into an accident involving an unlicensed city truck driver.

"Look at these," he said, holding up a handful of applications. "Some of these people have had as many as 19 arrests — and yet checked 'No' when asked if they have a criminal record."

Under present procedures instituted by Santiwan, each applicant for a city job will be checked by Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★

"This will include not only convictions," he said, "but also the arrests and reports which are kept in the department's alpha file."

EACH PERSON

The police alpha file, maintained primarily for intelligence and investigative purposes, records the name of each person coming into contact with police, whether for a traffic violation or felony offense.

"When we take somebody on," Santiwan said, "I want to know everything about them — particularly whether we can expect trouble."

At the same time, Santiwan notes possible inconsistencies of a rigid policy against hiring persons with police records.

★ ★ ★

"We have a man right now," he pointed out, "who three years ago was arrested for 'suspicion' of larceny and was then released.

DAY IN JAIL

"He also spent a day in jail once for a minor driving offense.

"He wants to hire on as a garbage disposal worker — is it fair to turn him down?"

Santiwan admitted to "a significant number" of present city employes having criminal records, but, he said, the city is virtually powerless to act against them.

"Many were hired in the past when police checks were not used," he said.

'CANNOT BE TOUCHED'

"Employes who were hired without checking on their records — particularly if they admitted to criminal offenses — can't be touched," Santiwan said.

"As far as the vast majority of these people are concerned, I would refuse to fire them if they had done nothing wrong on the job."

Last week's accident involving a 17-year-old city truck driver marked the second time in six months that hiring policies have been examined.

★ ★ ★

Last July, a water department employe was discharged after being found guilty of door-to-door soliciting of "cancer smear tests" on city women.

★ ★ ★

Investigators found the worker had falsified his previous employment record as well as concealing a string of criminal offenses.

'Private Firms Should Run Car Checks'

CHICAGO (UPI) — Private ownership of auto safety inspection centers was urged yesterday at the Automotive Service Industry Association's (ASIA) convention.

Harker Collins of Madison, Ind. chairman of the ASIA's safety committee, said if states or the federal government decide to establish safety inspection stations it will cost taxpayers more money.

Under the recently enacted auto safety standards legislation, periodic safety checks of motor vehicles were recommended, Collins said.

He said that 20 states and the District of Columbia have facilities for required vehicle inspections. By 1969, Collins said, every state must have its own inspection law.

★ ★ ★

Another spokesman for the ASIA, attorney Harold T. Halfpenny of Chicago, condemned the 1965 Canadian-United States auto pact, which allows duty-free entry of Canadian auto parts and vehicles into the United States.

PRODUCTION INCREASED

Halfpenny, the ASIA's legal counsel, said that since some Canadian auto parts manufacturers are subsidies of U.S. car makers, production has increased in Canada causing unemployment in the U.S. auto industry.

Halfpenny continued, "We are paying unemployment compensation to our displaced workers while Canada is enjoying the great plant expansion in its history."

Halfpenny called on Congress to review the Canadian pact.

Highway Limits

LANSING (AP) — Truck weight restrictions will be in effect at noon Thursday on all state highways in Southern Michigan. The state Highway Department said restrictions will be enforced from the south state line north to and including M21 from Holland to Port Huron. Truck routes designated as "all season highways" will be exempt.

TELLS OF SHIP FIRE — German Capt. Karl Safrenek, 55-year-old master of the freighter Caldas, gestures as he tells of the fire which claimed his ship and the life of one of his crew and forced him and his crew of 21 to abandon ship in the Atlantic. At his side in Philadelphia last night is Capt. Heinrich Radaker, skipper of the Atlantic Heritage, a tanker, which took the German sailors aboard and brought them to port in Philadelphia.

3 Red Countries Unite to Keep Germany Split

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany are forging a new Communist subbloc dedicated to perpetuating the division of Germany.

Poland and Czechoslovakia take the first step in Warsaw today with the signing of a 20-year renewal of their 1947 friendship and assistance treaty.

Closing the triangle, East German government and Communist party chief Walter Ulbricht will travel to Warsaw and Prague in mid-March to sign similar pacts with Poland and Czechoslovakia, informed Communist sources said.

They said the result will be an "iron triangle" to secure East Germany against West Germany's territorial aspirations and its claims to represent the whole German people.

Some Western diplomats call it a "paper triangle" of pledges stemming from Polish and East German anxiety about the responsiveness of their southern allies to overtures from the new West German government in Bonn.

Evidence is mounting that Czechoslovakia's two northern neighbors plus the Soviet Union have stiffened Prague's resistance to opening diplomatic relations with Bonn unless the West Germans renounce their claim to speak for all of Germany.

Teacher Code Nears Reality

State Board Focuses on Certification Issue

LANSING (UPI) — The State Board of Education yesterday night set the stage for ultimate approval of a new regulations on teacher qualifications.

★ ★ ★

In a giant step, the board focused on details of a new teacher certification code that has been in the making for some 10 years.

The proposed code revises the state's antiquated 1937 regulations.

Dr. John Porter, director of the Higher Education Bureau, submitted a timetable that would put the code into effect by July 1, 1970.

★ ★ ★

The problems that have delayed action on the proposed code still plague the board.

QUALIFICATIONS

The question of what qualifications the state should establish for permanent teacher certication was raised at yesterday's meeting.

The revised code calls for 13 graduate hours for permanent certification rather than the 10 now required.

The board was faced with the same problem four years ago when a faction held out for 30 graduate hours for permanent certification.

Hot Bread Triangles Are Full of Strawberry Jam

Strawberry jam, sandwiched between tender layers of scone dough, is the ingredient that makes this such a colorful taste treat. The scones can stand alone at snack time or add something special to a simple meal.

And everyone will agree — strawberry-filled scones fill the bill for Sunday morning breakfast. Served with country good sausage and eggs, they provide a highly nutritious, as well as tasty, beginning to an energy-packed day.

Double the nutritional value of your baking, too, by using enriched flour in making the scones.

Enrichment, a process initiated by bakers and millers over 25 years ago, provides your family with the three needed B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, plus the mineral, iron.

Strawberry Snack Scones

2 cups sifted enriched flour
¼ cup sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
⅓ cup shortening
1 egg
1 egg, separated
¼-½ cup milk
¾ cup strawberry preserves
2 tablespoons sugar

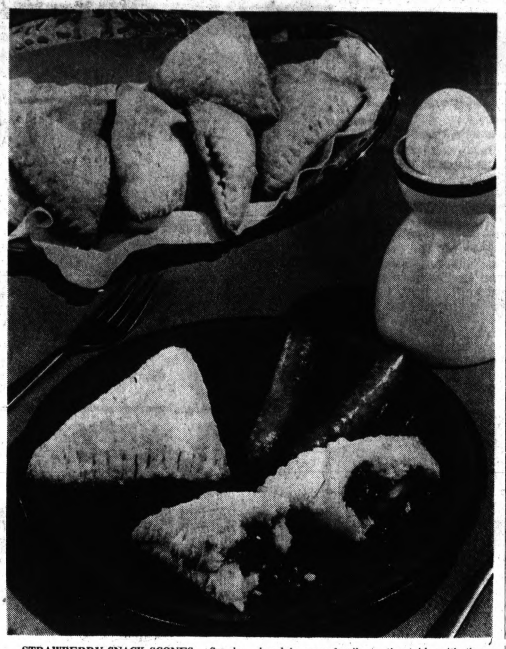
Sift together dry ingredients. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Beat egg and egg yolk together; blend in ¼ cup milk.

Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. If necessary, blend in more milk to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured surface and knead gently 30 seconds.

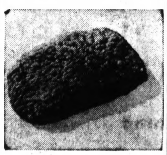
Divide dough in half and roll out to ¾-inch thick rectangle. Cut into six squares. Repeat with remaining half. Place on ungreased baking sheet.

Drop 1 teaspoon preserves in center of each square and fold to form triangle. Seal edges securely with fork.

Whip egg white until frothy and brush over top of scones. Sprinkle with sugar. Bake in preheated 425 degree oven, 10-12 minutes, or until golden brown.



STRAWBERRY SNACK SCONES — Snack time, breakfast time, anytime—Strawberry Scones are a sure winner. Lure the sleepiest head in your family to the table with these tender, rich, freshly baked scones.



Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Beef cubed steak.

Q. Where does it come from? How is it identified?

A. Cubed steak comes from several different sections including the beef chuck, sirloin, sirloin tip, round or short loin. They can be identified by their square or rectangular appearance as well as by the small cubed effect left by the machine that tenderizes them mechanically. Some cubed steaks are made from a single piece of meat while others are made from several pieces but all give the appearance of a single piece.

Q. How are they prepared?

A. They may be prepared by panfrying or braising. To panfry, place a small amount of lard or drippings in the frying-pan and brown the cubed steak on both sides. Cubed steaks are lean so the extra fat is needed for proper browning. To braise, brown the meat on both sides in lard or drippings, then add a small amount of liquid or a sauce like a barbecue type, cover tightly and cook slowly until done.

Add Can of Shrimp to Fondu Mixture

It's a good flavor combination!

Baked Fondu

3 large eggs, separated
1 cup milk, scalded
6 thin slices bread, crusts removed and crumbed (from a 1-pound loaf containing 20 slices)
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup grated cheddar cheese
1 can (1 pound and 1 ounce) creamstyle golden corn
1 can (4½ ounces) shrimp, drained and rinsed in cold water

Beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon color; gradually beat in scalded milk, then bread crumbs and salt. Stir in cheese, corn and shrimp.

Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into yolk mixture. Turn into a buttered ovenglass baking dish (10 by 6 by 2 inches) and bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven for 45 minutes or until fondu seems firm when gently shaken. Makes 6 servings.

For a "different" sandwich, spread the bread with deviled ham, then add a filling of crabmeat salad.

Cook It Well

Fish Important in Diet

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

There may be fewer meatless days for the Catholics to observe, but the consumption of fish has not declined since the relaxation of fasting.

★ ★ ★

One reason for this may be everyone's preoccupation (or so it seems) with eating to avoid heart attacks.

Whatever your reason for liking and eating fish, you may be happy to have some new recipes.

This recipe for cooking halibut steaks will earn approval from anyone on a low fat diet.

BROILED HALIBUT WITH MARINARA SAUCE

2 lbs. halibut steaks, fresh or frozen
Melted butter or margarine
Juice of 1 lemon
Salt, pepper and paprika

If halibut is frozen, let stand at room temperature 30 minutes. Place on greased preheated broiler pan about 2 inches from heat. Brush with melted butter and squeeze half of lemon juice over steak. Sprinkle with seasonings.

Broil 5 to 8 minutes, or until slightly brown. Turn carefully. Repeat melted butter, lemon juice and seasonings. Broil 5 to 8 minutes, or until fish flakes easily.

Top broiled steaks with Marinara sauce. Makes 4 servings.

Marinara Sauce

2 tablespoons salad oil
¼ cup chopped celery
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon cayenne
¼ teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon oregano
½ teaspoon basil
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 No. 2½ can tomatoes

Heat salad oil in a large frying pan. Add celery and cook until tender. Add remaining ingredients and cook over low heat until liquid is reduced and mixture is slightly thick, about 30 minutes. Serve over broiled halibut steaks. Makes enough sauce for 4 servings.

Hot potato salad gets a welcome addition in the form of tuna chunks. Try this recipe now and try it again next summer when you're looking for quick hearty salads.

German Tuna Potato Salad

2 cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) tuna
6 slices bacon, chopped
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
3 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon celery seed
1 cup water
½ cup vinegar
3 cups sliced cooked potatoes
Chopped parsley

Drain tuna. Break tuna into large pieces. Fry bacon in a 10 inch fry pan until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper.

Cook celery and onion in bacon bacon fat until tender. Combine sugar, flour, paprika, salt, and celery seed. Stir into vegetable mixture. Add water and vinegar gradually and cook until thickened, stirring constantly.

Add potatoes, bacon, and tuna. Mix lightly. Cover and cook over low heat for 5 to 10 minutes or until hot and bubbly. Sprinkle with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

You may have some panfish in your freezer, or you may succumb to the appetizing picture on the package of frozen rainbow trout in the store. Either kind will taste wonderful prepared in the following manner.

TROPHY TROUT

3 pounds pan-dressed rainbow trout or other pan-dressed fish, fresh or frozen
1 cup buttermilk
1 package (1¾ or 1⅞ ounces) onion soup mix
1 cup flour
Lemon wedges
Fat for frying

Thaw frozen fish. Clean, wash, and dry fish. Place in a single layer in a shallow baking dish. Combine buttermilk and soup mix. Brush fish inside and out with sauce. Let stand 1 hour. Remove fish from sauce and roll in flour.

Fry fish in hot fat at moderate heat for 4 to 5 minutes or until brown. Turn carefully and fry 4 to 5 minutes longer or until brown and fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Drain on absorbent paper.

Serve with lemon wedges. Makes 6 servings.

Pound Cake From a Mix Dressed Up

Here's a cake that means business. It is a rather heavy, very moist coffee-flavored pound cake with chopped almonds throughout. You top it with a generous amount of butter cream-mocha frosting and garnish with more crunchy almonds.

Almond Mocha Pound Cake

¾ cup whole blanched almonds
1 package (1 lb. 2 oz.) pound cake mix
3 teaspoons instant coffee powder
½ teaspoon almond extract
Milk
½ cup cocoa
3 cups powdered sugar
⅓ cup butter or margarine, softened
1 teaspoon vanilla

Finely chop almonds. Prepare and bake cake mix as package directs, but mix in 1 teaspoon coffee powder, almond extract and all but 2 tablespoons almonds with the last addition of milk. Bake as directed in 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Cool.

Blend cocoa, 2 teaspoons coffee powder and sugar. Cream butter until very soft; alternately beat in cocoa mixture and ½ cup milk, beginning with the former. Add vanilla.

Spread ⅔ frosting on cooled cake. Pipe remaining frosting onto cake as desired. Garnish with remaining almonds. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Run a small spatula round the edge of cupcakes before removing them from their pans.

TROPHY TROUT

Mix a Green Bean and Fruit Salad

"Winter Green Bean Salad" is a tart-sweet salad that's sure to wow appetites. It's simple to prepare, but a sparkling addition to your luncheon or dinner menus.

★ ★ ★

You can easily prepare "Winter Green Bean Salad" ahead of time — simple heat tender Blue Lake green beans in the sweet and sour dressing and chill until ready to use.

★ ★ ★

At serving time, cube avocado and grapefruit, toss with the marinated beans and garnish your quick and flavorful salad with flowerlets of cut cherry tomatoes.

Winter Green Bean Salad

1 can (1 lb.) cut green beans
1 grapefruit
¾ cup salad oil
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
¾ teaspoon salt

Mystery Dip Has Lettuce, Herbs

Combine 1 cup coarsely chopped iceberg lettuce in electric blender with ¼ cup oil and vinegar dressing, 2 tablespoons chopped green onion, ¾ teaspoon salt and ⅛ etaspoon each thyme and sage. Whir until smooth, then continue whirring, gradually adding 2 cups more chopped iceberg and 4 oz. cubed cream cheese.

Chill; serve with crackers. This recipe makes 1¼ cups delectable dip and may be doubled for a large gathering.

teaspoon tarragon, crumbled
Dash white pepper
1 avocado

Drain beans. Section grapefruit, catching 3 tablespoons juice.

Combine juice in saucepan with oil, vinegar, sugar, salt, tarragon and pepper. Add beans and heat through. Remove from heat, cover and chill.

Chill grapefruit segments and the uncut avocado. When ready to serve, halve avocado; discard seed and skin, then cube fruit. Gently toss avocado and grapefruit into bean mixture. Serve in side dishes or spoon into lettuce cups.

Garnish with criss-cross cut cherry tomatoes of you wish. Serve with pork, veal or chicken. Makes 6 servings.

RHUBARB PIE

Hothouse Rhubarb Spells Spring in Pie

At one time, rhubarb in the market was considered one of the first signs of spring, yet rhubarb is not only available frozen the year around but is also showing up in markets long before the ground has thawed.

The early fresh rhubarb is hot-house rhubarb recognizable by its light pink color and yellow leaves. Fresh rhubarb that has never felt the warmth of a hot house has greener stalks and dark green leaves.

Rhubarb is often combined with strawberries for a Strawberry Meringue Pie but it is hard to beat a good deep-dish rhubarb pie served hot and juicy from the oven.

The recipe for the deep-dish pie is given here along with a Rhubarb Custard Pie and Citrus-Rhubarb Pie.

Citrus-Rhubarb Pie

1 recipe pastry for double pie
1¼ cups sugar
¼ cup corn starch
¼ teaspoon salt
5 cups (½-inch pieces) rhubarb
2 teaspoons grated orange or lemon rind
½ cup orange juice
Red food coloring (optional)
2 tablespoons margarine

Divide pastry almost in half. Roll out larger portion and fit into 9-inch pie pan. Trim ½-inch beyond outer rim. Roll out remaining pastry to ⅛-inch thickness. Cut into ¾-inch wide strips.

Mix sugar, corn starch and salt. Add rhubarb, orange or lemon rind and juice. Toss until well mixed. Tint pink, if desired. Turn into pastry shell. Dot with margarine.

Moisten edge of pastry in pan. Arrange pastry strips over rhubarb mixture in lattice pattern. Seal to edge. Turn edge of pastry in and over ends of strips. Flute to form high rim.

★ ★ ★

If desired, brush pastry with milk and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in 400 degrees (hot) oven until filling has bubbles that do not break, 50 to 60 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Note: Frozen rhubarb may be used if desired.

Deep Dish Rhubarb Pie

6 cups (1-inch pieces) fresh rhubarb, about 2 pounds
¾ to 1 cup sugar
½ cup corn starch
⅛ cup light corn syrup
1 tablespoon margarine
1 recipe pastry for single crust pie

Toss rhubarb with sugar and corn starch. Mix on corn syrup; set aside. Roll pastry to about 9-inch square. Cut slits to permit steam to escape during baking.

Put rhubarb mixture into (8x8x2-inch) baking pan. Dot with margarine. Cover with pastry. Fold edges under; flute.

Bake in 425 degrees (hot) oven until rhubarb is tender and crust is browned, 55 to 60 minutes. Makes about 6 servings.

OVEN EASY 'BURGERS

Hamburgers and French Fries Done New Way

What's on the menu for tonight's family dinner? Hamburgers? Meat loaf? Spaghetti and meat balls?

It would be hard to plan family meals without the frequent use of the old standby, ground beef. It's the basis for so many easy, appetizing family meals, it's always a joy to have a new recipe to round out the collection.

★ ★ ★

Here's one quick way to cook hamburger patties so they have a new flavor your family will like.

Mix the ground beef with egg and milk, adding pickle relish and instant minced onion for extra zest, then shape into generous sized patties.

Instead of broiling or panfrying the burgers, bake them in the oven. Fifteen minutes should do the trick; if you like them well-done, bake a little longer.

Along with Oven Easy 'Burgers serve a favorite teammate, French-fried potatoes. They're a snap with today's frozen fries, and for fun, dress them up with such special touches as garlic salt and a sprinkling of shredded Cheddar cheese.

The cheese is sprinkled over the fries just before they finish cooking and it melts right into the hot fries to give them mellow flavor.

Oven Easy 'Burgers and Easy-Cheezy Fries make a great menu for a teenage gathering or a family supper. It's an all oven meal that's a time and labor-saver. Serve with relish sticks or pickles and olives, and plenty of milk to drink.

Oven Easy 'Burgers

1 pound ground beef
1 egg, slightly beaten
¼ cup milk
¼ cup pickle relish
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

In a bowl mix beef, egg, milk, pickle relish, onion, salt and pepper. Shape into 4 patties. Place on a shallow baking pan. Bake in a preheated 425 degree oven 15 minutes. Serve with Easy-Cheezy Fries.

Easy-Cheezy Fries

1 package (1 lb.) frozen French fries
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon garlic salt
1½ cups (6 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese

Spread frozen fries in single layer in a shallow baking pan; bake in a preheated 425-degree oven 7 minutes.

Combine salt and garlic salt; sprinkle ½ the mixture over fries; toss. Return to oven another 7 minutes. Sprinkle the remaining salt mixture over fries; toss. Sprinkle cheese over top.

Place under broiler 2-3 minutes or until cheese is melted and fries are lightly browned. Serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

Take Care in Wrapping Food That's Going to Travel

It is no secret that servicemen around the world look forward to mail call and packages from home. And it is no secret that with today's new plastic food wraps, favorite cakes, cookies and candies can travel thousands of miles and still arrive oven fresh.

★ ★ ★

Take a look at these suggestions, dust off your mixing bowl and prepare to make next week's mail call a special treat for your favorite G.I.

Date bars, fig bars and brownies travel well. Use your favorite recipes and when they are baked and cooled, cut into squares. Wrap each square in plastic wrap and fit them all back into the baking pan — or use one of the aluminum trays that many baked goods are packaged in these days.

Then wrap the entire tray in more plastic wrap, and it is ready to go into the mailing carton.

Cookies will arrive very fresh if they are wrapped in pairs, then placed in a plastic food storage bag. Press out as much air from the bag as possible before securing with a quick-twist tie.

★ ★ ★

If you are not a cookie-baking expert, ready-made favorites from the grocery store such as fig newtons, ginger snaps or oatmeal cookies can be prepared for overseas mailing by wrapping them in twos and threes in plastic wrap, putting them back in their original boxes and wrapping again in plastic before placing in the mailing carton.

Gingerbread, banana bread and cake layers of any variety can be wrapped in plastic, returned to an aluminum cake pan, wrapped again and into the mailing box.

Instead of decorating the cake at home, put in a package of ready-mix icing that only needs water added and let your serviceman add the finishing touches.

★ ★ ★

Homemade candies can be packaged just as cookies. Wrap a few pieces of hard candy in plastic to tuck into the corners of your carton.

In addition to the cakes and cookies, you may fill your box with other favorite items from home such as bouillon cubes, soup mixes, favorite seasonings or chewing gum.

Servicemen in Viet Nam often request sun tan lotion, soap that lathers well in hard water and insect repellent. Remember that all liquids should be in plastic bottles.

★ ★ ★

The Post Office Department suggests that all food packages should be sent air parcel post. Use a heavy cardboard mailing carton and strong cord. Print name and address clearly.

A piece of clear plastic taped over the address will prevent smudging in case of rain. Average time for delivery to Vietnam from A.P.O., San Francisco, is one week.

Applesauce Whip

For a desert that can be made in a jiffy, mix 2 cups applesauce with ground cinnamon to taste and fold into 1 stiffly beaten egg white. Fold in 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Chill and serve.

Fruit and Beets Join in Salad

While the main dish is cooking, arrange these salads. Line individual serving plates with crisp greens. On each, use chilled drained canned grapefruit sections and avocado slices that have been dipped in the grapefruit syrup.

Set off the arrangements with drained canned sliced pickled beets and some thinly sliced onion. For this combination, drizzle French dressing on top.

COZY WINTER WARM-UP — Frosty noses and tingling fingers will warm up in a hurry when you serve chewy Maple Pecan Balls and generous mugs of piping hot cocoa.

Sweet Snack Begins With Puffed Wheat

When your skaters come in with rosy noses and tingling toes it's time to bring out big mugs of steaming cocoa and yummy Maple Pecan Balls. The toasty flavor of puffed wheat and the crunchy goodness of chopped pecans enhanced with maple flavor do a great job of satisfying outdoor appetites.

★ ★ ★

Of course, you don't have to be a winter sports enthusiast to enjoy this delightful confection. Kids of all ages, from the crayon crowd to sit-by-the-fire oldsters find them mighty good nibble food after school, at bedtime, or just TV-ing.

Maple Pecan Balls are fun to make, too. When the mixture is comfortably warm to handle, let the kiddies roll up their sleeves and go to work helping to press the balls together.

Just be sure their hands are lightly coated with butter or margarine so they won't stick to the balls — or to each other!

Maple Pecan Balls

5 cups puffed wheat
1 cup chopped pecans
¾ cup sugar
½ cup water
¼ cup light corn syrup
1 teaspoon vinegar
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
¾ teaspoon maple flavoring

Heat puffed wheat in shallow baking pan in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) about 10 minutes. Pour into large greased bowl. Stir in pecans.

Combine sugar, water, syrup, vinegar and salt in saucepan. Cook over medium heat to soft ball stage (240 degrees) or until syrup dropped into cold water forms a soft ball. Remove from heat. Stir in butter and maple flavoring.

Pour over puffed wheat mixture, stirring until evenly coated. Let cool about 5 minutes. With greased hands, shape to form ten 2½-inch balls, pressing together firmly. Cool.

You've a Choice

There are four different types of pork chops on the market. The center-cut rib and center-cut loin chops are the two most popular cuts. The shoulder rib end chop and the one from the loin end are economy cuts that are just as good tasting as the center cuts. Any of these cuts can be used in a recipe calling for pork chops.

Sugar on Poultry Browns It Well

Poultry is thin skinned. Roast it knowingly. Sugar coat the outside, not for sweetness but for tender succulence and evenly browned results. Sugar retains surface moisture, reduces drying. And by a caramelization process when put to oven heat, sugar browns the surface it covers.

★ ★ ★

Sugar coat roasting is far easier than draping the bird with a cloth previously dipped in melted fat, basting, or turning. As easy as blending equal parts of confectioners' (powdered) sugar and melted butter.

Brush thinly over oven-ready poultry before roasting and again when about two-thirds done. The use of aluminum foil for lining an open, shallow roasting pan, as well as for loose tenting over the bird for two-thirds of the roasting time, is recommended. So is slow roasting temperature.

Use 325 degrees for about 45 minutes per pound for example, when sugar coat roasting a small (under 4 pound) chicken-for-two.

Add Rolled Oats to Tuna Ring

Serve a novel tuna ring for a Lenten dinner.

Combine 2 (7-ounce) cans of tuna, drained and flaked, 1 cup of rolled oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked), ½ cup of cooked peas, 2 tablespoons of chopped onion, 2 teaspoons of salt, ¼ teaspoon of pepper, 2 beaten eggs and 1¼ cups of milk. Place in greased aluminum foil-lined 8-inch ring mold.

Bake in preheated 350-degree oven about 50 minutes, or until set. Invert onto platter. Makes 6 servings.

Unpredictable Rheumatoid Arthritis: Cause, Cure Unknown

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Here, in the second of three articles, a government expert discusses the causes and treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, a crippling disease that afflicts three million Americans.)

By DR. OLEN W. MCDONALD
U.S. Public Health Service
Written for Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — In rheumatoid arthritis, the membrane lining the joint becomes inflamed, which causes swelling, and inflammation spreads to the joint surfaces. The disease is usually symmetrical — if one wrist is affected, the other one will very likely also be affected. If untreated, the joint may become twisted and deformed, and eventually fuse so that all function is lost.

The actual cause of the disease is still unknown. At one time, most doctors thought infection was the cause of nearly all arthritic diseases.

★ ★ ★

Then the presence of a rheumatoid factor in the blood of arthritics, and other findings, led investigators to suspect that arthrities is an autoimmune disease. The body responds to infection or the presence of foreign substances by forming antibodies. In autoimmunity, the body seems to form antibodies against some of its own components, which have been altered in some way.

★ ★ ★

Now many researchers have gone back to the possibility that infection is the cause of arthritis. Rather than simple bacteria, the causative agents may be viruses: "l" forms of bacteria, small, reduced types of known agents such as streptococci; or a type of micro-organism called the mycoplasma — still not too well known, intermediate between bacteria and viruses.

HIT-AND-RUN

Further complicating the picture, the infections could be of the latent or of the hit-and-run type. The virus or other agent could get into the joint and lie dormant until something sets it off years later. On the other hand, the agent could do its damage and then disappear without a trace that it had ever been there.

★ ★ ★

Rheumatoid arthritis often runs an unpredictable course, rarely the same in any two individuals. There can be an initial attack after which the patient is never bothered again for years; the more frequent course is one of flare-ups followed by remission — quiet periods. Your neighbor who tells you in all good faith of his miraculous arthritis cure might have been in a period of remission when he took his grass seed or money and vinegar, if, of course, he actually had rheumatoid arthritis.

Although we urge you to see your physician early in rheumatoid arthritis, he is not the key person in your treatment; you are. As in perhaps no other disease, your doctor can do little for you without your complete cooperation in following his directions. This won't always be easy, particularly when a flare-up seems to undo all your previous hard work.

This up and down course, with its periods of discouragement, makes arthritis a fertile field for misguided enthusiasts and outright quacks. Americans spend an estimated $250 million a year on worthless remedies for arthritis.

NOTHING SPECIFIC

There is no specific cure for arthritis, but the disease and its crippling effects can be controlled. This control can be achieved by several paths. Treatment — including balanced rest and exercise, proper application of heat, judicious use of aspirin and other drugs, physical medicine and surgery — has to be individualized for each patient, and often needs adjusting from time to time.

Within each type of treatment, there are frequently several methods; which ones your doctor uses depend on which he thinks you need, and with which he is most familiar and so can apply most skillfully. Your treatment may thus differ in some details from that of other arthritic patients.

Though it seems simplest, the most important aspect of treatment is physical: rest, exercise, and heat. The patient's need rest and, at other times, will need exercise, and only the physician can determine when either is needed. Usual activities, such as at work, cannot substitute for prescribed exercises. These usual activities may even cause more damage to the joint.

Generally, the joint is rested during the flare-up periods. This rest might simply be staying off an affected foot or not using a sore wrist, or it may take the form of temporary splinting. Temporary, removable splints are often used while the patient sleeps to help prevent the joint from going into positions which lead to deformity.

MOTION RANGE

Exercises fall into two types: those designed to maintain range of motion in the joint, and those designed to strengthen muscles around the joint.

Right here is where the treatment of arthritis often falls down: exercises have to be done faithfully and properly if they are going to do any good. The exercises are not difficult, but regularity is the key. Most patients find that doing the exercises at the same time each day works best; the routine soon becomes as natural as brushing one's teeth.

★ ★ ★

Application of heat is a standard part of the routine in arthritis treatment. This application can be by means of moist packs or paraffin baths, or other ways comfortable for the patient. The prime purpose of the heat is to make the joint feel better, so it is generally used just before the exercises.

If the arthritic gets any relief from the liniments, lotions, mineral baths, etc., which are so widely advertised, it's simply because he's found an expensive way of applying heat to his joints. A heating pad is not as dramatic, but it's a lot less expensive — and usually more effective.

Big Four Ready to Battle for Clarkston District Cage Title

Rochester Five Ousts L. Orion

The preliminaries are over and now the earnest sparring begins in the Rochester Class A and D district basketball tournaments.

Host Rochester disposed of Lake Orion, 76-66, last night to complete the semifinal pairings in Class A. Monday night's "D" opener found St. Frederick outclassing Roeper School of Bloomfield Hills to finalize those semifinals.

Tonight's twin bill has St. Fred meeting St. Mike at 7 o'clock and Troy playing Lapeer at 8:30. Thursday, Emmanuel Christian will play Waterford Our Lady in "D" at 7 p.m. and Rochester will tangle with Utica at 8:30 p.m.

The Falcons defeated Lake Orion for the third time in a game that was typical of the frustrated Dragons' season.

LONG SKID

The defeat was the 12th in a row for Orion and capped a 1-16 season. Of their final 12 losses, the Dragons stayed within 10 points of their conquerors in eight of them.

Last night they held brief leads in the first quarter, but fell behind by five at the halftime as Don Golding's 10 points in the second quarter led Rochester to a 33-28 margin.

The winners upped their lead to 10 points in the third quarter only to see Orion climb within four twice. The loss of 6-4 center Bill Foss on personal fouls in the period hurt the losers.

Golding, who finished with 24 points, left via the same route in the final period, but Orion balanced this by losing high scorer Judd Bankert (21 points, 12 in final half) later in the session.

The losing Dragons actually had a 25-24 advantage in field goals but their 25-18 personal foul disadvantage enabled Rochester to sink 28 of 41 free throws and take the decision.

★ ★ ★

Jim Burton made 11 points in the last half to aid Rochester. The Falcons are now 10-8 and guaranteed of a winning record.

Golf Pros Set for Tough Test

Rodgers Defending Title in Doral Outing

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Golfers who prefer the challenge of a long, tough course will find Doral to their liking — 7,002 yards of agony and hazards that have made the course The Blue Monster in golf lexicon.

When a choice field of pros tees off Thursday in the $100,000 tourney, it'll be strictly man versus par on the palm-fringed but also water-trapped layout.

★ ★ ★

In the six-year history of the tournament, winners who banked the $20,000 prize have always broken par — two-under for an average. But this year the monster may look tougher to the field that includes Arnold Palmer, the only PGA two-tourney winner this year, Jack Nicklaus, and defending champion Phil Rodgers.

★ ★ ★

During a remeasurement of the course for rating, par was reduced on the 10th hole from 5 to 4 for the maximum-permitted 470 yards.

STRONG BIDDERS

As in most tourneys, Palmer and Nicklaus, who have never conquered the par-71 Doral, are considered strong bidders. Billy Casper, two-time Doral winner, is on a tour of the Orient.

★ ★ ★

Also vying are former winners Dan Sikes and Doug Sanders, 1967 PGA winners Bob Goalby, Tom Nieporte and Julius Boros, plus budding stars like Tom Weiskopf, Homero Blancas, Ray Floyd, Randy Glover, Rives McBee and John Schlee.

And ageless Slamming Sam Snead, who missed top prize by a shot four years ago, also will contend for the championship.

Wolves Roll Past Waterford; PNH Plays Kettering Tonight

By DON VOGEL

The Big Four are ready to get down to the business of struggling over the Class A district basketball championship at Clarkston.

Clarkston made sure the semifinal field is a classy one by rolling past Waterford, 78-58, in the district opener last night. Dan Fife paced the voctory with 33 points.

★ ★ ★

Other members of the foursome are Pontiac Northern, Waterford Kettering and Pontiac Central. The Big Four will become the Remaining Three after tonight's major battle between PNH and Kettering at 7:30.

The winner will advance to Saturday night's district championship game. Clarkston now has the task of trying to get past PCH Thursday.

Should Kettering and Clarkston win, the finale will be a battle between two of the top 10 teams in the state. The Captains are rated fifth and Clarkston 10th.

However, both face major obstacles. PNH is champion of the Inter-Lakes League and Central came close to sharing the Saginaw Valley crown.

NOT RANKED

Although not ranked in the top 10, both Pontiac teams are given an outside chance at the state title. Many experts feel they will be the teams in the district final.

★ ★ ★

Regardless of which team comes out on top, the Clarkston district will be one of the most successful financially in the state. Over 2,000 fans jammed the gym last night and more are expected for tonight's game between PNH and Kettering.

The total attendance for four nights should top 9,000.

Clarkston started slowly against Waterford, but picked up momentum as the game progressed and led by 15-28 points from the middle of the second period.

Sharp defensive play by Tom Allen, Randy Nicoson and Fife knocked the Skippers off stride early and they never recovered. Meanwhile, Fife was stuffing in 12 points in the first period as the wolves raced to a 19-10 lead.

They increased the margin to 27-12 on baskets by Gary Ostrum, Allen and Nicoson and a pair of free throws by Fife. Waterford rallied behind the shooting of Ron Stafford and Bill Hill to cut the deficit to 32-21. The Skippers never came closer.

The Wolves continued to pull away and led, 44-27, at the half.

Waterford may have made a better second period showing if the Skippers had made their free throws. They connected on only three of eight and three of the misses were one-and-one.

Four missed layups also hurt in the second stanza.

The Wolves dominated the backboards. They outrebounded Waterford, 44-27, with Fife hauling down 14. Mark Erickson grabbed nine and Rick Bass speared seven.

On offense, the Wolves connected on 17 of 30 field goal tries in the first half and wound up with a 29 of 64 mark.

The Skippers couldn't penetrate the Clarkston defense and were forced to shoot from outside. They made 23 of 55 after going nine of 23 in the opening half.

Stafford pumped in six long jumpers in the second half to pace the Skippers with 18 points. Hill, also hitting from outside, contributed 17.

Nicoson scored 15 for Clarkston and Allen added 11.

Groves Reaches Finals of Birmingham District

Birmingham Groves powered past Berkley, 60-46, last night to advance to the Class A district basketball finals at Birmingham Seaholm.

Northwestern, the Detroit city champion and No. 1 ranked team in the final Associated Press poll, downed Detroit Murray Wright 59-44.

Third - ranked Muskegon Heights plays Muskegon Mona Shores tonight in second round play. Groves meets the winner of tonight's Bloomfield Hills-Birmingham Brother Rice game in district finals Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Detroit Central and Detroit Cass Tech play tonight and the winner has the dubious honor of playing Northwestern.

★ ★ ★

Darius Banks scored 17 points in leading Northwestern past Murray Wright, Northwestern, now 15-0, led 31-26 at the half.

Roy Iceberg led Groves with 14 points as the team won its 18th straight. Groves led Berkley 30-15 at the half.

15-2 RECORD

Kalamazoo Central defeated Kalamazoo Loy Norris 63-49. Sam Simmons paced Central with 21 points as his team moved its record to 15-2.

Saginaw, co-champion of the Saginaw Valley League, crushed Saginaw MacArthur 92-40. Adrian Prince dumped in 21 points as Saginaw moved its record to 15-2.

Jim Cooper hit a field goal with 20 seconds left and handed Mount Pleasant a 60-58 victory over Midland. Cooper totaled 18 points for Midland, while teammate Dave MacDonald had 20.

Harper Woods Notre Dame crushed Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher 89-54, Alcona Community defeated Whittemore-Prescott 88-81 and Southfield beat Detroit Redford Union 63-60.

Port Huron Northern won its first game of the season, beating Port Huron 68-61. Jim Burnell led Northern with 23 points.

And Detroit Kettering won its first game ever, beating Detroit Northern 65-53. This was the first varsity season for Detroit Kettering, which hadn't been able to win a basketball game.

Oyler, McAuliffe Switch

Spotlight on Tiger Infield

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla. — Unlike the smokers, Detroit Tiger infielders Dick McAuliffe and Ray Oyler would rather switch than fight.

They were the center of attention in the opening infield drills of spring training camp Monday, and the final judgment of their position switches probably won't come until the regular season in Detroit is well under way.

★ ★ ★

Manager Mayo Smith made known his planned experiment of switching McAuliffe to second base and putting Oyler at shortstop fulltime many weeks before camp started.

"I'm not saying this is the answer to our infield problem but we'll give it long look. Who knows?," asked Smith.

Both players were agreeable to the switch and the job of helping them make the move falls on the shoulders of coach Tony Cuccinello, longtime infield veteran of seven major league teams.

"McAuliffe played second base a few years back and we know he can do the job. His biggest weakness is the pivot on the double play. He has a tendency to try to rush his throw while off balance, and this could be dangerous," said Cuccinello.

McAuliffe, himself, is confident he can do the job. "It will be a matter of getting used to the position and working on the pivot relay, but I'm sure I'll have the hang of it when the season gets started."

Cuccinello said he thought the switch would be good for Oyler. "We know he has a strong glove and playing more could help his bat."

Oyler had an anemic bat last season. He played in 71 games for 210 times at bat and hit only .171. He offered no threat as a clutch hitter with only seven runs batted in.

"The opportunity is there. It's up to me to make it or blow the chance," said Oyler. Batting coach Wally Moses has had special sessions with Oyler in the batting cage with "Iron Mike" the automatic pitcher.

"The infield, with Don Wert at third, Oyler, McAuliffe and Norm Cash, should make it as good defensively as any in the league, and if we're going to have a batting weakness it might as well be at short," said Moses.

"However, this weakness can't be an indefinite thing. We think we can bring his batting average up," Moses added.

Anything over .200 would be an improvement for Oyler, who has hit .188 and .171 in two seasons with the Tigers. He has hit only .231 and .240 in winter ball in Puerto Rico.

Oyler came to Lakeland almost immediately from the Puerto Rico winter leagues. "I don't know how much the batting cage has helped me, but it certainly hasn't hurt me," he noted.

After the starting infield, along with Oyler, the Tigers are woefully weak at the plate. Smith decided that Dick Tracewski would be the backup man for Oyler at shortstop and Jerry Lumpe and Jake Wood would back McAuliffe at second.

Rookie Dave Campbell is being groomed to backup Cash at first and rookie Tom Matchick is Wert's understudy at third.

Tracewski, like Oyler, has only a .194 average to show for his 124 at bats in 1966; Lumpe is a question mark because of his ailing legs, both of which had muscle pulls last season.

Early guesses are that seven infielders, five outfielders, three catchers and 10 pitchers will make the final roster.

However, observers feel that with the bullpen being the most serious problem on the team, Smith may change his mind and go along with added pitching help, cutting the catching and infielding departments.

At any rate, of the 20 pitchers in camp, there are at least eight or 10 who know they are on borrowed time.

Detroit Miscue Helps Lakers to 119-117 Win

NEW YORK (AP) — Pistons Player-Coach Dave DeBusschere piled up 21 points Tuesday night, but he fumbled the ball when it counted and Los Angeles chalked up a 119-117 National Basketball Association victory over Detroit.

It was tied with 35 seconds to go when Laker Jerry West fired in a jump shot. Eddie Miles missed a foul shot and the Lakers got the ball, but Detroit took possession again with only six seconds left.

HOLLED AWAY

DeBusschere killed Detroit's last chance when he lost the inbounds pass and it rolled out of bounds.

West led all scorers with 34 points and Elgin Baylor put in 24 more for the Lakers. Dave Bing and Miles each had 22 for the Pistons.

Easy Victory in City Loop

Country Chef rolled to an easy 58-34 victory last night over Lee's Lawn & Garden to hang onto the No. 2 spot in city International League recreation basketball action.

In a second game, Local 596 (6-5) downed Orchard Lanes (5-7), 59-56.

Down 17-14 after one quarter, Country Chef (8-4) came back to take a 27-24 halftime lead and then outscored the losers in the second half, 31-10.

Dan Gillen led the winners with 15 points and teammate Tom Negoshian added 15. Boyd Daniels led the losers (4-9) with 11.

★ ★ ★

Local 596 was down 26-21 at intermission, but the union men poured in 22 points in the third period to take a one-point lead and they traded buckets with the losers in the final frame.

Bob Love and Willie Peck pushed in 16 points apiece to pace the winners while Art. Larson collected 17 for Orchard Lanes.

Illinois Appeal Before Faculty

CHICAGO (UPI) — The University of Illinois' appeal of a Big Ten order to fire three coaches or get out of the conference comes before a faculty group tomorrow, and there was no clue what action they would take.

Actually some of the conference's faculty representatives began their annual spring meeting today, but only in committee sessions dealing with other subjects. Still the matter of Illinois' appeal will be uppermost in casual conversations.

The full group of faculty will convene early Thursday.

World Record Set on Water

A new world's record for 225-cubic inch powerboats of 89 miles per hour in a five-mile competition race was set recently at the annual St. Petersburg (Fla.) Regatta by Detroiters Dick Gordon and Ed Morgan.

They are members of the Marine Prop Riders Association which sponsors the Loon Lake Powerboat Regatta that is tentatively set for June 18 this year.

Rally Carries Holly to Tourney Triumph

Holly moved ahead, but Northville fell by the wayside last night in state Class B district basketball tournament action.

At Howell, Holly, down 51-42 after three quarters, tossed in 25 points in the final frame to defeat Howell, 67-63, and advance to the semifinals.

The lineup at Howell now finds Brighton meeting Linden tonight at 7:30 with the winner taking on Fowlerville at 8:30 Friday. The other Friday game has Holly meeting Fenton at 7 p.m. Winners meet in the finals Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Northville jumped off to an 18-9 first quarter lead in its own district, but Clarenceville came on strong in the next three periods to post a 60-50 verdict. In the other game at Northville, South Lyon was turned back by Dearborn Riverside, 79-64.

Action will continue at Northville Thursday with Clarenceville meeting Lutheran West at 7 p.m. and Riverside taking on Dearborn Crestwood in the 8:45 nightcap. Winners tangle Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

APPLIES PRESSURE

Holly, owner of a modest 7-10 record, applied defensive pressure in the final period to nip Howell:

★ ★ ★

Led by Greg Averyhardt who collected 13 points in the fourth frame, Holly hit on 10 of 20 shots from the field and pulled even with their host with three minutes left.

Averyhardt finished with 30 points to lead all scorers, while Gary Itsell (21) and Tom Austin sparked the losers.

John Thompson collected 22 points in pacing Clarenceville to its upset victory. Mark Devendorff tossed in 12 and Ron Ray added 11 to assist Thompson. Jim Peterson and Joe Andrews picked up 11 each for Northville.

★ ★ ★

South Lyon fell behind 41-28 at halftime and spent the rest of the game in an unsuccessful catch-up effort.

LEADS ATTACK

Bruce Dyer paced Riverside with 25 points, with help from Tim Marabeas (15) and Rob Barnett (15). Larry Brown tossed in 24 for South Lyon and Bruce Taylor added 13.

At Marlette in another 'B' clash, Imlay City (14-3) rolled past Marlette, 61-46, to earn a shot at Millington in the semifinals Thursday at 8:30 p.m.

John Donovan (17) and John Topie (16) led the winners who owned a 29-20 lead at halftime. Dale Hager tossed in 17 markers for Marlette.

In Class A action at Royal Oak Kimball, the host Kimball Knights came from behind in the fourth period to down Center Line, 50-48.

The Knights were down by 11 points with 3:24 left in the game, but Larry Lancaster, who scored eight of his 13 points in the fourth, hit his fourth field goal of the period to tie the game at 48 with 36 seconds left, and teammate Ed Stafford added two free throws 12 second later for the winning points.

At Warren Fitzgerald in another Class A tourney, the host Fitzgerald quintet rolled past Warren, 53-52, to earn a spot in the semifinals against Warren Lincoln Thursday at 8:30.

Boycott Hinted by Pro Cagers Over Pension

Players May Stage Sit-Down Strike if Demands Aren't Met

NEW YORK (AP) — A threat of a players' boycott of the upcoming National Basketball Association playoffs loomed today in an atmosphere of confusion.

A retroactive pension plan is at the heart of the controversy. The players say they have discussed this matter with the league; the league says no.

The player representatives of the league's 10 teams announced at a meeting here Tuesday that they would stage a sit-down strike if their demands aren't met by the time the playoffs begin in three weeks.

"The major part of our differences with the owners is that the pension program they offer is far short," said Lawrence Fleischer, the players' attorney. "We received what seems to be their final offer last Friday, and it was rejected unanimously here by the player representatives."

NEWS CONFERENCE

NBA President Walter Kennedy countered with a news conference at halftime of the first game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

Kennedy said he first knew of the players association's announcement when he received a telegram at 3:35 p.m., stating:

★ ★ ★

"Player association at a meeting today, voted unanimously to turn down proposals of Board of Governors in replay to our request. (signed) Oscar Robertson."

He also said that he had held a series of meetings last week with Fleisher and that a retroactive pension plan was not discussed. In fact, he said, the players had never made a request for such a plan known to the league.

★ ★ ★

However, Al Attles, the San Francisco player representative, said Tuesday night:

"It was my understanding that it (the retroactive plan) has been discussed."

Sets World Record

INZELL, Germany (UPI) — Holland's Ard Schenk flashed over 1,000-meters in one minute, 20.6 seconds Thursday to establish a new world record, his second in four days, on the final day of competition of the International Speed Skating Championships.

Coach Praises Big Ten

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Big Ten is much tougher in basketball than people think and its champion will be strong in the playoffs, says Michigan State Coach John Benington, whose team could be that champ.

"Our league has been so close, our own people are knocking each other off," he told newsmen Tuesday. "But they'll hold their own with anyone.

★ ★ ★

"I wouldn't be surprised to see the Big Ten gepresentative get by the Midwest regional tournament," he added.

To win the title, MSU would have to win all of its last three games—against Purdue Saturday, Minnesota Monday and Northwestern March 11 — and front - running Indiana would have to lose two games.

Three MSU victories and one Indiana loss would result in a tie and, Benington joked, this is "the year of the tie."

TWO TIES

The MSU- Notre Dame football game, which was to have decided the national championship, ended in a 10-10 tie and 10-10 tie and the MSU soccer team was eliminated from the national toursament after a tie game.

MSU meets Purdue and Northwestern at home.

End of Line for ROSM, Oxford

Romeo, OL St. Mary in Tourney Wins

By JERE CRAIG

Four teams probably eliminated themselves from consideration for regional, not to mention state championships, Tuesday night in the Class B and C districts' doubleheader at Pontiac Northern.

Neither victorious Romeo nor Orchard Lake St. Mary showed the ability to finish off a lesser-talented foes after posting healthy leads, and both won despite farm - from - sharp ball handling displays.

Mike Kowalski's basket with nine seconds to play handed OLSM a 49-48 victory over Royal Oak St. Mary in the Class C opener; then Rick Schapman sparked Romeo pasted Oxford, 82-68, in "B."

OL St. Mary will meet tonight's Country Day-Our Lady of Sorrows' winner in the 8 p.m. "C" championship game Friday.

★ ★ ★

The West Bloomfield - Avondale survivor tonight qualifies to play district-favorite Romeo for the "B" title at 8 p.m. Saturday.

HOT HANDS

The Bulldogs reached the final game by virtue of superior shooting against Oxford. They trailed only once in the game, 13-12, and led by as many as 13 earlier in the final half before the Wildcats clawed back to a 56-52 deficit.

But Schapman hit five out of five from the floor in the fourth quarter — including two fast break layups that shot the lead back to 13. It grew to 17 just before the final buzzer.

He finished with 11 of 17 and 12 rebounds in the game. The Bulldogs had a 36-27 field goal advantage although only taking three more shots than Oxford.

Turnovers marred both team efforts, with Oxford committing 20 of the 34 in the game.

Dwight Ford made 6 of 12 tries and grabbed 11 rebounds, while teammate Bob Ruddick pulled down 15 retrieves and made 5 of 13 shots to contribute significantly to the victory.

★ ★ ★

Roger Miller needed almost two-thirds of the game to find his shooting touch, then sizzled to an 18-point final half, making 8 of 16 shots (including 5 of 8 in the last period.) He finished with 22 points and 16 rebounds in the final game of a four-year varsity career.

Ted Pearson showed promise for next year by grabbing 14 rebounds and scoring 15 points.

The Orchard Lake St. Mary conquest was a topsy-turvy, mistake-marred contest that provided most of the night's thrills for the small turnout in spite of 32 violations.

Early in the second half the Eaglets upped their 27-16 halftime margin to 35-19. Then their floor violations enabled ROSM to develop some momentum and it kept closing the gap until finally taking the lead at 46-45 on Mike Charette's field goal with 2:50 remaining in the game.

The Irish, though, only scored two more free throws — Mike Herman's two tosses with 26 seconds left — and after Kowalski's dramatic jumer from the foul line at the nine-second mark, managed just a wild toss at the final buzzer.

ROSM hit 13 of 27 field tries in the last half but still was outshot for the game, 21-19, as both teams took 62 shots. The defending district titlists also had a 47-42 rebounding edge with Kowalski controlling 16 and Greg Foer 12.

In both instances, the games were the rubber match in the season series between league opponents.

IN THIRD PLACE — Cynthia and Ronald Kaufman of Seattle, Wash., perform in the World Figure Skating Championships yesterday in Vienna, Austria. They placed third in the compulsory figures behind Russian and West German pairs during the first day of competition.

Showdown in Skate Meet

American Duo Trails; Miss Fleming Leads

VIENNA (AP) — An American duo faced an uphill battle and a pair of veteran Russians were set for a dramatic showdown today as the first title went on the line in the 1967 World Figure Skating Championships.

Cynthia and Ronald Kauffman of Seattle, Wash., were in third place in the pairs competition going into today's decisive free skating. They had 97.9 points, better than the 96.8 for the West German duo of Margot Glockshuber and Wolfgang Danne but still trailed the Germans in the intricate scoring system.

★ ★ ★

The husband-wife team of Ludmilla Belousova and Oleg Protopopov of Russia, the aging defending champions, whirled through driving rain and squalls in the opening compulsory competition on an open-air rink Tuesday to take the lead with 102.2 points.

Peggy Fleming of Colorado Springs, Colo., took the lead in the women's competition on opening day, while Scotty Allen of Smoke Rise, N.J., and Gary Visconti of Detroit were third and fourth in the men's.

Champion Emmerich Danzer of Austria and teammate Wolfgang Schwarz, the two inseparables since last year's championships, hold a one-two lead in the men's division, followed by Allen and Visconti.

Leads All-America Team

Alcindor Cage Player of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor, UCLA's super-sophomore, was named today as the college basketball Player of The Year by The Associated Press.

The agile, 7-foot-1¾ giant spread-eagled the field in the separate balloting that accompanied the voting for the 1967 All-America team which was announced Tuesday.

Alcindor, a native New Yorker who has lived up to all the rosy predictions made when he was still in high school, received 215 of 290 votes cast. Far behind in second place was Jim Walker of Providence with 49.

★ ★ ★

"Alcindor, who else?" was the comment of many voters.

Westley Unseld of Louisville's Missouri Valley Conference champions, was third with eight votes. Clem Haskins of Western Kentucky, Ron Widby of Tennessee and Bob Lloyd of Rutgers tied for fourth with four votes each.

Bob Verga of Duke, Eldridge Webb of Tulsa, Mel Daniels of New Mexico, and Larry Miller of North Carolina, Don May of Dayton, Sam Williams of Iowa received one vote each.

FIRST TEAM

Alcindor dominated even more the voting for the All-America by 308 sports writers and broadcasters, 18 of whom did not participate in the separate balloting for player of the year.

Big Lew received 305 first team votes in the A-A voting for a total of 1,530 points on the basis of five for a first and two for a second team nod. He did not receive any second team votes which meant he was ignored completely by just two voters.

Selected on the first team with Alcindor were Walker, Unseld, Haskins and Elvin Hayes, the Big E of Houston, who did not receive any vote for player of the year.

Verga, Widby, Miller and Lloyd were named to the second team along with Louie Dampier of Kentucky, who slipped from the 1966 first team.

Daniels was chosen on the third team with Butch Beard of Louisville, Sonny Dove of St. John's, New York, Jim Burns of Northwestern and David Lattin of Texas Western.

First Team

Lew Alcindor, UCLA, 7-foot-1½, sophomore, from New York City.
Jim Walker, Providence, 6-3, senior, Boston.
Westley Unseld, Louisville, 6-8, junior, Louisville, Ky.
Clem Haskins, Western Kentucky, 6-3, senior, Campbellsville, Ky.
Elvin Hayes, Houston, 6-8, junior, Rayville, La.

Second Team

Bob Verga, Duke, 6-0, senior, Sea Girt, N.J.
Ron Widby, Tennessee, 6-4, senior, Knoxville.
Bob Lloyd, Rutgers, 6-1, senior, Upper Darby, Pa.
Larry Miller, North Carolina, 6-3, junior, Catasauqua, Pa.
Louie Dampier, Kentucky, 6-0, senior, Indianapolis.

Third Team

Butch Beard, Louisville, 6-3, sophomore, Hardinsburg, Ky.
Sonny Dove, St. John's, New York, 6-8, senior, Springfield Gardens, N.Y.
Mel Daniels, New Mexico, 6-9, senior, Detroit.
Jim Burns, Northwestern, 6-4, senior, McLeansboro, Ill.
David Lattin, Texas Western, 6-7, junior, Houston, Tex.

Gains Share of Cage Title

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Kalamazoo College captured at least a share of the MIAA college basketball title Tuesday night as it routed Adrian 93-75 in the final conference game for both teams.

Kalamazoo boasts a 10-2 conference record. Adrian is 2-10.

Hope College, with a 9-2 conference record, meets Albion tonight, and a Hope victory would give them equal billing for the title.

Tom Crawford poured in 25 points for Kalamazoo and Gene Nusbaum added 23.

High scorers for Adrian were Paul Martini and Jim Ingledue, each with 17.

Coach Gains 100th Victory

Veteran swimming coach John Wieck recorded his 100th victory last night as he guided Warren Fitzgerald to a 67-38 victory over Royal Oak Dondero.

Wieck, in his 10th season at Fitzgerald, has rolled up a 13-2 record this year.

Allen Making Sales Pitch

By the Associated Press

When a guy grows up in Wampum, Pa., it's only natural that he develop a more than passing interest in money.

And when he hits .317, belts 40 home runs and knocks in 110 runs, the interest becomes intense.

So Rich Allen is prepared to spend this summer selling automobiles instead of belting baseballs unless the Philadelphia Phillies fill his pockets with cash.

★ ★ ★

Specifically, Allen is asking for $100,000, which is considerably more wampum than he got last year. He figures his figures make him worth the investment. But John Quinn, Philadelphia's general manager, who holds the purse strings, hasn't been swayed yet.

"Quinn saw me all last summer," argues Allen, who is keeping busy selling cars. "He knows what I did, what I didn't do. He talks about my salary going up a little each year.

Allen said he started thinking about this year's contract and the $100,000 figure when he was hurt last summer. He missed 24 games with a lame shoulder.

"That's all a player has got — his body," reasons Rich. "If I'd be seriously hurt so I couldn't play, what would I have? Nothing."

So Allen, who made $42,000 last year, decided to ask for six figures this season. He likes the security that kind of money provides.

Timberland Sanctuary Fund Drive Is Extended

The Eastern Michigan Nature Association has extended its drive to raise funds for the Timberland Swamp Sanctuary until April 30.

That is the date the 160-acre tract in Springfield Township will be opened to the public. Timberland sanctuary is part of the 900 - acre Andersonville Swamp.

Miss Bertha A. Daubendiek, executive director of EMNA, reports that only 25 per cent of the $4,000 goal has been raised.

Today was the original deadline.

Contributions can be made to Timberland Committee, Box 128, Davisburg, Mich., 48019. The committee is hoping to raise the funds to complete purchase of the land.

The EMNA is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation of local native wildlife. Lakeville Swamp Nature Sanctuary in northeastern Oakland County also is an association project.

* * *

When opened to the public, Timberland will be accessible from the end of Ware Road. No roads pass through the tract.

WINTER PLUMAGE — Timberland Swamp Nature Center in Springfield Township is blanketed in white these days. But this doesn't keep James Card (left). 794 Alpena, and Dave Pilkington, 960 Myrtle, from exploring its many acres. They are members of the Timberland committee which is attempting to raise funds for the Eastern Michigan Nature Association project in part of the large Andersonville Swamp.

Chinook Salmon Plant Scheduled This Spring

Introductory plantings of 850,000 young chinook (king) salmon will be made in three northern Michigan streams this spring.

* * *

Plans for the Conservation Department's first plantings of these new fish are to liberate some 500,000 chinooks in the Muskegon River between Croton and Newaygo.

Another 300,000 will go into the Little Manistee between Nine and Six Mile bridges east of Stronach.

The remaining 50,000 chinooks will be stocked in the Big Huron near Big Erick's Bridge east of Skanee in Baraga County.

Department fisheries officials report that the fish will be planted as soon as the chinooks reach three to four inches, hopefully around May 1. They will be released before June 1, at the latest.

If the chinooks grow at the rate of cohos, a few are expected to return to the three planted streams as two year-olds in the fall of 1968.

Some large adults should appear in 1969, with the main chinook runs expected to occur in the fourth year of their life cycle — 1970.

* * *

Many chinooks may grow to the 15-40 pound class within their three-five year life cycle.

In other fish-planting plans announced, the department will step up its second-year releases of coho salmon to about 2.2 million this spring.

* * *

Again in line to be stocked are the Platte River, Benzie County, Bear Creek in Manistee County, and Baraga County's Big Huron River which received approximately 850,000 cohos under last year's first plantings of these fish.

ADDITIONAL WATERS

New to this year's coho planting list are the Little Manistee River, Manistee County, and Thompson Creek, Schoolcraft County.

Thompson Creek near Manistique will receive cohos raised from an Alaskan strain which has shown a high degree of adaptability to fresh water.

This spring's coho plantings are set for the last part of April, the exact time depending upon weather conditions. The fish will average five-six inches, same as last year.

Deer Starvation Losses Showing Up

CADILLAC (AP)—Michigan's deer herds, already thinned by the hunter's gun and the speeding car, have to avoid starvation to survive the winter.

* * *

John Byelich, a Conservation Department game biologist, predicted today that deer in Lower Michigan will begin dying from starvation within the next two weeks if weather conditions don't improve.

* * *

"The cold and the deep, frozen snow are stopping the deer from getting to the mosses," said Byelich.

"In fact, many of the deer have started eating red pine. They can't digest it. But it's the only food they can get."

Byelich said the winter weather severity index now stands at 84. When it reaches 100, he said, the deer will start dying from starvation.

SNOW DEPTH

The severity index is calculated by timing how much electricity it takes to keep 10 pounds of water in a pressure cooker at 40 degrees, then combining the figure with the depth and compactness of the snow.

Game biologists in the Upper Peninsula report that three or four deer there have died of starvation. The severity index in the Upper Peninsula, where snowfall has been heavier and the cold far more severe, ranges between 112 in Wakefield to 76 at Crystal Falls.

* * *

Many more deer in the Upper Peninsula are close to starvation.

The Conservation Department said that in examining deer killed by cars, they found the marrow content of the deer was very low. That means the deer have used up all their natural fat reserves and can't live much longer.

* * *

"In the winter," said David Arnold, a deer expert working for the Conservation Department, "the deer cluster into yards in the forest. These are simply clearings, sheltered from winds and deep snow by giant evergreens."

"But," Arnold said, "they soon eat all the food in the yards. And the deep snow's stopping them from getting out of the clearing to forage for more food."

Deeryard Tours Set in Northern Areas

Public deeryard tours have been set by the Conservation Department for various parts of the northern Lower Peninsula.

The guided field trips, aimed at giving people a first-hand look at conditions facing deer during the winter, are scheduled for these dates, originating from the following department installations:

* * *

March 12, Harrison and West Branch field offices; and April 2, Baldwin field office and Gaylord district headquarters.

* * *

April 16, the stoplight corner in the village of Vanderbilt is the starting place for an elk tour into the Pigeon River Area.

Each of the organized Sunday outings will begin at 10 a. m. and last until approximately 3 p. m., which means that followers should pack field lunches.

Spectators should wear waterproof footgear and warm, but light clothing to make their travels afield as comfortable as possible. These trips will be routed by field men so that snowshoes will not be necessary.

* * *

No reservations are needed to take part in the "show me" excursions, but each individual or touring party must make its own transportation arrangements.

WHERE AND HOW

As in the past, none of the tours will be laid out to see deer, dead or alive. Instead, they will be charted to show people where and how deer weather the winter.

* * *

Department field men will draw attention to signs of overbrowsing by deer and point out different types of natural foods, including choice and so-called "stuffing" species, upon which deer either pull through the winter or die.

* * *

Touring groups will also be guided through areas in and around deeryards where timber cuttings by the department and commercial loggers are easing winter food shortages for deer.

FEATURED — Former professional archery champion Ann Clark will present one of the feature acts in "The Parade of Champions" during the Detroit Sportsmen's and Vacation Show at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum March 3-12.

State Expected to Gain Scenic White Fish Falls

LANSING (AP) — Laughing White Fish Falls and its remote, forested gorge finally seem assured of being saved as a scenic spot for the people of Michigan.

The Conservation Commission and the Parks Department have been eyeing the falls since as long ago as 1950.

An exchange with the Celotex Corp., owner of the area, was authorized at the December 1965 meeting of the commission.

Ted Tucker, of the department's Land Division, said the exchange agreement finally has been worked out. Tucker is hopeful that the state will be able to take title to the land some time in mid-summer.

The falls looks from a distance like a cut-out creation of lace as the water travels down a series of rock ledges.

Only the inaccessibility of the deep gorge in Alger County saved the climax growth of virgin white pine, hemlock and other hardwoods.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Oswald: "South's jump to four spades was an overbid."

Jim: "Not much of an overbid, but certainly a trifle more than conservative."

JACOBY

Oswald: "This type of overbid frequently pays off. This one did after South gave the hand a very good play."

Jim: "A good play but a standard one for handling the situation when you miss the ace-king-jack and ten of trumps."

Oswald: "South won the diamond opening and led his deuce of spades. West played the ten and South played the six from dummy. East took his king — he had to, and all South had to do to make his contract was to lead a second spade toward dummy's queen later."

* * *

Jim: "This is the sort of play that is almost automatic for a really good player but is missed by many others."

Oswald: "It is a matter of percentage. South doesn't really care about which opponent holds which trumps if each one holds two. If they are going to break 3-1 there is no way to avoid losing three trump tricks if East holds all three.

"If West holds three declarer has already seen the ten on the table. If East's single-ton is the jack the low play costs South his contract; if it is the ace or king the low play brings it home."

Jim: "There is even more going for South when he plays low in this situation. If West started with ace-king-ten there is an excellent chance that he would have opened a trump. There is also an excellent chance that he would have gone up with the king on South's actual play."

Oswald: "There sure is! It takes a real clairvoyant to be smart enough to duck with that holding."

Noise-Conscious Device Keeps Tabs on Children

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — A signal that tells a schoolbus operator when the noise level is too high received patent No. 3,304,368 recently.

Joseph L. Ford and Richard L. Rounder of Brownsburg, Ind., received the patent.

The noise-level system is designed to take some of the pressure off the harried driver by protecting his eardrums. When the children's voices reach a certain level — adjustable by the operator — a light goes on at the front of the bus.

As a supplement to the system, the driver is supplied with a microphone and loudspeaker. The patent application suggests that the driver could engage the children in a game to keep the light from going on.

* * *

A device to connect subminiature electronic units by laser was patened by James G. Harper, who assigned patent No. 3,304,403 to Texas Instruments, Inc.

With electronic components such as transistors and integrated circuits getting smaller all the time, connecting them to other components has become a problem. Conventional soldering guns are too large and too hot for use on microoscopic items.

The system patented used a laser in the infrared range to join lead wires from two thousandths to seven ten-thousandths of an inch thick. The joining technique is suitable for microscoping welding sites the patent claims.

An automatic fuel control for steel blast furnaces received patent No. 3,304,171. George H. McCleskey assigned the patent to United States Steel Corp.

* * *

U.S. Steel spokesmen said the system has been in operation for several years in the company's Homestead, Pa., furnace.

* * *

It works by sensing the blast pressure, the temperature of the gas leaving the top of the furnace, the wind rate and the moisture in the wind, and adjusting the flow of fuel according to those four variables.

Lower Drug Price Foes Falter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. prescription drug makers apparently have failed to induce the nation's largest group of pharmacists to unite in opposition to a congressional drive for lower drug prices, it was learned today.

* * *

A crack in the drug industry position was revealed in correspondence between the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association (APA), representing 45,000 pharmacists.

And, a spokesman for the APA said his group's efforts to maintain an independent position has been followed by a drop in drug advertisements in the journal it send members.

APA membership dues were raised to make up for the resulting loss of revenues.

The dispute centers on legislation designed to reduce the cost of drugs purchased by the government. Eventually, it cold affect prescription drug costs for all Americans.

LETTERS SENT OUT

On Jan. 3, the PMA sent letters to members of the pharmacists group, urging them to oppose forthcoming bills and perhaps testify against the measures at congressional hearings.

* * *

Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N. M., introduced a bill that would permit the government to pay for drugs medicare patients receive at home.

* * *

The measure requires, however, that payment be limited to the cost of common chemical forms of the drugs when they are found to be as good as more expensive trade name equivalents.

Negroes March on Plant in Protest of Bomb Death

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Civil rights forces have made the gates of Armstrong Tire and Rubber Co. their main target for marches in pressing demands that the killer of Wharlest Jackson be sought out and arrested.

About 2,000 Negroes marched to the plant gates Tuesday night and threw them open briefly, only to close them at the insistence of their leaders.

"If necessary, we'll go through those gates like a flood of water," shouted Charles Evers, Mississippi field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He said that might happen soon.

BOMB IN TRUCK

Jackson, former treasurer of the Natchez branch of the NAACP, was killed Monday night when a bomb exploded in his pickup truck as he was driving home from work. A plant employe for 12 years, he had been promoted to a job previously held by white men.

Evers said marches would be staged in the downtown area today when shifts change.

Natchez officials have offered a $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of those responsible for the fatal bombing. Armstrong officials offered another $10,000.

City police and the FBI searched the truck wreckage for clues but Police Chief J.T. Robinson said that nothing concrete had been found.

KLAN MEMBERS

Evers charged that the plant had hired members of the Ku Klux Klan and demanded "they be brought to justice."

Plant officials said they had no knowledge of any Klansmen on their payroll.

The protest march Tuesday night was peaceful until the crowd arrived at the plant. Two guards were at the gate.

"Where are the cowards who killed him?" Evers asked. "If you are there, come out where we can see you."

GATES OPENED

After Evers said the Negroes should "go over the fence" the gates were pushed open, but only a few Negroes stepped inside. They retreated when two of their leaders hustled over to them. As the crowd left, a street sign was twisted and another was thrown over the fence.

Plant officials issued a statement deploring Jackson's death and promising that $13,000 in life insurance would be paid to his widow.

* * *

"The Armstrong Rubber Co. has been among the leaders in Natchez in efforts to afford equal opportunity to all under the law, regardless of race, color or creed," the company said.

Robinson said he was optimistic the reward money would lead to an arrest. He said some plant employes had been questioned.

Evers said Jackson's funeral would be held Sunday. He called on Negroes to stay out of the downtown Natchez area Saturday in Jackson's memory.

London Stock Mart Keeps Women Out

LONDON (AP) — Despite noteworthy support from sympathetic males, the London Stock Exchange has repulsed a feminist attempt to breach its portals.

Chairman Martin Wilkinson told the exchange's 3,400 members Tuesday that admission should not be refused because of sex alone and the vote maintaining the exchange as an all-male preserve brought some degree of consolation to women.

* * *

Although the proposal failed to get the necessary three-quarters majority, 55 per cent voted for women and 45 per cent against. Just over 2,000 of the members voted.

The issue was forced by Miss Muriel Bailey, a 45-year-old businesswoman who applied for membership.

The usual arguments were heard, including no suitable lavatories and the chance of hearing bad language.

Colacasides' Move for Bond Delayed

DETROIT (AP)—U.S. District Judge Thaddeus Machrowicz postponed Tuesday a hearing on a request to free Costas (Gust) Colacasides from jail.

The Michigan Supreme Court is considering a similar petition for bond, Machrowicz said in choosing to await the high court's ruling.

The Supreme Court also will decide whether to hear an appeal of Colacaside's six-month sentence for contempt of the Wayne County Grand Jury. Colacasides refused to answer questions after being granted immunity.

News Sparks Rally

Stock Market Bounces Back

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market responded today with a vigorous rally to overnight news that the Federal Reserve Board had moved to increase lendable funds of the nation's banks. Trading was heavy early this afternoon.

Brokers pointed out that easier money conditions were what sparked the strong rally of January and the recent correction of that rally was accompanied by reports that money was getting tighter.

* * *

The step announced by the "Fed" after yesterday's market close came just at the psychological moment to give an already rallying market an additional shove forward. The market erased an early loss yesterday and staged a technical snapback.

* * *

Stocks spurted on a broad front and big gains were made from the start. Much of the action was in glamor stocks or specially situated issues although blue chips marched ahead impressively. Their performance, however was not such as to give the averages more than a fairly hefty gain.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.9 at 315.0 with industrials up 2.5, rails up 1.6 and utilities up .5.

* * *

The Federal Reserve's action also was reflected in the bond market. Municipal bonds and U.S. Treasury obligations moved upward.

* * *

Prices advanced in active trading on the American Stock Exchange where the ticker ran five minutes late. Flying Tiger gained 2. Up a point or so were Vernitron, Cosmodyne, Alloys Unlimited and Dennison.

TOM CLARK

RAMSEY CLARK

Judge to Retire as Son Named Attorney General

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nomination of Ramsey Clark as attorney general will give President Johnson a Supreme Court vacancy to fill — the result of a unique family doubleplay.

After Johnson promoted Clark to the vacancy Tuesday, Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, the nominee's father, said he'll retire by midyear to avoid any conflict of interest.

★ ★ ★

Early Senate approval of the younger Clark's appointment is anticipated. Three senators heartily endorsed the nomination, with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., calling it 'one of the finest any president has ever made."

★ ★ ★

Justice Clark, 67, a 17-year veteran of the high court bench, said he'll review the court's docket "for any possible conflict of interests that arise during the remainder of the term" and then decide when to retire. The court term is scheduled to end in June.

SECOND APPOINTMENT

The justice's retirement would give Johnson his second Supreme Court appointment. Clark was appointed by President Harry S. Truman.

Ramsey Clark, 39, has been acting attorney general since last October when Nicholas Katzenbach resigned to become undersecretary of state.

★ ★ ★

He'll go before the Senate Judiciary Committee Thursday for what is expected to be a brief reexamination of his qualifications. He previously received committee and Senate approval for appointments as assistant attorney general and deputy attorney general.

★ ★ ★

Clark conducted an informal news conference following announcement of his nomination with the same deference — almost shyness — that has marked his conduct in public office.

GREETS NEWSMEN

He greeted newsmen at the door of his fourth floor Justice Department office, accepting congratulations with a smile.

When the newsmen were assembled, Clark headed for his desk, but then decided on a favorite corner near a window: "I always sit in this corner — I feel safer here," he explained.

Then he sprawled in a chair, propped his foot on a wastebasket and casually fielded questions for 30 minutes.

Clark, who never uses his first name, William, would be the eighth youngest of the nation's 66 attorneys general, assuming he is confirmed by the Senate.

IN DEPUTY'S OFFICE

During the four and a half months he was acting attorney general, Clark remained in his deputy attorney general's office rather than move into the plush, Oriental-carpeted, oak-paneled attorney general's office on the fifth floor.

Although Clark presided over the Justice Department during some trying moments, he carefully avoided controversy. He remained as far as possible out of the line of fire in the wiretap controversy between Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, even though technically Clark is Hoover's boss

★ ★ ★

Clark entered the department in 1961 as assistant attorney general in charge of the Lands Division, where he established a unique reputation. He saved $300,000 of the division's $3.5 million annual budget and, for the 1965 fiscal year, sought a $200,000 budget cut.

Clark also asked for a 10 per cent cut in manpower while speeding disposition of cases, bringin a 45 per cent saving in government costs.

CAME NATURALLY

His entry into law was natural. His father worked for the Justice Department starting in 1936 and was attorney general in 1945-49.

Both of the younger Clark's grandfathers were lawyers and later judges. Two uncles and two cousins also were lawyers.

★ ★ ★

Clark and his wife, Georgia, met when they attended the University of Texas. They have two children, Ronda Kathleen, who was 15 Tuesday, and Tom C. Clark, 13. They live in suburban Falls Church, Va.

Clark, has a B. A. from Texas and a master's degree in American history and a law degree, both from the University of Chicago.

Wayne County Loses 2 in Viet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy Corpsman from Detroit and a soldier from Wayne were among 29 servicemen listed by the Defense Department Tuesday as having been killed in recent action in Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

The corpsman was HM3 William L. Strunk, the son of Mr. Edwin H. Strunk of Detroit. The soldier was identified as Army Spec. Calvin C. Morgan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Morgan of Wayne.

Pravda: CIA Used Students to Spy on Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda charged today that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency has used American exchange students in the Soviet Union for espionage work.

The CIA "would like to replace the lofty cause of cultural and scientific exchange with the dirty cause of espionage" said a long article in the Soviet Communist party paper.

★ ★ ★

"Of course," Pravda said, "far from all American scientists and students who arrive in the Soviet Union are professional agents of U.S. intelligence or are 'volunteers' who took upon themselves the fulfillment of espionage functions.

"But one has to take into consideration that the CIA tries by any means to involve in espionage work as many American students studying in the Soviet Union as possible."

The article said some 300 students and exchange professors have come here since the Soviet-American cultural exchange program began in 1958.

"The first American students had hardly settled down in Moscow University buildings" when the U.S. Embassy's military attache ordered his subordinates to use the students to collect espionage information, Pravda charged.

★ ★ ★

Pravda said the CIA asked exchange students to provide reports every six months or annually.

Judge Delays Decision on Foster Retrial

Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem has delayed a decision on a motion for a new trial for Pontiac slayer Carl Foster until after the prosecution and defense attorneys submit written briefs.

* * *

Verbal arguments were made yesterday by Foster's attorney, Joseph Hardig, and Asst. Prosecutor Robert Leutheuser.

* * *

Hardig is basing his claim for a new trial on the opinion of an expert pathologist in Texas that Foster's wife was a suicide victim.

* * *

Foster was convicted of strangling his wife, Angela, and then making it appear that she committed suicide by hanging. He was sentenced to life in prison in July 1965.

Vote on Powell Slated Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House decides today whether to strip the last vestiges of congressional power from its most controversial figure, Adam Clayton Powell.

Members of the select committee which recommended the Harlem Democrat be seated with a stiff censure, a $40,000 assessment against his future pay and loss of all seniority expressed confidence the House will approve their proposal, which has support from nearly all Republican and Democratic leaders.

But vociferous members of both parties who want Powell removed from Congress promised to try to block the committee's proposal, and a tangled parliamentary path awaits the censure resolution before its likely approval later in the day.

* * *

Although many different possibilities exist, some form of ouster seems the most likely result if the committee's censure resolution fails. The debate could end in a couple of hours or drag on into the evening.

Powell wasn't expected to appear for the debate. At last word, he was at his fishing retreat on the Bahamian isle of Bimini, along with his secretary Corrine A. Huff.

The resolution also would remove Miss Huff, a former beauty contest winner, from a $19,000-a-year job on Powell's office payroll.

Barricades were made ready in the halls of Congress for the large crowd expected for the debate. Plans were made to clear the visitors' galleries every 10 minutes.

If Powell is censured, he would be the first House member so punished since Oct. 27, 1921, when the House censured the late Rep. Tom Blanton, D-Tex., for inserting salacious language into the Congressional Record.

The boys are members of Troop 29. Also awarded the Eagle Scout rank at the banquet was Don McGeen of 552 N. Lake Angelus, Pontiac Township.

State House Okays Driver License Bill

LANSING (AP)—A bill to forbid possession of more than one valid driver's license was passed by the House and sent to the Senate Tuesday.

Sponsored by Rep. Edward Mahalak, D Romulus, and approved by Secretary of State James Hare, the measure would require a newcomer applying for his first Michigan license to give up any license he holds from another state.

A person granted a chauffeur's license would have to yield his operator's license.

The bill is designed to prevent a situation where a motorist with two valid license loses one through revocation or suspension but still is able to drive with the other.

MORE CONTROVERSIAL

Moved into position Tuesday for final action was a more controversial measure — one changing the residence requirements for sheriff's deputies.

* * *

Currently, a person must be a resident of the county for three months before he may be deputized. The House bill—sponsored by former Lenawee County Sheriff Robert Stites, R-Manitou Beach—would require only a one-year residence in the state.

* * *

Members favoring the bill said it would aid sheriffs who are having trouble finding qualified deputies in their own counties. Opponents said the measure could lead to "raiding" — attempts by one sheriff to lure another's men.

Some opponents also charged the proposed change would allow a sheriff to recruit a squadron of strikebreakers from around the state in time of labor troubles.

STRIKEBREAKER FORCE

"He could bring in 40 or 50 men who wouldn't face the problem of dealing with their neighbors and who would have nothing against pushing people around," said Rep. Daniel Cooper, D-Oak Park.

* * *

"There's no sheriff that wants to pin a badge on just anybody that walks down the street," said Stites. "He's got to live in that county, and he hopes to get reelected."

* * *

Reported favorably by one House committee and promptly referred to another was a resolution which would veto a $21.5 million pay and fringe increase for state employes already approved by the Michigan Civil Service Commission.

The increase will take effect June 1 unless both houses of the Legislature, by two-thirds votes, act by April 3 to reject or reduce it.

* * *

Bills introduced in the House Tuesday would exempt uniformed servicemen from Mackinac Bridge tolls, raise the business activities tax exemption from $12,500 to $100,000, outlaw use of telephones for sales promotions and opinion polls, and require state licensing of auto mechanics.

State Bar Official, 52, From Troy Dies

J. Cameron Hall of 1127 Derby, Troy, grievance administrator and first general counsel for the State Bar of Michigan, died yesterday in Detroit. He was 52.

A memorial service will be held 11 a.m. Saturday at First Methodist Church, Birmingham.

Surviving are his wife, Jean, three children three stepchildren; and his father, C. F. Hall.

LBJ Promises Talk to Group

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson was visited by a delegation from the National Association of County Officers yesterday and promised to address their annual convention in Detroit between July 29 and August 1.

* * *

"He also agreed to have Lady Bird on any of the programs we have," newsmen were told by Ed Munro of King County, Washington, president of the association.

* * *

Munro said with a laugh that the President "volunteered" the first lady's services. Munro said he did not know whether Mrs. Johnson was aware of it yet.

Munro and colleagues visited the President during time out from the association's annual legislative conference here.

* * *

The groups urged Johnson to look upon big city problems as also encompassing the suburbs.

Farnum Gets Post on Dem Committee

Former 19th District Congressman Billie S. Farnum of Waterford Township has been named a deputy chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

* * *

Farnum, 50, will oversee a nationwide party registration drive and coordinate relations with other national organizations.

* * *

The onetime state auditor general was unseated last November after serving one term in Congress. He was defeated by Jack H. McDonald, R-Redford Township.

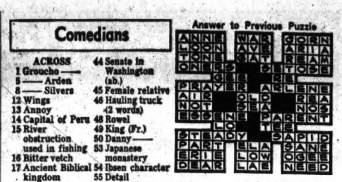
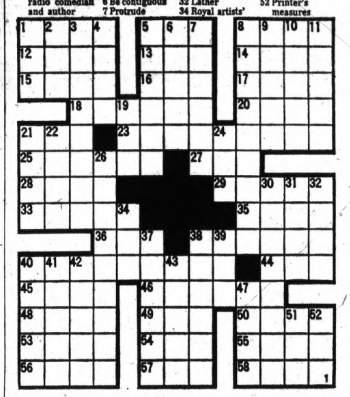
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Supporters of Mao Admit He Needs Help of Army

TOKYO (AP) — Supporters of Mao Tse-tung have admitted that the 73-year-old Communist party chairman cannot regain control of Red China or consolidate his hold without the country's army.

The disclosure of the preponderant role Mao expects the 2.5-million-man army to play in his struggle to unseat President Liu Shao-chi appeared in the Shanghai newspaper Wen Hui Pao.

★ ★ ★

It said: "In the present life-or-death struggle, the (Maoist) proletarian revolutionary rebel factions will not be able to gain victory without the support of the mighty People's Liberation Army. Even if they gain a temporary victory they will not be able to consolidate it."

It claimed that the army has "always protected the revolutionary rebel factions" and predicted that because of this, "the class enemy will never be able to make a comeback no matter what tricks he used."

ALL IS NOT WELL

But the article, which appeared Feb. 23, made clear that all is still not well for the Maoists in Shanghai despite their claim to have taken over China's largest city in late January. It said "archvillains" there have "incited and provoked the masses to agitate against the People's Liberation Army."

An article in the Chinese Communist party's theoretical journal Red Flag, attributed to the political commissar of the Shansi Province military area, Chang Jih-ching, indicated that the army not only helped Maoist "rebels" take over Shansi but since then has played a major role in running the province.

Chang said the army has enforced military control over the provincial public security department, courts, procurate and "other organs of dictatorship."

"Army commanders and fighters have helped the revolutionaries to set up two teams to direct the work in revolution and production so as to win successes on both fronts," he continued.

★ ★ ★

The military command has also "detailed a great number of its personnel to undertake political work and to form propaganda teams to go among the masses," Chang added.

He said the army "met with difficulties in carrying out their revolutionary activities snce the enemy made all sorts of trouble for them."

Truck Burns, Killing Driver

WILMINGTON, Calif. (AP) — A tanker truck driver died Tuesday night when his vehicle overturned and ruptured, spilling 6,600 gallons of flaming liquid on a busy freeway off-ramp and into Los Angeles harbor, police reported.

Investigators said the unidentified driver was trapped inside his truck's cab by the flames, which prevented firemen from approaching.

★ ★ ★

Officials said some of the liquid identified as methyl iso butyl ketone — ran through drainage channels and spilled into the harbor six blocks away.

Fireboats at the scene towed six barges out of the way of the flames.

Officers said the fires in the storm drains and harbor were put out quickly but that it took more than two hours to determine that the driver had been inside the truck.

Sales and Use Taxes Down in February

LANSING (AP)—The state's honeymoon of a continuing climb in sales and use tax collections is over, reports the State Revenue Department.

★ ★ ★

Collections in February on business done in January totaled $45.65 million. This was a decrease of $806,602, or 1.6 per cent, from the same month a year ago.

"This is the end of an era extending over 60 months in which every month showed a gain over the same month of the preceding year," commented State Revenue Commissioner Clarence Lock.

Increases during the lush period went as high as 15 per cent, lock recalled.

Lock said the February drop was expected.

"Automobile sales are down about 20 per cent since the first of the year," he said, "and the record - breaking snowstorms completely ruined retail business for the last five days in January."

★ ★ ★

A continuation of the severe weather also hurt business in February, Lock said.

"Hopefully," he added, "the business lost during these conditions may result in increased sales during the spring months just ahead, both in the automotive and nonautomotive lines."

50 Students 'on the Line'

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — About 50 Portland State College students painted a crosswalk across Broadway near their residence hall in downtown Portland Tuesday.

Ron Campbell, president of the dormitory, said he and others have asked city traffic engineers for the last three months to install lights and crosswalks.

"Someone at that school is going to be in a lot of trouble very soon," said Commissioner William Bowes, director of public works.

Aussie Seamen Refuse to Load Bombs for Viet

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Australian seamen refused today to load bombs for Vietnam aboard the Australian National Line freighter Boonaroo despite threats from the federal government to commission the ship as a navy vessel and man it with navy personnel.

Bert Nolan, secretary of the Melbourne branch of the Seamen's Union, told the civilian crew aboard the Boonaroo that the union won't move until it gets the full facts on the ship's destination. The union has a ban on loading war supplies for Vietnam.

"We understand they are going to take bombs in this ship to kill civilians in Vietnam and they are talking about extra insurance coverage and other things for the crew," Nolan said.

The ship was to have sailed to Point Wilson today to load explosives but the captain, Peter Grimanes, dismissed a tug that pulled alongside at sailing time. The line is consulting the navy on the next move.

Hawaii for Elly

LANSING (AP) — Mrs. Elly Peterson, Republican state chairman, and her husband, Col. Merritt Peterson, left this week for a three-week vacation in Hawaii. While in Honolulu, Mrs. Peterson will address the Hawaiian Republican Women's Federation State Convention March 11.

Salary Measure

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney has signed a bill permitting payment of the remainder of his legislative salary to the widow of former Rep. William Thorne, D - Dearborn. Thorne died last fall. His widow will receive $1,666.

New Report Commends Job Campaign in Watts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Massive efforts to combat unemployment among Negroes in the Watts area since the 1965 riots have surprised and gratified the campaign's task forces, although much remains to be done.

A fresh report Tuesday reflected this conclusion. It said results indicated a "significantly favorable" experience for both workers and employers.

★ ★ ★

But additional prejob training for minority groups still is a major need, H. C. (Chad) McClellan, head of the Management Council for Merit Employment, said in releasing the findings of the new survey.

The council's study was conducted by the Research Institute for Business Economics, investigative arm of the University of Southern California's Graduate School of Business Administration.

INTERVIEWS

It was directed by Dr. William H. Reynolds, professor of marketing, whose researchers interviewed 100 workers and 59 firms which employed them after the disturbances.

Reynolds said they learned that:

— One-third of the employers said they would hire more Negroes than in the past. All will hire as many as they already have.

★ ★ ★

—Two-thirds of the Negroes placed in jobs between September 1965 and April 1966 still held them. All said these jobs were better than they had before.

—Half of the one-third who left these jobs did so for better offers. The majority have had promotions and raises. In no case was discrimination cited by those who quit.

NO PROBLEMS

—Employers generally agreed that Negroes are much like all others in job performance. Expected problems with supervisors and fellow employes failed to materialize.

"We found it significant, in interviewing foremen and personnel managers, that foremen tended to rate the Negro higher on all scores than did the personnel director," Reynolds commented.

He and McClellan told a news conference they felt this indicated a need for employers to reevaluate job standards.

Employment standards are unrealistic in many cases, they survey found. It cited blanket requirement of high school diplomas in some cases, regardless of the nature of the job, and tests that tend to bar minority group applicants in some instances.

REPORT DATA

The McCone Commission which investigated the riots said in its report:

"The most serious immediate problem that faces the Negro is employment . . . securing and holding a job that provides him an opportunity for livelihood, a chance to earn the means to support himself and his family. . . ."

★ ★ ★

The new survey said "lack of education . . . is the principal factor holding back Negro employment."

McClellan said "there are four skill centers in disadvantaged Los Angeles areas, all operating at capacity, yet in Watts alone 2,500 unemployed can't get in. They're on waiting lists."

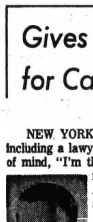
★ ★ ★

Shortly after the riots, the council, now representing 2,600 employers, estimated Watts had 25,000 jobless. A few weeks ago, McClellan said jobs had been found for 17,839 there.

Gives 2 Whys, Keeps One for Carson's Happy State

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Johnny Carson told a couple of intimates, including a lawyer—who'd been asked to inquire about his state of mind, "I'm the happiest I've ever been!" I know one of the reasons for this happiness and I can't divulge it. A second reason is, he's got a happy marriage, and a third is: he's got some happy money.



It was "French night" and French champagne night for Jackie Kennedy at El Morocco. Jackie was with Paul Mathius of Paris Match, Mme. Andre Malraux, Alain Fanet and Arnold de Contades. Earlier at "Black Comedy," Jackie and her friends were rolling in the aisles (figuratively, of course).

Cary Grant's friends wish he'd come out WILSON of Reclusiville, which he disappeared into after his marriage split . . . Speaking of the death threats that Debbie Reynolds and LBJ got, stirring up the FBI to swarming all over the Miami Beach Eden Roc, reminds me that I must be pretty dull. Because I haven't had my life threatened all day.

When the U.S.S. Coral Sea sailed into San Francisco Bay after 9 months in Vietnam, the returning vets were greeted by two topless girls dancing wildly on a raft. One GI remarked: "It's great to be back in civilization" . . . Comedian Joe E. Lewis has returned to Miami Beach. Columnist Helen Griffith of the Sarasota Herald-Tribune says: "Nobody has ever referred to him as a 'dry wit.'"

Record Budget Sought in Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Eisaku Sato's Cabinet has approved a record $13.7-billion budget for the fiscal year beginning April 1. It will be presented to the Diet March 13.

The new budget, approved Tuesday, is about 14 per cent higher than the current $12-billion budget.

Romney Calls for Driver Crackdown

MAKE OVER PAGES

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Romney yesterday proposed a "get tough" program on drivers as part of a special message on traffic safety sent to the Legislature.

Driver education would be required for all new motorists — regardless of age — under the Romney safety program.

The secretary of state would be empowered to take corrective action against drivers involved in serious accidents or convicted of major traffic offenses, regardless of their point total.

Romney also backed implied consent legislation. This would hold that a motorist, in accepting a license, gives his consent to chemical tests for alcohol in cases involving drinking and driving.

★ ★ ★

Strengthening of the motorcycle law was advocated. This would include road tests for license applicants and a one-year probationary period for new motorcycle drivers.

COMPULSORY INSPECTION

Compulsory motor vehicle inspection is included in the governor's safety package.

"The automobile industry is being required by law to install more and more safety devices," Romney said. "Is it unfair to ask that the owner, by law, be required to maintain these safety devices in top operating condition?"

The governor noted that Michigan's traffic death toll last year hit a new high of 2,270. Delayed death reports may send the fatality figure still higher.

He estimated the total economic loss to Michigan from highway deaths, injuries and accidents at $410 million.

★ ★ ★

His program, Romney said, is planned to meet more rigid traffic safety standards, soon to be set by the federal government.

Romney's other recommendations in the field of traffic safety included:

- Regulation of commercial driving schools.
- Centralization of all driver licensing activities in the secretary of state's office.
- Acceleration of the State Police information network.
- Authorization for Michigan to join other states in a driver license compact for information exchange purposes.
- Legislation to make the State Police director the state highway safety coordinator to help Michigan meet federal safety standards.

Citizens Group Asks Taubman Plan Probe

By DAVID J. COOK

The immediate fate of the Taubman Plan for downtown redevelopment apparently lies in the hands of federal officials today following a stiff formal protest filed last night with the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

A detailed, 36-page document prepared by the Citizens Committee for Pontiac's Positive Progress (CCPPP) demands "an immediate thorough investigation" of the Taubman Plan; blocking of any disposal of urban renewal lands pending an inquiry; and "sustained surveillance" of future city redevelopment efforts.

A motion by District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin that the Taubman agreement be terminated died for lack of a second, and District 4 Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson questioned protest leader Donald R. Frayer about any downtown solution he had:

Frayer said they had nothing to offer at this time.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. remained firm, however, in his belief that the agreement reached between the city and A. Alfred Taubman last September is "valid and entirely legal."

"I don't think we have complied yet, either, with urban renewal regulations," he said, "but we had to get a good developer.

★ ★ ★

"And at our conference in Chicago, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) said there was nothing wrong with our proposal."

'SERIOUS PROBLEMS'

According to the protest read by CCPPP Chairman Donald R. Frayer, however, "many varied and serious problems" are presented by the city's agreement with Taubman.

The essence of the Taubman agreement is the granting to Taubman of an option to purchase downtown urban renewal property; an effort by Taubman to obtain lease commitments from at least two major firms; following that, purchase of the lands by Taubman and development by the city of adequate parking facilities.

Most preconceptions of the development have envisioned a mall-type shopping center straddling what is now Auburn Avenue between East and West Wide Track.

★ ★ ★

The CCPPP allegations include:

- Granting of an exclusive option to the developer, contrary to HUD regulations;
- "Designating for commercial use lands now planned for housing"; and,
- "Failure to (provide) for adequate parking."

MAY SEEK INJUNCTION

In support of the objections, Frayer said his group may seek a Circuit Court injunction against the Taubman Plan, but, he said, he "would prefer" to pursue the matter with HUD officials.

It was from the HUD office in Chicago that an order came last week "not to proceed" further with redevelopment plans.

CONVOY VEHICLE HIT — Lt. James R. Nabor of Tupelo, Miss., turns a fire extinguisher on flames in an armored personnel carrier destroyed by a Vietcong mine in War Zone C of Vietnam as supplies were moved up to the front in Operation Junction City. Yesterday fierce fighting erupted in the zone, 20 miles northeast of Tay Ninh near the Cambodian border.

Reagan Bidding to Build Image

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan bids for more national political exposure today, determined to keep Michigan Gov. George Romney or anyone else out of California's 1968 Republican presidential primary.

REAGAN

The freshman GOP governor told newsmen yesterday he intends to enter the June primary himself, as a favorite son presidential candidate but not as an outright contender for the presidency.

He said he preferred that Romney and other potential contenders stay out of his state.

Reagan's goal: Party unity and to assure the nation's most populous state a policy-making voice at next year's national convention.

Reagan made the statement as he began preparing for some well-publicized political events in Washington, including a fund-raising dinner tonight at which Romney also will speak.

BACK TO WASHINGTON

Captive Red: Cong Morale Low

PHUOC THANH, South Vietnam (AP) — A North Vietnamese lieutenant captured by Korean troops said today the failure of the lunar new year truce to produce peace negotiations has put "Vietcong morale at an all-time low."

★ ★ ★

"Night and day the Vietcong long for peace," said Lt. Truong Hiep, a platoon leader with the 3rd Company, 85th "Independence" Battalion, a Vietcong main-force element. "They had high hopes for negotiation. Now they know they cannot win without direct help from Russia or Red China," he said.

The lieutenant was interviewed through an interpreter at the wire-enclosed stockade of the Korean Tiger Division here in the central highlands, 290 miles northeast of Saigon. A Korean private captured him this week with a karate blow. The lieutenant was attempting to fire his German Walther pistol at a Korean patrol that surprised him as he was returning to duty from a Vietcong hospital hidden in the mountains.

A North Vietnamese regular, Truong infiltrated from Hanoi a year ago and was assigned as a special cadre to work with Vietcong main-force troops in Phu Yen Province, which actually was his home. Like many other idealistic young Communists, he went north during the 1954 armistice that followed the Geneva agreements and rose through the ranks of the North Vietnamese army.

★ ★ ★

The lieutenant said as a cadre officer he had been told to indoctrinate his troops with the idea that a truce would soon come about with a coalition government of Vietcong and South Vietnamese representatives ruling the country, following the immediate withdrawal of all American and other foreign troops.

GUARDED OFFICIALS

Truong's special job was guarding provincial officials of the Vietcong shadow government operating in the tactical area being swept by Korean troops. He was badly scalded in January while trying to boil water in an ammunition box and was taken to a Vietcong dispensary deep in the mountains. The hospital once had consisted of four buildings, but because of air strikes had been reduced to a single hut staffed by one doctor, two medics and a nurse.

★ ★ ★

"The Vietcong are more afraid of the B52 raids than anything," said Truong, who had been only a third of a mile from a major strike by the huge bombers. "Only those big bombs can collapse our tunnel structures. Also, they are afraid of the F105 Thunderchiefs, which are less powerful but very, very accurate."

Company Mauled, Yanks Hit Back

SAIGON (AP) — American planes and artillery killed more than 150 Vietcong in War Zone C after the Communists badly mauled a company of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, the U.S. military command reported today.

★ ★ ★

The six-hour battle yesterday was the biggest to date in the week-old Operation Junction City, a 45,000-man U.S. squeeze on the Communist jungle stronghold near the Cambodian border. The company of 178 American infantrymen suffered heavy casualties, meaning it is no longer an effective fighting force until it receives replacements.

★ ★ ★

North Vietnamese regulars operating just below the demilitarized zone fired off a tremendous mortar attack in an effort to knock out the long-range U.S. artillery guns which last week began shelling across the six-mile zone into North Vietnam.

Pontiac Press Sponsors Tour of Spain, Portugal

Plans for a 15-day conducted tour of Spain and Portugal the latter part of May were announced today by The Pontiac Press.

★ ★ ★

The scenic May 16-31 tour will be another in a series of expeditions arranged by The Press as a service to its readers.

Cost of the European trip is $765.

Plans call for an American Airlines flight from Detroit to New York May 16 where connections will be made for a TWA flight to Lisbon, the capital of Portugal. Arrival in Lisbon is slated for early May 17.

★ ★ ★

A three-day stay in Lisbon is scheduled. The time there will be divided between sight-seeing jaunts and leisure periods.

MOVE TO SEVILLE

Then, it will be on to Seville for two days of sight-seeing followed by two days of leisure at Marbella.

The next stop will be historic Granada and then the Pontiac-area tourists will travel to Madrid, the final stop before returning home.

Sight-seeing attractions in Madrid will include the Puerta del Sol, Carrera de San Jeronimo, the Palace of Cortes, the Prado Museum, Cibeles Square and the Palace of Justice.

★ ★ ★

While based in Madrid for four days, the tourists will depart for a full-day excursion by motorcoach to Toledo on the second last day of the tour.

The final day in Madrid will call for a morning of leisure before going to the airport for departure in the afternoon for the U.S.A.

Tourists will arrive home late that evening, May 31.

Attack by Dogs Still Mystery

By JIM LONG

The reason for the vicious attack on an Independence Township boy by four dogs Saturday remains a mystery.

★ ★ ★

"They appear to be completely normal dogs," said an official at the Oakland County Animal Shelter. "They've been reasonably cared for and their behavior is good."

Three of the dogs are owned by Clyde Bierwith, 75, of 4080 Indianwood, Independence Township. The other is a stray taken in by Bierwith a week before the attack.

The dogs have been kept under observation since they mauled Peter Kohnen III, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kohnen Jr., next door neighbors to the Bierwiths.

It is not certain what will happen to the dogs.

NO DECISION

Donald Sheridan, chief warden at the animal shelter, said that no decision has been made to destroy the animals.

The decision would have to be up to Bierwith, unless a complaint was signed charging him with harboring vicious dogs, according to Sheridan.

There is no indication so far that the dogs have rabies. They could be released Monday if the tests prove negative.

Licensing records show that Bierwith's dogs were vaccinated for rabies a year ago, and that their licenses expired only a few days before the attack.

CONDITION IS SATISFACTORY

Since undergoing emergency surgery after being admitted to Pontiac General Hospital, Peter has improved to where his condition is listed as satisfactory.

He is allowed to sit in a wheelchair for short periods of time.

His lacerations, particularly those on the scalp, were so extensive that it was first believed that he might die.

City Ordinance Revised, Aims at Deserted Cars

Abandoned automobiles are the target of an amended city ordinance passed last night by the City Commission.

The amendment, to take effect March 10, cites any person who "shall cause or permit" a vehicle to park or stand continuously for 48 hours to be guilty of abandoning the vehicle.

New language specifying responsibility of the owner was added to the ordinance by City Attorney Philip E. Rowston after Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum indicated the previous statute was unenforceable.

Police procedure for abandoned cars is to tag an automobile left on a street and cite the owner if the vehicle is not moved within 48 hours.

★ ★ ★

During the 48-hour period, however, police are required to make efforts to locate the owner of the car.

NEW APPOINTEE

Commissioners accepted "with regret" a resignation from the Civic Improvement Advisory Committee (CIAC) and gave their approval to a new CIAC appointee.

Rev. William A. Teague cited "111 health" in submitting his resignation from the committee. A commission resolution commended Rev. Teague for his service to the committee.

Appointed to the committee was Delbert McLaughlin of 786 Owego. McLaughlin was named by District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin.

★ ★ ★

Formally accepted by commissioners was the resignation of City Attorney Rowston, who last Friday submitted a letter to that effect to Mayor William H. Taylor Jr.

A successor to Rowston, who will enter private practice April 1, has not yet been selected.

Firm Shelves Book by Bobby

Material Delay Laid to Jackie's Court Row

NEW YORK (AP) — The dispute between the Kennedy family and Harper & Row publishers over the book, "The Death of a President," apparently prompted Sen. Robert F. Kennedy to halt publication of a book containing the senator's major speeches, it was learned today.

An announcement of publication of the senator's book, "New Problems, New Proposals," appeared in Harper & Row's winter catalogue last November.

But Tuesday, Evan Thomas, vice president of Harper & Row, said the 150-year-old publishing house decided to drop the book from the winter schedule.

"The first indication that there would be a delay came last December when the senator failed to send us the introduction to the book," said Thomas. "We sent some inquiries to Washington, but received no reply."

'GOT A REPLY'

"He got a reply to everything he sent," a Kennedy aide said. "If he didn't, it was simply because the senator didn't have time. Some material was not furnished. It was not completely buttonholed."

Cass Canfield, chairman of the executive committee of Harper & Row, said that a few months ago, after part of the book already had been set in type, Kennedy suggested holding up publication for additional material.

★ ★ ★

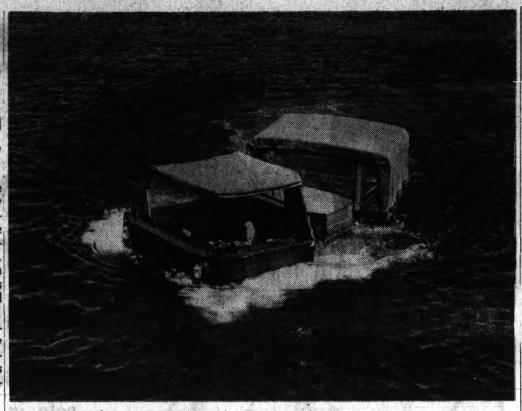
"We both agreed to put in some more speeches," said Canfield.

The Kennedy aide said that to the best of his recollection, the decision to postpone publication of the book was made sometime in late October or early November 1968.

NO DISCUSSION

"There hasn't been any discussion since the postponement," the aide said.

Another source said the reason for the postponement was the anticipated controversy stirred up by author William Manchester's book, "The Death of a President," which Harper & Row is publishing in April after reaching an out-of-court settlement with Mrs. John F. Kennedy.



MULTIPURPOSE VEHICLE — Chevrolet's new TASC, a lightweight multipurpose military vehicle, is on display at the General Motors exhibit in Detroit. The vehicle climbs slopes, crosses ditches and swims streams. The exhibit runs through March 14 at the GM Building.

GM Exhibits Defense, Space Products

General Motors today opened an exhibit in Detroit showing the products and technical know-how its divisions are supplying to the nation's defense and space programs.

★ ★ ★

Items in the "GM in Defense and Space" exhibit in the General Motors Building range from ultra-high precision navigation systems being built for spacecraft and future military and commercial aircraft to a new "double-jointed" multipurpose military vehicle.

Sixteen of the GM divisions and staffs involved in the corporation's defense and space efforts are participating in the exhibit which will be open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday. The exhibit runs through March 14.

The opening marks the first time since February 1963 that GM has brought together its defense and space products in such a display.

★ ★ ★

Some of the highlights of the corporation's 1966 defense and space activities are:

● Allison Division began production of the M551 Gen. Sheridan armored reconnaissance airborne assault vehicle at the government - owned Army-Tank Automotive Plant in Cleveland.

● The design stage of the Main Battle Tank, a joint project of the U.S. and Germany, was completed and pilot models are now under construction by Allison.

● AC Electronics Division's guidance systems directed three successful space flights and the division also is developing a guidance system for intercontinental missiles with a capability of guiding and maneuvering a missile into space, through reentry and to its target.

● Allison received a development and production contract for the TF41 turbofan jet engine and a contract to develop a turbojet lift engine for use in a vertical rising aircraft. Both development programs are in cooperation with Rolls-Royce Ltd. of England.

GM SALES

GM's sales in the defense and space areas totaled $552 million in 1966.

Divisions and staffs represented in the GM Building display are AC Electronics, AC Spark Plug, Allison, Chevrolet, Delco Products, Delco Radio, Delco-Remy, Detroit Diesel, Euclid, GMC Truck & Coach, Harrison Radiator, Hydra-matic, New Departure-Hyatt Bearings, Saginaw Steering Gear, the Defense Research Laboratories of AC Electronics and the General Motors Research Laboratories.

U.S. Space Robot to Dig Trench on Moon

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A three-legged robot is scheduled to land on the moon in mid-April, unfurl an ungainly soil scoop and dig a narrow trench in the lunar surface.

Its excavating will be done under the watchful eye of a television camera to tell man on earth more about the land on the moon on which he hopes to walk within a few years.

The robot is Surveyor 3 and the surface sampler is the first of its type to be carried on a moon-landing spacecraft.

Russia's Luna 13 which landed on the moon's Ocean of Storms Christmas Eve was equipped with a mechanical plunger to test the firmness and density of the lunar surface.

★ ★ ★

America's Surveyor 3 will use a scoop and claw device mounted on a folding arm that will reach out and dig into the lunar soil to give scientists more clues to its makeup and its ability to support manned spaceships.

MAY DIG HOLE

The surface sampler, which replaces a landing approach camera that was carried but not used on the first Surveyor mission, will be able to dig a hole about 18 inches deep if the moon dirt is not too hard.

The 2-inch wide scoop, mounted on an expanding arm with a 64-inch reach, is equipped with a door like that used by power shovels on earth and should be able to pick up a scoopful of soil and release it in a different area.

Although definite plans have yet to be made, officials said the digger might also be raised above the moon's surface and then dropped to see how much of a dent it made. There also is the possibility it might be used to attempt to break rocks on the moon.

★ ★ ★

The device will not be instrumented and all of its results will come from pictures taken by the spacecraft's television camera. The camera is capable of spotting nearby objects the size of a sand grain.

Present plans call for the camera to take a detailed look at the area before the experiment begins. Then the digger will be unfolded and it will penetrate different areas of the surface with varying forces.

School Board to Open Bids

The Waterford Township Board of Education is slated to open bids tomorrow night for construction projects at two elementary schools, Stringham and Waterford Village.

The projects are estimated to cost a combined $572,000.

Earmarked for both schools are gymnasium-multipurpose room complexes, remodeling and other alterations.

Final architectural plans for construction projects at Adams and Donelson elementary schools also will be reviewed at the 7:30 p. m. meeting.

★ ★ ★

Budgeted for construction costs are $197,500 for Adams and $153,500 for Donelson.

Both schools will be provided with library-instructional materials centers and new classrooms. Adams also will get a gymnasium - multipurpose room complex.

Car Salesman Strike Looming

Three Area Agencies Likely to Be Affected

DETROIT (UPI) — Some 2,400 salesmen at 64 new car dealerships in metropolitan Detroit were set to strike today to protest the alleged refusal of owners to grant job security benefits.

★ ★ ★

Among those expected to protest in the Pontiac area are Ford, Inc., 630 Oakland; Mike Savoie Chevrolet, Inc., 1000 Woodward, Bloomfield Township; and Village Rambler Sales Inc., at 666 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

Agreements were reached yesterday with the owners of pany, Inc., 565 S. Woodward, Birmingham, and Fischer Buick Inc., at 515 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

The strike was called by the Automobile Salesman's Association to seek provisions against layoffs along with medical insurance and pension programs.

RALLY STAGED

The association staged a rally last night in Ford Auditorium to outline its plans for the strike which would affect new car dealerships in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw counties in Southeastern Michigan.

Elmer Kolar, vice president of the association, said salesmen, mechanics and office workers planned "sympathy strikes" at up to 33 other dealerships in the area.

He said dealers have "laid off 60 guys in the last month to try to break the union," which won representation of salesmen at the 64 dealerships last year.

★ ★ ★

At the rally last night, several union leaders said they would walk the picket lines until "every last dealership signs a contract."

★ ★ ★

Kolar said there are 202 new car agencies in the four-county area but the larger ones are included among the 64 whose salesmen are represented by the union.

Chief Retires; Dismissal Asked by Grand Juror

HAMTRAMCK (UPI) — Police Chief Walter Jaros, 58, announced his retirement today less than 24 hours after a grand jury called for his dismissal on grounds of neglect of duty.

★ ★ ★

Jaros, a policeman in this Detroit suburb for 27 years, said he would retire April 1. He petitioned the City Council last night for permission to retire and it was quickly granted.

★ ★ ★

The chief began a vacation today, presumably lasting until his retirement.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday Judge George E. Bowles, Wayne County's one-man grand juror, urged John Radwanski, Hamtramck director of public safety, to remove Jaros from office.

Pressure Continues

Mobil Joins Price Rollback

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government sees encouraging holes in the formerly solid wall of major oil companies that recently boosted gasoline prices.

Mobil Oil Co. announced Tuesday that it was whittling off part of the increase it put into effect last month. A similar action was taken Monday by the Continental Oil Co., first to announce a rollback.

★ ★ ★

Neither company attributed its decision to the campaign of persuasion by the Department of the Interior for a rollback, but a third company implied that this was the underlying reason.

This firm, American Oil Co., said Tuesday it would not "yield to government pressure."

QUOTA ADJUSTMENT

The Interior Department has warned the companies that it may adjust import quotas to bring in more gasoline from outside the country and thus make high prices hard to maintain.

Mobil said it will cut two-tenths of a cent per gallon from the recently raised price dealers and industrial customers pay—and one-fourth of a cent from the price paid by distributors. These same reductions were reported Monday by Continental.

★ ★ ★

The end result of the original increase and the new decrease is that the dealer price will be four-tenths of a cent higher than it was a month ago.

Undersecretary of the Interior Charles Luce looked on the rollbacks as "further evidence that the effort to raise gasoline prices consumers pay for gasoline is weakening."

★ ★ ★

"These reductions are a step in the right direction," Luce said, "But they still leave both retail prices and net yields to the companies well above previous levels."

★ ★ ★

Humble Oil and Refining Co., with better than 10 per cent of the market, held back when other companies boosted prices.

Jew Charges GM With Bias

Firm Issues Denial of Local Worker's Claim

General Motors Corp. today denied a charge that it discriminated against a 30-year employe of the firm's Pontiac Fisher Body Division plant because of his Jewish faith.

The charge was made yesterday by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission on behalf of Philip Marlowe of Detroit, who has been employed at the plant since 1936.

The commission said the firm had declined to conciliate the issue and that Marlowe's accusations disclosed sufficient grounds for the complaint.

But GM officials issued a statement of denial today.

★ ★ ★

"At no time has Mr. Marlowe's religion been a consideration by General Motors with respect to his employment, or in making disposition of any grievances he may have filed personally or through his bargaining agent, the United Auto Workers Union," a spokesman said.

SKILLED TRADESMAN

Marlowe, a skilled tradesman at the plant, charged that GM discriminated against him by:

- Refusing to give him reasonable and equal opportunities to upgrade himself from his present job as a checking fixture builder.
- Permitting continuing harassment and discrimination by fellow employes and by supervisory personnel.
- Subjecting him to excessive and unequal discipline.

★ ★ ★

A GM spokesman said Marlowe has held numerous types of jobs and has progressed from production line work to the skilled trades during his years at the plant.

★ ★ ★

"On several occasions, it has been necessary to take disciplinary action against Mr. Marlowe in connection with his work," the spokesman added.

Gun Victim Dies

A 23-year-old Pontiac man died early today at Pontiac General Hospital of a self-inflicted gun wound.

★ ★ ★

The victim of the apparent suicide was Carlis D. Booker, 464 Branch, according to Pontiac police. Booker died three hours after the 11.45 p.m. shooting.

Spending Picture

EAST LANSING (AP) — The average Michigan resident will have about $900 more a year to spend in 1980 than he has now, Michigan State University researchers say. Disposable income probably will come to an average $3,000 per capita, they reported. They added that Michigan's 1965 wage rates were the highest in the nation.

Sorority Plans Dessert and an Installation

Groups I and II, North Woodward area alumnae of Alpha Chi Omega sorority will meet for installation of officers and 12:30 p.m. dessert, March 7, in the Beverly Hills home of Mrs. Charles B. White.

Officers for the combined groups are Mrs. Charles J. Andrews, Lathrup Village, president; Mrs. James Henderson, Oakleigh Drive, vice president; Mrs. Robert Stoner, Birmingham, recording secretary and Mrs. Richard Souder, Beverly Hills.

An antique walk through a Birmingham home on March 19 is scheduled under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edwin Houldsworth of Group II.

Mrs. Frank Perry is chairman for Group I's April 18 luncheon in the Birmingham Y.M.C.A.

* * *

On the committee for Tuesday's meeting are Mrs. James Johnson, chairman, Mrs. David Long, also of Birmingham, and Mrs. Paul Hoofnagle, Huntington Woods.

Alpha Chis who are new to this area are asked to make reservations with Mrs. Johnson.

New Mexico Getting Known for Its Trees

SANTA FE, N.M. (UPI) — New Mexico, probably best known for its Indians and deserts, also is in the big leagues in supplying Christmas trees.

Each year, thousands of white and douglas firs, Scotch pines and pinon trees are loaded on railway flatcars or stacked on trucks and shipped across the United States.

The state's reputation for Christmas trees got its biggest boost in 1956 when former President Eisenhower had an 80 ft. douglas fir sent him by residents of Almogordo, N.M., erected on the capitol lawn.

* * *

Since then, business has boomed. Trees are sent annually to normal outlets as well as being ordered for Chicago's Lake Shore front and New York's Radio City Music Hall.

* * *

The majority of the trees come from among New Mexico's 8.6 million acres of national forests. The remainder are grown in special tree farms at altitudes reaching 7,000 feet.

* * *

Trees in the farms are cultivated year-round and tourists can pick out a likely looking one in summer months and have it shipped to them before Christmas.

The small town of Mora in northeastern New Mexico, tucked against the Santa Fe National Forest, is one of the state's largest supply centers.

* * *

Tree cutting begins in November. Professional lumbermen move into the area. The cut trees are packed and taken to a railhead or transferred to flatbed trucks for shipment.

The pinon, New Mexico's state tree, is growing in popularity across the country since it is grown exclusively in New Mexico in the southwest.

* * *

The pinon grows in high mountain country to heights of 50 feet, although average size ranges between 15-35 feet. Every four years, the cones bear nuts which are sold commercially in the state and exported.

vance in gaining the attention of young girls.

Jean firmly believes that science holds unlimited promise for the female student wishing to enter the field. She would like to see more encouragement of girls to pursue a scientific education.

We asked if working with high level men in her field was accompanied by any resentfulness on their part.

"Not at all" she answered, "in fact, I would say that there doesn't appear to be any conflicts on that score at all. And since most of the work done here is the result of team effort, it perhaps accounts for this attitude."

To young women now preparing for work in this area of science, she says "Learn everything you can now and be prepared to discover all kinds of new experiences in a wonderful world. "The pay is good and the rewards better."

Talks to GOP

Mrs. Paul Gorman spoke before the Republican Women's Club Monday at an afternoon tea. She discussed the recent state convention in Detroit.

Mrs. Frank Irons of Wayne Street was hostess for the occasion.
