By NELSON GIRARDIN
(Eyewitness to Crash)

BAY CITY (AP)—I saw the crash.

One minute the lights of the big plane were barely visible through the half rain and half snow as the aircraft circled the south end of the Tri-City field. The next minute they abruptly headed earthward.

A second later there was a blinding flash of orange flame spurting nearly 100 feet into the air, followed by a muffled explosion.

The huge aircraft apparently landed almost squarely on its nose, then flipped over onto its back, a flaming mass of wreckage.

With my wife Frances and our three children, Larry, 13, Paul, 11 and Debra, 8, we had stopped at the airport administration building while returning from a visit with friends in Bay City, to let the children watch the planes land. Our car had its motor running to keep us warm.

RACED FOR WRECK

I immediately shot the car in gear and raced toward the plane wreck, thinking that I might be of some assistance to any survivors.

I was either the first or second person to arrive at the burning aircraft. There was no sign of life, only the roaring of the flames as they fed on the wreckage.

As I ran across the muddy, slippery field I looked for any survivors that might have been tossed out by the impact.

The only thing I saw that might have been hurled clear of the flames was a man's hat that was rapidly becoming soaked by the rain. A few pieces of debris lay nearby.

As I approached the wreckage a smaller explosion occurred, sending flames high into the air.

Fearing to approach any closer because of the danger of other blasts I started to take pictures of the flaming wreckage from about 100 to 150 feet away. I had taken several pictures when another explosion shook the wreckage, apparently as another gas tank exploded.

Shortly afterward, fire trucks and ambulances started to arrive and began the battle to subdue the fire.

47 Killed as Capital Airliner Crashes, Burns in Michigan

Farmer's Field End of Journey

By DICK SAUNDERS

A rainsoaked cornfield bordering Saginaw's Tri-City Airport, became the scene of the second worst civilian air disaster in Michigan history last night.

Only the crash of a Northwest airline plane which sank in Lake Michigan with 58 aboard in June, 1950, tops last night's disaster.

Many times in the past, huge airliners have flown low over the small tract of soil on their way to or from the landing strip several hundred feet away.

At approximately 11:16 p.m. one missed the strip.

A Capital Airlines Viscount fell 2,300 feet short and the small cornfield suddenly became a blazing inferno where 47 persons met death instantly.

Several tremendous explosions illuminated its barren terrain, silhouetting last year's brittle cornstalks. A few eyewitnesses ran to the scene searching for survivors.

Moments later, sirens pierced the air from all directions. The field was unkind to rescue workers.

Fire trucks and police cars were unable to drive over the muddy soil. Soon hoses were stretched 2,000 feet from nearby Freeland road to fight the leaping flames.

More water made more mud. In spots it was almost knee deep. Men hurrying frantically to the disaster walked out of boots stuck fast in the mud.

GRIM SCENE

Hours later, after the flames subsided, only a few spot fires illuminated the grim scene of twisted wreckage.

A strong, gusty wind carrying snow and sleet cut through light and heavy coats alike. Workers were chilled both by the sharp blasts of wind and their grim task of picking through the rubble for victims.

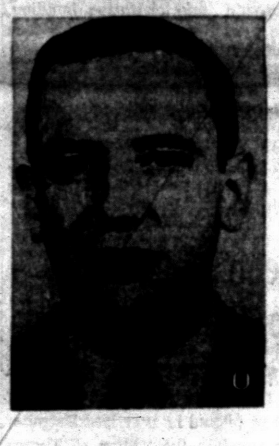

The darkness was interrupted only by the lights of an ambulance and the groaning of tractors and other small vehicles laboring through the mud.

As victims were recovered and

Bloomfield Man's Son Killed While Family Spent Easter Here

Last night's plane crash claimed the lives of the son of a Bloomfield Township man and possibly that of a brother-in-law of a Birmingham man.

Dr. Richard A. Duryea, 30, of Flint, a psychologist with the General Motors Institute in that city, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Charles Duryea, of 1067 Glengary Rd., Bloomfield Township.

Duryea was on his way to Milwaukee on business while his wife, Mary Elizabeth, and their one-year-old daughter, had been visiting the senior Duryeas over the Easter weekend.

Reportedly killed in the crash was a Clark Field, believed to be the brother-in-law of Ralph H. Backus, of 1276 Hillside Dr., Birmingham.

(From Our News Wires)

MIDLAND — A Capital Airlines Viscount plane crashed and burned in a spring snowfall last night, killing all 47 persons aboard, including 25 from Michigan.

Bodies were scattered across a wide area. Charred bodies were found in the shattered wreckage.

The plane crashed about 11:16 p.m. and Saginaw sheriff's officers who rushed to the scene were quick to report "there are no survivors."

The sleek turbo-jet aircraft plowed into a cornfield some 2,300 feet from a runway at the southwest corner of the airport, exploded and burned, strewing flaming wreckage over a sea of mud.

The airport serves Midland, Saginaw, and Bay City.

There was some confusion whether the plane exploded and crashed, or crashed and exploded.

Ronald A. Wenzel, 24, living at Freeland, 10 miles distant, said he saw the explosion.

Capital Airlines headquarters at Washington said it had no information on an explosion before the crash.

A Civil Aeronautics Authority investigator said today that a jigsaw puzzle technique may be necessary to determine the cause of the crash.

Russell Laubaugh, CAA investigator from Detroit, said, "we may gather up all the pieces of the plane, move them to a workshop and reconstruct it as well as possible."

Laubaugh said that the CAA will also look into the "flying habits" of the pilot and co-pilot to determine what type of approach patterns they used.

Meanwhile, Capital's Washington office said the airline has logged 6,900,000,000 passenger miles since its last passenger fatality in 1949.

O. D. Picard, Capital Airlines district manager at the airport, said that although it was snowing heavily, the pilot of the four-engine plane gave no indication of trouble during a radio conversation before the crash. He said the pilot had been cleared to land.

Hundreds of emergency workers from the area rushed to the scene to battle the blaze and extricate the bodies from the tangled wreckage. The task of many hours was hampered by snow and mud.

The bodies were taken to the private hangar of Dow Chemical Company.

Capital identified the aircraft's crew as Capt. William J. Hull, 44, of Westwood, N.J., First Officer Earl Binckley of Levittown, N.Y., and hostess Ruth Denecke of Jackson Heights, N.Y.

driven by Robert Bibb Jr., 46, of 503½ Franklin Rd.

Bibb, a factory worker, called the police about an hour after the accident occurred and surrendered himself.

He said that he was driving south on Franklin at 7:30 p.m. when the woman walked out in front of his car.

Bibb told officers he could not stop in time to avoid the accident.

He was arrested for investigation of leaving the scene of a fatal accident.

Miss King was unemployed. She had roomed with the Jimmie Keel family on Nevada for the past 18 months. She had no known relatives in the Pontiac area.

Rain Good News to Area Farmers

Weekend rain clouds may have left the Easter Bunny a bit soggy, but they were good news to farmers and gardeners who have been hoping for spring showers.

Temperatures for the next five days will be about normal, and the high tomorrow will be from 42-46 degrees. Northerly winds will gradually diminish tonight and tomorrow.

According to Lyle Abel, Oakland County agricultural agent, the .60-inch of rain Saturday and Sunday was definitely a help, even though more is needed. But the Weather Bureau has come through with a forecast for more showers by the middle of the week and again late Saturday, so spring plantings will be safe for at least a few days longer.

Yesterday in downtown Pontiac the high was 61, the low 35 degrees. The low tonight is expected to be from 28 to 32 degrees. Today at 2 p.m the downtown temperature was 41 degrees.

Judge Available for Doctor Case

Circuit Judge Timothy Quinn of Caro is available for assignment to preside over trial of Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger's suit against Pontiac General Hospital.

State Court Administrator Meredith Doyle said unofficially in Lansing today that he is prepared to assign Judge Quinn to go to work in Pontiac tomorrow if Oakland County's four circuit judges disqualify themselves beforehand from hearing the case.

Dr. Sullenberger's suit for $250,000 damages and reinstatement from the hospital, from which he was suspended Nov. 13, is scheduled for trial beginning tomorrow. However, no judge is assigned to the case.

Doyle repeated that no outside judge would be assigned until the local judges have disqualified themselves. Although Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick, as presiding judge, has requested Doyle's office for an outside judge, he has balked at disqualifying himself.

Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, to whom the case had originally been assigned, was to be asked today to sign an order officially disqualifying himself. Judge Adams announced two weeks ago he would disqualify himself at Dr. Sullenberger's request.

The two other local judges, Frank L. Doty and H. Russel Holland, have remained on the sidelines. They have said they had no official involvement with the case.

200 Taken Off Harsen's Island

Fishermen, Cottagers Trapped Overnight by Ice Floes

ALGONAC (UP)— Nearly 200 fishermen and cottagers were rescued from Harsen's Island yesterday after being stranded overnight by ice floes blocking the north channel of the St. Clair River.

The group, lured to the small body of land Saturday by balmy weather, huddled on the shores or in their cottages until the Coast Guard cutter Ojibway fought its way through piled-up ice which had halted the ferry to the island.

The island is about a quarter of a mile off Algonac.

Many of those who stayed overnight slept in their cars while others stayed at cottages without lights or water. A few attended Easter services at two island churches.

About 400 persons were stranded Saturday night. Many were taken off by the Ojibway. Two car ferries, the Champion and Harsen's Island, took cars and passengers to the mainland yesterday in the wake of the Ojibway.

It was the first time in 15 years that the channel had been blocked.

Lad Killed When He Darts Into Car's Path

Six-year-old Paul DuBois of 117 Nahma St., Clawson, was fatally injured Saturday afternoon when struck by a car near his home. He died about two hours later at the William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

The driver of the car, Mrs. William S. Stewart, 29, of 165 Charlevoix St., Clawson, told police the boy darted from between two parked cars into the path of her auto.

She and the boy's mother, Mrs. Dale D. DuBois, took him to the hospital.

Mrs. Stewart made a statement to Clawson Police and was not held.

Does lightning always strike the ground?

Lightning, which will increase in the next few months as summer returns and the thunderstorm becomes commonplace, does not always strike the ground.

In fact, most of the electrical discharges we call lightning occur in the clouds and never reach ground level. They constitute an exchange of electrically-charged particles, positive and negative, and come about when balance between positive and negative particles is lacking.

Aerial lightning is of relatively little danger, compared to ground strikes. Since there is no grounding involved, aircraft often incur strikes and survive them unharmed.

Flight Ends in Muddy Cornfield placed on stretchers, tractors and airport baggage trucks would carry them several hundred yards to waiting ambulances.

Men went about the task in an almost automatic, machine - like way. There was little conversation.

State Troopers from posts reaching from Lansing to Pontiac, Sheriff's Deputies from Saginaw and Bay Counties, airport personnel, Red Cross, and Civil Defense workers made up the team.

HANGAR IS MORGUE

Almost a mile from the once peaceful cornfield, another crew of men had set up a temporary morgue in a huge hangar adjacent to the airport.

With stunning silence, ambulances carried a steadily mounting number of bodies to the hangar owned by the Dow Chemical Company.

In the shadow of a looming airliner, much like the twisted turbojet, stretchers were placed in orderly rows on the cold concrete floor. A murmur of hushed voices echoed through the vast steel structure.

Here, the task of identification was being carried out. As weary officials huddled over new arrivals, more and more sheet-covered victims bore name tags.

How the crash happened was the universal question. Some said the plane exploded before hitting the ground. Others said the craft suddenly nosed down, crashed and then exploded in a flash reported to have been visible ten miles away.

Shortly after 4 a.m., police decided to suspend further work at the crash scene until daylight. Surveying the disaster as men trudged back to cars, one worker looked to the landing strip and then to the wreckage, shaking his head.

"Only a few seconds," he whispered, and turned back with the others.

PILOT SHAKEN

One pilot among the first to have reached the scene stood at the airport's administration building. His eyes were like stone, his face haggard and drawn.

"I think I'll take the day off," he said shakily. He was to have piloted a morning flight leaving the airport.

As the workers were relieved and the sounds of disaster diminished, the rumble of planes close overhead began again.

Harry Shafer of Flint, who said he was sitting in a parked plane awaiting arrival of the airliner, said, "I was looking out the window when the plane nosed and exploded. A lot of flames shot up in the air."

At least 25 of the dead were from Michigan.

Mrs. Schweitzer, 41, was en route from Flint to Bay City where the Schweitzers had lived prior to his appointment April 1.

Schweitzer was en route from Grand Rapids to the airport by car when the plane crashed.

FLY TO SCENE

Capital officials and Civil Aeronautics Authority investigators flew to the crash scene from Washington. The Capital officials were aboard a Viscount.

The Viscount is powered by Rolls Royce turbine engines harnessed to propellors to combine the characteristics of jet and conventional piston-type engines.

Capital has 58 other Viscounts — the only airline in the nation to use them — and has employed the planes for almost three years. Most of the craft carry 44 passengers. A few hold 46.

This was the first time one of the fleet crashed. The Viscounts have been flown for five years in Europe without serious accident.

Capital Lauds Crew of Three Killed in Crash

WASHINGTON (UP) — The three crew members who died in the Midland, Mich., plane crash last night were described by Capital Airlines officials as "the kind of employes we like to hire."

The three were Capt. William J. Hull, 43, of Westwood, N.J.; Earle M. Binckley, 27, of Levittown, N.J.; and hostess Ruth Denecke, 27, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Hull was one of Capital's million-milers, having been a commercial pilot since April 1941. A native of Cooksville, Ohio, he was described as extremely popular with his crews.

Binckley, the first officer, a former Air Force jet fighter pilot, joined the airline in October 1956. He was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. He was a native of Los Angeles.

Miss Denecke, a graduate of the University of Buffalo, was described as "an excellent hostess—one of the best we had" by Mrs. Althea O'Hanlon, director of passenger service.

Storms Pound Northeast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stormy weather, with snow, rain and strong winds, pounded the Northeast section of the country today in the wake of wet weather which dampened most of the nation Easter Sunday.

The early spring snowstorms gave a wintry look to sections of the Midwest and falls from 6 to 10 inches were in prospect in northern New England.

A wide wet belt extended over the Northeast part of the country, with snow or rain from Maine southward to Virginia and westward through the middle Mississippi Valley and the eastern Great Lakes region.

HEAVY SNOW IN STATE

Snow piled up to a depth of nearly a foot in western sections of Northern Michigan, while drifts ranged up to 7 feet in extreme western parts of Nebraska.

Severe storms hit the southern Great Lakes region and middle Atlantic states yesterday. Thunderstorms and heavy rain, with gusty winds, hit coastal states from North Carolina into New England. More than 2 inches of rain fell in New York City, reported the wettest Easter Sunday since Weather Bureau records were first compiled in 1871. The rain virtually washed out the traditional Easter fashion parades in New York and many other cities.

Search Tampa Bay for Plane; 2 Aboard

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UP) — A Coast Guard search for a small plane piloted by a retired Detroiter resumed in the waters of Tampa Bay today. A woman was missing with him.

William E. Gapin, 53, who moved to Lakeland a year ago, and Mrs. John Wilson, 32, of Lakeland, vanished after taking off from Anna Maria Island, south of here, Friday in the direction of Mullet Key.

Mrs. Wilson's husband later identified debris picked up off the key as being from Gapin's Piper Tripacer plane.

Gapin, Mrs. Wilson, her husband and two daughters had flown to Mullet Key, a resort area, for the Easter weekend. Gapin flew his plane to Anna Maria Island for gasoline Friday. Mrs. Wilson went along for the ride.

Crash Counted as 2nd Worst

Greatest Air Disaster in Michigan Killed 58 in June 1950

DETROIT (INS) — Last night's tragic plane crash near the Tri-City Airport (serving Saginaw-Bay City-Midland) was the second worst disaster of its kind in Michigan.

The loss of 47 lives was 11 less than the death toll of a Northwest airliner that crashed and sank in Lake Michigan near South Haven during a storm on the night of June 24, 1950.

Only a few bits of the plane and human bodies were washed ashore in the crash which, up to that time, was the worst in U. S. air history. The plane sank in one of the deepest spots in Lake Michigan and no effort was ever made to raise it and its cargo of 58 dead.

Though Michigan is one of the busiest travel centers in the country, it has been comparatively free of major crashes in the past.

One woman was killed and five injured on July 9, 1956, when a propeller broke loose from an airliner carrying 34 persons while flying over Flat Rock.

The propeller of a Trans Canada Viscount plane flew loose and knifed through the plane killing Mrs. Mary Lippert, 31, of Rochester, Minn. The plane landed safely.

Another major tragedy was averted on Feb. 28, 1957, when a Capital airliner made an emergency landing at Willow Run after being stranded in mid-air for more than four hours. Twenty-seven were aboard.

Last night's tragedy over Freeland was the second major airline disaster on Easter Sunday.

A Trans World airliner crashed on Easter in 1956 on a hillside shortly after taking off from Greater Pittsburgh Airport; 22 were killed and 14 injured.

Senator Potter to Visit County on Thursday

Michigan Sen. Charles E. Potter will visit Oakland County Thursday as part of a week-long and state-wide tour in a bid to win re-election to Congress.

The Oakland County Republican Committee has arranged a 6:30 dinner for Sen. Potter at Aunt Fanny's Restaurant, 2244 N. Woodward Ave., Royal Oak.

Some 30 committee leaders and workers will meet the senator during his "meet the people back home" campaign.

The general public will have a chance to chat with the Congressional member during a reception planned for 8:30 that night at the Republican headquarters at 351 N. Woodward Ave., Birmingham.

Sen. Potter kicked off his whistle-stopping tour of the state today at a breakfast in his home district of Cheboygan. He will visit some 19 cities during the trip which will conclude in Lapeer Saturday night.

Bloomfield Township OKs '58-59 Budget of $214,450

BIRMINGHAM — At the annual meeting held in the Township Hall Saturday, Bloomfield Township approved a 1958-59 budget of $214,450.

Supervisor Arno Hulet told the 50 persons present of plans for the new fire hall to be built this summer on Westview drive. Future plans also call for two more stations in the township, he said.

Mrs. Bessie Griswold of 5015 Pon Valley Rd. presented a Flag and stand for the township offices, a tribute to Hulet and Deputy Clerk Ann Birrell for their 25 years of service to the area.

Plans, supervised by Delores Liddle, are being made for a dinner in their honor later this month.

A petition from Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Anzick for a connection to the Birmingham sewer system will be considered by the Birmingham City Commission this evening.

The couple wants to erect an office building on the land located on the north side of Maple avenue in Troy, a few feet east of Birmingham city limits.

The Anzicks have stated they are willing to assume all costs should the permit be granted.

The report of Grover Serenbetz, city engineer, on the road oiling program for the summer will be submitted. He has included a list of about 75 streets, amounting to nearly 50,000 lineal feet, to be considered for treatment.

Also on the agenda is the awarding of the contract for the purchase of Dutch elm disease spray. City Forester Charles Gale has submitted a list of four bidders.

Executive Secretary Edwin Kirbert said today the Birmingham YMCA is now "par for the course."

"The 'Y' has been here six years and has been broken into six times," he said.

An attempted robbery last night was believed to have been foiled by Birmingham Police who turned their patrol car spotlight on the building as they passed it.

Mrs. Sidney Lidgey

Service for Mrs. Sidney (Ida) Lidgey, 73, of 1585 Ruffner St., Birmingham, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Officiating will be the Rev. Reginald Becker of Embury Methodist Church with burial in Oakhill Cemetery, Pontiac.

Mrs. Lidgey died Saturday in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

A former Pontiac resident, she had lived in Birmingham 10 years and was a member of the Pontiac Rebekah Lodge.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Ivan Woodhull of Troy, Mrs. Edward Johnson of Ferndale, Mrs. LeRoy Jeffery of Trenton and Mrs. Isabel Johnson of Birmingham; two sons, Sidney of Detroit and George of Birmingham.

Schweitzer was en route from Grand Rapids to the Tri-City Airport by car when the plane carrying his wife crashed in a muddy cornfield 300 feet from the runway. He was to have met Mrs. Schweitzer at the airport.

Schweitzer was advertising manager of the Bay City Times for a year and a half before moving to Grand Rapids just before the Herald was purchased by Booth Newspapers, Inc. The Times is also a Booth newspaper.

Aerosol Paint Sprays Lines on Tennis Court

BERGENFIELD, N. J. — A new self-spraying white marking paint has been produced by a Bergenfield company for use by tennis players who lack permanent court facilities.

With the aerosol product, the company says, any surface suitable for tennis can be lined. It's said to be harmless to grass and easily used on cement or blacktop surfaces.

Ex-Queen's Luggage Fills 50 Cases, Trunks

COLOGNE, Germany (UP) — Five tons of belongings of ex-Queen Soraya have been shipped here from the royal palace in Iran. Much of it was stuffed into 50 big trunks and suitcases which arrived by plane yesterday.

Waterford Studies Recreation Budget

A recommended Waterford Township Recreation budget totaling $31,159 is now being considered by the Board of Education and the Township board.

Director Tom Belton said that a proposed increase of $5,722 over last year's $25,437 budget, would be used for the salary of an assistant superintendent and expansion of the summer playground program.

More than 9,500 individuals participated in one or more recreation activities last year and additional funds will be needed to accomodate the anticipated increase, Belton said.

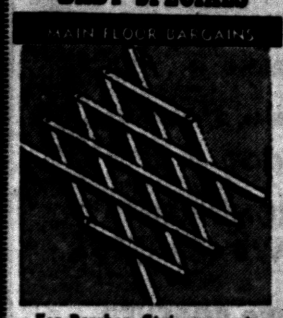

The Recreation board has approved the budget. The board of education and the township provide the funds for operation of the recreation department by dividing the cost evenly.

Narrowly Escape Bomb

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A dozen British army wives and 25 Cypriots had a narrow escape today when a time bomb exploded in the store for service families at Famagusta. The incendiary bomb set fire to the store but no one was hurt. Army firemen put out the flames.

Security for You

If Careless, and Past 72, Check on Law

By RAY HENRY

From H. A. of San Bernardino, Calif.: "I'm 74 and still working at a good wage. I've just found out that I could have started collecting Social Security, regardless of my high wages, when I reached 72. Will it be possible for me to collect any back payments?"

Yes. The Social Security law in cases like yours allows for 12 months of back payments. You should apply for your payments immediately so you don't lose further payments.

From Mrs. K. S. D. of Pittsburgh, Pa.: My husband had a stroke about three months ago and he's been told that he'll never be able to work again. He's paid into Social Security ever since it started and is now 58. Is it possible for him to collect any Social Security payments? I'm also 58. If he can collect Social Security will it also be possible for me to collect? I've never worked under Social Security."

It appears that your husband will be entitled to Social Security disability payments after he's been disabled for six months. He should apply for payments as soon as the six months have passed. You will not be entitled to payments based on your husband's disability.

From R. L. of Washington, D. C.: "How long does it ordinarily take for a person to start getting his Social Security after he applies? I applied over a month ago and haven't heard a word since."

Unless your case is unusual, it will take from six to eight weeks for your payments to start. If you have to wait much longer than that, you should get in touch with the Social Security office to which you applied.

From M. K. of Minot, N. D.: "My wife passed away last month. She was collecting $45 a month from Social Security due to my Social Security coverage. Am I entitled to any payment from the government toward her burial expenses? She never worked under Social Security."

Your wife's death doesn't entitle you to the lump sum payment from the Social Security Administration. Only people actually covered by Social Security due to their own work are eligible for the lump sum payment.

From Mrs. O. B. of Oakland, Calif.: "About three years ago I separated from my husband. Since then, I've been living on some money left to me by my mother. This money is getting low and I want to go to work. I don't have a Social Security number. If I apply for and get a number, will my husband be able to trace my whereabouts through the Social Security offices? I don't want him to bother me."

The Social Security Administration will not give out information about you unless it has permission from you to do so.

From W. A. T. of Albany, N. Y.: "Please settle an argument. A friend says I'll be entitled to $108.50 a month from Social Security at 65 if I've worked in a Social Security job for ten years. Is this right?"

No. If a man works under Social Security for ten years, he's sure of receiving retirement payments when he reaches 65 and retires. But, the actual size of the payments will depend on his earnings.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service. You may obtain Ray Henry's new social security handbook by sending 25 cents in coin to this newspaper and requesting "Security for You" booklet).

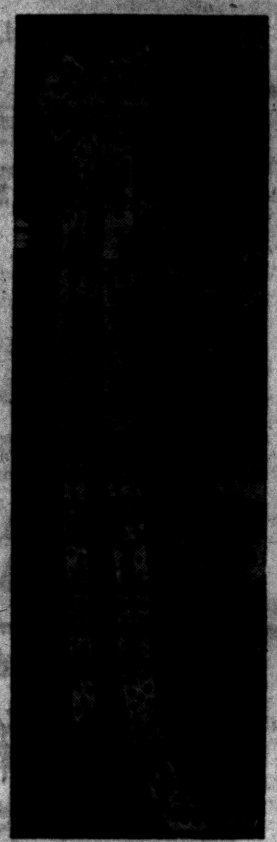

10,000 Cars Switched to Liquefied Petroleum

CHICAGO—Some 10,000 individual car owners converted their gasoline-powered automobiles to the use of liquefied-petroleum gas in 1957 and another 100,000 commercial vehicles switched to the L. P. fuel.

The 110,000 converts are nearly three times as many as switched in 1952.

Glove Fixes Swing

NEW YORK — A new golf glove is said by its manufacturer to help a player correct the familiar fault of cocking the wrists too soon on the backswing.

ALL DECKED OUT — This hat was "aces" at a "Swap the Hat" party in Cincinnati, Ohio. Its creator, Mrs. Robert Brewer, models the just-for-fun style, which she fashioned for her bridge club gala.

Baby-Bottle Warmer Operates Off Faucet

RAVENNA, Ohio — A Ravenna concern has perfected a baby-bottle warmer that operates by attaching a rubber or plastic hose to the hot-water faucet, putting the bottle in the warmer, and turning on the water until the bottle rotates.

The manufacturer says the spinning action eliminates milk film and keeps the bottle's nipple from clogging.

GENERAL MOTORS

$100,000 "AIM TO LIVE" CONTEST!

16 BEAUTIFUL 1958 GM CARS • 100 FRIGIDAIRE APPLIANCES

1. READ THESE FACTS ABOUT YOUR HEADLIGHTS—THEY ARE VITAL TO YOUR SAFETY AFTER DARK . . . AND THIS INFORMATION MAY HELP YOU WIN!

1. Three times as many fatalities occur after dark, in proportion to mileage driven. 2. Up to 80% of the light needed for safe driving is lost when headlight aim is too low, high or off-side. 3. More than half of all cars on the road today have headlights that are NOT aimed properly.

Here's what you can do to help correct these problems: 1. Reduce speed after dark. Never overdrive your headlights. 2. Be more cautious and courteous—always dim your headlights whenever you meet an oncoming car or when approaching another car from the rear. 3. Have your headlights aimed regularly, at least twice a year. They were aimed before your new car was delivered, but bumps and normal settling of springs can cause misalignment. And a fraction of an INCH of error at the lens throws headlights many FEET "off the beam" ahead of you. 4. Be sure you have the most and best light available. If your headlamps don't have three small glass "aiming points" on the lens, get the modern kind used on all new cars today. Their "aiming points" permit quicker, more accurate adjustment for safety maintenance and they'll give you much more light where you need it for safety.

2. PICK UP AN OFFICIAL ENTRY BLANK!

There's absolutely nothing to buy! Just drive in to your nearest GM car dealer or any service station or garage displaying the AIM TO LIVE sign, and pick up an official AIM TO LIVE entry blank. And for safety's sake—have your headlights checked while you're there.

3. WRITE A NIGHT-DRIVING SAFETY SLOGAN!

The AIM TO LIVE contest is open to any licensed driver in the United States. Just write a night-driving safety slogan in ten words or less on the official entry blank. A slogan like "Courteous drivers take a dim view of glaring lights" may make you a winner. Enter today, contest closes April 30.

Limited to continental U.S.A. Contest subject to federal, state and local regulations.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRDS

ANSWER: The boy in our illustration has found a hibernating bird, but don't expect that you will be able to rush out and dig up another. Only one species, the Poor-will (a western cousin of the Whip-poor-will) has been discovered hibernating. Even if you did have the luck to run across a hibernating Poor-will, it would be in such a state that you might judge it to be dead.

The value of hibernation is that through it animals may escape starvation during the season when insects, plants and other animals are so difficult to find.

Long ago, people tried to explain the absence of birds in winter time by saying that they hibernated, like bears or chipmunks. Then it was discovered that most birds go south for the winter, and students jumped to the conclusion that none at all hibernated. Everybody laughed at the idea of a bird sleeping through the cold months. A few years ago, however, a hibernating Poor-will was discovered in a cave in Arizona, and the scientists had to revise their idea again.

FOR YOU TO DO: Instead of wasting time looking for a hibernating bird, start watching instead for migrating birds. They are arriving by the hundreds from the south now or soon hereafter, and this is the best time of year to make their acquaintance.

Fly in the Salmon Plays Hob With TV Commercial

TOKYO (AP)—The nightmare that haunts every producer of television food commercials happened at Radio Tokyo—a fly made an unscheduled guest appearance.

The insect perched on an open can of salmon just as the camera focused on it for a commercial. For five seconds the fly feasted, and the cameras transmitted its enjoyment to the viewing audience.

The next day letters from viewers flooded the network and the sponsor of the program, a fishery company. The general tone was that the salmon wasn't for humans, it was for the flies. The fish company was only placated when the station gave it another 30-minute spot free. Normally the time would have cost 300,000 yen—$833.

Israel Marks 10th Year

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel's 10th anniversary was ushered in today by a religious ceremony on Mt. Zion. Prayers were recited and 14 Yemenite Jews blew ancient shofars (ram's horns).

Freighter Founders in Mediterranean

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP) — Reports reaching here today said the Panamanian freighter Pan Ocean sank in the Mediterranean yesterday 200 miles from this Suez Canal port.

The British freighter Persic was said to have rescued all 31 crew members. They were expected here today.

The cause of the sinking was not immediately known.

The population of El Salvador is about 140 persons per square mile, the second most densely populated of the American republics.

Pius XII Calls for End to War

Makes No Reference Directly to Communists in Easter Address

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Pius XII yesterday urged Christians and all others who honestly love peace to work toward ending war in the world.

The pontiff made no direct reference to the Communists during his 15-minute annual Easter address. He told a crowd of 250,000 which thronged the cold and windy St. Peter's Square: "Individuals, nations and states, institutions and groups are invited by the King of Peace to press on with confidence in this difficult and urgent task for God."

"Sincerity in willing peace," he said, "promptness in the complete discharge of all reasonable sacrifices which it demands, honesty in discussing its problems ought of their nature to scatter distrust."

The Pope said that the intelligence, prudence and steadfastness of the West must be devoted to the job of peacemaking "together with the cooperation of all others who honestly love peace."

"Let the splendor of the Resurrection be an invitation to men men to put back the world and all that it contains within the life-giving light of Christ, and to conform to his teachings and designs all souls and bodies, peoples and states, their form, laws and plans for the future," he said.

For the first time in three years the pontiff's Easter message made no direct reference to nuclear weapons.

Pontiac Tax Rate Reduced

Pontiac taxpayers received a cheery greeting from City officials when the rate was reduced from $13.70 to $13.27.

This is especially welcome at a time when most other tax structures are inching steadily upward, in spite of the current business situation.

As a matter of fact, the City's assessed valuation actually stepped from approximately $254 million to $271 million. On the face of it, this sounds like an increase for everyone.

But that isn't true.

Industry absorbed nearly all.

Between $13 and $14 million of the $16 million plus went to that source. This means the great bulk of the taxpayers will receive a small reduction when it is doubly helpful. A substantial part of the balance of the increase comes from new dwellings and businesses that were constructed during the year.

The rest covers residences that were improved, plus property which moved upward slightly so that it could be equalized fairly with the rest of the city.

Both of these are necessary.

There will always be some of this.

The other day The Press received a letter spanking us for speaking favorably of the city's tax rates. The writer of that epistle should move into some of the outlying districts or other cities in the United States and try to figure out "wot hoppened" when his tax bill arrives.

By and large we have a well-run and well-administered municipality.

Nature Again Spares Oakland County Area

A large share of the country has been ravaged once more by torrential rains, tornadoes and all manner of unhappy experiences. These range from California to the New England states.

Oddly, our little sector of Southeastern Michigan has been spared the worst of the winter weather this year. Florida, perhaps, leads the nation with the sorriest total experience of the 48 states, but all parts of the country have been victims of severe and unusual visitations of nature in her unpleasant moods.

During the heart of the winter, we did have three successive subzero days, but many sections have suffered steadily and almost without let up. They never were allowed to catch their breath.

Another Step Toward an Integrated Europe

The first meeting of the 142 member European Parliament Assembly at Strasbourg on the French-German border, elected by acclamation ROBERT SCHUMAN, former premier of France, as its president.

It will control the new six nation common market (Euromart) and the atomic pool (Euratom) as well as the great steel and coal pool which has been in successful operation for five years. The communities embrace the 170 million people of West Germany, France and Italy, with 36 members each; Belgium and The Netherlands with 14 members each and Luxembourg with six.

There are two other European groups of a parliamentary nature—the Council of Europe founded in 1949 and representing 15 nations and the Western European Union which includes Great Britain. They provide valuable political forums but have no real power.

The new assembly is supranational and has both supervisory and legislative authority. At the present time it is limited to working toward economic integration of member countries. It is hoped that this may evolve into political integration also and a real parliament of Europe would result.

The Man About Town

Worst in History

Anniversary of a Storm That Had Us Snowbound

Prosperity: What you earn, feel, fold—and send to Washington.

When the weather feels springlike, don't get too chesty. Today is the anniversary of the digging out period of the worst blizzard in Pontiac's history. It was that spring election day storm of April, 1886. Nothing before or since, in our 140 years has our community been so completely stymied.

The drifts on Saginaw St. were higher than the tops of the store windows. The old two-story brick courthouse was almost buried. There was no travel on the roads or railroads for nearly a week. Our sewage system was mostly in the planning, and many householders dug tunnels to their outhouses.

Up until that time it had been a mild winter. The storm arrived nearly three weeks after the official arrival of spring, and caught most people unprepared. Several deaths ensued, but it was impossible to hold funerals for nearly 10 days.

The snow finally went off in a hurry, encouraged by a warm rain, and both the Clinton River and Pontiac Creek were on rampages. The storm had started on the spring election day, but very few voters got out. Some of the election boards were snowbound for several days in the polling places. It also was the last snow of the season, and it turned out to be a normal spring and summer.

An aerial count of the lakes in Lapeer County, according to in soil conservation work there, shows 155. Oakland county has 423.

David Lawrence Says:

Red 'Propaganda Win' Ill-Founded

WASHINGTON — Amid all the talk about how the Soviets allegedly scored a "propaganda victory" by their announcement of a decision temporarily to suspend H-bomb tests, the world has lost sight of a significant story.

LAWRENCE

Foreign Minister Gromyko, who set forth the viewpoint of the Soviet government in a speech more than 8,000 words long, uttered only a single sentence referring to the ultimate possibility of doing away with the use of nuclear weapons themselves.

Certainly the damage that could be done by tests is infinitesimal compared to the havoc that would be wrought on the human race by the actual use of these nuclear bombs in war.

Why did the Soviets say almost nothing about abolishing H-bomb tests? Every argument about the horrors of tests would seem to apply to the terrible consequences of an atomic war.

The answer is to be found by a careful examination of the Gromyko speech itself. It is clumsily contrived to accomplish a single objective. And that objective is wholly political. It is designed to drive a wedge inside the United States, inside Great Britain, inside France, inside Italy and inside West Germany.

The text of the speech was, of course, far too long to be printed in full in all these countries, but the Soviets knew it was a safe bet that the sections pertaining to each country would be printed in the press of that country.

If it be assumed, as some politician once said, that "the people are too damned dumb to understand," then the propaganda writers in Moscow might count on success. But they know better. Their speechwriting is aimed not necessarily at the masses, but at the gullible classes—the misguided pacifists, certain so-called "liberal" newspapers and journalists, and, most of all, the politicians who seem to care more about the fulfillment of their own ambitions and their party's political fortunes than they do for their country.

The Gromyko speech is not a clever piece of propaganda at all on the subject of H-bomb tests. It is a palpable piece of political chicanery and is transparently insincere.

The first part of the speech contains a pious profession of allegedly high purpose. It declares the Soviets' "main aim to be an agreement with other powers on the unconditional prohibition of all types of atomic and hydrogen weapons, and stopping their production, and on a complete destruction of the existing stockpiles of these weapons, under proper control."

Never again in the entire 8,000-word speech is there any further reference to that "aim." Nor is there any explanation as to why the Soviets rejected a few months ago a resolution of the United Nations General Assembly which has exactly the same "aim" under a system of "proper control."

In his speech at Budapest last Friday, Khrushchev says he favors "international control" of tests, but he says nothing about any ban on the production and use of nuclear weapons.

The Gromyko statement obviously reflects appreciation of the support given to the Soviet propaganda by the activities of many nuclear scientists in the United States and other countries who submitted a petition to the United Nations recently urging that nuclear tests be stopped.

The Soviet foreign minister also picks up the charges of suppression of data made against the Atomic Energy Commission by leading Democrats in Congress. He quotes exultingly from the protests made by the British Trade Union Council against nuclear tests. He pays considerable attention to the desire of France to become a nuclear power—which the Soviet foreign minister doesn't seem to think would be a wise thing.

In every country in the West, fortunately, there are clear-sighted individuals in government, in the press, in the churches and in the civic life of the nation who patriotically uphold the policies of their own government.

It is this intelligent, thoughtful leadership which is able to prevent Soviet propaganda from making inroads in the top councils of the western governments and to see that it exercises no influence detrimental to the safety of the West.

Physical Labor No Trick for Hardy Youngster of 77

"I'm a great-grandfather 77 years old," says Mr. Connecticut, "and I am warned by the family, some friends and even some doctors not to do any heavy work, because, they say, one reads in the papers about men passing away from shoveling snow."

DR. BRADY

"Personally, having no history of any heart trouble and being an ex-farmer and still active, I contend that if the facts were known these men, many of them only middle-aged, who shovel snow and die, never did any hard work and have not built up any muscle or trained their vital organs to stand sudden exertion."

"Of course I understand that we older men should not try and cannot do the things we did when much younger; but I still maintain that physical labor in moderation, if one has a background of work, should do a man no harm. (C. L. g.)"

I can't think of any amendment, correction or criticism of your philosophy, sir. Physical labor in moderation—that's the gist of it. Shovel that snow and take your time about it.

Please accept with my compliments the booklet I am sending you—CVD—about heart and artery troubles. Anyone else who wants a copy may send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for it.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

"I find belly breathing works wonders when one is tense and wakeful. It seems almost hypnotic in producing sleep that is more restful and refreshing . . . (H. S. T.)"

Answer — Thank you. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet How to Sleep Well. Enclose 35 cents in addition if you ask also for pamphlet Belly Breathing.

"Son, 12, has had weeping eczema since infancy. He has received whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus immunization; but because of this skin allergy, the doctor refused to vaccinate him or give him polio vaccine. Can you ease my mind . . . (Mrs. M. E.)"

Answer — Supplement his diet with a good daily ration of calcium and vitamin D for a month and then the polio vaccine will give no trouble. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet Relief for Allergy.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 150 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'FDR Statement Quoted Wrong'

That statement by FDR has been mistated so many times, it should be corrected. It should read: "There will be no American blood spilled on foreign soil unless we are attacked." And the remark that no Democrat blood was meant to be spilled is so asinine no answer is needed. But I can state a case in this area of a GOP booster who bought a farm to get draft exemption. 'It Doesn't Sound Right to Me'

How can certain drivers get a license when it is revoked several times in one year? I've read the same names and wonder if laws have changed. A boy on a motor scooter with no license gets no punishment and adults caught driving with revoked license get only $25 fine. It doesn't sound right to me.

Wonderer

'Bugs' Baer Says:

Neat occupation for our financial whizzes has been finding antiseptic names for temporary lulls.

A rose by any other name would shed its petals as sweet. The idea is to tag a picnic so it won't panic anybody.

The last one was called a recession. Before that the Democrats called theirs a depression. The difference is entirely in the difference.

When the market disintegrated in 1929 it was another Republican egg. The happy GOP tiptoed through the cannibalistic margins calling it a healthy reaction.

I remember during Woody Wilson's hitch when a false peace rumor pulled the string on the bucket. That financial convulsion was called profit-taking.

The "outs" play these rippling keyboards right out to the strictly diminuendo and pianissimo. It all depends on whose bull-fiddle is being gored.

The healthy reaction was classified by man who used to name Pullman cars. He also came up with something he called averaging.

You follow an evaporating stock from seventy down to seven. You finally get it all but you're busted. That could be average too.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Broaden Outlook to Forget Defects

Sybil is really the victim of her mother's abnormal sex complex. But Sybil is now actually idolatrous for she is almost literally bowing down to a false god called a small bust line! The best way to reduce your slavery to any part of your anatomy is to widen your perspective. Joining my "Compliment Club" is a quick remedy.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case X-373: Sybil J., aged 19, has a very good figure but she still suffers from an inferiority complex.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, look at my breasts," she began abruptly. "They are so large I'm sure people must make fun of me.

"For my mother has always told me to keep them compressed in a tight brassiere, which I do. But still they look so large I am embarrassed as I walk along the street.

"That's why I don't dare wear sweaters or tight fitting dresses. So I wonder if a plastic surgeon could reduce their size?"

WIDEN PERSPECTIVE

Yes, a plastic surgeon could easily remove some of the fat of which the breasts are chiefly composed, and thus give Sybil a smaller bust line.

But it is far simpler to give Sybil a wider perspective. Then her worry over her full bust will be reduced to a negligible degree.

One reason for mentioning Sybil's problem is to show you readers that what one girl deplores, another envies. (See tomorrow's case.)

Thousands of women beseech us physicians to reduce their bust size, but thousands of other girls are just as eager to have us give them a method by which to increase their small breasts.

Human nature is thus inclined to grumble about everything. The "have nots" are constantly envying and often feuding with the "have somes."

Communists illustrate this same idea. As soon as a Communist gets a little wealth, then he generally becomes a capitalist.

It isn't unselfish idealism which makes the usual Communist, but greed. In America, however, sometimes a son's hatred of a domineering capitalistic father makes the child espouse communism as a means of getting even with his dad.

SEX COMPLEXES

Sybil's problem goes back to her mother, who has a sex complex. It was her mother who thus insisted that Sybil lace her breasts so tightly in high school that Sybil was in discomfort.

And it is her mother's phobia that has infected Sybil's thinking and now makes Sybil unhappy.

Actually, Sybil's breasts are not unduly large. And even if they were, so what?

Millions of women have very large breasts, just as a matter of heredity.

But women must never become so idolatrous that they worship any segment of their anatomy.

What makes you girls attractive to men is not your bustline or your legs or your eyes or mouth or nose or ears, but the sum-total of all your physical and personality traits.

It is the complete Y-O-U that wins an engagement ring from the opposite sex, so widen your outlook and quit being slaves to your legs, whether they be skinny or large, or your breasts, whether they be full or skimpy.

DANGEROUS HYPNOSIS

When you are undergoing hypnosis, we urge you to focus on just one thing, such as a lighted candle, and dismiss everything else from your mind.

That produces a warped perspective which will throw you into the abnormal state called hypnosis.

Well, millions of Americans indulge in a somewhat similar type of self-hypnosis when they keep thinking about their imagined defects. Soon they develop an abnormal outlook, as Sybil has done.

So learn the true secret of winning friends and popularity. It consists of inflating the ego of your companion with honest compliments.

Turn your attention off your self and on the other fellow by looking for his merits as the basis for the honest compliments you pay him.

Cure for Lung Cancer May Be in B Vitamins

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — If smoking causes lung cancer there may be a way of treating or even preventing it with one of the B vitamins.

Tests on mice already are under way here. The first results will be reported probably in June. If they are favorable, there still will be a long jump from mouse to man, but it will be worth a good try.

This first hopeful turn in the long controversial story of cigarettes and lung cancer came in a meeting of cancer researchers and science writers here. The meeting was one of several across the country sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Dr. Benjamin F. Freedlander and a colleague, Frederic A. French, disclosed they were testing the ability of a chemical known as 3-acetyl pyridine, or 3-AP for short, to cause a type of lung malignancy in mice.

And at the same time they are testing the ability of niacin to prevent or counteract any cancerous process which may be started by 3-AP.

NO PROOF YET

There is no proof yet that 3-AP causes cancer but Dr. Freedlander reported circumstantial evidence which puts it under suspicion.

The steps in the chain of circumstances were these:

Dr. Freedlander as well as researchers elsewhere determined that 3-AP and niacin are closely related chemically; that mice fed 3-AP develop pellagra, which can be cured with niacin; that the liver and spleen of a laboratory mouse can convert a certain amount of 3-AP into niacin; and that 3-AP can displace niacin in mouse cancers, thereby robbing the malignancies of an essential growth factor.

Additionally, Dr. Freedlander demonstrated that mice kept on a niacin-deficient diet and given a cancer-causing chemical developed twice as many malignant growths as mice which got a normal diet plus the cancer chemical.

These were the premises which led to the current experiment to test the possible cancer-causing powers of 3-AP and the ability of niacin to reverse or prevent them.

ALREADY TAKE NIACIN

Some cigarette smokers already are taking niacin on the strength of the information so far developed. Dr. Freedlander said there was no indication yet that it would do any good but added that there is no reason to believe it would be harmful.

The work is being done at San Francisco's Mt. Zion Hospital and is supported by the Tobacco Industry Research Committee.

Movie Council Seeks Subsidy

Industry 'Lays an Egg,' Says Professor; Needs Federal Assistance

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The Hollywood AFL Film Council wants federal subsidies for the movie industry which, a professor says, has laid an economic egg.

The council addressed letters to 35 film industry leaders yesterday, urging a united effort to obtain subsidies, tax relief and other federal aid.

It cited a study by Dr. Irving Bernstein of UCLA's Institute of Industrial Relations, which said in part: "The economic performance of the motion picture industry since World War II has been something less than colossal. In fact, it has laid an egg."

From 1946 to 1956, weekly attendance at movies dropped from 90 million to 46½ million and box-office receipts declined by 400 million dollars a year, said the report. The study was made at the request of the council, which represents organized labor in films.

There were 742 actors under contract in 1946. In 1956 there were 229. Production workers dropped from 24,000 to 13,000 in the same period. One hundred fewer pictures were produced in 1956 than in 1946.

Television, higher ticket prices and a change in the living pattern of the American people were blamed by Dr. Bernstein for the decline.

He predicted that the movie industry will never fully recover the lost ground. Pay television and a teen-age attendance boom expected in the next decade from the postwar baby boom are the best hopes for the movies' future, he added.

Harvard University was founded by the Puritans in 1636. But it was not until 1639 that the name was officially changed to honor John Harvard, who contributed money and books to aid the college.

Bob Considine Says:

American Circuses--They're the Greatest

NEW YORK (INS)—During our trip to Moscow last winter we took in a nifty little circus and wrote a piece about it. In effect, we said it was nice to see a one-ring circus once again, funny clowns, a minimum of chorus girls nervously swinging to and fro, and such animal acts as an elephant who could tell what time it was and a hippo who thought she was a lap dog.

FEELINGS HURT

Well, it hurt the feelings of a fine old circus showman named Pat Valdo, who is director of personnel of Ringling Bros., Barnum & Bailey. Pat, 76, opened another the other night, and expects to be doing that sort of thing for another 20 years, at least. Here's his defense of bigness.

"Television tried three cameo-sized circuses, Big Top, Super Circus and Circus Time. All went off the air.

"If it weren't very important to have dozens of things going on at the same time a representative of the Russian circus trust would not have been sent to New York to try to get one of our regulars to show the Soviet Union how to do it. He was Alexander Basy, representing 'Amsov Bureau,' which books American acts for Russia. He was convinced that a three-ring circus would be a sensation in Moscow and Russia in general.

MIDGET MIGHTY

"You speak of the weight lifters in the Moscow one-ring circus. We have a midget who holds a 180-pound man and two additional midgets on his shoulders, and also an act in which human beings are juggled on the feet instead of cannonballs.

"The 'sad-faced Czech' girl who did a trapese act that made you all look away was sad-faced probably because most of those people are. Besides, she wasn't going to hurt herself. All aerialists who do anything dangerous are required by Russian law to have a safety lunge rope attached to them.

"And what's so special about Durov's trained hippo? Granted, Durov is a wonderful trainer. The world knows that. But no more so than Alfred Court, who had an act which mixed lions, tigers, leopards (including a Russian snow leopard) Great Danes and two hyenas—the only time hyenas had ever been trained.

"We have three hippos. It's no trick to make them eat. Also you can put your arm in their mouths with perfect safety. They're vegetarians. We've taught them to pull carts, and support riders. But we don't use them in the garden because of the time they'd take waddling out to their ring.

"I am not disputing the fact that the program you mentioned is first class. But really, I believe it would look a little thin in the Garden and could not by any stretch of the imagination be called, as we are called without question, The Greatest Show on Earth."

Wives Finish Drunks

TOKYO (INS)—Police of the Asakusa precinct say they have found an effective method for curing a man arrested for drunkness. They tape-record his conversation after he is taken into custody. Next day they play the tape back for the now sober offender—and his wife. The wife, they say, does the rest.

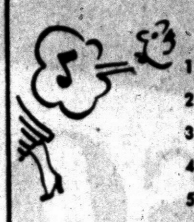

Air Police Go Hunting

WIESBADEN, Germany (INS)—The tough Air Police guarding U. S. Air Force headquarters posted this notice after an intensive day of patrolling and investigating: "The Air Police Investigations Section has in its possession the following lost property: Three scooters, two sleds, one toy car and four bicycles."

Extra Toll Irks Driver

KOKOMO, Ind. (INS)—Frank Oliver drove away from a rest station on the Indiana Toll Road, believing his wife was asleep in the back seat. A state policeman flagged him down and informed him Mrs. Oliver was still back at the station. Oliver, recounting his experience later, said: "What really annoyed me was that they charged me another 50 cents to make the trip back for her!"

See the Ford Show on NBC-TV

"FORD STATION WAGON LIVIN' IS THE LIFE!"

Lowest-priced wagon. Like all Ford wagons, this handsome 2-door has wide wrap-around liftgate for greater visibility . . . concealed assist springs for easy opening! With all its advanced styling you'd never dream it's still *lowest priced of the low-price three!

You can have the Thunderbird's own V-8 GO, up to 300 horsepower strong, in any Ford wagon you choose! Or you may select the Mileage Maker Six, most advanced, most economical Six in its field. Choose Six or V-8, you'll find the going's great!

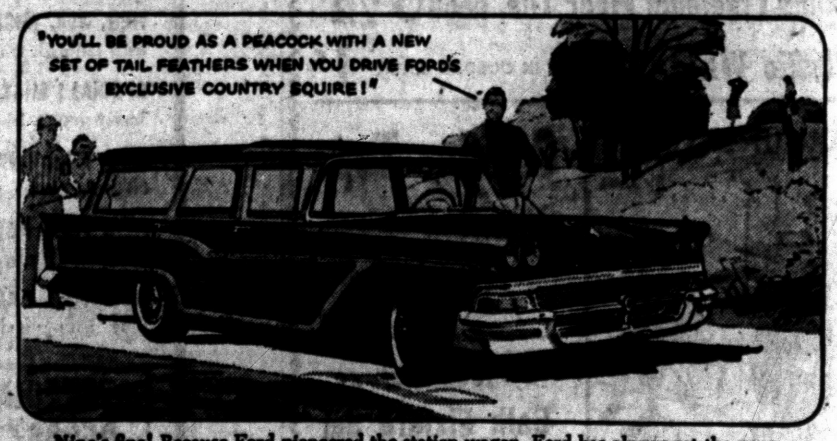

You'll make an impressive entrance whenever you arrive in this brilliant, new Del Rio Ranch Wagon. Luxuriously trimmed inside and out, this 2-door beauty, like all 58 Fords, has new Magic-Circle steering to make your parking and maneuvering up to 12% easier!

Big as all outdoors. There's nearly nine feet of level floor space in this wagon with Stowaway seat tucked away and tailgate down. What's more, like all Ford wagons, its wide liftgate can be operated with just one hand! Let your Ford Dealer demonstrate.

Pamper your passengers with this roomy, gentle-riding 9-passenger Country Sedan with four big doors. Because Ford sells half again as many wagons as its nearest competitor, all six Ford wagons are priced lower* than comparable competitive wagons.

Nine's fine! Because Ford pioneered the station wagon, Ford has always set the pace in wagon styling. This 9-passenger Country Squire, for example, is the only wagon at anywhere near its price with this paneling that looks like mahogany, wears like steel!

Hal Boyle Says:

When in Russia, Television Watches You

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That the National Laugh Foundation has picked this wisecrack by Bob Hope as the funniest of the year: "In Russia they have a television set in every hotel room. But instead of you watching it, it watches you."

That a government study on the life expectancy of household appliances found that a new refrigerator or electric range lasts an average of 15 years, a new washing machine 9 to 10 years.

That the big-bosom boom may be receding. Candy Jones Conover, who books many of the lovelies for TV commercials, says most ad agencies no longer want girls who breast the tape at more than 34 to 35 inches.

That auto tires underinflated just five pounds can run up your gas bills nearly three per cent on a long trip.

That one Detroit firm now makes an all-purpose station wagon that can be used as a family car, an ambulance, or a hearse. Sounds like the perfect vehicle for Sunday driving.

That many people have heart attacks without knowing it and survive. A recent study of 5,000 autopsies in Michigan disclosed 175 such cases. Their average age at death was 71, or longer than the usual life span.

That police estimate 65 per cent of employes who handle other people's cash dip into it now and then for their own purposes.

That it was Mark Twain who observed: "When we remember we are all mad, the mysteries disappear and life stands explained."

WHAT IN THE WORLD? — Air view records a surrealistic impression of the New York Central's newly opened 14-million-dollar Robert R. Young Yard, named in memory of the railroad company's late president. Covering 675 acres and stretching for four miles just west of Elkhart, Ind., the electronically controlled freight yard, called the most modern in the world, is expected to pay for itself in three years by reducing the Central's operating expenses some $4,750,000 annually. It contains 96 miles of track with a total capacity of 7,873 cars and has such advanced features of electronic automation as a closed circuit television network, a magnetic memory which memorizes destination of each car, analog computers, electric eyes and radar. The magnetic memory, when called upon later, automatically routes each car onto the correct one of the 72 classification tracks (above) on which outbound trains are built.

British Vessel Readymade for Nuclear Power

LONDON (INS) — The British already have a ship in the water which can easily be converted to thermonuclear power.

Cheap power from the limitless seas may be all of ten to twenty years away but the British are missing no bets. When a marine thermonuclear apparatus is eventually designed and perfected the British will be ready to convert shipping to H-power.

A new 10,500 ton tramp ship, the "Weybridge," has recently completed successful trials for the Britain Steamship Company.

It is propelled by a diesel and incorporates what is believed to be the first gas turbine as a main auxiliary in a merchant ship.

But the Britain Steamship Company chairman, Edmund Watts, visualizes the possibility of converting the Weybridge to thermonuclear power before her span is served and has incorporated a number of design features to facilitate such a conversion. The duct keels, for example, would serve neatly for a marine thermonuclear apparatus.

Sheriff Bans Necking With Visitors to Jail

A warm embrace by a couple—shocking to observers — led the sheriff to issde this order to his chief jailer:

"You will immediately instruct all visitors under your supervision that demonstrations of affection, other than a kiss of greeting and a kiss goodbye, are out of line in the lobby. If any prisoner has visitors and they proceed to such demonstrations of affection (necking), the visitors will be immediately ordered to leave the lobby and the prisoner will be immediately returned to his cell."

Oakland Townships Hold Annual Meetings on Budgets

Generally Okay Increased Funds

Decisions Uncertain in Southfield, Novi Due to Incorporation Prospects

Increases in operating expenses were the order of the day in most Oakland County townships as proposed budgets were approved at annual meetings Saturday afternoon.

In two townships the prospect of village and city incorporation could nullify the budgets.

The annual meetings are held each year, according to law, to permit residents to approve or reject proposed budgets drawn up by township officials. They also have the opportunity to rule on other township matters.

Commerce Township

The approved a budget of $101,933 for operating expenses for the 1958-59 fiscal year.

The new budget represents an increase of about $12,000 over the 1957-58 fiscal year expenditures. It covers the period from April 1, 1958 to March 31, 1959.

One-fourth of the increase, a $3,000 item, is set aside for a final settlement with Wixom. The money will be given to Wixom if it officially changes from a village to a city status.

Bulk of the increase in actual operating expenses is allocated to the Township Fire Department and to the recently-expanded Building Department. Enforcement of a new building code, now in effect, adds several thousand dollars to the cost of operating the building department.

Township Supervisor Thomas C. Tiley said the township probably will be forced to operate on a smaller amount than that represented in the new budget. He does not expect township revenue to match the amount set forth in the new budget.

The Commerce Township General Fund shows a bank balance of $18,071.26 on deposit with the Community National Bank of Pontiac.

Majority of the township residents were on hand to inquire about the township's planned road improvement program. Supervisor Tiley informed the group that the heavily traveled roads were to be paved first, in accordance with official traffic counts.

Novi Township

Elections of Novi Township approved a proposed 1958-59 budget of $114,109 for township expenses.

About 60 township residents attended the meeting at the Novi Community Building.

While the budget as submitted called for a total of $113,609, residents approved a motion to appropriate $500 for civil defense, an item which did not appear in the original budget.

The new budget is for a fiscal year which runs from March, 1958 to March, 1959 and shows an increase of about $23,000 over the amount spent for township expenses in the 1957-58 fiscal year.

Township Supervisor Fraser Staman said the township would probably spend less than the authorized budget permits since revenue may be lower than the budget total.

Township officials pointed out that the budget, as proposed, would be "out the window" if Novi officially adopts a village charter.

Township residents also approved a motion to have the township board replace Anthony Renne, township attorney, at the expiration of his one-year contract.

Southfield Township

At what could be the last annual meeting of Southfield Township, a proposed budget of $465,195 was adopted. This is $132,000 less than last year's outlay.

The township is scheduled to vote April 21 on a city charter, which would incorporate the area as a city.

Despite the decrease in the budget, Supervisor Eugene Swem said he can see no drop in the tax rate for the coming year because estimated revenue will be less.

The tentative budget will be used only if the charter is not approved.

Royal Oak Township

The annual meeting in Royal Oak Township was postponed until May 5 because the proposed budget has not been completed, Supervisor Ellwood Dickens said.

Drunkenness Increases

STOCKHOLM — Drunkenness has increased by 63 per cent in Swedish cities since October, 1955, when restrictions on liquor purchases were removed. In Stockholm the increase has amounted to 230 per cent.

Fast Leg Work by Store Manager Foils Jewel Thief

Fast leg work by a store manager resulted in the foiling of a jewelry theft and the arrest of one man.

Two men were looking at men's rings at Shaw's Jewelry Store, 24 N. Saginaw St., at 4:15 p.m. Saturday, when one of them grabbed a gold ring with a diamond valued at $300.

The manager, Tom Brown, took off after them in hot pursuit down Pike street and through parking lots.

Police Sgt. John DePauw, driving down the street, spotted the chase and joined in. He drove ahead to Huron and Cass streets where he helped Brown collar one of the thieves. The other man got away.

Roosevelt Mathews, 28, of 2908½ St. John St., Flint, was arrested for larceny from a building. He was searched an the ring recovered.

Plan No Safety Fences at Victoria Falls Park

LIVINGSTONE, Southern Rhodesia — Despite the fact that two recent deaths have raised the total number of persons who have fallen at Victory Falls to 20 in the last 30 years, authorities say they do not intend to erect safety fences.

Their policy is to keep the place in its natural state. There are two reasons for not putting up fences, according to John Tebbitt, warden of the Southern Rhodesia National Park.

One is the aesthetic point of view. "The other is that once fences are erected, people crowd toward them and nothing less than an eight-foot fence could stop a suicide," he said.

Of the 20 fatalities, 14 were European. One, a woman, is thought to have been murdered by an African who later jumped over the falls himself.

3 Nonflammable-Fuel Suggestions Broached

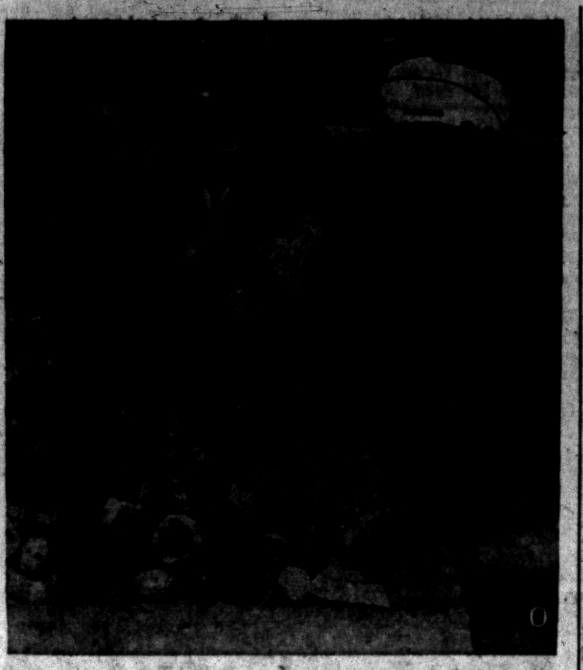

NEW YORK—Three suggestions for a nonflammable fuel that would save lives in transportation accidents and home fires are made by the publication, Chemical Week.

The proposed fuels include one in the form of two inert fluids that would ignite only when combined in a combustion chamber; another with a flame-inhibiting additive that would be eliminated under engine-operating conditions; and the third with a compound flammable only in the presence of both heat and a catalyst.

Pig Ignores Warning on Excess Production

GREENBRIER, Ark. (INS) — The Agriculture Department has warned against a record high hog production, but a Hampshire sow at Greenbrier, Ark., apparently didn't heed the warning.

The sow, owned by Marshall Wells, gave birth to 24 pigs, and 16 of them are still living. Average litter is eight or nine pigs.

COLOR EGGS FOR VETERANS — More than 500 Easter eggs were colored and decorated by pupils of Morse and Big Beaver Schools in Troy for distribution today to veterans at Maybury Sanitarium, Northville. Rank Brazil's Iron-Ore Reserves With Highest RIO DE JANEIRO — Brazil's iron ore reserves are estimated to be equal to 20 per cent of the world's total.

When Distance Is Always Tempting!

We would be willing to wager that day's end would find you far closer to journey's end than you could ever have imagined!

We say this because we know how tempting distance is when it is seen through the windshield of the "car of cars".

First of all, imagine how comfortable and rested you would be! The seat-cushions are soft and deep and perfectly contoured. The steering wheel is ideally positioned . . . there is wonderful spaciousness in every direction . . . and vision is wide and clear.

Then consider how easy the car is to handle! It is incredibly agile and responsive—and wonderfully smooth and level of ride. In fact, if you have selected the extra-cost option of air suspension, you can scarcely detect the presence of the road.

And think of your pride and contentment! The very knowledge that your motor car is so highly admired and so widely respected adds its own reward to each and every mile.

You ought to try it soon. Your dealer will be happy to explain the virtues of Fleetwood coachcrafting—and to give you the facts on every model, including the exclusive Eldorado Brougham.

Heavy Rain Would Bring Floods

Californians Fearfully Eye Sky

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — Full reservoirs and the largest mountain snow pack ever recorded caused northern and central Californians to watch the sky apprehensively today.

As weathermen predicted no heavy rain in the immediate future, the director of the state disaster office for the 16 north coast counties warned that "the next 24 hours will be the most critical."

William Ward Jr. explained that because reservoirs are full, "we have lost the flood control factor." No more runoff can be held back now by dams.

Added to that are the already soggy ground and the weakened levees along the Sacramento-San Joaquin River system which drains the Central Valley through San Francisco Bay. An inch of rain fell during a weekend storm between Eureka in the north and Santa Maria in central California.

A sudden jump in temperature also could cause trouble because of heavy snow hanging on the sides of mountains. At Norden near Donner Summit in the Sierra Nevada, the pack was 269 inches Saturday and that reading was taken before a weekend storm. High temperatures would cause that snow to melt and swell already brimming rivers.

Still flooded are a 10-square-mile area near Stockton in the Central Valley and another area at Modesto, in the same area.

Weary levee workers prevented more serious flooding at Stockton, where some neighborhoods were evacuated voluntarily.

So far, storms and high water have been blamed for eight deaths in northern California, the last three yesterday when two drivers lost control of cars because of heavy rains, and a woman was struck while attempting to cross a highway during a storm.

Southern Pacific Railroad reopened its east-west tracks across the Sierra. Snow slides had closed the route.

U.S. Highway 40 across the Sierra to Reno, Nev., was opened to limited and controlled traffic. U.S. 50 remained closed over Echo Summit near Lake Tahoe.

Easter Sunday was a family day in most households. This included attending church with the family, as did Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Guy of West Walton boulevard and sons, Robert (front right) and Gerald. They were photographed at Marimont Baptist Church as usher Clare Titsworth showed them to their seats before the service began.

Entering St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church Sunday to attend an Easter Mass were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Moody of East Walton boulevard and their daughter, Sally Ann.

Easter Joy Marked by Families Together

In most homes Easter Sunday was a family day. Family members gathered for an early breakfast, went to their own church and then returned home for an Easter dinner.

Yesterday was generally the day most women brought out their new spring outfits. Traditionally women pick their new spring hats so they'll be the grandest ladies in the Easter parade—at least to their families.

Skin Tone Rules Makeup Shades

Hair color is not the arbiter for choosing a makeup. Skin tone determines what shades of foundation, powder and lipstick a woman should use.

Therefore, not all blondes use the same makeup even though they may have the same hair color.

Married Saturday evening were Sandra Jane Johns and John Douglas Devine. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Johns of Murphy avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Devine of Lindsay street are parents of the bridegroom.

MRS. JOHN D. DEVINE

Sandra J. Johns Weds in Candlelight Ceremony

Lilies and candelabra banked the altar of Bethany Baptist Church for the Saturday evening wedding uniting Sandra Jane Johns and John Douglas Devine. The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph I. Chapman in the presence of 300 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Johns of Murphy avenue are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Devine of Lindsay street.

GOWNED IN SILK

A plateau-styled headpiece of figured lace and seed pearls secured her full-length veil of silk French illusion, and she carried an arrangement of white miniature roses and lilies-of-the-valley on a Bible which had belonged to her paternal grandmother. Her pearls were a gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor Carol Young and bridesmaids Nancy Moats, Barbara Magnus and Sharon Hubbell were gowned alike in pink nylon chiffon creations featuring fitted bodices and full, gathered floor-length skirts.

The boat necklines were created by a full drape of material that extended over the shoulders and formed flowing panels at the back. Sequin crowns held the nose veils, and each carried white baskets of ivy with variegated pink carnations and miniature roses.

The gown, bouquet and testament of flower girl Kathy Gilmer, cousin of the bride, were identical to the bride's. Her princess crown was of imported blossoms.

ATTEND BRIDEGROOM

Mrs. Devine wore pale pink lace over taffeta with pink accessories. White cymbidium orchids for her purse completed the ensemble.

Before leaving on a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada the new Mrs. Devine changed to a navy blue chemise with navy and white accessories, and the corsage from her bouquet. Upon their return the newlyweds will reside in Drayton Plains.

It's Best to Take Number

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: The other night a business associate of my brother's called him on the telephone. He was not at home at the time but was expected back shortly. I told the person calling that my brother would be back in about a half hour and to call him back then.

"My brother was furious with me for asking him to call again and thinks that I should have taken his telephone number and had him (my brother) call him back when he came in. Will you please tell me if I was wrong to ask him to call again?"

Answer: It would have been more polite if you had said, "My brother will be back in about a half hour if you wish to call him then, or if you will give me your telephone number I will ask him to call you."

"Dear Mrs. Post: Friends of ours lost a daughter this past year. They would have celebrated their silver anniversary soon but due to their bereavement are not going to.

"We all wondered whether there was anything we could do about their anniversary even though they are not entertaining as they had planned. Should we send gifts, or flowers, or what would be nice—if anything?"

Answer: I think gifts of flowers with loving thoughts would be not only suitable but gratefully appreciated.

JEAN WAHR

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wahr of Manistee announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Wahr of Fulton street, to Paul Benson Jr., son of the Paul Bensons of Pioneer drive. The bride-elect attends McAuley School of Practical Nursing and her fiance is a student at Ferris Institute. No wedding date has been announced.

Program Scheduled for Tuesday

Cantata to Be Heard by Musicale

Pontiac Tuesday Musicale will meet Tuesday in Grace Lutheran Fellowship Hall. A cantata of lamentation for mezzo-soprano, violin, cello and piano will be presented.

Participants will be Jean Hohmeyer, violinist; Alice Engram, mezzo - soprano; Christine Harnsberger, pianist, and Flora Wager, cellist. The cantata will be "Abraham Lincoln Walks at Midnight" by Roy Harris.

The piano part will be played by Christine Harnsberger, who studied with Mrs. Johana Harris, and became interested in Harris music. Mrs. Harnsberger initiated the acquisition of the score and the rehearsals for the presentation of this composition.

Alice Engram, mezzo - soprano, was a student of Frederick A. Protheroe and later did graduate work at the Juilliard School of Music, as well as concert, oratorio and opera work in the East. She is presently teaching at the Birmingham Conservatory of Music as well as with her private pupils, and is a soloist in the Birmingham Presbyterian Church.

Jean E. Hohmeyer, violinist, is a graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and the Juilliard School of Music. She is also a member of the South Oakland Symphony Orchestra.

Flora Wager, cellist, has studied and taught in Detroit, Ann Arbor, New York and Flint, and was soloist in the Flint Symphony. At present, Mrs. Wager is a church organist and choir director, and an officer of the Southwestern District of Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, as well as teacher of private piano pupils.

Tuesday Musicale is affiliated with the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs. As Federation Day guest speakers, the club will have Mrs. Donald B. Hogue, who is junior club counselor for the state, and George Putnam, supervisor of secondary vocal music in Pontiac, who directed the All - State Chorus at Interlochen this past summer.

Married Saturday in First Baptist Church were Jo Ann Robertoy, daughter of the Nelson A. Robertoys, and Raymond Lester Lingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester R. Lingle.

MRS. RAYMOND LESTER LINGLE

Jo Ann Robertoy Speaks Vows in First Baptist Rite

First Baptist Church was the setting for the candlelight wedding Saturday evening of Jo Ann Robertoy and Raymond Lester Lingle.

Before an altar banked with palms and white bouquets, the Rev. H. H. Savage of First Baptist Church and the Rev. Lee LaLone of Donelson Baptist Church performed the ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Robertoy of Osage circle, and the bridegroom is the son of the Lester R. Lingles of North Paddock street.

The bride was gowned in a creation of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin featuring a scoop neckline accented by seed pearls and iridescent stones and lace sleeves pointed to the wrists. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a cathedral train of Chantilly lace over satin.

Her headpiece was a seed pearl crown which held a scalloped fingertip veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of hyacinths and feathered carnations centered with two cymbidium orchids tipped with lavender.

GOWNED IN ORCHID

Maid of honor Marjorie Richards wore a white lace sheath over deep orchid taffeta with matching back bows and streamers which hung to the hemline. She carried a crescent bouquet of camellia greens and deep orchid carnations, and she wore a white nylon picture hat.

Mrs. Robert Pickett, Mary Lou Lackie and Carolyn Lingle, bridesmaids, were gowned in princess dresses of pale orchid winsheen featuring full skirts and white lace bodices. The gowns were fashioned with back bows and streamers like the honor maid's. They wore white nylon picture hats and carried crescent arrangements of camellia greens and pale orchid carnations.

Serving as best man was Kirk Hobolth, with James Ryerse, Kenneth Kelly, Gary Lingle, brother of the bridegroom, and Thomas Metzdorf seating the guests.

To receive 300 guests at a reception in the church parlors Mrs. Robertoy chose an aqua silk sheath dress with beige accessories and a buff cymbidium orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige brocade dress with matching satin trim, pink and white accessories and a pink cymbidium orchid.

For traveling to northern Michigan and Mackinac Island, the new Mrs. Lingle chose a navy sheath dress, coral coat and navy and white accessories. She wore the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

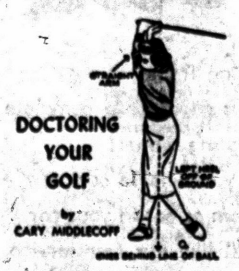

The bride attended Asbury College and Eastern Michigan College. The bridegroom will be graduated from Eastern Michigan College in June. He is a member of Kappa Phi Alpha fraternity. The couple will live on Francis street.

To Model Antique Styles

The sack look will definitely not be fashionable Tuesday at All Saints Episcopal Church as models squeeze themselves into 19th Century dresses for Pontiac's sixth annual Antique Show and Sale.

Dresses once worn by the mother of Mrs. Ross Stockwell of West Huron street are among those loaned for use at the show, which will open at 11 a.m. for a three-day stand. Among the models appearing will be Janet Evans, Mrs. David Mills and committee members.

Mrs. Loren Sheffield, decorations chairman, is planning a display of antique clocks, hooked rugs and antique coverlets. For background a local drapery shop is supplying hand prints and unusual fabrics.

Tea will be served on the balcony overlooking the show. Lunch is available in the auditorium. Co-chairmen of both are Mrs. Clayton McCoy and Mrs. Clarence Smith.

Working with them are Mrs. William Cutler of Grand Blanc, salads; Mrs. R. M. Rasmussen, sandwiches, and Mrs. Don Harrison, desserts. Mrs. William Isgrigg will direct the waitresses.

Cashiers have been recruited by Mrs. Robert Nienstedt, while Mrs. J. Standish Sibley is chairman of registration. Signs were painted by Mrs. Larmon Smith.

Raymond Reeves, P. Grier Chambers and Robert Tricker will help with parking. They will be assisted by boys of Tau Alpha group under the direction of the Rev. David Mills.

Mrs. Raymond Reeves acted as mailing chairman. Mrs. Robert Evans and Mrs. Charles Kistner were in charge of posters.

Ticket chairman is Mrs. James Hampton, with Mrs. Frederick Cockle as treasurer and Mrs. Dawson Baer, dealer chairman.

Working on publicity are Mrs. C. R. Gatley, Mrs. Harold A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Bryan Kinney, Mrs. Arthur Young and Mrs. Sheffield.

But Zest for Living Fascinates Men

Tenseness and Fatigue Kill Attractiveness

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Charming women always have known, through intuition or observation, that tenseness and fatigue are death to attractiveness.

Women who fascinate men submerge the hecticness of daily living in their zest for life and their belief in it. The result is a comforting, warm, understanding, gay personality, toward which men turn as a sunflower turns toward the sun.

Fatigue and tenseness which are reflected in intolerance and sullenness, in making life more complicated than it has to be, in a downward trend in facial contour, more wrinkles than should be, are death to happy living and certainly to romance.

I want to call to your attention two factors in building health and eliminating fatigue and tenseness. First, there's Mr. Sun. This is the time of year when we begin thinking about sunbathing.

The sun is a great source of energy and also one of the most reliable sources of vitamin D. Sunbathing and an outdoor life are of the greatest importance to everyone, and especially to the woman or man who is tired most of the time. Take advantage of it. Just don't overdo it!

MEAL ATMOSPHERE

Another factor in health and happiness is the atmosphere in which we eat. This may sound silly but more battles have been lost and more indigestion produced at the family dinner table than at almost any other spot you can imagine.

Ideally, the evening meal is the lovely time when all of the members of the family gather together, when the cares of the day are put aside. It is supposed to be a time of good cheer, an oasis in the burning sun of strife and daily problems.

It is scientifically true that you have a better appetite, that you digest your food better, that you will be happier, if you eat in a relaxed and "simpatico" atmosphere.

And the evening meal at home is a wonderful opportunity to promote good family relations.

As you can tell, spring is really with us! Or if you live where it has not yet arrived, you can sense its approach.

Today let me remind you of a few reconditioning jobs you now have practically on your doorstep. In the first place, your outer coating has taken a beating from the drying, roughening winds and cold weather. Why not give that complexion of yours some special treatment?

LUBRICATE FAITHFULLY

Every one of us is neglectful at times about skin lubrication. Be sincerely faithful about it for a few weeks and watch your complexion bloom. Perhaps you do not use an oily cream as a year-round habit. If this is so, at least dunk your face and neck with one which is truly lubricating after these past cold months. You might also try one of the wonderful oils which are available.

Heels, which are fairly smooth in moderate weather, may be very rough and scaly after a cold season. This is certain to be true unless you have given them constant care during the winter months, and few women do. Remember that skimpy summer shoes will soon be with us and nothing could be more unattractive then roughened heels and scaly cuticle about the toes.

If you will massage cream or a softening body lotion into the heels and around the toes for a few weeks, you will be surprised at the difference it will make in foot charm, come summer.

Even though you wear gloves when you go out your hands could probably use a little of the same treatment. The little hand mitts are a great help. At night massage your hands with cream, put on the mitts, and leave them on all night. You can buy quite attractive looking ones in pastel shades to match your nightgown.

If you would like my leaflet "Your Outer Coating" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 47 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Are You a Waddler, Twitcher or Mincer?"

This is the time of year when we begin to think about sunbathing. The sun is a great source of energy and also one of the most reliable sources of vitamin D.

To Install Officers

Dames of Malta Meet

Serving as Queen Esther of the group is Mrs. Florence Carter. Mrs. George Kayga was advanced to the office of protector.

Also installed were Mrs. Merle Curless, Ruth; Mrs. Christian Theis, Naomi; Mrs. Richard Lange, herald; Mrs. Cornealia VanDyke, deputy herald; Mrs. Elmer Beardsley, keeper of archives; Mrs. Clyde Matthews, assistant keeper of archives; and Mrs. Elsie Bailey, bursar.

Additional officers installed included Mrs. Mable Erickson, first color bearer; Mrs. Ed Schram, second color bearer; Mrs. John Beltz, first messenger; Mrs. James Schram, second messenger; Mrs. Betsy Shoults, first guard; Mrs. Everett Hillier, second guard; Mrs. Margaret Daugherty, trustee; and Mrs. Don Bussard, pianist.

Officers of the Supreme Body of the Orange Organization, Dr. Grace Pratt, Mrs. Orra Corby, and Mrs. Hazel Funk of Flint, and Mrs. Elizabeth St. Clair of Detroit, were present at the Wednesday evening installation.

Dear Abby . . .

Williams Lauds Tie Defense

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: More than one friend has advised me of your bow tie story. Thanks for sticking up for us who wear bow ties. With every good wish, Sincerely yours,

G. MENNEN WILLIAMS
GOVERNOR OF MICHIGAN

DEAR ABBY: After 30 years of marriage and raising a nice family, my husband got infatuated with a girl who works for him at his plant. She is young enough to be his daughter and has been married and divorced twice.

ABBY

My husband says he is through with her but she won't leave him alone. She says if he doesn't divorce me and marry her she will smear his name.

He is in business and we have married children and we don't want any scandal. What should he do? I forgave him a long time ago and want to help him.

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Would there be any LESS scandal if after 30 years of marriage your husband suddenly divorced you to marry a two-time loser young enough to be his daughter? Your husband should stick to you (you're a better wife than he deserves) and give this little home-wrecker her two weeks' notice.

DEAR ABBY: I raised up two boys clean and good on a farm. One is 19 and one is 17. The one that's 19 has a car and he can pass up his brother right on the road walking and he won't stop and give him a lift even when he's going in the same direction.

The one that's 17 is built as big as the one that's 19. He keeps his clothes nicer so the older one always goes in his drawers and gets his clean shirts and sox. They cuss each other out like mule skinners. Why can't they act like brothers?

DISGUSTED MOTHER

DEAR MOM: They do. Cain and Abel.

DEAR ABBY: I'd like your opinion. I am 20 and he is 19 and we've been married two years. Our little girl is 11 months old and she is a good baby but very active and a little spoiled.

She was playing with my husband and she pulled the hair on his chest so he gave her a spanking. I said a baby under a year old doesn't know if it is doing wrong and he says she did it on purpose. Who is right?

MAD

DEAR MAD: The baby was having some innocent fun. Get her a fuzzy little toy to play with and tell your husband to keep his shirt on.

DEAR ABBY: You said there is no excuse for a serviceman not writing to his mother or sweetheart even if it is only three little words ("I love you") every few days.

Well, my boy friend has been in the stockade all winter and he says they give him only one piece of writing paper a week to write to his mother. Thank you.

STOCKADE SWEETHEART

DEAR SWEETHEART: It may have been a long winter in the stockade but you're the one who got the snow job. The Red Cross gives the boys in service (in and out of stockade) as much writing paper as they want. Sorry.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BIG SPENDER": Don't give till it hurts—give till it feels good.

Eggs Change Macaroni to a Souffle

Mrs. Harper Vies for State Crown in Mrs. Michigan Race

By JANET ODELL

Mrs. William E. Harper of Troy is one of eight candidates vying for the title of Mrs. Michigan this week. This contest honors homemakers and considers attractiveness, outside activities and poise as well as homemaking skills.

Mrs. Harper, the mother of four children (one with the measles!), is active in her church. She directs the children's choir and sings in the senior choir. She is the new vice president of her PTA.

A member of her oldest daughter's Brownie troop committee, she was recently chosen to be the homemaker member of the Troy Child and Youth Protection Committee.

MACARONI CHEESE SOUFFLE

By Mrs. William E. Harper

8 ounces processed American cheese
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup milk
1 small onion, chopped
1 small green pepper, chopped
½ cup bread crumbs
3 eggs, separated
1 package (8 oz.) macaroni, cooked
Salt and pepper

Melt cheese and butter or margarine in milk in double boiler. In an oven-proof bowl mix the onion, green pepper, bread crumbs and egg yolks. Add the cooked macaroni and season to taste.

Pour cheese sauce over macaroni mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Place in pan of hot water and bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Plans Style Show

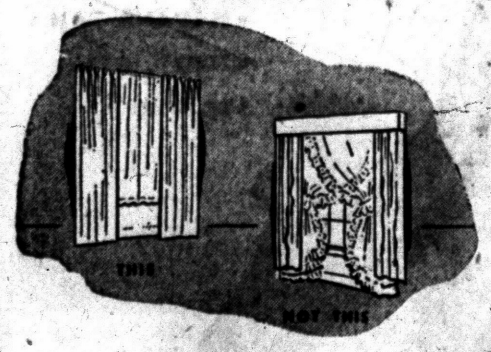

Final plans for a card party and style show to be held April 16 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building have been made by Iraq Caldron 70, Daughters of Mokanna. J. C. Penney Company will sponsor the event.

Probe Secrets of Ancients

Archaeologists Study Once-Mighty Etruscans Who Ruled Over Rome

WASHINGTON — Airplanes and drills are helping archeologists study the Etruscans, a people so wealthy they used gold safety pins and so powerful they once dominated Rome.

No one knows whence they came, for no one can read their language despite thousands of tantalizing inscriptions. They disappeared from history almost as mysteriously as they entered it.

CITIES POWERFUL

Their mighty cities held sway across central Italy more than 2,000 years ago, the National Geographic Society says. Their fleets ruled the Mediterranean from Italy to Spain.

Today, buried Etruscan tombs are so numerous that some archeologists drill into them and lower a flash camera to photograph the contents before deciding whether to dig. The new method saves much time though it may cause damage.

Aerial photography has located the lost city of Spina near the mouth of the Po River. Centuries ago Spina disappeared under mud and water, possibly during a flash flood. Aerial photographs caught the outline of the city beneath modern canals.

SEEK SIGNS

Archeologists excavating Vulci near Rome hope to find traffic signs directing Etruscan and Roman chariot drivers. Bilingual inscriptions will help scholars decipher Etruscan, just as the Rosetta stone furnished the key to Egyptian hieroglyphics.

Using cryptographic methods, scholars have deduced the meaning of a few brief Etruscan inscriptions, written in an early Greek alphabet. One such is "larth alethnas aruthal ruvfiale clan avils LX lupuce." This translates: "Lars (or "mighty lord") Alethnas, son (clan) of Arn and of Ruvfi, died (lupuce) at 60 years (avils)."

Etruscans were fond of fanciful jewelry, carved furniture and embroidered blankets. During feasts, they lolled on couches while serving girls poured wine. They scandalized the ancient world by allowing women to participate in

MARK 80TH ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. William Cook of Ceres, Calif., receive the congratulations of well wishers as they celebrate their 80th wedding anniversary. President and Mrs. Eisenhower were among their greeters. Cook will be 100 years old this month; his "bride" is 96.

Deep-Freeze Handy if Vegetables Grow

Lt. Vernon Houk, commander of the station, whose hobby is gardening, has received vegetable and flower seeds from the National Garden Bureau.

His task is not an easy one since the temperature there rarely rises above freezing. In sending the seed, an NGB spokesman commented rather wistfully what a fine thing it would be should Lt. Houk manage to grow the vegetables because he could then freeze them immediately.

We're Late, Says Paper, but There Are Reasons

MADISON, W. Va. (AP) — "We are Late," said the headline over this story on page one:

"As a result of the unfortunate shotgun shooting of Walter Hendricks, the Coal Valley News is minus one of its working force, and Bill Duty was off Monday hunting his brother-in-law. With 14 pages this week, the mailing of the paper is Friday morning."

CHICAGO — About 77 per cent of all fatal motor vehicle accidents occur on straight roads, most of them dry, during daylight.

Nine Burglaries Reported Here

Thieves Keep Pontiac Police Hopping Over Past Weekend

Nine burglaries were reported to Pontiac police over the weekend.

Last night, thieves struck at Foster Garage, 467 Auburn Ave.; McKenna Hardware, 900 Joslyn Rd.; Bethany Baptist Church, 15 Mark St.; and Bauman's Restaurant, 600 E. South Blvd.

Bauman's reported $3 in change missing from the cash register, while the others have not yet determined their losses.

On Saturday night, burglars hit gas stations at 253 E. Pike St., 701 S. Saginaw St., and 732 S. Saginaw.

Also on Saturday night the electric department office of the city of Pontiac, at the rear of 8 N. Perry St., was entered and ignition keys for two trucks stolen.

The home of Mrs. Emma Bell, 210 Nebraska St., was entered and drawers ransacked Saturday night.

An attempt to enter Newman's Variety Store was made early this morning, but was unsuccessful.

In South Australia, Royal Flying Doctor Service aircraft flew more than 56,000 miles in 1956 to assist patients in remote areas. About 170 flights were in response to radio calls for urgent help.

A native of Union Grove, Wis., Osgood is survived by his wife, Anne, of Lansing, and a son, Jack, of Mendota.

Cremation memorial service will be held tomorrow in Lansing.

Blazing Mice Start $1,500 Fire in Home

BOSTON (AP) — David A. Rockwood was burning leaves in his backyard when he discovered a nest of mice. He doused them with kerosene. It blinded three of them.

The three blinded mice ran through the fire, then with their bodies ablaze they hid under the porch, setting fire to the house.

Damage: $1,500 according to firemen.

Deaths Elsewhere

DORKING, England (AP) — Lord Campion, 75, a former House of Commons clerk who has been called Britain's greatest authority on parliamentary procedure, died yesterday. Born Gilbert Francis Montriou Campion in India, he knighted in 1948 and raised to the peerage as a baron in 1950.

NEW YORK (AP) — Ernest G. Chauvet, 69, Haitian ambassador to the United Nations, died yesterday. Chauvet, owner of Haiti's oldest newspaper, Le Nouvelliste, in Port au Prince, had represented his country in the U.N. since 1946.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Henry Lykken, 77, engineer who invented various flour milling and coal pulverizing machinery, died yesterday of injuries suffered in an automobile crash. He developed the original equipment used by Pillsbury Mills, Inc., in turbo milling process.

BOSTON (AP)—Clyde O. Ruggles, 79, nationally known economist and professor emeritus of Harvard, died yesterday. He was professor of public utility management and regulation at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration from 1928 to 1948. He was born in Jefferson County, Iowa.

Subdivision Delegation Attends Board Meeting in Waterford

A delegation of residents from Venice of the Lakes Subdivision was present at the annual Waterford Township Board meeting Saturday requesting action on their water nad sewer problems.

For more than five years property owners have been attempting to get their facility difficulties ironed out. The board tabled the matter for a regular board meeting in the near future.

The people at the meeting voted to place a proposal on the August primary election discontinuing the annual board meeting in Waterford Township.

According to the law, any township with a population over 5,000 has the authority to abolish annual board meetsing.

A lengthy discussion regarding any plan for the extension of Pontiac City Airport was held. The buildings at the airport are taxed as personal property, however, the real estate land property is tax exempt.

Township board members plan to circulate petitions to area residents "to feel the pulse" of the public on the matter.

There are 172 lawyers, 84 businessmen, 75 farmers and 62 medical men in the new 601-member Parliament elected in Turkey last Oct. 27.

Despite Weather, Communism

Christians World Over Attend Easter Services

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

From Jerusalem, the cradle of Christianity, to Communist China, the devout heard retold the joyous story of the risen Christ.

In much of the United States, rain, snow and chilly winds put a damper on Easter parades and other displays of holiday finery. New York City's Easter parade was drowned in a gusty downpour.

The day was observed amid snow, ice and heavy rains in Michigan, Wisconsin, Maine, California and elsewhere.

London reported the coldest Easter Sunday of the century.

In his Easter message, Pope Pius XII called on world leaders to let the light of Christ bring peace to a darkened world. A cosmopolitan throng estimated at 250,000 jammed St. Peter's Square in Rome to hear the 82-year-old Pope say there is no better work for Christians than to labor for a just peace.

In Jerusalem, Holy Land pilgrims commemorated the Resurrection at two sites where Christ might have been buried — the Holy Sepulchre and the Garden Tomb, an empty grave in a garden just outside the city walls.

About 20,000 pilgrims jammed the giant underground Basilica of St. Pius X in Lourdes, France, for Easter ceremonies. Included were 500 paralyzed men and women from all parts of France.

Radio Peiping reported several thousand Protestants and Catholics at High Masses and Holy Communion services in Peiping, Shanghai and Canton.

At Gettysburg, Pa., President and Mrs. Eisenhower and their family attended services at the local Presbyterian church despite a heavy rainstorm.

The Seven Seas are the North and South Atlantic Oceans, the North and South Pacific, and the Indian, Arctic and Antarctic Oceans.

Waterford Budget Will Be Presented

The Waterford Township annual budget will be presented by Supervisor Elmer Johnson when the board meets at 7:30 tonight.

In other business, a request for the rezoning of a lot from residential to commercial on the corner of Hatchery road and Pauline street will be p resented.

It is expected that Abe Friedman will be present to terminate an agreement between the Coleman-Friedman Realty Company and the township regarding the sewer system in the Coleman-Friedman Subdivision.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

U.S. Moon Loses One of Its Voices

The Naval Research Laboratory said its Minitrack stations had been unable to pick up signals from one transmitter operated by chemical batteries. The lab said the batteries apparently were exhausted.

The other transmitter in the Vanguard was still functioning. Powered by solar cells, it may keep going for 5 to 10 years.

Gunmen Take $1,000 in Easter Offerings

The Rev. John McHugh, 29, assistant pastor of St. Pius X Church, told sheriff's deputies one of the men approached him outside the church and said: "I don't like to do this, father, but this is a stickup and if you move I'll blow your brains out."

Tornadoes Kill One in North Alabama

Curtis Ford, a 45-year-old Negro, was found dead in the wreckage of his farm home at Leighton. Jimmy Michael, 57, was reported missing. The mattress from Michael's bed was found two miles from his wind-razed house.

Warns of Gas Attack

EDGEWOOD, Md. (UP) — The Army has announced development of an infrared "eye" to warn troops in the field about a gas attack. When a tiny amount of gas crosses the infrared beam, as distant as a quarter of a mile, the eye flashes a warning light and sounds a horn, warning soldiers to don gas masks.

Maestro Ormandy Dislikes Our TV Tastes

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — "My voice is a very small one," boomed Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony, "but I say it's very, very bad — the poor programs we have on TV.

"You know what they give the people in Russia? Every day, the choice of a symphony orchestra concert on one channel, an opera on another, or a great Russian play on a third."

AMIABLE SOUL

Ormandy, because he is a wonderfully amiable soul even when annoyed, suddenly smiled. "Compare that to what we get here — jazz, jazz, jazz, and after that a mystery. That's why we're criticized abroad as a country with no culture. We have culture, we just don't show it . . .

"We read the gospel according to St. John, and we also read the Gospel according to what's-his-name Nielsen."

Ormandy thrust out a finger authoritatively, as if to command the tympani. "Have you ever been asked what you were listening to? I have never been asked. I have yet to meet anybody who has been asked. These ratings come from strange other-world people."

What Ormandy, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra for 22 years, is aiming at, of course, is that American television should not neglect its cultural responsibilities. He is about to leave (May 10) with the famed symphony for a tour of Russia and Europe, and is so elated at the prospect that he is sounding off on all fronts.

On Russia, which he has never visited: "We will give them our darndest. I can tell you that. Through our impresario, we learned there is no limit to what we can play. It's carte blanche including their boy Stravinsky, who has spoken so badly about communism.

"We will play his 'Firebird Suite.'"

On the subject of American composers, Ormandy says: "The American public is much more open to them now than it has ever been. Of course, there's still a very vocal group of American audiences who are against every composer since Brahms, but we don't have to listen."

PLAYERS AWAKE

On his orchestra: "They are the best of goodwill ambassadors. After weeks of touring, they drag into a concert hall as if dead. But the minute they start to play, it's as if they'd slept weeks and just woke up."

"The fourth day of our tour, in London, we already are giving a concert on television. England loves television concerts. You know what would happen if we were an English orchestra coming to the United States?

"We'd perhaps get a spot on a TV variety show. The last four minutes, if there was time . . ."

McElroy's Reputation Faces Stiff Challenge on Capitol Hill

By THOMAS B. ROSS

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy approached his second half year in office today facing a crucial challenge that will sorely test the durability of his extraordinary, fast-won reputation.

For Congress, the military and the press, who have thus far extended him almost universal praise, the secretary must justify a Pentagon reorganization bill that aroused agonized moans the moment it was announced yesterday by President Eisenhower.

In his first six months at the head of the world's largest enterprise, the former president of Procter and Gamble has demonstrated exceptional powers as an administrator, executive, tactician, compromiser and conciliator.

Heeding the moods of Congress and the nation and acting in his quietly dynamic fashion, McElroy slashed through yards of red tape with crisp, clear decisions to put America in the space race, end interservice bickering and generally restore public confidence in the U.S. defense establishment.

But there is scarcely an experienced observer in Congress or the Pentagon who does not expect McElroy's ability to be challenged to the utmost in his effort to win approval for the sweeping new powers the President has recommended for him.

There are many who wonder whether Congress, which at first wrangled with former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson then grew to respect him, may not, in jealous guardianship of its historic control over military men and money, reverse its initial glowing admiration for McElroy.

McElroy's high repute, some observers feel, was earned through his "soap sales" charm, the ability to flatter key committeemen in a way that did not come easy for blunt "Engine Charley" Wilson who often made Congress the butt of his "bloopers."

But many, including Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson were impressed by McElroy's calm decisiveness at a time when the nation seemed unhinged by the Russian Sputniks.

"More decisions have been made in the Pentagon in the last six weeks," Johnson said shortly after McElroy took office, "than in the last six years."

These decisions included a reversal of some of the most fundamental budgetary and military policies of the Eisenhower administration.

Within nine days of being sworn into office on Oct. 9, 1957, McElroy issued a statement which put the armed services on notice that he was taking personal charge of the missile setup.

Ten days later, on Oct. 28, he restored the 10 per cent cut in basic research funds that had been ordered by Wilson, who had no interest in learning—with defense money—"why the grass is green."

The very next day, McElroy lifted the 38-billion-dollar spending ceiling which the President had placed on this year's budget, thus pumping money into the aircraft and missile industry which had been cramping schedules and restricting overtime.

On Nov. 8, McElroy took the wraps off the Army, which had been chafing under a ban on its space program, and ordered its Jupiter-C rocket—which later launched Explorers I and III—into the earth satellite race.

On Feb. 7, McElroy organized the new Pentagon space agency, the Advanced Research Projects Agency, which was later given full control by Congress of all American space projects for one year.

On Feb. 28, the Air Force was directed by the secretary to start work on the solid fuel "minuteman" which will be a multiple range, 500 to 5,500 mile missile that will eventually replace IRBM's and ICBM's.

Last week, McElroy disclosed that he has given the go-ahead for four or five rockets to the moon in the near future. This week, he told Congress that the Pentagon space agency had devised "specific" schedule for these shoots this year.

And just Wednesday President Eisenhower asked Congress, on the recommendation of McElroy, to increase the defense appropriation for the fiscal year beginning next July by one billion, 592 million dollars. This includes money for two more Polaris subs and—something very dear to many congressmen's hearts—job-giving production of more B52 long-range bombers.

Billy Conn, former worldlight-heavyweight champion, will be in Detroit Friday in the dual role of manager and referee. He owns the contract of lightweight contender Weyman Dawson who meets Michigan welter king Duke Harris in a 10-round feature at Motor City Arena. Billy, whose last appearance in Detroit was in 1940 when he won a title bout over Gus Lesnevich, will referee one of the prelims.

Show, annual spring all-breed exhibition by the Oakland County club, attracted a big attendance of dog fanciers at the 8-Mile Artillery Regiment Armory.

Middlecoff Talks About Tourney Errors

Pros Haunted by Many 'Ifs'

By CARY MIDDLECOFF
Special to The Pontiac Press

AUGUSTA NATIONAL GOLF CLUB, April 7 — The wonder is that more golf pros don't shoot themselves. Because there are always so many tantalizing "ifs" that haunt you after any big tournament in which you come close.

For Fred Hawkins and Doug Ford there are the missed putts of makeable lengths on the 18th hole here at the Masters Sunday. And in Ford's case it was two such putts in a row at 17 and 18.

In my own case, I can remember a couple of dozen things that might have gone the other way and shaved a stroke or two off my 287. The two that stick in the mud on the final round are a couple of sixes that might have easily been fours.

The first came at the third hole, which is one of the easiest on this golf course. I misjudged slightly an eight-iron second shot on the hole and allowed for more windage than I should have. The ball hit at the top of the bank of the green and trickled back some 20 feet to the bottom. From there I hit one miserable chip tha tnever got up the bank. Then another that was still short of the putting surface. Six.

On the par-five 15th, I had a six foot putt for a birdie. When the ball was halfway to the hole I and slid on past by three feet. thought I was in. It veered right From there I missed again. Six.

So there it is. A mite better judgment on an eight-iron shot and a holed six foot putt and I could have saved the four shots I needed to win.

I confess that I saw exactly none of the 284 shots Arnold Palmer made to win this tournament. But I do know from fairly long observation that he is a fine golf player, very strong and very long off the tee.

To understand what golf is like, and more particularly what this golf course at Augusta is like, take the case of Bo Wininger, my longtime friend and playing companion of Sunday.

After 64 holes of the tournament he was two under par and right in the thick of contention for the championship. At the 65th hole, or No. 11, he hit a good drive and a fair second shot. Now he is 10 yards short of the green on this 445-yard hole. The ball winds up in a track left by a tractor. He bangs it out and it goes over the green and into the water. He takes out and then dumps the next one into a trap by the green. He gets out poorly and then three putts. Nine.

Bo played 64 holes in three under par and then went five over on one hole. Boy, fetch the pistol.

BIG HASSLE — Arnold Palmer (center) uses the rule book to argue a point at the 12th hole after his ball became imbedded in the mud during the final round of the Masters Tournament yesterday. The final ruling gave him a three on the hole and a 73 round for a 284 total and the championship.

Newly-Crowned Masters Champ Shoots to Win

His 284 Shades Ford, Hawkins by 1 Stroke in Augusta Classic

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — "I get my relaxation from golf by practicing," said Arnold Palmer.

"I am in this game to win championships—the Masters, the Open, the PGA. Money is not the biggest factor. I want to be the best."

These terse statements provide the best insight into the personality of the new Masters golf champion—a thick-shouldered young man of 28 from the coal and steel area of western Pennsylvania.

Palmer, son of a Latrobe, Pa., professional, won the 22nd Masters over the Augusta National course yesterday in a close, dramatic stretch run, which at one stage resembled the 5 o'clock subway rush in New York.

Highlighting his round with an eagle three on the 475-yard 13th hole, Palmer won with a 72-hole score of 284.

Defending champion Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., and Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., missed birdie putts on the final green and finishd in a tie for second place at 285.

Ken Venturi of San Francisco, leader through the first two rounds, three-putted three consecutive holes on the back nine to wind up at 285, tied with Canada's Stan Leonard.

Sam Snead, Cary Middlecoff, Bo Wininger, Art Wall, Al Mengert and Billy Maxwell all saw their hopes explode in their faces after making a battle of it until the fading holes of the tournament.

Palmer has the rugged face of a prize fighter and a heart to match. A former bricklayer helper in a Latrobe steel mill, he is built like a football halfback. He has powerful arms and shoulders and wrists like fence poles.

As a youngster, he won junior tournaments in western Pennsylvania. As a collegian at Wake Forest, he twice was medalist in the National Intercollegiate tournament. At 25, he won the 1954 National Amateur title and shortly afterwards turned pro.

He has been a workhorse on the tour, seldom missing a tournament. Last year he won four events—Houston, Azalea at Wilmington, N.C., Akron Rubber City and San Diego. He played 19 rounds in 28 days before coming to the Masters for just one day of practice.

Two three's on his card yesterday provided the difference between defeat and victory. On the short 12th hole, he imbedded his drive into a bank back of the green.

An official said he must play the ball, Palmer insisted he was entitled to a free drop. He played two balls—the first one for a five, a provisional one for a three. Later the Rules Committee upheld Palmer's three.

The other three came on the next hole, a dogleg 13th measuring 475 yards. A fierce three-wood second shot sent the ball hooking slightly to the green and his putter clicked from 18 feet for an eagle.

Palmer said his next tournament appearance would be in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas three weeks hence. Then he'll follow the tour to the National Open at Tulsa, Okla., in mid-June.

Gets Par 3 Instead of 5

Rule on Embedded Ball Key to Palmer's Victory

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The 1958 Masters tournament will be remembered for two things: Arnold Palmer's victory and the controversial case of the embedded ball.

The embedded ball was Palmer's and if the official rules committee decision had gone against him, Doug Ford and Fred Hawkins, the runners-up, might be engaging in a playoff today for the championship.

This is what happened:

Palmer's tee shot on the short No. 12 hole buried itself in a bank between the green and an elevated trap in the rear. Palmer argued that under the wet weather rules in effect he was entitled to a free drop. Officials on the scene said they thought he would have to play the ball from its embedded position.

Palmer hacked it out, chipped and two-putted for a five on the par-three hole. But he continued to insist he was entitled to a free drop and the officials permitted him to play a provisional ball. He chipped it up close and sank the putt for a three. But which counted, the five or the three?

Not until Palmer and his playing partner, Ken Venturi, were on the 15th fairway did Cliff Roberts, chairman of the rules committee, give them the final, official decision: a par three instead of a double-bogey five.

Those two strokes, as it turned out, were the difference in winning and losing. Palmer — thanks to the three-finished with 284. Ford and Hawkins had 285.

Ben Hogan expressed surprise that there ever was any question about it.

"We had been playing this rule for the last three days," he said. "It was announced on the first tee before play began."

Hogan referred to a local rule, approved by the U.S. Golf Assn. for certain days when a course is softened by hard rains.

The rule says, under the heading "through the green:"

"A ball which by force of impact remains embedded in its own pitmark may be lifted without penalty, cleaned and dropped. . ."

Cup Finals Begin Tuesday With Boston at Montreal

MONTREAL (AP) — Montreal's "walking wounded" and Boston's bruising Bruins today staged serious workouts for their best-of-seven Stanley Cup final opening at the Forum Tuesday night.

Boston fought its way into the playoff by knocking off the New York Rangers 8-2 Saturday night to cop the series, four games to two.

Coach Toe Blake, whose charges are in a position to become the first team to win the coveted cup three years in succession, since Toronto in 1947-8-9, admitted that Montreal faces a serious challenge.

Blake has insisted that it didn't matter to him who the Canadiens played, but today he agreed that the Bruins are more rugged and check harder than New York.

Montreal's Johnson, still bothered by an injured knee, missed Saturday's practice and is considered an unlikely starter for the finals. Moore is playing with a cast on his broken left wrist and Richard says he is still bothered by a cut Achilles tendon he suffered early in the season.

Boston Coach Milt Schmidt says his team has hit its peak and "my job is to keep it there. Last season we upset Detroit in the first round and suffered a letdown against Montreal. I've got to see that doesn't happen again."

He's going to have a tough time. Boston's hard-hitting crew was able to win only three of 14 games from the Canadiens in regular season play.

Doctoring Your Golf

By Dr. CARY MIDDLECOFF

Patient's Complaint: Grip Trouble
Diagnosis: A Basic Problem

Treatment: First things first. If your grip is wrong, you're wasting your time trying to improve the rest of your game. Holding the club correctly is your best way to better golf. Let's try hard to get it right, right now, at the start of a new season.

Set the club down as it would be at the start of a shot. Place the left hand on the club so that the top of the shaft runs diagonally from the top joint of the index finger to a point just below the heel (callus pad) of the hand. Close the hand. The thumb goes down the top of the shaft.

The V's formed by the thumb and first finger of each hand should form a single straight line pointing to the right eye. Looking down, you should be able to see two knuckles of the left hand and one of the right.

Colleges Begin Spring Grid Drills

Football Is Back in Picture

Football is back in the Michigan collegiate scene this week.

Michigan State started four weeks of practice today with 20 days of drills to be climaxed by the second annual varsity-old timers game May 3rd in Spartan Stadium.

Tomorrow, the University of Detroit, in the midst of football rebuilding process, will also kick off its spring sessions.

Next week, April 16th, the University of Michigan will pull out the grid gear for a 20-day session.

A turnout of 200 candidates, the largest number in Big Ten spring grid camps answered Duffy Daugherty's call. About 70 are expected to survive.

The MSU schedule this fall will be an exacting one.

The opener on September 27 will be at home against California. The second game of the season is the annual tussle with arch-rival Michigan, at East Lansing this year.

The remainder of the schedule has Pittsburgh, home; Purdue and Illinois, away; Wisconsin, home; Indiana and Minnesota, away, and Kansas State, home, for the windup.

Michigan State lost 19 lettermen from the squad that won eight and lost one last fall. There are 24 lettermen returning but only about a dozen can be considered seasoned performers.

Coach Duffy Daugherty and his assistants have a major rebuilding job to do this spring. The backfield is in good shape but new recruits have to be broken in at every line position except guard.

The talent is especially thin at end and center. Sammy Williams, team captain who gave up a pro bid to perform in college, is the only experienced end. John Wilks, with 66 minutes of playing time last fall, is the sole letterman at center.

There are seven lettermen guards but the manpower pool here is going to be drained by shifts to other positions, including tackle, with only three lettermen.

A roster of nearly 100 candidates, one of the largest spring groups ever to turn out at U. of D., will report to coach Wally Fromhart tomorrow.

In the group there will be 65 sophomores plus several outstanding returning veterans in the line.

The Titans have put their best foot forward in football recruiting and scheduling in effort to get back into the grid era they enjoyed in the 1920's and 1930's.

Replaces Jack Hoffmann

Van Loozen Edgewood Pro

By BILL CORNWELL

Youthful Paul Van Loozen is the new head golf professional at Edgewood Country Club. He replaces Jack Hoffmann who has moved to Hillcrest Golf Club.

Van Loozen assumed his duties last week when Edgewood opened its doors for the 1958 season. He had been Elmer Prieskorn's assistant at Pine Lake for the past two years.

Hoffmann makes the switch to Hillcrest after two years as head pro at Edgewood. Joe Watrous, formerly of Oakland Hills and Franklin Hills, has been selected as Hoffmann's assistant at the Groesbeck Highway layout.

Hillcrest is changing from a semi-private to a private club this season with a revamped course and a new clubhouse estimated to cost over $1,000,000 included in 1958 plans.

Hoffmann will operate from the present clubhouse until the new one is finished sometime in the month of May.

No assistant has been named for Van Loozen at Edgewood, which turned private last year. Max Richardson is starting his 3rd season as Edgewood's course manager.

Two other personnel changes have occurred at Oakland County links.

The other change is at Red Run, scene of this year's Western Open, where Tom Sullivan has been hired as Frank Metzger's assistant pro. Sullivan, 30-year-old golfer from Chicago, replaces Bob Keller who moved to Florida.

SHORT PUTTS

The state PGA has announced dates and sites for this year's Michigan Open, Michigan PGA and Michigan Pro-Am tournaments.

The state Open will be held Aug. 22-24 at Atlas Valley, the PGA is scheduled Sept. 7 at Midland and the Pro-Am runs July 1 at Lakepointe. The Open qualifiers are slated Aug. 18.

Word is going around that Morey's Golf and Country Club on Union Lake Road is pushing a plan to become private.

315-Pound Mat Ace Wins 6th AAU Crown

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A heavyweight from Cleveland, Ohio, and a 136½ pounder from Japan were the only entries in a field of 160 to take championships in both freestyle and Greco-Roman wrestling in the AAU National mat tournament which closed here last weekend.

Bill Kerslake, 315-pounder from Cleveland, won his sixth straight heavyweight freestyle championship then walked away with the Greco-Roman.

Dennis Fitzgerald of Ann Arbor, Michigan's lone entry in the tournament, was pinned in the 174½-pound class by Earl Perillo of the Marines in 3:39.

Dodgers Blast Milwaukee Ace for 6 Runs

Burdette Is Given Rude Jolt

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Lew Burdette, riding cloud No. 9 since his tremendous world series pitching, has been brought rudely back to earth.

The lanky righthander, you'll recall, hurled three complete game victories for Milwaukee against the New York Yankees last fall. He didn't permit the Yanks a run for the last 24 innings.

But yesterday, the bubble burst and it was the Los Angeles Dodgers who did the dirty work.

They battered Burdette for six runs in the first inning and the sinker-ball specialist had to leave before he retired a batter.

It all started when Junior Gilliam singled and Joe Adcock threw away a ground ball hit by Norm Larker. Then Duke Snider walked and more singles were tattooed by Dic Gray, Charley Neal and Gino Cimoli.

Bob Trowbridge then relieved Burdette and walked Carl Furillo. Joe Pignatano singled home the fifth and sixth runs of the inning and the Dodgers had all the margin they needed for an 11-to-5 victory.

Gray and Milwaukee's Bob Hazle hit homers later before a crowd of 9,283 at Fort Worth, Tex. Don Newcombe and Carl Erskine hurled for the Dodgers.

The two teams weren't the only ones barnstorming their way home for the 1958 Major League season which opens officially in Washington one week from today.

Dave Philley homered in the 12th inning to give Philadelphia a 3-to-2 win over the Yankees at Columbia, S.C. The blow came against Bob Grim. Stan Lopata hit a two-run homer for the Phils in the seventh and the Yanks tied it in the ninth. Warren Hacker won.

Bob Clemente's grand-slam homer in the eighth off Jack Urban gave Vern Law and Pittsburgh a 5-to-2 win over Kansas City at Ft. Myers, Fla. Both hurlers went the distance. Billy Hunter homered for the A's.

Righthander Dick Donovan hurled seven scoreless innings and drove in a pair of runs with a homer and single as the Chicago White Sox topped St. Louis, 4 to 1, at Houston, Tex. Ted Beard and Earl Torgeson also homered for the Sox. Larry Jackson was the loser.

Washington, helped by Jim Lemon's roundtripper, beat Cincinnati, 8 to 3, at Nashville, Tenn. Baltimore belted 15 hits and took advantage of five errors to dump the Chicago Cubs, 7 to 3, at Scottsdale, Ariz. Rookie Jim Marshall had four hits in four at-bats for the Orioles.

Bob Schmidt singled home the deciding run as San Francisco topped Cleveland, 9 to 7, in 10 innings at San Antonio, Tex. Willie Mays and Willie Kirkland homered for the Giants and Larry Doby hit his first for the Indians.

YMCA 'Lifters' Win in Detroit

Two novice weightlifters from Pontiac YMCA went first and second in respective events in Saturday's state novice teen-age meet at Boys' Club, Dettoit. Meet was for boys 18 and under who had ever taken a first place.

Ken Howell (181) won the 148-pound title with 525 pounds in three Olympic lifts. Gerry Bunch (16), in his first meet, was 2nd in the 132-pound class, with 440 pounds in the three lifts. Both will compete for Pontiac 'Y' in Saturday's state YMCA weightlifting meet at the Pontiac YMCA.

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

(Twenty-first of a series)

PAUL RICHARDS

By BEN OLAN

Paul Richards has two jobs and he handles them both well. Richards is the general manager and field manager of the Baltimore Orioles. Many baseball experts felt that he turned in the best performance among American League managers in 1957 when he brought his team home in fifth place.

Here's a chance to match wits with the veteran skipper of the Orioles. In the following situation, Richards' strategy helped win a ball game early in the season. This problem will help you find out how you rate as a manager.

It's the top of the 10th at Washington and the Senators and Baltimore are tied 9-9. Dick Hyde (R) is on the mound for Washington. Dick Williams opens the frame for the Orioles with a single. Bob Nieman (R) is the next batter with Carl Powis (R), pitcher George Zuverink (R) and Joe Ginsberg (L) to follow.

Would you:

a. Let Nieman swing away?

b. Have Nieman sacrifice?

c. Order Williams to try a steal of second?

(Other data: Nieman has one hit in five tries for the game and is 8-for-20 (.400) on the season.)

Result: A — Nieman swings away and singles, sending Williams to third. Powis is an easy out. But Tito Francona bats for Zuverink and hits a sacrifice fly scoring Williams. Baltimore picks up another run in the inning and wins 11-9 (April 21).

Bengals Start Journey North From Lakeland

Red Sox Beat Hoeft for Detroit's 17th Exhibition Loss

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Smarting from their worst pre-season showing in years, the Detroit Tigers head north tomorrow on a barnstorming junket leading up to two games this weekend with the mighty Braves at Milwaukee.

The Bengals bade a humiliating farewell to the Grapefruit League yesterday when they lost to the Boston Red Sox 3-0, their sixth straight loss in the mythical circuit.

Their 6-17 record gave them cellar position in the conference.

The Tigers will meet the Minor League Barons at Birmingham Wednesday. Other skirmishes will follow at Tulsa Thursday and at Denver Friday. They open their American League campaign at Chicago April 15.

The Bengals' miserable showing in training camp brought a threat from manager Jack Tighe over the weekend that he would fine players guilty of laziness or mental lapses during the regular season.

"I'm tired of being a nice guy," Tighe said. "The time has come to let everybody know this is a serious business . . . anybody dogging it will hear from me."

Tighe's charges faced Boston after the tongue-lashing and lost 7-1 Saturday.

The Bengals boss reprimanded rightfielder Al Kaline and rookie pitcher Bob Shaw after the Tigers lost to Charleston 7-4 the day before. He rapped Kaline for failing to run out a fly ball and Shaw for not doing enough road work.

Said Tighe of Shaw: "If he has the good fast ball we need from him he certainly isn't showing it now." Shaw brought smiles from the Detroit coaching staff for his early season showing after a spectacular season in the winter league.

Red Sox ace righthanders Frank Sullivan and Tom Brewer combined in handing the Tigers a shutout yesterday. Sullivan gave up five hits in six innings and Brewer finished off three hitless innings.

The best Tiger hitting performance was by Harvey Kuenn who rapped out two singles against Sullivan but got no further than first base. It was the 13th straight game in which Kuenn had hit safely.

Boston leads the Grapefruiters with a 16-5 mark. It has won 11 of its last 13 games.

Even War Can't Stop Baseball

IL OKs Sugar Kings' Cuban League Opener

MIAMI, Fla. (INS) — The government of Cuba may topple, but the game of baseball will continue in Havana.

Dark clouds of civil war covering Cuba forced the International League to hold a special meeting in Miami yesterday.

The Sugar Kings of the Class AAA minor league got the green light to open as scheduled against the Buffalo Bisons on April 16.

Club owner Bobby Madura, in an hour-long speech, assured the league "that baseball in Cuba will not be affected by the island's political strife," he added:

The eight league representatives plus league president Frank Shaughnessy discussed the situation and decided that "conditions are not that bad to abandon playing baseball in Cuba."

The league voted unanimously to permit the Sugar Kings to remain, but attached a condition.

In the event the situation "deteriorates," and by that Shaughnessy said he meant, "some actual shooting takes place," the franchise would be moved to another city.

Madura described the good relations between the six Americans on his club with the population and told how good this year's advance ticket sale has been.

Madura said his team played an exhibition game several days ago in Cienfuegos, 240 miles from Havana. Some 4,000 fans witnessed the game and it was played within rifle shot of rebel leader Fidel Castro's mountain stronghold.

Ranger Coach Vows Shakeup

Watson Says Only Eight Players Are Safe After Ouster by Bruins

The volatile Watson, whose team was eliminated by the Boston Bruins four games to two in the semifinal series, said, "I have only eight players that I consider indispensable.

"Andy Bathgate will always play for me and so will Lou Fontinato," Watson continued. "The others whom I definitely will keep for next season are Red Sullivan, Dave Creighton, Camille Henry, Harry Howell, Dean Prentice and Andy Hebenton."

Two players whose jobs are in jeopardy are goalie Lorne "Gump" Worsley and all-star defenseman Bill Gadsby.

Fiery Phil admitted that both players are top-notch performers but explained, "I feel Lorne will have to fight for his job against Marcel Paille and Bruce Gamble. And Gadsby could be used as trading bait, so that I could get some needed scoring strength.

Derby Trials Top Keeneland Program

The big event is the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes April 24. In it, 3-year-olds carry the Derby weight of 126 pounds for 1⅛ miles a furlong short of the Derby route.

The Blue Grass and the Derby Trial the following Tuesday at Louisville's Churchill Downs are two of the last major preps for the Downs' $125,000-added classic May 3.

Heading the 73 Blue Grass nominees are three sophomores that starred on the Dixie circuit this winter. Calumet's Tim Tam won the Florida Derby and three other stakes; Royal Union won the Louisiana Derby and Count deBlanc took the Arkansas Derby.

William Vale, 35, picked six straight winners at the Caliente track and collected a total of $55,410 in the 5-10 handicapping contest.

Vale picked Lovely Van, $6.60; Integrity, $8.80; Parade Man, $6.40; Furious Girl, $4.40; Retador $7.60, and The Sands, $25.40.

No More Action Seen for Russell

BOSTON (AP) — Boston stock in the National Basketball Assn. final playoff series with St. Louis dipped again today with the news that Bill Russell probaby will see no more action.

The Celtics, defending world champions, evened the best-of-seven series 2-2 Saturday night 109-98 without the services of the 6-10 rebounding and defensive genius who was sidelined with a sprained ankle.

Returning home to resume the competition Wednesday night, the Celtics were led to believe Russell might be available for limited service in the fifth game.

Dr. Edward R. Browne, team physician, met the Celtics upon their return and after examining Russell he said:

"Russell will be lucky to play in the series at all. He has a bad sprain."

This high tonnage hauler cuts costs by the loadful!

Here are trucks that whittle the costs of carrying heavy cargo. They're Chevrolet's new 50H and 60H Series . . . with heavy-duty options that boost G.V.W. ratings to 21,000 lbs. You can pile the cargo high, but price and upkeep stay low!

That's why these Chevrolet 50H and 60H Series trucks haul more payload at less cost than any competitive model. Heavy-duty options*—including a 7,000-lb.-capacity front axle, 16,000-lb.-capacity rear axle and huskier front and rear springs—boost the G.V.W. rating all the way to 21,000 lbs.

A choice of two truck-tough V8's—the 160-h.p. Heavy-Duty Taskmaster or the 175-h.p. Heavy-Duty Super Taskmaster*—assures power precisely matched to your job.

Make it a point to see these and all the other able-bodied haulers at your Chevrolet dealer's. And don't forget to get all the facts on the fast-stepping Stepside, America's lowest priced popular pickup.

Midwest Stars Meet for College Handball Crown

Perez defeated Al Lifshay, University of Michigan, 21-7, 21-15, yesterday to win a finals berth. Mark, last year's class B champion, defeated Fernando Arias, Rensselaer Poly, 17-21, 21-6, 21-8, in semifinal play yesterday.

Dick Besler, University of Texas, and Al Corbett of Cincinnati Xavier, will battle for the Class B title.

Ed Koshner and Stan Goldstein from Washington of St. Louis won the doubles championship by whipping Rich Myers and Ramon Kenzior of Northern Illinois, 21-6, 21-6, yesterday.

PCH Baseballers Open Play Tuesday

Four returning veterans and a pair of sophomores are expected to be in the starting lineup tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 as Pontiac Central opens its 1958 baseball season against Cranbrook at Wisner Stadium.

The Chiefs are in action again Thursday as host to Waterford.

AP Picks St. Louis in National Loop

By JACK HAND

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Although Milwaukee is favored to repeat as National League champions, it looks like another wild scramble with the St. Louis Cardinals picked here to sneak home first.

The Braves are the oddsmakers' choice off their eight-length victory in 1957 and their fine performance in beating the New York Yankees in the World Series. This observer, who picked the Braves a year ago, is not convinced they have the stuff to repeat.

St. Louis must have exceptional years from men like Wally Moon, Ken Boyer, Del Ennis and Stan Musial. It must find a couple of 20-game winners among Sam Jones, Vinegar Bend Mizell, Lindy McDaniel and Larry Jackson. Al Dark must learn the tricks of third base play. Most of all, they have to be lucky.

Fred Hutchinson's cards made it close last year when nobody gave them a tumble. Off their performance in spring training, they have to rate a long-shot chance of upsetting the favorites, with Billy Muffett in the bullpen from the start.

Milwaukee was the club, on paper. The Braves should have won in 1956 but missed the boat. They figured to win last year and, despite an alarming series of crippling injuries, they came through handily on a stretch spurt.

The pitching is solid with Bob Rush added to Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette and Bob Buhl. Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron give the Braves the big punch. The more you look at their 1957 records you wonder how can anybody pick against them.

However, manager Fred Haney still has a center field problem with Bill Bruton recovering slowly from a knee operation. Aaron probably will have to play center again for the first half. If anything serious should be the matter with Del Crandall's elbow, the catching could be a prime headache.

It remains to be seen whether Red Schoendienst again can stand up under every day play. And who expects Bob Hazle to hit .403 again?

Cincinnati sacrificed tremendous power in Wally Post and Ted Kluszewski. It is the opinion here that the added pitching of Harvey Haddix and Bob Purkey won't be enough to rescue a staff that was last in the league last year.

The new fans in Los Angeles' vast colliseum will see a Dodger team based on pitching, rather than home run power. Manager Walter Alston has an excellent staff, perhaps the best in the league. Don Drysdale, Don Newcombe and Johnny Podres are the wheelhorses with Clem Labine the top reliefer.

Roy Campenella's loss will weaken the club. Duke Snider's slow recovery from an off season knee operation, may cut into his value.

Philadelphia has infield trouble. The loss of Ed Bouchee, who is undergoing psychiatric treatment after pleading guilty to a morals charge, was a heavy blow. Rookie Pancho Herrera hasn't been hitting so the Phillies may have to make a deal or play outfielder Harry Anderson on first. Robin Roberts has been in-and-out. The club still lacks punch despite the addition of Wally Post.

San Francisco must count on new men like Orlando Cepeda, Willie Kirkland and Jim Davenport to give their new Giants enough punch to beat our Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Kluszewski can mean the difference between sixth and eighth with Pittsburgh. If the big fellow's back holds up, he and Frank Thomas give the Pirates the long ball.

When Moe Drabowsky gets back from service soon to team with Dick Drott, the Chicago Cubs will have two top notch pitchers. Ernie Banks and Dale Long are the home run threats, but the batting order weak.

1. St. Louis
2. Milwaukee
3. Cincinnati
4. Los Angeles
5. Philadelphia
6. San Francisco
7. Pittsburgh
8. Chicago

Michigan Star Sets Butterfly Mark

Rose Paces USC to Title

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Five swift swimmers from the University of Southern California, like the old country doctor, can do about anything.

In second place was the New Haven Swim Club, the incumbent AAU titleholder, with 54. The local club has 26 members.

Rose won the 440-yard freestyle race Saturday in the last day of the three-day event, and smashed the process. He did the course in 4:21.6, finishing 30 yards ahead of Henricks.

Canadian Dog Best-in-Show

A 70-pound kerry blue terrier, owned by Mrs. M. (Eileen) McSachren of Todmorden, Ont., last night won best-in-show honors at the spring all-breed show held by Oakland County Kennel Club in the Detroit Artillery Armory, West 8-Mile road.

Ch. Tailtean's Margie's Son, four years old, won over 721 other entries for his 13th top show award. He was picked over a fine wirehair dachshund, Dachscroft's William WW, owned by an Ohio fancier.

Pontiac area dogs did well, also, with best-of-breed for Mrs. Reg (Barbara) Armstong's Lady Velvet Heidi, winning her 11th point towards a championship in the German shorthair pointer division, and similar honor for Chris Teeter's (Birmingham) basset, Ch. Siefenjagenheim Lazy Bones.

Group winners—

Terriers — Ch. Tailtean's Margie' Son (kerry blue).
Working Dogs — Ch. Hollee's Top Preview (boxer), Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Starkweather, Detroit.

Badminton Champion

BOSTON (AP) — A San Diego southpaw who has been playing the game only four years today ruled as the men's singles national badminton champion.

Jim Poole, former basketball star at San Diego State, climaxed his sudden rise to prominence Saturday night by upsetting defending titlist Finn Kobbero of Copenhagen, Denmark, 15-8, 6-15, 15-8.

Former Champs, TV Stars in ABC Debut Wednesday

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — The dearth of scoring that has characterized the first nine days of the 55th American Bowling Congress Tournament promises to come to an end this week.

The first of the stars is Bill Lillard, who will bowl Wednesday night with the Bomar team of Chicago. Lillard will shoot doubles and singles the following afternoon.

The Bomars, captained by Buddy Bomar, is basically the same team that won the 1956 ABC team championship as the Falstaffs. In that tournament Lillard became the first man to win three titles in one tournament.

The Sutcheck Tool team of New York City, moved into ninth place in the open team standings yesterday with a 1010-935-926—2871 series. Bill Hanely paced his mates with 607.

The only other change of the day came as the Schadewald Salvage team of Deerfield, Mich., took ninth place in the booster division with 3693.

Hollywood Speculates After Stabbing

Why Did Lana Date John?

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The slaying of Johnny Stompanato by Lana Turner's 14-year-old daughter must have most of Hollywood — and the world — asking today:

How can a known underworld figure become the boy friend of a top movie star?

Is it?

Four times married and divorced, with numerous boy friends in between, the 38-year-old actress saw in handsome Johnny excitement and new kicks.

It may be hard for people unfamiliar with the town to comprehend, but Hollywood can be dull for movie queens.

Many a beautiful doll has to sit at home nights for the simple reason there is a drastic shortage of eligible men.

Sexy Barbara Nichols, an unmarried actress who came here from New York, summed it up: "Sure, I'd like to get married, but every interesting man I've met out here is either married or spoken for."

Even such an international beauty as Zsa Zsa Gabor has been escorted to recent Hollywood functions by her press agent. One publicity man reveals that one of the biggest chores of his job is lining up dates for clients world famous for their beauty.

Beverly Hills Police Chief Clinton Anderson quoted her: "My first contact with John was a telephone call I received from him about a year ago. I didn't recall ever having met him or having seen him before, but he mentioned mutual friends.

"After that he called at intervals for two or three weeks, wanting to come over for a drink or a chat. He kept pestering, and I finally accepted a date with him."

Los Angeles police intelligence reports on known underworld figures say this about Stompanato: "He acquaints himself with females of wealth. He courts them, and after he is deeply involved, borrows money and never repays the loan."

Cheryl, fearful for her mother's life after hearing threats from Stompanato, strode up to him and rammed a brand-new kitchen knife, razor sharp, into his right side.

A post-mortem showed that the knife blade had penetrated the liver, aorta and portal vein, causing a massive hemorrhoage. The youngster, described by Anderson as frozen with fear, calmly pulled out the eight-inch blade and laid it on a nearby coffee table.

Carmine Stompanato, the victim's older brother, arrived to take the body back to Woodstock, Ill., for burial. Ex-gambler Mickey Cohen, for whom the younger Stompanato once worked as a bodyguard, expects to fly back for the burial.

Jerry Giesler, famed filmland attorney retained by Lana, said he will argue that the slaying was justifiable homicide and that thus no trial is necessary.

Hollywood Headlines

Indian Producer Here to Discuss 'Taj Mahal'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
(Copyright 1958)

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—India's top motion picture producer—Mehboob Khan—has a meeting tomorrow with David Selznick to discuss a co-production deal for "Taj Mahal." Khan's next picture. Khan has been sick for several days and he says he must leave Tuesday to accept awards in Bombay for "Mother India," his latest picture.

He has plenty of financing for "Taj Mahal" inside India but he had hoped to get some American stars. However, the ones he wants are all asking for a percentage and that is unheard of in India.

The vivacious Linda Christal, who in an incredibly short time has won the attention of our Hollywood producers, is being sought for the lead opposite Hugh O'Brian in "Rope Law."

Robert Evans who plays the second top male role tells me that this is a remake of "Kiss of Death" and that he plays the same role that first brought Richard Widmark to fame. "But," says Bob, "I won't be giving the maniacal laugh."

The hairdressers on the Paramount lot have been ordered by Hal Wallis to come up with a terrific hairdo for Carolyn Jones because she cannot have her very modern bangs in "Showdown on Gun Hill."

This is Hal's top Western for the year and Carolyn plays the role of a dance hall girl, Anthony Quinn's girl friend who throws him over for Kirk Douglas. Earl Holliman is cast as Quinn's son who gets in a jam by killing Kirk's wife.

Poor Judy Garland. Not only are her career and marital affairs all mixed up, but she seems to have the ability to keep people mixed up about HER. Particularly about the status of her marriage to Sid Luft whom she recently sued for divorce.

An eyewitness at the Harwyn Club reports that Judy and Sid were absolutely ecstatic at the party Aly Khan hosted for them. Then, upon their exit, Aly jumped quickly into a cab as Judy and Sid started arguing bitterly. They made up, argued again, made up and then sauntered off, arms around one another, into the wee small hours of the morning.

Property Value Up in Waterford

$37 Million Assessment Is $1.6 Million Higher Than for Last Year

Total valuation has been set at $37,237,775 for this year, and was $35,237,316 for 1957.

These figures will now be sent to the Oakland County Equalization Board for reviewing, and the township tax rate will be announced in October.

Help, Police, Robbery!

WASHINGTON (AP) — William Diggs, 52, yelled for the police, complaining his roommate was beating and robbing him. Police charged Ernest Washington, 18, with robbery. Then they gave Diggs a new roommate — by transferring Washington from the cell the men had shared in city jail.

Need Weed Trim? Try Hiring a Hippo

ST. LUCIA, S. A.—If the weeds on your lawn get really bad, having a hippo trim them for you is welcome, according to Rex Johnson of St. Lucia, South Africa.

His five-year-old son, Rory, was leaving the house with a sandwich in his hand when he almost walked into the head of a giant hippo cropping weeds on the front lawn. Rory got the fright of his young life and ran back to tell his father. Johnson, of course, was glad to see the weeds disappearing. The hippo continued feeding around the house for several hours and then meandered off into the lake some distance away.

To produce the newsprint for advertising space alone in 1957, 28,600 men worked a year in woodlands and mills, harvesting an estimated 75,000,000 trees.

11 Killed in State Weekend Traffic

Toll Covers Accidents From 6 P.M. on Friday Through Easter Sunday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of a Detroit High School student and two women Sunday brought Michigan's Easter weekend traffic death toll to 11.

The Associated Press weekend traffic fatality count begins at 6 p.m. Friday and ends midnight Sunday.

Robert A. Schneider, 16, of 18515 Woodingham, Detroit, was killed Sunday when a car in which he was riding with two fellow Mumford High School students struck a tree in Detroit. Schneider was the son of the late Common Pleas Judge John H. Schneider, who died last November.

Mrs. Daisy King, 54, of Pontiac, was struck and fatally injured by a car as she crossed a Pontiac street Sunday. Mrs. Bertha Groth, 59, of Colon, was killed Sunday when her car collided head-on with another driven by Charles Hershey, 60, of Detroit, on M60 east of Three Rivers.

Lee A. Merritt, 53, of Royal Oak, was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on U.S. 25 near Muttonville in southern St. Clair County.

Paul Dubois, 6, of Clawson, was injured fatally Saturday when he was struck by a car in the street near his home.

Mrs. Lucille Tripp Smith, 51, of Lapeer, a grade school teacher at Almont, was killed Saturday when her car collided with a New York Central passenger train in Lapeer.

Robert M. Goergen, 4, of Flint, was injured fatally Friday night when he was hit by a car while walking home with his parents from Good Friday church services.

A woman tentatively identified by police as Succre Gandy, 47, of Detroit, was killed Saturday when the car in which she was riding careened off a street construction barricade in Detroit and struck a utility pole. Police said the driver fled on foot after the mishap.

Guy J. Burnett, 61, of Newberry, was killed Friday night when his car overturned on U.S. 27 at the southern edge of St. Johns in Clinton County.

Mrs. Martha Claeys, 70, of Anchorville, was injured fatally Friday night when she was struck by a car while walking on M29 east of New Baltimore.

Billy Joe Campbell, 22, of Decatur, was killed Saturday night when the truck in which he was riding overturned along a rural Van Buren County road about one mile east of Decatur.

Spraying of Herbicide Aids in Pine Growth

MINNEAPOLIS — Forestry-research workers at the University of Minesota report that they've found a way to encourage natural regrowth of white pine by chemical spraying.

They say that spraying with monuron, a chemical herbicide, resulted in up to 16 times as many white-pine seedlings as in unsprayed areas.

The spraying is said to control aspen and other vegetation, thus leaving more growing room for the pines.

State Asks for Bids on Opdyke Road Job

Widening and resurfacing of Opdyke road (M24) from Square Lake road to Walton boulevard has been placed on the State Highway Department's emergency spring program, officials have announced.

The department said bids will be taken on the five-mile project, part of a program to provide work during the recession, in Lansing on April 23.

Corn Futures Remain Firm

CHICAGO (AP) — Corn futures prices were firm in early dealings on the Board of Trade today but other grains and soybeans were about steady to weak.

Trading was fairly active after the three-day holiday weekend but dealers said buying and selling orders appeared to be about even in volume and that there did not appear to be any influences of particular speculative force.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was unchanged to ⅜ cent a bushel higher, May $2.18¾; corn ⅜ to ¾ higher, May $1.21⅛; oats unchanged to ⅛ lower, May 66⅛; rye unchanged to ⅛ higher, May $1.31¼; soybeans ¼ higher to ¼ lower, May $2.27½; lard 12 to 20 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $13.05.

Steels Lower on Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels were lower as the stock market declined in a brief burst of selling early today.

The ticker tape was one minute late for a period of two minutes as key stocks took losses of fractions to around a point.

Industry reports forecast a further curtailment of the steel industry operating rate. Other economic news brought little encouragement following the long Easter weekend.

Motors and Rails also were on the downslide. Some oils were ahead, notably Getty which rose a major fraction following a report that 1957 earnings almost doubled the previous year's.

U.S. Steel dropped ⅞ at 56 on an opener of 12,000 shares and Bethlehem was off ¼ at 37¼ on 6,000.

Armco and Lukens Steel were off around a point. Kennecott, Goldrich and Caterpillar also lost about a point apiece.

Claims Big Victory Over Cuban Rebels

HAVANA (AP)—President Fulgencio Batista's army today claimed it had whipped one big contingent of Fidel Castro's rebels and was pursuing it and another major rebel band in the mountains of eastern Cuba.

The army also claimed it had shot down a foreign C46 transport plane bringing arms to be dropped to Castro. The announcement said the plane crashed and burned and the crew was killed.

The country where the plane originated and the identities of the plane crew were not announced.

The general staff said its forces had defeated a large rebel outfit headed by Raul Castro, the rebel chief's brother, operating along the northern coast of Oriente province.

Hunt Seaplane Victims

IWAKUNI, Japan (AP)— Navy vessels continued a search today for six missing men who were aboard a U. S. seaplane that crashed, burned and sank yesterday three miles offshore.

THE WINNER — Accepting the keys to a brand new Pontiac automobile is Alex Gulewich, grand prize winner of a three-month promotional contest by the Miracle Mile Businessmen's Assn. Gulewich, of 6535 Manson St., Waterford Township happily accepted the car yesterday from Ralph Easteridge (left), association president. Just as happy were his wife and four children because, coincidentally, Gulewich's former car was damaged in an automobile accident last month.

TOO SHORT — Wreckage of the Capital Airlines Viscount in foreground is 2,300 feet short of the runway, this picture taken early today shows. The plane was attempting a landing when the accident occurred.

Police Suspect 2 of Robbery

Uncover Clues Stopping Car for Minor Traffic Violation in Waterford

A faulty automobile headlight led State Police to two Pontiac men suspected of robbing a fraternal hall in Waterford Township early yesterday.

The suspects, Lloyd Corey, 28, of 695 N. Perry St. and Richard Hubner, 30, of 111 Draper St., were halted in Corey's car a mere 50 feet east of the new Eagles Club on M59 east of Crescent Lake Rd. where the robbery occurred.

Troopers Gerald Tafel and Wilbur Rykert said they stopped the car routinely because its right headlight was not on.

The troopers became suspicious. They said, upon finding about $150, mostly in loose change, on the two men and a cash box from a cigarette vending machine on the rear seat.

The suspects were booked at Oakland County Jail overnight, Corey on a charge of driving without an operator's license and Hubner on a drunk and disorderly charge.

When the breakin was discovered and reported to police later yesterday, the Pontiac men were accused of it. The troopers said they would seek orders today from the prosecutor for warrants charging Corey and Hubner with breaking and entering.

Stewardess Was Married to Engineer

NEW YORK (INS) — Ruth Denecke, the 27-year-old stewardess who was killed in the Freeland, Mich., airplane crash, was disclosed today to have been married for more than a year.

The stewardess was one of 47 occupants of the Capital Airlines plane that crashed and burned last night. All aboard were killed.

She was married to George Bardowsky, 29, a flight engineer for Eastern Airlines. He did not learn of his wife's death until this morning. The couple lived in Jackson Heights, L.I.

Ruth was one of five victims from the greater New York area. The pilot, Capt. William J. Hull, 44, lived with his wife and their two young children in Westwood, N.J.

Hull, a commercial pilot since 1941, was one of Capital's million-mile pilots. He was well-known in aviation circles because of his interest in flying saucers.

Trains Kill 12 Children, 4 Adults

Tragedies Mar Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Twelve children were among 16 victims of two train mishaps on both sides of the Canadian-American border Sunday.

Near Sherbrooke, Que., two families returning from an Easter visit to relatives were wiped out last night when a train hit their car. Seven of the eleven dead were children.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Eliodor Larose, Waterloo, Que., and their five children and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lacroix of Gelitte, Que., and their two children. The families were related.

Police said a high wind and wet snow had cut down visibility at the grade crossing 20 miles west of Sherbrooke. The automobile was wedged under the two-coach diesel and dragged about 300 feet. No one aboard the train was hurt.

Engineer J. W. Euforth jammed on the emergency brakes in vain while scores of the 300 persons gathered for Easter picnics screamed for the four girls and one boy to jump.

The youngsters were caught about a fourth of a mile out on the bridge past a curve hiding the train's approach. At that point the viaduct towers 40 feet above the brushy bed of the Medina River.

Among those gathered below to eat their noon meal in a park were about 50 relatives of the children. The park is on the river banks at McDonna, 15 miles southwest of San Antonio.

Three children of Mrs. Paula Garza, San Antonio, and two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Ramirez, Laredo, Tex., were killed. Ramirez is Mrs. Garza's brother.

The dead: Diana Garza, 11; Louis Garza, 12; Laura Garza, 16; Anna Maria Ramirez, 13; and Norma Ramirez, 15. Norma died at a hospital several hours later. The others were killed outright.

"I shouted to them to jump — to get off the bridge. They were panicky. They started running — they didn't know what to do."

Engineer Euforth said the train was traveling 61 m.p.h. as it rounded the curve.

"As I straightened out I saw those kids on the track. I went into full emergency procedure at once. I must have gone one half to three quarters of a mile out on the viaduct."

'There Was No Chance of Anyone Getting Out'

MIDLAND, Mich. (AP)—"By the time we got there, we realized everybody was gone. There was no chance of anyone getting out. The plane came in hard. It didn't fall. It ran into the ground."

So said Warner Law, owner of the farm on which a Capital Airlines Viscount plane crashed last night, killing 47 persons in the nation's worst civilian air disaster this year.

Law and his family live in a farm house a quarter of a mile away from the muddy field. They were awakened by the crash. He was one of the first to reach the burning plane.

"There had been several explosions — from the fuel tanks, I guess—and the plane was a mass of flames," he said.

"The people must have died instantly.

"The big problem was how to get the fire out.

"It rained the night before and the field was soaked. The fire engines had to go through them to get to the fire and they couldn't go far from the road."

Law said he went back for his tractor and pulled the engines toward the fire. A neighbor, Henry Burke, brought his tractor trailer.

Law said he saw 14 bodies loaded into Burke's tractor-trailer.

"There were two women. I didn't see any children. The rest were men.

"It's slow work. They can't get machinery back there because of the mud, so they have to do all the work by hand. There were still flames when I left there."

Three Fishermen Pulled From Lakeville Lake When Boat Overturns

LAKEVILLE — Three fishermen were rescued from the icy water of Lakeville Lake Saturday evening after their boat had overturned—due to the alertness of a 14-year-old boy who witnessed the near tragedy from his cottage window.

The men were pulled out of the water and treated for shock and cold after Eric Schemanske, of 652 Manotic Dr., spotted them floundering in the lake about 400 feet from shore.

They were William Oliver, 24, of 6630 Van Dyke Rd., Washington; Richard Shores, 23, of 7574 Mary Lyons Ct., Utica, and Robert McMichael, 21, of 12380 21 Mile Rd., Utica.

At home alone about 6:30, Eric telephoned a Lakeville tavern for help and called his parents who were shopping at a nearby market.

They were given blankets and hot coffee at the Schemanske home and after being administered oxygen by the Addison Township firemen, were taken to Pontiac General Hospital and released later in the evening.

Their boat capsized as they were changing position, the men said, spilling them into 10 feet of bone-chilling water.

French Spend Tenth of Income for Drinks

PARIS — The French last year spent 3.1 billion dollars, or 9.5 per cent of the nation's total income, on mineral waters, soft drinks, and other beverages. They consumed a billion bottles of mineral water.

They drank apertifs, wines, beer, and liquors totaling, in terms of pure alcohol, 245,000,000 gallons. Wines and beers constituted the overwhelming proportion of the alcoholic beverages consumed.

Study U.S. Test Ban After Pacific Series

WASHINGTON (INS)—Top officials said today the United States is considering the possibility of a trial suspension of nuclear weapons tests after the conclusion of the spring and summer series.

However, they placed such action only in the category of a "possibility" and said that whether it even becomes a "probability" depends of what is learned from the forthcoming tests in the Pacific which start this month.

The sources emphasized that American tests should continue until a nuclear defense against Russia's 5,000-mile intercontinental ballistic missile is achieved. To halt testing at this time, officials said, would jeopardize national security and the defense of the free world.

A halt in U. S. nuclear testing after the upcoming series was urged yesterday by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) in the wake of a new note from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev asking the United States and Britain to follow Russia's example and end nuclear tests.

The White House branded the Khrushchev letter "nothing but a repetition" of the propaganda "gimmick" announcement by Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko last week that the U.S.S.R. was halting testing.

Kefauver said: "It saddens me to see us lose the respect of so much of the world by not having been the one to take the first step."

He added that if the administration is determined to go through with the scheduled tests, "the very least" the United States should do is announce a suspension after the new tests and meanwhile "go to the United Nations with a new and vigorous plea for nuclear disarmament."

Officials indicated, however, that free world security requirements make certain that the Eisenhower administration, for the next several months at least, will continue to refuse Khrushchev's demand that the United States and Britain call off further nuclear tests.

News in Brief

Wayne Markel, 28, of 2601 N. Perry St., pleaded guilty to drunk driving before Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib Saturday. He was fined $50 or 30 days in jail and paid the fine.

Sparks from burning rubbish set fire to a garage behind 72 Orton St., Saturday, causing $600 damages to the building and to furniture stored in it.

Robert L. Hackett, 32, of 3173 Fernbarry St., was fined $50 or 10 days in jail by Municipal Court Judge Cecil B. McCallum. He pleaded guilty to reckless driving.

Rare Onyx in Denver

DENVER — The Colorado Capitol, whose golden dome gleams high above Denver, was 22 years in the making. its outer walls are 5 feet thick. All the stone, mostly granite, was quarried in Colorado. The world's entire supply of Bulah onyx was used in the interior.

Use of Computers Up

NEW YORK — The value of electronic computers sold or rented in the United States is expected to reach $350,000,000 this year, which would almost quadruple the $94,000,000 figure of 1956. In 1955 the comparative figure was $47,000,000.

LOOKING AHEAD — These little moonwatchers built their own rocket with a minimum of research and a lot of old newspapers and shellac. With the help of teacher Sally Seidman at Oakville school, in Cleveland, they built a 12-foot "moonliner." It consists of three yards of chicken wire, two soap drums and pounds of papier-mache. The rocket is painted bright red and white.

Dogs Put Bite on Post Office Sick Leave Time

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dogs have been taking quit a bite out of Baltimore's post office business. Acting Postmaster William Laukaitis said 50 cases of dog bites reported during the 12 months ended March 1 cost 106 hours in lost working time.

"Some bites were relatively innocuous teething exercises by promising young things which had not yet learned how to act in polite society," he said. "Others were vigorous partakings of the victims' breeches by confirmed misanthropes who don't give a darn for public servants and want the neighborhood to know it."

Crippled Airliner Makes Safe Landing

Fourteen passengers and five crewmen were aboard the four-engine plane on a flight from Kansas City to Wichita. There were no injuries.

Singer to Appear in 'Swing Into Spring' on TV Wednesday

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—To what music will today's teenagers some day turn in order to reminisce about their youth?

The question is posed by singer Jo Stafford, who adds, "Music is the greatest source of remembering. And what are you going to do if about all you have to remember is a song like 'Hound Dog'?"

"In the past 7 to 10 years we've been lucky if two or three enduring standard songs have come out in any single year. Back in the 1930s dozens came out every year."

ONLY MELODY

But what makes a "standard" song?

"Melody," said Miss Stafford. "Only melody. And how are you going to make a standard out of music that's four loud drumbeats to the bar? For that is what most of our currently popular music is."

She belives that economics has a lot to do with what is currently popular. These days, as never before, children as young as 9 and 10 years of age are buying recordings at a great rate.

Obviously they don't like the same kind of music as their parents. Yet they create hits — and set musical trends.

If some of the youngsters had less spending money they would not so greatly influence music. That's what Miss Stafford means by economics.

BAD MEANS GOOD

"Bad economic times always brings forth good music," she said. "Darned if I know why. But when you look through the musical library of the 1930s you find a great wealth of truly wonderful music."

"Perhaps art thrives under starving—although don't get the idea that I think we all ought to go back to starving.

..Miss Stafford, one of the na-

Miss Stafford, one of the nation's most popular recording artists, had her own weekly television program in 1953 and 1954. Since then she has confined herself to guest appearances on TV.

Dorothy McGuire Collapses Backstage

Dorothy, 27, collapsed several minutes before she was scheduled to go before the cameras. She recovered enough to do one number, then collapsed again backstage.

A physician said she was suffering from exhaustion and ordered her taken to her hotel. A spokesman said her condition is not considered serious.

Corinne Calvet Joins Stars' Move to Cafes

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Slinky, sexy Corinne Calvet's out to become the country's greatest night club star and she told me why.

"I adore it because in pictures, in TV, on the stage, or in love, it's the only time I can have the floor all to myself for 45 minutes."

WILSON

In New Orleans where she made her cafe debut, Corinne got enthusiastic reviews but complained that one story never got a laugh.

As she related it, she got a one cent rebate by check from income tax authorities and sought to cash it, whereupon an Internal Revenuer grunted, "Sure, lady, how'll you have it—heads or tails?"

Feeling old? I went to an A.T.O. fraternity meeting feeling very young compared to all the old gaffers there. Suddenly one of them brought me down by saying, "Are you getting your 50-year-membership certificate tonight?"

CORINNE

Maurice Chevalier denies he's slipping; nevertheless he confessed to me that he doesn't know Brigette Bardot, his most illustrious countryman. He'll be Person to Personed by Ed Murrow April 18 from a suite at the Waldorf—(fifth time the Waldorf's been on) . . . Easter Egg Hunt an Eye Opener for Jaycees

The members hid some 5,500 eggs in a city park and sat back waiting for the hunt at 3 p.m. A larger than expected crowd estimated by the Oklahoma highway patrol at 10,000 persons arrived by 2:30 p.m.

Says Saudi Troops Won't Leave Jordan

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP) — Foreign Minister Samir Rifai yesterday denied Egyptian reports that Saudi Arabian troops will leave Jordan. He also said Saudi Arabia has not yet cut off her subsidy to his country.

Rifai said, however, that Jordan may give up the annual $14,400,000 subsidy since financial resources now are available from Iraq. Jordan and oil-rich Iraq recently joined in a federation.

Loud Heckling Greets Russian

'Confident Communism Will Finally Win,' Says Sobolev in Boston

BOSTON (AP) — In a speech interrupted by hecklers, a Soviet diplomat asserted last night, "We are confident in the final victory of the ideas of communism."

Arkady A. Sobolev, permanent representative of the Soviet Union to the United Nations, continued his speech despite loud hecklers in the audience and a picket line outside the building.

Seven policemen on duty inside the hall kept busy trying to quiet the hecklers and ejecting the more persistent ones. Other policemen outside kept the picketers moving so they wouldn't block the entrance.

Five persons were taken to a police station as a result of the disturbance at Jordan Hall. Three later were released. Police said they would charge the other two with disturbing a public assembly.

Sobolev spoke at Ford Hall Forum, now in its 50th year of public discussions. Its directors claim it is the oldest forum of public expression in America.

Those picketing the hall said they represented Hungary, Ukrania, Lithuania and Latvia, all countries dominated by the Soviet Union.

Sobolev said in his speech: "We are confident in the final victory of the ideas of communism, but we have never imposed and we do not intend to impose the Socialist way of life, our ideology on other countries by force."

Venice Faces Rivalry From Town in Ireland

ENNISKILLEN, N. Ireland — Around the town by boat. That's where the residents of Enniskillen, Northern Ireland, can go when a project is completed next year. The plan is to clean, deepen and widen the channel of Lough Erne surrounding the island part of Enniskillen.

The mayor, Dr. W. S. Brysan, says the plan will meet the wishes of everyone in town and turn it into what the prime minister has described as the "Venice of the North."

The result of the channel deepening will be that small boats with outboard motors and rowboats will be able to make the circuit of the town by lake.

Only 6.7 per cent of Canada's population will be engaged in agriculture within 22 years, says George Drury, a Windsor underwriter. Present percentage is about 20.

Thief Gives Sound Advice to Victim

They disappeared two weeks ago, and an insurance adjuster already had replaced them before Greenwell discovered a paper sack in his yard. Inside were the hubcaps and this note:

"Surprise! To prevent the occurrance (sic) of visits such as mine in the future, may I suggest: 1. Keep your car in the garage. 2. Keep doors, windows and glove compartments locked. 3. Gas can be stolen easily and silently."

Teacher Can't Read It

BOULDER, Colo. (INS)—Boulder High School student Steve Hafner, 16, got an "A" on a theme even though his teacher couldn't read a word of it. Instructor John Adams told the students to imagine themselves as immigrants of the 1880s and write a letter to relatives in the old country telling them about America. Steve wrote relatives in Yugoslavia—in Slovenian.

Frogmen Dive in World's Coldest Pools

But there are easier ways to beat the heat than those used by Frogmen assigned to our Arctic supply fleet. And all of them are less dangerous, too.

HAZARDOUS JOB

These Polar daredevils have the hazardous job acting as delayed action torpedoes. This month they are blasting a way through steel-hard ice packs so ships can unload tons of supplies for our radar warning stations along the northern Alaskan and Canadian borders.

To deliver its goods, the Navy uses ships that can pull right up onto the beach. However, many times they are blocked by solid ice packs which extend from the land and in some places to the ocean's bottom.

Vice Admiral John M. Will, Commander of the Military Sea Transportation Service, says this shore ice is like "carbon steel." The bottom and sides of any ship unlucky enough to smash against it would be ripped out.

That's where the Frogmen come in. Dressed in thin air-tight rubber suits, they explore the wall of ice below the ocean's surface. When they find a place which looks as if it could be cracked, they attach packs of waterproof explosives.

Then swimming a safe distance away through the frigid water, which in some areas drops the mercury to 29 degrees, they set off the charge. This action must be repeated until an ocean path has been blasted to the beach.

With each stroke, danger and the chance of agonizing death swim beside them. Razor sharp branches, which protrude from the ice, constantly threaten the divers. Hidden in the dark shadows below the surface, they can slash open the water-tight clothes of any man who brushes against them.

Even when wearing the hooded, rubber bathing suit, Frogmen are usually ready to head for the surface after staying in the icy water about 45 minutes. But without the suit's protection, a man cannot last more than 10 minutes.

Swift and treacherous currents penetrate the depths. These liquid magnets can sweep a hapless Frogman out to sea or draw him under the ice where drowning is a cold certainty.

Since the Navy started its floating Arctic supermarket three years ago, no Frogman has been killed or seriously injured. This year's group, which totals about 60 men, has no intention of spoiling the record.

Before joining the Frogman ranks, each one is put through about 16 weeks of the most strenuous training. Before he can even get wet, doctors check and re-check to make sure he is in top-notch physical shape. When diploma time rolls around, he has to be able to swim five miles in open sea.

In the Arctic operation, his endurance is even tested on land. In order to withstand the cold water, Frogmen never try to stop getting the shivers.

When other crewmen are bundled up in fur-lined Eskimo-type coats, Frogmen wear light-weight jackets. Also their living quarters are kept between 10 and 15 degrees cooler than those of the other men.

As far as nature is concerned, it's a real cool way to make a living. But it's the type of job that would give most guys goose-bumps, even in a tropical lagoon.

Colorado Pupils Study Together Via Short Wave

BOULDER, Colo. (INS) — Six Colorado University students, who live in different quarters around the campus, are studying together via a short wave radio.

The six got together on the 28.784 megacycle frequency each night to discuss their common problems. If one of the group has a special topic to discuss with one of the others, the two make arrangements to meet at another frequency.

Al Bieser, 26, of Boulder, who started the novel studying group, said only six students are participating now, but he expects the group to have 15 to 20 members soon.

Population of the Philippines is 18,350,000.

The first "automobile" ad of all time appeared in the Philadelphia Gazette in 1905. Today, the auto industry invests more advertising money in newspapers than in any other medium.

United Nations Headquarters Tourist Business Booming

Officials report that about 6,000 persons daily now enter the 18-acre site and between 2,500 and 3,000 take the guided tours stretching from the ornate, cantilevered assembly hall through the glass-walled 39-story Secretariat Building.

En route they pass through another structure, a building containing three council chambers and many conference rooms, which extends along the waterfront for 400 feet. Many New Yorkers do not know such a separate building exists.

"Word-of-mouth publicity" has made the U.N. building and surrounding gardens a major tourist attraction, ranking in New York City with such venerable favorites as the Statue of Liberty, Empire State Building and Rockefeller Center.

Visitors interested in the U.N.'s business follow developments in the news columns. Free tickets to attend sessions of the Assembly or any of the councils are available only immediately preceding the meetings, on a first-come, first-served basis. Twenty telephone operators man the U.N. switchboard to accept requests.

United Nations plaza is an attractive part of Manhattan with many new office and apartment buildings, widened streets and extensive landscaping. New York City is completing a $30 million improvement program in the immediate headquarters site area.

The black stones were gathered from the beaches of Rhodes by the women and children of that Greek island and donated to the U.N.

A Japanese bell and pagoda are located between the Secretariat and Assembly Buildings. Its base and surrounding floor is faced with stone quarried from the hills of Jerusalem and presented to the U.N. by Israel.

Nationalist China Attracts Capital From Overseas

TAIPEI (INS) — Nationalist China's "now or never" effort to attract overseas Chinese capital to beef up its infant economy is beginning to pay handsome dividends.

The Formosa government has released figures showing anti-communist overseas Chinese invested more than $7,160,000 in new industrial projects on the island in 1957, a substantial increase over the previous year.

This represents one-third of the total investments made by overseas Chinese capitalists since the Nationalists set up business on the island of Formosa in 1950.

China's new "economic offensive" was launched last year throughout the far east to prop up its second four-year plan which is now in its second year.

New enterprises set up on Formosa in 1957 with capital investments from overseas numbered 59. The total number of such projects since 1951 is 168.

A major portion of the investments made in 1957 came from overseas Chinese living in the United States, Malaya and the Philippines.

Now . . . Amazing Reducing Agent Helps You

Reduce Without Dieting

PROVED SAFER AND MORE EFFECTIVE BY DOCTORS IN CLINICAL TESTS . . . NOW . . . SOLD WITHOUT PRESCRIPTION.

★ Wonderful news! The amazingly safe, tested way to reduce, you've heard spoken about in whispers, at last approved for sale without prescription!

★ Yes, the same kind of safe, effective, reducing agent used successfully by thousands of doctors . . . tested successfully on thousands of patients . . . yours at last in Prescription 812. Weight losses recorded show pounds the first week, pounds and pounds more the first month, actually up to 25 pounds or more in a reasonable length of time, without exercise, without doing a single unpleasant thing!

★ Imagine! Many overweight people have lost as much weight as they wanted to lose, safely, easily, without dieting, without consciously making an effort to restrict their food.

★ You'll still eat luscious steaks and chops, fried chicken, potatoes, desserts and pastries, but with Prescription 812, in place of iron will power, you'll actually be eating less, and you won't overeat as you did before, and gone will be those ugly, stubborn clinging pounds of fat!

★ YOU'LL HARDLY BELIEVE YOUR SCALE! You'll look better, feel better, have so much more pep and energy as ugly pounds disappear! What a wonderful feeling! Your friends will be amazed as pound after pound of ugly fat vanishes. It's all so easy . . . all so delightfully simple, you'll bless the day you first tried this marvelous reducing tablet!

★ HOW PRESCRIPTION 812 WORKS TWO WAYS AT ONCE! Before each meal, simply take one tiny tablet, hardly larger than an aspirin. You eat, sleep, work, play just like any of your thin friends. And all the while, the amazing ingredients in new Prescription 812 go to work for you. Prescription 812 is not an old-fashioned expanding pill that fills your stomach, not a sickening-sweet wafer! The tested, proven ingredients in Prescription 812 work two ways at once to help you rid you of ugly fat.

★ 1. Prescription 812 appeases your appetite more effectively than anything sold direct to the public. You still enjoy your food, but automatically you eat less and down comes ugly overweight.

★ 2. Prescription 812 helps overcome gnawing hunger-pangs. Food stays in your stomach longer, thus helping to eliminate the major cause of those empty-stomach blues that make you overeat.

★ You lose ugly pounds and inches, safely, quickly, easily and you feel well, too, while those pounds are coming off!

★ The amazing principal ingredient in Prescription 812 has been tested in hospitals and clinics all over the United States.. It has been used successfully on vast numbers of overweight patients, and now for the first time ever, it is available to you without prescription!

European Doctor Discovers Food That Makes Skin Young Again!

Sweden (IMS)—At a dramatic news conference today, Dr. Max Laserow, Swedish skin scientist, revealed that he had finally discovered how to restore youthful beauty to aging skin! The secret is a new scientific development based on age-old Scandinavian beauty methods, a chemical food formula that renourishes and replenishes skin glands and tissues in a completely new and different way!

Then right before the eyes of the assembled scientific reporters and beauty editors, Dr. Laserow demonstrated how simple 3-minute treatments actually made a 39-year-old woman look 14 years younger! After introducing 39-year-old Mrs. H. Suedlund to the reporters, Dr. Laserow told of the varied skin problems this 39-year-old woman had suffered from . . . skin problems typical of women from age 30 to 65. Mrs. Suedlund had the usual stubborn wrinkles on the forehead . . . the typical unattractive crow's feet about the eyes . . . deep, ugly lines around the nose and mouth . . . sagging, flabby skin under the chin . . . loose, wrinkled flesh at the neck . . . and overall, a tired, dull, lifeless complexion and dry, aging skin!

Then Dr. Laserow demonstrated his treatment. He took a soft whitish mixture from a jar and began to lightly spread it over Mrs. Suedlund's face. Softly patting it on . . . never rubbing it in . . . never massaging. And as we watched, the white mixture began to disappear as it penetrated deep down into the woman's skin. Then Dr. Laserow showed a series of photos made during the test.

First, we saw how those stubborn wrinkles started to fade away . . . until that 39-year-old forehead was almost as clear and unlined as a baby's! Next, the scores of unattractive crow's feet seemed to melt away . . . so that the skin around the eyes became softer, less wrinkled. Then the deep, ugly lines around the nose and mouth seemed to actually vanish before our eyes . . . and that whole facial area was smoother, more even. And then as we watched, the sagging, flabby skin under the chin and the loose, wrinkled flesh at the neck began to grow tighter, firmer . . . until the chin and neck looked like those of a woman of 29. And finally, Mrs. Seudlund's whole skin and complexion began to glow with such fresh, vibrant youthfulness that you could hardly believe it had ever been tired, dull and dry.

And so, this new doctor's discovery had transformed the 39-year-old Mrs. Suedlund into a lovely 25. Yes, before our very eyes . . . she had grown 14 years younger!

What This Discovery Means to You!

Now, can you imagine what this discovery means to you if you are a woman over 25? It means that for the first time science has found how to help insure and protect the youthful beauty of your skin. It means that at last there is a proven scientific way to aid in recapturing the clear, smooth skin, age may have stolen from you. And it means that now with this Doctor's discovery your face can actually start growing younger . . . instead of older. But read what Dr. Laserow himself says about your beauty problems.

When the almost magical transformation of Mrs. Suedlund has been accomplished, Dr. Laserow began to talk:

"This may seem like a miracle to unscientific eyes, but it is really a simple, natural process based on facts scientists have known for years! What I have done is to provide certain necessary chemical foods to an aging skin that was starving for them. And this feeding was responsible for the transformation you have just seen. The work and testing of this new chemical skin food took over 20 years and hundreds of experiments! But now that it is developed it is so simple to use that almost any woman could apply it herself in only a few minutes!"

The Beauty Secret Of Swedish Women!

The world has always known that the most beautiful women . . . the clearest, smoothest complexions are to be found in the Scandinavian countries and Sweden in particular. And so when Dr. Laserow began his research into the problems of aging skin, he first tried to discover the reasons for the unusual skin beauty of Swedish women.

He discovered that this unusual skin beauty was only true of women from the farm and country areas of Sweden . . . and that women in Swedish cities suffered from the same skin problems that women all over the world have. But in these farm and country areas he did find astonishingly youthful skins and on women far past middle age. He saw women of 45 who had the fresh, unlined faces of women half their age. He saw women of 55 with clear, smooth skins and complexions! He even discovered women over 60 who actually looked only 30 years old! But when he asked them what their beauty secret was, woman after woman told him they did not know.

The regarded their unusual beauty as a gift of God and nature. They used no beauty preparations, no creams, nothing. And so Dr. Laserow began years of experiments and clinical tests to discover the reason why . . . the secret of these women's astonishing youthful skin beauty.

These Are The 7 Skin Problems Dr. Laserow Has Solved

1. Lines on forehead
2. Lines at corner of eyes
3. Lines under eyes
4. Lines around nose
5. Nose-to-mouth lines
6. Lines around mouth
7. Lines on neck, under chin

Now You Can 'Feed' Youthful Beauty Back Into Aging Skin!

After many years and literally thousands of experiments, Dr. Laserow discovered that the secret was in the diet of these Swedish farm women. That all their lives they had eaten certain foods containing special ingredients that gave extra, added nourishment to their skins. And that this extra nourishment kept their skins fresh and youthful long after most women's faces began to age and become lined!

But when Dr. Laserow began to put women on a special diet containing these skin beauty foods he found no success. Woman after woman ate these foods for months and their faces were as wrinkled, as lined, as old as when they started.

And so Dr. Laserow began another series of tests and experiments and at last he was rewarded with success. He found that when he made a chemical concentration of these beauty foods, and put that concentrate into a base that could be absorbed directly into the skin . . . youthful skin beauty began to bloom again.

You see, the Swedish farm women had eaten these foods all their lives and so they had built up their skin over the years. But a woman who had not eaten these foods all her life could just not eat enough of them in a short time to help her skin. But when a super-powerful chemical concentrate of these beauty foods was applied directly to the skin, it went to work in an amazingly short time to replenish and renourish skin glands and tissues . . . restore fresh youthful beauty and help end lines, wrinkles, crow's feet and so on!

How This Skin Food Works to Restore Beauty & End Lines, Wrinkles, Crow's Feet & Sagging Dry Skin

Dr. Laserow has named this chemical skin food concentrate "Livigen." And Livigen is as much a food as bread is . . . except that it is a special food for the skin. Livigen works in a natural way to give new nourishment to aging skin tissues and make them young again . . . and end wrinkles, lines, etc.

The process is a simple, and natural one. You see, as we age so does our skin and as the skin grows older wrinkles, flabby and dry skin become a problem. This is because the glands and muscles under the surface skin no longer function as they did in youth to hold the skin taut and tight . . . to give natural oils and secrete normal fluids.

The muscles grow weak and limp and so your surface skin becomes loose and flabby and wrinkles and lines appear. The glands do not provide oils and fluids so that your surface skin becomes dry and flaky! Livigen is a super-powerful skin food concentrate that renourishes these aging glands and muscles. As they absorb Livigen they become functional and strong again. They begin to act as they did in your youth.

The muscles under the surface of your skin begin to expand to their normal youthful size and so they start to draw your surface skin tight, hold it taut, and fight wrinkles and lines. The glands begin to provide natural oils and fluids to your surface skin and so it becomes smoother, softer and clearer . . . dry flakiness begins to fade away.

Now Look up to 15 Years Younger With Doctor's 5-minute Treatment

Only a fool could expect that years of aging skin problems could be reversed and ended in a few minutes. However, you have just witnessed the miraculous transformation of Mrs. Suedlund; here is what it means to you! This doctor's 5-minute treatment can accomplish wonders . . . but you must use it faithfully, in a scientific way for 30 days. Follow closely Dr. Laserow's four-step method!

TWO: Next, take some LIVIGEN with your fingertips and softly work your fingers together to reactivate it.

THREE: Softly, lightly apply LIVIGEN to your face and skin. To the wrinkles, lines, to the sagging flesh at the chin and neck! Then watch as it starts to be absorbed into the skin . . . as it begins to work for you!

FOUR: Then relax, sleep, dream of beauty . . . because a miracle is taking place, you are being made young again!

Yes, if you follow this scientific treatment for only 30 days you will begin to see astonishing results. If you're 25 you'll know you are protecting and insuring the youthful freshness of your skin and complexion. If you're 35 you will see lines, wrinkles and crow's feet start to disappear . . . you'll begin to look a lovely 25. If you're 45, sagging flabby skin under the chin, wrinkled loose flesh at the neck will become firm, taut . . . you'll start to look like a young 35.

And if you're 55, 60 or even 65, harsh, deep ugly lines at the nose and mouth will begin to melt away . . . you'll be astonished to have people think you're only 45! And you will look and feel only 45! As you spread this doctor's formula on dry, flaky skin it starts to become smooth and soft . . . age begins to fade away!

Yes, a miracle is happening—you are being made young again. You gain new attractiveness, new desirableness. You look in the mirror and you can hardly recognize yourself. And it's so simple . . . so easy . . . so pleasant with this doctor's proven scientific treatment!

No More Face Creams, Hormones, Face Masques or Cover-Ups!

LIVIGEN works in a completely new and different way from beauty preparations of the past: It is completely different from creams, hormones and masques. It like most women you have spent fortunes on these preparations and without real success . . . now at last there is a new proven road to beauty! Face creams, masques, etc. all fail because they cannot really reverse the aging process. They are merely stop-gaps . . . they work at the surface . . . they cover skin problems instead of treating them.

Dr. Max Laserow, Swedish scientist who has developed a special "skin food" formula that "feeds" youthful-looking beauty back into the skin.

DOCTOR'S CLINICAL TESTS AND LABORATORY TEST PROVE NEW FORMULA SUCCESSFUL IN CASE AFTER CASE

A series of clinical tests by top skin doctors in Denmark have proven new formula LIVIGEN works where other methods fail. Tests by independent laboratory adds another group of successful case histories.

CASE HISTORIES: A group of women used LIVIGEN under test conditions for approximately a 30-day period. Tests were conducted by medical doctors and an independent laboratory. Improvement was noted in 97% of the cases of dry skin wrinkles and lines.

Woman after woman gained smoother skins. Woman after woman praised this wonderful new discovery. And case after case showed more improvement than even the doctors expected.

CASE HISTORY: Dr. A. P. of Copenhagen, Denmark, reports he tested LIVIGEN on five women. In all five cases, wrinkles looked smoother after the LIVIGEN treatment.

CASE HISTORY: Independent laboratory test shows LIVIGEN has definite wrinkle-removing effects. Laboratory reports that a special control test made with LIVIGEN tested on left side of face, and a normal face cream used on right side to determine difference. Results again demonstrated LIVIGEN'S effectiveness.

CASE HISTORY: Two doctors, Dr. P. H. and Dr. H. H. in cooperative test report from Copenhagen that in all cases tested skin looked smoother after LIVIGEN treatment.
