7 Killed as Planes Collide

Bodies, Crafts Wreckage Fall on Texas Homes

Air Force Jet Rams With Private Ship as Family, 2 Fliers Die

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — A flaming collision of an Air Force jet and a civilian plane exploded wreckage and bodies over a residential district yesterday.

Seven bodies, including that of a baby girl, fell with the wreckage. The flaming jet plummeted into an empty home. The engine of the civilian plane crashed into the kitchen of another home where a mother had just taken her children into the living room.

"That small plane looked as if it were flying almost in the same direction as the jet," L. B. Martin, Dallas, Tex., truck driver said. "There was a loud explosion, then pieces of both planes and bodies were falling everywhere."

Killed were Winfred R. Clement, 27, his wife Elizabeth, 25, and their 13-month-old daughter Cathy, all of Bowie, Tex.; Mrs. Clement's parents, Roy E. Howard, 63, and Ethel Howard, 57, Vashit, Tex.; L. Lowell D. Hale, 25, Decatur, Ill.; and Capt. Roy A. Roberts, 28, Belleville, Ill.

The jet wreckage crashed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Saunders, who weren't home at the time.

Wreckage and bodies were strewn all over the middle class residential area. The body of one woman crashed through the roof of another home and lodged in the bathtub. A child was found crumpled in a flower bed.

Webb Air Force Base said one of the airmen in the T33 had ejected himself, but his chute failed to open. The body of the other airman was found in the burned Saunders home.

The Clement plane had taken off at 2:30 p.m. from the Ector County Airport at Odessa, 12 miles southwest of this West Texas town, after the Clements had visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Howard.

The military ship was based at Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring.

Woman Boss for Amvets — Men Think It's Fine

By CHUCK ABRAIR

Women bossing men is nothing new — It's been going on ever since the first cave woman told the first cave man, "Move that stone, I want to dust under it."

But when a gal runs some 79 men, and the men voted to make it that way, that's a different story.

Miss Jacolyn Smith, of 32 Bagley St., is taking up her duties as commander of the Amvets Jimmy Dey Post 12. She served 14 months in the Navy during World War II, and was named to head the local group in a recent election.

"I didn't want to take it at first, because I was afraid to embarrass the men, but they kept asking me," she described the election.

Holding office in the post is nothing new for the 43-year-old female Navy vet—she has been everything else but finance officer since becoming a lifetime member 10 years ago.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, "Jackie" served as a yeoman-stenographer in the Bureau of Personnel in Washington, D.C., during the war, and received a disability discharge when she almost died from pneumonia in 1944.

HOLDS OTHER POSTS
Beside her Jimmy Dey Post activities, she is a member of the Disabled American Veterans, and the Cook-Nelson American Legion Post.

Kefauver Speaks in Berkley

Raps 'Illusive Prosperity'

Addressing an overflow crowd of more than 300 in Berkley's Northwood Inn yesterday, Sen. Estes Kefauver, Democratic vice presidential candidate, charged Republican prosperity is "an illusion."

Kefauver, who spoke to the combined Business and Professional Democratic Committees of Wayne and Oakland counties in his one-day Michigan visit, compared current prosperity with the prosperity of the late 1920s.

"Then, too, we had the illusion of prosperity," Kefauver said. But he said the 1920 prosperity was based on unequal social conditions, with "grinding poverty for most."

"Here in Detroit, the giant, idle Studebaker Packard plant is a daily reminder of that illusion," Kefauver said. He charged S-P was "driven to the wall by Charlie Wilson's narrow-base procurement policies."

NO CHANCE FOR LITTLE GUY
Studebaker-Packard, he said, is "an old but comparatively small firm." And in Washington, he added, "The little fellow trying to get a defense contract has about as thrilled I got," the new commander said today, as she outlined a pet project.

She has plans to establish a parade committee for the city to coordinate the Memorial Day activities locally.

UM Prepares for Homecoming

Game With Minnesota, Roman Holiday Theme to Spark Weekend

ANN ARBOR (AP) — University of Michigan alumni will descend on Ann Arbor this weekend for the 50th annual Homecoming Day, featured by the Michigan-Minnesota football game.

Lawns of fraternities, sororities and residence halls will be dotted with colorful displays, fitted into the theme of "Roman Holiday."

The University of Michigan marching band will dedicate its halftime show at the football game to the homecoming symbol by depicting several scenes of ancient Rome.

Though the day is devoted to students of the past, their present day counterparts will have a hand in many of the festivities.

Two fraternities—each possesses a St. Bernard—will stage their annual dog race Saturday morning. The dogs will pull chariots, which is keeping in step with the "Roman holiday" motif.

Also prior to the football game, two other fraternities will engage in the annual "Mudbowl" football contest.

A halftime feature of this game will be an annual soccer match between women of two sororities. Then, too, there'll be the crowning of the "Mudbowl Queen," selected yearly from candidates entered by the sororities. As usual all the entrants are men in women's garb.

Scattered Showers Predicted for Tonight

The temperature will drop from 52 to 56 degrees tonight says the U. S. Weather Bureau. We will have scattered showers likely and partly cloudy skies.

It is expected to be partly cloudy tomorrow with scattered showers likely in the forenoon and turning cooler. A high of 60 to 64 is predicted.

In the downtown area last night the mercury dipped to 38 degrees. The mercury read 63 degrees at 1 p.m.

Estes Concedes — Not Election but to Heckler

Sen. Kefauver ran into a "Joe Smith" of his own yesterday in the Northwood Inn.

Sniping at GOP Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Kefauver told the crowd, "If you give this outfit (the Republican administration) a vote of confidence, Richard Nixon will be the man who calls the signals."

"Do you want Richard Nixon to be the head of your government?" As 300 Democrats politely moaned, boomed and yelled "No," a firm, clear voice thundered, "Yes!" from the edge of the room.

Kefauver repeated the question. The voice repeated its answer. Stumped, Kefauver finally conceded, "Okay, brother, you're one out of 500."

James E. Clark, Bloomfield Township purchasing agent, identified himself after the meeting as the owner of the dissenting voice.

Clark said he had been eating his lunch in another part of the restaurant, and had heard Kefauver's speech over a loudspeaker.

"I'm no plant," he said. "I eat lunch here every day."

"I'm John Q. Citizen, and I'm sick of this hogwash."

Editor's Note: This is the fourth article in a series describing Oakland County's plans for building a new courthouse.

By CONRAD N. CHURCH
"There is enough money legally available for building our new courthouse so that we feel perfectly safe in constructing the first unit," said Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the County Board of Auditors. It is to be a five story and basement courthouse building to be located at the county's service center on North Telegraph road.

According to Chairman Moore, approximately half a million dollars has been received through the sale of property obtained from the state tax sales some years ago by the County Social Welfare Commission. Included in it also were the Pontiac and Ferndale market sites.

Some of this property has been used to house some of the families on welfare at a great saving in costs to the county. Much of it no longer is needed.

Much more of this surplus property remains to be sold. Moore estimates that what remains will bring approximately another million dollars.

Then there is the one-tenth of a mill which the county has been permitted specifically by law to levy for capital improvements. From 1950 to 1956 this has brought in $585,000. From 1956 to 1959 it is estimated that it will bring in approximately another $580,000.

Poles Parading in Sympathy for Hungarians

But Gomulka Declares Red Troops Must Stay as Guard to NATO

WARSAW (AP) — Young Poles ignored appeals last night to end anti-Soviet demonstrations and displayed their sympathy for Hungarians fighting Soviet domination in Budapest.

Wladyslaw Gomulka, the new Communist party boss, made clear that the Poles could not expect any withdrawal of Soviet troops from their country in the foreseeable future.

A crowd of 250,000 received in silence a statement on Soviet troops from Gomulka, who led Polish Communists in their revolt last week for "freedom and sovereignty."

Gomulka declared that the Soviet troops would remain as long as the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has bases in Western Germany.

He attacked anti-Soviet sentiment as displayed in demonstrations in several Polish cities earlier in the week, and asserted Communist authorities would tolerate no action against the Polish state.

The crowd of 250,000 included factory and farm workers, office clerks, villagers and students who gathered in front of the 35-story Palace of Culture and Science, formerly known as Stalin Palace, to hear Gomulka.

The crowd cheered when he said "it depends only on us how long Soviet troops may remain here."

But there was only stony silence when he added that government policy requires that the Russian troops stay as long as the West had military installations in West Germany.

The students, ignoring appeals to end demonstrations, paraded from the University of Warsaw crying "Rokossovsky go home." They were assailing Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, the Polish-born former Soviet marshal who remains as defense minister in the Polish government.

Boys in crewcuts and girls with pony tail haircuts marched to the headquarters of the Polish United Workers (Communist) party. A delegation was refused admittance, and the students returned to Warsaw University, where banners proclaimed "Long Live Freedom in Hungary."

Warsaw radio announced that national elections set for Dec. 16 would be postponed, in accord with a decision by the Polish Parliament. No reason was given.

Street Fighting Still Continues Despite Threats

Shakeup in Command Announced to Appease Stubborn Rebels

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Communist broadcasters claimed Soviet and Hungarian troops were slowly crushing the flickering anti-Soviet rebellion in Budapest today—but fighting went on.

The ruling Communist party in contradictory broadcasts appealed for the people to return to work, and warned them to stay off the streets because of continued shooting.

It announced the ouster of its first secretary in an evident effort to appease rebels who since Tuesday night had been staging a bloody uprising in the heart of the Hungarian capital.

Radio Budapest said Ernoe Geroe, who only this week returned from Belgrade where he had a "reconciliation" conference with Yugoslav President Tito, had been replaced as first secretary by Janos Kadar, a former jailed Titoist.

It was the second major shakeup in the Hungarian hierarchy in two days and the third in three months. Yesterday Imre Nagy, purged for Titoism in 1955, returned as premier, replacing Andras Hegedus. Geroe succeeded the loyal Stalinist, Matyas Rakosi, as party secretary only last July. The radio said the ouster of Geroe was "greeted with loud cheers by the Budapest population" and that people in the street "embraced with joy."

The station made this plea: "All Hungarian citizens, please cease the demonstration and return to your work. Thereby you can all help to isolate those elements which are still trying to overthrow our peoples democracy."

But a few minutes later, at 1:45 p. m., a broadcast urgently warned the people to remain indoors because of continued shooting in the streets.

A curfew, in force through the night, was extended, but people were told in other broadcasts that they could go out in case of extreme necessity.

Earlier broadcasts said rebels—who had started their insurrection with cries of "Russians go home"—were still firing in scattered sections of the city, but predicted that the rebel forces would be liquidated "in the course of the day."

The widespread arrest of rebels and suspected sympathizers was reported.

At 11:15 a.m. Budapest newscast said: "Although the restoration of order in the capital is making good progress, irresponsible elements (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

There Are Ample Funds for Courthouse

Editor's Note: This is the fourth article in a series describing Oakland County's plans for building a new courthouse.

By CONRAD N. CHURCH
"There is enough money legally available for building our new courthouse so that we feel perfectly safe in constructing the first unit," said Robert Y. Moore, chairman of the County Board of Auditors. It is to be a five story and basement courthouse building to be located at the county's service center on North Telegraph road.

According to Chairman Moore, approximately half a million dollars has been received through the sale of property obtained from the state tax sales some years ago by the County Social Welfare Commission. Included in it also were the Pontiac and Ferndale market sites.

Some of this property has been used to house some of the families on welfare at a great saving in costs to the county. Much of it no longer is needed.

Much more of this surplus property remains to be sold. Moore estimates that what remains will bring approximately another million dollars.

Then there is the one-tenth of a mill which the county has been permitted specifically by law to levy for capital improvements. From 1950 to 1956 this has brought in $585,000. From 1956 to 1959 it is estimated that it will bring in approximately another $580,000.

In addition there is $90,000 in rent that has been received over the past 10 years from occupants of the welfare housing project mentioned above. This makes a total of $2,755,000, and there are some other funds that could be used, according to Chairman Moore, all without disobeying in the slightest degree the mandate of the people as expressed at the courthouse bond issue election.

At that time they voted approval of building a new courthouse, but opposed levying any taxes to finance a bond issue.

"But will you actually have enough money available by the time this first unit of the new courthouse is completed to pay for it, in view of other commitments?" Moore was asked.

"Oh yes," he replied. "We will have enough and plenty to spare."

"Actually at the present time we have $1,088,873.80 in our building fund. We still have to pay for our new central garage, so that will take $187,340.03, leaving a balance of $901,533.77. However, we had previously placed $56,000 in the garage fund so that leaves $845,533.77."

"Then just last week we sold 14.1 acres of land at Oakland Avenue and West Boulevard for $46,500. That brings the available total to $1,094,033.77."

"There are several other sums that have been appropriated in perfect good faith, yet the supervisors now feel the money need not be used for the purpose originally intended, so these sums also will be available for courthouse construction.

"There is $94,000 appropriated for a new kitchen at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium. With tuberculosis cases declining, we no longer feel this outlay is prudent."

"We appropriated $75,000 for a county water survey. Of this sum $15,000 has been used, but now with Oakland joining in with several other counties and the likelihood that a private company may set up a pipeline to provide the new supply from Lake Huron, the remaining $60,000 will not be needed."

"We have $57,000 in land con-

Calls for Results on UF

Friday Deadline Set by Willman

Ask Solicitors Turn In Funds, Pledges to Permit Report Wednesday

Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign Chairman Walter K. Willman today asked all UF solicitors to turn in their first reports by 5 p.m. Friday evening.

"Let's find out where our drive stands," Willman said. He pointed out that reports made after Friday cannot be included in the results to be announced at next Wednesday's report luncheon.

Solicitors should make their reports by turning in money and pledges collected to date directly to Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign Headquarters at 20 1/2 East Lawrence.

Mrs. Ralph G. Bump, James F. Nye and Earl Maxwell, geographic, commercial and industrial chairmen respectively, will report on the success of their divisions Wednesday.

So far $70,232 has been pledged toward the 1956 Pontiac Area United Fund goal of $612,202.

PLEDGES $1,000

Among the large gifts turned in to United Fund campaign headquarters Wednesday was a pledge of $1,000 from Robert M. Critchfield, General Motors vice president and head of the Process Development Staff. Critchfield was chairman of the 1955 Pontiac Area United Fund drive.

Employees at Winkelman's Tel-Huron store turned in an impressive showing in their United Fund effort. They have pledged $512, which is more than $18 per employee.

Over 4,500 volunteer workers are participating in this, the seventh annual Pontiac Area United Fund campaign. The money raised by these citizens will be used to support the work of 54 local, state and national agencies.

AIDS LOCAL CAUSES

More than two thirds of the United Fund goal is used to support local agencies like the YMCA, St. Joseph's Mercy Clinic, the Visiting Nurse Association, Family Service of Oakland County, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and other services.

Each agency's share of the United Fund goal is determined by careful budgeting during the late spring of each year. The United Fund itself retains only a small proportion of the monies raised. Only 3 per cent is set aside for campaign expenses while 5 per cent is devoted to year around administration.

Chrysler Charges Unfair Labor Acts

DETROIT (U)—With all its automotive assembly lines halted by a wildcat strike that cut off parts supply, Chrysler Corp. said today it intends to file unfair labor practice charges against an United Auto Workers union local.

The corporation, with 35,000 employees idled by the walkout of 3,500, said its representatives will confer today with the National Labor Relations Board's regional director.

The local, 889, at the Nine Mile Rd. stamping plant ignored an appeal yesterday by top UAW officials to return to their jobs. The international union called the walkout over a seniority dispute "unnecessary and unauthorized."

Norman Matthews, UAW vice president for Chrysler operations, said the dispute was over a difference of opinion as to whether the company had violated the contract by promoting 30 employees to a higher classification of gas welder.

GM Won't Have $ Billion Year

3rd Quarter Profit Drop Cuts Hope for Earnings to Equal 1955

NEW YORK (U)—Any hopes General Motors Corp. might have held for its second straight billion-dollar profit year have gone up in the smoke of sharply curtailed third quarter earnings.

The giant automobile producer had piled up $33,471,523 in income during the first six months of this year, and seemed to be in range of the billion-dollar mark no other corporation had ever reached until GM did it in 1955. The company needs a second half equal to last year's, however, and earnings figures released yesterday show this is another year.

General Motors reported net income of $136,115,576 for the third quarter of 1956, making the total for the first nine months $639,585,399. In booming 1955, GM earned $251,925,585 during the third quarter and had $912,387,587 profit by Sept. 30.

Earnings per share reflected the drop in income, with only 48 cents per share for the quarter against 90 cents a year ago. For the nine months, earnings were $2.28 this year and $3.31 last year.

Net sales for the quarter were $2,275,408,965 down from $3,031,106,755 a year ago. For the nine months, sales were $8,144,082,872 compared with $9,543,778,894 in 1955.

GM put production of cars and trucks at 3,123,828 units for the first nine months, down 20 per cent from 1955's 3,903,943.

The company said dollar sales of civilian products were the second best third quarter on record, although defense sales were the lowest for a third quarter since 1951.

From Gulf to Milford, Gas Will Flow

MILFORD — Ground was broken Monday to enable Milford to be among six Michigan towns taking gas from a pipeline from the Gulf of Mexico to Detroit.

Milford will be the only town in Oakland County that the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. will provide with gas in installations this year, officials said at the groundbreaking ceremony.

Start of the $300,000 project that will bring a network of mains covering the entire town was in digging operations at South Main Street in front of the George Watkins home.

Other towns to receive gas this year are Milan, Saline, Cadillac, Traverse City and Ludington, according to Jim Day, public relations executive of the firm.

Clearing and excavating operations are in progress at Rowe Road for a meter and receiving station and foundation work should be finished by next week, Day said.

Nine miles of distribution mains will be laid with 3,000 feet of supply line to homes, in the plan.

The project is expected to be completed in about six weeks according to District Manager Charles Henderson of Ann Arbor.

Pentagon Seeks Way to Strengthen Draft

WASHINGTON (NEA) — While the politicians make a political football out of ending the draft the Pentagon is studying means of strengthening it.

The possibility that under present law and manpower needs a healthy young man can escape military service and the draft completely is a major handicap in efforts to bolster the nation's reserves.

The Army's big program to give 100,000 men a year six months of training and then put them in the ready reserve for seven and one-half years is suffering most from this draft loophole.

The six-month program was designed to build up the reserve by making it a more attractive means of discharging a man's military obligation than being drafted.

However, as soon as young men discovered that under the new law and lowered quotas they had a fair chance of never being drafted the six-month program was dealt a severe blow.

Men can be drafted into the six-month plan but the Army wants to keep it on a volunteer basis if possible.

In spite of all-out efforts to sell the six-month training program to America's youth less than half of the 100,000-man-per-year quota was met the first year, just ended.

One obvious alternative Pentagon experts now face is asking Congress to make it compulsory for all young men to undergo some period of active duty. This would be more fair to all men.

But it would merely be asking Congress for another universal military training program.

Congress has repeatedly turned this request down. But the Pentagon might have to ask for it again. However, before a new draft law is requested all the alternatives under the present law will be tried, Pentagon officials promise.

First, it is being ordered that no more men will be permitted to enlist in the National Guard without first taking the six-month training. The Guard now has 405,000 men and will not be hurt if this move slows its enlistments.

The Guard has already contributed 5,000 men to the six-month program and this move should boost that number considerably.

At present, men can join the Guard and escape active duty by attending the weekly drills. But it takes three years to train a man this way and the Army wants to speed up this process as well as fill up the six-month program.

At the same time the Army is putting into effect an "emergency reinforcement assignment plan." This consists of freeing all Korean veterans from any of the legal reserve time they have left to fulfill. And it includes assigning all men who have gotten out of service since then to new, specific jobs in the Army reserve.

This is actually a shuffling of paper because no man who entered service before Aug. 9, 1955, could be forced to join the reserves although they all have a technical duty to do so.

The only effect of this action will be to make the ready reserve slightly more ready in case of war.

And the units will look better on will be getting letters either freeing them from a reserve assignment or giving them a new one.

At the same time, recent increases in volunteers for the six-month training, plus increased numbers from the Guard, indicate that 70,000 men could enter the program during the coming year. If this happens, there will be no need for a new draft law and the goal of 1.3 million men in the reserves by 1960 will be met.

1,350 Attend Waterford Career Day

76 Consultants Lead Sessions

Rev. DeWitt Emphasizes 'Doing,' Rather Than Material Success

By JANE WINDELER
Waterford Correspondent

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—"A career is a way of life," said Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, Rector of Christ Church Cranbrook as keynote in speaking to 1,350 students and adults for Waterford Township High School's second annual Career Day program yesterday. The speaker put the emphasis on "doing" rather than on material success, and above all, he stressed the importance of self-respect.

To select a career which would make a successful way of life, the Rev. Mr. DeWitt gave three guidelines—"Do something you enjoy doing"; "Do something which you do well, that gives you satisfaction"; and "Do something that you can justify—something that needs to be done."

An assembly program began the day with the high school choir singing "America the Beautiful" and Student Council President Rodney Evans leading in the Pledge of Allegiance. Principal Thad Carr explained the schedule, and introduced Supt. William A. Shunk who welcomed the consultants, pointing out, "What you say and do here today will influence to varying degrees, hundreds of people." He then introduced the Rev. Mr. DeWitt.

Charles Pappas, vocational coordinator of the high school, made the arrangements for the conferences.

Seventy-six consultants conducted the sixty-three conferences that were held in four sessions. The aviation industry was represented by a mechanic, a commercial pilot and a stewardess from Trans-World Airlines.

The various phases of business and business administration included Epoch Eley, general supervisor of accounting at Pontiac Motor; Joseph Harding, from the advertising firm of MacManus, John and Adams; Harold J. Owen, branch manager for Community National Bank; Daniel Christie of Consumers Power Co., and Albert Kray of Pontiac Motor.

Consultants in the medical field were Dr. Arch Walls, president of Michigan Medical Society; Dr. James McHugh, of Pontiac State Hospital; Phyllis I. Prese, R.N., St. Joseph Mercy Hospital; Dr. J. M. Vandenberg, of Parke Davis Co.; Carl M. Bolten, D.D.S., Drayton Plains; Patricia Meixell and Roger Kidwell of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Seven men and women, representing the Armed Forces, conducted four of the classroom sessions. Engineering was divided into chemical, civil, electrical, and mechanical sections plus auto mechanics, diesel equipment, drafting and tool and die machinists sections.

John B. Wilson, Pontiac attorney, was consultant for those stu-

Bakers Hear Ex-President

Truman Sees '29 Ghost in Republican Economics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Former President Harry Truman said today he saw in Republican economic policies "the glimmer of another 1929."

In a speech prepared for delivery before the convention of the Bakery and Confectionary Workers International Union, Truman said: "The danger is that, as the Republicans continue their policies of favoring the privileged few, more and more of the little people will fall by the wayside. The wage earner will join the farmer and the small businessman on the to-bogged of falling incomes. The gaps in our prosperity will get bigger and bigger. No man knows where it will end, but in the distance I see the glimmer of another 1929."

Referring to the 1929-1932 period, Truman said, "I know it is regarded as impolite in some quarters to talk about this. But the fact remains that we did have a depression at that time — a very bad one, and it is also the fact that it came as the culmination of 12 years of Republican rule in Washington."

Campaigning for the Democratic party, the former President said the Democrats put the country back on its feet when it took office in 1932. But under the Republicans since 1932, he said, "the economic growth of our country has slowed down."

"Mr. Eisenhower," said Truman, "has some figures he is fond of using that are supposed to show how much better off the country has been during his administration. At the same time, he is prone to accuse those who disagree with him of using half-truths. When we examine what he has been doing with some of these figures, you might be inclined to wonder whether anyone accusing him of half-truths would not be engaging in sheer flattery."

Truman said President Eisenhower described himself as "the chief apostle of truth" and added: "Now the worst thing about this is not that a president of the United States should treat the truth so lightly, although this is very bad. The worst thing is the danger which lies in the facts he is trying to conceal."

Lowly Ragweed Wins Respect

Scientists at U. of M. Conduct 5-Year Study in Hay Fever Project

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. (INS) —The common ragweed plant—despised by hay fever victims and ignored by nature lovers—is winning the scientific respect of University of Michigan botanists.

The botanists are learning all they can about the rugged plant as part of a broad, five-year study of hay fever at the University, which employs experts from the fields of medicine, engineering and public health.

The project is sponsored by the National Institute, in cooperation with the University of Michigan Engineering Research Institute.

When their research is finished, the botanists hope to be able to tell medical doctors exactly how and where the plant forms the substance to which one in every 20 Americans is allergic. They also hope to tell meteorologists when and how this substance is discharged into the atmosphere on particles of pollen.

The doctors and meteorologists will carry the work from there in an effort to alleviate the suffering of those allergic to this and other airborne materials.

Warren H. Wagner, assistant professor of botany, reports:

"Few people realize it, but ragweed is an incredibly complex plant which represents evolutionary specialization of the highest order."

The common ragweed plant has survived for 170 million years, starting like a plant of the magnolia family and then evolving through stages resembling the rose, honeysuckle and daisy.

Professor Wagner points out that the ragweed thrives in the poorest soils, stands a great deal of abuse, yet nevertheless functions "remarkably successfully."

During the spring and early summer, when the days are longer than 12 hours, the plant just grows. When the days grow shorter than 12 hours about mid-August, a mysterious "photo-period" system "tells" the plant to begin flowering.

The U. of M. botanists began their study with a survey of scientific articles written about ragweed.

The result is a bibliography containing 800 annotated references that in itself should be an important contribution to the field.

Officer's Disguise Can't Fool Gypsy—but She Loses

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) — Even his closest friends wouldn't have recognized Maurice G. Stafford when he left his office disguised as a hobo. The deputy prosecutor's purpose was to find the buxom, raven-haired gypsy—a fortune teller—who had been soliciting customers from the street. Shuffling past the gypsy band's headquarters in the best hobo manner, Stafford spotted the girl and wanted to be approached. Presently the door opened and the buxom gypsy called: "Come in officer, the door is always open to you."

But Stafford accomplished his purpose; he said the band promised to close shop.

Meeting Held by Soviet Vets

800 Civil War, WW II Ex-Servicemen Elect Hand-Picked President

MOSCOW (INS) — Soviet war veterans have just held a convention in Moscow without water pistols or funny hats.

That could come later, however — this was their first meeting. The Kremlin summoned 800 veterans of the 1917-1922 civil war and of World War II to fill the hall while another wheel was added to the Soviets' "peace" bandwagon.

The veterans soberly elected to the presidency without dissent one of Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov's deputies, Marshal Alexander Vasilievsky.

Unlike veterans' organizations in capitalist countries, the Soviet group won't lobby for bonuses, pensions, medical care and other special benefits for ex-servicemen.

The new president explained in an interview that "one of its main aims is to unite the efforts of war veterans in the struggle for consolidating peace and strengthening contacts with . . . organizations from other countries which are taking action against the threat of war."

The Soviets first job will be to move into the World Veterans' Federation, one international forum the Russians had missed up to now.

Marshal Vasilievsky explains that members will "conduct educational activity among war veterans in the spirit of Soviet patriotism and in the spirit of consolidating peace, friendship and cooperation among different peoples."

The veterans group provides another peg to hang "cultural exchanges" on:

"It will establish contacts and exchange experience with other Soviet and foreign organizations which are fighting for the preservation of peace . . . inviting delegations of veterans from other countries to the U.S.S.R. and sending its delegations abroad . . ."

U.S. Citizens Halted on Way to U.S.S.R.

NEW YORK (U)—Another Russian-American citizenship controversy developed here yesterday as immigration agents halted a Bronx family about to sail for the Soviet Union aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Immigration officers said the three were American citizens and could not leave without American passports, which they lacked. A Russian Embassy official said they had renounced their American citizenship and had become Soviet citizens.

The family was identified as Mr. and Mrs. Serafin Strelkov, both Russian-born, and their daughter, Natalia, who was born in this country 26 years ago.

They refused to speak to reporters.

Science Is Working to Make You Warmer

SHEFFIELD, Eng. (INS) — Dissatisfied with the climate? Grousing about the shocking weather? Cheer up, for science is working to make you cozy.

Spare heat from the tropics may warm the colder regions of the world in the future, according to Prof. A. A. Miller, professor of geography at Reading University.

The professor said nature does this already by means of ocean currents and the atmospheric circulation which together constitute a global central-heating system, but he added that nature "does not do this very efficiently."

Prof. Miller admitted that an efficient machinery was not yet in sight "but who shall say in this technological age that anything is impossible tomorrow? — the pronouncements of yesterday are sufficient warning."

Oil Supplier Change

STOCKHOLM — Oil's relative share in Sweden's over-all imports has gradually increased in the past 10 years and now amounts to 11.5 per cent, or about the same as textile imports. There has also been a marked shift in the source of supply. In 1946 North and South America accounted for 30.1 per cent of Sweden's oil imports; their share at present is only 28.3 per cent. The Near East, either directly or through Western European refineries, has increased its share from 9.9 per cent to 60.9.

Prep Loops Have Grid Showdowns

You don't have to search long this week to discover Friday's No. 1 high school football game in the Oakland County area.

Tomorrow night's top attraction takes place at Walled Lake where the Waterford Skippers and the Vikings, both unbeaten and untied in six starts, collide headon with the Inter-Lakes Conference championship at stake.

An overflow crowd is expected to jam every nook and cranny of the junior high field to witness this struggle between perfect record teams.

Southfield hopes to snap a three-game losing streak at Berkley and Farmington entertains Van Dyke in remaining Inter-Lakes action.

Second only in importance to the Waterford-Walled Lake battle is the crucial Oakland B League test between Avondale and Clawson at Clawson. The conference title is hanging in the balance for each school.

The Avondale-Clawson game somewhat overshadows the Oakland B clash at Troy between the Colts and Lake Orion. The Dragons are now out of contention, but Troy still has an opportunity to divide or win the crown.

Madison invades Roseville for Friday's other Oakland B tilt.

Two important games are on tap tomorrow night in the Wayne-Oakland Conference. Vastly improved Holly lays its title chances on the block at Northville against the league-leading Mustangs while Milford, still in the race, meets unpredictable West Bloomfield at Keego Harbor. Brighton visits Clarenceville for another W-O tussle.

Almost is host to Dryden and Memphis warily goes to New Haven in Friday's best Southern Thumb League offerings. Remaining league activity sends Cape to Ann Arbor.

Birmingham is probably due for another licking at the hands of Port Huron in an Eastern Michigan League game at the Big Red's gridiron. Other EML contests are Hazel Park at Ferndale and East Detroit at Mt. Clemens.

Orionville will have its hands full at Inlay City against the defending champion Spartans and Millington plays host to North Branch in South Central conference games.

Bloomfield Hills can annex the Southeast Suburban Conference title by whipping Fraser tomorrow night at Fraser. Warren invades Utica and South Lake visits Center Line in Bi-County League play.

Downtrodden Cranbrook faces University School of Cleveland in an Inter-State League game Saturday afternoon at Cranbrook.

Winner by a Neck

CAMDEN, N. J. — Calumet Farm's Bardstown, holding just off the pace through most of the race, came on fast in the stretch yesterday to take the $81,400 Trenton Handicap by a neck from Summer Tan at Garden State Park.

The win was worth $54,550 for the 4-year-old gelding and boosted his total earnings to $173,050.

Mike Belloise, one-time featherweight boxing champion, now works in the New York City post office.

Japs Praise Rookie

Brooks' Kipp Wins Shutout

TOKYO — Japanese baseball experts had high praise today for a 24-year-old Brooklyn Dodgers rookie southpaw who has struck out seven of Japan's outstanding sluggers and issued only four hits and one walk so far in two appearances.

Big Fred Kipp, formerly with Brooklyn's farm team at Montreal, faced 23 batters in 7 innings Wednesday, fanned 6 and gave up 4 hits and 1 pass. He blanked an All-Star Japanese team in Sendai, northern Japan before 30,000 fans. The Japanese team was composed of top players from the Tokyo, Yokohama-Nagoya area.

Yomiuri Giants said, "Japanese batters are able to handle the fast ball but we're still helpless against curves and a change of pace such as those so flawlessly demonstrated by Fred Kipp."

Catcher Roy Campanella said, "Too bad we didn't use him in the World Series."

Rangers Beat Montreal, 3-2

Danny Lewicki Scores on Penalty Shot as N.Y. Ties NHL Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nobody could remember today when New York last scored on a penalty shot before last night. But the one Danny Lewicki flicked home then beat Montreal 3-2 and carried the Rangers into a tie for the National Hockey League lead.

It's the first time since the 1941-42 season, when the Rangers finished on top, New York has had given a sniff of the lead. At the moment, they're deadlocked with Detroit at eight points each.

The payoff shot came in the first period with Lewicki zooming in on Gerry McNeil, subbing for the ill Jacques Plante, at 14:37 to wrap up Ranger scoring in the only game scheduled last night.

Penalty shots are fairly rare these days in the NHL, coming when a player is fouled on a clear breakaway shot at the goal. New York Coach Phil Watson said they were a little "more common" a decade or more ago, but that "The man with the puck still has an 80-20 edge."

Lure for Pen Pals

LONG BRANCH, N.J. (AP)—Need a jungle drum, crocodile skins or ebony images?
If so, contact 15-year-old Rasulu Onis of Lagos in Africa through the Long Branch Record. Rasulu is the second African recently to write the newspaper in search of American pen pals. As a lure Rasulu offered the above items as well as leopard skin wallets, carved knives and bows and arrows. Bartering with him may be a little difficult. He says his hobbies include table tennis and "collecting of movie stars."

Dog Wins Point!

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP)—A little dog came to a point beside the wheel of an automobile at a drive-in restaurant here. The man in the car got out and found that the dog was eyeing a dollar bill. Finders keepers, the man decided. He ordered a dollar's worth of hamburgers, left them for the dog, and drove away to the furious wag of a tail.

Would Delete Bowery

NEW YORK (AP)—With the city's old Third Avenue elevated gone, Manhattan's borough president Hulan Jack wants to get rid of the southernmost end of the thoroughfare — the Bowery. He says the name bears a "connotation of drunken derelicts and broken dreams." The suggested new name: Third Avenue South.
