THERE IT WAS—These photos show where a house near Kansas City, Kan., vanished into the earth Monday. In the top photo it's askew on June 8. On Monday it's gone, with only the side porch clearly visible, while neighbors examine their property. The area is badly stricken as the surface falls into an abandoned limestone mine beneath.

Entire Neighborhood in Disappearing Act

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—It all began when Mrs. Benie C. Stewart looked out the window and saw her cow disappear right into earth. That was Jan. 3, 1965.

"I couldn't believe my eyes," said Mrs. Stewart. "Our cow was just sinking like she was going down in an elevator. She went down about 12 feet and we had to destroy her."

Eighteen days later the earth opened up beneath the modest home and her blind husband occupied and broke it in two. They moved away.

Since then, five other houses have broken apart or plummeted into an abandoned limestone mine that runs beneath an irregular area approximately three-fourths mile long.

The latest disappearing act was Monday night. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Flack plunged into a 90-foot hole and was swallowed up. The Flacks had moved out earlier when their garage fell into the abyss.

OTHERS MOVED

Others moved too, although their houses were unscathed. Large sunken areas in a field across the street, the fissures in their driveway and another deep hole in the Flack yard are enough for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Crookham who live next door west.

Mrs. Crookham and her son, David, 17, were at their home yesterday, taking up some carpeting.

"We left the next day after the garage tumbled down," she said. "We have rented a house elsewhere."

GM Sales Hit a New Record

Ford, Chrysler Show Dip in 1st June Period

DETROIT (UPI)—Sales figures for the first 10 days of June released by the auto industry's "Big Three" yesterday showed declines for Ford and Chrysler from sales levels of the similar period last year. General Motors reported a new record although sales of its top-selling chevrolet were off 15 per cent.

GM, which has already begun shutting down plants for the annual model change-over, reported sales of 135,965 passenger cars for the early June period compared with the record-setting pace of 134,157 cars in 1965.

Ford, said its passenger car sales totaled 59,313 compared with 65,382 for the period last year. Officials said this (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Ky Junta Vows to Hold Reins Till Next Year

American Air Attacks Are the Closest Ever to Port of Haiphong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's ruling junta vowed today to remain in power until next year in blunt defiance of militant Buddhist demands for its dismissal now.

closer than ever before to the key North Vietnamese port of Haiphong.

Fighter-bombers from the 7th Fleet carriers Hancock and Ranger hit radar installations for North Viet Nam's Soviet-built missile defenses eight and 10 miles from Haiphong.

The 20-man military-civilian junta said it would prolong its life by limiting the role of the Constituent Assembly, elected Sept. 11, to writing a constitution.

It thus rejected the recommendation of its own electoral commission that proposed letting the assembly live on as a legislative body with power to name a civilian government and make laws for it to administer.

TO ELECT ASSEMBLY

The junta's secretary-general, Maj. Gen. Pham Xuan Chieu, said a legislative assembly would be elected three to six months after the constitution becomes law.

The U. S. Navy raids on the Communist north yesterday brought the air war two miles closer to Haiphong, North Viet Nam's second city 60 miles east of the capital, Hanoi.

The incorporation of the Village of Rochester and Avon Township into one city has been recommended by the township's government study committee.

County Jury Gives Verdict in 25 Minutes

Lombardi Is Accused of Making Payoff to Pontiac Policeman

A Detroit man who has been linked with an international crime syndicate yesterday was found guilty of bribing a Pontiac police officer.

A Circuit Court Jury returned the verdict against Angelo (Barrels) Lombardi, 37, after deliberating only 25 minutes.

Lombardi also was convicted of conspiracy to bribe.

Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem, who presided over the four day trial, will sentence Lombardi at 9 a.m. on July 19.

Lombardi was found guilty of paying $2,050 over a four month period to Capt. Raymond E. Meggitt, while Meggitt pretended he was cooperating with Lombardi in giving protection to an alleged gambling establishment in Pontiac, the Seaway Civic and Social Club, 118 S. Paddock.

UNDERCOVER WORK

During the trial last week, Meggitt testified that while he was doing undercover work for the department, he was approached by Lombardi and asked if he (Meggitt) could keep Lombardi informed of any pending raids.

With the authorization of Police Chief William K. Hanger, Meggitt carried out his dual role from June to October last year when the establishment was raided by police.

Gambling charges are still pending against Lombardi and several other men arrested in the raid on the club Oct. 2, 1965.

In October 1963, Lombardi was described by the then Detroit Police Commissioner at a U.S. Senate subcommittee hearing as being a section leader of the Mafia.

2 OTHERS CHARGED

Two other men charged with conspiracy to bribe with Lombardi, stood trial at the same time but were not tried by the jury.

The defendants, Charles Roussos, 52, of Detroit; and Odus Tinscher, 49, of St. Clair Shores, had waived a jury trial and their case was being heard by Judge Ziem.

This morning Ziem said he would make a ruling on Roussos and Tinscher at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

Combat Police Quell Buddhist-Led Mobs

SAIGON (UPI) — Buddhists seized three square blocks of downtown Saigon today in their third massive antigovernment and anti-American demonstration of the day.

Combat police smashed through the flaming street barricades and subdued them with clubs and tear gas.

It was the third consecutive day that thousands of Buddhists have battled combat police in Saigon in their attempts to overthrow the government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

The police hit the rioters with milder. American newsmen were kicked and beaten.

The Buddhists were inflamed by Ky's decision to maintain himself in power well into 1967 by sharply limiting the powers of a constituent assembly called to prepare elections.

Chicago Police Quiet Rioters

2,000 Removed From Streets, 31 Arrested

CHICAGO (AP) — Five hundred policemen removed more than 2,000 persons from riotous streets in a predominantly Puerto Rican area Tuesday night and arrested 31.

Told to "clear the streets and do it with a smile," police held disturbances to a minimum after two nights of rioting.

The arrests brought to 112 the number of persons taken into custody since the rioting began Sunday after a Puerto Rican youth was shot and wounded by a policeman. The policeman said the youth pulled a gun as the officer tried to break up a fight.

Eleven of the arrests were made 13 blocks from the scene of the riot Monday night when two homemade bombs were thrown at a police car. The car was not hit.

POLICE STRATEGY

Police strategy Tuesday night was to stop trouble before it could germinate. Groups were not allowed to form. The arrests were made during brief and isolated rock-throwing episodes.

By 11 p.m., the West Division area—used as a basis for novels by author Nelson Algren—was peaceful. Two hours earlier, 2,000 persons milled through the streets on a clear, pleasant night.

A lack of communication between residents and police has been blamed by community leaders for the rioting.

The area, colonized in Chicago's infancy by Polish and German immigrants, gradually has been taken over by Puerto Ricans since World War II.

MOSTLY TRANSIENTS

Social workers describe the inhabitants as mostly transients shuttling back and forth to Puerto Rico and having little time for learning English or growing accustomed to city life.

The area is 15 minutes from downtown Chicago.

Board: Eastern Is Not Inferior

Dissident Teachers Make a New Appeal

Eastern Junior High School is not an inferior school — it is a school with problems; the Pontiac Board of Education told dissident teachers and parents at a special board meeting last night.

The 28 Eastern teachers who were not in their classrooms Thursday and Friday last night reiterated their request for a public statement of support by the board.

The board issued two prepared statements in answer to protests of the 28 dissident teachers.

Glenda Belote, a spokesman for the dissident teachers, said she was satisfied with the board's statements.

The board noted that Eastern is similar to other Pontiac junior high schools in terms of curriculum, instructional materials, extracurricular activities and teaching staff.

"The board of education recognizes that improvements are always possible in every school. The board believes that school improvement can best be accomplished through a close working relationship between concerned parents, teachers and administration," the first statement read.

5 Indictments Handed Down

Township Supervisor Faces Two Charges

The Oakland County Grand Jury yesterday issued five indictments charging 10 men. Royal Oak Township Supervisor Edward Kennedy twice, with crimes ranging from bribery to furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor.

All were arraigned before Bloomfield Hills Justice of the Peace Jack Baldwin.

In one warrant, Kennedy is accused with four others of bribery and conspiring to commit bribery, while in the other, Grand Juror Philip Pratt has charged him with three counts of perjury.

The indictment says that Kennedy, former Royal Oak Township Trustee Marshall Taylor, Patum Eason, now an official in the war on poverty in Detroit and two officers of the Atlas Sand Co., Carmen Jacoboni and Angelo Delesanto, both of Detroit, were involved in the bribery conspiracy.

The charges allege that Jacoboni and Delesanto paid $2,650 to four township officials between August, 1964 and December, 1965 in return for the purchase and removal of sand from the township by their company, and the extension of their contract.

FALSE DENIAL

On the perjury issue, Kennedy is accused of falsely denying that he knew anything about alleged payoffs to township board members when he testified before the grand jury twice in January and once last June.

Suspended Township Justice

The Peace Lennie C. Cash was charged with billing and receiving excessive fees from the county in amounts greater than allowed by law.

He also is accused of charging the county for services not rendered.

It was the third indictment and the second in a week leveled at Cash.

He was ordered by the Circuit Court to refrain from performing his judicial duties after he was charged the first time last month.

In two other warrants, three Royal Oak Township policemen and a John Doe were charged with providing whiskey to a 15-year-old girl.

City Woman Sentenced to 3-20 Years

A Pontiac woman was sentenced yesterday to 3-20 years in the Detroit House of Correction for accepting the earnings of a prostitute.

Convicted of the offense last month, Marie Marie, 43, of 23 Chapman, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Frederick C. Ziem.

The charge stemmed from a raid on her house by Pontiac police vice squad officers.

She also had been charged with maintaining and operating a house of prostitution, and soliciting and act of prostitution, but was acquitted on both counts in Pontiac Municipal Court.

In late April, while police were taking steps to picket the residence as a "public nuisance," it was discovered that Mrs. Mayes was paying the rent with funds she received from the County Welfare Department.

Seeking the Republican nomination for township trustee is Ted McCullough Jr., 33, of 5590 Brookdale.

Johnson, who served three terms as Waterford Township supervisor from 1957 to 1963 until losing to former Democratic Supervisor James E. Seesterlin the past two elections, presently is employed with Groux Real Estate.

Prior to serving as township supervisor, he was a member of the Waterford Township Board of Education for 10 years.

At least 26 persons were injured, 12 of them policemen, and 20 were arrested in the riot which grew out of a demonstration by construction workers Monday night.

They were protesting a 2 percent deduction in their vacation pay to defray administrative costs.

During a march on city hall, Jan Weggeler, a 51-year-old worker, fell dead while scuffling with police. Other demonstrators said the police beat him. An autopsy later showed he had suffered a heart attack.

STRIKE CALLED

Leaders of the demonstration then called for one-day strike, during which workers marched aimlessly through the city.

Some toppled trucks owned by the newspaper De Telegraf to protest stories on the disturbances of the night before.

Later, hundreds of youths joined the workers and fought several running battles with police who retaliated with tear gas and nightsticks and several times charged them on motorcycles and horseback.

Married and the father of two sons, he is president of the Waterford Township Republican Club and a member of the Oakland County Circuit Court Jury Commission.

PLANNING UNIT

He was a former member of the Oakland County Planning Commission and has served as a member of the Oakland County Department of Public Works.

Mrs. Wolters, a housewife, is a native of Swinton, Mo. She has been a resident of Oakland County 12 years and of Waterford Township 11 years.

Her husband, Glenn M., is employed at General Motors Technical Center in Warren. She is the mother of two teen-age sons. She is vice president of the Waterford Township Republican Club and has been a delegate to the GOP state convention for several years.

She is a Republican director of Waterford Township and a member of the Republican executive board of the 19th Congressional District.

A member of Lakewood Farms Civic Association, Mrs. Wolters previously served two years as president of the PTA at Leggett Elementary School and has been active as a volunteer worker for United Fund.

She is a graduate of Advance, Mo., High School and for two years attended Stearns Business College in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Dean, who was appointed township trustee in December, 1964, is presently employed at Pontiac Motor Division in the personnel department.

Married and the father of seven children, Dean also serves on the Waterford Township Planning Commission.

Divers to Explore Lake for AF Jet

PORT HURON (UPI) — Skin divers planned to explore an area of Lake Huron today where traces of a missing Air Force F106 jet interceptor were found.

Small pieces of aluminum, identified as part of the frame of the plane, were found late yesterday along with the pilot's helmet, cap and oxygen container six miles north of the Huron Lightship, about 15 miles northeast of Port Huron.

The single-seat plane and its pilot disappeared Monday on a regular training flight out of Selfridge Air Force Base.

Whites to Get Lie Tests in Death of Dixie Negro

NATCHEZ, Miss. (U)—Three white men charged with murdering a Negro man, whose body was found in a creek near here, have been taken to state police headquarters for lie detector tests.

Sheriff Odell Anders said Claude Fuller, 46, of Kingston; Ernest Avants, 35, of Washington; and James Lloyd Jones, 56, of Natchez were being held without bond. He said all three are paper mill workers.

Two of the men charged last night were listed earlier this year by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as past or present members of Ku Klux Klan organizations.

Authorities charged the three with the fatal shooting of Ben Chester White, 65, in Kingston June 10. White's body was found three days ago in Pretty Creek.

He had been shot 16 times in the chest and arms with a rifle, Anders said, and his head had been partially blown away by a shotgun blast.

NO CONNECTION

White had no connection with any civil rights activities in this area, said Dist. Atty. Lennox Foreman.

Natchez has been scene of Negro demonstrations during the past year, civil rights forces led a boycott of white merchants for many months. The area repeatedly has been described as a hotbed of Klan activity.

The House committee probed Klan activities earlier this year and on Feb. 4 made public the names of persons it said were employed by the International Paper Co. at Natchez "who are past or present members" of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi or the United Klans of America.

The list included the names of Ernest H. Avants and Claude W. Fuller.

TO TAKE TESTS

Sheriff Anders took Fuller, Avants and Jones to Jacksonville, Miss., for lie detector tests last night.

It was learned that federal authorities kept a close but unofficial watch on the investigation of White's death but did not enter the case, which was handled entirely by Anders department, with the aid of the highway patrol.

The White case was the first with racial angles which had been handled entirely by local authorities in "a long time," said a federal source.

Coed Editor Faecs Jail in Drug Probe

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Annette Buchanan, coed editor of the University of Oregon newspaper, today faced a difficult decision — whether to betray the trust of five campus marijuana users or possibly go to jail for failure to do so.

The 20-year-old brunette was ordered Monday to tell the Lane County grand jury the names of student marijuana users she interviewed for an article in "The Daily Emerald."

If she refuses, Miss Buchanan faces a possible contempt of court citation, which carries a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $300 fine.

Miss Buchanan, refused to reveal the names during a grand jury session June 3. She said she would refuse to again today and would go to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary to protect her news sources.

"I feel I have a duty to myself and those who trusted me," said the student editor, who has been determined to become a journalist since she was in high school.

Her attorney, Arthur Johnson, contends that disclosure of the names would violate the ethics of journalism and constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press and free speech.

However, circuit Judge Edward Leavy ordered her to do so after Monday's two-hour hearing.

Mrs. Eddie Stephens (Tommi Bogan) has been graduated from Tennessee State University with a bachelor of science degree in elementary education. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bogan, Earleboro Boulevard.

Gritty Graduate Gets to Her Goal

By JEANNE NELSON

Joining ranks with other graduates at Waterford Township High School this evening will be Mrs. Leo Rickman (Willie) of Aylesbury Road. She has been attending school four evenings a week for the past two years.

A soft southern drawl, winning smile and an intense eagerness to learn have accompanied her through long hours of lectures, tests and assignments.

But the day of victory is here and at least two people in the audience tonight can be especially proud of their graduate. They are Mrs. Rickman's husband, Leo, and their daughter, Janet, who is now a junior at Central Michigan University.

SAME CLASSES

Janet and her mom had some of the same teachers simultaneously two years ago when Janet was a senior at WTHS.

"This of course had its disadvantages," said Janet when she explained that her mother got an A grade in one class while she received a B.

Between housekeeping chores, homework, classes and a full social life, Mrs. Rickman also manages to sew most of Janet's and her clothes.

As the 10th child in a family of 11 children, Willie Rickman wasn't able to complete her education earlier. But she never lost the desire to finish high school and earn that diploma.

"At first," she said, "I felt the time might come when it would be necessary for me to have a high school diploma in the event I had to go to work."

"But," she goes on to say, "now I feel the same way about college."

GOING TO OU

This fall will see Mrs. Rickman hard at work again as a student at Oakland University. The law seems to interest her. Although she laughs at the idea, her family and friends wouldn't be too surprised if she turned up with a law degree in a few years.

An avid bowler, she and her husband bowl on Friday evenings with a mixed league. Now with summer approaching, books will be put aside for awhile and gardening will take their place.

Mrs. Leo Rickman of Aylesbury Road takes time out to adjust the blue and gold ribbons on her cap before graduation ceremonies of Waterford Township High School this evening. Mrs. Rickman is one of 49 evening class students who will participate in the outdoor event.

OU to Present Play

Tennessee Williams' award-winning play, "The Glass Menagerie," runs in the Little Theatre of Oakland University Thursday through Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

The play, often considered to be Williams' best, sensitively probes the interpersonal stress in a fatherless southern family rooted in the genteel tradition, but living in a St. Louis tenement.

The mother, Amanda Wingfield, who can't adjust to reality, is played by Mary C. Lyons.

Her son, Tom, an aspiring poet, is acted by Robert E. McGowan who has studied and performed with Canadian mime, Marc Dore.

Merle E. Niemi plays Laura, the clubfooted daughter who hides in her glass animal world of illusions. Her "gentleman suitor," Tom's friend Jim, is portrayed by William P. Watson.

Tom Aston, OU director, designed and directed the play. After two years of developing OU's theatre program, Aston is leaving to become theatre program director at the University of Windsor.

Ticket information may be obtained by calling William

University Student Activities Center.

An open house Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. in the home of their son, Byron Clements of Clinton Drive, will honor Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Clements, also of Clinton Drive, on their 60th wedding anniversary. There are three other children, Donald of Belding; Mrs. Freeman Cromis of Danville, Pa.; and Kenneth of Pontiac. There are 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Four Attending Island Confab

Several North Oakland County women will attend the national convention of Delta Zeta sorority on the Grand Bahama Island.

Expecting to go from this area are Mrs. Russell T. Costello, Mrs. Winfield Hinman, Mrs. Edward Wirth and Sandra Schmetzky.

While at the confab which begins Sunday and runs through Saturday, the women will lodge at the Grand Bahama Hotel and Country Club.

New officers of the Oakland County group are Mrs. Charles Fleckenstein, chairman; Mrs. George Betker, program chairman; Mrs. Albert Lucas, secretary; Mrs. Edward W. Martin Jr., treasurer and Mrs. Edward Jones, historian.

Before Dyeing

When dyeing shoes at home, be sure to dry the instep part of the sole. If you don't this may show when you step or get into a car and thus spoil the effect of the whole job.

Cotton canvas awnings are now treated for fire-resistance.

Combine Gala, Anniversary

A combined family reunion and golden anniversary celebration will take place June 23 at the Pontiac Yacht Club. The children of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Earl E. Phillips, Detroit, who live in the Pontiac area are hosting the party. Special guests will be Col. Phillips' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Phillips of Morley, Mich. and Lawrence Fullington, St. Petersburg, Fla., the best man at the wedding in 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Featherstone Street will hold open house for her parents June 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Children of the honorees are Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Theodore W. Polite, Pontiac; Hugh of Ferndale; Robert, Tucson, Ariz.; Mrs. Donald L. Wickham, Lansing; and Richard of San Jose, Calif. All, except Richard, will be at the two parties.

There are 18 grandchildren.

LBJ Rallying Doctor Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson is expected to appeal to the nation's medical leaders today for their help in launching Medicare successfully on July 1.

Johnson also is expected to tell the physicians, at a White House meeting that the government is counting on their ethical leadership to prevent abuses that could overload hospitals.

The President called the one-day conference of administrative officials and 300 officers of national and state medical and hospital associations to review the almost-completed plans for the universal health insurance system.

Secretary of Welfare John W. Gardner was expected to announce at the conference the latest tally on how many of the country's approximately 7,500 general hospitals have enrolled in Medicare and met the test of compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

The secretary said last week that 5,511 had met the no-racial-discrimination rule so far. He predicted that virtually all the others would be in compliance by July 1.

But officials are concerned that hospitals and physicians set up workable procedures to insure that patients do not occupy hospital beds after they could be discharged, or after they have recovered to the point at which visiting-nurse or nursing-home care would suffice.

The administration also hopes to enlist the help of hospitals and medical groups in making sure that elderly citizens understand that Medicare is only for the sick—that patients will be admitted to hospitals only on the decision of doctors, and that Medicare may not be used for rest or custodial care.

Even greater vigilance will be needed, some officials predicted, after nursing-home care is added to the benefits next Jan. 1.

NOT QUALIFIED

Persons who are in nursing homes merely for custodial care because of chronic conditions need not be considered for Medicare.

The Medicare law requires that three days of hospitalization precede transfer to a nursing home.

But hospitals report many physicians already have been asked to arrange three days of hospitalization for elderly couples of nursing homes so that Medicare will pick up much of the bill for the next 100 days of nursing home care.

News in Brief

Waterford Township police are investigating a burglary at Barker's Standard Service, 517 Dixie, yesterday in which an estimated $400 plus change from a cigarette machine was taken.

Two rolls of carpeting, valued at $720 have been reported stolen from Karen's Carpets, 3750 Dixie, in Waterford Township, according to township police.

On Corporations

NEW YORK — This is tax day for the nation's corporations. And the bill is a hefty 25 per cent higher than last June 15. One way or another, big and little business firms must fork up more than $8 billion today for the U.S. Treasury.

Higher inter-Dawson rates and a scarcity of money available for borrowing will squeeze many companies.

Many of the largest corporations probably have long since prepared to meet the tax collector. But bankers say some of the smaller firms have been having trouble finding money to borrow.

The bigger tax bite this year was to put corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis by the end of next year — something like the withholding tax on personal paychecks. In the long run, corporations' total tax bills remain the same. But getting closer to a pay-as-you-go schedule is putting a special, if temporary, squeeze on corporate treasuries more than it does from the large profits on which to pay the levy.

Formerly, corporations paid 15 per cent of the year's estimated income tax in the first half of the year. Last March, Congress passed a Tax Adjustment Act to boost first-half payments to 24 per cent.

Corporations paid part of last year's remaining income tax March 15, and 12 per cent of this year's estimated tax April 15. Another 12 per cent is due today, along with the final payment for 1965's taxes.

The Treasury has a lot of money to pay the tax collector. But the demand for loans has been soaring with the big push in economic activity. The demand for tax loans is just that much more of a burden to banks hard pressed to find lendable funds.

DRAWN DOWN

And some of the funds the banks have built up will be drawn down by the tax deadline. These are the Certificates of Deposit which corporations have bought from the banks, many with the aim of meeting the tax bill. Nearly $4 billion of these CDs came due this month, $777 million of them today.

The CDs are a favorite device of corporations to keep idle money busy — now at around 5 1/2 per cent — until needed. Many of the certificates are bought with the idea of cashing them to pay the tax collector.

Other big corporations have bought tax anticipation Treasury bills. The Treasury has a lot of money to pay the tax collector.
