Senate Kills Off Charity Bingo Vote

People's Group 'Mad,' Will Push Petition Drive

Won't Drop Campaign for Fall but Opponents Say Bill Too Broad

LANSING (AP)—The fight to legalize charity bingo in Michigan is not dead—even though the state Senate has killed one phase of it.

The Senate yesterday buried in committee a proposal to submit to the voters next fall a constitutional amendment to legalize charity bingo and lotteries conducted by non-profit charitable, religious, benevolent and fraternal organizations. The vote was 15-16. Twenty-two votes were needed for passage.

But Charles R. McLean of Lansing counsel for the Michigan Association of Non-Profit Charitable Organizations, said the Senate defeat would spur the organization's petition drive to put the issue on the November ballot.

"This has made our people mad," McLean said. "They felt they were entitled to have the legislature put this on the ballot and let the people decide.

"They feel that if some big corporation had asked for this there would have been no question about it, but when it's just the common people who want it they get no consideration."

MacLean said the organization, chief sponsor of the campaign to legalize bingo, already has 100,000 of the 287,000 signatures needed to put the issue on the ballot. He said the group was aiming at 500,000 signatures.

"Nine hundred firemen in Detroit went out and got 50,000 signatures in two nights," MacLean said, "so I don't think we'll have trouble getting all we need."

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) spiked the bingo measure in the Senate with a charge that it would legalize many types of gambling besides harmless neighborhood bingo games.

As written, the proposal might legalize slot machines, he said.

Hutchinson declared he opposed giving the voters a chance to pass on the question because they have been completely "misled" into thinking it concerns only harmless bingo.

He objected to the argument that the people generally favor bingo

French Rebuild Garrison Force

Drop 800 Paratroopers Into Besieged Indochina Fortress

HANOI, Indochina (UP) — The French High Command disclosed today an entire battalion of 800 paratroopers had jumped through a torrent of Communist antiaircraft shells to reinforce besieged Dien Bien Phu.

Reinforcements for the hard-pressed French garrison landed on the fortress' shell-pitted airstrip Tuesday and hurried to the safety of earthen bunkers and underground passages.

French officers said the successful mass jump had returned the garrison's strength to 10,000—the number of able-bodied men on duty there before the Reds opened their attack Saturday.

The Communists intensified their antiaircraft operations this morning, however, and no attempt was made to land additional troops.

A few French pilots flew low over defense lines and dropped blood serum to wounded defenders of the garrison.

The paratroopers were flown to the battered fortress 180 miles west of Hanoi in "anything that could fly," from U. S.-built transport planes to requisitioned civilian airliners.

Military circles said they left from bases all over the French-controlled Red River delta.

Young Space Cadet Grounded Safely

WITHOUT PARACHUTE—Kenneth Patrick Ward, 4, an adventurous space cadet whose first flight ended in the arms of a passing high school girl, turns on the charm for his rescuer. Marilyn Schroth, 16, saw Kenneth poised on the kitchen window ledge of the Brooklyn home and dashed 50 yards in time to catch him as he dropped from the second floor apartment. The boy's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Ward, looks on at the hospital where Kenneth was found shaken but unhurt.

27th Baby Born; 89-Year-Old Dad Pleased as Punch

LAKEWOOD, N. J. (AP)—Ephraim Horner, former farm hand who celebrates his 89th birthday in May is pleased as punch over the birth of his 27th child.

His 44-year-old wife gave birth to a daughter, Roseanna Alfreda, in Point Pleasant Hospital Monday. Mother and daughter doing fine.

A great - grandfather, Horner commented:

"I've got too many, but I haven't got one to lose. I wouldn't take 10 million dollars for one."

He had 14 children by a first marriage. Now he and his present wife live with seven of their children in a four-room apartment here.

Shed That Overcoat; Spring's Due to Stay

With the change of seasons only three days away, springlike weather came to the Pontiac area today and more of the same is on tap for tomorrow.

After a chilly 29 degrees at 8 a.m. today, the mercury climbed to 49 at 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac.

Even warmer weather is forecast, with a high of from 53 to 57 expected Thursday. A low of from 30 to 34 is due tonight.

Yesterday's temperature ranged from 23 to 44 degrees.

Time Bomb Explodes in Grand Central Station

NEW YORK (AP)—A homemade time bomb exploded at the peak of the evening rush hour in the Grand Central Station men's washroom yesterday, causing a great deal of excitement and one minor injury.

Police found remains of the bomb, a timing mechanism and a length of 1¼ inch pipe. They had no further clues.

Eisenhower Stands Behind Stevens in M'Carthy Row

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he has full confidence in the honor and integrity of Secretary of the Army Stevens and stands behind him.

His statement was in response to news conference questions about the controversy between Stevens and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

If he didn't have confidence in Stevens' integrity, the President said, Stevens wouldn't be holding the job he does.

Eisenhower said it may turn out that Stevens has made some mistakes, but he added that so far as the Secretary's integrity and honor are concerned hestands behind Stevens.

The question of who is telling the truth looms as the central issue for the developing Senate inquiry into the row between McCarthy and his chief counsel, Roy Cohn, on the one hand and Army officials on the other.

All the principals are expected to be called to testify under oath when the inquiry gets underway, probably late next week.

McCarthy said today he was willing to let Army lawyers cross-examine him.

"The Army should be entitled to have a lawyer cross-examine me and all adverse witnesses," McCarthy said in an interview.

The President's remarks were touched off by a question as to what effect the controversy between McCarthy and Stevens may be having on Army morale.

The question was pinned to the report the Army recently made public, declaring that McCarthy and Cohn, chief counsel for McCarthy's Senate Investigating subcommittee, sought special favors for David Schine in the Army.

Schine, 26-year-old wealthy New Yorker, is a former unpaid consultant to the McCarthy subcommittee. He was drafted last November.

Tests Complete for 3 New Wells

Willman Proposes That $90,000 Construction Be Started Now

All tests for water near Silver Lake have been completed and three wells to produce about 2,700,000 gallons daily can now be constructed for approximately $90,000, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Willman recommended last night to Pontiac City Commission that construction be started right away to get the wells into operation before summer's peak demand.

Willman said the three wells should increase Pontiac's water supply about 25 per cent. More wells might be built in the area later, he stated.

Commissioners instructed Willman to report next week on the contract for construction of the wells.

At present, the city has 19 wells which have produced up to 22,000,000 gallons per day. An extensive reconditioning program on existing wells may increase their capacity about 2,000,000 gallons daily, according to Willman.

One-Man Jury to Direct Probe of Detroit Police

Judge O'Hara Takes Job of Ferreting Out Alleged Graft

DETROIT (AP) — A hastily ordered one-man grand jury took over an investigation of suspected gambling graft in Detroit's Police Department today.

Hard upon the suspension of 13 officers, the investigative job was turned over by the Recorder's Court bench to a freshman jurist, newly elected Judge John P. O'Hara.

Judge O'Hara, in office only since Jan. 1, undertook a task of exploring official charges that the 13 officers "openly condoned" commercialized gambling and that some actually participated in numbers rackets.

The charges were brought yesterday by Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien. The officers' suspensions followed immediately.

Indictments may ensue. It was rumored that more than 50 policemen ultimately might be involved.

The officers' suspensions followed secret raids on three gambling establishments which police said were run by notorious numbers racket operators.

Payoffs to some officers were alleged. No sums were named. At the same time all the suspended men denied wrongdoing.

This was the first charge of scandal in Detroit's 4,000-man Police Department since the 1939 corruption exposure which shook the city.

A one-man grand jury investigation by the then judge and present U. S. Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) led at that time to prison terms for the late Mayor Richard Reading and numerous other public officials and policemen.

The present allegations, however, do not indicate a scandal of any such extent. Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard said this is a "limited investigation." He indicated it did not compare with the 1939 probe.

Mayor Albert E. Cobo, meanwhile, said the Police Department has movies of some of the accused men taking money from suspected numbers operators in the area around the Woodward Police Precinct. Ten of the suspended policemen are from the Woodward Precinct.

Judge O'Hara was named as the one-man grand jury by nine criminal judges who had listened to reports by O'Brien and Leonard.

"I understand it is a laborious task," said O'Hara, who has never had grand jury experience, "but the judges elected me to do it. Whether it is laborious or not, it is my responsibility."

Leonard, a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, said a grand jury probe "is needed to clear the names of the honest men" in the department, which numbers a force of 4,222.

Colleen Finds a Treasure

FAIRY GOLD—Many people say the "wee folk" don't exist but this pretty colleen, Mary Elizabeth Molseed, of Altoona, Pa., knows better, especially on St. Patrick's Day. Hasn't she found a leprechaun's treasure . . . a crock filled with gold along a rushy pool? It looks like chocolate disks wrapped in gold foil, but to her it's real gold, and proof that the "wee folk" do remember good colleens on this day.

Ike Promises Swift Action in Case of Attack on U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today any President ought to be impeached or even hanged who did not act immediately if the country were attacked by an aggressor.

The President told his news conference the "new look" military program which has been under attack by some Democrats represents the best efforts to use modern weapons and to conserve manpower in any war that might break out.

He said there was no radical departure from accepted military principles but rather an effort to combine scientific developments, geographical factors and other advances in a modern military machine.

The President spoke out on the military situation after defending the position taken by Secretary of State Dulles yesterday that it would not be necessary for the chief executive to consult Congress in advance before acting to meet an attack.

Eisenhower said nobody could foresee every possible condition that might arise. He said he was not backing away from the statement he made last week that this country would not be carried into war without the approval of Congress.

But he said, as an example of an extreme case, he could conceive of word coming to him while he was in the news conference that a great fleet of airplanes was coming from the south to destroy the United States.

If any citizen would hold him guiltless if he sat there and tried to get action before acting himself, the President said, he doesn't know who that citizen would be.

Self preservation requires quick reaction by nations as well as individuals, the President observed.

If you are attacked, he said, you don't say call the police, you fight back or at least you run.

Pontiac Boy, 15, Is Shot in Chest

Playmate Being Held After Firing .22 Rifle in Argument

A Pontiac boy shot and seriously wounded a 15-year-old playmate last night during an argument that grew out of a neighborhood basketball game.

The victim, John Engleman, 15, of 83 Osmun St., is reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with a chest wound.

His 15-year-old assailant is being held in Oakland County Children's Home for investigation.

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said Engleman was shot about 9:15 p. m. in the stairway of the other youth's home after a street basketball game at Park Pl. and O'Riley St.

Ziem quoted the youthful assailant as saying that Engleman had bullied him for three or four months and hit him in the face with the basketball last night.

The youth claimed Engleman was mad at him for leaving the game, and followed him home.

Ziem quoted the youth as saying he meant to shoot Engleman in the legs with his .22 caliber rifle.

Ziem took a statement from the youth last night and today is questioning the youths' companions.

Brooms Sweep Clean on Highway 30 in Idaho

AMERICAN FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Power County Sheriff Rulon Neal put his assistants to work at sweeping — with brooms — U.S. Highway 30 near American Falls.

He said his office received numerous complaints from motorists that tires on their cars were punctured by nails, apparently from a bag which fell from a truck and burst open.

Says Majority of Stockholders Aren't Wealthy

Showdown Will Come Thursday on Dem Plan to Hike Exemptions

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower today said the Democratic congressional leadership was wrong in charging that the Republican tax bill would help rich people primarily.

Eisenhower's tax remarks came scarcely an hour before the House took up a Republican tax reform bill which the Democrats claim is favorable to the rich and discriminates against the poor.

Biggest controversy over the GOP measure centers around a provision to give tax relief to stockholders by easing the tax on dividends.

The Democrats propose to cut taxes a little for everyone by increasing exemptions from $600 to $700 a year.

The big showdown in the House will come Thursday when the Democrats try to substitute their higher exemption proposal for the Republican provision of tax relief for stockholders.

The President was questioned specifically about criticism of the GOP tax bill which came last night from Rep. Sam Rayburn, (D-Tex) and Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga). They said only a comparatively few and wealthy people would benefit from the dividend tax proposals in the new bill.

The President in reply cited statistics concerning the U. S. Steel Corp. to show that most of its stockholders are in salary brackets even below the national average.

To say that the Republican bill was designed to help the rich people was — and here the President paused to pick his words carefully — an error.

He declined to say whether he would veto the tax bill if it finally contained the Democratic proposal for increasing the personal income tax exemption.

He said he would have to wait until he receives the bill and decides whether its good features outweigh its bad qualities.

He said he found it somewhat curious that the Democrats who now are attempting to reduce the income of the government were stating firmly only a few months ago that there must be no increase in the national debt limit.

To the Democratic claim that the GOP would give greatest relief to six families in every 1,000, Eisenhower replied with the statistics on stockholders.

He said the huge steel corporation employs 300,000 men and there also are 300,000 stockholders, 56 per cent of whom made less than $5,000 a year from all sources.

He said actually there are more stockholders in the bracket of from $2,000 to $3,000 annual income than in any other classification.

Irish Bury Political Hatchet in Honor of Good St. Pat

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—St. Patrick's Day came to the Irish Republic today on the brink of a general election—but the politically minded Irish who like to be different forgot politics.

It's an old Irish custom to bury the political hatchet on the national holiday.

Even that old fighter for Irish freedom, Prime Minister Eamon de Valera, was away in London for the "blessing of the shamrock" among the British who once condemned him to death.

And any Irishman who has whooped it up in South Boston or along New York's Third avenue would get almost homesick for a March 17 among the Irish-Americans.

There's no "drowning the shamrock" here. All bars are closed on St. Patrick's Day.

The Emerald Isle of many farms celebrates instead with a parade showing off tremendous strides in industrial development.

Few politicians even get in the marching.

Some preliminary campaign blasts have been fired for the election set for May 18.

De Valera—still a formidable campaigner even though 71 and nearly blind—decided to go to the people after his Fianna Fail party suffered setbacks in special elections to fill vacancies in the Dail (Parliament).

Fundamentally, there is little difference in the outlook of Ireland's political parties.

All are on common ground in pushing for more industries and in seeking to incorporate the six northern counties which are part of the United Kingdom.

Teachers in Birmingham Seek $400 Pay Hike Next Year to Start New Plan

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Teachers of Birmingham presented the Board of Education last night with a request for a $400 pay hike next year, as a start in increasing the salary schedule.

They sought a boost in the minimum and maximum for teachers with a bachelor's degree from the present $3,350 — $4,850 to $3,600 — $6,100. For those holding master's degrees, the requested increase was from $3,350 — $5,150 to $3,850 — $6,350.

Also sought is a change in the annual pay raise, from $100 a year, reaching the maximum in 16 years, to $250 a year, reaching the salary peak in 11 years.

In a 20-minute presentation to the school board, it was reported by the teachers that Birmingham's current minimum salary ranks ninth out of 14 communities in the area, and the maximum ranks 12th among the 14.

A suggestion was voiced by the teachers that residents of the school district would approve a special millage earmarked to improve teachers' salaries, to maintain a sound education system.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dwight B. Ireland said the increase would cost, as a rough estimate, $350,000, and with a boost of non-teaching salaries at the same time, the increase would approximate $500,000.

Dems Hear Speech on McCarthy Tactics

BIRMINGHAM — Too much publicity, inadequate Republican leadership and exploitation of fear of Communism are causes nourishing Sen. Joseph McCarthy's position, University of Michigan Law professor John P. Dawson told the Birmingham Democratic Club at an open meeting last night.

Dawson said the Wisconsin senator is "an opportunist" who is attempting to magnify his own personality at any cost.

The professor, a former Democratic candidate for Congress, added that the tactic of anti-Communism " seemed to be the chief avenue to public success in the Republican Party."

City Engineer L. R. Gare and Planning Director Robert Boatman said they will attempt to reword the paving paragraph. Gare felt it was not unreasonable to allow a period of time for a settling process of the ground, before enforcing the requirement

Saucerlike Object Seen Over Commerce Road

An Orchard Lake woman today reported she and two companions sighted a round yellowish-green glowing object in the sky over Commerce road Tuesday night.

Miss Lucy Rambo said she, her employer and a boy were in an auto heading west on Commerce road about 7:45 p.m. when the object glided silently across the road. She said, "It was quite large and traveling not too fast, as if coming in for a landing. Then it just disappeared." This was Pontiac's second sighting of saucerlike objects in about three weeks.

The 1950 U. S. census showed 1,430,000 more females than males in the total population, the first time in history that women outnumbered the men in the nation.

Parakeet Harbor Causes Landlord to Raise Rent

DETROIT (AP) — Landlord Paul Dingley and tenant William Kuzman disagreed over how many parakeets Kuzman kept in his apartment.

Dingley said there were "more than 50." Kuzman said only two pairs.

Anyway, Dingley, complaining over "corn husks on the floor" and a "pine tree hanging from the chandelier," raised the rent from $50 a month to $125. Kuzman objected.

Circuit Court Commissioner William Krueger yesterday ordered Kuzman to pay the rent, or vacate. Kuzman said he'd vacate.

Senate Kills Chance to Vote on Bingo

because New Jersey voters last year legalized the game by a 4-1 vote.

The question submitted in New Jersey, he said, specifically applied to bingo, defined bingo games carefully and provided for local option. The Michigan proposal, he said, legalizes all types of lotteries on the legal theory that bingo is a lottery.

Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman, the sponsor, said the constitutional ban on lotteries was never intended to apply to bingo. That, he said, came in 1944 under a Supreme Court decision defining bingo as a lottery.

Declaring he was opposed to commercialized gambling, Andrews said there is not enough profit in bingo for commercial operators to bother with it.

Detroiter Convicted of Holdup at Inn

James T. Sullivan, 30, of Detroit, was found guilty of armed robbery yesterday by an Oakland County Circuit Court jury in the $6,200 holdup of the Fox and Hounds Inn last November.

Judge H. Russel Holland set sentencing for March 29.

Sullivan, alias James T. Suttles, of 1685 Kendall, Detroit, and two other men, escaped after a daring daylight holdup of the fashionable Bloomfield Hills Inn.

Pontiac Police arrested Sullivan when he was discovered riding in a car fitting the description of the one used in the robbery.

Washington Post Buys McCormick D.C. Paper

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Washington Post announced today that it has purchased the Washington Times-Herald and will hereafter publish a single newspaper under the name of both publications.

Eugene Meyer is the owner of the Post and will be chairman of the board for the new publication. Col. Robert McCormick of Chicago was the owner of the Times-Herald.

Says Suit Filed as Shakedown

Attorney for Benny's Son-in-Law Claims 1st Wife Wants Money

NEW YORK (AP)—The first wife of Jack Benny's new son-in-law has been accused of trying to extract money from him through the courts and newspapers.

The attorney for stock broker Seth H. Baker, 26, made this claim in asking that reporters be barred from court to protect Baker and his new wife, the former Joan Benny, 19.

The request came yesterday during a hearing in which Joan Scott Baker, 21, sought to invalidate a Virgin Islands divorce from Baker and instead get a legal separation and support.

* * *

Baker, who married Miss Benny last week in a lavish $50,000 Hollywood wedding, is now honeymooning in Hawaii.

His lawyer, Harold S. Lazar, told State Supreme Court Justice Morris Eder that Joan Scott Baker brought the action "because she wants to use the newspapers to exact a sum of money from him."

Lazar asked that reporters be barred and papers in the case be impounded. He continued:

"One reason we seek to seal these papers is that Joan Benny is an innocent party in this matter. She . . . may be injured by the publicity. Mr. Baker is a stock broker and he can be damaged also."

* * *

Eder turned him down, saying:

"I am a firm believer in hearing matters in open court, unless there is something that will injure public morals . . . There is nothing here to arouse public prejudice."

Joan Scott Baker's lawyer, David J. Landau, denied any shakedown attempt and added: "There is nothing lascivious or scandalous about this matter."

Landau said his client, a blonde model, married Baker in Florence, S. C., July 19, 1951, while he was an Army private. They kept the wedding secret from his family, Landau said.

* * *

When Baker's father found out about the marriage, Landau continued, he put economic pressure on his son and a Virgin Islands divorce was obtained Jan. 13, 1953.

However, Landau continued, the two lived together for nearly 12 months after the divorce or shortly before Baker met Miss Benny on New Year's Day, 1954.

Hearing Complaints on Property Taxes

Complaints on personal property assessments are now being considered by Pontiac's Board of Tax Review during the final week of the group's annual session, according to James F. Spence, chairman.

Individuals have been informed of their assessments by letter, said Spence, and may come to the City Hall Annex, 35 Hill St., to meet with the board.

In the past two weeks complaints from persons claiming inability to pay taxes and assessments on real estate were considered.

Hearing Set Tuesday for Robbery Suspect

Russell S. Courtney, 31, of 1765 Woodward Heights, Ferndale, demanded examination on an armed robbery charge yesterday when he appeared before Berkley Judge Ralph F. Finley.

Courtney, unable to post a $10,000 bond, was ordered held in Oakland County Jail pending the hearing Tuesday.

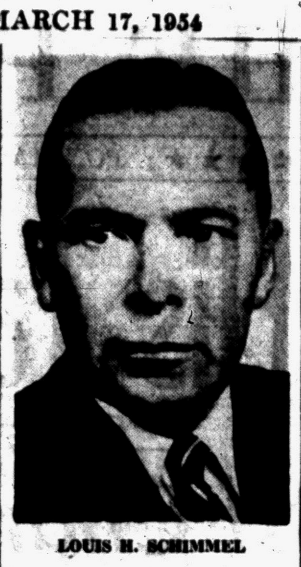

Courtney is accused of the March 10 robbery of a supermarket in Huntington Woods. Police said $4,080 was taken in the holdup.

Twins Mark 87 Years

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Mrs. Agatha Lynch and her twin sister Miss Agnes Noel, who never have lived more than a few miles apart despite marriage for Mrs. Lynch and a school teaching career for Miss Noel, celebrated their 87th birthday in Grand Rapids Tuesday. They were born on a farm near Grandville.

Finds His Wife Dead

Mrs. Viola Peters, 49, of 94 Cadillac St., was found dead by her husband, Charles yesterday in the basement of their home. Pontiac Police Detective Thomas Mitchell and Deputy Coroner Dr. I. C. Prevette said the woman was hanging from a rope which had been looped over pipes.

Tax Study Institute Names Pontiac Man

Louis H. Schimmel, Pontiac Board of Education member and director of Michigan Municipal Advisory Council, has been named to Princeton University's National Tax Institute.

The institute's 50 key men in business, government and research meet four times a year to discuss ways to give taxpayers more services for their tax dollars.

This year's meeting topics include financing of public schools, highways, state financing problems and paying for "metropolitan centers," in which a number of cities or townships join together to give a service, such as water, sewers or garbage collection, over a wide area.

Sergeant's Death Confirmed by Army

Mrs. Deloris Hendrick, former Pontiac resident living in Owosso, received U. S. Army confirmation Monday of the death of her husband, Sgt. 1. C. Hazen F. Hendrick.

HENDRICK

A repatriated soldier who was in the same prison camp with Sgt. Hendrick had told Mrs. Hendrick earlier that her husband had died of malnutrition June 18, 1951. He was captured by the Reds while serving with the 38th Infantry Division in February 1951.

Sgt. Hendrick saw four years of service during World War II and was recalled to active duty Nov. 26, 1950.

Surviving besides the widow are a son, Hazen Michael at home, and his father, Hazen F. of Durand.

Ike Would Put Prodigal General in the Dog House

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower said today that the Army general who built an expensive dog house at the taxpayers' expense should have to live in it.

The chief executive made the comment at his news conference while replying to a question about Army morale.

He said he had read in the papers about a man who built a dog house and declared that it was his opinion that he ought to live in it.

The Army officer involved was Maj. Gen. Roderick Allen.

Average age of members of congress is now 53 years. In the preceding session the average was 54 years.

Tax Assessors Pick 1st Officers

Lathrup Man Named Chairman Pro Tem of New County Group

A new Oakland County Assessing Officers Assn. chose Leonard Watchowski of Lathrup Village as temporary chairman at its first meeting Tuesday night.

Watchowski is administrator of the newly formed City of Lathrup Village. George Kostishak, Oak Park city assessor, was named secretary.

The association will elect permanent officers at an organizational meeting April 21 at 6:30 p.m. in Hotel Waldron.

Open to all tax officers interested in assessing property, the new organization hopes to map out a plan whereby all homes, businesses, lands and other property in the county will be assessed by the same methods.

The association named two committees Tuesday. By-laws committee chairman is Cyril Miller, Avon township supervisor, with Theodore Sage, county equalization statistician and Frank Voll, Oakland township supervisor, as committeemen.

Theodore Koella, Sylvan Lake city assessor, is program committee chairman with Merle St. Amour, Berkley assessor; Kostishak and Ed Bloe, Pontiac's deputy city assessor, as committeemen.

City Cites Rep. Dondero for Work on Seaway

Pontiac City Commission last night officially commended Rep. George A. Dondero (R-Mich) for his work toward gaining United States participation in the St. Lawrence Seaway project.

Commissioner Paul A. Kern introduced the motion. A copy will be sent to Dondero who is District 18 Congressman from Royal Oak.

MONTHLY PAINS

3 ways at the same time ...feel better, too!

CRAMPS...BACKACHE...HEADACHE...STOPPED OR RELIEVED AMAZINGLY IN 3 OUT OF 4 CASES IN DOCTORS' TESTS!

WHAT would you give never to suffer a twinge of discomfort during your monthly period — feel as well as ever? Well, it's entirely possible that you can escape cramps, backache, headache — all functional distress caused by menstruation.

Extensive tests by doctors show that Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound or Tablets stop or amazingly relieve periodic discomfort in 3 out of 4 cases.

Most amazing, you can enjoy such blessed relief without resorting to pain-deadening drugs. So if you have been suffering pain, headache, mental upset during your period, start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound or Tablets, with added iron. Every day of the year may be a happy one for you.

And Pinkham's is wonderful for functional "hot flashes" and other distress that older women so often suffer during change of life.

Corinne Calvet Wanted Children, Husband Didn't

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor John Bromfield said she "should take up sports instead of motherhood," French actress Corinne Calvet testified in obtaining a divorce from him.

Bromfield didn't want any children, she said yesterday, adding:

"He said I couldn't take a chance with my career and leave the screen for a year to have a baby. . . . He said I could have no children because I was not a competent housewife and therefore he was sure I would not make a capable mother. I was embarrassed because all our friends thought we should have children and I didn't know how to explain why we didn't."

The court awarded her alimony payments of 10 per cent of Bromfield's gross income if it totals more than $20,000 a year, her share of community property and restored her maiden name.

The couple married in Boulder City, Nev., in 1948.

Wife Asks Minister's Help and Finds God With Him

By CATHERINE CLARK
Housewife of Oklahoma City

Our new car was like a dream come true. My husband and I had planned on it for so long. Like two kids with a Christmas toy, we inspected every detail—trying out the windshield wipers, tuning in the radio, opening the glove compartment.

Catherine Clark

The dream car arrived while my sister and her family were spending a few days of their vacation with us. Although expecting my second baby, I decided, impulsively, to go with my sister to her Texas home. The following weekend, Clark (everyone calls him by his last name) was to drive down and pick me up in our new car.

I shall never forget how my husband looked, when we drove away, as he turned and waved goodby.

During the five wonderful years of our marriage, we had a pet habit of silently forming the words, "I love you," with our lips. It was a little secret game we played over the heads of our friends at parties or wherever we might be. The one who said it first won the game for that time.

Now, as Clark turned and waved, he beat me at our game.

My week's visit at my sister's home was darkened by a strange fear I could not explain. I was glad when the weekend arrived and I looked forward to my husband.

On Friday night, we sat on my sister's front lawn, waiting. Hours passed. I grew nervously impatient and my eyes were glued to the direction I knew our car would approach—but it never came.

At midnight, feeling some business must have detained him, we all went to bed. I stretched out fully dressed and finally fell asleep.

The piercing ring of the telephone woke me at five.

"Long disance is calling. . ." During the moments that followed tears and words were mixed together; facts jumbled. Then we threw suitcases into my sister's car, and to the steady drone of wheels I tried to piece the story together.

A head-on collision at early dusk. Two killed. Four seriously injured. Some of these might not live—one not more than two hours at the most. And that one was my husband.

I closed my eyes and prayed.

The doctors did not want me to see my husband, but they could not stop me.

I looked at him once, then kept staring at his ring. It was the only way I could recognize him, he was so smashed up. Then I reached out to him, but the nurse held me back.

"You mustn't touch him," she said. "The pain will be too much."

I sank slowly into the chair, suddenly realizing that there had been others in the accident. Where were they? How badly were they hurt? Did they look like this? And what about the driver of the other car?

Later I learned about him. My husband and friends had been at a business conference, and returning home in the evening twilight hour they rounded a cruve in the highway and saw a car bearing down, on the wrong side of the road.

A man had driven too far. A good man, but a tired one. He had fallen asleep at the wheel.

I wanted to hate him. I wanted to rush to him and demand; "Do you know what you've done to us—to all of us? Why didn't you stop when you knew you were so tired?"

Yet someting kept reminding me of my own life; the times we had hurried, the times we were tired on the road when, by the grace of God, we escaped being the guilty ones. We had always been lucky.

None of us were bad people, just thoughtless people — sure of our driving, sure of our cars, sure of everything . . . until we were struck down.

The painful days ebbed away. My mother-in-law and I had taken a room in the nearby home of a minister and his wife. They were wonderful people, and though we were of different faiths, I knew he was praying for my husband.

One afternoon Clark suddenly took a turn for the worse. It was evident that he was dying. His mother and I faced each other across his bed. I asked her if she wanted me to get a minister and she said yes.

I hurried down the street to the minister we knew and, in silence, the two of us ran back to the hospital. Quietly he took my husband's hand and knelt beside his bed.

Something then happened in that small hospital room which is beyond understanding. Although the door was closed, it seemed suddenly that light was coming through it. The brightness pierced my closed eyes so strongly that I opened them and looked around, sensing the nearness of someone else in the room. I stepped to Clark and took his hand. It was growing warmer.

We are home now and my husband is well. I never met the man who caused the accident, but I think of him often. Not with bitterness, for I am too grateful that, despite our great physical, emotional and financial adjustments, once again my husband and I can sit in crowded rooms and play our secret game of "I love you."

Feeling a personal responsibility to do something about the heartaches from traffic accidents that paralyze new families every day, I sat down alone at my desk one night three years ago, and from my heart composed "A Driver's Prayer."

Dear Lord,—before I take my place
Today behind the wheel
Please let me come with humble heart
Before Thy throne to kneel—
And pray, that I am fit to drive
Each busy thoroughfare,
And that I keep a watchful eye
Lest some small child be there.
And keep me thinking constantly
About the Golden Rule.
When driving past the playground zones
Or by some busy school
Then when I stop to give someone
His right to cross the street,
Let me—my brother's keeper be
And spare a life that's sweet.
Please make me feel this car I drive
You gave me to enjoy,
And that its purpose is to serve
Mankind—but not destroy.

"The RIM-KING"
AMERICA'S FAVORITE EYE GLASSES!

Our Former Price $20 - $25
Our Price Now Only
$8.98 COMPLETE WITH FRAMES AND LENSES

Save Over $10.00! Limited Offer! Come at Once

Once again the King Optical Co. presents the most outstanding offer in optical history. For ONE WEEK ONLY, we offer you the RIM-KING, with a genuinely engraved 12-Karat Gold Filled Bridge. This is positively the last word in styling, looks and durability! Combines the strength and beauty of the "Tortoise Shell" color, hand-carved and polished Zylonite, and the smartness and invisibility of a rimless mounting. Featherweight, comfortable and good to look at. Buy now. Sale lasts this week—positively ends Saturday, March 20, and may never be repeated.

WHY PAY MORE?

Though the price is low, the quality of our glasses is beyond compare. If we wanted to make glasses to sell for $35, we couldn't use finer materials or better workmanship than that which goes into these glasses.

100 Styles, Shapes and Colors

You may choose the RIM-KING, or select a frame to suit your personality and facial contour, from our tremendous assortment of over 100 styles, shapes and colors. Complete with lenses, ground to your exact needs, regardless of your prescription or lens strength, they are truly a sensational value at $8.98. (Bifocals, if desired, $4.98 additional). YOU JUST CAN'T PAY MORE.

No Kickbacks, No Extras, Just $8.98!

Frankly, our difficulty is convincing the public that they can purchase complete glasses at the one price, of $8.98. After being "flim-flammed" for years by people who advertise one price, then charge for "extra tint," "extra shape," "extra strong correction" and extra high profits, it is understandable that the one price of $8.98 with no extras, irrespective of the type or style of frame, is hard to believe. Now prove to yourself, without cost or obligation, that you can get complete glasses for $8.98.

NO MORE, NO LESS
You Can't Pay More!

Compare! Comparison Proves!

If you have been paying $20-$35 for your glasses it's high time you learned the true facts. Investigate! Compare! We honestly believe that the glasses you purchase from us for $8.98 compare favorably with those for which you paid twice and three or more times as much.

$1,000.00 REWARD!

We will pay $1,000.00 to anyone who can purchase glasses here for more than the price quoted in this advertisement. Reward offered guaranteed by two leading London, England, insurance companies.

Bob Considine Says:

Irishman John P. Holland Built First Successful Sub

NEW YORK (INS)—Patrick J. Sullivan (and can you think of a better way to start a piece today?) sends me the strange, strange story of Ireland's foremost contribution to the art — if that's the word — of modern warfare.

John Philip Holland, born in County Clare (where else?), invented the world's first practical submarine. He was 21 and teaching school in Cork when he read in the Cork Examiner an account of the historic battle between the ironclads, Monitor and Merrimac, in the James River.

This ardent fighter for the independence of Ireland was alarmed by what he read. He sensed that the British Navy would take full note of the events in the James and that England had the industrial potential to build the biggest ironclad fleet in the world.

The best chance a military weak nation had against a strong one, Holland decided, was a small vessel that could move surreptitiously and destroy larger adversaries at will.

Another Irishman, Robert Fulton, had had much the same idea and had advanced it to the point of selling several underwater craft to Napoleon. But the French refused to wage war, even against Britain, in anything so undignified as a sewerpipe, and Fulton returned in disgust to the U. S. and the steamboat.

Holland came to America in 1872 at the age of 30. Within a couple of years he had raised enough money among Fenians in this country to build his first underwater boat. It was 14 feet long and named Holland I.

Holland built it at the Albany City Iron Works in downtown New York. It was carted to Paterson, N. J. and launched into the Passaic River out of the back of a wagon. The mud of the river immediately claimed it, but Holland eventually floated it and successfully submerged it.

His backers were delighted with their secret weapon and dreamed of fleets of the little ships destroying the British fleet and bringing about Irish independence.

They commissioned Holland to build his second sub.

Holland kept at his work and the U. S. Navy commissioned its first sub in 1900, the USS Holland. Holland submarines became the model for all the navies in the world, including the British.

Holland died in 1914 just before the start of World War I, and thus never knew the tremendous role his submarine played in wars since then fought. But he had misgivings near the end of his life, as did his contemporaries, the Wrights, when that which the Wrights thought would be a pleasant aerial vehicle began to grow warlike spurs.

The company that was formed to finance the construction of the USS Holland, now a part of massive General Dynamics Corporation, has built more than 300 subs since 1900. Its latest achievement is the Nautilus, world's first atomic submarine. When the nuclear fires are ignited in her belly this summer, she will represent as violent a change in naval history as the clash in the James River that brought a light to the eye of a young Clare schoolteacher.

The east and west zones of Germany are separated by the Elbe river.

Ike Stands Pat

President Eisenhower did a convincing job of carrying to the people his fight against Democratic tax cut proposals.

It is too early to forecast the reaction of Congress. But there can be little doubt that the President persuaded many in his radio and TV audiences as to the soundness of his position. No one who heard him through could doubt his sincere belief that these proposals would do individuals and the country alike more harm than good.

Besides the $5 billion tax cut which became effective January 1, the President reminded his listeners that the tax revision bill now before Congress would cut taxes an additional $1.5 billion.

★ ★ ★

Showing how the revision bill would benefit individuals, the President said it also would stimulate investment in America's future. Then, reassuring the country that his Administration is prepared to counter any economic letdown, he attacked Democratic proposals for higher income tax exemptions.

★ ★ ★

Declaring that $1,000 exemptions would excuse one taxpayer out of three from all Federal income taxes, the President said:

"The loss of revenue involved in this proposal would be a serious blow to your Government. A $100 increase in the exemption would cost the Government $2.5 billion. To increase the personal exemption to $1,000 would cost $8 billion."

★ ★ ★

Such a tax reduction not only is unwise at this time. It is unsound in principle because it would narrow the tax base. If the budget were balanced and a tax cut deemed advisable, a wiser form of relief would be a reduction in rates, not higher exemptions.

We hope with the President that Congress will reject these unsound proposals and believe with him that "an unwise tax cutter is no real friend of the taxpayer."

EDC and the Saar

Considerable progress being made by France and West Germany toward settlement of the Saar problem is an encouraging development in Western Europe.

The West is pressing for French ratification of the European Defense Community pacts before the Geneva conference starting April 25. That ratification not only awaits ultimate agreement on the Saar but is essential to the EDC idea.

★ ★ ★

As for the Saar, French Foreign Minister Bidault and Chancellor Adenauer have accepted a basis for an agreement they expect to reach about March 30. The framework of that basis has been called something more than an agenda and something less than a firm commitment. The proposal envisions a Saar that would:

1. Become the first "European" territory, linked economically as now with France but with equal economic rights gradually available to Germany.

2. Have complete autonomy in its internal affairs.

3. Entrust its defense and foreign affairs to a European commissioner responsible to the committee of ministers of the Council of Europe.

★ ★ ★

A clue to the importance of the progress made in Saar negotiations can be found in the reaction of our Ambassador Bruce, special representative to the six countries in the European Coal and Steel Community. He now predicts the French Assembly will take up the EDC treaty before the Geneva conference.

EDC and Continental federation, it should be remembered, are cardinal objectives of our Government's European policy.

Maxine Dearing

Maxine Dearing will be missed, not only by her family and a large circle of friends, but also by literally hundreds of boys and girls with whom she had come in contact as a teacher.

Mrs. Dearing was an unusual woman. She was unusual in her enthusiasm. She had a cheery disposition. She made friends without effort. She lived her life fully, joyously.

Some of the comments made by her students, following her death in an automobile accident, reveal the deep impression she had made upon them, and the wholesome influence she had exerted among the young people at Lincoln Junior High School.

"We just loved her," said one girl as tears rolled down her cheeks.

"She was a mother to all of us," said another.

★ ★ ★

No monument of stone could be erected to compare with the one which she herself has built in the minds and hearts and memories of these young people.

Reader Feels That Thought of Children Should Make Each Driver More Careful

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

Accidents are recorded every day, especially auto accidents. Many times fathers and mothers leave home never to return, leaving children in care of someone else.

Sometimes the whole family goes away, an accident happens and the whole family is wiped out and then again children are saved, but are left orphans. It is really very, very sad indeed. Is it carelessness, recklessness or what?

I am sure God does not want little children to be orphans. My heart goes out for them in pity.

Reader Urges That Water on Sidewalk Be Removed

I have upon three occasions informed the city engineer of the filthy condition of the depressed sidewalk just above the Clinton River on East Pike Street where such hole or depression has evidently existed for many years.

I wish to inform the city engineer again that a man with a 1¼ inch drill could put a hole through the sidewalk which would let the water directly through into the river.

I urge the voters who live on the east side of the river and who cross it several times a week to go to the polls and express their dissatisfaction on such carelessness.

The cost of making such a hole through the sidewalk would be small and could save the city several thousand dollars in damage to an injured citizen or possibly a death due to the city's negligence.

Speak up now, citizens.

Daily Reader Suggests Reducing Price of Milk

I just wonder how the U. S. ever got along without Reuther and other so called labor leaders, but to me, I think they did very nicely. They did not perhaps get so much money but neither was anything so high that the people couldn't afford to buy it.

The taxpayers have paid for that surplus butter, why not hand it over? Plenty of farmers buy oleo and people like it. Reduce the price of milk and more will buy it and not so much butter.

With New Look and Resolute Policies, Hot War Far Away on U. S. Horizon

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—What is the biggest piece of news that the world would like to know today? It's whether or when there will be a large-scale war.

Does anybody in the United States government or the Soviet government know whether or when there will be a large-scale war?

The answer is that each is convinced today that the destruction would be so great on both sides as to make such an attack absolutely improbable.

Corroborative evidence on this comes from Moscow and Washington in various manifestations that add up to the aforesaid conclusion.

What, then, shall each country do by way of armament preparation? The answer is: All that is feasible to do within economic bounds so as to afford a defense against any kind of attack.

What is the policy of the United States? It is covered by the phrase the "New Look," which for obvious reasons has never been fully or specifically explained to the American public because, to do so, is to explain it also to the Russians.

What does the "New Look" generally involve? It means that President Eisenhower and the National Security Council have decided to take a "calculated risk."

This is the assumption that large-scale war will not come within the next several years and that a defensive armament program adequate for retaliation can be economically maintained by the United States and its Allies.

What was the meaning of the speech by Secretary Dulles warning that "massive retaliation" would come if the free world were attacked?

It was intended to warn the Soviet government that no ban on the use of the atomic bomb or the hydrogen bomb has been adopted and that the United States, with its Allies, would retaliate with any weapons and in any place of its own choosing.

Did this mean that, if a "little war" broke out in Korea or Indochina or the Near East, the "massive retaliation" policy would apply? Not at all.

Each situation would be dealt with as the circumstances required. It is not necessarily to be inferred that any atom bombs would be used in little wars, but neither is it to be assumed they would not be. Admiral Radford says it is desirable to keep the enemy guessing.

Will the United States retaliate in case of a large-scale war without consulting its Allies? It will retaliate instantly from American bases and from bases in Europe — like Spain perhaps — and from its own aircraft carriers in the North Atlantic and Mediterranean which carry atom bombs.

The United States will retaliate also from bases like those in Britain or Canada only if arrangements have been worked out in advance for such instant retaliation.

When will Congress be consulted? In the case of an instant attack, the President is authorized already to repel instantly an invasion or attack on American forces anywhere in the world.

He would be expected to submit to Congress as soon thereafter as practicable a resolution to ratify his action and authorize further military measures.

What then did President Eisenhower mean when he told his press conference recently that America wasn't going to become involved in the Indochina war and that, if we did, he would first ask authorization from Congress?

(Copyright 1954)

The answer is that Indochina is not covered by any mutual-defense treaty to which the United States is a party and that the situation is not even like Korea.

This means that, if Eisenhower had been President in June 1950, he might have ordered American troops into action as an implied obligation of the United Nations charter but at the same time he would have asked for a formal resolution of ratification by Congress immediately afterward.

All this boils down to the confident belief that a "hot war" is not on the horizon, and may not be for a long time to come provided the United States maintains its armament program and its present policy of non-appeasement and resoluteness.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Love Can Be Developed by Using Proper Methods

Martin had been jilted, so he became a cynic and thought all women were fickle. He vowed he would never fall in love again. But read the dramatic outcome of our wager. If you go through the proper motions, you'll soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions, so love can be developed.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-351: Martin L., aged 25, had been jilted shortly before his wedding day, so he was soured on women.

"They are all fickle," he grumbled in my office. "I'll never have any faith in any of them again."

But I showed him that he was guilty of the fallacy in logic which we call the hasty generalization.

After just one unfortunate experience with one girl, he was now damning all womankind. That was illogical.

So I suggested he follow the motto of the Air Corps, which urges a pilot to go aloft in another plane immediately after a crash.

"I haven't the slightest interest in any girl," Martin objected. "And I shall never be able to love again."

But I insisted. He was even so sure of himself that he was willing to wager that no girl would ever make his heart palpitate in the future.

So I had Martin look around at the various coeds in one of my psychology classes at Northwestern. It contained about 250 students, of which almost 50 per cent were coeds.

"Well, if you ever should want to date a girl again," I began,

"which ones in this class would be least objectionable to you?"

Reluctantly he designated two blondes. I chose the one who had the same religious background, family life and educational interests. Later I introduced them.

As part of my acceptance of his wager, he had vowed to follow my psychological prescription.

He was to take the girl to movies and dances and school athletic events.

He was to accompany her to church and the Art Institute in Chicago as well as to concerts.

He was to escort her to picnics and hikes. And he was to "act" like an animated suitor, even though he felt soured at heart.

"Imagine yourself a Hollywood actor," I had warned him. "A good actor loses himself in the role he is playing.

"I don't care how cynical you may actually feel. All I ask is that you go through the proper motions as an intelligent actor."

So, as part of my acceptance of his wager, he had solemnly promised me he'd be a good actor.

"Act the way you'd like to be, and soon you'll be the way you act," is one of our axioms in psychology.

"Go through the proper motions and you'll soon begin to feel the corresponding emotions," is another way of stating the same truth.

Martin was a graduate student at the university and preoccupied with work on a Master's Thesis, but he took time to date this coed two or three nights per week.

After one month he told me I was losing the wager. Another month passed and he still boasted that he felt the same as at the start.

But before the semester was over he found that his acting had become the real McCoy.

Now when he kissed the girl, he began to feel the real emotion of love. He was so crazy about her by June, that he proposed.

And now they are happily married. He is a high school principal.

So don't worry about love. It will develop. But pick quality stuff at the outset, of your own religion, educational level and mutual outlook on life.

Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 3 cent stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

That soprano safari to South America recommended switching the words of the popular song. There's very few coffee in Brazil.

The four matrons who investigated the hiatus of the aromatic spoon oil found the shortage was caused by drought, insects and too many second cups.

It's a very expensive method of playing bean-bag at $1.20 per package.

So the well manicured posse exonerated the Brazilians of the charge of holding our habits for ransom.

There was another seminar of American ladies who junketed to Africa to measure kangaroo jumps and break mountain climbing records on ant hills.

These traveling quizz panels may be our new method of infiltration by exported fascination. The all-girl orchestras are booked solid in the tourist latitudes.

It was a smart gimmick by Brazil to invite our women folk south without exchanging photographs. The gals arrived, they saw and they concurred.

But we still don't like kicking in one-twenty for a sack of beans.

It's all right for the ladies. One of the tripettes bought a pound of coffee yesterday in a super-market. She said, "I'll take a trip to Paris this time. I've seen Rio De Janeiro."

Dr. Brady Straightens Out His Readers on Which Shots, Vaccines He Advocates

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Kansas reader with three children thanks God and Dr. Brady (no irreverance intended, for I try to do the will of God and follow the injunction of Hippocrates) that she still has all of her internal organs and only her eldest son has lost his tonsils.

And that was because she succumbed to the tonsillectomy craze before she began reading this column.

Her children have never had the "shots" that most children get nowadays and she believes they are better off without them.

All of her family are fond of the bread she bakes twice a week from whole wheat flour ground in their own little power mill each bake day morning. Finally she assures me that my teachings are helping a large number of people to better health. (Signed ——).

Lest casual readers get the impression that I don't believe in "shots," vaccines, antitoxin, bacterins etc., I beg to state that I recommend the following:

1) Immunize every infant against diphtheria by an injection of diphtheria toxoid at the age of 9 months and a second injection two months later. Make sure the infant has become immune by a Schick test after an interval of six months.

2) Immunize against tetanus (lockjaw) by an injection of tetanus toxoid at the age of 9 months—along with the diphtheria toxoid preferably—and a second injection of the same toxoid two months later.

I do not advice attempts to immunize infants or children against whooping cough, measles, scarlet fever, mumps or typhoid fever.

Only the family physician who is familiar with the environment can decide wisely whether to attempt to immunize against any of these.

Every infant should be vaccinated against smallpox sometime in the first year. If the vaccination doesn't "take" the first time, it should be repeated after an interval of a month, and if the second vaccination doesn't take it should be repeated after another month.

If no "take" after the third vaccination, with vaccine that has given good "takes" in other children, it is fair to assume the child has sufficient natural (inherited) immunity against smallpox, I think.

Whenever a child sustains a wound by teeth or claws of an animal or beak or talons of bird or fowl the wound should be immediately sterilized by surgery—not cauterized nor "disinfected" with an "antiseptic" but converted into a clean wound by whatever treatment the doctor deems necessary.

Purpose of this treatment is to make as sure as is humanly possible that no tetanus germs have been left in the wound.

I believe that the occasional instances of so-called rabies following such wounds are actually cases of tetanus.

So, in addition to immediate surgical sterilization of the wound, an injection of tetanus antitoxin must be given, and the same dose of antitoxin repeated in 5 to 7 days.

Signed letters, not more than one page of the words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Grousing Britons Send Envoys to Check on Birds

WOLFEBORO, N. H. (UP) — Britons take their game birds seriously.

Major Frederick Bennett, member of the House of Commons, made a special trip here from Washington for information connected with a personal project to introduce New Hampshire's native ruffed grouse to English covers.

The moor grouse, traditional British species, is said to be decreasing apparently from ecological changes resulting from World War II bombings.

Civics Teacher Needs Good Refresher Course

GREENVILLE, S. C. (UP) — South Carolina has six representatives to Congress, and authorities here were perplexed by a flurry of inquiries from youthful callers who wanted to know:

"Who are the four South Carolina congressmen?"

An investigation disclosed that was a homework question a public school teacher had assigned the pupils of her government class.

Planes Get Radar

LONDON (INS) — The latest aid to make air travel safe — radar search gear — is expected to be fitted to the Comet jet airliners this year. Sir Miles Thomas, British Overseas Airways Corporation chairman, revealed that this revolutionary war-time aid, which enables pilots to detect storms, mountains and other aircraft in time to take avoiding action, has been fitted to BOAC planes experimentally.

Milkmaid Shoots Goose

DeSMET, S. D. (UP)—Mrs. Pete Hendricks, Spirit Lake, S. D., didn't have to go on a wild goose chase to shoot a goose. She stopped milking a cow in her barnyard, picked up a shotgun nearby and fired at a flock flying overhead. She winged a goose and retrieved the wounded bird after she finished milking.

I AM SO THANKFUL THAT I TRIED O-JIB-WA BITTERS

Although I had read many wonderful testimonials by O-Jib-Wa users, I was still doubtful if it would help me. I was pleasantly surprised says Mrs. Annie Hamilton, 5354 Vienna Road, Clio, Michigan.

"I would like to tell all who suffer from rheumatism or arthritis what O-JIB-WA BITTERS has done for me. My rheumatism caused me such great pain that I could hardly breathe. There were times I could not raise my hands to wash my face and to talk or turn my head brought dreadful suffering. If I sat down, I had to pull myself up by the chair or table and even lifting a kettle brought such awful pains in my hands that I would almost drop it. I could barely get in or out of bed and then I couldn't turn over. I had to take sleeping pills to get any sleep at all, and besides all this I was very nervous and had little appetite. Frankly, I thought I was doomed to suffer forever. I tried taking vitamins and they helped a little, but the pains always returned. I kept getting worse until one day I went into a drug store and bought a small bottle of O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I had read many wonderful testimonials by its users, but doubted if it would help me. The first bottle did not help me much, but I knew I should give it a fair trial, so tried another one. By the time it was half gone, the pains were so slight I hardly noticed them, and I was really surprised and happy. At last, I was free from pain and I've had no pains since. I'm not so nervous anymore either and really sleep good. My friends are all amazed to see how well I am. I'M SO THANKFUL THAT I GAVE O-JIB-WA BITTERS A TRIAL."

Man Wants Too Much: Actress as Well as Cook

By BILLY ROSE

They're telling a sad little story around Broadway these days. It's about a businessman whose greatest ambition was to marry an actress. It goes like this:

For the past few years, Oscar Havemeyer, a good-looking gent in a balding sort of way, has been buying an occasional "unit" in this and that theatrical production. (A "unit", is one-fiftieth of the cost of producing a show.)

Oscar, it seems BILLY ROSE made these investments because (a) he could deduct the losses from his income tax, and (b) actresses fascinated him and he figured that somewhere along the line he would meet one who would be fascinated by him . . .

Well, early this season Oscar bought a small interest in a medium-size drama which featured an attractive girl who had given a good account of herself in summer stock at Cape Cod.

The actress, according to all accounts, intrigued the businessman so much that, for the first time, he began to think seriously about popping the big question instead of the usual small ones.

However, as a man of standing in the textile business, Havemeyer was understandably cautious in his selection of the lady who would grace his name and table. Yes, for emotional reasons, she had to be an actress, but for down-to-earth reasons she, at one and the same time, also had to be a "woman" and a "person." . . .

A few days after rehearsals started, Oscar was satisfied that his actress was every millimeter a "woman."

He discovered this when he asked her to dine with him at the Colony and the girl countered with the proposal that they go to her flat and she would rustle him up some pork chops.

That she was a "person" of dimensions, Oscar learned the night the show opened in Philadelphia. In the final scene of Act Two, the script called for the actress to fire a revolver at the Rumanian count who had been blackmailing her mother.

It so happened that the property man had forgotten to load the gun, and when the girl pulled the trigger nothing happened.

Instead of getting flustered, she turned to the audience, winked and said, "Bang! Bang!" And thanks to her good humor, the curtain dropped to more applause than even the author had dared hope for.

If this didn't prove that his intended was a real "person," so Oscar told himself, nothing would.

During the Philadelphia tryout, the textile man had dinner with the actress every night, and by the time the play came to New York he was so impressed that he had actually picked out a wedding ring.

Of course, he hadn't as yet proposed marriage for he knew how emontional a woman might get under such circumstances, and he was too theater-wise to jolt her nervous system just before her all-important Broadway debut . . .

After the show's premiere he took her to Sardi's to have a snack and wait up for the reviews.

At 2 a. m., Oscar Havemeyer's dream of martial bliss with an actress died an ignomious death.

True, the girl had proved she was a "woman" and a "person," but according to the drama critics, she sure was no actress.

Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today.

American Nations Discuss Rights Plan

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The 10th Inter-American Conference today took up a proposal asking the American nations to "adjust their domestic legislation" in accordance with declarations on human rights.

The resolution was presented to the Committee on Social Matters yesterday but El Salvador, backed by Argentina, the Dominican Republic and Honduras, asked time to study Seven-point proposal before opening debate.

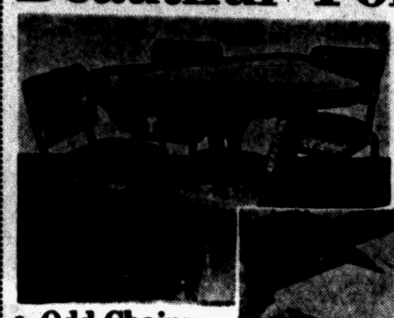

The resolution would "recommend to the American states that they adopt progressive measures to adjust their domestic legislation in accordance with the American Declaration on Human Rights and Duties of Man (adopted at the Bogota conference in 1948) and the Universal Declaration of the Rights of Man, and that within the limits of their sovereignty, they take appropriate measures to ensure the faithful observance of those rights."

Dixie Senators Fight Statehood

Launch Lengthy Debate to Delay Voting Upon Alaska, Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators skilled in the art of lengthy debate today continued their attack on statehood for Hawaii and Alaska.

Sen. Daniel (D-Tex) was prepared to take over where Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) left off last night.

Eastland occupied the Senate floor for nearly four hours yesterday in what he said was the "preface" to a discussion of his theme that Communists dominate the political and economic life of the Hawaiian Islands.

The Mississippi senator announced that he plans to speak for "three or four days."

Sen. Smathers (D-Fla), a leader in the opposition to the combined Hawaii-Alaska statehood bill, told a reporter there will be no filibuster in an effort to prevent a Senate vote. But he said he does not believe there is a chance for a vote "on anything" in the Senate this week.

He said an amendment proposing commonwealth status for Hawaii and Alaska as a substitute for statehood probably will be offered in the Senate tomorrow.

He said it will be sponsored by Senators Monroney (D-Okla), Fulbright (D-Ark), Butler (R-Md), Malone (R-Nev), Daniel, Smathers and others.

The commonwealth proposal would give the two territories the present status of Puerto Rico—with right to elect their own governors and the privilege of retaining federal tax collections for local use.

But they would not get voting representation in Congress nor the right to participate in presidential elections.

* * *

If there is no vote on statehood in the Senate this week, the legislation may be laid aside next week for Senate consideration of excise tax legislation and the 1952 New Mexico senatorial election contest.

Eastland said he has information he will present to the Senate later on the extent of financing of the Communist press in Hawaii, which he described as a "very alarming condition." He also said he had proof that $150,000 to $200,000 a year is sent from Hawaii to the West Coast "to Harry Bridges to help spread communism in the United States."

Bridges, head of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, was described by Eastland as a "puppet of Moscow."

Crown Prince Akihito Gets Driver's License

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's Crown Prince Akihito got his driver's license today—but he probably won't be seen behind the wheel of a car on Tokyo streets.

Imperial household spokesmen said the crown prince will drive a car only as a hobby, probably in resort areas during vacation trips.

Farm Growing Grows

AKRON, Ohio (INS)—Since 1920 the average acreage per farm in the United States has risen 42 per cent, according to the 16th annual Farmer's Handbook and Almanac published by the B. F. Goodrich company. Average size of farms today is 215 acres, the book says.

And Not for Irish Colleens Only

Wearin' of the Green Is High Fashion

NEW YORK (INS) — Any woman who is wearin' the green today is not only Irishly inclined — she's high fashion!

The news from style circles says that green is going to be the hot color of the spring season. (Technically, it's a cool color, but business-wise, it's hot).

The greens which will be promoted in almost every store in the country by April's end range from pale shades of yellowy-green for evening to the deeper hues for daytime.

The gay kelly greens do not figure much in the fashion picture, but almost every other shade of nature and the loom does.

For sportswear, the overall favorite will be a green-tinged khaki shade — sort of olive drab—which is slow to show soil.

For dressier daytime wear, experts recommend the medium-to-deep shades of avocado, pine and forest greens. Also the grayish and bluish tones.

The newest silk and cotton prints in the high-fashion salons follow through with the theme.

They're green and yellow, green and, most striking of all, green combined with blue.

Excellent Musicianship Pleases Audience

Enthusiasm Greets City Symphony

By DORA DAWSON

Genuine enthusiasm greeted the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra at its concert in Lincoln Junior High School Tuesday evening.

A near capacity audience was there, many hoping that the orchestra might became a permanent Pontiac institution, and many were surprised at the excellence of its work in the time it has been established.

Many things enter into the success of such an organization and the choice of Francesco DiBlasi as conductor has been a splendid one.

Out of his thorough training, experience, and innate feeling for interpretation, he imparts confidence to the orchestra members and draws from them their best in ability, resulting in interpretations that are masterly.

Mr. DiBlasi conducts without score, so that his entire thought is given to bringing out details of melody, quality of tone and composition.

The program opened with a Rossini overture, not as familiar as many of his, but containing his usual energy and melodic sense.

In it was used an unusual feature, the rhythmic tapping of the bows of the second violins on their music, at certain intervals, for dramatic effect. At the close of the program, due to the insistence of the applause, this number was repeated as an encore.

The Prague Symphony by Mozart, in four movements, was well done. Especially notable was the unity of the strings in the different sections, coming out as one voice and indicative of excellent musicianship. Mozart keeps musicians busy, and the contrasts between the movements were well developed.

The immortal melodies of Grieg, heard in "Song of Norway," were delightful.

Probably the most dificult number of the evening was Debussy's "Clouds" in which he expresses his great love of nature in new sound combinations that are characteristic of his compositions.

There is a weaving of tone color, similar to the use of color by a painter, suggestive and impressionistic. A solo on the English horn, played by Kenneth Holm, increased the imaginative beauty of the composition. The orchestra entered into the spirit wonderfully and played a finished performance.

Closing the program was one of Wagner's master works, the "Prelude" to "Die Meistersinger," played by the 50 musicians with great dignity of tone and skill, and a credit to the composer.

This concert is a foretaste of what will become a musical asset to this city, with the continued interest and support of the people of this area. On May 4, the second concert of this season will be held in Lincoln Junior High School.

St. Joseph Guild Plans April 29 Fashion Bridge

April 29 has been set as the date for the fashion bridge to be sponsored by St. Joseph Guild of St. Benedict Church.

Cochairmen appointed for the affair are Mrs. James Clark and Mrs. Willard Johnson.

Plans were made for the fashion show Monday evening when members of the guild met at the West Iroquois road home of Mrs. Nelson K. Hunter.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Carleton Wright and Mrs. James Brown.

PEO Addressed at Putnam Home

Earl Young, a member of the staff of the psychological clinic of the Detroit Public Schools, used the topic "Family Relations" when he spoke before members of chapter AW, PEO, Monday evening.

The meeting was held in the West Iroquois road home of Mrs. George Putnam. Mrs. John L. Wilson assisted the hostess.

Plans were announced for the organization of a new chapter to take place Friday evening in the Franklin road home of Mrs. John Little. State officers will be in charge of the organization of the new chapter, CL.

Circle Two Headed by Mrs. Don White

Officers were elected Tuesday when Circle Two, First Christian Church, met with Mrs. James Vaughn on Ascot road.

Mrs. Don White is president; Mrs. Howard Reynolds, vice president; Mrs. Levi Geasler, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Ruby, treasurer.

The theme of the program conducted by Mrs. Allen Hersey was "Even to This Present Hour." Mrs. Reynolds gave devotions. Hostess for the April meeting will be Mrs. Charles Harmes of LaSalle avenue.

Married in Indiana

Married March 4 in the Christian Church, Angola, Ind., were Irene M. Giles of Rosshire court and Clifford Pollard.

Longfellow Has 2nd Discussion

Mrs. Richard Christiansen conducted the second discussion series on adult education at the Longfellow School homeroom mothers' meeting Tuesday.

An impromptu skit was enacted by Mrs. Frank Lesco, Mrs. Robert Howey and Mrs. Edwin Carlson to demonstrate how children fail to answer until spoken to many times or until the voice is raised.

Mrs. Christiansen explained, "When you find yourself raising your voice or spanking, check yourself to see if you are just 'mad-tired,' because sometimes we're provoked with our children not because what they do is bad, but because we are tired or worried."

Other problems discussed included the fears of children, stealing and the cause, comparison difficulties, and the need for security.

The mothers found that most problems were average and just a little understanding and calm thought on their part would solve the situation.

Serving on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Lester Christiensen, Mrs. Thomas Bartle and Mrs. Howey.

Business Beginners Often Display Mature Foresight in Future Plans

Young Careerists Usually Sensible

By ANNE HEYWOOD

It is fashionable nowadays to claim that the young people entering business are spoiled weaklings.

"They won't work," people tell me. "They expect everything to drop in their laps."

Yet my experience has been that many of today's young people are more mature, more sensible and more realistic than my contemporaries ever were.

True, they haven't had a depression to cope with as we did. But they've been brought up during two wars, with great uncertainty in their lives, and many of them have developed an admirable inner security.

Take Mary G., for example. Here's what she wrote me:

"I have just got my first job, and I like it very much. I am taking a course at night which will help me know more about my field and my particular job.

"But I know that there's more to advancement than that. I am most anxious to succeed, and I wonder if you can recommend a book that might help me get the right approach and keep me from making any grave mistakes this early in the game."

I don't know about you, but my mind wasn't working that way when was 21!

My advice to Mary G., and to all young people anxious to succeed, is to take a look at a book called "How Am I Doing?"

In it, you find out how to make a long-range plan for yourself, a personal training program, so to speak. There is a self-rating and appraisal chart, which may keep you from self-delusion and the tendency to get into a rut.

The chapters I liked particularly were the ones on "Blue printing Your Future," "The Boss and I," "Dynamics of Achievement," and "Maturity, Prosperity, Security."

By intelligently planning your course, and by checking periodically to see how you're doing, you can eliminate the element of "luck" and make of your job, and therefore of your life, exactly what you want it to be.

Talent Not Enough

For a great fashion designer to come into being, talent alone is not enough: the designer must have the absolute and authoritative genius to impose his or her vision of the needs of the times on the times themselves, so that fashions which a year previously would have been considered outrageous are suddenly a necessity.

Floor Is Focal Point

Interior decoration begins with floor beauty, more and more exciting colorful styling of rugs and carpets was followed by similar improvement in non-pile or, as they have come to be known, resilient floor coverings.

This girl is using a new instant neutralizer in a home permanent. The permanent will "take" after it has been rolled for several minutes on rods. She already has had her hair cut by a stylist in a modified form of the Italian cut. After a careful setting following the stylist's curling methods, she has lovely, soft locks (right) that her dog obviously admires.

Swimsuits to Plunge — in Back

Mermaids of 1954 Will Sport Low Vs in Reverse

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Swim suits for '54 will be higher in the front, lower in the back and purtier all around.

That's the word of the California fashion creators, who recently showed what they think the well-dressed legged mermaid will wear.

They indicated backs will be plunged in V-shape.

One designer in announcing the return of the V-back, popular in the early 30s, said some suits will be cut as low as 18 inches.

The manufacturer reported that when he tried an 8-inch cut in 1931 he was almost jailed. But the trend has been such that now he asks only that the girls have backs long enough to protect them from immodesty.

A synthetic thread, lurex, has been used to advantage to give a flowered and beaded effect to plainer fabrics. Yet it's guaranteed not to run or lose color in washing or swimming.

Nylon ruffles, puff legs and low-waisted bloomers are new fashion notes.

There appears to be a small controversy among the manufacturers on the question of swim pants' cuffs. Some say that cuffs give too great an emphasis on the thighs, and others declare that cuffs distract attention from the thighs.

The "exclamation point" look, continuing to give full emphasis to the upper part of the body, is a new title for an old subject.

This preview of 1954 bathing suits also introduced what designers chose to call an "optical illusion," consisting of pattern designs scheduled to detract attention from the wearer's less favorable points and offering a full realization of her actual potential.

Fabrics continue to be news, with the synthetics holding a firm position under a variety of trade names. Cotton makes a comeback in a series of plain and glazed treatments.

Expertly coordinated accessories add a flair to your Easter fashion picture. With a dramatic wide-brimmed hat wear a long-lasting daytime essence which has the subtlety of all high-fashion accessories which highlight but do not dominate an ensemble.

Putting Wax on Floors Takes Skill

By HUBBARD COBB

You'd think that the average person could wax a floor properly if he or she put his or her mind to it, but apparently this is not the case.

There is more to waxing a floor the right way than meets the eye and if you don't believe us, just read on.

Get rid of all the old soiled and worn wax with a solvent. Use a cloth or a long handled wax applicator to apply a thin coat of paste or liquid wax over the entire surface. Now go off and let the wax dry.

This takes 30 minutes or so. It's very important that the wax not be damp when you start the polishing operation, for if it is, the polisher will pick it up from the floor and this is not what is supposed to happen.

An electric polisher is best for the polishing operation and if you don't own one, you can rent one from a hardware store, flooring store or paint store. They cost only a dollar or so per day and one day should do the trick nicely.

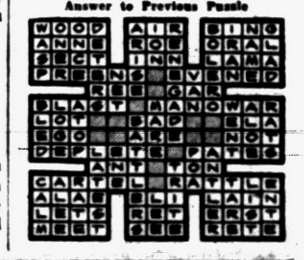

Run the polisher across the floor in the same directon as the wood grain. You don't have to apply pressure to the polisher because weight in this polishing operation is not important.

Just keep the polisher moving because if you hold it in one spot too long the brush on the polisher will remove all the wax from this area.

You won't have to worry which area has been polished and which hasn't, the polished area will be nice and bright while the unpolished will be on the dull side.

When we take up the "new" it is only because we have had a secret need of it and have unconsciously prepared for its coming.

Meets at Temple Beth Jacob

Sisterhood Hears Guest

How institutions have derived from the human struggle between authority and individual recognition was explained Tuesday by A. J. Levin of Detroit who spoke before the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob at the temple.

Speaking on "Authority and Rejection in the Cultural Record," he emphasized the history of the degradation of the individual as especially important.

Harold Goldberg, president of the temple, spoke to the group on the building progress of the new temple, and Dr. Irving Gordon, president of the Temple Men's Club, extended greetings.

Mrs. Herman Dickstein conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Abe Zamek reported that the Oneg Shabot meeting will be held in conjunction with the Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel Saturday afternoon at Casa del Rey.

Mrs. James Rosenthal was program chairman, and hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Maurice Thome, Mrs. Marvin Barnett, Mrs. Rosenthal and Mrs. Jerome Lapides.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Irving Steinman, and Mrs. Sanford Saperstein presented the benediction.

Shower Honors Marlene Todd

Styles Attractive in All Periods

Don't cringe when that out-of-fashion photo comes to light.

Cecil Beaton, British Court photographer and fashion authority, says styles are at no period really unbecoming.

"If a woman adheres to the proportion and using it with an instinctive portions and the formula of a given epoch, she will acquire an allure, a feeling of rightness that makes her sense she is attuned to and in equilibrium with the times, Beaton says.

"By embracing a particular fashfeeling for its organic relationship to the moment, she can make it her destiny."

Goodnights Should Be Quickly Said

Girl Who Prolongs Farewells Imperils Her Popularity

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

It's been a wonderful evening—and it's late. Your date couldn't have been nicer. Your mutual mood is gay and happy. And here you are back home. Where, and for how long, are you going to say goodnight to him?

It's been a mess—the evening. It has lasted an eternity, seems if. Your date was far from attentive; You've had a horrible time. How long will it take you to get the goodnight over with?

Whether you like him, whether you don't, whether he's your steady beau or a blind date, there's always the moment for bringing an evening to a close. Some girls are smart about it—others aren't.

All of which is brought on by this letter from one of the editors of a school PTA paper. She asks:

"Is it proper for a senior girl to say goodnight to her date in the car? On the porch? In the house?

"Would it make any difference if they were going steady? How long should it take if it's after midnight?"

A smart girl is time conscious. If her family doesn't establish a going-to-bed hour for her, she does it for herself. She gives a thought too to her date's sleep requirements and his plans for the next day. All of which governs the speed or delay of their parting, both of which are completely under her control.

So when a smart girl arrives at home after a date, she's had all the way home to tell him what a good time she has had, to make plans for their next get-together, to keep the mood pitched gaily.

Once arrived at her destination, he helps her out of the car, accompanies her to the front door (to help with the key), says a cheery goodnight and goes merrily on his way.

A girl who's not so smart never looks at her watch. She arrives at home and just sits there in the car, making no move to get out. She knows her family (and the neighbors) heard the car drive up and stop—and everybody's wondering why she doesn't come in. Yet, she sits. He's the one to break it up.

At the door there's more talk. It takes forever to get the key to work. And there's something still to say once the door is open and they're both inside. And that can go on until Dad drops both shoes loudly on the floor above.

It's time aimlessly slipping away to no good purpose. It is stretching out a gay mood until it snaps from fatigue, nonsense, emotion, boredom.

A girl who thinks the end of a date is only the beginning is not likely to date very often. When the boy finally manages to escape such a girl's greedy clutches he's more likely to say "goodbye" than "goodnight."

Ailing Guest Isn't Able to Eat Much

Wonders If Staying Home Would Have Been Better

By EMILY POST

A reader tells me: "I was invited to a buffet dinner last evening. I had a bad attack of indigestion all that day and was afraid to eat any of the rich food the hostess had prepared, for fear of becoming actively ill. The hostess seemed very concerned over my not having anything to eat and I felt very conspicuous.

"I would like to know if, under the circumstances, it would have been better to call the hostess and tell her that I wouldn't be able to go to her party, or since I was not seriously ill except for threatened nausea, was I right to go so as not to oblige the hostess to fill my place at the last minute?"

Answer: You were quite right to go. It might perhaps have been best to have explained your situation to your hostess on arriving and to have asked her not to notice how little you would be able to eat.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have received an invitation to a baby shower for a cousin of mine living in a distant city. Since I cannot possibly travel all this distance, don't you think it was an imposition to send me an invitation, and under the circumstances, would I be justified in not sending a present?

Answer: This invitation does not put you under obligation to send anything except a courteous note of regret at being unable to attend the shower.

Dear Mrs. Post: In my capacity as secretary, I have to make many business calls for my employer. When announcing myself, do I say, "This is Miss Jones, Mr. Brown's secretary," or do I say "This is Helen Jones, Mr. Brown's secretary."

Would it make a difference if I were calling the president of a company or a mere clerk?

Answer: "This is Miss Jones, Mr. Brown's secretary" is correct no matter whom you call.

Camp Fire Girls Have Fun Recipe

An Extra for Today: Happy Celebration on 44th Birthday

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Today is the 44th birthday of the Camp Fire Girls. As we wish them a Happy Birthday and many happy returns, let's read Mrs. William L. Graves' recipe for having fun. Mrs. Graves is the publicity chairman of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls.

A RECIPE FOR THE USE OF LEISURE TIME

By Mrs. William L. Graves

Take a number from seven to eighteen. Double it and add one conscientious adult. Double that and the result is an effervescent product. What do you have?

Why, a group of Camp Fire Girls (ages 7 to 18) and their leaders, of course. Whenever any number of girls get together in the Camp Fire program, their interest and enthusiasm attracts and includes other girls.

And any adult who ventures into the realm of Camp Fire leadership has so much fun that she attracts other adults as sponsors and co-leaders.

Take a few hours of leisure time weekly, add to them the fun and hilarity of working with a group of Camp Fire Girls, and the finished product is satisfaction for all.

Manners
MAKE FRIENDS

When a man takes a woman to dinner in a restaurant he gives all the orders to the waiter. If she wants her steak rare, she tells her escort and lets him tell the waiter.

And that holds true even when a woman is dining out with her husband.

Recent Berlin Conference Achievements Grow Dim

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

The one real triumph the United States achieved at the recent Berlin conference seems likely to go down the drain of French indecision.

At Berlin, it is not likely that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles held any real hope for unification of Germany or a treaty restoring sovereignty to Austria.

Rather, his job was, by listening patiently to everything the Russians had to say, to lay before the nations of Western Europe indisputable proof that the Communists not only intended to hold on to everything they had but also plotted to Sovietize the whole of Europe.

Related jobs were to maintain the unity of the United States, France and Britain and to demonstrate to France the imperative need for quick ratification of the European Army plan which would place French and German troops side by side for a common defense of Western Europe.

When Dulles left Berlin he undoubtedly believed he had achieved his purpose.

There could be no other reason for him finally to agree to the forthcoming April 26 meeting at Geneva which for the United States can only open a Pandora's Box of troubles in the Far East.

However, both he and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault knew that Bidault had to return home with some promise of hope for ending the war in Indochina.

The Geneva meeting seemed the only outlet, and would be agreed upon only in return for a French promise of a quick yes or no on the European Defense Community.

The hope was that the issue would be decided before the Geneva meeting convened. The hope daily becomes less likely of reality.

Chief reason seems to be the timidity of the French government under Premier Joseph Laniel.

Three times in three days last week U. S. Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon conferred on the subject of EDC with Bidault. More meetings are scheduled for this week.

EDC supporters in the French Assembly have quizzed Laniel, to be turned away with no information and only a vague impression that action might come in late spring, perhaps in May.

Not even the victory of an EDC advocate in a parliamentary by-election in a red hot Communist district around Paris is expected to end Laniel's stalling.

The French decision is just as hard to make as would be the United States' in event she should have to revise her own foreign policy if France eventually refuses to ratify the army plan.

On the one hand, France fears that to join the EDC will cost her any chance of a compromise with the Reds on Indochina.

On the other hand, she risks the friendship of the United States and the good will of her neighbors.

Last week Belgium joined Holland and West Germany in ratifying the pact, even though to do so meant changes in the Belgian constitution. Luxembourg is expected to follow soon, and Italian Premier Mario Scelba of Italy also has promised to press for action.

Reappoint 3 to City Plan Board

IT NEVER RAINS—Clutching her little doll, Linda, which lost its arms and was badly charred, Brenda Ann Fair, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fair of Independence, Mo., sits on a burned TV set outside her home. A stove, which exploded in the Fair home, cost the family all their clothing and furniture. Since May 1953, the family has suffered the following: Two operations within four months for the mother, a broken leg for the father, and the afternoon before the fire, two young sons discovered their pet dog dead on the highway near their home. "What else can happen?" asked the worried mother.

Kalwitz, Fisher, Veazey Named

Pontiac Commissioners Also OK Contract for 1954 Blacktop Paving

Three men were reappointed last night to three-year terms on the City Planning Commission by Pontiac City Commission.

They are William F. Kalwitz, Richard W. Fisher and Daniel R. Veazey.

The men were continued as members on recommendation of City Manager Walter K. Willman and City Commissioner Harold W. Dudley who is an ex-officio planning commission member.

In other action commissioners approved a contract with the A & A Asphalt Paving Co. for construction of the two-inch blacktop paving included in the city's 1954 program of street improvements.

A communication was received from the Oakland County CIO Council supporting the millage and hospital expansion program to be voted on in the April 5 general election.

A recommendation was referred to the city attorney asking amendment of the city milk ordinance making dating of milk conform to the Detroit ordinance.

Commissioners approved a change in the new city hall contract modifying the air-condition system to conform with the ordinance aimed at conserving water used in such units.

The changes will increase the cost of air-conditioning the city hall about $8,000, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Commissioners approved payment of $600 to Vasbinder, Inc. for a strip of land 12-feet deep off the front of 12 lots on East boulevard. The area is to be used for proposed widening of E. Boulevard.

Resolutions were approved to accept special assessment rolls for curb, gutter, drainage and related work on:

First from Joslyn to Barkell.
LeBaron from Joslyn to the east end of the street.
Second from Barkell to Fuller.
Westbrook from Joslyn to the east end of the street.
Willard from Center to Paddock.

Commissioners recommended that Green Brothers make an assessor's plat for all of Linda Vista Subdivision except lot 106, as requested.

Deferred for more study was a request from the M. A. Benson Co. to vacate East Rundell from Saginaw to Whitfield and sell a strip of city-owned adjoining land.

Approval was given:

A resolution to correct a special assessment roll prepared by the city assessor for a water main in Corwin from Kinney to the center of lot 37 assessor's plat 101.
Confirmation of a special assessment roll for a water main in Crescent from Mt. Clemens to Belvidere.
First reading of an ordinance to rezone to M-1 property located in the southwest quarter of section 18 and the northwest quarter of section 19.

A proposal was approved, made by Commissioner Ronald C. Hallenbeck, to raise the pay of members of the Tax Board of Review from $15 to $20 per day retroactive to the first of the year.

HOBBY-FINDER—Mrs. Robert (Delia) Downer, of 113 Norton Ave., a veteran hobby enthusiast, is shown here with her latest imaginative production, a sub-tropical "clinker" garden. Made of the furnace variety of burned coals, Mrs. Downer paints the clinkers with cake coloring, adds imitation ferns, flowers, a few manufactured items and clay, turning the unsightly clinkers into a miniature garden around an outdoor pool.

Clinkers Become Rock Gardens

Idea Woman Has Fun Creating Hobbies

By WILLIAM THOMAS

Mrs. Robert Downer of 113 Norton Ave., is different from most hobby enthusiasts in that she not only participates, but also originates hobbies.

Right now she is a "clinker painter."

It took her three days to turn several refugees from a hot coal-burning furnace into a brightly-colored sub-tropical garden.

The "paint" is cake coloring. When the clinkers are shaded to the right hue and a few artificial ferns, flowers and birds are added, they represent the rocky flowered edges of an outdoor pool.

Mrs. Downer, who makes a hobby of finding new hobbies, thought of the idea when they moved to their new home recently. The former owner lamented that clinkers had gathered in the basement and she did not know what to do with them.

"I told her I would take care of them," said Mrs. Downer; then added facetiously, "I'll paint them." And an idea was born.

Dolls made of soap have given Mrs. Downer several opportunities to visit television programs in Detroit, and she has turned down other requests for her appearance on the "Double or Nothing" show and the program "I've Got a Secret" in New York.

Mrs. Downer's clinker garden, complete with plastic boats, swans, fish bowl pebbles and other accessories, is being entered in the California Hobby Show in Los Angeles.

A blue ribbon first there means a free airplane trip to the west coast and an appearance on Art Linkletter's TV show, "House Party."

An outstanding feature of the garden is a lighthouse which throws a real red beam. The light emanates from a Christmas tree bulb, inside a clinker which has a clay base.

Another hobby listed by Mrs. Downer is making nylon corsages. "I have so many hobbies I have trouble keeping up with my house work," said Mrs. Downer as she listed her various activities.

A money maker for Mrs. Downer is the fashioning of doorstops from empty milk cartons, with the aid of some sand for filling and oil cloth for decorations.

Clinkers can be transformed into center pieces or Ming trees, said the imaginative hobbyist, who also enjoys soap carving and specializes in carving tiny baby shoes.

The rest of the Downer family is also talented, with Mr. Downer, a carpenter, spending many "busman's holidays" making furniture for their home.

Sons Richard, David and Irving and daughter, Mrs. Lucille Lawson, enjoy painting. And David's specialty is making blueprints.

Mrs. Downer, who has been hobby-minded since she was seven years old, is favorite for first place in the California show.

"If I don't win this year I'll have a lot of time until next year and I'll be ready for them by then," she said.

Hint GOP to Kill Two House Bills

Hedge on Confirmation; FEPC Lobby Measures to Die in Committee

LANSING (AP) — Only veiled confirmation could be had today of reports that state Republican leaders have instructed the House of Representatives to kill Fair Employment Practices legislation and a bill tightening controls on lobbyists.

Both bills were approved by narrow margins in the Senate last week.

It was confirmed that House leaders met with State Republican Chairman John Feikens.

This was coupled with persistent reports that the word went out to the House State Affairs Committee, which has both bills, to kill them.

One leader, who asked not to be named, said, "Those bills will never see the light of day.

Chairman Eugene C. Betz (R-Monroe), however, would say only that the committee has not met on the bills. It was learned he was at the meeting with Feikens.

Betz is frank in his opposition to the FEPC bill, and he has been decidely lukewarm on the lobbyist measure.

He said the committee had invited Rep. Louis C. Cramton (R-Lapeer), long-time champion of FEPC, to attend its Thursday meeting on the bill. The committee earlier in the session killed Cramton's bill which was almost identical to the Senate measure now before it.

The FEPC bill would set up a commission to mediate cases where there are allegations of discrimination in employment because of race.

The lobbyist bill would require monthly reports of expenses by lobbyists and set up a permanent legislative committee to police their activities.

Judge Grants Judgment in Bicycle-Tricycle Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The court has ruled in a bicycle-tricycle collision that resulted in 8-year-old Jack Chase sustaining a leg fracture.

Superior Judge Thurmond Clark yesterday returned a $1,323.98 judgment against 11-year-old Bobby Ritter. The judge said Bobby had no business riding his bicycle on the sidewalk, where the Chase boy was riding on his tricycle.

BACK ON ITS WHEELS—Police attempt to right a car on New York's Pier 6 after a demonstration yesterday by members of AFL Longshoremen's Association and the old International Longshoremen's Association. The demonstration began as the U. S. Army hired dock workers under civil service rules to load transports and cargo ships tied up at the strike-bound Port of New York. There were no reports of violence other than the overturning of two AFL autos.

Peress Case Still Smolders Under New M'Carthy Fires

WASHINGTON (UP) — The case of the "Fifth Amendment" dentist whose Army service started the current McCarthy fireworks has been nearly lost in the subsequent noise, smoke and confusion.

The dentist was Major Irving Peress, a New Yorker who escaped overseas service and was given an honorable discharge over the objections of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis). Peress also was promoted from captain to major, despite questionable loyalty.

McCarthy said today that he would insist the Army honor his demand and its promise to reveal the names of officers responsible for Peress' promotion and honorable discharge.

The Army Department informed the United Press that Secretary Robert T. Stevens' promise to give McCarthy the names would be honored.

But the Army inspector general's investigation of the Peress case is not complete. It probably will be concluded in the last week of March after which a report will have to be drafted and approved before the Peress investigation can be resumed.

"The Peress case cannot be closed until we know who was protecting him," McCarthy said. "We have an agreement from Stevens that he would give us the names of all of those involved. We want those names. Unfortunately the investigation is being held up by this side issue."

McCarthy said Peress' testimony would be referred to the Justice Department when the case is closed. He did not reveal on what grounds.

In a letter to Stevens which the Army said Tuesday night had not yet been received, McCarthy wrote:

"I would like to make it clear that this matter (the Peress case) must not be obscured by the furor and shouting over the case of Private (G. David) Schine. I shall still want all of the facts which we discussed with you about this Fifth Amendment major. Therefore will you please inform me as to the date when the above information will be available."

It appears now that the Peress case is on ice for three weeks or more pending the report of the inspector general's office to Stevens and its transmission to McCarthy. There is no reason to believe, however, that the investigation will be other than complete regardless of what may be made public about it.

Pontiac Psychiatrist to Address Educators

"Teachers Are Human, Too," will be Dr. L. J. Fink's topic when he speaks at Pontiac Education Assn. meeting next Thursday, March 25.

The Pontiac psychiatrist's talk, highlighting teachers problems in the spring of the year, will follow a 6 p.m. dinner at Eastern Junior High School. Miss Mildred Gingell of Longfellow School is decorations chairman.

At the last meeting Feb. 25, Deward Clark, National Education Association tour leader, spoke on "Central and South America."

State Pay Raises Left on Williams' Doorstep

LANSING (AP)—There will be no money for a pay raise for state employes, despite a State Civil Service Commission order, unless it is recommended by Gov. Williams and the budget office, Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) declared today.

Porter, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, renewed attacks on the commission for suddenly popping the pay raise at the Legislature when, as he said, the legislative committees "have the budget all balanced."

The commission estimated the pay raise might cost $6 million a year, but Porter said it might go to $10 million.

"It has always been the policy of our committees," Porter said, "to receive no requests for money unless they come through the budget office and with recommendation of the governor. We are going to continue to follow this."

Senators hinted Porter was trying to make Williams bear the onus for unbalancing the budget since the governor made a point of submitting a balanced budget request to the Legislature in January.

Porter said the civil service action confronts the Legislature "with a lot of red ink and maybe more taxes."

Sen. George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale), chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee and a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, leaped up shouting, "There'll be no new taxes in Michigan this year."

"We have been struggling to balance the budget and have balanced it," Higgins said. "This is a wrong deal for the civil service to walk in here, as it has for the past three or four years, and say with a scratch of the pen 'Get us 7 or 10 millions more'."

Old-Timers Go on a Toot

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Kalamazoo's Townsend Club likes to go out on a toot every week.

They have a band. Their miniature instruments are plastic with humming contraptions, "kazoos."

"Somebody suggests a number and we all begin to play," says Mrs. Joseph Kruizenga of nearby Parchment. She organized the band last fall.

"It makes everybody happy," she says. The band plays mostly waltzes, marches and hymns.

The average age of the band is 60. The first trombonist is Mrs. Ometa Dewey, 81. Her trombone sidekicks are Mrs. Harriet House and Mrs. Ethel Burt, both of whom admit being "over 70."

"We love 'Silver Threads Among the Gold.' Maybe that's our theme song," Mrs. Kruizenga says.

The band has had one mishap. It was set to play in Battle Creek but someone misplaced the box in which the instruments are kept. They found them too late.

"If we don't make the sweetest music this side of heaven," Mrs. Kruizenga says, "it's at least the sweetest this side of Kalamazoo avenue."

Hunt Radioactive Fish With Geiger Counters

TOKYO (AP)—Health authorities with Geiger counters prowled Tokyo markets today for radioactive fish sold by a trawler which was showered with ash from an atomic weapons test in the Pacific Bikini Island area.

Most of the catch was recovered but the price of tuna tumbled 40 per cent.

In 1953 the U.S. birth rate was nearly 25 per 1,000 population.

Fortune Telling Thrives in Midst of Red Culture

MOSCOW (AP)—You might think that after 36 years of Communist rule the Russian people would have gotten rid of superstitions, especially such practices as going to soothsayers and fortune tellers.

Perhaps superstition's survival might still be explained in the backward areas, in remote villages.

But what are you to say when this practice thrives in such a city as Minsk, which has a quarter-million population and is the metropolis and capital of Byelorussia?

* * *

And what's more—how about well-dressed ladies going to visit the fortune tellers, and some of them using the automobiles of their husbands who are in official positions? What kind of example are these ladies setting for the less fortunate, the less-learned folk about town?

The newspaper Soviet Byelorussia has plenty to say about this in an article titled "The Terrible Sign." It deals with the fortune telling racket in Minsk and puts the finger on people who, it says, should know better. These include not only well-dressed ladies but members of Komsomol, the Communist Youth League.

* * *

Soviet Byelorussia reports:

"For instance, a Gypsy, Ekaterine Shorkoze, has been telling fortunes to gullible women for four years. She lives two kilometers from Minsk and supports a large family, including her husband who does not work. She is expanding her activities and she has special agents who give her publicity for a small price. She earns quite a lot.

"It also happens that automobiles stop at this woman's house. Well-dressed women descend. Apparently they come here in their husband's office cars. They look about and quickly enter the house, where they listen to the ignorant chatter of the fortune teller—not even ashamed of their moral poverty of mind."

THINGS STARTED COOKING WHEN THE FIRE WENT OUT

When you drive into our place for service or a new Chevrolet, you may be reminded of Don Quixote, who jumped on his horse and rode madly off in all directions. Painters, mechanics, electricians, bumpers, salesmen, salvage crews, and carpenters are dashing around like actors in that old comedy, "Helzapoppin."

But there's a difference between Habel's and "Helzapoppin." There's a method in our madness. We are cleaning and repairing our premises; and selling and servicing Chevrolets all at the same time.

So come in today. We believe you'll be pleased with our deals and the quality of our service.

City Pays Rabbit Owner for Animal Killed by Dog

CONCORD, N. H. (UP) — Roger M. Bailey got $31.45 from the city for his rabbit.

A dog killed Bailey's rabbit. He brought claim to the city for damages.

A month later, City Solicitor Gordon M. Tiffany told the City Council that it must, according to state law, honor "a valid claim" for domestic animals killed by dogs, even if the dog's owner isn't known.

Tiffany acknowledged $31.45 as a valid claim. The council voted to pay Bailey. And the group also told Tiffany to do all in his legal power to get the $31.45 back from Gustav Swenson. He owned the dog.

National Guard Filling Openings

Company M Reports Rapid Progress in Its Recruiting Drive

Pontiac's Michigan National Guard unit, Company M of the 125th Infantry, is rapidly filling vacancies in a current recruiting drive, according to Lt. A. J. Largent, commanding officer.

Lt. Largent said the present rush of enlistees is due in part to exhibits of American infantry weapons and Chinese equipment at local schools and movie houses.

Opportunites for new men are being opened now because of promotions within the company, Lt. Largent said, and recruits will have a selection of "key positions."

Young men 17 years old or older are eligible, according to Lt. Largent. For additional information call or visit the Armory at 57 Water St.

NEW JUNIOR HIGH HONORS EARLY STATE EDUCATOR—Steel for the new Waterford Township Isaac E. Crary Junior High School is being placed this week. Located on M59, the new school is scheduled for September completion. Named in honor of the man who instituted the Department of Public Instruction in the early days of Michigan's governmental development, the second junior high school to be erected at some future date will bear the name of John D. Pierce, Michigan's first state superintendent of public instruction and friend of Crary.

Two New Waterford Schools Named for Founders of State School System

By HAZEL A. TRUMBLE

Back in the 1830s Isaac E. Crary and John D. Pierce were considered men of great vision in the newly founded state of Michigan.

But these two men, reported to have sat on a log just north of Marshall and discussed the formation of a public school system for the new state, never dreamed that some day Waterford Township school district would name two junior high schools in their honor.

Steel is already on its way up for the Isaac E. Crary Junior High on M59. Completion date for this new school is scheduled for around September in time for school opening.

Naming a school presented a problem to the Waterford Board of Education. They considered prominent local names, but Mrs. Donald Adams, well known Michigan historian who resides in Waterford Township, came up with the names of Crary and Pierce.

John D. Pierce, whose name will be given to the second junior high school to be built sometime in the future in Waterford, was Michigan's first state superintendent of public instruction.

However, this post was created as part of early Michigan government because Crary, a representative from this state to Washington had made a thorough study of education. He believed it was one of the most important functions in the organization of democratic government.

Crary suggested Pierce, an intimate friend, for the head of the education department.

Michigan, the first state in the nation to appoint a superintendent of public instruction, was acclaimed by neighboring states to be the "educating state."

Pierce, in one of his own records, said: "General Crary, a warm friend of education, and I discussed the condition and prospects of our new state and especially schools of various grades, from the highest to the lowest.

"Sitting one afternoon upon a log near Marshall, we decided that education was one of the fundamental principles for the state convention to adopt in founding this government."

Continuing, Pierce records that "education, we thought, should be a distinct branch of the government and that the constitution should provide for an officer who should have this whole matter in charge, keeping it perpetually before the public mind."

Special ceremonies will be staged by the Waterford Board of Education for its community when the Isaac E. Crary school is completed.

Car-Train Crash Kills 2 in Ontario

LONDON, Ont. (INS)—A brother and sister were killed instantly last night when their car was demolished by a Canadian Pacific passenger train at an unguarded crossing just east of London.

The victims were 30-year-old Elmer D. Jamieson and his sister Shirley Mae, 16.

London Township Constable Alf Gillan said the train, en route from Toronto to Windsor, was traveling 65 miles an hour at the time. Wreckage of the car was strewn for 750 feet along the tracks.

Engineer R. S. Wallace of London said the car made no effort to stop for the train. Wallace said he had the impression the driver was attempting to beat the train to the crossing.

Cameras Await 923-Year-Old Holywell Ghost

HOLYWELL, England (AP) — They're tossing a party at the Ferry Boat Inn tonight for a woman who, if she exists, is 923 years old.

And spectral though she may be, at least nine of the guests are hoping the old girl will put in an appearance.

The ghost, known as the "White Lady of Holywell," is reputed to have haunted the inn since the middle of the 11th century.

Traditionally, she appears at midnight each March 17.

* * *

A. D. Cornell, of the Society for Psychic Research, claims he talked with her last year. She told him, he said, that her name was Juliet Tousley and that she hanged herself in 1050, at the age of 19, because of an unhappy love affair with a woodcutter named Thomas Zoul.

Cornell and eight other members of the society will be waiting for her tonight.

If she shows up, they will go into action with a battery of infrared cameras, a tape recorder and a spectroscope. They want to find out what little girls are made of when they're nine centuries old.

Landlord Jack Rodd arranged to stay open and serve drinks for an extra hour.

He told reporters: "I hope the White Lady doesn't come to the party. If the ghost appears, my missus will disappear, and I need her help to run this place."

Friend of Truman Faces Tax Sentence

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sentencing has been set for Monday for Paul Dillon, personal friend of former President Truman, who was convicted yesterday of attempting to evade $1,799 in income taxes for 1950-51.

An all-male jury took just 30 minutes to return its verdict against the 76-year-old St. Louis attorney who once was a campaign manager for Truman.

Dillon, who will remain free on bond until the sentencing, was named in a two-count federal indictment last November. He faces a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine on each count.

He explained why he did not testify in his own behalf during the two-day trial by telling newsmen: "When you're 76 years old they can't hurt you."

City OKs Refund on Sewer Jobs

Taxpayers Will Benefit From Low Bid by Action of Commissioners

ROYAL OAK—City commissioners here Monday reversed an established policy of charging property owners for sewer projects on a city-wide special assessment basis to allow the property owners to benefit from the low bid of a contractor.

The Commission by a four to three vote authorized a refund to property owners amounting to 50 cents per front foot on three sewer projects in the northeast section of the city.

Bids on the three projects were less than costs estimated by the engineering department, bringing a savings of $27,700.

City Manager E. M. Shafter pointed out that a policy of assessing property owners $3.50 per front foot had been established, and that the assessments conformed with figures of the engineering department.

Also Monday, the Commission considered inadequate the pensions of six city employes who were retired before May of 1943 and adopted a resolution raising their pensions to $75 per month effective June 1 of this year.

The terms of service of the six employes whose pensions come under the Employes Retirement Ordinance adopted in 1943 varied from 15 to 24 years. Their ages range from 68 to 84 and their pensions at present range from $12.36 to $36.85 per month.

Commissioners said that the increase will be in closer conformity to benefits the employes would have received under the present provisions of the ordinance.

Barkley Scores Ike for Timidity in White House

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Former Vice President Alben Barkley said last night if President Eisenhower "had been as timid in Europe as he has been in the White House, we would have lost World War II."

He told a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner that the President has been making great speeches but he "ought to have someone to implement his good words and noble sentiments."

Turning to the farm problem, he said, "When the farmers get a chance they will do to Ike politically what he has been doing to them economically."

* * *

Referring to Senators McCarthy (R-Wis) and Jenner (R-Ind), he said that "during the 1952 presidential campaign, the junior senator from Wisconsin and the junior senator from Indiana said the Democratic party was one of treason."

They committed a "premeditated falsehood," Barkley said. "I make no apology for the 20 years of Democratic rule."

Brooklands PTA Group to Hold Auction Tonight

BROOKLANDS — An auction will highlight tonight's meeting of the Brooklands PTA.

Set for 8 p. m. at the school, the meeting will also feature an election of officers and selection of delegates to the state meeting next month. Refreshments will be served by the eighth grade room mothers, headed by Mrs. William Farmer and Mrs. Ilo Kohn.

Man in Prison 35 Years Is Given Parole Status

LANSING (AP)—The State Parole Board today ordered the parole of James Hammond Morton, 69-year-old lifer, who was sentenced to life for dirst degree murder from Wayne County in 1981.

The board said Morton had an excellent record during his 35 years in prison. He was sentenced for shooting and killing a policeman who stopped him and asked for his registration card.

Morton will be paroled to Alabama, his home state.

Association Will Meet to Prepare Its By-Laws

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—Preparation of by-laws and appointment of several committees are on the agenda for tomorrow's meeting of the Charitable Bingo and Raffle Assn.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Knights of Pythias Hall on Voorheis road.

MISS BETTY JANE SHAW

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Shaw of Wamego, Kan. announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jane, to A.2.C. Myron Scafe, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Scafe of 3184 Warren Dr., Drayton Plains. No date has been set for the wedding.

Section Delays Chief Judge Bill

Solons Try to Postpone Law Until Justice Carr Can Hold Office

LANSING (AP) — Legislation creating a permanent chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court has passed both House and Senate — but an inter-chamber dispute over one amendment must still be ironed out.

The Senate passed the bill yesterday without a vote to spare and sent it back to the House for concurrence in an amendment to withhold effect of the measure until Jan. 1, 1955.

Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) said frankly on the Senate floor the amendment was attached so that Associate Justice Leland W. Carr would not be deprived of the honor of being chief justice in the year before he seeks re-election.

Under present law, the chief justiceship is rotated annually, going to the justice whose term is about to expire.

The Senate accepted a House amendment and sent to the governor a bill permitting Detroit Edison Co. to buy 88 acres of submerged land at Harbor Beach as the site for a power plant project estimated to cost $60 million to $100 million.

The amendment specifies the property must be sold for $18,000, the amount offered by the company, or at the appraised price fixed by the State Tax Commission, whichever is higher.

PTA Body to See Adolescence Film

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — A film, "The Meaning of Adolescence," will be shown at the all-township meeting of the Waterford PTA Program Planning Committee set for 8 p. m. today.

Discussion leader will be Madeleine Half, executive director of the Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic.

The meeting will be held in the Waterford Township High School Auditorium, and is open to the public free of charge.

Fire Solves Problem of Relocating Church

MIDLAND (INS) — Since the State Highway Department advised the Gordonville Methodist Church that its property would be needed for a highway widening project, the 56 parishioners have been praying for guidance.

The Rev. D. C. Turbin said members had prayed often for an answer to whether they should relocate the church or build a new one.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the church yesterday with a loss of $20,000.

Ex-Union Official Ties 32 to Reds

Names Illinois and Iowa People as Commies or Fellow Travelers in '40s

CHICAGO (AP)—A former union official has named 32 persons—most of them labor leaders from the Quad Cities area of Illinois and Iowa—who he says were Communist Party members or attended important Communist meetings in the early 1940s.

Walter W. Rumsey of Moline, Ill., yesterday was the final witness as the House un-American Activities Committee ended two days of hearings in Chicago.

Rumsey told the committee, headed by Rep. Harold Velde (R-Ill) that in the early '40s the Farm Equipment Workers Union (FE) and the Communist Party were "one and the same."

"In 1943," he said, "I was Quad Cities industrial organizer for the party and also organizer for the union. It was one and the same."

The Farm Equipment Workers and the United Electrical Workers (UE) were expelled from the CIO several years ago on the ground they were Communist-dominated. They now form a single independent union.

Rumsey, who said he was a Communist Party member from 1942 to 1944, said Quad Cities FE members were assessed for Communist purposes.

He said the assessments were voted at union meetings after delaying tactics had reduced attendance to a point where Communists were dominant.

2 More Made Ill by Fruit Spray

TULARE, Calif. (AP)—A dangerous fruit spray chemical known as tepp, which paralyzes respiratory organs after entering through the skin, has struck down two more children—killing 2-year-old Glenn Kumimoto and making his sister Elle, 4, seriously ill.

And the life of 6-year-old Michael Ogden still hung in the balance at a Hood River, Ore., hospital where he was rushed after spilling some of the chemical on his legs Saturday.

The Kumimoto children, playing in a barn on their father's ranch seven miles south of here, used some of it to make mud pies Monday.

Extra Police to Guard McCarthy Tonight

CHICAGO (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) speaks to the Irish Fellowship Club at a St. Patrick's Day dinner tonight and special security measures have been taken to prevent any undue interruption.

The club's president, Walter F. Mullady, said several policemen in plain clothes will be among the more than 1,200 guests at the dinner in the Palmer House.

"They'll stop any disturbance," Mullady said, "although we don't anticipate any, and prevent any interruption of Sen. McCarthy's talk."

McCarthy's speech will be broadcast over the Mutual network (10:30 p.m., EST).

On Same Tarm 93 Years

STANWOOD (AP) — Darius Blair, who has lived on the same farm for 93 years, observed his 98th birthday anniversary today. He moved to Mecosta County with his parents when he was five years old when the area was dense pine forest.

Capacity Crowds Attend Boy Scout Circus Saturday

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — CAI Building here was filled to overflowing when over 3,000 Boy Scouts of the Manito District staged their first circus Saturday night.

Displays were placed around the large dining hall of the building. Scouts and Cub Scouts gave demonstrations in a number of booths on various skills including wood carving and making Indian beaded belts.

On the auditorium stage several of the troops gave demonstrations and supplied entertainment for the capacity crowd.

Following the circus a court of honor was held with 82 Scouts being promoted and 39 receiving merit badges.

Among those honored was Dick Harrison of Troop 32 who was promoted to life rank.

Postal Regional Office Is Slated for Michigan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan will be a part of a post office plan to speed up postal administrative work by shifting it to regional offices instead of having it done in Washington.

There will be seven new postal regions in the new decentralization program. Included are Chicago and Wisconsin, as well as Michigan.

Denies Secrets Lost at A-Plant

Rep. Cole Reports That No Hush-Hush Papers Are Unaccounted For

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Cole (R-NY) of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee says no "top secret" documents are missing at the Hanford atomic energy plant.

And no documents are unaccounted for "under circumstances which indicate theft or removal for purposes of subversion or espionage," he says.

He made public late yesterday a letter he has sent to Rep. Pelly (R-Wash), who last week wrote the committee he had heard that classified documents were missing at the vast atomic energy installation in Washington state.

* * *

The letter was released after the committee had received closed-door testimony from three officials of the Atomic Energy Commission—David F. Shaw, manager of the Hanford operations office; K. D. Nichols, AEC general manager; and John Waters, AEC director of security.

Cole said the incident was closed as far as he was concerned.

Pelly told reporters he had "complete confidence" in the committee.

Among the more than 600,000 classified documents on record at Hanford having a classification lower than top secret, Cole said, "some are unaccounted for, representing an infinitesimal fraction of the total."

"In view of the number of documents at Hanford and the fact that thousands of them are in daily use and may be transferred from office to office frequently, the percentage of documents unaccounted for is impressively low," he said.

Unfamiliarity Breeds Large Get-Together

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — Some 450 persons were invited to a party because Bob Martin couldn't place the man who looked so familiar.

Martin ran into one of those face-is-familiar-but situations while downtown with his wife. He couldn't introduce the man who spoke so pleasantly because he couldn't place him or remember his name.

The situation was resolved when Martin met the man the next morning in the building where both work. He was A. H. Boshwit, an elevator acquaintance — one of those persons you see day after day and with whom you make polite small talk but seldom know.

They got to discussing the problem and decided that people in office buildings ought to get better acquainted. Then Martin suggested that everybody in the building get together at a picnic. They talked the plan over with others in the building and met with enthusiastic reception.

Nearly everyone in the building turned out for the party — and brought their families.

"I hope it spreads to other buildings," said Boshwit. "We don't ever want our town to get too big to be neighborly."

Dems at Chinese Place Eat Irish Corned Beef

PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—The Passaic County Democratic Committee held a St. Patrick's Day celebration last night—at a Chinese restaurant.

But the tradition of the Irish holiday wasn't forgotten. All but two of the 100 members present ate corned beef and cabbage dinners.

Mother Beats Child to Death, Surrenders

SPRING CITY, Pa. (AP)—Police said today a young mother, charged with homicide, told them she beat her 9-month-old daughter to death because she was "mad at it."

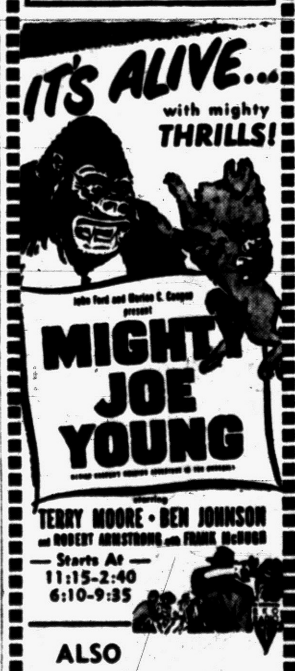

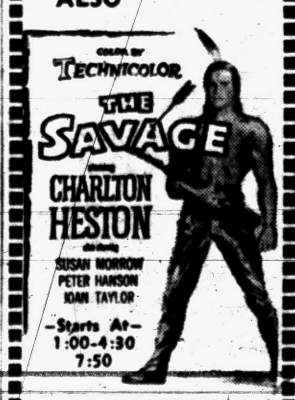

Police Chief John Hanebury said Mrs. Phyllis Seeley, 21, who lives in a local trailer camp called a taxi to give herself up after the beating.

He said he accompanied her to her trailer home and found the baby, Dawn, still alive. The child died six hours later in a hospital.

Police said the infant apparently had been beaten over the head with a hammer. A necktie was knotted around her neck. Hanebury also said Mrs. Seeley told him she knocked the child's head against a wall of the trailer because her crying made her "nervous."

Another daughter, about 2, was found unharmed in the trailer. Mrs. Seeley's husband Richard was at work at the time.

President Harding was the first to ride to his inauguration in an automobile rather than in a carriage.

At 60, Benny Eyes Conquest of the Theater

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Filmland followups—

Now that he has married off his daughter, Jack Benny is getting back to work to pay off the wedding bills. (I think the Benny vault can handle them, however.)

Benny, one of the few big stars to keep up with radio, says he might give up his radio show next season.

* * *

This summer Jack plans to take his vaudeville show to the Pacific Northwest. He has also considered doing "Seven Year Itch" on the stage. "I might do it at Lajolla or some place like that," he observed. "It's a demanding role and would require me to be onstage all the time. It presents a challenge; I've never done a legitimate show before. It might open up a whole new field for me."

So Jack is looking to new fields at the age of 60. One thing he is not considering: a return to films. "That I don't need," said the comic, perhaps recalling that horn blowing at midnight. . . .

* * *

Harold Lloyd is still mulling the return of some of his old classics like "The Freshman" and "Welcome Danger," which are as funny today as they were when released.

"But I have certain problems," the bespectacled comedian said. "We have had test showings and the younger people love the pictures, once they are exposed to them. The problem is how to get them into the theaters.

"Anybody under 24 doesn't know who I am. I'm just a name to them; they haven't seen my pictures. And the kids under 24 make up the bulk of the movie audience. If you can't get them into the theaters, you can't make money."

* * *

Frank Sinatra says he doubts if he will be in town for the Oscar event, in which he's favored to win the supporting actor's award. "I'm a saloon singer," he says modestly; "I've gotta go where the work is." I'll wager he'll arrange to be here, however.

Women Prove Ability as FBI Agents by Securing Red Party Lists, Data

ANGELA CALOMIRIS: A spilled purse almost tripped her.

HOUSEWIFE MARY MARKWARD with husband George and daughter: A columnist's report gave her a harrowing time.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON (NEA)—A housewife, a photographer, a model and a grandmother proved to the FBI that American women are courageous and clever enough to do really effective undercover counterspy work.

Women are included in hazardous undercover activity when it became apparent that the Communist Party's activity in the U. S. was so broad and integrated that there were many facets of its treacherous operations they could infiltrate easier than men.

Angela Calmoiris, a small, dark and vivacious professional photographer, did her work in New York. So did Mariane Kowall, a model and daughter of movie actor Barton MacLane. Their reports to the FBI frequently contained each other's name.

Bereniece Baldwin, a grandmother who's now a stenographer for the Army's Ordnance District in Detroit, supplied invaluable information about the CP's concentrated activities in the vital defense industries of the motor city.

Mary Markward, now a Washington suburban housewife, worked in a beauty parlor in 1943 when the FBI asked her to join the Party for them.

Because of the party's willingness to turn over much of its routine clerical and bookkeeping work to its women members, all four of these women and others, were able to lay hands on huge quantities of official records.

These included membership and mailing lists, dues records and other detailed financial information.

They were also able to expose the party's efforts to subvert women's groups in the U. S. But it was not all accomplished without strain and danger.

The most harrowing experience pretty, petite Mary Markward had was when she was one of only three persons in Washington who knew about a meeting of top party workers which was going to be held at the Willard Hotel.

Two days later when a columnist (Editor's Note: Walter Winchell) reported the details of the meeting she was sure her number was up. Party heads grilled her about it for hours before she convinced them she had nothing to do with the leak, which, of course was true.

Mrs. Markward has been able to name more than 200 top party members in the Washington area before the House Un-American Activities Committee, expose the activities of 18 Commie fronts operating in the area, and be a key witness in a Baltimore trial of the six top Maryland Commies, which found them guilty under the Smith Act.

She has won a citation from the American Legion for her work.

Miss Calomiris was driving a group of Party big-shots home from a top secret meeting. Her purse, full of notes for her FBI report, fell off her lap and spilled open on the car floor. The Party leader sitting next to her obligingly stuffed them all back and put the purse on Angela's lap.

"If he had read just one word I'd never have gotten home that night," she admits now.

Another night Angela and a male Party member were working at headquarters mimeographing circulars.

When he stepped out for a moment she quickly opened a file containing a membership list of an important newly-formed front she had been trying to lay her hands on for weeks.

Apparently it was a trap because her companion returned almost instantly, giving Angela only time to stick the list under the stack of papers being mimeographed. As the printing continued they got closer to the list. She was getting frightened.

But when only one sheet covered the list he said, "C'mon, Angela, let's get a beer." She never enjoyed one more in her life, she says.

Miss Calomiris received the Freedom Foundation Medal of Honor in a presentation by Gen. Omar Bradley.

Another discovery these women made was the complete sham behind the Party's promise to give women greater freedom. They learned that woman's reward is nothing but a succession of the most difficulty, dirty, routine chores.

For instance, all four of these women were forced to hawk the Party's Daily Worker. Those they couldn't sell, they had to pay for.

The Daily Worker showed its gratitude for all the papers Mrs. Kowall sold by branding her a "Glamour Stookie" when her role was revealed.

Top State Preps Battle for Title Round Spots

By BILL MARTIN and JACK SAYLOR

Pontiac High's basketball team, which became accustomed to the underdog's role during the regular season, finds itself cast in the part again tonight.

Quarter-final competition in the state high school tournament tonight brings the Chiefs face-to-face with Highland Park, unbeaten and virtually untested in 15 regular games and three regional tournament contests.

The PHS-Highland Park clash, at Birmingham at 7:30 p.m., is one of four Class A quarter-final games scheduled. Other tilts match Flint Northern and Lansing Sexton in Pontiac High's gymnasium, Dearborn - Fordson and Jackson at Adrian College, and Muskegon Heights and Kalamazoo at Grand Rapids.

Chiefs are more familiar with the Birmingham court than are their Detroit suburban foes. Pontiac won the regional title there last week, averaging 52 points in winning three games. Parkers have not visited the big gymnasium since last year's quarter-finals.

Pontiac got a good look at the Polar Bears' potent offense in February, when they absorbed a 63-30 beating to become the 10th victim in the Highland Park winning streak. Parkers didn't see much of the Pontiac attack, since it was practically non-existent in that particular game. Chiefs collected only eight field goals, six of them coming on long set shots by Bob Johnston.

Coach Jim Wink's squad is wise in the ways of tournament play. Parkers' two stars, George Lee and George Duncan, were regulars on the 1952 state championship team and several other players were members of the team that reached the semifinals last year.

Pontiac Coach Art Van Ryzin has changed his starting lineup in order to gain additional height in his front line. At the forwards will be Dave Ballard (6-4) and Marv Caswell (6-1), while John James (6-3) will start at center. Bob Johnston and Walt Poe will be at their regular guard slots.

A capacity crowd is expected in the Birmingham gym, which accommodates nearly 4,000 spectators. Tickets will go on sale at the gym ticket office at 6 p.m.

Ticket manager Bob Beauchamp also is anticipating a full house in the PHS gym for the 3rd meeting of Lansing Sexton and Flint Northern.

The Sexton band is coming along with three busloads of students, while four busloads will make the short trip from Flint. Tickets for this game go on sale at the door at 5 p.m.

Sexton has beaten the Saginaw Valley League champs twice this season, but was hard-pressed on both occasions. Scores were 48-44 and 70-67. Northern has since lost guard Charles Teaberry (6-2) by graduation and Sexton is without forward Clyde Acre (6-2½). He was removed from the squad for disciplinary reasons.

"Flint will be weaker without Teaberry," Sexton coach Cecil Nickel said Tuesday. "But the game is bound to be close."

Viking mentor Carl Stelter is hoping the 3rd time may be the charm for his cagers. "Sexton is a rough ball club," says Stelter. "They rebound well and shoot from outside, but we'll be ready."

Big Reds, who specialize in ball control offense and zone defense, have won 19 straight games. They have captured 39 of their last 40 starts, losing only in last year's finals to Fordson.

Northern's record is 14-3. Vikings prefer to fast break when possible and combine zone with man-to-man defense. Both teams are rangy.

Stelter's starters will include center Clarence Elliot (6-4), forwards Art Johnson (6-2) and Steve Boros (6-foot), and guards Bob Failing and Frank Manley, both 6-footers.

Nickel will have Art Gowens and Chet Russell (both 6-2) at the forwards and Bill Cunningham (6-3) at center. Guards Neil Nickel (the coach's son) and Pat May are 5-10.

Nickel came through with some timely scoring that boosted the Big Reds past Lansing Eastern and Traverse City in the regionals. Gowens is the team's leading scorer. He is only 18 points shy of the school record of 330 set last year by all-stater Tom Klewicki.

Gowen's topped Klewicki's regular season mark by hooping 264 points during the regular season. His overall total now stands at 312.

Utica-St. John's game, set for Flint's IMA floor at 8:30, may well be decided in the pivot. Gordon Rogers, Utica's 6-4 center, will be opposed by Doug Knight, the Red Wings' 6-3 all-stater.

St. Johns has an impressive 16-2 record, while the defensive-minded Chieftains have won 14 and lost 5.

Tonight's winners journey to Lansing and East Lansing Friday night for semifinal games, with the survivors then playing for the coveted state championship trophies Saturday afternoon and evening.

Awaits Masters

Bob Jones Observes 52nd Birthday Today

ATLANTA (UP — Bobby Jones quietly celebrated his 52nd birthday today and looked forward to attending as a spectator the only big golf tournament he never won — the Masters.

While the famed emperor of the links collected all the golfing chips during his hey-day in the roaring twenties — the Augusta, Ga., Masters, the tournament he fathered, always escaped him.

Actually, Jones never went after the Masters title during his days of "serious" golf. The famed tournament of champions was not started until 1934, four years after Bobby had retired from tournament golf.

After he retired, Jones and a group of friends formed the Augusta National Club and designed the golf course with the idea of making it the toughest possible test for an annual tournament of top golfers.

Lure of winning his own tournament was great enough to bring Jones out of retirement once a year, but not quite great enough to put the modest amateur back in the thick of competition.

Jones, who climaxed a sensational career in 1930 by winning the U. S. and British Amateur and Open championships to claim the one-and-only "grand-slam" of golf, made his only really serious try for the Masters title in 1934.

Despite a four-year lay-off from tournament play, Jones finished 14th in the 1934 tournament.

Jones, now a prosperous lawyer here, says he got in enough golf during his playing days and that "I'm satisfied with my average."

'Keed' Feels Sorry for Bobo

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP) — You get the impression that Kid Gavilan, probably the best fighter in the world, pound for pound, feels a little sorry for Bobo Olson, because Bobo has to fight him.

"He's a nice fellow," said the Kid in arriving in Chicago last night for a two-day round of ceremonies, "I have no hard feelings for him.

"I'm gonna lick him, though. I'm real fighter, you know, Bobo, I think he punches not very good."

The Cuban Kid, already welterweight champion, goes after Olson's middleweight crown in a Chicago Stadium bout April 2.

Gavilan made a point of explaining to reporters why Olson has to take a licking.

"I can beat all those middleweights," he declared. "I already beat a lot of them. Sometimes I weigh 10 pounds lower, too. Now I weigh heavy — 154. So much better.

"I'm underdog? Good. Second time we fight, I be topdog.

"How I fight him. Don't know. I know the first round. After that, easy.

"I've seen him fight. He comes in all the time. So much the better. I look good. I hit him six, seven times every time he comes near. Saves me trouble going to him.

"He won't hurt me. He's not a strong boy."

Having explained all this, Gavilan hastened to tell his listeners that there was nothing personal in it.

"It's like this," he said. "In a sport you have no bad feeling. Two men want to fight each other, it's all right. I try hard. He try hard. No reason for hard feeling."

The kid made the trip from his Chatham, N. J., training camp to (A) receive an award at the University of Notre Dame tonight as "the man who has done the most for boxing in the past year," and (B) appear with Olson at the formal contract-signing luncheon Thursday.

The flashy welter champ believes that champions are on display outside the ring as well as in. He stepped off an American airlines plane wearing a snappy tweed topcoat and a snap-brimmed hat. Underneath was a yellow checkered vest, yellow shirt, black and white striped tie, a powder blue sport coat and light gray slacks.

He was concerned about high taxes: "People see I make 20 thousand, 50 thousand, hundred thousand, maybe more, when I fight. They don't know how much goes to Uncle Sam. I'm in number five bracket. I make a hundred bucks, 75 goes to Uncle Sam."

He also displayed a little bauble he designed and had made for himself. It's a glittering diamond-studded gold bracelet. "Cost eighteen hundred dollars," said the Kid.

Three-Time 'A' Champion Kalamazoo on Move Again

By LLOYD NORTHARD

DETROIT (UP) — "Beware of Kalamazoo," was the cry today as the state high school basketball tournament rolled into the quarter-final round.

Coach Bob Quiring's Kalamazoo quintet, which made tournament history by winning three consecutive Class A titles starting in 1949, is on the move again.

Kalamazoo battles once-beaten Muskegon Heights tonight in one of 16 quarter-final matches throughout the state. Survivors advance to Friday's semi finals and champions in the four classes, A through D, will be crowned the following day.

While Kalamazoo's record shows four losses during the regular season, there's no reason to discount the Maroons as a definite threat. Quiring has a talent for bringing Kalamazoo to its peak at tournament time. He proved that during the marches to three straight championships.

Quiring got a scare when Dave Telfer, his 6 foot 6 center, twisted an ankle in the first round of regional play. However, Telfer has shaken off the injury.

Hogan Appears in Pro-Am Test

Ben Highlights Field of Leading Links Stars at Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UP)—Ben Hogan makes one of his infrequent tournament appearances today when he heads a field of 276 professional and amateur golfers competing in a special, one-day golf tournament over the Bay-wide Normandy Isle course.

Hogan came by plane from Texas to play in the pro-amateur event, in which each of 69 pros will team with three amateurs in best-ball competition. But he will not play in the Miami Beach Four-Ball tournament which opens here Thursday.

Hogan drew as his partners amateurs Walter Olson of Chicago, J. Bradley Streit of Miami, and J. H. Buchanan of Miami. The amateurs have a combined handicap of 34 strokes, so their pairing with "Bantam Ben" makes tham strong contenders for the title.

Among other star pros entered are Sam Snead, Lew Worsham, Cary Middlecoff, Jack Burke, Fred Haas, Jim Ferrier, Tommy Bolt, Walter Burkemo, Dutch Harrison and Doug Ford.

Middlecoff drew as one of his partners the Duke of Windsor, an 18-stroke handicap player who reportedly is ailing with a cold.

Pontiac Cager Leads National JC Champions

-Dick Warren Standout on Moberly's Tourney Winning Team

A Pontiac boy sparked Moberly, Mo., Junior College to the national championship of the Junior College Basketball Tournament at Kansas City last week.

Dick Warren, a former YMCA and city league cager, gained JC All-America recognition for his work in the week-long tourney.

He scored 35 points as Moberly hurdled Centralia, Ill., and Campbell, N. C. Team then defeated Lon Morris of Texas, 75-73 in the semifinals, and won the title in an overtime game with Snow College of Ephraim, Utah, 55-49.

Warren is a Pontiac High School graduate, but never played high school basketball. He was a member of the YMCA state championship team and also campaigned with General Motors in Class A.

At 6-8, Warren was the tallest player in the JC tournament. He scored 34 points against St. Joseph's in one regular season contest. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max' R. Warren, 88 Edison, Pontiac.

Power-Packed Prep Field in Action Tonight

Class D Mass Is Listed as Scoringest Squad in Quarter-Finals

By JOE FALLS

Associated Press Sports Writer

One of the strongest fields in MHSAA history goes into tonight's quarter-finals of the state high school basketball tournament. The 32 survivors have won a total of 536 games while dropping only 116 —for a sparkling winning percentage of .882.

Only one team—Pontiac—has a losing record. Chiefs have an 8-10 mark and, ironically, they'll meet perhaps the strongest team in the state, Highland Park, winner of 17 straight games.

Statistically, only one team has a better record than Highland Park. That's unbeaten Lansing Sexton, which has won all 19 starts.

But the Big Reds of Coach Cecil Nickel will have to go all out tonight to make it No. 20. They go against title-minded Flint Northern, a five-time Class A champion which has compiled a 15-3 record this season.

During the regular season, Lansing Sexton downed Flint Northern on two occasions—but only by three and four points. One game, in fact, went into overtime. Tonight's game is rated a tossup.

State's leading point-producer was Mass, from Class D in the Upper Peninsula. But the Rockets also have given up the most points of any team. They've scored 1,551 points and have yielded 1,324.

Detroit All Saints, also in Class D, boasts the best defensive mark. Saints have allowed an average of only 28 points per game for their 21 games.

All Saints which last year won 24 straight, then lost in the championship game, meets Diamondale. Mass, meanwhile, goes against Ellsworth, which, incidentally, is expected to win.

Holland Christian, which looks like a strong bet to go all the way in Class B, plays Grand Ledge. Lansing St. Mary, a Class C power, tangles with Scottville in what probably will be one of the best games of the night.

The 16 survivors will advance to the semifinals, to be held in East Lansing and Lansing Friday night. Finals are scheduled for Saturday afternoon and evening in Michigan State College's Jenison Fieldhouse.

Not Yet Spring, but Golfer Bags Year's 1st Ace

Sports devotees have a way of ignoring the calendar. And Lyneer Spees, Pontiac golfer proved the truth of the remark yesterday, at Indianwood Country Club.

Playing in an early season threesome, Spees banged a No. 3 wood shot from the 13th tee at the Lake Orion course, and when the trio arrived on the green to look for the ball, there it was — sure — right in the little tin cup!

Spees' ace was the first of the season in this area. Lynn had an even 80 for the round. His companions, and witnesses of the ace were Pontiac's Al Moreau and Dick DeWitt.

They reported the course in unexpectedly good condition, with just a little snow remaining in isolated spots.

Bradley, LaSalle Slight Favorites in NCAA Semis

USC, Penn State Cast in Underdog Roles for Kansas City Tourney

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS) — The National Collegiate basketball championship will be at stake next Friday and Saturday nights when four survivors of regional tournaments battle at Kansas City.

Bradley University meets the University of Southern California in one of two semifinal games on Friday night and La Salle opposes Penn State in another.

Bradley beat USC in a regular season game and is a slight favorite to repeat against the Pacific Coast Conference champion.

La Salle is given an edge over Penn State in the clash of eastern rivals.

Semifinals winners will fight for the title on Saturday night.

Penn State's zone defense and balanced attack looked impressive overcoming Notre Dame last week and might surprise La Salle.

Finals will be telecast nationally.

The NCAA football TV committee will meet Saturday and Sunday to put final touches on a controlled program that will be submitted to a mail vote of members later.

Basketball Olympic committee will meet on Monday.

City Leaguers to Enter Three Cage Tourneys

Jewelers to Compete in MRA Test March 19 at Flint

Pairings were announced today for three tournaments involving Pontiac City League basketball teams.

Shaw's Jewelers, Class A champions, will meet Waterford Recreation League titlist Clarkston Merchants in 1st-round play at the MRA district test at Flint on March 19.

Other teams in the single-game elimination test will represent Marysville, Mt. Clemens and Flint. Winner will advance to the state finals at Battle Creek March 26-27, along with winners from six other district sites.

Pontiac Merchants, winners in the city's Class B playoffs, will compete in the Inter-City Recreation meet March 22-25 at Hackett Fieldhouse in Highland Park. Merchants meet Wyandotte in 1st-round action at 8 p.m. March 22. Also in the test are teams from Dearborn, Plymouth, Hamtramck, Detroit, River Rouge, Highland Park and Hazel Park.

City's Class D champion, Junior Elks Lodge No. 723, will enter the junior division (18 years and under) of the Inter-City tournament, March 22-24 at Lasky Community Center in Detroit, Wyandotte also furnishes opening opposition for the Elks. Roseville, Detroit, Highland Park and Dearborn quintets round out the field.

Saginaw Bowlers Take 3rd Place in Pin Test

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—Only one third place standing was disturbed in the 28th annual State Women's Bowling Tournament last weekend.

Drewry's Beer and Ale team of Saginaw took over third place in the team events, pushing Wurm's Recreation of Detroit into fourth place. Drewry's rolled 2861.

First three places in all the other standings were intact after the attack by 300 women bowlers in the weekend play.

Don Carter Misses '300' by One Pin

CHICAGO (AP) — Don Carter of Detroit, national individual match game bowling champion, missed bowling a perfect game by one pin last night — and missed winning a 1954 automobile.

Carter, in a match with Cliff Tolle featuring a locally televised bowling series, made 11 straight strikes. Then he left the 10 pin standing for a score of 299. The prize for a 300 game is a 1954 automobile.

Jeffries' Possessions Are Sold at Auction

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — All personal effects of the late James J. Jeffries have been sold under the auctioneer's hammer.

There were 300 men and women at the sale Monday when the memorabilia of the former heavyweight champion, who died a year ago at the age of 77, went to the highest bidders.

One of the champ's high silk hats went for $17. A grand piano on which Paderewski once played, big Jim's 7x7-foot four poster bed, 18 oriental rugs, carved marble pieces, a hand-carved gold leaf and brocade parlor set, gold leaf marble top tables and numerous pieces of furniture were bid in.

U.S. Cage Coaches Plan Study of Rules

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The men who teach basketball in the nation's colleges assemble here today and the No. 1 problem on their schedule is what to do about the rules of the game.

The three-day annual convention of the National Basketball coaches' Association formally opens tomorrow.

The coaches don't make the rules. They make suggestions to the National Rules committee. This body has a meeting here this weekend.

Olson Confident He'll Retain Title April 2

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Middleweight boxing champion Carl (Bobo) Olson left last night for Chicago, confident he will keep his title in his April 2 bout with Kid Gavilan.

Olson said he doesn't fear Gavilan, the welterweight champ, who "doesn't punch as hard as Sugar Ray Robinson." Bobo said he'll be fighting three minutes every round, as usual, and won't let Gavilan "coast 2½ minutes, then flurry the last 30 seconds to win the judge's eye."

Michigan Boat Third in Annual Gulf Race

HAVANA, Cuba (UP)—The 55-foot Hilaria, a yawl owned by Hugh Schedlee of Holland, Mich., captured third place honors in the 21st annual St. Petersburg-to-Havana yacht race.

Officials announced corrected times Tuesday as 32 boats which took part in the 284-mile race were moored in the Havana harbor.

Baltimore Buys Eddie Waitkus

Ex-Phillies' Infielder Will Replace Injured Kryhoski at 1st

YUMA, Ariz. (UP)—First-baseman Eddie Waitkus was assured today that he'll get plenty of work with the Baltimore Orioles — in contrast to his "scrubeenie" status with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Only a few hours after the Orioles purchased him in a waiver deal, Waitkus was left as Baltimore's only able-bodied first sacker when Dick Kryhoski suffered a fractured wrist. It was estimated that Kryhoski would be sidelined "at least four weeks."

Waitkus hit .291 in 81 games for the Phillies last season. Although a steady hitter and good fielder, Waitkus does not hit with power and could not beat out long-ball hitting Earl Torgeson for the regular job.

Outfielder Carlos Bernier of the Pittsburgh Pirates was born in Juan Diaz, Puerto Rico. He now lives in Mayaguez, P. R.

Pendleton, Aaron Tabbed

Braves Not Too Concerned Over Loss of Thomson, Feel Subs Are Capable

By GAYLE TALBOT

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Considering the extent of their loss, Manager Charlie Grimm and owner Lou Perini of the Milwaukee Braves are taking Boby Thomson's broken ankle with greater calm than might have been expected. They say it was tough luck, yes, but neither concedes that the temporary loss of their new outfield star is a body blow to their chances of beating Brooklyn out in the National League race.

• • •

The bench strength added by the club since last season will make it possible for him to stay in the battle for the six weeks he expects to be without the services of the Flying Scot, Grimm firmly believes.

"Sure, we'll miss him," he said. "Any team would miss such a player. But the outfielder who takes his place—say that it's Jim Pendleton—isn't going to hurt us. Pendleton played a lot of fine ball for me last year, and there are a couple of other good ones too. Then, when Thomson is ready to play again, we'll have him too. That's the way to look at it."

The player who will be given a chance to benefit most spectacularly frotm Thomson's bad luck appears to be Henry Aaron, a 20-year-old Negro batting sensation who has not yet played higher than class-A ball and is not even on the official Milwaukee roster.

Playing only his second year of pro ball, the youngster from Mobile hit .362 for Jacksonville last season and was named the Most Valuable Player in the South Atlantic League. He led the league in every hitting department except triples and home runs, and he was runner-up in those.

It's Time Out!

"Okay, he made lousy time—settle that after the race!"

Toots Shor Ranks Willie Mays, Jim Piersall With All-Time Greats, Speaker, Moore, DiMaggio in Field

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—Every now and then you run into an observation from a fellow who is not supposed to be an expert—but who is. Such a person is Toots Shor, who also surrounds and harbors athletes as a sideline.

• • •

"Did you ever stop and figure," Mr. Shor said, "how much better chance Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle would have had with the experiences two or three years of good minor-league play gives a ballplayer. That could have been terribly important. Both came in so young and so untrained—before they were 20.

• • •

"Take the case of Joe DiMaggio. Joe came to the Yankees in 1936 when he was 22 years old. Before that he had played three years with San Francisco. He had the three-year training a strong minor-league club can give. He played under Lefty O'Doul, one of the smartest men in baseball.

"Mays and Mantle were comparatively raw in this respect. Willie played a few games with Trenton and a few games with Minneapolis before the Giants called him in. Mantle played a season with Joplin before the Yankees grabbed him. Both Mantle and Mays had little minor-league training before they hit the big spot.

"I've been looking at baseball a long time. Mantle is very good, but Mickey hasn't the coordination the reflexes, that Mays has. Willie is a phenomenon of the highest rank. The first time I saw him play as a kid under 20 he seemed to know exactly what to do. He went to the right spot and turned at the right spot.

• • •

"I see where Leo Durocher says that Terry Moore and DiMaggio are the only outfielders he has seen who are close to Mays defensively. He thinks Willie may be better than both at some things.

"I'll tell you another who is in anybody's class. His name is Jim Piersall of the Red Sox." Mays and Piersall are certainly two of the greatest defensive stars baseball has ever know. They rank with Tris Speaker and Terry Moore and Joe DiMaggio at their best.

Kuenn's Wrist Injury Diagnosed as 'Bad Bruise'

Harvey Hit by 'Duster' From Yankees' Byrd

Tigers Top Champions, 5-3, as Donovan and Herbert Pitch Well

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Harvey Kuenn, brilliant young shortstop of the Detroit Tigers, will be out of action for only a few days as a result of being hit in the wrist with a pitched ball.

But for a time it appeared the "jinx" of Al Lang field had struck him down for the second straight year.

Kuenn was hit in the left wrist yesterday by a ball thrown by Harry Byrd, righthander of the New York Yankees. He was trying to ward off a rising fast ball.

The 23-year-old infielder — a $55,000 bonus investment — was taken to the hospital, where, fortunately, x-rays disclosed only a "bad bruise." There was no fracture.

The incident infuriated Tiger manager Fred Hutchinson, who can illafford to lose any of his players, especially Kuenn. He exchanged hot words with Byrd who shouted to the Detroit manager: "You get a bat and get up there."

Hutchinson probably remembered back to last year at Al Lang field in St. Petersburg when Kuenn suffered a sprained ankle and was lost to the Tigers for several weeks.

Virtually lost in the rumpus was the Tigers' 5-3 victory over the Yankees, plus another fine pitching performance by righthander Dick Donovan of the Tigers.

Donovan worked the first five innings against the world champions, allowing only five hits and leaving with a 2-2 tie. All told, he has now pitched 13 innings, yielding only seven hits and three runs.

Ray Herbert, who also has done well so far, hurled the last four innings and gained the victory when Detroit scored three times in the ninth inning. He gave up four hits in four innings, and the only run he allowed came in the ninth on a meaningless home run by Bill Skowron.

Singles by Walt Dropo, Bill Tuttle and Matt Batts filled the bases for the Tigers in the ninth. One run scored when Andy Carey, Yankee third baseman, kicked Herbert's grounder for an error.

Two more scooted home on Frank Bolling's single to left — his third hit of the game.

Tigers go back to meeting National League competition today, facing the Cincinnati Reds. Detroit's training record now is 4-5.

DEJECTED KUENN—A dejected Harvey Kuenn, Detroit Tiger shortstop, sits on the training table as Tiger trainer Jack Homel applies ice packs to his wrist. Kuenn was struck by a ball thrown by New York Yankee pitcher, Harry Byrd, as he batted in the 5th inning of Tuesday's exhibition game at St. Petersburg, Fla. He will be out for several days.

In eight seasons as head football coach at the University of Kentucky, Paul Bryant won 60 games, lost 23 and tied five.

Qualifying Play Starts in N-S

Mary Lena Faulk Among Favorites in Women's Amateur Test

PINEHURST, N. C. (UP)—National Amateur champion Mary Lena Faulk headed a field of 90 teeing off today in the qualifying round of the 54th annual Women's North and South Amateur Golf championship.

Today's 18-hole circuit will pare the field down to 32 for the start of match play tomorrow.

Miss Faulk did not submit her entry until Tuesday but immediately became one of the strong favorites for the title. The Thomasville, Ga., lass finished runner-up in this tournament last year to Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., who has since turned professional.

Among the tourney veterans entered are Carol Diringer of Tiffin, O., Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., Mae Murray Jones of Montpelier, Vt., Marge Bruns of Greensboro, N. C., Jean Hopkins of Cleveland, O., Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Harold Stone of Ware Shoals, S. C.

Dick Bartell, new Cincinnati Redlegs' coach, broke into major league baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates at Cincinnati in 1927.

Back Troubles Over, Sal Maglie Looks Rough Again

PHOENIX, Ariz. (INS) — The word was out to the rest of the National League clubs today that barber Sal Maglie and his razor-sharp curve ball are on the comeback trail.

Particularly delighted by the 37-year-old righthander's spring showing for the New York Giants has been manager Leo Durocher, who announced happily:

"The Barber looks like the guy who won 23 games for us in 1951."

Maglie, vigorously applying himself to a spring get-ready program he hopes will overcome last season's pathetic 8-9 won and lost record, said that thus far he is "well satisfied."

The veteran righty from Niagara Falls, N. Y., went four innings against the Cleveland Indians the other day and allowed no runs and only two hits.

Maglie was pleased by the fact that he had his control. "And I'm following through at all times—without pain."

The Barber was referring to the bad back which plagued him last season and had a lot to do with reducing his effectiveness.

Last winter Sal made three visits a week to a Buffalo, N. Y. osteopath, who diagnosed the pitcher's troubles as a displaced pelvic bone.

The doctor realigned the pelvis and gave Maglie a lift to wear in his right shoe. Sal is now using the lift in his baseball shoe.

"The result has been remarkable," Maglie said. "I think it will make a big difference."

Chisox, Tribe, Athletics Porterfield's 'Cousins'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bob Porterfield, ace righthander of the Senators, is looking forward to hurling against Chicago, Cleveland and Philadelphia this year. In 1953 they were his "cousins."

He won 5 and lost 0 against the Indians, won 4 and lost 0 against the White Sox and won 5 and lost only 1 against the Athletics.

Bob's outstanding record for 1953 was 22 wins and 10 defeats.

Long-Range Wildlife Outlook Seems Dim

Michigan Outdoors

Fisheries Researchers Making Fine Progress

By MORT NEFF

Michigan's Institute for Fisheries Research reveals some startling progress in their projects completed during the past year. For instance, they report a new pellet form of dry meal food for hatchery fish that not only fulfills every diet need of the growing trout, but actually produces a flavor that is declared superior to that of wild trout!

NEFF

The report further states that the new dry pellet food will produce a one pound trout for about 25c—and that's really cutting the cost of hatchery living compared to past expenses.

Michigan's more than 36,000 miles of rivers and streams (half of which contain trout) are undergoing careful study, too.

The nation's most ambitious watershed improvement program centers around the Rifle River—and results may set an entirely new pattern in fish management. Added protective cover along the river has proven its value in the Rifle as well as the Pine River.

Thirty six new public fishing sites have been added, bringing the total number to 576. This all adds up to over a million feet of frontage on 390 lakes and 186 streams, assuring for all time the public right to reach these waters for recreation purposes.

Much to the consternation of "die-hard" fishing groups, laws governing fishing seasons and creel and size limits are being eyed suspiciously by the researchers, who are inclined to believe many of them unnecessary. Man is certainly not to be classed among the important enemies of fish in most instances. Predation and disease, together with starvation are far more deadly than anglers' lures.

So watch for changes in Michigan fishing laws in the not far distant future!

State Will Plant Trout in Superior

LANSING (AP) — Approximately 700,000 lake trout fry will be planted in Lake Superior in the next few weeks, the conservation department reports.

The fish were hatched this winter from eggs taken by Great Lakes commercial fishermen last fall.

Some 100,000 fry will be released at Big Traverse Bay, Portage Entry, Ontonagon, Munising and Whitefish Point. The remaining 200,000 will go into the water off Marquette.

Profitable 'Nibble'

COLUSA, Calif. (AP) — Fishing the Sacramento River from a boat, Henry Sylverson and Albert Kolm snagged a tree limb and pulled it up. Caught on the limb were 16 complete fishing outfits.

Deer Kill May Reach 90,000

Poll Returns Reveal Early Estimates May Have Been Low

LANSING (AP) — Early estimates of the 1953 deer kill may have been low, a nearly completed post-card poll of hunters showed today.

With four-fifths of the answers back from scientifically selected sampling of hunters, it appears that the computed kill may go to 90,000 deer.

First estimates were that the kill would total 70,000.

One reason for the low estimate may have been that the estimate of total license sales was low. Final license total may reach 430,000, compared to an estimated 410,000.

The post-card questionnaire was sent to 10,000 hunters, 80 per cent of whom have answered. The conservation department is busy following up the balance to complete the survey.

Flint Prepares for Annual Sports Show

What promises to be the biggest and most versatile program in the history of the Flint Sports and Boat Show is rapidly beginning to take shape in preparation for the grand opening Tuesday evening, March 23, at the I. M. A. Auditorium.

With the exhibits shaping up, the stage program also appears set. Bullard said the skating troupe, "Rhythm on Ice" will be here by the weekend to go into rehearsal with Brahm Ward and his orchestra.

In addition to "Rhythm on Ice", Ann Marston, world's woman bow and arrow champion, will appear.

Show will run from 6 to 11:30 p.m., except on the weekend when it opens at 2 p. m. Saturday and Sunday.

Influx of Waterfowl Is Expected in Michigan

LANSING — Ducks, coots and other waterfowl can be expected in a rush soon as the first flush of warm spring air lands on Michigan's southern marsh areas, conservation workers note.

The flood of waterfowl comes suddenly each year, generally in March, the birds stopping briefly in Michigan on their way to northern nesting grounds.

Airborne Fishermen

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — There's a spot in Wyoming where sportsmen-pilots can land their planes, step out and start to fish. This unique recreation area is Lake DeSmet, located just off U. S. Highway 87. At the south end of the lake is Seney Point Fishing Resort, a modern cabin camp where the 2,000 foot long airstrip is located.

Sportsmen Urged to Use Discretion in Pursuit of Hunting, Fishing Activities

By JACK PATTERSON

After listening at some length to conservationists from all over the country it's impossible not to draw some rather disturbing conclusions; for while the present wildlife picture is generally optimistic the long-range outlook is not. And the unfortunate part of the picture is this: the basic factors which tend to push wildlife toward extinction - increasing population and increased utilization and industrialization of formerly wild lands—are factors over which conservationists have little or no control.

PATTERSON

True, there are today preserves, breeding areas, public wilderness areas and the like which probably are sufficient to protect most species from the threat of extinction.

But they are inadequate to provide fish and game in numbers sufficient to permit an annual harvest, even one as limited as that allowed today, by an ever-increasing number of sportsmen.

Thus, if some measure of hunting and fishing is to endure, it's going to be up to the guy that pays the taxes, fights the country's wars, and in the final analysis does about everything that has to be done—you, the individual and the sportsman.

What can you, as an individual, do?

Well, you can perhaps do most by a little soul-searching as to the reason for hunting and fishing, and by consideration of the following two ideas.

First idea, one long overdue for discard, is that the primary aim of the hunter and fisherman is to get "something for the pot." This was once true, when America was largely a wilderness, but except in a few scattered areas wildlife today is not an important source of food.

The sportsman isn't entirely to blame for hanging on to this theory. Ammunition companies and freezer manufacturers, to name a couple, have kept the legend going.

A corrollary to this idea is that the big bag of fish or game is the mark of the expert. Nonsense. We've watched the experts skunked while rank tyros "filled." A large bag, if a sign of anything other than greed, is a sign of luck.

Second idea is one that merits a little thought. This proposes the theory that there is an ethical relationship between man and the lesser animals of the world.

Because of his dominant status as head of the animal kingdom man can exercise the privilege of preying on lesser creatures. But by virtue of his dominant position, man has a duty to recognize that other creatures have certain protectable rights, particularly the right to co-exist with man in the world.

And when it is remembered that any generation of man is transitory, tenant for a short time of this earth, and not the be-all and end-all of existance, the necessity for the proper discharge of this duty becomes more apparent.

How can these theories be applied in the field?

For the fisherman it's simple. Handicap yourself. Catch 'em the hard way. And if it's a species fighting for survival, release 'em.

The hunter's problem is harder. He can't "release" dead game. But he can pass up the easy shots, wait for a really good rack, not strive to "fill" and remember generally that it's the hunting, not the game that's important.

Schafer Retires, Puts Boats Up for Sale

DETROIT (UP) — Jack Schafer, 61, Detroit's nationally-known speedboat enthusiast, has put his boats up for sale with the announcement that he is retiring from active racing.

He disclosed Tuesday that a Detroit group is interested in buying his Such Crust III and Such Crust IV.

"I hope they take over all my equipment because I believe either of the Crusts can beat those owned by (Stan) Sayres," Schafer said.

Sayres' Slo-Mo-Shun IV and V have won the gold cup races four times. They will attempt to make it five Aug. 7 in Seattle, Wash.

2 Nights of Donkey Cage Play Slated at Avondale

Two nights of donkey basketball are planned at Avondale High School this weekend, sponsored by the athletic department, Lawrence Scharer, director.

Play both Friday and Saturday nights starts at 7:30 p. m. Free bus rides to the game for all Avondale school children are available Friday night. Busses will start pickup at 7 p. m.

Games match married women against the single girls, and men teachers at Avondale against the local businessmen.

Small Audience Will See Wild Turkey Freeing

Conservation Men Plan to Release 50 Birds in Allegan State Forest

LANSING (AP) — Only bona fide members of the press will be permitted to witness the release of 50 wild turkeys in the Allegan state forest later this month.

Game chief Harry D. Ruhl said this precaution was necessary because of the extreme skittishment of the birds. Any big audience would increase the chances of the birds killing themselves in frantic attempts to get out of crates, he said.

The birds will be shipped from Pennsylvania, where the once plentiful species have been sucessfully built up sufficient numbers to permit hunting.

The conservation commission authorized a three-year experiment, starting this year, to reintroduce the species to Michigan.

Spear Fishing Opens April 1

LANSING — Carp, suckers, redhorse, mullet, dogfish and garpike will be open to spearing in hundreds of state streams from April 1 to May 31 in the Lower Peninsula and during May in the Upper Peninsula, the conservation department reports.

The popular spring sport will be open on many trout streams and on most non-trout waters of the state. Artificial lights are permitted on most open waters, while some areas are restricted against use of lights.

Lists of waters open during the coming season may be obtained from the department's fish division at Lansing, 26. If in doubt about local streams, area conservation officers should be consulted.

All non-trout streams in Oakland County will be open to spearing.

Trout Plant Slated to Be Started Soon

Workmen at the state fish hatchery at Drayton Plains will start their regular trout planting of area streams early next month.

Plans call for the planting of trout in four streams in Oakland County, two in Washtenaw, two in Lapeer, one in Macomb and one in Shiawassee County.

Streams in Oakland County getting trout will be Trout Creek, Duck Creek, Paint Creek and the Clinton River.

Visitors at State's Parks Asked Not to Litter Area

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
Associated Press Outdoor Writer

LANSING (AP)—It won't be long now before people will be flocking by the millions into Michigan's great outdoors. And the problem of keeping the outdoors clean and picked up will be with us again.

Picknickers, fishermen, hikers and campers wil be taking full advantages of all the miracles of modern packaging services. You can get almost anything, nowadays, in a package.

Far too many people, however, don't take the trouble when they are out in the open to dispose of tin cans, paper, cardboard and plastic container, newspapers and all the rest of the refuse that can be left around.

Conservation and highway departments provide trash containers at state parks, camp grounds, roadside tables and parks and officials urge their use.

If you picnic or camp in a wild area, it is little trouble to burn what refuse you can and bury what won't burn.

All responsible officials and conservation groups urge you to help keep the outdoors looking like something other than a huge garbage dump.

Chukar Partridge Sent From Turkey

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Another 248 chukar partridge from Turkey have been received by the Arizona Game and Fish Commission. The chukar, native to the high plateau country of Iran and eastern Turkay, have been shipped to many of the western states during recent years. The birds will be released along the north shore of Apache Lake where similar releases of this semi-desert bird have been made.

Foresters in Indiana Face Lumber Problems

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The timber-proud states of the north and northwest may overlook Indiana when it comes to lumber production but the Hoosier foresters face the same problems.

Doxie Moore, Conservation Department director, says that eight new two-way radios have been installed in trucks, and 10 fire towers have been equipped with portable units to aid in fire protection.

List of Injuries Longest in Years

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Baseball's spring training season is little more than two weeks old but the list of injuries appears to be the longest in years—and still growing.

* * *

Although most of the attention has been centered on the serious injuries suffered by Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and the Milwaukee Braves' Bobby Thomson, an Associated Press survey showed today that more than two dozen athletes have been damaged in one mishap or another. Hardly a club has escaped.

Three players were added to the injured roster yesterday.

Harvey Kuenn, the Detroit Tigers shortstop who won American League Rookie of the Year honors in 1953, suffered a badly bruised left wrist at Al Lang Field here when he threw up his arm to protect his head against a close pitch thrown by Harry Byrd of the New York Yankees. A few innings earlier the Yanks' Hank Bauer turned his ankle running out an infield grounder. Both will be out several days.

* * *

The injury epidemic here started Saturday when Thomson fractured his ankle sliding into second base. He'll be out two or three months.

The next day Bill Miller, Yankee left-hander, was hit on his pitching hand by a line drive for his second injury of the season. On Monday it was Ken Raffensberger, veteran Cincinnati Redlegs southpaw, who sprained his right ankle when he stepped on a loose ball in the outfield.

Also injured yesterday was center fielder Bill Bruton of Milwaukee, who also sprained his ankle after stepping into a hole in the outfield at Tampa. He hurt the same ankle March 7 sliding.

Jim Piersall of the Red Sox also has been injured twice. His latest came Monday when he bruised his hip crashing into a wall while going after a long fly.

Actually, the injury jinx got in its first licks even before Williams fractured his left collarbone after only 18 minutes of practice March 1, the official opening day of spring training.

* * *

The St. Louis Cardinals, running a pretraining session at Deland, Fla., so Manager Eddie Stanky could appraise his newcomers, thought twice about the project after two $100,000 purchases were injured. First, shortstop Alex Grammas strained a muscle in his throwing arm, then Tom Alston, a first base candidate, came up with a bad back.

Bob Porterfield of the Washington Senators was felled by a line drive Feb. 27 but suffered no ill effects.

Dick Kryhoski, Baltimore Orioles first baseman, was not so lucky when he was hit on the left wrist by a pitched ball against the New York Giants Monday. X-rays disclosed a fracture, which will keep him out of action four to six weeks.

* * *

Ed Fitzgerald, Washington catcher, was sidelined two weeks after a foul tip fractured the index finger of his right hand.

The Chicago White Sox got most of their misery March 11 when Jim Rivera bruised his chest and leg running into a wall. Carl Sawatski was hit by a pitched ball and Johnny Groth came down with appendicitis. The first two were idle only a few days, but Groth's sickness meant a month on the sidelines.

* * *

New Marks Brought Selvy Basketballs

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP) —Furman's Frank Selvy who has shattered 22 major college basketball scoring records this season has picked up quite a few basketballs as a result.

In one week he received three.

On a Monday after Furman's victory over Clemson when Selvy broke the three-year major college scoring record, he was given the game ball.

On Thursday Selvy scored 42 points in Madison Square Garden against Manhattan. Again he was given the game ball.

And on Saturday at Philadelphia's Convention Hall he was given the game ball after scoring 40 points against La Salle.

CASE—Shoulder Check.

To Hold Strike Line—Invariably the changeover from a straight ball to a hook brings "nose" trouble. That means hitting the head pin too fully. And that, in turn, means splits, poor counts, poor scoring.

To hold the right side of the head pin—the strike line—concentrate on checking the right shoulder.

Don't over-turn (see sketch), which one does in trying to create unnatural speed, or for fear of missing the head pin.

Probably the surest way to avoid a forced shoulder turn is to reduce footwork to a walk, all the way, allowing the ball to swing back easily, loosely, and in a pendulum arc.

Practice a finishing slide and you'll find the braced left leg will give you body balance at the line, and will check the right shoulder; will hold it back.

Pro Golf's Summer Tour Will Be Worth $525,000

CHICAGO (AP)—Professional golfers this year will be chasing down the fairways after the game's richest summer purse, an expected $525,000 accruing from some 23 tournaments.

Professional Golfers' Assn. of America today released its 1954 summer schedule which actually lists 19 tournaments valued at approximately $475,000.

However, four more meets are being negotiated and the grand prize total is expected to top by $25,000 the previous record high of $500,000, also for 23 tourneys last summer.

Again golf's richest meet, the $100,000 "World Championship," will be held at Tam O'Shanter, Niles, Ill., on Aug. 12-15.

United States Open, carrying $20,000 in prizes and prestige to burn, is booked June 17-19 at famed Baltusrol, Springfield, N. J.

Golf's most exhaustive test, 36th annual PGA championship, worth a minimum of $30,000, will be held at Keller Golf Course, St. Paul, Minn., July 21-27.

Michigan's big tourney of the year will be the Motor City Invitational, to be held July 1-4 at Meadowbrook Country Club at Northville. A $17,500 purse is provided.

Irish Matman on St. Pat's Day Card Here

A special St. Patrick's day mat card will be offered to wrestling fans tonight at the Pontiac Armory, starting at 8:30.

However, the only Irishman on the card is Irish Sampson, of Dublin, Ireland, who will meet Canadian roughhouse artist Stan Holeck.

Sampson wil lbe overshadowed by the 7-foot "Mighty Goliath," who meets Hassen Bey, of Turkey, in the other main event. One other bout will complete the card.

Goliath was a starred performer in the motion picture "David and Bathsheba." He weighs 325 pounds.

Johnson Favored

CHICAGO (INS) — Harold Johnson, rated number one challenger among the nation's light heavyweights, is a 3 to 1 favorite over Paul Andrews, Buffalo, N. Y., youngster, in their 10-round bout at the Chicago Stadium tonight.

The bout is being televised nationally.

Gronik Meets Bronko

LANSING (AP) — Allie Gronik of Lincoln Park, dubbed "the people's choice" because of his crowd-pleasing, wide-swinging style, will defend his state welterweight title here Thursday night.

Gronik, veteran campaigner, will meet Henry Bronko of Jackson in the feature bout of a card arranged by the Capital City Sporting Club.

Sawchuk Loses Edge in Race for NHL Prize

Bruins Trip Wings in Boston While Leafs' Lumley Is Idle

BOSTON (UP) — Detroit Red Wings' losing streak today stood at three games — longest of the season — but nobody seemed overly concerned about it except goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Wings have clinched their sixth straight National Hockey League championship but Sawchuk is still battling for individual honors—and money.

He's engaged in a hot duel with Toronto's Harry Lumley for the Vezina Trophy, and the $1,000 award that goes with it. It is annually given to the goalie who plays the most games on the team which allows the fewest goals.

So Sawchuk wasn't any too happy when the Wings dropped a 4-2 decision last night to the Boston Bruins, who clinched a playoff berth with the victory.

It cost the Red Wing goalie his lead on Lumley. Red Wings have given up 122 goals this season compared to 119 for Toronto. Each team has three games left to go—including the season's finale Sunday in Detroit's Olympia Stadium.

Boston buzzed to a four-goal lead before Detroit could salvage two meaningless third-period goals by Johnny Wilson and Alex Delvecchio.

Veteran Milt Schmidt shot the Bruins into a 1-0 lead in the first period, counting his 225th big league goal. Leo Labine and Johnny Pierson boosted it to 3-0 in the second period and Dave Creighton closed out Boston's scoring early in the final period.

The teams will meet Thursday night in Detroit.

Ontario to Get New 'Super-Fish' in Near Future

TORONTO (UP)—A new "super" fish will soon be introdued to suitable Ontario waters, the Ontario legislature's lands and forests committee has been informed.

The fish, a cross between the pike and the muskellunge, will combine the best features of both game fish, Dr. W. J. Harkness, head of the fish and wild life division of the Department of Lands and Forests, said.

The division also has originated a cross between the lake and speckled trout and has already introduced it to six lakes in the province. Dr. Harkness said the new fish does not go to such great depths of water as the lake trout.

During the off season Sid Gordon, now of the Pittsburgh Pirates, works as a salesman in a clothing store.

NEW CITIZENS—The Hungarian partridge, a rapid-flying little game bird, may someday develop into an important wildlife species in Michigan. Conservation department wildlife workers at least hope they will and perhaps partly as a result of recent releases of the birds in the state. This series of pictures was taken to show those releases, made in the eastern upper peninsula recently. At upper left is a portrait of one of the 49 "Hunkies" received from southeastern Ontario, where the birds seem to be thriving in the wild. At upper right, an Air Force helicopter helps department workers spot good terrain west of Sault Ste. Marie in which to release the birds. Lower left shows game worker Lloyd Schemenauer banding one of the birds before release and at lower right the birds explode out of their shipping crates.

Richards Hopes Marshall Will Provide Sox Power

TAMPA, Fla. (INS) — Chicago White Sox manager Paul Richards said today that he is depending on 33-year-old Willard Marshall to provide "the long ball hitter" the club has missed in its outfield.

Marshall—with three National League clubs before coming to the Sox in a four-player deal—hit 17 homers for Cincinnati last season in 122 games.

This was two more than Orestes Minoso hit for the Pale Hose—as the leading home run producer on the 1953 club.

Richards said he is planning to use Marshall in right field, and added:

"Marshall's home run production fell off last season from what he normally hits but he'll be a regular in my outfield and right now I haven't any other player who can match him."

Marshall will take over the post vacated by Sam Mele, traded to the Baltimore Orioles for Johnny Groth and Johnny Lipon during the winter.

Groth, once one of the most sought after high school athletes in the middle west, broke into the majors with Detroit but last year wound up with the Browns.

Paul, however, is banking on the 27-year-old Groth to "pick up some of our hitting slack." Groth proved himself in two of the four years he spent with the Tigers but had a dismal 1953 season, hitting only .253.

Spartan Baseball Team Hoping for Good Weather

EAST LANSING (UP) — The spring like weather of the past few days has Michigan State baseball coach John Kobs hoping he can get his squad outdoors for at least a few workouts in the sunshine.

MSC baseball team will leave a week from today for its annual spring southern training tour.

Cold weather and wet grounds have kept the players indoors so far. They've been alternating between Jenison fieldhouse and the livestock pavilion.

"The state high school basketball tournament is taking over the fieldhouse and a rabbit show is booting us out of the livestock arena this weekend," Kobs said, "so we're all trying to whistle up some good weather."

Since 1947 the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas has been a sellout before the identity of the competing teams was announced.

Crusaders, Irish OK Sugar Bowl Tourney

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Sugar Bowl said today that Notre Dame and Holy Cross, National Invitation Tournament champion, have accepted invitations to play in the annual Sugar Bowl basketball tournament here Dec. 29-30.

Two other teams are to be selected for the four-team tournament after basketball chairman Claude Simons returns from scouting NCAA finals at Kansas City this Friday and Saturday.

The Sugar Bowl basketball tournament is an annual affair, conducted along with the football classic, track meet, yachting, boxing and tennis in a 10-day midwinter sports marathon.

Spartans Name Ferrari Cage Captain for 1954

EAST LANSING (UP)—Al Ferrari, junior forward from New York City, has been named "most valuable" player on the Michigan State basketball team.

Ferrari was second highest scorer with 315 points this season although he was shifted from forward to guard.

A guard, Keith Stackhouse of Plymouth, Ind., was elected captain of the 1953-54 team which won nine games and lost 13 and ended eighth in Big Ten standings. Spartan teams elect captains at the close of the season.

Cotero, Rollins Draw

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Jose Lewis Cotero, 127, El Paso, Tex., and Dave Rollins, 126, Detroit, fought 10 rounds to a draw last night at Olympia.

It was a split decision, referee Frankie Van voting 55½ to 54½ for Rollins, and Judge John Thomas and Tommy Hart calling it a 55-55 draw. California scoring calls for 11 points a round.

Decision was unpopular with the crowd. Cotero landed the harder punches but Rollins more of them. The boys fought before, Rollins gaining a close decision.

Brooklyn Keeps Its Hot Streak Alive, However

Furillo and Robinson Find Chilly Weather Hurts Training

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're having a cold wave in normally sunny Florida these days, but that isn't preventing the slow-starting Brooklyn Dodgers from keeping their hot winning streak going.

The Dodgers now have won seven straight exhibition games after dropping their first three.

* * *

While members of the Chamber of Commerce went around smashing thermometers, Walter Alston's men edged the Washington Senators 3-2 yesterday before some 5,000 top-coated spectators. Brooklyn took a three-run lead in the third inning and that was enough to offset a two-run rally by the Nats in the seventh.

* * *

Still, the Dodger players are having their troubles and they claim it's all because of the weather.

Outfielder Carl Furillo, the National League's batting champion last year isn't swinging anything like his powerful self and realized it.

"I just can't seem to get loose," he moaned. "My back and shoulders are tighter than a drum. When is it gonna warm up?"

Jackie Robinson, who sat out the last two games with a stiff knee, isn't taking any chances on aggravating the condition during the cold spell.

"This weather is brutal," he said. "How can you get ready?"

Washington Manager Bucky Harris also had some nasty things to say about it. His Senators have lost seven games in a row.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, aided by Hal Rice's fifth-inning homer, defeated the Boston Red Sox 2-1 before only 582 chilled spectators.

* * *

Only 500 fans saw the Cincinnati Redlegs pound out an 8-4 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Held to two runs in six innings by Warren Spahn, the Chicago White Sox scored three times in each of the seventh and eighth frames to defeat the Milwaukee Braves 8-3.

* * *

Bobby Young's two-run homer in the eighth enabled the Baltimore Orioles to outslug the Cleveland Indians 9-8.

The St. Louis Cardinals belted Bubba Church for seven runs in the third to score their fourth straight triumph over the Chicago Cubs 9-7.

The White Sox "B" team nipped the Cincinnati scrubs 3-2.

BEGINNER'S LUCK—This 755-pound silver marlin caught in the Panama Bay area breaks Zane Grey's 23-year-old record by 74 pounds. It is the first of the species taken by Ralph Dugan Jr. of Gatun, Canal Zone.

Four Top-Seeded Teams Start AAU Cage Action

DENVER (UP)—Peoria's two-time champions and the three other top-seeded teams — Phillips, Denver and Akron—got into the 47th annual AAU basketball tournament today.

All appear to have easy touches in a seven-game schedule which trims the field for tomorrow's quarter-finals by overcoming Milwaukee Allen-Bradley, 72-65, last night.

Hal Boyle Says:

Age 43 Is Hard to Take but Future Still Interesting

ABOARD THE MAURETANIA (AP)—A sea cruise is the best way in the world today to cure yourself of land sickness, the 'gee I'd like to get away from it all' feeling.

On a ship you can get away from practically everything that bothers you, but you can't sail away from time.

* * *

Ever since my 42nd birthday I've had a sinking feeling that, sooner or later, I'd be 43. And sure enough it happened just a few days ago, somwhere in the Caribbean.

* * *

I dreamed that old Father Time grabbed me by the forelock (or what is left of my forelock) and his gray voice wheezed in my ear:

"Tag again, kid. You're it. You're 43. Did you think you'd get away this year?"

Then I awoke and heard my wife saying:

"Why are you trying to hide under the pillow, Rover? Wake up. Happy birthday!."

* * *

I groaned and pulled the sheet back over my head. This annual birthday cowardice on my part always annoys Frances.

* * *

"Listen, my little siree with the fringe on the top," she said. "I'm getting tired of nursing you through your birthdays. Why do you always take a birthday as a personal disaster, or as if it were a plot against you?"

"It's a matter of heredity," I told Frances. "The fear of growing old runs in our family, just as bankruptcy does in yo—uh—in other families. It's been that way for centuries."

"But 43 isn't really old."

* * *

"Maybe not. But it's such a dumb age. A man's age makes some sense at 20, or 50, or 70. But 43 is a brier patch. At 43, the only thing a man really has definitely finished is his youth. But he hasn't completed his work in life. He hasn't raised his kids, or paid off the mortage on his home, or saved enough to retire on.

* * *

"His wife takes him for granted, and other women regard him as a vague puppet that automatically opens doors for them or lights their cigarettes at parties. The only people that find him socially fascinating are insurance salesmen seeking to sell him one last policy.

"At 43 a man is just a prisoner in the haunted house of his own life."

"I don't want to interrupt your agony," said Frances, "but if you will just try to buck up and act more like a man about it, you can celebrate your birthday any way you want to."

"In my family, people always have lunch in bed on their 43rd birthdays," I told her. "It's been that way for centuries."

* * *

Later I brushed my teeth carefully—didn't lose a one—and attended a birthday party at the captain's table. After some champagne I felt strong enough to blow out the single candle on my birthday cake. Understanding my suffering, those present recalled cases of men they knew who not only had survived their 43rd birthday but even had gone on to finer and better things. Probably nothing but lies, but I did feel better.

Then I went up alone and stood by a deck rail, just a middle-aged man on a middle-aged ship under a middle-aged moon, staring at the infinite night . . . the patient stars . . . the foam that flowered and died on the endless waves.

Suddenly it seemed silly to be there beating my head against the thought of time, as if time were a prison wall, when after all time may be merely a movement, a current swirling us toward something well worth seeing, and age is merely the admission fee.

Pontiac Reading Hits High Point During March

Reading in Pontiac seems to hit a high point each March as indicated by the 5,029 books loaned by the Pontiac City Library system last week.

The top week in February saw some 4,807 books loaned, said Miss Adah Shelly, librarian.

The library's bookmobile is increasing in popularity, Miss Shelly stated, with up to 500 books loaned in two hours of business on peak days.

Dominican Trade High

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D. R., (INS)—Dominican Republic trade figures for 1953 remained at record levels for the third consecutive year with exports estimated at $100,000,000 and imports at $80,000,000, the Dominican Republic information Center reports.

Wheat, Beans Holding Firm

CHICAGO (AP)—A firm tone prevailed on wheat, soybeans and lard in quite active dealings on the board of trade today. Feed grains held steady without being able to score much of an advance.

Best gains were registered in soybeans, both the old and new crop months jumping a couple of cents at one time. Early strength in soybean oil was a factor in the soybean advance.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ to 1 cent higher, March 2.30⅝, corn ⅛ lower to ½ higher, March $1.53, oats ⅛ to ¾ higher, March 77⅜, rye ¼ to 1 cent higher, March $1.17¾, soybeans ⅝ to 2½ higher, March $3.49¾ and lard 15 to 33 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $18.85.

To Open Bids March 24 on Two M59 Stretches

Michigan State Highway Department will open bids March 24 on new blacktop for two stretches of of M59 in Waterford Township.

Almost a mile of M59 southeast of Elizabeth Lake road and between Shoreview drive and Coleman street will be resurfaced, the department said. Bids on 22 other state highway projects and four county road jobs will be opened the same day.

Market Quiet, Prices Narrow

NEW YORK (AP)—Narrowly mixed prices prevailed today in a quiet stock market in early trading.

Prices seldom strayed as much as a major fraction from the previous close.

Aircrafts were higher and chemicals were lower. Otherwise, major divisions were steady to mixed.

This is the fourth day that the stock market has gone through quietly mixed or moderately lower sessions since reaching a new 24-year high as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 at $116.40.

Yesterday's stock market was down on average but there were a few more gainers than losers in the list.

GM Truck Building Up Output to Match 1953

Ward's Automotive Reports said today that GMC Truck and Coach Division is gradually building its production toward last year's level.

The statistical agency also reported that Pontiac Motor Division's output last week increased two per cent and that its production has remained steady at the 7,200-8,000 weekly level for the past two months. GMC Truck's output was up 19 per cent last week.

Williams Wires Senate to Cut Car Excise Tax

WASHINGTON (UP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan has asked the Senate to give the automobile industry a shot in the arm by reducing federal excise taxes on automobiles.

He made his appeal in a telegram Tuesday to the Senate Finance Committee which is considering a House-approved bill to cut excise taxes by about $1,000,000,000 a year.

Concrete Plant Draws Protests

City Commission Asked to Stop Construction of Walton Blvd. Factory

A petition to stop construction of a concrete ready-mix plant at 115 W. Walton Blvd. was received by Pontiac City Commission last night with signatures of about 240 residents of the area.

Leslie H. Hudson, spokesman for the petitioners, said it was feared the plant would create a health danger and public nuisance.

Hudson said it was thought the plant would spread cement dust, congest traffic on Walton and disturb services at the Marimont Baptist Church opposite it.

A representative for F. G. Van Horn & Sons, the firm building the plant, said a building permit had been obtained for the construction. He said the plant was set back from the road 100 feet and was designed to keep dust at a minimum. The firm would operate on a small scale, he added.

Hudson said his group felt the building permit may not have been issued correctly.

Van Horn agreed to stop construction for one week while commissioners studied the matter for consideration Tuesday.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK OUR NEIGHbors, friends, relatives Rev. Tom Malone, Kirby Funeral Home, and Pontiac Lake Schools for their words and acts of kindness in the recent death of my husband, Mark Warren. Mrs. Yvonne Warren and children.

WE WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS our deep appreciation to the neighbors, the Locals 733, 594, 596 U.A.W.-C.I.O. for their kindness and thoughtfulness during the death of our mother. The family of Sophia Goemaere.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OTIS H. Carmichael, who passed away March 12, 1953.

We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away.

Sadly missed by wife, Betty, husband, and son Richard.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KENneth Austin who died March 17, 1948. Wife Ella and family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MIchael David Overbaugh who passed away March 17, 1953.
It was St. Patrick's Day in the morning,
One year ago today,
That Jesus in his loving arms,
Took little Mike away.
The vision of his little smile,
Shall never, never die.
While he plays in God's beautiful Garden of happiness in the sky.

Sadly missed by mommy and daddy.

Now Has Part on Broadway

Ex-Powers Model Also Is Understudy for Star Margaret Sullavan

NEW YORK—Her assignment as photographer's model Poco Thurmond in "Three Steps to Heaven" must be the easiest Diana Douglas ever undertook, for she used to be a Powers model herself.

The tall, blonde, hazel-eyed actress was born in Devonshire, Bermuda, Jan. 22, 1923. Her father, the late Col. Thomas M. Dill, was attorney general of Bermuda.

Miss Douglas was educated on the Isle of Wight, then, when World War II broke out, came to the United States where she was graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts.

She had been seen in Academy productions by a movie talent scout who signed her for screen tests and she went to the West Coast where her first film role was in "Keeper of the Flame."

She played in the Pasadena Playhouse production of "Philadelphia Story" before returning to New York where she modeled.

Miss Douglas made her television debut in 1944 and in 1946 returned to Hollywood for more film roles and stage parts in stock companies in the vicinity.

Miss Douglas' next trip to New York was marred by the closing, on tryout tour, of the Broadway-bent "Amanda's Wife." But she was cheered by good roles in the video "Circle Theater," and the production of "The Rivals," as well as in a couple of movies filmed largely in New York.

The next play, "Modern Primitive," also died on the road before hitting Broadway but she finally made it in "Sabina Fair."

Her part in the comedy, a current New York hit, is only a walk-on but she is understudying the star, Margaret Sullavan.

She keeps busy backstage working on a mammoth afghan for the house she recently purchased in the country. Meanwhile, things are lively at her New York apartment where her two sons—Michael, 9, and Joel, 7—have a beagle hound, two love birds and six tropical fish.

Archbishop Cushing Faints at Theater

BOSTON (AP) — Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, apparently recovered from a fainting spell in Worcester last night, was reported planning to celebrate a pontifical mass today in Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

The 58-year-old prelate returned to his home here after a few hours stay in St. Vincent's Hospital, Worcester. He had been taken there after collapsing in a Worcester theater while delivering a St. Patrick's Eve address.

Archbishop Cushing, operated on for a kidney ailment last December, has appeared wan and tired in his several recent public appearances.

Sisters to Prove Large Families Can Cost Little

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Do you have four children and wonder how you're going to pay for No. 5?

Don't fret. The sisters who operate the Borgess Hospital in Kalamazoo will provide free medical care.

Why?

They want to prove that it's just as easy to raise large families as small opes.

The conditions are that the child must be born this year and must be the mother's fifth, sixth, seventh or eight. Makes no difference where you're living.

Doctor bills, however, will not be covered.

Find Shakedown Racket at Schools in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—Police reported last night that a shakedown racket, whereby older youths threaten smaller boys with violence unless a certain sum of money is paid, is in operation at several Baltimore schools.

New students have been forced to pay "initiation fees," police said. In other cases, pupils have been forced to hand over their lunch money.

PEEPERS PROBLEM—The hectic whirl of last minute rehearsals for the PHS dramatic production of "Mr. Peepers" finds two characters in a usual "Peeper predicament." The play, being presented tonight at 8:15 p. m., is scheduled to continue through Friday. Sweeping up bits of broken glass is the job of Harvey Weskit, as portrayed by Tom Loignan of 214 Willard St. Mrs. Bernice Gurney, played by Pauline Logsdon, of 1029 Argyle Ave., expresses her usual helpless consternation.

Size of Universe Speech Topic

Dr. O. C. Mohler Tells Torch Club Travel to Planets Unlikely

Dr. Orren C. Mohler, of the McMath-Hulbert Observatory at Lake Angelus, addressed the Oakland County Torch Club last night at Birmingham Community House. His subject was "Size of the Universe."

Dr. Mohler discussed the conception of the universe held by earliest scientists and traced the changinrg beliefs through known records to the present day. He said more recent computations have doubled the estimated size of the universe, to about 4,000 million light-years. (A light - year is the distance a beam of light will travel in a year, or about 6 million million miles.)

He said observations with best equipment now available, seem to indicate objects in space are rushing away from the observers, giving rise to the theory of a constantly expanding universe.

The speaker discounted speculation that man might some day visit nearby planets, saying that it appears unlikely that even the shortest distances could be traveled in the present life-span of a human being, even if mechanical problems of space travel would permit it.

Shamrock, Fla. Sends St. Patrick's Day Mail

SHAMROCK, Fla. (AP)—Postmaster C. B. Goodman had about 500 more letters and cards than usual for postmarking today.

They went out on this St. Patrick's Day postmarked, of course, "Shamrock, Fla." They had been sent to this town of 300 from throughout the country for that special purpose.

Mechanics Pick Wrong Truck for Engine Repair

ALLEGAN (AP)—Roy Butler came close to getting a free overhaul on his truck motor. A garage had the motor well dismantled when mechanics learned they had picked up the wrong truck from a factory parking lot.

The truck they were supposed to have brought in was almost identical to Butler's.

No Green Beer Today

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — St. Patrick's Day wasn't the same at Sweeney's Shamrock Tavern. State pure food laws prevented the tavern from serving its usual green-tinted beer today.

State Vet's Facility Loses Commandant

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Walter J. Baker has resigned as commandant of the Michigan Veteran's facility. It ends 15 years of service, marked by frequent criticism from the board of managers.

Baker gave no reason for his resignation, effective June 30. There was no word of a possible successor.

He took an extended leave of absence last year in the middle of an argument with the board over administration. Baker, a disabled World War I veteran of the Marine Corps, returned to duty with the facility last September.

Who'll Punish Police for Using '53 Licenses?

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The deadline for 1954 auto license plates in New Mexico passed two weeks ago and state police have promised a crackdown on delinquent drivers.

Albuquerqueans are wondering what's going to happen to the city police force, which still has 1953 plates on its cars.

City officials explain the delay is because they formerly rented the cars and are awaiting transfer of title to the city before buying new plates.

In about three cases of twins in eight, one twin is a boy, the other a girl.

Warns Airway Fees Would Slap at Firms

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board cautioned the Commerce Department today that levying of special charges for the use of the nation's airway facilities could deal private airlines a severe financial setback.

The board filed a report on a proposal by the Civil Aeronautics Administration that users of such federal services as radio communications, navigational aids and power facilities pay fees that would return some 25 million dollars a year to the government.

CAB pointed out that assessment of any flat user charge large enough to materially reduce the profits of the aviation industry could "seriously undermine and possibly reverse the present favorable trends in the development of the industry."

Sees Moonshining Rising

BALTIMORE (AP) — Thomas J. Donovan of New York, vice president of Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., said in a speech here last night that moonshining has jumped 63 per cent in the last eight years.

School Aid Bill Ready for Vote

House Measure Calls for $116,857,272 Fund in 1954-55 Year

LANSING (AP) — The House advanced for final vote today the school aid bill appropriating $116,857,272 for public schools in the 1954-55 year. The total compares with $106,333,576 this year.

Increased enrollments, however, will hold individual school shares to $150 per child in elementary schools and $170 in high schools, the same amounts as this year.

At the same time, the House scheduled a vote on a Senate bill appropriating more than $44 million for welfare.

The lower chamber passed a Senate bill requiring those sentenced to less than a year to be held in county jails instead of in state prisons.

A Senate bill permitting courts to require defendants in paternity cases to undergo blood tests was sent back to a House committe.

After favorable committee reports, House debate was scheduled today on bill to:

Raise workmen's compensation benefits for injury on the job $4 a week up to a maximum of $40.

Gambler Frank Erickson Leaves Prison to Testify

HACKENSACK, N. J. (AP)—Gambler Frank Erickson was out of Michigan's Milan Prison today—but it'll be for only a short time.

Erickson is to testify here either today or tomorrow in the misconduct in office trial of Walter G. Winne. Winne was former prosecutor of Bergen (N.J.) County.

Erickson is serving six months in Milan Prison for federal tax evasion in 1945.

CAB to Keep Checking Helicopter Mail Tests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Board says it intends to keep tabs on experimental movement of mail by helicopter in New York, Los Angeles and Chicago to find out whether the benefits are worth subsidy.

The board said this yesterday in announcing that it proposes to pay New York Airways $1,348,464 for carrying the mail by helicopter from Oct. 15, 1952, through the end of 1953.
