Microcomputer Certificate Program offered

Oakland University's School of Education and Human Services (SEHS) is offering a "Microcomputer Applications Certificate Program," a 16-credit course integrating technology in the classroom beginning in September.

Designed for teachers, administrators and professional staff, courses include application of web-enhanced instruction, multimedia and the Internet.

Participants have the option to earn the highly recognized Michigan Certificate for Outstanding Achievement in Teaching with Technology (MCOATT) designation. Courses may be applied as electives toward OU's Master of Arts in Teaching in Reading and Language Arts. The program can be completed in four semesters.

Classes will be held in the evenings at the Macomb Intermediate School District in Clinton Township. The application deadline is August 24.

Additional information is available on the Department of Professional Development and Education Outreach Web site. To apply, contact Professional Development at (810) 226-8462 or pro-development@oakland.edu.
