Sentence Ada Wyatt for Cruelty

3½-4-Year Term Given Mother of 12 Children

Judge Calls Penalty Maximum Inadequate for 'Heinous' Crime

Mrs. Ada Wyatt, 33, Keego Harbor mother of 12, was sentenced today to a 3½-4 year term in Detroit House of Correction for burning the hand of her seven-year-old daughter, Sherry Wilkinson.

Mrs. Wyatt listened impassively as Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick called her crime "the most heinous I have witnessed in my 20 years of experience."

"I was found guilty by a jury, but I am innocent," Mrs. Wyatt said.

Judge Hartrick said the law provides "an inadequate penalty" in fixing the maximum sentence for child cruelty at four years.

"Possibly you should have been charged with a more serious crime," he said. "The finger of guilt very definitely and positively pointed to you."

Pointing out he was required by law to set a minimum term, Judge Hartrick sentenced her to 3½ - 4 years.

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore said today he will try to set a Juvenile Court hearing on custody of the 12 children for tomorrow. They have been in Oakland County Children's Home since they were found by officers alone in their house Aug. 23.

WYATT REMAINS OUTSIDE

Judge Hartrick did not grant a request for stay of execution by defense attorney Milton R. Henry, who said he has already started procedure to appeal the conviction.

Henry also requested the court to examine an additional witness, who said he had heard Sherry admit she was lying in her testimony against her mother. He did not name the witness.

Judge Hartrick refused the request.

Mrs. Wyatt was convicted Nov. 23 by a 10-woman, 2-man jury which also acquitted her husband, William, 29, on the same charge. The trial lasted five days.

Weatherman Sees Continuing Co-o-old

The U.S. Weather Bureau has predicted mostly cloudy and cold with occasional snow flurries tonight and tomorrow. Tonight's low will be 20-24 degrees.

In an extended weather outlook the weatherman has forecast near normal temperatures from Monday evening until Saturday evening. The normal maximum will be 36 degrees, normal minimum, 24.

The lowest temperature recorded in Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 22 degrees. At 2 p.m. the thermometer registered 28.

St. Laurent to Visit

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada, who has been vacationing in Florida, will fly to Augusta tomorrow for a social visit and round of golf with President Eisenhower.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said St. Laurent will arrive from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., by plane

Auto Show Draws Record Crowd

50,000 to 60,000 Persons See Cars on Second Day

NEW YORK (AP)—An estimated 50,000 to 60,000 persons viewed the three-floor exhibit of the National Automobile Show at the Coliseum yesterday, the second day of a nine-day run.

No turnstile count is kept but police said it was the largest crowd to visit the Coliseum in a single day since the 35-million-dollar exhibition hall opened last April 28.

A drenching rain caused Coliseum officials to open doors to a crowd of some 3,000 persons an hour and a quarter before the scheduled start of the exhibition hours.

Police attributed the record crowd in part to the bad weather which they said discouraged thousands of motorists from touring the countryside.

George W. Romney, president of the Automobile Manufacturers Assn., the show's sponsor, said the thousands attending the exhibit were a tribute to the worth of motor vehicles.

"I believe the significance of the show is greater than car sales, important as they are," said Romney, also president of American Motors. He added:

"The show now focuses all channels of communication on the automotive industry, not only its products, but its policies, programs, contributions, importance companies and leaders."

To Erase Resistance in Hungary

Tighter Controls Placed on Rebels

VIENNA (AP)—Police and troops imposed rigid new controls on rebellious Hungary today to enforce martial law proclaimed by Premier Janos Kadar's desperate government.

It seemed apparent the regime had embarked on a campaign to wipe out the last vestiges of resistance.

The unhappy nation, torn by revolt, strikes and Communist repression for nearly seven weeks, has been cut off from contact with the Western world for more than 24 hours, except for broadcasts by Budapest radio.

The Red regime ordered military trial for a variety of offenses punishable by death and dissolved the major workers' councils that had tried to negotiate for Hungarian freedom.

The Vienna telephone exchange would not accept calls for Budapest, saying there was no contact. Telephone service between Budapest and Moscow resumed on a limited basis.

But AP correspondent Harold Milks reported attempts to telephone the hotel where Western newsmen stay in Budapest or the home numbers of Hungarian resident correspondents met with the reply: "Those numbers are out of order."

* * *

One Western diplomatic mission in Vienna said its only word from Buapest since the communications blackout was imposed was a message at 6 p.m. last night that "all was quiet" in the capital.

Radio Budapest said production in the pork slaughterhouse near the vast Csepel industrial region south of the city was "disturbed when police held up cars transporting workers living outside the town to the slaughterhouse."

Word seeped through that police were controlling traffic strictly in the Budapest area in an apparent effort to halt movement of any anti-government groups or arms for them.

Car Rolls Over, Woman Killed

Resident of Lake Orion Suffers Fatal Injuries, Five Riders Hurt

A Lake Orion woman suffered injuries which proved fatal and an East Detroit man was critically hurt in weekend accidents in Oakland County.

Mrs. Florence Hampton, 49, of 584 Carkins Rd., died at Pontiac General Hospital after the car she was riding in went off the road and rolled over in Pontiac Township.

On the critical list at the same hospital is Jack Waitch Jr., 28, who crashed into a tree in West Bloomfield Township. Both accidents occurred Sunday.

Five other persons, including her son-in-law, and three grandchildren received minor cuts and bruises in the accident which took Mrs. Hampton's life. All were released after treatment at the hospital.

* * *

They were: Donald Hampton, 16, Lawrence G. Tear, 32, of 893 Miles St., the driver, and his three daughters, Lorna G., 12, Linda V., 11, and Iva K., 9.

Tear told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies his car went out of control after skidding on some ice just north of Pontiac on Perry street.

Waitch is under treatment for a concussion, fractures of an arm and leg, and cuts of the face.

Investigators have been unable to determine why he went off the road and hit the tree six feet off the side at Pontiac Trail and Halsted roads.

Try to Recover 5 Bodies From Plane

Attempts were continuing today to recover the bodies of five Michigan residents, including a 34-year-old Royal Oak man, from a plane that crashed Saturday night in Lake Erie near Port Maitland, Ont.

Killed in the crash were Wesley W. Hopp, 320 W. Sunnybrook Dr., Royal Oak, the pilot, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kurtz, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael McFadden, all of Grosse Pointe.

A diver reported yesterday sighting the five bodies, still strapped in their seats, in the twin-engine plane sunk in about 12 feet of water. The plane was owned by the Peninsular Steel Corp. of Detroit, for which Kurtz was a vice president.

White Sox President Dies of Heart Attack

Death to the head of baseball's pioneering family apparently was caused by a heart seizure. She had been in poor health ever since suffering a serious heart attack in March of 1950.

Mrs. Comiskey's age was about 66.

Comb Wilds Airliner Lost in Windstorm Over Mountains

AP Wirephoto

CRASH AREA—Searchers are covering the area shown in the map above for a missing Trans-Canada plane which vanished in a violent windstorm last night. Sixty-two persons were aboard. The craft was bound from Vancouver to Montreal when it turned back at Hope with engine trouble. Lights were later reported seen on a mountain near Abbotsford.

Massive Search Held for Craft Headed From Vancouver to Montreal

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—A Trans-Canada Air Lines plane carrying 62 persons vanished during a violent windstorm over mountainous south central British Columbia last night and was believed to have crashed.

Potentially it was the worst commercial aviation disaster in Canadian history.

Although Trans-Canada still listed the four-engined North Star as only "overdue," the airline's public relations director here, Al Carlson, said there was "absolutely no hope" the plane was still in the air.

According to the Royal Canadian Air Force, which sent "every available plane" into a massive search for the missing aircraft at dawn, the North Star would have exhausted its fuel supply at 1 a. m., PST.

In addition to the aerial search, a ground party was set to start out from Chilliwack, 65 miles east of Vancouver.

HAD 59 PASSENGERS

It carried 59 passengers and 3 crew.

* * *

The worst commercial air disaster in Canada occurred on April 8, 1954, when an RCAF training plane crashed into a TCA airliner in flight over Moose Jaw, Sask., killing 37 persons.

Among the passengers who boarded TCA's flight 810 at Vancouver last night were four members of the Saskatchewan team of the Western Interprovincial Football Union who were here for Saturday's East-West Shrine game.

The missing aircraft, a Canadian version of the DC4, left Vancouver at 6 p.m. PST last night on a flight to eastern Canada but turned back at Hope, 125 miles

Dulles Meeting British, French

Talks With Diplomats in Attempt to Close Rift Among Big 3

PARIS (INS)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles sought to get the Big Three alliance back on the track today in private talks with British and French foreign ministers.

Dulles, hoping to "bury past discords" resulting from the Anglo-French invasion of Egypt, conferred for 85 minutes this morning with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

He planned to meet with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau this afternoon.

Lloyd called on Dulles at Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon's official residence, where the U.S. Secretary is staying, and later attended the session of the Council of the Western European Union.

Dulles's meeting with the British and French foreign diplomats were a prelude to tomorrow's opening session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Council.

It also appeared likely that Dulles would confer with French Premier Guy Mollet before the NATO Council meetings ended sometime Friday or possibly Saturday.

Grumbling Males Enjoy Getting Gifts

By JANET ODELL

Men may grumble about footing the bill for Christmas, but most of them enjoy playing Santa Claus—and getting gifts themselves.

In this shopping article we're not going to tell you about a tie, a shirt or any other clothing. We've seen lots of other gifts for the sterner sex.

Two items in the toiletry line caught our eye. One was a set of after-shave lotion, cream hair dressing and cologne. There's an atomizer for each bottle. Another kit contains plastic travel bottles of shaving lotion and men's cologne.

If the man on your list is a boat enthusiast, he'll like nautical jewelry. You can get him a money clip, cuff links or key chain in black with silver sailboats on each piece.

Those stag parties will be more fun if he has some new chips to use. They can be purchased in bright colored plastic cases that look like stacks of chips themselves.

It may be some months before your family will use the barbecue fireplace outside. But you can anticipate the picnic season with a set holding a man-sized apron, salt and pepper shakers and a hamburger press. Or buy him some elegant tools to use for outdoor cooking.

Even barometers can take on a sportsmanlike look. We saw one that, in addition to the usual figures and weather predictions, gave fishing predictions. It's called the Fisherman's Forecaster.

Keep your sportsman warm with a robe. If the weather is good, he can use the packaged blanket as a cushion. If it's cold, he'll cover up with it. A hand warmer will slip in his jacket pocket.

Last Saturday in that snowstorm we saw a man playing golf on the Pontiac Golf Course. Few men are so determined. Make it easy for your favorite golfer to keep his skill by giving him a golf practice putter to use indoors. It's adjustable and has an automatic ball return.

Egyptians Shoot at British Patrol

One Soldier Injured in Ambush at Port Said; U.N. Gets Protest

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—Egyptian guerrillas attacked a British patrol from a rooftop in Port Said's Arab quarter with a burst of machine-gun fire and a hail of hand grenades.

One soldier of the eight-man Royal Scots regiment patrol was wounded slightly. The British-French command sent off an urgent protest to headquarters of the U.N. emergency police force, accusing Egypt of violating the cease-fire.

The patrol called reinforcements and cordoned off the area. Seven Egyptians were arrested.

The ambush was the first such attack in Port Said by the Egyptian underground since the cease-fire became effective Nov. 8. Previously there have been scattered shots fired occasionally.

The aim apparently was to harass the diminishing British-French force as it rushed its withdrawal order by the U.N. General Assembly. The bulk of British and French troops are expected to be gone from Egypt within three days.

Fearful of possible reprisals, most foreigners in Port Said were also packing. More than 400 British civilians sail today on the troopship Asturias.

At approximately 7 p.m. the pilot, Capt. Allan Clarke, 35, of Montreal, asked the Air Traffic Control Center here for permission to descend from 8,000 feet to a lower altitude.

LAST CONTACT

That was the last radio contact with the plane, a flight to Montreal with scheduled stops at Calgary, Regina, Winnipeg and Toronto.

The Saskatchewan players on the plane were Mel Becket, Gordy Sturtridge, Mario DeMarco and Ray Syrnyk. Sturtridge was accompanied by his wife, Mildred. Becket came to Saskatchewan from Indiana University. DeMarco played pro football with the Detroit Lions of the National Football League before moving to Canada.

TCAs' Montreal office listed the following Americans as passengers aboard the missing aircraft: J. E. Henderson, Rte. 1, Issaquah, Wash.

Mrs. A. A. Kafour, Portland, Ore.

Mrs. L. C. Burt, San Francisco.

Collegians Get Priest's Order on Steady Dating

LORETTO, Pa. (INS)—Students at St. Francis College, a Roman Catholic Coeducational institution, were under a "no steady dating" order today with assurances that violators would be expelled.

Dean of Students Vincent R. Negherbon explained that "steady company keeping is a practice which should lead to marriage in the very near future. Therefore going steady is morally wrong for college students."

Father Negherbon described "Going Steady" as: 1) Dating of each other to the exclusion of everyone else; 2) Frequency of association excluding all others; 3) Continuous informal dating as the walking to and from classes, meals together, events, meetings and so forth.

St. Francis has a total enrollment of 800 with about 650 male students.

Living the Life of Pierre

PARIS — For the first time since the end of World War II there no longer is a need for any American soldiers in France to be billeted in tents.

More than 2,000,000 square feet of permanent-type troop housing has been built in the past year.

Jailbreak Made by Two Youths

Police Seek Criminals, 1 Wanted for Murder, in Flint Vicinity

FLINT (INS) — Two young, daring Flint area men—one wanted for murder—remained at large today after their Hollywood-style break yesterday from the Genesee County Jail.

Sheriff's deputies and state and county police blanketed the entire county in an unsuccessful attempt to recapture the escapees.

* * *

They sawed through the bars of their sixth-floor cell Sunday morning and overpowered Ralph Denton, a 52-year-old turnkey.

Police said that when Denton passed their cell, Long broke through three cut-away bars and held a crudely fashioned dagger at the man's throat.

After locking Denton in a cell, they made their way through two security doors and down an elevator.

Van Camp was described as "very dangerous." Friends had quoted him as saying, "If I ever get out again they will never take me alive."

Both escaped into the freezing cold with only T-shirts and work trousers.

Four inmates escaped from the County Jail last year using a similar method. One was captured in less than an hour and the others were rounded up in several days.

Photographer to Show Film on South Africa

Nationally known photographer Clifford J. Kamen will present a color film and lecture on "The Union of South Africa" as the third program of a travel and adventure series being sposored by the Pontiac Kiwanis Club at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Pontiac High School Auditorium.

The mining of gold, digging diamonds, and a ride on a cable car to view the Cape of Good Hope will be among the features of the movie.

Close-ups of giraffes, lions, baboons, elephants and many other animals in their native haunts are a part of the film along with historic tours to Capetown and the Kalahari desert.

hands over a gas burner "because she didn't want me coming downstairs."

Her mother also threw a butcher knife at her, splitting her lip and permanently disfiguring her face; knocked out two teeth with her fist; and sat her on an oil stove, burning her buttocks, Sherry said.

Sherry's brother and sisters said she was often tied to her upstairs bed, and a sister, Diane, 8, said she had witnessed the knife-throwing and oil stove incidents.

The case came to light Aug. 23 when Keego Harbor police and Sheriff's deputies found the children alone in their house. Mrs. Wyatt was hospitalized and Wyatt was in Indiana buying produce for the roadside stand where he worked. All the children were in the care of Aaron, 13.

Mrs. Wyatt's children are Aaron, 13, Arthur, 11, Darwin, 10, Darlene, 9, Diane, 8, and Sherry 7, all children of her first marriage to Robert Wilkinson; and twins Bobbie and Billie, 5, James, 4, Mona, 3, Thomas, 9, and Gary, 9 months, all children of Wyatt.

10 Families Orderly as Apartment Blazes

SAULTE STE. MARIE (AP)—Fire struck at a building in downtown Sault Ste. Marie last night forcing 10 families into 20 degree weather. No one was hurt and the evacuation was orderly.

The fire was confined mostly to interior walls, created heavy smoke, but little flame. Badly damaged were a hardware store and a barber shop. Less seriously damaged were a shoe repair shop and a plumbing store.

All the stores and 12 apartments were located in the three story frame building, owned by Dan Laury of Flint. Damages were not immediately estimated.

Collision on Auburn Sends Tot to Hospital

A three-year-old girl suffered possible concussion in a two-car collision Saturday afternoon, Pontiac police said.

Joanne Green, who was with her mother, Mrs. Agnes F. Green, 34, of 1244 Mount Clemens St., was listed in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

The Day in Birmingham

Amendment First Tonight on 16-Item City Agenda

BIRMINGHAM—Foremost on the 16-item agenda coming before the city commission tonight is the amendment to the purchase agreement of the sewage treatment plant by the North Evergreen Sewage Disposal Authority.

Among the several reports of City Manager Harold K. Schone will be the expected final draft of the agreement for the sale of water from the Walker Well to the City of Troy.

Schone said the draft has been revised to clarify certain points. Changes include permitting Troy to pay the full amount of water main costs on or before four years rather than mandatory annual installments; the responsibility of Troy to make certain connections at their cost to make the well usage more feasible; the right to cancel is reserved to the City of Troy after a two-year period by six months' notice; a new paragraph releases Birmingham from claim through inability to supply water.

Schone also will report on such items as the West Maple and Merrill cutoff right-of-way; Merrill cutoff paving; municipal two-way radio and lease of dwellings, parking lot 4.

Commissioners will receive a request for a building permit from the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Birmingham will name R. S. Kenning, assistant city manager, as the official recipient of federal surplus property should such be available.

Water mains, street widening, sidewalk construction and additional fencing at Springdale Park, along with the city attorney's report on Michigan Bell's rate increase request, will complete the agenda.

Slippery, slushy streets brought caution to the foreground here Saturday, while accident rates shot upward in many sections of South Oakland County, Birmingham police took in only one mishap report, reportedly a hit-run smash of little importance.

Taking over the Birmingham column, as well as Bloomfield Township, Bloomfield Hills and Troy news, today is Alice Morgan. An experienced journalist and well-known in the Birmingham area, she may be reached at her home, 1835 Holland, or by calling Midwest 6-3537.

Mercedes S. McGowan

Mercedes Suzanne McGowan, 4, 2900 Pine Hill Dr. died Saturday at William Beaumont Hospital after a long illness. Born in Detroit, she came here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. McGowan, three years ago.

She also leaves her brother, Gordon Scott, a sister, Judith Anne, and her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. McGowan of St. Clair Shores and Mr. and Mrs. Adam N. Ieradka of Detroit.

Service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Bell Chapel of William R. Hamilton Co., with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Jerome P. Rowley

Jerome P. Rowley, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Heath, South Bend, Ind., where he moved from Birmingham 11 years ago. Born in Mt. Vernon, O., Dec. 31, 1874, he served in the Spanish American War and belonged to Kimball Post, Pontiac of SAW Veterans.

He also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Robert Emmett of South Bend, a granddaughter and a great-granddaughter.

Service will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in Perry Mount Park, Pontiac.

Mrs. Douglas R. Bezanson

Mrs. Douglas R. Bezanson, 52, 1709 Derby Rd., died Saturday at Detroit Osteopathic. Born in Traverse City, she married in 1929 and came here 16 years ago from Pontiac. She belongs to Birmingham Chapter 220, OES.

Surviving are her husband, three daughters, Mrs. John C. Cave of Spokane, Wash., Mrs. David Maylen of Walled Lake, Mrs. James Doyle of Royal Oak; her mother, Mrs. John D. Smith of Traverse City, a sister, Mrs. Elton Alpers of Birmingham; two brothers, Harry of Pontiac and Albert of Traverse City.

Service was set for 1 p.m. today at Manley Bailey Funeral Home, with burial in Acacia Park Cemetery.

Baby Boy Wright

A son, one of twins born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright, 16145 Elizabeth, Beverly Manor, died shortly after birth. Surviving are his twin, Jeffrey; his parents; a sister, Jill; another brother, Stephen; and grandparents, the Waldo Hartlines of Dover, O. and the Glenn Wrights of Ferndale.

Private service will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Manley Bailey Funeral Home with burial in White Chapel Cemetery.

Students Return to Clinton School

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—Integrated Clinton High School reopened without a hitch today, with eight Negro students—four boys and four girls—walking together back to classes. One student planned to move away with her family.

Three police cars cruised the area briefly and then returned to their normal duties in this little eastern Tennessee city of 4,000. There was no indication of racial disturbances which caused authorities to close the school last Tuesday.

Authorities said about the normal number of white students also reported for the reopening, with approximately 800 students enrolled.

A few minutes after classes were resumed, trial dates were set for Jan. 28 in nearby Knoxville for 16 white men and women accused of racial violence which closed the integrated school.

Dates were set by Dist. Federal Judge Robert L. Taylor a few minutes after school reopened. No disturbances marked the reopening and eight negroes—four boys and four girls—joined a near normal turnout of 583 white students.

Sterling Silver Stolen From City Residence

A walnut chest containing $350 worth of sterling silver was discovered missing Sunday by Mrs. Frances Murphy, 207 Mohawk St., Pontiac police said.

She believed the theft occurred sometime in the past week, police said.

Clifford J. Kamen
Colored Motion Picture

Would you like to see gold mined in the fabulous South African mines, or diamonds dug from the earth, then cut and polished? Are you interested in "close-ups" of giraffes, lions, baboons, elephants and many other animals in their native haunts? Do you get a thrill out of visiting strange people in far off lands to see how they live? Have you ever ridden in a cable car to the summit of a mountain to see a spectacular sight, like the Cape of Good Hope? If you are interested in strange things, you will enjoy Clifford Kamen and his new color film on the Union of South Africa. It covers the major geographical areas, principal industries, unique game reserves, and the fascinating native life of this important and widely discussed region.

Sentence Postponed for Blocking Sidewalk

The sentencing of Stephen L. Secora, 319 Orchard Lake Ave., who pleaded guilty last month of obstructing a city sidewalk, has been postponed until tomorrow.

Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum granted the deferment so that Secora might meet with city officials to establish the grade of the sidewalk where the offense was committed.

Examination by a Pontiac police officer showed 42 inches of foundry sand and other debris had flowed onto the sidewalk at Orchard Lake and Chapman.

Traffic Problems?

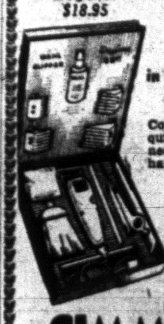

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Do you live in a typical town?

G. P. Parmelee of Los Angeles, a leader at a state traffic safety conference, said a typical city of 16,000 has 33 lawyers, 22 doctors and not a single traffic engineer.

Don't Pass Up $1000 Chance at Pot-O-Gold

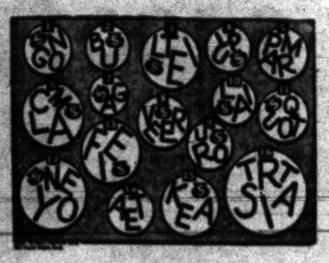

Those of you who have been putting off entering POT-O-GOLD had better see to it that your entry is included with this week's mail. The winnings are again out of the pin-money class, and you'll be rare indeed if you pass up a chance at $1000. Because that's what the winning entry will be worth for Puzzle No. 28, providing no winner is found for last week's puzzle. Check the rules and clues before you start, and then . . . good luck.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 28 must bear a Tuesday, Dec. 18, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Hint New Delay in Releasing 10

Next Move Up to U.S. in Freeing Americans, Says Chou En-lai

CALCUTTA (AP) — Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai has hinted strongly that the United States must make concessions before the Peiping regime will release 10 Americans still held in Communist China.

Chou, winding up his tour of south India, told a news conference his government had released 34 Americans but that the United States had neither released any Chinese nor given Peiping a list of Chinese in the United States.

* * *

"With this comparison," the Premier said, "I leave it up to you to judge which side should make the next step in this matter."

The United States has repeatedly told Peiping that it is detaining no Chinese and all who wish to leave America have gone. It is wary of passing along any lists of Chinese because it fears the government will put pressure on their families in China.

* * *

Chou said the 10 Americans still held in China "have committed offenses against China and have not yet served out their sentences."

"The Chinese government," he continued, "always has said that if the behavior of these Americans is good they can expect to be released before serving out their sentences.

"At present they are held according to Chinese law. But they can visit different places, can communicate with their families and can be visited by their families if the United States government would allow it."

Chou also called again for a meeting between himself and U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, lifting of the American trade embargo against Red China, development of trade between the two countries and "letting the people of the United States have contacts with the Chinese people."

Live Steer in House Look On as 'Novel'

Furniture was overturned. feathers from ripped pillows were sticking in gallons of syrup poured down the stairs. Sacks of flour had been dumped over the mess.

The fraternity brothers gave this explanation:

Saturday night was annual "ditch night" when pledges walk out, leaving some kind of retaliation for treatment they received during the pledge season. The steer, they conceded, was a novel touch.

Science Can Control Sex of Unborn Chicks

EAST LANSING (AP)—What'll you have, hens or roosters?

By a new egg dipping process, a poultry research expert says, science can control the sex of a chick before it is born.

George Blackburn of a Vineland, N.J., poultry research firm, says details of the process are still secret. But poultrymen at Michigan State University believe it involves forcing hormones under pressure through the porous eggshell.

Horsepower Change

Bud Templing trotted a good show horse into the salesroom and offered it in trade for a new car. He was allowed $600 on the purchase of a new station wagon.

Automobile Show to Boost New Car Sales

Saturday marked the opening of the first big national automobile show since 1940. The show is being held in the new Coliseum in New York city.

All auto manufacturers are participating in this gigantic display of 1957 cars which are valued at something over 11 million dollars. Included in this ultra modern show are 124 passenger vehicles, and 66 commercial cars and trucks.

The primary purpose of the show is to stimulate sales of the new models. If fanfare and a typical Broadway setting have anything to do with it the sales should soar.

This year's show is one of the most lavish of its kind ever put on any place in the world. Included with the auto show is a complete Broadway musical production which can be seen six times daily.

Heads of the big three automobile firms have all predicted total sales for 1957 models to run close to six and a half million passenger cars, and 900 thousand commercial vehicles.

If these estimates hold good 1957 will be the second best year in the auto industry. With three General Motors plants located here this should be good news to Pontiac.

Iceland Permits Us to Retain Base There

While the Progressive and Social Democrat parties which dominate the Jonasson government of Iceland since the June 28 election, desired our base kept there, they wanted it manned by Icelandic civilians.

Only the Communist dominated Workers' Union held out for dismantling the base, and taking Iceland out of NATO. At the time of the election, Russia's "peace offensive" was having some effect on Icelandic thinking. Politicians were urging cancellation of the agreement under which we operated the base at Keflavik and they had considerable backing from the people.

Obviously any such action by the world's oldest parliament was a threat to NATO. If carried out, Iceland would be left without any military protection and would be open to a surprise attack that would endanger the whole North Atlantic Community.

Not only is Keflavik a major defense base, but it is refueling point for civilian and military planes. It also is a vital link in U. S. and Canadian radar defenses.

Now, however, has come a change of heart. Russia's brutal actions in Hungary has bared the Soviet's real intentions. Last week the Jonasson coalition government agreed to permit U. S. troops to remain and there was a growing demand for expulsion of the two Communist party members from the cabinet.

Iceland finally has realized where her interests and safety lay.

Either those who originate TV commercials are dumb, or there are umpty million morons in the U.S.

State United Funds Raise $27 Million

United Fund campaigns in Michigan have raised in excess of $27 million, in 89 communities. The total, when all reports are in, is expected to top the 1955 figure by about $3 million.

★ ★ ★

This impressive figure is a reminder that suffering and hardship which beset individuals and families do not go unheeded. We do have concern for our neighbors, and are willing to contribute ready cash to ease their burdens.

But equally important is the manner in which the funds are raised. Under the United Fund plan one campaign in which the whole community can join meets the budgets for major organizations for an entire year.

It is fitting that so many communities in this state go along with this method, as the United Fund idea got its first big boost when it was tried on a major scale in Michigan.

Here in Pontiac our United Fund Campaign is within sight of victory, with but $17,000 still needed for the $612,000 goal. Local, area and state agencies numbering 54 will share in the fund.

With divisions of the campaign organization still edging their totals forward in final efforts, it is hoped Pontiac soon will join the roll of 100 per cent cities.

The Man About Town

We'll Make Snow

New Item Being Added to Our County's Production

To Oakland County's many industries, another is to be added. When the natural supply is not sufficient, we're going to manufacture snow.

Morton Graddis

of Bloomfield Hills has rented the acreage for a ski resort from the Michigan Conservation Department. It is at Mount Holly, beside the four-lane Dixie Highway pavement, in Groveland Township, and less than 20 miles northwest of Pontiac.

There he has installed six electrically powered rope tows, also a special slow tow for beginners, all illuminated for night skiing. The project includes the snow making equipment to provide ample quantities of the "beautiful" for all tows. A lodge and restaurant are at the base of the slide.

Ski instructions on the Arlberg technique are to be given by a staff of experts, and a ski shop is being installed, where the toggery of the pastime will be on sale.

Mount Holly has had a colorful history. For a century or more it was known as "Jack's Hill," in honor of pioneer Jack Ludington who lived at its base. The writer of these lines was the first person to drive an automobile to its summit. That was in 1916.

After the conservation department bought the land, its name was changed to "Haas Hill," and maps of the area designate it that way. But by mutual agreement, it now is to be known as "Mount Holly," being within the Holly Recreational Area.

If you want to avail yourself of its facilities, better phone Holly ME 4-9381 or ME 4-9391 to learn if the skiing is good.

In a recent conversation with

George M. Foster,

Deputy State Highway Commissioner, I learned that any new road construction that receives a major part of its financing from federal sources must not have any intersections or curves that cannot be negotiated at top speed.

Word comes to me from the Rochester Farm and Garden Club that they are to hold their greens market on Thursday and Friday as planned. After the tragic death of at whose salesrooms it was scheduled, there was some agitation to cancel it. However, Mrs. Talley urges the ladies to hold it there, as she is sure that is the way he would want it to be.

Without doubt in a position to know whereof he speaks, of the Michigan Tourist Council tells me that even our state's wonderful scenery cannot fight a winning battle with the weatherman.

Bob Furlong

David Lawrence Says:

Expect Nixon to Travel to Europe

WASHINGTON — It would not be surprising if Vice President Nixon goes to Austria and Central Europe in the near future to make, in behalf of President Eisenhower, an on-the-spot study of the refugee problem created by the barbarism of the Soviet Union in Hungary.

There are so many questions which will involve action by Congress in January that the President, in making legislative recommendations, needs all the information he can get as to the measures the United States should take to show the civilized world it is humanely concerned with the tragic plight of all the peoples of central Europe.

Just a few days ago the vice president made in New York an impressive speech, the general ideas of which were talked over in advance with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles; It reflected the sympathy of the United States with Britain and France in the many economic problems arising out of the Middle East crisis and definitely promised that America would be sympathetic on the matter of financial aid.

Since then, hints have come from administration sources that the whole subject of aid to bolster Europe's faltering economy is being carefully studied with the hope of examining some concrete plans later on when the western European governments have agreed among themselves as to the scope of their immediate needs.

SUPPORT THE OPPRESSED

A trip by the vice president now to Europe would unquestionably show that America is lending moral support to the cause of the oppressed peoples of eastern Europe. Here is a passage in Mr. Nixon's speech of last week which now becomes especially significant:

"The lesson of Hungary is etched in the minds and seared in the souls of all mankind. As a result, Communist parties are breaking up all over the world. The Soviet cannot count on the loyalty of a single satellite country or even of its own troops. Its campaign to win the neutral nations has blown up in its face.

"Can it be seriously suggested that any nation in the world today would trust the butchers of Budapest? What has happened in Hungary is a solemn warning to national leaders everywhere that those who invite the Communist in run the risk of the savage slaughter which has been the lot of the freedom fighters of Hungary.

* * *

"They know that the Communists bring with them not the independence, the freedom, the economic progress and the peace that they promise, but Communist colonialism, slavery, economic exploitation and war.

"At the same time, the events in Hungary have shown our uncommitted friends why the United States believes so strongly in collective security. We are militarily strong only because we know this is necessary to keep the peace today.

"While we oppose the use of force to settle disputes we recognize the need of strong forces of self-defense so long as the Communist world is committed to its policies of world domination by force and violence.

* * *

"We enter into alliances to protect weaker nations from a fate similar to that of Hungary. No one today could seriously suggest that Hungary, Rumania, Czechoslovakia or other Soviet satellites were free or independent. On the other hand, nations which have joined with the United States in collective security pacts have found that their independence has in no way been compromised by this association."

The vice president's speech is undoubtedly one of the most important utterances that has come from the administration in recent weeks. It underlines the firm purpose of the United States to keep attention focused now on what has been happening and is happening in Hungary. This is not America's task alone.

It's a delicate subject requiring considerable inquiry, and it could mean the suspension of the privileges of the present representatives of the alleged Hungarian government until all the facts have been made available, either through a U.N. mission or through the diplomatic representatives of U.N. member countries now resident in Budapest. It could involve the indefinite suspension of all representation of the Hungarian government until the situation is cleared.

This procedure is the only one available, inasmuch as the United Nations charter itself does not provide specific methods of expulsion except by concurrence of the Security Council—on which, of course, the Soviet Union has a veto.

There is every intention here to manifest a continued interest in Hungary and in the other states of Europe where the terrors of Soviet colonialism and militarism have again been arrogantly exhibited to the world.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Advice to Indoor Worker: Avoid Winter Underwear

Reader complaining about excessive sweating—finds himself in a dilemma:

"Despite the fact that my clothing is on the thin and lightweight side of winter wear, this perspiration persists, and I have been warned that it endangers my health when I desperately seek the relief of cool or cold winter air while my pores are open from perspiration. I am 29 years old, 6 feet tall and weigh 235 pounds. I drink five tall glasses of various non-alcoholic beverages per day."

In your place, young man, I'd consider only my own personal comfort at such times and leave it to the fishwives to worry about the effect of "exposure" on my health.

I suppose winter underwear is less painful nowadays, but even so, I think it is a mistake for those who live, work or play mostly indoors to change to heavier or warmer underwear in the winter. It is uncomfortable most of the time, and such excessive warmth causes excessive sweating, both visible and invisible.

FEELS COLD MORE

This keeps the clothing constantly damp, and hence the poor geek inside feels the cold when he goes out more than he would if his underwear were dry. It is like wearing damp shoes or socks—and having cold feet.

So this 6-foot, 235-pound mollycoddle had better bequeath his winter underwear to the moths and put on an overcoat, sweater, wind-breaker or whatever other extra cover he likes when he goes out in extreme cold weather.

Nine out of ten Americans would probably agree with the reader and consider my advice about clothing crazy and dangerous.

You see, nine out of ten Americans learned what they (think they) know from (1) the almanacs distributed by the mostrum makers when you and I were young Maggie; (2) from the conventional pictures of businessmen, with coat collar turned up, braving wind and snow on their way to the nearest spot for a quick one. One such picture is more effective than a thousand words — especially my words — in the health education of most Americans.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady. If a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Colonel Voices Appreciation to USO and Area Citizens

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

In regards to the Christmas Military Ball, the action of the USO in planning a party for the men in Auburn Heights, Commerce and Utica is deeply appreciated.

I should also like to express appreciation for the many other things the USO has done for my soldiers in the area. The good work is an important factor in the high morale of these organizations, and good morale and high operational capability go hand in hand.

My work in this area has been my most pleasant and rewarding military experience, largely because of the good will and the public spirit of the people here in Southeastern Michigan. Whenever in need for help in achieving the proper morale support activities program, we always found the USO most receptive and helpful, and assure you the efforts are appreciated not only by me, but by every member of this command.

Soviet Afraid to Let Dag See Condition of Hungary

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Red Hungary's rejection of U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's plan to visit there Dec. 16 is not surprising.

* * *

What is not stated in diplomatic verbiage is that Hammarskjold would find a very ugly picture in Budapest and other parts of Hungary. Red rulers do not want such a scene officially recorded in the world peace organization.

Scores of thousands of patriots have been killed and wounded by the Russians. Unarmed women demonstrators, mourning dead or deported sons and husbands, are being clubbed by Red troops.

* * *

Despite their agony, the Hungarian patriots are by no means finished. If Hammarskjold were allowed into the country, his presence undoubtedly would create a monster demonstration by millions shouting to the Russians "Russky —go home."

READY FOR WINTER

But the Russians of course have no intention of going home. Reports from inside Hungary say the 15 or more Soviet divisions are settling down for the winter—and that more troops may be coming into the little Soviet-suppressed nation.

* * *

A broadcast from Miskolc radio in northeastern Hungary said Soviet troops have again seized all bridges over the Danube and the River Tisza, which runs on a roughly parallel course 50 miles further east.

Ever since their entry into Hungary, the Soviet forces have kept an iron hold on the main road and rail links leading from Budapest by way of Szolnok, Debrecen and Nyiregyhaza into the Carpatho-Ukraine.

If the Russians have strengthened their hold on all strategic points in the northeast, as indicated in the Miskolc broadcast, there are two possible motives:

First, the Russians may be preparing to install an outright military government throughout the country and to occupy key plants as well as communication centers.

* * *

It is to the propaganda advantage of the Soviets, of course, if they can keep up the fiction that the puppet Kadar actually is ruling Hungary.

ARMED ACTION

Secondly, the Russians may be preparing for further armed action against workers threatening another general strike of indefinite duration.

* * *

In this connection leaflets have been distributed in Budapest in the past few days announcing a new uprising this week.

The Kadar Red regime has described these leaflets as "forgeries."

But Kadar's own record of veracity in recent weeks has not been very distinguished.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe. —Prov. 29:25.

* * *

We come, in our trust, unto God, and the moment we so embrace Him, by committing our total being and eternity to Him, we find everything is transformed.—Bushnell.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

'Abnormality' Isn't Always Bad

Lorna should be glad she is "abnormal," for the type of "normalcy" her boy friend refers to would indicate a juvenile condition. All leaders are abnormal (in the minority). And if you girls wish to pick a real man vs. the synthetic variety, read the practical tests outlined below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-343: Lorna Y., aged 16, is a studious girl with good looks.

"Dr. Crane, what is wrong with me?" she asked unhappily.

* * *

"When I went out with a boy last night, he said I was abnormal just because I didn't want to indulge in a heavy petting party.

"It was our first date together, and I didn't care for him beyond casual friendship, so I didn't want to sit and kiss all evening.

"But he tried to browbeat me into doing as he wished by saying all the girls nowadays pet on their first date.

TRY TO BE ABNORMAL

One definition of "normal" means "that which a majority indulge in."

* * *

People who teach a Sunday school class or participate in varsity athletics, are abnormal, for the vast majority are only spectators, not performers.

Those who earn the large salaries are likewise abnormal, for the average person never has and never will enjoy the top salaries.

You teenagers must face the situation candidly and decide whether you wish to become a lion or a sheep.

Are you going to let others stampede you into wearing bizarre clothes or smoking cigarettes or indulging in college "panty raids," just because the mobs do such things?

* * *

Or are you going to pick your course throughout life with wisdom and "horse sense"?

HIGH SCHOOL SHEEP

When the "normal" or average boy gets into the teens, he is very eager to appear a "big shot."

"How can I impress the girls that I am a he-man?" he wonders.

Then he sees many modern advertisements which try to create the impression that leading men in Hollywood or in business and sports, all smoke or drink or wear a certain brand of clothing.

"I'll smoke and drink and wear those styles, too," he subconsciously thinks, "and then I'll also be a big shot."

Additional teenage symbols of adulthood to the "normal" boy are fast driving on the automobile highways.

And heavy petting parties, plus a multitude of girl friends, likewise are regarded by such boys as he-man symbols, much as the Indians prided themselves on the number of scalps at their belt.

* * *

In the military service, as well as he-man symbols, much as the of their love affairs and pride themselves on the number of girls' photographs they can have standing on their dresser.

JUVENILE SYMBOLS

When teenagers race around in "hot rod" cars at excessive speed, smoking cigarettes, bragging about "how tight I was last night," and boasting of their female conquests, write it off as a stage of juvenility.

"Secretly I feel inferior," they would confess to a psychiatrist, "so I am trying to compensate by acting bold and brave so they'll think I'm a rugged he-man."

Do you earn your own money, as by carrying a newspaper route?

Can you speak in public, as from having taught a Sunday school class?

* * *

Are you a member of a school team, glee club, etc., or an honor student?

Are you planning to go to college? Are you a non-smoker and non-drinker?

Send for my 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. They list the true tests of adulthood.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Automation to Revamp Army?

Role of Combat Soldier Bends to 'New Look,' Says Brig. Gen. Bork

JACKSON (AP)—Brig. Gen. Lester S. Bork, commander of the Michigan military district, says everything in the Army today, except the soldier, will be obsolete in a few years.

"The Army," Bork told the 979th Reserve Engineer Construction Battalion, "is upon the threshold of almost complete pushbutton operation.

"With the new look in military tactics," he continued, "fewer men will be in the front lines and units will be smaller and more tightly organized for greater effectiveness.

atomic shell which will be guided to its target, such as tanks, by an electric wand in the hands of a man in a foxhole.

"Helmets will contain their own radios; rations will be built into disposable gloves, and uniforms will be electrically heated."

Bork spoke at the 979th Battalion's celebration of its first anniversary. It is made up of reservists from Jackson, Hillsdale and Albion.

Bork said the Army will let a contract within the next month or so for a new $500,000 reserve training center to be built in Jackson.

To Close Offices of Tourist Council

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Tourist Council will close its information offices in Detroit and Chicago in mid - summer, the agency announces.

The move will be in line with the Council's plan to change the emphasis of its information program from service to selling.

Robert J. Furlong, Council Executive Secretary, said closing the offices earlier had been considered but that it was deemed wise to wait until the legislature gave its full approval.

The Council, he said, plans to replace the information offices with two "vacation salesmen" who will contact industrial employers, labor groups, transportation companies, travel bureaus and department stores.

One of the objections to the Chicago and Detroit offices, he said, was that they are too "stationary" and limited in area coverage.

Hal Boyle Says:

Orange Juice Beats Beer in Calories

NEW YORK (AP)—Some things a columnist might never know if he didn't read his mail—or old magazines in his dentist's office:

* * *

That it is illegal to catch whales in Ohio on Sundays. . . but in easygoing Tennessee there is no law against shooting them from moving automobiles.

That 96.5 per cent of the farms in Japan have electricity, as compared to only 91 per cent in America.

* * *

That politics has an extra hazard in Sumatra, where, in 1954, three election officials and 55 voters were eaten by tigers.

* * *

That Queen Isabella of Spain—who backed Christopher Columbus on his wrong-way voyage to India—is said to have boasted she took only two baths in her life—when she was born and when she was married.

* * *

That about 10 million volunteer workers raise some five billion dollars in the United States every year for charitable and philanthropic causes.

That 55 per cent of the prisoners released by state and federal prisons are back behind the bars within five years.

* * *

That Thomas Jefferson was one of eight U.S. presidents who never vetoed an act of Congress. Franklin D. Roosevelt used the veto most—631 times.

* * *

That Europeans who sneer at the United States as musically illiterate probably don't realize this country has 938 symphony orchestras. . . and that its radio stations carry an average of 6.9 hours a week of classical music.

* * *

That one-half of American men today wear knit shorts. . . or so an underwear company claims. . . but did you ever hear of a wife who knitted her husband shorts?

That the late bandleader Tommy Dorsey, whose recordings sold in the millions, earned 68 cents for his first public appearance with a band called "the Shenandoah Wild Canaries."

* * *

That beer has fewer calories than orange juice but, on the other hand, tapwater has fewer than either.

That the word "Lord" appears 8,000 times in the Bible.

That the Hotel New Yorker here has an interfaith meditation chapel, open 24 hours a day.

That Lucy Monroe says she has sung "The Star Spangled Banner" more than 3,000 times. Has anybody else even hummed it that often?

* * *

That 26 jet planes, warming up, make as much sound as a full symphony orchestra multiplied 1,000 times.

That Wally Rose, veteran movie "daredevil," says film stunts have cost only four lives in 50 years.

* * *

That the prize keepsake of Gen. Mark Clark president of the Citadel, is a 45 caliber revolver he was carrying when wounded in France during the World War I.

* * *

That if you are planning to be among the first air passengers to the moon, you'd better start hoarding your pennies now . . . at six cents a mile, the round trip will cost $28,680, first class.

That Americans buy 60 million decks of cards a year and spend at least 1,200,000,000 hours a year playing card games.

* * *

That Mari Sandoz, who wrote "The Buffalo Hunters," holds among many distinctions this one—she is probably the only one-eyed lady author in history who was struck by lightning, and survived.

That it was H. L. Mencken who observed, "Men have a much better time of it than women; for one thing they marry later; for another thing, they die earlier."

Insurance Executive Succumbs in Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Joseph E. Murphy, Detroit insurance executive and godfather of Gov. G. Mennen Williams, died Sunday. He was 82.

Murphy at one time was sales manager for the Williams Bros. Co., pickle growers and processors. The firm was owned by Gov. Williams' grandfather, William, and a grand uncle, Harry.

When the Williams Bros. Co. was sold, Murphy organized the Yellow Bonnet Taxicab Co. and in 1916 the Yellow Cab Co. He had been in insurance for more than 20 years.

5 New Cases of Diphtheria

Detroit's Total 156—More Victims Than Polio in 1956

DETROIT (AP)—Five new cases of diphtheria were reported in Detroit over the weekend, bringing the year's total to 156.

Diphtheria now has stricken more Detroiters than polio in 1956. A total of 148 cases of polio have been reported.

The five new diphtheria cases were reported in Detroit's lower West side, where an outbreak of the disease developed a month ago. Of the 156 stricken five have died.

In 1955 only 18 diphtheria cases were found in Detroit and there was only one diphtheria death.

Four additional inoculation teams were scheduled to join today the 16 that administered vaccine to 22,000 children last week in a drive to halt spread of the disease.

Authorities said at least 23,000 more youngsters would receive protective shots before the start of Christmas vacations in the schools Dec. 21.

Cuban Staff States Troops Kill Rebels

HAVANA (AP) — The Cuban general staff claimed troops and Marines killed 23 rebels yesterday in the mountains of southeast Cuba and took 32 prisners near the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo.

Government losses were put at three dead and numerous wounded.

The army said a band of rebels led by former student leader Fidel Castro Ruz was still at large in the mountains but that a determined drive was under way to encircle it.

The latest small-scale revolt against President Batista's regime began with civilian attacks Nov. 30 in Santiago de Cuba, the nation's second largest city.

Those rebels were quickly overwhelmed but Batista's forces have been trying to round up a group of about 80 revolutionaries who were landed from the sea a week ago, reportedly under Fidel Castro's leadership. He has been in exile in Mexico.

Fatally Hit at Crossing

DETROIT (AP)—An 84-year-old Detroit man, Roman Molasky, died in a hospital today five hours after he was struck by a car while attempting to cross a street near his home.

Less than one-seventh of America's people live on farms today. In 1850 almost two-thirds the population was found on farmlands.

The beginning of the American school system was in Boston where in 1635 a schoolmaster was employed to give instruction to children who lived in the pioneer settlement.

France Faces Black Market

Critical Oil Shortage Brings Short Tempers and Weakens Economy

PARIS (INS) — Tempers are getting shorter and prices are getting higher as France enters a more critical phase of the oil shortage.

Black-marketing also is making its reappearance.

Businessmen and merchants' groups are meeting daily to protest to the government, charging discrimination in priority gasoline allotments.

Automobile circulation has dropped off substantially and subways and buses are becoming so crowded that the authorities are beginning to fear that their operating efficiency and safety may be impaired.

Taxis go only where their drivers feel it will be convenient and economical, avoiding trips that require uphill climbs and frequent starting and stopping.

Some motorists are paying two to three times the official price of gasoline, but the prospects are that, when the black-market hits its stride, the price will come down to about 50 per cent above normal.

Tourism, once France's greatest dollar earner, was the first casualty, and the Riviera is practically deserted.

Some of Paris' world famous luxury hotels are icy cold and hot water, promised a few hours each morning, is seldom more than tepid.

Motorists and pedestrians, historically mortal enemies in France, are sharing some common misfortunes together. Neither are able to buy any salt.

A current French rumor is that salt protects against radiation poisoning, and the recent Russian words about rocket-bombs has caused that product to disappear entirely from store shelves.

Barring an unexpectedly rapid resumption of oil shipments through Suez and a reopening of the mideast pipelines, the French can look forward to eight months or a year of continued oil shortages. Any worsening of this situation could be catastrophic for the weakening French economy and would wipe out much of the benefits gained through American aid since the war.

Revenue from gasoline and automobile taxes has already dropped and there are signs of unemployment in the big automobile industry. Prices of nearly new cars are off about 25 per cent and there are few buyers for any type of automobile.

Other raw materials vital to French industry that have been blocked by the closing of the Suez Canal are wool, rubber, and manganese.

Much-needed shipments of American and Caribbean crude oil will cause a serious drain on already short dollar reserves. The middle-eastern oil that comes around the cape will also be expensive due to the long haul.

Britain Starts New Colonial Projects

LONDON — Ten new projects to raise the living standards of people in British colonies have been announced by the British Government. They include a 1,000,000-pound loan to Southern Rhodesia to finance urban schemes for natives' housing for the development of a stable, efficient labor force for local industry; a project in Malaya to encourage the expansion of cocoa growing, and a plan to extend hydroelectric power stations in Kenya.

Pesky Bugs'll Buzz Back in Spring

WASHINGTON—With the coming of cold weather, the bugs have disappeared.

Some rest now in the form of eggs or larvae under the ground. Some, protected by coats of shellac cling to wind-whipped branches. Some calmly freeze, awaiting without injury the spring thaw. Other species are destroyed in the United States and must be replenished next year from sunnier climes. Some go south for the winter. A few have nursemaids to carry them to warm places, care for them, and return them to feeding grounds in the spring.

Others just crawl into a crevice and call it a season, the National Geographic Society says.

In the fall, the female grasshopper deposits in the soil a mass of eggs wrapped in a protective gluelike coat. Warmth will not hatch the eggs of certain species unless they are first frozen—nature's way of insuring that a late warm spell won't bring out young grasshoppers to starve.

EGGS ARE EATEN

Even so, life for a grasshopper egg is not guaranteed. The blister beetle lays its eggs nearby. Young blister beetles may feed on grasshopper eggs before crawling into holes of their own to sleep the winter.

Some fruit-tree twigs appear to be afflicted with inch-long swellings. Those swellings are egg masses of the tent caterpillar, protected from cold and wet by shellac exuded by the adult female. Commercial shellac is produced by Burmese and Indian insects of similar habits.

Many mosquitoes pass the winter as larvae, or "wrigglers," seemingly content to be frozen in ponds and other watery homes. When spring comes they thaw out and, after metamorphosis, buzz off.

Less hardy is the cotton leaf worm, a tropical species that perishes to the last bug in northern winters. Each summer a new invasion comes from the south, reaching as far north as the Great Lakes and Canada where it feeds on many kinds of plants. The monarch butterfly, on the other hand, gathers in northern states in autumn and flies south in swarms thousands strong.

The cercouia moth spins itself a vacuum bottle cocoon—with two walls and an air space between for insulation.

The honey bee lives in its hive, but all the bumblebees die except the queen. Already fertilized, she takes cover wherever she can, awaiting spring and a chance to found a new colony—perhaps in an abandoned mouse hole.

* * *

Most coddled of the wintering bugs is the corn root aphid. Its eggs are carefully collected by a species of ant and carried to nests below the frost line. In spring they are taken to the roots of the first weeds to begin growth. There the young feed until sap begins to flow in corn plants. The ants then transfer their charges to those roots, where they flourish—to the dismay of the farmer.

This is a dairying operation, and the aphids are "cows". The sap that aphids suck holds too much sugar for them in relation to protein content. The excess is secreted. The clear sweet liquid called honey dew is a staple food for the ants, which "milk" the aphids by stroking their bodies.

Record Sales Recorded for Hardtop Automobiles

FLINT — Hard-top automobiles set a new record for popularity among new-car buyers in 1955, climbing into second place with a record-breaking 27 per cent of the year's factory sales.

That was a 10-point increase over the previous peak, reached in 1954.

In 1950 hard-tops accounted for only 4 per cent of new-car sales.

The United States owns about 20,000 long tons of gold.

Australia Starts Making Own Fuel for Aviation

MELBOURNE — Australia's first plant to produce aviation fuel on a large scale has opened at Altona, near Melbourne. Its output represents 40 per cent of the nation's aviation-fuel requirement.

It is a striking example of automation in the chemical industry, for it can be operated by only three men with a simple control handle.

War Forgotten in Booming Hamburg

HAMBURG, Germany (NEA) — There's too much money to be made and too many pleasures to buy these days to waste time remembering a war. That's the mood of this town which is already the most important industrial city of Germany and well on its way to becoming the most important trading and industrial city of Western Europe.

The physical scars of war have been obliterated. Beautiful, substantial, modern buildings replace the awful rubble of 1945. The few remaining ruins only dramatize the new construction going on all over the city.

The hundreds of attractive shops and department stores are crammed with high-quality merchandise and luxuries flowing in from all over the world.

Hamburg's famed night clubs and restaurants are jammed with well-clothed, big-spending customers. Shiny new cars fill the city's wide streets the same as they do on Chicago's outer drive.

EVERYBODY WORKING

Everyone you talk to has a good job and is making good money—or could have a job if he wanted one. There are shortages in many skills and there is serious talk of importing workers from foreign countries.

It's true that the average worker in Hamburg and elsewhere in Germany is caught in an inflation bind. Defense spending has sent prices up. But at least in Hamburg the workers are eating and dressing well. They have plenty of money to clothe and educate their children adequately, and even stash a little away.

Hamburg is enjoying the same industrial boom that's giving America a record prosperity. Brand new concentrations of industry here include new rubber, electronics, pharmaceutical, food processing and cigarette factories, to name a few.

The only current worry of Hamburg's business leaders is the lack of enough capital to finance all the new and expanding business opportunities developing each day. So far this problem has not materially deterred the city's phenomenal industrial growth.

Last year Hamburg's industries did about two billion dollars worth of business, a half-billion dollar jump over 1954. And this year will see another major increase.

There is nothing fly-by-night about Hamburg's expansion. It has a strong air of permanence and durability. New factories and plants are as modern as any in the U.S.

The electronic plants, for example, have automated production lines which rival any in the U.S. The shipyards have labor-saving and automation techniques which make Henry Kaiser's World War II shipbuilding methods antiquated.

A major saving on labor and time is achieved by building the ships in sections, launching the sections and then welding them as they float.

This technique permitted Hamburg shipyards to turn out a record 80 new vessels the past year. One Hamburg shipyard alone built more ships than all of the U.S. yards put together.

New, fast techniques of ship repair have given Hamburg a virtual monopoly on this business, despite the fact that the port got the worst pasting of all from Allied bombers.

One of the most exciting enterprises of the shipbuilding industry here is the atomic reactor, soon to be assembled. It's an advanced research project to perfect atomic power for mechant vessels. Experts believe that it will give Hamburg a major lead in building atomic merchant ships for the future.

The work is being done in cooperation with the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

The Hamburg port, still the city's biggest industry, is busier than ever. Last year the port handled a record 24 million tons, more than its biggest pre-war year.

Peru is bound by five neighbors —Columbia, Bolivia, Chile, Ecuador and Brazil—the most of any nearby country.

It's Cheaper to Attend Theater Via Show-Plane

New Yorkers Leave Town to See Big Hits

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—It is by now legendary data along Broadway that a rich man will sell his shrewdest principles, and a poor man his pure soul, to get a decent seat for "My Fair Lady."

* * *

The stories about broker "bookies" are outrageous. A typical phone call between a savvy "buyer," in quest of a ticket to the hot musical, and a shady seller of same is purported to go something like this:

Hopeful buyer (panting) — "I need a new place. Got anything?"

Broker—"You gotta go way uptown. How about Eighth street on Second avenue?" (This means how about $85 a ticket for seats in the second row.)

Buyer—"Inconvenient. Don't you have something further downtown?"

Broker—"How about 70th street—way out on 10th?"

Broker — "Maybe next spring, Bud."

* * *

And so it goes—either a man's hope or his savings. People who impetuously decide that they want to see "My Fair Lady," or other prized shows like "Bells Are Ringing" and "Auntie Mame," are doomed either to pay through the proboscis or face the ill-disguised sneers of their dates, their clients and their bookies.

A CHEAPER WAY

"There is one way I know to get around the problem," said Miss Betty Murray, speaking blandly and perhaps a trifle smugly with tickets to the big shows tucked away in her big leather pocketbook.

* * *

"You can leave New York and go to someplace like Pittsburgh and catch a show-plane back to Broadway. It may mean a little extra flying, but in the long run it's cheaper than trying to see the big shows through a broker."

Miss Murray, a lithesome brunette who runs weekend flights from 25 Midwest and Eastern cities to Broadway, speaks from experience.

She says New York gents who want to see "the top ones" frequently plan business trips to her show-plane cities and return via her packaged entertainment tours. That way, they can see what productions they want to see at straight box-office prices.

* * *

"The man who flies to Pittsburgh and returns on a show-plane to New York, for instance, gets to see four Broadway hits, have luncheon at Sardi's if he wants, all for only $88, the price of the entire weekend tour.

"Chances are if he just sat by the phone and called ticket brokers, he couldn't get one hot show for that price—certainly not on short notice."

POOR NEW YORKERS

It was in October '55 that she started to sponsor special plane-loads of persons into Manhattan for entertainment-packed weekends and now, more than ever, it is true that the out-of-towner has more of a fair whack at Broadway than the poor, innocent New Yorker.

* * *

"The reason, naturally, is that most of us here don't think beyond the plans for next Friday night," said Miss Murray.

"And there are so many planned theater parties, benefits and travel tours these days that you can't even wait for the critics' reviews to come off the press before asking to get a good ticket. Or you'll get your hopes and bankroll flattened."

On the strength of the joyous delight her customers have expressed in her tours (also, the lucrative aspects of it may enter into her thinking), Miss Murray—who is incorporated under the name of "The American Theater Institute" — is planning greater things.

* * *

"Next year," she says, "we'll offer a weekend hop to London for the opening of 'My Fair Lady' there. And I'm working on a packaged 10-day flight-around-the-world. For pure entertainment, of course.

"It will take in the Folies Bergere in Paris, the opera at La Scala, the bullfights in Madrid, that sort of thing."

It will cost about $1,500 for the entire world whoosh.

* * *

And just think of the fun of telling your friends, as you lie in your bed recuperating:

"My dear, I flew around the world last week. And what have you been doing?"

Proud of Efficiency

Air Force Finds Fast Way to Spend Its Billions

DENVER (INS) — The biggest Air Force budget in history—more than 15 billion dollars—is calmly being spent by less than 2,100 persons at the Air Force Finance Center in Denver.

After five years of operation, the Center employes one-third fewer persons to accomplish the job of paying the U. S. aerial armada around the world. This amazing record of efficiency is due partly to automation and partly to modern management techniques.

Under the guidance of Maj. Gen. John R. Gilchrist, commander of the center and assistant comptroller of the Air Force, the small center has become a model of adaptation of machinery and manpower to a massive paperwork task.

Writing more than 650,000 checks per month and handling well-over 15 million pay and allotment records, the enormity of the job would appear hopeless.

* * *

A staff of 35 officers working with civilian help have worked incessantly to increase productivity and to remove human error from their work.

Machines such as card sorters, automatic check signers, envelope stuffers and voucher writers have been installed, keeping human pencil work to a minimum.

But more than the machines are the systems which improve the flow of material through the money factory.

For example, a high speed filing system is used to file more than 15 million pay records of present and past airmen. The system uses a simplified coding arrangement based on consonants in a name rather than on a straight alphabetical arrangement.

The system saves up to 30 per cent of time spent in filing and locating by the old system.

Efficiency extends even to the coffee breaks. Housed in two long former warehouse buildings, a method of insuring minimum loss of time during morning and afternoon break periods, seven "shrimp boats" — traveling coffee bars — have been set up to take coffee to the work areas.

When workers were slow to get back together after the coffee breaks, it was decided to switch lights off and on as a signal of the beginning and end of the breaks.

But, efficiency-conscious management found that they were blowing out too many fluorescent starters—at a cost which made the small time factor negligible. The system was dropped.

Through efficiency in operation, including a one-fourth reduction in the amount of space needed, the Center has cut costs more than two million dollars.

CHICAGO — The International City Managers Association, in analyzing the fire-alarm problem, found that more than two thirds of all fire calls in the average city are received over home and business telephones, the figure in some cities being as high as 9 per cent.

Youth Discovered Synthetic Dye 100 Years Ago

LONDON — The first synthetic dye was discovered 100 years ago in England by an 18-year-old boy.

William Henry Perkin accidentally discovered mauve while trying to synthesize quinine. During an experiment with aniline, a coal-tar product, he saw a dark-colored mass forming.

When he used alcohol to dissolve it a violet liquid was produced that would dye silk and wool. This was the first of the many alinine dyes.

Moving Firm School Graduates 'Masters'

INDIANAPOLIS — An unusual school operated by a large moving company turns out its graduates as "Masters of Moving." Not until they get their "degrees" are these van operators permitted to move household goods. In the school they learn the best ways to pack and protect articles for shipment.

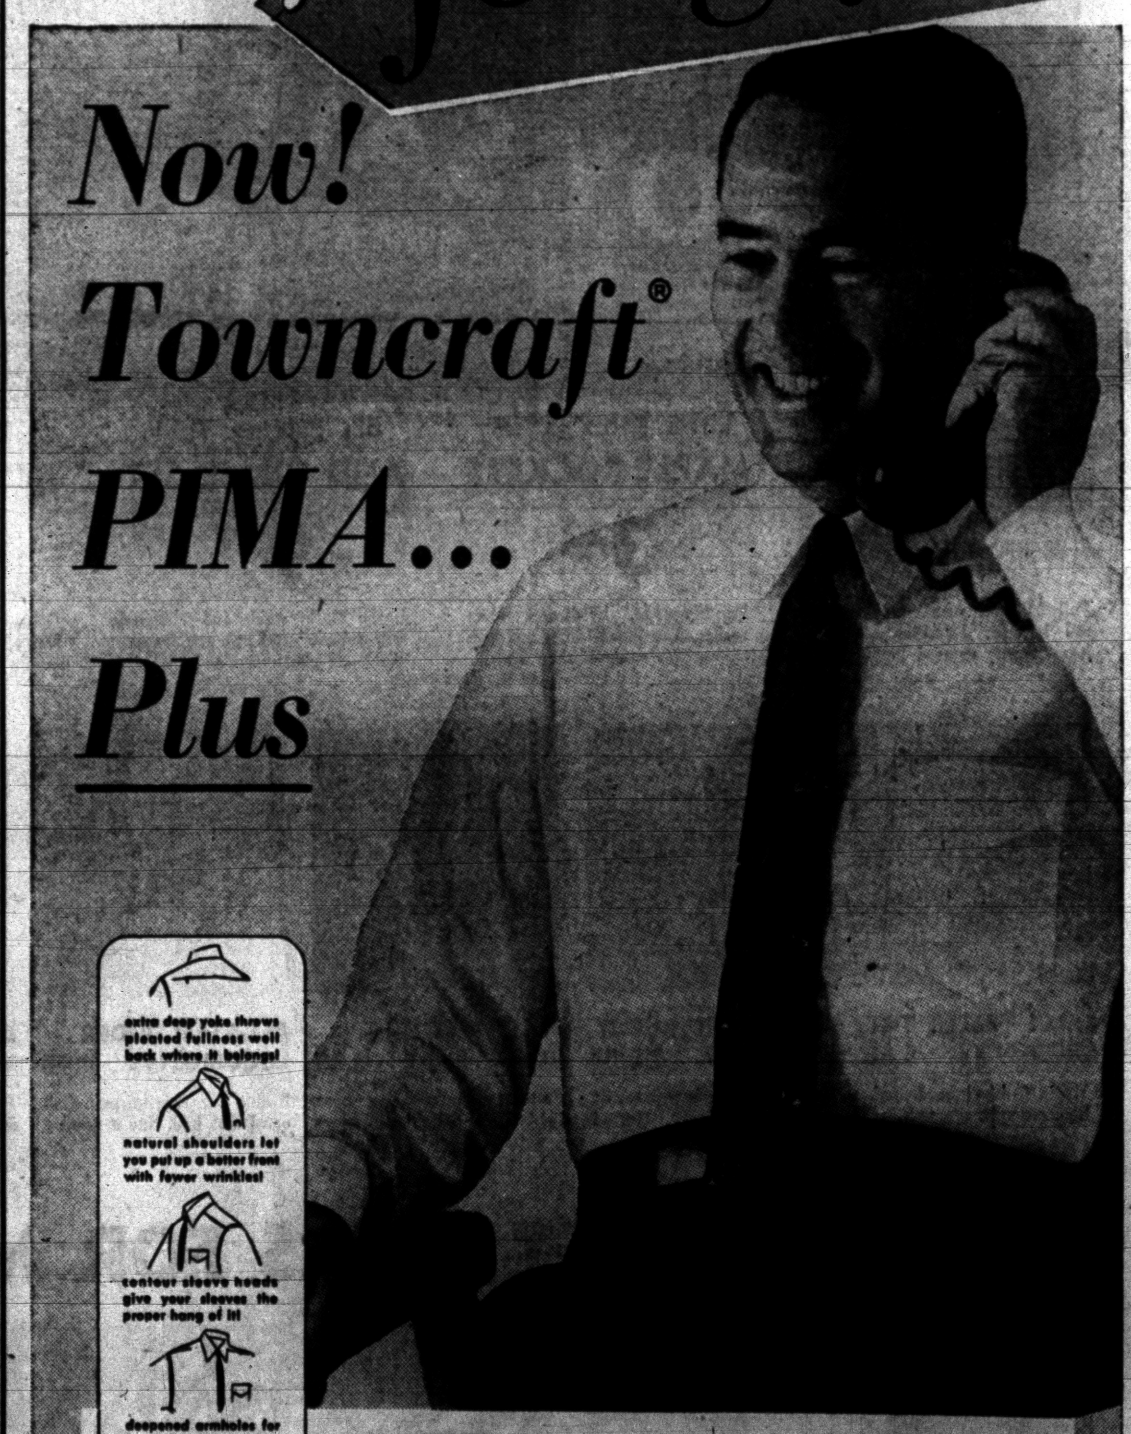

Cancer Exams Rise

NEW YORK (INS)—The American Cancer Society reports the number of persons who have begun having regular physical examinations as a precaution against the disease has risen from 14 per cent in 1948 to 31 per cent in 1955.

Black Market Specter Looms

Paris Fears Lack of Food

PARIS (NEA) — The ghost of the Black Market stalks the streets of Paris these days. While the children gaze starry-eyed at the glittering window displays, wondering what Pere Noel will bring them, their mothers are thinking about their reserves on kitchen shelves.

Despite the reassurances of Prime Minister Guy Mollet, who declared there was no likelihood of food shortages, a wave of panic has swept over French housewives.

Terrified at the prospect of reliving the hungry days of 1940-1946, they have laid in stocks of sugar, rice, flour, canned goods, oil and coffee, as well as soap. In chain grocery stores as well as smaller local shops women, like feverish ants, last week flitted from counter to counter, filling their shopping baskets.

History has a habit of repeating itself. Once again, retailers are treating their clients condescendly. At a small local store where I asked for a bottle of oil and a kilo of sugar, the answer was: "We reserve our supplies for customers who buy everything here"—with great emphasis on "everything."

COUNTRY COUSINS

Parisians are also renewing their contacts with country cousins as sources of supply of dairy foods.

It is useless to try to explain to these distraught hoarders that if and when a global war did happen, their world would probably disintegrate—and their hoards with it.

Neither can they understand that hoarding is not playing the game.

After food, the most important item is clothing. At one department store I was told that there had been many women who had bought two extra winter coats. Another declared they had sold their entire supply of men's and women's woolen underwear, because of restricted heating.

If women cannot understand that hoarding is unpatriotic, many husbands have certainly not given the example. Their assault on gasoline pumps has been like a minor gold rush. Here the black market already has reared its ugly head with automobilists wheedling and promising substantial tips to attendants in exchange for a full tank.

WEEKEND GAS OUT

The recent "gas-less" weekend (pumps closed from Saturday noon to Monday morning) cleared from 30 to 40 per cent of the traffic from the streets of Paris and the national highways.

Gasoline hoarders have been warned that insurance companies will not cover the fire hazard they represent. People are reported to have stowed the precious "juice" away in barrels, demijohns and every possible kind of receptacle in kitchens, cellars and attics. The American jerry-can—which could be picked up for under 50 cents at the Flea Market until a couple of months ago—is now worth around four dollars and difficult to come by.

What the French consumer may feel eventually is more than just the pinch on oil. Imports of tin, rubber, manganese, jute and cotton face a slowdown if they are detoured around the Cape, too. Seventy-five per cent of the rubber used by France, for instance, normally comes via the Canal.

• • •

Meanwhile Parisians are renewing their acquaintance with the Metro, which at peak hours is now almost as crowded as the New York subway.

Another consequence of the blocking of the Suez Canal are the heating restrictions. People living in modern houses or apartment buildings already have had their gas-oil supplies cut by 30 per cent and face a shivering winter. Hospitals and public buildings are also cutting down on heating.

The Government insists that this is only a matter of a few months, but the recent cold wave has slowed down private entertaining until hostesses get themselves organized. Even people lucky enough to have old-fashioned open fireplaces in their homes have to wait for deliveries of coal which apparently is also in short supply, although through no fault of Nasser.

This promises to be a semi-austerity Christmas for the French. With automobile traffic restricted, and de luxe trains off the railroad schedules, proprietors of hotels in mountain resorts as well as on the Riviera are considering whether it is worth their while to open at all.

To Try Seven Men for Beating Negro

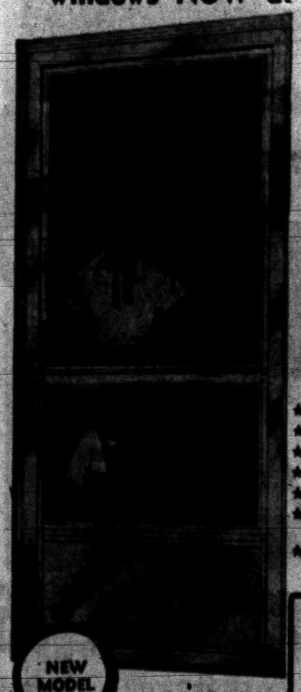

BUSHNELL, Fla. (AP) — A Circuit Court trial opens today for seven white men accused of flogging Jesse Woods, 39, Wildwood Negro, who allegedly said "Hello there, baby" to a white woman.

Charged with false imprisonment were Ezekial Aldeman, George Altman and Max Stumborg, all of Wildwood; Robert Nesmith and Leaman Lundy, both of Belleview; Doyle Polk of Marion County; and Keith Sands of Jacksonville. All pleaded innocent when originally charged.

State Atty. A. P. Buie, trial prosecutor, said Altman and Polk held a gun on Woods and are listed as principals. The others are listed as accessories, he said.

Nationalism Rises in Satellites

Soviets Straddle Deepening Crisis

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
Foreign News Analyst

The Communist empire—the biggest and cruelist in world history since Genghis Khan—is undergoing an acute and deepening crisis.

Like the crisis of the old imperialisms of Britain and France with which it has a great deal in common, this crisis of Communist imperialism has manifestations in the form of local explosions all over the map.

Thus in Poland a new "national Communist" regime has been created.

In almost all the other Soviet satellite states of Eastern Europe there have been manifestations of one type or another of trends similar to those in Poland and Hungary.

In a different aspect of the crisis of Communist imperialism there has been a renewal of open differences between the Kremlin in Moscow and President Tito's Yugoslavia.

CRISIS HITS ASIA

The crisis of Communist imperialism has even reached into Asia where in North Viet Nam revolts took place against the Communist regime.

There are common denominators in all these phenomena. The first of these is the conflict between nationalism and internationalist communism of the Lenin and Stalin type. It has always been a basic concept of internationalist communism from the Bolshevik revolution on that the entire Communist movement in whatever county located should be subject to one monolithic discipline from one centralized source of power, the Kremlin.

Soviet attempts to apply this principle have meant subjugation and exploitation of other nations, inside and outside the Soviet Union, by Moscow. Internationalist communism has always attempted to use nationalism for its own purposes in seizing power for itself, in undermining old colonial empires and regimes, and to whatever extent possible for maintaining itself in power.

But the fact remains that nationalism must always be in conflict with internationalist communism because the latter in just as great a degree as older forms of colonialism and imperialism such as those of the British and French denies to nationalities free and sovereign control over their own affairs.

* * *

This conflict first broke into the open with the defection of Tito's Yugoslavia from the Soviet empire. This started the crisis of Communist imperialism. It entered another phase with the establishment of Communist China, independent of the Kremlin except for economic assistance. The defection of Poland from the Soviet empire is a further step. There will be more to come.

BASIC CONFLICT

The second basic conflict within the Communist empire is that between the Communist state apparatus of power, the bureaucracy, and the citizenry, which is being exploited in the interests of the bureaucrazy's drive for economic and military might and eventual world domination.

The exemplification of the accumulated pressure behind this second conflict is Hungary where both the rank and file of the Hungarian Communist party and the citizenry, including students and workers as the most active elements, found it possible to unite on a revolutionary program of: (1) Attainment of national independence through explusion of Soviet troops from the country. (2) The destruction of authoritarian controls of the Communist state apparatus over the citizenry.

Now if the revolt of Yugoslavia inaugurated the first phase of the crisis of Communist imperialism, it was the Hungarian revolution which brought it into its second phase. But these two phases must now develop together, since only in the presence of an acute conflict between nationalism and internationalist communism can the other conflict, that between the bureaucracy and citizenry, find the most fruitful grounds for its expression.

This in turn means that the most acute sector of the crisis of Communist imperialism must be located in the Soviet orbit, in particular in East Europe. However, it should not be forgotten that the crisis also reaches within the Soviet Union itself.

The dilemma of the Kremlin, as the capital of Soviet Communist imperialism, is that it can either return to Stalinist type terror in order to keep its grip on those Eastern European regimes which it still controls, or else it must loosen its grip on those regimes and see them all become either nationalist Communist governments or non-Communist

In neither case is the prospect very happy for Moscow's Communist imperialists. However, they have not yet shot their bolt, and presumably they are still counting on a factor which has always come to their aid in their most acute moments—namely, the incapability of the West in exploiting the weaknesses of Communist imperialism.

Gives Heroic Presentation

Dying Lawyer Argues

WASHINGTON (INS) — A dramatic story of a Washington lawyer's struggle against lung cancer to argue his last case before the Supreme Court has been unfolded following his death.

The attorney, Prew Savoy, 57, made the appearance before the high tribunal Wednesday knowing that he was dying of the dread disease. Rushed home after the hearing, he was found dead Friday.

To prepare himself for his last case, Savoy fortified himself with transfusions of six pints of blood and spent last week end in the hospital resting up and dictating his final briefs.

During his appearnce before the court, the well-known attorney was ashen-faced and coughed frequently but stood arguing in behalf of his client for a full hour.

The nine black-robed justices were aware of his condition and limited themselves to perfunctory questioning. A trained nurse was waiting in the rear of the chamber in case Savoy collapsed.

The Lawyer's office said that he "just made it out of the court" and rushed home to bed after his arguments. Associate Justice William O. Douglas described it as a "heroic presentation."

OPERATION USELESS

Savoy was told by his physicians last February that he was suffering from such an advanced case of cancer that an operation would be useless. They gave him three to 18 months to live.

But he was determined to process to the Supreme Court the case on which he had worked for several years. It involved a $119,000 suit against the government by a Philippine civilian whose supplies were requisitioned by Guerrillas during World War II.

Savoy argued that since the Philippine Guerrillas were recognized by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, they were part of the U. S. Military Strength and this country was responsible for their upkeep.

California Leads Nation in Motor-Fuel Usage

LOS ANGELES — During 1955 California easily led the rest of the nation in motor-fuel consumption. Californians consumed 5,615-billion gallons in 1955, an increase of nearly 360,000,000 gallons over the year before.

The next state was Texas, with 4,438 billion gallons, New York was third with 3,515; Ohio fourth with 2.9, and Pennsylvania fifth with 2.8.

Have Hay Fever? San Francisco's Place for You

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — If a resident of San Francisco sneezes, itches, has a clogged nose and swollen eyes, he may have something, but it is doubtful that it is hay fever induced by ragweed pollen.

The American Foundation for Allergic Diseases told the Ragwood Empire Association that the ragweed pollen index for San Francisco was 0.2. By the way of contrast, the index figure for one community in Michigan was 190.

The ragweed pollen index was compiled by Oren C. Durham, secretary, Pollen Survey Committee, American Academy of Allergy, Chief Botanist, Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago.

* * *

The symptoms noted above are typical of hay fever brought about by ragweed pollen. Cities or communities having an index figure above 10 are not recommended for those subject to such an allergy, according to the survey. The index between 5 and 10 is considered fairly good, below 5 is good and below one is excellent.

Kim Novak in Car Involved in Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A car in which actress Kim Novak was a passenger struck a pedestrian at an intersection in suburban Brentwood last night, police reported. Officers said an auto driven by Mac Krim, 36, Detroit broker struck Claire Bell Duncan, 41, a domestic employed nearby, at Sunset Boulevard and Saltair Avenue. The pedestrian was hospitalized with what police said was a possible leg fracture. Krim was not held.

Ill-Gotten Gains Hard on Studies

Admitted Bank Robber Described as Playboy by MIT Officials

OKLAHOMA CITY (INS) — John Robert Wagner, brilliant Chicago youth who said he robbed a bank to finance his education, lost all interest in his studies when he got the feel of the money.

This bit of irony was revealed by officials at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who first put authorities on the trail of the 18-year-old student.

Young Wagner, who was arrested Saturday in Oklahoma City while on a spending spree, admitted he robbed the Richmond State Bank in McHenry County, Ill., of $19,600 on Aug. 20.

He enrolled in MIT on Sept. 7 and at first was a brilliant student. But the money soon started burning a hole in his pocket and he developed into a good time Charlie.

He bought a convertible, wined and dined many girls in top night spots and picked up the tabs for his friends.

* * *

MIT officials said his marks dropped to "poor" and he was on the verge of being expelled when he disappeared Nov. 26.

Wagner, who described himself as a "mixed-up character" when he confessed the robbery to Oklahoma City authorities, asked U.S. Marshal Mike McGrew yesterday to be allowed to enter a plea of guilty in Oklahoma.

* * *

Albert Wagner also said he will seek a psychiatric examination for John.

Indian Loses Family in Detroit

Squaw Fails to Stay Put

DETROIT (INS) — A frustrated Arapahoe Indian from Wyoming lost his wife and child for 12 hours yesterday while driving through Detroit.

The day of futility began for 22-year-old Lary Truyen when his old car broke down somewhere on the Ford expressway. He left his wife and infant son in the car while he went for help.

Somehow he wandered all over town, finally reaching a friend's home on the far West Side. But by the time he got to the friend, Carl Whittich, he forgot where he left his family.

The two searched the expressways for hours without results and then went to police with their story.

Truyen said he was worried because his wife, Theresa, had violated the old Indian custom of "squaw stay put." He explained: "You say to squaw, 'Stay here till I come back' and she stay even if it couple days."

While at the station, a call came in that the Indian woman was found with her 15-month-old son, Kenneth.

Truyen's wife managed to get the car started and drove "until I thought it was far enough to stop."

Truyen said he has an income of about $600 and $900 a quarter in oil royalties and had only $1.50 when he lost his family.

Footprints in Snow Lead to Sherlock

DETROIT (AP)—The trails of the police and Sherlock Holmes crossed over the weekend. And Sherlock's trail led straight to jail.

Investigating a purse-snatching downtown, Police said they began following footprints at the scene. The footprints in fresh snow led to a backdoor.

Police said they found Holmes and five others inside imbibing of moonshine whisky. All were arrested on a charge of violating state liquor laws.

Seek Robbers in Kalamazoo

Two Escape With Furs, Jewels and Cash From Executive's Home

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Two robbers who terrorized a Kalamazoo couple and their houseguest with knives before escaping with an estimated $5,000 in cash, jewelry and furs were sought today.

The bandits, both masked broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge Saturday night. They and their guest, Mrs. Mary Harley of Kansas City, were preparing for bed at the time.

Mrs. Harley, sister of Mrs. Rutledge, said she heard tinkling of broken glass and walked into a hallway. There, she said, she was confronted by two men masked by handkerchiefs.

They shoved her into a bedroom and then pushed Rutledge and his wife inside after binding them with adhesive tape.

Rutledge, 64, is president of the Rutledge Coperation Inc., a Kalamazoo wholesale firm. Police said Rutledge told them that the loot included a mink coat valued at $800, a mink scarf, three diamond rings, a sapphire ring, a platinum watch and $45 in cash.

U. of M. Increases Journalism Enrollment

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The University of Michigan's Journalism enrollment increase percentagewise is tops in the nation, the Michigan Press Assn's Journalism Education Committee learned over the weekend.

F. Granger Weil, executive vice president of the Port Huron times Herald and committee chairman, said Michigan's Journalism enrollment increased 36 per cent this year, compared with last, while 15 of 38 accredited schools reported losses.

Holiday Time Set for City Employes

Christmas and New Year holidays will begin at noon Dec. 24 and 31 for most city employes, Pontiac City Manager Walter K. Willman announced today.

In a letter submitted to the City Commission Friday, the Employe's Council requested the entire day of Dec. 24 as a holiday.

* * *

"This was denied because it would mean the city offices would be closed from Friday evening until Wednesday morning," Willman explained.

For those workers having to work the full day before Christmas and New Year's, compensatory time will be granted, he said.

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors last week granted county workers holidays for Dec. 24 and 31.

A Red Horse

All over the world in many lands and through many ages, children have played with toys made by themselves or their elders.

Those playthings were whittled from wood, modeled in mud and sun-baked, woven from straw or corn husks, fashioned from bits of rags.

Children today still like to make their own toys or play with something. home-made.

This week we are bringing you a set of toys you can make for yourself or as gifts for friends. If you use care and skill, you can produce some very attractive playthings.

Cut out the figure and fold the top section along the dotted line at the top of the saddle. Then it can stand up, as shown in the small sketch and the horse will rock.

Playing main parts will be Robin Turner and Merrill Sikorski. Dick Hartman will play a leading role.

200 Turn Out for Presbyterian Women's Dinner

Two hundred members attended the 10th annual Christmas dinner of the Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church, held Friday evening in the church parlors. Mrs. Robert Boggs served as dinner chairman and Mrs. Eldred Mathes, hospitality chairman.

The invocation was given by the Rev. E. D. Auchard. The presentation of "A Christmas Fantasy" by Mrs. Neil W. Gray, program chairman, and members of her committee followed.

Mrs. E. D. Auchard was in charge of the presentation of Christmas gifts. The installation service of the 1957 executive board, on which Mrs. H. H. Patterson will serve as president, was conducted by Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel.

At the recent meeting of Fashion Your Figure Club, plans were made to have an ingathering of food and clothing at the Dec. 13 meeting, at which time members will prepare a Christmas basket for a needy family.

Mrs. Mary Hixon, home demonstration agent for Oakland County, will also explain Extension Group work at the Dec. 13 meeting. She will tell the purposes of the group's work in the family, home and community.

DAV and Auxiliary Plan Family Party

The annual family Christmas party of Chapter 16, Disabled American Veterans, and the DAV Auxiliary will be held Dec. 15 at the American Legion Home. A turkey dinner will be served from 6 to 7 p.m., with the Children's Happy Hour from 7:30 to 9:30. Santa will present gifts to the children.

This past week, the chapter and auxiliary entertained state officers at an open meeting held at Hotel Roosevelt. Commander Alice Jewell of DAV Auxiliary 16 presented a Flag to the YWCA.

Tell Him What You Want in New Car —He'll Get It!

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Dear girls: If you would like a kitchenette, vanity table or bottle warmer built into your next automobile, just write to Harley J. Earl, vice president in charge of styling, General Motors, Detroit, Mich.

The affable, 6-foot-4 dean of motor car design, who has been dubbed "Mr. Automobile," says all he wants to know is what the ladies want in an automobile and, by gum, he'll give it to them. In New York for the opening of the automobile show, Earl relaxed for

"I've designed more than 30 million cars," said he, "and it wasn't until a couple of years ago that I realized how much I could learn from women. This was at a shindig in New York, where about 300 newspaperwomen from all over the country were present. I invited them to fire questions at me, and boy, did they fire! I never had to answer so many things so fast in my life.

"Since then, I've been listening to the remarks women make about their cars, and a lot of the changes in the 1957 automobiles are the result of this listening."

Earl spoke with admiration of the women designers now on the staff of each of the General Motors cars. Said he:

"We have one woman doing interior design for each of the cars, along with four men. Well, did you ever see a girl with four brothers: She bosses them all. It's the same way in our plant. These girls think of all kinds of things that never occur to men, and they get them through too."

Bob Hope Tells How He 'Wowed' Presidents

By JAMES. L. KILGALLEN
INS Staff Writer

In his 25 years in show business, making millions of people all over the world laugh, Hope—now 53—says he never enjoyed himself more than when he did his stuff before Dwight D. Eisenhower, Harry S. Truman and the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Hope, king of the ad libbers, gags it up before presidents with as much easy nonchalance as he has over the years for vaudeville audiences in tank towns, for GIs overseas, and for royalty. Twice he has appeared before Queen Elizabeth and once before King George VI.

Audiences everywhere are pretty much alike, according to the famous comedian with the ski-nose and the pixie technique.

He told the writer the other day that the first affair he MC'd for President Eisenhower was a correspondents' dinner in Washington, D. C. The day before the event Hope played golf with the President.

"Ike used a short Democrat for a tee," Hope quipped to the dinner guests.

That wowed 'em. When the applause died down, Hope added:

"He was hitting the ball much further than I. He had Sen. McCarthy's picture painted on the ball."

In his best dead-pan manner Hope noted there were a number of secret service men at the dinner, all keeping a close eye on Ike. He went on:

"It's disconcerting to play golf with Ike because all over the course you see secret servicemen with machine guns in their bags. I shot a lousy 83."

WHAT'S THE ANTE?

Hope said he and Ike were partners and before the match he asked the President how much they were playing for. He quoted Ike as saying:

"I just loaned a billion dollars to Bolivia. But I only play $1 Nassau."

"We lost four bucks," Hope added.

Warming up after the laughs, Hope tossed off this gag:.

"You know, fellows, I knew the President during the war in Algiers. They sent him over to replace Charles Boyer. That was when Eisenhower was a general and had some power."

"Ike loved that one," Hope recalled.

TRUMAN LIKES JOKE

The irrepressible comic said Mr. Truman loves a joke as well as Ike or FDR. Hope entertained a radio broadcasters' dinner in Washington during the Truman administration. Truman's close friend, Harry Vaughan, was in the news at the time. Truman had just promoted Vaughan from brigadier general to major general.

Hope told the audience:

"I went up in the elevator with Major Vaughan (he omitted the word general.) He went up one floor too many and had to walk down. He overshot his rank."

"Truman went into stitches," said Hope.

President Roosevelt was wonderful to perform before, too. Hope said the first show he did for FDR was a correspondents' dinner in Washington.

In those days Roosevelt and the late Colonel Robert R. (Bertie) McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, weren't getting along too well. FDR's dog was in the news at the time. This was Hope's cue for he is fond of the topical gag.

That one almost broke up the dinner, according to Hope.

* * *

Glancing at the amused FDR, Hope went on:

"The last time I heard of President Roosevelt he was out on the ocean with Winston Churchill. They were planning war strategy —meaning when and where will we attack the enemy and how to keep Eleanor out of the crossfire."

"It was a pleasure and an honor to play to such audiences," Hope commented. "All presidential audiences are wonderful."

APPEARS BEFORE ROYALTY

Hope was just as relaxed when he appeared before King George VI in 1947 and before Queen Elizabeth in 1953 and again in 1955.

"I gave them topical jokes and they liked it," said Hope. "I never have a set act. My stuff is off the cuff."

I asked the British-born Hope if he was nervous the first time he played the Palladium, London's famous vaudeville theater in 1952. I pointed out it's a distinction to make good at the Palladium and that Danny Kaye, Frank Sinatra and Jack Benny had gone over big there.

"No, I wasn't nervous or excited," Hope declared. "After all, I was getting top money at the time. I had played for two presidents before that and had MC'd seven academy award shows.

"I will say I got a big kick playing the Palladium. It was tremendous. The Palladium draws a fantastic audience, perhaps the best in the world. They knew who I was, having seen me in the movies.

* * *

"They received me well, and I went back the next year. They like American humor. Our humor is fast and brittle; British humor is subtle and slow. Good humor goes over anywhere. The trick is adapting yourself to your audience."

Maple Leaf Club Holds Annual Christmas Party

The singing of Christmas carols and the exchange of gifts around the lighted Christmas tree highlighted the program following the Friday luncheon of the Maple Leaf Club. Thirty members attended the affair held at Hotel Waldron.

Arrangements for the Christmas party were made by Mrs. Everett Harris, Mrs. William McClure, Mrs. Earl Long and Mrs. Arthur Hunt.

Frantic Fear of Old Age Causes Mature Husband to 'Stray'

(This is the sixth of seven articles presenting case histories of "Marriage on the Rocks"—from the files of the Family Service Association of America—together with advice and opinion of experts on what can be done to prevent a marriage from breaking up. All names used in these real case histories are fictitious.)

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

Scientific advances have lengthened the life span of all of us, and brought potential added strains to the marriage ties.

Among the most serious of these strains, according to marriage experts, are the "empty nest" home and declining sexual drives, as illustrated in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Bellson.

Bellson was a successful salesman in his late fifties. He had sent three children through college and had seen them all happily married.

When his wife came in for counseling she was accompanied by her husband's oldest friend. Bellson was drinking so heavily they both feared he would lose his job or get killed in an automobile mishap.

TOOK EFFORT

It took the combined efforts of wife, friend and case worker to get Bellson to come in for an interview.

And it took several interviews before the case worker could get to the root of Bellson's drinking. Here is how the case worker reconstructed the story:

* * *

The Bellsons were in that latter period of middle-age which is marked by a perceptible diminution of sexual activities in both the man and the woman.

There is always a great and understandable fear in the face of this fact. It is accompanied by a realization that we are all growing older and "less attractive" in some important respect.

Bellson felt his wife was fading faster than he, that she was losing her looks but he was still attractive to women.

* * *

Mrs. Bellson felt her husband was less interested in her. Added to that was her intense loneliness; her children, who had occupied her time in the first 25 years of marriage, were gone.

Bellson, without knowing really what he was trying to prove, took to drinking heavily and chasing after other women, particularly the secretaries in his company's home office.

To the experienced psychiatrist, Bellson's behavior followed the familiar pattern of an aging man trying to prove his virility by what is believed to be "manly" characteristics.

There was a double twist to the rebellion behavior: It is a well-established scientific fact that alcohol lessens rather than heightens sexual activity.

In January the case worker had helped the Bellsons get started on working out their mutual problems.

By May the couple had made real progress as they came to recognize the facts of later life. The husband had cut down considerably on his drinking. The wife, aware of his sexual fears, did her part to ease them and make him feel attractive.

* * *

He began responding to her with compliments and the attention she needed in her own post-menopause period of difficulties.

Together they began to rebuild their marriage for the retirement years ahead, choosing a realistic foundation appropriate to the changed circumstances of the later years.

Music Meetings Scheduled

* * *

The meeting will b attended by students interested in continuing music education in college.

Barbara Reinhardt, a senior in music education at Michigan State University, will direct the discussion period. Questions pertaining to the necessary curriculum requirements for college entrance and the musical background one should acquire during the junior and senior high school ars will be answered by Miss years will be answered by Miss Reinhardt.

She will perform her "jury" piano selection required of all music education or applied music majors at MSU.

* * *

A representative from University of Michigan or Wayne University will be presented at future meetings. Those interested in attending these meetings may contact Miss Roth for information.

Mother, Don't Be Cross When You Must Say 'No'

Home Will Be Happy, Free of Tension if Mom Stays Calm and Speaks Softly

By RUTH MILLETT

"Don't look so cross when you say 'No,' Mommy," the small boy told his mother whose face was distorted with scowling annoyance. She told her young son he couldn't have the cookies he wanted to add to her supermarket grocery cart.

* * *

Mothers, in the course of any day, have to say a lot of "no's." They have to do a lot of correcting, refereeing, and give a lot of orders.

But with it all, the atmosphere of a home will stay happy and children will be sunny if the mother keeps her voice calm, her face unmarred by tight, hard impatience and her eyes soft and gentle.

* * *

It is not just small children who hate to be talked to in a cross, impatient voice. Teenagers hate it, too, and perhaps the reason why some of them are so rude to their mothers is simply because they are reflecting the tone of voice their mother has used for years when talking to them.

CALM OR UPSET

More than any one thing, a mother's voice can calm or upset a whole household.

* * *

If her voice is warm and kind, if she is quick to laugh, if she refuses to let hurry make her impatient and cross, family life runs smoothly. Even minor crises are met without ruining anyone's day.

But if a mother's voice is frequently impatient, if her face wears a deep frown more often than a warm smile, if she can't say "no" without getting angry, tensions rise and home isn't a very happy place for anyone—including Mama.

Staying calm and pleasant is a big order, of course. But not too big for any woman who realizes how much happiness she can create just by speaking softly and looking pleasant.

Large thick crayons are better than the thinner ones for the pre-schooler, suggest child development specialists. They will not break as easily and they can be held and managed more easily by small children.

Medical scientists estimate the human lungs take in about 25 ounces of oxygen in every 24 hours.

Don't Lie About Child's Tardiness

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A child's face will suddenly seem thin to us, a little overtired.

* * *

One night Bill Downing's face seemed that way to his mother. As he came to kiss her goodnight, she thought, "It's because they start growing so fast at 9 years old." And she went to the kitchen to make Bill a glass of hot milk.

The next morning, instead of waking him for school, she let him sleep on. He awoke at 11 o'clock, and rested, hungry, but anxious, came clattering down the stairs yelling, "What did you let me sleep for? I'll have to have a tardiness note for school . . ."

"You'll be in plenty of time for the afternoon session," his mother said, buttering his toast.

Bill stopped swallowing orange juice abruptly. "What are you going to say in the note?" he asked.

EXTRA SLEEP

"That Daddy and I thought you needed some extra sleep this morning," his mother said.

* * *

"Miss Lyons will be awful sore," Bill told her gloomily. "She'll ask me what I think I am—a baby?"

Then, plaintively he asked, "Do you hafta tell her I slept late? Couldn't you say I had a little sore throat? Or my stummick was upset?" Brightening suddenly, he said eagerly, "I know. You could say you had to take me to the dentist. . ."

His mother passed him his plate of scrambled eggs. "No," she said, "no lies by mothers and fathers in this house. If I lied to save you from Miss Lyons' being mad at you, how could I expect you to tell me the truth when you've done something that's made me mad at you? I could not.

"So don't ask me to lie to Miss Lyons. Compared with our telling the truth to each other, her dislike of your sleeping late isn't important at all."

REASSURING TO HIM

This refusal to shield Bill from his teacher's displeasure by lying to her was deeply reassuring to him. He still didn't relish the prospect of Miss Lyons' criticism—but he felt much less anxious about it.

His mother's trust in the goodness of truthfulness had allayed his fear of its bad consequences.

Parents who falsify reasons for children's school tardiness and absence make serious problems for themselves. They imagine they are being "kind" when they agree to a youngster's demand—and lie for him.

The fact is, the child's demand is really a test of their trust of truth. When they fail it by lying for him, he is deeply disappointed.

Today, Any Woman Can Become Attractive

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

"Outward beauty is not enough. Words, wit, play, sweet talk and laughter, surpass the work of too simple nature. For all device of art seasons beauty."—Petronius.

* * *

So much emphasis is put on physical beauty and youth that women are apt to lose sight of the source of real fascination. Of course we would all like to have perfection of feature, naturally curly hair and flawless skin, but these are only cold monuments to luck, and sometimes freeze rather than warm, unless there is an inner light to illuminate them.

Many women are depressed because they are not beautiful or pretty by stereotyped standards, while others who are less gifted blossom forth with sparkling and vibrant personalities. I often wonder why so many women who are plain, so far as physical inheritance is concerned, are so magnetic and interesting.

It seems to me that one of two things is true. Either they are smart enough to accept the situation and realize that they must make up for lack of natural beauty with personality and good nature, or they are just naturally so full of the love of life that they simply bubble with enthusiasm and friendliness. Of course, nothing is so contagious as the latter!

* * *

Anyhow, standards of beauty have changed. The anemic, and sometimes neurotic beauty of the past is no longer intriguing. Today verve, aliveness, enthusiasm, awareness, a sense of humor, warmth and understanding are at a premium.

START LIVING!

So, if you are not as pretty as the girl or woman next door, do not bemoan your fate, but start living. Enjoy life, look out rather than in, open your heart to those about you, look for the funny side of things. Wave at the world and it will wave back at you!

* * *

An alive, expressive face which reflects the spirit within is always a charmer. Just to show you how personality can make physical defects negligible, I will tell you something my daughter said when she was very young.

She fell in love in the first grade and was describing the young man to me. She said, "Oh Mother, he is wonderful! He has blue eyes and blond hair and buck teeth."

Actually, today physical attractiveness is within the reach of every woman who is willing to work for it.

Any woman is good looking who is well-groomed, who has lovely posture, clear skin, a well-proportioned figure, has taken advantage of tricks in makeup and hair styl-ing and has learned how to dress. Even defects can be turned into assets with this magic.

Fine health and a happy outlook are your main allies.

Menopause is just as natural a process in the life of a woman as puberty, menstruation and childbearing. The phrase "change of life" was unfortunate because it indicates untruths. The following is a quotation from a public affairs pamphlet, "Understanding Your Manopause."

* * *

"If this natural phase in a woman's development were not so charged with emotional and psychological voltage, we could probably dispose of the subject by this statement: The menopause marks the end of only one function—a woman's childbearing capacity. From this we could infer logically that, since all other vital functions are unimpaired, life can be expected to go on as usual, except for childbearing."

Why is this experience dreaded and the very thought of it so fraught with emotional turmoil? There are two reasons:

In the first place the average woman is ill-informed concerning just what menopause is, what actually happens in her body at this time, and what she has a right to expect.

* * *

The second reason is because of the "old wives' tales" she hears over and over again. It has been said that a woman is apt to lose her mind at this time, that she will age rapidly from here on, that she will be susceptible to serious disease, that her personality will change, that her husband will lose interest in her, that she will become obese, that it is the end of sex life.

COMPLETELY FALSE

All of these ideas are completely untrue. Aging is gradual, from birth to death. Many of the chronic diseases which victimize women, and men, too, occur in the middle years and would have happened anyway, but change of life gets the blame. Physical weaknesses begin to show up at this age regardless of menopause.

* * *

The fact that a woman no longer can have children has no effect on her sex life. To the contrary, many women are better adjusted than in former years. They do not live such rushed, tiring lives and they no longer fear pregnancy.

In Kinsey's "Sexual Behavior of the Human Female" he reports, "Some of the sexually most active females in our survey were women in their 50's and 60's who were well past the age of menopause."

It is to be suspected that this "old wives' tale" was promoted by women who welcomed menopause as an excuse for ending a relationship to which they never were well adjusted.

* * *

The woman who approaches this time of life in good health (physically and emotionally) has nothing to fear. Even if she is not so fortunate, today there is medical and psychiatric help for her when she needs it.

If you would like to have the very comprehensive public affairs pamphlet about menopause, send 25 cents to The Public Affairs Committee at 22 E. 38th St., New York City. This is a non-profit, educational organization.

Married Friday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook were Mary Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of Franklin, and David Arpin Brennan of Detroit. He is the son of Mrs. Rowland Edward Brennan of Evanston, Ill., and the late Mr. Brennan.

MRS. DAVID ARPIN BRENNAN

Rite Read at Cranbrook for Mary Elizabeth Smith

Mary Elizabeth Smith became the bride of David Arpin Brennan in a ceremony performed Friday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook.

* * *

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wellington Smith of "Romany Acres," Franklin, and the bridegroom, of Detroit, is the son of Mrs. Rowland Edward Brennan of Evanston, Ill., and the late Mr. Brennan.

* * *

Mrs. Bruce Holmes Smith was matron of honor and Mrs. Robert Graham Campbell and Mrs. Alfred J. Rosborough Jr. were the bride's other attendants.

IDENTICAL GOWNS

* * *

William R. Ryburn Jr. served David as best man. Ushers were Bruce H. and Marcus Wellington Smith, brothers of the bride, Andrew Pflug and David Drummond Osborn.

Mrs. Smith chose a gown of turquoise Alencon lace with matching velvet hat for her daughter's wedding. A champagne-colored satin gown with a matching beaded hat was the choice of Mrs. Brennan.

* * *

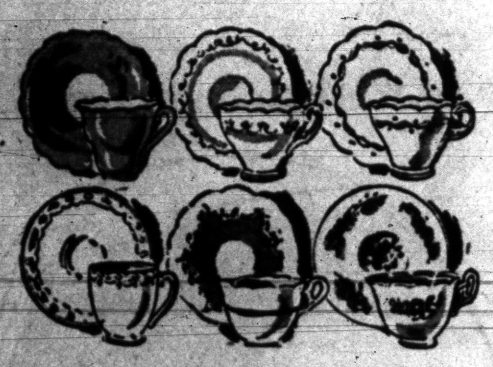

For the wedding trip to Nassau the bride changed to a beige wool suit with black accessories. On their return the newlyweds will reside on Lahser road.

Zeta Chapter Meets With Wilma Webb

Wilma Webb was hostess to members and guests of Zeta Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa sorority Thursday evening in her home on Cass Lake avenue. Members brought gifts to be distributed to the children at the Oakland County Children's Home at Christmastime.

Mrs. Cleo Wiley conducted the business meeting, at which time a pinning ceremony was held. Josphine Stilwell, a new member of the group, presided at the tea service.

Hobby Produces Fun Plus Money

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Emerson says, "Nature hates calculators." That seems like a good thing to remember in this age of over-planning everything.

* * *

We plan our lives, our days, our human relations. We sometimes even plan every bit of dialogue we're going to use on a job interview or a date and it's a big mistake.

First of all, you never know what the party of the second part is going to do which may alter your plans.

Then, too, genuine and spontaneous acts and words are sometimes much more effective—and often a lot easier.

Most of the success stories I've heard about had a Topsy-like quality, a spontaneous, it-just-happened air.

I don't mean that the people involved just sat back and let God hand them their destinies on a silver platter, but I do mean that they went about doing what they felt like doing and sometimes something entirely unforseen and wonderful came of it.

A PARTICULAR CASE

That's what happened to Ethel, a young mother I know.

* * *

"I used to be a commercial artist, before I was married," she told me, adding frankly, "and not a very good one, either. I had a series of routine jobs in the field, but I knew I would never set the world on fire.

"After my marriage, I devoted my artistic interests to furnishing our home. Then when we had our babies—three of them—I was too busy to think about anything else.

"I do remember, though, that I had great fun designing and lettering the cards announcing the arrival of each of them. In fact, greeting cards of one kind or another always were the most fun for me.

FAMILY'S CARDS

"Every year I did the family Christmas cards as well as birthday and other holiday cards. People always commented on them, which gave me great satisfaction.

* * *

"This year," she went on, "the children are old enough to be interested in cards, too.

"I got the equipment and showed them how to make red cards with green Christmas trees on them and other designs.

"It was a wonderful idea, because it kept them quiet and out of mischief on rainy or too-cold days when they couldn't go out.

* * *

BUSINESS OFFER

"One of them told me that her children wanted to learn to make cards, too, and asked if she could leave them with me one afternoon a week, a a dollar a head! I was surprised by the offer but it turned out to be fun.

"A few more children joined us and for the past month I've had 11 of them on Wednesday afternoons from 2 until 6, making cards like beavers.

"I love teaching them, it gives their mothers free time, and has given me a little extra cash for buying presents."

If you like children, and would like to do something like this, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my pamphlet, Playing With Children For Profit.

Ingrid O. Bjornstad Wed

Ingrid Olive Bjornstad became the bride of Donald Lee Vernier in a ceremony performed in Trinity Lutheran Church in Clawson.

Ingrid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mikarll Bjornstad of East Long Lake road, wore a floor-length gown of lace and nylon net over satin. Her fingertip veil was secured to a cloche headpiece. She carried an arrangement of white Fugi chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley.

Beverly Gill was maid of honor while Nancy Adams served as bridesmaid. They wore identical ballerina-length gowns of nylon in emerald green and rose colors respectively, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vernier of Midway avenue, had Robert Kent as his best man and Lenny Borrisove as attendant. Ushers were John Gibbs and Jack Trulu.

Mrs. Bjornstad greeted her guests at the reception held at Sylvan Glen, wearing a navy blue lace dress with light blue accessories. Her corsage was of roses and carnations.

A dusty rose lace dress with a winter white hat and black accessories was the choice of Mrs. Vernier. Her corsage was also of roses and carnations.

Bride-to-Be Entertained at Shower

Mrs. Velma Baynes and Mrs. A. R. Bartlebaugh were cohostesses at a bridal shower given for Norma McGlothin. The recent shower was held at the Baynes residence on Marquette street.

Norma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGlothin of First avenue, will become the bride of Pete Lewis in a ceremony to be performed Dec. 14 in First Baptist Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin L. Lewis of Colonial Hills.

The bride-elect has asked Donna Hirsch to be her maid of honor and Shirley Dobson her bridesmaid.

Guests attending included Mrs. McGlothin, Linda McGlothin, Mrs. Israel Garcia, Mrs. Richard Haddad, Mrs. Bruce Reh, Mrs. James McCurry, Mrs. Charles Carriger, Mrs. Donald Harrison, Mrs. Richard McMahon and Mrs. Ovid Redman.

Completing the guest list were Mrs. E. A. Hoban, Mrs. Martin Jackson, Janet McCurry, Connie Redman, Margie Richards, Beth McEvoy, Nancy King, Miss Hirsch and Miss Dobson.

Future Nurses Killed in Crash

Car of Six Students Strikes Milk Truck and All Die

PATTERSON, N.Y. (AP) — Six young student nurses were killed last night when their car skidded out of control and smashed into a milk tank truck. The truck driver escaped injury.

The nurses, aged 19 and 20, were bound for the Harlem Valley State (Mental) Hospital at Wingdale, N.Y., near this Putnam County community, when their auto crashed on Route 22.

* * *

They were senior students at St. Mary's Hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y., and were en route to begin the third week of a 12-week training course in psychiatric nursing.

* * *

The force of the crash, state police said, reduced the nurses' vehicle to a mass of tangled wreckage. Five died at the scene; the sixth en route to a hospital.

Witnesses said the weather was clear although it had snowed earlier.

Frank Bollin of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., the truck driver, told authorities the nurses' car skidded out of control and veered toward his truck. He turned his vehicle up an embankment but the car smashed into the trailer.

Dr. Leo P. O'Donnell, director at Wingdale Hospital, identified the victims as:

* * *

Consuelo Byrne, 20 of Staten Island; Sheila Roche, 19, Hasdell, N.Y.; and Eileen Davis, 20, Anne Callaghan, 20, Martha Santoemma, 20, and Maxine Singleton, 19, all of Brooklyn.

Miss Roche died en route to the Danbury (Conn.) Hospital.

Policeman Faces Risks; Moonshiner Escapes

He said the fellow kept throwing five gallon tins of illegal whisky in his path when he closed in.

The moonshiner escaped.

Six in Family Die as Auto Plunges Into Snake River

MOOSE, Wyo. (AP)—The wheels of their auto protruding from the icy waters of the Snake River marked the grave of a family of six.

State Patrolman Wood Wormald said the victims all were drowned when their car plunged off an icy highway, probably Saturday night.

* * *

The tragedy wasn't discovered until noon yesterday when children playing along the river saw the wheels of the overturned vehicle.

The victims were Albert Oakley, 40, Casper, Wyo.; his wife Marguerite, 37, and their children, James, 12, William, 9, Judy, 4, and Harry, 11 months. Their bodies were surrounded by packages and sacks of groceries they had bought while on a Christmas shopping trip at Jackson.

Wormald said Oakley apparently tried to brake the car as it approached a bridge at the bottom of a curving hill. The vehicle skidded on the ice and crashed through the bridge abutment.

Gov. Herter Returns to Finish Out Term

BOSTON (AP)—Gov. Christian A. Herter returned home from Washington last night to complete his term as governor before taking up his new job of undersecretary of state next month.

* * *

The governor has been in Washington, where President Eisenhower nominated him for the No. 2 spot in the State Department to replace Herbert Hoover Jr., who is resigning to return to his private engineering practice.

* * *

Herter refused to discuss foreign affairs or the policies he plans to pursue as undersecretary of state.

He told reporters: "I do not think it proper for me to comment on the job until I have been sworn in."

Herter said he will take a short vacation when his term as governor expires Jan. 3 and then will work with Hoover for two weeks before assuming the post himself. Hoover is scheduled to step down about Feb. 1.

Gifts, Bribery Oil Tracks for Escape via 'Railroad'

VIENNA (AP) — Austrian border police said today an organized "underground railway" now seems to be helping Hungarians flee communism. In at least some cases, money oils the wheels.

The flow of refugees into Burgenland Province rose by several hundred Friday night, putting the total in the 24 hours well over the 2,500-mark. Police said they appear to be following several defined routes.

* * *

A young Hungarian woman who made it that night said definite word had been given her in Budapest of how and where she could cross. Another traveler, not Hungarian, reported:

"People who want to get out can get a list in Budapest of others who will help them along the way."

Refugees who have crossed the past month have told of being helped by all kinds of Hungarians from shepherds to border police.

* * *

It was not clear to what extent the organized help was being given for political and humanitarian reasons and to what extent money was involved. From the first, refugees have reported giving all their Hungarian money—almost worthless in Vienna—to those who helped them. Russians sometimes took watches, brandy and even bread to look the other way.

* * *

Now, police say, more and more professional people seem to be coming and to have paid their way. They reported the price was 1,000 forints, officially about $120 but less than $4 at the black market rate in Austria.

Asked about this, an interpreter who talks to dozens of refugees every day remarked:

* * *

"It's too cheap. For 1,000 forints all you can get is oral directions, or you may have to wait several days until the better paying customers are escorted through. Here in Vienna, you can even get people to go in and fetch back a family—but it costs $500 or $1,000.

* * *

"You must remember it's not all a matter of money. I've heard dozens of cases where guides refused to accept anything at all."

While more refugees were coming into Austria, fewer were being moved out and the number still here was climbing well beyond 70,000. Due partly to bad flying conditions, only about 1,300 went toward new homes yesterday.

* * *

The first 200 to leave on U.S. military planes for Camp Kilmer, N.J., are due to take off Tuesday from Munich, Germany. This number is expected to be increased to 500 a day and will keep up until about 9,750 have been taken. The first of three U.S. military transports, which will take 5,250 others, sails from Bremerhaven Dec. 20.

* * *

The Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration has already shipped about 2,500 to the United States on chartered planes, and 4,000 more in the same way.

The Grand Canyon was formed by wind and erosion.

THE ANIMALS' CHRISTMAS

By Walt Scott

Jets Can Bring You Home in 24 Hours

WASHINGTON (INS)—Members of the Civil Aeronautics Board predict that when U. S. commercial airlines start flying jet aircraft in 1958 no American will ever be more than 24 hours away from home.

The enthusiastic prediction came yesterday during a unanimous endorsement of jet air travel by the five-man board following an inspection of West Coast jet transport factories by four of the members.

CAB Chairman James Durfee said: "We are standing on the threshold of a new age, the jet age, which will absolutely change the travel habits of the American public, both domestically and internationally."

Other board members commented on the comfort of the giant jets, which will seat 120 to 150 passengers, and on progress being made to eliminate noise.

They also said there is "reasonable assurance" the planes will be able to land and take off from existing airports which handle standard planes of comparable size.

Hebrew Inscriptions Found in Excavation

JERUSALEM — Two Hebrew inscriptions were discovered during a recent archaeological expedition to Massada in Israel. They were the first such writings found at the ancient Jewish fortress, which overlooks the Dead Sea. The inscriptions are written in the square script found on the Dead Sea Scrolls discovered in caves in the Judean Desert in 1947, and are inscribed in black ink on a potshred and on a fragment of papyrus. The signs constitute valuable evidence for the dating of the Dead Sea Scrolls themselves.

Auto Death Claims High

NEW YORK—Motor-vehicle fatalities in 1955 resulted in 42,000 life-insurance death claims, representing total death payments of $90,000,000. This was 3,000 more claims and $15,000,000 more in benefits than in 1954.

Iraq Smolders in Unrest; Resentful of Baghdad Pact

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Slowly the Middle East crisis has been moving eastward until the heaviest clouds now hang over Iraq and Syria. The future of the Baghdad Pact and the Middle East itself may lie in the smoldering resentment against Britain in Iraq.

* * *

Rigid Iraqi censorship has kept a picture of this resentment from getting to the outside world. But it has exploded several times in violence, and the potential for more violence is great—perhaps great enough to eventually bring about the end of the rule of Iraq by strongman Premier Nuri Said.

At Mosul, an oil producing area in northern Iraq, a hotbed of Pan-Arab nationalism, violence burst out last Saturday. There are various reports on the results—ranging all the way from 50 killed to five killed. It is impossible to check the figures.

Accounts from Western sources relayed to this correspondent in Baghdad during a recent trip there said the police were forced to turn machine guns on a violent demonstration by crowds — mostly young people shouting pro-Syrian and pro-Egyptian slogans.

There also have been eruptions in the holy Moslem shrine city of Najaf. Reports from the city told of tenseness apparently fanned by an influx of Persians from Iran. The Persians might have included members of Iran' Tudeh (Communist) party, these reports said.

* * *

Nuri's government blames most of the disturbances on Communist infiltraters. But a high Iraqi army man said the Communists are extremely weak in Iraq. He was not inclined to blame Communists, for example, for turbulence in the schools.

But the current situation in Iraq makes it easy for relatively few agitators from outside to do their work. There is a vast storm of hatred welling up among the literate Iraqi public against the very words "Baghdad Pact." Inflamed with the idea of solidarity with their brother Arabs, the Iraqis associate the Baghdad Pact with Britain and thus with the attack on Egypt. Pact members are Iraq, Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Britain.

The efficient Iraqi police force has been keeping demonstrations to a minimum. In Baghdad, it works with the army to move swiftly and nip demonstrations in the bud. But storm clouds are there and threaten to burst in full fury—if not tomorrow, then next week or next month.

But even the leaders of high level political opposition to Nuri want him to hang on for the present.

* * *

In the first place, they consider him responsible for the current situation and they have no desire to inherit the storm.

In the second place, the opposition itself is divided. Nuri, an astute politician, has seen to that in the past two years.

Since 1954 there have been no political parties in Iraq. Nuri abolished them. Of 141 members in the Chamber of Deputies 130 were unopposed in the election. The Senate is appointed by the King.

Insurance May Cost, but It Sure Pays

NEW YORK—American families received $14,747,000 daily from their life-insurance policies in 1955.

This was $103,231,000 each week, $448,562,000 each month, $5,382,742,000 for the entire year.

They totaled $1,652,077,000 more than five years ago and $2,715,437,000 more than 10 years ago.

Frank Look at Red China's Industrialized Mukden

(Editor's Note—A Canadian reporter, David Lancashire, has spent six weeks touring Red China — and area where U.S. reporters cannot travel because of State Department rulings. Lancashire traveled 5,000 miles and talked to farmers, factory workers, clerks and even a few capitalists. In this uncensored story, first of a series, Lancashire tells of the industrial development of Manchuria and how life is lived there.)

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

MUKDEN (SHENYANG) China (AP) — Mukden was developed and then given up in defeat by the Japanese. It was restored by the Russians when they occupied Manchuria after World War II. Today, back in Chinese hands, it is the hub of an industrialization program aimed at making Manchuria a world production center.

There are 1,834 factories and mines in Liaoning Province, and most of them are centered in Mukden and Anshan, two hours away. So many factories are now plugged into the city's power lines that public electricity is often cut off in the daytime.

There is no gaiety here. By 7 p.m. streets are empty except for workers on their way to night school. Social and family life is sacrificed to production, and even the cigarettes in Mukden are stamped with a little cog-wheel trademark.

* * *

It is a dreary city of almost 2½ million, with miles of walls and drab houses, forests of chimneys and acres of housing projects for the workers who tend the heavy production lines.

The residents live and think in terms of the factory. The model housing village outside the city, where 7,000 factory families live in new but squalid buildings, is peppered with posters and slogans. The factories are hung with banners urging workers to "increase your political consciousness as you increase production."

In the downtown district, a former department store houses an exhibition of unbelievable dullness. There are five floors of lathes, plows, bottled chemicals, sample cases of ballbearings and steel bars, drill presses and truck tires.

* * *

But the monotonous display draws 1,200 persons a day, the director said, and 4,000 or 5,000 on Sundays. A good percentage of the serious-faced visitors are women and tiny children, and high school students intently enjoying their one day off in the week.

The factory hand works a 48-hour week, and has hospitalization and housing supplied almost free by the state. There are no vacations, but seven days off a year for national holidays.

* * *

Wages run from about 33 yuan a month to 108 yuan for highly skilled men or women ($14 to $47). These are among the highest industrial salaries in China.

The usual workers' home is a one or two-room affair with leaky faucets, bare walls and no bathroom. Furniture — wooden beds with no mattresses, and straight-backed chairs — is often supplied by the factory. Kitchens have a small gas ring and a laundry tub. A family generally includes two or three children, plus in-laws.

Rent, however, is only $2 or $3 a month. And since night life is unknown in northeast China except for movies or dances at the factory canteens, there is nothing much but subsistence for a laborer to spend his money on. Most manage to bank a small amount.

Almost all the factories were built by the Japanese during their 14-year occupation. As the Japanese fled, they tried to leave the buildings and machinery in ruins.

The Russians who followed confiscated much of the workable machinery and shipped it to the Soviet Union. Since then, however, they have been pouring technical and financial aid back into the province. Many of the 205 projects to be aided by the U. S. S. R. during the first five-year plan are in this area.

All expansion of the factories and installation of machinery was planned by Russian technologists. Crews of Chinese workers were sent to Russia to learn the intricacies of the machine age. Now directors of the plants say, the Chinese are capable of running things themselves. The Russians have for the most part gone home.

Robs Liquor Store Too Many Times

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The third holdup of the same liquor store was once too often for a 23-year-old gunman. Raoul C. Marinez was fatally shot in the face by a policeman, who came out from the store's back room on a prearranged signal from a clerk.

The 17-year-old wife of the gunman said her husband's parents lived at Salinas, Calif. She said she knew nothing of her husband's holdup activities.

Permit Given to Salvage Sunken Air Force B25

PITTSBURGH (AP) — John Evans, operator of a sea plane base on the Monongahela River at nearby Elizabeth, has permission to attempt to salvage an Air Force B25 that landed on the river and sank last Jan. 31.

Follows Horses at 104

SAN FRANCSICO (AP) — William Perry of San Francisco says he probably is the oldest horseplayer in the United States. He celebrated his 104th birthday Thursday. He jests that he started following the horses in 1880—as a horse car motorman. Now he enjoys the races at the three Bay area tracks.

Man Who Built Jewish Army

Late Gen. Wingate, Brilliant Warrior, Revered in Israel

LONDON (NEA) — The father of the Israeli Army was not a Jew, nor a native of Palestine. He was a British Army officer who was a brilliant soldier but mentally unstable and considered a bad security risk by his own superiors.

He was Maj. Gen. Orde C. Wingate, leader of the famous Chindit guerrilla fighters in Burma during the last war, who was killed in an airplane accident on the Burma-Assam border in 1944.

Now, 12 years after his death, the full facts of Wingate's life are coming to light. They show why he is one of the most revered heroes in Israel today, why young Israeli fighters carried Wingate's Bible with them into battle against the Egyptians and why one of the frontier farm settlements has been named in his honor.

* * *

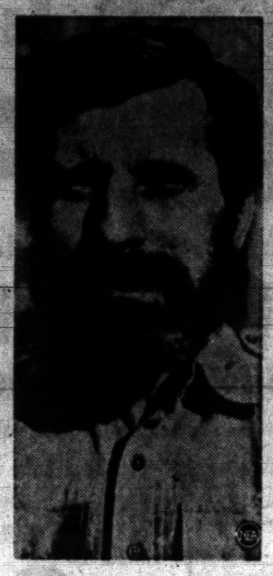

For Wingate, a non-Jew was one of the most ardent Zionists of them all. He taught the Jews to carry the fight to the Arabs, fashioned the raw recruits of the illegal Hagana Army into an offensive striking force. And in doing so, he risked a court martial and the ruin of his Army career.

"Wingate taught me all I know," Gen. Moshe Dayan, Chief-of-Staff of the Israeli Army, has publicly acknowledged. And many another Israeli staff officer would say the same.

Wingate was a friend of Ben-Gurion, the Israeli Prime Minister, and of the late Chaim Weizmann, a founder of modern Zionism, as well as being on intimate terms with Moshe Sharett, a former Israeli premier.

These men trusted Wingate with their most closely-guarded secrets, although their Zionist organization was frowned upon by the British at the time and Wingate himself was an intelligence officer attached to British headquarters, Jerusalem.

Such is the strange story of one of Britain's most colorful soldier-prophets, as disclosed in a recent biography of Wingate, and in numerous letters and articles in the British press.

GEN ORDE C. WINGATE

Although Sir Winston Churchill called Wingate "a man of genius and audacity," the British could not trust him entirely.

Field Marshall Wavell thought him "the most brilliant soldier in the war;" yet, it is generally conceded that Wingate might have betrayed Britain under certain circumstances.

"If only we had more like him," opined President Roosevelt; yet Wingate was considered by many to be a mandman. In a fit of despair, Wingate tried to commit suicide by slitting his throat with a rusty Ethiopian knife during the height of the East African campaign.

BIBLE STUDENT

Wingate, as he emerges today, was a religious zealot, which accounts for his passionate interest in founding a Jewish national home. Raised on the Old Testament, he was already a convinced Zionist by the time he reached Jerusalem as a British intelligence officer in 1936.

He went further. He fancied himself as the modern Gideon, to whom the Lord had said, "Go in this they might, and thou shalt save Israel."

And a strange Gideon he appeared, both to his spick-and-span British Army colleagues and to his Jewish friends alike. Wingate didn't believe in washing while on campaign; instead he brushed his body with a scouring brush, while singing Psalms or reading the Bible aloud.

* * *

His clothes were filthy. He wore a greasy bush jacket and a battered Indian topee and carried an alarm clock strapped around his wrist.

He was subject to bouts of depression, during which he fancied that Satan perched on his shoulder. "Oh God, why have You forsaken me," he would groan aloud on such occasions.

But he taught the Jews how to fight, how to strike back at the enemy, instead of waiting for the enemy to attack.

It was the time of the Arab rebellion in Palestine, when armed gangs moved across the Syrian border to harass the British Army, charged with keeping the peace between Arab and Jew, and to raid the new Jewish settlements.

Gen. (later Field Marshal) Wavell, who was in command in Palestine, gave Wingate permission to open a guerrilla warfare school to train Jewish fighters. This was the beginning of the Special Night Squads, whose leaders now form the elite of the Israeli Army.

They were commandos trained in hit-and-run tactics, traveling lightly in gym sneakers with only rifles and hand grenades as equipment.

Wingate was recalled to England in disgrace in 1939 for putting "the interests of the Jews before those of his own country."

* * *

However, he went on to fame and glory, first in Ethiopia, where he defeated the Italians and helped to restore the Emperor Haile Selassie to his throne; then in the jungles of Burma, where as a major general, he met his death. But for the rest of his life, he carried a passport endorsed: "The bearer of this passport should not be allwed to ented Palestine."

Collects Aliases, Gives $50,000 to Guide Dogs

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A woman who collected eight aliases and a bulging police record record has left about $50,000 to Guide Dogs for the blind.

Frances Mathew's first arrest was for shoplifting in Newark, N. J., in 1915. Her last was in 1953 when she was fined $100 for taking a pound of butter from a Berkeley market.

Then aged 78, she died last April.

Unobservance—Death

ALTON, Ill. (AP) — A tiny hole in a rubber glove spelled death for Frank Bennett, 54. He saw an ice storm had knocked down an electric wire. He put on a pair of rubber gloves, not noticing a hole in the right forefinger, and was electrocuted when he tried to move the wire.

Attorneys Will Meet to Talk Race Laws

WASHINGTON (UP) — Thirty-three U. S. district attorneys from 14 Southern and border states assemble here today to discuss what they should do about laws in those states requiring racial segregation on buses.

Atty. Gen. Brownell called the conference Nov. 19, a few days after the Supreme Court struck down as a violation of the 14th Amendment such segregation laws in the state of Alabama and the city of Montgomery.

Brownell said today's conference would consider and decide "upon measures most appropriate to secure observance of the Constitution and laws by carriers and all others who may hereafter require segregation of white and colored passengers on common carriers.

Rewards Given Boys Who Found $44,000

LEIGHTON, Ala. (UP) — The three Leighton youths who found a missing mail pouch filled with $44,000 in $1 bills have received rewards from the Post Office Department.

Ingram Mitchell, 18, who first saw the pouch, was given $500, while his rabbit-hunting companions, William Mitchell, 15, and Eddie Chamblee 13, received $250 each.

U.N. Needs Police, Says Labor Leader

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The United Nations should have a standing international police force to help it meet world crises, says labor leader Walter Reuther.

The president of the United Auto Workers and vice president of the AFL-CIO urges U. N. charter revision to create such a force.

"If a U. N. police force of 25,000 men could have been parachuted into Budapest in the first 48 hours of the Nagy government," he told a reporter, "the outlook for the Hungarian people would not be so bleak today."

Burlesque Returning

NEW YORK (UP) — Burlesque, of a sort, is coming back to Manhattan after an absence of 14 years. License Commissioner Bernard J. O'Connell said he would have men present at the opening of the show "Welcome Exile" to make sure no strip-teases and bumps and grinds are included. O'Connell issued a license for the show after a lengthy court battle.

HOPPY LEAVES THEM STRANDED — Howard (Hopalong) Cassady (40) of the Detroit Lions weaves between fallen Pittsburgh Steelers who attempt to tackle the shifty ball carrier. Steelers Give, Lions Take 45-7 Tilt

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — Christmas came early to Briggs Stadium yesterday. With the Pittsburgh Steelers in a generous yuletide mood, the Lions accepted all the gifts and walked off with a 45-7 victory to retain the top spot in the National Football League.

* * *

Before the crowd of 52,124 really got settled under its blankets in the wintry 30-degree temperature, the Lions hit pay dirt twice in the first four minutes as the over-generous Steelers fumbled the first two times they had the ball.

Just after the opening kickoff, Sid Watson took a handoff from Teddy Marchibroda and immediately felt the wrath of Detroit's hard-charging line. The ball squirted out of his arms and the Lions took control on the 20.

In two plays, big Leon Hart went over from 16 yards out on a flat pass and it was 7-0 as Bobby Layne converted.

On the first play after the ensuing kickoff, Marchibroda was smeared and again the Lions recovered a loose pigskin.

* * *

Dorne Dibble got to the six on a pass from Layne and from there Gene Gedman went over. Layne again converted and it was 14-0 with only a total of five plays from scrimmage by both teams.

For the remainder of the first half, both teams seemed to be in the holiday "spirit of giving" as they gave the ball away as fast as they took possession.

A third attempt by Pittsburgh to get a drive moving ended when Jack Christiansen intercepted Marchibroda's pass, but the Steelers immediately returned the theft by picking off one of Layne's aerials.

* * *

Just as the quarter ended, Jack Butler stopped a Lion threat by intercepting another Layne pass. Failing to move, the Steelers punted out. A moment later, Layne fumbled and Henry Ford recovered on the three yard line.

It took four tries, but Pittsburgh gained its lone tally when Watson went over from the one.

The Steelers had two more breaks immediately afterward when Jim Doran fumbled a pass and another when Tom Tracy fumbled. But they failed to capitalize and then the rout started in lightning-fast fashion.

Yale Lary intercepted a Steeler pass and raced 73 yards for the score. Two minutes later Christiansen went 66 yards on a punt return and with Layne's conversions it was 28-7.

The wave of gifts continued to add another 10 points to make it 38-7 at halftime. Another Steeler fumble on the 10 yard line, the third lost by each team, allowed Gedman scored from the one.

Layne booted a field goal in the last minute of the half after Christiansen intercepted a pass and went to the nine.

The final touchdown in the third period came on a pass from Harry Gilmer to Jerry Reichow, who was in the slot back post. It covered 41 yards.

All of the Detroit regulars sat out the second half as Bill Bowman, Jerry Reichow, Harry Gilmer, Tom Tracy, and the injured Don McIlhenny moved into the backfield.

The stage is now set for the big battle in Chicago next Sunday. The Bears stayed in contention by downing the Cards, 10-3, and it will take a victory or a tie by the Lions to win the Western Division title.

* * *

Yesterday's crowd brought the total to 330,966, a new season record for Briggs Stadium.

Pittsburgh could gain only 25 yards rushing against the Lions' forward wall led by Gene Cronin, Bob Long, Darris McCord, and Gil Mains who returned after a month's layoff by injury.

	STEELERS	LIONS
First downs	9	15
Rushing yardage	25	130
Passing yardage	104	168
Passes	11-28	17-26
Passes intercepted	3	1
Punts	8-33.7	4-38.3
Fumbles lost	3	3
Yards penalized	16	72

PITTSBURGH	0	7	0	0	—7
DETROIT	14	24	7	0	—45

Pittsburgh: Touchdown — Watson (1, plunge). Conversion—Watson.
Detroit: Touchdowns—Hart (16, pass-run from Layne); Gedman 2 (5, run; 1, plunge); Lary (73, pass interception); Christiansen (66, punt return); Reichow (41, pass-run from Gilmer). Field Goal—Layne (13). Conversion—Layne 6.

He and Mrs. Ladewig Win Titles

Carter Champ Again

CHICAGO (AP) — Don Carter, 30, of St. Louis, and Marion Ladewig, of Grand Rapids, Mich., considered one of the greatest women tenpin players in the game, today rule again as all-star individual match game king and queen.

Carter last night became the first man in the 16-year history of the gruelling competition to annex three titles by adding the crown to those captured in 1953 and 1954.

He won with 308.49 Petersen points, shading teamate, Dick Weber, by 3.04 points. Weber, beaten by Carter in the 16th Position round, finished with 305.45 points.

Mrs. Ladewig added her sixth championship in eight years by rolling up 150.16 points. The Michigan bowler finished 4.25 points in front of Marge Merrick, of Detroit, who had 145.41.

Mrs. Ladewig, who won the first five meets, starting in 1949 when the distaff side was permitted to compete for the first time, announced her retirement from all-star competition in 1954 when she was dethroned by Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia.

She returned to the all-star last season but finished fourth as Anita Cantaline, of Detroit, took top honors. Last night Miss Cataline, wound up in 15th place.

Mrs. Ladewig won 24 games, lost eight and toppled 6,316 pins to tie Miss Merrick in pinfall. She won 11 matches while losing five and captured first prize money of $2000.

Being as far back as 10th opening day, Marion assumed the top spot in the seventh round and held it the rest of the way. In her last two matches, Mrs. Ladewig defeated Jere Price, of Fort Worth, Texas, in the 15th round and again in the position round, cementing her position as Jere dropped to third, permitting Miss Merrick to take second.

After she won the title, Mrs. Ladewig, 42, said: "I feel 50 pounds lighter, believe me. It seemed like I had weights on my shoulders throughout the tourney. Now, I feel good again."

Carter pocketed $4,000 for winning; Weber took home $2,000, and Eddie Lubanski, of Detroit $1,000. Eddie, who saw the title slip away from him in 1954 when Detroit's Steve Nagy beat him out in the last two games, again saw his hopes dashed early yesterday.

Leading since the second round, Lubanski was overhauled by Carter on yesterday's 14th round when Don slipped into first place by 2.26 points.

Carter won 12 matches, the last three yesterday, and lost four. He won 38 games, lost 22 and was tops in pinfall with 12,558.

After he finished, he was asked if he'd be willing to bowl another 100 games: Carter replied: "No, thanks, I've had enough bowling, at least for tonight."

Last year, Carter, who injured his knee in qualifying, was forced to withdraw from the finals in the 45th game.

Detroit Lions halfback Jug Girard who was out of yesterday's game against the Steelers, and who is done for the season because of two fractured ribs, watched Sunday's game from the press box at Briggs Stadium.

When a Marquette University line coach, visiting the Flint area saw some pictures of the late-season Pontiac High-Flint Northern grid game he made a beeline for PHS . . . to view some more motion picture film of an incident in that tough battle involving Chiefs' lineman, Dick Kors. Dick made a terrific tackle of Arden Reierford, after the Viking all-stater had intercepted a Pontiac pass. "There's a lineman," the observer exclaimed to Pontiac coaches. He was surprised to learn that Kors weighed only 172 pounds.

Caroline's Play Gives Bears Chance at Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Thanks to their "gift" from the Candian league, the Chicago Bears will meet the Detroit Lions Sunday for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

* * *

"That "gift" is none other than J. C. Caroline, former Illinois halfback who scored the game's only touchdown enabling the Bears to beat the Chicago Cardinals, 10-3, yesterday.

Not only did Caroline contribute to the offense, but he also put on a tremendous burst of speed on the last play of the game to catch touchdown - bound Dick (Night Train) Lane on the 11-yard line and preserve the Bear triumph.

* * *

But when the final gun sounded and all the battles had subsided, it was Caroline who turned out to be the hero.

The Bears and Cards had exchanged second quarter field goals and in the third period the Bears put on a 55-yard drive in which Caroline picked up the all-important first down three times before slashing over the goal line from three yards out.

All told, J.C. picked up 68 yards in 16 carries in his first full time opportunity on offense with the Bears.

Caroline also received a large amount of credit for the 117 yards gained by fullback Rick Casares, the league's leading ground gainer who had been stopped cold in the last two games.

"With Bobby Watkins and Perry Jeter out of the lineup with injuries," said Casares, "the other teams played me tight and I couldn't gain. But the way Caroline went today, the Cardinals had to spread out and I was able to pick up some yardage."

Maples Swim in Hard Luck

Third in One Event, Miss Two Others at Battle Creek

Battle Creek won the Cereal Bowl swimming relays Saturday, with 48 points. Royal Oak's full team was 7th and Birmingham ended in a tie for 11th place with Allen Park.

* * *

Acorns' medley team set a record in the preliminary and then won the 200-yard race. Record time was 1:52.2. Team included Ralph Nutter, Charley Ashton, Dave Gilanders and Jim Line.

Maples were 3rd in the backstroke relay in 2:03, back of winning E. Grand Rapids with 1:59.6 and Jackson (2nd). Jay Myers' team consisted of Steve Pew, Pete Palmer, Jim Walls and Dave Smith.

* * *

In the butterfly event, Maples had fastest time (1:53) in qualifying (new record) but Dave Cook was judged to have left the starting line as anchor man too soon, and the team was disqualified. A missed turn in the last leg of the freestyle relay after the first three swimmers had taken a good lead, cost a win there. Birmingham was 6th in the diving relay.

Wilkinson Says He'll Stay On

With that statement, Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson dampened speculation of his departure to Texas or the University of Southern California.

* * *

The speculation started late Saturday when a group of sports writers in New York quoted Wilkinson as saying he was "definitely interested" in the coaching position at Texas, and had conferred unofficially with representatives of Southern Cal.

* * *

However, he said last night he was speaking "hypothetically" in his reference to the Texas job.

Redskins Still in Contention

Browns Postpone Giants' Bid, 24-7

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This is one year — the only one in the last seven—the Cleveland Browns won't have the final say-so about the championship of the National Football League's Eastern Conference. But Sunday they got in their two cents worth.

The men of Coach Paul Brown, six-time champions of the conference, have been beaten and battered this 1956 season like never before. Yesterday, however, they did the beating and battering and today the New York Giants (7-3-1) are still looking for their first division championship in 10 years.

* * *

With Tommy O'Connell and Curly Morrison doing most of the hacking, the Browns cut the division-leading Giants down to size with a no-fluke 24-7 triumph. Now the Giants have to win or tie in their finals in Philadelphia Saturday afternoon against the Eagles. Should New York falter, the Washington Redskins (6-4-0), 19-17 last minute victors over the Eagles yesterday, could grab the prize with victories in both their remaining games.

* * *

All other teams in both conferences are eliminated, including the Cards who had hope in the East until the Bears quashed it. The Redskins cannot afford a tie, which would give the crown to the Giants.

* * *

The Far West teams came through with triumphs in other weekend games. The Los Angeles Rams stopped the Baltimore Colts 31-7 and Saturday the San Francisco 49ers defeated Green Bay 38-20.

The Browns-Giant game ended before the tilts in Chicago and Washington and since the Eagles led up until the last 25 seconds, it was thought that the Giants had backed into the pennant.

* * *

Under this impression, Paul Brown said he was glad the title had come back to New York and praised his Browns (5-6) for their best game of a poor season. Giant mentor Jim Lee Howell, before the Redskin final was available, said, "I'll be glad to back in."

* * *

O'Connell, the quarterback who was dropped by the Bears after returning from service this year and then signed by the Browns after George Ratterman was injured, has led a late season Brown surge good for three victories in the last four starts. Yesterday was his peak effort as he plunged for two touchdowns and passed to halfback Morrison for the other in the wind, rain and snow. A Charley Conerly to Frank Gifford pass for 6 yards was the only Giant scoring strike.

Consider New Legislation at Major League Confab

CHICAGO (INS) — American and National League leaders meet today in Chicago to consider possible new baseball legislation and player deals which might benefit various clubs.

Two major issues to be discussed are trimming of individual club rosters to 28 players by the opening day of the season and the establishment of inter-league competition during the season.

The first proposal, which was sought by the Minor Leagues at their Jacksonville, Fla., meeting last week, is regarded as almost certain to be approved.

Top supporters of the proposal include general managers Frank Lane of the St. Louis Cardinals and Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox.

Lane, formerly of the Chicago White Sox, said:

"I have always cut my rosters to 28 players or close to that figure by opening day. After you have looked at rookies for almost two months, you can tell pretty well how good they are."

Minor League supporters of the plan feel that reduction of players carried on major league clubs will mean that more will be available for minor league duties.

The inter-league measure would have each team play 126 games in its own league and 28 with members of the other league in order to retain the regular 154-game schedule.

The proposal has its strongest advocates in general manager Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians, and Lane who feel it will stimulate more general interest in the game.

Opponents have charged that it might take off some of the interest in the World Series.

Wolverine '6' Nips Toronto

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Hockey has gained in interest at Michigan and sellout crowds that have been watching the Wolverines outskate rivals for years can tell you why.

Before 3,550 screaming spectators, Michigan ushered in a new season Saturday by whipping Toronto, 4-3.

Chances are most of them will return to the rink tonight when the Wolverines again square off against the Canadian sextet in the finale of a two-game series.

The fans saw a rugged duel spiced by 20 penalities and frequent flareups and featuring a sparkling show of goaltending by the Wolverines' Lorne Howes.

Naulls Goes to Knicks

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Assn. today announced the acquisition of former UCLA ace Willie Naulls from the St. Louis Hawks in exchange for playmaker Slater Martin.

Ex-Bidder for Tigers Buys Miami Franchise

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—George Storer, a publisher and radio-television executive who missed in his bid for the Detroit Tigers earlier this year, now has himself a baseball club: The Miami Marlins of the AAA International League.

* * *

Storer took over today as sole owner. Neither he nor Sidney Salomon, former principal owner, would disclose the price paid.

Storer, however, said he was happier over acquisition of the baseball club than he would be in buying a new broadcasting outlet. He added that Eddie Stumpf would continue as general manager and Don Osborn as team manager.

The Marlins have a working agreement with the Phillies of the National League.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Henri Richard, the smaller and less boisterous half of the famed brother combination, is quietly making a big name for himself while spearheading a Montreal Canadien surge in the National Hockey League.

* * *

With Maurice the Rocket on the sidelines with an injury, the Pocket Rocket as Henri is called, moved the Canadiens to within one point of second-place Detroit last night and edged them to within four points of the league-leading Boston Bruins.

* * *

Richard tipped in Doug Harvey's rebound with 2:35 remaining to give Montreal a 1-1 tie with Boston. Detroit lost ground by losing to New York 4-2 and Toronto knocked off Chicago 2-1 to remain in fifth, two points behind the Rangers.

* * *

It took Richard to tie a game that saw Bruin goalie Terry Sawchuck brilliantly turn aside 28 shots, three as Canadiens skated in all alone — after suffering a mild concussion in the first period. Real Chevrefils scored for Boston.

Stirling Moss Wins Nassau Trophy Race

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — America's three-year domination of the 210-mile Nassau Trophy race for sports cars was ended today with the championship in the possession of Britain's Stirling Moss.

* * *

Moss, who said he drove only "because I needed the practice," whirled his flame-red Maserati around the 3½ mile course on the Windsor Air Field runways in the average speed of 96.219 m.p.h. to win by two miles from Masten Gregory of Kansas City, Mo. The pre-race favorite, the Marquis Alfonso de Portago of Spain, was third. Both Gregory and de Portago drove Ferraris.

Tight Market for Players

Trade Talks Stirring

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs, with ace righthander Bob Rush as the pawn, held the key to the tight National League trade market today as the baseball David Harums tried desperately to break the logjam that has developed at the major league meetings.

Three separate three-club trade possibilities developed last night, but none was near completion early today as the American and National Leagues prepared to go into separate executive sessions.

* * *

The Cubs and Rush figured prominently in all three proposed deals. Proposal No. 1 would have sent Rush to Philadelphia for Richie Ashburn. The center fielder in turn would then be transferred to St. Louis for outfielder Wally Moon.

* * *

"Moon's departure would leave too big a gap in our outfield," Lane said explaining that this would leave the Redbirds with only Stan Musial and Del Ennis as established outfielders assuming that Musial would be shifted from first base where he finished last year.

Proposal No. 2 involved outfielder-third baseman Frank Thomas of Pittsburgh along with Ashburn and Rush. In this deal the Pirates would get Rush, the Cubs Ashburn and the Phillies Thomas.

"We discussed the possibility of a three-way deal," acknowledged general manager Roy Hamey of the Phillies, "but we couldn't see our way clear unless we could get an established center fielder in return."

* * *

The third proposal involved Brooklyn along with Chicago and St. Louis. Vice president E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi of the Dodgers made a tentative offer of former Cub third baseman Randy Jackson, catcher Al (Rube) Walker and center fielder Gino Cimoli to the Cubs for Rush whom they hoped to ship to the Cards for third baseman Ken Boyer.

"Lane offered us Alvin Dark instead," said Bavasi, "so we decided to drop negotiations. Dark is still a good ball player but he's not the man we need."

Another deal that has cooled off was one between Pittsburgh and New York in which the Giants reportedly offered theird baseman Foster Castleman, catcher Bill Sarni and southpaw pitcher Joe Margoneri for Thomas and catcher Jack Shepard.

* * *

"If the Giants want Thomas they must talk about Johnny Antonelli," said Pirate manager Bobby Bragan. "They have Antonelli locked up in the closet. When they let him out, we'll be willing to discuss Thomas with them."

RUSSELL TAKES A BRIDE—Big Bill Russell, America's Olympic basketball star from San Francisco, took the big step after returning from the games, when he married Rose Swisher in Oakland, California, over the weekend. Russell led the U. S. cagers to a sweep in the Olympic cage games.

Giles, Musial at Odds Over Consecutive Games

ST. LOUIS (AP)—National League President Warren Giles and one of the league's greatest stars, Stan Musial, don't see eye-to-eye on consecutive game streaks.

In a story in the Sporting News this week, Giles cited the appearance of Musial—he's played in 774 straight games and threatens Gus Suhr's National League record of 822 consecutive games — in a game against Pittsburgh on Aug. 31, 1955.

* * *

In the game Giles mentioned, Musial was named in the starting lineup, batting fifth and playing right field although he had been hit on the wrist by a pitch two days before.

* * *

The Cardinals batting first, started a rally and when Musial came to the plate they had runners on base. Manager Harry Walker took out Musial for a pinch-batter.

"The whole matter is intent," Giles said. "And if it ever becomes possible for me as a league president to establish intent, I would rule against such appearances because I don't think Musial was intended to play in that particular game."

* * *

Musial had this to say:

"As long as the rules are on the books and you abide by them, I don't see how you can call them phony. I think the (Giles) description is a little harsh . . ."

Vet 'M' Cagers Disappointing

The came home from their trip to Witchita and Nebrasko,' weary and twice defeated. But the Wolverines used the two games, Friday and Saturday, as trials to gain valuable experience.

Perigo was admittedly disappointed with the performance so far of three veterans, Pete Tillotson, Randy Tarrier, and Jimmy Shearon. They only scored 17 points among them in the 81-76 loss to Wichita Friday. Then the trio slumped to 13 points the following night in the 73-60 defeat by Nebraska.

2 Dance Contests Held at Rolladium

Detroit and Pontiac roller skaters divided honors in the weekend skate dance contests at Rolladium rink. Fifth elimination races of the second period also were skated.

Sally Barclay and Don Gates won the senior event. They are Detroiters. Winners of the novice event were Karen Swamson and Fred McGuire of Pontiac, skating the "Monterey Tango."

Three of College Elite Cage Teams Are Beaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It looks as if those San Francisco Dons had better push that winning streak for all they're worth. Wilt the Stilt and his Kansas company seem determined to establish a similar run through the college basketball world.

* * *

Wilt Chamberlain, probably one of the most sought after high school players in athletic annals, has been in two varsity games for the Jayhawks. And it becomes more and more evident why Phog Allen was so reluctant to accept mandatory retirement at Kansas.

That evidence being two romping victories for the Jayhawks over highly-regarded teams and a scoring average to date of 45.5 for the big sophomore.

* * *

In beating Northwestern 87-69 and Marquette 78-61, Chamberlain has scored 91 points and, just as important, has been getting points at a 3-1 ratio over his opposing center, indicating he has more than a passing knowledge of defense.

Fans away from the home area will get a chance to see basketball's new sensation this week. Coach Dick Harp takes the Jayhawks to the West Coast for games with the Washington Huskies Friday and Saturday and with California Dec. 18.

That will give The Stilt his first road test and ought to indicate whether the Jayhawks are ready now to make their bid for national honors.

* * *

Elsewhere in college basketball, with few exceptions, the early weeks of the new season have indicated the old refrain of "next verse, same as the first."

Of the teams that wound up in The Associated Press' Top Ten in last season's final poll, three have already been beaten.

The Dons, still winning but not with the ease when Bill Russell and K. C. Jones were around, spilled Seattle Saturday night, 57-51 to run their all-time streak to 59.

Niagara stopped a touted Seton Hall club, 83-63 and Canisius upset Louisville and its three-game streak, 76-74. Louisville, Iowa and Dayton are the teams from last season's elite to stumble so far. Iowa nipped Denver 58-57 Saturday but was beaten earlier. Dayton, which had won its first two, lost to tough DePaul of Chicago, 67-59.

'Bama, a 103-88 victor over Eastern Kentucky Saturday, has topped the century mark in each of its three games led by sharpshooter Jack Kubiszyn. Jack had 35 Saturday.

Kentucky made it three in a row, 73-58 over Temple, as did SMU, which defeated Minnesota 91-84. A 68-58 decision over Oklahoma at Norman made it two straight for Illinois, and North Carolina State is 3-0 with its 66-60 decision over Penn State.

All 1956 Officers Retained by MRPA

There wasn't a single change in the lineup of officers for the Michigan Rifle and Pistol association, at Sunday's election.

Named at the annual meeting at Oakland County Sportsmen's club, were:

President, Don Gillies (Detroit); Marvon Driver (Detroit), executive vice president; Irving Breen (Detroit), vice president in charge of .30 caliber; Harry Jackson, vice president in charge of junior activities; Don Gordon, vice president in charge of smallbore events.

Only official elected was Cash Bond (OSCS) to a new term as a director. All other directors, including Bob Gubbins of Birmingham were holdovers.

Frank Wyman of the National Rifle Association, from Washington, D.C. spoke on America's failure to properly train our riflemen for competition in the Olympics.

Schedules for matches will be drafted sometime before Jan. 14.

Olympic Cager Russell, Bride on Honeymoon

Russell, 22, and Rose Swisher, 20, were united Sunday at Oakland, Calif., in a formal church wedding attended by his Olympics cage teammates.

The 6-foot 10 former San Francisco all-America center will rejoin his Olympic team in Chicago for the Loyola tournament Friday and Saturday.

After that, the Russell plans are indefinite.

He turned down an offer—reported $30,000 yearly—from the professional Harlem Globetrotters.

Russell was said to be interested in the Boston Celtics. Walter Brown, president of the Celtics, attended the wedding but said he had not discussed business with Russell.

All-Star Bowling Site to Change

CHICAGO (INS) — The bowling proprietors' association of America has terminated a five-year agreement to hold the all-star tournament in Chicago.

Frank Lacy, president of the BPAA, announced the decision yesterday. He said:

"The national group feels that it owes something to the bowling fans in other cities."

He added that the BPAA board of directors will meet in Fort Worth, Tex., next April and name the city which will be host to the tournament.

Giambra Rated Edge in Castellani Bout

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joey Giambra, tough Buffalo, N. Y., middleweight, ruled a slight favorite to take Rocky Castellani tonight in San Francisco's first major fight in four months.

Giambra, 24, gets the nod because of a unanimous decision over the Cleveland, Ohio, boxer last August.

Hillsdale Shows Top Marks Against Foes

NEW YORK (AP)—Hillsdale of Michigan, which won all nine of its 1956 football games, had the second best defense among the Nation's smaller colleges. It had the best defense of anyone against rushing.

The NCAA Service Bureau reports that in 467 plays, Hillsdale permitted a total gain of only 1,128 yeards, or an average of 125.3 per game.

Detroit Tumbles From NHL Perch Over Weekend

Howe Captures Scoring Lead, but New York's 4-2 Win Drops Wings

NEW YORK (AP) — Gordie Howe took over the 1956-57 goal-scoring leadership of the National Hockey League and tied for second place in NHL all-time scoring over the weekend.

But despite Howe's show, the Detroit Red Wings were whipped twice and knocked out of a tie for the league leadership.

The fourth - place New York Rangers who had won only seven previous games, gave the Red Wings a 4-2 going over last night. The Boston Bruins, with whom they were tied for the lead, clobbered the Detroiters, 5-2, on Saturday night.

Boston, which tied Montreal, 1-1, last night, now has 35 points on 15 victories and 5 ties. The Red Wings have 32 on 14 triumphs and 4 ties. Both have lost 6, but losses neither add nor subtract points. A win is good for 2; a tie for 1.

Howe's one goal against the Rangers gave him 15 for the season, one more than Montreal's Dickey Moore, who was blanked over the weekend. Howe got one against Boston, too.

His New York goal was the 324th of Howe's 11-year National Hockey League career. It tied him with the retired Nels Stewart of the old Montreal Maroons as the second highest scorer in League history. Maurice Richard of Montreal has scored 467 NHL goals—and still is a deadly shot-maker with the Canadiens.

New York's triumph was its first over Detroit this season and kept the Rangers in fourth place with 23 points.

Defenseman Jack Evans got the Rangers off in front with a first period goal. Howe, however, tied it a little later, but a goal by Larry Popein at 18:18 gave the New Yorkers a 2-1 edge.

Rookie Billy Dea evened it at 2-2 in the second period, but New York rookie Bruce Cline made it 3-2 less than a minute later. Andy Bathgate got the Rangers an insurance goal at 17:27 of the final period.

Many Bowmen but Light Kill in Rabbit Hunt

Oakland County was well represented among the 1,700 bow-hunters that turned out for the annual archery rabbit hunt at Perry, Mich. over the weekend. But as far as could be learned none was among the successful ones.

Conservation officers checked the kill and reported that about 67 to 70 animals were taken, regarded as a very light kill. The bag was being checked for sex, weight and age.

Largest rabbit, John Lee, Pontiac Archers Club bowman, who took part in the hunt, reported today was a 3-pound, 9-ounce specimen and the smallest, a 1-pound, 13-ounce animal. The biggest one won a reward for the lucky hunter, Lee said.

"Rabbits were holed up over most of the hunting area," Lee explained. "There was not too much snow, and weather was too cold for good hunting."

BROTHERLY LOVE — There was no love had or even lost when Chicago's pro football rivals, the Bears and the Cardinals met yesterday. Fans poured out onto the field as players of both teams engaged in a melee with a minute and a half left in the game which the Bears won, 10-3. It was a rough affair all the way.

Gee Whiz, Fans—Show Some Hospitality

WASHINGTON (INS) — General Manager Vince McNally demanded today that "something" be done about the lack of hospitality shown by hometown fans at National Football League games.

Last week in Cleveland, the spectators at Municipal Stadium hooted the Eagles so lustily that the Browns were penalized twice by the officials.

Yesterday, Washington fans, incensed by a referee's belated call against the Redskins, booed and booed, forcing the Eagles to go into their huddle and line up five times before the quarterback's signals coulc be heard.

After a delay of eight minutes, Philadelphia did get off its play and it was a touchdown, but the Redskins, in McNally's opinion, were so fired up by the fans that they played "like men from Mars" to overcome a 17 to 3 handicap and win 19 to 17.

"This is getting out of hand," McNally complained, "something has to be done about it. Twice in a row now, we've been innocent victims of hostile crowds. And we don't get anything out of it but trouble.

"Certainly, I think the Redskins should have been penalized. This was worse than the situation in Cleveland. What it really does is stir up the home team."

The booing occurred in the third quarter. Philadelphia's Bobby Walston had just missed a fourth-down, 26-yard field goal attempt. Washington's offensive team and the Eagles' defensive alignment trotted onto the field.

But, suddenly, Referee Bill Downes ruled that the Redskins had roughed the kicker, giving the ball back to the Eagles. The crowd of 22,333 at Griffith Stadium reacted angrily and loudly.

Redskins coach Joe Kuharich said after the game that he had told Downes "I regretted the situation" but that he couldn't do anything about it.

* * *

"If I had gotten on the mike" to ask the fans to quiet down, Kuharich said, they "might want to run me out of town."

Knickerbockers Win to Gain on Celtics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Knickerbockers, riding on the crest of a five-game winning streak, are bidding to overhaul the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn.

New York came from behind in the last two periods last night to defeat the Minneapolis Lakers 100-91 and moved within 3½ games of the pacesetting Celtics who lost 116-110 to the Syracuse Nationals. Dolph Schayes set a new Syracuse scoring record.

City Loops Start Tonight

The Pontiac High School gymnasium will be the scene of two games tonight as the men's 1956-57 City League basketball season gets under way.

Griff's Grill will meet the Calgon Kids at 7 o'clock in a National League game, followed by an American League contest at 8:30 between Shaw's Jewelers and Boys Club.

Both the adult and Class D city basketball programs are under the auspices of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department. The Class D program starts one week from tonight.

The Pontiac YMCA Intramural Basketball League enters its 2nd week of play tonight on the 'Y' court. GM Tech faces the Falcons at 7:30, Seaman's meets the Gators at 8:30 and Seminary tangles with the YMCA in the 9:30 windup.

* * *

Activity also resumes tonight in the Waterford Township League with two games on tap at the Isaac Crary Junior High gym. Starting time is 7 p.m.

Drastic Penalties

Big 10 Aid Plan Approved

CHICAGO (AP)—A new program, designed to regulate aid to athletes and carrying drastic penalties for violators, was approved by Big Ten faculty representatives Saturday.

Providing aid on a basis of need which would be established by a college scholarship service, the plan sets limitations on assistance, guards against one institution topping another's offer and provides opportunities for jobs.

The plan goes into effect in 60 days unless an institution files a rejection. If there is a rejection, the plan will be held in abeyance pending another vote of faculty representatives at Chicago Feb. 22.

Reportedly, the aid plan received a favoring vote of 6-4. Negative votes were said to have been cast by Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio State and Indiana. Voting for the code were Michigan, Illinois, Purdue, Northwestern, Wisconsin and Michigan State.

The faculty men wrote into the program a limit on the number of athletes a school could aid. The number was placed at 100 and covers all sports.

* * *

At present, there is no limit on the number of athletic scholarships a school may award. Neither is there a restriction on the amount of financial assistance or on the sources of funds for such assistance.

The new plan permits a conference school to provide an athlete with his basic college expenses, including board, room, books and tuition but only according to need.

The plan stipulates that any athlete receiving unauthorized aid would lose all eligibility in the Big Ten conference.

Jaycees, Preps in Big Combine

CHICAGO (AP) — An alliance joining 20,000 high schools and 300 junior colleges to insure united action in athletic projects was announced today.

* * *

The alliance is between the National Junior College Athletic Assn. and the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

* * *

H. V. Porter, executive secretary of the federation, said the united action includes rules writing, publications and training programs involving more than 50,000 athletic officials, an even greater number of coaches and contest managers, and several million players.

"Under the new alliance and beginning with the 1957 football season, the same rules, interpretations and training procedures will be used," Porter said.

* * *

The 1957 national bowl game in Los Angeles for the national junior college football championship will be played under the rules drafted by the joint committee. The 1956 game at Los Angeles is Saturday between the Junior Colleges of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Coffeyville, Kan.

Swaps Returns Home; Future Still Unsure

CHINO, Calif. (AP)—Mighty Swaps was home from the racing wars today, and whether he ever returns remains to be seen.

Swaps arrived yesterday in a style befitting the 1956 horse of the year—in a chartered plane on a flight from Philadelphia, and in a van with a police escort on the 40-mile drive to Rex Ellsworth's ranch in Chino.

The only jarring note was a slight, but unmistakable limp as he walked the few feet from the cargo plane to the van.

Major Leaguers Study Players' Pension Plan

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The inaugural meeting of the Major League Baseball Players' Assn., opened today with the newly-expanded pension plan one of the top items under consideration.

* * *

Bob Feller, the aging fireballer of the Cleveland Indians, heads the association formed last summer. Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals is vice president and the New York Yankees' Gerry Coleman is secretary. Ted Kluszewski of the Cincinnati Reds represents the National League and Eddie Yost of the Washington Senators represents the American League.

Spartan Quintet on Victory Road

East Lansing (AP) — Michigan State got on the basketball winning track in its second game of the season, turning back a touring Brigham Young quintet from Utah, 79-61, at East Lansing Saturday night.

* * *

Michigan State hit on better than 50 per cent of its field shots in the first half and led 45-28 at intermission, having caged 21 baskets to only 10 for Brigham Young.

A well-balanced attack kept MSU out front and out of danger throughout. Chuck Benice scored 21 points, Larry Hedden, 18; Jack Quiggle, 12, and George Ferguson, 11.

* * *

Brigham Young, of Provo, Utah, used a full court press in the second half in an attempt to turn the tide, but the Spartans used their superior height to pass down court to the basket.

Top Hungarian Track Coach Looks for Job

MELBOURNE (AP) — The track coach who has produced 20 world record holders in the past five years, including the likes of Sandor Iharos and Laszlo Tabori, is job hunting.

"But," said Mihaly Igloi, "I've got to find a job where the conditions are as ideal as possible. I'm interested in developing champions not juniors."

* * *

Igloi, 48, is the coach of the Hungarian track and field team, the same group that has developed some of the greatest distance runners in the world.

He has a family in Budapest but he has asked the government for permission to stay out of Hungary. So far it has not been granted. He remained in Australia, assuming that no word is an affirmative.

"But," he told The Associated Press today, "I don't think it makes much difference what the answer is."

* * *

Igloi was asked if he would care to head for the United States.

"I am a track coach," he said, "and I would like to go anywhere the conditions for coaching are best. I want to produce fine runners. But at my age I believe I have only about 10 years of coaching left. Therefore I could not afford to begin a building program.

"I'll tell you one thing about American runners, I don't think they try hard enough. Everyone wonders why the U. S. has not produced great distance stars like the Hungarians. There is no excuse for it. The Americans probably have more native speed than the Hungarians.

"It's true that you have to work hard to be a good distance man. But you have to work equally hard to be a good dash man and the Americans are supreme at the dashes. Remember the United States once had the greatest, men like Glenn Cunningham and Greg Rice.

"My own theory is that the Americans are content to rest on their laurels, shrug their shoulders and say: 'Well he's done as well as anyone ever will in that event.'"

Igloi predicted that the ultimate in the mile would be 3:55.6 just two and four tenths seconds under John Landy's current world record.

Ohio Springer Wins Amateur Gun Stake

HERRIN, Ill. (AP)—Pamela's Sudden Flash beat out 21 other dogs to win the national amateur shooting dog stake for English springer spaniels yesterday. It was her first national championship.

Second was San-Dwan Jock of Inver, handled and owned by DeLancy Nicholl of Friday Harbor, Wash. Third was Brackenbank Tangle, owned and handled by E. W. Wunderlich of Joliet, Ill.

Lodges, Chapters Slate Installations

WINTER'S CALLING CARD — This Springville, N. Y., home is blanketed with snow following season's first big storm, which blew in from Lake Erie, leaving high snow drifts.

Masons and Stars Elect, Plan Events

Winter meetings planned by Masonic organizations include installations, for many groups have held elections of new staffs.

Almont, Metamora, and Ortonville lodges, F&AM, are among those with newly-elected leaders, and both F&AM and OES units have told extensive program plans.

Private installation of the Ortonville lodge's staff will be Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. at the Masonic hall, but a special meeting is called for tomorrow night at 8 to confer an F.C. degree.

Stewards are Richard Blue and Ronald Richards.

Also slated by the chapter is a penny supper and an April bazaar. At a special meeting on Jan. 15, degrees will be conferred on Floyd Olds.

The chapter has changed its initiation date from Jan. 15 to Dec. 18. A special session of the OES's Grand Chapter on the Jan. 15 date, and several of the local chapter's officers plan attending.

At Thomas, the Rose Francis Past Matrons Club has elected its officers and plans a Wednesday meeting at 8 p.m.

May Ask Issue at Royal Oak

Recreation Is Studied; Architects Working on Master Plans for Area

ROYAL OAK — Approval of a bond issue for recreational purposes may be asked of residents here next spring.

Money for the sale of Memorial Park, turned down by voters last August was to have been earmarked for recreational purposes.

An overall program of Royal Oak's recreational needs has been under way for some time, said Arthur P. Boynton, chairman of the recreation board.

Birmingham architects O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach have been hired by the board to draw up a master plan showing estimated cost, area needs, and the best use of recreational lands of city and school-owned properties.

Two Villages Seeking Plants

Almont Slating Vote While Marlette Eyes Federal Aid

Almont and Marlette village officials are looking to ways for providing for new sewage treatment plants.

The Almont voters will decide on bonding for $100,000 on Jan. 14, to partly finance a $155,000 plant. Balance would come from special assessments on water bills during the past few years, officials say.

The bonding issue will require a majority vote of 60 per cent for approval.

Marlette Village President Emerson Kiteley, village attorney Wart Atkins, and farmer George Heussner, visited Lansing last week concerning obtaining federal moneys for such causes.

Marlette, said to be either first or second on the state's list, might come under a bill authroizing up to 30 per cent of a sewage disposal plant cost being born by federal funds.

The town's citizens will vote in January on a $165,000 general obligation bond issue. The law firm on Atkins and Drillock has indicated that most of the plant and operation cost will be borne by the bonds.

The bonds will be extended over a 30-year period.

Police, Public Concerned

Skin Divers Dodge Ice in Rescuing Equipment

NEW BALTIMORE, Mich. (INS) —State troopers from St. Clair and Ira Township firemen rushed to Birch Point in Anchor Bay yesterday to "rescue" two ice fishermen who "were struggling for their lives."

An officer asked, "Don't you know you are creating a lot of trouble being out there?"

Divers Arthur W. Romska and Clifford L. Villemen, both of Washington, (Mich.), were suprised at the commotion. They told "rescuers" they were diving for equipment lost when their ice fishing shanty fell through.

A reporter asked one of the troopers if he knew the ages of the men and he replied:

"No, but I'd say they were old enough to know better."

YOUTHFUL EDUCATOR — Robert F. Goheen, 37-year-old assistant professor at Princeton, will become the university's youngest president since 1759 when he succeeds Dr. Harold W. Dodds, 67, who will retire in June.

Holly Planners Elect Officers for New Year

HOLLY—Newly elected officers of the Holly Planning Commission are: President, Phil Henry; vice-chairman, William Bylsma; secretary, Ival Paulson, with V. K. Anderson and Jack Johnson comprising the other members of the board of directors.

* * *

On their program agenda is the development of community facilities, land use, planning and zoning, street systems, with other projects. Village Manager Norman Tufford is working with them.

3 Drayton Teenagers Get 90-Day Sentences

Three Drayton Plains teenagers received 90-day sentences to the Oakland County Jail Saturday after pleading guilty to beer violations.

Cecil Warden, 18, of 4755 Dixie Highway, was jailed for having beer in possession, while the charges against Robert Ballek, 18, of 4112 Lanco Ct., and Fred J. Hipp, 18, of 3332 Sashabaw Rd., were contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Kenneth Swanns Home in Pontiac

Aletha Laree Lane Wed Recently in St. Michael Rectory

GINGELLVILLE — Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swann are residing at the Clinton Apts. in Pontiac following a northern honeymoon.

The former Aletha Laree Lane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lane of Maybee Rd., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swann of Franklin, N.C.

Georgia Lee Lane was her sisters maid of honor and Gerald Lane served as best man.

Your PTA Is Planning:

125 to Enact Yule Tale by Keego Music Teacher

KEEGO HARBOR — Mrs. Dreama Royal, an elementary music teacher at Roosevelt school, is author of "The Little Stranger," which 125 students will present for the PTA tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the school gymnasium.

* * *

Mrs. Royal is director of the Christmas operetta which she wrote for children in grades one through six to enact.

Based on "The Legend of the Little Stranger," the story takes place in deep woods of a far land, at a poor woodsman's home. It tells of a miracle that happened many years ago, but is repeated each Christmas in the spirit of sharing.

* * *

The poor woodsman and his wife will be Robert Haviland and Diane Sprunk on the Roosevelt stage, with Susan Sanderson and Jeff Todd as their children. The small stranger will be played by Jerry Van Dusen.

* * *

Piano accompanists will be nine girls.

Scenery has been designed and made by two sixth grade classes, and the director has been assistd by Jeanne Rydhalm, the school's speech teacher.

Gingellville

The Proper School PTA will tonight have its Christmas program and regular business meeting at 8 p.m. at the school.

A program planned to start an evening of getting acquainted will be given by the 23 boys of the local cub pack formed under sponsorship of association last month. Refreshments will be served.

Leonard Man Loses Fingers to Cornpicker

The hand of Nelson Ruggenstein, 39, 1444 Brewer Rd., was freed from the cornpicker after his nephew, Gene Wieg stopped the machine and R. W. Gaines, who lives across the road, summoned State Police and the rescue squad, all from Romeo.

After the rescue units pried the machine apart, Ruggenstein was taken to Bishop Hospital, Almont, for the amputation.

Visit Health Clinic

KEEGO HARBOR — Boys and girls of Florence Kane's fifth grade at Roosevelt School were guests of the Oakland County Health department this morning, visiting the clinic on Telegraph road, in connection with their health studies.

Sunday School Teachers Meet

First of 4 Conferences Planned for Thursday at Commerce

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Sunday school teachers from this area, Detroit and Ann Arbor will attend the first of four Curriculum Conferences to be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday in the Commerce Methodist Church and Parish House.

Although Commerce church officials will act as hosts, the conference is being sponsored by the Flint District Board of Education of the Methodist church. John Rosebloom, director of religious education for the district, will supervise the event.

Mrs. Mike Kinport, superintendent of the Commerce Sunday School, said that a vivd outline of school lessons for the next three months will be covered. She issued an invitation to all interested adults, parents and Sunday School instructors.

Plans call for the use of the sanctuary, the basement and the parish house of the Commerce church during the conference.

Members of the conference staff include Mrs. Ann Thomas, who will lead a discussion group on the coordination of music with religious education; Mrs. George Fissler, of the Central Methodist Church, Pontiac, and Evelyn Andre, director of religious education of Court Street Methodist Church, Flint.

County Deaths

Mrs. Alice D. Hogle

LAPEER—Service for Mrs. Alice D. Hogle, 82, of Sammonds Preasant Lodge, Romeo, will be at 1:30 Tuesday, in Baird Funeral Home here, with burial at Hunters Creek. She died Saturady.

She is survived by her son Wayne, of Fairgrove; two daughters, Mrs. Audry Barley and Mrs. Luella Hathaway, both of Pontiac; five granchildren and nine great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Minnie Cheney of Imlay City.

Mrs. Glen Purtell

ROCHESTER — Service for Mrs. Glen (Emily) Purtell, 44, 715 Hilldale Dr., will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Sullivan Funeral Home in Royal Oak. She died at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, Friday after a long illness. A former Rochester resident, she had graduated from Rochester High School in 1931 and from Oakland County Normal in 1932. She had been living in Royal Oak. Born in Almont, she was the daughter of the late James J. Thomson and Mrs. Hugh Upton of Rochester.

She leaves her husband, Glen, a daughter, Barbara Ann, and a son, Ricky, her mother, Mrs. Upton, three sisters, Mrs. Agatha Hurley, Mrs. Katie Tobin, and Mrs. Joan LaFave, all of Rochester, and one brother, Thomson, of Pontiac. Interment will be in White Chapel Cemetery.

State Troops See Area Staff Changes

Promotion and transfer of 14 Michigan State Police officers has been announced by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

Effective Jan. 6 is the change of Sgt. Claude H. Cook, Centerline post commander, to lieutenant and commander of the operations office at the East Lansing headquarters.

Troopers being transferred as of Jan. 2 are David L. Corey, going from the Erie post to the one at Romeo, Leo Drumm, from West Branch to Romeo, John K. Cosgrove, from Romeo to Alpena, and Zane E. Gray, from Romeo to West Branch.

League of Subdivisions Sought Near Farmington

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Plans to seek a league of subdivision associations were revealed today by a committee of residents from several subdivisions in Farmington Township.

The residents committee for the formation of a league announced that it has acted as a study group since last July.

Investigation of the needs of subdivision associations in working for a better community when operating beyond the subdivision level and some of the feasible ways of serving those needs took place.

The Committee also announced that its study phase had now been completed, that a subcommittee report recommending that the group seek in the near future the formation of a Farmington Township league of subdivision associations was adopted unanimously.

Rogers, a past president of the Normandy Hills Association, stated that the committee seeks a fact-finding league which engages in long-range planning for a good community rather than one existing solely on a diet of crisis action and projects.

Nelson, an attorney and CPA from Kendallwood, added that the committee feels that good organization is probably one of the secrets of success in township-wide dealing with problems as complicated as those of a growing community.

CARL COMPS

New mayor of Eaton Rapids is Carl Comps, 35, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Comps of Rochester, and husband of the former Marjorie Seaks, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Seaks of 30 Cooley St., Pontiac. Elected last week, he will take the oath of office Jan. 7 for a three-year term. The previous mayor had not sought reelection, and Comps defeated two candidates. Born in Detroit and raised in Rochester, Comps served during World War II in the Navy and is a reserve chief petty officer. He has lived in Eaton Rapids two years.

'Chalk Talk' on Christmas at Commerce

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Rev. Perry A. Thomas will present a chalk talk on "Christ in Christmas" when the Isabella Thoburn Circle of the Commerce Methodist Church meets at 8 p.m. this evening in the home of Mrs. Carleton Hastings, 8340 Golfside Dr.

Other WSCS units will meet this week as follows:

Tuesday—Barbara Heck Circle at 12:30 p.m. for luncheon in the home of Mrs. S. E. Hotchkiss, of 1960 Paris.

Wednesday — Fanny Crosby Circle at 12:30 p.m. for luncheon in the home of Mrs. James Cameron, of Oakley Park road; Hannah Moore Circle at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Edward Bergman, 4005 Burnet.

Hungarians Continue Fleeing Into Austria

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Despite martial law in Hungary, refugees continued to stream into Austria. Austrian authorities said 1,900 refugees came across the border last night.

This continued stream is one of the major mysteries of the Hungarian crisis. Although the Russians have had weeks to seal off the Hungarian-Austrian border if they wished, the refugees slip through, some in groups of 50. The total is now approaching the 130,000 mark.

2 Rochester Men Injured in Falls

ROCHESTER — Two weekend accidents here have hospitalized the street superintendent of the village waterworks, and one other citizen, who was injured in a fall on the stairs of his home.

R. D. Stark, 750 Elizabeth St., superintendent of Rochester Waterworks Dept. is in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, being treated for a fractured left leg, which he received in a fall on the ice in a parking lot of a Pontiac Kroger Market.

Rochester Police reported today that Orris Sanford, 50, of 103 East Third St. was taken to Avon Center Hospital at 3:30 a.m. Sunday following a fall on stairs at that address. With four fractured ribs, he reportedly is in fair condition at the hospital today.

Typhoon Polly Kills 14

MANILA (AP) — Typhoon Polly left at least 14 dead and 38 missing today as it lashed across southern Luzon Island in the Philippines with 80-mile-an-hour winds. The Bureau of Customs said 32 stevedores were missing after two barges sank in the Pacific off southeastern Luzon.

Police Hold Partygoer for Firing Gun in Home

Wild shooting at a party early Sunday resulted in the arrest by Pontiac police of Clifford Gilyard, 31, of Cleveland, Ohio, for investigation of careless use of firearms.

Mrs. Muriel Harrison, 447 Howard McNeil, said Gilyard fired an automatic pistol four times in the kitchen of her home.

She told Det. Sgt. Allen Noble that Gilyard pulled the gun out and fired it once into the kitchen shelves. Then he fired three times into the ceiling so she called police, Mrs. Harrison said.

City Woman Robbed on N. Saginaw St.

Mrs. Edna Smith, 357 N. Saginaw St. was thrown to the sidewalk and robbed of her purse and $10 while walking home about 9 p.m. Saturday night, Pontiac police said.

She told police her assailant came from behind and escaped on foot after grabbing the purse, which also contained her driver's license and social security card.

Mrs. Smith was unable to give a description, police said. It happened on Saginaw street about half a block from her home.

4 From Walled Lake Win Driving Awards

Four Walled Lake high school students took home trophies awarded them after outstanding performances in a Mobilgas High School Safety-Economy Run held yesterday.

Skid Accident Causes Minor Injuries to Pair

A New Baltimore couple received minor cuts and bruises in a two-car collision in White Lake Township Saturday night. Robert C. and Cecilia Walker, both 19, were released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital.

Robert was the driver of a car which was struck by a vehicle operated by Rudolph Hartman, of 831 Glendale Ave. He told county deputies he was skidding sideways when struck.

Hartman said he could not avoid the accident when the oncoming car skidded across the highway in front of him.

Hollywood Headlines

Rex Harrison Reluctant to Leave Broadway Hit

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Here's some real news. Rex Harrison steps out of "My Fair Lady" for twelve weeks starting in February to star in John Van Druten's "Bell, Book and Candle" for Columbia. Harrison signed this deal before he went into "My Fair Lady" and before he knew it would be such a smash hit.

However, I can't see Mr. H. being upset about coming to Hollywood this time as his girl friend, Kay Kendall, will be here at the same time making "Les Girls" at MGM.

Four top actresses are being considered for the co-star role in "Bell, Book and Candle." In the original version produced by Irene Selznick on Broadway, Lili Palmer played opposite Harrison.

Those luncheons Cary Grant has been having on the Paramount lot were to discuss "Houseboat," the Jack Rose-Mel Shavelson picture which will be made next spring with Cary as the star.

CARY GOT ALONG WELL

In the course of conversation, Cary mentioned how well he and Sophia Loren got along during the grueling, long location in Spain for "Pride and the Passion." So Jack and Mel are now negotiating with Sophia to play opposite Cary, and are very hopeful of getting her before she goes into "Desire Under the Elm" for Don Hatman.

Bless the wonderful courageous heart of old-timer Margaret Padua whose left leg was removed to the knee during an operation Friday morning. Coming out of the anesthesia, she looked up at her doctor, Sam Hoffman, and said, "Well, Sam, I'm still here—how lucky can I be?"

And then Margaret started singing "Hallelujah!" her hit song from "Hit the Deck." There wasn't a dry eye among the nurses and doctors as the gallant old girl was wheeled out to her room.

* * *

Life begins at 70 for my old friend Francis X. Bushman. Since he won $30,000 on TV, offers are coming in right and left for other TV shows and pictures. After telling me he didn't think he would accept the part of "Moses" in "The Story of Mankind" for Irwin Allen, Frank has now changed his mind and will play the scene of Moses talking to God on Mt. Sinai.

He also has the interesting assignment of playing a movie star named—of all things—Francis X. Bushman on a four star TV show with Ida Lupino.

If all this weren't enough to keep him busy, Bushman is writing his biography, and all I have to say is—I better figure in that!

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at Random: pretty Australian actress Victoria Shaw and her bridegroom Roger Smith have dated the stork for July. She whispered this just before she took off for Mexico for the Hilton Hotel opening.

* * *

The Bill Tomberlins (she's the former Dixie Bowers) welcomed a baby girl in Denver, and papa immediately named his oil well the Tracy Tomberlin after the newcomer.

I met Richard Travers for the first time. What a good looking hunk of man he is! With him was his best girl, Virginia MacKenzie, a cute little blonde.

* * *

Marisa Pavan, with Jean Pierre Aumont, said that Pier Angeli, who lost her baby, is feeling fine now.

Just as I walked in, Joe Vogel, the new president of MGM, whom I've known for 20 years, introduced me to a group of New York executives who are out here for the meetings. Nice to see Howard Dietz.

The reports I get from Mexico City are that Conrad Hilton could be elected to any office. Just as he did in Turkey, he ingratiated himself not only with the Mexican diplomats but with all the people.

Senator Byrd Supports Plan

Will Back Emergency British Postponement of Interest Payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va) said today he will support emergency postponement — but not outright cancellation — of interest payments Great Britain owes to the United States.

Byrd, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, said he is willing to help the British in the financial crisis brought about by the Suez Canal military venture.

* * *

"But I am opposed to cancellation of interest payments or any waiving of principal payments on money the British owe us," he said in an interview.

"We have poured billions of dollars in gifts into Europe. We have given billions to Britain. They ought to stand by their agreement on loans. A contract is a contract and it should be fulfilled."

Byrd said he would be willing to agree to a postponement of the nearly 82-million-dollar interest payment due Dec. 31 on Britain's postwar loan of 3½ billion dollars from this country and on the 600 million dollars agreed upon in settlement of her lend-lease account.

* * *

Byrd said he was glad to see that Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey had publicly discounted reports there might be in the making a new program of economic aid for Europe patterned after the Marshall Plan.

"I am opposed to any further continuation of foreign economic aid," Byrd said. "I will support a reasonable amount of military aid to our allies but I think the time has passed when economic assistance is necessary."

Gina's Vital Statistics Given in Centimeters

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It was nice of Gina Lollobrigida to give me a small cocktail party—but why did she invite those 20 or 30 other press people?

Flinging myself on the divan beside her in the Waldorf Presidential Suite, where she slept in the bed once slept in by Mamie Eisenhower, I asked Europe's greatest movie attraction about having a baby.

* * *

GINA

"No," I apologized, "but I read that you hoped . . ."

"No, not now!" She almost winced. "I should have a whole college of babies for the times they have said I was having one."

Gina's here for the opening of "Beautiful But Dangerous," in Boston—then appears with Groucho Marx on Perry Como's TV show in Miami. When somebody brings a girl in to Groucho and says, "This is Gina Lollobrigida," Groucho's supposed to say, "That's a likely story."

Anyway, Gina now looks better than ever and when I asked her measurements she said:

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

My B. W. demands I praise guys, too—so how about the Handsome Hackie, Joe Goodman, of Brooklyn, known to friends as "Cyranose?" He answers jibes about his big schnozz: "Yeah, but everybody else has to breathe every minute, I only have to breathe once a week." Jimmy Durante or Phil Silvers should give Joe an audition!

JOE GOODMAN

Dana Wynter and Greg Bautzer take a house in Acapulco in January for a delayed honeymoon . . . George Gobel will likely work the Waldorf after Lena Horne . . . Lilo was feasting at the Colony before heading for Havana to sing it up at the Nacional.

Elvis Presley named his new music firm "Gladys Records"; now everybody's asking, "Who's Gladys?" . . . A previewer who saw Jayne Mansfield's new film, "The Girl Can't Help It," said "They invented the wide screen just in time" . . . Count Basie's band will tour England; Ted Heath's British crew will come here in exchange.

Earl's Pearls . . .

WISH I'D SAID THAT: The average guy who looks under a car's hood doesn't know any more about it than the average guy who used to look in a horse's mouth.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Charlotte Rae complains that her home's so full of time-saving devices it takes her an hour to find the one she's looking for.

Taffy Tuttle says she'll never go to the ballet again. When she gets home she has trouble falling back to sleep again. That's earl, brother.

Screen Star Rests After Spinal Surgery

NEW YORK (AP) — Screen star Elizabeth Taylor, who underwent a five-hour operation last Saturday for a crushed spinal disc, has been described as in good condition.

Ask GOP Council to Sponsor TAR

SAN MATEO, Calif. (AP) — California Republicans want the Republican National Committee to add TARs to the GOP's symbols.

This fall, Teen-Age Republicans, were organized in the 10th California Dist. to campaign for President Eisenhower and the party ticket. Party elders credit the TAR's with helping re-elect Rep. Charles S. Gubser and others.

So yesterday the California Republican Assembly voted to ask the national committee to sponsor TARs nationwide.

President Taft brought the first automobile to the White House. It was a model propelled by steam.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

P.S. DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SPECIAL LAXATIVE TO EASE PAINFUL ELIMINATION WHILE SHRINKING PILES

The makers of Preparation H also make Petro-Syllium®, a special type laxative prescribed by doctors for hemorrhoid sufferers. Softens hard dry stool and assures easy elimination without pain. Ask for Petro-Syllium.

Salvation Army to Help Needy

Volunteers Needed to Aid Destitute at City Headquarters

The Pontiac Salvation Army will be the clearing house for Christmas baskets from all of Oakland County north of 14 Mile road, according to Senior Capt. Magnus A. Michalsen.

Volunteer workers are needed to help process the requests from needy families. All welfare and social agencies will cooperate in the program, Capt. Michalsen said.

Volunteers may call the Salvation Army at FE 2-5122.

Capt. Michalsen stated that the baskets are not a sharing program. They are primarily for people who are destitute.

Churches, school, social agencies and individuals have been asked to check with the Salvation Army to make sure there are no duplicates and that no family is overlooked.

EXCHANGE CLUB HELPS

On Friday members of the Exchange Club will be standing on the street corners downtown ringing the familiar bells and selling the Salvation Army magazine, "The War Cry."

Requests may be made daily at the Salvation Army Citadel, 29 W. Lawrence St., 9 a.m. to 12 noon, and from 1 to 4:30 p.m. Deadline for requests is Dec. 17.

Eat Like King, Pay Like Pauper in Paris Bar

PARIS — Persons with caviar tastes and a beer pocketbook can indulge themselves in a snack bar on the Champs Elysees in Paris.

There the tourist can eat a satisfying jar of black caviar with lemon, hot toast, and butter for $1150.

A large glass of vodka to wash down the snack is 40 cents extra. Smoked salmon, smoked eel, and a wide variety of potables are also available.

With an automatic blanket you can have all-over warmth—as much or as little as you like. You select it . . . a thermostat does the rest to keep you comfortable.

Automatic blankets really save you money because you need only one blanket for each bed. No need to have that extra blanket handy. Just one blanket to launder, one blanket to store.

Saves on heating, too. Set the house thermostat lower during the night. Under your automatic blanket you're always cozy warm, no matter how cool the room.

U. of M., Wayne State Get Research Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The University of Michigan and Wayne State University have been allocated a total of $2,163,522 for construction of health research facilities, the Health, Education and Welfare Department reports.

The U. of M. will receive $600,000 for mental health research, $58,522 for Kresge Medical Research and $605,000 for the School of Public Health.

Aides of Sen Potter (R-Mich) said the allotments were made under a new federal program for spending 30 million dollars a year for three years to build health research facilities.

Soybeans Up, Grains Steady

CHICAGO, Dec. 10 (AP) — Soybeans showed a little strength in an otherwise steady grain market on the board of trade today.

Dealings were slow, contrasting vividly with the very active sessions of the previous week. While a letup in liquidation was apparent, there still was no aggressive demands.

* * *

Soybeans managed a rally of a couple of cents early following the break of around 11 to 14 cents last week. An improvement in soybean oil and meal futures was a help to soybeans.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅝ higher, December $2.40⅛, corn ¼ lower to ⅛ higher, December $1.34⅜, oats ⅛ to ¼ higher, December 76⅛, rye ½ to 1 cent higher, December $1.43½, soybeans 1⅝ to 2 cents higher, January $2.50⅝, and lard 5 to 38 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $16.00.

Seek to Annex Township Area

Group Submits Petition to Incorporate Acreage in Farmington

A petition for annexation of a 170-acre section of Farmington Township to the City of Farmington goes to the Boundaries Committee of the Board of Supervisors Thursday, after a 30-day routine wait in the clerk of the board's office.

The petition bore signatures of 100 per cent of the eligible residents of the area when submitted in November, according to City Manager Earl Scherffius of Farmington. It was carefully checked by the attorney who made up the petition before submitting, Scherffius says.

* * *

The Time Land Company's interest in subdividing and building in the area spurred the effort, which residents supported, since water and sewer facilities are expected to be made available by the city. Such service was unavailable in the area under township status, the group had learned.

Boundaries of the proposed new city section are West Farmington Road from Eight to Nine Mile road, Eight Mile road from Farmington road to Whitlock street, Whitlock from Eight Mile to Colfax street, and Colfax from Eight Mile to the Little Farms Subdivision, the subdivision boundary, and Nine Mile from that subdivision to Farmington road.

16-Year-Old Shot; in 'Good' Condition

A shotgun wound, accidently inflicted on a 16-year-old Ferndale boy Saturday, Pontiac police said, was described as "not serious" by authorities at Pontiac General Hospital.

Lawrence was injured, police said, when his friend, John Sparks, 14, of 587 Nebraska, stumbled while holding his father's 12 gauge shotgun in his home Saturday afternoon.

The gun went off, striking Lawrence in the right hip.

The shooting was called accidental after the younger boy was questioned by Det. Robert Emery.

Arrest Two Youths for Area Breakins

Two Orion Township youths arrested for the breakin of a Lake Orion school were being questioned today by Oakland County detectives concerning two other thefts in the same area.

George W. Pankey, 17, of 4577 Homesite Dr., and Wesley Johnstone, 19, of 4960 Estes St., reportedly admitted the school burglary after their apprehension by Sheriff's deputies George R. Enners and Wilbert C. Lankin early this morning.

The other larcenies the pair are being questioned about concern the burglary of a home and the theft of several traps from a lake.

Earnings

NEW YORK (INS) — Record sales and substantially improved earnings are reported by Hudson Pulp & Paper Corp. for the fiscal year ended Aug. 31. Sales expanded 25 per cent to $55,527,000. Net income amounted to $3,514,000, equal to $2.44 per common share, a 54 per cent increase from $2,286,000, or $1.57 a share, in the previous year. Paper production increased nine per cent to 210,500 tons.

BATON ROUGE, La. (INS) — General Gas Corp. reports net earnings in the nine months ended Sept. 30 of $285,699 on sales of $21,737,000, compared with $248,119 and sales of $20,010,000 a year earlier.

Pontiac Coca-Cola Plant to Produce 'Giant' Bottle

Coca Cola will begin producing a "king-size" coke in Pontiac this week, according to P. H. Hunt, president of the Coca Cola Bottling Co. of Pontiac. Hunt said that it will be a "big brother" to the present 6½-oz. bottle.

Details about this new addition to the Coca Cola "family" will be the subject of an upcoming series of Pontiac Press advertisements.

Finds Key to Problem Right in His Pocket

Jones tried Hagy's key, and sure enough it wouldn't turn. He spent 30 minutes getting out the lock and trying to trace down the trouble.

Then Hagy stuck his hand in his pocket — and sheepishly pulled out a key. It was the key to his car. The one that "wouldn't work" was to his pickup truck.

Papers Report Strike

MOSCOW (UP) — Soviet newspapers reported today there had been a general strike call in Hungary. The dispatches, however, subordinated this news to reports telling how support for the government of Premier Janos Kadar was growing.

Steels, Motors Pace Market

NEW YORK (UP) — Steels and motors had good turnover as the market moved higher in early active trading today.

Pivotal stocks gained fractions to a point or so. Some stepped beyond this range and there were a few losses.

Rising optimism by steel leaders for their industry in 1957, confident predictions for the auto industry next year and general optimism on the business outlook helped the market, brokers said.

* * *

Ford and Chrysler rose fractionally and General Motors and Studebaker-Packard were firm in active dealings.

United Aircraft and Douglas stepped ahead more than a point. Boeing gained a major fraction. North American Aviation was off a bit.

* * *

Gains of about a point were posted by Goodrich, Kennecott Copper and Westinghouse.

Leading rails were mixed. Southern Railway and Southern Pacific gained, New York Central and Pennsylvania were off a bit.

* * *

Opening blocks included Youngstown, up 3½ at 129½ on 3,600 shares, U.S. steel up ½ at 72½ on 2,500 shares, Ford up ⅜ at 57¾ on 1,700 and General Electric off ⅛ at 61½ on 2,500.

Williams Lake Level Subject of Meeting

Seventy residents and property owners gathered at the CAI Building yesterday to hear a report from the Williams Lake Water Level Control Committee.

The group has been working on controlling the water level for the last two years and according to Lee Kaines, chairman, will soon be able to have the problem under control.

Dan Barry, drain commissioner elect, and Don Ringler, representing the drain commissioner's office, were present to see a motion picture field trip on the proposed water control route.

Petitions were presented by the drain commissioner's office and due to controversial statements in the petitions, they were tabled pending advice from legal sources.

Another meeting after the first of the year has been called by the group and petitions will be represented for voting, Kaines said.

Taxicab Rams Auto; No Injuries Result

A taxicab passenwer was released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Sunday afternoon, authorities said, after X-rays showed she suffered no injuries when the cab struck another car.

Mrs. Mary E. Auten, 57, of 8620 Epworth Ave., Detroit, was in the cab of Ottie V. Anderson, 56, of 90 Oakland Ave, which rammed the rear of another car, Pontiac police said, on N. Perry street south of Hammond street.

Anderson explained his foot slipped and hit the accelerator instead of the brake pedal, police said.

MSU Athletes to Be Arraigned

2 Grid Players Admit 6 Holdups, According to Jackson Police

JACKSON (UP) — Two Michigan State University athletes, arrested Saturday after two rapid-fire holdups, were scheduled to be arraigned today on armed-robbery charges.

They are Thomas F. Husband, 19, of Bay City and Richard A. McDonald, 19, of Springfield, Ohio. Both will be taken before Municipal Judge Grove M. Hatch.

Police Cpl. Paul Rand said the youths admitted at least six stickups and a breakin over the last month to pay off debts and meet room and board costs, among other things.

Their arrest followed holdups of two Jackson filling stations, one on the West Side and another on the East Side, early Saturday. Their car was spotted shortly after the second and they surrendered after a bullet had been fired into it.

Husband is the father of a 5-month-old child. Rand said Husband told him he had a girl "in trouble."

Both were reserve centers on the Michigan State football squad, but neither ever has played with the varsity. They said they were on athletic scholarships which covered only tuition.

Police Capt. Earl Miller said the pair told him they had asked the MSU Athletic Department for money but had been refused it.

"That," he quoted them as saying, 'made us bitter, because the stars were getting financial help. So we decided to pull a few jobs to get the money we had to have."

Rand said the two admitted strongarmings in Springfield and Maumee, Ohio, a filling station holdup and a country club breakin at Grand Rapids and the two holdups in Jackson.

Youths Beat Actor to Death

Malcolm Beggs Killed During Robbery Attempt in Chicago

CHICAGO (INS)—Veteran actor Malcolm Lee Beggs was beaten to death by two youths early today during an attempted robbery in his apartment on Chicago's near North Side.

The body of the 49-year-old actor, clad in shorts and a robe, was found on the floor of his 16th floor apartment in the LaSalle Towers by policemen investigating a report of a disturbance.

Police quoted them as saying that after a few drinks they decided to rob him and then beat him with the bottles when he resisted them.

Beggs had been playing the role of the general in the hit comedy, "No Time for Sergeants," now running at the Erlanger Theater in Chicago.

Police Hold Two for Truck Holdup

Two Royal Oak Township youths are being held for investigation of armed robbery concerning the Saturday holdup of a cleaners' truck at a township intersection.

The arrests were made after the truck driver told police of being held up and robbed of $300 by two young men with guns at the intersection of Scotia and Halcott roads. No guns were found in the youth's possession, police said.

Predict 1957 Business Year to Be Better

WASHINGTON (UP) — Cautious predictions of a "moderately" better 1957 business year — and further price increases — emerged from a weekend meeting of National Trade Assn. executives here.

But a summarizing statement said, "Serious inflation is wholly improbable — unless the international situation deteriorates materially."

* * *

The appraisals were made at a business outlook forum held by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber's chief economist, Dr. Emerson Schmidt, said the combined viewpoint is one of "mild, cautious optimism."

* * *

Schmidt said it is possible that "certain stresses and strains may begin to develop" in 1957 and "a look ahead must be more guarded than usually."

* * *

He said the American business boom which began in 1954 is "getting older but not necessarily tired."

Whisky Kills Boy, 3

ELIZABETH, N. J. (UP) — Three-year-old Joseph Montague of Linden died after drinking a cup of whisky he found in the family ice box.

$11,000 in Mink Furs Stolen From Home

DETROIT (UP) — A Detroit couple today reported the theft of three mink coats and a mink stole valued at $11,000.

Allen A. Saltz said a window was forced at his home early yesterday evening and the furs were taken from a special closet. He and his wife were at Ann Arbor visiting their daughter, Marsha, a University of Michigan student.

The wraps were described as one full length black diamond mink coat valued at $6,000, a silver blue mink jacket, a cerulean mink stole and a cerulean mink jacket. Saltz said they were insured.

Pilot 'Can Hardly Believe It'

Plane Lands Atop Auto to Avert Possible Crash

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—After it was over, weekend pilot Manning Rooks could "hardly believe it happened." And no wonder.

Caught aloft in a light plane with a damaged landing gear, Rooks had just brought his craft safely to earth by landing it with one wing atop a moving automobile.

It wasn't a lucky accident. It was planned that way, not by Rooks but by veteran flier Ed Hornbaker, from whose company Rooks had rented the plane.

Rooks, who has 160 hours of flying time, had taken off from Municipal Airport for a routine spin yesterday when the airport control tower radioed that his right landing gear was "dangling useless under the plane."

* * *

The crash crew at the airport was alerted and Rooks, 150 feet above, figured things "looked bad." He'd never made a crash landing.

On the ground, Hornbaker had an idea. Climbing into a hard top sedan with two other men, he drove out on the field.

The CAA told Rooks that Hornbaker would try to make the car act as wheels for the plane if Rooks could land with one wing on top of the auto.

* * *

Rooks made several passes at the runway to gauge speed and distance. On the fourth pass, he set the plane's left wheels on the runway and the right wing on top of the car. While Hornbaker drove, the car's other two occupants held the struts of the plane so it wouldn't slip off. Gently, Hornbaker applied the brakes and stopped.

"He's some guy," said Rooks of Hornbaker . . . "I'm just glad he thought of it."

Mrs. C. H. Teague is program chairman. Members are to bring an unbreakable children's record to be sent to the state home for retarded children at Battle Creek.

Mother, Child Injured When Hurled From Car

A mother and her two-year-old daughter were injured last night when thrown from a car as it smashed into a curb at the intersection of U.S. 10 and West boulevard.

Admitted to Pontiac General Hospital were Mrs. Orval Grimes, 24, 1028 Boston St., with knee and hip injuries, and Linda, with severe head lacerations. Mrs. Grimes was reported in good condition while the child was reported fair.

Waterford Township Police said the car driven by Orval Grimes hit the curb, springing a door on the car, and tossing the pair onto the pavement.

Four Brothers, Several Officers in Free-for-All

One policeman was choked and several others pummeled, Pontiac police say, in a melee over a parking ticket Saturday night.

They are Major Watkins Jr., 28, of 14 Beaudette St. and his brothers, Richard, 24, of 14½ Beaudette; Stephen, 27, of 12 Beaudette, and Nathaniel, 25, of 12½ Beaudette.

Trouble started, Traffic Sgt. William Hanger said, when Officers William Newman and Harold Risner began ticketing a car in a no parking zone in front of the brothers' automobile garage at the corner of Bagley and Diston streets.

The brothers began arguing, Hanger said, so more police help was called for. Hanger said when he and Officer John Felts arrived a general free-for-all was under way.

* * *

Hanger said he was choked by Nathaniel in the brawl and Felts was slugged in the side of the face.

With the arrival of four more officers, the brothers were subdued and arrested, Nathaniel in handcuffs, Hanger said.

Ironically, the brothers did not know whose car it was that was ticketed, Hanger said.

Sigma Kappa Waits for Students' Verdict

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A University of Michigan board of review has ruled that the student government council was within its jurisdiction in finding Sigma Kappa Sorority guilty of discrimination.

The board, comprised of professors, administrators and students, deliberated for four hours yesterday to hear an appeal from the local chapter of the sorority.

Student government had ruled the national organization of the Greek-letter group in violation of University regulations when it suspended chapters at Tufts and Cornell Universities after Negro girls were pledged.

By upholding the council's decision, board sent the fate of the local chapter back to the student governors. They will meet this week and can withdraw University recognition from the sorority or place it on probaiton.

In Memoriam 2

BEANE — In loving memory of Elizabeth Beane who passed away 5 yrs. ago, Nov. 26th, 1951.
You are not forgotten Mother dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory lasts,
We shall remember thee.
Sadly missed by Husband, Children & Grandchildren.

RAETZ — In loving memory of our son, Freeman Raetz, who passed away Dec. 10, 1942.
Deep in our heart lies a picture
Of a loving son laid to rest.
In memory's frame we shall keep it because he was one of the best.
Sadly missed by Mother, Dad and Family.

TEDDER — In loving memory of William V. who passed away Dec. 7, 1955.
A pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in that better land,
Never to part again.
Sadly missed by his Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY darling mother, Myrtle Sever, who passed away Dec. 12, 1953.
What is home without a mother,
All things this world may send.
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
Sadly missed by sons and daughters and grandchildren, David, Robert, Verna, Lena, Ruby.

IN MEMORY OF CLARA JEAN Bass who passed away Dec. 3, 1955.
One year has gone but still we miss you
Never shall your memory fade
Loving thoughts will always linger
Till in Heaven we meet again.

Heaviest Fire Loss Months Are Coming

NEW YORK, N.Y.—December through March are the months of heaviest fire loss.

During those months last season (December, 1955, through March, 1956), fire losses throughout the United States amounted to $359,540,000, the National Board of Fire Underwriters reports.

This was an increase of $27,000,000, over losses of $332,389,000 reported for the corresponding months of the year before.

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany appears to be in for a bleak Christmas. Reports seeping out of East Germany indicate serious shortages of not only Christmas goodies — but also basic foods.

Program Wins Critic's Praise

NBC Also Lauded for Breaking Down Video Racial Barriers

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — When you ask Nat "King" Cole what he's trying to do with his new television show, he says:

* * *

"Have a relaxed 15 minutes. Sing some songs. Lay off a lot of talk. Don't have any guests. Move into the spotlight, keep moving—and relaxed."

* * *

Because he's succeeding so admirably, 15 minutes seems all too short a time and once a week too seldom for his program. Take a look at him tonight on NBC-TV at 7:30 p.m. and see if you agree.

Nat "King" Cole not only is one of America's best-known musicians; he is one of the best ambassadors of American music abroad. You hear his records everywhere, even in remote Italian fishing villages with a single phonograph in the only bar. Sale of his recordings are approaching the 50 million mark, which is pressing close to the old master himself, Bing Crosby.

* * *

So it's pleasant to see such talent recognized by NBC-TV, which has given Cole his own weekly program. It's doubly pleasant because Cole, a Negro, is among the first of the many talented members of his race to have his own television program. NBC is to be commended — but so is Cole.

You often hear there is racial prejudice in television.

* * *

"That's not true," Cole said. "Racial prejudice doesn't lie in the television networks. It's in some of the agencies — and there it isn't so much outright prejudice as their just being afraid of the dark. Just like baseball was afraid of the dark until Jackie Robinson turned on the light."

* * *

Cole, a clergyman's son, was born in Montgomery, Ala., and grew up in Chicago. He hasn't been able to resist a piano since he picked out "Yes, We Have No Bananas" at the age of four. His only teacher was his mother, an accomplished musician.

JUST RELAXING — Nat "King" Cole believes in taking it easy on his TV show. The 15-minute program devoted to Cole's smooth vocalizing and piano playing is televised Mondays at 7:30 p.m. over NBC-TV.

President Calls on Free People

Asks Everyone's Pity for Dominated Lands on Human Rights Day

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower called on free people everywhere today — Human Rights Day — to take fresh note of Russian ruthlessness and never forget "what tyranny has done to our fellow man in Hungary."

Soviet brutality there is cause for "worldwide mourning," for reactions of "horror and revulsion," the President said. He added that it almost completely repudiates the United Nations human rights declaration.

* * *

Noting this is the eighth anniversary of the declaration's adoption by the U.N. General Assembly, Eisenhower said in a statement put out at his vacation headquarters at Augusta last night:

"This year the free world has the most compelling reasons for observing human rights day with renewed awareness and resolution, but it has little cause to 'celebrate' that day.

* * *

"The recent outbreak of brutality in Hungary has moved free peoples everywhere to reactions of horror and revulsion. Our hearts are filled with sorrow. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the courageous, liberty-loving people of Hungary."

In observance of the day, there were plans for midday tolling of church bells all over America — and for prayers for the victims of Soviet oppression.

"The terror impose dupon Hungary," Eisenhoeer said in his statement, "repudiates and negates almost every article in the declaration of human rights."

Survey Shows Babies Prefer Bright Colors

Skin Diver Drowns

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 15-year-old skin diver Richard Puskas, became tangled in his oxygen apparatus and drowned in the ocean yesterday, sheriff's officers report.

Guam is 30 miles long and seven miles wide.

Air Force Gets Huge Transport

Plane Can Carry 400; Speed, Size Improved Over Old C124

ARDMORE AIR FORCE BASE, Okla. (AP) — The Air Force has received the first of 10 huge new transport planes capable of carrying 400 troops each, and is studying — with some doubts and reservations — plans for an aerial monster twice as big, designed to carry 800 persons.

This was disclosed here as the Air Force received its first jet-and-propeller transport, the Lockheed C130 Hercules, a plane of comparatively modest size.

* * *

Powered by four Allison T56 jet engines harnessed to propellers, the C130 will carry up to 92 infantry troops — more than twice as many as the Fairchild C119 Flying Boxcar, which the C130 will replace. The C130 also will fly about twice as fast as the C119 or, for that matter, as now the world's largest operational transport.

An Air Force crew flew the C130 here from the Lockheed plant at Marietta, Ga., yesterday. Robert E. Gross of Burbank, Calif., Lockheed board chairman, formally presented the Hercules to Gen. O. P. Weyland, commander of the Tactical Air Command, at an airfield ceremony and air show witnessed by a Sunday afternoon crowd of more than 5,000.

* * *

Weyland told a news conference that the new Lockheed transport would do twice as much work, unit per unit, as the C119 which it replaces. He said the Hercules would supplement the much larger, heavier C124 Globemaster until the latter, in turn, is replaced by the propeller-jet Douglas C133.

A TAC spokesman said the C133 is twice the size of the doubledeck C124 and will carry 400 passengers. He said the first of the 10 on order currently is being tested at Elgin Air Force Base, Fla.

* * *

The spokesman added that Douglas has in the design stage an even larger plane, the C132, which would carry up to 800 troops.

Educator Says College Rolls Hit Peak Now

CINCINNATI (AP)—Enrollment at American colleges and universities this fall topped the peak enrollment periods of 1947-1948 when the GI bill helped swell student bodies by more than one million World War II veterans.

That's the report issued last night by Dr. Raymond Walters, president emeritus of the University of Cincinnati, in his annual survey for School and Society Magazine.

Dr. Walters said that it is "remarkable" that "the present advances have nothing to do with the recent soaring birth rate."

He said the biggest freshman increase this year was in engineering.

On the other hand, the number of freshmen enrolled for agriculture is down 7.5 per cent.

The top ten universities in full-time student populations include: University of Michigan, 22,185; Michigan State University, 16,714.

The top ten universities in full and part-time students (with California and Texas not reporting) include University of Michigan, 25,760.
