Egypt's President Naguib Gets Back Premier Post

CAIRO (AP) — Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib took all his old jobs back today in Egypt's military government. The man who deposed him 12 days ago, Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, stepped back to the vice premiership he held originally.

Guidance Minister Salah Salem tensely announced Naguib's reinstatement as premier and chairman of the ruling Revolutionary Council.

Naguib already had taken back the presidency after being ousted from all three posts and placed under guard at home Feb. 25 on charges he sought to become a "dictator."

Salem said the incidents of Naguib's ouster were erased at a joint meeting of the Revolutionary Council and the civilian Cabinet late last night as though they had been nothing more than "a passing cloud."

Donald D. Pulford of St. LaBelle Ave. was caught outside the main entrance of the County Courthouse, after being chased through the crowded corridors and down two flights of steps.

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputy Thurman Sauvage said he turned his back briefly on Pulford and the prisoner bolted through the open door. Sauvage returned him in handcuffs moments later.

Pulford was sentenced to 3 to 5 years in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for stealing a truck in Royal Oak last Jan. 13. He walked out of the Royal Oak Police Station while being questioned, but was arrested in the stolen truck later in Hazel Park.

He also said that there would be no disruption in the regular immunization programs against smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

Ike Hand-picked Nixon to Reply to Adlai's Attack

But Senator McCarthy Still Wants Free Radio, TV Time for Self

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, it now is known, hand-picked Vice President Nixon to fire back the Republican party's reply to charges by Adlai Stevenson that the GOP is using "slander, dissension and deception" to try to win the coming congressional elections.

But Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), while terming Nixon an "excellent choice" to speak for the party, made it clear last night he still expects NBC and CBS to give him free radio and TV time to reply to what he called a "vicious attack on me personally" by Stevenson, the Democrats' 1952 presidential candidate.

"I am delegating to no one the authority to defend me," McCarthy told newsmen in New York after he had learned the two big networks had rejected his demand for equal air time but had agreed instead to give the Republican party a 30-minute rebuttal period next Saturday night.

The Wisconsin senator hinted strongly he might take the matter to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), of which his friend, Robert E. Lee, recently became a member. The FCC licenses and regulates radio and television operations.

Addressing a big Democratic rally in Miami, Fla., last Saturday night, Stevenson aimed much of his attack at McCarthy, whom he accused of seeking to lead the Republican party to a "malign and fatal totalitarianism." The titular leader of the Democrats also said the Republicans are divided "half McCarthy and half Eisenhower."

Voters Decide Battle of Sexes, End Debates

CLIMAX (AP) — Climax has climaxed its family breakfast-table arguments on whether women can govern better than men with a resounding ballot in favor of the men.

Men candidates won every race in Monday's village election. In nearly every race it was husband against wife and papa's margin was around 10-to-1 in all of them.

The women said they nominated a ticket "just for fun." That's all they got out of it, although the men expressed belief they likely were influenced by a women's slate which routed the men and took over the government of near-by Mendon two years ago.

Mendon, incidentally, abolished its petticoat government in Monday's elections, too not a single woman was elected. There are two holdovers on the five-member board of trustees, but now there are three men.

Mendon men candidates won by around 7-to-1, but one woman remains in its government outside the trustees board. Mrs. Ruth Dalman was unopposed for treasurer.

And at Vicksburg, also a South-west Michigan village, the first woman trustee in history was elected. She is Mrs. Lucille Anderson.

Bangor elected Mable Cary as treasurer, but she wasn't running as a candidate on a woman's ticket.

The climax contest pitted Aaron Betz against his wife, Theta, for city treasurer, and their daughter, Lucille, against Assessor L. N. Pierce.

In the trustee races Richard Goldsmith was opposed by his wife, Vivian; Paul Van Dam by his wife, Miriam, and Jerry Frye by his spouse, Mabel.

Pontiac Real Estate Board last night voted 41 to 15 to support the city's plan for hospital expansion and other public improvements to be voted on in the April 5 general election.

The vote was the same on each of two questions:

1. Bonding the city for $3,000,000 to defray cost of constructing a hospital addition.

2. Amending the city charter to provide for 2½ extra mills ($2.50 per $1,000 of valuation), with one mill used for hospital expansion and 1½ mills in a sinking fund for public improvements.

Hittle Breaks With GOP Over Jobless Benefits Bill

LANSING (AP) — Sen. Harry F. Hittle (R-East Lansing), veteran president pro tem of the Senate, broke last night with Republican majority leaders over the semi-official Republican unemployment compensation bill.

Hittle demanded the Legislature increase unemployment compensation benefits from the current maximum of $35 to $44 a week.

This compares with the $39 sought in the so-called Teahen bill backed by majority leaders and the $52 sought by Senate Democrats.

Democrats took turns firing seven liberalizing amendments into the Teahen bill, and lost on six.

Then Hittle salvaged and obviously impressed the chamber. Leaders broke off debate until later.

The East Lansing senator charged that when he, as the official representative of a legislative study committee, tried to get contributions by employers from the State Employment Security Commission, an executive of that commission "was summoned to an office in Detroit and told what he could give out and what he could not."

He told reporters the "office" was that of a private concern.

"I am so indignant," Hittle told the Senate, "at the way this whole thing has been handled that I intend to vote against this bill even if my amendments are adopted."

He said the information he sought from the commission involved data on how much, employers in his district would have to pay under various proposed amendments to the law.

Probe Promised if Millard Finds Law Violations

Sales Tax Reportedly Evaded in Transfer of Cut-Rate New Cars

DETROIT (AP) — Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary said today a state-wide investigation into reports of a "bootleg" car market in Michigan would be started if an attorney general's opinion finds violations of the State Motor Vehicle Code.

Cleary said that no full-scale investigation was planned until Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard renders an opinion.

He said his office had made "samplings" of reports of irregularities resulting from the cut price sale of new passenger automobiles.

Cleary said that if the attorney general's opinion is to the effect the motor vehicle code has been violated it was likely a statewide investigation would be started immediately.

The secretary of state said there had been reports of new cars turning up on used car lots.

Reports of irregularities include traffic in new passenger models on which no state sales taxes have been paid and violations of the State Motor Vehicle Code.

The bootlegging involves the wholesaling of cars by new car dealers to used car dealers or other unauthorized persons who sell the bootlegged cars at a price under the retail list price in competition with franchised dealers.

Michigan law states the 3 per cent sales tax must be paid when delivery is made within the state by the retail dealer, even though the person taking delivery may be another dealer.

The State Motor Vehicle Code would be violated if there is no transfer of the new cars' titles from one dealer to the other.

General Motors Corp. and the Ford Motor Co. have threatened to revoke the franchise of bootlegging dealers. Chrysler Corp. has joined GM and Ford in condemning the practice.

For the Measure You Give Unto Others ... That Will Be the Measure Returned

By ROBERT WHITNEY
President, National Sales Executives

Just before graduation from college, I asked a friend of my father if he would help me land a good job.

"Introductions today aren't going to help you 10 years from now, Robert," my friend said, "but I have something else for you . . . a formula for success. Read Luke 6:38."

I've always shied away from formulas, so I took my time looking up Luke 6:38. After graduation, I contacted a former summer employer and finally landed an apprentice selling Robert Whitney job with Wilson, the meat packer. Things went slowly — I was impatient.

Then one night in a hotel room I was thumbing through the Bible studying a survey I had conducted for their firm without their knowledge, asked me to join them as sales promotion manager. It seemed like a good opportunity — a chance to try the Bible formula on a national scale. So I accepted.

Slowly we changed the sales approach, time and again being misunderstood because few executives could comprehend why everything we did was always designed to benefit the distributor, the retailer and the customer first.

For instance, while calling on a large department store which did business with us, I discovered that most of their items were out of stock 20 per cent of the time. This meant lost business for them and us.

"We just don't have a way of knowing when we are out of each item," the store buyer admitted. Checking further, I found that their stock boys were usually part-time high school students, whose only means of identifying the stock

CAIRO (AP)—Maj. Gen. Mohammed Naguib took all his old jobs back today in Egypt's military government. The man who deposed him 12 days ago, Lt. Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser, stepped back to the vice premiership he held originally.

Salem said the incidents of Naguib's ouster were erased at a joint meeting of the Revolutionary Council and the civilian Cabinet late last night as though they had been nothing more than "a passing cloud."

Nasser, who had been president during the three days of Naguib's eclipse and premier and council chairman since, said in an interview today the full restoration of Naguib was made to end all quarrels before resumption of negotiations for withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone.

Salem said the regime still held to its March 5 decision to establish a constituent assembly—an interim parliament—by July 27, and to abolish the two-year-old rule of martial law and local press censorship.

It was Salem who had announced Naguib's resignation and accused the popular, pipe-smoking army man of seeking absolute powers.

Naguib has become a near idol to millions of Egyptians hoping for an end to the feudal rule which has gripped this strife-torn Middle East country. But Nasser is regarded as the strong man of the revolution and has been the chief negotiator with the British on the desiccated Suez issue.

Police Question Four Suspects

Officers Seek Solution to 13 Local Burglaries Since Saturday

Pontiac Police today are questioning four suspects in connection with 13 breakins here since Saturday night.

Nine of the breakins were reported over the weekend and four occurred last night.

Held for investigation are Roger C. Taylor, 30, of Detroit; James A. Robtroy, 18, of Birmingham; Clement Berger, 17, of Big Beaver, and a 15-year-old Rochester boy.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of detectives, said Taylor was arrested inside the McCarrall School about midnight while police were checking the building. The Wilson School was entered Sunday night.

The other three youths were picked up on Mt. Clemens street near Saginaw street early this morning when police found several cartons of cigarettes and $55 in their possession.

According to Wheaton, the trio admitted they earlier broke into a supermarket and bowling alley in Rochester. Wheaton said the juvenile had three sets of car keys, stolen from a used car lot in Rochester.

All four places entered last night were ransacked and damaged after thieves entered through rear windows, Wheaton said.

Police said that paint was flung throughout the office of the Albert B. Lowrie Lumber Co., 1441 Baldwin Ave., where a futile attempt was made to enter the company's safe.

About $32 was stolen from the Willits Sales and Service at 649 Auburn Ave.

Nothing has been found to be missing, according to police, after a break-in at the St. Vincent DePaul Clothing Bureau at 11 W. Wilson Ave.

Naguib Wins Back His Premier Post meeting last night said it was Nasser who suggested Naguib be given back his old post. Provided he give up his earlier demands for powers to veto the council's decisions and to hire and fire Cabinet ministers.

"The council and Naguib welcomed the suggestion," the informant said.

The council also canceled out another decree signed only yesterday naming Nasser as Egypt's military governor. The post went back to Naguib.

The surprise developments of last night were another chapter in a long conflict inside the Revolutionary Council. Nasser was the behind-the-scenes engineer of the bloodless coup which ended the monarchy, exiled King Farouk 20 months ago and set Naguib up as revolutionary hero. He was known to favor keeping the council as supreme power even after the constituent assembly was elected. Naguib, on the other hand, was said to have wanted the council to step into the background when the interim parliament took over.

bid for equal radio and TV time to reply. He stressed that Stevenson spoke as leader of the Democratic party.

Thus, Hall wired both big networks that "this is not a matter for personal rebuttal by any individual"—an apparent reference to McCarthy.

High administration sources said last night Eisenhower himself made the suggestion that the Republican National Committee seek free radio-TV time to answer Stevenson and that it was the President who chose Nixon to speak for the party. The President, it was reported, phoned the idea to Hall, who already had moved in the same direction.

One informed source indicated that the strategy was "to get McCarthy out of the headlines and get our story across."

It was understood in this connection that Hall did not contact McCarthy before asking the network for rebuttal opportunity.

McCarthy, arriving in New York after a brief Miami vacation, said Hall was "entirely correct" in regarding the Stevenson speech as an attack on the GOP. McCarthy, in fact, called it an "intemperate attack." But he added:

"Mr. Nixon is speaking for the party. I'm speaking for myself."

"The FCC rules," he asserted, "provide that I must be given time to answer these charges. . . . I intend to do everything I can to make the television companies live up to their obligations."

Commission sources said last night FCC's basic law requires that candidates for public office be given "equal opportunities" on the air. But this would not seem to cover the present situation since no one involved is an active candidate.

However, these sources also said the commission has tried in the past to see to it that broadcasters treated all controversial issues fairly.

In announcing that it was honoring Hall's request, CBS said it got the GOP chairman's bid first and would not grant McCarthy the free time he asked because "time already has been given to the GOP to answer Stevenson."

Juveniles Confess Four Burglaries

Three Waterford juveniles today confessed to breaking into four homes in the past two weeks, according to Frank Van Atta, Waterford Township police chief.

The boys, 11, 12, and 13 years old, admitted taking $58.50 in cash and about $200 worth of jewelry from the homes, Van Atta said. They were released to their parents pending further investigation and juvenile court disposition.

The homes which the boys entered are at: 5810 Savoy, owned by Mrs. Lorraine Mason; 5496 Savoy, owned by Delmore Reeves; 5360 Cruse, owned by Albert Matthews, and 5525 Ayleshire, owned by Ardith Payne.

Van Atta credited all his men for solving the breaks, and added that they worked most of Monday night questioning the boys and recovering the property. Most of the money and property had been hidden in the boys' homes.

Gasoline Prices May Drop Soon

Broomfield Committee Says Large Inventories Could Force Cut

LANSING (UP) — A special House committee studying gasoline prices reported today that reductions in retail gas prices are in prospect for Michigan motorists.

The special committee, headed by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), noted that large inventories of crude oil have been accumulated and the motoring public may benefit from price cuts "in the very near future."

The House group, formed last year to probe facts surrounding the continued rise of retail gasoline prices, said no state legislation is needed but federal regulatory action may result from a pending congressional study. The report noted that more than 80 per cent of the gasoline industry is interstate in nature.

Broomfield's committee said it found no evidence of any violation of state laws in gasoline sales.

Hittle, Party Split on Jobless Benefits

I want, I can't vote honestly and intelligently," Hittle said.

Hittle charged that the Teahen bill would grant no increase to 64.2 per cent of the labor force in Michigan, the single men. Only 6 per cent would get the proposed $35 maximum, he said.

He said his bill would cost $6,383,961 over the present law, while the Teahen bill would cost $4,782,000 more.

Hittle said the proposed new merit rating system for figuring employer contributions to the $440 million compensation fund would reduce the contributions of 15,000 employers, raise 5,000 and leave 5,000 unchanged.

Sen. Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek), the majority leader who unseated Hittle from that post last year, challenged some of Hittle's figures but did not press the fight.

Dairy to Hold Open House

New Building, Designed for Bulk Milk Handling, to Receive Guests

The Nye Dairy will hold open house in its new plant, at 585 Oakland Ave., Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m. Manager James Nye says the new building is 60x160 feet and affords triple the space of the Cooley street plant.

The latest innovation in the dairy business, bulk handling of milk, will be introduced for the first time in this section of the state, according to Nye.

Called the ultimate in milk handling by dairy researchers, the bulk method affords milk almost direct from cow to consumer.

Milk is pumped directly into refrigerated, stainless steel holding tanks on farms and chilled to 38 degrees. A built-in agitator keeps the milk circulating until it is tested for fat content by the dairy's tank truck driver and it is then transferred to the truck for delivery to the plant.

"A higher fat content is assured this way," Nye reports, "and all milk is measured before transfer to the truck so the farmer knows exactly how much is being transferred."

The new plant will use a 2,500 gallon tank truck to make pick-ups from 19 farms in this area. Ten of the farms have already had equipment for the bulk method installed. The others will change as soon as their equipment arrives, according to Nye.

Expandable interior partition walls in the new plant may be adjusted to meet any further change in operation. A steel-beamed roof is supported by tile glazed block walls and floors are constructed so that all water drains toward the outside.

Completely fireproof, the new plant has "dry islands" where employees can work in comfort and safety, according to Nye. A ventilating system is used for temperature control and to cut down moisture and dampness in walls and floors.

Michigan Youth Killed in Arizona

Three Prison Escapees Crash Into Roadblock at 100 M.P.H.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (U) — A young Michigan desperado lay dead and his buddy critically injured today after a wild, shooting highway chase by a dozen State Police cars.

The third gunman, who drove their stolen car into a roadblock at 100 m.p.h. was thrown clear, escaping injury.

For 80 miles the trio, of Jackson Prison escapees, heavily armed and wanted for a series of crimes, outmaneuvered lawmen alerted by the armed hold-up of a liquor store here late Monday night.

One of the youths fired from a rifle during the chase, hitting a sheriff's car and putting a Highway Patrol car out of action.

The victim was identified as Ronald Taylor, 18, of Midland. Dave Totten, 20, of Fenton, was still unconscious in Doctors' Hospital here with a brain concussion and arm injury. The third youth is Duane Reger, 17, of Clare County.

The three "honor boys" escaped from the Cassidy Lake Technical camp of Ionia Reformatory Feb. 15 and began a cross-country crime spree.

Capt. William Hanson of Jackson, head of the state police uniformed division, said the trio is believed responsible for a crime wave that hit Pontiac, St. John's and Owosso and other Michigan communities.

Reger was serving 1 1/2 to 15 years for breaking and entering in Kent County; Totten, 20, was serving two to four years for larceny from a barn in Genesee County and Taylor, 19, was doing 15 months to 15 years for a Midland County burglary.

Dulles Doctrine Gains Ground

Five Latin Nations Lend Support to Program to Repel Commies

CARACAS, Venezuela (U) — The United States gained ground today in the 10th Inter-American Conference with its plan for united action to halt communism in this hemisphere.

Five Latin-American nations—Brazil, the Dominican Republic, Paraguay, Honduras and Nicaragua—threw their support to the new "Dulles Doctrine" in sessions yesterday.

Haiti also called for anti-Red action "not in conflict with the principle of nonintervention."

Underlining the importance President Eisenhower's government puts on the issue, Dulles canceled a speaking engagement in Philadelphia tomorrow to continue his personal watch on the progress of his anti-Communist resolution. Discussion of it in the Political-Judicial Committee was expected to take several more days.

The U. S. resolution would call for the 21 American republics to consult and act jointly against Communist seizure of power in any of the American states, just as they now are pledged to repel jointly invasion by a foreign aggressor. It would also provide for disclosure of identity, activities and sources of funds of persons spreading Communist propaganda or traveling in the interests of the Red cause.

Mexico submitted an amendment to expand such joint action to all forms of totalitarian intervention in the Americas.

Launching the committee debate yesterday, Dulles answered Guatemala's demand that he define international communism. He described it as "that far-flung clandestine political organization which is operated by the leaders of the Communist party of the Soviet Union." He said one of its aims was to bring parts of the Western Hemisphere into its grip.

Brazilian Foreign Minister Vicente Rao said he would prefer to speak of "Soviet interventionism" rather than Communist penetration. He warned that "inter-American interventionism"—one American nation interfering with the affairs of another—should not be permitted to mask under the guise of anti-Communist action.

Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa, Nicaraguan ambassador to Washington, said his nation also rejected a state's intervention in the affairs of another "to impose its one-sided will," but joint action against foreign ideas threatening peace and harmony in the continent is not intervention.

'Traf-o-teria' Easily Collects Parking Fines

NORMAN, Okla. (U) — Fuming drivers who wouldn't be caught dead—no less alive—in the police station to pay a parking fine have found salvation at last in the "Traf-o-teria."

The little device, installed recently on all parking meters here as an experiment, turns potential nonpayers of parking tickets into law-abiding citizens. Indications are it's going over big with the paying customers.

A motorist here receives a parking ticket and an envelope. If he puts the ticket and 50 cents into the envelope and places it in the Traf-o-teria, an aluminum box attached to the parking meter, the fine is considered paid. Wait 48 hours and the ante goes up to $1.

Police Chief Albert Dodd thinks the pay-as-you-drive boxes will be a bonanza in enforcement of the city's traffic codes.

"Used to be," reflected Dodd, "women were pretty reluctant to come to the station, and they'd give the tickets to their husbands, who, chances are, would forget to pay them. Now the women pay better than men."

Overtime parking fines collected in the boxes during the first month of "Operation Traf-o-teria" totaled $400, Dodd said, a 135 per cent increase over the previous month's take.

Prayed, but Refused Medic for Dying Girl

The woman is a devout member of the "Witnesses of Christ" movement. She was held under a French penal code provision making it a crime to refuse help to a person in peril of death.

MATERA, Italy (U-P)—A Communist leader who quit the party and came back from Czechoslovakia to stand trial was acquitted last night on charges of resisting public order.

The court freed Matteo Masseno, former secretary of the local Red party unit, on grounds there was not enough evidence against him. He had been accused of leading Communists in a 1948 clash with the police in which several persons were injured.

Police said he had shouted during the riot: "Give me the Red flag or give me death." During his trial he testified:

"I'm glad to be finally rid of $100 Breakin Solved --- but Where Was It?

FITCHBURG, Mass. (U-P)—Police have solved a crime involving theft of $100 but they don't know where it happened.

A fugitive from Shirley Industrial School—a detention home for boys—was returned here yesterday on a charge of taking a car without authority.

Police said he told them of breaking into a gas station last Tuesday and stealing $100 from the cash register.

But he couldn't tell where the gas station was other than "within a day's walking distance from Fitchburg."

No nearby police department has any record of the theft.

'Buzzie' Roosevelt Sued for Divorce in Mexico

JUAREZ, Mexico (U-P)—Mrs. Robin Roosevelt, wife of Curtis (Buzzie Dall) Roosevelt, has applied for a divorce in Juarez, charging mental cruelty.

Judge Oscar Martinez indicated it would be granted today.

Roosevelt is the grandson of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He became known to millions of Americans as "Buzzie Dall" when as a youth he lived in the White House for a time with his sister Sisie.

Mrs. Roosevelt, the former Robin Edwards of Brentwood, Calif., is the daughter of an executive engineer at Douglas Aircraft.

That Man McCarthy

Certainly the most contentious and controversial figure in the national political scene at the moment is Senator JOSEPH McCARTHY of Wisconsin. He engenders more cheers and jeers than anyone around. Senator Joe is a highly disputatious figure, any way you take him.

Few see him as gray.
He's solid black or pure white.
But he's never red.

Certainly the pugnacious and belligerent Wisconsin politico has uncovered a lot of lowly machinations in high places and if the Russians have a list of Public Enemies, Senator JOSEPH must rank well towards the top. Indeed he may figure as the actual bell cow.

He has struck terror to the breasts of a lot of this country's enemies. He has smoked out a commendable number of traitors and his fires are still burning brightly.

But his methods are often open to criticism and frequently to question. He never employs the rapier. Rather it's the broad sword or the king sized battle ax and he swings from the heels. Frequently this is not the winning technique, but McCarthy continues to be blithely unaware of the fact.

He engenders antagonism and alienates allies. And through it all, the rip snorting middle western investigator hews strictly to what he believes to be the line and lets the chips fall where they may. The trouble is, too often other equally patriotic Americans have an entirely different conception of the line.

In his most recent controversy, the Senator has run afoul of a gentleman named DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER and another named CHARLES E. WILSON. These are no mean antagonists.

Their outstanding patriotic acts probably transcend McCarthy's and their services to their Nation do likewise. Both of these men and the Generals for whom they speak are especially square shooters and willing to bow when concessions are indicated. But they won't be bullied. And no one ever intimidated either.

The Army conceded it was at fault in the Major PERSS matter. And Defense Secretary WILSON has already promised corrective methods for a lot of abuses.

But Wisconsin's king of the china shop continues to swing at everyone in sight. If the Senator's close associates can haul him aside and compel him to read a few pages in "How to Win Friends and Influence People" they will bestow a boon and favor on the United States. The Wisconsin man can start learning something right on Page One for the entire conceit is a blind spot in his make up.

He is serving his country vigorously . . . but the pen is still mightier than the sword and a soft answer is more eloquent and persuasive than the African tom-toms.

In the meantime, the Democrats are very happy. McCARTHY is manna from heaven. He's their White Hope.

He has started to split the Republican Party which is something the Dems haven't been able to achieve by themselves. He is disrupting the GOP and causing a schism that can be sufficient to turn a thin edge of victory into open defeat later this Fall and again in 1956.

To Salvage Drug Addicts

Fate of a bill which aims at establishing an effective system of rehabilitating Michigan's drug addicts now rests in the House at Lansing.

Introduced in the upper chamber by Senator RYAN, Detroit Democrat, the measure encountered sharp criticism. Objection was taken to its proposal that rehabilitation of drug addicts be turned over to health officers.

As amended, the bill would establish the sound theory that drug addicts are victims of disease and not criminals. It also makes the Detroit clinic the focal point of the rehabilitation program.

One revision requires former addicts who have been released from hospitals, to spend two years on probation accepting regular treatment from the clinic in Detroit or hospitals outstate. Another provides that criminal charges would not be waived and prosecutions would follow cures.

The GOP controlled Senate obviously considered the bill a strong addition to the 1952 Act setting up penalties of 20 years to life for drug peddling. Its 32-0 vote of approval and the fact that there are 5,000 drug addicts in Michigan should ensure this bill favorable consideration in the House.

Warren Confirmed

The Senate has done all in its power to right a wrong when it approved the nomination of EARL WARREN to be Chief Justice of the United States.

In its final action on this nomination the upper chamber paid deserved tribute to an outstanding American who had been made the victim of a wholly unjustifiable smear. There was no debate prior to the voice vote and no audible dissent to the confirmation.

We believe this too long delayed action reflects the attitude of a vast majority of the American people toward the new head of the Nation's highest court.

NATIVES of Missouri were scarcely aware of the recent earthquake in that State. It takes a lot to shock Missourians.

Decision of Jury in Recent Jack Habel Condemnation Suit Praised by Readers

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I have been extremely concerned with the Jack Habel condemnation suit, feeling that more was involved than a city parking lot.

The report of the jury's decision gratified my sense of justice. Events leading up to the trial show the property was listed for sale for a considerable period, highlighted by wearisome discourse and debate by the city commission regarding value vs. price and suitability of the land for a public parking lot.

Jack Habel settled the issue by purchasing the property at a price the commission considered exorbitant. The condemnation suit coming upon the heels of the purchase announcement implied an action prompted by a vindictive commission.

The majority opinion expressed by expert parking and traffic consultants bear out the premise that the property is unsuitable for public parking. This points out the real issue and public opinion as verified by the jury decision . . . no elected officials have the right to arbitrarily condemn or otherwise impose their official power on individuals without recourse. I applaud the jury heartily.

W. R. Shirley

Everyone seems to be happy about Jack Habel's victory over the city. It's about time someone has put them in their place. They have erased bingo, gambling, dancing and everything, the average citizen enjoys.

If the city had won the case the property wouldn't have materialized into anything but a mudhole or a five minute parking lot, so they could ticket the cars parked overtime.

Keep Pontiac clammed up and let the suburban towns do the business and we won't have to get land for parking. So far the city is running everybody but the job.

"Former" City Resident

Suppose a man invested a large amount of money establishing a business so he could have security in his later years. Suppose his business had always been conducted in a manner above reproach and that he had a legal and constitutional right to found a business that required ambition, courage and good moral character.

How does he feel when a group of people, who never had the courage and enterprise to start any business, try to gobble up a piece of his property without paying him what it is worth?

Any law that enables a city to take an individual's property away from him should be taken off the books. I've heard this country referred to as a "Christian" nation, but it's full of people who want what belongs to the other fellow.

How nice of the jury to decide to allow a man to own and keep his own property! It appears that the only way to have any security is to have a city or government job, so as to live at the taxpayers' expense.

David Lawrence Says:

Issue Is Not Splitting Republican Party but Getting Commies Out of Government

WASHINGTON — Adlai Stevenson and the Democratic politicians are pursuing what they believe to be a clever strategy of "divide and conquer."

It's a plan to split the Republican party on the anti-Communist issue and perhaps even force the formation of a third party, as in 1912, so that the Democrats can win easily in 1956.

Unfortunately, some Republicans on the eastern seaboard who have oversimplified the McCarthy controversy, as involving merely a contest between President Eisenhower and the Wisconsin senator, are falling for this strategy and are unwittingly alienating a large Republican vote which, having nowhere else to go, could be forced into a third party.

For the anti-Communist issue will not disappear if Eisenhower listens to those who want him to have a knockdown, drag-out fight with the Wisconsin senator and, as it is usually phrased, "assert his leadership."

The practical side is that there are many millions of voters in America who think that the Truman administration, as well as the Roosevelt administration, covered up the facts about the Communists in government and did not take the necessary measures to ferret them out.

All the suggestions for dealing with the Wisconsin senator which are being advanced by the anti-McCarthy wing of the Republican party, aided and abetted by the Democratic strategists, will not erase the simple fact that every public-opinion poll taken since the McCarthy crusade began in 1950 has revealed a substantial segment of the Republican party in agreement with him.

The popularity curve of Sen. McCarthy was recorded as of Feb. 1, 1954, by the Gallup polling organization as having gone from 36 per cent to 59 per cent of the voters canvassed in both parties.

Even if this fluctuates, it is something in politics to realize that a man's following is so considerable. It is not one senator but about 15,000,000 Republicans and a lot of former Democrats who voted Republican on this issue in 1952 who can be driven away from the party.

The odd part of it is that the tactics of the anti-McCarthyites are strengthening rather than weakening that following. This is because the anti-McCarthy spokesmen never come to grips with the fundamental issue.

They spend most of their time and emphasis denouncing the "methods" of the Wisconsin senator and trying to make McCarthy, the man, their sole target.

They overlook the fact that there is only one way to dissolve the McCarthy crusade and turn the Wisconsin senator toward other pursuits — and that's for the administration itself to do a convincing anti-Communist job.

The anti-McCarthy spokesmen talk much about the browbeating of a general in a committee session — as if vigorous cross-examination of witnesses were novel — but they say very little about the indifference of a former President of the United States to the Harry Dexter White case of espionage set before him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Millions of people really believe that for 20 years the Democratic administrations harbored treason in their ranks.

The Eisenhower administration started out to do a convincing job on the anti-Communist issue when Attorney General Brownell last autumn revealed some sensational facts about the cover-up by the preceding administration.

But some persons who advise the President promptly persuaded Eisenhower to pull the rug from under his attorney general!

Eisenhower can fall for the idea that, by a public fight with McCarthy or his committee, he will enhance his prestige but practical politicians in his own circle will tell him that such a step would be fatal.

If McCarthy departed from the scene tomorrow, someone else would arise in Congress to take up where he left off. For the issue is not one senator but the codding and nurturing and harboring of traitors inside the government.

The followers of Sen. McCarthy believe in fighting fire with fire, and they are not too concerned if the "methods" of the district attorney in trying to get the facts are not always gentle or polite.

home or, alternatively, a hospital where good twentieth century obstetrics has been established.

That means "rooming-in." Where people are treated as human beings.

Typical of the nineteenth century obstetrics to which many gullible customers are subjected is this report from a victim in the middle west:

Dear Dr. Brady: I've had one child at home and one in the hospital, my first. The doctor arrived about half a minute before he was born, bungled the job and in consequence . . . although I asked for him and he was in the hospital, a nurse said she didn't want to bother him.

Because of (the complication that occurred before the doctor consented to be "bothered") the baby had to be kept in hospital for . . .

They said they'd charge $7.50 a day, but they moved him without our knowledge into a more expensive ward, at $11.75 a day . . .

Some of my sentiments, ideals, teachings or beliefs are out of the past decades, all right. So is the Code of Medical Ethics.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Says Flowers Should Be Part of Funeral Service

Martha conducted a very interesting survey about flowers. Read her results carefully. And never let the false "economy" argument permit "erosion" of the soul. Death is our greatest graduation ceremony, so it should be honored with flowers.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-344: Martha Sheely, aged about 25, is a reporter for the Anderson Independent in South Carolina.

Recently she interviewed 20 men and women asking them, "Would you rather have flowers now or after you are dead?" And 18 immediately said they'd prefer their flowers while they were still alive.

One of the 20 said she'd like hers divided—some posies while she lived and some at the funeral.

And one man said he'd like his beautifully arranged around the casket after his death.

Actually, most people would probably like their flowers at both times, but especially while they are living which is why I urge you so incessantly to pay daily compliments to your companions.

For words of praise are simply verbal bouquets which buoy up our family and associates and encourage them in further good works.

But in recent years there has arisen a dangerous suggestion that we should eliminate all flowers at funerals and devote that salvaged money to the poor.

That is not wise. For death is really our graduation ceremony from this earthly classroom. And flowers are an appropriate part of every high school commencement as well as funeral service.

For the flowers exert an inspiration effect on the living who are congregated at the church or funeral chapel.

It is psychologically dangerous to permit erosion of the soul, which is what occurs when we strip all evidences of idealism from moments of great emotional significance.

"But the departed dead can't smell the lovely flowers!" somebody may argue.

By the same logic, the dead can't hear the clergyman's funeral sermon, so should we eliminate that customary portion of the ceremony?

The dead can't see or feel the beautifully lined casket, either, so why not adopt Hitler's blunt efficiency and just bulldoze a trench into which we could dump our departed loved ones with no ceremony at all?

The dead would probably not know the difference, but we living relatives and friends certainly would feel the callousness of such unfeeling treatment at such great graduation ceremony from life. So never permit flowers to be eliminated from funerals. It strips this religious event bare of its idealism, just as the omission of flowers from a church on Easter would make the pulpit seem barren.

"Man does not live by bread alone," said Jesus, meaning that money is not the only essential of life.

Flowers and music and other evidences of beauty are likewise vital to human personality. That's why Jesus reproved the Apostles for criticizing the woman who poured the expensive ointment on Him prior to his crucifixion.

They argued that her action was wasteful, saying that money might better have been given to the poor. But Jesus definitely disagreed with them.

So be sure you do not eliminate all flowers from funerals. Don't overdo this matter, of course, but always honor your dead and inspire their living friends and relatives by appropriate flowers, plus other evidences of your esteem.

Death is our greatest graduation ceremony, so it deserves to be kept a beautiful event, with music, flowers, beautifully lined casket and inspiring sermon.

Desire to Have Babies Born in Hospital Comes From Keeping Up With Joneses

Our second was born at home, everything fine. If we have any more they'll be born at home, too.

(Signed)

Not always but too often the factor which makes young prospective parents choose hospitalization for childbirth is—let's face it—snobishness, the determination to keep up with the Joneses, who themselves are straining to keep up with other Joneses at such high cost that they can't afford a home fit to have a baby in—which is all to the good for the hospital.

The impressive clothes, cars, cocktail parties, club memberships and other pretenses of these Joneses may impress the general public, but not a doctor who in the course of practice has occasion to visit the cubbyholes in which they hide away when not on parade.

Arrest Mother for Drowning 3

Tots Killed in Bathtub; Note to Husband Says 'God Told Me'

WATERVILLE, Maine (U)—A distraught young housewife who wrote a message that "God told me" to-day faced a murder charge in the bathtub drownings of her three children.

County Atty. Joseph B. Campbell said Mrs. Constance Fisher, 24, would be arraigned in Municipal Court.

Richard Fisher, 6, his brother Daniel, 4, and their sister Deborah, 1, were found dead in their home yesterday by their father Carl, 33, who smashed a door to gain entrance.

Richard's body lay face down in the tub. The others were on beds.

Campbell said Mrs. Fisher was huddled in a blanket under a bed. He said she had swallowed some liquid shampoo in a suicide attempt, but it had no serious effect.

Fisher, a Maine Central Railroad employee, was temporarily prostrated when he discovered the bodies and a note scrawled on wrapping paper.

Campbell said Mrs. Fisher wrote her husband:

"It was so hard to do, but God told me it was the only way I could save them. They are in heaven safe forever from evil."

The Fisher family physician said Mrs. Fisher had been subject to periods of depression and had consulted a psychiatrist about them.

17-Day-Old Baby Survives Operations

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (U)—James Paul Patterson Jr. recently underwent two rare operations. He's 17 days old.

The first came when he was six days old to correct a condition that obstructed passage of food and air from the stomach to the intestine.

Three days later a blood clot formed and stopped the flow of blood in his right leg. Another operation.

A physician said development of the blood clot had no direct relationship with the first operation. He said only 30 cases of the stomach-intestine condition have been reported throughout the world.

British Forces Claim 125 Mau Mau Deaths

NAIROBI, Kenya (U)—The British claimed today their ground and air forces have killed at least 125 terrorists of the anti-White Mau Mau in strikes during the past 10 days.

The colonial government said 53 Mau Maus also had been captured during the period. The security forces lost five men, including one European.

Gower Gulch Mayor Dies at Age of 80

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Mayor Rube Dalroy of Gower Gulch, who campaigned on a promise to give stagecoaches undisputed right of way on busy Sunset boulevard, is dead at the age of 80.

"Gower Gulch" is the intersection of Gower street and Sunset boulevard, the hangout of old-time movie cowboys and character actors. Dalroy, who died of a heart attack yesterday, had ruled the Gulch as honorary mayor for the past six years.

He claimed to have been the original clown in Buffalo Bill's wild west show and had been in show business for 40 years.

Vandenberg's Condition Takes Turn for Worse

WASHINGTON (U)—The condition of Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg has taken a turn for the worse, a Walter Reed Hospital spokesman said early today.

The famed 54-year-old flier, who retired as Air Force chief of staff last June, has been in the hospital since Oct. 3. Nature of his illness has never been officially disclosed.

Jap Cabinet Passes Two Defense Bills

TOKYO (U)—Japan's Cabinet today approved two bills to bolster the nation's defense. Both must pass the Diet.

Under the proposed laws, Japanese defense personnel would be increased to 164,538 in the next fiscal year from 120,000. The present embryo land, naval and air forces would assume a more military character.

The bills would revise Japanese law to fit with the mutual defense agreement signed yesterday with the United States although there is nothing in the measures themselves which tie them directly to the defense agreement.

'Mind-Murder' Called Red Aim

Psychiatrist Testifies as Col. Schwable Case Nears Climax

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Marine Corps court of inquiry today turned to a study of "menticide"—the destruction of a mind—as it moved toward a climax in the case of Col. Frank H. Schwable. The Marine air officer, who signed a germ warfare confession for his Communist captors in Korea and repudiated it when freed, is expected to testify himself later this week, perhaps Thursday.

In the meantime, his counsel called Dr. Joost A. M. Meerloo of New York City as a follow-up witness to Maj. Gen. William H. Dean, who testified yesterday.

Dr. Meerloo, a Dutch psychiatrist, specialized in the study of Communist brainwashing and defines its result as "menticide"—literally, mind-murder. He coined the word as a description of what happens to a mind robbed of its will by torture and interrogation.

The court of one admiral and three Marine generals was set up to recommend whether Schwable should be court-martialed or otherwise disciplined.

Dean, who won the Medal of Honor in Korea and was a prisoner for three years, told the court yesterday he would rather die than submit to capture again.

"If I ever go to war again," he said, "I'll carry along a pill which I'll take if I'm captured."

He said the military rule of disclosing only name, rank and serial number when captured is an ideal "we should all strive for" but he said he told his captors more than that.

"There must be a line," he said. "But when you're being interrogated there is no artificial barrier you can put down and say this is it . . . The Communists won't stop anywhere."

Crank's Letter Threatens Death to Councilmen

BALTIMORE (AP)—"Look out Council you are next for a big shooting you low sewer rats."

That was the pencil-scribbled, unpunctuated message received yesterday by the Baltimore City Council. The word "Communist" appeared at the end of the message and it was not known whether it was meant as a signature or a slur.

The councilmen accepted the message quite calmly, several of them commenting that they often receive anonymous cards or letters. This one wasn't addressed to any individual councilman.

Yesterday's message merited a second look, however, because of the recent shooting in the House of Representatives in Washington.

Sailor Facing Decision Between Navy, $100,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Bo'sun's Mate J.C. William Cabeca, 26, stands to inherit $100,000—if he quits the United States Navy.

He's been in the service for 10 years and likes it. So it's not easy for him to make up his mind.

A great uncle, Antonio Cabeca, died and left him one eighth interest in an $800,000 Miami, Fla., hotel provided he quits the Navy.

"Maybe I'll take the dough," said Cabeca yesterday. "Then maybe again I won't."

Test Engineer Sits in Jet for 56 Hours

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—For 56 hours last week Charles A. Dempsey, 29, a civilian industrial engineer at Wright Air Development Center, sat in a jet fighter cockpit and listened to a loud noise simulating the sound of a jet in flight.

This was a part of human endurance tests which WADC engineers hope will provide clues to equipment improvement for pilot comfort and efficiency. The noise was injected to test stress effects of flight noises.

For the entire 56 hours Dempsey wore a complete pilot's outfit, from oxygen mask and exposure suit to long underwear.

Jap Wife Won't Swear to Bear Arms for U.S.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Japanese-born wife of a Seventh Day Adventist minister was permitted yesterday to take her oath of citizenship without the customary swearing to bear arms for her country.

Mrs. Masu Sager of Takoma Park, Md., told Chief Federal Judge William C. Coleman she would promise to do noncombatant service but said her religion would not allow her to swear to bear arms.

Under these conditions and after considerable questioning, Judge Coleman allowed her to take the oath of allegiance with the phrase stricken out.

Dems Start Drive for Alaskan Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democrats scheduled a conference today to launch their drive to add Alaska to the Hawaii statehood bill.

The conference, first to be called by the party leadership this session, indicated an all-out effort to present a united front despite Republican assurances that a separate Alaska bill would be given Senate consideration later in the session.

The House has okayed statehood for Hawaii but has not acted on Alaska.

The Alaska issue comes before the Senate this afternoon on an amendment by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) to add statehood for the northern territory to the Hawaii bill, but the vote may not come until later.

House Kills Speed Bills, Faces Liquor Ad Decision

LANSING (UP)—A bill regulating beer and wine advertising on television was up for decision in the House today.

Leaders were busy behind the scenes last night trying to find a way to avoid a vote on the measure. While they were negotiating, the House took these actions:

1—Killed for this year any possibility of imposing speed limits on Michigan highways.

2—Advanced for votes today the Conlin plan to revise the sales tax diversion amendment and a bill to require safety belts in cars.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), majority leader, was trying to line up votes to send the McCune bill on television advertising back to committee and to set up a study committee on the problem.

He has offered Rep. John J. McCune (R-East Lansing), sponsor of the bill, the chairmanship of the committee, but McCune was being non-committal about approving the plan.

Meanwhile, the Democratic minority, whom Phillips needs to put over his plan, was not committing itself either.

The flood of mail, still largely favorable to the bill, continued. House postoffice workers said they have delivered a record 10,000 letters, cards and telegrams in the last week, mostly on the bill.

The bill would require the State Liquor Control Commission to

Yellow Auto Sought in Salesman's Death

HAMTRAMCK (INS) — A state-wide alert was out today for a late model yellow hardtop with 1954 Illinois license plates which Hamtramck Police believe may figure in last week's holdup slaying of John J. Jurewicz.

Several of the 49-year-old salesman's fellow employees at the Quaker Produce Co. reported seeing the car in the neighborhood Wednesday, the day Jurewicz was killed and $4,852 in checks stolen from him.

Hamtramck Police are awaiting a reply from Illinois authorities as to ownership of the car, believed to have a damaged right front fender.

Meanwhile, an ex-convict held as a suspect was released on a writ of habeas corpus Monday and agreed to cooperate with the investigation.

Death Car Owner Facing Sentencing

DETROIT (UP)—Jack Burtenshaw, 29, pleaded guilty Monday to leaving the scene of a fatal accident, which police said, resulted in the deaths of three women in an expressway collision last Dec. 5.

James Mount, 23, who police charged was the driver, asked for a jury trial on the manslaughter and leaving the accident scene charges.

Burtenshaw testified that he was "too drunk" to drive and asked Mount to drive the car for him. He added that he new the car had hit something and asked Mount to stop. He said Mount told him "I just nicked them" and just kept going.

The women's car overturned after it had been sideswiped, police said and crashed into a concrete pillar.

O-Jib-Wa Worked Wonders I DON'T FEEL LIKE THE SAME PERSON

Thanks to O-JIB-WA BITTERS, my rheumatism and arthritis is gone and I can get around again says Mrs. Thelma Huff, R. No. 2, Ortonville, Michigan.

When I look back, just a short time ago, and think how I suffered with inflammatory rheumatism and arthritis through-out my entire body, it seems impossible that one medicine could do so much—so soon. Every joint ached and pained and my hands and feet were so bad, I used many things that were supposed to help, and after many disappointments was ready to give up altogether. A friend urged me to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS as a last resort, so I decided to give it a good trial. I seemed to be a little worse at the start and didn't see much change in the first month, but after that, quickly got better. I really feel great now and whereas I couldn't get in or out of a car before, I now climb on a tractor and help with the laying. O-JIB-WA BITTERS seemed to have completely reconditioned me as I no longer catch colds easily and have lots of pep. O-JIB-WA BITTERS worked such wonders with me that I can hardly believe that I'm the same person. I sure recommend it highly, and urge all who suffer as I did, not to delay in trying O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I believe that it is the best medicine made for rheumatism and arthritis.

Police Spy Pellet Holes on Car After Holdup, Arrest Group

Four Detroit youths, charged with the unarmed robbery of a Ferndale gas station early Sunday waived examination and were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court for arraignment March 15 by Ferndale Judge Earl N. Nash.

The four men, Arthur Marginet, 19, 23190 Stewart; Keith Delong, 18, of 2235 Hayes; Arthur Benoit, 18, of 22119 Brittany; and Arthur H. Gase, 20, of 14875 Linnhurst; are being held in Oakland County Jail under $2,500 bond each.

Ferndale Police Capt. Clifford E. Fritz said the four are accused of taking $64 from a gas station at 503 E. Eight Mile, while holding attendant William Harris, of 2344 John R. at bay with imaginary guns in their pockets.

As the youths fled, Harris fired a shotgun twice at their car. Police later found about 40 pellets in one side of the auto.

3rd Gas Victim Found in Flint

Neighbor Investigates, Finds Body of Man Lying in Bed

FLINT — Suspicious neighbors Monday found a third gas victim in his home, barely two miles from another home where two victims had been found earlier.

The latest victim, police said, was Stephen Filipansk, 37, who had been dead apparently for three days when he was discovered. He lived alone, separated from his wife and four children.

Mrs. Ruth Sutfel, a neighbor, said she became suspicious when papers piled up on Filipansk's porch, and she did not see him for several days.

Mrs. Sutfel said she investigated and found Filipansk's body in his bed. She said a surface gas burner on a kitchen stove was burning and gas was seeping from the oven.

Earlier police found the bodies of Roy Jagers, 56, and a woman identified as his wife, Delores A. Hardy, 21, in their gas-filled home. Police were called by a neighbor who became suspicious over the lack of activity at the Jagers home.

3 Plead Guilty to $1,000 Theft

Youths Face Sentencing March 22 for Breakin at Pontiac Country Club

Three youths pleaded guilty Monday before Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland to the Feb. 17 breakin of the Pontiac Country Club in which $1,000 worth of golf equipment and clothing was taken.

They will be sentenced March 22. Bernard F. Roach, 17, of 5656 W. Maple, Birmingham, and Harry A. Brown Jr., 17, of 6960 Beaufort, Walled Lake, were released on $1,000 bond. Donald V. Kleier, 18, of Detroit, was returned to Oakland County Jail when unable to post bond.

The three were arrested with three juveniles Feb. 24 by West Bloomfield Township police and Michigan State troopers of the Pontiac and Redford posts after two of the boys were caught returning to a shack where the loot was cached.

A stake-out had been placed at the shack at 15 Mile and Orchard Lake Rds. after a policeman found the loot during a routine check.

The boys were also implicated in 16 other Oakland County break-ins during February, police said.

Four Get Probation for Market Burglary

Three Drayton Plains youths and a Pontiac companion, all 17 years old, were placed on three years probation by circuit Judge H. Russell Holland Monday on a charge of breaking and entering in the nighttime.

They are Marvin Cooper, of 2591 Helen Dr., Chris Hicks, 3040 Deland St., Richard Riley, of 2921 Marietta, and Harvey Cooper, of 2900 Deland. The Cooper boys are cousins.

Ike Tries to Halt
Luxury Tax Cut

House Passage Likely,
so Administration Aims
at Senate

WASHINGTON (U)—Some key Republicans said today the Eisenhower administration faces probable defeat in trying to stave off a wide range of excise tax cuts. A bill to reduce many of these "nuisance" taxes comes up in the House tomorrow, with leadership backing and with no organized opposition in sight there or in the Senate.

President Eisenhower evidently conceded defeat in the House when he conferred yesterday with GOP congressional leaders.

Leaders said the administration would not oppose House passage of the bill to slash about $30 million dollars a year off taxes on movie tickets, furs, passenger fares, telephone bills, cosmetics, luggage, handbags and wallets, jewelry, cameras, sporting goods and other items.

But they announced, after the White House conference, that the administration would fight to knock out some of these reductions when the bill hits the Senate. The administration position is that the government cannot afford to lose the revenue.

The bill would slice to 10 per cent all excise or sales taxes now above that level, except those on liquor and tobacco, effective April 1.

The proposal also would cancel about one billion dollars in reductions now scheduled for April 1 in excise taxes on liquor, cigarettes, automobiles, gasoline, trucks and buses, beer and wine. Eisenhower has urged this cancellation.

Two members of the Senate Finance Committee said in separate interviews that when the bill reaches there, they are inclined to go along with the cuts despite administration opposition.

Sen. Bennett (R-Utah) said the bill seems to offer an "equitable solution" to the excise tax problem. He noted there are demands to eliminate entirely many of the taxes.

Sen. Malone (R-Nev) said he, too, was inclined to go along with the proposed cuts.

Sen. Martin (R-Pa), however, said balancing the federal budget is the "overriding issue" and he would oppose the tax cuts unless they are balanced with new spending cuts.

INDIANAPOLIS (U)—A liquor store operator, who said he was tired of being held up, shot it out with a gunman late last night and fatally wounded the bandit.

Ray Terry, 62, told policeman Edward Marcum that a man identified as Milton Earl Garvin, 30, announced: "This is a stickup. Give it to me."

"I did," said Terry. Garvin was hit four times and died en route to a hospital. Terry said Garvin fired once at him.

He said he had been held up twice in the last six months.

No Idle Boasting

JACKSON, Miss. (UP)—A crop-dusting pilot, Wayne Brown of Stephenville, Tex., was released from a hospital here a week after his article, "I Fly With Death," appeared in a national magazine. Brown was treated for a broken leg. He also lost several teeth in the crash of his plane in a 40-acre Mississippi Delta cotton field.

EAST WESTMORELAND, N. H. (U)—A galloping horse smashed through the windshield, into the back seat, and ended up on the

"We ducked," they said. The horse was killed.

Child Clinic Discussed by Director

Mrs. Paul Gorman Renamed President for Coming Year

The slate of officers for the coming year was presented Monday when Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs met at the YWCA. Mrs. Paul Gorman was re-elected president, with Mrs. Forrest Brown as first vice president, Mrs. S. V. Seides, second vice president, and Mrs. Myrtle Hillerman, recording secretary.

Other officers are Mrs. Robert Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dale Motts, treasurer; Mrs. Meyer Simon, auditor; Mrs. C. W. Mossey, parliamentarian, and Mrs. J. J. Panter, parliamentarian emeritus.

Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. Grant Helwig, Mrs. Charles Crawford, Mrs. Milton Evans, Mrs. W. H. Ragdale and Mrs. Charles Ulgian.

Mrs. William McClure introduced Madeline Hall, executive director of Child Guidance Clinic, who explained that the clinic is a service for children with emotional disturbances.

Before a clinic is put into operation, educational work must be done in the area, she added. One feeds vitamins to a child who is physically ill, and a child who is emotionally disturbed also needs a "diet" supplement, she remarked.

The three steps in child guidance therapy are: First, one must realize all behavior is purposeful; secondly, there are modifications of human behavior, and third, there are modifications of emotional behavior.

If a child who is emotionally disturbed is not cared for properly, he may suffer a nervous mental breakdown in later life, she said.

Michigan boasts an outstanding program with 14 permanent child guidance clinics, she pointed out. However, she made it clear that a children's hospital for those with emotional problems is very necessary. She said there are 35 children at Pontiac State Hospital, which lacks facilities to house them.

May 5 was announced as the date for the annual card party. Proceeds this year will benefit Oakland County Society for Crippled Children.

May 12 is the date for the annual federation dinner, with Mrs. Adolph Magnus, Mrs. Richard Moore and Mrs. Harry Higgins in charge.

Hostesses for the afternoon were members of Jimmy Dey Post 12 Amvets Auxiliary, Mrs. Fred Olson, Mrs. Leland Hunt, Mrs. Arthur Torrey and Mrs. Roy Williams. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Gorman presided at the refreshment table.

500 Vocalists Attend Festival

Junior High Songfest Held

By PATRICIA A. WOOD
Some 500 vocal music students from seven schools joined voices this morning in Oakland County's first junior high school music festival.

Pontiac High School was host to the songfest, with George H. Putnam, director of instrumental music, leading singing of the two combined chorus numbers.

"The festival showed these youngsters what others are doing in music and gave them the thrill of singing in a big group," Putnam said. "Each group sang two numbers alone — and our two critics told each group how to improve its performance."

The critics were Prof. Haydn Morgan of Michigan State Normal College and Miss Eleanor Benink of Wyandotte's Roosevelt High School.

Eastern, Lincoln and Wever Junior High Schools sent their Girls Glee Clubs, with Lincoln and Wever also sending mixed choruses and Eastern, the Boys Glee club.

Other Girls Glee Clubs came from Barons Junior High in Birmingham, which sent its mixed chorus as well; Burton Junior High, Huntington Woods, and Rochester Junior High School. Bloomfield Hills Junior High sent its mixed chorus.

Festival committeemen, who hope to make the program an annual affair, are William Coffing of Wever; Connie Kolb, Eastern, and Majel Brezette, Barons.

The Saturday style show has been postponed.

Social Action Discussed

A panel discussion on "Social Education and Action" highlighted the Friday afternoon meeting of the Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Bradley Scott, social education and action chairman, introduced the panel.

Participating in the panel were the Rev. Edward D. Auchard, moderator; Mrs. Ann L. Drury, Mrs. W. J. Baumgartner, Mrs. Orley Hill and Mrs. Allan H. Monroe.

The Rev. Mr. Auchard said social action is as old as the New Testament. "We are learning," he said, "that Christianity has something to say about group relations."

Mrs. Drury summarized family service work done in the community by organized groups. She added, "As a church we think that the message of durability, security and peace is presented only through the church."

Alcoholics Anonymous was discussed by Mrs. Baumgartner, who urged all to have a sympathetic understanding of the alcoholic's problem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coin of Baldwin Road are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Marlene, to David W. Bess. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Bess of Drayton Plains. A June wedding is planned by the couple.

2 Speakers Are Heard by GM Girls

Mrs. Mildred Bennett, executive secretary of the Oakland County American Red Cross, and Mrs. Gertrude Barrett, policewoman from the Oakland County Sheriff's Dept., were guest speakers at the Monday dinner meeting of the General Motors Girls Club held in Hotel Pontiac.

Mrs. Bennett gave a resume of her duties for the Red Cross disaster service. She suggested that a corps be formed and trained in this work for service in future emergencies.

Precision and specialty numbers were presented by dancing students, with a special baton twirling demonstration given by Marilyn McClain.

At the business meeting which followed the entertainment, plans were made for a style show to be presented March 31 in Hotel Pontiac. Arrangements were also made for a trip to Washington, D. C., in April.

The group decided to purchase a scroll saw to be used for occupational therapy at the Oakland County Infirmary.

She Finds It Easy to Sell Houses Because She Wants One of Her Own

Can't Afford Meals, Fees for Friends

Pair Likes to Take Others Riding but Can't Pay Extras

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter tells me: "We like to share our car by taking friends with us to places that they would not otherwise get to."

"However, we are not financially able to buy meals for them and pay admission to places that require this, as we do this rather frequently and very often there is more than one person with us. Is it proper to invite them and not pay for these things?"

Answer: Under your circumstances, of which your friends must be aware, your furnishing the car would be considered your full share and your guests should, in fairness, offer to pay their own admissions. But if they don't, then you would find yourself obliged to do so.

The meal expense is easily avoided by going out between meal hours and not taking time to stop for anything to eat. I think if you frankly explained the limit of your hospitality, they will be satisfied with the motor trip.

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married soon and the question has come up as to the correct wording for my wedding invitations. My fiancé insists that his parents' names should be included along with mine and says that his family will be very much hurt if they are omitted. Is it ever proper to include both sets of parents on the invitations?

Answer: In some European countries it is the custom to include the names of the bridegroom's parents as well as those of the bride, but in America, the bride's parents alone send the wedding invitations and his parents are their principal guests.

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please be good enough to tell me the correct pronunciation of the word canape? A friend and I are having a heated argument over this and need you to settle it.

Answer: It is pronounced "can," "a" (as in back), "pe" like "pay."

Proper Fitting Important in Buying Glasses

The importance of proper eye care has been recognized for centuries by the optical industry.

Almost 500 years ago, for example, spectacle makers in France formed a guild to protect the interests of eyewear craftsmen and their customers.

A similar guild, the Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers, was chartered in England in 1627. Members were forbidden to sell either spectacle frames or lenses alone, to insure proper fitting by eyewear specialists.

Proper fitting is a must with optometrists and opticians today as eyewear is many times more complex than it was in the days of the Worshipful Company.

After being precision-ground and sized according to prescription, individual lenses are fitted to the frames and adjusted to the wearer's face to insure maximum comfort and visual aid.

The fitter also considers eyewear as a beauty aid and helps select frames which will go best with the face type and coloring.

The wool dress, an outstanding fashion this spring, is shown here in three versions: Jacket dress, bolero dress and princess silhouette. Nettie Rosenstein's precisely-tailored jacket dress (left) is in lightweight wool worsted with miniature checks in gray and white. There's a cut-away waist to fit smoothly and slender dress with halter neckline beneath.

Jet black featherweight wool is cut by this same designer into a dress with cap sleeves and shallow V-neckline topped (center) by curving bolero. Princess dress with empire influence (right) is by Claire McCardell in avocado green featherweight wool. Skirt has soft fullness achieved by all-around goring. Short sleeves are crescent-shaped.

Too Much Expected of Distant Lad

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I can't figure him out—he's driving me crazy! He lives 50 miles from me and I see him through a girl friend of mine who is his cousin."

"He has invited me to parties at which we've had a good time. He even took me out on a date, which surprised me because he had to take a train and a bus to get here."

"That was all fine. But it was a month before I saw him again at another party my girl friend gave. And that was over a month ago. And still I didn't hear from him."

"I don't know what to expect. He's 16 and I'm nearly 15 and he lives so far away—do I expect too much of him? Do you really think he cares, and I should sit and wait?"

Put yourself in his shoes for a minute. He has a cousin who lives 50 miles away from his home. When she has parties she invites him over and he probably stays overnight or spends the weekend at her house.

At one of those parties of hers he met some friends of hers and you were the one who appealed to him most. You had a fine time together. You were together at several more of these parties. Each time was fun.

Once he made the long trek over to see you all on his own accord and it was quite an expensive operation. When he thinks of his cousin, he thinks of you. When he thinks of you, he thinks of his cousin. You're part of her picture. You're too far away to be an every-day part of his own.

You like him very much and you wish he'd call you and come over to see you and act like a real boy friend. Which is expecting a lot—too much, in fact.

You may be his big reason for putting up with his cousin. But that's not quite enough to make you sit and wait and miss out on fun with other boys!

"Dear Miss Woodward: A friend introduced this boy to me early in December and since then he has been seeing me often except for the last three weeks."

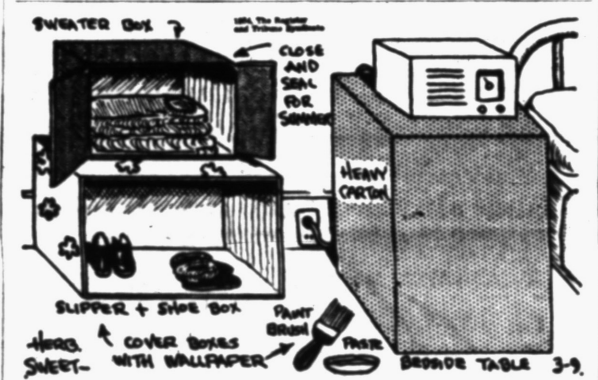

"On Monday of each of these weeks he has called me up, otherwise he only smiles at me in school. When he is with friends he pays no attention to me."

"Although he tells my friends he likes me, he makes no attempt to wait for me after school as he used to. I still like him and would like his opinion on the matter, please."

I detect a certain reserve, a holding back on your part, as though responsiveness were in your opinion a bit unbecoming. You say he's been seeing you, calling you, paying a lot or a little attention, waiting for you or not waiting for you.

He's done all the work so far in getting this friendship going. And he may be tired and discouraged at this point. A girl has to return interest, pay some attention of her own, take the initiative in her own hands now and then.

She can't just sit back and receive favors forever. All giving and no getting is too much to expect of any boy.

Try It Cartons Keep Room Neat

Congratulations to Mrs. Carl Wetzel of Columbus, Ohio. Her original Try It drawing is on its way for this good space-saver idea. This is the time of the year when Mother starts housecleaning and begins to give your room that "I give up" look. We all know that you want to keep your room in order, but when you are interested in collecting so many things it is hard to find a place to keep all of them.

I hope that today's idea will come in handy. Take Try It in and talk over this plan with Mother. You will need two heavy cartons, one smaller than the other to set on top. I believe that you can find these cartons at most stores, and they will be happy to give them to you.

Set the bottom one on the floor and turn the top, open part so that it faces the wall or your bed. Use it to store things which you seldom use but don't want to discard. Paper it with matching or contrasting wallpaper.

Wallpaper the top carton and set it on top of the large one, and leave the opened side facing your room if you want to store attractive things in it. You can use the strong storage cartons for tables, too.

High rounded bosom, low rounded hips, equally becoming slim and full skirts.

Miss A. F. — Pleasingly plump contours should be flattered by the new romantically full skirts or the poured-in shapeliness of the handsome knit dress. Open necklines to reveal your unusually lovely chest.

Just a stroke of an iron—apple blossoms in luscious bud-pink and garden-green flower on linens! No embroidery—no sewing—no applique! Beautiful guest towels, tablecloths, dresser sets, aprons, curtains. Spring is here—keep it all year with these gay colors.

Iron on! Jiffy! Washable! Pattern 683 has 12 color transfers, two, 5½x4½; two 8x2; eight, about 2½x3 to 1½x2½ inches.

Holidays Keep Children Happy

RALEIGH, N. C. (INS) — Busy parents who want to give their children a "happy feeling inside" must never become so rushed they overlook holidays and birthdays.

That is the observation of Corinne Justice, Raleigh family relations specialist, who said:

"Knowing there will always be some kind of celebration in the family on birthdays and holidays gives children a happy feeling inside."

"Perhaps birthdays mean a birthday cake, a party or giving a small gift."

Let the youngsters plan some of the decorations for these occasions. Miss Justice suggested. That will help them to build fond memories of childhood to last a lifetime.

Rinse Thoroughly

It's old-fashioned to insist that clothes stay whiter or "smell sweeter" when dried out-of-doors. It isn't sunshine that whitens clothes; it's through rinsing. And most dryers have ozone lamps inside to make sure your clothes will smell sweet.

Sincere Salesmanship Earns Home

By ANNE HEYWOOD

From the day they were first married, Harry and Jean had longed for a home of their own.

"Most young couples do, I suppose," Jean said, "but not as much as we did. You see, both of us had unhappy childhoods, with parents that moved from place to place, from apartment to rented house."

"So for us, the desire to have permanent roots, a home of our own, was overwhelming. But for years it looked as though we'd never achieve it."

First, it was Harry's career. To get ahead in his company, he had to go to college at night, and that took money. Then it was the baby, little Jean.

After that, big Jean had to have a serious operation. On top of the expense, there was the sadness of knowing they could not have any more children.

"For a while," Jean told me, "I just dragged along, hating the rented house in the suburbs more and more."

"Little Jean was fun, of course, but every penny Harry made went just to keep up with current expenses. I began to think I'd never have a home of my own."

Little by little, it became an obsession with Jean. She used to put the baby beside her and drive around looking at houses.

"My mouth would just water," she told me, "then one day, I got a good idea. I have about three hours to myself every day, now that Jean is in nursery school, and I decided that I could sell houses to other people—there were quite a few real estate brokers in town, and I'm enthusiastic enough about houses to sell them like nothing at all.

"I approached several brokers and finally found one who would let me work for her on a commission basis. I had to study for my exams in order to get a license, but it wasn't very difficult."

"From the very beginning, I was successful. After all, I didn't have to put on an act. I honestly believe that everybody should own his own home, and I guess my enthusiasm just rubbed off on the customers."

That was two years ago. Jean has now made enough in commissions, on her part time real estate job, to be able to buy a house of her own.

"It'll be small and not too expensive," she told me, drowsily, "but it'll be all our own!"

"It just goes to show you that the best way to make money is to sell things that you yourself wish you owned!"

Spring change of scene is brought about in this home by replacing a picture with an old Ironstone plate hung on the wall in an inexpensive wire frame. A white candelabrum and pink-flowered china add to the change.

Use Science to Make Life Pleasanter

By HUBBARD COBB

Some people say that this is the Age of Science and other people say that the Age of Science hasn't come yet.

We won't argue the point but we do know that there is a lot of scientific stuff kicking about and a lot of it can do the average homeowner a lot of good if he takes advantage of it.

Take this business of testing your lawn or garden soil, for example. You can pour all sorts of miscellaneous dirt foods on your garden in the hope they will make a flower grow, but the smart homeowner has his soil tested first to see exactly what sort of food it needs and then just buys what is required.

He saves time, money and gets a first-rate lawn and garden for his troubles.

When the smart homeowner needs a new hot water tank or new plumbing pipes he just doesn't slap in the first thing that comes to his mind, but he first has his local water supply tested to see exactly what sort of metal will set along best with it and then selects his equipment on this basis.

He may find that he needs water softening or filtering equipment to insure good service from the pipes and heater.

During the winter months a lot of homes have unpleasant odors due to the heating system.

Some people put up with this year after year but some call in a serviceman who takes a sample of the air from the house to see what the heating system is adding to the air that it shouldn't.

Once he knows this fact he can go to work and make the necessary adjustments on the heater and chimney to remove these items from the house air.

Audubon Drew His Birds 150 Years Ago in 1804

WASHINGTON — America's millions of bird lovers celebrate a special anniversary this spring, remembering that 150 years ago artist-naturalist John James Audubon studied and sketched his first American birds.

They were pewees, small olive-green birds that beat the robins north to the young Audubon's new home on a farm in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, the National Geographic Society says.

Early in 1804, at 18, the Haitian-born son of a French naval officer arrived from France to live on his father's Mill Grove property near Norristown. He lost little time in exploring the natural wonders close at hand.

Prowling a cave along Perkioming Creek, the naturalist happened upon a mud and moss nest attached to the entrance. Snow still mantled the ground, and the air was chill. The pewees had not yet arrived. But shortly they came, and with them Audubon's intense delight in the birds of America.

The young man soon found another interest close at hand that also was to influence his entire career. While paying a visit to a neighbor, he met Lucy Bakewell, a girl of 15.

Later she became Mrs. Audubon, and although she realized that "I have a rival in every bird," she shared the many ups and downs in her husband's fortunes.

The old stone manor house, of Mill Grove and 122 acres were acquired by Montgomery County in 1951, the centennial of Audubon's death, and were opened to the public last year.

The house has been decorated with engravings from Audubon's famous folio, "Birds of America." The grounds, equipped with picnic facilities, retain much of the wild charm the artist-naturalist knew.

Mill Grove once was filled with birds and animals the young ornithologist had stuffed. There he devised his ingenious method of wiring specimens into life-like positions so that he could draw them accurately.

In the cave beside Perkioming Creek he conducted the first bird banding experiment in America, fastening silver wires around the young birds' legs.

Audubon's life at Mill Grove scarcely carried out his father's intentions—a profitable business career. Nor did the young man show any interest in a lead mine on the property that furnished bullets for Revolutionary soldiers.

It was a carefree time for Audubon, the young lord of the manor. He once remarked that "not a ball, a skating match, a house or riding party took place without me."

But Audubon—strong, athletic, expert marksman, rider and dog trainer—also roamed the countryside with his drawing pencils and fowling piece, strengthening his ambition to be a naturalist.

It was in the field that he conceived his life work: a monumental folio of America's birds.

City Enters Contest for Pedestrian Safety

The American Automobile Assn., sponsors of the National Pedestrian Protection contest, will judge Pontiac's 1933 pedestrian safety program, according to Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

A contest report form, concerning accident records, legislation, enforcement, engineering, organization, school safety and public information, all directed toward the pedestrian, has been completed and mailed to the AAA, Straley said.

Pontiac will be judged with other U. S. cities of similar size and population. A national board of judges will announce winners of the contest in the near future, he added.

Some of South Africa's gold mines are 9,000 feet deep.

FROST-FINISHED

Greatest Development in Brewing Since Repeal!

NOW GOEBEL IS

FROST-FINISHED

Developed in Goebel's great research laboratories

It's here! Frost-Finishing—an ingenious Goebel brewing process, so entirely new in concept it's called the greatest development in brewing since repeal.

Frost-Finishing was perfected by Goebel scientists to satisfy the American taste for a light beer, that's low in sugar and starch, yet still retains a rare full flavor.

Frost-Finishing is actually two additional steps in the brewing process. During these steps the temperature of the beer is quickly dropped close to the freezing point. This takes excess sugars and starches out and gives the beer a finer flavor.

West Germans Drafting Civil Defense Program

BONN, Germany (U)—An official source said today the West German Interior Ministry has drafted a detailed plan for the nation's first civil defense program since World War II. It is to be submitted soon to Parliament with a request for a special appropriation to cover its cost, the source said.

ATHENS, Greece (U)—The Ionian Islands and western Greece were rocked by earth shocks yesterday, followed by torrential rains which later turned to snow.

Finnish Premier Asks Coalition

Kekkonen Wants Union of Country's 2 Leading Parties

HELSINKI, Finland (U)—Ex-Premier Urho Kekkonen, head of four postwar Finnish governments, bid today for a revival of the Socialist-Agrarian governing coalition following weekend elections from which the two parties again emerged as the largest factions in the nation's Parliament.

There was no immediate public reaction from the Socialists but observers doubted the two parties could get together soon because of the bitter election campaign each had waged against the other.

Neither party came near winning a majority of the single chamber's 200 seats. They will be allotted in several days on a system of proportional representation but almost complete return indicated the Social Democrats (Socialists) would get 54, a gain of one, and Kekkonen's Agrarian Union 53, a gain of two.

The Communist People's Democrats again appeared to have won 43 seats—no change—to hold their place as Finland's third-ranking party.

The Socialists broke with Kekkonen last fall over his austerity program designed to cut high production costs in the nation's two chief export industries, timber and metalworking. Their failure to hold their own on the world market has produced an economic slump.

Since Kekkonen's resignation, Premier Sakkari Tuomioja has headed a caretaker regime.

Kekkonen today said the "restoration and maintenance of political and economic stability remains a joint job for the Agrarians and Social Democrats." He added his party is "ready to discuss a joint government and I don't doubt that we could through compromise work out a common program."

Testimony Can't Be Used Against Probe Witnesses

WASHINGTON (U)—The Supreme Court says testimony given by a witness before congressional committees may not be used against him in state or federal courts.

This immunity applies, the high tribunal declared in a unanimous decision yesterday, even though the witness may have failed to claim his constitutional privilege against self-incrimination.

Pontiac City to Spend $15,000 on Improving Parks

CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION—Nancy McGowan, a 16-year-old Houston, Tex., lass, was so proud of Velvet's (the cocker spaniel) achievement, she borrowed a page from her father's book and passed out cigars. Nancy gifted all and sundry with the finest bubble gum cigars that money could buy when the pooch produced a three-pup litter recently. Velvet looks rather bored as the proud owner "smokes" one of the stogies.

Jimmy Facing Hard Campaign

Roosevelt Gets Promise of 'Hammer and Tongs' Battle for Nomination

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A "hammer and tongs" battle is promised James Roosevelt in the race for the Democratic nomination for congressman from California's 26th District.

Ned Redding, 48, a community newspaper publisher and announced Democratic candidate, declared yesterday:

"The fight he (Roosevelt) has asked for I will give him in a hammer and tongs manner."

Roosevelt surprised many political observers by winning the endorsement Sunday of the 26th District Democratic Council. Redding had asked that his name not be considered by the council because he did not consider the group representative.

District convention endorsement is a new procedure for the Democrats, who heretofore have waited for the results of the primary election. The primary will be June 8.

Further party opposition to Roosevelt, recently accused by his estranged wife of adultery, was expressed yesterday by Henry I. Dockweiler, former treasurer of the Democratic State Central Committee, who was a leader of the "Democrats for Eisenhower" forces in 1952.

Opposition also came from Councilman Harold Harby, a Democrat who has lived in the 26th Congressional District 30 years. He declared:

"I cannot help but express amazement at the audacity of the tall, bold son of a famous father in arranging for and securing the endorsement as a Democratic candidate in the high office of the United States Congress."

W. J. Bassett, secretary of the American Federation of Labor Los Angeles Central Labor Council, said his organization has not yet made any endorsements but, in his opinion, "would not support Jimmy Roosevelt."

After his endorsement by the district Democratic council Roosevelt said he had to make one of two choices, either to retire from public life and acknowledge "evidence of guilt and lack of courage," or "to come before the people and get elected to Congress and make a record which forever would be an answer to any smear the opposition might make."

A SIGN OF SPRING—Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department crews are busy reading picnic tables, stoves, swings and other playground equipment for use this spring and summer. An expanded program is planned in local parks for 1954, according to David R. Ewalt, Parks and Recreation director. Shown working here are Anthony Latozas, of 199 Fisher Ave. (left), and Tom James, of 41 Monterey Blvd.

Crews Working on Equipment

Shuffleboard Courts, Tables, Stoves, Slides to Be Added

About $15,000 will be spent during 1954 to continue a long-range program of improvements in the City's parks, according to Pontiac Parks and Recreation Director David R. Ewalt.

Parks will be open about May 15 this year depending on weather conditions, Ewalt said. Crews are now busy preparing equipment, he added.

Improvements cited by Ewalt as planned for this year included:

At Malkin School $5,000 was spent in 1953 for leveling a 25-acre area in preparation for planting grass. The plan is to develop the Malkin area into a park for opening in 1955 or 1956.

At Beaudette Park more playground equipment, picnic tables and stoves will be added and a new 300-car parking lot opened in the south end.

Also at Beaudette, new road barriers will be constructed on all roads and parking lots. A fence will be built in the outfield of the softball diamond.

At Oakland Park new cement walks and road barriers are planned, more stoves and playground material will be added.

Orlando Field will receive more playground facilities and a new 150-car parking lot will open.

Construction of two shuffleboard courts is planned at Indian Village Park and more swings and slides may be added.

At Murphy Park four shuffleboard and four horse-shoe courts will be built and lighted. Additional lights will be stationed throughout the park.

The Murphy winter sports area will see construction of a toboggan slide and a base for an ice rink for use next winter.

The Beaudette and Northside softball diamonds have received a face lifting and will be treated with dust preventative.

In cooperation with the Pontiac Board of Education, Parks and Recreation crews dumped 500 yards of top soil on the Warner baseball field last year. It will be treated against dust and additional grass planted.

The addition of four maintenance men and new power equipment should improve park care during the summer months, said Ewalt.

"We hope to ready more land area in the parks for recreational use," Ewalt stated.

Commission to Get Bids for New Library

A second set of bids for construction of the proposed branch library at Glenwood Ave. and Rundle St., are scheduled for consideration tonight by the City Commission.

Bids were taken in November, but rejected as too high by commissioners.

City Manager Walter K. Willman has said the architect's estimated cost for the structure is $60,000. The lowest bid received in November was $71,824.

Some $48,000 was set aside through 1953 for the branch and the rest of the cost will come from this year's budget, Willman said.

Willman is expected to report tonight on a Michigan House of Representatives bill providing for a water source and drainage survey to include this area.

A resolution is slated approving the form of ballots for the proposed hospital expansion bond issue to be voted on April 5.

A letter is expected from the Housing and Home Finance Agency regarding a six-month extension of time asked by commissioners for persons being evicted from the Crystal Beach and Parkview federal wartime housing projects.

The present schedule requires families to be moved by July 1 this year.

School Board Agenda Heavy

Pontiac Will Consider Budget of $4,586,000 for Next Year

Pontiac Board of Education Wednesday will consider a tentative budget of $4,586,361.21 to run Pontiac Public Schools next year.

The board will tackle one of its heaviest agendas this year at Wednesday's meeting at 7:30 p.m. in school offices, 40 Patterson St.

Teachers, principals and school maintenance men are expected to send delegates in to ask for pay raises.

Contracts for three school additions—four classrooms at Bagley, two at Whittier and one at Malkin—will be awarded.

The board will also discuss renewing fire insurance on school buildings, a schedule of holidays and school days for the 1954-55 school year, and several other matters.

The tentative budget that school officials plan to present for board approval Wednesday is some $150,000 higher than this year's.

Hiring more teachers to handle rising enrollment accounts for a big part of the increase. The present school year ends June 30, 1954.

St. Louis to Try Out Parallel Parking Plan

ST. LOUIS, Mich. (AP)—Parallel parking and parking meters will get a six month trial in St. Louis.

The city council ordered areas marked off for the trial a half block in each direction from the business district and one block on U.S. 27-M-46.

Moran, Now in Prison, Decides to Talk

ALBANY, N. Y. (INS)—James J. Moran, a top aid of onetime New York Mayor William O'Dwyer, reportedly has offered to "tell all" he knows about political ties with the underworld in order to obtain a reduction in his jail sentence.

Moran, a former New York City deputy fire commissioner convicted of extortion, has filed a 7-page handwritten brief with the state's highest court in an apparent attempt to win his freedom by pointing the finger at other crooked politicians.

The court is scheduled to give its decision on Moran's appeal on Thursday. It was understood that the prosecutor's office had filed no reply to Moran's motion.

The brief was filed on Feb. 19 in Albany but its existence was not disclosed until yesterday, when Manhattan District Attorney Frank S. Hogan said he had received a copy from Moran.

Moran is serving a 12½-to-25-year sentence in Green Haven State Prison. He was sentenced in March 1952, for extorting $1,500,000 in three years from fuel oil burner installers.

In jailing Moran, Judge John A. Mullen said that if Moran decided to talk before the first two years of his sentence were up he would receive consideration for a shortened term. The two years end at midnight this Friday.

Neither Hogan nor the members of the Court of Appeals would reveal any of the contents of Moran's long letter.

But it was reported that he pointed an accusing finger at many of the men who had been associated with the O'Dwyer city administration.

At the time of Moran's sentencing, there were rumors that he was "taking the rap" for other officials implicated in the fuel oil burner shakedown.

Judge Mullen purposely arranged to have Moran serve a one-to-two year term first, in order to give him the opportunity of talking and getting a sentence reduction.

A group of fuel oil inspectors in the city fire department began the racket in 1947 which led to Moran's conviction. He was charged with taking over and organizing the shakedown of installers seeking permits.

Plans in Motion to Improve Capitol Area

It's only in the dream stage at present, but plans are underway to reclaim the blighted areas of the nation's capital.

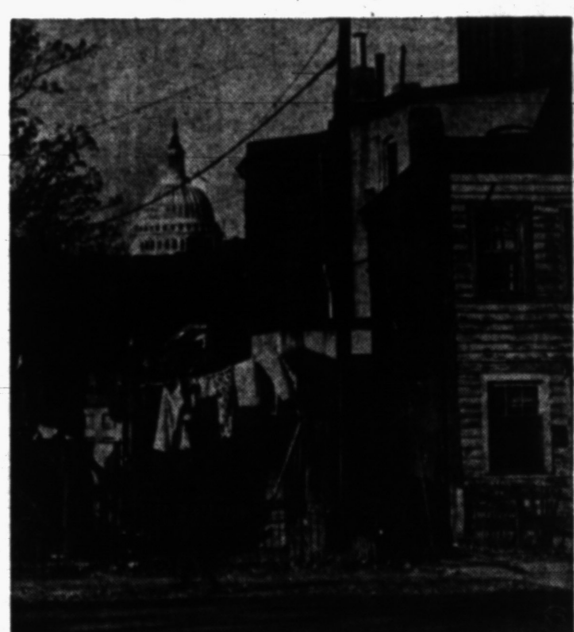

A model of the proposed development, pictured below, shows how the southeast area would be transformed and made one of the most attractive sections in Washington.

Perhaps the largest item in the planned reclamation would be the housing for families now living in the slums.

At present, the plan calls for substantial amounts of housing which would be sold at a wide range of prices, and there would be an equally wide range of rental accommodations.

An opera house, music hall, convention hall, theaters, skating rink and underground parking lot would complete the renovation.

Each residential area would have playgrounds, a shopping area and other facilities. The overall cost is expected to top $450,000,000.

Subpoenas Served on 111 Puerto Ricans

NEW YORK (AP)—Subpoenas were served on 111 Puerto Ricans here and in Chicago yesterday in a sudden move connected with the shooting of five congressmen in Washington last week.

The swift drive was the largest peacetime serving of federal witnesses in connection with a single conspiracy.

Mrs. Rosa Collazo, wife of a would-be assassin of former President Harry S. Truman, was among the 91 persons subpoenaed here. Her husband is now serving a life sentence.

All four persons arrested in the Washington shootings admitted membership in the fanatic Nationalist party of Puerto Rico.

The witnesses here will be questioned by three grand juries investigating the local activities of the party.

The Chicago witnesses will be questioned in connection with laws governing conspiracy to overthrow the government by force.

benefits a future breadwinner. Susette, left, apparently would like to grab the pencil. Babette could be wondering: "Does all this still leave room in the budget for my Easter outfit?"

All Envy West Germany

By WILLIAM HOWELL WELLS

William Howell Wells is a contributor to Harper's and other magazines. He has served on the staffs of book publishers and of the United Nations.

before we start worrying ourselves into a national depression over the fear that cutbacks in military production spell the end of American prosperity we might take a good look at country—a big, modern, production spell the end of American prosperity, we might take a good look at a country—a big, modern, Eight years ago West Germany lay totally defeated and battered to pieces by Allied bombing. Today it has become the most prosperous nation in Europe.

Meanwhile East Germany, under Russian control, has become steadily poorer. There are many minor reasons for this contrast, but only one major one. East Germany is compelled to produce for war. West Germany is forbidden to do so.

West Germany's neighbors: France, Italy, the Low Countries, Scandinavia and Britain are deeply involved in producing armaments and maintaining armies. West Germany, at present is not.

The results are extraordinary. While Britain and France, for instance, are deeply in debt to the central trade bank, the European Payments Union, West Germany has a credit—a surplus—worth 750 million dollars, owed by the other countries of Europe for West Germany goods they have bought.

In addition to this, West Germany has also built up its reserves in gold and U. S. dollars to more than a billion dollars.

No German steel goes into guns or tanks or warships; no taxes go into paying for defense; no men are taken out of mines, shops and factories, or off the farms, to serve in the armed forces.

Scientists are able to devote their energies to productive research instead of weapons. Everything is turned out for use; nothing for destruction. In the midst of a world crushed under armaments West Germany stands as an unarmed island in spite of itself—the envy of all Europe today.

Unfortunately, as far as West Germany is concerned, the prosperity cannot last because it rests on a false foundation. That foundation is composed of the taxes and arms and men supplied by other nations, especially the United States, in defense of Germany against the imminent threat of the Soviet Union which has already swallowed East Germany.

Orioles Impressive in 'Grapefruit' Action

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Baltimore Orioles, major league baseball's newest babies, aren't behaving a bit like the St. Louis Browns, and they're making Manager Jimmy Dykes' prediction—"We're gonna surprise a lot of people"—look mighty good.

With 17 players left over from the hapless Browns, a flock of minor league hopefuls and some "rehabilitation" cases obtained from the Philadelphia Athletics, the Orioles are tearing into grapefruit league pitching so far.

Yesterday, they picked up their third straight victory of the spring by thumping four New York Giant pitchers for 18 hits and a 13-8 triumph.

Meanwhile Eddie Joost's Athletics weren't doing too badly either. They scored their second straight exhibition triumph, downing the Milwaukee Braves 6-4. The veteran

Alex Kellner and first-year man Courtney Stemple held the Braves to one hit in the first six innings and catcher Jim Robertson delivered the big blow, a bases-clearing double in the eighth inning.

At Fort Pierce, Fla., rookie third baseman George Freese drove out a homer and a double, good for four runs batted in, as the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Detroit Tigers 7-3. Dale Coogan, a service returnee, delivered a two-run triple for the Bucs.

The Cleveland Indians increased their run-scoring total to 47 for three games by walloping the Cubs 15-9. Rudy Regalado, a second baseman still on the Tribe's Indianapolis roster, connected for two home runs in Cleveland's 18-hit attack. Regalado has made nine hits in 16 times at bat this spring.

Third baseman Willie Jones' line double in the sixth inning gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals at ever to break into the Washington lineup, garnered two hits and drove in a run, but the Senators dropped a 4-3 decision to the Chicago White Sox. Outfielder Bill Wilson knocked in the winning run with a single in the ninth.

A two-run rally in the fifth inning gave the Boston Red Sox a 2-1 triumph over the champion New York Yankees. The victory was a costly one for the Sox, however, as outfielder Jim Piersall injured his right shoulder while sliding into second base. He is expected to be out for a few days.

In a night game, the Brooklyn Dodgers suffered their third straight setback, bowing to the Cincinnati Redlegs 10-0. Don Newcombe made his first start in two years for the Dodgers and was touched for three runs in the second inning. Cincy's Jim Green-grass hit the only home run of the game.

NCAA 'Weeding Out' Begins

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—With the exception of the Southeastern and Big Seven conferences and the Ivy League all the conference basketball races were over today and the NCAA postseason tournament was ready to get down to the serious business of weeding out the weaklings.

The Southeastern and Ivy loops were to play off deadlocks tonight while a final Big Seven match between Kansas and Missouri determined if another conference tie would result.

Games are scheduled at six sites—Fort Wayne, Nashville; Peoria, Ill.; Corvallis, Ore.; Columbia, Mo.; and Philadelphia.

At Columbia, favored Kansas is expected to capture sole possession of the Big Seven crown by defeating Missouri. Should the Tigers win however, the Jayhawks would have to share the title with Colorado and a toss of a coin would determine the NCAA Tournament entry.

The game in Nashville will be a playoff for the Southeastern Conference championship between Kentucky, the only major undefeated team in the nation, and Louisiana State.

Here's how they line up:
At Fort Wayne—Notre Dame vs. Loyola of the South and Toledo vs. Penn State.

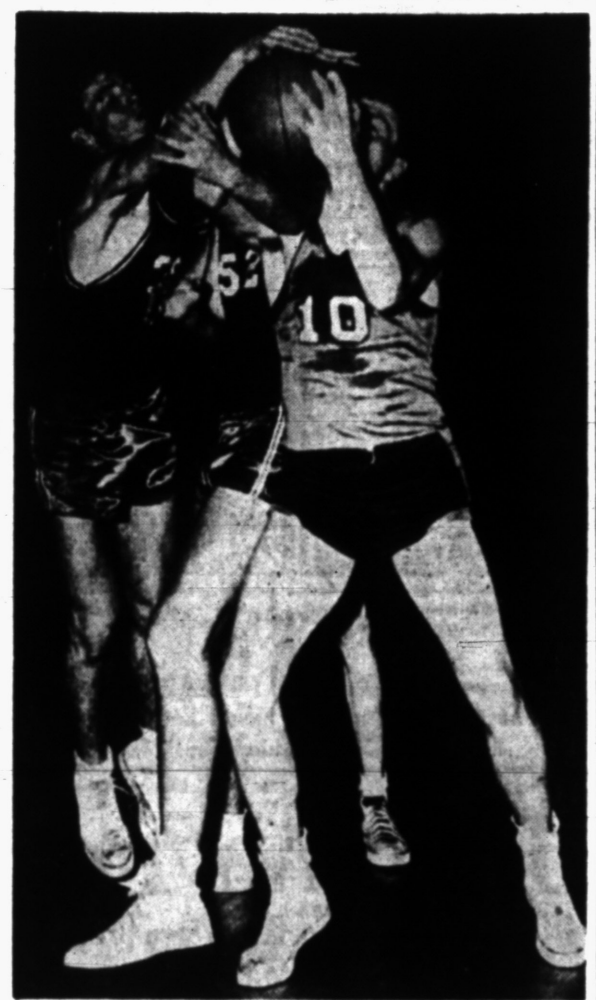

At Peoria—Bradley vs. Oklahoma City.
At Corvallis—Idaho State vs. Seattle and Texas Tech vs. Santa Clara.

At Buffalo, Navy defeated Connecticut 85-80 and La Salle tripped Fordham in overtime 76-74 in preliminary round games of the NCAA Tournament. At Durham, N. C., North Carolina State defeated George Washington 75-73. LaSalle will play North Carolina State and Navy will go against the Ivy League winner in regionals in Philadelphia Friday.

In the National Invitation Tournament last night in Madison Square Garden, Western Kentucky stopped Bowling Green 95-81 and Niagara turned back Dayton 77-74 despite Bill Uhl, who scored 33 points for the losers. Western and Niagara now are in the semifinals. St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., won a first-round game from Brigham Young 81-68.

Tonight's action pairs top-seeded Duquesne and St. Francis of Loretto, and Holy Cross and St. Francis of Brooklyn.

Diddle Sees Hilltoppers Winning NIT This Trip

By RIP WATSON
NEW YORK (AP)—"This is the 8th time I've come to New York for this tournament and this time we're going to go all the way."

That "we" was veteran coach Ed Diddle's talking about his fleet-footed, talented Western Kentucky basketball team, Western Kentucky raced to a 95-81 victory over Bowling Green last night in its 1st appearance in the 1954 National Invitation Tournament.

"This is the 1st time we've come up and played a real game right off the bat," Diddle said while his players whooped it up in the dressing room as though they had just won the final game instead of only a quarterfinal.

Hilltoppers, seeded 2nd in the tournament and ranked 4th in the country, meet the winner of tonight's Holy-Cross-St. Francis of Brooklyn game in the semifinals Thursday.

Fourth-ranked Niagara also advanced to the semi-finals last night as its team play off a 33-point performance by Dayton's Bill Uhl. Other game is between Duquesne, top-seeded in the tournament and 3rd ranked nationally, and little St. Francis of Loretto, Pa.

St. Francis made its NIT—and Madison Square Garden—debut with an 81-68 victory over Brigham Young in the 1st game of last night's triple-header.

Wildcats Rated Nation's Top '5' for Ninth Week

Kentucky in SE Loop Playoff With Tigers Tonight

By BOB HOOBING
NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten Kentucky entered its Southeastern Conference playoff with 8th ranked Louisiana State today as the No. 1 college basketball power in the nation.

Wildcats, favored to defeat the Tigers for an NCAA tournament berth, were the 1st choice of 43 of the 95 sports writers and sportscasters in the weekly Associated Press poll. It marked the 9th time in the past 13 weeks Kentucky has headed the list.

Indiana's defending NCAA champions remained in 2nd position, receiving 11 1st place ballots and 688 points on a system of 10 points for 1st, nine for 2nd etc. Kentucky polled 788 points.

Duquesne, seeded No. 1 in the National Invitational Tournament where it is slated to see its 1st action tonight, moved up from 4th to 3rd at the expense of Western Kentucky. Western and the Dukes may meet for the NIT title as both are entered.

Oklahoma Aggies, who have tucked away the Missouri Valley Conference crown and another NCAA spot, also advanced—from 6th to 5th—over last week, changing places with Notre Dame.

Holy Cross, 9th, and North Carolina State, 10th, returned to the top 10 after an absence. N. C. State's Cinderella five yesterday upset 7th place George Washington 75-73 in an NCAA playoff.

USTA Adopts New Regulation

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—The U. S. Trotting Assn., parent body of harness racing, adopted a new rule yesterday to give relief to horsemen who heretofore have not been allowed to scratch their entries when they consider a wet track unsafe.

Rule provides that when the weather is bad a committee made up of the presiding judge, a representative of the horsemen and an agent of the track will consider postponement. If all three decide it is safe to race, the program goes on.

If the vote is not unanimous, a horseman may scratch his entry after posting 10 per cent of the purse. Later, USTA district boards will decide whether the money should be returned to the horseman or retained as a fine.

Kid Gavilan Easy Winner in Tuneup With Minelli

BOSTON (AP)—Welterweight king Kid Gavilan relaxed today after whipping Italy's Livio Minelli in a warmup bout before his April 2 crack at Bobo Olson's middle-weight boxing crown.

The Cuban Keed, weighing 153½ to Minelli's 152½, floored Minelli twice in the 2nd round with stinging left hooks to the head, but cut back the throttle rest of the way in the non-title 10-rounder last night.

"I needed the workout more than the knockout," Gavilan explained in the dressing room. "I'm no butcher. I had to save my hands and I didn't want to take any unnecessary chances. I'll take all the chances against Olson."

Gavilan's manager, Angel Lopez, was worried that his meal ticket might suffer a cut or other mishap that could jeopardize the hoped-for $300,000 gate for the Olson bout in Chicago.

But Gavilan kept right on top of Minelli—winning every round on most cards at ringside. The Italian stayed in there all the way, despite the beating Gavilan handed out, but got only a bloody nose and a puffed face for his efforts.

It was Gavilan's 7th straight victory. He pocketed a check for about $4,000 for the bout while Minelli got about $2,600.

A Boston Garden crowd of 6,983 paid a gross gate of $18,550 and a "net" of $13,700.

MONTREAL (AP)—Gordie Howe, Detroit's flashy right winger, had his 4th straight National Hockey League scoring title all but wrapped up today and Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk was leading in the race for the coveted Vezina Trophy.

Howe picked up a goal and two assists in games last week and boosted his point total to 71. Maurice (the Rocket) Richard of Montreal is second with 61 points, including 35 goals, the circuit's highest out-pot.

Sawchuk, defending Vezina holder, has a goals-against average of 1.73 per game compared to 1.78 for Harry Lumley of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Actor Jeff Chandler Is Sued for Divorce

LOS ANGELES (U)—Jeff Chandler, the movie he-man, has been sued for divorce on charges of cruelty by his wife of eight years.

Mrs. Chandler, a former actress known professionally as Marjorie Hoshelle, did not give details of her accusations in her suit filed in Superior Court yesterday.

The couple separated last June 30 after a series of estrangements and reconciliations. Under a property settlement the actor's wife is to receive alimony of $2,340 a month for six months; $2,166.67 for the next six months; and then $1,166.67 until she dies or remarries.

The agreement also provides that Chandler is to pay $500 a month for support of their children, Jamie, 6, and Dana, 4, and that Mrs. Chandler is to have their custody.

Pinchpenny Jack Benny Loosens Up

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Jack Benny's reputation as a tightwad gets a jolt tonight when he foots the bill for the lavish wedding of his daughter Joan to Seth Baker of New York.

Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin will marry the young pair tonight at 7 in private ceremonies at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Present will be the parents of the couple—the Bennys and New York industrialist Harry Baker and his wife, plus a few intimate friends of the family. These include Barbara Stanwyck, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bob Hope, Mr. and Mrs. William Goetz and Claudette Colbert.

After the ceremony, the hotel's Crystal Room will be packed with some 500 well-wishers, including more of Hollywood's top stars.

"Outside of having an elopement, there were only two ways we could have done it," sighed Benny. "We could have had a very small wedding and invited only the family and a handful of friends. Or we could have a big affair and invite everyone. Because too many people would have been slighted, we decided to have a big wedding."

I remarked that this might ruin his reputation as a money pinchner, built up for years on radio and TV. "Reputation nothing!" he protested. "This might ruin me!"

He estimated that the entire affair may run up a bill in excess of $25,000. This might seem high to all those except fathers who have had to finance weddings lately.

Joan's wedding gown alone is reputed to cost $2,500. It is a Don Loper creation of brocade lily-of-the-valley white satin, full length with a train. Rex designed the cap of Juliet pearls with a three-tiered, full-length veil.

"Oh well, I have only one daughter," said Benny bravely. "I don't care what it costs, just so the kids have a happy marriage."

He added that Joan's wedding is a contrast to when he married Mary Livingstone.

"We did it in Waukegan at the home of a friend," he recalled. "There were six or seven people there, and the cost of the wedding was nil. We didn't even have time to have a reception. We were married in the afternoon, and I had to grab the train to Chicago, where I was appearing in a show that night."

Jack said he was pleased with his future son-in-law, who is a stock broker. Baker, 26, is a graduate of Andover Academy and Amherst College, where he was a Beta Theta Pi. He was married once before.

Joan, 19, is an adopted daughter and was a junior at Stanford when she decided to get married. She has appeared on the Benny radio show and was on his TV program last month. She and her husband will make their home in New York.

12 Michigan Cities to Get Letters by Air

WASHINGTON (U)—The experimental airtel of first class mail has been extended to 12 Michigan cities, all but three in the Upper Peninsula.

Postmaster General Arthur Sumnerfield announced the extension of the service Monday to eight Western and Midwestern states including Michigan.

North Central Airlines, one of three chosen by the Post Office Department, will handle the air carriage of mail in Michigan, servicing Detroit, Lansing, Grand Rapids, Houghton, Hancock, Calumet, Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee, Iron Mountain, Escanaba, and Menominee.

A three-cent letter or a two-cent postcard and other "preferential surface mail, such as daily newspapers, will rate the air service. But it is only held on a space available basis.

Airlines will handle the mail only when they do not have a full passenger or cargo load.

Boats Rescue 15 From Drifting Floes

L'ANSE (U)—A Conservation Department launch and small commercial fishing boats picked 15 ice fishermen off the wind-blown ice floes of Keewenaw Bay Monday.

State Police at the Marquette Post said that if winds had been stronger all of the 15 might have been lost. The Conservation boat picked nine off a floe on the east side of the bay.

Commercial fishermen saved the other six from a floe on the west side.

The floes were being blown toward Portage Entry into Lake Superior when the boats sped to their rescue. A Coast Guard helicopter, sent to the scene, was called back when the men were rescued before it got there.

Teachers Get Pay Hike

ITHACA (U)—This city's teachers are getting raises up to $200 dollars a year. The board of education has sent out contracts based on a $3,200 minimum for any starting teacher with a bachelor's degree and an additional $200 for a master's degree.

Jets May Provide Mid-air Refueling for B52 Bombers

WASHINGTON (U)—The Air Force may turn to swift, jet-powered tanker planes to provide mid-air refueling for the new B52 all-jet heavy bombers of the Strategic Air Command.

The B52s are expected to begin coming off the production line late this year. Each is being equipped to replenish its fuel supply in flight to offset rate of fuel consumption by its eight thirsty jet engines.

Mid-air refueling for medium B47 jet bombers is standard practice.

All tanker planes now used are piston-engined aircraft, the KC97 Boeing Stratofreighter, with tanks and a "flying boom" for transfer of fuel to jet bombers or fighters.

Airmen are highly pleased with the current method of replenishing jet bombers and fighters in mid-flight. But they also say that a loss in efficiency, in time and in fuel, will always exist when a jet bomber refuels from a piston-engined tanker. The reason:

A jet engine performs best at high altitude, where the air is thin. A piston-engined aircraft produces more power at lower altitudes. The B47 usually cruises at 30,000 feet or above. The KC97, totting a hefty 6,000 or 7,000 gallons of jet fuel in addition to its own gasoline, has a practical ceiling for refueling of about 20,000 feet. To refuel, the bomber must descend 10,000, then climb back with the accompanying high fuel consumption rate for a climb.

What is true of the B47 medium will have ever greater effect in refueling of the B52, a much bigger and somewhat faster plane.

The Air Force disclosed last fall that it was experimenting with a B47 converted to a tanker plane by the Boeing Airplane Co.

The Boeing company announced last week that its new jet transport, a prototype of which is being built, can be utilized as a tanker.

Boeing expects to get a cruising speed of about 550 miles for the transport. This would bring the speed of a tanker up to a satisfactory match with a jet bomber—and at the same time make it possible to operate the tanker at the bomber's normal cruising altitude. Dimensions of the jet transport are almost as great as that for the piston-engined tanker.

Pioneer Auto Dealer Sells Agency to Retire

GREENVILLE (U)—O. A. Rasmussen, who has been selling cars here since the horse era, will retire from the automobile business. He has sold his Chevrolet and Cadillac agencies here to William C. Berger, of Grand Rapids, he said Monday.

Although only 64, Rasmussen has operated an automobile agency here since 1914.

Jack Benny Paying $25,000 for Wedding

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Jack Benny, who plays the role of a pinchpenny on radio and television, is reported to be spending $25,000 on the marriage of his daughter Joan, 19, tonight and a reception honoring the newlyweds.

Miss Benny and Seth Baker, 26, New York stock broker, are being married in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. Five hundred guests are invited to the reception.

The couple, who became engaged two months ago, will honeymoon for two weeks in Hawaii.

Post Office Delivers Only 31 Years Late

DENVER (U)—Back in 1923, Miss Annie May Straub, a Denver schoolteacher, planned to take some college courses. She wrote to North Attleboro, Mass., for her grades as a student at the turn of the century.

The high school finally got the letter last week, the Denver Post learned yesterday. Meanwhile, Miss Straub, retired from teaching in 1944, had died in Los Angeles Jan. 6.

The Blood You Give Helps Someone Live!

Right now blood is needed by thousands of men, women and children for surgery and medical treatment. It is needed, too, to build a national reserve of blood derivatives as "life insurance" for hundreds of thousands in times of disaster. But blood cannot be mined or manufactured. We must give it. And the time to give it is—now!

Political Guessing Game: What's Happened to Mao?

By PHIL NEWSON

United Press Foreign Editor
The newest guessing game about Communist leadership concerns Red China's Mao Tse-tung.

Some guesses go so far as to say he is dead. Others say that he is ill. The first seems unlikely. The other possible.

The latest flurry arose from the tone of Peiping Radio broadcasts and Communist Chinese editorial comment on the first anniversary of the death of another Red leader — Josef Stalin.

Peiping Radio advised its listeners to "study the brilliant theories of Lenin and Stalin... especially on the strengthening of party unity and collective leadership."

The call for "collective leadership" was an echo from Moscow but new for Peiping.

Accompanying it were repeated pleas for "party unity."

Also new for Peiping Radio was the following:
"The brilliant example set by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union proves that to safeguard party unity and unanimity, a resolute struggle against the opportunists in its ranks is needed."

The latter would seem to suggest that a purge in the Chinese Communist Party is planned or already has been carried out.

Speculation about Mao is natural for a number of reasons.

One is that he has not appeared at a public function since Dec. 16 when he accepted the credentials of Soviet Ambassador P. F. Yudin.

Since then, he delegated Red Army Chief Chu Teh to accept the credentials of the Hungarian ambassador on Jan. 27, missed the cocktail party at the Soviet embassy on Feb. 14 celebrating the fourth anniversary of the Sino-Soviet friendship pact, and chose Party Vice Chairman Liu Shao-chi to make the principal address in his place at the second postwar meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee earlier in February.

The pattern of the speculation about Mao has its parallel in the case of Stalin.

Stalin's death or serious illness was rumored for years before it actually occurred.

Similarly, speculation about Mao's successor.

Georgi Malenkov was recognized as the man to watch when he took Stalin's place to deliver the principal address at the 19th Communist Party Congress in Moscow in October, 1952. On Stalin's death he became premier.

So, the speculation is that Liu Shao-chi is the Malenkov of China.

As was the case with Stalin, little really is known about Mao's state of health. He has been reported suffering from a heart ailment and stomach trouble.

He also is said never to have recovered fully from ailments acquired during a 6,000-mile retreat from Kiangsi Province into Northern Shensi when he still was fighting Chiang Kai-shek for the mainland.

One report has had him under treatment in Moscow in the same way that French and Italian Communist leaders have gone to the Russian capital for special medical care.

Contributing further to speculation about Mao is international curiosity about the effect his personality will have on the Geneva conference between East and West on April 26, and the many rumors that the Red Chinese hierarchy is to undergo a Beria-type purge.

UTICA, N. Y. (UP)—Lots of folk own spreads, but not many 101 years old and all in one piece. There isn't a seam in the 93 by 47 inch coverlet treasured by Mrs. Walter Markie. It was made by her grandmother and is signed and dated, "1852." Miss Markie said the dyed green, red and white wool of the spread came from sheep raised by her grandfather and was spun by her grandmother.

Pilotless Bomber Units to Bolster NATO Forces

MELBOURNE, Fla. (AP) — Two pilotless bomber squadrons — the first to be assigned overseas — are due to depart today to bolster NATO defenses in Germany. The first squadron is command-

ROKs Would Invade North if Chinese Left

HONG KONG (AP) — South Korean Brig. Gen. Choi Duk Shin said here today if a Nationalist Chinese invasion of the China mainland should force withdrawal of Red Chinese troops from North Korea, "South Korea would take full advantage of this and march north."

Choi arrived here with two other members of a South Korean mission now touring Southeast Asian countries in an effort to promote an anti-Communist alliance.

U.S. Health Aid Bill Faces House Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of President Eisenhower's proposals for greater federal aid to states in the field of public health was called up for debate today in the House.

The bill would authorize an outlay of 182 million dollars over the next three years in grants for construction of nonprofit diagnostic centers, hospitals for the chronically ill, rehabilitation centers and nursing homes. It would broaden the existing

Hill-Burton law, under which the federal government pays to the states as much as two thirds of the construction costs of hospitals and rehabilitation centers connected with hospitals.
