Ike to Meet Macmillan in Bermuda After Talking to Mollet in Capital

Harold Schone Raps Opponents of Courthouse

Building Committee Head Hits Wilmot's Statement

"I have been associated with the efforts to construct suitable facilities for the proper administration of county government in Oakland County for approximately three years," said Harold K. Schone, chairman, Special County Building Committee, "and my interests are always stimulated by those either opposed to, or in favor of, the construction of a new courthouse. Certainly there has been a dire need for relief for many, many years.

"William H. Wilmot, co-counsel of the so-called Oakland County Taxpayers' League, recently made the following statement:

'We want the Courthouse downtown, not on the west side of Pontiac. If it's not there, we don't care where it is. We have no objections to Royal Oak.'

"This surprised me a great deal since those of us who have worked towards a new building have always felt that Mr. Wilmot's opposition to the Courthouse was based upon a sincere interest in the welfare of the City of Pontiac. We felt he was interested in its downtown business area.

"However, the above indicates that perhaps we were mistaken in this assumption. Perhaps the League's opposition is not due to their concern about the inconvenience of a half-million residents of the County of Oakland. Perhaps it's due to their concern for a few downtown attorneys who would be inconvenienced by not having the county offices accessible to their individual offices.

"The effect of the removal of the County Offices from the downtown business area of Pontiac to the Service Center site on West Boulevard, which was purchased for this purpose many years ago, upon the downtown merchants of Pontiac is a very debatable question.

In my opinion there would be no adverse effect upon the downtown merchants. However, to remove the County Seat from the City of Pontiac to the south end of the county, I think would materially affect all the people of the City of Pontiac, including its merchants.

"It has been the writer's privilege to serve on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors for the past 5½ years. I have considered it quite an honor to serve with those members of the Board who have given sincerely and entirely of their efforts over a great many years, some of them having served as long as 25 years on the Board.

"Having had association with other county governments, both in and outside of the State of Michigan, it can be said without reservation that the citizens of Oakland County are indeed very fortunate to have had so many business men and housewives working as public officials to serve them so well over the past years.

"Questions have been raised by the so-called Oakland County Taxpayers' League as to the county bookkeeping policies. Not being an accountant, I can only say the results are clearly evident of very competent bookkeeping and watchfulness on the part of the county officials, particularly the Ways and Means Committee of the Board of Supervisors.

"Oakland County is the second largest county in the State of Michigan and has no direct outstanding bond obligations. This can be said for very few counties (even of much smaller size) in the

Detroit Edison Area Expansion to Cost $9 Million

Manager Canfield Says New Substations Will Boost County Power

Detroit Edison Co. will spend close to nine million dollars this year for expansion of its services in Oakland County, Howard L. Canfield, district manager of the Oakland division, announced today.

The $8.9 million expenditure will be part of the firm's $89 million construction program for 1957.

Allocations have been made for the completion of a transformer and switching station now under construction at 14½ Mile and Coolidge roads in Royal Oak. With its completion, high-capacity electric power will be possible throughout a 35-square mile area in southeastern Oakland County.

A new substation will be built at Featherstone road in Pontiac to "reinforce" electric power for parts of Pontiac and Pontiac Township, Canfield said.

Electrical output in Waterford, White Lake, Springfield, and Independence Townships will be boosted to 4,500 kilowatts with the completion expected in July of another substation in that area.

Troy Township's electrical potential will be hiked to 10,800 kilowatts with the construction of the Maumee Substation at Maple road and Stephenson highway.

Another station, to be built on Telegraph, will enable parts of Bloomfield and West Bloomfield Townships to have increased capacity up to 7,200 kilowatts, the manager outlined.

Jordan Substation, to be built on Maybee between Sashabaw and Pine Knob roads, will add 4,500 kilowatts to the electrical sytem in Independence Township.

Another 1957 county project will increase the capacity of the Lake Orion and Orion, Oakland and Oxford Township, from 2,700 to 5,400 kilowatts.

"The expansion of the Wardlaw Substation, at Wardlaw and Milford roads, will increase the electric power supply in Highland Township by about 80 per cent," Canfield said.

Sessions With British Leader Set March 21-24

France's Premier Due in Washington for Talk February 26-27

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (INS) — President Eisenhower, it was announced today, will meet with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in Bermuda March 21-24.

The White House simultaneously announced that Premier Guy Mollet of France has accepted Eisenhower's invitation to visit Washington Feb. 26-27.

The President suggested, according to the announcement, that the meeting with MacMillan be held in Bermuda, where the 1953 Big Three conference was held.

By holding the conference on British soil, U. S. officials feel that Eisenhower will help soothe the ruffled feelings of the British caused by delay in setting up a meeting with the Prime Minister.

The British have been eager for a face-to-face meeting with Eisenhower ever since the United States acted in early November to force the withdrawal of British troops from Egypt.

The President spurned overtures for a meeting with former Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden, holding that such a conference would be unwise as long as the U. S. was working through the United Nations to ease the Middle East crisis.

American relations with both France and Britain sank to a post-war low when the United States took a position opposing its two traditional allies in an effort to avert war in the Middle East.

Charge Intent to Murder

Confessed Sniper to Be Arraigned

Gary A. Taylor, Oakland County's confessed phantom sniper, today will be arraigned before Bloomfield Hills Justice Alva Richardson on a charge of assault with intent to murder, according to County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Taylor, 20, of 16192 Marguerite, Southfield Township, was captured by Royal Oak police Thursday night after a three-hour reign of terror through Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Southfield Township and Royal Oak. He later admitted 10 snipings which injured two persons.

Ziem said the county's case would be based on one of the wounded victims, Shirley Eland, 19, of 200 Hickory Grove Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

Said Ziem: "Miss Eland told us that Taylor 'is about the same size and looks like him' (the man who shot her), but can't identify him 'for sure.'

"It was her description of the sniper's car that led to Taylor's arrest, however," Ziem said.

A .22 Winchester rifle was found in the back seat of Taylor's car when he was apprehended. The weapon and the slug that struck Miss Eland were sent to police scientific laboratories in East Lans-

2 Blazes Take Toll of 7 Lives

6 Children, 1 Adult Die as Fires Sweep Homes in Detroit, Ontario

By International News Service

Six children and one adult died and 12 persons were injured as fires struck a home in Tecumseh, Ont., yesterday and an apartment in Detroit last night.

In Tecumseh, the bodies of Sharon Schatz, 5, and her brother, Orville, 3, were found in the rubble of their small frame house after firemen extinguished the blaze. Another victim was Mrs. Barbara Dawe, 23, of Perry Sound, Ont.

In critical condition in Windsor's Metropolitan Hospital were the children's mother, Loretta, 27, their father, Allen, 29, and Mrs. Phyllis Schatz, 50, their grandmother.

Four Schatz children, Allen Jr., 6, Penny, 7, Ronald, 8, and Evelyn, 8 months, were also hospitalized.

Kenneth Dawe, 25, husband of the dead woman, and Carol Ann Schatz, 16, aunt of the dead children, were reported in satisfactory condition.

ALSO LIVED THERE

Dawe and his wife had been living in the Schatz home.

William Lloyd, 48, of Windsor, was burned in a rescue attempt. He was given first aid at Metropolitan Hospital and released.

The blaze, believed to have been started by a child playing with matches in the bathroom, broke out shortly after 8 a.m. and leveled the six-room, one-story house in less than two hours.

In Detroit, police today were holding a 22-year-old mother on

Partly Cloudy, Warmer Seen for Tomorrow

The weatherman says it will be partly cloudy and warmer tonight and tomorrow, with temperatures ranging between 22 and 40 degrees in the Pontiac area.

About thee-quarters of an inch of snow fell last night. It glazed Pontiac streets with a thin coat of ice which made driving hazardous for several hours.

Light snow was general throughout Michigan last night but most main roads were reported clear this morning.

The lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac was 17 degrees. The thermometer registered 27 at 2 p.m.

Ann Arbor Eyes Own Bus Line

Council to Determine Whether to Put Issue Up to Voters

ANN ARBOR—Decision by Great Lakes Greyhound Lines to discontinue bus service here on March 5 apparently means that Ann Arbor citizens will vote April 1 on whether they want the city to go into the bus business.

The City Council will decide tonight whether to put the question of municipal ownership on the ballot, along with a $100,000 general obligation bond issue to finance purchase of buses.

If the issue goes on the ballot and is approved, there are tentative plans to offset the expected losses in bus operations with money from the city's profitable parking system.

The city has been trying for almost a year to interest bus operators in taking a franchise. Greyhound has twice extended deadlines on ending service. The company has been losing money on its bus operations here since 1947, and current losses are estimated at $22,000 a year. The city has been subsidizing operations on an "emergency basis" in the amount of $1,900 a month since August.

The only offers to operate buses in Ann Arbor have involved purchase by the city of buses and special arrangements on garaging, maintenance, licensing and fuel purchases.

One plan by a group of Ann Arbor taxi operators to operate a fleet of small buses without a subsidy but with the city purchasing rolling stock and selling part of it to the operators over a period of years is still pending, but there are legal difficulties.

Patronage of Ann Arbor City Bus, Inc., the line operated by Greyhound, has dropped steadily in recent years until this past year when there was a slight increase, believed due to Ann Arbor's rapidly growing population and discontinuance of bus service by a parochial school.

Surveys have disclosed that only 12.3 per cent of Ann Arbor residents are regular users of the buses, but that 19 out of 20 residents feel the bus system is necessary.

Twenty-eight bus franchises were dropped during the past year in Michigan, and other companies are operating on a temporary basis, a bus committee survey disclosed.

GOP to Hear Hillings Tonight

Banquet to Draw 500

A capacity crowd is expected to hear Congressman Patrick J. Hillings (R-Calif) at the Oakland County Republican Club banquet tonight.

Nearly 500 have bought tickets for the 6:30 p. m. dinner in Northwood Inn, Berkley, president George F. Taylor said.

Hillings, known for his investigations of Communism here and in Europe, is expected to speak on his recent trip behind the Iron Curtain, Taylor said.

Taylor and Sheriff Frank W. Irons left to meet Hillings' airplane at Willow Run Airport at noon today. The young congressman was scheduled to appear at a tea of the Republican Women's Federation of Oakland County from 3 to 6 p. m. in the Royal Oak Women's Club.

He will be introduced tonight by Congressman William S. Broomfield of Royal Oak.

It's All in Fun, but It Just Might Happen

Dazzling Hoopla Greets Debut of 1966 'Glitterjet'

By JOHN G. KNECHT

The most magnificent automobile the world had ever seen was put on display November 17, 1966. The culmination of more than a half century of design and manufacturing experience, it embodied every mechanical advancement and every decorative feature dreamed of by man, woman, and child — and many more besides.

The new Glitterjet V-32 was introduced in Detroit, Michigan, after the greatest advertising and publicity campaign in history. The automobile was mounted on a gigantic "island" 150 feet long and 82 feet wide, which was moored in the middle of the Detroit River. The island was made of purple-and-yellow water-resistant planks, which were supported by six aluminum-coated plastic cylinders imbedded in the river bottom. Sixteen atomic-powered beacons, each of 1,000,000 candle power, beamed down on the Glitterjet from specially moored dirigibles, causing such a reflection by day and night that spectators had to wear dark glasses.

The reason for the Glitterjet's blinding reflective quality was that every square inch of it was chromium plated. Not only were all body panels of chrome; the tires, the simulated wire wheels, and every nut and bolt in the basic body structure, as well as the engine, shone with dazzling brilliance due to chromium and recently devised methods of polishing it. All windows and the windshield were chrome coated in such a way that the occupants of the car could look out but people outside the car could not look in.

Inside, the Glitterjet was a miracle of brilliance, too. The upholstery was a special synthetic material resembling burnished brass. Glued onto the fabric were circular panels the size of dinner plates, painted purple. On the floor was an imitation Formica "carpet" with an early American spatterdash pattern.

The Glitterjet was 101 feet, 6 inches long and 75 feet wide — larger by an appreciable margin than any car produced up to that time. Fins attached to the rear fenders extended 6 feet into the air. Yet, thanks to 7-inch wheels, the roof height was only 3 feet, 2 inches. Although the Glitterjet had but four of these wheels, 27 feet of its length was overhang. Included in this were a trunk large enough to hold a 1929 Ford Roadster and a seat at the very end of the overhang which was reminiscent of the old Model-A Rumble Seat but which was called, in the interests of sales appeal, a Happy Seat.

The Glitterjet's 32-cylinder engine developed 1,000 horsepower, thus ending, once and for all, the horsepower race which had been raging for some fifteen years. With this engine, the Glitterjet claimed an

Schimmel Upset Jolts County GOP

But Party Hails Watt Victory

Birmingham Woman's Nomination Tempers Defeat of City Man

By PETE LOCHBILER

Oakland County Republicans felt disappointment today in the defeat of Louis H. Schimmel, of Pontiac for nomination to the State Board of Agriculture.

A surprise reversal at the end of Saturday's convention in Detroit saw Schimmel's backing fade.

There were consolations, though.

Mrs. Ethel Watt, of Birmingham was nominated to run for University of Michigan Regent in April 1 election. She was unopposed.

The "young look" is manifested in the new state chairman, Lawrence B. Lindemer, 35-year-old Stockbridge and Lansing attorney.

Lindemer emerged the winner in a long, hard battle. His election was considered a victory for Eisenhower Republicanism.

At the same time, it was felt to be a tacit admission a change is needed in the party's approach to state government.

Oakland County gave the enthusiastic former state representative the bulk of its support. The delegation's power—its 141 votes made it the largest at the convention—was not enough, however, to put Schimmel in.

A Sanilac County farmer, Frank Merriman of Deckerville, had backing from out-state districts. His victory was assured when a third candidate, J. Kermit Carey of Genesee County, gave Merriman his support.

Schimmel's additional support from Wayne, Kent and Saginaw Counties could not overcome this lead.

Oakland County leaders were surprised. Schimmel, Pontiac Board of Education member 20 years and treasurer of the Citizen's Committee for the Michigan State University Oakland County branch, was believed the convention favorite.

At one time during pre-convention proceedings, he had sufficent votes promised, they said, to secure the nomination.

The full slate was pointed to as evidence of the new faces and ideology coming into the state party. The slate follows:

For highway commissioner — George M. Foster, deputy to Charles M. Ziegler who will retire July 1.

For superintendent of public instruction — Dr. Edgar L. Harden, president of Northern Michigan, College of Education at Marquette.

For regents of the University of Michigan—Mrs. Watt and incumbent Alfred G. Connable, of Kalamazoo.

For membership on the State Board of Agriculture — Merriman and incumbent Frederick C. Mueller, of Grand Rapids.

For membership of the State Board of Education—George W. Dean, of Detroit, president of the Michigan Federation of Labor.

For justices of the state supreme court, full eight-year terms—Michael J. O'Hara, of Menominee, and Robert A. Childs, of Detroit. For the short term—Joseph A. Moynihan Jr., of Detroit.

Mrs. Ella Koeze, of Grand Rapids was elected party vice chairman.

Chairman Lindemer succeeds John Feikens. A native of Syracuse, N. Y., he came to Michigan 16 years ago and attended the University of Michigan. He became active in politics after graduation.

In 1953 he served as an administrative aid to the Second Hoover Commission on governmental reorganization.

British Press Headlines Denial of Queen-Duke Rift

LONDON (AP)—The British public finally learned at breakfast today about worldwide rumors of a rift between Queen Elizabeth II and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh.

Breaking a three-day silence, morning newspapers published the reports coupled with an official denial by a Buckingham Palace spokesman, Cmdr. Richard Colville.

The papers referred to the report of royal matrimonial troubles as a "silly rumor" and "baseless speculation."

The afternoon papers ignored the reports entirely, devoting their front pages to a local murder, the Middle East situation, or the latest exploits of America's TV quiz winners.

The Queen, Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth were expected back in London sometime today after a short stay at Windsor.

DUKE RETURNS SATURDAY

The duke is at Gibraltar finishing a four-month round-the-world trip. He will be reunited with the Queen in Lisbon Saturday, two days before they begin a state visit to Portugal.

There was little immediate reaction from the general public to the report of the royal rift. However, it was avidly read in countless homes by early morning commuters.

"Nonsense!" said one man in a crowded train compartment.

Others just laughed.

The Laborite Daily Herald published the rift story under a five-column banner which said that the "palace rumors are untrue." It enjoined the duke: "Fly home, Philip . . . The way to kill a silly rumor."

The independent Conservative Daily Express, published by empire-minded Lord Beaverbrook, carried a front-page article under the headline: "Queen and Reports Abroad." The paper mentioned the palace denial and added:

"The Daily Express does not propose to reprint in its variations any aspect of this story."

The pro-Labor Daily Mirror quoted the palace denial and said:

"This denial follows widespread reports in American newspapers of ridiculous and baseless rumors about the Queen and her husband. . . .

"While it is true that the American press has since published Cmdr. Colville's denial, the reports have gained worldwide currency and are regarded with grave dismay and resentment in British official circles and through the commonwealth."

Will Arraign Sniper in Bloomfield Court

"Ballistic tests of the bullet that wounded Miss Eland in the back indicate that it was Taylor's gun that fired the shot," said Ziem.

Ziem said that he would ask that a $50,000 bond be placed on Taylor.

Taylor was tagged the "mad sniper" after he reportedly terrorized the Royal Oak community in a pre-Christmas spree which resulted in the wounding of 14-year-old Cindy Estes, of Royal Oak.

Shortly after Thursday's incident came to light, Florida police disclosed that Taylor was tried in St. Petersburg in 1955 for allegedly attacking 17 women. He was acquitted, however, despite the testimony of six women who identified him as their assailant.

Taylor, an 11-month Navy veteran who received a medical discharge in May, 1954, for "migraine headaches," said he shot at the women "because of a sex compulsion in me since childhood."

Ziem said that Taylor's attorney, Gilbert H. Davis, had indicated he would seek a psychiatric examination.

Meanwhile, other law enforcement agencies from various states are seeking information on Taylor in connection with similar incidents in their areas.

Maryland police today asked Oakland County authorities for a report on to be checked against the fatal shooting in 1955 of two young girls in Maryland.

The Maryland victims were Nancy Marie Shomette, 16, and Michel Ann Ryan, 15. They were shot from a distance with .22 caliber bullets as they walked to school.

Police reports had placed Taylor's alleged attacks on women in St. Petersburg, Fla., and in Boston, but Maryland officers pointed to a marked similarity in their case and those that Taylor had admitted in Oakland County.

Niles Police Chief Arthur N. Pears said he too will question Taylor in connection with the slaying of a Chicago woman last spring. Mrs. Marian Davenjay, 27, was shot to death as she stood outside a Niles tavern. Pears said she had been shot with a .22 caliber rifle, "apparently by someone passing in a car."

Taylor, who reportedly admitted sniping at more than a dozen women with a .22 caliber rifle in Oakland County since December, said he shot at two women waiting for a bus on Woodward at 14 Mile Road as he passed them in his car.

Wolverine Lake Police Apprehend Prowler

WOLVERINE LAKE—Chief Ted Robinson of the Village of Wolverine Lake police reports the apprehension of a prowler in Springlake Heights Subdivision last night.

Robinson said that he, along with officer Tom Emond and Hal Allard and the Walled Lake Police chased Clay Siries, 49, of 301 Mill St., Plymouth, for approximately two miles through the subdivision, across state land and onto the Hickory Hill Golf Club, Siries, he said, sought by police for the past week, carried a plastic gun. He was jailed on a drunk and disorderly charge, Robinson said.

Twenty Perish in Arab Terror

100 Are Hospitalized as Rebel Bombs Explode in Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—Rebel bombs accounted for at least a score of deaths across Algeria during the weekend. About 100 persons were hospitalized, 30 of them in serious condition.

French forces claimed they had killed "more than 200 rebels" in scattered fighting with nationalist bands. Most of the fighting was in southern Algeria and in the eastern part of the Constantine area, near Tunisia.

The French admitted five soldiers were killed and two seriously wounded when a vehicle hit a mine.

Four convicted terrorists, including one Frenchman, went to the guillotine in Algiers at dawn. The Frenchman was Fernand Yveton, 30-year-old member of a Communist action cell.

Yveton was found guilty of placing a time bomb at the Algiers gas works. A foreman saw him, and the bomb was dismantled.

In the bombings, 12 Frenchmen and 3 Arabs were killed in Algiers Saturday and Sunday, the capital city's bloodiest weekend of the rebellion.

Twelve were killed by bombs set off in two of the city's crowded football stadiums. Three more were fatally injured when a bomb was thrown into a busy cafe.

Infuriated crowds attacked and nearly lynched Moslems they suspected of being responsible.

Contract Talks Fail; Dockers May Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Contract talks to avert a threatened dockworkers strike tomorrow from Maine to Virginia collapsed last night. The strike would idle 45,000 longshoremen.

Union spokesmen said the breakdown in negotiations between the independent International Longshoremen's Assn. and the New York Shipping Assn. made it virtually certain that the strike will begin at 5 p.m. tomorrow.

That is the hour a Taft-Hartley injunction expires and longshoremen will be free to resume a strike that was halted after nine days last November. The injunction was obtained by the federal government.

The employers group, representing 170 shipping and stevedoring firms, scheduled a membership meeting today. It may be followed by a joint meeting between longshoremen and the employers, tentatively scheduled by federal mediators.

'66 Glitterjet Makes Debut

acceleration from zero to 60 miles per hour in 2.3 seconds — in reverse. Top speed was 236 miles per hour, and gasoline mileage "at the 98-miles-per-hour cruising speed" was one-fourth mile per gallon.

For all this speed, driving the Glitterjet was remarkably simple (which was indeed fortunate, since the intricacies of driving a conventional car had by that time been forgotten: no one remembered exactly what a gearshift was; nor did any but a few older citizens know what a manual choke, a hand throttle, and a clutch pedal were.) To put the Glitterjet in motion, the driver had only to touch an electronically operated green button; to increase speed, a yellow button. To turn, one had but to shift his eyes in the appropriate direction; and to stop, simply shout "Glitter*halt*" into a dash-mounted microphone.

The grill of the Glitterjet was eighth-inch plywood, fashioned tubularly in a crosshatched pattern. The tubes were 6 inches in diameter to provide an "ultra-massive" appearance, and they were sprayed with chrome to resemble steel. Bumpers were polished plastic bars 3½ feet wide which extended 2 feet beyond the fender extremities on either side.

The price of the Glitterjet, including a 48-inch color television set mounted behind the front seat, was $18,997.43. Glitterjet's advertising agencies, in explaining the low price, said overhead costs had been cut by eliminating stylists. These stylists were, it was felt, superfluous, since in the final analysis Glitterjet salesmen alone knew what would sell and what wouldn't. Salesmen were polled every six months to learn what the public liked; whereupon the sales manager of Glitterjet drew the new model on a paper napkin while eating lunch. Glitterjet's stylists were, in turn, converted to realistic salesmen at a special company school and then offered a franchise at an appropriate number of the company's 500,000 Show Room Supermarkets.

If, from the consumer standpoint, the Glitterjet's price seemed a trifle steep, this objection was eliminated by the company's policy of selling its cars on a 35-year open-end mortgage plan. When, at the end of six months, the chrome became flecked with rust and the bolts began to corrode, the buyer was offered a "substantial trade-in" on a new model. Thus the opposition to the company's Planned Obsolescence Program was overcome, and Glitterjet owners were kept continually in debt to the company.

The manufacturer of the Glitterjet was United Transportation Company, an amalgam of General Motors, Chrysler, Ford, and Nash-Hudson. It was, in 1966, the only automobile manufacturer in the world. This, of course, ended any worries about competition cutting into sales and profits. Furthermore, with only one company manufacturing automobiles, the economy of the United States (and the world) was more efficient and more in the spirit of the private enterprise system.

Sales did happen to drop slightly in 1967 (by 3,600,000), but United Transportation was spared concern even so, because by that time it had bought a controlling interest in companies selling aircraft, motorcycles, bicycles and roller skates.

A retired farmer, Mr. Berndt is survived by his wife, Anna, and four children, Mrs. Ella Kenyon of Lansing, Mrs. Louise Greenwald, Otto Berndt and Arthur Berndt, all of Pontiac; nine grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Berndt's body will be at the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home after 7 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. James Dailey

Mrs. James (Mary A.) Dailey, 92, of 609 E. Kennett Rd. died Saturday.

A member of All Saints Episcopal Church, Mrs. Dailey leaves a son, Paul LaTourette of Birmingham; three daughters, Mrs. Mayme Stearns and Mrs. Lucy Clark, both of Pontiac, and Mrs. Leaon Floody of Detroit; 10 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren.

Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Robert Johnson of Detroit, and a brother, Charles Lamport of Huntington Woods.

Service will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday from the Huntoon Funeral Home. The Rev. C. George Widdifield, her rector, will officiate with burial in Perry Mt. Park Cemetery.

Fred Freegard

Fred Freegard, 57, of 54 Virginia Ave. died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Royal Oak Woman Cut in Area Auto Accident

A 45-year-old Royal Oak woman, Alva Ionel Kemple, was treated for forehead lacerations and then released from Pontiac General Hospital after she was involved in an accident late Saturday afternoon at Huron street near Cass avenue.

Pontiac police report the other auto involved in the accident was driven by Vernon Gordon Carpenter, 29, Walled Lake.

The Day in Birmingham

List 2 Public Hearings, Quarton Question Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — Two public hearings, one on vacation of easements and the other on an amendment to a zoning ordinance, will come before City Commissioners tonight.

The zoning amendment request comes from owners of property in the Highland View addition, just east of Hunter boulevard, who desire to transfer from residential to business. They cite the constantly increasing traffic on Hunter as their reason for the request.

Residents in the area have again presented objections. They feel that a change over to business zoning will not solve the problem but will throw an additional inconvenience on them.

The question of banning skating from Quarton Lake and the city's responsibility in case of any mishap there also will be on the agenda. Commissioners, too, will consider the appointment of a representative to the Oakland County Safety Council.

Some fifteen thousand letters mailed recently in Birmingham fired the opening gun for the annual Community House Roll Call Drive. Mrs. Clarence Blenman, drive chairman and William Torrence, in charge of business solicitations, said the budget again this year is $50,000.

"We believe that Birmingham support of the House which has been so generous for over 30 years, will continue this year" Mrs. Blenman said.

In charge of the detailed work of the drive is Mrs. Alvin Knorr who is working at the Community House directing clerks there and coordinating work with solicitors.

Parents of Derby Junior High School students will meet at the school at 8 p.m. Wednesday to discuss with Daniel Nesbitt, principal, ninth grade and senior high school programs.

Board to Open Bids on Sewers

Waterford to Meet on Bond Assessment for Sylvan Shores

Bids for a sewer bond issue will be opened at tonight's regular Waterford Township board meeting, according to Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

The $110,000 bond issue is for the Sylvan Shores sewer, and are special assessment district bonds.

The engineering firm of Anderson and Johnson, will present newly revised specifications on the proposed water and sewer plans for the township.

The specifications have been amplified, and many items clarified for the township board's approval, Lloyd Anderson said.

Notice of the meeting of the Oakland County Safety Council will be read at tonight's meeting. The newly organized council will meet at 8 p.m. Feb. 20 in the Oakland County Courthouse and proposed bylaws will be presented a technical charge of investigation of manslaughter in the fire deaths of four of her children.

Police said Mrs. Madie Batts left her five children at 10:30 last night to purchase milk. She told police she met a girl friend and stayed with her until 3.35 this morning.

During her absence, an overheated coal stove set her apartment afire and four of her children died in the blaze. The victims were Lois, 6, James, 5, Steve, 3, and Cheryl, 8 months. Another child, Trina, 18 months, was reported in good condition at Receiving Hospital.

The children are believed to have died from smoke inhalation rather than burns.

Harris B. Carr

An insurance man since 1921, Mr. Harris B. Carr, 59, of 307 Westchester Way died Saturday at William Beaumont Hospital after a long illness. At the time of his death, he was resident manager of the Fidelity and Casuality Co., Detroit offices. He held membership in Tipton, Indiana Masonic Lodge, Scotish Rite Masons, Murat Temple, Detroit Chamber of Commerce and Civitan and had held all offices of the Fidelity and Casuality executives of Michigan and the Surety Assn. of Michigan.

Mr. Carr is survived by his wife, Ruby; his father, Idrell Carr of Kansas and a brother and sister, Mary Jane and a brother, Leo, of W. Lafayette, Indiana.

Service will be Tuesday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Dewey of the Congregational Church of Birmingham officiating. Burial will be in Christianburg, Ohio. The family asks that donations be made to the American Cancer Society in lieu of flowers.

Harold Schone Raps Foes of Courthouse

State or outside the State. The Board of Supervisors is directly charged with the responsibility to provide facilities to house the various branches of county government and serve agencies connected thereto. If this can be done without saddling the taxpayers of the county with a tremendous obligation of bond issues with resultant high interest rates, we certainly need this type of bookkeeping everywhere in the country.

It is true that the best solution to this housing problem would be to issue $5,000,000 in bonds and construct the needed facilities immediately before costs go up still further. However, the Ways and Means Committee of the Board, in conjunction with the Special County Building Committee, in reviewing this matter felt that if it is at all possible to construct these facilities on a pay-as-you-go basis over a period of five or six years, some $3,500,000 to $4,000,000 in interest would be saved the taxpayers of Oakland County. While I would favor the total construction immediately, certainly it could not be argued that the savings to the taxpayers, as proposed, must be attempted before any other steps are taken.

"The plans to build on the West Boulevard site have been a matter of common knowledge for many years. It is only when we are about to begin construction of the first unit that the so-called Taxpayers' League comes into existence to oppose the business-like practices of the Board.

"The site upon which the new County Building is to be constructed is within one mile of the geographical center of Oakland County and, over a period of years, would be nearer the center of population. The proposed site will alleviate all the parking problems connected with the present building and the traffic problems connected with downtown Pontiac. For these reasons I am sure that the Board of Supervisors will stand fast in their determination to construct on the selected site until such a time as they are directly told by the citizens of Pontiac that the county facilities are no longer desired in Pontiac.

"Many questions come to mind regarding the opposition to the construction of the Court House facilities as planned. But at this time there has only been one to which a fairly definite answer can be given. I am quite sure that had the Board of Supervisors made the decision to reconstruct the Court House on its present site in downtown Pontiac, that no questions would have been raised as to the county bookkeeping system. Therein, I believe, lies the answer to the opposition."

Harold K. Schone, Chairman
Special County Building Committee, Oakland County
Board of Supervisors

Pontiac Man Made Truman Sign

Recalls Key West Paint Job

A story in Friday's Press brought back a flood of memories to one Pontiac resident, Richard Dickinson, 23, of 2574 Fremont St.

Dickinson spotted the story about a laundry in Key West. Fla., which is named Margaret-Truman. It is located at the corner of Margaret and Truman Streets and the story gave Miss Truman's reaction to having a laundry bear her name.

Dickinson has good reason to remember the laundry because he painted the front of the building in 1953 and lettered the sign.

This occured while he was in the Navy and stationed in Key West for three years.

To make extra money, Dickinson, and a buddy, Jerry Duggan, 2480 Harmon Rd., Birmingham, undertook the painting job for $25. Later, Dickinson earned another $10 for lettering the sign in "monstrous block letters."

Another attachment to the firm, is the fact that his wife worked in the laundry for three months.

"I forget the name of the people who owned it, but they were the ones who picked out the name," he said.

"They went broke finally and sold it to the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hass."

"Just recently," Dickinson, who is now a Pontiac mailman, added, "I delivered a post card from Key West and it showed President Eisenhower standing right in front of that same laundry. They sure know how to get publicity."

"I'm going to get one of those post cards," he said, "so I can put it with my clipping from the Press and have them as a souvenir of my Key West days."

U. S. Visitors Lavish

NEW YORK — Foreign visitors spend an estimated $600,000,000 annually in the United States.

Gals Have Grown Dependent on Parisian Whims

Fashion Freedom Will Cause Chaos

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—The American woman, bless her trusting heart and timid soul, is at this very moment standing on the brink of utter tizzihood.

Tizzihood, as nervous and sensitive girls can tell you, is that state of troubled indecision into which one falls when planning party menus, nailing down men, placing placecards and the like.

The immediate problem confronting us is a traumatic one, as things tizzifying go. For the first time in 10 years, Christian Dior and his designing friends are saying, "It's all up to you; dress however you please."

And the woman of America, who has been dictated to until her shoulders bowed (no pads —1948) and her knees buckled under (heavy crinolines — '47 and '53), will now be forced to make her own decisions.

It is difficult to figure out just why 1957 should be the year when the Paris couture, especially M. Dior of the dictatorial disposition, should decide to give women their heads. Also their legs, shoulders, chests and waists, to expose or conceal as they please.

IDEAS NEEDED?

Maybe the fashion people were tired of making the decisions and turned wishy-washy to see if the little woman customer could give them a fresh idea.

Or perhaps Jacques Griffe just couldn't see eye-to-eye with Balenciaga, this winter, and Hubert de Vigenchy didn't go for that 1918 look Pierre Balmain thinks is so cunning.

At any rate, spurred by the "Free Look" suggested by Dior, the designers have turned their problems over to the girls and said wear anything.

Cut off your hems at the knee or drag them around the ankles; wear full skirts or truss up your hips; cinch in your waist, or let it bag out at the hipbone . . .

Anything — and that includes your sanity if need be, madame—goes.

On the surface, this may look like a break for fashion-conscious women. Not having to dress at the whims of dress monarchs who are out to outmode last year's dresses, you might say at first appraisal, is a blessing. But stop and consider.

If there is one lesson these designers have drilled into us all, since Dior introduced that violently new "New Look" in 1947, it is that definite rules must be followed if we are to be stylishly up to snuff.

With the herd instinct so firmly established, a woman had only one problem. It was: Where to get the money to dress like anybody else who was dressing like everybody else.

PROBLEMS GROW

Now her problems are multiplied. She still has to get the money — for we are all indoctrinated still to the idea that new wardrobes are necessary to keep abreast and athwart of the Mrs. Joneses. And added to this is the nagging worry of just what style to spend the money, when got, upon.

Also, there will be wild confusion at affairs where women of good taste get together. With Bessie concealed to her ankles and Mary dressed like a flapper, who is to say who is chic? Indecision will reign, even though decision has been forced upon us as the order of the day.

After the first few months of the "Free Look," it is to be hoped that women suddenly will grow up, will be able to decide for themselves what style suits them best, and will say thank you to the Paris set for giving them a new feeling of responsibility and accomplishment.

But I predict the dictation has gone on too long, and that when Dior snaps his fingers or snips his hems again next autumn, we will once again race back to the fold.

For when it comes to fashion or anything else that involves decision, most of us still are ultra feminine.

It's nice to have a man around, to do the thinking. At least in the small matters.

British Scandals Break First in U.S. Papers

Rumors of a marital rift in Britain have been whispered in gossipy circles for some time and finally they have broken into the American newspapers.

A prompt denial followed.

We'd like to believe the denial.

Rumors run rampant on everything imaginable and they always magnify and multiply. That's one of the basic and unfortunate characteristics of all rumors.

They never build up or glorify. They destroy.

The whole circumstance recalls the incidents surrounding the abdication of the Duke of Windsor. His marked attention to Wallis Simpson was the subject of considerable discussion in closed circles.

The newspapers in England never printed a word about the situation and it was not generally known in the British Isles. Finally, the story broke in the United States dailies and it was picked up a little later in England by the newspapers. Shortly thereafter came the greatest public declaration of love of all time.

This of course was followed swiftly by the abdication.

English newspapers have always granted the crown a type of immunity that exists nowhere else. In most countries, newspapers never dare mention the ruling powers without express permission. In England, permission isn't required, but the custom of centuries places a cloak of comparative secrecy over regal peccadillos.

Kings-to-be and even kings in person have kicked up royal heels at various times and these minor defections have been ignored by English newspapers out of courtesy and not because of law.

In the United States, if the President plays poker and drinks a bourbon high ball with his own best cronies, the fact can casually be reported the next day. (For verification, see one H. S. Truman of Independence, Mo.)

More significant activities would be more significantly reported.

The Duke of Edinburgh has no easy lot. He spends a lifetime in all public appearances meekly trailing Her Majesty around. This is protocol, but every man has his own dignity and his own pride. However, that's a problem for the English and it's none of our business. The Duke walked into the whole situation with his eyes wide open.

No one fooled him.

No one took him for a ride.

This newspaper hopes the rumors are wrong. Even if there's a wisp of actual smoke, this public recognition may quench the tiny fire.

The world hopes so.

President Asks Easing of Our Immigration Act

President Eisenhower has asked Congress for changes in our basic immigration laws and for action on emergency legislation to permit permanent residence of Hungarian refugees admitted on parole.

His special Immigration Message requested that emergency legislation be made permanent so that the U.S. would be "in a position to act promptly and with assurance in facing emergencies which may arise in the future."

Revisions of the McCarran-Walter Act of 1952 are necessary, the President said, because some provisions operate inequitably and others are outmoded. Congressional leaders say that the changes would increase the Nation's flow of immigrants by 200,000 a year.

The President asked, among other things, that the annual number of quota immigrants be increased by 65,000 and that the system be overhauled to admit more Southern Europeans. The Chief Executive also requested that Congress make special provisions to admit foreign orphans adopted by Americans and that fingerprinting of aliens on brief visits here be eliminated.

Opposition to the plan was voiced by Rep. Francis E. Walter, co-author of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. He is chairman of the House Judiciary Immigration and Nationality Subcommittee.

The discriminatory effects of the McCarran-Walter bill are well known. The President is right in demanding changes.

The Chief's Wife

A $25 Bond Will Be Given for First Correct Answer

Younger generation: What the only thing wrong with is that they're not as old fashioned or fossilized as ourselves.

Here's an interesting query for some doughty historians. What was the name of Chief Pontiac's wife?

For the first correct answer reaching Man About Town personally—and note I say personally— The Press will give a $25 bond.

My authority is a recent historical novel which obviously will have to remain nameless for the present. A large part of the setting is in and around Detroit, and Pontiac is a leading character.

Incidentally, according to this same source, Pontiac's own name actually was O-Bwandiac and that was changed (presumably by the French) to Pondiac. After that, came the current spelling.

O.K. boys and girls. What was the great chief's wife' name?

Several people have told me that musical history was made when the

of 53 members gave their recent youth concert. It checks up another big mark on the yardstick by which we measure Pontiac and its people as world beaters.

Word comes to me from the director of the local district of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Allen F. Rush

of Lake Orion, that Oakland County is approaching the 100 per cent mark in its drive for members. Our quota is 1,120.

Living in the hills just north of Rochester,

Emery Glidden

has a pair of pet woodchucks (ground hogs) which he says always go into hibernation early in the winter and never emerge until in April.

Getting much enjoyment out of it,

Mrs. Roland Leclerc

of 405 Riverside Drive, for several years has been feeding a flock of 18 to 20 pheasants. They appear at exactly the same times every day.

Driving his automobile through a flock of quail on the Dixie Highway, of Clarkston killed several of them. "And it was just my hard luck that a state trooper saw me do it," he says.

We predict that Pontiac's own

who is going into television, may be able to help rescue the thing. But the patient is in a rather low condition.

Life size and larger figurines of people and animals done with the snow by

in her yard at 217 Marion St., are so realistic that one almost wishes that spring will be long delayed.

Verbal Orchids to—

of 280 Osmun St.; eighty-seventh birthday.

Mrs. Flora B. Jewell

of Oxford; eighty-fourth birthday.

Mrs. Rebecca Wheeler

of Fenton; eighty-seventh birthday.

His Halo's Slipping

David Lawrence Says:

Newsmen Must Heed Passport Rule

WASHINGTON — Many officials here are frankly disturbed about the attitude of those few newspapers which are upholding the three American newsmen who defied a restriction imposed by the government here and entered Communist China when their passports were not validated for that purpose.

To defy the government's passport rules on the grounds that the press has a right to do as it pleases in foreign travel, even though other citizens are restricted from doing so, is something of a surprise to officials who have always believed all citizens must be dealt with equally. These officials are confident that, if the issue could somehow be submitted to the American people, public opinion would never uphold the view of those who are refusing to go along with the policies of their own government in a delicate matter of international policy involving an enemy government.

LAWRENCE

As one official put it, the spokesmen for the viewpoint that the omission of visas on American passports can be disregarded in the interest of news-gathering pose the question of whether the press is above any requirement to support patriotically the government here by adhering to the regulations covering foreign travel.

The Supreme Court of the United States, which lays down what is sometimes called the "law of the land," has expressed itself on this very point on several occasions. It said in one case:

"The fact that the publisher handles news while others handle food does not . . . afford the publisher a peculiar constitutional sanctuary in which he can with impunity violate laws regulating his business practices.

NOT IMMUNE

"Nor is a publisher who engages in business practices made unlawful . . . entitled to a partial immunity by reason of the 'clear and present danger' doctrine which courts have used to protect freedom to speak, to print, and to worship . . . formulated as it was to protect liberty of thought and of expression, it would degrade the 'clear and present danger' doctrine to fashion from it a shield for business publishers who engage in business practices condemned by the . . . act."

In another case the Supreme Court, in its opinion, said:

"The publisher of a newspaper has no special immunity from the application of general laws. He has no special privilege to invade the rights and liberties of others. He must answer for libel. He may be punished for contempt of court. He is subject to anti-trust laws. Like others he must pay equitable and nondiscriminatory taxes on his business."

The argument has been advanced by certain members of the press that, while the Department of State has a right to prohibit some citizens from entering Red China—such as businessmen who would engage in transactions prohibited by the laws of Congress—news-gathering stands in a different category and really isn't "business." The Department of State said in its formal statement on the subject:

WOULD VIOLATE

"If an American reporter entered Communist China on a United States passport, that would violate the restriction of a document on travel in one of the three countries—Bulgaria, Albania and Red China."

Red China has repeatedly declined to give up American prisoners still held in violation of the Korean armistice. There has been a hint from Red China that these prisoners might be bartered if the newsmen came in, but the Washington government rightly refuses to be a party to such an attempt at blackmail.

LI'L ONES

"Come in. Dad's at the shaving stage and Mom is putting on her girdle."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Old-Time Snickersnee Laughs at Tonsillectomy

BOY DIES FOLLOWING SURGERY

Jack Doe, 12, son of Frank and Alice Doe (Person and place name changed), died unexpectedly Tuesday in Jones Hospital in county seat following a tonsil operation.

Hick County Coroner Dr. Feedham Hokum who performed the autopsy said the child died of cardiac arrest due to a constitutional weakness.

BRADY

Reminds me of a two-team practitioner who was at the pinnacle of success (as the laity rates it) at the time when I was first in practice. Among his boasts was the claim that he had never lost a case of pneumonia. No, siree, he invariably pulled them through unless they had heart-failure.

For all I know, this Smalltown boy may have had some defect which made him a bad risk. If so, why did the doctors subject him to tonsil operation?

The news item does not say so, but very likely the operation was tonsillectomy.

IS DANGEROUS

Tonsillectomy is the attempt to remove every bit of tonsil tissue from the throat. This involves extensive dissection, and it is in every instance a dangerous major operation.

And that isn't all.

Even though the operation proves fatal only here and there, and the great majority of victims stand it well and recover quickly—some of them, indeed, gaining obvious benefits from the operation—I say tonsillectomy is unnecessary.

A minor operation is quite as effective. It is tonsillotomy. This is instantaneous. It is no more dangerous than extraction of a tooth. It requires no more anesthesia and no more hospitalization than extraction of a tooth.

No, tonsillotomy doesn't "get every bit of tonsil." Neither does tonsillectomy, as honest surgeons admit. So, for Pete's sake, don't let the ever-ready operator use this argument to persuade you to accept tonsillectomy.

SNICKERSNEE, OVER!

The purpose of tonsillotomy is to remove obstructing tonsil tissue. One simply places the ring of the tonsillotome around the portion of tonsil that is to be removed, goes snickersnee, and the operation is over.

What is the purpose of tonsillectomy? I know of no purpose that justifies such radical surgery.

Theoretically tonsillectomy might be warranted as a desperate attempt to "get every bit of tonsil tissue," if tonsil tissue were malignant or in any way harmful, as the ever-ready operators seem to think it is.

"Cardiac arrest" means the heart stops beating. What "constitutional weakness" means, I don't know.

The question for every parent, yes for every physician to answer in his soul is whether this boy would not have lived had he been let off with tonsillotomy?

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Understanding Explains Mysteries

Larry is living among miracles. His parents seem like omniscient and omnipotent giants who tower above him physically. And they often know what Larry does even though they are absent from the house. This "Little Bird" that tells parents misdeeds of their youngsters, is just the greater deductive power that adults possess. For a 16-year mental age permits far greater reasoning than a four-year mind.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-301: Larry B., aged 4, is a typical livewire boy.

Recently his mother left him all alone in the house for five minutes while she went next door to borrow a cup of sugar from her neighbor.

Larry was playing in the living room. But he approached too near the large gold fish bowl on its pedestal, and accidentally knocked it to the floor.

It shattered and cast the flopping gold fish under the davenport. So Larry was panicky with fear. He quickly tried to rescue the gold fish but they slipped out of his hands.

Then he heard his mother's footsteps on the back porch, so he ran into his bedroom to look at some comic books.

When his mother arrived, she saw the havoc in the living room.

"Larry!" she called. "Where are you?"

"Here in my room looking at books," he innocently replied.

"Did you break the gold fish bowl?" she angrily charged.

"No," he answered in an effort to sidestep expected punishment.

"Yes you did," she contradicted him as she gave him a spanking.

"But how did you know?" Larry later inquired.

"Oh, a little bird tells mothers such things," she glibly replied.

MAGICAL LITTLE BIRDS

And at the age of 4 years, a child literally believes it must be this magical little bird which spies on them and then reports their misdeeds.

For our ability to perform involved thinking and derive logical solutions, is very limited.

Larry figured he could get away with his fib, for his mother wasn't present to witness his breaking of the gold fish bowl.

"If she didn't see me, how could she know I did it?" he wondered.

But his mother had more mental age. Instead of being only four, she had at least a mental age of 16, which is normal for adults.

And those additional years of mental development permitted her to make the following logical deductions:

"Larry was the only freely movable object in the living room when I went next door to the neighbor's.

"And there was no earthquake or other cause for the gold fish bowl to be knocked over.

"Ergo, Larry must have been the guilty party."

That seems so self-evident to us adults that we can hardly believe Larry couldn't also derive the same conclusion.

But that's because we adults have so much more mental age. We can see through situations that are actually incomprehensible to toddlers.

WHAT ARE MIRACLES?

Miracles are to be explained in much this same manner. For when a dramatic result can be produced which we don't understand, we usually ascribe it to a miracle.

In George Washington's day, it would have been a miracle if a person who was blind because of a cloudiness of the lenses of the eyes (Cataracts) could then have disappeared into a hospital for a few days and finally emerged with normal vision.

Such a former miracle is now a commonplace occurence in eye surgery. And our modern airplanes, radio, TV and many other ingenious inventions would have been labeled as miracles a few generations ago.

So we must not deny the possibilities of things which we cannot fully understand. For the Bible states that we are just a little lower than the angels.

When Larry attains his mother's age, he will understand many things which are now a puzzle to him. And so may we adults comprehend things that now seem "Greek" to us but are easily perceived after death.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Local Woman Is Opposed to Weed-Cutting Ordinance

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I am definitely opposed to the recommendation made at the recent meeting of the City Commission, that the weed-cutting ordinance be changed. If the recommendation were adopted and the funds allocated from the City budget, it would mean that the small home owner, who usually cuts his own weeds, is forced to help pay for cutting weeds for the real estate owners and others who own property for speculation reasons.

The City paying the bill is not going to solve the problem but only encourage residents to let them grow.

People who live in a city should have enough pride to want to keep their property clean, safe, healthy and more beautiful bu cutting their weeds, not allowing an accumulation of rubbish and debris and by snow and ice removal of their sidewalks in winter. If that pride is lacking, they should be assessed sufficiently high so they will be only too glad to comply.

I was shocked when I read the letter signed "Peace." The defeatism of people like this is what prevents the United States from taking action against the murders of Russia. The clash of arms in Hungary, China, Poland, and even Russia itself is heard.

I wish someone would explain to me how any Negro anywhere in the United States could vote the Democratic ticket.

The "solid south" is solid for the Democrats and solidly against the colored people. Southern Democrats are the very people that refuse to let Negroes ride in the front of the buses with the whites and in the railroad cars with the whites. The solid south — the Democrats — are the people that refuse to let Negro children go to school with their own white Democratic children. They insist they go to schools just for colored.

The solid south, the solid Democrats, are the only people that refuse to obey the Supreme Court. How can a colored man or woman vote the Democrat ticket when the Democrats are the ones that rule the south and deny the colored equal rights?

'Would New York Like Same Snub?'

New York City thumbed its municipal nose at King Saud. What would New York think if one of our top officials visited an Asiatic or European nation and got a pointed brush-off because our southern states insist on segregation in schools, on buses, riding on trains, etc.?

Animal Guild Protects Beasts Hounded From Pillar to Post-Palace Work

By IRWIN SAFCHIK

NEW YORK (INS) — A talking dog who once played the Palace but who is now reduced to begging scraps from the kitchen at Lindy's stumbled over to me the other day and proclaimed:

"In union there is strength."

At first, I dismissed him as one of those kennel dogs who are forever yapping about "The System." This particular mutt had been hounded out of vaudeville because he could no longer remember his lines, but he wouldn't admit it.

"I just wish this outfit had been around when I was doing the old Albee circuit," by best friend continued. "Minimum wages, retirement benefits, sick leave, vacations, travel accommodations befitting a star."

Sounds pretty good, I said, what is it? "A. G. A. A.," he snapped back, speaking in initials for the first time I could ever recall. Now, he really had me interested, so I asked what "A. G. A. A." stands for.

"American Guild of Animal Artists," he told me impatiently. "It's just getting started, which is why I suppose you never heard of it. Not that you probably give a hoot about animal artists," he sneered.

I assured him I did and applied for more information.

"The Guild is run by a couple of publicity gals named Margaret Gould and Peggy Foldes. They work with the owners of all sorts of animals in the theater world. Stage, screen, television, even the modeling racket."

"Modeling?" I asked, and my friend was off again. "Sure. They got a crow advertising bourbon, don't they? And a couple of scotties to sell scotch, and horses for beer and even a cat for railroads."

"What do they need a union for?" I wondered out loud.

"It's hot posing under those lights, man, and you have to stand around sometimes for hours before they're finally ready to snap the picture. I can remember once, I . . ."

STAND-IN PROBLEM

I interrupted to ask where the American Guild of Animal Artists fitted in. "Stand-ins," my friend answered quickly. "They try to get the photographers to use stand-ins for the real models. Just the other day I got an offer to . . ."

"What else does the Guild do?" I broke in again.

"Well, there was this friend of mine out on the coast. He got a walk-on role in 'The Sleeping Prince.' He doesn't play the part of prince, of course, but it's not a bad job at all. Got good reviews, too.

"Anyway, the theater he's appearing in is so old and run-down, naturally he gets fleas."

My friend paused to take care of his own before getting on with his story, "So the Guild tells the management, 'kindly clean up backstage,' which they do and no more fleas. Lucky dog."

Then he rambled on about an alligator in one Broadway play that was being given electric shocks to make it look ferocious when it came on stage, and about a monkey that caught cold from kissing Miss America on TV, and so on.

"Whenever the Guild hears about things like that, it asks the management not to let it happen again," he said, "and most of the time the management cooperates. You got to know how to handle management."

FRINGE BENEFITS

I agreed, and then I asked about the minimum wages, the sick leaves, the vacations, and all the other fringe benefits he had mentioned earlier.

"Well," he admitted, "The Guild doesn't have them yet, but it will, it will. For instance, it wants a 50-dollar-a-week minimum for any animal that is just carried on and off the stage and doesn't perform, and a 100 bucks for one that makes noise, and a 150 for one that actually acts."

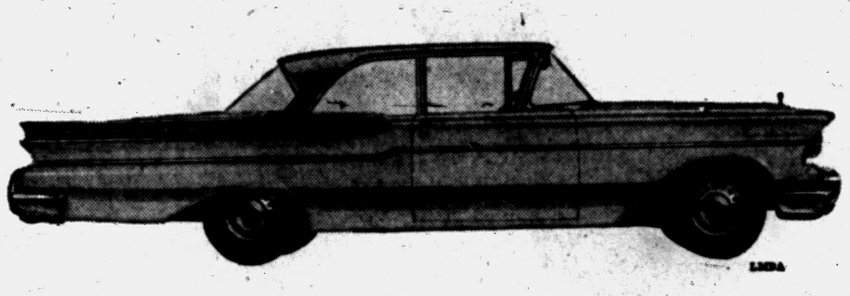

I looked at his rather skimpy frame and asked, "Any provision for food?"

Wistfully, hungrily, he replied: "Yessir, double rations on matinee days."

Elizabeth Taylor Enters Hospital

Back Ailment Recurs After Mexico Wedding to Mike Todd

NEW YORK (AP) — Film star Elizabeth Taylor, wife of producer Mike Todd, was in a hospital today for treatment of a recurring back ailment.

"It might be nothing, but we don't want to take chances,' Todd said as his 24-year-old brunette wife was placed on a stretcher at Idlewild Airport last night and put in an ambulance.

The newlyweds, married Feb. 2 in Acapulco, Mexico, flew in from Mexico City. Miss Taylor was taken to Harkness Memorial Pavilion of the Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. Todd said she was "resting comfortably."

She had entered the hospital Dec. 8 for treatment of a crushed spinal disc and was released Jan. 21. She and Todd then flew to Mexico, where she shed her second husband, actor Michael Wilding, a few days prior to her marriage to Todd.

Todd said a full medical examination was scheduled today.

Todd said his wife began to feel some pain in her back after a recent flight from Acapulco to Mexico City. He said the plane had encountered rough weather.

Unloaded Gun Harmless, Says Colorado Senator

DENVER (AP) — The gun that's unloaded before it's put in a car "doesn't fire six months later when it's in the closet at home."

That's the way State Sen. T. Everett Cook describes the thinking behind his bill to make it illegal to have a loaded weapon in an automobile.

The senator, who hunts mountain lions and big horn sheep, says the two main causes of fatal accidents with guns occur (1) when guns are being removed from automobiles, and (2) when children find them hidden away in the house.

Lots of Hot Talk About Air Conditioning

NEW YORK (INS)—Public relations fellow called up the other day and said, "Bill, I read your sports column every day. Did it ever occur to you to branch out, you know, write something not about sports? Oh, say a piece about air conditioning?"

It was snowing very hard at the time, so we said no.

"Air conditioning's a good story," he swore. "It's got humor, pathos, drama and sex."

We told him that all our air conditioner did was cool.

"You're ignoring the history behind air conditioning," he said, rustling his notes. "Do you know that snow was one of the earliest refrigerants. Roman emperors had it brought down in carloads from the Alps, had it piled around banquet halls on hot nights, and beautiful slave girls fanned it in the direction of the gluttons.

EDISON MADE ONE

"Edison invented one of the earliest window air conditioners to save the life of the daughter of one of his employes. The kid took sick, the weather turned terribly hot, and she couldn't be moved from the stifling hospital room. Looked like curtains until Edison showed up and—against violent objections—ordered the hospital people to close the doors and all the windows except one, which he left partly open. He put a box-like thing in the opening. Inside was a cake of ice and an electric fan.

"The kid lived but that was about all, for a time. She couldn't get interested in going on in life. So Edison would visit her and tell her stories about picnics in the woods and trips to the seashore. He made it very realistic, you see, he put pine needles on the ice when he talked of picnics, and for the talks about trips to the beach he sprinkled a chemical mixture over the ice to fill the room with salty sea breezes."

There was more in this man.

"You know the Worthington people? They've air conditioned a South African gold mine hundreds of feet below the ground—down where it was so hot the diggers were dying like flies. How did they do it? They put their air conditioning equipment on the mine's railroad cars, so it goes wherever the fellows must dig. It stopped prostrations, death, and colds."

"Do you realize that since the war it has become almost impossible to operate any business establishment anywhere without air conditioning? Even the newer jails get it, subway cars, baseball dugouts, museums, A-bomb factories, and the electric brain. What do you think, man?"

"I think it has stopped snowing," we said.

Klan Blamed for Bombings

Police Accuse KKK of Violence on Negroes in Alabama Capital

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Four bombings that rocked Montgomery in a recent outburst of racial violence are blamed by police on "members of the Montgomery branch of the Ku Klux Klan."

But a Klan spokesman said, "The Klan as an organization does not sanction nor does it condone such violence."

The Klansman, who refused to be named, said he "understood" some of the seven white men charged with participating in the violence belong to the KKK.

Evidence against the seven is being presented to a Montgomery County grand jury that went into session today.

Four men are charged with Jan. 10 bombings of Negro churches and homes and a service station-taxi stand since Montgomery city buses were racially integrated Dec. 21.

The other three are charged with misdemeanors of conspiracy in connection with dynamite bundles that failed to go off at two homes of prointegration ministers, one Negro and one white.

One of the four is also charged with shooting at one of the city buses racially integrated by federal court order.

Police Chief G. J. Ruppenthal said he met yesterday with "prosecuting officials who will present these cases to the grand jury and all law enforcement officers who actively participated in the investigations."

After the meeting, he said, "Our investigation, corroborated by statements of some of the accused themselves, shows that these (four) bombings were perpetrated by members of the Montgomery branch of the Ku Klux Klan."

"Investigation is continuing as to the unsolved bombings," he added.

THOMAS A. EDISON OPENED UP A NEW WORLD

Imagine what your life would be like without electricity. Imagine a world without electric lights, radio, television, motion pictures . . . without electric appliances . . . without X-ray and electrocardiograph equipment . . . without whole industries that are dependent on electric power.

How different a world it would be from the one we know! So different it's hard to realize that it has been only 77 years since Thomas A. Edison invented the first practical incandescent lamp and paved the way for the harnessing of electricity.

During this week people in all the various groups that make up the electrical industry join together to pay tribute to Edison and to other pioneers of electrical progress and to rededicate their industry to continuing progress and service to the nation.

Money Waiting for Right Entry in Pot-O-Gold

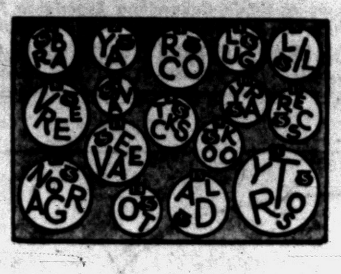

Unless there's a winner for last week's puzzle, this one is worth $700, so now's the time to get busy. Get started early and give yourself plenty of time to work out the right solution. Rules and clues are below. Be sure to check all of them carefully.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Trouble Keeps Brewing in Melting Pot of Algeria

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Violent death stabs day and night in Algeria, while meticulous French and Arab spokesmen fight their war of words in the United Nations.

What is Algeria? The French say it is theirs, a part of their homeland, and that Algerian nationalist freedom demands are no business of other nations, particularly Egypt and Russia. The latter two are accused of aiding an insurrection.

A Syrian spokesman says Algeria is French only by right of conquest, that its peoples must be granted self-determination.

Algeria is more than three times the size of Texas, and four times the size of metropolitan France.

Nationalism presupposes a nation. But Algeria is no nation. It has been settled by successive waves of colonists or invaders—Berbers, Romans, Arabs, Jews, Turks, and finally Europeans.

Pirate depredations along this famous Barbary Coast led to a French punitive expedition in 1830, preceding French conquest and colonization.

One million of its 9,500,000 citizens are of European origin, most of them born and reared there, and mostly French. Natives are a mixture of more than 20 races. No one knows for sure what to call those of non-European origin. Usually they settle for the word Arab.

The European minorities regard themselves every bit as much "Algerian" as do their Berber-Arab neighbors. But no fusion has occurred under the French "assimiliation" policy. The number of mixed marriages is negligible.

The real political problem, therefore, is how to solve the relations between these two widely differing communities.

French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau has outlined long-range plans to promote formation of a European-African community. He insists that the revolutionaries are a minority in Algeria and that all peoples would profit once a vast common market was created in a "Eurafrica" organization.

Pineau specifically mentioned the resources of a territory still almost devoid of population, the Sahara Desert.

INTERESTS COLLIDE

And, of course, nationalism and great power interests collide behind the scenes in the Sahara, whose resources are believed to be very rich. Oil of high purity already has been found at Edjele, near the Libyan border.

Russian penetration of Africa is part of the long-range goal of converting the world to communism. The short-range goal is to rob the Western allies of valuable military bases.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's active aims in Algeria and elsewhere represent the dream of creating a Pan-Islamic bloc.

Islam actually is the main unifying force among Moslem Algerians because their huge area is a big melting pot. Some call it a witches' brew.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The honors went to philanthroist Elsinore Machris and shoe manufacturer Harry Karl. But the oohs—. That's right, Jayne Mansfield was there.

The occasion was the 28th annual charity ball of the Junior Auxiliary of the Los Angeles Jewish Home for the Aged.

Mrs. Machris and Karl received awards for their efforts in behalf of the home's residents. Film executive Louis B. Mayer was host of the affair, held last night at a Los Angeles hotel. Zsa Zsa Gabor was a hostess.

But one of the "cigarette girls" named Jayne garnered most of the attention. Her cigaretts were priced the same as those of the other cigarette girls — but her gown was cut a trifle lower.

Cadillac

International Synonym for "Achievement"!

Mention the name "Cadillac" wherever you will—in any part of the civilized world—and you will find a common meeting-ground of understanding.

For "Cadillac" is part of the international language—and its meaning is known and understood wherever highways lead.

It is, in brief, a world-wide synonym for personal achievement!

And this is, we think, entirely logical. For over the years, the Cadillac car has played a vital role in the lives of so many of the leading citizens of every community where motor cars are seen.

Cadillac is, in fact, the predictable choice of those whose choice is unrestricted.

This, of course, is not to say that a motorist need necessarily possess an abundance of this world's goods in order to enjoy the great satisfaction of Cadillac ownership.

On the contrary, today's Cadillac car represents one of the soundest of all automotive investments.

Consider, for instance, the economy of buying a Cadillac. Several models are actually priced competitively with much smaller, lighter cars.

Consider the practical aspects of driving a Cadillac. The car is remarkably economical from a standpoint of both maintenance and operation.

And lastly, think of the wisdom of owning a Cadillac. Year after year, Cadillac returns a greater share of its owner's original investment than any other motor car in the land.

In other words, wisdom and practicality can lead you to the "car of cars" just as surely as prominence and prosperity.

We suggest that you come in soon—that you spend an hour at the wheel—and that you delay no longer in making the magic move to Cadillac.

We'll be looking for you—soon.

Why You Get Fat: First in a Series

Too Much Food, Too Little Exercise Makes Overweight National Problem

Editor's Note: The following article is the first in a six-part series about the problem of licking overweight by Gaynor Maddox, NEA food and markets editor, and an authority on nutrition.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEW YORK (NEA)—Take your clothes off, stand in front of a full-length mirror, take a hard, uncompromising look at yourself.

Embarrassed by those bulges? Shocked to find that slowly, unnoticed before, five to 10 pounds have snuck up on you?

Rapidly, the United States is becoming a nation of the over-weight.

Scientists who have specialized in this problem as it affects health and longevity warn us that we are paying a high price in health hazards by eating more food than we need.

And we are exerting ourselves too little physically to burn up those extra calories. Every calorie beyond those we use goes to fat.

Why are so many of us today heavier and bulgier than we should be?

Dr. Charlotte M. Young, professor of Medical Nutrition at Cornell University and one of the most distinguished scientists in the field of weight-reduction, says many factors in modern living contribute to this alarming intake of calories far in excess of our energy needs.

FOOD EVERYWHERE

"We live in a highly competitive society and one of food surpluses. Every effort is made to induce us to buy and use more food," she comments. "Our hospitality is tied up with food. Few meetings of any kind are completed without refreshments."

Dr. Young said further: "Our spectator-type recreation often is accompanied by the double penalty of refreshments. We live in anxious times without much physical outlet for our anxieties. For many, food becomes a solace.

"Also, these are times of too much unplanned leisure, sometimes resulting in great boredom which in turn often leads to excessive eating and drinking.

"We need a reconsideration of our food habits and meal patterns in line with our dimished physical activities," she adds.

Dr. James H. Hundley of the National Institute of Health Bethesda, Md., one of the country's outstanding men in this increasing problem, estimates that about one-fifth of all adults over 30 are overweight.

"Due to increase in our total population and the increased proportion of older people, the magnitude of the obesity problem will undoubtedly increase," he said.

Agreeing with him, Dr. Pearl Swanson of Iowa State College, another distinguished researcher in this field, estimates that of the 650,000 women in Iowa alone, about 275,000 who are over 30 are hauling around more than six million pounds (3,000 tons) of body weight they would be much better off without.

Today, more and more of us are living to an age when diabetes, cardiovascular and other diseases associated with overweight exact a heavy toll.

Therefore, if we as a nation are to improve the health and stamina of our people, we face the puffy fact that overweight and its associated diseases is a major problem that must be solved.

Are we facing it? Yes. In the last 10 years there has been a tremendous upsurge of activity in weight control—surveys, public health programs, new methods of weight control, educational techniques, new weight reduction aids.

But the overall warning of every scientific researcher polled by NEA for these articles is this:

Don't allow yourself to put on extra weight in the first place.

But if you have put on weight and are determined to lose it either because of vanity or health, remember that no safe and permanent way is easy. No "magical" quick way is safe.

ANY PROGRESS?

Are we making progress in the battle against obesity?

"From the practical aspect — in some individuals, yes, but in the majority of those afflicted, not much," Dr. Hundley wrote recently in a scientific report.

"Often a surprisingly high percentage succeed in losing weight but only a few maintain it. While temporary reductions in weight may convey some health benefit, and even unsuccessful attempts may aid by preventing further increase in excess weight, this picture leaves much to be desired."

Rapid progress will come neither easily nor quickly. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, he added, stating that it is a general experience that overweight is usually more easily managed in its early stages than when well established.

To bring its readers the best practical advice on how to loose their bulges and increase their chances for a longer life, NEA Service has interviewed five of the most distinguished researchers and physicians in the weight-reduction field.

They include Dr. Frederick J. Stare of Harvard University; Dr. Norman Jolliffe, director of nutrition of New York City's Department of Health; Dr. Ruth Leverton of Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College; Dr. Charles Glen King, director of the Nutrition Foundation and professor of chemistry, Columbia University, and Dr. Herman Pollack, chairman of the nutrition committee of the American Heart Association.

In the exclusive interviews to follow in this newspaper, these generals in the battle against obesity will give you sound, safe, human, encouraging and practical advice on how to look and feel like the man or woman you were intended to be.

Rob Anchorage Store; Take Anything but Cash

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)— Lee Delarm, who operates the Four Corners Market, likes folks to visit the store with a long shopping list. But he told police he prefers customers during business hours, and not in the middle of the night.

He reported that burglars broke into the market and left with 20 pounds of butter, two boxes of cigars, potato chips, coffee, candy, canned hams, leather wallets, flash lights and a supply of batteries, 32 cartons of cigarettes and $25 worth of ice cream.

Delarm said he was puzzled because the loot included no money —but did include seven cases of empty soft drink bottles.

Actress Lili Palmer Shows Signs of Strain

BERLIN (INS) — Actress Lili Palmer, who won a Mexican divorce from actor Rex Harrison earlier this week, stayed in her Berlin hotel room today postponing her scheduled departure for Munich until tomorrow.

A spokesman said a doctor visited the tired and overwrought Miss Palmer and found her in "a bad state of nerves."

She refused to see visitors at the hotel.

Miss Palmer arrived in Berlin from the United States yesterday with actor Carlos Thompson for last night's premier of their German-made film, "Between Time and Eternity."

Expect Truman to Give Views

Ex-President May Tell His Opinions on Mideast in Florida Speech

ISLAMORADA, Fla. (AP)—Former President Harry Truman visiting this Florida Keys hamlet for a working vacation, is expected to give his views of the touchy Middle East situation in a speech tomorrow night. But he is keeping mum at the moment.

Truman will be the principal speaker at a combined Jewish Appeal fund-raising dinner at Miami Beach, first of four addresses he is scheduled to make during his three-week visit in this area.

The former President declined to discuss the Middle East situation with reporters when he arrived in Miami by train yesterday.

Earlier he said "no price is too high for peace" in answer to a query about President Eisenhower's record peacetime defense budget.

"It is a lot cheaper than the price of a third world war," he said.

He also indicated approval of the Eisenhower Doctrine for military and economic aid to the Middle East should it be necessary to halt Communist aggression there.

At a stopover in Jacksonville, reporters asked him if he thought Southern members of Congress were justified in their attitude toward civil rights. He retorted:

"They certainly are not justified. I, for one, have never been opposed to civil rights. Those Southern congressmen know it too."

Goldfish-Bowl Existence Strain for Queen, Duke

In the midst of the furor over reports — officially denied — of strained relations between Queen Elizabeth and her handsome, easy-going husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, a veteran palace correspondent herewith takes a close look at their marriage, now in its 10th year. In this first article of three, Fred Doerflinger reports on the strains and challenges that confront the royal couple in their "goldfish bowl" existence and how it affects them and their lives together.

By FRED DOERFLINGER

LONDON (INS)—"And they lived happily together forever after," says the fairy tale, concluding its story of the beautiful princess and the handsome prince on their wedding day.

The rest is left to romantic imagination.

But the world is not a storybook land. The princess—now Queen Elizabeth II—and the prince—the Duke of Edinburgh—have not been able to live these past nine years and three months in a fairy tale.

This is the story of their married life, not as romantically imagined but as they actually have had to live it—the dashing prince and the dignified princess who became a queen.

Their wedding took place on Nov. 20, 1947, when Elizabeth was 21 and Philip 26. They were distant cousins, both being the great-great-grandchildren of Queen Victoria. They'd known each other since childhood, but their romance really began in 1939.

CADET SQUIRED PRINCESS

Philip was the cadet who squired the royal visitors when King George brought his family, including the charming "Lilibet," to the Dartmouth Royal Naval School. When the King's launch sailed away, yellow-haired Philip followed in a rowboat, waving.

He and Elizabeth began corresponding soon afterward, and, following the war, were seen in public together. There was no trouble getting royal or popular—acceptance for the match, since Philip was both royal and popular himself.

Every possible barrier was removed to Philip's entrance into Britain's ruling family. He was created Duke of Edinburgh, Earl of Merioneth and Baron Greenwich on the eve of the wedding and was given the privilege of being called "Your Royal Highness."

Just six days before their first wedding anniversary, Elizabeth gave birth to Prince Charles. On Aug. 15, 1950, Princess Anne was born. On Feb. 6, 1952, King George VI died, and Elizabeth became the queen.

Even before that, of course, the royal couple was almost constantly in the public eye. But the ascension to the throne made it even more difficult for Philip and Elizabeth to lead anything resembling a normal life.

LITTLE PRIVACY

Every step they took was watched closely by Britain and the world. Criticism followed swiftly on the heels of any deviation from the accepted norm of royal behavior.

Philip in particular has been subject to many slings and arrows of outraged public opinion. Once, he spoke out on the question of national conscription, saying he hoped it would be continued indefinitely.

"Royal meddler," brayed a Scottish newspaper, calling Philip's views "an intolerable intrusion in political affairs."

Even at court, he has caused eyebrows to be raised as he attempted to sweep away the suffocating cobwebs left by the prudish Victorian past.

HAS MODERN VIEWS

Philip is a modern man whose impatience with excessive protocol was hardly lessened by his wartime naval experience. Therefore, he has shocked some entrenched oldtimers at the castle who feel that the idea of a monarchy will wither away and die from lack of public support unless there is strict adherence to traditional pomp and circumstance.

Elizabeth has seemed far more amenable than Philip to meeting the demands of musty old tradition, but even she has shown signs of wanting—and needing—at least an occasional respite.

Last October, she and the prince stayed out until 3 a.m. at a coming-of-age party thrown for the Duke of Kent. It would have knocked the stuffings out of great-great-grandma Victoria to see the royal couple taking part in the rock 'n' roll revelry.

SHOWS STRAIN

Usually, her devotion to duty will not permit her to unbend for a moment. The result, according to palace sources, is that she has grown tense and tired, completely unable to relax properly or satisfactorily.

Her preoccupation with official life and her eagerness to succeed, coupled with her desire to live up to the very highest standards of royal behavior, is taking its toll.

There has been no hint of a "breakdown," but there have been suggestions that her queenly duties prevent her from filling her equally important roles of wife and mother as well as she would like.

As for Philip, his free and easy manner, or, as it is sometimes called, his "common touch," is not approved unanimously. Even his occasional habit of walking with his hands behind his back has offered a target for the snipers who charge he is "cheapening" the royal family.

He is commended for performing many of the Queen's public functions, and, at the same time, he is criticized for not doing enough.

His trips overseas have been praised as contributions to the unity of the British commonwealth—until the gossips start raising a howl because he doesn't spend enough time at home.

Although there have been whispers even before now of occasional "differences" between the Queen and her prince-consort, they have always appeared deeply devoted to each other in public. And such intimates as have, however discreetly, discussed the royal couple's private life have for the most part staunchly maintained, in the face of whatever rumors, that Philip and his Lilibet" are ideally suited.

But the stresses and strains of their protocol-ruled life show. Elizabeth, badgered on one side by those who feel she yields too little to the prince, is attacked from the other by Victorians who chide her for not requiring his more strict behavior.

For both of them the years have not been easy.

Perhaps, it's just that the fairy tale prince and princess who "lived happily together forever after" locked themselves up in their castle and were never heard of again.

(Tomorrow: The "private" life of the queen and her consort.)

Home Project Speeds Retirement

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Emerson said, "The shadow is just as much proof of the sun's existence as the sunbeam."

I think of that when people tell me their success stories. Often, the biggest success began because of some shadow, some sort of disadvantage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. are a good example of this.

They are a cheerful couple in their mid-50s, who were able to retire from business sooner than they thought and have a service of their own.

"It all began during the last war," Mrs. F. told me.

"We traveled all over the country, as Jim was sent to one Army post after another, teaching. We lived in a series of weird places, but I became very good at fixing them up.

"After all, when you're going to stay in an apartment, even for six months, it pays to make some additions or changes which will make it attractive.

RADIATOR COVERS

"Sometimes they were simple things, sometimes more complicated, like radiator covers. I hate ugly radiators. I used to draw a rough picture of the kind of cover I wanted and Jim would make it—he's quite a good carpenter.

"Sometimes it would be a bookshelf to equalize an uneven wall, sometimes a new mantel, sometimes a window seat or a ledge for plants.

"When the war was over we bought an old house in town and fixed it up. We did it so well, that friends began asking our advice.

"Our city has many old houses and old apartments which have a lot of charm but need improvements, artistically and decoratively speaking."

Then, Mr. F. piped up.

"For several years," he said, "we gave more free advice than you can imagine. Finally, I drew the line and announced that from then on we were in the business of household improvements!"

ROUGH PICTURE

"It worked, too!" Mrs. F. smiled. "People began hiring us, in Jim's free time, to fix things up. I usually do the designing—a big word for a simple thing! I just draw a rough picture of what I think will do the trick. Then Jim does it.

"Three years ago we had so much business that Jim retired from his job and we went into our own service, full-time. And we love it!"

Starting a home service can be a very gratifying thing—but it has some pitfalls, too.

If you are considering it, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of The Pontiac Press, and I'll send you my pamphlet, "How To Set Up a Home Service."

Gene Kelly Says 'Oscars' for Dancing Thing of 'Far Future' in Hollywood

By LEE BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Hollywood film hoofers are "also rans" when the annual Academy Awards Oscars are handed out, but top dancer Gene Kelly thinks that's the way it ought to be.

Instead of beating his gums about dancers being discriminated against in the Oscar field, Kelly says there should be no terpsichorean doorsteps until movie producers get around to turning out "straight dancing films."

"They shouldn't give an Oscar to a dancer until we make an all-dance film," Kelly declared. "Suppose a person performed magnificently as a dancer and was a lousy actor?"

In 1941 Fred Astair received a special Oscar for his "unique artistry" and James Cagney won a golden statuette in 1942 for "Yankee Doodle." Although he danced in the film, he won the Oscar for "performance," not for hoofing.

"There are not enough dancers in Hollywood," Kelly said, "to warrant forming a special Oscar category for them. Neither are there enough dancing pictures.

CHANCES POOR

"This makes chances of a dancer getting an Oscar very poor indeed."

Kelly also pointed out that a dancer is handicapped by the fact that he spends all his life training his body and neglecting his acting talent.

The only successful straight dancing film ever made in Hollywood was Kelly's "Invitation to the Dance" in which he starred without uttering a single word of dialogue.

Gene, who just completed a straight dramatic role in his self-produced, self - directed "Happy Road" in France, also is the recipient of an honorary Oscar.

He was handed a golden statuette in 1951 "in appreciation of his versatility as an actor, singer, director and dancer and especially for his achievements in film choreography."

But Oscars for straight dancing, he believes, are in the far distant future.

"Even today," he said, "there's not enough national interest in the classic dance."

Should Wife or Husband Ask Guests?

By Emily Post

A reader tells me: "My husband is in business and has a local attorney do his legal work. We would like to invite him and his wife to dinner. Up to about a year ago I have only seen and met his wife for 15 minutes one evening.

"Should my husband call him at his office, or house, and invite them or is it my place to call them?

Another question: If I telephone, do I extend the invitation to the first person who answers the telephone, or do I specifically ask for her if her husband answers? I can only call her at night."

Answer: You should be the one to invite them. If he should answer when you telephone, tell him that you would like to speak to his wife in order to invite them both to dinner.

---

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have received a formal invitation to a hotel reception being given by my aunt for my cousin and her husband who are returning for a visit from abroad where they were married two years ago. No gift was sent at the time of their mariage. I'd like to know if it is necessary now to take, or send, a gift on this occasion."

---

Answer: There is no obligation to send a present, but if you regretted not being able to send a gift at the time of the marriage you may quite properly send one now.

Warn Tots to Beware of Molesters

Parents Have Duty to Instill Caution, Avoid Fear Tactics

INS Staff Writer

One of a parent's grimmest duties is to warn a child against possible molesters.

As our children outgrow the nursery and march out the door to school, I find they haven't outgrown their original joy of greeting everyone they see with a cheery "Hi."

It could be dangerous. Children have been attacked in cities and small towns alike. John Enright who is raising a daughter in Chicago—where Barbara Grimes, 15, her sister Pat, 13, were stripped and killed, scarcely a year after three young boys met a similar fate—hopes to curb the danger.

Enright is a police captain. As a commander of the Kensington district, he is sending a picked patrolman to the area's 29 schools to lecture pupils on how to foil molesters.

But this is aimed at "picking up where the parents leave off." Capt. Enright's office presents do's and don'ts. Some are:

SAFETY RULES

"Never let strangers touch you or come too close. Never accept candy or other gifts from strangers. Never get into autos or into houses with strangers.

"If someone tries to pick you up, tell the teacher, parents or police. Always go straight to your destination and straight home again."

The answer to why, demanded by all curious youngsters, should come from mom and dad. As a father, Capt. Enright believes girls of elementary school age can be "told" best by their mother. Boys usually look to their father for "serious talk."

Enrights rule of thumb is, "whichever parent the youngster jumps into the lap" of can set him straight at a tender age "without making him anti-social."

Smart to Be Simple

Making your clothes money do the most for you is chiefly a matter of learning that simplicity in dress is both smart and inexpensive. This means avoiding fluffy ruffles and fancy draping.

Child's Theft Challenges Morality

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The flashlight was 3 inches long. It was made of scarlet plastic threaded with a fine brass chain. When Donald, who owned it, let Bobby switch it on, it clicked with what seemed to him the most satisfying click any flashlight could ever make.

Bobby wanted it. Quite suddenly he wanted it so terribly that he couldn't imagine not having it. For Bobby was just 4, and his confidence in the world's eagerness to please him was lamost as pure as though the Garden of Eden had never been lost to us.

Accordingly, he stole Donald's flashlight.

His mother discovered it in his jeans at bedtime. Because he wished to keep it instead of returning it to Donald, he was reluctant to admit its ownership.

I'm glad to say that his mother understood his conflict perfectly; and instead of reading wicked remorselessness into it, said gently, "Yes, it is a beautiful flashlight. But it must be returned to Donald. Daddy will go with you to his house tomorrow morning and comfort you along the way."

The next morning on the way home from Donald's, Bobby's father told him why he'd had to make Bobby return the flashlight.

Describing a toy watch that had been stolen from him as a little boy, he said, "I looked for it everywhere. And everwhere I looked, I'd think, 'Maybe I'll find it here.' Then one day the boy who took it gave it back to me. It was broken.

"This is why we can't let you take things from children without asking. We can never be sure how much the children love the things."

This kind of explanation of our point of view is all that is needed in these situations.

As to whether we should or not use the word "stealing" to Bobby, I don't think it matters a whoop. I think all that matters to him is the tenderness we feel for the primeval innocence in him that still sees wanting and receiving as one and the same thing.

If we feel this tenderness, we can declare our own post - Eden morality to Bobby with profit. It's good for him to learn that we respect Donald's feeling for his flashlight even though we don't demand this respect from Bobby.

Even though he's lost the toy, he's conforted to know that he is the child of people to whom other children's feelings are important, too.

It's the quality of our own morality that is challenged by childish stealing.

Here's Some Help for Underweight Women

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Every once in a while I have to harass my underweight readers. Actually, underweight may be very frustrating for a woman, especially in this day when a premium seems to be placed on curves.

The lady with too few pounds may have a flat bust or extremely thin legs. Many write to me wanting to know how to increase the hips. So today, I would like to give you a few rules for gaining weight and a couple of exercises for building curves.

1. Eat a well-balanced diet but do not "stuff" at meals. Instead eat five smaller ones.
2. Drink a quart of milk daily and add a little cream to one or two glasses.
3. Get at least eigh. hours sleep as a habit.
4. Take a vitamin capsule or two which gives you all the vitamins. (Vitamin B complex seems to be an aid in pound gathering.)
5. Take a few short rest periods during the day—lie down and relax completely.
6. Take mild exercises. Swimming is a wonderful way to build lovely curves and put on pounds. Deep breathing exercises and walking are good for you.
7. Avoid hurrying and worrying.
8. Whenever you can, eat in a happy and relaxing atmosphere.
9. When feasible lie down for a short rest before your largest meal.

SOME EXERCISES

For bust development—Stand or sit in front of a mirror. Bend your elbows and raise your arms forward, a little above shoulder height. Grasp the left forearm with the right hand and the right forearm with the left hand.

Push the elbows toward one another as you resist with the hands. Relax and continue. If you see and feel your chest muscles move you are doing the exercise correctly.

For calf development — Stand erect. Rise high on the toes. Slowly lower the heels to the floor. This is one of the simplest and most effective exercises.

Start out slowly and increase gradually until you are doing this exercise 50 times in the morning and 50 times before going to sleep at night. You can take little rest periods in between every 10 times.

For calf development — Stand erect. Rise high on the toes. Slowly lower the heels to the floor.

5-POINT PROGRAM TO PROLONG YOUTH

Today it is possible to look 10 to 15 years younger than you are, and actually to be years younger physically than your chronological age.

I would like to give you Dr. C. Ward Crampton's five-point program for postponing aging and prolonging youthfulness. Dr. Crampton is one of New York's distinguished physicians and humanitarians. Years ago he was an advocate of periodic health examinations and of keeping a lifelong record of these. Today this is becoming usual practice.

Here are the five points:

1. "Have fun. Every day laugh, sing, dance play." He suggests that you laugh three times a day or more, at least before meals. Laughter is medicinal. It stirs up circulation and respiration and aids digestion. I imagine it is also stimulating to the glandular system in a wonderful way, and it's relaxing too.
2. "Do work. Keep doing real, worthy work, full-time, part-time, sometime." We all know boredom is an ager and a killer. Dr. Crampton says, "To do work is normal, to retire to idleness is dangerous."
3. "Be strong; get the best and newest vitality by getting age-fighting and rehabilitation methods from your physician. Let him guide you and follow you closely, as a coach, for the race of your life."

WORK FOR GOD

4. "Praise God; the happiest people of all are those who enjoy working for Him."
5. "Give service; add the happiness of others to your own."

These five points were printed in the New York State Journal of Medicine a couple of years ago. Certainly our lives will be richer and we will remain young longer if we follow these.

Tomorrow?—"How Does it Feel to Find Those Bulges Melting?"

Some Shun White House Invitations

Formal Receptions Viewed as Ordeal by Old Hands

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Most folks are exceedingly proud to be invited to the White House. Some lock their engraved invitations in vaults for their grandchildren to see. Some frame them and hang them on their wall for everyone to see.

An invitation to the White House is like a royal command. Illness, absence from town or a death in the family are about the only excuses a person is supposed to give for not attending.

A bid to the White House is supposed to supercede all other invitations. That's why local hostesses await anouncement of the official list of dinners and receptions before making plans for their own shindigs.

In recent years, however, more and more people stay away, and not for the reasons given above, though illness or absence from town may be the cause given.

The ones who stay away from the receptions are chiefly those who've been there many times before and find the whole routine an ordeal, especially the long wait in the reception line.

FLEETING MEETING

When people are finally ushered into the Blue Room to be received by the President and First Lady, the meeting is usually perfunctory and fleeting.

Then they inch their way into the State Dining Room, where the mob is usually crushing, the punch unspiked, and the refreshments light to say the least.

One society reporter, Betty of the Washington Evening Star, offered a suggestion several seasons ago.

She thought it would be a good idea to have the President and First Lady stand in the East Room by the entrance to the adjoining Green Room where everybody could observe them 10 minutes or more before shaking hands.

"The Eisenhowers could relax during their mid-reception break in the Green Room, and the Blue and Red Rooms could help relieve the jam in the dining room," she suggested.

DOWN THE STAIRS

Cabinet members and their wives always accompany the presidential pair down the marble staircase from their private suite on the second floor.

They are about the only ones who get a chance to really visit with the hosts.

And only the highest-ranking guests, who are the first to reach the East Room, get a good look at the hosts as they proceed to their places in the receiving line.

A handsome blouse and skirt combination to sew in different fabrics, combine to suit your mood. Blouse can be worn in or outside the skirt. Full skirt provided, too.

No. 8476 with Patt-O-Rama included is in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 12, sleeveless blouse, 1⅞ yards of 35-inch; straight skirt, 2 yards of 39-inch.

For this pattern, send 35c in coins, your name, address, size desider, and the pattern number to Sue Burnett, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Include 25 cents more with your pattern order for the Spring & Summer '57 issue of our pattern book, Basic Fashion. It contains dozens of smart new styles for all ages; gift pattern printed inside the book.

Dime Returns 'Home'

LA GRANGE, Ga. (AP) — T. A. White had his initial engraved on a good luck 1877 dime in 1925. Later he spent it by mistake in Long Beach, Calif. Now, 31 years later, he reports he received the same coin from a vending machine operator here.

Brick Houses Increase

WASHINGTON — The Structural Clay Products Institute reports that 38 per cent of the single-family houses being built in the United States today are brick houses, a rise of 15 per cent over the figure of a year ago.

Poor 'Mr. Average' Gets Tiny Stake When Saud Divides Up Rich Oil Pot

NEW YORK (INS) — Although there are many mysteries about oil-rich Saudi Arabia, perhaps one of the greatest is just how the money goes.

The desert land, three times as big as Texas with a fifth of the world's known petroleum reserves, gets some $300 million a year for its oil.

But where does this $300 million go?

How much does King Saud Ibn-Abdul Aziz Al-Saud take for himself? How much goes to the seven million poverty-stricken citizens. Why does Saudi Arabia need American arms and economic aid?

A recent deficit $393 million budget, which officials say is just about the same as this year's, was parcelled out like this:

Almost 60 per cent to the ministers, 15 per cent to public works, 12 per cent to the royal family, about 5 per cent for government administration and most of the rest for debt.

GETS $44 MILLION

That 12 per cent to the royal family amounted to about $44 million. Out of it came the $12 million for the personal expenses and gifts of Saud, his brothers, sons and wives.

But the budget doesn't show exactly how the money was spent. King Saud controls Saudi Arabia—it's his—and if he wants to spend money somewhere, he does.

Thus hospitals may be built on his order out of the public works allotment, out of the health ministry allotment or out of his own $44 million budget.

INCLUDES PALACES

By the same token the public works and other funds used in rebuilding might include new palaces. Both the capital of Riyadh and the seaport of Jiddah have been rebuilt. The king has a new palace in Jiddah, cost about $28 million, and is replacing the old one in Riyadh with a new one to cost an estimated $50 million.

The $44 million royal family allotment includes such government expenses as: About $7 million "for sheiks and tribes," some $6 million for transportation, almost $2 million for salaries, $5 million for aids and contributions, some $2 million for charities and a million to the "chief of complaints."

Omar Kamil Haliq, alternate Saudi Arabian representative to the United Nations said that "about 40 per cent" of the king's own, personal $12 million — which comes out of that $44 million—goes to "fulfillment of requests for schools, wells, clinics, scholarships," salaries for his brothers—the princes—and the like.

BIG SUM TO DEFENSE

The ministries get about $260 million a year. The biggest allotment is to the defense ministry, $126 million. That includes the army, air force, coastal guards and the civil Saudi Arabian Air Lines—which makes a profit.

But the interior ministry, with a $21 million cut, has its own army, a sort of Bedouin security police force. And the "government" pays about two and a half million dollars to the Wahabi "Society for Virtue" to monitor morals.

Public works is allocated about $61 million a year. The ministers spend another $15 million for building. Plus of course, whatever the king may spend out of his own allotment.

RADIO DEVELOPED

Major projects of the government include: A new completed radio-telephone system linking Saudi Arabia cities with world capitals, enlargement of two and establishing a third radio station, extending the railroad from the seacoast to the inland capital, expanding the airlines, expanding port facilities at Jiddah and Damman and enlarging the ports of Jaizan, Yanbu, Al-Khobar and Al-Qunfudha.

DAM FINISHED

During 1956 the 'Akramah dam was finished across Waji Valley in western Saudi Arabia. Similar dams are planned. In the last two years, such government aid doubled the country's water supply.

Last year $18 million was allocated to education. About 3,800 teachers have been hired, many from outside the country. There are 570 schools with 69,000 students —in a population of about 7,000,000.

Last year's health ministry allocation was some $2 million to back a three-year program for 22 hospitals, 60 clinics and many mobile units. There are now 65 government-sponsored hospitals, 10 private and three military hospitals plus 78 clinics.

But any way you cut a $350 million cake from oil and other sources, it averages out to only about $50 a year for each poverty-stricken citizen.

2 Freighters Collide in New York Port

NEW YORK (AP)—Two freighters, one inbound, and the other outbound, collided early today in New York Harbor. The collision set one vessel afire. There were no injuries.

The fire in two forward holds of the 6,625-ton Marine Courier of the Marine Transport Corp. burned three hours before it was brought under control.

Damage to the second vessel, the 7,047-ton American Export Lines' Exbrook, was a stove-in bow. The outbound Exbrook ripped a deep gash in the port side of the inbound Marine Courier, which took on water and developed a slight list.

Cause of the collision was not known immediately.

Red Wings Add Point to NHL Lead

Detroit Beats, Ties Chicago Over Weekend

Gordie Howe's Goal Forces 2-2 Deadlock With Hawks

CHICAGO (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings added a point to their first place margin in the National Hockey League standings last night—thanks to Gordie Howe and the New York Rangers in New York.

Howe's timely goal midway in the final period forced a 2-2 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks. And New York's unexpected 5-4 victory over second-place Montreal boosted the Wing's NHL standing to 68 points—four ahead of the Canadiens.

Detroit goalie Glenn Hall who shut out the Hawks Saturday night 3-0 reaped a windfall from the New York victory. Hall increased his lead over Montreal goalie Jauques Plante in the Vezina trophy race to four goals.

Howe's goal—his 32nd of the season—was a short kill shot that finished off a rapid-fire passing play involving Ted Lindsay and Alex Delvecchio.

Howe's goal and Lindsay's assist kept the teammates tied at second place in the NHL scoring race. Montreal's Jean Believeau collected two assists last night to boost his lead to 66 points. Howe and Lindsay are deadlocked at 64.

The Wings went ahead at 8:44 of the first period when Johnny Bucyk beat Chicago goalie Al Rollins on a long screened shot. It was Bucyk's 7th goal of the campaign.

Hec Lalande tied the game at 12:52 of the second frame with a close range shot that whipped past Hall. Eddie Litzenberger put the Hawk's in front with a goal-mouth conversion of Ron Ingram's pass.

Each goalie had 27 saves.

Detroit now has won eight, lost one and tied two against Chicago this season.

A LONELY RED WING — Red Wing center Alex Delvecchio (10) finds himself surrounded by Chicago Black Hawks as he tried to make a shot in the first period at Chicago Stadium last night. Black Hawk players identified are goalie Al Rollins (right) and defenseman Elmer Vasko (left). Detroit and Chicago battled to a 2-2 tie. On Saturday in Detroit, the Wings won a 3-0 verdict from the Hawks.

Terrang Clouds Handicap Scene

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—The $100,000 added Santa Anita Handicap Feb. 23 still is a subject of varied speculation today, but at least the experts won't have to worry about a big 4-year-old colt named Terrang.

Terrang, until recently a stablemate of the great Swaps, caused all manner of confusion in winning the $50,000 added San Antonio Handicap two days ago, a race that often gives a good line on the leading candidates for the richer race.

'Pigtails' Sets Skating Records

ALPENA (AP) — Kathy Sullivan, a ten-year-old Cheboygan girl whom everyone calls "Pigtails," set two state records to outshine her elders this weekend at the Michigan speed skating championships.

Kathy own the midget girls' title and sped to records in the 220-yard dash and the 440-yard event in her division, netting two of the three marks set in the two-day championships.

Terry Browne, a Detroit fireman, won the senior men's class A title for the second year in a row. It was his eighth state title in 19 years of competition.

Detroit schoolteacher Jeanne Robinson successfully defended her senior women's class A crown by winning all five of her events. She had 25 points.

Browne also won the state decathlon championship, piling up 15 points in that specific series of events. He had 17 points to win his divisional championship.

But Kathy Sullivan's performance was the brightest of the meet. Her 52 second performance in the 440-yard event bettered the 1953 record of Saginaw's Nancy Renshaw by five-tenths of a second.

The Cheboygan schoolgirl also lopped off three tenths of a second from Marlene Kurant's 1954 record of 24.7 seconds in the 220-yard dash.

The Renshaws of Saginaw and Midland did themselves proud in the competition. Nancy, whose midget girls' record fell before Kathy Sullivan's skates, won the junior girls' title.

Rena Renshaw of Midland won the intermediate girls' title while her sister, Jean, won the senior women's class B crown.

Walter Renshaw of Saginaw was second to Browne in the class A senior men's division. Bobby Snyder of Detroit was third—but he was second to Browne in the decathalon event.

Others, including the Americans, had survived crashes and escaped with bruises.

Leaders Survive 4th Weekend of Elks Meet

All the leaders remained the same today following the completion of the 1st half of play in the eight-weekend Michigan Elks Bowling Tournament being sponsored here by Lodge 810.

A major surprise in the event for the 3rd successive weekend was the failure of defending champions to ever come near matching their title-winning performances of a year ago.

A Lansing doubles duo and Saginaw singles star Reuben Grover were the latest to bow out of the running. A total of four have now been eliminated counting Grover who tied for singles actual honors in 1956 with Walt Mitchell of Ann Arbor. Mitchell has not competed yet.

The Dickie's Service contingent of Pontiac has dominated team action for three weeks now. The locals had their actual pinfall lead threatened Sunday when the No. 1 team of Lodge 974 in Big Rapids was just six pins short of a tie with 2826.

In handicap bowling, Dickie's maintains its 131-point advantage with a 3201 total.

John Gavie had no new challengers to his singles leads although John Barrett of Big Rapids took over 3rd in actual pinfall rolling a 652 to John's 691. Gavie has 724 in handicap. H. Zook of Battle Creek completes the lists of top men with 1843 in the all-events race.

Western Loses Game and Star Same Night

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Western Michigan's college's basketball team took a beating this weekend in more ways than one. They lost a game to Miami, 107-68, and they lost their star center through scholastic ineligibility

Coach Joe Hoye said the college had ruled that Edgar Blair, 6-foot-4 sophomore and one of the team's leading scorers, was not eligible for future contests.

Delany, Dwyer Collide

Ace Milers in NYAC Games

NEW YORK (AP)—Fred Dwyer, who appears to be the only runner operating capable of giving Ron Delany a tussle in the mile, today entered the New York Athletic Club Games this Saturday.

This abrupt turn of events will bring about the long-awaited duel between Delany, the Olympic 1,500-meter king who has been handling the other milers as though they are babes in the woods, and Dwyer, a hopeful sub-four-minute man.

Originally, Dwyer had intended to pass up the NYAC games because he has been feuding with the Winged Foot brass since he resigned from the club last spring. At the time, he passed up a local meet here in favor of some early Olympic training or the West Coast.

Delany won the mile in the Millrose meet in 4:06.7 and was hardly out of breath at the end. He skipped across the tape seven yards ahead of the disappointing Laszlo Tabori of Hungary. Bobby Seaman of UCLA was third.

Delany wasn't the whole show in the Millrose Games. In fact, he was overshadowed by Arnie Sowell, who set a world indoor half mile record of 1:50.3, two-tenths of a second under John Borican's 1942 mark.

Skating Eliminations Move to 4th Period

Final preliminary races for the 3rd period of roller skating at Rolladium were held Saturday. At the same time, first eliminations were skated for the 4th period, as follows:

Boys — Class A, Andy Marchewka; Class B, David Marchewka; Class C, Timmy Kidd.
Fourth period start:
Girls — Class A, Sharon Vanson; Class B, Patty Reid; Class C, Sue Darimont.
Boys — Class A, Edward Smith; Class B, Clarence Burmeister; Class C, David Ruelle.

Cranbrook Returns Home Empty-Handed

It was a sad weekend for Cranbrook. The basketball and wrestling teams were both defeated by University School Saturday in Inter-State League action at Cleveland, Ohio.

Cranbrook's cagers came out on the short end of a 69-50 score, despite a 24-point scoring spree by Bernie Harris. The Cranes trailed all the way to go down to their 9th loss in 11 games. Their league record is now 0-2.

University also triumphed on the mat, 24-15. Pins by John Miller and Gary Grikscheit, a decision by Lou O'Conner and a tie for captain Duncan Black couldn't save the Crane grapplers from losing their 1st league meet in two starts.

Kramer Troupe to NY

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Jack Kramer and his touring professional tennis troupe were scheduled to take off for the United States today where they open in New York's Madison Square Garden next Sunday.

Aces, Warriors Win Biddy Loop Windups

Victories by Flying Aces and Warriors wound up regular season play in the Boys' Club Biddy Basketball League, Saturday. Playoffs begin Tuesday with Globetrotters vs. Celtics at 4 p.m. and Rough Riders vs. Hawks at 4:45 in BC gymnasium.

Aces defeated 'Trotters 26-19, led by Julian Spires' 10 points. Denny Oberry paced losers with 13. Warriors bumped Royals 45-22, with Harold Singleton's 31 outscoring opponents all alone.

Final season standings:
Warriors 11-3; Jets 9-3; Trojans 9-4; Flying Aces 8-6; Royals 7-7; Globetrotters 5-7; Rough Riders 5-7; Hawks 5-9; Celtics 3-11.

Evers Becomes Scout

CLEVELAND (AP) — Veteran American League outfielder, Walter (Hoot) Evers, has been named a Cleveland Indian scout. Evers spent the major part of his career with Detroit. He also played for Boston, Cleveland and Baltimore and spent the 1954 season in the National League with the New York Giants.

Storm Slows Down Skiers

MESICK (AP) — Earl Hill of Mesick's Briar Hill Ski Club won the Class A event of the 6th annual Southern Michigan Ski Jumping championships yesterday in a snowstorm that slowed down all the skilers.

Hill outjumped Per Staavi of the Norge Ski Club, Chicago, but Staavi won the Michigan combined ski meet by scoring 307 points. Staavi finished first Saturday in the cross country section of the combined meet.

Snow started falling at the start of the jumping events yesterday, nipping any possibility of new marks.

Hill won the long standing with a 137 foot jump on the softened slide. Two leaps of 146 feet—12 feet short of the Briar Hill Club record—gave him a victory in the Class A event. He had 147 points against 141 3-10s for Staavi.

Other winners in the jumping events included Leif Shalleberg of Norge Ski Club in Class B with 123.5 points; Frits Hjelmeland of Norge Ski Club in the junior class with 130.8, and William Schmidt of Briar Hill in the veterans class with 126.4.

Name All-Star Coaches for Game March 30

Albion First in MIAA; Titans, Wayne Defeated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Albion held sole possession of first place in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn. basketball standings.

A 70-60 victory over Kalamazoo Saturday night, paced by the 29-point effort of George Vylamore, broke a deadlock and dropped the Hornets into a second place tie with Hope.

Hope trimmed Alma 92-75, in posting its sixth victory in nine conference games. Albion leads the league with a 7-2 mark.

Central Michigan posted its fifth interstate intercollegiate athletic conference victory, defeating southern Illinois, 51-47.

Meanwhile, University of Detroit and Wayne State University ran into trouble on the road.

Despite a 37-point effort by Detroit's Bill Ebben, the Titans dropped a 101-92 decision to St. Louis in a Missouri Valley Conference game.

Oklahoma City University took the measure of Wayne, 69-52, in the first game of a collegiate doubleheader in Chicago Stadium. It was Wayne's fourth loss in 14 games.

Fay Wins Again at Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Fay Crocker combined husky drives and cool putting yesterday for her third conquest of the Miami Beach Women's Open golf tournament on a 36-hole card of 72-71—143, one under men's par on the 6,600-Bay Shore course.

Miss Crocker, who plays out of Montevideo, Uruguay, collected $630 top money. Runner-up by one stroke—for the fourth time—was Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., who slipped from a first round 70 to a 74 on the last day. Her second place was good for $450.

Ann Richardson of Columbus, Ohio, and Wanda Sanches of Baton Rouge, La., tied in the top amateur spot with 76-75—151 cards. Miss Richardson won a playoff on the first extra hole.

TEST YOUR BASEBALL KNOW-HOW...

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

By BEN OLAN

The Philadelphia Phillies beat Brooklyn nine times in 1956. Several of the defeats came late in the season when the Dodgers desperately were attempting to overtake the Milwaukee Braves.

In one of the games, the right move by Philadelphia manager Mayo Smith helped trip the Brooks. Here's the situation. Test your managerial IQ on this one.

(Key: (R) righthanded; (L) lefthanded.)

The Phillies lead the Dodgers 3-2 in the last of the ninth at Brooklyn. Jack Meyer (R) is pitching for Philadelphia. Sandy Amoros opens the inning by drawing a base on balls. At this point, Harvey Haddix (L) replaces Meyer. Chico Fernandez sacrifices Amoros to second. Jackie Robinson bats for pitcher Clem Labine and walks, putting runners on first and second. Amoros and Robinson each advance a base as Junior Gilliam grounds out for the second out. Pee Wee Reese (R) is the next batter with Duke Snider (L) and Carl Furillo (R) to follow.

Would you:
a. Have Haddix walk Reese intentionally to get to Snider?
b. Let Haddix pitch to Reese?
c. Bring in a righthander to pitch to Reese?

MAYO SMITH

Result: A—Haddix intentional. Walks Reese, filling the bases. Harvey then strikes out Snider to end the game. Phillies win 3-2 (Aug. 10.)

$325,000 From School

Prep Gridder Wins Suit

DUNSMUIR, Calif. (AP) — Dunsmuir Joint Union High School's principal predicted the end of its athletic program today after a jury awarded $325,000 to a boy who was injured in a football accident.

Principal Delwin Poe said, "It means the end of the high school athletic program" and added "they'll have to call off all contact sports."

A jury at nearby Redding awarded the money yesterday to Anthony L. Welch, 18, who was paralyzed from the waist down Sept. 10, 1955, in a pre-season scrimmage between Dunsmuir and Enterprise teams.

The school carries liability insurance for $200,000 but the remainder is almost as much as the $130,000 the school spends annually to educate its 270 pupils.

While some in this mountain town of 2,500 persons talked of closing the school, Poe said he and the district's lawyers were exploring the possibilities of appealing the verdict.

Pontiac Tangles With Highland Park

Class A Cage Giants in Showdown

Pontiac Press Photo

STARTER — Harrison Munson, 6-feet-2 sophomore forward, will make his first home starting role tomorrow night when Pontiac and Highland Park, a pair of unbeatens, tangle on the PHS court. Munson started last week against Flint Central.

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A pair of giants in Michigan Class A basketball, Pontiac and Highland Park, are geared for their big showdown game at Pontiac High School tomorrow night.

The Chiefs, rated in most polls as the number two team in the state behind Muskegon Heights, and the Parkers, close behind in 3rd place, will put their identical 10-0 records on the line in the clash.

The game is considered even by most observers. Pontiac will have a slight edge in height, but the Parkers are generally regarded as one of the fastest teams in the state. To counter this speed, the Chiefs will have to control the boards thereby preventing Highland Park's fast breaking manuevers.

Coach Jim Wink, who in 10 years at the helm guided the Parker five to the state semi-finals five times, considers this as his fastest and one of the better balanced scoring teams he has coached.

"We aren't as tall as some of the other Highland Park teams of the past, but our boys have hustled and we've got more speed this year," said Wink.

Any one of the starting five is capable of taking scoring honors, but the two big point makers are 6-feet-2 center Gene Lawson and 5-feet-9 guard Mike Fitzgerald.

For Lawson it will be somewhat of a homecoming. The springy center moved out of Pontiac into Highland Park just before his sophomore season. He is a junior and leads the team in scoring with a 16.5 average. Right behind is Fitzgerald with a 14.5 clip.

To match this, Pontiac has Dave Diehm hitting at an average of 17.2 and Hudson Ray at 15 points per game. Next in line is Dick Whitmer with a nine point average.

Van Ryzin is expected to start sophomore Harrison Munson at forward. Munson started against Flint Central and played only the first quarter getting four points before giving way to Dave Simmons.

Highland Park also lost a key player in John McMeekins, team captain who graduated at midterm.

To round out the starting five the Parkers have 5-9 Leonard Oliver with Fitzgerald at guard. John Bradley and Hubie Heath, 6-footers, are at the foreard posts.

Dick Kepley, at 6 foot 8, is the tallest man on the North Carolina freshman team which averages 6 feet 4.

Playoff Will Decide Tucson Champion

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Two members of golf's youth brigade will play off for top money in the $15,000 Tucson Open today because one sank an 18-foot putt and the other missed one from four feet.

Don Whitt, 26, Alameda, Calif., made the long shot on the 18th green. Dow Finsterwald, 27, Tequesta, Fla., missed the short one seconds later. The winner of the 18-hole match Monday will collect $2,000, the loser $1,500. Both had 11-under par 269's for the 6,434-yard El Rio course.

Youngsters completely dominated the Tucson event, taking the top seven places. Big names like Ed Furgol, Julius Boros, Mike Souchak and Doug Ford had to be satisfied with small change.

Joe Zakarian, Modesto, Calif., is on his way to San Antonio, Tex., with the $1,200 he was paid for his 65-70-68-68—271 third-place finish.

Billy Casper Jr., Bonita, Calif., who looked unbeatable at the start of the second round with a 4-stroke lead; Tom Nieport, Bronxville, N.Y., and John Cleary, Hartford, Conn., picked up $900 each for their 272 scores. Bill Trombley, Dallas, Tex., and Al Balding, Toronto, Ont., got $725 each for their 273.

Ricki Rarick, president of the sponsoring Tucson Golf Assn., who earlier charged the PGA with a breach of faith because so many of the big money winners were absent, praised the younger players.

"They are taking over professional golf," he said. "Because of them, this was the best tournament we've had. We set a new attendance record."

The best Whitt had previously done in a PGA tourney was 11th in the Tucson event a year ago. "I had to hold myself together all afternoon," he said, "I felt the pressure with every stroke."

Finsterwald and Whitt were ahead by two strokes at the first nine and turned it into a two-way fight.

They matched strokes for the next five holes. Finsterwald went ahead with a birdie 2 on the 15th. Whitt, in constant trouble with the traps, made a 50-foot chip shot from the sand on the 16th to draw even. "I was lucky," he said.

Finsterwald's approach on the 18th went into the crowd. He appeared to have first-place money cinched when he chipped to within four feet of the pin. Whitt was trapped. His next shot went over the green into another trap. When he chipped out, his ball was 18 feet from the pin and he trailed by a stroke. Whitt dropped the putt, Finsterwald missed.

Cage Tickets Scarce

Tickets for the Pontiac-Highland Park game are at a premium. There were a few reserved seats left early this morning on sale at Osmun's and at the high school, however, they were expected to be gone today.

Ticket windows will have a limited number of general admissions available tomorrow night.

Faces 7 Counts of Manslaughter

Florida Man Charged as Wife, 6 Boys Drown in Plunge of Auto

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—Seven counts of manslaughter were charged yesterday against Ralph Evans, whose wife and five sons drowned with another lad in the plunge of Evans' car into a stream Saturday night.

"It was an unavoidable accident,' Evans said in a Dade County Jail cell. "You can't get manslaughter out of it."

Bail was set at $5,000 for arraignment before Peace Justice Hugh Duval, who issued manslaughter warrants to Constable W. M. Hudson.

The constable said mechanical condition of Evans' 11-year-old car was the basis of the charges.

Evans was quoted by police as first saying his brakes failed in an attempt to straighten out after a turn. At the jail, he told newsmen he believed the brakes held and blamed the accident on refusal of the car to straighten out on loose gravel.

Evans, 50-year-old Hialeah Gardens junk dealer, and Edwin McDonnough, 58, an acquaintance, were only survivors of a party of nine the car carried into eight feet of water near Evans' home.

The two men struggled through an open window on the driver's side and tried in vain to extricate Mrs. Teresa Evans, 22, and the six children trapped in the overturned car.

Dead in the tragedy besides Mrs. Evans were Charles Wright Jr., 12, and five Evans children, George, 5, Henry, 4, Raymond, 2, and Louis and Anthony, 6-month-old twins.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Suffers Skull Injury When Pinned by Car

Donald Sunderman, 25, of 721 East Maple Ave., Troy, was rushed to University Hospital in Ann Arbor Saturday night after his head was pinned under a car he was making repairs on in a friend's garage.

Sunderman was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital with multiple skull fractures and a fractured neck after the accident at 4 p.m. He was then rushed to University Hospital for treatment by a specialist. His condition this morning was listed as fair.

Police said that Sunderman jacked up the left side of his car with a bumper jack and then slid under the front wheel on a creeper. John Dogleish, of 2331 East Long Lake Rd., was working with sunderman at the time.

"The jack slipped off the bumper," said Dogleish, "and the car fell on Don's head. I tried to jack up the car again but the jack wouldn't work. I ran to my car for a jack and finally got him out from under there."

Young Driver Fails in First Try at Wheel

CHESTERFIELD, Utah (UP) — Melvin North may have trouble getting a driver's license after what happened.

Seated beside his sleeping father Melvin turned the key on, which started the car, yanked the automatic transmission into the drive position ad fell on the gas pedal as the car rolled ahead, knocked another car off a jack — with owner underneah — and into a utility pole 50 feet ahead.

The owner of the other car, Elmer W. Ray, 25, escaped with a cut forehead. Melvin's father awoke unhurt. Melvin got a bruised lip — from the accident, not his father.

Though there's plenty of time, two-year-old Melvin already has a traffic violation record which could look bad when he applies for a license.

Polish Cardinal Still a Prisoner

Mindszenty Not Free; U. S. Legation Building Serves as Home

VIENNA (INS)—Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, implacable foe of Communism, inhabits a tiny "island" of freedom in Red Hungary, but he is hardly a free man.

The 64-year-old Roman Catholic primate occupies a small apartment in the five-story U.S. Legation building in Budapest, overlooking "freedom Square."

The Hungarian Communists, however, keep a close watch on the building and diplomatic protocol demands that he refrain from "political" or related activities.

No outsiders are permitted to see the Cardinal. There is little doubt that he still is in grave danger from the puppet regime of Premier Janos Kadar, despite his temporary haven.

Eight years ago today, the Cardinal was deprived of his personal liberty by a Red Court. He was sentenced to life imprisonment on charges of treason, espionage and black market dealings.

The Cardinal was moved from a prison cell to a police-guarded castle in July, 1955.

He watched Red regimes come and go and the Hungarian people rise up against their masters in his fight for liberty. But he found freedom for only a few short hours last Oct. 31 when anti-Red army troops released him from Felsoepetieny castle, 65 miles from Budapest, and escourted him into Budapest with army trucks.

A few days later he was forced to seek shelter at the U.S. legation when Soviet tanks crushed the uprising.

The Cardinal now spends much of his time listening to Hungarian and German radio broadcasts—one of his favorite pastimes. He cannot speak English.

He has an ardent interest in world affairs, so he keeps tuned to news announcements far into the night.

His tastes are simple. Legation informants say he keeps asking mostly for writing paper—it is believed he is writing his memoirs—and cigars. He smokes a great deal.

His apartment—on the third floor—consists of a sitting room, bedroom and bathroom.

It used to be the offices of U.S. Minister Edward Wailes. A large leather sofa, several leather arm chairs and a few tables are scattered about the sitting room. The bedroom has a plain narrow bed and dresser, with a crucifix on one of the walls. The Cardinal says Mass in his bedroom in the morning and evening.

Ailing Aga Khan Has to Call Off Platinum Ritual

BOMBAY (UP) — The Aga Khan has had to call off his platinum weighing because of ill health.

Instead the son of the Ismaili sect's spiritual leader, Prince Aly Khan, will receive a platinum plaque on behalf of his father at ceremonies here Friday.

Normally the 79-year-old Moslem leader in a colorful ceremony would sit on one side of a large scale and his weight — formerly about 240 pounds—would be balanced by platinum bars. Then his followers in Burma, East Africa, Pakistan and Malaya would contribute the value of the metal for Moslem welfare funds the Aga Khan sponsors.

But the old man since a series of heart attacks two years ago has mostly been confined to bed or a wheel chair at his home on the French Riviera. This year his followers have collected about half a million dollars for their leader, but there'll be no ceremony.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UP) — Comedian Jimmy Durante received a four-foot-high 64th birthday cake yesterday, from 1,100 citizens of Lakeland and Cypress Gardens, Fla.

Cherry Pie Queen Is German Refugee

YORK, Pa. (UP) — A 16-year-old German refugee girl is the new cherry pie baking queen of Pennsylvania — and she had never baked a cherry pie before last Christmas.

The winner, Heidi Nickey, who now lives at Littlestown, Pa., said she baked a cherry pie every day from Christmas until Jan. 24, when she captured the Adams County championship.

Heidi won the state title over the weekend, besting 13 county champions. Now she's an automatic candidate for the national cherry pie making competition in Chicago later this month.

Tire-Toting Kids Cry: 'C'mon, Let's Have a Ball!'

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (UP) — Kids are turning old tires into basketballs.

A recapping firm, finding itself short on old tires, offered a regulation size and weight basketball to each boy and girl bringing in a tire.

When the supply of basketballs is exhausted, the company said it will order more.

Remember Strongman

MONTREAL (UP)—A Montreal park is to be named for Joe Montferrand, whose feats of strength have become legend. Born here in 1802, he stood 6-foot-4 and weighed 250 pounds. He died at 62 but tales of his strong-armed triumphs still are recounted.

The Young Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln, our 16th President, educated himself studying his few books by the flickering light of a log fire and working out arithmetic problems with a burned stick on a wooden fire shovel.

By the time he was nine years old, he was doing a man's job, clearing land for planting, splitting rails for fences and helping build a log cabin.

Lincoln set out to make his way in the world when he was 21. He carried his belongings — a few home-spun shirts and home-knit socks — tied up in a big handkerchief.

He traveled down the Mississippi River on a flatboat. The trip was adventurous but not very profitable. After that, he settled in New Salem, Ill., where he was a clerk in a small store.

The village of New Salem has been carefully restored so that people of today can see it just as it looked in Lincoln's days there.

Cut out and color this picture and mount it on cardboard.

Might Give It a Name: Case of 'Foot Locker'

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Robert Lee Gunnoe Jr., 4-year-old son of a Charleston detective, "footcuffed" himself by locking his father's handcuffs around his ankles.

Gunnoe decided the case could wait until he got through work so young Robert hobbled around all day, unable to put on his pants.

"He was certainly happy when I unlocked the cuffs," said Gunnoe. "Bet he doesn't try that again."

U.S. Reds Veto Non-Party Idea

Decide to Keep Present Form of Group; Final Policy Pending

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Communist party worked in convention on future policy questions today after rejecting proposals that it reorganize into a "non-party" political action group.

The final form of the policy resolution is expected to determine whether the party will continue to follow the Moscow Marist-Leninist line or adopt a more independent "American road to socialism."

The convention decided after two hours of discussion yesterday that the party should retain its present form.

The convention also approved an amendment to the draft resolution. It said, "Predominant Wall Street forces, whose policies are reflected in the Eisenhower wing of the GOP and most of the Democratic leadership, favor a continuation of the main features of the cold war" but that "this does not exclude negotiating some partial steps to disarmament."

While the convention was taking this action, Hungarian pickets marched for an hour outside the Chateau Gardens, on the lower East Side, where the convention is being held. Some of the pickets threw eggs that splashed against the front doors of the hall.

The pickets, described as including some recent refugees from Hungary, carried placards with slogans such as "USSR, you are guilty of mass murder," and "Stop killing our people."

A spokesman said the Hungarian-American Federation, an anti-Communist organization, sponsored the picketing.

Claude Lightfoot of Chicago and Carl Winter of Detroit, co-chairmen of the convention's presiding committee, issued a statement saying the pickets were attempting to "rekindle and extend the cold war."

Stork Wins Over Skunk but It Was Close Race

RYAN, Okla. (AP) — A skunk almost tripped up the stork.

Nell Croxton dashed from the house to call a doctor since Mrs. Jerry Goza was about to deliver. However, Miss Croxton tripped over a skunk and the startled animal sprayed her.

After a hurried bath, Miss Croxton started out again. This time she made it. The doctor arrived in time to deliver a 6½ pound baby.

Even Through Illness, Tallulah's the Same

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Tallulah Bankhead ripped a small patch off her head as she pranced through her apartment this morning and pointed to the human gore.

That was her gay comment upon the news that her Broadway show "Eugenia" was closing Saturday.

"I have plenty of offers to go back into TV, and besides I'll go west for some of that quick loot," she announced throatily.

"Las Vegas?" this reporter asked.

"Where else?" She added her usual endearment, "you idiot!"

They want her to do "The Woman Who Came to Dinner" on TV. During her recent illness she found that her dog Dolores didn't get a nervous breakdown; so she may go to London. (You can't take dogs to England).

Looking, she said, "like a plateful of worms" due to broken ribs, broken hand and other injuries, Tallulah nevertheless received guests in her dressing room.

"There's somebody who's been a fan of mine since I started—so he must be at least 95," she groaned to close friends who'd gathered. "I'll just stick my head out and scare hell out of him."

About a year ago, Photog Gary Wagner predicted to the then discouraged Carroll Baker that in a year she'd be a big star, too busy to pose for him.

"That'll never happen," she promised.

Hearing the other day that the potential "Baby Doll" Oscar winner was now very busy and refusing sittings, Wagner phoned and reminded her of the prophecy.

"Could I pose for you Tuesday?" she replied.

Audrey Hepburn Wants It —She Gets It: 'Nun's Story'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Of all the stories, plays and scripts handed Audrey Hepburn the one she really wanted was "The Nun's Story"—and she gets it! Audrey had said: "I was acting that role all the time I was reading the book" — which Jack Warner may or may not have overhead. At any rate, he's giving her this dramatic prize.

But before she reports in Hollywood, Audrey goes to Switzerland for a rest which is coming to her after two movies in a row, "Funny Face" and "Love In The Afternoon."

The authoress, Kathryn Hulme, will confer on the script of her book which has been at the top of the non-fiction best seller list for over six months. Fred Zimmermann, the producer-director, says "The Nun's Story" will be filmed in part in the Belgian Congo and the rest in Hollywood.

I didn't eavesdrop when I saw Doris Day and Marty Melcher sit down with Harry Cohn at the Photoplay Awards dinner and talk, but I happen to know that they were discussing a remake of "Theodora Goes Wild," which formerly starred Irene Dunne, for Doris.

Doris would like very much to make a picture at Columbia and Harry would be crazy (which he isn't) if he didn't want to sign her. So while it's just at the talking stage, you can expect to hear one of these days soon that Doris is making a picture for Cohn of Columbia.

Ann Sothern is in a good spot. TPA, which bought the "Susie" series, is negotiating with her for three series of twenty-six shows, to be put on in a new time slot. Jack Chertok, with whom Ann had so many battles on "Private Secretary," is now out of the picture.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Only two people knew that Susan Hayward planned to elope with Eaton Chalkley, and they kept Susie's secret.

George Jessel likes them young. He was at the Eldorado with young blonde actress Kay Mills.

Star of the silent screen Dorothy Sebastian has undergone serious surgery at Hollywood Hospital. Her married name is Shapiro and she would like to hear from her friends.

Ginny Simms is blooming these days and is happy in her romance with Bernie Erskine, wealthy Phoenix business man. He flew in just to have dinner with her at the Eldorado and then on to Mocambo.

Connie Smith, pretty Irish actress, recently married an Italian news agency owner named Rialdo DeCollalanza (I'm not sure of that spelling).

Writer Ed Anhalt's fiancee, Jackie John, is recovering in St. John's Hospital from abdominal surgery similar to that performed on President Eisenhower.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Did American Indians Migrate From Asia?

OCEANSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Scientists say that Indian picture writings on rocks in the nearby San Luis Rey Valley strengthen the theory that American Indians migrated to the North American continent from Asia.

Dr. J. J. Markey, head of the San Luis Rey Historical Society, said tests made at the University of California at Los Angeles show the symbols in the rocks to be from 400 to 9,000 years of age. Dr. Markey said 60 different symbols have been identified and a score of them indicate an Asiatic origin.

Brazil is purchasing 600 tons of Paraguayan wool, Asuncion reports.

Twirlers of Midwest and Canada to Compete at Orion

Contest Feb. 16 at High School

Expect 400 Entries; Open to Majorettes of U.S., Canada

LAKE ORION—The high school here will be the scene of a contest of baton twirlers of midwestern U. S. and Ontario, Canada, all day long Saturday, Feb. 16.

The contest, beginning at 9:30 a.m., for twirlers from 6 to 17 in three separate divisions, is being sponsored by Land-O-Lakes Majorettes, and actually is open to any twirler in the U. S. and Canada.

Three medals and three trophies will be awarded in each division, says Land-O-Lakes director, Roy Hess.

A bus is bringing contestants from Hamilton, Ont. Other entries have been received from Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Stoney Creek and St. Catherine, Ont. Entries may exceed 400.

The contest also views the strengthening of the baton twirlers by including a beginners and an intermediate division for those who do not feel ready for the stiff competition in the championship field. Medals will be awarded in these competitions. It is the first contest to include these classes says Hess.

Registrations may be made at 9:30 a.m. by those who have not made previous entries. Morning contests will be in the beginners and intermediate divisions, with the championship divisions in the afternoon.

Judging will be under National Baton Twirling regulations. Judges are Tudy Smith of Sharpsville, Ind. one of the top ten judges in the country; Elaine Brown of Flint; Bobbie Dahl of Milford and Marilyn McLane of Pontiac.

Anyone can attend to observe, although relatives and contestants often fill the limited space offered at indoor meets.

Luncheon will be served in the high school cafeteria under the direction of Mrs. James Sheldon and Mrs. Dahl.

The champion Dryer sisters of Keego Harbor will present exhibitions, but have not entered the contests because it is hoped through this medium to build up some new competitors.

CANADIAN ENTRY — Betty Feist of Hamilton, Ont., is one of the first champions to enter the Land O' Lakes Baton Contest. She was "Miss Majorette of Canada" in 1955 and 1956 and has won leading contests in Canada and the United States. Betty is a winner of over 40 medals and 20 trophies.

Russia to Aid Yemen Build New Harbors

ADEN (AP) — A newspaper in this British crown colony says Russia has agreed to build modern harbors for Yemen on a 15-year repayment plan.

Yemen, an Arab desert kingdom on the Red Sea, is fighting an undeclared war with Britain along Yemen's frontier with the British-allied Aden protectorate. Each side has accused the other of aggressive strikes across the border.

Technical observers agree that Yemen needs a modern seaport more than military equipment. Most of Yemen's trade moves through Aden.

Selling Drives Grains Down

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavy selling hit the grain market today in the wake of the weekend Agriculture Department announcement of lower price supports for many 1957 crops.

Rye and oats suffered most. Both will have lower government price support levels this year than in 1956. Rye fell more than 5 cents and oats more than 3 cents before rallying slightly.

Soybean price support levels also will be lower, but new crop beans did not have extreme losses. Corn and wheat also sank although the wheat support level will be the same as last year. Corn's support has not been announced.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ½ to 1⅛ lower, March $2.30⅜, corn ⅝ to ⅞ lower, March $1.28⅜, oats 1¼ to 1½ lower, March 73½, rye 2¾-4½ lower, March $1.31½, soybeans ¾ to 1¾ lower, March $2.40¾, and lard 7 to 23 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $14.67.

Weekend Rains Increase Floods

Ohio River Threatening Gallipolis to Louisville; Report No Casualties

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy weekend rains sent dozens of creeks and rivers over their banks and left scores of residents homeless today in parts of West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

No casualties were reported in the widening flood zone, but high waters yesterday caused heavy damage to roads, bridges and many small towns bordering the Ohio River and its tributaries.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Cincinnati predicted that the Ohio River would rise to within a half-foot of flood stage there by Wednesday.

A bureau spokesman said additional rainfall expected tomorrow night or Wednesday may send the river over its banks between Gallipolis and Louisville.

In West Virginia, state police said Weston was the hardest hit community. It was isolated as the West Fork River crested at 22.03 feet and then began receding.

The same river also went over its banks at Clarksburg, W Va., and crested at 11.45 feet or 4½ feet above flood level. An estimated 100 Clarksburg families were evacuated.

Rivers and streams roared out of their banks in Scioto County, Ohio, marooning residents and forcing others to flee in Portsmouth, North Moreland, Eden Park and New Boston.

Steels Decline, Market Lower

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels and other issues declined, giving a lower tendency to the stock market in quiet early trading today.

The steel shares appeared to be under some selling pressure as both Youngstown and Lukens gave up about a point each. Oils, rails and aircrafts also took losses.

But there were miscellaneous gainers among motors, utilities, airlines and other stocks.

The price movements ranged from fractions to around a point.

The market hit its lowest point of 1957 following last week's decline and Wall Street analysts believed that if it fails to rally it would be due for a technical decline to a lower "floor" where buying support should develop.

LOSE FRACTION

General Motors lost a fraction but Chrysler and Ford were firm.

International Telephone was ahead around a point, American Telephone rose fractionally. Kennecott Copper was steady.

Losses of about a point or more were taken by Aluminium Ltd., International Nickel and Du Pont.

New York Central, Seaboard Airline Railroad, Lowe's, Texas Co., Sinclair, International Paper, General Dynamics, Curtiss-Wright and Goodyear also lost ground. American Cyanamid improved.

Opening blocks included Bethlehem Steel unchanged at 42 on 6,000 shares, General Motors off ¼ at 39⅞ on 2,500 shares and General Dynamics off ⅜ at 57¼ on 2,000.

There is a home not made by hand
Beyond its golden door,

Will meet our loved son there.
Forever in our hearts.

. . . is NOT a "Joy Forever" in all cases. A beautiful used car may mean a good paint job and nothing more. No one needs to tell you that such a car is not debt forever. If you aren't a mechanic, the only way you can trust what's under the paint job is to trust the dealer.

MATTHEWS-HARGREAVES have been satisfying customers for seven years and have built an organization that's founded on service to the customer. We are equipped to satisfy all your motoring needs. Buy where your satisfied neighbor bought.

'Beat Van Doren' Virus Takes Hold of Young Kieran

TRUMBULL, Conn. (INS)—"I'm just a little guy," said John Kieran Jr., another son of a famous father, "but I intend to beat Charley Van Doren tonight."

"He's got the edge, experience on the 'Twenty-one' show, fans rooting for him as a young college teacher, a sort of Lincolnesque personality, a bachelor, and he's lived with books."

Van Doren, 30, has so far won an all-time record $122,000 on a TV show by beating challenger after challenger with his encyclopedic knowledge.

Van Doren's father is Pulitzer prize-winning poet Mark Van Doren. Kieran's father is the famous naturalist Hohn Kieran who once wrote the sports column for the New York Times but became best known through the years he spent on the panel of radio's "Information Please." The senior Kieran's seemingly inexhaustible fund of knowledge amazed the nation in his day as young Van Doren's has now.

"I'll be nervous," said Kieran Jr., in an interview. "I'm married, an impoverished writer, a hack—most of my freelance writing is sport shows.

"If I don't win, or at least make a good showing, I'm going to feel like an ass. If I do win, I'll feel like public iconoclast number one.

"It's not Charley's fault, but he's become sort of a tin god. That's the way one of the magazines played it. That's why I want to win so much. I'll be happy with the minimum, $500, just so long as I'm not just grist in his mill.

"At least I've got to make a decent showing. And if you're going to be beaten, it might as well be by a Louis or a Marciano.

"No, I've never met Charley, although our fathers know each other. I hope to be able to buy him a beer, maybe, tonight."

She Specializes in Being Herself

Talks to 'Small Group of Friends' — Meaning Audience of Millions

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK (NEA) — A stove isn't a stove, a dashboard isn't a dashboard and a saleslady isn't a saleslady.

That's been Julia Meade's contrary experiences as TV's highest-paid deliverer of commercials.

First, it's her own conclusion that she isn't a saleslady. "I don't think of myself like that," she says.

"I think I do more acquainting than actual selling. I always picture myself talking to a small group of friends about something I believe, that's all."

This small group of friends—somewhere in the millions—seems to like the way the tall, trim actress does her acquainting, and her several sponsors do, too.

Currently, she's selling cars on the Ed Sullivan Show, a home permanent on Your Hit Parade and gas appliances on Playhouse 90.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

But she's had to learn that her car sponsor prefers to think of a dashboard as an instrument panel and her gas association sponsor thinks a stove should be called a range.

Home permanents, however, are still called home permanents.

Delivering commercials, Julia says, is "a terrible nice career for a woman.

More and more, sponsors are turning to pretty young things for sales messages—they seem to want their pitch with curves.

And for the women it's a good spot. Especially if, like Julia, they're actresses first—"for an actress, it's nice to know you'll be getting paid steadily."

The qualifications for the job? "Just be yourself," says Julia.

A pretty face, like hers, is no handicap, either.

How Long Is a Day? Asks Globe-Girdler

DENVER (AP)— When time hangs heavy and you want to enliven a group discussion, try this one:

If a man flies around the world in 45 hours and 19 minutes, yet watches the sun rise and set three times in that period, is he two or three days older?

Maj. Gen. Archie J. Old Jr., Air Force commander, confesses that's got him a little puzzled. And he has reason to mull it over because he led the three Air Force B52 jet bombers making a nonstop flight around the globe last month.

He was here to tell Air Force Academy cadets about the flight yesterday.

Police on Horse Lassoes Cycle, Rescues Auto

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Patrolman Jack Miller's motorcycle cranked up with an explosion and then started burning.

Up rode patrolman Ed Lawson, whose mount is a horse called Chief, to take quick charge of a hot situation. With a lariat, Lawson lassoed the burning motorcycle and pulled it from beneath the car.

When the firemen he called had smothered the fire, Lawson remarked to Miller, with some satisfaction:

"This should teach you not to sell horses short."

New Englanders Invest

FLINT—Experts estimate that as many as 350,000 automobile air conditioners may be installed in 1957 and 2,000,000 in 1961. For comparison, the 1953 total was 40,000.

Blackfish Slither Ashore, Await Death in Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—More than 50 hulking blackfish slithered up on key colony beach mud flats yesterday and flopped there, helpless amid rocks and mud.

State conservation men attempted towing the 7-to-15-foot sea mammals into deep water, but the bottle-shaped creatures, which resemble miniature whales, returned to the shallows.

Only about half of them were alive after 12 hours. Their appearance tied up auto traffic and reminded fishermen of previous mass landings by blackfish. None could remember an incident involving so many.

No one knows why blackfish schools or "pods" periodically run aground.

Head of Detroit Firm D. J. Crowley Dies

DETROIT (AP)—Daniel J. Crowley, head of a large department store in downtown Detroit, was found dead yesterday at his home in fashionable Grosse Pointe. He was 55.

Two brothers-in-law found his body hanging from a rope fastened to a staircase.

Crowley had been president of Crowley, Milner & Co. since 1938.

Police quoted relatives as saying he had been ill and despondent.

He had lived alone in the family home since the death of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Crowley, last August.

Tea to Open Quarters

DRYDEN—When the Ladies' Library Assn. opens its rooms here Wednesday afternoon, a silver tea will be served by the committee in charge.

Pays More Than It Hurts

Takes Experienced HAND for This Kind(ly) Money

EAST BOOTHBAY, Maine (AP)—An expert recommends the bare hand for the best results in spankings, and if you're timid about doing it yourself she'll apply the pressure for you for a fee.

Mrs. Frances Dodge, a 48-year-old grandmother, is a professional spanker. Her charge is about a dollar each, depending somewhat on the victim's attitude. Her service is strictly confidential and she claims "many satisfied clients" in this Maine vacation and shipbuilding area.

"A half dozen well-directed strokes right on the target are usually enough," she advises. "All that we want to do is make the youngster realize that he or she has misbehaved. We're not out to seek vengeance."

How did Mrs. Dodge get into the spanking business? She got tired of hearing parents at Grange, lodge and other meetings complain about their children. So one day — almost without thinking, she said—she declared: "Bring them to me. I'll straighten them out."

Mrs. Dodge is no novice at handling children. She and her husband, Lawrence, a shipbuilding worker, raised four. She says she brought them up the old fashioned way, "with an eye on their manners and a hand of their bottoms when it was necessary."

HARD TO MANAGE

The first "customer" was a friend's daughter visiting the Dodges for a few days.

"She had been brought up by the new method—never lift a hand to 'em," Mrs. Dodge related, "so she was very hard to manage.

"After about two days of this, I was on the verge of collapse so I finally resorted to the method I used on my own children. From then on we became fast friends and her mother hardly knew her when she returned home."

A recent applicant was a 12-year-old boy.

"He came in a-grinning, thinking that my business was really a joke," Mrs. Dodge said. So she resorted to her paddle which she keeps only for older children.

"We had quite a tussle but three or four direct hits really made him see the light and his mother says he hasn't been any trouble since."

Word of Mrs. Dodge's rare occupation has spread. She said she got a letter from Bogota, Colombia, asking whether "a boy of 10 years old is sufficient tu spank with de hands on de bare rump?"

Thailand has a long waiting list of telephone applicants, Bangkok reports.

3 City Teachers Attend MSU Meet

Three Pontiac High School teachers were among the manual training instructors who attended the second annual Conference of Trade Teachers Friday and Saturday at Michigan State University.

Peter Aldo participated as chairman of the auto mechanics trade meeting and member of the group's planning committee. Joseph Atwell, drafting instructor, served on a panel discussing the topic, "This I Believe."

William Guthrie, machine shop instructor, spoke on "Methods of Improving the Day Trade Program."
