Wilson Believes Russians Behind in Weapon Job

May Have H-Bomb but Lack Quantity, Power to Follow Through

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson says he doesn't believe the Russians will be ready to wage sustained atomic war within three years.

He thinks that they may not have now an actual ready-to-use hydrogen bomb.

Wilson told a news conference yesterday that "to say they have a hydrogen bomb ready to drop and planes ready to drop them is perhaps stretching it a bit."

He said he thinks the Russians are "three or four years back of us" in atomic weapons development.

The secretary spoke only a few hours after President Eisenhower, in a talk at Atlantic City, N. J., had gravely recited the danger of atomic attack on the United States.

The contrast between Wilson's words and the note of urgency sounded in the past by other administration officials made it evident that Eisenhower faced something of a problem in trying to get his official family to agree on whether there is imminent danger from Russian H-bombs.

Moscow announced on Aug. 20 that "the explosion of a type of hydrogen bomb was carried out with experimental aim" shortly before that date.

By today Eisenhower and the country had, in addition to Wilson's opinions, the publicly expressed views of several other U. S. officials, including:

1. A written statement last weekend by Mobilization Director Arthur S. Flemming that Russia now "is capable of delivering suddenly and without warning the most destructive weapon ever devised by man on chosen targets in the United States."

Flemming told newsmen he meant the hydrogen bomb, but later said he had not intended to go beyond what had been said by the Atomic Energy Commission. The strongest statement from an AEC source has been that Russia tested a hydrogen "device."

2. Another weekend statement by Rep. Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, that Russia has enough "deliverable" hydrogen bombs to create real and imminent danger for the United States.

City Acts to Force Removal of 24 Unsafe Vacant Homes

Pontiac City Commission acted Tuesday night to force removal of 24 vacant dwellings in the city cited by the building inspector as "dilapidated and unsafe."

The Commission also directed a committee to review some 500 additional buildings which violate the housing law and report on possible action.

City Attorney William A. Ewart was told to begin immediate legal action in conjunction with health department officials to see that the 24 are removed.

According to Building Inspector John E. Ryan, the buildings have deteriorated to the point where they are "structurally unsafe, a fire hazard and potential crime hazzard."

Ryan stated that "condemnation notices" have been issued by either the building or health department in practically every case and ignored by the owners."

The committee authorized to study the additional list of 500 inhabited dwellings not conforming to housing law requirements, according to Ryan, is comprised of the city manager, city attorney and fire, health and building department officials.

354 Judson St.; 144 Judson St.; 159 Midland Dr.; 90 Peach St.; 66 Maines Ave.; 20 Sanderson St.; 442 S. Anderson St.; 814 Pensacola Ave.; 26½ Bagley St.; 648 Franklin Rd.; 81 N. A hearing on the matter was set for Friday at 2 p.m. before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty.

The petition asks that the court appoint psychiatrists to examine O'Brian, accused of the Aug. 4 rape-slaying of Mrs. Hallie O. Perkins, 55, of 76 W. Longfellow Ave.

O'Brian is being held in Oakland County Jail on a first-degree murder charge in the death of Mrs. Perkins and his trial has been scheduled for Oct. 26.

Army Suspends Lab Workers; Conceals Details

Chicago Tribune Says Top Scientists Involved in Security Check

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army announced last night the suspension for security reasons of an undisclosed number of persons at its Signal Corps laboratory at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

It declined to give details. The Chicago Tribune press service said that among five persons suspended were two "top scientists engaged in the development of America's radar defenses against enemy attack."

The Tribune did not disclose the source of information for its copyrighted story, but said the Army's investigation stemmed from an inquiry by the Senate investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis).

The Chicago Tribune account said those suspended included "two other scientific workers and a clerical employe, similarly employed in top secret military work."

"All five men . . . have had access for years to this country's defense secrets in the electronics field," the Tribune said in a dispatch from Washington written by Willard Edwards.

The Army, in a brief statement, disclosed no names and did not specify the security charges.

"These employes," it said, "have been given letters of charges stating the reasons for their suspension. They have the right within 30 days after the receipt of the charges to request a hearing before a security hearing board."

The Chicago Tribune said the suspensions "were personally ordered" by Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens.

The Tribune account continued: "Thirty employes at Ft. Monmouth, in addition to those suspended, are under investigation on security grounds. A number of these will be questioned by the McCarthy committee.

"Several figures in the Rosenberg case will be involved in the inquiry. There are definite links between the former atomic spy ring and those under investigation in the present investigation."

Injunction Plea Denied by Court

Action Sought to Stop City From Setting Up Parking Areas

The Michigan Supreme Court Tuesday denied a temporary injunction which sought to prevent Pontiac from proceeding to set up municipal parking areas, according to City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Ewart said the injunction was petitioned for by attorneys for the Outdoor Parking Co.

They asked for the injection pending a high court decision on their appeal of a suit which sought to nullify city action to set up parking lots with meter revenues, hold a referendum on the municipal parking issue and prevent future use of city funds for off-street parking.

The suit was dismissed in Oakland County Circuit Court in August.

Attorney for the parking company, Harold E. Howlett, said he had not been officially notified of the court's action on the injunction.

The appeal should not be affected even if the injunction has been denied, he added.

Reds Demand More Time to Talk to Reluctant PWs

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Communists today accused the U. N. Command of stalling the start of explanations to war prisoners who refuse to go home and demanded an extension of the time limit.

The UNC flatly turned down the demand for more time and denied responsibility for the delay.

Allied and Communist explanation teams were to start meeting Sept. 26 with the 23,000 war prisoners—all but 359 of them former Communist soldiers—in an effort to persuade them to return home.

A dispute over facilities has stalled the start of the interviews. The Allies insist the armistice agreement clearly spells out that the explanation period end Dec. 24, regardless of delays. The Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission said Tuesday he agreed with the U. S. stand.

There were indications that the interviews would get under way next week, provided the Allies finish temporary explanation facilities.

The Reds made the demand at a meeting of the Korean Armistice Commission and also:

1. Protested the "public clamor" in South Korea for ROK troops to drive into the neutral zone and free the anti-Communist POWs.

2. Charged the UNC is sending "special agents" into the demilitarized zone to contact the prisoners and "undermine" the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, which has custody of the POWs. The UNC denied the accusation.

The senior Red delegate to the armistice commission, North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Sang Cho, said any attack by the South Koreans would "have serious consequences."

He askd Maj. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, his commission counterpart, what the Allied command was doing to prevent a South Korean show of force.

"Our side," Bryan replied coldly, "understands its responsibilities with regard to maintaining security and order . . . (and) . . . will discharge its responsibility."

The chairman of the repatriation commission, Indian Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, sent a note to the UNC protesting the South Korean threats.

Temperatures Stay Bit Above Freezing

Pontiac area escaped freezing temperatures this morning, but got its heaviest frost of the season when the mercury stuck at 35 degrees for three hours.

Temperatures plunged to 35 at 5 a. m. today and remained there until a warming trend at 8 a. m. Despite sunny skies, the mercury only rose to 52 degrees by 2 p. m. in downtown Pontiac.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecasts little change in temperatures, with fair weather and a low of from 32 to 35 degrees tonight and a high of from 56 to 60 Wednesday. Tuesday's temperatures ranged from a low of 39 to a high of 53 degrees here.

FBI Nabs Man, Woman; $600,000 Ransom Paid

Third Suspect Is Hunted in Kidnaping, Shooting of Boy; Most of Payment Recovered

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The body of kidnaped 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease was found today in a shallow grave at St. Joseph, Mo., in the backyard of a woman, who with a man is held by the FBI as two of his abductors.

The FBI said a $600,000 ransom had been turned over to the kidnapers last Sunday by Bobby's 71-year-old multi-millionaire father. The greater portion of this money was recovered, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said in Washington.

The couple was arrested by police at St. Louis. They are Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, and Carl Austin Hall, 37.

In Washington, FBI Director Hoover said Hall had admitted shooting the boy. He added that Hall, an ex-convict, and the woman had implicated Thomas John Marsh, 37. Both Hall and Marsh have served terms in the Missouri State Penitentiary.

Hall was reported to have had $300,000 ransom money in his possession when arrested.

Bobby's badly decomposed body was found, the FBI said, following the arrest of the pair in St. Louis. But police were not able to say immediately just when the child had been slain.

Murder and kidnaping are both punishable under Missouri law by a maximum penalty of death in the gas chamber. In the case of kidnaping, the death penalty may be imposed by a jury regardless whether the victim was slain or released unharmed.

The family was notified of the boy's death by the FBI at 10 a.m. (CST). A family physician who called at the home a short time later said the father, Robert C. Greenlease, took the news hard but then appeared to become reconciled to it.

Mrs. Greenlease, in her mid-40s, has been under the doctor's care since the kidnaping.

The boy was kidnaped by a woman from an exclusive private Catholic school here Sept. 28—just 10 days ago. She posed as his aunt to get him from a nun by saying his mother had suffered a heart attack.

The family received a letter from the kidnappers that night, it was disclosed today. The address on the letter presumably was in a child's handwriting. The note was printed in block letters.

The letter demanded $600,000 ransom in 10 and 20 dollar bills, the money to be stuffed in an Army duffel bag.

The bulky bag of money was tossed—according to directions—over a culvert or bridge about 6:15 p.m. last Sunday. The bridge was reported to be between here and St. Joseph, 55 miles north of Kansas City.

Shortly afterwards a telephone call was received at the big red-brick two-story Greenlease home. The elderly automobile distributor is reputedly one of the 10 wealthiest men in Kansas City.

City Drafting Icebox Policy

Rash of Deaths Also Prompts Broomfield to Ask State Statute

In an effort to safeguard Pontiac children from hazardous abandoned iceboxes, Pontiac City Commission instructed the city attorney Tuesday night to draw up an ordinance regulating unused iceboxes.

Commissioner Harold W. Dudley introduced the motion after citing the rash of icebox deaths. Four teen children in the United States have perished this year when trapped in iceboxes.

Meanwhile in Lansing, State Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) filed a bill with a legislative clerk which would make it a misemeanor to abandon old iceboxes without first ripping off the doors or lids.

The measure, known as House Bill No. 1, calls for a fine of $100 or 30 days in jail or both. It will be the first measure introduced in Michigan's House of Representatives next January.

Broomfield said hundreds of parents throughout the state have urged him to introduce such a bill.

Mr. Koch, sales manager for R. L. Polk and Co., had been hunting in northern Michigan.

Woman Claims She Didn't Know Boy Was Kidnaped

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A couple arrested here admitted today the kidnaping of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, whose body was found in a shallow grave at St. Joseph, Mo., but denied they killed the child.

Under arrest are Carl Austin Hall of Kansas City, 34-year-old ex-convict, who admitted collecting ransom and burying the boy's body, and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, who admitted taking the child from a private Kansas City school by posing as his aunt.

Police said Hall insisted he found the boy dead on the day of the kidnaping, Sept. 28, in the basement of Mrs. Heady's home in St. Joseph.

"My God, I didn't plan to harm the child!" Hall said.

Mrs. Heady, a childless divorcee, professed ignorance of the child's death and insisted she didn't know she was participating in a kidnaping when she took the boy from the school, O'Connell said.

Hall said he negotiated for $600,000 ransom by mail and telephone and collected an undetermined amount left near Kansas City by an intermediary last Sunday.

Authorities said $292,000 in ransom money and a .25 caliber pistol containing three discharged cartridges were found in Hall's room at the Congress Hotel here, where he was arrested.

"I didn't know it was a kidnaping," Mrs. Heady said.

She said she posed as the boy's aunt and took him from the French institute of Notre Dame de Sion in Kansas City at Hall's request.

Hall told her, she said, that he was a former husband of the child's mother, Mrs. Robert Greenlease, and hadn't been allowed to visit the boy.

"I thought he just wanted to visit him a couple of hours," Mrs. Heady said. "He told me later he took the boy back to the school. I found out the next morning it was a kidnaping.

"I asked him about it. He insisted he took the boy back. I didn't go to the police, I knew I would be blamed for taking the

The picturesque English Tudor home and 34 acres of the Bertha M. Fisher estate on Lake Angelus were sold Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rothberg of Detroit.

The late Fred J. Fisher purchased the extensive lakeshore property in 1917 and built the formal home in the early 20s.

Exterior of the home is concrete masonry with wood sections marking the Tudor lines.

Twelve acres of the property are under cultivation. This includes several formal gardens, landscaped lawns and a vegetable garden. The Fishers were widely noted for their collection of rare shrubs planted here from all parts of the globe.

One thousand feet of steel sea wall marks the lakeshore border and the property also includes a large boathouse and a caretaker's cottage besides the guest house.

Rothberg is associated with the Petroleum Service Co. of Detroit.

Interior decorating will begin nextweek in the home with the Rothbergs' son, Howard P. Rothbert, the noted New York decorator, redoing the house in Tudor style.

Paul A. Kern Jr., of the Pontiac real estate firm of Paul A. Kern, Inc., represented the Rothbergs in the transaction and the seller was represented by Snyder, Kinney & Bennett of Birmingham.

Birmingham School Board Expected to Accept One of Three Bids on Addition

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — One of three bids taken last night on the $217,000 Bloomfield Elementary School addition is expected to be accepted at a meeting of the School Board tomorrow morning, after final recommendation of Swanson Associates, architects.

Low bids on construction, plumbing, heating and electrical work totaled $220,778, or $3,778 over the $217,000 revised estimate set after it was necessary to change the roof of the proposed addition, and, under state law, the present boiler system.

Supt. of Schools Dr. Dwight B. Ireland in calling for a meeting for 8 a. m. tomorrow said, "There is no reason why we shouldn't accept one of these bids Thursday morning, as they are only slightly over our estimate."

Last August the board slashed $126,167 from the original Bloomfield project, after bids taken a month earlier were $129,443 over the estimate.

In reducing the cost of the six-room addition, at that time Ireland said no space had been lost, that plans had merely been modified.

Honest Pontiac Trooper Returns $440 to Bank

Pontiac State Trooper John Benaglio, 27, returned $440 to the Ypsilanti State Bank yesterday after he was overpaid that sum Saturday.

Benaglio, a commanding officer of a Flint National Guard medical unit, cashed a $660 check to pay guardsmen their monthly wages.

"When I returned home I found they overpaid me $440," he said, "so I called the bank Monday and told them I was coming in to return the money."

Benaglio, who lives at 2415 Silver Circle Dr., has been with the Pontiac State Police post for two years.

Bobby Greenlease Found Murdered

Monday, Oct. 5, telling where the boy would be found. When the deadline came and passed without the arrival of a telegram, it became obvious to the family the kidnapers were only seeking time to escape.

Joyful expectation of the boy's release turned to tears for the family and their friends.

Three days of silence at the Greenlease home was broken early today by the reappearance of Robert Ledterman of Tulsa, Okla., a family spokesman who had been missing there for three days.

His return prompted hope that ransom negotiations had been successful and the boy's return was imminent.

Then came a uqick, tragic turn in developments. After a flurry of rumors, the FBI announced that the boy's body had been found in a shallow grave in the backyard of Mrs. Heady in St. Joseph.

The grave was behind a modest frame bungalow surrounded by a hedge of honeysuckles.

The FBI said it had definitely established Hall handled the letters demanding the ransom.

Hall told St. Louis police he first became acquainted with the Greenlease family years ago when he attended the same school with Paul Greenlease, an adopted son who now is associated in the automobile business with the father.

Greenlease said he did not recall attending school with Hall.

Hall admitted he had been planning the kidnaping of Bobby for about two years.

Hall was paroled from the Missouri State Penitentiary last April 24 from a 5-year term for robbery which he started serving Jan. 29, 1952.

Mrs. Heady has been arrested numerous times.

Marsh was released from the Missouri prison in October, 1951 from a two-year term for child molestation.

The FBI says Marsh is a marked man—he has his name tattooed on his right forearm. A broad hunt immediately was set off for Marsh by the arrest of the couple in St. Louis.

Wilson Sees Reds Behind on Bomb

one has a hydrogen bomb yet. He distinguished between a thermonuclear or hydrogen test "device" and a "transportable bomb."

The United States is widely assumed to have practical H-bombs, although no official statement to that effect has been made.

The President, upon whom devolves the ultimate responsibility for deciding how close the danger is, avoided a time forecast or any flat claim that the U. S. S. R. has or doesn't have an actual hydrogen bomb when he spoke yesterday at Atlantic City. He talked somberly of the 'mysteries of the atom" being known to Russia, of atomic war which could bring "erasure of cities, windrows of unidentifiable dead, the possible doom of every nation and society."

Senators Ellender (D-La) and Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said Wilson's statement was cheering to them, since it confirmed their own beliefs in the matter.

"I have always doubted that the Russians were capable of doing some of the things people said they can do," Ellender said in an interview.

Screening Set for Police Chief

Waterford Township Board to Meet Oct. 17 to Deliberate

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Final screening of top applicants for chief of Waterford Township's new police force will be made at a special meeting of the Township Board Oct. 17, according to Supervisor Lloyd Anderson.

At a meeting of the board today a $5,500-per-year salary for the chief was unanimously approved.

Salaries of sergeants and patrolmen will be determined following discussions between the board and the new chief, board members resolved.

Anderson said yesterday that he had received several informal applications for the position which opened Oct. 3. So far no formal applications have been tendered, he reported.

Applications for the position will be taken until Oct. 14.

It is hoped that the new chief will be named by Oct. 17, but Anderson said he would most likely be chosen at the Oct. 28 meeting.

Woman Claims She Didn't Kidnap Boy

boy, and I didn't want Carl taken away from me. I love him too much."

When told the boy's body had been found in the back yard of her home in St. Joseph, Mrs. Heady exclaimed:

"You found him! And in my back yard!"

Police Chief O'Connell said Hall implicated a second man in the case. O'Connell would identify this man only as "Tom."

The FBI announced in Washington that Hall and Mrs. Heady implicated Thomas John Marsh, 37-year-old former convict who served a term for molesting a minor child.

Hall told his questioners at a district police headquarters that he and "Tom" had confined Bobby to the basement-garage of the St. Joseph house.

Asked by the police chief whether he shot the boy to death, Hall replied "no." H esaid he found replied "no." He said he found had give "Tom" two or three days earlier.

"I don't know what I did after finding the body," Hall said.

Further questioning brought from Hall the admission that he wrapped the body in a canvas cover and buried it in the back yard. "I had to get rid of it," Hall said.

Mrs. Heady said "I've been half drunk since the kidnaping."

She was almost incoherent as the questioning began, but later regained her composure. Her face bore scratches. She said Hall had struck her and that she fell while drunk.

Bobby wasn't frightened when she took him from the school, Mrs. Heady said. She said she was nervous at the time "but he was such a sweet child."

"He came so nice," she said. "He talked about getting a dog and ice cream."

She told police she turned the boy over to Hall a few blocks from the school.

Hall said he wrote two letters to the family and made "four or five" telephone contacts with members of the family.

In one of the letters, Hall said, he enclosed a medal Bobby was wearing on his clothing when he was taken from the school.

Macomb Sheriff Says Arson Caused 2 Fires

MT. CLEMENS (UP)—Detective Leon Kandt of the Macomb County Sheriff's office blamed arson today for an $8,000 fire which destroyed two barns almost simultaneously.

Kandt said in a report to the state fire marshal's office that firemen called to put out the barn fire also found smaller blazes set in the farm home of Hugo Lietz.

Lietz said hay and farm machinery housed in the barns also were lost.

Tests to Finish in Birmingham

Friday Is Final Day to Bring Youngsters In for Sight Examination

BIRMINGHAM — Junior League Vision Screening program, where children aged 3 to 5 may have their eyes tested free of charge, will conclude its stay at the Birmingham Community House this Friday, but tests will be given from 9:30 a.m.-noon tomorrow and Friday.

Working in cooperation with the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Inc., with state and local board of health officials, and with the Board of Education, Junior League members have been trained by a consultant nurse sent by the national society.

Co-chairman Mrs. Gene White said the Board of Education has urged parents of children entering school next fall to have their children's eyes tested now, so that correction can either be made or started, prior to the beginning of the school term.

Parents are notified of test results and the local health nurse will contact parents previously notified their child has failed the test, to see what has been done in the way of treatment and examination.

The chairman said over 1,000 children have taken the test in this area since the spring of 1952, when the Junior League first started the program here.

Local Hoboes Feel Cold; Boxcar Fire Costs $100

A fire started by several hoboes in the railroad yard near 545 Telegraph Rd. last night caused an estimated $100 damage to a boxcar, according to Pontiac Fire Department.

Firemen believe the hoboes were trying to keep warm near the fire when it got out of control.

Hospital Stressing Fire Equipment Use

Pontiac General Hospital is observing National Fire Prevention Week with emphasis on the use of fire control equipment and prevention measures.

Director Lauretta F. Paul said fire extinguisher demonstrations are being given to personnel, and bulletins urging constant practice of fire prevention techniques are posted in conspicuous places throughout the building.

Miss Paul said the recently revised hospital evacuation program was approved and key personnel were instructed to pass the information along to employes.

She also stated that fire drills for employes are to be scheduled at regular intervals. These will be arranged to avoid disturbing patients.

Michigan Wishes Him Well

David Boyne of Marlette to Bid for FFA Presidency

MARLETTE (UP) — David Boyne, just back from England where he spent the summer visiting 24 farms, made final plans today for his bid for the presidency of the National Future Farmers of America.

Boyne, a 19-year-old farm youth from Marlette in Sanilac County is considered one of the top candidates for the FFA presidency.

If elected, he would be the first Michigan boy to hold a national FFA office in nearly 20 years.

Two state officials, Gov. G. Mennen Williams and superintendent of public instruction, Clair L. Taylor, met Boyne Tuesday and wished him success in his bid for the presidency at the FFA's national convention in Kansas City next week.

"You have my vote," Williams quipped.

"I could use it," Boyne said.

But he added his "campaign" for election was unlike a political campaign in that he could only present his qualifications to a nominating committee "and hope they'll feel I'm the man for the job."

State FFA officials believe Boyne who was state FFA president last year, is the best candidate Michigan has had in many years for a national office and they are predicting he will "go all the way."

They point out he was a member of last year's nominating committee "and should know what it takes to meet the committee's requirements."

Michigan last held a national FFA office in 1935 when Carl Shopbell, now of Reading, was national reporter, an office that has since been abolished.

Meanwhile, state FFA officials are mapping plans for participation in the Kansas City Convention which opens Monday and ends Thursday.

Michigan's two voting delegates will be Richard Arnold, Plainwell, state FFA president, and Kenneth Austin, Ovid, a past state officer. Two others, Bill Raymond, Pickford, a state vice president, and Richard Fairleigh, Dowagiac, state secretary, will be alternate delegates.

Says Point Four Funds Misused

Dem Senator Charges Overzealous Officials Spend Too Freely

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La), back from a 45,000-mile trip, said today he had found the Point Four program of technical assistance to underdeveloped nations being converted into an economic aid program.

The Point Four program is not being limited to imparting American know-how, he said. Instead, he asserted, many costly capital investments are being made by impatient and overly ambitious administrators. The senator declared this appeared to him to be a misuse of funds and that he was determined to find out where the money came from.

Ellender told newsmen that unless a halt is called, he thinks Congress will sour on the program and deny funds for carrying it on.

On a trip that took him around Africa, to southern India, Ceylon, Singapore, the East Indies, Australia and New Zealand, the senator said, he also had found waste in the overseas information program and in U. S. embassies and consulates.

Ellender said he had an appointment to talk with the President about it tomorrow.

He said he felt American Point Four advisers were trying to do too much too quickly. "They think they can take backward people and teach them our ways overnight," he said.

In some countries, he said, "our advisers are proposing so many projects that it would overtax the economy of the host country to carry them out." He added that, as a result, there is a tendency for this country to step in and supply needed capital.

In one case, he said, this country is paying half the cost of building and equipping an agricultural college. In another, he said, the United States is paying 40 per cent of the cost, or 10 million dollars, to reclaim desert land, ultimately to be sold to farmers, with proceeds going to the host government.

He said that in another case the United States agreed to pay half the cost of building 25 houses for American technicians, but so far the United States has spent $150,000, the host country $40,000 and only nine houses have been finished.

Chicago Police Nab Youth Who Shot 2

CHICAGO (AP)—A youth who police said killed a boy and wounded a patrolman was captured without a struggle last night, nearly 24 hours after he escaped from a police station.

Carey Robinson, 19, sought since Monday night, was seized by detectives in a flat near his own West Side home.

Robinson was originally arrested by police as a suspected auto thief. He bolted to freedom while being questioned by detectives Monday night. He shot Patrolman James Quinlan, 40, startling the detectives when he pulled a gun from his belt.

As he fled into the street, police said, he fired two or three more shots. One bullet struck and killed Daniel Decero, 11, who was walking near the station.

Robinson told detectives although police had searched him they did not find the gun he had tucked in a holster nestled inside his waistband. He said he had stolen the gun in a holdup Saturday.

He was held without charge for appearance Thursday at an inquest into the Decero boy's death.

Many Detroiters may not know it but there's a 300-acre salt mine being operated 1,137 feet beneath their city. Located under the southwestern portion of Detroit, it contains some 20 miles of underground tunnels, each 50 to 60 feet wide and 22 feet high.

Michigan Births to Hit All-Time High of 180,000

LANSING (UP) — The number of babies born in Michigan this year will reach an all-time high of 180,000, state Health Department officials predicted today.

During the first eight months of this year, from January through August, there were 113,972 babies born compared to 113,164 during the same period in 1952, Dr. F. S. Leeder said.

Leeder said the total on Aug. 31 marked the first time this year that the number of births had passed 1952 figures. Until then, 1953 births were running slightly behind last year.

Last year, a record 176,642 babies were born in the state. The previous high was 160,275 in 1947.

August's 16,380 births was the highest total for a single month in state history, Leeder said. He said the number of births during September probably would be even higher when final figures are in.

"September is usually our biggest month for newborn babies," he said.

Births so far this year include January, 10,740, February, 13,048, March, 15,497, April, 13,165, May, 14,370, June 15,083, and July 15,689, and July, 15,689.

Townships Plan Battle for Tax

Officers Organize; Will Fight for Share of State Sales Levy

LANSING (AP) — Township officers, facing threats to their jobs and attacks on their share of the sales tax, today had launched a new organization to fight their legislative battles.

The Michigan Township Association was created by 610 township officials from 61 counties in a hotel ballroom yesterday.

The prime purpose of the organization is to fight plans advanced by schoolmen and sometimes backed by county and city officials to strip townships of their assessing powers.

But probably just as important is the fight to retain the townships' share of the sales tax diversion. The allocation of the money to townships has been widely attacked as wasteful and unnecessary. This, townships deny.

Leonard Broquet of Wayne County was elected president, and Joseph A. Parisi of Kalamazoo County, leading organizer of the group, was named executive director.

Rep. Roy Brigham (R-Battle Creek), who is also a township supervisor, was elected first vice president; John R. Regan of Houghton County, second vice president; Leonard Lamb of Presque Isle County, third vice president; Helen H. Reese of Oakland County, secretary, and Leo LaPointe of Lake County, treasurer.

Runaway Cars Roll Into Train

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Southern Railway's crack Birmingham Special, Washington bound, was struck just before midnight today by a string of runaway freight cars which glanced off a switch engine.

A railroad inspector was killed and two other trainmen were injured.

Gov. Frank Clement, en route to confer with President Eisenhower on the Tennessee Valley Authority, was aboard the stopped train with his wife and young son. But they, like the rest of the passengers, were not injured.

Wreckage was piled to the top of the viaduct near the Southern Railway passenger station in downtown Knoxville. High-voltage power lines were knocked down and the immediate area was closed.

Killed was inspector W. O. Smelser, checking wheels on the passenger train at the time. Hospitalized with undetermined injuries were fireman J. E. Troutman, 32, and flagman J.C. May.

The freight cars had been turned out from a shop 2½ miles away. A slight grade apparently gave them momentum after they broke away, so that they were traveling at least 25 miles an hours when they hit the switch engine. Both engineer and fireman jumped to safety.

The cars then bounced into the Special, knocking a hole in one sleeper car. None of the passenger cars was derailed or upset. Wreckage of the empty freight cars covered five tracks.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1953

2nd Hoover Group on Job

Having completed formal organization the new Hoover Commission begins a two year task which should produce results of great importance and benefit.

Unlike the first commission which concerned itself mainly with administrative waste, the new group will turn its attention to previously unexplored fields. These will include such things as Government functions and fundamental questions of political philosophy.

For example, it will examine the long debated question of Government competition with business, especially in the field of electric power. Other subjects to come under scrutiny will be management of public lands, overlapping management of other natural resources and Federal medical and health services.

One of the commission's goals will be to find ways of eliminating, reducing or simplifying the many Government agencies which overburden the President. At the same time, however, it will focus much of its attention on the more controversial questions of policy and programs.

The fact that Mr. Hoover again is chairman and that six of its members were on the first commission promises that no time will be lost in getting the new inquiry into high gear.

Congress has approved 72 per cent of the first Hoover Commission's recommendations. When these are in full operation they are expected to save taxpayers four billion dollars a year.

With the new commission's broader powers and greater scope of inquiry it seems reasonable to expect comparably valuable recommendations for improving national Government.

U. S. Sales Tax Here Now

With the 1954 campaign already under way, it was only natural that the question of a Federal sales tax would come in for increasing discussion.

President Eisenhower has made it clear that his Administration is not considering such a tax. But he obviously left the door wide open for a possible request to Congress for a Federal manufacturer's tax.

Politicians generally, and Democrats in particular, don't like either of these levies. Either could be attacked on the ground that it hits at low income groups.

What the politicians haven't gotten around to saying yet is that we already have hidden and unhidden taxes no different in character than a sales levy.

Right now, U. S. News & World Report reminds us, we already are paying a Federal sales tax about as broad as any the Treasury is considering. But the public is only vaguely aware of this burden because much of it is hidden in the retail cost of commodities and services.

Besides these hidden levies which few articles escape, there are "the out in the open" excises. These include taxes on furs, jewelry, handbags, luggage, clocks and watches, cosmetics, entertainment admissions, telephone and telegraph bills and travel tickets.

On April 1, 1954, some of these rates, increased to help pay for the Korean War, are scheduled to be reduced. Because this would cut revenues by about one billion a year, the Administration has asked Congress to block the reduction written into the law.

How much do all these taxes cost us?

For the current fiscal year the total will be about $10 billion, or $62 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

Who Invited Them?

Senator Jenner's investigating committee is looking for an answer to a question which may cause some serious embarrassment in Washington circles.

The committee wants to know who is responsible for the grand tour of Moscow purchasing agents reportedly arranged to include 57 American industrial centers.

Tip-off on the tour came from a guest book at the District of Columbia waterworks signed by a half dozen Moscow residents. According to a news dispatch, these visitors toured the waterworks, examined the engineering setup and generally made themselves at home.

Among other things, the committee wants to know why the visitors were allowed to make sketches and take photographs of defense machinery and utility installations.

Another question which should be asked is why these purchasing agents are here when we aren't selling anything to Russia. It will be interesting to learn the identity of the Federal officials who have such peculiar ideas about national security.

One of the worst forms of deflation comes when you wake up in the morning feeling like 50 cents, after having attended a party the night before at which you felt like a million dollars.

Buses and Gravel Trucks Are Disregarding Speed Limit

Daffynition

Law: As a profession, what some women take up, while other women lay it down without taking it up.

Gravel trucks and Greyhound buses continue to be the principal violators in the restricted speed zones on the Dixie Highway northwest of Pontiac, where so many fatal accidents have taken place. They can be clocked any day at 50 to 60 miles per hour in the 35-mile zones, and at 60 to 80 miles per hour in the 45-mile zones.

At its annual meeting Monday at Adrian, of 327 West Iroquois Road, Pontiac, was re-elected president of the Erie & Kalamazoo Railroad, a position he has held many years. Now a part of the New York Central System, this was the first railroad built in Michigan. Mr. Crane is the great grandson of its first president.

George H. Crane

The whole situation is summed up in that remark by

County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks:

"Now that the World Series is over, business should get back to normal."

For those kind words about the Pontiac Press, put in rhyme by

'Amused Observer' Notes That Presidents of Each Party Are Chided on Vacations

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature).

For twenty years, while the Democratic Party was in office putting the country back on its feet, we listened to many gripes from the other side. Someone was always complaining about the fishing trips of those in office. Even today such a great man as President Roosevelt is not allowed to rest peacefully.

It seems odd that now when we hear an occasional remark about the frequent golfing trips of our current President, that person is immediately called a "die hard" and accused of showing lack of respect!

Alabama Law Upholds Worker's Right to Make Own Choice on Union Issue

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — What is the definition of a true "liberal" and what is the acid test of liberalism in America today?

Governor Gordon Persons of Alabama, Democrat, in a recent message to his legislature gave an explanation of the civil rights of an individual which merits the designation of liberal in the best sense of the word.

For the Alabama governor defined the "right to work" and, by the bill he made into law, thwarted attempts to enslave the workers of Alabama.

This would have resulted from proposals to make the tenure of a worker's job dependent on what he thinks—a species of "thought control" almost never condemned by the so-called "liberals."

It is strange that a document of such importance has not been published generally before this outside the state of Alabama, especially since many columns of news space have been given recently to a discussion of 19 proposed amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act, sponsored by Martin Durkin, one of which would have taken away from Alabama and all other states the right, by state law, to protect the individual against compulsory unionization.

The text of this historic message, which is about the best summary ever written against compulsory membership in a trade union as the condition of holding a job, is presented in full text here—the first time nationally published:

"I have given a great deal of thought to the 'right-to-work' bill (H. 222) which passed the house by 67 to 24 and the senate 23 to 9.

"Mainly, this bill provides that no person shall be denied the privilege of working because he does not belong to a labor union and that no firm shall be forced to deduct union dues from the salary of the worker.

"Our labor union friends contend, and rightfully so, that unions have helped make possible better working conditions and higher wages.

"Because of this they feel that all employes in a unionized plant should be forced to join the union and that union dues be deducted from pay checks in what is known as the 'check-off' system. Union officials refer to those who do not desire to belong to the union as 'free riders' because such nonmembers obtain benefits of unions, without helping pay for such benefits.

"Along with this same line of reasoning is the fact that our churches are the greatest organizations in the world. They have done much for all mankind. Yet, no citizen is forced to belong to any church or required to pay church dues.

"Unquestionably the American Legion, the VFW and other service organizations have done much to provide benefits to the veterans. Yet, it is not required of any veteran that he be forced to join any of the service organizations or required to pay dues to any of them.

"As a matter of fact, individual labor unions themselves have the right to say whether they belong to the AFL, the CIO or, in the case of others such as the railroad organizations and the UMW, to remain free and independent unions.

"The Alabama Farm Bureau Federation has done much for our farmers. Yet, no farmer is forced to be a member of the farm bureau or to pay dues to them unless he so desires.

"The Alabama Education Association is the organization which represents school teachers, and while the AEA has worked to provide for higher wages and safeguard working conditions for the teachers, those who do belong, do so of their own free will. They are not forced to join the AEA nor do they have dues deducted from their salary checks.

"The various business organizations, including those representing automobile dealers, grocery stores and drug stores in Alabama, have unquestionably been of much assistance to their members. Yet, no business firm or factory is forced to become a member of any organization.

"Many other such examples could be given. It may well be that workers in some of our Northern states do not object to being required to join the labor organization in their plant and have no feeling about being forced to have dues deducted from their pay checks.

"However, in the South we have free and independent workers. Many wish to join labor organizations and do so. Certainly that is their privilege.

"On the other hand, many do not like the idea of being forced to join any labor union as a condition to work. Neither are they agreeable to having union dues deducted from their salary checks.

"Those who first settled in our great country did so because they wanted to. It has always been a tradition in America that any man could do as he pleased so long as he did not violate the laws of our land.

"In my opinion, all of our labor unions will be far stronger and the members in them will have a far greater interest and respect in the organizations if membership can be shown to be shown to be desirable and they are not forced to join.

"Because I believe in free labor and free enterprise, I am today signing the 'right-to-work' bill."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Selling Yourself Comes Before Selling of Wares

Sarah is a very charming girl who is active in teen-age affairs at her church. She wants to know how young people can be better Christians. Study this Case Record and compare it with the follow-up that will appear tomorrow.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-309: Sarah L., aged 18, is an attractive leader in the Young People's Society of a large church.

"We are having a District Rally and hope you can address our group," she said.

"There will be hundreds of teenagers present. And we'd like to have you show us how to be better Christians."

Briefly, this involves becoming better salesmen of the remarkable ethical system which Christ represents.

But one of the cardinal rules of successful salesmanship is this: You must first sell yourself as a friendly, likable person, before you can sell your wares.

For if your companions dislike you, you can't sell them pure gold bricks of even 24-carat assay. Neither can you sell them your religion.

So all church people should learn how to win friends and become personally popular.

This includes the art of starting friendly conversation. For salesmanship is chiefly limited to words.

Suppose Sarah were sitting tongue-tied beside another young person: How could she do any good missionary work for her church?

She should try to get conversation started so she can become at least friendly. Specifically, what can Sarah do?

Well, if her companion chances to meet her glance, she can pay him a compliment by a smile. That's a surefire non-verbal type of compliment. You can always employ it when you can't think of anything to say.

But don't stop there. If the man doesn't make any further overture to talk, casually let your magazine slip off your lap and upon the floor.

If he is worth talking to, he will certainly reach over to retrieve it for you. That should then break the ice.

For you can now smile sweetly and say, "Thank you. You are very gallant."

Be sure to slip in that idea of being "gallant." Don't omit any legitimate opportunity to give a bit of praise to your companion.

For such words are made to be used. Especially pleasant, friendly words of commendation.

So don't be a verbal Silas Marner, trying to hoard your vocabulary. Use it. That's what good words are for. Remember, they don't draw any interest by being hidden in your mind, unspoken!

Now suppose your companion acknowledges your "Thank you" with a friendly little "You're welcome."

You have started the motor of the conversational "machine" and your companion has shoved it into low gear.

But you still haven't got the momentum up to 20 miles per hour where it will roll of its own accord.

So you must shove it into second gear. This can often be done most neatly by fading out of your part of the dialogue with a question mark.

The latter is shaped like a fish hook, anyway, and gracefully "hooks" your companion into coming back for another part of the dialogue. So add:

"It's a pleasure to meet such a considerate boy as you are. You must have a fine mother, to be so thoughtful?" End with a question note.

Tomorrow we'll continue with this dialogue technique.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

International News Service

California judge says that nagging is not a form of affection.

Any more than playing a violin with a saw is music.

The sun-spangled decision of the California oyer and terminer league is on the level. It was motivated by a husband who couldn't call his ears his own.

The far western ukase stated definitely that nagging was not love. This will surprise many wives who think it is.

Just as many persnickety husbands will be included in the output.

Webster's word foundry diagnoses nagging as pertinaciously annoying. Fortunately, in the preface to that imperishable volume Daniel doesn't state he owes it all to the little woman.

In the case of the ladies we might define it as charmingly persistent.

In Baer's glossary of polished ignorance we find that nagging is any reasonable request made twice.

There are various samples of nagging such as eating Indian nuts, drumming with the fingers, sneering above sea level or rocking on a loose board.

Most of the time it's the monotonous dripple of a synchronized neurosis. It's a radared ear-ache tuned to infinity.

The California Solomon does not have to answer to more than one wife. The original wiseacre had a chorus of a thousand.

Brady Wishes He Had Taken Languages Instead of All That Time on Old Algebra

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Way back when Topsy was a colt a haircut was two bits and round steak — well, round steak was in the market if you could get up the nerve to ask for it when everybody else was buying sirloin, porterhouse and the like.

Once in a great while nowadays, inadvertently, a round steak still shows in the butcher shop.

About the time haircuts went up to 50 cents or maybe seventy-five—anyway I still patronized the barber shop—one of the best barbers I ever knew confided to me the secret of his contentment and his success in business. He had never learned to read.

He said he supposed I'd regard this as a great impediment. Most people did. But from his observation of all kinds of people it seemed that the more people read the more confused and worried and prejudiced and unhappy they are.

"Look at me, I can't read a word, but I'm doing all right, I love my wife and children and they are not ashamed of me. I don't envy or hate anybody, I respect a good man no matter what his religion, color, politics or nationality.

"I believe God meant that I should not learn to read, and so I don't want to. I go to bed nights and sleep like a baby. No sir, I wouldn't be in any other man's shoes.

"My wife reads everything. My children attend school. But tell me this: Would I be a better man, a happier man o. a better barber if I could read?"

It ocurred to me that the fellow might be pulling my leg and for a time I watched for betrayal of his make-believe when I was in his shop. But the man was illiterate all right, and I could not then, and have never since been able to conceive how learning to read could make him a happier man or a better barber.

The question has haunted my mind for many years and now it comes back with greater insistence than ever.

Somehow or other I remarked in a recent piece that I regard the time I spent in algebra classes in high school as a total loss. I look back at my high school days with great satisfaction.

There are only a few high school teachers today, it seems to me, who rate the high standing of the teachers we had in those gay years.

Now they tell me I ought to be ashamed to disparage high school algebra. A physician today needs a fair knowledge of chemistry and the study of algebra in high school is invaluable to the student of chemistry.

Obviously, one educator says, my high school teacher of chemistry was better than the mathematics teacher.

I don't know which was the better teacher, but I still wish I had spent the time I dawdled over algebra acquiring an elementary knowledge of German, Spanish or French.

The professors to the contrary notwithstanding, even though algebra may be of some use to the chemist it is just booey to the practicing physician.

If I'm wrong about this surely someone should be able to cite a concrete instance to prove it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

2 'Disturbed' Girls Cling to Fast Train

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Two emotionally disturbed runaway girls climbed onto a New York Central streamliner here yesterday and clung to the canvas-like windbreakers between cars as the train hit speeds up to 80 miles an hour.

They had little more than a toehold. A slip would have meant death.

They were finally spotted by a trainman at Ypsilanti and the train was brought to an emergency stop at Wayne, 19 miles from here, where they were removed.

The two ran away from the Neuropsychiatric Institute at the University of Michigan. They told sheriff's deputies they ran away because they were "kept in a ward with 27 boys." Dr. Raymond W. Waggoner, director of the institute, termed their story absurd, and fanciful. Deputies said the two had no idea where they were going.

Both were returned to the institute.

Choice Cardboard Cuts Fill Cafe's Refrigerator

BOSTON (AP)—The cafe refrigerator looked full of delicious steaks and chops when Chairman Mary E. Driscoll of the licensing board inspected it.

She was checking to see if the cafe had a legitimate food business required for a cafe liquor license.

Mrs. Driscoll smiled at the proprietor and left the cafe.

"But when I got to the sidewalk, I felt there was something peculiar about all those steaks and chops," she said yesterday.

She returned and took a closer look at the display.

"All the "choice" cuts were just brightly colored cardboard.

Girl 15, Man 40, 'Plan' to Marry

Pair From Wisconsin Are Found in Michigan, Held for Authorities

BARAGA, Mich. (AP)—A 15-year-old Wisconsin girl claimed today "we had planned to marry" and it was "all a mistake" to arrest her and her 40-year-old male companion.

Betty Bailey, 15, said she left her Crandon, Wis., home willingly with Jack Shelton, 40, who police identified as an ex-convict and former boarder in Betty's home. He is wanted in Wisconsin on a charge of enticing a minor (Betty) from her home.

Michigan state troopers said Betty's 16-year-old cousin, Jack Bailey, supported her story as the trio was locked up overnight in the Baraga County jail.

Despite the girl's admission she went willingly, Wisconsin authorities said anyone convicted of enticing a minor from home could be sentenced from three years to life imprisonment. They added that consent of the minor was no defense.

The Bailey youth was with Shelton and Betty when they were captured yesterday in Shelton's car, parked on a dump in the outskirts of Baraga. They had been sought since speeding away from the girl's home Saturday.

Michigan state police said they expected Wisconsin authorities here today.

Mrs. Rollie Bailey, mother of Betty, was quoted in Crandon as saying that Shelton stopped at her home Saturday. After being ordered away, she said, he drove down the road and later intercepted Betty, fleeing with her.

Wisconsin authorities said Shelton had served a term for armed robbery and recently had been released from jail for a traffic violation.

Vegetables Slow Progress Upon Penn Turnpike

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Construction on the Pennsylvaia Turnpike's 33-mile extension to the Delaware River rolled along smoothly until it reached Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poneczek's eight-acre farm in Bucks County.

Nobody, Poneczek said, was going to tear up his truck farm.

The turnpike commission sought, and was granted, an injunction permitting work to continue across Poneczek's farm.

But first, Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite ruled yesterday, the state must count all the parsnips and beets growing on the land so the Poneczek's can be properly reimbursed for sacrificing the vegetables to progress.

French Will Boycott Debate on Morocco

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—French delegates boycotted the U. N. Political Committee today to dramatize their contention that the world organization has no business debating the troubled situation in Morocco.

A spokesman said France would not even issue a statement blasting the opening of debate on the question in the 60-nation committee.

A year ago the U. N. assembly called on France to negotiate with Moroccan authorities "on an urgent basis" toward developing free political institutions. France refused to heed the resolution, contending that the affairs of her North African protectorates are domestic French problems.

Asian and Arab delegates—highly conscious of colonialism—contend that developments in disturbed Morocco make another U.N. try necessary.

Hollywood Fans in Yugoslavia Get Doghouse

Marshal Tito's government recently administered a stinging verbal spanking in the newspaper Borba, voice of Yugoslavia's Communist party.

The practice of soliciting Hollywood pinups, says Borba, is a "waste of time, costly in stamps and degrading for Yugoslavia's youngsters." What's more, parents are criticized as "lax" for letting their kids do it in the first place.

The Borba tirade comes on the heels of a substantial increase in Yugoslav-Hollywood mail. Lately, local teen-agers have even started competing to see who can build up the biggest collection of film star photos.

Borba reports that before the Communists took over control of the government such practices were tolerated even though everyone "laughed because they made fools of themselves."

But times have changed and begging for pictures from screen stars no longer can be overlooked.

"Here in Yugoslavia," says Borba, "all who beg, particularly from foreigners, are scorned because they create an ugly picture of our country."

Besides, it's expensive. As Borba accurately points out stamps are by no means cheap here. And Yugoslavia, nursing every dinar (equivalent of a U. S. dime) can ill afford to indulge in even semi-expensive hobbies.

For Yugoslavia youngsters with a yen to write abroad, Borba offers a suggestion: "Let them write to children in other countries of our country's beauty. Let them send pictures and other things which would help them become acquainted with our country."

The paper hints that reduced postal rates might be put into effect for youngsters engaged in such pen projects.

Autopsy to Determine if Smog Caused Death

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The coroner has ordered an autopsy to determine if smog caused the death of a 69-year-old woman last Saturday.

The woman, Mrs. Gertrude L. Call, died in an area which was heavily permeated by smog that day. Her physician, Dr. J. V. Barrow, wrote on the death certificate that Mrs. Call died of "mild cardial infarction due to heat and smog."

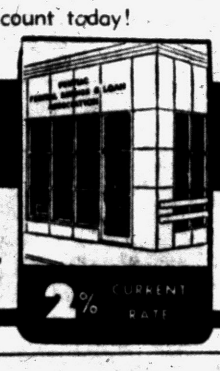

Infarction means lack of proper blood supply.

"I certainly think that smog was the cause of Mrs. Call's death," said Dr. Barrow, former president of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.

Predict German Pact With Reds

Non-Aggression Vows Seen Quieting Russian Rearmament Fears

WASHINGTON (AP)—Proposals for giving Russia guarantees against possible new German aggression are most likely to come to a head in concluding plans to arm Western Germany.

No one here knows whether such assurances would make German arming in the Western alliance any more acceptable to Russia. Many diplomats doubt that it would.

Nevertheless, since the Western Powers now seem determined to go ahead with the German project, and since Russia is bitterly opposed, many feel the idea of a nonaggression guarantee is at least worth a try.

Another circumstance under which Russia could very likely get Western assurances of Germany's future peaceful behavior would be in the event a German unification plan and peace treaty were concluded. In fact, some officials advocate offering a nonaggression guarantee only as part of a package deal with Russia on Germany.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference yesterday that "the general problem of giving reassurance against the possible resurgence of German aggression is a matter which is being studied" by the United States in consultation with the British, French and West German governments.

Dulles said this government is urgently trying to find new ways to remove points of friction with the Soviet government in this hydrogen bomb age.

But Dulles emphasized that as anxious as the United States is to find ways of living with Russia, it is not interested in making meaningless agreements and is not considering any kind of nonaggression assurance other than one concerned with Germany—with guarantees regarding Korea and Austria as future possibilities if the Kremlin shows any interest.

Dulles thus undertook to deflate talk of some general nonaggression pact or system about which there has been speculation here and abroad in recent weeks.

He said Russia and the United States and its allies are members of the United Nations and that the U. N. Charter, with its renunciation of the use of force, makes the best possible nonaggression treaty.

But, Dulles added, the defeated World War II power, Germany is not a member of the United Nations and so it was thought that some means might be found to cover Germany by guarantees similar to those of the U. N. Charter. He said there has been no conclusions on the means.

The situation which gives point to the international talks on this problem is this: After months of delay, France is expected to ratify by early next year a treaty establishing a six-nation European Defense Community (EDC). West Germany, which is not a member of the North Atlantic Alliance, would be a member of EDC and would be rearmed. EDC would be tightly linked with the North Atlantic Alliance.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

MEMBER THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

Hal Boyle Says:

Meet Wilbur Clark, Man Who Has Better Mousetrap

NEW YORK (AP)—Wilbur Clark, who wears a $5,000 wrist watch, is a fine example of how a man can win the success he wants in life if he just sticks to a simple principle.

The principle Wilbur chose was the old copybook maxim that if you built a better mousetrap, even in the wilderness, the world will beat a path to your doorway.

But of course you have to interpret those old copybook rules the right way to make them work. Wilbur decided the better mousetrap was one no mouse would want to get caught in—but people with loaded pockets would fight to enter.

And has it paid off? Listen to Wilbur:

"I guess we're the biggest single operation in the state now. Our expenses alone run $15,000 a day. We netted better than $1 million last year. We have 650 employes, 250 more people than live in my old home town."

Wilbur, a friendly, greying, 42-year-old . . . uh, well . . . industrialist, not only has a $5,000 wrist watch and runs one of the world's plushest mousetraps.

Life has given him other rewards. He is a mayor, the vice president of his local chamber of commerce, and has been named one of the nation's ten best-dressed men. He helps design his own $250 suits, won't allow a buttonhole in his lapels.

"Why punch a hole in a good piece of cloth if you don't like wearing flowers?" he asked reasonably, waving a hand on which a 5-karat diamond ring shone with the subdued charm of a locomotive headlight.

Clark's career follows the classic Horace Greeley pattern, "Go west, young man." He left his native Keyesport, Ill., pawned his high school ring for $4 in Los Angeles, and worked as a bus boy and bell hop in San Diego before obtaining a job in a gambling establishment.

From then on his rise was more rapid. Wilbur saved his pennies, worked for a number of gambling houses about the country, bought some of his own, and went broke and started over again.

Wilbur, who has no taste for a pool room atmosphere, all the time was dreaming of his better mousetrap, a luxurious resort casino such as those in Europe, where a man could get a buck without getting his foot caught in a cuspidor or having to look both ways for the cops.

Today Wilbur's dream of a better mousetrap has come true—the fabulous Desert Inn at Las Vegas, which makes Monte Carlo look as modish as a 1900 bustle.

At Wilbur's gilded $4,500,00 inn the weary, wayworn traveler may rent a room for from $5 to $50 a day, play golf on a million 18-hole grass course in the desert, and for $5.50 eat a steak dinner and see a floor show that would cost him to $50 or more in New York.

The same traveler can slake his thirst 24 hours a day—or invest anything from a nickel to $1,000 (that's the limit) around the clock in the Casino.

The casino has 90 slot machines, three roulette wheels, six blackjack tables, five crap tables. Their winnings, of course, subsidize the floor shows, which feature such name stars as Betty Hutton or Herb Shriner and cost up to $35,000 a week, half the price of putting on a Broadway show.

"You can't stop people from gambling," said Wilbur, which may explain why he wisely refrained from putting locks on the casino doors. "But a guest could stay here for a week and never make a laydown, and we wouldn't know it. Whether he goes into the casino is up to him.

"I believe if you give people what they want, and most people want the best, they'll come to you. We turn away 200 people a day."

Clark has a list of 40,000 guests from all parts of the world, feels he knows 30,000 of them himself, and they range "from a Chinese general and a federal judge on up."

His customers aren't the kind who go broke, and his only trouble is a bum check now and then. But his bad check losses probably aren't more than $150,000 or so a year. Chickenfeed.

Wilbur wears no jewelry beside his $5,000 watch, his ring, and platinum cufflinks in the shape of a pair of dice studded with 20 rubies and 80 diamonds. He is basically a man of simple tastes.

He designed the watch himself, and has to take it off 50 times a day to show to curious guests. It is made of solid platinum with his initials in diamonds and a ruby here and there to keep the eye from going snowblind from the platinum.

"It keeps good time," said Wilbur. But when I looked at it his $5,000 watch said 11:26, and an automatically synchronized clock on the office wall said 11:28.

His watch might be two minutes late. But nobody could accuse Wilbur of being behind the times.

Clark Gives Up U. N. Command

Leaves Far East for Home and Retirement; Hull Takes Over

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark left today for home and retirement "with the hope and prayer that the armistice which we have signed will bring peace to this part of the world."

Clark's last goodby as he boarded his plane was to the old friend who succeeds him as commander of the U. S. forces in the Far East and the United Nations in Korea, Gen. John E. Hull.

The command changed at 9 a.m., the moment the wheels of Clark's four-engine Constellation left the runway at Tokyo's Haneda Airport.

In a farewell message to the men and women of the U. S. and United Nations forces which he had commanded since May 12, 1952, Clark said he was finding his goodby "more difficult than I had expected . . .

"Not alone because it is the final one of my Army career, but because I am reluctant to sever my direct association with so noble a cause as that personified by the United Nations Command.

"This struggle against Communist aggression, in which you and I have taken part—and which will continue to demand your utmost vigilance and fidelity—is unique in the history of mankind. Never before has a strong group of nations, acting under the authority of a permanent world organization and by the free will of its members, fought together to achieve world freedom and world democracy."

The 57-year-old Clark, who will retire at his own request Oct. 31, told newsmen he was leaving "with the utmost confidence in Gen. Hull and what he will do here in this command."

Fire Prevention Week Keeps Department Busy

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Waterford Township firemen are busy this week.

They're not only busy with their regular duties, but are demonstrating their equipment, giving talks and showing films before interest groups in observance of National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10.

"Every volunteer fireman in the township's three fire stations will be on hand throughout the week to explain workings and equipment to interested persons," Fire Chief Rudy Boss said.

Highlight of the week-long event will be a demonstration of mobile fire fighting units Saturday at Waterford Township High School grounds on Crescent Lake road. The demonstration is slated to begin at 4 p.m.

Also on display at the station, Boss states, will be the department's two-way radio equipment. A demonstration of the resuscitator (used to revive drowning victims etc.) has also been scheduled.

Civic, luncheon and PTA groups are getting the opportunity to view fire prevention films and hear lectures by firemen.

In urging fire safety, Boss reminded residents that since January his department has had a total of 271 fire calls. Of these 162 were grass, 8 buildings and 30 auto fires.

"Factory owners and merchants can aid firemen by making out their own inspection blanks, which are being supplied by the department," the chief stated. These blanks show where danger areas are located in buildings. By locating them, people help prevent possible blazes.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Waterford Townshp School District was among 22 districts in the state which were authorized by the State Municipal Finance Commission to borrow against future state aid payments.

The Waterford Township District was authorized to borrow $50,000.

The legislature, in special session last December, authorized school districts to borrow against state aid payments because the ebb-tide in state finances had delayed payments due the schools.

The commission allowed the 22 districts to borrow a total of $689,490, althought the state now has caught up with its debt to the schools.

Ferguson Declares GOP Satisfies State

Michigan is satisfied with President Eisenhower's policies and objectives, Sen. Homer Ferguson said today during a statewide tour sampling Michigan reaction to tis first federal Republican administration in 20 years.

Ferguson said he is finding a deep interest in government, its functions and methods of solving problems.

He also noted an undercurrent of "calm confidence" in government today, "contrasted to the frustration that existed under the former administration."

"The people feel secure and have faith in the future," Ferguson said.

Ferguson attributed the state's confidence in the new administration partly to the fact that "poor security risks" are being weeded out of government and that more thorough security checks are being made on new employes.

At the bend in Broadway and next to the railroad is the century-old mill. The new Masonic Temple is at the upper left corner.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tibbits of 6432 Logan St., Waterford Township, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies he and another boy, Peter Hawke, 17, of 6287 Barker St., also of Waterford, were shooting at tin cans in a Drayton Plains dump. Davis Family Gave Start to Davisburg in 1836

DAVISBURG—Named in honor of the Davis family, for over 100 years Davisburg has nestled among surrounding hills. It first was settled in 1836 by Cornelius Davis who came from New York. His seven children all grew to prominence in local and county activities.

When the railroad came through 100 years ago, the community was platted and a postoffice was established in 1854. John C. Davis was the first postmaster. He also built the first mill, and members of his family established other lines of business.

Davisburg early became a prominent shipping point for farm products, and still continues to profit by its surrounding agricultural interests. It is beautifully situated ina valley.

It always has been a quiet home-loving community, and has a substantial business section covering nearly every mercantile line. It has a paved connection with the Dixie Highway three miles away.

Situated in the west part of Springfield Township, it has never been incorporated as a village or city. Its principal employment source is Pontiac, 16 miles away.

Now a part of the Holly area in its schools, new building was erected at Davisburg two years ago, and another now is under construction.

Infant IQ Tests Not Reliable

Doctor Doubts Value of Mental Exams for Children Under 3

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Widely used I. Q. tests for placing adopted babies are "tremendously unreliable," an Iowa psychologist said today.

Babies who have tested fairly low in the I. Q. department have ultimately "turned out just fine," said Dr. Boyd R. McCandless, director of the Child Welfare Research Station at the State University of Iowa.

He told the American Academy of Pediatrics that new research by one of his associates, Dr. Irene Harms, had shown that a given infant can "vary as much as 35 points from day to day" in I. Q. scores where 100 is considered normal.

Later, he told a reporter:

"Parents in general shouldn't worry too much about a child's mental development in the first year or year and a half unless, of course, there are really obvious signs of retardation.

"Such things as a child's age when he takes his first step or when he utters his first word don't mean a thing as far as what his development is going to be later on."

As for persons seeking to adopt babies, the psychologist declared:

"Every person who wants to adopt a child seems to want one who tests away above the average on infancy intelligence tests which consist of such things as determining how early in life a baby gets a marble out of a glass bottle.

"People who want a child shouldn't let it worry them if the baby should test a little below average. Conversely, they shouldn't deprive themselves of a child just because he doesn't measure well above average on such tests."

He said he is "kind of skeptical about I. Q. tests for children under age 3½."

"But after that," he said, "when the child becomes stabilized, I. Q. tests can be one of our most useful scientific tools if employed correctly."

Hospital Group to Meet

HART (AP)—Oceana Hospital directors and committee members will meet Thursday to plan another fund drive, this time to collect nearly $25,000 in unpaid pledges, and an extra $13,000 needed for additions that were not in the original plans. The 32-bed hospital is expected to open in December.

Mock A-Blast Hits Pennsylvania; 1 County Sleeps

BLOOMSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania had a mass civil defense exercise last night with a simulated atom bomb blast in the western part of the state.

But in Columbia County, no sirens wailed. No alert was held. No civil defense workers were mobilized.

Explained W. C. McNinch, county CD director:

"I could count the people interested in civil defense on one hand. Not one observation post in the county is manned. There just are no volunteers."

"I did it purposely and I hope there's talk about it. I hope they censor me for it. Maybe it'll get them interested."

Zeeland Mailman Retires

ZEELAND (AP)—Willard L. Claver, who has been assistant postmaster and since 1936 a city letter carrier, has retired after 40 years of postal service.

Would Halt Athletics After Rowdyism

DETROIT (AP) — Patrick V. McNamara as a Board of Education member is advocating that interschool athletic competition be abolished in Detroit unless rowdyism is stopped.

McNamara told the board yesterday: "If the stabbings, shootings, and beatings of last fall and demonstrations like those witnessed last weekend continue to be a part of the after-football game celebrations, I am in favor of banning the entire high school competitive athletic program."

Fifty-two boys and girls were arrested last weekend after Pershing High School's victory over Eastern for various forms of rowdyism.

Indian Leaders Go Slow on OK of Liquor Sales

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—It looks as if Indian leaders of New Mexico aren't as eager as their white brothers to O.K. sale of liquor to tribesmen.

The historical white ban against selling firewater to Indians was knocked out by New Mexico voters last month.

But the Indian Bureau area office says there is no indication native officials of 24 tribal communities under its jurisdiction plan, likewise, will approve liquor sales on reservations.

Royal V-8 Tops New Dodge Line

1954 Cars to Be Shown in Dealers' Showrooms Starting Tomorrow

Unveiling of a new super deluxe series known as the Royal V-8 will be the highlight of the 1954 Dodge passenger car line when it is introduced in dealers' showrooms in Pontiac and across the nation tomorrow.

As Dodge launches its 40th year, it also will introduce completely new interior styling, more than a dozen body beautifications and several major engineering advancements in its entire line, consisting of 20 different models.

W. E. Newberg, president of Dodge Division of Chrysler Corp. said the models are in three series — the Royal V-8, the Coronet V-8 and Six and the Meadowbrook V-8 and Six.

Newberg announced that the 1954 Dodge line also offers such mechanical advancements as Red Ram V-8 engine stepped up to 150 h.p. and a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio; powerflite, a new fully-automatic transmission; and a new full-time power steering unit. Meadowbrook V-8 models will continue at 140 h.p. The horsepower of the six-cylinder engines has been raised to 110 and the compression ratio to 7.25 to 1.

Dodge offers two transmissions: The powerflight automatic drive and the standard three-speed transmission, either with or without automatic overdrive. The automatic powerflight combines a torque converter and two-speed planetary gearbox.

The power steering unit is of the 'linkage' type, which engineers say is compact, easier to service and has fewer parts than other systems.

Of the 20 models being introduced, four are Royal V-8's, the four-door, club coupe, sport coupe (hardtop) and convertible. In the two Coronet series there is a four-door and club coupe in a choice of V-8 or Six, plus a sport coupe and convertible in V-8 only.

The two Coronet series also offer a combination of six different station wagon models. A four-door and a club coupe make up the Meadowbrook series in a choice of either V-8 or six-cylinder power.

Independent Unions Eye 'No Raid' Pact

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The National Independent Union Council has proposed a pact to ban raiding between independent labor unions and the AFL and CIO.

Don Mahon of Des Moines, Iowa, secretary of the council, said the action was taken at the council's convention here yesterday.

Raiding is the union term for efforts to get groups of already-organized workers to switch allegiance from one union to another.

Mahon, who is president of the National Brotherhood of Packing House Workers, said the council represents most of the 2,000 independent unions in the country.

A similar agreement already has been put into effect between the AFL and CIO.

$5 Well Spent and Deaf Mute Gets Pup Back

CHICAGO (AP)—Ted Lick, 27, admired the dog a stranger brought into his tavern and accepted his offer to sell the animal for $5.

Lick learned yesterday that the dog, a rare Weimaraner, had been stolen from Johnny Sottile, an 11-year-old deaf mute, as he was walking his pet near his home. Johnny couldn't call for help and the man drove away in a car with the dog, the boy's inseparable companion since he got it as a pup 18 months ago.

Lick refused a reward and wouldn't take the $5 he had paid to the stranger. "That's the best $5 I ever spent," Lick said.

After age 45 almost all people have trouble with their eyesight.

Fenton Shooting Kills Youth, 19

Mapes Faces Murder Charge as Burke Dies After Sept. 29 Fracas

FENTON—A 19-year-old Fenton youth died yesterday in a Flint hospital of gunshot wounds inflicted Sept. 29 when he attempted to call on his estranged wife at a home where she was babysitting.

The victim was Donald Burke of 102 N. Orchard St.

Norman Mapes, 29, of 101 S. East St., Fenton, who admitted to Fenton police that he shot Burke with a .22-caliber rifle, was rearrested and charged with murder. He was freed on $1,000 bond. An Oct. 16 hearing has been scheduled in Municipal Court.

Mapes, who employed Burke's wife as a baby sitter for his six children, told police he had warned Burke repeatedly to stay away from the house because he caused a disturbance at each visit.

Burke, Mapes stated, telephoned before coming to the house on the night of the shooting and had threatened him.

Mapes admitted he was holding the gun in readiness when Burke entered. As Burke entered, he said he pulled the hammer back and the gun discharged.

Father Always in Hot Water

Paul Hartman Puts On Fine Type of Family Entertainment

By EVE STARR

HOLLYWOOD — Flip on your dial and tune in to a happy new half-hour situation comedy show, the type of family entertainment which the eternally optimistic televiewer keeps hoping to find, but seldom does.

EVE STARR

Hartman plays "Albie Morrison," a middle-class father employed in the advertising department of a small-town newspaper. His chief talent is getting into hot water trying to do the right thing.

Fay Wray plays the understanding, loving wife as only a happily married mother of three can . . . there's no substitute for experience.

The junior miss daughter is played by talented 16-year-old Natalie Wood.

The series is created by Sam Perrin, who has been writing for Jack Benny for 10 years.

TV BULLETINS: Robert Benchley's classic, "The Sex Life of a Polyp," may still be done as a Ford Foundation Workshop story for "Omnibus."

However, 20th Century is holding up the go-ahead signal — can't find their contract with Benchley who always avoided such small technicalities.

STARR DUST: "The Big Payoff" will telecast from the new Miami Beach Lido Hotel, Dec. 15 . . . Lillian Roth at her home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., resting up after northern club dates. . .

Comedian Georgie Gobel, who plans to begin his TV situation comedy series the first of the year, writes from Chicago that we ought to look at the home he bought in Sherman Oaks, a stone's throw from Hollywood. . .

It's rumored that Paul Coates, who stars in "Confidential Files," a Hollywood TV show, may go national soon.

Grand Rapids Passes Icebox Ordinance

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Bent on preventing an abandoned refrigerator tragedy here, the Grand Rapids City Commission gave passage and immediate effect yesterday to an ordinance prohibiting the abandonment of refrigerators without first removing all locks and catches.

The action followed by a day the death of a four-year-old Grand Haven girl trapped and suffocated while playing in an abandoned refrigerator from which the locks had not been removed. She was the 14th U. S. victim of such a tragedy this year. Three have died similarly in Canada.

The southern end of Lower California is about the same latitude as Arabia.

Turkeys in Good Supply for Thanksgiving Dinners

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Everyone should be happy about Thanksvivings turkeys this year.

Bernard Simonsen of Clam Falls, Wis., president of the Norbest Turkey Growers Assn., told the organization's convention yesterday that consumers wil be able to obtain good buys in turkeys for Thanksgiving, and turkey growers stand to make a fair profit.

"The turkey industry is in good shape this year," he said. "There is no excessive numbers to cause an oversupply, yet there will be plenty of birds for everyone in the nation."

Women Baking Cookies for Soldiers in Korea

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Eight local women's clubs have started a cookie-baking program that will turn out 500 pounds of the goodies for soldiers in Korea.

The 480 women bakers expect to finish the project in two weeks.

Dockers Work Hard on Piled-up Cargo

NEW YORK (AP)—A pileup of tons of cargo melted today as longshoremen set North Atlantic ports humming once again after a five-day strike.

Work resumption started yesterday after the government obtained a 10-day Taft-Hartley labor law injunction in the wage dispute.

Many of the estimated 50,000 to 60,000 striking members of the International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA) answered work calls on piers from Portland, Maine, to Hampton Roads, Va.

In New York, the work return was quiet and generally without serious incident although a new AFL union—the AFL International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA-AFL)—pushed its battle to win control of waterfront labor from the now independent ILA.

A number of companies last night ordered overtime work in an effort to clean up the backlog of cargo.

The donkey, one of the most ancient of draft animals was not taken to England until the 9th or 10th Century.

Although Italy is known as a nation with a large surplus population which has increased rapidly in times past, her birthrate today is 17.6 per thousand per year which is 7 points below that of the United States.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ARTHRITIS SUFFERERS

Route 9, Box 371
Kalamazoo, Michigan
August 22, 1953

O-Jib-Wa Medicine Company,
2101 S. Saginaw Street
Flint 3, Michigan

Gentlemen:

After five years, I feel impelled to write you telling of my experiences with O-Jib-Wa Bitters. In August 1948, I was hanging up clothes, when out of a clear sky, I was suddenly attacked with pain so severe in my spine that I was doubled up. This pain continued unabated for the next 10 days and nothing even relieved the pain. By that time I could do nothing; couldn't walk or even sit up. I was almost out of my mind with pain.

Finally I went to the hospital for x-rays and for treatments. It was diagnosed as acute rheumatoid arthritis of the spine. After 10 days of torture in the hospital, I was told to go home as they could do nothing for me.

By that time, I had suffered 20 days of the most excruciating pain anyone could imagine, and no hope of ever being free of it. I had a home and a baby to care for, so I sunk in despair. The day after I came home from the hospital, my husband saw your ad in the Kalamazoo Gazette and asked me if I would like to try some O-Jib-Wa. I said, I would try anything. I started taking it the same day and in 10 days the pain was gone, and by the end of the second week, I was completely well.

Now and then, however, the pain comes back to me, so I always keep a bottle of O-Jib-Wa in the house, and as soon as the pain comes back, I start taking it. There is something in O-Jib-Wa Bitters that I need, but what! Anyway, it helps me and I am eternally thankful for it.

Sincerely,

Flint 3, Michigan

Gentlemen:

After five years, I feel impelled to write you telling of my experiences with O-Jib-Wa Bitters. In August 1948, I was hanging up clothes, when out of a clear sky, I was suddenly attacked with pain so severe in my spine that I was doubled up. This pain continued unabated for the next 10 days and nothing even relieved the pain. By that time I could do nothing; couldn't walk or even sit up. I was almost out of my mind with pain.

Finally I went to the hospital for x-rays and for treatments. It was diagnosed as acute rheumatoid arthritis of the spine. After 10 days of torture in the hospital, I was told to go home as they could do nothing for me.

By that time, I had suffered 20 days of the most excruciating pain anyone could imagine, and no hope of ever being free of it. I had a home and a baby to care for, so I sunk in despair. The day after I came home from the hospital, my husband saw your ad in the Kalamazoo Gazette and asked me if I would like to try some O-Jib-Wa. I said, I would try anything. I started taking it the same day and in 10 days the pain was gone, and by the end of the second week, I was completely well.

Now and then, however, the pain comes back to me, so I always keep a bottle of O-Jib-Wa in the house, and as soon as the pain comes back, I start taking it. There is something in O-Jib-Wa Bitters that I need, but what! Anyway, it helps me and I am eternally thankful for it.

Sincerely,
Hilda Simons

Tongay Trial to Be Set Next Tuesday

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Date of trial for Russell Tongay, charged with manslaughter in the death of his swimming star daughter Kathy, will be set Tuesday.

Tongay, 36-year-old former swimming instructor, pleaded innocent to the charge in Criminal Court yesterday and Judge Ben Willard said he would set trial date next week.

The state charges Tongay with "causing, permitting and commanding" the 5-year-old Kathy to "perform acts inherently dangerous" by ordering her to jump from a high tower into a pool of water.

The information also said that Kathy "struck the water with great force. . . causing her to sustain and suffer mortal injuries."

Kathy and her brother Bubba, 7, made several long distance swims and played in a motion picture. Kathy died last May shortly after diving from a 33-foot tower into a pool. Tongay is free in $1,000 bond.

No 'Pull' With Brother, He Arrests His Kinfolk

DAWSON SPRINGS, Ky. (AP) — Persons kin to a cop may have "pull" some places, but apparently not here.

Police Chie Bill Boucher arrested his father and two brothers.

The father, Jonas, is serving a jail term in lieu of a $15 fine for drunkenness. The chief's brother, Dude, paid a $25 fine for reckless driving.

Another brother, Claude, faces a hearing today on charges of disturbing the peace and assaulting an officer—Chief Boucher.

Queen to Make Tour in U. S. Stratocruiser

MONTREAL (AP) — Britain's airline boss says there will be no "nonsense" about Queen Elizabeth II using her nation's flashy new Comet jet airliner on her royal tour this winter. In fact, she'll start the trip in a U.S.-built stratocruiser.

Sir Miles Thomas, chairman of the British Overseas Airways Corporation, told newsmen here yesterday: "The stratocruiser is larger and provides more space for her majesty and her entourage. All this talk (by a London newspaper, particularly) that the Queen should use a Comet jet is a lot of uninformed nonsense."

Sir Miles explained the Queen's first air trip on her journey to Australia and New Zealand will be from London to Bermuda in late November.

"This route has not been tested for the Comet," he declared. "We are taking no chances."

Motorist Thinks Cop Should Get Speeding Ticket

DENVER (AP)—Motorists are arrested for speeding all the time, but Denver has a driver who's trying to arrest the cop who arrested him.

Robert G. Van Houten is scheduled to go before Judge Edgar McAuliffe today and attempt to prove to the court's satisfaction that Patrolman Joseph W. Talty had to speed to give him a ticket.

His case is based on a municipal ordinance which says the driver of an emergency vehicle can break traffic regulations only when he "sounds a siren, bell, or exhaust whistle and . . . displays a lighted red lamp."

Van Houten, who was arrested by Patrolman Talty for doing 40 in a 30-mile zone, has already been fined $20. He appealed to the County Court and filed a speeding complaint against Patrolman Talty in traffic court.

"It's the principle of the thing," Van Houten declared.

Total for County Is $4,436,622

Pontiac Has Largest Single Share With Levy at $998,160

Oakland County's township supervisors and city assessors will soon start figuring $4,436,622.75 in county taxes into property owners' December tax bills.

Oakland County Board of Supervisors earlier this week gave tax officers the green light to spread the tax levy, which will help pay the cost of county government next year.

County men estimate fees, fines and other revenue will bring in another $1,600,000 needed to balance the 1954 county budget of $6,049,597.20 approved by supervisors Monday.

The county split total tax burden among cities and townships according to the county-equalized valuation of the taxable property each unit contains.

The county's 1953 tax rate is 5.25 mills, compared with last year's rate of 5.185 mills.

Township and city tax officers, however, must refigure each property owner's share of the tax according to the amount they estimate his property is worth. These figures are usually different than the equalized valuations set by the county.

Pontiac has the largest single share of the tax levy, with $998,160.92, or about 22 and a half per cent. Townships and other cities' shares are as follows:

New York Cuts Estimate on St. Lawrence Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York State has substantially lowered — possibly by "several millions" — its estimate of its cost share of the huge St. Lawrence River power project.

New York plans to join with Canada in building the giant development expected to yield more than 12 billion kilowatt hours of energy a year.

Charles M. Goetz, counsel for the New York State Power Authority, told reporters the lower estimate results from a simplified power house now planned on Barnhart Island and lower-than-expected dredging costs.

Goetz said it was impossible to state the savings exactly, but said it might be "several millions."

New York, in testimony before the power commission, estimated that the total cost of its half of the international project would be approximately 318 million dollars. Of that amount, 240 million would be for actual construction and the remainder for interest and other financing charges during the five-to-seven-year construction period.

Goetz said the Ontario Hydro-electric Commission, which will build the Canadian half of the project, has also come up with lower estimates.

New York has not formally accepted from the power commission its license to construct the American portion of the project. This will be done, Goetz indicated, on or about Nov. 5.

Opponents of New York's part in the project have until Nov. 3 to institute court proceedings to halt its construction. Because election day falls on that date, the deadline could be extended one day.

There are no present indications, however, that action to delay the project will be started.

The project, which will dam the St. Lawrence between Canada and the United States, will be built in the International Rapids section of the river between Massena, N. Y., and Cornwall, Ont.

Some of the United States' share of the power will be availa to sister states of New York in the northeast, principally New England (with the exception of Maine), New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

If no delays are encountered, it is considered likely that some phases of the construction will be started next spring.

Hudson, Nash Refuse to Talk

Heads of Auto Firms Say 'No Comment' on Merger Rumors

DETROIT (UP) — The presidents of Hudson Motor Car Co. and Nash Kelvinator Corp. have refused to deny or affirm rumors that their firms have been holding talks on a possible merger.

Hudson president A. E. Barit refused Tuesday to budge from his "no comment" position.

George W. Mason, president and board chairman of Nash-Kelvinator, said he could not comment "officially" on the rumors.

The rumors were that Nash has been looking either for a merger with Hudson or acquisition of Hudson.

Barit did say that if Hudson "ever should merge with another company or companies the merger will preserve the identity of Hudson in every respect."

Mason said he "concurred with what Barit had to say."

Ex-Mayor of Ecorse Wins in Primary

DETROIT (UP) — Former Mayor William W. Voisine of Ecorse, who served an eight-month prison term following a federal perjury conviction three years ago, emerged the winner in the suburb's primary election yesterday.

Voisine received 2,352 votes to 2,284 recorded for Mayor Louis S. Parker.

Voisine was the downriver suburb's "perennial mayor" from 1930 to 1940. He was sent to prison for perjury in conection with a "gray market" steel investigation in 1950.

Voisine and Parker were the only candidates for the mayor's post in the Nov. 3 election.

Pitching Horseshoes

Marriage to Rich Gal Might Cost Too Much

By BILLY ROSE

By way of the U.S. mails comes a letter from a vaudevillian who used to work for me at the Diamond Horseshoe:

Dear friend Billy:

Remember how you were always advising me to find a nice girl and settle down? Well, I finally got around to it this summer at Jennie Grossinger's resort in the Catskills. The lady's name is Sandra Schwartz, a real intellectual - type girl, and her father, if you'll pardon the brag, is one of the most respected men in the wet-wash business.

BILLY ROSE

The only trouble with the up-and-coming marriage is that Sandra wants me to go to a doctor and have my head analyzed first. She says every bridegroom ought to have his brain washed, and when I say what am I, a Korean or something, she says leave it or take it.

The day after the social director introduced us, I took Sandra to dinner in the main hall at Jennie's, and right away she said she wanted to talk to me about my id. When I asked her did she mean "id" like in "id and run," she accused me of being a paranoic. Naturally I couldn't let her get away with that! "Okay," I said, "I'll stop smoking."

Next morning Sandra showed up at the pool wearing one of those Bikini bathing suits which, as everybody knows is nothing more than a diaper without safety-pin protection. When I complained it wasn't nice for strangers to see her in this condition she said I had a Oedipus Rex complex. This, she explained, meant I loved my mother. So arrest me, I said. My old lady sewed up my socks, battled it out with my teachers and principal, and never made a sour crack that wasn't for my own good. What's wrong with loving her? What am I supposed to do? Belt her in the head?

Another thing. Sandra drinks like a fish, especially Martinis. When I tell her I'm a rye drinker and do not like Martinis, she says I'm frightened of the olive because, when I was a baby, a pit got stuck in my throat. So I says to her, why don't you tell me I got a touch of hydrophobia, too? Sandra informs me I probably have — that hydrophobia means "fear of water," and it is her observation that I do not wash so often. I tell her I wash myself as often as my friends and neighbors, but when I am through I wipe off the water because I do not want to boast about it.

As you know, Billy, I like to bowl. Sandra says the only reason a grown man would stick his finger in a ball is because he's got a urge to suck his thumb. And when I ask her to play badminton, she says if a man likes badminton it proves his mother must have been scared by a bird.

Besides all this, my dollface accuse me of being a Peeping Tom, because everytime I pass an open window I always look in to see is anything cooking. I do not deny this, but in rebuttal I ask Sandra where's a guy going to look, in closed windows? Is that any way for a grown man to spend his life, looking in closed windows, for gosh sakes? That way a man could really get sick in the head.

All this leads to words, and as you probably know, if there's anything which can cause trouble between two people it's words. Like the other night. I am taking my tender departure and say, "see you in dreamland, baby." Sandra yells, "You louse," and slaps my face.

The top-it-all comes last week when a pal of mine throws a party to celebrate our engagement. Around one in the morning I happen to notice that Sandra and my pal are among those missing. I walk out on the terrace and find them kissing like they are very close friends. Well, before I can say "ouch," Sandra cuts me short by explaining what a true pal my pal is because he is helping her to get rid of certain frustrations. She adds that this will make her a better wife and keep her from getting neurotic later. Anyway, I have no choice but to apologize when I realize everything is being done for my own good.

Now, Billy, I would like to ask your advice, to wit: Should I enter the bonds of Holy Matrimony with Miss Sandra Schwartz, or should I just forget the fact that her father has over two million dollars?

Your friend,
Herbie.

License Change Affects Drivers

Police Officials Suggest Motorists Take Note of New State Law

Pontiac area drivers were advised today by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley and Oakland County Sheriff Clare Hubbel to take a careful look at the expiration dates on their driver's licenses.

A law which became effective this month will change renewal time for many motorists.

The law provides that operator's licenses will expire at three year intervals on the date of the driver's birthday.

The new ruling applies only to operator's licenses. Chauffeur licenses will continue to expire one year from the date of issue.

Changing to the new system will give some persons more than three years under their present licenses and will allow less for others.

Officials explained that the license expires on a driver's birthday in the same year that it is already marked for expiration.

Hubell said that a driver whose birthday occurs after the expiration date on his license might have trouble in other states where policemen are not familiar with Michigan's new law.

Drivers in this category are urged to go to their police departments where the new expiration date can be marked to conform with the birthday.

The basic idea of the new legislation, expected to reduce loss of life from traffic accidents, is to make sure all persons who hold licenses are qualified drivers.

Childbirth Hormone Made Artificially

NEW YORK (UP) — Oxytocin—the hormone for childbirth labor and baby nursing—has been made artificially for the first time in what is hailed as a great medical-chemical advance.

Oxytocin stimulates the uterus or womb to contract for the birth of a baby. It also stimulates the breasts to release milk.

Its synthesis was announced yesterday in the Journal of the American Chemical Society by a team of scientists led by Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud, professor of biochemistry at Cornell University Medical School here.

The synthetic oxytocin is the first man-made hormone of the pituitary gland, the master gland of the body.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now is the opportunity for anyone eager to latch on to 25 double lace edge huck towels carrying the proud monogram of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Or for someone with a yen to own a gold wash interior silver plated punch ladle engraved with the letters "D. Mac. A."

For a five-day society auction is being held in suburban Silver Spring, Md., and one of the chief sellers is Mrs. Louise Cromwell Heiberg, a longtime Washington society leader who once was married to the general.

Which accounts for such listings as these among the 2,000 items to be sold:

Item No. 258—"Antique bronze church bell having embossed and etched inscribed band (which hung at Gen. MacArthur's private headquarters, Manila, 1922-1925)."

Item No. 813—"12 silver plated sherbets monogrammed 'D. Mac. A.'"

Pleasure, Not Profit, Called Motive of Juvenile Crime

This is the third in a series of articles on teenage crime in the United States compiled from International News Service reports from the nation's major cities.

By FREEMAN FULBRIGHT
INS Staff Writer

The prosecuting attorney of Cook County, Illinois, where Al Capone used to roam, nowadays spends much of his time combatting juvenile crime.

State's Attorney John Gutknecht says "the teen-age problem is serious (and) needs drastic treatment without mollycoddling . . ."

Gutknecht strongly believes the nation's cities need to provide better housing, adequate schooling—and adequate juvenile recreation. For, he says, "pleasure, rather than profit, is the motive of most juvenile offenses."

Cook County (Chicago) records show that the most frequent teenage crime is auto theft. Assistant State's Attorney Benjamin E. Novoselsky, chief prosecutor for family court, says most cars are stolen by juveniles for joyriding, not resale.

He cites as one example a 16-year-old boy who stole 17 autos in less than a year "because his girl, also 16 would not go to dances with him unless he had a car."

From other cities surveyed by INS — Denver, Cleveland, Fort Worth, Tex., Philadelphia, Houston, Atlanta, Washington — come similar reports that car theft ranks first or a close second as the most frequent juvenile offense.

The crime that ranks one-two with stealing cars in burglary. On that, authorities disagree whether the young lawbreakers do it for the money they realize in selling the stolen goods, or for the secret thrill of "daring."

Another frequent teen-age offense is vandalism.

Juvenile Judge Philip B. Gilliam of Denver, president of the national council of juvenile judges and a jurist for 17 years, says vandalism "often results from the feeling of revenge against society, and the lack of the 'Horatio Alger' attitude, and religious beliefs."

Gilliam adds: "A moral disease is sweeping the young of our country. Youth is losing ambition . . . the desire to help others."

The rise in juvenile sex offenses was blamed on indecent literature by many of the authorities interviewed by INS.

San Antonio Police Capt. G. E. Matheny summed up the problem when he said: "One source of this trouble is filthy pictures and sex magazines. But you can't do anything about it. It is protected by law as 'art.'

"I threatened one lady who sells these pictures downtown. I told her 'I'll shout your name before every parent-teachers association in the city.'

"And she told me, 'go ahead . . . some of the biggest businessmen in town come in here and buy my pictures.' and, you know, she was right."

Almost all authorities agreed on one point: Narcotics are not a prime cause of the rising juvenile crime rate.

For example, Chicago juvenile officials said use of narcotics could be blamed in less than two per cent of kid crimes in that sprawling city.

A Senate investigating committee which plans a nation-wide probe of juvenile delinquency starting in November found in a preliminary check that much of the trouble stems from "wolfpacks" — gangs of youths which for reasons of financial gain or boredom commit many crimes.

Parents Learn How They Can Keep Retarded Son at Home and Help Him

Editor's Note: Second of three columns on retarded children.

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Out of every 100 children born in this country, three are mentally retarded.

Though Rafe's mother lived in dread that Rafe was one of the three, she didn't know this statistic. She wouldn't have wanted to know, because the subject involved her agonized sense of guilt.

As the years dragged on, it seemed more than enough to know there was really no hope that Rafe was mentally normal.

At supper, conscious of the impatient distaste on his father's face as she spooned food into their 8-year-old son, she would think, "Be still. Don't plead. The alternatives are this, or an institution. Just be quiet, and you may be able to keep Rafe with you."

Mentally retarded children sometimes discharge tensions accumulated by too much pressure in "catastrophic reaction." One day Rafe had such a reaction when his father insisted that he locate a sweater he'd mislaid.

That night, Mr. K. said, "I've had enough, Ethel. It's not fair to any of us. The boy will be happier away from home with his own kind."

The week before Rafe was due at the institution, Mrs. K. took him to see the psychologist she'd been avoiding for five years.

He confirmed her son's subnormal IQ. Then, leaning back in his chair, he gave her a long, level appraisal. "You want to keep him with you, don't you?" he asked. "OK. But you'll have to learn how to keep him with you. Write to these people and ask them to tell you how . . ."

On the slip he handed her, he'd written, "National Association for Mentally Retarded Children, 304 Paris Ave., S. E., Grand Rapids, Mich."

That was two years ago. Today, the excitements of "catastrophic reaction" don't happen to Rafe. He is one of 10 similarly handicapped youngsters who liv ein nearby communities and with him attend their own school.

The teacher's salary is paid by a local businessmen's club who chose it as their pet philanthropy. Often its members drop in to listen when a visiting psychologist leads the Ks and other families in a discussion of what can be expected of their retarded children.

So if we have, or know anyone who has a mentally retarded child, let's clip this column for the name and address of the people who told Mrs. K. how to keep Rafe at home with her.

The association's work has passed the experimental stage. Since Rafe's mother organized her local chapter, his IQ has ascended seven points.

He can write his name, make his own bed and do his mother's errands competently. The visiting psychologist thinks he'll be able to help earn his own living when the time comes.

Put Shrimp in Golden Rice Ring

Mrs. Ivan Doctor Suggests Dish for Buffet Supper

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Here's a party main dish that looks as good as it tastes, golden shrimp ring. It would be ideal for a buffet supper, served with a tossed salad.

Our contributor, Mrs. Ivan Doctor, is fond of experimental cooking, liking foreign recipes especially.

As Girl Scout executive of Northern Oakland County Council, she has many friends of all ages in the area. Her leisure time interests include reading, outdoor activities, sewing and informal parties.

GOLDEN SHRIMP RING
By Mrs. Ivan Doctor

Fresh or frozen shrimp
Parsley
Salt
¾ cup sharp cheese
2 teaspoons chopped chives
1 cup melted butter or margarine
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Rice ring

Cook shrimp approximately 12 minutes in boiling water to which lemon slices, 1 teaspoon parsley and salt have been added. Let shrimp cool in cooking water, drain and shell.

Prepare rice ring by cooking 1½ cups of rice. When tender, add the cheese and chives and press the hot mixture into ring mold.

Heat shrimp thoroughly in a sauce made from the melted butter, 1 teaspoon chopped parsley and the lemon juice. Serve in the rice ring.

For children who like to do things with their hands, there are two brand-new toys by Charles Eames, architect and industrial designer. House of cards (left) has 54 slotted and plastic-coated cards. Building possibilities from these are endless. From eight brightly-colored panels (right), this little girl can build a bridge, a castle, an airplane, a house. Supports are wire and there's a batch of flexible connectors for easy construction by young builders.

Playthings Won't Bore Small Fry

Colorful Sets Offer Many Possibilities for Amusement

NEW YORK (NEA)—On those first cold and rainy days of autumn, when the small fry must be kept indoors, mothers get used to hearing the old refrain: "What'll I do now? Why can't I go out and play?"

By way of arming parents with good answers to such questions, a well-known industrial designer has created two ingenious playthings that lend themselves to construction by inexperienced and youthful builders.

Both playthings emphasize bright color, intriguing pattern and ease of assembly. Both have many different construction possibilities so they won't become boring.

Both are based on a simple principle of component construction parts that may be assembled, dismantled and re-assembled in any one of many different ways.

These toys are intended for children from 6 to 12 years, but teenagers and even adults have found them fascinating in previews.

One toy appears at first glance to be a pack of cards. And so it is. But these are cards with a difference.

The 54 plastic-coated cards are decorated individually. Most are patterned. Each card has six patented slots which, when fitted into slots on other cards, enable the young architect to "construct" fanciful towers, houses or skyscrapers.

The second toy provides another outlet for a child's desire to create and build.

It's composed of four 9-inch triangular colored panels, three 9-inch wire trianges. There's also a batch of colorful connectors.

From these materials, a youngster may build a circus tent, a garage, an airplane, a covered bridge, a tunnel, a house, a lookout tower or even a rocket-launching platform.

Both toys are designed to stimulate the imagination and to lure even hesitant children into creating their own fanciful constructions.

Boy Would Like to Date Girl Steadily, but Fears He Can't Afford Obligations

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: Five dollars a week allowance seems enough, yet when carfare and lunch money are taken out there isn't much left over for dates. And I'd like very much to ask this certain girl to go steady with me.

"With school and football, I don't see how I could afford to take her out each week.

"And for anything less, I don't think it would be fair to ask her to go steady. So what do you suggest that I do?"

Without committing yourself in any way, it might be smart to get your girl's point of view on going steady. What's her idea of the deal?

How much and how little does it involve as far as she's concerned? How few dates and how little of her boy friend's time and company would satisfy her?

If she's one of those girls who go overboard, you'll know at once that you're not the lad to save the day. And you'll be glad you kept your mouth closed.

But if her ideas aren't exaggerated, and she seems to think that whatever a boy can spare will do, you might take the next step: A slight conference with the source of the allowance.

Not that you want a raise for sweet frivolity's sake — it's suggestions for earning some dough with what free time you have at your disposal.

It's only fair to tell pop the why's and wherefore's, and keep your hopes at a minimum. Man talk will reveal how much it costs to take a girl to the movies every week and keep her fed afterward.

You can list all the possible doings, ones for which she has her own ticket, or you can both get in free, and the ones that will cost you double. Put it to your father straight.

Is he willing to underwrite your going steady. Has he any suggestions for ways you can finance it yourself? Or is the whole idea one you'd better skip?

"Dear Miss Woodward: I was going with this fellow and we were planning on being married right after I finish school next June. Then this girl came here to visit.

"When he first took her out, it was to make me jealous because I'd been going with someone else all the time I was going with him. Now she's gone home and he wants me to take him back.

"I still care for him, but should I take him back? How can I take revenge on him?"

I think you should consider the score even, and lay away in moth balls any spiteful notion you might have for revenge.

Your boy friend revenged himself on you by taking out that visiting girl — paying you back for dating someone else while you were supposed to be seriously interested in only him. Being mean will just keep adding tinder to the fire.

And why bother — when you still care for him? He considers his revengeful vacation over and wants you back. If you want him back, why not start over again with a clean slate?

HAIR SHAPING

The short smart styles of today make the haircut or shaping most important.

In the day of the updo or the long flowing bob, improper shaping could be at least partially concealed . . . but in today's brief hairdress the shape and length of the hair is revealed in its entirety.

The haircut is really part of the hair dress. There is a tendency toward the extreme and bizarre in an effort to attain individuality in the short hair style. This is a pitfall that must be avoided if a wearable hair-dress is to be achieved. These important factors are considered in our hairstyling.

Stair Tumbles Top Accidents

BOSTON (INS) — Falling down stairs remains the most common accident in homes, and the older you get, the more likely you are to go downstairs the hard way.

Stair tumbles account for 38 per cent of all home accidents involving persons over 65.

Open windows are another home hazard, with 13 per cent of window falls suffered by children under four and eight per cent by youths between 15 and 24.

The Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co., ranks balconies and porches as the third most dangerous spot around a house for accident possibility.

Club Sends Donation, Not Flowers

Group's Memorial for Dead Member Is Criticized

By EMILY POST

A letter today explains: "Recently one of the members of our women's club died. She was very well known in the community and much loved by everyone.

"Instead of sending flowers (we knew she would receive a great many of them), we sent a quite sizeable donation in her name to her favorite charity. We sent a sympathy card to the family stating that we had sent this donation in her memory.

"It seems that this was never done before in this community and some people think that it was not the proper way to show our sympathy. Will you please give your opinion so that we will know what to do in the future?"

Answer: Understanding from your letter that no member of her family was well known to you, your donation was both admirable and proper.

Dear Mrs. Post: Last weekend I visited a friend. When I got to the station I discovered that I had left my coat at her house. As there was no time to go back for it, my friend said that she would send it to me.

I received the package this morning. It was insured and the postage amounted to well over a dollar. I would like to know if I should reimburse my hostess for this?

Answer: As the amount is stated on the package, you should reimburse her.

Dear Mrs. Post: At a large cocktail party I attended the other day I noticed that several of the women kept their gloves on the entire time—even while drinking a cocktail. Were they correct in doing this?

Answer: There is no rule — do what you prefer.

Dear Mrs. Post: When a man asks a girl to go out with him on a particular evening and she accepts, should he suggest the place to go or should he ask her where she would like to go?

Answer: He generally asks her to go to a definite place with him.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Everyone Should Know Rigors of Poverty Once

If I had my way, every human being would go through a period of being poor. Also a period of being broke. The important difference between these two conditions is that being poor goes drearily on and on, while being broke is temporary and usually rather ramatic.

Lest the whole idea seem too depressing, I must point out at once that the minute you get even a slight distance away from being poor or broke, the bad times take on a glow and glamour, and one of your greatest pleasures is in reminiscing about them. Perhaps "reminisce" is too casual a word. What you really do is brag.

MISS McBRIDE

To hear me tell about my childhood days on a Middle Western farm, you would think our mortgage was as large as the national debt. We were poor—money-wise—but we always ate extremely well and we had a roof over our heads and clothes to cover us. It's just that I have a tendency to dramatize our lack of folding money.

I can also weep sympathetically over the day when I, a young reporter barely able to pay my rent, had a breakdown and was ordered to take a sea voyage.

I am prone to tell proudly but pathetically how I followed the doctor's instructions to the letter: A $1.50, 2½-hour trip to Atlantic Highlands once a week. What's more, I got over my breakdown.

I revel sentimentally in memories of the times I lived almost exclusively on macaroni and cheese because it gave me the most for my money. Also the times when I pored over boxes of packaged sweets in my Greenwich Village grocery, counting the number of coconut "Delicious Dainties" as compared with molasses cakes available for the same amount.

Poor-proud — that's what everybody is who has ever been poor. You seem so fine and brave to yourself in retrospect. And the pain, if there was any, has long been gone, so you can enjoy the memory.

You can become quite a trial to people who have never known poverty. But of course you know what ails them: Sheer envy. They just know. I keep telling myself, that people who have had to do without are stronger, more self-reliant, more honest, patriotic, handsomer and healthier!

"But didn't it leave any scars?" somebody may ask — if anybody is still around by this time.

Well, hardly any. Oh, maybe a few small ones. For instance, I never carry anything larger than $1 bills in my handbag because I can't feel quite happy tossing larger bills around. I'm stingy about letting people use my telephone. I keep old shoes around long after they're worn out.

I have a horror of stock market and a secret preference for the mattress over banks for storing money. I refuse to own property because the experts suggest it be mortgaged. I'd rather own a full-grown panther than a mortgage.

Do I want to go back to those wonderful old days?

No, thank you. But I certainly like to brag about them. Do you?

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Mrs. Helen G. had worked hard for 30 years in her bank job, and she and her husband, James, looked forward to a life of peace and comfort in their retirement years.

James was a doctor, and while his practice had never been a wealthy one, he, too, had enough put away to enable them to live comfortably in their later years.

But things didn't work out that way.

James, in his late 50s, developed bad arthritis. The drugs for its treatment were very expensive.

The climate where they lived, on the coast, was too damp for him, and on top of the other expenses, it was indicated that they should move inland.

So, on the day she retired, Helen faced the fact that she would have to find another paying job, and fast, if they were to exist at all.

"I though and thought," she told me. "It looked really hopeless. I didn't see how we could afford to move inland, to the hills.

"I was not far from our home, but it was deep country, and I didn't see any chance of getting a job there.

"Finally I began to think in terms of things I could do on my own—not working for anyone else. One of the girls in my office had said something that stuck in my mind and gave me an idea.

" 'Why isn't there a rest ranch for us working gals?' she had asked. 'A place where we could go for a weekend, or even a vacation, where there would be diets and fruit juices, and exercises, and where we could get in shape? Why is it only the rich society women who can do that?' "

Helen thought that over, a lot.

"Overweight is bad enough for most women," she said, "but for a business girl it can be a downright financial hazard.

"She absolutely must look chic and attractive, as her job often depends on it."

Helen talked it over with James. As a doctor, he knew all about reducing diets that were safe and yet effective. It interested him, and took his mind off his illness.

That was 2½ years ago.

Helen and James now have a nice rambling house in the country, two hours from their old home in the city. They rent it very reasonably because the area is too far from the city for daily commuting.

They have it simply decorated, with lots of bedrooms and a few with private baths. They take business girls at a very reasonable rate, for weekends or by the week.

The girls go on a sensible diet, planned specially for them. They get rest and sunshine and outdoor exercise.

"Even a weekend can set a girl up," Helen says. "She gets started on the diet, and we give her a copy of it to follow on her own at home.

"Most of our clientele learns of us by word of mouth, and of course we have a lot of repeaters who keep coming back.

"And James is so happy! He feels really useful, and he is. As for me, I'm enjoying myself hugely—to say nothing of making a pretty good living for a gal in her 60s!"

Child Study Clubs Join Forces for Luncheon Gathering in Waterford

Combined Groups Hear Professor From MSC

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE

The role of the mother in interpreting and communicating family relationships was outlined for members of the joint Child Study Clubs Tuesday at the Waterford CAI Building.

Dr. Leo Haak, professor of social science at Michigan State College was guest speaker at the annual luncheon for which the Waterford Child Study Club was hostess.

Discussing "The Different Worlds in Which We Live," Dr. Haak explained that all members of the family live in different worlds. Children, he said, have their own world and the husband has his occupational world.

The mother must be the most flexible member of the family as she has to live in all these worlds, said Dr. Haak.

She must learn the language of the children, learn to respect their wishes, and at the same time realize and understand the occupational world in which her husband lives.

The speaker cited as an example the traveler and the resident of any community. The traveler, he said, feels superior and there is resentment on the part of the resident.

If the mother then is to enter the world of the child, she must approach that world with the idea of understanding and respecting the child. She must be careful not to treat the child as she would an adult.

Dr. Haak also mentioned the adolescent revolt which psychiatrists point out is inevitable. This revolt or "break" comes when parents are attempting to teach their children responsibility.

Mothers, the speaker said, have to balance rival relationships among husbands, children, church and relatives. They must keep traveling on to new worlds, to accept the role of motherhood and to also accept the fact that their children will become adults and leave the home.

Parents move through different worlds each day. The father has to be husband, father, teacher, etc., and the mother has to be a businesswoman, mother, teacher, child psychologist, wife and community leader.

If we as parents learn to understand these various worlds we will help to promote better family relationships, the speaker concluded.

Mrs. James DenHerder, president of the Waterford group, served as toastmistress. Mrs. Don Weaver introduced the speaker and Mrs. Gerald Rustem gave the invocation.

Committees working on the affair included Mrs. William Emerson, Mrs. Erwin Greer and Mrs. Rustem, decorations; Mrs. Donald Redmond, publicity and reservations, and Mrs. Weaver, program.

Delegates Named by Catholic Women

Mrs. Arthur Crawford and Mrs. Fred Gottschalk were named delegates to the Pontiac Federation of Women's Clubs from the League of Catholic Women, which met Monday evening in the League Building.

Mrs. Nellita Fithian, nursery school consultant for the State Department of Social Welfare, spoke to the group on day care programs for children, and Mrs. William B. Dean announced an Archdiocesan League meeting to be held Oct. 29 at St. Andrews Church Hall in Rochester.

William Luscombe Claims Bride in River Rouge Rite

Wanda Joan Romanski and William Kydd Luscombe Jr. exchanged marriage vows Saturday morning in a double ring ceremony in Our Lady of Lourdes Church, River Rouge.

The Charles Lewis Romanskis of River Rouge are her parents and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jewell Luscombe of Birmingham and William K. Luscombe of Tucson, Ariz.

A gown of white imported French lace over satin with a high neck line and long sleeves was worn by the bride. The dress featured a redingote style skirt with an underpanel of accordion pleated mousselaine de soie.

Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls, and the bridal bouquet of stephanotis and carnations was centered with a white orchid.

Claire Romanski was her sister's maid of honor in a ballerina-length dress of powder blue nylon tulle over taffeta with matching tiara and slippers.

In similar gowns of mauve were bridesmaids Paula Joanne Luscombe and Nancy Jane Platz, sister and cousin of the bridegroom.

All carried bouquets of pale yellow chrysanthemums and carnations.

Don Degan of Birmingham was best man, and seating the guests were Bob Peabody of Grosse Pointe and Jim Munger of Royal Oak, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

For the wedding breakfast at the Wabeek Tearoom in Wyandotte, Mrs. Romanski chose an aqua lace dress in a waltz-length with black accessories and a corsage of yellow tearoses.

Mrs. Luscombe wore beige French taffeta with bronze-toned accessories and a corsage of bronze button and fuju chrysanthemums.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the breakfast, after which the couple left for a wedding trip in northern Michigan.

On their return they will live in Detroit where William will continue his studies at Wayne University.

British Hurry Men to Guinea

Red Plot Is Suspected; Detroiter and Husband Named as Leaders

LONDON (AP)—Britain readied her second largest aircraft carrier, the 33,000-ton Implacable, today to rush reinforcements to the West Indies. Government spokesman said the troops would protect British Guiana against "Communist intrigues."

Three other warships—the 8,000-ton cruiser Superb and the 1,600-ton frigates Bigbury Bay and Burghead Bay — already were steaming at full speed carrying troops to the troubled colony on the northeast shoulder of South America. The 9,100-ton cruiser Sheffield sailed from Scotland yesterday for the West Indies.

In its announcement last night, the Colonial Office said a Red plot possibly aimed at setting up a Communist-dominated state was afoot in the colony.

"This would lead to bloodshed," the statement warned. It added:

"In view of the latest developments, Her Majesty's government felt it necessary to send naval and military forces to Georgetown (the colony's capital) with the utmost dispatch in order to preserve peace and the safety of all classes."

The statement broke a five-day official silence on events in British Guiana, where the majority People's Progressive party (PPP) is pressing for greater independence. The British governor, Sir Alfred Savage, reportedly is considering the dismissal of some of his left-wing ministers.

A Colonial Office spokesman told newsmen that the Communist movement in British Guiana is run by the U. S.-born wife of Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, the former Janet Rosenberg. She is the executive secretary of the PPP.

Both Jagan and his wife, however, have denied they are Communists. They met while Jagan was studying dentistry in Chicago and she was a student at the Cook County Hospital School of Nursing. School records listed her home as Detroit, Mich.

Reports from Georgetown indicated the colony was tense but quiet. The Executive Council held its usual weekly meeting in Georgetown yesterday with Gov. Savage presiding. Jagan was among the ministers attending.

British Guiana's troubles have been brewing since last April when the PPP won a sweeping victory in the first election under the new constitution.

The party has demanded constitutional amendments to make almost all places in the colony's legislative and executive bodies elective by removing most of Britain's appointive representatives from the Legislature and Executive Council cabinet.

Votes New Court System

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—The city is dropping its two justices of the peace and adopting a municipal court system. It voted 476 to 73 for the new plan in a special election yesterday. The first judge will be appointed before Jan. 1 and next spring voters will elect one for a six-year term.

LAKE ANGELUS HOME SOLD—The English Tudor home built by the late Fred J. Fisher on Lake Angelus in the 20s has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rothberg of Detroit. Part of the Bertha M. Fisher Estate, the sale was handled by Paul A. Kern Jr., of Paul A. Kern, Incorporated, Pontiac, and the property was listed with Snyder, Kinney and Bennett of Birmingham. (Story appears on page 1).

Fire Causes Changing From Hams to Beans

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — "Guess times are getting hard," said Jim McAlister, dispatcher for the Oklahoma City Fire Department as he looked through the list of calls.

Two city homes had turned in alarms when pots of beans burned.

"It used to be hams," said McAlister.

The old belief that a whale spouts water is a misconception. After making a dive, the whale comes to the surface and exhales through his nasal openings in the top of his head. This column of to water vapor upon contact with the surrounding cool atmosphere.

LOOKS FISHY—How these little fishes got in the cooling apparatus atop the second story of the Oklahoma Gas and Electric Co. was the top Oklahoma City mystery yesterday. Merve Griffin Lost 80 Pounds, Won Fame

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Merv Griffin has his own formula for landing a film career; He lost 80 pounds.

Merv is the handsome, curly-haired singer who played the lead opposite Kathryn Grayson in the Grace Moore biog. To look at him today, you'd never guess that he once had a Sydney Greenstreet-type figure.

"It's true," vows the San Mateo, Calif., boy, "I used to tip the scales around 235.

"You should have seen me. A 17½-inch neck and 42-inch waist. A stomach 'way out to here. How come? I just l i k e d to eat, that's all."

His girth started to grow when he was a hungry 9-year-old, and he ate his way through his teenes He managed to land some singing jobs in San Francisco radio and made a success of it.

At one time he was going 11 shows a week, several of them across the country. His billing: "The young romantic voice of radio."

The gals went for him, too. They deluged the station w i t h mushy letters and requests for photos. Merv kept asking when he could have a photo sitting, but the radio bosses kept postponing it.

They knew their mystery singer would lose his romance if the women saw his fat frame.

Several years ago, a Hollywood press agent named Jackson Parks drove to work with a couple of studio secretaries who always insisted on listening to Griffin on the car radio. They were ga-ga over the boy. Parks passed the word along to the talent department.

Griffin soon got a call to visit studio boss William Dozier and his wife Joan Fontaine at the Fairmount Hotel in San Francisco.

"When I walked in the door, I could see their faces fall," Merv recalls. "I knew what they were thinking — 'this is the romantic voice of radio?' "

Merv continued on his obese way until some time later when singer Joan Edwards came to town. She had heard him on the radio and was disappointed when he turned up to do a show together.

"Your voice is terrific," said the outspoken Miss Edwards, "but that blubber has got to go."

That did it. Merv says he was so mad he started dieting that afternoon. In four months, he shelved 80 pounds and dropped 11 inches from his waistline.

How? By self-denial, steaks and common sense. He now hovers around 160 pounds, which is just about right for his 5 feet 10 frame.

Things started happening for the newly slim baritone. Freddie Martin signed him as band vocalist and he left immediately on an eight-month tour of the U.S.

The band returned to the coast for a TV series, then did a show in New York. When Martin came back to California, Merv remained in the East to sing on his own.

"But I couldn't get a hit record," he related, "and that's pretty hard on a singer. I could have played the gin mills around the country, but I didn't want to do that. When Martin wired me to join him is Las Vegas, I took the next plane out."

If was a lucky break. In the audience one night were Doris Day and her husband, Marty Melcher. They thought he was a good bet for movies. Warner Brothers agreed, and he was signed.

Right now Merv knows what the last of the Mohicans felt like. He is the last actor under contract to Warners, sharing the talent roster with Doris Day, Virginia Mayo, Joan Weldon and Dolores Dorn.

Is the boy going to last?

"I don't know," he replied. "I've got 15-minute options."

Rival Major Pilots See Hopes in '54 Campaign

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Offhand, prospects for dethroning the world champion New York Yankees and National League-ruling Brooklyn Dodgers do not appear overly bright. However, rival major league managers detected a ray of hope in the recently concluded World Series.

Except for two of the six games, the series indicated strongly that both the Yankees and Dodgers must improve their pitching to successfully defend their titles. Only four of the 12 starting hurlers were able to go the route. Eddie Lopat and Preacher Roe did it in the second game and Vic Raschi and Carl Erskine in the third.

Erskine is the only one of this quartet who figures to duplicate or better his 1953 record. The others are past 35 and cannot be counted on to be more than once-a-week starters. So is Allie Reynolds, the Yankee ace, who has the added handicap of an aching back. The strong-armed right-hander, worried by his recurring muscular spasms, may decide not to come back at all next year.

Every big league manager but three—Charlie Grimm, Paul Richards and Lou Boudreau—attended the series. Not all stayed to the very end. Leo Durocher left the second game. Eddie Stanky hastened to St. Louis after the third game to attend an organizational meeting. Before he departed Stanky declared his Cardinals as well as the Giants, Phillies and Braves would have to improve by 20 per cent to overtake the Dodgers. Cleveland Manager Al Lopez admitted his Indians could not catch the Yankees with the present personnel.

Managers Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Chuck Dressen of the Dodgers are confident they will repeat next year but admit they are worried about their club's pitching.

"We have a good enough team to win the pennant again next year," Dressen said, "but we want something more than that. We will trade with anybody who will trade with us."

Stengel frankly is afraid that Reynolds, Raschi, Lopat and John Sain may fold next year. In fact the only pitcher he is satisfied will be a big winner again is Whitey Ford, his young southpaw. He is hopeful that Steve Kraly, up from Binghamton; Tom Morgan, now in the Army; Bob Weisler of Kansas City; and Jim McDonald, a holdover, will form the nucleus of a new mound staff.

PACES CHIEF ATTACK—Leading ground-gainer for Pontiac High's undefeated football team this season is Jimmy Williams (above), fleet little left halfback. In three games, the 5-foot 5-inch 135-pound speedster has collected 152 yards in 20 tries for a sparkling 7.6-yard average. He has averaged 18 yards in kickoff and put returns.

Mob Scene Expected

Scrubs Should Get First Game Action Saturday as Spartans Meet TCU

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP)—Munn and Co. should be able to present their full cast of players in Michigan State's first home football game against Texas Christian here Saturday.

It'll be a surprise if most of them don't get a chance to run before the afternoon is over.

The Michigan State football plot this year shapes up to be almost a repeat of the 1952 season.

Munn has been forced to limit himself to 38 men on his traveling roster.

But there's a stubborn group of 27 sophomores and junior varsity players who have stayed on the squad since practice started early in September.

Munn's philosophy of football fun is to let as many boys participate as possible. Last year, he played up to 64 a game.

Unless there's a startling upset in form, Saturday's game should produce a mob scene similar to the height of the two-platoon system at Michigan State.

After the regulars, like Billy Wells, Leroy Bolden, Tommy Yewcic and Jimmy Ellis make the margin safe, the coaches should start emptying the bench.

Subs Pushing Regular Guards on Michigan 11

Oxford's Ed Meads in Group of Five Pressing Beison, Dugger

Regulars Dick Beison and Don Dugger have started both of Michigan's games this season. And they'll probably start against Iowa here Saturday.

But behind the regular front, a handful of contenders are quietly battling for recognition.

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan used five of them Saturday in the victory over Tulane. And, at least for the moment, they are the top candidates pushing the regulars.

Ron Williams, scrappy senior from Massilon, Ohio, and Ted Cachey, his physical double from Chicago, got first call to relieve Dugger and Beison. Experience and ability combined to make the pair of 180 pounders logical substitution choices.

Another pair, who did not see action against Tulane, are also to be reckoned with. Fred Caffrey, a 225 pound junior from New York, and Bob Marion, lightweight Muskegon Heights sophomore, are bound to get their chance.

Oosterbaan has indicated that none of the regular jobs are so regular as to preclude the rise of new talent.

Burkemo Is Disturbed by French Women Caddies

PARIS (AP) — The American Ryder Cup golf team, which doesn't upset very easily, confessed to a man that it is slightly nettled over the aspect of European golf. It's the women caddies.

The American professionals, off to a 4-1 lead over a European all-star team from six countries, wind up their first continental match this afternoon.

One of the first things that struck them at the suburban St. Louis course was the system of using women to carry clubs.

Walter Burkemo's caddy confided in him she's expecting the blessed event in about five months.

"You know," said the Detroit pro who teamed with Sammy Snead for a 6 and 4 win yesterday, "I just feel like going up to her and saying, 'Ma'ma I'll carry that bag.'"

Among yesterday's spectators were the Duke of Windsor and ex-king Leopold of Belgium. And after the matches the American golfers here entertained at cocktails by U. S. ambassador Douglas Dillon. He's an old golf fan, having teamed twice with Cary Middlecoff to win the Seminole Pro-amateur tourney at Palm Beach, Fla.

Ten singles matches today complete the competition. They include Burkemo vs. Alver Pelissiers, France. Ray Maguire, Birmingham, Mich., vs. Francois Soubaber, France.

Two-Way Rule Brings Drop in Plays, Scoring

Statistics in Other Phases Are Favorable to New Game

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—College football fans are seeing less football for their money this year under the one-platoon system, but they're getting enough action and close competition to make up for the loss.

That casual observation, based on two games seen thus far by one writer—Notre Dame vs. Oklahoma and Princeton vs. Columbia, is backed up by figures from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Few games could be more exciting than Notre Dame's 28-21 decision over Oklahoma or Princeton's last-minute 20-19 victory over Columbia. But a calm checkup reveals that there were only 146 plays run off in the sun-scorched contest at Norman, Okla., and 149 at Princeton, including kickoffs and plays nullified by penalties.

Those figures apparently were above the average so far this year, although they represented a sharp drop from a few games checked in 1951 and 1952, which showed anywhere from 150 to 163 plays per game.

The NCAB, limiting its statistics to offensive plays for convenience, comes up with the figure of 118 per game as an average for some 300 games played so far this season. Last year the season's average was 133.4 plays per game.

Scoring has shown a proportionate drop—from an average of 36.7 points for two teams per game to 32.8. But everything else, according to NCAB figures, looks favorable toward the two-way game as compared to the two-platoon performances of the past few years.

PHS Harriers Defeat Acorns for 26th Win

Sooners Slim Favorites Over Texas Saturday

Longhorns Underdogs for First Time in Years Against Oklahoma

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP)—Oklahoma is expected to be a 3-point favorite over Texas Saturday when the two schools renew their storied rivalry for the 48th time and coach Ed Price of Texas says that will be a novelty although it won't help him any.

It started out as a 'take your choice' after this week but the local odds-makers said the Sooners would move out front when the money started to flow.

It's the first time in years for Texas not to be the favorite although the Longhorns have won only one game since 1947.

"We're expecting a very hard game," Price said today. "We are playing an Oklahoma team that will start two-year lettermen at all positions.

One thing that made Price feel good about it, however, was the fact that Texas will be as near perfect physical condition as a team possibly could be. Longhorns were plagued by injuries in the first three games of the season but all hands now are ready to go.

Price said Oklahoma showed in its game with Notre Dame that it had a great team. He discounted the 7-7 tie with Pittsburgh last week with "they had a let-down from the big effort against Notre Dame."

Another thing the Texas coach wanted understood. Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma expressed some concern the other day over the big score the Sooners ran up on the Longhorns last season and said Texas would be out for revenge.

"We're not thinking about revenge," said Price. "There's no reason for it. We are proud of the game we played last year against a great team."

Lopat Leading Hurler in ERA, Win Percentage

Spahn and Erskine Top National Loop Pitching Statistics

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Lopat, who made one of baseball's strong est comebacks, captured two of the American League's most coveted pitching honors for 1953—in earned runs and winning percentage.

Statistics compiled by The Associated Press showed today that the 35-year-old New York Yankee lefthander, hampered by a sore arm during much of the '52 campaign, paced the American League with a 2.43 earned run average. He permitted only 48 earned runs in 178 innings.

Lopat signed a conditional contract before the season, but he came through handsomely. He won 16 games and dropped only 4 for a winning mark of .800—topping it off with a World Series victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers in the second game. Eddie is the first American League pitcher to lead in earned runs and won-lost percentage the same year since Spud Chandler did it in 1943.

In the National League, Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, another southpaw, was the circuit's earned run leader with a 2.10 mark, the lowest since Howie Pollet compiled the same average with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1946.

Spahn, one of the key men in the surprising showing of the Braves this year, allowed 62 earned tallies in 266 innings. He won 23 games and lost 7 (.767). Brooklyn's Carl Erskine was the top man in winning percentage with .769, on a 20-6 record.

Neither earned run paceset.r had much competition. Chicago's Billy Pierce was runner-up to Lopat in the American League with a 2.72 ERA and Virgil Trucks, also of the White Sox, was third at 2.93.

Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies, a 23-game winner, was second in the National League with 2.75 followed by Bob Buhl of the Braves, 3.00, and Harvey Haddix of the Cards, 3.06.

OSU Star Selected as 'Back of Week'

By DAVE DILES

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Block-busting Bobby Watkins, shy and soft-spoken through the week but strictly business on the football field on Saturday, shrugged off praise today after being selected the Associated Press back-of-the week.

The 188-pound junior halfback from New Bedford, Mass., accepted humbly the congratulations from his teammates and passed on plaudits to the hulking Ohio State university line.

The stout, 21-year-old standout, built like a piano, made shreds of the California line last Saturday, running up 145 yards in 20 tries for a 7.2 average and scoring four touchdowns.

Versatile Attack

Team Balance Biggest Factor in PHS Streak

By BILL MARTIN

Team balance—an almost-indispendable quality in winning football—has been the most important single factor in Pontiac High's current 3-game unbeaten streak.

No less than eight different players have contributed to the Chiefs' 10-touchdown total thus far, and six ball-toters are averaging better than four yards per carry.

Leading scorer is halfback Homer Harrison with 13 points, while fullback Coley Gracey has 12 and halfback Bill Rose, 11. Dick Ayling, Zack Athanas, Jimmy Williams, Leroy Moore and Walt Poe have scored a touchdown apiece. Pontiac has outscored three foes, 66-16.

Williams' 7.6-yard average (152 yards in 20 tries) makes him the team's leading ground-gainer. Right behind Williams is Bill Rose, with 144 yards in 24 plays for an even 6-yard average. Kirk Hobolth has 76 yards in 14 tries (5.4), Poe has 69 in 13 carries (5.3), Harrison has piled up 139 in 30 attempts (4.6) and Gracey has cracked the line for 130 yards in 31 thrusts (4.1)

Pontiac's strong running attack has outgained opponents, 722 yards to 361. Chiefs' passing, while lacking the threat of the ground offensive, has been acceptable. Ten of 25 attempts have been completed for 111 yards. Opponents have connected on six of 18 passes for 86 yards.

Six of the PHS eleven's 10 touchdowns have come on short plunges inside the five-yard stripe, after sustained marches. Two were scored on passes, one on the runback of an interception and the other on a 30-yard run by Williams.

Miss Chadwick Adds to Honors

Swims the Bosphorus From Europe to Asia, Then Back Again

THERAPIA, Turkey (AP) — Florence Chadwick added to her swimming honors today by swimming the tricky Bosphorus from Europe to Asia and then back to Europe.

The 33-year-old typist from San Diego, Calif., was timed officially in one hour, 14 minutes and 7 seconds. She plunged into the water at 7:10 a.m. (2:10 a.m. EST) at Sariyer point on the European shore.

Widest point across the 1½ mile Bosphorus was chosen in order that the test "would not be too easy" for Miss Chadwick who has gained an international reputation as a long distance swimmer.

Miss Chadwick has conquered the English Channel twice and only last Sept. 20 swam the channel of the Straits of Gibraltar, famous for its tricky currents.

She next plans to swim the Hellespont, now known as the Dardanelles, about Oct. 7 or 8.

Lee Seeks to Regain Mark at Partington's

Sports car driver Del Lee will return to Partington's drag racing strip Sunday in an attempt to regain his speed record, now held by Stanley Yee. Yee set a mark of 71.50 miles per hour in a Ford modified roadster. Thirty other cars are expected.

Trials run from 11 a. m. to 2:30 p. m., with drag races starting at 3 p. m. Track is located at Ryan, north of 15-Mile road.

Bolden Leads MSC in Yards, Total Points

EAST LANSING (AP) — Flint halfback Leroy Bolden leads both in yards rushing and in the scoring, according to statistics compiled on the first two Michigan State football games against Iowa and Minnesota.

Bolden carried 23 times to and scored three touchdowns, all against Minnesota. Billy Wells, With 63 yards on 19 carries and two touchdowns, was next behind him in both departments.

Wells also was listed as the top pass receiver with 87 yards on five catches. Tommy Yewcic, with 12 completions in 22 tries, led the quarterbacks with a net of 144 yards. Sophomore Earl Morrall of Muskegon was pressing Yewcic with nine completions in 13 tosses for 110 yards.

Eleven backs carried the ball and 11 backs and ends caught passes in the two games.

MSC Plays Bring TD's Against Frogs' Varsity

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — The awesome power of Michigan State's football team asserted itself by proxy here yesterday. Two of the first half dozen Spartan plays, as run by a team of Texas Christian reserves against the varsity went for touchdowns.

They were pitchouts to the fullback, in this case Gene Garner, junior squadman.

It was the first defensive session of the week for the Frogs, who play Michigan State at East Lansing Saturday.

Syracuse University football players removed from a game are placed on benches painted orange until the beginning of the next segment of play.

'Wreck' Guard Top AP Lineman

Soph Franklin Brooks Voted Star of Week in Writers' Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — Franklin Brooks, sophomore guard at Georgia Tech, was named today as the lineman of the week in the first Associated Press poll of the 1953 collegiate football season.

Brooks made the amazing total of 18 tackles—a new school record — as the Yellow Jackets nipped Southern Methodist 6-4 to extend their unbeaten string to 29 games.

Three of the tackles came as Tech put on a goal line stand that stopped SMU cold after the Texans had gained a first down on the one.

Not only did Brooks shine on the defense. He threw a key block after Dave Davis had intercepted SMU pass to help Davis run the ball back to the SMU 20. The play led to Tech's only and winning touchdown.

Maple Harriers Win 3rd Meet of Season

Birmingham High School's cross country team racked up its third win in five meets Tuesday at Port Huron by outrunning the Big Reds, 15-50. Seven Maple harriers trouped across the finish line ahead of all Port Huron runners.

Jim Taup, Ed Hubbard and Jerry Kraus came in 1-2-3 just a second apart, with Taups winning time, 11 minutes, 8 seconds. Rounding out the finish were Tom Rockwell, Bob Libby, Dave Long and Ralph Hotchkiss.

Iowa 11 Develops Rapidly Under Evvy's Direction

By L. E. SKELLEY

IOWA CITY, Ia. (AP) — Forest Evashevski leads his Iowa football players back to his old stamping grounds in Ann Arbor this week for what he hopes will be a victorious homecomig.

Evvy, Michigan quarterback in 1938-39-40, whose vicious blocks eased the way for Tommy Harmon's spectacular runs, is going back to his alma mater with a team that has developed faster than Iowa fans dared hope.

Hawks were no soft touch in their opener with Michigan State, and only the customary first-game mistakes prevented Iowa from making the score closer than 21-7.

Iowa fans went away from that one confident Iowa was fast on the upgrade. If they needed any boost to their confidence they got it last Saturday when the Hawks crumpled Washington State, 54-12, for the highest scoring figure by an Iowa team since 1947.

Iowa's rugged line which some Iowa supporters already are calling the best in the Big Ten, ripped Washington State apart.

One of the most encouraging features of the Washington State game was the performance of Dusty Rice, a sensational sophomore halfback, but far off that pace last year because of a summer knee operation. Dusty got 56 yards in 3 carries and also traveled 42 yards for a touchdown after catching a pass.

Iowans hope that a resurgent Rice will be equally effective against Michigan.

Kress Leads U. of M. for Ground Gaining

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Ted Kress, the long legged halfback from Detroit, was Michigan's leading ground gainer as the Wolverines prepared to open their 1953 Big Ten season against Iowa here Saturday.

His 216 yards was tops.

Kress, a senior, picked up 117 yards rushing in Michigan's 50-0 victory over Washington and 26-7 conquest of Tulane. He added 99 yards by passing.

Big 10 Regains 'Top Dog' Grid Status

Preps Feature Offensive Play

By JACK SAYLOR

Offensive football took the spotlight last week in the Oakland County area as a number of high scores were recorded. Top total was the 52 points tallied by Waterford in shutting out Walled Lake.

Skippers' blocking was functioning well and their two fine halfbacks, Ray Campbell and Kerry Keating, cashed in for three touchdowns each. Campbell sped 22, 2 and 69 yards for his six-pointers, while Keating scored on runs of 11, 55 and 31 yards.

Loren Bray, primarily a defensive back, also scored twice, from the two and the 17.

All in all, Waterford amassed 445 yards rushing. Keating averaged 12 yards per try for a whopping 225 total, and Campbell hit nine and a half in accounting for 104 yards.

Van Dyke, Waterford's Friday foe, totaled 31 points in blanking Farmington, with John Malone, a rangy, 180-pounder, running for two tallies and passing for another. A similar performance was turned in by Northville's Lamar Nally as the Mustangs swamped Milford, 36-0. Redskins were hurt by a seige of poor tackling.

Rochester caught fire in the second half to down MC St. Mary, 27-7, with Max Powell and Paul Dellaire scoring twice apiece on lengthy runs. Jim Van Wagoner rang up three touchdowns in Oxford's 33-0 rout of Ortonville.

While overshadowed, defensive play did not go entirely unnoticed. Buzz DeBaene starred at tackle for Rochester, while Oxford's defense was sparked by tackle Larry Spencer and linebacker Jim Lister.

Ralph Wells played a strong two-way game in the line for Holly as the Broncs beat Brighton, 25-6, and tackle Ed Mix added a TD by recovering a fumble in the end zone. Holly forwards held Brighton to 16 yards rushing.

Herman Kuhn and John Webber spearheaded Keego's line in its 14-0 win over Clarkston, while the O'Shaughnessy brothers, Lester and Jerry, took care of the offense. Erwin Merrit for Lapeer and Ed Leach for Lake Orion were standouts as Lapeer took a 7-0 decision.

Ends Bill Strobel and Ray Boyl were defensive stalwarts as Avondale topped Troy, 12-6. Marv Evans tallied both Avon touchdowns.

Bill Long of Southfield has stamped himself as one of the area's best runners in a broken field. Two weeks ago, he had a 75-yard punt return wiped out by a penalty. Last Friday, he returned a kick 99 yards to score against Berkley.

Five Schools Unbeaten, Untied in Non-League Competition

By TOM BRANAGAN

CHICAGO (AP)—It looks like 1953 will mark the return of the Big Ten to "top dog" status among college football conferences.

Apparently fully recovered from a sickly 1952 season, the long-respected midwest loop gives every indication of tremendous overall strength.

So far in 1953, each Big Ten team has played two games. Five of them — Michigan, Michigan State, Northwestern, Ohio State and Wisconsin—are undefeated and untied and another, Illinois, has won one game but has been tied once.

After two games of the 1952 season, Wisconsin was the only undefeated, untied team in the conference. That year, Big Ten outfits finished their regular season with a far-below-standard record of eight wins, 13 losses and two ties against outside opponents.

Wisconsin was selected for a Rose Bowl assignment and lost to Southern California—the first defeat by a Big Ten team in the series.

So far this season, Big Ten teams have won nine outside games, lost four and tied one. Southern California accounted for two of the setbacks, dumping Minnesota and Indiana, while Purdue suffered the other two—to Missouri and Notre Dame. In addition, Nebraska tied Illinois.

Last Saturday's performance pointed up the league's change for the better. Northwestern walked by a good Army team 33-20, Illinois humbled Stanford 33-21, Iowa walloped Washington State 54-12, Ohio State beat California 33-19 and Michigan beat Tulane 26-7.

Only team given real competition by a non-conference foe was Wisconsin, which squeaked by a strong Marquette squad 13-11.

Around town Turner is being quoted as a 4-1 to 6-1 favorite for the nationally televised fight starting at 10 p. m. (EST). Odds are probably right. It's hard to see how Turner can lose. He's fought the best, and whipped many of them.

Turner has won 41 pro fights, losing only to welterwieght champion Kid Gavilan (in a title bout), Bobby Dykes and Joey Giardello. His big victory this year was in June, when he handed Johnny Saxton his first pro loss.

On the other hand, who is Scortichini? He's had 39 pro fights but only six of these have been in this country.

In his last U. S. showing in June, "Scorty" dropped a one-sided decision to Gavilan in a non-title 10-rounder.

4 Lettermen Report for UM Cage Drill

ANN ARBOR (UP)—Capt. Ray Pavachevich and three other lettermen were among the 15 hopefuls who turned out for the University of Michigan's first basketball practice Tuesday.

John Codwell, Bruce Allen and Don Eddy were the three monogram-winners who joined Pavachevich in the initial session. Coach Dave Perigo said the early practices were designed to give his staff a better chance to look over this year's candidites.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—Use Straight Ball.

Hook Turn Takes Time—Almost without exception, my pupils want to use a hook delivery right off. They don't understand that bowling isn't that simple.

Learning is a gradual process: Stance, stride, swing and follow-through for direction. The straight ball comes first—and for quite a time.

Blues Hope Ferris Can Stop Royals

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—The Kansas City Blues send Bob Ferris (5-5) to the mound tonight in efforts to stop the Montreal Royals from sweeping the Little World Series in four straight games.

Montreal, Brooklyn Dodger farm club, has defeated the New York Yankee club from Kansas City three straight games.

Scalper Series Tickets Seized, Re-sold by Clubs

NEW YORK (AP) — At least 141 tickets to the World Series were sold twice by the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers—both times legally and for the face price.

The tickets found their way into the hands of scalpers. Police seized them and returned them to the ball clubs. The clubs in turn sold them again.

Four box seat tickets seized from scalpers never were used. They are still in a city court safe to be used as evidence.

Pintail, Teal Heading South on Large Scale

Weather and Migration Pattern Is Normal for This Time of Year

Pintail and blue-wing teal southward migrations on large scale have been observed during last half of September across the southern portion of the three Canadian prairie provinces. The waterfowl population remains at high level despite reduced production by mallards and pintains. Weather and migration pattern is normal for the time of year.

These are considered facts expressed in the current issue of the Ducks Unlimited "Duckological," prepared by Chief Naturalist Bert W. Cartwight.

The report reveals that mallards are gathering on larger waters in each of the three provinces, but in smaller numbers than last year. Canvasbacks are reported in large numbers and the "Duckological" remarks, "It is evident that this fine species has reached a new peak of abundance following three successive years of favorable diving duck breeding conditions."

Heavy volume of the late hatch is causing some concern. It is evident from reports by hunters that an unusually high percentage of immature birds is being taken. Survivors will still require two or three weeks of favorable weather to become properly conditioned for the flight south.

BRONC FRESHMAN — Ron Kopicko, standout linesman on Waterford High School's football team last year, is a member of the freshman football team at Western Michigan College this fall. The 6-2, 170-pound Kopicko is the son of Mrs. Irene Henry, 6781 Longworth. A tackle, he gained all-state mention in 1952. He was also a member of the Skippers' basketball and baseball squads.

Hunters Should Request Right to Use Property

By MORT NEFF

About the time the fall hunting season rolls around in the southern half of Michigan the farmer gets to be very, very popular. He has callers by the score, most of them complete strangers who would like to be treated like old friends. They have one purpose in mind, one question to ask after appropriate introductory remarks: "Do you mind if we hunt on your land?" In a way this is a break for the farmer. Lots more of these once-a-year visitors don't bother to ask. They climb fences and start hunting.

NEFF

To the hunter who has sufficient respect for the rights of private land owners to ask permission most farmers are more kindly disposed to grant the requested privilege. And thanks to the efforts of organized sportsmen's clubs there'll be a lot more hunters schooled in the proper approach this year.

Michigan's United Conservation Clubs with a membership of about 60,000 have faced this problem fairly and squarely, and have had numerous meetings with representative groups of farmers. While the farmer is in a perfect position to say "No!" to all comers who want to hunt his land he's just not that kind of a guy.

Those who live off the good land don't know the meaning of snobbery, and they are inherently unselfish by nature. They're neighborly folks — and having to refuse a favor even to a stranger is against their principles of living.

But they cannot tolerate widespread damage to their property by irresponsible hunters, and that's why the problem exists.

When the MUCC and individual sportsmen's clubs came up with a suggestion for better co-operation the farmers were willing. But they know this won't solve the problem because any co-operative plans affect only members of these clubs — too small a percentage of Michigan's vast army of hunters.

Before you hunt in Michigan outdoors this year, plan to meet a few farmers face-to-face. Ask permission to hunt in a man-to-man way. You'll find that two things will happen: your conscience will make your hunting a lot more fun, and you will have eased the problems of the farmer who is already burdened with more than his fair share of troubles!

Hunters Having Difficulty Locating Game in Cover; Dryness, Heat Hurt Dogs

By JACK PATTERSON

After we got out of Alcona county the shooting picked up some and the boys began collecting birds. We eased over into Crawford county and watched brother Bob Patterson of Ann Arbor collect his limit of five birds without any effort on his part, and considerable on ours. Understand he duplicated the performance the following day, but how he did it without our assistance beats us.

PATTERSON

Also ran into the George Hodges of Lake Angelus, along with their son Jim of Seattle. Armed with a veritable arsenal of weapons to choose from, the Hodges family was making substantial inroads on the partridge tribe in the areas surrounding Hidden Valley.

Billy Mack, formerly of Pontiac, now of Dearborn assisted a party in collecting 11 birds in the Sage Lake region near Rose City. Later Bill tried a little duck shooting at Wildfowl Bay's Sand Point but reports small success—only one black, in fact.

Frank and Clint Wood, burning ammunition near Harrison, report that their efforts to date total one woodcock. Apparently the brothers Wood are still staking their joint reputations as outdoorsmen on that big bass they either did or did not catch (depending on who tells the story) in Florida last winter.)

Ran into Vic Blakeslee and Dr. George Petroff deep in the pine woods. Their shooting wasn't going too well but their poker playing made up for it, a matter about which we have some first hand knowledge.

Natives in the parts of the pat country we visited are practically unanimous in agreeing that there are more birds this years than last. Yet many hunters are having difficulty locating the birds. Where are they? Well it's easier to point out where they aren't. No acorns to speak of so the oak ridges are pretty barren. Cedar swamps aren't producing as they should. Jack pine flats aren't doing much, except in rather widely scattered instances. Best bets, for us at least, seem to be stands of popples, with, of course, ferns as ground cover. Only trouble is that ferns are still waist high and birds are loath to move unless you step on them. The heat and dryness makes it pretty rough going for even a good dog, too, of which there are not many, when it comes to partridge hunting.

Back in Oakland County at week's end we sharpened up our eye with a little snipe shooting on local marshes. The birds fly faster than they did a decade ago. The mud is deeper, stickier. The air isn't as pure as it used to be, either. We find ourselves getting out of breath much more quickly than we remember when the snipe season was last open.

Wildfowl authority George Zimmerman just got back from opening the Ontario duck season. Something about three bluegills and a lot of warm weather was all the answer we got as to what luck he had.

After considerable arm twisting we got George to make a pronouncement on the duck hunting outlook for the rest of the month. It seems that the warm weather we're currently enjoying is going to come to a screeching halt about the 25th of the month. Then amidst sleet and snow and hail and all the stuff that postmen are reputed to shrug off so lightly, all the ducks in Christendom are going to arrive practically in a bunch. Then we'll be in for shooting the likes of which few men and no boys have ever seen. Anyway, that's what George says.

Hunters Are Warned of Quicksand Danger

OWOSSO (UP) — Michigan duck hunters were warned today to steer clear of quicksand in marshes along the Shiawassee river where one sportsman nearly lost his life.

John Grumley, 18, Shiawassee township, was walking along the river bank when his feet became stuck in the soft bottom. He sank to his waist before fellow hunters pulled him to safety.

Hunting Is Voted Out in Farmington Township

Residents of the 35-square-mile Farmington Township Monday voted, 780 to 382, to outlaw hunting in the township, bounded by 14-Mile, 8-Mile, Inkster and Haggerty. Special election was authorized by an act of the state legislature.

Entries Close Soon for Obedience Class

Owners of dogs who wish to enroll them in the fall session of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training class must do so within the next 24 hours. Entries close Thursday at 8 p. m. at Daniel Whitfield School, when classes get under way.

Present enrollment is 20 and only a limited additional number can be accommodated. Interested owners should call John Eicher, FE 2-4867.

The class is for all breeds. It has proved a very popular training class during several years of operation.

Ace Rewards Golfer After 36-Year Wait

Dick Stamp, 1395 Holland, Birmingham waited 36 years for his first hole-in-one. The 50-year-old Stamp scored the ace Monday at Bald Mountain Golf Club while golfing with his two sons, Dick Jr., of Royal Oak, and Jerry of Birmingham.

Stamp used a four-wood to hole his tee shot on the 172-yard sixth hole. The shot helped him to "about an 80" for the round. It was the fifth ace of the year at Bald Mountain, four of which have been made on the sixth hole.

Skeet Official Meets Clubmen on Tourney Idea

By H. GUY MOATS

Oakland County Sportsmen's club officials will confer here Thursday noon with the president of the National Skeet Shooting Association regarding possibility of OCSC as a site for the 1954 national tournament.

Howard Shelley, OCSC official today reported that Dr. Frank Trucks of New Orleans, head of the national skeet body, would fly in from the South Thursday morning.

"We have arranged a luncheon meeting to follow several hours inspection of the OSCS facilities," Shelley said. "The additional 80 acres added to the club's ground recently should provide a fine layout for a national event. We hope that Dr. Trucks will be favorably impressed by what the club has to offer, and that he signs an agreement for the big skeet feature."

Greeting the NSSA at Willow Run will be, beside Shelley, OCSC prexy, Frank Foster and Jim Ashmore, skeet committeeman.

OCSC officials have been studying the idea for a national skeet tourney here, and believe they have a proposition that will be attractive to the parent group.

First Gun Annual

What makes a rifle shoot accurately? How can you select the proper telescope and mount for your rifle? What's the best shotgun or handgun available?

These and many other questions on arms and ammunition are answered in the new Sports Afield Gun Annual, first of a series just published by Sports Afield magazine.

Yale has not lost an opening football game since losing to Virginia in 1940.

Author Asks Sports Puzzler on Ballplayer

NEW YORK (AP)—Sports writer Hy Turkin, author of the Baseball Encyclopedia and Gillette World Series Record Book, still is waiting for the correct answer to this puzzler: Who is the only man to play in a World Series even though he never played in a regular season major league game?

Turkin says the answer is contained in his record book but that Marvin Rickert is not the man. Rickert's name has been selected by 9 out of 10 people who have answered Turkin.

Rickert received special permission to play for the Boston Braves in the 1948 World Series after Jeff Heath broke an ankle. Rickert, however, played some National League games before the series. If you know the answer, write Turkin at WPIX, New York 1, N. Y.

Grains Hold On to Higher Trend

CHICAGO (AP)—All grains scored moderate advances on the Board of Trade today even though they were not all able to hold onto opening gains which ran to two cents in wheat and soybeans.

Dealings were not unusually active, but pressure on the market was very light. This reflected a small run of cash grain to terminals. Continued dry weather in the Southwest was a factor in stirring up demand for distant wheat deliveries.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ⅜-⅞ higher, December $1.91⅝; corn was ¼-⅜ higher, December $1.42¾, and oats were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, December 74⅛.

Soybeans were ¾-1¼ cents higher, November $2.26½, and lard was 5 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, October $15.40.

Aircrafts, Autos Up, Rest Mixed

NEW YORK (AP) — Aircrafts and motors were higher today with the remainder of the stock market mixed.

Many gains ran into major fractions. Losses were small. A long list of leading issues held unchanged.

Motors stood ahead yesterday in a backward stock market, and they continued their show of mild strength today. Hudson, yesterday's most active issue up a point, opened today on a block of 1,700 shares up at 11⅜. Attention to Hudson came from reports that Hudson and Nash are talking merger.

Aircrafts with some good gains today reversed their trend of yesterday when they were under selling pressure.

Greyhound, which announced an expansion program, opened on a block of 3,000 shares unchanged at 13.

Avco, quite active so far this week, was on the tape with blocks of 1,500, 1,700 and 2,000 shares all unchanged at 5½.

Judge Studies Mahoney Plea

Takes Robber's Appeal for New Trial Under Advisement

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick Tuesday took under advisement a plea for a new trial for Pete Mahoney, ex-Detroit gambler imprisoned for a 1945 Pontiac holdup.

Convicted in the holdup of the Aristocrat Club, Mahoney, 51, was sentenced to 25 to 50 years in prison.

Harry Fleisher, Mike Selik, William Davidson and Sammy Chivas, a former professional boxer, also were sentenced with Mahoney. Chivas was paroled last week.

Mahoney claimed in his petition for a new trial that the jury was swayed by his conviction of conspiracy to murder Sen. Warren G. Hooper a few months before his trial.

The State Supreme Court later absolved Mahoney of conspiracy in the Hooper murder. He also claimed he was convicted on coerced testimony of two gunmen who had been promised their freedom for their testimony.

Judge Hartrick said today he will reserve judgment in the case until he has completely reviewed all evidence.

President Acts to Protect Career Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission told government agencie today to be sure the job rights of career employes are respected, even if it means displacing some workers without regular Civil Service status.

Chairman Philip Young sent to cabinet officers and agency heads a letter he said was written by direction of President Eisenhower. In it he said the government's policy on economy reductions included these provisions:

1. "No employe with Civil Service status shall be separated from his agency so long as there is a position in the commuting area . . . for which he is qualified that is filled by a person with an indefinite appointment."

2. Employes with Civil Service status who are separated may apply to the commission, which will refer them to "any agency having vacancies or positions within the commuting area filled by persons with indefinite appointments."

Young wrote that "career employes generally can be assured of continuing employment in the government service so long as their services are satisfactory."

Since 1932 pharmacists have been required to have four years of college work in one of the nation's 74 colleges of pharmacy. Following graduation they must pass examinations by the state board of pharmacy and many states require a year of internship.

Press U.S. to Offer Reds New Bid for World Peace

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

The United States is being pressured by Britain and France to offer a non-aggression pact to Russia.

If this seems like a ninth-round handshake between two prize fighters who then will attempt to batter each others' brains out, attached to it are a peculiar set of circumstances in which the United States joins reluctantly.

One is the increasing pressure from Britain and the European Allies for one more all-out attempt to reach a settlement with Russia which would ease world tensions. Prime Minister Winston Churchill started it last spring when he proposed a high-level four-power conference.

Churchill has not abandoned the idea.

Another circumstance is a growing belief among the United States' Allies that Russia must be offered some kind of a price.

And a third is the suggestion that Russia really does feel herself threatened and therefore should have guarantees.

Churchill set the pattern on May 11 when he said that Russia has the right to feel assured that "the terrible events of the Hitler invasion will never be repeated."

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has suggested a possible treaty between the European Defense Community countries and those of the Eastern bloc.

On Sept. 17, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles joined with a statement in the United Nations that the "United States does not want to see Russia encircled by hostile peoples."

On Sept. 25, French Deputy Foreign Minister Maurice Schumann told Russia in the U. N., "I can assure you, you will find us ready to seek a system of guarantees against the modification of boundaries by force."

This week a drafting committee of the United States, Britain and France will meet to formulate a reply to the latest Russia note which stalled a Western invitation for a resumption of negotiations on peace treaties for Germany and Austria.

A non-aggression pact with Russia is expected to be one of the subjects explored.

This week also Churchill is expected to make his first speech since illness postponed his Bermuda meeting with President Eisenhower and French Premier Joseph Laniel.

It will be an opportunity for him to renew his previous suggestion.

The idea in all of this, of course, is to get Russia off dead center and to get some concrete move started toward world peace.

On past performance, however, it would seem to be wishful thinking.

Even assuming that Russian tactics are based more on fear than on dreams of world conquest, it seems unlikely that she would accept any pact without attaching impossible conditions.

Adenauer hopes, for instance, that a non-aggression pact would remove Russian objections to a German army in the European Defense Community. The Russians already have expressed their unalterable opposition to a German army under any conditions.

Russia has a ready-made opportunity to strive for world peace in the Korean political conference, and daily rejects that opportunity.

However, the offer of a non-aggression pact to Russia might serve one good purpose. Acceptance or rejection would offer a clue to her intentions for the future.

2 Wait Examination on Ferndale Robbery

A Royal Oak Township man and a Detroit woman, who are accused of robbing a Ferndale couple of $74 Sunday morning, demanded examination on armed robbery charges, yesterday when they appeared before Ferndale Justice Earl N. Nash.

James Parker, 46, of 21111 Mitchelldale, and Gladys M. Black, 28, of 20515 Mendota, are being held in Oakland County Jail pending examination Oct. 15. Neither was able to furnish bond.

Ferndale police accused Parker of entering the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sierawski, 514 W. Breckenridge, and forcing them to turn over the money at knife point. They claimed Miss Black drove the car for Parker.

Warren Classifies Self Conservative Liberal, Discards Politics

NEW YORK (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren says he considers himself "a conservative liberal—one who will confine his liberalism to practical conservative thinking."

The former California governor, who was sworn in Monday, also says he "will put personal and party politics behind me for the remainder of my life."

Warren's statements were contained in a filmed television interview carried last night on the CBS network "See It Now" program.

The new chief justice, whom President Eisenhower has termed a middle-of-the-roader, said in the interview:

"I think of what Lincoln once said. Someone asked him how he classified himself. He said: 'I am a very slow walker, but I never walk backward'."

Warren added:

"And so I like to feel that while I, too, am a slow walker, I always like to walk forward and it is always a sad day for me if I go to bed at night thinking we have not made some progress . . ."

Warren's declaration that he was through with politics was in reply to a question by interviewer Edward R. Murrow: "18 months ago you were a major candidate for the presidency. Do you still have aspirations for the White House?"

Asked whether he ever had argued a case before the Supreme Court, Warren replied: "Yes. I was admitted to the Supreme Court in 1928 and the day after I was admitted to practice there I argued a case for the county of Alameda (Calif.), for which I was district attorney at that time, against the Southern Pacific Co. and, incidentally, we won it."

The conversation between Warren and Murrow indicated the interview was held before Warren was sworn in as chief justice.

State Parents Warned About Child Accidents

LANSING (AP)—Michigan parents were urged by the State Health Department today to begin early to teach children to protect themselves against accidents.

The department said 341 boys and girls under 5 years old were killed in accidents last year—55 per cent of them at home.

Sixty-one children died of suffocation in bed, but the department said there is reason to believe that many thought, to have died of smothering actually died of undetected illness.

Choking on food or playthings took the lives of 47 kids.

The department said 46 died in fires and explosions, 18 from such hot substances as steam and boiling liquid, 76 in car accidents, 33 by drowning, 19 from falls and 13 from poisoning.

Parents were advised to:

Never leave a child alone in a house.

Keep matches, poisons and medicines from children's reach.

Turn the handles of pots toward the back of the stove, out of the reach of children.

Call a physician at the earliest suspicion of sicknes, a precaution against so-called "suffocation" deaths.

'MISS SPECS APPEAL'—Nancy Ann Miller, 21-year-old blonde from Mt. Prospect, Ill., named "Miss Specs Appeal of 1953" is a sight for four eyes (let alone two.) Coast Guard Moves Inquiry of Ship Sinking

PORT HURON (AP) — A Coast Guard inquiry into the sinking of the German freighter Wallschiff shifted here today from Lorain, Ohio.

The freighter went down in the St. Clair River here after being rammed last Friday night by the Pioneer, a 10,000-ton Great Lakes ore carrier.

Crewmen from the sunken ship, spars of which still show above the waters between here and Sarnia, Ont., are to be interviewed by Capt. H. C. Moore of Cleveland and his inquiry board (starting at 1 p.m.).

Moore's board questioned crewmen from the Pioneer at Lorain on Monday and Tuesday. Questions mostly were routine, determining who was on duty at the time and what action was taken.

Capt. Harold Patterson, a Canadian piloting the German ship, died in the accident, apparently of a heart attack brought on by excitement.

Findings of the inquiry will be announced later from Coast Guard headquarters at Washington, D. C.

23 GIs Turned Red Is 'Meager Showing'

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) says that the 23 U.S. prisoners of war refusing repatriation in Korea are "a meager showing" for the Communists in view of their methods to win Red converts.

The senator expressed his views in an address to the Men's City Club here yesterday.

While 23 Americans have refused repatriation, Ferguson pointed out that around 14,000 North Koreans and Chinese had repudiated communism, a fact which he said Red propagandists had ignored.

Ferguson also estimated that a fourth of the people of North Korea had taken refuge in South Korea to escape communism.

'Little Hoover' Drafts 2 Plans

To Propose Four-Year State Terms, Auditor Appointed by Solons

LANSING (UP)—Measures proposing two major constitutional changes were being drafted by Michigan's "Little Hoover" Committee today for submission to the 1954 Legislature.

The Joint Legislative Committee voted Tuesday to sponsor proposals to create four instead of two-year terms for state elective officers and replace the present elective auditor general post with an appointee of the Legislature.

If approved by the legislature when it returns to session next January, the constitutional amendment would be submitted to voters for ratification in the 1954 elections.

Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Millman), chairman of the "Little Hoover" Committee which has been studying state government streamlining, noted that the four-year term proposal almost won legislative approval earlier this year. At that time, a plan to increase all county officer terms to four years was coupled with the proposal.

The proposal to establish a new office of legislative auditor to replace the present elective auditor general is a revival of a long-discussed plan.

In addition, the "Little Hoover" Committee backed another proposal to permit the governor to initiate administration organizational changes which would become operative unless vetoed by the Legislature.

Under the plan, which may require constitutional amendment, the governor would have to submit proposed organizational changes within 30 days of the start of a legislative session. If lawmakers did not reject the proposals within 60 days, the order could be made effective.

Host Files Libel Suit After Paper Rips Grand Ball

PARIS (AP)—The attorney for the Marquis de Cuevas, John D. Rockefeller's grandson-in-law, says the marquis is going to sue the Vatican newspaper, l'Osservatore Romano, for defamation. The marquis doesn't like the things the paper said about his grand ball last mont, his lawyer said today.

The marquis, a ballet impresario and husband of a Rockefeller granddaughter, was host at a costume gala Sept. 1 at a Biarritz country club. On hand were some 2,000 merrymakers, including a sprikling of film and gossip column celebrities and a small army of reporters and photographers, all in 18th century costume.

Those who assisted the marquis in staging the lavish affair said it cost about $85,000, of Basque coast resort towns paid the rest because the party attracted attention o their charms as holiday spots, they said.)

The marquis defended his hospitality as having provided employment for many people of the district.

Afew days later, an editorial in both the Italian and French editions of l'Osservatore Romano condemned the frolic's "ostentation, vanity, sensuality, stupidity, decadent morals, foolishness and immorality in all aspects."

Landslide in Norway Kills 4; Others Safe

OSLO, Norway (AP)—A landslide undercut a highway and a railroad track a few miles outside Oslo today killing four persons. Nemerous other travelers escaped death.

Eyewitnesses at Bekkelaget station said about 200 yards of the road "sank straight down," leaving the stretch of railroad track alongside suspended in the air.

On the road at the time were a bus with 46 passengers, three automobiles and two trucks.

The casualties, four dead and several injured, reportedly were passengers on the bus.

Witnesses said three minutes after the landslide a commuters' train sped toward the station but the engineer stopped 75 yards short of the wrecked section.

The slide overturned one house and damaged several others.

Detroiter Held in Jewel Theft

Dallas Police Recover $20,000 in Gems, Jail Man and Woman

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A three-time Michigan convict is held here today in connection with jewel burglaries netting $20,000 in Chicago and Oklahoma City.

Police identified him as Glenn W. Ford, 33, who was arrested here yesterday with a 23-year-old woman companion while allegedly attempting to sel gems to a wholesale jeweler.

Police said Ford confessed and told them that he had been going straight since the summer of 1951. Losses of their savings five weeks ago in gambling at Las Vegas, Nev., resulted in the jewel thefts, police quoted Ford and the woman as telling them.

All of Ford's convictions were in Detroit, police said, the last resulting in a 60-day term and a year's probation.

"It was going to be a one-shot affair," police said Ford told them. "As soon as I got this stuff sold we could have started living a respectable life here.

"In two weeks we would have been sitting on top of the world. We would have sold all this stuff and would have been in the used car business in Dallas."

Ford and the woman, police said, had left the gems with a jeweler, who tipped them off they would return for an appraisal. A trap was set, and the arrests followed.

In addition to the $20,000 worth of recovered gems, police said the couple told them that they threw two suitcases containing $2,000 worth of costume jewelry into Lake Springfield, near Springfield, Ill., while en route to Texas.

Hair-Raising Story: Grabs Wrong Bottle

Starting to shampoo her hair, Mrs. Dunn reached for a bottle of pink shampoo on the shelf and doused it liberally on her head. But the usually foamy stuff would not lather, so she poured on some more.

Still no lather—and her hair began to turn wiry and stiff. She looked at the bottle again. It was pink, all right, but was clearly labeled "furniture polish."

Modern Methods Used by Deer Poachers

AUGUSTA, Me. (UP) — Chief game warden Elmer Ingraham has appealed to sportsmen's clubs to aid in destroying the "organized racket" of deer killing.

Deer jackers are dropped off in the woods before dark so there will be no parked automobiles to disclose where the poachers are operating.

Bites Wrong Boy

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (UP)—Jimmy Lohnes, 4, was just standing there watching and wasn't even mad at the raccoon, but the raccoon got mad at Jimmy. It slipped away from older boys, who were chasing it with a bushel basket, and bit a chunk out of Jimmy's ankle. The animal was beaten off with a baseball bat. Jimmy needed four stitches.

The Hall of Fame of Great Americans was established on the campus of New York University in 1900.

Hair by the Foot

NEW YORK (AP)—Your head can grow six feet of hair daily, if you have a healthy crop of it, says hair expert Charles Antell. He adds that hair grows faster by day than by night, and that the average scalp has 1000 hairs per square inch. Blondes have the most, with some 140,000; brunettes are second with 120,000; and red-heads may have as few as 90,000.

Earliest railroads in the United States were built of wooden rails which were capped with thin strips of iron.
