Ike Order May Halt Probe

President Bars Data for Army, M'Carthy Quiz

Solon Brands Decision 'Iron Curtain'; Hearings in Public Receded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The future of the McCarthy-Army hearings was thrown in doubt today by a presidential order — denounced by Sen. McCarthy as an "Iron Curtain" — shutting off inquiry into whether "higher-ups" directed the Army's charges against the senator.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee recessed its public hearings at 10:55 a. m. (EST) to consider in closed session what stand it might take on Eisenhower's order.

McCarthy, claiming that "this 'cover up' made it impossible to get at the truth, declined to say, when asked by reporters, whether he might walk out on the hearings if the subcommittee accepts the order.

The President's order was laid before the subcommittee when it convened, and received a calm reception at the time.

But later, Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.), McClellan (D-Ark.) and Symington fired a few critical volleys at it.

McCarthy asked for a five-minute recess to confer with his aides, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, about their course in the light of what he termed this "almost unbelievable situation."

Returning, he told the subcommittee: "I must admit I'm at somewhat of a loss as to what to do at this moment."

"For some fantastically strange reason," he said, "the Iron Curtain is pulled down" forbidding testimony concerning what was said or done at a meeting last January attended by Atty. Gen. Brownell, top White House aide Sherman Adams, and others.

McCarthy said: "The American people will not stand for a cover-up half way through these hearings."

McCarthy described the Jan. 21 meeting as one at which the charges the Army has fired at him of "improper" pressures to get favored treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, "were instigated and conceived."

He said he didn't believe Eisenhower was really responsible for the order cutting off (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Good Weather to Stay

Breezy, Sunny Weekend Lures 50,000 to Beaches

Sunny skies and soaring temperatures this weekend gave Oakland County's parks and highways their heaviest crowds this year as some 50,000 people swarmed to local beaches.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said fair weather will stay through Tuesday, with a high of from 66 to 70 degrees tomorrow. Tonight's low should be 42 to 45 degrees.

Two Youths Drown Sunday

One Disappears Trying to Rescue Companion in Rose Center Lake

Two youths — one trying to rescue the other — drowned Sunday afternoon while swimming in Little Buckhorn Lake in Rose Center.

The victims were identified as John Martin Youngblood, 17, of Pascagoula, Miss., and Charles Johnson, 18, of Newton, Miss.

Witnesses said Johnson dove in to rescue Youngblood who disappeared in 70 feet of water. Johnson came to the surface, screamed for help then went under again.

Two members of the Michigan Muck Combers Club of Pontiac, James E. Smith, 23, of 8 Miller St., and William Boyer, 27, of 4348 Sedum Glen, recovered the bodies.

The youths were among a group of migratory furniture makers living on the estate of Dr. Daisy Northcross in Rose Center.

Witnesses said Youngblood dove in and failed to reappear. Fearing his companion had suffered a cramp, Johnson leaped in a minute later.

Johnson came to the surface, shouted for aid in the rescue attempt, then disappeared, said witnesses.

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies summoned Smith and Boyer, both equipped with aqualungs, to hunt for the bodies. The bodies were recovered several hours after the 1:15 p. m. drownings.

Sheriff Clarence Hubbell said the two "frogmen" were called as logs and stumps on the bottom of the lake hampered drag operations.

French Cancel Evacuation Plan for the Injured

Can't Land Big Planes So Will Attack Tonight; Says Reds Stockpiling

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — The French high command announced today it had canceled its agreement with the Vietminh for evacuation of wounded French Union forces from Dien Bien Phu.

The French said they shortly would resume all-out air attacks on the rebels steaming eastward from the fallen fortress toward the vital Red River delta.

Only 11 of the French casualties have been evacuated. The Vietminh had agreed to let 753 "seriously wounded" go but the French said they refused to repair the fallen fortress' two wrecked airstrips so larger planes could land and speed up the operation.

In exchange for removal of their own wounded, the French had stopped bombing the 70-mile road between Dien Bien Phu and Son La.

This was so that Communist Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap could transport his own casualties from the battlefield he conquered May 7.

But Giap, the French charged, was using the road to transfer artillery, antiaircraft guns, other war material and combat troops along with the wounded toward the delta. The command in Hanoi will be the target for another major rebel offensive, perhaps in June.

The French estimated it would take at least a month to move out the 753 "seriously wounded" by helicopter and small single-engine planes, the only aircraft that now can land at Dien Bien Phu.

The French figured Giap during that time could move his entire battle-tested force from Dien Bien Phu unmolested, a price the French military judged too high to pay. Estimates of the total French Union wounded captured at Dien Bien Phu range from 1,300 and 2,000.

Reliable sources in Saigon said the French had demanded they be allowed to set up controls on the Dien Bien Phu-Son La highway to prevent movement of other than rebel wounded, but Giap refused.

The sources in Saigon said bombing of the highway would be resumed at 6 p. m. today.

The French in Saigon indicated more negotiations would be sought with the Communists in a further (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Founders Day Is Observed at Cranbrook

50th ANNIVERSARY — Entering Christ Church Cranbrook for Founders Day Services Sunday morning are (in front) Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth of Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth of Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills. Warren Booth is publisher of the Detroit News. Henry Booth, chairman of the Cranbrook Foundation, spoke at an outdoor altar consecration ceremony as part of the 50th anniversary Founders Day observance, prior to the church services.

Honor Founders Son of College President Takes Church Collections

Foundation Chairman Speaks at Dedication of Memorial Altar

The faith of Henry Wood Booth and others in seeking the Lord, and their first service in a tent, were recalled by Henry S. Booth in Founders Day ceremonies at Cranbrook yesterday.

The Cranbrook Foundation chairman pointed to the "many evidences of both divine and human love" which surrounded the simple stone altar which was consecrated at the ceremonies.

On that spot, 50 years ago, his grandfather, Henry Wood Booth first conducted public worship services in a tent.

"With that combination, the impossible is possible — not by miracle, but through the driving force which chugs away over rough roads and through whatever difficulties come along."

At a special commemorative ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook, which followed the outdoor altar dedication, headmaster Harry D. Hoey traced for the congregation the birth and growth of the six Cranbrook institutions.

These institutions are Cranbrook School, Kingswood School Cranbrook, Brookside School, Cranbrook Academy of Art, Cranbrook Institute of Science and Christ Church Cranbrook.

Hoey paid tribute "to the many who have contributed to the development (of Cranbrook) by their services," and suggested that "there might well be a founders society of the Cranbrook Institution, whose roster would be headed with the names of George and Ellen Booth."

The Booths donated the land on which Cranbrook is located.

Hoey concluded by comparing Bloomfield Hills to "cathedral towns of the middle ages."

"Bloomfield Hills has grown and expanded, in large measure, because people wish to avail themselves of the cultural advantages of the several institutions which George and Ellen Booth founded."

Warren Reads Historic Opinion Hitting 17 States

Further Debate Looms on How, When to End Separate Race Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled unanimously today that segregation of Negro and white students in public schools is unconstitutional.

But it said it will hear further arguments this fall on how and when to end the practice. Thus many months — perhaps more — will elapse before the historic ruling actually wipes out the separate schools now in existence in many states.

Chief Justice Warren read the court's opinion which declared: "We conclude that in the field of public education the doctrine of separate but equal (sic) has no place. Separate educational facilities are inherently unequal."

"Therefore, we hold that the Plaintiffs (Negro parents) and other similarly situated for whom the action has been brought are, by reason of the segregation complained of, deprived of the equal protection of the laws guaranteed by the 14th Amendment."

"This disposition makes unnecessary any discussion whether such segregation also violates the due process clause of the 14th Amendment."

The 14th Amendment was adopted after the Civil War, primarily for the benefit of slaves freed by President Lincoln. It says no state may deny any person due process and equal protection of the law, nor abridge their privileges or immunities.

The cases decided today — with the court's finding that segregation is unconstitutional — involved five states:

South Carolina, Virginia, Kansas, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

But lawyers said a ruling against segregation would affect a total of 17 states which have laws requiring separation of the races in schools, plus three other states having laws which permit — but do not require — segregation.

The court was told the 17 states and the District of Columbia had 70 per cent of the nation's Negro population, or 10,522,485 Negroes out of a 15,942,692 total. States with permissive segregation had an additional one per cent.

States whose laws require segregation were listed for the court as Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

States with permissive segregation were listed as New Mexico, Wyoming and Kansas.

5 Killed, 1 Critical After Car Hits Train

TRENTON, Ill. (U. P.) — A car carrying six young people home from a dance smashed into a fast Baltimore and Ohio passenger train yesterday, killing five of the occupants and critically injuring the other.

Dead were Raymond L. King, 22; Marlin J. Goff, 19; Horace H. Hooks, 19; and Kenneth Ray Stewart, 18, all of Edwardsville, Ill., and Eleanor Clark, 16, St. Jacob, Ill.

The only other occupant of the car, Donna Reed, 18, Highland, Ill., was in a critical condition.

Sheriff Henry Klutho said witnesses in another car told him they had stopped for the railroad crossing as the train, bound from St. Louis to New York, approached.

They said the victims' car, traveling at high speed, swerved around their automobile and crashed into the train.

Boy's Nose Too Close, Turtle Takes Hold

BALTIMORE (U. P.) — A small land turtle bit 12-year-old Frank W. Anders on the nose yesterday and wouldn't let go.

The turtle, one of 14 collected by Frank and his friends, finally surrendered when Frank's mother stuck a fork into a leg-hole in the turtle's shell.

Frank's mother, Mrs. Yvonne Ford, said last night the boys "no longer own 14 turtles."

Costello Given 5-Year Term

Also Fined $30,000 for Evading $39,015 in U. S. Income Taxes

NEW YORK (U. P.) — Racketeer Frank Costello was sentenced today to five years in prison for federal income tax evasion and fined $30,000.

He was sentenced by Federal Judge John F. X. McGohey shortly before noon after the government had described Costello as "the symbol of the successful racketeer."

Costello, who could have received up to 15 years imprisonment, also was assessed the cost of the trial.

Costello, 63, whose hoarse voice became familiar to millions during his televised testimony before the Senate's Crime Investigating Committee, has been in jail twice before: 18 months on a gun charge 39 years ago, and 14 months for contempt of the Senate committee in 1952-53.

A native Italian who came to the United States at the age of 4, his woes include a pending deportation action.

Last Thursday he was convicted on three counts of having evaded payment of $39,015 in federal income taxes from 1947 through 1949.

Birmingham Commission to Consider Two Changes in Proposed '54-55 Budget

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — Two major changes in the proposed 1954-55 budget will be noted at tonight's City Commission meeting when, after two closed committee sessions, the lawmakers open discussion to the public.

The major revision calls for a change in tax rate from $19 to $18.50 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

The other is an increase in the appropriation from available surplus.

Hearings will be held on the 1954 road oiling program.

Hail Surrender of Huk Leader

Deal, Taking Months of Negotiating, Is Seen as End of Rebellion

MANILA (AP) — The surrender of Luis Taruc, colorful leader of the Communist-directed Huk rebels, was hailed today as a major step in President Ramon Magsaysay's campaign against the Huk.

Army combat teams surged through the jungles of southern Luzon seeking the remnants of Taruc's elite guard while Carlos P. Romulo, a top presidential aide, hailed the surrender as the end of the rebellion.

Chief target now is Jesus Lava, whom the army considers the top Communist in the Philippines.

Taruc, 49, who repeatedly has slipped through army traps in the past six years, surrendered to a Manila Times reporter, Benigno Aquino, who carried a letter from Magsaysay. The meeting on a dusty road north of here climaxed months of negotiations.

Terms of the surrender were not disclosed.

"Taruc had no alternative but to surrender," Magsaysay commented. "He was cornered by the armed forces."

Unless granted amnesty, Taruc faces trial on charges ranging from murder to sedition.

The surrender was a major step in Magsaysay's efforts to bring about a peaceful settlement of the Huk uprising. Although a bitter foe of the rebels as a field commander, as defense chief and as president, Magsaysay long has advocated negotiating the rebels on a developed land.

5 Dog Bites Reported to Birmingham Police

BIRMINGHAM — A warm, sunny weekend brought out the beast in Birmingham's dogs. Police answered five calls on complaints of dog bites.

City Health Nurse Anyce Gillette said none of the bites were serious.

Thieves also had a field day, and kept police busy. Four residents reported a total of 10 hubcaps and four fender skirts removed from their cars.

Ike Secrecy Order May Halt Hearings

possible testimony from government officials about this meeting.

"I don't think his judgment is that bad," McCarthy declared.

He feels sure, McCarthy added, that Eisenhower would not have issued it "if he knew what it was all about."

McCarthy said the questions raised by the White House, directive "go far beyond" what was said and done at the Jan. 21 meeting.

They deal not only with "this occupant of the White House" but whether future occupants "can by an executive order keep the facts from the American people," McCarthy said.

Atty. Gen. Brownell, acting on the principle laid down by the President, ruled that no parts of a document produced by Sen. McCarthy, purporting to summarize a secret FBI paper on security risks at Ft. Monmouth, N.J., should be made public.

The President's order, in the form of a letter to the secretary of defense, and a letter from Brownell to Chairman Mundt (R-Sd) were laid before the Senate Investigations subcommittee as it resumed its televised hearings on the bawling controversy between McCarthy and Pentagon officials.

As he has before, Sen. McCarthy said he didn't think the committee is bound "by any letter from the attorney general."

He suggested the group go into closed session to read his version of the FBI memorandum.

Mundt said he regards Brownell's ruling as final.

McCarthy took the witness chair and swore the document was given to him by an Army intelligence officer. He refused to name the officer and declared he would always protect all informants who gave him information for use in fighting communism.

McCarthy has insisted that security information was deleted from his paper, and contends it should be made public to back up his charge that the Army ignored repeated FBI warnings about possible subversion at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

On May 10 Mundt wrote to Brownell asking whether any portions of the 2 1/2 page "letter" could be made public without injury to national security interests.

In his reply the attorney general said the 2 1/2 page letter was "not authentic" but did quote from a confidential FBI memorandum and that disclosure of any part of its contents would not be in the best interests of the nation.

If FBI files are not respected, he said, "serious and irreparable harm will be done to the FBI." Brownell also said the Justice Department had the transcript of the subcommittee's testimony under investigation for possible criminal violation. Any disclosure of the contents of the "letter," he said, might interfere with this investigation.

In his present roaring controversy with Army officials, McCarthy contends the Army tried to shut off his investigation of Communists in its installations, particularly at Ft. Monmouth where there are secret radar laboratories.

He contends that is back of the whole controversy over Pvt. Schine, his ex-aide who was drafted last fall.

The Army, denying McCarthy's charges, contends the senator and his staff brought improper pressures for favored treatment for Schine, son of a wealthy New York family.

The President put his directive in a letter to Secretary of Defense Wilson.

The key paragraph said: "Because it is essential to efficient and effective administration that employees of the executive branch be in a position to be completely candid in advising with each other on official matters, and because it is not in the public interest that any of their conversations or communications or any documents or reproductions, concerning such advice be disclosed, you will instruct employees of your department that in all of their appearances before the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Government Operations regarding the inquiry now before it, they are not to testify to any such conversations or communications or to produce any such documents or reproductions."

"This principle must be maintained regardless of who would be benefitted by such disclosures."

Chairman Mundt (R-Sd) noted the memorandum cited precedents going back to the Washington administration, and said the subcommittee would like to give it study. This course, Mundt said, would prevent any "snap judgment."

Sen. McCarthy refused immediate comment to reporters, as did Sen. McClellan (D-Ark), who had said previously that an executive order "might not be enough" to deny his demand that the committee "lay the facts on the table" about the Jan. 21 meeting.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said he personally is in doubt how far the committee has the right to go in seeking information on what happened at an Executive Department meeting.

"It's like calling a Cabinet member and asking what went on at a Cabinet meeting," he said.

Army Counsel Joseph N. Welch protested the McCarthy "letter" was "a perfect phony." Democrats on the investigating subcommittee have called for an investigation into how McCarthy got the secret and confidential information, saying the law was broken somewhere along the line.

effort to arrange for removal of the wounded, to which the rebels agreed in principle at the Geneva conference. These sources insisted the evacuation plan had only "broken down locally but is still in effect in general."

The French had charged earlier that, Giap had refused to release any Vietnamese wounded along with the other French Union troops, though Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov had agreed specifically to this in Geneva.

The French feared the Red rebel leaders were holding on to their countrymen in an effort to indoctrinate them with communism.

Two French officers flew by helicopter to Dien Bien Phu yesterday to negotiate further with the Vietnamese. The French Press Agency said they reported back that to repair the airstrips so they could accommodate 40-place Dakota transports would require hundreds of workers and a de-mining operation.

One of the officers was quoted as saying French medical personnel captured with the garrison had been barred from treating their own wounded and Vietnamese doctors only were taking care of them. They have been grouped around the former battlefield in tents made from parachutes dropped in by the French air force along with food and medical supplies.

Three of the 11 casualties already arrived in Hanoi, in their first interview with newsmen last night, said air force nurse Genevieve de Galard Terrabue, the only woman in the fortress, had survived the fall of Dien Bien Phu unhurt but later had been taken away a prisoner.

These men reported that Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries, the commander of the fortress, also had been captured unhurt.

In the continuing French battle against the 70,000 or more rebels infiltrated throughout the Red River Delta, French fighters and bombers dropped 25 tons of high explosive bombs today on Vietnamese entrenched in villages and limestone hills near the key defense post and communications center of Phuly, 30 miles south of Hanoi.

Warplanes ranged south, southeast and southwest of Phuly to hit an estimated 12 battalions of rebels who are expected shortly to launch an all-out assault there.

The French also have strong forces at Phuly. Aided by heavy artillery and air support, they routed several thousand rebel attackers Thursday.

Elsewhere in the Delta yesterday the French said they killed 19 rebels, captured 17 and rounded up 215 suspected Vietnamese in raids on rice fields or near defense posts.

Local Guardsmen Display Techniques in Sham Battle

Fixed bayonets flashing, infantrymen of Pontiac's National Guard unit slugged their way to the top of an enemy-held hill at the 4-H Fairgrounds here Saturday.

Under cover of protecting heavy machinegun and 81 mm mortar fire, 100 officers and men of Co. M, 125th Infantry Regiment, supported by the 107th Ordnance Co., charged the high ground in a sham battle staged in observance of Arm Forces Day.

The estimated 150-200 onlookers saw typical infantry tactics that carried Americans to victory on foreign battlefields.

The battle opened with a rifle-grenade and mortar barrage followed by softening fire from 30 caliber heavy machineguns.

Following the barrage riflemen fixed bayonets and charged the objective, a small hill 600 yards away. The hill was secured within a half-hour after the battle began.

Capt. Carl G. Yarling, commander of the Ordnance unit, manned a loudspeaker explaining the tactics to the audience. The infantry units were under the command of Capt. A. J. Largent.

After the battle, officers and men explained their weapons to onlookers and described their tactics. Capt. Largent and Capt. Yarling who held a critique after the problem, commended their men for their parts in the sham battle.

In another Armed Forces Day observance, scores visited headquarters of the 763rd Tank Battalion at 37 W. Lawrence St.

The Army Reserve outfit displayed two medium tanks in front of the headquarters and exhibited military vehicles and weapons inside.

Tots Play With Matches and Flames Spread to Oil Tank

Children playing with matches were blamed for setting a fire Sunday evening which heavily damaged one southside home and slightly damaged another.

Assistant Fire Chief Alvie E. Jones said the fire spread from an upholstered seat where the youngsters were playing to an oil storage tank next to a nearby house owned by Wendell Stacy of 560 Midway Ave. The tank exploded, igniting the house.

Stacy's wife, newly home from the hospital with polio, was carried from the house. No one was injured but the blaze, which firemen controlled within a half hour, caused an estimated $5,000 damage to building and contents.

Stacy said the damage was partly covered by insurance.

The house next door, owned by Arthur Tharp, sustained about $150 damage, according to Jones.

historic ruling, the court took the action — unprecedented in recent years — of withholding printed copies of the decision until it had been read in full from the bench.

Ordinarily, pages distribute the printed opinions to reporters in the courtroom just before the justice who wrote the majority view begins to read. Thus several minutes went by today before it could be determined how the court had decided the cases.

After reviewing a long line of decisions bearing on the "separate but equal" doctrine, Chief Justice Warren wrote:

"We come then to the question presented: Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though the physical facilities and other 'tangible' factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities? We believe that it does."

Warren said the court's decision "cannot turn on merely a comparison of these tangible factors in the Negro and white schools involved." He added:

"We must look instead to the effect of segregation itself on public education." In approaching the problem, Warren said, "we cannot turn the clock back to 1868 when the (14th) amendment was adopted or even to 1896 when Plessy vs. Ferguson was written."

"We must consider public education in the light of its full development and its place in American life throughout the nation."

"Only in this way can it be determined if segregation in public schools deprives these plaintiffs (Negroes) of the equal protection of the laws."

"Today, education is perhaps the most important function of state and local governments. Compulsory school attendance laws and the great expenditures for education both demonstrate our recognition of the importance of education to our democratic society."

"In these days, it is doubtful that any child may reasonably be expected to succeed in life if he is denied the opportunity of an education. Such an opportunity, where the state has undertaken to provide it, is a right which must be made available to all on equal terms."

It was at this point in the opinion that Warren said the court believes segregation denies Negro children equal educational opportunities.

In the District of Columbia case, Chief Justice Warren said the decision announced in the case of the states also would apply to Washington but under a different section of the Constitution.

"We hold," Warren said, "that racial segregation in the public schools of the District of Columbia is a denial of the due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution."

The Fifth Amendment applies to the federal government and Congress makes the laws for this federal district.

As the chief justice noted, the District of Columbia case hinged on the "due process" clause of the Fifth Amendment rather than the "equal protection clause" of the 14th Amendment, on which the state cases were based.

The court has ruled that the Fifth Amendment applies only to the federal government—not to the states.

In the District of Columbia case, Warren said: "Segregation in public education is not reasonably related to any proper governmental objective, and thus it imposes on Negro children of the district a burden that constitutes an arbitrary deprivation of their liberty in violation of the due process clause."

First port of France was the ancient Norman capital of Rouen, on the Seine River about 30 miles inland from the coast.

'Likewise Conversing' Becomes New Rule

By BILLY ROSE

Yesterday I felt like a reunion with my Aunt Frieda's potted meat balls and pearl onions.

My Uncle Charlie opened the door, and from the look on his face I knew there was trouble.

"What's wrong now?" I asked.

"Your uncle is a regular King Tut," said Frieda.

"A what?" I said.

"A mammy, like they dig up in Egypt," said my aunt. "Every night, when he is coming home BILL ROSE from the shop, he is eating the supper without a word, reading the paper without a word, and then snoozing on the sofa, likewise without a word."

"What is going on in the high-ways and byways he is never telling me."

"Other husbands converse with the wife," said Frieda. "What kind converse you having with me? For instance, Sunday you are passing the hours from two to six in Budnick's chess parlor. You want I should believe absolute nothing is happening?"

"Believe or not believe," said Charlie. "For four hours I am sitting in one place playing with Plotkin, and all of a sudden is over the game and I am wending the way home. What's to converse?"

Before Frieda could answer, there was a knock on the door and my uncle admitted a bal- loony-looking blonde. She handed him a fistful of bills and said, "See ya when I get some more, Sport. Toodle-oodle."

As the blonde exited, my aunt's expression changed from cool and cloudy to hot and hurricane.

"It ain't like it looks," said Charlie. "Doris is the cashier at Budnick's. Budnick is in the hospital, and the chess players is taking up a collection for flowers and halvah."

"A ugly-plug with a handkerchief on the face," said Charlie. "Sunday he is walking in Budnick's and asking the money from the cash drawer. When Budnick is showing a disinclination, he is getting shot in the foot."

"See what I meant?" said my aunt. "A whole crime wave is breaking out in Budnick's and Charlie is sitting in the middle of the proceedings. But when he is coming home for the supper, he is not telling me a syllable. Ain't I entitled?"

"Charlie," I said, "I think Frieda's got a point. When things like that happen, you ought to tell her about them."

"It slips the mind," said my uncle. "Anyway, your aunt is never telling me what is happening in the house."

"What's to tell?" said Frieda. "When I ain't scrubbing I'm washing, and when I ain't washing I'm scrubbing. In my premises, bandits is not visiting and shooting people in the foot."

"Let's take, for instance, today," said Charlie. "You mean is happening to you all day nothing?"

"You want news," said Frieda. "I give you news. Today the plumber is coming to bang on the pipes."

"And why is he banging on the pipes?"

"Because," said my aunt, "the pipes is busting."

"This is the first I am hearing," said Charlie. "How come the pipes is busting?"

"Because the janitor is neglecting the boiler, and when the janitor is neglecting, is busting the pipes."

"And why is he neglecting?"

"Because," said Frieda, "is coming four people from the FBI and taking him away."

"Will you explaining to me," said my uncle, "why is the government removing from the boiler room our one and only janitor?"

"They do not care he is a janitor," said my aunt. "They care only he is a Port of Rican, and in February's meeting in the basement with other Port of Ricans and giving out revolvers and bullets."

"And this you are keeping from me a secret?" said Charlie. "Like with Budnick's, it is skipping the mind," said Frieda.

I rapped on the table for attention. "I would call this one a draw."

I said, "In the future, when anything exciting happens, I think you ought to tell each other about it."

"Is a deal," said my uncle. "Next time something is interrupting the chess game, I am conversing with Frieda."

"I go along with," said my aunt. "Next time the plumber is banging on the pipes, I am likewise conversing."

Farm Hand Dies for Hunter's Death

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (U-P)—Joseph Bibalo, a 23-year-old farm worker, was electrocuted early today for luring a sportsman to his death on the promise of showing him a good hunting spot.

The victim, 44-year-old Anthony Shema of Forest City, Pa., was found beaten, knifed and shot to death with his own rifle in a lonely wooded section of northeast Pennsylvania near the New York border on Dec. 10, 1951.

Bibalo's attorneys based their fight to save his life on the contention that he was not mentally responsible for the act. Police could find only one motive for the slaying: Bibalo, who didn't own a driver's license, wanted Shema's car.

Navy Halts Air Search for Jap Ship in Distress

MANILA (U-P)—U.S. naval headquarters at Sangley Point today called off the search for the missing 6,312-ton Japanese merchant ship Tatsuwa Maru.

Planes from the carriers Boxer and the Philippine Sea searched 5,000 square miles west of Manila starting Thursday night after the Tatsuwa radioed that four holds were flooded.

U. S. Air Force planes from Clark Field rescued seven survivors. The ship carried a crew of 50.

GI Bill Expires Soon for Many

Aug. 20 Deadline Date for Veterans Separated Before Mid-1952

Veterans separated from service before Aug. 20, 1952, must act fast if they want schooling under the GI Bill of Rights.

Guy F. Palmer, manager of Detroit's regional Veterans Administration office, said they must enroll and actually begin classwork before this Aug. 20 to get educational benefits.

Palmer said approximately 16,000 Michigan veterans are affected by this law. Summer school, which starts in the next few weeks, is the last resort for many of them.

Job training programs also must be started by Aug. 20. Palmer said, but arrangements for beginning training are not tied down to the beginning of a term, as in the case of schools.

Veterans separated after Aug. 20, 1952, have two years from the time of their release to begin their training.

Eligibility for GI training has three requirements: The veteran must have been separated from active service under conditions other than dishonorable; he must have been on active duty after June 27, 1950; and he must have had at least 90 days of active service.

"And why is he neglecting?"

"Because," said Frieda, "is coming four people from the FBI and taking him away."

"Will you explaining to me," said my uncle, "why is the government removing from the boiler room our one and only janitor?"

"They do not care he is a janitor," said my aunt. "They care only he is a Port of Rican, and in February's meeting in the basement with other Port of Ricans and giving out revolvers and bullets."

FIGHT TORTURING PAIN...

from Arthritis or Rheumatism in hands, arms, neck, back, legs

A famous medical authority, one of the nation's leading research specialists, holds out new hope for sufferers from all types of muscular aches and pains in hands, arms, neck, back, legs, feet.

This new approach is so sound, so logical that it is bound to appeal to you as the one safe, sure way to obtain pain relief leading to a better, more enjoyable, more active and more comfortable life.

Hope lies in doing the following things: Relieving the muscular aches and pains, because pain acts in a vicious cycle. It prolongs the spasms of the muscles around the joints and this spasm causes the sufferer to refrain from movement of the joint. This voluntary immobilization may cause the muscle to atrophy or waste away. Result is this vicious cycle. The joint may be on its way to deformity. Relieve the pain to break the vicious cycle and you take a very important step.

First... to break the vicious cycle of muscular pain, a safe, harmless, fast-acting medication is indicated. This effective medication is contained in PRUVO Tablets.

Yes, it is a fact that tens of thousands of sufferers have found their best answer in PRUVO — quick, longest lasting, non-narcotic relief — at a low cost made possible by wide-spread use and demand for PRUVO Tablets. Think of it — for only $1.50 you can get the trial size PRUVO — and the famous PRUVO guarantee of pain relief or your money back from Pruvo Pharmaceutical Co., if you are not

Mishaps Kill 23 Over Weekend

Traffic Accounts for 13 While Drownings, Fire Claim Others

By The Associated Press
A warm, sunny weekend which lured thousands to Michigan's lakes and byways took a toll of at least 23 lives in accidents.

Traffic mishaps killed at least 13, four of them in a single three-car smashup on U. S. 24 a mile north of Monroe. Eight drowned and one man was fatally burned in a fire while helping his wife and 18-month-old baby to safety.

A young Detroit couple was drowned and five persons had a narrow escape Sunday when their little, 15-foot boat was swamped in Lake St. Clair while they were returning from a picnic on Sand Island.

Drowned were Richard Schlarb, 20, and his wife, Geraldine, 16. Schlarb became panicky when his wife disappeared as the boat was swamped and struck out in an attempt to find her.

The other five killed in the waterlogged boat were rescued, despite waves kicked up by a 15-mile wind.

Among the four killed in the three-car collision north of Monroe Saturday was a four-month-old Charles Jones, of Monroe. Other victims were James A. Nutt, 54, New Boston; his son, William, 32, Flat Rock; and Roy R. Whistler, 42, Berlin Township.

State Police said one car ran a stop sign and struck a car driven by James Nutt spinning it into another auto.

Frank M. Wise, 51, of East Detroit, and his son, Robert, 22, were fatally injured Sunday in a collision at Gratiot Ave. and the St. Clair Metropolitan Beach Hwy., between Detroit and Mount Clemens.

Charles Johnson, 18, and John M. Youngblood, 17, both of Rose center, drowned Sunday in Oakland County's Little Backhorn Lake. Johnson drowned while trying to "rescue" Youngblood, after the two had jumped from a dock near the trailer village where they lived. Johnson came to Michigan from Newton, Miss., and Youngblood from Pascagoula, Miss.

Arthur C. Louks, 5, of Detroit, was drowned Sunday in Fox Creek on Detroit's eastside. Playmates said he slipped on wet grass and fell into the water.

William L. Wilson, 31, of Mount Clemens was killed Sunday in Mount Clemens when his car went out of control and struck a tree.

Donald Fralick, 31, helped his wife and 8-month-old baby to safety but was fatally burned Sunday in a fire that swept his home in Detroit's suburban Shelby Township.

Robert Bush, 17, of Grand Rapids was fatally injured Friday night when his motorcoter collided with an auto in Grand Rapids.

Birdell L. Lemmox, 24, of Coleman was killed and two other persons injured critically in a collision between two cars and a gasoline truck five miles east of Saginaw Friday night.

Ernest Merryweather, 24, of Flint, drowned Saturday when he fell from the Utah avenue bridge into the Flint River in Flint.

Bill Slater, 55, of Munising drowned while fishing Saturday near Munising.

Richard Rickerd, 24, of Hart was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on M 16 about ten miles east of Grand Haven.

Minna Stange, 70, of Lansing was killed Sunday when she was struck by a car in Lansing.

Nine-year-old Roger Fay Baber, of Kalamazoo, was drowned Sunday night after he left a family picnic to wash his hands in Sky Hawk Lake, near Marcellus. The body was found by Marcellus Police in a newly dredged portion of the lake.

Liberato Guidone, 29, of Alpha, father of four children, was fatally injured early Monday on U. S. 2 near Crystal Falls. Police said a blowout was responsible.

Michael Lynn Ranthun, 16 months, was killed by a tractor near Montague Saturday night. The child, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ranthun, of near Montague, was visiting with his parents at the farm home of his grandfather, Arthur Ranthun.

The child ran into the path of the tractor driven by the grandfather and was crushed under the wheels.

200 Expected to Attend Pontiac NAACP Meeting

Over 200 are expected to attend a meeting of the Pontiac National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, scheduled for 8 to 10 p.m. at the Trinity Baptist Church. The featured speaker will be Chester B. Current, director of NAACP branches. He will report on the current U. S. Supreme Court case on segregation in schools and explain the organization's $1,000,000 "Fighting Front for Freedom" campaign.

Boy, 6, Learns All About Bees, Almost Too Late

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Roger Clark's mother told him about the bees yesterday. A little early, maybe — Roger's only 6 — but just in the nick of time, at that. Leaving home to go to Sunday school, Roger suddenly noted "a whole bunch of beetles" on the electric meter box on the front porch.

He rushed back in the kitchen for a fly swatter. Armed with not one, but two, such weapons he hustled back outside and opened fire with two swats — both, fortunately, misses — before Mama showed up and straightway whisked him out of range.

They weren't beetles — they were bees. A whole swarm of 'em.

Eastern Flood Imperils Health

Broken Dam Pollutes Water, Idles Tanneries in Massachusetts

PEABODY, Mass. (AP) — This industrial city of 23,000 counted a loss of millions today as it cleared debris and fought a health menace in the wake of a flash flood caused by a dam burst.

Mayor Philip C. O'Donnell said the flood waters which raced into the heart of the city last night caused what may result in the "heaviest property damage of any nonfatal disaster" in the city's 100-year history.

As digging out operations got underway, state and local health officials joined to combat the health problem.

The city's nine schools, with 3,500 children, were ordered closed for the day. All restaurants and food stores were earmarked for close inspections. Citywide water tests were scheduled. Police equipped with loud-speaking systems cruised the streets warning residents to boil all water used for drinking or cooking.

The health menace was increased, officials said, by the mixture of chemicals from leather tanneries and other industrial plants with the flood waters. Hundreds of gallons of gasoline also flowed freely as some service station pumps toppled.

The water surged downhill into the central business area of Peabody Square after two one-ton granite blocks of a dam gave way at a pond called The Flume about a mile away.

"It looked like the Mississippi River flowing in," witnesses on rooftops said.

Water up to six feet deep flooded scores of buildings, including 75 factories, all the city's main stores, City Hall, police and fire headquarters and the historic 150-year-old South Congregational Church. Mayor O'Donnell said some 1,000 leather workers face an indefinite layoff because of damage to tanneries.

Seven Were Injured in Crash on 12 Mile

Seven persons were injured in a two-car collision Saturday morning at 12 Mile and Novi Rds. in Novi Township, according to ties.

Mr. Margaret F. Silliman, 42, of Ferndale, driver of one of the cars, is reported in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital, with broken ribs. Treated for cuts and bruises were Mrs. Margaret Heron, 46, of Ferndale, her daughter, Carol, 8, Rose Silliman, 9, and Betty Nagy, 9, of Ferndale all riding with Mrs. Silliman.

Others riding with Mrs. Velma G. Dallas, 24, of Northville, were her two sons, Floyd, 8, and Roger, 6 weeks.

Mrs. Dallas told Deputies that Mrs. Silliman failed to heed a stop sign on Novi road.

Vision Testing Program Under Way

Drayton Lists Tuesday Hours

Aims to Discover Sight Defects in Tots 3 to 5; Examination Free

DRAYTON PLAINS—Vision tests for children between the ages of three and five got off to a good start here today, when the Birmingham Junior League opened its two-day program at Community United Presbyterian Church, Sashabaw Rd. and Monroe St.

All parents who didn't bring their children in for free sight tests today are urged to do so from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

No appointment is needed and the examination takes only a few minutes. Residence in the county is not a requirement, and anyone is welcome.

In the friendly atmosphere of the center, specially trained Junior League workers will introduce the children to the "sight games" that constitute the Snellen Section of the Massachusetts Vision Test. No treatment or diagnosis is made, but where vision is found to be faulty the child is referred to the family eye doctor for treatment.

A community service for the benefit of people in all income brackets, the program is presented in cooperation with state, county and city health and education departments. Its purpose is to discover vision defects before school work begins.

Previous tests show that over 10 per cent in this age group need corrective treatment.

The center closes in Drayton Plains tomorrow, but two more stops are scheduled before the program ends for the season.

Wednesday there will be a one-day clinic at Christ Lutheran Church, Airport and Williams Lake Rds., Waterford Township.

Friday, the final day, the center will operate at West Bloomfield Town Hall, 4460 Orchard Lake Rd.

Farmers' Agency Goes to Ann Arbor

The Farmers Home Administration, which serves Washtenaw, Wayne, and Oakland Counties, has moved its offices from Pontiac to 201 E. Liberty, Ann Arbor, "in order to better serve farmers in the area," it was announced today.

Patrick J. O'Malley, county supervisor for the FHA, said the organization makes loans to under-financed farmers for stock and tools, feed, seed, lime and fertilizer.

It also makes loans to buy, enlarge, or improve family-type farms, and to build or improve farm houses and other farm buildings.

Robber Receives 5 to 15-Year Term

Herschel Brown, 37, of 30 Stout St. was sentenced to 5 to 15 years in prison today by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for hiding in a local storekeeper's auto April 5 and robbing him of $325 as he drove to his home.

Brown pleaded guilty May 6 to unarmed robbery and will serve his term in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Brown admitted hiding in the rear of a car owned by Eugene Ketchel, 34, owner of People's Fish and Poultry Market at 82 S. Saginaw St., and robbing him. Police arrested him 10 minutes later as he was getting into a cab only a few blocks from the robbery scene.

Brownell's Daughter Tripped, Hurt by Calf

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Ann Brownell, daughter of U.S. Atty. Gen. and Mrs. Herbert Brownell Jr., suffered a dislocated shoulder yesterday when a calf with a rope around its neck tripped her and threw her to the ground.

Miss Brownell, 35, is a student at the Quarter Circle V Bar Ranch, a co-educational prep school near Mayer, about 73 miles north of here.

Fire Blamed On Wiring

Faulty electric wiring is believed responsible for a fire Saturday which caused about $300 damage to the Elmer Stockwell home at 200 W. Columbia Ave., according to Pontiac firemen.

Utica Man, 21, Dies of Burns

Succumbs on Sunday After Saving Wife, Baby From Blazing Room

UTICA — Seven hours after passing his wife and baby son to safety through a window of their burning bedroom, Donald Fralick, 21, died yesterday in St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens.

Fred Beck, president of the Utica Volunteer Fire Dept., which fought the blaze, said Fralick and his wife, Donna, 20, went to sleep at 2 a.m.

A neighbor aroused them about 3 a.m. when he saw flames, Beck said. Fralick passed the blanket-wrapped child, Richard, 18 months, through the smashed bedroom window to the neighbor, who was not identified.

He next helped his wife out and then crawled out himself. "By that time he was so badly burned, I knew he didn't have a chance," Beck said.

The fire department arrived at the four-room home at 46815 Vineyard, Shelby Township, seconds after the three were outside.

Fralick died at 11 a.m. Mrs. Fralick is listed in critical condition at the hospital. Richard is reported in good condition.

Although firemen have not been able to determine the cause of the blaze they have established that it started in the bedroom, where the family was sleeping.

Fralick was a 1949 Avondale High School graduate.

Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at St. John Lutheran Church, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. Arrangements are by William R. Potere Funeral Home, Rochester.

County PTA Board Holds Last Meeting

Last meeting of the year for the Oakland County PTA Council will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Glenway School, Oakley Park, Walled Lake.

Following installation of officers seven workshops will be offered for the new leaders.

Subjects included are programs, home room representatives, hospitality, membership, secretaries and treasurers, and budget and finance.

Berkley Police Chief Is Sheriff Candidate

Police Chief Frank W. Irons of Berkley today announced his candidacy for Oakland County sheriff on the Republican ticket.

Irons, a policeman for 30 years and chief administrator for 28 of those years, said he wants to bring the trained law enforcement employed by modern police departments to the sheriff's department.

"My experience will enable me to effect efficient cooperation between the Sheriff's department, the courts, prosecuting attorney's office and other county law enforcement agencies," he explained.

Clarkston Youth Wins Road-E-O

To Represent Jaycees of Waterford in State Contest June 5

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—An 18-year-old Clarkston youth, Mike Thayer, of 15 Miller Rd., won first place in yesterday's "Road-E-O," sponsored by the Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Thayer will represent the Jaycees in the state competition slated for June 5 in Lansing.

Second place honors went to Gerald Kolb, 19, of 5797 Eldridge. Kolb, a Waterford High School graduate, also took second place in the Road-E-O sponsored by the Pontiac Jaycees last year.

Two 16-year-olds, James Mickie of 9263 Evee, Clarkston, and Darrel Blackett of 8161 Dide Hwy., Clarkston, tied for third place. They will receive duplicate trophies and certificates.

The 17 boys entered in the safe driving contest, which was held at the A&P parking lot on Dixie highway, were either students or former students of Clarkston, Waterford or Keego Harbor high schools.

Judging the contest were police Chief Frank VanAlta, State Trooper Gerald Tafel and Jaycee members Donald White, Robert Beatty and Donald Pringle.

Winner of the state competition will go to the national finals in Washington Aug. 10-14.

Famous trichologist tells truth about saving and improving hair

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Pontiac, Mich., Tuesday ONLY, May 18, 1954.

These private demonstrations will be held at the Pontiac Hotel on Tuesday ONLY, May 18, 12 noon to 9 p. m.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 16 — In an interview here today Mr. William Keele, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Keele Hair and Scalp Specialists, Inc., said "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so called cure-all could correct all the disorders," he explained.

GUARANTEED

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads offer a guarantee," Keele said.

Once a person avails themselves to the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

HOPELESS CASES DISCOURAGED

First, the Keele specialists are quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin, or colorless, the Keele firm can perform wonders. Everyone is given a complete, private, examination to determine the condition of his scalp, and cause for his hair trouble.

Robber of Cab Driver Sentenced to 5-15 Years

Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty today sentenced Charles Rector, 28, of 79 Piquette St., Detroit, to 5 to 15 years in prison for robbing a Pontiac cab driver of $59 last Jan. 28.

Rector pleaded guilty May 10 and said he took a bus to Toledo, Ohio, after robbing the cab driver in Oak Park. He surrendered to authorities April 28.

Rector, who was paroled March 25, 1953, after being sentenced to eight months to five years in Detroit for grand larceny in 1952, will serve his term in Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Brownell's War on Reds

Attorney General Brownell is moving in two separate areas toward effective means of combatting internal subversion.

In the administrative field of the Justice Department he has acted to speed the prosecution of espionage, treason and subversion cases. To that end he has created the new Division of Internal Security.

Chosen to head it is WILLIAM F. TOMPKINS, a U. S. attorney in New Jersey. Mr. TOMPKINS takes to Washington a reputation built on his success in fighting gambling and racketeering.

On the Legislative front the Attorney General is asking Congress to approve two new anti-Red bills. One would outlaw Communist dominated labor unions. The other would bar subversives from private power plants and similar establishments vital to defense.

Both important and reassuring is the Attorney General's statement of the new division's responsibilities. Its special duty in co-operating with the FBI will be to safeguard the constitutional freedoms of all suspects.

Only time will tell whether these proposed bills would drive the Communists underground. That is a result both Mr. BROWNELL and FBI Chief Hoover fear if the party were outlawed.

The proposed Communist-Infiltrated Organizations Act would replace the non-Communist affidavit provision of the Taft-Hartley Act. It has proved useless in driving Communies out of dominant positions in some unions.

Mr. BROWNELL's plans to step up the fight against subversion and forge new anti-Communist weapons deserve sympathetic Congressional attention and public support.

A Challenge to All of Us

Where the blame should rest for the sadistic murder of a four year old Detroit girl may never be determined.

But one thing is certain. Society somehow has failed the victim, little MARION JO ZOBROVITZ, the slayer, 15 year old TERRANCE DE MOSS, and the parents of both children.

If there is any tendency to blame Mr. and Mrs. De Moss, it should vanish in the light of known facts. They long had realized that their son was a problem child. More important, they had sought psychiatric help for him.

According to one Detroit newspaper, however, they had been dissuaded for still unrevealed reasons, from paying for private mental treatments. Yet, not only the boy's fellow students, teachers, social workers, but some members of the police department knew of his cruelty to small animals and children.

The boy had been taken to the board of education's psychological division and had been treated since February at Wayne County's Clinic for Child Study. Yet the tragic fact is that no one seems to have recognized him as a potential killer or suggested that he be institutionalized.

MARION JO's death is a challenge to all right thinking Michigan citizens and officials. The State lacks adequate laws and psychiatric facilities to deal with such cases.

Though it falls short of being the ideal solution, we believe Detroit police are right in asking that juvenile court waive jurisdiction. The boy then could be tried in circuit court and jailed as a murderer without the danger of soon being turned loose as is possible under existing law governing mental cases.

City Parking Lot Started

With grading operations started on the HABEL property, the last and most important steps are being taken toward giving Pontiac its first outdoor municipal parking lot.

The long needed project was made possible when the City purchased the JACK HABEL property for $78,000. This land and the City owned property adjoining it make available a total parking area of two acres.

Although no completion date has been set, City Manager WILLMAN said the work will be rushed as rapidly as possible. That includes, in addition to blacktopping and marking, installation of lighting and 240 parking meters.

Plans are to restrict the lot to short time use. For that purpose meters will be equipped for one, two or three hour parking at a tentative rate of five cents an hour.

It would be wishful thinking to believe this one lot will solve Pontiac's parking problem. But there can be no doubt that it will ease traffic congestion in the business section.

WELL, anyway, as far back as anybody can remember, no Federal Administration ever coddled any taxpayers.

ANOTHER distressing vicious circle is the one that most of us struggle around in trying to make ends meet.

The Man About Town

The Biggest Year

Local Summer Camps Book Many Advance Registrations

Gossip: An individual suffering with chronic acute indiscretion.

This looks like the biggest year in the history of the 24 camps for young people in Oakland County, or maintained elsewhere by local organizations. Registrations for the Boy Scout Camp Agawam at Tommy's Lake, which draws the largest number, already assure that they will exceed the thousand mark, and be considerably above last year. Advance registration at the other camps generally are far ahead of the May 15 date of previous years.

Perhaps we are not doing so badly. A copy of the Pontiac Weekly Gazette of May 18, 1953, tells of one death and five others injured in horse and buggy accidents.

With three 1954 holidays having a Sunday mixed into them.

Sheriff Clare L. Hubbell already is laying plans for double extra traffic protection on these occasions.

Driving home late the other evening.

Bill Breech suddenly discovered a car coming onto Long Lake Road without looking. Rather than smack it head on, Bill took to the ditch on the left and then in fighting back to the highway, skidded across into the ditch on the other side. The car turned over and Bill was pinned for an hour. Neither the cause of the accident or a subsequent driver rendered any aid, but eventually he was hauled out.

Fortunately, X-rays shown no broken bones but he has a set of bruises that broke two A. A. U. records.

When his father, E. R. Breech, saw him, Bill was barely conscious but his first words were: "Dad, you sure built good Lincoln."

Mrs. George McClain Urges Capital Punishment for Killers of Children

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I have just read of the brutal murder of a little four-year-old girl by a 15-year-old boy.

Why can't a law be passed permitting capital punishment even for a 15-year-old?

Such a boy may be put away for a few short years, come out and do the very same thing over again. Even torture is too good for him.

It just proves that one isn't even safe in his own back yard any more. It makes my blood boil when I hear of something like this, and I am probably not alone.

Mrs. George McClain Lake Orion

'Chief' Says Republicans Haven't Kept Promises

"We need a change and a clean up in Washington" were the cries of the Republican Party during the last election. The people went to the polls and voted for this reform policy. But something has happened. It is clear that all the so-called pinkies and shady dealers were not a member of just one political party as we're told.

Washington has never been in such a mess and state of confusion.

Remember Single Friend on Next Mother's Day

Last Sunday was Mother's Day and I was among the lucky ones, who received credit for the simple reason that I raised a family.

Suddenly it came to my mind that it is not quite justified to be honored for the most natural thing in the world, while our unfortunate sister who never had a child stands alone.

Stassen told McCarthy he was undermining the administration's efforts to shut off trade with Red China, but Eisenhower quickly said Stassen meant McCarthy had infringed, not undermined. Stassen backed water. He said he had meant infringed.

The recollection of what happened to Stassen may have deterred any desire Stassen might have had to stiff-arm McCarthy last fall when he says he began to feel the senator was pressuring the Army.

Throughout that period, he says, he did resist the pressure to help Stassen. But it wasn't until after Adams had his conference with Stassen and the Army began to move toward a public fight with McCarthy.

These were Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's assistant and his right hand in the White House; Atty. Gen. Brownell; and Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., American ambassador to the United Nations.

John Adams said he told them two things:

1. McCarthy, in his search for Communists in the Army, said he wanted members of the Army's loyalty review board to answer questions. John Adams said he was advised at this meeting to refuse to let McCarthy quiz the board members.

2. That McCarthy and his staff had pressured the Army for special favors for Pvt. G. David Schine and that McCarthy's chief counsel, Roy M. Cohn, threatened vengeance on the Army if Schine didn't get preference. John Adams said Sherman Adams told him to write down the times and places.

It was such a chronology, later made public, which was the basis of Army charges against McCarthy and Cohn which, when McCarthy denied them and cried blackmail, brought on the Senate investigation.

Eisenhower and McCarthy have tipped around each other. Neither has criticized the other by name, with hurt feelings. Some of them have to struggle without any support and affection, and they deserve the general attention more than we.

For that reason I suggest to reverse the meaning of this special May-Day. Let us mothers be the ones to bring light in a lonely life and invite the single friends to share our happiness.

Nobody Wants to Hurry When Having Good Time

"Free" meals served on airlines have produced millions of dollars' worth of favorable publicity of the word-of-mouth variety. But the railroads can more than hold their own by making travel "fun," for who wants to shorten the time when he is enjoying himself?

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
Case L-307: Oliver A., aged 48, is a famous railroad executive. "Dr. Crane, we need some new psychology on the railroads," he said, at a recent banquet of the Western Railway Club in Chicago. "So will you please tell us what to do to combat the shorter travel time of the airlines?"

"For example, they can make the trip from Chicago to New York in a few hours whereas it takes our fastest trains all night."

"We have speeded up our schedules, but we can't go much faster. So what else can we do?"

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
International News Service
We're celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of that overworked shibboleth, "Trial by Newspapers."

The accusation is we hypothesize the decision of the courts and slant opinions like a brewery ramp.

It probably goes back to the cuneiform update editions when a wedge-shaped editorial on a roof tile was worth its weight in a stone fight.

Its modern interpretation was re-hashed by Lord Alfred Douglas in 1895. He complained his literary friend Wilde was being tried by the London Daily Journals.

They did a thorough job for Wilde drew a deuce in clink. He could cancel his subscription. But he couldn't egg the calendar.

The solo echo of the morose mouthpiece is, "My client is being tried by newspaper." We concede there are times when we wrap a miscreant up in it like a picnic lunch.

But 999 out of 1,000 we are as fair as blue eyes and flaxen hair.

And we are much more benevolent than trial by television. Where even the judge looks guilty.

The only element that prevents television justice from being a circus is it doesn't have a street parade.

But it does parade over the herring-boned air lanes in two daily sessions. The result is as cruel as night in the jungle. The wattles and jowls of the great Washington fishing fleet balloon in the breeze when they set out to net the red herring.

We concede the right to freedom of speech includes the right to equivocate and change the subject. But a week's quibbling on an army photograph could have been answered with Baron Munchausen's question, "Was you there, Sharley?"

Great Lakes Region Deficient in Iodine So Daily Ration, as Food, Is Necessary

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Most of the iodine naturally present in the soil has been leached out of the soil in the Great Lakes basin and carried down to the sea.

So animal and vegetable food grown on the iodine-poor soil contains insufficient iodine to satisfy the nutritional requirements of consumers.

Reader says: Several months ago I wrote requesting information on the nutritional use of iodine.

And now, at 45, I have more energy, zest, better appearance and better disposition.

Is the Iodine Ration alone responsible? May I have another copy of the pamphlet? (Signed) Mrs. _____

Anyone who asks for it in writing (a clipping will not suffice nor will an unsigned request) and provides stamped, self-addressed envelope, may have a copy of the pamphlet The Iodine Ration.

Correcting iodine deficiency, from which a lot of people suffer in your neck of the woods, could account for all of the results you describe, in my opinion.

Still, if you are unsatisfied you can make the therapeutic test

I stopped in New York City and picked up my sweetheart — now Mrs. Crane.

We took a train together for Indiana.

diana. And do you suppose I wanted a short trip? Of course not!

I'd gladly have given the conductor an extra $10 if he could have slowed down the train and brought it into Ft. Wayne, Indiana, 10 hours late!

For who wants to shorten the time when he is enjoying himself? Who wishes to have a curfew placed on games and entertainment and fun?

The railroads need to realize that the whole idea underlying the "speed" motive in travel is based on the erroneous notion that travel must be boring or painful, so the faster the trip, the better.

"But how can we make railroad travel more fun?" asked Oliver.

The airlines have used wonderful strategy in serving their passengers apparently free meals.

"Travel by plane!" millions of Americans exclaim, "for you get free meals, etc."

Actually, you don't get those meals free! You simply have the price thereof buried in your original ticket charge.

And that's good psychology, for then the extra services received are so unexpected and delightful, that your customers spread your fame all over America by their word-of-mouth talk-up, which is top-notch publicity.

Railroads should thus send attractive stewardesses down the aisle every couple of hours with free ice cream cones for all passengers.

Buffet lunch or smorgasbord meals should likewise be available free.

Parents with children should be placed in the same coach, and mechanical hobby horses should be available for all the kids.

Color movies could be offered, too, with the screen placed in the center of the coach and seats turned thereto. A semi-transparent screen permits viewing from both ends of the coach.

Stewardesses should also pass out magazines to all patrons, just as is done on all airlines.

Western trains now have added beautiful dome cars to permit better viewing of scenery, which is excellent advertising strategy.

They have also improved the seats and many other mechanical items. But passengers go more for free items! Thus, a $1 free meal offsets $10,000 of mechanical improvements in the railway coach!

Railroads are the backbone of our defense in war and the main arteries of trade in peace.

They have the finest roadbeds in the land, and they are the mainstay of local government via the heavy taxes they pay.

So they should be better patronized. Better psychology will quickly enable them to add new trains instead of petitioning to take them off.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 2c stamped, addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.)

In Norway there is joy today...

As well there ought to be... To celebrate her freedom and... Her true democracy... This special date commemorates... Her Independence Day... And all the faith and fight and hope... Along her rugged way... She might have been defeated and... She might have given in... But Norway is a nation brave... Forever out to win... She has no greed or jealousy... She locks no iron gates... She is a freedom-loving land... Like our United States...

So Norway is our neighbor near... However wide the sea... As now we strive with all our hearts... For human liberty.

Atomic Waste Poses Disposal Problem

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP) — The problem of disposing of "hot" radioactive materials once they've served their purposes is the subject of an intense study for future application going on at the University of California here.

One possible method the university's engineering field station is exploring is utilization of sewage plants. Dr. Warren J. Kaufman, assistant professor of sanitary engineering, thinks a way might be found to burn atomic waste along with sewage, reducing the amount of "hot" material that must be disposed of.

Kaufman said that results so far indicate that although sewage plants may be able to help solve the problem, no thorough solution has been found yet.

Top European Conductor Clemens Krause Dies

MEXICO CITY (UP) — Clemens Krause, one of Europe's leading symphonic conductors, died at his hotel here yesterday. He was 61. Krause, who had led the National Symphony in four concerts during a two-week stay here, had conducted yesterday morning. He complained of feeling ill when he returned to his hotel.

His death was attributed to a heart ailment.

LEADING ENTRY — Twelve-year-old Alexander (Sandy) Lucier shows the 5-pound largemouth bass he caught on a flatfish in Pontiac Lake Wednesday afternoon. The fish, which measured 19 inches in length and 16 in girth is the leader in the bass division. Pontiac Lake is an experimental lake, in which bass are legal before the regular bass season starts. Sandy lives at 8186 Highland Road.

Ferguson Balks at McCarthy

Wants No Campaigning From Joe in Michigan This Next Fall

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. Homer Ferguson, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, has indicated he does not want Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy to campaign for him in Michigan this fall.

"At the present time, I would say he wouldn't present any of the issues I want to present. A candidate ought to take the issues to the people," Ferguson said in an interview Sunday.

This is believed to be the first time any leading Republican has publicly indicated he would not welcome McCarthy's support.

It is not known whether McCarthy has offered to campaign for the Senate policy leader, nor did Ferguson say whether he has. Ferguson is seeking another six-year term from Michigan.

However, McCarthy is expected to take an active part in the coming congressional campaign, although he himself is not up for reelection. The extent to which he will speak for specific candidates will probably hinge on their willingness to have his backing.

The Republican National Committee has taken a hands-off attitude toward use of McCarthy as a campaign speaker.

Ferguson said Republican candidates will have to tell the voters this fall they were prevented by Democrats from enacting some parts of President Eisenhower's legislative program.

Michigan Locals of UAW-AFL Attack Rackets

LANSING (UP) — Michigan locals of the AFL United Auto Workers Union today were joined in a fight against what they called "racketeering elements" in their union.

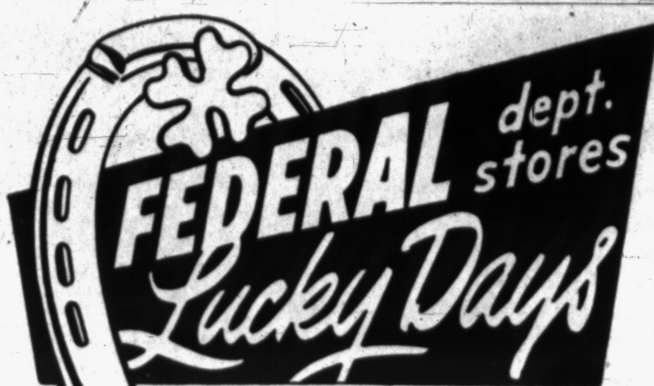

Nearly 500 delegates to a regional meeting Saturday joined in pledging support to president George Meany of the American Federation of Labor to "cut off this cancerous growth."

The delegates came from Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph, Lansing, Grand Haven, Muskegon and Manistee.

They adopted a resolution saying that Lester Washburn has resigned as international union president because of the failure of the union's executive board to back up his expulsion of John Di Guardi, alias Johnny Dio, and his revocation of the charters of so-called "Di Guardi locals" in the New York area.

The delegates pledged support to the incoming international president, Earl Heaton of Decatur, Ill., in cleansing the union of "disreputable elements at any level of our organization."

They said they were "eager" to cooperate with other union regions to eliminate racketeers in the international's ranks.

Lawyers From Seven Counties Will Gather at Cranbrook

Attorney James A. Markel of Detroit will speak on "Trial Procedure" when he addresses lawyers from seven Michigan counties Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills.

Oakland County Bar Assn. is sponsoring the legal institute in conjunction with the Michigan Law Institute and the continuing legal education arm of the State Bar of Michigan.

Lawyers from Oakland, Macomb, Livingston, Genesee, Lapeer, St. Clair and Washtenaw counties are expected to attend the all-day affair.

"The Organizational Problems of Small Business" will be discussed by Lloyd W. Bartlett of Bay City at 3 p.m., and Edgar B. Galloway of the Detroit bar, assistant vice-president and assistant trust officer of the Detroit National Bank, will speak on "Trusts and Estates" at 4 p.m.

The Honorable John R. Dethmers, Michigan Supreme Court justice, will address the group following a reception and dinner at the Oakland Hills Country Club, and State Bar President Richard H. Paulson of Kalamazoo will speak on bar affairs.

Auto Seat, Spring Combine Against Unlucky Man

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An automobile seat and a bedspring resulted in serious burns for Doc Jefferson Jr., 42.

Police said Jefferson discovered the back seat of his car smoldering, dragged it from the auto onto the front porch of his house and tossed a bucket of water on it. Then he went to bed.

Several hours later the blaze flared up and caught the house on fire. Jefferson awakened and discovered his mattress burning.

As he tried to stamp out the flames, his foot caught in the bed-springs. Firemen found him unconscious.

Victim Writes Note to Tell of Crackup

NEWHALL, Calif. (AP)—Unable to talk because of a broken jaw, a deputy sheriff hitchhiked here and scribbled a note saying he and two others had been injured in a plane crash.

A rescue party found the others still unconscious in the cabin of the damaged craft. All three were reported in serious condition from fractures, face cuts and shock.

After the crash Saturday, Roger Hughes, 36, of Hollister, Calif., staggered through the brush and flagged a truck driver, who brought him here. He wrote a note telling about his companions, Clinton Dassel, 38, and Julian Medina, 27. The rescue party had to use hacksaws to free them from the plane.

Man Jumps Over Levee, Drowns to Elude Arrest

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Police were arresting a man on a drunken charge last night when he broke away, ran across the flood wall levee nearby to the Ohio River bank and jumped in.

Capt. Azel T. Bryan said the man, James Calvin Fortner, 22, apparently drowned before a rescue party could be summoned.

CLAIMS "OUTER SPACE" — Using an umbrella topped by the proofreaders' symbol for space, Chicago designer James T. Mangan strikes a claim to all celestial space. In a declaration recorded with the Cook County (Illinois) Recorder, Mangan has claimed possession of "all space in all directions from the earth." He sent copies of the declaration to the U. Mangan plans to sell earth-sized chunks of his new nation for a dollar apiece and has already received 400 applications for "space lots."

Supersonic U.S. Bomber Expected Within One Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—A test model of a faster-than-sound bomber may be flying within the next year.

High priority is known to have been given the project by the Air Force, which has watched with evident concern Soviet progress in both bomber and fighter-interceptor designs.

This interest sharpened with the display two weeks ago of a new heavy Russian bomber driven by jet engines of substantially greater power than any now in operational use by the U.S. Air Force.

The Air Force announced in December 1952 that it had asked Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., builder of the B36 piston-jet-engine heavy bomber, to prepare detailed design studies for a "supersonic bomber."

Since then, it was learned today, substantial progress has been made toward production of a prototype B58 jet bomber.

The increasing speed of new fighter models, both Russian and American, is a factor in the urgent push for development of a supersonic bomber. The United States, and quite probably Russia, already has bombers in production that fly at the speed of sound (761 miles an hour at sea level, decreasing as altitude increases up to a certain point.)

If interceptors are up to sonic or supersonic speed, then bombers must be as fast or faster if they are to be expected to reach their targets.

In addition to the matter of bomber - vs. - fighter capabilities, there is involved the American policy of deterrent power. If the United States continues to keep ahead of Russia in bomber quality and maintains supremacy in atomic weapons, Russia will continue to be discouraged from starting war. But if Russia takes the lead with faster and better bombers, which can elude U.S. interception, the deterrent factor is diminished or eliminated.

The B58 probably will be a medium bomber. Equipped for mid-air refueling, its range could be the same as that of a long distance, heavy bomber.

Gold Output Is Up

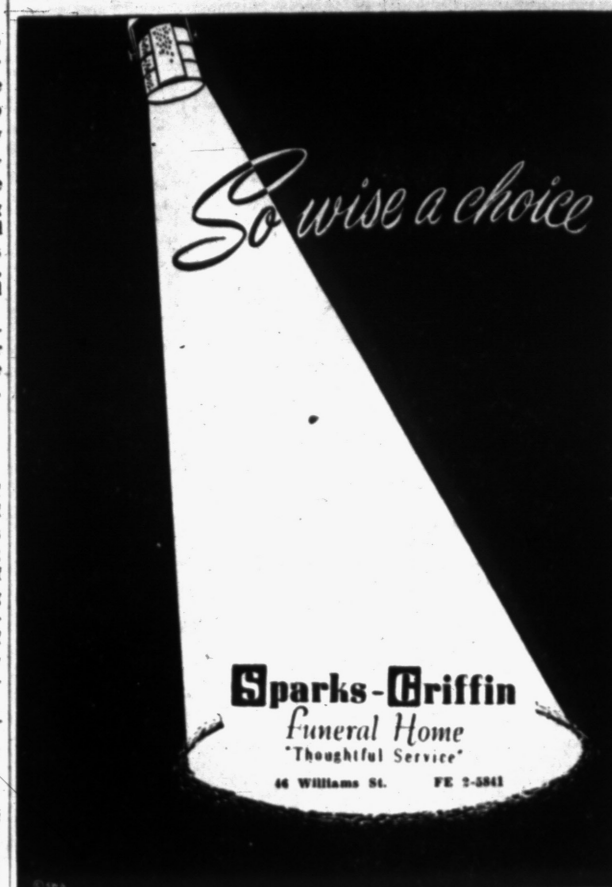

CAPE TOWN (UP)—The Union of South Africa's gold production of 11,936,307 fine ounces last year was the highest since 1945 but still short of the all-time record output of 14,386,361 ounces of 1941, according to statistics issued by the Transvaal and Free State Chambers of Mines. The total declared value of gold production in 1953 is, however, a record—£147,511,414.

Germ 'Ghosts' May Provide TB Vaccine

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (U-P)—Extracts from the "ghosts" of germs may eventually provide an improved vaccine to protect against tuberculosis, a scientist of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research said today.

Dr. Frank W. Weiss told the National Tuberculosis Assn. (NTA) that significant protection against tuberculosis had been achieved in mice with a chemical extract derived from human tuberculosis germs which first had been killed by chemical means.

And this work, he told a reporter, "opens up at least an approach" towards developing a vaccine for human administration without using either "live" tuberculosis bugs or even the entire bodies of killed ones. He said a vaccine called BCG, which uses "live" but nonvirulent germs, is already in fairly wide use, and that in some parts of Europe a vaccine made of "killed" but intact germs has been used. But he declared that each type has actual or potential drawbacks.

Weiss prepared a report, jointly with Dr. Rene J. Dubos, for the NTA's 50th anniversary meeting.

It came not long after Dr. James Perkins, managing director of the NTA, had declared in a keynoting statement that while substantial progress has been made in the treatment of tuberculosis, "we are not preventing tuberculosis anywhere near as successfully as we have been able to postpone death (and actually arrest many cases) once the disease has struck."

Weiss said the Rockefeller work indicated that the separated extract contained at least some of the components by which a germ stimulates immunity against itself when the germ gets into an animal or human body.

But more important, he said, is the fact that the successfully-used extract can be prepared both from germs that are "virulent" — that is, capable of causing infection — and from those that are not virulent. This indicates, he said, that the extract may be free of the component, or components, of a tuberculosis germ which influences the germ's power to infect.

Garter Snakes on Girl's Neck Disrupt Movie

GREENVILLE, S.C. (U-P)—It was a routine Saturday afternoon at a movie here. Then somebody screamed there were snakes in the theater.

There was a stampede for the exits. All the lights went on and a snake hunt started.

It developed that two 13-year-old boys had brought a couple of small garter snakes and slid them across 8-year-old Cathy Williams' neck.

A policeman dispatched the snakes, the boys got a ticket refund and the good guys resumed battling the bad guys on the screen.

Peace Talks Now Secret

'Restricted' Sessions Start on Indochina With End of General Debate

GENEVA (U-P)—The Indochina peace talks went behind a wall of secrecy today with the Western powers reported pressing for a quick cease-fire as the first step toward a political settlement.

After a week of general debate, in which all the nine delegations made policy declarations, the conference scheduled its first "restricted" session this afternoon to get down to concrete negotiations.

These sessions were limited to the chiefs of the nine delegations participating, plus three advisers each. They were not to be reported to the press in briefings such as are held after conference plenary sessions.

The Western powers were reported determined to take a tough position on this issue. U.S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden worked out their plans in private talks over the weekend.

Bidault, it was understood, planned to submit a detailed armistice plan at the afternoon session based on his previous proposals to halt the Indochina fighting.

The original French proposal called for complete withdrawal of all Communist forces from Cambodia and Laos and for the grouping of all military forces in Viet Nam, the third and largest Indochinese state, in areas to be agreed on by the Geneva conference.

Assembly to Act on Union of 3 Presbyterian Faiths

By LULA B. OGDEN

Plans for a proposed union of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. (Northern), the Presbyterian Church, U.S. (Southern), and the United Presbyterian Church will be presented at the General Assembly of the three churches this year May 20-26 in Detroit.

If approved by the group, this plan will then be submitted to the presbyteries of the three denominations whose reactions will be expressive of grass roots sentiments on the proposed merger.

Your church editor has asked all of the Presbyterian and United Presbyterian ministers in this area to express their opinion concerning the merger. They replied as follows:

"Oh, I am all for it! I much hope it will go through. I feel it will add strength all the way around." Dr. Glen Harris, First Presbyterian Church Birmingham.

"I am in favor of the merger. It will make a more effective church. As I see it there are no differences any more to hold us apart." Rev. J. Harvey McCann, United Presbyterian Church, Auburn Heights.

"I am heartily in favor. I see no sense at all in churches of the Presbyterian family being separated." Rev. Joseph L. Davis, Jr., Presbyterian Church, Holly.

"We at the Kirk in the Hills are earnestly hoping that the merger of the major branches of the Presbyterian Church will be consummated and we prayerfully trust that the general assembly meeting in Detroit will endorse and adopt the proposed plan. We deplore the present divisions in Protestantism and regard disunity as sin." Dr. Harold C. DeWindt, Kirk in the Hills (Presbyterian).

"The pending merger of three major branches of the Presbyterian Church is in a real sense a reunion of members of a family, and like any family reunion it will be an occasion for rejoicing and giving thanks. Changes will be necessary but these are a challenge to greater churchmanship and expanding service to Jesus Christ. The union will not only strengthen the church, it will demonstrate to the world a growing harmony among Christians at a time when so many forces are dividing our world." Rev. Barney Roepke, Orchard Lake Community Church (Presbyterian).

"I favor any organic union of Presbyterian churches which is based upon the expressed will of the people concerned. Presbyterians have much in common in their theology and their form of government. They could and should give a united witness to their faith in a day when division and dissension is deplorable." Dr. William H. Marbach, First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac.

"The union of American Presbyterianism contains the promise of more than simply a large denomination. Bigger organizations, of themselves, may be of doubtful value as agencies of the Kingdom of the Spirit. However, in this case, the inclusive and nationwide Presbyterian Church U. S. A. and the dynamic United Presbyterian Church should be an even more significant factor in the spiritual life of our nation." Rev. Edward D. Auchard, associate pastor, First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac.

"It seems to me that the emphasis on Presbyterian reunion is conditioned by the trend of the times. In almost all organizations of humans there is a trend toward centralization. For the merger, I believe the New Testament teaches a spiritual and visible church which is undivided.

"Whatever will increase the adequacy of the Church of Christ ought to be utilized. Presbyterian reunion is offered as a step to fill that need. The objections can be summed up as the objections of denominational pride and lack of familiarity with denominational standards and doctrine." Rev. Edmond I. Watkins, pastor Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

"The proposed plan of union being considered is not arousing the interest that one might think. In the Pontiac area very little difference would be felt for the churches concerned would continue their work very much as they are doing at the present.

"For many years there has been an active spirit of cooperation between these denominations and a merger like the one proposed would make little difference in mission work in America or abroad." Dr. Andrew S. Creswell, Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian.

"I am 100 per cent for the union of the three Presbyterian denominations. They have the same form of government, same fundamental beliefs and represent a common tradition and heritage. There is often more difference between three churches within one denomination than between the three denominations.

"Union would eliminate confusion that goes with the term 'Presbyterian' especially where two 'kinds' of Presbyterians are in the same area. It would cut administration costs by having one headquarters instead of three and would provide more good leadership in specific areas through pooling of leaders." Rev. Charles Richey, Milford (Presbyterian).

Your editor was unable to reach the Rev. Walter Teeuwissen, Jr. of Drayton Plains (United) and the Rev. Robert Von Oeyen of White Lake Presbyterian Churches.

Honors were bestowed on four Pontiac High School prospective June graduates recently, announced School Principal John Thors Jr. today.

Receiving the History Club Honor Trophy Plaque were Dessalee Temple, while H. Russel Holland II got the Michigan Honor Trophy Plaque.

Margaret Levely and Duncan McVean are the two students who were awarded the Y-Teen and Hi-Y Scholarships respectively.

The basis for choice of these students depended mainly on scholastic average, character, worthiness, and service to civic and school life.

Civil War Statue to Be Renovated

Cook-Nelson Post Plans Cleaning, Cannon and Iron Fence

Plans are being formulated for the renovation of the Civil War Memorial statue and grounds at the corner of Saginaw St. and Oakland Ave., it was announced today by Medford Pittman, project chairman from Cook-Nelson American Legion Post 20.

Under discussion at present, Pittman said, was an addition of a cannon, and a wrought iron fence around the grounds.

A new gun will be added to the statue which will be given a thorough cleaning, according to Pittman. Plans also call for a bench at the bus stop for waiting passengers.

Other organizations cooperating in the movement so far are the Pontiac Parks and Recreation office, several architects who have volunteered their time, and Boy Scout Troop 20 from the Cook-Nelson Post, which at present handles upkeep of the triangle on which the statue stands.

The Cook-Nelson Post, which owns the land, had started plans

Now hospitals care for twice as many patients as in 1940

SINCE 1940, hospital admissions in the United States have risen from 10 million a year to 19 million. They now admit a new patient every 1.6 seconds!

There are many reasons for this dramatic increase. Our population has been growing steadily. Nine out of ten babies are now born in hospitals. Advances in medical and surgical knowledge enable hospitals to treat a wider variety of diseases. More people can afford hospital care because of hospital insurance and other pre-payment plans.

And our whole attitude toward hospitals has changed: we now call on them for help in prolonging life rather than as a last resort in serious illness.

Even though the average stay in hospitals has dropped from 12 days in 1938 to 7½ days, so many more people are being admitted that the facilities of most voluntary hospitals are seriously overburdened. What's more, their operating costs have risen sharply. Improved techniques often require expensive new equipment. And, in many cases, there is a serious shortage of nurses, attendants and other personnel. All of which has created acute problems for the voluntary hospitals of the nation.

Everyone can help by taking an active interest in the problems of the voluntary hospitals in his community. Contribute generously to hospital fund drives. Volunteer your spare-time services, too—so that highly trained hospital personnel can be freed for work that demands their special skills.

Everyone will benefit—the hospitals, your entire community!

Just a Hunter's Caddy

CHESTER, Pa.—(UP)—A state game protector, Robert Yake, stopped four youthful hunters for a routine license inspection. Three had the hunting permits—the fourth did not. When Yake inquired, the offender replied: "Oh, I'm not hunting. I'm just carrying a spare gun for my buddy."

Hal Boyle Says:

Doctor Makes No Bones About Tough Profession

NEW YORK (U)—When a friend of ours takes her children to her small home town in Pennsylvania for a vacation, one of the biggest treats she can give them is a visit to one of America's vanishing types—the old family doctor.

This man is like the doctor everyone born early enough in the century remembers: The doctor who bounced you on his lap, found frogs in your aching stomach, knew not only your first and last names, but your nickname, too. His name is Wilbert L. Grounds. At 70 he is starting his 40th year in Roaring Spring, 15 miles south of Altoona. In that time he has delivered "somewhere between three and four thousand" babies—more than enough to repopulate the entire town of 2,800 people.

"When I gave out diplomas to a high school class 15 years ago," he called, "I found I had brought 26 of the 30 graduates into the world."

The whole town knows and loves Dr. Grounds. His graying red hair and twinkling eyes are familiar everywhere. He sees 50 to 60 patients every day except Sunday, still does up to 32 major operations a month in a practice that ranges, as does any country doctor's, from measles to madness.

But he still finds time to serve on the school board and as an official in the local bank. He has missed only two meetings of the Rotary Club in 25 years. Both times he went hunting.

Dr. Grounds spent his first year in practice as a young railroad doctor in a mining town peopled largely by illiterate immigrants. He delivered 160 babies. During one such case the husband, slightly the worse for liquor, stood over him with a shotgun shouting, "you can kill baby, but if you kill wife, I shoot you!"

During four years in another small Pennsylvania town Dr. Grounds sometimes drove 75 miles a day by horse and sleigh in temperatures that went to 42 below zero.

"Many's the night I slept straddling a chair," he said recently. "Women then'd call you when their pains started and want you to stay until the baby came, if it took all day and all night."

The only real rest he could snatch came in rural confinement cases in which the wife was what he called "a walker."

"When her pains started, she'd get up and walk," he explained. "And while she walked I'd lie on the bed and sleep. Then when she felt better and wanted to lie down, I'd go back to the chair."

How does he feel about the younger generation of doctors?

"Well, I don't believe many of the new doctors could take what we did in the old days," he said. "They couldn't and they wouldn't."

Many only want to work three days a week and have office hours two nights.

Dr. Grounds, who started life as a farm boy, doesn't drive a Cadillac, puts little faith in bookkeeping, rarely sends a bill.

"If people are going to pay, they'll pay," he said, "and if they're not, they won't. I charge what I think they can pay without hardship"—he emphasized the last two words.

"When patients go into a drug store and find out a prescription is going to cost $8, they'll say they don't want it and walk out. What good do you do a patient when you charge a high fee and prescribe medicine he can't afford to buy?"

During the bitter days of the last depression Dr. Grounds once performed 100 tonsillectomies in a single month, and never collected a dime for them. Recently a woman wrote asking him to send his bill for an operation he performed on her in 1932. At least two boys, after growing to manhood and going to work, returned to pay him for bringing them into the world.

"I didn't charge them interest," he said, smiling. "I was glad to get the principal."

Dr. Grounds doesn't claim any high motives for going into medicine (when he was 16 a friend said he had decided to go to college and become a doctor and he said, "well, I guess I will, too"), is embarrassed by public appreciation of his life of service.

But when the time comes he can no longer respond to a late night telephone plea, "doctor, I need you," it will be hard to say who will suffer most—Dr. Wilbert L. Grounds or his town.

Planes Raise Status of N. Z. Exporting

WELLINGTON, N. Z. (UP)—Use of aircraft for spreading fertilizer and for other farm work is speeding development of low-grade hill country and adding considerably to New Zealand's position as the world's leading exporter of meat and dairy products.

In 12 months to March 31, 1953, pilots of 38 companies flew 40,726 hours to drop 144,802 tons of superphosphate on 1,376,118 acres. Since 1950 the number of operating companies has grown from 5 to 40, while today more than 160 aircraft are regularly employed on farm work.

Under average conditions a top-dressing aircraft makes about 12 flights an hour, while some pilots have made up to 120 and 130 flights in one day. Besides spreading fertilizer, the planes now sow seed, drop rabbit poison, fly fencing materials, and deliver supplies to "cutback" homesteads. They also undertake spraying and crop-dusting against weeds and insect pests.

Sightless March on Rome Seeking Government Aid

ORVIETO, Italy, (U)—A ragged column of blind people shuffled down the road from this hilltop city in Umbria today, soaked by rain but vowing to complete their 250-mile march to Rome.

The 70 men and women, led on their sightless way by sympathizers, are campaigning for more government aid to the blind. They started their "march of misery" as they call it, from Florence May 8.

Navy Gains Guardsman

NEW LONDON, Conn. (UP)—Richard G. Hall pulled a switch on his father, Rear Admiral Arthur G. Hall, superintendent of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. He's a candidate for West Point.

Heard in a Pontiac Church Sunday Christian Who Is Afraid May Be Denied by Saviour

The Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church started as a Sunday School in July 1926. The congregation was organized Oct. 28, 1928. The Rev. Edmond I. Watkins was installed as pastor Dec. 9, 1933.

Sunday morning in his church he spoke on "Chameleon Christians." The following is a brief outline of the sermon.

Two decades ago a lizard-fad swept the country. Scores of people were amused by the chameleon's blending with various colors. There was a joke about a chameleon that died.

The owner placed him on Scotch plaid. He turned all the colors of the rainbow, and died — from the effort to conform to his environment.

There are professing Christians like that — even to the loss of life! Long ago Christians were given a preventive formula: "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service, and be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind."

Consider the "Chameleon Christian." He is the person conformed to his environment by fear. The chameleon is invisible in his environment because of fear, and so are many Christians. They love Christ, thrill at the Gospel, want to serve Him, but dare not — for fear of their "friends."

The Chameleon Christian has a condition like the epitaph —

"Gentle reader, who passeth by, Take thy choice to laugh or cry. This one whose grave you now spy, Both feared to live and feared to die."

That's the Chameleon Christian — the pathetic symbol of the inadequate witness of Christ. He has halting steps, weak heart, the that's-good-but-I-can't-do-it attitude, and the that's-wrong-I'm-against-it-but-I-can't-d-o-anything-about-it attitude.

He curses needy mankind with inadequate help by apologetic protestations against dynamic Christian living.

Consider the steps which develop Chameleon Christians — and beware, lest a similar fate overtake you!

The first step is secrecy — that negative attitude which never discloses one's true position.

The second step is dissimulation.

REV. EDMOND I. WATKINS

The sentiment and expectations of the ungodly environment forces one to positive action to save face. One attacks the things to which he secretly assents.

The third step is simulation. One adopts as his own the very things he secretly despises.

That is the pattern producing Chameleon Christians. The Bible teaches us to stare at evil so we can successfully escape its deceptions. He who hath eyes, let him stare!

Now consider the peril of the Chameleon Christian. In the old joke the chameleon died because he tried to conform to a Scotch plaid. The Christian who conforms to the Scotch plaid of an ungodly environment will die spiritually.

Long ago, the Saviour said: "He who denies me before men, him will I also deny before my Father . . . and I shall say unto them 'Depart from me, ye workers of iniquity. I never knew you!'" That is the peril of the Chameleon Christian.

No Christian need risk such peril or ever become a Chameleon Christian. By faithful effort, follow the old formula: "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God . . . and be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind."

The first motion picture on a Christian theme to use the Hindu language was recently produced in Jabalpur, Central India.

Although square dancing has officially ended for the season, dancers are looking forward to activities throughout the summer. Mrs. William Schmiel (right) of Marlborough drive modeled a costume for Mrs. Marcus Scott, also of Marlborough drive, before the weekend activities. The Scotts and the Schmiels, Elks Sashay-Quadrille members, attended the last dance of the season Friday evening. Mrs. Scott was recently elected secretary of the club. All of Pontiac's square dancers closed the season Saturday evening with the second annual roundup sponsored by the Merry Mixers Club and held at the CAI Building in Waterford.

Bonita Moss Is Married in Saturday Evening Rite

Christian Temple was the setting Saturday evening when Bonita Moss became the bride of Edwin Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Moss of Whittemore street are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hazel Davis of East Pike street.

For the 7:30 wedding Bonita chose a full-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a bateau neckline and a fitted bodice. The long sleeves came to points over the wrists and the full skirt ended in a chapel train.

A cap of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

Jean Watson was maid of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was of green shantung with a matching jacket and she wore a matching picture hat. A crescent cascade of pink carnations formed her bouquet.

In similar gowns of pink were Joanne Kelley, Claudette Davis and Mollie Jean Blevins. They wore matching handkerchiefs and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride's sisters, Lora Lou Moss and JoAnn Moss, wore similar ensembles in a floor-length as junior bridesmaids and Theresa Roffe wore a gown like the bride's for her role of flower girl. Jackie Moss carried the ring.

Robert Angell was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Dale Moss, Robert Hausman and Stanley Jones Jr.

Receiving guests in the church parlors after the ceremony, the bride's mother was wearing navy with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Davis wore maroon with a corsage of pink carnations.

The new Mrs. Davis later changed to a gray suit with an orchid corsage for the wedding trip. On their return the newly-

MRS. EDWIN DAVIS weds will reside on Oakland avenue.

LeBaron PTA Hears Dr. Hill

LeBaron School PTA had Dr. Guy Hill, coordinator of High School Department, Michigan State College, as guest speaker for the annual dinner Thursday at Lincoln Junior High School.

Leland Cotter was toastmaster, and J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of schools, and members of the board of education were guests. Mrs. Harry King spoke on the proposed tax millage increase and Lincoln Junior High School Band under the direction of Eldon Rosegart, presented several selections.

In charge of dinner arrangements were Mrs. Horace Reeve, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Lyle Venner, Mrs. Russell Marshall, Mrs. G. B. Pritchard and Mrs. Paul Williams.

Mrs. Woolcock Sings for Group

Mrs. Florence Woolcock entertained Mayflower group of First Congregational Church recently with two vocal solos, "Teach Me to Pray" and "The Lord's Prayer." Charles Wilson accompanied the singer and the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton gave devotions. Mrs. Frank Kuhn of Drayton Plains was hostess for the dessert luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Charles Brooks and Mrs. Fred Kuehner. Mrs. C. W. Heathman conducted the business meeting.

Weekend Parley Held in Detroit

Conference Under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Jalosky

Alpha Alpha Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority was hostess when the fourth annual Michigan state convention of the sorority was held this weekend in Hotel Fort Shelby, Detroit. Mrs. Frank Jalosky was general chairman.

A general assembly conducted by Nellie Blackmore, state president, and workshops covering the various aspects of sorority functions were held Saturday morning in the Shelby Room.

"Course for the Future" was the title of a travelogue given by Mrs. Betty Roberts. Her program was based on her trip to the Yukon Territory.

Mrs. Roberts described the life of a young couple during the early days of the gold rush and told of the courage necessary to establish a home that is 100 miles from the nearest neighbor.

Mrs. Roberts added that this home is being lived in at the present time.

Also on the luncheon program was a talk by Donald Blundon, public relations representative from the Leader Dog Foundation of Rochester. With his dog "Dauber," Mr. Blundon gave a brief outline of the training and rehabilitation program of the school, which is one of the largest of its kind in the world. Mrs. Carl Rose was luncheon chairman.

Four representatives from Ohio were present including Mrs. Jerry Grieger, Ohio state past president. She extended an invitation for the group to attend the International ESA Convention to be held in Columbus in June.

The 25th anniversary of the founding of the sorority was used as a decorating theme for the formal banquet held Saturday in the Crystal Ballroom under the chairmanship of Mrs. Calvin Rhodes.

Mrs. Albert Anselmy introduced novelty entertainment featuring North American skating champions from Detroit, Pontiac and Flint. Six new members were welcomed into the sorority at the formal jewel pin ceremony conducted by Laura B. Millar, state educational director. Mrs. Florence Keith, national district supervisor, presented a film depicting activities of the national headquarters at Loveland, Colo.

A buffet-style brunch under the chairmanship of Dee Brim preceded the general assembly on Sunday morning. At this time a bid was received from the Lansing chapter for the 1955 convention.

ESA members attending from Pontiac included Betty Lou DeGroot, Mrs. Edmund Smith, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. L. L. Schiefer, Maxine Miller, Anne Tierney, Mrs. Marshall Rose and Mrs. Rex Parker.

Others were Mrs. Anthony Grand, Mrs. Alex Morris, Mrs. Robert Earl, Beth Ullom, Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, Mrs. Ben Sweeney, Mrs. Walter Kresge, Mrs. Edward Hummel, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. Kenneth Brooks and Mrs. Reginald Ripberger.

Prizes were given to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Jennie Smith, and to the oldest daughter, Mrs. Lester Hawkins of Birmingham.

The youngest grandmother present was Mrs. Donald Sweet, and Mrs. Taylor was the mother with the most daughters present. Jean McLaughlin was the daughter coming the greatest distance.

OES Fetes Mothers, Daughters

Friday evening was the time for the mother and daughter banquet sponsored by Areme Chapter 503, Order of the Eastern Star. Roosevelt Temple was the setting for the event which was attended by 100 chapter members, their daughters and friends.

Mrs. William Taylor gave the invocation, and greetings and introductions were given by Mrs. Theron Taylor. Mrs. Lawrence Lacy was toastmistress.

Joy Netch, Judy Lacy, Patricia Taylor and Mrs. Lavin Ryden presented solos and Carol Venner gave a reading. The toast to the mothers was given by Joyce Perkio.

The toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Harry Vernon, and Mrs. Allan Hersee was speaker for the evening. Mrs. Claude Kimler was organist.

Prizes were given to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Jennie Smith, and to the oldest daughter, Mrs. Lester Hawkins of Birmingham.

The youngest grandmother present was Mrs. Donald Sweet, and Mrs. Taylor was the mother with the most daughters present. Jean McLaughlin was the daughter coming the greatest distance.

Bethel Announces Banquet Committees

Committees for the father-daughter banquet were named recently when Bethel 40, Job's Daughters, met at Roosevelt Temple.

Gwen Vernon has charge of decorations, assisted by Carol Venner, Sharon Daniels, Margaret McKinny, Janet Waring, Pat Lawrence, Betty Morse and Marilyn Vernon.

On the ticket committee are Pat and Virginia Taylor, JoAnn Whisnant, Miss Vernon and Joyce Perkio. The banquet will be May 24 at 6:30 in the temple.

Margaret Gillespie will write a bethel history to be entered in a state competition in June.

Ann Elizabeth Faulkner Wed to Robert E. Esch

BIRMINGHAM — Ann Elizabeth Faulkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Faulkner of Dorchester road, was married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in Christ Church Cranbrook to Robert Esch Esch, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf E. Esch of Fairfax road.

The bride wore a gown of blush taffeta fashioned with a round neckline outlined in lace, long sleeves and a fitted bodice. The skirt, fell from the hipline, fell into a short train and the fingertip veil of Brussels lace formed a round cap. Ann's bouquet was of white roses, ivy and lilies-of-the-valley.

Carol Faulkner was her sister's maid of honor, with Mrs. E. E. Carter, a cousin from St. Louis, Mo., as matron of honor and Linda Heiserman as junior bridesmaid. Joyce Wolfenden and Barbara Watkins were bridesmaids.

Linda wore pale pink shantung and carried a miniature bouquet of pansies and the others were gowned in rose taffeta with ballerina-length skirts and petal necklines. They wore circlets of ivy in their hair and carried pansies with ivy.

July-August Group Conducts Meeting

July-August Group of First Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. Hannan Hubbard on West Iroquois road Friday afternoon. Assisting her were Mrs. Charles Haynor, Mrs. Goodloe Rogers and Mrs. Leslie Brown.

Every Bride Must Acknowledge All Her Wedding Presents in Writing

Girl Scared of Meeting Boy's Folks

Wondering How to Act When Dining at Their Home

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

Lots of girls have to produce a new boy friend for general inspection at home before they can go out with him at all. Mother and Dad have to meet him, size him up, get the lowdown on his family and his attitude—and if they like what they see, daughter can have him.

And, of course, many a young romance is nipped before it even gets started, just because parents don't like him. So long as a girl is living at home, her family expects to meet, know and pass judgment on the boys she wants to date.

It's the same with lots of boys. Their families want to know their girl friends. Sometimes that's easy. They know everybody in town and have watched the girls grow up. There's no need to make any issue of meeting son's special girl.

Of course, some boys' parents don't care too much. So long as he thinks she's attractive, and his reports of her family sound good, and the thing isn't serious anyway—many a boy's parents won't want to get into the act.

But there are boys who have families who really care about the girls. When son gets really interested in someone special, they want to meet her.

And the girl in question can feel that she's being offered on a silver platter—and the whole business is nerve-racking.

She feels horribly on parade—as though they're watching her with eagle eyes, storing up tidbits to criticize later in private. An invitation to dinner at her boy friend's house can panic a girl. As it has this one who writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: My steady boy friend tells me that his parents want to meet me, so they have invited me to dinner. And I would like to know how to act."

"Would it be proper to bring candy? I'm not going to offer to serve, but I will help do the dishes. Is this right? The whole thing scares me to death!"

Except for the fact that your desire to make a good impression is a shade more desperate this time than usual, this dinner will be just like any other in a stranger's home.

Your panic should quiet down at the thought that his parents want to meet you, want to entertain you in their home, want to see how they live and act together. You're not nearly as much on display as they are!

Your act is to be your own sweet, polite self, grateful to them for their hospitality, eager to be impressed by them and ready to enjoy every detail.

They won't want you to go to any expense in their behalf, so skip the candy. "Is there anything I can do to help?" will show his mother you heart's in the right place—and if there is, she'll tell you.

Follow the leader at the table so you'll be sure to do things as they do them. Since they're older and on their own home ground, they'll steer the conversation. But do appreciate and admire things out loud.

Tell just enough about your own family to make his family think they'd like to know yours. If such a suggestion is made, and you are invited to come again, you'll know you were a success!

MAKE FRIENDS

"Some persons, when they meet a visitor from another city, put him through a regular third degree. 'Do you know the Smiths?' 'You must know the Browns.' He is very prominent." And they keep it up until they have exhausted all the impressive names they know. Don't give the impression you are trying to find out how important the visitor is by finding out whom he does or doesn't know. The impression you make won't be too impressive.

A woman's idea of happiness is being pursued by the man she's chasing.

Select a headdress that complements both gown and facial type and then have your hair styled to go with it. That's the advice of hair stylist Michael of the Waldorf. Here (upper left) he creates a hairdo for an angular face. Smooth at top to accommodate headress, it lends softness at temples. Shallow pillbox (upper right) becomes this bride's sophisticated features. Pearl coronet (lower left) is Michael's choice for one whose look is elegant. He recommends a floral wreath for the girl who is piquant (lower right). Bangs draw attention from pointed chin to lovely eyes.

Make Own Fishing Reel

As it begins to get warm, we all want to be out-of-doors more. Kathy Dunham of Albany, N. Y., sends in this idea for a fishing pole and reel. One way is just for fun; the other way, with the reel made from a spool, will work.

You might like to make one of these to take when you first go fishing with Dad. If you like to fish and you start going often, then perhaps you could ask for a better pole for a present on your birthday.

Use a section of broom handle for the pole itself. This will already have a smooth finish. If

Deserve Careful Selection

Bridal Headress, Hairdo Should Be Face-Flattering

By ALICIA HART

NEW YORK (NEA) — Selecting a bridal headress deserves more thought than many girls give it, in the opinion of the nationally known hair stylist Michael of the Waldorf.

In addition to complementing your gown, the headress, says Michael, should become your face and your hair. And your hair should be styled to go with it.

Regarding the wedding hairdo, Michael advises: "He fell in love with you as you are, so don't appear on your wedding day in a radically different hair style."

Michael's clients bring their headresses to the salon several weeks before the wedding for a "dress rehearsal."

That gives the stylist an opportunity to take all factors into consideration in creating the bridal hairdo.

Having her hair styled well in advance of the wedding also gives the bride a chance to get used to the hairdo and to become adept at caring for it.

If you intend to have a permanent, this dress rehearsal visit is the best time for it. The final setting should be done two days before the wedding if your hair is normal or dry, a day before if it is limp and fine.

This stylist believes a coronet that's raised in front and tapers off softly to the sides is most effective on the short girl.

A high-winged hairdo, modified to flatter facial contours, and type, complements this headress beautifully, he says.

However, the short girl whose chin is long and pointed should choose a face-framing cloche or simple floral wreath instead. And her hair style should accent a soft, dipping movement with short tendrils concentrating attention on her forehead and eyes.

For the too-round face, Michael suggests the Juliet or Michel cap that will allow the mist of veil to add lengthening lines. The best coil for this face, he believes, is one that is rather straight and simple.

A coronet that's plain on top with tiny flowers framing the face is this expert's choice for the thin-faced girl. For this headress, he would create a gently arranged short hairdo that adds fullness with curls built out at the sides.

The square-faced girl, according to Michael, should avoid the symmetrical in both headress and hairdo. He says the uneven lines of a floral or pearl spray help to lift the eye from the square jaw.

A hairdo that's built out at the temples but close over the ears also helps to soften this type face.

Should Man Offer Drink to Stranger?

Wife Thinks Hubby Was Rude to Girl Taking Survey

By EMILY POST

A reader would like my opinion on the following incident: "Yesterday afternoon my husband was sitting in the living room listening to the ball game and enjoying a cold drink when the doorbell rang. It was a young woman taking a survey."

"As she asked us questions, my husband continued with his drink. When she left, I reprimanded my husband for not offering her a drink."

"Don't you think, Mrs. Post, that this was bad manners on his part, even though she was a stranger? We have a slight wager as to who is right."

Answer: If you were both drinking a soft drink and there was some remaining in a pitcher on the table, then I think it likely that you would have offered some to her.

But if your husband alone was drinking, then he would not have offered her a drink—especially if it was an alcoholic one. (If anybody should have offered a strange girl a drink, it should have been you rather than your husband.)

Dear Mrs. Post: My mother and I have had an argument on whether or not it is proper to send a boy friend of mine a graduation picture.

I am graduating in June and would like very much to send this boy a picture. I have known him for six months and am very fond of him. Mother thinks it would be wrong.

Answer: If you showed him the picture and he was very enthusiastic about it and asked you for it, you might then give it to him. But to send it to him on the assumption that he is going to want it would be assuming a little too much.

Dear Mrs. Post: Where do the serving spoons belong when the serving dishes are put on the table and handed around and no one is waiting on table? Should they be put in the dish or on the table beside it?

Answer: If the dishes are uncovered, you would put them in. If the dishes have lids on, you lay the serving implements beside the dishes and put them into the dishes when they are passed.

The lids, turned upside down, are left where the dishes were until each has made the round of the table, then the lid is placed on the dish with serving implements in it, and the dish is put back in its original place.

Give Reason If Your Message of Appreciation Is Late

Thank-You Notes May Be Brief, Should Name Gift

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Last in a series of seven articles by Emily Post covering all phases of wedding etiquette.)

By EMILY POST

One unbreakable rule that every bride must learn is that she herself must acknowledge all wedding presents in writing even though she has thanked the givers verbally.

The notes may be brief and the gift should be named in the notes. Where money has been sent, that is to be acknowledged in writing. And if the bride knows for what it is to be spent she should tell the giver in her note. If it is to be included with other money to be spent for a large or expensive item she should say so.

Where unforeseen circumstances have caused delay in acknowledgment of gifts, an explanation is due the giver. Wedding gift problems are covered in the following questions which have been submitted to me.

"I was married six months ago and, a few days afterward, Mother was taken very seriously ill. Between looking after her and trying to get my apartment in order, I neglected to write thank-you notes for my wedding presents."

"Now that Mother is well and I can think sanely again, I am embarrassed at what people must think of me for not acknowledging their presents."

"Is it too late now to write these notes and, if not, is it necessary to explain why the notes are so late?"

Only one course is open to you: You must write—but in no more than fewest possible words—that because of your mother's serious illness, you are only now able to write thank-you for the (lovely, or beautiful, or useful or whatever) gift sent you.

"I was married several months ago and received my wedding presents, all of which I acknowledged personally. We also received quite a number of telegrams which I did not acknowledge. Now I am told that these messages should have been acknowledged too."

There is no obligation to answer congratulatory telegrams. When you see those who sent the messages, it would be courteous to thank them, but if you forget, it would not be very serious.

"I was married two weeks ago at a large wedding (300 guests). I received many wedding presents and the thought of having to sit down and write all of those thank-you notes has me in a dither, especially since I have so little free time—what with going to business and trying to keep house."

"In view of the number of presents received, would it be permissible to send printed thank-you cards?"

Definitely not!—not even if you have to spend months writing thank-you notes.

"My wife and I disagree about the sending of wedding presents. She claims that an invitation to a wedding reception, whether a wedding or declined, calls for a wedding present. I say that a wedding present is sent only when the invitation is accepted. Will you please set us straight on this?"

Neither of you is quite right. An invitation does not call for a present unless you know the bride or the bridegroom or their families very well, in which case you would send a present whether or not you go to the wedding.

"I am going to be married in two weeks and have just had some gold-over cards printed with my future name on them. I intend to use these to write thank-you notes for wedding presents."

"I would like to know if it would be proper to use these cards to acknowledge presents that arrive before the wedding? I would, of course, sign these with my maiden name."

I am sorry, but it would be wrong to use these cards until you are married—unless you intend to hold them to be mailed then.

End—Here Comes the Bride

Telephone Selling Cures Woman of Her Shyness

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"About a year ago," a reader writes, "you wrote an article on selling magazine subscriptions by telephone. I remember reading it and shuddering. The whole idea scared me to death, because I've always been terribly shy."

"That night Bob and I were celebrating our first wedding anniversary, and our family doctor and his wife came for dinner."

"We've known them for ages, and there was much kidding around about whether our marriage would last—you know, the kind of things that people always talk about on a wedding anniversary."

"Well, Bob said something—jokingly, you know, but underneath I knew he more than half meant it—about my shyness, and how he hoped I'd get over it because I would have to entertain company people and customers—and also, eventually I'd have to attend conventions with him and do a good deal of socializing with strangers."

"The thought just scared me to death, yet I knew he was right."

"Later on in the week, I was still so concerned about it that I went to see the doctor to ask his advice on how I could get over my shyness."

"He said it was not neurotic or anything like that, but that I should force myself into a project which demanded talking to total strangers—that it would go away with enough practice."

"Oh, he said, 'like ringing doorbells, conducting polls, soliciting funds or maybe selling something.'"

"Well, I knew I could never in a million years force myself to do that, and all of a sudden I remembered your article."

"Talking on the phone would at least be easier than ringing doorbells—not much, but a little easier. I mentioned it to the doctor and he said it would be fine for a starter."

"Well," she concluded, "I'll never forget the first few weeks."

"Of course, the magazine company gave me some training and a list of prospects, but I trembled day and night. My throat practically choked up on the first 40 or 50 telephone calls."

"But pretty soon I made a sale, and that made me feel better."

"Now I've been doing it for a year, and my shyness has gone completely. I've learned that strangers are just people, like I am."

"And I know I shall be able to help Bob's career—because, believe it or not, I almost like meeting new people!"

Parents Should Have Explored His Fears

Boy Steals Money to Acquire Prestige

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

In the eighth grade of Paul's school was a boy named Eric, the star athlete and class president.

Along with the other lesser creatures of the sixth grade, Paul regarded Eric with the hopeless admiration of the moth for the star.

Thus Paul was rendered speechless one noon hour when Eric commented approvingly upon one of his marbles. "She's a honey. Where did you get her, kid?" Eric said.

When speech returned to Paul, he lied: "Aw, I got a bag of them. Each one's different."

"Like to see them sometime," said the Great One and strolled on with his friends.

That afternoon Paul stole 50 cents from his mother's purse with which to purchase more marbles and prestige.

He was the focus of many feelings as he opened her purse. He feared that it might not contain 50 cents. He feared that his mother might interrupt him. He feared the consequences of discovery.

But as pressing as these feelings were, they were not as urgent as the big fear of losing prestige conferred on him by the interest of the eighth grade class president in his marbles.

He did not, of course, recognize these fears in himself nor attribute his anxious excitement to the conflicts they aroused in him.

Just before dinner, his mother discovered her loss. She charged Paul with taking the 50 cents, wrung the truth from him, and when his father came home reported it to him.

What did his father do about it?

Well, first he confiscated the marbles Paul had bought. Then he curtailed all future allowances until the debt was paid.

After which, he sat down upon a chair in Paul's bedroom and said, "You have deeply disappointed Mother and me. What do you think it is like for a father to come home at night and hear that his son has taken money that doesn't belong to him?"

"Mother and I want to be proud of you, son. Today, you have made us ashamed, instead. I hope..."

"Yes, sir," said Paul.

He never mentioned his fears of discovery or consequences. He never said a thing about his hunger for prestige.

For nobody inquired into Paul's feelings about his experience at all. His parents (his moral leadership) were so interested in their own fears and hungers for reassurance they had no time to bring Paul to his own attention.

So, though Paul no longer steals money, he often boasts untruthfully in order to acquire that prestige.

PECAN NUT AND DATE CAKE
By Mrs. Raymond Ellsworth

1 cup boiling water
1 cup cut-up, pitted dates
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup dark brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup coarsely chopped pecans or walnuts
2 cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Four water on dates; add soda; cool. Cream shortening thoroughly, add sugar, beating until creamy. Beat in egg.

Dredge dates with 1 tablespoon flour. Sift rest of flour with salt. Add alternately with dates to egg mixture, beating to blend after each addition. Stir in nuts and vanilla.

Pour into pan that has been greased and lined with waxpaper. Bake in 350-degree oven one hour. Cool on wire rack 15 minutes after removing from oven; then turn out and remove paper.

Just before serving, add a spoonful of whipped cream and a maraschino cherry to each serving. Serves 10-12.

Leave Mud Alone Until It Has Dried

Spring brings rains and rain brings mud, and youngsters, and adults, too, bring mud into the home. A foot-scraper outside and a mat on the doorstep or in the entry will keep much of this out of the house, of course.

In the case of mud tracked in, nevertheless, consider leaving it as it is until it has dried, then whisking it away with the always dependable vacuum cleaner. Here is another case where "education" is the best method.

City Couples Take Two-Month Tour of Europe

Now in Nice, France, are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Becker of Waldo avenue and the Roland Gegouxes of Illinois avenue. They sailed May 5 from New York on the Queen Elizabeth for a two-month tour of Europe.

The trip will take them to England, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France before they return home in July on the SS United States.

At the pier to see them off was a former Pontiac resident, Mrs. W. B. Hill of Paramus, N. J.

Recently returning to their home on Joy road were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard I. Underhill and their daughter, Linda.

The Underhills were in South Bend, Ind., where they attended the wedding of their son, William George, and Doreen Ann Brokaw.

Also attending from the area were the W. S. Downes of Opdyke road, Bill's grandparents, and his uncle and aunt, the William Hill-depays of Joy road, with their daughters, Sandra and Sally.

Mrs. E. C. Houghton of Palm Springs and Los Angeles is spending the week at the C. M. Saunders residence on Dwight avenue.

Word comes from Kalamazoo College that John S. LaMonte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaMonte of West Iroquois road, appeared as soloist in the annual May Fete pageant Saturday on the college campus.

Newly pledged to Sigma Tau Gamma social fraternity at Michigan State Normal College is E. James Kison, freshman son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kison of Parkhurst street.

One of eight seniors at Marygrove College is to be elected to Kappa Gamma Pi national honor society was Margaret Soderberg of Shore View drive.

Ann Zdzonic of West Walton boulevard, Joan Mazza of Oakland avenue and Mary Doherty of Walnut Lake road were elected to Iota Gamma Alpha and Evelyn Jackolow of Marshall street received class honors at a recent honors convocation.

Mercy College's production of "Finian's Rainbow" Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday will feature two area students in the supporting cast — Anna Marie Baldwin of Augusta avenue and Mary Marcero of Whittemore street.

Western Michigan College of Education sends word that Janice Rivard, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Rivard of Glenwood avenue, is the director of the third in a series of musical comedies in the "Brown and Gold Fantasies."

Janice is the first girl to serve as top student in the all-student production, and the responsibility for the entire production, which opens a six-night stand at the college theater this evening, is on her shoulders.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robert Hawes of Muskegon, former Pontiac residents, announce the birth of a son, Bradley Jay, May 12 in Hackett Hospital.

Hold Council Four Posts

2 Pontiac Women Named to Toastmistress Offices

Two Pontiac women were elected to office in Council Four, Northeast Region of International Toastmistress, Saturday in Flint.

Helen Lapsch will head the group as chairman, and Helen Turek will serve this year as treasurer.

Other officers elected throughout the state include Mrs. Joseph V. Kline of Port Huron as vice chairman; Mrs. Eugene Bishop, secretary, and Mrs. Lloyd W. Gardiner of Detroit, delegate to regional meeting.

Miss Lapsch, who also is president of the Pontiac Toastmistress Club, will be sent to the international convention July 11 in Louisville, Ky.

Registration for the meeting Saturday began at 10 a.m. in Hotel Durant. Following luncheon, a program was held including the installation of officers.

Toastmistress for the occasion was Marjorie Deshmelser of Port Huron, and Mrs. Frank Moore of Saginaw conducted the installation of officers.

Mrs. James Webb presented the president's pin to Miss Lapsch.

The afternoon session was a workshop on officer training with Mrs. Webb as moderator. Participants in the discussion were the immediate past officers, Mrs. Gardiner, Marion DeLong, Mrs. Viola Sowin and Alda Ironmonger. This year's theme is "Together We Build for the Future."

Music Program Held Sunday

Performers for the Sunday program of Junior League of Tuesday Musicals included Rhoda Goldberg at the harp and 11 piano soloists.

Miss Goldberg hosted the group at her home on James K boulevard, and playing the piano solos were Libby Every, Lynn Benter, Diane Beach, Gail Blamey, Marcia Cameron, Sharon Holland, Janet Willoughby, Janice Mickle, Frank Blo, Santhy Annas and Dick Hathaway.

Plans were discussed for a June picnic at the home of Mrs. T. Edward Nelson of Watkins Lake. Guest artist for the day will be organist Tom Montgomery, radio and television star.

New officers installed Sunday were Diane Beach, president; Jay Hall, vice president; Jeanne Nelson, secretary, and Dick Hathaway, treasurer.

June Group Meets With Mrs. Galloway

Mrs. Charles E. Galloway was hostess to the June Group of First Presbyterian Church Friday at her home on Pemberton road. Assisting her were Mrs. Louise Ewart and Mrs. Howard C. Marsh.

Devotions based on the life of Stephen were given by Mrs. E. M. Orr. A mission study book, "Within These Borders," was reviewed by Mrs. Asa L. Drury and Mrs. Kenneth Young, who showed slides of the Puerto Ricans.

Guests were Mrs. William H. Marbach and Mrs. Gordon Hayter.

HELEN LAPISCH

Shower Honors Mrs. Morgan

Mrs. John Morgan was honored Thursday with a pink and blue shower by Mrs. Donald Isles of Bellevue street.

Guests included Mrs. Paul Fink, Mrs. Ron Cook, Mrs. Howard Isles, Mrs. George Burklaw, Mrs. Everett Golden, Mrs. Alex Tiffany, Mrs. Verne Schwartz, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. William Dobson, Mrs. Pete Vidrio, Mrs. Delbert Hammett and Mrs. Lillian Fink.

Others were Mrs. Vernon Haney, Mrs. Jack LaForm, Mrs. Bill Millard, Mrs. Leona McLane, Mrs. Simon Burklaw, Mrs. Vivian Bradshaw, Ann Byrne, Shirley Dobson, Colleen Patterson, Nancy Campbell, Janice Millard, Mrs. C. E. Fink and Judy Fink.

15 Detroit Juveniles Flee Detention Home

DETROIT (AP) — Police were searching today for 12 of 15 youths who escaped from the Detroit Juvenile Detention Home by scaling a high fence around a recreation area atop the building roof.

Two of the youths were captured Sunday a short time after the mass escape. A third surrendered.

Police said the boys climbed the fence, jumped to the roof of the detention home power plant and then dropped to the ground in a courtyard.

Ike Acts More Interested in Farm Than in 2nd Term

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — Watching President Eisenhower roam around his Gettysburg farm, you get the impression he might be somewhat more interested in retiring there than he is in a second White House term.

It's nothing more than an impression and you could be dead wrong. The President himself never has given any public inkling as to whether he will seek re-election in 1956. Several of his close associates say they don't know, and they speculate that he probably hasn't made up his mind.

They say the world situation and the political circumstances at the time undoubtedly will influence his decision. That and the fact he would be just a couple months short of 70 years old at the end of a second term.

But when you see him these days at his 189-acre farm on the historic Civil War battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., you can't help but feel that is where he would like to be to stay, just as soon as possible.

The spacious new home the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are having built there has a lot to do with the impression you get. They visited it over the weekend and spent more than an hour proudly showing it off to the President's youngest brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, and his wife.

The place, in the rolling Pennsylvania hills will be ready for occupancy by fall. It will be the first home of their own they have had since their marriage nearly 40 years ago.

"Let's go look at my joint," said the President enthusiastically as he led his brother into the now roughed-out room which eventually will be his den and office.

And Mrs. Eisenhower remarked with a laugh to her sister-in-law as they wandered through the six bedrooms on the second floor:

"Did you ever know a woman who had enough space?"

Building a new home and furnishing it excites any man and his wife. But in this case you seem to detect some unusual eagerness after a life crammed as full of tremendous responsibility and strain as Eisenhower's has been for more than the last decade.

Whenever he visits the farm

there is a lively glint in his eye and he talks about such things as the sturdy oak beams salvaged from the original 170-year-old structure for the ceiling of his den. And about the cross breeding of cattle he is planning when he acquires a herd of his own.

There is plenty of room to smack a golf ball across the fields. There is a place, too, for another of the President's favorite hobbies — fishing. A private pond has been built across the road from the house.

And another thing: there will be a studio on the attic third floor of the new home. Nothing has been said officially about that as a place for the President to haul out his oil paints and easel, but there is speculation that is what he has in mind.

Yes, the impression you get watching the President at the farm could be dead wrong so far as a second term is concerned. But then again . . .

Gas Is Cheaper

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UP) — At least one price is much lower today than in 1849. Aki Philip ran across a gas bill dated Jan. 12, 1849 which listed the cost of 600 cubic feet of gas as $6. The same amount of gas now costs $1.90.

Cordell Hull, who retired as Secretary of State in 1944, served longest in that office, having retained it from 1933.

Police Ambush Pal of Dillinger

Last Member of Gang Killed While Attempting Burglary

BEDFORD, Ind., (AP) — Clyde Alford Steinbarger, who state police said was a member of the notorious Dillinger gang, was shot to death tonight trying to escape a police ambush in a Leesville, Ind., general store.

The 56-year-old Steinbarger, whose 30-year police record was studded with safecrackings, burglaries and armed robberies, was fatally torn by a shotgun blast in the darkened store 14 miles east of here.

State police were uncertain on Steinbarger's exact connection with the Dillinger gang, but Capt. John Bart said, "I brought Steinbarger back from Chicago in 1935 when he was wanted for armed robbery at Richmond, Ind. At that time the papers all said he was the last member of the John Dillinger gang captured."

Dillinger was the leader of a gang of desperadoes which staged a series of bank robberies, kidnaps and killings through the Midwest in the late 1920s and early 1930s. FBI agents shot him to death in July 1934 as he emerged from a Chicago movie theater.

State police had lain in wait inside the store for nearly a week after Wayne Armstrong, the owner, had reported becoming suspicious of two men who came in to buy a flashlight. He identified Steinbarger from state police pictures.

The second man, identified as Lewis Reece Smith, 47, Indianapolis, was knocked unconscious after falling against a store counter when police opened fire.

The state police said the two had broken in a front door. When ordered to surrender, officers reported, both tried to escape.

Police took Smith to Bedford for questioning.

Japanese Appeal to U. S. Women on H-Bomb Tests

TOKYO (AP)—The Osaka City Enfranchised Women's League, in an appeal to American women as "the most civilized people in the world," today asked an end to hydrogen bomb tests.

The letter, written on the league's sixth anniversary, was delivered to U.S. Ambassador John M. Allison.

The league claims to have 3,000 members.

The letter said: "The amazing results of the recent hydrogen bomb tests at Bikini have shown that the United States is the possessor of the most powerful weapon in the world and also the most excellent scientific power . . .

"On account of recent hydrogen bomb tests made by your country, our people have become the victim of an advanced science, and damages both mental and bodily, suffered by us are very heavy."

Talks Resumed
for United FrontU.S. Is Again Striving to Establish Policy for Southeast Asia

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomats reported today that American efforts to form a united front in Southeast Asia are rolling again after weeks of confusion and hesitation during which little progress was made.

Three lines of action are now considered probable:

1. French Premier Joseph Laniel in talks with U.S. Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon at Paris, is expected to present a concrete proposition for American intervention in Indochina.

Dillon is said to have made clear to Laniel that such a proposition would provide a basis for further consideration of American plans by President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and other leaders here.

2. Some kind of U.N. intervention in the situation has become much more likely than it was a week ago. There is thought here of getting the United Nations to send some kind of investigating group to Indochina.

Dulles has told the French that one of the big problems of American policy for Indochina is that the United Nations has not concerned itself with the Indochinese crisis and has not clarified what Dulles regards as the moral issues.

3. Plans for military talks among the United States, Britain, France and other friendly nations interested in Southeast Asia are going forward again after having been sidetracked for a few days.

The Western Big Three and Australia and New Zealand, as well as Asian nations like Thailand and the Philippines, together with the Indochinese states, would be expected to take some part in these talks. They probably will be held in either Washington or London.

The French-American talks began in Paris Friday shortly after the Laniel government won its narrow parliamentary vote of confidence. They resulted from the French vote — which assured the Laniel regime would stay in office at least a while longer — and from Dulles telling the French his televised speech the previous Friday night represented American policy and was not just something put out for domestic consumption.

Platform Broken,
Politico in Need of a New One

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—If State Rep. George Davis tells voters he's got a new re-election platform, they can be sure it's true.

The legislator's campaigning platform — not the political one — was flattened by a truck that went out of control and turned over on top of Davis' campaign platform car.

The car was a trademark of the attorney. Plastered with campaign signs, it bore a water barrel filled with ice water and mounted on the rear bumper.

Davis' hasn't said what his new platform will be, but the last one was 20 years old.

Catastrophes are accidents killing five or more persons.

Watertown Golf Course
Gets New Water Hazard

WATERTOWN, Mass. (AP)—As if there weren't enough hazards on the course already, golfers at the Oakley County Club yesterday found a new, small pond left smack in the middle of a fairway by a 24-hour rainstorm.

And gliding placidly across the newly-created hazard were a half dozen wild ducks who stopped for a visit en route north.

Hawks apparently have the sharpest vision of all creatures.

Public Objects to Traffic Plan

Auto Club Also Against Unmarked Police Cars in Detroit Sunday

DETROIT (UP)—Traffic offenders and the Automobile Club of Michigan objected today to the Detroit Police department's use of unmarked cars in running down speeders.

The motor traffic bureau disclosed Sunday that officers were patrolling streets in plain sedans that bore none of the features of the traditional squad car.

Several motorists, caught red-handed in minor violations, charged that police were resorting to "mobile speed traps" in a scheme to increase the flow of tickets.

A spokesman for the automobile club said the AAA long has been opposed to unmarked traffic enforcement cars.

Motorists would have good reason not to pull to the curb upon receiving orders to do so from someone who is not easily recognized as a policeman, the spokesman said.

Nathaniel Goldstick, assistant corporation counsel, said there is "no law against" the use of unmarked police cars. However, he said state law prohibits policemen in plain clothes from handing out tickets.

Some motorists said they received tickets from officers who were difficult to recognize because they wore no hats.

Comfortable Feet Affect Marriage

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (UP)—The nation would have more happy marriages if it had more comfortable feet.

So says Mrs. Wilma Miller, a former milliner now operating a health establishment. Mrs. Miller says her big interest is feet, because that is where tensions often begin which can upset the entire body.

For happier marriages, she suggests a woman give a tired husband a foot rub-down to keep an argument from exploding.

And, she says, if hubby is cross and you must shout at him, don't yell, "go soak your head." Instead, say, "go soak your feet," and both of you will feel better.

Aid to Motorist Fails

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UP)—Charles Tompkins picked up a distressed motorist, drove him to a filling station to get a five-gallon can of gasoline, then back to the stalled car. When Tompkins got home he found the can of gasoline still in his car.

STRONG MAN—Dennis Nelson displays his mighty muscles to model Maureen Kennedy shortly after a muscle-flexing contest in San Francisco, Calif. The muscles are a result of exercises Nelson performed to strengthen a wrist he injured while playing college football.

Says Meals Satisfy Need for Vitamins

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—A University of Wisconsin biochemist says anyone who gets enough food also is getting all the vitamins he needs.

Dr. Conrad A. Elvehjem, internationally known nutrition expert, says only a few persons actually need special vitamin supplements. A few persons are unable to assimilate the vitamins from their normal diet, he said, "but excluding these rare instances, healthy people can put their faith in the vitamins supplied by three good meals a day."

Elvehjem says the new methods of enriching ordinary foods with vitamin B and D have "enormously improved American foods as far as vitamin content is concerned."

"The RIM-KING" AMERICA'S FAVORITE EYE GLASSES!

OUR FORMER PRICE $20 - $25

Our Price Now Only . . .

$8.98

COMPLETE WITH FRAMES AND LENSES

WHY PAY MORE?

Though the price is low, the quality of our glasses is beyond compare. If we wanted to make glasses to sell for $35, we couldn't use finer materials or better workmanship than that which goes into these glasses.

$1,000.00 REWARD!

We will pay $1,000.00 to anyone who can purchase glasses here for more than the price quoted in this advertisement. Reward offered guaranteed by two leading London, England, insurance companies.

- FOR MEN
- FOR WOMEN
- FOR CHILDREN

100 Styles, Shapes and Colors!

You may choose RIM-KING, or select a frame to suit your personality and facial contour, from our tremendous assortment of over 100 styles, shapes and colors. Complete with lenses, ground to your exact needs, regardless of your prescription or lens strength, they are truly a sensational value at $8.98. (Difficult, if desired, $4.98 additional). YOU JUST CAN'T PAY MORE.

No Kickbacks, No Extras, Just $8.98!

Frankly, our difficulty is convincing the public that they can purchase complete glasses at the one price, of $8.98. After being "film-fanned" for years by people who advertise one price, then charge for "extra tint," "extra shape," "extra strong correction" and extra high profits, it is understandable that the one price of $8.98 with no extras, irrespective of the type or style of frame is hard to believe. Now prove to yourself, without cost or obligation, that you can get complete glasses for $8.98.

Ailing Williams Steals Show, but Tigers Win 2

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP)—Magnificent Ted Williams wrote one of baseball's richest chapters with a flaming bat, but left the ball park taut and unsmiling.

And the cause for his concern is a stainless steel pin—no larger than a cigarette.

The gleaming steel pin joins together Williams' fractured left shoulder, and it burned hot pain into him every time he swung his bat yesterday.

"It hurt like heck every time I swung," muttered the 35-year-old Boston slugger upon leaving Briggs Stadium after staging one of the greatest one-man batting shows in modern times—the kind of show only Ted Williams can produce.

Playing as a regular for the first time since fracturing his shoulder in spring training, the splendid outfielder awed a crowd of 42,957 by pounding out eight hits in nine at bats in a doubleheader against the Detroit Tigers.

Williams hammered three singles—to right, center and left—in the first game, and came back with a perfect 5-for-5 in the nightcap, including a double and two towering home runs.

It mattered little—except to the Red Sox—that Detroit won both games, 7-6 and 9-8.

Actually, Williams played for the first time this season Saturday in Baltimore. Entering the game as a pinch-hitter, he batted twice and failed to hit safely.

He didn't fail against the Tigers, knocking in seven runs and scoring three in a tremendous one-man effort to pull the last-place Red Sox out of their hitting slump.

Williams hit his first home run in the third inning of the second game. Swinging with almost no effort, he lofted the ball deep into the upper right field deck.

Then, in the eighth inning, he pounded a screaming blur which bounced off the front of the right field roof—and recalled the instance in 1941 when he won the All-Star game with a similar home run in Briggs Stadium.

Williams didn't play full time in either game, leaving in the seventh inning of the opener and after he had hit his second home run in the nightcap. Detroit won both games after he left the field.

Collared by reporters before entering a taxi cab, Williams said: "I'm going to decide in the next three days whether to have the pin taken out or not. If it hurts like this, it'll never do. I'll play tomorrow (Monday) if it doesn't hurt too much."

Detroit, after trailing most of the first game, tied the score 6-6 with three runs in the seventh inning, and won it in the eighth on Matt Batts' pinch single.

Rouly booed when he stepped to the plate because he struck out at a crucial time in Saturday's game, Batts delivered the winning hit—a hard grounder through second baseman Billy Goodman. It scored Charley Kress from second.

Boone's winning home run in the nightcap was his second of the game and broke up a three-hour and 43-minute marathon which was finished under the lights. The game went 14 frames.

Boone, who had hit a two-run homer in the third, drove one of Frank Sullivan's pitches into the upper left field stands. It was his sixth of the season.

Righthander Steve Gromek, who pitched only the 14th inning, picked up his sixth victory against one loss.

PHS Thinclads Win 2nd Straight Regional Title

Pontiac High's track squad scored in every event Saturday to easily win its 2nd straight regional championship at Ypsilanti. Twelve PHS thinclads qualified for next Saturday's state meet at Ann Arbor.

Chiefs piled up 73 points, while Birmingham finished a distant

2nd with 41½ points. Waterford was 3rd with 28, followed by Ypsilanti, 26½; Highland Park, 16½; Wayne, 5; Southfield 3½; and Berkley, 1.

Pontiac swept both hurdles events, the quarter-mile, half-mile and mile and tied for 1st in the pole vault.

Willie Wilson set a new PHS mark of 15.5 seconds in the high hurdles in the preliminaries and later won the final in 15.7. He now holds school records in the 120-yard high, 65-yard high, 65-yard low and shares the record for the 180-yard low with Ed Ringgold.

Wilson also set a regional record of 20.7 seconds in the low hurdles in the preliminaries, but placed 2nd to Ringgold in the finals in a new record time of 20.3. Ringgold also placed 3rd in the broad jump and tied with teammate Red Taylor in the high jump.

Other 1sts were scored by miler

Bill Douglas (4 minutes 46.7 seconds), half-miler Felix Brooks (2:07.1) and quarter miler Jack Humphrey (54.5). George Thrasher tied with Dumas of Highland Park for 1st in the pole vault at 10 feet six inches.

Seconds were taken by high hurdler Hayes Jones, quarter-miler

Jim Shorter, miler Alonzo Watson and half-miler John James.

Second-place Birmingham posted five 1st places. Bill Dove swept both dashes, winning the 100 in 10.3 and the 220 in 23 seconds flat. Waterford's Kerry Keating and Ray Campbell finished 2-3 in both races.

Other Maple winners were John Perry in the quarter-mile (53.4), Dave Long in the half-mile (2:06.9), and Chuck Erickson in the shot put (47 feet 10½ inches).

Waterford's only victory came in the half-mile relay. Keating and Campbell teamed with Laine Hetherington and Jim Holton to win the event in 1 minute 33.8 seconds.

Other Pontiac point-winners: Third place — Medley relay team (Charles Robinson, Jack Humphrey, Red Taylor and Morris Jackson). Fourth places—Jack Hopkins, shotput; Taylor, broad jump; Jones, low hurdles; and half-mile relay team (Ringgold, Freeman Watkins, Jimmy Williams and Wilson). Fifth places—Watkins, 100 and 220; Bill Imboden, mile.

Hold 4th Elimination

Elaine Potrzebowski won her event in the fourth elimination race at Rolladium over the weekend, without a contest. She was the Class A winner in the 5th period of the series. Other winners included Sandy Smith and Carl Grassi in Class B, and Pamela Woollever and Troyce Darimont in "C."

KH, Clarkston Thinclads Set Pace in 'C' Regional

Keego Harbor and Clarkston of the Wayne-Oakland League led a 20-team field in the Class C track regionals at University of Detroit Stadium Saturday by placing 1-2. Keego scored 30½ points to 29½ for Clarkston. OL St. Mary was 2nd to St. Clair in Class B.

Dennis Singleton and Walter Goetz sparked the Presidents' triumph, their 1st regional track title. Singleton won the 220-yard dash, was 2nd in the 100 and 2nd in the broad jump.

Goetz won the 100 and took 3rd in the 220. Other Keego qualifiers were Phil Schultz, 2nd in the 880, and both relay teams.

Clarkston qualified six men. Its half-mile relay team of Pete Thompson, Al Warman, Vern Carman and Don Truak was 1st. The versatile Warman tied for 1st in the high jump, was 3rd in the pole vault and 1st in the broad jump.

Bob Yahneke was 2nd in the pole vault at 10 feet, 9 inches. Half-miler Gordon Cascadden was beaten, but qualified by finishing 2nd. Bill Goodrich of South Lyon turned in a fine 2:03 effort.

OL St. Mary qualified 7 men, headed by quarter-milers Bob Leszczynski and Gene Staszewicz, who each won a heat. Leszczynski's 53.8 time was a school record.

Walt Bogucki made the grade in both hurdles, Ken Zettel and Joe Krasowski in the shot, Vince Pernicki in the 880 and Tom Kalasz in the pole vault.

Babe Discovers Tourneys Rough

Plans Rest After Her Win in Capital Test; Jameson Is Runnerup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Babe Zaharias said today she's finding the golf tournament going a bit rough for a convalescent and that she's going to rest up for the next month.

Obviously wearying, the 38-year-old Babe still had enough left yesterday to win first prize money of $1,000 in the National Capital Women's Open golf tournament. She squeaked through to a 1-stroke victory over Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex.

It was Mrs. Zaharias' 3rd tournament victory since her successful operation for a cancerous growth a year ago. She won a tournament in Miami, Fla., last January, and another in Sarasota, Fla., two weeks later.

Babe was helped to victory by a surprising collapse on the back nine by Louise Suggs of Atlanta, Ga., women golf's leading money winner, who had rallied to draw even with Mrs. Zaharias at the turn.

Wayne Bennett Wins 3 Races at Pontiac Track

Wayne Bennett of Hazel Park emerged from Sunday's action-packed program at the Pontiac Speedway as the day's big winner. The 25-year-old Bennett started by winning the trophy dash, then won his heat, before finishing 1st in the abbreviated feature race. Feature was halted at the end of 21 laps when the track became clogged by wrecked cars.

Bennett, who drives a 1932 Ford with a 1948 engine, posted the day's best time in the heat races, touring the 8 laps in 2 minutes, 49.85 seconds.

Other heat winners included Rusty Kelly and R. Fraley of Pontiac, Chuck Partello of Rochester and Jim Hasselle of Troy.

Tom Taylor of Pontiac won the pursuit race and G. Rogers of Pontiac took the 15-lap semi-final.

A total of 43 cars qualified, with Joy Fair of Pontiac posting the best time, Ted Kales, noted motorcycle star, was 2nd best qualifier Sunday, but his best racing effort was a 4th in the trophy dash.

Cranbrook Nine Bows in 13-Inning Affair

Cranbrook's baseball team, extended Buffalo Nichols 13 innings Saturday, but dropped a 4-3 decision at Buffalo for its 7th loss in 10 games.

Jack Hoffman's 4th hit of the game came in the 14th with the bases loaded and two away to decide the game. Crane tennis team defeated Nichols, 3-2, for its 8th triumph in 11 contests.

Preps Shoot for Trophy

Good weather greeted prep golfers competing in the 3rd annual Pontiac Press Invitational golf tournament at Pontiac Municipal this morning. Teams played 18 holes medal play for the team trophy. Individual medals also were awarded.

CHAMP'S FORM — Jimmy Patterson (left), winner in the junior divisions of the City Marbles Tournament Saturday, displays his winning form to Wayne D'Autremont, midgets division champion. The annual event is sponsored by the Pontiac Parks & Recreation Department. Boys are wearing their medals, presented by the Pontiac Press.

Polly Riley Takes Record 5th Crown

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Polly Riley has her unprecedented fifth Women's Southern golf title safely tucked away today.

The Fort Worth, Tex., star won the title from Marjorie Burns of Greensboro, N.C., 2 up in the 36-hole close-out match here Saturday.

It's the first time in the 43-year history of the tournament that anyone has won the title five times.

O'Brien Stars in Coast Meet With 2 Firsts

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Mighty Parry O'Brien, world record shot put, won not only his specialty but the discus throw as well at the West Coast Relays Saturday night.

O'Brien, who holds the world shot put record of 50 feet, 2¼ inches and has a 60-foot, 5¼ inch mark up for consideration, tossed the 16-pound ball an even 50 feet. He captured the discus with 184 feet, 1½ inches, topping teammate Fortune Gordien of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, who was second with 182 feet, 9½.

Gordien holds the world record of 194 feet, 6 inches. Team honors went to Southern California for the 22nd time. Trojans piled up 70 points in the open division, and 92 in the collegiate class.

2 TV Fight Centers in Battle for Fans

NEW YORK (AP)—The Monday night battle for survival between New York's St. Nicholas Arena and Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway opens tonight with a hunk of television cash bet on each side.

Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler tops Tex Sullivan's 1st show at St. Nick's against Algerian Hossein Khalif in a non-title bout, seen on TV (Dumont) in some parts of the country. Percy Bassett, "interim" feather titleholder, faces Cuban Orlando Zulueta, No. 2 ranking lightweight contender, in the feature bout at Eastern Parkway with about 30 TV stations (ABC) beaming the fight.

California Driver Gets Pole Position in '500'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UP)—Jack McGrath, a lean Californian with a heavy foot, finally had the pole position today after his record-smashing spring paced 16 cars in weekend qualifications for the 500-mile Memorial Day speedway auto race.

He grabbed the coveted inside spot Saturday, urging his brand new $25,000 roadster, owned by Jack Hinkle, Wichita, Kan., to a one lap record of 141.287 miles an hour and a four-lap average of 141.033 mph.

Pontiac GOYA Bowlers Win Detroit Tourney

Representative of Pontiac GOYA bowling league took 1st prize in the Midwest District tournament Sunday at Palace Recreation, Detroit. Pontiac team, captained by Phil Christie, totalled 2,983 pins. Team members, in addition to Christie, are George Pappas, Abe Cosma, Ernie Cosma and Sam Cosma.

Crofoot, Longfellow Boys Win Mibs Tourney Honors

Top honors in the annual City Marbles Tournament Saturday went to Jimmy Patterson, a 12-year-old 6th-grader at Crofoot, and Wayne D'Autremont, 11-year-old 5th-grader at Longfellow.

Jimmy won the junior division, while Wayne took 1st place in the midget class.

The junior titlist defeated Amos Bailey of Bagley in the semi-finals after the latter had eliminated 2-time champion Frank Acosta of Jefferson in semi-final action. Patterson beat Jackie James of Malkin in the semifinals and Bill Brooks of Wisner in 1st-round play. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson Sr. of 66 Murray street.

Wayne drew a 1st-round bye and downed Jerome Busbee of Bagley in the semi-finals and Grady Payne of Whittier in the finals. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert D'Autremont of 168 Russell street.

Survivors of preliminary competition at 13 elementary schools competed in the finals at the Crofoot School playground Saturday.

Ford's new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 is the most modern in the automobile industry... the only V-8 in the low-price field! And Ford's 115-h.p. I-block Six is the industry's newest Six. Both of these engines give you the smoothest, savingest performance you've ever experienced.

You'll see more Fords parked in front of the finest homes and country clubs than any other car in its field. One reason is that many people who have owned the costliest cars realize that Ford offers the same beauty, quality and distinction—and for a far more practical price.

Ford is unsurpassed in riding comfort or ease of handling. A big reason is Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension... which allows more total up and down front wheel travel for a smoother ride... keeps front wheels in line longer... so handling stays easy longer.

Surveys show Ford cars return more of their original cost when they are sold than any competitive make. So a Ford car costs you less to own.

Bob Considine Says:

Russian Trained Scientists Now Worry Washington

WASHINGTON (INS) — The administration is concerned by reports that it will not be many years before Russia will be developing more scientists of PHD rating than the United States.

An extraordinary campaign of proselytizing Russian boys in the 10-to-12 year age group and literally force-feeding them until graduation from special schools has paid off brilliantly, Washington hears.

Only children with better than average marks in mathematics are tapped for this elite corps. They are not given the right to turn down the offer, nor are their parents permitted to do so in their name. But few would anyway.

Improvements have been made on North Korean air bases, and MIGs have been moved into them.

State Department circles are sure Russia gave the word that resulted in the suicidal attacks on Dien Bien Phu, as well as supplied the weapons through the Red Chinese.

What was important was that Red negotiators at Geneva needed a decisive victory in Indochina. They got it and with it they crushed John Foster Dulles' dream of immediate Anglo-French cooperation in his proposed "united stand" in Indochina.

Robot Chemist Devised for Chemical Mixing

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (UP)—A robot "chemist" has been developed by an electric company for the automatic control of chemicals in industrial mixtures.

The instrument will be used in gas, petroleum, pharmaceutical and chemical plants for continuous control of amounts of different ingredients in a mixture. It sets up a signal to put computers and other automatic controlling machines in motion.

If the robot were available to a housewife, she could, for instance, use it to get just the right amount of ingredients for cake batter.

The Russian scientist has joined the Russian literary and musical figures and Kremlin officialdom in the new post-war aristocracy.

Washington's opinion of the Russian brain has made a 180 degree turn since 1949. The Soviet Union's early development of the atomic and the hydrogen bombs were deciding factors.

As far as the U. S. Air Force knows, the 4-jet bomber that zipped over Moscow on May Day is the first serious gesture Russia has ever made in the bomber line.

Its appearance said, in effect, "Boys, we've got a big enough stockpile of A-bombs and H-bombs now to begin thinking of ways to deliver them."

Meanwhile, in North Korea, Russian engineers have constructed a new railroad and vehicular bridge across the Yalu.

GMTC Credit Union Will Hold Open House

General Motors Truck and Coach Federal Credit Union will stage a grand opening at its renovated office at 156 W. Huron st. next Saturday instead of today. Hours are from noon to 8 p. m.

The credit union, with assets of more than 2½ million dollars, will hold a special open house Sunday for invited guests.

Apparently, Khrushchev is coming up fast. Pravda goes to the utmost precautions before it prints a picture of a group of top Russia nabobs.

The one it selected to illustrate its May Day stories showed Malenkov looking away from the camera glumly and Khrushchev smiling from ear to ear and waving his hat to the crowd.

GM Announces Full Line of Automatic-Shift Trucks

Grains Retreat, Feed List Fights

CHICAGO (U)—Grains retreated under quite urgent selling pressure on the board of trade today. All cereals gave up ground but the feed grains did so most reluctantly. Largest drop was in old crop soybean futures, notably the July contract. They were again subjected to liquidation by those who have been holding these deliveries for many months. Wheat suffered fair sized losses in response to more moisture in the winter wheat belt. Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/8 lower, May $1.98 1/2, corn unchanged to 1/4 lower, May $1.55 1/2, oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, May 76 1/2, rye 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, May 96 1/4, soybeans, 1/2 to 6 cents lower, May $3.75 1/2 and lard 10 to 25 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $19.55.
