LBJ Asks Restraint on Wage-Price Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Johnson appealed anew to capital and labor today to keep wage and price rises "within reasonable bounds."

At a news conference held in his office and carried to the nation by radio the President said: "I recognize that problems are bound to arise in a period of full employment."

He said that since 1960, prices have risen 10 per cent, wages 17 per cent and profits 83 per cent.

"We want to keep them all as stable as possible," he said.

And he added, "We are hoping we can appeal" for restraint, both to those who set wage demands and those who set prices.

MUCH LESS

Johnson said the inflationary rise has been much less than in some other countries.

He asserted that recently he was talking to "the distinguished leader" of an unnamed country who expressed the wish that he could keep inflation in his country down to the levels of the United States.

He noted that he has ordered an inquiry into the rise in medical costs, including doctors' and hospital bills.

These, according to the Labor partment, have gone up 3.4 per cent in the past six months.

EXPRESSES CONCERN

The President also expressed concern over rising transportation costs.

With respect to inflation in general, Johnson said he can provide more information after he sees what Congress does with remaining appropriation bills — "whether they cut our budget or add to our budget."

The questioning also ranged into politics, beginning with a request for his estimate of the "political perspicacity" of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

★ ★ ★

"The people have judged that," Johnson replied.

'NO EXPLANATION'

Nixon, among other things, has been talking about the possibility Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey might be dropped and replaced on the Democratic ticket by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York.

Johnson was asked whether he had an explanation for a poll, which, the questioner said, indicated Democrats would rather have Kennedy as the 1968 presidential nominee than Johnson.

Amid laughter, he replied, "No, I have no explanation."

★ ★ ★

Asked about suggestions that contributions to the President's Club, a Democratic fund-raising group, were considered in awarding government contracts, Johnson said: "No they do not influence the awards. You can continue to expect political charges of this kind until November."

UNDER ORDERS

He said the attorney general is under presidential orders to investigate such charges.

"They usually come from the party that has been strongly rejected by the people," he said.

On another matter with at least overtones of politics, Johnson said he will leave Friday morning for Idaho, Colorado and Oklahoma — then: "I'm going to go home late Friday evening" and be at home Saturday and Sunday, "observing the results of 58 years of very pleasant existence."

Parks Group Asks Cut in Millage Up for Vote

Oakland County's Parks and Recreation Commission today voiced opposition to the Nov. 8 millage proposal for park funds and asked that it be cut to 25 per cent of what is proposed.

Last week the County Board of Supervisors authorized a vote on a half-mill levy over 10 years which would raise from $13.5 million to $15 million.

The board's action concurred with a recommendation of the supervisors' ways and means committee which had upgraded the original one-quarter mill over five years proposed by the parks and recreation commission.

But now the parks and recreation commission has unanimously agreed to pursue its original proposal which would raise about $3.5 million in tax money.

The commission will meet again with the ways and means committee and hopes that a recommendation for the lower levy can go to the full board Sept. 19.

★ ★ ★

Members of the parks and recreation commission feel that land for 15 to 20 parks can be acquired by the lower levy and that half of these sites could be developed.

Yanks Capture 'War College'

SAIGON (UPI) — A force of more than 600 U.S. Marines today captured a Communist "war college" during heavy fighting in a mountain jungle so thick artillery was rendered useless.

At least 44 Viet Cong were killed in a battle which raged through the day.

The fighting took place on a 3,000-foot mountain near Dai Lot, 370 miles north of Saigon and only 14 miles southwest of the Da Nang base of Viet Nam leathernecks.

Thick growth climbs 60 to 100 feet above the jungle floor on the mountainside.

Three Marine companies were involved in the battle, taking heavy fire from an entrenched Viet Cong battalion, also numbering about 600. Marine casualties were officially described as "light."

UPI correspondent Tom Corpora reported it took medics four hours to move Marine casualties some 400 yards through the jungle to a point where they could be hoisted to hovering helicopters for evacuation.

Nixon Offers Viet Program

Backs LBJ's Course, Raps Peace Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is offering Republican Senate and House candidates a war-and-peace program of supporting President Johnson's Viet Nam course but criticizing his peace efforts.

He meets today with House Republicans.

Nixon got what Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, called enthusiastic approval when he plugged at a closed meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee Tuesday for a proposed all-Asian peace conference.

Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee who observers believe might make another try in 1968, spelled out his ideas this way:

He is supporting the prosecution of the Viet Nam conflict to the hilt because he thinks "it is the war to prevent World War

Cool Weather for Five Days

Things will be real cool for Pontiac area residents the next five days.

The U.S. Weather Bureau has predicted temperatures to average 6 to 9 degrees below normal with only minor daily changes.

Rainfall is expected to total less than one-tenth of an inch.

Tonight will be fair and cool with lows of 47 to 53.

It will be mostly sunny tomorrow and a little warmer. Highs of 68 to 76 are expected.

Fifty-two was the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac today. By 2 p.m. the mercury reading was 73.

From 'Underworld Forces'

Threats to Kelley Probed

DETROIT (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley told a news conference yesterday that State Police are investigating threats against his life by "underworld forces."

Kelley said he called the conference because of reports that he had visited an alleged Mafia leader in Florida early this year. He confirmed the reports were true.

★ ★ ★

Kelley charged that persons who he did not identify, are attempting to halt a new grand jury investigation in Wayne County, that "forces" in Lansing have put pressure on the Michigan Supreme Court to halt the new grand jury and that his political career has been threatened.

Saying that threats against him have "intensified in the last 48 hours," Kelley added that they came in the form of "conversations, letters and a number of phone calls."

★ ★ ★

He declined to reveal details on the volume or contents of the threats, except to say they were in the nature of "You're going to be ruined. We're going to get you."

PROTECT INFORMATION

"I can't get into particulars because I want to protect the integrity of the information given to State Police," he said.

Hours earlier, newsmen approached Kelley and told the attorney general it was learned that Kelley had met with reputed Mafia leader Angelo Meli at Meli's Florida apartment.

Kelley confirmed the meeting with Meli.

Meli was identified in 1963 testimony before a U. S. Senate committee as one of five ruling members of the Mafia in Detroit. Former Detroit Police Commissioner George Edwards at that time named Meli as a "Don" in the underworld organization.

★ ★ ★

Kelley said he and his wife, Josephine, met with Meli and his wife, Jennie, for about an hour. Meli's attorney and his wife also were present, Kelley said.

APARTMENT MEETING

Kelley said the meeting was in February at Meli's apartment, which he said was located between Fort Lauderdale and Pompano Beach.

The attorney general said he had attended high school with Meli's son, Vincent. He said Vincent was not present at the meeting in the apartment.

He told a newsman that "I don't have any relationship with Mr. Meli whatsoever. And I have never been involved socially with him, except through his son who I know to be an honorable young man.

"I have been involved in activities against Mr. Angelo Meli and all he represents for a number of years," Kelley said.

More Manpower Asked

By JOE MULLEN

Oakland County's Republican sheriff and Democratic prosecutor cited a rising crime rate in the county yesterday in requesting more manpower for their departments.

Sheriff Frank Irons, appearing at a hearing on the 1967 county salaries budget, told members of the personnel policies' committee of the County Board of Supervisors that 10 more patrolmen are urgently needed.

Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson cited his vital need for four additional assistant prosecutors.

Both men told the committee that increasing crime has swelled the work load of their departments.

Both the number of complaints and the number of prisoners housed at the Oakland County Jail this year to date are well above the same period last year, Irons said.

Besides increasing the number of patrolmen from 72 to 82, he also asked for an increase of two in clerical personnel.

Bronson, noting that both major felony and misdemeanor arrests have increased, termed his office's personnel shortage as critical.

MACOMB COUNTY

He pointed out that Macomb County, with about two thirds the population of Oakland, has the same size staff as his.

Besides the four additional assistant prosecutors, Bronson asked for three other new staff members. These were a court reporter, stenographer and legal investigator.

Officials of seven other county departments were heard yesterday and all requested either more personnel, wage increases, or both.

The greatest number of new employes was asked by the Oakland County Sanatorium which seeks 15 persons including six

McDonald Foe Asks Recount

Kuhn Points to Tally in Redford Township

Richard D. Kuhn, who finished 1,071 votes behind Jack H. McDonald in the Aug. 2 primary race for the 19th Congressional District Republican nomination, filed today for a recount.

Kuhn's petition asks for a recount of all 49 precincts in Redford Township where McDonald is township supervisor.

Filed with the petition was a fee of $245 to meet the specified $5 per precinct recount assessment.

Kuhn said his decision for the recount was based on the fact that he was credited with less votes in three Redford Township precincts he sampled than the number of affidavits of support he possesses for these areas.

Cited in his petition filed with State Election Director Robert Montgomery were four alleged vote-counting errors:

- Counting votes improperly cast by absentee voters.
- Counting those improperly marked or void because of distinguishing marks.
- Vote's in the precincts using voting machines were incorrectly read, recorded and returned by the election inspectors.
- Counting votes improperly cast by improper and illegal procedures.

2,200 VOTE LEAD

Kuhn, who polled 12,079 votes to 13,150 for McDonald, said election returns indicated he had a 2,000 vote lead before the Redford Township count came in.

★ ★ ★

The State Board of Canvassers will determine when the recount will occur.

'Human Resources Center'

Whitmer to Offer Plan

A proposal to build a "human resources center" in the southeast quadrant of the city will be considered by the Pontiac Board of Education tonight.

The center, as envisioned by Supt. Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, would replace the deteriorating McConnell Community School with an educational park to serve various needs of the area.

Whitmer will ask the board of education at its 7:30 p.m. meeting to endorse the human resources center concept and to authorize the start of a feasibility study on the idea.

He also will ask school trustees to seek City Commission cooperation in a joint planning and development project.

★ ★ ★

Starting with replacement of the McConnell building, the center eventually would be expanded to include facilities for the Central and Wilson elementary school areas, according to Whitmer's proposal.

DAY PROGRAM

The center would provide both a day school program and the services developed in the community school program now in effect at McConnell.

Whitmer's proposal includes no cost figures or recommended location.

However, he describes the center as a complex of buildings on a large site.

"It provides facilities for enriched and extended educational programs for pupils," he said. "Included in such programs are those which are educational, cultural, social and recreational in nature."

Also provided would be facilities specifically designed and constructed to accommodate out-of-school youth and adults in programs similar to those of the community schools.

Space would be provided public and private agencies serving the people of the area.

Enriching the educational opportunities for children and adults, the center could stimulate "community pride and interest which would assist in the development and maintenance of an attractive residential area," Whitmer said.

He lists as one inherent value of the proposal "promotion of a stable, racially integrated residential area by encouraging people to live in the area in order to have the benefits of the human resources center."

SEARCH FOR SURVIVORS—All available rescue squads and volunteers are searching for three known missing persons at the explosion site at Phelps Dodge Copper Products Co. in Fort Wayne, Ind. Two are known dead and at least 18 were injured when a gas explosion ripped the plant's executive office building yesterday. Unofficial estimates of the loss exceed $5 million.

Gen. Westmoreland Attacking Accidental Bombing Problem

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. military forces in Viet Nam, deplored today the killing of Vietnamese civilians by mistaken and accidental bombings and said the American command was aggressively attacking the problem to reduce such incidents.

* * *

Westmoreland said he had appointed a military review board to study the recent rash of mistaken and accidental attacks and devise improved controls and procedures.

Last week, the four-star general ordered all his subordinate commanders to review their procedures to curb civilian casualties.

In 13 incidents since early July, 164 Vietnamese civilians have been killed and more than 300 wounded. In the worst of these, 63 civilians were killed and 83 were wounded Aug. 9 when a village was attacked by U.S. F100 Super Sabre Jets.

The attack had been called by the Vietnamese provincial chief who said the village was under Viet Cong control.

In addition to the 13 civilian incidents, U.S. planes mistakenly attacked a U.S. Coast Guard cutter Aug. 11 and killed two of its crew and wounded five others.

* * *

"Let one fact be clear," Westmoreland said, "as far as the United States Military Assistance Command in Viet Nam is concerned, one mishap — one innocent civilian killed, one civilian wounded or one dwelling needlessly destroyed — is too many."

"By its very nature," he added in his statement, "war is destructive and historically civilians have suffered. But the war in Viet Nam is different. It is designed by the insurgents and the aggressors to be fought among the people, many of whom are not participants in, or even closely identified with, the struggle.

WAR OBJECTIVES

"People, more than terrain, are the objectives in this war, and we will not and cannot be callous about those people.

* * *

"We are sensitive to these incidents and want no more of them. If one does occur — mistake or accident — we intend to search it carefully for any lesson that will help us improve our procedures and controls. We realize we have a great problem, and I can assure you we are attacking it aggressively."

Several of the recent incidents resulted from accidents such as the plane crash from mechanical failure on a village Aug. 17 in which 35 villagers were killed and 75 were injured.

* * *

U.S. authorities also are attempting to set up procedures to take care of victims of such incidents rapidly and to relieve suffering.

Southwest Floodwaters Recede

Romney Tells 'Risks' of Delay on I-696

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has called Oakland and Macomb county legislators to his office today "to make sure they are aware of the risks involved in delaying action on the proposed Interstate 696."

"Then if they want to run the risks, it's up to them," he added.

Romney wants a bill to establish binding arbitration for the freeway and other roads in the interstate system that pass through municipalities which now have the power to vote proposed routes.

In a prepared statement Tuesday, Democratic leaders in each house, joined by Macomb and Oakland county legislators, called such action premature.

Romney said the state is in danger of losing $140 million in federal funds for the 18.1-mile road running through 14 Detroit suburbs.

The Democrats said Tuesday pending federal legislation could extend the deadline for the federal grants.

Romney said he has talked to State Highway Director Howard Hill and found "There isn't anybody who can tell you with certainty what the time limit is.

"We don't get any money until we submit specific plans to the federal government," Romney said. "We must remember that there is less money available than is needed for the entire freeway program."

The state, he added, could find itself in the same position it was when it authorized refinancing of the Mackinac Bridge to reduce tolls.

FLOODED FARM COMMUNITY—Floodwaters ranging in depth from six inches to six feet inundated Dell City, Tex., a farm community of 950 persons 92 miles from El Paso. All roads in the area were either washed out or flooded. Crop damage in the thousands of dollars was reported.

Copters Bring Help to Marooned Areas

By the Associated Press

Silt-laden floodwaters ebbed slowly today from damaged homes and devastated farms but there was a threat of still more rain in neighboring sectors of far West Texas and southeast New Mexico.

* * *

Army helicopters brought food, drinking water and medicines Tuesday to residents forced from homes at nearby marooned Dell City, Tex., 92 miles east of El Paso.

* * *

The helicopters, from Ft. Bliss in El Paso, also made relief flights to the Carlsbad, N.M., vicinity.

Deluges estimated at 11 inches since Monday at Dell City and 8 inches in Carlsbad Caverns National Park set off the crop-destroying floods.

CHANCE OF RAIN

While the muddy waters were receding, Weather Bureau observers said there was a 50 per cent chance of thundershowers in at least part of the affected area.

* * *

At least one death apparently occurred as the Pecos River went on the rampage at Carlsbad. A search continued today for Joe Little, 45, who was washed off a National Guard truck Monday night while reporting developments for radio station KPBM.

* * *

Losses promised to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Water six inches to six feet deep covered about 95 per cent of Dell City, an irrigation farming center. Most of its 950 people took shelter in public schools. Some were rescued off rooftops.

SCHOOL SHELTER

Flood evacuees at Carlsbad — about 100 families — were housed in school buildings.

Helicopters went into action after an 85-foot washout on US 61-80 stalled a 21-truck Army convoy 54 miles east of El Paso.

* * *

One of the trucks finally made it into Dell City late Tuesday night. There was hope others could get through today.

Eighty-four soldiers set up an evacuation headquarters at the washout, which occurred at a point 15 miles south of the New Mexico line.

Birmingham Area News

Subdivision Residents Closer to Water Service

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Action by the township board has brought residents in the Concord Green and Bloomfield Heights subdivisions one step closer to water.

The second hearings on water mains for the two areas were held Monday night to review the costs of the projects, to set assessments and installment schedules.

Assessment for the Concord Green water main installation was put at $717.40 for each of the 46 sites to be served by the system.

* * *

Engineers have estimated that the total cost of the project will run to about $33,000.

ACTION INITIATED

Action on the project was initiated at the Aug. 8 meeting of the board when a petition for the main signed by 59 per cent of the residents involved was formally presented to the board.

The second water main considered by the board will serve most of Bloomfield Heights subdivision and portions of Highmoor and Woodcrest Farms subdivisions.

The 146 sites affected will be assessed $1,169.18 over a 10-year period. Total cost has been put at an estimated $170,700.

* * *

Petitions signed by 53 per cent of the residents were formally presented to the board at the first hearing for the twin projects on Aug. 8.

FIRST INSTALLMENTS

First installments for residents of the two sections will be due in January of next year.

Township Clerk Deloris V. Little said the board's next step will be to submit an application to the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission for permission to issue bonds to finance the water installations.

The bonds would mature in 10 years and be paid off by the assessment monies.

* * *

CENTER BUILT

The center was built at the corner of Maple and Lahser roads four years ago.

The township at that time refused to rezone the land for commercial use but was forced to when the center's developers took the case to court.

Part of the court rezoning decree was that a wall be built between the center and adjoining residential area.

* * *

Mrs. Little said the legal action is being taken because the court decree has not been complied with.

Court Clerk Resigns Post

Notification Cites 'Personal Reasons'

Municipal Court Clerk Martin J. Keller last night submitted his resignation to the Pontiac City Commission, citing "personal reasons" in his decision to quit.

* * *

Keller, 61, of 855 Menominee said he would leave the $9,490-a-year position "not later" than Oct. 2. He said he had no immediate plans after that date.

Notification of the commission followed by one day a similar letter sent by Keller to municipal judges Cecil B. McCallum and Maurice E. Finnegan.

Keller was named to fill the post May 31, 1961, following the death of former clerk Leo F. MacDonald.

* * *

Since his appointment, he has also assumed the duties of probation officer for the court.

* * *

Earlier this year, Keller was the recipient of a certificate of appreciation from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for "distinguished service" as court clerk.

'DEAD END STREET'

Nixon said he thinks President Johnson is following a "dead end street" in offering to base peace negotiations on the Geneva accord and thus involve European nations. Instead, Nixon said, the non-Communist nations of Asia ought to draft proposals for a settlement, even if the Communists ignore them at this point.

There was a great deal more about what he called Johnson's failure to sell the war goals to the country. But Nixon's basic advice to GOP candidates was: Support the flag but offer an alternative to Johnson's thus far unsuccessful efforts to get peace negotiations going.

Romney Will Campaign in City Thursday

Gov. Romney and three other Republican candidates will visit Pontiac plants on a campaign tour tomorrow afternoon.

The governor will arrive in Pontiac at 2:05 p.m. from Redford Township and his first visit will be to the Pontiac Varnish Co. plant at 30 Brush.

Joining him there will be Joanne Van Tassel, candidate for state representative in the 62nd District, and Harvey Lodge, 17th District candidate for the State Senate.

The governor will be joined by Jack McDonald, 19th District congressional candidate, at the GMC Truck and Coach Division gate at 660 E. South Blvd. at 2:30 p.m.

After greeting GMC workers, the governor and McDonald will make a 3:45 p.m. tour of the Pontiac Progressive Welding and Machine Co. plant, 915 Oakland.

House Passes Proposal Making Terms Four Years

LANSING (AP) — The House of Representatives yesterday passed a proposal to lengthen its members' terms from two to four years.

The proposal, however, will have to pass the House again, pass an uncommitted Senate and pass on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

It was approved 75-24, over a cry of "fraud," just two months after the lawmakers voted a legislative pay raise of $2,500. The four-year-term resolution calls for a constitutional amendment—meaning it needs a two-thirds vote in both houses (74 in the House and 25 in the Senate).

Another constitutional amendment proposal did not fare as well. A Democratic-backed attempt to strike the 1963 State Constitution's prohibition against a graduated state income tax was raised and failed to gain the needed margin in a 69-33 party-line vote.

If passed by the Senate, the term proposal, calling for four-year terms for House members and township officers starting Jan. 1, 1967, would go on the Nov. 8 ballot for voter approval.

* * *

Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, minority leader, served notice, however, that he would move today to reconsider the vote by which the resolution passed.

Anthony G. Wodek, sanatorium director, said that the added personnel requested is what was recommended by the Michigan Department of Health when it certified the facility for Medicare.

The sanatorium now has 146 patients which represents 87 per cent of capacity, Wodek said.

Police Crack Rental Racket

Oak Park Police in conjunction with the Oakland County prosecutor's office today announced they had cracked a mortgage and home rental racket which Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson said might have been taking in "half a million dollars a year."

* * *

A warrant issued by Bronson charges Jack Wine, 30, of Oak Park with renting a house in Oak Park to three separate parties simultaneously even as a bank started mortgage foreclosure proceedings on the home.

Bronson said information given to police indicated Wine had been successful with the same operation involving "perhaps several hundred" homes a year.

Included in Wine's "mortgage-milking" scheme over the past several years, according to Bronson, were homes in the Pontiac area.

As described by police, the method of operation in the rental bilking consisted of sale of a home, apparent assumption by Wine of mortgage obligations, multiple rentals of a single dwelling for cash, and then Wine's disappearance just prior to foreclosure of the mortgage.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Tonight's weather will be rainy over parts of the Plains and Plateaus. It will be cooler in the northeast, the eastern Great Lakes, the Virginias and the central Gulf Coast. Warmer temperatures are expected in parts of the Plains and Plateaus.

Coffee Has a Kick

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP)— The Coast Guard was called to a fire aboard a 38-foot fishing boat. The blaze had been started when a crew member poured what he thought was water into his coffee pot. The liquid was gasoline.

HIDDEN WIPERS — Among the exclusive new features scheduled for the 1967 Pontiac are the auto industry's first concealed windshield wipers designed to retract into a cove below the hood line (top). Pontiac Motor Division engineers say the new wipers will not only improve appearance, but will clean windshields better in cold weather (bottom), when the wiper blades will be protected from ice.

HECKLER RESTRAINED — Two Chicago police officers, one a plainclothes detective, arrest a man who was heckling civil rights marchers on Chicago's far south side yesterday. The policeman uses his nightstick to restrain the man. Authorities picked up 16 white persons during the march.

King Again Vows Cicero Protest

200 Marchers Jeered

CHICAGO (AP) — A force of 200 civil rights demonstrators dodged bricks and bottles Tuesday night in a Southeast Side neighborhood, then attended a rally where Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. repeated his intention to march to Cicero Sunday.

The open-housing demonstration in the city's South Deering area was witnessed by 1,500 shouting, angry white persons who stood along the tree-lined residential streets and threatened the comparatively small parade.

King, who led 500 persons into the area Sunday, was not in Tuesday night's demonstration.

Leaders of the Chicago Freedom Movement announced a march would be held today in the West Elsdon area, an all-white neighborhood adjacent to Gage Park on the Southwest side where some of the most violent white reaction to the demonstrations has occurred this summer.

450 POLICE

A force of 450 blue-helmeted police formed a cordon around the demonstrators and effectively kept violent action in check in South Deering. Sixteen persons were arrested. Most of the offenders were caught firing stones, firecrackers and bottles at the marchers.

One policeman was felled by a brick and was treated at a hospital.

The prevailing placards — "White Power," "White Trash," "The Zoo Wants You" — were held in the air by residents of the all-white community.

After the march, the Rev. Jesse Jackson told newsmen, "You ask me if it (the march) was successful. You don't get successful marches on the basis of how many people yelled or threw things at you. When we can go to any real estate office in Chicago and find an apartment or buy a house, that's what I call success."

STUDENT RALLY

King spoke to a student rally of 400 persons at a Southwest Side church shortly after the South Deering march.

"Not only are we going to walk in Cicero," King shouted, "We're going to work in Cicero and we're going to live in Cicero."

★ ★ ★

Christy S. Berkos, town attorney of Cicero, which hugs Chicago's western border, sent telegrams Tuesday to Gov. Otto Kerner, King and Albert A. Raby, convenor of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations.

The telegrams to the civil rights leaders expressed a desire for a meeting with city, county and state officials prior to Sunday's march.

NO PLANS

King said Tuesday night, "I have no plans to meet with the governor," he indicated some of his aides may attend meetings with Cicero officials.

Weathermen Mull Action on Hurricane

SAN JUAN, P. R. (UPI) — Hurricane Faith continued briskly across the Atlantic Ocean today while government weathermen pondered whether to try to tame its howling winds.

Weather Bureau officials in Washington and at the National Hurricane Center in Miami said it was still too early to decide whether "Project Stormfury" should go into effect.

Stormfury is an experimental program for seeding hurricanes with silver iodide crystals in an attempt to rob them of their strength.

Faith whipped up to hurricane strength yesterday and hurricane hunter planes flew into its eye, where winds gusted as high as 90 miles an hour.

★ ★ ★

The latest advisory issued by the San Juan weather bureau placed Faith 1,500 miles eastsoutheast of San Juan, near latitude 15.5 north longitude 44.3 west.

STRAIGHT WEST

It was reported to be moving straight west at about 20 miles an hour, and a slow increase in size and intensity was predicted.

Faith was still too far at sea to pose a threat to any land areas before noontime today, the advisory said.

Project Stormfury, operated jointly by the Navy and the weather bureau, proposes to cause heavy, energy - sapping condensation in hurricanes through bombardment with crystals of silver iodide.

★ ★ ★

However, project safety rules require that any hurricane which could strike a populated area within 36 hours must be left alone since there is a remote possibility the hurricane could become stronger rather than weaker under the treatment.

State Man in Line for Seaway Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he intends to nominate Miles S. McKee, 55, of Grosse Pointe, Mich., to the advisory board of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

McKee was born in Detroit and received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law in 1937. He is vice president of the Wisconsin & Michigan Steamship Co. and secretary of San Products, Inc.

★ ★ ★

On the advisory board, he replaces Dr. N. R. Danielian. Members of the board receive $50 per day when actually employed and are appointed for an indefinite term. The nomination must be approved by the Senate.

S. Viet Elections of World Importance

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

SAIGON — When or if Pham Dinh Tuan casts his ballot in South Viet Nam's national elections Sept. 11, he will be a participant in an event of extraordinary free world importance.

NEWSOM

The "if" also is important because Pham Dinh Tuan, a typical Vietnamese, who lives in Quang Nam Province just below Da Nang, may not live to see election day.

Or he may have been marched away from his village by Communist Viet Cong to prevent his presence at the polling place.

Or he may have remained at home, either out of apathy toward the election or fear of Viet Cong reprisal.

* * *

On Sept. 11, approximately 4.9 million South Vietnamese voters in the 43 provinces will be asked to elect 117 deputies to a constituent assembly which in turn will write a new constitution.

The result may follow the European parliamentary pattern with a premier who may be toppled or the United States system with a strong president elected directly by the people.

That alone makes the election of sufficient importance to South Viet Nam.

Extraordinary importance derives from the nature of the struggle between the U.S.-supported South Vietnamese government on the one hand and the Viet Cong and their Communist supporters on the other.

A strong voter turnout would destroy the Communist argument that the U.S. and South Vietnamese superiority in arms is more than offset by the Saigon government's political weakness.

It also would demonstrate voter faith in the system of free choice.

A light turnout, however, might provide a devastating measure of continuing Viet Cong population control despite the massive U.S. contribution, both in money and lives.

Therefore, both sides are going all out, with an advantage to the Communists that they can supplement persuasion with terrorism.

Airline Contract Flies in LBJ's Face

The tangible costs of the recent six-week airline strike total:

- 77,900 airline employes (including 35,400 strikers) idled, with a loss of $62 million in wages;
- $352-million loss in revenue to the five struck carriers, representing a profit of $26 million;
- 150,000 business and pleasure travelers grounded daily.
- $1.7-billion estimated loss to tourist and commercial businesses dependent on air travel.

But as appalling as are these tangible costs, the intangible price of the longest work stoppage in airline history could well be greater and more far-reaching.

The protracted negotiations saw the breakdown of union organizational structure and meaningful collective bargaining when members of the Machinists Union on July 31 repudiated a contract agreement made by their authorized agents. Additionally, it was a humiliating rebuff to the President of the United States who had gone on the air two days before to announce the concord toward which his administration had worked.

But even more serious from the long-range standpoint was the fracturing of the 3.2 per cent guideline for annual wage increases as a key factor in the Administration's program to hold the line against inflation.

The agreement finally approved that put the grounded planes back into the air carries an estimated $90 million price tag spread over three years — exceeding the guideline by 2.8 per cent and $25 million more than the amount proposed by the President's Emergency Board originally appointed to study the stalemate in negotiations.

If the lack of realistic moderation on the part of rank and file machinists and defiance of their elected leaders is a portent of the irresponsibility taking root in organized labor, there can be but one solution in protection of the public weal. It is legislation setting up enforced arbitration of management-employe issues in the Country's vital industries.

Two Republican Senators — Michigan's Robert Griffin and New York's Jacob Javits — have proposed a bipartisan inquiry into this growing national problem. Although little may come of it during an election year, the handwriting on the wall of monopolistic labor grows clearer.

The Time's Different, the Refrain's the Same

An editorial — slightly dated — which appeared in the Rockland County Messenger of Stony Point, N.Y., in August 1866 reads:

"The members of the U.S. Senate did a modest thing on Tuesday last in voting to double their salaries . . . This action is peculiarly interesting in view of the recent resolution providing for a special committee on retrenchment to cut down expenses of the government."

The amount of money that aroused the ire and satire of the writer was $2,000 — which raised annual senatorial pay from $3,000 to $5,000.

Things certainly have changed in a hundred years.

Or have they really?

'Genius Is but Great Aptitude for Patience'

Scientists may disagree, but many a motorist is convinced that the shortest interval of time known to man is the split second it takes a driver in the car behind to hit the horn if the car ahead doesn't leap forward at the first faint flush of the changing traffic light.

The next time you are honked by one of these hurry-uppers, keep your blood pressure down by being grateful that the honker has access to a mere automobile horn instead of an H-bomb.

Patience is, of course, one of man's greatest attributes, and those of us who were allotted a short supply will do well to work overtime at making up for nature's slight.

No one will ever know how many fights, feuds, crises, tragedies, disasters and even wars might have been averted if more people had been blessed with more patience.

★ ★ ★

Patience can't be bought, borrowed or stolen. But it can be acquired. And on the installment plan —a moment at a time.

Negro Leaders Split in Thinking

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Six Negro leaders, brought together to answer questions about the civil rights struggle and the kind of tactics they favored, revealed a wide split in their thinking Sunday.

MARLOW

This showed up particularly in questions about violence and nonviolence.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and leader of some recent Negro demonstrations in Chicago where whites reacted violently, said: "I believe firmly in nonviolence."

But King insisted demonstrations must continue, not because they solved problems by themselves but because they brought attention to the problems.

★ ★ ★

Floyd B. McKissick had another view. He is national director of the Congress of Racial Equality.

'SELF-DEFENSE'

He said "Nonviolence is something of the past. We believe in nonviolence providing nobody hits us. When somebody hits us, we believe in self-defense."

James H. Meredith, shot several months ago while leading a one-man march into Mississippi to try to prove Negroes could walk the highways safely there, said "nonviolence is incompatible with American ideas."

Asked if he meant that — if several whites or Negroes are killed and the law does not punish them — people ought to organize as vigilantes and go out and take the law into their own hands and commit violence, he replied: "That is exactly what I am saying, exactly."

★ ★ ★

At that point Stokely Carmichael interrupted to say: "If those won't do it, who is going to do it."

BLACK POWER

Carmichael, the foremost Negro advocate of "black power," is chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, perhaps the most militant, or at least the most militant-sounding, of the Negro groups.

"We Negroes," he said, "are the only people in this country who have to protect ourselves against our protection.

"Since the police forces of this country are not protecting us, then who is going to protect us? We are going to go down together, all of us."

★ ★ ★

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was not letting the NAACP name get wrapped up in violence or slogans of violence.

'LAW AND ORDER'

"I think we'll have to come to law and order," Wilkins said. "We all come to the courtroom and the law eventually. We find we can't solve it with rhetoric."

Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, said, "I find myself terribly distressed by a great deal of this conversation here today." He said of "black power": "We do not feel one gets pride or dignity or power simply by being white or being black."

Mirror, Mirror, On The Wall—

David Lawrence Says:

Bobby's Drive May Aid GOP

WASHINGTON — Perhaps the Republicans should begin to study the dividends they may get from the political maneuvering of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy as he boldly and aggressively seeks to attain a controlling voice inside the Democratic party throughout the country.

LAWRENCE

The Democratic senator successfully wielded his political influence inside the city of New York and throughout the Empire State. He knows a good deal about machine politics and bosses and will have a lot to say behind the scenes as to who is nominated for governor at the next Democratic State Convention to run against Gov. Rockefeller, Republican.

The senator isn't confining himself, however, to New York State. He has entered the national arena.

Nationwide publicity has just been bestowed on the senator as the Gallup Poll gave him a higher percentage in popularity than President Johnson got among Democrats and independents.

This is doubtless due to the fact that the senator hasn't had the responsibility of making the painful decisions on Viet Nam, inflation, labor-management relations, civil rights and the other topics that have caused considerable controversy among the voters.

ANOTHER REASON

But there's another possible reason — the aura that has enveloped the Kennedy name. This is an asset of undetermined amount, but it could affect a public-opinion poll at this time.

This doesn't mean that Kennedy is necessarily planning to make a contest against Mr. Johnson in 1968. Rather, it is likely that the senator's campaign managers will pit him then against Hubert Humphrey for the vice presidential nomination.

If Mr. Johnson's political fortunes are on the downward side in the summer of 1968, a strong movement could develop in favor of abandoning Humphrey for Sen. Kennedy.

This would be bitter medicine for Mr. Johnson.

'NOT BAD IDEA'

Already speculative voices are saying that, as a practical matter, it might not prove to be a bad idea.

Thus, Sen. Kennedy, it will be argued, might bring to the Johnson ticket some of the same strength his brother had.

It isn't altogether certain, of course, that President Johnson will actually be in such a desperate condition politically that he will have to snub the man he really wants — Vice President Humphrey — and accept Sen. Kennedy in order to win in the 1968 election.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Kennedy has everything to gain and nothing to lose by campaigning this summer and autumn, as he is doing in many states, to try to help 100 candidates for various offices.

INCREASED INFLUENCE

By going around the country and identifying himself with the local organizations, the New York senator increases his influence as a national figure inside the Democratic party.

★ ★ ★

Does all this mean that the Democrats may become so divided in 1968 or even in 1972 that the Republicans, besides benefiting by discontent over national issues, will also reap political profits from the factional fights that may emerge as a result of the aggressive quest of the presidency by another Kennedy?

Letters Let You Know What You've Missed

NEW YORK — A batch of mail sent to me care of the New York Journal American (of sainted memory!) has just been sprung. It had been interred against its will. It is now in hand and reads a bit like the Dead Sea Scrolls.

CONSIDINE

"We sincerely think that you would at least have the courtesy to reply to our letter (March 18) as we feel that we were bringing to your attention a gross misstatement that was made in your syndicate column," Howard C. Jacobs, president of the Autoline Oil Co. of Baltimore wrote last May 20.

Seems that I quoted the public relations director of the Mobil Oil Co. to the effect it was the oldest oil company in the U.S.

No so, fumed Mr. Jacobs. The William C. Robinson & Son Co., is the oldest. Started in Baltimore in 1832 and has been in business continuously since that time.

MISSES OUT ON CULTURE

Missed a jolly exhibition by 17 Latin American painters at the Time and Life Building on June 7, drat it, and the invitation on May 12 to become a member of the standing committee of the Friends of Music Theatre of Lincoln Center. The invitation caught me sitting, like a duck.

An angry soul named Robert Lacey Marsl, deeply offended by a piece I wrote about the final night of the old Metropolitan Opera House, sat down in April, dipped his quill in an interesting mixture of gall and honey, and scribbled:

"How sad that you were so bored with the Met.

"Save your cheap humor (?) for the mean and ugly in this world 'and cast no mud on golden wings of song.'

"Opera is the laughter of angels and glistens with tears of saintly faith; the heavenly sound of honest love that lifts a soul and reminds one that somewhere there is much more than a sordid world.

"Those who are deaf can enjoy the Beatles or the bleat of worms."

Press' Support of Police Elicits Readers' Praise

I want to thank you for your excellent newspaper. I am so thankful to have such a paper available. The editorial on upholding the Police makes me write. The most disturbing problem and major concern at this time is the breakdown and disrespect for law and order and the contributing race turmoil.

I particularly appreciate the entire editorial page. Also, special thanks for Whitney Young's column and for Dr. Peale's. We depend on you for good news coverage and unsensational presentation. We look to you for sound judgment, good and knowledgeable advice—in other words: for leadership.

John Lennon Has Many Staunch Defenders

I am writing in regard to the editorial under the title: "Beatles on the Skids . . ."

The author was unruly and abusive. The names he gave Mr. Lennon point to a strong dislike not only for Mr. Lennon, but the rest of his group. The words "half-baked dimwit," "dolt," and "crass stupidity," are all uncalled for. However, I think it fair to let you know that I plan to use this article for a magazine write-up.

PATTI DAVIS

John Lennon's remarks were taken out of context and completely misinterpreted. He was trying to compare Christianity with another subject — "for instance, rock 'n' roll." He was saying he was appalled by the way Christianity had been dying. He thought that preferring rock 'n' roll over Christianity was wrong. From now on, find out the facts before you speak.

'Lagoons for Waste May Contaminate Wells'

Perhaps the proposed automatic laundry for the Round Lake and Cedar Island Roads corner will have no effect on the shallow wells in the immediate vicinity; perhaps the pumping of 8,000 gallons of water a day will have no effect on the water table governing our lake, which is about 900 feet from the proposed site; perhaps the open pits into which this dirty water will be drained will not smell—we have been told they will be the garden spot of the area.

Perhaps everyone in this area will become millionaires overnight. I think any of these developments is as likely as the other.

MRS. R. V. MORELL
UNION LAKE

A group of White Lake Township residents has protested the construction of a laundry on residential property without proper zoning or a building permit. The owner plans to dispose of the waste into three open ground lagoons which may contaminate local residents' wells in time. These lagoons will probably be a fertile area for insects and bacteria and in the summer will undoubtedly smell.

Township officials say the plan for disposal was okayed by the Michigan Water Resources Commission and by Oakland County Health Department. They didn't say that both state and county had given their approval pending township approval. Do we want open sewers in this township?

I believe we should demand that township government stop installations like this by getting an ordinance passed to prevent construction of any business which would be likely to contaminate a large volume of water until city sewers are available.

Question and Answer

I'm new in this part of the country, and don't know the geography, but someone told me to go south to get to Canada from Detroit. This doesn't sound right to me.

REPLY

Look at a globe or a map and you'll see that part of Canada juts out and down into the Great Lakes, and Windsor is indeed south of Detroit.

Swimming Dangers

Chicago Sun-Times

Drowning has taken the lives of more than 100 Chicago area residents since the American Red Cross recorded the first of the season in April.

Through Friday, the total was 101; of these, 17 died in boating accidents, 10 drowned during outings outside the Chicago area, the rest drowned while swimming — or trying to swim — in Cook, DuPage, Lake, Will and Kane counties.

★ ★ ★

In more than 90 per cent of the deaths that did not involve boating, two basic causes were involved: the victim either could not swim, or was in unauthorized, unguarded waters where no emergency help was available. For instance, there have been four deaths this year in Cook County Forest Preserve water. Two of the victims were in areas off-limits to swimmers, a third could not swim.

★ ★ ★

Five persons have died in Wolf Lake, which, although it has received a cleanliness seal of approval from pollution experts, is a state park where swimming is illegal and where there are no lifeguards. Custodians report that the no-swimming signs not only are ignored, but frequently used as pegs for swimmers' clothes.

★ ★ ★

By contrast, there has been only one drowning this year in areas patrolled by the Chicago Park District, which has 18 major beaches, 15 street-end beaches and 60 pools. The district reports that in 1965, when 9,000,000 persons used its beaches and pools, there were no deaths at all in patrolled areas. There were 900 rescues.

★ ★ ★

The district's water safety experts believe virtually all drownings can be prevented if a few rules are followed: Learn to swim, swim only at guarded beaches and pools and obey the regulations, keep an eye on children.

The other rules are matters of common sense. Children, for instance, if left unwatched, can drown in bathtubs. One died this year in a portable back yard pool.

The number of drownings add up to a tragic toll, and the deaths so often are unnecessary. Respect for water, and good judgment, could save countless lives.

But Not So Final . . .

Mushroom Powder Able to Be Stored

By Science Service

PHILADELPHIA — A dried mushroom powder that can be stored at room temperature for as long as nine months without loss in flavor has been developed by scientists with the U.S. Department of Agriculture here.

The new mushroom product can compete with imports in price and quality. It is ideally suited for use in many prepared foods, such as sauces, soups and gravies, and as a seasoning in the home kitchen, according to USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

The powder is made by washing and pulping fresh mushrooms, drying the pulp in air on a double-drum dryer, then grinding the dry flakes into powder.

The product is light brown in color and has the characteristic flavor of Agaricus campestris, the only commercially important variety of mushroom commonly cultivated in the United States.

PLANT REQUIRES

A commercial plant producing 253 pounds of the powder a day would require about $57,000 of fixed capital investment. Selling price of the powder would range about $4.50 per pound when using mushrooms of good quality and condition.

Shuns Military Alliances

India Cool to United Asian Defense Try

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A U.S. idea of shifting to Asian shoulders more of the burden of defending Asia is igniting no enthusiasm in India.

In a news conference last week, U.S. Ambassador Chester Bowles recalled the "vast and costly" U.S. effort in Asia since World War II, tracing American defense of South Korea and Formosa, the rushed assistance to India during its 1962 border war with China, and the bloodshed in Viet Nam.

He expressed hope for the day when "India and the non-Communist nations of Asia will themselves organize an effective effort to assure that the tragedy of Viet Nam is not repeated elsewhere."

Bowles suggested India could regard China as a threat to all Asia, not only a menace along the 2,500-mile Indian frontier. By cooperating, he said, India, Pakistan, Japan and Indonesia could form an effective counterbalance to China.

BEST DEFENSE

Foreign Minister Swaran Singh told Parliament this week that a united Asian effort to wipe out poverty and spur economic development was the best defense against Chinese expansionism.

"Military alliances and ideological blocs" are not the best answer to China, he said.

A highly placed official said New Delhi's coolness toward such proposals as Bowles' is based on its reluctance to compromise India's membership on the International Control Commission.

That commission was formed in 1954 to supervise peace in Southeast Asia after the Indochina war. The commission has been ineffective but Prime Minister Indira Gandhi feels it could play a role in a peace effort in Viet Nam.

LEADERS WARY

That isn't all that makes Indian leaders wary of getting involved elsewhere in Asia, however.

Many officials say India's economic and military systems can't stand new responsibilities.

And India clearly feels it should not get mixed up in anything that smacks of U.S. sponsorship. Officials believe this would destroy India's "neutrality" and irretrievably close the few doors now open to Indians in North Viet Nam.

As for cooperating with Pakistan, India considers itself threatened by its neighbor and long has been suspicious of Washington's efforts to fashion a joint defense against communism in South Asia.

REGIONAL COOPERATION

Elsewhere in Asia, there are signs of developing regional cooperation. Diplomats of nine non-Communist nations met in June at Seoul, South Korea. In July, Thailand, the Philippines and Malaysia formed the association of Southeast Asia.

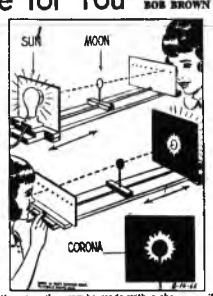
Car Gas Tank Gummed Up

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Fireman Robert W. Brock got a call Tuesday night. Gasoline was leaking from the tank of a car.

Brock responded, couldn't find the owner, slapped his chewing gum over the hole in the gasoline tank and returned to the station house.

Science for You

By BOB BROWN



PROBLEM: The Sun's Eclipse And Corona.

NEEDED: Wood, cardboard, black paint, wire, a dowel, electric bulb in a socket with the cord attached, and tools.

DO THIS: Assemble as shown. The dowel slides through a hole in the middle block so that it can pull the wood frame holding the light back and forth. The small holes should be about 1/16 of an inch in diameter; they can be made with a sharp pencil.

WHAT TO SEE: Begin by looking through one of the holes near the edge of the card, and the bright "sun" can be seen. As you look through holes nearer the center of the card the eclipse appears. When looking through the center hole the "moon" hides the sun, but the "corona" may be seen.

The corona in this case is due to diffraction of light in the atmosphere around the "moon." The center hole, moon and sun must be in line for this.

Before the experiment begins the adjustments must be made so that the round cardboard moon exactly hides the hole in the large card where the bulb shines through. In the author's model the moon is 1¼ inches in diameter, and the sun hole is 2 inches. The moon is on a wire and may be adjusted up and down to align it with the holes and the sun.

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN

Heart Rupture Kills Bushman

Idol of Silent Screen Was 'King of Movies'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Francis X. Bushman, who was called "King of the Movies" when the silent screen was crowded with classic performers, died Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

Bushman was a man who earned millions, lost them — and his fans — after his family life was discovered, and still was able to say the fun he had was worth ever penny.

He was a man who traveled in a gold-plated automobile, let 300 Great Danes romp on a 480-acre estate, then moved in leaner years to a stucco house in the suburbs.

★ ★ ★

He was a man who once needed 18 secretaries to answer his fan mail, then needed radio work to support himself.

HEART RUPTURE

Bushman died Tuesday at 83 as he was pouring a cup of morning coffee. The Los Angeles County coroner's office, in an autopsy report, attributed his death to a "rupture of the heart."

★ ★ ★

"His passing marks the fall of one of the landmarks of Hollywood history," said Charlton Heston, president of the Screen Actors Guild. Heston starred in the remake of "Ben-Hur," a film Bushman made in 1925.

Bushman's movie career began in Chicago in 1911. It lasted, off and on, until his death.

★ ★ ★

"That he died with a movie role was the beautiful part of his passing," said his widow, Iva, 63. He was to have appeared in his first Western.

400 MOVIES

He made more than 400 movies, more than any other actor, living or dead.

Bushman's biographers said he earned between $6 million and $10 million at the height of his fame as a rugged leading man. Billboards proclaimed his profile the "handsomest face in the world."

★ ★ ★

A national poll elected him "King of the Movies" in an era when Charlie Chaplin, William S. Hart and Douglas Fairbanks Sr. were established stars.

He married four times. Leaving his first wife nearly ended his career in 1918.

SECRET MARRIAGE

His contract stipulated that his marriage be kept secret. When he sued for divorce to marry his leading lady, Beverly Bayne, his fans learned that their romantic idol had five children — and they deserted him by millions for a newcomer named Rudolph Valentino.

Valentino, coincidentally, died 40 years ago Tuesday.

Japanese Seize Raw Opium Haul From Freighter

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UPI)— Narcotics agents yesterday seized 47½ pounds of raw opium from a Pakistani freighter. They said it was valued at $2 million and was the largest single haul of illegal narcotics in Japan's history.

★ ★ ★

The vessel Sipsah arrived in this port last Thursday from Singapore, Hong Kong and Kobe. It departed Karachi on June 24.

Authorities during the weekend confiscated 23½ pounds of raw opium from the same vessel and took two crewmen into custody. Agents said the opium was hidden in various sections of the cargo ship, including the pilot's house, officers' lounge and empty officers' quarters.

Rocketry Tests Set by Soviets

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union today announced the start of a two-month series of space rocket tests in the Pacific.

The first rocket will be launched Friday toward a target 80 miles wide about halfway between American-owned Wake and Midway Islands.

The rocket series will be Russia's third in the Pacific Ocean this year.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said the tests, ending Oct. 25, will check out "booster rockets."

* * *

It gave no details of the kind of booster rockets. But the Soviets are known to be trying to develop ever-larger space rockets to put up "orbital buses" carrying six or more men.

SOVIET ARSENAL

Rockets now in the Soviet arsenal are strong enough to launch the 13-ton "Proton" Sputnik—until recently the heaviest satellite ever launched.

But Western experts here said these rockets, powerful as they are, have not been "man-rated," that is, proven to be large enough to launch a manned Proton-type spaceship.

The experts added that any Soviet attempt to land a man on the moon and bring him back also must await development of larger rockets.

* * *

In recent years, the Soviets have carried out an average of two or three Pacific Ocean rocket tests each year. Often, two tests have run simultaneously.

SERIES STARTS

One test series started late last December and ran into the new year. Another series began April 25 and ended July 31.

Tass said the new tests would involve rockets fired from Soviet soil into the Pacific Ocean at a latitude of 26 degrees, 50 minutes, north and a longitude of 176 degrees, 10 minutes, east.

It urged all other nations to ensure safety by keeping their planes and ships out of this area from noon until midnight, local time, each day.

The bullseye was at least 3,000 miles from Soviet soil, and probably up to 5,000 miles from the launching pad.

Soviet rockets are believed to have a range of at least 7,500 miles.

Doubts Bones Marquette's

ST. IGNACE (AP)—Michigan State University archaeologist Lyle Stone has put a damper on speculation that a skeleton found in a grave in this Upper Michigan community was that of Father Jacques Marquette, famed Jesuit priest and explorer.

Stone said Tuesday he is "almost certain" the bones found last weekend were those of Indians.

There had been speculation the remains might have included those of Father Marquette, who lived from 1637-1675 and founded a mission at St. Ignace.

Stone has unearthed three burial places at St. Ignace. He said one grave held the bones of five persons, another held the remains of one person and the third was empty.

LUDINGTON BURIAL

The archaeologist said he believed Father Marquette was buried originally in the Ludington area, southwest of St. Ignace in Lower Michigan, and that his remains later were dug up, with part of them going to a museum "somewhere in the United States" and part to a still undiscovered grave near St. Ignace.

MONEY CLIPS....by Mort Reed

Magazine model

The Jefferson nickel is the first United States coin design ever selected in an open competition. One of the requirements for each contestant was that he use an authentic likeness of Jefferson in the submitted works. Sculptor Felix O. Schlag offered the winning design, topping 390 other artists.

Schlag did considerable research on Thomas Jefferson and as the deadline approached, was beginning to wonder if he would ever find the one portrait that would help him decide finally on his design. After many days of hunt and search, Schlag visited a secondhand bookstore in Chicago and browsed around the used-magazine section hoping for a miracle—and it happened. He opened an old paperback and found a portrait of Jefferson inside. It was just the one he needed.

The reverse design of the Jefferson nickel is a front elevation of Jefferson's home, Monticello. This subject was the choice of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, a great admirer of Jefferson.

It is interesting to note how the numeral three was involved in the life of Thomas Jefferson. He was the third child of his parents, the third Thomas in his family and he attended three schools. He was the third member of the cabinet, he served three years as our third ambassador to France and was our third president. He wrote the Declaration of Independence at the age of 33. He created the three greatest ideals in history—Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness—and he disliked three things—royalty, nobility and fanaticism.

The designer's initials were never placed on the Jefferson nickel but a movement by an interested group of numismatists caused the initials FS to be placed on all future five-cent pieces.

Saturn Shot Has Problems

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The United States is aiming toward the first launch of its giant Saturn 5 moon rocket early next year, but the effort is not without problems.

The most serious continues to be the middle section of the three-stage, 365-foot space machine that is five times more powerful than any the nation has yet flown.

According to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), the million-pound-thrust second stage for the first Saturn 5 is three months behind schedule. It is the pacing item in the moon rocket's development.

Informed sources say the initial launch for the Saturn 5 now is tentatively scheduled for late next March, rather than January, the previous target.

★ ★ ★

NASA officially refuses to commit itself to a launch date for the first shot in the 15-launch series, saying only that it is scheduled for sometime during the first half of 1967.

CONFIDENT ENOUGH

The agency has been confident enough, however, to schedule the second and third Saturn 5 flights for 1967.

The third of the Saturns will carry its first manned Apollo ship on an earth-orbital rehearsal of moonflight operations. The manned lunar landing mission could be made with the fifth Saturn 5, now tentatively set for launch in the spring of 1968.

The fate of the Saturn 5 firing schedules, however, depends largely on what happens during the next month or two at an isolated test center near Bay St. Louis in southern Mississippi.

★ ★ ★

It is there that the 81-foot second stage, called the S2, faces its toughest tests — two 6½-minute ground firings to insure its five hydrogen-fueled engines and supporting network of plumbing and electrical equipment and tanks are ready for flight.

The unit is now set to arrive at the Cape in early December several weeks behind schedule.

It is almost impossible for scientists to predict earthquakes, but they can indicate regions in which they are most likely to occur.

Camera Angles

Quality Isn't Costly

By IRVING DESFOR
AP Newsfeatures

It was enlightening to meet John J. Loughlin, the 66-year-old bachelor who takes great pictures with an ancient box camera.

His photographs from a $1 camera were on exhibition at the Advertising Club of New York a short time ago.

It brought to mind — by contrast — the topic of photo gadgeteers who devote most of their time to acquiring the latest camera equipment but who seldom take pictures.

Some of Loughlin's box-camera experiences were related on a television show emceed by Bill Cullen who happens to be a practicing camera fan in his own right.

It gave Cullen an opportunity later to tell the story of a wealthy photo hobbyist whose equipment far exceeded his ability to take passable pictures.

LATEST GEAR

The man owned the latest in still and movie cameras along with accessory lenses of different focal lengths, all lying in state in elaborate foam lined gadget cases.

Though he never fully understood how to use them properly, he liked to show them off while he made an attempt to take pictures.

On returning from a round-the-world trip with his wife, the gadgeteer invited some friends over to see his slides.

They watched in silent embarrassment through several dozen dull pictures when a bright scenic slide suddenly came into view.

'GOOD ONE'

"Hey!" a guest exclaimed in relief, "now there's a good one!"

"Oh," said the host apologetically. "That's one bought in Istanbul when the film in my camera jammed.

"But don't worry, the camera was unjammed later because here's Emma in front of the Blue Mosque. At least I think it's the mosque . . . that looks like the tip of it sticking up behind her shoulder.

* * *

It's been said before and it'll be repeated often: a good photograph is made not by a camera but by the person behind it.

REFLECTED IN RESULT

The care, the effort and the thinking of the person is reflected in the result.

A photograph from a box camera or an expensive 'Superfiex' can be interesting or routine, imaginative or dull, story-telling or meaningless, exciting or devoid of feeling.

It depends on the person's choice of subject matter, selection of camera angle and decision as to the precise instant of shooting.

* * *

The cost of the equipment is not the important factor.

HAVE PURPOSE

This doesn't mean that a camera fan should not get a telephoto or a super wide-angle lens or other specialized accessory.

But he shouldn't get it merely because he likes the chrome finish or to look impressive.

He should get it because he has some picture purpose in mind and it will be easier or help him get a better picture.

* * *

Bill Cullen sums it up this way for camera fans: "If someone were to ask you what you do in your spare time, could you in all honesty say, 'I'm a photographer.' Or would you have to say, 'I'm a collector of photographic equipment'?"

Aussies Eye Bubble Wall as Silt Barrier

By Science Service

SYDNEY, Australia — A bubble barrier may be created across the entrance to Newcastle Harbor, New South Wales, to stop the buildup of silt.

The state government is investigating the novel scheme which, if successful, would save about $1 million yearly.

At present the Public Works Department dredges up to four million tons of silt each year from the bed of the harbor to keep the channels open for free movement of shipping.

At the department's hydraulic laboratory, a full scale model of the Lower Hunter Valley has been constructed.

The model also simulates actual flood conditions to test the effectiveness of a major flood mitigation program.

'Hidden Language Masks the Intelligence of Slum Children'

PITTSBURGH (AP) —All the hip frogs and foxes are way out to Smokey the Bear.

But the frogs and foxes — boys and girls — aren't way out, says a Pittsburgh educator. They're simply speaking a "hidden language" that Smokey the Bear — teacher — doesn't understand.

* * *

"It's the product of creativity and imagination," says John Brewer, assistant director of compensatory education for the City's Board of Public Education.

Brewer — a balding Negro who grew up in Pittsburgh's slums and has spent his professional life teaching in them — says the "hidden language" masks the true intelligence of slum children.

* * *

Because words like "muska" and "dime dropper" don't show up on middle class-oriented intelligence tests, slum children often do poorly in the tests.

* * *

"Tests show these kids to be 4,000 to 5,000 words below the minimum vocabulary necessary for elementary school," Brewer says. "But we have found 3,200 words, including idioms, in their vocabularies, and all you have to do is find the transfers" — or translations.

* * *

"We accuse these children of coming out of a vacuum," Brewer says, "but there's a lot there, and their language enables them to survive in a closed ghetto."

Brewer has compiled a list of 5,000 slum idioms, many of which sound strange to middle-class ears.

It's not too hard to envision "bread" as money, or a "pearl pusher" as a toothbrush, but some of the words were born in the slums and their derivations can be obscure to an outsider.

A dirty person, for example, is a "muska," short for muscatel.

* * *

"The lowest form of complete human deterioration is a hard-core wino," Brewer explains. "These winos will jump in hokey piles — junk heaps — to find an empty bottle they can sell for a penny. They find enough bottles and they can buy some muscatel, the cheapest wine they can get."

To inform on someone is called "dropping the dime," and Brewer explains it this way:

"When you go into a phone booth to call the police, what do you do? You drop a dime into phone, right?"

SOME OTHERS

Some other slum words compiled by Brewer:

Rays — parents, a source of warmth; hence, a loving term.

Knuckle drill — a fight.

What key you in? — whose side are you on?

Cold plate — revenge.

Bucket of paint — makeup.

Fine peeler — magistrate.

Tiny Tim — a mouse, or mousey person.

Big cream — evil.

DEFY ALL ATTEMPTS

Some words defy all attempts to trace their derivation, or even to spell them.

"One is pronounced something like "yakinoma." You can spell it any way you like, because it's part of an oral, unwritten language.

Brewer says a yakinoma is a classy female, "a girl who's got everything working for her, and she's going to take you for a ride."

The hidden language, Brewer says, gives slum children a "feeling of unity, a oneness. Their life is hard. It's cruel. This is one of the protective devices, an outlet."

* * *

Brewer says the idiom also indicates that slum children are much more intelligent than many educators credit them with being.

Some months are better than others for new car buying: like August.

Some cars are better buys than others: like Chevrolet.

What a way to round out the summer. In an Impala Sport Sedan that you bought in August (smart shopper, you).

And there's never been a better Chevrolet

About August: August is the month your Chevrolet dealer picks to offer the best buys he can. It's the month he has a wide selection of models, colors and extra equipment right on hand. So you can just pick out the Chevrolet you want, with exactly what you want on it, and in a matter of hours you're enjoying driving again. It makes August feel like summer just started.
About Chevrolet: Take the Impala Sport Sedan you see here. This has got to be one of the best buys on the road. It rides like a charm. That's because Impala has Full Coil suspension and a stance that's really wide. Foam-cushioned seats for you to relax in. Deep-twist carpeting to please your feet. Rugged Body by Fisher to make Impala sound. Plus eight standard safety features, like back-up lights, for your added protection. And as for Impala's looks . . . well, just look. And then look at the attractive price . . . now, right now, at your Chevrolet dealer's.

This Column Talks About Alcohol Use

By ELIZABETH L. POST

I am printing excerpts from a letter I received today to clarify my position on the drinking of alcoholic beverages.

Q: In your column, frequent mention is made of the serving of cocktails, and other alcoholic beverages. Even I, who sees little of it, can't help but sense the concern in this country in regard to alcoholism.

I really believe that the majority of your readers believe in, and enjoy, total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages, knowing full well that "abstainers never become alcoholics."

We are offended, and concerned by what I think of as cheap, sneaky advertising of the liquor industry in the column, "The Right Thing to Do."

A: I have repeatedly pointed out that a great many people prefer not to drink alcoholic beverages. I have never recommended that anyone who does not wish to, should drink liquor.

In suggesting beverages for special occasions, I have always insisted that soft drinks should be offered whenever wines or liquors are served.

Neither have I claimed that it is not proper or correct to drink liquor; that is a moral or religious question up to the individual; and as such is not in my field.

The subject which does lie within my province is: How to serve any beverage properly, whether it contains alcohol or not.

May I also point out that when alcoholic beverages are served and enjoyed intelligently — that is, in moderation—it is a deterrent to, rather than an encouragement of, overindulgence.

With Connie Vanderlind (left), daughter of the John H. Vanderlinds is Beatrice Tobi of Delft, Holland who is staying with the Vanderlinds of Hammond Lake and Valeria Cavazzuti of Piacenza, Italy, who is houseguest of the Whitney Carnahans of Nancywood Court. Both girls, who will attend the University of Michigan in the fall, are currently staying in this area under the Experiment of International Living program.

International Relations Tested

The Vanderlind family in Pontiac is obviously Dutch in origin. But the mother of E. K. Vanderlind, South Johnson Street, was a native of Italy.

He has a special interest, therefore, in two visitors this week at the Hammond Lake home of his son, John.

A houseguest for several weeks has been Beatrice Tobi of The Netherlands. Valeria Cavazutti of Italy has made at least two visits to the Vanderlind home since her arrival in the States.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

Both girls are here to attend the University of Michigan and are staying with local families under the Experiment in International Living program.

A reporter from the women's department interviewed the two foreign students in the Vanderlind home.

Vibrant first impressions of our country by someone from abroad are always full of surprises. Two girls visiting our country for the purpose of study are staying in the area until classes begin at the University of Michigan.

Beatrice Tobi of Delft, Holland is staying with the John H. Vanderlinds of East Hammond Lake Road.

Valeria Cavazzuti of Piacenza, Italy (near Milan) is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Carnahan of Nancywood Court.

* * *

The girls have been placed by the Experiment in International Living program, the purpose of which is to acquaint visiting students with a month of American home-life before they begin their studies in an American university or college.

We asked the girls what their impressions of America were thus far and received some unexpected answers. The most outstanding thing to both of them was the amount of space in which Americans live.

Our back yards, which we take for granted, impress them with their spaciousness. In Italy, as well as in The Netherlands, land is at a premium and those who are fortunate enough to have their own yards have very small ones.

FARMING

Beatrice is especially interested in our way of farming. In Holland the majority of farmers live within the villages and go to their farm property in the country which has been leased or rented from a landowner. Farmers who own and live on their own land are very few.

Valeria surprised us by saying that New York did not particularly impress her as being the vast hustling, bustling city it is supposed to be.

* *

Her native Milan is also a large and fairly modern city.

Unlike New York, however, the people who work in Milan usually live there as well and the antics that accompany getting to the job on time are a bit more frantic than even New York with its commuters.

We asked if the "newness" of America was strange for them. Valeria, laughing, said that she could not understand how any of us knew where we were going as all of our streets looked the same.

Beatrice, who is a staff member at the Leiden University, Holland's oldest at some 400 years, said that American towns look quite similar. European cities and villages, she tells us, have a quaint little character all of their own which has been preserved from generation to generation. The modern additions have simply gone up around the old rather than in place of it.

* * *

America, on the other hand, has not been around long enough to boast ancient structures. Frequently the best way to build a new building here is to remove an old one.

This tends to make all of our cities resemble one another with architecture of the time.

Beatrice's host, John Vanderlind, is a psychologist which gives him a special point of reference to his visitors. Both are majoring in that field.

Valeria has a doctorate and will do research in this country on an AAUW grant. Beatrice will do post-graduate work made possible by a Fullbright Scholarship.

The Vanderlind children, Connie, who will attend Eastern Michigan University in the fall, John, 12, and the twins Edward and Jay, 4, have found their houseguest enjoyable. She takes active part in sailing and swimming with all in nearby Hammond Lake.

JUDO EXPERT

Beatrice has a black belt in judo to add to her accomplishments and only recently gave the children a thorough but gentle demonstration. We asked if her being small and feminine made judo more difficult for her and discovered it did not.

Slight Valeria, when asked

Mention One Thing at A Time

Be Frank With Mother

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have always been taught to respect my elders, by my patience is wearing thin. My husband's mother is living with us now, and she really is welcome, but some of the little annoying things she does is beginning to get us down.

ABBY

For Instance, she gets the newspaper first and tears it all apart. She even works the crossword puzzles while my husband sizzles. She sits in his favorite chair and tunes in the TV program she likes. When one of us is on the phone she will ask later what the other party said as she could hear only "our" half of it. She enters into all family discussions and takes the children's side if we correct them.

* * *

Is there some way we can let her know she's out of line without creating a major battle? Or should we overlook it?

L.A.

DEAR L.A.: No don't overlook it. When petty grievances accummulate they are bound to erupt explosively later on. Mention one thing at a time, calmly and kindly. But your husband should do it. She's his mother.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I don't have a sense of humor, but while walking down the street I saw a sign in the window of a ladies' fur store which said, "A small down payment will hold any garment in this window until your husband does something unforgivable." How does that grab you? It made me see red!

SAW RED

* * *

DEAR SAW: To paraphrase Goethe, the famed German poet and philosopher, "What a man laughs at is a fairly accurate key to his true character." And to that I could add, "—and also what makes him see red."

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MUST KNOW IMMEDIATELY" IN BATON ROUGE: The law changes rather abruptly, but the last time I checked, the legal age for marriage in the state of Louisiana was 12 for the girl and 14 for the boy — but only with parental consent. Without, it's 16 for the girl and 18 for the boy. Better check this out with your local authorities.

Young People Return After Summer Abroad

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Just imagine the happy reunion the many young people from this area experienced last Sunday when they boarded the plane at Copenhagen and headed home.

Under the program Youth for Understanding they had spent the summer in Europe.

Sue Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Baldwin had been in Finland as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vide Winqvist in the city of Heinola which is about 80 miles from Helsinki.

Sue traveled with her family in Northern Finland, Lapland and to the Arctic Circle. Her enthusiasm for the tremendous forests and beautiful blue lakes that she saw in these regions is overwhelming.

Linda Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson Jr., Kris VandenBerg, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg, and Lora Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McLean Jr. have all been in Sweden.

Unfortunately we could not reach Linda by telephone. Kris who is an only child and who stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Alstromer had a new experience to be in a family where there were six children.

She now wishes to learn Swedish and this course will be available at Oakland University in September.

Kris is happy about her visit with her former teacher at Kingswood, Mrs. Lillian Holmes who now makes her home in Sweden.

Lora was with Mr. and Mrs. Nils Broberg and their two daughters in the capital city of Sweden, Stockholm. But only two and a half weeks were spent in Sweden as the entire family motored to the continent wher Lora had a chance to see Italy, France, Switzerland and Denmark.

Thom Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner Jr. was with Mr. and Mrs. Lars Skoglund at Agnesberg which is nearby Gothenburg.

Here he had two foster brothers and a sister. The family made trips by car so that Thom could see various parts of Sweden.

On the East coast he met Linda Wilson in Sundsvall.

Thom says, he liked the Swedish food, but on the first of August he announced that he must curtail his appetite in order to be in form for practice at Seaholm High School upon his return home.

Other Seaholm students on the plane were Jay McAuliffe, Penny Fleming and Vivian Ross who had also been in Sweden.

Attendants were Suzanne Smith, Carol Button and Cheryl Mussen; Kenneth Wilson, LeRoy Welch, Robert Turpin, Michael Mengyan and Daniel Curry.

The Steven Michel Hutchinsons (Laural Lee McCurdy) are in northern Michigan following recent vows and reception in the Memorial Baptist Church. Parents are the Gaston C. McCurdy s, Silverstone Lake; Leonard E. Hutchinson, Anoka Drive and Mrs. Garnetta Squires, Durant Street. Attending the bride who wore white lace over peau satin were her sister Barbara, Mrs. Dennis Coz and Holli Hutchinson. With David Yarber, were Gerald Vaden and Dennis Coz.

Area Couple Are Wed by Cousin of the Bride

The Richard Bruce Sheldons (Marilyn Jo Klingler) left for a tour of Upper Michigan after recent vows and reception in Christ Lutheran Church.

Rev. Harold Hammar of Garden City performed the afternoon rite for his cousin, daughter of the Roy C. Klinglers of Sarena Drive and the son of the Donald G. Sheldons of Clarkston.

Venise lace enhanced the bride's Empire sheath gown and Watteau train of white linen worn with illusion veil. White carnations centered her bouquet of lilies of the valley and ivy.

Linda Johnson was maid of honor and Mrs. William Wilton, bridesmaid.

Best man was Roger Richley with James Sheldon, George Klingler and John Koskela seating the guests.

Embroidered white organza over taffeta fashioned an Empire sheath gown and Watteau train for the bride who wore an illusion veil and carried Stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas Hoffman was matron of honor. Sharon Krueger and Thurlow Beecroft of Milford were bridesmaids along with Mrs. Robert Sisson, Royal Oak.

With best man, Karl Krueger, were ushers Lawson and Kurt Letzring, South Lyon; Delvin Jones, Minneapolis, and William Beecroft.

The couple who are graduates of Michigan State University left on a motor trip to California.

John DePauws to Host Dinner

The John A. DePauws of Argyle Avenue will host the rehearsal dinner for their son John and his fiancee, Kay Christel Kendrick, who will speak vows Saturday in the Central Methodist Church.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold F. Kendrick of Cherokee Road are parents of Kay, honoree at a recent kitchen shower and luncheon given by Mrs. Cecil McCallum also of Cherokee Road.

Mrs. Robert Machiela of Denby Drive gave a bridal shower and Mrs. Robert Hancock and Mrs. Leonard DePauw entertained at a linen shower.

College friends of Miss Kendrick honored her with a shower at Central Michigan University.

Miss Butler, M.P. Terry Are Wed

Altar vases of white delphinium graced All Saints Episcopal Church in Saugatuck for the recent marriage of Charlotte Louise Butler to Michael Peter Terry of Troy.

* * *

Reception in the Hamilton Country Club followed the candlelight rite performed by Rev. Verne Hohl.

* * *

The Wilford A. Butlers of Holland and the Paul A. Terrys, West Long Lake Road, are parents of the newlyweds who left for Mackinac Island.

CREPE BOW

A Dior bow of ivory crepe held a bouffant illusion veil for the bride who appeared in a lace-appliqued sheath gown and court train of matching crepe. She carried ivory cymbidium orchids, ivory Sweetheart roses and camellia leaves.

* * *

Honor attendants were Gail Butler and Mrs. Henry Mass, with bridesmaids, Mrs. Bruce Van Dyke, Holland; Mrs. Timothy McDermott and Mrs. Robert Parent, Royal Oak; and Sue Mieras, East Lansing.

Douglas Cronkright was best man with ushers William Butler, Paul Schweitzer, Frederick Carr, George Arbaugh and James Zachman.

* * *

The couple who will reside in Troy are alumni of Michigan State University. He attended Stanford Law School and MSU graduate business school.

Strips of onion, cooked in butter, and a dash of thyme will add interest to cooked carrots.

Charlotte Louise Butler, daughter of the Wilford A. Butlers of Holland and Michael Peter Terry of Troy, son of the Paul A. Terrys, West Long Lake Road, were wed recently in All Saints Episcopal Church, Saugatuck.

T. L. Baughs Honeymoon in North

The Thomas Lloyd Baughs (Melanie Viella Robert) who were wed recently in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester, are on a northern wedding trip.

A reception in Greenfield's Birmingham Restaurant followed the evening rite performed by Rev. J. Douglas Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick E. Roberts of Rochester and the Vincent L. Baughs of Orchardale Road, Avon Township are the newlyweds' parents.

* *

The bride appeared in lace-appliqued white organza over taffeta with cape back extending into a Watteau train. She carried white roses with ivy.

With honor maid Mary Kay Adams of Lachine were bridesmaids Pamela Roberts, Karen Baugh, and Mrs. Kenneth Kremm.

Best man was Paul Parets, Melvindale with ushers John Dietrich, South Lyon, Kenneth Kremm and Alvin Laurence John Baugh served as acolyte.

The bride is a senior at Central Michigan University and her husband is a graduate student at Eastern Michigan University. They will reside in Flint.

Melanie Viella Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick E. Roberts of Rochester, and Thomas Lloyd Baugh, son of the Vincent L. Baughs of Orchardale Road were wed recently in St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester.

Home Dyes Taking on New Ease

This year Rit is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Before its arrival on the market, home dyeing was a joyous event.

Just witness the ladies shown in the picture happily participating in a village dyeing bee, or this typical recipe: Use approximately one peck of plant material, or one pound of nut hulls, wood or bark.

Provide a kettle large enough to hold at least four gallons of water and a pound of wool, without crowding. Also have one or more tubs or pails on hand for rinsing. Use rain water if possible.

Add rust from old nails or kettles or "chamberlye" to set the color. Result . . . such fetching shades as drab, snuff, liver and sad-color.

* * *

Actually, by the time the ladies' picture was taken (About 1896) some synthetic dyes were available; a synthetic mauve was discovered in 1856. But dyeing was still quite a task.

Then in 1915, Charles C. Huffman set to work in a Chicago shop with one enamel pot and a new idea.

By 1916 his idea was made a reality and he began to sell Rit soap cake, a home dye that washed and dyed all at the same time. And snuff and drab were replaced with such colors as emerald green, canary yellow and red.

Rit has now passed from soap cake to soap flakes to all purpose powder. And now in its golden year Rit has introduced a liquid dye.

The all-day dyeing bee is dyeing at home, like all the gone forever and now dye-other at-home projects, takes a minimum of time and very little effort.

Former Residents Celebrate Date

An open house Sunday in Central Methodist Church marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Brown, formerly of Pontiac, who now live in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Their children who hosted the party, are Calvin and Jonn Brown and Mrs. Warren Dalley of Henderson, Ky. There are four grandchildren.

Try cooling your wrists with cold water when weather is extremely hot. See how quickly you have the feeling of being cooled all over your body.

Fun and Glitter

You haven't seen anything until you've witnessed the new false eyelashes. They are jeweled-luxuriant fringes of fur highlighted with crystal brilliants at lash line.

Couple Circles Lake

Circling Lake Superior on their wedding-trip are the Timothy Alfred Grunds (Lynn Marie Makela) who were wed recently in the Gethsemane Lutheran Church, Rochester.

Reception in Timberland Hall, Madison Heights, followed the evening rite performed by Pastor Donald Krueger.

* * *

The Bernard R. Makelas of Alsdorph Road, and the Elmer J. Grunds of Bendelow Drive, perants of the couple, are of Avon Township.

* * *

A beaded open pillbox with French illusion veiling complemented the bride's chapel-length gown of white organza over taffeta with Alecon lace applique. Her bouquet held a white orchid, chrysanthemums and Stephanotis.

* * *

With honor maid, Barbara Towler of Troy, were bridesmaids Sybil Tuohy, Linda Makela, Beverly Grund and Joyce Brower.

* * *

Best man was William Kerner, East Detroit, with ushers Robert Quandt, Detroit, and Peter and Allan Grund and Bruce Makela.

The newlyweds attend Oakland University.

Did you ever see such a dejected group of females? They haven't just heard the latest fashion news from London, specifying short-short skirts. This is 1898 and the women are finishing a day-long dyeing bee. Preparing dyes from bark and berries and long hours of hard work resulted in drab colors that weren't always fast. Happily, times are better now.

Wed recently in the Davison First Methodist Church, were Pauline Sue McArthur of Flint, daughter of the Lloyd McArthurs of Waking Lane, and Thomas E. Hart, son of the Howard Harts of Davison.

MRS. THOMAS E. HART

Vows Said in Recent Ceremony

A recent ceremony and reception in the Davison First Methodist Church marked the vows of Pauline Sue McArthur of Flint and Thomas E. Hart.

Parents of the couple wed before Rev. John Bray and Rev. David Kidd are the Lloyd McArthurs of Waking Lane and the Howard Harts of Davison.

The bride chose a tiered gown of sequined Chantilly lace over white taffeta and a silk illusion veil. She carried white Shasta daisies.

Mrs. Bobby Dunavant was her sister's honor matron with bridesmaids Rita Dibert, Mrs. Howard Lucas and Susan Hart, junior maid.

With best man, David Hart, were groomsmen, Robert Messenger and George Ensinger, Flint, and Donald McArthur. Ushers were Melvin McArthur and Thomas Whitman.

After a northern honeymoon the couple will live on campus at the Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C. where he is a graduate student. Both are alumni of the University of Michigan Flint campus.

Pilot Club Has Meeting

Reports of the Pilot Club, International convention held recently in Cleveland, Ohio, were given by Mrs. Edgar Arnold and Mrs. James Campoli at a recent meeting of the Pontiac chapter.

Mrs. Glen Dolan of Menominee Road opened her home for the event at which Mrs. Mrs. Mallory Coleman and Mary Elizabeth Marcero assisted.

Plans were made for a white elephant booth at the Bloomfield Miracle Mile Shopping Center to take place on Sept. 16-17.

Members have been making ceramics to be used as prizes at the annual card party on Sept. 20 in the First Federal Savings of Oakland Building.

Proceeds from both projects will be used for community services interests.

Advice on Cutting Up Clothes Dollar

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Keeping the family clothed is one of the more exasperating problems that fall to the lot of wife and mother. Not just keeping each member adequately covered. But seeing that each looks well turned out.

MARY FEELEY

The bills show that enough clothes are bought, goodness knows. But are the final results disappointing?

Evidently they are to a lot of women who write me for advice on planning family wardrobes—how much to spend, and which member gets what portion.

Alloting the clothing allowance is a real stickler. A specific amount is hard to pin down because a lot depends not only on your income but on what hold-overs each individual has in the way of coats, suits, accessories and dresses. Each member's needs vary from year to year.

Of course, you can start with an annual sum to be devoted to clothing — a figure somewhere between 8 and 15 per cent of net income. But that's not all the answer. How you shop is as important as how much you spend.

The first step, actually, is to take inventory of what's on hand. And make a list — one for each family member. Right now at the beginning of the fall season is a logical time to do it.

Going over everything in everybody's closet seems like a tedious business — and it is. But it's too important to shirk. Later on you'll reap the rewards when you see the family looking more coordinated.

Impluse shopping can result in thrown-together outfits, when no one item looks related to anything else.

One difficulty a thrifty woman has is making up her mind to discard or give away a garment that has died on the vine. Learn to be courageous and make a decision. If it hasn't been worn for ages, get it out of the closet.

If one child is logically in line for another's clothes, check the alterations needed and put them in the proper closet now. They'll serve as a basis for building new outfits when you actually get at the shopping.

How do accessories already on hand stack up for a new season? Check colors, types of shoes, bags and belts.

What are the business, school, and social demands coming up for each member of the family? In some seasons some one member will need extra things and these should be allowed for in advance.

Keep an eye on fashion news and pictures. A perfectly good outfit may look dated. It it's going to cause the wearer unhappiness, give it up for new.

If you can't bear to part with it, hold it over for some other season when it may be right back in style. Such clothes can be kept in a protective bag at the back of a closet.

Dresses or blouses that are okay but a bore can be tinted or dyed perhaps — with an eye to matching them with new garments or accessories.

Make notes as you go along as to repairs and hemlines that need attention — and get at them as soon as you can, before the season gets under way.

Of course, the more help you can get from the family with this inventory the better. Everybody ought to have a voice in what's to be saved and what's to be bought. We all have to feel good in our clothes in order to wear them well.

★ ★ ★

Clothes are important emotionally as well as in the impression they create. So make it a real family project.

Just Mop Up

When defrosting an old chest-type home freezer, the water in the bottom may be mopped up by using your long-handled sponge mop with a clean sponge on it.

To Preserve New Hairdo

Waking up with the same smooth unruffled hairdo as was created by milady's beautician is as easy as putting on a 'meshlike turban — one of the newest fashions.

Designed to protect a woman's hairstyle while sleeping, dressing or driving, the cool and flexible hair protector fits every headsize comfortably.

Junior Editors Quiz on CASEY JONES

QUESTION: Was there a real Casey Jones?

* * *

Answer: Most of us have heard the rollicking old song Casey Jones, in which one can almost hear the thundering of the express train as it races toward disaster.

One may think of Casey as a kind of folk hero, yet Casey was actually a real railroad engineer who gave his life trying to save a train.

"Casey," whose real name was John Luther Jones, had pulled his train into Memphis, Tennessee, April 29, 1900.

Since the engineer who ran the southbound train was ill, Casey volunteered to take his place.

Early in the morning, as his train was racing along, Casey suddenly saw the rear end of a freight train protruding on to the main track from a siding.

It had been moved there by mistake. Casey shut down his throttle and jammed on his air brakes—but was too late.

The momentum of the racing train carried it into the freight with a terrific crash. In the collision, Casey lost his life.

But when his body was found it was discovered that he still had both hands on the controls.

His courage in hanging on instead of jumping had undoubtedly saved many lives. Casey became a national hero.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can find the words for the song Casey Jones and read the story.

FAUSTUS AND FRIEND — Actor Richard Burton, dressed for his title role in the film "Dr. Faustus" told a studio reception in Rome recently that he and his wife, Elizabeth Taylor, "wouldn't mind spending the rest of our careers in Italy playing Shakespeare." Miss Taylor has a nonspeaking role as Helen of Troy in the film adaptation of Christopher Marlowe's Elizabethan play.

Right, Wrong Ways to Acquire a Suntan

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

When school closed the last week of June we boys stowed supplies in a rowboat and rowed eight or ten miles up Canandaigua lake to camp on the shore. Most of us wore some clothing, but Al was determined to get tanned in a hurry, so he wore nothing at all the first day or two.

DR. BRADY

He did get burned in a hurry, blistered and raw. He couldn't stand the touch of clothing. He nearly froze all night.

Hearing that a doctor was staying a mile or two upshore Al constructed a Robinson Crusoe type sun shield — crossed sticks with cloth or paper stretched over them—and started on his painful trek to the doctor.

Some workmen on the dock stared at the stranger and decided the dauged fool was trying to fly a kite without any string. When Al found the doctor the doctor gave him a prescription, advised him to go home at once and said he was sorry he had no medical supplies with him.

Maybe you think, as we boys did then, that a doctor who is any good should always have medical supplies with him, for emergencies. For the first five or ten years of practice I thought so, too. On the few occasions when such supplies proved useful no one thanked me for the trouble.

★ ★ ★

The best way to acquire tan and prevent sunburn is described in detail in "The Brady Baby Book." The instructions for sun bathing apply to the baby or anyone else. For a copy of the booklet send me 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

LIMITED EXPOSURE

In a few words, one unaccustomed to exposure of the naked body should limit the time of exposure to, say, five minutes in the midday sun the first day, 10 minutes the second day, 15 minutes the third day, etc., provided there is no slight burn.

Alloy Process Is in the Works

High Cooling Rate Results in Synthesis

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — A process for creating new metallic alloys holding great promise in such fields as electronics and computers is now under development.

Informally, the method is called "splat cooling."

It consists of blasting a molten droplet of a pure metal or an alloy against the rim of a refrigerated metal wheel spinning at a high speed.

The droplet is then cooled in the form of a small piece of thin foil at an extremely high rate — so fast that the atoms do not have time to realign themselves in their usual patterns.

Because of the very high cooling rate, crystalline alloys not otherwise obtainable can be synthesized.

SMALL BITS

Although production of these "abnormal" alloys is now limited to small bits of thin foil, the prospect of creating structures that have never existed before is highly intriguing to metallurgists and other scientists.

Future application of the unusual thin foils is still speculative, but suggestions have included discovery of new electrical and magnetic properties, as well as the synthesis of new super-conducting compounds that would be valuable as components in computers and in other devices required to operate on very little energy.

One of the alloys consists of a simple cubic structure, with one atom per unit cell, of gold-tellurium or silver-tellurium.

The tellurium-based alloys have a very high resistance to electricity. They are, in fact, virtually insulators, although formed from one metal and one semimetal.

The process for producing the new alloys was developed partly under the sponsorship of the U.S. Navy's Office of Naval Research here.

Opening Set for 3rd State Med School

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's third medical school opens its doors Sept. 29 when Michigan State University launches a two-year medical program for 26 students.

★ ★ ★

The university said today it hoped to expand the tiny start into a full-fledged medical school with authority to grant M.D. degrees.

The MSU request is under study by the Michigan State Board of Education.

Michigan's two full medical schools are located at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and at Wayne State University, Detroit.

★ ★ ★

MSU named its two-year medical school the College of Human Medicine and said it would use a pioneering curriculum in which four years of regular college and the two years of medical work would be combined into a six-year study program.

CURRICULUM DESIGNED

Dr. Andrew D. Hunt Jr., dean of the new school, said the curriculum was designed "to give students a better understanding of the human being, of how he functions physically, mentally and emotionally and how he reacts to disease and the many other stresses of his daily environment."

The enrollment will expand in 1968, the university said, when a new building is completed.

Scientists Hope Photo Is Good

Orbiter Snaps Earth

HAMPTON, Va. (AP)—At the age of about 4½ billion years, mother earth has been the subject of a photograph — but she'll have to wait a while to see if it is a good likeness and even whether the photo was taken.

Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency commanded Lunar Orbiter to snap the photograph yesterday as it circled the moon 240,000 miles from earth.

The command called for the photo to be stored on tape in the 850-pound spacecraft. It will be transmitted tomorrow to the deep space receiving station at Goldstone, Calif.

The officials hope the photo will provide information on the earth's terminator — the line dividing the shadowed and sunlit portions of the planet.

* * *

They believe it will show a gradual shading from light to dark, rather than a well-defined line as is evident on the moon, because of the diffusion of sunlight by the earth's atmosphere.

SOME QUESTION

There is some question, however, whether Lunar Orbiter's camera actually snapped the picture. Space agency officials reemphasized last night that the orbiting photographic laboratory, a success in other respects has taken poor photographs with its highresolution lens.

While photographs taken with a lens that shows greater areas — with less detail — have been clear, the closeups taken by the highresolution lens have been blurred. They have failed to show the surface details necessary to select landing sites on the moon for American astronauts, the NASA officials said.

Sixth Person Dies in Dallas of Encephalitis

DALLAS (UPI) — A sixth person had died here of encephalitis and 20 other persons have contracted the mosquito-carried disease, health officials said yesterday.

Six twin-engine Air Force planes converted into mosquito bombers were to bomb more of the county with insecticides today to kill the insects before more persons are infected.

High winds yesterday caused the C123s to cut short their bombing runs but authorities said about 75,000 more acres of the county had recieved coatings of malathion insecticide.

The downtown area will be sprayed by trucks because of the danger of the tall buildings to the low-flying aircraft.

New Hearing Sought

Collies' Rights Cited

NEW YORK (AP) — The city is having second thoughts about Pete the collie, the dog it said must die for nipping one neighbor too many.

Pets, like people, should be able to confront their accusers, a city corporation counsel argued Tuesday. Pete, he said, never saw his.

* * *

The city asked for an order returnable today in State Supreme Court that would send the case back to the Department of Health for new hearings and give Pete a chance to prove he is playful, not predatory.

The department had ruled earlier that the 2-year-old collie must be destroyed under state law as a vicious dog. Three bites is the limit set by the statute.

The collie's owner, William Jones, 17, says Pete is just a happy, lively dog who likes people. He contends there is no proof he actually bit anyone.

Asst. Corp. Counsel Irving Gerstman requested in his petition that Pete's case be returned to the Department of Health "with full right to cross-examination and representation by counsel." The department has already agreed to hold new hearings.

Preschool Program for All Is Supported

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Early education should provide opportunities for ALL children to make a successful start in school.

Some beginning school programs must be organized to meet the needs of the children from the great bulk of middle class American homes.

Other programs must give special attention to the less advantaged, lest they fall by the wayside.

DR. NASON

However, based on the idea that what is good for some is good for all, educational programs for special groups tend to disappear in time into the general program.

Prekindergarten schools have given the children of those who could afford them an advantage.

The Head Start program was designed to help the underprivileged child get off to a more nearly even start with the average through a few months of preschool training adapted to his special needs.

Now, the Educational Policies Commission envisages a school program for all 4- and 5-year-olds.

"With uniform early childhood education, almost every child would have a higher starting point in knowledge and developed ability," the commission said.

* * *

It recommends that the school program for 6-year-olds be built upon the program for 4- and 5-year-olds rather than the present program of nursery schools and Head Start programs in which the children are prepared for regular school.

COMPENSATION

This would eliminate the idea of compensatory education for the disadvantaged.

Children at this age are learning and developing rapidly. Ideally, the proposal of the commission to begin schooling for all children at these ages could be a distant improvement. But this would be so only if individual differences and individual needs were recognized.

If from the first day, each child were given the opportunity and, indeed, helped to develop according to his own background and his native ability, the millennium would have arrived.

Schoolmen give lip service to the idea that each child should be helped to develop to the maximum of his ability and that school experiences should take into account individual differences. In practice, universal education tends toward uniform education.

VERY SUCCESSFUL

As an example, in one high school district a program of released time was inaugurated for gifted students. While their less fortunate classmates were still struggling with regular subjects, these students were allowed to do library work and other individual projects through which they enrich their high school experience and became acquainted with school and community personalities, while learning something of independent study.

The project was very successful. However, there was an immediate demand from patrons of the school that ALL students be given the advantage rather than limiting it to the gifted.

Survey Views Medical Costs

LBJ Orders Check on Medicare Effects

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A government study of rising medical costs — ordered by President Johnson — is likely to find the major causes are the mounting wages of hospital workers and the high price of new treatments, A UPI survey showed today.

This was one result of the survey of hospitals and doctors in key metropolitan areas across the nation. The government study apparently is aimed at stemming charges that Medicare has forced costs up.

None of those contacted in the UPI survey found any direct link between the Medicare plan of health care for the elderly — which went into effect July 1 — and medical costs, which have risen 2.8 per cent in the last six months, 5 per cent from July 1965, to July 1966.

Secretary John W. Gardner of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) announced the government study yesterday. He said Johnson ordered "A quick and very hard look" at the increases.

* * *

Gardner appointed William Gorham, assistant HEW Secretary for Program Coordination, to head the study. It is to be completed "at the earliest possible date."

TOO EARLY

Heading into the study, HEW officials said it was too early to determine what, if any, effects Medicare has had on medical costs. Previously, however, a top government official had said privately he felt rising costs and Medicare obviously were related.

The official said that he felt doctors had begun adjusting to the advent of Medicare and federal payment for some treatment, even before the program went into effect.

He reasoned that Medicare would increase the demand for health care to be levied against an already short supply of hospital beds and doctors, thus increasing costs.

* * *

He also cited the increasing pressure from nurses and nonprofessional hospital staff members for higher wages as a factor in higher overall medical costs, and the apparent cause of hospital rates increasing more rapidly than doctors' charges.

'Finish Buying Land Before Developing'

Final acquisitions of land should be completed before there is any development of a projected Pontiac industrial park, according to a report last night to the City Commission.

Realtor Bruce J. Annett, in a written report, presented the advice of the 14- Member Industrial Park Development Committee.

Annett's letter said the committee thought some 71 vacant lots, located along E. South Boulevard, should be acquired and 11 scattered houses in the 25-acre park area should be purchased before development is attempted.

Citing the "great" need for the industrial sites, Annett said the committee felt there should not be any partial development and that the park should be fully planned.

★ ★ ★

The park is slated for the southeast section of the city at the northeast corner of South and East Boulevards.

PARKING LOT

In other business last night, the commission approved the vacating of a portion of Young and Kennett for proposed parking lot for the Fisher Body plant, and held a public hearing on paving nearby Owen, Baldwin to Portland, at General Motors Corp. expense.

A public hearing was ordered for Sept. 6 on proposed construction of sanitary sewer and water mains in the area of Walton, Princeton, Highwood and Jaycee Park.

Action was not taken on a portion of the sewer construction — on Highwood, Princeton to Walton — to permit preparation of a new assessment roll.

★ ★ ★

Cost estimates were presented on the sewer for Princeton, Highwood to Jaycee Park, showing the assessed cost of $6,552, city cost of $11,747 and a total cost of $21,540.

★ ★ ★

Proposed water mains for the area are to cost an estimated $14,714 with $6,147 assessed and $8,566 paid by the city.

★ ★ ★

A hearing on special assessments for sidewalk on Gladstone was set for Sept. 6, while the commission deferred action one week on a rezoning petition for a nearly seven-acre parcel at the southeast corner of Woodward and the East Boulevard extension.

A new ordinance was introduced last night that would permit the establishment of fire lanes on private property at the request of the property owner.

The ordinance is aimed at property, like shopping centers, heavily used by the public.

★ ★ ★

Two petitions were referred to the city planning commission.

★ ★ ★

One asked Residential-2 rezoning for five lots in the north side of East Howard between Saginaw and Charlotte, while the second request sought the vacating of the alley back of the corner of Telegraph and Walton.

Slim Chance for Farmers

PRAGUE (AP) — Farmers have a slim chance of marrying, the Czechoslovak paper Zemedelske Noviny wrote, because girls consider farm work inferior and farmers undesirable mates.

The paper complained about the "silly ideals" of the girls and worried about the state of mind of the farmers who cannot find a harmonious family life.

It said these men eventually lose confidence in people, in society and, eventually, in themselves.

JACK W. MINZEY

Ex-Principal in Area Gets Post at OU

Jack D. Mnzey, former Milford High School principal, has been named to succeed Dr. W. James Giddis as head of Michigan State University's Continuing Education Center at Oakland University.

Minzey's appointment as MSU regional director of continuing education in Southeastern Michigan follows his one-year tenure in a similar post in Saginaw.

He now is responsible for the coordination and administration of MSU's general extension activities in the southeastern part of the state.

Giddis has accepted a teaching position at Miami University, Ohio.

Minzey had served 12 years with the Huron Valley School System before his appointment to the MSU post in Saginaw.

He was high school principal from 1961-64; junior high and elementary principal, 1958-61; counselor and coach, 1955-58; teacher and coach, 1953-55; and junor high teacher, 1950-51.

Holder of a bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University and master's degree from the University of Michigan, Minzey currently is working on his doctor of education degree from MSU.

3 Exams Delayed in Cigarette Raid

GRAND HAVEN (UPI) — Justice of Peace Lawrence DeWitt has adjourned indefinitely examinations for three men charged with bringing into Michigan 5,500 cartons of cigarettes on which Michigan tax was not paid.

They are Henry Telman, Jenison, and Charles Green and Morris Gibson of Grand Rapids, each out on $100 bond.

Their examinations had been set for yesterday but the adjournment was allowed on motion of defense attorneys.

Sign-Up Is Set in Waterford

Junior high and senior high students in the Waterford Township School District are slated to register for the forthcoming school year beginning tomorrow.

Roy J. Alexander, coordinator of secondary schools, said students planning to attend Waterford Township or Waterford Kettering high school can register from 8 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, Monday and Tuesday.

High school students also can register from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, according to Alexander.

★ ★ ★

Students planning to attend Crary, Pierce and Mason junior high schools can register next week from 8 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday at their respective schools.

Junior high students also can register from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, observed Alexander.

Exam Asked in Fatal Knifing

Woman Free on Bond After Arraignment

A Pontiac woman accused of fatally stabbing her husband is free on $100 personal bond following her arraignment yesterday on a charge of manslaughter.

Mrs. Sam Jones, 46, of 183 Osmun demanded examination on the charge at her appearance before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan. Finnegan set the hearing for Sept. 3.

Mrs. Jones was arrested at her home Monday afternoon by Pontiac police.

Inside the house, police found the body of 66-year-old Sam Jones lying across a chair.

An autopsy determined Jones bled to death following puncture of an artery beneath his left collarbone.

Police said the defendant told them her husband had threatened her with a linoleum knife in an argument.

When apprehended, she turned over to patrolmen a paring knife police believe to be the stabbing weapon.

City Vandals Pelt Windows

Vandals using a pellet gun or BB pistol are blamed by Pontiac police for damages totaling $1,080 to seven large plate glass windows at a city firm yesterday.

The broken and cracked windows were reported at the Chief Pontiac Federal Credit Union, 790 Joslyn.

Included were five windows measuring 5 by 10 feet.

Teamsters Accused of Forgeries

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Teamsters Union yesterday was accused of forging letters allegedly signed by AFL - CIO President George Meany as part of a campaign to gain the support of Pan American World Airways employes in a National Mediation Board secret ballot election.

★ ★ ★

Walter Williamson, director of the Air Transport Division of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, said the "forgeries" were designed to increase the number of votes in the election.

The Teamsters are seeking to win the allegiance of a majority of the 7,000 clerical and other employes in a mediation election to decide which union will represent them.

The ATD-BRC, which currently represents the employes, has urged its members not to vote in the election. Ballots will be counted by the mediation board Sept. 7.

★ ★ ★

Williamson said that, in recent days, employes have received letters that purport to be from Meany. "The letter is an accurate reproduction of the AFL-CIO letterhead, and the signature closely resembles that of Mr. Meany," Williamson said.

★ ★ ★

"One indication that the letter and its copies is a fake is that it bears no union label," the ATD-BRC director said. "A second indication is the fact that aides to Mr. Meany report that he wrote no such letter."

Food industry shipments are expected to surpass $80 billion in value this year, the Commerce Department predicts.

2 Americans Facing Trial in Hungary

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two young Americans are awaiting trial in Hungary on charges of "incitement" for allegedly altering a Viet Nan poster.

The State Department said the trial of John and Michael Savko of Van Nuys, Calif., was set for Aug. 31. An American U. S. consular official who visited the two in Budapest said they seemed in good spirits and reported their treatment and prison conditions were good.

The two brothers were arrested June 30. The State Department heard about the arrest Aug. 8 when it received a letter from them.

Officials said they could give no more information on the details of the charge of altering a poster.

John Savko, 25, is a Van Nuys insurance investigator. Michael, 23, is a student at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa. They are on a tour of Europe.

'Silent Warfare'

Nevada Governor Raps FBI

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Gov. Grant Sawyer said today the federal government has declared "silent warfare" against Nevada by alleging underworld casino rake-offs and refusing to reveal wiretap evidence.

Sawyer made the statement on departure for Washington to discuss federal-state relations. But an aide said he would not meet with Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, who ordered the FBI to keep wiretap information secret.

★ ★ ★

If the Justice Department or Federal Bureau of Investigation won't turn over "such evidence as they profess to have," Sawyer said, "I demand that the federal government call off its dogs."

The governor requested prosecution of FBI agents last month under Nevada's antiwiretap statutes. Dist. Atty. Edward G. Marshall of Las Vegas, a Sawyer opponent for reelection, said he would prosecute.

The FBI testified in June that it concealed a microphone at the multimillion-dollar Desert Inn hotel-casino on the Las Vegas strip to pick up information of underworld rake-offs.

Las Vegas FBI chief Dean Elson was asked if "criminal and unlawful activity was the material recorded or transcribed" from the hidden microphone.

"There was this type of information that was heard and which was transcribed, yes," Elson testified.

Katzenbach revealed his keep-secret order in an affidavit answering a $4.5-million wiretapping suit filed in County Court by former major owner Edward Levinson of the Fremont hotel-casino.

Katzenbach's order could explain why no federal investigators have been called to testify in state investigative hearings into the FBI allegation.

Nevada officials heading the investigation flew to Washington just before it started two weeks ago and said they had talked to Katzenbach about earlier requests for federal evidence.

Cold War Shift Seen in Red Troop Cut

By LEON DENNEN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (NEA) — Diplomatic reports of a possible cut in Russia's armed forces in East Germany are more evidence that the East-West conflict has shifted from Europe to Viet Nam and Southeast Asia.

Moscow's present military strength in its German satellite is estimated at 20 divisions.

According to East European diplomats, the Kremlin plans to withdraw five divisions and to strengthen missile units stationed in Germany to offset the reduction in the number of troops.

Such a drastic change in the Red army's strategy would indeed indicate that Russia's military experts consider the situation in Europe "frozen."

The diplomats see it as additional proof that the Kremlin is not likely to embark on military adventures in the West in the forseeable future.

The Russians, like the United States, find it increasingly costly to maintain their troops in East Europe. But in their case the reason for a possible cutback is probably not only financial but also strategic.

STILL AROUND — The Russians are still very much a presence in East Berlin and East Germany. But they're making noises about leaving or, at least, reducing their forces.

Russia has 17 divisions in the Far East, not all of which are at full strength. Red army strategists apparently no longer regard them as adequate for their task in view of the increased tension along the 4,000-mile Chinese-Russian border.

Nor has Russia ever relished the idea of fighting on two fronts, the Far East and West.

★ ★ ★

However the Kremlin leaders have made it clear in the past that they would be unwilling to thin out their troops in East Europe unilaterally.

MOSCOW POLICY

Since 1963, in fact, it has been Moscow's declared policy to bargain for a reduction of the number of Soviet soldiers in East Germany only parallel with an equivalent reduction of American troops in West Germany.

This was emphasized again by Soviet Ambassador Zorin at the March meeting of the Warsaw Pact nations, NATO's counterpart in the Red world.

Said Zorin, "The Warsaw Pact nations would either reduce their military forces or even abolish them if a corresponding move is undertaken by the NATO allies in West Europe."

★ ★ ★

A parallel statement, though worded cautiously and diplomatically, was made on June 16 by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

DUAL CUTBACK?

NATO's military requirements are "related" to Russia's troop deployments in East Europe, Rusk said. Any "force reduction in the West would have to take that into consideration."

Does this mean, as the West Germans believe, that the United States and Russia, despite their public hostility over Viet Nam, are quietly negotiating military cutbacks in Europe?

State Department officials insist that all reports about planned withdrawals of U.S. combat troops from Europe are "incorrect."

★ ★ ★

Yet Rusk's and Zorin's statements seem to imply that for the first time in years a planned parallel and reciprocal reduction — not necessarily accompanied by public announcements — is beginning to be considered in Washington and Moscow.

State Board OKs Tallies in Primary

LANSING (AP) — The 146,973 vote victory of ex-Gov. G. Mennen Williams over Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh Aug. 2 became part of official Michigan history yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The Board of State Canvassers certified the tabulation of votes for the primary election in which Williams won the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate.

The canvass also confirmed Gov. George Romney's 50,458-vote margin over Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency.

Romney and Ferency did not run against each other, but rsn unopposed in the Republican and Democratic primary races, respectively.

★ ★ ★

In the Republican primary contest for state representative run against each other, but ran from the 42nd District, Louis Drolet of Niles at first filed a protest over the certification of the votes which showed him to have lost to De Forrest Strang of Sturgis by 23 votes.

WITHDREW PROTEST

Later, however, Drolet withdrew his protest and filed for a recount.

Other petitions for recounts are expected to be filed later.

Here is the vote for governor and U.S. Senate as certified by the board:

Governor —

Zolton A. Ferency, Democrat, 373,426;

George Romney, Republican 423,876.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Senator—

Jerome P. Cavanagh, Democrat, 290,465;

G. Mennen Williams, Democrat, 437,892;

Robert P. Griffin, Republican, 356,700.

Copper Producer Weighs Decision on Strike in U.P.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Directors of Calumet & Hecla Inc. are weighing a decision on whether the firm should mine a recently discovered copper lode in a big way.

Question before the directors is how much of the firm's capital should be plunged into the Hills Creek deposit, a body of commercially valuable ore estimated at 70 billion pounds near Calumet in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The firm, second largest copper producer in upper Michigan, announced discovery of the lode last April. Then, Calumet & Hecla stock prices and buy orders shot up so fast that the New York Stock Exchange suspended trading in the firm's shares for four days.

★ ★ ★

The find was followed by an engineering firm's report that the lode can be mined at the rate of 50 million pounds a year.

Find Source of 'Kerplunk'

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The nise in C. B. Roach's car kept going "kerplunk," but Roach couldn't find the source.

"I don't care what you do," Roach finally told a mechanic. "Take the car apart. Just find that noise."

The mechanic turned up a turtle behind an upholstery panel.

It apparently had nested there for about four months.

THE HALL CAME TUMBLING DOWN—Demolition of the Oxford Village Hall and the Oxford Township Hall began yesterday in preparation for the construction of a three-building civic center complex on West Burdick. Construction of the complex, which will contain the municipal buildings and the public library, is expected to start after Labor Day. Municipal offices will be housed in the Masonic Temple building until the new buildings are completed in about eight months.

Troy Amends Zoning Code

Developers Given 9 Months on Permit

TROY — Apartment developers, who already have site plan approval, will have nine months to obtain a building permit under an amendment to the zoning ordinance adopted by the City Commission last night.

* * *

The commission originally set the time extension at six months but several developers objected, according to City Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart.

If a developer obtains a permit within nine months, he may build 24 units per acre instead of 16 as required under another amendment adopted in June.

In other action, the commission awarded about $390,000 in contracts on the second phase of its water improvement program.

* * *

Three contracts totaling $231,984 were awarded to Nelson-Sharrow Co. of Marine City. Two contracts totaling $101,396 went to Morelli Co. and one contract for $59,476 was awarded to Triangle Excavating Co.

OK Record Budget

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Record expenditures are included in an operating budget approved by the township board for the 1966-67 fiscal year.

The action was taken Monday night following a hearing on the budget proposal. The budget will be effective for the fiscal year of April 1, 1966, through March 31, 1967.

Although revenue and expenditures balance, the $800,000 to be spent represents an increase of $153,500 over last year's spending program.

Absorbing a large part of the spending hike is a $45,000 allocation for the purchase of land, an additional $19,200 for roads, highways and signs and an allocation of $9,000 for sewer inspection.

Spending for general government expenses was put at $30,100; $72,400 for the building and sewer dept.; $36,700 for the assessors dept. and $112,500 for general operating expenses.

OTHER EXPENDITURES

Some other expenditures are $261,350 for police; $43,000 for the fire department; $48,300 for capital outlay and $20,000 for purchase of fire station sites.

State sales tax refunds and general property tax will make up the bulk of the income.

Voted extra millage will bring in $198,700 while allocated millage will be worth $119,200.

State equalized valuation of the township is $108,026,499, up $17.5 million from last year.

Sales tax refunds are estimated at $217,500, an increase of $19,500 over last year's total.

Income from building and miscellaneous permits is expected to double during the year, hiking the total from $74,000 last year to $147,000.

The remainder of the funds will be made up from miscellaneous sources, bringing the total income to $800,000.

In other action at the Monday night meeting, the board reappointed three men to their posts on the planning commission for three year terms.

The three are James M. Skillman, chairman of the commission, J. R. Moreen and Russell Nankervis. Their present terms expire on Sept. 1, of this year.

News of the Area

Classes Start Sept. 9

Dublin School Sign-Up Slated

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Dublin school will open for registration of first through sixth-grade students at 8:20 a.m. Sept. 8.

Regular classes for grades one through eight will begin Sept. 9 at 8:20 a.m. Regular dismissal time will be 3 p.m. for all grades.

Registration of kindergarten students, both new registrations and those who registered in the spring, will be held on Sept. 1.

Those who registered in the spring are asked to report between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m.

* * *

Parents registering kindergarten students for the first time are asked to report between 12:30 and 2:30 p.m. The child's birth certificate must be shown if it was not provided at the spring registration.

All children must be five years of age on or before Dec. 1, 1966, to enroll in kindergarten.

All bus schedules will remain the same as last year.

Tax Notes OK'd

Romeo Community School District was authorized by the Municipal Finance Commission yesterday to issue tax anticipation notes in the amount of $150,000.

Board Seeks Engineers' Aid

Independence Wants Sewer, Water Advice

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — The Township Board decided last night to meet with representatives of two consulting engineering firms to discuss launching a study for sewer and water systems.

Supervisor Duane Hursfall was directed to establish a meeting with Johnson and Anderson, Inc., and Kieft Engineering.

Planning would be financed through a federal "702" loan.

* * *

The township has yet to make a commitment about its participation in the Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System.

ONLY HOLDOUTS

Independence and Avon townships are the only holdouts in the proposed $28.6-million project involving seven communities.

Independence is without both internal sewer and internal water systems.

In other business, Mrs. Ben Powell has offered to allow township residents to use her private dump on Clarkston-Orion Road, near M15, on a fee basis.

* * *

However, she will regulate the items that can be dumped there.

DUMP CLOSED

Residents were left without any place to dump their trash last week when a dump used jointly by residents of Independence, Brandon and Groveland townships was ordered closed at the request of state and county health officials.

Unsanitary conditions at the dump was cited as the reason for closing the Brandon Township facility, located on M15 north of Oakhill.

In still other business last night, the board granted final plat approval for Whipple Hills Subdivision No. 1.

* * *

The subdivision, which consists of six lots, is located at the Allen-Rattalee Lake Road intersection.

Tentative School Budget OK'd

OXFORD — A proposed $1,052,338 budget, which will not be final until the fourth Friday in September, was approved by the board of education last night.

Schools Supt. Roger Oberg said that although this is the 1966-67 operating budget, many of the figures won't be definite until the official school enrollment count is made on the fourth Friday.

He explained that income such as state aid is based on these figures.

* * *

Another unknown factor is the outcome of negotiations with custodians, bus drivers and aids. Oberg said a final agreement has not yet been reached with this group, which is represented by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, AFL-CIO.

INCREASED SALARIES

Increased salaries for all employes and eight new teachers account for the approximately $150,000 increase over last year's budget.

Income in the new budget is expected to amount to $1,024,101 forcing the district to dip into a cash reserve to make up the difference.

Under the new budget, instruction will cost $763,662; administration, $45,150; health service, $800; transportation, $75,590; operation, $114,095; maintenance, $26,447; fixed charges, $20,390; capital outlay, $5,404; and community service, $800.

Schools Renting Church Space

Kindergarten pupils from Stone and Auburn Heights elementary schools in the Avondale School District will be housed in two churches this year to relieve over-crowding at the schools.

* * *

The board of education is renting six classrooms at Auburn Heights Presbyterian Church and Avondale Baptist Church until the Grant Graham Elementary School is completed in September 1967.

Utica Eyes 'Bonus' Rooms for School

UTICA — Low bids, which have already allowed the board of education to add five rooms to its proposed new high school, may now give a bonus of an additional eight rooms.

Schools Supt. Philip E. Runkel said the board wants to take a closer look at the figures presented by the architects.

* * *

He said the bids were about $250,000 less than had been anticipated. Contracts which totaled $3,041,281 were awarded three weeks ago.

* * *

Money for the school was approved by voters in December 1964 in an $8.5-million bond issue.

The Andes are the world's longest mountain chain, extending along the entire west coast of South America for 4,500 miles.

At Rochester Schools

Book Store Hours Set

ROCHESTER — Junior and senior high school book stores will be open from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day next week for students who wish to purchase their books before the start of school.

In the junior high school, seventh graders will buy books Tuesday, ninth graders on Wednesday and all grades on on Monday, eighth graders on Thursday and Friday.

Under the senior high school schedule, sophomores can buy their books Monday and Tuesday, juniors on Wednesday and Thursday morning, and seniors on Thursday afternoon and Friday.

The book store will be open Sept. 6. Orientation day will be held Sept. 7 for sophomores and 11th and 12th grade transfer students.

* * *

School will begin operating on a regular schedule Sept. 8.

Average American Is a Great Believer---in Myths

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — The average American is, above all else, a man of belief.

Right or wrong, he will often cling loyally to a belief despite any or all evidence to the contrary.

BOYLE

When the mass of people decide a thing is so, all the scientists and educators in the world can't change their minds. In the last analysis, people believe what they want to, because in some mysterious way it makes them more comfortable.

And who is to say they are unwise? Myth often serves mankind as well as fact. Superstition has its uses as well as truth. For example, it isn't really unlucky to walk under a ladder — but it may show poor judgment to do so.

Here are a few popular American beliefs, widely held by many, that nothing seems able to put down:

★ ★ ★

That it was Mark Twain who said, "Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it." This was written by Twain's friend, Charles Dudley Warner, but 95 per cent of the public doesn't remember him, so Mark gets the credit.

SIGN OF INTELLIGENCE

That a large head is a sign of intelligence. About the biggest head ever recorded belonged to an idiot.

That an honest man always looks you squarely in the eye. Most veteran cops will tell you that it is the bold and unrepentant criminal who is more likely to do this.

★ ★ ★

That eating fish will make you more brainy. If this is so, why didn't an Eskimo beat Einstein to the theory of relativity?

That eating oysters makes men more virile. Can't be true, else middle-aged men would have made the oyster extinct long, long ago.

ROBBED RICH

That outlaw Jesse James habitually robbed the rich to give to the poor. Sheriffs in his area never had that idea.

That a diamond is the hardest substance on earth. It's not as hard as the heart of a wife who makes her husband work himself to death so she can have diamonds.

That too much money is inevitably a curse. The trouble with this theory is that nobody ever gets too much money.

That most street beggars ride home at night in limousines. Just suggest that to the next street beggar you meet — and he'll probably punch you in the nose.

NEVER SHOWS ITSELF

That charity begins at home. It should, but too often that's where it never shows itself.

That men are afraid of brainy women. Actually, most men are more afraid of a dumb woman, because she can get them in worse trouble.

That any ambitious American boy can grow up to be a U.S. president. Ask Norman Thomas, Jim Farley or Tom Dewey.

Ill Arizona Dem Listed Improved

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Carl T. Hayden, the 88-year-old dean of the Senate, is "gradually improving" in his latest bout with a urinary tract infection, according to his aides.

The Arizona Democrat entered Bethesda Naval Medical Center last Friday for treatment of a recurrence of the infection. There was no indication of when he would be released.

Community Easy to Miss

Why Not? It's Good Name for Town

WHYNOT, N.C. (AP) — Why did they name Whynot Whynot?

"Why not?" says Mrs. M. C. Auman, who's lived about 60 of her 73 years in Whynot. "They couldn't think of anything else."

"At least that's what my mother told me," adds Mrs. Auman. "And that's the story most folks agree to."

★ ★ ★

Elderly J. B. Slack, born and reared in Whynot, agrees. Sometime before the turn of the century, he says, Whynot's menfolk got together to name their community.

"They suggested a lot of names and couldn't agree," says Slack. "It got later and later. Finally, somebody said, 'why not call it Whynot?' So they did."

Whynot is two miles from Seagrove, three miles from Jugtown, eight miles from Erect, 13 miles from Ether, 15 miles from Star and 32 miles south of Greensboro in the rolling hills of central North Carolina.

ON FEW MAPS

Whynot isn't on many road maps and not in the Postal Guide.

You can miss it if you're not careful because someone tore down its only road sign. The only building on the highway bearing "Whynot" is the Whynot Upholstery Co. It is the community's only real industry. Most of the residents farm.

★ ★ ★

Nobody's sure exactly how big Whynot is.

"It's all according to how far you want to extend it. A lot of people live in these hills," says Slack, a retired regional director for the Farmers Home Administration.

How many people does Whynot have?

"Let me think a minute," said Arden Macon. "There are a lot of children born recently that I haven't seen. I guess there's anywhere from 75 to 150."

Whynot, says Mrs. Slack, used to be on the old plank road from Winston-Salem to Wilmington on the coast.

ATTRACTED STUDENTS

"And Whynot," Slack recalls, "had one of the best schools in North Carolina years ago. It was Whynot Academy and was a boarding school. It went through the seventh grade and attracted students from all over this part of the state. A lot of people knew about Whynot because of that school.

"But the schoolhouse burned in 1915 and only the church was left beside it. Then some years ago, they removed the post office and made the mail address Seagrove."

Seagrove has several hundred people, several stores, the post office, and it's on a major highway, U.S. 220.

"But the people in Whynot are proud," says Slack. "They don't like to be known as being from Seagrove. They want to be from Whynot."

We're up to our necks in Mod.

When we jump into something, we jump in deep.

That's why we've got a selection of Mod that'll knock your epaulets off. In fact, our stores are starting to look a lot like Carnaby Street.

Naturally, Osmun's is giving you famous labels with your wide-wale corduroy jackets and print shirts and hip-riding slacks and peacoats and six-button double-breasted sportcoats. Labels like Brolly Male by McGregor, Farah, etc.

We're also giving some advice. Don't let Mod scare you. It's not really as wild as all that. Even some ordinarily quiet people are wearing things like 5-inch turtlenecks.

It brings them out of their shells.

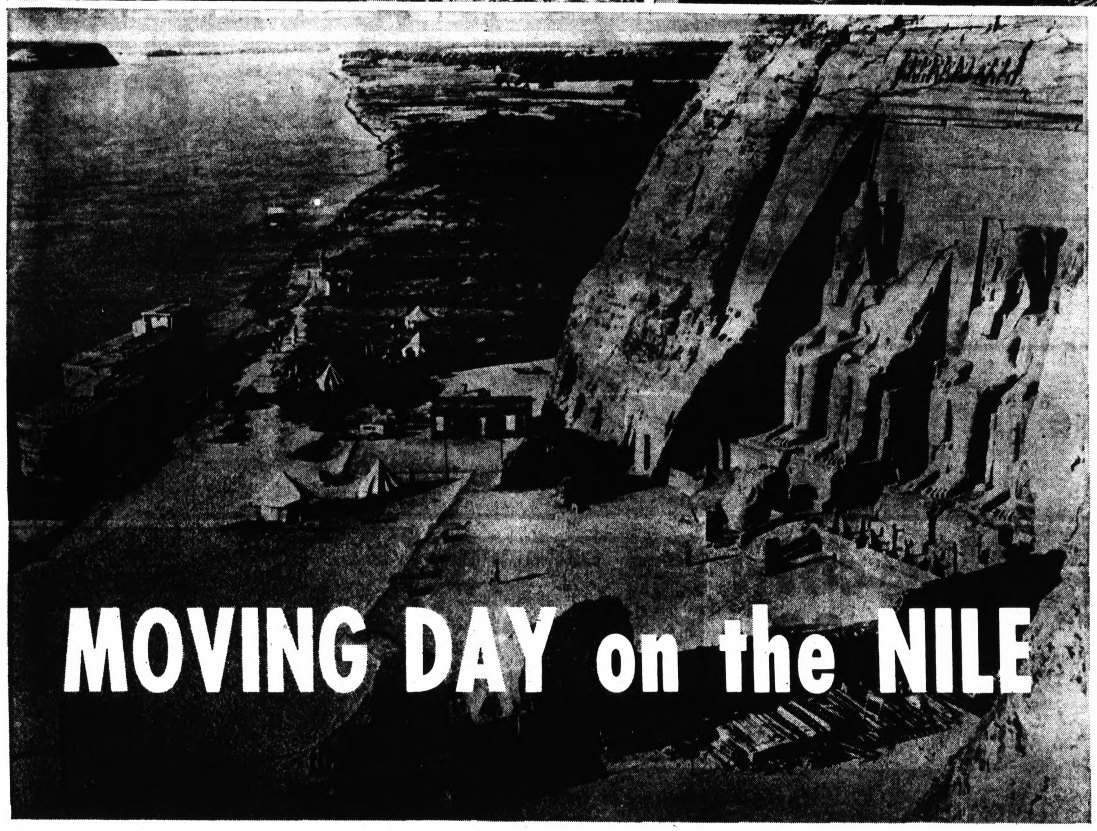
Nubian family waits near Nile River while belongings are loaded aboard boat to take them to new home.

German engineer refers to assembly plan as Egyptians behind him reconstruct Kalabasha Temple on new site.



MOVING DAY on the NILE

Progress is rarely achieved without a price. In Egypt the price of the Aswan High Dam is not only the millions of dollars being spent on its construction, but also the loss of one of the world's great open-air museums along the Nile.

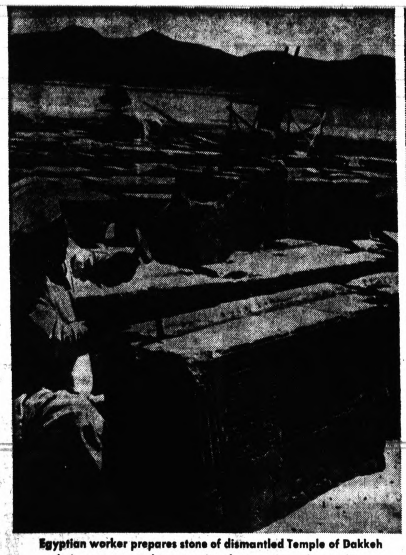
Some of the monuments in the Nile valley are being saved from obliteration. The greatest of these is the mammoth temple shrine of Rameses II (left) at Abu Simbel, built into a rocky cliffside at the very shoreline of the Nile. Preliminary survey work is already under way and plans are being studied to dismantle the huge temple and move it stone by stone to a nearby desert plateau.

Elsewhere along the 300-mile shoreline of the ancient waterway, archeologists are busy digging to learn as much as possible of the past of this land of Nubia before the reservoir is flooded.

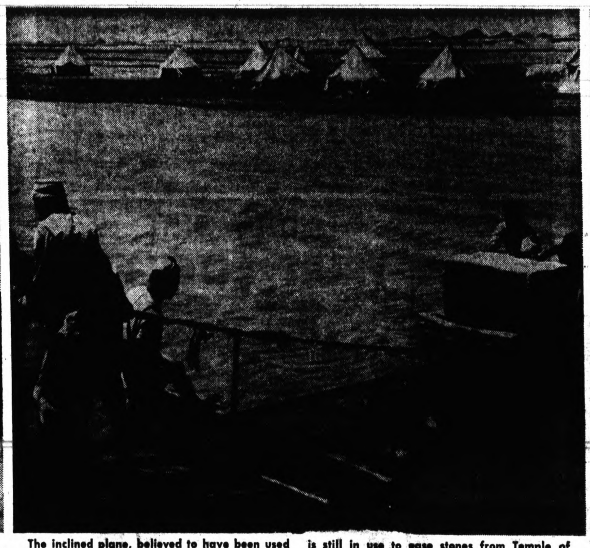
The price has its human side, too. The waters will drown the ancient homeland of 150,000 Nubians in Egypt and Sudan. Their residence on the shores of the Nile dates back to before the time of the pyramids. Egyptian Nubians are already being evacuated to resettlement areas north of the high dam. Others in the Sudan will be moved to a region near the border of Ethiopia.

This is having a shattering effect on the people strongly rooted to home and tradition, but eventually, when the reservoir is filled, the shores will be open to colonization. Nubians will perhaps return once more to their ancestral homes.

But the remnants of the ancient civilization of Egypt and Nubia will be lost forever, condemned to disappear under a mountain of water necessary for the preservation of the present civilization.



Egyptian worker prepares stone of dismantled Temple of Dakkeh being transported to new site above proposed waterline



The inclined plane, believed to have been used in construction of these temples centuries ago, is still in use to ease stones from Temple of Dakkeh aboard a barge for relocation upstream.

Modern pneumatic tools chip into centuries-old stone of relocated temple. Steel rods reinforce temple columns.

Cool-Rise Method OK for French Loaf

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Dear Cecily: I read with interest your recipe for refrigerator-rising bread. Now I wonder whether you have a recipe for French bread that can rise in the refrigerator.

I often bake French bread the usual way for company suppers and always have a problem in timing so that it will be crisp and hot from the oven when I'm ready to serve.

It seems to me that of all homemade yeast breads, French bread is the one for which it would be most helpful to have a recipe using the refrigerator method. — Mrs. L.R.

Dear Mrs. L.R.: You asked for a recipe I wanted myself, and one which I believe is bound to interest many other cooks. So as soon as I ferreted out the following rule for Refrigerator-rising French Bread, we tried it in my test kitchen, and I'm delighted to pass it along.

This recipe makes two excellent loaves — their interior is more compact than regular French bread, but their crust is crisp.

The baking may be timed so the bread will be ready and hot at the moment you want to offer it. — C. B.

REFRIGERATOR-RISING FRENCH BREAD

2¼ cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon salt
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
5½ to 6½ cups unsifted flour
Cornmeal
Salad (not olive) oil
1 egg white
1 tablespoon cold water

In a large warm mixing bowl dissolve the yeast in the warm water. Add sugar, salt and butter. Stir in 2 cups of the flour. Beat with a rotary beater (electric or hand) until smooth -- 1 to 2 minutes.

Add 1 cup of the flour. With a wooden spoon, beat vigorously until smooth — about 150 strokes. Work in enough additional flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out onto a lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic -- about 10 minutes. Cover with plastic wrap, then a towel; let rest on board for 20 minutes.

Punch down dough; divide in half. On a lightly floured board, roll each portion into a 15 by 10-inch rectangle. Beginning at the 15-inch side, roll up tightly toward you; seal edges by pinching together. Taper ends by rolling gently back and forth.

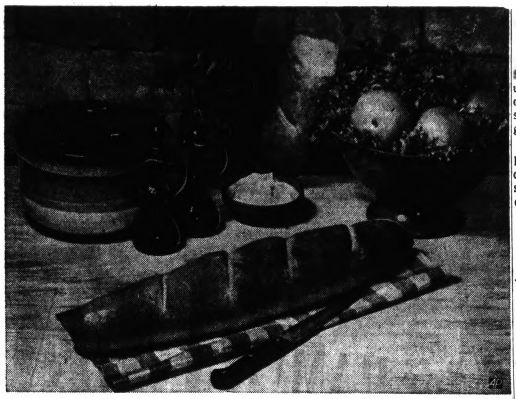
Place loaves on a large greased cookie sheet sprinkled with cornmeal. Brush loaves with salad oil.

Place plastic wrap over top of pans to cover loosely; do not tuck wrap under cookie sheet or loaves will be too tightly covered. Refrigerate 2 to 24 hours.

When ready to bake, remove from refrigerator. Carefully uncover the loaves; let stand for 10 minutes at room temperature.

With a greased toothpick or metal skewer, puncture any gas bubbles that may have formed. With a razor blade, make 4 diagonal cuts on top of each loaf.

Bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven for 25 minutes. Remove from oven and brush with the egg white mixed with cold water. Return to oven: bake 5 minutes longer. Makes 2 loaves.



REFRIGERATOR-RISING — The new method of cool-rise bread baking can be used for French bread. You can make the dough any time from 2 to 24 hours ahead of baking time and have fresh fragrant loaves whenever you want them.

Mix Applesauce and Cream

It's a new summer dessert, a frozen mousse which can be used as a topping for fruit salad, or served in your prettiest dessert dishes, or in tall parfait glasses.

A good make-ahead dessert to have in the freezing trays for drop-in guests or that cold dessert you like to serve with coffee on a warm evening.

Applesauce Peppermint Mousse

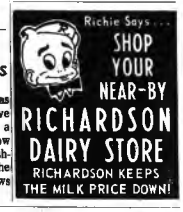
2 cups applesauce
½ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon peppermint extract
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Red food coloring
2 cups whipping cream

Combine first 5 ingredients; mix well. Tint deep pink with food coloring. Whip cream; fold in. Spoon into freezing trays. Freeze until firm. Makes 8 servings.

Pistachio nuts may be blanched just as almonds are blanched.

First, It's Crackers

"Marguerites" are as old as the hills, but small fry love them! To prepare, butter a cracker and place marshmallow in the center. Toast the marshmallow-topped crackers in the oven until the marshmallows soften. Serve at once.



ICED SOUP—Serve supper al fresco on hot summer evenings and feature an Iced Olive Tomato Soup . . . served in mugs, if you've a mind to. Fresh bread is a good accompaniment.

Let Icy Tomato Soup Cool You on Hot Day

Imagine, if you can, the end of a day when the temperatures have been in the high 90's. The sun's setting, the shadow's lengthening and a small breeze begins to stir the leaves. You may be exhausted from the heat but dinner still has to be served.

Now what will tempt appetites? For your sake as well as the family's make it something simple, cool and refreshing as well as nourishing.

* * *

Try a meal built around a cold soup . . . Iced Olive Tomato Soup will do nicely. It can be tossed together in minutes and kept in the refrigerator all ready to serve. In fact, it's best after a day or two's chilling.

It's a distant cousin of the Spanish soup-salad called Gazpacho, made with tomato juice and seasoned with oil, vinegar and pimiento-stuffed olives. Serve it in bowls or mugs topped with diced cucumber and olive slices.

Along with the soup, serve cold meats or cheese. Some garlic bread would be good, too, with chilled pieces of fruit for dessert. Pick out the coolest spot in the backyard for serving.

Iced Olive Tomato Soup

1 quart tomato juice
½ cup salad oil
⅓ cup vinegar
¼ cup lemon juice
1 clove garlic, sliced
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon rosemary leaves
Dash each: thyme, basil, oregano leaves
¼ cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
¾ cup milk
Salt to taste
½ cup each: sliced pimiento-stuffed olives and diced cucumber

Combine tomato juice, oil, vinegar, lemon juice, garlic, sugar, mustard, herbs, chopped olives and milk. Chill several hours or overnight. Strain into serving bowl and season to taste with salt. Serve topped with sliced olives and cucumber. Makes about 7 cups.

Course of History Slightly Pickled

Long before the modern pickle popularity, pickles were consumed by men and women centuries ago. Cleopatra and other lovely ladies of the Nile prized the pickle as a beauty aid as well as a delicious tidbit.

* * *

Caesar and his legions marched to the munching of pickles.

* * *

Napoleon ate pickles every day. The imperial chef had strict orders to supply a dish of pickles at every meal.

* * *

The Little Corporal liked them sweet and highly spiced. Legend has it that Waterloo was fought on the day the chef forgot the pickles.

Fruit will be more plump in homemade preserves if it is allowed to stand in syrup 12 to 24 hours then packed and processed 15 minutes at simmering.

Soviets Sentence Six in Baptist Sect on 'Antisocial Activities' Charges

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has sentenced six members of a Baptist sect to prison terms of unspecified length on charges of "antisocial activities" and influencing childrens' minds with books containing "nonsensical notions on reality."

The newspaper Teacher's Gazette said Tuesday that the trial took place in Rostov-on-Don but did not say when.

* * *

According to the paper, the sect organized a street demonstration last May 2 and disrupted public order not only by the demonstration but by baptizing 40 young persons in the Don River. One of those baptized was a girl member of the Young Communists' League.

The paper said she and another girl "behaved bitterly and fanatically in court" during the trial.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The sect leaders set up an illegal Sunday School "in which illiterate and fanatical teachers taught 'God's word' to children 8 to 11 year old, and persistently and systematically accustomed them to a religious outlook," the Gazette said.

The May 2 baptism came on a Monday immediately after May Day which happened to fall on a Sunday this year. The indictment charged the sect with holding meetings that conflicted with official Soviet holidays — all of which come on Sundays except for May Day and the Nov. 7 anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

The Russian, with more than 500,000 members, is the second largest Baptist community in the world after the United States.

The container and packaging industry consumes 99 per cent of the nation's cellophane production and 95 per cent of all the aluminum foil made in the country.

More Laws Unneeded, Says Motorcycle Unit

DETROIT (AP) — A spokesman for the Michigan Motorcycle Dealers Association said Tuesday that further legislation to regulate the motorcycle industry is not needed.

James Barson, an attorney for the week-old group of 100 dealers, was reacting to a speech by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley at a meeting of more than 70 motorcycle manufacturers, dealers and rental agents here Tuesday.

* * *

"The hysteria for cycle legislation has gone overboard," Barson said. "Many communities are reacting by putting unfair and restrictive ordinances on the books."

Barson said his group was formed to promote safety education in the use of motorcycles and to oppose legislation "aimed at eliminating the motorcycle industry."

Kelley said he "disagreed completely" that the state does not need further legislation. He said he is trying to sound out police, manufacturers and users before proposing legislation, however.

"The need for such a program is emphasized by increasing motorcycle registrations and accidents involving motorcycles," Kelley said. "The public is aroused and is demanding new legislative action."

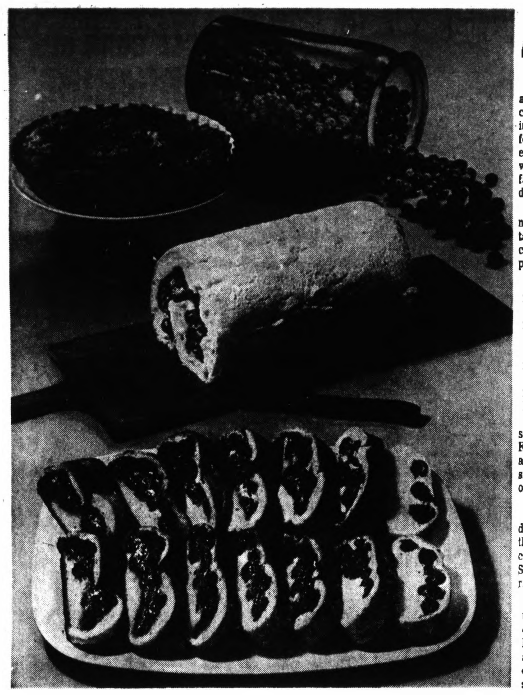
Blueberry Cakes Are Different



BLUEBERRY TREATS — Three delightfull fresh blueberry cakes, all made with mixes: Blueberry Biscuit Schnitt, Blueberry Jelly Roll and Blueberry Streusel Cake.

A true-blue sign of summer are the boxes of big beautiful cultivated blueberries decorating the markets. With only a few short months in which to enjoy the fresh blues, everybody will be turning out all the old favorite pies and tarts and puddings and pancakes.

But don't miss trying these new recipes, too, taking advantage of prepared cake and biscuit mixes. So easy and so pleasing.

Blueberry Biscuit Schnitt

2 cups biscuit mix
⅔ cup milk
2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries, rinsed and drained
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
Beaten egg

Mix biscuit mix with milk and stir until dough cleans the bowl. Knead the dough a few times on a lightly-floured board until smooth. Roll out dough to an oblong 8"x16".

* * *

Pile blueberries in a mound down the center of the length of the oblong. Mix sugar with cornstarch and orange rind. Sprinkle mixture over blueberries.

Fold over the top and bottom of the oblong 1" to enclose the ends of the filling. Fold dough over the filling and fold second side over the dough. Place filled roll seam side down on a greased cookie sheet.

Brush dough with beaten egg. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 20 to 25 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet with a spatula. Cool on a rack and cut into 1" slices. Serve at once.

Blueberry Jelly Roll

1 package sponge cake mix
1 cup orange marmalade
2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries rinsed and drained
Confectioners' sugar

Prepare sponge cake mix according to directions on package. Pour batter into a foil lined and greased 15½x10½" jelly roll pan with 1" sides. Spread batter evenly over the bottom of the pan.

Bake at the temperature required on the package for 20 to 25 minutes or until cake springs back when touched lightly. Turn cake out on a towel well-dusted with confectioners' sugar. Trim the crisp edges of the cake.

Starting at the short side roll up the cake in the towel and let cool. When cake is cool unroll carefully, remove towel.

* * *

Spread cake with orange marmalade and sprinkle blueberries over marmalade. Roll up cake and place seam side down on a serving platter. Sprinkle with additional confectioners' sugar. Cut into slices. Serves: 8.

Blueberry Streusel Cake

1 pkg. (14½ ounces) cinnamon streusel coffee cake mix
2 cups fresh cultivated blueberries, rinsed and drained

* * *

Prepare coffee cake batter according to direction on package. Pour batter into a well greased 9" square or round pan. Sprinkle blueberries over the top of the batter. Sprinkle streusel topping over the top of the blueberries.

Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for 35 to 40 minutes or until top is deep brown. Cool cake in pan and cut into squares or wedges while still warm. Serve warm. Yield: 1 — 9" round or square.

Chicken-Tomato Sandwiches Topped With Cheese Sauce

Summer's ruling monarch, Lord Sandwich, ascends the throne again. Quick-fix whole meal or snack, elegant or informal, sandwiches fill 'most any mealtime requirement.

Here's a snazzy new sandwich you'll love for informal patio suppers. Layer cooked chicken and tomato on zesty pumpernickel bread, then top all with mellow Cheddar cheese sauce.

Complete your patio picnic with a tray of deviled eggs and fresh vegetable relishes. For dessert . . . generous wedges of juicy, red watermelon and home-baked brownies. For non-calorie counters have vanilla ice cream and hot fudge sauce on hand to top the brownies.

Truly versatile Cheddar cheese soup (and other condensed soups, too) makes easy work of meal preparation the year 'round. This summer, use Cheddar cheese soup for a luscious sauce for grilled hamburgers or to add zest to a summer vegetable casserole.

Chicken-Cheese Sandwiches

6 servings sliced cooked chicken
6 slices pumpernickel bread, buttered
12 thin tomato slices
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed Cheddar cheese soup
⅔ cup diced cucumber
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon lemon juice
⅛ to ¼ teaspoon chili powder

On cookie sheet, arrange chicken on bread. Top each sandwich with 2 tomato slices. In bowl, combine remaining ingredients. Spoon ¼ cup sauce over each sandwich, covering edges completely. Broil 4 to 6 inches from heat for 6 minutes or until hot.

Color Scheme of Salad Is Gay

Do you get flustered at the very thought of giving an elegant luncheon? What you need, to calm you down, is a specialty which, in itself, supplies both main course and color scheme.

* * *

That's a perfect description of this shrimp-and-orange salad from the Shrimp Association of the Americas. Shellfish, fruit, vegetables and nuts certainly add up to ample fare.

* * *

As for the color combination, pink and orange are particularly appealing together, and much in favor with designers.

Mandarin Shrimp Salad

1½ lbs. shrimp (or 1 12-oz. package peeled and deveined shrimp)
1½ cups sliced celery
1 cup canned or fresh mandarin orange slices
1½ cups slivered almonds
1 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
¾ cup juice from mandarin oranges
½ teaspoon ground orange peel.

* * *

Shell and devein shrimp; cook by boiling 3 minutes in salted water. Drain and cool. Combine with celery, orange slices and almonds. Combine mayonnaise, vinegar, orange juice and ground peel. Lightly toss in shrimp mixture. Serve on lettuce. Makes 4 servings.

Soft Drink Mix Makes a Sherbet

Along about 1920 a little company in Nebraska delivered a line of products door to door. Among them were flavorings, spices, toilet articles, medicines, and a nectar in six flavors. From it came pre-sweetened soft drink mix.

* * *

Flavors now number seven: strawberry, cherry, grape, lemon-lime, orange, raspberry, and black cherry. All you add is water to make a whistle-wetting drink in the hot old summertime.

From one envelope of pre-sweetened soft drink mix, you can also whip up an easy Fruit-Flavored Sherbet by adding an egg white and 3 cups of milk. It freezes in just a few hours . . . ready to scoop into a soda to serve thirsty friends. Or spoon it over fresh fruits.

This sherbet is the most frequently requested recipe using the soft drink mix; it's so easy, versatile, and refreshing.

Easy Soda

1 envelope pre-sweetened soft drink mix, any flavor
1 bottle (1 qt.) club soda, chilled
1 pint Fruit-Flavored Sherbet or vanilla ice cream

Dissolve soft drink mix in a small amount of the club soda; then stir in remaining soda. Place a small scoop of sherbet in each of 6 tall glasses. Stir in soda mixture; top with another scoop of sherbet. Makes about 1½ quarts or 6 large servings.

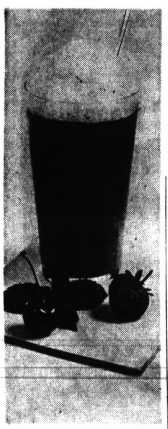
Fruit-Flavor Sherbet

1 envelope pre-sweetened soft drink mix, any flavor
3 cups milk
1 egg white

* * *

Combine ingredients. Beat until blended. Pour into shallow pan. Freeze until partially firm. Spoon into a chilled bowl and beat until smooth but not melted. Return to shallow pan and freeze until firm — about 2 hours. Makes about 3 cups.

Yeast dough is kneaded enough when it becomes smooth and elastic.



MOST REQUESTED RECIPE — this Fruit-Flavored Sherbet made from pre-sweetened soft drink mix, milk, and an egg white. Delicious scooped into a fizz of soda and more soft drink mix. Cherry or strawberry anyone?

Heat in the Can

You can heat pork and beans right in the can for that outdoor supper. Just place the opened can on the grill over hot coals; use a chop stick (or the long handle of a wooden spoon) for stirring the beans occasionally while they heat.

Roast Apples

Apples taste wonderful when they are roasted outdoors! Wrap each apple individually in foil and place over hot coals for half an hour; turn often.

German Military, Leaders Clash

BONN, Germany (AP) — The growing row between West German military and political leaders took on crisis proportions today as a third general asked to be retired.

★ ★ ★

A Defense Ministry spokesman disclosed that Maj. Gen. Guenther Paper, commander of the Third Military Region, has asked to be relieved of his command because he disagreed with a Defense Ministry decision allowing servicemen to join a labor union.

The row threatened to topple Defense Minister Kai-Uwe Von Hassel and reach into the office of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

The dispute took on new urgency Tuesday as Gen. Heinz Trettner, 58, commander in chief of the armed forces, asked to be retired, saying he objected to Von Hassel's decision of Aug. 3 to allow soldiers, airmen and sailors to join the Public Services and Transport Workers Union.

SUSPENDED CHIEF

The disclosure by the Defense Ministry of Trettner's request came a day after the ministry suspended the air force chief, Lt. Gen. Werner Panitzki, for criticizing the government and its purchase of the air force's crash-prone F104G Starfighters. Panitzki charged the plane purchase was inspired by politicians and said the Defense Ministry needed to be reorganized.

German political observers viewed the row swirling around the two generals as a crucial clash between the military and ruling politicians, who have made great efforts to keep the 430,000-member armed forces under their control since the country was allowed to rearm in the middle '50s.

DEAN RUSK

Rusk Called 'No. 1 War Hawk'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk was called "the supreme war hawk" in the Senate yesterday. One senator called for his dismissal.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, in a speech attacking the Johnson administration's Viet Nam policies said the United States was "on a collision course with China."

He described Rusk as the administration's "supreme war hawk."

Young said he found it "frightening, outrageous" that Rusk recently said an American commander would have to take measures to protect his troops in the demilitarized zone which separates North and South Viet Nam.

It was Sen. Wayne L. Morse, D-Ore., who called for Rusk's ouster.

OUTSPOKEN CRITIC

Morse, an outspoken critic of the Vietnamese war, accused Rusk of following in the path of "propagandists who seek to confuse American public opinion."

"We need a new secretary of state — one who would advise the President on the basis of facts," Morse said.

Meanwhile, Chairman John C. Stennis, D-Miss., of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, called on Rusk to testify tomorrow at a hearing on the United States' ability to meet its military commitments abroad.

New Canada Rail Talks Set

OTTAWA (AP) — A last-ditch effort to settle the railway wage dispute opens here today with the deadline for a crippling nationwide rail strike only two days away.

Labor Minister John Nicholson won agreement from railway and union leaders last night for a new round of mediation talks in his office, but there was little optimism a settlement could be reached before the Friday noon strike hour.

As Nicholson was arranging the renewal of bargaining efforts, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson told a national television and radio audience that both sides must adopt "moderation and common sense."

"A general railway strike — even for a few days — will seriously affect the livelihood and well-being of thousands of our people. A prolonged strike would be far more serious and it could be disastrous," Pearson said.

Pearson said he hoped both labor and management would be fair and he promised the government would introduce legislation to revamp the railway system and enable companies to grant "reasonable" wage increases. But he warned the increases must not be inflationary.

120,000 EMPLOYES

The scheduled strike would involve about 120,000 employes of the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railway. It will affect five other lines.

The CNR and the CPR say their subsidiaries in the United States will not be affected, but runs into Canada will be terminated at the nearest point to the U.S.-Canadian border.

The railways have refused wage demands ranging from 55 cents to more than $1 an hour. The present average wage is $2.22 hourly.

Needed Hoist for This Heist

STUART, Fla. (AP) — A record for stealing resort souvenirs may have been set at House of Refuge, a marine museum. Its officials reported theft of two 1,000-pound bronze propellers, gift of the Navy several years ago.

How the massive marine screws were removed was not explained.

Seven states have laws requiring school systems to provide lunch periods for teachers. These must be duty-free.

Top LBJ Aides View Slums Firsthand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Acting under orders from President Johnson, Cabinet members and other top officials are quietly visiting city slums and ghettos to get a firsthand look at conditions.

Johnson's directive, aimed in part at checking on local administration of federal urban aid programs, went out a few weeks ago.

Since then three department heads have paid unannounced visits to slum areas. And several White House staffers, dressed in old clothes, have gone incognito into Negro ghettos in and around Washington and New York.

Speaking at Syracuse, N.Y., last Friday the President made a vague reference to his order for on-the-spot assessments by his highest aides of urban blight.

He told his Syracuse audience he was determined to "take the profit out of poverty," and spoke of special federal programs to aid slum-dwellers. Then he interjected, "Don't be surprised if you see a lot of my Cabinet in the next few months."

White House officials said Johnson wanted Cabinet members to see, hear and feel what really is going on in the slum neighborhoods and city streets that have spawned racial and other forms of violence.

So far, these sources say, the President's order has resulted in visits to Negro slums in Boston's Roxbury section by Atty. Gen Nicholas deB. Katzenbach; to the riot-scarred Hough area of Cleveland by Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and to poor sections of Miami, Fla.

Services' Training of Poorly Educated, Physically Deficient Youths Starts in October

WASHINGTON (AP) — The armed forces will embark in October on a special training effort designed to bring up to required military standards many poorly educated or physically deficient youths.

The Pentagon provided this starting date and listed the training bases for the program. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara envisioned Tuesday as an aid to the services as well as a benefit to American society.

★ ★ ★

Men ordinarily disqualified for military service will undergo what the Pentagon described as "supplementary or intensified training" to bring them up to minimum standards.

This schooling will take place at regular military training centers around the country.

LACK DETAILS

But exactly which individuals will be affected and what kind and periods of training they will undergo before being accepted or rejected for a full military tour were not fully spelled out by the defense chief.

McNamara offered no clues when he mentioned the program as a military-social mission in a speech to Veterans of Foreign Wars in New York.

He said 40,000 young men would receive the "supplementary" training this fiscal year and 100,000 annually thereafter.

The defense chief said it is hoped that up to 65 per cent of the trainees would then be retained for military duty. McNamara said the program would not affect the present draft standards.

Pentagon sources said the trainees would be sworn into the armed services, just as draftees and enlistees are. Those trainees unable to meet the armed services standards after the training period would be given an honorable discharge as unqualified, it was explained.

★ ★ ★

The sources also said that the new program would have no substantial impact on draft quotas. "This merely will provide us a bit bigger pool of qualified manpower for the military," one spokesman said.

McNamara's program drew quick praise and a word of caution from Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity which handles the antipoverty program.

"I am delighted by the forceful and timely speech by Secretary McNamara and we welcome his support of the war on poverty," Shriver said.

CENTER CONTROL

But he added that McNamara's proposal could bring cries that the Army should take over the Job Corps centers because the Army can do a better job with the same youngsters. "This is not true," Shriver said.

"Job Corps youngsters are not the same youngsters as those Secretary McNamara proposes to enroll," he added. "The appeal and success of Job Corps, moreover, lie in large part in its voluntary nature."

★ ★ ★

The Pentagon said the program will be conducted at these bases:

Army — Ft. Dix, N.J.; Ft. Jackson, S.C.; Ft. Knox, Ky.; Ft. Gordon, Ga., Ft. Polk, La.; Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; Ft. Ord, Calif.; Ft. Benning, Ga.; Ft. Bliss, Tex.; Ft. Lewis, Wash.; Ft. Bragg, N.C.; Ft. Campbell, Ky.; Ft. Sill, Okla.; Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.; Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

Navy — Recruit training centers at San Diego, Calif., and Great Lakes, Ill.

Marines — Recruit training centers at Parris Island, S.C., and San Diego, Calif.; Camp LeJeune, N.C.; and Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Air Force — Lackland AFB, Tex.

Romania Eying Balkans Links

Red Satellite Seeks More Independence

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) — Romanian Communist party leader Nicolae Ceausescu apparently is making a bid to consolidate his independence from Moscow by strengthening contacts with the Balkan countries.

During the past few weeks there has been considerable evidence that Ceausescu is deeply interested in developing relations with Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey.

Political observers here attach great significance to Ceausescu's recent visit to Bulgaria and his talks with Bulgarian Communist leader Todor Zhivkov.

Ceausescu made several statements emphasizing his interest in developing Balkan cooperation. He said in a speech delivered at an anniversary meeting of the founding of the Bulgarian Communist party that Romania was striving to contribute to the improvement of inter-Balkan relations "irrespective of political systems."

* * *

The Romanian leader's reference to cooperation with Balkan countries "irrespective of political systems" shows that he does not attach too much importance to the fact that both Greece and Turkey are members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

ABOLISH BOTH

Ceausescu has made it clear he believes both the Warsaw Pact and NATO should be abolished.

West German government officials are closely watching Ceausescu's maneuvers in the Balkans.

* * *

West Germany is anxious to resume diplomatic relations with Romania and any move by Ceausescu which takes him further out of the Soviet Camp could bring such recognition closer to reality.

Bulgaria and Yugoslavia are to all appearances reacting favorably to these early approaches from Romania.

Talks on Walkout Slated This Week

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Company and union representatives were to meet this week to discuss grievances which led to a three-day walkout at Reynolds Metals Co. here.

The walkout, by members of United Auto Workers Local 277, began Saturday, apparently over the issue of mandatory overtime.

* * *

The employes returned to their jobs on the 11 p.m. shift.

Pain Leads to Suicide

LORIENT, France (UPI) — Police said Lucien Thierry, 45, after suffering violent headaches for the past several weeks, killed himself last night by setting his clothes afire.

Status of Major Legislation in Congress Is Reported

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Status of major legislation:

LABOR

WAGE-HOUR — Administration and labor now supporting legislation to raise the $1.25 hourly minimum wage to $1.40 on Feb. 1, 1967, and to $1.60 on Feb. 1, 1968. Also would give new minimum wage coverage to about 8-million workers, for the first time, including farm hands and service workers.

* * *

House: Approved bill with $1.60 step delayed until 1969. Senate: Labor committee approved revised House bill with $1.60 step advanced to 1968.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION — Johnson asked Congress to liberalize and make uniform unemployment compensation payments in the states.

House: Passed bill leaving out key provision that would set federal standards for paying benefits. Senate Approved bill restoring benefit standards but eliminating coverage of 1.2 million small firm employes added by House.

CIVIL RIGHTS

HOUSING — President's omnibus civil rights request would outlaw racial discrimination in the sale or rental of housing; seek fair selection of state and federal court juries; provide new legal protection against violence directed at Negroes and rights workers; and give the Justice Department new power to seek school and public facilities desegregation.

* * *

House: Approved after amending housing section to exempt single family and owner-occupied apartments under five units, and after adding and outlawing "blockbusting" and an enforcement agency. Also added an antiriot provision. Senate: Leaders plan to bypass committee and bring it to floor Sept. 6.

CRIME

GUNS — President has asked prohibition on mail order sales of firearms except through federally-licensed dealers and manufacturers. Senate: Judiciary subcommittee has approved bill.

* * *

House: Ways & means committee has held hearings, awaiting Senate action.

* * *

NARCOTICS — Administration is supporting reforms of narcotics laws to provide civil commitment for medical treatments instead of mandatory jailing of offenders.

* * *

House: Approved. Senate: Hearing under way in juvenile delinquency subcommittee.

CONSUMER

TRUTH-IN-PACKAGING — The administration has endorsed legislation to require more packaging and labeling information for the consumer on the quantity, quality and price of supermarket type goods.

* * *

Senate: Approved. House: Commerce committee hearings under way.

HOUSING

SLUMS — President has asked Congress to authorize a pilot program under which entire slum neighborhood would be physically and socially rehabilitated. The $2.3-billion cost would be spread over six years, with about 60 or 70 cities participating.

House added a requirement that the government develop standards for resale of used cars within two years.

Both also approved development of prototype safety cars, federal tire standards, disclosure of auto defects, and a national register of drivers who lose their licenses.

Sun, Moon Affect Satellites

By Science Service

GREENBELT, Md. — The sun and the moon combine to produce changes in the orbits of earth satellites just as important in affecting their motions as the earth's shape is.

Both theoretical and experimental studies show the effects of solar and lunar forces, Drs. James P. Murphy and Theodore L. Felsentreger of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight Center here have found.

They have calculated a computer program for analyzing the motions of such far-out satellites as Relay 1 and Telstar 2.

Auto Makers Form Safety Policy Unit

DETROIT (AP) — A committee to formulate auto industry views on safety legislation has been established, the Automobile Manufacturers Association (AMA) announced Tuesday.

* * *

The committee will present industry views to the secretary of commerce, or secretary of transportation if a department of transportation is created, as is proposed under the federal traffic safety bill. The bill is before Congress where approval is expected.

* * *

The measure would direct the secretary to issue minimum motor vehicle safety performance standards.

Bill Is Approved on Indian Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to expand a loan program for Indians was approved Tuesday by the Senate Interior Committee.

The measure, which now goes to the Senate, would increase a revolving loan fund from $27 million to $62 million, makes loans available to individuals as well as to tribes, and authorize grants in connections with loans.

'Earl of New York' Nearly Quit in 1964

Rise From 'Second Fiddler' to 'Conductor' Tough for Morrall

This is part two of the Earl Morrall story from "The Fink of Detroit to the Earl of New York.")

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The rise from second fiddler to conductor, or in sports terminology from reliefer to starter, was long, tough and frustrating for Earl Morrall, one of the finest quarterbacks in Michigan State University football.

His pro career started as the No. 1 draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers in 1956 and it almost ended in the same city in the opening game of the 1964 season.

After his samaritan role in the Sam Williams incident on the West Coast, Morrall got into a heated verbal exchange with the Detroit Lions and was ready to hang up his shoes.

"I don't know what I have to do to prove myself," he said as he sat in his room at the motel near San Francisco. His bags were packed and he had been trying to reach coach George Wilson to tell him of his intentions "to retire."

The departure of Morrall's roommate, Williams, occupied most of Wilson's time at this time, but the Lions' coach, who had a way of smoothing over player differences, finally got to talk to Earl and it must have been 2:00 a.m. before the Morrall-Wilson discussion ended.

"That talk was really the key for my decision to stay in the game," said Morrall, "and I'm so happy in New York right now. I'm real thankful we had that talk."

* * *

It's strange but pro football experts never felt that Morrall was among the better NFL passers, but in this respect when does Green Bay's Bart Starr ever get his due recognition despite the Packers' great records in recent years.

GOOD LEADER

As field leader and diagnostician however, Morrall ranks among the best. Wilson thought so, and New York coach Allie Sherman agrees right now.

The question always came up, "Why did Morrall do so well as a relief quarterback and often fall flat when he started a game?"

Wilson analyzed this from 1957 to 1964 and he came up with the answer which very few could dispute.

"Earl was always good at diagnosing opposition defenses. While sitting on the sidelines with the bench phones, he would call the plays to himself and set up a strategy of his own after watching particular defenses.

"Then when he would go into the game, he would have his plan of attack all set . . . . and in most cases he was right."

* * *

When Morrall broke into the NFL in 1956, he had a few relief appearances behind Y.A. Tittle at San Francisco, but when the 49ers drafted John Brodie, a popular local attraction from Stanford in 1957, they shipped Morrall to Pittsburgh where new head coach Buddy Parker had taken over after quitting Detroit.

* * *

The Steelers had Len Dawson, Ted Marchibroda and Jack Scarbath, none of whom pleased Parker, so Morrall had the edge in playing time even though he had to share duties with Dawson.

Pittsburgh finished 6-6, the best record in five years but Parker was far from satisfied.

YEAR OF TRADE

In 1958, a No. 1 and No.2 battle at quarterback was going on between Bobby Layne and Tobin Rote with the Lions. Rote led the Lions through the final stages of the 1957 season and through the title game after Layne suffered a fractured leg in the 11th game of the season against the Bears.

* * *

Pittsburgh lost its first two games of 1958 and with two "No. 1" quarterbacks the Lions lost to Baltimore 28-15 and settled for a 13-13 tie in Green Bay in a game which had the Lions' bosses fuming.

In the final minute of the game on the Packers' 14, Layne called for a pitch out play to halfback Gene Gedman. The ball fell short and on the lateral, the Packers recovered.

"It was a bad call," said an angry Wilson. "We expected Bobby to run another play and then go for the field goal for the potential winning points."

A few hours later when the team plane from Green Bay arrived in Willow Run airport, the front page headline in a story out of Pittsburgh told of the Layne-Morrall trade.

Morrall, even though he had gained great popularity on the Michigan State campus, was hardly considered a fair swap for Layne even with a draft choice.

The boo birds who were once all over Layne had their volume turned high when the home season started in the third game.

Wilson later admitted he erred in his decision for the No. 1 job, but he made the choice and behind Rote he had Morrall and Jerry Reichow to battle it out for the No. 2 spot.

Morrall's baptism out of the bullpen was fast. In that third game, which was against the Rams, he not only got his chance but he found himself in the middle of strong criticism in press and radio reports.

In his Honolulu Blue and White uniform for the first time, Morrall entered the game in relief of Rote with one minute to play in the half.

FAST SCORE

After a seven-yard bootleg gain, going out of bounds to stop the clock, he passed to former Ohio State star Hopalong Cassady with a pass to the 18 and Hoppy ran in the rest of the way to tie the score at 21-21 with Jim Martin's conversion.

Late in the 4th period, Morrall again came out of the bullpen and passed 18 yards to Gedman to tie the score at 28-28, and at this point 55,648 fans were roaring approval for their new quarterback.

Temporarily he made Lions fans forget Layne.

There were two minutes left in the game and the Lions were marching again. Morrall had the ball third down on the Ram's 22. It was easy field goal range for Martin.

INTERCEPTION

But then, Morrall went back to pass and Jack Morris intercepted on the 11. He carried to midfield and two plays later the Rams scored.

When rookie Danny Lewis fumbled the ensuing kickoff, the Rams had the ball on the 17, and in two minutes what could have been a Lions' possible victory by field goal ended in a 42-28 loss.

Teamsters Launching Bid for State Baseball Title

Unionmen Post Easy Decision in City Playoff

Winners' Mound Staff Stops Booth Homes in Two Games

Teamster 614 put a quick end to the championship series of the Pontiac Men's Baseball League playoffs with a 7-1 conquest of Booth Homes last night at Jaycee Park.

* * *

The victory was the second straight for the regular season leaders and put them in Saturday's state district double-header against the Flint champion, also at Jaycee Park.

* * *

As in its other four games with Booth Homes during the campaign, the Teamsters' pitching was a dominant factor although the losers did amass 10 hits Tuesday after only totaling seven in its other four winless outings with the unionmen.

Don Sackett and reliever Don Picmann combined to strand 12 runners on base.

Sackett, the Class A League's leading percentage hurler during the season, wasn't impressive but held Booth to a lone run before yielding the mound duties to Picmann with two out in the sixth. The husky left-hander allowed only two hits the rest of the way.

* * *

Booth's run came in the second and tied the score at 1-1 after Dan Fife's wildness led to a first-inning marker for the winners.

TIES SCORE

Chuck Honchell led off the losers' tying effort with a single and scored on base hits by Jim Ward and Tom Booth.

The Teamsters — who scored all their runs and put the first two batters on base in each of the first five innings — went ahead for good in the bottom of the second.

A walk, Sackett's safety, a force out and John Fleser's two out single made it a 2-1 game. The third inning then proved decisive.

John Lucadam and Les Stone sandwiched singles around a walk to Al Barkeley. With one out Sackett walked to force in a run. Bob Rabaja's short fly to right field was dropped by Dale Manning, and Dave Houck walked to force in the third run of the frame, giving the unionmen a 5-1 margin.

FINAL TWO

Barkeley singled home the final two runs in the fifth following base hits by Rabaja and Gottschalk, plus another walk by Fife who issues 11 free passes while striking out 10.

Kansas Runner Enjoying College

Jim Ryun Sees No Limit to Career

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Jim Ryun of Kansas, holder of two world track records at 19, says watching films of his races "still puts a chill in my spine" and he believes he has "as many years as I want to run ahead of me."

Ryun has just gone back to work after a three-week vacation from track, his first in four years, and he believes the break helped him renew his enthusiasm.

"The idea that high school trackmen burn themselves out by working too hard too early is dwindling away," Ryun said Tuesday night. "I think this has been pretty well disproved by now.

* * *

"I think I can continue to improve and to run well as long as I'm interested in track," he said. "My whole college varsity career is ahead of me. One of the best things about athletics is being with your teammates, traveling with your team."

Ryun will be available for very few — if any — special events on track's indoor and outdoor circuits while the Kansas track season is on.

"This is the way I want it," he said. "There will be plenty of big meets here and in other countries after the college national meets are over."

Films of Ryun's races, starting with his first high school and ending with his world record 3:51.3 mile at Berkeley, Calif., in July were shown to newsmen.

* * *

Ryun was supposed to narrate the films. Typically, he did most of his talking during his defeats. No film was available on his world record 1:44.9 half mile at Terre Haute, Ind., the race which surprised him the most.

"I couldn't believe it," he said. "I made my move with about 300 yards to go, looked around and I was 10 yards ahead."

Kansas will be shooting for a flock of relay records with Ryun as anchor man and the slim, handsome, dark-haired youth said he is looking forward to the 1,000 and two-mile indoors and three-mile outdoors.

Winless Denver Tests AFL 'Babies' Tonight

By the Associated Press

Pro football history will be made tonight if the new Miami Dolphins of the American Football League win their first game ever by defeating the Denver Broncos at Memphis, Tenn.

"The brand new babies" of the AFL, as part-owner Danny Thomas refers to the Dolphins, aren't expected to do so, however, even though the exhibition game pairs two winless teams.

The Broncos, beaten by Buffalo and Kansas City, still are regarded as stronger than the Dolphins, trounced by San Diego, Kansas City and the New York Jets.

The game gets this week's exhibition schedule off to an early start since the Broncos play again on Sunday afternoon at home against Oakland in a nationally televised game over the NBC network.

TWO GAMES

A sellout crowd of more than 80,000 is expected to see the National Football League doubleheader at Cleveland Friday night.

Minnesota meets Washington in the first game with the Cleveland Browns taking on the Baltimore Colts in the second which will be televised over the CBS network.

Eight games are listed for Saturday, five in the NFL and three in the AFL. The New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles play at Princeton, N.J. Saturday afternoon. Saturday night, Pittsburgh is at Green Bay, St. Louis at Los Angeles, Dallas and Detroit tangle at Tulsa and San Francisco meets Atlanta at Columbia, S.C.

Houston is at Kansas City, Boston at San Diego and Buffalo battles the New York Jets at Allentown, Pa. in the three AFL Saturday night exhibitions.

Adrian Shut Out in Legion Finale

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Frank Battaglia outdueled Bob Gritzmaker 2-0 Tuesday with a tight four-hitter as Northbrook, Ill., edged Adrian, Mich., 2-0 for the Region 5 American Legion Baseball title.

The victory earned Northbrook, 40-6, a berth in the National American Legion championships at Orangeburg, S.C., starting Sunday. Adrian, ending the season 34-4, defeated Northbrook 5-0 Saturday. Northbrook scored single runs in the sixth and ninth innings, picking up eight hits in the process.

SPORTS

Tigers Fall, 2-1

No Support for Podres

DETROIT (AP)—Johnny Podres must be wondering if he's ever going to win another game.

The tricky Tiger lefthander held Chicago to one unearned run through eight innings Tuesday night but — for the fifth time in his six starts—was not the pitcher of record as the White Sox went on to win, 2-1, in 12 innings.

"It was one of those games that both pitchers deserved to win," Manager Frank Skaff said philosophically. "Johnny was great again but we just can't seem to get him any runs."

The loss hurt a little more because the Tigers knew that they had a chance to gain another game on the front-running Baltimore Orioles, 2-1 losers to Cleveland.

WILD PITCHES

Both of the Chicago runs were aided by wild pitches.

The White Sox broke a scoreless deadlock in the fifth without the benefit of a hit. Bill Skowron walked, went to second when Norm Cash bobbled Pete Ward's grounder, moved to third on a sacrifice and scored on the wild pitch by Podres.

Cash tied the score with a two-out homer in the ninth but the White Sox took advantage of a couple of scratch hits and a wild pitch in the 12th for their winning run.

Jerry Adair's inning-opening grounder snaked its way through the middle for a single. A wild pitch by loser Larry Sherry put Adair on second and he went to third when Tom McCraw beat out a slow roller to second.

* * *

Sherry made a good play to throw out McCraw at second on a bounder by Floyd Robinson but Wayne Causey came through with a sacrifice fly, scoring Adair.

* * *

Gary Peters, who holds a 10-2 career record over the Tigers, held them without a hit until the fifth inning and got out of jams in both the fourth and fifth with the help of double plays.

He walked Don Wert and Jerry Lumpe to open the fourth but struck out Cash and got Al Kaline to bounce into the double play.

* * *

Willie Horton bunted a single for the first Detroit hit in the fifth and moved to second on Bill Freehan's fly to deep center. Mickey Stanley then singled to left but Skaaf elected to hold Horton at third rather than wave him in. Dick McAuliffe then hit into the inning-ending double play.

Detroit Gains Soccer Team

Eleven Squads Now in New League

CHICAGO (AP) — The newly formed North America Soccer League boosted its membership to 11 teams Tuesday and announced a 12th and final franchise will be granted at its next meeting Oct. 5.

* * *

Franchises were granted to Detroit, Houston and Cleveland Tuesday when James P. McGuire of New York was named league president.

The Detroit franchise is headed by William Clay Ford, Edwin J. Anderson, Wendell Anderson and other Detroit sportsmen.

Charter members are Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, New York, San Francisco, Toronto, Vancouver, and Washington, D.C.

The league will meet again in October when five applications including Milwaukee will be screened to pick a 12th member to complete the league. The identity of the other applicants was not revealed.

Judge Roy Hofheinz of the gamed Astrodome heads the Houston group and Cleveland is headed by "prominent citizens whose names will be announced shortly," said Art Allyn, owner of the Chicago entry.

Lone Champion in Golf Field 5-and-4 Winner

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — George Haggarty of Grosse Pointe, Mich., the only former champion in the field, won his first round match Tuesday in the World Senior Golf championship at the Broadmoor.

Haggarty, winner in 1963, pinned a 5-and 4 defeat on William Potts of Winnetka, Ill.

* * *

Robert Kiersky of Pittsburgh, the USGA senior champion, was sidelined by Georges Huet of France, the only foreign player surviviving the initial round, 3 and 2.

Adrian French of Los Angeles, runnerup last year, also was eliminated, losing 4 and 3 to Donald Case of Llano, Calif.

Jack Barkel of Australia, the 1965 champion, was unable to compete this year.

Keg Captains to Meet

League secretary W. I. Brown requests all team captains among the St. Michael's bowlers at West Side Lanes to attend an organizational meeting 8 p.m. Thursday at the establishment.

McDowell, Chance Regain Pitching Form

By The Associated Press

The Case of the Missing Pitchers or Where Did You Go? Out. What Did You Do? Nothing.

Dean Chance and Sam McDowell spent the last two months in something of a pitcher's limbo. Two of the top hurlers in the American League, they had managed three victories between them and the case looked ominous.

* * *

Then, just as suddenly as they faded away, the two pitchers reversed field and now they look like themselves again. James Bond might even have trouble with this mystery.

McDowell signalled the end of the dry spell with a three-hit shutout against Chicago last Friday. Then the Cleveland left-hander came back with a 2-1 six-hitter against American League leading Baltimore Tuesday night.

Not to be outdone, Chance fired a three-hitter as California shaded New York 1-0.

WINNING RUN

Rocky Colavito's 28th home run proved to be the winning run for McDowell, who had the Orioles shut out until the eighth inning.

"I'm slowly getting my control back," said McDowell, who sufered with arm trouble after winning four games before the season was a month old. "I'm slowly getting my control back, but my coordination's still off."

Chance, 9-15, managed to smile through his troubles. "I'm a candidate for Comeback of the Year," the Angel right-hander said, "next year."

Meanwhile, Jim Kaat, who has flourished despite the demise of the defending champion Minnesota Twins, won his 19th with a five-hitter against Washington, beating the Senators 7-0 in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader. Washington won the nightcap 4-3.

Elsewhere, Chicago edged Detroit 2-1 in 12 innings with Gary Peters going all the way and Kansas City's doubleheader at Boston was postponed by rain.

FANNED 10

McDowell struck out 10 and hurled his sixth complete game. His first five route-going efforts were all shutouts. He had the Orioles blanked until Frank Robinson's two-out single delivered a run in the eight.

* * *

Chance got the only run he needed on Paul Schaal's fourth-inning single. "I was wild all night," the Angel right-hander complained. "Somebody said 'pitch a shutout' before the game, but heck, I would have been happy to win 10-9."

* * *

Rich Rollins' grand slam homer gave Kaat an early cushion against the Senators and the Minnesota left-hander coasted to the victory. It pushed his record to 19-9.

Willie Kirkland's pinch homer, leading off in the bottom of the eighth, gave the Senators the split in the nightcap.

No. 1 Spot Eluded Morrall Constantly

from the press box," said assistant coach Aldo Forte.

"And I sent it in from the bench, "Wilson then said of the pass which was intercepted.

"It was a good call. A touchdown would have taken the starch out of them. If it had been incomplete we would have gone for the field goal" the coach said.

So twice in two weeks a questionable call by a quarterback had the fans up in arms. Cheers suddenly turned to boos when Morrall and the team left the field.

It was not until after the newspapers quoted Forte and Wilson that the new quarterback was absolved by the fans.

In 1959 Morrall was still a reliefer for Rote and in 1960 the Lions brought in another Michigan Stater, Jim Ninowski in a trade with Cleveland.

PICTURE CHANGES

Ninowski guided the College All-Stars to a 35-19 victory over the Lions in 1958, but at Cleveland he had been Plum's understudy.

Wilson found himself again confronted with a flip of the coin choice for quarterback, and as was Morrall's luck, he lost.

Ninowski stumbled with the Lions through a 3-5 record and in the 8th game of 1960 the Bears mauled him for minus-107 yards passing and allowed only 14 net yards in winning 28-7.

Thanksgiving Day's traditional battle with Green Bay followed and with Morrall in relief the Lions scored a 23-10 victory.

Then came the game in Baltimore. Morrall played only the 4th quarter but he still calls it "the biggest game of my career."

At least it was the most exciting and it secured his popularity in the hearts of Detroit fans.

The Colts had a 15-13 lead with 14 seconds to play. Lenny Moore had just made a spectacular diving catch of John Unitas' pass in the end zone and Baltimore fans swarmed over the field cheering their "sure" victory.

After the field was cleared, the kickoff took place and the clock was stopped with the Lions on their own 35 yard line.

Morrall faded back and Colt defenders looked to the sidelines expecting a clock stopping pass.

At midfield Morrall spotted Jim Gibbons all alone. He hit him perfectly and Gibbons went all the way for a 65-yard touchdown pass that stunned 57,808 Baltimore fans and thousands of Detroit TV viewers.

If anything ever made a hero out of Morrall that play did and for the remainder of the 1960 season, Morrall started and led the Lions to six wins in seven game and a 17-16 victory in the Miami Playoff Bowl over Milt Plum and Cleveland.

STILL AFTER NO. 1

Morrall felt he had won the job for the 1961 season but with the "trial and error" system of picking a quarterback, Ninowski started in most cases and Morrall finished the game and this took Detroit to its second straight Playoff Bowl and 38-10 win over Eagles.

The chances of securing the No. 1 spot faded even more in 1962 when Ninowski went back to Cleveland for Milt Plum in a package trade.

It was a good year for Plum in 1962, but in 1963 he had some serious setbacks. He couldn't shake a leg injury and gave mediocre performances in exhibition play. Morrall thus gained his longest term as a starter.

* * *

He moved from 14th among NFL quarterback to third in passing, and set a new Detroit passing record of 2,621 yards in less than 10 games with 24 TD passes.

Detroit finished 5-8-1-, but with a hospital list which reached 22 players at one time, most people felt Morrall had finally won himself a starting job for 1964.

But that wasn't the case as Plum started the season in San Francisco and again in Los Angeles the next week.

The internal troubles after the 49er game received attention across the country and Morrall's meeting with Wilson was over.

The Rams had a 14-0 lead when Wilson called Morrall out of the bullpen and the veteran reliefer managed to gain Detroit a 17-17 tie.

Again, he earned his starting role and he held the job until the 6th game of 1964 when Chicago's big defensive end Doug Atkins hit him from the blind side and put him out for the season with dislocated shoulder.

When Harry Gilmer took the coaching job in 1965, he made it known there would be only one No. 1 quarterback.

Morrall who had never had an impressive exhibition season showing, had the poorest game of his career in a 23-3 loss to Baltimore, and a week later the trade sending him to New York took place.

Juan Marichal Lifts Giants

United Press International

The San Francisco Giants are back in step now that Juan Marichal's instep is back in shape.

The streaking Giants took a one-game lead in the frantic National League pennant chase Tuesday night behind the high-kicking, sore-footed Dominican who stopped Cincinnati 7-3 on eight hits for his 18th victory.

It was San Francisco's fourth straight win and eight in their last nine games and coupled with Philadelphia's 5-4 defeat of Pittsburgh to push the Giants to a one-game lead they last owned Aug. 6.

* * *

Marichal hadn't won a game as a starter since July 25 and compounded his early August slump two weeks ago by stepping on a stray baseball while running in the outfield before a game and severly twisting his left ankle.

The injury, besides being quite painful, hindered Marichal's pitching motion, follow-through and total effectiveness so much so that Manager Herman Franks was at a loss Monday when asked about Marichal's next start.

"He'll pitch when he says he can pitch," Franks said, again."

Tuesday night the 28-year-old pitcher declared he was ready to test his ailing foot. Although touched for eight hits, including homers by Deron Johnson and Leo Cardenas that accounted for all the Red runs, he gained momentum as the game progressed and allowed only two hits after the fourth inning.

In other NL play, Los Angeles rallied to nip Atlanta 8-7, St. Louis shut out Houston 3-0, and New York down Chicago 4-1.

The Dodgers scored three times in the bottom of the ninth, the tying and winning runs coming across on Will Davis' single.

Righthander Bob Gibson stopped Houston on three singles for his 16th victory as Dal Maxvill drove in two runs and scored another. Maxvill, who had a perfect night at the plate with three hits, singled in Curt Flood in the fourth and eighth innings and came in from second in the seventh on Lou Brock's single.

Dennis Ribant (9-5) pitched a five-hitter for the Mets and gained his fourth win over the Cubs this season.

In the sixth, Larry Elliot's double drove in Jim Hickman, who had singled, and Ron Swoboda scored Elliot with a single. Cleon Jones' two-run homer in the seventh helped hand Dick Ellsworth his 19th loss against five wins.

Passer, Runner Hurting

Arrows' Camp Lists Injuries

Having beaten back their strongest challenger, Dayton, 19-6, last Saturday night in an exhibition game, the Pontiac Arrows are nursing a few injuries that they expect mended before the regular season gets underway Sept. 3 at Wisner Stadium.

Former All-Oakland County star Ron Bishop learned from Xrays that he has suffered a hairline fracture in his right hand as result of last Saturday's action.

* * *

Bishop said it happened on a follow through of a pass when one of the big Dayton linemen tried to block the throw and the passer's hand collided with the player's helmet.

Coach Lyle Wells said that Bishop would still do the punting and placements but is not expected to do any passing until possibly the third game of the season.

Another injured player was fullback Bill Shuple and he may sit out the scrimmage Saturday at Flint until the opener with Ypsilanti.

* * *

Much to the pleasure of nearly 3,000 fans at last Saturday's home exhibition with Dayton, the Arrows unveiled some old but surprising plays against the Colts, and Dayton coach Ed McCracken admitted, "He threw a few things at us we haven't seen in years."

Dayton is now missing its No. 1 quarterback Pete Mikolajewski who is undertaking his two-week course with the Army reserves, but he will be back for the Colts' first game at home with Flint, Sept. 3.

EARLY OPENER

In the other opening game of the Midwest Football League, a Friday night game Sept. 2 Lansing will visit the Detroit-Rouge Steelers.

The MFL plays all its games the remainder of the season on Saturday night, except for the Pontiac-Flint game at Wisner which will be played Wednesday night, Sept. 28.

The program for this game will be the "Pontiac Preview" featuring the first look at the 1967 line of Pontiac cars sponsored by the Wide Track Car dealers of the Pontiac area.

The Ypsilanti game will carry a lot of local interest. Former Birmingham High and pro star with the Lions, Steelers and Redskins, Tom Tracy, is coaching the Vikings who moved their franchise from Milan to Ypsilanti this year.

Tracy retired from pro football last year and he resides in Royal Oak.

* * *

Individual game tickets for the Ypsilanti opener, along with season tickets for the five regular season games at Wisner, are on sale at Griff's Grill, Osmun's, Frayer's, Bob-Kens, Dixie-Williams Sonoco along with student season tickets at Oakland University.

Organizing Loop for Blind Keglers

All blind residents of the Pontiac area interested in joining the Monday morning Blind Bowlers League at Huron Bowl should contact the establishment or attend the first meeting 10 a.m. Monday, Sept. 12.

Sponsorships are needed to cover the blind bowlers' expenses for the season. An individual sponsorship runs $30. These may be arranged by calling Huron Bowl.

Two Little League Nines in Semifinals

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—First round play in the 20th annual Little League Baseball World Series continues today with four teams seeking to join Sacramento, Calif., and Houston, Tex., as semifinalists.

Sacramento beat Windsor, Ontario, 3-1, Tuesday, and Houston shutout Monterrey, Mex., 6-0.

In today's action Kankakee, Ill., plays West New York, N. J., at 2 p.m., and Osaka, Japan, meets Rhein-Main Air Force Base, Germany, at 5 p.m.

Chiefs Getting Gridiron Gear

Pontiac Central football players may pick up their equipment 10 a.m. Saturday at Wisner Stadium.

* * *

Coach Paul Dellebra advises no one will receive equipment who hasn't had a physical examination and paid a $4 insurance fee at the high school office.

PCH grid practices will begin 10 a.m. Monday. Afternoon sessions are scheduled to begin 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Castleberry Paces Golf Loop

The Silver Lake Ladies' Golf League came to an end yesterday, and Madeline Castleberry took the bulk of the season honors.

She finished in a runner-up tie with Bobbie Cruickshank behind first flight champion Louise Wright and she won low gross and low putting honors for the season.

Second flight winner and runner-up were Helen Swett and Lorranie Hotchkiss and third flight honors went to winner Kay Frick and Mariane Lawrence.

Clay's Status Unsettled

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Cassius Clay's draft board says it's all right to leave the country for a title fight next month, but the heavyweight champion has no inkling of whether he'll eventually escape the military draft.

A four-hour hearing on Clay's appeal for an exemption brought the disclosure he's been a minister for two years in the Muslim religion he embraces — "preaching and converting people."

Clay came out of the hearing Tuesday and said it was "just like I was in a courtroom but there was no decision. When there is one, I'll be the first to hear."

The champion's attorney, Hayden Covington, has asked his draft board to reopen the entire case "so Clay can be considered for an exemption as Muslim minister."

The hearing stemmed from Clay's earlier appeal for a draft deferment as a conscientious objector. Special Judge Lawrence Grauman, appointed by the Justice Department to hear the case, will forward his recommendations back to the department.

* * *

Clay disclosed Tuesday that the draft board had given him permission to leave the country for his September fight with Karl Mildenberger in Frankfurt, Germany.

Clay, who contended that 90 per cent of his time is taken up now with religious work, said he expected a tough fight from Mildenberger.

"But the first time I lose a professional fight, I'm going to retire and devote my time to religion."

Grid Physicals Slated

Physical exeminations for Avondale High School football players will be given 7 p.m. Friday in the school gymnasium.

Coach Dick Bye said equipment would be issued at that time, also.

Teen-Agers Hit Targets in Trapshoot

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP)—The Men's and Women's Class AA championships of the Class competition firing from 16 yards at the 67th Grand American Trapshoot belong to a youth age 19 and a girl just 17.

U.S. Army Pvt. Jim Beck won the Men's laurels Tuesday and in doing it won a shootoff from two of trapshooting's best—Dan Orlich of Reno, Nev., who was after his second title in two days—and Dale Bell of Kamiah, Idaho.

And Nancy Krebs, a high school senior from Ripon, Wis., won the Women's title and in the process the Junior Class AA crown for girls with her 199 of 200.

Beck of Omaha, Neb., stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., and a member of the Army's trapshooting team, burst 200 straight clays along with Orlich and Bell, then broke 50 to the others' 49 apiece.

TOP EVENT

The North American Clay Targets Championship was today's feature, annually one of the top events at the Roaring Grand which climaxes Friday with the big one, the Grand American Handicap.

Including Miss Krebs' two, Wisconsin picked up four titles in the Class competition, which drew a record entry of 1,189, while Ohio had two winners.

Ted Bachhuber, Mayville, Wis., won Class A Men's honors with 199 and Ruby Jenner, Waupaca, Wis., won among Class B Women with 196.

James Holtzhauer, St. Marys, Class C Men, 196, and Edward L. Buckwalter, Couth Charleston, Class B Men, 198, were the Ohio titlists.

Other blue ribbon performers were Lora I. U.S. Acquires Prime Recreation Area

One of the most-sought-after tracts of land in the midwest will be opened to the public next spring.

The Sylvania Tract, 18,000 acres of prime outdoor recreation land, has been acquired by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and made a part of the Ottawa national forest in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

"The area is the most outstanding property USDA has yet purchased under the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1964," said Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman when he accepted the deed last week.

Owned by the Fisher family of Detroit, Sylvania has been an outdoor playground of millionaires since the turn of the century. Former President Dwight Eisenhower was a fishing and hunting guest there several times.

The USDA was given first chance to purchase the land, but private interests entered the picture when Congress was slow coming up with the necessary funds, about $5.5 million, needed to complete the purchase.

The money was appropriated, however, and the sale completed.

Located in the southeast corner of Dickinson County near Watersmeet in the western U.P., the tract contains large stands of virgin timber, 36 lakes, 19 ponds, numerous trails and camping sites.

The lakes cover 4,000 acres and have 65 miles of shoreline. Fishing in the tract is rated outstanding by the few select visitors who were guests of the owners.

Bald eagles, deer, bear, beaver and otter are found in the area and some of the lakes, as well as the streams, contain trout.

The U.S. Forest Service will formally take possession of the land Nov. 15. The owners will have two months after that in which to remove their possessions.

The Forest Service is preparing a master plan for the tract. Campsite preparation will begin early next spring and the area will be opened to the public about May 1.

Freeman said that timber harvesting on the site "will be consistent with its development spoiling it."

as a recreation area," and that camping, picnicking, swimming and canoeing facilities will be developed.

Some small lakes will be left in their present wilderness state.

"Sylvania is a beautiful and unspoiled land," noted Congressman Raymond F. Clevenger in whose district the tract is located. "With access and people come roads and developments and tin cans, paper and other debris.

"Now that Sylvania is public property, the severest test to all conservationists will be to provide for its public use without

New 'Cheat-Proof' Tag for 1966 Deer Hunting

Law enforcement officials of the Conservation Department have come up with a new deer tag designed to "cut out" the chances of making illegal kills during this fall's archery and firearm deer seasons.

The more "cheat-proof" tag, a plasticized 5 by 3-inch card will be introduced in response to public complaints that the old metal seal has been increasingly mis-used to permit multiple deer kills by individual hunters.

Upon getting a deer, each archery or firearm deer hunter will be required to cut or tear out sections of his tag to specify the date of kill, the sex of his animal and, if it is a buck, the number of points on its right and left antlers.

Conservation officers will enforce this "cut-out" requirement which will prevent would-be violators from switching their tags from one deer to another without showing that they have cheated.

"In short, once a hunter has cut out information describing his deer, it will be next to impossible for him to match up his tag with another animal," explained John A. Anguilm, chief of the department's law enforcement division.

"In the past," he pointed out, "it has been a common practice of violators to 'trip' the metal seal so they could attach it to more than one deer."

EXTRA SPACE

The new tag also provides space where each successful hunter must write the exact location of his kill including, if applicable, the number of the antlerless deer area where the animal was killed.

This special feature will enable game men at the department's roadside biological checking stations to pinpoint where deer are taken.

Before a deer is moved from the spot where it is downed, the tag must be wrapped and securely tied around the front leg of the animal, according to Anguilm.

To do this, each hunter will need to carry two lengths of cord or fine wire at least 12 inches long.

Supplies of the new tag, 1966 hunting licenses and antlerless deer permit applications are expected to be in the hands of some 4,000 dealers throughout the state early in September.

Deep Water Is Producing Big Bluegills

Action on bluegills has picked up considerably on area lakes in the last week.

Drifting along the drop-offs using crickets for bait is producing good catches of big bluegills on Orion, Lakeville, Green, Pine and Union lakes in Oakland County.

Bluegills are biting fair to good on the Atlas and Goodrich millponds, lakes Fenton, Ponemah and Lobdell in Genesee County and Long and Elk lakes Lapeer County.

Bear hunting licenses now are available at the Pontiac Lake and Imlay City district offices of the Conservation Department.

Macomb Kennel Club Show Set

The Macomb County Kennel Club's all-breed and obedience matches will be Sunday at Holiday Park Near Utica.

Entries will be accepted from 10 a.m. to noon, starting time for judging the working group and the obedience trial. The park is located on 22 Mile Road, two miles north of M59 and one and a half miles west of M23.

Assistant Managers Named for Regions

Appointments to fill assistant regional manager posts of the Conservation Department for the northern Lower Peninsula and southern Michigan were announced this week by Warren W. Shapton, deputy director of field operations.

Karl W. Kidder, a 32-year field veteran for the department, was named to the position for Region II, which covers the 33 northernmost counties of the Lower Peninsula.

Promoted to assistant manager of Region III, which embraces 35 southern counties of the state, is Merrill L. (Pete) Petoskey, one of the Department's front-line men in public relations and educational work.

In their new posts, Kidder and Petoskey will assist in handling administration workloads of the two field regions, headquartered at Roscommon and Lansing.

Anglers Going to Great Bear

Area Resident's Leave for Canada Friday

Eight area residents are part of a party of 27 that will leave Friday for Great Bear Lake in Canada's Northwest Territories.

Howard Shelly of Pontiac, organizer of the fishing trip, said that "This will be one of the largest parties to ever fish at the lake."

Roger St. Amant, Lake Orion; C. K. Patterson, Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flynn, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. James Zeder, Bloomfield Hills; and Tom Collins will be making the 10-day trip to Great Bear Lodge.

St. Amant plans to test a spinning version of his Bayou Special lure on grayling at Great Bear in addition to trying the larger models, already in production, on lake trout.

A side trip is planned to Victoria Island, 450 miles north of Great Bear, for Arctic char fishing.

Shelly is associated with the Michigan Outdoors television program, Patterson is an attorney, Collins is connected with REB manufacturing (Bayou specials), Zeder is a Chrysler vice president and Flynn is chief engineer at General Motors Truck & Coach.

Politics Is Felt in S. African Pulpits

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) —Religious leaders in racially segregated South Africa are finding it increasingly difficult to keep politics and apartheid out of the pulpit.

Backing the policies of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's all-white government is the powerful Dutch Reformed Church with a following of over 1¾ million.

* * *

Crusading against apartheid and racial discrimination is the 400,000-member Anglican Church, of the same communion as the Episcopal Church in the United States.

Aiding the Anglican Church on a varying scale in its condemnation of race segregation are the Methodist community with a following of 269,000; Presbyterians, 111,000; Roman Catholics, 192,000; and the Jewish community of 116,000.

TOUGH BATTLE

Clergy who'd like to see more black faces in their congregations and the abolishment of apartheid are having a tough battle.

Some have been put under restriction; others threatened.

The doors of most Christian churches are open to nonwhite worshipers and some do attend, but South Africa's segregationalist policy deters most Africans from praying in a white church.

The Dutch Reformed Church has built many places of worship in the black townships, exclusively for Africans who are not expected to use churches reserved for whites only.

* * *

Many clergymen who may feel obligated to speak out against the racial discrimination do not do so lest they face rejection by some of their congregations.

"We are becoming creatures of fear," says the Rt. Rev. B. B. Burnett, Anglican bishop of Bloemfontein.

* * *

Another Anglican clergyman, the Rev. Pierre Dii, assistant to the dean of Pretoria, lashed white churchgoers who support segregation.

He says white youths are being educated in an un-Christian atmosphere of racial indoctrination. He speaks of unfair distribution of the country's wealth, and says the law metes out discriminatory punishment according to the color of a man's skin.

LAWS CONDEMNED

Catholic churchgoers are being asked to reexamine their attitude toward racial relationships. A session of the South African Catholic Bishops Conference, attended by 31 bishops, condemned laws discriminating among people of varying races.

Both the Anglican and Dutch Reformed churches have been turned into something of a political arena where the pros and cons of apartheid are often aired from the pulpit and in pastoral magazines.

In a bid to win over some priests, government supporters offered them a free trip to Europe. This was the prize if they sold 300 copies of the book, "South Africa — Land of Promise" to parishioners, who in turn were expected to send the book overseas in an effort to improve the republic's image and explain racial problems.

CLERGY PROTESTS

Anglican clergy protested.

Anglican preacher Dale White, in conjunction with Bode Wegerif, a Johannesburg publishing executive, distributed 1,200 recordings of a sermon by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. Security men demanded to know who received the recordings. They could do little to stop the distribution.

* * *

The Rt. Rev. Edward Crowther, Anglican bishop of Kimberley, a naturalized American and critic of apartheid, plans to leave Friday to visit the United States. The government will not guarantee him a reentry visa.

"I will not be silenced during my tour of America," he said. "I am going to the land of free speech and I do not intend to be inhibited by the subtle pressures which may come from the shadows in South Africa."

* * *

A former Dutch Reformed minister, Dr. Bruckner de Villiers, is now associated with an independent religious magazine called Pro Veritate. He has written in it:

"Christ would have had a particularly hard time in South Africa. He would probably have been branded a tool of communism."

Took Part in Program

Exchange Student Marries 'Brother'

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP) — She married her "brother", but it's all right.

And now she is Mrs. Jerry Darling of Perry, Mich., in Ingham County near Lansing.

* * *

A native of Holland, she went to the United States in 1962 to spend a year with the Darling family and attend high school at Perry as part of the Youth for Understanding, teen - age exchange program.

Although the exchange program isn't set up as a matrimonial bureau, it doesn't frown on love, and in September 1965, there was a wedding, and the ties that hold Holland and the United States were made that much tighter — and if you want to think of a wedding in that light.

Jerry, now 26, and his wife, now 21, lived as members of the same family, of course, and in such an exchange program, the host parents become "mother" and "father" to the visiting student, and the host brothers and sisters become "brothers" and "sisters" of the visitor. And this is how she married her "brother," if such an explanation is needed.

Mrs. Darling flew to Holland this summer aboard a chartered plane loaded with Youth for Understanding counselors, going to Europe to shepherd a batch of 450 Scandinavian, English, and Irish students home aboard the Akardia. It was an experiment by the exchange program to determine if shipboard orientation sessions can better prepare these 17-year-old foreigners for a year in the United States.

* * *

On board they were to get a briefing on American Family life, civil rights, and what's expected of them as exchange students. The students were scheduled to live with families in 22 states. Most, however, were to come to Michigan, home of Youth for Understanding.

The other passengers aboard that charter plane were people like Mrs. Darling. She was going come to Holland for a visit. Others were former exchange students who had returned to the U.S. for a visit with their American families.

HOSTED TEEN-AGERS

A few of the passengers were parents who had hosted American teen - agers on the program in their homes in Germany, Finland, and Holland.

They got their opportunity to come to the States at low cost charter rates when Mrs. Rachel Andresen of Ann Arbor, Youth for Understanding director, decided this year to open up some of the charters for "parent" exchange, and also to permit former students the opportunity to renew acquaintances.

* * *

Too often, Mrs. Andresen has seen, how the presence of a foreign youngster in a family has tied those two families together in friendship, but the cost of travel prevented the adults from ever meeting.

One of those aboard the plane was Mrs. Irma Suominen of Helsinki, whose daughter Riitta, now a student at Helsinki University, lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Walz of Saginaw in 1959. Their daughter, Barbara Walz, had visited at the Suominen home in Finland in 1963, and through the charter plane Mrs. Suominen now had the chance to visit the Walz home.

SOLD ON IDEA

Mrs. Suominen is sold on the exchange idea of building a more harmonious world. "when young people get to know each other," she said, "understanding will grow. And when you are friends, you don't need to fear war."

Blood Sugar Lack in Babies Is Syndrome

By Science Service

BOSTON—A new set of symptoms has been discovered in newborn babies who have low blood sugar, a team of Yale pediatricians report.

One baby had an enlarged tongue that could not be kept inside her mouth. Slightly small heads and other enlarged organs were among the symptoms, and one baby had an open navel that had to be corrected surgically.

Treatment with cortisone, zinc glucagon and diazoxide was helpful in raising the blood sugar level of babies at the Clinical Research Center of the Yale-New Haven Hospital.

Low blood sugar, called hypoglycemia, occurs approximately once in 500 live births. Premature babies and the smaller infant of twin births have been found with significant hypoglycemia. The cause could be related to prenatal malnutrition.

Spirit of Navy Fliers Flying Viet Raids Is High

ABOARD Carrier Constellation, Gulf of Tonkin (AP) — Despite a rugged 12-hour daily schedule, ever increasing risks and loneliness, morale among U.S. naval aviators flying raids over North Viet Nam is high. Competition to fly the most and best missions is often fierce.

It is a feeling of pride and not wanting to let the team down that makes the pilots enthusiastic and aggressive.

* * *

Typical of the spirit is Lt. Stu Fitrell, 27, of Cleveland, Ohio. "I try to schedule myself for two hops a day," he says. "I have to keep myself up with everybody else. We go for missions. I really like to fly combat missions. Since I make out the flight schedules, I can keep myself even and pick out the better hops, the more colorful ones."

Many of the pilots are on their second cruise of the war, with less than a year back in the states.

"Some of the married men may be unhappy to be out here because they miss watching their children grow up. But they are proud to be out here," one young pilot said.

* * *

"The pilots today are the most professionally capable we've ever had in naval aviation," says Rear Adm. Ralph W. Cousins or Coronado, Calif., commander of Task Force 77, which includes the attack carrier Roosevelt and several destroyers.

"In spite of the accelerated flying program and all the flight hours being accumulated in operating 24 hours a day, the operational accident rate is lower than ever before in history," he said.

"The pilots are getting lots of flying and getting good at it."

* * *

Citing high morale among the pilots, Cousins said: "It's a sense of belonging to a team that is one of the motivating factors. It has to do with belonging to a team and not letting the team down."

Other morale factors, Cousins said, include the rotation cycle, and a good chance of being rescued if shot down.

Daily the pilots fly into barrages of flak from antiaircraft guns. Often they encounter surface to air missiles or Communist MIG fighters.

"The flak is really a real hazard up there," says Lt. Don D. Smith, 30, of Brainerd, Minn., a 10-year Navy veteran from Attack Squadron 72 aboard the Roosevelt. "It's something we're very careful about.

HARD ON FAMILY

Smith's wife and three children live at Cecil Field in Jacksonville, Fla., home base of the squadron.

"It's hard on the family," says Smith. "We often think of our wives, what they're thinking and what they're going through. I like the idea that I can do something about Viet Nam myself, however small.

"It's a tremendous sense of accomplishment when you're fortunate to get a good target and some good hits. Probably our biggest problem is enthusiasm. The pilots are tigers and it's hard to hold them down."

About the only complaints heard aboard the carriers are that the movies they get are either too old or second-rate.

Current Books

THE SHACKLES OF POWER. By John Dos Passos. Doubleday. $6.95.

Thomas Jefferson presided over a nation for eight years, over an era for nearly 30 and virtually passed from the minds of his countrymen at his death.

In this fine study of the Jeffersonian decades and spirit, Dos Passos, the novelist turned historian, is concerned less with institutions and social forces than with the men who shape them and the interplay of strong personalities in the formative years of the Republic.

The central figure is Jefferson himself. By the standards of today's bedevilment, the government he, Madison and Monroe headed seems refreshingly uncomplicated. But as usual, there were troubles enough to go around.

THE STRODE VENTURER. By Hammond Innes. Knopf. $4.95.

This is a sea adventure, combined with a story of a fight for control of a London shipping firm.

It is narrated by Geoffrey Bailey, a British naval officer who is bitter over the memory of how his father's maritime concern had been wrecked and taken over by a rapacious tycoon named Strode.

But now the house of Strode, run by two stick-in-the-mud sons, has gone into a decline and there is a chance that it will be taken over by a financial combine seeking only to milk it of its assets.

THE COLE PORTER STORY, by Richard G. Hubler (World, $3.75): Porter tells his own story to Hubler up to his musical hit Can Can in 1953, after which Hubler takes over the account of Porter's life and achievements until his death in 1964.

There runs through it an account of the social life, gay and extravagant, that Porter and his wife were able to lead, and the tragedy of the riding accident in 1937 that overshadowed the rest of his existence.

* * *

It is a story of a life of great variety, of travel, friends and the heady exhilaration of success, and at the end a withdrawal after years of pain but little complaint.

Lower Acidity in Cancer Eyed

Raises Drug Effects on Bad Cells in Tumor

By Science Service

LONDON—Some drug effects on cancer cells are increased and the toxic effects are lessened when the acidity, or hydrogen ion concentration, of the tumor is lowered.

Studies reported in the British journal The Lancet indicate that better drug selectivity will be possible through acidity decrease.

Cancer cells were found to be lower in acidity than normal cells when they were studied by inserting tiny glass electrodes into the tumor nodules with the second electrode placed either under the skin or within the muscles.

A further reduction of acidity was achieved by dextrose infusions.

* * *

Dr. B. Sterry Ashby of Westminster Hospital, London, selected eight patients with the dark pigmented spreading cells of melanoma for testing because the nodules were easily accessible to the technique he was using. A ninth patient with breast cancer was also tested.

SUITABLE

Glass electrodes are especially suitable for these measurements in living tissue, Dr. Ashby explains.

Unlike metal electrodes they are not easily poisoned by prolonged contact with proteins or fat, and are not "affected by oxygen tension or oxidation-reduction potentials."

Dr. Ashby says the use of cancer-poisoning drugs has led to renewed interest in the internal environment of tumors, their blood supply, oxygen saturation and acidity.

Advances in electronic recording equipment have made possible smaller glass electrodes suitable for use in humans.

Visitation Rights

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The contested divorce case of Leroy E. Anderson, 29, San Jose, and his wife Linda Ann, 19, was settled yesterday when the husband was granted visitation rights — to the couple's two French poodles.

Superior Court Judge George H. Barnett said Anderson not only had the right to visit Coco, who is "community property," but also Tina, who belonged only to Mrs. Anderson.

Veteran Stars Remain on Top With Career Planning

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — You may harbor the notion that veteran stars stay on top by dint of looks, luck and the loyalty of fans. It takes more than that.

THOMAS

Career management is the necessary ingredient. Cary Grant hand-tailors his vehicles with such care that he can make one film only every 18 months. James Stewart selects his films with extreme care, following the needs of the market.

* * *

Henry Fonda is another expert planner, and the only long-time star who has also maintained an active career in the theater. But even his stage appearances are carefully planned.

"When I went into 'Generation' on the stage last year," he explains, "I made certain I would remain alive in films. I had three unreleased movies before I started the play."

LABOR OF LOVE

With the end of his successful run in "Generation," Fonda has returned to films in MGM's "Welcome to Hard Times." It is a labor of love for him — though of course he also earns his usual high salary.

* * *

"It's not the kind of picture that will earn a lot of money," he admitted. "But it's an off-beat story that could be damned good. Those are the kind that make life interesting for an actor.

* * *

"But you can't make them all the time. If you do, you become known as an actor whose pictures don't make money. Then the banks won't lend on your name, and your career is in trouble.

"So I must also do commercial pictures like 'Sex and the Single Girl' and 'Battle of the Bulge.' Then I can afford to do a 'Twelve Angry Men' or a 'Welcome to Hard Times.' "

SAME SUCCESS

Fonda hopes that "Hard Times" will have the same success as "The Oxbow Incident," the classic Western he made at Fox in 1942.

* * *

"But what a time we had getting that one made," he recalled. Darryl Zanuck hated the property. He permitted it to be made only because the director, William Wellman, promised to make a flying picture, 'Thunder Birds,' afterward.

"The Oxbow Incident' became something of a classic. So naturally Zanuck began taking all the credit for it."

"The Oxbow Incident" and 16 other films were featured recently at a Henry Fonda festival which saluted his 30 years in films. The movies were unreeled at the New Yorker Theater in Manhattan, and Hank found the whole thing embarrassing.

GOT OUT OF TOWN

"Imagine — being the object of a 'festival,' " he said disparagingly. "I got out of town the day before it started. I pity the poor people who sat through those pictures. I don't think many did."

He found more pleasure in discussing the careers of his talented offspring, Jane and Peter.

* * *

"I saw Peter's new picture, 'The Wild Angels,' and it's good," he reported. "It's going to be an American entry in the Venice film festival, and I think it will do well. So does Vadim, his son-in-law French director, Roger Vadim.

"Vadim's picture with Jane, 'La Curee' 'The Killing" will be the French entry at Venice. How about that for my kids!"

He indicated that was the kind of Fonda festival he approved of.

Chimps Used as Middlemen

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Chimpanzees could be the answer to the scientists' question of when to end animal tests and begin testing humans.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration is studying the feasibility of "certifying" chimps for testing new drugs at an intermediate stage before clinical trials get underway and after traditional animal studies are finished.

The chimp theory is being tested on six animals, using the drug chloramphenicol by contract of the FDA with the Aerospace Medical Laboratory, Alamagordo, N. Mex.

* * *

"We intend to find out how the chimps react to chloramphenicol and to compare these reactions with those we are quite familiar with in man," FDA Commissioner Dr. James L. Goddard explains.

CERTIFY CHIMP

"If, as we suspect, there will be a close correlation, then we can proceed to the next step, to 'certify' the chimp as a threshold subject for at least some of modern toxicology."

Strange Noises Spook Family in England Right Out of House

NORTHFLEET, England (UPI) — Believe in ghosts? Eric Essex and his family do.

They're vacating the house they rented 18 months ago because, like the previous tenants, they claim it's haunted.

Essex said when he first moved in, there were strange noises in the night. Footsteps were heard and locked doors suddenly swung open.

But the clincher that sent Essex, his wife and their two sons scurrying into the night came last weekend when Essex said he was awakened after midnight by a whistling sound.

* * *

"Standing near my bed was the glowing shape of a girl, with a sash around her waist," Essex swore. "The whole bed was jumping and I was frozen stiff."

The local council's housing manager promised a full investigation.

N.Y. Plane Crash Kills 6

RONKONKOMA, N.Y. (AP) — An Air Force captain, his wife and four children were killed Tuesday when their small rented plane crashed only miles from where they had spent a week swimming and visiting relatives.

Authorities were investigating the possibility that lightning struck Capt. Robert T. Shaw's six-seat Piper Comanche. The plane tumbled into an unopened section of the Long Island Expressway, killing the captain, 32, his wife, Joan, 28, and their children, Deborah, 9, Christine, 6, Jeff, 6, and James, 3.

* * *

A witness said he saw a flash of lightning, heard a thunder clap then watched pieces of the plane fall from the sky.

The family had been visiting the captain's mother, Lillian Shaw of Freeport, N.Y., and was heading back to Little Rock, Ark., Air Force Base, where Shaw was stationed as a ground training officer.

* * *

Suffolk County police said radio contact with the plane was lost three minutes after it had taken off from MacArthur Airport. Shaw's last word was a hurried "Mayday" distress call, they said.

The Federal Aviation Agency and the Civil Aeronautics Board were called in to investigate the crash.

No part of the United States proper lies within the tropics although Florida extends to within about one degree of that region.

Bed-Wetting Alarm Design Hit

By Science Service

LONDON — Small blankets attached to electric buzzers designed to waken bed-wetting children can sometimes cause skin ulcers.

* * *

Some children sleep through the alarm, and in one case the alarm was faulty and did not go off when the child started to wet the bed, two London physicians report in the British Medical Journal.

Direct current electrolysis is believed to cause skin ulceration due to moist skin.

At least three known cases have led the doctors to wonder to what extent similar cases have occurred.

They say an improved electrical design is needed.

SIMILAR PRINCIPLE

Dr. Peter Borrie and J. C. B. Fenton of St. Bartholomew's Hospital emphasize that they do not mean to single out any one manufacturer's appliance as unsafe, in view of the fact that a similar principle is employed in many enuresis blankets.

The blanket is made of a plastic material onto which are sewn thin strips of aluminum foil that serve as detecting electrodes. The alarm-buzzer contains a battery with a relay and alarm mechanism. When urine starts to make contact with the blanket electrodes a flow of electric current causes the relay to close and the alarm to sound.

Plans Retirement

LANSING (AP)—Brig. Gen. Howard Arbury of Midland, assistant division commander of the Michigan National Guard, will retire Aug. 31 after 43 years in the Michigan military establishment. Arbury, 60, has held his present position since December 1962.

Four of every five traffic accidents in 1965 could have been avoided. The major cause of death and destruction on U.S. highways is driver error and lack of judgment.

KEEPING A PROMISE — Nine-year-old Greg Cornuet raises an American flag outside the family home in Tarentum, Pa., keeping a promise he made several months ago as his father, Marine Warrant Officer G. S. Cornuet, left home for duty in Viet Nam. To Greg, putting the flag out each day is not a chore, but an expression of love and patriotism for his father and country.

Incumbent Dem Has Big Lead in Alaska Gubernatorial Primary

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Gov. William A. Egan took a strong lead in his bid for the Democratic nomination for another term in office as returns mounted early today from Alaska's primary election.

Rep. Ralph J. Rivers, D-Alaska, the state's only member of the U.S. House of Representatives, held a relatively slim margin in his battle with Mike Gravel of Anchorage, speaker of the State House of Representatives.

* * *

Both Rivers and Egan have held their offices since Alaska became a state in 1959.

Unofficial returns from 155 of 402 precincts in Tuesday's voting gave Egan 7,362 votes to 4,374 for his opponent, Anchorage attorney Wendell P. Kay.

Egan was leading substantially in early returns from most parts of the state except the populous south central district, in which Anchorage is located, where he held only a narrow edge.

Walter J. Hickel, an Anchorage hotelman, was piling up a whopping lead for the Republican nomination. He had 3,894 votes to 1,537 for Anchorage hotel executive Bruce Kendall and 1,424 for one-time territorial governor Mike Stepovich.

The same precincts gave Rivers 6,269 votes and Gravel 5,319.

Back-to-School Bells Ring Up the Dollar Signs

NEW YORK (AP) —School bells are ringing bells on cash registers for the nation's merchants.

The back-to-school crowd pays more than $3 billion each year for Batman lunch boxes, Beatles writing tablets, plum hiprider skirts, the longest dipping all the way down to the top of the knee; white textured hose, long dazzling earrings, honey-hued corduroy jeans, red stretch tights, plaid school bags and fake fur hassocks.

* * *

It's the biggest thing next to Christmas for the stores.

Take a look at a few school-girl figures:

Eugene Gilbert Youth Research, in a study for Seventeen magazine, sampled 5.8 million high school girls last year and another 618,000 who were off for their first year of college.

The college girls spent a total of $289,277,000, an average of $468.07 each, the survey indicated. The high school girls averaged $231.17 each, a total of $1,340,822,000 getting ready for school.

* * *

The survey estimated the girls bought more than 33 million pairs of shoes, sneakers, sandals, slippers and boots, 27.5 million blouses, 22 million skirts, 13 million dresses and 8 million sweaters, along with 8 million coats.

The Boys' Apparel Buyers' Association, Inc., estimates boys 6 to 18 spend $510 million to $575 million each August and September on clothing.

FIGURES LARGER

This year indications are the figures will be even larger — there are more teen-agers and some prices are higher.

That is why discount stores and fashion houses are sending out back-to-school catalogs, putting kicky clothes in display windows and spending thousands of dollars on fashion shows.

* * *

"It's a time of major expenditure," said Melvin E. Dawley, president of Lord & Taylor, New York.

"This is the basic time when apparel from the top of the head to the end of the toe is purchased in its entirety. There's a tremendous push from Aug. 25 to Sept. 15."

HALF OF BUSINESS

Dawley estimated that the back-to-school and Christmas sales combined accounted for half of the year's business in children's departments, with Christmas sales about 25 per cent larger.

In Philadelphia, retailers are promoting tape recorders for class note-taking. A Chicago department store suggests a black and white mod room with vinyl pillows for studying. Denver stores report a brisk business in pots for boiling water for coffee or tea. Hair dryers are promoted as back-to-school items in Cleveland.

A Southern California chain is advertising bookcases, beds, desks, bedspreads, lamps and related items, and a St. Louis store is advertising student desks and chairs.

FBI Spy Aided Detroit Police

DETROIT (UPI) — An FBI informer apparently worked his way into a Negro organization and tipped police to potential trouble during the recent near riots on Detroit's East Side, testimony revealed yesterday.

Jay Nolan, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, said the tip was relayed to police by the FBI. Three persons were subsequently arrested headed for the troubled area with guns and ammunition.

Nolan made the statement during a pretrial examination for 10 men arrested during the disturbances.

Included among those arrested were members of the Afro-American Youth Movement.

* * *

The trio arrested as a result of the tip were members of the organization and the informant apparently worked from inside the group.

The incident took place on Aug. 10, the second night of the disturbances.

Senate Move on Minimum Wage Slated

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate leaders, acting to clear the docket before the start of the civil rights fight two weeks hence, today called up a bill to increase the federal minimum wage to $1.60 and expand its coverage.

* * *

The minimum wage bill, already passed by the House, was one of the legislative items listed by Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield for action before the Sept. 6 kickoff of the inevitable civil rights filibuster.

As it came from the Senate Labor Committee, the bill would increase the minimum wage 35 cents to $1.60 in 1968 and extend the coverage to an additional 7.2 million new workers.

The House-approved bill would put the $1.60 rate into effect in 1969; some Senate Republicans planned to support an amendment to put the same date in the Senate bill.

* * *

Other fights were expected on amendments to eliminate coverage of farm workers and to limit coverage to retail establishments, restaurants and hotels with incomes of $500,000.

The committee bill reduces the limitation from the present $1 million to $500,000 in 1967, and to $250,000 in 1969.

BUSY INTERSECTION — At lunchtime in New York City yesterday, things were popping on Sixth Avenue at 53rd. Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara addressed the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention at a hotel on the northwest corner. On the southeast corner marched some Youth Against War and Fascism pickets. And over on the southwest corner, Beales' fans whooped it up — kept a block away from the hotel lodgings of the English foursome.

Red Tape Snarls Wives of 'Nonperson' GIs

EDITOR'S NOTE — The wives of some U.S. fighting men missing or captured in Viet Nam must tangle with red tape and what seems to them bureaucratic indifference. Here's a report on what can happen when a service wife suddenly finds herself in a legal limb.)

By JOHN T. WHEELER

NEW YORK (AP) — Wives of U.S. fighting men missing or captured in Viet Nam say they sometimes must shoulder bewildering burdens because their husbands have become legal "nonpersons."

* * *

Some of them contend they have been forced to tackle walls of red tape and bureaucratic indifference in carrying the load.

When a man is declared missing or captured, his status falls into a gray legal area, somewhere between alive and dead. He can not act for himself, and his wife or dependents can't act for him, except in special circumstances.

BIG COMPLAINTS

Major complaints reported by next of kin include:

— Problems in making ends meet because money the serviceman had been sending home stops and the pay he was getting is frozen. It can take weeks or months to unfreeze part of it.

— A federal income tax bureau refused to process a joint return unless the wife somehow got the signature of her husband, who had been shot down over North Viet Nam.

* * *

— The woman was forced to sell the family car because she couldn't get new license plates without her husband's signature.

—Wives and children who are entitled to free medical treatment can't get it sometimes in emergencies because they are not allowed to live on military bass.

ATTORNEY FEES

— Attorney fees to solve legal problems directly related to a missing man's or POW's status must be borne by the families.

— Only bare-boned, sometimes confusing reports are issued by the Defense Department concerning the fate of lost men. Many doubts are cleared up only after families ask congressmen for help.

* * *

A Pentagon spokesman said such problems are "normal things that must be put up with when a man is missing or captured. Anyone with someone missing in action or captured will hit snags."

He said the Pentagon does its best to give families the full details of casualties. Complaints, he said, must be the exception.

ASSISTANCE OFFICE

Each service maintains a casualty assistance office to help dependents in whatever way possible after their men become casualties, the spokesman said.

He added later, "But don't write anything that will bring a flood of letters or calls. Its not so much that they (the offices) couldn't handle it, but there is no requirement for it. It would create unnecessary problems."

* * *

Instances of problems faced by families have cropped up in reports from a recently formed civilian group seeking to protect POW's legal rights, and in interviews of some wives by the Associated Press.

* * *

Names of the missing men and their families are omitted to prevent the Communists from confronting captured men with reports of difficulties encountered by their dependents. The Defense Department declines to make public information about the men for the same reason.

Men Demanding Equal Bathrooms

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON—A real estate salesmen told me recently that the first thing most home buyers want to know about a new house is how many bathrooms it has.

WEST

After that, they consider the minor features, such as whether the house has a roof.

You might think, as I did, that the demand for extra bathrooms was created by women. But that is not the case.

I have just learned that the trend actually represents a revolt by American men against traditional female domination of the bathroom.

The big question is no longer whether married couples should have twin beds, but whether they should have twin baths.

"Men, who in the past have planned for women and used mostly by women, are asking for their own separate bathrooms," says a press release from Sherle Wagner, a leading bathroom designer.

The popular suburban custom of installing an extra basin in the bathroom "is not enough for some men," she says. "They want total freedom of the bath.

"Where space limitations make two bathrooms impossible, the minimum requirement are two tubs instead of one."

* * *

She goes on to say that the only time some busy couples have to talk is while bathing in their "back-to-back" tubs.

As a member of the downtrodden male sex, I cannot but applaud this rare display of aggressiveness on the part of my brethren.

For the life of me, however, I cannot imagine what sort of conversation a man and his wife would have in back-to-back tubs.

Side-to-side maybe. Or even facing each other. But back-to-back conversations could cause complications.

* * *

She: I plan to take junior to the store today and buy him a pair of sturdy brown oxfords. Will you need the car?

He: Blub-blub.

YOU LISTENING

She: Are you listening to me, Homer?

He: Sorry, I had my head under water.

Or she is in her tub talking a blue streak and not realizing that all the while he is taking a shower.

Besides that, bathtubs are a place for singing, not colloquy. If you happen to be married to a woman who handles the tenor part of "On the Road to Mandalay," okay.

Otherwise, you will live to regret the overthrow of the single tub system.

Woman Suing Volkswagen

Charges Safety Lack, Negligence in Design

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A West German automobile manufacturer is being sued in a Madison Circuit Court on charges of negligence in designing and constructing a car without certain safety features.

The Volkswagenwerk A. G. of Wolfsburg, West Germany and Bruns Volkswagen Garage, Inc., of Madison, a distributor, are named in the suit filed by Mrs. Joyce Enders of Stoughton, Wis.

Mrs. Enders is asking $125,000 in damages for injuries she received in a 1963 accident involving a station wagon manufactured by the West German firm and sold by Bruns.

* * *

In the suit, she alleges the manufacturer neglected to "incorporate principles of safety engineering" and failed to tell buyers the vehicle was unsafe.

In addidition, Mrs. Enders alleges the front end and bumper of the station wagon failed to prevent "penetration into the passenger compartment" and that the front panel of the vehicle struck and injured her legs.

She also alleges the right front door flew open, the bucket-type seat which she was in broke loose and she was partially thrown out of the vehicle.

Pipeline Leak Is Blamed in Church Blast

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (UPI)—A leaky gas pipeline was blamed by firemen yesterday for the explosion that ripped apart a church, killed one woman and injured scores of others Monday night.

Asst. Fire Chief John Ballew said firemen found a ruptured gas pipe beneath the church that apparently saturated the ground with natural gas.

Pioneer Natural Gas Co. said its investigation "has only started."

"We will have no statement until later," said W. P. McKee, general manager of Pioneer in Plainview.

Man Electrocuted

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Construction worker Raymond Boris, 29, of Grand Rapids, was electrocuted Tuesday when he touched a high-voltage line at the site of a new motel in northwest Grand Rapids. Floyd Swain, 63, a fellow worker, tried to rescue Boris and was burned. Swain was reported in good condition at a hospital.

Opening lead—♥ 5

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Jim remarks: "Here is a hand that looks ridiculously simple. South has a sound opening no-trump and North an automatic raise to game. If West opens his four card spade suit South is very likely to go down in spite of the partnership total of 28 high card points.

JACOBY

However, West opens the five of hearts. East wins with the king and returns the four of spades but this spade lead comes too late to worry South.

He is looking at eight top tricks and can add a sure ninth by the simple expedient of knocking out the ace of hearts before he has to give away his second spade control."

Oswald: "It is simple enough in rubber bridge. In match point duplicate South wants to try for an overtrick and it is up to East and West to defend carefully if they want to foil South's plan."

Jim: "South will probably start by winning the spade and running off four diamond tricks. West will let a couple of hearts go and East will probably discard a spade. Then if South knocks out the ace of hearts it will be up to East to lead his queen of spades. Otherwise South will be able to throw him back in the lead to force him to lead from his queen of clubs."

Oswald: "A really alert East will discard his ten of spades on that fourth diamond. Otherwise if South chooses to try a spade throw-in play and leads his six of spades West is very likely to play the nine whereupon East will be stuck in with that ten spot."

Jim: "Of course West could prevent that by rising with his jack but West won't be sure where that ten spot is, as long as East has forgotten to get rid of it."

Chinese Underling Moves Up in Purge

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China today confirmed the promotion of Kang Sheng, a veteran party official, to full membership in the Communist politburo. He had been an alternate member of the policy-making body.

Analysts in Hong Kong said Kang's promotion was the highest officially confirmed so far in the current Chinese purge.

HOUGHTON LAKE (AP) — Henry Sterk, 30, of Jenison drowned in nearby Houghton Lake in Roscommon County Tuesday while he was walking in a boat channel after the row boat in which he was riding ran aground. State police said Sterk apparently stepped into deep water. Ten other passengers of the 14-foot boat walked safely to shore in waist-deep water. Sterk's body was found in 15 feet of water.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Thursday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points 'the way'."

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Time to be aware of responsibilities. Higher-ups may require special attention. If you give full cooperation . . . you also receive. Adhere to principles of Golden Rule.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 - May 20): Persons, situations at far-away places may demand attention. Take time to analyze desires. Separate wishful thinking from actual needs. Realism highlighted.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20): Fine day for checking accounts, debts and assets. Conservative action indicated. Read between the lines. Don't accept superficial answers. All that glitters is NOT gold.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22): Time to exchange thoughts, ideas with mate or partner. Be aware of impression you make on others. Take special care with appearance. Weigh statements, actions.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): Stress harmony — especially among family members. Accent on relations with co-workers, associates. Pace yourself. Avoid extremes. Utilize knowledge gained in past.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Change, travel, romantic and creative pursuits take spotlight. Be wary lest you deceive yourself. Key is to be PRACTICAL. Then conditions turn in your favor.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Fine for attending to basic duties. Enhance security. Be sure of facts, figures. Don't feel you are restricted. This is merely time for welcome change of pace.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Gain information — study reports. Short journey may be indicated. Finish tasks. Keep mind open for helpful suggestions, ideas. Understand your responsibilities . . . fully.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Gain indicated through buying, selling. Be on lookout for bargains. Know where possessions are located. Have facts available. Right thinking results in profit.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Take initiative. Highlight personal appeal, magnetism. Move and act with confidence. But be aware of subtle nuances. Older person is both sympathetic and wise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): People are willing to help you now. But don't confuse enthusiasm for real friendship. Be sophisticated. Know the difference between illusion and reality. Be analytical.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): Keep in contact now with those who show interest in your welfare. Realize that some may be reticent to show true feelings. Appreciate quality of shyness.

* *

IF THURSDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you tend to be introspective, analytical. You are attracted to law and would make excellent attorney.

Mineral Trap Due for Rabbits

By Science Service

SYDNEY, Australia — Wildlife researchers have found that rabbits sometimes have a craving hunger for certain minerals — and this hunger could be used to kill them.

The minerals include sodium, potassium and magnesium, all of which can be lacking in areas inhabited by rabbits, possibly as the result of high rainfall.

When rabbits are deficient in such minerals, the adrenal glands regulating the sodium-potassium balance in the blood become enlarged and a driving hunger for the missing mineral develops.

CHEAP BAIT

Experiments at the Australian Government's Wildlife Division in Canberra have shown that for rabbits deficient in sodium, ordinary salt (Sodium chloride) could make a cheap and highly selective bait.

Pneumonia Forces Entertainer to Bed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Doctors said yesterday entertainer Danny Thomas was suffering from pneumonia and prescribed liberal doses of antibiotics.

Thomas, here to attend a professional benefit game tonight, reportedly refused to be hospitalized but was ordered to stay in his bed at a hotel.

The entertainer is principal owner of the Miami Dolphins. The Dolphins are matched against the Denver Broncos at Memphis Memorial Stadium.

Moderately Active Trading

Stocks Make Sustained Rally

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was higher early Wednesday afternoon, making its most sustained rally in eight market sessions. Trading was moderately active. The pace was nowhere near as heavy as Tuesday's when 9.83 million shares were piled up in a whipsaw session of two abortive rallies and a final loss on the day.

Prices rose on a fairly broad front, paced by the usual glamor stocks among color televisions, other electronics, aerospace issues and some of the airlines.

Motors, rails, utilities, electrical equipments, chemicals and drugs also joined in.

Late in the morning the best gain was clipped as Wall Street showed hesitation over what would be forthcoming from President Johnson's news conference.

DOW JONES UP

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 6.18 at 796.32.

The rally came after a drop of 205.01 points from the historic closing high of 995.15 made by the Dow on Feb. 9, a worse loss than the plunge of 1962.

Prices advanced in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Up about 2 were California Computer Products, Leece-Neville, Simmonds Precision, TWA warrants and Solitron Devices. Gains of a point or so were made by American Book, Campbell Machine, Conductron, Gulton Industries.

Protest Today by Tradesmen

Rap Big 3's Refusal to Reopen Contracts

DETROIT (AP)—Hundreds of skilled United Auto Workers were expected to demonstrate today at Chrysler Corp. headquarters to protest refusal of the Big Three car makers to reopen labor contracts.

The tradesmen, rejected Monday in their bid to reopen contracts to negotiate their demands for a 50-cent hourly pay hike, planned to march for four hours at the Chrysler offices.

* * *

Joe Zappa, an officer of the UAW's Chrysler Local 212, said representatives of skilled workers in 22 Detroit-area locals of the UAW called for the demonstration.

Only off-duty employes were being asked to participate, he said. But it was expected some skilled tradesmen might not go to work in order to participate in the demonstration.

NO REOPENING

Chrysler, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. declined Monday to discuss revamping of skilled trades wages in their contracts with the UAW. The pacts will expire Sept. 6, 1967.

One concern among industry officials about any reopening of the contract was that unskilled and semiskilled production workers might also call for renegotiations on wages.

* * *

There are nearly 100,000 skilled workers and 600,000 other production workers in the Big Three.

Plans for the demonstration were formed by the "$1 an Hour Now Steering Committee," comprised of UAW skilled tradesmen.

RANKS UNITING

Its chairman, Christopher J. Manning, said "The refusal of the Big Three to open the wage agreement on behalf of skilled trades has spurred the committee to further courses of action... (and) has also generated more determination in the ranks to unite in this struggle."

* * *

Manning declined to say what the "further courses of action" might be.

Kresge Purchases Storage Building

The S. S. Kresge Co. today announced the purchase of a warehouse building on the northwest corner of 14 Mile Road and Coolidge in Royal Oak. No purchase price was given.

A company spokesman said the warehouse and office facilities would be shared with the present occupants, Morley Brothers and K-mart Sporting Goods Inc. of Royal Oak. The purchase included some 20 acres of land.

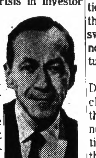
800-Mark Fixation Has Pros Watching

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The plunge of the stock market has been called a crisis in investor confidence. The drop of the Dow-Jones industrial average below the 800 mark could be a psychological setback. That's because stock market watchers — whether shareowners or not — put faith in these neat round numbers.



DAWSON

It does little good to tell the general public that Monday's drop of 12.59 points in the index of 30 leading industrial stocks is not an average drop of $12.59 per share by any means, but less than $1.25. Nor will the public turn to other indexes tailored to come closer to actual dollar values in recording upswings and downturns.

What the public notes is that just six months ago the Dow industrial was pushing close to a fantastic figure of 1,000 and has now dropped more than 200 points — somewhat mysteriously, since business statistics continue to climb. The long flirtation of the Dow industrials with the 800 mark — first on the upswing in the earlier years, and now on the downswing — captured public fancy.

It was Feb. 28, 1964, that the Dow industrial index finally closed above the 800 mark for the first time, after repeated near-misses. And from then until this spring the bulls had things pretty much their way with the Dow going to 995.15 on Feb. 9 this year. But they couldn't push the Dow to the mystic 1,000 point, despite general public expectation. And the bears have finally shoved it below 800.

JUST A TILT

What the public will note about the behavior of the Dow industrial average Monday was that the 12.59 point plunge wasn't just a tilt caused by one or two weak sisters. Of the 30 stocks on the index, 20 hit new low prices for the year. And the other 10 were well below their record highs.

How the small investor and the general public reacts will be watched closely.

* * *

The market professionals also watch the Dow's performance, but with a difference. Many are now saying that technically the market seems oversold. And the big drop, along with heavier trading, may be setting a base from which at least a temporary recovery can be expected.

Investor confidence has been shaken since spring by the many uncertainties clouding the future trend of the economy. But of late the big bearish element has been tight money. This has pinched the home building industry, may have contributed to the drop in auto sales, and clouds prospects for future corporate profits.

BIGGER RETURNS

With interest rates at the highest point in 40 years, investors are turning to opportunities offering bigger returns with less risk than do most common stocks. And the difficulties investors have in guessing the course of the Viet Nam war makes stock buying less attractive.

The upward surge in labor's wage demands casts a shadow on the future of corporate profit margins. The fear of tax increases on corporate earnings after the election adds to the bears' array of talking points.

* * *

And now there's the new dramatization of the market dropping below the 800 mark, after its disappointing inability to reach 1,000.

Wall Street will be glad when the summer's over.

Auto Group to Implement Car Safety Bill

DETROIT (AP) —Often accused of inaction on auto safety, the auto industry moved Tuesday to implement provisions of the traffic safety bill still pending before Congress.

The Automobile Manufacturers Association announced formation of a committee on safety standards with instructions "to begin work immediately."

* * *

The bill isn't expected to receive final congressional approval before the end of the month.

The committee is to examine safety devices and prepare recommendations on what standards should be required under the law. The recommendations would be sent to the secretary of commerce, or secretary of transportation if a Department of Transportation is created as proposed under the pending legislation.

PUBLISH STANDARDS

The bill, now before a House-Senate conference committee, directs the secretary of commerce to publish interim vehicle safety standards by Jan. 31. They would take effect within 180 days to a year.

However, before the standards are set forth, the secretary must consult all interested parties.

* * *

"We wanted to get started as quickly as possible," a high industry spokesman said. "Instead of waiting until a bill is signed, we are trying to save time by doing this before there is a law."

County OEO Lists Priorities

Eying the possibility that federal funds for antipoverty could be cut next year due to the war in Viet Nam, the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity today placed three proposed new programs on a priority list.

Its first priority selection was a proposed youth employment-recreation program expected to cost $63,200.

Next was a $208,000 day-care program calling for establishment of four centers where mothers could leave their children while they participate in job training.

* * *

The commission placed a $68,500 homemaker program in the final priority spot. It proposes hiring of 15 persons to serve the ill and perform other needed homemaking duties for the poor.

Total funding to the county antipoverty war this year was $1.7 million. The commission will seek $2.8 million next year for existing programs and proposed new ones.

The auto industry consumes more than 20 per cent of all the steel and 60 per cent of all rubber manufactured in the nation.

HUAC Okays War Penalties

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities today approved 7 to 0 a bill to make it a crime for Americans to knowingly send aid to groups such as the Viet Cong.

The measure also would make it a criminal offense for anyone to attempt to block the movement of American troops or materiel within the United States.

The full committee met for about an hour in closed session today and accepted without change the bill amended and approved yesterday by a subcommittee which last week conducted a tumultuous series of hearings on the bill.

Absent from today's full committee session were Reps. Charles L. Weltner, D-Ga., and George F. Senner Jr., D-Ariz.

* * *

Committee Chairman Edwin Willis, D-La., said the bill would be brought to the House floor as soon as possible. Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex., chairman of the subcommittee, predicted yesterday that it would win overwhelming House approval.

News in Brief

Carl Logassa of Royal Oak reported to Waterford Township police yesterday the larceny of a record player, a suit and five shirts, total value of $130, from his car which was parked on Lynn Street.

Warren Brown of 3109 W. Newberry, Waterford Township, reported to township police yesterday the theft of two revolvers, a rifle, a shotgun and a tape recorder, total value of $250, from his home.

Bank Declares Share Dividend

The board of directors of Bank of the Commonwealth has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents per share for the third quarter of 1966.

The dividend is payable Oct. 1, 1966 to shareholders of record Sept. 16, 1966. The bank has a branch at 2580 Woodward, Bloomfield Township.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

(Q) "I can act for my aunt who is mentally and physically incapacitated. Returns from a trust, Social Security payments and dividends on stocks held come fairly close to meeting her medical expenses, but sometime this fall it will be necessary to do some selling of stocks to supplement these receipts. She has 426 shares of Commonwealth Edison, 111 Northern Illinois Gas, 208 Marathon Oil and 26 General Electric." E. B.

(A) I consider all four issues suitable holdings. If funds are needed to meet expenses I suggest that first some Commonwealth Edison stock be sold, for the total dollar value here is greater than the others combined. Marathon Oil is the second largest, so if more funds are needed later, this would be the second commitment to be cut in size.

* * *

(Q) "I have $35,000 in funds available for investment because my father always believed readily available funds were better than any other type of investment. I would like, however, to invest some of this money in securities. I am married, age 40, and we have one child. My husband's salary takes care of our living expenses. I would appreciate your ideas." A.B.C.

(A) "Cash on the barrelhead" can sometimes be a definite advantage but in these days of an inflationary-geared economy the wisdom of this theory appears rather questionable, for a dollar on a checking account or in your pocket buys a smaller amount of goods with time.

For diversification and inflation protection, I suggest placement of about one-third of funds in savings bank and the same amount in bonds — returns on both would be the best available in many decades. The remaining third could be placed in stocks I frequently mention in this column as offering inflation protection.

Papers Capture Most of Ad Growth

Much of the dollars of the growth in advertising in the last five years — 62 per cent of the increase — have gone to newspapers, the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association established.

In each of the five years the growth of advertising has speeded up. In 1962 the growth was $58 million and this year it is estimated it will be $355 million, the bureau's study showed.

In 1962 the newspaper share of the growth was 29 per cent, the bureau said. Of the other media, television's share showed a reverse trend, going from 56 per cent in 1962 to an estimated 27 per cent this year, according to the study.

Planning Board Opposes Rezoning for Trailer Park

The Waterford Township Planning Commission last night unanimously recommended denial of a rezoning request for establishing a trailer coach park and apartment development on 46 acres east of Scott Lake Road and south of Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks.

Applicant Lloyd Heussner proposes to change the zoning of the property from general industrial (M-2) and single family residential (R-1A) to trailer coach park (R-4) and multiple dwelling residential (R-2).

His request to table the application for one month was rejected by the commission.

In forwarding the negative recommendation to the Township Board for final action, planners stressed that the property is one of the few remaining large vacant industrial parcels in the township.

They said that an industrial use for the land would be of more benefit to the township as a whole.

360 TRAILER SITES

Heussner proposes to establish about 360 trailer sites on the property.

In another public hearing, the commission recommended denial of a request to rezone from R-1A to R-2 property on the southwest corner of Tubbs and Crescent Lake Road for development of 10 apartment units.

Planners recommended for approval a proposal to rezone from local business (C-1) to general business (C-2) property on M59 just west of Williams Lake Road.

They also granted special approval to allow a plumbing business on the property, subject to the Township Board's action on the rezoning request.

Also recommended for approval was a request to rezone from R-1A to C-1 property at Island Park Drive and Sashabaw.

Special approval was granted to allow a gasoline service station at the corner, subject to the Township Board's action on the rezoning proposal.

One part of a rezoning request was recommended for approval and another part tabled by planners on a request to change the zoning from R-1A to R-2 and C-1 property on the northeast corner of Clintonville Road at Walton Boulevard.

* * *

The R-2 zoning was recommended for approval, while the C-1 rezoning was tabled pending receipt of further information from the County Health Department regarding soil conditions on the property.

A request, initiated by the planning commission, to change the zoning from C-1 to R-1B property in Meniwaters Subdivision was withdrawn by planners after residents had objected.

SLEEP'S WHERE YOU FIND IT — Morpheus caught up fast with this weary GI of the 1st U. S. Air Cavalry Division on duty in the Ia Drang valley of South Viet Nam's central highlands. He dug a fresh foxhole and promptly took a snooze, not even bothering to move in. His weapon, packs, canteens and ammunition lie on the ground above him. AP Wirephoto

British Musicians in Discord

LONDON (AP) — Ernest Fleischmann, general manager of the London Symphony Orchestra, said today that members and wives wished to dissociate themselves from "misreported and twisted remarks" about the legs of American women.

He issued a statement saying the members and their wives were "up in arms against the disgraceful misreporting which makes the orchestra seem churlish and ungrateful to the people who have done more for it and with whom it has established closer contacts than on any of its numerous trips abroad."

* * *

When the orchestra members and their wives returned to London Airport Tuesday, they were much quoted by British reporters on the question of short skirts and legs.

Violinist David Meshum was quoted as saying: "The American women are way behind. Their skirts are too long. It's nice to see a bit of leg. But then, American women have such terrible figures. They are doing themselves a favor by keeping them covered up."

'SAD REFLECTION'

Fleischann said: "It is a sad reflection on the sense of values in 'swinging Britain' if the length of women's skirts and the amount of visible bare leg is more newsworthy than a major British triumph at a festival abroad which incidentally also created an enormous amount of international good will."

Fleischmann also sent a cable to the Daytona Beach, (Fla.) News and Journal in which he said:

"The members and families of the London Symphony Orchestra wish to dissociate themselves categorically from misreported and twisted remarks regarding American ladies' legs and fashion alleged to have been made on the orchestra's return to London yesterday. Please inform the people of Daytona Beach that nowhere in the world have we been shown such warm friendship and generous hospitality than during our unforgettable stay in your glorious city.

"Our sincere thanks go to you, the Festival Board of Trustees as well as to the whole community of Daytona Beach who helped to make our visit so thoroughly enjoyable and who contributed greatly to the remarkable success of the first Florida International Music Festival."

De Gaulle Puts Stress on Trip

Coming Global Tour Is Called Significant

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle said today his forthcoming state visit to Cambodia on the borders of war-torn Viet Nam will be of "particular significance."

Information Secretary Yvon Bourges said de Gaulle made a personal statement to the cabinet on what he considers the highlights of the 30,000-mile round-the-world tour on which he will leave tomorrow.

During the tour, he will visit Ethiopia and Cambodia and watch a French nuclear test explosion in the Pacific.

"In Cambodia", Borges said, "Gen. de Gaulle will be in a region which presents an outstanding and obvious interest. So, his stay in Phnom Penh will take on particular significance."

* * *

De Gaulle was scheduled to make two major speeches in Cambodia. However, contrary to expectation, nothing was revealed about their content after today's cabinet session.

DETAILS

The cabinet meeting, over which de Gaulle presided, lasted one hour and 50 minutes — less time than usual details of de Gaulle's statement were not released.

However, it was announced that, during his absence, Prime Minister Georges Pompidou was authorized to call cabinet meetings, but that de Gaulle himself must approve the agenda beforehand.

The next cabinet session was scheduled Sept. 14, immediately after de Gaulle's return. It will approve the 1967 draft budget which now is being prepared.

Today's cabinet meeting approved a second 2 per cent wage boost for civil servants effective Oct. 1. An earlier 2 per cent increase was granted in April.

Two Bound Over in City Break-In

Accused of the burglary of a downtown sales warehouse, two Pontiac youths were bound over to Circuit Court yesterday for arraignments Sept. 12 on charges of breaking and entering.

Ronald Newcomb, 20, of 372 Prospect and Clifton Martin, 19, of 623 Going were ordered to stand trial on the charges by Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib.

Leib, who presided over the preliminary examination in Pontiac Municipal Court, set bond of $1,500 on each of the defendants. Martin posted the bail, but Newcomb was remanded to the Oakland County Jail.

The two were arrested July 27 by Pontiac police who said they were fleeing the Goodyear Tire Co. store at 40 W. Pike with televisions and radios taken in a break-in.

Break-In Reported at Avondale High

Tools and equipment valued at some $300 were reported missing following a break-in early yesterday at Avondale High School, 1435 Auburn, Avon Township.

Head custodian John Cravin said he discovered the burglary while opening the school about 7 a.m.

Entry to the building had been gained by breaking a door window, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

* * *

The missing items included a portable television set valued at $175 and a set of walkie-talkies worth about $75.

3 Convicts Flee Prison in Pennsylvania

SCRANTON, Pa. (UPI) — Three inmates at the Lackawanna County Prison pistol-whipped a prison guard, forced five other persons, including a new prisoner, into the warden's office and escaped in an auto last night.

A 13-state alarm was sounded for the prisoners described as "armed and dangerous" by prison authorities.

The escapers were identified as Ronald Hannick, 30, Scranton, Richard Moranko, 29, Dixon City, and Joseph Marsala, 15, Scranton.

Dirt Is Decisive

Strike Not Washed Up

PONTYPOOL, Wales (UPI) — The 10 dirtiest men will step forward, then run for the showers.

That's how management at the Royal Ordnance Factory here hopes to settle a recent labor dispute. Workers went on strike when washing-up time after work was cut from 45 to 30 minutes.

The workmen claimed they sometimes became covered with dye during work and needed the full 45 minutes to become presentable.

Mediators decided a junior supervisor will inspect the men each day, decide which are the dirtiest, and send them to the showers early.

Antipolio Vaccine Given Vietnamese

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Canadian government presented the Vietnamese Ministry of Health today 500,000 doses of antipolio vaccine.

A spokesman for the Canadian government said the vaccine, called trivalent oral Sabin vaccine, was sufficient to immunize from crippling poliomyelitis all children 6 months to 6 years old in the Saigon area.

He said about 250,000 children of that age group live in Saigon and its immediate environs. Immunization calls for two doses for each child.

Blond Lyricist Kim Novak Writes Under False Tresses

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The reason you haven't seen much of Kim Novak lately is: she has taken to wearing a black wig.

Kim the Brunette has been around Greenwich Village, looking very much a "Village Beautnik," a friend said, and he meant "beautnik" not beatnik, as she was slim, healthy, pretty and seemingly happy.

WILSON

She's been seeing her song collaborator, guitarist Al Shackman and Mrs. Shackman, on business for her music firm, Spindrift. (Kim writes lyrics, has a conference scheduled with big music man Don Kirshner). Harry Belafonte purported bought one of her songs not knowing it was hers as she wrote it under an assumed wig . . . I mean name.

Having dinner with friends at Freddy's 411 on Bleecker St., Kim was ecstatic that her disguise led somebody to say:

"Doesn't that girl look just like a brunette Kim Novak?"

Ginger Rogers told us at a party at the Gold Coin that, though entitled to a vacation from "Hello Dolly!" she isn't taking one.

"That's on the advice of my leading man, Davey Burns, who told me that when you take a vacation, it's difficult to get back into the rhythm of performing again," she said. "So I'll play the show till the end of my contract Feb. 9—and then take a vacation.

Davey Burns, who's been in the show going on 3 years, at a goodly salary, asked Jack Schlissel, gen. mgr. for David Merrick, "How can I pay the government less taxes?"

"Take a salary cut!" advised Schlissel.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Woody Allen flew to London for the third time, to finish his small role in "Casino Royale"; he's been on salary since April . . . Eleven-year-old Farnkie Michaels was out of "Mame" with a virus; the Met sent him an autographed ball.

The filming schedule of "2001: Space Odyssey" in London had to be changed, so the English crew could watch the Oxford-Cambridge rowing match on TV . . . Claudia Cardinale, in the high-budget "Don't Make Waves" film, will wear a $2 paper dress.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: It's great to live in a country where your kid can grow up to be lieutenant governor.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: If you think TV is bad now, go see some of today's movies—and imagine how much worse it's gonna be in 20 years.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The greatest thing is to do nothing all day Thursday, and then spend the weekend recuperating."

EARL'S PEARLS: Barry Nelson reports on the hair dresser who wed a loom operator: "And they've been bobbing and weaving ever since."

Sign chalked on a message board at JFK Airport during the airline strike (reports the Catholic Digest): "Orville, please call Wilbur at the bicycle shop immediately." . . . That's earl, brother.

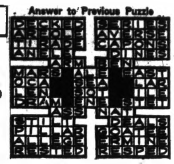
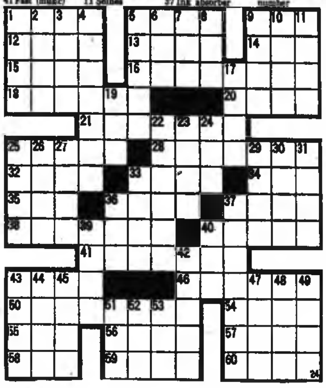
Answer to Previous Puzzle





State Prohibitionists Select Candidates

LANSING (AP)—The Prohibition party selected a six-man slate of candidates Tuesday for Michigan's general election in November, but the names are not likely to appear on the printed ballot.

Party officials said they had obtained only 12,000 of the 19,336 signatures required on petitions to qualify for a place on the ballot. As a result, they conceded, Prohibition candidates probably will run as sticker candidates this fall.

Prohibition party nominees have not appeared on the printed Michigan ballot since 1960.

A spokesman for the party said a suit probably will be filed next week challenging the constitutionality of the statute which requires a political party to submit petitions bearing signatures equal to at least 1 per cent of the latest vote cast for secretary of state.

ALL THE WAY

On the grounds that such statutes are discriminatory, he said, the case will be fought all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

Nominated for the U. S. Senate Tuesday was E. Harold Munn Sr., a 62-year-old Hillsdale College associate dean. Munn was the party's 1964 presidential candidate.

Other candidates selected included Rollin Serverance, 65, a Saginaw tooling manufacturer, for governor; Charles Ewing, 54, a Royal Oak minister, for lieutenant governor; and Omar Gibbons, 53, a Kalamazoo chiropractor, for secretary of state.

The other candidates were named for the State Board of Education. They were Floyd Latta, 72, retired grocer from Battle Creek, and Rodney Pearl, 31, a high school teacher from Spring Arbor.

Delegates adopted resolutions denouncing the production and distribution of obscene publications and opposing the legalizing of lotteries or dog racing.

They also urged the encouragement and promition of local option elections to bar liquor sales and adoption of a law requiring the expressed consent of all drivers to submit to tests for intoxication when involved in traffic accidents.

Body Discovered

DETROIT (AP)—The body of 64-year-old Mrs. Fannie Patton of Detroit was found Tuesday on Belle Isle, an island park in the Detroit River. The body was found by an 11-year-old fisherman, Nelson Hampton of Detroit. Cause of death was listed as drowning.

Alabama Court Backs Conviction of Negro's Killer

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — The Alabama Court of Appeals yesterday upheld a second degree murder conviction against Hubert Damon Strange in the night-rider shooting of Negro Willie Brewster last summer near Anniston.

Brewster was shot from behind as he and two other Negro foundry workers rode home from their jobs on the night of July 15. He died several days later in an Anniston hospital.

The unanimous decision was handed down by Judge Aubrey M. Cates Jr. Presiding Judge Annie Lola Price and Associate Judge George C. Johnson concurred.

Strange, one of three men arrested in the shooting, contended that the Calhoun Circuit Court was in error in refusing to grant his request for a statement given by the State's chief witness, Jimmie Knight, to an FBI agent.

Suspect Tells of Double Life

Ex-Lawyer Charged in 2nd Wife's Slaying

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A spare, gray-haired man of 56, who says he turned lawyer-to-laborer to lead a double life, has been charged with murder under two names.

One is William Henry Waldron Jr., a prominent lawyer and family man when he vanished 16 years ago from his Huntington, W.Va., home, leaving behind a wife and two children.

The other is Robert Coleman Johnson, commercial fisherman and laborer for a chemical firm, who lived with his wife, Phyllis, in a three-room beach cottage near St. Petersburg.

Sunday, with the arrest on first-degree murder charges of Johnson after his wife was found bludgeoned to death with a hammer, Johnson told police he was the missing Waldron.

NOT VERIFIED

Johnson's statement is still unverified, but Detective Capt. R.E. Newberry says he is presumed to be telling the truth.

In Huntington, Mrs. Waldron, now a schoolteacher, said: "I think I've suffered enough. It has been very hard. We had just decided that he was dead, until now."

On the disappearance of her husband, Mrs. Waldron noted: "It was just very sudden. The day after Christmas he just didn't come home. He had never stayed out all night and by the next day I called for help."

Waldron disappeared after last being seen getting out of a taxi at the Elks Club. Johnson was a member of the Madeira Beach Elks Club, where he was described as "a perfect gentleman, a fine man. But not too talkative."

Train Strikes Truck; 3 Die

MANISTEE (AP) — Three persons were killed Tuesday night when the stake-bed truck in which they were riding was struck by a Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train at a junction in the town of Chief, eight miles northeast of here.

Dead are Oscar Anton Tiemann, 57, of Brethren, the truck's driver; William T. Wellman, 51, of Bear Lake; and Larry Belter, 14, also of Brethren.

State police said the truck was northbound on Chief Road when it was struck by the westbound train. The junction is marked by a crossing sign, said Trooper J. L. Brown of the Manistee State Police Post.

"There is no blinker, but there is a stop sign, and, according to witnesses, they never stopped," said Brown.

Although it is a member of the camel family, the llama has no hump.

Death Claims Killer Who Stirred Up Mob in 1941

JACKSON (AP) — Winford W. Smith, 59, convicted rape-slayer whose arrest nearly caused a lynching in Saginaw, died of a heart attack Monday in his cell at Southern Michigan Prison.

Smith was convicted in November 1941, less than 36 hours after his arrest, in the bludgeon slaying of Wandamay Wheatley, 20.

Following his arrest, about 200 persons gathered outside the Saginaw County Jail chanting, "We want Smith." Smith was hurried away to a Flint jail and there was no violence.

Prison officials said Smith compiled a perfect record in his 25 - year stay.

Old Mariner Will Try Again

Plans Ocean Crossing After He Recovers

AP Wirephoto

ANOTHER TRY — Capt. William Willis, 72, chats with a stewardess during his stop in Halifax yesterday en route to New York after being forced by a hernia to give up his transatlantic crossing attempt in an 11-foot boat. He says he will try again next year.

NEW YORK (AP) — Capt. William Willis, the 72-year-old mariner who was stricken with a hernia as he attempted to cross the Atlantic alone in an 11-foot sailboat, says he is going to try again.

Willis, who flew into New York Tuesday, said he had suffered the hernia a month before he was rescued by a Coast Guard cutter about 1,000 miles east of Newfoundland.

* * *

"I was as helpless as a kitten," he said. "Sometimes I had to nail myself under canvas to prevent being thrown into the sea during storms."

His radio failed him, he said, but he finally caught the attention of a passing vessel "by waving and shouting like a madman."

TEARFUL WELCOME

Willis, who set out from New York June 22 hoping to reach Plymouth, England, arrived from Saint John, New Brunswick, where the cutter took him, and was welcomed with a tearful embrace by his wife.

The sailor said he was still in pain, but he did not know if he would undergo surgery until he consulted with his doctor.

* * *

He did know he wasn't going to give up. "I am going to try again as soon as I recover," he said.

"At first it looked like an hour of tragedy," he said, summing up his ordeal. "But now it seems like the greatest hour of my life because I didn't break."

Death Takes Man Caught for 6 Days

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — John T. Emmanuel, trapped six days in the wreckage of a small plane, died today in Hartford Hospital.

Emmanuel, who was rescued Sunday from the slopes of Mt. Higby in nearby Middletown, died at 2:10 a.m.

* * *

He was transferred Tuesday to Hartford Hospital from Meriden Hospital.

Dr. Eugene Silliman said Tuesday night that Emmanuel, 39, of Hartford was suffering from "a total state of fatigue to mind and body."

PILOT KILLED

The crash Aug. 15 of the single-engine plane killed the pilot, Richard C. Grimaldi, 32, of Newington.

They had left Block Island, R.I., and were scheduled to land in Hartford several hours later.

* * *

The plane hit the rock face of Mt. Higby and plunged into dense foilage at the bottom of the cliff.

Emmanuel was pinned in the wreckage. The plane was not visible to searching Civil Air Patrol pilots.

SPOTS PLANE

A truck driver, who thought he saw something in his rear view mirror as he was driving on Interstate 91, called police days later when he heard about the search for the plane. The driver, John Faulkner, made the call when he realized that what he saw might have been the plane.

The wreckage was found Sunday, with Faulkner's help, by a State Aeronautics Department helicopter.

When state police went in on foot, they found Emmanuel pinned upright in the plane, unable to move.

Teen Gun Victim

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A 13-year-old rural Grant youth was fatally wounded Tuesday when a companion's gun accidentally discharged, state police reported. Leland Kemmerling of Newaygo County was target practicing with a friend southwest of Grant near Little Sand Lake when the gun went off.

You Recall the Name

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Automobile Association as part of its world tours, even offers Rent-a-Camel arrangements as part of Nile River sightseeing tours. More than 60 escorted trips to Europe, the Middle East, the Orient, and around the world, as well as within the U. S., are offered by the Association.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Some Aids Help Relieve Emphysema

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the last of two articles on emphysema, its causes, effects and treatment.)

As the prevalence of emphysema has increased, so have the efforts of the medical profession to help those who have this disease. The treatment is not a single procedure but rather a program that includes drugs, postural drainage, oxygen and breathing exercises.

BRANDSTADT

Although pure oxygen in moderation is necessary in the treatment of some persons with a severe form of the disease, it should not be used routinely.

Persons with mild emphysema have been benefited by brief exposure to air at one-half the usual atmospheric pressure (a simulated altitude of 18,000 feet).

Special breathing exercises are usually prescribed to aid in forcing the trapped air out of the lungs.

The victim must lie on his back and push out his abdomen by forcing his diaphragm downward during deep inhalation (1½ seconds followed by a pause of one-half second), then pulling his abdomen in during slow expiration (3 seconds).

SET BEAT

A metronome set for a beat of one-half second is the best way to control the timing. Placing a sandbag weighing 15 to 30 pounds on the abdomen during this exercise increases the benefit.

Two half-hour sessions a day are recommended.

None of the treatments outlined will cure emphysema but they will make the victim's life much more endurable.

For prevention, support a movement for cleaner air in your city, don't start smoking or, if you smoke, give it up and see that every respiratory infection is treated promptly and not allowed to become chronic.

Q—Where I live there is still some question as to whether you should use boric acid to rinse babies' diapers or as an eyewash. Also, should one take baking soda for an acid stomach or mineral oil reconstipation?

A—Styles change and when the reasons are good, the changes are for the better.

The reason boric acid, a very weak antiseptic at best, is no longer recommended for rinsing babies' diapers is that this substance is a poison and can be absorbed through the skin.

As an eyewash it is far inferior to a one-quarter per cent solution of zinc sulfate.

QUICK RELIEF

Soda bicarbonate will give quick relief from water brash but has the disadvantage that it stimulates the stomach to produce more acid.

Aluminum hydroxide tablets are easier to take and more effective. Mineral oil interferes with digestion. Seepage is hard to control if you take too much.

Underworld Threats to Kelley Are Probed

FRANK KELLEY

DETROIT (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley told a news conference yesterday that State Police are investigating threats against his life by "underworld forces."

Kelley said he called the conference because of reports that he had visited an alleged Mafia leader in Florida early this year. He confirmed the reports were true.

Kelley charged that persons who he did not identify, are attempting to halt a new grand jury investigation in Wayne County, that "forces" in Lansing have put pressure on the Michigan Supreme Court to halt the new grand jury and that his political career has been threatened.

Saying that threats against him have "intensified in the last 48 hours," Kelley added that they came in the form of "conversations, letters and a number of phone calls."

★ ★ ★

He declined to reveal details on the volume or contents of the threats, except to say they were in the nature of "You're going to be ruined. We're going to get you."

PROTECT INFORMATION

"I can't get into particulars because I want to protect the integrity of the information given to State Police," he said.

Hours earlier, newsmen approached Kelley and told the attorney general it was learned that Kelley had met with reputed Mafia leader Angelo Meli at Meli's Florida apartment.

Kelley confirmed the meeting with Meli.

Meli was identified in 1963 testimony before a U. S. Senate committee as one of five ruling members of the Mafia in Detroit. Former Detroit Police Commissioner George Edwards at that time named Meli as a "Don" in the underworld organization.

Kelley said he and his wife, Josephine, met with Meli and his wife, Jennie, for about an hour. Meli's attorney and his wife also were present, Kelley said.

APARTMENT MEETING

Kelley said the meeting was in February at Meli's apartment, which he said was located between Fort Lauderdale and Pompano Beach.

The attorney general said he had attended high school with Meli's son, Vincent. He said Vincent was not present at the meeting in the apartment.

He told a newsman that "I don't have any relationship with Mr. Meli whatsoever. And I have never been involved socially with him, except through his son who I know to be an honorable young man.

"I have been involved in activities against Mr. Angelo Meli and all he represents for a number of years," Kelley said.

The attorney general said "I happened to be in Florida visiting my mother-in-law."

The meeting with Meli, he told the news conference, came after he met Meli's attorney at a swimming pool in Fort Lauderdale. Kelley did not name the attorney.

SEARCH FOR SURVIVORS — All available rescue squads and volunteers are continuing the search for survivors at the explosion site at Phelps Dodge Copper Products Corp. in Ft. Wayne, Ind. Two are known dead and at least 18 were injured when the plant's executive office building was destroyed yesterday.

Marines Pounce on Red Camp

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Marines fought their way into a Communist troop training camp 20 miles southwest of Da Nang today while others, farther north, battled a force of North Vietnamese regulars.

The Americans were reported to have killed 211 of the enemy. Their own casualties were termed light.

Several hundred Leathernecks attacked the training camp, where guerrillas and North Vietnamese army men mingled.

A spokesman estimated the enemy totaled about a battalion —perhaps 600 men—and said the Communist fire was extremely heavy.

The Marines counted 44 Communist dead.

The other action developed in a hunt for Communists along infiltration routes south of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

Marines fought a heavy 12-hour battle with North Vietnamese troops overnight.

U.S. spokesmen said 17 of the enemy died in this fight and about 150 others were killed from a detachment of 250 spotted pulling away from the combat area this morning.

Company-sized elements of the 4th Marine Regiment met late yesterday with Communists well entrenched in fortifications and caves in the hills of the Cam Lo River valley, 18 miles west of Dong Ha and five miles south of the demilitarized zone.

County Sheriff, Prosecutor Request More Manpower

By JOE MULLEN

Oakland County's Republican sheriff and Democratic prosecutor cited a rising crime rate in the county yesterday in requesting more manpower for their departments.

Sheriff Frank Irons, appearing at a hearing on the 1967 county salaries budget, told members of the personnel policies committee of the County Board of Supervisors that 10 more patrolmen are urgently needed.

Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson cited his vital need for four additional assistant prosecutors.

Both men told the committee that increasing crime has swelled the work load of their departments.

Both the number of complaints and the number of prisoners housed at the Oakland County Jail this year to date are well above the same period last year, Irons said.

Besides increasing the number of patrolmen from 72 to 82, he also asked for an increase of two in clerical personnel.

Bronson, noting that both major felony and misdemeanor arrests have increased, termed his office's personnel shortage as critical.

MACOMB COUNTY

He pointed out that Macomb County, with about two thirds the population of Oakland, has the same size staff as his.

Besides the four additional assistant prosecutors, Bronson

Nixon Offers Viet Program to Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is offering Republican Senate and House candidates a war-and-peace program of supporting President Johnson's Viet Nam course but criticizing his peace efforts.

He meets today with House Republicans.

Nixon got what Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, called enthusiastic approval when he plugged at a closed meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee Tuesday for a proposed all-Asian peace conference.

Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee who observers believe might make another try in 1968, spelled out his ideas this way:

He is supporting the prosecution of the Viet Nam conflict to the hilt because he thinks "it is the war to prevent World War III." He said he thinks the Communists would bring on World War III if they are not stopped in Asia.

Nixon said he thinks President Johnson is following a "dead end street" in offering to

Romney Will Campaign in City Thursday

Gov. Romney and three other Republican candidates will visit Pontiac plants on a campaign tour tomorrow afternoon.

The governor will arrive in Pontiac at 2:05 p.m. from Redford Township and his first visit will be to the Pontiac Varnish Co. plant at 80 Brush.

Joining him there will be Joanne Van Tassel, candidate for state representative in the 62nd District, and Harvey Lodge, 17th District candidate for the State Senate.

The governor will be joined by Jack McDonald, 19th District congressional candidate, at the GMC Truck and Coach Division gate at 660 E. South Blvd. at 2:30 p.m.

After greeting GMC workers, the governor and McDonald will make a 3:45 p.m. tour of the Pontiac Progressive Welding and Machine Co. plant, 915 Oakland.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson appealed anew to capital and labor today to keep wage and price rises "within reasonable bounds."

2 Dead, 18 Hurt in Indiana Blast

Three Still Missing Fire Chief Blames Gas

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Big earth-moving machines tore at rubble of a wire factory's executive office building today in a search for three persons missing after a multimillion-dollar explosion left two confirmed dead and 18 injured.

"There is no doubt it was a gas explosion," said District Fire Chief Charles Lancaster, "but it may be days before we know what triggered it."

Beside the two-story brick building shattered yesterday was an open excavation where workmen had been replacing a gas supply line from the main plant of Phelps-Dodge Copper Products Corp.

Unofficial estimates of the loss were more than $5 million.

Two persons aiding in rescue operations were stricken with fatal heart attacks.

OUT TO LUNCH

Most of the building's 90 employes had left for lunch shortly before the explosion tore into the midsection of the two-story structure.

Real Cool Forecast for Area Residents

Things will be real cool for Pontiac area residents the next five days.

The U.S. Weather Bureau has predicted temperatures to average 6 to 9 degrees below normal with only minor daily changes.

Rainfall is expected to total less than one-tenth of an inch.

Tonight will be fair and cool with lows of 47 to 53.

It will be mostly sunny tomorrow and a little warmer. Highs of 68 to 76 are expected.

Fifty-two was the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. in downtown Pontiac today. By 1 p.m. the mercury reading was 71.

House Backs 4-Year Terms

LANSING (AP)—The House of Representatives yesterday passed a proposal to lengthen its members' terms from two to four years.

The proposal, however, will have to pass the House again, pass an uncommitted Senate and pass on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

It was approved 75-24, over a cry of "fraud," just two months after the lawmakers voted a legislative pay raise of $2,500. The four-year-term resolution calls for a constitutional amendment—meaning it needs a two-thirds vote in both houses (74 in the House and 25 in the Senate).

Another constitutional amendment proposal did not fare as well. A Democratic-backed attempt to strike the 1963 State Constitution's prohibition against a graduated state income tax was raised and failed to gain the needed margin in a 69-33 party-line vote.

If passed by the Senate, the term proposal, calling for four-year terms for House members and township officers starting Jan. 1, 1967, would go on the Nov. 8 ballot for voter approval.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, minority leader, served notice, however, that he would move today to reconsider the vote by which the resolution passed.

He Takes Shellacking Zanzibar

MITCHAM, England (AP) — Bryan Bainbridge wanted a few fancy sea shells to decorate his apartment. He wrote to a firm in Zanzibar asking for samples.

Yesterday the shells arrived at London Docks — 2,912 pounds of them: There was also a freight bill of $308.

"There are thousands and thousands of shells in the shipment," Bainbridge told newsmen. "They range from giant clams and coral flowers to weird things like tiger shells, white cowries and assorted pointed rugosis.

"The shells came in 10 big bags, 9 cases and 2 barrels. What am I going to do with 2,912 pounds of sea shells?"

Bainbridge, 29, a security guard at a factory, said what he had in mind was a small box of shells.

"I was redecorating my apartment, you see," he explained. "When I was in the navy I visited Zanzibar and I remembered the pretty shells I saw there. Just the thing, I thought.

"This firm in Zanzibar I wrote to replied saying that as I hadn't specified what shells I wanted they would send me their whole range.

"My God, they have."

The shells are aboard the British freighter Purnea at London Docks, 14 miles from Mitcham.

Bainbridge said his first action will be to hire a truck to bring the shells to a friend's garden where he can leave them for a while.

'Human Resources Center'

Whitmer to Offer Plan

A proposal to build a "human resources center" in the southeast quadrant of the city will be considered by the Pontiac Board of Education tonight.

The center, as envisioned by Supt. Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, would replace the deteriorating McConnell Community School with an educational park to serve various needs of the area.

Whitmer will ask the board of education at its 7:30 p.m. meeting to endorse the human resources center concept and to authorize the start of a feasibility study on the idea.

He also will ask school trustees to seek City Commission cooperation in a joint planning and development project.

★ ★ ★

Starting with replacement of the McConnell building, the center eventually would be expanded to include facilities for the Central and Wilson elementary school areas, according to Whitmer's proposal.

DAY PROGRAM

The center would provide both a day school program and the services developed in the community school program now in effect at McConnell.

Whitmer's proposal includes no cost figures or recommended location.

However, he describes the center as a complex of buildings on a large site.

★ ★ ★

"It provides facilities for enriched and extended educational programs for pupils," he said. "Included in such programs are those which are educational, cultural, social and recreational in nature."

Also provided would be facilities specifically designed and constructed to accommodate out-of-school youth and adults in programs similar to those of the community schools.

Space would be provided public and private agencies serving the people of the area.

Enriching the educational opportunities for children and adults, the center could stimulate "community pride and interest which would assist in the development and maintenance of an attractive residential area," Whitmer said.

★ ★ ★

He lists as one inherent value of the proposal "promotion of a stable, racially integrated residential area by encouraging people to live in the area in order to have the benefits of the human resources center."

Gen. Westmoreland Attacking Accidental Bombing Problem

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. military forces in Viet Nam, deplored today the killing of Vietnamese civilians by mistaken and accidental bombings and said the American command was aggressively attacking the problem to reduce such incidents.

★ ★ ★

Westmoreland said he had appointed a military review board to study the recent rash of mistaken and accidental attacks and devise improved controls and procedures.

Last week, the four-star general ordered all his subordinate commanders to review their procedures to curb civilian casualties.

In 13 incidents since early July, 164 Vietnamese civilians have been killed and more than 300 wounded. In the worst of these, 63 civilians were killed and 83 were wounded Aug. 9 when a village was attacked by U.S. F100 Super Sabre Jets.

The attack had been called by the Vietnamese provincial chief who said the village was under Viet Cong control.

In addition to the 13 civilian incidents, U.S. planes mistakenly attacked a U.S. Coast Guard cutter Aug. 11 and killed two of its crew and wounded five others.

★ ★ ★

"Let one fact be clear," Westmoreland said, "as far as the United States Military Assistance Command in Viet Nam is concerned, one mishap — one innocent civilian killed, one civilian wounded or one dwelling needlessly destroyed — is too many."

"By its very nature," he added i nas tatement, "war is destructive and historically civilians have suffered. But the war in Viet Nam is different. It is designed by the insurgents and the aggressors to be fought among the people, many of whom are not participants in, or even closely identified with, the struggle.

WAR OBJECTIVES

"People, more than terrain, are the objectives in this war, and we will not and cannot be callous about those people.

★ ★ ★

"We are sensitive to these incidents and want no more of them. If one does occur — mistake or accident — we intend to search it carefully for any lesson that will help us improve our procedures and controls. We realize we have a great problem, and I can assure you we are attacking it aggressively."

Several of the recent incidents resulted from accidents such as the plane crash from mechanical failure on a village Aug. 17 in which 35 villagers were killed and 75 were injured.

★ ★ ★

U.S. authorities also are attempting to set up procedures to take care of victims of such incidents rapidly and to relieve suffering.

Southwest Floodwaters Recede

FLOODED FARM COMMUNITY—Floodwaters ranging in depth from six inches to six feet inundated Dell City, Tex., a farm community of 950 persons 92 miles from El Paso. All roads in the area were either washed out or flooded. Crop damage in the thousands of dollars was reported.

Threat of Rain Still Hovering

Copters Bring Help to Marooned Areas

By the Associated Press

Silt-laden floodwaters ebbed slowly today from damaged homes and devastated farms but there was a threat of still more rain in neighboring sectors of far West Texas and southeast New Mexico.

Army helicopters brought food, drinking water and medicines Tuesday to residents forced from homes at nearby marooned Dell City, Tex., 92 miles east of El Paso.

★ ★ ★

The helicopters, from Ft. Bliss in El Paso, also made relief flights to the Carlsbad, N.M., vicinity.

Deluges estimated at 11 inches since Monday at Dell City and 8 inches in Carlsbad Caverns National Park set off the crop-destroying floods.

CHANCE OF RAIN

While the muddy waters were receding, Weather Bureau observers said there was a 50 per cent chance of thundershowers in at least part of the affected area.

At least one death apparently occurred as the Pecos River went on the rampage at Carlsbad. A search continued today for Joe Little, 45, who was washed off a National Guard truck Monday night while reporting developments for radio station KPBM.

★ ★ ★

Losses promised to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Water six inches to six feet deep covered about 95 per cent of Dell City, an irrigation farming center. Most of its 950 people took shelter in public schools. Some were rescued off rooftops.

SCHOOL SHELTER

Flood evacuees at Carlsbad — about 100 families — were housed in school buildings.

Helicopters went into action after an 85-foot washout on US 61-80 stalled a 21-truck Army convoy 54 miles east of El Paso.

★ ★ ★

One of the trucks finally made it into Dell City late Tuesday night. There was hope others could get through today.

Eighty-four soldiers set up an evacuation headquarters at the washout, which occurred at a point 15 miles south of the New Mexico line.

Skilled UAW Men Set Chrysler Protest

DETROIT (AP)—Hundreds of skilled United Auto Workers were expected to demonstrate today at Chrysler Corp. headquarters to protest refusal of the Big Three car makers to reopen labor contracts.

The tradesmen, rejected Monday in their bid to reopen contracts to negotiate their demands for a 50-cent hourly pay hike, planned to march for four hours at the Chrysler offices.

★ ★ ★

Joe Zappa, an officer of the UAW's Chrysler Local 212, said representatives of skilled workers in 22 Detroit-area locals of the UAW called for the demonstration.

Only off-duty employes were being asked to participate, he said. But it was expected some skilled tradesmen might not go to work in order to participate in the demonstration.

NO REOPENING

Chrysler, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. declined Monday to discuss revamping of skilled trades wages in their contracts with the UAW. The pacts will expire Sept. 6, 1967.

One concern among industry officials about any reopening of the contract was that unskilled and semiskilled production workers might also call for renegotiations on wages.

★ ★ ★

There are nearly 100,000 skilled workers and 600,000 other production workers in the Big Three.

Plans for the demonstration were formed by the "$1 an Hour Now Steering Committee," comprised of UAW skilled tradesmen.

RANKS UNITING

Its chairman, Christopher J. Manning, said "The refusal of the Big Three to open the wage agreement on behalf of skilled trades has spurred the committee to further courses of action... (and) has also generated more determination in the ranks to unite in this struggle."

★ ★ ★

Manning declined to say what the "further courses of action" might be.

GOP Candidates Hear Nixon Views base peace negotiations on the Geneva accord and thus involve European nations. Instead, Nixon said, the non-Communist nations of Asia ought to draft proposals for a settlement, even if the Communists ignore them at this point.

There was a great deal more about what he called Johnson's failure to sell the war goals to the country. But Nixon's basic advice to GOP candidates was: Support the flag but offer an alternative to Johnson's thus far unsuccessful efforts to get peace negotiations going.

Russians Launch Unmanned Luna 11

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union launched an unmanned satellite, Luna 11, toward the moon today.

An announcement by Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said only that an automatic space station, the term used here for an unmanned satellite, had been launched.

The purpose of the flight was not immediately disclosed. Earlier Soviet Luna satellites have taken important steps toward landing a man on the moon.

Status of Sukarno Office Brews Indonesian Crisis

JAKARTA (UPI) — Indonesia appeared heading for a new political crisis today over whether President Sukarno will be allowed to hold office. Pro-Communist elements from central Java were reported to have infiltrated Jakarta to stir up trouble.

Militant students said they gave Sukarno a 48-hour ultimatum to back down from his recent defiant statements reaffirming his authority and his old pro-leftist position or face unspecified "necessary action" — possibly big demonstrations.

Authorities disclosed today that 10 members of the "Ampera Army" had clashed in Jakarta this week with pro-Sukarno elements believed to have come here from central Java, a Sukarno stronghold. The Ampera Army is strongly anti-Communist and anti-Sukarno.

★ ★ ★

Informed sources said Indonesian military commanders in Java were summoned today to a hastily called seminar which amounted to little more than a head count by Gen. Suharto of supporters in case trouble breaks out. Suharto holds actual power in Indonesia.

ACTION FRONTS

The Sukarno opposition was led by the fiercely anti-Communist student "action fronts" who demand that parliament reject Sukarno's Independence Day speech Aug. 17 in which he reaffirmed his claim to leadership and blamed the military for all of Indonesia's ills.

Irons, Bronson Ask for More Manpower

asked for three other new staff members. These were a court reporter, stenographer and legal investigator.

Officials of seven other county departments were heard yesterday and all requested either more personnel, wage increases, or both.

★ ★ ★

The greatest number of new employes was asked by the Oakland County Sanitorium which seeks 15 persons including six nurses aides and six practical nurses.

REQUEST RECOMMENDED

Anthony G. Wodek, sanitorium director, said that the added personnel requested is what was recommended by the Michigan Department of Health when it certified the facility for Medicare.

Wodek added that the sanitorium has more older patients than ever before and this requires more service per patient from staff members.

The sanitorium now has 146 patients which represents 87 per cent of capacity, Wodek said.

★ ★ ★

The personnel policies committee will hear requests of nine other county departments today and will evaluate all department requests next Tuesday.

Recommendations on salaries and personnel increases will later be referred to the ways and means committe of the board of supervisors.

Police Crack Rental Racket

Oak Park Police in conjunction with the Oakland County prosecutor's office today announced they had cracked a mortgage and home rental racket which Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson said might have been taking in "half a million dollars a year."

★ ★ ★

A warrant issued by Bronson charges Jack Wine, 30, of Oak Park with renting a house in Oak Park to three separate parties simultaneously even as a bank started mortgage foreclosure proceedings on the home.

Bronson said information given to police indicated Wine had been successful with the same operation involving "perhaps several hundred" homes a year.

384 Japanese Die in Epidemic

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese health authorities said today encephalitis, the dreaded sleeping sickness, has taken 384 lives so far this year out of 1,616 cases throughout Japan.

Thirty-nine prefectures out of 46 throughout Japan have been designated as danger districts. Most cases involve children, authorities said.

HEW Chief Is Scheduled for OU Talk

Congressman Billie S. Farnum, D-Pontiac, announced today that Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare John W. Gardner will be the main speaker Oct. 18 at a statewide Michigan Conference on Higher Education.

To be held at Oakland University, the conference is expected to focus on the "historic education legislation of the 89th Congress," Farnum commented.

The confab will examine new directions in national educational policy, classroom and housing construction, and student aid.

★ ★ ★

The conference, and particularly Gardner's speech, is open to the public, Farnum emphasized.

Durward B. Varner, OU chancellor, is extending invitations to all universities, colleges and junior colleges in the state, Farnum said.

Birmingham Area News

Subdivision Residents Closer to Water Service

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Action by the township board has brought residents in the Concord Green and Bloomfield Heights subdivisions one step closer to water.

The second hearings on water mains for the two areas were held Monday night to review the costs of the projects, to set assessments and installment schedules.

Assessment for the Concord Green water main installation was put at $717.40 for each of the 46 sites to be served by the system.

★ ★ ★

Engineers have estimated that the total cost of the project will run to about $33,000.

ACTION INITIATED

Action on the project was initiated at the Aug. 8 meeting of the board when a petition for the main signed by 59 per cent of the residents involved was formally presented to the board.

The second water main considered by the board will serve most of Bloomfield Heights subdivision and portions of highmoor and Woodcrest Farms subdivisions.

The 146 sites affected will be assessed $1,169.18 over a 10-year period. Total cost has been put at an estimated $170,700.

Petitions signed by 53 per cent of the residents were formally presented to the board at the first hearing for the twin projects on Aug. 8.

FIRST INSTALLMENTS

First installments for residents of the two sections will be due in January of next year.

Township Clerk Deloris V. Little said the board's next step will be to submit an application to the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission for permission to issue bonds to finance the water installations.

The bonds would mature in 10 years and be paid off by the assessment monies.

In other action the board authorized Township Attorney Thomas Dillon to initiate legal proceedings against the operators of the Bloomfield Commons shopping center to force them to put up a masonary wall around the perimeter of the property.

CENTER BUILT

The center was built at the corner of Maple and Lahser roads four years ago.

The township at that time refused to rezone the land for commercial use but was forced to when the center's developers took the case to court.

Part of the court rezoning decree was that a wall be built between the center and adjoining residential area.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Little said the legal action is being taken because the court decree has not been complied with.

Court Clerk Resigns Post

Notification Cites 'Personal Reasons'

Municipal Court Clerk Martin J. Keller last night submitted his resignation to the Pontiac City Commission, citing "personal reasons" in his decision to quit.

Keller, 61, of 855 Menominee said he would leave the $9,490-a-year position "not later" than Oct. 2. He said he had no immediate plans after that date.

Notification of the commission followed by one day a similar letter sent by Keller to municipal judges Cecil B. McCallum and Maurice E. Finnegan.

Keller was named to fill the post May 31, 1961, following the death of former clerk Leo F. MacDonald.

★ ★ ★

Since his appointment, he has also assumed the duties of probation officer for the court.

Earlier this year, Keller was the recipient of a certificate of appreciation from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People for "distinguished service" as court clerk.

King Again Vows Cicero Protest

200 Marchers Jeered

CHICAGO (AP) — A force of 200 civil rights demonstrators dodged bricks and bottles Tuesday night in a Southeast Side neighborhood, then attended a rally where Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. repeated his intention to march to Cicero Sunday.

The open-housing demonstration in the city's South Deering area was witnessed by 1,500 shouting, angry white persons who stood along the tree-lined residential streets and threatened the comparatively small parade.

King, who led 500 persons into the area Sunday, was not in Tuesday night's demonstration.

Leaders of the Chicago Freedom Movement announced a march would be held today in the West Elsdon area, an all-white neighborhood adjacent to Gage Park on the Southwest side where some of the most violent white reaction to the demonstrations has occurred this summer.

450 POLICE

A force of 450 blue-helmeted police formed a cordon around the demonstrators and effectively kept violent action in check in South Deering. Sixteen persons were arrested. Most of the offenders were caught firing stones, firecrackers and bottles at the marchers.

One policeman was felled by a brick and was treated at a hospital.

* * *

The prevailing placards — "White Power," "White Trash," "The Zoo Wants You" — were held in the air by residents of the all-white community.

After the march, the Rev. Jesse Jackson told newsmen, "You ask me if it (the march) was successful. You don't get successful marches on the basis of how many people yelled or threw things at you. When we can go to any real estate office in Chicago and find an apartment or buy a house, that's what I call success."

STUDENT RALLY

King spoke to a student rally of 400 persons at a Southwest Side church shortly after the South Deering march.

"Not only are we going to walk in Cicero," King shouted, "We're going to work in Cicero and we're going to live in Cicero."

* * *

Christy S. Berkos, town attorney of Cicero, which hugs Chicago's western border, sent telegrams Tuesday to Gov. Otto Kerner, King and Albert A. Raby, convenor of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations.

The telegrams to the civil rights leaders expressed a desire for a meeting with city, county and state officials prior to Sunday's march.

NO PLANS

King said Tuesday night, "I have no plans to meet with the governor," he indicated some of his aides may attend meetings with Cicero officials.

Weathermen Mull Action on Hurricane

SAN JUAN, P. R. (UPI) — Hurricane Faith continued briskly across the Atlantic Ocean today while government weathermen pondered whether to try to tame its howling winds.

Weather Bureau officials in Washington and at the National Hurricane Center in Miami said it was still too early to decide whether "Project Stormfury" should go into effect.

Stormfury is an experimental program for seeding hurricanes with silver iodide crystals in an attempt to rob them of their strength.

Faith whipped up to hurricane strength yesterday and hurricane hunter planes flew into its eye, where winds gusted as high as 90 miles an hour.

* * *

The latest advisory issued by the San Juan weather bureau placed Faith 1,500 miles east-southeast of San Juan, near latitude 18.5 north longitude 44.3 west.

STRAIGHT WEST

It was reported to be moving straight west at about 20 miles an hour, and a slow increase in size and intensity was predicted.

Faith was still too far at sea to pose a threat to any land areas before noontime today, the advisory said.

Project Stormfury, operated jointly by the [illegible] weather bureau, proposes to cause heavy, energy - sapping condensation in hurricanes through bombardment with crystals of silver iodide.

* * *

However, project safety rules require that any hurricane which could strike a populated area within 36 hours must be left alone since there is a remote possibility the hurricane could become stronger rather than weaker under the treatment.

State Man in Line for Seaway Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he intends to nominate Miles S. McKee, 55, of Grosse Pointe, Mich., to the advisory board of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

McKee was born in Detroit and received his law degree from the Detroit College of Law in 1937. He is vice president of the Wisconsin & Michigan Steamship Co. and secretary of San Products, Inc.

* * *

On the advisory board, he replaces Dr. N. R. Danielian. Members of the board receive $50 per day when actually employed and are appointed for an indefinite term. The nomination must be approved by the Senate.

New Canada Rail Talks Set

OTTAWA (AP) — A last-ditch effort to settle the railway wage dispute opens here today with the deadline for a crippling nationwide rail strike only two days away.

Labor Minister John Nicholson won agreement from railway and union leaders last night for a new round of mediation talks in his office, but there was little optimism a settlement could be reached before the Friday noon strike hour.

As Nicholson was arranging the renewal of bargaining efforts, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson told a national television and radio audience that both sides must adopt "moderation and common sense."

"A general railway strike — even for a few days — will seriously affect the livelihood and well-being of thousands of our people. A prolonged strike would be far more serious and it could be disastrous," Pearson said.

Pearson said he hoped both labor and management would be fair and he promised the government would introduce legislation to revamp the railway system and enable companies to grant "reasonable" wage increases. But he warned the increases must not be inflationary.

120,000 EMPLOYES

The scheduled strike would involve about 120,000 employes of the Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railway. It will affect five other lines.

The CNR and the CPR say their subsidiaries in the United States will not be affected, but runs into Canada will be terminated at the nearest point to the U.S.-Canadian border.

The railways have refused wage demands ranging from 55 cents to more than $1 an hour. The present average wage is $2.22 hourly.

Needed Hoist for This Heist

STUART, Fla. (AP) — A record for stealing resort souvenirs may have been set at House of Refuge, a marine museum. Its officials reported theft of two 1,000-pound bronze propellers, gift of the Navy several years ago.

How the massive marine screws were removed was not explained.

Top LBJ Aides View Slums Firsthand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Acting under orders from President Johnson, Cabinet members and other top officials are quietly visiting city slums and ghettos to get a firsthand look at conditions.

Johnson's directive, aimed in part at checking on local administration of federal urban aid programs, went out a few weeks ago.

Since then three department heads have paid unannounced visits to slum areas. And several White House staffers, dressed in old clothes, have gone incognito into Negro ghettos in and around Washington and New York.

Speaking at Syracuse, N.Y., last Friday the President made a vague reference to his order for on-the-spot assessments by his highest aides of urban blight.

He told his Syracuse audience he was determined to "take the profit out of poverty," and spoke of special federal programs to aid slum-dwellers. Then he interjected, "Don't be surprised if you see a lot of my Cabinet in the next few months."

White House officials said Johnson wanted Cabinet members to see, hear and feel what really is going on in the slum neighborhoods and city streets that have spawned racial and other forms of violence.

So far, these sources say, the President's order has resulted in visits to Negro slums in Boston's Roxbury section by Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach; to the riot-scarred Hough area of Cleveland by Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and to poor sections of Miami, Fla

Planning Board Opposes Rezoning for Trailer Park

The Waterford Township Planning Commission last night unanimously recommended denial of a rezoning request for establishing a trailer coach park and apartment development on 46 acres east of Scott Lake Road and south of Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks.

Applicant Lloyd Heussner proposes to change the zoning of the property from general industrial (M-2) and single family residential (R-1A) to trailer coach park (R-4) and multiple dwelling residential (R-2).

His request to table the application for one month was rejected by the commission.

In forwarding the negative recommendation to the Township Board for final action, planners stressed that the property is one of the few remaining large vacant industrial parcels in the township.

They said that an industrial use for the land would be of more benefit to the township as a whole.

360 TRAILER SITES

Heussner proposes to establish about 360 trailer sites on the property.

In another public hearing, the commission recommended denial of a request to rezone from R-1A to R-2 property on the southwest corner of Tubbs and Crescent Lake Road for development of 10 apartment units.

Planners recommended for approval a proposal to rezone from local business (C-1) to general business (C-2) property on

Also recommended for approval was a request to rezone M59 just west of Williams Lake Road.

They also granted special approval to allow a plumbing business on the property, subject to the Township Board's action on the rezoning request.

from R-1A to C-1 property at Island Park Drive and Sashabaw.

Special approval was granted to allow a gasoline service station at the corner, subject to the Township Board's action on the rezoning proposal.

One part of a rezoning request was recommended for approval and another part tabled by planners on a request to change the zoning from R-1A to R-2 and C-1 property on the northeast corner of Clintonville Road at Walton Boulevard.

* * *

The R-2 zoning was recommended for approval, while the C-1 rezoning was tabled pending receipt of further information from the County Health Department regarding soil conditions on the property.

A request, initiated by the planning commission, to change the zoning from C-1 to R-1B property in Meniwaters Subdivision was withdrawn by planners after residents had objected.

De Gaulle Puts Stress on Trip

Coming Global Tour Is Called Significant

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle said today his forthcoming state visit to Cambodia on the borders of war-torn Viet Nam will be of "particular significance."

Information Secretary Yvon Bourges said de Gaulle made a personal statement to the cabinet on what he considers the highlights of the 30,000-mile round-the-world tour on which he will leave tomorrow.

During the tour, he will visit Ethiopia and Cambodia and watch a French nuclear test explosion in the Pacific.

"In Cambodia", Borges said, "Gen. de Gaulle will be in a region which presents an outstanding and obvious interest. So, his stay in Phnom Penh will take on particular significance."

De Gaulle was scheduled to make two major speeches in Cambodia. However, contrary to expectation, nothing was revealed about their content after today's cabinet session.

DETAILS

The cabinet meeting, over which de Gaulle presided, lasted one hour and 50 minutes — less time than usual. details of de Gaulle's statement were not released.

However, it was announced that, during his absence, Prime Minister Georges Pompidou was authorized to call cabinet meetings, but that de Gaulle himself must approve the agenda beforehand.

The next cabinet session was scheduled Sept. 14, immediately after de Gaulle's return. It will approve the 1967 draft budget which now is being prepared.

Today's cabinet meeting approved a second 2 per cent wage boost for civil servants effective Oct. 1. An earlier 2 per cent increase was granted in April.

Over Al-leg-ations

British Musicians in Discord

LONDON (AP) — Ernest Fleischmann, general manager of the London Symphony Orchestra, said today that members and wives wished to dissociate themselves from "misreported and twisted remarks" about the legs of American women.

He issued a statement saying the members and their wives were "up in arms against the disgraceful misreporting which makes the orchestra seem churlish and ungrateful to the people who have done more for it and with whom it has established closer contacts than on any of its numerous trips abroad."

* * *

When the orchestra members and their wives returned to London Airport Tuesday, they were much quoted by British reporters on the question of short skirts and legs.

Violinist David Meshum was quoted as saying: "The American women are way behind. Their skirts are too long. It's nice to see a bit of leg. But then, American women have such terrible figures. They are doing themselves a favor by keeping them covered up."

'SAD REFLECTION'

Fleischann said: "It is a sad reflection on the sense of values in 'swinging Britain' if the length of women's skirts and the amount of visible bare leg is more newsworthy than a major British triumph at a festival abroad which incidentally also created an enormous amount of international good will."

Fleischmann also sent a cable to the Daytona Beach, (Fla.) News and Journal in which he said:

"The members and families of the London Symphony Orchestra wish to dissociate themselves categorically from misreported and twisted remarks regarding American ladies' legs and fashion alleged to have been made on the orchestra's return to London yesterday. Please inform the people of Daytona Beach that nowhere in the world have we been shown such warm friendship and generous hospitality than during our unforgettable stay in your glorious city.

"Our sincere thanks go to you, the Festival Board of Trustees as well as to the whole community of Daytona Beach who helped to make our visit so thoroughly enjoyable and who contributed greatly to the remarkable success of the first Florida International Music Festival."

Two Bound Over in City Break-In

Accused of the burglary of a downtown sales warehouse, two Pontiac youths were bound over to Circuit Court yesterday for arraignments Sept. 12 on charges of breaking and entering.

Ronald Newcomb, 20, of 372 Prospect and Clifton Martin, 19, of 623 Going were ordered to stand trial on the charges by Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib.

Leib, who presided over the preliminary examination in Pontiac Municipal Court, set bond of $1,500 on each of the defendants. Martin posted the bail, but Newcomb was remanded to the Oakland County Jail.

The two were arrested July 27 by Pontiac police who said they were fleeing the Goodyear Tire Co. store at 40 W. Pike with televisions and radios taken in a break-in.

Break-In Reported at Avondale High

Tools and equipment valued at some $300 were reported missing following a break-in early yesterday at Avondale High School, 1435 Auburn, Avon Avon Township.

Head custodian John Cravin said he discovered the burglary while opening the school about 7 a.m.

Entry to the building had been gained by breaking a door window, according to Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

The missing items included a portable television set valued at $175 and a set of walkie-talkies worth about $75.

3 Convicts Flee Prison in Pennsylvania

SCRANTON, Pa. (UPI) — Three inmates at the Lackawanna County Prison pistol-whipped a prison guard, forced five other persons, including a new prisoner, into the warden's office and escaped in an auto last night.

A 13-state alarm was sounded for the prisoners described as "armed and dangerous" by prison authorities.

The escapers were identified as Ronald Hannick, 30, Scranton, Richard Moranko, 29, Dixon City, and Joseph Marsala, 15, Scranton.

Dirt Is Decisive

Strike Not Washed Up

PONTYPOOL, Wales (UPI) — The 10 dirtiest men will step forward, then run for the showers.

That's how management at the Royal Ordnance Factory here hopes to settle a recent labor dispute. Workers went on strike when washing-up time after work was cut from 45 to 30 minutes.

The workmen claimed they sometimes became covered with dye during work and needed the full 45 minutes to become presentable.

Mediators decided a junior supervisor will inspect the men each day, decide which are the dirtiest, and send them to the showers early.
