Record Vote Expected in County

Editorial

Sensational last minute developments heap new values on Tuesday's election.

Right while the Russians were promising to withdraw their troops, they were secretly massing armies on all sides. With Communistic words of friendship still ringing in the air, they assaulted Budapest without warning.

Russian massacres began again.

These are the bloody butchers that Adlai Stevenson would "trust with an H-Bomb deal."

Would YOU?

Would you take their word on ANYTHING?

Do you want to abandon the draft with these killers and assassins standing astride Europe and Asia as fresh blood drips from their hand?

Adlai Stevenson does.

With gunfire threatening the entire world, it is no time for an ordinary chap in the White House. We need a great international advocate of peace—and the world's greatest general, Dwight D. Eisenhower, who understands war in all its horrible forms.

Even aside from these last minute happenings, the Democrats have been sorely pressed for vital issues. The Nation is swinging along in fine shape. Prosperity has reached the highest level in history. Wages have reached an all time peak. Living standards in the United States are the highest ever known.

America is not at war.

The President wound up the Korean scramble and now announces that he does not intend to send American boys over to fight in Egypt.

Whether it be bad management or bad luck, the last three American wars have all been declared with the Democrats in power. Many indications point to Eisenhower ballots among those voting for the first time.

This means the soldiers.

The young are the cannon fodder.

Social security, unemployment insurance and minimum wages have been stepped up and they now cover several million additional citizens.

The President has done a magnificent job in restoring economic and political order out of "the chaos and the mess" that he found in the District of Columbia.

Government spending has been reduced by $24 billion in three years.

Taxes were cut 10 per cent in 1953.

The budget has been balanced.

This is a tremendous achievement in the light of the avowed Democratic policy of "borrow, borrow, borrow"... all of which taxpayers will have to pay back. Twenty years of Roosevelt and Truman have saddled the young people of this country with a debt they will struggle all their lives to pay.

Inflation was halted.

The raise in prices under President Eisenhower as measured by the Consumer Price Index is 2½ per cent. During the peace time years under Truman it rose 27½ per cent.

The President has been an everlasting foe of communism, wherever he found it.

We have the greatest Navy in the world. The Air Force has been strengthened immeasurably and the Army is at its peak in training, efficiency and modern methods. Also, we have the greatest Commander-in-Chief in the world—and he's in the White House where belligerent nations—like Russia—can see him.

President Eisenhower has created an atmosphere of good will and understanding. Bickering at home has reached a new low. No one is perfect, and we do not suggest that the President is. He simply happens to combine many of the old fashioned, homely virtues that the world admires and which have meant so much to the United States.

The Pontiac Press believes that Mayor Albert E. Cobo is much better fitted than G. Mennen Williams to serve Michigan as Governor. We believe Mayor Cobo's record in Detroit indicates much greater business ability. We believe Cobo's guiding principles are better suited to the State's needs and will be used for all the people rather than the Governor's special interests.

The Press also believes William S. Broomfield is definitely the man to represent Oakland County in Washington. His training and experience fit him for this important post.

This country is governed by the representatives of the people. We elect them. Our Government doesn't tell us how to vote.

Your ballot counts as much as Adlai Stevenson's—or Dwight D. Eisenhower's.

Cast it tomorrow,

Cast it wisely.

Cast it in the light of your own situation, in the light of your nation's situation and that of the world in general.

190,000 Citizens to Cast Ballots in Oakland Area

Large Registration Rolls Bring Admonition to Be at Polls Early

Whether it will be Ike for another four years or Adlai in the White House for the first time, will be the big question as Pontiac and Oakland County voters go to the polls tomorrow along with the rest of the nation.

Pontiac City Clerk Ada R. Evans estimated 35,000 will vote in the city, while County Clerk Lynn D. Allen estimated 190,000 will vote in the county.

Both city and county offices reported record registrations of 43,641 and 268,000 respectively.

Polls open at 7 a.m. and any voter in line at the 8 p.m. closing time will get to vote.

Both Mrs. Evans and Allen urged voters not to wait until the late rush hours to vote, but to "get to the polls early."

The skies are expected to be mostly cloudy with the temperature to hover around the 60 to 64 degree mark.

All city banks, county and state offices, Consumers Power Co. and Detroit Edison's Pontiac office will be closed tomorrow. City offices, the Post Office, and Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will remain open.

Thirty-one questions will be facing county voters, as the majority turn to the voting machines.

At the top of the ballot for all county voters will be a state constitution amendment requiring, if passed, that persons seeking a Legislature seat be 21 years and that "he not have been convicted of subversion or a felony involving a breach of public trust."

Pontiac voters will settle two local questions on the ballot. They will be whether Pontiac police and firemen should be required to live within a 10-mile radius of the Saginaw and Huron street intersection, and whether to increase the Police Trial Board membership from five to seven members.

Voters will then decide between the team of Eisenhower and Nixon or the Stevenson and Kefauver combination, for President and Vice-President.

Voters will be selecting either Republican William S. Broomfield or Democrat Paul Sutton as U. S. Representative from the 18th Congressional District.

State offices of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, state treasurer,

U. S. Troops Ineligible

U.N. to Send Men Into Mideast Fray

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The General Assembly early today ordered a U.N. command set up for an international police force to work for a cease-fire in Egypt.

Britain and France, in a statement issued in London, said they will halt all military action as soon as Egypt and Israel agree to a police force to stop the fighting, secure the withdrawal of the Israeli forces and get the Suez Canal back into operation.

It appears unlikely Israel, anyway, will agree immediately.

The Israeli government sent the U. N. a five-part demand for clarification of the latest U. N. cease-fire call, and Israeli Delegate Abba Eban warned the Assembly that "the stationing of a force on the territory of Israel is not possible without the consent of the government of Israel."

There was no immediate reaction from Cairo.

The Assembly voted 57-0 at 12:17 a.m. to set up the police force. The resolution for its creation was sponsored by Canada, Colombia and Norway. Nineteen countries abstained.

The vote came about an hour and a half before the announcement that British and French troops had landed in Egypt, where Israel has already occupied the Sinai Peninsula.

The new command will recruit officers immediately from small countries for "an emergency international force to secure and supervise the cessation of hostilities."

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, author of the plan, will try to get "the necessary troops" from among 71 of the U. N.'s 76 members, barring only Britain, Nationalist China, France, the Soviet Union and the United States.

Hammarskjold reported to the Assembly that Colombia, New Zealand and Norway had agreed to take part in the force. Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson confirmed that Canada would do so subject to parliamentary approval.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. announced the United

Reds Close Fist on Hungarians

Deadline Is Broadcast for Vanquished Rebels to Turn In Arms

VIENNA (AP) — Radio Budapest broadcast a demand today that remaining Hungarian rebel fighters give up their arms by 6 p.m. —12 noon EST.

It appeared probable the rebels, their ranks thinned by the lightning attacks of Russian tanks and infantry, had already switched from organized battle lines to partisan warfare.

The Budapest station, again firmly under Russian control, sought to win over Hungarians with all sorts of promises of political and economic reforms.

"First it is necessary to restore order," it warned. "The Soviet troops will be withdrawn only after order has been restored."

The new regime, it said, will start negotiations for the withdrawal after peace returns.

The Soviet high command appealed to Hungarian army officers and men to join in crushing the rebellion.

Plane Owners Back Addition

Also Praise Paper for Editorial Stand on Airport Improvement

The Alfred G. Wilsons of Meadow Brook Farms, Rochester, have written The Press indicating their support of the increased facilities possible at Pontiac Municipal Airport with the addition of the new 4,000 foot runway.

The Wilsons, who have contributed in the past to the progress of the Pontiac area, offered assistance in providing these facilities at the local field. The letter follows:

"As owners and users of a Twin Beech aircraft, we especially commend and appreciate your editorial 'New Runway May Speed Air Passenger Service,' in your issue of Oct. 31.

"I dare say there will be an increasing number of executive plans who will want to hangar at your improved municipal airport.

ADDED IMPROVEMENTS

"With the proper application for commercial service, I know that you will have to have a lighting system for night operation, weather reporting service, and possibly an instrument approach system, all of which are quite necessary for the safe operation of a two engine plane.

"If there is anything that we can do toward assisting you in perfecting and putting into operation the above service, please call upon us."

Predict Clouds, Fog Tonight, Tomorrow

There will be little temperature change tonight, with mostly cloudy skies and fog expected. A low of 55 is predicted for the Pontiac vicinity.

Cloudy tomorrow with little change in temperature, and a high of 60 to 64 is predicted by our weatherman.

In downtown last night the low was 56. The temperature rose to 62 at 2 p.m. today.

OK Cease-Fire; Nasser Regime May Crumble

British Willing to Give Control of Canal Zone to U.N. Police

LONDON (AP)—Waves of British and French parachutists landed in the Port Said area at the north end of the Suez Canal today. Within hours, the British announced, the Egyptian commander there began discussing surrender terms with the invaders. A cease-fire was declared.

The cease-fire was announced to cheers in the House of Commons by Prime Minister Eden.

"If the Prime Minister's statement means that there has been a general cease-fire in Egypt and that all military operations have ceased then for my part I am only too delighted," said Labor Party Leader Hugh Gaitskell.

Terrific cheering rang from both sides of the House. Gaitskell pressed Eden to say whether the cease-fire was local or general:

"If the cease-fire is general, then will he undertake to carry out the rest of the U. N. General Assembly resolution and withdraw our troops from the area?"

Eden replied:

"Quite clearly I cannot know how wide or narrow is the area covered by the cease-fire, but I should have thought that every one of our fellow countrymen would have been delighted."

After Defense Minister Anthony Head presented details of this morning's Allied landings, Laborites again pressed for an answer whether the cease-fire covered the Port Said area or Egypt in general.

"The only information we have of the situation is the telegram which has been read off," Head replied.

Head had no detailed information about casualties, but said: "From reports, I should say there is every hope they will be light."

The developments meant the situation of Egyptian President Nasser was becoming more precari-

Reds Ask U.S. to Join in Stopping 'Aggression'

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union called today for joint American-Soviet military intervention — backed by the United Nations— to stop British-French "aggression" in the Middle East.

Premier Nikolai Bulganin made the appeal in a message to President Eisenhower, Moscow radio reported.

Moscow also announced that Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov has sent a message to the U.N. Security Council urging it to render military and other aid to Egypt.

GMTC Employes Donate $25,000 to UF So Far

The Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign today reached 55.8 per cent of its $612,202 goal as first drive reports were received from General Motors Truck and Coach division.

Owen O'Neill, United Fund chairman for the Truck and Coach Division, reported initial pledges of $25,000 from plant workers.

United Fund Campaign Chairman Walter K. Willman said he welcomes O'Neill's report. Campaign leadership feels results of employe solicitation in Pontiac industry will determine success of the drive to obtain 1957 operating funds for 54 UF agencies.

Dulles Surgeons Remove Cancer

Claim Growth All Gone After Long Operation on Intestine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cancer had infected a section of intestine removed from Secretary of State Dulles, it was disclosed yesterday.

A State Department announcement said an examination at the time of the emergency operation Saturday, and X-rays later, indicated the malignancy had not spread beyond the diseased portions.

Dulles' condition was described as "good" in the wake of the 2½-hour operation at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

Doctors said they expect the secretary to spend about six weeks in recuperation, some three weeks of that time in the hospital.

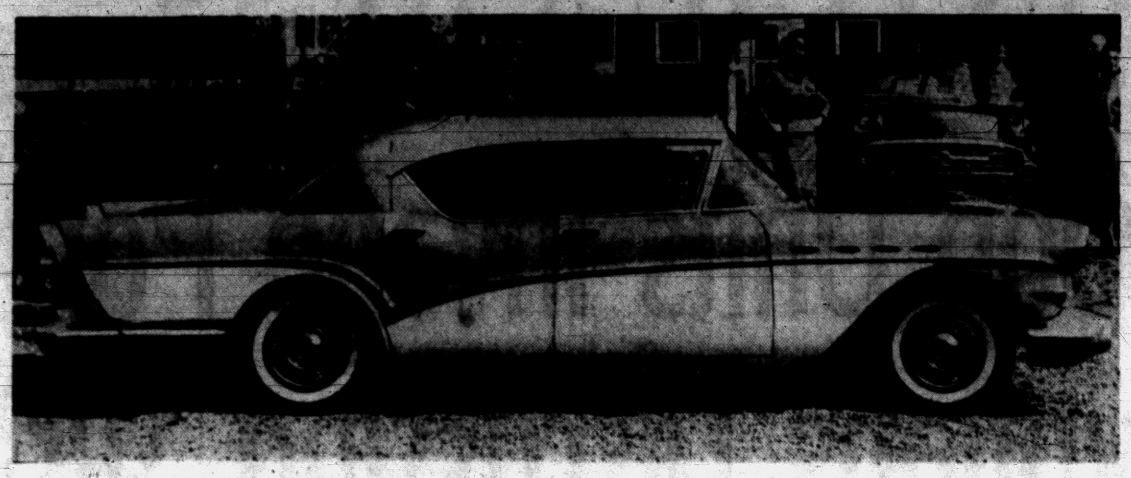

HOOVER IN CHARGE

This means Dulles will be immobilized at a time when the United States is grappling with crises in Eastern Europe and the Middle East. In his absence, the State Department is headed by Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.

Dulles, who is 68, was stricken early Saturday.

He was taken to Walter Reed Hospital where a preliminary diagnosis pointed to acute appendicitis. Later that day, after a team of four doctors had performed the lengthy operation, it was announced a "perforated" portion of Dulles' large intestine had been cut out. The appendix was not affected and not removed.

Not until yesterday — following microscope and other laboratory studies of the tissues — was it announced that cancer had been detected.

'DREAM CAR' — The classic design which sums up Buick Motor Division's description of its 1957 models is exemplified in the low and racy-looking Super four-door hardtop. The car is powered by a 300-horsepower V8 engine. The new models will be shown Friday to the public for the first time at Oliver Motor Sales, 210 Orchard Lake Ave.

Buick on Display Friday Is Longer, Lower for '57

Buick's 1957 cars, with many styling and engineering changes, will go on display Friday.

The entire line features roomier bodies, lower silhouetts, new front and rear end treatment, long-flowing rear fenders and more powerful engines.

Two of three estate wagons are in four-door hardtop styling.

On all four series—Roadmaster, Super, Century and Special—the hood line has been lowered and fender lines raised. Rear fenders are capped by a chrome bezel which houses tail and directional signal lamps and backup lights.

LOWER TOO

Some models have been lowered as much as 3⅜ inches without reducing ground clearance or headroom. The body rests between the frame siderails.

A 300-horsepower V-8 engine with 10 to 1 compression ratio powers the Century, Super and Roadmaster series. In 1956 these models had 255 horsepower. The Special series has a 250-horsepower engine with 9.5 to 1 compression ratio, compared with 220 horsepower in 1956.

The grille has fine vertical bars of die-cast zinc. A red, white and blue medallion, with wings extending from either side is centered in it. The medallion bears the figures 1-9-5-7.

A new optional item is a device that sets off a warning signal when a pre-set speed is reached.

The line comes in 20 body styles with a two- and four-door hardtop and a convertible in each series. Two- and four-door sedans are offered in the Special series only.

Pontiac Deaths

Robert L. Edwards Jr.

Robert Leonard Edwards Jr., aged 16 months, son of Robert and Mary Redman Edwards of 19 Esther St. died Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a brief illness.

Funeral service will be private at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at the William F. Davis Funeral Home, with Elder Fred McCallister officiating. Burial will be at Oak Hill Cemetery.

Garry Lee Ryan

Garry Lee Ryan, son of Virgil and Beverly Harrison Ryan, of 65 E. Howard St., died Friday afternoon at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a premature birth.

In addition to the parents, a sister Deborah Lynn survives.

Service will be at 11:00 a. m. Monday at the Huntoon Funeral Home, with Rev. Thomas Malone of the Emmanuel Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

C. Adiel Sink

Mr. C. Adiel Sink, 69, of 1814 Greenleaf, Royal Oak, died suddenly on Saturday afternoon at his home of a heart ailment.

Mr. Sink was formerly a Pontiac resident, and was associated with the Oakland Motor Co. (now the Pontiac Motor Division.). He then went with the Jervis B. Webb Co. and played an important part in its growth.

He was a member of the Orchard Lake Country Club, the Detroit Engineers' Club, and the Kirk-in-the-Hills Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Sink was the son of Hershel and Elizabeth A. Groat Sink, and was born in Illinois. He married Lillian M. Duckwitz in Mt. Clemens who survives him.

He is survived also by two daughters, Mrs. Webster S. Francis of Pine Lake, Mrs. Delmoore Swartwout of Royal Oak, and a son, Stanley of Romeo, and four grandchildren.

Service will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Farmer-Snover Funeral Home, with the Rev. Harold C. DeWindt of Kirk-in-the-Hills officiating. Burial will be at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers contributions be sent to the Michigan Heart Fund.

Phillip H. Walker

Word has been received of the sudden death of Phillip H. Walker of Baltimore, Maryland, who was formerly associated with the American Foundry and Machine Co. here.

Mr. Walker died on Friday at the Washington, D. C. airport of a heart attack, at the age of 44.

He was last employed by the Martin Aircraft Co. of Baltimore, Md.

He was the son of Phillip G. and Ethel Harting Walker of 431 Mt. Clemens St. and went to school in Pontiac. In addition to his parents he is survived by a son Nicholas in Baltimore, and a brother Chester of Lansing.

Mr. Walker will be at the Huntoon Funeral Home Monday evening. Service will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday with Rev. William Hakes of the First Baptist Church officiating.

The Day in Birmingham

City to Act on Parking and Traffic, Water Rates

BIRMINGHAM — Increase in water rates by almost 25 per cent and in meter installations by 50 percent will be voted on tonight by city commissioners.

Prohibited or restricted parking on certain streets in the city will also be considered at the session.

The proposed rates are suggested by L. R. Gare, director of Public Works, who says, "during the past few years revenues received from installations of water and sewer services have been insufficient to keep up with the cost of installation and maintenance of services."

A study has shown such items as the 20-year guarantee on service installations with no funds to cover the guarantee, the city agreement in 1950 to re-pave sidewalks, and in 1952 to place black dirt and seed on torn-up lawns.

Present meters of five-eighths-inch size cost the city $27.30, but are only charged for at a $20 rate, Gare reports. To allow for price increases, he suggests a $30 meter charge.

The traffic rules, on trial basis previously, are for alteration of the ordinance on traffic.

Parking restrictions would be put on East Maple in early morning and late afternoon on the south side from Hunter Boulevard to Adams Road, in early morning on the south side from Adams to Columbia, and on the north side from Rugby to Columbia in late afternoon.

Other changes include 15-minute parking on Merrill's north side between Pierce and Henrietta, and 30-minute parking on West Maple from west of Chesterfield to 240 feet west of that street.

Two-hour parking limit would be put on Woodward from Oakland to Euclid, and on Henrietta from Merrill to Townsend.

Among prohibited parking areas are North Eton Road from Maple to Yorkshire, and South Eton's east side from Lincoln to 14 Mile, and its west side from Maple to Lincoln.

Four-way stops would be abandoned at Southlawn and Bates, Lincoln and Pleasant, and Lincoln and Torry, with Bates and Lincoln traffic making the stops at those crossings. Derby traffic will stop at Eton instead of the four-way stop there now.

Other considerations will be agreement for ice skating rink maintenance by a Detroit firm, bids for the Ferndale-Park Alley, a garbage and rubbish contract, bids for commission and municipal court room remodeling, and a City of Troy request for water service.

A finance director's report on legal service will be presented.

Henry R. Stephens

Henry R. Stephens, 92, a retired Southfield farmer who has lived all his life in the area, died at his home, 543 Watkins, yesterday.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. George Jackson of Birmingham; two sons, Edward of Howell and Philip of Highland; a brother, Charles of St. Petersburg, Fla.; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Service will be tomorrow at p.m. at Manley Bailey Funeral Home with burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

enters its third week, Willman warns that reports are lagging.

He urged all United Fund campain workers to make solicitation reports as soon as possible. He also re-emphasized that each donor must increase his last year's gift at least 9 per cent to meet the goal. This year nearly 4,500 volunteers are working in the UF campaign.

The Pontiac Area United Fund helps support 54 Pontiac area, state and national agencies. These provide health, welfare, child care, family counsel and direct assistance to the citizens of Pontiac, Waterford Township and Pontiac Township.

Supported by the United Fund are the Boys' Club, the Girl Scouts, St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital Clinic, the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic, the YWCA.

The programs of all these agencies would have to be curtailed if the United Fund fell short of its goal.

Infant Kidnaping Trial Under Way

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP) — The trial of Angelo John Lamarca in the kidnaping and murder of little Peter Weinberger opens today in Nassau County court.

Selection of a jury to try the 31-year-old mechanic is expected to take at least a week. Five hundred prospective jurors have been called.

Lamarca is accused of snatching the 32-day-old baby from his crib outside the home of Morris and Beatrice Weinberger at nearby Westbury last July 4 and then abandoning him to his death the next day.

Lamarca faces death in the electric chair if convicted on either or both counts of an indictment charging kidnaping and first-degree murder.

World Crises Are Kept Hidden

GOP Administration Scored by Kefauver in Final Major Address

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver headed back to Washington today from his long, long campaign trail and as the hours played out he charged the Eisenhower administration "has tried to keep the world's problems out of sight of the American people by sweeping them under the rug."

The Democratic candidate for vice president concentrated on foreign policy in his final major campaign address at the St. Louis Municipal Opera House last night.

The Eisenhower administration, he said, "has never sought and has never been equal to the task of reaching solutions to the basic problems which troubled the world.

"It has sought armistice instead of peace. And everywhere it has done so, the threat of war remains."

Kefauver flies today to Washington, with short stops in Ohio on the way.

From Washington tonight he will participate with his running mate Adlai Stevenson in the Democrats' windup broadcasts.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, appearing at last night's rally with Kefauver, declared the Russian attack on Hungary might have been averted had Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. ambassador to the United Nations, acted with more speed and vigor after the Hungarian rebellion.

"We have delayed and bungled everything that has been done," she said. "I think our leadership has sunk to the very lowest depths that we have ever seen."

Kefauver said the Eisenhower administration failed to arrive at real solutions in Korea, in Indochina and in the Chinese offshore islands. He saw there ought never to have been a Suez crisis.

County Transfers Moore to Jackson

Howard Wayne Moore, convicted sex-slayer of his Lake Orion neighbor's daughter, Martha Little, 3, this morning was transferred from the county jail to the State Prison of Southern Michigan at Jackson to spend the rest of his life.

Moore, 24-year-old former furnace repairman, handcuffed between two other prisoners, joked as he left the cellblock where he has been held since July 27, the night Martha was bludgeoned to death.

"Let's get this show on the road," Moore said, waiting for detectives to lead him to their car. As he left jail, Moore called over his shoulder to the turnkey: "I'll be back; keep my cell ready."

Moore was given the mandatory life sentence Wednesday by Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick. He was conficted of first degree murder by a jury of 10 women and 2 men Oct. 22.

Students Heckle Visiting Russians; Route Changed

DETROIT (INS) — Three Russians visiting the United States to observe the elections changed their schedule yesterday after being heckled by University of Michigan students.

The Russians had planned to visit Philadelphia today, but at the last minute switched their plane tickets for direct passage to New York.

University officials said they did not think the heckling incident caused the change in plans.

Some 50 students trailed the Soviet visitors around the campus Saturday night, carrying placards which read:

"Did you wash the blood off your hands before you came."

"Tell us about the gory elections in Hungary."

Most Class 1 railways in the U.S. have a dual system of pay to equalize salaries between freight crews and passenger trainmen. Freight crew salaries are based on 100 miles or 8 hours; passenger crews on 150 miles or 7½ hours.

Mark Twain Elementary Newest School in Area

Mark Twain Elementary School is the newest building in the Pontiac school system to be dedicated.

The former Linda Vista School was dedicated and named yesterday in a service at the site, 859 Emerson Ave.

Heading the program was Dr. William J. Emerson, county superintendent of schools, who called the new $399,600 structure a "Hallmark of excellence." The salent points of the building, the lighting, decoration and equipment demonstrated the excellence of the program which it housed, Dr. Emerson said, and reflected in turn the excellence of the Pontiac School system.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, Pontiac superintendent of schools, presented and named the building. The name was one of three chosen by students at Linda Vista and discussed with parents and teachers. The new name was chosen by the Board of Education from the three names submitted to them.

PRESIDENT ACCEPTS

Accepting the school for Pontiac was Louis H. Schimmel, president of the Board of Education.

Also participating in the program were William Wright, principal of the new school, C. H. Haberkorn, III, representative of the architectural firm responsible for the design; The Rev. James Deeg of the Oakland Park Methodist Church and Mrs. Arnold Thomas, president of the PTA.

Crash Injures Woman; Faulty Brakes Blamed

Mrs. Mae Bugesby, of 384 N. Perry St., was hospitalized with a back injury last night following a two-car collision in Avon Township.

The vehicles involved were driven by Otis B. Carte, 46, of 12 Downing St., Waterford Township, and Donald R. Funck, 22, of 3441 Auburn Ave., Auburn Heights.

Carte told Oakland County deputies his car was struck from behind after stopping for a red light at Auburn and Squirrel roads. Funck said his brakes did not work in time to avoid the accident.

The soft-textured pines from the far western states are quite different than the yellow pines found in the south which are heavier in weight and generally harder and more pithy.

Nixon Finishes Stumping Tour

Back in Washington to Wind Up Campaign With Special Telecast

WASHINGTON (INS) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon worked closely with White House political aides today and was expected to confer with President Eisenhower on an election eve appeal for a large turnout of voters.

The two Republican standard bearers will appear on a special telecast which will officially end their campaigns at 11 P.M. (EST) tonight.

Nixon's remarks will close the most intensive re-election campain ever waged by a vice president in the nation's history.

His bid for another four years in office was climaxed by a 32,000-mile barnstorming tour that ended early Sunday when he returned to Washington and was greeted by a group of top-level Republicans.

The reception committee at Washington's Union Station included Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams, GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall, and even disarmament adviser Harold E. Stassen, who had fought Nixon's nomination.

THIRD TOUR

The latest tour was one of three campaign swings in which Nixon stumped the nation hammering at the theme that Mr. Eisenhower is a man who can "keep the peace."

After the Middle East tinderbox broke into open warfare and bloody uprisings appeared in Hungary, Nixon switched his appeal to emphasize that President Eisenhower "must be retained in this period of world crisis."

His latest circuit left him jubilant about Republican chances at the polls. He predicted that he and the president would be re-elected by a substantial lead and he saw hope of carrying a Republican congress into office.

The Vice President has already voted. He filled in an absentee ballot in Ohio Saturday after cancelling plans to fly home to California on election day.

AF General ot Meet Radio Hams in Waterford

Air Force Maj. Gen. F. H. Griswold, chief of staff of the Strategic Air Command, will meet with some 20 radio amateurs from this area tonight at the Old Mill Tavern in Waterford.

Griswold is well-known by the "hams" from frequent taks he has had over his radio from many parts of the world.

Who says dream cars never come true?

Dynamite from Detroit

Coming! America's first production dream car—it will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

The old Detroit rule was to introduce new features gradually, to make little changes each year. Sometimes a new grille, an engine improvement, or new colors and trim.

We broke that rule. In fact, we broke all the rules. This is dynamite!

For you are not the only one who has dreamed of a totally modern car, a car that has everything you find at automobile shows, in illustrations, and in custom-built experimental cars.

Detroit has had that dream, too. And that's why the 1957 Mercury is the car that has honestly excited the most car-jaded, the most sophisticated of Detroit's automotive experts.

When you see the new 1957 Mercury, you'll see America's first full-production dream car—a car that will influence the shape of cars for years to come.

You'll see a dream car you can own and drive—a car that has far more than startling years-ahead beauty.

THE BIG M for '57 boasts dream-car features never before found outside a designer's dreambook: a Keyboard Control that makes ordinary push-button driving old-fashioned; an exclusive Floating Ride with a revolutionary new cushioning action you have to feel to believe. There are Mercury "firsts" everywhere you look. A Power-Booster Engine Fan in the Montclair series that saves horsepower other cars waste. And many more Mercury exclusives.

You'll see THE BIG M—the new Mercury for 1957—soon. You'll see it. You'll drive it. The first dream car that can be yours. The dynamite is on its way from Detroit to your dealer's—now!

ACHIEVES GOAL — Adm. Earl Mountbatten, Britain's First Sea Lord, has finally achieved an ambition burning in him since he was 14. He has been appointed Admiral of the Fleet. Back in World War I his father, Prince Louis of Battenberg, was forced out as Admiral of the Fleet through heavy public criticism of his German ancestry. Young Louis Mountbatten (Anglicized Battenberg) vowed he would become the Royal Navy's top man.

Courier Service by Armed Forces

Special Corps Moves Secret Documents for U.S. Government

TOKYO (INS)—The diplomatic courier of cloak-and-dagger fame who carried secret documents in a briefcase from capital to capital has been replaced today by the U. S. Armed Forces courier services.

When Uncle Sam wants to shift secret information from one place to another he calls upon this joint service organization headquartered in Washington and with stations spotted strategically at tions spotted strategically at American bases throughout the world.

The story of the little-publicized organization and its Far Eastern operations was told by Pacific Stars and Stripes, unofficial newspaper for the U. S. Armed Forces.

AFCS transfer stations in the Far East are at Tokyo International airport, Astugi, Tachikawa Chitose, and Ashiya in Japan, and in Seoul, South Korea.

Indicating the tight security measures employed, the newspaper described the Tokyo station as "...a fortress with all its windows covered with half-inch steel bars."

"An enclosure where the men work is separated from the rest of the room by heavy wiring from floor to ceiling."

The secret documents to be transferred back to the U. S. arrive at the Tokyo station in their distinctive green pouches.

After the station staff has compiled a manifest of the documents bagged, they are put aboard the next outbound plane.

AFCS uses both Air Force and Navy aircraft.

One officer aboard the outbound plane is chosen to act as courier officer and is briefed on his responsibilities and on regulations governing classified material.

He also gets a loaded .45, and it is his responsibility to deliver his cargo safely to its destination where, after proper identification, he hands it over to the transfer station officer meeting him.

Lawyers Go to Defense of U. S. Supreme Court

A recent noteworthy event was the action of 100 able lawyers from 31 states who have spoken out in defense of the Nation's highest judicial tribunal, the U. S. Supreme Court.

As every newspaper reader knows, the court in recent months has been under attack from many quarters. Those who should know better have been talking about "usurpation" and the exercise of "naked power" by the court.

Such talk could only result in weakening confidence in the whole process of judicial review, law enforcement and in constitutional government itself. Among other things the lawyers rightly warned:

"No institution of our Government, including the judiciary, stands beyond the reach of criticism. But these attacks have been so reckless in their abuse, so heedless of the value of judicial review and so dangerous in fomenting disrespect for our highest law, they deserve to be repudiated by the legal profession and by every thoughtful citizen."

The lawyers easily disposed of the argument that the states have a right to nullify the court's decision in school segregation cases by "interposition." Back in 1803 Pennsylvania asserted this right because it did not like a Federal Court decree. This brought from Chief Justice John Marshall the pertinent statement:

"If the Legislatures of the several states can, at will, annul the judgments of the courts of the United States and destroy the right acquired under these judgments, the Constitution itself becomes a solemn mockery; and the Nation is deprived of the means of enforcing its laws by the instrumentality of its own tribunals."

These lawyers have done the Nation a great service. They have emphasized that attacking our court can only undermine the whole process of judicial review, respect for the courts and orderly progress under law.

Cash From Garbage

The idea of making something useful out of garbage has long appealed to those concerned with the ever bigger pile of municipal waste, says U.S. Municipal News. Economic and speedy production of a rich, high grade fertilizer from garbage is the aim of experimenters.

The University of California, among others, is doing research into composting of municipal refuse at its sanitary engineering laboratories. MSU's civil engineering department has experimented with such a plant on the grounds of the sewage treatment plant which serves the university and East Lansing.

As a result of experiments the composting process which used to take from six to 12 months, can now be done in a matter of days. Dr. G. H. Earp-Thomas of Bloomfield Laboratories, Hampton, N.J. is generally credited with being the founder of the compost process in this country. He has reported that the complete cycle for turning garbage into humus now requires only 24 to 48 hours.

At McKeesport, Pa., last month 1,500 persons from 100 cities here and abroad attended the opening of a 150 ton per day municipal refuse composting plant. The city will deliver its refuse to this completely enclosed plant.

Inside, after magnets and hand-picking have removed metals, the refuse is ground, inoculated with cultured bacteria and piled for 14 to 21 day composting. Later, screened and bagged, the fertilizer will go on the market at $3.98 per 80 lb. bag retail price.

It thus seems that modern municipal government has taken some further long strides toward its goal of turning garbage, heretofore an expensive liability, into a valuable cash asset. Another nice feature of the composting idea is its promise of returning to the soil valuable organic fertilizer which otherwise would be lost.

Why does an honest man feel like a crook, and probably also look like one, when an emergency forces him to ask for cash on a check where he is not known?

Down on the farm grandpa didn't have air-conditioning, but at night he got bp fairly well by sleeping with his feet sticking out the window.

The Man About Town

The Final Figures

President Is Still Leading; Close Vote on Governor

Election day: The only day in the year when you count for as much as anybody else, regardless of how high their standing.

The final standings in our political poll give Ike the lead he has held from the start, but make it neck-and-neck on Governor. The 45 contacts since the last report were largely made on Pontiac streets, but also include a few farmers, out-county business men, laborers and professional people. Adding these to former standings, the poll adds up on the eve of election as follows:

Eisenhower	389
Stevenson	351
Cobo	368
Williams	370

When Pontiac defeated Saginaw, 21-7, Friday evening, 68 of the 173 survivors in our football contest were eliminated. They were the ones who had predicted that Saginaw would win.

The 105 who had predicted Pontiac would win carried over to the Detroit-Cincinnati game Saturday, 87 picking Detroit and 18 favoring Cincinnati who upset the experts and won, 33-7.

These 18 now are the sole survivors in the contest, and in next Saturday's Texas-Baylor game, 7 pick Texas to win and 11 favor Baylor.

Ike a Sure Thing in Editors' Poll

WASHINGTON—Here is the latest election forecast as derived from a poll of newspaper editors from every state conducted by letter and telegram in the past few days.

1. A landslide of electoral votes for President Eisenhower—about 374 to 157.

2. Reduced margins in many states as compared with 1952, but the possibility of increased margins in a few states, because of strength being shown by Eisenhower in the cities. This pattern is noticeable in all sections of the country, including the South.

3. An increase in Ike margins in the cities because of women's votes and a larger share of votes in labor-union families than four years ago.

67.5 PCT. REPLY

The total of letters and telegrams sent out—to daily newspapers only—was 1,502. From these 1,014 replies were received. This is an over-all percentage of 67.5, but in the so-called doubtful states, like Michigan and Minnesota, more than 85 per cent responded.

The editors were told their names will be kept confidential. Many, although themselves supporting or preferring one candidate, predicted victory for the other candidate.

The editors were asked to answer one question—whether their state was "certain" or "leaning" to Stevenson or Eisenhower. In aligning a state, greater weight has been given here to the number of answers marked "certain." When these were negligible in number, the trend based on the answers marked "leaning" was deemed the determining factor. Here is the table of answers and the electoral vote indicated:

	Stevenson Certain	Leaning	Eisenhower Certain	Leaning	Electoral Vote Adlai	Electoral Vote Ike
Alabama	7				11
Arizona		1	2	3		4
Arkansas	14	1			8
California		3	22	39		32
Colorado			10	3		6
Connecticut			13	1		8
Delaware				1		3
Florida		4	1	16		10
Georgia	14	1			12
Idaho			7	3		4
Illinois		3	14	16		27
Indiana			9	6		13
Iowa			26	10		10
Kansas			16

Michigan			21	22		20
Minnesota	1		5	17		11
Mississippi	10	1			8
Missouri	10	14	2	7	13
Montana			6	5		4
Nebraska			16			6
Nevada			1	3		3
N. Hampshire			5			4
New Jersey			14	3		16
New Mexico		4		7		4
New York			33	11		45
N. Carolina	30	1			14
North Dakota			7	1		4
Ohio			37	12		25
Oregon			9	3		6
Oklahoma	5	14		4	8
Pennsylvania	1	3	26	37		32
Rhode Island				6		4
South Carolina	3	3			8
South Dakota			6			4
Tennessee	6	7		1	11
Texas	6	22	1	41	24
Utah			1	1		4
Vermont			5			3
Virginia	2	6		10	12
Washington			13	13		9
W. Virginia	8	3		3	8
Wisconsin			18	2		12
Wyoming		1	8	2		3
Totals					157	374

It will be noted how few states outside the South and border states contain any "certain" votes for Stevenson. It will be observed also that, even where there appears to be a sharp difference of opinion as between "certain" and "leaning," Eisenhower could lose such states as Pennsylvania, Washington, Minnesota and Michigan—72 votes—and yet be elected, whereas Stevenson is uncertain of Texas and Virginia, which give him 36 votes in the above table.

The editors underestimated Eisenhower's electoral strength in the same kind of poll conducted four years ago, when they gave him 357 and he got 442. They give him 374 this year, but he again may get more than predicted.

LI'L ONES

"I never help mom cook when she's home."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Start to Cure Joint Pains by Eating Good Breakfast

If your joint disability is really arthritis (joint inflammation) the classical signs of inflammation will be more or less obvious. The signs are calor, dolor, rubor, et tumor (heat, pain, redness and swelling). If no such signs are evident, it is an affectation to call your trouble arthritis. Chronic arthritis is a rare disease.

If it isn't arthritis, what would I call it? No, not rheumatism. Rheumatism doesn't mean anything today.

If the disability is of more than a year's standing, it may, of course, be internal derangement, such as loose cartilage, torn ligament or other result of injury, sprain, or strain, and such joint disability requires orthopedic or surgical treatment.

If history and examination enable us to rule out real chronic arthritis and trauma (damage to the joint by injury or strain); and if the trouble has developed insidiously in the course of a year or more; and if the patient is middle-aged or older, we may be almost certain of the nature of the trouble — physical degeneration of joint tissues, a process well-designated as "rheumatiz."

LONGTIME DEFICIENCY

The cause of rheumatiz is, I believe, nutritional deficiency through the years from childhood up to breakfast tomorrow.

I say breakfast tomorrow because I hope you will eat an adequate breakfast tomorrow morning and every morning thereafter, whether your joints are weather-conscious or not.

Doctor Osler's candid statement will bear repetition here. "Chronic rheumatism," he said, meaning, of course, rheumatiz as described here, "comes on insidiously in persons who have passed the middle period of life"—sort of sneaks up on you while you are trying to convince yourself and everybody that you're just as supple as ever, even though you do not choose to roll somersaults to illustrate—"It is most common among the poor, particularly washer-women, day laborers, and those whose occupation exposes them to cold and damp."

AMONG WELL-TO-DO, TOO

Rheumatiz is indeed most common among the poor—the poorly nourished well-to-do who don't know what good nutrition means or who swallow whole whatever the hucksters tell 'em is good "to build red blood, steady nerves, and strong bones."

Now about this adequate breakfast. The meal should provide not only a minimum of 600 calories but also one-third of the daily requirements of vitamins and minerals.

Such a breakfast as you probably need is not outlined in the Basic Health corrective, protective, regeneration or reduction diet, on p. 42 Little Lesson 16, The Seven Keys to Vite.

The breakfast menu as outlined is:

Glass of orange juice	100 calories
Two eggs, cooked as you like	160 calories
Fresh fruit	80 calories
Glass of milk	160 calories

That is a 500-calorie breakfast suitable for an invalid or a person who gets no exercise whatever.

For most clerical, professional, or business workers it should be supplemented with a slice or two of bread or toast, or a serving of oatmeal or cracked wheat cooked as you like, with milk and maybe sweetening (sugar, syrup, molasses, honey, jelly, or artificial sweetener).

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Bathroom Designs Inadequate

Martha offers some smart ideas for architects. You mothers will probably endorse what Martha says for the usual bathroom is not designed to meet the many modern demands placed upon it. It is often the main laundry and library room in the typical American home. If engineers would listen to women, we'd have more convenient homes, automobiles and other types of merchandise!

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case T-313: Martha R., aged 29, is the mother of two youngsters.

"Dr. Crane, I majored in psychology at college," she began, "and I remember that efficiency engineering was included in that field.

"Well, I wish a little more efficiency engineering were used in the design of modern homes:

"That is especially true of the bathroom. We mothers of new babies find that the bathroom is probably the most important part of the house.

"For we bathe the baby therein and also employ it as a temporary laundry room for washing diapers, as well as our own lingerie.

"But architects have ignored, such uses of the bathroom almost entirely. Why don't they raise the bathtub, for instance, so we don't need to break our backs in cleaning it?

MARTHA IS SMART

"Then we'd also have storage space under it for brushes, soap flakes and other necessary items.

"If the bathtub were higher, we wouldn't even need to buy a special tub for the baby, to rest on legs.

"Instead, we could place the baby in the regular tub itself or at least set an enamel tub therein and have the baby at the proper height.

"If the designers refuse to raise the tub, then why don't they place a hinged flat top on the far wall which we could let down. It might have cut-out ovals therein, to which canvas baby tubs were fastened.

"But in any case, we need something else besides the wash basin at the height of our waist so we can do our small washing conveniently or put clothes to soak.

"Even before our first baby was born, my husband used to complain because I would have my hosiery and lingerie hanging on the towel rack to dry. Or they'd be draped from the rod on which the shower curtain hangs.

"So why not have an extendable towel rack at the far end of the tub. We could then pull it out and reveal half a dozen extra rods on which to hang diapers or lingerie."

BATHROOM INNOVATIONS

Martha is very smart in making such helpful suggestions, for it is true that the bathroom has not been designed properly. It fails to meet those needs which she so clearly has outlined.

But there are some other improvements that might also be added. For example, a magazine rack should be attached to the bathroom door or the wall beside the stool, since children nowadays take their comic books to the bathroom with them.

If there is no safe place to store them, the books may land on the floor and get spoiled by water.

So every modern bathroom should have a neat shelf for magazines. Indeed, the bathroom is now the "library" of the typical American home.

And that is quite desirable. Children no longer shun this room, as they generally avoided the chilly outdoor toilets of a generation ago.

As a result, we physicians encounter relatively few cases of constipation among modern youngsters.

The money you thus save on cathartics can now be spent on good comic books, and many of the latter are really topnotch examples of illustrated literature.

Another improvement would be a swivel arm near the stool on which you could attach toys for the baby.

If you can thus swing this arm around in front of the infant, you can give it toys to play with and thus reduce its likelihood of developing auto erotic habits while seated at the stool.

Control of such bad habits is often accomplished by control of the child's environment, for idle hands often get into mischief.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Father Suggests Solution for School Bus Problem

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Recently your paper reported that drivers of local school buses have complained that motorists are not stopping their cars according to law when children are leaving the bus. The various police agencies have promised to be extra alert in such a situation.

As a father of five, I agree that the safety of our school children should be protected. However, I also believe the school or township authorities could go further in promoting safety. I travel Elizabeth Lake road every day and all others who do so realize the heavy traffic on this two lane road.

I suggest that, instead of the school bus stopping on Elizabeth Lake road, they discharge their passengers on one of the many side roads and drive around the block to resume their route. This should avoid any traffic tie-up.

Teenager Wants City 'Drag Strip'

I am writing on behalf of teenagers in this area. I am told that there is a fund for a drag strip just outside of Pontiac. It seems that everyone is talking and complaining of our "careless, reckless, negligent" teenage drivers these days, but they don't seem to be doing anything about it or even care.

Many of us teenagers either own a car or plan to own one in the near future. It seems that everyone in general is interested in the new Post Office, additions to the two hospitals and a new railway yard. Well, why not include a drag strip in this modernization of our city?

I think this also would be a great step towards the future. In my opinion, today's parents hinder the teenager driver more than they help him. And I think this drag strip would be a good way of showing your interest in us teenagers. What's your opinion?

Teenager Interested in the Future

Nagy of Hungary Strives to Hold Some Red Power

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Imre Nagy, a former locksmith apprentice, has promised to unlock the doors to free elections in Hungary.

Under the bloody onrush of revolution he has promised the rebels an early end to Communist one-party rule. Free elections will oust the Reds.

The 60-year-old Nagy has been working hard to get Soviet forces out of Budapest, the battered capital of Hungary. This is an attempt to save some Communist influence in the nation.

WAR VETERAN

Nagy was born in 1896 and served in the Austro-Hungarian army on the Italian front. He was wounded in 1917, and then was sent to the Russian front where he was captured and sent to Siberia.

When the revolution began he joined the Bolshevist forces. He was captured but escaped, and in 1918 became a Soviet citizen.

Nagy returned to Hungary in 1919, joined the trade union movement and occupied a minor past in the Red regime of Bela Kun. That regime was ousted in 1921 by the regency under Adm. Horthy.

Nagy then fled to France but slipped back into Hungary a short time later, only to be nabbed and imprisoned.

The next recorded bit on Nagy is that he went to Russia about 1930 and began studying agriculture and land reform at Moscow University. He remained there during World War II.

When the Red troops conquered Budapest he returned to his homeland and set up shop as minister of agriculture in the provisional government. He took over jobs that led to severe bread and other food shortages.

Nagy in the 1947-53 period became speaker of the Hungarian Parliament, and a member of the Communist Party's Central Committee.

On July 5, 1953, Nagy became premier after the admitted failure of the Russian policy of farm collectives and heavy industry carried out by the gold-toothed Communist boss, Matyas Rakosi.

He was fired from his job Feb. 20, 1955, under a health pretext in the new Hungarian switch back to heavy industry emphasis.

When the Reds dragged him out of retirement, as a "rehabilitated" Red last August, it was too late to stem the revolution.

THE BLONDE DIED DANCING

by KELLEY ROOS

From the Dodd, Mead & Co. novel. Copyright © 1949 by William and Audrey Kelley Roos. © 1956 by Kelley Roos. Distributed by King Features Syndicate.

SYNOPSIS

Connie Barton's suspicions were aroused by her husband's clumsy excuses for his regular Wednesday night absences. She trailed Steve to a private dance studio and then realized he was taking dance lessons as a pleasant surprise for her. Keeping herself unnoticed, Connie watched the door of the studio till Steve left, and went in for a private word with his teacher. She found the instructor, Anita Farrell, sprawled on the floor—shot dead. In the corpse's hand was a paper silhouette of herself. Confused, Conie's first thought was to cover up for Steve. She grabbed the silhouette and the appointment book at the unattended reception desk outside and went home to confront Steve. She had to believe his assertions of his innocence.

Police promptly got the names of all Miss Farrell's pupils and began checking to identify the 7 p.m. waltzer. When Lieut. Bolling asked Steve his lesson time, Steve said 3 o'clock Saturday. From the stolen appointment book Steve took the lesson time of a Ralph Tolley, whom Bolling hasn't contacted—yet.

Using the name of Hester Frost, and with a plan in mind to save Steve, Connie got Miss Farrell's teaching job. While dancing with a pupil, Connie notices a ventilator in the ceiling of Studio K—the murder room—and starts thinking.

Chapter 9

My dance lesson finally came to an end and I was free for the next two hours. Casually I began to scout around the Crescent School of Dancing, exploring its maze of corridors and their cell-like studios.

I found what I was searching for in what seemed to be a conference room. In a corner, beyond a long, polished table and its surrounding chairs, was a door that opened on a shallow closet. Fastened to its back wall was a ladder. I closed the door behind me and started climbing.

From the top of the ladder I crawled onto a narrow catwalk. There wasn't enough room to stand up between the false ceiling that covered the school and the real ceiling above it. On my hands and knees I started forward.

Enough light sifted up through the grills from the rooms below for me to see that I was surrounded by a jungle of wires and cables and pipes. That explained the false ceiling, even to the unscientific likes of me. It had been simpler to install wires and pipes overhead than to encase them in the labyrinth of temporary walls that cut the fourteenth floor of the building into dancing studios.

As I crawled along in search of Studio K I could hear voices in the rooms below me. I heard a male instructor patiently counting out steps for a beginner . . . "Glide, two and three . . . glide, two and three . . ."

In another studio, as I crossed it, a man was explaining that as a young one he had been a pretty snappy stepper, but he didn't know, somehow he had got rusty . . . In another I heard a man say that as soon as the hour was over he was going to take a chance and go down to Rhinebeck Place. A girl didn't seem to think that was wise. I didn't stop to hear who won the argument.

If my calculations were right, and I wasn't lost, Studio K would be the next one.

I was right. Leaning away from the catwalk, my hands on a rafter, I could see down into the room. I saw my purse on the chair by the door. This was Studio K and my theory had been correct.

Up here the murderer had crouched, waiting, watching. The moment that Steve had left he had aimed his gun down through the grill, pulled the trigger and shot Anita Farrell to death. It was as simple as that. He might even have still been here when I entered the room, might have watched me as I came upon the body of the dancing teacher.

This wasn't a pleasant thought. The killer might know by now why I had not reported the murder. He might have figured out that it was I who stole the register, and why . . . because I was Steve Barton 'the Waltzers' wife. He might even have guessed why I had finagled my way onto the faculty here, and that I was looking for him.

He had killed once. If he felt I was getting too close to him, he might not hesitate to do me a certain amount of bodily harm which could prove fatal . . .

I got rid of that idea hastily. There was work for me to do. I had to talk to Steve; I had news for him.

It took only a few minutes to get down off the catwalk. I managed to slide out of the conference room without attracting any attention. After collecting my purse from Studio K and locating a dime, I found that the pair of telephone booths in the corridor were both in use.

I sat down on a sleek curved sofa. I picked up the afternoon paper that lay beside me. The murder of Anita Farrell was still a front page story, but there wasn't much that was new. The Waltzer was still at large, but the police expected an early arrest, etc. No family or relatives of the victim had been located, etc. The Medical Examiner had ascertained that Miss Farrell had been killed by a thirty-two caliber bullet, etc. I put down the paper.

I got up to step into a vacated phone booth. Then I sat down again, picked up the paper again. I read once more what the Medical Examiner had to say.

It had been decided, from the angle by which the bullet had entered Anita Farrell's body, that the killer had been standing nine or ten feet behind her when he pulled the trigger. I put the paper on my lap. My theory of the grill had been demolished.

The killer could not have shot his bullet down through the ceiling. The bullet had not been fired by someone crouching over the grill above Anita Farrell. The angle was wrong for that. She had been shot by someone standing in the studio with her, nine or ten feet behind her. I was right back where I started. Only Steve had been in that studio.

I had no news for him, after all. I had spent a whole precious day for nothing, wasted all these hours. I would go home now, wait for Steve, explain my failure. I sat, staring gloomily at the newspaper on my lap, and my eyes caught the words Rhinebeck Place.

There in black and white the newspaper said that the victim had lived at number 11 Rhinebeck Place. Just a few minutes ago I had heard someone say those words, if not that number. A man's voice, in the room next to Studio K, had said that he was going to take a chance and go down to Rhinebeck Place. A girl's voice had been against it. Thinking back, I realized her tone did not imply that he was going to Rhinebeck Place to have his hat cleaned and blocked.

Unless my memory was cutting up, there could have been nervousness and apprehension in that voice.

I got up. I had to see what teacher was giving what student a lesson in the studio next to mine. But I headed in exactly the opposite direction. An elevator had opened and from it had stepped a man. He was an ordinary, even pleasant looking man in a solid, vigorous vein. The sight of him shouldn't have alarmed me . . . except that I had seen him before. In fact, I knew him.

Steve and I, Lieutenant Detective Bolling and this gentleman had shared a cab southbound from the Polo Grounds one late afternoon. This gentleman was Bolling's Homicide squad side-kick, George Hankins.

He, too, was a conscientious defender of the law and he would surely feel duty-bound to make Steve Barton's wife explain what she was doing teaching at the Crescent School of Dancing.

I didn't dare look over my shoulder to see if the footsteps pounding down the corridor behind me belonged to Hankins. I concentrated on seeming to be a rightful employe of Mr. Bell's, simply going about my daily chores. I stopped at the first door, Studio B, opened it and closed it behind me. The room was sound-proofed; I couldn't tell whether the footsteps, too, had stopped or gone on by.

A voice said, "May I help you?"

Right Answers for Pot-O-Gold Can Bring $500

Now that several weeks have passed without a winner for Pot-O-Gold, the prize money is again climbing into the upper brackets. This week's Puzzle No. 23 is worth $500 if the entries fail to bring a correct solution for last week's puzzle. How about taking a few minutes away from your busy day and enjoying the contest? It's a lot of fun and it may bring in consideration extra cash for that Thanksgiving turkey and trimmings, with money left over for some early Christmas shopping. Care to give it a try?

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.
2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.
3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be accepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 23 must bear a Tuesday, Nov. 13, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time, whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.
4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.
5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.
6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner, no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.
7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.
8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.
9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.
10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

First of GMC's Blue Chip Money-Makers for '57: Pound for pound, it's...

the most powerful truck ever built!

New light-duty models pack 206 h.p.! America's best-looking trucks feature new styling advances—and bow to no passenger car on any point of roadability

HERE, headlining GMC's new 1957 Blue Chip models, our most popular-sized, widely used type of truck becomes a truly phenomenal vehicle.

It has one horsepower for every 15½ pounds of its weight—to make hash of all accepted light-duty standards.

You'll be bossing around engine power usually found only in trucks rated at more than four times this truck's capacity.

You'll be getting flashing response to pedal demand—the high-mileage efficiency of an easygoing, unstraining engine—a capacity for work that won't drop off sharply after the first few months. This beauty retains its eager freshness for years.

And you'll be very definitely in pocket, too. For with its tremendous reserves, this light-duty engine cannot be overtaxed in normal use. So there's little chance of parts failure, no excessive wear, or repair needs due to engine strain.

So if money-making power is what you want, this is it. This is for you. Come see it now!

BLINDFOLDED, you couldn't tell the ride, the comfort and the thrilling zip from that of many cars. GMC's exclusive RSD Suspension* absorbs even tiny shocks—literally floats you along!

TRAVEL IN STYLE! With its boulevard-smart lines, handsome colors and luxurious cab, this GMC is a natural for family use and social needs, too. It's closest to the station wagon in looks and utility.

DREAM-CAR HANDLING! Call this a truck? Not when you take this deep-cup safety wheel, and see how recirculating ball-bearing steering gives you a sports-car feel on turns. Hydra-Matic Drive* does your shifting—and cuts your costs, besides!

Detroit Clerk Predicts Record Voter Turnout

DETROIT (AP)—A record 88 per cent turnout of Detroit's 962,516 registered voters is forecast by City Clerk Thomas D. Leadbetter.

The percentage record was 85.44 per cent—or 844,379 voters—in 1952.

Michigan Indian Mound Believed 1,500 Years Old

EAST LANSING (AP)—New information on Michigan's little-known early Indians may result from discoveries in two Ingham County Indian mounds.

Dr. Rollin Baker, director of the Michigan State University Museum said potery fragments and bones taken from the mound are believed to date back to the middle woodland Indian period—roughly from the time of Christ to 500 A.D.

Little is known about the Indians of that period, Dr. Baker said.

The Ingham County discoveries are believed to belong to the same era as that of the skeleton of an Indian unearthed this week in Montcalm County.

MOUND PERIOD

Archeologists said the Montcalm County discovery also was believed to date back to the mound period.

Fragments of two skeletons, some straight-rimmed pottery and the tooth of a bear, believed to have been worn as an ornament, were found in the Ingham County mounds.

The bone fragments indicate a "bundle burial"—one made some time after the Indian died. Indians of that period were sometimes placed on scaffolds with their belongings during the winter months and then buried in the spring when the ground became workable.

The mounds were discovered by a group of East Lansing Girl Scouts. Their exact location is being kept secret until archeologists complete their investigation to prevent relic-hunters from carrying off valuable finds.

Work has just started on excavation of the mounds and archeologists are hopeful that further discoveries will be made.

Blames Milk Shortage for Closing Cannery

HUDSON (AP)—The Pet Milk Co. plans to close its Hudson condensed milk and ice cream mix plant permanently Nov. 30.

Howard Schad, plant manager, said a milk shortage is to blame.

The Hudson plant, which opened in 1908, employes 75, plus an extra 25 in summer months. Schad said Pet plans to transfer only five employes, all in a managerial capacity.

Oratory Fades, Figures Tell Final Election Story

NEW YORK (AP) — The political oratory fades out today. The bombast, promises and words now give way to hard figures—figures that can fool even some experts but figures that never lie.

As the campaign ends, the people across the nation will mark an "X" on a paper ballot or flick the levers of a voting machine.

Out of this gigantic mass of figures comes the answers to the big questions:

"Who is the next president; who won the Senate and House seats? Which party controls Congress? The governors? The state officers? Who's the new county sheriff?"

It is a staggering job of vote counting but it is taken in stride by the smoothest system yet devised. It is done by The Associated Press Election Service — a triumph of the world's most successful cooperative effort.

How is it done? Planning. Years of experience.

Take a state: It is usually split into several zones. The county correspondent reports to one strategic center. This center puts it on the big state collection wire and it goes into the hopper.

Long before Election Day, The Associated Press had made arrangements for getting returns from 150,000 polling places throughout the nation.

This year the AP has assembled a force of 65,000 persons to handle this task with its traditional accuracy and speed.

The years have been filled with instances in which close races have tested AP men's courage and endurance to the end.

An outstanding example occurred in New Jersey in 1954. This was the U.S. Senate race between Clifford P. Case and Charles Howell.

Howell, a Democrat, had been widely forecast as the winner. As returns began pouring in he took a long lead. Ahead 92,000 votes shortly before midnight, he claimed victory.

Some newspapers and news agencies declared him the victor. The AP refused to do so. Analyzing the returns, the AP staff found most had come from areas Howell had been expected to carry and the bulk of the Republican vote for Case still was unreported.

Shortly, Case began to cut down Howell's lead. Through the predawn hours, the AP checked and rechecked its figures. Finally, only a few hundred votes separated the candidates as more returns arrived.

Eventually, after all official returns were in and recounts made in some areas, Case won by 3,370 ballots out of more than 1,200,000.

Gathering the state-by-state returns is only a part of the job.

Just as important is the task of distributing them over 400,000 miles of AP leased wires to some 6,700 newspapers and radio and television stations at home and abroad.

While the immense undertaking requires mental and physical fortitude — men sometimes work 72 hours at a stretch—there too, is human drama, adventure and humor.

During the presidential election of 1952, Iowa's tally couldn't be officially completed because a tornado struck a rural schoolhouse polling place and blew away the ballots being counted.

An election correspondent at Stilwell, Okla., was a bit slow reporting returns in a primary last July 3, the reason was that he had to drop everything to cover a shooting—the incumbent sheriff and his victorious opponent killed each other in a gun fight.

Results from the northeast section of California's San Bernardino county come in by mail—from Nevada. The county is near Nevada, and its mail goes to Las Vegas, for relay back to California.

AP tabulators in Missouri thought it exceedingly strange when a congressional candidate got no votes at all in one county. They called county election officials. The officials then discovered to their chagrin they'd forgotten to put the candidate's name on the ballot.

AP men will never forget 1916's all-time classic example of how it pays to wait and be sure who wins close contests.

Woodrow Wilson and Charles Evans Hughes were the presidential contestants.

The eastern section of the country reported fairly quickly and gave Hughes a healthy margin.

So impressive was his showing, some papers and news services quickly declared him the winner. As more reports came through from the West, however, the picture began to change.

Through Tuesday night, Wednesday and Thursday the tension mounted and the AP, refusing to be swayed, kept feverishly at the job of assessing the returns.

At last, near midnight Thursday, AP's compilation showed that final California figures had decided the outcome in Wilson's favor.

A weary AP editor called Hughes' suite at New York's Hotel Astor to relay the news.

There a Hughes aide started to shut off the caller by saying "the president-elect has retired for the night and cannot be disturbed."

The editor had the last word.

"Well," he said, "when the president-elect wakes up in the morning, tell him he isn't president-elect any more."

Stevenson Rests on Vigorous Campaign

Eisenhower Confident on Election Eve

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson rests his hopes for the presidency in tomorrow's voting on the effectiveness of campaign efforts to depict President Eisenhower as a likable but inept and bungling president.

Eisenhower appeared outwardly supremely confident that the verdict at the polls would favor him as a leader for peace and a promoter of prosperity.

Except for election eve get-out-the-vote appeals tonight by both candidates, the 1956 campaign is history written in millions of spoken words, millions of dollars spent and thousands of miles traveled. Some estimates put the campaign cost at about 25 million dollars.

Stevenson started his campaign late in August with a cross-country effort to rally and solidify the Democrats and ended it in a slashing fusillade of criticism directed at Eisenhower's foreign policies.

For Eisenhower, the campaign beginning was a sedate one, in which he planned to defend his record in half a dozen telecasts with "whistle - stopping' and "barnstorming" definitely barred. His and the Republican theme was one of "Peace, prosperity and progress."

But as Stevenson's assaults grew more intense and reports piled up that Republican candidates for the Senate and House were not arousing expected support, the President stepped up his own efforts.

The White House bubble-top car was transported to the Iowa corn fields and other strategic areas. The figure of Eisenhower, standing with his head and shoulders above the car's roof, his arms aloft, became a familiar one.

Everywhere he went Eisenhower brought smiles to the crowds lining the roads and streets. At times, as in Des Moines, he was almost mobbed by well wishers. His meetings were packed, his listeners nearly always responsive.

Stevenson tasted some of the same sort of adulation. But his champ's advance work sometimes was faulty. At times his caravan moved through almost empty streets. However, crowds generally filled the halls in which he appeared and seemed about as enthusiastic as those Eisenhower drew.

Television which was to have been the great medium to reach the mass of voters, seemed to have proved something less than expected in that respect, although each party spent about two million dollars on major and minor TV productions.

Before he concluded his campaigning in Philadelphia last Thursday night, Eisenhower had traveled 13,614 miles, mostly by air, to visit 13 pivotal states. They included Pennsylvania, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Minnesota, Colorado, New York, Florida, and Virginia.

Stevenson, as the challenger, was far busier. He rolled up 37,619 campaign miles in 32 states. He paid no campaign visits, however, to Delaware, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas.

Stevenson's primary campaign objective was to win back to the Democratic fold party members who had strayed away in 1952 when Eisenhower carried all but nine states and rolled up 442 of the 531 electoral votes.

To coax the Democrats back home, Stevenson spent the early part of the campaign stressing domestic issues such as aid to small business and depressed areas, health protection, old age benefits, farm relief, school aid and others.

He proposed steps toward ending hydrogen bomb tests and eventual abandonment of the military draft.

He ridiculed the Eisenhower administration's intimation that it was responsible for peace in Korea and Indochina. He called attention to the Middle Eastern situation and contended that relations with American allies had been weakened.

Eisenhower summed up his replies in his final speech. He was voices," the President said. He said Stevenson's stand on H-bomb tests and the draft offered only a "design for disaster."

He referred repeatedly to what he said were the accomplishments of his administration. He mentioned high employment, rising wage scales, a balanced budget and, until the final 10 days, the absence of fighting in the world.

In his campaign the Democratic nominee avoided direct reference to Eisenhower's health. But he pointed up the issue with frequent references to Eisenhower as a "part-time president" and with persistent efforts to depict Vice President Nixon as the future — if not the present — leader of the Republican party.

Throughout the campaign Eisenhower displayed his outward good health for all to see. Despite his heart attack over a year ago and his subsequent ileitis operation, the President showed no marked signs of fatigue or any of illness.

Always he seemed confident of the verdict the voters will give at the polls tomorrow.

Heroic Freedom-Fighters Flee to Austria as Iron Curtain Closes on Hungary

By PETER HOFFER

VIENNA (AP)—Austria's 150-mile-long border with Hungary is alive with refugees.

The heroic, heartbroken freedom fighters and their loved ones, fleeing the renewed Communist-Soviet oppression of their homeland, crossed into this country and to freedom by the thousands.

They were very welcome here—all of them.

Standing at the border point at Schattendorf, Burgenland (about 35 miles southeast of Vienna), I waited last night with three Austrian border police for darkness to fall.

Suddenly, out of a drizzle which sometimes turned to snow, the tragic stream of humanity came stumbling into our midst.

"Austria?" the fugitives panted when the police shone electric torches into their drawn, terror-stricken faces.

"Ja, ja, sie sind in Oesterreich (You are in Austria), answered the gray-clad police again and again.

Men, women and children wept with emotion. Some knelt to kiss the wet earth. Some hugged and embraced the police, who gently motioned them on to waiting buses in the background.

* * *

Throughout Sunday at numerous border villages the swelling tide flowed into Austria. It quickened as the news spread that the Soviets were moving in from east, north and south to cut off the fleeing masses — the people whose heroic fight against the terror of Red rule inspired the entire free world, but whose burning, sunken eyes and parched lips now were accusing this same free world of having deserted them in the hour of most desperate need.

WHERE IS AID?

"Where is NATO? Where are the Americans? The British? The French? We listened to your radios. We believed in freedom. There is no time now for conferences and discussion. Give us arms. Send the bombers. Crush the Soviet terror which is about to end our hard-won liberty."

During the afternoon nearly all the frontier, which had been in the hands of the freedom fighters for nearly a week, was reoccupied partly by Soviet tanks and troops and partly by companies of "freedom fighters" acting on "higher orders."

I watched the "Iron Curtain" fall again at Schattendorf at about 2 p.m.

A truck with about 30 Hungarian soldiers in their Soviet-type uniforms, but wearing the red-white-green armbands of freedom fighters, drove up. They immediatelt halted the struggling line of refugees, sending those back who had not yet reached the red-white-red Austrian flags of freedom.

Many families were torn apart. Some people had gone ahead and waited desperately for their loved ones to catch up. Many waited in vain.

The Austrian police predicted that night and darkness would bring on a new stream. It did.

SEEK ASYLUM

At Schattendorf several hundred persons, carrying their most precious belongings, were granted asylum before midnight. They said the Hungarian soldiers let them cross over into Austria as soon as dusk fell.

Many hundreds of freedom fighters and border guards were themselves among the refugees. Wearing uniforms and carrying their guns, they came on, frequently with their families and dependents, and went to one of about a dozen refugee centers set up further inland by the Austrian authorities and the International Red Cross.

Thousands of hospitable Austrians, glad to lend a hand in aiding the heroic Hungarians, turned up with cars and taxis to take fugitives.

At Klingenbach, a major crossing point north of Schattendorf, I witnessed almost indescribable scenes of tragedy, fear and hope as several thousand Hungarians poured over the open border. Even the hardened Austrian border police were moved to tears.

There was no loud lamenting or were there nervous cries of distress. The people walked upright, silent or with tears streaming down their faces.

There were weatherbeaten, hard-working Hungarian farmers driving their horse-drawn carts piled high with household goods, their wives in colored scarves and children with wide eyes.

There were university professors, bearing suitcases filled with books and papers on scientific research, more valuable to them than anything else in the world. There were farmhands with nothing but the clothes on their back.

Politicians came and factory workers. Engineers and priests. It was a concourse of the hopeless, the desperate, the afraid and the courageous.

Chile hopes to boost its merchant marine tonnage by 40 per cent within six years.

A STAMP ZOO—1
The Lion

If you like to visit the zoo, or to collect stamps, you will enjoy this week's stamp zoo. The pictures show animals that live in the countries indicated. While they are not copies of actual postage stamps, they will help you look for zoo animals in your own stamp collection or at stamp exhibits.

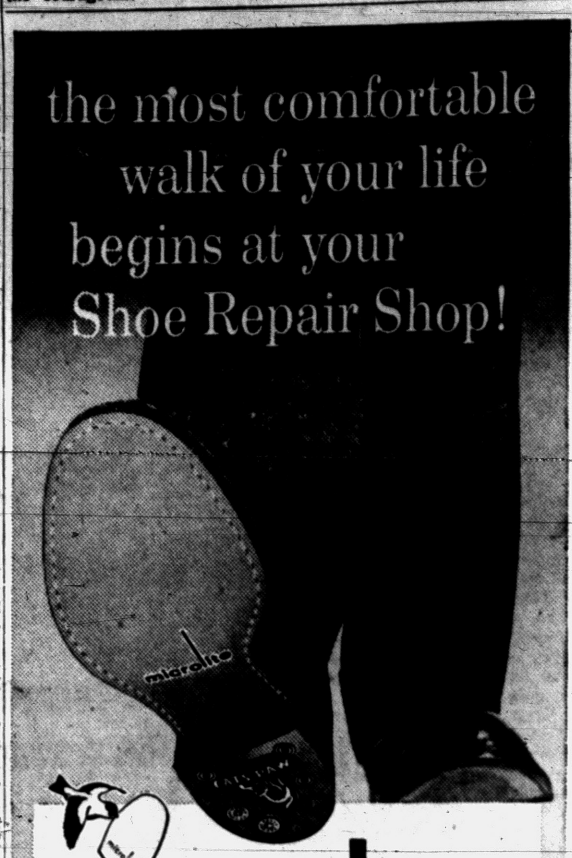

The lion appears on a number of stamps. This one is from Kenya, in British West Africa, where a black and orange lion stamp was issued in 1954.

An African lion is tawny yellow, with a dark brown, almost black, mane and tailtip. Color this one with your crayons, and make the border orange.

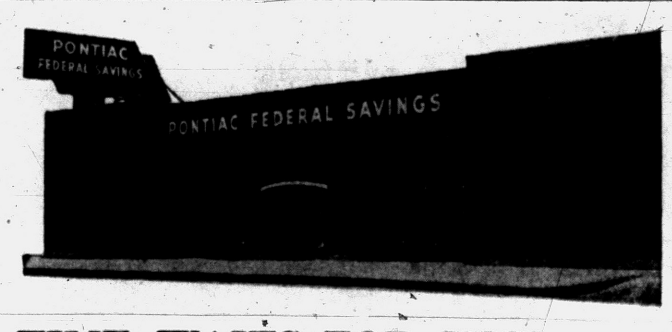

Paste the picture down on cardboard, and cut away all the background pieces as shown in the small diagram. Fold the lower center panel forward at the dotted lines, letting the piece directly below the lion's stomach lie flat as an extra support. Fold the small tabs under. Then the lion will stand in his stamp border frame.

(Dallas Hilden, Jackson, Mich., wins $10 for suggesting this first. If you have an idea send it in care of this newspaper. Violet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

America Needs Adlai E. Stevenson in the White House

In the four years since the Democratic party relinquished the reins of government America has fallen from its high estate. In an event as shocking as the one which stunned humanity only last week, we were not even consulted by our two staunchest allies.

The bulwarks against the forces that would destroy us—that the Democratic Party reared with such care, in the friendship we shared, and the confidence we enjoyed with these free peoples of Europe—are gone.

This is a tragedy. A fumbling and uninformed foreign policy, at best—or a calculated concealment of the truth—are responsible. "All is well in the Middle East, and there is good news from Suez," was the word from the White House, just two weeks ago. The jets that thunder over Egypt bear witness to the fallacy of that communique.

Here, in America, Special Privilege, from the Dixon-Yates affair to a taxation scheme that favors wealth at the expense of the average American, are proof of what Republicanism has accomplished. From cities where underpaid teachers struggle, within the crumbling walls of fire-trap schools to teach pupils jam-packed into rooms too small to hold them, to communities where there are no schools at all—from McCarthy to Nixon, the party in office has written a record that deserves a closing chapter.

The American who pays for what he does not get, with tax dollars wrung from the sweat of his brow—who seeks nothing but what he can earn by his labor or his enterprise—needs representation.

America, stripped of its stature as the most liberal, the most powerful, the most peaceful of all lands, can win back what it has lost—with an enlightened, informed Democratic Administration.

Put Adlai Stevenson in the White House.

Port Said Invaded, Cease-Fire Ordered

ous by the hour. Last week the Egyptians lost their vast Sinai Peninsula, east of the canal, to invading Israeli forces.

The announced purpose of the British-French invasion is to safeguard the canal—now closed to shipping—and to separate the belligerents in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting.

The British say they are willing to turn over control of the canal area to U. N. forces, once the situation is stabilized.

The parachute troops landed in the canal zone only 4 months and 22 days after the British surrendered to Egypt the military bases they long had occupied there. In the meantime, on July 26, Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal.

The invasion came shortly after the U.N. General Assembly, seeking to restore peace in both Hungary and the Middle East, ordered an international police command set up to establish and supervise a cease-fire in Egypt.

The British and French governments had gone ahead with their long-heralded invasion, but said they would welcome the U.N. police force as a shield between warring Egypt and Israel as soon as the two Middle East governments accepted U. N. proposals for peace, and there was a settlement of the Suez question.

The French and British parachutists started landing just after dawn, apparently to seize a bridgehead for land forces at sea on a large armada sailing from Cyprus.

The commnd at Cyprus said the operations went according to plan, with the troops landing on time and at the right places. Some resistance from mortar and machinegun fire was met.

The first Egyptian announcements claimed the first wave of 3,000 paratroopers was annihilated by soldier, police and civilian fighters and that a second wave was being wiped out.

This was subject to question since last week Egypt had announced it was annihilating Israeli forces in Sinai. Damascus radio quoted the Egyptian army as saying a third wave landed after 15 British and French aircraft were shot down.

Then Eden made his dramatic announcement of the Egyptian negotiations to surrender.

French and British ground forces embarked in an invasion armada at Cyprus yesterday, but there was no hint when they would begin landing. The invasion fleet included warships, transports and support ships.

Egypt's military command, in its first announcement on the invasion, said "our troops dominate completely the situation." The Egyptians said the troops came hurtling out of the skies at 7:30 a.m. at Port Fouad, Gamil Airport and Baz Gabbanah, all near Port Said at the northern entrance to the canal.

Seven planes were knocked into the sea when they tried to drop military supplies, the Egyptian communique claimed. But at Cyprus the British-French command said the fleet of transport planes dropped its loads of fighting men on time and on the mark and all returned safely, though some were slightly damaged by groundfire.

U.N. to Send Police to End Mideast War

States is ready to "help in an important way" with airlifts, shipping, transport and supplies.

The resolution appointed as chief of the new command Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, 59. He will be relieved from his post of chief of staff of the U. N. truce supervision organization in Palestine.

The U. N. command is the second ever established. The first fought the North Korean and Chinese Communists in the Korean War. It was controlled by the United States.

The cease-fire resolution that the U. N. force is to carry out urges cessation of hostilities and of the forward movement of arms and forces, withdrawal of forces behind the Egypt-Israel armistice lines and a ban on introduction of war goods into the "area of hostilities."

Meanwhile, deep pessimism engulfed the United Nations today over the virtual impossibility of enforcing a resolution, overwhelmingly adopted by the General Assembly, demanding withdrawal of Russian troops from suffering Hungary.

Delegates cited two hard facts:

1. The anti-Communist rebellion, after a brief hour of victory, appeared to have been destroyed by Russian steel, leaving the Kremlin and a clique of Budapest puppets in full control of the country.

2. Soviet Chief Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev virtually served notice in advance that a U. N. vote for an investigation in Hungary, much less for free elections, would be summarily rejected.

The prevailing view was that the Russian grip would not be loosened by words.

The United States proposed the resolution in last night's emergency session of the Assembly. It contained eight sections. The main ones called on the Russians to end their armed attacks on the Hungarians, to withdraw their forces and to permit U. N. observers to enter Hungary and make an investigation.

The resolution was approved 50-8 with 15 abstentions.

The only negative votes were cast by the Soviet bloc.

Drop Everything, Ike—Bet This Call Is Urgent

WASHINGTON (INS) — While President Eisenhower was discussing with top state department officials the mounting crises in Hungary and the Middle East, the White House received a call from an agitated citizen.

One of White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty's assistants took the call and the conversation went as follows:

Citizen: "What day did the President set Thanksgiving on?"

Secretary: "The fourth Thursday in November."

Citizen: "Thanks a lot. I just won a bet with my mother-in-law."

Siren Wailed; Also Kids

CLEARFIELD, Utah (AP) — There will be no more wailing sirens to signify the 10 p.m. curfew for juveniles in this northern Utah community. Mothers complained that the shrill siren awakened the children who were already asleep. The City Council ordered use of the siren discontinued. The curfew remains; but the teenagers will have to go by their own watches hereafter.

Two Persons Killed in Auto Accidents up traffic for over an hour, but only one was hospitalized.

Mrs. Mitchell suffered skull and neck fractures which proved fatal when the car she was riding in was struck from behind forcing it off the road and into a tree 40 feet away. Her husband was driving the car.

John A. Killen, 24, of 986 Durant St., driver of the other vehicle, is being held for investigation of manslaughter.

The accident occurred in the afternoon on M15 near Oakhill road in Brandon Township. Killen told investigators he did not see the Mitchell car before ramming into it. Mitchell said he did not know what happened.

Doty, a cousin of Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank Doty, was killed instantly Saturday night when he was struck by a car at the intersection of Jackson Boulevard and Ormond Road, one-half block from his home.

He reportedly was crossing the street on his way home when hit by the car operated by Marion Pickering, 19, of 3930 White Lake Rd., White Lake Township.

State police blamed poor visibility due to a heavy fog for the accident. Doty, a lifelong county resident and a native of Highland Township, walked into the right front side of the car, police said.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

James D. Durden, 26, of 21429 Garden Lane, Ferndale, is in "fair" condition at Beaumont Hospital with a fractured leg and arm and multiple cuts received in the Telegraph pileup Sunday at the intersection of Quarton road in Bloomfield Township.

Five others had cuts and bruises in the two-car collision which blocked traffic between 15 Mile and 17 Mile roads.

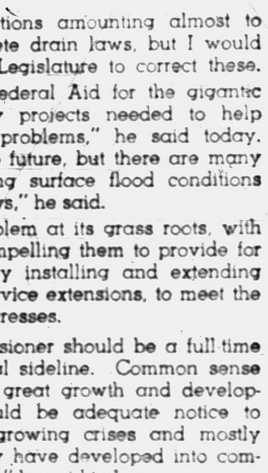

Arabian-American Oil Pipeline Still Operating

NEW YORK (AP) — A spokesman for the Arabian-American Oil Co. said yesterday its big pipeline from Saudi Arabia to Lebanon was still operating normally.

He said information received yesterday contradicted an earlier report that the line had been blown up in Syria.

Wallace E. (BUD) RICE
URGES COMMON SENSE In DRAIN OFFICE
Flood Waters Are Non-Partisan

WALLACE E. RICE

A citizen of the City of Troy, a graduate of Royal Oak High School and a member of Royal Oak Elks Club, 47 years old Wallace E. (Bud) Rice is not only a neighbor and friend of the people of this area; but has lived in Oakland County all his life. He is the democratic candidate for Oakland County Drain Commissioner at next Tuesday's election.

A practical, experienced, down-to-earth man with wide experience in drainage, excavating and contractor in drainage work for the past 12 years. Mr. Rice has had many years experience in his own business of General Contractor for drainage work, and had 19 years experience with Detroit Edison Company before establishing his own business.

He realizes that the greatest needs in most of the county where heavy populations have sprung up is surface drainage and sanitary sewer facilities with adequate disposal services. He has learned this well by having worked for many municipalities in connection with city engineers and city managers of the county.

"There are certain limitations amounting almost to obstructions, in our obsolete drain laws, but I would push reform in the State Legislature to correct these.

"I would push also for Federal Aid for the gigantic inter-city and inter-county projects needed to help solve Oakland County's problems," he said today. "These reforms look to the future, but there are many practical ways of relieving surface flood conditions without waiting for new laws," he said.

"I would tackle the problem at its grass roots, with real estate developers, compelling them to provide for drain control, progressively installing and extending drains, similar to water service extensions, to meet the needs as development progresses.

"The job of Drain Commissioner should be a full time working job, not a political sideline. Common sense and an awareness of the great growth and development of this county should be adequate notice to visualize and anticipate growing crises and mostly eliminate them before they have developed into community disaster proportions," he said today.

"If you want a drain commissioner who will make this type of approach to your important drain problems, then I would appreciate your vote at next Tuesday's election," he concluded.

Bob Considine Says:

Life's Not So Nifty When You Hit Fifty

NEW YORK (INS) — Friend of bar, wore such a long expression mine, encountered at a wheat germ. (his name by a curious coincidence is Eddie Long) that I cracked the natural reserve we have learned through years at a sedate philatelic club named for Toots Shore and said, "What's with it, Mac?"

Eddie took a thoughtful drag on his crushed soy curd and said: "I'm 50 years old today."

Being scarcely 49, I looked at the poor old bum and wondered how I'd look when I, too, swept into the home stretch. My thoughts were interrupted by his morose woe.

"I saw an old guy today who asked me the same question," my friend mourned. "He said, 'How old are you?' I told him. He looked at me for a good minute, from head to foot, and then he said, 'Boy, you're more than half done.'"

DOESN'T WORK OUT

"A man's as old as he feels . . ." I began cheerfully.

"I haven't found that to be true, since I was 50 earlier today," Eddie said. "A man who has become 50 is exactly as old as people say he is, and most of the people he seems to encounter are younger, like beardless youths of 48 and 49 and girls he went to school with who are now, somehow, still 39.

"A man who has become 50," he continued, "can be 25 if somebody tells him he looks that age. It no longer matters that he knows from personal experience that the bum is an incorrigible liar. If the bum says 'Boy, you look 25,' you're 25.

"At least you believe him until you try to do something like a 25-year-old fellow does, you know, like look up a number in the phone book without your cheaters. Or play 36 holes. Or five sets. Or stay up until 4 a.m. with the boys and then have to get up at 7:30 a.m. to face the old man at the office.

"By the same tokens," he said, fingering his bus coins, "if some bum looks you over and says, 'Holy cow, what've you been doing to yourself—you look 75,' by gosh you suddenly feel 75, even though you've been feeling 25 or even 50 right up to that moment.

"That's the trouble with being 50," Eddie said, "You're nowhere. The babes you figured were stuck on you, when you were a distinguished young 48, now look at you and you're sure that in their eyes they're saying, 'This old muttonhead could be my father, so why am I wearing this off-the-shoulder job tonight, with him, when I could have saved it for tomorrow night when I have a date with an SAE pledge.'

"Fifty's worse than turning 40, and I thought that was bad," this quagmired quinquagenarian quipped, fanning himself with a ticket he has on Qantas. "At 40 people were still reading that thing called 'Life Begins at 40' and believing it. Whoever wrote anything about being 50?"

MENCKEN SAID IT

Pulling out my vest pocket edition of Mencken's "Dictionary of Quotations" I said, "You're wrong. Charles Cotton in 1670 wrote:

" 'He who at 50 is a fool is far too stubborn grown for school.'

"Then there was Napoleon, writing April 7, 1817, to Gaspard Gourgaud from St. Helena: 'At 50 one can no longer love.' But think of the dough you'll save on aspirin. Ralph Waldo Emerson in Society and Solitude, wrote in 1870:

" 'At 50 years, 'tis said, afflicted citizens lose their sick headaches.' "

"To h-ll with Ralph Waldo Emerson," the poor soul cried irreverently. "What I'm saying is from now on I have a feeling the babes will want to talk about the Suez situation instead . . ."

"Ed Howe said it before you, sorry," I said, rifling the pages of the dictionary. "In 1911 he wrote, 'After a man is 50 you can fool him by saying he is smart, but you can't fool him by saying he is pretty.' "

My friend was quiet for a long time. Then he sighed and there was a bare suggestion of a smile as he straightened up, paid his bill, and said, "I guess 50 has happened to some other people, too. It's just that I never thought it could happen to me."

Open Letter to Citizens of Pontiac

from

LESLIE H. HUDSON

Pontiac's Own State Legislator

Democrat

Dear Voters of Pontiac:

Tomorrow is Election day, and in the interest of our country, I urge you to be sure to vote regardless of your party affiliation and whether or not your vote will be cast for my candidacy.

Two years ago, you sent me to Lansing as your Representative in the State Legislature. I am sure that you are proud of my accomplishments in your behalf.

The home owner, the working man, the schools, the business men, veterans and our city itself have all benefitted from liberal, fairminded, independent and decisive action on my part which has brought recognition to Pontiac, throughout the state.

My efforts have been directed towards legislation for:

1. Relief for the Unemployment Situation.
2. Highway Safety.
3. Mental Health and Especially Our Retarded Children.
4. Civil Rights.
5. Relief for Our Overly Crowded Prison.
6. Creation of an Automation Commission.
7. Legislation to Improve our SCHOOL Conditions.
8. Sponsored Legislation to Provide for Oakland County's Fourth Circuit Judge.

I have enjoyed my work and would appreciate the opportunity of finishing the job.

I feel that my election is to our mutual advantage and I earnestly solicit your vote regardless of your affiliation.

Sincerely Yours,

Leslie H. Hudson

Plan Zonta Card Festival

Card tallies are being readied for the Zonta Card Festival by (left to right) Laura Hunter, Mrs. Grace. Olsen and Mrs. Nat Morrison. Members of Zonta Club, they are preparing for the Nov. 16 party. Miss Hunter is arranging club prizes for the event, and Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Morrison are members of the door prize committee.

Looking at tickets for their Zonta Card Festival are Zonta members (left to right) Elsie Benson, Mrs. Gordon Wyrick and Mrs. John Kinzler. Miss Benson is working on the refreshment committee for the card party, to be held Nov. 16 at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building. Mrs. Wyrick is chairman of tickets and Mrs. Kinzler is arranging tables for the occasion.

Busy Estes Won't Pose for Portrait

Photos of Senator Used as Models by Nancy Kefauver

BY JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Nancy Kefauver, a talented artist, has at last done one of her husband. Reluctantly, she painted the Democratic vice presidential nominee from photographs, not from life as she has long wanted to do.

"He never sits still long enough," the attractive red-haired Nancy told me at a pre-election TV listening party at her Spring Valley home.

"A friend in New York wanted one right away for his office, so I worked it out from a composite drawing I made from several photographs."

A portrait Nancy did of their 10-year-old son, David, dominates the study.

A painting of daughter Linda and her dolls in 1949 won top honors at a local exhibit. It hangs over the mantel in the living room.

"I haven't had time for portraits lately," Nancy told friends and neighbors gathered for the party.

The four children, David, Linda, Diane and Gail and their varied interests have kept her busy.

Because of them she decided against accompanying her husband on his campaigns this year, as she did in 1952.

In addition, Nancy is continuing to teach art three days and one evening a week. The children often go with her to the rented studio on Saturdays.

"They dabble, too," she said, "and they all seem to be fairly artistic."

ART STUDENT

The senator's wife, a graduate of the Glasgow (Scotland) School of Art, studied in London, Paris and the Corcoran Gallery here.

She mixed the paint and took charge of the decorating of the home they moved into a year ago. The result reflects the family personality, but Nancy's most of all.

The pale avocado green of the living room, the deeper shades in dining room, hall and den, the muted green of the wall-to-wall carpeting offer a fitting background to the hostess' vivid coloring.

"I guess we all chose colorings that are good for us," Nancy explained, "but I'm afraid my family's all worn out with greens."

Throughout the house are many interesting mementos of her husband's travels.

Centering some flowers on the ancient oval oaken dining table, where Nancy said she used to study as a child, were four graceful herons, carved from elephant tusks. The senator brought them from India last year.

Mary Kelly (left) of Zonta Club is chairman of the annual Zonta Card Festival scheduled for Nov. 16 at 8 p.m. at Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building. She is pictured with Marian Emery who is handling cards and tallies for the occasion.

Dailey-Dempsey Nuptials Solemnized

Janice Ann Dempsey and Thomas Edwin Dailey were married Saturday. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dempsey of Battle Creek and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Dailey of West Shore drive, Orchard Lake.

MRS. THOMAS EDWIN DAILEY

Given in marriage by her father, Janice Ann Dempsey became the bride of Thomas Edwin Dailey at a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday in First Congregational Church Chapel, Battle Creek.

Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dempsey of Battle Creek. Thomas' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Dailey of West Shore drive, Orchard Lake.

For the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of Italian silk embroidered with Alencon lace and accented with iridescent sequins. The gathered skirt extended into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a hand embroidered pearl cap, and she carried a prayer book with a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and cymbidium orchids.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Lawrence C. Dailey of East Lansing was matron of honor. Mrs. William R. Dempsey of Battle Creek and Diane Dailey were bridesmaids.

They wore ballerina-length gowns of green iridescent taffeta and carried white chrysanthemum cascades.

Lawrence C. Dailey was his brother's best man. Ushers were Norman Knause and James Kermath of Dearborn, Joseph Talmadge of Columbus, Ohio, and William H. Dempsey of Battle Creek.

The reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the service.

When the couple left on their honeymoon to New Orleans, the bride was wearing a skipper blue wool suit with black velvet accents.

43 Sa-Shay Club Couples at Dance

Forty-three couples danced to the calls of master of ceremonies Howard Upton at the Friday evening party of Sa-Shay Quadrille Club, held at Elks Temple. Other callers were Bill Schmiel, Bill Spaulding, John DePauw, Bert Denham and Oscar Denham.

Welcomed as new members were Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hall, Mr. and Mrs. William Cash, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andux and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chrisman.

Mrs. Frances Erb, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rembert and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson were guests at the evening party.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Frank Thornberry and Russell Pope.

Two Are Initiated

Melodye Ann Smith and Carole Mihay were initiated into the Interna[illegible] Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel 40, at recent ceremonies. Refreshments were served after the ceremony held at Roosevelt Temple.

Checking their lists for the distribution of card party tickets are (left) Mrs. Frank Sovereign, co-chairman of the affair and Mrs. Robert N. Nelson, member of the club prizes committee. The Nov. 16 Card Festival is sponsored yearly by Zonta Club. Also assisting with preparations is Mrs. Ashton Emery, chairman of the refreshment committee.

Don't Switch Fork From Left to Right

Zigzag Method of Using Silverware Isn't Correct

By EMILY POST

"My mother and father were born in England and as a result I was taught European table manners. My husband is familiar with the American way of eating — which is changing the fork from the left to the right hand.

"We have a young daughter who is starting to learn table manners. My husband insists that she be taught to eat the way he does, which he says is correct. I have been teaching her to eat the way I was brought up to do—which is to convey food to the mouth with the fork in the left hand and not switch over after every mouthful.

"I am sure our daughter is completely confused. We want her to learn to eat correctly and not be criticized later on, so will you please tell us what is correct so that we may settle the issue once and for all."

Answer: You hold a fork in your left hand and cut with your right hand and do not switch the fork back for every mouthful. This is what I call zigzag eating.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Is it really wrong to send printed thank-you cards given us by the funeral director? We would not think of sending a printed thank-you on any other occasion, but as these were given to help us through this ordeal we wonder if we may quite properly send them."

Answer: If you add a handwritten "Thank you" or an expression such as "Your kindness meant so much to us all," on the cards sent to personal friends and any others who were especially kind, they would be permissible.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a girl asks her date to go across the street to the drugstore and buy her a package of cigarettes, and hands him the money, should he take it, or might this seem cheap on his part?"

Answer: If she alone is a smoker, then he could take it.

16 County Girl Scout Leaders to Attend 3-Day Regional Meeting in Milwaukee

Sixteen members of the Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council will be among some 4,000 Girl Scout leaders who will attend a Regional Girl Scout Conference Nov. 12-14 in Milwaukee, Wis.

The conference program is planned around the Girl Scout theme, "Believe, Belong, Build."

Dr. Marcus Bach, professor of religion at the University of Iowa, will open the conference with an address on "Surveying Today's World."

Other speakers will include Mrs. Roy F. Layton, national Girl Scout president; Dorothy C. Stratton, national executive director, and Princess Ileana of Romania.

PLAN WORKSHOPS

The conference will include study groups on troop programs and leaders and community cooperation, and workshops in art, music and dramatics.

Attending from the local council are Mrs. R. N. Rapaport, Dorothy Hollister, E. Bee Tomlinson, Mrs. Evelyn Copeland, executive director; Elaine Smith, district director; and Carolann Bigham, district director.

Also attending are Mrs. Worth Mallory, Mrs. Carl Simon, Mrs. Walter Reuther and Mrs. Frank Holtz of Rochester; Mrs. Jay Davidson and Mrs. E. J. Lally, council president, of Clarkston.

Mrs. Jay Bendall and Mrs. William Gravelle of Four Towns, Mrs. Fred Bisballe of Lake Orion and Mrs. Edmund Greniewicki of Oxbow Lake complete the list.

Presbyterian Women Hold Luncheon

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church met at the church Friday for its monthly luncheon and meeting.

Mrs. Galen Hershey, chairman of the Praise Service and of the presentation of the thanks offering, chose as the theme, "A Pattern for Peace."

Assisting Mrs. Hershey were Mrs. Stephen Napier, Mrs. Bruce Martyn, Mrs. John Gibson, Mrs. Kenneth Nagley and Mrs. George Beauchamp.

Music for the program included a solo by Mrs. B. B. Kimball, accompanied by Mrs. Neil Gray. Vera Bassett, Mrs. E. L. Guy, Mrs. Edward Mann and Mrs. Kimball were members of the quartet she presented several selections accompanied by Mrs. Peter Basola.

Mrs. Neil Gray announced plans for the Dec. 7 Christmas buffet dinner.

Belts Make Fashionable Comeback

Belts are back in the fashion picture after several beltless years.

And now that they're back, they are the accents of the various new silhouettes. Their placement defines the fashion.

Worn just under the bust, a belt proclaims an empire silhouette. Worn around the hips, it may suggest the bygone flapper look.

Worn at the waistline, where it started, it defines a shirtwaist dress or a two-piece dress or a blouse and skirt.

Designers on both sides of the Atlantic are using belts in many ways this season.

There are wide, dramatic belts with jeweled buckles used on some of the newest dinner gowns. These accent the midriff, reaching from normal waistline almost to the bustline, giving an empire effect.

Contoured belts narrow in front, wide and dipped in back, give a new line to sheath dresses.

Narrow belts sometimes are used just beneath the bust of a slim dress, for a new effect.

With the popular bloused silhouette, the belt is worn at the natural waistline, and it may be wide or narrow, in leather or satin, its color matching or contrasting with the dress.

Belted suits are important this year, with the belts worn everywhere from just below the shoulder blades to just above the hips.

Uncooked Dessert Keeps Well

Mrs. Mehlberg Rolls Date, Nut Mixture in Cracker Crumbs

By JANET ODELL

Want a dessert you can keep on hand in the refrigerator and use whenever you need it? Make up some of Mrs. David Mehlberg's Date and Nut Roll; then TRY to keep it for desserts!

Mrs. Mehlberg has two sons and a daughter, the youngest four years old. The family is active in church activities .

Mrs. Mehlberg likes working in the garden, sewing, writing letters and reading.

DATE AND NUT ROLL
By Mrs. David Mehlberg

½ pound graham crackers, rolled into crumbs
½ pound marshmallows, cut into pieces
½ pound dates, cut into pieces
½ cup nuts
¾ cup undiluted evaporated milk

Mix all ingredients together, saving a few cracker crumbs for the outside. Place on waxed paper, mold into a roll. Roll in crumbs. Refrigerate 10-12 hours. Serve in slices, garnished with whipped cream.

The voluminous cut coat or cloak with armholes to the waist can be proportioned to the petite figure if custom made but since most of us buy ready-to-wear, the short figure must watch not to overdo with too much coat.

Girl Must Be Prepared for Dieting

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Dressing after gym, Gloria, 14 years old and 27 pounds overweight, zipped up her skirt.

Beside her a classmate, slim and more knowing, observed without malice: "You're too fat for that circular type skirt. Why don't you make your mother get you the gored kind?"

Home from school, discouraged Gloria devoured milk and gingersnaps until her mother protested. Then she burst into tears of helplessness and ran out of the kitchen.

Can we help Gloria?

Yes—if we stop begging her to take on the rewarding, but very lonely work of controlling her appetite.

NO MEANING

Our appeals have no meaning whatever for her, simply adding to her discouragement. For Gloria's image of herself as a fat girl is so firmly lodged in her mind that she just cannot visualize herself as a slim one. So our demands that she become one make no sense at all.

This inability to believe in the reward of dieting's self-directing effort is her real problem.

To solve it, we stop taking about the reward to her—and instead, lead our overweight youngster into actual rewarding experience with other forms of self-directing effort.

We make her begin to choose her own clothes. We encourage her to invite friends to meals she prepares herself. We encourage her to give herself a permanent. We propose that she paint her book shelves her favorite shade of blue.

In every possible way, we give Gloria opportunities to discover that looking to herself for strength can end in triumph for her.

IMAGE VANISHES

As she becomes increasingly used to the successful results of these lonely, unsupported efforts, the punishing image of herself as hopelessly fat begins to lose its tyrannical power over her.

One day she herself suddenly decides to diet. She has finally found herself visualizing the triumphant end to this lonely effort, too.

If this makes no sense to you, remember we've got to know it's true to make it work. We've got to know that Gloria's extra poundage is not flesh but ignorance of her own capacity for lonely achievement.

That's all dieting is. It's a demonstration of our willingness to know our answers are in ourselves, not other people. It is the acceptance of our aloneness.

Heads Gold Star Mothers

Mrs. Edna Olmsted was installed as president of the American Gold Star Mothers Inc. Chapter Nine Friday evening in the Salvation Army Citadel.

Others installed with her were Mrs. Sybella Stevens, first vice president; Mrs. Edward Ellefson, second vice president; Mrs. Pearl Kline, treasurer; Mrs. Julia Thomas, secretary, and Mrs. Lauretta Stockwell, chaplain.

Serving as color bearer will be Mrs. Mae Archambeau. Mrs. Barbara Cornell is banner guard; Mrs. Henry Hight, custodian of records; Mrs. Ann Minnich, hospital chairman; and Mrs. Mary Hawkes, musician.

Installing officers were past department president Mrs. Robert D'Armond of Clawson; department chaplain, Mrs. Howard Nichols; and Mrs. Edward Smith of Royal Oak.

Try New Fashions Before Rejecting Them

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Whenever there is a drastic change in fashions a woman has to decide whether she will adopt the new look or wear what is flattering to her. Fortunately, it is possible to go along with the current style and still avoid unbecoming extremes.

Many of the world's best-dressed women have set the vogue for individuality in dress. Year after year they wear much the same type clothes and use the same hair style because they know it is best for them.

This season's hats are a drastic change and they are trying for many women. The small off-the-face hat long has been a classic and we have become accustomed to it. It fits in well with your hairdo, usually it is flattering. The "picture" hat is another model we have learned to love.

However, before you give up the idea of wearing the new shapes, try them. You may be surprised to find that you can wear them attractively. Care should be taken, however, if your face is broad through the temples. In this instance some of the current styles may make you look square-faced.

Stylists have made several efforts to get us back into long skirts. Women simply rebelled at this, partly because of the comfort of shorter skirts and partly because they wished to have their dress and suit lengths flatter their legs. It is a well-established fact that the most becoming length for any leg is mid-calf.

AWKWARD AND LEGGY

In the past, many very tall girls and women made the mistake of wearing very short skirts because they thought that this made them appear shorter. To the contrary, it was awkward and made them look all legs.

* * *

If we have a youthful outlook we will be eager to try new styles and new activities. We will find these to be fun.

There are two good rules to follow when trying on the new fashions:

Remember that today individuality is chic, but also keep in mind the fact that you can take this too far. Nothing makes one look older than outmoded clothes, hats and hair styles.

If you would like to have leaflet No. 54, "Planning Clothes to Suit Figure and Personality," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

"PURCHASE" NEW PAIR OF HIPS VIA EXERCISE

Perhaps the hips you are wearing are not becoming to you. Maybe you would discard them and buy another pair if you could. Actually, you can purchase another pair with an investment in daily exercise.

Many women have fatty deposits on the upper hipline. This is aging to the figure. Try the following exercise. Do it 15 times a day to begin with, then build up to 30.

Lie on the floor on your back with your arms extending straight out. Keep your arms on the floor and cling to it with your fingertips. Bend both knees up close to your tummy. Pull the knees as far up toward the chest as you can. Keep the knees in this position as you roll from side to side. Legs touch the floor at the end of each roll.

The following exercise is fine for the abdomen, waist and hips: Lie on the floor on your back, arms straight out, legs straight. As you roll onto your left side bend your knees up close to your abdomen. Straighten your legs as they swing across the center of your body and bend them up again as you roll onto your right side. Straighten the legs as they swing across the center of the body and continue.

This should be a smooth continuous bending and straightening of the legs, correlated with the rolls. Feet should be brought close to the floor on the swing in between bends.

FROM SIDE TO SIDE

At first you may not be able to do this with continuous motion. If not, roll onto one side and bend knees. Straighten knees and return legs to floor when you roll onto your back. Then bend again rolling onto the other side. Straighten legs and return them to the floor when you roll onto your back.

Stand tall with your feet comfortably separated. Raise your right arm and place your right hand on top of your head, fingers near your left ear. Bend forward and touch your left toe with the fingers of your left hand.

Raise trunk and return right arm to side. This time raise your left arm and place your left hand on top of your head. Bend to the right trying to touch the fingers of your right hand to your right toe. Raise trunk and continue, alternating left and right.

If you would like to have my tested hip-slimming exercises send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Must Exercise to improve Just Certain Parts of Body."

Before you give up the idea of wearing the new shapes, try them. You may be surprised to find that you can wear them attractively.

Joanne E. Gaul Is Wed to Roxythe Lee Harding

Married in a home ceremony Saturday evening were Joanne Elizabeth Gaul and Roxythe Lee Harding. The Rev. L. C. Sutton of the Holly Methodist Church officated at the service.

Joanne, of Short street, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Gaul of Earling, Ia. Roxythe is the son of Mrs. George Nimphie of Holly.

For the ceremony held in the presence of the immediate family and close friends, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of lace over satin with a taffeta cummerbund and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. A scalloped neckline accented the fitted bodice.

Her crown headpiece, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, secured a shoulder length veil of illusion. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Joanne carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her brother, Greg Gaul of Holly.

ATTENDS BRIDE

Mrs. Paul U. Gaul of St. Paul, Minn., attended her sister-in-law. She wore a rose-pink taffeta ballerina-length gown with a feather headpiece and bouquet of red delight roses and garnets.

Christine Harding, niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. She wore a petal-pink frock with a matching headpiece and carried a miniature bouquet of pink carnations and demure roses.

Paul U. Gaul of St. Poul, Minn. was best man.

A reception was held at the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan building immediately following the ceremony.

For traveling to Canada and Niagara Falls, the bride changed to a royal blue velveteen dress with black accessories. The orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet completed her outfit.

1956 Corduroy Has Elegance, Sophistication

Corduroy, treated like velvet by sophisticated designers, is a surprise fabric in a season where the fashion accent is on elegance.

Fur-trimmed for theater coats, or combined with silk and gold lame, it fits into a dress-up role while retaining its well known sturdy virtues.

New water-repellent and crease-resistant finishes add a practical plus for coats and separates. And corduroy's velvety ribs in both narrow and wide wale produce the desired luxury look, hallmark of '56 fashions.

Even the infants' wear market has been raided for the finest pinwale, the most delicate colors.

Sometimes the way to make a color strike a stunning effect is to use it discreetly. A touch of violet with beige or gray or black can be arresting.

Wives Recognize Signs When Men Settle Down

Husbands Start to Concentrate Upon Comfort Rather Than Adventure

By RUTH MILLETT

Men often fight against "settling down" the way tired kids fight a sleep.

When an NEA staff correspondent, Ward Cannel, recently interviewed Joe Louis he reported that when he asked the former heavyweight champion how it felt to be settling down, Joe Louis replied with an edge to his voice, "I'm not settling down."

But later on Joe Louis's wife gave the interviewer a different opinion. "He is settling down. Only he doesn't know it yet."

Men, you, too, are settling down, whether you know it or not, if you—

Have decided you'd rather stay home and watch sports on TV than buck a football crowd or go out to the ball park.

RIGHT AT HOME

More and more often decide that the best place to spend a holiday or long weekend is right at home.

Have started taking an interest in a hobby like gardening, making furniture or taking over as chef at the outdoor barbecue pit.

Have started thinking more and more in terms of future financial security.

Keep remembering at a gay party, what time you have to be up the next morning.

Are more amused than annoyed by your wife's attempts to make you over.

THE HOME TOWN

Find yourself thinking you'd like to go back to visit the home town you haven't seen in years.

Any woman knows that these are all signs that a man is settling down. She's aware that he's beginning to think more in terms of comfort than of adventure and beginning to feel it isn't necessary to act any younger than he feels.

Cleanliness Counts

Basis for all good looks is absolute cleanliness. This means starting from the skin out. It's trouble, to be sure, to keep oneself and one's clothing spotless. But worth it.

Ike Wires Luck to Cobo in Bid to Unseat Williams

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit mayor Albert E. Cobo, Republican nominee for governor, had a telegram from President Eisenhower today saying "I confidently expect the people of your state will give you a resounding victory" in tomorrow's election.

The President's telegram, received over the weekend, also said:

"The present world situation has made it unwise for me to come to Michigan . . . I regret this because I should have liked to talk personally to the people of Michigan, and to tell them of my high regard for you and how important I consider your election to the governorship of Michigan. As governor of Michigan you will be of inestimable assistance to the carrying forward of our national program."

Wayne Plans to Admit More Medical Students

ANN ARBOR (INS) — Wayne State University's Board of Governors met in Ann Arbor over the weekend to start plans to increase the number of students in the school's College of Medicine.

The Medical College admits 75 students annually, but a committee reported the number can be boosted to 125 if additional funds are available from the Legislature.

Hungarians, Polish Hold Rally in Detroit

DETROIT (INS)—More than 4,000 Detroiters of Hungarian and Polish descent attended a rally in the city yesterday to give verbal and financial support to their embattled omelands.

State and national political leaders joined with church representatives in denouncing the "Soviet attempt to enslave free peoples" and to praise the Hungarian revolt as an example of "true patriotism."

Among the speakers at the rally were Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich.), Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.), Rep. Thaddeus Machrowicz (D-Mich), Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo.

Voting Machines Are Easy to Use, Just Remember These 4 Basic Steps

Voting machines will be used by Pontiac voters for the second time in tomorrow's presidential election.

Voters overwhelmingly approved of their use in the Aug. 7 primary balloting.

Basically, there are four steps the voter will go through when using the machines. They are:

(1) Register at the voting precinct. This puts your name in the precinct poll book.

(2) Enter the voting machine and pull the large red handle to the right until a bell rings. This closes the curtain around you.

(3) Vote "yes" or "no" for one state question and two local issues (red part of the ballot), vote for the presidential, state and county candidates (white part of the ballot), and the non-partisan judicial offices (blue part of the ballot).

(4) Pull the red handle all the way to the left, opening the curtain, and recording your vote in the machine.

Pontiac City Clerk Ada R. Evans sand voters wishing to split their tickets on the machines, may do so.

To split your ticket, you first (after you have entered the machine) pull the party lever at the left of the machine to the right. This should be the lever of your party choice.

For those candidates of this party you do not wish to vote for, push the black pointer up covering the "X" over the undesired candidate.

Then pull down the pointer for the candidate for this same office of the party you desire. This will expose the "X" over his name.

Mrs. Evans emphaisized that election workers at the 44 city precincts will assist first-time machine users with a demonstration model before voting.

How to Spot the Winners

(Will it be Ike by a landslide or Adlai by a nose? Will the Middle East problem influence election results? Which are the key states? How early can trends be detected? What about the farm vote? A Washington newsman suggests places and things to watch in tomorrow's election.)

By JAMES LEE

WASHINGTON (INS) — Upward of 61 million Americans go to the polls tomorrow to choose a President and Congress.

The election comes at a time of sudden crisis. War in the Middle East shadows the hope of peace to which most men have clung since the guns in Korea were silenced.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon are favored on the basis of virtually all measurements of public opinion to be returned to office.

But Democratic Presidential Nominee Adlai E. Stevenson and his running-made, Sen. Estes Kefauver, insist there is a tide running in their favor.

NO SIGNS

If so, the pollsters have been unable to detect it.

Paradoxically, the Democrats —though Republican campaigners dispute the deduction—are looked upon by many analysts as probable victors in their struggle to retain control of the Senate and House.

However, should the Ike landslide the Republicans anticipate actually develop, the President's popularity—which all of his admirers and some of his opponents call "magical"—could give him a GOP Congress.

There is an element of suspense in tomorrow's election which was lacking a week ago.

The grave developments in the Middle East, the invasion of Egypt by Israel, the armed intervention of the American-Anglo-French alliance, have posed unanswered questions.

In certain key areas, where voters may have changed or made up their minds as a result of the conflict in the strategic region so vital to many nations, surprise results could sway the course of the whole election.

KEY STATES

New York, Pennsylvania, California, Michigan, Massachusetts, Florida are cases in point. These six states cast 155 electoral votes.

Family groups glued to TV or radio election night, and doing their quadrennial political arithmetic, should be able to detect the trend, whether it be pro-Ike or pro-Adlai, well before midnight.

Here are tips for "trend spotters":

NEW YORK—Ike is heavily favored here. Upstate returns usually come in almost as quickly as those from New York City. If the election looks close in New York state by 10 p.m. it might be a horse race all the way through.

PENNSYLVANIA—The Keystone State should be a real key to the national results. Ike is only a slight favorite in Pennsylvania. If the Democrats are to win they must pile up heavy leads in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton, Harrisburg, Wilkes-Barre, Erie and other big cities.

MICHIGAN — Here, where Ike leads, Detroit is the place to watch. Stevenson strength is greatest in the auto city. But he must race to a commanding lead there, and build it up, if he is to capture Michigan.

MASSACHUSETTS — The Bay State, where Eisenhower has a good edge, is one of the places in which the Middle East problem might have caused a switch. This is true because an estimated 40 per cent of the voters are Irish-Catholic. Stevenson must win overwhelmingly there if he is to prevail.

MIAMI MAY SWITCH

FLORIDA — Republicans have been confident recently that Ike's speeches in Miami and Jacksonville last week won Florida for them. But Democrats say the Middle East conflict cut into the President's lead in the Miami area. The course the Miami vote is taking should be known by 11 p.m.

CALIFORNIA — The Golden State is considered crucial and it is a hard one to predict. Ike's popularity among Californians is enormous. But Democrats hold a numerical advantage in registrations.

If the unexpected happens and the Ike-Adlai national race is really close, California could well provide the deciding factor—as it did in 1916, when Republican Charles Evans Hughes went to bed believing he was President-elect and awakened to find California had re-elected Woodrow Wilson.

To win in California, Stevenson must take Los Angeles and San Francisco by wide margins. Returns from these cities, sufficient to establish the trend, should be on the air by 1 a.m. Wednesday, Pontiac time.

Amid the turmoil over the Middle East, some voters—but not the professional politicians—may have forgotten the "farm issue."

rf.i.Moa

Republicans insist the soil bank and faith in Ike have choked off any "rebellion" against the GOP in the farm states. Democrats claim farmers are still unhappy with the Eisenhower regime.

In this picture, the state to watch is Minnesota. The city on which to concentrate is Minneapolis, which is closely tied to the state's agricultural economy. Ike won Minneapolis in 1952. If to[illegible] for Adlai, ask [illegible] remembering Harry Truman's upset victory over Tom Dewey in '48.

State Voting May Top Mark

Good Weather Seen; Both Williams, Cobo Expect to Win

By International News Service

Candidates for office in Michigan were having their final say today while the voters prepared to raise their voices through that great American megaphone—the ballot.

State election officials predict the 1952 record vote of 2,866,000 will be broken tomorrow, with the total possibly reaching more than three million.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicted cloudy skies and mild temperatures throughout the state, with no rain expected in any area.

Voters, besides deciding in which column the state's presidential electoral votes will fall, will choose a governor and other state officials, congressmen, county officials, two Supreme Court justices and some local judges.

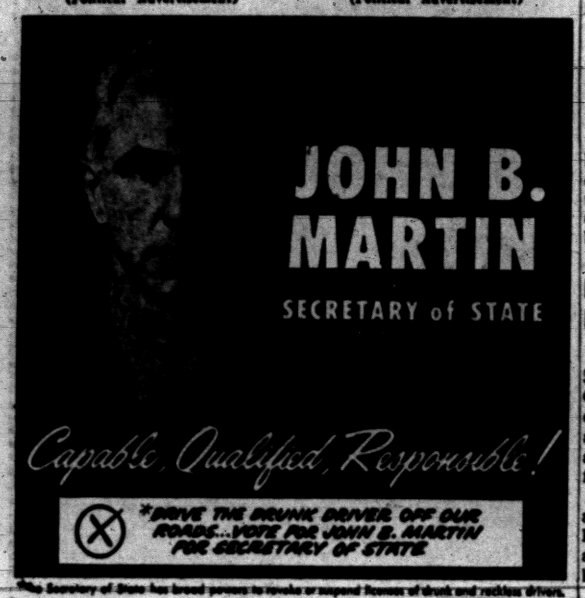

WILLIAMS CONFIDENT

Gov. Williams refused to predict by what margin he expects to gain an unprecedented fifth term. However, state Democratic leaders forecast the governor will win by more than the 250,000 margin he held against Donald S. Leonard in 1954.

The Republican gubernatorial candidate, Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit, said he believes he will un-seat Williams by 30,000 to 60,000 votes.

GOP spokesmen think they will have an advantage this year because the names of the presidential candidates will head state tickets, instead of being on a separate ballot.

Don Leonard's Brother, Edwin, Dies at Home

DETROIT (AP)—Edwin D. Leonard, 56, died yesterday at home in Grosse Pointe. He was a brother of Donald S. Leonard, former state and Detroit police commissioner and the 1954 Republican candidate for governor.

Edwin Leonard was an organizer and first president of the Michigan Bank. He retired last February after selling a Detroit auto agency he operated.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday.

160-Mile Dash Can't Save Tot

Heart Condition Fatal to Baby Despite Holland to Chicago Race

CHICAGO (INS) — A 10-week-old baby whisked by police on a mercy mission from Michigan to Chicago died early today of a heart condition.

The infant, Brian Patterson, grew critical overnight in Children's Memorial Hospital. A hospital spokesman said "all emergency measures" failed to save him.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson of Holland, were with him when he died about 5:30 a.m. Pontiac time.

No surgery was performed. A hospital spokesman said the baby appeared to be resting quietly in his incubator until he suddenly took a turn for the worse. Tests were to have been made today to determine if surgery was necessary.

MILE A MINUTE

He was sped from Holland to Chicago, 160 miles, in 2 hours and 35 minutes — better than a mile a minute.

Police in Michigan, Indiana and Illinois worked in relays to drive to Chicago.

Bryan was suffering from a heart lesion. Holland physicians said they feared a plane would be hazardous and a train too slow. They said quick treatment was essential after the boy's breathing became labored.

Crude oil output in Venezuela recently hit a new high at 2,472,000 barrels a day.

Mitchell Predicts Union Help for Ike

WASHINGTON (INS) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell predicts strong support by union members for President Eisenhower in tomorrow's election.

He said on the ABC-TV program "Press Conference" last night that while top leaders of the AFL-CIO lean towards the Democrats, rank-and-file union members are about evenly split between the two parties.

He predicted an overhaul of the Taft-Hartley law if the GOP wins, but said "right to work" laws authorized under that act will continue to be left up to the individual states.

One of Those Days: Can't Win for Losing

FORT WORTH, Tex. (INS) — L. E. Schmidt, 69, was running through a hard rain to catch a bus. His glasses fell off. He caught them before they hit the sidewalk but slipped and cut his knee.

He also misse dthe bus.

Back home, he went into the bathroom to bandage the cut. He slipped again and cut his arm on a hair tonic bottle.

At that point he gave up and went to a hospital.

Don't Let Junior Dominate

Child Can Ruin Marriage

By JOHN BARROW
INS Staff Writer

Are you losing your wife to your child?

* * *

Some husbands—though dedicated to parenthood—begin to feel their mates have quit the "partnership" for another company. With all marriage matters riveted on what Junior does and needs, the husband wonders if he blundered past his house in the dark and intruded into some oversized nursery.

A marriage counselor says a little plain democracy can right things.

Freda S. Kehn is director of the nonprofit Assn. for Family Living in Chicago where 3,000 persons come each year asking, "What should I do?" Balance is the keyword, Miss Kehn advises, explaining:

RIGHTS FOR ALL

"Each individual in a family has his rights. A balanced relationship supplies the needs of each member—love, acceptance as a person, a sense of 'mattering' to the others.

"Adult and child, each has importance to the other person. Each is a valued member. Each contributes different things."

When a couple has a child, the wife naturally transfers her attention to the offspring. But the husband needn't be left out. Miss Kehn says:

"The wife shouldn't drop her interests as an adult, nor her activities with adult friends."

In view of husband-wife interests, she says, "It's important not to sacrifice too much for children — parents have rights too."

Yet balancing duties with rights is part of being grown up enough to get married. The husband who fears he's pushed out by his children must make sure he isn't competing with them—for "mommy's" care.

Hungarians in New York Picket Russian Offices

NEW YORK (INS) — Hungarian-Americans — many of them weeping — staged a symbolic funeral march in Manhattan yesterday for those who have died in the anti-Soviet revolt.

The black-dressed mourners marched in somber silence until they reached the Park Avenue headquarters of the Russian United Nations delegation.

Then angry cries of "Burtchers of Budapest," "Murderers" and "Russians go home" arose from the ranks of the estimated 10,000 marchers.

Driver Stands on Head to Prove He's Sober

COLSFORD, Eng. (INS) — The indignant motorist stood on his head in the police station to prove that he was not drunk, and then challenged the doctor to do the same.

The doctor declined, and later told the magistrate that Leslie Richard James indeed had stood on his head. He also told the magistrate that James was incapable of driving.

James was fined $28.

FITTING THE PIECES TOGETHER . . .

Those formative years of a child are so important! What he sees and hears . . . how he's counselled . . . his decisions about Good — these things make maturity either pleasant or painful. Should adjustment become unbalanced, early treatment greatly reduces the threat of a serious mental illness later.

For the child with emotional and personality problems, we are fortunate to have in the Pontiac area a Child Guidance Clinic. Here diagnostic treatment and counselling services explain and fit together the many-colored pieces of life. Last year 341 children were helped by the Clinic to make healthy decisions in . . . fitting the pieces together.

Columnist Distrusts Beauty's Ideas of Marriage

Zsa Zsa's Advice Followed - - - in Reverse

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Zsa Zsa Gabor is a girl who has run into—and through—some of the richest bank balances in the world, during her long and earnest pursuit of pleasure.

She also has a strong feeling of affection toward the male sex.

Therefore, she feels qualified to give advice on two topics of international interest: Money and marriage.

(Of course you realize, ladies, this advice should be taken with a grain of aspirin. That is, it may give you a pain.)

She says, Zsa Zsa does, that three experiences at marriage have taught her one basic matrimonial fact. "You should always marry men wiz whom you have something in common. You can have better fights zis way, and fights are healthy.

MOTHER WAITS TRIAL — Mrs. Kathryn Trosper, 25, leans over the crib of her 12-day-old son, Kenneth Robin in her Cleveland, O., home. Mrs. Trosper was indicted last June and ordered to stand trial for manslaughter for the killing of her husband, Ray, 29, police chief of Lyndhurst, a suburb of Cleveland. The trial was delayed pending the birth of Kenneth Robin. Mrs. Trosper told police, at the time of the shooting, that she shot Trosper after he came home intoxicated and "hit and choked me," and threatened to take the couple's other child, Mike, 4, away from their home.

"You cannot exist only on love."

This was Miss Gabor's lesson when she married her first husband, a Turkish diplomat well over twice her age—"Ah, I wass only 16, and he wass absolutely mad about me," she confesses wistfully.

She discovered that she was not brilliant enough to fight with him authoritatively on Middle Eastern affairs, so things got dull.

Life can be very disturbing when there are no disturbing factors between a man and wife, says the expert on ex-husbands.

From her second husband, a hotel man named Conrad Hilton, Miss Gabor learned "basic facts numbers 2 and 3"—a girl should be able to handle money if she is married to a millionaire; and never let a man take you for granted.

She says "Connie" taught her all she knows about stocks and bonds and real estate, and was simply "wonderful" about the whole crass affair.

She was so "naive" before she knew him, she claims; certainly she is now a much richer person in experience, not to mention investments, for having docilely listened to hubby.

DON'T RUSH TO ALTAR

"But I also learned from Conrad zat you muzzn't marry a man so fast after he sweeps you off your feet," says Zsa Zsa. "He knows for sure you are crazy about him if you do zat, and you are sunk. Never let a man take you for granted."

From actor George Sanders, husband III, Miss Gabor learned a lot more lessons that this column does not have time nor patience to go into now.

Sufficeth to say that the matrimonial tutelage was not enough to hold the marriage together and Zsa Zsa is now, as she puts it, "disengaged and free to fall in love wiz another man."

After studiously analyzing the statements of the zsany, zsesty, Zsa Zsa, we have come to a startling conclusion.

We are not annoyed or alarmed —only sympathetic with the little lady who has lived through so much only to learn so little.

And, judging by Miss Gabor's unimpressive record in the romance and marriage department, we make a personal vow to seek precisely the opposite from what Zsa Zsa seeks in a man.

What she appears to admire is a man who is: (1) Argumentative, (2) prosperous and (3) slow to the altar.

What we are looking for, therefore, is a guy who is: (1) Impassive, (2) improverished and (3) impetuous.

Why
should be your next congressman....

"I pledge my future to the people of Oakland County." Bill Broomfield says it and he means it. Broomfield will take to Washington an unchallenged record of providing real benefits for Michigan families. As your next Congressman, all his energies will be concentrated on giving the families of Oakland County the best representation they've ever had!

A record of eight years of progressive leadership in State Legislature qualifies him for this important job.

First of all, let's meet State Senator William S. Broomfield. He's a good man, and you should know it.

Bill was born in Royal Oak in 1922, was graduated from Royal Oak High School and has been a resident of Oakland County all his life. He attended Michigan State University, served in the Navy during World War II, is married and the father of two children. He divides his time between his insurance business in Berkley and the Michigan Senate at Lansing.

Why do we say that Bill Broomfield should be your next Congressman? Because Bill Broomfield has spent the last eight years of his life in the Michigan State Legislature doing everything in his power to improve the facilities and services that benefit families in Michigan!

Take a look at the highlights of Bill Broomfield's career. Notice the preponderance of family benefits in the bills he has sponsored. Every one of them has been passed. It's action like this, action that he will continue to get in behalf of the families of Oakland County, that makes Bill Broomfield the outstanding choice as the next United States Congressman from the 18th District.

Highlights of the Broomfield record of getting action

- $100,000,000 bill for distressed school districts.
- Special Education Act ($1,400,000 for handicapped children).
- Workmen's Compensation Act. (Result: Michigan enjoys highest benefits in U.S.)
- Homestead Exemption for blind persons or widows of blind persons.
- A bill to expand a State Water Resources Commission.
- $217,000,000 School Aid Bill.
- A bill to increase salaries for school teachers and all school personnel.
- A bill for bonus for Korean veterans.
- A bill to increase Old Age Benefits.
- A bill to advance Junior Colleges ($750,000).
- A bill to remove the locking devices from abandoned refrigerators.
- A bill to increase benefits under the Employment Security Act.
- A bill for special parking privileges for disabled veterans.
- A bill to establish a Veteran's Homestead Exemption Act.
- A bill to reinstate veterans in their jobs after return from service.

World Nuclear Control a Necessity, Says Baruch

PHOENIX, Ariz. (INS) — "This is the time to be steady in the boat."

So said Bernard M. Baruch, author of the Baruch Plan for the control of nuclear energy, when I unexpectedly dropped in to see him at his bungalow in the Camelback Inn near Phoenix.

The silver-haired, 86-year-old Baruch, famed over the years as the adviser to presidents, was seated in his lounging robe reading the world news when I called.

He is here enjoying rest and relaxation. With him is his secretary and nurse, Miss Elizabeth Navarro. His health, he said, is "fine—much better."

Baruch, although friendly and genial as usual, was reluctant to discuss the grave happenings that now confront the world. He pointed out that, as a private citizen, he is not aware of all the factors involved.

Private citizens, he said, "should not project themselves into situations" for which they do not have responsibility to solve.

It is only a question of time, in Baruch's opinion, when every nation will have the nuclear bomb.

"What if Hungary had nuclear bombs during the recent rebellion against Russia?" he asked. "Any little nation with the bomb could start quite a show."

CENTRAL CONTROL

"There should be a central organization to control atomic energy," he declared. "This organization should inspect, control and regulate the use of the bomb and punish any nation that makes nuclear energy without their approval."

Asked if he thought Russia would ever agree to full inspection and control of atomic energy, he replied:

"If she doesn't, the whole world will live in fear, including Russia. And the time will come when the Russian people will want to know why their government had not joined other nations for the control of atomic energy for peaceful purposes rather than using it as an instrument of destruction."

Already, Baruch pointed out, Russia has had to re-evaluate her policies toward the satellite countries. In his opinion, anything that changes the dominance of Russia in world affairs is "a happy and hopeful sign."

Insisting that America's policy for rigid control and inspection is the proper one, Baruch added:

'BULGANIN WRONG'

"If we were to give up inspection, you'd have more suspicions and disagreements among nations than you have now. Bulganin's proposal to outlaw the bomb is not a solution of the problem, nor is it an acceptable step toward it.

"Inspection and control are indispensible and must never be omitted in any approach on the subject. The mere outlawing of the bomb would be a delusion fraught with the greatest danger."

Ben-Gurion Aide Sure Fight Won't Spread

NEW YORK (AP) — An Israeli official says he is confident the fighting between Israel and Egypt will not spread to other lands in the Middle East.

"We feel that, without Egyptian instigation, there will be no serious attack from any other Arab country," said Theodore Kollek. "We are quite confident the conflict will not spread."

Kollek, director general of the office of Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion, made the comment as he arrived by air. He came here to give an "on the spot" report to Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban.

Hal Boyle Says:

Adlai Could Win If History Completes Cycle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Odd things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail, or listen to door-to-door salesmen:

That if Adlai Stevenson believes history runs in cycles he might be cheered to recall that just 100 years ago James Buchanan, a Democrat and a bachelor, defeated a famous soldier, John C. Fremont, the Republican party's presidential candidate.

That although women may be the deciding factor in the 1956 U.S. elections, they are even more powerful in France where there are 117 women voters for every 100 men.

That 11 per cent of the lawyers in France wear skirts. So do 23 per cent of the dentists, 28 per cent of the pharmacists, and 7 per cent of the doctors. There are 19 women deputies in the National Assembly, and nine women senators in the Council of the Republic.

That a friend of Raphael, on first seeing his Renaissance masterpiece, "St. Cecilia," was so overcome by the faultless beauty of the painting he fell dead. Some people say modernistic painting slays them, too.

That the road gauge of American railways is egual to the width between the wheels of ancient Rome's battle chariots—5 feet, 8 inches. We copied the idea from the British who, in the days when they were savages and painted themselves blue, were occupied by the Romans.

That if evil spirits are haunting you, an old remedy for warding them off is to wear a bag of eggshells around your neck. It also is said to help, if you are a woman, to wear your petticoats inside out or, in the case of a man, to reverse his waistcoat. Don't worry about what the neighbors may think. All people think their neighbors are a bit touched anyway.

That two out of three first-graders who have trouble learning to read have subpar vision. The American Optometric Assn. believes children shouldn't be encouraged to read until they enter school.

That Pee Wee Reese, shortstop for the Brooklyn Dodgers, got his nickname because of his skill at marbles. He can still knuckle down and beat any kid in his neighborhood at the game.

That 45 per cent of American men complain the bed they sleep in isn't long enough for comfort.

That a fever of 109 degrees will kill most people, but medical annals list one recovery from a fever that reached 113 degrees.

That there are 31 moons in the solar system—Jupiter has 12—and you can win money by betting your favorite teen-ager he can't name the two planets that have no moon at all. They're Mercury and Pluto.

That Nero never fiddled while Rome burned—the violin hadn't even been invented then—but he may have been busy putting on makeup. He enjoyed wearing cosmetics.

That a million Americans now wear contact lenses.

That if you make mistakes, you aren't the only one. The nation used up two million pounds of erasers last year.

That smarties who say Irish progress stopped with the wheelbarrow probably don't realize the pneumatic tires they now ride on were invented in 1888 by John B. Dunlop of Belfast, Ireland.

That it was Bismarck, Germany's "Iron Chancellor," who once contemptuously observed, "Universal suffrage is the government of a house by its nursery."

That, if this is true, universal suffrage in the United States has proved that a house run by a bunch of smart kids will outlast one ruled by a stupid king.

That the man who doesn't take the trouble to vote tomorrow will be the one who'll cry the loudest about the government for the next four years.

MOUNTAIN-MAN HART — Big Leon Hart, veteran end of the Detroit Lions who took over the new role of fullback last season, really came into his own yesterday in scoring two touchdowns against the San Francisco 49ers. Hart who weighs 250 pounds and stands 6-4 tore repeatedly through the Frisco line for big gains.

Lions' Defense Shines in Beating Frisco, 17-13

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The National Football League season is half over—and the Detroit Lions still are unbeaten.

The Lions, with lumbering Leon Hart smashing for two touchdowns, posted their 6th straight NFL victory yesterday with a 17-13 decision over the San Francisco 49ers.

Again the Detroit defensive platoon proved a life-saver. Twice, once in the dying minutes, San Francisco had the ball inside the Lions' 10-yard line and both times the defenders took it away from them.

The Lions, thanks to their first sweep on the West Coast, now are 6-up and 6-to-go in league play. No other NFL team is unbeaten, but the Chicago Bears beat the Los Angeles Rams 35-24 to stay only a game back of the Lions in the Western Division.

The Bears, now 5-1, meet the Lions in Detroit Dec. 2 and then end the season against Detroit at Chicago Dec. 16. Detroit meets the Washington Redskins (2-3) in the capitol next Sunday.

With their West Coast sweep, the Lions have taken a total of four games from Los Angeles and San Francisco. They also have whipped the Baltimore Colts and the Green Bay Packers.

Hart, flinging his 250 pounds into the line like a charging bull, got some elusive assistance from rookie Howard (Hopalong) Cassady in Detroit's touchdown drives that covered 71 and 80 yards.

Quarterback Bobby Layne's passing accuracy was off, but the aim of his toe wasn't. He booted a 30-yard field goal and added conversions after both touchdowns.

Detroit's most spectacular defensive show came with only two minutes to go. The 49ers had moved from their own 11 to the Detroit two, where they made a first down.

The first smash was stopped cold at the line. On the next, John Henry Johnson made it across the goal line by inches, but an offside penalty against the 49ers nullified the touchdown and set them back to the six.

The 49ers were flung back to the 13 on the next play. Then Detroit's Jack Christiansen intercepted Hugh McElhenny's running pass in the end zone, and Detroit took over and ran out the clock.

In the opening period, Lion defenders threw Johnson for a four-yard loss on 4th down and took the ball from the 49ers on the 10.

The game's most spectacular run was Joe Arenas' 90-yard touchdown runback of the kickoff that followed Detroit's first touchdown. Gordy Soltau's conversion made it 7-7 at that point. Later Soltau accounted for the rest of Frisco's points with field goals from 30 and 40 yards out.

Layne hit on only 7 of 18 passes, but one completion in each touchdown march kept both drives going. End Jim Doran caught both of them. Detroit got only 89 yards through the air, but racked up 194 ground yards while holding the 49ers to 93.

Hart charged into the line five times and picked up 29 yards on Detroit's first touchdown drive, which he capped with a three-yard plunge. On the second scoring surge Hart got 36 yards in eight carries and Cassady 23 in five. Hart ended the latter with a one-yard smash into the end zone.

Layne's field goal, coming only 20 seconds before the end of the first half, knotted the count at 10-10. Soltau had kicked one after the Lions had thrown the 49ers from the Detroit 4 back to the 21.

Hart and Cassady got occasional running help from Gene Gedman. Rookie Don McIlhenny, a running sensation with the Lions thus far, was injured in the early going and did not return.

Earl Morrall, the All-American halfback from Michigan State, piloted the 49ers all the way and completed 11 of 21 passes for 153 yards.

For the 3rd straight season Birmingham's Maple harriers have gone unbeaten in Eastern Michigan circles, and for nearly all other dual meets as well. Coach Kermit Ambrose's club licked seven dual opponents, won the EML and MHSAA regional titles, was 3rd in Albion invitational this fall and 5th in the state meet, hasn't lost a dual meet in three years to a EML opponent, and dropped only three duals in the same period—two to Walled Lake, one to Ann Arbor. Maple reserves are unbeaten in all runs during the same period.

STOUT-HEARTED DEFENSE — Big factor for the unbeaten Detroit Lions this year has been the fine defensive forward wall which has held the opposition in check on numerous occasions right at the goal line. Yesterday twice the San Francisco 49ers were stopped within goal post shadows. Four of the big guns in the defensive wall are left to right, Gene Cronin, Bob Miller, Ray Krouse and Darris McCord. Another star has been defensive captain Joe Schmidt. Detroit won its 6th straight by beating the 49ers, 17-13, yesterday.

Bears, Cards, Giants Are Victors

Dogfights Continue in NFL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Every promoter's dream — a balanced league — is merely a wishful thought this pro football season.

With just about half the games in the record books after yesterday's five-game card, the National Football League, despite interconference play, cannot even boast a balanced division.

Four of the 12 league teams hold 60 per cent of the victories, and two are in each conference. Furthermore, no other team has more wins than setbacks!

Yet it's doubtful if you'll hear anybody kicking. Both conferences are featuring rousing two-team dogfights and 204,041 attended yesterday's games.

Detroit is the big winner among the big winners. The unbeaten Lions, Western Conference leaders, grabbed their sixth consecutive by topping the San Francisco 49ers 17-13 on the West Coast.

Several hundred miles to the south, the Chicago Bears stayed one game off the Western pace with a 35-24 decision over the Los Angeles Rams. The Bears are 5-1 and haven't lost since opening day when Baltimore knocked them off 28-21.

In the Eastern Conference, New York's Giants and Chicago's Cardinals remained deadlocked for the top at 5-1 as both checked in with triumphs over division opponents. The Giants edged the host Pittsburgh Steelers 17-14, and Chicago rolled over the visiting Philadelphia Eagles 28-17.

The Cleveland Browns broke a three-game losing streak and moved into a three-way tie for fourth in the East with a 24-7 upset of Green Bay's Packers at Milwaukee. Cleveland is now 2-4, as are the Eagles and Steelers.

Washington, idle yesterday, is third in the East with a 2-3 mark.

Baltimore (2-3) is third in the West followed by the Packers (2-4) and the Rams and 49ers (both 1-5).

That means the Lions, Cards, Bears and Giants have won 21 of the 35 games played.

A field goal by Ben Agajanian with only 16 seconds remaining in the half provided the point difference for the Giants. But a busy defense headed by Bill Svoboda came up with a key fumble recovery and a timely pass interception to thwart the Steelers who fought back from a 10-0 halftime deficit. Alex Webster and Kyle Rote recorded the Giant TD's, while Sid Watson hit paydirt twice for the Steelers.

The Rams held the Bears to a 21-21 halftime tie, but the losers, who did their scoring on a pass interception and two runs, took to the air and met disaster. Two passes by Norm Van Brocklin were picked off by Bear defenders, and rookie Perry Jeter followed up both with scoring dashes.

The quarterback-thin Browns turned over the ground-gaining to running backs Preston Carpenter and Ed Modzelewski, and they responded with 181 yards on 43 carries split about evenly.

Cotton Bowl Ducats Gone but No Teams

DALLAS (AP)—The public sale of tickets to the Cotton Bowl football game closes today with indications that, as usual, the demand will be greater than the supply. But there's not an inkling of what, if any, teams are under consideration for the Jan. 1 post-season contest.

President Bob Collum of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Assn. says "it's two weeks premature." By that he meant that on Nov. 15 teams left in the race for the Southwest Conference championship would be polled as to their preference for an opponent.

The conference champion is host team in the Cotton Bowl.

The league race is tangled right now with Texas A&M and Southern Methodist to meet Saturday in Dallas to decide which occupies undisputed first place but with two other teams, Rice and Texas Christian still in the running.

Schayes Hits 28 in Losing Cause

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For two years they've been saying Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals is going to have a new mailing address—but last night the eight-year National Basketball Assn. veteran showed why the Nats have quite a few qualms about trading their all-star forward.

Witness the Nats 78-76 loss to the St. Louis Hawks, which still left Syracuse in first place in the Eastern Division with a 3-1 record.

While Schayes was fighting a losing one man cause, the Minneapolis Lakers took a 88-87 hard fought decision from Rochester and the New York Knickerbockers struck back in the second half to defeat Ft. Wayne 96-83.

For the Hawks a triumverate of scorers bested Schayes' single effort. Easy Ed Macauley, the new acquisition from the Boston Celtics led the Hawks with 20 points. Bob Pettit and rookie Willie Naulls contributed 19 and 17 points, respectively.

Crane Booters Drop 1st Game of Season

Cranbrook's soccer team suffered its 1st setback of the season Saturday at Pittsburgh, dropping a 2-1 decision to Shady Side Academy.

Dave Hughes scored both goals for Shady Side, which succeeded in stopping Cranbrook's Holm Sembach. Bruce McCaul booted the only goal for the Cranes in the 3rd period.

Cranbrook's record is now 6-1. It was the 10th win in 11 starts for Shady Side.

Spartans Regain 'Look' in Spanking Wisconsin

By BILL CORNWELL

EAST LANSING — Any resemblance between the Michigan State football team which lost to Illinois and the one which beat Wisconsin here Saturday is purely accidental.

The versatile Clarence Peaks was missing and several other regulars were nursing assorted injuries, but the Spartans showed no signs of ill effect as they raced to an easy 33-0 victory over the outclassed Badgers.

State won the decision pretty much as it pleased. The Badgers pentrated no deeper than the State 31 and coach Duffy Daugherty sent 45 players into the battle.

MSU made two touchdowns through the air, two on the ground and climaxed the afternoon with a 67-yard punt return by Dennis (The Menace) Mendyk.

Don Gilbert and Walt Kowalczyk, gradually rounding back into top form, scored over land. Pat Wilson passed to Tony Kolodziej and Jim Ninowski reached Harold Dukes for overhead touchdowns.

The Spartans enjoyed a 26-0 bulge at halftime. Mendyk's punt return ended the scoring, but except for an intercepted pass and a couple of fumbles they could have run the count much higher. Mike Panitch galloped 30 yards for a TD in the 4th quarter, only to have his effort nullified by a penalty.

State's tackling was sharp and its blocking crisp. In addition, the green-shirted Spartans had life, spirit and drive, absent qualities in the loss to Illinois.

Kolodziej, starting left end for MSU, was a tremendous performer both defensively and offensively. He was awarded the game ball in the dressing room.

Daugherty said after the game that the quick huddle was merely an experiment. He also expressed satisfaction with the squad's recovery from the Illinois setback and called Wisconsin a well-coached team. "I think our speed was the difference," he added.

Milt Bruhn, new head coach at Wisconsin, complimented the Spartans highly, but refused to compare them with Ohio State, which beat the Badgers the week before, 21-0.

"State's attack is more diversified," Bruhn said. "Ohio State is strictly a power ball club."

Track Closes Season

JACKSON — Jackson Raceway, one of the fastest growing race tracks in America dropped the curtain on the greatest season in its eight-year history Saturday Night.

A crowd of 5,194 witnessed the nine-race windup, enabling Plant West to finish with a record season wagering of $4,096,040.

The Saturday night handle was also a record high.

Cranes Rally to Tie, 13-13

Cranbrook rallied in the last quarter to gain a 13-13 tie with Shady Side Academy in an Inter-State League football game Saturday afternoon at Pittsburgh.

A two-yard plunge by Bob Waddell and Hank Bartholemew's run for the extra point brought the deadlock. It gives the Cranes a league record of one tie and three losses and an overall mark of 1-5-1.

The Cranes scored 1st in the opening quarter on a two-yard smash by Bartholemew. Bing Bowson went over from the 1 for Shady Side in the 2nd period to make it 6-6 at halftime.

Shady Side's Bryan Campbell dived across from one yard out and Dick Reiber booted the extra point, putting Cranbrook behind in the 3rd period, 13-6, to set the stage for the comeback.

Saturday's game concluded the Cranes' Inter-State schedule. They wind up their season Friday night at Fitzgerald.

Big Ten Point Parade in Tie

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten football scoring race for all games remained in a four-way tie over the weekend as the leaders all failed to do any scoring.

Locked with six touchdowns and 36 points each were Michigan's John Herrnstein, Illinois' Abe Woodson and Ohio State's Don Cark and Jim Roseboro.

Dennis Mendyk of Michigan State, meanwhile, moved into a challenging spot with his 5th touchdown of the season in Msu's 33-0 route of Wisconsin.

Illini Next for Wolverines

Iowa Unable to Crack 'M' Jinx

ANN ARBOR (AP)—One jinx continued, but now Michigan hopes to smash another.

As mystifying as the Wolverines' grip over Iowa is the influence Illinois holds over Michigan.

And meeting the Illini the week after Michigan's comeback 17-14 victory at Iowa causes little comfort to coach Bennie Oosterbaan and his valiant crew.

Last season, a comparable situation prevailed.

Michigan came from behind, as it had the two previous years, and downed the Hawkeyes with a last quarter flourish, 33-21.

Then along came the Illini a week later and upset Rose Bowl bound Michigan, 25-6, knocking it from the ranks of the unbeaten.

"Illinois has already scored its upset for this season when it beat Michigan State," is an argument bandied about often, but offers Oosterbaan no solace.

He is reminded of the fact that the fighting Illini defeated Michigan five times in the past six seasons.

And he knows a team that rose to heights one week can fall flat seven days later. His task is to keep the Wolverines at the same pitch they hit in the second half against the Hawkeyes.

Michigan made numerous early miscues and the Hawkeyes converted them into two second-quarter touchdowns to lead at halftime, 14-3.

For the second half Oosterbaan changed his tactics. Throughout the season he had employed the single wing as his basic method of attack. But on Michigan's two scoring drives of 69 and 80 yards, the T-formation was used almost exclusively.

Taking the third-quarter kickoff, Michigan rolled 69 yards to paydirt without yielding the ball. Third string right halfback Mike Shatusky came out of obscurity to score from the three-yard line, narrowing Iowa's margin to four points.

In the 4th quarter, with 10 minutes and 17 seconds remaining, the Wolverines launched their payoff drive from their 20. Using jarrin' John Herrnstein as a human battering ram for the most part, the Wolverines, led by Ricky Sutton, barged into the end zone with but a minute and six seconds left.

CLEAN DUAL RECORD — Birmingham's high school cross-country team Saturday wound up a successful season with a 5th place in the state meet. But the team's proudest boast is its dual meet record, 10-0, and MHSAA regional title. 3rd in the Albion invitational is the line mark for the team coached by Kermit Ambrose. Above are the 10 top runners: front, from left — Rich Riley (28th), Bob Benson (69th), co-capt. Lynn Beard (45th), co-capt. Tom Fontaine (44th), Dick Boyd (64th), Bill Landis (85th); back —, Gary [illegible] finish in state meet. Two EML trophies and the regional award are shown with the team.

No Bands, No Speeches
U. S. Olympic Athletes Leave Without Fanfare

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quietly and without fanfare the first group of U.S. Olympic Team athletes walked down a concourse at Los Angeles International Airport last night and boarded a plane for Australia.

No bands played. No speeches were made. The only attempt at ceremony was when a stewardess broke a bottle of champagne against the sleek hull of the Pan American airliner—and that was for a publicity picture.

Among the group of 64 were members of the canoeing and wrestling teams, Tug Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee and other officials.

At the airport a small knot of perhaps 25 friends and relatives visited with the athletes.

Six other flights, carrying the remainder of the 450 team members and officials are scheduled to leave Los Angeles before next Sunday.

The planes lay over some 30 hours in Honolulu before continuing on to Melbourne by way of the Fiji Islands.

Members of the track and field squad leave tonight and tomorrow. Rowing, weight-lifting and water polo squads leave Wednesday and shooting, boxing, cycling, gymnastic and some swimming team members take off Thursday.

Most of the swimmers and the yachting team leave Friday with the basketball and field hockey squads departing Sunday. The soccer team left more than a week ago for exhibition matches Down Under.

The games start Nov. 22 and the entire squad arrives back in Los Angeles Dec. 6 through 11.

Three State College Grid Teams Stay Unbeaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three of Michigan's four unbeaten college teams kept their football records intact over the weekend and two—Central Michigan and Hillsdale — wrapped up conference titles with decisive victories.

But Wayne State's knew-it-probably-wouldn't-last Tartars saw a four-game winning string snapped by Omaha 21-0, spoiling the longest Wayne victory record since the early 1930s.

Northern Michigan, with one tie, was the only other team without a defeat after its 54-20 trouncing of Mayville, N. D., Teachers. Northern's freshman quarterback, Tom Schwalbach, scored twice and passed for a third touchdown and also kicked five extra points.

Central Michigan made it 19 victories in a row and clinched sole possession of the IIAC crown by shutting out arch-rival Eastern Michigan 19-0 at Mt. Pleasant.

Senior halfback Jim Podoley of Central scored one touchdown and passed for another in his final home game to help strengthen the Chippewas' hopes of a bowl bid.

Hillsdale, another team where winning is a habit, put away its third MIAA championship and 24th victory in a row by trampling Adrian 61-12 at Hillsdale. Nate Clark made his season touchdown total 12 by scoring four times for the Dales, who have a total point edge of 291-50 in eight games.

Western Michigan appeared headed for the mid-American conference cellar after losing 27-0 to Ohio University.

University of Detroit went to Cincinnati for a 33-7 licking, its fourth loss in six games. Cincinnati broke for three touchdowns in the first half to quell the Titans, who had been rated slight underdogs.

Hope barely edged Albion 18-13 in an MIAA contest at Albion that left both schools with 3-4 records.

In another MIAA game, Kalamazoo—bouncing back from a 41-14 loss to Hillsdale—shut out Olivet 28-0 at Olivet.

Lansing Wins Harrier Title

Lansing Eastern's fine distance runners again ran off with the MHSAA Class A cross-country title Saturday at Ypsilanti, defending the crown they took from Pontiac's Chiefs a year ago, with a 69-point total. Eastern was almost half the total of Arthur Hill, in 2nd place with 128 (low total wins), despite the fact it did not have a runner in the first three finishers.

Two of the three were Oakland County boys, No. 1 Jerry Young of Berkley and No. 2 his teammate Fred Chappell, who beat out Chief's Roger Coats in the Thurston regional. Young was timed at 10:31, chappell at 10:32 and Tom Davis of Port Huron (3rd) at 10:42. Neither Berkley nor Port Huron entered a team.

Jackson was 3rd with 155, Flint Northern 4th with 179 and Birmingham's Maple 5th with 234. Others in order were Plymouth, 244; G. R. Creston, 247; Pontiac (8th), 266; Wyandotte, 278; G. R. Catholic CC, 279; Edsel Ford, 298; G. R. Central, Mt. Clemens, 346; Allen Park, 358; Royal Oak, 376; Hazel Park, 413; G. R. Union, 434 and Dearborn, 495.

Class B title went to Portage with 97. River Rouge with 102 was 2nd, Walled Lake 3rd with 213, Farmington 4th with 215. Rouge was the defending champion. Lansing Everett won the "C-D" title with 22 points.

Coats for Pontiac was 8th. Birmingham's 1st man was Rich Riley (28th). Larry Harris of OL St. Mary's, running alone for the Eaglets, was 12th in Class B.

Other Maple runners were 44th, 45th, 53rd, 64th, 69th, and 85th. PHS entries were, besides Coats, 47th, 65th, 68th, 78th, 101st, and 125th in the field of a record 138 harriers.

Buds Defend Pin Crown

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The St. Louis Budweisers will shortly square off against the 1956 ABC champion Chicago Falstaffs in a 24-game home-and-home match series in defense of their National bowling crown.

The Buds and the Falstaffs ended the National team elimination bowling tournament, held here over the weekend, in first and second place, respectively.

The Buds compiled a 12-game total of 11,635 against 11,607 for the Falstaffs.

The Meister Braus, of Chicago were third with 11,599 while Helin Tackle of Detroit, with 11,442, squeezed out the Buffalo Simon Pures, who had 11,440, for fifth place.

Forty-six teams competed in 24 lanes at the Amherst Bowling Center.

Langerman Retires From Coaching Job

A 10-year track and cross-country coaching chore has come to an end for Rollie Langerman, Walled Lake High School's successful mentor of its thinclads.

Langerman announced today that he was dropping all coaching duties as of now. His harriers Saturday finished 3rd in the state Class B meet at Ypsilanti. They previously won the Inter-Lakes title for the 4th time and the regional for the 3rd time.

Elevation to the WL assistant superintendent's post doesn't leave any time for other work, Langerman said. He received the advancement three weeks ago.

Langerman's successor as harrier coach will not be named until some time in the spring.

Bold Ruler to Run in Remsen Stakes

NEW YORK (AP) — Bold Ruler, whose claim for the 2-year-old championship was tarnished when he ran into another colt and finally finished 17th in the Garden State Stakes, will try to make amends tomorrow in the rich Remsen Stakes at Jamaica.

The 44th running of the $50,000-added affair for 2-year-olds is the Election Day special, and if as many as 10 start the purse will hit about $95,000 with the winner collecting some $60,000.

Coach With Live Wood

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — When Oklahoma Aggie football coach Cliff Speegle knocks on Wood, he has a purpose.

Three of his players are named Wood. There's Everett, Duane and Jim. Also on the team is an Underwood, Dwaine.

Campbell's Putter Wins Mexican Title

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A red hot putter, which produced two successive 35-foot putts, carried U. S. Walker Cup Captain Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., to the Mexican National Amateur golf championship.

The tall 33-year-old West Virginia insurance executive defeated Joe LeBlanc of Toronto, Canada, 9 and 8 in the final match yesterday over the par 72, 6,734-yard Campstre golf club course.

Campbell built up a six-hole lead over the first 18 holes as he turned in a medal score of 68 with his putter doing valiant work. Then on the 26th hole he dropped a 35-footer and followed it with one of the same length on the 27th.

Hollywood Park's spring thoroughbred racing meet of 55 days drew a daily average of 30,567.

PAY DIRT—Reserve halfback Mike Shatusky (14) manages to hit pay dirt for Michigan despite all the hangers-on in the final minute against Iowa Saturday. Shatusky scored from the two-yard line as the Wolverines took a 17-14 game from previously unbeaten Iowa.

St. Marys, Mikes, Freds All Lose

Eaglets' 19-Game Streak Halted

St. Michael's bid for 2nd place went awry by the narrowest of margins and Orchard Lake St. Mary saw its 19-game winning streak snapped in Suburban Catholic League football action Sunday afternoon.

St. Rita nipped the Mikes, 20-19, in a thriller at Hazel Park to thwart their hopes for runner-up honors. St. Benedict of Highland Park provided one of the year's major upsets by blanking the Eaglets, 13-0, at Orchard Lake.

Ferndale St. James scored once in each period to defeat St. Frederick, 25-14, in their SCL clash yesterday at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium.

St. Mike, turning in its finest performance of the season, overcame a 13-point deficit, only to see victory slip away on a missed conversion.

The Vikings barged into a 13-0 advantage before the Mikes could get rolling. In the 2nd quarter the Shamrocks marched 55 yards for their 1st touchdown with Chuck Brown going over from the five to make the score 13-6 at intermission.

Dan Dropps galloped 35 yards for a TD in the 3rd period and his pass to Ken Rogers for the extra point tied the count.

St. Rita bounced back on the last play of the 3rd quarter to post its winning margin. The Mikes drove 65 yards in the 4th period with Dropps hitting paydirt from the seven, but a muffed pass for the conversion spelled defeat.

Orchard Lake St. Mary, with its 2nd straight SCL title already assured, could never get moving against the inspired Ravens.

The Eaglets reached the St. Ben seven in the 2nd quarter and the enemy 21 in the final stanza, but lost possession of the ball on downs in each instance. It was their first setback in the last 20 decisions.

A pass covering 14 yards from Art Massucci to Art Clark accounted for St. Ben's first touchdown in the 3rd quarter. Massucci dashed seven yards for the Ravens' second counter in the final period.

St. James led all the way in extending St. Fred's winless string to 33 games. Ed Tunnicliff scored twice for the Dales, who held a 13-7 edge at halftime.

Tom Derocher's four-yard run in the 2nd period and a 65-yard aerial from Dick Kast to Derocher in the 4th session brought St. Fred its two touchdowns. Mike Malloy kicked both extra points for the Rams.

From Fan to Rookie

DETROIT (AP)—On a 1950 Dallas visit by the Detroit Lions, a young fan got a job as helper to the club's equipment man. Six years later, the youngster is one of the top rookies for the Lions. He is Don McIlhenny, the club's third draft choice from Southern Methodist.

Unbeaten Ranks Thinner

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The ranks of the unbeaten, untied college football teams were thinned to 25 today with seventh-ranked Iowa, beaten by Michigan 17-14 Saturday, the most notable absentee.

The major college unbeaten list stands of five, led by Oklahoma which made it 36 straight with a 27-19 win over Colorado. Tennessee, Princeton, Georgia Tech, and Wyoming are the others.

Among the minor grid powers on the Michigan scene, Wayne fell to Omaha, 21-0, after four straight wins.

Mariles Takes National Award

Mexican General Wins 2 Events in Garden's Weekend Trials

NEW YORK (AP) — Brig. Gen. Humberto Mariles and his mount, Chihuahua II, are threatening to make the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden a Mexican spectacular.

Gen. Mariles scored two victories for the Mexican equestrian team yesterday, giving the South of the Border competitors their fourth success. He has won three events himself.

Riding his 8-year-old chestnut gelding, Gen. Mariles captured the Pennsylvania National Trophy Event for the second consecutive year, and added the $1,000 International jumping stake.

In the Pennsylvania event, the general bested two other riders who completed the nine-jump course without a fault with a best time of 34.1 seconds. In the International stake, he again had to go into a jump-off to beat two competitors after they had tied on the 12-jump course. His time for the shortened seven-jump test was 30.9 seconds.

Series Drew 345,903

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1956 World Series attracted a total of 345,903 paid admissions. The largest crowd was 73,977 for the Saturday game in Yankee Stadium. The best previous one-day Series crowd was 78,102 at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium for the fourth and final game against the New York Giants, Oct. 2, 1954.

Brooklyn May Invite 2 Japs to Spring Camp

OSAKA, Japan (AP) — Fresco Thompson, vice president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said today the National League champions are "thinking of inviting two Japanese players to the United States to attend our spring training."

He said the final decision might be postponed until the Dodgers return home.

"It would not necessarily mean we were interested in those players," he added. "But we are looking for a way to repay all of the good will we have experienced in Japan and I think it might benefit Japanese baseball if some players could attend our training camp, where we stress fundamentals instead of conditioning, as they do here.

Unbeatable Prep 11

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP)—Winning is still an unbreakable habit for Massena High School's football team.

Its 40-14 victory over Canton Central Saturday completed the school's seventh consecutive season without a loss.

Massena last was beaten in football in October, 1949. In 54 games since, it shows a record of 53 victories and one tie.

Olympic Torch Changes Route Because of War

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Olympic torch was scheduled to fly over the strife-torn Middle East today at the start of a symbolic journey from Mt. Olympus in Greece to Melbourne.

Qantas Airlines said here one of its planes was to pick up the flame from Greek runners at Athens, transfer it to a miner's lamp, and head toward Darwin, Australia.

Instead of making a stop at Cairo, the plane will stop at Istanbul, Karachi, Calcutta, Bangkok and Singapore.

The Royal Australian Air Force takes over at Darwin, flying the flame to Cairns. From there runners will relay it 2,750 miles, arriving at Melbourne Cricket Grounds Nov. 22 for the Olympic Games' opening ceremonies.

Bethea Encounters Turner in TV Bout

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wayne Bethea, young New York heavyweight who has beaten Ezzard Charles and Jimmy Slade and stopped Jamaica's Joe Bygraves in recent bouts, takes on Howie Turner, another newcomer, in tonight's 10-round match at St. Nicholas Arena in New York.

Turner will be making his first main event start after 21 prelim outings just as Bethea graduated from the undercard ranks about a year ago. Bethea has won six straight in his career record of 12-4-2. Turner's record is 17-1-3.

The match will be carried on television, Dumont, at 10:30 EST in some sections of the county.

Fists Fly in NHL Battles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If finesse won't do it, maybe fight will get the Boston Bruins into contention and the Montreal Canadiens back to last year's runaway form in the National Hockey League.

There was as much fighting as fine hockey last night, the two scheduled games producing a total of 40 penalties, eleven of them majors for fisticuffs. When they were over, the Bruins and the re-awakening defending champion Canadiens were tied for third place in the standings, only a point behind runnerup Toronto and three back of Detroit.

Twenty-four penalties, including three majors, turned up as the Canadiens edged the Chicago Black Hawks, 1-0, their second consecutive white-washing of the Hawks and goalie Jacques Plante's fourth of the season. There were only 16 calls, but half of them majors, at Boston Garden where the Bruins defeated the New York Rangers, 4-1.

Henri Richard scored the Montreal goal against Chicago in a game called one of the wildest in Chicago in many years. Sixteen of the 24 penalties came in the first period. Goalie Al Rollins of the Hawks, who made 37 saves during the night, drew two penalties himself, one for slashing and one for fighting.

* * *

Three goals in the third period gave the Bruins their victory over New York after the Rangers had tied the score at 1-1 on Guy Gendron's goal during the third minute of the session. Jerry Toppazzini scored twice but the tie-breaker came from Johnny Peirson.

Dire Warning Given U.S. Track and Field Team

WITH OLYMPICS

MELBOURNE (AP) — John Winter, Australia's high-jump gold medalist in the 1948 Olympic Games in London, today warned American track and field competitors to gear themselves for disappointing performances because of their late arrival here for training.

"For the best effort, an athlete should be here at least a month in advance," Winter said.

"I recall my first trip to London was so exhausting that I was completely woozy the first two weeks. This trip from America is equally long and exhausting, and athletes need time to adjust."

This dire warning was aired earlier by Hans Stamfl, famed mile coach, who has repeatedly suggested a longer period for acclimatization and adjustment.

15 Marlin Boated

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP)—The third annual Puerto Rican Invitational Gamefish Tournament was the most successful. Fifteen marlin and two sailfish were boated. In 1955 only three marlin were boated.

On the final day, with 35 game fishermen in action, only one sailfish was caught. But a 12-year-old boy from nearby Santurce boated a blue marlin weighing 141½ ponnds. He got it on 15-thread line.

Expect High Per Cent of Voters at Polls Tomorrow

Area Clerks Note Record in Absentee Ballots Asked

Community clerks are expecting to see high percentages of their registered voter lists going to the polls tomorrow, they base their predictions on higher than average requests for absentee ballots and close-to-complete return on those ballots.

Population growth is bringing up the total of voters in most areas. Voting goes on from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Keego Harbor

There are 1390 registered voters in the city for the coming election, according to Marjorie Billingsley, deputy clerk.

Three voting machines will be used on election day, with one voting precinct for the area, at the Roosevelt school. In past years there have been two.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Rochester

Avon Township Clerk, Frances O. Covert announced Saturday night that she has issued 231 absentee ballots for the National Election.

Voting will be held at Precinct No. 1, Avon Township Hall. No. 2 Rochester Village Firehall, East Fifth Street. No. 3, Brooklands, East Auburn. No. 4, Avon Township Library, Community Room. West Fifth Street. No. 5, Township Community Hall, West Auburn. No. 6, South West, Community Hall, 1½ blocks west of Adams, on Auburn Road.

Commerce Township

A record turnout appears almost a certainty here for township rolls now show a total of more than 5,200 qualified electors as compared to about 3,800 for the 1952 presidential election. The increase of 1,400 reflects the population growth within the township in the past four years.

Township Clerk Earl V. Garner has already received 94 absentee ballots.

Four precincts within the township, all equipped with voting machines are:

Preincinct No. 1—Commerce Fire Hall, 583 West Commerce Rd.; No. 2—Wixom School, Common road, Wixom; No. 3—Commerce Township Office, 2840 Fisher Ave.; No. 4—Union Lake School, 8289 Commerce Rd. near Union Lake road.

Lake Orion

Citizens of Orion Township are mindful of reasons that might be offered for not voting.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 137 have made plans to act as baby sitters for anyone who wants to use their services while voting. Call Leon Gaylor.

Both the Democratic and Republican Parties are willing to furnish transportation. The Republican numbers are MY 3-2843 or MY 3-5311; Democrats, MY 2-1102.

Four precincts are: Two at the Township Hall, one at the Village Hall, and one at the Gingellville Fire Hall.

About 100 have secured absentee ballots, and total registration in the township is 4,931.

Orchard Lake

Frank Hallett, township clerk of West Bloomfield, reminds registered voters of their precinct locations:

Princinct No. 1 is at the Township Hall, 4660 Orchard Lake Rd.; No. 2, at Twin Beach School; No. 3, Sylvan Realty Co. Office; 4, Green Lake fire Hall; No. 5, Youth Center Building; No. 6, Orchard Lake Village Hall; and No. 7, Walnut Lake Fire Hall.

Troy

With 6,490 registered to vote, City Clerk Lawson Lockart says he expects a very heavy vote, because of the 190 absentee ballots issues higher than normal. Over half have been returned, he says.

There will be four precincts voting.

Troy Township

In Troy Township, there are 32 registered voters, of which three residents asked for absentee ballots.

Waterford Township

With population growth expected to bring a record number of voters to the polls tomorrow, those wanting to cast their ballot are being offered special aids.

A group of civic-minded citizens will provide taxi service to the polls, while Girl scouts are offering baby sitting work. The Williams Lake Girl Scouts will also be serving coffee and doughnuts under the auspices of the PTA, besides staffing the nursery

Milford

Girl Scout Troop 220 and Troop 14 are all set to extend a baby-sitting service while parents vote, tomorrow.

An adult leader will be supervising the girls at all times, at the Presbyterian Church, which is only two doors away from the voting polls.

In the event a baby-sitter is required, at home, residents are asked to call Mutual 4-3401 and Girl Scouts will go to the home, in town. The "Aides to Voters" service will run from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Milford.

Walled Lake

To aid the voters on Election Day, Girl Scouts here are telling mothers to bring their youngsters to the Civic Club directly across the street from the voting precinct. Fourteen Scouts will tend them while the mothers vote.

The nursery opens at 8 a.m. and will go until 3 p.m. Then, in the Methodist Church, the group will offer their service until the polls close.

McVITTIE SCHOOL IS DEDICATED — Mrs. Walter Forbes, McVittie's first PTA president, and Warren McVittie inspect a book from the school's library. The library is located in the lobby, using portable book shelves which can be rolled from room to room. The school was named for the late Kenneth and Effie McVittie who pioneered in Waterford educational and civic organization.

Ceremony at Waterford

Dedicate 4th School

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Nearly 200 spectators witnessed the dedication of McVittie School, fourth elementary school in this district to be completed this year.

Kenneth and Warren McVittie, with their wives, were present as Thursday's ceremonies honored their parents, the late Kenneth and Effie McVittie for whom the school was named.

Mrs. Ina Kent, principal of the new school, outlined briefly the activities of the elder McVitties which placed them in a position of educational prominence in the community.

Mrs. Virginia Palmer, PTA vice-president, spoke for the teachers and expressed their appreciation of the school as a symbol of all that is modern in education.

Supt. William A. Shunck introduced members of the Board of Education and Rev. J. E. Taulbee of the First Baptist Church gave the invocation which opened the program and the benediction which closed it. Mrs. Walter Forbes, McVittie PTA's first president, presided during the ceremonies.

Kirby Milleur and his orchestra provided music for the square dancing which capped the evening's activities.

McVittie School is a $250,000, twelve-room structure situated on a six-acre site. Like Leggett, Burt and Monteith Schools, it is a one-story brick with inside walls of fine textured sintered clay blocks. The rooms have acoustic ceilings with exposed laminated wood beams. The floors are asphalt tile and the corridors have cement enameled wainscoting.

Petitions Due Today for Placing on Ballot for December 3

SOUTHFIELD — Today at 4 p.m. is the deadline for candidates to file petitions for mayor and seven councilmen to serve this community if a city charter is adopted at the Dec. 3 election.

Township Clerk Fannie Adams said this morning that to date five candidates have filed petitions for councilman: Theodore Sura, N. Fred Crona Jr., Hugh G. Allerton Jr., Edward Stark, and H. Luther Wagner.

Filing for justice of the peace are Township Justice Edward A. Elsarelli and Alan N. Bolock.

No one has filed for mayor yet, she says, but she expects Howard Coleman, Township Trustee Don L. Swanson, and Township Supervisor Eugene Swem to file petitions sometime today.

Irate Citizens Seek Culprit Who Shot Pet

INDIANWOOD LAKE—Members of the Indianwood Improvement Assn. have offered a $100 reward leading to the conviction of the person or persons who trapped and wounded one of their pet geese on the lake here.

The goose, found floundering at the water's edge, had a muskrat trap on his foot and had been shot. He is one of the many fed and sheltered at the posted area by citizens of this Orion Township community.

The association has asked that anyone with information call MYrtle 2-5141 or 2-0621.

WATERFORD — With a special prayer meeting at 7:30 p.m. today at the Waterford Community Church, the Sunday School visitations will be postponed until next Monday.

Ike's Speech Tonight Last Bid for Votes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower readied his final brief appeal to the voters today while grappling with acute world problems centering in battle-inflamed Hungary and Egypt.

His campaign for re-election comes to an end less than 36 hours after he announced he had sent an "urgent message" to Soviet Premier Bulganin calling for:

"1. Withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary.

"2. Achieving for Hungary its own right of self-determination in the choice of its own government."

He plans to make his election eve talk — a five to six minute one — in the course of a coast-to-coast television broadcast on the three major networks.

Time: 11 p.m., EST.

Earlier in the evening Eisenhower will make a closed circuit telecast to Boston, where he had planned to speak tonight before the foreign policy crisis arose.

OES to Plan Bazaar

CLARKSTON — Fancy work, white elephants, and baked goods will follow a luncheon at the annual bazaar being planned for Saturday by the Joseph C. Bird Chapter No. 294, OES. The luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and a card party will begin at 8 p.m. wth refreshments included.

A regular meeting of the OES chapter will be at 8 p.m. tonight at the Masonic Temple.

Seniors to Stage Comic Play in Ortonville

Vote Shows Walled Lake Kids 'Like Ike'

WALLED LAKE — Seventh and ninth graders at Walled Lake Junior High School like Ike.

At a mock election Friday they cast 515 votes for President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon. Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver received 280 votes.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams received 390 votes in a tight contest with Albert E. Cobo. Cobo got 72 votes.

Eighth graders will vote Tuesday.

Plan Sewers at Clarkston

Drain Commissioners to Meet on Wednesday in Township Hall

CLARKSTON—A long-range plan that may bring sewers to this village and other areas of Independence Township is in formative stages, according to Township Supervisor Floyd Andrews.

He announces that the Oakland County Drain Commission will meet in the Township Hall Wednesday at 8 p.m. to take initial steps in the planning.

The township board met with the drain commission last Wednesday, but this week's special session was not called until last night, when Drain Commissioner Ralph Main cleared the meeting date.

The township is without sewage lines except for those through the village's business area laid during expansion of Ford plants some years ago.

Plans to tie the Independence area into the planned mains through Waterford Township were discussed at last week's session, Andrews says.

Evangelist, Wife to Start Series in Waterford

WATERFORD — Evangelist and Mrs. Walter Yeager, known as the "Harmony Notes" will be at the Waterford Community Church each evening at 7:30 p.m. beginning Tuesday and continuing through Nov. 10.

The couple will present a variety of special musical selections before the gospel message.

The church council has extended an invitation to the meetings to the public. Charles Jehle is head of the council.

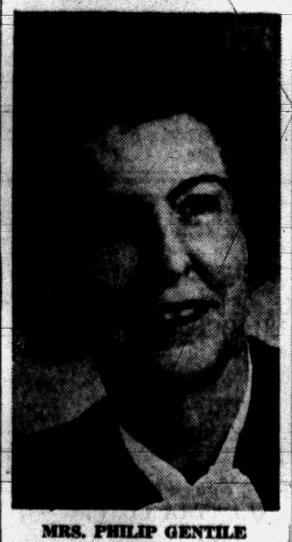

1st Classes Moving to Webber School

LAKE ORION—The first through fourth grade students, now in Webber Elementary School's older unit were moved this morning into the new four-room unit at Webber.

Later this week, students from first through redistricted areas of Blanche Sims School, the sixth grade now in the Baptist Church in Lake Orion, and the kindergarten now in the Community Bible Church, will join them at Webber school.

All-Day Work Session

ORTONVILLE — Christian Crusaders of the Baptist Church will work on cancer pads during their all-day session Tuesday at Mrs. Glenn Wandeworker's South street home. Roll call will be at 10:30 a.m., with members bringing their own luncheons for noon.

MRS. PHILIP GENTILE

Guest speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the WSCS of St. Paul's Methodist Church will be Mrs. Philip Gentile of Detroit. The meeting, open to the public, will be held in the Church Sanctuary at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Gentile is an official observer in the United Nations for the National Council of [illegible] Women's organizations of other churches have been invited. Tea will be served.

Easy Victory Seen for Ike

House, Senate Race Could Go Either Way, Say Political Experts

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—If some of the country's best qualified political observers are correct, President Eisenhower should get four times as many electoral votes as Adlai Stevenson, but the battle for Congress could go either way.

Those results were subject, of course, to possible error and last-minute shifts of voter sentiment.

A check among political observers, writers and party leaders in the 48 states showed they consider Eisenhower ahead in 32 states with a combined Electoral College vote of 322, Stevenson ahead in 8 states with 82 votes altogether, and 8 states doubtful with 127.

Of the 8 doubtful states, 5 were indicated as leaning toward Eisenhower with a combined vote of 98. One was inclined toward Stevenson with 13. The 2 others, with a total vote of 16, were left in the air by conflicting claims and judgments.

In 1952 Eisenhower defeated Stevenson by 442 to 89.

Reports to the Associated Press indicated Democratic state tickets were expected to fare better than the party's national slate. Even so, a possibility was seen that congressional races might be so close as to require a day or so to determine finally which party will control Congress.

The Democrats do now, 49-47 in the Senate and 230-201 in the House with four vacancies.

Union Lake Aides to Install Staff

UNION LAKE—The Ladies Auxiliary of the Union Lake Fire Department will install officers Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James Sander of Cooley Lake Rd.

Hollywood Headlines

Ethel Barrymore Denies Rumors She Had a Stroke

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Alfred Hitchcock as star of "The Carving Set." This brilliant idea belongs to those daring young men, Clarence Green and Russel Rouse, who are negotiating with Hitch, the topper of mystery directors, to act in this off-beat horror yarn by James Edmiston.

The boys tell me if they get Hitch, they'll go after Susan Hayward for the top feminine role, and then try to find an unknown beauty for the second woman's part. The director? They've set Winston Jones, who did their "Unidentified Flying Objects." You wanna bet there will be unidentified flying objects all over the set if he starts directing Hitch in a way he doesn't want to go?

Rumors out of New York that Ethel Barrymore suffered a stroke, are utterly false. Actually, this magnificent matriarch is busier than she's been in months. Not only is she going to play herself on TV's "Playhouse 90" presentation of "Eloise" Nov. 22, but she also is working on "World of Her Own," a United Artists film.

Don't miss "Eloise." Kay Thompson, who wrote this hilarious book, is composing its TV music score. Besides Ethel, Monty Woolley and Conrad Hilton also play themselves, plus Louis Jourdan supplying appeal. Among such scene stealers, feel sorry for small Evelyn Rudie battling it out in the title role.

The John Kellys of Philadelphia went to see Ethel Merman in "Happy Hunting" when this spoof on a Philadelphia dowager hunting a royal husband for her blonde daughter, opened last week. They definitely were not amused. Princess Grace's pa and ma are not impersonated in the show, but mentioned by name they surely are, again and again.

Grace, herself, sails back to Monaco Wednesday with Prince Rainier. The romantic touch is that she deliberately chose to go on the same ship, the S.S. Constitution, on which she sailed originally toward her wedding. There is no doubt in the minds of any of her friends that Grace is deeply happy.

Last thing John Wayne did before leaving for Rome this weekend was to sign Vicki Duggan, a New York model, whose only film experience was a bit with Anita Ekberg in "Back to Eternity." Since John has Anita under a similar contract with his firm, Batjac, and whispers have it that she has been getting just a mite difficult, could it be that smart Wayne thought a beautiful blonde threat around the place might be effective?

Anita and her bridegroom, Anthony Steel, who sailed from London Friday, will be on the Steve Allen show Sunday.

Snapshots of Hollywood-collected at random: When Vice President Nixon and his wife entered swank Perino's Restaurant Thursday evening, the entire room stood up and applauded. Naturally the VP and Mrs. VP like it.

Susan Harrison, the unknown signed for the lead in "Sweet Smell of Success," has kept it unknown that three months ago she married Andre Phillippe, nightclub singer.

Producer Sam Briskin is a grandfather. His son, Bernie, and his wife welcomed a baby daughter.

Jennifer Jones and David Selznick, with tiny Mary Jennifer, will have a white Christmas in Switzerland before David goes to Italy to start "A Farewell to Arms."

Marge and Gower Champion, who expect their first baby by Thanksgiving, are working out "Dance of the Expectant Father" for their nightclub act, starting the first of the year.

HORNING INTO THE CONTEST — "Miss Tennessee" at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, may be this sad-eyed, gentle cow, held by student Jane Bailey, of Chattanooga. "Deborah Bovine" was put up for election by the Gung Ho party, representing unaffiliated fraternities and sororities. Deborah has measurements of 50-73-60, without a doubt record-breaking for any Miss Tennessee candidate.

Will Drop 'Glea Girls' to Show More Jackie

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"A wife," according to humorist Tex O'Rourke, "is a thing of beauty and a joy for a short time" . . . Jackie Gleason's been goaded to give audiences more Jackie Gleason so he's soon dropping his 16 $150-a-week "Glea Girls." The June Taylor Girls including Marilyn Taylor will continue beautifying the show, but now Jackie'll be on stage oftener . . . Hope Hampton, the Duchess of Park Av., has 18 diamond bracelets, but never wears more'n three, as she doesn't want to appear showoffy.

Congratulations to crooner Mel Torme, who as we wrote this was about to become the bridegroom of Arlene Miles, the Hollywood starlet. Mel, you remember, used to be married to Candy Toxton, now Mrs. Hal March . . .

MEL TORME

Myron T. Kirk rescinded his resignation from the agency where he was so long "Mr. Television" through his hiring of Milton Berle, Jackie Gleason, Sir Caesar, "Marvin Kane, Private Eve," etc. He wanted to retire—although only in his middle 50s—but the brass there die 50s—but the brass there persuaded him to stay on as executive vice president. 'Twas he who engineer the famous $11,000,000 deal with Gleason for Buick—a "river rat" from Wheeling, W. Va., who grew rich in the Big City.

"The way to set a new sprint record," says Harry Hershfield, "would be for an Arab to run down Delancey Street" . . . Dick Rodgers says rock 'n' roll helps legit composers because the public's rushing to buy music that's even "faintly melodic" . . . Edgar Bergen was original and funny when he referred to the outdoor powder rooms down on the farm as "isolation booths."

They're telling about a faithless wife who hid her boy friend in the shower when her husband came home. The suspicious husband ripped back the shower curtain and caught the boy friend who rose to the emergency by shouting, "Close the curtain of this booth. Nobody's going to interfere with my voting!"

South Bend and back: We are now great admirers of Notre Dame spirit. I found nobody trying to get young coach Terry Brennan's neck even though we saw the Irish lose to Oklahoma, 40 to 0. One woman wismissed the recent defeats with, "It was getting so monotonous, seeing Notre Dame win every game!" The Committee of 100, busily bringing new industries into South Bend, promised that next year's team will be better, but it wasn't worried.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Dorothy Lamour, visiting the Stork Club, couldn't find out what happened to her old friend maitre d' Jack Spooner . . . so she phoned Edgar Hoover's FBI offices and found Jack's now at a rival club. She went over and had a long reminiscent talk with Jack.

"Auntie Mame" in book form has been barred in Detroit by police, but Atty. Mannie Robbins, who's asked for reconsideration, finds her not even naughty . . . Dawn Addams, very low-cut, had eyes a-poppin' at Sardis. Her spouse, titled Vittorio Massino, was there, too.

DAWN

Down in Texas Zsa Zsa, personal-appearing, is asked "Who's your favorite husband?"—and she always replies. "All of them" . . . Farouk and Narriman are talking in soft tones about reconciling for the sake of the baby.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

Arriving at a banquet, I was addressed by a fellow who said very sharply: "Walk slowly." I demanded. "Why? And he said, "So you can miss the speeches."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "We left the party because the corkscrew got too oht to use."—Joey Adams.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A husband's a man who, when his wife apologizes for wearing a mudpack last night, says, "Why did you take it off? You looked so much better in it."

J. H. Newmark of Miami Beach insists that his grandchildren were overheard discussing babies. "Where do you get one?" asked the 5-year-old and the six-year-old said, "You look in the Yellow Pages" . . . That's earl, brother.

Actress Massey Has Police Brush During Picketing

WASHINGTON (INS) — Hungarian-born actress Ilona Massey brushed with Washington police last night while leading a candle-carrying picket line protesting Russian invasion of her native country.

Police explained they tried to break up the picketing on grounds that it was blocking traffic in front of the embassy on Washington's busy 16th Street. The picketing climaxed a freedom rally sponsored by the "Foundation for Religious Action in the Social and Civil Order."

Miss Massey, in private life Mrs. Donald S. Dawson, protested to police that they were interfering with civil liberties but the pickets dispersed after some argument.

The rally was addressed by clergymen, union representatives and former officials of countries now behind the Iron Curtain.

Among the 233 artists exhibiting will be George Phillips, 857 Tyrone St., with a photograph and Richard C. Royal, 623 Valencia Dr., with an oil painting, "Memories of Blue."

Winners of some 28 prizes totaling more than $3,500 will be announced at a banquet for the artists preceding the 8:30 opening. The exhibition will continue through Dec. 23.

Bartender Injured in Tavern Holdup

LINCOLN PARK, Mich. (INS)—Three men who robbed a Lincoln Park bar of $15,000 after beating a bartender and threatening the co-owner and two other employes being sought by police today.

The bartender, Roy W. Schlick, 51, of Detroit, was in Wyandotte General Hospital with three fractured ribs and facial injuries suffered yesterday when one of the thugs beat him when he disobeyd directions.

Police said the three men, one shortly before closing time and anshortly bfore closing tim and announced a holdup after all the other customers had left.

The co-owner, O. J. Barson, 40, of Detroit, and two employes were bound with bar rags and placed behind the bar.

Painters to Stripe New Parking Lots

Marking lines at Pontiac's three new parking lots will be painted tomorrow, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, said.

They will be painted so the meter will be in front of the driver instead of in the center of the car, Vanderstempel said.

This is to help the driver read the meter easier, he said.

Grains Advance in Fast Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains scored a fair mixed advance in active dealings on the board of trade today, all cereals joining in the upturn.

The market opened with fractional gains, eased a little and then came back to above opening levels. On this rally wheat and soybeans were in the vanguard. Brokers said the buying came mostly from local traders.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅛ to 1½ higher, December $2.35⅛; corn ¾ to 1 cent higher, December $1.38⅜; oats ⅝ to ¾ higher, December 79⅛, rye 1¼ to 2 cents higher, December $1.57½; soybeans 1¾ to 2¼ higher, November $2.47¾, and lard 18 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher November $11.70.

One reason for the markets' early firmness brokers reasoned, was the improved technical situation as a result of the fairly steep sell-off Friday.

Voter's Creed Printed Again as Top Essay

The following was written by Ralph Bushnell Potts, prize-winner in a contest conducted by the Committee of American Citizenship of the American Bar Association and is being reprinted:

"BLOOD ON MY BALLOT"
By RALPH BUSHNELL POTTS

The blood of free men stains my ballot sheet. Whatever others may do, I shall not carelessly make my mark. I vote not because I can but because I must. Those that die for this, my voice in government, had a right to expect that I would prepare with every faculty to use it wisely, honestly and courageously. They did not die that fools, blind partisans or the reckless might make a game of free elections.

Only my secret heart knows whether I justify the definition of "voter" as they wrote it in the reddening sand. If I love my country as they did, I question my qualifications again and again. I certainly study the issues and candidates to determine what is best, not for me or my minority but for my country.

I will not be confused or deceived by propaganda, slogans or histrionics. I shield my eyes to the glitter of personalities, purge my mind of passion and prejudice and search diligently for the hidden truth. I must be free of all influences save that of conscience and justice. I garden for dreams, but wth a realistic spade.

My test is not of trend or popularity, but of principle and liberty. I vote as if my ballot alone decided the contest. I may lose my preference, but I will not throw away my sacred vote. For within the booth I hold in my humble hand the living proxy of all my country's honored dead.

Amen!

9 Die in State Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nine persons, two of them elderly pedestrians, were killed in Michigan traffic accidents during the weekend.

The toll, from 6 p.m. Friday till midnight Sunday, was one of the lowest of recent months.

Fog which spread through the state cut down visibility and was blamed for a number of minor accidents. But State Police said the death count probably was held down because fog slowed motorists.

The dead:

Wallace St. Onge, 24, of Marquette.

Harold Doty, 79, of Davisburg.

Robert E. Gottleber, 20, of Bay City.

Mrs. Allie M. Mitchell, 72, of Ortonville.

Joseph G. Sofko, 40, of Detroit.

Jeffrey M. Mathieu, 2, of Bear Lake.

[illegible], 78, of Calumet

Browns: Grade A extra large 46-50; large 39½-45; medium 26-30½; small 24.

Comment: Market unsettled. Trade continues flow. Large area in moderate supply but ample and very nervous due partly to anticipated heavier supplies. Heavy supplies of medium are accumulating and discounted to clear. Smalls in light supply but demand is irregular.

Adlai to Visit New Grandson

Will Close Campaign in Boston Where Baby Was Born Sunday

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson brings his second campaign for the presidency to a close today with Boston as his last stop and Eisenhower administration foreign policy his major target.

His decision to ring down the curtain in Boston tonight was dictated by the arrival of a 9-pound, 7-ounce grandson yesterday in Lying-In Hospital in Boston.

After visiting his son Adlai Jr., Adlai's wife Nancy, and the new baby, Stevenson will remain in Boston for a nationwide telecast originally planned for Chicago in which he and other Democrats will make their election eve appeals to the voters.

Time: 10 p.m. EST.

Stevenson's latest foreign policy move came yesterday in the form of a telegram to President Eisenhower urging him to take the lead in flying United Nations observers into Hungary and other satellites under attack or threatened by Soviet Russia.

Democrats gave Stevenson a rousing reception Saturday night when a police-estimated crowd of 250,000 spectators turned out for a parade down Madison Street to the Chicago Stadium, in which more than 19,000 partisans cheered his last major rally.

Sunday was a busy day, starting with the telegram to Eisenhower, a visit to a newly organized Unitarian church in Lake Forest and a telephone call from Adlai Jr., from the bedside in the Boston hospital.

Immediately, Stevenson acclaimed the event with a statement:

"I am elated to join all the grandparents. There could be only one other end of the campaign that could please me half as much.

"I hope this child will make its parents as happy as my boys have made me. And I pray that this baby may live to see a greater America and a more peaceful world."

Stevenson will fly back from Boston late tomorrow night — after the telecast — and cast his own vote in the Halfday precinct near his Libertyville home.

Ike, Suez Truce Push Stocks Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied and turnover was heavy early this afternoon.

International oils erased early losses and made sharp gains as news came of the cease-fire in the Port Said area.

The market had been rising before that after a mixed opening. Brokers said new reports of booming prospects for the steel industry and high confidence in Wall Street that President Eisenhower will be returned to office in tomorrow's election stimulated buying.

Leading issues advanced from fractions to around a point in most major divisions.

Oils with heavy holdings in the Middle East were losers in early trading because of the cloudy military picture. Domestic oils were improving on prospects of heavier demand. But news of the Suez cease-fire sparred Royal Dutch and Gulf Oil up three points or more in active trading. Later they eased keeping more than two points of thir gains.

4-POINT GAIN

Amerada, a big domestic producer, went ahead nearly four points.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem charged ahead a point or more, even though both stocks were selling ex-dividend. Lukens Steel added well over two points. Republic Steel and Youngstown gained fractions.

General Motors and Chrysler were up a point or so. Ford rose a fraction.

As oils advanced, Sinclair added around two, Texaco about a point despite being ex-dividend and Standard Oil (New Jersey) a major fraction.

2 in County Shot Over Weekend

Two county residents suffered minor gun wounds in accidental shootings in White Lake Township over the weekend.

Richard Bare, 21, of Walled Lake received a fractured left leg when he accidentally discharged his shotgun.

Emil E. Zieblo, 23, of Hazel Park had cuts and bruises on the right leg after firing his revolver before getting it out of a holster.

Bare is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital. He told State Police he was putting his shotgun in the trunk of his car when it went off shattering his leg. He had been hunting.

Sheriff's deputies reported Zieblo was hurt Sunday during a target-shooting session in a gravel pit at 983 Union Lake Rd. He was treated for the wound at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Investigators said Zieblo was drawing his pistol "cowboy style" when it caught in the holster and went off.

Ypsilanti Firm Sold to Detroit Corporation

DETROIT (INS)—The L. A. Young Spring and Wire Corp., of Detroit, announced yesterday the purchase of the assets of Extruded Hinge Co., of Ypsilanti, Mich.

Sale price was approximately $600,000.

L. A. Young President N. D. Ely said the newly-acquired facility is one of three in the nation equipped with special machinery for fabrication of continuous hinge and hinge-type connector sections for military aircraft and missiles.

Repair Cemetery

KEELER (AP)—Volunteer firemen of this Van Buren County community and a group of Benton Harbor monument firm employes have repaired damages left last summer by vandals who toppled or shattered more than 100 memorials in Keeler Cemetery. Police estimated damages at upward of $50,000.

More Miners Rescued Today

Fifty-Two, Feared Dead, Saved by Rescuers From Mile Under

Fifty-two more miners, long feared dead in the Springhill, Nova Scotia mine disaster Thursday were rescued today, three and a half days after an explosion trapped them more than a mile underground in the Cumberland No. 4 Mine.

Thirty-six others were rescued from the mine Saturday leaving an estimated 38 dead in the explosion — 13 miners and rescue workers killed on or near the surface and 25 believed still entombed.

A local woman, Mrs. Reynolds Glover, 29 Myra, formerly of Springhill, N. S. has three uncles and several cousins who work in the mine. A call to the town Saturday night assured her and her father, Joseph Fagan, of Detroit of their safety.

Her father, was a worker in the Cumberland No. 4 mine for 20 years and Mrs. Glover said he was involved in six accidents in the mine over the 20 year span.

Survivors, in good condition though weak, described their efforts for survival. They punched holes in compressed air pipes and sucked the air through their mouths to avoid breathing the poisonous coal gas.

Two Receive Injuries in Local Car Accident

Two persons received minor injuries in a two-car accident at Opdyke and Mt. Clemens Streets in Pontiac Township Saturday night.

William O. Buchanan, 34, of 128 W. Brooklyn Ave., one of the drivers, and Gary Davis, 8, of 450 Cameron Ave., a passenger in the other vehicle, were released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital for cuts and bruises.

According to investigating Oakland County Sheriff's deputies, Buchanan rammed into the rear of a car being operated by Mrs. Evelyn H. Davis, 26. Mrs. Davis was reported to have been making a left turn when struck.

County Deaths

Mrs. Ernest Mitchell

ORTONVILLE—Service for Mrs. Ernest (Allie M.) Mitchell, 72, 4602 Groveland Rd., will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the C. F. Sherman Funeral Home, Ortonville, with burial in Ortonville Cemetery. Mrs. Mitchell died in an auto accident on M-15 and Oakhill road Saturday. Her husband was on the critical list in Goodrich Hospital.

Besides her husband, she is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Painters to Stripe New Parking Lots

Marking lines at Pontiac's three new parking lots will be painted tomorrow, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, said.

They will be painted so the meter will be in front of the driver instead of in the center of the car, Vanderstempel said.

This is to help the driver read the meter easier, he said.

India Exports Lemon Oil

CALCUTTA—India, with a yearly production of about 500 tons, is the world's principal supplier of lemongrass oil. This is a basic raw material in the manufacture of several aromatic chemicals used in the perfume, soap, and cosmetic industries.

Grains Advance in Fast Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains scored a fair mixed advance in active dealings on the board of trade today, all cereals joining in the upturn.

The market opened with fractional gains, eased a little and then came back to above opening levels. On this rally wheat and soybeans were in the vanguard. Brokers said the buying came mostly from local traders.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1⅛ to 1⅛ higher, December $2.35⅛; corn ¾ to 1 cent higher, December $1.38⅜; oats ⅝ to ¾ higher, December 79⅛, rye 1¼ to 2 cents higher, December $1.57½; soybeans 1¾ to 2¼ higher, November $2.47¾, and lard 18 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher November $11.70.

One reason for the markets' early firmness brokers reasoned, was the improved technical situation as a result of the fairly steep sell-off Friday.

Poultry

DETROIT POULTRY

DETROIT, Nov. 5 (AP)—Prices paid per pound for No. 1 quality live poultry f.o.b. Detroit up to 10 a.m.

Heavy hens 17-19, light type hens 12-13; capenettes 5 - 6 lb. 23 - 25; turkeys heavy type hens 28, heavy type toms 25.

Comment: Market steady. Receipts moderate and ample to the light demand. Trading centered on capenettes for the butcher trade. Turkeys steady. Hens moving in live trade channels but demand is light. Toms being processed and stored. Tom offerings are ample. Present inquire for turkeys is disappointingly slow.

Livestock

DETROIT LIVESTOCK

DETROIT, Nov. 5 (AP) (USDA) — Hogs—Salable 1500. No early sales, undertone strong.

Cattle—Salable 3000. Receipts include about 750 cows, about 500 stockers and feeders; relatively small supply choice and prime fed steers; liberal showing high standard to low choice steers; few early sales choice and prime steers steady to weak; but demand narrow and most bids weak to unevenly lower; little done early on utility and standard steers and all heifers; cows mostly 50 cents lower; bulls steady; stockers and feeders unchanged; few head prime 1029 lb. steers 26.50; load mostly prime 1233 lb. steers 26.00; scattered sales good and choice slaughter steers 20.00-26.00; most utility cows 10.50-12.50; canners and cutters mostly 8.50-11.00; utility and commercial bulls 12.50-14.50; about two loads choice stock steer calves 21.50; several loads and lots choice steer calves 18.50-12.00; load choice heifer calves 18.00.

Calves—Salable 450. Opening about steady but market not fully established. few early sales choice and prime vealers up to 35.00; most good and low choice 20.00-27.00; few utility and standard 14.00-20.00; few culls around 10.00 down.

Sheep—Salable 2500. Not enough done early to make a market.

Voter's Creed Printed Again as Top Essay

The following was written by Ralph Bushnell Potts, prize-winner in a contest conducted by the Committee of American Citizenship of the American Bar Association and is being reprinted:

"BLOOD ON MY BALLOT"

By RALPH BUSHNELL POTTS

The blood of free men stains my ballot sheet. Whatever others may do, I shall not carelessly make my mark. I vote not because I can but because I must. Those that die for this, my voice in government, had a right to expect that I would prepare with every faculty to use it wisely, honestly and courageously. They did not die that fools, blind partisans or the reckless might make a game of free elections.

Only my secret heart knows whether I justify the definition of "voter" as they wrote it in the reddening sand. If I love my country as they did, I question my qualifications again and again. I certainly study the issues and candidates to determine what is best, not for me or my minority but for my country.

I will not be confused or deceived by propaganda, slogans or histrionics. I shield my eyes to the glitter of personalities, purge my mind of passion and prejudice and search diligently for the hidden truth. I must be free of all influences save that of conscience and justice. I garden for dreams, but wth a realistic spade.

My test is not of trend or popularity, but of principle and liberty. I vote as if my ballot alone decided the contest. I may lose my preference, but I will not throw away my sacred vote. For within the booth I hold in my humble hand the living proxy of all my country's honored dead.

Amen!

9 Die in State Over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nine persons, two of them elderly pedestrians, were killed in Michigan traffic accidents during the weekend.

The toll, from 6 p.m. Friday till midnight Sunday, was one of the lowest of recent months.

Fog which spread through the state cut down visibility and was blamed for a number of minor accidents. But State Police said the death count probably was held down because fog slowed motorists.

The dead:

Wallace St. Onge, 24, of Marquette.

Harold Doty, 79, of Davisburg.

Robert E. Gottleber, 20, of Bay City.

Mrs. Allie M. Mitchell, 72, of Ortonville.

Joseph G. Sofko, 40, of Detroit.

Jeffrey M. Mathieu, 2, of Bear Lake.

Adlai to Visit New Grandson

Will Close Campaign in Boston Where Baby Was Born Sunday

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson brings his second campaign for the presidency to a close today with Boston as his last stop and Eisenhower administration foreign policy his major target.

His decision to ring down the curtain in Boston tonight was dictated by the arrival of a 9-pound, 7-ounce grandson yesterday in Lying-In Hospital in Boston.

After visiting his son Adlai Jr., Adlai's wife Nancy, and the new baby, Stevenson will remain in Boston for a nationwide telecast originally planned for Chicago in which he and other Democrats will make their election eve appeals to the voters.

Time: 10 p.m. EST.

Stevenson's latest foreign policy move came yesterday in the form of a telegram to President Eisenhower urging him to take the lead in flying United Nations observers into Hungary and other satellites under attack or threatened by Soviet Russia.

Democrats gave Stevenson a rousing reception Saturday night when a police-estimated crowd of 250,000 spectators turned out for a parade down Madison Street to the Chicago Stadium, in which more than 19,000 partisans cheered his last major rally.

Sunday was a busy day, starting with the telegram to Eisenhower, a visit to a newly organized Unitarian church in Lake Forest and a telephone call from Adlai Jr., from the bedside in the Boston hospital.

Immediately, Stevenson acclaimed the event with a statement:

"I am elated to join all the grandparents. There could be only one other end of the campaign that could please me half as much.

"I hope this child will make its parents as happy as my boys have made me. And I pray that this baby may live to see a greater America and a more peaceful world."

Stevenson will fly back from Boston late tomorrow night — after the telecast — and cast his own vote in the Halfday precinct near his Libertyville home.

Ike, Suez Truce Push Stocks Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied and turnover was heavy early this afternoon.

International oils erased early losses and made sharp gains as news came of the cease-fire in the Port Said area.

The market had been rising before that after a mixed opening. Brokers said new reports of booming prospects for the steel industry and high confidence in Wall Street that President Eisenhower will be returned to office in tomorrow's election stimulated buying.

Leading issues advanced from fractions to around a point in most major divisions.

Oils with heavy holdings in the Middle East were losers in early trading because of the cloudy military picture. Domestic oils were improving on prospects of heavier demand. But news of the Suez cease-fire sp8rred Royal Dutch and Gulf Oil up three points or more in active trading. Later they eased keeping more than two p9ints of thir gains.

4-POINT GAIN

Amerada, a big domestic producer, went ahead nearly four points.

U. S. Steel and Bethlehem charged ahead a point or more, even though both stocks were selling ex-dividend. Lukens Steel added well over two points. Republic Steel and Youngstown gained fractions.

General Motors and Chrysler were up a point or so. Ford rose a fraction.

As oils advanced, Sinclair added around two, Texaco about a point despite being ex-dividend and Standard Oil (New Jersey) a major fraction.

2 in County Shot Over Weekend

Two county residents suffered minor gun wounds in accidental shootings in White Lake Township over the weekend.

Richard Bare, 21, of Walled Lake received a fractured left leg when he accidentally discharged his shotgun.

Emil E. Zieblo, 23, of Hazel Park had cuts and bruises on the right leg after firing his revolver before getting it out of a holster.

Bare is in fair condition at Pontiac General Hospital. He told State Police he was putting his shotgun in the trunk of his car when it went off shattering his leg. He had been hunting.

Sheriff's deputies reported Zieblo was hurt Sunday during a target-shooting session in a gravel pit at 983 Union Lake Rd. He was treated for the wound at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Investigators said Zieblo was drawing his pistol "cowboy style" when it caught in the holster and went off.

More Miners Rescued Today

Fifty-Two, Feared Dead, Saved by Rescuers From Mile Under

Fifty-two more miners, long feared dead in the Springhill, Nova Scotia mine disaster Thursday were rescued today, three and a half days after an explosion trapped them more than a mile underground in the Cumberland No. 4 Mine.

Thirty-six others were rescued from the mine Saturday leaving an estimated 38 dead in the explosion — 13 miners and rescue workers killed on or near the surface and 25 believed still entombed.

A local woman, Mrs. Reynolds Glover, 29 Myra, formerly of Springhill, N. S. has three uncles and several cousins who work in the mine. A call to the town Saturday night assured her and her father, Joseph Fagan, of Detroit of their safety.

Her father, was a worker in the Cumberland No. 4 mine for 20 years and Mrs. Glover said he was involved in six accidents in the mine over the 20 year span.

Survivors, in good condition though weak, described their efforts for survival. They punched holes in compressed air pipes and sucked the air through their mouths to avoid breathing the poisonous coal gas.

Ex-Convict Hits 4 With Shotgun

Drunk Goes Berserk, Can't Recall Shooting After Capture

ANN ARBOR (INS) — A 27-year-old ex-convict says he can remember nothing of a berserk rampage in which he wounded four persons with a shotgun yesterday.

Harold Saylor of Whitmore lake, wandered into nearby Horseshoe Lake with a loaded 12-gauge shotgun and blasted Fred Reynolds and Lyman Holly, both 16, as they walked down a street.

Darin Arnold, 21, Reynolds' brother-in-law who was driving by, rushed to help and also was shot.

The fourth victim was 7-year-old Rickey Daniels, in front of whose house the shooting occurred. He apparently was hit by stray pellets.

FOUND IN SWAMP

Salyor, who served 18 months in a LaGrange, Ky., prison for a 1950 shooting was later found unconscious in a swampy woods.

When revived, he said he couldn't remember anything except that he had been drinking since Friday.

Saylor's mother said he was surly after returning from a hunting trip yesterday morning. She said he finally grabbed the shotgun and left the house, saying:

* * *

"You'll soon see me in hell, burning."

The four shooting victims were taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor. Reynolds is in critical condition.

Unusual Deer Bagged, One White, One Black

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — Genealogists of the animal world are puzzling over the ancestry of two deer—one pure white and the other all black—bagged recently near the Redwood Empire community of Inverness, about 30 miles north of San Francisco.

The oddly assorted pair was shot within seconds of each other by Joseph Lunny Jr., who was with his father who operates a ranch not far from Drake's Bay.

In Memoriam 2

CANTERBURY — In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Charles E. Canterbury who passed away Nov. 5th, 1953.
Deep in my heart lies a picture,
Of a loved one laid to rest.
In memories frame I shall keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
Sadly missed by her daughter, Lucille C. Fitzpatrick.

DE JAGER — IN LOVING MEMory of our mother, Sidonie De Jager who passed away two years ago, Nov. 5, 1954.
We laugh with the world
but never forget,
In our memory of gardens
you are with us yet;
Silent thoughts of you bring many a tear.
Though gone from this world,
to us you're still near.
Sadly missed by sons and daughters, B. Budwit; C. & J. De Jager.

ELSWORTH — In loving memory of Burt W. Ellsworth who passed away, November 5, 1954. Sadly missed by his daughter and family. Forrest and Peggy Milnow.

BRINKER—IN LOVING MEMORY of Sharron Lee Brinker who passed away 2 yrs. ago today.
The depths of sorrow
of the loss of one
we loved so well.
And while she sleeps
a peaceful sleep,
Her memory we shall always keep.
Sadly missed, by Mother, Father, Sisters and Brothers.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR beloved Mother, Mrs. Bessie Briggs, who passed away Nov. 1, 1955
Gone is the face
we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice
we loved to hear.
Too far away
for sight or speech,
But not too far
for thought to reach.
Sadly missed by children, Blanche, Franklyn and Gertrude.

Propeller Is Nylon

COPENHAGEN—Something new in Denmark is a nylon boat propeller, an experimental reversible one with three blades and rounded fore edges. It has been found lighter and stronger than metal propellers. In tests, heavy logs struck the blades in water, with no damabe being done. Only minor dents resulted when a boat was sent at full speed against a stony beach.

Heart Attack Kills Hunter

HOLLAND (INS) — Harvey Bloudamp, 41, of Holland, collapsed and died yesterday while hunting with his 15-year-old son, Dennis, apparently from a heart attack.

State Police Probing Poison Pen Letters

DETROIT (INS)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams today ordered State Police to start a probe into the circulation of an estimated 100,000 poison pen letters sent to voters in mixed racial neighborhoods.

The letters urged readers to vote Democratic because, "The Democrats will keep the Negroes in their place." They were mimeographed under the letterhead of a White Citizens Council.

Williams said the letters, mailed from Georgia, are "an obvious violation of the Michigan Election Code."

Detroit Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins and Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien were asked to cooperate with State Police in the investigation.

Williams also called the letters "unethical and un-American" durin a Detroit television show last night.

Pensioners on Rise

NEW YORK—Funds put aside in insured pension plans in the United States now total some $11,075,000,000, covering 4,150,000 individuals, an increase of 01.275.000,00, during 1955. As recently as 1940 there were only 1,530 insured pension plans in force throughout the country. They then covered only 685,000 persons.

Cole Accepts Lower Salary

Sullivan Policy Curbs Other Appearances of His Talent

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — Playhouse 90 revives the "Keystone Cops" Thursday in "The Big Slide," about the climb to fame and slip of a top comedian . . . Red Skelton and Shirley Jones are starred, Jack Mulhall and other silent stars featured . . .

Nat Cole is taking less than his customary TV fee for his regular NBC series starting tonight just to prove Negroes are not banned from the medium on a regular basis, which they are not . . . He will appear on a sustaining basis, unless some sponsor, knowing how potent Nat's creamy voice is, gets smart . . .

"Studio One" would like to find an alternate sponsor . . . They used to stand in line years ahead waiting for a Godfrey sponsorship but a half hour of his future Wednesday whatzis is going begging . . .

Ed Sullivan's talent rule: Performers on his show must sign not to appear on any other programs 21 days before and 14 after.

When Perry Como heard the news that his Trendex rating topped Jackie Gleason's 28.1 to 26.7, he gave his own staff orders not to publicize them.

CHANCE FOR SCOUTS

Billie Holliday's Carnegie Hall concert Saturday should give TV scouts another chance to dig the very best.

Neal Hefti was fired by Godfrey and the McGuire sisters were not, but Hefti now is writing some choral arrangements for the McGuire smarties . . .

Russ Morgan takes over the U. S. Treasury Show (ABC radio network) from the Biltmore's Bowman Room each Tuesday from 10:35 to 11 p.m. Here's an added incentive to listen: Russ hates and won't play rock-and-roll. (Good boy).

Peggy Lee is too happy married to actor Dewey Martin to take dozens of TV offers at $7,500 per . . .

Nick Condos, Martha Raye's manager and ex-husband, is in a rest home . . .

EXPOSE OF TV STAR

Jack Carson's Broadway Play, "Everybody Loves Me," is about a TV star everybody hates . . . It was written by Groucho's son, Arthur, with Max Gordon producing.

The Mike ("Pantomime Quiz") Stokeys expect a baby in April . . .

Goodson and Todman, who practically invented TV panels (What's My Line, I've Got a Secret) and lost their championsip to Lou Cowan ($64,000 this-and-that), have a new quiz: "Nothing but the Truth" . . .

We hope Ernie Kovacs' "Tom Swift" spoofing is funny to younger folks who haven't read the Tom Swift books, because his sketches are goofy and perceptive.

A slow drift toward decentralized purchasing was found in a recent survey of 212 manufacturing companies.

Finds Rock Hobby

ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP)—When Bill Zieg went prospecting in the Black Hills he had no idea that his chief find would be not gold but a hobby.

After three years Bill returned lugging 600 pounds of rock which formed the nucleus of what 20 years later is one of the finest rock collections in these parts. He specializes in agates.

Christmas in July

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz (AP) — The Parks School program was right on schedule when six eighth graders were graduated in August ceremonies.

Because of heavy snow conditions encountered in winter months, the school year extends over the spring and summer months. The "Christmas vacation" comes in July.

Many Retiring, Some Grudgingly

31 Congressmen Won't Be Returning Regardless of Vote Results Tomorrow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thirty-one members of the present Congress —six senators and 25 representatives—won't be back next year regardless of what happens in tomorrow's elections.

Two other representatives won't return to the House, but may land in the Senate.

The six senators pulling out voluntarily include the veterans Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo), Walter F. George (D-Ga) and Herbert Lehman (D-NY), and three interim appointees not seeking election in their own right: Robert Humphreys (D-Ky), William R. Laird (D-WVa) and Thomas A. Wofford (D-SC).

Of the 25 representatives not returning to the House, 18 retired, several with service long enough to rate pensions in excess of $10,000 a year; 6 were defeated in primary elections; and 1 unsuccessfully sought nomination to the Senate.

Thoese retiring from the House are John Phillips of California, Richard W. Hoffman and Harold H. Velde of Illinois, Shepard J. Crumpacker of Indiana, Clifford R. Hope of Kansas, Charles P. Nelson of Maine, George A. Dondero and Jesse P. Wolcott of Michigan, Jackson B. Chase of Nebraska, Ralph A. Gamble of New York, Oliver P. Bolton of Ohio, and Karl C. King of Pennsylvania, Republicans; Irwin D. Davidson and Arthur G. Klein of New York, Woodrow W. Jones of North Carolina, James P. Richards of South Carolina, Brady Gentry of Texas and Robert H. Mollohan of West Virginia, Democrats. Klein retired to accept a New York judgeship.

Defeated in primaries for renomination to the House were of Oklahoma, John J. Bell of Texas and Thurmond Chatham, F. Ertel Carlyle and Charles B. Deane, all of North Carolina, Democrats.

Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut won that state's Democratic senatorial nomination, while Clifton Young of Nevada is his state's Republican nominee for the Senate.

Glenn R. Davis of Wisconsin gave up his House seat in a bid for the Republican senatorial nomination but lost to incumbent Alexander Wiley.

Says GOP Ruled by Big Business

Republicans Deny They Got Most Donations From Corporations

WASHINGTON (INS) — Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler said today a Senate subcommittee report on campaign spending is "positive proof" the Republican party is dominated by big business.

A subcommittee report issued yesterday by Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) estimated the GOP had spent twice as much as the Democrats during the height of the campaign.

The figures were promptly challenged by Sen. Carl Curtis, Neb., the subcommittee's only Republican member, who said the report was "slanted for political purposes."

The report said that during September the GOP spent five million, 743 thousand dollars, compared with three million, 71 thousand for the Democrats. Gore said the Democratic total included labor union contributions to that party.

Butler said "the Republican campaign chest has been swelled by the sum of $993,258 from officials of 225 of the largest corporations throughout the country.

"The largest military prime contractors generously gave the Republicans $435,310."

He added: "Big Business sees a good investment in another four years of this Big Business administration."

The Gore subcommittee report listed total contributions to the GOP from Jan. 1, until two weeks ago, as 10 million, 134 thousand dollars, compared to three million, 750 thousand dollars received by the Democrats.

Slows Down, Fined

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—After receiving three speeding tickets in 14 months, Bob Lyerly decided to slow down. En route to work one night recently he was stopped again and given a ticket for driving 49 miles an hour in a 55-mile zone—a $16 fine for moving too slow.

Play With Matches Burns Girl, 4, Badly

DETROIT (INS) — A four-year-old Detroit girl is in serious condition at St. John's Hospital today with burns received while playing with matches.

Police said the parents of Barbara Engelson were in bed at their Roseville home yesterday morning when the child rushed into their room with her nightclothes on fire.

Her father, Robert Engelson, a Chrysler Corp. Project engineer, ripped off the flaming clothes, wrapped her in a blanket and rushed her to the hospital.

Hospital authorities said Barbara suffered second and third-degree burns over 50 per cent of her body.

Driver Beats Rap

WALLINGFORD, Conn. (AP)—The prosecution of Harvey C. Anderson on a speeding charge wasn't pressed in town court when the policeman, who arrested him, agreed that the electrically operated timing device he'd used to clock Anderson at 45 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone may have been short-circuited.

Alladin Was Here

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Donald W. Wray wasn't too mad about the theft from his home of a lamp he had fashioned out of an old jug. What did make him mad, he told city police, was the $250 he kept hidden in the jug was missing, too.
