4-Year-Old Swept Through Creek Culvert

A four-year-old boy who toppled into the rain-swollen Pontiac Creek yesterday was swept through a 125-foot debris-choked culvert, and plucked from the stream by a neighbor as he emerged from the opposite end.

Ronald Ladwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ladwell, 38 Deland Ct., is almost none the worse for wear today, except for a few bruises.

RONALD

Fire department officials summoned to the scene said today the child's trip through the culvert was miraculous. Lieut. David Warrilow estimated that the boy had been submerged more than one minute.

Neighbor Curtis Grandberry rushed to the scene when he heard screams for help from children there.

When the youngsters told him what had happened, Grandberry dashed to the opposite end, and caught the boy as he bobbed out of the pipe.

Taken to his home where he coughed up a little water, Ronald was otherwise unhurt. A Pontiac Fire Department inhalator rushed to the scene was not needed.

According to witnesses, a group of youngsters was playing near the creek, which is higher than usual after the four-inch rain which swamped the city Sunday.

Entrance to Pontiac Creek Culvert

Ronald fell in, and a playmate leaped to rescue him.

The current in the creek was too strong for the unnamed would-be rescuer, and the Ladwell boy was torn from his grasp, and sucked into the mouth of the culvert.

Screams of the playmates brought Grandberry to the scene.

According to Lieut. Warrilow, the culvert is packed with rubbish, tires and other junk and debris. He estimated the water was six to eight feet deep.

Grandberry, 44, a General Motors Truck and Coach employe off on sick leave, was sitting on the front porch of his home at 54 Deland Ct. when they boy fell into the pipe which goes under the court.

Pontiac School Tax Up $4 Over 1955

Superintendent Lists 4 Factors Bringing Boost

Total Bill for Taxes of City, Education Set at $37.60 Per $1,000

Pontiac taxpayers will receive school tax bills amounting to $23.90 per $1,000 of city assessed valuation next month, city assessor W. Ray Ransom said today.

With the city government tax rate of $13.70 per $1,000, the taxpayer's total bill will add up to $37.60 per $1,000 of city-assessed valuation, Ransom said.

The city Board of Education was told last night the rate would be $23.75 for schools. Ransom said today a one per cent surplus is legally allowed in the actual tax.

Although the school tax is less than authorized by the County Allocation Board, it represents an increase of $4.00 over last year's $19.84.

The Board was authorized to spread $18.27 per $1,000 for schools in Pontiac on State-equalized valuations.

When applied to the lower city valuations that appear on individual tax bills, this rate would have been well over $25.

Decision to spread $16.33 on State-assessed valuations resulted in the $23.75 tax per $1,000 city valuation each property owner will pay.

Superintendent of Schools Dana P. Whitmer explained the unexpected rise in school taxes was due to four factors.

Wages next year will amount to about $400,000 more than anticipated, he said. Rehabilitation of schools will cost an additional $250,000 more than expected.

An increase in enrollment will mean cosfly expansion, and payments must now be made on interest and principal of bonds on completed building, he added.

After Heat Wave, Summer Due Early Thursday

After several days of 90 degrees heat already experienced locally, it becomes official tomorrow. Summer arrives then.

Astronomically, the vacation season peeks in at 5:24 a.m. And we will have the longest daylight —15 glorious hours for the lucky golfer — and the shortest night, nine hours, which should relieve the insomnia sufferers.

Ole Man Sol has been climbing steadily north and tomorrow will reach the summer solstice, which is 23 degrees from the equator. This will mark the most northerly point reached by the sun in its yearly journey.

Summers last slightly longer than winters — which should make the kids happy — because the earth is moving a little more slowly in its orbit around the sun during summer.

Showers Predicted Tonight, Tomorrow

The Weatherman predicts the Pontiac area will be partly cloudy through tomorrow with scattered thundershowers tonight and tomorrow.

The low tonight will be near 65 degrees. The temperature will range between 82-86 degrees tomorrow.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m was 62. The mercury rose to 75 degrees at 2 p.m.

74 Die in Plane Explosion in Ocean Off Jersey Coast

Ill-Fated Airliner Which Crashed Into Atlantic

No One Escapes Fireball Death; Hunt Continues

20 Americans Among Victims of Venezuelan Constellation Crash

NEW YORK (AP)—A Venezuelan airliner burst into flame early today and hurtled nearly two miles, falling into the Atlantic Ocean, killing 74 persons. It was the world's worst disaster in regular airline service.

Ships reaching the site, some 32 miles east of Asbury Park, N. J., radioed hours later that three bodies or parts of bodies had been recovered there.

The vessel on the scene had reported:

"Found no survivors. Expect to find none."

The pilot of a Coast Guard plane —sent out to try to guide the stricken four-engine Super Constellation back to New York's Idlewild Airport after it reported engine trouble—said later of the falling airliner:

"It was a frightening sight. It was a big ball of flame. It all happened very fast.

"The plane began to jettison fuel and then five seconds later a ball of flame broke out. The plane caught fire and took a spiraling dive into the water.

"It was falling 4,000 feet a minute. It hit the water with terrific impact. The plane was enveloped by flame on impact."

LOUD EXPLOSION

It was nearly two miles up when it began the fatal plunge.

The Coast Guard pilot, Lt. Cmdr. Frederick J. Hancox, 35, of Wantagh, N. Y., said the airliner dived through bright moonlight at an angle of about 60 degrees until it hit the water at 1:32 a.m.

He said there was a "loud explosion" and that there were flames on the water for about 10 minutes. He said he couldn't land his own craft, although it was an amphibian.

Later he spotted an oil slick and debris, including "clothing, handbags and miscellaneous items in the water."

The airliner crashed about 32 miles east of Asbury Park, N. J., and 40 to 50 miles south of Idle-

Pontiac Unit Learns in Field

Cook or Clerk—All Handle Tanks in Reserve Training

By PETE LOCHBILER
Pontiac Press Staff Writer

CAMP McCOY, Wis.—Everyone from company clerk to battalion cook drove a tank and fired its cannon during the two-week annual training session of Pontiac's 703rd Tank Battalion, a unit of the Army Reserve's 70th "Trailblazer" Division.

"That's the way the Pontiac outfit operates," according to Lt. Col. Lloyd A. Gabler, commanding officer. "With us," he states, "military duty comes first, before any sideline specialties.

"Besides, all the fellows naturally like to tell the folks at home how they drove a tank."

The battalion's 15 officers and 68 enlisted men jumped right into driving practice Monday, the first day at this 63,000-acre World War II basic training camp near La Crosse on the Mississippi River.

The specialized tank crews will culminate the practice today and tomorrow as M4 light tanks speed through practice areas to fire on the run at stationary targets.

The "Trailblazer" unit is a Reserve division of the Fifth Army and has brought about 2,300 men here, including the Pontiac contingent.

An additional 3,000 Regular Army members are temporarily here to give support and instruction, bringing the personnel total up to nearly 17,000, but the soldiers still "rattle" around in this huge camp, built in 1942 to accommodate over 35,000.

Brooklyn Boy Orphaned

Eastern Tragedy Worst in Commercial Air History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The worst commercial plane crash in the United States until today occurred Oct. 6, 1955, when 66 persons died in the crash of a United Air Lines plane near Laramie, Wyo.

A 10-year-old boy lost his mother, father, sister and brother in the crash today of a Venezuelan airliner.

Abraham Goldstein, 55, of New York, said he was a grandfather of the boy, Lawrence Handler. The boy had been left to stay with his grandparents in Brooklyn.

Twenty Americans and 46 Venezuelans, plus a crew of ten, were aboard the four-engined Super Constellation.

The Coast Guard said the airliner sank in water about 120 feet deep. Weather at the scene as dawn arrived was described as good and the sea calm.

The greatest loss of life ever recorded for a plane mishap was when a military C124 went down near Tokyo in 1953 with 129 servicemen aboard.

Ground Broken for General Hospital Addition

Wives! --- This Gal's on the Beam

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—An outspoken woman with the iron of self-reliance in her blood says that many a modern American husband dies too soon because his wife saddles him with endless household tasks.

"Young wives are killing their husbands by expecting them to do too much work when they get home from their jobs," asserted 78-year-old Mrs. Agnes Ferguson Murdoch.

"And it's all done in the name of cooperation!

"All this talk you hear these days about cooperation. Which really means things like the husband taking over the children as soon as he walks in the door, pitching in on a lot of housework, and all the rest of it. Oh, it's all so familiar, as the men know."

HAS EXPERIENCE

Mrs. Murdoch reared six children of her own and had a big hand in the upbringing of three stepchildren besides.

For most of the 44 years of her married life she took care of a 15-room house with little outside help.

What's more, she thrived on it. Not many would guess that she's crowding 80, nor question her proud boast of "grand" health.

Her husband Alexander has done all right too. He's a sunny, pink-cheeked, eye-twinkling 91.

DESERVES A BREAK

On the subject of what she calls men's rights, Mrs. Murdoch said:

"I think a husband deserves a chance to relax when he gets home after working all day.

"And I believe wives are pushing their husbands into heart attacks by demanding too much of them."

As Mrs. Murdoch sees it, too many modern women fall victim to self-pity, and self-pity leads to general flabbiness of mind and spirit.

"I managed fine," she said, "even if we didn't have the benefit of all these automatic appliances and other labor-saving gadgets, to say nothing of synthetic fabrics and goods you don't even have to iron . . .

"We mothers didn't have kaffee klatches as I believe the daily habit now is called. We didn't have time. But I did take about an hour each day to rest and to be alone just to think."

JEROME K. BARRY

Local Lawyer Named Assistant Prosecutor

The appointment of Jerome K. Barry Jr., 29, as assistant prosecutor for Oakland County was announced today by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem. The new appointee lives at 2247 Kohler St., Waterford Township.

Barry replaces Gerard A. Poehlman, who resigned last week to become assistant manager of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

A graduate of Michigan State University and Detroit College of Law, Barry has been engaged in private practice since his admission to the bar in 1954.

He is a navy veteran and member of Knights of Columbus, is married and has four children.

74 Killed as Plane Explodes in Atlantic

wild—just 10 minutes of flying time.

It had taken off for Caracas, Venezuela, from Idlewild at 11:18 p.m. Approximately an hour later the pilot, Capt. Luis F. Plata of Venezuela, radioed that he was having engine trouble and was turning back.

He was then 250 miles east of Norfolk, Va.

Later he calmly advised that he was "dumping gas"—a routine fire-preventing measure when an emergency landing is anticipated—and then came his final, dramatic words:

"Gas caught fire."

Hancox, whose amphibian had just come in sight of the airliner, said one engine was feathered on its left wing—that is, the propellor was idling.

Then, he said, the fire appeared to have broken out in an engine on the right wing. The craft quickly dived into the sea.

There were 64 passengers and a crew of 10 on the airliner. Eighteen of the passengers and two of the crew were Americans. One passenger was an infant.

A Navy transport ship, the Lt. Robert Craig, which sailed from New York at midnight for Bremerhaven, Germany, was directed to the crash scene and picked up the bodies.

An Eastern Air Lines plane crew also saw the flaming crash, as did a fisherman on the beach at Avon, N.J.

GLARE OF LIGHT

The fisherman, John Doman, 45-year-old carpenter and a Navy veteran of World War II, said:

"I made my cast and when I came up the beach to tighten my line I saw this thing coming down."

He said it appeared to be 15 or 20 miles offshore and that it had a glare of light around it as if burning.

"It plummeted down quite sharply and then seemed to level out in a glide. It seemed to hover there for 15 seconds and then it dipped again and went down."

He added: "I made tracks for the Coast Guard station."

The big plane was operated by the Linea Aeropostal Venezolana.

The kindergarten was made an integral part of the public school system of St. Louis in 1872, and it is claimed this was the first city to take that step.

Wilson to Add Voice in Foreign Aid Row

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson adds his voice today to the big defense-foreign aid debate on Capitol Hill.

* * *

Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, were called as closed-door witnesses on the administration's foreign aid program, now before the Senate Appropriations Committee.

At the same time, premature and sharp debate was launched on the Senate floor over the 34 billion 938 million dollar defense appropriation bill. This was stirred by a "bipartisan" move to trim a proposed one billion, 160 million dollar boost in Air Force funds to a more moderate 500 million dollar increase.

Democrats sparked the large hike in Air Force appropriations. They were met a day later by the substitute 500 million dollar figure offered by Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), two other Republicans and three Democrats.

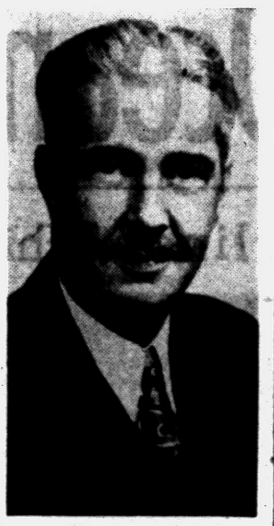

The Democrats are Sens. Harry F. Byrd, (Va.), Allen Ellender, (La.), and Spessard Holland, (Fla.).

2 Socialist Parties Fail to Gain Ballot Places

LANSING (AP) — Chances went glimmering today for the Socialist-Workers and the Socialist-Labor Parties to qualify for places on the Nov. 6 general election ballot.

Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh has advised Secretary of State James M. Hare, it was learned, that Hare cannot accept additional names to qualify the two parties for ballot listing.

When the deadline for filing passed several weeks ago, examination by the elections bureau in Hare's office showed that both Socialist-Worker and Socialist-Labor petitions were insufficient.

THOMAS F. McGUIRE

Oak Park Man Files for GOP Nomination

In a last-minute filing for the Republican race for nomination to Congress from Oakland County, an industrial engineer and management consultant from Oak Park deposited his petitions yesterday.

Thomas F. McGuire, 52, a former assistant deputy administrator of the National Recovery Act, has also been supervisor of operations for the State Employment Service in four Southeastern Michigan counties and a representative of the U.S. Department of Labor and the U. S. Renegotiation Board in four states.

He spent three years in Washington in liaison between the White House and Congress on the measures which included social security, the wage and hours law, War Production Board, and the Office of Price Administration.

A member of the National Association of Manufacturers' Agents, he has been a Michigan resident for 47 years. Married, he has four children.

Ike Takes Tip: To Set Up Council for Youth Fitness

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — An important first step has been taken by American leaders who met here to consider ways of bettering the physical fitness of American youth in an age of automobiles and escalators.

* * *

A prominent group of youth leaders left a two-day conference on the subject today with assurance from President Eisenhower that he will follow their recommendation and establish a "President's Council on Youth Fitness." It would be composed of Cabinet members concerned with the problem and will coordinate activities of 35 federal agencies.

Eisenhower also said he would name a citizens' advisory committee to arouse in the American people a "new awareness of the importance of physical and recreational activity."

* * *

The President's concern over failure of American youths to pass a basic "minimum fitness" test which European youths breezed through resulted in the calling of the conference at the Naval Academy.

Ike to Meet Pineau in Hospital Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower now is expected to remain in Walter Reed Army Hospital until the latter part of next week.

Yesterday's final medical bulletin said, however, that Eisenhower is recovering "very satisfactorily" from the major intestinal surgery he underwent early June 9.

The President scheduled a conference today with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

It will be Eisenhower's second meeting with a foreign dignitary since his operation. West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer met with him last Thursday.

French Report 82 Rebels Killed

Warfare Takes Place Near Northeast Algeria Close to Tunisian Line

ALGIERS (AP) — French military headquarters reported today that 82 nationalist rebels have been killed in a series of clashes in northeastern Algeria.

* * *

The French claimed 50 guerrillas were killed in one battle southwest of Tebessa, near the Tunisian border. Helicopter-borne paratroopers intercepted the Arabs in stony gorges of the Nementcha Mountains, an army spokesman said. The rebels were believed bringing arms from Libya.

Warplanes, tanks and marines were reported still battling another rebel band near the frontier of Morocco, 25 miles west of Oran. The French said their objective was a bitterly defended nationalist command post.

* * *

As usual, the French admitted only light losses in all operations.

The French, meanwhile, braced themselves for reprisals for the guillotining yesterday of two nationalists, one convicted of murdering a forest guard and the other of participating in a rebel raid on a farm. They were the first of 60 or 70 rebels under death sentence to be executed since the start of the 19-month-old nationalist uprising.

Student From U. of M. on Airliner Death Toll

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A University of Michigan student from Venezuela and the wife and two children of a recent graduate were among the 74 persons killed today in the crash of a Venezuelan airliner in the Atlantic.

Luis Alfredo Borjas Hernandez of Ypsilanti was en route home to Caracas. An industrial engineering student, Hernandez transferred to the university in September from Michigan Normal in Ypsilanti.

Also killed were the wife of Elio DeArmas Velasquez and their two children, Alexander, 6, and Florelia, 3 months.

Velasquez received his master's degree in public health at commencement exercises last Saturday. He was to leave tomorrow to join his family in Caracas.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two Ohioans were victims of the Venezuelan airliner crash in the Atlantic Ocean early today, a relative in nearby Grove City reported.

They were Mrs. Eileen Oursler, 30, and her 9-year-old daughter, Brenda of Toledo, a brother-in-law, Vernon Morrison said.

Mrs. Oursler was en route to Venezuela to join her husband, an employe of the United States Steel Corp. who had been in the South American country since February.

Mrs. Oursler and her daughter had visited Morrison recently before returning to Toledo to prepare for the flight.

For driving practice, tank crews use M47 medium tanks, similar to the M48 versions at home in the Pontiac training center, yet they cannot fire the 90 mm cannons on the M47.

Big as Camp McCoy is — seven by 14 miles — the 90 mm. shell can travel 17 miles before striking. A shell missing the target might land in surrounding dairy country.

So they've been firing 75 mm. guns with reduced charges.

The Fifth Army also has provided two-seater helicopters and a fleet of small L19 observation planes for the training period, as well as M1 rifles — the infantryman's standby.

GM, Ford Report Work Pickup

Anticipate Rehiring of Men Each Week for Remainder of '56

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp., two of the nation's Big Three auto makers, said yesterday unemployment at their plants had reached its peak and is on the decline.

Officials of the two firms expressed their views at a conference of government, business and labor officials called to discuss unemployment in the auto industry.

Harry W. Anderson, GM vice president in charge of industrial relations, said his company has called back 2,200 workers since the low point in employment last month.

EXPECT UPTURN

"We anticipate further rehires each week for the balance of the 1956 model run," he said. "With the introduction of new 1957 models in the fall of this year we expect to recall the balance of the 36,000 laid-off seniority employes in Michigan available for work."

John S. Bugas, Ford vice president in charge of industrial relations, said current unemployment conditions "at worst, are about what they were in 1954."

"But," he added, "there is even less reason than there was in 1954 for pessimism.

"As a matter of fact, within the last 48 hours, we have found it necessary at Ford to increase our production schedules of 1956 models," he said.

Michigan's legislature returned to Lansing today to pick up where it left off Thursday in its squabble over liberalizing unemployment benefits.

The Governor's proposals were still tied up in the house labor committee.

Fee Branch Manager Plan Boosted by Hare

LANSING (AP)—Secretary of State James M. Hare has given the State Civil Service Commission a jog on his proposal to take his fee branch managers out of the political patronage area.

In a letter to Milton Muelder, commission chairman, Hare urged early action on it and scoffed at suggestions that his purpose was to "blanket in" present political employes.

A commission spokesman said the matter was not discussed at the agency's June meeting Monday and Tuesday morning. It originally was presented at a previous commission meeting May 23rd.

He said the commission probably will next meet in late August or early September.

Farm Aide Quits Under Pressure

MacLeaish Turns Over Resignation to Benson; Heavy Drinking Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert B. MacLeaish—citing high blood pressure—quit yesterday as farmers home administrator. He did so while a Senate committee investigated charges of heavy drinking and high jinks among top agency officials.

MacLeaish, an Eisenhower administration appointee, was summoned to appear today before the Senate Civil Service Committee, which has heard testimony that he often drank excessively on the job.

The senators also have been told of a party in Montana where Farmers Home Administration officials allegedly went around "kissing all the girls," including wives of subordinates.

MacLeaish, it was known, conferred with Secretary of Agriculture Benson yesterday. He reportedly looked glum when he left the meeting.

He described his resignation as voluntary. He said that for some time he had been suffering from hypertension — abnormally high blood pressure.

"This present situation doesn't help any," he added.

One man, Floyd F. Higbee, said he saw MacLeaish put away almost a fifth of whisky in a Denver hotel room after a meeting with Eisenhower on problems growing out of the 1954 drought.

Press Puts $100 in Pot-O-Gold Puzzle No. 4

Time to sharpen your pencil again, dust off the dictionary and play the Pontiac Press' new word game, POT-O-GOLD. This week, for the first time, the prize is $300 — plus an extra bonus of $25 if the winner happens to be a subscriber of record. Read directions and rules carefully, fill out the entry below and send it in.

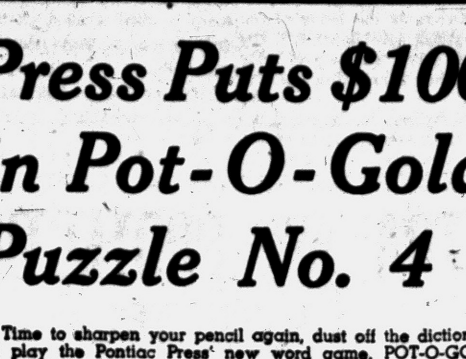

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then, would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

That's all there is to it. Good luck!

Polio Serum Uptake May Broaden Shots

WASHINGTON (AP) — Steadily increasing supplies may mean that Salk polio vaccine soon will be made available to nearly all persons under 20 years of age.

* * *

The Public Health Service currently is putting all possible emphasis on use of the vaccine for children under 15 and pregnant women.

* * *

But a check today showed that at least 19 states and territories already have broadened priorities to include persons up to 20.

Health Service officials declined to speculate as to when the National Advisory Committee might be called to consider broadening the recommended priorities on a country-wide basis.

However, record releases of vaccine in recent months indicate it won't be long before there is a re-evaluation.

* * *

Since March 1, a total of 32,821,929 shots has been cleared. This is nearly half the total of 68,694,978 released since the vaccine was licensed April 12, 1955. Production forecasts reportedly are for between 15 and 20 million doses this month and a like amount in July.

HERE'S PROOF! Plants DOUBLE SIZE In 12 Days

MAKE THIS COMPARISON TEST ON YOUR FLOWERS! These two groups of calla plants were potted the same day, in the same soil and grew side by side under identical growing conditions. Group A received normal supply of water. Group B, at right, received same supply of water with tiny trace of RX-15 added. Photos above show the amazing difference only 12 days later.

IMAGINE your garden fragrant and ablaze with a thousand blooms weeks ahead of your neighbors with poorly fertilized soil. Your flowers twice the size of the ones they eventually get. Your rose bushes bending under three times the blooms they have. Your lawn a lush thick carpet of golf-course green. Your trees, shrubs, berries, vegetables, everything you grow just bursting with vigorous growing power and fruitful plant health all season long.

This year you can make that "dream garden" spring into life and bloom all around your home. How? With just ordinary care—the same care you've given your garden in the past—plus a few sprinklings of a scientific new growth formula developed by Garden Research Laboratories.

Plants fed in every fibre in 60 minutes

It all started with tests made by University Scientists of a new water-soluble type fertilizer. In order to find out just how fast plants absorbed it, they added radio-active isotopes and photographed the plants with radio-sensitive film. When the results were made public, home gardeners were all but rocked back on their heels. The photographs showed that the fertilizer reached every bud, leaf and fibre of a giant rose bush in less than 60 minutes... Scientific research had at last revealed a way to infuse growth elements into plants, shrubs, trees and lawns almost instantly.

In later tests of several different water-soluble type fertilizers, made first by scientists and then by experienced gardeners, one special water-soluble formula – RX-15 containing special plant health ingredients – out-performed all others. And it soon outsold all others, too!

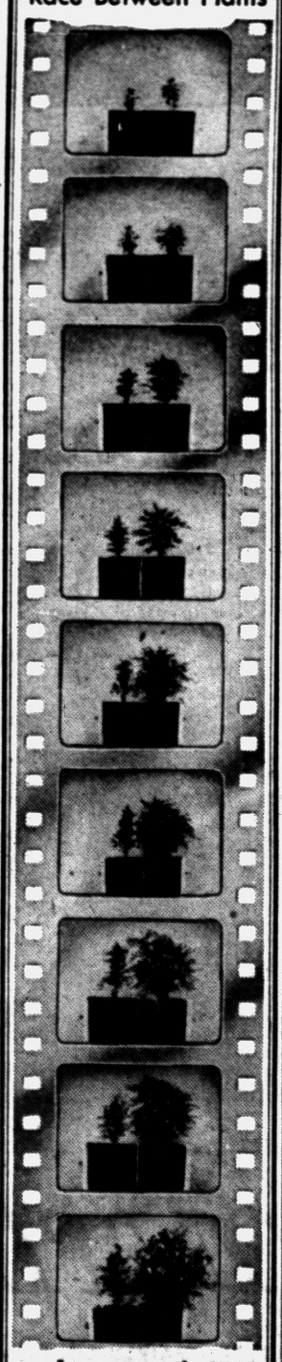

This was the plant fertilizer used in the startling Television films of "THE RACE BETWEEN PLANTS". These films gave incontrovertable proof of how Roses, Mums, African Violets, Geraniums and countless other flowers fed with RX-15 outgrew sister plants fed with other fertilizers.

6 Times as many Mums Marigold Score: 48 to 12

The films show a Marigold treated with RX-15 producing 48 big blooms and buds by the time its untreated twin had 12 smaller ones. In a race of Chrysanthemums, the RX-15 treated plant won by a score of 64 blossoms to 11... A rose sprinkled with RX-15 growing twice as fast as its twin and bursting into bloom 4½ weeks earlier... A treated geranium growing to double the size of the untreated one... An African Violet blossoming weeks ahead of its untreated twin and producing 6 beautiful blooms before the other could squeeze out even one!

Watch for these exciting TV movies. They give you eye-witness proof of the high-speed growing power flooded into every fibre and tissue of hungry plants with easy sprinklings of RX-15.

See The Difference in this filmed Race Between Plants

In every test, the RX-15 treated plant outgrew, outblossomed and outlasted the untreated plants... whether in good soil, bad soil, laboratory sand or even when they were treated with other water soluble fertilizers.

* Maximum number of blossoms depending upon your present soil condition, weather and care.

Biggest-Selling Fertilizer Results Astonish Home Owners!

Thousands have been so surprised and delighted they have passed on the good news to their friends. Hundreds have written in letters like these:

"Thanks to RX-15 we had the most beautiful Mums in the whole neighborhood. I kept 3 friends' houses, besides my own, full of flowers all summer long."
Mrs. M. Provost

"Our lawn is the talk of the neighborhood. Already it has been cut three times while my neighbors haven't even thought about oiling their mowers yet."
Mr. F. Sorenson

"Sprinkled some RX-15 on some late flower seeds I decided to plant at the end of the season. To the utter astonishment of myself and my neighbors, I have grown the largest Zinnias you have ever seen. RX-15 is truly the marvel of all plant foods." Mrs. Madeline Berner

Results Are Guaranteed Make Your Own Twin Plant Tests

Just do this. Mix one tablespoonful of RX-15 in a gallon of water. Then sprinkle this on plants you want to grow – while you treat twin plants with any other fertilizer. You will be astonished at the difference in results... and will have first-hand proof of the vitality and rapid growing power that RX-15 shoots into all species of plants, trees and shrubs.

You'll find RX-15 the clean fertilizer. No mess, no dirt, no odor – and no danger of "burning" valuable plants, even if you should use 3 times more than directions tell you.

Furthermore, RX-15 is economical. You save because it spreads its high-potency fertility so far. Only 3 pounds make over 120 gallons of liquid growing power – enough to fertilize an average flower garden all season long.

Radio Photo of Rapid Plant Feeding! The light, bright areas, on this photograph made with radio-sensitive film, show how water-soluble plant foods containing radio-active isotopes for test purposes – reach every bud, every leaf tip, in less than 60 minutes after sprinkling the roots.

Root Growth shows plant Health: Two identical geraniums were potted in soil already fertilized and cared for the same way, except that the one on the left was fed RX-15. See how its roots grow twice as thick – providing extra resistance to heat, drought and cold.

AFTER TOMATO PLANT STOPS, IT IS MADE TO PRODUCE 50% MORE! Nutritional deficiency caused entire growing cycle to stop. Then RX-15 was added. See results above! Plant produced another crop – 50% more big, luscious tomatoes. Fed earlier, RX-15 can help you grow double and triple-size tomatoes.

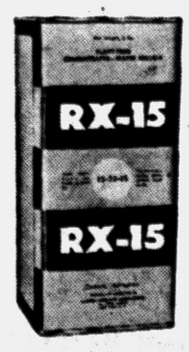

NEW LIFE FOR DYING TREES! These trees were both dying. Then the one on the right was fed just one of the chelated elements found in RX-15. See the difference! No wonder this new formula – with 4 chelated elements, 3 other minor elements, 3 major elements—developed by Garden Research Laboratories, makes scraggly shrubs and dying trees leap into new life almost overnight.

How to be Lazy and Grow Flowers Like Crazy!

Without even dirtying her hands, your wife in her Sunday Best can sprinkle the instant growing power of RX-15 on your lawn, flowers, fruits, shrubs and vegetables while you take a snooze in the sun. Burton Opposes Church Merger

Congregational Church Will Lose Name Should Union Be Approved

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Congregational Christians convened today at a crucial point in the life of a church that grew up with America.

* * *

Up for decision — and perhaps stormy debate — is a proposal to unite this independent-minded, old church of the Pilgrims with a long-time Christian neighbor, the Church.

The two would become the United Church of Christ, and the name "Congregational" — first applied to the early New England churches about the time of the American Revolution — would officially be no more.

A committee against the union, headed by the Rev. Malcolm Burton, of Pontiac, Mich., has submitted proposed legislation to specify that individual churches won't be bound by council action.

No congregation would be considered part of any denominational union except by the congregation's own "voluntary action freely taken," the amendment states. It threatens new court fights if it isn't approved.

The plan, simmering for 14 years and threshed through the style of congregationalism, has generated some climactic heat as the final steps near.

* * *

About 3,000 church representatives and officials are here for action by the church's top policy-making body, its General Council.

Although past votes by the council and the 5,561 individual congregations have indicated only minority opposition to the merger, recent weeks have produced some impassioned protests.

"Attitudes resembling those of civil war have developed in our Congregational Christian fellowship . . ," says a letter of objection circulated by Dr. Marion J. Bradshaw, of Bangor, Maine, theological seminary.

Detroit Janitor Held in Murder of Spouse

DETROIT (AP)—A former janitor was under police guard today at Wayne County General Hospital where authorities plan to question him in the fatal shooting of his bed-ridden wife.

Preston Nuss, 64, was taken to the hospital yesterday when a county welfare investigator found him in his shabby two-room home in Nankin township. His face was covered with bruises which sheriff's deputies said they believed were self inflicted.

The welfare investigator found Mrs. Nuss lying in a pile of bedclothes in the front room of the house. She had been shot through the temple.

Sgt. Jon Sharrow of the wayne County sheriff's road patrol said a .22 caliber rifle was found beneath Nuss's bed in the kitchen. He said police theorized Nuss shot his wife, confined to bed after she suffered a stroke two years ago, and then battered his face by striking it with a blunt instrument or beating it against some object.

Nuss, who worked as a janitor at the suburban Wayne police station until he quit last fall, was held for investigation of murder.

Adrian Couples Tour France on Shoestring

Three Adrian couples, following a careful budget, planned their own five-week tour of Europe. Their experiences are described in the following account by one of the group, Waldron S. Stewart, county editor o fthe Adrian Telegram.

BLOIS, France (AP) — We'll get along fine eating in France — as long as no one wants anything but steak.

* * *

The words in the two languages are similar: The French being "Steack" in most tourist restaurants.

We had a wonderful charcoal-broiled filet at a good Paris restaurant for 900 frances per couple, about $2.50. It included "potage," the traditional soup; entree, potatoes, salad and desert.

Wine is served with every meal, ordered or not, except breakfast. Even if you can make the waitress understand you'd prefer milk or coffee, you wind up with a la carte charges on your bill. It's easier and cheaper to drink the wine and worry later about the effects.

AMAZED AT BUILDING

We were amazed at the amount of new building. Not only are roads, stores and houses going up on every hand, but service stations are popping out of the ground at every rural intersection.

The price of "petrol" is high. Although our 36 horsepower bussette gets about 25 miles to the gallon, the price is double and triple that at home.

From talking to people and what we see with our own eyes, it is obvious that few French citizens live at the level of the average American. A wage of 30 cents an hour is good. Ninety per cent of the population make less than 60 cents an hour.

LANGUAGE NO TROUBLE

American tourist dollars are badly needed and the French go all out to get them. Roadside cafes advertise in French and English.

We stopped at a small newspaper stand and asked, "Avesvous le Journal Americain?"

"Sure," the young lady replied in perfect English. "Do you want the Herald American or the Chicago Tribune?"

Hotels in France come in a variety of sizes, shapes and stages of repair. They also come in a variety of prices. We found good clean sleeping rooms — the bath is down the hall — for 500 francs, about $1.43. The very best hotel rooms are about 3,500 francs, almost $10, a night.

There is no soap in any hotel room, regardless of the price. Toilet paper, if any, is a coarse grade of wrapping paper. To get a private bath, you must ask — and pay.

We stayed for a time at Biarritz, the Miami Beach of France. We were there in the off-season and had a very modern hotel with "le toilet" for 1,300 francs a day — $3.71 per couple.

We also took two days off from steady sightseeing to stop at Cannes on the Rivera. There again we had off season rates and found the red carpet out for us everywhere we went.

The Riviera is the home of the Bikini bathing suit. Besides it, the American suits our wives wear look like they came from the 19th century.

French swimmers dress and undress without concern right on the beach. Sometimes it's under a large umbrella, sometimes they wrap a towl around themselves and sometimes they don't bother with either.

The fact that six pairs of American eyes are staring doesn't mean a thing.

Kidnap Terror Ride Told by Gotham Banker's Son

NEW YORK (INS) — The engineer son of a New York banker told today how he was kidnaped in Boston and threatened with death on a terror-filled ride to New York.

The alleged kidnapers — Robert D. Burns, 21, and William John Cleary, 21, both of Waltham, Mass., have long police records. They were booked at Manhattan's West 100th Street Station on charges of kidnaping, assault, robbery and violation of the Sullivan Law concerning concealed deadly weapons. The maximum penalty for conviction on the kidnaping charge is death.

Deganan was rescued on New Degan was rescued on New after 8 a.m. when, "as a last desperate resort," he began running when he spotted a policeman.

CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

Patrolman Norman Halmowitz, who drew his gun and first ordered Degnan to halt, quickly sized up the situation and captured Burns and Cleary after a short chase. In Burns' pocket he allegedly found Degnan's wallet, license and car keys.

Cleary, who police said had a record of 30 arrests, reportedly was carrying in his waistband a navy flare gun, Degnan's watch and class ring from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Degnan, whose father is a vice president of the New York Trust Co., said he decided to make his break for freedom when the men stopped his car to get a case of beer.

The slender, short engineer for the Grumman Aircraft Co. said he had gone to Boston to take a two-week refresher course at MIT.

He said he met the pair around midnight at a bar in Boston's Scollay Square (Lighthouse Bar) and had three drinks with them before they asked for a lift.

BECAME UNSATISFIED

Degnan said he didn't tell them that his father was a banker but rather a guard in a bank.

He also said they weren't satisfied with the $37 they found in his pocket and wanted more.

Degnan said he cooperated as much as he could until an opportunity arose for him to make his escape. He said he couldn't do anything when they passed toll bridges and stopped for gas because the kept the gun pressed into his hip.

He explained that he ran away from the policeman in order to "confuse" Burns and Cleary and force them to start shooting in the presence of the policeman.

Burns, who has a police record of 17 previous arrests, and Cleary will be arraigned today in felony court.

Meany Assails Steel Industry

Backs Union in Fight; Says Companies Failed to Meet Worker Needs

NEW YORK (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany says the steel industry has failed to "recognize the valid needs of the workers."

Meany sent his message yesterday to steelworkers president David J. McDonald at union negotiations with the steel industry.

* * *

Meany also gave McDonald his "best wishes for a resounding victory" in the talks and said "the AFL-CIO stands squarely behind you in this fight."

The steel union has authorized a strike of its 650,000 members if a settlement is not reached before current contracts expire on June 30.

Joint talks between the union and the "Big Three" steel firms have been suspended in favor of individual negotiations with seven smaller companies.

No progress was reported in the sessions yesterday and last night. The talks resume today.

The seven companies are U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Inland, Pittsburgh and Allegheny Ludlum.

MSU Will Conduct Major CD Survey

Questionnaires on civil defense practices already have been prepared and distributed to the cities, officially designated "target areas," and to 900 sample counties.

Foreign Aid Necessary to Checkmate Russians

Although President Eisenhower has won a cheering victory in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the struggle over his mutual security bill is far from ended.

When the measure went to the House it called for a total of $4.9 billion in military and economic aid. Despite the President's earnest plea the lower chamber slashed the total by $1.1 billion to $3.8 billion.

As expected, the measure got a more sympathetic reception from the committee. The result was that members voted to restore $702,600,000 of the House cut. However, latest indications are for new cuts on the Senate floor.

Unfavorable factors include election pressure for economy and irritation born of Tito's visit to Russia. Some Senators feel that the bill's economic side is overemphasized, others that it isn't emphasized enough.

★ ★ ★

These objections don't alter the fact that to cut this bill would be to risk losing our prestige and forfeiting our leadership of the free world. Neither do they discount in any way the threat inherent in Russia's current economic and political offensive.

Beyond possibility of dispute enactment of an adequate mutual security bill is a matter of enlightened self interest. The Senate should act accordingly.

Court Clears Du Pont of Cellophane Monopoly

By rejecting the Government's appeal against the Du Pont Company, the U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that company not guilty of maintaining a monopoly in the manufacture of cellophane.

In handing down this important decision, the highest tribunal upheld a ruling three years ago by Federal District Judge Paul Leahy who dismissed the case. Its opinion is that since cellophane is only a part of the market for flexible packaging materials, there could be no monopoly.

At the time the suit was filed Du Pont was producing about 75 per cent of the cellophane sold in the United States. However, the evidence showed that this product then constituted only 20 per cent of all flexible packaging material sales.

It also was shown that cellophane was subject to strong competition from such materials as waxed paper, aluminum foil, cellulose acetate, pliofilm and glassine. Finally, the defense was able to show that the company had licensed seven other companies to manufacture this material without any agreements on the prices to be charged.

★ ★ ★

A safe guess is that few will dispute the wisdom of the high court's ruling that there was no proof of monopoly in this case. In the words of Mr. Justice Reed's written opinion, "cellophane's interchangeability with the other materials mentioned suffices to make it a part of this flexible packaging material market."

Dems Bury Postal Bill

The United States Post Office Department must continue operating at a heavy loss.

That is the meaning of the decision reached by the Democratic leadership of the House. In the words of Majority Leader McCormick, the Administration-backed postal rate increase bill won't be allowed to reach the floor now or in the foreseeable future.

Democratic opposition persisted in the face of approval given the bill by the Post Office and Rules committees and the department's operating deficit of $470,000,000.

As drafted, the measure would have increased first class mail from three to four cents, air mail from six to seven cents with similar boosts in second and third class rates. It would have increased postal revenues by a much needed $430,000,000 a year.

★ ★ ★

The Democrats' election year attitude toward this measure is regrettable though not surprising. To us, operating this great sprawling department at an enormous loss, doesn't make sense.

President Eisenhower and Postmaster General Summerfield were right in seeking higher rates. We believe a majority of citizens, realizing that the deficit must be met from general tax funds, approved their action.

"Pardon Me—I'd Like to Take His Pulse"

David Lawrence Says:

Will Steel Strike Be a Long One?

WASHINGTON—There's a fifty-fifty chance of a steel strike beginning June 30. It may last as long as two months.

The fact that a strike is in the offing is conceded among steel men, and most of the discussion now relates to how long it will last. Some say a month and others say two months, and there are some observers familiar with the inside of the negotiations who would not be surprised at an even longer strike.

At the moment the possible impact of the steel controversy on the country as a whole is not generally realized. Because most of the big disputes have been settled by negotiation, it is being taken for granted by the public that this one will be adjusted before the deadline of June 30.

But the summary way the industry's offer was rejected in the last few days is regarded as a sign that David MacDonald, president of the steelworkers' union, thinks he can get better terms by holding out. It is true, of course, that in negotiations of this kind neither side shows its hand till the very last minute. There is some expectation of a modification of positions on both sides, but it may not be enough to avert the strike.

TO AFFECT PRICES

Basically the steel industry is in a position where it cannot give the concessions it is promising in its latest offer without advancing steel prices. When prices start upward in such a fundamental segment on the economy as steel, it is bound to influence an upward spiral of prices in other lines. America has been enjoying a period of relative stability for many months but lately there has been a tendency to move prices upward in certain major fields. While the cost-of-living index has remained about the same, the price of many things that are made of steel, especially automobiles, may have to go up considerably. Then emerges the risk of a buyers' strike, with all the dire consequences that come with factory shutdowns and unemployment.

The strategy of the steel union is aimed at dividing the steel companies. At the moment, the U.S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem Steel Co. and Republic Steel Co.—the largest of the ten companies involved—are standing firm, and there is said to be no chance of pulling any one of them away in a separate deal.

A solid front is also being presented by the other seven in the negotiations—Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Pittsburgh Steel, Jones and Laughlin, Inland Steel, Wheeling Steel, Allegheny Ludlum and American Rolling Mill Co. Even companies which are not participating in the parleys are known to have given the assurance that they will hold the line.

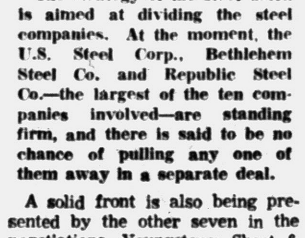

ESCALATOR CLAUSE

The proposal of the steel companies that a five-year contract be agreed upon and that certain wage increases be granted does not mean that, in the event of a "national emergency," there couldn't be a withdrawal of either side. Certainly if war is threatened and wartime controls are imposed, there would have to be a re-examination. This is to be specified in the contract. The industry, moreover, in order to get some assurance of wage stability for the next five years, has included an escalator clause so as automatically to provide wage increases within that five-year period whenever the cost-of-living index rises. This plan was first embodied in the General Motors contracts with the auto workers' union when Charles E. Wilson, the present secretary of defense, was president of that automobile company.

The prospect of a strike has caused discussion as to what the ultimate effect might be on steel production for many years. If it be considered that there is today an overproduction and that inventories are too large, the strike will help to melt away those inventories and redound to the benefit of the industry in one sense, but it must inevitably hold back some of the $39-million capital-goods expansion which is in process this year and which, so far as plans are concerned, has been expected to be the same size next year.

A steel strike, therefore, will raise havoc with the industrial position of the nation and yet, if the steel executives give in to the wage demands they face, the country will have to pay higher prices for steel and many other products. It's a different situation for the nation either way.

Dr. Brady Thinks:

Heart Trouble? Then Try These Three Suggestions

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Breathing and the Heart

The three ingredients of my prescription for heart trouble—almost any kind of heart trouble—are (1) graduated exercise, (2) vitamin B-complex-iron-manganese instead of digitalis, and (3) natural breathing.

In order to get the greatest benefit from the most important ingredient—graduated exercise—it is necessary to have close supervision by your physician.

Anybody with any kind of heart trouble may and should use the second ingredient, for it is food, not medicine, and hence it can't do any harm when used day by day the year around, either along with digitalis when or if you take digitalis, or by itself as a real heart tonic.

Many doctors and most people scarcely associate breathing with heart trouble. Yet the main purpose or function of the lungs (breathing) and the heart (circulation) is to keep the cells of tissues or organs supplied with oxygen and to carry away combustion products such as carbon dioxide.

So we should not become so preoccupied with murmurs, blood pressure, electrocardiograms and oxygen tanks that we forget natural breathing.

The explanation of the pain in angina pectoris is anoxia (lack of oxygen) in a portion of the heart muscle, due to spasm or constriction of a branch of a coronary artery which normally supplies blood (oxygen) to that portion.

"Every sufferer from angina pectoris should carry at all times a few tablets of nitroglycerin (otherwise called glonoin or glyceryl trinitrate), each containing approximately 1/200th of a grain. Such a tablet dissolved in the mouth"—acts in two minutes.

Nitroglycerin relieves the pain or distress of angina by relaxing the spasm or restriction of the corornary arteries so that more blood can bring some much needed oxygen to the portion of heart muscle affected.

It would be impractical for most angina patients to carry small oxygen tanks all the time, nevertheless, if I were subject to anginal spells, I'd prefer to have 'em within reach of an oxygen tank.

It is my theory that, even though no nitroglycerin or oxygen be available, one subject to angina can stave off many a seizure by immediate use of the oxygenator everybody always has with him—his bellows. Now, space forbids detailed explanation of this. In a piece to follow I'll try to explain it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diag- Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Wants Members of Unions to Think for Themselves

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I wonder how many American workers who saw "The Twisted Cross" on TV recognized the same pattern being pursued by labor union heads who have become active in politics.

The union has accomplished much good, but now that leaders are gaining control of a political party, the pattern should be clear to all loyal Americans. It will happen here, just as it did in dictator nations, if workers continue to let union heads lead them by the nose. People say it couldn't happen here, but remember how it happened in other countries. They found out too late. Will we?

I have heard speakers on two occasions tell those at meetings they were wasting their time reading newspapers and magazines, because management and big business control everything printed in them. Also, that radio and TV programs are controlled and the only way to get reliable news is through union papers, Guy Nunn and CIO programs.

All this is put to them in a way that it seems to be in the workers' best interests. Have you heard the record in which the CIO brags in song how it has taken over every phase of labor?

During this election year, we should rededicate our American ideals and principles. Study candidates and see which best lives up to them.

I am not a union member, but I admire some of the good accomplished. However, I am an American who wants to keep America safe and who believes that when the workers start doing their own thinking again, we'll have a bright future.

'Fat Woman' Tells Her Daily Routine

I am one of the millions of women who are fat, but not from sitting around and eating. Maybe it's because I have children, work from 6:30 a.m. until noon, then go to work in a factory for three hours, then home to change and take care of the three children, then finish what I didn't have time to do in the morning, then cook supper, then give the children baths, then pick up around the house, then make lunches, then polish shoes, then start cooking for my husband, then clean up again, then prepare his clothing for the next day, then try to sneak a look at TV while I'm getting the children's clothing ready for the next day . . . and so to bed.

Resignation Spells Crisis in Israel's Leading Party

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Moshe Sharett's resignation as Israeli foreign minister in Premier David Ben-Gurion's government chills a working relationship of nearly a quarter-century.

Sharett's replacement by the Russian-born former Milwaukee, Wis., schoolteacher, Mrs. Golda Myerson, may not cause a governmental crisis. And Ben-Gurion says no change in foreign policy is contemplated.

But there is something of a crisis in the Mapai, the dominant party in the coalition government of the 70-year-old Ben-Gurion.

The crisis has been building up for some time, with the more active followers of Ben-Gurion wanting to displace Sharett, who had been Israel's only foreign minister since establishment of the state in 1948.

• • •

Sharett has worked with Ben-Gurion for nearly 25 years in seeking to establish the state. He has clashed with the Premier many times being considered more cautious than the impulsive Ben-Gurion.

ELECTION RESULTS

But the chief cause of the present situation is to be found in the results of the general election last July. These followed a period in which Ben-Gurion was in temporary retirement and Sharett was both Premier and foreign minister.

The Mapai was returned as the largest of several parties that sought election to the Knesset, or parliament. It also kept its dominating parliamentary position.

But the voting showed that a surprisingly large number of new immigrants — who make up nearly half the electorate — preferred the more extreme "activist" parties.

Mapai's executive group blamed the party's mediocre showing partly on the so-called weak leadership of the country's foreign policies, but at the same time recognized the need to reorganize the party machinery to make a special effort to capture new immigrant voters before another general election.

Until Israel was created in 1948 the party had been led in the country by its strongest personalities, including Ben-Gurion and Sharett.

LESSER FIGURES

Once the state was created, however, the top men devoted their entire energy to actual government. Party affairs were left to men of lesser ability.

• • •

It is difficult to say how much of this party feeling is behind the reason for Sharett's resignation and how much is an excuse.

Sharett apparently had three choices — to quit; to take on the job of Mapai Party secretary and try to establish more party popularity among the electorate; or to tangle directly and more openly with Ben-Gurion.

He chose to resign with a minimum of public fuss.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Young People Must Be Occupied

Mr. Roberts appreciates the fact that "idle hands are the devil's workshop." So when you plan entertainment for youth, give them something to keep in their hands! The popularity of cigarettes and liquor is partly due to the fact they let youth keep their hands occupied in social groups.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-387: J. Gordon Roberts is an Omaha business man with a great deal of practical psychology.

Mr. Roberts points out the fact that Americans have too much unused energy.

* * *

In early days our pioneers had to work from dawn to dark just to keep their stomachs filled and some clothing on their backs.

Nowadays we have shortened the work week to 40 hours and in some industries a 35-hour week is in vogue.

"What can we do with our spare time and unused energy?" is one of the most critical problems of Americans everywhere.

"The energy which remains after our physical wants have been satisfied," says Mr. Roberts, "might be called energy-of-choice."

"This energy will not disappear without use."

ENERGY OUTLETS

Children show their excess energy by romping and running and climbing trees.

If their energy is dammed up too tightly, they bite their fingernails or pick their hangnails or fidget on their seats at school.

To give them a temporary release of this extra vitality, we schedule recess periods for them.

Adults likewise need such releases. In pioneer days, they had quilting bees and corn husking bees.

Thus, while boy and girl were at a party, they used their hands to drain off energy by husking corn.

As I recall, a kiss was a prize for a red ear.

Nowadays, hostesses make little effort to channel this excess energy in such constructive outlets, so modern young people feel like blowing their top.

"Mind if I smoke?" asks the jittery young man, and thereafter waves his arm around for 10 minutes in the act of handling his cigarette.

Others jump up to get a cocktail shaker as they decide to mix drinks.

"My hands feel so conspicuous unless I am holding something," coeds have informed me, thus showing the universal desire to have the hands in action to drain off nervous tension.

Hostesses, as well as program directors for church young people's societies, please give your guests plently of hand gadgets.

Teen-agers can't sit still. Their social excitement, due to the normal inter-sexual stimulation that a mixed audience generates, makes them jittery.

But "jitters" simply mean idle hands that crave action. So put something more desirable into the hands of your guests than cigarettes or cocktail glasses.

Give them pen and paper and let them draw cartoons or answer riddles. Furnish the crowd plenty of chewing gum, for this also helps drain off tension, which is why children universally crave gum.

Buy a few puzzles at a magic store for you can keep a crowd of college folks or teen-agers occupied for hours in such a manner without ever needing cigarettes or liquor.

Dancing is popular with youth chiefly because it lets them drain off extra energy. It is not as popular with oldsters because they haven't such excess energy.

Send for my "Test for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope plus 20 cents in coin. Let the crowd rate each other thereon.

You can use them as major entertainment for at least a full hour of animated discussion and fun.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Kefauver Seen in Second Spot

Tennessee Paper Says Senator Favors Adlai Over Harriman

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Associates of Sen. Estes Kefauver "are convinced" that the Tennessee senator would be willing to "run in the No. 2 place on the national ticket," the Chattanooga Times said today.

The senator's associates are "equally convinced of his preference for (Adlai) Stevenson over (Averell) Harriman," the newspaper said.

In a dispatch from its Washington correspondent Charles Bartlett, the Times said, "Kefauver would bolster a Stevenson ticket because of his unchallengeable popularity in the Farm Belt, where Stevenson is the weakest."

Bartlett wrote that "a close scrutiny of Sen. Estes Kefauver's post-California words and actions suggests two things:

"1. That he is likely to prove responsive to any invitation that may develop at the Democratic convention to run in the No. 2 place on the national ticket.

"2. That if he arrives at the convention in a position to trade delegates for vice presidential preference, he will be more inclined to assist in the formation of a Stevenson-Kefauver than a Harriman-Kefauver ticket."

Army 'Water' Rescues 'Dry' Town in Kansas

OGDEN, Kan. (AP) — This little village sweltered through 104-degree weather yesterday without water until tank trucks arrived from nearby Ft. Riley.

A pump motor on one of the town's two wells broke down early Monday, and the other well dried up, Mayor William Neyer said.

When the Army trucks arrived they found Ogden citizens lining the road, carrying jars, buckets and even plastic wastepaper baskets to get water.

Workmen expected to restore operation of the pump today. Ogden has a population of 1,421.

Blast of Tear Gas Empties Jersey Bank

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — The board of directors and some 50 employes of the First National Iron Bank were driven into the street when the tear gas system was accidentally set off.

* * *

George Barkelew of the Federal Laboratories in Saltsburg, Pa., had just reloaded 22 tear gas cartridges and was explaining to the head cashier that several wires should be repaired.

Apparently the wires were touched and the system went off. In less than 30 seconds fumes flooded the bank.

Maintenance men set up fans to air out the building. The directors, unperturbed, moved their meeting to another location.

California Declares Lab Scientist Insane

PASADENA (AP)—A court has decreed that Dr. Robert J. Dwyer, government scientist, was insane at the time he stabbed four fellow scientists in a South Pasadena laboratory last February.

Superior Judge Kenneth C. Newell found Dwyer, 49, guilty of assault with a deadly weapon but agreed with psychiatric reports which termed him insane during a sudden knife-wielding outburst. All four stabbing victims recovered.

Judge Newell ordered another mental hearing July 10 to determine whether Dwyer is to be released or hospitalized.

Democrats Seek Party Keynoter

Speculation Is Rampant as Platform Committee Head Stays Unnamed

WASHINGTON (AP)— The names of three senators and a governor led the list today in speculation over the Democrats' choice of a national convention keynoter.

* * *

They are Senators Robert S. Kerr (Okla), John O. Pastore (RI) Hubert Humphrey (Minn) and Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee.

There was no sign, however, that party leaders were anywhere near success in their search for a chairman of the Platform Drafting Committee. That group will swing into action Aug. 6 in Chicago, a week before the presidential nominating convention opens.

* * *

Rep. John W. McCormack (Mass), the House majority leader, has turned down the chairmanship because he now lists himself in the category of a favorite son candidate for top place on the ticket.

* * *

Several governors and senators have been under discussion in the hunt for a man who would use his influence toward adoption of a moderate civil rights plank calculated to keep all elements under the party's tent in the November election campaign.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (Tex) already has indicated he will take on the job of permanent chairman of the convention once again.

Selection of the convention officers will come at a mid-July meeting of the party's Arrangements Committee, headed by National Chairman Paul M. Butler.

U.S. Will Pay Pacific Natives for Their Islands

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)— The United States says it is finally going to pay 304 Pacific islanders for the land on the Bikini and Eniwetok atolls it uses for nuclear bomb tests.

Delmas H. Nucker of Terre Haute, Ind., acting high commissioner for U.S. trust territories in the Pacific, told the U.N. Trusteeship Council that "administrative problems in obtaining the necessary funds" have been settled and the debt will be paid as soon as possible.

His statement followed a report by a U.N. visiting mission to the Pacific island trust territories saying payment to the displaced islanders is urgent. One hundred and sixty-seven Bikinese were moved out in 1946 and 137 from Eniwetok the next year to neighboring islands.

The mission report said they could not return to their old homes. U.S. officials said this is because of extensive concrete construction — not because of radiation danger.

Ben-Gurion Issues Israel Stand on War

JERUSALEM (AP)—In full control of Israel's foreign policy after the resignation of Moshe Sharett, Premier David Ben-Gurion again has vowed his nation will not make preventive war on the Arabs.

* * *

But he warned in a Knesset (Parliament) debate that Israel "will answer force by force."

The Premier spoke last night in reply to questions about Sharett's resignation. Considered a more restrained, moderating influence in Israeli foreign affairs, Sharett quit as foreign minister Monday after long opposition to Ben-Gurion's policy of "active defense" against Israel's Arab neighbors.

* * *

By a 65-20 vote of confidence in Ben-Gurion's government, the Knesset in effect approved the appointment of Mrs. Golda Myerson to succeed Sharett as foreign minister. A former Milwaukee school teacher, Mrs. Myerson has been labor minister since 1949.

A camera and a light meter with case was taken from a parked car Monday afternoon, Pontiac Police said today.

Automobile Gray Market Causes Soviets Trouble

MOSCOW (INS) — It takes more than just passing a law to keep racketeers honest—even in a nation which keeps such close tabs on its citizens as the Soviet Union.

* * *

A law soberly designed to halt automobile gray-marketing went into effect Jan. 1, 1955, after a spate of indignant letters about used-car dealing appeared in the Soviet press.

Each of the relative handful of state automobile dealers—Moscow, for example, has only one—has a year-long waiting list.

A smart-money boy would buy a car through the normal channels then immediately put his name on the list again.

When his second application came up, he would sell the first car—for up to twice what he paid for it new—pay for the second one and put his name on the list once again.

TO SPOIL THE GAME

The January 1955 law made an ineffectual attempt to spoil the game by:

1. Requiring the full purchase price with the application, instead of on delivery.

2. Making a purchaser ineligible to put in for a new car for five years after buying a five-passenger Pobeda or for three years after buying a three-passenger Moskvitch.

Skeptical observers suggested at the time that the law couldn't be expected to curb the "speculators" any longer than it took them to dig up the extra cash now needed with an application and to ring in their relatives as dummy purchasers.

Karl Marx, grandfather of the Soviet economic system, didn't get around to the theory of the black market. But Soviet authorities don't have to be told that the only way to break the chain effectively is to produce enough cars to satisfy the customers.

PRODUCTION DOWN

But, at the moment, Soviet auto production is actually lower than it was 18 months ago when the law was passed.

Production has slumped at the Moskvitch plant in Moscow for several months while the factory retooled for its first postwar change. An up-to-date little four-seater which looks a bit like an Austin has begun dribbling off the lines.

* * *

The Moltov auto works in Gorky, which turns out the Pobeda, has also been retooling—for a five-passenger car, the "Volga." Constant production snags have cropped up and the new car isn't expected to roll much before the first of next year.

Meanwhile, the automobile gray market continues to thrive, despite the January 1955 law.

One of the most successful operators, until he made a slip and tangled with police, was Pavel Lukashenkov. He went into the used-car business as an unregistered sideline in 1949.

Moscow Pravda reports Lukashenkov grossed from 8,000 to 12,000 rubles a resale—$2,000 to $4,000 at the official rate for the ruble.

Congress Allots Wildlife Funds

Michigan Slated for Top Apportionment Among States, Territories

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department has announced the allotment of $2,693,493 to the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands for wildlife reservations.

Secretary Seaton explained that the distribution involves one-fifth of an accumulated appropriations backlog totaling $13,467,468.

Congress authorized distribution of the surplus at the rate of one-fifth each year, to be added to the regular appropriation, until it is exhausted.

The backlog was built up from 1939 to 1946, when Congress did not appropriate yearly the full receipts from the 11 per cent excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition, as authorized by the Pittman-Robertson Act. World War II took place during this period.

The additional federal funds must be matched on a basis of $1 of state money for each $3 of federal money.

Michigan and Texas got $133,474.68 each to top the states. California got $128,095.06, New York $109,382.84 and Pennsylvania $104,828.47.

No other state got as much as $100,000.

'56 Industrial Accidents Increase in Michigan

LANSING (AP)—The Department of Labor says preliminary figures indicate that the injury-frequency rate in Michigan manufacturing rose during the first quarter of 1956.

The department estimated the number of disabling injuries in the first three months of the year at 4,600 and the injury-frequency rate for all manufacturing at 8.6.

This would represent an increase of 3.6 over the previous quarter rate.

Reports were received covering about 75 per cent of the manufacturing employes in the state.

Radiation-Proof Shelters Urged in CD Program

WASHINGTON (AP)— The head of a congressional group investigating defense has called on federal authorities to scrap what he called "cheap" plans for evacuating cities, and plan instead radiation-proof shelters.

Chairman Holifield (D-Calif) said in an interview he is certain his house government operations subcommittee will make this recommendation in its forthcoming report.

Straits Bridge High Man Likes Scenery

MACKINAW CITY (AP)—Bill Hood, who looks down on the Straits of Mackinac bridge job from atop the 552-foot towers, says he's "never had a prettier place to work."

As a signalman on the project, his job is to "talk in" the tons of tools, steel and men transported by derrick to the top of the main towers.

His post is a steel beam—from which he can see best — high above the water. He operates by telephone headset.

"You get used to it up here," Bill says. "As a matter of fact, after you've been up here for a while, you begin to lose your sense of height. The water begins to look as though it were only 250 feet below."

PREFERS "BILL"

Hood, who prefers "Bill" to his given name of Elijah, has been an iron worker since he turned 16 in his native Herrin, Ill.

At 30, and thoroughly experienced, he observes "you've got to be safety minded." He's responsible for relaying instructions to the derrick operator above and to the bargeman who hooks on the loads to be carried aloft.

Wind, cable twist and a number of problems are present on each hoist.

But, when things are a little slow between lifts, Bill whiles away the time admiring the scenery.

"It's beautiful, all of it — the shoreline, the tugs shuttling around, the freighters going through the Straits. I've been a signal man for four years," he says, "but I never had a prettier place to work."

Injunction Issued on Racial Bus Laws

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — City and state officials have nine days from today in which to appeal a federal court decision against bus segregation laws in Montgomery or see enforcement of the laws stopped June 29.

* * *

A three-judge federal panel in a 2-1 vote yesterday issued an injunction against both the Montgomery and Alabama bus segregation laws. The panel suspended the injunction for 10 days, however, to allow time for its decision to be appealed.

* * *

The vote was the same by which the three jurists declared the laws unconstitutional June 5.

Officials said they would have to study the situation before deciding whether to appeal the case directly to the U.S. Supreme Court.

AFL Group to Re-Submit Williams' Endorsement

DETROIT (AP) — Officials of the AF Lbuilding trades councils say they will reoffer a resolution endorsing Gov. Williams' candidacy for a fifth term at the Michigan Federation of Labor convention today.

The resolution of endorsement was missing from the list of resolutions read on the convention floor yesterday.

Leaders of the building grades group, which claims to represent 150,000 of te state's 350,000 AFL members, said they had submitted the resolution to the resolutions committee well ahead of the deadline, which passed at noon yesterday.

O-JIB-WA OFFERS YOU FREEDOM FROM PAIN

This true, unpaid for testimonial, from Mrs. Sherman V. Taylor of Route 2, Lowell, Michigan, tells the facts of how O-Jib-Wa Bitters made it possible for her to walk again, without the terrible pains of Rheumatism and Arthritis.

"I first learned about O-JIB-WA BITTERS about 15 years ago, through a newspaper ad. I was bothered at the time with severe gas and indigestion, so decided to try it. It helped my stomach so much that when rheumatism struck my legs and hips recently, I again called upon this wonderful medicine for help. My left leg often gave out, and at times I couldn't walk a step. I managed to get meals and do some housework, but it was a real chore. I could just barely get around by slowly moving one foot out in front of the other. I didn't see much change in the first five days, and was a little disappointed, but by the time I had taken your medicine for two weeks, I was feeling lots better. I am completely free of pain and stiffness now, and can walk good, and do all my housework with no pain or trouble at all. My brother also took O-JIB-WA BITTERS with good results, so sure thank you for making us feel so good. I'm glad to have this opportunity to tell other sufferers bothered with rheumatism, arthritis or stomach trouble, how O-JIB-WA BITTERS helped me. I'm certain that anyone who gives this medicine a fair trial, will soon see why I praise O-JIB-WA so highly."

City Folks Suffer on Longest Day of Year

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Tomorrow we head into the longest day of the year — a period of strung-out sunlight that is certain to please athletes, farmers and certain breeds of energetic, babbling birds.

* * *

But for us city folk? It is only a strain on the eyes and a pain in the head.

God knew what he was doing when he made the winter days short and the summer days long. The winters were for staying inside and thinking about the summers, and the summers were for getting outside and building up strength (and repairing housing accommodations) for the winters.

Civilization, however, has made it so that there is no basic change, seasonally, in the scheme of things.

As a consequence, the drones work all year round while the people with money and no school to attend play all year round — and the longer the day, the more unfair the inequity.

THUNDEROUS DAWN

For a city man, the longest day of the year shapes up like this:

Earlier than ever before, the dawn comes up like thunder. (In fact, it is thunder. His little savages, with their big thundering feet, have two hours more to play in the morning and what's more they have that "no-school" enthusiasm.)

* * *

This is roughly 6 a.m., an hour which in the wintertime is the city man's solace. But there is no chance of going back to sleep now, even if the city woman kicks the city children out onto the street. For the sun is high and the glare is frightful.

At the office, the heat is on (the usual business heat, plus nature's), and the city man slogs through the day, working at approximately 33⅓ per cent of his winter peak efficiency.

At lunch, it is too warm to eat so he drinks a few gin and-tonics (the gin for strength, the quinine water to prevent malaria) and goes back to work.

* * *

Now his capacity for work is .08 of his wintertime efficiency, and he either labors later than his customary quitting hour, or he says nuts with it and locks his office door for the day.

FRENZIED DAYLIGHT

But what greets him outside, on the bustling city street? Not the soft, soothing shadows that in winter indcate the witching cocktail hour or the comfortable time for tea—but frenzied daylight.

* * *

The heat has buffeted and seeped into the concrete during the day unto the point of saturation. And now the concrete rebels and throws it back into the city man's face.

Where can he turn? To escape, he steps into an air-cooled bar or movie theater, where for awhile he dries out and contracts the first stages of pneumonia.

Then, at 6 or 7, he ventures forth again—but the "dusk" is still bright as Marilyn Monroe's hair.

* * *

Befuddled and distressed, he goes home. His wife is grouchy (she likes a good dark evening, too, being a city wife), because there's not quite time to play a ground of golf, but there's too much sunlight for a candlelight dinner.

The kids are screaming (still enthusiastic, if you can believe it) for sustenance, and the city family sits down to a repast of Consomme Madrilene, lettuce leaves and ice cream, with the summer sun smiling its sticky blessing upon all.

* * *

When the shades of night finally fall, shortly before midnight, the heat continues to haunt the city man. Then along about 4 a.m. it cools down and the city man sleeps.

At 4:30, the sun comes up, and at 6 so do the kids, and . . .

Let us all give thanks for Dec. 21, the shortest day of the year.

'MS' Day in Cadillac

CADILLAC (AP)—A group of 200 volunteers plan a one-day campaign June 27—designated as "MS" day—to raise $50,000 for completion of veterans memorial stadium, an athletic field for Cadillac.

Hardwood types of trees cover more than two-thirds of Vermont's commercial forest area, with sugar maple, beech and yellow birch the dominant types.

Poll of Illinois Delegates Shows Stevenson in Lead

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson is the No. 1 choice among Illinois delegates to the Democratic National Convention who took part in a new poll.

* * *

Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri has gained second-choice support.

Those were among the findings in a survey conducted by The Associated Press.

Ballots were mailed to the 78 delegates who will cast 64 votes at the August convention. Each was asked to name his first choice for the party's presidential nomination; his second choice, if any; or to list himself as undecided.

* * *

Replies were received from 37 delegates with a total of 30½ votes.

A compilation of the returns showed:

First choice: Stevenson, 19½ votes; Symington, 1; Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, 1.

Second choice: Symington, 4½; Stevenson, 1; Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania, 1; Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, ½.

Undecided: 9 votes.

* * *

The Associated Press also made a survey of delegate candidates before the April 10 Illinois primary. Of the delegates elected at that time, 12 had announced for Stevenson and two for Kefauver. Symington and the others were not listed in any April returns.

An interesting angle in the latest poll was the results from downstate delegates who attended a meeting last month in Springfield. Statements issued then by Scott Lucas, former senator, and John Stele, former governor, said the conferees agreed to go to the convention unpledged and "strong sentiment" was expressed for Sen. Symington.

* * *

Fourteen delegates were listed as attending the meeting. Eight took part in the latest poll. Two chose Stevenson. Six said they were undecided.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Next time you do your shopping, here is a recipe for making it more pleasant. Visit the meat department at your neighborly National, and get to know the market manager. He's there to make your shopping trip to National fun, convenient and satisfactory. Maybe you have a question as to how large a roast it takes to serve six people, or perhaps you want a special thick steak. Although National has grown in size, and our stores are ultra-modern, one thing hasn't changed . . . you'll still find the same "old-fashioned" American spirit of friendliness and co-operation at all neighborly National Food Stores.

Cool Fixins' for Warm Weather

Is it SENSE or NONSENSE to think less food is needed in hot weather? Answer is NONSENSE! The human machine needs year-round nourishment of proteins, vitamins, minerals etc. for healthful mileage no matter what the temperatures. For a summer tune-up serve a delicious "Aloha Salad": diced cooked lamb, beef or ham combined with diced bananas, pineapple and celery mixed with the family's favorite salad dressing (Natco is our favorite). Serve it with potato chips, sliced tomatoes, hot biscuits and for dessert—I suggest sliced pound cake topped with lemon custard sauce (use packaged lemon pudding to make your sauce). Easy? Yes, on both you and the pocketbook

★ ★ ★

A can of condensed Cream of Celery soup well mixed with a pound can of salmon, 1½ cups of bread crumbs, a minced green pepper and 2 eggs slightly beaten, will make a celery-salmon loaf so enjoyable you'll be forced to repeat. Served with succotash, a raw vegetable salad and blueberry pudding for dessert, who could wish for anything more?

ABRA-CA-DAB-RA!

What a joy it is to receive the spontaneous invitation "stay for lunch." An invitation you can extend when the pantry shelf holds a can or two of the quick-to-fix canned foods like chicken (plain, fricassee or a la king). Luncheon meats, hash, fish, soup, vegetables and fruits. With a dash of imagination in the seasoning department and showmanship in the display, your guests will think you a magician. Your National Food Store has an unlimited supply of these magic props for just such a gala performance.

Yours for satisfaction,

Betty Natco

IBM President Dies at 82 Following Heart Seizure

NEW YORK (INS)—Thomas J. Watson, who rose from a $6-a-week bookkeeper to become the mult-millionaire head of the world-wide International Business Machines Corp., died yesterday of a heart attack in New York's Roosevelt Hospital. He was 82.

* * *

Only a few weeks ago Watson, often called "the world's greatest salesman," stepped down as chief executive officer of IBM and announced the election of his son, Thomas, Jr., 42, to succeed him.

He emphasized vigorously at the time, however, that he was "not retiring," adding in an interview with James L. Kilgallen of I.N.S.:

"I don't think a man in good health should retire. A man can retire from certain responsibilities but he still has the responsibility to do something for others."

Watson suffered the heart attack Saturday at his country home in New Canaan, Conn. He was brought to the New York hospital where he died at 1 p.m.

CHAIRMAN OF BOARDS

At the time of his death, Watson was chairman of the boards of IBM and the IBM World Trade Corp. The unexpected death ended one of America's most remarkable careers.

Born in Campbell, N.Y., Feb. 17, 1874, the son of Thomas and June White Watson, he was educated in Addison Academy and the Elmira, N.Y., School of Commerce.

On a Friday the 13th, he began his career as a bookkeeper at $6 a week in "Clarence Risley's Market," Painted Post, N.Y., but soon learned that his greatest interest was in selling.

Subsequently he went to work in the same village, and for two years he sold sewing machines and musical instruments for Willard Bronson. Then he joined the National Cash Register Company, as a salesman in Buffalo, N.Y. Four years later he was made manager in Rochester where he worked another four years. He was then advanced to special representative, and after four and a half years, was appointed general sales manager, at Dayton, Ohio, serving there for nearly six years.

In May 1914, he was selected to head the Computing-Tabulating-Recording Company, which later became International Business Machines Corporation.

When Watson became president of the organization, it had fewer than 400 employes. Today there are more than 47,000 on the payroll. The company does business in 81 countries. The IBM organization includes 16 factories.

Jackson Getting Exclusive Now

State Prison Jammed, Official Says; Counties to Hold Prisoners

Convicts from 11 counties including Oakland are finding that Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson is becoming a fairly exclusive place to enter. At least there is a waiting list for all reservations.

The State Corrections Department today closed the gates to the jammed prison when population hit a new high of 10,124 inmates.

Frank W. Irons, Oakland County sheriff, said he has been asked to hold prisoners up for two or three weeks. "There are six here now that we're holding until we get word to send them down," he said.

Gus Harrison, State Corrections Department director said "The intake is 80 per week compared to a discharge of 60 at the prison. We've got to do something to relieve the situation."

Harrison said counties with adequate jails and which send most of the inmates to the prison have been asked to keep convicts in their own facilities temporarily.

Asked to cooperate besides Oakland County were Lenawee, Jackson, Calhoun, Berrien, Wayne, Macomb, St. Clair, Saginaw, Bay and Genesee counties.

School Board Sets Wage for 15 Maintenance Men

Pontiac's Board of Education last night voted a wage schedule for its 15 maintenance men, in the face of strike threats from the group's Detroit attorney.

Superintendent of Schools Dana P. Whitmer recommended a $200 across-the-board raise for the group, reduction of working hours from 42½ to 40 a week, longer vacations for men with high seniority and study of the group's demands by a bipartisan committee.

The board okayed Whitmer's recommendations after hearing Miss Dee Edwards, attorney for the group, say the action would be "a failure to live up to your legal and moral obligations."

"Adopting this schedule won't finish anything," Miss Edwards said. She said the group would demand a fact-finding commission to study the dispute in preparation for a strike petition unless the board agreed to meet with maintenance men and the State Labor Mediation Board within five days.

Whitmer said a series of meetings, two with members of the state board, had proved repetitious and resulted in no progress.

Miss Edwards objected to the $200 pay hike because it narrows the differential between school custodians and school maintenance men, and because it is below the wage scale for outside construction work.

She said another pay hike of 50 cents an hour—about $200 a year—would be "reasonable."

* * *

According to Whitmer, reduction of working hours and added fringe benefits already have added the equivalent of a 5.8 per cent hourly increase. With the pay hike, he said, the raise will total 8.3 to 9.3 per cent.

The board's action set the last remaining wage scale for the 1957 budget. The maintenance group's demands have been under consideration for several months.

Arrest Detroit Brothers in $250,000 Tax Swindle

DETROIT (INS) — An attempted $250,000 tax swindle has put a former federal income tax man and his brother under arrest today in Detroit.

The pair, Edward J. Zacharski, 39, a dismissed Internal Revenue agent, and his brother, Norman Zachary, 27, are charged with filing tax returns for non-existant persons.

* * *

The brothers operated an accounting service which also made out income tax returns for the public.

Before their arrest they had cashed $70,000 in refund checks sent to their fictional taxpayers and 13 additional checks have been intercepted since the investigation started.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Donald Welday said the two men gave actual addresses for their "taxpayers" but placed forwarding address cards with the post office to have the checks sent to their own address.

SLIPPED UP

Federal authorities say they made their mistake when they were two days late in sending in a forwarding address for one of their returns.

When the mailman delivered the check to the address designated the residents opened the envelope and then returned the $4,000 check it contained to postal authorities.

Following a check of the name appearing on the refund, postal inspectors were notified, who in turn referred the case to Treasury Department agents.

* * *

The investigation disclosed a total of 68 false returns submitted by the pair, each for a man earning from $25,000 to $30,000 with a refund of from $3,000 to $4,000 due on each return.

Zachary was arrested by T-men as he attempted to close out his $12,000 bank account and his brother was arrested in his office.

Zacharski, who worked as an internal revenue agent checking high bracket earners, was dismissed for misrepresenting his educational background.

Bob Considine Says:

Panama Parley Recalls Bolivar's Dream

NEW YORK (INS) — "We have ploughed the sea," the immortal Simon Bolivar said with bitterness before he died. He had led the forces that liberated most of South American.

* * *

He had called a great conference at Panama (1826) and found only suspicion of his dream of a united continent. And so he died, unwept and in poverty and rancor, with the despairing thought that he had dug only a short-lived furrow in memoryless water.

In death, the Venezuela-born Creole Liberator gained incomparable stature. Many of the dreams he nurtured came to fruition after he was dust. His work continues.

Late next month, if all goes well, President Eisenhower and the presidents of all other soverign states in this hemisphere will meet in Panama in perhaps the most momentous conclave of its kind since the Bolivar conference of 130 years ago.

Bolivar considered Panama the perfect meeting place. The Organization of American States seems to have no reason to question that appraisal.

In fact, although the date has not yet been officially set, there is a great scramble on for rooms in Panama's elegant El Panama Hotel.

ONLY ENGLISH VOICE

Since Canada will not attend, being under the aegis of the British crown, we will be the only English-speaking nation represented at what will in all probability be history's greatest meeting of presidents.

* * *

Jim Hagerty, the President's press secretary, flew to Panama a week before the President's illness to inspect the situation and make preliminary plans.

The President is very keen on this conference. It could be his first big post-operative engagement and have a bearing on his political futdre.

But there was no political aspect involved when Eisenhower came up with the conference plan while talking with the President of Mexico and the Prime Minister of Canada at White Sulphur Springs in April.

Nor with there be any political flavor attached to his presence when/if the conference comes of next month, except that his presence there would demonstrate that he's back in harness.

Eisenhower feels more keenly about bettering Pan American relations than any outstanding American since Cordell Hull.

NO FAVORITISM

Eisenhower's chief instruction to Hagerty before the latter flew there was to assure the host President, Panama's Ricardo Arias Espinosa, that the U. S. delegation wishes to be treated exactly as the representatives of the other 21 countries will be welcomed.

There will be no special red carpet treatment; no cause for any mention of the "Colossus of the North."

Hagerty made a very good impression in Panama. He brought back to his boss a souvenir from the desk of President Arias—the latter's latest golf card. Arias shoots in the low 70s.

Speaking of friendship, and the efficacy of a handshake, consider the case of Louis J. Glickman. He bought a $13,000,000 property on the West Coast with a handshake, and acquired five office buildings in New York recently by the same informal method.

* * *

Naturally, there are lieutenants in his wake who flash fountain pens and exchange documents. But Glickman breaks the ground less formally than an other realtor of his time.

The State Department distributes throughout the world his pamphlet, "History of American Business," a tract on how things work here.

Sure missed the kids on Father's Day. Had to spend the day doing a radio show, in line with having been named Radio Father of the Year.

Better luck next year.

Judge Almost Fooled —by 'Drunk' Motorist

DETROIT (UP)—Henry A. Davis Jr., 67, said the light was red when his car approached a street intersection.

"I stopped and waited for the light to turn green," he told Traffic Judge John Watts at his trial on a drunk driving carge yesterday. "When it did, I went ahead and that's when I was hit by another car."

* * *

Judge Watts appeared impressed by Davis' story until a policeman testified there never had been a traffic light at the intersection.

Davis got 10 days in jail.

Hollywood Headlines

Fess Parker to Receive Fat New Disney Contract

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—There is a new big fat contract all ready for Fess Parker to sign with Walt Disney who is famous for giving his people a break when they deserve it.

I asked Walt if it would be difficult for Fess to get out of his Davy Crockett character which brought him worldwide fame.

"Not at all," Walt said. "Fess does very well in 'The Great Locomotive Chase' in another character, and he is serious about his career and is very intelligent."

Walt says he has no immediate film ready for Fess, but he is working on an idea about James Tevis who went to Arizona in 1850 and became a friend of Cochise (the real one—not Jeff Chandler).

Back in Hollywood is Burgess Meredith, who hasn't made a picture in three years. He's been busy the past year touring in "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Buzz, who just arrived in town, again plays a Japanese in the title role in "Joe Butterfly" for Universal-International with Audie Murphy and George Nader. He'll return to New York briefly, leaving for Tokyo with Audie and George on July 5.

The character of Joe Butterfly is a typical Damon Runyon racketer. He'll get anything and do anything for a price, and Buzz says the idea of the story intrigues him.

NO MARRIAGE

There will be no marriage in Tahiti for Linda Danson and Jon Hall. Linda telephoned to say, "I am going to be in three of Jon's television shows which he plans to make in the South Seas.

"I've always wanted to go there," she said, "so when he asked me to be in his TV shows I accepted. His producer and director are going with us. I've never been married and I'm not going to rush into it. I go out with other people."

Lucille Ball says the best birthday gift she ever received is a painting by Calogero. Desi Arnaz gave it to her weeks in advance of her birthday, Aug. 6, but he just couldn't keep it a secret.

"Before my baby was born," Lucille told me, "I used to look at the painting and wish that if I had a daughter she would look just like the girl in the picture, and our little Lucy does resemble the child.

"I loved the painting so much that I bought prints of it and hung them all around the house, so you can imagine my happiness at getting the original. I've just never had anything I loved so much!"

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Janet Leigh and Tony Curtis' baby will be named Kelly Leigh Curtis. Tony can hardly work for looking at the new beauty through the glass at St. John's.

Attorney Richard Coyle, once Mitzi Gaynor's big moment, appeared very happy at the Sportsman's Lodge with model Joyce Johnson.

Jack Palance contacted Gene Markey via transatlantic phone about purchasing Gene's new book, "Kentucky Price." The Markeys are in Paris.

Danny Thomas told me he will never forget Milton Berle flying in from Las Vegas to entertain at his daughter Theresa's graduation party. Danny himself couldn't get away.

John Carroll, who has a beautiful voice, opens at the El Rancho Vegas with Judy Clark. Lucille Rymer, John's ex, still manages him.

Brainwashing Checks Sought

Probers Seek Answer Why Some U.S. POWs Collaborated With Reds

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (UP)— Investigating senators sought explanation today for testimony that a third of all U.S. troops captured in Korea "to some degree collaborated" with the enemy under Communist brainwashing.

* * *

More witnesses were summoned by the Senate Investigations subcommittee in its exploration of the nature of brainwashing and how troops can be trained to resist it.

Most witnesses in yesterday's daylong sessions said deep religious faith, a better knowledge of nism, and awareness of how brainwashing operates provide the best hope for resisting.

* * *

Capt. Bert Cumby, a Negro specialist on the Army adjutant general staff, gave the testimony that "roughly a third" of the 7,190 recorded U.S. POWs yielded to some degree.

Cumby said the evidence is conclusive that Russian Russian offic bossed the brainwashing operations.

Wild West Fan Ike to Get Books of 60 Authors

SANTA FE, N.M. (UP)—The Western Writers of America—a dedicated group whose members some times feel misunderstood —are preparing a getwell offering of their own books for their top fan, President Eisenhower.

* * *

An estimated 50 to 60 autographed books by authors, who include some of the country's best known Western writers, will be sent to the convalescing President along with the best wishes of the group.

Bill Gulick of Walla Walla, Wash., president of the association, said:

"Of course, since it is an election year, we wanted no political implications. Since we were conventioning in Santa Fe, it seemed logical to ask some New Mexico figure to make the presentation to Mrs. Eisenhower. So we asked Sen. Clinton Anderson if he'd be willing. He answered that he would be delighted to see that the President gets the books."

The President reportedly has read Westerns for years.

* * *

The association was formed four years ago to bring the scattered writers more closely together for discussions of such problems as those arising from television, the movies and the expanding field of the paper-backed books.

"Of course we resent such publicity as the psychiatrists who try to explain why people read Westerns," Gulick said.

* * *

"Westerns certainly are a legitimate field for pure entertainment. Sometimes a western becomes more than that, such as when A. B. Guthrie wins a Pulitzer Prize. But when books appear like Guthrie's 'The Way West' and 'The Big Sky' or Milton Lott's 'The Last Hunt,' the critics call them literature, not Westerns."

Post Office Loses

WASHINGTON — Losses sustained by the Post Office Department in the decade since World War II total $4,600,000,000 — five times as great as losses in the 10 years before the war — and represent $100 of debt for every United States family.

American Signs Up for Wayne Major

DETROIT (INS) — A 30-year contract between American Air Lines and the Wayne County Road Commission calling for the airline to shift operations from Willow Run to Detroit Wayne Major Airport was announced yesterday.

American is the first of the seven airlines operating out of Willow Run to agree to the proposed shift of all commercial carriers to the county-owned Wayne Major fascility.

The other six all have balked at the move.

County Hgihway Engineer Leroy C. Smith was reported hopeful that American's move will lead the other airlines to change their minds regarding the move, which has been urged by the President's Air Use Panel to allow Willow Run to become a military air base.

School Vote Set

8 to 15 Million Acres to Go Into Soil Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has estimated that from 8 to 15 million acres of land normally planted to major surplus crops will be placed under the new soil bank program this year.

For taking the land out of production, the farmers will get payments ranging from $4 to $366 an acre under the program, which is designed to eliminate surpluses of cotton, wheat, corn, peanuts, rice and tobacco.

The soil bank program, which was authorized by a new farm measure enacted late last month, offers up to $1,200,000,000 a year through 1959 for reducing plantings of surplus crops and for applying conservation practices to idled acres.

This year's anticipated participation will fall far short of the annual goals set by President Eisenhower when he recommended a program to Congress last January. Lateness in getting the program set up will hold down the acreage put under the program.

The administration goals include the diversion of between 20 and 25 million acres a year from the major crops and transfer of an additional 25 million acres of less productive land to permanent grass, trees and other noncommercial crop uses.

Most of the soil bank payments will be less than $50 an acre.

Big Torque of the Best Sellers

It would stand to reason that automobiles selling in the same league, so to speak, would be pretty close in their engineering specifications.

Like in "torque multiplication" – the twisting force a transmission delivers to the drive shaft. (The greater the torque multiplication, the greater the performance).

But what do you find?

You find that any '56 Buick with advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow delivers a higher torque ratio than any standard-production car in America.*

And you find that this high-torque performance is one reason for Buick's best-seller standing. For Buick is now more strongly positioned in the Top 3 of the nation's biggest-selling automobiles.

That's news—and there's plenty more where that came from.

For the '56 Buick is jam-packed with new engineering and styling advances to make it the best Buick yet, by far.

That new Dynaflow, for example. Not only does it bring you the top torque ratio in the nation today. It brings you the world's only switch-pitch performance in cars – plus a new part-throttle getaway response that's swifter, surer, and a gas-saver to boot.

The big new V8 engine you find in every '56 Buick—it's 322-cubic-inches big, and packed with the highest horsepowers, the highest compressions and the most advanced developments in all Buick annals.

There's a joyous new ride, too—steadied on a massive X-braced keel—cushioned on deep-oil shock absorbers—and buoyant with a new levelness on both country road and highway.

There's a new steering magic here that puts a new ease at your finger tips, and a new "sense of direction" in your every handling maneuver.

Thing to do, of course, is to come see and try for yourself.

That way you can also get a good hard look at the prices that have helped move Buick to a new sales success—to outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

Will you do that, this week?

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Nice and Quiet, She Was

By DAMON RUNYON

Brooklyn

Dear Sir

The other night I took my wife Ethel to the movies and when we were on our way home she ses Joe, are nice people uninteresting? I ses baby, I think you are one of the most interesting people I ever saw in my whole life and that goes double in spades.

She ses no, I am serious Joe although I thank you just the same. You are a very fine fellow to tell me that but I wish you would answer my question. Are nice people uninteresting? I ses why I suppose they are but you will have to explain what you mean. I ses it sounds to me like one of those trick questions of yours.

Ethel ses well, we have seen three pictures in the past two weeks and all of them were about nasty people like murderers and dopers and ladies who like fellows who are not their husbands and mean policemen. There were no nice people in any of them but only unnice ones. Well, the movies are supposed to be interesting to those who pay to see them and I am sure those who make the movies put in the people they think would be most interesting to the customers.

Well, Ethel ses, as there were no nice people in all those pictures we saw I was just wondering if it is because nice people are not interesting to any one. I mean nice people like my moms and Mrs. Crutcher and all the others in our neighborhood who go to church and do their best to be good to everybody.

'I AM JUST ASKING'

I ses, well Ethel, I guess maybe nice people don't lead very exciting lives like the unnice ones in the pictures. I ses all they do is work hard all day long and go home and just sit around until it is time to go to bed although of course some of them go to the movies like us once in awhile and see those pictures you are beefing about. Ethel ses I am not beefing Joe, I am just asking.

I ses well, you know yourself nobody would pay a dime to see a picture about people like the ones we know in our neighborhood. I ses I guess I will have to answer yes to your question and say nice people are uninteresting and that is why you do not see any pictures about them. I ses that is why you see pictures about bad people who are really quite interesting, especially if they commit a murder.

Ethel ses there has not been a murder in our neighborhood for over 30 years. Not since you and I were born, Joe. The last murder around our neighborhood was when old Miss Julia killed her fiance by locking him up in her cellar and starving him to death. I ses what are you talking about Ethel? She ses I am talking about Miss Julia. I ses do you mean that nice quiet old lady that lives across the street from your mom's house?

Ethel ses yes Joe, she is the one. She is one of my mom's best friends. She was in love with a policeman named Brown many years ago and when she found out that he was keeping company with another girl she got them both to come and see her to talk things over and somehow got them to go down in the cellar and locked them in.

They starved to death because she wouldn't give them anything to eat or drink and nobody could hear the noise they made because she made her old father fix the cellar up with stone and cement in advance so it was soundproof.

Nice, quiet old Miss Julia was one of mom's best friends. She was in love with a policeman named Brown many years ago.

I ses I never heard that story in my life and I thought I knew everything that ever happened around here. Ethel ses well of course it was a long time and they had Miss Julia in the asylum for many years. I ses my goodness and I never saw anybody nicer than she is and Ethel ses isn't she nice? But I don't think you will ever see nice people like she is in the movies Joe, they are so uninteresting.

Yours truly,
JOE TURP

Chicago Kids Fill the Breach —With Locusts

CHICAGO (AP) — The Brookfield Zoo said it was lousy with locusts and said it has enough to last through winter.

The zoo got locust-undered after a plea for donations two weeks ago. Sure enough, hundreds of youngsters began turning up with locusts.

Karl Plath, the zoo's curator of birds, said the locusts were needed to feed birds — and also to serve as food for snakes, lizards and some monkeys.

"We've got so many that we had to put most of them in deep freeze," Plath said, "and the supply will last all through next winter."

Junior Sailors of Orchard Lake Launch Activities

Pontiac Press Photos

Orchard Lake Country Club's Junior Sailors gather each Tuesday for sailing events as summer activities get under way. Will-O-Way Gives Satire on Business

Leading Character Steals the Show in 'Gold Cadillac'

Bertha Forman who resembles an average middle-aged American housewife, stole the show at Will-o-Way Tuesday evening — and walked into the hearts of the audience. The play which opened last night is "The Solid Gold Cadillac."

As Mrs. Laura Partridge, owner of 10 shares of stock in General Products Corp., she attends just one stockholders' meeting. Chaos results.

In her own plodding way, Mrs. Partridge ferrets out facts the board of directors prefers to keep quiet. As a stockholders' representative, Mrs. Partridge carries on a voluminous correspondence. Before the end of the play, this results in the discomfort of the board.

The play spoofs big business, the government, and the Senate's frequent investigations of various big officials.

* * *

William Smith, playing the part of a big businessman who has to sell all his stock before a government official, has one exhaustingly hilarious scene. He delivers an elocution in the dramatic manner of the past, complete with numerous gestures.

Robert Bryson, Gerald M. Harrington and Treesa Way Sikorski support Miss Forman in "The Solid Gold Cadillac". Newcomers include a husband and wife team, Danny and Janet Simpson.

Danny Simpson, according to the program, is a native of Pontiac, once known as an exhibition diver. After receiving his master's degree from MSU, he went into the theater.

"The Solid Gold Cadillac" will run nightly, except Monday, through July 1. "The Seven-Year Itch" opens on July 3.

Franklin Wallin (right), sailing master at Orchard Lake Country Club, gives a few pointers to (left to right) Barbara Beier, Barbara Hedrick and Linda Neal, all of Birmingham. They're all set for the sailing events to be held at Orchard Lake.

Mrs. Eric Sommer of Birmingham (left) is chairman of the junior girls' sailing activities. She is photographed with Marilyn Chaffee (center) and Bonnie Bramblett, both of Birmingham.

Which Category Fits You Best?

When you get around to the matter of summer vacation wardrobes, women become very easy to handle.

They fall into three general classes: (a) those who like to go dressy (b) those who favor blue jeans and T-shirts and (c) those who combine dressy dresses and the practical, practically no-iron kind of clothes.

This year, all three classes will be made happy by the clothes designers have readied for them. Designers have taken into consideration the facts that all women do not lead completely air-conditioned lives all summer long, that price is a point, that fabrics must hold their own, and that travel can be hot, dusty and wrinkling, as well as scenic.

For the Daughters

Ensembles (dress and coat in harmonizing fabric and color) are as good for the kiddies this year as they are for the grownups.

Fellowship Class Views Color Films

The Fellowship Bible Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed an imaginative tour of America through colored motion pictures when members and guests met at the church Tuesday evening.

Completing the evening program were several violin solos presented by Jim Charlton accompanied by Mrs. William Hokes at the piano. David H. Gee was chairman for the evening.

A cooperative dinner was served prior to the program, with Mrs. Harry Bickford and her committee in charge. Devotions were given by the Rev. William Hokes, assistant pastor of the church.

It's a Good Sale Buy —If You Can Use It

Sales lure all women. But it's a good fashion rule to remember to buy at a sale only those things you can really use.

Don't be lured by a red silk dress when you never wear red but feel that you've found a great "bargain." It will wear itself out on a hanger in your closet.

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the Tuesday wedding of Ernestine Persing and Don G. Pixley. The bride, of Lake Orion, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dribben of LaCrosse, Wis. Couple Will Make Home in Rochester After Trip

The Rev. William H. Collycott of Goodison Methodist Church performed the double-ring ceremony Tuesday noon uniting Ernestine Persing and Don G. Pixley.

* * *

For the wedding, the bride chose a pale pink ballerina-length gown of crystalette with a round neckline and short sleeves. A looped cording outlined the scoop neckline and sleeves.

Soft folds fell from the princess-style waistline, and she wore a small cloche-type hat matching her dress. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

* * *

Mrs. Joyce Yerex of Rochester was her only attendant. She wore a blue street-length dress with a matching scroll hat. Vern A. Pixley served as his son's best man.

For the ceremony and the reception held at the Detroit Boat Club, Mrs. Dribben wore a rose beige lace dress and Mrs. Pixley chose a rose organza gown.

Following a honeymoon in Nassau, the newlyweds will make their home in Rochester.

Stick to What Suits You Best —All the Time

There is much value in the advice given to mature women that says: find what suits you and stick to it.

* *

One field in which this is particularly true is the matter of hairstyle. It is to the women whose standard style is long hair, done up in a bun, that this column is addressed.

If one's hair begins to lose luster and act droopy, it may be time to have it cut off. Long hair is more difficult to care for, even if it's worn in a bun. It's harder to wash, takes longer to dry and a single strand that falls out is by far more conspicuous, both on the shoulder and down the drain.

* * *

Short hair can be shampooed with frequency, since a few rubs of the towel make it dry enough to wear outdoors immediately. The scalp is easier to get at for treatments or massage. If one's scalp is sufficiently oily, a daily shampoo is within reason, a great pleasure in muggy weather.

Slim Line Upholstery in Current Vogue

A new look has taken over in the field of upholstery. It is best described as the "slim line." The heaviness and bulkiness associated with sofas and upholstered chairs is gone and has been replaced by an air of lightness.

Slim legs lift the pieces off the floor. Features of the new simple styling are narrow tapered arms and slim backs and cushions.

Janice Flemington Weds in Rite at Detroit Church

A gown of white organdy with tiny tucks edged in lace was worn by Janice Elaine Flemington for her marriage Saturday to Knut Erichsen.

The wedding was performed in St. Olaf Lutheran Church, Detroit, with a reception for 200 guests held in the church parlors.

Sue Persons of Elyria, Ohio, wore a yellow ballerina-length gown for her duties as bridal attendant. She carried a nosegay of blue shasta daisies. Laurie Flemington was flower girl. She wore a dress similar to the bride's in white organdy.

* * *

Jon Ivarson of Oslo, Norway, was best man. Seating the guests were Norman Flemington of Birmingham, Robert Beder of Royal Oak, Eric Matus of Birmingham and Bill Summers of Bay Village, Ohio. Kevin Flemington was ringbearer.

Conserve Your Precious Vitality

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Each one of us has just so much energy. We come into this world with a certain amount of native energy or vitality just as we do with native talents and ability.

* * *

Individuals differ. No matter what good care one person takes of himself he may never have the pep of another luckier one. On the other hand, those who are endowed with superlative vitality may lower it greatly with abuses of all sorts.

The fact remains that for one reason or another each one of us has just so much energy. The way we spend our quota is of the utmost importance to our happiness in living.

Too often we allow it to dribble away in petty or frustrating expenditures. Too many folks who think carefully about the way they spend their money give no thought to the way they spend their energy, although energy is life.

* * *

Our vitality may go into myraid activities which swarm about us each day like flies robbing us of the pep and enthusiasm which we could have put into creative work or philosophic thought, friendship, reading, music, sports, philanthropy, hobbies, or just plain fun.

PETTY DEMANDS

We may also eat devitalized food simply from habit, lose sleep in boring evenings, pass up outdoor life, walks, rest periods and exercise, while we stew about in the juice of everyday life with its numerous petty demands and interruptions.

Our vitality may go into myriad activities, which swarm about us each day like flies, robbing us of pep and enthusiasm.

I am not suggesting that freedom from responsibility brings happiness, far from it, but that with limited energy we must organize, plan and choose, rather than drift, if our lives are to be rewarding.

By middle life we should know what we want, but unless we slough off some of the demands and activities which use our energy but add little to the sum total of happiness for ourselves and those we love, we may find ourselves frustrated and lost.

It is your life, and you can control it (to some extent anyway) if you are determined upon that course. Remember that your energy is not limitless and that the manner in which you spend it determines successful or frustrated living.

Her Fudge Will Harden

Marshmallow Fluff Adds Creaminess to Chocolate Candy

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Chocolate-covered creams are sort of sticky for eating in the summer. But fudge is always good—and always welcome. Mrs. Walter Sadoway has a recipe for this candy, guaranteed to turn out a creamy smooth product that always hardens.

For the past year Mrs. Sadoway has been busy with the plans and building of a new house. This summer finds her with a tremendous amount of gardening and landscaping to do. Her green thumb will do it successfully too.

NEVER-FAIL FUDGE
By Mrs. Walter Sadoway

2 squares chocolate
1 small can evaporated milk
2 heaping tablespoons marshmallow creme
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts, if desired

Put sugar, milk and chocolate in sauce pan and cook over medium heat until it forms a soft ball. Remove from heat and beat in marshmallow creme, butter and vanilla. When almost stiff, add nuts and pour into a greased 8x8x2 pan. Cut into squares when hard.

Use Liquid Bleach as Disinfectant

Liquid bleach is not only a good washing aid. It's also a good disinfectant for sanitizing shower, tub, toilet, washbowl and sink. It may combat musty odors and freshen rooms by adding to scrubbing water for floors, walls and unpainted surfaces.

Pontiac High School Class of 1898 Gathers at Dinner Reunion

Thoughtful Gift Will Please Bride

If you receive a wedding announcement or an invitation to the church only, you are not obliged to send a gift unless you wish to. However, accepting an invitation to the wedding reception does virtually place you under obligation to send a gift.

Custom as well as courtesy demands that you send the present well before the wedding day. Don't be tempted by the old theory that one can send a wedding gift any time within a year of the wedding — it's too easy to let the obligation slide entirely!

Illness or absence from town are valid excuses for late wedding gifts, but such gifts should always be accompanied by a note explaining the delay.

The amount of money you spend depends on your own means, and on your closeness to the couple. Relatives, godparents or close friends may want to give household appliances or major furnishings, and because of the importance of style and color, should work these out in consultation with the bride or her parents.

* * *

If your problem is one of wanting to send a small gift to a friend or acquaintance, but not being able to spend much money, then try for something useful, but just a little bit different.

For instance, instead of giving a print or picture, you might give a certificate for framing at a local frame shop. Later, the couple can have a favorite print framed in the style which coordinates with their decor.

For a couple who are hi-fi fans, you might give one well chosen record album. Useful and seldom thought of would be a collapsible luggage rack, for they're sure to have guests and usually in a first home every inch of space counts!

* * *

If you are handy, embroider or edge one pair of fine-quality pillow slips — an inexpensive gift but one which could become an heirloom.

Mrs. Ira A. Haddrill (center) of East Iroquois road is pointing out her picture in the class photograph taken at graduation from Pontiac High School in 1898. On the left is Mrs. Fred F. Thornburg of Claremont, Calif., and George L. Bird of Watkins Lake is at the right.

Pillar Club Has Dinner and Meeting

Members of the Pillar Club met with Mrs. Gale Hedrick of Oakhill drive in Bloomfield Township Tuesday evening for a cooperative dinner and meeting. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ray Falk, Mrs. John Morrison, Mrs. Rolland Muirhead and Mrs. Howard Losee.

For devotions, Mrs. Hedrick read a poem, "The Day", and played a recording of the First Congregational Church Choir under the direction of Charles E. Wilson.

Mrs. Eugene T. Clelland gave a review of the "Merry Hall" by Beverly Nichols. Mrs. Fred Conner reported on the china dishes which the club gave to the Women's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. Ian Hiltie and Mrs. J. C. Smith were guests.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Donald Hogue of Sand Point, with Mrs. Marcus Scott as transportation chairman.

Students Present Recital at Church

Presented in a piano recital Thursday evening at First Nazarene Church were Carol Ann Armbruster, Richard Williams, Carolyn Nicks, Sandra Rose, Darlene Rose, Richard Line, Sally Hilderly, Rebecca Rogers and Linda Levely.

A flute selection was played by Pamela Morris accompanied by Dorothy Boardman.

Others presenting piano solos were Gara Foster, Bonnie Newby, Sharon Parrett, Linda Hubbs, Eva Lyn Mogos, Mary Ann Lewis, Karen Schliebel, Mary Elizabeth Hamilton, Dolores Tapp, Catherine Meger and Sharel Isenhart.

Guild Has Meeting With Mrs. Kinney

Mrs. Bryan Kinney of Cherokee road was a recent hostess to members of Guild 11, All Saints Episcopal Church. Fourteen attended the coffee hour and meeting.

Mrs. Clarence Smith extended an invitation to the guild members and their husbands for a picnic at her Otter Lake home.

Students Give Music Recital

Junior high school and high school students were presented in a musical recital at First Nazarene Church Tuesday evening.

Those taking part in special numbers were Diana Owen, flute, with Joy Owen as accompanist; Kenneth Brown, trombone, accompanied by Linda Libby, and Lillian Casper and William Scribner, playing a bassoon duet.

Others presented were Linda Griffin, Margaret Miller, Brian Mulvany, Ruth Ann Toretta, Deanne Lucas, Suzanne Larkin, Sandra Hilderley, Jeanne Salathiel, Michael Carey, Sharon Talbot, Sandra Brooks, Fred Krupp, Diana Owen, Patricia Spock and Kitty Mildebrandt.

Also taking part were Lenore Gallo, Frank Bloc, Linda Underhill, Gail Bazloff, Dianne Hewett, John Bishop, Nancy Lowery, Phyllis Young, Ronald Rife, Jack Horner and Barbara Broadway.

Ushering for the recital were Karen Kergan, Elaine Schmidt, Patricia Sprock and Phyllis Rife.

A bit of soft modeling clay underneath a flower holder will hold it firm after the vase is filled with water.

Discussing the beautiful peonies in the centerpiece are (left) Mrs. Wesley Stevens of Pine Knob road and Louise Paddock of Union Lake road. The 1898 class reunion brought out stories of runaway horses and the old wooden bridge on Saginaw street that had to be bypassed every time the circus came to town because the elephants in the parades would refuse to cross it.

Vocational Prejudice Is Expensive

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Next to racial prejudice, I think vocational prejudice is the most expensive folly we can engage in.

* * *

Parents are all too inclined to make their minds up that certain fields are desirable and full of prestige, while others are for the peasants.

Not a day goes by but some mother or father writes me, full of concern because John, or Mary, is making a terrible mistake and choosing a low grade field.

Like most prejudice, their's is based entirely on ignorance.

* * *

Take this letter, from a mother in Ohio:

"My boy worked as a waiter in a resort hotel last summer. Now that he's graduating from high school this month he is determined to go to college to study hotel management.

"We're just sick about it, because we had such wonderful plans for him. But now he'll be working in kitchens and waiting on tables and doing goodness knows what.

WHY COLLEGE?

"For that kind of thing, why should he go to college at all?"

This mother quite obviously knows very little about the hotel field. Moreover, she forgets that any job involves learning the lower rungs of the ladder.

Doctors get plenty of messy jobs while they're learning their field.

I discussed this matter recently with Frank Wangeman, general manager of the Hotel New Yorker —one of the world's largest.

I'm sure that if this mother could meet Wangeman, and see his luxurious office and exciting environment, she would change her tune.

LIFETIME IN FIELD

Wangeman has spent his whole life in the hotel field—first in Europe, then here in America. His job is a varied and exciting one and you can see he loves it.

"But," he admitted, smiling, "when I was just beginning, it's true that I handled all kinds of jobs. Once when I was a waiter—learning the ropes—and my friends were studying for international diplomacy, for example, I felt kind of funny. But I wouldn't change a minute of it."

Wangeman believes in taking hotel courses in college.

He told me that the hotel field now has training programs for newcomers, just as industry does, where they have a chance to learn all the varied departments which go to make up a modern hotel.

I hope this mother—and all like her—will remember that there is no such thing as a menial job. There is only a menial point of view.

And if her son doesn't have that menial point of view, she'd better not have it either!

Honoring his father on his seventieth birthday, Robert N. Green (right) entertained approximately 250 men at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club Tuesday evening at dinner. The occasion also commemorated Leslie H. Green's activity for more than a third of a century with the Automotive Materials Corporation. Long a resident of Oakland County at Turtle Lake, Leslie Green was chairman of the Oakland County bond drive during the war and has taken part in many other civic activities. He is identified with a long list of firms in this area.

Two-Tone Outfits Becoming Popular

We've had lots of separates purporting to look like one-piece dresses. Now we have the two-tone dress with calf belt passing itself off as shirt and skirt.

Shirt is in a light tone; skirt is darker. It's a good idea for the working girl and it eliminates that blouse bulge at the waistline.

— GIRLS WHO WEAR GLASSES

by Edythe McCulloch

Uncomplimentary verses used to be quoted about girls who wear glasses. Now the sunny lassie with spectacles may be the most sought after girl of all. Modern glasses can be a pretty part of your face . . . not just windows over your eyes. A soft hairdo (not too fluffy) does wonders for bespectacled ladies but no bangs unless they are short, uneven or with a casually brushed effect. Avoid center parts. Off center lines do the most for you. Don't slip your glasses into your purse when you go to the beauty salon, wear them while your hair is styled. So your hair dresser can anticipate the changes your particular choice of glasses make in your features. Then those skilled hands can place your part, waves . . . your wispy curls in just the right places flattering to your shape of face and glasses.

Hal Boyle Says:

Modern Kids Make Adults Feel Immature

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Sidewalk reflections of a pavement Plato:

Do you feel hopelessly immature in the presence of the younger generation?

Many older people do today. Particularly parents. They feel their children are outgrowing them too fast.

EARLIER WEDDINGS

One reason is the widespread custom of earlier weddings. Marriage at 18 and 19 is becoming commonplace.

"But the worst thing is they start going steady so young," one father moaned to me. "Girls only 12 years old seem to think they should have a steady boy friend. And if you raise a holler they say you're old-fashioned. They say all their girl friends the same age are starting to go steady, so why can't they?"

Kids that age, of course, are only aping the high school teenagers, among whom the custom of "going steady" is now a nationwide problem.

* * *

Some educators see it as only a passing fad, such as the wearing of denim pants or pony tail hairdos. Others think it is senseless, dangerous and should be discouraged as much as possible.

ALL MIXED UP

Parents are as mixed up as the educators. Fathers generally are opposed to daughters in their tender mid-teens having a single beau. They have to restrain an urge to boot the young scalawag down the front steps everytime he whistles at the front door—or walks in without knocking.

Mothers are more tolerant.

"I'd rather have my daughter go steady with a boy who I knew was a good boy," said one, "than to date half a dozen, all of whom I couldn't be sure of."

The high school proms, as remembered by most middle-aged folk, are now a thing of the past.

"There is hardly any cutting-in any more," a mother said. "The couples that are going steady dance with each other all evening. There isn't much changing of partners."

* * *

That, of course, makes it pretty tough on the kids who don't go steady. They feel as out of place as an old maid at a party where everybody else is married.

* * *

Somehow this custom of teenagers going steady doesn't seem as alarming to me as it does depressing. Adolescence is a time when lifelong emotions are excited, but is it the time when they should be set in an adult pattern?

* * *

Youth is the age for change, experimentation, and—if you will—flirtation. Love should come and go like sunshine and cloud, not be fixed in a permanent pattern at a time when one is too young even to know what love means.

TURBULENT HEARTS

A realist might say: "Oh, well, it really doesn't make much difference." Grownups may think that when teen-agers go steady they are only playing at love, but the hearts of teen-agers are turbulent things. The ending of the game—and in most cases it will end, of course—can be a terrible emotional ordeal for either or both parties.

* * *

Why, anyway, do so many kids who are still in the bicycle and algebra stage even want to go steady? That is the disturbing thing. They didn't want to a generation ago.

Is it that since the world is moving so fast . . . so blindly fast . . . they sense the need of some deeper kind of security than their homes or parents can give them? Do they feel a desperate necessity to grow up quickly in a world with so clouded a future?

* * *

Whatever the reason, it is a cosmic pity that in our civilization it is the old who try to stay young and the young who try to act old.

Report ICBM Research Program Moving Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force's research chief says this country has "a real firm program" for development of an intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM).

* * *

This opinion came from Lt. Gen. Donald L. Putt, supervisor of all Air Force research programs. He is deputy chief of staff for development.

Putt was questioned May 17 at a closed door session of a Senate Armed Services subcommittee investigating relative U.S. and Russian air power. His testimony was made public today, after security censorship.

ULTIMATE WEOPON

Often termed the "ultimate weapon," an intercontinental missile could carry a nuclear warhead from this country to Russia — or in the reverse direction — in a matter of minutes. The aim is to develop a rocket capable of traveling 5,000 miles — and dropping right on target.

The general's cautious optimism on the ICBM was coupled with sharp criticism of cuts in recent years in funds for Air Force research and development. He also cautioned that Soviet Russia might surpass this country soon in quality as well as numbers of new weapons and aircraft.

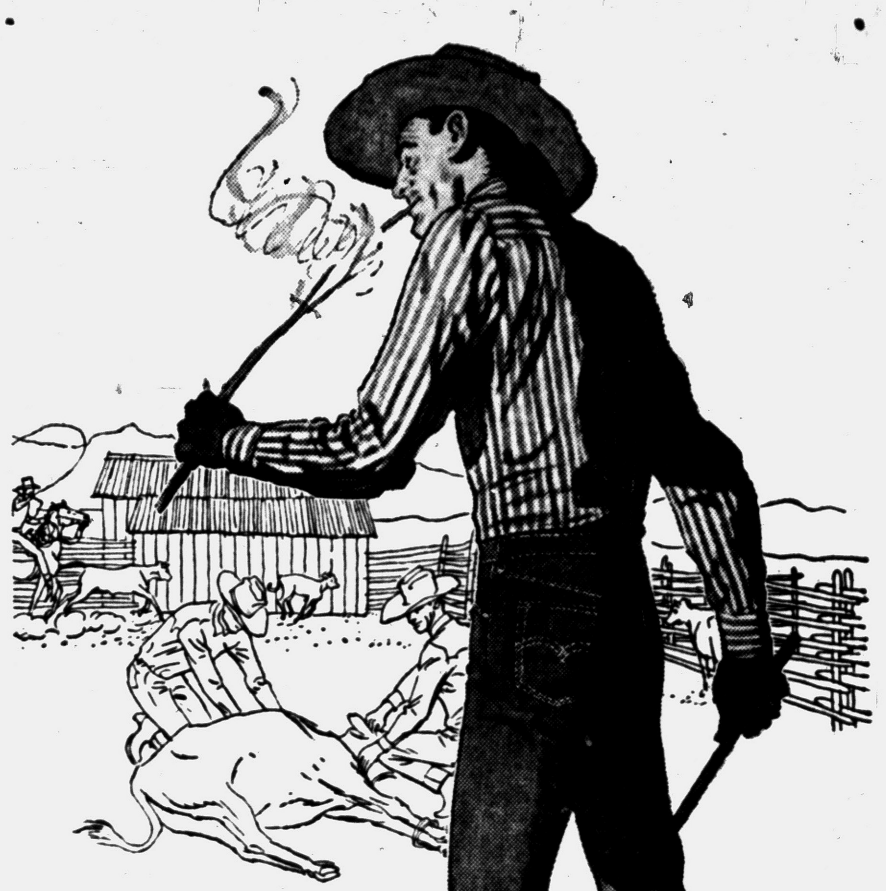

The censored version of Putt's testimony did not show what period of time was involved in the schedule Putt spoke of.

Michigan Man Objects to Baptist Reorganization

* * *

Johnson said the plan to put more power in the hands of the general council, Baptist administrative wing, "doesn't go far enough" in reogranizing the church's business procedures. The plan doesn't allow a sufficient voice by individual churches, he added.

Liquid Miracle! No washday powder ever made can give you the concentrated washing power of new blue instant liquid

Wisk

The instant Wisk hits water, it bursts into millions of wet, live, liquid suds, liquid suds with concentrated washing power that get out dirt and stains dry, lazy, powder suds can't even budge.

You will pour Wisk into your washer. It will get your family wash so clean and white that you will never use a powder detergent again!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk washes clothes whiter than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk removes more stains than any powder ever made!

LIQUID MIRACLE! Wisk is safer, much safer, than any powder ever made!

New, blue WISK is completely different from anything you ever tried. In the first place, it is a liquid you pour into your washing machine. It goes to work instantly. No waiting for powders to dissolve.

But, more important, new WISK is concentrated. It does three times as much wash as the same amount of powder. And does it better, too. For it gives you a concentrated washing power unequaled by any powder. Besides, new WISK is safe for hands, safe for fabrics—safe as only a liquid can be.

MAKES ANY WASHER TURN OUT A CLEANER AND A WHITER FAMILY WASH

Never again need you find a gravy spot left in a just-washed napkin, or a lipstick stain in a hand towel, or a grease spot in a suit of coveralls. DINOSAURS AND CAVE KIDS — 3

Three Horn Face

Here is still another kind of dinosaur, a triceratops (try-sere-a-tops), which means "three horn face."

A triceratops was about 20 feet long, with a huge head almost a third of its length. It had two long horns sprouting out above little eyes, and there was a short thick horn on the end of his parrot-beak mouth. A big curved frill of bone protected its neck, which was a vital spot in an attack.

You wouldn't think that great beasts like these would have been killed off. But changes came to the world of the dinosaurs. The mild climate grew colder, and the warm swampy streams where the dinosaurs loved to wallow disappeared. The dinosaurs could not withstand this change, and they died. After them came the mammals, including man.

Use your crayons to color this picture, and then paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts heavily outlined.

Cut the slit in the mouth, and insert the bunch of leaves and fold back the tab to hold it. Fold back the end panels, and fold the center one forward. Cut along the top of the rock panel and fold forward on the dotted line so it will stand up.

Severe Drought Parches Bethany, Missouri, Area

BETHANY, Mo. (AP) — Bethany still was perilously short of water today, still grim after a tantalizing shower.

* * *

The state's drought committee continued a second survey of 11 northwest Missouri counties to see if the ravages of a long drought are so severe the region can be declared a federal disaster area.

Mayor Raymond K. Wheeler estimated there was enough water for only four days in Bethany's municipal reservoir. Additional water available from two creeks could carry the 3,000 residents for no more than two weeks, he estimated.

* * *

A shower yesterday produced only .37 of an inch of rain.

Bethany has had only five inches of rain in eight months. Its long-time average is 34 inches a year.

Lawn sprinkling and car washing have been outlawed for months. Windows have gone unwashed. Only an inch of water in the tub for a bath is the custom, and that is bailed out to go on flowers. Women wash their hose in the water left after boiling breakfast eggs.

* * *

About 160 farm leaders from the 11-county area gathered here yesterday to tell their woes to the drought committee, headed by L. C. Carpenter, state agriculture commissioner.

Kenneth L. Scott, director of the federal government's agriculture services and head of its drought program, came back to his home county from Washington to hear the pleas.

"We get reports from Washington of money going to foreign countries that are in a bad way," said Jim Whitten, for adjoining Grundy County. "Well, we are in a bad way and we need money."

"We can see we're burning up steadily every week," said Kern Morgan of Unionville. "Our cattle are going just as fast as trucks can haul them out."

* * *

George Holman, from neighboring Gentry County, said foundation herds are disappearing, sold because they were starving to death.

Scott explained the legal technicalities involved in government aid and the meeting broke up with the farmers expressing dissatisfaction.

Pearl Harbor Admiral Dies on West Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Adm. George D. Murray, 66, who commanded the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Enterprise the day Pearl Harbor was attacked, died Monday. He suffered a cerebral hemorrhage six days ago.

* * *

At the time of the Japanese attack Dec. 7, 1941, Murray was returning the Enterprise to Pearl Harbor from Wake Island where he had delivered a small force of aircraft for defense of the tiny Pacific base.

Planes launched from the Enterprise for a scheduled landing at Pearl Harbor ran into the surprise attack. They were the only U.S. carrier-based planes in that action.

A pair of ambitious young lady golfers, one a pro and the other an amateur, are hoping to crash the big-time circle at the LPGA tournament this week at Forest Lake.

No one gives either much of a chance, but maybe it's because no one has really noticed just how badly Mary Mills and Diane Garrett want to win one of these big tournaments.

Miss Mills, a 16-year-old amateur with an unbelievable record for her 4½ years in golf, and Miss Garrett, the youngest of the pros, have set similar goals for which to strive.

They both have pegged golf as a career.

★ ★ ★

Mary started playing golf at 12 because a friend of hers took time out to show her a few things about the game. None of her family plays golf but yet she took to the game without interruption from her parents or sisters and brothers.

At 14 she won the Mississippi State Women's Amateur title. At 15 she defended it and last month she won it for the third time.

"I haven't played much this year, because school just let out, but I plan on hitting all of the tournaments this summer," she said.

★ ★ ★

Mary drove all the way up from Mississippi to enter the Forest Lake tourney. With her 15-year-old sister Deborah accompanying her, she stayed up at Petoskey, Mich., with friends over the weekend and from here she plans on driving to Des Moines for the Western Open.

A junior at Gulfport High School, Mary is thinking about college at a Florida school, but for now she wants to "play in as many tournaments" as she can.

For Miss Garrett the way into golf was a little easier. Both her father and mother did well in the game.

★ ★ ★

Her dad has been a pro for over 20 years and now operates a golf range in Houston.

He started Dianne on the road to golf six years ago, and when she graduated from high school last summer, he gave her, as a gift, the money to make the circuit with the pros.

She turned pro and in September she started her tour. Her best finish was a 6th spot in the Denver Open.

Today Diane celebrates her 19th birthday, and the gift she wants more than anything is "to do well in this tournament."

★ ★ ★

If she plays the kind of golf she did in practice yesterday, Diane could send her dad a top money-winning score card after Sunday's finals.

She fired a 73 at Forest Lake yesterday and was moving at a sizzling sub-par pace until she had three bogeys on the last four holes.

"I'd love to win one of these tournaments just for my dad," she said. "He has wired me birthday greetings and I'd like to return the telegram with a thank you and a good score for a postscript," she said.

★ ★ ★

Diane is driving her way around the LPGA circuit. At Virginia Beach in the Round Robin she picked up $400 for just being an alternate.

"Only 16 girls could play and I was the 17th, but the money sure came in handy," she said.

On the way to Virginia Beach she was involved in a wreck which caused $450 in damages to her car. "Alice Bauer was sitting in the front and she really hit the windshield," said Diane.

"We were lucky not to be hurt seriously," she said.

From here Diane also heads for the Western Open at Des Moines. So if Forest Lake's 6,415 yards become too much of a hurdle for either Mary or Diane, then we may hear from them at Des Moines next week or from some other tourney someday.

Top LPGA Field in Forest Lake Meet

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Golfdom's elite, among the ladies in national pro and state amateur ranks, tee off tomorrow in the 2nd annual Ladies Professional Golf Association Championship and the Wolverine Open Amateur, running simultaneously at the Forest Lake Country Club.

Twenty-five pros will compete for $7,500 purse and the LPGA title, with 29 amateurs vying for Wolverine championship and numerous prizes.

Defending champion Beverly Hanson, who won the first LPGA tourney at Fort Wayne, Ind., last year, will be challenged by the oldest and some of the newest proettes in the Association.

Leading contender, who is considered an early favorite, is Marlene Bauer Hagge. Marlene, currently leading the LPGA in winnings with $8,053, has walked off with three of the last five tournaments. She has won four tourneys and finished second in another, thus far this year.

* * *

Another strong bid is expected to come from Fay Crocker, last year's pro winner in the Wolverine at Forest Lake. Fay and Marlene along with Pat Devany share the women's course record of 71 at Forest Lake.

Miss Devany fired the 71 as an amateur last year but since then she has turned pro.

Determined challenges should come from a quartet of veterans, Patty Berg, Louise Suggs, Betsy Rawls and Betty Jameson.

* * *

Miss Berg, the pro of the pros, has been the LPGA's leading money winner for the past two seasons and with Babe Zaharias out of the leading role, she has become the dominant figure in women's golf.

Miss Suggs, a three-tourney winner thus far this year, needs only the LPGA Championship to complete the cycle of having won all of top tournaments since turning pro in 1948.

She has won 29 major tourneys and in 1953 set an all-time high in prize money by winning $19,816. Last year she lost the LPGA Championship by losing 4 and 3 to Miss Hanson at Fort Wayne.

* * *

Missing from the pro ranks is Betty Hicks, former Wayne University student, who now plays out of Tamarisk Country Club in Palm Springs, California.

Miss Hicks, under doctor's attention, is expected to stay out of tourney play until September.

Newcomers to the pro ranks, including two from Michigan, and two from the deep South, will be shooting for prestige in tournament.

* * *

Miss Devany, who for many years was one of the top Michigan amateurs, moved into the pro ranks in January.

For Irene Bretzlaff, a pro of three months, this will be her first tourney as an LPGA member. She is now a teaching pro at the Redford Golf Club.

Youngest member of the proettes is 19-year-old Diane Garrett from Houston, Texas, who along with 23-year-old Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., turned pro during the past year.

* * *

With Wiffi away, and Pat Devany and Irene Bretzlaff now with the pros, the Wolverine amateur title is wide open.

This leaves Sally Sharp, 19-year-old Birmingham golfer as the logical top contender. Miss Sharp finished behind the trio mentioned last year and was runnerup to Miss Smith in the state amateur meet.

* * *

Mrs. Keith LeClair, Mrs. C. U. Wilson and Mrs. Edgar Reynolds rate among the amateur contenders with much of the attention focused on 16-year-old Mary Mills from Gulfport, Mississppi.

Miss Mills, who in her five years of golf has captured the Mississippi State Amateur title three successive times, has moved into the national picture with her presence at Forest Lake.

The amateurs will tee off in the morning rounds and pros will start at 12:30 tomorrow.

This morning the proettes and the amateurs toured the course in an exhibition best ball event. A clinic staged by the pros was scheduled for 4:30 p.m. this afternoon.

Angler Lands Big Fish Despite a Broken Rod

Despite the handicap of a broken spinning rod, Albert Norton, 24690 Cloverlawn, Oak Park, landed a fine largemouth black bass, first of the week on Pontiac Lake.

* * *

Norton's fish was taken in six feet of water, on a night crawler rig. It was 22 inches long, 14 around and weighed an even five pounds, a few ounces under the current leaders in The Press derby. With Norton were Louis Pelchot of Oak Park and Dorman Dowdy of Oak Park. They took 11 bass altogether.

Kocsis Spurns Publinx Test as a Matter of Principle

DETROIT (AP)— Sam Kocsis says he's not going to defend his U.S. Public Links golf title if he has to comply with a new Publinx directive compelling him to qualify in order to enter the National Tournament next month at San Francisco.

Kocsis announced his surprise decision yesterday after firing a 36-hole score of 146 to lead a Michigan Publinx Qualifying field of 138 in play over the suburban Meadowbrook and Western Courses.

He was exempt but had to rank among the 1st three in order to be a member of the Detroit trio in the team competition.

"Why should I have to go 3,000 miles to qualify for a match play tournament when I am defending champion?" Kocsis asked. "I won my title at match play in Indianapolis last year. I know of no other tournament where a match play champion isn't automatically eligible and I'm definitely not going. It's a matter of principle."

Edward A. Atlas, Detroit Publinx chairman, explained that the U.S. Golf Assn. had changed the tournament from an all-match play event, cutting the field from more than 200 to 150 in sectional trials and to 64 for final match play. Purpose of the move was to reduce the tournament from seven days to five.

Nevertheless, Atlas added, "if Sam doesn't go, I don't go either."

The Midwest United States Equestrian Team Challenge trophy, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Sweatt, and the Professional Horsemen's Association trophy, donated by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Merkel, Jr., are awarded in the jumper division. Last year both were claimed by Charles Dennehy of Lake Forest, Ill.

In the various hunter classes, awards include the Blackthorn trophy, given by Mrs. Graham in memory of her horse of that name; the Shuell Memorial, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shuell to Michigan bred hunters; and the Brambles Challenge, awarded by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirchen of Holland.

Other awards for hunters are the W. D. McCullough, William P. Lambert and Mrs. John Bridge Memorial trophies, the Elliott S. Nichols Perpetual trophy and the Ainsworth trophy.

The trophies are in the form of silver bowls, cups and trays, bronze horses and several other designs. They are retained for one year by the winners.

CLINCHING A TITLE—Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., uses her backhand during her victory in the Wightman Cup match at Wimbledon, England yesterday. Miss Brough won the match to clinch the cup for the Americans, 3-6, 6-3 and 6-4. It was the 20th straight victory for the U.S. team.

In Heavyweight Fight Tonight

Summerlin Is Favored

CHICAGO (AP) — Young Johnny Summerlin of Detroit, hopeful of edging into the heavyweight title picture, tonight seeks his 13th straight victory against Chicago's explosive but unpredictable Bob Satterfield.

The 24-year-old Summerlin (30-4-2) is an 8-5 favorite in the Chicago Stadium 10-rounder which will be televised and broadcast via ABC at 9 p.m., EST.

Summerlin risks his No. 6 ranking in the current Ring Magazine ratings and a chance against Pittsburgh's Bob Baker as he takes on the 32-year-old Satterfield, a dynamite-fisted "spoiler" with a 40-21-4 record.

* * *

Satterfield, who has knocked out 31 opponents and has been flattened 12 times himself, is a big hurdle to Summerlin's aspirations to get in the swim for Rocky Marciano's vacated heavyweight crown.

At the moment, the pending Archie Moore-Floyd Patterson scrap is pegged to determine Marciano's successor as heavyweight king, but the retired champion had a good word for Summerlin in a Chicago visit last weekend.

* * *

"I've seen Summerlin on television and he impressed me with his youth, gameness and ability to take a punch," said Marciano, here for a civic celebration. "He's got a future if he gets by Satterfield, who can knock out anybody he can hit."

* * *

Summerlin, an ex-sailor, is a 192-pounder with quick hands and a good punch, as attested by his 19 knockouts. He hasn't been defeated since a 10-round setback by George Powell on Oct. 5, 1954 and the only time he ever was knocked out was by Wesbury Bascom in 1951.

This may be the last big-time shot for the erratic Satterfield, whose 78-year-old manager, Ike Bernstein, said he would retire Chicago Bob if he gets licked.

* * *

Satterfield, at 182 pounds, has one of the hardest punches in the game, but a glass jaw coupled with a nonchalant defense has made him one of the most inconsistent battlers in his class. He currently is ranked 10th among the heavies.

5-Run Rally Gives Bicmar Edge Over Jewelers, 5-4

A five-run uprising in the 5th inning handed Bicmar Inn a 5-4 victory over Shaw's Jewelers to headline Tuesday night's City Softball League action at Beaudette and North Side parks.

Percy McConner, ace Shaw pitcher, was the victim of the outburst as Bicmar sent nine batters to the plate. McConner yielded only four hits, but all of them fell in the healthy 5th stanza and a base on balls, a fielder's choice, and an error by McConner himself completed the damage.

John Helisik hurled the distance for Bicmar Inn and held the Jewelers to eight safeties. It was Shaw's 2nd setback of the season.

Richard's Tavern slapped out a dozen hits, including a solo home run by Dick Ayling, to wallop Oxbow Pavilion, 11-2.

GMC picked up 15 safeties while trampling Michigan Bell, 25-4, in a girls' league contest. Janice Bendig slammed a home run for GMC.

Now Hitting .368

Belardi Is 'Handy' Man

DETROIT (AP) — Bushy-haired Wayne Belardi never had been more than a big league "handyman" when he reported to the Detroit Tigers for spring training, and manager Bucky Harris doubted even whether the 25-year-old Californian would be handy.

But 30 pounds made a big difference, and now Belardi has a hot streak going that has knocked two veterans out of the Tiger first base job.

In and out of the Majors since 1950 with the Brooklyn organization, Belardi played behind Gil Hodges and was in only 93 games in parts of four seasons. Still, it took $50,000 and three players for the Tigers to get him in June, 1954.

The investment is just now beginning to pay off, and veteran first basemen Earl Torgeson and Jack Phillips have been benched because of it. Belardi was hitting .368 through Tuesday's game, and had hit safely in seven straight games, with two hits in five of them.

Belardi's weight had been over 200 pounds in each of his seven previous seasons in organized baseball. In 1955, he reported at about 220, and divided his time between Detroit, Buffalo and San Francisco. Although he hit 23 home runs, his batting average was just .247.

"It was a lousy year for me," said Belardi, "but if it did nothing else, it taught me a lesson. I knew I was never a good fielding first baseman, and I tried to hit the long ball all the time. That's what the managers expected, and that's what I tried to give them.

"The job is his until he can't do the job," said Harris.

Belardi concedes that "all this may just be one of those crazy streaks. All I can do is hope it keeps up."

So the player whose fielding cause Brooklyn fans to dub him "footsie" may have just acquired his first regular job in the big leagues.

'Seeds,' Dark Horse in Prep Net 'Spot'

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Five seeded entrants and a dark-horse held the spotlight today in quarter-finals competition of the National Schoolboy Tennis Tournament.

Top-rated Don Dell of Washington met Dick Ogden of New Canaan, Conn.; second-seeded Ned Neely of Atlanta faced Sam Howe of Haverford, Pa.; Wayne Peacock, No. 4, of Wauwatosa, Wis., played Ed Sledge, No. 5, of Dallas, Tex., and sixth-seeded Al Roberts of New York tackled Al Winton of Rye, N.Y.

Winton provided the first major surprise of the tourney yesterday when he sidetracked third-ranked Bob Macy of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-4, 6-2.

3-in-One Decision

Dykes, Lawson Get Draw

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — It took three decisions to decide it but middleweights Bobby Dykes of San Antonio and Frankie Lawson of Detroit fought a draw here Tuesday night.

* * *

The trouble came when Dykes received a badly cut left eye from a butt in the fifth round and Lawson was awarded a technical knockout.

* * *

But 45 minutes later it was reversed, with Dykes being awarded the decision under a Texas boxing rule that awards a verdict to the man ahead on points when a fight is stopped because of a cut inflicted by a butt. Dykes was ahead on points at the time.

* * *

An hour later Commissioner Jack Stone of Corpus Christi ruled it would be called a draw because the fight had not gone half the distance. It was a scheduled 10-round bout.

* * *

The 750 fans who turned out for the bout had gone when the final decision was rendered.

The 1956 All-Star game in Griffith Stadium here will have about 28,758 fans, the park's capacity.

Strong Field Anticipated in Best-Ball Tournament

Many of the Pontiac area's finest golfers are expected to be on the firing line for the Men's Best-Ball Tournament, which will be conducted over an 18-hole route this Saturday at the Pontiac Municipal Golf Course.

Sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, the tournament will open the summer season's 5-event calendar.

A pair of impressive 2-man teams are already signed up. Stan Savage and Paul Bada form one tandem while Butler Cooper and Bill Stoiloff comprise the other. Cooper teamed with Ed Goram to win the best-ball tourney last year.

Anticipated entries who have been winners in the past are Max Richardson, Dick Vershure, Bob Boles, Harley Hyatt, Jack Ross and Goram.

Mike Andonian, Michigan Publinx champion who has been a runner-up three times, is now at the height of his game and will bear watching over Municipal's rolling layout.

Other strong contenders are Glenn Harding, Ed Wasik, Charles Hudson and Ron Rothbarth. All have finished in runner-up positions during the past four years.

The fast field will begin the march from the 1st tee at 12 noon Saturday.

Last Publinx Places Settled by Playoff

In a playoff that stemmed out of the Monday qualifying rounds for Michigan's section of the national Publinx Golf Championship, Dick Preston and Fred King of Detroit won the last two places on the state's roster of seven.

Bill Schwope also tied for the playoff on Monday, and in the one hole of the playoff bowed out.

Yanks Again Trim Tigers, 5-3

DETROIT (AP) — With one of baseball's best night game records behind them, the Detroit Tigers have a chance to salvage the final game of the New York Yankee series in a night contest tonight.

The league-leading Yankees halted righthander Frank Lary's mastery yesterday, 5-3, to take a two-game edge in the series.

The Tigers will send lefty Billy Hoeft after his 9th victory, against New York's Johnny Kucks. Each has won eight and dropped three.

The loss yesterday spun the Tigers into their worst losing streak of the year. The club has dropped four straight since winning last Friday night over Boston, 5-2. That victory went to Hoeft in relief, and the Tiger's leading pitcher bowed to the Red Sox on Sunday, 13-2.

* * *

A win tonight would again give Detroit the edge in games with the Yankees. The teams now are 5-5 for the season.

Lary, whose record now is 4-7, had won three straight from the bombers. For six innings yesterday, he had not walked a man and indications were that the young Alabaman would wrap up his 4th straight over Casey Stengel's crew.

Then his control wavered and before the seventh inning was completed, the Yankees had fought back from a 3-0 deficit to tie the score. A double, a single, a walk, another single and a fielder's choice plus an error by centerfielder Bill Tuttle brought home the deadlocking runs.

They matched a pair of Detroit runs in the second resulting from singles by Charlie Maxwell and Ray Boone, a walk to Tuttle and a bases-loaded single by Jim Brideweser, and a sixth-inning score coming on Maxwell's double, a walk and fielder's choice and Tuttl's single.

The Tigers threw away several scoring opportunities. After their scoring in the second, they had runners at first and third with one out when Lary bounced into a double play.

The bengals threatened against Byrne in the ninth, with back to back singles by Frank Bolling and Wayne Belardi leaving runners on first and third with two men out. But Tom Sturdivant, used by manager Casey Stengel both as a starter and reliefer, came in to put a third strike past Al Kaline.

Makes Bid for Buying Tigers

DETROIT (AP)—An eastern syndicate headed by Cy Block, former big league ball player, has entered the bidding for the Detroit Tigers.

Block, now an insurance executive, deposited the $250,000 "good faith" bond yesterday to get a look at the Tigers' financial setup.

He was to confer with Walter O. Briggs, president of the Detroit Club.

Block, who had a brief fling with the Chicago Cubs and spent 13 years in the Minor Leagues, said he wanted to check the club's books and get the real estate appraisal of Briggs Stadium before making an official bid for the club.

The syndicate he heads is called the Eastern Sportsmen's Affiliations.

The Detroit franchise and stadium has been offered for sale by the heirs of the late Walter O. Briggs Sr. Trustees ordered the sale because they feel baseball is too risky a venture for a trust.

Pitching Battle, Slugfest Mark Midgets' Action

Two close games, one a pitcher's battle and other a slugfest, were played yesterday in the Pontiac Federal Midget baseball league at the Boys' Club. Orioles defeated the favored Yankees in a pitchers battle that saw Gary Green best Randy Styles 3 to 2. Orioles put together a single two hit batsmen and a double by Gray Green in the 3rd to score enough runs to win.

Senators scored eight runs in the bottom half of the final inning to tie Red Sox and force the game into overtime. Five hits two walks and one error knotted the count. Red Sox, however, scored two runs two innings later to finally defeat the Senators.

Bruce Watrous was the hitting star for the Red Sox reaching base five times via the hit route.

Cardinals Reshuffle Race in NL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The guys who knocked Frank Lane for shuffling the Cards had no reason to sing the St. Louis Blues today. The surging Cardinals are only a step away from first place in the National League and manager Freddie Hutchinson thinks they'll go all the way.

* * *

Little Murry Dickson, still a top competitor at 39, pitched St. Louis to within three percentage points of the league-leading Cincinnati Redlegs last night by blanking the Brooklyn Dodgers 6-0.

* * *

The Reds, who hold a .564 to .561 edge, were dumped by the Philadelphia Phillies 4-2 as Del Ennis climaxed a four-run eighth inning rally for the Phils with a two-run homer. The streaking Milwaukee Braves moved into third place by whipping the Pittsburgh Pirates for the second night in a row 5-3 and the New York Giants, getting a five-hit mound effort by Johnny Antonelli, beat the Chicago Cubs 2-0.

While only a single game separates the first five clubs in the National, the Chicago White Sox are preventing the New York Yankees from making a runaway of the American League flag chase.

* * *

The White Sox downed the Baltimore Orioles 5-1 last night as lefty Billy Pierce became the first American League pitcher to win 10 games. The victory enabled the Sox to keep pace with the Yankees who swept to their sixth straight triumph, 5-3, over the Detroit Tigers. Chicago trails the bombers by 5½ lengths.

Thrifty, Emmanuel Win League Tilts

A fast start by Thrifty Drug and a late rally by Emmanuel Baptist brought victory for the two teams in Tuesday night's Waterford League softball activity at Drayton Plains.

* * *

Thrifty scored three runs in the 3rd inning and one in the 5th, then staved off late threats by White Brothers to chalk up a 4-3 decision in the opening game. An error, a stolen base and Felice's single tallied the eventual winning run in the 5th stanza.

The Baptist club went through five innings without a hit against Don Herr, then exploded with three safeties and four runs in the 6th to defeat Lakeland Pharmacy, 4-2. Harlan (Fat) Keith twirled three-hit ball for the winners.

Union 9 Trims Anderson Jets

Scoring almost at will, the CIO Local 594 trounced the Anderson Jets, 12-3, in a Class A City Baseball League game Tuesday night at Wisner Field.

Ron Woodhull and Paul Kellar each rapped three safe blows and Dan Keating and pitcher Jim Wagner collected two hits apiece to spark the Union team's 12-hit assault against starter Jim Thomas and Vernon Rains.

The CIO scored at least once in every inning except the 7th. Meanwhile, Wagner was effectively scattering eight Jet safeties in hurling the distance.

Blame the Weather!

It's Real Culprit in Summer Kill

By JACK PATTERSON

Local lake residents and fishermen have recently expressed concern over the apparently large number of dead fish kill visible in several Oakland County lakes. We've heard some weird and wonderful theories on causes so we checked with the conservation department which has been making an investigation of the situation.

PATTERSON

From George Tack at district headquarters in Imlay City came the following information. The recent "summer kill" as the fish men call it is a natural phenomenon which recurs at intervals of perhaps eight to ten years.

Real culprit is—you guessed it—the weather. As everyone who has stuck a toe in them knows, local lakes are still cold. The sudden heat wave the last week or so was too much for aquatic vegetation grown used to a long, cold spring. The vegetation began to die. As the vegetation died, oxygen content of the water was accordingly reduced. As a result, fish in affected areas suffocated.

Actually the "kill" was negligible. Most complaints came from eastern shores where prevailing westerly winds deposited most of the dead fish, giving a rather exaggerated impression of damage. Fish men believe that the cooler weather the past few days has ended the problem.

In their investigations conservation men found no evidence of pollution of a degree that would affect fish. They are a little more reserved on the question of the effect of aerial spraying for mosquito control. This spraying, if done carelessly, so that portions of the lake are sprayed, or if carried out just before a rain, can be harmful to fish.

* * *

District Headquarters would appreciate it if lake property-owners associations would contact "HQ" before scheduled aerial spraying operations are carried out, which sounds to us like a reasonable idea. District HQ phone number is Imlay City 345.

First few days of bass fishing have followed pre-season estimates pretty closely. Despite heavy rains during best fishing hours, a good many fish have been taken. But few big ones have been reported to date.

This follows our own observations in years past. Early season bass come easy but the big boys don't get into the act until later. July and August always got us the biggest fish but maybe that was because we worked harder at it during those months.

Bass are spawning and shallow water fishing pays off. Shallow running plugs—jitterbug is a big favorite — surface plugs and poppers are all good at the moment.

Some fishermen have expressed doubts as to whether it is a good practice to take bass off the spawning beds. We doubt if it does any harm to future population. Bass are very prolific. The loss of even many thousands of eggs (very few of which would become mature bass anyway) shouldn't have any appreciable effect on the population of a given lake. Such a thinning out process, if it has any affect at all, would probably be all to the good. This view is shared, incidentally, by fish division experts who know a good deal more about such matters.

Fast Field for OCBC Regatta

One of those speed-dominated events for which Oakland County Boat Club has become widely known takes place Saturday and Sunday at Sylvan Lake. OCBC will conduct the two-day affair, for inboard speedsters, with only one class for the "48" outboards.

Saturday's afternoon program will offer some spectacular water skiing, weather conditions permitting. Sunday's racing will include events for 135s, 136s, 225s and 266 cubic inch classes. Drivers are expected to include a number of nationally known pilots, plus a number of the Midwest's best, regatta officials report.

Some of the boats are rated upwards of 100 mph.

Both Sylvan Lake and Cass Lake ski clubs, along with Oakland County Boat Club will be represented in the water skiing program beginning at 1:30 p. m. Some of the performers are Marie Lindsay, Alice Shotwell, Marilyn Hickson, Sonny Johnson, Tommy Kindig and Jerry Brace.

Cass Lakers will have Paul and Fitzie Bael, Elsa Thomas, Gordon Connell, Joe and Jackie Chircup, Al Buford, Ben Schwartzer, and others.

Some of the tricks to be presented include Slalom, saucer riding, saucer with chair and ladder, topside tandems, pyramids, double and triple jumps over and under, plus some clowning. Barefoot skiing will be tried if conditions are right.

Derby Entries Begin to Move

Pontiac Press "Big Fish Derby" is beginning to move. First bluegill to hit a pound heft in that division has been entered by a 9-year-old angler, Dan Finkle, 5678 Eldridge, Pontiac. Dan's gill was 10½ inches long and about the same length around.

Contest also includes black bass and northern pike. There is plenty of opportunity in all divisions for future entries.

Dan, and his pal, Clifford Finkle, an 8-year-old cousin, of 5721 Berkley, Pontiac, took the big bluegill on Voorheis Lake, as part of a string of 15 fish. Night crawlers were their lures.

Other lucky anglers in county lakes, whose catches did not qualify for the "derby" included Dick Greene, 3590 Oakview, Drayton Plains, who took a 3-pound-15-ounce largemouth bass on Morgan Lake, Lake Angelus road. Greene used a spinning rod and minnow. His fish was 19½ inches long.

A 13-inch yellow perch, taken in Lake Angelus, by Fulton Leach, 13 years old, Lake Angelus Shores, is one of the season's biggest of the species.

Fears Adverse Effect From Higher Fees

LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Tourist Council expressed concern today lest an advance in hunting and fishing license fees, sought by the state conservation department adversely affect the state's tourist industry.

Robert J. Furlong, council executive secretary, said conservation officials will be invited to the council's annual summer meeting to discuss the matter. No date has been set.

In the area of non-resident licenses, the conservation commission called for an increase from $15 to $25 for small game licenses; $35 to $40 for deer licenses and $10 to $25 for archery licenses.

Pontiac Archers Conduct Third Shoot

Bottles Trace Currents

May Aid Study of Fishing

LANSING (AP)—The State Conservation Department is casting its bottles on the water this summer, 2,000 of them.

Called drift bottles, the receptacles are loosed in various patterns to provide researchers with information about currents.

Federal and state fishery workers released 350 drift bottles in and near Saginaw Bay last week.

* * *

Before they're through, they expect to put out nearly six times that many in Saginaw Bay and southern Lake Huron.

Biologists believe that improved knowledge of water movements may help answer questions about perch growth, which has declined in Saginaw Bay in the last quarter century, and diminishing walleye populations.

Solunar Tables

Schedule of solunar periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's solunar Tables. They help plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

Major periods begin at the times shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter.

Senate Passes Dealer Suit Bill

Measure Would Allow Sellers to Take Action Against Producers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a bill opening Federal courts to automobile dealers for "bad faith" suits against manufacturers.

The vote was 75-1. Only Sen. Potter (R-Mich) voted against the measure yesterday, which now goes to the House.

Passage came after the bill's supporters had agreed with Potter to eliminate a provision providing for double damages and giving manufacturers the right to use as a defense "bad faith" on the part of dealers who bring suits.

In the final version, dealers could collect only compensatory damages—not twofold claims.

Sens. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) and Monroney (D-Okla), who headed sub-committees which conducted extensive hearings on auto industry practices, said "abuses and coercion and violations of dealers' rights" had been disclosed.

They said automakers recently have made major concessions in their franchise agreements with retailers, but contended legislation was needed to "nail down these gains."

Under the bill, a franchised dealer could bring suit in Federal court to recover damage for failure of a manufacturer "to act in good faith in complying with the terms of the franchise or in terminating or not renewing" a franchise.

Despite revisions in their franchise agreements with dealers, O'Mahoney and Monroney said, manufacturers still retain the right in most cases to cancel a franchise with 90-day notice. They said this gave manufacturers the power "to pass on" economic death sentences."

Oxford Motorist Injured as Three Vehicles Collide

An Oxford man was treated for a sprained right leg by his family physician last night being injured in a three-vehicle accident on M24 near Olive Dr., Oxford Township.

Archie D. McCallum, 68, one of the drivers, was the only person hurt. The other vehicles were operated by James L. Addiss, 25, also of Oxford, and Ralph L. Ward, 26, of Coalgrove, Ohio.

Investigating Oakland County Sheriff Department deputies reported the Addiss car struck the rear of McCallum's vehicle causing it to go across the center line and strike an oncoming truck hauling a trailer.

Examination Postponed on Drug Violation Count

The Municipal Court pre-trial examination of 14 persons charged with conspiracy to violate state narcotics laws has been postponed for two weeks due to the absence of one of the investigator officers, George F. Taylor, chief assistant prosecutor, said today.

The charges were brought against the group after eight months of investigating by the Pontiac Vice Squad into alleged dope traffic in the southwest area of the city.

Stocks Continue Mixed and Slow

NEW YORK (AP) — Mixed prices and slow trading continued in the stock market early this afternoon.

* * *

Leading issues moved to the plus or minus side generally in fractions to a point. A few stocks stepped beyond this.

While practically all divisions were mixed, motors went pretty solidly to the upside. This division was more active than the others all morning.

General Motors, Chrysler and Ford were ahead fractionally.

Ford, which was lower most of the morning, rose by a fraction on a big block of 8,900 shares.

In contrast to the generally light trading, a block of 5,500 shares of National Tea and 7,600 of International Harvester were traded, both off fractionally.

Trading volume for the day was estimated at around the same as yesterday's 1,430,000 shares.

The market showed a slight leaning to the upside in moderately active trading at the opening, then settled down to the same slow pace which has prevailed all this week.

Heart Attack Kills Man on Retirement Trip

OPELIKA, Ala. (AP) — A Grand Rapids man suffered a fatal heart attack yesterday while driving his wife to Florida, where they planned to live in retirement.

* * *

Albert M. Johnson, 60, slumped over the wheel of his car and died as the couple was traveling near Opelika. His wife grabbed the wheel and brought the car to a stop.

* * *

Highway patrolmen said Mrs. Johnson told them her husband had retired recently from his work in Grand Rapids and that they sold their home and were moving to Florida.

Wrong Address Listed

The Monday edition of the Pontiac Press erroneously listed traffic violator Jose Flores, 49, as living at 75 Foster Street. His correct address is 72 Foster. Flores was fined $100 by Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan Saturday for driving under the influence of liquor.

Leader Warns of Milk Strike

Fair Share Head Says Farmers Will Fight for Higher Rate

DETROIT (INS) — A warning that another milk strike is likely was sounded today by Homer Martin, organization director of the rebel Fair Share Bargaining Assn. of dairy farmers.

* * *

Martin said present contracts for prices to be paid by creameries expire in September and the price would drop from ten to eight cents per quart.

He said, "Farmers want $6 a hundredweight (12 cents per quart). We will fight to secure more than the ten cents we are getting now and certainly will not return to the government minimum of eight cents.

Martin added that the group hopes to hold a convention this summer to plan action for its 4,500 members.

* * *

The FSBA grew out of a split with the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. over bargaining with dairies and a short but strife-filled strike was led by the rebel farmers who got a two-cent boost in raw milk prices.

Business Notes

Promotion of Wallace S. Berry to director of research for the automotive division of the American Motors Corp. was announced today by Meade F. Moore, vice president.

Formerly the division's chief mechanical engineer, Berry has been associated with the firm since 1929 when he joined Nash as an engineering test driver.

Her husband's sales record brought Mrs. Paul Woigda of 317 Northwood Ave., Rochester, the title of divisional "queen" for Investors Diversified Services Inc. recently.

The award is given to the wife of a company sales representative in each of 147 divisions who achieves the top production record for his unit. Woigda was one of 2,400 who competed in the contest.

Car Dealers Slash Stocks as Retail Demand Jumps

DETROIT (AP)—The biggest headache the automakers and retailers ever have suffered is responding to treatment.

* * *

Latest unofficial surveys indicate the combination of production cutbacks and intensified effort at the retail level has sharply reduced the huge accumulation of new cars in dealers' possession.

The drop—to 806,478 units on June 1 from the May 1 total of 902,585—is the most spectacular and encouraging inventory decline the industry has experienced since it brought out its 1956 model cars last fall.

Aside from the intensified sales efforts a seasonal increase in retail demand figured in the big drop in car stocks. It probably can be counted upon to continue through much of July.

In any event it now appears virtually certain the car producers will win their drive to have new car stocks in normal volume by the time new models start coming from the assembly lines.

Beyond that prospect is the more immediate fact that increased sales have greatly improved dealer morale.

Numerous sales incentive plans are being formulated. They provide premiums or bonuses to dealers topping their normal sales quotas. In most instances the dealers pass the bonuses along to their sales forces.

It is part of the manufacturers' program to get dealer inventories down to below 400,000 units by September. That would be a "manageable" volume. It means, of course, that there will be no sizable upturn in assembly line operations during the remainder of the present model year.

Industry circles are hearing gossip that a couple of carmakers are planning a new type of convertible with a hard top that recesses into the forward part of the luggage compartment.

The idea of a solid top that may be lowered sounds somewhat revolutionary. But so, too, did the present very popular so-called four-door "hardtop." First of the solid top convertibles undoubtedly will be of the two-door type.

'Polka Time' Being Groomed for Welk-Type Success

Hold California Man on Check Charges

A Sacramento, California man is being held in the Oakland County Jail awaiting appearance in Oakland County Circuit on two charges of uttering and publishing.

Erwin H. Bethke pleaded guilty to passing forged checks valued at $143.67 at an arraignment before Municipal Justice Fletcher Renton of Royal Oak Monday. Bond was set at $500 on each count. He will appear in circuit court June 25.

The charges against Bethke go back to December, 1952 when he is alleged to have passed the checks in the Royal Oak area. Police there said he was believed to have crashed about eight others around the same time.

He was taken into custody June 8 by police in Seattle, Washington and held for Royal Oak following the completion of a 10-month term in a Federal prison there.

Program Debut Set for July 13

'Show Biz' Executives Share One Experience —Firing by Godfrey

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — ABC-TV hopes "Polka Time," just what the title says, starting July 13, will be another modest hit in the Lawrence Welk fashion . . .

The stars sound like an old Notre Dame football lineup: Emcee Bruno Zielinski, vocalist Carolyn Desurik, Stan Wolowic and his Polka Chips, the New Polonia Dancers, etc . . .

The producer and director of the summer run of "This Is Show Business" have something all-fired unusual in common — Irving Mansfield and Hank Sylvern were the first two fired by Godfrey many headlines ago . . .

Lyn Duddy, producer of Jaye P. Morgan's tiny-but-tasteful TV sub for Eddie Fisher's show, is Arthur Godfrey's former choral conductor and lyricist . . .

Author of tonight's Kraft Theater play about flying saucers is an ex-pilot who claims he saw one last December, DeWitt Copp by name . . .

ROLE FOR PROTEGE

Helen Hayes, 25-year-old protege, Robert Culp, gets his first prime TV part July 4 on U. S. Steel Hour and hopes it's his acting Independence Day . . .

Lena Horne made three TV films in London, husband Lenny Hayton conducting . . .

ABC-TV has a new series, "Combat Sergeant," making its debut June 29.

Kim Novak and NBC are discussing the Judy Holiday role in the fall spectacular, "Born Yesterday" . . . Paul Douglas can have his original role of he wants to.

The Patti Page Show will have Perry Como aboard via tapes of Perry's voice . . .With Perry out of the way, "The Honeymooners" beat Patti's premiere 17.6 to 8.9 (Trendex) but Patti in the second half hour belted out "Stage Show."

AGED SKETCHES

Along with reruns of old TV films, many a comedy show is buying warmed-over sketches from earlier TV seasons — the Arthur Murray Show for istance . . .

Nat Hiken (Phil Silvers' executive sense of humor) has 19 years of comedy material carefully correlated and is peddling off his best second-hand hilarity at anything from $1,500 to $7,500 per program.

NBC has about a dozen comedians on salary for whom it can't find shows.

Wilson Isn't the Type for Portraying Wilson

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Ed Sullivan, who was once a humble columnist, made a fortune on TV—but when I do Earl Wilson on television, they tell me, "You're not the Wilson type."

"You gotta be louder 'n' fatter to play Wilson," the TV directors scream at me.

One day recently it was different. I was asked to play Earl Wilson on "Playwrights 56", produced by the famous Fred Coe. All atwitter, I arrived at NBC and was immediately insulted.

I'd bought a carton of black coffee and was standing around with the actors watching rehearsal. Finishing the coffee, I wondered what to do with the empty paper cup.

Seeing a cup on a nearby sound track, I thoughtlessly put my empty cup there.

"TAKE IT WITH YOU!" boomed the loud voice of a man on the truck. "WHAT D'YOU THINK THIS IS—A TRASH CAN?"

"The sound men have a strong union," whispered one of the actors. "They once said the same thing to Bobby Sarnoff."

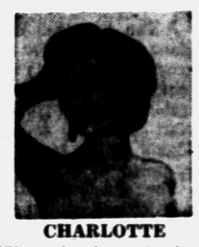

And then we were on the air. Everybody was nice afterward. "You looked exactly like Earl Wilson," several people said, jokingly. But I fear one wasn't joking when he added, "That was the trouble."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Joe Louis's wife, Rose Morgan, is hospitalized, suffering "complete physical exhaustion" . . . Elvis Presley refused an interview because the magazine wouldn't pay him for his photos. He said, "Man, I gotta make the dough while I'm hot" . . . Accordionist Dick Contino ordered an engagement ring for Leigh Snowden.

★ ★ ★

Bob Hope arrived Monday with the missus and the four kids . . . Pretty Charlotte Van Lein may do her original "Solid Gold Cadillac" role in summer stock.

CHARLOTTE

Ern Westmore of the makeup clan, became a grandpa for the ninth time . . . Tony Bennett's tiffing with Columbia Records; he wants better tunes . . . Martha Wright will be back into "South Pacific"—for a summer theater stint . . . Gertrude Berg arrived home from Israel . . . Jayne Mansfield'll make her singing debut July 15 on the Hal March TV spectacular; Steve Allen wrote her song.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . Nice children should never be allowed to hear their father's play golf.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's Hanna Arond Zacks' description of a beautiful early Monday morning in June: "The kind of a day that makes you sorry you're not alive."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A love-lorn salmon (report Blighty magazine) told his sweetheart, "If you turn me down again, I'll throw myself out of the river!"

Bill Haley complained to a pet shop owner that his parakeet couldn't talk. "So what," shrugged the guy. "But you'll admit he's a very good listener." That's earl, brother.

A WHEEL CUTE IDEA — Here's an ingenious item that should challenge the do-it-yourself man of the household. The "floral Ferris wheel," contrived from iron pipes, a couple of old iron wheels and some easily made wooden flower boxes was put together by staff members of the city hospital at Oswego, Kan. The flower boxes are fastened to the wheels. Admiring the creation is Martha Stapleton.

BIG RAPIDS (AP)—Vern Doneth, supervisor of thet U. S. Farm Home Administration Office in Big Rapids four years, has been named to the newly created post as assistant to the comptroller at Ferris Institute. Doneth spent five years as supervisor at the FHA Detroit-Pontiac branch before coming to Big Rapids.

Mason Eyes Prison Camp

LUDINGTON (AP)— Mason County supervisors have asked the State Corrections Commission to outline details of a proposed prison work camp in the county. An attempt to establish a camp in the Hamlin Lake area was abandoned several years ago when it met with heavy opposition.

To Dredge Kalamazoo

Red Magazine Ready for U.S.

Four-Color 'USSR' Apes Better Slick Magazines Printed in America

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Russian picture magazine, resembling Life and Look in makeup and called "USSR," will appear on America's newsstands in a couple of weeks.

* * *

Its cover will be a four-color photograph of President Eisenhower shaking hands with Soviet Premier Bulganin at the Geneva summit conference last summer.

Its content, according to the Soviet Embassy, will be a nonpolitical exposition of life in the Soviet Union—64 pages of it in words and in pictures, both color and black-and-white. It will sell for around 15 to 20 cents a copy.

* * *

At the time USSR hits American newsstands, a virtually identical U. S. magazine called "America" will be goin on sale inside the Soviet Union. It, too, will run to 64 pages and will lean to pictures, both color and black-and-white. Its theme will be life in the United States and it will sell for about five rubles, or around $1.25 on the official exchange rate.

* * *

The magazine USSR will be entirely in English, and Amerika entirely in Russian. Eventually each is expected to run to 50,000 copies on a once-a-month publication basis.

This editorial peaceful coexistence is the result of an agreement announced last Dec. 23. This made possible the revival of the two magazines whose publications had been suspended in 1952 when the United States charged Russia was interfering with the distribution of its magazine inside the Soviet.

U.S. to Take Afghanistani on Mecca Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—As a gesture of friendliness to Afghanistan, the United States is sending a passenger plane to take more than 1,000 Afghan Moslems on their pilgrimage to Mecca.

* * *

A Pan American World Airways plane carrying three air crews and ground personnel is due to arrive tomorrow in Kandahar, South Central Afghanistan trading center, to start the 3,500 mile round trip flights to the birth place of Mohammed.

The International Cooperation Administration, announcing the arrangement today, estimated about 15 to 20 round trips will be made during the next two months at a cost of about $150,000. The Afghanistan government is chipping in on the expenses by providing the fuel.

The Pan American plane, capable of carrying 64 passengers, will supplement the regular Afghan airline, Aryana, in transporting the pilgrims. ICA said a similar assist was given to Lebanon in 1953.

The great pilgrimage to Mecca is required of every Moslem at least once in his lifetime if he is able to go.
