QUESTIONS TIME AND PLACE — Gov. George Romney told newsmen at Los Angeles yesterday he is not sure the timing and place are right for a showdown with communism. He spoke at the hotel where the annual Governors' Conference is in session. Democratic governors are attempting to commit the conference to support of the Johnson administration's "global commitments and the policy presently being followed by them."

Viet Is Skirted by Governors

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Most of the nation's governors lined up today behind a bipartisan election-year declaration of support for U.S. "global commitments" with only a glancing reference to the war in Viet Nam. The compromise foreign policy resolution was due to go to a vote at the National Governors' Conference late today. More strongly worded language drafted and approved by the Democratic governors was diluted in negotiations with Republican governors to win approval of the GOP minority.

Despite the changes, Gov. Mark Hatfield of Oregon said it was doubtful he could support the resolution.

Another Republican, Gov. George Romney of Michigan, withheld comment after repeatedly making clear his belief that foreign policy action did not belong on the agenda of the governors' conference.

Of Viet Nam, the compromise said only that the governors, Congress and the public should affirm their support of servicemen stationed there and in other areas abroad.

It concluded by declaring "resolute" support of "our global commitments."

BUCHAREST (UPI) — The Communist Warsaw Pact nations, denouncing U.S. "aggression" in Viet Nam, said today they would send volunteers to North Viet Nam if Hanoi asked for them.

Phil Rodgers Shares Lead

MURFIELD, Scotland (AP) — Californian Phil Rodgers shot a course record, five-under-par 66 and shared the early second round lead with two other par-breakers today in the British Open Golf Championship.

All three had 140 scores, two under par for 36 holes.

Rodgers, a 28-year-old ex-Marine from La Jolla, carded 32-34 to go with his 74 Wednesday and was grouped with Harold Henning of South Africa and Australia's Kel Nagle, the 1960 champion.

Henning added a 34-35-69 to his 71 and Nagle fired a 33-55-68 to go with his 72.

Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., put together a fine one-under-par 36-34-70 and moved one shot behind the co-leaders with 141.

Sanders birdied the long par 5 17th with a good chip and putt for a 4. On the 18th, his attempt for a 25-foot putt and a birdie 3 stopped just a bit short.

His 66 tied the record of Henry Cotton in 1948 but in fact was a new record for the revamped links. Two new tees were constructed and 31 yards added to the course this year.

Temperatures will fall to lows of 54 to 60 tonight and climb to a cooler 76 to 82 with skies sunny tomorrow.

Sixty-four was the low reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. By 1 p.m. the mercury had moved up to 80.

British Leader Assumes Role of Peacemaker

Will Go to Moscow
July 16 for Talks
on Viet Nam Crisis

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson cast himself in the role of Viet Nam peacemaker today by arranging a surprise visit to Moscow July 16 prior to a conference with President Johnson in Washington later this month. His Washington trip is scheduled July 29.

Wilson's chances of success were not rated high.

The Soviet Union has already rejected Britain's peace formula — reconvening the 1964 Geneva conference — but the prime minister may be able to open a new line of communication on Viet Nam between the Kremlin and the White House.

While Wilson ran against heavy odds in his pursuit of peace, a flurry of pronouncements by high U.S. officials left contradictory impressions on the prospects for peace talks.

On the pessimistic side, Secretary of State Dean Rusk told newsmen in Kyoto, Japan, that "we have seen no evidence that the other side wants peace." Replying to critics of the U.S. air strikes on oil depots near Hanoi and Haiphong, he commented that he could not see how such attacks "will interfere with a peace that the other side doesn't want."

SOME WAY OUT

On the optimistic side, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the annual U.S. governors' conference in Los Angeles that "there are flickering bits of evidence, that are not solid or concrete, that Hanoi spokesmen are wandering around wondering if there is some way out."

In Washington, Undersecretary of State George W. Ball said diplomatic reports indicated a growing war-weariness in North Viet Nam but added a political settlement "may be quite a long time off."

Big-Truck Demand Overtakes the Supply

By CHARLES C. CAIN

AP Business News Writer

DETROIT — The nation's truck building firms are having a hard time keeping up with demand these days. Many customers, particularly those who want big, heavy-duty type vehicles have run into fairly long delays in getting the vehicles of their choice.

Calvin J. Werner, general manager of GMC Truck and Coach Division, commented:

"Demand for heavy trucks is at an all-time high and it is true that the industry is unable to effect delivery of these vehicles on a normal basis."

"This is caused by a number of circumstances, including material availability, increased federal government orders, and the rising trend of overcustomization by heavy duty truck buyers."

Werner pointed out, however, that lighter units, such as pickups, vans, and medium weight local delivery units which account for about 75 per cent of total industry unit sales, are in excellent supply and that "at GMC we are turning out a record volume of these units and are meeting our dealer order requirements very well."

Truck lines have rolled along at top speed levels practically all year. Last month, for example, 28,000 units were shipped. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

BACKING EACH OTHER — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa (right) and Vice President Frank Fitzsimmons of Detroit are expected to be elected at the union's convention in Miami Beach. Hoffa is running for another five-year term as president and Fitzsimmons for general vice president with powers to take over as president should Hoffa be forced to vacate the office.

Awaiting His Reelection

Hoffa Gathers Power Strings

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — James R. Hoffa, Teamsters union president, gathers all possible remaining strings of power into his hands today before certain reelection to a five-year term he might have to finish in prison.

Then, Teamsters insiders say, begins the waiting game to see who emerges in the power struggle certain to follow if Hoffa loses his jury-tampering and mail-fraud appeals.

Leading candidates are Frank Fitzsimmons, whom Hoffa has handpicked to succeed him; Harold Gibbons, Hoffa's former chief aide until a bitter personal brawl; and Elmer Mohr, who narrowly missed the top job when Hoffa succeeded the jailed Dave Beck in 1957.

All three are among 13 teamsters vice presidents maneuvering in the background of the current thunderous support of Hoffa by some 2,000 convention delegates.

But, some informed sources say, the man who may be the most likely successor to Hoffa as chief of the world's biggest and wealthiest union is going virtually unnoticed.

$4,000 Paid to TV Rigger

2 Deny Deal Made to Fix Channing Ratings

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Producer Charles Lowe and former congressional investigator Rex Sparger Jr. have denied that a $4,000 transaction was connected with Sparger's attempts to rig audience ratings of a Carol Channing television special.

Sparger, who has been sued for $1.5 million damages by the national television rating firm of A. C. Nielsen Co. Chicago, said yesterday he received the money from Miss Channing and her husband, Lowe, for an audience survey.

A statement made in Los Angeles by an attorney for Lowe and Miss Channing also denied the $4,000 check received by Sparger was related to the Nielsen Co. ratings.

The statements were made after depositions taken by Nielsen attorneys in the federal court damage suit were made part of the court's public record yesterday.

The depositions included allegations Sparger cashed a $4,000 check from Lowe in January. The check was dated Jan. 10, more than a month prior to the Channing television show on Feb. 18, which Sparger said was one of the targets of efforts to fix the outcome of the Nielsen ratings.

U. S. Prisoners Are Paraded in the Streets

Red Radio Broadcast Says Government to 'Punish the Pirates'

TOKYO (AP) — Hanoi Radio indicated today that 4 American airmen captured by the North Vietnamese may be put on trial as war criminals.

Describing the parading of a group of the American prisoners through the crowded streets of Hanoi yesterday, the North Vietnamese broadcast said the people of Hanoi "knew that the government would represent them all to try and punish the pirates in proportion to their crimes."

The broadcast said the Americans were "hedgeclipped in pairs and marched under armed escort."

It said the crowds of Hanoi residents constituted "a form of street tribunal to try the peace-disturber child-killers."

The number of fliers paraded through the streets was not given, but the broadcast said they included:

Lt. Col. Robinson Risner, 41, captured Sept. 16; U. S. Navy Cmdr. James Bond Stockdale, 42, captured Sept. 9; Capt. Kile Dag Berg, captured last July 27; Lt. J. G. Gerald Leonard Coffee, captured Feb. 3, 1965; Lt. Everett Alvarez Jr., San Jose, Calif., captured Aug. 5, 1964; and Lt. Cmdr. Robert Shumaker, 33, New Wilmington, Pa., captured Feb. 11, 1965.

SCREAMING CROWDS
Hanoi said the pilots were "dressed in their war criminals' olive khaki uniforms, wearing that rubber sandals. They walked docilely, dropping their heads in the face of the menacing fists and the formidable screams of a human sea."

An earlier report said they were taken to a place of interrogation.

The broadcast said those paraded "were only a small part of the number of air pirates captured in North Viet Nam whose crimes are engraved in the heart of every Vietnamese."

A Pentagon spokesman in Washington said records there showed there are 37 U. S. prisoners in North Viet Nam, including 21 from the Air Force, 14 Army men and 2 Marines.

American Aircraft Pound N. Viet Nam in Record 113 Strikes

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. planes flew a record 113 missions against North Viet Nam Wednesday and eluded four surface-to-air missiles, the U.S. command announced. Two of the raiders were reportedly shot down, apparently by conventional ground fire.

The American pilots pounded bridges, highways and strategic installations.

It was the highest number of multiple missions for any single day since the United States began bombing North Viet Nam in February 1965. But a spokesman said the number of sorties (single-plane flights) was about the average daily number of 250.

Man Charged in Bar Brawl

Hearing Slated on Alleged Murder Try

A 24-year-old Pontiac Motor Division employee was arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of attempted murder stemming from a weekend tavern brawl.

Daniel Moreno of 426 Midway demanded examination on the charge and was released by Judge Cecil B. McCullum on $500 personal bond.

McCullum set preliminary hearing for next Wednesday.

Moreno was arrested by Pontiac police in the course of investigation into a fight Saturday night which hospitalized Harry L. Ricks Jr., 30, of 390 S. Marshall.

Ricks, who police said was beaten with "a blunt instrument" about the head and face, is listed in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital.

MORE WARRANTS
Police said nine other John Doe warrants have been issued in the case, which involved some 10 persons in a brawl outside Bud & Lou's Bar at 417 Auburn.

Police said statements are still being taken from others connected with the incident and that additional arrests may be made.

Ex-Sen. Harry Byrd Not Expected to Live

The seriousness of the 79-year-old former senator's condition was underlined yesterday when for the first time the family disclosed he was suffering from a malignant brain tumor.

St. Joseph's Announces Appointments, New Posts

Major appointments and the creation of new administrative positions were announced today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Sister Mary Xavier, hospital administrator, announced the change in the organizational structure of the hospital.

Bernard R. Tresnowski has been appointed associate administrator with the responsibility for the overall operation of the hospital.

Ralph Lownds, formerly personnel director, has been appointed assistant administrator for personnel and community services.

Louis Kogan, formerly controller, has been appointed assistant administrator for fiscal services.

NEW POSTS
John Werthman, formerly director of engineering, has been appointed assistant administrator for institutional services. All are newly created posts.

The new position of assistant administrator for patient care services will be filled at a later date. Until then, departments concerned with direct patient care will report to the administrator and associate administrator.

In announcing the administrative changes Sister M. Xavier stated, "The growing complexity of hospital services requires a strengthening of the administrative staff."

"These administrative appointments reflect the growing complexity of hospital services," she said.

The men carried out approximately $8,000 in bills and coins in a pillowcase, but the weight of the coins ripped the pillowcase, scattering money throughout the restaurant parking lot and nearby area, police said.

The holdup occurred about an hour before the restaurant's noon opening.

Entering the restaurant by a kitchen door, the two men intruders walked up a flight of stairs into the office where they beat and tied up two women employees, forcing a third to open the safe.

One of the men was quoted as saying "Don't worry, you'll get your money back. They've got my wife and kids in the car. I'm being forced to do this."

Police chief Walter Shuter said two former employees held up the restaurant 42 years ago in a similar manner.

Asked at a news conference if the United States is prepared to reply with atomic bombs if one of its Asian allies is attacked with nuclear weapons, he said, "We would meet our obligations under our mutual security treaties with whatever means would be required."

Though Communist China was not referred to either in the question or the answer, the exchange followed a discussion of Chinese nuclear testing and a statement by Rusk that the United States will take further development of Chinese nuclear capability "fully into account in our own defense arrangements."

City Director of Personnel Is Appointed

Pontiac has a new labor relations man to handle municipal employee - employer collective bargaining problems.

City Manager Joseph A. Warren announced today that Nicholas Santivan, formerly the owner-operator of Sales Training Inc. of Detroit, has accepted the $11,300-a-year position of personnel director for the city.

Warren said the appointment of Santivan is a recognition of the increase emphasis in the personnel field due to recent state legislation.

The city manager said the 43-year-old Santivan would deal with all city employee groups.

Santivan of 28550 Minglewood, Farmington Township, is a 1960 graduate of Wayne State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

PREVIOUS JOB
Employed 10 years with American Standard Control, he was industrial relations division manager.

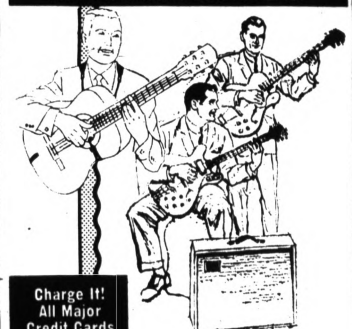

Santivan also owned and operated a private protective service in Detroit. He is married and his wife is a training supervisor with Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Property tax levies will be 31.7 mills for Bloomfield and 32.1 mills for Birmingham, Troy, Bloomfield Hills, Southfield and Southfield Township.

Total receipts are listed at $11,954,000 with the difference between this figure and expenditures being made up from a $1 million general fund balance.

Salaries for teachers, custodians, bus drivers and other school employees are not included in the budget as contract negotiations are incomplete.

In other business before the board Tuesday night, George W. Croomb, president; Dr. Charles A. Leach, vice president; and Pell Hollingshead, treasurer, were all reelected as board secretary.

MAXIMUM CONTRACT
Schools Supt. John B. Smith was offered a five-year contract by the board, the maximum permitted in Michigan.

No Deluge With Medicare

DETROIT (AP)—"Happiness is a transfer to pediatrics," smiled the pretty blonde receptionist at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital.

The girl made the offhand comment when a newsmen asked how things were going now that Medicare has been in effect for nearly a week.

Michigan hospitals generally have escaped the deluge that some medical men feared would come when the nationwide health insurance program for those over 65 started July 1.

But despite near-normal patient loads, the girl behind the desk in hospitals and clinics has found her work slowed down by the increase in paper work involved in Medicare.

For one thing, Michigan hospitals report a shortage of government forms. Many of them printed their own.

The University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor reported it received only 50 forms, and they arrived only a few hours before Medicare went into effect.

Because of the extra paper work, many hospitals have hired—or plan to hire—additional clerks to help in processing the over-65 age group.

Henry Ford Hospital did not hire extra clerical help, deciding instead to see how the program progressed the first few days.

"But I suspect we will be hiring more," said Robert Burwell, assistant director.

Burwell said the over-65 patient load is about 22 percent, and that ratio has virtually unchanged since Medicare.

"We expected things to go wrong—even though we did considerable advance planning on handling of the new forms," he added. "But it's remarkable how easily it has gone."

Admissions to the hospital itself have shown no trend, however.

A spokesman at the University Hospital reported a slight increase in the ratio of over-65 patients reporting to the clinic on handling of the new forms.

Red Satellite Gathers Data

Sifts Radiation Belts for Manned Flight

MOSCOW (UPI) — Proton 3, Russia's heaviest scientific satellite, whirled in orbit today to gather scientific data for a new Soviet manned space flight through deadly radiation belts around the earth.

A flight by two or more cosmonauts through the lower reaches of the Van Allen radiation belts had been expected as long ago as last April.

But the flight—which would be Russia's first manned space shot in almost 16 months — was believed being delayed until Soviet scientists gather more information about cosmic rays and their dangers to spacecraft.

Proton 3 was launched into an elliptical orbit around the earth yesterday. It followed months of study of two Russian space dogs—Blackie and Breeze — who whisked repeatedly through the Van Allen belts during their three-week flight last February and March.

The new manned space flight was expected to duplicate the feat of the "muttniks" and establish new altitude and endurance records as well as achieve a vital step on the way to a manned lunar landing.

WERE BIGGEST

The first two rockets in the Proton series — Nos. 1 and 2 — were the world's biggest at 122 tons each. They were blasted into orbit last July 6 and Nov. 2.

Although the official news agency Tass did not disclose the weight of this latest Proton shot, it was believed to be in the same weight category.

The United States apparently took the edge off yesterday's launching of Proton 3 when it boosted a 29-ton satellite — the heaviest payload ever launched — into orbit from Cape Kennedy Tuesday.

The Saturn was intentionally destroyed in orbit seven hours later in a structural test.

Outdoor Fashion Show Will Aid Students

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Women's Editor
The Bloomfield Hills home of the George T. Trumbulls was an ideal setting Wednesday for a tea party.

It was delightfully cool inside the house, but the terrace and grounds were so pleasant that no one could resist them.

Occasion was a tea to announce the Oakland University scholarship benefit fashion show and tea to be held Sept. 7 in the Baldwin Memorial Pavilion on OU's Meadow Brook Festival grounds.

"Woman as a Decoration" will be the theme of the show presented by Julie's of Detroit. Mr. Vincent, authority on women's fashions and a TV personality, will be the show's commentator.

Proceeding the fashion show, tea will be served at Trumbull Terrace.

TWO CHAIRMEN

Mrs. Trumbull and Mrs. Alfred C. Girard are general chairmen of the benefit. Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson is honorary chairman.

The Meadow Brook ball, sponsored for years by the scholarship committee, was not held this year. The outdoor fashion making event for 1966.

Proceeds will help over 300 area students receive financial aid at OU.

The scholarship committee also maintains and staffs the Scholar Shop in Trumbull Terrace.

In addition to being open every night of the Meadow Brook Music Festival, the shop has Tuesday and Wednesday hours from noon to 4 p.m.

Luncheon is available those two days at Trumbull Terrace.

COMMITTEES

Women in four counties are working on committees for the fashion show.

In Oakland county they are: Pontiac, Mrs. C.T. Ekelund and Mrs. Arthur Young; Waterford, Mrs. Norman Cheal; Clarkston, Mrs. Rockwood Bullard Jr. and Mrs. Jack Haupt; Rochester, Mrs. Paul Christensen and Mrs. John Cochran.

Bloomfield Hills chairmen are Mrs. John R. Crissman and Mrs. Harold A. Cousins; Birmingham, Mrs. Harry Winston Jr. and Mrs. S.T. McGraw.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Oakland University.

Mrs. Carl M. Bolten, Wormer Drive, is a member of the invitations committee for the outdoor fashion show.

Newberg Home Opened for Art Festival Group

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

At a luncheon Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Newberg, committee members gathered to hear about the Thomas Hart Benton's exhibit which will highlight the Bloomfield Art Association "Festival 19" come Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Bender, general cochairmen of the festival, announced that the Newbergs are cochairmen of the Benton exhibit.

In fact, it is due to the Newbergs' friendship of many years with the artist that we are fortunate enough to have the exhibit come to this area. There will be close to 100 paintings, drawings and lithographs—some which have not been displayed publicly before.

Mr. Benton is regarded as the foremost painter of the multifarious operations of American life in the south. The book "A Treasury of Art Masterpieces" devotes two pages to Thomas Benton.

His paintings hang in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Whitney Museum, and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Art. Benton is referred to as the "grand old man of American art"—now having reached the distinguished age of 76.

At the luncheon, the ingenious hostess had inserted materials taken from newspapers and magazines regarding Benton's work under plastic place mats. It was a delightfully original manner of introducing the artist.

Use Napkin for Snacks Says Hostess

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I enjoyed reading your article on the use of napkins against good taste. You asked your readers to let you know of their pet peeves, and so here is mine.

Why won't people use napkins when they are served with snacks? I always hand out napkins with cocktails and hors d'oeuvre and have stacks on the tables, too, and yet after a party, there are invariably traces of greasy fingers on much of the furniture.

When we have guests in to play bridge and serve nuts or other finger foods, the cards are unfit to be used again.

My pet peeve may seem a trivial thing but it is evidence of the thoughtlessness that seems to be one of the chief troubles with the world today — Elizabeth Teufel

Dear Mrs. Teufel: You are quite right. The person who stains furniture or cards with sticky, greasy fingers is guilty principally of thoughtlessness. I'm sure. The reluctance to use a napkin when it is readily available is a sort of laziness — it is just more difficult to hold an extra item with your drink and hors d'oeuvre.

Trivial or not, your point is well taken and I hope my readers will take heed and think before they say, "I don't need the napkin, thanks."

Despite Dire Predictions

Neutral Laos Endures

By SPENCER DAVIS
WASHINGTON (AP) — It would have been difficult a few years ago to convince anyone that Laos—neutralized in 1963—could exist for long.

Now, Laos has found a new self-confidence under its neutralist premier Souvanna Phouma.

Responsible diplomatic sources here say they are completely convinced that without too much external assistance—and with the liquidation of the Communist threat posed by North Viet Nam—Laos can survive economically and politically.

While the Viet Nam war has dominated Western attention, diplomatic informants thoroughly familiar with the situation say there are three main reasons for the increased self-confidence in Laos:

—It is felt there that North Viet Nam is getting whipped in the field by South Vietnamese and U.S. soldiers.

—There is no sign so far that the Chinese Communists have strengthened their interest or influence in Laos.

—The flight to Thailand of Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, former defense minister and deputy premier, and the elimination of a number of corrupt institutions and practices have led to a fresh view about the nation's economic future.

The 3 million people of Laos occupy a rich land. Their rice exports are much in demand, particularly in Japan.

After years of bitter fighting between government forces and the Communist-led Pathet Lao following the 1964 Geneva conference neutralizing Laos, a 14-nation meeting again was called in 1961.

A year later the nations—including the Soviet Union, Red China and the United States—agreed to set up a coalition government in Laos. They also signed a treaty making Laos a neutralist nation between the Communist and non-Communist nations in Southeast Asia.

But Premier Souvanna Phouma and his half-brother, the Red Prince Souphanouvong, a deputy premier who heads the Pathet Lao, long have been completely at odds.

The premier considers his half-brother a prisoner of the North Vietnamese while Souphanouvong calls Souvanna Phouma an American valet.

The king of Laos, Savang Vathana, avoids the political controversy.

SEEMS CONTROL
The North Vietnamese have supported the Pathet Lao under objectives fixed 40 years ago by President Ho Chi Minh who wanted to gain control over all of French Indochina.

But this objective is still far from being achieved in Laos and the tide is beginning to ebb for Ho's men, according to sources here.

Cuban Cooks Will Compete (Without Rice)

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Housewives in Cuba — one of the few countries in the Western Hemisphere where food is rationed — have been invited to take part in a cooking contest.

Havana Radio, monitored in Miami, said last night the contest would be sponsored by the Cuban Women's Federation.

A federation spokesman said any ingredients could be used except rice.

No explanation was given for the ban on rice but rationing has been cut since Communist China decided to reduce shipments to Cuba.

Fire at Club's Fish Fry Drowned in Lemonade

ROACHDALE, Ind. (AP) — Firemen say a firecracker apparently was responsible for a fire which destroyed three tents and caused an estimated $3,500 damage during a Lions Club fish fry in Downtown Roachdale.

Since it was the handiest liquid available, firemen used buckets of lemonade to extinguish the blaze.

FBI Testimony Linking Casino to Underworld Is Reviewed

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Nevada gambling control agents said today they are reviewing FBI testimony linking a multimillion-dollar Las Vegas strip casino to the underworld.

A gaming control board spokesman said the FBI evidence, submitted in a U.S. District Court in Denver, will be evaluated to determine if the state will revoke casino gambling licenses.

Dean Elson, special agent in charge of the Las Vegas FBI office, told the court a concealed microphone at the Desert Inn hotel-casino picked up information of criminal activity.

"We had information coming to our attention that there was a vast sum of money being taken off the top by the ownership of the Desert Inn," Elson testified.

Taking money off the top, or "skimming," is a gambling term for removing winnings from casino counting rooms before they are tallied and reported to State and federal tax agencies.

CONTINUING INVESTIGATION
The Internal Revenue Service said it has been conducting a continuing investigation into the allegations. But it said it was not aware of FBI evidence until the Denver testimony.

Nevada law demands that all casino owners be officially recorded and licensed by the state after extensive personal background investigations.

The FBI testimony was the first official support to claims by critics of Nevada gambling that casino money finds its way into the underworld.

R. Burns Toolson, the FBI agent specifically assigned to the Desert Inn investigation, said the microphone was hidden in the Desert Inn's executive office on March 22, 1962.

DEVICE MONITORED
He said agents and clerks monitored the device 18 hours a day.

"If we received information regarding Sam Giancana or anyone else, we would send a copy to that office for the files," Toolson testified.

Giancana is the reputed kingpin of the Chicago crime syndicate. Gambling control officials have placed his name in their "black book" of persons who are banned from Nevada casinos.

Opposition Drive Set

Legislator Raises Hit

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Harold Brigham a Nelson Township supervisor, said yesterday he will launch a statewide move to block pay raises for members of the Michigan Legislature.

Brigham said that unless someone makes an attempt to organize the opposition, the salary increase will go into effect against the "wishes of the majority of the people."

Brigham declared the task of acquiring 156,000 signatures needed to force the matter to a public vote is staggering.

Both houses of the Legislature passed a bill increasing the salary of Michigan legislators to $15,000 a year, making them the highest paid in the nation, and entailing a boost of $2,500 a year.

Brigham said he felt the Legislature had taken advantage of the people.

"The Legislature knew the will of the people but did not pay any attention to it," he asserted.

Brigham said he is in the process of organizing a committee for the referendum to block the raises.

He suggested that petitions would be sent to county boards of supervisors in the 83 Michigan counties and that it might be possible to enlist labor unions and other organizations, such as the Farm Bureau, in circulating them.

McNamara, LBJ Confer

Current Operations in Viet Nam Viewed

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has reviewed current military operations in Viet Nam with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, an overnight guest at the President's ranch.

Johnson and McNamara got together in advance of day-long talks the secretary will have Friday in Honolulu with Adm. U. S. Grant Sharpe, commander of all American forces in the Pacific and Southeast Asia.

The defense chief flew to the LBJ ranch, some 60 miles north of here, shortly after three other Viet Nam experts ended a four-hour visit to the Johnson home and flew to Los Angeles to brief the national governors' conference.

The earlier visitors were roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, Lt. Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaste, secretary to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Walt W. Rostow, Johnson's special presidential assistant for national security affairs.

Johnson has said McNamara and Sharpe will discuss military operations and logistical plans in connection with the Viet Nam war.

Britain's Entry to Euromart Is Confab Topic

LONDON (UPI)—French and British premiers probed the common market today in the first across-the-table meeting since President Charles de Gaulle vetoed British admittance three years ago.

French Premier George Pompidou and Britain's Harold Wilson met with their foreign ministers and top aides for the second round of their three-day policy talks which opened here yesterday.

Britain wants to get a clear-cut commitment from France on whether or not she is now prepared to lift the veto on British entry into the common market (Euromart).

Predictions were that little more than "a better understanding" of each other's viewpoint will emerge from the talks with no immediate prospect for British entry into Europe.

Lion Loved His Trainer, but Then ...

ALLIANCE, Neb. (UPI) — A lion "raised on love" turned on his trainer at a circus last night, mauling the man until the trainer's wife and two standbys pulled the lion off.

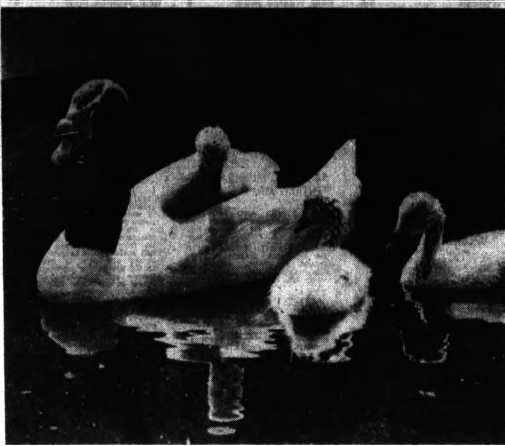

The Roland and Sheila Stevens act had just begun before some 300 persons at the Gen International Circus in the Alliance High School stadium.

The announcer had told of how the lion was trained with no whips or guns and was trained on love when the animal jumped on Stevenson.

Mrs. Stevenson used a ring about three-feet in diameter to attempt to pull the animal away from her husband.

Stevenson was listed in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Hospital. He was being treated for arm, side and back wounds.

The Denver-based circus was brought here by the Alliance Chamber of Commerce with profits slated to go for a school project.

New Jobs Eyed for Surveyor 1

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Now that America's photographer on the moon, Surveyor 1, has revived, scientists are trying to design experiments that won't produce reruns of the same old thing.

One experimenter at Jet Propulsion Laboratory, asked what was next on Surveyor's agenda, said: "I'm not sure we know that ourselves."

"Basically, as far as the camera goes, we're first interested in whether it's working," said Jack Linsley, director of the space sciences and command group.

"We'd also like to know if we can command it and that it will respond."

WERE UNPREPARED

The scientists were a little unprepared for Surveyor's revival, having almost given up hope when the 620-pound instrument package failed to answer a week of efforts to make contact. Surveyor finally answered Wednesday.

Linsley, however, said it would probably be Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday before any effort is made to turn on the camera.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Happily married men need no further. The superspies of the Central Intelligence Agency have no intriguing foreign assignments for you.

But if a two-year hiatus away from home and family suits your fancy, read on. You may qualify. All you have to do is find the right classified advertisement.

The ad called for a newsmen with experience in community and international affairs, fluent in foreign languages, and prepared to accept a challenging assignment abroad.

Liberal pay, benefits and moving expenses were offered too. "Lightweights," the ad said, need not apply.
