United Fund Comes to Aid

SMILES HIS THANKS—Charlie Brown, 4, of 436 Harvey St. was admitted to Sister Kenny Polio Hospital, Farmington, in August 1953 seriously stricken and in danger of losing his life. He lay in a coma, paralyzed from the neck down. But weeks of treatment at the hospital, for which Pontiac area citizens footed the bill through United Fund, have paid off. Now his mother, Mrs. Ceola Brown, says Charlie can sit in a wheelchair and is learning to stand on crutches.

"For hundreds of other youngsters success of the UF drive is equally vital," said Campaign Chairman Frank S. Lyndall.

Tuesday at Elks Temple

Kick-Off Breakfast to Open United Fund Drive Here

An 8 a. m. "kick-off" breakfast tomorrow will launch this year's Pontiac Area United Fund Drive.

Some 350 campaign workers are expected at the event in the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave., to start 17 days of intensive efforts on behalf of 55 local, state and national service agencies.

Featured speaker will be Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, pastor of the Detroit Central Methodist Church.

Holder of doctor's degrees from four universities, Dr. Crane has been in his present post since 1938. He is a nationally known speaker, having lectured in over 200 American colleges.

Dr. Crane was an alternate delegate to the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Holland, during 1948. He has traveled around the world visiting some 40 countries.

Master of ceremonies for the breakfast will be Glenn H. Griffin. The invocation will be given by Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein of Temple Beth Jacob.

"The Key Finders", a local barbershop quartet will entertain the UF workers, prior to some remarks by Campaign Chairman Frank S. Lyndall.

The quartet members, all of Pontiac, are, Rawley G. Hallman, Henry Barnett, Robert J. Ahnen and Clinton Sanborn.

Door prizes will include merchandise, memberships in the Pontiac Boys' Club to be given to interested boys and tickets to a Detroit Lions' football game.

A UF movie "Thanks for Everything" will be shown depicting the many benefits received by Pontiac from health and welfare organizations supported by the fund.

Solicitors will pick up their campaign kits and leave the breakfast prepared to swing into action.

The drive's goal this year is $525,823 from Pontiac, Waterford Township and Pontiac Township.

Solicitations will cover factories, stores and residential areas in the effort to supply funds to help operate the 55 vital agencies without necessity for numerous smaller drives.

Biggest share of the donations, $306,997, will go to the Pontiac Community Chest including 13 city and county agencies.

Personal Incomes Hit All-Time High

ATLANTIC CITY (U-P)—Undersecretary of Commerce Walter Williams said today Americans' net personal income poured into family coffers this summer "at a rate of 253 billion dollars a year, the highest ever achieved."

At the same time, he said, consumers spent their money on goods and services at a "record rate of 233 billion dollars" annually, or "about 3 billion dollars more than" in 1953.

In a prepared speech at the annual convention of the American Bankers Assn. (ABA), Williams said he expected the U.S. output of goods and services to go on growing 3 per cent each year.

U.S. Housing Administrator Predicts 1,200,000 Houses Will Be Built in 1955.

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole predicted today more than 1,200,000 houses will be built in the nation next year and said the figure could climb to two million annually in the mid-60s.

The 1954 forecast is for 1,100,000 to 1,200,000 new homes, a rate second only to the record 1,396,000 four years ago.

In a copyrighted interview in the magazine U. S. News and World Report, Cole said that "assuming that the economy is right"—housebuilding could run "well over a million for years."

By the mid-60s, when population experts predict a boom in new families, Cole said "it is possible for us to reach a two-million production."

Long Trial Indicated

Sheppard in Court Today in Brutal Slaying of Wife

CLEVELAND (U-P)—The drama-packed murder case of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard moved into the trial stage today with indications a month or more may be required to exonerate or convict the balding osteopath.

The 30-year-old defendant, accused of hacking his wife's face into an unrecognizable pulp, delivered an announcement of confidence as the trial date came up.

His brother, Dr. Stephen A. Sheppard, also an osteopath, quoted him as "welcoming the opportunity to have this trial and have the true facts presented."

Dr. Stephen declared his brother's morale is "good" and added: "We do not believe that even the brilliant prosecutors this county has can convince 12 fair men that Dr. Sam is not innocent."

The top general on the prosecution staff will not even enter the courtroom. He is Frank T. Callahan, 74-year-old county prosecutor who hasn't had a single acquittal in prosecuting 20 first-degree murder cases.

On orders from his physician, Callahan must remain in his office. But his lieutenant, Asst. County Prosecutor John J. Mahon, boldly announced he will pin much of his case on testimony of Miss Susan L. Hayes, 24, and Dr. Lester T. Hovestren.

Miss Hayes, auburn-haired and pretty, formerly worked as a technician at Bay View Hospital in suburban Bay Village, where Dr. Sam is on the staff. She admitted being intimate with him in California last March after she (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Ohio Waters Still Rising

14 Dead, Thousands Flee Homes as Flood Damage Hits $23 Million

WHEELING (UP)—Southern Ohio towns braced themselves today for an Ohio River flood that already had claimed possibly 14 lives, forced thousands of persons to flee their homes and caused an estimated $23,700,000 damage.

The most heavily-populated river towns faced with the flood threat were Marietta, Ironton, New Boston and Portsmouth. The weather bureau warned the 16,000 residents of Marietta to prepare for a crest of 41 feet at 7 p.m. EST. The banks at Marietta overflow at 36 feet.

As the flood stage rolled southward, Western Pennsylvania counted damage of nearly $17,000,000. Damage in the West Virginia and Ohio areas was estimated at $6,700,000.

At least 13 persons were known dead in Pennsylvania and an Ohio man was missing and believed drowned.

The turbulent waters of the Ohio, fed by torrential rains Friday that were intensified by Hurricane Hazel, crested here late yesterday at 8½ feet above flood stage of 36½ feet and then began dropping steadily.

The waters inundated about two-thirds of Wheeling Island and poured into hundreds of homes in low-lying South Wheeling and neighboring West Virginia and (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

CLINTON, B. C. (U-P)—Young Barney is getting downright pampered—and brother, does he love it.

The family consists of Marv, his wife, three little girls, one little boy and one not-so-little moose, Barpey.

Marv found Barney when he had been in this world about one week. The little bull moose was lying alongside a road near this interior British Columbia community 200 miles north of Vancouver, too weak to stand. The mother was nowhere in sight.

Mayfield had to make a choice. Should he take the baby moose or should he leave it there to die?

Rescuers Seek Dozens Missing in Canada, Haiti

Ike Orders Immediate Federal Assistance for Hard-Hit Carolinas

By THE UNITED PRESS

Weary workers from South Carolina northward to the Canadian Province of Ontario sought to restore order today out of the havoc left by Hurricane Hazel, one of the worst ever to rip the North American continent.

The known overall death toll stood at 165, including 82 in the United States, 62 in Canada and 21 in Haiti where the hurricane loosed its first lethal punch last Wednesday. Property damage ran into hundreds of millions of dollars.

The grim search went on in Canada and Haiti for dozens of persons still reported missing.

North and South Carolina probably were hardest hit by the hurricane in this country. President Eisenhower, slashing through government red tape, Sunday ordered immediate "blank-check" federal aid for wide areas of those two states.

The White House said "immediate consideration" would be given similar aid requests from any of nine other states hit by the hurricane.

In Ontario, the weekend blast was the province's worst natural disaster and took the heaviest toll of lives since 119 persons burned to death aboard the luxury liner Noronic in Toronto five years ago.

Damage in the Toronto metropolitan area alone was estimated at $100,000,000.

The sudden wreckage of what was once Toronto's best residential area in Etobicoke Township continued to yield bodies. But the process of recovery and identification was slow. One street alone counted 54 dead or missing. Officers feared many of the victims had been swept out into Lake Ontario.

Most of the Canadian dead were residents of attractive waterfront homes which were washed down Ontario's rampaging Humber River while they slept. The floodwaters swept away whole blocks of homes, crumpled bridges, washed out highways and flooded stores and farms.

Repair crews worked today to open roads by which food, milk, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Truck Strike Off in New York

Pay Hike Gets Okay From Owners Before Major Tieup Results

NEW YORK (U-P)—Truck traffic flowed into New York City at a normal rate today amid indications that united employer resistance to a general pay-hike strike of drivers in the metropolitan area was over.

Police at the vehicular tunnels from New Jersey said big and little cargo carriers were moving "without any evidence of a strike," and were carrying all types of merchandise.

At the headquarters of the AFL Brotherhood of Teamsters, a number of truck owners were lining up to sign separate contracts.

The morning developments marked a swift change from the situation last night when a spokesman for the trucking firms predicted a lengthy strike, unified resistance to the drivers' demands, and filing of a 10-million dollar damage suit.

The strike began Saturday, but its full effectiveness was not expected until start of the business week today. Only deliveries of food, fuel and similar essentials were exempted from the shutdown.

COMPLETES HOSPITAL SCULPTURE — Internationally-known sculptor Marshall Fredericks of Birmingham puts the finishing touches on his sculpture for the main facade of south Oakland County's new Beaumont Hospital. "The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations," from Revelation 22:2, was the subject Fredericks chose for the 17-foot high sculpture, which will be in polished aluminum. The high relief figures of the family are superimposed over a decorative design of leaves depicting the healing plants. The hospital, located at Woodward and 13-Mile, is now 85 per cent complete, and is expected to be dedicated at the first of the year.

Outcast Given Home; Grows Like a Moose wife first fed Barney with a bottle and the from a bucket.

Now Barney, six months old, is just like one of the family.

At 5 a.m., the eldest Mayfield daughter always goes out to milk the cows. Invariably the little Mayfield boy tags along, and as is the habit of small boys, leaves the kitchen door open.

Barney doesn't miff the chance. In the house he goes, eating anything he can lay a tooth to in the kitchen. The davenport is the next stop, sort of an after-breakfast nap.

Mrs. Mayfield recalls the time she mixed up a big batch of pancake batter and set it on the sideboard only to have Barney gobble it up.

No hay for Barney. But he really goes for milk. He guzzles six gallons a day. Vegetables and fruit help fill up the empty spots, plus what he can scrounge in the kitchen.

Mayfield has a fenced-in pasture near the house and that's where he will try to keep Barney when he grows horns, just in case some trigger-happy hunter shows up in the neighborhood.

One thing worries Mayfield. Barney is a growing boy . . . oh, moose . . . and his 300 pounds just about blows out the davenport when he's resting now.

What, asks Mayfield, is going to happen when Barney adds the 700 more pounds necessary to fill out the frame of a full-grown moose?

West Bloomfield Lad Hit by Shotgun Pellet

A 14-year-old West Bloomfield Township youth was struck in the face by a pellet fired from the gun of an unknown hunter Sunday as he and four companions played along the north shore of Middle Straits Lake.

James Dickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickson of 3338 Winterberry, West Acres, the gunshot victim, was taken to Pontiac General Hospital by his father for treatment of a wound of the left jaw. The shot had embedded itself beneath the boy's skin, according to the hospital.

Miss Michigan Denies Rumors About Romance

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Jan Somers, the shapely Michigan State College coed who won the 1954 Miss Michigan crown, wants everyone to know that she has no romantic interest in Julius La Rosa.

Miss Somers appeared in La Rosa's road show which visited Grand Rapids during the weekend. She sang four songs at each of two shows in the Furniture City's Civic Auditorium.

A few of the hundreds of bobby-soxers on hand to see their idol—La Rosa—thought the fact that Miss Somers was in the show was an indication that a romance between the two might be blossoming.

Jan, who observed her 20th birthday last Thursday, just laughed when asked about rumors. So did La-Rosa, who left the Arthur Godfrey Show amid reports that he wanted to marry another star on the show.

"The fact that I came over here to sing in the La Rosa show doesn't mean I am thinking of a professional career," Miss Somers said. "I am planning to finish at Michigan State (where she is a junior) and my ambition still is to be a school teacher."

The physical appearance of the home when police arrived. Dr. Sam said he went to sleep on a downstairs couch and was awakened by his wife's cries for help. He dashed upstairs, saw a bushy-haired man in the bedroom, grappled with him and was knocked out, the osteopath told the coroner's inquest.

Later, he said, he heard a noise downstairs, followed a "form" out to the beach and was knocked out again.

Dulles to Attend Talks in Europe

Secretary Will Fly to Paris Tomorrow for 3
Vital Defense Confs

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flies to Paris Tuesday for three crucial conferences that may make or break the West's historic new plan for rearming Germany.

The fast-traveling secretary will meet with British, French and German leaders Wednesday to sign a series of agreements formally ending the big three's nine-year occupation of West Germany.

On Thursday, he will set in on a meeting of the Brussels Pact nations while they consider the admission of Germany and Italy and other measures, clearing the way for Germany's rearmament.

Finally, Dulles will meet on Friday with representatives of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to formally invite Germany to become a member and to broaden the powers of the Supreme Allied Commander in line with the German rearmament plan.

Dulles returned to the capital late Sunday from a week's rest at his vacation retreat on Duck Island in Lake Ontario.

He immediately plunged into conferences today with President Eisenhower, Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson, and his top advisors on European affairs.

American officials generally are optimistic about the outlook for the Paris talks. They said they expect the meetings will overcome many of the obstacles that have blocked Germany's admission to the European defense system.

Ohio River Flood Waters Still Rising

Ohio towns, more than 3,000 persons were forced to evacuate.

Numerous riverside homes and some Wheeling business establishments were without central heating for a time because of flooded basements. Editions of the Wheeling Intelligencer were delayed until water could be pumped from the newspaper's press room.

As the river rose steadily, householders began moving furniture to centers designated by the Red Cross. Then they left to spend the night with relatives or friends or at shelters set up by the Red Cross and Salvation Army. Extra police details were assigned to the deserted areas.

Many residents sat out the flood in the upper floors of their homes, using rowboats for transportation and communication when necessary.

However, the main traffic arteries in and out of the Wheeling area were closed or partially flooded in spots, and the extreme section of the upper Ohio Valley was virtually isolated.

The waters also covered the lower portion of Wheeling's business district, and residents said Wheeling Downs race track on Wheeling Island "looked like a lake."

It swirled northward, leaving a trail of death and damage in North Carolina, Virginia, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts.

John Russell, director of the Red Cross disaster service in the southeast, said "at least 1,000 homes were totally destroyed." In the area from Pawley's Island, S.C., to Cape Lookout, N.C. 475 of 1,500 summer homes were reported wiped out.

Mayor of Erie Nabbed in Raid

2 High-Ranking Police Officials Also Arrested on Conspiracy Counts

ERIE, Pa. (INS) — The story of Erie's $200,000 a year gambling empire unfolded today following the arrest of the mayor, a police inspector, a vice squad officer and some 36 alleged kingpin gambling operators.

The prize catches in the series of swift raids carried out by State Police were Mayor Thomas Flately, Police Inspector Jack Martin and vice squad officer Edward Camilli.

Each has given long statements to Erie County detectives in which they admit accepting cash money from the Erie gambling fraternity. They have been charged with conspiracy and additional charges are expected to be filed today.

Six months of painstaking investigation directed by District Attorney Damian McLaughlin resulted in the weekend crackdown which confounded the town of 130,000 persons.

Minutes before the arrest warrants were issued, Mayor Flately suspended Martin and Camilli for 10 days—the limit he can give them at one time.

Informed shortly afterwards that he was to be arrested himself, the mayor's voice quivered as he said, "Me? Why, I can't believe it."

Convict Charges Missouri Prison 'Crime College'

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A young ex-convict, wearing a black mask to conceal his identity, charged yesterday the Missouri State Penitentiary is a "college of crime" where he learned to "crack a safe."

The man, called "Mr. X," made the statements on a radio-television show (KWK, KWK-TV) while appearing with a panel of St. Louis crime officials.

His identity was kept secret to protect his family. The ex-convict, who was still serving part of his three-year sentence when a destructive riot broke out at the prison recently, told the panel poorly prepared food, idleness and too much reliance on stool pigeons by prison authorities were factors leading to the riot.

Four men died as a result of the riot, 31 others were injured and damage was estimated at three million dollars.

Initial Work Begins on Air Force Academy

Medical Society Takes No Stand on Researcher

DETROIT (UP) — The president of the Michigan Medical Society said today his organization has not taken an official stand on a Detroit researcher who claimed some of his patients would "go blind" if he was drafted into the army.

Dr. Robert Baker of Pontiac said earlier statements attributed to the Society were the personal opinions of the chairman of the society's council, Dr. William Bromme of Detroit.

"The society has taken no stand in the case," Baker said. "We do not have detailed information of the circumstances. Anything that Dr. Bromme said was not a statement of the policy of the Michigan State Medical Society." Bromme had accused Dr. William Q. Wolfson, 36, of "exploiting" two blind Italian brothers in an effort to stay out of the army. The brothers are en route to Detroit in hopes Wolfson can help restore their eyesight.

Wolfson passed his induction deadline and he leaves tonight for Fort Sam Houston, Tex. The Italian boys are not scheduled to arrive until early next week.

81 Million Autos Expected by 1965

DETROIT (AP)—Think the highways are crowded today? A report prepared for the American Automobile Assn. meeting here noted government estimates that 81 million motor vehicles will be on the nation's roads by 1965.

To emphasize the need for more and better highways, AAA officials got up a couple of statistics:

If placed bumper-to-bumper, 81 million cars would stretch 10 times round the earth at the equator. Or, in a straight line, they would reach to the moon.

If piled on top of each other pancake-style, the 81 million cars would make a heap 65,000 miles high.

About 450 of the world's volcanoes are active.

When Denouncing Person Say Anything—Politely

By LAURA Z. HOBSON
NEW YORK (IMS)—Every time the papers report on "mountains of mail and wires" being received by any public character, I remember a story I heard about the famous author, John Steinbeck.

About Mrs. John Steinbeck, really, because it's mostly about what she did once when her husband handed over a letter that had just come in the morning mail.

Remember that letters of all kinds were no new thing to Mr. Steinbeck. He's begun to write back in the crazy twenties: "Grapes of Wrath" appeared in 1939 and won the Pulitzer Prize the next year.

His latest novel, "Sweet Thursday" is on all the best seller lists right now and is scheduled to become a Broadway musical in 1955, with "Pipe Dream" for its new title and that success-ridden pair, Rodgers and Hammerstein, pulling the whole switch.

In other words John Steinbeck knew all about letters from perfect strangers, good letters, bad letters, words of praise and admiration, words of criticism and ridicule.

But the particular letter I'm talking of rather took the cake anyway. It dealt with another one of his recent books, "East of Eden," and it wasn't only critical and disapproving.

It was downright abusive. The author read it, then passed it over to his wife. But after she went through it, she refused to chuck it in the waste-basket or return it to him. "Let me answer it for you," she said—in a tone that meant business.

But her not was very short and quite polite in tone. "My dear Mrs. So-and-So," it ran, "You have said things to my husband I would never dare say to him myself. Yours very truly..."

This story, I should think, would have plenty of meaning to lots of people besides authors, playwrights, cartoonists, actors, singers or sculptors.

In my opinion it fits the case with everybody whose work is passed upon directly by the public, with mayors or governors or legislators, with people in business life or on committees—

In other words it applies to every human situation where one person acts and another person reacts.

And the basic meaning I see in the story seems a pretty straightforward and simple thing:

Say what you think, say what you want to, it's a free country—but for Pete's sake, hang on to your manners while you say it.

In an election year particularly, that's a pretty sound rule to go by. Whenever you take pen in hand to denounce, in other words, please count not only to ten—but to 48. For the principle holds in every state of the Union.

If you're too burned up to write a letter and must send a wire instead, it's a smart idea to mark it "day letter" or "night letter" instead of "fast rate." Often that small gesture itself slows down the racing temper and cools out the hot blood boiling behind it.

We all know in our bones, of course, that the most effective way to suggest to any public figure that it's time he saw the light, or got lost, or even dropped dead—the best way is via frigid politeness and suave Chesterfieldian phrases.

We also know in our bones that most public figures—unlike John Steinbeck—never get to see the mail at all until a nice efficient secretary has screened everything juicy right out of it.

Carrier Bennington Receives 2 Bibles

NEW YORK (UP)—Two Bibles, commemorating the disastrous explosion which took 103 lives aboard the aircraft carrier Bennington last May 26, were presented to the captain and crew of the carrier today to open the celebration of National Bible Week.

Presentation was made aboard the carrier by Charles R. Sligh Jr., national chairman for National Bible Week, which is sponsored by the Laymen's National Committee, Inc.

A pulpit sized Bible was presented to the ship and a smaller Bible to Capt. William Francis Raborn in commemoration of "his spiritual courage during the tragic incident" last May.

Jane Pickens sang the National Anthem and "The Greatest Book

I Ever Read," especially composed for National Bible Week, at the ceremonies attended by Rear Admiral Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, commander of the 3rd Naval District, and other Navy dignitaries.

About 60 per cent of the nation's wholesale trade is handled in New York state, especially in dry goods, clothing and furnishings, jewelry and some other merchandising lines.

2 Leftists Elected in Jordan Voting

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Two leftists won parliamentary seats in Saturday's bloody balloting in Jordan. Their strength was attributed largely to anti-Western feeling among Palestine Arab refugees who blame the West for their expulsion from that part of Palestine that now is Israel.

Reports here said the violence accompanying Jordan's first elections under a new system permitting authorized groups to campaign as political parties, left eight persons dead and more than 44 wounded.

(In Damascus, Syrian press reports last night said 25 persons had been killed and 300 wounded during electoral clashes in Jordan. The reports said a night curfew and strict censorship had been imposed in Amman.)

Red Spy Ring Active in France

MOP UP STORM DAMAGE—Philadelphia workmen prepare to remove a tree from the automobile on which it fell in the high winds and rain of Hurricane Hazel which struck late last week. This scene was typical of many recorded during the aftermath of one of the worst hurricanes to strike the area, bringing floods, death and property damage.

New Driver Test Will Weed Out Dangerous Motorists

LANSING (UP)—A new driver's test designed to keep unsafe motorists off Michigan highways, is scheduled to be put into effect by Jan. 1. It has 100 questions, divided into four groups. Now license applicants have to answer only ten questions, all of the multiple choice variety.

Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary said the new tests would be in the hands of police and sheriffs' departments throughout the state by the first of the year.

Cleary added the test was almost two years in the making and was prepared in consultation with state police and traffic experts from Michigan State College, Northwestern University and New York University.

The present test, in use since the early 1930s, was described as "simply inadequate" by Cleary. It almost can be passed "on guesswork," he said and a person of average intelligence can qualify for a license without studying traffic laws.

Police Lt. Clay Stockton, of the Detroit Operator's License Bureau, echoed Cleary and declared that "the old examination has enabled hundreds of unqualified persons to obtain road rights every year."

"You can think it is safe to drive left of the center line of a four-lane highway, or even to drive across a railroad crossing against a red signal and still get a driver's license in Detroit or any place else in the state."

Twenty points constitute a perfect score on the present test. Two points are subtracted for each wrong answer. Twelve points is the minimum passing mark.

In recent tests, Stockton said, eight of 29 Detroit applicants scored only 12 or 13 points, but got licenses, although some of them answered:

It would be all right to continue after a fatal injury accident so long as you were not at fault: O.K. to slow down and cross tracks carefully at a railroad crossing when the signals warn of an approaching train; two parking lights are enough for night driving; the same speed day or night is equally safe.

By FRED FAINTON

PARIS (INS)—Paris Police Inspector Jean Dides, who touched off one of the biggest spy investigations in French history, declared today that a "massive" Soviet espionage ring still is operating in France.

Dides charged, in an exclusive interview with International News Service, that the disclosures of a past few weeks were merely "a small aside" to the real espionage going on.

He declared that the information on National Defense Committee affairs which two committee officials, Rene Turpin and Roger Labrousse, admitted leaking merely "confirmed" what the Communists had learned elsewhere. Dides declared:

"In France today you have espionage on two planes, the technical plane and the political-diplomatic plane."

The tall, athletic police officer who is known as a pro-American charged that the real Communist espionage network exists on a very high level in the government through a bloc of what Dides called "neutralists."

Dides' suspension as a police inspector, allegedly for carrying on his anti-Communist activities after he had been assigned to other duties, began a chain of events that led to exposure of the leaks from national defense committee meetings.

Security agents seized Dides and found National Defense Committee documents in his possession. He said he had obtained them from a one-time Communist as proof that the Reds were receiving defense secrets.

At first the case was known as "the Dides affair," but so many other persons, many of them prominent, crowded into the confused picture that the militantly anti-Communist inspector was all but forgotten.

A by-product of the investigation, however, was the discovery that Dides had been working with one Alfred DeLaure, also known as "Monsieur Charles," who was sentenced to prison as a wartime Nazi collaborator and escaped. Dides and DeLaure reportedly made a trip to the United States together in 1953.

As a result Dides has been charged with harboring a fugitive from justice.

Dides charged today that the "neutralists" in the government "make a chain with the Communists."

He described the "neutralists" as men in the French government who believe France should take the part of a "third force" between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Dides added: "They talk openly with Communists and crypto-Communists of national policy and military secrets, often knowing this information will be relayed to the Communist party."

The police inspector added that secrets are leaked by "imprudence" or "on purpose." He added:

"The old days of spies scurrying around are over. Information vital to the Communists is gained at lunch at Maxim's (restaurant) or at an elegant dinner somewhere."

The Communists, Dides claimed, then confirm this flow of information through "technical" espionage and persons such as Turpin and Labrousse.

Dides continued: "The 'neutralists' might have an argument on their side if they didn't overlook the fact that the internal power of the Communists in France is so strong."

"How can a 'third force' exist when there is nobody to balance the Communists within France?" Describing the "neutralist" crypto-Communist group, Dides charged that an overwhelming majority of its members are homosexuals.

He added that this group believes Communism is inevitable, so there is no point in fighting it.

"It is a passive attitude," Dides added, "they are not militant Communists."

Dides described himself and Jean Baylot, the former Paris police chief, who assigned him to anti-espionage work, as being among the few real and anti-Communist fighters in France. He added that "they've brought us both down."

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

HOW TO MAKE A JUNIOR EDITORS HAT

(Mothers: Today's introductory panel is more difficult than the ones that will follow, and you will need to help on it.)

If you are going to be a Junior Editor, you need a real newspaperman's hat. Making these traditional square, flat-topped hats from newspaper pages is fun for the whole family. Here's how:

1. Take a full sheet that forms the front and back pages of today's paper. Cut clear across both pages just under the newspaper's name, as shown in step number 1. Save this strip for use later.
2. With the paper still double, and the fold at the top, fold the upper two corners so they meet evenly at the center of the page as shown.
3. Using drawing number 3 as a guide, fold the top sheet of the lower rectangular section in half. Fold it again over the lower part of the triangular section.
4. Turn the paper over and fold the sides into the center. The folds are indicated by dotted lines in the drawing.
5. Tip the corners of the lower section as shown.
6. Fold this lower section in half and then fold again, in the same manner as in step 3. Tuck this folded portion into the band at the base of the triangle.
7. Fold the peaked top in half and tuck neatly into the side section as shown.
8. Turn the hat bottom-side up and spread open with your hand. Carefully fold the two corner peaks inward and tuck into the band. Block out the hat, making the top flat and the sides as square as possible. For the finishing touch, take the name of the paper and with white library paste fix it around the band of the hat as shown in center drawing.

New Cancer Theory Told

NEW YORK (UP)—The fear that cancer runs in families is not borne out in a study reported today at the annual meeting of the American Cancer Society.

This analysis finds little evidence that you inherit much chance of getting cancer.

The study was made by Dr. Douglas F. Murphy and associates under auspices of the Gynecologic Research, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, aided by grants from the Commonwealth Fund.

They studied nearly 10,000 female relatives of women who had cancer and others who did not. The cancer patients had either cancer of the breast or uterus, the two most common sites of female cancer.

They did not find that cancer, in any sites in general, occurred with any unusual frequency in relatives of women who had cancer of the breast or uterus.

The relatives of women who had breast cancer didn't have more breast cancer than relatives of women free of that kind of cancer.

GOP Wives Stump for Candidate Mates

DETROIT (INS)—The wives of several of Michigan's GOP candidates are stumping the state on behalf of their husbands today.

For the next eight days a special bus will carry the women into every large community below the Muskegon-Bay City line.

The women on the trip include Mrs. Donald S. Leonard, wife of the gubernatorial candidate; Mrs. Clarence Reid, wife of the lieutenant governor; Mrs. Owen J. Cleary, wife of the secretary of state; Mrs. D. Hale Brake, wife of the state treasurer; Mrs. John B. Martin Jr., wife of the Auditor General; and Mrs. Frank G. Millard, wife of the attorney-general.

Washington (UP)—A Senate group has dug into teen-age crime, drinking and drug addiction to see what makes juveniles delinquent. Next it takes a look at television programs of violence and horror.

Beginning tomorrow, a subcommittee will open hearings on TV. It plans to call sociologists, psychologists, producers of programs, sponsors, actors, station manager and network officials.

For more than a year this subcommittee, headed by Sen. Robert C. Hendrickson (R-N.J.), has held hearings around the country on various phases of juvenile delinquency.

It hasn't reached any general conclusions yet, or general solutions. It has received a lot of advice and opinions from specialists on juvenile delinquency, who don't agree among themselves on the cause or cure.

The Senate group is sure of one thing, although it's hardly news. Juvenile delinquency is nationwide. In 1953 about 385,000 juveniles were brought into court, and for every one brought to court three others had been picked up by police.

Last year juveniles under 21 accounted for 47 per cent of all arrests for larceny, 68 per cent of all auto theft arrests and 35 per cent of all those arrested for rape. "When we talked of juvenile delinquency a few years ago," Hendrickson has said, "we were thinking mostly of youths in the 18 to 21 age bracket. Now we're finding serious crimes committed by children from 12 to 15 years."

The basic cause? He attributed it to "lack of love and affection and kindly discipline in the home." But Chicago's prosecutor, John G. Gurnea, said, "When the woodshed comes back, we can forget the jail." He advocated stiff spanking.

A New York writer, Albert Deutsch, said parents are doing a better job than their ancestors did with them.

A husband-wife team at Harvard Medical School, Doctors Sheldon and Eleanor Glueck, told the subcommittee they found after a 10-year study of 500 delinquents and 400 nondelinquents that:

Fifty per cent of the mothers of the delinquents had a history of criminality; 62 per cent of their fathers drank to excess; 66 per cent of their families had no systematic way of handling finances; 60 per cent of their parents did not love each other; 90 per cent of their families did not care what the neighbors thought of them; 70 per cent of their families never had any recreation as a group; and 60 per cent of them came from broken homes.

In Los Angeles the subcommittee was told some doctors were selling youngsters benzadrine tablets in big lots at a big profit.

A parade of witnesses in San Francisco told the subcommittee juvenile drinking was a big problem. George R. Reilly, chairman of the California State Board of Equalization, said too many California adults drink too much and depend on official agencies to care for their children.

When the subcommittee went to New York to ask questions about comic books which feature tales of horror and violence, Dr. Fredrick Wertham, senior psychiatrist of the City Department of Hospitals, said: "It is the good child who is tempted and seduced by the comic books."

But the senior psychiatrist at Bellevue Hospital, Dr. Loretta Bender, said she saw no great danger to children's minds from blood and thunder comic books.

Ferguson vs. McNamara

U.S. Senate Seat at Stake in Michigan

(This is first of series of stories on the candidates and issues in the forthcoming Michigan election.)

LANSING (UP)—The man who is chairman of the Republican policy committee puts his senate seat on the line in Michigan's Nov. 2 election against a homespun Democrat and labor-minded businessman.

The Republican candidate is U.S. Senator Homer Ferguson, 65, of Detroit, seeking his third six-year term.

The Democrat is Patrick V. McNamara, 58, vice-president and sales manager of a Detroit contracting firm, long-time unsalaried president of an AFL Pipe Fitters Union Local and former vice-president of the Wayne County Federation of Labor.

Ferguson's career is summed up by his official biographer: "coal miner, teacher, school principal, lawyer, professor of law, circuit judge and U. S. Senator."

He was born in Pennsylvania and worked in the coal mines as a young lad. He was educated at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Michigan. He served as Wayne County circuit judge from 1922 to 1942.

It was this assignment which brought him to state attention when he conducted the famous Ferguson Grand Jury investigation into gambling, racketeering and graft. The

Dutch Sailors Prefer Cowboys to Football

MILWAUKEE (UP)—Seventeen Dutch sailors, survivors of a freighter that sank in Milwaukee Harbor, have decided they like cowboy movies better than American football.

Invited by a brewing company to watch the California-Oregon game on television Saturday, the sailors looked at cowboy movies until the game came on. After a few moments of football, they asked for more cowboys "or something we understand."

Hospital Is Dedicated

PORT HURON—Port Huron's new 100-bed Mercy Hospital was dedicated Sunday by Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of the archdiocese of Detroit. A fund drive, a government grant and contributions from the Sisters of Mary financed the new hospital.

grand jury returned 370 indictments, including a former mayor of Detroit, a Wayne County prosecutor and sheriff, the superintendent of Detroit Police and three city councilmen.

McNamara's public life has been confined to membership on the Detroit Board of Education (which he still holds) and membership on the Detroit City Council. During World War II, he was Detroit area rent control director.

McNamara entered the senatorial race against the wishes of the CIO, which backed the late Blair Moody for the nomination. Upon Moody's death late in the primary campaign, organized labor of all unions rallied behind him and he was "adopted" by the Democratic leadership.

McNamara was born in Massachusetts and started work as a mechanic at an early age in the New London shipyards. He moved to Detroit in 1921 and became a job superintendent for a mechanical contracting firm.

In 1934, McNamara was the first state president of the first industrial union in the Detroit auto industry, the union which finally grew into the United Auto Workers.

Armistice Day Dropped

Committee Heats Up Plan to Publicize Newest U.S. Holiday—'Veterans Day'

WASHINGTON (U) — A national committee met today to heat up plans for observing the first major change in a national holiday in 16 years.

For on Nov. 11 this nation will drop Armistice Day, which it has been celebrating since 1938, and begin the observance of Veterans Day.

The committee, headed by Veterans' Administrator Harvey V. Higley, has the job of stirring up interest in the renamed holiday.

Strictly speaking, this country has no national legal holidays. Congress can be-it-resolved all it wants to, but it's still up to the states to decide which holidays they will authorize.

So we have Southern citizens giving the rebel yell on Robert E. Lee's birthday (Jan. 19) and-or Jefferson Davis' birthday (June 3). Many Northern states have Lincoln's birthday (Feb. 12) as a legal holiday.

Massachusetts has its Patriots' Day (April 19). Nevada its Admission Day (Oct. 31). Tennessee its Gen. Bedford Forrest's birthday (July 13). Vermont its Bennington Battle Day (Aug. 16). And North Carolina its anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence Day (May 20).

A few holidays, such as July 4 and Dec. 25, are universally observed. Others, like Armistice Day, are recognized by most of the states.

Well, and why change it? Officials of the veterans' organizations have been saying that Armistice Day — honoring those who fought, and especially those who died, in World War I—should be enlarged to include all veterans, living and dead.

But the idea didn't seem to be getting anywhere until Nov. 11, 1953. On that day Emporia, Kans., held its own Veterans Day. Among

Mitchell in Favor of AFL-CIO Merger

WASHINGTON (U)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell went on record in favor of an AFL-CIO merger last night, saying it would benefit both organized and unorganized working men and the country as a whole. Interviewed on an NBC-TV program, Mitchell said he hopes for "one labor movement" in the nation because: "It would lead to more responsibility on the part of labor, more participation on the part of labor in our economic and social and political affairs and, in addition, would I hope eliminate many of the jurisdictional problems that now occur in the labor movement."

Elias Howe invented the sewing machine.

Lions Maul Colts on Muddy Field for 3rd in Row

Layne's Entry in Game Sets Detroit Club Off to 35-0 Win

By H. GUY MOATS
DETROIT—Lions and the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League battled without a count in the opening period of Saturday night's scrap in wet, muddy Briggs Stadium. Then Coach Buddy Parker called on veteran quarterback Bobby Layne. Things began to happen very fast as soon as Layne hit the playing field.

Early in the 2nd period Colts' George Talarferro, former Indiana star, fumbled on the 17 when hit by Lions' Gerald Perry. Sherman Gaudes grabbed the ball on the 18 and three plays later Low Carpenter ran left and for the marker. Doug Walker converted. That was the first of five touchdowns in the Lions' 35-0 victory, their 3rd straight in NFL competition.

Three of the tallies followed passes thrown by Layne. In the 2nd session an interception by Jack Christiansen on Detroit's 45 set the stage for the 2nd marker. After two ground plays Layne went back to throw a long one to the former MSC ace, Dorne Dibble. Dibble went rest of the way. Dibble also was on the receiving end of another Layne pass early in the third period, and again he hit pay dirt. The drive was good for 45 yards from the Lions' 45 stripe, and Dibble had no trouble outdistancing Colt defenders.

It didn't take very long for Lions to chalk up their 4th TD. Bill Stits grabbed an errant Colt aerial on the 45, went to the 17 before being downed. A couple plays later Layne pitched a strike to Jug Girard in the end zone. Girard's reception was a real exhibition of agility. He snatched the ball just as he fell across the goal line.

Final counter came in the 4th period when Tom Dubinski fired a TD pass to Girard from the 41. Dubinski used only 3 aeriels to cover 73 yards on the drive.

Despite the mud and rain, Lions played a brilliant game all around. Defensive play stopped the Colts outside the Lions' 20 marker and the single scoring chance for the visitors was a field goal attempt that went wide.

More than 48,000 customers watched the demonstration of gridiron finesse by the NFL champs. Lions next opponents are the Bears, at San Francisco on Sunday.

Briggs, Cronin Glad A's Retain in Philadelphia

'Spike' Says KC Has No Place for Major League Team

By The Associated Press
"Kansas City has no place for a major league baseball team," said Owner Walter O. (Spike) Briggs of the Detroit Tigers today, in commenting on the deal that will keep the A's in Philadelphia. "I'm glad the A's are staying in Philadelphia."

General Manager Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox also expressed satisfaction that the A's would stay put.

"We feel that whatever the Macks wanted, that's what the Boston Red Sox want," he said.

American League President Will Harridge said he would have no comment until he gets more details. He said he would issue a statement Monday after he receives a complete report and a list of stockholders from Roy Mack of the A's.

Other club officials in the league declined comment until they were notified officially of the sale.

Montreal Passer Hot as Playoff Berth Is Nailed

Etcheberry Completes 26 of 36 Aeriels for 586 Yards

By The Associated Press
Old-time Montreal football fans fondly recall the 1931 season when Warren Stevens forward-passed the team to a Grey Cup title. The Syracuse University grad passed Big Four clubs to death that year but he had nothing on Sam Etcheberry.

Etcheberry twisted the Hamilton Tiger-Cats' tails Saturday as he threw five touchdown passes and completed 26 of 36 for a 586-yard gain through the air, believed to be an all-time Big Four record. The Als ran up a 46-11 score, highest of the season in the professional league, and 21,000 fans looked on, the top crowd figure in the East this year.

The victory clinched a playoff spot in the two-team series and the Als now can ease up in the remaining four league games. In the Western Conference, Saskatchewan wrapped up a berth in the conference's three-team playoffs by beating the Calgary Stampeders 19-8. The defeat also left Calgary only a slight chance to catch either the Edmonton Eskimos or Winnipeg Blue Bombers for a place in the series.

Edmonton moved up to a tie for second with Winnipeg by flattening the luckless British Columbia Lions 31-3 as Jack Parker, former Mississippi State back, scored two touchdowns. The Lions now have a 1-12 record.

OUTTA THE WAY—Don Cox (13), St. Frederick back, stiff-arms a St. Clement tackler while making a short gain in the 3rd quarter of yesterday's game here. St. Clement scored four touchdowns in the 1st half to hand the Rams their 4th straight Suburban Catholic League setback, 31-20.

Mikes Rout Dales, 44-0; Rams Bow to St. Clement

Pontiac's two parochial football teams split in Suburban Catholic League games yesterday.

St. Michael handed St. James a 44-0 shellacking at Ferndale, while St. Frederick bowed to Center Line St. Clement 31-20 here. In other SCL games St. Rita edged St. Benedict 6-3 and Orchard Lake St. Mary downed Royal Oak St. Mary 20-4.

Mikes scored the first three times they had the ball. Bob Anderson went five yards, Mike Lauinger scooted 15 and Ron Elmy ran 20 for 1st-quarter scores. Danny Drops boosted two conversions to give the Shamrocks an early 20-0 lead.

Bud Schwartz scored on a 70-yard dash in the 2nd period. Mikes struck twice in the 3rd stanza, with Lauinger going 30 yards on a reverse and Elmy plunging two feet. Elmy set up the latter score with a 90-yard run.

Drops backed over from the five for the final Shamrock tally in the 4th period. St. Frederick spotted St. Clement a 25-7 halftime lead and then outscored the visitors 13-6 in the 2nd half. Larry Morrow passed for all three Ram touchdowns, hitting Don Cox for 40 yards in the 1st period and Dick Doyon for 30 yards and 15 yards in the 3rd and 4th quarters. Doyon kicked St. Frederick's two conversions.

Chet Lash went 45 yards on the ancient "Statue of Liberty" play in the final 30 seconds to give St. Rita's its victory over St. Benedict.

St. Mary (O.L.) scored three times in the last half to overcome a 6-0 deficit at Royal Oak. Ed Pilarski passed to Bill Blaskovich for 35 yards, Jerry Leszczynski ran 18 yards and Tom Kalasz picked up a fumble and ran 22 yards for St. Mary's touchdowns. Kalasz kicked one extra point and passed to Leszczynski for another.

Led Big 10 Hitters

Bill Skowron, Yankee first baseman, led the Big Ten hitters in 1930, getting 20 safeties in 40 trips for .500. It was the best mark ever made in the conference.

In the Ivy League, Cornell was the heavy favorite, but the Big Red is just playing out the schedule now. Instead, Yale which hasn't won the championship since 1946, is in a favorable position to come through.

No one seems capable of catching UCLA in the Pacific Coast Conference, but the PACUANS can't go back to the Rose Bowl, so they're playing for national honors rather than a post-season game. They massacred Stanford 72-0 in their last outing.

Actually, Southern California probably will get the bid if it gets past California Saturday. Oklahoma, the No. 1 team in the country in the Associated Press weekly poll of sportswriters and sports casters, heads the Big Seven as usual. Colorado, probably the only club capable of giving the Sooners a healthy workout, looks like the conference's Orange Bowl team since Oklahoma isn't eligible this year.

In the tough Atlantic Coast Conference which supplies the other team for the Orange Bowl, defending national champion Maryland still has a good chance, with Duke and Wake Forest in the running, too.

Undeclared Mississippi is in a peculiar position. Ole Miss is still the Southeastern Conference title and go on to the Sugar Bowl and with its soft schedule probably will do just that. The schedule has worked against the Rebels in the national picture, though.

Head-On Collision Kills Pair of Horses

NEW YORK (INS)—Two horses were killed in a head-on collision yesterday while they were working out at Belmont Race Track.

The horses were John D. Hertz's Speedy Wave, favorite in today's seventh race, and Star Of Roses, a maiden two-year-old filly owned by Maine Chance Farm.

Wesley Britte, 34-year-old exercise boy, was thrown from Speedy Wave and fractured his leg in two places above the knee.

'M' Beats 'Cats on Breaks; Irish Win as MSC Kicks Fail

Heart-Breaker

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (U. S. Press)—No one at Michigan State college had any apologies to make today for its 20-19 football defeat by Notre Dame.

"I hate to lose," said coach Duffy Daugherty, "but I was never more proud of a team than in that defeat. They were fighting right down to the last second. It was the best game they've played so far this season."

You couldn't blame Daugherty, an Irishman with a dash of Scotch, for wishing he had some of the luck of the Irish on Saturday.

Any one of the two missed extra points could have tied the game. And if just one of two missed field goals hadn't gone wide, Michigan State would have made it four in a row over Notre Dame.

Spartans also missed LeRoy Bolden, their crippled left half. Bolden carried only two times and his lame leg limited him to minus two yards.

Although soaked by a downpour of rain, the sellout crowd of 57,238 stayed until the last minute of play. As in all recent meetings between MSC and Notre Dame, the game was a crowd-pleasing thriller.

Michigan State started out brilliantly, driving in 13 plays after the kickoff for a touchdown with Clarence Peaks going the last four yards. Earl Morrill threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to John Lewis and the Spartans led 13-0 at the end of the 1st period.

But the fighting Irish fought back with scores in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters to first tie things up and then go ahead. Joe Heap scored twice and Paul Reynolds went for the other touchdown.

With two and a half minutes to go, Morrill again hit Lewis with a pass completion good for 44 yards. Bert Zagers cut 14 yards around end to score although at least three tacklers had a hand on him.

But the extra point was missed, the margin that left the Spartans with their 3rd loss against a single victory so far this season.

Then came the pass in the Michigan strategy. Prayers carried the ball the rest of the way.

On the next play, Lou Baldacci headed for the right end, but was tackled on the 15. Fullback Fred Baer and left halfback Danny Cline drove to the one in four plays and Cline went over. Kramer kicked the extra point.

Now with the 3rd quarter almost over and the score with Virginia Tech tied, 14-14, the scab back runs out on the field.

It is 3rd down and five on the Tech 40-yard line, the ball in the center of the field. On first down, an off-tackle play from the split-T formation (quarterback behind center, three backs behind him, line-men separated) made three yards. On 2nd down, a quick opener added two.

As the Virginia quarterback, rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 for this spot:

Quick opener with scab back carrying.

Fake quick opener to scab back and pass just over line to an end. Quarterback keep-pitchout option: (quarterback runs parallel to line of scrimmage; may pitch out to scab back).

Fullback delay over center. (Answer elsewhere on the sports pages).

Still Unbeaten

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR (U. S. Press)—A voice from the past said, "a punt, a pass, and a prayer." It was all the Michigan Wolverines had and it brought them victory.

Michigan's weakened squad was pushed from one end of the field to the other and no one was more surprised last Saturday when the Wolverines gained their 2nd conference victory, 7-0, over Northwestern. It gave them a tie for the lead in the Big Ten with three bigger, stronger brothers: Ohio State, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Michigan trailed last Saturday in every department except scoring. Somehow it contrived to defeat Northwestern, 7-0.

Wildcats, losing their 3rd in a row, were more impressive in defeat than Michigan was in victory.

On the ground the Wildcats outscored the Wolverines 229 yards to 63. They held the Wolverines to only 5 yards in the second half, a feat accomplished by Wisconsin against Michigan State two weeks ago.

Even in the air the Wildcats were more apt than their victorious opponents.

All of this was mirrored in the 1st down column where Northwestern had 15 to Michigan's 6.

Michigan used the punt as one of its main offensive weapons, and it probably gained the Wolverines more yards than any play they've ever used in the past. Michigan was forced to punt 10 times.

After one of these punts, Michigan got its break—the one it converted into the winning touchdown.

In the 2nd period, Northwestern had just gained four yards around left end. On the next play Dale Pienta, 2nd string quarterback, dropped the ball. Michigan guard Ed Meads recovered on the Northwestern 21. On the 1st play, Michigan's Ed Shannon gained four yards.

Then came the pass in the Michigan strategy. Prayers carried the ball the rest of the way.

On the next play, Lou Baldacci headed for the right end, but was tackled on the 15. Fullback Fred Baer and left halfback Danny Cline drove to the one in four plays and Cline went over. Kramer kicked the extra point.

Hutchinson Signs Rainiers' Contract

SEATTLE (U. S. Press)—Freddie Hutchinson, former manager of the Detroit Tigers, signed a 3-year contract Saturday to manage the Seattle Rainiers in the Pacific Coast League.

He succeeds Jerry Priddy, former Tiger infielder and the Rainiers' manager for one season. Contract terms were not disclosed.

Hutchinson got his start in professional baseball with the Rainiers, winning 25 games as a rookie pitcher in 1938.

Grid Selector Picked Army Over Duke, Missed Call on Cleveland and Rams

By HARRY WISNER
(Radio TV Sports Commentator)

Our No. 1 choice of the week, Army over Duke, came through with flying colors. Duke had been picked on almost every poll from coast to coast as the winner, but we selected the Army by six points. Army won, 28-14. 'Nuff said.

I mentioned casually that our No. 1 team, Oklahoma's Sooners, could win in a waltz over Kansas. They did, 65-0.

Ohio State was a slight favorite over Iowa and it was our selection that the Buckeyes would win. Iowa was beaten, 20-14.

I said Maryland's Terps had two bad weeks, but this would be their good week and that they would win by twenty. Final score 30-0—Maryland.

Michigan at Northwestern posed a different picture. We picked Michigan to win by five points but they came through by seven.

Reversal came with the Penn State-West Virginia game. My WOLVERINE ON PROWL—Michigan back Jim Maddock (26) sprints for 6 yards before being overtaken by Northwestern end Fred Nosal (80) in the 1st period of Saturday's game at Evanston. Michigan won, 7-0.

Substitute Pitt Coach Jubilant After 21-19 Win

PITTSBURGH (U. S. Press)—Jubilant Tom Hamilton, who directed Pitt to a 21-19 football upset over Navy on Saturday for ailing Coach Lowell (Red) Dawson, figures the Panthers can also do it against Northwestern next Saturday—with or without him at the helm.

"They're a great bunch of kids and they played a whale of a ball game against a great Navy team," Hamilton said today. "It was a team victory and I'm sure it was one for Red."

Hamilton, former gridiron coach at Navy and now Pitt's athletic director, stepped back into the active coaching ranks unexpectedly last Tuesday after Dawson was hospitalized with an "aggravating heart" condition.

"I don't know whether Red will be back in time to take charge against Northwestern next Saturday here but it's interesting and exciting to coach again," Hamilton said. He added:

"Everybody gets excited and I'm no exception. But I've been confident all along that our boys were good and would bounce back. We did against Navy and I know we'll keep going."

Dawson entered Presbyterian hospital last week after Pitt lost its first three games. Some of the Pittsburgh newspapers were yelling for his scalp.

First reports said Dawson will be hospitalized a week but Hamilton said the doctors "still have some tests to give Red and we don't know for sure what date he'll be back."

"Pending Red's return, I'll direct the team with the help of his assistants. There'll be no letdown."

Royal Oak Driver Wins Feature at LA

Don McCubbins of Royal Oak won the 50-lap championship feature race at Lake Angelus Speedway yesterday. McCubbins took over the lead after Virgil Barb, also of Royal Oak, blew a tire after leading for 32 laps.

Jerry Barb, Virgil's brother, won the trophy dash, while Jim Bemis of Royal Oak and Larry Furnal of Pontiac won heat races. Hardtop events were won by Don Bird and Benny Howell, both of Pontiac.

Racing will continue next Sunday at the track.

Top Elevens Eye Bowl Bids

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

This crazy-quick college football season is approaching the halfway point, and coaches are beginning to think in terms of conference championships and possible bowl bids. Some of the teams that were buried so far down in the pre-season ratings you had to look at the small print to find them, are right in the thick of things now.

Arkansas, for one, could write a real rags-to-riches story if the Razorbacks win the Southwest Conference title. They haven't taken it in 18 years, all the while suffering humiliation from humiliation from the big boys like Texas, Baylor, Rice and Co.

But their stunning 20-7 triumph over Texas last Saturday left them one of the dozen and a half major undefeated teams in the country.

And who would have thought Army would emerge as the top team in the East after it's wretched showing against South Carolina in the beginning of the season? But the Cadets' fine 28-14 triumph over Duke sent them right to the top in their section.

Both the Big Ten and Ivy League have been surprising. Illinois and Michigan State were expected to make serious bids for the Big Ten title. But currently are pulling up the rear, while Wisconsin and Ohio State, two of the unbeaten, go at it this Saturday. Out of this game could emerge a Rose Bowl team. In the Ivy League, Cornell was the heavy favorite, but the Big Red is just playing out the schedule now. Instead, Yale which hasn't won the championship since 1946, is in a favorable position to come through.

No one seems capable of catching UCLA in the Pacific Coast Conference, but the PACUANS can't go back to the Rose Bowl, so they're playing for national honors rather than a post-season game. They massacred Stanford 72-0 in their last outing.

Actually, Southern California probably will get the bid if it gets past California Saturday.
