General Back at HQ; Viet Protests Grow

SAIGON (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi returned tonight to Da Nang where student and soldier protests against his ouster as the First Corps commander began, then spread throughout South Viet Nam.

Students angered at his ouster by the ruling military junta seized government radio stations in three major cities to broadcast demands for his reinstatement.

Bronson Asks Staff Increase

Cites Work Volume, Says Need is Urgent

Oakland County Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson yesterday asked that his present staff of 16 assistant prosecutors be boosted to 20 next year.

One of the last of the county department heads to appear before the salaries committee of the County Board of Supervisors in preliminary personnel hearings, Bronson said the need for more assistants is urgent due to an increased volume of work.

He also requested two more stenographers, two additional legal investigators and a court reporter, or a total of nine new employees.

His present staff totals 22.

Bronson cited other reasons why more personnel are needed.

CRIME BOOST

These included a continuing rise in the crime rate, greater demand for appellate services, an increase in the office's domestic relations activities and increased demands on the office expected by the addition of three more circuit judges by next year.

Bronson said the requests were reasonable, feasible and economic.

The new assistant prosecutors are needed, one each, in four divisions of the prosecutor's function, Bronson said.

He asked that new men be assigned to the civil division, appellate division, South Oakland office and to the general criminal division.

154 ADDITIONS

County department heads are seeking a total of 154 new employees in the 1967 budget at an added cost of $882,739.

The salaries committee, which completed preliminary hearings yesterday, will await a recommendation from the County Board of Auditors before proposing a salary structure in a tentative 1967 budget.

Slightly Colder Weather Forecast for Next 2 Days

The weatherman said tomorrow and Monday will be just a little colder, the highs near 40 to 50.

Showers will end tonight leaving skies mostly cloudy.

Temperatures tonight are expected to register 25 to 44.

Southeast - south morning winds will continue at 8 to 15 miles per hour.

Thirty-five was today's low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The thermometer recorded 51 at 2 p.m.

2 Men Are Injured in Troy Auto Crash

Orville Garnett, 27, of 149 Lyndsey and Lawrence McIntosh, 25, of 1114 Bauman, Troy, were injured in a two-car collision last night at Tacoma and Livernol in Troy.

McIntosh is in Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, with a broken arm. Garnett was discharged after treatment for cuts and bruises.

Secret Formula 'Plot' Broken

FBI Says Industrial Data Offered Du Pont

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The FBI has broken what it says was a plot with international overtones, to sell industrial secrets worth millions to the Du Pont Co.

An FBI spokesman said the case was broken when E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. reported it had been offered secret formulas of competitors.

An unemployed truck driver and a chemical engineer were arrested by the FBI.

The FBI said yesterday that $42,500 was sought from the Wilmington chemical firm for data jointly owned by the B. F. Goodrich Corp., Akron, Ohio, and the Montecatini Corp., Milan, Italy.

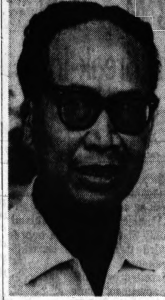

The formulas were said to involve a new process for synthetic rubber, but no details were disclosed.

Montecatini, a big chemical manufacturer, is regarded as a competitor of Du Pont in the world market.

One man was arrested in a motel near Wilmington, the other in Cleveland, Ohio.

Wilbur J. C. Pierce, 27, was held in Wilmington on a mail fraud charge.

Earl Bush, 29, was held in Cleveland under the same bond on charges of mail fraud and interstate transportation of stolen property.

Grandmother (36) Gives Birth to Twins

When her 18-year-old daughter gave birth to twins last year, Mrs. Ronald J. Frasure said it was the first time for twins in the family.

Thursday night, the 36-year-old grandmother changed that by giving birth to two boys at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

She described her husband, a Pontiac Motor Division employee, as "mightily happy."

The Frasures now have three boys and four girls, and face some revision of their three-bedroom home at 240 S. Lynn.

Daughter Mrs. James Deneen of 82 Murphy, who started the twin trend, is expecting again, but a single birth is anticipated.

Sukarno, Top Aide Reported Held in Palace

Singapore Informants See Little Chance of Ex-Chief's Comeback

SINGAPORE (AP)—Lt. Gen. Suharto, Indonesia's new strongman, dissolved and outlawed the Indonesian Communist party today in the name of President Sukarno, Jakarta radio said.

At the same time, informants in Singapore reported that Sukarno and First Deputy Premier Subandrio, his pro-Peking chief lieutenant, were not being allowed to leave the presidential palace in Jakarta.

These sources added that the shape of developments in Jakarta indicated Suharto, the Indonesian army chief, was firmly in control and that Sukarno, now apparently only a figurehead, had little chance of staging a comeback.

Jakarta radio broadcast excerpts of a meeting of high government officials at Sukarno's palace where Sukarno said he had ordered Suharto to take control of the country and maintain peace and order.

Then Suharto spoke and said he had no intention of moving Indonesia's political outlook either to the right or extreme left. "It is already left," he said.

CHIEF TARGET

That broadcast said Subandrio — chief target of anti-Communist students — was present at the meeting and he was referred to as deputy premier.

But informants in Singapore, receiving independent reports from Indonesia, said Sukarno was out and was being held a virtual prisoner in the presidential palace.

"And Sukarno himself is not allowed to leave the palace at present," one informant said.

The sources expressed belief Subandrio and other pro-Communist members of Sukarno's Cabinet will go on trial before a military tribunal now conducting hearings on cases involving Indonesians accused of being involved in a Communist coup attempt in October.

2 RED LEADERS

Two Communist leaders already have been sentenced to death and, according to some reports, executed.

A broadcast following the palace meeting announced the order dissolving and outlawing Indonesia's massive Communist party.

Over Alleged Scandal

Pearson Dares Foes

OTTAWA (AP) — Liberal Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson has dared the Conservative opposition to try to throw him out of power over the alleged security scandal involving a German beauty queen and former Conservative Cabinet member.

Over angry roars from the opposition in Parliament, Pearson said Friday night he had ordered a secret, full-scale judicial inquiry into the case, which threatens to explode into a scandal as big as the Protomto affair that rocked Britain.

Pearson indicated that the inquiry will examine charges made last Thursday by his justice minister, Lucien Carlin, that Cabinet members under the Conservative regime of ex-Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker was linked with Gerda Munsinger.

Carlin said she was a former Communist spy.

Pearson read into the record charges by Carlin that Diefenbaker had mishandled the Munsinger case.

CALLED FOR ORDER

The speaker of the House of Commons had to call for order as Conservative members demanded that Carlin himself immediately back up these and other allegations rather than wait for the report of the inquiry.

"If you don't like it (the inquiry)," Pearson said, "you can vote no confidence in us Monday and throw us out."

A government spokesman said the Cabinet of Pearson's Liberal party regime probably would act Monday to approve his decision to hold the inquiry.

The tumultuous House of Commons session erupted into shouting and jeering when a minority party leader tried to read into the record a Toronto Star report allegedly naming names in the purported scandal.

'CLOSE COMPANION'

Although Carlin had said Mrs. Munsinger was dead, the newspaper said one of its reporters had located her alive in Munich, West Germany, and she had named former Associate Defense Minister Pierre Sevigny as her "close companion."

A check by newsmen disclosed that Mrs. Munsinger, a tall blonde, has since disappeared from her Munich flat.

Sevigny, who held the post in the Diefenbaker government in 1959-63, told newsmen in Montreal he had met Mrs. Munsinger socially but did not consider her a security risk.

outside the Communist bloc of nations.

The Singapore sources said they have not yet been able to clarify whether Sukarno was forced to let Suharto take power but they said present indications are that the 64-year-old president had yielded to pressure from the army.

FIRM BACKER

They said Suharto is a firm supporter of former Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Harsi Nasution, whom Sukarno dismissed last month.

Suharto's appointment indicated that army forces loyal to Nasution had decided to move against Sukarno and Suharto in response to violent student demonstrations, the sources added.

The sources said Suharto had thrown thousands of heavily armed troops into Jakarta, the Indonesian capital, to prevent any resistance from pro-Communist supporters of Sukarno.

Jakarta radio announced today that the armed forces were staging a military exercise in the capital "as a show of force."

U.S. ENVOY

U.S. Ambassador Marshall Green, reached by telephone in Jakarta by the American Broadcasting Co., said Indonesia's political troubles were being handled in a "peaceful and favorable manner."

The ambassador said he expected the military authorities to move against the leftists and added that anti-Communist students and the army planned a parade in Jakarta as a "show of unity."

Anti-Communist students have staged almost daily demonstrations in Jakarta for the past two weeks. At one point, they surrounded Sukarno's palace and he had to be flown out by helicopter.

They also sacked the Foreign Ministry and Communist Chinese Embassy and news agency, and occupied the Ministry of Education.

3 Men Held in Break-Ins

City Police, Deputies Make Apprehensions

Three Pontiac area men face arraignment on charges of breaking and entering today after Pontiac police and Oakland County Sheriff's deputies apprehended them in two separate break-ins.

Arrested by Pontiac police in an apartment house at 235 N. Saginaw about 3:30 a.m. were George Giesey, 28, and Wayne Sauls, 28, both of 2445 Kleist Court, Keego Harbor.

A resident of the building, David Cronick, 23, told patrolmen that Giesey and Sauls had kicked in the door of his apartment and started a scuffle with Cronick and two other tenants.

Both suspects are held at the Oakland County Jail.

Rodger W. St. Onge, 18, of 1441 Parks, Avon Township, was apprehended by sheriff's deputies along with Rochester and Troy police at an Avon Township auto parts firm.

WITNESS CALLS

Deputies said a witness called police to report he had just seen someone break a front-door glass at Avoncroft Auto Parts, 94 W. Auburn, and enter the building.

Inside the building, deputies said they found St. Onge hiding in a corner.

He is also held at the county jail.

TELLS OF ORDEAL — Spec. 5 Wayne H. Murray, a 23-year-old demolition sergeant from San Diego, told yesterday how he and other U.S. Special Forces soldiers joined with South Vietnamese and Montagnards and fought against Communist hordes at the Ashua Valley camp that fell this week. Murray was wounded in the leg and arm.

7 More Yanks Saved Near Overrun Camp

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Marine and Air Force helicopters scouring the jungles around the overrun Ashua American Special Forces camp today rescued seven more Americans and a group of Vietnamese defenders.

"It's better than we had hoped for," one American officer said in Da Nang when the rescue helicopters returned with the additional survivors, many of them wounded.

It brought the total number of Americans reaching safety to 12. Also rescued have been eight Air Force personnel shot down during the battle and 12 U.S. Marines downed during the fighting and rescue operations.

A total of 172 Vietnamese, Montagnard and Chinese Nung defenders also have been brought out, a spokesman said.

It was not revealed exactly how many defenders were in the camp when it was attacked by two North Vietnamese regiments.

13 AMERICANS

But such a camp normally has at least one Special Forces "A" team comprised of 13 Americans and about three companies of Vietnamese and Montagnard strikers employed and trained by the Special Forces.

It also is known that shortly before the North Vietnamese attacked Wednesday, the camp had been beefed up by an element of Chinese Nungs.

Meanwhile, a U.S. military spokesman announced that yet another American plane crashed during air operations in support of the camp.

The plane, a U.S. Marine A4 Skyhawk jet, disappeared Thursday while groping through the overcast at 3,500 feet about 30 miles south of the camp.

S.A.D. MISSING

The pilot was listed as missing in action. The heavy overcast hindered air support throughout the Ashua battle.

An A1E skylander, three Marine rescue helicopters and one ACH cargo plane armed with Gatling guns—the famous "Puff the Magic Dragon"—also were lost during the battle.

The spokesman also announced today that a U.S. Air Force light observation plane on a flight from Qui Nhon disappeared on March 4. The pilot was listed as missing in action.

White Lake officials are asking for a statement of clearance for temporary connection to the proposed Clinton-Oakland Interceptor via the proposed Waterford Township sewer system.

White Lake officials are currently in the process of applying for a federal grant to plan for their proposed internal system.

Eventually, that system would be linked to the proposed Huron-Rouge Sewage Disposal System.

Mackie Says He'll Seek Reelection to Congress

PLINT (UPI) — U.S. Rep. John Mackie, D-Mich., today announced he would seek reelection to Congress, removing himself as a potential gubernatorial candidate.

He offered the names of Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley and Democratic State Chairman Zeltow Ferency as men who could take on Gov. George Romney and win.

Veep's Speech Details Policy

Reds Could Up Force in South 50 Pct. in '66

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration will offer no bombproof havens to North Vietnamese Communists, who could boost their troop strength in the south by 50 per cent during 1966.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey outlined the "no sanctuaries" policy in a speech yesterday while other administration spokesmen made it clear supply routes would continue to be primary targets for air attacks.

Attacks on other targets — such as ports and airfields — would come only "to prevent the success of aggression" and "only with such power as required" to stall a stepped-up Communist drive, Humphrey said.

"It ought to be clearly understood that 'sanctuaries' is a phrase and a chapter of history of the previous decade," Humphrey said. He referred to the limitations put on targets for attack in the Korean war.

Disclosure of the Communist capability of increasing troop strength 50 per cent above the estimated 235,000 now in South Vietnam came as a briefing for congressional staff members.

150 TONS

Officials said such an increase would require infiltration of up to 150 tons of supplies daily. They said this would be about the limit of Communist supply capability.

Last year, supplies were shipped into the south at the rate of 12 to 20 tons a day.

The officials said a 50 per cent Communist increase would require substantial U.S. reinforcements because South Vietnam is nearing the bottom of its manpower pool. No estimate was given of any future U.S. increases. American forces now committed number 235,000.

Humphrey said that on the basis of his nine-nation Asian tour there was "reason for measured encouragement" about the military situation in Vietnam.

He also renewed the American pledge not to stand for any Viet Nam settlement which hands the Communists a prelection victory that "cannot be won at the ballot box."

Fishermen Warned of Ice Danger

The head of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department warned area fishermen of treacherous ice conditions on most lakes in the Pontiac area.

Lt. Donald K. Kratt cautioned anglers not to venture out on ice which has grown dangerously thin in two straight days of high temperatures.

"We've got our divers and rescue equipment on a standby basis," Kratt said, "but I hope we don't have to use them."

Kratt said shore line ice on most lakes had melted completely in the last few days and that thin spots had been reported throughout most area lakes.

Driver Hospitalized in Avon Twp. Crash

Robert McCracken, 35, of Roseville is reported in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after a two-car accident last night.

McCracken was injured when his car collided with a vehicle driven by Alfred L. Payne, 23, of 1880 June, Avon Township, near the intersection of Auburn and Adams in Avon Township.

Payne was treated for injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Board to Act on Library Plan

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The township board is expected to take action Monday night on a proposal that could clear the way for a million-dollar township library.

The proposal to acquire a site and to build and furnish the library was submitted to the board Feb. 28 by the township library board.

If approved, a proposition to levy 46-hundredths of a mill will be put to a vote of the people in a special election May 18, the date requested by the library board.

The tax levy, which would be decreased over a 20-year period as valuation of the township increases, would raise about $1,100,000, according to John D. Rumsey, president of the library board.

This would increase the average family's taxes from $6 to $7 per year.

100,000 VOLUMES

Known as Phase II of the township's library program, the project would ultimately provide a permanent township library with at least 100,000 volumes, according to Rose Vainstein, township librarian.

The library is presently located in temporary quarters on the lower level of the Devon Chateau Building, Long Lake and Telegraph.

It was opened in October 1964 with 14,000 volumes and now contains some 28,000. Operating expenses are provided by a 1-mill levy voted in April 1963 as Phase I of the program.

The library also has a cooperative arrangement with the Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham which permits township residents to use the city library facilities.

COST $42,000

Contract for this service, scheduled to be terminated next June, cost the township $42,000 for the current year. The cost was expected to go up to $50,000 for the coming year, Miss Vainstein said.

Numerous township residents in the Birmingham area who objected objections to termination of the contract in a library board meeting Thursday night were told that it is still subject to review.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Dr. Robert T. Hatt, director of Cranbrook Institute of Science, has been named a consultant to the Bureau of Research of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Hatt will evaluate proposals in the fields of philosophy of education and the arts and humanities submitted to the U.S. Office of Education.

NOT A RISK

"I never had reason to believe she was an agent of any sort and to this day I am convinced that this woman was never directly or indirectly a security risk."

Sevigny described Cardin as "this cheap, despicable little man."

Diefenbaker, away on a fishing trip, fired off a statement saying that Cardin's remarks were "a cowardly and slanderous attack bearing the imprint of McCarthyism."

Sevigny, who resigned from the Diefenbaker administration in a 1963 dispute over nuclear policy, said in his statement:

"I shall expose to the nation in my name, and in the name of the millions who are equally outraged, our total and utter contempt for this cheap, despicable little man, Lucien Cardin, the supposed minister of justice who has dishonored his oath of office, who has brought this odious, erroneous nonsense in front of the public for dirty, petty political reasons or yet, as he has implied, in order to secure political vengeance."

"I am coming out fighting and believe me, I seldom lose a fight."

Latin Group to Air Poverty War Role

The role of the Latin American community in the county antipoverty program will be discussed at a 2 p.m. meeting to members of Latin Americans for Political Action (LAUAPA).

Among the speakers at the meeting at the Fisher Body Local 596 Hall will be Alvin Davis, director of the Pontiac opportunity center of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OEO).

The meeting is open to the public.

Tax Official to Be in City on Thursdays

A Michigan Department of Revenue representative has scheduled a series of visits to the Pontiac district office at 10 S. Mill to assist taxpayers in preparation of intangibles tax returns.

William Blackstone said he will be at the Pontiac office beginning Thursday and continuing each Thursday through April 28 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Blackstone may be seen by appointment by persons holding mortgages, land contracts, corporate stocks and other similar types of property subject to the tax.

The revenue department has set a deadline of April 30 for filing of forms.

Crash Is Fatal to Area Man

A Farmington Township man died early today at William Beaumont Hospital, some three hours after the collision of his car with a wrecker towing an automobile.

Dead is Robert H. Markham, 36, of 23215 Canfield.

Farmington Township police said Markham's car collided with the truck and the other auto on Ten Mile about 500 feet west of Middlebelt just before 1 a.m.

Police said the accident took place just as the truck pulled the other car away from the shoulder of the road.

Romney Asks Officials to Meeting on I-696

Romney has invited mayors and other officials of 15 affected communities to the meeting.

Probe Arms Theft in Commerce Twp.

Oakland County Sheriff's detectives are investigating the reported theft of a high-powered rifle and a shotgun in a break-in at a Commerce Township hardware store.

Deputies said a broken window was used to gain entry to McKibben Hardware at 1576 Union Lake some time early yesterday.

Taken from the store were a 303-caliber rifle, a 410-gauge shotgun and some $50 in cash from a box.

Astronauts Go Over Plans for Gemini 8

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Gemini 8 astronauts, at 11:41 a.m. to start the dramatic 5 1/2-hour pursuit.

Reports will be made on readiness of all major factors — the two rockets involved in today's doubleheader launching, the spacecraft simulator in the control center, rehearsing various phases of the three-day journey.

Following the conference, astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott planned a long session in a spacecraft simulator in the control center, rehearsing various phases of the three-day journey.

They will concentrate on the two most exciting aspects: the attempt to catch and hook up with an Agena space vehicle on the first day and Scott's space walk of nearly 2 1/2 hours on the second day.

DRAMATIC PURSUIT
An Atlas-Agena is to hurl the Agena into orbit at 10 a.m. (EST) Tuesday. The astronauts are to ride a Titan 2 into space at 11:41 a.m. to start the dramatic 5 1/2-hour pursuit. Armstrong, a civilian, and Scott, an Air Force major, underwent their final major physical examination Friday and were pronounced ready to go.

Gemini 8 flight surgeon Dr. Fred Kelley said after the 4 1/2-hour exam: "Both the command pilot (Armstrong) and the pilot are considered physically ready for flying from a medical standpoint — very much ready."

While the pilots were in the doctor's office, the Atlas-Agena launch team replaced a ground pressure regulator and conducted fuel loading tests with the Atlas booster. The regulator that was removed developed a fault Thursday and delayed a countdown practice.

4 Information Programs on Medicare Set

The Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OEO) in conjunction with the Social Security Administration will conduct four Medicare information programs next week.

A 12:30 p.m. meeting is slated Monday in the fellowship hall of the Presbyterian Church, Liberty at Main, Milford.

Wednesday's 2 p.m. meeting will be held at the North Oakland Opportunity Center, 7 W. Lawrence at Saginaw, and a 1:30 p.m. meeting is slated for Thursday at the Independence Township Hall.

A 7:30 p.m. meeting is scheduled Friday at Waterford Township High School.

Transportation arrangements to any of the meetings can be made by contacting the OEO office.

Persons who wish to enroll in the Medicare program may do so at the meetings.

Towns Thwart Throughway Transit

Progress lost out to myopic vision when the State Highway Department bowed to the opposition of five communities of southern Oakland and Macomb counties and pigeonholed the 12-mile I-696 freeway that would have provided an urgently-needed east-west traffic artery across this heavily-populated area of the State.

Called the most vital uncompleted link of Michigan's interstate highway system, the Highway Department had spent $1 million on planning and engineering the $138-million facility after lengthy study and public hearings. Approval of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads had lent further feasibility to the project.

Unmindful that progress has traditionally entailed temporary inconvenience or dislocation of the few for the benefit of the many, the short-sighted citizenry affected by the I-696 route were able to work their will against the highway concept that would ultimately have proved an incalculable boon.

Such obstructionism is but another exemplification of one of man's cardinal traits — his enthusiastic encouragement of progress and development so long as the price is paid by the other fellow.

Since the interstate highway aid program under which the Federal government would have paid 90 per cent of the cost of I-696 expires in mid-1972, it is questionable whether another route can be developed in time to benefit by it.

Alternatives to the blocked I-696 are:

• A new route through a belt bounded by Eight- and Twenty-Mile Roads.

• Splitting the present controversial route, and proceeding immediately with the 11-mile, $90-million eastern segment against which the lesser opposition, it is thought, could be resolved.

'Mighty Casey' Enshrined With Diamond Deities

It couldn't have happened to a nicer fella.

The fella is CASEY STENGEL and what happened is his election to baseball's Hall of Fame.

Ol' Case, whose minor and major league managerial career spanned four decades, reached his baseball pinnacle when he won 10 CASEY pennants and seven World Series as boss of the New York Yankees.

Then, after enforced retirement at 70 in 1960, the "diamond in the rough" returned two years later to take over the newly-organized New York Mets. During his four years as leader of the team that clung tenaciously to last place, Casey and his Amazin' Mets brought off one of the miracles of sports-dom.

They racked up attendance records by consistently LOSING.

To get the craggy-faced STENGEL into the Hall they had to suspend the rule that prescribes eligibility only after a five-year period of retirement from baseball.

But what's wrong with that? As CASEY would say, he never let no rules bother him none.

Weather Makers May Raise Storm

Want to REALLY stand out from the crowd?

Then why not be the first in your group to be fined for altering the weather without a permit?

All you have to do is go ahead and alter without clearing it with the National Science Foundation.

Who says so?

Congress, that's who. It has given authority to the National Science Foundation to order all weather-makers to give NSF 30 days notice or really head into a storm.

How come?

Because after talking about the weather all these years and doing nothing, people have all of a sudden started doing something and not talking. At least not to the National Science Foundation.

Suppose, though, that you were rain-minded for your garden but the NSF says No to your precipitation petition—then what?

Regardless, you have a weather ace up your sleeve if you're determined to have rain at all cost. You merely wash your car and plan a weekend of golf.

Judicial Reform Is Tackled

By JOSEPH E. MOHAT
WASHINGTON (AP)—Today's high-powered society threatens to run away from the creaking machinery of the federal judicial system. It faces a "legal explosion."

In an attempt to meet the problem, Congress approved this week a bill to create 45 federal judgeships in those states and appellate circuits where case backlogs have risen nearly out of sight.

The change, if approved as expected by President Johnson, will depart from tradition in at least one way by overstepping the unwritten nine-judge limit on Courts of Appeals. It will add four temporary seats to the South's 5th Circuit, where civil rights litigation has soared in recent years.

But in the eyes of some of the federal judiciary's keenest observers — including some of the judges — greater departure and greater reform are urgently needed.

The federal courts, in their view, must be made responsive to modern times if they are to cope with the mounting litigation to be expected in a nation whose population now 194 million—has been projected to 437 million by the year 2010.

An increase in judges, alone, is widely regarded as a short-sighted approach to a broad problem. Little headway has been made against case backlogs since 73 new judgeships were created in 1961. Some of these judgeships have not been filled.

The burden of the lower federal courts also has snowballed.

Whether manpower or faulty organization is at fault, the Federal courts have been unable to keep up with the mounting volume of judicial business. And one frequent target for criticism has been the practice of senior judges to remain on the job. For most of these, old age brings a necessary slowdown.

Federal judges, under the Constitution, serve during their good behavior — which usually means for life.

Since the vast majority of federal judgeships are the capstones to long and distinguished legal careers, few federal judges are young men.

The Justice Department urged Congress, in considering the increase in judgeships, to undertake simultaneous reforms to insure that vigorous, fully competent judges are handling the mounting court workload.

It suggested that judges automatically become "senior judges" at 70, opening the way for appointment to younger men to the court, but allowing an older judge to continue to assist in its work.

Congress ignored the suggestion, although a Senate subcommittee is studying the problem of removing incompetent judges.

Proposals have been heard to revise judicial procedures to eliminate duplication and cut down the number of hours a judge must spend poring over details that someone lower down could process.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

The power of faith led The Rev. Donald V. Roberts, a Presbyterian minister, to become the first Protestant minister in Moscow. Sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. and financed by the Presbyterian, Episcopal, American Baptist and Lutheran Church in America, he went to Russia for three years to serve the foreign colony there. His wife and daughter accompanied him.

The first year the Roberts lived in a hotel and alternated services between the English and American Embassies, carrying the church equipment in four suitcases. Then they moved into a small apartment and dedicated it for religious services. A desk was the altar. The dining room table was used for communion service. The congregation included Quakers, Mormons, Anglicans, Africans in flowing robes, and Moslems.

Did he have any influence on the Russians?
"By example, I hope that we were good representatives of our church and our country."

Finding the Way:

A Time to Be Awake and Listen

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

Three ladies were sleeping. Then as he turned in the other direction he saw another person, head nodding, about to sleep. It was astonishing to the man who told of it, for Dr. Theodore Ferris was attending a concert in Boston where he was hearing the eminent cellist Rostropovich.

DR. LOEW

The music was of such crystalline purity that he could imagine the artist had plucked the depths and soared to the heights of the Haydn Concerto. But these ladies were sleeping.

It caused him to wonder as to their preoccupation, their own worries or their lack of understanding. Why did they sleep? The music was not dead. It was just that they were not attuned to it.

In the discussions concerning the life or death of God one can ask the same question. There is the danger that we shall judge the reality of the fact by our own situation.

Our preoccupations, our worries and anxieties of our own insecurities can cause us to lose any sense of a living presence.

As a matter of fact, one of the "death of God" theologians found in the mundane processional of events, such as growing older or giving up smoking, that he had to confront some new realities. It was at that moment that he discovered that he wasn't hearing the old music.

The danger is that at just that moment he might decide there was no music at all.

The point of all this is that we are in a season called Lent. Once upon a time it meant certain disciplines such as giving up some luxury, some sweetness or some pleasure. It was a time to meditate, to consider, to deny oneself, to be disciplined.

Some of these aspects have been sloughed from the experience, but the form of it is still in our midst. Men turn to listen in these weeks. It's a time to be awake, not to sleep through the concerto. It's a time to cleanse the mind of the worries and not to miss the music.

There is an ancient legend of a man who watched a man carrying his cross in a procession. He saw the crowd; he actually saw the man who carried the cross. But he missed the crucifixion because he had a toothache. When he was asked about it later, all he could remember was his own discomfort.

Halford Luccock once commented that the interesting thing about Rip Van Winkle was that when he went to sleep he had the picture of George III on the wall. When he woke up the picture of George Washington was on the wall. Old Rip had slept through a revolution.

There's no better description of the present situation than "revolution." It's a time when all of the accepted values are tested and when the familiar landmarks are shaken. In such a time there's music to be heard and sights to be seen and truth to be pondered. It's a time to reconsider and to think through.

That's the discipline of Lent. This is the time to remember Jesus' question of his own sleeping followers: "Could you not watch with me one hour?"

Washington Notebook:

Senator's Praises Go on Record

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA) — One of the nicer fringe benefits accruing to Washington legislators is the opportunity of inserting in the Congressional Record—Congress' official diary — anything their hearts desire.

Sometimes a lawmaker abuses this privilege. Many observers feel that Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., may be overstepping the line by inserting a large number of favorable comments he has received on his opposition to the Viet Nam war.

In the 30 days from Feb. 1 to March 2, the Senate convened 17 times. On six of these days, Oregon's professional gadfly led a Senate ment typesetters will ever both-er to read.

The largest single dosage occurred Feb. 16, when Morse inserted a whopping 42 pages of praise. The smallest was 14 pages on Feb. 23.

Since each page in the Record — printed at government expense — costs $104, Morse's displays in one month cost U. S. taxpayers exactly $13,728. Projected at an annual rate, this could amount to more than $130,000.

A private film company, finishing off a documentary on the White House, thought it would be nice to have a fire going in the marble fireplace in the celebrated state dining room as closing shots were made.

Moments after a fire was started, smoke filled the room. When a window was opened, it merely fanned the flames. (Evidently the fireplace had never been used since Harry Truman had the White House renovated years ago.)

After a while, President Johnson, napping upstairs, got a whiff of smoke. He sent a valet to find out what was going on. When he was told the story, the President sent the man back downstairs with this message:

"The President understands. He just hopes the filming isn't being done by a British crew." (In the War of 1812, British forces seized the White House and burned it out.)

In the wave of the first musical chair rumors involving President Sekou Toure of Guinea and ex-President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, an old African hand was asked for his opinion of the developments.

"Well," he drawled, "it's kind of like the old Abbott and Costello routine on baseball, 'Who's on Shortstop?'"

"That means," interpreted a third party, "that he doesn't know much about baseball either."

Another was suggested that the first major problem facing Toure and Nkrumah would be whether to call their coalition "Guinash" or "Ghana."

Voice of the People:

Present Administration Discussed by Reader

Here are a few reasons I cannot support the Democratic administration.

• A person can go to jail for a traffic violation, but the three men that went to North Viet Nam and praised the Viet Cong in their struggle are still free.

• The closing of military bases and making our boys sleep in tents in Fort Gordon, Georgia, and in Columbia, S. C.

• Fighting the Communists in one part of the world but helping them in other parts with direct aid, as the Russian wheat deal, and indirectly by the United Nations Development Program. About $840,000 of our taxes will go to Communist Cuba.

• Lowering taxes one year and raising them the next year on something else.

• Spending millions to tell people that smoking is harmful and spending more millions to support the price of tobacco.

The Administration seems to be two-headed—no matter how you look at it, it seems like it's going forward.

'Communism Is a Threat to Our Freedom'

Isn't it time the newspapers stopped criticizing Gov. George C. Wallace? Americans have a bigger threat upon their freedom than him. Doesn't the Constitution mean anything to our so-called public servants, or do they rewrite it for the benefit of staying in office?

Have Americans forgotten the words of Khrushchev "I will take the U.S. over without a single shot being fired"? Americans don't seem to realize that communism isn't just in Russia, it's right here.

Junior Editors Quiz on TRANSISTORS

QUESTION: How do transistors work and how are they different from vacuum tubes?

ANSWER: To understand transistors, think of electrons as very small electrical particles connected with a larger atom. Some electrons can flow, or move from one atom to another.

When this happens, there is an electric current. Lights and electric appliances such as radios then can be put to work.

The flow of electrons can be controlled in various ways. To do this, large radios have a number of vacuum tubes from which air has been removed so the atoms of the air will not disturb the vacuum flow.

It is then easier to control them, such as using magnets to turn or deflect the stream of electrons, or to make them go faster, which will result in amplifying the electric signal so sound can be produced.

A transistor is another way of doing these same jobs, but it is very much smaller, which is why the tiny radio in our picture is possible.

Transistors use much less power than vacuum tubes and create little heat. Inside a transistor are layers of materials such as germanium and silicon, called semi-conductors.

Certain impurities are deliberately added, which has the effect of changing the electric current passing through in just the way it is needed.

FOR YOU TO DO: Have you a scrapbook on the Space Age? If not, start one and paste in everything you can find on such things as transistors, satellites, computers and space capsules.

Two Sand Dollars Renew Boy's Faith in God

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the 16th in a 40-part series by famous and unknown persons on the love faith in God changed their lives.)

BY LAVERNE
PERSCHBACHER
Wheat Ridge, Colorado

Mike was 14 when his dog, Dugan, was hit by a car. He prayed earnestly that God would spare his injured pet, but Dugan died.

Then Mike turned on God much as I have seen adults do in times of trial.

He grieved terribly and spent long periods in his room.

I found him there one afternoon, idly toying with a small mound of ob-

Laverne Perschbacher jects on his bed — a couple of round steak bones, chewed white, the little red collar and leash, and some sea shells brought back from last summer's vacation.

MISS DUGAN
"Mike, you have to stop this," I said. "We all miss Dugan, but we have to go on. We must accept things as they are."

"But why?" The anguish in Mike's voice was deep and real.

"This is where God comes in, Mike. I don't know why Dugan had to die, but I know God loved him as He does us — and every creature on earth. Faith, Mike, is believing when you can't touch or see..."

"Well, I want something I can see. Give me just one proof I should believe — just one."

SMALL COLLECTION

If I only could, I thought, and I looked from Mike to the small collection of memories on his desk, and returned with a printed card.

Mike began reading aloud:

"That I would like to tell, Of the birth and death of Jesus

LENTEN GUIDEPOSTS

bed — objects that spoke to Mike of love.

Among the shells I noticed two round flat discs, bleached white by sun and waves.

"Mike, you asked for something you could see, something tangible." Excitement put a catch in my voice. "Do you remember that when we bought those sea shells the woman told us a story about one of them?"

Mike picked up the two-inch, thin, circular shell. "She said it was called a sand dollar, and there was a legend... wait, it's on a little card she gave me."

Mike got up, rummaged in his desk, and returned with a printed card.

Mike began reading aloud:

"That I would like to tell, Of the birth and death of Jesus

Found in this lovely shell.

If you examine closely, You'll see that you find here Four nail holes and a fifth one Made by a Roman's spear.

On one side the Easter lily, Its center is the star That appeared unto the shepherds

And led them from afar. The Christmas poinsettia Etched on the other side Reminds us of His birthday Our happy Christmastide.

Now break the center open And here you will release The five white doves awaiting To spread good will and peace.

This simple little symbol, Christ left for you and me — To help us spread His Gospel Through all eternity."

It was very quiet when Mike finished reading. Then he cleared his throat.

"Five tiny white doves? It's probably just a gimmick."

2 SAND DOLLARS

"Mike, you have two sand dollars there. Let's break them open and see if they have five doves inside."

I sat down at his desk. My heart was racing as I picked up his knife. What if it really was a gimmick? My hand trembled as I plunged the knife into the hard shell.

The shell broke open, they came tumbling out: one, two, three, four... In panic I shook the shell — and there it was — five. Five tiny bits of white shell, each shaped like a dove in flight. Mike picked them up.

"How about that! How about that," he kept saying.

5 WHITE DOVES

Taking the knife from me he broke the other shell. Sure enough, five little white doves, all perfectly matched — formed in the depths of the ocean, countless years before, by an all-wise Creator.

I had not realized, until that moment, how my own faith had needed reaffirming, too.

The light in Mike's eyes was something to see. I hope I never dim — but if it does I know that God will have another moment of revelation ready, prepared in His infinite wisdom before doubting man was ever born.

Note — Laverne Perschbacher, freelance writer, tells how two youngsters accomplished what they ever knew in the little of the world.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most of the nation's governors meet today to chat informally about the war in Viet Nam.

All 50 governors were invited to the briefing. More than 40 accepted. Press secretary Bill D. Moyers said he expected and international, to come up for discussion. No discussion was set, Moyers said, and "no subjects are off-limits."

But the war in Viet Nam was expected to dominate the conversation. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara were to be on hand, apparently Moyers said no new major policy decisions would be disclosed to the governors. The President met Thursday and Friday with chairmen of House and Senate committees. Those meetings, like today's, were very informal, Moyers said.

Johnson conferred with Rusk, McNamara and other top administration officials and foreign policy advisers in advance of today's briefing.

The White House said only a few governors were unable to accept the President's invita-

SAIGON (UPI) — Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu has turned down an appeal for clemency from a wealthy Chinese merchant sentenced to death for economic crimes, the Viet Nam press agency said today.

He was found guilty Monday of price speculation, hoarding and bribery by a new military court set up by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

Under the law, Ta Vinh could have been executed by a firing squad within 24 hours. Government sources said the firing squad might be composed of women for "psychological purposes."

—Three Republicans on the Appropriations Committee accused the administration of underestimating defense needs in the 1966 and 1967 budgets.

Reps. Glenard P. Lipscomb of California, Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin and William E. Minshall of Ohio also predicted more money will be needed. The emergency appropriation "demonstrates a growing lack of planning which could, if not altered, produce serious risks for the future security of the United States," they said in a joint statement.

J. W. K. Grahams' Brick Trilevel Home Is Located On Red Arrow Drive, Commerce Township

background for LIVING

Contemporary, Early American Mixed

By JODY HEADLEE

Home Editor, The Pontiac Press
The J. W. K. Grahams on Red Arrow Drive in Commerce Township combine contemporary and Early American in their home's decorating theme.

Beige walls, carpeting and draperies create a monochromatic background for the contemporary living room.

A metal sculpture rooster adds a bit of whimsy to the oiled walnut end table serving the sofa.

Lighting both the sofa grouping and the music corner is a walnut floor lamp. Interchangeable walnut cabinets act as a room divider.

VERSATILE FURNITURE

"The divider's a versatile piece of furniture," said Mrs. Graham. "Especially so, since it can be used from either side."

Introducing a bright touch of color to the room is the walnut-framed chair covered in bittersweet.

In the adjoining family room redwood beams and ceiling complement the elm paneling of the sidewalls. The oak parquet flooring is centered by a round shade of gold rug.

Hanging above the used brick fireplace is a Mexican family scene done by Mrs. Graham.

Before the picture window, draped in a beige boucle with bands of moss fringe shading from beige to deep brown, is a swivel rocker in an olive green and black fabric.

A pine cobbler's bench with porcelain pulls completes the arrangement.

The room's curved-back sofa is lighted by a milk glass and brass hanging lamp topped by a provincial print linen over parchment shade in brown, bittersweet and green on beige.

STACK STOOLS

Stack stools in a deep brown, aqua and bittersweet print on sandalwood in front of the window emphasize the room's color theme and increase its seating capacity.

Five children, a tail-wagging dog, a Siamese cat named Maria add to the activity that makes the Grahams' home a busy place.

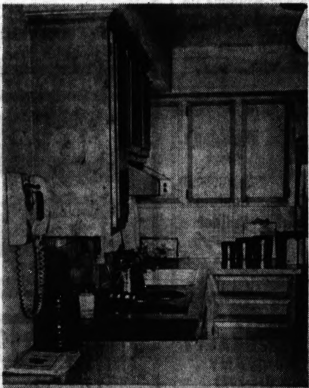

The oldest, 21-year-old John is a sophomore at Eastern Michigan University.

Robert, 10, and Barbara, 9, fill the air with the sound of music as they practice; Robert on the accordion and Barbara on the organ.

Ricky, 7, and Donald, 5, aren't left out of the practice sessions. Both boys are taking tap and acrobatic lessons.

In addition to keeping up with the duties of a homemaker plus an occasional assignment as a private nurse, Mrs. Graham makes time in her busy schedule to study oil painting.

Mr. Graham is a sports enthusiast and many of his golf and bowling trophies are displayed throughout the house.

DECEPTIVE RANCH — The long, low lines of this three-bedroom ranch, with the major portion of the roof visible from the street, makes the 66' 4" front appear to be considerably longer than it is — one of its many design features.

Room for Extras in 3-Bedroom Ranch

When a family wants three bedrooms on one floor, as well as good living space to go with them, the design has to be very special if it's to stay within a medium budget.The problem is accentuated when the family wants a two-car garage, a family room in addition to a working kitchen, laundry space on the first floor and an extra area, porch or patio, with flexibility for conversion.It is seldom that all these demands can be satisfied in a house that must fit on a moderate-sized lot.But architect Lester Cohen has accomplished this objectiveIn Design G-27, created for the House of the Week series.The garage, attached in a most attractive exterior line, is big enough for two cars and yet offers interior storage as well as patio storage accessible from the backyard.FAMILY ROOM
The family room has a corner fireplace, with glass doors and windows opening out to the rear terrace.The kitchen, with a compact L-shaped arrangement, makes life easier for the lady of the house with a dinette on one side and a dining room on the other.

In one of his many space-saving features, architect Cohen has tucked the laundry area into an alcove in a dual bathroom next to the basement stairway.This saves steps to any basement unit. To add to the convenience, there's a sheltered outdoor end of the terrace for sunny drying just out the back door.For the master bedroom, there's a private lavatory. If only two bedrooms are needed, the third can serve as a den or study or a private office at home for a professional man.It all adds up to a lot of extra convenience in a house with the modest over-all dimensions of 64' 4" by 42', statistics that include the previously-mentioned two-car garage.The living room, 20' in one direction, gains added visual space in the other direction because of the manner in which it is lined up with the dining room.DINING PATIO

The latter has glass doors to a dining patio behind the garage. The living room is directly to the right of the foyer, which is entered from a spacious, covered front porch.In this center hall plan, the bedroom wing is at the left side of the house.The exterior of the house, with its slate-floored porch, modern roof design and mixture of stone and wood, is enhanced by a long planter beginning at the porch and extending pastHow to Build, Buy

To Exhibit Art by Children at Mall Again

"Art Teaches Many Things" is the slogan for the fifth art exhibit by Waterford Township School District elementary students Monday through March 26 at the Pontiac Mall.

The show is being directed by Mrs. M. J. Root, art coordinator for the school district. It will be in conjunction with Children's Art Month, a national annual event sponsored by the Crayon, Water Color and Craft Institute and the National Art Education Association.

Three-dimensional art work will be displayed in the store windows of Hudson's, Tandy Crafts, Sherwin-Williams and Montgomery Ward. Three display cases containing exhibits of jewelry and other small three-dimensional work will be seen in the public area of the shopping center, along with easels which will be placed throughout the Mall concourse for displaying flat art work.

DEMONSTRATIONS
Next Saturday groups of children from each school will participate in art demonstrations. Beginning at 1 p.m., there will be four demonstrations each half hour until 4 p.m.

At 4, Dr. Donald O. Tatroe, superintendent of Waterford

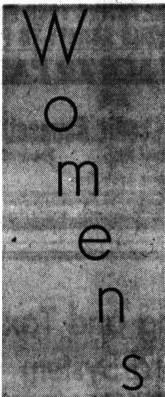

Schools, and Dr. Marshall C. Jameson, coordinator of the township's elementary schools, will be presented a child's piece of art. Twenty-six elementary schools and their art resource teachers will take part in the show.

Crown Queen of Fashionettes

Some 60 members of the Fashionette Club viewed a film on "Arthritis" at a recent meeting in Adah Shelly Library.

It was narrated by Troyan Gal of Livonia, physical therapy consultant with the Michigan Chapter of Arthritis. Mrs. John Relchert, president welcomed the senior Mrs. Lee Crandell into membership.

The new queen, Mrs. Thomas Grant, will be crowned at Tuesday's meeting.

She Should Drop Note to Relatives

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: Next month I'm going to the West Coast for several weeks. A very close friend of mine has relatives living not too far from where I will be staying. She has given me their names and addresses and has asked me to look them up. She said they are very friendly and will be glad to show me around.

While my friend assures me that it will be perfectly all right to look them up, I hesitate to do so as I feel it would not be proper for me to thrust myself upon perfect strangers.

May I please have your opinion?

A: You are right. Correctly, your friend should write to her relatives and tell them that you will be coming to their city at such and such a time and where you will be staying.

If it is convenient for them to do so, she would appreciate their getting in touch with you during your stay there. Then if they can, they will look you up when you arrive.

The Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Formal Wedding Procedure," includes helpful information on the wedding procession, the receiving line and other helpful information.

To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Pi Omicron Slates Breakfast in May

Mrs. Leon Skelly presented the program.

How to Keep Wife at Home Is This Husband's Problem

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I have been married for seven years and am still very much in love with my wife. About six months ago, she became close friends with another married woman who has two small children. (We have none.) This friendship developed into an every-day thing, and then several nights a week.

Finally the two of them started taking week-end trips out of town to visit relatives. Due to my constant objections, my wife left me. The other woman is still living with her husband who baby-sits for her while she and my wife go off somewhere together. What course do you advise me to follow in trying to get my wife back home?

PUZZLED
DEAR PUZZLED: Your problem is not getting your wife back home. It's getting her to stay there. First, see a lawyer. Then talk to your wife and find out where you stand. Apparently she prefers the companionship of her friend, in which case even if you could persuade her to come home, it would be like bunking with your brother.

DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day and have yet to see a problem like mine. I get up at 5 a.m., fix my husband a good breakfast with homemade biscuits and sausages and eggs. I do the washing and ironing and clean up the house spic and span. I look after a vegetable garden, feed the livestock, bring in the firewood. And when my husband comes in from work, I bathe him and shave him. But he chases other women. What for?

EAST OF OMAHA
DEAR EAST: It's not to fix him breakfast, do his washing, ironing or housecleaning. And it isn't to look after the vegetable garden, feed the livestock or bring in the firewood. And it's not to bathe him and shave him, either. What's left?

DEAR ABBY: "Nervous and Afraid's" letter brought back memories of those terrible days when I, too, was nervous and afraid.

Nervous about every new situation and afraid to face people I had doubts about my sanity, but wouldn't admit that I needed psychiatric help because I thought I might bring "shame" on my family.

Finally I had to be committed to a psychiatric hospital. It was only for a short time, but during my stay there every shameful act, every reason for guilt feelings that haunted me was brought out into the open and I was cleansed and reborn again. This I did with the help of a psychiatrist. Later I received help from a clergyman (a rabbi) and a social worker.

Let no one try to tell one who suffers from deep depressions that "it is all in her head." It is very real. There is nothing imaginary about a mental illness. Denying it only prolongs the agony and delays the cure which comes from psychiatric treatment.

So tell "Nervous and Afraid" that she must get help. She owes it to herself, her husband and her children.

Sincerely,
"BEEN THERE"

Announcement is made of the engagement of Elizabeth Winborn to Daniel Franklin Travis II of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Travis of Alton, Ill. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Edwin H. Olson of Priscilla Lane, Avon Township and the late James H. Winborn. She attends Oakland University and her fiancé is a graduate of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo. An Oct. 8 wedding is planned.

Delta Zeta Meets on Thursday

Group II of the Oakland County Alumnae chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will meet at 8:00 p.m. Thursday.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Frederick Snipnick of Royal Oak. Dessert will be served by Mrs. Gordon Knapp, Southfield, and Mrs. Peter Carr, Royal Oak.

Jerry Pickle, Pleasant Ridge hairdresser, will show wigs and hair pieces and discuss their proper use. He will demonstrate a comb-out of a member's hair, set before the meeting.

Elections will follow the program. Members will work on table decorations for the Michigan Delta Zeta State Day, April 2 in Grand Rapids.

Opera Night's a Delight

Soprano Carolyn Grimes of Huntington Woods, a star of "Der Rosenkavalier" for Friday's public performance of Overture to Opera V at Pontiac Northern High School, joins local music devotees after the performance. From left are Mrs. James Houlett, East Iroquois Road, and

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Furlong, Hammond Lake. Many leading operatic voices from the greater Detroit area have singing roles in the production offering excerpts from some of the operas slated for the Metropolitan Opera's annual visit to Detroit in May.

Social Workers to Hear Dillick

Feature speaker for the Tuesday dinner meeting of the Oakland County chapter, National Association of Social Workers will be Dr. Sidney Dillick, dean of the school of social work, Wayne State University.

"Action Now on Social Work Manpower" will be Dr. Dillick's subject for the 6:30 p.m. gathering at Devon Gables.

The talk will be open to the public. Dr. Dillick's speech is one of the main events of the chapter's program in observance of March as Social Workers' Month.

SNIPS 'N' SNAILS

And puppy dog tails... that's what little boys are made of, so the old adage goes. Not true — says today's fashion picture. Our current composite of Snip's 'N' Snails and puppy dog tails is slightly reminiscent of the Dandy... and very pleasingly so!

With each season, boys-wear gets less shy and injects more and more fashion into what was once an ultra-conservative area. For example, this spring it's not only the navy blazer, but the burgundy blazer; it's plaid slacks; it's bell-bottom jeans; it's crazy patches of Madras for jackets, shorts, shirts; it's paisleys getting bigger and bolder; it's competition stripes; it's surfers; it's luxurious velours; it's primitive tropic prints; it's fashion colors of heather blue, bottle green, whiskey, burgundy, gold; it's accents of flaming orange and molten yellow. It's the Continental look; the gentleman look, with fine tailoring and attention to detail.

At LION we find the Continental look, in neat blazer sport coats, all this seasons fashion colors, many in the new rage fabric — hopsack — priced from $12.95. Also at LION the 12th month, 12 way suit in sizes 2-4 and 3-7, at the unbelievable price of $12.95. I wear it is positively beautiful! For Easter — don't be a snail — hop right down and get one.

At PENNEY'S we again find the latest in styles and colors. Penney's are going strong on their Penn-Prest fabrics in little boys' wear casual and dress slacks, in the Continental and belted model; from $2.98.

Where in the Center may the above array be found? PENNEY'S, LION, CAPITOL, YOUNGLAND and MONARCH all carry a goodly selection — most in permanent press fabrics... which makes a happier Mom and a neater boy!

What's the younger generation coming to? Fashion with frugality! Next Week — Sportswear

BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR — Ground will be broken for the completion of the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church, 5631 N. Adams, Bloomfield Township, at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow. The ground breaking will take place at the close of each service. James B. Morison is the architect. The general contract was awarded to Ray Misch & Son, Inc., Birmingham. Rev. Donald G. Zill and Rev. Stuart W. Gulavig are pastors of the congregation.

Beautiful Savior Lutheran to Build

The congregation will join in the processional behind the clergy and choir when leaving the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church for the ground-breaking ceremony of the new building tomorrow.

Ceremonies will take place immediately following the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services at the present site, 5631 N. Adams, Bloomfield Township.

OUTDOOR ALTAR

An altar has been erected on a tree stump in the center of the site as the focal point for the outdoor services.

All three choirs under the direction of Martin Johnson will participate.

The $200,000 project will include the main sanctuary, a large fireside lounge which will also house the church library, a large youth room and 15 additional Sunday School classrooms.

Also included will be a new and expanded nursery, two new church offices and an open bell tower.

Parking facilities will be more than doubled. This is the third building project in the congregation's nine-year history.

Plans for the building program were directed by the building committee under the chairmanship of Robert Keller.

Present facilities, which will connect with the new building, will continue in use as planned.

The present sanctuary will be used as a chapel, and the temporary balcony will be used to double the size of Fellowship Hall with a seating capacity of 200 at tables.

A kitchen was constructed and completely equipped in the last building addition.

COURTYARD IN CENTER

A formal enclosed courtyard, terraced and landscaped, will be situated in the center of the new building complex. This will be accessible from the fireside lounge and the chapel for outdoor receptions or meetings.

Furnishings will include stained glass windows, a pipe organ, and black marble in the chancel as well as the usual classroom fittings.

Financing for the furnishings in the Sunday School rooms is being handled by the Sunday School.

Area Church News

EMMANUEL

Emmanuel Baptist Church, 446 E. Telegraph will be the scene of a youth rally Wednesday through March 20 with meetings at 7:30 each night.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard Sandlin of Middleton, Ohio, will conduct the services. Mrs. Sandlin will sing sacred selections and her husband will preach.

A gospel quartet from Detroit will be featured Saturday evening.

Youth groups of other churches have been invited and all young people not attending a church are most welcome, Wed. Gladin, director of Emmanuel youth said.

LAKELAND U.P.

Rev. Ernest W. Dunn, pastor of Calvin East United Presbyterian Church, Detroit, will be visiting speaker at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Lakeland United Presbyterian Church, Waterford Township.

Mrs. John Reagan of Holly will be soloist.

"Thy Kingdom Come" will be the Rev. Roy Lambert's sermon theme at the 10:30 a.m. service. Leading responsive reading will be Harold Buchanan. The Senior Choir will sing "O Master of the Waking World."

The youth orchestra will rehearse at 5 p.m. and the Youth Fellowship group will get together at 6:30 p.m. for devotions and discussion.

FIRST METHODIST

"Olivet — the Place of the Great Commission" will be Pastor Clyde Smith's sermon theme tomorrow at First Methodist Church. The Children's Choirs will sing during the second service.

At the Wednesday evening Lenten dinner and program Pastor Smith will show pictures of the Holy Land with the subject, "Walking Where Jesus Walked."

At noon Friday Senior Citizens will gather for a luncheon and program.

TRINITY BAPTIST

The Youth Choir of Messiah Baptist Church, Detroit, will present an evening of music in Trinity Baptist Church at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

The music is a part of the congregation observing the second anniversary of the Rev. Lee A. Gragg as pastor.

The 80-voice choir won the trophy as the most excellent choir at the National Baptist Convention Inc. at Cobo Hall, Detroit in 1964.

The group received many honors at home and abroad under the direction of John Reese. Rev. T. C. Simmones is pastor of the group. Pastor Gragg said the public is invited.

The Monsignor A.X.M. Sharpe Knights of Columbus Council No. 600 will honor Pontiac area priests at the annual Clergy Night in Council Hall, 295 S. Saginaw at 6 p.m. March 27.

Priests to be honored include clergymen of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church, St. Benedict, St. Joseph, St. Michael, all of Pontiac; St. Hugo of the Hills, Bloomfield Hills; and Lady of the Lakes and St. Perpetua churches, Waterford Township.

Also honored will be priests of Our Lady of Refuge, Orchard Lake; Sacred Heart, Avon Township; St. Joseph, Lake Orion; Columbiere College, Independence Township; Benedictine Fathers, Addison Township; and the Catholic priest at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Toastmaster for the affair will be Dennis Duros who will introduce the Boysville Glee Club of Michigan.

Under the direction of Philip Armstrong, the 25 boys will present a concert as part of the program.

Guests speaker will be Harold Schachern, religious editor of the Detroit News. A graduate of St. Frederick High School, Mr. Schachern has returned from an assignment to the Ecumenical Council in Rome.

A buffet lunch will be served. Leonard Biallas, chairman of the event, will be assisted in ticket sales by Dr. Rudolph L. Jannik, Paul Valentino, John Sevegnay, William Ledger, Anthony Lauinger and Rose Griffin.

Tickets may also be purchased at the club rooms.

TICKETS FOR CLERGY NIGHT—Checking tickets for men of Catholic parishes to sell for annual Clergy Night March 27 are (from left) Paul Valentino, 9635 Gibbs, Clarkston; Donald J. Farrell, 216 E. Rundell; and Dr. Rudolph L. Jannik, 1961 Long Pointe. The Monsignor A.X.M. Sharpe, Knights of Columbus Council No. 600, is sponsoring the affair to be held at 6 p.m. in the Council Hall, 295 S. Saginaw.

ST. JAMES SCOUTS — Headed for St. James Missionary Baptist Church, 345 Bagley to check on final arrangements for some 300 Girl Scouts to sit together in worship service tomorrow morning are (from left) Jean Hamler, 593 California; Tanya Shaw, 196 O'Riley; and Cheryl Woodmore, 201 Bonedale. Girl Scouts of Bagley Neighborhood will celebrate the final Sunday of Girl Scout Week by attending church services as a group.

Girl Scouts to Sit Together in Church

Girl Scouts of Bagley Neighborhood will attend church services at St. James Missionary Baptist Church, 345 Bagley at the morning service tomorrow.

There are 309 Girl Scouts belonging to the Bagley group.

During services tomorrow the Brownie Scouts will say their promise "to love God." The older Scouts will promise "to do their duty to God" — both stressing the spiritual phase of Girl Scouting.

Following the service members of the church will serve refreshments to the girls and their leaders.

Mrs. Hayward Gullatte is Bagley Neighborhood chairman.

PINE HILL

A special fellowship coffee hour will precede the worship service at Pine Hill Congregational Church, Middle Belt at Long Lake, West Bloomfield Township.

Rev. Harry Clark will continue his Lenten series tomorrow with the sermon, "Lord, Shall We Strike With the Sword?"

ST. PAUL

A series of adult seminars will begin Tuesday evening and continue four weeks. The general theme is "Trends in Contemporary Thought."

ST. JOHN

Methodist Men of St. John Methodist Church will sponsor a fellowship dinner at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The program will consist of a movie, and discussion of the book, "Sumbing Block," led by Raphael Hooks. Walter Clayton is president of the men's group.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Don Lonie, a speaker at school assemblies and church groups across the United States, will speak at the Youth for Christ Rally in Pontiac Northern High School tonight.

Carl Grapentine of Walled Lake High School will play instrumental solos and the Youth for Christ Chorus will sing. Club time and singing will complete the program.

ALL SAINTS

Candidates for the City Commission have been invited to speak at the parish dinner Wednesday in All Saints Episcopal Church, Williams at Pike.

Each will be given an opportunity to state his position on several issues as well as answer questions from the floor.

The program is sponsored by the Christian social relations committee. Reservations should be made at the church office not later than Monday.

The movie, "Somebody Up There Likes Me," will be shown at the Friday evening Lenten program. A discussion will follow.

ST. PAUL

St. Paul Methodist Church will sponsor the first in a series of three services Monday evening. The dinner at 6 p.m. in Fellowship Hall will be followed by a worship service at 7 p.m. with the Rev. Clyde Smith, first Methodist Church, guest speaker.

Rev. Mr. Smith will show color slides of the Holy Land.

TRINITY METHODIST

Mrs. William Newhall and Mrs. Arthur Burleson are co-chairmen of the luncheon and musicale at noon Monday in Trinity Methodist Church, 6440 Maccady, Waterford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lindquist, soloists at All Saints Episcopal Church, will present musical numbers.

Temperance Speaker at Elmwood

Rev. Robert Hammond, executive director of Michigan Temperance Foundation, will be guest minister at the Elmwood Methodist Church, 3282 Grant, Avon Township, at 11:15 a.m. tomorrow.

A graduate of Yale University's School of Alcohol Studies, he holds a master's degree in speech from Michigan State University.

Presently Rev. Mr. Hammond serves as the Foundation's legislative agent and editor of magazine, "Capitol Report."

At 7 p.m. a film entitled "The Story" will be shown.

MARIMONT

Larry Gavette and Robert Crichton Jr. were chosen by Christian Service Brigade committee of Marimont Baptist Church to spend two weeks at "Northwoods."

The camp is located near Pickford, Upper Peninsula.

Gayla Grammer will play a bassoon solo in the morning service tomorrow and Brock Manning and Alan Somers will sing a duet in the evening worship.

Florine Mansfield, field representative for Pioneer Girls, will visit Marimont Baptist Church Tuesday evening.

MEMORIAL

The Visitation Committee will meet for a 1 p.m. dinner at the church tomorrow before leaving to call on members. They will return to the church for coffee. Mrs. Jacob Swartz will be responsible for the meal.

"The Foolishness of This World's Wisdom" will be the theme of Rev. Gerald Rapje's sermon tomorrow night.

The Auditorium Class will get together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fox for fellowship and the annual election of officers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crandall will be hosts to the Christian Fellowship Class Saturday evening.

District Youth Rally in Sessions Today

More than 100 young people are expected to attend the District Youth Rally of the Church of the Brethren at the local church, 46 N. Roselawn today and tomorrow.

The Board of Christian Work Shop for the district will gather at the New Haven Church of the Brethren in Middleton March 19.

Speaking during the pre-Easter Mission April 6-8 will be Dr. Lola Marion of Christian Temple, Rev. Carl Koerner of First Free Methodist Church and Rev. Robert Shelton of First Baptist.

At Central Church

Missionary Will Speak

Swedish missionary Bengt K. D. Simonsson, director of the ecumenical Africa Literature Center at Kitwe, Zambia, will speak at the 9 and 10:45 a.m. worship services tomorrow in Central Methodist Church.

Missionary and Mrs. Simonsson, supported by Central Church, have returned to the United States for a year's furlough.

Since 1958 Kitwe's Center has trained writers, journalists, and artists, and contributed toward lessening the gap in the need for Christian writers on the African Continent.

Mr. Simonsson began his missionary career as assistant manager of the Central Mission Press (Methodist) in Johannesburg, South Africa which supplies missions and churches with books and printed material.

After a two-year study in the United States under the Methodist Crusade Scholarship program, he returned to Africa and was appointed to the newly created Africa Literature Center.

An alumnus of the University of South Africa, Mr. Si-monsson holds an M.A. degree from Syracuse University.

BENGT SIMONSSON

He is currently working on a Ph.D. degree at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University.

Mrs. Simonsson received her education in Gothenburg, Sweden and Syracuse University. During her term in Africa she worked with women's groups in training Zambian girls. She also established a marriage counseling service in Zambia.

LIGHTS LAMP — Thomas Thomson of 414 Third lights the new sanctuary lamp at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Joslyn at Third. The lamp, installed in memory of Thomas' mother, Mrs. Audrey Thomson, is a reminder that Jesus Christ is the Light of the world.

Women's Groups Give $47,000 in Pennies
SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI)—Assemblies of God Women's Missionary Council groups throughout the United States contributed more than $47,000 in pennies to 1964 missionary projects, according to headquarters office compilations.
Regional offices used coin collections to raise funds for home and foreign missionary activities. The penny collection was 25 per cent above 1963 coin-giving.

Perry Park Observes 40th Anniversary

The Perry Park Baptist Church, celebrating its 40th anniversary this week was started in 1926 by a group of young people from the First Baptist Church.
Permission to meet in one of the Emerson Elementary School portable buildings was granted by the Pontiac Board of Education.
The Sunday School opened March 14, 1926 with 46 children present.

For Overseas Aid

Big Pledges to Be Asked in Churches

Forecasts of famine in India and other parts of the world, and of other human disasters in the coming year, will require heavy commitments by U.S. church people for overseas aid, a spokesman for Church World Service said this week.

In announcing the goal for the annual One Great Hour of Sharing, to be observed this year on March 20, James MacCracken, executive director of CWS, said a total of $17,901,000 will be needed.

The funds realized through the appeal go to support individual denominational relief programs and joint aid projects conducted overseas by CWS, the World Council of Churches and related inter-denominational agencies.

Last year, said the announcement, CWS shipped 225,694,376 pounds of food, clothing and other materials to the needy overseas. The bulk of the foodstuffs came from U.S. government stocks.

Other foods, not available as surplus, came from the Chris-

...and length of service increased to 90 minutes to provide a preaching ministry.

FIRST BRANCH
When First Baptist Church instituted its branch church plan, Perry Park Church became the first branch unit. Rev. Mr. Pardee was called as the first pastor. He served part time.

Property was purchased on the southwest corner of Cameron and Baltimore.

At the close of World War II, the ground floor of the present building was erected and meetings shifted from Emerson School to the church.

An evening Sunday service was then added.

As the work grew the Rev. James Savage and Rev. Richard Fisher were called as part time pastors. Rev. Mr. Pardee was both active in the founding of the church and was youth directors of the church for the past 10 years.

The Pardees worked with First Baptist youth for many years prior to the Perry Park youth work.

Choirs to Sing at Pontiac Mall

Singers to Report for Practice Sunday
More than 100 singers will participate in the Easter cantata, "No Greater Love," to be presented April 8 and 9 at Pontiac Mall.

Director Jim DeGraw, music director at Summyvale Chapel, said anyone wishing to take part must attend the rehearsal at 3 p.m. tomorrow in First Baptist Church.

This will be the last chance for local singers to sign up, he said.

Delores Carr of First Baptist Church, Rochester, will be pianist and Robert Kiley of First Baptist, Pontiac, the organist.

John Whaley of Christian Missionary & Alliance Church will be narrator.

According to Rev. Robert Shelton, president of the Greater Pontiac Evangelical Ministers' Fellowship, displays portraying the Easter theme, will be on exhibit at the Mall concourse April 4 through 9.

The exhibits will include various settings of paintings, ceramics, stained glass, posters, Scriptures, films and Biblical scriptures.

According to Pastor Theodore R. Allabach of Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, the purpose of the display is to confront the general public with the fact of Jesus Christ, His Crucifixion, and His Resurrection.

Congolese Risk Lives for Religious Training
NEW YORK (UPI)—Terror in the Congo is turning many natives to religion, says the Catholic Digest. About 600,000 Congolese now are taking instructions in the Catholic faith, many under conditions "in which to ask for instruction is to risk one's life," the publication says.

There are 6 million Catholics in the Congo, about 32 per cent of the total population, according to the Digest.

Architects for the undertaking —Harold E. Wagoner and Associates of Philadelphia—have designed it as a contemporary-Gothic complex of limestone or white marble.

The church itself will have the proportions of a Celtic cross, with soaring lines developed by fluted arches at the front of the building and the sides of the cross's transepts. A free standing bell tower will rise 175 feet.

Completion of the work is expected to take about three years, although some buildings formerly used by the Hillcrest Children's Center will be renovated and put into use within a few months.

Choralaires to Perform at Service

The Owosso Pilgrim Choralaires will present a program of sacred music at the 11 a.m. worship service in Pilgrim Holiness Church tomorrow.

Members of the choir, all students at Owosso College, tour many cities in the Middle West during the fall and spring seasons giving sacred music concerts.

The four-year liberal arts college provides educational opportunities from the viewpoint of the Christian philosophy.

The choir, composed of 34 young people, ministers through music to people in all walks of life.

The program tomorrow will include choral masterworks, Negro spirituals, anthems and gospel songs.

Their pledge to Christian character through sacred music is found in the motto, "Only Our Best Is Worthy of God's Benediction."

Spirituals at Antioch
Pontiac Spirituals will present a talent program at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow at Antioch Baptist Church. The public is invited.

Distribution of Bible
Aim of Society Drive
NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Bible Society is engaged in a campaign to raise $6 million for increased worldwide Scripture distribution.

The campaign, undertaken in connection with the Society's 150th anniversary year in 1966, will provide funds for new printing presses, adequate stocks of Scriptures, new translations, production of more attractive and easier-to-read Scriptures and programs to encourage Bible reading.

The son of a minister, the guest speaker was graduated from Wayne State University. While studying at Wayne he was a winner in the Michigan Peace Oratorical Contest. Later he won the Wayne State University oratorical contest.

Evangelist Walker maintains a Christian Conference for teenagers. He is conference director of Hiawatha Youth Camp, located at Platt Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

The public is invited to all services at Sunnyvale to hear the evangelist.

Retarded Children's Aid Group Asks School Program Extension
Members of the Oakland County Association for Retarded Children have asked the Oakland Schools Board of Education to provide programs for type B (trainable) mentally handicapped students after they reach age 14.
Presently, children enrolled in 10 type B classes offered in eight Oakland County school districts are phased out when they become 14 years old.
Most sheltered workshops don't accept these children until they become 16, according to Oakland Schools officials.
It was pointed out to the group that the 20 type B children who become 14 this year will be allowed to remain in the program.
However, no state aid is available to educate type B students 14 and older.
Led by Mrs. Theodore Ostrowski, 3006 Gittins, Commerce Township, the association for retarded children stressed the urgency of making provisions for all type B children.
Mrs. Ostrowski said that according to a State Department of Education estimate there are 500 type B youths 15-19 years old living in the county.
In comparison, she noted, only 151 are receiving school training.
Oakland Schools Supt. Dr. William J. Emerson observed that six new classrooms have been authorized for type B programs in Farmington, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Walled Lake, Clarkston and Waterford Township.
Type B programs are currently offered in Berkley, Birmingham, Farmington, Oak Park, Pontiac, Royal Oak, Walled Lake and Troy.
Pontiac and Troy operate their programs in two classrooms; the others, one.

Lew Ayres Enjoys TV Roles
By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — "Television has given a lot of us actors a chance to display a dramatic range," observed Lew Ayres. "It's like the old repertory theater. I'm very grateful to it."
Ayres was once more displaying his range by portraying a Southern millionaire who is the victim of a kidnapping in the Warner Bros. series, "The FBI."
"It's unlike anything I've ever done, before," said the actor. "He's pompous, indignant, self-made man who can't understand why the FBI doesn't solve his kidnapping as fast as he operates his enterprises."
"The role is another of the half-dozen well-etched portraits that Ayres creates annually for television, and he offered some insight on the business of being a guest star.
REMAINS ACTIVE
"It's wonderful for me, because I can remain active in my profession. I can do a variety of roles, and I am not stuck with the grind of doing a series," he said.
Of course, it's not always easy to find roles that are worthwhile in television. The strong roles are usually reserved for the stars of the series and very often the guest star is given the role of a weak man. It's no fun playing such parts and I pass them up. Fortunately, I don't have to take the picture."
His face is lined and his hair is grayed at the temples, but Lew Ayres at 57 retains his zest for acting. The record books list his film debut in "The Kiss," circa 1921, but this first impression on the public came with "All Quiet on the Western Front" in 1930.
Thereafter he became one of the screen's most serviceable leading men, his career including a long tour of duty as Dr. Kildare.
PILAT FILM
He almost replayed the role in the television series. He even made a pilot film with himself.
Add Social Worker at Oakland Schools
The Oakland Schools Board of Education has hired Mrs. Thelma Alwin of Ferndale as a social worker in its psychology clinic.
Mrs. Alwin, who has been employed as a social worker for the state, will start work at Oakland Schools April 1. The post pays an annual salary of $8,182.
The board also has authorized the administration to advertise for bids for an estimated $6,000 worth of printing equipment.

Ferndale Enters Quarter-Finals

Pontiac Central Falls by Regional Wayside, 52-46

Chiefs Display Poorest Floor Play of Season

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Charity begins at the free throw line in basketball, and as far as Pontiac Central is concerned that's where it started and ended last night.

The Chiefs, displaying their poorest shooting night and their worst floor-play of the season, took a 52-46 lacing from Ferndale in the regional finals on the Ferndale court.

It was a game the average basketball fan would call exciting but one which would have the basketball mind shaking his head negatively.

Neither team showed any poise, and the weird factor was that Ferndale accomplished its victory with only 14 field goals, none in the fourth quarter.

TOP EVANS

The Eagles' biggest accomplishment was stopping Jessie Evans from driving and scoring, and also by dominating Central's board thereby preventing the Chiefs from getting the offensive rebounds and subsequently that all-important second shot at the bucket.

Central doomed itself at the free throw line early. The Chiefs made eight out of 19, but when the chips were down with the chance to tie or go ahead, they missed the big first shot of the 1-1 situation four times in the first half and twice in the second half.

This was important factor because they had five more field goals, but Ferndale made 24 of 34 free throws, including all 12 free points in the fourth quarter.

Central lost the ball on floor violations 13 times in each half and Ferndale was found guilty of a total of 15.

PCH took a 3-0 lead on Jim McClelland's field goal and from thereon except for two ties, Ferndale played ahead. At halftime it was 30-26 for the Eagles.

Nothing improved in the second half. Ferndale hit a couple fast buckets, pushed the score to 40-33 after three periods and then to 42-33 to start the final stanza.

Ed Pruitt hit twice and Jim McClelland hit one and the score read 42-40.

At this point the Chiefs could do nothing, and nothing went right.

SLOW SCORING

The clock showed 3:00 to play and Ferndale had only two points in the quarter. Central brought the ball down six times, lost three times on floor violations, and took three shots, two of which went to Ferndale on rebounds and the other resulting in a charging foul on Alton Wilson.

At 1:50 it was still 42-40 when Charles Puckett made both free throws on Wilson's foul.

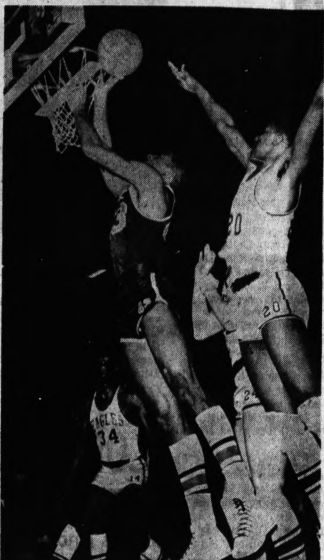

As the clock showed 1:00 to play, after three more frustrating shots for the Chiefs, Puckett dropped in three more free throws and the lead was 47-42.

Jim McClelland hit two quick buckets after a steal and with :38 left it was 49-44. Rick Bloodworth and Dave Jensen contributed free throws, and at 1:00 Evans made it 50-46. Dwight Dunlap added the last two baskets to complete the scoring.

Bloodworth, with 19 points, led all scorers as Dunlap helped with 13.

PCH shot only 31 per cent with 60 attempts and had 25 fouls. Ferndale equally as poor from the floor, Ferndale had 58 attempts for 24 per cent, with 16 fouls on the ledger. Rebounding it was 27-56 for PCH.

The Eagles thus qualified to meet Ferndale in the quarter-finals next Wednesday, probably at University of Detroit field.

UP AND IN—Willie Craft (43) lays up a bucket for Pontiac Central despite the outstretched arms of Ferndale's Charles Puckett. Underneath is Larry Ferris (34). The Chiefs never found the range last night and took a 52-46 lacing in the regional finale at Ferndale.

house. Fordon defeated U. of D. High 60-58, in the regional final at Livonia Franklin last night.

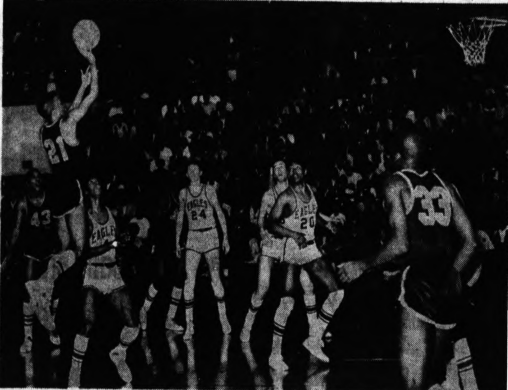

A seated crowd of 2,300 plus 300 more standing watched the PCH-Ferndale game, with an estimated 500 being turned away.

FIRE AWAY—Nine of the possible 10 players on the court from Pontiac Central and Ferndale were caught in this picture by Press photographer Phil Webb, and all eight pairs of eyes watch PCH guard Jim McClelland (21) take a jump shot. McClelland led Central's scoring with 14 points but the Chiefs took a 52-46 setback at Ferndale.

East Detroit Rolls On

Mt. Clemens 43-27 Victim of Shamrocks

In a near carbon copy performance of a regular-season game, East Detroit's Shamrocks turned back Mt. Clemens 43-27, to capture the regional championship and qualify for the quarter-finals of the state basketball tournament.

It was the third time this season the Shamrocks defeated the Mt. Clemens quintet, and the win was similar to the 36-22 verdict East Detroit posted back in January.

For East Detroit, the state's top-ranked Class A team, the win raised the team's record to 21-0 and earned them a shot at Detroit Mumford next Wednesday in the quarter-finals. The game site will be selected Monday.

Mumford advanced by pinning a 75-43 setback on city rival Northwestern. The winners moved the game up in the fourth as they poured in 21 points, all from the free throw line.

Senior Guard Paces OLSM Win

Krogulecki Hits for 39 Markers in 86-68 Victory

Victory Puts Eagles in Regional Finals Against Flint Five

By JERE CRAIG

Connie Krogulecki personally led Orchard Lake St. Mary past its first Grand Blanc regional hurdle, but the Eagles have a major obstacle looming directly in their way tonight.

OL St. Mary blasted Perry, 86-68, with a sizzling first half that saw the Eagles amass a 54-33 lead for the intermission as the 5-11 senior guard scored 33 points.

This was the first regional victory in six tries for the Rev. John Rakoczy, OLSM veteran coach, and puts the Eagles in tonight's 7:30 p.m. Class C regional final against powerful Flint Holy Redeemer.

The Flyers ripped Bath in last night's semifinal twin bill opener, 86-68, for their 18th victory in 23 starts.

Orchard Lake controlled its game with Perry after the first minutes of play thanks to Krogulecki. The Ramblers hit two baskets before St. Mary got its first shot.

Krogulecki then hit three straight baskets, freshman Tim Megge added a bucket, and Krogulecki sandwiched two more field goals around a free throw by Megge against one lone bucket by Perry for a 13-4 lead.

WIDENS GAP

With the difference still seven, 21-14, Krogulecki added three more baskets to give him 18 points in the period and OLSM a 27-14 advantage at the buzzer.

The Eagles built their lead throughout the second period and Krogulecki added 14 more points to his total, finishing the half with 12 of 22 from the floor after an 8-0 opening quarter.

The Eagles connected on 21 of 43 in the half to 31 of 61 for Perry.

Perry came out shooting better in the second half, after letting St. Mary's George Sawicki take a fine pass from John Stephen for the first two-pointers.

The Ramblers then cut the gap to 17 with three straight field goals. But Sawicki put in a missed shot and converted it into a three-point play on a foul by Daryl Goings, the fourth personal on the boys' rebounder.

This took some drive out of the Ramblers, though they did move within 14 later at 69-55. They made 9 of 17 from the floor in the third quarter — their best period of the game.

OL St. Mary, now 19-3, slowed down the action in the final session and maintained a 15- to 20-point advantage after getting the first two baskets.

The winners took only 14 shots and limited to Perry to 15 (both low marks for each team in the tilt).

Krogulecki — who repeatedly broke the Ramblers' ineffective full court press with his dribbling—added seven more points to his total (he was blanked in the third period while only taking two shots) to finish with a career high 39 points.

He hit 14 of 31 from the field and 11 of 12 from the foul stripe.

Both teams took 74 shots, the winners had only a 55-51 rebounding advantage and committed two more turnovers. The personal fouls balanced, each called for 17, but the Eagles had seven more chances at the line.

Holy Redeemer's Flyers feature a rugged full-court press and good rebounding.

Orchard Lake St. Mary (left) and Perry (right) battle for a rebound during the first half of OLSM's 86-68 Class C regional victory at Grand Blanc last night.

GAFFING AND GRABBING — While other players open-mouthed watching the struggle for the rebound, Orchard Lake St. Mary's Joe Wojtyla (dark jersey) and Perry's Daryl Goings vie for the loose ball which was picked off by the white-shirted Rambler. Watching the play Friday night are Bump Lardie (30), Jerry Polmonster (30) and Les Masters of Perry, and OLSM's George Sawicki and John Stephen (13).

Holly Bids for Title

Every step is a strange one weren't supposed to get this will be trying to contain the Rains' Pat Brown and trying to keep its own team out of foul trouble.

Holly knocked off previously undefeated Portland earlier in the district title, and the Broncos turned back a rugged West Bloomfield quintet last Tuesday to advance to the regional title game.

Holly, owner of a modest 13-8 mark, shocked highly-touted Fenton last weekend in winning the district title, and the Broncos turned back a rugged West Bloomfield quintet last Tuesday to advance to the regional title game.

OUT OF REACH—Basketball flies out of the reach of Tim Megge (left) of Orchard Lake St. Mary after teammate Joe Wojtyla (42) baited him during a rebound attempt. Though neither Jerry Polmonster (30) or Bump Lardie (20) can reach it, Perry did control the rebound in the corner. Action occurred during first half of OLSM's 86-68 Class C regional victory at Grand Blanc last night.

Christian '5' Moves Ahead

Special To The Press

GRAND RAPIDS — Michigan Christian Junior College of Rochester came from behind here last night to down Grace Bible College of Grand Rapids, 82-70, in the semifinals of the Michigan Christian Athletic Association basketball tournament.

In the second game, league champion Grand Rapids School of Bible Music (11-1) posted an 88-81 triumph over Grand Rapids Baptist Bible School. The winners met tonight at 8 o'clock.

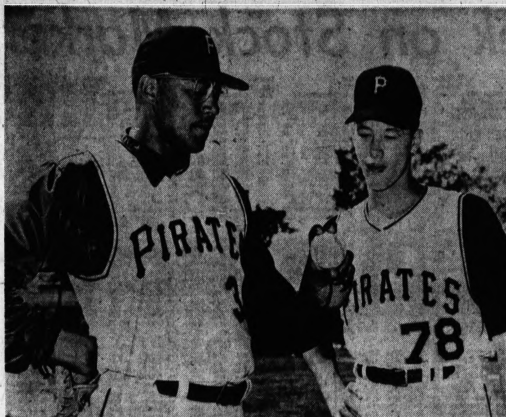

Trailing 37-35 at halftime, Michigan Christian poured in 47 points in the second half to take the decision.

Center Jim Martin paced the attack with 24 points, while co-captains Bud Pressley and Art Williams had 19 and 16, respectively.

Perry Erickson led the losers with 27 markers.

Sentiment Favors Ban — O'Brien

No Change Seen in Deer Fight

By DON VOGEL

Outdoor Editor, Pontiac Press
"I can't see this changing anything," said Sen. Carl W. O'Brien, D-Pontiac, last night when asked about the Conservation Commission's newest policy on antlerless deer hunting.

The policy is designed to allow local advisors to help set quotas on the shooting of deer and fawns.

"The sentiment in the Senate favors some kind of a moratorium," said O'Brien. "I don't think the district committees will be effective this year because of this."

The commission's new deer policy statement was handed to Dr. Ralph MacMullan, Conservation Department director, yesterday afternoon without a formal vote.

The policy provides that 25 citizens recommended by legislators, sportsmen's clubs and other organizations will be appointed for each of the 14 conservation districts by the commission.

These committees will review the deer management program and recommend to the commission deer hunting regulations in their districts.

Under the policy, the commission would set the regulations after hearing from the citizen's committees and the department experts.

PEACE MOVE

Commissioners said the policy statement was adopted in hopes that the legislature would drop its proposal for a two-year ban on all antlerless deer shooting.

The Senate Conservation Committee, headed by O'Brien, recently reported out an omnibus bill that included a two-year moratorium.

"The Conservation Committee's omnibus bill isn't the only one containing a moratorium," said O'Brien.

"Several of the Senate's leaders have bills calling for moratoriums of various lengths. And these senators have a lot of votes with them. Of course, any bill passed by the Senate will have to be approved in the House."

Rep. Joseph Snyder of St. Clair, chairman of the House Conservation Committee, is a strong supporter of Conservation Department deer management policies.

Indications, however, are that his own committee may approve a moratorium bill over his protest. This would move such a measure to the floor of the House where it appears enough votes are available for approval.

O'Brien feels that a one-year moratorium has the best chance of passing both houses.

"Our omnibus bill could be amended or there are several other one-year bills around that could be approved," he pointed out.

O'Brien said that his mail on the subject "hasn't slackened one bit."

I know that other legislators are getting the same volume as they did earlier in the winter."

The Conservation Commission's policy statement, which was formulated by Gas Scholle says the advisory committees will have the options of recommending:

1. Suspension of antlerless deer shooting in the district or curtailed quotas for the district.
2. Areas within the district which should be closed to antlerless deer hunting.
3. Or that the Conservation Department make its own determination of deer hunting regulations.

Pistons Zip Past Leaders for Triumph

The Detroit Pistons, displaying some late-season hustle, knocked off the Western Division champion Los Angeles Lakers 116-114 in a National Basketball Association game Friday night.

In the only other NBA game, Baltimore whipped New York 126-123.

The Pistons, leading most of the way at Los Angeles, lost a nine-point lead late in the fourth quarter, but fought back to win on the clutch shooting of Chico Vaughn and Ron Reed.

Vaughn led Detroit with 18 points, followed by Tom Van Arsdale with 17 and Reed with 14.

Venturi 'Up in Clouds' During Doral Golf Open

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — It's up in the clouds again for Ken Venturi, the hard-luck guy whose golfing life has been a series of valleys and plateaus.

"I feel great," the slender iron wizard from San Francisco said today as he fixed his sights on the $20,000 first prize in the $100,000 Doral Open.

"The weather is good, my hands are strong, I'm knocking the eye out of the flags with my iron shots again. I'm working up just right to the Masters," he said.

Venturi's enthusiasm was triggered by a brilliant 32 on the back nine of the 7,022-yard, par 72 Doral Country Club course Friday that gave him a second round 68 for a score of 143.

SIX BEHIND

With Jack Nicklaus, who rallied with a 66 after an opening 77, and a half dozen others, he was six shots off the lead held by Kermit Zarley of Yakima, Wash.

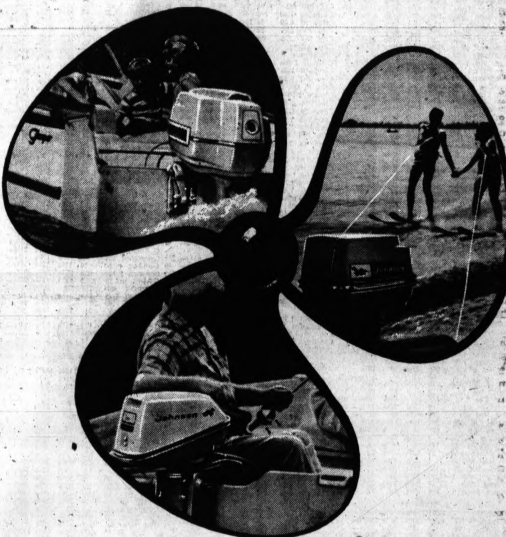

It was still anybody's tournament with 30 players within six shots or less of Zarley.

POLITICAL BROADSIDE — Gov. Philip H. Hoff of Vermont showed the GOP-controlled legislature there's more than one way to handle a member of the opposition as he spansks Rep. Kenale Collins, 44, who has opposed several of Gov. Hoff's bills. Mrs. Collins took the spanking in a jovial mood.

PREFLIGHT TRAINING — Gemini 8 astronauts Neil Armstrong (left) and David Scott are garbed in their space suits as they take a brief pause in their preflight training. They are scheduled to blast off from Cape Kennedy next Tuesday. Their dramatic mission includes a linkup with a rocket sent up earlier in the day and a stroll in space by Armstrong. (See story, Page A-3.)

POLICE HELD AT BAY — Mrs. Jo Lowther barricaded herself, her four children and a maid inside her Oklahoma City home last night and fired on police after attempts were made to impound the family's 1966 car and garden tractor. She finally was talked out of her 22-caliber pistol. One of her children, David, 13, is shown climbing through a bedroom window to reach safety.

Protests in S. Viet Mount Over Ouster

SAIGON (UPI)—Disgruntled students in central Viet Nam took control of government radio stations in three major cities today to broadcast demands for the reinstatement of Maj. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi. In the capital, powerful Buddhist leaders decided to back Thi and called the situation "critical."

The nation's military leaders, however, endorsed Thi's dismissal.

The official Viet Nam press said 22 of 34 general attending an emergency meeting of the armed forces congress supported the government's action. The other four cast blank ballots.

The spreading unrest was underscored in Da Nang by a peaceful demonstration of 2,000 persons, including soldiers.

The Buddhist hierarchy in South Viet Nam has been instrumental in bringing down three governments in the past.

U.S. REACTION
But sources close to the U.S. embassy in Saigon said American officials did not feel the ouster of Thi created a crisis.

The students took over radio stations in Hue, Hoi An and Da Nang without opposition. In all three cases they walked in, broadcast their demands and then walked out, returning the stations to normal operations.

Four Vietnamese rangers guarding the Da Nang station withdrew before the students arrived and sympathetic station personnel allowed the students to broadcast their protest and report the demonstration.

Then the radio returned to normal operations. Informal sources in Saigon said officials in the American embassy were watching the situation closely, but felt Thi's ouster by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky did not present a crisis.

The American officials felt a great deal will depend on how well Thi's replacement performs. Thi's successor, Gen. Nguyen Van Chuan, arrived in Da Nang yesterday to take over Thi's job as commander of the 1st Corps.

The strategic port city of Da Nang has been the scene of protests for two days.

Into Scandal Charges

OTTAWA (AP) — Liberal Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson has dared the Conservative opposition to try to throw him out of power over the alleged security scandal involving a German beauty queen and former Conservative Cabinet member.

Over angry roars from the opposition in Parliament, Pearson said Friday night he had ordered a secret, full-scale judicial inquiry into the case, which threatens to explode into a scandal as big as the Profumo affair that rocked Britain.

Pearson indicated that the inquiry will examine charges made last Thursday by his justice minister, Lucien Carlin, that Cabinet members under the Conservative regime of ex-Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker were linked with Gerda Munsinger.

Carlin said she was a former Communist spy.

Pearson read into the record charges by Carlin that Diefenbaker had mishandled the Munsinger case.

CALLED FOR ORDER
The speaker of the House of Commons had to call for order as Conservative members demanded that Carlin himself immediately back up these and other allegations rather than wait for the report of the inquiry.

"If you don't like it (the inquiry)," Pearson said, "you can vote no confidence in us Monday and throw us out."

A government spokesman said the Cabinet of Pearson's Liberal party regime probably would act Monday to approve his decision to hold the inquiry.

The tumultuous House of Commons session erupted into shouting and jeering when a minority party leader tried to read into the record a Toronto Star report allegedly naming names in the purported scandal.

Secret Formula 'Plot' Broken

FBI Says Industrial Data Offered Du Pont

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The FBI has broken what it says was a plot with international overtones, to sell industrial secrets worth millions to the Du Pont Co.

An FBI spokesman said the case was broken when E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. reported it had been offered secret formulas of competitors.

An unemployed truck driver and a chemical engineer were arrested by the FBI.

The FBI said yesterday that $42,500 was sought from the Wilmington chemical firm for data jointly owned by the B. F. Goodrich Corp., Akron, Ohio, and the Montecatini Corp., Milan, Italy.

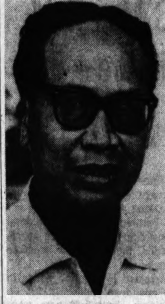

The formulas were said to involve a new process for synthetic rubber, but no details were disclosed.

Montecatini, a big chemical manufacturer, is regarded as a competitor of Du Pont in the world market.

One man was arrested in a motel near Wilmington, the other in Cleveland, Ohio.

Wilbur J. C. Pierce, 27, was held in Wilmington on a mail fraud charge.

Earl Bush, 29, was held in Cleveland under the same bond on charges of mail fraud and interstate transportation of stolen property.

Grandmother (36) Gives Birth to Twins

When her 18-year-old daughter gave birth to twins last year, Mrs. Ronald J. Frasure said it was the first time for twins in the family.

Thursday night, the 36-year-old grandmother changed that by giving birth to two boys at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

She described her husband, a Pontiac Motor Division employee, as "mighty happy."

The Frasures now have three boys and four girls, and face some revision of their three-bedroom home at 240 S. Lynn.

Daughter Mrs. James Deneen of 82 Murphy, who started the twin trend, is expecting again, but a single birth is anticipated.

Sukarno, Top Aide Reported Held in Palace

Singapore Informants See Little Chance of Comeback by Ex-Chief

SINGAPORE (AP)—Lt. Gen. Suharto, Indonesia's new strongman, dissolved and outlawed the Indonesian Communist party today in the name of President Sukarno, Jakarta radio announced.

At the same time, informants in Singapore reported that Sukarno and First Deputy Premier Subandrio, his pro-Peking chief lieutenant, were not being allowed to leave the presidential palace in Jakarta.

These sources added that the shape of developments in Jakarta indicated Suharto, the Indonesian army chief, was firmly in control and that Sukarno, now apparently only a figurehead, had little chance of staging a comeback.

Jakarta radio broadcast excerpts of a meeting of high government officials at Sukarno's palace where Sukarno said he had ordered Suharto to take control of the country and maintain peace and order.

Then Suharto spoke and said he had no intention of moving Indonesia's political outlook either to the right or extreme left. "It is already left," he said.

CHIEF TARGET
That broadcast said Subandrio — chief target of anti-Communist students — was present at the meeting and he was referred to as deputy premier.

But informants in Singapore, receiving independent reports from Indonesia, said Sukarno was out and was being held a virtual prisoner in the presidential palace.

"And Sukarno himself is not allowed to leave the palace at present," one informant said.

The sources expressed belief Subandrio and other pro-Communist members of Sukarno's Cabinet will go on trial before a military tribunal now conducting hearings on cases involving Indonesians accused of being involved in a Communist-led coup attempt in October.

2 RED LEADERS
Two Communist leaders already have been sentenced to death and, according to some reports, executed.

A broadcast following the palace meeting announced the order dissolving and outlawing Indonesia's massive Communist party.

outside the Communist bloc of nations.

The Singapore sources said they have not yet been able to clarify whether Sukarno was forced to let Suharto take power but they said present indications are that the 64-year-old president had yielded to pressure from the army.

FIRM BACKER

They said Suharto is a firm supporter of former Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Harsi Nasution, whom Sukarno dismissed last month.

Suharto's appointment indicated that he favors loyal to Nasution had decided to move against Sukarno and Sukarno in response to violent student demonstrations, the sources added.

The sources said Suharto had thrown thousands of heavily armed troops into Jakarta, the Indonesian capital, to prevent any resistance from pro-Communist supporters of Sukarno.

Jakarta radio announced today that the armed forces were staging a military exercise in the capital "as a show of force."

U.S. ENVOY

U.S. Ambassador Marshall Green, reached by telephone in Jakarta by the American Broadcasting Co., said Indonesia's political troubles were being handled in a "peaceful and favorable manner."

The ambassador said he expected the military authorities to move against the leftists and added that anti-Communist students and the army planned a parade in Jakarta as a "show of unity."

Anti-Communist students have staged almost daily demonstrations in Jakarta for the past two weeks. At one point, they surrounded Sukarno's palace and he had to be flown out by helicopter.

They also sacked the Foreign Ministry and Communist Chinese Embassy and news agency and occupied the Ministry of Education.

3 Men Held in Break-ins

City Police, Deputies Make Apprehensions

Three Pontiac area men face arraignment on charges of breaking and entering today after Pontiac police and Oakland County Sheriff's deputies apprehended them in two separate break-ins.

Arrested by Pontiac police in an apartment house at 235 N. Saginaw about 3:30 a.m. were George Giesey, 32, and Wayne Sauls, 20, both of 2443 Kleist Court, Keego Harbor.

A resident of the building, David Cronick, 28, told patrolmen that Giesey and Sauls had kicked in the door of his apartment and started a scuffle with Cronick and two other tenants.

Both suspects are held at the Oakland County Jail.

Rodger W. St. Onge, 18, of 1441 Parke, Avon Township, was apprehended by sheriff's deputies along with Rochester and Troy police at an Avon Township auto parts firm.

WITNESS CALLS

Deputies said a witness called police to report he had just seen someone break a front door glass at Avoncroft Auto Parts, 94 W. Auburn, and enter the building.

Inside the building, deputies said they found St. Onge hiding in a corner.

He is also held at the county jail.

TELLS OF ORDEAL — Spec. 5 Wayne H. Murray, a 23-year-old demolition sergeant from San Diego, told yesterday how he and other U.S. Special Forces soldiers joined with South Vietnamese and Montagnards and fought against Communist hordes at the Ashau Valley camp that fell this week. Murray was wounded in the leg and arm.

7 More Yanks Saved Near Overrun Camp

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Marine and Air Force soldiers scoured the jungles around the overrun Ashau American Special Forces camp today rescued seven more Americans and a group of Vietnamese defenders.

"It's better than we had hoped for," one American officer said in Da Nang when the rescue helicopters returned with the additional survivors, many of them wounded.

It brought the total number of Americans reaching safety to 12. Also rescued have been eight Air Force personnel shot down during the battle and 12 U.S. Marines downed during the fighting and rescue operations.

A total of 172 Vietnamese, Montagnard and Chinese Nung defenders also have been brought out, a spokesman said.

But such a camp normally has at least one Special Forces "A" team comprised of 13 American soldiers and about three companies of Vietnamese and Montagnard strikers employed and trained by the Special Forces.

It also is known that shortly before the North Vietnamese attacked Wednesday, the camp had been beefed up by an element of Chinese Nungs.

Meanwhile, a U.S. military spokesman announced that yet another American plane crashed during air operations in support of the camp.

The plane, a U.S. Marine A4 Skyhawk jet, disappeared Thursday while going through the overcast at 3,500 feet about 30 miles south of the camp.

SAIL MISSING

The pilot was listed as missing in action. The heavy overcast hindered air support throughout the Ashau battle.

An A1H skyraider, three Marine rescue helicopters and one AC-119G plane armed with Gatling guns—the famous "Puff the Magic Dragon"—also were lost during the battle.

The spokesman also announced today that a U.S. Air Force light observation plane on a flight from Qui Nhon disappeared on March 4. The pilot was listed as missing in action.

The post has been vacant since Mrs. Richard Lee resigned early last year.

SEWAGE LINE

A request from White Lake Township governmental officials regarding sewage line connections also will be considered at Monday night's meeting.

White Lake officials are asking for a statement of clearance for temporary connection to the proposed Clinton-Oakland Interceptor via the proposed Waterford Township sewer system.

White Lake officials are currently in the process of applying for a federal grant to plan for their proposed internal system.

Eventually, that system would be linked to the proposed Huron-Rouge Sewage Disposal System.

Mobs Throw Bombs in India Food Riots

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Mobs burned down railway stations and tossed homemade bombs in the Calcutta area during the night as food riots went into their third day.

The situation in Calcutta and surrounding West Bengal State was quieter than the previous two days of clashes between mobs and police units.

Veep's Speech Details Policy

Reds Could Up Force in South 50 Pct. in '66

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration will offer no bombproof havens to North Vietnamese Communists, who could boost their troop strength in the south by 50 per cent during 1966.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey outlined the "no sanctuaries" policy in a speech yesterday while other administration spokesmen made it clear supply routes would continue to be primary targets for air attacks.

Attacks on other targets — such as ports and airfields — would come only "to prevent the success of aggression" and then "only with such power as required" to stall a stepped-up Communist drive, Humphrey said.

"It ought to be clearly understood that 'sanctuaries' is a phrase and a chapter of history of the previous decade," Humphrey said. He referred to the limitations put on targets for attack in the Korean war.

Disclosure of the Communist capability of increasing troop strength 50 per cent above the estimated 235,000 now in South Vietnam came in a briefing for congressional staff members.

150 TONS

Officials said such an increase would require infiltration of up to 150 tons of supplies daily. They said this would be about the limit of Communist supply capability.

Last year, supplies were shipped into the south at the rate of 12 to 30 tons a day.

The officials said a 50 per cent Communist increase would require substantial U.S. reinforcements because South Vietnam is nearing the bottom of its manpower pool. No estimate was given of any future U.S. increases. American forces now committed number 235,000.

Humphrey said that on the basis of his nine-nation Asian tour, there was "rejection for measured encouragement" about the military situation in Vietnam.

Fishermen Warned of Ice Danger

The head of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department warned area fishermen of treacherous ice conditions on most lakes in the Pontiac area.

Donald K. Kratt cautioned anglers not to venture out on ice which has grown dangerously thin in "two straight days of high temperatures."

"We've got our divers and rescue equipment on a standby basis," Kratt said, "but I hope we don't have to use them."

Kratt said shore line ice on most lakes had melted completely in the last few days and that thin spots had been reported throughout most area lakes.

Driver Hospitalized in Avon Twp. Crash

Robert McCracken, 35, of Roseville is reported in satisfactory condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital after a two-car accident last night.

McCracken was injured when he car collided with a vehicle driven by Alfred L. Payne, 23, of 1880 June, Avon Township, near the intersection of Auburn and Adams in Avon Township.

Payne was treated for injuries at Pontiac General Hospital and released.

Board to Act on Library Plan

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The township board is expected to take action Monday night on a proposal that could clear the way for a million-dollar township library.

The proposal to acquire a site and to build and furnish the library was submitted to the board Feb. 28 by the township library board.

If approved, a proposition to levy 46-hundredths of a mill will be put to a vote of the people in a special election May 10, the date requested by the library board.

The tax levy, which would be decreased over a 20-year period as valuation of the township increases, would raise about $1,160,000, according to John D. Rumsey, president of the library board.

This would increase the average family's taxes from $6 to $7 per year.

100,000 VOLUMES

Known as Phase II of the township's library program, the project would ultimately provide a permanent township library with at least 100,000 volumes, according to Rose Vainstein, township librarian.

The library is presently located in temporary quarters on the lower level of the Devon Chateau Building, Long Lake and Telegraph.

It was opened in October 1964 with 14,000 volumes and now contains some 26,000. Operating expenses are provided by a 1-mill levy voted in April 1963 as Phase I of the program.

The library also has a cooperative arrangement with the Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham which permits township residents to use the city library facilities.

COST $42,000

Contract for this service, scheduled to be terminated next June, cost the township $42,000 for the current year. The cost was expected to go up to $50,000 for the coming year, Miss Vainstein said.

Numerous township residents in the Birmingham area who voiced objections to termination of the contract in a library board meeting Thursday night were told that it is still subject to review.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Dr. Robert T. Hatt, director of Cranbrook Institute of Science, has been named a consultant to the Bureau of Research of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Hatt will evaluate proposals in the fields of philosophy of education and the arts and humanities submitted to the U.S. Office of Education.

him, Sevigny said: "I met Mrs. Munisinger at a party during the month of August 1959. I saw her socially a few times during the next few months and our relationship was just that, a social one."

"NOT A RISK"

"I never had reason to believe she was an agent of any sort and to this day I am convinced that this woman was never directly or indirectly a security risk."

Sevigny described Cardin as "a cheap, despicable little man."

Diefenbaker, away on a fishing trip, fired off a statement saying that Cardin's remarks were "a cowardly and slanderous attack bearing the imprint of McCarthyism."

Sevigny, who resigned from the Diefenbaker administration in a 1963 dispute over nuclear policy, said in his statement:

"I shall expose to the nation in my name, and in the name of the millions who are equally outraged, our total and utter contempt for this cheap, despicable little man, Lucien Cardin, the supposed minister of justice who has dishonored his path of office, who has brought this odious, erroneous nonsense in front of the public for dirty, petty political reasons or yet, as he has implied, in order to secure political vengeance."

Latin Group to Air Poverty War Role

The role of the Latin American community in the county antipoverty program will be discussed at a 2 p.m. meeting tomorrow of Latin Americans for Political Action (LAUAPA).

Among the speakers at the meeting at the Fisher Body Lo-596 Hall will be Alvin Davis, director of the Pontiac office of the County Commission on Economic Opportunity (OEO). The meeting is open to the public.

Tax Official to Be in City on Thursdays

A Michigan Department of Revenue representative has scheduled a series of visits to the Pontiac district office at 10 S. Mill to assist taxpayers in preparation of intangible tax returns.

William Blackstone said he will be at the Pontiac office beginning Thursday and continuing each Thursday through April 28 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Blackstone may be seen by appointment by persons holding mortgages, land contracts, corporate stocks and other similar types of property subject to the tax.

The revenue department has set a deadline of April 30 for filing of forms.

Greyhound Orders 62 GMC Buses

Greyhound Corp. has ordered an additional 62 multilevel buses from GMC Truck & Coach Division, making a total of 162 of front-wheel-drive buses since the first of the year.

The 33-passenger buses feature a theater-concept in seating, providing increased roominess and greater visibility.

The locally built units have heat and air conditioning and are completely air-conditioned.

Crash Is Fatal to Area Man

A Farmington Township man died early today at William Beaumont Hospital, some three hours after the collision of his car with a wrecked towing automobile.

Dead is Robert H. Markham, 30, of 23216 Canfield.

A Farmington Township police said Markham's car collided with the truck and the other auto on Ten Mile about 500 feet west of Middlebelt just before 1 a.m.

Police said the accident took place just as the truck pulled the other car away from the shoulder of the road.

5 Kids Go All Out for Operation

Ten-month-old Robyn Risinger spent a relaxing day yesterday without her five older brothers and sisters.

All five — Val, 14; Shawn, 12; Kent, 10; Jeffrey, 8; and Rome, 7 — had their tonsils taken out at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

"I was worn out," said Mrs. Eugene Risinger of 2542 Candlewick, Orion Township, mother of the six.

"Some were on one floor and some were on another — I was on the run keeping up with the ones who were crying."

The five are reported good well.

SINGS SUNDAY — Rehearsing for the vocal recital at 7 p.m. tomorrow in New Bethel Baptist Church is Mrs. Arthur L.

Jackson (right) of 89 Court. Accompanist Mrs. Ervin F. Lane of 310 S. Jessie looks over the selections for the program.

Choralaires to Perform at Service

The Owosso Pilgrim Choralaires will present a program of sacred music at the 11 a.m. worship service in Pilgrim Holiness Church tomorrow.

Members of the choir, all students at Owosso College, know many cities in the Middle West during the fall and spring seasons giving sacred music concerts.

The four-year liberal arts college provides educational opportunities from the viewpoint of the Christian philosophy.

The choir, composed of 24 young people, ministers through music to people in all walks of life.

The program tomorrow will include choral masterworks, Negro spirituals, anthems and gospel songs.

Their pledge to Christian character through sacred music is found in the motto, "Only Our Best Is Worthy of God's Benediction."

Spirituals at Antioch
Pontiac Spirituals will present a talent program at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow at Antioch Baptist Church. The public is invited.

Vocal Recital Tomorrow

Mrs. A. L. Jackson
in Sacred Concert

The Nurses Unit of New Bethel Baptist Church will present Mrs. Arthur L. Jackson in a vocal recital at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Accompanists will be Mrs. Ervin F. Lane and Albert Rhodes.

Mrs. Jackson will present Negro Spirituals and secular numbers including "Bless This House" by Helen Taylor, "Inflammatus" by Rossini, "Any How" by Carl Fisher and "Break Bread Together."

Other numbers will be "Deep River" by Boatner, "Without a Song" and "Twelve Gates to the City."

For four years Mrs. Jackson studied voice under Dr. A. M. Lovelace and Mrs. Ollie Howard at A.M. & N. College in Pine Bluff, Ark., where she received her B.S. and M.S. degrees.

Currently she is employed by Oakland County as a domestic relation investigator for the Friend of the Court. She plans to resume work for a P.H.D. degree in guidance and clinical psychology at Wayne State University.

Mrs. Jackson's husband is the assistant pastor of New Bethel Church.

At 11 a.m. tomorrow Rev. Amos G. Johnson will speak on "The Sacrifice for Others."

Evangelist Walker at Sunnysvale

Evangelist Billy Walker of Southgate will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service tomorrow in Sunnysvale Chapel. He will also be heard at the 6 p.m. youth meeting, and at 7 p.m. worship.

Though only 28 years of age, Evangelist Walker has conducted many crusades in the State of Michigan and several Pontiac churches.

The son of a minister, the guest speaker was graduated from Wayne State University. While studying at Wayne he was a winner in the Michigan Peace Oratorical Contest. Later he won the Wayne State University oratorical contest.

Evangelist Walker maintains a Christian Conference for teenagers. He is conference director of Hiawatha Youth Camp, located at Platt Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

The public is invited to all services at Sunnysvale to hear the evangelist.

Pastor Lists Services
Worship at the True Church House of Prayer to All Nations will be at noon and 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. Sunday School is at 10 a.m. and Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. Herman Davis is pastor.

"The Task of the Servant Church" will be the theme of Rev. Richard J. Reynolds at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services tomorrow.

The Victor Browns and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis will be hosts for the coffee hour following the later service.

Texas young people will meet at 6 p.m. and the Pioneers at 7 p.m. in the chapel.

At 1 p.m. Monday the Pontiac Council of United Church Women will meet in the church parlor.

Distribution of Bible
Aim of Society Drive

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Bible Society is engaged in a campaign to raise $5 million for increased worldwide Scripture distribution.

The campaign, undertaken in connection with the Society's 150th anniversary year in 1966, will provide funds for new printing presses, adequate stocks of Scriptures, new translations, production of more attractive and easier-to-read Scriptures and programs to encourage Bible reading.
