Charles E. Wilson Dies in His Sleep

Cheerful News: Fair, Warmer, Going Up to 66

Wednesday will be fair and warmer, the high reaching for 66, the weatherman says. Fair and cooler, the low about 46 is tonight's forecast.

Partly cloudy with little temperature change is the prediction for Thursday. Northwesterly winds at 10-20 miles per hour will become variable tonight and southwest at 10 to 15 m.p.h. tomorrow.

From 10:15 yesterday morning until the same hour today rainfall measured .6 of an inch in the downtown area.

Fifty was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 65 at 2 p.m.

Allies Applaud JFK's Speech

Red Reaction Hostile; U.S. Awaiting Returns From Neutral Nations

By The Associated Press

President Kennedy's speech to the United Nations drew warm praise today from America's friends and Allies.

First Communist reaction was hostile.

Returns were awaited from the nonaligned nations, who were cast in a vital role by Kennedy. He appealed to them to help save the United Nations by working for a strong secretary general and to participate in disarmament.

The first significant neutralist comment came from Prince Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of Cambodia.

He visited Kennedy at his New York hotel and told newsmen that Cambodia adopts the same position toward disarmament as Kennedy in his speech. "With control," he stressed.

Moscow radio and the Soviet news agency Tass reported without comment that the President had addressed the General Assembly and "dwelt on the activity of the United Nations, the question of disarmament, the so-called Berlin crisis, and the question of colonialism."

The East German news agency ADN reported at length on the portions dealing with Germany and Berlin, accusing Kennedy of deliberately distorting the Soviet position. The agency said "he spoke of U.S. willingness to negotiate without submitting any concrete proposals."

Chinese Communist reaction appeared in the Ta Kung Pao of Hong Kong, a Red newspaper which follows Peiping's line. It accused Kennedy of mouthing "empty propaganda phrases."

"He talks about peace, but it is he who prepares for war all over the world. All you have to do is compare Kennedy's words with his deeds to see that he is nothing but a hypocrite," the Red paper said.

Ford and UAW Both Confident of Settlement

Bargaining Is Resumed After Reuther Rejects Offer as Not Enough

DETROIT (UPI) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther said today he believed it is possible to reach agreement on a national economic package with Ford Motor Co. by Thursday, well before an unofficial deadline 13 days away.

Reuther, as he entered negotiations this morning, said, "We're working at this thing and it's possible (by Thursday) but I'm not certain it will happen."

The UAW, which turned its attention to Ford Monday after settling a strike against General Motors, served notice it wants more from Ford than it got from GM.

Ford Vice President Malcolm Denise offered the union a new economic package substantially the same as the UAW-GM contract. UAW President Walter P. Reuther promptly said it didn't go far enough.

"There are many things that are not satisfactory," Reuther said. "There are several (more) things Ford can do and we're going to insist that they do." But he refused to elaborate.

This apparently was in line with a news blackout proposed by Denise and accepted by Reuther. Denise said there would be only "restricted discussion" of the talks.

A similar blackout was imposed in UAW-American Motors bargaining but none was in effect between GM and the union.

GM, meanwhile, was not expected to regain normal production for several days.

Even though two weeks of plant-level strikes officially ended Monday, a handful of key plants did not return to work and several others were closed because of parts shortages.

News Flashes

QUONSET POINT, R.I. (UPI) —President Kennedy's Air Force plane blew out a tire on landing at the Quonset Point, R.I., Naval Air Station today but the landing was completed safely.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees agreed today on a compromise foreign aid bill providing nearly $4 billion. This clears the way for possible adjournment of Congress before midnight. The compromise is subject to a vote in the House and Senate. (Earlier story, page 2.)

BERLIN (AP) — Two California students were sentenced today by an East German court to two years in prison on charges of trying to smuggle an East Berlin girl student to West Berlin.

Ex-GM Chief Coronary Victim

NORWOOD, La. (AP)—Charles Erwin Wilson, secretary of defense in the Eisenhower administration and former president of General Motors, died in his plantation home near here early today. He was 71.

Tom McKenize, who manages the 4,000-acre plantation, said the coroner listed the time of death about 2:30 a.m., and attributed death to a coronary thrombosis.

Wilson died peacefully, apparently without any pain, McKenzie said. A butler was unable to wake Wilson and summoned help.

Wilson arrived Sept. 18 at the plantation where he raised beef and dairy cattle. He planned to leave for New York about Oct. 1 on business. Mrs. Wilson, McKenzie said, did not come to Louisiana and was still in Michigan.

Wilson's son, Edward, accompanied him here, but left for Michigan a few days ago.

Wilson complained of a slight case of indigestion Monday night, McKenzie said, and retired early. He rode around the plantation Monday in a station wagon.

The body was taken to Clinton, La. No funeral arrangements had been made.

A large man with a quick tongue and an even quicker smile, Wilson, many times a millionaire, often reduced his aim in life to four words — "Get along with people."

He was a genius at electrical engineering, graduating from Carnegie Tech at 19. But he made his name in the world as a manager of men.

Upon being named president of General Motors in January 1941, he told an interviewer: "I believed in education; I believed in work and production—to do something always fascinated me, and I always thought it worthwhile to get along with people. I lived at a very favorable time. I saw the country develop in an industrial and productive way."

RAN GM 11 YEARS

Wilson ran General Motors for 11 years. Under his leadership the giant automobile company was converted into the world's biggest producer of war materiel.

With the coming of peace, Wilson returned the company to full-scale auto production in record time.

The world at large, however, knew him best during his tenure in Washington where he was known fondly as "Engine Charley."

He moved into the political arena during the Korean War. And as he took the defense job he said: "I can't promise how I'll do but I'll give it a damned good whirl."

And as a businessman in Washington he found it a constant whirl.

With his retirement the whirl ceased. He lived quietly in suburban Bloomfield Hills and

Says May Call Special Session

Swainson Asks Support for Getting U.S. Aid to Dependent Children

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson says he is going to seek support for calling of a second special session of the legislature to consider bringing Michigan under federal aid to dependent children of the unemployed.

The proposal was defeated in one special session called on June 15.

"I'm looking for encouragement to call the session," the governor said.

Swainson said he planned to sound out leaders of both political parties on their thinking on the chances for passage of the proposal the second time around.

Bringing Michigan under the Federal aid plan, he said, would mean about $10 million in aid from the government during the first six months of 1962. About $4 million would go to the state to make up funds that otherwise would have to come out of the welfare appropriation and about $6 million to the counties, the governor said.

Swainson said he has not yet made his mind on calling the session and has not set a deadline for the decision.

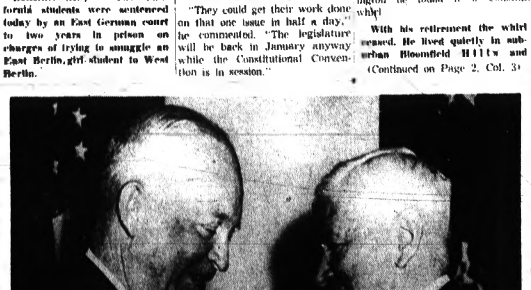

"If it is called, it probably will be in October or November," he said.

Swainson said he also had not decided whether to limit the session to the single issue, if it is called.

The governor said he did not think a special session would interfere with the Constitutional Convention.

"They could get their work done on that one issue in half a day," he commented. "The legislature will be back in January anyway while the Constitutional Convention is in session."

TRIBUTE FROM IKE — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, shown here with Charles E. Wilson in 1957, today hailed the former defense secretary as "one of my most valued and trusted advisers." In a statement to newsmen, Eisenhower said, "I am profoundly shocked to learn of the death of one of America's outstanding leaders and my good friend, Charles E. Wilson."

CHARLES E. WILSON

'Engine Charlie' Had Gift of Gab

Called Man of the People

DETROIT (AP)—In one sense, Charles Erwin Wilson had a gift of gab.

To some people it endeared him, to others the reverse was sometimes true.

Wilson, affectionately known as "Engine Charlie" in Washington during his service as secretary of defense, was an outspoken, sometimes blunt man.

Even when he got tough, however, he usually grinned.

Admirers like to call him a man of the people despite the wealth that became his as president of General Motors Corp.

Janitors at the big, glossy GM headquarters building in midtown Detroit liked him.

They said Wilson never passed them by without stopping to say "Hello" and pass the time of day.

On the verbal side, some of his noteworthy contributions were these:

The day in wartime he accepted the post of secretary of defense at his Detroit office, "I can't promise how I'll do but I'll give it a damned good whirl," he said, smiling.

Stories varied at the time as to his actual quotation. He did say "damned good whirl." A moment after the phrase escaped him, however, he looked up at his newsmen interviewers and said: "Oh, maybe you'd better strike that." Some struck it, some didn't.

Another Wilson remark that rang bells—mostly in dissonance—was in reference to "hound dogs" in commenting on unemployment.

Wilson, discussing unemployment, said he sympathized with men who had lost their jobs.

He added, off the cuff, that "hound dogs" were to be respected over other kennel dogs because in a pinch they'd fetch for themselves.

That was the sense of Wilson's observation. It sat badly in some quarters. He was much criticized. Later he apologized, stating he meant no offense to anyone.

Another Wilsonian that got the then secretary of defense into hot water was his crack about General Motors and the United States.

It went in part "What's good for General Motors is good for the United States."

Wilson always insisted that it was taken out of context.

What he actually said was "What's good for the United States is good for General Motors and what's good for General Motors is good for the United States."

General Motors, then as now, was the world's biggest manufacturing firm.

Wilson also is remembered for his testimony years ago before a National Labor Relations Board hearing in Detroit.

At the time the United Auto Workers Union and GM were in a contract battle.

The UAW has succeeded in having GM people, among them Wilson, hailed before the NLRB hearing.

Wilson, in a short observation, gave his point of view toward life and a man's job.

Speaking of his own career, which began at the bottom rung in industry, Wilson said "I never thought about how much money I was going to be paid. I just thought about how good a job I could do."

'Valued Adviser' — Eisenhower

Ike Shocked to Learn of Death of His Friend, Charles E. Wilson

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower described Charles E. Wilson today as "one of my most valued and trusted advisors" and said he was shocked to learn of the former secretary of defense's death.

In a statement to newsmen, Eisenhower said:

"I am profoundly shocked to learn of the death of one of America's outstanding leaders and my good friend, Charles E. Wilson.

"In his long business career, Mr. Wilson dedicated his unusual talents to the growth and progress of one of the large corporations that has helped to bring higher standards to every person in the country.

"As secretary of defense, he used his qualities of leadership to inspire, expand and streamline our military establishment. In that capacity he was one of my most valued and trusted advisors. I join all other Americans in a salute to the memory of this distinguished citizen."

Sicilian Reports Theft

PALERMO, Sicily (AP)—Paintings and other valuable art worth nearly $1 million were reported stolen today from the villa of a Sicilian nobleman.

Baron Bordonaro Ortoleva told police the thieves took only the best of his treasures — including works by Titian and Van Dyck.

Family Man Patriot . . . C. E. Wilson

A devoted family man who gave up a fortune in auto riches to help his country in time of stress is dead.

Charles Erwin Wilson died suddenly in his sleep today at his plantation home in Norwood, La.

That was really home to the white-haired former secretary of defense and General Motors Corp. president, although he also maintained a home on Island Lake in Bloomfield Township.

"Engine Charlie," as he was sometimes known, had taken a self-imposed back seat in public life since he resigned as defense secretary under former President Eisenhower on Oct. 30, 1957.

A heart attack suffered in 1953 while on a Florida vacation slowed him down even more.

Mr. Wilson was a man of many opinions mixed with many words. Foremost for a sincere love for his country, his wife Jessie of 39 years, his children and grandchildren.

Pontiac civic leaders will probably recall back in 1958 when Mr. Wilson addressed a gathering at Elks Temple and warned about the feverish efforts his country was making in trying to keep up with Russians.

He said then he was troubled that the American people feel that they have to "beat the Russians in everything."

GM officials in Pontiac were stunned by Wilson's death.

"All of us are deeply shocked to learn of Mr. Wilson's passing," said Thomas F. Wiethorn, plant manager, Fisher Body Pontiac Division.

"He was a great industrialist

Gov. Swainson Expresses His Regret, Sorrow

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson today issued a statement expressing regret at the death of Charles E. Wilson, former General Motors president and defense secretary. Said Swainson:

"Michigan lost one of its outstanding citizens in the death of Mr. Wilson. His dedication to public service as a Cabinet member and as a leader in many civic undertakings was a splendid example of citizen concern. His most recent undertaking, as chairman of the Michigan Advisory Committee on Civil Rights, produced a report of great value and significance to all our citizens."

U.N. Delegates See Gromyko Holding Fast

West and Neutrals Are Impressed by Kennedy Disarmament Ideas

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) The Big Four powers were reported to have agreed to meet privately late today and consider a stopgap replacement for the late U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. delegates saw little hope today that the Soviet Union will soften its position in replying to President Kennedy's call for new negotiations on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to hold fast to the Kremlin's over-all stand on these and other international issues when he makes his policy statement before the 99-nation General Assembly today.

Western diplomats and many neutrals were impressed by Kennedy's broad new disarmament proposals to freeze nuclear weapons production and stockpiles as soon as controls can be organized.

They also were impressed by Kennedy's overtures for a Berlin settlement coupled with his blunt warning that if the Soviet Union tries to take over the divided city, the United States stands ready to use nuclear weapons.

Kennedy's challenge to the Soviet Union to join in a race for peace leading to full disarmament made no visible imprint on the Communist bloc members who sat silently while the rest of the hall applauded.

NOT HOPEFUL

Gromyko's first reaction was noncommital. Talking with newsmen outside the Soviet U.N. mission on Park Avenue he was asked if he saw any hopeful signs in the speech.

"I would not go so far," he said. "I want to study it more thoroughly."

He repeated Moscow's announced intention to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, adding that some aspects of the speech "do not meet our objections regarding the possibility of negotiations on Germany."

Little hope was held for progress on the arms question at this stage in view of the discouraging report the Soviet Union and the United States made to the United

Law Sets Up Arms Agency

Measure Establishing Unit on Disarmament Signed by Kennedy

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy today signed into law a new agency which he called the symbol of the importance the United States places in disarming mankind of weapons of war.

Kennedy, in his New York hotel suite, wrote his name on legislation to establish an arms control and disarmament agency.

The President advocated such an agency to provide the tools for a disarmament program which the United States could place before the world as a solution to the threat of future devastating wars.

Kennedy announced that William C. Foster, former foreign aid administrator and assistant secretary of defense, would head the agency.

Foster, with Kennedy's top disarmament and nuclear test ban advisers, joined Secretary of State Dean Rusk and a group of House members to witness the signing ceremony.

Kennedy wrote the bill into law as Moscow radio reported that the Soviet Union had rejected the latest U.S. disarmament proposals as unsatisfactory. The United States made public its arms reduction program in the United Nations Monday.

CHEVY II STATION WAGON—Smooth flowing lines and subtle sculpturing distinguish the Chevy II series of passenger cars making their initial appearance at Chevrolet dealers Sept. 29. This three-seat station wagon is one of nine models in the new Chevy II line which offers either 4-cylinder or 6-cylinder engines with manually operated or Powerglide automatic transmission.

New Chevy II to Display Charms Friday

Chevrolet's passenger car line-up for 1962 features a new complete line of middle-size cars to be known as Chevy II, as well as extensive restyling and major mechanical changes for its standard models.

With the new line the company's 1962 passenger car line-up will total 32 models—highest in its history—available in the Corvair, Corvette, Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines.

These cars will be displayed in Chevrolet dealerships beginning Friday. Local dealer is Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., 631 Oakland Ave.

The new Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than Chevrolet's regular car. Station wagons, a hardtop sport coupe and a convertible are included among nine models in the new line which emphasizes simplicity in styling and maximum functionalism in design.

BASICALLY CONVENTIONAL

Although the Chevy II design is basically conventional, it offers new front-mounted four- and six-cylinder engines, integral frame and body construction with bolt-on front end and an industry exclusive in tapered plate rear springs. Both three-speed manual and automatic transmissions will be available.

From a styling standpoint the standard Chevrolet for 1962 reflects the greatest change, although Corvair models and the Corvette will also feature a number of appearance changes as well as new exterior colors and interiors.

The new standard Chevrolet features a crisp, tailored look. New models have completely new sheet metal, grille work, bumpers and ornamentation. New roof lines for sedans and the Impala sport coupe also highlight 1962 styling.

Among the mechanical changes and modifications to improve performance, durability and economy of 1962 models are a new 327-cubic-inch V8 engine, a new weight-saving Powerglide automatic transmission and tires with advanced two-ply design.

The new V8 engine is rated at 250 horsepower; its performance equals the 348-cubic-inch engine, but fuel economy and engine operating efficiency are both improved.

IMPALA SPORT COUPE—The new roof-line of the 1962 Chevrolet Impala sport coupe at first glance closely resembles the fabric top of the Impala convertible. Closer inspection reveals adroit styling of roof sheet metal which gives the sport coupe an exclusive and jaunty appearance. The Impala tops a line of 32 passenger car models, including the Corvair, Corvette and the new Chevy II series.

Foreign Aid Still Deadlocked

Debate Billion-Dollar Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The billion-dollar supplemental appropriation bill finally came up for Senate debate today, another short step in Congress' inching progress toward adjournment.

But the big stumbling block—foreign aid money—was still in deadlock. Senate-House conferees, who sat late Monday night without reaching agreement on conducting versions, had not even arranged a new meeting at the time the Senate got going today.

Another forward step was made when a conference committee completed and the House passed a compromise $3,908,880,980 public works appropriation bill. The agreed figure is much closer to the $3,940,926,880 originally voted by the Senate than to the $3,662,701,380 in the House version.

The money is for such purposes as rivers and harbors, flood control, reclamation and atomic energy projects.

The supplemental appropriation, carrying money for dozens of government agencies, is the last measure that has to clear the Senate and go through conference with the House before adjournment.

As soon as the Senate convened, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana laid aside the Du Pont tax bill to call the money bill up.

Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., who earlier blocked consideration of the supplemental bill, said he would not try to do so today.

Prouty said one of the reasons for his previous objections was his belief that the Du Pont bill should be passed this session.

The foreign aid conferees were reported about $60 million apart when they broke up Monday night. Originally the difference between Senate and House measures was more than $500 million.

Reject Charges W. German Flight Warlike Act

PARIS (AP)—The Western powers today rejected Soviet accusations that the Sept. 14 flight of two West German military planes over East Germany to Berlin was a provocation and a warlike act.

A French note delivered to Moscow said investigation showed that the two fighter planes lost their way and ran out of fuel.

Similar notes from the United States and Britain were delivered in Moscow today.

The French said that in recent weeks Soviet planes made "numerous incursions" over West German territory, but that these incidents had not been considered "provocations and no reprisal measures were announced."

Arson Attempt Foiled in City

Firemen Put Out Fire in Response to Quick Telephone Call

The fast work of an unknown citizen and the Pontiac Fire Department prevented an arson attempt from succeeding this morning.

Firemen extinguished a fire in the kitchen of a house at 136 Auburn Ave. Upon entering the house they found paper, rags, clothing and curtains sonked in fuel oil throughout the structure.

"Someone evidently set fire to some oil-soaked papers in the kitchen," said Fire Chief James R. White.

Fire Marshal Charles Metz asked the person who turned in the alarm to call the fire department.

"We have him to thank for preventing the fire from spreading through the entire house. Another five minutes and it would have gone up in smoke," he said.

The man ran into a Clark Gas Station at 167 Auburn Ave., shortly before 1 a.m. to call firemen and report the fire.

He forgot to identify himself. The house is owned by Floyd Simmons of 2029 Kingston Road, Waterford Township. No one was home at the time.

Firemen said there was only slight damage to the kitchen. Pontiac Police said it appeared the fire may have been set to cover up a burglary.

maintained a small office at his son's automobile showroom. Much of his time was spent at the Louisiana plantation at Norwood, near Baton Rouge, where he died.

In 1958 he suffered a mild heart attack.

Since returning to private life he had pursued a pet hobby of cattle breeding and had prize-winning dairy herds both in Michigan and in the South.

BORN IN OHIO

Wilson was born in Minerva, Ohio, July 18, 1890, and moved to Mineral City, Ohio, when he was 4. His father was principal of the Minerva school and his mother had been a teacher.

He said he decided as a child to be an engineer of some kind, a desire which grew out of living between two railroad engineers.

He was graduated from high school at 15. After Carnegie Tech he became an apprentice at Westinghouse where in 1912 he designed an automobile starter motor made by that company. During World War I he was in charge of design and development for Westinghouse radio generators for the Army and Navy.

Survivors include his widow, the former Jessie Ann Curtis whom he married in 1912; and six children, three sons and three daughters.

He was an episcopalian and a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Detroit Club, the Bloomfield Country Club and the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

Five of the Wilson children live in the Pontiac area. They are Thomas Erwin, Edward Everett, Charles Erwin Jr., Mrs. C. E. Matthews and Mrs. William B. Hargreaves. A third daughter, Mrs. J. Philip Hoyle lives in Delray Beach, Fla.

and a great American, a leader in every sense of the word."

"C. E. Wilson was one of the great men of our time," said S. E. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

"He gave unselfishly of his time and energy to the development of our country's resources and industry; to the protection of the ideals that have made our nation great; and to the defense of all peace loving people around the world."

'RUGGED MAN'

"He was a rugged man," said City Manager Walter K. Willman on hearing of Wilson's death. "I met him on several occasions and he was always very easy to talk to in spite of his high position.

"His loss is a sad blow to the Pontiac area. Wilson was forceful and capable in almost everything he did and had a splendid record of government service."

"It is always a matter of local pride when a resident of our area rises to such heights," said Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, Pontiac superintendent of schools.

"Likewise, the death of a man like C. E. Wilson is a great loss to our community and country. He certainly was a great man; a leader in industry and important figure in our government."

"Mr. Wilson was one of the truly great industrial statesmen of our time," said Calvin J. Werner, general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division.

"We all feel a deep personal loss in his passing."

"Seldom do we find a person of C. E. Wilson's stature and ability so selfless in his attitude toward his country and his fellow men," said William W. Donaldson, Pontiac postmaster and former mayor.

"He gave of himself far beyond the call of duty at all times. I consider it a great privilege to have known him."

Agree on $3 Million for Projects on River

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., says Senate-House conferees have agreed on a $3-million public works appropriation for construction projects along the Saginaw River in Michigan.

The conferees whittled $300,000 Monday off the $3.3 million recommended by the Senate, but the final figure still was $1.3 million higher than $1.7 million recommended by the House.

The Day in Birmingham

Appropriation Request for Consultant Rejected

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night turned down an appropriation request to hire a consultant for a job analysis and salary plan study.

While the appropriation of $9,000 for a consultant's fee was rejected, the commission, however, did not discard the recommendation of Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning that a study be made.

The commission directed Kenning to determine the feasibility of the city's staff in making the study rather than hiring an outside consultant.

In recommending the appropriation, the assistant city manager said:

"I believe that this program is necessary in order to minimize justifiable complaints from individuals in various jobs about the inequity of pay for their respective positions."

"The job descriptions can serve as useful tools in the hiring of new individuals for given positions and also in our training and promotion program."

The commission had authorized city manager L. R. Gare to obtain estimated cost of hiring a consultant last month.

In the original recommendation it was suggested that a portion of the study be done by the city in order to cut cost but in obtaining estimates it was learned that the savings would amount to about $1,500.

Kenning said that time spent by the staff would represent a cost approximately equal to the difference and recommended that the entire study be made by a consulting firm.

Seventy Birmingham teachers have enrolled in workshops offered this fall by the University of Michigan at Derby Junior High School.

The workshops is part of an in-service training program subsidized by the Birmingham Board of Education for teachers in an effort to increase and develop the quality of instruction in area schools.

Courses include instruction in methods for spoken language training; literature for children; practical criticism; geography for teachers; and governments of the Soviet Union and eastern Europe.

The university is offering both graduate and undergraduate credit to the teachers and students who complete the work successfully.

Daniel A. Nesbitt, deputy superintendent in charge of instruction, said that teachers and students from neighboring school districts are invited to participate in the workshops, on payment of the regular tuition fee charged by U. of M.

Late registrations will be accepted provided the classes are not filled.

Mrs. Fern Thatcher

Service for Mrs. Fern Thatcher, 70, of 238 Catalpa Drive, will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Cremation will follow at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

A Birmingham resident 36 years, coming from Indianapolis, Ind., she had been a city employe, retiring in 1956.

Surviving are a son Jack E. of Birmingham; two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Ashbaugh of Rochester and Mrs. M. E. Haywood of Miami; and a grandson.

Gromyko Expected to Hold Tough Line

Nations last week. The two powers disclosed complete failure to agree during three months of discussion on a way to resume full East-West negotiations.

The main sticking point has been Soviet insistence that the makeup of any new disarmament conference should be based on the troika principle—the same issue that has deadlocked selection of a successor to the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold.

The Soviets insist that participants at an arms conference be decided among three numerically equal groups of nations—Communist, Western and neutral. The United States has offered several alternative proposals.

Gromyko has turned in his own report to the United Nations on this summer's talks between Soviet arms expert Valerian A. Zorin and John J. McCloy, President Kennedy's special adviser on disarmament.

The report has not yet been made public, but the Soviet news agency Tass said it reasserts the Kremlin's stand that the Soviet Union would accept unconditionally any Western proposals for control measures if the West accepts Premier Khrushchev's program for complete and general disarmament.

IMPERIAL LEBARON—Ultimate in fine car luxury and beauty, the 1962 Imperial LeBaron four-door hardtop features a strikingly new rear-end styling treatment, highlighted by gun-sight taillights. The LeBaron also accents its distinctive limousine-styled rear window. Framed by a town car roof canopy, it gives privacy to rear seat passengers.

Styling, Engineering Changes Featured

1962 Imperial Goes on Display Thursday

The 1962 Imperial with new styling and significant engineering improvements will be displayed in the showroom of R&R Motors, Inc., 724 Oakland Ave., beginning Thursday.

Changes give emphasis to styling continuity, reliability and passenger comfort, according to C. E. Briggs, corporate vice president and general manager of the Chrysler - Plymouth Division, Chrysler Corp.

"The Imperial for 1962 will retain its traditional 129-inch wheelbase so important to full-size luxury and comfort in motoring," Briggs said. "Imperial will remain a prestige automobile, offering luxury and performance without compromise."

Improvements include more passenger room in the front compartment, a new, more compact and more rugged automatic transmission, new power brakes, sealed front-end lubrication, and a variety of rich and colorful interior fabrics and color schemes.

The Imperial power plant is a 413-cubic-inch, 340-horsepower V-8 engine.

Imperial's classic freestanding head lamps introduced last year accent the car's front area.

New nacelle-type free-standing taillights mounted on each rear fender give styling continuity in the tradition of past gunsight-styling Imperial tail lamps.

Six models are offered for the coming year; two-door Southampton hardtops in the Custom and Crown lines; four-door hardtops in the Custom, Crown, and LeBaron lines, and a convertible in the Crown Line.

ARTIST, TEACHER, SALESMAN—One of the county's most versatile residents is 33-year-old Harry Bandy, Waterford Township. After work, he paints, designs leather and ceramic objects and teaches night classes at a Detroit university.

Salesman, Artist, Teacher

Sees Work as Labor of Love

When Harry Bandy gets home after a hard day's labor, he goes right to work.

But the Waterford Township salesman's after-hours job is far more than just another job. It's a labor of love.

Bandy, a leather goods supplier to hospitals and hobby shops, is a versatile young artist of all trades: Leather tooling, painting, photography, ceramics designing, copper enameling. And in his "spare time" he teaches night-school classes at Wayne State University.

A former arts and crafts teacher at Pierce Junior High School, Bandy joined the Tandy Suppliers firm "to get outside more."

But when he gets back home to 619 Cass Lake Road, Bandy can point to numerous objects he has made for himself and his wife; like the brilliantly colored ceramic dishes and ashtrays, exquisitely hand-tooled leather items and vivid, realistic oil landscapes. In the bedrooms are hand-blocked linen draperies with original Bandy designs. Delicate pastel scenes he has painted hang on the walls.

"I can't remember when I first became interested in art," Bandy said. "When I was a youngster," he admitted, "I drew pictures on everything."

After a stint in the Army, Bandy was graduated from Tennessee State University and later received his master's degree in arts and crafts from Columbia University.

Bandy considers himself a "realistic," rather than abstract painter. That this is his favorite art form is evidenced by the huge painting dominating the living room. "Forest Fire" is a composition alive with brilliant flames and dense black smoke engulfing falling trees.

Bandy's largest project, he said, was a hand-tooled 3- by 6-foot cowhide mural. It took the artist three months of intense precision work to design and stamp out a picture of mountains, pine woods and lake. The mural is mounted over a lodge fireplace in Northern Michigan.

But despite Bandy's love for his "do-it-yourself" projects, he said that passing on his knowledge to others, through the night-school classes he teaches, is one of the most rewarding "works of art."

Romney Would Take Democratic Backing

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Automaker George S. Romney said Monday he would accept Democratic support in the event he clashed head-on with former Republican State Sen. Edward Hutchinson for the presidency of the upcoming constitutional convention.

Hutchinson, who launched his bid for the presidency at last weekend's Republican meeting at St. Joseph, said he would not seek Democratic votes in his effort to win the job. Hutchinson, considered an archconservative, is from Fennville.

GOP delegate Romney, president of American Motors Corp., met here with Kent County Republican leaders and con-con delegates. After the meeting, he met with newsmen.

Romney, who was pulled into the presidential race last week when he said he would take the job "if asked," told reporters he rejected the idea that he was "at the opposite end of the political spectrum from Mr. Hutchinson." Romney, considered a GOP liberal in many quarters, said the idea was "superficial and without foundation."

Romney said he would accept Democratic support because he favored a nonpartisan convention. Hutchinson said at St. Joseph that Republicans would be the laughing stock of the state if they could not choose the president with the 99-45 delegate majority they hold.

Talk that the two men represent extreme wings within the GOP "is possibly a political maneuver to create that kind of impression among delegates," Romney said.

Romney also reaffirmed that he is not running for governor. He said he had bypassed that opportunity once and "considered revision of Michigan's constitution more important than who ran for public office."

Parochial Schools Enroll 1,700 Here

A total of 1,700 elementary and high school students is enrolled in Pontiac parochial schools this fall.

Largest enrollment is reported by St. Frederick School with a total of 700. Of these 455 are in elementary classes, 245 are in high school.

St. Michael School reports 367 in grade school and 235 in high school.

Emmanuel Christian School has a total of 400 students registered, half in grade school, half in high school. In addition, Emmanuel has 110 day-school students and an estimated 30 night-school students enrolled in its seminary.

$500,000 Worth of Jewels Stolen at Riviera Shop

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Masked gunmen pulled off the largest jewel robbery of the summer on the Riviera Monday. Estimates of the loot ranged from $500,000 to more than twice that.

Three robbers, dressed in blue jeans and wearing scarves across their faces, entered the Clerc jewelry shop opposite the Monte Carlo Casino in the morning, when most residents of the neighborhood were sleeping. They forced an elderly saleswoman, alone in the store, to lie on the floor and began scooping jewels from display cases.

The store manager said the value of the stolen gems could go as high as $1.4 million and added that only half the loss is insured. Police put the loss at $500,000.

Here tomorrow—a great new exclusive from Buick

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its ¾-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

4-H Focuses Attention to Nonfarm Activities

EAST LANSING (AP)—The large four-leaf clover with the four white H's has proved to be a perennial.

Like it, the objectives of the 4-H Club remain unchanged, while methods and programs vary to meet the demands of a changing farm society, says Russell G. Mawby, assistant state club director.

The club aims, Mawby said, at helping youth grow into mature, useful adults through an informal educational program. But new dimensions have been added to the task in recent years.

"Only about one in 10 of the state's 71,000 4-H Club members will have an opportunity to make his living on a farm," Mawby said. "It is our responsibility to give them the experience to help adjust to new living patterns."

These new patterns would include urban life, nonfarm rural life, nonfarm and agriculture-related occupations.

To meet the responsibility and to satisfy its nonfarm members (55 per cent of total state membership) the 4-H Club is expanding its programs.

Career exploration and preparation, Mawby said, is aimed at the new responsibility. It is designed to make the high school-age youngster aware of the great variety of career choices available to him or her, he added.

'MUST BE PREPARED'

The largest high school class in history started this fall. When it graduates in 1965, "the youngsters will be facing a tough competitive situation," he said. "We want to help prepare them to meet that competition."

The numbers of farm youth in the Michigan club have remained fairly constant at about 32,000 for the past four or five years, but the others have been increasing, he said. Some 79.3 per cent — or 24,850 — are from rural, nonfarm homes, and 20 per cent are from urban areas — small towns (2,500 or more population), suburbs and cities, one club now operates in Hamtramck — in the heart of Detroit.

Science — radio, electronics, entomology — is broadening the 4-H scope. Automotive skills is another recently added activity — designed to meet a growing need both in rural and urban areas.

The new fields also are designed to answer another challenge facing the youth organization. Mawby — once a 4-H Club member — said the club appealed almost exclusively to boys when it was founded in the early 1900s. Now has a 60-40 ratio of girls to boys.

The girl-ward trend, however, has been stationary for about 10 or 15 years. Many activities added to the agenda since the founding have been of the "for girls only" type — cooking, home making, dress making.

"No one field so far appeals exclusively to boys as these do to girls," he said, "but we're trying to add new fields that will fit into the changing patterns of life and be of real interest to boys."

The science and automotive fields might be part of the answer, he said.

Bankers' Group to Meet Today

Michigan Commissioner C. D. Slay to Speak on Financial Legislation

Charles D. Slay, commissioner of banks for the State of Michigan, will be the speaker today when bankers of Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties convene for their annual Fall meeting.

The session will be held at the Birmingham Country Club, 1700 W. 14-Mile Road, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Slay will discuss some of the fine points of legislation affecting commercial banks and other financial institutions, according to Ralph L. Stickle, Michigan Bankers Association executive manager.

The commissioner's talk also will encompass the liaison between the State Banking Department and the federal agencies, such as the Federal Reserve System, the comptroller of the currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Appearing on a program for the first time since his election to the presidency of the association in June will be Donald Krunell, president of the Peoples Bank, Trenton.

He will discuss the emergency preparedness work being done by banks in anticipation of natural or man-made disasters.

Everett K. Garrison, assistant vice president of the Pontiac State Bank, heads the Oakland County group of the association.

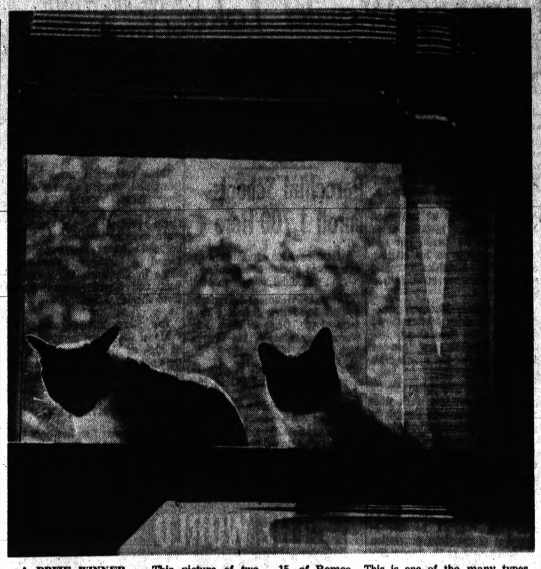

Five County Judges Attend Conference

With all five Oakland County Circuit Court judges attending the three-day 6th annual meeting of the Judicial Conference of Michigan beginning today in Dearborn, court sessions will be in recess until Friday.

Judges H. Russel Holland, Clark J. Adams, William J. Beer, Stanton G. Dondero and Frederick C. Ziem will resume court Friday at the conclusion of the Sept. 26-28 conference at the Dearborn Inn.

School District Is Boss

LANSING (AP) — Local school districts have the power to determine whether or not their teachers should attend state teachers institutes, an attorney general's opinion has held.

Four area students have received honorable mention awards in the 16th annual Kodak High School Photo Contest.

They include two June high school graduates who were winners in the senior division.

They are Brian Beals, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Beals of 24401 Broadview St., Farmington and Kurt Schlotterbeck, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Schlotterbeck of 1325 Selfridge Road, Clawson.

Winner of two awards in the junior division was Ted Grossbart, 15, a junior at Bloomfield Hills High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Grossbart of 1425 Clarendon Road, Bloomfield Hills.

The other area student who received an honorable mention cash award in the junior division was Cary Kilner, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Kilner of 277 W. St. Clair St., Romeo. He is a sophomore at Romeo Community High School.

Appoint Former Judge to Southfield Council

SOUTHFIELD — Former associate municipal judge Alex C. Perinoff was appointed to the City Council last night with a 4-2 vote of the council.

He will fill the post vacated by Robert G. Landers who resigned earlier this month.

There were two nominations for the position, Perinoff and former councilman Jean McDonnell.

Mrs. McDonnell submitted petitions to the council last Monday with over 600 names asking that she be reinstated on the council.

She was defeated in the spring election.

Perinoff, 33, an attorney, of 18615 Greenwald St., served on the old Southfield Township Board of Appeals and was for two years associate municipal judge.

DEFEATED IN ELECTION

He was defeated in the spring election when he ran against Clarence A. Reid Jr. for municipal judge.

Mayor S. James Clarkson said today that he has not decided whether he will veto the appointment. The mayor said an appointment on the City Council should be approved by all the members.

Councilmen Clarence A. Durbin and Philip B. Peterson were opposed to the appointment.

Councilmen C. Hugh Dohany, John J. Hollywood, O. David Edwards and Thomas C. Rowley voted in favor of Perinoff.

ROCHESTER — The Avon Camera Club will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Avon Township Library here. The Camera Club picnic is the assignment for this month.

George Vilican Gets Post

Mayor Names Southfield's First Full-Time Planner

SOUTHFIELD—Mayor S. James Clarkson last night appointed George Vilican Jr. of 1911 Wakerobin Road, Orchard Lake, as the city's first full-time planning consultant.

Vilican is a member of the nationally known firm of Vilican-Leman and Associates, planners and engineers, Southfield.

The City Council will interview the appointee 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the council chambers of the No. 10 Elementary School on 10 Mile Road.

Vilican will succeed part-time planner Alb Munson if the council approves of the appointment.

If approved, Vilican's contract will run for three years.

He assured the council last night that Southfield is qualified to receive federal matching funds for planning of the city, a project that would be undertaken during his term of office.

Cost of the program for the three-year period, which will include Vilican's salary, will be about $98,000. The amount to be paid by the city will only be $24,000, with the remainder derived from the federal government, according to Council President C. Hugh Dohany.

Dohany said he was "favorably impressed" with the appointment.

Red Cross Unit Seeking Donors for Bloodmobile

ROCHESTER — The local chapter of the American Red Cross is seeking area residents interested in donating blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile makes its annual visit here Monday.

The mobile unit will be parked in front of St. Andrew Catholic Church, Third and Walnut streets, from 2 to 4:45 p.m. and from 5:45 to 7:45 p.m.

Donors may make appointments by contacting either of the recruitment chairmen, Mrs. Dan S. Holetca of 825 Mead Road or Mrs. Alfred A. Wade of 2312 Hillendale Road.

Mrs. Russell W. Nowels of 316 Charles St. is chairman of the Red Cross blood program for the Rochester area.

Local Red Cross chapter executives pointed out that the need for blood is great since the demand exceeded the supply by nearly 3,000 pints during the first six months of the year in Oakland County.

Johnson Niles PTA to Meet Tomorrow

TROY — The Johnson Niles Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the new school year tomorrow in the multipurpose room of the school, 201 W. Square Lake Road.

Open house will start at 8 p.m. at which time all teachers will be in their classrooms to meet the parents.

M. E. Olson, PTA president, will call the business meeting to order at 8:30 p.m.

The open house is the first in a series of programs planned by the PTA to follow the theme of "Looking In on Your School."

To Hold Church Dinner

ORION TOWNSHIP — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Howarth Methodist Church will serve a swiss steak dinner Wednesday beginning at 5 p.m. at the church. Proceeds will go toward buying a parsonage.

Smith-Bamber Vows Told

WALLED LAKE — Mary Ann Bamber became the bride of Samuel Abbott Smith in a ceremony Saturday evening at the Oak Grove Methodist Church, Oak Grove. Rev. Lloyd E. Christler performed the nuptials.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Bamber of Howell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Smith of 41300 14 Mile Road.

The floor-length gown, designed and made by the bride for her wedding, was of deep lustered satin with appliques of Alencon lace. It featured a scoop neckline outlined with scallops of Alencon lace and appliques of lace down the center of the bodice and forming the front panel of the skirt.

Her petticoat was the one her grandmother wore on her wedding day back in 1892, and her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom.

An Alencon lace crown held her 4-tiered, fingertip veil of nylon tulle. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and chrysanthemums entwined with ivy.

Maid of honor was Esther L. Robinson of St. Johns. Kathryn R. Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. David G. Shapiro of Ann Arbor, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Serving as best man for his brother was Lowell T. Smith. The guests were seated by another brother David of Detroit and William J. Bamber, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall after which the newlyweds left by car for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan. Upon their return they will reside in Walled Lake.

3 From Oakland Will Be Honored at Bar Meeting

Three Oakland County attorneys will be among 51 Michigan lawyers to be honored with "Fifty-Year Awards" Thursday by the State Bar of Michigan at a luncheon in Detroit.

Recipients of the awards, which will be issued in the form of certificates, will be those members of the State Bar who have been admitted to practice law for a period of 50 consecutive years.

The veteran attorneys from Oakland County to receive the honor are William C. Hudson of 1112 N. Pleasant St., Royal Oak; Max Hulett of 33601 Shiawassee Road, Farmington; and Louis M. Spencer of 893 Harsdale Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Presentation of the awards will be made by Ernest C. Wunsch, president, who will preside over the annual meeting of the State Bar in Detroit, which begins today and ends Friday.

Cites Library's Value to School

Woman Urges PTAs to Arrange for Confabs and Workshops

Now is time for local Parent-Teacher Associations to arrange for library workshops and conferences for schools, a member of the Michigan Parent-Teacher Association board of managers said today.

"No longer do most educators believe that the textbook alone suffices — a good library program in every school is a must," according to Mrs. Charles E. Scully of 7110 Colony Drive, Commerce Township.

Mrs. Scully is chairman of the reading and library service committee of the state organization.

The school library should result in instruction, service and activity throughout the entire school, rather than merely within the four walls of library, she said.

She feels stress should be on the program of services to teachers and students — the contribution made to the guidance program, to the accelerated program, the exceptional children and to the advanced placement program.

* * *

"We need adequate financial support to provide and maintain a live, growing, useful collection of library materials. And joint parent-teacher efforts, through PTA workshops, offer the best hope for improving library services," Mrs. Scully said.

Blood Donations to Be Taken at Area School

The American Red Cross will accept blood donations from Commerce Township and Walled Lake residents from 3 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Union Lake Elementary School, Commerce and Union Lake roads.

The blood will be used to replenish the area supply, according to Mrs. Edward Genack, program coordinator.

Anyone wanting to donate blood that day can make an appointment by contacting Al's Glass and Auto Supply, 415 Commerce Road.

Mrs. Genack said the hours when the bloodmobile will be stationed at the school have been changed from the times originally publicized.

School Districts Get State Okay for Loans

Approval has been given to three area school districts to borrow against anticipated state aid by the State Department of Public Instruction.

Braid-Harry Vows Said

Wed at Rochester

ORION TOWNSHIP — St. Paul's Methodist Church, Rochester, was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Judy Lynn Harry and Edward S. Braid. Rev. David Liscomb of Howarth Methodist Church performed the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Alcock of 800 Joslyn Road and the late Francis A. Harry. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Braid of 2331 Lake George Road, Oakland Township.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of silk organza. Sequin-embroidered Alencon lace formed a panel on the princess-style bodice, bouffant skirt and chapel train.

A double-tiered pearl crown held her bubble illusion veil in place. She carried an arm bouquet of white Fugi chrysanthemums, centered with a corsage of yellow and brown baby chrysanthemums.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. William Kleino of Rochester. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Niles Olson, Mrs. Marvin Middleton, Jean Alcock, sister of the bride, and Margaret Braid, sister of the bridegroom.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Gerald Boschma of Urbanville. Ushers were Stuart Hutchins, Ross Waite, William Middleton, Frank Lessiter and Fred Tyson.

The reception was held at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club following the nuptials.

Upon their return from a week-long honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains, the newlyweds will reside at 1535 F Spartan Village in East Lansing.

Esther Returns, Dumping Rain

Coast Is Drenched but Midwest Clears After Monday Downpours

By The Associated Press

the Northeast today as skies cleared over most of the drenched Midwest.

The weakened remnants of Hurricane Esther, after making a wide loop in the western Atlantic over the weekend, curved back toward the north Atlantic coast. It moved north, northeastward

Heavy rains pelted sections of through New England coastal areas during the night, dumping heavy rains in some areas.

Gale warnings for winds up to 50 m.p.h. were displayed from Block Island to Eastport, Maine. Some flash flooding was expected.

IN GRAND RAPIDS

The rains that hit Midwest areas spread into the Ohio Valley with gusty winds and heavy rainfall in some sections. Nearly three inches of rain fell in a six-hour period in Grand Rapids, Mich., Monday night, causing some flash flooding.

Heavy rain was reported in parts of Western New York and Pennsylvania. Lighter amounts fell along a cold front advancing across the central and southern Appalachians.

It was clear and cool across broad areas from the Great Lakes to Northeast Texas. Temperatures in the 40s in Southern Illinois and Western Kentucky were nearly 30 degrees lower than readings 24 hours earlier.

Says Legislator Urged Forging of Dem Petitions

DETROIT (AP)—State Rep. Maxcine Young was accused from the witness stand Monday of asking a friend to forge names to nominating petitions because "all politicians do it."

Mrs. Young is accused of forgery in signing and obtaining signatures to nominating petitions for Dr. Eugene C. Keyes of Dearborn, a candidate for lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket in the Aug. 7, 1961, primary election.

Mrs. Selma Littlejohn, Detroit mother of five, testified in Recorder's (Criminal) Court that she signed four names "because Mrs. Young was a friend of mine and worked real hard in the PTA and the mothers wanted to show their gratitude."

Reporter Convicted of Libeling Walker

AUGSBURG, Germany (AP) — Reporter Siegfried Naujocks of the "Overseas Weekly" was convicted by a German court today of slandering Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

The court ordered a fine of 1,200 marks—$300—or 30 days in jail.

After three days of testimony the court ruled that Naujocks, a German citizen, slandered Walker in telling three members of Walker's division last December that the general suffered from a brain tumor and that he had seen a medical report proving it. He never produced such a report in court.

U.S. Army doctors who examined Walker at the time testified no brain tumor was ever found.

Cost of Living Dips in Month of August

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living dipped one-tenth of one per cent in August, the Labor Department announced today, mainly because of plentiful fresh foods at lower cost.

The department said consumer prices have risen one-half of 1 per cent in the first eight months of this year, "less than during any comparable period since 1955."

This stability was achieved in spite of July's jump of nearly one-half of 1 per cent which carried the index to a record of 128.1 per cent of the 1947-49 average, used as a base. The downward movement last month brought the level to 128 per cent.

JFK's Youngest Brother Becomes Father Again

BOSTON (AP)—President Kennedy became an uncle again today.

A son was born at St. Elizabeth's Hospital to Joan Kennedy, wife of Edward M. Kennedy, the President's youngest brother.

Questionnaire to 1st Graduating Class Proves

Pontiac Northern Rates Pretty High

BY RALPH HUMMEL

The first class graduated from Pontiac Northern High School in 1958 was given a chance this year to sound off about its alma mater —and gave it a nearly perfect report card.

(A study completed this month states there were 128 students who answered at least some of the questions on questionnaires sent in April to a total of 174.)

The students were hard-ey in judging themselves: 64 per cent admitted they had wasted too much time in high school.

But only seven out of 121 blamed high school preparation as having "very little relation to life." The rest agreed they had been given a general or specific background for life.

One of the first lessons learned after graduation by 27 students was that it pays to have friends. That's the number reporting that friends helped get them their first full-time job. A total of 96 held jobs.

A surprising blow was dealt by the graduates in their evaluation of club activities. While praising academic areas of learning, the class was sharply divided on non-academic areas.

MIXED VIEWS ON CLUBS

Forty-eight per cent said club activities either should be "emphasized less" or were "not the responsibility of the school." The rest said club work was either "fine as is" or should be "emphasized more."

Preparation for marriage in school drew 51 per cent negative answers, while 49 per cent answered in one of the above positive categories.

"Understanding the Opposite Sex" as an area of learning drew a similar response: 47 per cent were for, 53 per cent against.

The graduates ranked as most helpful school subjects: First, English; second, mathematics, and third, typing. Considered least helpful were: First, history; second, gym, and third, foreign language.

In a differently phrased version of this question, mathematics led the list of areas of learning with 96 per cent of the respondents giving positive answers ("fine as is," or "emphasize more"). Only 4 per cent answered either "emphasize less," or "not responsibility of school."

In the job market, the graduates did well. As of April only nine said they were hunting for jobs. Most were working full-time, 23 were working part-time, 41 were in school full-time, and 13 were housewives. Others were in the Armed Forces or self-employed.

SOME OVERLAPPING

There was some overlapping of those who were attending school and working.

Girls generally were making less money than boys. The only girls earning more than $1.75 an hour were those who were in the business curriculum.

A question "Whath are you doing now?" revealed that business, general and trade-industrial graduates were mostly engaged in full-time work.

The "Follow-Up Study of the Class of 1959, Pontiac Northern High School" was directed by one-time Northern High counselor Daniel Hutchens, now assistant principal at Washington Junior High.

TWO MAIN QUESTIONS

Its aim was to answer two main questions:

1—How do graduates feel about experiences in the Pontiac senior high schools?

2—What were the graduates doing one year after leaving high school?

Most in the graduating class of 174 had spent two years at Pontiac Central before taking their last year at the new Northern High.

Of the 128 who replied, 40 were in the business curriculum, 54 in college preparatory, 19 in general and 15 in trade-industrial. Most of the 46 questionnaires not returned represented students on the general curriculum.

Its response figures are not absolutely exact, the report emphasizes, but do reflect accurately the strength of students' feelings about their school program.

Find Stolen Safe on Road Near Andersonville

A 250-pound safe stolen out of Beattie's Marathon Service Station, 5716 Dixie Highway, in Waterford was found open in the middle of a new road under construction off Andersonville Road in Independence Township yesterday.

Pontiac state police today were examining the smashed safe for possible fingerprints and other clues.

It was stolen from the gas station sometime Sunday night when burglars smashed a rear window to reach in and unlatch the door.

The safe contained less than $100 and the titles for several new and used cars when stolen. It was empty when discovered by county road commission employes.

A research camera designed to measure the resolving power of photographic materials, can project an accurate pattern of 50,000 parallel lines to the inch.

Law Denies Artist View From Roof Top

At about 3:50 this morning, a citizen called police to report someone trying to get into the Community National Bank Building at Saginaw and Lawrence Streets.

Patrolmen Walter P. Patten and John H. Bridgewater, investigated.

They found James O. Vanbelle, 21, of 22 Augusta St., trying the banks doors. He appeared to have burglar tools in his possession.

But they were just art supplies.

"I'm an artist," explained Vanbelle. "I just wanted to sketch the city from a roof top at night."

The suspect was "sent on his way."

President's Speech Right to the Point

President JOHN F. KENNEDY has made a forthright and straightforward speech on the subject of war, peace and disarmament.

He leaves no doubt as to where the United States stands and the whole issue has been dropped squarely in the squirming laps of the pig-headed Russian leaders.

The Associated Press says that "his 38 minute speech was dotted throughout with applause." The Soviets were the one exception. The Red delegation sat on its hands. (Big stuff!)

President Kennedy pointed the way to world agreement. He urged a global cooperation and a "race for peace" which will hearten practically all of the world. In fact, it would bring as much cheer to the Russian people as it would to us, if they ever received the word. But Soviet newspapers will print precisely what Khrushchev dictates and that won't be anything favorable to this country. His fabrications will have to be tempered to some extent for he has found out that translations of twisted facts are broadcast beyond the pale that he controls.

President KENNEDY's disarmament program is a wide, broad-gauged affair that really leads to a cessation of man killing devices. Mass murder would ultimately be impossible and outlawed.

He urged the small independent nations to join the United States and the free countries in concerted opposition to the Russian troika plan. This was a blatant design from the Soviets that palpably aimed at placing effective blockage of action in their hands.

Kennedy wants arms reduction to go forward "step by step until we reach complete disarmament." He wants a nuclear test ban. He wants free and frank discussion. Once again he reiterated that we have no intention of backing down in Berlin and surely, this fact has been established by now. Even the Reds must comprehend. The U. S. President said: "We will never negotiate out of fear, or fear to negotiate."

His talk was a ringing challenge for world peace. It points the way for friendly relationships everywhere. Here is a concrete proposal. It's a grand beginning and opening wedge.

Mr. KHRUSHCHEV, it's your move.

The world waits.

Fog Menace Is With Us in Big Manner

The 1961 autumn fog period is taking an early start in the Pontiac area.

It adds a great hazard to travel on our highways.

Extreme caution is necessary to avoid serious consequences.

But disregard any theory that our numerous lakes cause the fogs.

Recent fogs have been as bad in sections far remote from any lakes.

A fog is an atmospheric condition that differs from a cloud only that it is nearer the ground.

It simply is vapor condensed to fine particles of water.

The temperature has more to do with it than any ground or water condition.

A falling mercury might be influenced by the difference in which ground or water gives off heat, but that's only a minor element.

So, don't try to discount the great asset of our lakes by a trivial fog accusation.

And don't try to pass the buck for a fog accident to them.

A Choice of Gavels

David Lawrence Says:

JFK's Talk Can Be Called 'Great'

WASHINGTON — Great speeches by spokesmen for modern governments are rare. But when such an address is made, it is quickly recognizable as a work of transcendent merit.

LAWRENCE

This appraisal may readily be given with respect to the address of President Kennedy before the General Assembly of the United Nations. For he expressed in words, as the President of the United States, what the people of this country really feel during the current period of tension in international affairs.

Oratorical at times, epigrammatic in its phrasing, but comprehensive in its treatment of the issues of the day, the speech stated unequivocally American ideals and American purposes.

While severely critical of the Soviet Union's policies, it was dignified in its restrain; yet unmistakable in its meaning.

The address will have worldwide repercussions. For it will be widely rebroadcast and will be read throughout the free world, though unhappily the Soviets will keep their own people from hearing or reading this hopeful and helpful pronouncement which could be made the basis of a real peace if the Soviet people could exert upon their government the influence that is directed every day toward free governments.

Excerpts do not do justice to the text of the whole of the President's address, but there were certain passages which are examples of directness and forthrightness in defining the controversies of the day. He said, for instance, to the so-called "nonaligned" nations:

TWO FORCES!

"In this hall there are not three forces, but two. One is composed of those who are trying to build the kind of world described in Articles I and II of the Charter. The other, seeking a far different world, would undermine this organization (the United Nations) in the process."

As for the suggestion of the Soviets that the office of secretary general be a three-headed affair, with an official from each of the Communist, the Western and the "neutral" blocs, like the "troika"—the Russian vehicle drawn by three horses abreast—Kennedy made this caustic comment:

"Even the three horses of the 'troika' did not have three drivers, all going in different directions. They had only one—and so must the United Nations executive."

Most eloquent and emotional was the President's treatment of the whole armament question as he said:

"Men no longer debate whether armaments are a symptom or a cause of tension. The mere existence of modern weapons—ten million times more powerful than anything the world has ever seen, and only minutes away from any target on earth—is a source of horror and discord and distrust. . . .

"But we are well aware that all issues of principle are not settled—and that principles alone are not enough. It is therefore our intention to challenge the Soviet Union, not to an arms race, but to a peace race—to advance together step by step, stage by stage, until general and complete disarmament has been achieved."

STEADY REDUCTION

The President was not dismayed by the argument that a Utopian condition cannot possibly be attained. He called for a program of "steady reduction in forces, both nuclear and conventional, until it has abolished all armies and all weapons except those needed for internal order and a new United Nations peace force."

But, lest anyone think the glow of idealism in the speech might divert attention from the basic resoluteness of the United States and the West to defend their rights in Berlin, the President pointed out that "terror is not a new weapon" and has been tried before and failed "either because men are not afraid to die for a life worth living —or because the terrorists themselves came to realize that free men cannot be frightened by threats, and that aggression would meet its own response."

He concluded with this warning to Moscow:

"And it is in the light of that history that every nation today should know, be he friend or foe, that the United States has both the will and the weapons to join free men in standing up to their responsibilities."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Most 'Colitis' Product of Improper Digestion

"I was not aware that I am a Class B neurotic, but I have been diagnosed as having acute colitis and, believe me, it is not a product of my imagination. For years I have suffered agonies with it . . . Perhaps my 'prodigious conceit' can be restrained if someone will tell what to do with a pound of whole flaxseeds and where to learn the elementary physiology of digestion, the autonomous regulation of intestinal mobility . . . If I have an unhealthful habit I would like very much to correct it. I have used laxatives at times when prescribed by my doctor . . ." (M. J.S.)

DR. BRADY

In the piece which evidently inspired your letter, Ma'am, I said:

"Colitis can happen, I frankly admit. Yet I believe the real cause of the trouble many of these amateur students of medicine ascribe to 'colitis' is interference with the alimentary function.

"This unhealthful habit can be corrected in most instances if only the victim's prodigious conceit . . .

Slaves of the habit who resolve to win back freedom should (1) lay in a supply of a pound of whole flaxseeds, (2) learn the elementary physiology of digestion, the autonomous regulation of intestinal mobility"—

Perhaps we should mention that there's a discrepancy between what I'm talking about and what the correspondent M.J.S. says she has. I'm talking about colon derangement, too often called "mucous colitis."

Real colitis (inflammation of the large bowel) is an infectious disease, due to germ or amoeba or bacillus of one kind or another. It is beyond the scope of a health column.

The main fault with the high calorie cheat-food diet is that it does not provide an adequate daily ration of vitamin B.

Lack of vitamin B is a common cause of weak digestion, poor muscle tone of stomach and intestine and hence dilation, stasis and constipation.

I shall not argue with M.J.S. or any other correspondent about his or her dietary whims. Suffice it to say that plain wheat is the richest food source of vitamin B, and in pamphlet No. 35, Wheat to Eat, available on request if you provide a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I tell you how to restore the staff of life to your everyday diet.

Dr. Brady welcomes the views of readers on the words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

You Must Earn 'Grades' and 'Jobs'

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE K-408: Edward G. aged 27, has had 3 years of college.

"Dr. Crane," he began angrily, "nobody will give me a job, for our area is still in a recession.

"The lousy employers around here just refuse to offer us work, yet they belong to swanky country clubs and drive around in ritzy cars.

DR. CRANE

"They are letting us starve, so why doesn't the government take 'em over and kick those fat slobs out of their fancy offices?"

FACE FACTS

Perhaps Edward's 3 years of college have caused him to sprout this usual Communist "line," for many profs are still pink to red.

And most workers have a favorable view regarding business. They think a boss always "gives" them a job or willfully withholds it.

We college professors also never "give" a student an "A" or "B" grade. No siree! The student earns that grade.

In like manner, no private employer can offer anybody a job unless that person can bring back to the company far more than the wages he is paid.

For example, if you draw $100 per week, there is at least another $100 and often far more of additional expenses of your firm that are classed as overhead.

So you workers must produce enough manufactured shoes or tires or coffee or other products not only to offset your $100 weekly wage, plus another $100 in overhead, and enough extra to permit a fair profit.

High schools should puncture this silly notion in America that jobs are "given" at the whim of an employer.

COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA

Furthermore, people are NOT starving in America nor did they starve in the depths of the 1932 depression.

And those who squawk the loudest against the big bosses are usually sucking on cigarettes meanwhile (which costs the average smoker $115 per year) and still swilling their liquor (another average cost of $180 per annum).

If Edward thinks he has such superior ability, why doesn't he get a selling job? Let him peddle magazines or brushes house-to-house.

When I suggested this to him, he refused.

"Not me," he yelled. "That's too hard work. I couldn't stand having doors slammed in my face, for I tried selling magazines one summer. Never again."

Well, it takes guts to sell, yet salesmen are the spark plugs that undergrid our entire economy.

Auto factories and all other industrial firms must close down when their products are not sold.

So give the salesmen more credit in America. Communists hate salesmen!

For salesmen are the barometer of a free economy. They and their kinfolk, the advertisers, are the basis of creation, not the stagnation so typical of Communism.

Salesmanship is thus a crucial career in America, and good salesmen require guts, brains and superb physical stamina.

Most writers and gripers are like Edward, who is scared to sell!

So send for my booklet "Surefire

Sales & Advertising Strategy," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Beware, too, for when salesmen and newspapers are hamstrung, we will have lost our freedom, as Hitler and Stalin proved in their countries.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Electrical Injury Concerns Pastor

In the Thursday edition of The Press was a story of the injury of young Charles Felts. The Press emphasized the bravery of this 12-year-old and the heroism of his good neighbors.

Because this is the second boy from our congregation who has been tragically burned in this manner, I would be interested in having the Detroit Edison Company provide a summary of such accidents in recent years to determine if they occur in high incidence in such an area as ours and why.

'Was Strike Worth What Was Gained?'

Several weeks ago when Reuther was screaming over TV, radio and the newspapers as to what his men were going to have, they gained very little and lost two weeks work. Was it worth it?

Reuther is the capitalist that is not looking out for you.

Big business is the workingman's best friend and don't ever forget it. About ten to twelve years ago, when you voted for closed shop, union shop and check off system, you put a noose around your own necks. If Reuther wants to lend McDonald of Big Steel $10 million to keep a steel strike going longer, the UAW workers are actually paying to keep themselves out of work.

Tells Why Voting Turnout Is Small

People didn't vote two-thirds of the time because they don't know what the candidates' platforms are or what they stand for. If he did know he votes for someone that promises a lot and does nothing only to satisfy his own gains.

Take the con-con election. What is Michigan's Constitution? The papers blabbed about it for over a year and never did they come out with plain language so that the common voter could read and understand. The common citizen has to keep a dictionary by his side to read the newspaper anymore.

The voting machines give most voters a pain in the neck. I came out of a voting booth and was talking to an old friend and he said he voted for someone, but didn't know who.

The politicians are already giving the con-con delegates advice. Con-con should make it a law for a candidate to stand for what he preaches before and after he is elected.

'Give More Business to Pontiac Workers'

Every contract that is let in Pontiac for building construction or any other work is let to Detroit contractors. They bring in their own labor who take the money back to Detroit, while Pontiac people go on welfare or draw unemployment.

City and county officials should see that these people hire local labor so the money will be spent in Pontiac and not in Detroit. Is it any wonder Detroit is so prosperous while the main street in Pontiac looks like a ghost town? Wake up and put a stop to this vicious practice.

Hunting, Target Practice With Air Rifles Stopped

The Waterford Township Board last night approved an ordinance prohibiting the use of air rifles for hunting or target practice.

The action resulted from the many complaints received at the township hall and police department.

Bow and arrow target practice will continue but the board decided to prohibit bow and arrow hunting in the township. Township attorney Paul Mandel was authorized to prepare an amendment to the present firearms ordinance, and present it at next week's meeting.

Fifteen residents representing more than 100 people from the Sashabaw-Walton roads area were present, protesting a request of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Collier to transfer location of a liquor license from 2180 Dixie Highway to 3450 Sashabaw Road. The board denied the request for the change.

A request from Police Chief Millard A. Pender for a wage revision for police officers whose promotions had been confirmed by the Civil Service Board was denied.

Five police officers had been promoted six months ago, and at the time the board agreed that the department head would recommend wage increases when the individuals merited the increase.

The board repealed the trial board ordinance because the Civil Service Commission supercedes it.

Delay Sentence, Arraignments for Three Men

A sentence and two arraignments again were delayed in Oakland County Circuit Court in the case of three men accused of robbing a city market of $1,650.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor Robert D. Long yesterday asked a two-week postponement in the sentencing of Homer T. Moreland, 28, of 617 Commerce Road, Commerce Township, who pleaded guilty to armed robbery Sept.

Monday attorney Carleton S. Roeser moved before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland that the armed robbery cases of Robert H. Hills, 38, of 278 Oakland Ave., and William T. Yoho, 51, of Dearborn, be remanded to Pontiac Municipal Court for preliminary examinations. No date was set.

Gets Jail, Probation for Extortion Try

Anthony F. Schneider, who once served a prison term for burglarizing the Pontiac Municipal Golf Course safe, today was given two years probation and 90 days in the county jail for attempted extortion.

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland sentenced Schneider, 26, 1257 Cherrylawn Drive, after he pleaded guilty Sept. 11 to threatening two men he said owed him $4,500 in gambling debts.

Johnson Warns Soviet in Talk

Southern Governors Put Aside Problems to Back JFK on Peace

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Southern governors put aside sectional problems today and stood united behind the Kennedy administration's promise to work for peace but never to surrender to blackmail.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, substituting at the Southern Governors' Conference Monday night for President Kennedy, warned the Soviets not to misjudge the character and strength of this nation, lest the world be pushed into nuclear war.

"We seek peace but we shun appeasement because we have learned appeasement is surrender on the installment plan and the signal for ultimate war," the vice president said.

Johnson spoke slowly and at times grimly. He drew his biggest applause from the 17 governors present when he declared the United States would never desert West Berlin or Nationalist China.

He joined the governors in praising the President's speech to the United Nations in which Kennedy declared the United States has both the will and the weapons to defend the free world.

"We challenge no one," Johnson told the governors at a black tie state dinner. "The path of reason, of diplomacy, of negotiations, of honorable settlement is open. We want to take it."

Struggle Over East Berliner

AP Photofax

BERLIN TUG OF WAR — A 77-year-old woman is literally caught in an East-West tug of war as she tries to escape from East to West Berlin Sunday. An East Berlin policeman holds her arm while a West Berliner grabs her legs as she dangles from the second floor window of a house on the border of the East and West sectors. The West Berliner wrenched the woman free and they fell into the waiting fire brigade safety net.

BERLIN, (AP) — A 77-year-old woman hung from a second story window on the border between East and West Berlin. Communist police tugged at her hands, a West Berliner at her feet.

Finally, she fell into a West Berlin fire net unharmed.

A photographer recorded the scene Sunday at Bernauerstrasse, one of the streets where the houses are in East Berlin and the sidewalk in the West.

TELL WOMAN'S STORY

West Berlin police refused to give the woman's name, but they told this story:

Early in the morning, Communist police came into her flat and said she would have to move. She argued, and other tenants backed her up. The police went away — not very far, apparently — and someone managed to notify West Berliners.

At 11:30, a West Berlin fire truck drove up and the firemen spread their net. First, the woman threw out a shopping bag containing a few personal belongings, and — a witness said — her cat. Then the old woman herself climbed out and stood on a ledge below the window.

'COME ON AND JUMP'

A small crowd of West Berliners gathered.

There were cries of: "come on and jump!"

But she couldn't make up her mind. A young West Berliner climbed on to the ledge of the bricked-up ground-floor window. He slipped and fell into the net. A second climbed up and grabbed at the woman's foot. Her shoe came off in his hand.

At that point the Communist police showed up at the window and grabbed her by the arms. Up climbed the two West Berliners again. One caught her by the leg. He pulled. The police tugged.

Finally the West Berliner just dropped, still hanging on to the woman's leg. They landed together in the net.

A West Berlin newspaper quoted her as saying: "I always hoped to die in that apartment. I lived there so long. They told me I couldn't even do that. So I went."

Saginaw Seaman Dies of Auto Crash Injuries

SPRING VALLEY, N.Y. (UPI)—Seaman William Polzen, 20, of Saginaw, Mich., died Monday of injuries suffered in an automobile accident in Ramapo, N.Y., last Friday.

Polzen was a passenger in a car which crashed into an abutment on the Palisades Parkway. The driver of the car was only slightly injured.

Says Commonwealth Is Most Important

LONDON (AP)—Britain told its Commonwealth partners today they come before Britain's desire to enter the European Common Market. Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys hinted that he may seek an accomodation that will bring the two blocs closer together.

"We have made it clear," said Sandys, "that if we are faced with the necessity of choosing between the Commonwealth and Europe, we should unquestionably choose the Commonwealth."

The 130 delegates attending a meeting of Commonwealth parliaments applauded. Strong opposition has been expressed to Britain's application for membership in the six-nation European trading group.

Party-Crashing Actor Gets Suspended Sentence

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) —Movie tough guy Lawrence Tierney's crashing of a Liz Taylor-Eddie Fisher party last June 30 has netted him a suspended sentence and one year of probation.

Municipal Judge Adolph Alexander accepted Tierney's guilty plea to one count of battery when the defendant appeared in court unexpectedly Friday. Trial had been set for today.

Crashes Into Junkman, Then Sells Him the Car

SOUTH KINGSTOWN, R.I. (UPI) — Sailor William Charlesworth of the carrier USS Champlain wrecked his automobile the convenient way.

Charlesworth's car rammed into the back of a pickup truck owned by junk dealer Benjamin Carpenter Sunday night. The car was beyond repair, so Charlesworth sold it for scrap immediately — to Carpenter.

Sky N-Testing Necessary for U.S., Says Senator

WASHINGTON (AP)—American nuclear tests in the atmosphere will be necessary shortly if the Soviets fail to accept President Kennedy's new challenge to halt atmospheric shots, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said today.

Jackson, who heads a Senate-House Atomic Weapons subcommittee, said Kennedy was taking a calculated, but relatively minor, risk when he told the United Nations Monday this country and Great Britain are prepared to sign immediately a treaty to ban testing of all kinds. The Soviets have rejected the proposed treaty.

NOTED WEST OFFER

Kennedy noted the West also had proposed to end atmospheric testing, without inspection or control, "in order to save the human race from the poison of radioactive fallout."

The Soviets already have fired 15 atmospheric shots since they broke the three-year moratorium on tests. The United States has set off two underground explosions.

Some fears had been expressed by administration officials that once the Soviets had completed their series of tests they would announce they were ready to bar further atmospheric detonations and thus force the United States to reject their proposal or face the possibility of falling behind in nuclear weaponry.

Jackson said that while it will be a long time before the results of the Soviet explosions can be assessed fully, he does not believe U.S. superiority in the field thus far has been threatened.

"But if the Russians continue these tests, we are going to have to make similar ones," he said. "We cannot check out our weapons systems finally, and this includes the antimissile missile, without firing them into the atmosphere."

Katanga's Chief Holds Ex-Aide

Tshombe Arrests Top Official for Working With U.N.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe of Katanga announced Monday night his former chief of staff, Capt. Mwamba, is under arrest awaiting trial for treason.

Tshombe told a news conference Mwamba had dealt with U.N. officials in contravention of orders of his military superiors and the president. He said he will be brought before a military court.

CHARGES SECRET

No details of the charges were made public. It was reported Mwamba was in touch with the U.N intelligence chief, Col. Bjorn Egge of Norway, during efforts to arrange a cease fire soon after the fighting broke out in Elisabethville Sept. 13.

Egge has said he was escorted into the presidential residence by Mwamba during attempts to get negotiations started.

Tshombe said 17 Belgian officers had left his secessionist province and insisted they were the last remaining foreign advisers with his army.

The United Nations had charged that white officers supervised Katangan military operations against U.N. forces.

The president said that in fact these 17 were kept on with U.N. permission to help the Katangan forces with purely administrative problems.

The charge that they had led military operations, he said, was part of a U.N. attempt to explain what he called its defeat in Katanga.

Offers State Beds for 100 Mentally Ill

LANSING (AP) — The Veterans Administration hospital at Ft. Custer has offered to accept some 100 mental patients as transfers from state hospitals, the State Mental Health Department reports.

"The department plans to utilize this unexpected windfall of bed space to relieve the waiting list for hospitals for the mentally ill," said Charles F. Wagg, department director.

Wagg said the space at Ft. Custer is available through the opening of a new Veterans Administration neuropsychiatric hospital at Brecksville, Ohio.

JFK Urges End to Discrimination in U.S.40 Places

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP)—President Kennedy has urged an end to racial discrimination — against American citizens or visitors from abroad—in restaurants and other public places.

The President's plea came in a telegram read Monday at a meeting of representatives of communities which flank U.S. 40. Negroes, including foreign diplomats, have been refused public accommodations in establishments bordering the highway—main link between Washington and New York.

"There are now an increasing number of diplomatic officials from Africa, Asia and other parts of the world stationed in the nation's capital," the President said. "They frequently drive through Maryland's scenic countryside. I am most anxious that they have access to all public services."

Gen. Eichelberger Dies After Surgery

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, 75, commander of the U.S. 8th Army in the Pacific in World War II and former superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., died here early today.

Eichelberger, who guided the "amphibious 8th" through the long Philippines campaign and later commanded Allied occupation forces in Japan, was hospitalized last Friday. He underwent surgery Monday.

Eichelberger had served as secretary of the general staff of two chiefs of staff of the U.S. Army—Douglas MacArthur and Malin Craig. He was graduated from West Point in 1909.

'West Side Story' Good but It'll Cost $6 Million

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — For the superlative-minded, "West Side Story" is the most expensive musical film ever made. It's also one of the best.

THOMAS

How can the brothers Mirisch spend $6 million on a musical? Especially one with a single expensive star—Natalie Wood at $250,000?

Take a high-priced stage property. Add a year's preparation with top talent—$250,000 on screen tests alone. Rehearse for three months. Shoot for half a year. Do it in color, stereo sound and 70mm film. The bill mounts.

Profits are by no means sure. Any musical is a shaky entry in today's market; foreigners seldom dig them. While "West Side Story" was electrifying on the stage, many playgoers found the theme downbeat and depressing. Profit or no, the film version was worth the chance. There has never been greater dancing on the screen. Number after number stirred Hollywood previewers to applause.

THEME FORBIDDING

The theme seems forbidding for a musical. It is the story of a power clash between a native New York City gang and another of Puerto Rican newcomers. Two lovers, one from each side, are caught in the middle.

"West Side Story" is really a dance opera. The powerful dances of Jerome Robbins and the highly charged music of Leonard Bernstein are perfect for the milling and rumbling of the New York gangs.

But the device has its drawbacks, especially in dramatic moments. When the brother and sweetheart of the leading actresses is killed, the girls break into a duet. Credibility is strained.

Otherwise you're with the warring Jets and Sharks all the way, fascinated with their animal energy and appalled by their violence. Robert Wise, as producer and co-director, has done a fine job of holding the story together.

"West Side Story" is a star-making film. Natalie Wood, disappointing as Marjorie Morningstar, comes through as a top dramatic actress. Richard Beymer as her ill-starred lover is engaging and effective; he'll be around for a long time.

Russ Tamblyn is tough and gymnastic, and Rita Moreno does her best work to date. George Chakiris, leader of the Puerto Rican gang, is a real find. He's got star quality.

The film has one jarring note. The law is represented by a gorilla-like cop and a detective who is brutal and bigoted. This adds nothing to the plot and only underlines the gangs' belief the law is worthy of contempt.

Kennedy Gains Prestige by Powerful U.N. Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was credited today by Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., with having recouped in his address to the United Nations some U.S. prestige losses on Cuba and Laos.

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader who had worked closely with White House experts on the disarmament program the President laid down Monday, called the speech "the most remarkable and moving message of a political leader in the history of our country."

REGAINS PRESTIGE

Humphrey said it went a long way toward erasing the prestige-losing stigma of the Cuban invasion fiasco and the failure to follow strong words with action in Laos.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana described Kennedy's address as "magnificent and statesmanlike." Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., called it "the greatest speech that has ever been made in the United Nations."

To Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, it was "a great speech."

"The President called a spade a spade," Wiley said. "He was equal to the occasion."

WILL OF U.S.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said Kennedy had "expressed the will and convictions of the people of the United States" in what he called an eloquent address.

In Gettysburg, Pa., former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who recently has been critical of some of Kennedy's foreign policy actions, said he was impressed very deeply that "the President said there is no additional security in merely pursuing a spiral of arms racing.

"He saw clearly that there could be a weakening. We saw here a definite desire to protect our country."

Eisenhower said he agreed with GOP National Chairman William E. Miller — a vigorous critic of Kennedy's foreign policies — that in his speech the President was "summing up and expressing very eloquently the aspirations of the American people for the last years."

Swainson Says GOP Wrong to Be Selfish

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. John B. Swainson indicated Monday he was disappointed the Republicans turned down a Democratic request for a bipartisan meeting to organize the constitutional convention.

"It would seem the Republicans are determined to organize it themselves," Swainson said.

The governor answered with a forceful "yes" when asked if he thought this was wrong.

"There are 144 delegates, not just 99," he said.

Prior to the Sept. 12 election in which the Republicans gained 99 of the delegate seats, Swainson said if Democrats gained control he hoped leaders of both parties would get together to consider committee appointments and other organizational matters.

Oakland Residents Play Host to Foreign Students

Pontiac Press Photos

A host of students from 45 countries was entertained at tea Saturday by Oakland County University of Michigan Alumnae. Pouring at the Cranbrook School reception was university Regent Irene Murphy. The Harry Hoeys welcomed students on behalf of Cranbrook. Students from left include Mr. Bhatia of India, Sarjant Singh of India, Mr. and Mrs. Narendra Sheth of India and Michail Korolev, one of two Russian students doing graduate study at the University of Michigan this year.

The Pontiac Press

One hundred twenty international students from 45 countries were guests in Oakland County homes this weekend. This effort (dubbed "Operation Friendship") is the current project of the University of Michigan Alumnae Council.

Conceived five years ago by Mrs. Norris Host as an effort to foster deeper understanding among people of all nations, the project has grown from the modest beginning of hosting 12 students to its present size. Ultimate goal is to offer hospitality and an intimate glimpse of American family life to all international students enrolled at the university.

EXCITING TIME

Those of us who have enrolled our well-prepared young people in colleges these past weeks are aware of the excitement, tensions and apprehension they are experiencing. Consider what the first week at a large university must be for a student from another land. Not only must he adjust to strange customs and food and a possible language barrier, but he must establish himself firmly in the scholastic role, his main objective.

"Operation Friendship" is designed to form a web of warm relationship between the overseas students and their American "families." The initial weekend visit is followed by letters, trips to Ann Arbor and return weekend and holiday visits.

PROGRAM DIFFERS

Differing from other exchange programs, the project chiefly serves graduate students — young adults who are completing studies already launched at universities a world away.

Such a guest was K. M. Rao who spent the weekend with the Ivan Wilcoxes of Old Orchard Drive. Mr. Rao is married. His wife and 1½-year-old daughter are living with her parents in India. Next summer he hopes to bring them to this country. His plan of study will cover four to five years.

An alert and interesting guest, according to Mrs. Wilcox, Mr. Rao speaks perfect English. He shares an apartment in Ann Arbor with two other Indians. He is interested in our form of government, even at the township level, asking pertinent questions about our tax system and econ.

Sunday he experienced his first visit to a Christian church. A whirlwind tour of the Pontiac area followed — the airport, hospitals, schools, new city and county buildings, GMC Truck and Coach, Pontiac and Fisher Body plants and finally, MSUO.

He was interested in the mechanical things we take for granted in our homes — the furnace, the water softener, the air conditioner and color television, although he didn't care for the shallow program presented in color, according to Mrs. Wilcox.

In one short session he learned the rudiments of bridge and proved an apt pupil.

ENJOYS DISHES

Being Hindu, Mr. Rao's diet could not include beef. This did not prevent him from enjoying lamb, cornish hens and fresh fruits and vegetables from the Wilcox garden.

He'll make the grade with American food, for his favorite dessert was apple pie a la mode.

The Wilcoxes and the hundred other families in "Operation Friendship" have been the real beneficiaries of this person-to-person operation. They have had a first-hand experience in grass roots diplomacy, forging solid links in a chain of international good will that may girdle the globe.

Top Winners at Bridge Club

Sixteen tables participated in the monthly masterpoint game of the Pontiac Duplicate Bridge Club Monday evening in the Elks Temple.

Winners were Dr. Charles Patrick and Richard McCarius; Mr. and Mrs. Ericson Lewis; Al Wallace and Joseph Nouss; Melvin Small and Edwin V. Clarke; Fred Kempe and Dr. Maurice Willis; the Frank Kennedys; Bruce Coryell and Donald Bowen; Dr. Robert Segula and Ernest L. Guy; the A. K. MacKeans.

Talks on Work of Foundation

Mrs. Donald E. Adams reviewed the work of the Oakland County Historical Foundation at a luncheon meeting of Zonta-International of Pontiac Thursday in the Hotel Waldron.

benefit sale today.

She spoke of the foundation and its predecessors who collected source materials and provided a permanent home for historical items.

Mrs. Orville Moll is chairman of the annual Zonta benefit sale Tuesday.

It's Better That Way, Says Abby

Stick to the Natural Tones, Don't Dye Your Hair Blonde

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Will you please explain why blondes get so much attention? A blonde can't walk into a room without turning every male head her way.

ABBY

She can be the flooziest looking bleached blonde, but they still look! I am a "good girl," but my hair is rather drab. I guess you could call it dishwater."

I have been seriously considering dyeing it blond. Tell me, where do "good girls" go when they dye?

DEAR DISHWATER: When a "good girl" dyes, she goes the same place a "good girl" who doesn't dye goes.

Psychologists (and ad experts) tell us that yellow is the most arresting color of all. But who wants to get arrested? Stick to the natural tones.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this fellow for two years. He has spent over $2,500 on rings, appliances and other gifts in anticipation of marrying me. Well, I have decided that I don't love this guy. It is getting hard for me to let him kiss me, but I hate to hurt his feelings.

My mother has advised me to return his ring, keep everything else he bought me, and to break up with him. Some of my friends say I should return everything he gave me, and call it quits. What should I do?

SORRY MESS

DEAR MESS: Return his ring, and everything else he gave you. Tell him as kindly as possible that you are not in love with him. And the sooner the better.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 22 years old, and has her own automobile. She is going steady with a young man who lives twenty miles from here. He has no car. She dates him on Saturday nights in the city where he lives, which means she has to take him home and then drive herself home (sometimes at two or three in the morning) alone. Her father is having a fit about this. Our daughter says it is better this way than letting the fellow drive himself home in her car and having the car end up with him on Sunday. How would you do it? Or should we let him sleep over? Is there a solution?

WEARY MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Let him sleep at your home if you have a guest bedroom. If you haven't, the young man should see your daughter safely to her door, and then drive himself home in her car. He should arrange to return the car the following day.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MILT: If you want to be content, try to imagine that you lost everything you have now—and then got it back again.

CONFIDENTIAL TO KAREN: "Cheap" talk is expensive.

"Are things rough?" Let Abby help you solve your problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and send to The Pontiac Press.

Presented Scholarship

Michael Andrews of Whitfield Street has received a scholarship to attend Wayne State University's college of pharmacy this fall. He is a 1961 Pontiac Central High School graduate.

The award, established to encourage the scholastic achievements of Pontiac area students of pharmacy at Wayne, has been presented by Jack A. Robinson and Donald Fox, registered pharmacists and owners of local pharmacies. Qualifications for the award are good character, demonstrated leadership, scholarship and financial need.

Clinton Eubanks of East Boulevard, a Pontiac High Northern High School graduate, was the 1960 scholarship winner. He is a sophomore in the Wayne pharmacy school.

Wever Unit Meets Today

The Wever Pre-School Group's first fall meeting will be at 7:30 this evening in the school library. Baby sitters will be available in the kindergarten room.

Arthur Bell, principal, will introduce kindergarten teacher Mrs. Byford Laur at the get-acquainted session. Parents of preschoolers in the Wever area have been urged to attend.

Mrs. Ronald Bunker will serve on the refreshment committee.

The group's officers are Mrs. Morris Hall, chairman; Mrs. Ronald Bunker, cochairman; and Mrs. Donald Richards, secretary-treasurer.

Adult Class in Music at Cranbrook

The University of Michigan-Wayne State University division of adult education offers a course entitled "Contemporary American Music" cosponsored with the Cranbrook Music Guild.

This marks a significant milestone in the growth of the Cranbrook Music Guild, the first organization in the field of the arts invited by the universities to participate in the adult education program.

Classes will be given at Cranbrook School for Boys in the music building on eight successive Wednesday evenings beginning Wednesday of this week.

They will be taught by William P. Malm, assistant professor at the U. of M. school of music. His work as composer-pianist with the Juilliard School of Music, New York City, and pianist in residence at the American Dance Festival qualify him to lecture on modern music. Previously he was composer in residence at Perry-Mansfield School of the Theater at the University of Illinois.

Carroll Osmun of Woodland Avenue (at right) paces the sale of footsteps, preliminary support for the gala follies of the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital. Buying his footprint (which will ultimately lead him to the Nov. affair) from Mrs. Donald Redmond of Drayton Plains, Mr. Osmun typifies the support the community gives the annual event.

Hospital Unit Inviting Public to Attend Follies

The Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital is inviting Pontiac and vicinity residents to "Follow the Footsteps to Follies-A-Poppin'," this year's annual High Fever Follies production.

The footstep publicity campaign was launched officially this week with the sale of the first footstep to Carroll Osmun, senior vice president of the Community National Bank. The footsteps and popcorn are on sale now at the Follies both in front of the old Court House. All funds collected from this project will go toward purchase of equipment for the hospital.

Teen-agers in costume are mingling with the downtown crowds to acquaint the public with the annual show, slated Nov. 3 and 4 at 8:30 p.m. in Pontiac Central High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilcox of Old Orchard Drive were delighted with the fluent English of their houseguest K. M. Rao of Andhra State, South India. Mr. Rao, a graduate in physics and textile engineering, is studying mechanical engineering at U. of M.

From far off Turkey, Guner Inal of Istanbul (at right) came to do graduate work at U. of M. in the History of Art Welcoming her for a weekend in their home was Mrs. Douglas Fullarton (center) of Eileen Drive and her daughter Carol.

Whiteheads Can Be Removed

Exercise Will Reduce Hips

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The following letter brings up several questions which I think you'll find interesting.

"Questions! Questions! I am nearly 50 — a long-time grandmother. My height is 5 feet 2¼ inches, weight 127 pounds with heavy bones. My measurements are bust 36 inches, waist 27 and hips 37. What should I weigh? What is the best exercise to reduce fat pads on top of the back hips?

"What can I do about whiteheads or collections of waxy substance under the skin of my forehead? I wash my face twice daily with soap and water. I do not eat much fat.

"I always turn to your column first."

This reader is certainly not overweight if she has large bones. She is just right for a medium build and her measurements are in good proportion.

Many women have the pads of fat which this writer mentions. This is often true even if the woman is not overweight generally.

The following exercise is one of the best medicines for this figure fault. Kneel on both knees and raise your arms over your head, one arm by each ear. Keep the arms close to the ears as you bend your trunk to the right, and push your hips out to the left while sitting on your heels. Now raise your trunk and return to starting position.

This time bend to the left and push the hips out to the right when doing the exercise. Continue alternating.

If this exercise is to be effective, it must be done slowly and the arms must remain close to the ears.

The whiteheads can be removed by a dermatologist. However, sometimes they can be banished by washing the face with soap and water several times daily, using a complexion brush with a gentle, rotary motion.

If you would like to have my tested hip-slimming exercises, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 3 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Allah and exercises be praised! This exercise, described by Josephine Lowman in today's column, is for that nagging figure fault which so many women have—fat on the back hips.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

All of us know the basic protective measures for guarding baby but sometimes things just slip our minds. A few "I-just-didn't-think-of-its":

For the active wee one. Crib sides should always be up when baby's in bed. Can't tell when that live wire will roll over. When diapering, powder can should be kept out of reach so baby won't inhale powder.

For the experienced creeper. A baby on all fours will make a beeline for bright objects so eagle-eye the floor for pins, bits of cellophane, etc. Iron and toaster cords or floor-drooping plants should not be left a-dangle. Floor fans and heaters are a hazard.

For the into-everything toddler. Beware the burning cigarette and table lighter. A toddler's hand is quicker than your eye. Pills in your purse are easy to find . . . and take none in sight of your copycat one.

Free safety poster, with many more safety hints for baby, is yours for the asking. Just write to Gerber Baby Foods, Dept. N46, Fremont, Michigan.

You are your baby's nutrition guardian when it comes to planning his meals. Flavorful ways to provide meat protein and other nutrients: Gerber Dinners—garden-good vegetables blended with meat; Gerber High Meat Dinners with 3 times as much meat as the Dinners. (Vegetables are added for flavor.) And for protein galore—Gerber Meats for Babies—100% Armour* meat.

*Armour Meat Protein is complete protein, supplying all the essential amino acids that build and rebuild vital body tissues.

Comfortable saver story for wee ones, creepers, toddlers: Gerber Baby Pants. Made of soft, polyvinyl film that's waterproof, leak-proof, acid-proof. Machine washable, they come in pull-on or snap-on styles. Medium, large, extra-large.

Newlyweds Drive East to New England States

Motoring to Vermont and the New England States on their honeymoon are the Donald A. Robertsons who pledged their vows before the bride's cousin, the Rev. Clement D. Carroll of Chicago, Saturday in St. Michael Church.

The Alfred E. Wagners of Mt. Clemens Street are parents of the former Judith Wagner and the bridegroom is the son of the William Robertsons of Oliver Street.

Alencon lace applique enhanced the bride's princess-line gown of bouquet taffeta styled with detachable bustle and chapel sweep. A taffeta rose held her bouffant silk illusion veiling. White Fuji chrysanthemums and grapes encircled a corsage of Mary Jo roses.

Butterscotch and brown pompons complemented toast brown satin sheath dresses with matching organza cummerbunds for the attendants. Their caps were of organza rose petals.

Mrs. Gary Petty attended her sister as matron of honor. Mrs. James Robertson of Drayton Plains and Peggy Robertson were bridesmaids. Sharon Verno, in toast organza, was flower girl for her cousin.

On the esquire side were James Robertson, his brother's best man, and ushers Leon Warden of Waterford and Michael Denihan, a Ferris Institute student.

MRS. DONALD A. ROBERTSON

For the ceremony and evening reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. Wagner chose a gold sheer wool ensemble. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in navy dacron with magenta accessories. Both wore orchids.

Couple Weds in St. Hugo of the Hills

Rev. Arthur Fauser officiated at the marriage of Mary Agnes Brown to James G. Freet in St. Hugo of the Hills Catholic Church, Bloomfield Hills. A dinner-reception in Devon Gables followed the small family ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James L. Brown of Berry Drive, Bloomfield Hills and the late Mr. Brown. The Milton A. Freets of North Anderson Street are the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. James F. Brown attended her sister-in-law as matron of honor at the Sept. 15 ceremony and Mr. Brown was best man.

The new Mrs. Freet is a graduate of the University of Detroit and her husband is a University of Michigan sophomore. After a brief northern honeymoon, the couple is at home on Murphy Avenue.

Party Honors Marlene Crocker

Fifty guests gathered Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Allen Rososky of Shawnee Lane, Drayton Plains, to honor bride-elect Marlene Annette Crocker.

Sharing hostess honors were Mrs. Forest Lamson, Mrs. Richard Magerman and Mrs. Helen Walker.

Mrs. William E. Crocker of McClintock Road attended her daughter's party with Mrs. Clarence P. Gunther of Lincoln Avenue, mother of bridegroom-elect W. Thomas Gunther, and Mrs. L. V. McCann. Other guests came from Troy, Davisburg, Milford, Royal Oak, Clarkston, Drayton Plains, Rochester and Ortonville.

Hold Stork Shower

Mrs. Lewis Nostrant was feted at a stork shower Friday evening. The affair was given by Mrs. W. B. Ellis, Eason Street, Watkins Lake.

Among the 16 guests was out-of-towner Mrs. Elizabeth Whiting, Lakeland, Fla.

Coffey-Vaughan Rites

Speak Vows in Chapel

Rev. Kyle Wilson officiated at the Saturday evening nuptials of Barbara Jane Vaughan to Michael B. Coffey in Barnett Chapel, First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ann Vaughan of Omar Street and Fred Vaughan of South East Boulevard. The Morris Coffeys of Highland Road are parents of the bridegroom.

MRS. MICHAEL B. COFFEY

Wearing deep lavender taffeta with soft fabric roses accenting the back decolletage were Bonnie Vaughan, her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Richard Rompa, bridesmaid. They carried lavender and white carnations.

Tony Adimaro of Davisburg performed the duties of best man and Jack Williams ushered.

The newlyweds, who will live in Auburn Heights, are honeymooning at Niagara Falls and New York City. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Pontiac Bible College.

For the wedding and church reception, Mrs. Vaughan chose a dress of green silk and brown accessories. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in beige chiffon with bodice of lace. Both mothers wore orchids.

Floor-length white silk organza for the bride was draped over net and taffeta, with bodice of Chantilly lace. Bouffant silk illusion veiling was fitted to a crown of white chiffon rosebuds. Red rosebuds, white carnations and ivy comprised the bride's bouquet.

New Sylvanites See Slides of Europe

John Buchanan showed slides of his family's recent tour of Europe before members of the New Sylvanites Club Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Hay on Beverly Avenue.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Stanley Squires and Mrs. George Boice.

Mrs. Raymond Dombrowski will be hostess for the next meeting.

Will Sends Cards

The Pontiac Citizens Committee of the State Hospital would like to send birthday cards to hospital patients. They are asking for donations of new birthday cards from Pontiac area residents. Cards may be sent to Arthur Heaton of Forest Street, president of the committee.

Honor Pledges to Sigma Beta

Psi Chapter, Sigma Beta Sorority, held the annual pledge initiation at the Drayton Plains home of Mrs. Ezio Bisogni. Cohostesses were Mrs. James DeFlorio, Mrs. Jack Kudray, Mrs. Carmen Tosto, Mrs. James Chartier and Mrs. Raymond Meggitt.

The pledges who attended the ritual and entertained the group were Mrs. Roger Dean, Mrs. Frank Phelps, Shakey Godoshian and Mrs. James Gagnier.

The Pontiac Fire Department Fire Fighter Association showed films of the Chicago school fire.

A party for Pontiac State Hospital patients is on the October agenda.

PTAs in Action

Get-acquainted meetings have been scheduled this week by four Parent-Teacher Associations in the Pontiac Public Schools.

McCONNELL

Mothers of McConell School children are invited to the annual fall tea at 1 p.m. Wedensday. PTA officers and teachers will be on hand to meet parents and to answer questions.

WISNER

A special meeting for parents and teachers is scheduled Wednesday by Wisner School's PTA. The program will be staggered throughout the day, with each grade allotted one hour for question and discussion periods regarding the students' educational program for 1961-62.

WHITTIER

Ronald Brown, new president of Whittier's PTA, and Mrs. Pearlina Butler, principal, will welcome parents to the first meeting of the school year at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Beatrice Ringgold, second grade teacher and preschool program chairman, will talk briefly, introducing the preschool program planned for the community this year. A "buzz session" will follow. Sixth grade pupils, their teachers and home room representatives will serve refreshments after the meeting.

WEVER

"Count Down" is Wever PTA's theme for this year. The first fall meeting at 7:30 Thursday in the school gymnasium will have the theme "Put PTA in Orbit."

The affair will be a family picnic followed by a business session. Loren Kelley is picnic chairman.

Mrs. Loren Kelley and Mrs. Jewel White, membership chairmen, will present the program. Hospitality Chairmen Mrs. Robert Furlong and Mrs. Theresa Campbell have asked Mrs. Mal Mercer, Mrs. Samuel Ritchie, Mrs. William Whitehead and Mrs. Melvin Norberg to assist in welcoming new members.

Committee chairmen also include Mrs. Steve Courelas, program; Mrs. Melvin Norberg and Mrs. Mercer, publicity; Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. White, membership; Mrs. Loren Kay, finance; and Mrs. Herbert Thomas and Mrs. George Van Horn, room representatives.

Others are Mrs. Mitchell Harbatiuk, magazine; Mrs. John Geiger, health; Mrs. Donald Talbot and Max Miller, youth; Mrs. Arthur Mobley, scholarship; Mrs. Gordon Matthews and Mrs. Robert Norberg, telephone; Mrs. William Whitehead, pop corn; Mrs. Melvin Boersma, music; Mrs. Morris Hall, preschool; and Barton Schmucker, safety.

Buick Prices Hiked Up to $99

Division Breaks Ranks on Hold-the-Line Policy of Industry

FLINT (UPI) — Buick today broke the ranks of the auto industry's general hold-the-line price policy on 1962 models, with price hikes ranging up to $99.

Introduction of the new V-6 engine on the compact Buick special series for 1962 will put the specials $93 below the lowest priced model last year.

And some other prices also will be lower than last year, including a $55 cut on the Invicta convertible.

But prices on several other models will be up. The Le Sabre four-door hardtop will be up to $3,069, compared with $3,030 in 1961; the Invicta four-door hardtop up to $3,333 from $3,858; and the Electra convertible coupe up to $3,957 from $3,858.

Except for slight price increases at Studebaker-Packard, most car prices announced so far for 1962 models have generally been the same as for 1961 cars.

Ordinary oils can create their own metallic ash. Above you see what happens when a conventional multi-grade oil is dropped on this electrically heated piston device. These dark spots are deposits containing additive ash. When additive ash builds up in your car's engine, it's bad news.

No ash with Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil. When the same test is tried with new Shell X-100 Premium all the oil vaporizes. The piston device is clean. There is no additive ash. You can expect a cleaner, longer-lasting engine, with less chance for knock and rough running.

Hot piston test shows that new Shell motor oil eliminates a trouble other oils can create. Read how this revolutionary oil can prolong engine life 5 ways.

Here is an astonishing fact every motorist should know before his next oil change: Premium motor oils—with one exception—will produce a deposit called additive ash. This ash can contribute to rough running and knock.

Shell X-100 Premium is the one premium oil that can't produce an additive ash deposit in your engine. Read how this remarkable oil helps your engine last longer.

TODAY, every Shell dealer has new Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil ready for your next oil change.

New X-100® Premium is unlike any other motor oil. Its revolutionary new formula eliminates a troublesome deposit that all other premium motor oils actually help create themselves. This deposit is additive ash.

No metallic additives

Additive ash is caused by the metallic additives used to prevent scuffing, sludge deposits, oxidation, and so forth.

With each stroke of the piston, these additives can deposit a tiny amount of metallic salts in the combustion chamber. Here they burn and form additive ash.

This crusty ash can build up in your combustion chamber, can cause your engine to knock and run roughly.

New X-100 Premium doesn't contain a single metallic additive. No metallic additives—no additive ash. It's as simple as that.

Additive ash is just one internal trouble that can cause engine problems. You should know about four others, too—and how new Shell X-100 Premium protects your engine against all of them.

Helps prevent sludge from anti-freeze leaks

Remember this when you fill up with anti-freeze this fall: Anti-freeze can leak out of your cooling system into your crankcase.

Many oils can react chemically with permanent anti-freeze to form a horrible sludge—so sticky that it can bring an otherwise healthy engine to a standstill.

New Shell X-100 Premium resists reaction with any sort of anti-freeze. It shrugs it off. This new oil formula puts to rest fears of hidden anti-freeze leaks.

Disarms crankcase dirt

All engines accumulate crankcase dirt. The problem is to stop the many different kinds of dirt particles from ganging up and forming sticky sludge, which can clog your engine.

Most premium oils use a detergent additive to do the job. But the majority of these additives are metallic and cause that old devil—ash.

Shell's solution is to replace the detergent with a dispersant—a remarkable new ingredient called Alkadine.*

Alkadine works to disperse dirt particles—in effect, holds them apart—so that they don't form sticky sludge.

Alkadine additive is potent stuff. After 1,200,000 miles of city driving, engines lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium were torn down and inspected. The amount of sludge was astonishingly low. In some cases there was so little it could hardly be measured.

Ignores temperature changes

Many motor oils tend to become too thick when cold and too thin when hot. This is hard on your engine—and it can be especially troublesome during sudden autumn cold snaps.

New Shell X-100 Premium is an all-year oil. Here's how it works. Alkadine has a molecular structure that resembles a basket of eels.

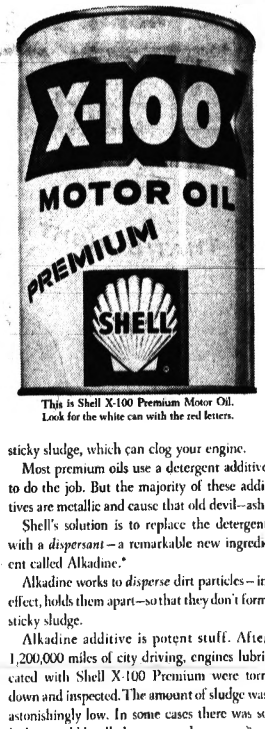

When the oil is cold, Alkadine's eel-like molecules curl up as if for comfort. In effect, they take up less space in the oil—and the oil flows freely through the tightest bearing.

When the oil is hot, the molecules uncurl, take up more room—and the oil resists thinning.

*Trademark Shell Oil Company

Gruelling road tests. Shell piled up 5½ million miles testing X-100 Premium. Sample results: sludge reduced by half, engine wear amazingly slight.

This is Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil. Look for the white can with the red letters.

New X-100 Premium lubricates just as effectively in June as it does in January.

Fights engine acid a new way

All automobile engines manufacture acid. It can cause far more wear than friction. It can attack engine parts much the way that stomach acid causes ulcers.

Most motor oils combat this engine acid with alkaline additives. But the neutralizing effect of the oil gets weaker as engine acid eats up the alkalinity—until eventually such an additive stops working altogether.

Shell X-100 Premium doesn't depend on alkalinity. It actually plates all engine surfaces with a thin chemical film. The metal "adsorbs" some of the oil's protective qualities. Chemists call this phenomenon "chemisorption."

The process of "chemisorption" offers unique long-lasting protection against acid attack.

How much does it cost?

If you now use a premium motor oil, you'll get Shell X-100 Premium for about the same price.

If you're now making do with ordinary motor oil, you'll pay about $3.60 a year more—less than a penny a day extra—assuming you drive at about the national average of 10,000 miles a year, and get regular oil changes.

Quite a bargain for the one motor oil that fights additive ash and four other troubles to help prolong the life of your engine.

Brief Glimpse at the Life of Charles E. Wilson

AT CRANBROOK HALL — Sparked by an enthusiastic interest in both science and the arts, C. E. Wilson served on the board of trustees for Cranbrook Foundation from 1957 until his death. He is shown here with Henry S. Booth, executive director of the foundation in Bloomfield Hills.

IN WASHINGTON — An engineering genius under whose leadership General Motors Corp. became the world's biggest producer of war materiel during World War II, C. E. Wilson later served country as secretary of defense under President Eisenhower. Here he is seen at his desk in the nation's capital in 1953 when he assumed the post.

CONFERRING WITH TAFT—C. E. Wilson is shown conferring with the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (at left) in Washington. Listening intently to then Secretary of Defense Wilson is Detroit banking executive, Henry T. Bodman. Mr. Wilson moved into the political arena in Washington during the Korean War, leaving the top post in General Motors.

FORMAL PORTRAIT — At home, with the worries of the world's biggest corporation or the most powerful nation temporarily put aside, there were moments of pleasant relaxation for the Wilsons, and time to enjoy his children and grandchildren.

EMPHATIC — Critics accused him of suffering from "foot in mouth" disease at times, but there never was any question which side of an argument C. E. Wilson was on. The Bloomfield Township resident took to the secretary of defense post the same frankness with which he had risen to command the mighty General Motors empire.

HANDING OVER GM REINS — President of General Motors Corp. for 11 years, C. E. Wilson is seen here with his successor, Harlow H. Curtis, in the head office of the world's largest automobile manufacturer. Wilson led GM through the crucial years of World War II when the firm produced much of the nation's war materiels, leading to ultimate victory. Both in industry and in government, Mr. Wilson became known by his quick tongue and quicker smile.

This Could Be Flag Day for Cincinnati

Dodgers Play 2 Big Games at Pittsburgh

Should Reds Triumph, Los Angeles Lose One, It's All Over

By The Associated Press

A wait of more than two decades may have dwindled into the final few hours for the Cincinnati Reds. Tonight could bring them their first National League pennant since 1940.

With the magic number at two, the race is at the wire. The Reds play the Cubs at Chicago this afternoon and the Los Angeles Dodgers are slated for a twi-night doubleheader at Pittsburgh.

Any combination of two—a Cincinnati win plus a Dodger defeat, or a pair of Dodger losses—would give the NL another bust-to-boom champion, and would send the Reds into the World Series against the New York Yankees.

Cincinnati was idle Monday night while the Dodgers and Pirates were rained out, setting up their twi-nighter tonight. In other NL games, the San Francisco Giants bombed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-2 with an 18-hit offensive and the Milwaukee Braves edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1.

Cincinnati will send Bob Purkey (16-12), with either Jack Curtis (10-12) or Glen Hobbie (7-13) going for Chicago. The seventh-place Cubs have been Cincinnati's sternest opposition this year, winning 12 of 21 games with the Reds so far. After today, the Reds have two off-days before moving into Pittsburgh for a three-game windup against the Pirates, who are 9-10 vs. Cincinnati.

The Dodgers will pin their last-ditch hopes tonight on Don Drysdale (12-9) and Stan Williams (13-12) against Pittsburgh Bob Friend (14-18) and Joe Gibbon (11-10).

Tonight at Yankee Stadium Roger Maris, physically and mentally strained in his personal race with a record, will try again for home run No. 60. In the first of five games which will wrap up the season for the AL champions Maris faces Baltimore right-hander Jack Fisher tonight, then has one more crack at Oriole pitching and three games against the Boston Red Sox in which to equal or surpass Babe Ruth's total.

The Giants' free-swinging assault against the Phils was spearheaded by Orlando Cepeda and rookie catcher John Orsino.

Cepeda, on a torrid batting streak, had four hits and drove in four runs, boosting his league-leading RBI total to 140. Orsino homered twice and singled. Mike McCormick (13-16) won, and Don Ferrarese (5-11) was the loser.

The Braves saved their narrow decision over the Cards by cutting down Ken Boyer when he tried to score in the ninth on an almost-wild pitch by Don McMahon. Ray Washburn (0-1), in his first big league start, gave up a first inning homer to Hank Aaron and balked across the deciding run in the fourth. Milwaukee starter Carl Willey (6-12) collaborated on a five-hitter with McMahon.

Detroit Bats Silenced for 8 Innings by Shaw

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The Detroit Tigers lived in two different worlds last night in their twi-night doubleheader with the Kansas City Athletics.

The Tigers wrapped up second place in the American League and stretched their winning string to six with a come-from-behind 6-4 win over the A's in the first game.

In the second, however, they appeared completely baffled by the pitching of Bob Shaw who nearly picked up the first no-hitter in the history of major league ball in Kansas City.

For eight innings the ninth-place A's with Shaw in control muffled the Tigers, but the home club finally had to settle for a 6-3 win after a Detroit whirlwind finish.

Shaw's no-hitter was spoiled when Bubba Morton lined a single to center after Dick McAuliffe got on with an error by rookie Dick Howser to open the ninth. Charlie Maxwell rolled out but McAuliffe scored when George Alusik sacrificed. Larry Osborne homered scoring Morton ahead of him to finish off the Tiger scoring.

Kansas City had pounded Detroit starter Ron Kline for five runs in the fourth and fifth to hand him his ninth loss of the season against eight wins Shaw is now 12-13.

The Tigers used the big inning in the first game for their victory which gave them the best finish the Detroit club has had since 1950. It was win 97 for the Tigers, who have five left to hit the 100 mark they are shooting for.

Kansas City had a 3-1 lead going into the eighth, mostly as a result of Norm Siebern's 18th home run of the year.

Then Steve Boros doubled to start the rally, Jake Wood singled him home, Al Kaline tripled, Vic Wertz singled, Bill Bruton doubled and scored on Morton's single.

The win went to Hank Aguirre who worked one inning in relief of starter Don Mossi. Aguirre, whose wins have been hard to come by of late, is now 4-4. Jim Archer, the starter for the A's, got the loss, his 14th against nine wins.

Wayne Causey, the A's third baseman, suffered a badly bruised rib in the third inning in a collision with Wood.

It's a night contest again tonight for the Tigers and Athletics with Frank Lary (22-9) going for the Tigers and Norm Bass (9-11) for the A's.

After tomorrow night's game the Tigers have a day off before moving on to Minnesota to close out the season with a three-game stand.

Lopez Signs Contract to Boss Chisox Again

CHICAGO (AP)—Al Lopez, the only manager to crack New York Yankee pennant superiority since 1949, will pilot the Chicago White Sox for the sixth consecutive season in 1962.

Lopez, 53, signed a one year contract Monday after suffering one of the worst finishes of his managerial career. The Sox will finish fourth this year.

Last year they finished third. Previous to last season, no team managed by Lopez, a former National League catcher, had finished lower than second.

Lopez won pennants with the Cleveland Indians in 1954 and the White Sox in 1959. His one burning ambition is to manage a team to a world championship, something he failed to achieve in 1954 and again in 1959.

In signing Lopez to what is believed to be a $50,000 contract, General Manager Ed Short said, "I am delighted that Al has decided to remain with the White Sox. I consider him the best manager in baseball and I hope he stays with us a long, long time."

Reports were that the New York Mets and the Baltimore Orioles were interested in Lopez' service as manager. However, Lopez said neither club had approached him.

Although the Sox are 20 games off the pace in the American League race, Lopez feels his club can be a solid contender in 1962.

"I was disappointed this season," he said, "I thought we had a much better club. With a little luck and some pitching help we'll be in fine shape next year."

Lopez plans to rebuild the Sox pitching staff around Juan Pizarro, 24, Frank Baumann, 28, and Ray Herbert, 31. He also indicated a complete revamping of the bullpen.

From The PRESS BOX

Six scouts have quit the Kansas City Athletics adding to the club's troubles of recent weeks. Most of them indicated they were unhappy with operational policies. Their authority had been reportedly curtailed by the management.

National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle sounded two notes of cheer yesterday. The 1st concerned permission granted by Congress to make TV contracts with networks and the other was about loop balance "that we anticipated." All but three of 14 teams have one or more games, nine games have been decided by seven points or less and attendance is excellent.

Alex Salerno of the Pacific Coast League was purchased by the American League Monday and will begin as a big league umpire at a doubleheader in Boston today. Texas loop owners voted today to discontinue post-season playoffs against the Mexican League.

India Favored in Cup Play

NEW DELHI (AP)—The captain of the U.S. Davis Cup team said today America's chances look about even in the interzone tennis finals against India this weekend.

David L. Freed, non-playing captain of the Americans, said India possibly should have a little edge because its star, Ramanathan Krishnan, is the best singles player on the two teams.

"But our average ability may be a little higher, so it works out about even," Fred said today.

Indian editors report the odds among Delhi's back alley bookmakers slightly favor India.

The U.S. team is led by Chuck McKinley, 20-year-old Trinity University sophomore who lost to Australia's Rod Laver in the Wimbledon finals this year. Krishnan lost to Laver in the Wimbledon semi-finals and later at Stockholm he dropped a decision to McKinley when the Indian was having trouble with his service.

Wednesday the Americans will have their first chance to try the court on which the matches begin Saturday. This court is being specially prepared with hopes of smoothness to prevent erratic play.

Griffith Fights Ex-Champ Paret Saturday Night

By The Associated Press

Emile Griffith, a knockout puncher since he won the world welterweight boxing title, takes on ex-champ Benny (Kid) Paret in a title rematch Saturday night at Madison Square Garden in New York. Griffith stopped Paret in the 13th round to win the title April 1 at Miami Beach.

It will be the second defense for Griffith, who stopped Gaspar Ortega in the 13th at Los Angeles, June 3. Griffith, 23, has a 25-2 record. Paret, 24, has a 33-10-2 record. Each has nine knockouts but Griffith never has been stopped. Paret has failed to finish twice.

A crowd of 6,000 is expected to pay $20,000 to see the 15-round match in the Garden. The fight will be carried on network (ABC) television at 9 p.m. (EST). Each fighter gets 30 per cent of the gate and the $60,000 TV fee.

If Griffith wins, he probably will defend Dec. 9 at Las Vegas against Argentina's Jorge Fernandez.

Carry Back, Kelso Will Race Saturday

By The Associated Press

Airmans Guide has just about wrapped up the 1961 title for the handicap mares after a brilliant victory in the $96,000 Beldame Stakes, and this Saturday Carry Back and Kelso will tangle in what could well be the race that settles the horse-of-the-year honors.

Kelso, from Mrs. Richard C. DuPont's Bohemia Stable, was the 1960 American champion. Mrs. Jack Price's Carry Back is tops among the 3-year-olds of 1961.

Their climactic meeting will be in the $100,000-added Woodward Stakes at Belmont Park. This is a 1¼ mile affair that usually pinpoints the top horse of the year.

Yankees Lose Cerv for World Series

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees have lost a reserve outfielder and valued pinch hitter for the World Series.

Bob Cerv, who set two records last Saturday when he hit the 12th pinch-homer of his career and the Yanks' 10th of the season, entered the hospital for a cartilage operation on his right knee. He first injured the knee Aug. 9 in a game with Los Angeles when he slipped on the wet ground while chasing a foul ball. He reinjured it last Saturday at Boston while at bat just before he hit the homer.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has given the Yanks permission to replace Cerv with Jack Reed, a weak hitter but a fine defensive outfielder, brought up late in the season from Richmond of the International League.

Strong Legs Needed

NEW YORK (AP)—The power teams put on a daring exhibition of speed and stamina and three duo's shared the lead as the International Six-Day Bicycle Race at Madison Square Garden neared the midway mark Monday night.

Sharing the lead on mileage but leaders on sprint points were the Italians Fernando Terruzzi and Leandro Faggin with 184 tallies.

Tigers, Reds Show Increase

Four Other Baseball Clubs Show Declines in Attendance

NEW YORK (AP)—Six of the eight major league baseball teams which completed their home schedules last week suffered attendance declines during the 1961 season.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Detroit Tigers were the only clubs to finish ahead of their 1960 totals. The Reds, with 1,117,803 paid, had a gain of 454,117 while the Tigers, who pulled in 1,800,708 customers, were up 433,039.

The Los Angeles Dodgers wound up 449,637 under their National League record total of 2,253,887 in 1960. The other deficits were sustained by the Chicago White Sox, 498,441; San Francisco Giants, 405,677; St. Louis Cards, 241,327; Cleveland Indians, 225,438 and Washington Senators, 146,117.

The New York Yankees are the only other team certain to finish with an increase. The Yanks, with 1,657,031, already have surpassed last year's aggregate of 1,627,349. The figures compiled by The Associated Press, include Sunday's games.

Ewbank Denies Injured Finger Bothered Unitas

BALTIMORE (AP) — Did an injury force Baltimore's all-pro quarterback John Unitas to call mostly running plays in Sunday's 16-15 loss to the Detroit Lions?

Coach Weeb Ewbank says not. "Outside of a sore finger, John was physically sound and his throwing was not impaired," said Ewbank.

Unitas didn't pass nearly as often as he did in the average game last season. Sunday he completed 10 of 16 attempts, one of which hit Lennie Moore in the end zone for a touchdown. Another pass was intercepted.

SUGAR LANDS ONE—Sugar Ray Robinson, left, lands a right to the body of Wilfie Greaves last night on the way to a split decision triumph over the Canadian at Detroit's Convention Arena. The five-time champ showed only flashes of his one-time greatness.

Robinson's Shadow Decisions Greaves

DETROIT (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, at 41 just a spurting shadow of a great champion, wants to wear the middleweight crown once more.

And forgetting his age, he's in no great hurry about it. Nor is he particular about which version of the championship he fights for —just as soon as he's ready.

The five-time former middleweight king launched another of his many comebacks Monday night and earned a 10-round split decision over aggressive Wilfie Greaves.

Robinson got off the canvas after a low blow in the eighth round to notch his first victory in nearly 18 months.

As soon as he's ready, he said he'd like to fight Gene Fullmer, NBA champion who defeated him last March, or Terry Downes of England. Downes is recognized as the champion in New York, Massachusetts and Europe.

"I have no preference," said Robinson, after his first fight in six years in his native city. "It's the title I want back and I don't care who I have to fight to get it."

Robinson hadn't fought since he was decisioned by Fullmer. Before that the two battled to a draw in December.

"I'm certainly not ready yet to fight for the championship," Robinson said, weary after his close victory over Greaves, claimant to the Canadian Middleweight Championship.

Robinson is signed to fight Denny Moyer in New York's Madison Square Garden Oct. 21.

Judge Nick Thimmesch awarded the fight to Robinson 47-46. Judge Al Goodman favored Robinson 46-44. Referee Lou Handler voted for Greaves 45-44. The AP scored it 48-44 under Michigan's five-point must system for Robinson.

Robinson put on his best flurry at the start of the ninth round, twice staggering Greaves, 11 years his junior and a pound heavier at 161½.

Sugar Ray unleashed a series of lefts and mixed in a couple of stinging right crosses that buckled Greaves' knees.

Wants NCAA to Lift Ban From Indiana

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten Commissioner Bill Reed expressed hope Monday that the NCAA would lift its ban against Indiana University, permitting the Hoosiers to compete in NCAA championship meets.

Indiana drew a four-year ban from the NCAA last year for recruiting violations. Three years of the penalty, which affects all sports, remain to be served.

The Big Ten barred the Hoosiers from the conference football title race last season, but now has restored them to good graces.

Manager Seeks Second Junior Series Crown

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Kerby Farrell of the Buffalo Bisons was halfway home today in becoming the first manager in Junior World Series history to win the title for both represented leagues.

His hard-hitting Bisons turned defensive giants Monday night to move into a 2-0 lead in the best-of-7 series with a 2-0 victory over the Louisville Colonels of the American Association.

Baugh, Harry Agree After Draft Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Sammy Baugh and owner Harry Wismer of the New York Titans have straightened out their disagreement and Baugh will continue to boss the team.

Wismer said he had heard of charges by Baugh that the club hadn't spent enough money for draft players. He claimed the Titans had the highest payroll in the American Football League.

Wismer also claimed he was particularly irritated by the fact that he knew nothing about the permanent injury suffered by his No. 2 quarterback, Dick Jamieson, last week.

"These are normal arguments that crop up in any owner-coach situation," said Wismer. "I've known Sammy for more than 20 years. We're good friends and we'll get along. He's staying. Only one thing I asked him to do when we had our talk. I asked him not to rap our team. We have a good team."

Baugh said his disagreement with Wismer was "straightened out." But refused to elaborate.

Shaw Laments Use of Slider Against Tigers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"I like to throw the slider but tonight I should have left it home," says Bob Shaw.

It was a slider that Bubba Morton drilled into center field for a single in the ninth inning Monday night, ending a no-hit bid by Shaw against the Detroit Tigers.

All three Detroit hits came off sliders that "didn't do just right," Shaw commented after his great effort.

"No I didn't get tired," he said. "In fact I felt real good starting the ninth. Then I let that slider go and—bang—Morton hits it into center field. And that was the first pitch too."

Shaw said he was well aware that he had a no-hitter working.

"Oh yeah, you know what's going on out there," he said. "Don't let anybody kid you about that. And after that first hit, well, I guess I kind of let down a little bit."

Rain Forces Session With Movies

Weather Hampers 'M'

From Our Wire Services

ANN ARBOR — The weatherman isn't helping Michigan coach Bump Elliott get his squad in shape for Saturday's curtain raiser against highly-touted UCLA.

Heavy rains yesterday forced Elliott to limit his afternoon workout to the field house, with only a few minutes outdoors. This was followed by movies of Saturday's scrimmage and the UCLA-Air Force game.

Heavy rains on Saturday also forced UCLA to keep its passing attack under wraps, thereby denying U-M scouts the chance to see how the Uclans throw the ball in their single wing attack.

In the 19-6 victory over the Air Force, Bobby Lee Smith — the 189-pound heir to Billy Kilmer's tailback job — scored all three Bruin touchdowns on the ground.

"He's a good one," said Elliott. "We know how he can run. We'd like to know how he passes — but we'll just have to do some guesswork."

Wolverine halfback Ben McRae, who did not dress for Saturday's scrimmage because of a sore toe, was back in uniform Monday and indications are he will be ready to face the Uclans on Saturday.

Dave Glinka, 196-pound junior from Toledo, Ohio, once again is ready to quarterback the Wolverines through another football season.

Glinka, first sophomore quarterback at Michigan since Forest Evashevski in 1935, was expected to have quite a bit of help this fall, but injuries have left the job squarely on his shoulders.

Sophomore Forest (Frosty) Evashevski, Jr., is out for the year with a knee injury and junior Bob Chandler's knee hasn't fully recovered from the injury in last year's Michigan State game. Both were supposed to provide Michigan with quarterbacking depth.

EAST LANSING — Rain forced the Michigan State Spartans inside yesterday as coach Duffy Daugherty geared his club for its Saturday opener at Madison against Wisconsin.

Daugherty said he was pleased with last Saturday's scrimmage performance of Carl Charon, senior halfback from Boyne City. Charon, an expected starter, had been out with a sprained ankle since Labor Day. Charon's ankle seems completely healed now, Daugherty said.

The veteran Spartan mentor also said he was pleased with the development of Earl Lattimer, sophomore halfback from Dallas, Tex. Lattimer picked up five first downs and scored once in 16 carries in Saturday's workouts.

State's intelligence report reflects the greatest respect for Wisconsin.

Assistant coach Vince Carillot scouted the Badgers in their spring game and also in the 7-0 win over Utah Saturday.

Carillot said he was particularly impressed by the passing combination of quarterback Ron Miller and end Pat Richter.

"They operated well under unfavorable conditions," he said, "a wet field and rain throughout most of the game."

Carillot said he thought, however, that Wisconsin was looking past the Utah game for the opening of Big Ten play against Michigan State.

Carillot gave his scouting report to the Spartan squad last night.

The team worked out only briefly in a limbering up session. Daugherty has said hitting is out for the week.

DETROIT — The University of Detroit suffered the loss of another starter for Friday night's encounter here with Xavier University of Ohio.

Ron Read, a 202-pound junior guard from Flint St. Michael's who was injured in the Titans 21-24 win over Western Michigan, was lost to UD for the Xavier game, a spokesman said.

Ed Greeves, 210-pound junior guard from Washington, D.C., is expected to replace Read in the lineup.

Other injuries in the Titan camp include Bob Laporte, sophomore halfback from Wyandotte St. Patrick and Joe Henze, senior tackle from Detroit St. Catherine.

NFL Linemen No Different

Etcheverry Knocked Out in Game With Cleveland Last Sunday

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sam Etcheverry, the Canadian import now quarterbacking the St. Louis Cardinals, said Monday he's no more of a target for opposing linemen than any other quarterback.

And, added the bouncing Basque, that goes for the National Football League, as well as the Canadian League, where he starred for nine years with the Montreal Alouettes.

The subject of zeroing in on quarterbacks came up when the 31-year-old Etcheverry was knocked senseless Sunday in the Cards' 20-17 loss to the Browns at Cleveland. He was felled by a heavy Browns' charge early in the third quarter.

"He was completely knocked out when I got to him," said Cards' trainer Jack Rockwell. "He regained his senses quickly, but he couldn't put things together for a while."

"I was just knocked out of my senses, that's all," said Etcheverry.

Etcheverry's verdict after two NFL games:

"The defenses are much stronger in the NFL than in Canada. The secondary is quicker. The players on the average are bigger, on both offense and defense."

Athletics' Boss Wants Apology From Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, says an apology should be made to him over a bauble with a sports writer.

Finley made a "poison pen award" to Ernest Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, at a game Aug. 20 after Mehl had criticized Finley's handling of the ball club.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick on Aug. 23 told The Associated Press in New York:

"Such things do not belong in baseball and I called Mehl this morning and apologized to him, both personally and in the name of baseball."

Finley has sent a 20-page letter, dated Sept. 5, to Frick requesting the commissioner to withdraw that apology.

Flint Team Wins Davisburg Event

Flint's Gene Hunt, Michigan State varsity golfer who won the State Publinx crown in 1959 at Rochester, and teammate Charles Johnson, also from Flint, combined to win Davisburg Golf Club's annual Invitational Best Ball tournament over the weekend. A record entry of 52 teams competed in the tourney.

Jim Anderson, assistant plant manager at Fisher Body, and Joe Petroff, also of Pontiac, took 3rd place. Anderson and Petroff were City Best Ball champs last year. The Detroit tandem of Kowalski and Smith finished 2nd.

The event also produced Davisburg's first hole-in-one of the year. John Jawor, brother of Rockham pro Chet, aced the 147-yard 7th hole with an 8-iron. It was the 2nd ace in two weeks for Jawor, who lives in Detroit.

Ruth Tops All Sluggers

M-M Boys Also Rans in Home Run Averages

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK —Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle are undoubtedly the outstanding home run hitters of 1961, but on a lifetime per at bat basis the New York Yankee sluggers are among the also rans.

Babe Ruth, whose 60 homers Maris will attempt to surpass during the Yanks' final five games, had 714 lifetime homers in 8,399 times at bat for an average of one home run in each 11.8 official try.

Maris, with 59 homers this year, has 156 in 2,450 total at bats for an average of one homer in every 15.7 trips. Mantle has 54 homers this season and a lifetime aggregate of 374 in 8,519 attempts for a 14.7 average.

Ralph Kiner is second to Ruth with a homer in each 14.1 times at bat. The former Pittsburgh star had 369 circuit blows in 5,205 official trips. Mantle is third followed by Ted Williams 14.8 and Jimmy Foxx 15.2. Williams had 521 circuits in 7,706 at bats and Foxx had 534 homers in 8,134 official plate appearances.

Hank Greenberg, who had 331 homers in 5,193 trips, had an average of one homer in each 15.7 efforts. Then come Lou Gehrig 16.2, Johnny Mize 18.0, Mel Ott 18.5 and Joe DiMaggio 18.8.

Neither Maris nor Mantle lead in number of homers per official time at bat among the active players with 100 or more home runs. The pace-setter is Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins, who has 128 lifetime circuits in 1,750 at bats for a 13.7 average. Rocky Colavito of Detroit is next with 208 homers in 2,961 tries for a 14.3 average. Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews is behind Mantle's 14.7 with a 14.8 mark on 388 home runs in 5,448 official trips.

Milwaukee's Eddie Maris' 59 homers in 577 times at bat this season gives him an average of one home run in each 9.8 appearance. Mantle has a 9.5 average. When Ruth had 60 in 1927 he went to bat 540 times and homered for an average of 9.0.

The Bambino put together the best homer-per-time at bat record in 1920 when he walloped 54 in 458 at bats for an 8.5 mark.

Greenberg had a 9.6 average in 1938 when he slammed 58 homers while Foxx had a 10.1 mark in 1932 when he also connected 58 times. Other leading averages were compiled by Kiner in 1949 10.2, Mantle in 1956 10.3, Willie Mays in 1955 11.4 and Mize in 1947 11.5.

Figures NFL Champion Will Lose Four Games

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Don Kellett, general manager of the Baltimore Colts, says the National Football League teams "are so evenly matched" that he thinks it would be possible for a club to lose four games and still win the Conference championship.

"It will be a great surprise to me if anyone says any team can continue with victories all the way," Kellett told Monday's kick-off luncheon of the new Touchdown Club of Philadelphia.

Married Student Appeals Ban

Court to Hear Grid Case

LANSING (UPI)—The State Supreme Court yesterday agreed to hear an appeal from a Bay City student who was denied a chance to play high school football because he was married.

In agreeing to hear the appeal of Sherwin Schnell, the high court set the stage for a ruling on a point of law which it ducked the first time the question came up.

Schnell, 16, was kicked off the Bay City Central football team when school officials learned he was married.

He also was denied the right to take part in band and other extra-curricular activities under a rule of the Bay City School Board which prohibits married students from participating in such affairs.

A young married couple who sued the Mesick School Board in a similar case some time ago graduated from school before the high court ruled on whether being denied the opportunity to participate in extra-curricular affairs was a violation of their rights.

Since Schnell was only an eighth grader at the time of his marriage, there appeared ample time for high court action in his case.

Schnell and his wife, Kay, were married March 19, 1960, and he was ruled off the Bay City Central freshman team in the fall. The couple now has a child. Schnell, who brought the suit in conjunction with his father, William, said barring him from playing football interfered with his plans to become a coach after graduation.

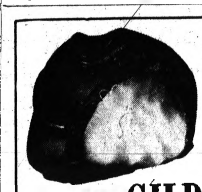

High court aides said the earliest that a ruling on the case could be expected was some time next year.

State Pitcher Signs With Minnesota Club

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Twins announced the bonus signing Monday of Alfred Mantei, Benton Harbor, Mich., high school pitching ace who hurled four successive no-hit games to round out a 12-0 season record.

The Twins did not state a figure but said the bonus involved was "considerable," and added that all major league clubs were after Mantei.

Mantei, who reports next spring to Fort Walton Beach, Fla., in the Alabama-Florida league, is 18, stands 6-1, weighs 200 and is left handed all the way.

you're being asked to "think big, think compact and think small."

For 1962

"Think Hard"

By GEORGE ROMNEY, President, American Motors Corporation

In the 1962 car announcements there will be so many names, models and sizes, that people will be confused.

You will be asked to "think big, or think compact, or think small" as to the size or kind of car you really need.

We recommend, instead, that you "Think Hard."

Think hard about the things you want most in your next car.

Then look hard.

Look for most value. There are more than 100 improvements in the 1962 Ramblers. See how many of these advances are missing in competitive cars.

With our workers as progress-sharing partners, you can expect superior craftsmanship in Ramblers. American Motors' company-wide objective is to make trouble-free Ramblers a symbol of American industrial integrity and honesty... to make Rambler quality superior to that of even far costlier cars built anywhere in the world.

To accomplish this, we are sharing our progress with customers. Because to continue our growth we know we have to give you an obviously better value in product and in price.

How can Rambler give you more than the "Big Two"? It's a matter of dollars and cents.

Every completely new car in the past three years including the Lincoln Continental and Thunderbird has copied Rambler's modern principle of Single-Unit construction.

To convert from old-fashioned separate body-and-frame production lines to single-unit production requires hundreds of millions of dollars for retooling.

Our modern production lines have already been fully paid for. Therefore, we can spend our money to bring you important new benefits and keep our prices low. The records show that our two major competitors have increased prices on their low priced standard models about 50% more than Rambler in the period from 1955 to 1961.

This is one way in which Rambler has been sharing progress with customers.

We must be offering an obviously better value, for in just 12 months, 278,494 owners—of all makes, in all price ranges—switched to Rambler.

Rambler owners—new and old—say they are going to buy Rambler again. In owner loyalty, Rambler continues its big lead over ALL makes of cars — DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN, REGARDLESS OF PRICE—according to a recent survey for a national magazine.

With Rambler-pioneered Single-Unit construction, Rambler owners can keep their cars longer with fewer worries about rattles, rust and cost.

Rambler is the only U.S. car with Deep-Dip rustproofing clear to the roof. The only car with Ceramic-Armored muffler and tailpipe. For the original buyer, it will be replaced free by a Rambler dealer if it ever rusts out (collision damage excepted).

For 1962, we have spend huge sums of money . . . largely for "under-the-skin" improvements which assure longer car life, greater safety, lower upkeep, more trouble-free, service-free driving; easier handling, better performance and superior comfort.

In the 1962 Ramblers you will find a Double-Safety Brake System, standard. It has a tandem master cylinder. One for front brakes. One for rear brakes. If one system is damaged, the other still works. (There are similar systems on Rolls-Royce, Jaguar and '62 Cadillac.) And self-adjusting brakes that compensate for brake lining wear are also standard.

You will find chassis lubrication on most models that lasts 33 times longer. Many parts are lubricated for life.

In all models, Dowgard Full-Fill Engine Coolant replaces both water and anti-freeze at low cost, and is good for 2 years.

There's much, much more—important improvements "under-the-skin" and in exterior and interior beauty.

October 6th is the 1962 Rambler announcement date. It is well worth waiting for. In the meantime send for a free booklet entitled, "What's New In Rambler For '62—And Why." Then "Think Hard." Rambler's better value can save you hundreds of dollars. Write to: Rambler Booklet, Dept. 2, Box 531, American Motors Sales Corp., Detroit 32, Michigan.

Untested Iowa Voted Best in Nation

By The Associated Press

Iowa, which doesn't open its season until Saturday, was voted the top college football team in the country today in the first regular-season Associated Press weekly poll.

The national panel of 48 sports writers and sportscasters gave the Hawkeyes, who tangle with California in their opener, 343 points to 332 for second-place Mississippi and 309 for third place Ohio State, another outfit that doesn't get rolling until Saturday.

The points were based on the formula of 10 for first place, 9 for second and so on down the line.

Iowa, which led the pre-season poll, received 19 first place votes to 12 for Mississippi and seven for Ohio State. The Buckeyes, second to Iowa in the pre-season poll, play Texas Christian in their first game Saturday.

The rest of the top 10, in order, included Alabama, Syracuse, Texas, Rice, Penn State, UCLA and Michigan State.

Mississippi's 16-0 victory over Arkansas in a nationally televised game last week obviously impressed the panel. Ole Miss was placed no better than ninth in the pre-season poll with a mere two first place votes.

Two members of the pre-season top 10 tumbled out of the select circle—Louisiana State and Kansas.

LSU was rated at No. 4 and, also important, was regarded as about the top team in the tough Southeastern Conference, but Rice whipped the Tigers, 16-3.

Kansas, No. 8 in the pre-season rankings, fell before TCU 17-16.

UCLA's 19-6 decision over the Air Force Academy nudged them into the No. 9 spot, while Rice skyrocketed to No. 7.

Alabama and Syracuse also gained prestige on their opening-day triumphs. The Crimson Tide trounced Georgia, 32-6 and Syracuse clubbed Oregon State 19-8. That pushed Alabama up to No. 4, just a shade behind Ohio State, with 307 points, and Syracuse to No. 5 with 233 points.

The top 10 teams (first place votes in parentheses):

1.	Iowa (19)	343
2.	Mississippi (12)	332
3.	Ohio State (7)	309
4.	Alabama (2)	233
5.	Syracuse	233
6.	Texas (1)	227
7.	Rice (2)	220
8.	Penn State (2)	195
9.	UCLA	95
10.	Michigan State	31

Other teams receiving votes: Missouri, Baylor, Georgia Tech, Texas Christian, Penn, Kansas, Florida, Maryland, Louisiana State, Duke, Minnesota, Oregon, Pitt, Kansas State, Auburn, Notre Dame, Army, Wyoming, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Utah, Colorado, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Utah State, Furman, California.

Classroom Bow Hunters Take Learning to Woods

Archers attending The Pontiac Press Bow Hunting school will get a chance to put class room learning to practical use starting Sunday.

The Michigan bow and arrow season for deer opens that day and runs until Nov. 5.

But first, the "students" must attend one more session. Herman Haedicke of Imlay City, district director for the Department of Conservation, will appear at the Wednesday evening session.

He will discuss laws covering bow hunting, including some of the finer points, and also touch on archery hunting in general. Haedicke will have a department bow hunting expert at the session.

Those attending the 7-9 p.m. session at the Oakland Sportsmen's Club will see Fred Bear kill a grizzly bear on film. The nationally known Grayling archery equipment manufacturing took the big animal in Alaska.

Plenty of practice at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club indoor range is planned for those attending. The target practice was one of the highlights of last week's session. The OCSC grounds are located in Waterford.

A $1 registration fee for adults will be charged and 50 cents for youngsters under 15 years of age who must be accompanied by an adult.

Many of those attending the school plan to head north this weekend. A few have indicated they will hunt near home. This will be the big test of the schooling period.

Bay City Teams Rated 1-2 in Poll

By the Associated Press

Bay City seized the spotlight in the young Michigan high school football season today. The city's two Class A schools, Central and Handy, were ranked one-two in the state after the second weekend of the season.

Central (2-0), a 13-0 victor over Pontiac Central Friday, edged city-rival Handy (2-0) by two points in the Associated Press' second poll of the season. Michigan sports writers and sportscasters voted Flint Central third and dropped last week's Class A leader, Lansing Sexton, to fourth after it eked out a 7-0 triumph over Lansing Everett.

Handy moved up from eighth to take second away from Midland, which it upset 13-6.

Class B also underwent a general reshuffling with Kalamazoo University High and Manistee both 2-0, taking over the tied first spot. Sturgis, last week's No. 1 team in Class B, fell out of the top ten, the result of a 6-0 loss to Albion.

Dowagiac and Bad Axe were tied for third in Class B.

The poll results on the basis of 10 points for a first place vote, 9 for a second on down through one point for a 10th place vote:

Team, Record	Poll Pts.
1. Bay City Central (2-0)	78

Popularity of Boating Clubs Is on Increase

Man has a natural desire to be with others. This probably explains the remarkable growth of outboard boating clubs throughout the country. Novice boaters, as well as seasoned veterans, are finding that membership affords them the opportunity to enjoy their boating more fully.

Most members are attracted by the many social activities the club offers. The well organized group will have something planned for every week end during the season as well as several special events throughout the entire year.

Group cruising is one of the most popular activities, for it gives the members a chance to visit unique waterways they would probably never see on their own.

Picnics are always a favorite as they provide an opportunity to get acquainted and to swap stories and ideas. Most clubs also feature such things as water skiing parties, twilight cruises and fishing derbies.

Boating clubs are more than just "fun clubs," however. They have, as their prime objective, the furthering and betterment of outboard boating.

This often takes the form of active club support either for or against various proposals that come up. Such matters as current legislation, tax situations, proposed facilities and the like are discussed and an appropriate course of action is decided.

Organized clubs are quite influential in helping to set boating policies on local and state levels. More directly, they are often responsible for the construction of public launching ramps and docks in their immediate area.

The Evinrude Boating Foundation suggests that all boaters look into these clubs. For the novice, they offer a chance to learn boating fundamentals. This includes everything from common sense afloat rules to the mechanical aspects of boat operation. Membership allows new and experienced boaters alike, the opportunity to meet new people with similar interests and to enjoy the sport together.

Most clubs hold monthly meetings where current business is discussed and entertainment, such as boating movies or guest speakers, is featured. Plans are laid for coming cruises and activities. Many people have found that club membership extends their boating through the entire year.

Even if they cannot be on the water, they can be making plans and talking boating.

While some clubs prefer not to affiliate, most are associated with some national or state group. The Outboard Boating Club of America serves as the parent organization for many clubs.

This national organization is helpful in getting clubs started and in providing them with much useful information on current events significant to boating. In addition to the OBC, as it is most often referred to, many clubs are members of state and regional boating associations.

Chlebek Passes Broncos Ahead

KALAMAZOO (AP)—The accurate right arm of Ed Chlebek has put the Western Michigan quarterback atop the mid-American conference's all-games passing standings.

In two games, the Bronco passer has connected on 14 of 25 attempts for 225 yards and three touchdowns. Western Michigan's Bob White is third in the MAC's rushing figures with a 3.9 average on 110 yards in 28 carries.

Western Michigan ranks second in the seven-team loop in team offense and sixth in team defense.

Dennis Holland of Western is tied for the lead in scoring with teammate Karl Toth and two others. All have 12 points.

Bob Differs From Rob

By The Associated Press

There are a couple of guys on UCLA's football team named Smith that cause mailmen all sorts of misery. One's name is Bob, the other Rob.

There's a difference on the gridiron. The Smith named Bob will beat you single handedly.

He did it against the Air Force last Saturday night, scoring all of his team's points in a 19-6 victory. Next in line this Saturday is Michigan's Big Ten Wolverines.

Harvard lost its fourth halfback this year when Hank Hatch, the team's fastest runner, was confined to the infirmary with infectious mononucleosis. South Carolina end Conley Taylor will be lost for most of the season after a knee operation, the result of an injury in Saturday's game against Duke.

Jim Bailey moved into Indiana's No. 1 fullback slot while Minnesota expected to have halfbacks Bill Munsey and Dave Mulholland ready for front-line duty against Missouri on Saturday.

Kansas Coach Jack Mitchell made two changes in his first team, moving Hugh Smith back to left halfback for Lee Flachsbarth and putting Benny Boydston at right end for Mike Deer.

John Richey, SMU's barefoot kickoff man, became a Mustang's first-string fullback and Lewis Albright took over as No. 1 left halfback for Billy Gannon on the basis of their play against Maryland.

Halfback Ernie Davis sprained one ankle and injured the other in Syracuse's victory over Oregon State and joined No. 2 quarterback Walt Sofsian on the injured list. However, Davis will be ready for the West Virginia game this weekend, while Sofsian, with a rib fracture, is out for three weeks.

PYC Holds 'White Cap' for Lightning Boats

The Pontiac Yacht Club on Cass Lake held its "White Cap" Regatta for Lightning Class sail boats this last weekend. Forty-six sail boats participated in three races. Variable winds challenged the sailors.

Saturday night dinner was served on the front lawn of the club. A dance followed with the Michigan Baroque Philharmonic providing the music.

This year, as in the past nine years, trophies were given to each entering skipper for his final position. Five silver bowls were presented to the five top skippers and a perpetual trophy to the winner.

In first place was Ken Lindsey of Grand Traverse Yacht Club. The crew was his son Ken Jr. and wife Alice.

Other positions:

2nd. George Nickels of Lake Fenton Yacht Club. Crew: Father, Herm Nickels, Joan Martin.

3rd. Jim Coggan of Gull Lake Yacht Club. Crew: Brother, Don Coggan and Dick Elwell.

4th., Andy Roualet Jr. of Pontiac Yacht Club. Crew: Dave Davies and Jerry Walker.

5th. Bud Nelson of Toledo Yacht Club.

Dorow Still Leader Among AFL Passers

DALLAS (AP)—Leaders held on in statistics of the American Football League last week but Paul Lowe of San Diego, No. 1 in rushing, was in grave danger of being supplanted.

Lowe had a poor day against Houston Sunday and now shows only 195 yards in 47 carries for a 4.1 average. Jack Spikes of Dallas moved within 15 yards of him although carrying only 16 times.

A fantastic mark has been compiled by Elbert Dubenion of Buffalo, who has carried only four times but averaged 29.5.

Al Dorow of New York stayed out front in passing. He has completed 48 of 95 for 584 yards and nine touchdowns. Ed Songin of Boston is second with 25 of 54 for 425 yards.

Definition Covers Broad Field

Tells Executives How to Advance

CHICAGO (UPI) — If you don't know whether you're an executive, ask Richard D. Gleason.

But be prepared to shell out $500 for his services. Gleason makes a business of telling executives how to get bigger and better jobs. If he counts you an executive, you're a potential client, unless you're a woman.

Gleason gave up promoting the careers of female executives years ago as a job too difficult.

"For every 20 women I used to interview, only one bought my services," he complained. The rest balked at the $500 fee. It's for helping you develop objectives, showing you how to use your head and bolstering your confidence, among other things.

HAS BROAD DEFINITION

Gleason has a broad definition of an executive. His services are available to foremen, office managers, safety directors, purchasing agents, writers and sales trainees.

One young man of the idea he was an up-and-coming executive was at the time assigned to measure the engineering department of a plant on his hands and knees.

"Unusual assignments are often the first sign that you're a "heavy" and management has plans for you," Gleason said.

Another sign you're an executive, by Gleason's reckoning, is when they stop paying you overtime.

Matter of fact, the money you make has little bearing on your executive status, according to Gleason. He said too many young men underestimated their positions by thinking they had to crash the $10,000 barrier to be considered an executive.

"It's what you make for the company, not what you take home, that makes you an executive," he said.

Gleason differentiates between an executive and an administrator. An executive makes profits and policy decisions, while an administrator only supervises people. Like Gleason's wife, Beverly, an administrator may run the office, "but I'm the executive in this outfit," he said.

Gleason has found the average wife knows her husband is an executive before he does.

"You can depend on a woman, too, to know executive material," he said. "When she starts to nag a man, he probably needs it."

You're an executive by your co-workers' standards when you start to step on their toes a little, Gleason said. "The next step is when they start coming to you for advice."

It's harder to say when your neighbors start to think of you as an executive, according to Gleason. He hasn't made the grade in the suburb where he lives . . . You have to have a power mower.

Fastest Growing Part of Economy

Labor Costs Take 40 Cts. From Dollar

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Services are the fastest growing portion of the economy and today take about 40 cents of every dollar consumers spend. They have provided the biggest increase in the number of jobs. Also they have accounted for much of the rise in the cost of living.

Indications that consumers will pay more than $140 billion this year for all types of services leave some businessmen far from happy. They are the makers of hard goods, like autos and appliances, and the merchants who sell both hard and soft goods.

Their worry: If the consumer spends more and more on services, there is less of his spendable dollar left to go for goods.

But many of the services owe their very being to making and sale of these goods. For example, when you buy a home appliance you please some utility company as well as the merchant and the appliance makers.

INSTALLATION, REPAIR

You'll be using the services of someone to install the appliance, and in time you're likely to use a repair man. Also you may need the services of a financing company and an insurance company when you buy a car or a major appliance.

There's another side to it, as noted today by the economics department of the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York. When you buy an appliance you may be cutting down on the need of some services. Example: The declining importance of domestic service workers. Or when you buy a car, you may cut further into the need for intercity rail and bus transportation.

PRICE RISE VARIES

Since 1946 consumer prices as a whole have gone up 52 per cent while the average rise in the service component has been 65 per cent. Department of Labor statistics show a wide variance in the rise of service prices in the last 14 years. Electricity rates on average have risen 11 per cent, while the cost of a hospital room has gone up 205 per cent.

But better care has accompanied higher hospital charge, the bank economists point out. And productivity in the utility and telephone industries have improved more than in any other sector of the economy except agriculture.

Commerce Department figures show Americans spent $19.6 billion last year for household operation, including electricity, phone, gas and water charges, domestic service and miscellaneous expenses.

Another $20.6 billion went for interest paid on nonmortgage debt, life insurance, legal, investment and bank fees.

HOSPITAL HIGHEST

Medical service accounted for $16.2 billion. Outlays for hospital care went up most, followed by payments for medical insurance.

Transportation took $10.5 billion recreation $6.4 billion; personal appearance $6.1 billion; religion and welfare $4.7 billion; private education $4.5 billion; and foreign travel $2.6 billion.

In the last 14 years the fastest growing item was interest on nonmortgage debt. This was due to rising spending on consumer durables and the increase in interest rates.

Private education took the second biggest jump in the 14 years. The bank economists give as the reasons: "The rise in the number of school age children, the greater importance placed on education by more highly educated parents, the current needs of business, and the greater ability to finance education."

Stocks Active, Jump Smartly

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rebounded smartly early this afternoon from Monday's sharp decline. Trading was quite active.

Gains of key stocks ran mostly from fractions to about a point while some of the "growth" stocks, which have taken severe losses recently, recouped several points.

Brokers saw it as a technical recovery. Stock was bought by traders at what they regarded as "oversold" levels. Buying was heavy in the early stages but then tapered off as the prices slipped below their levels. Obviously, some quick profits were being taken.

The recovery was fairly unanimous except for aluminums and steels, both affected by price situations in their industries—aluminums by a further price cut and steels by administration hostility to an advance in steel prices.

Death Notice

IVAN E. SENTERS

Ivan E. Senters, a superintendent out of the afternoon shift at Fisher Body Division, died this morning at Pontiac General Hospital. He had suffered a heart attack at his home a few hours earlier.

Mr. Senters, 58, of 51 Wenonah Drive started at Fisher Body as a metal finisher. He was a supervisor in the body-in-white department for 26 years, and was made a general foreman in 1949.

He was a member of First Methodist Church, Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and Roosevelt Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Senters leaves his wife Marjorie, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Senters, Jacksonville, Fla., a daughter, Mrs. Robert Peterson, Ridgewood, N.J., a granddaughter, a sister, and two brothers.

Service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Grains Sell Mixed, Soybean Prices Dip

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures sagged more than a cent a bushel on most deliveries today in early dealings on the board of trade, while the grains sold generally in a mixed range.

The pressure in soybeans was linked, brokers said, with a sharp pickup the past day or two of new crop marketings. Receipts Monday were the largest of the season and indications were that they also were going in good volume direct to processing plants.

Commercial buying was slow all around during the first several minutes and limited mainly to scattered export business.

Third Man Is Arrested on Swindle Charge Here

A third magazine salesman is in the Oakland County jail charged with fraud in connection with the alleged $20,000 swindle of an Oakland Township financier.

Thomas Duncan, 22, of North Hollywood, Calif., called the local prosecutor's office yesterday saying he was in Chicago en route to Detroit.

A state police detective was at Metropolitan Airport to pick him up on his arrival. Duncan had been released on bond from jail in Los Angeles where he had been held pending extradition to Michigan.

Duncan is the third member of a five-man ring lodged in Oakland County Jail for allegedly bilking Frank R. Cook, 89, of 1860 Dutton Road, out of some $2,000 over a period of three months.

Today Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland ordered two years probation and 90 days in the county jail for Melvin Powers, 21, formerly of St. Louis, who pleaded guilty Sept. 11 to taking money under false pretenses.

According to Romeo State police, Cook said he paid out the money believing he was buying stock in a magazine subscription firm.

He told police he bought the magazines from the quintet to be sent to veterans hospitals and charitable institutions.

DO-IT YOURSELF DRY CLEANING — A new automatic dry-cleaning machine is a feature of the Wash King Laundry and Dry Cleaners, 1134 Baldwin. Coin Operated Machine Co. of Lowell installed the machine. Operation is similar to that of laundromats: clothes are placed inside and coins inserted. The machine starts cycles automatically. Owner Joseph Fifa reports the two baskets can handle six loads of 10 pounds within an hour.

OK to Clear Way for Highway Purchasing

Approval Sought for Two Road Pacts

Two perimeter road pacts will be placed before commissioners for approval at tonight's City Commission meeting.

City Manager Walter K. Willman will present the cooperation and contract agreements on the proposed loop road around Pontiac's central business district.

If approved by the commission and signed by Mayor Philip E. Rowntree, they will clear the way for the state to begin purchasing right-of-way for the highway.

The cooperation agreement satisfies urban renewal requirements regarding commitments of the state and city on construction of the road.

The contract agreement spells out location of the highway, road closings, and points of access as well as making official Oct. 1, 1962, as starting date for construction of the loop road.

Willman is also expected to recommend that the city purchase a strip of land behind the Detroit Edison branch office at W. Huron and Pine streets for additional access to a municipal parking lot on W. Huron Street.

City Attorney William A. Ewart has prepared three reports for tonight's agenda.

One concerns new property acquisition for urban renewal clearance. The other two are on recent rulings of the State Supreme Court lifting the immunity of cities from negligence suits and rejecting an appeal of an Oakland County Circuit Court decision regarding Pontiac's method of financing municipal parking lots.

A proposed loan from the Pontiac Employes Retirement Fund to be used for construction of the new central fire station will be up for approval, too.

Avon Man Hurt in 3-Car Crash

Emil Sell, 49, Cut and Bruised When His Auto Hit One Ahead

An Avon Township man injured in a three-car crash near his home yesterday was reported in satisfactory condition today at Avon Center Hospital.

Emil E. Sell, 49, of 233 E. Marykndll Drive, suffered cuts and bruises on his left arm and face when his car struck another in the rear on Rochester Road.

A third car was unable to stop in time to avoid crashing into the other two colliding vehicles. Both of the other drivers and their passengers escaped injury.

Sell was alone in his car when a car ahead, driven by Joseph A. Vampehell, 19, of 7524 Southfield Road, Shelby Township, stopped to make a left turn into a parking lot.

Sell, who crashed into the rear of the turning car, was unable to make any statement to sheriff's deputies.

Bernadine Nawroski, 35, of 180 Stark St., Rochester, told deputies she was unable to stop her car in time to avoid the accident ahead.

Gleaner Officials Attend Convention

Three Gleaner Life Insurance Society officials are in Cincinnati attending the annual convention of the National Fraternal Congress.

R. G. Ransford of 1711 Cedar Hill Drive, Bloomfield Township, Gleaner Life president, is immediate past president of the national fraternal insurance organization. This year he is chairman of the nominating committee.

Others attending include John W. Dressler of 5477 Van Ness Drive, Bloomfield Hills, field superintendent; and William J. DeGrace of 2113 Yorkshire, Birmingham, public relations counsel.

Episcopalians Calling for Study of Council

DETROIT (UPI)—Episcopalians today are calling on their joint commission on ecumenical relations to conduct a three-year study of the structure, program and finances of the National Council of Churches (NSS).

The house of deputies Monday voted unanimously not to sever the church's ties with the council and instead decided that the the church should "study" problems of Episcopalian relationship to the council.

The house of bishops now must concur with the deputies on the resolution not to withdraw the church from the NCC. Such concurrence on the part of the bishops is expected.

Who said investing is a man's world?
More women than men own stocks
To invest or not to invest!
The answer to this question is not easy, quick, or foolproof. There's a right way and a wrong way. First, ask yourself what you need for living expenses and emergencies. Do you have a surplus after that? This is money you might consider investing. Secondly, talk to a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative for facts and advice. Tell him what you want your money to do for you. If your goal is income during the year, you'll probably want to know about stocks with a good record of paying dividends. If you want your money to grow for future use, one thing to discuss is stocks with a reasonable chance to increase in value over the years. For greater safety of income and principal you might find your best investment in bonds. There's also a Monthly Investment Plan which lets you invest with as little as $40 every three months.
Sound interesting? It is. And it can be rewarding. But remember, nothing is for sure. Stocks can go down as well as up, and your money deserves to be treated with care. Turn a deaf ear to tipsters. Talk to Watling, Lerchen & Co.
Studies indicate that more women than men own stock. If you believe that you are one of the many women for whom investing wisely can make good sense, start right—with the help of a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative.

Romney, Others Report Finances

File Costs and Receipts for Con-Con Campaign With County Clerk

George W. Romney, now a contestant for chairman of the state constitutional convention, certified with the county clerk that in gaining his con-con seat in Oakland County he neither received nor spent any money.

However, the American Motors Corp. president was listed among those who contributed a total of $5,825 to the county Republican committee. He gave $500.

The committees report, filed by treasurer Chad M. Ritchie, showed $6,617 was spent for the seven GOP candidates, mostly on advertisements and other promotions. Six of the seven, including Romney, were elected Sept. 12.

The county Democratic committee hasn't filed its report yet.

Raymond L. King, delegate from Pontiac's 2nd legislative district, declared he spent $383 and received $247 in defeating Democrat Leslie H. Hudson who said he spent $339, and received $185 in campaign pledges, including $100 from an "Oakland County Citizenship Fund."

District 1 winner Richard D. Kuhn listed $686 in disbursements and $619 in receipts.

Ask $1.5 Million in Suit Following Actor's Death

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actor Jeff handler's death last June has resulted in a $1.5-million damage suit against six doctors and a hospital.

The suit, filed Monday, alleged negligence, malpractice, wrongful death and assault and battery. It was filed on behalf of Chandler's children and his estate.

No elaboration was made in the suit on the assault and battery allegation.

Named as defendants were Drs Marvin A. Korbin, Peter B. Samuels, Sam Galinson, Kenneth J. Richland, Alan M. Rosenberg and Milton Rosenthal, and Cedars City Hospital. Also named in the suit were 20 John Does.

"The victim was caused to die," the action said, "by the combined negligence of the defendants, or one or more of them, and it is requested that the court determine the liability of each."

Calls for Outlawing of All N-Weapons

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Peru's President Manuel Prado called Monday for outlawing of nuclear weapons under complete control and backed a single secretariat to replace the late Dag Hammarskjold.

"The atomic problem can no longer be subject to endless debates and the course of advance and retreat," Prado told the United Nations Assembly in a policy speech. "We all anxiously await that for these weapons to be outlawed. But we must have complete control."

Countess Succumbs

NEW YORK (AP) — Countess Marguerite Cassini, 79, prominent Washington social figure in the days of Presidents McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt, died Monday. The countess was born in Bucharest, a daughter of Count Cassini, Russia's ambassador to the United States. She was the mother of Oleg Cassini, dress designer, and Igor Cassini, syndicated society columnist.

Lutheran Leader Dies

HOUGHTON (AP) — Dr. Alfred Haapanen, president emeritus of the Suomi Lutheran Synod, died Sunday. He had served as president of the synod for 28 years.

LEG WORK CAN BE FUN — A hospital employe, Andrew Casby, shows how the new occupational therapy unit makes prolonged exercise more tolerable. Patients needing exercise of leg muscles can get it and do some woodwork at the same time on this pedal driven saw.

LIKE LOOMS—One of the popular crafts offered in the new Sister Kenny Occupational Therapy Unit at Pontiac General Hospital is weaving on a variety of looms. The looms, which call for both footwork and handwork, are an important means of rehabilitating handicapped patients.

Ex-Stage Star, Frank Fay, Dies

Radio, Vaudeville Comic Succumbs in California Hospital at 62

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Frank Fay, 62, former Broadway vaudeville comedian and radio star, died Monday night.

Death came at 11:55 p.m. in St. John's Hospital while he was semi-conscious. A hospital spokesman said Fay had spoken a few words to his nurse five minutes prior to his death. The nurse and a doctor were at his side.

MADE DEBUT AT 6

The spokesman said the actor suffered from an internal rupture of the abdominal aorta. He entered the hospital last Aug. 23.

Born in San Francisco Nov. 17, 1898, Fay made his stage debut at 6 with a part in "Quo Vadis?" in Chicago.

With Johnny Dyer Fay toured vaudeville circuits for years in the Dyer and Fay team. The pair frequently gave five or six performances a day. They danced and sang songs which Fay wrote. ta43 u vzyy bj26

His greatest success came in the '40s when he made a side-splitting comeback in the Pulitzer Prize-winning Broadway hit, "Harvey."

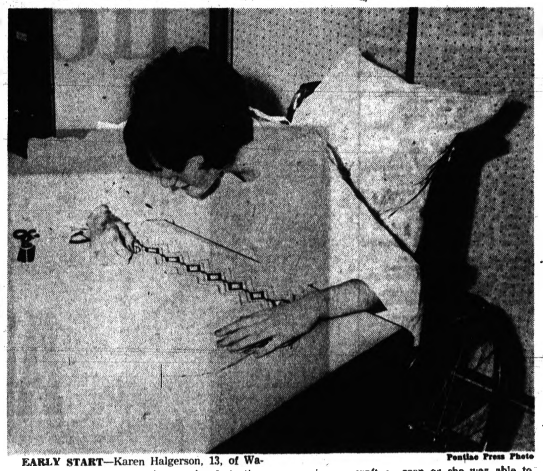

The play opened in 1944, played two years on Broadway and then went on the road with Fay still portraying Elwood P. Dowd, the captivating drunk who paled around with an invisible rabbit.

Fay first reached Broadway in musical comedy and then went on to stardom at the Palace. In 1922, he wrote, produced and acted in "Frank Fay's Fables." Throughout the '20s, he alternated between vaudeville and the theater.

Mendes-France Says De Gaulle Rule Fails

PARIS (AP)—Former Premier Pierre Mendes-France said Monday that one-man rule by President Charles de Gaulle has failed in France and that now is the time to prepare a transitional government for a new regime.

Mendes-France was one of the few French political leaders to campaign actively against the De Gaulle - sponsored constitution for the Fifth Republic. His opposition at the height of the general's popularity cost Mendes-France much of his popular support and he failed to be re-elected to his deputy's seat in 1958.

EARLY START—Karen Halgerson, 13, of Waterford Township, is a good example of starting therapy early in the recovery program of patients. Although confined to a wheelchair, she was given a craft as soon as she was able to get out of bed. An early start hastens recovery, say hospital officials. Karen is huck weaving.

LEATHER WORK—This is one form of occupational therapy that can help make a patient's adjustment to the hospital more enjoyable and hasten recovery. Isabel Aylward (left), a therapist at Pontiac General, seems to approve of the workmanship of this patient.

Dedicate Kenny Treatment Unit

Pontiac General Staff, Trustees Honored at 'Birthday' Dinner

The Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation and Pontiac General Hospital observed the birthday celebration of the late Sister Kenny last week by dedicating a new therapy unit at the hospital.

Hospital administrators, trustees and doctors honored the medical staff and board of trustees of the Kenny Foundation at a dinner at the hospital.

The event was headed by James Clarkson, executive director of First Federal Savings of Oakland and a member of the foundation's board.

Dedication of the department was specially delayed so as to coincide with the birthday celebration. The new unit was opened for operation this summer.

It is staffed, equipped and operated by the foundation. With its major purpose being to restore the handicapped person to his greatest potential, the unit will also serve as a training center for student occupational therapists.

Construction and remodeling costs were paid by the hospital.

Treatment in the OT department is usually prescribed by physicians to hasten the recovery from disease or injury and to help their patient's adjustment to his hospital stay, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

Treatment starts as soon as a patient is able to tolerate exercise. This helps him return to his old job sooner or begin training for a new vocation before he loses the ability to work or is hampered by any feelings of self-pity.

Montgomery Winds Up 'Delightful' China Trek

HONG KONG (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery returned from Communist China today and told newsmen "I had a delightful trip."

He said he had visited Inner Mongolia, North Central and South China. He conferred with Chinese Communist party leader Mao Tze-tung and other top officials.

Churchill, Wily Stalin Saw Berlin's Fate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The decision that restrained Allied armies from taking Berlin and permitted the Russians to seize that capital single-handed was a Roosevelt-Churchill decision of 1944.

Berlin was ripe to be plucked a year later in the spring of 1945. Sir Winston Churchill had realized before then that the decision of 1944 was a bad one. Churchill failed in his efforts to attract President Roosevelt's attention to this situation.

Churchill failed, also, in his efforts to persuade Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff that the military decision of 1944 should be changed for political reasons in 1945. That is the nub of dispute now over responsibility for the Soviet Union's claim of predominant authority and position in Berlin and with respect to the city's future.

Eisenhower has abruptly challenged and repudiated a State Department implication that it was his decision to permit the Russians alone to overrun Berlin. Eisenhower was unimpressed by the political implications of the Russian capture of Berlin. Neither did he regard Berlin of major military importance. In a March 30, 1945, message to the U.S. Joint Chiefs, Eisenhower restated his military plans to drive deep into Germany elsewhere.

"May I point out," Eisenhower said in this message, "that Berlin itself is no longer a particularly important objective."

Wily Josef Stalin encouraged Eisenhower in this belief. In a message to Eisenhower in late March, Stalin endorsed the supreme commander's military plans and told him:

SECONDARY FORCES

"Berlin has lost its former strategic importance. The Soviet High Command therefore plans to allot secondary forces in the direction of Berlin."

Churchill has put this Stalin blarney in its proper perspective with the following comment: "This statement (Stalin's) was not borne out by events." On the contrary, the Russians strove for and gained Berlin first. And that has led to the situation now existing in which the Berlin controversy may lead the world to all-out nuclear war. To Eisenhower on March 31, 1945, Churchill addressed a question and some related observations, as follows:

"Why should we not cross the Elbe and advance as far eastward as possible? This has an important political bearing, as the Russian armies of the south seem certain to enter Vienna and overrun Austria.

"If we deliberately leave Berlin to them, the double event (Vienna and Berlin) may strengthen their conviction, already apparent, that they have done everything."

To Roosevelt, Churchill addressed a message on April 1:

"If they also take Berlin (as well as Vienna) will not their impression that they have been the overwhelming contributor to our common victory be unduly imprinted in their minds? And may this not lead them into a mood which will raise grave and formidable difficulties in the future?"

FDR was ill and unfit to deal with this great problem of strategy. He did not understand it. This was a great victory for the Soviet Union.

Changes Mind Quick

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — J. F. Stall, superintendent of sanitation, though a bomb uncovered in digging a drainage ditch would look good outside his office. BABY'S FIRST GLASS OF MILK

his first glass of milk

Today, somewhere overseas, an underfed little boy drank his very first glass of milk. True, it was made from powdered milk, but it was good and it took him a step towards being a healthy child.

That little boy is not alone overseas. There are thousands of underfed children like him. They frequently lack clothing, a place to sleep, too.

What's being done? A great deal . . . and there's a way for you to help. America's three faiths—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—all maintain Overseas Aid Programs. These programs help millions of people with food, clothing, shelter . . . and even more—jobs, training, education, tools, equipment . . . and most of all, hope.

Next time your faith makes an appeal for help, give generously.

New kind of bran from Kellogg's

© 1961 by Kellogg Company

Kellogg's All-Bran Buds
with defatted wheat germ added

Crisp, tasty way to get the benefits you want from bran

Everything about Kellogg's All-Bran Buds is new—the flavor, the crispness, the form—even the formula is new.

Kellogg's toasts All-Bran Buds so they have unusual eating qualities. They are crisp and tender—with a sweetness all their own. And for the first time, defatted wheat germ has been added to the natural laxative properties of bran. Now you can have a truly modern cereal that promotes youthful regularity.

Whole bran, you know, is one of nature's best sources of food bulk. Just half a cup each day is effective in correcting the stubborn kind of constipation that is caused by a lack of bulk in the diet.

If you need bran, you've never had it so good. Try Kellogg's All-Bran Buds soon.

introductory offer

To make sure that you enjoy All-Bran Buds while it's new, Kellogg's will help you buy your first package of this modern laxative cereal. When the package is empty, cut the special refund offer panel off the back and send it to All-Bran Buds, P. O. Box 801, Detroit 12, Mich. We'll send you 25¢ by return mail. Allies Laud, Reds Lash Kennedy's Speech

By The Associated Press

President Kennedy's speech to the United Nations drew warm praise today from America's friends and Allies.

First Communist reaction was hostile.

Returns were awaited from the nonaligned nations, who were cast in a vital role by Kennedy. He appealed to them to help save the United Nations by working for a strong secretary general and to participate in disarmament.

The first significant neutralist comment came from Prince Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of Cambodia.

He visited Kennedy at his New York hotel and told newsmen that Cambodia adopts the same position toward disarmament as Kennedy in his speech. "With controls," he stressed.

Moscow radio and the Soviet news agency Tass reported without comment that the President had addressed the General Assembly and "dwelt on the activity of the United Nations, the question of disarmament, the so-called Berlin crisis, and the question of colonialism."

The East German news agency ADN reported at length on the portions dealing with Germany and Berlin, accusing Kennedy of deliberately distorting the Soviet position. The agency said "he spoke of U.S. willingness to negotiate without submitting any concrete proposals."

Chinese Communist reaction appeared in the Ta Kung Pao of Hong Kong, a Red newspaper which follows Peiping's line. It accused Kennedy of mouthing "empty propaganda phrases."

"He talks about peace, but it is he who prepares for war all over the world. All you have to do is compare Kennedy's words with his deeds to see that he is nothing but a hypocrite," the Red paper said.

A British Foreign Office statement said the plan "represents a realistic and practicable basis for negotiations."

An official in the Italian Foreign Ministry said: "If Kennedy's disarmament proposals should go down the drain, there would be little hope of survival left for the Western world."

Charles Wilson Dies of Heart Attack at 71

HEEDED IKE'S CALL — Charles E. Wilson is shown here in 1953 shortly after he was appointed secretary of defense by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Wilson at that time said he would "accept appointment with every determination to assist our new president in his efforts toward peace." Leaving his position as president of General Motors, Wilson sacrificed more than a million dollars in giving up stock, salary, pension and bonus rights to take the defense post.

NORWOOD, La. (UPI) — Charles E. Wilson, former president of General Motors and defense secretary in the Eisenhower administration, died in his sleep today of a heart attack. He was 71.

The body was discovered by a butler at Wilson's plantation. Mrs. Wilson was in Michigan. The body was taken to the Charlet Funeral Home in Clinton, La. A physician, Dr. C. S. Toler, said death was caused by a coronary thrombosis. Wilson had suffered a heart attack a few years ago.

Wilson had complained Monday of suffering from a slight case of indigestion. He had spent the day riding around the plantation in a jeep and puttering around his pre-Civil War house.

He retired early Monday night. An early riser, he failed to appear this morning. A butler, Glasper Nero, entered his bedroom at 8:30 a.m. (Pontiac time) and found him dead in bed, a peaceful look on his face.

Tom R. McKenzie, manager of the 4,000-acre Richland Plantation, which Wilson bought in 1954, said the butler called him from his home in the yard of the plantation.

McKenzie could tell at once he was dead and called Dr. Toler, who is the East Feliciana Parish (county) coroner.

Wilson was habitually an early riser. He normally was up before Nero arrived in the morning.

TOOK GM POST IN 1941

Wilson became secretary of defense in the Eisenhower administration on Jan. 26, 1953.

Wilson became acting president of General Motors in 1940 and president in 1941.

When he left the giant corporation to become defense secretary, it cost him more than $1 million.

He was forced to sell his stock in the company and give up his $600,000 salary plus thousands of dollars in pension and bonus rights.

He quipped that taking the $22,500 government job amounted to taking a pay cut of more than 96 per cent.

Wilson, always outspoken, became embroiled in a number of controversies while running the Defense Department.

On one occasion, he touched off a storm by allegedly remarking that "What's good for General Motors is good for the country." However, Wilson always contended he had been misquoted.

He also was criticized for brushing off the value and importance of the race to the moon by saying "What's up there anyway?"

RESIGNED IN 1957

Wilson resigned as defense secretary on Oct. 30, 1957 and was succeeded by Neil McElroy.

He was reappointed as a member of the board of General Motors but had lived in semiretirement.

He spent most of his winters in Florida and on his plantation in Louisiana and summered at Walloon Lake in Northern Michigan.

Charles Erwin Wilson was born July 18, 1890, at Minerva, Ohio. He attended elementary school there, and his family moved to the Pittsburgh, Pa., area when he was 14.

He graduated from high school at Pittsburgh and went to the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

He was graduated from Carnegie as an electrical engineer and went to work for Westinghouse.

He joined General Motors in 1919 as chief engineer and sales manager of the Dayton Engineering Laboratories Co., a GM subsidiary.

Family Man Patriot . . . C. E. Wilson

A devoted family man who gave up a fortune in auto riches to help his country in time of stress is dead.

Charles Erwin Wilson died suddenly in his sleep today at his plantation home in Norwood, La.

That was really home to the white-haired former secretary of defense and General Motors Corp. president, although he also maintained a home on Island Lake in Bloomfield Township.

"Engine Charlie," as he was sometimes known, had taken a self-imposed back seat in public life since he resigned as defense secretary under former President Eisenhower on Oct. 30, 1957.

A heart attack suffered in 1953 while on a Florida vacation slowed him down even more.

Mr. Wilson was a man of many opinions mixed with many words. Foremost for a sincere love for his country, his wife Jessie of 43 years, his children and grandchildren.

Pontiac civic leaders will probably recall back in 1956 when Mr. Wilson addressed a gathering at Elks Temple and warned about the feverish efforts his country was making in trying to keep up with Russians.

He said then he was troubled that the American people feel that they have to "beat the Russians in everything."

WAS CRITICIZED

He was once criticized for brushing off the value and importance of the race to the moon by saying "What's up there anyway?"

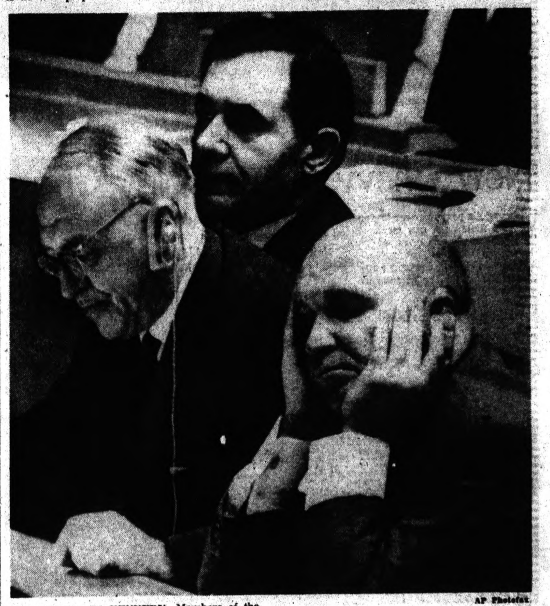

"Maybe I'm old and not as curious as I was," Wilson told a Pontiac service club in 1958, "but I think the other side of the moon is much like this one."

GM officials in Pontiac were stunned by Wilson's death.

"All of us are deeply shocked to learn of Mr. Wilson's passing," said Thomas F. Wiethorn, plant manager, Fisher Body Pontiac Division.

"He was a great industrialist

LISTENING TO KENNEDY—Members of the Russian delegation looked like this during President Kennedy's speech to the U.N. General Assembly in New York Monday. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko leaned back in his seat, U.N. Ambassador Valerian Zorin looked down at some papers, and V. S. Semenov, deputy minister for foreign affairs, cradled his head in his hands.

Ford and UAW Both Confident of Settlement

Bargaining Is Resumed After Reuther Rejects Offer as Not Enough

DETROIT (UPI) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther said today he believed it is possible to reach agreement on a national economic package with Ford Motor Co. by Thursday, well before an unofficial deadline 13 days away.

DETROIT (UPI) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union bargained today under a news blackout confident they can reach agreement on a new contract before an unofficial deadline 13 days away.

The UAW, which turned its attention to Ford Monday after settling a strike against General Motors, served notice it wants more from Ford than it got from GM.

Ford Vice President Malcolm Denise offered the union a new economic package substantially the same as the UAW-GM contract. UAW President Walter P. Reuther promptly said it didn't go far enough.

"There are many things that are not satisfactory," Reuther said. "There are several (more) things Ford can do and we're going to insist that they do." But he refused to elaborate.

This apparently was in line with a news blackout proposed by Denise and accepted by Reuther. Denise said there would be only "restricted discussion" of the talks.

A similar blackout was imposed in UAW-American Motors bargaining but none was in effect between GM and the union.

GM, meanwhile, was not expected to regain normal production for several days.

Even though two weeks of plant-level strikes officially ended Monday, a handful of key plants did not return to work and several others were closed because of parts shortages.

There were still pickets Monday at the Guide Lamp plant in Anderson, Ind., and the steering gear plant in Saginaw, Mich.

Local 561 at a key stamping plant at West Mifflin, Pa., returned to work last night on the recommendation of its president, John Mc Carrell.

However, the 1,450 members of the local did not vote on the GM pact.

Pickets withdrew Monday from the Delco-Remy plant at Anderson, Ind.

Name Birmingham Doctor Foremost Family Physician

By RALPH BUMMEL and JIM LONG

Nearly 60 years of devotion to his profession has earned for Dr. George P. Raynale, Birmingham practitioner, the honor of being named Michigan's foremost family physician of 1961.

The tribute to the 81-year-old physician was made yesterday by the Michigan State Medical Society House of Delegates at its 96th annual convention in progress at Grand Rapids.

The third generation of his family to serve the Birmingham area, Dr. Raynale set up his private practice in 1909, seven years following his graduation from the Detroit Medical College.

His internship was served at St. Mary's in Detroit, now known as Detroit Memorial Hospital. Following postgraduate studies in London, England, he returned to Michigan and spent the next two years as a company physician for a mining firm in the Upper Peninsula.

During the next five years, he was a member of the staff at Pontiac State Hospital and practiced at Harbor Beach.

Gromyko Talks Today

Russia 'to Hold Hard Line'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. delegates saw little hope today that the Soviet Union will soften its position in replying to President Kennedy's call for new negotiations on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to hold fast to the Kremlin's over-all stand on these and other international issues when he makes his policy statement before the 99-nation General Assembly today.

Western diplomats and many neutrals were impressed by Kennedy's broad new disarmament proposals to freeze nuclear weapons production and stockpiles as soon as controls can be organized.

They also were impressed by Kennedy's overtures for a Berlin settlement coupled with his blunt warning that if the Soviet Union tries to take over the divided city, the United States stands ready to use nuclear weapons.

Kennedy's challenge to the Soviet Union to join in a race for peace leading to full disarmament made no visible imprint on the Communist bloc members who sat silently while the rest of the hall applauded.

NOT HOPEFUL

Gromyko's first reaction was noncommital. Talking with newsmen outside the Soviet U.N. mission on Park Avenue he was asked if he saw any hopeful signs in the speech.

"I would not go so far," he said. "I want to study it more thoroughly."

He repeated Moscow's announced intention to sign a separate peace treaty with Communist East Germany, adding that some aspects of the speech "do not meet our objections regarding the possibility of negotiations on Germany."

Little hope was held for progress on the arms question at this stage in view of the discouraging report the Soviet Union and the United States made to the United Nations last week. The two powers disclosed complete failure to agree during three months of discussion on a way to resume the East-West negotiations.

JFK Backs Up Challenge With Arms Agency Bill

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy today follows up his challenge to the Soviets to engage in a race for peace by signing a bill setting up a new U.S. arms control and disarmament agency.

With that challenge before the United Nations clearly in mind, the President arranged to sign the bill with ceremony. The measure was passed by Congress three days ago.

The man expected to head the new disarmament agency, William C. Foster, was among government officials and private citizens invited to attend the signing. Foster is a former foreign aid administrator and assistant secretary of defense.

TO TAKE VACATION

After the signing the President will head for a six-day vacation at Newport, R.I.

Kennedy had a breakfast engagement in his suite at the uptown Hotel Carlyle with President Arturo Frondisi of Argentina.

Navy personnel at the Quonset, R.I., air station were set to welcome the Kennedys on arrival from New York's La Guardia Airport. The presidential yacht Honey Fitz had cruised up from Washington for their use in Narragansett Bay and for the initial trip from Quonset across the water to Hammersmith Farm, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, Mrs. Kennedy's stepfather and mother.

Mercury Will Reach Into 60s Tomorrow

Wednesday will be fair and warmer, the high reaching for 66, the weatherman says. Fair and cooler, the low about 46 is tonight's forecast.

Partly cloudy with little temperature change is the prediction for Thursday. Northwesterly winds at 10-20 miles per hour will become variable tonight and southwest at 10 to 15 m.p.h. tomorrow.

From 10:15 yesterday morning until the same hour today rainfall measured .6 of an inch in the downtown area.

Fifty was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer registered 63 at 1 p.m.

Appoints Major LaLone to State Military Board

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Swainson has appointed Maj. Lawrence J. LaLone of the Lansing headquarters detachment of the Michigan National Guard as a member of the State Military Board.

He replaces Col. Leo J. Crum of Richland.

LaLone has served since 1946 as executive secretary of the Michigan trust fund and director of veterans affairs. The board advises the governor on matters affecting the state military establishment.

Aid to Dependent Children at Issue

Considers Recalling Legislature

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Swainson says he is going to seek support for calling of a second special session of the legislature to consider bringing Michigan under federal aid to dependent children of the unemployed.

The proposal was defeated in one special session called on June 15.

"I'm looking for encouragement to call the session," the governor said.

Swainson said he planned to sound out leaders of both political parties on their thinking on the chances for passage of the proposal the second time around.

Bringing Michigan under the Federal aid plan, he said, would mean about $10 million in aid from the government during the first six months of 1962. About $4 million would go to the state to make up funds that otherwise would have to come out of the welfare appropriation and about $6 million to the counties, the governor said.

Swainson said he has not yet made his mind on calling the session for the single issue, if it is called.

The governor said he did not think a special session would interfere with the Constitutional Convention.

"They could get their work done on that one issue in half a day," he commented. "The legislature will be back in January anyway while the Constitutional Convention is in session."

Requests that something be done to bring Michigan under the aid to dependent children have been received from Detroit, Battle Creek, Ecorse, Lincoln Park, Madison Heights and St. Clair County, the governor said.

Swainson said he also had not decided whether to limit the

CHEVY II STATION WAGON—Smooth flowing lines and subtle sculpturing distinguish the Chevy II series of passenger cars making their initial appearance at Chevrolet dealers Sept. 29. This three-seat station wagon is one of nine models in the new Chevy II line which offers either 4-cylinder or 6-cylinder engines with manually operated or Powerglide automatic transmission.

New Chevy II to Display Charms Friday

Chevrolet's passenger car line-up for 1962 features a new complete line of middle-size cars to be known as Chevy II, as well as extensive restyling and major mechanical changes for its standard models.

With the new line the company's 1962 passenger car line-up will total 32 models—highest in its history—available in the Corvair, Corvette, Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines.

These cars will be displayed in Chevrolet dealerships beginning Friday. Local dealer is Matthews-Hargreaves, Inc., 631 Oakland Ave.

The new Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than Chevrolet's regular car. Station wagons, a hardtop sport coupe and a convertible are included among nine models in the new line which emphasizes simplicity in styling and maximum functionalism in design.

BASICALLY CONVENTIONAL

Although the Chevy II design is basically conventional, it offers new front-mounted four- and six-cylinder engines, integral frame and body construction with bolt-on front end and an industry exclusive in tapered plate rear springs. Both three-speed manual and automatic transmissions will be available.

* * *

From a styling standpoint the standard Chevrolet for 1962 reflects the greatest change, although Corvair models and the Corvette will also feature a number of appearance changes as well as new exterior colors and interiors.

The new standard Chevrolet features a crisp, tailored look. New models have completely new sheet metal, grille work, bumpers and ornamentation. New roof lines for sedans and the Impala sport coupe also highlight 1962 styling.

Among the mechanical changes and modifications to improve performance, durability and economy of 1962 models are a new 327-cubic-inch V8 engine, a new weight-saving Powerglide automatic transmission and tires with advanced two-ply design.

The new V8 engine is rated at 250 horsepower; its performance equals the 348-cubic-inch engine, but fuel economy and engine operating efficiency are both improved.

IMPALA SPORT COUPE—The new roof-line of the 1962 Chevrolet Impala sport coupe at first glance closely resembles the fabric top of the Impala convertible. Closer inspection reveals adroit styling of roof sheet metal which gives the sport coupe an exclusive and jaunty appearance. The Impala tops a line of 32 passenger car models, including the Corvair, Corvette and the new Chevy II series.

Foreign Aid Deadlock Continues in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $1,300,894,573 supplemental appropriation bill finally came up for Senate debate today, another short step in Congress' inching progress toward adjournment.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress inches on today toward adjournment with the foreign aid money bill still not ready for final approval.

House-Senate conferees ended in deadlock Monday night in their effort to resolve differences. One senator reported the conferees were within about $60 million of agreement when the meeting broke up. Originally, the difference between House and Senate bills was more than $500 million.

TO BRING UP BILL

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he would bring up the $1.06 billion supplemental appropriation bill as soon as the Senate met today.

This is the final bill of the session which must pass the Senate and be settled in conference with the House.

Conferees worked out agreement Monday on one of the other two big appropriations bills which have not yet been sent to President Kennedy.

A compromise version of a public works measure carrying nearly $4 billion for rivers and harbors, flood control, reclamation and atomic energy projects is ready for final House and Senate action.

The House slashed more than $1 billion from Kennedy's original requests for foreign aid and appropriated $3,657,500,000. The Senate voted $4,196,600,000 for all forms of military and economic assistance requiring annual appropriation.

ager of the automobile division of Remy Electric Co.

In 1928 he became a vice president of General Motors and was transferred to Detroit.

He became acting president in 1940 when William E. Knudsen took a leave to join the nation's defense effort.

He was elected president of the firm on Jan. 6, 1941.

HAD SIX CHILDREN

Wilson is survived by his widow, the former Jessie Ann Curtis, of Costello, Pa., and his six children.

Five of the Wilson children live in the Pontiac area. They are Thomas Erwin, Edward Everett, Charles Erwin Jr., Mrs. F. C. Matthews and Mrs. William B. Hargreaves. A third daughter, Mrs. J. Philip Hoyle, lives in Delray Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Wilson gained fame and respect of her own from politicians in both parties when she publicly defended her husband after some of his controversial remarks, including his famed 1956 remark about kennel dogs sitting and bird dogs hunting for their food.

This remark was made about the unemployment situation.

As president of General Motors, Wilson was responsible for one of the most revolutionary labor contracts in auto industry history.

GM employes went on strike for 113 days in 1945-46 and the strike ended when Wilson and United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther agreed on a contract containing the now common "escalator clause," pegging wages to the cost of living.

The contract also provided for the "annual improvement factor" pay raises which are based on increased efficiency and production — a Wilson idea.

The Japanese foreign ministry called the speech "a welcome reaffirmation of the United States position on world problems."

The Japanese were pleased with Kennedy's proposals for an end to nuclear tests and for general disarmament.

In Canada, Lester B. Pearson, former U.N. Assembly president, Nobel Peace Prize winner and former U.N. Assembly president said the speech put the Western world on a peace offensive.

Praised Kennedy's statement that "we seek no perfect solution." The British have long felt that U.S. policy tended too much toward absolute solutions that would rob end the cold war.

Non-Communist Asians reacted warmly and with praise.

Newspapers everywhere outside of mainland China gave it top play.

The address was received enthusiastically in Nationalist China where a Foreign Office spokesman said Kennedy's challenge "will provide the best test possible to determine whether the Soviet Union is willing to abandon its aggressive, expansionist policies."

and a great American, a leader in every sense of the word."

"C. E. Wilson was one of the great men of our time," said S. E. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division.

"He gave unselfishly of his time and energy to the development of our country's resources and industry; to the protection of the ideals that have made our nation great; and to the defense of all peace loving people around the world.

'RUGGED MAN'

"He was a rugged man," said City Manager Walter K. Willman, on hearing of Wilson's death. "I met him on several occasions and he was always very easy to talk to in spite of his high position.

"His loss is a sad blow to the Pontiac area. Wilson was forceful and capable in almost everything he did and had a splendid record of government service."

"It is always a matter of local pride when a resident of our area rises to such heights," said Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, Pontiac superintendent of schools.

"Likewise, the death of a man like C. E. Wilson is a great loss to our community and country. He certainly was a great man; a leader in industry and important figure in our government."

Tribute Accorded Veteran Physician

Dr. Raynale used a horse and buggy to visit his patients and then in 1911 purchased a two-cylinder Maxwell to make his trips over the then mostly farming center.

SERVED IN WW I

He practiced there until 1917 when he again went abroad as a major in World War I, serving at a base hospital in France.

Four years after his return to a steady practice in Birmingham, Dr. Raynale received one of his first in a series of honors during his long career, being named president of the Oakland County Medical Society in 1922.

When St. Joseph Mercy Hospital opened in 1927, it was Dr. Raynale who delivered the first baby there, and from 1930 to 1932 he was chief of staff at the hospital.

In 1952 when he completed his 50th year of service to the medical profession, Dr. Raynale was honored by friends and fellow physicians at a dinner given by the nuns of St. Joseph.

His family's history in medicine dates back to 1828 when his grandfather, Ebenezer, settled in the Birmingham locale and set up practice, a practice that was continued by Dr. Raynale's father, George M., and still continues today.

His offices in the Wabeek Building at 2860 W. Maple are on the same site where his grandfather built a house in the early 1800s to serve his own patients. It is the same spot where his father had his home and where the dean of area physicians was born.

5,000 OPERATIONS

Dr. Raynale, who still has regular office hours and makes house calls, has, according to fellow physicians, performed an estimated 5,000 operations during his career that has spanned nearly six decades.

Today he is in partnership with Dr. Robert R. Wessels.

"In my estimation Dr. Raynale exemplifies the real gentleman practitioner," said Dr. Wessels, his partner of 15 years. "He is well-liked and respected by all."

Added Dr. Harold A. Furlong, past president of the Oakland County Medical Society:

"Dr. Raynale is counselor and confidant, a devoted physician, admired and respected. His devotion is best illustrated, perhaps, by his undiminished popularity as a sage and sympathetic counselor on matters of moral, family problems and even finances."

Appropriation Request for Consultant Rejected

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night turned down an appropriation request to hire a consultant for a job analysis and salary plan study.

While the appropriation of $3,000 for a consultant's fee was rejected, the commission, however, did not discard the recommendation of Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning that a study be made.

The commission directed Kenning to determine the feasibility of the city's staff in making the story rather than hiring an outside consultant.

In recommending the appropriation, the assistant city manager said:

"I believe that this program is necessary in order to minimize justifiable complaints from individuals in various jobs about the inequity of pay for their respective positions."

"The job descriptions can serve as useful tools in the hiring of new individuals for given positions and also in our training and promotion program."

The commission had authorized city manager L. E. Gare to obtain estimated cost of hiring a consultant last month.

In the original recommendation it was suggested that a portion of the study be done by the city in order to cut cost but in obtaining estimates it was learned that the savings would amount to about $1,500.

Kenning said that time spent by the staff would represent a cost approximately equal to the difference and recommended that the entire study be made by a consulting firm.

Mrs. Fern Thatcher

Service for Mrs. Fern Thatcher, 70, of 238 Catalpa Drive, will be 2 p.m. Thursday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Cremation will follow at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Thatcher died today following an illness of six months.

A Birmingham resident 36 years, coming from Indianapolis, Ind., she had been a city employe, retiring in 1956.

Surviving are a son Jack E. of Birmingham; two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Ashbaugh of Rochester and Mrs. M. E. Raywood of Miami; and a grandson.

Seventy Birmingham teachers have enrolled in workshops offered this fall by the University of Michigan at Derby Junior High School.

The workshops is part of an in-service training program subsidized by the Birmingham Board of Education for teachers in an effort to increase and develop the quality of instruction in area schools.

Courses include instruction in methods for spoken language training; literature for children; practical criticism; geography for teachers; and governments of the Soviet Union and eastern Europe.

The university is offering both graduate and undergraduate credit to the teachers and students who complete the work successfully.

Daniel A. Nesbitt, deputy superintendent in charge of instruction, said that teachers and students from neighboring school districts are invited to participate in the workshops, on payment of the regular tuition fee charged by U. of M.

Late registrations will be accepted provided the classes are not filled.

Reject Charges W. German Flight Warlike Act

PARIS (AP)—The Western powers today rejected Soviet accusations that the Sept. 14 flight of two West German military planes over East Germany to Berlin was a provocation and a warlike act.

A French note delivered to Moscow said investigation showed that the two fighter planes lost their way and ran out of fuel.

Similar notes from the United States and Britain were delivered in Moscow today.

The French said that in recent weeks Soviet planes made "numerous incursions" over West German territory, but that these incidents had not been considered "provocations and no reprisal measures were announced."

conference should be based on the troika principle—the same issue that has deadlocked selection of a successor to the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold.

The Soviets insist that participants at an arms conference be divided among three numerically equal groups of nations—Communist, Western and neutral. The United States has offered several alternative proposals.

Gromyko has turned in his own report to the United Nations on this summer's talks between Soviet arms expert Valerian A. Zorin and John J. McCloy, President Kennedy's special adviser on disarmament.

The report has not yet been made public, but the Soviet news agency Tass said it reasserts the Kremlin's stand that the Soviet Union would accept unconditionally any Western proposals for control measures if the West accepts Premier Khrushchev's program for complete and general disarmament.

IMPERIAL LEBARON—Ultimate in fine car luxury and beauty, the 1962 Imperial LeBaron four-door hardtop features a strikingly new rear-end styling treatment, highlighted by gun-sight taillights. The LeBaron also accents its distinctive limousine-styled rear window. Framed by a town car roof canopy, it gives privacy to rear seat passengers.

Styling, Engineering Changes Featured

1962 Imperial Goes on Display Thursday

The 1962 Imperial with new styling and significant engineering improvements will be displayed in the showroom of R&R Motors, Inc., 724 Oakland Ave., beginning Thursday.

* * *

Changes give emphasis to styling continuity, reliability and passenger comfort, according to C. E. Briggs, corporate vice president and general manager of the Chrysler-Plymouth Division, Chrysler Corp.

"The Imperial for 1962 will retain its traditional 129-inch wheelbase so important to full-size luxury and comfort in motoring," Briggs said. "Imperial will remain a prestige automobile, offering luxury and performance without compromise."

* * *

Improvements include more passenger room in the front compartment, a new, more compact and more rugged automatic transmission, new power brakes, sealed front-end lubrication and a variety of rich and colorful interior fabrics and color schemes.

The Imperial power plant is a 413-cubic-inch, 340-horsepower V-8 engine.

Imperial's classic freestanding head lamps introduced last year accent the car's front area.

New nacelle-type free-standing taillights mounted on each rear fender give styling continuity in the tradition of past gunsight-styling Imperial tail lamps.

Six models are offered for the coming year, two-door Southampton hardtops in the Custom and Crown lines, four-door hardtops in the Custom, Crown, and LeBaron lines, and a convertible in the Crown line.

1962 IMPERIAL LINE: Emphasizing styling continuity reliability and passenger comfort, the 1962 Imperial line retains its traditionally popular 129-inch wheelbase to provide full size motoring luxury and comfort. The engine for 1962 is a 413-cubic inch/340 horsepower V8.

East-West Berlin Plan Possibility Being Hinted

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The rough outline of a possible East-West agreement to end the Berlin crisis is beginning to appear in official statements, including President Kennedy's speech to the United Nations.

This development indicated today, as some Western diplomats are saying privately, that sooner or later the Soviet Union and the Allied powers will agree on a compromise formula for opening negotiations to see whether a deal is possible.

What is highly uncertain is whether the formula can be worked out in Western diplomatic talks now under way with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. The talks could produce accord in the next few days if Premier Khrushchev is ready to ease the tensions over Berlin a bit. If he is not, the current efforts of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home will end in failure.

Should these preliminary discussions collapse, however, the prospect is that some new effort to arrange negotiations will be undertaken later in the fall. Western leaders seem privately convinced of this because the alternative to a Berlin settlement may well be a nuclear war.

WEST DETERMINED

Kennedy told the United Nations Monday the Western powers are determined to defend West Berlin "by whatever means are forced upon them." But he expressed confidence that "firmness and reason" can lead to a peaceful solution.

The President stopped short of saying what kind of solution might be acceptable to the United States and its allies.

Kennedy said the United States recognized that Germany could be kept divided by troops and tanks. His guarded statement implied acceptance indefinitely of the existing division of Germany. Such acceptance could lead to Western accommodation to Communist authority in East Germany.

Khrushchev long has demanded that the Western powers recognize the East German Communist regime. The implications of what Kennedy said stop far short of full recognition, but the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany have talked over privately the possibility of accepting the fact of Red rule in East Germany.

Julia Walks in Footsteps of Dear Old Dad Nikky

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press International

MOSCOW (UPI) — Julia Khrushchev showed Monday that she was a chip off the old block, at least when it comes to berating Americans.

Julia, journalist daughter of the Soviet premier, wrote in the magazine Ogonyok that Americans are "infected, poisoned and ruined by the mad pursuit of money."

Commenting on a new moral code for U.S. government workers, Julia said it was like giving medicine to a dead man.

What was needed, she said, was a complete overhaul of the U.S. system, which in itself breeds crime.

"The moral from top to bottom from Washington to the smallest hamlet is: Grab what you can," she wrote.

'DISEASE OF SWINDLING'

"Life in the United States compels a person to pursue money. Swindling has seized the entire state apparatus and gnawed into peoples' souls. People are stricken with the disease of swindling," she said.

Julia, about 32, is the wife of Alexei Adzhubei, chief editor of the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia. Fluent in English, she has written several articles for Soviet publications this year and accompanied her father on the 1959 tour of the United States.

She referred to New York city government scandals, Chicago police corruption and alleged bribery involved in awarding U.S. government contracts, as evidence of American money madness.

"America once was the symbol of progress but many years have passed and its aims are prohibited today," she wrote.

But Julia failed to mention her father's concerted drive, announced last January, to wipe out corruption, graft, swindling and speculation among Communist party and government officials.

Attorney Lays Down Law to Estranged Wife

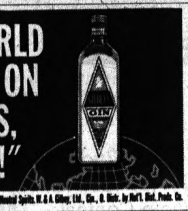

CHICAGO (AP) — A socially prominent attorney and his estranged wife have reconciled and he will not press his divorce suit — as long as his wife complies with his terms.

The terms set forth in an agreement between George H. Von Gehr, 55, and accepted by his wife, Rita M., were disclosed to Superior Court Judge David A. Canel.

Mrs. Von Gehr agreed that she never again will drink any alcoholic liquor of any kind no matter what the occasion, and that neither of her parents will ever enter the couple's home or come in contact with their son, Gregory, 9.

The agreement further stated that should Mrs. Von Gehr break the pact, she will not contest a divorce or seek to prevent Von Gehr from taking custody of their son. It was signed by the Von Gehrs and the rector of an Episcopal church the couple attend in suburban Evanston.

ADVANCED THRUST
Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its ¾-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

U.S. May Indict Jimmy Hoffa

Federal Prosecutors on Hand for Seating of Florida Jury

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — Federal prosecutors may be preparing again to attempt to indict Teamsters President James R. Hoffa on charges of misusing $500,000 in union funds.

Justice Department prosecutor James T. Dowd and three of his assistants from Washington were on hand Monday for the enpaneling of a new federal grand jury.

But Dowd, whose first case was dismissed on a technicality, refused to talk about his plans.

Hoffa and two of his colleagues were indicted by a grand jury here last Dec. 7 on mail fraud charges. They were charged with promoting Sun Valley, Inc., a housing development near Cape Canaveral, as a Teamsters - sponsored project through interstate communications.

The indictments said that Hoffa and the others used $500,000 in union funds for their personal purposes while implying Sun Valley was a Teamsters haven for retired union members.

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph Lieb threw out the indictments July 13 on grounds the grand jury that indicted them was improperly selected.

Pilot Is Critical of Plane's Brakes After Boston Skid

BOSTON (UPI) — The pilot of the American Airlines jetliner that skidded into Boston Harbor Sunday said Monday that the plane's braking action seemed inadequate.

Pilot Capt. Ted Jonson, of Menlo Park, Calif., and Flight Officer J. E. Ferndyn, of Santa Rosa, Calif., the copilot, were at the controls when the huge craft touched down in poor weather and skidded off the runway.

Five of the 71 persons aboard the plane were injured but none seriously. The $5-million plane was extensively damaged.

The pilot and copilot gave their views of the accident at a news conference Monday. It was the first time the press was able to question them.

Moscow Gets Told Two Jets Only Lost

MOSCOW (UPI) — West Germany today rejected Soviet complaints that two West German jet fighter planes that made a forced landing in Berlin were on a warlike mission.

The West Germans, in a note delivered this morning to the Soviet foreign ministry here, said the plane incident was a regrettable accident and expressed surprise that the Soviet Union found it necessary to label it a provocation.

The two F84 West German jet fighters landed at Berlin's Tegel Airport Sept. 14. Their pilots said they had lost their way during NATO maneuvers over West Germany.

Britain, France and the United States also delivered notes to the Soviet foreign ministry today, presumably on the same subject in similar terms.

Claims Hydraulic Line of Plane Was Cracked

DENVER (UPI) — An investigator for the Civil Aeronautics board testified Monday he found a crack in a hydraulic pressure line fitting in the wreckage of a United Air Lines DC8 jet which crashed and burned here July 11, killing 18 persons.

The investigator, Charles Sheets, said the fitting was discovered in the left wheel well of the airliner, but he was unable to estimate how much hydraulic fluid might have been lost through the fracture, or any other leak in the system.

West Berlin Morale Climbs Again

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

BERLIN — West Berliners have regained their old fervor and are ready for the Russians' next move.

Morale, shaken by the Communist closing of the East-West Berlin border on Aug. 13, is high again.

The biggest boost came with the arrival of Gen. Lucius B. Clay, hero of the 1948-49 blockade, as President Kennedy's personal representative.

Clay won the respect and affection of Berliners as no other American has when he was American military governor from 1945 to 1949.

When he left Berlin, grateful Berliners named a street for him. It is Clay Allee leading into the American sector in an area of parks, boulevards and stately homes. The American consulate is on Clay Allee.

SHOWER FOR CATHY—Cathy Crosby, daughter of band leader Bob Crosby, and Edwin Gilbert, a Houston oilman, are showered with rice as they leave the chapel of St. John Divine Episcopal Church. The couple was married in a simple ceremony Monday and they are on a wedding trip to Puerto Rico.

One unfortunate event marked Clay's return.

Some news reports quoted him as saying at a press reception that East Germany would have a part in control of West Berlin's air corridors to the West and that the two German governments should conduct their own negotiations.

Clay said neither. This correspondent stood at his elbow through the entire conversation and heard him say flatly that the East Germans would "absolutely not" have a hand in the air ways and at no time did he suggest the two governments should negotiate.

The reports shocked Clay.

He came to Berlin as a symbol of U.S. determination.

He remarked he did not come to sell it out.

When West Berliners awakened on Sunday, Aug. 13 to find the city border closed they almost panicked. The very basis of the city's existence seemed threatened. Hopes for the future appeared to vanish.

THE SNOW WINDOW

West Berlin had taken pride in the fact that it was the West's "show-window" deep in Communist territory, a haven for East German refugees, a last meeting place for Germans from both sides of the split nation.

The wall the Communists erected impressed anew on every Berliner the fact that his city and country were split and might never be reunified in his lifetime.

It emphasized the Russians' determination to isolate West Berlin and make it a so-called free, demilitarized city.

The unpleasant facts still must be faced. But they are being faced without panic and without despair. There is sadness but no gloom.

A few days ago, West Berlin opened a new opera house.

The West German federal government has granted the city an additional $125 million to meet special economic needs arising out of the present crisis and to assist in an expanded cultural and economic program.

Mayor Willy Brandt has announced the $27.5 million will be spent on construction of 4,000 new apartments for workers coming in from West Germany. Work on the first 1,000 will start in the next few weeks.

Group Opposes Proposal to Appoint Judges

By GENE SCHROEDER

LANSING (AP) — Should the people continue to elect Michigan's judges to prevent possible judicial arrogance?

Does the state need an entirely new level of judges — a court of appeals — interposed between the supreme court and the lower judicial benches?

Should the number of supreme court justices be increased from the present eight to nine, thus lessening the possibility of tie votes in the high court's decisions?

According to a blue ribbon group of judges and lawyers comprising the Citizens Advisory Committee on the Judicial Department, the answer to all these questions is a resounding "yes."

Recommendations of the bi-partisan committee are expected to receive the most thoughtful and serious consideration by the 144 Constitutional Convention delegates when they assemble in Lansing's Civic Center next week to rewrite the state's basic law document.

INCLUDED TWO DELEGATES

Headed by Circuit Judge Noel P. Fox of Muskegon, members of the nine-man committee included two delegates to the convention—Edward Hutchinson, a conservative Republican who is seeking the Con-Con presidency; and Tom Downs, a liberal Democrat and lobbyist for the Michigan AFL-CIO.

Ernest C. Wunch, president of the Michigan Bar Association, also was a member.

In reporting the committee recommendations, Judge Fox declared:

"A constitution is the fundamental law of the state. When matters legislative in character are included in the constitution, it makes for rigidity and impediments to adjustments which changing circumstances may dictate as necessary. We eliminated many legislative matters.

"One of the substantial changes limits constitutional courts to the supreme court, the appellate court and the circuit court, as the general trial court. All other courts, by this proposal would be legislative.

"This adds flexibility, and... provides for adjusting the court system to meet changes dictated by the dynamics of an expanding society."

The manner of selection of judges is expected to be the most controversial question to be faced by the delegates when they tackle the problem of revision of the judicial article.

OPPOSES APPOINTMENTS

In forceful language the citizens committee takes a firm stand against allowing the appointment of judges.

"Election of judges has been a basic part of the American tradition since the revolution," it said. "Most state judicial systems provide for an elected judiciary."

Pointing out that Michigan's judicial system has been elective since 1827, the committee declared:

"During all of its history, the Michigan judiciary has been of high repute in the state and the nation. No major scandal has ever besmirched its record."

By requiring the judges to report at the polls to the people — who are the source of the power which they wield on the bench — "some tendency is created toward restraint of possible judicial arrogance," the committee added.

Relatively few incumbent judges have been defeated for re-election it was pointed out, but with the present system the people have had a remedy when a clear-cut need was presented.

The committee indicated it didn't think much of the idea that election of judges should be removed from the hands of the people and placed in the hands of a select committee.

"The argument of the advocates of this plan to the effect that it will serve to remove the judiciary from politics, in reality means that open political consideration of judges by the public would be supplanted by political consideration of the judicial nominations by a few men in wholly private meetings," the citizens advisory group commented.

Other arguments in favor of appointing judges have centered around three points outlined by an earlier governor's committee, which concentrated on the pros and cons and came up with no recommendations:

—Appointed judges are more likely to possess qualities appropriate to the performance of judicial duties especially if they are nominated by their professional peers.

—The electorate has little acquaintance with individual qualifications of the candidates, and little understanding of the qualities necessary to properly evaluate the nominees.

—Appointment for long terms, especially of trial judges, makes possible judicial independence which provides the possibility for greater justice.

In recommending the establishment of a court of appeals, the blue ribbon committee suggested that it should be the final court of appellate jurisdiction in all cases except those which the supreme court might choose to review.

* * *

The appeals court also might be granted jurisdiction by the supreme court to review directly decisions of administrative agencies in the state.

URGES 9 JUSTICES

Nine judges should sit on the court of appeals, the committee said, with the supreme court being allowed to permit the court to sit in divisions consisting of not fewer than three judges.

The number of judges on the appeals bench could be increased by the legislature, if it wished.

"This provision permits maximum flexibility in years to come," the committee said, "and places the burden on the legislature to increase the number of judges on the court of appeals to meet the demands of the time."

Three of the appeals court judges would be elected initially for a term of three years, three for a term of six years and three for nine years. The term of office thereafter would be nine years.

"Need for a court of appeals is imperative," the committee declared, "and provision for it should be made in the constitution."

The number of supreme court justices should be changed from the present eight to an uneven number in the committee's opinion.

A reduction to seven was considered but rejected.

One of the other committee recommendations called for a unified court system, under which the supreme court would have general supervision over not only the constitutional courts but the entire court system of the state.

In the unified court system, the committee said, "the burden of administration will rest heavier with the supreme court, and especially upon the shoulders of the chief justice." It added:

"A successful unified court system demands that more attention be given to the lower courts, and moreover, that the rules, as determined by the supreme court, be effectively carried out.

"The court must be capable of following through on all measures concerning the unification of the court system, if such a system is to work."

Under the unified system plan, probate courts, justices of the peace and circuit court commissioners would be eliminated from the constitution, but could continue in operation as legislative courts.

"It is our judgment that the Constitutional Convention is not the proper body to consider the details of setting up any kind of unified system of courts of limited jurisdiction," the committee said, explaining:

"For example, careful and detailed thought must be given to the best method of handling juvenile affairs under any unified court system. The processes for handling juvenile and dependency matters need constant improvement, and this provision in the constitution would assure the needed flexibility for the future . . .

"The proposal made here would permit the entire system of inferior courts to continue, each with its statutory jurisdiction, until such time as the legislature acted to bring about greater unification."

State Dems Start Yearly Fund Drive

LANSING (AP)—A "Dollars for Democrats" drive, with a goal of 100,000 donors, was started Monday by the state Democratic party.

John J. Collins, state chairman, said William A. Burgett, deputy auditor general, has ben named chairman of the fund-raising event. The drive will extend through Oct. 8.

"This annual effort to broaden the base of participation in our political party is fundamental to our successful operation for the coming year," Collins said.

Crops are grown on only 3 per cent of Algeria's 920,000 square miles, and only one-sixth of the land will support livestock.

'West Side Story' Good but It'll Cost $6 Million

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — For the superlative-minded, "West Side Story" is the most expensive musical film ever made. It's also one of the best.

THOMAS

How can the brothers Mirisch spend $6 million on a musical? Especially one with a single expensive star—Natalie Wood at $250,000?

Take a high-priced stage property. Add a year's preparation with top talent—$250,000 on screen tests alone. Rehearse for three months. Shoot for half a year. Do it in color, stereo sound and 70mm film. The bill mounts.

Profits are by no means sure. Any musical is a shaky entry in today's market; foreigners seldom dig them. While "West Side Story" was electrifying on the stage, many playgoers found the theme downbeat and depressing. Profit or no, the film version was worth the chance. There has never been greater dancing on the screen. Number after number stirred Hollywood previewers to applause.

THEME FORBIDDING

The theme seems forbidding for a musical. It is the story of a power clash between a native New York City gang and another of Puerto Rican newcomers. Two lovers, one from each side, are caught in the middle.

"West Side Story" is really a dance opera. The powerful dances of Jerome Robbins and the highly charged music of Leonard Bernstein are perfect for the milling and rumbling of the New York gangs.

But the device has its drawbacks, especially in dramatic moments. When the brother and sweetheart of the leading actresses is killed, the girls break into a duet. Credibility is strained.

Otherwise you're with the warring Jets and Sharks all the way, fascinated with their animal energy and appalled by their violence. Robert Wise, as producer and co-director, has done a fine job of holding the story together.

"West Side Story" is a star-making film. Natalie Wood, disappointing as Marjorie Morningstar, comes through as a top dramatic actress. Richard Beymer as her ill-starred lover is engaging and effective; he'll be around for a long time.

Russ Tamblyn is tough and gymnastic, and Rita Moreno does her best work to date. George Chakiris, leader of the Puerto Rican gang, is a real find. He's got star quality.

The film has one jarring note. The law is represented by a gorilla-like cop and a detective who is brutal and bigoted. This adds nothing to the plot and only underlines the gangs' belief the law is worthy of contempt.

Kennedy Gains Prestige by Powerful U.N. Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was credited today by Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., with having recouped in his address to the United Nations some U.S. prestige losses on Cuba and Laos.

Humphrey, the assistant Democratic leader who had worked closely with White House experts on the disarmament program the President laid down Monday, called the speech "the most remarkable and moving message of a political leader in the history of our country."

REGAINS PRESTIGE

Humphrey said it went a long way toward erasing the prestige-losing stigma of the Cuban invasion fiasco and the failure to follow strong words with action in Laos.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana described Kennedy's address as "magnificent and statesmanlike." Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., called it "the greatest speech that has ever been made in the United Nations."

To Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, top Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, it was "a great speech."

"The President called a spade a spade," Wiley said. "He was equal to the occasion."

WILL OF U.S.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., said Kennedy had "expressed the will and convictions of the people of the United States" in what he called an eloquent address.

In Gettysburg, Pa., former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who recently has been critical of some of Kennedy's foreign policy actions, said he was impressed very deeply that "the President said there is no additional security in merely pursuing a spiral of arms racing.

"He saw clearly that there could be a weakening. We saw here a definite desire to protect our country."

Eisenhower said he agreed with GOP National Chairman William E. Miller — a vigorous critic of Kennedy's foreign policies — that in his speech the President was "summing up and expressing very eloquently the aspirations of the American people for the last years."

Swainson Says GOP Wrong to Be Selfish

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. John B. Swainson indicated Monday he was disappointed the Republicans turned down a Democratic request for a bipartisan meeting to organize the constitutional convention.

"It would seem the Republicans are determined to organize it themselves," Swainson said.

The governor answered with a forceful "yes" when asked if he thought this was wrong.

"There are 144 delegates, not just 99," he said.

Prior to the Sept. 12 election in which the Republicans gained 99 of the delegate seats, Swainson said if Democrats gained control he hoped leaders of both parties would get together to consider committee appointments and other organizational matters.

EARLY START—Karen Halgerson, 13, of Waterford Township, is a good example of starting therapy early in the recovery program of patients. Although confined to a wheelchair, she was given a craft as soon as she was able to get out of bed. An early start hastens recovery, say hospital officials. Karen is huck weaving.

Kenny Therapy Unit Dedicated at Hospital

The Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation and Pontiac General Hospital observed the birthday celebration of the late Sister Kenny last week by dedicating a new therapy unit at the hospital.

Hospital administrators, trustees and doctors honored the medical staff and board of trustees of the Kenny Foundation at a dinner at the hospital.

The event was headed by James Clarkson, executive director of First Federal Savings of Oakland and a member of the foundation's board.

Dedication of the department was specially delayed so as to coincide with the birthday celebration. The new unit was opened for operation this summer.

It is staffed, equipped and operated by the foundation. With its major purpose being to restore the handicapped person to his greatest potential, the unit will also serve as a training center for student occupational therapists.

Construction and remodeling costs were paid by the hospital.

Treatment in the OT department is usually prescribed by physicians to hasten the recovery from disease or injury and to help their patient's adjustment to his hospital stay, according to Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

Treatment starts as soon as a patient is able to tolerate exercise. This helps him return to his old job sooner or begin training for a new vocation before he loses the ability to work or is hampered by any feelings of self-pity.

LEATHER WORK—This is one form of occupational therapy that can help make a patient's adjustment to the hospital more enjoyable and hasten recovery. Isabel Aylward (left), a therapist at Pontiac General, seems to approve of the workmanship of this patient.

LEG WORK CAN BE FUN — A hospital employe, Andrew Cosby, shows how the new occupational therapy unit makes prolonged exercise more tolerable. Patients needing exercise of leg muscles can get it and do some woodwork at the same time on this pedal driven saw.

LIKE LOOMS—One of the popular crafts offered in the new Sister Kenny Occupational Therapy Unit at Pontiac General Hospital is weaving on a variety of looms. The looms, which call for both footwork and handwork, are an important means of rehabilitating handicapped patients.

Questionnaire to 1st Graduating Class Proves

Pontiac Northern Rates Pretty High

BY RALPH HUMMEL

The first class graduated from Pontiac Northern High School in 1959 was given a chance this year to sound off about its alma mater—and gave it a nearly perfect report card.

(A study completed this month states there were 128 students who answered at least some of the questions on questionnaires sent in April to a total of 174.)

The students were harder in judging themselves: 64 per cent admitted they had wasted too much time in high school.

But only seven out of 121 blamed high school preparation as having "very little relation to life." The rest agreed they had been given a general or specific background for life.

One of the first lessons learned after graduation by 27 students was that it pays to have friends. That's the number reporting that friends helped get them their first full-time job. A total of 95 held jobs.

A surprising blow was dealt by the graduates in their evaluation of club activities. While praising academic areas of learning, the class was sharply divided on non-academic areas.

MIXED VIEWS ON CLUBS

Forty-eight per cent said club activities either should be "emphasized less" or were "not the responsibility of the school." The rest said club work was either "fine as is" or should be "emphasized more."

Preparation for marriage in school drew 84 per cent negative answers, while 10 per cent answered in one of the above positive categories.

"Understanding the Opposite Sex" as an area of learning drew a similar response: 47 per cent were for, 53 per cent against.

The graduates ranked as most helpful school subjects: First, English; second, mathematics, and third, typing. Considered least helpful were: First, history; second, gym, and third, foreign language.

In a differently phrased version of this question, mathematics led the list of areas of learning with 86 per cent of the respondents giving positive answers ("fine as is," or "emphasize more"). Only 4 per cent answered either "emphasize less," or "not responsibility of school."

In the job market, the graduates did well. As of April only nine said they were hunting for jobs. Most were working full-time, 23 were working part-time, 41 were in school full-time, and 13 were housewives. Others were in the Armed Forces or self-employed.

SOME OVERLAPPING

There was some overlapping of those who were attending school and working.

Girls generally were making less money than boys. The only girls earning more than $1.75 an hour were those who were in the business curriculum.

A question "What are you doing now?" revealed that business, general and trade-industrial graduates were mostly engaged in full-time work.

The "Follow-Up Study of the Class of 1959, Pontiac Northern High School" was directed by one-time Northern High counselor Ingrid Hutchens, now assistant principal at Washington Junior High.

TWO MAIN QUESTIONS

Its aim was to answer two main questions:

1—How do graduates feel about experiences in the Pontiac senior high schools?

2—What were the graduates doing one year after leaving high school?

Most in the graduating class of 174 had spent two years at Pontiac Central before taking their last year at the new Northern High.

Of the 128 who replied, 40 were in the business curriculum, 54 in general and 15 in trade-industrial. Most of the 46 questionnaires not returned represented students on the general curriculum.

Its response figures are not absolutely exact, the report emphasizes, but do reflect accurately the strength of students' feelings about their school program.

TENNIS FOR WATERFORD — A check for $4,534.20 to pay part of the cost of double-court community tennis facilities is accepted by Township School Supt. William A. Shunck (left). Making the presentation are Richard Younce (center), chairman of the Greater Waterford Community Council drive to raise the funds, and Donald Fraser, treasurer of the council. The fund drive goal was set at $4,500 to meet an early estimate for the courts. The school board is paying the balance to meet a more recent total of $7,600. The courts will be located at Waterford Township High School.

Recorder Helps in Teacher Hunt

Last-Minute Rushing for Substitutes Is Over in Waterford Schools

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

With the installation of a recording device in Waterford Township schools, last-minute emergency teacher replacements have become a thing of the past.

Teachers anticipating the next day's absence from school, may call the board of education offices and register their absence.

The tape recording device is turned on at 4:30 p.m. daily and left "open" until 6:30 a.m. the following day. Two clerks come in early and check the results.

After the clerks, Mrs. John Potter and Mrs. Murlin Vaughn, hear the absent teacher's message, they go to work finding a substitute teacher.

With ten sick day leave-of-absences allotted annually for each of the 481 teachers in the Waterford system, substitute replacements had become quite a problem, explained Supt. William A. Shunck.

Before the new installation — which is on an experimental basis — principals in the 29 school buildings throughout the district were each responsible for replacing teachers in their schools.

DIFFICULT PROCESS

This led to the job of a principal checking a list then calling some of the 34 available substitutes. If that teacher had been called by another school, the principal would have to continue on down the list until a substitute was found.

Sometimes this procedure would take almost an hour, Shunck explained.

"Ten principals might be calling one substitute," Shunck said. With the new system a substitute teacher receives only one call and she is on her way.

"More time is needed to see just how effective this new central calling system is," Shunck said. "However, from all indication this will streamline our replacement operation tremendously."

ARTIST, TEACHER, SALESMAN—One of the county's most versatile residents is 33-year-old Harry Bandy, Waterford Township. After work, he paints, designs leather and ceramic objects and teaches night classes at a Detroit university.

Salesman, Artist, Teacher

Sees Work as Labor of Love

When Harry Bandy gets home after a hard day's labor, he goes right to work.

But the Waterford Township salesman's after-hours job is far more than just another job. It's a labor of love.

Bandy, a leather goods supplier to hospitals and hobby shops, is a versatile young artist of all trades: Leather tooling, painting, photography, ceramics designing, copper enameling. And in his "spare time" he teaches night-school classes at Wayne State University.

But when he gets back home to 619 Cass Lake Road, Bandy can point to numerous objects he has made for himself and his wife. like the brilliantly colored ceramic dishes and ashtrays, exquisitely hand-tooled leather items and vivid, realistic oil landscapes. In the bedrooms are hand-blocked linen draperies with original Bandy designs. Delicate pastel scenes he has painted hang on the walls.

"I can't remember when I first became interested in art," Bandy said. "When I was a youngster," he admitted, "I drew pictures on everything."

After a stint in the Army, Bandy was graduated from Tennessee State University and later received his master's degree in arts and crafts from Columbia University.

PAINTING FAVORITE

Bandy considers himself a "realistic," rather than abstract painter. That this is his favorite art form is evidenced by the huge painting dominating the living room. "Forest Fire" is a composition alive with brilliant flames and dense black smoke engulfing falling trees.

Bandy's largest project, he said, was a hand-tooled 3- by 6-foot cowhide mural. It took the artist three months of intense precision work to design and stamp out a picture of mountains, pine woods and lake. The mural is mounted over a lodge fireplace in Northern Michigan.

But despite Bandy's love for his "do-it-yourself" projects, he said that passing on his knowledge to others, through the night-school classes he teaches, is one of the most rewarding "works of art."

Rain Forces Session With Movies

From Our Wire Services

ANN ARBOR — The weather-man isn't helping Michigan coach Bump Elliott get his squad in shape for Saturday's curtain raiser against highly-touted UCLA.

Heavy rains yesterday forced Elliott to limit his afternoon workout to the field house, with only a few minutes outdoors. This was followed by movies of Saturday's scrimmage and the UCLA-Air Force game.

Heavy rains on Saturday also forced UCLA to keep its passing attack under wraps, thereby denying U-M scouts the chance to see how the Uclans throw the ball in their single wing attack.

In the 19-8 victory over the Air Force, Bobby Lee Smith — the 189-pound heir to Billy Kilmer's tailback job — scored all three Bruin touchdowns on the ground.

"He's a good one," said Elliott. "We know how he can run. We'd like to know how he passes — but we'll just have to do some guesswork."

Wolverine halfback Ben McRae, who did not dress for Saturday's scrimmage because of a sore toe, was back in uniform Monday and indications are he will be ready to face the Uclans on Saturday.

Dave Glinka, 196-pound junior from Toledo, Ohio, once again is ready to quarterback the Wolverines through another football season.

Glinka, first sophomore quarterback at Michigan since Forest Evashevski in 1938, was expected to have quite a bit of help this fall, but injuries have left the job squarely on his shoulders.

Sophomore Forest (Frosty) Evashevski, Jr., is out for the year with a knee injury and junior Bob Chandler's knee hasn't fully recovered from the injury in last year's Michigan State game. Both were supposed to provide Michigan with quarterbacking depth.

EAST LANSING — Rain forced the Michigan State Spartans inside yesterday as coach Duffy Daugherty geared his club for its Saturday opener at Madison against Wisconsin.

Daugherty said he was pleased with last Saturday's scrimmage performance of Carl Charon, senior halfback from Boyne City. Charon, an expected starter, had been out with a sprained ankle since Labor Day. Charon's ankle seems completely healed now, Daugherty said.

The veteran Spartan mentor also said he was pleased with the development of Earl Lattimer, sophomore halfback from Dallas, Tex. Lattimer picked up five first downs and scored once in 16 carries in Saturday's workouts.

State's intelligence report reflects the greatest respect for Wisconsin.

Assistant coach Vince Carillot scouted the Badgers in their spring game and also in the 7-0 win over Utah Saturday.

Carillot said he was particularly impressed by the passing combination of quarterback Ron Miller and end Pat Richter.

"They operated well under unfavorable conditions," he said, "a wet field and rain throughout most of the game."

Carillot said he thought, however, that Wisconsin was looking past the Utah game for the opening of Big Ten play against Michigan State.

Carillot gave his scouting report to the Spartan squad last night.

The team worked out only briefly in a limbering up session. Daugherty has said hitting is out for the week.

DETROIT — The University of Detroit suffered the loss of another starter for Friday night's encounter here with Xavier University of Ohio.

Ron Read, a 202-pound junior guard from Flint St. Michael's who was injured in the Titans 21-14 win over Western Michigan, was lost to UD for the Xavier game, a spokesman said.

Ed Greeves, 210-pound junior guard from Washington, D.C., is expected to replace Read in the lineup.

Other injuries in the Titan camp include Bob Laporte, sophomore halfback from Wyandotte St. Patrick and Joe Henze, senior tackle from Detroit St. Catherine.

Married Student Appeals Ban

Court to Hear Grid Case

LANSING (UPI)—The State Supreme Court yesterday agreed to hear an appeal from a Bay City student who was denied a chance to play high school football because he was married.

In agreeing to hear the appeal of Sherwin Schnell, the high court set the stage for a ruling on a point of law which it ducked the first time the question came up.

Schnell, 16, was kicked off the Bay City Central football team when school officials learned he was married.

He also was denied the right to take part in band and other extra-curricular activities under a rule of the Bay City School Board which prohibits married students from participating in such affairs.

A young married couple who sued the Mesick School Board in a similar case some time ago graduated from school before the high court ruled on whether being denied the opportunity to participate in extra-curricular affairs was a violation of their rights.

Since Schnell was only an eighth grader at the time of his marriage, there appeared ample time for high court action in his case.

Schnell and his wife, Kay, were married March 19, 1960, and he was ruled off the Bay City Central freshman team in the fall. The couple now has a child. Schnell, who brought the suit in conjunction with his father, William, said barring him from playing football interfered with his plans to become a coach after graduation.

High court aides said the earliest that a ruling on the case could be expected was some time next year.

State Pitcher Signs With Minnesota Club

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Twins announced the bonus signing Monday of Alfred Mantei, Benton Harbor, Mich., high school pitching ace who hurled four successive no-hit games to round out a 12-0 season record.

The Twins did not state a figure but said the bonus involved was "considerable," and added that all major league clubs were after Mantei.

Mantei, who reports next spring to Fort Walton Beach, Fla., in the Alabama-Florida league, is 18, stands 6-1, weighs 200 and is left handed all the way.

NFL Linemen No Different

Etcheverry Knocked Out in Game With Cleveland Last Sunday

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sam Etcheverry, the Canadian import now quarterbacking the St. Louis Cardinals, said Monday he's no more of a target for opposing linemen than any other quarterback.

And, added the bouncing Basque, that goes for the National Football League, as well as the Canadian League, where he starred for nine years with the Montreal Alouettes.

The subject of zeroing in on quarterbacks came up when the 31-year-old Etcheverry was knocked senseless Sunday in the Cards' 20-17 loss to the Browns at Cleveland. He was felled by a heavy Browns' charge early in the third quarter.

"He was completely knocked out when I got to him," said Cards' trainer Jack Rockwell. "He regained his senses quickly, but he couldn't put things together for a while."

"I was just knocked out of my senses, that's all," said Etcheverry.

Etcheverry's verdict after two NFL games:

"The defenses are much stronger in the NFL than in Canada. The secondary is quicker. The players on the average are bigger, on both offense and defense."

Athletics' Boss Wants Apology From Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, says an apology should be made to him over a hassle with a sports writer.

Finley made a "poison pen award" to Ernest Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, at a game Aug. 20 after Mehl had criticized Finley's handling of the ball club.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick on Aug. 23 told The Associated Press in New York:

"Such things do not belong in baseball and I called Mehl this morning and apologized to him, both personally and in the name of baseball."

Finley has sent a 20-page letter, dated Sept. 5, to Frick requesting the commissioner to withdraw that apology.

Flint Team Wins Davisburg Event

Flint's Gene Hunt, Michigan State varsity golfer who won the State Publinz crown in 1959 at Rochester, and teammate Charles Johnson, also from Flint, combined to win Davisburg Golf Club's annual Invitational Best Ball tournament over the weekend. A record entry of 52 teams competed in the tourney.

Jim Anderson, assistant plant manager at Fisher Body, and Joe Petroff, also of Pontiac, took 3rd place. Anderson and Petroff were City Best Ball champs last year. The Detroit tandem of Kowulski and Smith finished 2nd.

The event also produced Davisburg's first hole-in-one of the year. John Jawor, brother of Rackham pro Chet, aced the 147-yard 7th hole with an 8-iron. It was the 2nd ace in two weeks for Jawor, who lives in Detroit.

Ruth Tops All Sluggers

M-M Boys Also Rans in Home Run Averages

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK —Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle are undoubtedly the outstanding home run hitters of 1961, but on a lifetime per at bat basis the New York Yankee sluggers are among the also rans.

Babe Ruth, whose 60 homers Maris will attempt to surpass during the Yanks' final five games, had 714 lifetime homers in 8,399 times at bat for an average of one home run in each 11.8 official try.

Maris, with 59 homers this year, has 156 in 2,450 total at bats for an average of one homer in every 15.7 trips. Mantle has 54 homers this season and a lifetime aggregate of 374 in 5,519 attempts for a 14.7 average.

Ralph Kiner is second to Ruth with a homer in each 14.1 times at bat. The former Pittsburgh star had 369 circuit blows in 5,205 official trips. Mantle is third followed by Ted Williams 14.8 and Jimmy Foxx 15.2. Williams had 521 circuits in 7,706 at bats and Foxx had 534 homers in 8,134 official plate appearances.

Hank Greenberg, who had 331 homers in 5,193 trips, had an average of one homer in each 15.7 efforts. Then come Lou Gehrig 16.2, Johnny Mize 18.0, Mel Ott 18.5 and Joe DiMaggio 18.8.

Neither Maris nor Mantle lead in number of homers per official time at bat among the active players with 100 or more home runs. The pace-setter is Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins, who has 128 lifetime circuits in 1,756 at bats for a 13.7 average. Rocky Colavito of Detroit is next with 209 homers in 2,981 tries for a 14.3 average. Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews is behind Mantle's 14.7 with a 14.8 mark on 368 home runs in 5,448 official trips.

average. Milwaukee's Eddie

Maris' 59 homers in 577 times at bat this season gives him an average of one home run in each 9.8 appearance. Mantle has a 9.5 average. When Ruth had 60 in 1927 he went to bat 540 times and homored for an average of 9.0.

The Bambino put together the best homer-per-time at bat record in 1920 when he walloped 54 in 458 at bats for an 8.5 mark.

Greenberg had a 9.6 average in 1938 when he slammed 58 homers while Foxx had a 10.1 mark in 1932 when he also connected 58 times. Other leading averages were compiled by Kiner in 1949 10.2, Mantle in 1956 10.3, Willie Mays in 1955 11.4 and Mize in 1947 11.5.

Figures NFL Champion Will Lose Four Games

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Don Kellett, general manager of the Baltimore Colts, says the National Football League teams "are so evenly matched" that he thinks it would be possible for a club to lose four games and still win the Conference championship.

"It will be a great surprise to me if anyone says any team can continue with victories all the way," Kellett told Monday's kickoff luncheon of the new Touchdown Club of Philadelphia.

Drivers kill and cripple more children than any disease!

Pneumonia, cancer, polio—we're doing something to fight these child killers. Now let's start fighting the worst child killer of all—traffic accidents. Yes, drivers kill and cripple more children aged 1 to 14 than any disease. What can you do to curb careless drivers? You can stand up and be counted. You can write your local enforcement officials and say:

"I Support Strict Law Enforcement!"

Let your police and courts know you're behind their efforts to protect your children. For where traffic laws are strictly enforced and obeyed, deaths go down! Hundreds of communities have proved it. Every community can do better than it is doing!

Tells Executives How to Advance

CHICAGO (UPI) — If you don't know whether you're an executive, ask Richard D. Gleason.

But be prepared to shell out $500 for his services. Gleason makes a business of telling executives how to get bigger and better jobs. If he counts you an executive, you're a potential client, unless you're a woman.

Gleason gave up promoting the careers of female executives years ago as a job too difficult.

"For every 20 women I used to interview, only one bought my services," he complained. The one talked at the $500 fee. It's for helping you develop objectives, showing you how to use your head and bolstering your confidence, among other things.

Gleason has a broad definition of an executive. His services are available to foremen, office managers, safety directors, purchasing agents, writers and sales trainees.

One young man of the idea he was an up-and-coming executive was at the time assigned to measure the engineering department of a plant on his hands and knees.

"Unusual assignments are often the first sign that you're a "heavy" and management has plans for you," Gleason said.

Another sign you're an executive, by Gleason's reckoning, is when they stop paying you overtime.

Matter of fact, the money you make has little bearing on your executive status, according to Gleason. He said too many young men underestimated their positions by thinking they had to crash the $10,000 barrier to be considered an executive.

"It's what you make for the company, not what you take home, that makes you an executive," he said.

Gleason differentiates between an executive and an administrator. An executive makes profits and policy decisions, while an administrator only supervises people. Like Gleason's wife, Beverly, an administrator may run the office, "but I'm the executive in this outfit," he said.

Gleason has found the average wife knows her husband is an executive before he does.

"You can depend on a woman, too, to know executive material," he said. "When she starts to nag a man, he probably needs it."

You're an executive by your co-workers' standards when you start to step on their toes a little, Gleason said. "The next step is when they start coming to you for advice."

It's harder to say when your neighbors start to think of you as an executive, according to Gleason. He hasn't made the grade in the suburb where he lives . . . You have to have a power mower.

Fastest Growing Part of Economy

Labor Costs Take 40 Cts. From Dollar

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK—Services are the fastest growing portion of the economy and today take about 40 cents of every dollar consumers spend. They have provided the biggest increase in the number of jobs. Also they have accounted for much of the rise in the cost of living.

Indications that consumers will pay more than $140 billion this year for all types of services leave some businessmen far from happy. They are the makers of hard goods, like autos and appliances, and the merchants who sell both hard and soft goods.

Their worry: if the consumer spends more and more on services, there is less of his spendable dollar left to go for goods.

But many of the services owe their very being to making and sale of these goods. For example, when you buy a home appliance you please some utility company as well as the merchant and the appliance makers.

INSTALLATION, REPAIR

You'll be using the services of someone to install the appliance, and in time you're likely to use a repair man. Also you may need the services of a financing company and an insurance company when you buy a car or a major appliance.

There's another side to it, as noted today by the economics department of the Chase Manhattan Bank, New York. When you buy an appliance you may be cutting down on the need of some services. Example: The declining importance of domestic service workers. Or when you buy a car, you may cut further into the need for intercity rail and bus transportation.

PRICE RISE VARIES

Since 1946 consumer prices as a whole have gone up 52 per cent while the average rise in the service component has been 65 per cent. Department of Labor statistics show a wide variance in the rise of service prices in the last 14 years. Electricity rates on average have risen 11 per cent, while the cost of a hospital room has gone up 205 per cent.

But better care has accompanied higher hospital charge, the bank economists point out. And productivity in the utility and telephone industries have improved more than in any other sector of the economy except agriculture.

Commerce Department figures show Americans spent $19.6 billion last year for household operation, including electricity, phone, gas and water charges, domestic service and miscellaneous expenses.

Another $20.6 billion went for interest paid on nonmortgage debt, life insurance, legal, investment and bank fees.

HOSPITAL HIGHEST

Medical service accounted for $16.2 billion. Outlays for hospital care went up most, followed by payments for medical insurance.

Transportation took $10.5 billion recreation $6.4 billion; personal appearance $6.1 billion; religion and welfare $4.7 billion; private education $4.5 billion; and foreign travel $2.6 billion.

In the last 14 years the fastest growing item was interest on nonmortgage debt. This was due to rising spending on consumer durables and the increase in interest rates.

Private education took the second biggest jump in the 14 years. The bank economists give as the reasons: "The rise in the number of school age children, the greater importance placed on education by more highly educated parents, the current needs of business, and the greater ability to finance education."

Stocks Rebound After Battering

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market early today mounted a brisk recovery from Monday's sharp selloff.

Gains of key stocks ran mostly from fractions to about a point while some of the more volatile stocks rebounded 2 to 5 points.

In general, most of the big gainers were stocks which have battered down sharply either in Monday's decline or in the sessions preceding.

Texas Instruments rebounded 5 points, Zenith and Zerox about 4 apiece, Polaroid more than 3 and Litton Industries 2.

Ford was active as it recouped about a point of Monday's 4½-point loss. Other auto stocks gained fractions, Studebaker-Packard rising ⅝ to 12¼ on 8,000 shares.

International Business Machines recovered about 8 points. Du Pont rose more than a point.

The recovery was fairly widespread except for steels which which were irregularly lower in continued depression over the administration hostility to a price boost. Aluminums steadied after their fall of Monday, despite further news of price reductions.

Beckman Instruments had a snapback of 4 points.

Ahead about a point were such stocks as Goodyear, Woolworth, Caterpillar, Boeing, Allied Chemical and Union Carbide.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange moved generally higher. Fairchild Camera rose a couple of points. Sherwin-Williams and Anken Chemical gained fractions. Slight losers included Colonial Sand & Stone and Technicolor.

Death Notice

IVAN E. SENTERS

Ivan E. Senters, a superintendent of the afternoon shift at Fisher Body Division, died this morning at Pontiac General Hospital. He had suffered a heart attack at his home a few hours earlier.

Mr. Senters, 59, of 51 Wenonah Drive started at Fisher Body as a metal finisher. He was a supervisor in the body-in-white department for 26 years, and was made a general foreman in 1949.

He was a member of First Methodist Church, Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce and Roosevelt Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Senters leaves his wife, Marjorie; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Senters, Jacksonville, Ill.; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Peterson, Ridgewood, N.J., a granddaughter; a sister, and two brothers.

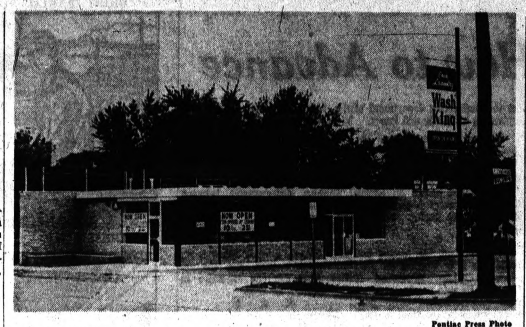

Service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Sparks-Griffin Chapel with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Grains Sell Mixed, Soybean Prices Dip

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures sagged more than a cent a bushel on most deliveries today in early dealings on the board of trade, while the grains sold generally in a mixed range.

The pressure in soybeans was linked, brokers said, with a sharp pickup the past day or two of new crop marketings. Receipts Monday were the largest of the season and indications were that they also were going in good volume direct to processing plants.

Commercial buying was slow all around during the first several minutes and limited mainly to scattered export business.

DO-IT YOURSELF DRY CLEANING — A new automatic dry-cleaning machine is a feature of the Wash King Laundry and Dry Cleaners, 1134 Baldwin. Coin Operated Machine Co. of Lowell installed the machine. Operation is similar to that of laundromats: clothes are placed inside and coins inserted. The machine starts cycles automatically. Owner Joseph Fifa reports the two baskets can handle six loads of 10 pounds within an hour.

OK to Clear Way for Highway Purchasing

Approval Sought for Two Road Pacts

Two perimeter road pacts will be placed before commissioners for approval at tonight's City Commission meeting.

City Manager Walter K. Willman will present the cooperation and contract agreements on the proposed loop road around Pontiac's central business district.

If approved by the commission and signed by Mayor Philip E. Rowston, they will clear the way for the state to begin purchasing right-of-way for the highway.

The cooperation agreement satisfies urban renewal requirements regarding commitments of the state and city on construction of the road.

The contract agreement spells out location of the highway, road closings, and points of access as well as making official Oct. 1, 1962, as starting date for construction of the loop road.

Willman is also expected to recommend that the city purchase a strip of land behind the Detroit Edison branch office at W. Huron and Pine streets for additional access to a municipal parking lot on W. Huron Street.

City Attorney William A. Ewart has prepared three reports for tonight's agenda.

One concerns new property acquisition for urban renewal clearance. The other two are on recent rulings of the State Supreme Court lifting the immunity of cities from negligence suits and rejecting an appeal of an Oakland County Circuit Court decision regarding Pontiac's method of financing municipal parking lots.

A proposed loan from the Pontiac Employes Retirement Fund to be used for construction of the new central fire station will be up for approval, too.

Chrysler Prices Are About Same for '62 Models

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. today announced prices for its 1962 model Chrysler and Imperial cars that are virtually the same as the 1961 model prices. Some reductions were announced.

Prices, at factory retail, are reduced $35 to $60 on the Chrysler Newport convertibles and 2-seat and 3-seat and Town and Country wagons. The Newport sedan is unchanged at $5,964. The New Yorker models also are unchanged.

The new Chrysler 300 sport series with standard equipment will sell in a range from $3,016 to $3,537.

Prices of the six 1962 Imperial models are the same as for 1961.

Third Man Is Arrested on Swindle Charge Here

A third magazine salesman is in the Oakland County jail charged with fraud in connection with the alleged $20,000 swindle of an Oakland Township financier.

Thomas Duncan, 23, of North Hollywood, Calif., called the local prosecutor's office yesterday saying he was in Chicago en route to Detroit.

A state police detective was at Metropolitan Airport to pick him up on his arrival. Duncan had been released on bond from jail in Los Angeles where he had been held pending extradition to Michigan.

Duncan is the third member of a five-man ring lodged in Oakland County Jail for allegedly bilking Frank R. Cook, 89, of 1860 Dutton Road, out of some $2,000 over a period of three months.

Today Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland ordered two years probation and 90 days in the county jail for Melvin Powers, 21, formerly of St. Louis, who pleaded guilty Sept. 11 to taking money under false pretenses.

According to Romeo State police, Cook said he paid out the money believing he was buying stock in a magazine subscription firm.

He told police he bought the magazines from the quintet to be sent to veterans hospitals and charitable institutions.

Avon Man Hurt in 3-Car Crash

Emil Sell, 49, Cut and Bruised When His Auto Hit One Ahead

An Avon Township man injured in a three-car crash near his home yesterday was reported in satisfactory condition today at Avon Center Hospital.

Emil E. Sell, 49, of 233 E. Maryknoll Drive, suffered cuts and bruises on his left arm and face when his car struck another in the rear on Rochester Road.

A third car was unable to stop in time to avoid crashing into the other two colliding vehicles. Both of the other drivers and their passengers escaped injury.

Sell was alone in his car when a car ahead, driven by Joseph A. Wampbell, 19, of 7524 Southfield Road, Sheby Township, stopped to make a left turn into a parking lot.

Sell, who crashed into the rear of the turning car, was unable to make any statement to sheriff's deputies.

Bernadine Nawroski, 35, of 180 Stark St., Rochester, told deputies she was unable to stop her car in time to avoid the accident ahead.

Episcopalians Calling for Study of Council

DETROIT (UPI)—Episcopalians today are calling on their joint commission on ecumenical relations to conduct a three-year study of the structure, program and finances of the National Council of Churches (NSS).

The house of deputies Monday voted unanimously not to sever the church's ties with the council and instead decided that the the church should "study" problems of Episcopalian relationship to the council.

The house of bishops now must concur with the deputies on the resolution not to withdraw the church from the NCC. Such concurrence on the part of the bishops is expected.

State Cash $59 Million

LANSING (AP) — State treasury income during the past week was $43 million and expenditures were $37.3 million, the treasury office reports. The balance in all funds at the end of the week was $59.3 million.

Hunting, Target Practice With Air Rifles Stopped

The Waterford Township Board last night approved an ordinance prohibiting the use of air rifles for hunting or target practice.

The action resulted from the many complaints received at the township hall and police department.

Bow and arrow target practice will continue but the board decided to prohibit bow and arrow hunting in the township. Township attorney Paul Mandel was authorized to prepare an amendment to the present firearms ordinance, and present it at next week's meeting.

Fifteen residents representing more than 100 people from the Sashabaw-Walton roads area were present, protesting a request of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Collier to transfer location of a liquor license from 2180 Dixie Highway to 3450 Sashabaw Road. The board denied the request for the change.

A request from Police Chief Millard A. Pender for a wage revision for police officers whose promotions had been confirmed by the Civil Service Board was denied.

Five police officers had been promoted six months ago, and at the time the board agreed that the department head would recommend wage increases when the individuals merited the increase.

The board repealed the trial board ordinance because the Civil Service Commission supercedes it.

Who said investing is a man's world?
More women than men own stocks
To invest or not to invest?
The answer to this question is not easy, quick, or foolproof. There's a right way and a wrong way. First, ask yourself what you need for living expenses and emergencies. Do you have a surplus after that? This is money you might consider investing. Secondly, talk to a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative for facts and advice. Tell him what you want your money to do for you. If your goal is income during the year, you'll probably want to know about stocks with a good record of paying dividends. If you want your money to grow for future use, one thing to discuss is stocks with a reasonable chance to increase in value over the years. For greater safety of income and principal you might find your best investment in bonds. There's also a Monthly Investment Plan which lets you invest with as little as $40 every three months.
Sound interesting? It is. And it can be rewarding. But remember, nothing is for sure. Stocks can go down as well as up, and your money deserves to be treated with care. Turn a deaf ear to tipsters. Talk to Watling, Lerchen & Co.
Studies indicate that more women than men own stock. If you believe that you are one of the many women for whom investing wisely can make good sense, start right—with the help of a Watling, Lerchen & Co. representative.

SPLIT UP—Fuller E. Callaway III and his wife, the former Jenny Ann Lindstrom, daughter of Ingrid Bergman, are living apart. Callaway confirmed Monday that his wife has moved out of their San Francisco apartment. Friends of the couple said Mrs. Callaway wants a divorce and plans to study drama at Stanford University. The couple is shown in the doorway of their home a few days after they married in February 1960.

Joint Chiefs, McNamara, JFK

Agree to Use N-Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon sources said today the Joint Chiefs of Staff are united in a belief that nuclear weapons should be used if such a step becomes necessary in any military clash with the Soviet Union over Berlin.

These sources said the uniformed chiefs of the Army, Navy and Air Force long have been agreed with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on this.

The White House, unlike the Kremlin, has not been rattling nuclear weapons during the Berlin crisis. Premier Khrushchev set off outcries of "nuclear blackmail" and "terror tactics" when he talked recently of having the ability to develop a superbomb and bragged that he had the missile power to deliver it to any point on the globe.

But in commenting on the Berlin crisis during his United Nations address Monday, President Kennedy declared every nation should know "the United States has both the will and the weapons to join free men in standing up to their responsibilities."

ANSWERS CRITICS

On the point of willingness to use the U.S. weapons stockpile, the President in effect was replying to criticism in a Senate speech last week by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine. She said the Kennedy administration, in building up U.S. conventional forces, has practically told the Russians "we do not have the will to use nuclear power against them."

In the wake of that speech and in advance of the President's U.N. address, Atty. Gen. Robert F Kennedy said "there is no question" that the President is prepared to resort to atomic weapons if such action becomes imperative to defend the West's position in Berlin.

McNamara was quoted as calling Sen. Smith's contention nonsense, and saying the United States will respond with whatever weapons and in whatever quantity it considers necessary to protect its freedom and vital interests.

Romney Would Take Democratic Backing

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — Automaker George S. Romney said Monday he would accept Democratic support in the event he clashed head-on with former Republican State Sen. Edward Hutchinson for the presidency of the upcoming constitutional convention.

Hutchinson, who launched his bid for the presidency at last weekend's Republican meeting at St. Joseph, said he would not seek Democratic votes in his effort to win the job. Hutchinson, considered an archconservative, is from Fennville.

GOP delegate Romney, president of American Motors Corp., met here with Kent County Republican leaders and con-con delegates. After the meeting, he met with newsmen.

Romney, who was pulled into the presidential race last week when he said he would take the job "if asked," told reporters he rejected the idea that he was "at the opposite end of the political spectrum from Mr. Hutchinson." Romney, considered a GOP liberal in many quarters, said the idea was "superficial and without foundation."

Romney said he would accept Democratic support because he favored a nonpartisan convention. Hutchinson said at St. Joseph that stock of the state if they could not choose the president with the 99-45 delegate majority they hold.

Talk that the two men represent extreme wings within the GOP "is possibly a political maneuver to create that kind of impression among delegates," Romney said.

Romney also reaffirmed that he is not running for governor. He said he had bypassed that opportunity once and "considered revision of Michigan's constitution more important than who ran for public office."

Tokyo Shakes, Slightly

TOKYO (AP)—Downtown Tokyo felt a slight earthquake today.

Montgomery Winds Up 'Delightful' China Trek

HONG KONG (AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery returned from Communist China today and told newsmen "I had a delightful trip."

He said he had visited Inner Mongolia, North Central and South China. He conferred with Chinese Communist party leader Mao Tse-tung and other top officials.

Restaurant Sues Firm for Using Coffee Machines

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — The 10-cent cup of coffee has steamed up a $170,000 lawsuit.

A Minneapolis restaurant contends it stands to lose that much because a large employer has installed coffee vending machines on its various floors and told its workmen to use them.

The restaurant, on the ground floor, alleges that its loss in coffee break revenue is "disastrous."

Pravda Prints Article on JFK

New York Post 'Gets' Soviet Paper to Publish President's Policy

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today printed a two-column article about President Kennedy—at the invitation of the New York Post.

The article was written by the Post's editor, James Wechsler, who pointed out that almost everything about Premier Khrushchev is printed in U.S. newspapers but little about Kennedy appears in Soviet newspapers.

PRINTED IN FULL

In his article Wechsler invited the Communist party newspaper Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia to print the article, which he called a brief analysis of the position of the President. Pravda reported it was printing it in full.

Wechsler wrote that Kennedy has no illusions about victory in a nuclear war, but if the worst happened he would not allow the United States to accept defeat.

Nevertheless, he said the President was determined to try to work out solutions of existing problems even knowing that any solution will shower blame on him as a conciliator. He said the President thought anything could be negotiated except the dignity of a free people.

Wechsler said the President was too ready to accept the published word as the voice of the people. Further, he added, the President acted too quickly in response to pressure from inside the country.

That, he said, explained Kennedy's decision to renew nuclear tests soon after the Russians resumed them.

Hints Group Will Die Unless It Moves

Kennedy Challenges U.N. to Act

By J. M. ROBERTS
AP News Analyst

On a day when he admitted that the very life of the United Nations is at stake, President Kennedy challenged the General Assembly to take new action and new responsibility for the future.

He virtually promised, if it would do so, to turn over to it some of the programs by which the United States has been acting more or less unilaterally to produce the kind of world in which she wants to live.

Here was Kennedy at his inspirational best, an earnest young man, recognizing cold realities, unwilling to be Red rather than dead, but looking "across this world of threats to the world of peace."

He was attempting to revive the faith of the United Nations in its own future, laying directly upon it the choice of a world living in peace instead of dying in its own flames.

He proposed that disarmament control and inspection be placed under the United Nations.

He gave strong indication that the United States will one day consider surrendering its foreign economic and technical aid program to the U.N. so that "development can become a cooperative instead of a competitive enterprise." This is a highly controversial idea which many objective students of world affairs have supported for years. He proposed an official U.N. "decade of development."

He reiterated United States proposals for a U.N. peace force and an extension of U.N. fact-finding and mediation powers in international disputes. He advocated U.N. control of space as neutral area, of space communications, of weather study and eventual control.

In the next 10 months, he said, the United Nations may determine the fate of man for 10 thousand years.

He promised, in the tone of a man who makes his vow to his God, the dedication of the United States to the aims of the charter.

He told the world that it could be free if it would, with no nation, great or small, required to conform to the will of others.

The ordinarily reserved assembly applauded when he said that "weapons must be abolished before they abolish us." When he said we would never negotiate out of fear and never fear to negotiate the applause lasted six seconds. When he spoke of self-determination and free choice, and of the firm intent to defend Berlin, there was more. Also when he reminded of Pushkin's fictional Russian czar who ordered his people frozen within their own boundaries. (At this, Gromyko smiled.)

And at the end the applause continued for a full minute before the adjournment announcement, and then continued until he passed from the hall.

He sounded just like an American, steeped in traditional ideals, facing unhesitatingly into the winds of trouble, apprehensive yet unafraid, believing that there is a future for the highest aspirations of man.

Jet Lands Safe; Over 30 Unhurt

Swiss Airlines Plane Sets Down in Geneva With Gear Jammed

GENEVA (AP)—More than 30 passengers and crewmen on a Swiss Airlines jet plane escaped injury today in an emergency landing at Geneva Airport.

The twin-jet Caravelle, bound for Zurich from London, was rerouted to Geneva because of fog. It circled for 1¼ hours over the airport with its landing gear partly stuck.

Several hundred airport officials security guards, volunteers and almost all the Geneva fire brigade watched the plane come down for the landing.

Pilot Hans Kaufmann, 33, landed on the two left wheels, kept the plane level for a while, then dipped down the nose wheel and slowly let the right wing drop.

As the wing hit the concrete the plane simply turned off the runway, made a complete circle on the grass, and stopped not far from a row of fire trucks and ambulances.

The passengers were badly shaken. The plane was only slightly damaged.

Hammarskjold's Body Flown Back to Sweden

NDOLA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — The bodies of U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and 15 other victims of the plane crash that killed him began their last voyage home today.

A Rhodesian Air Force plane carrying the bodies took off into a morning haze as a battalion of royal Rhodesia regiment troops snapped to present arms and a band played the general salute.

The plane headed for Salisbury, capital of the Rhodesian federation, for solemn ceremonies preceding the flight to their home countries.

Hammarskjold's body was destined for the honor of a state funeral in Uppsala, Sweden, his home town. State officials and world figures were converging on the ancient university city.

Ex-Stage Star, Frank Fay, Dies

Radio, Vaudeville Comic Succumbs in California Hospital at 62

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Frank Fay, 62, former Broadway vaudeville comedian and radio star, died Monday night.

Death came at 11:55 p.m. in St. John's Hospital while he was semi-conscious. A hospital spokesman said Fay had spoken a few words to his nurse five minutes prior to his death. The nurse and a doctor were at his side.

MADE DEBUT AT 6

The spokesman said the actor suffered from an internal rupture of the abdominal aorta. He entered the hospital last Aug. 23.

Born in San Francisco Nov. 17, 1898, Fay made his stage debut at 6 with a part in "Quo Vadis?" in Chicago.

With Johnny Dyer Fay toured vaudeville circuits for years in the Dyer and Fay team. The pair frequently gave five or six performances a day. They danced and sang songs which Fay wrote, until a vayo

His greatest success came in the '40s when he made a side-splitting comeback in the Pulitzer Prize-winning Broadway hit, "Harvey."

The play opened in 1944, played two years on Broadway and then went on the road with Fay still portraying Elwood P. Dowd, the captivating drunk who paled around with an invisible rabbit.

Fay first reached Broadway in musical comedy and then went on to stardom at the Palace. In 1922, he wrote, produced and acted in "Frank Fay's Fables." Throughout the '20s, he alternated between vaudeville and the theater.

De Gaulle Slates Speech

PARIS (AP)—The Elysee Palace said Monday night President Charles de Gaulle will give a radio-TV speech to the nation Oct. 2.

Sees Live TV Beamed to Europe by End of '62

CHICAGO (UPI) — Deputy administrator U. L. Dryden of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has predicted the United States will beam live television programs to Europe by the end of 1962.

In a speech before the Chicago Federation of Churches Monday, Dryden said the programs would be carried by means of special earth satellites.

Simone Accompanies French Star to N.Y.

By EARL WILSON

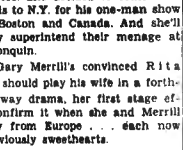

NEW YORK—French star Yves Montand's Oscar-winning wife Simone Signoret isn't taking any chances on a revival of those Marilyn Monroe rumors. She decided to come with him from Paris to N.Y. for his one-man show here and in Boston and Canada. And she'll most carefully superintend their menage at the Hotel Algonquin.

WILSON

FLASH: Gary Merrill's convinced Rita Hayworth she should play his wife in a forthcoming Broadway drama, her first stage effort. Rita'll confirm it when she and Merrill return shortly from Europe . . . each now single, but obviously sweethearts.

The Sinatra Beat: Frank and several pals including Joe E. Lewis dropped into the White Tower hamburger spot, 56th and 8th Av., and started sharing-the-wealth with some of the characters. One elderly woman wound up with $102 . . . Ava Gardner phoned Frank, he phoned her back, but they missed each other . . . Frank filmed a cameo spot in Washington in Otto Preminger's "Advise and Consent."

Churchill, Wily Stalin Saw Berlin's Fate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The decision that restrained Allied armies from taking Berlin and permitted the Russians to seize that capital single-handed was a Roosevelt-Churchill decision of 1944.

Berlin was ripe to be plucked a year later in the spring of 1945. Sir Winston Churchill had realized before then that the decision of 1944 was a bad one. Churchill failed in his efforts to attract President Roosevelt's attention to this situation.

Churchill failed, also, in his efforts to persuade Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff that the military decision of 1944 should be changed for political reasons in 1945. That is the nub of dispute now over responsibility for the Soviet Union's claim of predominant authority and position in Berlin and with respect to the city's future.

Eisenhower has abruptly challenged and repudiated a State Department implication that it was his decision to permit the Russians alone to overrun Berlin. Eisenhower was unimpressed by the political implications of the Russian capture of Berlin. Neither did he regard Berlin of major military importance. In a March 30, 1945, message to the U.S. Joint Chiefs, Eisenhower restated his military plans to drive deep into Germany elsewhere.

"May I point out," Eisenhower said in this message, "that Berlin itself is no longer a particularly important objective."

Wily Josef Stalin encouraged Eisenhower in this belief. In a message to Eisenhower in late March, Stalin endorsed the supreme commander's military plans and told him:

SECONDARY FORCES

"Berlin has lost its former strategic importance. The Soviet High Command therefore plans to allot secondary forces in the direction of Berlin."

Churchill has put this Stalin blarney in its proper perspective with the following comment: "This statement (Stalin's) was not borne out by events." On the contrary, the Russians strove for and gained Berlin first. And that has led to the situation now existing in which the Berlin controversy may lead the world to all-out nuclear war. To Eisenhower on March 31, 1945, Churchill addressed a question and some related observations, as follows:

"Why should we not cross the Elbe and advance as far eastward as possible? This has an important political bearing, as the Russian armies of the south seem certain to enter Vienna and overrun Austria.

"If we deliberately leave Berlin to them, the double event (Vienna and Berlin) may strengthen their conviction, already apparent, that they have done everything."

To Roosevelt, Churchill addressed a message on April 1:

"If they also take Berlin (as well as Vienna) will not their impression that they have been the overwhelming contributor to our common victory be unduly imprinted in their minds? And may this not lead them into a mood which will raise grave and forlegy. Ike and the U.S. Joint Chiefs midable difficulties in the future?" did not understand it. This was FDR was ill and unfit to deal a great victory for the Soviet with this great problem of strat- Union.

Changes Mind Quick

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — J. E. Stall, superintendent of sanitation, though a bomb uncovered in digging a drainage ditch would look good outside his office. He changed his mind after an ordnance disposal team from Langley Air Force Base found the World War I relic was loaded with 53 pounds of high explosive.

his first glass of milk

Today, somewhere overseas, an underfed little boy drank his very first glass of milk. True, it was made from powdered milk, but it was good and it took him a step towards being a healthy child.

That little boy is not alone overseas. There are thousands of underfed children like him. They frequently lack clothing, a place to sleep, too.

What's being done? A great deal . . . and there's a way for you to help. America's three faiths—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—all maintain Overseas Aid Programs. These programs help millions of people with food, clothing, shelter . . . and even more—jobs, training, education, tools, equipment . . . and most of all, hope.

Next time your faith makes an appeal for help, give generously.

New kind of bran from Kellogg's

© 1961 by Kellogg Company

Kellogg's All-Bran Buds
with defatted wheat germ added

Crisp, tasty way to get the benefits you want from bran

Everything about Kellogg's All-Bran Buds is new—the flavor, the crispness, the form—even the formula is new.

Kellogg's toasts All-Bran Buds so they have unusual eating qualities. They are crisp and tender—with a sweetness all their own. And for the first time, defatted wheat germ has been added to the natural laxative properties of bran. Now you can have a truly modern cereal that promotes youthful regularity.

Whole bran, you know, is one of nature's best sources of food bulk. Just half a cup each day is effective in correcting the stubborn kind of constipation that is caused by a lack of bulk in the diet.

If you need bran, you've never had it so good. Try Kellogg's All-Bran Buds soon.

To make sure that you enjoy All-Bran Buds while it's new, Kellogg's will help you buy your first package of this modern laxative cereal. When the package is empty, cut the special refund offer panel off the back and send it to All-Bran Buds, P. O. Box 801, Detroit 12, Mich. We'll send you 25¢ by return mail. (Limit one request per family. Offer expires April 30, 1962.)
