Piecing Puzzle Together

TAKING SHAPE — Wreckage of a National Airlines plane that crashed near Bolivia, N. C., Jan. 6 takes shape as CAB investigators painstakingly reassemble the pieces at Wilmington, N. C., hoping to learn exactly what caused the disaster that took 34 lives. It's suspected that a passenger, Julian Frank, carried a bomb aboard. Mystery also surrounds the crash of a National Airlines plane in the Gulf of Mexico on Nov. 16 which killed 42.

Judge Promises Fast Hearing on Trial Board

Holland Will Decide in 2 Weeks if City Panel Is Legal

Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today promised a speedy hearing and decision on whether a police trial board legally exists in Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Judge Holland set a pretrial hearing on the matter for Thursday or Friday and both hearing and decision will be within two weeks.

Conferring with the judge will be Paul E. Meredith, attorney for the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA), and City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Meredith last week filed a petition on behalf of eight PPOA members asking Circuit Court to declare whether the trial board is legally constituted in light of the repeal of the Pontiac Civil Service Commission by voters last April.

The hearing today was for the city to show cause why a temporary injunction should not be issued, placing the trial board's authority in abeyance.

The PPOA attorney dropped a move to obtain an injunction at request of Judge Holland.

H. Malcolm Kahn, trial board chairman, promised that the group would not take any action before the court ruling.

★ ★ ★

Ewart admitted existence of a controversy and asked for a court ruling. Judge Holland said a quick hearing would be held because "it is in the public interest."

SUSPENDED OLD PROVISIONS

Civil service for police was adopted by voters in 1957 and repealed two years later.

When the optional state civil service act was adopted, it automatically suspended the old trial board provisions in the city charter.

Ewart advised the City Commission that the trial board was automatically reconstituted when civil service was repealed.

Voters never specifically took any action to reconstitute the trial board.

Because they didn't, according to the PPOA point, there is legally no trial board — and, therefore, no protection for policemen or the chief.

Dr. Sullenberger Agrees to Take Hospital 'Rest'

Dr. Neil H. Sullenberger, who set fire to his wife's clothing in the living room of his Pontiac home early Sunday, agreed today to enter a Veterans Administration hospital for medical treatment.

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor and Sullenberger's attorney, Carlton S. Roeser, said in a joint statement that Sullenberger was convinced of his need for a "rest."

Sullenberger has been in an Oakland County jail cell since the fire.

"His latest act of carelessness has brought home to Dr. Sullenberger his need for rest and medical care," Roeser said. "He believes it to be in his interest and that of his family to seek the aid of the Veterans Administration office."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Sullenberger has agreed to stay in the hospital until discharged by the medical staff, the two men said.

FACES CHARGES

Taylor said that Sullenberger would be charged with arson if he violated the agreement.

Sullenberger served for five years with the Air Force during World War II. He was honorably discharged with the rank of captain in 1946.

Neither Taylor nor the attorney would use the term "psychiatric" treatment in reference to Sullenberger's entering the hospital.

Taylor took the position that because of his service in the Air Force — and because of "his frank statements to me" — Sullenberger was entitled to any assistance available.

Sullenberger can leave the hospital whenever he chooses. But if he does so, he faces prosecution on criminal charge.

"My wife was a clothes horse," Sullenberger told Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor. "I wanted to bring her down to my level."

He left Pontiac Wednesday to search for her and did not return until Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Sullenberger talked to police Sunday. She told them she fled from home after Sullenberger ordered her to pick up a revolver from a friend's home.

She was afraid he'd shoot her, she told police.

Sullenberger said he didn't sleep at all on his searching trip.

He went to Washington, D. C., Boston and York, Pa., he told officers. He didn't find her.

At 11:30 a.m. Sunday he yanked his wife's hats, dresses, shoes and other belongings from the closets and spread them in a 20-foot long pile from the living room into the dining room.

He ignited the clothing and awoke his three children who were asleep upstairs.

DROVE FROM HOME

He then drove from the home at 208 E. Iroquois Rd. to his Huron street clinic across from Pontiac General Hospital where he called the fire department.

Damage to the home was minor.

Authorities said his three children, whom he had adopted during a previous marriage, could have suffocated in the fire.

His daughter Janet, 14, and sons Jerry, 9, and Jeffrey, 7, were taken into the home of a Pontiac police officer who is a close friend of the physician.

They were cared for by a family friend while he searched for his wife.

Sullenberger told officers his wife had been spending money for clothes which should have been spent on the home.

He claimed that she spent in-

President Says It Can Help Bring Tax Cut

Calls Higher Levies on Gasoline and Postage Vital to Success

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Eisenhower today sent Congress his election year budget and said it promises a $4,184,000,000 surplus that can pave the way for a tax cut, possibly next year.

For the present, however, Eisenhower proposed raising more revenue. He said Congress should increase the federal gasoline tax by a half a cent a gallon—to 4½ cents—and add a penny each to the 4-cent letter charge and the 7-cent air mail rate.

The President implied that unless Congress votes these and other revenue measures—and resists any urge to boost spending—the predicted surplus will melt away and with it, hopes of broadscale tax relief sometime after the November election.

For the 1961 fiscal year that begins July 1, Eisenhower estimated record revenues of 84 billion dollars. He called for spending of $79,816,000,000.

This would produce the biggest surplus in 13 years—a margin of black ink which the President said should be used to reduce the record national debt of 292 billion dollars. He said a debt cut would counter inflation and spur savings needed to stimulate new economic growth.

Eisenhower said the projected spending level will permit small increases in both the military and foreign aid budgets, a major step-up in space exploration and record outlays for water projects.

Although allotting 50 million dollars more for defense, the budget proposes small cuts in purchases of missiles and ships and a big reduction in aircraft purchases.

Don't Expect Hike on Mail or Gasoline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reaction indicated today President Eisenhower will not get the postal rate and gasoline tax increases proposed in his new budget.

Democrats generally expressed doubt that a $4,184,000,000 surplus estimated by Eisenhower will materialize. Republicans said whether it does will depend on actions taken by the Democratic-controlled Congress.

★ ★ ★

The usual forecasts of cuts in foreign aid and some other items were offset by comments of others that projected spending won't meet the nation's needs.

Members of both parties indicated they don't believe Congress will be willing to raise postal rates or increase the gasoline tax.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the assistant Democratic leader, said Eisenhower was correct in predicting that the prospective surplus will melt away if new revenues are not added.

TAX HOPE 'POLITICAL'

"It is my belief that Congress will not agree to these proposals," Mansfield said. He said Eisenhowers statement that it may be possible to have tax reductions in 1961 "is more political than practical."

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) called the predicted surplus highly uncertain, adding that "much of it is based on a philosophy of not doing things rather than doing things."

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La) of the House Space Committee, characterized Eisenhower's proposed 600-million-dollar outlay for space exploration as "a distinct disappointment."

Was Victim a Hypnotized Dupe?

Death-Plane Mystery Darkens

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Was a Dallas naturopath with a criminal record on a National Airlines plane which crashed into the Gulf of Mexico killing all 42 aboard?

Or did Dr. Robert V. Spears persuade — perhaps hypnotize — a Tampa man into taking his place? Or were both aboard the ill-fated plane which plunged into the water on Nov. 15?

The Tampan, missing since the day of the crash, was William Allen Taylor, 46, who was sentenced to prison with Dr. Spears in 1956 for operating a confidence scheme.

Taylor's divorced wife, Alice Steel Taylor of Tampa, said Dr. Spears was a hypnotist.

"I'm sure my former husband got on that plane instead of Spears," she said Sunday night. "It's even possible that my ex-husband was hypnotized to get on that plane."

But in Dallas, Mrs. Spears said she's sure that if her 53-year-old husband were alive "he'd be here with me and the babies."

The mother, in her mid-30's, has a 10-month-old daughter and a 2-year-old son.

Spears was listed as one of the passengers who died in the crash. Taylor bought flight insurance just before the takeoff from here but was not on the passenger list. Only a few of the bodies and a portion of the wreckage have been recovered.

An FBI investigator has suggested the plane might have been sabotaged and Spears may have had someone else take his seat so his wife could collect on a large insurance policy. Mrs. Spears said her husband had $30,000 or $100,000 worth of flight insurance—"I don't remember which."

Meanwhile it was disclosed that Julian Frank, who met death in the possible suicide-bombing of another National Airlines plane on Jan. 6 declined an option for double indemnity in a half-million-dollar life insurance policy.

Since the tragedy, numerous financial and legal difficulties that beset New York lawyer Frank have come to light. Some authorities leaned toward the theory that Frank carried a bomb aboard the flight.

Ike Will Visit Russia in June

He'll Return Call Paid by Khrushchev to U.S. Last September

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's crusade of world travels to promote peace and freedom will take him behind the Iron Curtain into the Soviet Union for 10 days starting June 10.

Dates for the President's trip, planned since last summer, were announced Sunday by the White House and the Soviet government.

In going to the Soviet Union Eisenhower will be returning the two-week visit which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made to the United States last September.

The President will go first to Moscow. He also will visit a few other cities in the Soviet Union but there has been no final decision as to which ones.

There were no immediate announcements as to whether the President will be accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower and their four grandchildren. Khrushchev invited the youngsters when he met them at the President's Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

Khrushchev's two weeks in U.S. country seem to have made no basic improvement in relations, and now he is pushing a new pressure drive to force the Western leaders to give up protection of West Berlin.

That will be a main issue at the Paris summit conference starting May 16, less than a month before Eisenhower's arrival in the Soviet Union. The President, Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle will meet with Khrushchev at the Paris session.

Produces Atomic Electricity for Over a Year

BALTIMORE (AP)—Scientists at the Martin Co. say SNAP, a little atomic gadget expected to produce electricity without maintenance for 140 days or so, is still going strong after a year.

SNAP stands for "System for Nuclear Auxiliary Power." The device has no moving parts but produces heat by the radioactive decay of 1-40 of an ounce of polonium-210.

Now They Can Rest

LONDON (UPI) — Lionel Swift fired all 12 mattress makers at his bedding factory for lying down on the job. One of the mattress makers, George Asling, admitted they used to stretch 10-minute tea breaks to 30 minutes because, "You get worn out, working on beds all day."

Japanese Premier Kishi to Ink Pact in White House

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi, a minor league war criminal who became a major league ally, is here to sign a long-term military and economic pact with the United States.

The 63-year-old Premier, who arrived last night for a three-day visit, withstood the assaults of Japanese Communists and Socialists plus the vituperation of Russia and Red China to work out the new alliance against Communist aggression.

With President Eisenhower looking on, Kishi and Sec. of State Christian A. Herter will sign the treaty tomorrow afternoon in the east room of the White House where President Buchanan received the first Japanese mission 100 years ago.

Eisenhower and Kishi will confer tomorrow morning. The President will give a luncheon in Kishi's honor following the conference and the Japanese leader then will go to the State Department for further talks.

The President called Herter and Douglas MacArthur II, U.S. ambassador to Japan, to the White House today to go over subjects expected to come up at tomorrow's meetings.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon met Kishi at the airport and praised him as the "courageous leader" of a "great people and a true and loyal friend."

The Japanese-American security treaty continues the right of the United States to base military forces in Japan, but under conditions which recognize full Japanese sovereignty. It replaces a pact hurriedly drawn in 1951 along with the general peace treaty which the Japanese have felt merely continued the occupation in many respects.

Bus Strike Over in Kalamazoo; Silence Here

One of three bus strikes affecting Michigan cities serviced by National City Bus Lines, Inc., was settled last night as Kalamazoo City Lines and its striking workers reached an agreement.

Local officials were not available for comment this morning as to what effect the Kalamazoo settlement would have on Pontiac's bus strike, if any.

Both Pontiac and Saginaw bus workers are still on strike. All three strikes began Dec. 5.

The new two-year contract provides a 14-cent hourly package—an increase now of 8 cents, of which 6 cents is retroactive to last April, and another increase of 6 cents Jan. 19, 1961.

Mechanics will get an additional increase of 8 cents an hour over the two-year period.

Former hourly rates were $1.72 for drivers and $1.87 for mechanics.

$500,000 in Surplus to Go Toward New Courthouse

Oakland County supervisors today voted to use $500,000 of more than $800,000 uncovered surplus for the new courthouse, but took no action on a recommendation that the county have a manager-type government.

Worried at times last year that there were insufficient funds to build the new courthouse, supervisors voted 68-6 to take the half million dollars from some $828,470 in nontax receipts to be used to meet contract obligations for the new building.

The surplus funds, supervisors learned from David Levinson, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, resulted from a "generally improved picture with respect to nontax receipt collections."

From the surplus, $328,470 will be restored to five different funds money was borrowed from last year as the 'county then faced what some county officials painted as a very gloomy financial picture for this year.

"We were facing what could have been a very desperate situation," Levinson said in his report to the supervisors today.

"However, later during 1959, and even when there were still prospects of a prolonged steel strike, we were very pleasantly surprised to find that the general (welfare) relief load began to drop," Levinson added.

In a report distributed to supervisors last week, it was pointed out that the picture improved considerably because receipts were some $660,392 higher than anticipated through last November.

"We estimated as we did because we anticipated an overdraft of a million dollars," declared Robert Y. Moore, veteran chairman of the Board of Auditors.

'PADDED NO BUDGETS'

Asked if the suddenly uncovered surplus might bring back old charges of "padded budgets"—none of which were heard at today's meeting—Moore replied:

"We padded no budgets, we were just fortunate."

Area Gets Heavy Snow Warning

Four Inches Expected, With Colder Weather Due for Tomorrow

A heavy snow warning has been issued for the vicinity today by the weather bureau. A blanket of four inches or more, becoming mixed with drizzle, is forecast for the area, with flurries and colder weather tomorrow.

The Weather Bureau said the Central and South regions of the state may get between 3 to 7 inches of snow.

Tonight's low is expected to range somewhere between 22 and 26 degrees, and tomorrow's high from 24 to 28.

POOR SPRING FARMING SEEN

According to the Oakland County Agriculture Extension office, a light snowfall so far this winter forebodes poor farming conditions in the spring.

★ ★

Heavy snow, forecast throughout most of the Lower Peninsula, is expected to extend into Indiana and Ohio today and tomorrow.

Today's low in the city was 24 at 8 a.m. with easterly wind velocities from 14 to 16 m.p.h. The high was 30 at 2 p.m. Sunday's high was 29, and the low 24.

Can See Over Horizon

Navy Develops New-Type Radar

NEW YORK (AP) — The Naval Research Laboratory has developed a radar that can see over the horizon and detect missiles as they are launched from submarines, the New York Times said today.

* * *

Within the Navy, it was reported, the system is being viewed as one answer to the increasing threat of missiles launched from a Soviet submarine fleet.

The Navy is hailing the development as one of the most significant breakthroughs in radar technology since radar was developed at the naval laboratory in the 1920s, a Washington dispatch to the Times added.

The new radar, the story said, has been given the code name of Project Madre—standing for Magnetic Drum Receiving Equipment, a key component in the system.

The Times said one outgrowth of the Madre approach has been Project Tepee, a system being worked on by the Navy for intercontinental detection of missile launchings or nuclear explosions in the atmosphere. The Defense Department disclosed the existence of Project Tepee last summer.

* * *

Here, in part, is the Times report on Project Madre:

The development means that for the first time there is a radar that is not limited in its detection vision to the line of sight from the transmitting antenna.

BENDS BEAM

The new device can bend its beam over the horizon to pick up moving targets as far away as 2,000 miles.

From a technical standpoint, Project Madre is expected to open up a new approach in radar. There is now a method to get extremely long range with relatively low power.

Project Madre, from a military standpoint, is expected to fill in many of the gaps—particularly on the sea frontiers—in the missile-bomber detection network surrounding the continental United States.

A few Madre stations along the eastern seaboard of Canada and the United States could provide a detection fence reaching halfway across the Atlantic from the equator to the Arctic.

The Madre system also offers possibilities of detecting low-flying bombers, which are a troublesome problem for present radar.

* * *

Madre transmits signals in the high frequency band of 3 to 30 megacycles and they are reflected back to earth by the ionosphere —the electrical layer in the earth's upper atmosphere.

Ike's Budget Aims at $4 Billion Surplus

* * *

Eisenhower asserted that if the fiscal blueprint can be translated into reality, the president and Congress to be elected in November will have an opportunity to cut taxes, assuming prosperity continues.

* * *

"Soundly conceived tax revision can then be approached on a comprehensive and orderly basis, rather than by haphazard piecemeal changes," he added.

* * *

Eisenhower did not say specifically that a tax cut should be considered in 1961. He merely pointed to this as a possibility during the two-year tenure of the Congress that will convene next January.

DEBT CUT INSTEAD?

He also commented the legislators might prefer debt reduction to tax reduction.

In addition to a big surplus in fiscal 1961, the President is counting on a 217-million-dollar surplus in the current bookkeeping year. For the 12 months which end June 30 he estimated revenues of $78,600,000,000 and spending of $78,383,000,000.

The $62-page budget contained no major surprises, particularly since Eisenhower revealed the principal figures 11 days ago in his State of the Union message.

—Increase postal rates by $44 million dollars a year. This was 150 million more than was requested, and refused, in 1958.

* * *

If Congress again bypasses higher rates, as seems likely, spending will be increased by a like amount since postal revenues are used to reduce the department's demands on the Treasury.

—Boost the gas tax to 4¼ cents a gallon until June 30, 1964, when the rate would revert to 3 cents. This would produce an extra 500 million a year to speed construction of superhighways—a program handled through a trust fund outside the budget.

* * *

Congress last year boosted the tax from 3 cents to 4 cents for a 21-month period beginning last October and is expected to resist the new request.

WANTS HIGHER CEILING

—Increase the tax on aviation gasoline to 6½ cents a gallon, from 2 cents, and establish a new 4½ cent tax on jet fuels. These actions, also requested in 1959, would add 72 million dollars to revenues.

Eisenhower also asked that aviation taxes go into the general fund, instead of the highway trust fund.

* * *

—Postpone a scheduled June 30 cut in corporation income and excise taxes. Unless this is done, Treasury revenues would drop at least 3½ billion dollars a year.

— Increase the national debt ceiling temporarily. Eisenhower said the prospective surplus plus cash on hand will permit cutting the debt to 280 billion dollars by the end of fiscal 1961. However, he said seasonal borrowings next fall will make necessary a temporary increase in the ceiling.

The permanent ceiling is 285 billion dollars and a temporary 288 of 295 billion expires June 30.

—Remove the 4¼ per cent interest ceiling on money borrowed for more than 5 years. Eisenhower already has submitted a special message renewing this 1959 request but congressional Democrats have shown little enthusiasm.

PROTEST ANTI-SEMITISM — People, young and old, carried torches last week, as they gathered around a Jewish memorial stone in Frankfurt, Germany, to listen to a message from the city's mayor. The meeting was a protest against anti-Semitic incidents in the world. The memorial commemorates the destruction of the Frankfurt synagogue by the Nazis on Nov. 9, 1938.

Slaughter Ahead of Last Year

14 Die in State Weekend Traffic

By The Associated Press

Weekend traffic fatalities in Michigan are running ahead of those a year ago.

Fourteen persons were killed in traffic accidents in the past weekend compared with eight deaths a year ago.

In the previous weekend, 13 died in traffic accidents compared with five a year ago.

* * *

In the past weekend four died in single-car accidents and eight in two-vehicle collisions. In addition, one pedestrian was killed and a 14-year-old boy on a sled was killed when he veered into the path of a car.

Not included in the weekend death toll was Mrs. Helen Holmap, 29, of Southgate. She was killed at 12:22 a.m. today in a car that crashed through a road construction barricade on Telegraph road near Ann Arbor trail in Dearborn Township of the Detroit area.

Three persons were killed over the weekend in nontraffic accidents.

* * *

Michael J. McCarthy, 8, who lived near Battle Creek, was dragged to his death Saturday in an attempt to harness a pet burro.

Mrs. Grace Sides, 51, suffocated Sunday in a fire at her home near Flint.

The following were killed in traffic accidents:

Edward White Block, 33, of Holland, lost his life Friday night when his car skidded on an icy Ottawa County rural road and overturned in a water filled ditch.

Billy Lee Gibson, 27, of Albion was killed Saturday when his car ran off an icy road in Calhoun County.

Leon Kohlbeck, 33, of Ada died in a two-car collision on U.S. 131 near Grand Rapids Saturday.

Mrs. Lyla Blevins, 43, of Dearborn Township, was injured fatally Saturday in a two-car collision there.

Otto Seyboth, 72, of Hartford was struck by an auto Saturday when he ran onto U.S. 12 near Hartford to save his dog.

Charles Brown, 27, of Detroit, was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on Detroit's east side.

Herman Isbister, 18, and Ephriam Bowen, 17, both of Memphis, Mich., were killed Sunday when a car in which they were passengers sideswiped another auto and then bounced into a tree off M19 near Richmond in St. Clair County.

Mrs. Otto Tietz, 53, of Hastings was injured fatally Sunday in a two-car collision on M37 near Hastings. Four other persons were injured.

Emil Bandurski, 55, of Benton Harbor was killed Sunday afternoon when his motorcycle veered out of control and crashed headon into an auto on U.S. 31, nine miles north of Benton Harbor. Dr. Arnold Barr, 58, of Port Washington, Wis., the driver of the auto, suffered minor injuries. He tried to give medical aid to Bandurski, but the motorcyclist was dead.

Clarence W. Sikorski, 55, of Interlochen, a retired court guardsmen, lost his life Sunday when his car skidded off U.S. 131 near Charlevoix and plunged into a canal. Police skin divers recovered his body in 25 feet of water.

Mrs. Ann Bowers, 28, of Detroit was killed Sunday when a car in which she was a passenger rammed a utility pole on Detroit's east side. Five other occupants of the car are in serious condition at Saratoga Hospital in Detroit.

Kevin Cahill, 14, of Big Rapids, was killed Sunday afternoon when his sled veered into the path of an auto at Big Rapids.

Kidnaper Sentenced to 15 Years in Prison

The convicted kidnaper of the child of a former Pontiac woman has been sentenced to 15 years in prison by a Chicago federal judge.

Diane Varner, the first woman prosecuted in Illinois under the Lindbergh kidnaping act, received the sentence from Judge Edwin A. Robson.

* * *

Miss Varner, 30, was arrested in Gary, Ind., last November in the kidnaping of 18-week-old James L. Vickers.

She had been hired by the child's mother, Marilyn Vickers, as a baby sitter and was picked up the day after she walked off with the youngster.

Mrs. Vickers was working in Chicago at the time.

Florida Mother Guns Husband, 5 Children

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — An attractive, brown-haired mother went on a mad, pre-dawn shooting spree in her home today, gunning her husband and all five of her children as they lay in their beds.

The husband, 40-year-old Lawrence Hall, and a four-months-old boy, Kevin, were slain. Three other children were critically wounded but the fifth child escaped with only a grazing head wound.

"We don't belong in this world," Martha Hall, 38, told police who found her pacing the floor of her home with an empty .22 caliber revolver in her hand. She had tried to kill herself but ran out of bullets.

Royal Oak Man Beaten to Death

Found Behind Store in Detroit; Was Robbed of $100

A 63-year-old Royal Oak man was found beaten to death at the rear of his fish and poultry market in Detroit yesterday. He had been robbed of $100.

* * *

Doris Lungu, 33, of 625 Mt. Vernon St., Royal Oak, discovered the body of her stepfather, Arcade Seserman, near a shed about 25 feet from the rear of the store at 2001 E. McNichols Rd.

According to Detroit police Det. John Rozek, Seserman was struck on the back of the head with a chunk of concrete found near his body.

Seserman had stepped out to dump some garbage when he was attacked. He died sometime between 6:45 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Saturday, police said.

* * *

Miss Lungu went to investigate at the store Sunday when her stepfather failed to show up at a church meeting.

Surviving besides Seserman's wife and stepdaughter is a stepson, Jonie Lungu. Service will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at William Veara Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Ferndale Supervisor Hurt in Auto Crash

* * *

Ferndale police said that Goodspeed lost control of his car on the slippery pavement and crashed into another car at Allen and Hazelhurst roads, Ferndale.

Goodspeed, 56, of 240 W. Maplehurst St., Ferndale, was taken to William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

Court Rules Military Can't Try Civilians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that civilian employes of the armed services and civilian dependents of military personnel overseas cannot be subjected to military trial.

The court extended a 1957 decision in which it had held that dependents of military personnel could not be court-martialed for capital crimes overseas.

Today's decision extended the ruling to include civilians accused of lesser crimes. This broader ruling was given in a series of four cases.

Train Hits Bus; 7 Children Die

3 Critically Injured in Alabama; Driver Fails to See Speeding Freight

FACKLER, Ala. (AP) — A freight train crushed into a school bus near this northeast Alabama town today, killing at least seven children and leaving three critically injured.

Highway Patrolman T. W. Freeman said the train, a southbound freight out of Chattanooga, Tenn., sliced through the bus just behind the middle and dragged part of the wreckage three quarters of a mile before it stopped.

* * *

The driver, Charlie Beavers, was in critical condition.

Freeman said the train was traveling about 55 m.p.h. on a straight track in clear weather when it smashed into the bus at the dirt road crossing.

Freeman said he understood there were about 10 children on the bus.

TAKEN TO 2 TOWNS

The dead and injured were taken to hospitals and funeral homes at the nearby towns of Stevenson and Scottsboro.

At Scottsboro, hospital officials said there were four dead and two injured critically.

At Stevenson, hospital officials said they received three dead and one critically injured.

French to Test A-Weapon Soon

Warn Planes to Steer Clear of Certain Areas for Months to Come

PARIS (AP)—France is expected to explode her first atomic weapon in the Sahara any day. A successful blast will put France in the nuclear weapon club restricted so far to the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain.

The French Defense Ministry warned planes flying over the African desert to stay clear of certain areas beginning today.

The device set off will be atomic, not a more powerful hydrogen-bomb weapon.

Airliners flying over the Sahara — mostly French and British — were warned to stay clear of a zone around Reggane in central Algeria. The site is about 600 miles from the Mediterranean coast and about the same distance from the Atlantic.

Planes flying over the rest of the French Sahara were advised to remain above 10,000 feet, avoid certain other areas and keep in radio contact with French authorities.

The French announcement gave no time limit for the regulations, saying only that they would be in force "for the months to come."

* * *

The French have pushed determinedly ahead with development of an atomic weapon despite intense opposition to the Sahara tests from independent African nations and two resolutions by the U.N. Assembly opposing the Sahara tests.

Ghana, Tunisia and other African nations expressed fear the French explosions would contaminate African areas with dangerous radioactivity. The French gave assurance that radioactivity would be confined to a small area.

* * *

American and British officials have expressed the opinion privately that the Soviets might use French testing of a nuclear weapon as a pretext for resuming test explosions of their own.

Sullenberger to Take Hospital 'Rest'

surance money from a house fire last year on clothes rather than on home furnishings destroyed by the blaze.

"I couldn't even find room in the closets to put my two suits," he complained, according to police.

Sullenberger made a statement at the prosecutor's office which Taylor described as a "complete confession."

DRINKING BEFORE FIRE

The doctor also said that he had been drinking before the blaze but was not intoxicated, Taylor said.

* * *

Asked by the prosecutor whether he could have set the fire "for publicity to get his wife back," Sullenberger answered:

"It could be."

Taylor called Sullenberger "cool, calm and deliberate." He added that the doctor was "cooperative in every respect."

The prosecutor said he asked Sullenberger if "he realized he might have burned the house down."

"It was falling down anyway," he quoted the doctor as saying. Taylor added that the house was "off base."

As he was being led to a jail cell, Sullenberger passed an auto accident victim.

He told sheriff's deputies that the man had a broken jaw and required immediate treatment.

* * *

A former model, she described herself as "in hiding," they said.

She refused their request to return to Pontiac. "Not even with a bodyguard," she was quoted as saying.

Mrs. Sullenberger told authorities she left her husband Jan. 9 after he ordered her to pick up a revolver from a friend's home.

She said the doctor told her: "Don't think I wouldn't use it on you."

Her whereabouts were being kept secret by police.

Both Sullenberger and his wife had been married previously.

She met Sullenberger when hired as a receptionist in his office. They were married in the fall of 1956.

It was charged that he violated professional standards in 25 cases.

The doctor sued the hospital for $250,000 and reinstatement, and the hospital filed charges against him.

But the expected sensational trial never developed as Sullenberger's case was thrown out by a visiting Circuit Court judge.

Sullenberger has been performing major surgery in a 450-bed private hospital in Wayne County and minor surgery at his clinic in Pontiac.

He recently obtained an application for readmission to the Pontiac General staff but hasn't turned it in.

He tried to return to the hospital once shortly after his defeat in court, but was rejected by the hospital's Board of Trustees.

Redding Repaving Plan Stirs Resident Opposition

BIRMINGHAM — Objections are expected to be voiced this evening at the City Commission meeting when the proposed repaving of Redding road is discussed.

* * *

A. L. Kassabian, in a letter to the Commission, objects because:

"The Quarton road work is still incomplete and this means heavy traffic on Redding road the rest of the year.

"Plans and costs should be studied further and in more detail by the city engineer before the vote is taken.

'MORE THAN REQUIRED'

000 in abeyance as some criticism was raised by Ferndale Supervisor Roy F. Goodspeed as to use of this money for improvement of township roads.

* * *

Moore today heard the recommendation from a special committee studying how to modernize Oakland government that the chairman of the Board of Auditors be designated as the "chief administrative officer" of the county.

This major reform recommendation, mentioned many times in the past but for the first time suggested officially, came from Supervisor John L. Carey's special committee.

It is the "most practical, feasible and immediate solution to increasing the effectiveness of administration in the county," Carey said.

* * *

Supervisors listened intently to the committee's recommendations and then referred them to the Legislative and Levinson's committees for further action.

There was no discussion whatsoever on them from the floor.

Carey's committee of supervisors and several private citizens, which was criticized recently for being too slow in reform movements, has to date successfully spearheaded but one major change in Oakland government — the merger of the offices of clerk and register of deeds.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

Other recommendations released to the board today. It was urged that steps continue for consolidation of the Drain Commission Office and Department of Public Works, county home rule again be strived for, and that the old system of rotating the chairman of the Board of Supervisors between township and city supervisors be discontinued.

Carey's committee also promised to investigate a suggestion that the Board of County Road Commissioners and other boards be either administrative or policy making bodies, but not both.

Murphy presented a summary of the first year of operations of the combined offices. He said "there have been definite advantages growing out of the combination."

* * *

Murphy added that it would be four or five years before the full administrative advantages can be realized.

* * *

In his two-page report, Murphy said the major portion of the operational saving has been in salaries. He said about $10,000 had been saved in operational costs and another $11,000 had been saved by cutting out one elected official—the register of deeds.

* * *

"This makes a grand total of approximately $21,000—this amount being the saving in the first year as combined offices," Murphy said.

ment seems to be more than required and the improvement could be done by blacktopping.

"The proposed pavement and storm drain cost seem excessive for the area involved."

In a letter to the Commission, Mrs. W. W. Campbell, 1460 Redding Rd., opposes the paving between Lake Park road and Chesterfield road, stating:

"I have lived in Birmingham for seven and a half years. In that length of time, Redding road has been paved twice and I have paid my share of the assessments.

"I object to paying a third time on the same project, since it is still in good condition.

'DISGRACE TO CITY'

"That is a disgrace to the city and is in terrible shape.

"It has only been patched for years and is an ordeal to drive over.

Scholarships up to $1,500 are being offered to boys for the 1960-61 academic year at Cranbrook School.

* * *

Applications are due by March 1.

Any boy may apply for a grant if he is eligible for entrance into grades 7 through 11 next September.

Inquiries should be addressed to the director of scholarships, Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills.

* * *

Candidates should have an above average academic record, good citizenship and leadership qualities and a proven need for financial aid.

Mrs. John K. Ormond will discuss the "Health, Economy and Politics" of India and Africa at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Ruth Shain Class in International Affairs at Community House.

The United Church Women will hear Florence Cassidy report on her work as Director of Nationalities for the United Community Services of Detroit at 10 a.m. Friday in the Chapel of First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham.

Guest speaker at the Democratic Club of Birmingham meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Community House will be Irving Rubin, executive assistant to State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie.

Rubin will discuss the "Highway of the Future." The public is invited.

Pulls Cousin Out of Icy Area Lake

A 9-year-old girl was credited today with saving the life of her younger cousin after she had fallen through thin ice yesterday at Wolverine Lake.

Police there said that if Debbie Parsons had not stayed and tried to help her cousin Marsha Rush, 8, of 1532 Lakeview Dr., Wolverine Lake, it is very likely that the girl would have drowned.

Debbie, her brother and sister of 2636 Burns, Dearborn, along with Marsha, had been skating earlier in the day when they decided to remove their skates and run along the edge of the lake.

Marsha came too close to a sewer outlet where the water wouldn't freeze and broke through a thin ice layer into water over her head.

Cheryl and David Parsons, Debbie's brother and sister, ran screaming across the lake for Marsha's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rush.

But as they reached the scene Debbie and Marsha were walking towards home, too numb to run.

Debbie explained to Marsha's parents, whom they were visiting over the weekend, that she was able to "scoot across" the ice on her knees and reach for Marsha.

Ice Is Too Thin 'Keep Children Off Lakes'

Bloomfield Township Police Chief Norman Dehnke warned parents today to keep their children off lakes in the area for at least another week to prevent a recurrence of the drownings last week.

"The lakes are still unsafe," Dehnke said. "Yesterday we had to chase a group of children off Square Lake because of thin ice."

"In fact, the center of the lake is wide-open with water," he said.

"We can do so much in keeping children off the lakes but if parents would warn their children I think it would help us greatly."

* * *

A week ago Patrick Witzman, 17, Bloomfield Township, drowned in Square Lake when he broke through thin ice. It had been the second drowning in the county in two days because of thin ice.

3,021 Enrollment Sets Ferris Institute Record

BIG RAPIDS (UPI) — Winter quarter enrollment at Ferris Institute has reached 3,021, a record high, it was announced today by Ferris President Dr. Victor F. Spathelf.

The winter quarter enrollment is 153 students more than a year ago, exceeding predictions of an enrollment of 2,950 for the period.

Lake Orion Man Knifed in Home

Says Boarder Stabbed Him; Condition Listed as Satisfactory

A 50-year-old Lake Orion man is in Pontiac General Hospital today with stab wounds in the back and arm he said were inflicted by a 64-year-old boarder in his home at 1:40 a.m. Sunday.

* * *

Listed in satisfactory condition is Kenneth M. Ferguson of 54 Elizabeth St.

Being held in Oakland County jail on investigation of felonious assault is Tom Tomasella, 64, of the same address.

Lake Orion Police Chief Neal Leonard said that after the stabbing Ferguson stumbled out of his house and down North Broadway street en route to the police station for help. He stopped a police car in front of the post office and asked to be taken to the hospital.

Tries to Force Arms Talk Role

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

In contrast to Russia's proclaimed reduction of troops, Communist China is stepping up conscriptions for its army this year.

Peiping apparently intends by this to notify the West as well as Russia that Red China is an important factor in any forthcoming international disarmament arrangements.

Red China's standing army is estimated at between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000.

It has been reorganized recently by Marshal Lin Piao with an assist from a Soviet military mission.

* * *

Its firepower is understood to have been increased in the process.

THIRD TERM TROUBLES

Nationalist China is beginning to face up to the problem of how to give President Chiang Kai-shek a third term without violating the two-term constitutional limit.

Political quarters in Taipei believe the National Assembly, which elects the President, will decide in its session starting Feb. 20 to waive the two term rule during the "period of national crisis."

On Formosa this means until the Nationalists return to the Chinese mainland.

* * *

Chiang, now 72, completes his second term in May.

BUDGET BATTLE

The United States is due to start a battle against any reduction in the budget for the Organization of American States.

Washington indicates it regards the OAS as probably the greatest single peace stabilizing agency yet devised for Latin America, with special emphasis on its effectiveness in the Caribbean sector.

Argentina, living an austerity program, has led a fight for OAS budget trimming in order to reduce its own burden.

AILING AIRCRAFTS

Mergers and combines in Britain's aircraft industry, now regarded as the sick man of British business, eventually may give American plane makers a run for their money.

Some mergers have been announced. Others are in the works.

OK Greater Sharing of Space Information

NICE, France (UPI) — Space scientists from over the world—with the United States and Russia in the fore—agreed Saturday to share more advance information on proposed experiments and results.

The International Committee on Space Research (COSPAR) adopted a series of resolutions intended to permit greater cooperation in observing space satellites.

The number of meals served daily in public eating places in the U.S. has reached a record 67 million, according to a recent survey by the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association.

DuPont's Stock in GM Eyed

House Ways and Means Committee to Ponder Forced Sale

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress will take another look at the tax situation involved in the government's effort to force the DuPont company to give up its stockholdings in General Motors Corp.

The House Ways and Means Committee, with jurisdiction over tax matters, Friday put the subject on its agenda for this session in the light of the Justice Department's decision to take to the Supreme Court its antitrust action against DuPont.

The committee last session approved a bill which would give tax relief to stockholders who receive a distribution of stock as a result of a court ruling under antitrust laws. However, the bill —tailored to the DuPont-General Motors situation — was never sent to the House floor.

The committee's move to reconsider the matter in the light of latest developments could mean an entirely new legislative approach, or a decision to push the pending bill through Congress.

* * *

The bill approved last August stemmed from government action started in 1949 to force DuPont to dispose of some 63 million shares of General Motors stock acquired around 1917 at an average cost of about $2.10 a share.

Without legislation, DuPont shareholders, if the GM stock was distributed to them, would be subject to taxes at ordinary income rates on today's market value of GM stock. This is around $52 a share.

Under terms of the Ways and Means Committee bill, which would apply to all cases where divestiture of stock was forced by antitrust court rulings, income taxes would be applicable only on the average original cost of the stock that was distributed.

The Justice Department yesterday filed notice of appeal to the Supreme Court from a ruling by a Chicago federal judge that DuPont could dissolve its close association with General Motors by retaining ownership of its holding of 63 million shares of GM stock, but passing voting rights on to individual DuPont shareholders.

Judge Walter J. La Buy had held in a Nov. '57 ruling that forced divestiture under present income tax laws would be unnecessarily harsh and punitive on DuPont stockholders.

Sylvan Police Give 454 Tickets During 1959

Of these, about 400 were for traffic violations. The remaining offenses ranged from disorderly conduct to minors in possession of beer and violations of the city's dog ordinance.

Police ticketed 30 reckless drivers and 15 drunk drivers. Sylvan Police cars drove some 45,000 miles patrolling the city.

Discord Threat to Alaska Dems

First State Convention Shadowed by Strife; Humphrey to Speak

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (AP) — Alaska democrats met here in their first state convention today amid ominous signs the meeting would be anything but a peaceful one.

Intraparty squabbles were expected to be put aside for a time tonight, however, for the convention banquet and a speech by Minnesota's Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, the first announced Democratic presidential candidate for 1960.

Looming as a definite threat to harmony was a probable move by delegates from Anchorage and the populous third division to gain a larger vote in party affairs.

Another argument will be stirred up if southeastern Alaska Democrats, as expected, seek a platform plank pledging to retain Juneau as the capital. There has been increasing pressure to move the capital to the Anchorage area.

On one thing Alaska Democrats seem agreed. The nine delegates packed here to attend the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles in July probably will go uninstructed. That is traditional.

Radio, Movie 'Fatman' J. Scott Smart Dies

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—J. Scott Smart, 57, known for his radio and motion picture portrayal of a fictional private detective, "The Fatman," died of cancer Friday.

* * *

Smart, a native of Philadelphia, gave up a successful career in the entertainment field in 1952 to become an artist. His works were exhibited in Boston and New York.

He Needs a Wifeguard

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—D. C. Masters, an electrical contractor, asked Judge Harold Orrick to keep his ex-wife, Girtoror, from insulting his girl friends and going to his office and giving orders to his employes. "This man needs protection," Masters' attorney said. The judge agreed, and scheduled a hearing.

It Will Be Good Trick if State Can Work It

The villain would cackle, twirl his thin mustache, and hiss, "Pay the rent, or out in the storm you go!"

★ ★ ★

They can't put him in jail, and they can't throw him out in the storm. And the State could really use the money.

★ ★ ★

So they've taken the case to court, and temporarily, they've cut off his prison spending money, which means he can't purchase cigarettes.

With Michigan's luck, he probably doesn't smoke.

Our Hats Are Off to Southern California

One of the most amazing population growths in the history of this globe lies in the fabulous story of Los Angeles and Southern California.

"The outdated economic image of Los Angeles as a land limited to orange trees and oil wells, movie makers and plane builders dies hard. Despite all the expert surveys and charts of commerce and industry growth, the most popular conception is still based on tourist maps which show an oil barrel and an orange at the spot marked Los Angeles.

"The realities of the 1960 Southland economy are fortunately different. Agriculture, mining (including oil extraction) and motion pictures together constitute less than 3% of the total employment of the metropolitan Los Angeles area (Los Angeles and Orange counties). Even with the aircraft industry thrown in, they represent less than 10% of employment.

"Figures in a summary just published by Citizens National Bank show that from 1947 to 1958 the increase in manufacturing employment in the Los Angeles area was so great that it can hardly be compared with the other major metropolitan areas.

★ ★ ★

"During the 11 years the number of manufacturing employees in Los Angeles almost doubled (from 358,772 to 702,000). The relative increase was 16 times greater than San Francisco's, 20 times greater than New York's. Seven of the 15 major industrial areas of the nation suffered losses in manufacturing employment during the 1947-1958 period.

★ ★ ★

"The immediate prospect is for 25,000 new industrial jobs during 1960, according to Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce economists, bringing the total manufacturing employment to 815,000 in 1960. By 1970 this figure is expected to reach 1.1 million.

★ ★ ★

"In addition, 60,000 new nonmanufacturing jobs are foreseen to serve a projected 1960 metropolitan area population of 6,660,000. These will swell the total of those employed in what is already the second largest retail trade center. The forecasters predict growth in virtually every area of the Southland economy, differing only as to how fast and how far."

Here is a stupendous development that clamors for Hollywood's superlatives. It wins deference and admiration from all sections. Southeastern Michigan is one of the rapidly growing sectors but we stand aside and let the master pass.

Silly to Build Projects Because Russia Does

A reclamation expert and Senate Interior Committee consultant, Michael W. Straus, has returned from the Soviet Union much concerned by the number and size of dams being constructed in Russia and Communist China.

★ ★ ★

Our biggest dam, Grand Coulee, has a capacity of two million kilowatts. Russia, reports Mr. Straus, is building a dam with a generating capacity of 4.5 million kilowatts and is planning larger ones. Communist China has started construction of a dam on the Yangtse river which will generate 25 million kilowatts. Both countries are in great need of such developments. A report to the Senate in 1957 also warned of Russia's power development.

★ ★ ★

Recent hearings in a subcommittee of the Joint Economic Committee brought out the fact that power experts in this country were skeptical of some Russian dam projects because of the distance power will have to be transmitted. They held that power could be provided much more cheaply and efficiently by small steam plants on industrial sites.

★ ★ ★

In any case there's no need for us to start building more dams for power and reclamation just because the Russians are doing so. We already have tremendous power production and more land under cultivation than we need. Russia hasn't either.

The Man About Town

'Ball'; Not 'Bald'

So Say Descendants of Some of Our Pioneers

Pedestrian: A man who has three cars; a wife, son and daughter.

The name of the high elevation just northeast of the Pontiac city limits is due for a rejuvenation, if historical records are to be observed.

They call it "Ball" Mountain, instead of "Bald" Mountain, by which name it has been known for many years.

It seems that it was originally named in honor of who established many of the original property lines in Pontiac and vicinity. The work of his compass, telescope and sextant were officially recognized in many of the original deeds to property now worth millions.

It is asserted that it became "Bald" through a printer's error after Ball had passed away, probably on account of the bare condition of its summit, when the surrounding country was mostly covered with trees.

Early histories refer to it as being the highest point in the county, but the many years of erosion and the removal of sand and gravel from its summit may have taken that distinction away from it.

In Indian days it was used as an observation point from which the red men transmitted smoke signals to Waterford Hill and other elevations, also to be seen at Chief Pontiac's headquarters on Apple Island in Orchard Lake.

For many years its name has been a matter of contention. Among the most aggressive of the present day Ball boosters is of 4784 Maycrest Ave., who writes me that she "sees red" every time it is referred to in print as "Bald."

Other descendants of our rugged pioneers are backing her up in her claims. They have the records to prove what they assert.

Now an extra lane pavement goes over its almost highest point, and the adjacent property either is being worked for sand and gravel or has been platted.

The view from its highest point is magnificent on a clear day looking down into Pontiac; and the tall buildings in Detroit and boats on Lake St. Clair also come into view. Are future generations to call it "Ball" or "Bald?"

Don't get too chesty about the nature of this winter. According to that perennial weather watcher,

Harris Pelham

Red Van Winkle

Steel Settlement Is Not All Black

WASHINGTON — Executives of the various steel companies have been reviewing what really happened in the settlement of the steel strike, and most of them have come to the conclusion that maybe the final agreement reached was not as bad for them as it has been painted.

There is a tendency to agree with what President Eisenhower LAWRENCE said about the pressure of "circumstances," rather than the pressure of government, as the paramount influence in bringing about the settlement.

The head of one company puts it this way:

"We have been in this wage-price spiral for 20-odd years. You can't stop a great wave of that kind dead in its tracks all at one crack. We've made a great effort in the steel business to try to stop it. We made some mistakes as we went along but, by and large, we tried our best to slow the thing down.

Now, the settlement, as actually made, gives an advance of about half in the next three years of what we've had in the past three years. That's a pretty fair step forward. The thing that really ended the matter—really, what finally made us capitulate—was the politicians in Congress.

"The real pressure that developed was the fear of a Democratic Congress and what they would do if they had to meet an emergency. If there was a threat of a resumption of the strike, Congress would be proposing all kinds of laws to prevent it, and these laws would not be the kind that would be carefully considered or thoughtfully discussed.

"They would be emergency laws passed in order to force a settlement of the strike. It was the fear of that kind of law, as well as the threat of the steel strike being resumed, which most of us thought would do a lasting damage to our employer-employe relations and to the whole country. We would have had a difficult time getting repeal of the drastic, ill-considered legislation that would have been passed."

The head of another steel company believes the adverse nature of the settlement has been overemphasized. He says:

"No one, of course, could ever say this settlement was a victory for the steel industry, for we did not accomplish our main objectives of a noninflationary settlement and change in work rules which would promote efficiency.

PUBLIC ALERTED

"Nevertheless, as Mr. Blough of U. S. Steel pointed out, we did reduce the rate of increase in employment costs to about 3% per cent as compared with an average of 8 per cent throughout the postwar period. This is no mean accomplishment.

"In addition, we alerted the public, including the steelworkers, to the importance of the work-rule issues, and one may hope that this could bring some fruitful results as time goes along.

"Some writers contended, for one thing, that if the industry had settled on the union offer of 15 cents an hour prior to the strike, this would have meant 37½ cents for a 31-month period as compared with 41 cents in the actual settlement.

"The kind of 15-cent-an-hour offer made by the union prior to the strike was the same as the 1956 settlement which resulted in an employment cost of 81 cents an hour for the three-year period.

"This is exactly what would have happened had we accepted the original so-called '15-cent' offer. The union never counts the related costs of wage increases—for overtime, holiday pay, vacation pay, etc.—nor did they at that time look with favor at any limitation of the cost-of-living clause.

"So what am I saying? Simply that this deal was not 'all black' nor 'all white.' It was in the gray area. If those who believe in this cause keep at it, additional progress can be made with the hope that intelligent people can truly arrest inflation over a reasonable period of time."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Good Food Can Lessen Chronic Joint Trouble

To the best of my understanding, physicians who purport to be leading authorities now recognize three types of chronic joint disability, namely, chronic arthritis, (which means joint inflammation of long duration), osteo-arthritis (otherwise called degenerative joint disease) and rheumatoid arthritis.

The experts ex- DR. BRADY

patiate learnedly about these types of chronic joint disability, but I must confess that after diligent study of the classical and current literature, I give up.

★ ★ ★

If your joint disability has lasted a year or more, it makes no difference to me whether you call it arthritis, osteoarthritis or rheumatoid arthritis. The experts know no more about the nature, cause and treatment of one type than they do of another.

The late, great Dr. Osler distinguished only rheumatoid arthritis (which he called arthritis deformans) from ordinary chronic joint disability (which he called chronic rheumatism).

When we come to prognosis or prediction of the outcome of joint disability of more than a year's standing, it seems to make no difference whether you call the trouble arthritis, osteoarthritis, rheumatoid arthritis or just plain old rheumatiz — that is, if you are not a $300 snob.

CALL IT 'RHEUMATIZ'

In my discourses on chronic joint disability, I sought to rescue victims of the "arthritis" obsession by proposing that we call chronic joint disability 'rheumatiz.' At the same time I set forth my conviction that rheumatiz is a manifestation of nutritional deficiency, a belief on which I enlarge in the booklet Chronic Joint Disability, for which send me 35 cents and stamped envelope bearing your address.

Mind you, I am speaking only of CHRONIC joint trouble—trouble that has persisted for at least a year. And do not mean to imply that all such trouble is rheumatiz. We know that at least 5 per cent of it is orthopedic, traumatic, the consequence of injury, sprain, strain, and amenable only to surgical treatment.

I mean to imply that in the great majority of cases of chronic joint disability we have to deal with degeneration of joint tissues, due to nutritional deficiency (malnutrition) through the years from childhood up to the present.

The doctor will tell you the medical significance of the term, and perhaps you will then understand that in the earlier months or years degeneration may be reversible, into regeneration, or arrested or retarded, by supplementing nutritional deficiencies for the rest of your life.

Original letters not more than one page or 150 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not diseases, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Facing Fear Often Eliminates It

Ignorance and fear have caused far more deaths and human misfortune than all the wars in the period of recorded history. If you are enslaved by fear, then write to me in care of this newspaper. I'll answer any question you ask, regardless of its frankness, if science has the information available. Your letters are forwarded, unopened, so you have complete privacy.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

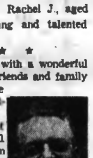
★ ★ ★

"I am in love with a wonderful man. Even my friends and family approve of the match most heartily, she said.



DR. CRANE

"But I cannot marry him, for I dare not tell him the truth! Oh, Dr. Crane, I lie awake nights in torment because I love him with all my heart, but know I dare not accept his offer of marriage.

"I've thought of marrying, praying for success, and just taking my chance, but I couldn't wreck his happiness.

"Then I have debated telling him the truth in hopes he might forgive me, but I am afraid I might lose his respect entirely.

"Dr. Crane, please give me help! My life is ruined and I don't know what to do."

SELF INCRIMINATION

What do you readers think is wrong with Rachel? She is beautiful. She has a good education and is an efficient secretary in a bank.

Her boy friend has asked her to marry him. It would be an excellent match. But she has turned his offer aside. Why?

What is the terrible "truth" to which she refers? Well, one's early guess would be an unfortunate sexual experience in the past, perhaps involving another man.

But the latter guess is incorrect. Rachel has been guilty of no such moral lapse. But she has engaged in auto erotic practices at various times, so she feels it is impossible to marry!

If an intelligent woman of 23 has gone through our schools and a college, and has had the benefit of Sunday School and church contacts since infancy, but still has not been correctly informed on sexual matters, then be glad you have access to this newspaper.

MANY FACE DILEMMA

Each week I receive numerous pathetic letters from girls who are facing the same dilemma now disturbing Rachel. They beg me to give them some hope and counsel through this educational column, fearing to sign their name and address for a personal answer.

Many times I could offer far more complete and personal counsel by letter than I am permitted even in this exceptionally progressive newspaper, but if you fail to enclose a return envelope, I may be compelled to ignore your questions altogether.

Fear of insanity and feebleminedness are hanging over the heads of millions of Americans, like the sword of Damocles, just because they are ignorant of actual scientific facts.

Thousands of girls, as well as young men, have deferred marriage because they have felt themselves inferior or incapable of being a successful marital partner owing to these common erotic habits of youth.

It is high time we eliminated the salacious prudery of the past generations and applied a little plain horse-sense to modern educational problems.

If you are in Rachel's situation, by all means send for my booklet on "Sex Problems of Young People."

If you are planning to get married soon, send for the "Sex Problems in Marriage" booklet, always enclosing 20 cents and self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want any other questions answered, write to me in care of this newspaper. I'll tell you anything you want to know, providing science has the answers to your problems. Stop being a slave to ignorance!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long (6 stamped, self-addressed envelope. This is strictly to cover postage and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Many Back School Policy Regarding Bad Weather

I'd like Seventy Three to know our Waterford Township schools didn't close their doors. The buses didn't run and the main roads were good, but roads in our subdivision are hilly and were solid ice being rained on.

★ ★ ★

Would Seventy Three take the responsibility of a bus load of children and driving on slippery roads? Buses don't have the choice of level, well-cared-for roads. It was 32 degrees at 7 a. m. and the temperature did go up, luckily, but what if it had gone down?

★ ★ ★

My children missed one day and still have a chance to catch up on their lessons and a good chance to reach the age of Seventy Three. I'm thankful the schools are thoughtful of our children. If Seventy Three is interested in children, how about joining a PTA?

Mother of Twin Girls
PTA Member and Thirty Three

Would Seventy Three like the responsibility for safety of 50 children on roads that are slippery? Don't kid yourself. The schools are smart. As for those in your department, would they get their pay if they didn't show up?

One Who Walked and Still Does

Did they have school buses when Seventy Three went to school? Would he like driving a school bus with 60 students in weather as it was Tuesday? It's a great responsibility driving a loaded school bus in nice weather. It's even greater in rain, fog, snow, etc., when you think you have 60 lives in your hands.

Waterford schools were open all day for those who could get there. I'll bet if parents "had" to take their children when buses couldn't run, attendance wouldn't be much higher. School authorities go out and check driving conditions themselves, and they deserve a pat on the back.

If it was up to you to say whether the buses run or not last Tuesday, would you have given the o.k. and what if there had been a serious accident?

Waterford Township School Bus Driver

Chances are when Seventy Three went to school there weren't near the amount of cars on the road, plus the fact that if one person wants to risk his life, it's his business.

★ ★ ★

But when it come to risking 60-80 children all at one time, that's another. School officials should be commended, if anything happened, they would regret it for many a day.

★ ★ ★

If Seventy Three was behind the wheel of a school bus, he would have other people's lives on his mind besides his own. The responsibility is huge on a good day, let alone a slippery, rainy, icy, etc.

Poll Indicates Williams, Bagwell Strongest in State

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams would be the strongest candidate Democrats could nominate for governor this year and Paul D. Bagwell would be the GOP's biggest vote-getter for the post, a poll of Michigan newspaper editors has indicated.

Sec. of State James M. Hare would be the Democrats' second most powerful candidate while Bagwell, the state GOP's titular leader, stands far ahead of other Republican prospects, the poll showed.

The Michigan Press Service was hired to take the poll by Albert Letvin, Detroit insurance and real estate broker, and a Hare supporter.

The service said 380 copies of the poll were sent to editors of Michigan's daily and weekly newspapers. There were 162 returned.

* * *

Williams led all State Administrative Board members with 94 first place tallies. Hare was second with 58 first place votes.

In combined first and second place votes, Hare polled 125 votes and Williams 117. Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, Democrat of Detroit, ran third with 24. State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie was fourth with 16.

Other combined votes of Democrats mentioned by the editors were State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown (9), Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams (7) and Dr. Lynn S. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction (5).

Bagwell had clear domination of the Republican poll. He received 142 first place votes compared to 18 split among six other prospects. His combined first and second place votes totaled 151.

* * *

Rep. Don R. Pears (Buchanan), speaker of the House of Representatives, had the next highest combined vote of 29. Sens. Frank D. Beadle (St. Clair) and Edward Hutchinson (Fennville) tied for third with 27.

Other combined votes of Republicans the editors listed included Sen. John P. Smeekens of Coldwater (12), Rep. George W. Sallade of Ann Arbor (9) and Sen. Elmer R. Porter of Blissfield (6).

George Romney, president of American Motors, received two write-in votes for first place and one for second. Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.) received one first place and two second place votes.

Rocket Ride Set for Mate of Space Monk

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A female monkey who is scheduled to become the mate of Sam, the pioneer space passenger, will get a rocket ride from Wallops Island, Va., Jan. 21, a scientist said here Friday.

The scientist, attending the space medicine seminar being held here, said the simian space girl's flight in a Mercury capsule lofted by a Little Joe rocket will expand on the experiment made on Sam's space trip. Sam rode a Little Joe rocket 55 miles into space Dec. 4.

* * *

The Jan 21 flight will provide an experiment for escape mechanisms and eventually any genetic repercussions of space flights.

The mating of the two rhesus monkeys will have to wait a year until Sam reaches the age of 3½ and maturity.

Won't Ask Hike in School Aid

State's Administrators Prefer the Status Quo After Rousing Fight

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A voice vote, a rousing floor fight and a show of hands by the Michigan Assn. of School Administrators Friday quashed a move to seek improved state aid payments to schools.

The MASA concluded a two-day annual conference at Grand Rapids.

* * *

A voice vote conducted by MASA President James R. Covert of Royal Oak first showed through a proposal for an improved aid formula of $210 per pupil on the basis of 3½ deductible millage.

It was opposed by big city districts which would gain proportionately lower benefits than the low-valuation regions which predominate the state's 2,200 school districts.

NOT YEAR FOR IT

It means the MASA will not recommend any state aid improvement in its legislative stand. The organization earlier appeared to favor the current formula of $205 per child at 3¼ deductible mills.

Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, earlier indicated this year was not one in which to ask more money.

The MASA gave no discussion to a Michigan Education Assn. proposal to ask the Legislature for a 3 per cent cost of living increase.

* * *

One superintendent said it would cost the state eight million dollars in new money.

On other fronts, the MASA through sectional meetings gave general agreement to a proposal by Bartlett for a study to formulate a basic educational program for Michigan.

The organization failed to reach unanimous agreement on a MASA council resolution urging a change in retirement rate from $1,200 to $1,800.

Ex-OES World Head Mrs. Keyes Dies at 93

LANSING (AP)—Mrs. Minnie Evans Keyes, 93, former world head of the Order of the Eastern Star, died last night at a nursing home here.

Mrs. Keyes held district and state offices in the OES before going to Washington, D.C., as most right worthy grand secretary.

She held this post for more than a quarter of a century, visiting and organizing OES chapters in every state in the union.

Mrs. Keyes was a graduate of Olivet College and the holder of an honorary degree from that institution. Her husband was the late State Sen. Karl D. Keyes.

MSUO Starting Courses in Continuing Program

Twenty-four evening courses for adults were getting under way this week at Michigan State University Oakland as part of its continuing education program.

Adults from all parts of Oakland and Macomb counties are going "back to school" to study business, engineering, the humanities and special skill courses staffed by full or part-time members of the university's faculty.

This week such courses as accounting for management personnel, electrical machinery theory, oil painting and drawing, stock market and investment analysis, mathematics refresher and efficient reading are starting.

Next week will find courses in introduction to management, effective speaking and leadership, engineering administration, history, philosophy, languages and creative writing being offered Monday through Thursday evenings.

Most of the courses are still open for additional registrants, according to Dr. Lowell R. Eklund, director of continuing education. "We are hopeful that more and more of our adult citizens will participate in these courses offered by the university to help them meet the challenges of change in their crucial modern roles of worker, parent and citizen," he said.

He urged interested students to call the university for further information and to make reservations.

Bans Racial Bias in KC Restaurants

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The City Council passed an ordinance Friday making it unlawful for restaurants or hotels to refuse service because of race or color.

The vote was 6-2. The two dissenters contended equal rights are guaranteed by the federal Constitution and the city has no legal right to enact such legislation.

It was anticipated by some councilmen that restaurant and hotel interests would seek through the courts to have the ordinance nullified. It is due to take effect nine days after passage.

Gains Impressive on Percentage Basis

Soviets Are Still Way Behind U.S.

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet boasts of great industrial gains in the last 12 months are impressive only in the light of the Soviet Union's avowed aim of giving the United States a run for its money sometime in the future.

The Soviet Union is still way behind on almost every industrial score except population on which to draw. And even with its announced plan of releasing 1,200,000 men from the military forces to do factory and farming work, it's still a question how many of these have the skill that modern industrial technology requires.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Premier's recital of great percentage gains in production must be viewed in the light of where the Soviet Union started and what he is comparing today with. If you begin with very little, as the Russians did after the war, any gain looks good in percentages. If you start from fairly adequate industrial capacity, as the United States did after the war, percentage gains are impressive because they reflect the growing needs of an expanding economy. And in almost every instance U.S. capacity is equal to current tasks and is expandable for future ones.

Take steel as an example.

The Soviet Union says it increased its production last year by 5 million tons to turn out 65½ short tons. Even with a steel strike of 116 days, American steel production increased eight million tons last year to 93½ tons. It has the capacity to turn out 147½ tons this year, and many steel men think demand will call for 130 million tons. Khrushchev's touted mills can scarcely challenge that.

He cites increased oil production. It runs around 2½ million barrels a day. The United States produced around seven million barrels a day, and the flow was strictly held in check to tailor it to actual demand. Its capacity was about three times that amount, when and if needed.

The Soviet Union says its national income went up eight per cent in 1959. Ours gained by about 6½ per cent. The Soviet national income is put at 1¼ trillion rubles. The ruble at the Soviet-fixed rate is worth 25 cents. In exchange circles 10 cents is considered a more realistic figure.

That puts Soviet national income at 125 billion dollars, while ours is more than 404 billion dollars. Or, if the Russians mean by national income what we call gross national product — the total value of all goods and services—then ours is 485 billion dollars.

★ ★ ★

All along the line it's hard to tell just what the Soviet Union includes in its figures, and just what it compares them with. And always there is the problem of starting with scarcity and straining to build up to adequacy, while we start with adequacy and build up to even higher standards of living or to meet increased needs of a growing population.

But the challenge is definitely there.

Khrushchev shows by the stress the Kremlin is putting on development of Soviet industrial production, and the switch to building up consumer goods as well as those that could be used for military purposes, that he is serious in his threat of going after world markets — once he has taken care of his own people's pressing needs.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Reds May Help More on Egyptian Dam

CAIRO, Egypt (UP) — Ignaty Novikov, Soviet minister of power construction, has indicated the Soviet Union is willing to build the second "stage of the Aswan high dam.

Novikov heads a Soviet delegation that attended the inaugurating ceremonies last week of the first stage, construction of which will be exclusively Russian.

Public Works Minister Moussa Arafa has said Britain, Austria, West Germany, Italy and Japan have offered to participate in the second stage. On Wednesday President Eisenhower said the United States is considering aid to the dam through the World Bank.

Crime Top Issue for N. Y. Senator

Balanced Budget Won't Help if U. S. Becomes Captive of Overlords

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — While Nikita Khrushchev prates of peace and friendship (Mir I Bruzhba), and President Eisenhower talks of peace and prosperity, at least one vice presidential hopeful is turning his attention to crime.

★ ★ ★

What good are balanced budgets and Russian soft talk, GOP Sen. Ken Keating would like to know, if America is to become the captive of crime overlords who have nothing to fear but small town cops?

The witty, white-maned senator who rode to surprise victory with Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in the 1958 New York political upset, is determined to press through this session of Congress a bill that would turn federal police loose on interstate crime syndicates.

Keating first introduced the proposed legislation while a member of the House of Representatives. He tried it again last session in the Senate. Asked why he feels so sure of success this year, he grinned roguishly:

"Because I'm a year older now."

The 59-year-old member of the Senate Judiciary Committee said he is getting a bit tired of having known vice lords charged with such comparatively minor infractions as income tax violations and contempt of court, simply because our horse-and-buggy legal setup makes it virtually impossible to nail them as murderers and dope peddlers.

Castro Building Historic Armed Force of Cubans

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro is turning this country's fortresses into schools, but at the same time he is creating the largest armed force in Cuban history.

Just how many soldiers this new people's force will have is not clear, but its strength is believed to be more than double that of ex-President Fulgencio Batista's military machine at its peak.

* * *

Instead of fortresses, air centers and mechanized units, Castro and his revolutionary supporters are trying to develop a people's army in which every loyal worker student and farmer will be given a gun and taught how to use it.

Minister of Education Armando Hart recently invited other Latin American countries to follow Cuba's example of turning its military centers into schools.

"The idea may be a good one, but if we follow Castro's program all the way through, Latin America would be the heaviest armed area in whole world," said one Latin envoy who heard Hart deliver his invitation at a ceremony in which a former Batista police station in Havana was turned into a school.

* * *

Late in 1959 Castro announced plans for cutting down Cubas formal armed forces. But at the same time he approved an idea he had rejected earlier last year for the formation of a people's army.

The result has been a vast expansion in the number of Cubans under arms or undergoing military training as civilians.

As a starter, more than 55,000 sugar workers have volunteered as guards to assure that anti-Castro saboteurs do not damage the cane fields by fire. Photos of these men in action show they have been issued rifles or carbines.

* * *

Every Cuban trade union will have its quota of militiamen, created by Castro's new land reform program will contribute men and women. Every school and college will have its defense cell.

Thousands of men and women in all walks of life are marching and countermarching in public streets and parks, learning close-order drill and how to handle weapons.

Where do the arms come from to equip a citizen's army which some estimates say may reach 200,000 men and women?

Castro has large reserves of arms, many of them half a century old, captured from Batista. But he is buying more as fast as he can find a source.

At the end of 1959 at least one ship unloaded substantial stocks of new arms including semiautomatic rifles and other small arms at a navy dock.

Castro's agents are trying to strengthen the weak link in his so-called citizens defense force, the Cuban air force. Down to an absolute minimum in both pilots and warplanes, Castro has been unable to buy replacement aircraft in the United States because of an embargo.

* * *

His agents have succeeded in bringing into Cuba at least one new plane recently, an American propeller-driven trainer, and are trying to buy and take delivery on at least 20 more.

Other agents are said to be interested in buying some Meteor jet fighters available in Canada, obsolete by modern standards but of vital use to an island country down to its last two or three jets.

Milk Truck Drivers Ask Supermarket Probe

DETROIT (UPI)—The Small Business Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives will be asked to investigate the Detroit area milk market and charges that supermarkets are hurting the home delivery business.

A group of independent milk truck drivers (who deliver Borden, Sealtest and Twin Pines products) voted to request the investigation.

Officials of Dairy Workers Local 83 already had protested to the Federal Trade Commission, complaining that some supermarkets sell milk below cost as a "loss leader" item to attract customers. They charged this was seriously harming the home delivery business.

Stevenson Evasive on Presidential Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Will Adlai Stevenson accept a draft for the Democratic presidential nomination?

"I think that is a bridge I will have to cross when I get to it," he answered. "I don't expect to get it."

* * *

Would he accept a post as Secretary of state in a Democratic administration?

"I would look on any office with great respect," said Stevenson. Again he said that was a bridge he hadn't come to.

Stevenson was interviewed Friday by newsmen as he entered the State Department, where he got a briefing for a business and pleasure trip to Latin America.

Maine accounts for about 90 per cent of the nation's lobster catch each year.

Once-Proud Lawyer on Trial for Murder

GENEVA (UPI)—The emaciated and shivering wreck of a man who two years ago was Geneva's proudest lawyer is to be carried into court today to stand trial for the sex obsession murder of an old man he did not know.

* * *

The prosecution says he killed because of his obsession for "Poupette," ("Baby doll") 33, his mistress whose fiery passion turned to ice.

The victim was Charles Zumbach, 82, who was shot four times May 1, 1958, with a 6.35 millimeter pistol and stabbed so viciously three times with a long knife that the blade passed entirely through his body. Zumbach's wife Marie, 80, was savagely attacked but lived.

The prosecution says Jaccoud, father of two, attacked the elderly couple because he believed his mistress, blonde, beautiful Linda (Poupette) Baud, 16 years Jaccoud's junior, was seeing their son Andre.

It was the most clamorous murder trial in the annals of Swiss law and police erected wooden barriers before the doors of the law courts to control the crowds which began gathering before dawn to try to win the 100 seats available to the public.

Deadlock on British Base for Cyprus

LONDON (UPI)—British, Turkish and Greek Cypriot delegates were deadlocked today over a British demand for a 125-mile military base on Cyprus as the price for that island's independence on Feb. 19.

The conference, which began on Saturday, resumed again this morning to try to work out details of the year-old agreement under which the former colony is to become an independent nation within the British Commonwealth.

But Britain says it must have a major 16,000-man military base there to be able to cope with "brush fire" wars in the Middle East and because Cyprus is necessary for NATO. The main opposition comes from Archbishop Makarios, Cyprus president-elect.

He was willing to allow a much smaller base but said Britain was trying to set up a "Little Hong Kong" in the Mediterranean and that any base should be limited to about 36 square miles.

Brother Asking Fugitive Heiress to Return Home

PARIS (AP)—Douglas Benedict, 21, brother of runaway American heiress Gamble Benedict, 19, flew into Paris today in an effort to get his sister to come home to New York.

* * *

Douglas, a private first class on leave from an artillery outfit in West Germany, has held frequent telephone conversations with his sister since she ran off with Romanian-born Andre Porumbeanu. The girl insists she will remain in Paris and marry Porumbeanu when he gets a divorce.

* * *

Benedict was met at the airport by Robert Hoffman, the family lawyer who flew to Paris from New York last week to investigate legal possibilities on forcing Gamble to return to the United States. The girl has refused to see Hoffman.

Waterford Treated to Variety

Strong Ballet Delightful

By MARJORIE EICHER

A disarmingly charming program of dances, alive with rhythm and imagination, was presented to an attentive audience of Waterford Civic Music Assn. subscribers Saturday evening.

Rod Strong, whose love of his medium is easily apparent in his dancing, his choreography and his breathless explanations of his numbers, brought a company of three talented young women with him. Together they brought also a new dimension of color, movement and life to the stage of the Pierce Junior High School Auditorium. To maintain this mood before a mixed audience used to the casual perfection and abundance of dance found these days on television is no easy achievement.

ONLY 2 CLASSIC NUMBERS

Only the first two numbers were in the classic tradition. The first, "Interpretations," to music by Bach, served to introduce his company. Marcia Helpin performed classic leaps with fine style and elevation. She was the epitome of the classic ballerina, elegant and graceful in her blue tutu.

★ ★ ★

Judith Panzer, a young dancer at home in classical roles, was an elfin in red. Her arabesques were sustained and steady.

Charlotte Winson (Mrs. Rod Strong in private life) made a striking entrance. Her strawberry blonde hair supplied the visual emphasis of a tutu above the sleek black of her costume. She brought a contemporary note to the number without deviating from the classical form.

Rod Strong was more than the ballerinas' "third leg," a role usually expected of the male dancer. His technique, though subdued to achieve an harmonious whole, was nonetheless virtuoso.

The second classical number was a 16th Century "Gavotte" danced to Scarlatti's melodic music. Beautifully choreographed by Mr. Strong, this number provided a framework for his formidable talents in the area of mime.

★ ★ ★

A solo number, "Carnival," set to the music of Paganini, followed. Light and amusing, it was a narrative of a small boy's first trip to a circus. With engaging charm and nimble feet and body movements, Mr. Strong portrayed the boy with jingling pockets, the strong man and the intrepid tightrope walker.

TREATISE ON WALTZ

The final number in the first group of dances was a treatise on the waltz, danced by the entire company to Ravel's "Valse Nobles et Sentimentales." Miss Palzer did a punctuated, jumpy version which was nonetheless fluid. Looking like a Dresden doll, Miss Helpin performed a lyric interpretation of the second movement with effective studied control. The interpretation of the romantic waltz by Miss Winson and Mr. Strong was in full romantic tradition, pleasing and flowing.

An interlude of piano music was offered by accompanist Rolf Barnes. An artist in his own right, Mr. Barnes brought remarkable strength and dexterity to Couperin's "Le Tic-Toc-Choc ou Les Maillotins." His ability with the fast sustained tempos and strong rhythm indicates his experience as a dance accompanist, a most demanding piano rule.

Mr. Barnes played Chopin's "Scherzo in B Flat Minor, Opus 31" with authority and evident love of the music. He produced a flowing legato and good bass tempo. His runs were clean and sparkling with a touch the composer would have approved.

Mr. Strong returned with a group of three solo dances in which, as he explained, he used as much of the vocabulary of the dance as possible. He combined the movement of ballet with the percussion of tap and the originality of his own choreography in a baroque court dance, "Allemonde." The audience enjoyed the unique "Dance Without Music," in which Mr. Strong achieved remarkable crescendos and diminuendos in a series of percussion-like tap rhythms. A Spanish number, "Leyenda," was executed in classic form with fine footwork and dramatic leaps.

★ ★ ★

Following intermission an Agnes DeMille-flavored piece of Americana was danced by the entire company with verve. This and the later Sadie Thompson number came closest to the musical stage style of dancing with which American audiences feel most at home.

EVEN A PARODY

A comical parody on the plight of the male dancer was injected between the two numbers. Despite the broad comedy, the number provided a vehicle for some spectacular elevation and entrechat by Mr. Strong.

Two Debussy numbers played expressively by Mr. Barnes preceded the final group of dances by Mr. Strong.

A final note of informal rapport was established between the artists and the audience when Mr. Strong and Mr. Barnes improvised a number based on more than a dozen widely assorted musical numbers volunteered by the audience. This could well be termed the audience's revenge, but let it be said that Mr. Strong, with his quick response, humor and talent, truly had the last word.

An hilarious parody on Pavlova's "Dying Swan," entitled "The Dance of the Dying Duck," ended the evening on a light note.

Margaret Ann Beattie of Walton boulevard, president of Waterford Township Civic Music Assn. discusses Saturday evening's program with pianist Rolf Barnes and dancer Rod Strong. The program was the second in a series of three.

Newlyweds Honeymoon in Acapulco

Honeymooning in Acapulco, Mexico, are Mr. and Mrs. Stefan Karadian (nee Anne Keshigian) who were married Saturday in St. Sarkis Armenian Church, Detroit. The Rev. Souren Papakian read the 4 o'clock rites in the presence of 300.

The Peter B. Keshigians of Illinois avenue are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sahag Karadian of Highland Park.

Alencon lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls, fashioned the fitted bodice and long sleeves of the bride's gown of white peau de soie. The bouffant skirt swept into a chapel train.

Attached to a crown of boreallis sequins and seed pearls, was the fingertip veil of French illusion. A white orchid centered the bride's cascade of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Attendants wore identical gowns of ice blue peau de soie with net overskirts. The bride's sister Lillian, as honor maid, carried American Beauty roses. Bridesmaids were Daisy Keshigian and the bridegroom's sister Lucy. They carried pink roses.

John Paul Sarkisian of Lyon, France, was best man. Detrofters, Allen Basmajian and Andy Zobian, ushered.

At the reception in Glen Oaks Country Club, Mrs. Keshigian appeared in a mauve lace sheath with short jacket. Mrs. Karadian chose beige chiffon with lace bodice. Both mothers wore orchids.

The couple will live in Pontiac.

MRS. STEFAN KARADIAN

Anne Keshigian, daughter of the Peter Keshigians of Illinois avenue, pledged marital vows with Stefan Karadian, son of the Sahag Karadians of Highland Park, Saturday in St. Sarkis Armenian Church.

(Editor's Note: "The Best of Abby, 1959," the pick of her columns for the year—really the best of the best—is presented here for your amusement.)

DEAR ABBY: On New Year's Eve I had a date with a fellow. When he came for me, my mother said he looked feverish so she took his temperature! He is a 17-year-old boy, Abby, (I am 16) and I wanted to crawl into a hole and die. He didn't have any temperature, fortunately, so she let us go. But I would like to know your opinion of a mother like that.

EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: I think she's wonderful.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been getting our cat drunk. She acts crazy, and dances and staggers around and finally falls asleep in a corner. My husband thinks this is very funny, but I'm afraid it could harm the cat. Can a cat take the habit? She waits for him by the door and doesn't leave his side until he gives her some gin in her milk.

HELEN

DEAR HELEN: See to it that your husband puts the cat on the wagon or give the cat to someone who will.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When I was married I used to come home at night and my little dog would bark at me and my wife would bring me my slippers. Now, just six years later, when I come home at night, my dog brings me my slippers and my wife barks at me. FRANK

DEAR FRANK: What are you complaining about? You're still getting the same service.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: In your opinion is it proper for a casual acquaintance to ask point blank how a perfectly respectable lady got a black eye?

THE LADY

DEAR LADY: It is proper, but unnecessary. The only way a respectable lady gets a black eye is by walking into a door.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: In the case of a married couple where the husband is very affectionate and the wife wan's to be left alone, what do you think is bound to happen after about six or seven years?

TEMPTED

DEAR TEMPTED: One woman's leftovers can be another's banquet.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SLUGGER": Never drink on an empty head.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I know this gag is older than the hills but some of the boys are still using it. They will take you out for a ride in the country and then the car "stalls." What do I do?

CINDY

DEAR CINDY: When the car stalls, you stall.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who is 74 and believe it or not, he still thinks the grass is greener on the other side of the fence. I am 69. What do you do in a case like this?

SONIA

DEAR SONIA: Don't worry. At his age he could never jump over the fence.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My fiance sells fertilizer. When people ask me what he does for a living, what should I tell them? ENGAGED

DEAR ENGAGED: Tell them he sells fertilizer for a living.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who includes his mother in all his dates? And what do you think of a mother who asks to be included? DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: I think they deserve each other.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have a 1936 nickel. Could you please tell me how much it's worth?

WILBUR

DEAR WILBUR: Five cents.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO ABE: When you help out a man who is in trouble, you can be sure of one thing. He won't forget you — the next time he's in trouble.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am another one of those poor saps whose love life has gone to pot since my wife put a television set in our bedroom. Can you tell me how to get back in the act again?? NEGLECTED

DEAR NEGLECTED: They say one picture is worth ten thousand words. Don't you believe it!

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were divorced two years ago but we still have a lot in common. He comes to see me and stays the night sometimes. We are both 40 and think that this is nobody's business but our own. Are we right or not?? DIVORCED

DEAR DIVORCED: It is your business — but you are doing business without a license.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: When we make something in cooking class in school, don't you think we should be allowed to eat it? MARY NELL

DEAR MARY NELL: Allowed to? You should be compelled to!

DEAR ABBY: I am a well-to-do bachelor of 65. I met a young woman of 22 and asked her to marry me. I told her my right age. I am afraid that by telling her my right age I ruined my chances with her. Would my chances have been better had I told her I was 55? BACHELOR

DEAR BACHELOR: Your chances probably would have been better had you told her you were 75!

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "JOSIE": Your boyfriend's "magic" tricks should be very helpful. Tell him if he doesn't come up with a wedding ring by December, he can make himself disappear.

DEAR ABBY: I've heard about some pretty impossible mothers-in-law, but I'll put mine up against any of them. Every time she sees my husband she tells him how "tired" he looks. She tells him (in front of me) that marriage has made an "ole man" out of him. She constantly compares me to his old sweetheart.

The last straw was when she had a set of twin beds delivered to my house because she said I wasn't letting him get his rest. She said it was an "anniversary gift" and made a deal to trade in our big double bed, without our permission. The men just came and took away our double bed and moved in the twins. Help me, Abby, before I put my fist right through her mouth.

END OF ROPE

DEAR END: The chatter about how "tired" your husband looks, and the "childhood sweetheart" should go into one ear and out the other, but her "gift" of the twin beds should go out the door.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to a wonderful girl but she doesn't like my dog. She says it's either me or the dog. I have had "Pal" since he was six weeks old and that was eight years ago. I've only known my fiancee for 10 months. Pal is a Chesapeake retriever, weighs 95 pounds and stands five feet on his hind legs. He has a dark brown coat with white markings on his throat and paws. Do you think any woman is worth giving up my dog for? UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: What does your fiancee look like?

DEAR ABBY: I am an old woman who is married to an old man with young ideas. He is 73 and has three women on the string. He was to a doctor and the doctor said he had the constitution of a horse. One of his sweethearts is the girl next door. She is 50 and has no brains. OLD AND GRAY

DEAR O. AND G.: Eventually Father Time will blow the whistle on Mother Nature. When the doctor examines your husband again, ask him to include his head!

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO TOMMY: You can meet friends everywhere . . . but you can't meet enemies anywhere. You have to make them.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I'd like your help in convincing my husband that we are living in a modern world. We aren't kids. We are in our 40s and have been married 18 years. I don't neglect the kids (or him) and see nothing wrong with an "affair" as long as nobody is hurt. I don't want a divorce. I just want to go on as I have been. Being a woman, you understand.

AVERAGE WIFE

DEAR AVERAGE: I "understand" this: Women who see "nothing wrong" with an "affair" need a dog license—not a marriage license.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MAC": With your kind of luck I recommend that you wear suspenders, a belt and carry two safety pins. Good luck!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a girl makes a mistake when she marries a man knowing he must go overseas the day after the wedding? I did, and now I am beginning to wonder.

"WONDERING"

DEAR WONDERING: If you are now "wondering" — you probably did.

★ ★ ★

GIRL WITH GLASSES

DEAR GIRL: It depends on their frames.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO GUILTY CONSCIENCE: Psychiatrists tell us it's not too good for us to keep too much to ourselves. The Income Tax people tell us the same thing. Declare it!

DEAR ABBY: I am 33 and have been going with a woman who is 29. I like a woman to be honest with me. We talked over our past lives out-in-the-open like. I told her about my past and then she said there were only three men in her life. Now, every time we get on the subject she brings up another man. The total is now up to 11. What do you advise?

BEEN AROUND

DEAR BEEN: If she gets to 12 sell!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend comes to see me right after he's had hamburger and raw onions. Then he gets affectionate and expects me to kiss him. What should I do?

FLOORED

DEAR FLOORED: Simple, you eat onions.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I wear false teeth but the girl I am going to marry doesn't know it. Should I tell her about it or wait until we're married and let her find out for herself?

FALSE TEETH

DEAR FALSE: Marry the girl and keep your mouth shut.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO THELMA: The difference between a successful marriage and a mediocre one consists of leaving about three or four things a day unsaid.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend kisses me because he likes to taste my lipstick. This makes me very mad. What should I do? ELSIE

DEAR ELSIE: If you are over 21 kiss him back.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What does it mean when a boy bites the top of your ear? BERNICE

DEAR BERNICE: It means he is either teething or would like to know you better.

Secretaries Hear From Boss' Wife

DEAR ABBY: Please print this for my boss' wife. If she doesn't see it, I'm sure it will apply to many others.

To whom it may concern: By now you are back home and everything is fine. Or is it? You went away for the Summer (you said the children needed a vacation) and you left your husband all alone. What did you expect him to do? Go home to an empty house every night and scramble an egg and watch TV?

I work for him. He was plain lonesome. He suggested dinner together and I said yes. I said yes to a few other suggestions, too. But don't worry, I didn't try to steal your husband (although it wouldn't have been difficult).

I'm quitting my job because I really fell hard for this wonderful man and I don't want to get involved any more deeply than I am. I'm just giving you a little tip. You women who have good husbands should STAY HOME AND TAKE CARE OF THEM. If you leave him alone again, the next girl might not be as charitable as—

"CALL ME HONEY"

DEAR ABBY: That letter from "Honey" sure burned me up. May I answer her?

DEAR HONEY: Yes, I am the boss' wife who leaves her husband alone all Summer. Our boy has hay fever and asthma so bad I have no choice. If my husband claims he has to scramble an egg for his supper every night, he is only looking for sympathy. Before I leave, I fill my freezer with delicious home-cooked meals. And I have to work months in advance to do it. If you fell hard for my husband that's your tough luck. You say you could steal him if you wanted to? Hah! Over my dead body!

SAUL'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: I want to thank 'Honey" for writing that letter, I am the "boss' wife" who was foolish enough to leave her wonderful husband for two months every Summer. Believe me, Abby, I have read that letter from Honey a dozen times, and I have promised myself that I will never leave my husband alone again. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

HARRIET

DEAR ABBY: "Honey" must have wax in her beehive. When a married man asks a single girl to have dinner with him, she should expect the following menu:

Cocktails: A few martinis — just to "relax" us.

First Course: "I haven't had any REAL affection in years."

Third Course: "YOU understand me perfectly. If I were a free man, I'd marry you tomorrow."

Dessert: "It's so noisy and smoky in this place. Let's get out of here and go to my place where it's quiet and we can talk."

Rev. McColl Officiates at Strange-Clark Nuptials

* * *

Complementing the bride's cocktail-length dress of white brocade, worn with green accessories, was her hat of white seal glow trimmed with feathers. She carried white carnations.

Wallace Weatherby of Pontiac stood as best man for the bridegroom, son of Mrs. Marian Clark of Commonwealth road and Freeman Clark, also of Pontiac.

Mrs. Clark wore gold accessories with her pale blue street-length dress.

A Desk Drawer Is Private

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I was home recently for several days with a very bad cold. When I returned to the office, I found evidence that someone had been through my desk drawers. Isn't a secretary's desk considered "private property?" In other words, does her employer or anyone else in the office have the right to go through the drawers of her desk in her absence?

Answer: If there was something in your desk — such as an important letter or a key to a filing cabinet — that was needed during your absence, your employer would have a right to look for it, but otherwise your desk is your private property and nobody should open it.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: I work in an office where I take a great many telephone calls. Many of these callers ask to speak to my employer who has a very difficult name to pronounce. After the callers have stammered and stumbled over the name, they finally utter some faint semblance to it. In the meantime I just listen to them, wanting to say the name for them but wonder if I should. Would it be thought rude to correct them?

Answer: It will be polite, and helpful as well, for you to say "Just a moment please I'll see if Mr. Difficult name is in."

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine has recently become engaged but no date has been set for the wedding as her fiance is in the service. I would like to give a shower for her some time soon but wonder if it would be proper to give it before the wedding date has been set.

* * *

Answer: While there is no definite rule about this, I think it would be wiser for you to wait until the date of the wedding has been set.

Fashion Dos and Don'ts

Underweight? Heed This!

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The overweight woman's thin sister has her problems, too. Today's letter from an underweight reader is filled with good advice for her "fellow sufferers."

They say that "out of the mouths of babes" words of wisdom sometimes come. Here is some fine advice from the pen of a grown-up babe.

This reader wrote the following: "It takes a thin person to give advice to thin people. I have lived for 25 years with my 5 feet, 3 inches and 100 pounds. I have lived through all kinds of styles but I always adapted the current style to suit my small frame. Most people do not call me thin. They refer to me as "chunky." I have a thin face, and thin arms and legs but I make the best of what I have.

"Here are some of the things I have found out through experience. A thin person should never wear a suit. Straight, severe lines add nothing to her appearance. Always wear soft materials in pastel shades. If prints are worn they should be of small design.

"Shoes should be pump style, never oxfords. There are many attractive low-heeled shoes on the market now.

"Never wear your dresses long, no matter what the fashion is. Clothes should fit tight about the upper body — otherwise you have a scarecrow look. If the neck is long and thin, wear high collar lines with a flower or bow pinned at the point of the neck hollow.

"Your hair should be curly to make it fuller unless you have a very thick crop of hair.

"Stay away from knitted dresses and sweaters.

"Most important of all remember that a sense of humor, a cheerful, pleasant personality and a ready, sincere smile far outweigh any physical defect. Forget your shortcomings! I used to be self-conscious about my underweight but I am not any more."

★ ★

How true this is. The important thing to remember is always to make your size "work" for you, by choosing the right styles for your figure and emphasizing your good features. This holds true no matter what type you are — short or tall, fat or thin.

★ ★

Tomorrow: "Here's What You Should Know About Exercise."

This thin girl is not dressed to suit her figure. She is advised to stay away from knitted dresses and sweaters, never to wear dresses long, to avoid straight, severe lines and always to wear soft materials in pastel shades.

SWAN LOOK

by Rowena Wilson

This is the new hair trend on the feminine scene. This coif-styling produces the longest, most elegant line from tip of chin to top of hair-pouf. In every variation, it lengthens the curve of the lovely neck and shoulders, heightens the importance of the eyes, makes the head oval and graceful.

Follow the latest trends and have your coif arranged in one of the newer hairstyles. It's so important to complement the newer styles on the fashion scene. Enters Finch Case Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The name of pretty Carole Tregoff—accused of helping her wealthy doctor lover plot his wife's death—formally enters the Finch murder trial for the first time today.

* * *

First witnesses will be the managers of two apartment houses where the state contends Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, and Miss Tregoff, 23, held trysts in the weeks just before Mrs. Finch was slain last July 18.

Until now the prosecution has concentrated on the "cute-cut, tennis-playing doctor. The name of Miss Tregoff, Finch's red-haired mistress and former receptionist, has not been linked to the slaying.

The prosecution says it also will call a man later to testify that Miss Tregoff tried to hire him to kill 36-year old Barbara Finch.

* * *

Sometime today actor-producer Mark Stevens is expected to testify that Mrs. Finch, his frequent tennis partner, lived in mortal fear of her life.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

© 1959 by Clarence Budington Kelland © 1960 by The Curtis Publishing Company Distributed by NEA Service

THE STORY: Stubby Newell on whose farm the Cardiff giant was found, is making a great deal of money exhibiting the marvel at 25 a person. But one of great importance to Syracuse is the arrival of Miss Cassie Janeway, who retained Orrin as her lawyer.

Chapter VII

It was due, of course, to newspaper enterprise that the Cardiff Giant was so widely advertised. The murder was a local thing and not calculated by our editors to be of interest beyond our limits, but the giant was a cat of another color.

Accounts of it were telegraphed to New York and Boston. The telegraph company charged all of $4.50 for an hour's use of their facilities.

But when that hour was up, even if the Czar of Russia were drowned in the Erie Canal, no word of it could be sent out until the next day.

But to people of our class the absorbing topic was the dinner and reception to be given by Banker Watts to introduce Madame Janeway to Syracuse society.

Some 20 of our most prominent citizens were bidden to dine in the spacious Watts' dining room. After which the reception was to be held.

NOT INVITED

Lossie and I, naturally, were not invited to the dinner, but we were permitted to attend the reception.

She wore a gown I never had seen before, and which I accused her of buying for the event. It fitted tightly above the waist, but from the hips downward it flared and billowed over hoop-skirts with panniers and flounces.

And it was an off kind of blue that somehow made you very conscious of her blue eyes. She was elegant—very elegant—and dignified and grown-up and reserved. And most startling lovely.

"Gosh all fishooks!" I exclaimed loutishly.

She stared at me with elevated brows. "If that is a compliment, I'm obliged to you, sir. However, it might have been phrased a bit more elegantly."

"I'm not elegant," I said miserably. "I haven't been to Europe to learn how."

GOOD NIGHT!

"If," she said loftily, "there should be dancing, try not to step on my feet."

After all, there is such a thing as self-respect.

"Good night, Miss Lossie," I said tightly. "In the future I hope you find a more suitable escort."

"Oh," she said, "I shall do that, of course. But tonight you're all I've got. Come back here, Orrin Applegate!"

Then, with a lightning change she became the Lossie of half a dozen years ago—a tomboy with grimy hands and holes in the knees of her stockings. She lifted her stately skirt so that she could kick, and she did kick me on the shin.

Somehow, this made everything different. Here was a Lossie I was familiar with, and with whom I knew how to cope.

"Then," I said stoutly, "keep a polite tongue in your head."

* * *

We were admitted to Banker Watts' home and shown directly to where the host and hostess received.

* * *

I was conscious that something was happening to Lossie. I felt a slight movement, a sort of drawing together of her slender body, a straightening of her shoulders and a lifting of her chin. This person who walked beside me never had done anything so undignified.

* * *

She seemed taller, and somehow she had contrived to seem more mature. Her very face had altered. It was not pert with promise of rich beauty to come: it was dignified by beauty that had amply arrived. It was not a cold, standoffish beauty, but vivid and attracting and somehow seductive.

Here was nothing naive, but all the allure of Eve, who had learned wisdom from the serpent.

For an instant Mrs. Watts did not recognize Lossie, and then her pale blue eyes widened and I thought she was going to exclaim, "Well!" But she recovered herself.

I got the idea that the older woman was trying to belittle Lossie, but she had no luck whatever. Madam and the girl looked into each other's eyes for an instant, and then both smiled brightly.

"But, my dear!" exclaimed Madam with generous warmth, "I had no idea I had such a beauty for a neighbor!"

"Madam is kind," Lossie said with perfect poise. "But she can well afford to pay a nice compliment. For who could compete with Madam's loveliness"

* * *

Madam Janeway's smile was condescendingly regal as she touched Lossie with her fan. "And your gown, Miss Lossie," she said, "was not created in Syracuse. It fairly reeks of the Rue de la Paix."

* * *

With the restless line behind us, we could not linger. Before we passed on, Madam Janeway greeted me with a nicely jocular familiarity. "And my legal adviser!" she said. "How kind of you to come to his reception!"

I led Lossie away, and when we were at a safe distance I said in an angry whisper, "What got into you, Lossie? An hour ago you were going to put poison in her soup. And now butter wouldn't melt in your mouth."

She looked up at me and her lip curled slightly. "Madame Janeway," she said, "is exquisite. One had but to see her to lose one's heart! Such glamour!"

"Come off it, Loss," I said testily. "What are you up to"

"Oh, Orrin," she said girlishly, although her eyes were not girlish, but sardonic. "I want to study Madam, to pattern myself after her. To learn decorum." She was all but gooing in a sickening manner.

Soo Solon Predicts Funds for New Lock

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Rep. Victor Knox (R-Mich) says he believes the 1961 fiscal budget will include funds for a new $42,000,000 lock to replace the old Poe lock at Sault Ste. Marie.

* * *

Knox told the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News yesterday "there is every reason to believe that the budget carries a recommendation for a $1,350,000 appropriation for the start of construction of a replacement of the Poe lock at the St. Mary's Falls Canal."

President Eisenhower will present the 1961 budget to Congress next week.

AF's Missiles to Ride Rails

Studying Systems in North, Northwest for Elusive ICBM Set-Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force plans to mount intercontinental ballistic missiles on railway cars in the North and Northwest sections of the nation so it will be difficult for enemy rockets to zero in on them.

*

The service is studying rail systems in those parts of the country to determine which are suitable for the missiles and what new construction might be necessary.

The elusive railroad missile units would be sort of nuclear-age big brothers of the World War I and II artillery pieces mounted on rail cars.

PLAN FOR MINUTEMAN

It has been known for some time that the Air Force was considering mounting its solid fuel minuteman cross-spanning missile on railroad cars.

An announcement Saturday was the first indication of where the service planned to spot the mobile missiles.

The Air Force said, "The mobile concept for the Minuteman envisions missiles mounted on railway cars which can be moved at random and should be difficult to locate by a potential aggressor."

* * *

It said the timetable for setting up the mobile missile units had not been set.

The Minuteman, which will be assembled at Ogden, is to be turned over to troops for combat use in 1963.

Here's What Ike's 1961 Budget Boils Down To

Would Delay Tax Cut; Double Space Spending

Taxes—No cuts this year. Postpone for at least one more year the reductions scheduled to take place next July 1 in corporation income taxes and federal excise taxes. Raise the federal tax on gasoline from 4 to 4½ cents a gallon, and on aviation fuels from 2 to 4½ cents. Strengthen Internal Revenue Service for crackdown on tax cheaters.

Surplus—The government's prospective income ($84,000,000,000) will exceed its spending ($79,800,000,000) by $4,200,000,000. This surplus should be used to reduce the national debt, and thus "counteract inflationary pressures."

Public debt—Will total $280,000,000,000 at end of fiscal 1961 if all goes as budgeted. Interest charges on the debt now amount to $9,585,000,000 annually—almost one-eighth of entire budget.

"Imperative" that Congress give Treasury more flexibility in setting interest rates on long-term bonds so it can get away from costly short-term financing.

Space—Spending for nonmilitary space projects will be almost doubled, from $335,000,000 to $600,000,000 a year. First U. S. manned flight into space may be attempted in 1961.

Defense—Military spending to continue at present level, $41,000,000,000 a year. Armed forces will stay about same size as now, with Army of 14 divisions, Navy of 817 active ships, Air Force of 91 combat wings. Asked sharp cuts in National Guard and Army reserves, substantial increase in missiles procurement.

Postal rates—He wants them raised to five cents for first class letters, eight cents for nine-mail in order to eliminate $554,000,000 annual deficit on postal service.

* * *

Atomic energy—Spending will continue at present level of $2,700,000,000 annually. Cutback in uranium ore purchases will be offset by increased outlay for development of civilian atomic power plants.

Farmers—Overhaul of "unrealistic price support" laws "urgently needed." Under present laws, cost of farm programs will rise $310,000,000 in fiscal 1961 to $5,000,000,000.

Water projects—Proposed starting 42 new flood control, irrigation, power and other water projects. Total spending of $1,200,000,000 in fiscal 1961.

MORE FOR VETS

Veterans — Outlay for veterans' benefits will rise by $314,000,000 to $5,500,000,000, chiefly because of more and higher pensions. Opposed legislation, already passed by Senate, to grant "GI Bill" education and loan benefits for peacetime ex-servicemen.

Education—Federal funds for student loans, improved science teaching and other programs under National Defense Education Act increased from $134,000,000 to $170,000,000 a year. Urged repeal of non-Communist affidavit requirement on student loans.

Renewed proposal for federal participation in underwriting long-term bond issues for public school and college construction.

Health—Expenditures estimated at $906,000,000—nearly triple level of five years ago. More than one-third of total earmarked for research on cancer, heart trouble and other major diseases.

* * *

Foreign aid—Total spending to remain at about present level, $2,480,000,000 in military aid and "defense support" for Allies, and $970,000,000 in economic aid for underdeveloped countries.

Aviation—Budget for Federal Aviation Agency increased by $114,000,000 to speed modernization of overcrowded airways. Subsidies to airlines increased by 80 per cent to $69,000,000.

AP Wirephoto

IN AND OUT — This chart shows where the tax dollar comes from and where it goes. As was suspected by most harried taxpayers, most of the money comes from their pockets — 52 per cent of it. And just as expected is the 54 per cent outlay for defense spending. The dissected dollar was included in the President's budget message to Congress.

Defense Shuffle Boosts Missiles

Ike's 1960 Budget Lays Plans to Aid Transition to Rocket Forces

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower laid down plans today for expanding America's whole arsenal of nuclear missiles, from intercontinental ballistic types to new atomic rockets for individual soldiers.

Submitting his $40,995,000,000 defense budget to Congress, Eisenhower said U. S. military strategy and tactics were undergoing "one of the greatest transitions in history."

His spending plan for the year starting July 1 was just fractionally bigger—$50,000,000—than this year's. But he asserted it would provide "the strong and versatile defense which we require under prevailing world conditions."

The budget will speed the great shift in emphasis to missile warfare, Eisenhower stated, without neglecting other military forces needed for more conventional combat.

* * *

He charged a billion-dollar increase in Atlas and Titan intercontinental ballistic missile units, more Polaris-missile submarines, a flock of new missile-carrying B52 jet bombers with more than 9,000 miles range, and more money for spy-in-the-sky Midas and Samos satellites.

* * *

At the same time, the Army will begin to get a bright array of new conventional weapons. The Army also will receive production quantities for the first time of its sergeant and air-transportable Little John bombardment missiles and its Davy Crockett "individual man-carried nuclear-capable rocket."

Eisenhower said America's aim is to provide enough military strength, along with its allies, to deter big or little wars.

Happy New Year for Government Comes July 1

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Most individuals keep their books and pay their taxes on the basis of the "calendar year" which begins Jan. 1 and ends Dec. 31.

But the federal budget compiles government income and outgo in terms of a "fiscal year" which begins July 1 and ends June 30.

* * *

The budget which President Eisenhower sent to Congress today is for the fiscal year 1961, which will begin next July 1 and end on June 30, 1961.

Ike Wants 'Em on Gasoline, Postage

Pennies . . . for Millions

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to boost gasoline taxes one-half cent a gallon, add another penny to the cost of mailing a letter and stop a scheduled July 1 cut in telephone and travel taxes.

* * *

In his revenue-boosting budget which envisioned a four-billion-dollar surplus, the President took a firm stand against any general tax relief before July 1, 1961.

But he held out strong hope that tax burdens could be "lightened" on or after that date as part of a "comprehensive" tax revision by the next Congress.

The President proposed immediate tax reliefs for only one group —individuals or companies doing business in underdeveloped countries.

COULD DELAY TAXES

He said they should be encouraged to expand their investments by being allowed to postpone payment of taxes on profits until the profits are returned to this country.

The rest of Eisenhower's tax program was designed to maintain or boost revenues—by postponing tax reductions already scheduled, by boosting existing rates or by closing certain tax loopholes.

In times of prosperity, he said, the Treasury should take in more money than it spends to "help counteract inflationary pressures."

Therefore, he budgeted all of an anticipated $4,200,000,000 surplus for the new fiscal year starting next July 1 for use in reducing the national debt.

If Congress follows his budget recommendations, Eisenhower said, the growth in the economy should produce a surplus big enough for the next administration and the next Congress to decide whether to cut the debt still further, reduce taxes or do both.

The President recommended that Congress now:

—Raise to 4½ cents both the 4-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline and the 2-cent-a-gallon tax on aviation gas and also apply the 4½-cent rate to jet fuel which now is tax free.

NEEDED FOR HIGHWAYS

He said the increased gasoline tax was needed by the highway trust fund to finance an expansion in road construction. He said airlines should pay higher gas taxes because they are getting expanded federal services and jet fuel should be taxed because conversion from piston to jet aircraft is causing "serious revenue losses."

—Boost postage on first-class mail from four to five cents and airmail from seven to eight cents. He said the rate increases were needed to wipe out an estimated $514,000,000 postal deficit.

—Extend for another year the existing 10 per cent federal taxes on local telephone calls and passenger travel. Congress last year repealed the travel tax and cut the telephone tax to 3 per cent, but postponed the effective date to July 1 1960.

* * *

—Extend for another year the higher "temporary" taxes levied during the Korean War on corporation profits and on whisky, beer, wines, cigarettes, automobiles and auto parts. These rates are scheduled to drop next July 1.

—Approve a treasury-backed plan for closing a court-created loophole through which earnings of cooperatives can escape taxation.

The earnings aren't taxed now if allocated to patrons. The Treasury plan would require the allocation to be made in such a way that it would be taxable to the patron.

TECHNICAL REVISIONS

—Approve a list of technical revisions in taxes recommended recently by the Treasury. The most far-reaching would require many self-employed persons to speed up the rate at which they pay social security taxes. Single persons with incomes of more than $5,000 and married couples with more than $10,000 would have to pay their social security taxes quarterly, instead of annually.

Interest Pulls Nearly 8th of Budget

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nearly one-eighth of the federal budget for fiscal 1961 will go to pay interest on the public debt.

The Treasury estimates that interest charges will come to $9,585,000,000.

That's more than it cost to run the entire government before World War II.

The interest outlay has increased more than 80 per cent since fiscal 1952, when it was $5,934,000,000.

2 REASONS

The rise has been due to two things:

The debt is bigger (thanks to the Korean War, the 1958 recession, etc.) and interest rates on government bonds have climbed to the highest point in many years (thanks to a tight money market.)

In his budget message to Congress today, President Eisenhower offered two proposals for reducing future expenditures for interest.

* * *

First, he said, the $4,200,000,000 surplus which the government expects to accumulate during fiscal 1961 should be used to reduce the federal debt.

Second, he asked Congress to authorize higher interest rates on long-term federal bonds.

The second proposal sounds paradoxical. How can you bring down interest charges by authorizing higher interest rates?

The explanation lies in the fact that the Treasury has been unable to find a market for long-term bonds which, under present law, have a maximum interest rate of 4¼ per cent.

Investors just won't buy them at that rate.

MUST PAY 5¼ PCT

So the Treasury is compelled to finance the public debt with a succession of short-term borrowings, on which it is currently paying about 5-¼ per cent interest.

Investors will accept a lower interest rate on long-term bonds than on short-term notes.

The President told Congress it should be cheaper to authorize a higher interest rate on long-term bonds—which might find a ready market at 4½ or 4¾ per cent—than to continue short-term financing.

'Add $1 Billion for Foreign Aid'

The increase is needed to help provide free world allies with advanced weapons and equipment, he said.

* * *

In his message to Congress on his budget for the fiscal year beginning next July 1, the President asked $1,173,000,000 in new appropriations for U. S. mutual security programs.

He had asked $3,930,000,000 last year, but Congress cut the amount sharply.

ACCELERATE TECHNICAL AID

"This increase in the program," his message said, "is needed to accelerate economic and technical assistance, chiefly through the Development Loan Fund (DLF), and to strengthen free world forces, in particular the forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, with advanced weapons and equipment."

Specifically, the President asked for two billion dollars in new money for military assistance, and $2,175,000,000 for various forms of economic aid.

* * *

The message estimated actual foreign aid expenditures in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961, at $3,450,000,000, or 100 million over the current period.

This includes 1½ billion for military aid spending.

Eisenhower said the Development Loan Fund would need 700 million dollars in new lending authority in 1961.

Actual outlays during the year will be 300 million, he said.

* * *

In asking two billion dollars for military assistance, the President said that due to the long production time needed for many items, "procurement must be started in 1961 in order to provide the necessary deliveries in future years."

DRAW ON BACKLOG

During recent years, he said, deliveries have been maintained only by drawing on a backlog of appropriations.

"Adequate deliveries in the future must depend on new appropriations," he said.

The two-billion-dollar military aid figure had been recommended by a special committee which studied the program last year.

* * *

It recommended then that he increase his request for the current year to the same figure.

Eisenhower said he would ask no extra funds for this year, but added:

"The 1961 military assistance program squarely faces the pressing need for new and costly weapons for which the free world still looks for help from the United States."

The budget gave no breakdown of either military or economic aid amounts scheduled for individual areas.

We're Glad You Asked Us

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal budget speaks in terms of billions.

How much is a billion dollars?

* * *

The average citizen, who isn't used to dealing in such sums, may find the following illustration helpful in visualizing how much money is involved:

If a man stood over a big hole in the ground, and dropped in a $20 bill once every minute, day and night, it would take him 95 years to throw a billion dollars into the hole.

Tax Cheaters, Uncle Sam May Stiffen the Odds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Income tax cheats beware:

Electronic detectives will be used in the future to put the finger on tax chislers, if Congress goes along with a proposal by President Eisenhower.

Eisenhower told Congress today in his annual budget message that Uncle Sam appears to be losing "a considerable amount" of revenue because some businesses and individuals don't report fully the income they receive.

Accordingly, he recommended an additional 29 million dollars for the Internal Revenue Service, primarily to strengthen the IRS enforcement program.

The President said this would pay for itself many times over through increased tax collections in future years.

Put Astronaut in Space Next Year? Maybe—Ike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today the United States may put a man in space in 1961.

He made the forecast in proposing civilian and military space expenditures of 918 million dollars in fiscal 1961 starting July 1.

Of this total the civilian National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) will spend 600 million dollars, nearly twice the 325 million it will spend this year.

Spending for "military astronautics" will total 318 million dollars, 98 million dollars less than estimated fiscal 1960 expenditures.

* * *

NASA's Mercury manned satellite project "will enter the operational phase" in the new fiscal year, the President said, and "actual manned space flights may be attempted in 1961."

For atomic energy, the President budgeted $2,680,000,000 compared to $2,675,000,000 this year. He said $5 million dollars would go for development of civilian nuclear power. An unstated amount will go for continued work on nuclear space engines and electrical power sources for spacecraft.

The AEC will spend slightly more next year on weapons and power but will curtail expenditures for uranium, the raw material of nuclear energy.

* * *

No money was visible in the budget for atomic weapons tests, but the President said test facilities in Nevada and the Pacific will be maintained on a standby basis.

For research and development in all fields the President proposed expenditure of $8,391,000,000, an increase of $58 million over this year and $1,690,000,000 over fiscal 1959.

Of total research and development more than four-fifths, or $6,920,000,000 was earmarked for "national security needs." The bulk of this spending will be by the Defense Department.

Basic research, the acquisition of pure scientific knowledge, was budgeted for 600 million dollars.

The President estimated public health spending in fiscal 1961 at 904 million dollars, 53 million more than this year. The national institutes of health will spend 390 million dollars.

The National Science Foundation's research budget was increased to 101 million dollars from $71,100,000.

Record Total Budgeted for 42 Water Projects

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower executed an about-face on public works spending in his election-year budget message to Congress today.

He called for "a record total of expenditures, $1,200,000,000, for water resources projects" including "the initiation of 42 new high-priority projects."

Ike Urges More Money for Selected Studies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower today proposed modest increases in federal spending to strengthen science, math and language education and to provide more college student loans.

But he called for cutbacks in federal grants to school districts whose enrollment has been swollen by government installations, and urged elimination of low-interest federal loans for college dormitories.

Rises 48 Cents

Budget $437.74 Per Capita

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's new spending budget comes to $437.74 for every man, woman and child in the country.

* * *

Though spending will be $1,400,000,000 higher than in this fiscal year, the increase per capita is only about 48 cents per person.

That's because the population will increase by almost the same percentage as federal outlays.

179.3 MILLION JAN. 1

There were about 179,300,000 Americans on Jan. 1, the midpoint of the 1960 fiscal year, carrying a budget of $78,400,000,000 or $437.26 apiece.

* * *

There will be roughly three million more Americans next Jan. 1, the midpoint of fiscal 1961, to carry that year's $79,800,000,000 budget.

Asks Status Quo for Housing Plan

President Also Requests Higher Interest Rates on GI Mortgages

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower asked Congress today to continue most existing federal housing programs without expanding them.

He also renewed a request, turned down by Congress last year, for higher interest rates on GI home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

The President's message said "legislation will be requested only for the authority necessary to continue important existing programs and provide necessary flexibility in interest rates."

Eisenhower again asked Congress to permit the VA to raise the maximum interest rate on guaranteed GI mortgages to 6 per cent. It is now fixed by law at 5 per cent. Because market interest rates are much above this level, little loan money is available for GI mortgages, the President said.

A speedup in slum clearance activity will require an extra $50,000,000 from Congress to be spent by June 30, the President said.

Repayments of past dollar advances will lower net urban renewal outlays from $197,000,000 in 1960 to $172,000,000 in 1961, although disbursements actually will rise.

$5.6 Billion Earmarked for Agriculture Dept.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower today budgeted $5,623,000,000 for the Agriculture Department in fiscal 1961 and called for in fiscal 1962 and called for "urgently needed" legislation on farm price supports.

* * *

The proposed budget compares with $5,113,000,000 spent by the department in fiscal 1960 and $6,529,000,000 in fiscal 1959.

"Particularly urgent now is legislation to put wheat price supports on a more realistic basis, Eisenhower said.

Care to Compare?

(In billions of dollars, rounded)

	Receipts	Expenses	Deficit or Surplus
1961 (Proposed)	$84.0	$79.8	$ 4.2 (Sur.)
1960 (Estimated)	78.6	78.4	0.2 (Sur.)

Western Pros Overpower East, 38-21

MVP Unitas, Tittle Fire 4 Scoring Passes

Paul Hornung, Lipscomb and Arnett Other Stars; Layne Flips for 12

A crowd of 56,876 in the Coliseum saw Baltimore's Unitas, named the game's most valuable player, toss three touchdown passes—all in the first half—for a new Pro Bowl record.

Green Bay's Hornung scored one touchdown, kicked a field goal and five conversions for a total of 14 points—another record.

The West's defensive line was led by Baltimore's Lipscomb, named the game's top lineman. They held the East running game to a scant 59 yards.

T. A. Tittle of San Francisco spelled Unitas and tossed seven strikes in a row during a second-quarter touchdown drive. He completed 13 of 18 passes.

Los Angeles' Jon Arnett led the West's runners with 61 yards in 11 carries. He picked up 44 more on passes, 38 on punt returns and 68 on kickoff returns for a total of 211 yards.

The West's defensive line put a terrific rush on Pittsburgh's Bobby Layne. He was saddled all day with the quarterbacking because Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia had the flu.

Layne's 43-yard pass to Pittsburgh's Jimmy Orr sparked the East's final drive in the last period. The East marched to the 5-yard line but needed eight plays and a penalty to score. Finally Layne passed a two-yarder to Cleveland's Jimmy Brown for the score.

Unitas' three scoring heaves went to Colt Ray Berry (22 yards), Colt Lenny Moore (65) and San Francisco's J. D. Smith (6). Moore also caught a 13-yard pass from Tittle for a touchdown.

Hornung's 14 points broke the individual scoring record of 12, held by five players. His five conversions bettered Cleveland's Lou Groza's mark of four.

"Man, that Big Daddy is a mountain all by himself," said West Coach Red Hickey of San Francisco.

"Wish the guys we had out there—Lipscomb, Colt Ging marchetti, (Chicago's Fred) Williams and (Chicago's Doug) Atkins—you couldn't see the defensive backfield.

"And I'll tell you something—with those mountains up front, we didn't seem to need a defensive backfield."

In the East dressing room, Layne told Coach Buck Shaw of Philadelphia:

"I'm sorry, coach, it was my fault. I had a bad day."

★ ★ ★

Shaw, absolving Layne, said, "The West had the passing, the protection and the receiving. And that's about good enough to win any ball game."

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Statistics of Sunday's Pro Bowl football game:

	East	West
First downs	11	24
Rushing yardage	59	245
Passing yardage	232	211
Passes completed-attempted	11-29	17-31
Passes intercepted by	0	2
Punts	6-44	5-46
Fumbles lost	1	0
Yards penalized	7	5
Score	7 7 7 7—28	21 7 7 3—38

West: TD, Berry 22 pass from Unitas). Moore 2 (13 pass from Tittle, 65 pass from Unitas). Smith (6 pass from Unitas). Hornung (2 run). FG, Hornung (38). PAT, Hornung 5.

'Alignment' of Two Divisions Key to Expansion

NFL Committee OK's Growth

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—One word—"alignment"—could be the key to whether the National Football League expands this year.

The league's executive committee met for an hour last night and in a lone action voted favorably to consider at Wednesday's annual meeting franchise applications from Dallas, St. Louis, Miami and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Acting Commissioner Austin H. Gunsel said a majority vote of the executive committee — comprising one representative from each of the 12 clubs—passed the action. He refused to disclose the vote but a reliable source said it was 10-2.

The word "alignment" crept into the picture when several club owners were asked just what they meant by favoring expansion. The owners, who declined to be identified, said they thought the league should expand if a satisfactory alignment of the two conferences could be agreed on.

★ ★ ★

For example, the Eastern Conference now is composed of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Washington, Chicago Cardinals and New York. Some of the teams do not want the champion Baltimore Colts switched from West to East in any expansion plan. This could throw a major road block in the path of expansion plans led by George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears.

Also, an agreeable schedule and method of alloting players to new clubs would be necessary before new teams were admitted.

The vote to consider the four franchise applications was cast along the lines of expansion feeling in the 40-year-old pro league. Ten clubs have indicated a desire to consider expansion now. George Preston Marshall of Washington and Walter Wolfner of the Cardinals are against adding any team.

Marshall remains firm in his belief that the league should remain a 12-club circuit.

"I like things the way they are now," said the volatile Washington owner.

★ ★ ★

However, he could be waging a losing fight unless he gets at least one more team to join the Redskins and Cardinals in the minority opinion. The strategy of the others is to pass a constitutional amendment under which 10 of the 12 votes would be required for expansion. Marshall is hoping the New York Giants will join him.

Wellington and Jack Mara of the Giants say they are undecided on expansion. They want to hear specific plans first.

★ ★ ★

It was learned that Gunsel, who was named acting commissioner last October after the death of Bert Bell, and Marshall Leahy, San Francisco attorney, are leading candidates for commissioner. A source said Gunsel possibly holds a 7-5 edge. It takes nine votes to elect.

An Associated Press poll of the teams showed six clubs firmly committed to Gunsel, two to Leahy's column and one favoring the 50-year-old Gunsel.

Supporters of the 49-year-old Leahy said he would have to agree to move to the Midwest or East to serve.

Leahy has been attorney for the San Francisco 49ers and has occasionally acted as counsel for the league. Leahy is a graduate of University of Santa Clara and has practiced law in San Francisco since 1934.

Gunsel is a former administrative assistant to FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover. He was brought into the league seven years ago by Bell as a watchdog to protect the organization from scandal. He later also became league treasurer.

ARNETT ON THE MOVE — Halfback Jon Arnett of the Los Angeles Rams, playing for the West All-Star team in the Pro Bowl, was the big gainer for the West yesterday. Arnett lugged the ball 11 times for 61 yards, picked up 44 on passes, 38 on punt returns and 68 on kickoff returns. Here he eludes Andy Robustelli of the East team. The West won, 38-21.

Pontiac Women Start Strong in Elks' Meet

Pontiac women turned in good performances in helping get things rolling in the opening weekend of the 3rd Annual Elks' Ladies National Invitational Bowling Tournament at the Lodge 810 alleys.

City keglers are the early pace setters in team, singles and all-events in the handicap meet which continues through Feb. 14.

LaBatts Ale & Pilsener, captained by Press Bowlerama champion Marvel Szot, heads the teams with 2984 followed by the Wauseon, Ohio lodge team at 2905. Third place Daisy Chain of Traverse City hit the best game with 1073.

Heading the singles division is Eileen Wheeler at 659 although five others in the top ten had better actual scores topped by 10th place Gen Bradley at 540. A 258 high tourney game paced a 459 for the leader.

Gladys Deary totaled 1860 in all events. The actual group is led by Muskegon's Hazel Smith at 1502.

Six Pontiac teams are among the first ten in doubles featuring 4th place Marvel Szot and Eleanore Needham at 1315. With a booming 339 handicap, Jean Pulaski and Nancy Tasker of Royal Oak are No. 1 at 1272.

Gen Bradley was also a victim again of a low handicap. She teamed with Marie Reynolds for 1054 easily bettering everyone else but they only rank 6th.

Kotlarek Equals Mark in Ski Meet Triumph

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Olympic contender Gene Kotlarek thrilled a hometown crowd of 7,500 by equaling the Fond du Lac Hill record of 226 feet Sunday in winning the Duluth invitational ski jump meet.

The 19-year-old college sophomore's record-matching effort came on his second jump after he had leaped 222 feet. With 233.5 points he far outdistanced his nearest rival, defending champion Billy Olson of Eau Claire, Wis. Olson's best jump was 203 feet.

Hot Foul Shooting Enables Pistons to Whip Royals

DETROIT (AP) — Pro basketball's critics say the game is little more than a foul-shooting exhibition, with some running and jumping thrown in occasionally as a change of pace.

If that's the case, then the Detroit Pistons won the foul-shooting contest, and thus the basketball game, from the Cincinnati Royals yesterday at Olympia Stadium.

The score was 115-110, with 37 of Detroit's points coming on free throws. The Pistons made 37 of 47 chances from the free throw line. The Royals made 28 of 43 while outscoring the Pistons from the field by four baskets.

The Pistons made seven straight free throws and broke a 106-106 deadlock, then held on for their third straight triumph. The lead had changed hands 20 times in the third period alone, and the Royals led by as much as eight points early in the final period.

Bailey Howell's free throw finally showed Detroit in front, Archie Dees quickly made two more and Howell hit four more in a row to finish with 28 points. Gene Shue had 25 for the Pistons but Jack Twyman of the Royals took scoring honors with 36 points. He hit on 16 of 18 free throws. Shue didn't have a miss in 13 tries and Howell made 13 of 16.

★ ★ ★

In yesterday's other action, Bob Pettit scored 34 points and reached the 10,000-point milestone in his NBA career in leading St. Louis to a 135-119 conquest of Minneapolis. Syracuse downed New York 129-117 behind Larry Costello's 31 points and Bill Sharman also hit for 31 in guiding Boston to a 129-123 victory over Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

Bradley Spoils Cincy's Record, 91-90

Race for Top Rate Jumbled

By The Associated Press

The bulk of the major college basketball teams turn full attention to the classroom for mid-term exams this week, leaving unanswered the question of which is the nation's best.

Bradley's giant-killing Braves and their invincible home court at Peoria, Ill., chopped down Cincinnati's clear-cut claim to No. 1 last Saturday with a sizzling 91-90 defeat of the last major unbeaten.

★ ★ ★

It was, in fact, wipe-out week among the "unbeatables," with the three other perfect record clubs of a week ago also falling. First it was Texas A&M, beaten by Southern Methodist Tuesday night. Then LaSalle, defeated by Syracuse on Wednesday, before Villanova bowed by West Virginia 89-81, and top-ranked Cincinnati fell Saturday night.

Now the race for the top national rankings is thoroughly jumbled, with a half-dozen or more teams, presenting impressive credentials.

Besides Cincinnati, which holds an 86-71 earlier victory over Bradley, there's defending NCAA champion California (14-1), West Virginia (15-1), Bradley (12-1) and Georgia Tech (13-1) in the front line.

Behind them Ohio State (11-2), the twin Skyline powers of Utah State (13-2) and Utah (13-2), Texas A&M (11-1), Villanova (10-1), and Miami (Fla.), holder of a 15-1 record and an 11-game win streak that's now best among the major schools.

It's such a scramble that it'll be almost like starting all over again when the mid-term exams are over and concentrated play resumes again in the drive toward the wind-up of the conference races, conference tournaments and two major post-season tests—the NCAA and the NIT.

Of the top 20 teams in last week's Associated Press poll, only 12 have games this week and only two of those 12 play more than once.

Bradley, which used the clutch play of Chet Walker and Mike Owens to overcome a 46-point splurge by Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, has a major test against improving Notre Dame (11-3) at Chicago Stadium on Friday. Cincinnati plays at Duquesne on Saturday in its only game of the week while both second-ranked California and West Virginia are idle.

★ ★ ★

Fifth ranked Ohio State is at Purdue Saturday, seventh ranked Utah at Brigham Young Friday, and 12th-ranked Utah State at Montana Saturday. Georgia Tech, No. 6, is the only top ten club to double up — facing Auburn in a non-Southeastern Conference game Tuesday and Tennessee in a game that counts in the SEC on Saturday.

Miami, (Fla), rated 15th nationally last week, tries to push its win streak to 12 against Houston Saturday.

Some of tonight's top pairings sent 14th-ranked Illinois (10-2) against Big 10 foe Minnesota, 13th-ranked Wake Forest (3-1) against Tennessee, and Kansas State, the Big Eight Conference leader, against Iowa State.

Barber Keeps Tourney Lead

Takes Three - Stroke Advantage in Finals of Yorba Linda

YORBA LINDA, Calif. (AP)—The inaugural $10,000 Yorba Linda Open reached the showdown stage today with Jerry Barber of Los Angeles still on top.

The 43-year-old Californian, loser of the 1959 National PGA title, went into the final 18 holes of play with rounds of 67-70-69.

His 54-hole total of 206 was three strokes in front of Harry Weetman of England, a member of five British Ryder Cup teams.

The setting was the plush Yorba Linda Country Club and its 7,000-yard, par 36-36—72 course that features rolling country and immense putting greens.

Weetman's rounds were 68-71-70-200.

Gophers Win 'Robin'

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota defeated Michigan 59-53 and Western Illinois 78-34 to win a round robin gymnastics meet Saturday.

Rochester Woman 3rd in State Singles

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Theda Tutt of Lexington rolled a 278 game this weekend high for the fifth weekend of the Women's State Bowling Tournament. The 278 was the best single game score posted thus far in the tournament but her three game total was 547, well short of the leaders.

★ ★ ★

Lorraine Dulza of Rochester took over third place in singles with 647 yesterday. She trails Lorraine Denkay of Detroit with 655 and Jackie Peel of Detroit with 654.

★ ★ ★

In the all-events, Marion Stader of Grand Rapids took over second place with 1863 and Lorraine Denkay held fifth place with 1839.

There were no changes in team standings. The tournament has eight more weeks to go.

Central, Northern Mat Teams Clash Tuesday

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern go at it again tomorrow night on the PNH mats with the varsity boys starting at 7:30. The Chiefs won out in a close battle at home in December.

Detroit Set for Irish

Spartans, 'M' Fives Lose

By United Press International

It was a bleak weekend for Michigan's two Big Ten basketball representatives.

Illinois knocked off Michigan State, 96-88, in an afternoon affair at Champaign, and Minnesota downed Michigan, 74-58 Saturday night at Ann Arbor.

MSU is now tied for fifth in the conference at 2-2, while Michigan has lost three straight league tilts.

Horace Walker, flashy Michigan State forward, was top scorer at Champaign, however, with 30 points. He is second leading point-maker in the Big Ten with a 28-points-a-game average.

★ ★ ★

John Tidwell, showing signs of coming out of the scoring slump that has bothered him all season, had 23 points at Ann Arbor to be high for both teams. Tidwell has had trouble living up to the big reputation he built as a sophomore.

Center Ron Johnson scored 19 points to lead the Gophers to the win over Michigan.

Michigan State hosts Iowa next Saturday but Michigan will take the whole week off for exams.

The University of Detroit was well below par but still managed an easy 79-56 win over Western Ontario. Dave De Busschere poured in 28 points and grabbed 24 rebounds for the Titans.

Detroit will be looking for revenge for an earlier licking when Notre Dame comes to the Motor City tomorrow.

Hope had things pretty much its own way and seemed headed for a repeat as Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association champion in an impressive 110-68 win over Albion.

Warren Vander Hill hit for 31 points and Ray Ritsema scored 30 in the second straight 100-point-plus effort and sixth league win for the Dutchmen.

Albion is 4-3 in the MIAA.

Adrian had an early lead, but then had to come from behind to whip Hillsdale, 84-79.

Olivet is still looking for its first win of the season after Kalamazoo College took a 72-42 MIAA win.

Just Lucky Golfer, Says Mickey Wright

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP) — Long-hitting Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif., attributes her third straight women's Sea Island Open golf championship to just luck.

"I felt like a dog beating Kathy Cornelius after that great round she shot. I'm just a lucky golfer," Miss Wright said yesterday.

"Lucky, my eye," said Mrs. Cornelius of Lakeland, Fla. "I applied all the pressure I could and you never ever looked like you were going to fold. You're the champion and you deserve it."

The exchange took place after the blonde Miss Wright fired a two-under-par 70, best round of the 54-hole tournament, to beat Mrs. Cornelius by two strokes.

All-Star Pin Points

FIRST STEP — Lee Jouglard's ball is approaching the backswing after downswing.

THE THREE-STEP DELIVERY
By LEE JOUGLARD

I violate one of the basic beliefs in bowling which is, "Don't bow! with only three steps unless you're built like a professional football tackle."

★ ★ ★

But although I'm small, a three-stepper still is best for me.

The four and five-step deliveries foul up my timing. Good timing means that your left or sliding foot arrives at the foul line at the same split-second that your right hand gets there with the ball.

Using my natural three-step approach, I'm able to get the ball into the pendulum arrswing motion quicker because I eliminate the pushaway.

When I have taken the first step with the left foot, the ball has already completed its downward swing and is approaching the backswing area. Although many have to force the ball down and back, I just let the natural momentum created by the weight of the ball carry it up into the backswing.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Davies Takes Net Title

WINTER PARK, Fla. (AP)—Top-seeded Mike Davies of England won the men's singles title Sunday in the Florida State Tennis Tournament with a 6-2, 6-0, 6-4 victory over Don Candy of Australia.

LEADS MAPLES — Scoring ace Merv Gallup leads Birmingham Seaholm into another important Eastern Michigan League game tomorrow. The loop-leading Maples play host to Ferndale. Gallup has 84 points in five games.

Huskies Play Keego Again, Parkers Invade Waterford

Pontiac Northern invades Keego Harbor for a rematch with West Bloomfield and highly-rated Highland Park visits Waterford to highlight Tuesday night's light but attractive high school basketball schedule in the Oakland County area.

Improving Northern, fresh from a 61-48 rout of Farmington last Friday that vaulted the Huskies to the top of the Inter-Lakes Conference standings, seeks to avenge an earlier 55-53 loss to the Lakers on the PNH court.

Highland Park, coached by former Berkley mentor Eldon Rouse, will be a top-heavy favorite to hand the Skippers their 3rd straight setback. The strong Parkers were ranked 5th in last week's Associated Press Class A prep poll.

★ ★ ★

Two Eastern Michigan League games, a full Southern Thumb slate and a tilt in the Suburban Catholic loop add further interest to the Tuesday card.

Birmingham Seaholm, the surprising leader in the early stages of the EML race with a 3-0 record, collides with Ferndale, the pre-season title favorite, on the Birmingham floor.

After a slow, sputtery start, the Dales drubbed Hazel Park last Friday for their 1st loop victory and they may be making their long-awaited move toward the league lead.

★ ★ ★

Hazel Park plays host to Port Huron in the other Eastern Michigan contest.

Orchard Lake St. Mary (5-0) and Highland Park St. Benedict (4-0) meet head-on at Orchard Lake in a game that could very well decide the outcome of the parochial race. The Eaglets are defending champions.

Two other games on tomorrow night's schedule which should be of great local interest are non-conference battles between Troy and Rochester at Troy and a return duel between Ortonville and Clarkston at Ortonville.

Troy will be trying to bounce back from Friday's loss to Lake Orion at the expense of a Rochester quintet showing only one victory in six starts.

Unbeaten Ortonville, Michigan's 3rd-rated Class C team in last week's AP poll, will be trying for a repeat triumph over Clarkston. The Wolves may be tougher this time around following Friday's upset overtime conquest of Brighton, the state's 8th-ranked Class B club.

Other games tomorrow include Shrine at River Rouge Lourdes, Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows at Detroit Benedictine, Lamphere at Madison, Thurston at Oak Park, Inkster Cherry Hill at Roseville and Bay City Handy at Saginaw High.

Detroit Team Leads State Elks Tourney

The handicap tournament runs eight weekends and a record 540 teams from all parts of the state are battling for prizes totaling $15,672.

TEAM

DOUBLES

Bill Jabsen and Lou Gray, Kalamazoo, 1286; Charles and John Kobos, Detroit, 1275; Les Stebbins and Leo Lemke, Imlay, 1259; Barney Oppel and Lee Urban, Detroit, 1256; Pete Obermiller and Russ Perona, Kalamazoo, 1244.

SINGLES

Jim Lang, Kalamazoo, 702; Mitch Dosh, Detroit, 702; Norm White, Detroit, 684; Les Meredith, Kalamazoo, 683; Carl Anderson, Detroit, 681.

Black Hawk in Crash

CHICAGO (UPI)—The wife of Chicago Blackhawk hockey player Edward Litzenberger was killed and Litzenberger seriously injured early today when their car crashed into an overpass abutment.

Litzenberger, 28, a Blackhawk wingman, was undergoing X-rays at Glenview Hospital for head and internal injuries. The extent of the injuries had not been determined.

Gordie's 2 Goals, 1 Assist Put Him Ahead of Rocket

He Supplies Clincher as Detroiters Defeat Maple Leafs, 4-3

DETROIT (AP)—Gordie Howe, a youngster at 31, has finally passed Maurice (The Rocket) Richard as hockey's all-time scorer.

And if it weren't for Howe's selfless attitude on the ice, he'd have done it long ago, maintains general manager Jack Adams.

The Detroit Red Wing ace picked up three points last night as the Wings edged Toronto, 4-3. Howe scored two goals and one assist. His goals were his 29th and 21st of the season, making it 11 straight seasons the big fellow has reached the coveted 20-goal mark.

In regular season play over 14 seasons, Howe has scored 439 goals and 511 assists for a career total of 950 points. Montreal's Richard has 531 goals, 415 assists and 946 points. He's 38, and in his 18th campaign.

Adams can rattle off more flowery adjectives about Howe in a 10-minute span than most people use in a lifetime.

"I'm not taking a thing away from Rocket," said Adams after Howe's weekend production of five points, "but you can't compare the two players."

"Richard is a truly great goal-scorer, Howe is truly great in everything he does on the ice. He's our best defensive player, our best penalty-killer, our best play-maker and our best scorer.

Howe got the winning goal at 18:11 of the final period last night, and it boosted the Wings into second place a point ahead of the Maple Leafs. It came on a rebound, with Howe camped at the side of the Toronto cage.

It climaxed a great struggle by the Red Wings, who fell behind 3-0 early in the contest on goals by Dick Duff and Bob Pulford.

Howe opened Detroit's scoring at 0:39 of the second period and within the next five minutes the two teams pumped three more goals into the nets. Billy Harris followed for the Leafs with an easy chance, going in alone from the blue line.

John McKenzie got a rebound just 3 seconds later and Alex Delvecchio tied it for the Wings on a power play. Howe set up the play.

A crowd of 14,357 occupied every available seat and jammed the aisles as the Wings completed a weekend sweep and beat the Leafs for the first time in four starts. The Wings started the victorious weekend Saturday with a 3-1 triumph over Chicago as Howe scored a goal and added an assist.

An interesting spectator last night was heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson, who sat directly behind the Detroit bench and had a brief chat with Howe between periods.

In last night's other National Hockey League games, first place Montreal kept rolling with a 3-1 victory over Boston and Chicago downed New York 3-1.

Eaglets, Ravens in Title Showdown, Tuesday

Benedicts Shade Rams in Hot Battle

By H. GUY MOATS

Intense Art Massucci, coach of the perennial title-chasing St. Benedict basketball club of the Suburban Catholic League, today probably is mulling over the implications of the old saying, "Out of the frying pan into the fire."

★ ★ ★

On Saturday night the Ravens escaped a hot-on-their-heels St. Frederick squad with a five-point victory, 49-44. And the visiting Bens had to get their 6th win in the last 80 seconds after Gene Wright's hustling quintet roared back from a mid-third-period 14-point deficit to square the count at 44-44. Bens return Tuesday to face their biggest test at OLSM. St. Rita is at St. Clement tonight for a game postponed from last week.

The Ravens were a bit lucky at that, for the Rams saw at least five "almost in" shots miss in those hectic final seconds at Pontiac Northern High gymnasium.

Visitors got an early taste of the promised heated setto, when the Rams moved to a 15-10 edge in the 2nd period. But the Highland Parkers rallied on buckets by Eddie Everhardt and Art Masucci to gain a one-point, 21-20, edge at halftime. Ravens pushed their margin to 39-25 before Mike Reed, who didn't play at all in the 1st period, and only part of the 2nd, led the explosion of points that tied the count in the finale.

Craig Thomson, Reed and Phil Bieri paced the rally. Bieri's bucket and a free throw squaring the score. Everhardt, game's top point-maker with 20, broke the tie with a corney shot. Massucci got a 2-pointer and added a gift toss 14 seconds from the end for the final scoring. Young Art had 12 points.

It is almost traditional that Rams upset the Ravens. They did it twice last winter for the Ravens' only defeats. It looked for most of Saturday's game like it was going to happen again.

St. Frederick JVs stretched their unbroken win skein to seven, 42-27, over Raven juniors.

For Tuesday's battle between the coleaders, Ravens will start about the same five that opened against the Rams: Everhardt, Bob Kelly, guards; Dick McFaul, center, and Massucci and Longo, forwards.

Rev. John Rakoczy, mentor for the Orchard Lake Eaglets, will send in his "workhorses" Glenn Hare and Don Duszynski, guards; Tom Tomaszewski, pivot; Stan Krogulecki and Milt Wojtowicz, guards.

A preliminary at 7 p.m. will precede the varsity tilt at 8:15.

Foytack to Start Training Early

DETROIT (UPI)—Paul Foytack, ace righthander on the Detroit Tigers pitching staff, heads a list of 55 professional baseball players who are scheduled to report to the early training camp at Lakeland, Fla., Feb. 22 - March 6.

Foytack asked and was given permission to attend the breaking-in camp before regular training starts.

Tiger manager Jimmie Dykes, his three coaches and five scouts and minor league managers from the Detroit system will supervise activity at the camp, which is under the direction of Tiger Vice President James A. Campbell.

Other members of the Detroit player roster who will be at the camp are:

Lakers Forced Down

Pontiac Skaters Win

The second test in the annual Rolladium Senior dance contest was skated Sunday night with entries from Detroit, Flint and Pontiac. Winners were Cecilia Dartmont and Jim Bell of Pontiac.

Falcons Belted Again by Clarenceville, 56-40

Wayne-Oakland power Clarenceville handed Farmington its second beating in as many nights Saturday winning 56-40 sparked by Doug Hanaford's 24. Harvey Chapman canned 16 in defeat. Clarenceville pulled away from a 26-19 halftime edge to lead by 22 at the 3rd quarter.

Kendall Nets 8 Goals to Pace 16-0 Victory in Junior Hockey

In a game marred by seven penalties, Standard Forge trounced the Thunderbirds, 10-1, with Dick Williams scoring three goals and Doug Bergman two.

Ken McCruss and Tom Geebeck each performed the "hat trick" to feature the Mt. View Rangers' 9-2 rout of PNH No. 2, which eliminated PNH from the double elimination tournament for boys 16 to 18 years of age.

In the 13-to-15 division, the Argonauts defeated the Pontiac Rangers, 5-4, in a see-saw contest which saw the score tied four times. Mike Cady scored the tying and winning goals for the Argonauts in the 3rd period. Doug Shefield tallied twice for the losers.

Tom Petrie counted six goals, Jerry Darling five, Don McManus four and Neal Norgrove and Dave Parker three apiece as the Mt. View Rangers crushed J&M Hardware, 23-0, in the other 13-to-15 game. Goalie "Chipper" Caruso posted the shutout.

Cranes Lose Thriller in Overtime, 56 to 55

Cranbrook cagers Saturday night came close to winning their season's first contest when they were edged by one point in a hot, overtime battle with Kennedy Collegiate of Windsor, 56-55.

★ ★ ★

'Cap' Hadley's basket erased a Crane edge seconds from the end of the overtime period. Count at regulation time was 50-50. Hadley hit 28 to top scorers. Cranes' Jim Williams had 18, John Hayden 15, Dave Kessel 9, Seeley 8, Blanchard 4 and one for Early.

★ ★ ★

Tilt was close all the way, with Cranes holding a temporary lead in the 2nd period, but losing it, 26-25, at halftime. Defeat was Cranbrook's 6th in a row.

Shotgun Talks Louder Than Money in Howell

★ ★ ★

The two, each carrying shotguns, walked into the tavern, near Fenton, about 12:20 a.m. and told Mrs. Eleanor Shaw, the operator, to hand over the money. Thinking she recogized one, Mrs. Shaw declined until one fired a blast into a mirror.

The pair walked out with $50.

Dick Powell's Son Plucked From Cliff Ledge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Boy, I sure was scared," said Ricky Powell, 9, son of Dick Powell and June Allyson.

Two police officers climbed to the ledge to comfort the boy while firemen raised a ladder.

★ ★ ★

Waterford Sets Road Hearing

Board Meeting Tonight Also May Deal With Rezoning, Ordinances

A public hearing on blacktopping Meigs street, Drayton Plains, will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at tonight's regular Waterford Township Board meeting.

The two-block long project involving 30 assessments has been estimated to cost property owners some $9,400. If there are no objections, a special assessment district will be created, and bids for this project will be combined with the $7,250 LaSalle street blacktopping project.

In other business, Board members are expected to take action on the rezoning from residential to commercial of nine lots at the corner of Tilden and LaSalle streets. The property is owned by the Italian-American Club which wants to expand its facilities.

The Board will discuss the possibility of repealing five township ordinances, which conflict with other ordinances or state laws, according to clerk James Seeterlin.

★ ★ ★

They involve police department operation, sanitary systems, abandonment of iceboxes and conduct of disorderly persons.

★ ★ ★

Another discussion regarding chlorination and phosphate treatment for wells of Lake Oakland Heights subdivision has also been slated for tonight's meeting.

Pie Is Dividend

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—Burglars who took $150 in jewelry from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Quackenbush allowed themselves a little added treat. They also stole a cherry pie Mrs. Quackenbush had left to cool.

Ike Requests Congress Kill Phone Tax Repeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to do an about face and cancel the repeal of the tax on local telephone service scheduled to take effect July 1.

He also asked in his new budget that Congress reverse itself on a 50 per cent cut in the tax on transportation fares set for the same date.

Congress voted the changes last year. It was estimated the repeal of the telephone tax would cost the government 420 million dollars a year and the halving of the transportation tax another 125 millions.

If Congress refuses to comply with Eisenhower's request — and it may not—the budget's projected surplus of $4,200,000,000 would shrink by 585 millions.

Denies Steel Pledge to Keep Prices Down

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Roger M. Blough, chairman of the United States Steel Corp., said today the steel industry has made no commitment to the government to keep steel prices down and will be guided by industry competition and other factors.

In a speech before the National Canners Assn. convention, Blough denied "critical statements having political overtones" to the effect that government officials in recommending the terms of the steel settlement had been given some sort of commitment that the steel companies would not raise their prices until after the election.

"I would like to make it clear that no such commitment was asked and none was given," he said.

Hare's Assistant Will Address Pontiac CFM

Billie S. Farnum, assistant to Secy. of State James M. Hare, will talk to members of the Pontiac chapter of Citizens for Michigan Friday on how Michigan government can be more economical and efficient.

★ ★ ★

The meeting, the third for the new group seeking government reform by citizens, is scheduled for 8 p. m. in room 216 of Pontiac Central High School.

"This will offer an excellent opportunity for those Pontiac voters interested in state government to learn more about it," said Ross S. Manchester of 70 Edison St.

Manchester, president of the group, said Farnum will speak on economy and efficiency in state government and the various services offered.

There will be a question and answer period following Farnum's talk, Manchester said.

100-Year-Old Woman Dies in Ferndale

Service for Mrs. John (Etta) Millard, 100-year-old organist, of 352 W. Cambourne Rd., Ferndale, will be held tomorrow.

She died yesterday at her home.

"She was spry and interested in everything right up to the last couple of months," said her daughter, Mrs. John Bulman, with whom she made her home.

Born in Cornwell, Ont., Mrs. Millard was married at Crystal Lake, Ill., to the late Rev. John W. Millard, a Baptist minister. He died in 1942.

Mrs. Bulman said her mother was an avid reader and kept up an active correspondence with a number of persons.

Service will be at 2 p.m. in the Virgo E. Kinsey Funeral Home, Royal Oak.

Burial will follow in Roseland Park Cemetery, Berkley.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Millard is survived by a son, D. H. Millard of La Jolla, Calif., six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Trouble Compounds

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Miffed when he found a parking ticket on his car, Lawrence Ricks, 20, threw it in the street. A patrolman saw him and Ricks had to pay $7 court costs for littering in addition to his $5 illegal parking fine.

Develop Midget Turbo-Jet Engine

Walled Lake Research Firm Says Device Could Power Small Aircraft

WALLED LAKE — A midget-sized turbo-jet engine which could be used by light aircraft or helicopters has been developed by the Williams Research Corp. here, it was announced today by the firm.

★ ★ ★

President of the company, Sam Williams, said the 23-pound engine approaches the thrust-per-pound ratings of larger turbo-jet engines used on commercial transports.

"One of these small engines mounted on each tip of the rotor blade would provide sufficient thrust to operate a four-seat helicopter," Williams said.

In November, the firm at 2280 W. Maple Rd., announced the development of a compact gas turbine engine about the size of a breadbox.

★ ★ ★

"It will be several years before the gas turbine goes into production," Williams said. "However, we do expect to produce several of the engines to be used for experimental purposes this year."

Paul Revere had 16 children. The famed patriot was married twice and had eight children by each wife.

Southfield Crash Sends Detroit Man to Hospital

Witnesses told Southfield police that Peter Dominick, 54, was head-ing south at about 45 m.p.h. when his car suddenly darted across the eastbound lane into a tree.

He suffered fractures of both legs and lacerations of the head and face. He was unable to make a statement.

U.S. Treaty to Cap Japan's Return

TOKYO (UPI) — Japan signs a new-era treaty with the United States Tuesday which once again will give this nation a powerful voice in the grand military strategy in Asia.

* * *

Fourteen years and 150 days after she finally gave in to her hopeless agony and surrendered to end World War II, Japan and the United States will become allies.

The signing of the new security pact will take place against a roiling din of opposition by left-wing Socialists, Communists and their fellow travelers, but the sound and fury is all out of proportion to the feelings of the average Japanese which have backed the pro-western government of Premier Nobusuke Kishi by two-thirds of their votes in all elections since he came to power.

Japan, at last, will be equal.

In winning its status of equality, Japan is like a poor man who worked hard enough and saved diligently enough to enter the poker game with the big boys.

* * *

Sure, Japan has had help. But it couldn't have become one of the four major industrial complexes of the world without the hard work and diligence of its workmen and its artisans.

Fourteen years ago Japan was so shell-shocked and stunned it not only didn't know where to move; it didn't know how. The country was in ruins. Tokyo, its once magnificent capital, was 80 per cent destroyed. Transport of all kinds just wasn't there. The people were so hungry, they had eaten most of the cats and dogs and some were starting on rats.

Today, this nation of 93,000,000 crammed onto four main islands equalling the size of the State of Montana—only one-sixth of it good for growing food—produced 33 billion dollars worth of goods and services in the last fiscal year.

But more than the figures, it was the people. The people who once walked the streets willy-nilly in ragged old military uniforms now were well dressed and they walked as if they were going some place.

And indeed they were.

* * *

Japan had become the sixth largest steel producer in the world —from 557,000 tons in 1946 to 13 million tons last year. This, despite the fact that 60-70 per cent of its pig iron, 40-45 per cent of its coking coal, 20-30 per cent of its iron scrap must be imported from abroad.

LARGEST SHIPBUILDER

It has become the world's biggest shipbuilder—from 650,000 tons to over three million tons today built in some two-score major shipyards.

Today, the Japanese annual wage is $275 per capita. It's small by American standards of more than $2,800, but it's rich by Asian standards. It's enough to give most urban households a washing machine, an electric refrigerator and a television set.

Japan today is one of the great television countries of the world. With 30 stations and more than four million registered television sets, it ranks right behind the United States and Britain.

Tokyo has twice as many movie theaters, too, as New York.

And the people are well fed—by Asian standards at least.

One of the miracles of the post-war age—and an ironical defeat for the Communists—has been the increase in the production of rice, the staple of the Japanese diet.

* * *

When land reform was proposed right after the war, many American agricultural experts thought that piece-mealing the land into small plots and individual owners would wreck what efficiency there was. The Communists yelled for the reform which was put into effect.

Today, the average Japanese farmer, tilling 2.3 acres, has swelled a record rice crop of 12.5 million metric tons "last year—a record. Japan, which produced a pitiful 5.8 million metric tons in 1945, now grows as much rice as it needs.

* * *

And the Japanese are better housed. Tokyo and Hiroshima and Nagasaki—the latter two the only atomic-bombed cities in the world —have been rebuilt. You'd have to look far to find any war damage.

Never perhaps, to paraphase a great man, have so many done so much with so little in so short a time. Japan has won its equality through hard work, damned hard work.

Charges Billy Daniels Father of Unborn Child

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A red headed model wants a court to declare night club singer Billy Daniels the father of her expected child.

* * *

Gail Channing, 22, said in a suit filed Friday that she and the 44-year-old Negro entertainer engaged in intimacies between Dec. 11 and 31, 1959. She said she expects a baby next August or September.

* * *

U.N. Fund Will Help

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The U.N. Children's Fund said it has allotted $42,000 in emergency aid for Moroccan children striken by a paralysis-inducing poison. The money will be used to buy equipment needed in two emergency hospitals set up at Meknes and Kenitra.

Traffic Club Hears 'Going Like 60' Tonight

Howard V. Heidenbrand will speak at the monthly meeting of the Pontiac Traffic Club at 6:30 p.m. today at the Waldron Hotel.

His topic will be "Going Like 60."

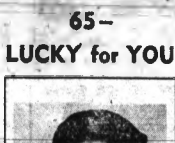
LUCKY for YOU



Lots of people are figuring that age 65 will be lucky for them. No more regular duties, time to relax, travel and do a hundred other things. And with enough money to do them. How? First they have Social Security. Second, they have an easy, sensible plan of saving over the years. This way they need not forfeit their Social Security after 65 by having to work. Life of Virginia has a modern plan to make 65 lucky for you. The first is less than you would guess. Let me tell you about it.

Corn Futures Stable; Soybean Prices Up

CHICAGO (AP)—Corn and soybean futures attracted scattered support today but other grains were steady to easier during the first several minutes of dealings on the Board of Trade.

Soybeans moved up major fractions on short covering and a light commercial demand. The snow and colder weather over much of the Midwest were credited with firmness in corn.

Over the weekend India bought 918,400 bushels of wheat for shipment next month and the Department of Agriculture accepted subsidy bids of 1 to 6 cents a bushel on 261,000 bushels of corn for export by the end of June. It was the largest single day's volume cleared through the subsidy program in several weeks.

Broadway Jog Caused by Barkeeper's Tree

NEW YORK (UPI)—It was a cherry tree that put the jog in world famed Broadway.

Researchers of the Davey Tree Expert Co., Kent, Ohio, say that city officials curved the street around the tree when its tavern keeper owner objected to cutting it down.

Officials believed the city would never extend that far north anyway. The tree stood at 10th street.

Heart Attack Takes Ex-Purple Gangster

DETROIT (AP) — Sam Fleisher, onetime Purple gangster, is dead at Miami, Fla., after a heart attack. He was 49.

Fleisher went to Florida after completing a prison term for conspiracy to murder State Sen. Warren G. Hooper, graft grand jury witness. Hooper's 1945 slaying was never solved but a conspiracy case was brought against Fleisher and others.

The world's scheduled airlines carried an estimated 95 million passengers during 1959 compared with 87 million in 1958 and an anticipated 100 million in 1960, according to the International Air Transport Association.

Stock Market Mills Listlessly

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed away listlessly in moderate trading early this afternoon.

A few specialty-situated issues ran counter to the trend, some posting gains of 2 or 3 points.

The decline among key industrials and rails was on a broad front, the market seeming to lack incentive for buying. At the start prices were mixed but the number of losses increased gradually.

Tight money and comment that a consistent policy of hint subtlety ends business boosts remained a preoccupation in Wall street. Hesitation also was linked to the awaiting of President Eisenhower's budget message.

The top steel shares all took fractional losses. Motors also were down fractionally except for Ford which fell more than a point. Leading rails declined slightly — the most part although New York Central was down a full point, Santa Fe was firm and Pennsylvania Railroad managed a small gain.

Oils were a mixed lot. Some issues taken by Goodrich, American Cyanamid and General Electric. DuPont was off around 3.

United Carbon spurted about 3 points following its selection as a "stock for action" by Standard & Poor's. American Telephone, selected by the same service as stock of the month, was firm. Interlake Iron, recommended by another advisor, advanced more than ½.

Brunswick-Balke, up about 2, and American Machine & Foundry, ahead more than that, responded to favorable publicity about prospects for the bowling industry.

Texas instruments dropped about 4 points while Motorola picked up more than a point. General Tire, influenced by stock split rumors, rose more than a point in early trades but cut the gain to a fraction.

Union Official Supports Scott

East Lansing Leader Raps Ingham County Prosecutor on Suit

Robert P. Scott of Waterford Township today was supported by a Lansing official of the State Barbers Assn. in his fight against a suit filed against him in Ingham County Circuit Court last week.

The suit charges Scott, 53, with using the State Board of Examiners for Barbers "as a tool to further his personal interests" in the association.

It was filed by Ingham County Prosecutor Jack Warren in behalf of a Holt barber, Mark Kinnison.

Siding with Scott against Warren today was Leroy B. Sprague of East Lansing, coordinator of committees for Lansing Local 60, State Barbers Assn.

ON OPPOSITE SIDE

"There are far more people getting haircuts than there are barbers cutting hair, and Jack Warren should be protecting these customers," said Sprague.

"As it stands now, he is on the opposite side of the fence from those he should be protecting," Sprague said.

The state board suspended Kinnison's license Jan. 4 after hearing a complaint that unsanitary conditions existed in his shop.

Scott is a member of the three man board. Warren charged that Scott voted against Kinnison because the latter refused to join the association.

Scott denied the charge saying it was a unanimous vote and that he (Scott) is not a member of the association.

Scott is a member of the International Barbers Union and onetime vice president of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614.

Love Triangle Hinted in Death

LSU Graduate School Dean Held in Slaying of Female Biologist

Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot said the state thought it had a plausible motive why the 39-year-old unwed biology professor was hacked to death on a lonely country road.

★ ★ ★

"You have one professor and another professor and he is married," Favrot said in an interview. "There is bound to be a triangle."

The other professor is Dr. George H. Mickey, 49, suspended dean of the Louisiana State University Graduate School. Dr. Mickey, married and the father of two children, has been charged with the slaying of Dr. McMillan, his friend for several years, who taught at LSU's New Orleans branch.

Defense lawyer Robert Kleinpeter said there was no possibility of a love affair between the two. "It was a relationship between two scientists," he said. "Favrot is talking through his hat."

A few hours before Dr. McMillan died of 13 blows on the head, she drove into a service station with a man to buy gas, according to James S. Versen, manager of a station near the front gate of the LSU campus.

Versen is the last person known to have seen her alive. He said she and a man drove into his station between 5:45 and 8 p.m. Jan. 9. Her death was placed at 12:45 the next morning.

The day after Mickey's arrest, Favrot said the dean was arrested when the state found his alibi for the night of Jan. 9 was without foundation.

Also, Favrot said, "spots of fresh human blood of the same type as that of the deceased" were found on Mickey's car.

MARILYN'S NEW PAL — What a surprise! Marilyn Monroe gave a party yesterday (not unusual). She was on time (quite unusual)! The well-attended affair was her way of introducing new costar Yves Montand. Back Insurance, Dentists Urged

Own Plan Advocated; Labor or Management Control Is Assailed

EAST LANSING (AP)— Michigan dentists were urged today to support a campaign to launch a dental insurance program sponsored by their own profession.

At the same time, Dr. Kenneth J. Ryan of Flint assailed labor or management-operated insurance programs as "a distinct invasion of our right to control dental health, a right given to us by Michigan law."

"Some of these programs have been instituted without consultation with the dental profession," Ryan told some 150 dentists attending the Michigan State Dental Assn's. first annual conference on dental health at Michigan State University.

"We have failed in leadership in this area and it is now time for the dentists of Michigan to put forth a plan through their association," he said.

Thomas C. Patton, director of professional relations for the Blue Shield Medical Care Plan, advised the conference to model its insurance program after Blue Shield principles.

It should guarantee service benefits at a predictable costs, he said, and subscriptions rates should be equal for all subscribers having the same coverage.

New Members of Farm Bureau Will Be Honored

GOODISON — Members who joined the East Orion Farm Bureau during the yearly drive just completed will be honored at a special meeting in the Oakland Township Hall Thursday evening.

A cooperative supper will be served at 7 p.m., after which the business meeting will take place. Special activities are planned for the recreation period to follow.

On the committee in charge of the meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Storm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Voll.

Tell Filing Deadline for Rochester Council

ROCHESTER — The deadline for filing nominating petitions for the four posts open on the Rochester Village Council this spring is noon Saturday.

★ ★ ★

According to Village Clerk Maxine Ross, more than eight petitions are needed to hold a primary election in the village Feb. 15.

★ ★ ★

Chicago Police Face Grand Jury

Charged With Helping to Burglarize Stores, Scandal Mushrooms

CHICAGO (UPI)—The arrest of eight policemen accused of collaborating with a burglar threatened today to mushroom into one of the biggest scandals ever to hit the Chicago police force.

The eight were to appear before a county grand jury today on charges of helping the burglar steal abot $100,000 worth of goods from North Side stores.

Top police officials, meanwhile, investigated records and complaint books of a North Side police station where most of the policemen were assigned during the two years the alleged burglary gang operated.

At least three other policemen were believed under investigation. Mayor Richard J. Daley, who throughout his terms of office has said he wanted to rid Chicago of its reputation for "gangsterism," returned from a Florida vacation yesterday and ordered a full report on the matter.

SURPRIZE RAIDS ON POLICE

The eight policemen were arrested Friday by fellow officers in surprise raids at their homes. Each was suspended from the force, subpenaed for the grand jury hearing and released in $3,000 bond on burglary charges.

Four truckloads of loot, identified as that stolen from several stores, was carted away from seven of the policemen's homes.

Richard Morrison, 23, a confessed burglar who tipped police off to the operation, charged that the policemen acted as lookouts while he looted stores for goods they had ordered.

Cook County (Chicago) State's Attorney Benjamin S. Adamowski charged that Chicago police have consorted with criminals for years and demanded that all policemen take lie detector tests.

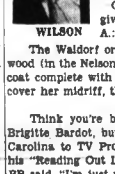
In other developments, four admitted thieves were arrested Saturday and charged as accomplices to Morrison.

Winter Practice Begins for Hot Stove League

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Hot Stove Baseball League met the other morning, and while Pitcher Whitey Ford and Catcher Yogi Berra were gesticulating, Toots Shor barked at Ford:

"Take your hand off my arm! Ford replied: "You have no arm. You're all body."



WILSON

Then Yogi challenged Toots to name five ways a player can get on first base without making a hit. Toots named four (base-on-balls, hits bataman, interference, and dropped-third strike) — and then stopped to deliberate. "Becoming a pinch base-runner," exclaimed Yogi happily, while Toots cried: "Foul!"

One they didn't ask was: How can a pitcher give six hits without a man getting on base? A.: Playing the Bloomer Girls.

'Arrowsmith' Not Full, but Still Skillful Work

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—The unforgettable Sinclair Lewis novel, "Arrowsmith," was translated into a moving, skillful TV play last night.

The CBS-TV Du Pont Show of the Month, adapted by Phil Reisman Jr., couldn't touch upon all of the turns in Lewis' story about the very human, dedicated medical scientist, Dr. Martin Arrowsmith.

(The back-of-the-hand that Lewis gave to various traits in our society were crowded out of the teleplay, as were those encounters with "men of measured merriment"—Lewis forerunners of modern-day hucksters.)

Still, I found it a satisfying production. It moved quickly under Director Alex Segal's control, showed discretion, feeling and a high degree of artfulness as it portrayed highlights from the book.

I can even forgive the curious ending, which managed to be faithful to the spirit of the book even while being unfaithful to the story.

I was happy with Farley Granger's performance as Arrowsmith, Oscar Homolka as Sondelius and Dina Rakey as Leora.

Viewers of "One Loud, Clear Voice" were reunited with the cant of political conventions last night, about six months before the caucus rooms start filling with smoke.

The NBC-TV Sunday Showcase drama by Roger O. Hirson broke the news that political reformers also make their deals with political bosses as they get into the fight.

Said the political boss, played by Joseph Sweeney, "Nobody gets anywhere in politics unless he pays for it, somewhere, somehow."

This axiom, which seems too true at times, was served up amid unrealistic attitudes and too many stylized, stereotyped situations and characterizations.

DIALING AND FILING: "Call Me Back," Tony Webster's drama about the agonies of a life-battered alcoholic, starred Art Carney, acting solo, on NBC-TV Saturday.

Occasionally, Carney caught moments of intense tragedy, but these were frequently diluted by the show's inappropriately speedy, unchanging pace and the sketchiness of the character's background.

It was, however, an interesting display of dramatic ingenuity that just missed being daring.

And then there was a Jerry Lewis special on Saturday. Anything Lewis does on TV in the future has got to be an improvement.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The Freedom Explosion," an hour-long look at Nigeria's preparations for independence, is the subject of a CBS Reports special for Monday, Feb. 15 . . . Theodore Bikel brings his international folk songs to the Pat Boone Show on ABC-TV Thursday, Jan. 28 . . . Betsy Palmer will take over the CBS-TV panel show, I've Got a Secret, on Wednesday, Feb. 3, while bossman Garry Moore vacations.

Attendance Tops at Auto Show

Pontiac Convertible Is Trimmed With Mink; Chevrolet Robot Talks

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's oldest and largest auto show opened for the fourth day of its 52nd annual run today. Attendance records already have been set.

★ ★ ★

A total of 77,093 persons jammed the showrooms of the International Amphitheatre Friday through Saturday to see the plush exhibits of the Chicago Automobile Show.

A total of 76,784 persons were at the show the first two days last year, when the entire show set a record of 518,521 spectators.

The auto industry is using many different pitches to lure more than 300,000 to the 10-day show this year.

De Soto officials are hunting for the owner of the oldest, running De Soto in Chicago and the surrounding area. The winner will get free oil lubrication.

Pontiac offers a $5,000 mink coat to the person who comes up with a name for the firm's "mink" convertible. Pontiac is displaying a special Bonneville convertible with bucket seats and interior panels trimmed in natural mink.

Chevrolets robot, "Unic," also is attracting attention. The robot is built from the rear power train of a Corvair and is able to move around under its own power and talk to spectators.

TV Film Scripting Halts for Strike

The 3,000-member Writers Guild of America called the strike this weekend against all major motion picture studios and an alliance of television film producers. But the guild has no immediate plans to picket the film companies.

Some 425 writers at work on TV assignments and 90 scripting movies are affected by the dispute. It was the first such strike called by the writers since the guild was formed in 1933.

A guild spokesman said there was no immediate threat to film production but a tie-up could result if the strike extended over a period of weeks.

The key issues involve payment to writers for post-1948 movies sold for viewing over television and plans for compensation from films shown on pay television if that comes into existence.

4th Best November for New Car Sales

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive News said today official registrations show almost 427,000 new cars were sold in November, fourth best total for the month in history.

In November 1958, only 338,000 cars were sold.

All General Motors lines declined in November 1960. All Ford lines, except Edsel, improved. All Chrysler lines were up except De Soto. American Motors and Studebaker - Packard grabbed their biggest shares of the market since their formation.

Ford outsold Chevrolet, 116,000 to 73,000, with Plymouth a distant third at 29,980 and Rambler fourth at 29,370.

The foreign car total dropped to 47,000, worst since February.

Official figures through November showed Chevrolet, including Corvair, holding a 5,400 car lead over Ford. Ford officials said the 12-month total will show Ford ahead by 70,000 to 75,000.

Total registrations through November were 5,597,000 compared with 4,136,680 through the first 11 months of 1958.

Band and Plush Hearse 'Help' Sweet Daddy Rest

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — A marching band, surging crowds and a new $19,000 hearse greeted the arrival Sunday night of the body of Negro spiritual leader Bishop C. M. (Sweet Daddy) Grace.

Husky uniformed members of the Grace Guard lifted Sweet Daddy's casket from the train which brought it from Los Angeles where he died Jan. 12.

The body of the 73-year-old religious leader of three million persons was placed in the hearse and a police escort led a 10-car motorcade to Grace's Charlotte temple.

As the motorcade neared Daddy Grace's House of Prayer for All People, an imposing $350,000 structure in Charlotte's slum area, the press of the crowds became tighter.

* * *

A block from the temple, a smartly uniformed Negro band briskly moved into position in front of the motorcade and struck up a march. Then the Grace Drum and Bugle Corps took its place in the procession and struck up with the band.

When the motorcade stopped at the temple, colored red, white and blue as are other House of Prayer churches throughout the nation, police estimated a crowd of 10,000 jammed the streets.

New Buildings to Have Shelters

Fallout Protection Is Ordered in Planning of Federal Structures

WASHINGTON (AP)—Special atomic bomb fallout shelters will be included in the design of most federal buildings built for civilian use in the future.

* * *

President Eisenhower told about the plan today in his budget message to Congress.

The chief executive said all federal departments and agencies had been directed to include fallout shelters "when appropriate" in the design of new buildings.

Reporting that funds for such shelters are included in the budget requests of the various agencies, Eisenhower added:

"In addition, the budget of the General Services Administration includes six million dollars for a new fallout shelter program at certain federal relocation sites and in some existing [federal] buildings."

SHOULD DO MORE

The President said Congress should do more to support civil and defense mobilization, asserting:

"Preparations for nonmilitary defense have been seriously hindered by unwillingness of Congress to provide appropriations to carry out programs authorized by the 1958 amendments to the Federal Civil Defense Act."

He added:

"Funds are again being requested for 1961, as well as in a supplemental appropriation for 1960, to help states and localities strengthen their full-time civil defense organizations."

Says Anti-Jew Acts Had Roots in Egypt

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) —Pierre Van Paassen, author and journalist, says the current wave of anti-Semitic incidents in Germany had its origin in Cairo, Egypt, and won't be of long duration.

Van Paassen told 700 members of the Zionist Organization of America at a banquet Sunday night. The hate campaign began in Cairo and originated with a group of Nazi war criminals who fled Germany after World War II.

Military Atomic Training Available to U.S. Allies

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army disclosed today that Latin American as well as all other Allies can now receive training in U.S. military schools on how but not on the "effects" of atomic weapons.

The statement followed announcement that the Army Caribbean school at Ft. Gulick, Canal Zone, has recently modified its command and general staff and regimental and battalion courses to include atomic training for Latin Allies.

But an Army spokesman made a distinction between the "employment" and the "effects" of atomic weapons. The latter, he said, includes much secret information which is still highly restricted.

Fire Destroys Building at Taylor University

UPLAND, Ind. (AP) — A raging fire destroyed the three-story administration building on the Taylor University campus Saturday.

All records were destroyed, but duplicate copies had been stored in the library.

Firemen from Upland and four nearby communities fought the blaze several hours but were unable to save the 67-year-old building.

Be Vice President? It's Possible

Ike's a Bird in a Gilded Cage

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Well known to President Eisenhower's intimates is his habit of checking off the months, even the days, until he leaves the White House next year.

* * *

Ask him anytime how long it will be. The President will rattle it off exactly to the day and, if given a moment to calculate, to the very hour.

"I don't know," he said at his news conference when asked whether he would be eligible to run this year for vice president. "You might find out about that one," he added.

"The only thing I know about the presidency next time is this, I can't run."

* * *

You get the idea that President Ike wouldn't swap the 22nd Amendment for a gold-plated Cadillac or another Gettysburg farm. No. 22 is Eisenhower's haven in his old age. The amendment says:

"No person shall be elected to the office of the president more than twice."

ENOUGH FOR IKE

There is more but that is enough for Eisenhower. About the vice presidency, however, there is nothing. It would be legal, although perhaps a dirty trick to play on the Democrats, if next July's Republican National Convention put Eisenhower in second place.

* *

Nixon and Eisenhower! That would be a ticket. If the President did not really know about that at his news conference, he probably knows now. He is eligible, whether or not available.

Against such a ticket the Democrats might come up with an unexpected hole card. They could nominate Harry S. Truman again, and in either place on their ticket, too.

The 22nd Amendment almost reached Truman, but not quite. He was free and clear of the prohibition against any person being elected president more than twice. The amendment added a further proscription against the election of any person who had served out more than two years of an elected president's term and then had been elected president once in his own right. HST served all but three months of FDR's fourth term and was elected in 1948.

* * *

The 22nd Amendment, however, also provided that it would not apply to the president in office at the time the amendment was proposed by Congress. So HST also would be eligible this year, although no more available than Eisenhower, which is not any.

Truman and Stevenson: There's a ticket. A man who has licked once or oftener does not become ineligible for election to anything. He might become ineligible for renomination, but that would be only because his party doubted he ever could win, not by reason of any law.

Before the 22nd Amendment came along in 1951, the Constitution dealt with the presidency in Article 2, Section 1. That article still governs to the extent that to be eligible for president, one must be a natural born citizen who shall have attained the age of 35 years. It was urged at the time that there should be a property qualification, that a president should be worth in property at least $100,000. The idea was rejected.

* * *

Good thing for Vice President Richard M. Nixon that it was rejected. For some of the Democratic hopefuls this year it wouldn't make much difference. Much? Not any!

Ike Asks Surplus-Breeding Budget

Considering Sanity Test for Sullenberger After Fire

By MAX E. SIMON

A sanity test may be ordered for Dr. Nell H. Sullenberger who set fire to his wife's clothing in the living room of his Pontiac home early Sunday morning.

Sullenberger was in an Oakland County jail cell today.

DR. SULLENBERGER

MRS. SULLENBERGER

"My wife was a clothes horse," Sullenberger told Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor. "I wanted to bring her down to my level."

He left Pontiac Wednesday to search for her and did not return until Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Sullenberger talked to police Sunday. She told them she fled from home after Sullenberger ordered her to pick up a revolver from a friend's home.

★ ★ ★

She was afraid he'd shoot her, she told police.

Sullenberger said he didn't sleep at all on his searching trip.

He went to Washington, D. C., Boston and York, Pa., he told officers. He didn't find her.

At 11:30 a.m. Sunday he yanked his wife's hats, dresses, shoes and other belongings from the closets and spread them in a 20-foot long pile from the living room into the dining room.

He ignited the clothing and awoke his three children who were asleep upstairs.

DROVE FROM HOME

He then drove from the home at 206 E. Iroquois Rd. to his Huron street clinic across from Pontiac General Hospital where he called the fire department.

Damage to the home was minor.

Authorities said his three children during a previous marriage, could have suffocated in the fire.

His daughter Janet, 14, and sons Jerry, 9, and Jeffrey, 7, were taken into the home of a Pontiac police officer who is a close friend of the physician.

They were cared for by a family friend while he searched for his wife.

Sullenberger told officers his wife had been spending money for clothes which should have been spent on the home.

He claimed that she spent in-

Judge Promises Fast Hearing on Trial Board

Holland Will Decide in 2 Weeks if City Panel Is Legal

Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland today promised a speedy hearing and decision on whether a police trial board legally exists in Pontiac.

It is the trial board that keeps Herbert W. Straley from being arbitrarily fired as police chief.

Judge Holland set a pretrial hearing on the matter for Thursday or Friday and both hearing an decision will be within two weeks.

Conferring with the judge will be Paul E. Meredith, attorney for the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA), and City Attorney William A. Ewart.

Meredith last week filed a petition on behalf of eight PPOA member asking Circuit Court to declare whether the trial board is legally constituted in light of the repeal of the Pontiac Civil Service Commission by voters last April.

★ ★ ★

The hearing today was for the city to show cause why a temporary injunction shoul not be issued, placing the trial board's authority in abeyance.

The PPOA attorney dropped a move to obtain an injunction at request of Judge Holland.

H. Malcolm Kahn, trial board chairman, promised that the group would not take any action before th court ruling.

Ewart admitted existence of a controversy and asked for a court ruling, Judge Holland said a quick hearing would be held because "it is in the public interest."

SUSPENDED OLD PROVISIONS

Civil service for police was adopted by voters in 1957 and repealed two years later.

When the optional state civil service act was adopted, it automatically suspended the old trial board provisions in the city charter.

The act specifically said all other provisions inconsistent with it were repealed.

★ ★ ★

Ewart advised the City Commission that the trial board was automatically reconstituted when civil service was repealed.

Because they didn't, according to the PPOA point, there is legally no trial board — and, therefore, no protection for policemen or the chief.

Piecing Puzzle Together

TAKING SHAPE — Wreckage of a National Airlines plane that crashed near Bolivia, N. C., Jan. 6 takes shape as CAB investigators painstakingly reassemble the pieces at Wilmington, N. Mystery also surrounds the crash of a National Airlines plane in the Gulf of Mexico on Nov. 16 which killed 42.

$4.1 Million Bulge Could Cut Taxes in '61

But Higher Levies on Postage and Gasoline Called For First

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today sent Congress his election year budget and said it promises a $4,184,000,000 surplus that can pave the way for a tax cut, possibly next year.

OVER PAGES

The President proposed raising more revenue. He said Congress should increase the federal gasoline tax by a half a cent a gallon—to 4½ cents—and add a penny each to the 4-cent letter charge and the 7-cent air mail rate.

The President implied that unless Congress votes these and other revenue measures—and resists any urge to boost spending—the predicted surplus will melt away and with it, hopes of broadscale tax relief sometime after the November election.

For the 1961 fiscal year that begins July 1, Eisenhower estimated record revenues of 84 billion dollars. He called for spending of $79,816,000,000.

This would produce the biggest surplus in 12 years—a margin of black ink which the President said should be used to reduce the record national debt of 290 billion dollars. He said a debt cut would counter inflation and spur savings needed to stimulate new economic growth.

Eisenhower said the projected spending level will permit small increases in both the military and foreign aid budgets, a major step-up in space exploration and record outlays for water projects.

★ ★ ★

Although allotting 50 million dollars more for defense, the budget proposes small cuts in purchases of missiles and ships and a big reduction in aircraft purchases.

Cuts in nonmilitary programs generally were small and scattered.

Eisenhower asserted that if the fiscal blueprint can be translated into reality, it will protect and

Don't Expect Hike on Mail or Gasoline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reaction indicated today President Eisenhower will not get the postal rate and gasoline tax increases proposed in his new budget.

Democrats generally expressed doubt that a $4,184,000,000 surplus estimated by Eisenhower will materialize. Republicans said whether it does will depend on actions taken by the Democratic-controlled Congress.

★ ★ ★

The usual forecasts of cuts in foreign aid and some other items were offset by comments of others that projected spending won't meet the nation's needs.

Members of both parties indicated they don't believe Congress will be willing to raise postal rates or increase the gasoline tax.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the assistant Democratic leader, said Eisenhower was correct in predicting that the prospective surplus will melt away if new revenues are not added.

TAX HOPE 'POLITICAL'

"It is my belief that Congress will not agree to these proposals," Mansfield said. He said Eisenhowers statement that it may be possible to have tax reductions in 1961 "is more political than practical."

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) called the predicted surplus highly uncertain, adding that "much of it is based on a philosophy of not doing things rather than doing things."

Chairman Overton Brooks (D-La) of the House Space Committee, characterized Eisenhowers proposed 400-million-dollar outlay for space exploration as "a distinct disappointment."

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Was a of the wreckage have been recovered.

Dallas naturopath with a criminal record on a National Airlines plane which crashed into the Gulf of Mexico killing all 42 aboard?

Or did Dr. Robert V. Spears persuade — perhaps hypnotize — a Tampa man into taking his place? Or were both aboard the ill-fated plane which plunged into the water on Nov. 16?

The Tampan, missing since the day of the crash, was William Allen Taylor, 60, who was sentenced to prison with Dr. Spears in 1936 for operating a confidence scheme.

Taylor's divorced wife, Alice Steel Taylor of Tampa, said Dr. Spears was a hypnotist.

"I'm sure my former husband got on that plane instead of Spears," she said Sunday night. "It's even possible that my ex-husband was hypnotized to get on that plane."

But in Dallas, Mrs. Spears said she's sure that if her 65-year-old husband were alive "he'd be here with me and the babies."

The mother, in her mid-30's, has a 10-month-old daughter and a 2-year-old son.

Spears was listed as one of the passengers who died in the crash. Taylor bought flight insurance just before the takeoff from here but was not on the passenger list. Only a few of the bodies and a portion

An FBI investigator has suggested the plane might have been sabotaged and Spears may have had someone else take his seat so his wife could collect on a large insurance policy. Mrs. Spears said her husband had $30,000 or $100,000 worth of flight insurance—"I don't remember which."

Meanwhile it was disclosed that Julian Frank, who met death in the possible suicide-bombing of another National Airlines plane, had a $100,000 double indemnity life insurance policy.

[illegible] a half-million-dollar life insurance policy.

Since the tragedy, numerous financial and legal difficulties that beset New York lawyer Frank have come to light. Some authorities leaned toward the theory that Frank carried a bomb aboard the flight.

Produces Atomic Electricity for Over a Year

BALTIMORE (AP)—Scientists at the Martin Co. say SNAP, a little atomic gadget expected to produce electricity without maintenance for 140 days or so, is still going strong after a year.

★ ★ ★

SNAP stands for "System of Nuclear Auxiliary Power." The device has no moving parts but produces heat by the radioactive decay of 1.40 of an ounce of polonium-210.

Ike Will Visit Russia in June

He'll Return Call Paid by Khrushchev to U.S. Last September

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's crusade of world travels to promote peace and freedom will take him behind the Iron Curtain into the Soviet Union for 10 days starting June 10.

Dates for the President's trip, planned since last summer, were announced Sunday by the White House and the Soviet government.

In going to the Soviet Union Eisenhower will be returning the two-week visit which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made to the United States last September.

The President will go first to Moscow. He also will visit a few other cities in the Soviet Union but there has been no final decision as to which ones.

★ ★ ★

There were no immediate announcements as to whether the President will be accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower and their four grandchildren. Khrushchev invited the youngsters when he met them at the President's Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

Khrushchev's two weeks in this country seem to have made no basic improvement in relations, and now he is pushing a new pressure drive to force the Western leaders to give up protection of West Berlin.

That will be a main issue at the Paris summit conference starting May 16, less than a month before Eisenhower's arrival in the Soviet Union. The President, Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French President Charles de Gaulle will meet with Khrushchev at the Paris session.

Area Gets Heavy Snow Warning

Four Inches Expected, With Colder Weather Due for Tomorrow

A heavy snow warning has been issued for the vicinity today by the weather bureau. A blanket of four inches or more, becoming mixed with drizzle, is forecast for the area, with flurries and colder weather tomorrow.

Tonight's low is expected to range somewhere between 22 and 28 degrees, and tomorrow's high from 34 to 38.

POOR SPRING FARMING SEEN

According to the Oakland County Agriculture Extension office, a light snowfall so far this winter forebodes poor farming conditions in the spring.

★ ★ ★

Heavy snow, forecast through out most of the Lower Peninsula, is expected to extend into Indiana and Ohio today and tomorrow.

Today's low in the city was 24 at 8 a.m. with easterly wind velocities from 14 to 16 m.p.h. The high was 30 at 1 p.m. Sunday's high was 29, and the low 24.

Rocked 'n' Rolled

LEMINGTON SPA, England (UPI) — The Lemington Spa Youth Center cancelled a rock 'n' roll marathon because: Welfare workers condemned the event as "dangerous exhibitionism," doctors said it was harmful to health, an alderman resigned from the youth center's board because of the controversy and teen-agers refused to participate.

Now They Can Rest

LONDON (UPI) — Lionel Swift fired all 12 mattress makers at his bedding factory for lying down on the job. One of the mattress makers, George Asling, admitted they used to stretch 10-minute tea breaks to 30 minutes because, "You get worn out, working on beds all day."

Board Considers Results of Clerk-Register Merger

What Oakland County accomplished in its first major government reform—merging the clerk and register of deeds offices—and what more should be done in streamlining operations, concerned the Board of Supervisors at a meeting today.

Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. presented a summary of the first year of operations of the combined offices. He said "there have been definite advantages growing out of the combination."

Murphy added that it would be four or five years before the full administrative advantages can be realized.

Following Murphy's report came one from John L. Carey, Springfield Township supervisor and chairman of a nine-member special committee which spearheaded the merger. Supervisors voted 42-28 June 13, 1958 to consolidate the two offices. The merger became effective Jan. 1 1959.

Since the merger, Carey's committee, consisting of supervisors and several private citizens, has made no other reform recommendations.

★ ★ ★

This led former Department of Public Works Director Harold K. Schone to criticize the committee for being "too slow in getting things done."

Carey in turn promised supervisors at their meeting Dec. 14 a "take it or leave it" report today. He would not disclose what the report contained in advance.

In his two-page report, Murphy said the major portion of the operational saving has been in salaries. He said about $10,000 had been saved in operational costs and another $11,000 had been saved by cutting out one elected official—the register of deeds.

★ ★ ★

"This makes a grand total of approximately $21,000—this amount being the saving in the first year as combined offices," Murphy said. He said more savings will be possible when the two offices are put under one roof of the new courthouse. Presently the work of registering of deeds is carried on in the County Office Building and the work of the clerk in the present Courthouse.

★ ★ ★

Major operational changes have been microfilming of papers, a flat filing system of legal cases — "giving us one-third more filing space and saving considerable time in the research and filing of cases"—and a card index system of recording births, deaths and marriages in the county.

Bus Strike Over in Kalamazoo; Silence Here

One of three bus strikes affecting Michigan cities serviced by National City Bus Lines, Inc., was settled last night as Kalamazoo City Lines and its striking workers reached an agreement.

Local officials were not available for comment this morning as to what effect the Kalamazoo settlement would have on Pontiac's bus strike, if any.

Both Pontiac and Saginaw bus workers are still on strike. All three strikes began Dec. 5.

The new Kalamazoo bus workers contract was to be signed today. Bus service is expected to resume tomorrow.

The terms of the new contract were not disclosed immediately. Kalamazoo City Lines is a subsidiary of National Bus Lines, Inc. The strikers are members of the Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electrical Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America.

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI) — The city refused to install street lights in two Nottingham suburbs so residents turned to the "do-it-yourself" method. They purchased their own street lights and plugged them into their homes.

Japanese Prime Minister Comes to Sign Treaty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi, a minor league war criminal who became a major league ally, is here to sign a long-term military and economic pact with the United States.

The 63-year-old Premier, who arrived last night for a three-day visit, withstood the assaults of Japanese Communists and Socialists plus the vituperation of Russia and Red China to work out the new alliance against Communist aggression.

With President Eisenhower looking on, Kishi and Sec. of State Christian A. Herter will sign the treaty tomorrow afternoon in the east room of the White House where President Buchanan received the first Japanese mission 100 years ago.

Eisenhower and Kishi will confer tomorrow morning. The President will give a luncheon in Kishi's honor following the conference and the Japanese leader then will go to the State Department for further talks.

The President called Herter and Douglas MacArthur II, U.S. ambassador to Japan, to the White House today to go over subjects expected to come up at tomorrow's meetings.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon met Kishi at the airport and praised him as the "courageous leader" of a "great people and a true and loyal friend."

The Japanese-American security treaty continues the right of the United States to base military forces in Japan, but under conditions which recognize full Japanese sovereignty. It replaces a pact hurriedly drawn in 1951 along with the general peace treaty which the Japanese have felt merely continued the occupation in many respects.

Can See Over Horizon

Navy Develops New-Type Radar

NEW YORK (AP) — The Naval Research Laboratory has developed a radar that can see over the horizon and detect missiles as they are launched from submarines, the New York Times said today.

★ ★ ★

Within the Navy, it was reported, the system is being viewed as one answer to the increasing threat of missiles launched from a Soviet submarine fleet.

★ ★ ★

The Navy is hailing the development as one of the most significant breakthroughs in radar technology since radar was developed at the naval laboratory in the 1930s, a Washington dispatch to the Times added.

The new radar, the story said, has been given the code name of Project Madre—standing for Magnetic Drum Receiving Equipment, a key component in the system.

★ ★ ★

The Times said one outgrowth of the Madre approach has been Project Tepee, a system being worked on by the Navy for intercontinental detection of missile launchings or nuclear explosions in the atmosphere. The Defense Department disclosed the existence of Project Tepee last summer.

★ ★ ★

Here, in part, is the Times report on Project Madre:

★ ★ ★

The development means that for the first time there is a radar that is not limited in its detection vision to the line of sight from the transmitting antenna.

BENDS BEAM

The new device can bend its beam over the horizon to pick up moving targets as far away as 2,800 miles.

From a technical standpoint, Project Madre is expected to open up a new approach in radar. There is now a method to get extremely long range with relatively low power.

★ ★ ★

Project Madre, from a military standpoint, is expected to fill in many of the gaps—particularly on the sea frontiers—in the missile-bomber detection network surrounding the continental United States.

★ ★ ★

A few Madre stations along the eastern seaboard of Canada and the United States could provide a detection fence reaching halfway across the Atlantic from the equator to the Arctic.

The Madre system also offers possibilities of detecting low-flying bombers, which are a troublesome problem for present radar.

Madre transmits signals in the high frequency band of 3 to 30 megacycles and they are reflected back to earth by the ionosphere—the electrical layer in the earth's upper atmosphere.

Ike's Budget Aims at $4 Million Surplus

Congress to be elected in November will have an opportunity to cut taxes, assuming prosperity continues.

"Soundly conceived tax revision can then be approached on a comprehensive and orderly basis rather than by haphazard piecemeal changes," he added.

Eisenhower did not say specifically that a tax cut should be considered in 1961. He merely pointed to this as a possibility during the two-year tenure of the Congress that will convene next January.

DEBT CUT INSTEAD?

He also commented the legislators might prefer debt reduction to tax reduction.

In addition to a big surplus in fiscal 1961, the President is counting on a $17-million-dollar surplus in the current bookkeeping year. For the 12 months which end June 30 he estimated revenues of $78,600,000,000 and spending of $78,383,000,000.

The 962-page budget contained no major surprises, particularly since Eisenhower revealed the principal figures 11 days ago in his State of the Union message.

—Increase postal rates by 544 million dollars a year. This was 150 million more than was requested, and refused, in 1959.

If Congress again bypasses higher rates, as seems likely, spending will be increased by a like amount since postal revenues are used to reduce the department's demands on the Treasury.

—Boost the gas tax to 4½ cents a gallon until June 30, 1964, when the rate would revert to 3 cents. This would produce an extra 500 million a year to speed construction of superhighways—a program handled through a trust fund outside the budget.

Congress last year boosted the tax from 3 cents to 4 cents for a 21-month period beginning last October and is expected to resist the new request.

WANTS HIGHER CEILING

—Increase the tax on aviation gasoline to 4½ cents a gallon, from 2 cents, and establish a new 4½ cent tax on jet fuels. These actions, also requested in 1959, would add 72 million dollars to revenues.

Eisenhower also asked that aviation taxes go into the general fund, instead of the highway trust fund.

—Postpone a scheduled June 30 cut in corporation income and excise taxes. Unless this is done, Treasury revenues would drop at least 3½ billion dollars a year.

— Increase the national debt ceiling temporarily. Eisenhower said the prospective surplus plus cash on hand will permit cutting the debt to 280 billion dollars by the end of fiscal 1961. However, he said seasonal borrowings next fall will make necessary a temporary increase in the ceiling.

The permanent ceiling is 285 billion dollars and a temporary hike of 295 billion expires June 30.

—Remove the 4¼ per cent interest ceiling on money borrowed for more than 5 years. Eisenhower already has submitted a special message renewing this 1959 request but congressional Democrats have shown little enthusiasm.

PROTEST ANTI-SEMITISM — People, young and old, carried torches last week, as they gathered around a Jewish memorial stone in Frankfurt, Germany, to listen to a message from the city's mayor. The meeting was a protest against anti-Semitic incidents in the world. The memorial commemorates the destruction of the Frankfurt synagogue by the Nazis on Nov. 9, 1938.

Slaughter Ahead of Last Year

14 Die in State Weekend Traffic

By The Associated Press

Weekend traffic fatalities in Michigan are running ahead of those a year ago.

Fourteen persons were killed in traffic accidents in the past weekend compared with eight deaths a year ago.

In the previous weekend, 15 died in traffic accidents compared with five a year ago.

State Police said a greater traffic volume appeared to figure in the increased toll rather than weather conditions.

In the past weekend four died in single-car accidents and eight in two-vehicle collisions. In addition, one pedestrian was killed and a 14-year-old boy on a sled was killed when he veered into the path of a car.

Not included in the weekend death toll was Mrs. Helen Holman, 39, of Southgate. She was killed at 12:22 a.m. today in a car that crashed through a road construction barricade on Telegraph road near Ann Arbor trail in Dearborn Township of the Detroit area.

Three persons were killed over the weekend in nontraffic accidents.

★ ★ ★

Michael J. McCarthy, 8, who lived near Battle Creek, was dragged to his death Saturday in an attempt to harness a pet burro.

The following were killed in traffic accidents.

Edward Whitlock, 31, of Holland, lost his life Friday night when his car skidded on an icy Ottawa County rural road and overturned in a water filled ditch.

Billy Lee Gibson, 27, of Albion was killed Saturday when his car ran off an icy road in Calhoun County.

Leon Kohlbeck, 33, of Ada died in a two-car collision on U.S. 131 near Grand Rapids Saturday.

Mrs. Lyla Blevins, 43, of Dearborn Township, was injured fatally Saturday in a two-car collision in there.

Otto Seyboth, 72, of Hartford was struck by an auto Saturday when he ran onto U.S. 12 near Hartford to save his dog.

The dog scampered off unhurt.

Charles Brown, 27, of Detroit, was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on Detroit's east side.

Herman Isbister, 19, and Ephriam Bowen, 17, both of Memphis, Mich., were killed Sunday when a car in which they were passengers sideswiped another auto and then bounced into a tree off M10 near Richmond in St. Clair County.

Mrs. Otto Tietz, 53, of Mastings was injured fatally Sunday in a two-car collision on M37 near Hastings. Four other persons were injured.

Emil Bandurski, 55, of Benton Harbor was killed Sunday afternoon when his motorcycle veered out of control and crashed headon into an auto on U.S. 31, nine miles both of Benton Harbor. Dr. Arnold Barr, 58, of Port Washington, Wis., the driver of the auto, suffered minor injuries. He tried to give medical aid to Bandurski, but the motorcyclist was dead.

Clarence W. Sikoreki, 55, of Interlochen, a retired coast guardsmen, lost his life Sunday when his car skidded off U.S. 131 near Charlevoix and plunged into a canal. Police skin divers recovered his body in 25 feet of water.

Mrs. Ann Bowers, 28, of Detroit was killed Sunday when a car in which she was a passenger rammed a utility pole on Detroit's east side. Five other occupants of the car are in serious condition at Saratoga Hospital in Detroit.

Kevin Cahill, 14, of Big Rapids was killed Sunday afternoon when his sled veered into the path of an auto at Big Rapids.

Train Hits Bus; 7 Children Die

3 Critically Injured in Alabama; Driver Fails to See Speeding Freight

FACKLER, Ala. (AP) — A freight train crashed into a school bus near this northeast Alabama town today, killing at least seven children and leaving three critically injured.

Highway Patrolman T. W. Freeman said the train, a local freight out of Chattanooga, Tenn., sliced through the bus just behind the middle and dragged part of the wreckage three quarters of a mile before it stopped.

The driver, Charlie Beavers, was in critical condition.

Freeman said the train was traveling about 55 m.p.h. on a straight track in clear weather when it smashed into the bus at the dirt road crossing.

Freeman said he understood there were about 10 children on the bus.

TAKEN TO 2 TOWNS

The dead and injured were taken to hospitals and funeral homes at the nearby towns of Stevenson and Scottsboro.

At Scottsboro, hospital officials said there were four dead and two injured critically.

At Stevenson, hospital officials said they received three dead and one critically injured.

Lake Orion Man Knifed in Home

Says Boarder Stabbed Him; Condition Listed as Satisfactory

A 50-year-old Lake Orion man is in Pontiac General Hospital today with stab wounds in the back and arm he said were inflicted by a 64-year-old boarder in his home at 1:40 a.m. Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Listed in satisfactory condition is Kenneth M. Ferguson of 54 Elizabeth St.

Being held in Oakland County jail on investigation of felonious assault is Tom Tomasella, 64, of the same address.

Lake Orion Police Chief Neal Leonard said that after the stabbing Ferguson stumbled out of his house and down North Broadway street en route to the police station for help. He stopped a police car in front of the post office and asked to be taken to the hospital.

Royal Oak Man Beaten to Death

Found Behind Store in Detroit; Was Robbed of $100

A 63-year-old Royal Oak man was found beaten to death at the rear of his fish and poultry market in Detroit yesterday. He had been robbed of $100.

Doris Lungu, 33, of 425 Mt. Vernon St., Royal Oak, discovered the body of her stepfather, Arcadie Seserman, near a shed about 25 feet from the rear of the store at 2091 E. McNichols Rd.

According to Detroit police Det. John Rosek, Seserman was struck on the back of the head with a chunk of concrete found near his body.

Seserman had stepped out to dump some garbage when he was attacked. He died sometime between 6:45 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Saturday, police said.

★ ★ ★

Miss Lungu went to investigate at the store Sunday when her stepfather failed to show up at a church meeting.

Surviving besides Seserman's wife and stepdaughter is a stepson, John Lungu. Service will be held at 9 a.m. Wednesday at William Vasu Funeral Home, Royal Oak, with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

The Day in Birmingham

Redding Repaving Plan Stirs Resident Opposition

BIRMINGHAM — Objections are expected to be voiced this evening at the City Commission meeting when the proposed repaving of Redding road is discussed.

★ ★ ★

Opposing the $90,000 repaving of Redding, from Woodward avenue to Chesterfield street, are property owners along stretches of the road.

A. L. Kassabian, in a letter to the Commission, objects because:

"The Quarton road work is still incomplete and this means heavy traffic on Redding road the rest of the year.

"Plans and costs should be studied further and in more detail by the city engineer before the vote is taken.

MORE THAN REQUIRED'

"Twenty-nine foot concrete pavement seems to be more than required and the improvement could be done by blacktopping.

"The proposed pavement and storm drain cost seem excessive for the area involved."

In a letter to the Commission, Mrs. W. W. Campbell, 1450 Redding Rd., opposes the paving between Lake Park road and Chesterfield road, stating:

"I have lived in Birmingham for seven and a half years. In that length of time, Redding road has been paved twice and I have paid my share of the assessments.

"I object to paying a third time on the same project, since it is still in good condition.

'DISGRACE TO CITY'

"That is a disgrace to the city and is in terrible shape.

"It has only been patched for years and is an ordeal to drive over.

Waterford Sets Road Hearing

Board Meeting Tonight Also May Deal With Rezoning, Ordinances

A public hearing on blacktopping Meigs street, Drayton Plains, will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at tonight's regular Waterford Township Board meeting.

The two-block long project involving 30 assessments has been estimated to cost property owners some $9,400, if there are no objections, a special assessment district will be created, and bids for this project will be combined with the $7,260 LaSalle street blacktopping project.

In other business, Board members are expected to take action on the rezoning from residential to commercial of nine lots at the corner of Tilden and LaSalle streets. The property is owned by the Italian-American Club which wants to expand its facilities.

The Board will discuss the possibility of repealing five township ordinances which conflict with other ordinances or state laws, according to clerk James Seeterlin.

★ ★ ★

They involve police department operation, sanitary systems, abandonment of iceboxes and conduct of disorderly persons.

★ ★ ★

Another discussion regarding chlorination and phosphate treatment for wells of Lake Oakland Heights subdivision has also been slated for tonight's meeting.

Hare's Assistant Will Address Pontiac CFM

Billie S. Farnum, assistant to Secy. of State James M. Hare, will talk to members of the Pontiac chapter of Citizens for Michigan Friday on how Michigan government can be more economical and efficient.

★ ★ ★

The meeting, the third for the new group seeking government reform by citizens, is scheduled for 8 p.m. in room 216 of Pontiac Central High School.

"This will offer an excellent opportunity for those Pontiac voters interested in state government to learn more about it," said Ross S. Manchester of 78 Edison St.

Manchester, president of the group, said Farnum will speak on economy and efficiency in state government and the various services offered.

★ ★ ★

There will be a question and answer period following Farnum's talk, Manchester said.

Snow Puts Heavy Cover on Midwest

By The Associated Press

A blustery snowstorm swept into the Midwest today from the West, leaving a heavy blanket of white across areas from the eastern Colorado plains to the Mississippi Valley.

★ ★ ★

The storm, which dumped up to a foot of snow in parts of Colorado, curtailed travel, blocked roads and closed many schools. The Weather Bureau posted warnings of hazardous driving conditions.

★ ★ ★

The storm was blamed for at least nine deaths, eight of them in accidents on ice-slicked and snow-covered highways. Five were reported in Colorado and three in Illinois. One woman froze to death in Amarillo, Tex.

★ ★ ★

Heaviest snow during the night, two to four inches, was in southern Iowa and extreme northern Missouri. The fresh falls made a total four to eight inches on the ground. The snow moved into southern Wisconsin, lower Michigan, Northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and headed northeastward.

Ice Is Too Thin 'Keep Children Off Lakes'

Bloomfield Township Police Chief Norman Dehnke warned parents today to keep their children off lakes in the area for at least another week to prevent a recurrence of the drownings last week.

"The lakes are still unsafe," Dehnke said. "Yesterday we had to chase a group of children off Square Lake because of thin ice."

"In fact, the center of the lake is wide-open with water," he said.

"We can do so much in keeping children off the lakes but if parents would warn their children I think it would help us greatly."

3,021 Enrollment Sets Ferris Institute Record

BIG RAPIDS (UPI) — Winter quarter enrollment at Ferris Institute has reached 3,021, a record high, it was announced today by Ferris President Dr. Victor F. Spathelf.

The winter quarter enrollment is 133 students more than a year ago, exceeding predictions of an enrollment of 2,950 for the period.

French to Test A-Weapon Soon

Warn Planes to Steer Clear of Certain Areas for Months to Come

PARIS (AP)—France is expected to explode her first atomic weapon in the Sahara any day. A successful blast will put France in the nuclear weapon club restricted so far to the United States, The Soviet Union and Britain.

The French Defense Ministry warned planes flying over the African desert to stay clear of certain areas beginning today.

The device set off will be atomic, not a more powerful hydrogen-bomb weapon.

★ ★ ★

Airliners flying over the Sahara — mostly French and British — were warned to stay clear of a zone around Reggane in central Algeria. The site is about 600 miles from the Mediterranean coast and about the same distance from the Atlantic.

Planes flying over the rest of the French Sahara were advised to remain above 10,000 feet, avoid certain other areas and keep in radio contact with French authorities.

The French announcement gave no time limit for the regulations, saying only that they would be in force "for the months to come."

★ ★ ★

The French have pushed detonmindedly ahead with development of an atomic weapon despite intense opposition to the Sahara tests from independent African nations and two resolutions by the U.N. Assembly opposing the Sahara tests.

★ ★ ★

Ghana, Tunisia and other African nations expressed fear the French explosions would contaminate African areas with dangerous radioactivity. The French gave assurance that radioactivity would be confined to a small area.

★ ★ ★

American and British officials have expressed the opinion privately that the Soviets might use French testing of a nuclear weapon as a pretext for resuming test explosions of their own.

Kidnaper Sentenced to 15 Years in Prison

The convicted kidnaper of the child of a former Pontiac woman has been sentenced to 15 years in prison by a Chicago federal judge.

★ ★ ★

Miss Varner, 30, was arrested in Gary, Ind., last November in the kidnaping of 18-week-old James L. Vickers.

She had been hired by the child's mother, Marilyn Vickers, as a baby sitter and was picked up the day after she walked off with the youngster.

Mrs. Vickers was working in Chicago at the time.

★ ★ ★

Eye Sanity Hearing for Sullenberger

surance money from a house fire last year on clothes rather than on home furnishings destroyed by the blaze.

"I couldn't even find room in the closets to put my two suits," he complained, according to police.

Sullenberger made a statement at the prosecutor's office which Taylor described as a "complete confession."

DRINKING BEFORE FIRE

The doctor also said that he had been drinking before the blaze but was not intoxicated, Taylor said.

★ ★ ★

Asked by the prosecutor whether he could have set the fire "for publicity to get his wife back," Sullenberger answered:

"It could be."

Taylor called Sullenberger "cool, calm and deliberate." He added that the doctor was "cooperative in every respect."

He said the doctor will be charged with arson if he refuses.

'FALLING DOWN ANYWAY'

The prosecutor said he asked Sullenberger if "he realized he might have burned the house down."

"It was falling down anyway," he quoted the doctor as saying. Taylor added that the house was "off base."

As he was being led to a jail cell, Sullenberger passed an auto accident victim.

He told sheriff's deputies that the man had a broken jaw and required immediate treatment.

A former model, she described herself as "in hiding," they said.

She said the doctor told her: "Don't think I wouldn't use it on you."

It was charged that he violated professional standards in 25 cases.

The doctor sued the hospital for $250,000 and reinstatement, and the hospital filed charges against him.

Sullenberger has been performing major surgery in a 458-bed private hospital in Wayne County and minor surgery at his clinic in Pontiac.

He recently obtained an application for readmission to the Pontiac General staff but hasn't turned it in.

Dick Powell's Son Plucked From Cliff Ledge

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Boy, I sure was scared," said Ricky Powell, 8, son of Dick Powell and June Allyson.

Two police officers clambed to the ledge to comfort the boy while firemen raised a ladder. Ricky and a friend, Steve Dart, 8, were climbing the cliff at the rear of the Dart home when Ricky became frightened.

Detroit Police Hunt Missing Gambler

DETROIT (AP) — Detective teams were assigned today to probe the disappearance of gambler Thomas Karamanos, missing since leaving his home here last Wednesday.

Karamanos, 37, has a gambling record dating to 1950, police said.

"Higher-ups in the gambling rackets told him to take a vacation and he went to Greece last fall for three months. But when he came back, he apparently continued to step on some toes."

DuPont's Stock in GM Eyed

House Ways and Means Committee to Ponder Forced Sale

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress will take another look at the tax situation involved in the government's effort to force the DuPont company to give up its stockholdings in General Motors Corp.

The House Ways and Means Committee, with jurisdiction over tax matters, Friday put the subject on its agenda for this session in the light of the Justice Department's decision to take to the Supreme Court its antitrust action against DuPont.

The committee last session approved a bill which would give tax relief to stockholders who receive a distribution of stock as a result of a court ruling under antitrust laws. However, the bill —tailored to the DuPont-General Motors situation — was never sent to the House floor.

The committee's move to reconsider the matter in the light of latest developments could mean an entirely new legislative approach or a decision to push the pending bill through Congress.

* * *

The bill approved last August stemmed from government action started in 1949 to force DuPont to dispose of some 63 million shares of General Motors stock acquired around 1917 at an average cost of about $2.10 a share.

Without legislation, DuPont shareholders, if the GM stock was distributed to them, would be subject to taxes at ordinary income rates on today's market value of GM stock. This is around $52 a share.

Under terms of the Ways and Means Committee bill, which would apply to all cases where divestiture of stock was forced by antitrust court rulings, income taxes would be applicable only on the average original cost of the stock that was distributed.

The Justice Department yesterday filed notice of appeal to the Supreme Court from a ruling by a Chicago federal judge that DuPont could dissolve its close association with General Motors by retaining ownership of its holding of 63 million shares of GM stock, but passing voting rights on to individual DuPont shareholders.

Judge Walter J. La Buy had held in a Nov. 17 ruling that forced divestiture under present income tax laws would be unnecessarily harsh and punitive on DuPont stockholders.

Sylvan Police Give 454 Tickets During 1959

Of these, about 400 were for traffic violations. The remaining offenses ranged from disorderly conduct to minors in possession of beer and violations of the city's dog ordinance.

Police ticketed 20 reckless drivers and 15 drunk drivers. Sylvan Police cars drove some 48,859 miles patrolling the city.

Discord Threat to Alaska Dems

First State Convention Shadowed by Strife; Humphrey to Speak

Intraparty squabbles were expected to be put aside for a time tonight, however, for the convention banquet and a speech by Minnesota's Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, the first announced Democratic presidential candidate for 1960.

Looming as a definite threat to harmony was a probable move by delegates from Anchorage and the populous third division to gain a larger vote in party affairs.

Another argument will be stirred up if southeastern Alaska Democrats, as expected, seek a platform plank pledging to retain Juneau as the capital. There has been increasing pressure to move the capital to the Anchorage area.

Enters Finch Case Today

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The name of pretty Carole Tregoff—accused of helping her wealthy doctor lover plot his wife's death—formally enters the Finch murder trial for the first time today.

* * *

First witnesses will be the managers of two apartment houses where the state contends Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, and Miss Tregoff, 23, held trysts in the weeks just before Mrs. Finch was slain last July 18.

Until now the prosecution has concentrated on the crew-cut, tennis-playing doctor. The name of Miss Tregoff, Finch's red-haired mistress and former receptionist, has not been linked to the slaying.

The prosecution says it also will call a man later to testify that Miss Tregoff tried to hire him to kill 36-year old Barbara Finch.

* * *

Sometime today actor-producer Mark Stevens is expected to testify that Mrs. Finch, his frequent tennis partner, lived in mortal fear of her life.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

© 1959 by Clarence Budington Kelland © 1959 by The Curtis Publishing Company Distributed by NEA Service

THE STORY: Bobby Newell, an orphan farm, the Cardiff giant was found, is making a great deal of money exhibiting the marvel at $1 a person. But also of great importance in Syracuse is the arrival of Madame Cleda Janeway, who relations Corvin as his lawyer.

Chapter VII

It was due, of course, to newspaper enterprise that the Cardiff Giant was so widely advertised. The murder was a local thing and not calculated by our editors to be of interest beyond our limits, but the giant was a cat of another color.

Accounts of it were telegraphed to New York and Boston. The telegraph company charged all of $4.50 for an hour's use of their facilities.

But when that hour was up, even if the Czar of Russia were drowned in the Erie Canal, no word of it could be sent out until the next day.

But to people of our class the absorbing topic was the dinner and reception to be given by Banker Watts to introduce Madame Janeway to Syracuse society.

Some 20 of our most prominent citizens were bidden to dine in the spacious Watts' dining room. After which the reception was to be held.

NOT INVITED

Lossie and I, naturally, were not invited to the dinner, but we were permitted to attend the reception.

She wore a gown I never had seen before, and which I accused her of buying for the event. It fitted tightly above the waist, but from the hips downward it flared and billowed over hoop-skirts with panniers and flounces.

And it was an off kind of blue that somehow made you very conscious of her blue eyes. She was elegant—very elegant—and dignified and grown-up and reserved. And most startling lovely.

"Gosh all fishooks!" I exclaimed floutishly.

She starred at me with elevated brows. "If that is a compliment, I'm obliged to you, sir. However, it might have been phrased a bit more elegantly."

"I'm not elegant," I said miserably. "I haven't been to Europe to learn how."

GOOD NIGHT!

"If," she said loftily, "there should be dancing, try not to step on my feet."

After all, there is such a thing as self-respect.

"Good night, Miss Lossie," I said tightly. "In the future I hope you find a more suitable escort."

"Oh," she said, "I shall do that, of course. But tonight you're all I've got. Come back here, Orrin Applegate!"

Then, with a lightning change, she became the Lossie of half a dozen years ago—a tomboy with grimy hands and holes in the knees of her stockings. She lifted her stately skirt so that she could kick, and she did kick me on the shin.

Somehow, this made everything different. Here was a Lossie I was familiar with, and with whom I knew how to cope.

"Then," I said stoutly, "keep a polite tongue in your head."

* * *

We were admitted to Banker Watts' home and shown directly to where the host and hostess received.

* * *

I was conscious that something was happening to Lossie. I felt a slight movement, a sort of drawing together of her slender body, a straightening of her shoulders and a lifting of her chin. This person who walked beside me never had done anything so undignified.

* * *

She seemed taller, and somehow she had contrived to seem more mature. Her very face had altered. It was not pert with promise of rich beauty to come; it was dignified by beauty that had amply arrived. It was not a cold, standoffish beauty, but vivid and interesting and somehow seductive.

Here was nothing naive, but all the allure of Eve, who had learned wisdom from the serpent.

For an instant Mrs. Watts did not recognize Lossie, and then her pale pale eyes widened and I thought she was going to exclaim, "Well!" But she recovered herself.

I got the idea that the older woman was trying to belittle Lossie, but she had no luck whatever. Madam and the girl looked into each other's eyes for an instant, and then both smiled brightly.

"But, my dear!" exclaimed Madam with generous warmth, "I had no idea I had such a beauty for a neighbor!"

"Madam is kind," Lossie said with perfect poise. "But she can well afford to pay a nice compliment. For who could compete with Madam's loveliness"

* * *

Madam Janeway's smile was condescendingly regal as she touched Lossie with her fan. "And your gown, Miss Lossie," she said, "was not created in Syracuse. It fairly reeks of the Rue de la Paix."

* * *

With the restless line behind us, we could not linger. Before we passed on, Madam Janeway greeted me with a nicely jocular familiarity. "And my legal adviser!" she said. "How kind of you to come to his reception!"

I led Lossie away, and when we were at a safe distance I said in an angry whisper, "What got into you, Lossie? An hour ago you were going to put poison in her soup. And now butter wouldn't melt in your mouth."

She looked up at me and her lip curled slightly. "Madame Janeway," she said, "is exquisite. One had but to see her to lose one's heart! Such glamour!"

"Came off it, Loss," I said testily. "What are you up to?"

"Oh, Orrin," she said girlishly, although her eyes were not girlish, but sardonic. "I want to study Madam, to pattern myself after her. To learn decorum." She was all but cooing in a sickening manner.

Soo Solon Predicts Funds for New Lock

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Rep. Victor Knox (R-Mich) says he believes the 1961 fiscal budget will include funds for a new $42,000,000 lock to replace the old Poe lock at Sault Ste. Marie.

* * *

Knox told the Sault Ste. Marie Evening News yesterday "there is every reason to believe that the budget carries a recommendation for a $1,350,000 appropriation for the start of construction of a replacement of the Poe lock at the St. Mary's Falls Canal."

President Eisenhower will present the 1961 budget to Congress next week.

AF's Missiles to Ride Rails

Studying Systems in North, Northwest for Elusive ICBM Set-Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force plans to mount inter-continental ballistic missiles on railway cars in the North and Northwest sections of the nation so it will be difficult for enemy rockets to zero in on them.

* * *

The service is studying rail systems in thise parts of the country to determine which are suitable for the missiles and what new construction might be necessary.

The elusive railroad missile units would be sort of nuclear-age big brothers of the World War I and II artillery pieces mounted on rail cars.

PLAN FOR MINUTEMAN

It has been known for some time that the Air Force was considering mounting its solid fuel Minuteman ocean-spanning missile on railroad cars.

An announcement Saturday was the first indication of where the service planned to spot the mobile missiles.

The Air Force said, "The mobile concept for the Minuteman envisions missiles mounted on railway cars which can be moved at random and should be difficult to locate by a potential aggressor."

* * *

It said the timetable for setting up the mobile missile units had not been set.

The Minuteman, which will be assembled at Ogden, is to be turned over to troops for combat use in 1962.

Britons March Against Nazism

Thousands in London Parade Along Streets, Though Wave Is Fading

By The Associated Press

Thousands of Britons who fought nazism and Italians who lived under fascism demonstrated yesterday against anti-Semitism.

The month-long wave of swastika smearings that began in West Germany and spread around the world seemed fading — as many Jewish leaders predicted it would. Only a few scattered incidents directed at Jews were reported over the weekend.

Widespread inquests into the swastika displays—whether hooligan exhibitionisms or symptoms of an organized revival of nazism —have brought forward nothing conclusive.

A British Sunday newspaper, the Empire News, said it had proof the anti-Semitic outbreaks in West Germany were inspired by Soviet agents to discredit Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government. British officials declined comment.

'HOOLIGANISM'

There have been anti - Semitic displays in Britain, too, but the newspaper did not suggest these were inspired by the Reds. Home Secretary Richard A. Butler has said the British outbreaks could be "largely attributed to irresponsible hooliganism."

★ ★ ★

Waving banners reading "We protest against nazism" and "The blood of millions cries out," thousands marched through London's half-deserted streets Sunday. The long column paraded silently to the West German Embassy, where a delegation delivered a letter describing the manifestation as a reflection of British public opinion "which holds anti-Semitism in abhorrence."

★ ★ ★

Heist Plot Scares Police

Lawford-Sinatra Movie Sparks Old Friendship

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Peter Lawford looked offended when I asked if he and his chums were simply making a home movie.

"We have a budget of $1,700,000," he retorted.

THOMAS

The whole thing has sounded like a clambake, this project known as "Ocean's 11." It involves most of the members of the so - called Clan. The Clan claims they don't call themselves that, but everyone else does. It's the tight little group that operates socially—and sometimes professionally—with Frank Sinatra as its focal point.

★ ★ ★

Sinatra, Lawford and others have long been talking about "Ocean's 11," and it's hard to believe that they're actually starting to film it in Las Vegas this week. Also in the cast are such insiders and outsiders as Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., Akim Tamiroff, Ilka Chase and, among the guest stars, Tony Curtis and George Raft.

"The whole project started on the beach four years ago," Lawford related. "I was sitting down at Santa Monica one day when a fellow told me about this story. It was dreamed up by another fellow who worked at a gas station nearby. The plot sounded terrific to me, and I asked him to put it down on paper."

The gimmick is that 11 ex - soldiers pull a mammoth heist on six Las Vegas casinos. The leader, played by Sinatra, is named Ocean, hence the title. Lawford commissioned a script and sewed up the rights for $10,000.

"I had the idea of trying to interest some top name like Bill Holden in doing it with me," Lawford said. "I never dreamed of Frank because—well, because we hadn't been speaking for nine years. We had been good friends once but got involved in some hokey misunderstanding."

Lawford tried hard but could interest no one in the project. Word of it reached Sinatra, and he was interested in the story. One night at a party he broke the ice and asked Pete about it. As their enthusiasm mounted, their friendship revived until they became close buddies again.

Sinatra bought the property for his production company, Lawford retaining a share. They own thirds of the picture, with Warner Bros. cut in for the other third. Shooting starts in Las Vegas and will finish here.

"They haven't seen the script," Lawford said slyly. "We did have a meeting with the chief of police. He was pretty shook up. The fact is that such a heist could be pulled off there, merely by switching a few wires."

There's one thing about "Ocean's 11": Everybody wants to be in it. Says Pete: "Every time I go in a restaurant, some actor tells me: 'I've got to be in your picture.' I never knew I had so many friends."

State Warns of Tab Theft

Advises Motorists to Be Sure Tiny '60 Plates Securely Fastened

LANSING (AP) — Michigan motorists were advised today to make sure their 1960 license plates are securely fixed to their old plates.

"We have received some reports that the tabs are being stolen," said Secretary of State James M. Hare. "However, it's still too soon to tell if this is going to be a real problem."

Hare said some of his branch office managers are recommending that the date tabs be attached with so-called unremovable screws.

Republicans Out to Capture Votes of Intellectuals

WASHINGTON (AP) — A drive to capture a bigger share of the egghead vote is being made by the Republican Committee.

A 35-year-old associate professor of social science, Dr. Cornelius P. Cotter, on leave from Stanford University, is in charge of the drive as assistant to GOP National Chairmon Thruston B. Morton.

Cotter said efforts are being made to interest more members of college faculties in Republican principles and enlist them aid in capturing the intellectual vote.

He said that as a whole there is no more conservative group in the country than college professors despite the widespread belief they tend to be radical and to vote Democratic.

The general belief that most professors vote Democratic, Cotter said, stems from a preponderance of registered Democrats among social science instructors who are more vocal on public issues and more politically active.

Professors in such subjects as engineering, medicine and business administration, he said, are most likely to be Republican.

Blind Student, Without Dog, Gets Law Degree

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A blind student who received international attention in 1957 when British quarantine laws forced him to do without his guide dog will receive a law degree Jan. 30.

★ ★ ★

Davis Duty, 24, and three members of his family will receive degrees from the University of Arkansas the same day.

His sister, Carolyn Banks, will receive a bachelor's degree in government. Her husband will get a master's degree in business administration. And Susan Duty, Davis' sister-in-law, will receive a bachelor's degree in education.

Develop Midget Turbo-Jet Engine

WALLED LAKE — A midget-sized turbo-jet engine which could be used by light aircraft or helicopters has been developed by the Williams Research Corp. here, it was announced today by the firm.

★ ★ ★

President of the company, Sam Williams, said the 23-pound engine approaches the thrust-per-pound ratings of larger turbo-jet engines used on commercial transports.

★ ★ ★

"One of these small engines mounted on each tip of the rotor blade would provide sufficient thrust to operate a four-seat helicopter," Williams said.

★ ★ ★

In November, the firm at 2280 W. Maple Rd., announced the development of a compact gas turbine engine about the size of a breadbox.

★ ★ ★

"It will be several years before the gas turbine goes into production," Williams said. "However, we do expect to produce several of the engines to be used for experimental purposes this year."

MARKETS

The following are top prices covering sales of locally grown produce brought to the Farmer's Market by growers and sold by them in wholesale package lots. Quotations are furnished by the Detroit Bureau of Markets, as of Friday.

Narrow, Active Trade on Market

Among key stocks, gains and losses were mostly narrow, sometimes reaching about a point.

An exception was DuPont, a higher-priced blue chip, which dropped about 2 points in a routine change. Some of the widermoving electrodes and specialty-alluated stocks also showed bigger changes.

Motorola bounced up about 4 and Texas Instruments dropped around 3. United Carbon was up 4 to 75 on an opening block of 2,500 shares.

General Tire, subject to persistent stock split rumors, advanced more than a point. Losses of about a point were taken by American Cyanamid, General Electric, International Paper and International Nickel.

Small gains and losses were the rule for most leading steels, rails, motors and chemicals. Oils were off slightly. Drugs were generally higher.

Small gains were made by Chrysler, Woolworth, Caterpillar, Raytheon, American Telephone, Pennsylvania Railroad, Merck, Schering and Pfizer.

Opening blocks included: Graham-Paige up ¼ at 3⅜ on 15,000 shares; General Motors unchanged at 51⅞ on 4,000; U.S. Industries off ¼ at 12⅝ on 3,000; and New York Central off 1 at 30 on 3,600.

Holder of a civil engineering degree from Michigan State University, he is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Birmingham and the Pine Lake Country Club.

Southfield Crash Sends Detroit Man to Hospital

Witnesses told Southfield police that Peter Dominick, 54, was heading south at about 45 m.p.h. when his car suddenly darted across the northbound lane into a tree.

He suffered fractures of both legs and lacerations of the head and face. He was unable to make a statement.

Dean Hoopes Announces First MSUO Honor Roll

Dr. Robert G. Hoopes, dean of the faculty of Michigan State University Oakland, today announced the names of outstanding scholars during the first quarter in the university's history.

Students carrying a minimum of three courses who received all grades of A were William L. Kath, a graduate of Pontiac Northern High School; Nancy J. Kelly of Rochester High School, and Nichola G. Tvietsch of Pontiac Northern High School.

Students carrying a minimum of three courses who received no grade less than a B were:

Love Triangle Hinted in Death

LSU Graduate School Dean Held in Slaying of Female Biologist

Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot said the state thought it had a plausible motive why the 39-year-old unwed biology professor was backed to death on a lonely country road.

★ ★ ★

"You have one professor and another professor and he is married," Favrot said in an interview. "There is bound to be a triangle."

Another person cited is Dr. George H. Mickey, 49, suspended dean of the Louisiana State University Graduate School. Dr. Mickey, married and the father of two children, has been charged with the slaying of Dr. McMillan, his friend for several years, who taught at LSU's New Orleans branch.

Defense lawyer Robert Kleinpeter said there was no possibility of a love affair between the two. "It was a close relationship between two scientists," he said. "Favrot is talking through his hat."

A few hours before Dr. McMillan died of 13 blows on the head, she drove into a service station with a man to buy gloves according to James S. Versen, manager of a station near the front gate of the LSU campus.

Versen is the last person known to have seen her alive. He said she and a man drove into his station between 6:45 and 8 p.m. Jan. 9. Her death was placed at 12:45 the next morning.

The day after Mickey's arrest, Favrot said the dean was arrested when the state found his alibi for the night of Jan. 9 was without foundation.

Also, Favrot said, "spots of fresh human blood of the same type as that of the deceased" were found on Mickey's car.

News in Brief

Assorted items valued at about $40 were stolen by thieves who broke into the Holden Trading Stamp Co. Store, 600 W. Huron St., Saturday, according to Pontiac Police.

An undetermined amount of money was stolen from a vending machine by thieves who broke into Rawlins Standard Service, 1073 Joslyn Ave., early this morning, said police.

The G. and E. Gulf Station at 3298 Pontiac Lake Rd., Waterford Township, was entered last night, and the cigarette machine was emptied of money and cigarettes.

Donnie Norton, of 372 S. East Blvd., told Pontiac Police Sunday that someone broke into his home and stole $18 in cash, a wedding ring and wrist watch.

A burglar entered the apartment of Bennie Patton, 226 Prospect St., Sunday, and stole a record player, according to city police.

Broadway Jog Caused by Barkeeper's Tree

NEW YORK (UPI)—It was a cherry tree that put the jog in world famed Broadway.

Researchers of the Davey Tree Expert Co., Kent, Ohio, say that city officials curved the street around the tree when its tavern keeper owner objected to cutting it down.

Officials believed the city would never extend that far north anyway. The tree stood at 10th street.

Shotgun Talks Louder Than Money in Howell

The two, each carrying shotguns, walked into the tavern, near Fenton, about 12:20 a.m. and told Mrs. Eleanor Shaw, the operator, to hand over the money. Thinking she recognized one, Mrs. Shaw declined until one fired a blast into a mirror.

The pair walked out with $30.

Trouble Compounds

TOLEDO, Ohio (UPI)—Miffed when he found a parking ticket on his car, Lawrence Ricks, 20, threw it in the street. A patrolman saw him and Ricks had to pay $7 court costs for littering in addition to his $5 illegal parking fine.

2 City Grocers Figures in State Group Changes

Card of Thanks 1

SPECIAL THANKS TO ALL our relatives, friends and neighbors, priest of St. Michael's, and Sparks-Griffin Funeral Directors, for all the kindness shown to our family during the sudden bereavement of our husband and father, Joseph Metzger. Wife and family.

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR SINcere thanks and appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved daughter, Debra Ann Brown. We especially thank the Rev. Leo LeLonde for his consoling words. Also thanks for the flowers and money and the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home, and all who helped in any way. Mr. & Mrs. Norris Brown and Family.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHARlie Thomas Young, who passed away so suddenly 2 years ago, January 17, 1958.

Sadly missed by Mom, Dad and Brother, Mr. & Mrs. Edmond Young.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Brother, Ralph Wood, who passed away 1 year ago January 16, 1960. You did us not farewell

You said goodby to none.

Your loving heart had ceased to beat

Before we knew you were gone

God saw a tired face and weeping

And the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyes

And whispered peace be thine.

IN LIVING MEMORY OF DAvid Lee Hall, who passed away Jan 18, 1958.

We do not forget you

We love but we don't

For in our hearts you are dear.

From our lives like a dream

Our love, memory remains

When our hearts memory sincerely;

Where it seldom is seen

Sadly missed by Husband & Family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MRS. belle McMichael, who passed away Jan. 18, 1956.

A messenger knocked at your door

THE FACT IS!

It's the wonderful hospitalization plan that gives you Absolute Guaranteed Lifetime Renewal Privilege. Yet American National's guaranteed renewable hospital and surgical plan for you and your family costs far less than you would expect to pay. This is a brand new idea in hospitalization protection. Many policies permit the company to refuse renewal at the company's option. Result: You merely rent protection for a period of time. If the company decides not to renew your "Rent" you are without protection. Under American Nationals plan only you can cancel. Regardless of the number of times you renew your policy. Within the grace period renewal is automatic with payment of your premium . . . check the terrific features of this revolutionary plan against your present policy . . . and then ask yourself if it wouldn't be wise to investigate permanent protection.

MARILYN'S NEW PAL — What a surprise! Marilyn Monroe gave a party yesterday (not unusual). She was on time (quite unusual)! The well-attended affair was her way of introducing new costar Yves Montand. He's a French actor, replacing Gregory Peck in Marilyn's forthcoming movie. The title? "Let's Make Love." Peck quit after arguments with the studio.

Expect Seaway Loss for 1960

Ike Asks $30 Million to Deepen Channels in State—Work Is Started

WASHINGTON (AP)—The St. Lawrence Seaway, which opened last April, is expected to operate at a loss of $2,359,000 for the year starting July 1.

President Eisenhower in his budget message to Congress, said it is expected that operating deficits will result until such time as ship traffic increases.

However, he said, the toll rates have been established at a level which will repay all costs of the Seaway within 50 years, including any deficit during the developmental period.

The accumulated net loss, or deficit, including operation during the current fiscal year, is expected to total about five million dollars by June 30, 1961.

The U.S. portion of the Seaway was constructed by the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. The total construction cost of the U.S. share, excluding interest during construction, is estimated at $123,400,000. Work completed by June 30, 1960, is estimated to have $120,800,000, and work to complete the project during the year starting July 1 is estimated at $2,600,000.

$7,100,000 FOR 1960

The expense of operation, including depreciation and interest for the 1960 fiscal year is estimated at 7,100,000. Shipping toll revenue for 1961 is expected to total $4,700,000.

Eisenhower recommended an appropriation of 30 million dollars for the year starting July 1 to continue deepening of the connecting channels of the Great Lakes to provide a 27-foot depth all the way to Lake Superior.

This work, all within the state of Michigan, is being done by the Army Engineers and is paid for by the government. This money will not be repaid.

The channel deepening, when completed during 1962, will make a 27-foot depth available to shipping to coincide with the same draft in the seaway and permit ocean-going ships to move throughout the Great Lakes. The Army engineers are expected to spend about 25 million dollars on the channel during the present fiscal year.

★ ★ ★

The Seaway work consists of a 10-mile canal, two locks and navigation channels in the 46-mile International Rapids section of the St. Lawrence River, and channel related work in the 68-mile Thousand Islands section.

Senate Starts Probe Into Negro Voting

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Rules Committee launched hearings today on the controversial proposal that the President be authorized to name federal registrars to guarantee Negro voting rights.

★ ★ ★

Committee Chairman Thomas C. Hennings (D-Mo) summoned Robert G. Storey, vice chairman of the Civil Rights Commission which advanced the proposal, as the first witness.

The commission proposed that the President name federal officials, such as district court clerks, to register prospective voters on the basis of verified complaints of at least nine individuals that they were unable to register and vote in a particular voting district.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga), top strategist of the Southern bloc, charged the proposal would be unconstitutional.

Cubans Hear Pleas of Alleged Plotters

HAVANA (UPI)—The first 19 of 140 alleged invasion plotters to come before a military court here pleaded innocent over the weekend. The pleas of other defendants probably will be heard today.

The pro-government "Second Front of Escambray," former armed supporters of Premier Fidel Castro's revolution, demanded yesterday that nine of the defendants be sentenced to death.

The nine are the alleged invaders who flew a plane to Trinidad, Cuba, last August and shot it out with government troops lying in wait for them there. Three soldiers were killed.

Maj. William Morgan, a former American who was second in command of the Escambray group, is expected to be the star witness for the prosecution at the trial. He was not present at the opening session of the trial, however, nor did he sign the statement demanding the death penalty.

New Members of Farm Bureau Will Be Honored

GOODISON — Members who joined the East Orion Farm Bureau during the yearly drive just completed will be honored at a special meeting in the Oakland Township Hall Thursday evening.

A cooperative supper will be served at 7 p.m., after which the business meeting will take place. Special activities are planned for the recreation period to follow.

On the committee in charge of the meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chamberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Storm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Voll.

U.S. Merchant Ships Seen in Bad Shape

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Most American merchant ships are "nearly over age" and deteriorating so badly they are losing the cold war trade battle, a private research group reports.

A nine-man panel of the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council released a report last night that warned the Communist world's merchant fleet is being modernized and probably will be three and a half times larger by 1965.

The group, headed by Adm. Arthur W. Radford (ret.), former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said U. S. ships are carrying a "steadily decreasing" share of foreign trade.

The government should enlist the cooperation of management and unions, it added, for a determined effort to build a faster class of cargo vessels, including an experimental aluminum ship and others with automation features, to meet the challenge of the Communist fleet.

Tell Filing Deadline for Rochester Council

ROCHESTER — The deadline for filing nominating petitions for the four posts open on the Rochester Village Council this spring is noon Saturday.

★ ★ ★

According to Village Clerk Maxine Ross, more than eight petitions are needed to hold a primary election in the village Feb. 15.

★ ★ ★

Sports to Be PTA Theme at Troy Fathers Night

TROY—Sports will be the theme of the "Fathers' Night" program at the Johnson Niles Schools PTA meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Explorer Scouts will close the program.

Second grade room mothers will serve pizza pie following the meeting.

Supt. Watt to Address Avondale Band Boosters

LeRoy R. Watt, superintendent of the Avondale Schools, will be guest speaker at the Avondale Band Boosters' meeting at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in the high school.

Winter Practice Begins for Hot Stove League

BY EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The Hot Stove Baseball League met the other morning, and while Pitcher Whitey Ford and Catcher Yogi Berra were gesticulating, Toots Shor barked at Ford: "Take your hand off my arm! Ford replied: 'You have no arm. You're all body."

WILSON

Then Yogi challenged Toots to name five ways a player can get on first base without making a hit. Toots named four (base-on-balls, hits batsman, interference, and dropped-third strike) — and then stopped to deliberate. "Becoming a pinch base-runner," exclaimed Yogi happily, while Toots cried: "Foul!"

One they didn't ask was: How can a pitcher give six hits without a man getting on base? A: Playing the Bloomer Girls.

The Waldorf ordered beauteous bare-tummied Gale Sherwood (in the Nelson Eddy act) to cover up—so she wore a mink coat complete with hood the other night. (She didn't have to cover her midriff, the rhinestone-removing spot, however.

Earmark $3.3 Million for Salt Water Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The administration proposed today to spend $3,395,000 on its Saline water conversion program in fiscal 1961.

So far, construction funds have been spent only on the Freeport, Tex., pilot plant. But the new budget sought $1,500,000 (m) for construction work on the second demonstration unit at San Diego, Calif.

Wants Somebody to Plug Mining Tax Loophole

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today he wants Congress or the Supreme Court to close a tax loophole to prevent some segments of the mining industry from enjoying "unintended" benefits.

The problem arises from the percentage depletion allowance which mining operators are permitted to deduct in computing their taxable income. The allowance traditionally has been computed as a percentage of the value, or gross income from sale of the mineral.

Catholics Begin Prayer for Return to Rome

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Catholics today began an eight-day period of prayer "for the return of all separated Christians to the unity of the Catholic Church."

The period of prayer, which is observed annually from Jan. 18 to Jan. 25, is known as the "Chair of Unity Octave."

The title underscores the Catholic belief that Christian reunion can be achieved only when members of all churches accept the authority of "St. Peters Chair" — the Papal throne in Rome.

Computer Plots Flights to Relieve Pilot Burden

NEW YORK (UPI) — A flight computer that automatically plots crosscountry flight plans within minutes is helping to run one of the nation's new jet air services.

Developed by scientists at Bendix Aviation Corp., the electronic computer selects the fastest and most comfortable passenger routes for United Air Lines flights and relieves pilots of much paper computation work.

Parker, 35, and Miss Rinehart, 31, will wed at the nearby Montecito Presbyterian church. It will be the first marriage for each.

'Arrowsmith' Not Full, but Still Skillful Work

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI)—The unforgettable Sinclair Lewis novel, "Arrowsmith," was translated into a moving, skillful TV play last night.

The CBS-TV Du Pont Show of the Month, adapted by Phil Reisman Jr., couldn't touch upon all of the turns in Lewis' story about the very human, dedicated medical scientist, Dr. Martin Arrowsmith.

(The back-of-the-hand that Lewis gave to various trends in our society were crowded out of the teleplay, as were those encounters with "men of measured mortimeat"—Lewis forerunners of modern-day hucksters.)

Still, I found it a satisfying production. It moved quickly under Director Alex Segal's control, showed discretion, feeling and a high degree of artfulness as it portrayed highlights from the book.

I can even forgive the curious ending, which managed to be faithful to the spirit of the book even while being unfaithful to the story.

I was happy with Farley Granger's performance as Arrowsmith, Oscar Homolka as Sondelius and Diana Baker as Leora.

Viewers of "One Loud, Clear Voice" were reunited with the cant of political conventions last night, about six months before the caucus rooms start filling with smoke.

The NBC-TV Sunday Showcase drama by Roger O. Hirson broke the news that political reformers also make their deals with political bosses as they get into the fight.

Said the political boss, played by Joseph Sweeney, "Nobody gets anywhere in politics unless he pays for it, somewhere, somehow."

This axiom, which seems too true at times, was served up amid unrealistic attitudes and too many stylized, stereotyped situations and characterizations.

DIALING AND FILING: "Call Me Back," Tony Webster's drama about the agonies of a life-battered alcoholic, starred Art Carney, acting solo, on NBC-TV Saturday.

Occasionally, Carney caught moments of intense tragedy, but these were frequently diluted by the show's inappropriately speedy, unchanging pace and the sketchiness of the character's background.

It was, however, an interesting display of dramatic ingenuity that just missed being daring.

And then there was a Jerry Lewis special on Saturday., Anything Lewis does on TV in the future has got to be an improvement.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The Freedom Explosion," an hour-long look at Nigeria's preparations for independence, is the subject of a CBS Reports special for Monday, Feb. 15 . . . Theodore Bikel brings his international folk songs to the Pat Boone Show on ABC-TV Thursday, Jan. 28 . . . Betsy Palmer will take over the CBS-TV panel show, I've Got a Secret, on Wednesday, Feb. 3, while bossman Garry Moore vacations.

Nazi Goes on Trial for 28 War Murders

MUNICH (UPI) — A 51-year-old former S.S. (Nazi Elite Corps) guard went on trial today, charged with some of wartime Germany's most brutal concentration camp crimes.

The defendant, Richard Bugdalle, will face a stream of 70 witnesses, some of them inmates whom he allegedly beat and tortured while he was a guard at the infamous Sachsenhausen camp.

Bugdalle is charged with 28 murders from 1937 through 1942. His trial climaxes two years of investigation and is expected to last at least four weeks.

It is expected to be one of the most sensational trials in the rush of proceedings scheduled before the 1965 deadline for war crimes prosecutions.

Among the crimes with which Bugdalle is charged are beating inmates to death, pouring them with water and forcing them outside in freezing weather, locking them in a closet where five suffocated, and having them shot.

Witnesses are expected to recount Bugdalle's "water tortures," one of which was directing a powerful stream of water against a prisoner's throat or chest until he died.

TV, Film Scripting Halts for Strike

The 3,000-member Writers Guild of America called the strike this weekend against all major motion picture studios and an alliance of television film producers, but the guild has no immediate plans to picket the film companies.

Some 435 writers at work on TV assignments and 90 scripting movies are affected by the dispute. It was the first such strike called by the writers since the guild was formed in 1933.

A guild spokesman said there was no immediate threat to film production but a tie-up could result if the strike extended over a period of weeks.

The key issues involve payment to writers for post-1948 movies sold for viewing over television and plans for compensation from films shown on pay television if that comes into existence.
