Phantom Sniper Tells Own Story in Exclusive Interview

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

Fate placed a psychiatrist, a psychologist and a minister in the life of 20-year-old Gary Taylor who shot at more than a dozen women in Oakland County since December, 1956.

But none of these men were able to prevent the admitted "phantom sniper" from terrorizing four communities in the dark of night with a .22 caliber rifle. Two shots found their mark. Both victims were young girls.

"My folks took me to see a psychiatrist at Ford Hospital in Detroit when I was just a kid," said the factory worker. "My parents didn't think anything was really wrong with me. It's just that I could never remember things. I was always daydreaming. I'd leave the house and forget to close the front door. Things like that.

"When I was in the psychiatrist's office I wouldn't cooperate. I tore up a report he had on his desk and acted like a bratty kid. My folks decided I would grow out of it and never took me back to see him.

"I'd like to explain one thing," Taylor said earnestly. "I've always had a happy homelife. My folks gave me every break and more opportunities than most kids. I know I had it a lot better than the guys in here," he said pointing to the cells behind him.

Taylor was brought up in Ann Arbor until the third grade when his family moved to Howell. He spent his freshman year in high school at Howe Military Academy in Howe, Ind. He was 15 when he came back after that year and got a summer job in the kitchen of a Pinckney camp for underprivileged children.

The director of the camp was a psychologist. He fired Taylor for encouraging the children to do mischief. Taylor went to talk to him the day before he left.

"That's when I first realized I had a problem," said Taylor. "I thought the little things I did up till then didn't amount to anything. But then the psychologist explained things to me. He said I was headed for real serious trouble."

Taylor said he then tried to enlist in the Marine Corps with "phony ID" to straighten himself out. The psychologist discovered the plan and sent for Taylor's father, Milo. The elder Taylor was not told of the interview. He took the boy back to Howell to finish school.

Taylor quit school at 17 when he was a senior. He joined the Navy "because I thought it was the answer to my wildest dreams."

"I didn't get along in school and I was restless," Taylor said. "I made the underwater demolition team as a frog man. Qualifying for that was rugged. I think that was probably my greatest achievement in life.

"Then something fouled up my orders. They sent me on a cruise of the Caribbean on a tanker. I lost interest in the Navy and tried to get out. They kept me in a hospital for 2½ months for migraine headaches. I finally got out on a medical discharge after only being in the Navy 11 months.

"When I got out, my folks had moved again and I met them in St. Petersburg, Fla. I went back to high school on the GI Bill and

Schedule Mental Examination

Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, Superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, will conduct a psychiatric examination of Gary A. Taylor this weekend in Oakland County Jail, Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem announced today.

The test was requested by Taylor's attorney, Gilbert Davis of Royal Oak, Ziem said. If the results point to insanity, he said, they could be used as the basis of a petition calling for a Circuit Court sanity hearing.

Defense Aide Ross Quits His Job

Denies Wrong in Helping Out Family Firms

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — Assistant Defense Secretary Robert Tripp Ross has resigned his post but stoutly protests his innocence of charges that he used his position to help his family's income.

Ross, whose resignation was accepted by President Eisenhower last night, said "derogatory implications" concerning his personal finances forced him to quit.

He will leave as the Pentagon's director of public information and legislative liaison Feb. 20.

The Ross resignation followed a closed-door Senate investigation Thursday into any connection he may have had with an Army contract for $834,000 worth of windproof trousers awarded to a firm headed by his wife, Claire Wynn Ross.

Ross took a leave of absence from his post Jan. 11. He then insisted that he had cut off all connection with his wife's firm, Wynn Enterprises, Inc., when he ran for Congress in 1952.

He also denied reports that he was still listed as an official of his brother-in-law's firm, Southern Athletic Enterprises, Inc., after he joined the Defense Department in 1953.

These denials were seconded by Deputy Defense Secretary Reuben B. Robertson in an open letter sent to Eisenhower with Ross' resignation yesterday.

Robertson said that the Pentagon's general counsel had investigated and found no evidence that Ross "violated any of the conflict-of-interest statutes" or "personally profited" from military contracts.

White House News Secretary James C. Haggrty said at the President's vacation retreat in Thomasville, Ga., that the chief executive had not requested the resignation.

The President thanked Ross for his services to the government and expressed appreciation for the concern he showed in the interest of the Defense Department.

Ask School Tax Increase; Would Ask Full Millage

A school tax increase loomed today as the Board of Education began consideration of a record $7,535,324 operating budget proposed last night by the administration for 1957-58.

For the first time, Superintendent Dana P. Whitmer said, the board has been asked to levy the full 8.75 mills approved by voters three years ago.

This means an increase of 2.49 mills on state equalized valuations he said, mainly to meet salary and price increases. The proposal allows for teacher raises of $250,000. This compares with $333,315 last year.

Otherwise, the budget calls for holder per-pupil spending at the existing level, Whitmer explained.

The underlying reason behind the tax increase, however, is the program, Whitmer said.

Of the 8.75 voted millage, 6.501 mills are scheduled to pay off past bond issues and bond issues to finance this year's building program.

According to long-range financial planning, the board will continue to levy the full 8.75 voted increase until it expires in 1965. This year's budget and financial planning through 1956 are based on the assumption the County Allocation Board will continue to levy 10 mills for the schools, bringing the total tax rate up to 18.75 mills.

The board will discuss raises with teachers March 5. A protest is possible because raises are scheduled to be cut this year.

Last year teachers asked for $1,109,770 in raises. Their request was cut by more than two-thirds.

The board's position generally has been that large salary increases will interfere with the building program.

Board members last night heard that the proposed budget already has been trimmed by some $379,569 from departmental requests.

Final action on the budget is expected in April.

Williams Urges School Aid Plan

Dip Into General Fund to Help Poor Districts Is Governor's Plea

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams today urged a 1957-58 state school aid plan that would give so-called poorer districts a larger cut in an expanded aid fund.

He called for supplementing sales tax monies earmarked for local grade and high schools with general fund revenues in the amount of at least 17 million dollars in the fiscal year starting July 1, and on a rising scale thereafter.

In a special message to the legislature, Williams repeated an earlier recommendation for dipping into the general fund to help schools get through the present school year.

But he said it is still too early to determine what the amount should be. Estimates of others mostly have hit in the neighborhood of 20 million dollars.

Williams asked an aid formula based on $195 a child and deductible millage of 2-¾ outstate and 2 mills in Detroit. This year, help is being apportioned on the basis of $190 a child and deductible millage of 2½.

Loss of Damage Suit, Arrest, No Valentine!

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It may have been St. Valentine's Day for most folks, but yesterday was a great big headache for Edgar J. Watt.

A jury ruled against him in the $225,000 damage suit he had filed. Then, at the conclusion of the trial he was arrested.

Watt's suit grew out of injuries he suffered when he was shot while fleeing after stealing gasoline from a truck. He charged that the owner used "unreasonable force" in protecting his property.

Watt was convicted of attempted theft and placed on probation.

'Low Growl' at 1 Is Friday Testing of 3 CD Sirens

That "low growl" you might have heard this afternoon at 1 was the result of the first weekly mechanical testing of the city's three Civil Defense air raid sirens.

Robert A. Stierer, assistant CD director, said the sirens will be put through similar tests each Friday to "know on a weekly basis, instead of a monthly basis, whether the sirens are functioning properly."

He said the "full blast" tests of all three will continue to be held the first Saturday of each month.

Entries are going up. This week we received 10,284, plus 15 that were disqualified in envelopes and 107 that came in too late. The chances of a winner go up with the number of entries, so be sure to have yours among the entries on Tuesday.

Ike Plans to Extend Georgia Vacation

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower is enjoying his trip to South Georgia so much he is going to stay longer than was indicated earlier.

He may not return to Washington until about Feb. 24, two days in advance of the start of conferences there with French Premier Guy Mollet.

Just about every day he tackles official papers flown from Washington. He has conferred by telephone at least once each day with Secretary of State Dulles on the Middle East situation.

Plan New Talks as Dock Strike Hits Stalemate

East Coast Tie-Up Idles 45,000, Costs Industry $3,000,000 per Day

NEW YORK (AP) — The outlook for an end to the Northeast Coast waterfront strike continued to teeter between optimism and dispair as new talks were set for today.

Since the start of the strike last Tuesday there have been alternate flurries of hope and pessimism emanating from mediators, employers and the striking independent International Longshoremen's Assn.

Yesterday was no exception. High hopes early in the day lapsed into an impasse. Later federal mediator Robert H. Moore said the parties were within "kissing distance."

But last night, after negotiations recessed, the union appeared to take a dim view of what the employers termed their "final offer."

Meanwhile a survey of the struck ports — from Portland, Maine, to Hampton Roads, Va.—showed the walkout by 45,000 longshoremen was costing shipping and allied industries about three million dollars a day.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad prepared yesterday to lay off 2,000 to 2,500 employes in a few days because of the embargo on freight shipments to the docks, already heaped with idle cargo.

In Philadelphia, the Reading Railroad said it had furloughed about 300 employes because of the dock strike. The road employs some 14,500.

In Baltimore, 5,000 longshoremen collect their final paychecks today until the walkout ends. They already have lost about $150,000 in wages.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said the government was deeply concerned about the situation but had no immediate plans for seizure of the piers or other administrative action.

Roy Reuther Assails Profit Spiral in U. S.

Roy Reuther, a top UAW union official, here yesterday challenged President Eisenhower and his administration to investigate corporation profits "instead of pointing the finger at labor" in moves to cut increasing government budgets.

"President Eisenhower talks about the wage price spiral," Reuther said, "but what about the profit form of spiral."

Reuther, coordinator of the Political Action Committee (PAC) of the International UAW, was guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Waldron Hotel. He is also administrative assistant to his brother, Walter P., UAW president.

"If you, the businessmen of Pontiac, keep turning your head away from corporate profits, you're just shutting off your own water."

Reuther said that while "Eisenhower is putting all the blame on labor, where we don't believe it belongs," he "ignored the fact that corporations like General Motors, had a profit in the first nine months of 1955 equal to $2.93 per hour for every hour worked by factory workers in all U. S. plants."

78 PER CENT PROFIT

He added that during that same year, General Motors' profits were 78.9 per cent of its own net worth.

"We have asked for a Congressional investigation into this whole thing," the speaker said.

Federal Cut Back Order May Delay Post Office

Congressman William S. Broomfield confirmed today that a government order to cut back construction to reduce inflationary pressures may temporarily affect the proposed new post office building for Pontiac.

"I am checking with the Post Office department to see if the Pontiac construction will be affected, but right now it looks like all new post offices will be delayed," Broomfield said.

The new building was announced in 1956, and plans are currently being approved. A West Huron street site between Chippewa and Genesee has been acquired.

Broomfield, who is a member of the Public Works Committee, said hearings on the proposed cutbacks would be held in the House and Senate in the next few days.

Broomfield emphasized that the cutback would not halt work on the plans. He said the order came simultaneously from the Treasury Department, Bureau of the Budget, and the General Services Administration.

The new building was scheduled after a survey revealed inadequate mail handling space and mail vehicle loading in the present down town building, which will remain in service after the new building is completed.

Broomfield said he was also requesting a complete survey of the mail service throughout Oakland County.

Pontiacs Sweep Three Events at Daytona

Stock Car Hits 134 Miles an Hour

Pontiacs swept their third event Thursday in the NASCAR Speed Week events at Daytona Beach, Florida, by placing first and second in their class in the standing start acceleration tests and first, third and sixth in the Grand National qualifications trials for the main race that will be run Sunday.

In the standing start acceleration one-mile test, a Pontiac driven by J. Stonebreaker averaged 84.4 miles per hour. Another Pontiac driven by Joe Littejohn averaged 83.4 miles per hour.

These two speeds took first and second place for class six automobiles which are cars with 305 to 350 cubic inch displacement engines.

In the qualification trials for Sunday's Grand National race, a Pontiac won first place in the starting line-up by averaging 134 miles per hour. It was driven by Banjo Williams. Third place was won by Cotton Owens, whose Pontiac averaged 133.8 miles per hour in the qualification trial.

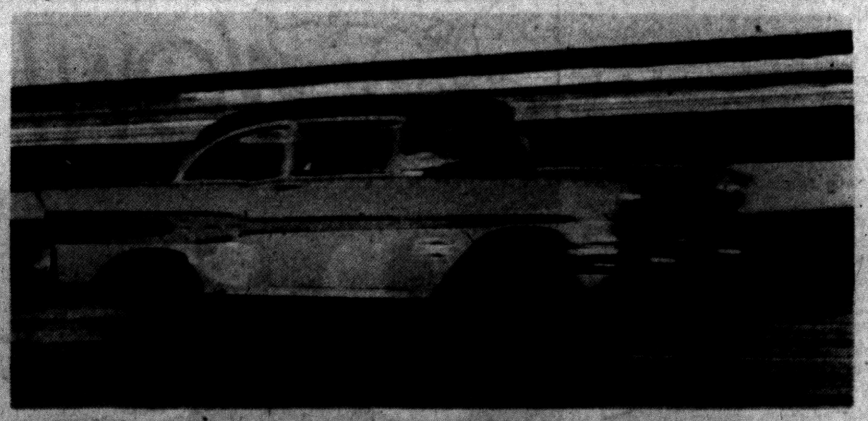

This was the third event of the Speed Week activities in which 1957 Pontiacs have taken top positions. On Wednesday, three Pontiacs won the top three places in their class for the Flying Mile Speed tests.

Bob Reuther, behind the wheel of a souped up 1938 Plymouth which qualified at a blistering 150.250 miles per hour, held the favored pole position in NASCAR's 125-mile race for sportsman and modified autos today.

Reuther's qualifying time yesterday bettered the old record by more than 12 m.p.h. He also outpaced Tim Flock, defending champion, holder of the old qualifying record and No. 2 qualifier, by almost 14 m.p.h.

Other top qualifiers include Marvin Panch and Fireball Roberts, both of Daytona Beach, and Nero Steptoe of Albany, Ga. Panch hit 134.128 m.p. yesterday; Roberts 131.965; Steptoe 128.940.

Cherry Pie Title Goes to Girl, 17, From Cadillac

A 17-year-old Cadillac girl was chosen Michigan's 1957 Cherry Pie Baker in Grand Rapids today. Kathleen Sink won out over 64 other contestants who were county champions.

Oakland County's representative Judy Crawford of Milford, did not place in the top eight.

The winner receives a $200 scholarship and an opportunity to represent Michigan in the national contest Feb. 21 in Chicago.

Kathleen hopes to study home economics in college and become a teacher.

Second place winner is Sandra Maltby, 16, of Bellaire, in Antrim County, while third place goes to Mary Garlick, 17, of Sanilac County.

The contest is sponsored by the Michigan Canners and Freezers Assn., Michigan Cherry Producers Assn., and the Michigan Cherry Commission.

Another Pro Grid League in Offing

BALTIMORE (AP) — A move to organize a new professional football league was launched today.

The backer of the plan, Millard T. Lang, 44-year-old president of the Baltimore Rockets of the American Soccer League, has written letters to the mayors of 16 cities, inviting them to participate in the organization of the league.

The league, he said, would be incorporated today as the United States Football League, Inc.

The initial plan calls for a northern division consisting of Baltimore, New York, Buffalo, Boston, Cincinnati, Detroit, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The southern division would have Miami, Atlanta, New Orleans, Louisville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Houston and Dallas.

Lang said he had not discussed the plan with Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League or with any NFL officials.

'Clay' in Cellar Is Fossil 320 Million Years Old

MILTON, Pa. (AP)—It took nine years and a television program to arouse John Reich's curiosity about that piece of clay he uncovered while digging his cellar.

Reich said he sent the fossil to the museum after seeing one of its films on television.

New Giant 'Spacemaster' Flies 200,000-Pound Load

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Air Force has announced that it is building a cargo plane of "unprecedented dimension" that will have twice the carrying capacity of the 10-engine B36 bomber.

The new plane, largest heavier-than-air flying craft ever to come from the drawing board, will be able to transport 200,000 pounds of freight.

By comparison, a cargo version of the B36, designated the C99, lifts 100,000 pounds. The largest transport in regular service, the C124 "Globemaster," has a capacity of 74,000 pounds.

The Air Force did not release the actual dimension of the new plane, which is designated the C132 and is being built by Douglas Aircraft Co. at Tulsa, Okla. But it said:

460 MILES PER HOUR

"Operating with a 100,000 pound payload (half its maximum), the aircraft will have a range of 3,500 miles at a speed of more than 460 miles per hour. Maximum takeoff weight of the aircraft is more than half a million pounds.

"Each of the four engines will produce 15,000 shaft horsepower. Supporting the huge aircraft will be a main landing gear of 16 giant wheels in tandem on each side of the fuselage."

The gross weight of the C99 is 320,000 pounds, and its engines by comparison produce only 3,500 horsepower. The modified B36, of which only one has been built, has a speed of approximately 300 miles per hour.

The Air Force said the new sky giant will be able to operate from runways of conventional lengths and construction, "despite enormous loads," and can be loaded from present day ramps.

NAMED SPACEMASTER

The extensive, 16-wheel undercarriage will so distribute the weight that runways will not be torn up. The plane also will have a "dual nose wheel" at the front to help distribute weight before takeoff.

The flying freight car may be known as the "Spacemaster." It is regarded as the successor of the "Globemaster," also built by Douglas. More than 100 "Globemasters" are in service.

The C99 has a capacity to carry 400 armed men, which would indicate that the new plane could transport 700 or 800 men at least at low altitudes. However, the Air Force listed no troop-carrying capacity for its new giant, and said not all of the cargo space will be pressurized to permit human occupancy at high altitudes.

Merchants Set Meeting Date

To Form Organization as Promotional Group for Business

A temporary 15-member board of directors for a new downtown merchants' association, will meet Monday to formulate an organizational program.

Monroe M. Osmun, temporary chairman, said another meeting is slated for March 6 at which time it is hoped the proposed board of directors will be ratified by potential members of the association.

The association is proposed to be a promotional group for downtown merchants. It will be composed of businessmen, professional men, and downtown property owners, in addition to merchants, Osmun said.

other thing to do something about it."

Reuther also hurled attacks at automation as the cause of lowering family incomes.

CUT LABOR NEED

He cited an example in a Flint factory where one machine reportedly replaced 500 workers. "They tell us this (automation) will increase productivity 53 per cent," he said, "but at the same time this reduced labor requirements 36 per cent."

The speaker said there were 35 million families in 1955 that had incomes ranging from $1,000 to $4,000. "Gentleman, these people are not your customers," Reuther said. "And automation will make the matter even worse."

He lashed out at the present U. S. economy, which, he said, faced the most serious threat of "continuing incomes with great discrepancies."

The speaker said administration plans to spend 85 per cent of the 1957 budget on defense. It is not going to "stop Communism with a bunch of slogans," he added.

He defined the union's stand on automation as the belief that "as technology develops, there ought to be a decrease in the price of a commodity."

Reuther criticized the people's "failure" to stress civil rights more than during Brotherhood Day.

He encouraged raising the standard of living in this country, and sending specialists in different fields abroad, as means to stop the flow of Communism.

Gromyko Takes Shepilov's Job

Shepilov took the foreign minister's job last June, succeeding V. M. Molotov. He returns to his old position as one of the eight secretaries of the powerful Communist Party Central Committee.

Shepilov always has been regarded as a protege of Communist boss Nikita S. Khrushchev. Gromyko has been considered a protege of Molotov.

Western observers said the reshuffle indicates a return to the old Molotov line in Soviet foreign policy. The Molotov line was a tough one. The Khrushchev policy plugs the theme of peaceful coexistence.

As a secretary of the Communist party Central Committee, Shepilov rejoins the other secretaries headed by Khrushchev, who has the title of first secretary.

Molotov now leads the Soviet committee of state control. He also is a first deputy premier.

Shepilov is a former editor of Pravda and an interpreter of the party line. He outlined Soviet foreign policy this week before the Supreme Soviet session just ended.

Judge Moore Fired by Board

Farmington Terminates Consultant Work on Water System

The Farmington Township Board last night voted unanimously to discontinue the services of Judge Arthur E. Moore of Pontiac, as special legal advisor to the board.

Judge Moore was retained by the group two years ago to expedite a proposed water system in dry areas of the township.

A few months ago, Moore, presenting a bill for $6,000, said that he "had done all he could and felt that the project was now ready for the services of a financial consultant."

When Moore was retained the board had already been told by John E. Voght, of the Michigan Department of Health, that a financial consultant should be employed. The board then voted to set aside $2,500 for that purpose.

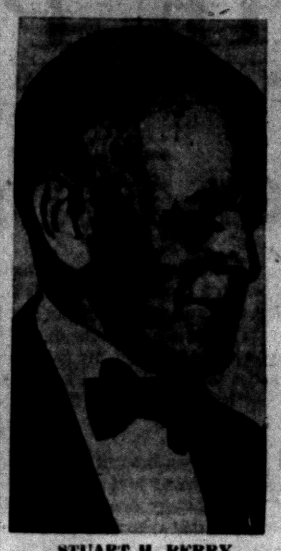

However, at the next meeting, that motion was rescinded and Moore retained.

Following Moore's dismissal, the board voted to retain the services of Claude Stevens, Oakland County bonding attorney and financial expert.

Contracts Given for Two Schools

Waterford Board OKs Lowest Bids to Build Elementary Buildings

Contracts were awarded for two new Waterford Township elementary schools at a special Board of Education meeting last night.

On a low bid of $272,830 for the 14-room William Beaumont School at Elizabeth Lake and Lockhaven Rds., the board awarded the contract to the Bundy Construction Company of Pontiac.

Next closest low bid was submitted by the Solomon Construction Company, $278,080.

The contract for the Henry R. Schoolcraft Elementary School, to be located on Maceday drive, was awarded to the McHugh Company of Pontiac. Its low bid was $269,295.

Next lowest bid of this school was $276,830, submitted by the Bundy Construction company.

The bid for a deep-well was awarded to L & L Contractors, with a base bid of $1,760.74, for the William Beaumont School.

Since water has already been installed in Schoolcraft School area, it was not necessary to have deep well bids for this building.

The McHugh Company has started work this morning on the Schoolcraft School.

The Day in Birmingham

Changes Recommended in School Administration

BIRMINGHAM—A joint meeting of the Citizen committee of Education, Board of Education and a PTA Council at Birmingham High School last night heard the former group present its recommendations for changes in the administrative section of the school system.

First recommendation was that the superintendent should be relieved of personnel work and an assistant superintendent in charge of personnel be employed.

Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent, said this action came from such instances as his interviewing one thousand four hundred teachers last year.

In connection with the teacher program, the committee also suggested that a recruitment brochure be prepared to introduce prospective teachers to what Birmingham has to offer. It was also recommended that assistant principals be obtained in schools on a teacher-population basis with one for 25 to 59 teachers and two assistants for 60 and over.

Other recommendations include employe manual, study of sabbitical leave for teachers, introduction of a formal program to evaluate personnel, salary schedule competitive to those of other school districts, and a recommendation that the 3.5 mill levy for operations be increased to six mills.

A speakers bureau, under the chairmanship of Howard Rieman has been formed. Speakers, well versed on committee report will be available for any group who cares to hear one.

Dr. Ireland said "I think the report of this committee is excellent. In fact, it is one of the best I have heard. I hope to have enough copies printed that they may be sent to other metropolitan schools and universities in the area.

Appeals Conviction in Traffic Case

Milton Taylor, 35, of 2720 Dixie Hwy. appealed the drunk driving case against him, to Circuit Court Wednesday after he was found guilty in Municipal Court and ordered to pay $100 plus 20 days in jail or 40 days.

Awaits Examination on Driving Charge

Cy Lisnov, 34, of Oak Park, was released on $500 bond, pending examination Wednesday in Municipal Court for a reckless driving charge from an accident which injured a pedestrian.

Lisnov pleaded innocent to the charge before Judge Cecil McCallum, Thursday. Complaint was signed by a witness, Jean Huntoon, 4463 Sundburst St., who stated Lisnov made an improper left turn, at a high speed and struck a pedestrian.

Edna Anna Poehlman, 48 of 126 Westway Dr. is still in Pontiac General Hospital suffering from a fractured collarbone and facial lacerations. Her condition is satisfactory. The accident occurred at South Saginaw and W. Pike Sts. Wednesday.

Your Income Tax

CHILDREN AS DEPENDENTS

In order to claim children as dependents you must provide more than one-half the support of each child claimed. In the event the child was under 19 at the end of 1956, and earned any amount of money, you can still claim him as a dependent — if you furnished over one-half of his support.

For each child under 19 that over one-half support is furnished you can claim a $600 exemption deduction. If a child earned $600 or more and provided one-half or more of his own support, he is nobody's dependent.

If a dependent was born or died during the year an exemption deduction of $600 can be claimed if the above tests are met for that part of the year in which the dependent was alive — the full $600 should be claimed.

It is not necessary that a dependent's income be added to yours — even though you are entitled to the exemption deduction.

Family Blood Bank Possible, Available Wherever Needed.

Have you ever considered the advantage to yourself of having a private blood bank for your family? That question was put to Pontiac area residents today by Mrs. A. H. Magnus, chairman of the community blood committee.

"Few people know," she said "that they can build up a private blood bank for use free by any member of their family anywhere in the United States."

When you consider that hospitals charge anywhere from $25 to $35 a pint for whole blood, depending on type, Mrs. Magnus added, it is clear that the smart family creates its own supply in advance.

She said that the Red Cross will fly the family's blood collection to any recognized hospital in the country where a member of that family is in need.

The blood given by a family is made available to local hospitals, Mrs. Magnus said, since blood will not keep more than 21 days. But the amount and type given is credited to that family and is available without charge anytime.

Donations of blood can be assigned not only to a family, but to any church, club or community.

Mrs. Magnus stressed that Pontiac hospitals are critically short of blood for emergency use. "In January," she said, "our hospitals used 772 pints of Red Cross blood, while the Red Cross only received 495 points from the public."

This deficit of 400 pints, she went on, will grow if the public does not respond better than it has during the past three months. She recalled that on Jan. 21, the Pontiac Red Cross Chapter had been forced to make an emergency appeal through press and radio to tide the hospitals over.

On Monday, the Red Cross will hold the only blood bank in Pontiac for the next 60 days, she said, urging all healthy persons, 18 through 59 years of age, to give blood.

The bank is from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake Ave., and an appointment is not necessary.

Those who wish an appointment, however, to insure no delay, she said, should call her at MI 6-1313, or contact the Red Cross, FE 4-3575, or Mrs. Dorothy Blodgett, blood recruiting chairman, FE 4-3575.

But Wright's Design Has Down-to-Earth Drawbacks

'Air House' Just Balloons Into Shape

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Frank Lloyd Wright, the architect who has tucked homes away in caves and vainly tried to preserve the American family under glass, has come out with a new house plan that may well be his piece de rediculous.

At the age of 87, he is reverting to what can only be considered an adolescent fascination for balloons. For the latest design of the sometime genius is an "Air House," which can be pulled out of a suitcase, blown up into a 25 x 45-foot, three-room manse, and sand-bagged the ground to keep its residents from floating off to heaven sooner than intended.

"Sounds like a pretty silly idea," I said to Norbert Griffin of the U. S. Rubber Company, which makes the vinyl-coated nylon fabric that Wright's house is made of.

"Fairly," said Norbert. "But you can blow it up in two minutes. It's paced right."

"What happens when the neighborhood kids, start sticking pins in it? Kids will be kids, you know."

"Oh, a gash is not too serious," assured Norbert. "You could mend it quickly with an electric heat-sealing process. Anyway, the house deflates so slowly it wouldn't hurt you. You'd just find the 'walls' sort of settling down on you — like a blanket."

JUST FOLD IT UP

"The idea is that you can fold your house into a three-feet-by-three-feet packet and stuff it in the car trunk, eh?"

"Yep, that's Wright's idea. He's unorthodox, you know."

"Then what about this sand you need to anchor the house to the ground?"

"Well," said Norbert, "that's a catch. You need fiberthin tubes, 15 feet in diameter, filled with 1,750 pounds of sand. You'd really have to have a trailer truck, it looks like, to carry your sand with you."

"And when everything's set up, you've got a living room, bedroom, kitchen and bathroom area. How about furniture?"

Norbert looked thoughtful. "There's another thing," he said. "You'd almost need an extra van for the furniture, even though you can get inflatable stuff — bathtub, couches, wall pictures, tables and all. Would take a lot of blowing, of course."

MANY STRUCTURES

The "Air House," which will be shown for the first time at the New York Coliseum in May at the Better Living Home Exposition, is close to the thousandth structure that Frank Lloyd Wright has designed in the last 60 years.

In recent years, the master of functionalism has been known for his vocal blasts against every from of architecture in sight, except his own. (When Mr. Wright takes a notion to blow off he could easily inflate an air house in record time.)

Whatever inspired him to design it, the new bubble residence will cost $6,000, not counting the extras: The furniture, trailer truck, moving van and sand.

Bomb Clinton Restaurant, Woman, Tot Hurt in Blast

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—A dynamite-laden suitcase exploded in the heart of Clinton's Negro section last night, wrecking a restaurant and slightly injuring a Negro woman and baby.

The dynamite charge, which witnesses said was placed by a white man who raced away in a car, also heavily damaged other Negro-owned property.

The blast was the area's eighth, and by far the most destructive, since Clinton High School admitted 12 Negro students under a federal court order last fall.

In the absence of concrete clues, however, officers still declined to speculate as to whether integration of the previously all-white school is connected with the series of explosions.

Police said the suitcase, which contained "several" sticks of dynamite, was placed on a concrete slab across the street from a restaurant where several Negroes were eating. The Negroes said they saw a white man stop, leave the suitcase, jump back into his car and speed away.

The woman, identified as Emma Simmons, suffered a knot on the head when hit by falling plaster; the 11-month-old girl, Jacqueline Gallaher, was cut by flying glass. Neither was believed seriously hurt.

Also damaged was a nearby sandwich shop owned by Steve Williams, father of a 21-year-old senior suspended from the integrated school on grounds he struck a white boy and threatened others with a knife Feb. 4.

PJim Loggans, reporter for the Clinton Courier-News, said the plate glass window was blown from the front of the sandwich shop. He said Williams' home was one of about 25 or 30 Negro homes in which window glass was shattered. All were within a 100-yard radius of the blast.

Two cars owned by Negroes were damaged.

"They're scared, they're bewildered and they're mad," Loggans said of the Negroes. "One of them said he's going back to North Carolina. One man said, 'I can't understand it. We're living in the United States, but we've been intimidated and threatened until we can't stand much more.'"

And in New Orleans, Negro leaders say they envision thousands of praying people marching to Washington unless President Eisenhower speaks out to the South on segregation violence.

The warning came to the President yesterday in telegrams sent by the Southern Negro Leaders Conference, headed by the Rev. Martin Luther King of Montgomery, Ala.

"This will not be a political march. It will be rooted in deep spiritual faith," he told a news conference after his group ended a two-day closed meeting.

Maybe the Jail's Heated

NEW YORK (AP) — Landlord Isaac Kaplan, 42, has been sent to jail for five days and fined $200 for failure to provide sufficient heat in his Park Avenue apartment building, where rents range up to $480 a month.

The Pacific has only about one-third the drainage area of the Atlantic because mountain ranges lie closer to most of its shoreline in North America.

Oakland County Is Discovering Itself

Never in our county's history did an outdoor sport gain as many devotees in this area within such a short time as has skiing during the last few weeks.

Never before has winter been so enjoyed by such a large number of our residents. Many have been bitten so hard by the local outdoors bug that they have cancelled their southern vacations.

Some are so enthusiastic that they are writing their relatives and friends in the south to come north and really enjoy the winter.

It all is brought about by the development of features that nature gave us, that we've had through all the generations, but really never discovered until this winter.

It has been an awakening, and while we're enjoying the present, we look forward to the future. Can the Pontiac area become one of our nation's great winter playgrounds?

Don't try to argue against the sport with anybody who has fallen for it. And we mean fallen in more ways than one. They're running over with red corpuscles or they wouldn't come back so ravenously even while still nursing their bumps, bruises, sprains and fractures.

It seems to be part of the skiing ritual that you haven't really arrived until you've used at least a gallon of liniment, worn out a few ice packs and hot water bags, won a foot race on crutches and splints, and manicured the bark of several trees out of your face.

But the most disagreeable thing is the waiting period before the injured person can get back on skis.

We have all of the potentialities for the sport in Oakland County. And those who are developing them are entitled to a lot of credit. They're adding another "great" to Oakland County.

Understanding Reached in Talks With King Saud

King Saud of Saudi Arabia was not acting on behalf of his own country alone, when he came here for talks with President Eisenhower.

Delegated by Egypt, Syria and Jordan, his mission was to find out just what the Eisenhower Doctrine implied. Turkey, Iran, Iraq and Lebanon already are in accord with its basic principles.

From the communique released by the President and King Saud at the completion of their talks it would appear that new cooperation between Middle Eastern countries and the United States is in the making. Saud's influence may lay the foundation for Middle Eastern acceptance of the Eisenhower program.

The United States is assured of a renewal for another five years of our air base lease at Dhahran and will pay for this concession in military and economic aid. Perhaps the most important part of the agreement is King Saud's full acceptance of the Eisenhower Doctrine. If he could make other Arab leaders see the doctrine as anti-imperialist, the situation in that part of the world would be eased greatly.

Both President Eisenhower and King Saud promised to work for settlement of Middle Eastern problems by peaceful and legitimate means within the framework of the United Nations. Without mentioning Communism but clearly directed at it, the communique said:

> "Any aggression against the political independence or territorial integrity of these nations and the intervention from any source in the affairs of the states of the area would be considered endangering peace and stability. Such actions should be opposed in accordance with the purposes and principles of the United Nations."

This meeting of the heads of state has led to new understanding and good will between the United States and the Arab world.

"More than 99 per cent of the people of Saudi Arabia are illiterate." — Newspaper filler. This isn't surprising, as the written Arabic language looks almost as illegible as a prescription written by a doctor while riding over a detour in a jeep.

The point has about been reached where a person who doesn't spend more than he can afford is considered a tightwad.

My non-partisan political observer,

"Neither had done their best in the 1956 campaign," he says, "and now are endeavoring to make up for their shortcomings then." He asserts that there will be more pep in the 1958 gubernatorial campaign in Michigan than there was in the 1956 presidential campaign. "And the fight on this spring's state ticket will not be lacking in fireworks," he says.

'City Schools Headed for Trouble'

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

You do not wish criticism regarding our school board. They would be in an awful financial mess if this writer had not worked his fool head off to get them the extra millage and spent a lot of personal money to do it. I had my office staff on the phone to get people to the polls.

The first millage addition, if it had not been for the turn out at Willis School district, would have lost and if it had not been for the Daniel Whitfield and Willis, the last one would have been lost again.

I have nothing personal against any board members. No one wants our children to have the very best education more than I do. But it burns me up when I see our money thrown down the drain. There is not one man on the board that knows one thing about costs of building. I have been in the construction industry all my life and have been estimating schools personally for over 40 years.

I have built the largest architectural woodworking business in the state of Michigan in the past 21 years, employing over 80 people. Today we are known among the very best architects throughout the Middle West. I was on the Board of Directors of the National Architectural Woodwork Association of the U.S. and Canada for four years. I was president of the Michigan chapter for two years. So I think I should know a little about architects and school buildings.

Pontiac's school board is being led around by the nose. Whether you like it or not, Pontiac taxpayers got hooked for at least $325,000 on the Madison Junior High, comparing Berkley Junior High, and that I can prove to anyone. Where is Pontiac heading? They are all right financially to 1960, and then what?

We are headed for financial trouble with our schools. You have a duty to the people to look at the other side of this picture, which is not so rosy. We are going to have an awful time after 1960 to get the money to operate these schools. Impractical dreamers are allowed to foster onto you and me buildings that are not only very expensive, but conventional buildings will save little money in taxes.

I am looking for no glory or my name in the paper. I don't need any. I am today financially independent. But I owe to the people whom I begged to go to the polls to get this extra millage an obligation to see that they get their money's worth. That's all I'm interested in.

Hoping you can see my side. Hope to be home again the latter of March. Florida is a nice place to be when the cold winter is had at home.

'Budget Damages Ike's Popularity'

Current polls show President Eisenhower is at the peak of his popularity right now. Think how high that peak would be if he cut five billion dollars off the budget and either applied the saving on reducing our indebtedness, or else gave us a tax cut.

Twice Victim

LI'L ONES

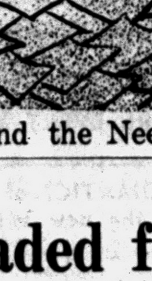

"No, no, Jerry—not that kind of can."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Diffident Dads Hedge Duty by Lying Out of Lying-In

"My husband and I agree with you fully that a man should remain at his wife's side when their children are born. However, there is a law in our state that forbids . . . ' (Mrs. M. C. J.)

I promise to send, with my compliments, the complete Pocket Cyclopedia of Health, which regularly costs $7.50, to any reader in your state or any other state in the United States or Province in the Dominion of Canada, who can prove that there is such a law.

BRADY

Even Mrs. M. C. J. seems doubtful about it, for she adds that there was no such law 14 years ago when her first child was born; her husband remained with her and he was in no one's way. The lady does not state whether the first child was born in the hospital.

In one instance I went to considerable trouble to trace this falsehood to its source I found it was trumped up by the doctor as a convenient way to discourage a naive, untutored couple from sharing the great miracle together. In another instance the lie gave the wishy-washy prospective father an easy way out of responsibility.

I believe that the presence of the husband when his baby is born greatly strengthens the marriage. It has been my observation that young husbands who rat on their wives and babies—desert them—are invariably absent at the supreme moment.

SHOW WINDOWS

These 19th Century lying-in institutions that still maintain show window nurseries for newborn infants and have "regulations' barring husbands from the delivery room, get away with many abuses which would be impossible if the husband were at his wife's side where he should be.

We described here a flagrant instance, some readers may recall: A man took his wife to the hospital and was waiting for an hour or so when the hospital people told him he might as well go home—it would perhaps be several hours—but they'd call him when the baby was about to arrive. O. K. The poor boob went home.

As soon as he was out of the way the hospital people led a whole class of student nurses to the patient and let every member of the class make a vaginal examination of the laboring woman—without bothering to ask her consent.

RISK INFECTION

They deliberately subjected the patient to unnecessary risk of infection. They invaded the patient's right to privacy. It doesn't matter whether she was a pay patient or a charity patient, the patient and her husband should have sued the hospital, doctors and nurses for heavy damages.

In view of the conduct or behavior of doctors and nurses in these 19th Century institutions day by day the objection sometimes raised against admitting the patient's husband to the delivery room—that he may contaminate the environment or carry infection to the patient—is absurd. If or when infection is carried into the delivery-room it is usually by doctor or nurse.

When an epidemic of infantile diarrhea decimates the show window nursery, it is very likely the capped, white gowned and maybe masked nurse, attending to one infant after another, for the delectation of the viewers who spreads the infection.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

David Lawrence Says:

'Water Down' Formula Could Be Big U.S. Boner

WASHINGTON—Maybe the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committee pulled an unintentional boner. They wanted to "water down" the resolution about the use of troops in the Middle East. Instead, they not only strengthened it but probably went further on the road to war than has any resolution ever passed by Congress in advance of hostilities.

LAWRENCE

The resolution, as adopted recently by the house of representatives, stated merely that the President is "authorized to undertake military assistance programs" in the Middle East and is "authorized to employ the armed forces of the United States as he deems necessary."

"But the resolution adopted by a 20-to-8 vote of the two combined senate committees says "The United States is prepared to use "its armed forces to assist any Middle East nations threatened by international communism "if the President deems it necessary."

The frist phrasing — by the House of Representatives — is simply permissive. The resolution by the Senate committees is much more of a threat. It is an announcement of a decision by Congress declaring that the executive can take such action as he deems necessary. It says "the United States is prepared to use" its armed forces. The words—"The United States" — means both the executive and congress, acting together.

It sounds more like an old-fashioned ultimatum. When, in answering a question about allied action, Dulles said he thought it would be better not to have French and British troops alongside American troops "as things are today," but he added, "I hope they change."

This was widely misinterpreted in the press abroad as a reflection on the valor of the British and French troops. A press officer at the state department promptly denied this, but the denial didn't catch up with the anti-American sentiment generated abroad by the false report.

DULLES' VIEW

Mr. Dulles said: "I spoke as I did precisely in relation to the present situation, particularly in Egypt, where due to the fact that the British and the French forces had been there as enemies fighting Arabs, and were being or had recently been withdrawn pursuant to the United Nations decision, anything indicating that they would be brought back under these present conditions would not be useful. The same reasoning led the United Nations itself, as you have pointed out, not to include British and French in the United Nations emergency force which is in Egypt at the present time . . .

"Certainly we hope very much that those conditions will rapidly change, and indeed they do not prevail throughout the whole of the area at the present time. I am glad to say. But there are parts of the area where at the moment, due to the fact that the British and French forces have been in there as hostile forces, their reintroduction at this time or the suggestion that they would be introduced would not promote the purposes of this resolution."

It will be interesting to see if those sections of the British press which printed the original misrepresentation will not now print the official text of the secretary of state's testimony just released.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? To his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.—Romans 14:4.

If we will measure other people's corn in our own bushel, let us first take it to the Divine standard, and have it sealed.—J. G. Holland.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Crane Gives His Ideas of Heaven

"Why should vigorous, healthy children and teenagers die?" is a common thought that troubles millions of intelligent people. Perhaps we subconsciously feel it is inefficient to snatch youth from this planet Earth. Read the suggested answer below. And then pass this column along to others in your area who need solace.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-305: One of you readers sent us a beautiful letter of condolence when George IV was killed in his jet plane.

"When a person gathers a bouquet of flowers from the garden," ran the thought of this little sympathy letter, "he doesn't pick the wilted and drooping flowers.

"No, he looks for the freshest and brightest blossoms. So maybe that is why God often picks babies and toddlers and other young folks."

Well, that was a beautiful thought that helped console us. And as I mulled over this idea, I decided that God doesn't wish Heaven to be simply an old people's home.

If Heaven is an extension of this earth, except on a higher plane, then it probably contains people of all ages, including babies and teenagers.

The Bible tells us that Jesus was surrounded by eager little children. He even told us that the Kingdom of Heaven is like a little child.

If that is the case, then we should expect a variety of age groups when we arrive there. Leery headed old men like Methuselah and Moses should be balanced by infants and toddlers at the other end of the age span.

"But, Dr. Crane, will we recognize our loved ones in Heaven?" many have asked me.

It seems logical that we should. We may grow in knowledge and understanding, but the personality remains essentially the same whether you meet a person at 5 or 15 or 75 years of age.

Our body is simply a convenient machine here on earth for accomplishing our purposes. It may be compared to an automobile.

When an automobile grows old or is wrecked and towed to the junk yard, that automobile is definitely not synonymous with the driver thereof.

Some new automobiles are smashed early. Others last for 10 years and are finally junked because of rust and general obsolescence.

But the automobiles are not the same as their drivers. They are like the cocoon of the butterfly, which is shed as the butterfly soars upward.

Our essential personality can go onward, just as we can drive many automobiles during a full lifetime. In Heaven we probably get a newer model, but we are still the same personality.

Our son George IV was badly crushed because his parachute failed to open. So they sealed the casket.

And that was well, for Mrs. Crane and the children preferred to remember him grinning cheerfully as he had been when he said farewell to us a few hours earlier.

He relished air planes. He said he obtained a unique peace while flying all alone and high above the clouds, for he felt nearer to God Almighty.

He told his brother Philip just a week earlier that he had lived a full life already and if anything should happen to him, to tell us that he had no regrets.

The very day of his crash, he had conducted a Boy Scout group on a tour of Glenview Naval Air Station. Then he excused himself saying:

"Fellows, I must lead a jet squadron on a little flight over to Michigan and back. But I'll return by three o'clock."

And so he did, at the head of the group, for his jet led the diamond shaped formation. And those same Boy Scouts with whom he had so patiently toured the field, stood in shocked surprise as they saw the accident.

Maybe George's time was up. Perhaps his death will set something in motion which would not have been launched otherwise.

In my Sunday school talk the next morning I said that there had been seven of us the day before and now there were only six, so that meant we should each take up an additional one-sixth of the load to make up for George's departure.

That is a moral responsibility devolving upon all of us who are left behind on this earth.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Postal Workers of County Meet

Ask Public to Support National Organization of Federal Employes

Post Office employes and other federal workers from Oakland County rallied Wednesday in Royal Oak to win public support for legislation to secure higher pay rates, better working conditions and organizations.

Some 350 postal and federal employe groups, representing federal workers in the Pontiac area, participated.

R. L. Hukka, president of Local 1766, National Federation of Post Office Clerks, told the rally that the federal workers are entitled to the same recognition from their employer as other workers.

He stressed, however, that the NFPOC constitution specifically forbids its members to strike and that "there has never been any thought of such a thing."

Federal employe organizations want a law to give them the same basic rights in the solution of grievances as those enjoyed by the average American worker today, the rally was told.

Gospel of Peace Disturbing Peace? Jury Decides No

GLENDALE, Calif (AP)—When a bus driver ordered the Rev. Samuel E. Cargill, a Los Angeles Pentecostal minister, to stop reading the Bible aloud on a crowded bus, he refused to obey.

"And as ye go, preach," the minister quoted from Matthew X, 7.

The driver, William Nathan, halted at an intersection and summoned a policeman, who arrested the minister on a charge of disturbing the peace. The Rev. Mr. Cargill denied the charge. He said he was preaching the gospel of peace.

Said Cargill: "You can't lock God up in a church."

Expert Offers Advice to Teenagers

Food Important to Be Healthy Adult

Editor's Note: The following article is the fifth in a six-part series on a new concept in weight-control—the re-education of eating habits. Writer Gaynor Maddox is assisted in today's account by Dr. Ruth M. Leverton of Oklahoma A & M, author of the book "Food Becomes You."

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEW YORK (NEA)—You've got to have heart, as the song goes. But if young people want the romance and success youth offers them they must have a tailor-made appetite, as well.

Dr. Leverton

"A tailor-made appetite is one that keeps your body strong and active yet free from unlovely excess pounds," explained Dr. Ruth M. Leverton, assistant dean of Home Economics Research at Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, and one of the outstanding scientists in nutrition and weight control.

"Weight alone isn't the whole story of our health — but it surely is a very important chapter," she stated. "It's not enough for young women—young men, too, to be figure-conscious.

"They must be figure-wise, as well. That means knowing accurately how much and what kinds of food they need daily for growth, stamina and eye-appeal.

"Feeling sorry for herself never made an obese girl more attractive. But consulting her physician about a diet, studying a good book on weight-reduction and disciplining her appetite to fit her calorie needs, may in time make her a bride instead of a bridesmaid," she added.

RATED TOP EXPERT

Dr. Leverton, rated highly by other top scientists in weight reduction studies, is a warm, quick-minded, petite woman.

A painstaking researcher, she bases her approach to the problems of obesity on research and a philosophy that comes from years of explaining the hows and whys of weight reduction to college students, mothers' clubs and teenagers.

"Alcohol is a caloric obstacle to reducing. Let's call it a social hazard to the achievement of a socially attractive figure," she said.

"One way to handle this menace is to make your drinking a long-drawn-out affair. In both time and quantity, make one drink take the place of three or four.

"And beware those tag-along foods, such as nuts and popcorn and darling little canapes. They'll do you wrong for they are loaded with calories."

If you have consulted your mirror and your scales and have decided now is the time to reduce, then get going. First go to your doctor for a medical examination and his approval.

Next, set yourself a sane and manageable schedule — how many pounds you want to lose within a definite time.

HONESTY BEST POLICY

Be honest with yourself. How strong is your desire to get rid of those puffy pounds and how strong is your will power? Base your schedule on your answers to those questions and then set the period of weight reducing.

Don't make it longer than three months. Fortify yourself against advice many will give you about reducing — quacks, diet fanatics, and the whole list of those who favor magic and drugs over sound, tested, scientific methods, Dr. Leverton cautions.

After this preliminary skirmish with yourself, determine what your weight should be according to your height and body build. Use a reliable chart for this. There are many available. Then estimate how many calories a day you should eat to maintain this desirable weight. Compare it with what you are eating.

Those extra pounds, to put it bluntly, are the result of over-eating, she said.

"Select a reducing diet consisting of common-sense menus, based more or less on the foods your family eats and you like.

"Be sure it supplies you with all the nutrients your young body needs, everything except excess calories," she advised.

To help self-streamliners determine the number of calories young people need, Dr. Leverton suggests this table on daily calorie needs from her book, "Food Becomes You."

Before leaving for her classroom, packed with healthy young men and women, Dr. Leverton added one more morsel of advice to the young dieter:

"Every normal girl or boy needs exercise. Ask your health education teacher, your doctor, or some other competent expert to suggest the type of exercise best suited to help you improve your figure and use up excess calories at the same time."

Oil and Other Riches Lie Beneath Algerian Sahara

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Conservative French estimates say that there are more than four billion tons of coal there. This compares to approximately 500 million tons of U. S. annual production.

Oil and other rich resources are behind the French-Arab struggle over Algeria in North Africa.

The French-directed Algerian Oil Research and Exploration Company plans to sink a half-dozen or more wells this year in the Algerian interior and also is studying plans to build a pipeline from oil fields to the coast.

If the French can develop large-scale oil production, they eventually will free themselves from dependence on Middle Eastern oil. The Suez Canal crisis has made them more determined than ever to develop their own supplies.

Oil exploration has been going on in the Algerian Sahara for decades and last year the first producing well was brought in at Hassi Messaoud. Another producing well was completed last year at Edjele, on the Libyan border.

Pierre Guillaumat, head of the French Office of Petroleum Research, has said that Edjele will be producing four million tons of oil two years from now and the Hassi Messaoud well will produce five million tons by 1960.

GREAT HOPES

By 1961, if peace is restored to Algeria and the French manage to retain the territory they contend is legally part of France proper, the French hope to have an annual production therefore of nine million tons a year from the Sahara.

Some enthusiastic Frenchmen already have likened the huge Sahara to another Saudi Arabia in oil riches. But there is more to the Sahara story than oil.

There are big deposits of iron ore and reportedly much uranium, the ingredient for atomic power. The French say that perhaps the world's biggest single store of tungsten also is in the northern Sahara.

French spokesmen evisage the day when they can form a "Euro-African" combine, a huge cultural, political and economic pooling of West European skills and financial resources and African manpower that could make the desert bloom for the benefit of all.

HUGE OBSTACLES

Aside from the political obstacles, the physical ones are enormous. Temperature ranges from 28 to 128 degrees in a single day are not uncommon in parts of the Sahara, where it gets so hot that radiators explode, tires melt and airplane engines fail.

France itself does not have the capital to finance its dreams, and looks to other Western powers for aid. And the French do not seem to be unduly upset by the prospect that few if any investors would risk pouring money into an area where Arab nationalism is on the march.

Turns in Fire Alarm for Egg Explosion

GARDENA, Calif. (AP) — A little short on culinary experience, 4-year-old Scott Abell was surprised but not nonpulsed when the egg he was preparing for his mother's breakfast exploded.

Scott walked calmly to the telephone and asked the operator to send a fireman. A Fire Department operator asked him where his parents were. "Asleep," he answered.

Since Scott didn't know his own address the fireman had the call traced, and shortly after 5 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abell were awakened by the tramp of firemen's boots.

The egg fire had burned itself out by the time the fire laddies arrived.

Scott has decided against becoming a chef. He wants to be a fireman.

Money Waiting for Right Entry in Pot-O-Gold

Unless there's a winner for last week's puzzle, this one is worth $800, so now's the time to get busy. Get started early and give yourself plenty of time to work out the right solution. Rules and clues are below. Be sure to check all of them carefully.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

Summerfield Warns of Big Postal Loss

WASHINGTON (INS) — Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield has warned that the postal system soon will be losing a billion dollars a year unless mail rates are increased.

Furthermore, he said, the Post Office Department already would have a billion dollar deficit if it were not for "financial and management improvements" started by the Eisenhower administration.

He said the fiscal plight of the department is made greater by the need for new facilities to handle the ever-increasing volume of mail.

Driver Test Turns Out to Be Bang-Up Failure

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When examiners for the Department of Motor Vehicles asked 81-year-old John Rigby to show up for a driving test they didn't imagine he'd drive right up on their lawn.

Police said he struck three cars before his auto smashed into a fence near a branch office of the department during part of the examination.

Robbins Mobile Village Wins Court Ruling in Waterford Dispute

Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty yesterday ruled in favor of a Waterford Township trailer camp whose expansion last summer was contested by the township.

Robbins Mobile Village, at the corner of Elizabeth Lake road and M59, had been enlarged by facilities for 17 additional trailers on property adjacent to the camp proper, 3300 W. Elizabeth Lake Rd.

The township claimed the owners, Walter E. Robbins and his wife, Pansy, had violated zoning ordinances.

Robbins countered by contending an application for expansion had been okayed by Township Clerk Louis G. Barry last Jan. 14.

Doty ruled that the approval means the township no longer can restrain the owners from expanding on their site. There was space for 133 trailers in the original camp.

What's in a Mill? That's Anybody's Guess

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Every schoolboy knows 5,280 feet is a mile—that is, everywhere but in Bernalillo County.

Officials compiling new property descriptions have found one "mile" that's only 4,000 feet and another that's more than 6,000 feet. They explain that surveys were made piecemeal, with different starting points, as the area grew.

They've found sections, which should be a uniform 640 acres, as small as 451 acres or as large as 800.

Cabinet Change Due in Indonesia

5 Parties in Coalition Agree to Meet Sukarno to Study Problems

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo appears today to be a pawn in some involved Indonesian political horse trading with all signs pointing toward a complete Cabinet reshuffle, possibly this weekend.

The five parties keeping the coalition government in power are agreed on a government shakeup and four of the five say Sastroamidjojo must go. The Premier's own Nationalist party has so far hedged on the move to oust the veteran political leader, but the pressures are mounting.

Delegations from the five parties are to meet with President Sukarno to go over the problem. Sukarno, Indonesia's most popular leader, has not disclosed his position regarding Sastroamidjojo's future. But he has been sharply criticaly of the nation's political parties recently and has been reported planning to set up an advisory council with veto power over the government and Parliament.

In a speech early this month, Sukarno declared Indonesia needs "revolutionary laws — emergency laws — to solve its mounting crises."

Released as 'Oriented,' Kills Wife, Son in Italy

BORGOMANERO, Italy, (AP) — Piero Preti, 49-year-old laborer, was dismissed from a mental asylum 10 days ago with the following notation:

Yesterday Preti hammered his wife and their 9-year-old son to death and then quietly surrendered to the police.

Poison Pen Notes Received by Wife of Duke's Friend

LONDON (INS) — Mrs. Eileen Parker has received a flood of poison pen letters since she announced her separation from Lt. Cmdr. Michael Parker, former secretary and boon companion of the Duke of Edinburgh.

The letters accuse her of timing the news of her separation as a vindictive act against her husband. The news forced Parker to resign from the royal household and has been blamed for touching off the widely publicize rumor that the Duke and Queen Elizabeth were on the verge of a marital split.

Mrs. Parker's attorney Mervyn Lewis, who disclosed the poison pen deluge today, said: "Any nastiness toward Mrs. Parker must be attributed partly to my action."

"People may say she has done a disservice to her husband by the timing of the announcement of the separation" which took place more than a year ago, he added, but it was "entirely my decision."

"I felt if the fact was not made known before the royal party arrived in Portugal for the official visit," said Lewis, "everyone would be asking why Mrs. Parker had not joined her husband there."

Parker was accompanying the Duke on a long ocean voyage when his wife announced the separation. He immediately returned to London and will not be in Portugal Saturday when the Queen arrives to be with her husband before starting the state visit on Monday.

Ancient Musket Reveals Map

Caribbean Gold Tempts 17

INDIANAPOLIS (INS) —Seventeen Americans will fly to the Dominican Republic tomorrow to hunt for the gold and silver fortune they believe is buried on a remote cape of that island nation.

The search has the blessing of the Dominican Republic, which is loaning the American party a 175-foot patrol craft and other equipment for the hunt.

Jameson G. Campaigne of Indianapolis, editorial page director of the Indianapolis Star, explained that a map found by one of his sons beneath the butt plate of an ancient flintlock musket was instigation for the jaunt.

The son, Jerry, 16, purchased the musket three years ago in a New York antique shop but did not discover the iron butt plate because it was corroded.

The map, folded and sealed with red wax, was found beneath the plate. The map, written in Latin, had markings indicating location of something that had been hidden on Spaniola, San Domingo, now the Dominican Republic.

Last year, Campaigne flew to Ciudad Trujillo and discussed with Dr. G. M. Tronocoso, secretary of new development for the Dominican Republic, the possible significance of the map.

He was delighted to receive an offer of a boat to reach the spot indicated on the map, and a supply of shovels, machetes, tents and other equipment needed for an expedition to the wild and uninhabited cape.

Campaigne said that the Dominican Republic is interested in the expedition because it will share half of any treasue that may be found.

Client's Divorce Hits Lawyer Right in Heart

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Her husband failed to give her a present or even a kiss last St. Valentine's Day, Mrs. Doris Romo, 24, testified in winning a divorce from William S. Romo, 25, an accountant.

This prompted her attorney Lloyd Saunders to comment:

"I'd better pick up something for my own wife."

"It would be the appropriate thing to do," agreed Acting Superior Judge Clarence E. Johns, who granted the decree on grounds of cruelty.

Probe Texas Oil Output, Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)— Why haven't Texas oil officials authorized a big increase in oil production to help meet Europe's emergency needs since the blocking of the Suez Canal?

That's the question the House Commerce Committee set out to answer today. Ernest E. Thompson, head of Texas' oil output regulating agency, was called to testify.

Committee Chairman Harris (D-Ark) said: "We've found out the Interior Department never did ask Texas to up its oil allowable."

Yesterday, Felix E. Wormser, assistant interior secretary, told the committee Europe needed 250,000 more barrels of oil a day than it was getting but the government didn't want to "put pressure" on state oil agencies.

"I would welcome the closest cooperation with the regulatory commissions,' he said.

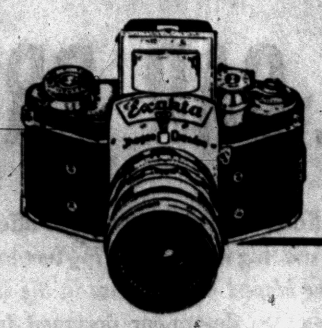

A Joint Senate Antimonopoly-Public Lands subcommittee is also investigating the program, along with recent oil and gasoline price increases.

Secretary of the Interior Seaton told the Senate group fresh reports from Europe show that about 80 per cent of all normal demands there for fuel oil, gasoline and other petroleum products was supplied in December and January.

He said that, barring unusually cold weather or other new difficulties, Europe could count on about this level of supply for the first three months of this year.

In response to repeated statements by senators that his department should have tried to persuade the oil companies to hold the price line, Seaton insisted he had no authority to do so. He also declared himself opposed to any price-wage controls in peacetime.

Israel-Egypt Impasse Puts Dulles Policy in Confusion

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Confusion at times has spread around Secretary of State Dulles like oil around a torpedoed ship. This is one of the times, although he's still afloat and shows no signs of sinking yet.

The Eisenhower administration, which appears anxious to make everybody happy in the Middle East, seems to be making nobody happy. It's in a box over Egypt and Israel. Dulles came up with a key which so far has opened nothing.

Israel, despite United Nations' resolutions, has refused to withdraw its troops from the Gaza Strip and an area around the Gulf of Aqaba. It gave two reasons:

Before it withdrew from either place, it wanted guarantees that Egypt would not be able to raid Israel across Gaza or blockade Israeli shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba. The U. N. offered no guarantees. It just said: "Get out."

Israel's refusal was getting Dulles and American foreign policy into a jam. Israel is an American friend. The United States helped create Israel. But the United States also wants to win the friendship of the Arabs, including Egypt.

This week the Arab states were ready to ask the U. N. — including the United States — to put pressure on Israel through sanctions. This would have been hypocritical. The U. N. didn't invoke sanctions against Russia when it refused to get out of Hungary.

Before the sanctions move could be started, Dulles sought a way out with a proposal. It's so vague that he seemed to be shooting from the hip without thinking it through.

He said if Israel would withdraw its troops this government would support the principle of free navigation for Israel in the Gulf of Aqaba and would favor the use of U. N. forces between Israel and Egypt to prevent raids across Gaza.

One of the troubles immediately apparent in this idea was the word "support." What did that mean? Would the United States use armed force to make Egypt let Israeli ships use the gulf? If so, Dulles certainly didn't say so, and other officials have carefully avoided any suggestion that force might be used.

As a matter of fact, Dulles has said nothing directly for publication. All this was handled obliquely at the State Department so that Dulles is never directly quoted as saying anything.

But what right would the United States have to use force — if that's what Dulles had in mind, and he probably didn't — against Egypt to make her give Israeli ships clear sailing in the gulf? None.

If force wasn't to be used, then what would "support" for Israel mean? Pious speeches in the U.N.? That could hardly be called a guarantee for Israel, although Israel has been asking guarantees before pulling her troops back.

The Israelis' reaction could have been predicted: They want to know what Dulles means by "support"? And now Egyptian officials have attacked the Dulles proposal.

Won't Cause Deafness, Says Air Force

Denies Jet Noise Charge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force says it doesn't know of a single case of total deafness traceable solely to jet plane noise.

This statement, prepared by the Air Force surgeon general's office, was circulated recently in a publication of the Aircraft Industries Assn.

The Air Force statement clashed with reports from Veterans Administration officials who said Jan. 10 that there was an increase in the number of service personnel and veterans whose hearing had been impaired by jet noise. The VA officials also said at the time the noise may be affecting numbers of civilians as well.

The air surgeon general's office said the number of persons being discharged from the Air Force for hearing disability is "infinitesimal." It said that during the past seven years "only about 50 persons were discharged from the Air Force primarily for hearing defects."

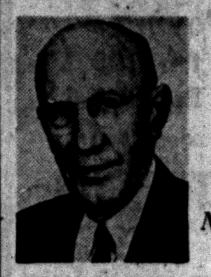

The VA lists 94,233 veterans as receiving disability payments for loss of hearing and diseases of hearing.

The aireraft industry group, contending that this total includes veterans of all services dating back to the Spanish American War, said "only a small portion of the hearing disabilities could possibly be attributed to jet noise."

In recent years the average amount of cotton produced on an acre of ground has doubled in the United States, according to agricultural records.

Abbott Free on Bond on Reduced Charge

Arthur Abbott, 21, of 23 S. Paddock St., who claimed he was "firing in the air to celebrate New Year's Eve" was bound over to Circuit Court Wednesday charged with feloniously assaulting a man January 1.

Abbott appeared before Judge Cecil McCallum who reduced the original charge of assault to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder. He was freed on a $500 bond and ordered to appear in the higher court Monday.

Abbott is accused of possessing two guns that night: a 16 gauge pump sohtgun allegedly used to shoot Robert Runyon, 22, 290 N. Paddock St., and a .22 caliber rifle which he allegedly pointed at a witness of the shooting, John Currie, 15 S. Paddock St. and Detective Robert Wachal at the time of the arrest.

At the time, Runyon was hospitalized for treatment of wounds received from approximately 120 pellets found in his body. The shooting occurred after the two had an argument in a local bar.

At his arraignment January 3 before Judge Maurice Finnegan, Abbott stood mute and was freed on a $500 bond.

Students Renew Demands; Want Freedom in Satellites

BERLIN (INS)—Four Soviet satellites are facing a new challenge from restive students.

In Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and Romania students have renewed demands ranging from an end to compulsory Russian studies to the formation of new independent student organizations.

In East Germany the students are being held in check by new "Disciplinary Committees" established in each university to study the backgrounds of unreliable youths.

Prof. Herbert Gute, a member of the board of education of the East German Central Committee, told International News Service his government plans to grant students more free time and to abolish certain compulsory studies, including the Russian language.

Marxism and Leninism will remain a required subject, however, Gute said.

Reliable reports reaching East Berlin say that Bulgarian students are demanding formation of new student organizations, independent of the communist youth organization.

Bulgarian students both in universities and higher technical schools are also requesting the right to read Western literature and listen to Western broadcasts. They want relaxation of the Marxism and Leninism.

Students of Prague and Bruenn universities in Czechoslovakia have demanded the abolition of the Communist-controlled youth organization. Like the Bulgarians, they have asked for new independent student groups.

Romanian students want less ideological lecturing and an abolition of compulsory study of the Russian language and Marxism-Leninism.

There are even reports of student trouble in the Soviet's smallest and tightest satellite, Albania. The students at Tirana University recently passed a resolution demanding the right to free choice of study subjects.

Boys Receive Awards, Merit Badges; Movies of Recent Trips Shown

More than 120 people attended the annual banquet of the Pontiac Boy Scout Troop 66, sponsored by the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church recently.

Following the dinner, merit badges were presented by Don Myer, assistant scout master, to Duane Aker and Wayne Kline.

Those presented Tenderfoot awards include: Philip Morris, Robert Bradshaw, and Gary Mihalek. They were awarded by Scoutmaster Nelson Kirby.

Second Class awards were earned by Arnold Johnson, Douglas Hoisington, Gary Sallee and Sydney Janes.

The 1957 troop charter was presented to Reverend Edmund I. Watkins, pastor of the church.

Movies of the troop's canoe trip on the AuSable River, a weekend skiing trip at Grayling and a conservation campout at Bald Mountain Recreation Area completed the evening program.

DPW Hunts for Dough; Over Its Head in Snow

The department has only $200,000 left in its snow removal fund.

As it takes $23,000 per inch to keep city streets clear, the department figures it has enough money to handle only slightly more than 8½ inches of snow this year.

The Weather Bureau says the average fall for the rest of the winter is 10.4 inches.

With yesterday's 4.6 inch snowfall, Detroit has had 38.2 inches of snow this season — seven inches more than normal.

The Detroit forecast for today? Snow.

SLEIGH RIDE — Handicapped youngsters treated by the Oakland County Society of Crippled Children enjoy an outing at the Pitch Haven estate of John Ivory, 9960 Cooley Lake Rd., White Lake Township. The youngsters, accompanied by parents and teachers, spent a morning taking sleigh rides and riding on the ponies. The outing is part of the program of field trips on which the children are regularly taken by the society.

Expose 2 Fantastic Frauds: 'Schoolteacher', 'Minister'

ELMDALE, Kan. (UP) — What kind of a man is Calvin Laskey, whose masquerade as minister and war hero melted away to expose a 29-year career of thievery, Army desertion and jail breaking under 20 names?

"He has a genuine humanitarian drive — he wants to do good for people," says William Pringle, county attorney who prosecuted Laskey last Monday on a charge of illegally marrying a couple while posing as a minister.

He loves to read. He sews and crochets. And 26 times he's been convicted of crimes that are penitentiary offenses.

"He was publicity crazy," says Mrs. Richard Iliff, co-owner of the Chase County Leader-News. "He was a good talker and very persuasive. He told a lot of stories that always made him look like a hero."

Laskey is serving six months in the county jail for performing the illegal marriage. It was his only wedding in not quite nine months as pastor of Elmdale Christian Chuurch. The couple plans another ceremony.

The little church thrived under his ministry. He was in great demand as a speaker and told a gripping story of his experiences as a prisoner of war in Korea. But he was never in Korea.

"I talked to him extensively about his past," said Pringle. "He told me he was a foundling. He admits he's been in a lot of trouble. He said he's lied in the past. He said he had to do it to cover up his record. Each time he laid the cards on the table for a prospective employer he was turned away. It finally became unbearable and he used aliases.

"Now, he says, he's glad it's all come out. In the future he will tell the truth."

Pringle said Laskey had a number of color photographs of fires.

"He's been present at a number of fires in this area but he denies having anything to do with them," Pringle reported.

Laskey, a Canadian, managed to enroll as a freshman at Park College at Parkville, Mo., in the fall of 1955 under the name Dean Barton. He used that name later at Elmdale.

A little flaw in Laskey's glib line tripped him up in Elmdale. He said you couldn't get duplicates for Army discharge papers if you lost them. Sheriff Francis Towle knew that wasn't true and started checking on him.

AUGUSTA, Maine (UP) — A personable young schoolteacher who quickly won the affections of a Down East island community was identified by state police yesterday as a fantastic imposter who once posed as a Canadian surgeon in Korea.

Ferdinand Waldo DeMara, 35, a native of Lawrence, Mass., was held on a warrant charging cheating by false pretenses.

The charge stemmed from his role as Martin Danniel Godgart, an instructor of "superior qualifications" who taught North Haven youngsters English, Latin and French, instituted recreation programs, organized a Sea Scout unit and won praise from his colleagues, superiors and the island population.

A Martin Godgart teaches in New York and attended Wagner College there. State police said DeMara had Wagner listed on the Maine teaching certificate they charged he obtained fraudulently.

State Police Detective Millard Nickerson said DeMara gave a "full statement" admitting he was the same man who, as Dr. Joseph C. Cyr, served with the Canadian navy and performed delicate surgery despite only elementary medical training.

DeMara, nearly six feet tall and weighing over 250 pounds, told police he went to remote North Haven 12 miles off the Maine coast because of its isolation.

He said he "half and half" expected to be unmasked.

Only a few of the island's 415 residents claimed any suspicion of DeMara, known as "one of the best superintendents the Baptist Sunday school ever had."

Those who did, including Mrs. George Merrian, wife of the island's Baptist minister, said they were alerted because "Godgart talked a lot" — unlike traditionally tight-lipped Yankees.

It was this trait that led one islander to recall a magazine story on DeMara and asked state police to check on "Godgart."

Teacher William Hopkins summed up the fairly general reaction to DeMara's arrest when he said "I hope he can come back. After all, what has he done but used someone else's name? And all the good he has done with that name must certainly outweigh the bad."

Police said DeMara's career includes simultaneous Army and Navy hitches, resulting in 1½ years in a Navy prison for desertion.

He also has masqueraded as a zoology professor at Notre Dame Institute in Alfred, Maine. He studied at De Paul University, attended theology school in Grand Falls, N. B., worked as an accountant at a Houston, Tex., hotel and posed as a doctor of education to gain employment in the Texas state prison system in 1955.

Texas School Is First to Be Air-Conditioned

SAN ANGELO, Tex. — San Angela's Belaire is believed to be the first completely air-conditioned elementary school in the United States.

Attendance was 97.4 per cent during its first year of operation. And though every room in the 10-sided building opens onto a shaded play area, many children prefer to stay indoors when the temperature outside is in the 90's.

Car, Truck, Plane, All Three in One in Single Crash

SHELBURNE, N. H. (UP) — A car, a truck and an airplane were involved in a collision yesterday.

He was towing the light plane and became so awed by the scenery that he didn't realize his car had drifted to the other side of the road.

A truck came along from the other direction and the three vehicles collided. The car, truck and plane landed on the side of the road in a heap.

The truck driver was Jason Hazleton of South Paris, Maine. Coombs, who suffered lacerations of the face and shock, was charged with reckless driving.

Reduce Murder Charge in Shooting of Krise

Circuit Judge Earl C. Pugsley ruled yesterday the prosecution has not shown premeditation.

When the trial is completed the jury will be asked to determine whether King is guilty of second-degree murder, manslaughter, or is innocent.

Conviction of first degree murder in Michigan carries a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment.

Krise, a 34-year-old Newago County farmer, was shot to death after he ordered King and King's hunting companions off his land.

New York City leads in the number of its taxicabs with about 12,000. Washington is second with 9,500, Chicago third with 3,800 and Philadelphia rounds out fourth place with about 2,200.

The average annual mileage per passenger automobile in the United States decreases with the age of the vehicle and also tends to shrink as the population of a city increases.

CONSTIPATED?
New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks
without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative-discovery possesses COLONAID'S great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONAID'S stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

New England Irishman Mediator of Dock Strike

By International News Service

The "man in the middle" of the current east coast dock strike is a jolly New Englander with an Irish wit whose success at his job is largely the result of a lesson he learned by getting himself knocked unconscious.

The man is Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The lesson was to keep his eye on the "main issue" at all times.

The 52-year-old, stocky, ruddy-faced Finnegan learned this lesson while dabbling in boxing as a student at Columbia University.

"I was pretty bad with the gloves," he recalls, "but there was a husky boy from the corn belt who probably was worse. I was boxing him one day, and kept hitting him in the nose. I couldn't miss.

"Finally, one of my shoes started coming apart at the seams, and I glanced down at it. Wham! I saw several constellations of stars, and everything turned black. I was out."

As federal mediator, a refusal to be diverted from the "main issue" is one of Finnegan's greatest assets, especially when both sides in a labor dispute are—as Finnegan might put it in one of his wilder metaphorical flights of fancy—muddying the atmosphere and clouding the water.

But just as helpful are his patience and his wit, no matter how trying the circumstances, no matter how long the mediation session.

Finnegan was born in North Adams, Mass. He lived there until he was nine-years-old when the family moved to New York City following his father's death.

GETS LAW DEGREE

He worked his way through high school, through Columbia and then Through Fordham University, which awarded him a law degree in 1931.

For a few years, he served as assistant U. S. attorney for the southern district of New York. From 1934 to 1948, he worked for a New York law firm. In 1948, he went into business for himself.

Finnegan got his job as the government's chief labor mediator two years ago through the influence of his friend, Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell.

As a private citizen, he had been employed as an arbitrator in more than 100 labor disputes. As a government servant, he has continued to contribute greatly to the cause of labor peace. And not once has he ever forgotten to keep his eye on the "main issue."

Nation Changes Habits; Gets More Metropolitan

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The nation today is changing from its urban nature to one more metropolitan, a University of Michigan professor said.

Prof. Arthur W. Bromage, talking before the ninth annual management Institute here yesterday, said 56 per cent of the population now lives in 168 metropolitan areas across the United States.

Predicting continuation of the trend, Bromage said the city of Ann Arbor and Washtenaw County will be considered a metropolitan area by 1960.

Electronic Brain to Guard Detroit

Air Force Plans to Use Automatic Equipment to Direct Missiles

BATTLE CREEK (AP)— The Air Force has announced start of a $27,000,000 project to transfer metropolitan Detroit's aerial defenses from human to electronic brains.

The Air Force said construction has started on a building at Fort Custer to house the complicated mass of electronic equipment known as the semi-automatic ground environment system (SAGE).

The Battle Creek facility, one of several under construction around the United States, will be called Headquarters, Detroit Air Defense Sector, or DADS.

The project is necessary, the Air Force said, because man can not think fast enough to plan his defense in case of another world war.

SAGE is capable of deciding which defense to use in the case of an enemy approach, the Air Force said. In the case of a mass attack use of correct defense at the right time would be of the utmost importance.

The electronic machine would also direct guided missles and interceptor aircraft.

Air Force personnel feed data on approaching planes or missiles into SAGE. The electronic machine's memory bank has a map of the Detroit area defense pattern. From the data and map, the machine would then select the right defense.

A total of 500 persons will man the Fort Custer installation when it is completed in July. The system will be operational in 1958 or 1959.

TWIN TRACTION...

a Studebaker-Packard FIRST so good other cars will copy it

WHAT IS IT? Twin-Traction Differential gives you new pavement-gripping traction and new safe control impossible with conventional differentials. The secret lies in the fact that the Twin-Traction Differential delivers the major part of the engine's power to the rear wheel with the best traction—instead of the wheel with the poorest traction (as in a conventional differential). The result—roadability that's better in six important ways:

1. In ice, snow or mud, Twin Traction gets you out of spots where cars with conventional differentials would "spin their wheels."
2. In highway driving, it protects against skids that might otherwise occur when one rear wheel hits a slippery spot.
3. On sharp turns, it improves roadability by applying the major driving force to the inside rear wheel. This also tends to compensate for over-steering.
4. On rough or washboard roads, it reduces the rear-end bounce, sidesway or swerve which results from a fast-spinning wheel suddenly hitting the pavement again.
5. When one rear wheel goes off the pavement onto a soft shoulder, Twin Traction directs the driving force to the other rear wheel, assuring safe, positive control.
6. In ordinary driving, Twin Traction cuts tire wear by assuring more positive traction.

Test it, yourself, today. See your Studebaker-Packard Dealer for a demonstration drive!

Hal Boyle Says:

Audrey Represents All Lost Loves

NEW YORK (AP) — There are some actresses you fall in love with the first time you see them, but if you meet them in person you soon have a desire to dropkick them over the horizon.

Audrey Hepburn isn't that type at all. She gives you the unreasonable feeling that all the years of your life to that moment have been utterly wasted.

I was sitting in the living room of her hotel suite wondering whether 1957 would turn out to be a good year for rheumatism, when the door opened and Miss Hepburn entered.

She didn't walk across the room, she floated like a moonbeam. Her brown hair shimmered in a lacy mist around her fair face. I took one look and for the 912th time in my life fell hopelessly in love with a complete stranger.

Or was she a stranger? I felt I had known her forever.

Then Miss Hepburn did something for which I now nominate her for another Academy Award. She paused, her blue eyes widened as she looked into my face—lined by years of noble living and lack of proper exercise—and a bit breathlessly she gave this immortal line:

"I have a feeling I know you from before. Haven't we met somewhere, sometime?"

"No, I'm afraid not" my mouth murmered, but my heart said silently:

"Don't listen to him, little Audrey. He's a liar. He met you before, many times — and he knows it.

"You were the girl he first fell in love with in kindergarten. You were the girl he also fell in love with in the 3rd grade at a different school. You are the girl he saved up and bought a $3.50 valentine for in the 7th grade.

Audrey told me a lot of things.

About how she had been born of Irish-Dutch parents in Belgium, and how she had started work at 12 to help pay for her ballet lessons.

About how she had had to hide out from the Germans in Holland during the World War II.

About how thrilled she was to have achieved stardom young.

About how tired she was after making three pictures in a row.

About how she looked forward next to doing "The Nun's Story" but first there would be a long holiday in Switzerland with her actor husband, Mel Ferrer.

About the difficulty of combining the twin careers of being an actress and wife, but that "If you keep the scales in balance, and remember your first job is to take proper care of your husband, it can work out happily—certainly it has for us."

About how she worked so hard she had few hobbies, "I'm afraid I'm pretty dull. I like walking; music, from Bach to Duke Ellington; and reading. Kipling is one of my favorite writers."

She had to leave then to keep a luncheon engagement. As we said goodby it seemed to me those pond-blue eyes were saying, "Surely we've met somewhere before. Don't you remember?"

That is the peculiar charm Audrey Hepburn has, and that guarantees her a multimillion-dollar future. To millions of men she is all the girls they loved—and lost—in the springtime of their youth.

All except that lucky Mel Ferrer.

Happy Hunting Ground Waits for Local Antique Collectors

It will be happy hunting for veteran and novice antique collectors when Pontiac's fifth annual Antique Show and Sale opens Tuesday for a three-day stand.

It will be a pleasure for those who love handsome or unusual old things, the mellow well-rubbed look of fine old woods, the soft glow of old colored glass, the sheen of heirloom silver, the quaintness of an old doll.

It will be an adventure in living history for those born in the electronic age who think an antique is a "prop" in a costume movie.

And it will be a return to a cherished yesterday for those who remember when the buggy seat was where it belonged, up on wheels, and not an accessory to the barbecue patio.

There is activity in Toledo, Rossford and Lima, Ohio, and in the Michigan cities of Detroit, Jackson, Grand Rapids, Nashville, Dearborn, Birmingham, Saginaw, Port Huron and Battle Creek, as dealers sort and polish and pack or hurry back with antique loot found on the latest scouting trip to the hinterlands.

MANY TREASURES

When the doors open at 11 a.m. Tuesday at All Saints Church that spindle buggy seat will be there. So will a long pine settee, a tiger-stripe maple cupboard, a four-drawer Hepplewhite chest, a pair of marble-top four-drawer chests, a small pine cupboard and a six-legged pine drop-leaf table.

There will be lamps made from bronze cavalier figures and a pair of blue peacock feather - pattern glass lamps with petticoat shades.

A collection of hooked rugs and one braided rug will be shown by Mrs. Martha Goodell of Grosse Pointe.

There will be a collection of rose jars, Beleek and Wedgewood pieces, much French Haviland, some Leeds china, Majolica and Bennington ware and hand-painted china.

There will be old glass of all kinds, cranberry, U. S. coin glass, mother-of-pearl satin glass, three-face cut glass, and Bristol.

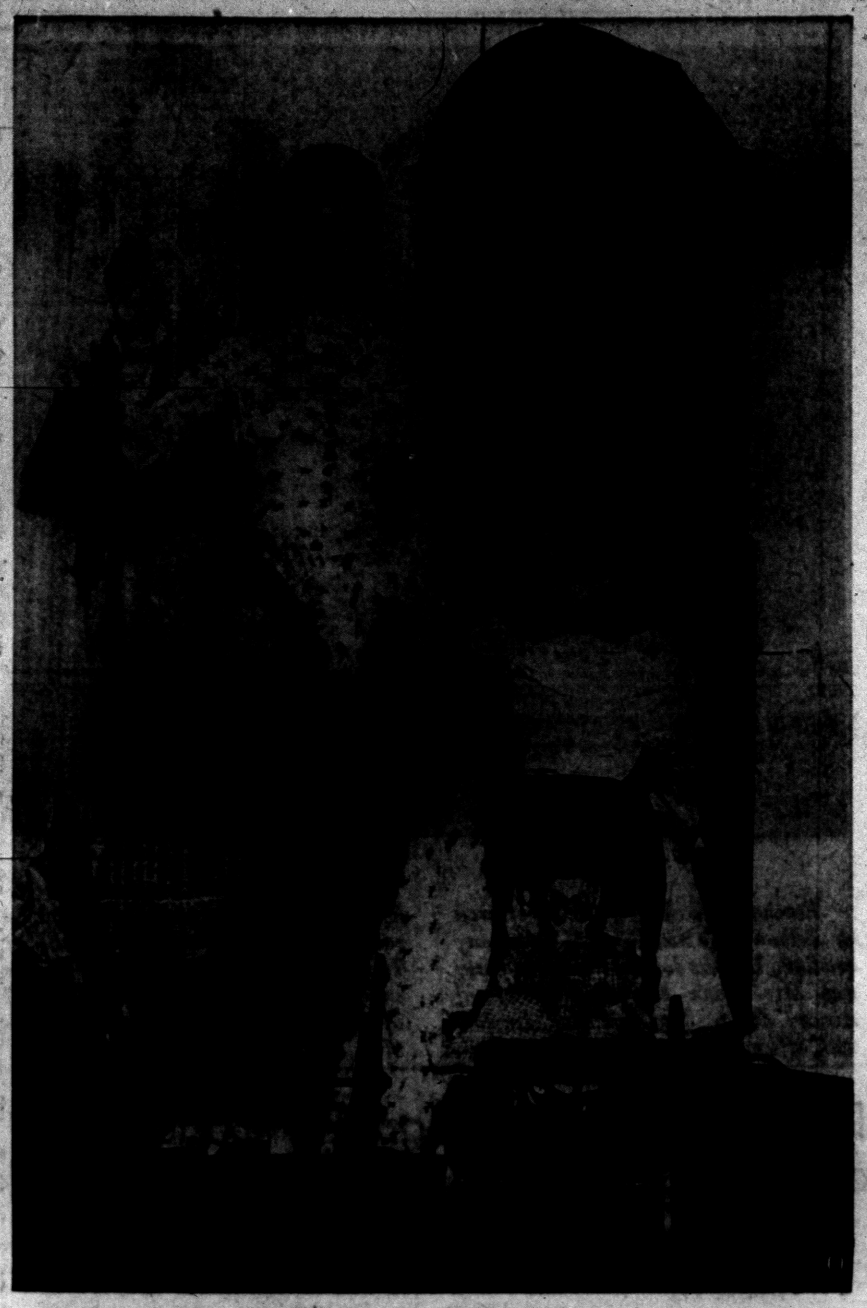

PAINTINGS, TOO

There will be oil paintings, prints, and an 1800 ship picture done in yarn, with an old walnut frame.

There will be a set of pewter measures and English pewter porringers, brass and fine old silver pieces.

Jewelry of all kinds, clocks, mechanical banks, a child's commode set, dolls, music boxes, and even Buddhas will be found.

Janet Evans of Lakeland avenue (left) poses in the charming old-fashioned dress she will wear for the antique show Tuesday through Thursday at All Saints Episcopal Church. She is pushing a reed buggy made at the turn of the century. It is lined with the red plush typical of the Victorian period. The doll is a large German bisque creation (1800-1890). Susan Jane Allen is wearing a dress found in an old trunk in the attic of Mrs. Horace Hall's mother's home in Greenfield, Mo. The doll carriage is a "surrey with the fringe on top," considered very fashionable for little girls in 1876.

A collection of hundreds of antique dolls is the prized possession of Mrs. Imogene Leonard of West Square Lake road. She is showing a mechanical key-wind doll that cries and says, "Mama", moves its arms, legs and head, to Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg of Watkins Lake. Mrs. VandenBerg is a co-chairman of ticket sales for the antique show.

Feminine Banker Finds Housewives Dull

Claims Businesswomen Stay Younger

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Women in business have more fun, stay younger and look better than women who stay at home, in the opinion of Mary G. Roebling, America's first woman bank president.

Mrs. Roebling is a tall redhead with a model's figure and a strictly feminine interest in clothes, despite the fact that she has two grown children, four grandchildren and has just celebrated her 20th anniversary as president of the Trenton, N. J., Trust Co.

She does full justice to a Dior evening gown or a Dache hat, loves to go to parties and puts in a business day that would floor most male executives. In addition to her banking duties she is a director of at least 20 corporations and organizations, and is chairman of the board of several of these.

"I wouldn't have missed a minute of it," says she. "The more things I have to do, the happier I am. If I were caught with nothing to do for a whole evening, I'd hate it."

With the help of her parents, she has managed to have a full and active family life in addition to her hectic public schedule.

Chatting over a luncheon table, she looked around at the crowd and said:

"Now you can tell that those women at the next table are wives, with no interests or activities outside their homes. They've let down, somehow. They're not alert and on their toes. They're used to having somebody else take care of them and make their decisions. It shows."

"I don't believe all women should go into business or a profession, but I do think they should be educated so that they are prepared to earn a living if necessary, or if they so desire.

"I still maintain that the greatest career in the world is being a mother — but it isn't necessarily a full-time job.

"This I can say with conviction —if circumstances and ability permit, I believe the woman who keeps busy, active and interested in many things has a happier, richer life than the one whose interests are limited by the four walls of her home."

Child Fears Wish Will Come True

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

While Jeff's mother was upstairs with the baby, he ran into the kitchen for a drink. There was no glass on the table. But there was an empty milk bottle, so he pulled a chair up to the sink and filled the bottle at the faucet.

When his mother came downstairs, he was drinking gustily, a steady stream of water cascading down the front of his ski suit.

She slapped him. Then, pulling him out of his sodden jacket, she made him sit on a chair for 30 minutes.

Later, at his bedtime, he refused to go to sleep. Over and over he kept finding a new reason for reclaiming his mother's presence in his bedroom.

She thought he was expressing remorse for getting his coat wet. He wasn't. He was expressing fear that his angry wish for his mother's destruction might come true.

When a little child becomes angry at us, he usually wishes we'd die or otherwise be removed from his life. Then the anger passes, leaving him with terror that his wish may be fulfilled.

When we leave him alone to sleep, the terror will overwhelm him, driving him to demand the reassurance of our presence over and over again.

POWER OF FEAR

We don't appreciate the power of this fear until we begin to appreciate the little child's trust in the magical fulfillment of all his wishes.

So let me remind you that he is a person who, flapping his arms up and down, believes that his wish to fly may actually be fulfilled.

He imagines that if he wishes hard enough, he can materialize a lost toy. He's almost sure that he has only to wish for a large chocolate egg to have the Easter Bunny produce it.

Why wouldn't he be? Ever since he was born, we've been devoting our energies to making most of his wishes come true.

When he's wished to be dry instead of wet, we've rushed a fresh diaper on to him. When he's wished to be full instead of hungry, we've rushed warm milk into him. Throughout most of his experience, our chief concern has been not only fulfilling his wishes, but anticipating them.

WISH AND GET

As a result, he really believes that to wish is to get. No wonder he can't sleep after his anger has wished us dead, done for, out of his life.

He knows that since he needs us around to look after him, he can't afford to have us out of his life. When we can convince him that we plan to remain in it and keep him safe, he'll be willing to let us go back downstairs.

Useless Articles Have No Beauty

By ANNE HEYWOOD

The other day, our church had a white elephant sale. In looking over the merchandise, it really gave me a start to see how many objects people make which are both ugly and perfectly useless.

The sight of them reminded me of a remark made by Moeller, the architect:

"Whatever is designed for use, to fill a real need, will be beautiful, though beauty is not planned in the design. Contrariwise, things that are planned just to be beautiful, with no thought of use, are neither beautiful nor useful."

So many times, it seems to me, women will do handiwork just for the sake of doing it or just because Mother taught them how.

They'll knit or crochet yard after yard of unusable junk; they'll make little leather things that nobody wants. All the while, they could come up with something charming, useful and saleable, if they'd only use imagination.

PURPOSE NEEDED

After all, people still adore handmade things. But they must have a purpose. It takes no more energy or time—less, even—to create lovely and useful things.

A friend of mine has a grandmother who is a perfect example of this.

Mrs. T. is in her late 60s, healthy and spry. She is, as she laughingly announced to me when I met her, an expert in footstools.

It all began when she found an old footstool in her own attic. The fabric was worn, but the wood was good and strong.

"I'm not the needlepoint type," she told me, "haven't the patience. But I shopped around and found a remnant of lovely material which I used to recover the footstool.

"It made an enormous hit with my children and grandchildren. The following year I stopped at all sorts of auctions and bought up old footstools.

WELCOME GIFTS

"It was wonderful fun. I got perfect pieces of material, which you can do for peanuts when you have only a small surface to cover. I gave them for presents and they were well received.

"Finally, I found a carpenter who would make up the frames inexpensively and I went into business! I took a few to a decorator in town and told her I'd make them in any colors or textures. Got quite a few orders, too!"

Mrs. T. is an example of bringing imagination and ingenuity to handmade products.

Spicy Treat Previewed for Cooks

Mrs. Abbott Claims Gingerbread Recipe and Topping---Tops!

By JANET ODELL, Pontiac Press Home Editor

When the Antique Show occurs next week at All Saints Church, one of the featured foods will be Gingerbread with a fluffy topping. It is a treasured recipe that Mrs. Vernon Abbott, chairman of the kitchen committee, has used for years. In fact, it once appeared in a cookbook put out by the Press.

Mrs. Abbott is well known in Pontiac for the work she does in civic, social and church groups. She is a charming person to meet.

GINGERBREAD
By Mrs. Vernon Abbott

½ cup sugar
½ cup butter or margarine
1 egg
1 cup New Orleans molasses
2½ cups sifted flour
1½ teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water

Cream butter or margarine and sugar. Add egg, beat well. Add molasses and mix well. Sift dry ingredients and add alternately with hot water.

Pour into well greased 9x13 pan. Bake about 30 minutes in a 350-degree oven. Test as for cake. Serve plain or with fluffy topping.

Fluffy Topping

Juice and rind of 1 orange
2 teaspoons lemon juice
½ pound miniature marshmallows
1 recipe Seven-Minute Frosting

Combine rind and juices, add marshmallows and let stand while frosting is being made. Pour hot frosting over this mixture and beat smooth. Cool and place in refrigerator.

Mix topping with ½ pint cream; whipped before serving. Topping without the cream will keep well.

McCarroll PTA

Richard Arthaud, case work supervisor at Pontiac State Hospital, was guest speaker at the Wednesday meeting of McCarroll PTA. His topic was "The Disturbed Child."

He stated that of the 40 children at the hospital, over 90 per cent have come from broken homes. Since September, these youngsters have been on a daily routine of school, under the supervision of teachers. A question and answer period followed his talk.

PTA members made a recommendation that a letter be sent the Motion Picture Association requesting the production of better and more appropriate movies for youngsters.

Mrs. Joseph Carry and Mrs. Wilbur Young presided at the tea table assisted by Mrs. George Stevenson, Mrs. V. H. Coleman and Mrs. Neil Fletcher.

Two Exercises Will Trim Thighs

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I have a problem. I have lost a great deal of weight. I now weigh 114 pounds and am 5 feet 3 inches tall. I have a gob of fat on my upper thighs and would like an exercise to help me lose these pouches."

A. Stand tall with your left side toward the wall and place your left hand on the wall. Raise your right leg sideward-upward with a stiff knee. Lower right leg. Do not raise the leg forward but straight up at the side. Continue. After a while turn the right side toward the wall and raise and lower the left leg.

This one, too, is a favorite: Lie on the floor on your back. Bend both knees and place the feet on the floor close to the hips. Raise the heels and keep the toes on the floor as you roll from side to side, slapping the thighs at the end of each roll.

Q. "I am 13 years old, 5 feet, 4½ inches tall and weigh 111 pounds. Am I underweight?"

A. Not much. If you have a small build, you are not underweight at all. Otherwise you might gain 4 or 5 pounds.

Q. "I am 40 years old and 'sorta' short. I have dark brown hair which is graying slightly. I weigh 175 pounds but am very firm. My friends tell me that I do not look like I weigh that much.

"My bust measures 36A, waist 32, and hips 43 inches. I would like to know how much I should weigh and what my measurements should be. How should I lose this weight in the right way and the right places?"

A. Since you did not give me your height I cannot be accurate about what you should weigh. If by "sorta" short you mean 5 feet and 1 or 2 inches, you should weigh about 120 to 125 pounds. However, if you are stockily built and firm, you can add another 10 to 15 pounds.

Q. "I am 15½ years old, 5 feet 4 inches tall and weigh 137 pounds. My bust measures 34, waist 24, and hips 26½. I would like to know if I am overweight."

A. Yes, you are overweight, around 15 pounds if you have an average build.

Q. "Do you think I would need mascara? I have heavy dark brows which I keep well groomed. I put a little petroleum jelly on the brows to give them a sheen. All my friends wear mascara and think I should, too. What do you think?"

A. I think you are fortunate to have naturally what your friends achieve with makeup. Your brows are probably much more attractive with the petroleum jelly.

Embassies Open Doors to Visitors

Capital Sightseers Invited to Homes of Foreign Diplomats

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—It is hoped that future visitors to the capital will have the same opportunity as inaugural visitors to see the embassies of the foreign nations.

Many embassies opened their doors to sightseers for the first time during the inauguration in a cooperative gesture toward promoting understanding and friendship.

Not only were the ambassadors eager to welcome the visitors but most of them or their wives were on hand to greet personally the throngs trooping through their residences.

Some even wanted to serve refreshments, like the Turks, who offered coffee, and the Poles, who were prepared to serve sweetmeats, but time and numbers prohibited this hospitality.

However, each embassy did its best to help acquaint its guests with some feature of the art, customs or culture of its own country.

The ladies of the Japanese Embassy, for example, showed samples of flower decoration. Several embassies, like the British, set up a typical banquet table in their fabulous dining rooms, some showed textiles, silver work, ceramics or embroideries.

FINE EXPERIENCE

It was an interesting and highly rewarding experience for all concerned.

Naturally, the first interest of the American visitor to his own capital is the White House, the Capitol and other monuments of historic interest.

Nothing, however, can enhance the journey more than a look-see at the embassies of the some 80 nations who make this capital a world capital as well. This is something only Washington can offer to its guests.

Since residents now and then get a chance to go to an open house at the diplomats' homes, cards for the recent two-day tour were issued to out-of-towners only (free of charge).

On one day the ticketholders were able to visit the embassies of Turkey, VietNam, Venezuela, Japan, Brazil, Great Britain and Norway.

The next day they were free to visit the embassies of Cuba, Poland, Italy, Spain and Mexico.

Grandma Knew All About Many 'Modern' Theories

Her Home Ideas Were So Practical That We Keep Returning to Them

By RUTH MILLETT

In one of the recent women's magazines I read an article about a "freezer cook" — a woman who goes by the day into homes to fill the family's deep freeze with pies, casserole dishes, and all kinds of food.

It sounded like a clever, new idea — until I remembered that it really isn't new at all. Grandma often hired a girl to come in for a day to help her bake a week's supply of bread and pastries.

And often, when fruit and vegetables were at their peak, she called in a hired girl to can the garden's yield for winter's use.

It's that way with so many of the ideas we think are modern.

BIG KITCHEN

The "family room" is really nothing more than a replacement of the big kitchen with its round table where the family ate, played games, where pa did his figuring, and the kids did their school work.

To make it as convenient as the old-time big kitchen, we've even started opening the family room to the kitchen so the two rooms can flow together like one.

And what's the patio of today's ranch-style homes but a replacement of the old-time veranda? Both are just ways of making a house a little more expandable in nice weather.

Grandma didn't have our modern-day conveniences. But she had a family to rear and a house to run and, being practical, she worked out her problems with common sense.

In fact, she used so much common sense that we keep returning to her ideas, giving them just enough of a twist to make them suit our way of living.

John Vanderlind Addresses Group on Thursday

Devotions for the annual breakfast meeting were presented by Mrs. Clayton Rule who used as her subject, "The Demoniac and a Herd of Swine."

During the business meeting plans were made for Lenten dinners beginning with Ash Wednesday Feb. 6. Plans were also made to attend the 16th annual North Central Jurisdictional meeting to be held in Central Methodist Church in Detroit in March.

Five Styles From Paris Suit U.S.

These Outfits Are Elegant and Easy to Wear

PARIS (INS) — Here are five styles for a 1957 around-the-clock wardrobe, selected from among some 3,500 Paris creations that are suitable, elegant and easy to wear for American women.

For morning and casual wear: A navy blue wool or jersey suit in a supple cardigan style with gold buttons. It is worn with a white shirt-style blouse with the collar showing at the jacket's neckline.

For lunchtime: A light-colored suit with a yawning, collarless neck and semi-fitted, double-breasted front as new and chic details. It can be of black and white checked worsted, oatmeal-colored wool, beige linen or pastel shantung. Wear it over a chiffon blouse of matching color.

For afternoon wear: A shirtwaist dress, demure and girlish in style but feminine and soft in the fabric. Black silk with white polka-dots, chiffon printed with roses or plain beige crepe de chine are among the most elegant.

For cocktails and dancing: The newest thing are buoyant skirts in a "bubble," "lantern" or bloomered harem style. Combined with a low-necked top, such a full-skirted party dress will be fashionable in organza, taffeta or chiffon.

You can choose it in black or white for a sophisticated style, in pastel shades to look young, or in red if you want to be noticed.

The latest style for theater and dinner wear is a mid-calf length sheath with a floor-length train back panel. Cut without sleeves and worn without a belt, such a loosely fitted tube dress of crepe is the most stunning 1957 style in Paris.

Activities Planned by Guild Eight

Members of Guild Eight of All Saints Episcopal Church met Wednesday at the church for a cooperative luncheon. Plans were completed for a bake sale to be held during the Antique Show at Stevens Hall Feb. 19-20-21.

Also planned was a dinner to be given for the Rev. Archie Crowley, suffragon bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, on March 1. Following the business meeting members spent the afternoon sewing articles for the Fall Bazaar.

A changed hairstyle such as fluffed out sides is dramatic but not for the less than young, the round moon face or the very broad face. Casually puffed over forehead but flat at sides elongates and lifts facial contours.

CAR Has Valentine Gathering

Colonel Steven Mack Society, Children of the American Revolution, was entertained at a Valentine party Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Jack Brannack and daughter Barbara Jo, were hostesses for the affair in their home on Ogemaw road.

Mrs. Webster Francis and Mrs. Ralph Lee were guests at the party. Mrs. Everett Peterson, club sponsor, was also present.

Barbara Shadley will be hostess in her home on Ottawa drive for the March 14 meeting.

A group of students of Sarah McCarroll School who are members of Junior American Citizen Club will present the program. Mrs. Norman Allen will be in charge.

Professor to Speak at Nurses' Meeting

Kathryn Robeson, professor of public health nursing at the University of Michigan School of Public Health, Ann Arbor, will speak at the Tuesday meeting of the Oakland County District, Michigan State Nurses Association. The meeting will be held in Birmingham Community House at 7:30 p.m.

Theme of the meeting will be "Our Common Goals," presented by the Continuing Patient Care Committee of Oakland County.

PHS Student Council's Dance to Honor Cage Team

By JACK HENDRICKSON

Pontiac High School's Student Council is starting off another successful semester with the first dance of this season tonight right after the game.

The dance will be held in the gym in honor of the PHS Saginaw Valley Conference basketball leaders, Jimmy Morris and his band will provide the music

Although the Pontiac Five bowed to Highland Park Tuesday night, the Student Council wants to praise the boys for this season's thrills.

They will work on a subject from one to two weeks, then start an other; all related to housekeeping. Laundry, child care, housekeeping, and managing a budget are among these studies. Each class member must also be prepared to compose a dish on a day's notice.

The classes also serve buffet dinners of the faculty, and luncheons to special gatherings of Pontiac business executives.

Lecturers planned include Ann Hagenbuck, a registered nurse, who will demonstrate child care.

One of the subjects which will be dealt with, also, this semester, is child psychology. Crofoot Elementary School will co-operate with Home Economics classes in the study of child behavior, especially of five year olds.

At a recent meeting of the Future Teachers Club, future activities were discussed. Among those planned were to assist the camping program at Eastern Junior High School in May.

They will also attend a tea sponsored by the Delta Kappa Gamma Society at Daniel Whitefield School. Teachers who have taught in foreign countries will talk about their experiences.

On Feb. 28, a movie from Wayne University entitled "Skippy and the 3r's," and a discussion led by Lewis Larkin are scheduled.

Tuesday, the Future Teachers visited the Oakland County Crippled Childrens' Home. That day after school Lillian Jacobs, PHS English teacher, presided at a candelight ceremony for new members.

Seniors are submitting their reservations for the annual Senior Boat Trip scheduled for May 17, 18, and 19. There will be about 250 students from Pontiac High. PHS and Lincoln High School, in Ferndale, will take the trip jointly.

Senior Class of 1957 officers will be elected next week. The petitions for nominations have been submitted.

Ten Members of the Senior Girls Ensemble sang at the Sweetheart Banquet at the United Presbyterian Church Tuesday night. They did four special numbers: "I Would Weave a Song for You," "In the Still of the night," "Falling in Love With Love," and "Into the Night."

Shows Uncover Talent Galore

Walled Lake High students this week enjoyed the second of the talent shows sponsored by the Student Council. Because there were more than 30 students participating, part of the acts were presented last week. The first performance included five vocal soloists, a pantomime duo, and a modern dancer.

This week's talent displayed 11 singers, some of them in groups, two pianists, a pantomime duo, and a dancer.

On Feb. 27, Walled Lake will host the Inter-Lakes League Show. Waterford and Van Dyke will send some of their best talent to perform along with repeat performances of some of the more popular acts of the Walled Lake shows.

AT AVONDALE

Plans for the annual Sweetheart Dance, to be held Saturday night from 8 to 11, have been occupying the thoughts of students at Avondale High School this week.

The Continentals will provide the music for the girl-ask-boy occasion. The FHA is sponsoring the dance, and refreshments will be served.

Representatives from the Future Nurses Club will travel to the Detroit Tri-County League for Future Nurses, Saturday. Representing the junior class will be Zadell Hysmith with sophomore Joan Henderson. Joy Owen, president and Mrs. Cobb, sponsor, will accompany the girls.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

The buzz among students this week has been due to the coming Valentine Dance Sweetheart Serenade, sponsored by the seniors. It will be dressy dress. The gym has been acquired for Saturday evening, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The highlight will be when the king and queen of hearts are chosen. A crown and flowers will be presented to the lucky pair.

AT LAKE ORION

The Lake Orion High School students exceeded their goal of $50 per class by so much that the total collected for the polio drive was $581. The big cash registers on the bulletin board in the lobby recorded a final class total of $114 for the 10th grade; $92.02, the ninth; and $81.44, the 12th.

All band members have tickets to the Winter Concert Tuesday, which will feature a varied program by both the Junior and Senior High Bands.

The Bermuda Bounce, sponsored by the Y teens, will be an event of next Friday night with the girls issuing the invitations.

A new French club, the Ler Parissienne, under the sponsorship of Miss Beulah Hawley, was approved by the student council.

The constitution for the new National Honor Society is on the principle's desk this week. After his approval, it will be presented to the student council for their ratification.

WTHS Teens to Attend Parley

3 Delegates Named to 'Y' Conference at Battle Creek

By SANDY WHITE

Waterford Township High School Y-Teens will send three delegates from their club to the annual Mid-Winter Y-Teen Conference, Feb. 15, 16, 17 at St. Mary's Lake Camp in Battle Creek.

Juniors Connie Uhl, Jane Scott and a senior, Norma Sandoval, will represent Waterford and will be accompanied by Y-Teens sponsor, Edwina Isaacson.

Jane Scott was selected to be among the six panel members of the state planning board. She attended the conference in '56.

Skippers play their last home game Tuesday, Feb. 19, with Milford. Milford was defeated by Waterford on Jan. 23, by a score of 61-42. This afternoon, a pep assembly sponsored by the Varsity Club, topped off the excitement for tonight's game, away, with Walled Lake.

Co-op club members discussed the possibilities of places for a field trip and the date for their banquet, at a meeting Tuesday.

Showboat writers, directors and performers are rounding off preparations for the two performances of the variety show that the junior class is anticipating for Feb. 21 and 23.

Prom decoration plans will be designed and built around a theme of a southern plantation. Seniors will vote on an official title some time next week.

Interlake talent assembly exchanges begin on Feb. 27, when Waterford sends talent to Walled Lake. On March 7, we play host and hostess to all other Interlake schools' talent. On March 14 Waterford sends talent to Van Dyke.

At Junior Highs

Plan Dances, Fetes

An 11-student committee is making arrangements for the Avondale Junior High School Valentine Dance to be held tonight in the gym from 7:30 to 10.

Forty-five students and teachers from Avondale Junior High School will travel to Detroit Wednesday to attend the music Hall presentation, "Seven Wonders of the World."

AT WASHINGTON

This week, the students of Washington Junior High chose clubs for the semester. There were quite a few new clubs which the students could choose. Among these were baby-sitting, debate, wood-working, girls' home economics, models and metal club.

The Student Council had its first meeting of the semester Wednesday. New officers and members spent most of the time getting acquainted with their jobs.

AT LINCOLN

Thirty-five eager beavers who want to get in extra practice on typewriter skills meet twice a week with Virginia Smith, typing instructor.

AT EASTERN

Feb. 21 will be Loyalty Day at Eastern. Preparations for this event will begin on Tuesday, with the sale of beanies and pennants.

On Thursday, the boys and girls will be asked to come "dressed up." For one entire day they will be permitted to wear a beany and carry a pennant with the approval of their teachers.

The Broadcasting Club has elected Theresa Goodwin president for the new semester and Martha Schrieber, secretary.

AT ROCHESTER

During the Sweethearts Ball held at Rochester Junior High School Feb. 8, the long awaited event began. Bill Deneen, master of ceremonies, after the elaborate court procession, announced the ball queen—Margaret Klino.

AT MADISON

A Valentine Dance was held Thursday night at Madison Junior High, sponsored by the Teenage Dance Club of the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept. It was a couples dance and those attending were asked to wear something red.

St. Fred Yearbook Staff Ends Work on Edition

By MARGARET DRAKE

The St. Frederick Yearbook staff announced at the meeting held last night at the home of Marie Lewandowski that presses will begin rolling out the pages within two weeks. Final pictures of the various organizations were taken at the meeting.

The girls basketball team took the championship Sunday for their league in the final game of the season. They will enter the CYO tournaments in Detroit in two weeks.

Playing their final local game were five seniors, members of the team for the past four years: Sharon Neville, Mary Ann Neville, Margaret Drake, Marjorie McHugh and Pat Smith.

The junior varsity team also won in its division and will go on to tournament play early in March.

A basketball victory party is planned for Saturday evening at the home of Pat Doyon. Father Fabian Weber, athletic director, has promised the girls a party cake for their well deserved victories. Following this the girls, and their coach Joan Mazza, are going to attend the Mom's and Dad's club square dancing party in the school auditorium.

Seniors are holding a dance tonight in the auditorium. Music by University of Detroit Men of Notes will play for the dancing from 8:30 until 11:30.

Representatives of the sophomore classes elected Monday are Bob Morrow, Tom Lufkin, Carol Lawlor and Pat Doyon.

Trigonometry has been added to the curriculum this semester and is being taught by Eugene Wright.

Rochester Students See Comedy Skits

On Feb. 8, the students of Rochester High School enjoyed an assembly made up of skits about the events of this school year. This assembly started the drive for selling the school annual, "The Falcon." It was presented by Miss Eloise Tallant's dramatics and English classes.

St. Mike Schedules Valentine Dance

By JUDY NIEDJELSKI

The seniors at St. Michael's have planned a Valentine dance tonight, from 9 to 12. Sweetheart Serenade is the theme for the evening.

Senior Rosary Club met at Kenny Rogers home on Monday. Those present were Mary Raymond, Judy Erickson, Judy Niedjelski, Carm Ginell, Dan Dropps and Jim Barnowsky.

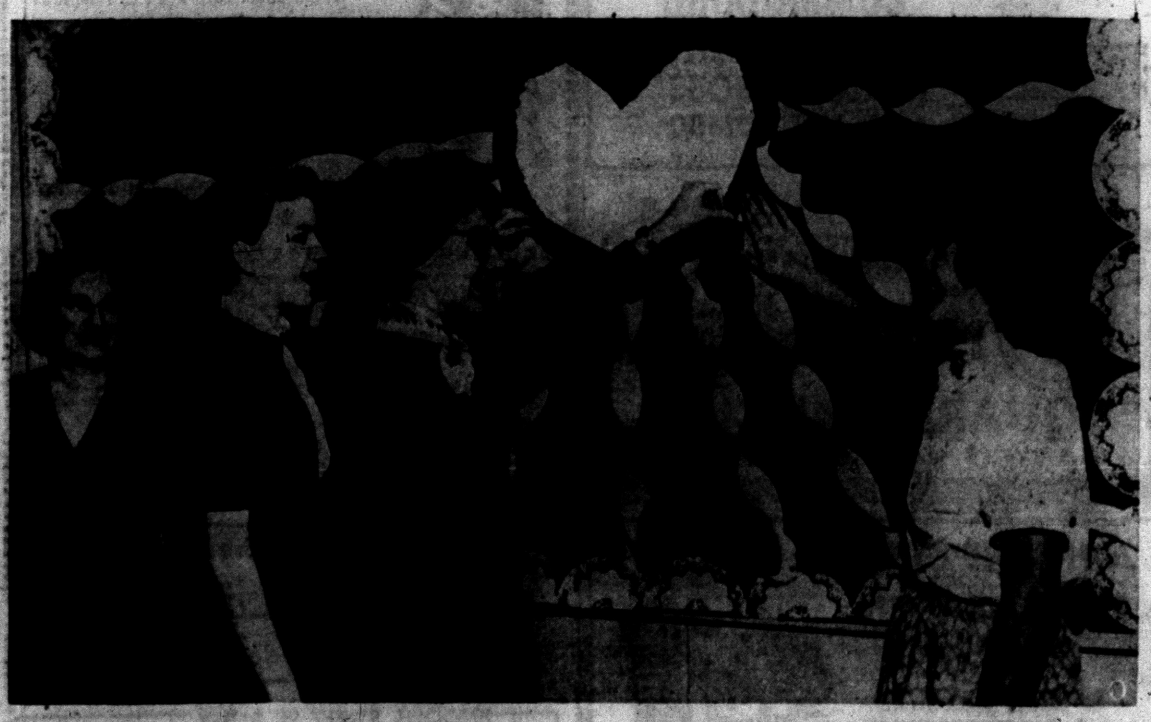

St. Mike's students have been celebrating their recent victory over St. Fred, 56-33. High scorers were Chuck Brown who netted 23 points, Ken Halpin contributing 13 points, and Dan Dropps who added 12 more.

This victory puts us in third place in the final Suburban Catholic League standings with a 7-3 record.

The senior class welcomes Judy Mellick back from her recent tonsillectomy. Her tonsils can be seen on the shelf in the biology classroom along with the other specimens.

These Are Right Puzzle Answers

The following are answers and explanations for the Pot-O-Gold puzzle which appeared in last week's Pontiac Press.

1. MINX fits. A MINX (saucy, impudent girl) would be mocking the fellow for his superstitions. A Jinx whether you believe in superstition or not, is one with a known record of misfortune. Such a one would be no good for any fellow, superstitious or not.

2. KEY is good. A clearly defined Sky could be a stormy one, with thunderclouds visible. A clearly defined KEY would be an island seen in clear weather. The clear weather would be welcome, just as the sight of land would be a relief from the monotony of the sea.

3. FAST is safer. A Soft ball can baffle a batter by upsetting his timing, but he certainly has more time to figure it out than a sudden FAST ball which can whiz right by him. Especially when it is unexpected.

4. RUSK is the choice. One form of RUSK (crisp toast) is the scratchy kind. All Husk is definitely pretty scratchy, and some husk is not food at all.

5. LIVE wins. Not all youngsters prefer Jive talk. Many are completely indifferent to it, or not "hep" to it. LIVE talk would be extremely interesting and vital. This would interest all, could include some jive talk.

6. ALGER is better. Even an unsophisticated reader would realize that he cannot be a king, so he would not envy a Regal hero. But such a reader could well fancy that the success, as from rags to riches, of an ALGER hero, is within his reach, given the right circumstances.

7. LAP is reasonable. A really fast man has natural speed, so one LAP on a track would be easy for him. A really fast (shrewd and crooked) man may still have a lot of trouble getting around a Law, depending on the law.

8. CHAIN is better. All fine China needs extra care, being valuable and fragile. Handling a piece of fine CHAIN would require the warning, perhaps.

9. ROCH is the choice. Such a mishap would be the captain's responsibility, and he would rate a reprimand. A ship approaching a Dock would usually be in charge of a pilot, so that he would be reprimanded for damage done, rather than the captain.

10. KEEL is better. The implication here is that there is some control over the required strength. KEEL strength can be controlled. It is man-made, and suited to specifications. Leek, an onion relative, is naturally (not "has to be") strong in odor and taste.

11. LAPSE is inclusive. Since LAPSE would cover Sleep, it is the wiser choice. As for sleep alone it is possible to imagine a night watchman snatching a bit of sleep at times, with no one the wiser. A LAPSE would be some definite shortcoming or mistake that would redound to his discredit.

12. QUOTER, for sure. The QUOTER of prices will definitely state them, and the difference will then be indicated. Torque, the use of torsion in some mechanical effect in the cars, might account for a difference in price, but would not "indicate" it.

13. SERVE is better. Because there is no reason given to account or a break, you cannot logically choose Sever. You can choose SERVE, because it is quite possible that the son may SERVE many customers, including relations of the family.

14. PUN is good. "frowned upon" would be a ridiculously mild statement for careless use of a Gun. It suits PUN very well.

15. FIND fits because of the phrase "would surely." A person who is independent may be in a business that requires him to Mind other people's business (radio, press, police work, etc.). But an independent person would surely FIND his own business, rather than be obligated to anyone.

16. BUTLER fits better with the clue "of a somewhat old-fashioned nature." A BUTLER, as head servant of a large staff, having charge of wines and liquors, announcing important guests, etc., is certainly performing duties of a "somewhat old-fashioned" kind. The Sutler's service would be considered decidedly out of date, for he followed armies on the march, supplying food, liquors, etc. Since the modern army is almost wholly mechanized, the role of the sutler is no longer feasible.

Teamster Told He Must Testify

Special Senate Group Expects to Hear From Einar Mohn

WASHINGTON (AP) — Einar Mohn, top teamsters union official, was told today he "will be expected and required" to testify before a special Senate committee probing labor and industry racketeering.

Mohn, executive vice president of the teamsters, got that reply from Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) to his offer "to make myself available" to the new group. Mohn is facing a contempt of Congress citation for refusing to answer questions before the Senate Investigations subcommittee also headed by McClellan.

McClellan made public the exchange of letters with Mohn on the heels of a request to the union's president Dave Beck to surrender "all of your personal financial records from 1950 to date" for the special committee scrutiny.

Beck, touring in Europe, is immune from subpoena until he returns to U. S. soil. He has said he will be available later.

Committee sources disclosed a broad-scale operation is under way in cities from coast to coast to subpoena the financial records of other teamsters union officials.

Religious Award Given to Five City Boy Scouts

Five Pontiac Boy Scouts received the religious award "Ad Altare Dei," Sunday at a ceremony held at the University of Detroit Memorial Building.

They are: Dana Hustosky and John Gottschalk, both of Troop 8 sponsored by St. Benedicts Parish; Conrad Haak, Troop 4, sponsored by the Baldwin PTA, and John Scharfenkamp, Troop 5, sponsored by the Congregational Church, both members of St. Michaels Parish; and Lyle Henretty, of Troop 15, sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Vincent de Paul Parish.

The awards, bronze crosses suspended by a ribbon in papal and national colors from a bronze bar, were presented to the boys by Bishop Charles Nelligan during a special Boy Scout Holy Hour conducted in observance of Boy Scout Week.

The medals are given annually by the Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit, to Boy Scouts of the Catholic faith based on performance in the field of scouting and service of the church. Over 300 scouts from the Detroit Archdiocese received the award Sunday.

Call It Hasty Eating —but Didn't Finish Meal

BRISTOL, R. I. (AP)—A hungry thief broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Springer last night—but he had to settle for a snack on the run.

On investigation they found a man had broken in and was cooking some bacon to go with cheese and ice cream he had removed from the refrigerator.

Mrs. Springer's shouts caused him to flee, but not before he took $5.60 from her pocketbook and five cupcakes from the cupboard.

Ike May Switch Several Envoys

A change in ambassadors to Belgium and the Netherlands also is said to be in the offing.

Diplomatic officials said Llewellyn Thompson, now American ambassador to Austria, may succeed Bohlen, who has been at his Moscow post for nearly four years.

Bohlen some time ago asked for a change of assignment and he reportedly has been offered another post. He is due here Feb. 21, presumably to discuss his new job.

Informants said President Eisenhower has decided to nominate J. Clifford Folger, chairman of the Republican Finance Committee, to take over in Belgium. He would succeed Frederick M. Alger of Grosse Pointe, Mich. Folger is an investment banker here.

English Labor Party Wins One More Seat

LONDON (AP) — The opposition Labor party wrested a House of Commons seat from the governing Conservatives yesterday in the first by-election since Prime Minister Harold Macmillan took office. Labor leaders claimed it indicates how the whole country feels.

Laborite Niell MacDermott defeated Conservative Norman Farmer 18,516-17,406 in the North Lewisham district of London. Miss Leslie Greene, an independent, got 1,487 votes.

The election filled the vacancy caused by the death of a Conservative, Sir Austen Hudson. He defeated his Laborite opponent by 3,236 votes in a two-man race in the 1955 general election.

It was the first time since 1954 that the Laborites had taken a seat from the Conservatives in a special election to fill a vacancy. No seat changed in 16 other such by-elections.

Rash Trial Set to Open Tuesday

Charge Rochester Man With Shotgun Death of Wife, Nina

Trial of L. J. Rash, of Rochester on a first-degree murder charge, probably will begin next week, Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said today.

Rash, 52, of 313 Woodward Ave. is charged with the shotgunning of his wife, Nina, 48, early last Nov. 26. He has been held in Oakland County Jail since then.

Taylor said Rash tentatively has been scheduled for jury trial before Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty Tuesday.

Rash is accused of slaying his wife as she returned from a weekend away from home. He claimed she was running around with other men and breaking up homes, police said.

Says Americans Need Schooling in Languages

NEW YORK (INS)—A prominent educator declares that American ignorance of foreign languages has hampered the U. S. in its relations with the rest of the world.

Dr. John F. Gummere, headmaster of the William Penn Charter School of Philadelphia, yesterday told a luncheon forum of the tuition plan that language study should be given a place of top importance in education to meet the series need throughout the world for clarity in mass communications.

The tuition plan award for outstanding service to education was presented to Devereux C. Josephs, head of the president's committee for education beyond the high school. The committee is a group of 35 distinguished Americans now making a study of the problems facing all colleges and universities.

Dr. Gummere said:

"Our linguistic illiteracy is a disgrace. Our ineptness in dealing with people of other countries is in many ways a result of this. The damage that has been done can never properly be estimated. If we must learn how to get on with other nations, other countries, other cultures, then let our first step be to learn to speak their language."

Valentine's Day Sweet for Outnumbered Coeds

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Valentine's Day found it a woman's world on the University of Michigan campus.

Pay Didn't Last Long

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jerry White's pay lasted only about 10 minutes. White, 35, told police he cashed a $79 paycheck and started home. A man opened the door of his car at a red light, got in, demanded his wallet, took his money, got out and drove off in another car.

Hollywood Headlines

Monica Lewis Signs Up for Webb's Next Picture

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Signing Monica Lewis was a good day's work for Jack Webb, who put her under contract to play opposite him in "D.I." (drill instructor), his next feature motion picture at Warners. I have always thought Monica was one of our most attractive singer-actresses.

At the time she married Jennings Lang, Monica told me that she was flirting with the idea of retiring from her career. Then Jennings encouraged her to accept engagements in San Francisco and Reno, plus several good TV appearances.

Jack tells me his "D.I." epic is a drama about a tough drill instructor at the Parris Island Marine training base. He'll produce and direct as well as emote.

Like the good old days to visit three busy stages on the 20th Century-Fox lot. Had a wonderful time chatting with Cary Grant and Leo McCarey on "An Affair to Remember" set.

While I was there, a coat for Deborah Kerr in one of my favorite colors, tangerine, was shown Leo. I thought it was beautiful. He thought it was too garish.

Cary looks great and says he never felt better. He says when he and Ingrid Bergman make that picture together he hopes Leo will direct them. Remember, Leo directed "Bells of St. Mary's," with Bergman and Bing Crosby.

CHAT WITH KATIE

Spent considerable time talking to Katharine Hepburn on the set of "Desk Set." Phyllis Welborne, who was with our mutual friend, Constance Collier, so many years, is now with Katie.

"Isn't it from the sublime to the ridiculous," laughed Katie. "You know, Constance was so social-minded, and loved people, and had so many visitors and I live so quietly and see almost no one."

Yet, in all the years I have known Katie I have never seen her put herself out so much to be charming. I felt she was genuinely glad to see me, as I was her. And, of course, that Spencer Tracy—I've always loved him and my friend director Walter Lang.

Janet Gaynor, looking scarcely any older than she did when she won the first Oscar, was welcomed back to her alma mater, 20th Century-Fox, with a cocktail party. Since I was on the lot, I stopped by for a moment.

Adrian told me he was so glad Janet is going to play in "Bernardine." "I think it's good for her," he said, "she has given up her career for so many years."

Just the cast was invited to the party, but others dropped by including Buddy Adler, director Henry Levin, producer Sam Engel, Clifton Webb, Terry Moore, Pat Boone, James Drury and his bride of a week, Greek actress Cristall Orton, Ronnie Burns and Dean Jagger.

NEW YORK HOME

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Arlene Dahl and Fernando Lamas leased a house in New York and sent for their furniture. Fernando will be in "Happy Hunting" for a year, and Arlene has many irons in the fire, too.

Ringsiding at the Mocambo at Monique Van Vooren's opening were Joan Collins and Charlie Chaplin Jr., once a big twosome. Looks as if Joan and Arthur Loew Jr. have parted for keeps.

No doubt that Pat Boone is going to get a plus for his acting in "Bernardine." I watched him do a scene and he was smooth as satin.

Court Not Impartial, Objector Discovers

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—A civil suit was in progress in Municipal Court, and a lawyer was questioning a witness on the stand.

"I object!" cried the witness' counsel.

"I object!" cried yet another lawyer.

The latter objector, despite his protests, was hauled off to jail yesterday on a drunk charge. He was booked as Beryl L. Solvey, 28, a courtroom spectator.

Pistons Make Home in Detroit

NBA Franchise Okays Move

DETROIT (AP) — Millionaire industrialist Fred Zollner has a simple explanation for his decision to move the Fort Wayne Pistons of the National Basketball Assn. to Detroit:

"We had about 3,000 loyal fans in Fort Wayne. If we had 5,000, we'd have been in business. It's a red-hot basketball town, but just too small for us. As long as we stayed there, we couldn't keep pace with the growth of the rest of the league."

The Pistons are coming into a town whose sports fans sometimes shy away when the words "pro basketball" are uttered. They had it once. They didn't especially like it.

And the two clubs who tried to make a go of it a decade ago were left with bad tastes after taking a combined financial beating that amounted to $80,000.

"But neither of those teams was successful," Zollner pointed out. "The Pistons have been successful. We're successful now. We intend to keep on being successful."

There were the old Detroit Falcons, members of the old Basketball Assn. of America. A last-place finish brought about a $50,000 setback. The same year the Detroit Gems were in the National Basketball League. Somehow the Gems managed to string together 40 consecutive losses and wound up with a $30,000 deficit.

No one has "experimented" with the Motor City since—not until Zollner announced yesterday he is moving the Piston franchise to Detroit starting with the 1957-58 season.

The BAA and the NBL joined to form the NBA in 1949.

"In 1931,' Zollner recalled, "I had been operating a big piston plant in Duluth, Minn. I decided to move to Fort Wayne to be closer to my sources of material and my market. That's the same way I feel about moving the Pistons to Detroit now."

The club will play most of its 36 home games at Detroit's Olympia Stadium, which can seat more than 13,000 basketball fans. The Pistons have a six-year contract, with an option to extend it after that time. There is a good chance the Pistons will play as many as seven of their 1957-58 games in Fort Wayne.

Charley Eckman, now in his third year as Piston coach, signed a new three-year contract yesterday.

Bay City Central Is Home Finale for Chief Quint

Contest Has Crucial Bearing on Pontiac's SVC Status

Tonight's Games
Bay City at Pontiac
Saginaw at Arthur Hill
Flint Northern at Flint Central

Troublesome Bay City Central may be figuring this would be the right time to pour salt into the healing wounds of Pontiac's basketball team.

The Wolves are out of the Saginaw Valley Conference title race mainly because of three early season heart-breaking losses by a total of 13 points, including a 57-54 defeat by Pontiac which came in the last four seconds of play.

Since then however, Bay City has reshuffled its forces and has now swept to six of its last seven games.

The Wolves are the second best balanced scoring team in the SVC behind Saginaw and the addition of a 6-feet-3 sophomore has also given them additional height on the boards.

The newcomer is Bob Bishop who played his first game following an injury to center Bruce Lodewyk against Saginaw last week. Bishop immediately hit for 10 points and Tuesday against Midland he added another 14, all on field goals.

To note Bay City's scoring in the last six games, at least four players have hit in double figures in each of the contests.

Don Kanicki, 6-feet-4 center, has dropped through 15-14-20-14-17 and 15 in his last six starts. Forward Harold Busch has also found the range with a shooting streak of 12-12-16-16 and 18 in consecutive games.

The addition of Bishop and the return of Terry Ebright and Chuck Crampton, who were out with leg injuries, gives Bay City its best depth since the start of the season.

For Pontiac the SVC title is far from secure. The Chiefs must win two of their next three to clinch the crown, unless of course Saginaw is beaten by Arthur Hill or Flint Central, and that doesn't seem likely.

Coach Art Van Ryzin is concerned with Pontiac's poor rebounding in the past three games. With the loss of Jim Skinner the rebounding has especially been hurt at forward, leaving much of the task on Hudson Ray's shoulders.

It will be the last home game of the season and tickets are still available.

Surprising MSU Quint Hosts Iowa; Loop Tilts for 'M,' Titans

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan State, now definitely a title contender, will be out to cut down Iowa Saturday night at East Lansing to keep position in the tangled Big Ten basketball fight.

The surprising Spartans, starting from the bottom of the standings, now have clawed their way near the top of the pack on a string of five straight conference wins.

A balanced scoring attack and the good defensive play contributed to the late season success story.

Michigan and Detroit will also be at home to formidable opponents Saturday.

Leaders May Lose Spots in 5th Bowling Weekend

A weekend of bowling which may have great bearing on the final standings is on tap here beginning tomorrow afternoon as the Michigan Elks Tournament swings into the 5th of eight weeks of action.

Last weekend was the 1st in which there were no changes among the leaders but this one could very well go the opposite way with Grand Rapids, Royal Oak and Midland among the major cities sending topnotch keglers to compete.

Bay City, Allegan and Cadillac will be other places represented during the two-day session with more Pontiac men scheduled to hit the alleys Sunday.

All are gunning for those top spots and a chance to benefit from the record prize purse of $14,490. There is also the added incentive of setting new pin marks for the 37 year old event.

Only one record has been broken thus far. That occurred two weeks ago when Plymouth's doubles duo of Bill Fann and Vern Miller rolled a handicap score of 1374.

The records still standing are: Team actual—3202, team handicap—3260, doubles actual—1396, singles actual—755 and singles handicap—785.

Detroiter John Gavie has dominated both singles divisions since the tourney started. Dickie's Service of Pontiac has held the lead in both team groups for three weeks. Doubles actual pace-setters K. Walker—K. Haviland have also been in front three weeks. The same is true of Battle Creek star H. Zook in all-events.

Team play will start Saturday afternoon at the Elks alleys at 2:30 and at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. All doubles and singles are at the Huron Bowl. Saturday starting time is 2 p.m. and the 1st Sunday squad toes the line at 9:30 a.m.

Michigan's Rotunno Signs With Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns got signed contracts back today from Mike Rotunno of Michigan and Bob Mischak, former Army end.

Rotunno, a native of Canton, Ohio, put in two seasons at fullback and end at Michigan before being shifted to center and linebacker in his senior year. Coach Paul Brown says he expects Rotunno to be a strong candidate for the linebacker job.

The Truth Comes Out—Ted's Bad Manners Ignored

By AUSTEN LAKE

BOSTON (AP)—Maybe you won't gasp "gee" or "gosh" about this. But the Red Sox didn't collect a copper of the phony "fine" they pretended to sock Ted Williams with last summer, after his several "salivated salutes' to Boston's fans and press.

My authority is Ted himself.

During his fly-casting act in Boston last week, he told a friend that, after Joe Cronin made his announcement that he (Ted) had been fined $5,000 for "intolerable" behavior, the subject was never mentioned again. It just died by mutual, unspoken consent of both parties. "Lot've ear-oil," was Ted's expression.

Baseball Meeting

Members of the Los Mayas baseball club and any others interested in joining the team are requested to meet Sunday at 1:30 o'clock. Place of meeting is the Vets' hall at 352 Franklin Road. It is planned to set up club organization for the 1957 baseball season.

BIG SWINGER — That's how the golf world rates young Ken Venturi of San Francisco. Close in the Masters and Open as an amateur last year, he's pro now.

Gloves Tourney at Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — This Convention Center was host today to a youthful group displaying leather goods and fire-works in the state Golden Gloves boxing championships for 1957.

A field of about 100 ambitious amateurs waited for the bell opening a two-night tournament to decide champions in 16 divisions.

Victories in numerous local contests provided tournament berths for the campaigners representing Grand Rapids, Traverse City, Lansing, Kalamazoo, Jackson, Flint and Bay City.

The finals of a three-night campaign drew 5,200 spectators last Saturday night to Civic Auditorium where the 16-man Grand Rapids team was formed. Only two were repeat champions from the tournament a year ago.

Novices leave the division to be classified in the open ranks after winning three bouts or becoming 20 years old.

The 14 others comprising the Grand Rapids team are relatively new in Golden Gloves activity, now boasting a 26-year record in the Furniture City.

One of the names among them, however, recalls a sparkling Michigan boxer of former years. Wesley Ramey Jr., won the novice crown in the 118-pound class.

He fights under the tutelage of his father, a former amateur and professional boxing star, who has dedicated himself over the past 24 years to helping develop amateur boxers.

A full team of 16 — eight novices and eight open candidates — carry the Bay City colors into the tournament. Gathering most of its boxers from the Thumb district of Michigan, the Bay City squad also includes star performers from Wurtsmith Air Force Base at Oscoda.

Eleven candidates for state Golden Gloves honors represent the Traverse City area. They won the right to their individual crowns last Saturday in district finals.

Huron Bowling Tourney Heads Into 3rd Weekend

Ninety teams from Pontiac, Detroit, Farmington, Birmingham and surrounding areas will be vying to overtake the leaders as the Huron Valley Tournament goes into its 3rd weekend of action Saturday and Sunday at the Fairgrounds alleys.

The Commerce Stars set the tourney high at 3019 last week led by Beech Pohl, who had three 200 games. He leads the individuals for high series with 634.

Action begins Saturday at 1:30 p.m. on all 10 alleys. The starting time moves up to 11 a.m. Sunday.

Cash awards and trophies will be presented the top finishers at the conclusion of the tourney Feb. 24. Trophies will go to the top five teams for actual pinfall over their regular average.

High series and high game awards will be given to individual pace-setters.

Jewelers Rally for 63-57 Win

Shaw's Jewelers had their troubles for a spell last night, but they still won their 11th straight game in the American division of the City Basketball League.

Trailing at halftime, 36-31, the Jewelers roared back to hand Walled Lake Super Market a 63-57 setback in the Pontiac High gym. It was Walled Lake's 4th loss in 12 starts.

Chief Tankers Seek Second Loop Victory

Seeking their 2nd Valley swimming loop victory and their 1st win in three years in the Wolves' small pool, PHS Chief tankers today travel to Bay City Central for an afternoon contest.

"We're in as good shape as at any time this year" says coach Robert (Des) Boyce. "I think we can give them a hot battle, and they are always tough in the home pool".

At least three good duels loom. Captain Dennis Simonson meets Art Meisel, rated top breastroker in the Valley and one of the top individual medley swimmers of the SVC. They are Dennis' specialities and he could take both. Jim Gibbs is another big threat for PHS, in the backstroke.

Named 'Detroit Pistons'

DETROIT (AP) — So Detroit has a professional basketball team. So, what happens now? Where do we go from here?

Owner Fred Zollner of the "Detroit Pistons," as they will be known come next October, said the switch — among other things — means that:

The Pistons will play no games in out-state Michigan, not for the first year, at least.

Ticket prices probably will range from $1 to $3, with two free games thrown in with the purchase of a book of season tickets.

The Pistons will maintain year-around offices at Olympia Stadium, and except for general manager Otto W. Adams, the staff will be made up of Detroit people.

The Pistons will immediately request territorial rights to players from all of Michigan. The current set-up gives a team the rights to players within a 50-mile radius, which would eliminate Michigan State players.

Incidentally, the Piston coach is a guy named Charley Eckman. The team colors are blue and white, and there are 10 players on the squad. The payroll, at about $123,000, is the second highest in the National Basketball Association.

TEST YOUR BASEBALL KNOW-HOW . . .

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

By BEN OLAN

The Chicago Cubs finished in the National League cellar for the fourth time in nine years in 1956. Their poor showing resulted in the ouster of Manager Stan Hack, who was replaced last October by Bob Scheffing.

The Cubs defeated the pennant-winning Brooklyn Dodgers only six times while losing 16 games. They did, however, beat the Dodgers twice in extra innings.

SAM JONES

Here's a situation in one of those games. The strategy helped put the game in the victory column. What would you have done if you were managing the Cubs?

Key: (R) righthanded; (L) lefthanded.)

Starting pitcher Sam Jones (R) still is working in the top of the 14th inning as the Cubs and Dodgers are deadlocked 2-2 at Chicago. Brooklyn pitcher Sal Maglie opens with a base on balls and is sacrificed to second by Junior Gilliam. Pee Wee Reese pops out to shortstop Ernie Banks for the second out. Duke Snider (L) is the next batter with Don Zimmer (R) and Sandy Amoros (L) to follow.

Would you:
a. Let Jones pitch to Snider?
b. Bring in a lefthander to pitch to Snider?
c. Have Jones walk Snider intentionally?

Result: C—Jones intentionally walks Snider. Then, after Maglie moves to third base on a wild pitch, Jones retires Zimmer on a force out. Cubs win 4-3 in the 14th on Gene Baker's homer (June 1).

Falcon Matmen Win

Farmington High School entered the victory column for the 1st time in its new sport of wrestling last night with an impressive 37-15 trouncing of Livonia Bentley. Jim Marsh, Steve McCane, Nick Staudt and George Fawcett scored pins as the Falcons broke a three-match losing streak.

Prep School Appeals Suit

DUNSMUIR, Calif. (AP) — Dunsmuir joint union high school's trustees resolved last night to appeal the $325,000 damage award to Anthony L. Welch, 18, who was crippled in a football scrimmage.

The board also asserted coach Paul Reginato was not negligent and decided not to curtail its physical education or athletic programs until the final legal ruling has been made. The board had indicated previously that all athletics might be eliminated from the school program.

A Shasta County Superior Court jury awarded the $325,000 which is $125,000 more than the school district's liability insurance.

Welch was paralyzed from the waist down in a 1955 accident. His suit asserted the coach had been negligent in not moving him from the field faster.

Boxing Incomes Face Tax Probe

Treasury Men to Check Pay-as-You-Go Methods for Pro Fighters

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Treasury men are going to make a quick check on the 1956 income tax returns of heavyweight boxing champ Floyd Patterson and some other top pursewinners.

Some day they may ask Congress to change the law so sports stars, actors and others who may have just a few years of big earnings, will get tapped for the right tax as they go along and won't get billed for arrears when they're out of money.

This word came from Russell C. Harrington, Internal Revenue Commissioner, and O. Gordon Delk, his top deputy during a discussion of Joe Louis' tax troubles. They appeared at a closed door hearing of a House Appropriations subcommittee Jan. 29. Their testimony was made public today.

Louis' lawyer says the onetime heavyweight king's income tax debt is close to $1,238,000 and is piling up to $278 to $300 a day because of interest—even though Louis has paid substantial amounts to the government.

Webb Favored Over Rivers in TV Bout

NEW YORK (AP) — Ellsworth "Spider" Webb and muscular Neal Rivers, a couple of well travelled middleweight contenders, make their Madison Square Garden debuts tonight with the streaking Spider a 12-5 favorite.

Webb, now a Chicago resident, puts a winning streak of 17 as well as his No. 4 ranking on the line against the hard-hitting youngster from Las Vegas. Rivers 22, a native of Montgomery, Ala., is ranked eighth among the challengers for Gene Fullmer's 160-pound crown.

The 10-rounder will be broadcast and telecast, NBC, 10 p.m., EST, coast to coast

Piersall Is Only Correct Fielder, DiMaggio Says

BOSTON (AP) — Boston's Jimmy Piersall is the only American League outfielder playing his position properly according to Dom DiMaggio.

"Piersall is the only outfielder playing his position properly," said the hustle-guy who passed up a $30,000 salary four years ago to launch his business venture. Dom was Red Sox centerfielder.

"I managed to see about a dozen Red Sox games last season and I was disappointed at the outfielding," DiMaggio said.

"Piersall is the exception. He'll play in close the way a major leaguer should. Apparently, the other outfielders are afraid to back for a ball over their heads."

Howe Fires—Wings Win, 3-2

By BILL CORNWELL

DETROIT—A master stroke by a master craftsman told the story of Thursday night's Detroit-New York hockey game.

Gordie Howe, never taking charge of a situation at a more opportune time, fired a rifle-like shot past goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley in the waning moments of the 3rd period to hand the Red Wings a 3-2 victory.

Howe's goal, his 33rd of the season and No. 10 against the Rangers, was brilliantly executed and came with only three minutes and 48 seconds of play remaining.

The veteran Detroit star came through just when the two teams appeared headed for a 2-2 standstill. He pickd up Johnny Bucyk's drop pass and beat Worsley with a sharp 30-footer to seal New York's doom and delight 13,515 spectators at Olympia Stadium.

Detroit's hard-earned triumph, accomplished despite some sloppy defensive work, was an important one. Coupled with Montreal's 2-1 loss to Toronto last night, it boosted the Wings' NHL lead to six points.

The two clubs matched goals in the 1st two periods. One New York tally came while the Wings were shorthanded.

New York opened the scoring in the 9th minute of the 1st stanza. With Bucyk in the penalty box for kneeing, George Sullivan took Andy Bathgate's relay directly in front of goaltender Glenn Hall and surprised him with a short blast.

Detroit bounced back to tie the count in the final minute of the 1st period. Bucyk, after several jabs at the puck, poked it into the cage during a wild goalmouth scramble.

Then Howe cut loose—and that was that.

Six penalties were assessed, none in the final stanza, with each team guilty of three. Worsley made a total of 25 saves compared to 16 stops for Hall.

In contrast with the previous Detroit-New York meeting, this game was a tame affair. No outbreaks occurred and even dirty looks seemed to be absent.

Crippled PHS Matmen Lose

With four starters missing from the lineup for various reasons, the Pontiac Chiefs were no match for Berkley's strong wrestling contingent bowing 47-5 at the Bear gym last night.

Willie Duncan was the only PHS victor. He saved the locals from a shutout with a pin in 5:20 of his heavyweight match. The 188-pounder now has personally accounted for 23 points in 10 outings, eight of them defeats.

Pontiac Coach Bill Willson was forced to use six newcomers, due to injuries, illness and disciplinary reasons. Impressive in defeat were Dave Payne, Mel Nosenchuk and Nick Shorter.

Payne dropped a 5-3 decision to Berkley Capt. Lou Drew in a close 120-pound scrap. Nosenchuk, 133, bowed to Jay Klauson by 7-5 and Shorter, in his initial varsity match, was pinned near the end of his bout by Don Oldham.

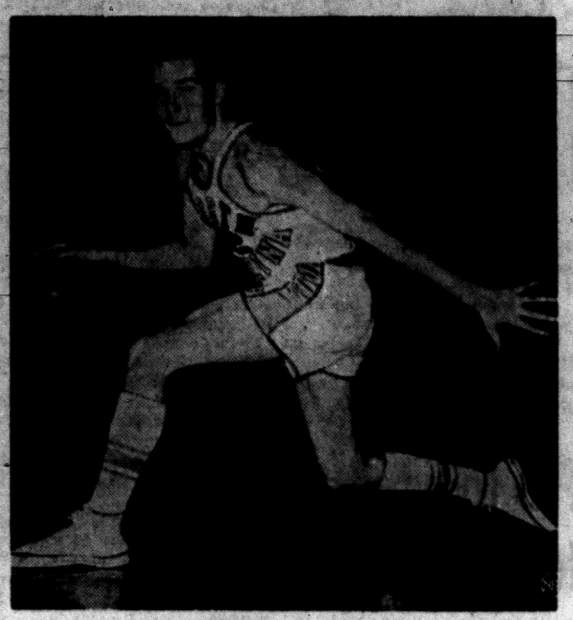

The Valentine's Day triumph gave the Bears six straight wins and a 7-1 record.

HP Wrestlers Win

A six-pin performance enabled Hazel Park to post an easy 47-5 wrestling verdict over Thurston in a home match yesterday. The win set the Viking season record at 6-3.

Crane-Jay Matmen Meet

Wrestling teams from Southfield and Cranbrook will meet on the Crane mats this afternoon at 4:00 p.m.

THE DRIVER — Bob Cunningham's backcourt play has kept North Carolina on top this season. He's a junior.

Huge Arena to Be Built

NEW YORK (INS) — Plans were announced today for the immediate construction in New York of the world's largest enclosed arena — designed to seat 150,000 people and big enough for two baseball or four football games to be played simultaneously.

The sponsors, who were to disclose details of the arena at City Hall today in the presence of Mayor Robert F. Wagner, said the project — which has been named "Olympic City" — would cost some $57,000,000 and that the entire cost would be borne by private capital.

Plans call for the arena to be constructed of aluminum, for every seat to have an unobstructed view and for the entire structure to cover an area equal to 15 city blocks.

Northville Invades Clarkston

League Titles Beckon Preps

By BILL CORNWELL

They're fighting right down to the wire this season in at least three Oakland County area prep leagues.

The championship trophy is definitely up for grabs in the Wayne-Oakland, Oakland B and Inter-Lakes conferences as the 1956-57 basketball season enters the stretch run.

A sprinkling of upsets and some brilliant late-season play by inspired clubs have turned what looked like a one-team show into a two-way race.

Five crucial games are scheduled in these three circuits tonight, with title hopes riding on every basket for six of the participants.

WAYNE-OAKLAND

It's a safe bet that very few Clarkston residents will be relaxing at home in front of their TV sets. They'll be out in force at the high school gym to cheer for their Wolves against Northville.

The Mustangs, setting the pace in the W-O loop with a 9-1 record, invade the Independence Township village to meet the runner-up Wolves in tonight's No. 1 area attraction.

Clarkston, boasting eight wins and two losses, can tie Northville for 1st place by winning and put itself in a good position to share the crown.

OAKLAND B

Avondale and Troy, deadlocked for the lead, both tangle with unpredictable opponents.

The Yellow Jackets warily invade Lake Orion to face a Dragon quintet which has deadly shooters and little consistency. Troy plays host to a Clawson team which has given league foes many uncomfortable moments.

INTER-LAKES

Walled Lake, upended by Berkley last Friday for its 1st loss of the season and thereby forced to divide the top spot with the Bears, entertains Waterford.

Eastern Michigan League activity sends Birmingham to Port Huron, East Detroit to Ferndale and Mt. Clemens to Hazel Park. East Detroit could hit a snag in Ferndale, a squad the Shamrocks edged by one point at home.

Southern Thumb League engagements are Armada at Dryden, Memphis at Almont and New Haven at Capac. North Branch invades Oxford and Ortonville visits Millington for South Central Conference contests.

Other games of area interest are Lapeer at Romeo, Utica at Lake Short, Cranbrook at Flint Tech and Harper Woods at Bloomfield Hills.

Moving Pistons Defeat Celtics

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fort Wayne's Pistons move to Detroit next season but you cannot fault their home record this year in naming the reasons for the transfer to a more populous area.

When the Pistons defeated the Boston Celtics 112-106 at Fort Wayne last night in a clash between the NBA division leaders it marked their 19th victory in 22 home games. But on the road it has been an entirely different story with a record of eight wins and 25 defeats.

Shortly after owner Fred Zollner announced yesterday the Pistons were moving to Detroit, he signed Coach Charley Eckman to a new three-year contract.

And then the Pistons went out and showed 5,734 fans some what more than the average turnout of 3,600, why they are leading the western division by a margin of 1½ games even though they are below .500 because of their poor road record.

Georgia Racial Bill May Close Milwaukee Farm

ATLANTA (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves will close down their big baseball farm operation at Waycross if a racial bill passed yesterday by the Georgia Senate becomes law.

John Mullen, Milwaukee farm director, said "we would simply have to pack up and leave Waycross" if the Georgia house passes and Gov. Marvin Griffin signs the measure, which would outlaw interracial athletics.

Last year a similar bill died without coming to a vote.

Lee Battles Adams for Billiard Title

Lee, who is seeking his 10th straight title, stopped Cleveland's Dick Michaels 50-33 last night while Adams, previously unbeaten, was upset by Chet Krizek of Milwaukee 50-42. Lee and Adams both have 5-1 records.

Three other bouts will be played today to determine second place. Krizek meets Joe Renihan of Grand Rapids, Mich. in one of them.

Kramer Finds He Can't Take Money With Him

He's got a lot of gold, but what can he do with it?

Kramer, whose tour opens at Madison Square Garden Sunday afternoon, said today his troupe grossed $132,000 in Australia, with a net gain of 60 per cent, or $79,200.

But Australian law forbids taking the money, which was collected in pounds ($2.25 each), out of the country.

He was able to pay his two main attractions, Pancho Gonzales and Ken Rosewall, each a 25 cent per cut in pounds. He also paid off his other players, Pancho Segura and Tony Trabert.

But that left him approximately $30,000, which he had to leave in Australia.

"I paid my taxes and then turned the rest over to a friend for investment," Kramer said. "I set up an organization known as World Tennis Inc., to operate in Australia.

"I'm putting some of it into race horses, which can be brought to this country — with a foal if a mare or for stud purposes if a stallion. That way, I can get my dollars back."

Pro Tour Fails to Land Kramer

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Ron Kramer, captain of the University of Michigan basketball team, has turned down an offer to join an all-star basketball team scheduled to tour with the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Kramer, an All America football end, said yesterday he decided against turning professional as a basketball player because he wanted to earn his ninth letter at Michigan.

He already has three letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

"I'll go out for track in the spring then I'll sign for professional football in June," Kramer said.

Kramer graduates in June.

Lower Peninsula to Have Good Fishing

LANSING (AP) — Fishing conditions should be fair to good over most of the Northern Lower Peninsula this weekend, the State Conservation Department reported today.

The report by species:
PERCH—Good at Little Glen Lake, Leelanau County; Bear, Muskegon and White Lakes, Muskegon County, Saginaw Bay, Higgins Lake and off Beaver Island.
PIKE—Fair at Long and Cranberry Lakes, Clare County, and most northern lakes in Traverse City region.
SMELT—Good during the day at Lake Charlevoix.
LAKE TROUT—Good at Higgins Lake with fair size trout being caught.

Five Golfers Tied at St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Five players were tied at the start of the second round of the $5,000 St. Petersburg Women's Open golf tournament today. Only four strokes separated the top 19 in the tight match.

Those who shot yesterday's low score of 70 were Louise Suggs, Betty Jameson, Marlene Bauer Hagge, Fay Crocker and Joyce Ziske. Women's par for the 6,116-yard Sunset course is 74.

Defending champion Kathy Cornelius was close up with 71. That figure was matched by Mary Lena Faulk, whose 32 on the back nine was the day's low round. Greta Leone of Chicago was low amateur with 72.

THURSDAY'S FIGHTS

REVERE, Mass. — Pat McCarthy Jr., 139, Revere, knocked out Richie Morin, 129½, Biddeford, Maine, 1.
REVERE, Mass.—Bobby McHugh, 136, Revere, outpointed Myrel Olmstead, 133, Springfield, Mass., 8.

Rookie Considered Another Campanella

HAVANA (AP) — Brooklyn's long search for a "new Campanella" may have ended in John Roseboro, a young man from Ashland, Ohio, who is drawing rave notices from Caribbean baseball scouts.

Roseboro, 23, hit .338 with Caracas in the Venezuela winter league and has been competing in the Caribbean series against Cuba, Puerto Rico and Panama. Last year he was a .273 hitter with 25 home runs at Montreal.

"Roseboro is the number one prospect I've seen anyplace," said Mickey Owen, who manages Mayaguez, the Puerto Rican league champions. "He can do all things big—run, hit and throw.

Duke Snider twice has made 199 hits in one season for the Dodgers. He got that many in 1950 and again in 1954.

One New Foe Added

'M' Completes '59 Card

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan will meet Oregon State and Missouri in intersectional football games and seven Big Ten opponents in 1959, athletic director Fritz Crisler announced today.

It will be the first meeting for the Wolverines with Oregon State and the second with Missouri. Both games are slated for Ann Arbor.

Michigan will visit Indiana for the first time since 1932 on Nov. 14, 1959.

The clash with the Hoosiers is expected to dedicate a new 55,000 seat Indiana stadium.

In other conference games the Wolverines will play Michigan State, Northwestern, Wisconsin and Ohio State at home and Minnesota and Illinois away.

Crisler said the schedule is continuing the policy of having six home games and playing two top intersectional rivals.

Sept. 28, Missouri (home); Oct. 3, Michigan State (home); Oct. 10, Oregon State (home); Oct. 17, Northwestern (home); Oct. 24, Minnesota (Minneapolis); Oct. 31, Wisconsin (home); Nov. 7, Illinois (Champaign); Nov. 14, Indiana (Bloomington); Nov. 21, Ohio State (home).

Wings in Sunday Matinee

The annual Sunday matinee hocky game will bring the Boston Bruins to Olympia Stadium February 17 to meet the Detroit Red Wings at 2 p.m.

The game, conceived by Red Wing General Manager Jack Adams a year ago, was designed to permit outstate fans and youngsters to see the Wings in action at a convenient time at least once a season.

This year's game is doubly attractive in the person of the opponent, the Boston Bruins. In third place by a single point before week-end play, the Bruins have definitely become the giant killers of the National League this season.

They have won five games and tied three in ten meetings with the Wings this season and have been equally effective against Montreal, winning six, tying two and losing four in twelve games.

To remain in the chase for the Prince of Wales Trophy the Bruins have had to come up with a suitable goaling replacement in the person of Don Simmons. His capability was well proven to Detroit fans February 7 when he shut the Wings out at Olympia in his first game against them.

Unknown Golfer Pacing Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A couple of fellows who haven't snared a dime on the winter tour and an old campaigner playing on borrowed time led the $20,000 Texas Open into its second round today.

On top of the field was Joe Black, a lean Texan from Abilene, who ripped Brackenridge Park's 6,490 yards for a seven-under-par 64 yesterday while some of the biggest guns of the links trail faltered badly.

A stroke back was Bob Kay of West Hartford, Conn., who plays the tour only in the winter and hasn't yet come close to grabbing any money this year. Tied with Kay was the veteran—lame-armed Ed Furgol, who has won plenty in his career but right now is fighting time and a ripping arm muscle.

Furgol hurt the arm in 1954 but has continued to play. He knows he will have to drop out any day now and have it sewed up but he's going good and likes to play and he's not about to stop until forced to.

Black, 23, former assistant professional at the Abilene Country Club and who once was a star player at Hardin-Simmons University, is making the tour for the second time. The shot-maker never has finished in the money and this winter has earned $57 in a pro-amateur at Tucson.

He said, with a shy grin as he peered through spectacles at sports writers yesterday: "I guess I'm about the biggest of these 'unknowns' you talk about."

All three of the leaders were putting well but seldom has the tournament seen better putting than that of Black. He also chipped beautifully, sinking a 30-footer with a sand wedge for an eagle on the 14th hole—the stroke that gave him the lead.

Such stars as Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., the Texas Open champion last year, virtually shot themselves out of contention. Littler had a 76. Jack Burke, the PGA champion from Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., also got into trouble with a 72. Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., blaster who holds the Texas Open and PGA record of 257 for 72 holes, also had a 72.

Jimmy Demaret of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; Johnny Palmer of Tulsa; Jimmy Walkup of Cleveland and Wesley Ellis of Riverdale, N.J., were tied at 66. Cary Middlecoff of Dallas, the National Open champion, had a 67.

Jefferson Quintet Collects 6th Win

Jefferson's undefeated basketball team raced to its 6th Pontiac Junior High League victory Thursday afternoon, an easy 41-18 decision over Eastern. Henry Robertson led Jefferson with 11 points.

In Junior Varsity action, Jefferson routed Eastern, 39-18, and Lincoln defeated Madison, 31-23.

League standings:

	W	L
Jefferson	8	0
Washington	4	1
Eastern	2	3
Lincoln	2	4
Madison	0	6

3-Way Scramble for NCAA Race

Chet Forte Leading College Pointmakers by Narrow Margin

NEW YORK (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain, Chet Forte and Grady Wallace have been grabbing the headlines in their three-way battle for the major college basketball scoring title but the big three do not have the race to themselves by a long ways.

Statistics released today by the NCAA statistical bureau show the trio only three-tenths of a point per game apart in games through Wednesday. But right at their heels, less than two points back of Columbia's pace setting Forte, are Elgin Baylor of Seattle, Joe Gibbon of Mississippi and Jim Ashmore of Mississippi State.

Bill Ebben, Michigan's lone entry among the top ten from the University of Detroit, held on to the 8th spot with a 26.2 average.

Slight Grain Dip —Small Losses

CHICAGO (AP) — Scattered selling pressure caused all grains to dip for fractional losses in moderately active dealings on the board of trade today.

Continuation of the dock workers' strike, rain in parts of Kansas and Oklahoma, additional sales of government owned corn and a drop in soybean meal prices combined to send the market down.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛ to ⅝ lower, March $2.32½, corn ⅛ to ⅜ lower, March $1.28⅝, oats ¼ to ⅜ lower, March 95½, rye unchanged to ¾ lower, March $1.33½, soybeans ¾ to 1¾ lower, March $2.42½, and lard 5 cents lower to 22 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $15.17.

Car Output So Far Will Top Last Year's

DETROIT (AP) — Passenger car production in U. S. factories this week should pass the total for the comparable 1956 period.

Automotive News said today that car completions so far in 1957 will come to 963,670 units this week end. In the like 1956 period 961,302 cars were assembled. In the same 1955 period 1,031,000 cars were built.

The trade paper said this week's assemblies will total 146,585 cars and 23,520 trucks. Last week 147,163 cars were completed along with 22,891 trucks. For the week ended Feb. 18, 1956, U. S. factories built 128,292 cars and 23,105 trucks were made.

Automotive News said Canadian plants will build 10,464 cars and trucks this week compared with 9,655 last week.

Trade Irregular; Tendency Down

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was irregular with a tendency to the downside in early trading today.

Gains and losses ranged from fractions to around a point.

The market was generally higher in active trading at the opening although there were some losers and a number of leading stocks were unchanged. As turnover slowed, some initial gains were erased and the list showed an increasing number of losers.

Kennecott Copper made an exceptional gain of more than a point. U.S. Steel scratched an early fractional gain and declined a major fraction. Youngstown lost its gain of a major fraction.

Wall Street observers saw the market's behavior as based mainly on technical factors, pointing out that the recent rally had failed to bring back the average up past the critical point penetrated in Monday's big sell-off. The normal pre-weekend reluctance of traders to extend positions in a doubtful market was another consideration.

Most major steels showed a lower tendency.

Motors were narrowly mixed. Douglas Aircraft held a gain of about a point while Gulf was down about the same.

took flying lessons. I completed the lessons but couldn't get a license because of my medical discharge.

"I worked as a waiter, pumped gas and loaded beef for a meat packing concern, while I went to school. Then I got into trouble there. The papers say I tried to rape at least 17 women. That's not true. I've never tried to rape anyone in my life.

"I did beat that woman in Florida, but only because I wanted to hurt her. Even then my folks didn't know what my trouble was. When my dad asked me why I did it, I was ashamed to tell him. I told him I did it because I was drunk. They never suspected I needed treatment. They thought I was just a bad kid.

"While I was out on bond for beating that woman, I went to talk to a minister to see if he could help me. I was afraid of what I was doing and this thing inside of me. I told him what I had done. The only thing he did was preach to me about religion and give me a prayer book."

Taylor said his family then moved back to Michigan and took up residence in Southfield Township in March, 1956. He was determined to make good this time, he said.

WENT TO NIGHT SCHOOL

"I went to Royal Oak night school three hours a night, four nights a week," Taylor said. "I decided you can't get anyplace without a diploma. It's funny. I would have graduated in only three more weeks. I planned to go to Highland Park Junior College. I thought about being a lawyer. I always could talk well to people and thought I'd be good at it.

"I also got a job as crane operator with the Great Lakes Tractor Co. School and my car payments were expensive and I didn't want to be a burden on my folks. Then I started to get those urges to hurt women again. Last week it was the worst it's ever been.

"The guys at work would read the papers at lunch and talk about the screwball running around shooting at people. It was like they were talking about someone else. But I knew and admitted to myself that it was me they were talking about.

"I'd agree with them, and really mean it. I remember saying, 'That guy is nuts. He must be off his rocker.'

"I didn't get into any trouble until the times when I'd get these wild urges. My dating life was normal aside from all this. As a matter of fact, my folks thought I went out too much.

WENT ON DATES

"The girls I took out never knew anything about it, and I never told anyone else. All the girls I took out were pretty nice. I was never in love with any of them though.

"When I shot at these girls here I knew it was wrong, and I knew I would get caught. But I couldn't stop. I think I've had the urge to shoot someone since I was eight. The craving was there Thursday night and nothing but being locked up could stop me.

"I don't know or understand why I'd get the impulse to hurt anybody. Before or afterward I would never want to hurt them, but I'd do it just the same. I never intended to kill any of them. I just aimed to hit them.

DIDN'T WANT TO KILL

"I never wanted to kill anyone, that's why I don't understand this charge of attempt to murder. But I'd drink when I'd get one of these impulses and get less careful. After I'd drink a little bit I'd say, 'I'm going to kill someone tonight. But that was just the drink. I never ment it and I know I could never do it purposely. I just wanted to hurt the girls.

"After I shot at the women, I was sorry. I'd ask myself why and I'd really be sick. I would get headaches for days afterwards. Then I would promise myself I would never do it again, but I did. I decided to turn myself in once, but changed my mind, I got scared, I guess.

"I'm glad that it's over now. I feel relieved that it's finally out, and I can get some help. I know I have to be punished. But if I'm just sent to jail, and not to an institution that can help me back to normal, I'll get help after I serve my sentence.

GLAD HE'S CAUGHT

"All the guys in here (jail) have one thing in common. They all want to get out. I don't. I'm glad I got caught. I feel so much better knowing that I can't hurt anyone else. I couldn't accept what was wrong with me until now when it's too late.

"It's good to know that I'll get treatment and that my parents can understand what is wrong with me. As for the future, all I care about now is that I will finally get help. I have no plans."

Niles Police Chief Arthur Pears said today his questioning of the accused "phantom sniper" failed to shed any light on the fatal shooting last year of Mrs. Marian Davenjay.

Pears said he questioned Taylor extensively yesterday. He said Taylor had nothing to do with the June 3, 1956 shooting in Niles. Mrs. Davenjay was shot with a .22 caliber rifle.

'We Can't Stand Prosperity,' Says Business Leader

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Businessman Meyer Kestnbaum views the national economic situation this way:

The country's one real trouble is that it can't stand prosperity. Citizens have been spending a little too freely; so have businessmen; ditto the government.

That explains the recent stock price dive.

But the people basically are highly productive and prudent with money. So the stock drop is only symptomatic of a temporary condition.

"Five years from now, we all will be much better off," said Kestnbaum, president of the clothing firm Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and a special assistant to the President.

Dr. Monte Oliver Dies at Orion

Service to Be Monday at Methodist Church; Served 39 Years

LAKE ORION — Dr. Monte C. Oliver, just completing his 39th year in the ministry of the Methodist Church, died unexpectedly at his home at 206 East Flint St. at 10:10 last night.

Dr. Oliver, who was 64, was planning to retire at Lake Orion, where he had been pastor of the Methodist Church for almost three years. He had previously been pastor at First Methodist Church, Ferndale, and before that had served at Grace Methodist, Detroit for 14 years.

Transferred to Detroit from the North Indian Conference of Methodist Churches where he had served since 1918, he was later named president of the Detroit Ministerial Assn.

Dr. Oliver will lie in state at Allen's Funeral Home until 10 a.m. Monday when his body will be taken to the Orion Methodist Church.

Service will be at 1:30 p.m. there, with the Rev. Arthur Smith officiating. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery.

Says University Director:

Children Should Utilize Rural Life Experience

ANN ARBOR (INS) — Robert S. Fox, director of the University School at the University of Michigan, says there is every reason for the child from the small or rural community to make full use of his small community experiences — even though he may need to prepare to make his way in urban society.

Professor Fox said, "Educators today believe that good learning experiences utilize and grow from the child's own environment. It makes good sense for children to tackle problems that are real and immediate."

Professor Fox said that in the small or rural community, families are closely knit. They have many experiences as family units. The school, too, is usually not large and every child is known. As he progresses through school, his potential contributions can be identiied and recognized.

Fox continued, "This atmosphere of friendly closeness also prevails in the community. Every citizen should have a part in the school and children should have many opportunities to participate in community activities."

He pointed out that such a community is not troubled by delinquency. Students have a program in which the school makes an effort to meet their needs for development in the rural community in which they live.

Two Spaniards Killed in Warren

Car - Train Collision Takes Attorneys' Lives but Is Unexplained

WARREN (INS) — Authorities were at a loss today to explain a car-train crash which claimed the lives of two Spanish labor representatives in Warren.

Police said warning lights and bells at the intersection were working when the mishap occurred yesterday near the General Motors Technical Center.

The dead were identified as Salustiano Arejas, 45, of Valladolio, and Enrique Ojea, 48, of Valencia, both attorneys.

Luis Gonzales, 45, an engineer from Pardo Basan, and Pedro Sanchez, 50, of Detroit, were seriously injured.

The Spaniards were part of an eight-man group of attorneys and engineers touring U. S. industrial facilities to view effects of automation on employment and production.

Sanchez was driving the second car of a three-auto group that left the GM Technical Center after an inspection tour. Arejas, Ojea and Gonzales were his passengers.

The first car crossed the rail intersection safely but Sanchez' auto crashed into the side of a diesel-powered combination passenger-mail car.

Kreschke, who has a wife and young son, was arrested yesterday and Mrs. Brooks, who has a husband and three small youngsters, surrendered a short time later.

Charles W. Brown, head of the Detroit FBI office, said Kreschke and Mrs. Brooks left Detroit last fall in an auto belonging to the man's mother.

Their elopement, Brown said, included a tour that led back and fourth across seven states and the District of Columbia, financed along the way by bad checks.

The FBI agent said they finally sold the car and rented another. Agents seized Kreschke after spotting the rented auto.

In Re: Sale of County Owned Land

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of your Buildings and Grounds Committee, I wish to offer the following resolution:

Whereas the County Welfare Board, with the approval of its Welfare Committee, furnished the Buildings and Grounds Committee with a list of county-owned properties which, in the opinion of the said Welfare Board and the Welfare Committee, are declared surplus properties and the holding of such lands would serve no useful purpose to the county, and

Whereas this Committee believes it would be to the best interests of the County if such lands were sold and the properties placed back on the tax rolls of the various assessing districts, and

Whereas this Committee and the Board of Auditors, under the powers vested by the By-Laws of your Honorable Body, have had appraisals made on all the parcels listed below and advertised the properties for sale in accordance with the provisions of said By-Laws, and

Whereas sealed bids were received up to 10:00 A.M. September 6, 1956 and publicly opened by this Committee and the Board of Auditors, and

Whereas the following is a list of the properties on which bids were received and the amounts shown are the highest bids received, all being equal or in excess of the appraised value of each parcel, and

Whereas it is the opinion of your Committee that the terms indicated are satisfactory and that the Chairman and Clerk should execute the deeds or contracts, as the case may be, to complete the sale,

Now therefore be it resolved that the following described parcels of land be sold to the purchasers hereinafter indicated for the terms and consideration hereinafter indicated,

In Re: Buildings and Grounds Committee Annual Report

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors

Pursuant to the By-Laws of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors the Buildings and Grounds Committee is charged with making an annual inspection and report of the buildings and grounds owned by and under the control of the County of Oakland.

Your Committee has recently completed the annual inspection of the various buildings under the jurisdiction of the Board and submit herewith the annual report and recommendations for the consideration of your Honorable Body.

Infirmary: The building, interior and exterior, appeared to your Committee to be in excellent state of repairs and Manager Howard Estes reports that no major repairs are needed at this time.

New Health Center Building: The County Health Department is now occupying its new building and Dr. John D. Monroe, Health Director, reports that the layout, floor plan and design of the building is highly satisfactory to carry out the efficient operation of his department. In fact, he can think of nothing that would improve the design of the building. Rough grading should be completed immediately and the final grading, seeding and some items of the landscaping should be underway in the very near future. In fact, much of this should be done before the formal opening which is scheduled to take place on September 23rd.

Children's Cottages: The breezeway, mentioned in our 1955 report, has been completed and it appears to be a satisfactory job. However, the new brickwork under the breezeway windows need an acid treatment to remove the mortar stains from the brick surfaces and the Board of Auditors have advised that this will be done in the very near future.

Children's Home: The building, interior and exterior, appears to be in a good state of repair and William Moulton, Jr., Superintendent, states he can think of no major repairs needed at this time. Our inspection reveals that a major drainage problem exists over the old broken surface of the Children's Play Court, which is located within the area of the two westerly wings of the main building. We recommend that the surface be covered with a blacktop treatment and laid in such a manner that all surface water will drain into the existing manhole located in the center of the play area. Work should be completed on this at an early date.

Your Committee of the Buildings and Grounds wishes again to draw to the attention of this Board the over crowded conditions at the Children's Home. Two recent reports, one from the Juvenile Affairs Committee under date of June 25, 1956 and the other from the Board of Auditors under the date of September 10, 1956, are concurred in by this Committee. Your special attention is again drawn to the last three paragraphs of the report from the Board of Auditors previously mention with their recommendations of the above problem. It is our understanding that an additional report will be submitted by the Juvenile Affairs Committee together with definite recommendations later in today's session.

Laundry: Building and equipment appear to be in very good condition. In our conversation with Mr. John Oliver, Laundry Supervisor, it was suggested that a survey be made by some acknowledged authority on laundry operations, excluding manufacturers and salesmen of laundry equipment, to determine the needs, if any, for additional equipment which might improve or increase the operations of the plant. It is also recommended that an exhaust fan, of sufficient size, be installed in the rear wall of the laundry to remove the excessive heat from the large mangle and pressing units which would greatly add to the comfort of the employees during the extremely hot weather.

This matter has been referred to the Board of Auditors.

Heating Plant: As in previous inspection trips, we found this plant to be exceptionally clean, orderly and, in our opinion, operating in a most efficient manner. Mr. Arthur Loth, Chief Engineer, reports no major repairs needed at this time.

Agricultural Extension Building: Alterations in the interior of this building have been completed. Mr. Lyle Abel, County Agricultural Agent, was not available at the time of our inspection but his staff reported the department was operating efficiently in its limited quarters. The offices appear to be well kept and in satisfactory state of repairs.

Central Stores Building: The building and equipment appear to be in good condition. Meat products and grocery stocks are exceptionally well stored and the entire plant shows all signs of being operated under the best sanitary conditions.

West Boulevard Office Building:

Juvenile Division Probate Court: Mr. James Hunt, Director of Children's Services, reports that their new quarters located on the main floor of this building have proven most satisfactory and are serving their present needs to the fullest extent. No additional alterations or repairs are requested or needed at this time.

Social Welfare Deparment: Offices appear to be in good condition and no extensive repairs seem necessary at this time. On our inspection of the second floor, we observed the immense space required to house the filing cabinets containing welfare records, many of which are from the old E.R.A. days. It is hoped that the records retention program which is shortly to be made by the National Records Management Council of New York City, will tend to alleviate some of this filing problem to a great extent and make more space available for the expansion of this department, when needed.

Central stores Annex: The Central Stores activities were moved to the basement of this building to make room for the Juvenile Division now located on the main floor. Mr. James Talley, Stores Supervisor, reports that the quarters now located in the basement have proven more satisfactory than the quarters originally occupied on the main floor.

Bureau of Social Aid (State Function): Their quarters located on the main floor adjacent to the Social Welfare Offices, appear to be well kept, in good repair and of sufficient size to provide efficient operation of this department.

Tuberculosis Sanatorium: This hospital as on other annual inspections, was found to be exceptionally clean, orderly and in very good state of repair. The only exception was in the condition of the heating boilers which has already been called to the attention of the Board by the T. B. Committee in a report on April 17, 1956. Mr. George Williams, Building Manager, reports that he and his Board of Trustees has given considerable thought to this matter and believes that due to approximate expenditure of $3,500.00, the present boilers could be made serviceable for another heating season. Instead of replacing their present coal-fired boilers with boilers using gaseous fuel they would be content to wait until late spring or early summer to explore the possibilities of obtaining gas through the distribution system of the Consumers Power Company. If not available at that time, it is suggested that oil-fired boilers be installed and equipped that gas-fuel could be used when available. We are pleased to report that the hospital's sewage disposal plant is operating in a very satisfactory manner. Outdoors Hospital: We found this hospital to be exceptionally clean, orderly and in good repair. Our observation led us to believe that no immediate repair work is needed.

County Market: The exterior of the market appears to be in a very good state of repair at the time of the inspection. We are informed that the leaky roof problem has been solved. While the gravelled surfaces of the parking areas are well packed and in good serviceable condition, it is recommended that such areas be blacktopped when funds are available for this purpose.

Board of Education Building: We were very much impressed with the cleanliness and excellent condition of this building. The addition on the south side, completed last year, blends in with the architectural lines of the original building surprisingly well. A similar wing on the north side, now under construction, will greatly enhance the appearance of the entire building. For your information, the brickwork on the new wing has been completed and work on the roof is now under way. Dr. William Emerson, Superintendent of County Schools, reports that the construction work of Linney and Bridwell, general builders, is very satisfactory. The basement under the original building, which was usually damp in dry weather and wet during rainy spells, is now dry and will provide desirable space for an employes lounge, work rooms and storage space. This situation was remedied by the installation of drainage tiles around the base of the foundation and connecting the line to an existing surface drain. This work was handled by the County Maintenance Department. The alterations in the basement were included in the contractor's bid for the construction of the new wing now under construction.

General Water Supply System-Service Center: The 75,000 gallon water tank, located in the rear of the Infirmary, is presently receiving a cleaning and paint job which will greatly lengthen its life and improve its appearance.

Court House: The exterior of this building has become a problem and its appearance is anything but beautiful, mostly because of its age and the pigeon problem which most buildings of this type enjoy. However, the interior was found to be neat and orderly. The court rooms have been newly redecorated and are in good to fair condition.

Court House Annex: (Formerly Health Building): This building has been recently vacated by the Health Department and is to be used by the Prosecuting Attorney's Department. If it is to be used for a long period, it would require extensive repairs. However, we suggest that the Board of Auditors be advised to make a minimum expenditure for repairs and alterations as any large sum would be wasted should the new court house be ready for occupancy within the next two or three years.

Jail: We were very pleased with the condition of this building. It was found to be in a very good state of repair in spite of its age; approximately thirty-four years. Most of the interior painting has been done by Jail Trustees which has resulted in a great savings for labor and no doubt furnished beneficial aid to the men assigned to this work. All new locks have been installed in the jail and are in proper working condition. Sheriff Irons should be complimented on his efforts in bringing about the general clean-up and painting program which has greatly enhanced the appearance of this building. The Board of Auditors informs us that a new stoker is about to be installed which will put the heating system in a good state of repair.

County Office Building: We found this building to be in a good state of repair, neat and orderly. All the members of this Board are very familiar with this building, we do not think it necessary to elaborate on other conditions.

Royal Oak Market: This building appears to be in excellent repair and was found to be neat and orderly. The blacktopping and sidewalks recommended in our 1955 report have been completed and additional parking facilities have been made available by grading the vacant lot located on the east side of the market. Some of this work is still under construction and will be completed in the next few weeks.

Royal Oak Office Building: We found this building to be exceptionally clean and orderly. No major repairs appear to be needed at this time.

Royal Oak Health Department Building: Practically every report made by this committee in the past years has stressed the need for the expansion of this building. I wish to report that the Health Committee has authorized the Michigan Department of Health to make a survey of the activities of this department and make recommendations as to the needs of an addition, size, etc. This survey is now under way and the State Department of Health is making such survey free of cost to the county as a public service. The building was neat, clean and in good state of repair and Condition of The Grounds At The Service Center: The lawns, flower gardens, shrubs, etc. around all the various buildings were found to be in wonderful shape, in fact they are beautiful. We would like to recommend to this Board that Mr. Lewis Church, Chief Groundsman and his grounds staff of the Maintenance Department be heartily congratulated on the manner in which they have kept the grounds.

We are happy to report that in our many inspection trips, we have never seen the buildings in a better state of repair

Recommendations: In addition to the recommendations already mentioned in this report, your Committee wishes to make the following suggestions for the further consideration of the Board of Supervisors:

1. We recommend that consideration be given to the employment of an engineer in the Maintenance Department who has general construction knowledge and who can supervise, coordinate and inspect construction of the overall building and utilities program of the County, in the opinion of your Committee, such an employe would save the County many times its annual wage by giving more complete and thorough inspection and supervision of all County owned buildings during the construction period.

2. We further recommend that all members of the Board of Supervisors be encouraged to make a tour of the various county buildings. Such a tour would, we believe, give the members a first hand view of the county's various operations.

In Re: Schedule of Dates for Tax Procedures

Mr. Chairman and Members of This Board

As you will recall, on April 10, 1956, by Miscellaneous Resolution No. 2068, the matter of revising our Schedule of Tax Procedures, to give more time to prepare the tax rolls, was referred to the By-Laws Committee

Your By-Laws Committee has met, discussed and approves the following schedule which is identical to the one printed in the 1956-7 County Manual.

The Schedule of Tax Procedures heretofore followed was never made a part of the By-Laws and your Committee sees no necessity for making it a part now. It is designed to aid and facilitate procedures by spelling out a timetable as a guide for those affected. It has and will serve a good purpose.

In order that no confusion may exist as to disposal of this matter, Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the By-Laws Committee, I move that this Board approve the "Schedule of Dates for Tax Procedures" as it appears in the County Manual and that the Clerk of this Board be directed to continue to print the same in the County Manual until otherwise directed by this Board.

As an alternative, the appraisal staff of the Equalization Committee may be used by the Auditors if authorized by the Board of Supervisors or the Buildings and Grounds Committee, in either case, the sale shall be for cash unless otherwise approved by the Board of Supervisors."

In Re: Oakland County Children's Home To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas your Juvenile Affairs Committee presented a preliminary report to this Board on June 25, 1956 outlining the need for a temporary and long range program to provide additional facilities needed for children's services, and

Whereas in report of the Board of Auditors presented to this Board on September 10, 1956, recommendations were made "that the study for a permanent housing program for juveniles be expedited, that monies be appropriated for this study and that a timetable be established with the view of offering a special bond proposal to finance the project in the early spring of 1957," and

Whereas in separate reports, previously presented to the Board by the Special T. B. Study Committee and the Board of Auditors, it has been pointed out that the Contagious Hospital will not be available for use by the County for the juvenile program, and

Whereas a study of the facilities at Camp Oakland by your committee has resulted in the conclusion that those facilities are neither practicable or feasible as a part of the temporary or long range program because of the distance from the present Children's Home facilities, and

Whereas if the County is to keep pace with the growing needs of children who are placed under the supervision of the Probate Court and provide adequate sleeping and classroom facilities to meet state requirements and to continue to make the County eligible to receive state aid in he operation of the Children's Home, immediate study should be made of the program as outlined by the Board of Auditors, and

Whereas at a meeting of your Committee with Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore on September 13, 1956, it was decided that immediate steps should be taken to carry out the recommendations of the Board of Auditors and that the sum of $5000.00 would need to be appropriated to pay for the preliminary architectural planning and other technical advice necessary prior to the presentation of the financing program to the Board.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the Juvenile Affairs and Buildings and Grounds Committees be authorized to proceed with the study of the long range program for the Oakland County Children's Home and to establish a timetable for financing such a program to be presented to the Board at the next meeting.

Be it further resolved that the matter of appropriation of fund needed for the preliminary planning of the program be referred to the Ways and Means Committee for report and recommendation at the October 1st meeting of this Board.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors

Whereas at the meeting of the Board on June 25, 1956, the proposed resolution of the Miscellaneous Committee regarding the recommendations of the Airport Use Panel was referred to the Inter-County Committee for further consideration and study, and

Whereas members of your Inter-County Committee have discussed this report with representatives of the other counties which are included in the Inter-County Committee and on the basis of information obtained, recommend that no further action be taken on the report and recommendations as set forth in Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3120.

Therefore, Mr. Chairman, I move that the report and recommendations as contained in Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3120 be received and placed on file and that no further action be taken.

INTER-COUNTY COMMITTEE
DAVID LEVINSON,

Moved by Levinson supported by Belding the resolution be adopted.

Moved by Levinson supported by Frid Smith that the Budget Recommendations for the year 1957, as submitted to this Board on September 10, 1956 by the Ways and Means Committee, be amended as follows:

Under the item "Special Funds," add a new title of "Supervisors Inter-County Committee" and appropriate the sum of $7000.00 therefor in the 1957 budget and substract the sum of $7000.00 from the Contingent Fund, leaving a balance in said fund under the title "Operating Budget" of $60,595.35. (Note: This will not change any totals on the proposed 1957 Budget; appropriation of $3500.00 was made to the Inter-County Committee for one-half year of 1956, in addition to appropriation of $2000.00 to the Inter-County Road Committee during 1956.)

A sufficient majority having voted therefor, the motion carried.

Moved by Anderson supported by Webber the Chairman appoint a committee of five to confer with the Health Committee and Health Department regarding needed changes in the Department of Health Sanitary Code presented June 25, 1956.

Mr Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

On September 17, 1956, this Board approved by Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3139, the sale of several parcels of land.

It now develops that the City of Pontiac is desirous of maintaining Stanley Avenue which the City was under the impression it owned for street purposes. However, since the sale, the City of Pontiac has learned it does not have legal title to the avenue and desires the cooperation of this Board in procuring the title to the land involved in Stanley Avenue and, in order to accomplish that, it will be necessary to reconsider the vote by which this Board approved the sale of the parcels mentioned in Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3139.

Then it will be necessary to approve the sale of all of the parcels except the 9.6 acres of parcel No. 1 to the Grand Trunk Western Railroad and Parcel No. 2 to Michael Chernick.

Moved by Gardner supported by Cyril Miller that the vote by which Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3139 was passed, be reconsidered.

Whereas your Buildings and Grounds Committee and the Board of Auditors offered certain county owned lands for sale on September 4, 1956, pursuant to Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3099 and the By-Laws, and

Whereas this Board did, on September 17, 1956, confirm the sale to the highest bidders of such lands as were sold, and

Whereas your Committee deems it advisable to sell certain of these properties on a term basis.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved:

1. That all vacant lots which were not sold on the above sale be sold for cash;

2. That the improved properties and acreage which were not sold at said sale, together with the 14.01 acres south of Oakland Avenue, Pontiac, Michigan, which was offered for sale on March 28, 1954 and again on June 9, 1954 and is yet unsold, be sold on the following terms: one-third down, the balance payable in six equal installments within three years, with interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of six per cent per annum;

3. That the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the County Clerk be authorized to execute the necessary instruments to sell said properties and, upon payment in full of the price thereof, to execute and deliver to the purchasers the required deeds and conveyances to said properties.

In Re: Report of Local Taxes Committee To the Honorable Board of Supervisors Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Committee on Local Taxes has examined reports from the various townships and cities having taxes to be spread upon the County tax roll, and has checked these reports with the pertinent law (Sec. 37 General Property Tax Law), has caused corrections to be made where necessary and now certifies that such reports are correct and in order.

Your Committee has tabulated the total amount of taxes to be spread on the tax rolls, which tabulation is attached hereto and made a part hereof.

Your Committee has prepared tax warrants showing the amounts authorized to be spread, which warrants are submitted herewith, and which are the basis for the tabulation above mentioned, and it is recommended that your Honorable Body authorize the Clerk to sign these warrants.

Current Drain-at-large taxes are a municipal (township and city) charge and in townships where no millage was allocated, they must be paid from contingent (general) funds. If millage was allocated and inclusion of drain-at-large items would cause the levy to exceed the allocated rate, the spread must stay within the allocated rate, and the excess be paid from the contingent (general) fund.

Your Committee offers the following resolution:

1. Be It Resolved that this Board adopt this report of the Committee on Local Taxes with the recommendations therein contained as a part of the permanent records of this Board;

2. Be It Further Resolved that the Clerk be authorized and directed to sign the several tax warrants on which the attached tabulation was based, thereby authorizing and directing the various assessing officers, within the 15 mill limitation, to levy the amounts set forth therein for 1956.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Committee whose signatures appear below, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

COMMITTEE ON LOCAL TAXES
DARREL K. DAVIS
ALEX McKINNON
PETER P. QUINAN

The Chairman announced that this was the time for anyone to object to the spread of taxes if they had objections. There were no objections.

(Local Taxes Committee Report appears on the following page.)

In Re: Central File

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors Ladies and Gentlemen:

At a meeting of your Miscellaneous Committee held on August 22, 1956, Mr. Allen Ingle, Justice of the Peace for the Township of Farmington, also President of the Oakland County Judicial Association, appeared before this Committee and asked that consideration be given to his Association's request for the establishment of a "Central File" for the use of the various Justice and Municipal Courts located throughout the County.

Justice Ingle explained that no central place presently exists in the county where the courts may obtain information or knowledge of previous convictions of a defendant, whether he is in violation of the terms of probation or is wanted on an open warrant, etc.

Without such information available, the Court, in most cases, has no alternative but to accept the word of the defendant. Should the defendant purposely conceal his record of previous convictions or other brushes with the law he may, if convicted, get off with a light fine and costs or, in some instances with a suspended sentence thus avoiding a sentence commensurate for his past record.

In the opinion of your Miscellaneous Committee, this situation does not lend itself toward the efficient administration of law and justice and, after serious thought and study, we feel justified in recommending that consideration be given to the establishment of a proposed "Central File."

Should our recommendation receive favorable consideration, we recommend that the proposed "Central File" be inaugurated on a limited basis to determine whether such a program would receive the fullest cooperation and assistance from all county courts. Without such cooperation and assistance the program would serve no useful purpose and therefore not warrant the expenditure of funds required to finance it.

Therefore, we suggest that the filing of "Reports of Conviction" be the first and only item to receive attention at this time. Should this initial step prove successful, other phases such as reports on violation of probation, open warrants, etc. could be added to the proposed "Central Files" at some later date.

The Board of Auditors report that no new forms would be required for the use of the courts in making such reports to the Central File as the fourth copy of the present Justice Court record is now available and suitable for filing if such a system is adopted.

There are now approximately 70,000 reports of convictions dating back from January 1, 1954 which would be immediately available for filing thus giving the proposed system a good start in compiling information for use of the various courts.

It is proposed that each court, at the close of its day's session, promptly mail the fourth copy of the Certificate of Conviction to the "Central File," thus keeping each defendant's record complete to within a 24 hour period from the date of his conviction.

In the event our recommendation meets favorable consideration, we suggest the following:

1. That the Central Files be located in the County Jail and the personnel (one clerk I) be under the direction and supervision of the Supervisor of the Sheriff's Identification Bureau.

2. That the salary of the Clerk I, cost of files, office equipment and miscellaneous expenses be paid from costs remitted by the various county courts which are normally channeled into the county's general fund. Estimated cost is as follows:

Salary of Clerk	$3,000.00
Files, file index (enough for approximately 3 years)	$250.00
Office Equipment and miscellaneous supplies	$470.00
Estimated cost for first year's operation	$4,720.00

Inasmuch as an expenditure of county funds would be necessary for the establishment of the proposed "Central File" and require the employment of additional personnel to operate the system, we wish to offer the following resolution.

Whereas in the opinion of your Miscellaneous Committee, the establishment of a "Central File" as outlined herein would greatly facilitate the work of the various county courts in handling cases appearing before them, and

Whereas we deem it an obligation of this Board to assist the courts in its efforts to efficiently administer the duties imposed upon them.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the matter of establishing a "Central File" as requested by the Oakland County Judicial Association on August 22, 1956, be referred to the Ways and Means Committee and to the Salaries Committee for further study and consideration.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the members of the Miscellaneous Committee, whose signatures appear below, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

Re: Northwestern Expressway

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas Act 205, Public Acts of Michigan, 1941, being Sections 252.51 to 252.55, inclusive, Compiled Laws of Michigan, 1948, entitled:

"An Act to provide for the establishment, opening, use, discontinuing, vacating, closing, altering, improvement and maintenance of limited access highways; the acquiring of property and property rights therefor, closing or other treatment of intersecting roads, and for other related purposes"

has been amended by Act 22, Public Acts of Michigan, 1950, Extra Session, so as to authorize the State Highway Commissioner and any county, city or village to enter into a contract for the acquisition, construction or improvement of limited access highways, for the allocation of the cost thereof to be borne by each of such governmental units, and for the payment of their respective shares in annual installments out of funds derived from taxes imposed upon gasoline or other motor fuels and on motor vehicles registered in the State of Michigan and out of contributions received from the Federal Government or any of its agencies or from any other source in aid of such project or projects, and

And whereas the State Highway Commissioner proposes to construct, under the provisions of said Act, a limited access highway, to be known and designated as the "Northwestern Expressway", the route of said proposed expressway being generally described as follows:

Commencing at Eight Mile Road (M 102) on the south line of Oakland County, Michigan, west of the City of Oak Park, and extending northwesterly in the vicinity of, or on, Northwestern Highway to its junction with Orchard Lake Road, thence continuing in a northwesterly direction on new location through West Bloomfield, Commerce, White Lake, Highland, Rose and Tyrone Townships to a junction with US-23, near the Livingston-Genesee County line, southwest of Fenton, Michigan,

Wherever the word "project" is used in this resolution, it shall be understood to mean that portion of the expressway as set forth in the above description;

And whereas the State Highway Commissioner has procured plans and specifications for the construction of the project above described, and an estimate of the cost thereof in the amount of Thirty-Seven Million Dollars ($37,000,000.00);

And whereas it is deemed advisable and necessary that said project be completed as speedily as possible and that necessary funds therefor be borrowed and bonds issued to pay part of the cost thereof, in accordance with the provisions of Act 205, Public Acts of Michigan, 1941, as amended;

And whereas a contract has been prepared and submitted providing for the construction of the project, the sharing of the total costs thereof, and the payment of annual contributions by the State Highway Commissioner and the County of Oakland, the contribution of the County of Oakland being a fixed contribution of $1,800,000.00 toward the cost of said expressway, payable in quarterly installments as set forth in said contract; said contract provides for the terms, means of payment, security and other details of bonds to be issued pursuant to the provisions of Act 205, Public Acts of Michigan, 1941, as amended.

And whereas said proposed contract authorizes the State Highway Commissioner to issue and offer for sale on behalf of the parties to said contract State of Michigan Limited Access Highway Dedicated Tax Bonds (Northwestern Expressway) in the aggregate principal sum of Twenty-Five Million ($25,000,000.00) Dollars, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of the project in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, the balance of the estimated cost to be provided by Federal Aid Funds or current funds; the maturities, maximum interest rate, call provisions and other details relative to said bonds and the security therefore being set forth with particularity in said contract;

And whereas the Board of County Road Commissioners of Oakland County has heretofore on October 12, 1956, adopted a resolution approving the plans, specifications and estimate of cost of the completion of said limited access highway as submitted by the State Highway Commissioner, and approving said contract and the issuance of the bonds therein authorized, a certified copy of said approving resolution having been filed with the County Clerk of the County of Oakland,

Now Therefore be it resolved:

1. That the action of the Board of County Road Commissioners of Oakland County in approving said plans, specifications and estimate of cost of the completion of said limited access highway, and approving said contract and the issuance of the bonds therein authorized, is hereby approved and confirmed.

2. That the plans, specifications and estimate of cost of the completion of said limited access highway, as prepared and submitted by the State Highway Commissioner, are hereby approved and confirmed.

3. That said contract and all the terms thereof are hereby approved, and the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the County Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to execute and sign said contract on behalf of the County of Oakland, and to affix the corporate seal of the County thereto.

4. That the issuance of the bonds as provided for in said contract is hereby approved.

5. That said contract shall become binding and effective on the County of Oakland, at such time as it is duly executed by all the parties thereto in accordance with its provisions, and a complete executed copy of said contract, with certified copies of the approving resolutions as required by law of (a) the State Administrative Board, (b) the Board of County Road Commissioners of Oakland County, and (c) this resolution of the Board of Supervisors of Oakland County, attached thereto, is filed in the office of the County Clerk.

6. All previous resolutions in conflict with the provisions of this resolution are hereby repealed and rescinded.

In Re: Drain Coordinator

To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas this Board has previously approved the Evergreen and Farmington Sewer Interceptor projects by the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolutions No. 2991 and No. 3061, and

Whereas there is a need in the county to have a person whose responsibility will be to organize the efforts of persons and agencies or bodies involved in such projects, and

Whereas such employe would be a member of the staff of the County Drain Commissioner and work under his direction to expedite progress on the projects, and

Whereas your Drain Committee has determined that approximately the sum of $7,000.00 would be needed to start such a program, which funds would be repaid the county from the respective projects when the projects are financed,

Now therefore be it resolved:

1. That the County Drain Commissioner be authorized to immediately employ a Drain Coordinator for the Evergreen and Farmington Interceptor Districts;

2. That the matter of appropriation of necessary funds be referred to the Ways and Means Committee with power to transfer sufficient funds, if available, to be expended through the Board of Auditors, on order of the Drain Commissioner, the County to be reimbursed from the Evergreen and Farmington Districts when monies are available.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Drain Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

In Re: Legislation—Drain Bonds

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas the Court decisions in the 1930's and early '40's which invalidated Drain Bonds designed to be paid from special assessments on the benefitted property have made it practically impossible to sell such bonds, and

Whereas it was necessary to procure legislation which permitted the municipalities in which drains were located to become liable at-large in order to have a saleable bond, and

Whereas practically every municipality in the southern half of the County is faced with sanitary problems, either drainage or sewage disposal, and

Whereas those municipalities include townships under the 15 mills, and

Whereas the schools and County absorb practically all of the 15 mills, leaving practically nothing to be allocated to the sewage and drainage problems, and

Whereas all of the municipalities, including the townships, have expressed a desire and willingness to go along with any mutual solution to the problem and feel that it is imperative that the benefitted property in the municipalities be assessed for the cost of the improvement in order that the municipality at large may recoup all or part of the monies paid as contracted for, and

Whereas the areas needing the improvements above mentioned constitute a large segment of the County, and

Whereas if the bonds were issued as a general obligation of the County, a much more favorable interest rate would be procured and the Bonds would have a ready market, and

Whereas it would need special legislation, to authorize the County to issue general obligation bonds to aid segments of the County such as above suggested, and

Whereas prompt construction of the sanitary and drainage facilities needed in the southern half of the County will undoubtedly bring about rapid development of the entire area with a consequent broadening of the tax base which will materially aid the local municipal units as well as the County, and

Whereas this Board recognizes its responsibility to all of the areas needing help with sanitary facilities,

Now therefore be it resolved that the Board of Supervisors of Oakland County, Michigan, hereby recommends preparation of legislation which would permit this Board, in its discretion, to authorize the pledging of the full faith and credit of the County for the payment of principal and interest on Bonds issued under the provision of Act 342 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, or Chapter 20 and 21 of Act 40 of the Public Acts of 1956, where such bonds are issued in anticipation of the payment of assessments against or a contract obligation of, any cities, villages or townships within the County:

Be it further resolved that this resolution be referred to the Legislative Committee for preparation of the proposed legislation and report at a subsequent meeting of this Board.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Drain Committee, I move the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

CITY OF PONTIAC, MICHIGAN
October 5, 1956

The Chairman, Oakland County Board of Auditors
1 Lafayette Street, Pontiac, Michigan

Gentlemen:

It has come to the attention of the city officials of the City of Pontiac that Stanley Avenue extending from the Belt line railroad through the county property was sold for taxes a number of years ago and there is a possibility that the city's claim to this street may be questioned by legal action.

To clear up this problem we are desirous of purchasing the East 43 feet for right of way for Stanley avenue out of the parcel of land which the county now owns and which I understand has been referred for consideration to the Ways and Means Committee and the Buildings and Grounds Committee. The legal description of the property required for Stanley Avenue is as follows:

The East 43 feet of the land described as follows: Part of the Southeast ¼ Section 7 and part of Northeast ¼ Section 18 commencing at Southeast corner of Section 7 thence North along East line of Section 568.18 feet South 85° 51' West 832 feet, South 24° 30' 45" West 76.65 feet, South 44° 41' 20" West 169.75 feet, South 3° 44' 26" East 130.85 feet, North 86° 31' 40" East 1296.17 feet to East line of Section 18, thence North 2° 39' 53" West 341.80 feet to beginning of Section 7 and 18 of Town 3 North Range 10 East.

Stanley Avenue was never vacated by the court proceedings when the lots in the C. Haines Wilson Subdivision were vacated a number of years ago. Through an error it was assessed for taxes along with the land vacated and was sold to the State and then deeded to the County of Oakland. There is the legal question of whether or not this road is cut off by the tax sale proceedings and a court would be the only means of determining this issue.

In view of this error and the cloud placed upon the city's highway by the tax sale proceedings the city is desirous of purchasing this property from the county and we would appreciate your prompt consideration of this request and a Quit Claim Deed given the City of Pontiac for the above land in order to ensure the establishment of this important arterial highway to the north in the City of Pontiac.

The following described land was authorized to be sold to the city by resolution No. 3661 dated April 10, 1956. This is the remaining portion of the right of way south of the Belt line which is needed for the extension of Stanley Avenue. This is described as follows:

A parcel of land in the Northeast ¼ of Northeast ¼, Section 18, Town 3 North, Range 10 East, described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the East section line with the southerly line of the Grand Trunk Belt Line right-of-way, thence southerly along the East Section line 329.6 feet; thence westerly 43 feet, thence northerly parallel to East Section line to Southerly line of the Grand Trunk Belt Line right-of-way; thence Easterly along the South Railroad right-of-way.

We would appreciate your attention to these two items as soon as possible because they are necessary to the opening up of Stanley Avenue in the City of Pontiac as an arterial highway to relieve traffic on Baldwin Avenue.

Your very truly,
W. K. WILLMAN,
City Manager

The Chairman referred the letter to the Buildings and Grounds Committee and the Ways and Means Committee.

In Re: Surplus Property

Mr. Chairman and Members of This Board:

Whereas Advisory Bulletin No. 202 of the Federal Civil Defense Administration issued September 18, 1956 sets up the procedure which must be followed for governmental units to procure surplus federal property for use in connection with any type of civil defense activities, and

Whereas a wide variety of equipment is available free of cost other than the shipping charges to civil defense units, and

Be it further resolved that the Board of Auditors be designated as the fiscal agent to collaborate with the County Director of Civil Defense in compliance with the federal regulations imposed as conditions to receiving donations from the government of the surplus personal property to be procured.

In Re: Septic Tank Code

Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Special Committee, appointed by the Board on September 17, 1956 to meet with the Health Committee to review the procedures for issuance of permits and making inspections under the Septic Tank Code, approved by the Board on June 25, 1956, reports as follows:

A joint meeting of the committee was held with the Health Committee of the Board on October 11, 1956 at which time Dr. John D. Monroe, County Health Officer and Russell Coltson, Sanatarian for the Health Department, explained present procedures for issuance of permits and making inspections. Members of the joint committee made several suggestions to the Health Department for improvement of the procedures and cutting down the time between application and actual issuance of a septic tank permit.

The joint committee has requested, and the Health Department has agreed, to hold schools for local inspectors in the County to acquaint them with the new code and to arrange for qualifying such local inspectors as Deputy Sanatarians of the Health Department.

The Health Department is now in the process of reviewing the procedures which have been used since the code became effective September 1, 1956 and will shortly issue revised schedules of procedures to be followed which your joint committees feel will greatly facilitate the issuance of septic tank permits and remove many of the objections which have been noticed by various members of the Board.

In Re: Ratification of By-Laws Change
Mr. Chairman and Members of This Board

On October 16, 1956, the Chairman of the Civil Defense Committee, Mr. Cardon, offered an amendment to the By-Laws making the Civil Defense Committee a standing Committee with a membership of 5.

Subsequent to the passage of the proposed amendment it was learned that no "Notice" had been given this Board that the proposed amendment to the By-Laws would be offered. As a consequence and in order to cure the situation at the present time, it is necessary that this Board ratify its action of October 16, 1956. In other words, the attempted adoption at that time shall now serve as a "Notice" of intention to offer the amendment and by ratifying it today, we can adopt the amendment.

Wherefore, Mr. Chairman, I move that this Board ratify its action taken on October 16, 1956 by Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3158½, and the change be adopted at this time.

In Re: Notice of By-Laws Change

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of the By-Laws Committee, I hereby give notice that at the next meeting of this Board, your By-Laws Committee will recommend two changes in our By-Laws, the first of which will be to add a Rule to our By-Laws which will read as follows:

"Rule XXI. Whenever the laws of the State, by mandate or permission, direct or authorize the Board of Supervisors to appoint a person to perform a statutory duty and no term is prescribed for the appointment, such term shall be at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors but such appointment shall be reaffirmed the second October following the original appointment, and each second October thereafter as long as the appointee is rendering service, such appointment or reaffirmation of appointment to be effective the 1st day of January subsequent to appointment or reaffirmation thereof."

The second change to be recommended will be to amend Rule XV as it now appears on page 15 of the 1956-7 County Manual to read as follows:

"All committee reports involved in making up the budget shall be expected to be filed in the office of the Board of Auditors on or before the last Monday in August of each year, copies thereof forwarded to each member of the Board of Supervisors on or before the Tuesday following the first Monday in September and no changes or amendments shall be made therein without a concurrence of a majority of the members of the Committees submitting the report unless such change or amendments are made by the Board of Supervisors in adopting the budget."

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the By-Laws Committee, I move that this "Notice of Change in By-Laws" be made a part of the minutes of this Board meeting.

Report By Mr. Schone

In Re: Report on Proposed Legislation for 1957 Session

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Your Legislative Committee has had two meetings and given consideration to some proposed amendments to existing laws and rules of this Board and respectfully submits the following report:

We recommend the passage of a resolution to prescribe the duties of the Dog Warden pursuant to the power granted by the Dog Law of 1919, as amended, by making it the duty of the Dog Warden to take a census of persons who have not complied with the law by buying a license, we believe it will obviate the necessity of the assessing officer taking the dog census and Mr. Merritt has prepared a resolution which will be offered and which will define such duties. This resolution is consistent with an opinion of the Attorney General relative to relieving the assessing officer of this duty.

Your Committee also discussed the matter of enabling legislation for County Ordinances and Mr. Merritt has prepared a proposed procedure which we will submit to the Legislature. Previously this procedure set forth the steps to be taken by the Board of Supervisors in enacting an Ordinance and the proposed change is supplemental to the existing provisions of the law.

Your Committee also considered the matter as to what business carried over at 1 what business does not, when the sessions of this Board end. Mr. Merritt has prepared a rule, under our rule making powers, and, inasmuch as it is short, I will read the entire rule. It is in the form of a "Notice of Intention to amend our By-Laws" and I offer it as suggested:

"Notice is hereby given that under the rule making power of this Board, I give notice that at the next meeting of this Board, we shall offer for adoption as Section 6 of Rule XIII the following section: 'Consistent with the policy of this Board for the past 15 years, no business pending before this Board shall die because of the ending of any statutory or special session of this Board but such business shall carry over from session to session until disposed of by vote of the Board'."

Mr. Chairman, we recommend that this proposed addition to the By-Laws be referred to the By-Laws Committee for action.

Your Committee also considered a change in village and township incorporation laws and Supervisor Miller has had drafted a proposed change which the Committee will give further consideration. This change would, where a new city or village is being formed out of part of a township, require the rest of the township to vote its approval.

Your Committee also considered the Township Special Assessment procedure and recommends the re-introduction of the 1956 House Bill 264. This change would drop the required percentage of special assessment district signers in the townships to 51% rather than 65%.

Also under consideration by your Committee was the proposal to permit Townships to retain costs for the violations of their Ordinances where they have an organized Police Department. We recommend that even though the Attorney General has ruled that House Bill 351 of the 1956 Session was unconstitutional, it should be re-introduced and passed and tested in the Courts.

Your Committee also considered an amendment to the Drain Law to enable the creation of a county-at-large liability. This can be accomplished by changing the figures "500,000" in Michigan Statutes Annotated 11.1276 to "350,000", which will place Oakland County in the same classification as Wayne County and advancement would be required if there was a deficiency in the fund to meet the payment of drain bonds.

Your Committee also discussed a proposed amendment to the School Law which had been prepared by Dr. Emerson and Judge Moore. This legislation will count as part of the school census the inmates of the Juvenile Homes.

Your Committee also discussed raising the fees of the Friend of the Court from $5.00 per year to $12.00 per year, however the $12.00 would be payable at the rate of $1.00 per month. Your Committee believes this would be good legislation and will offer a Bill in the Legislature to accomplish the amendment.

The matter of burial benefit for veterans was considered by your Committee; however it was referred to the Veterans' Committee and, if it is agreeable to this Board, I will ask the Veterans' Committee to make a report on this matter.

One other matter your Legislative Committee has given consideration to and recommends, in the belief that it will facilitate the construction of public works in the County, is legislation to create within the County a "County Department of Public Works". We have requested Bond Attorney Claude Stevens to draft the legislation providing for the Department. It is not ready for this meeting but we have Mr. Stevens' assurance that he will have it ready to submit to the Six-County Meeting on the 6th of December and, if it meets with your approval, we will see that it is presented to the Legislature. You, naturally, will be interested in the contents of this Bill and as soon as it is offered as a Bill in the Legislature and copies are available, we will give a further report relative to the contents and provisions of the Bill.

It is the intention of your Committee in the early part of January to meet with the newly elected representative of the House or Senate, go over these various measures for introduction and get them apportioned to the various members for introduction. Intermittently, through the Session, we will keep in touch with the progress of our Bills and, when the opportunity arises, report to the Board on the status of the various measures.

Mr. Chairman, I move this report be received and placed on file and the portion hereof concerning the change in the By-Laws be particularly noted and treated as a "Notice of the Proposed Change" which will be offered at the next meeting.

Whereas under the provisions of Section 16 this Board is vested with the power to prescribe the duties of the Dog Warden,

In Re: General Fund Advances — Drain Plans
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen

Whereas the Board by the adoption of Miscellaneous Resolution No. 3156 on October 16, 1956, authorized the Ways and Means Committee to provide funds for the employment of a Drain Coordinator for the Evergreen and Farmington Districts, and

Whereas the Drain Committee as a result of further study of the need to advance funds for preliminary planning and other phases of important drainage and sewage projects the County have recommended that funds be made available also for plans for the Eight Mile Road Drain, the Ten ¼ Mile Road Drain, Artesian (13 Mile-Greenfield), Wrey, Troy Interceptor, Spencer, Rouge River Drain, as well as the Evergreen and Farmington Interceptors, and

Whereas your Ways and Means Committee has carefully considered the report of the Drain Committee and approves of the recommendation that funds should be provided on a loan basis for these various projects so that necessary plans can be prepared at an early date.

Now therefore be it resolved as follows:

1. The County shall provide funds on a loan basis to the County Drain Commissioner for the drain and sewer projects as listed below by advancing from the County General Fund a sum not in excess of the amounts shown opposite each of the following drain and sewer projects:

Drain	Amount
Eight Mile Road Drain	$30,000
Ten ¼ Mile Road Drain	25,000
Artesian (13 Mile-Greenfield)	15,000
Wrey	15,000
Evergreen Interceptor	20,000
Farmington Interceptor	20,000
Troy Interceptor	10,000
Spencer	3,000

In Re: Inter-County Committee — Proposed Bill

PROPOSED BILL

A bill to provide for the organization and financing by two or more counties of an inter-county committee for the purpose of studying area problems; and providing authority for the committee to receive gifts and grants.

The People of the State of Michigan Enact:

The boards of supervisors of any two or more counties may, by resolution, establish and organize an inter-county committee, to be known as the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, for the purpose of studying area governmental problems of mutual interest and concern, including such matters as facility studies on sewers and sewage disposal, water, drains, roads, rubbish and garbage disposal, recreation and park, and ports, and to formulate recommendations for review and action thereon by member-county boards of supervisors.

The said Supervisors Inter-County Committee may employ personnel to coordinate and conduct all types of surveys and studies relating to the mutual problems of its member-counties or may enter into agreements for such surveys and studies to be conducted by other public or private agencies. It shall adopt, by resolution of a majority of its full membership, any recommendation for submission to the several member-county boards of supervisors. It may publicize its purposes, objectives and findings and may distribute reports thereon. It shall make an annual report of its activities to the several member-county boards of supervisors.

For the purpose of providing funds to meet the expenses of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee the member-county boards of supervisors may, by resolution, authorize the allocation of county funds for such purpose. The proportion of the total amount of funds to be so provided by each member-county shall be based on the recommendation of the Supervisors Inter-County Committee, or shall be provided for in the by-laws of said Committee, which shall have been approved by the member-county boards of supervisors.

Services of personnel, use of equipment and office space, and other necessary services may be accepted from member-counties and may be considered as a part of the financial support of that county.

The Supervisors Inter-County Committee may accept gifts and grants from the federal government, state government and local governments, also from private individuals, foundations or agencies, if the grants are made for furtherance of the objectives for which the committee is established.

Eban and Dulles Confer Today

Further 'Clarification' Requested by Israel Before Withdrawal

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Israel is reported seeking "clarification" of U. S. Secretary of States and head of Israel's U. N. withdrawal of Israeli troops from Gaza and the Gulf of Aqaba areas. New instructions were sent to Ambassador Abba Eban.

Eban, ambassador to the United State Dulles' proposal for the delegation, was expected to confer with Dulles today. There was speculation in Jerusalem the envoy would outline new Israeli conditions for acceptance of the U.S. plan on the disputed areas.

Israel has made it clear it is not satisfied with the American formula and wants Washington to go beyond its promises of "support." The Israelis apparently want some assurance of concrete American action to protect Israel's interests.

Under the Dulles plan, the United States would support Israel's right to freedom of shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba at the northern end of the Red Sea. For this consideration, Israel would pull its troops from the Sharm el Sheikh strip of Egyptian territory at the Strait of Tiran leading into the gulf.

Aide Disputes Grimes Story

Claims Medical Report Held Up, Says One Girl Was Molested

CHICAGO (AP)—The Cook County Coroner's chief investigator, disputing the medical findings in the slaying of the Grimes sisters, says they had been beaten and at least one had been sexually molested before they died.

Harry F. Glos, coroner's investigator for five years and a former policeman for 20 years, also challenged the medical report that the Grimes girls, Barbara, 15, and Patricia, 13, died within six hours after leaving their home on the night of Dec. 28.

"Only half of the story has been told and I don't know why the other half has been withheld," Glos told newsmen last night at a press conference he called in his home in suburban Oak Park.

"This may cost me my job, but I cannot sleep knowing things are being covered up," Glos said. "I was in that room for five hours while the pathologists conducted the autopsy. I

Solons Studying Savings Bonds

Tax Exemption or Hike in Interest Suggested to Promote Sales

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some members of Congress suggested today that a tax exemption might be better than an increased interest rate for making government savings bonds more attractive to small investors.

The Treasury Department asked Congress yesterday for legislation to permit an increase from 3 to 3¼ per cent on all Series E and H savings bonds sold on and after Feb. 1.

Chairman Cooper (D-Tenn) of the House Ways and Means Committee scheduled hearings on the proposal Feb. 21.

Treasury officials said the planned 3¼ per cent rate is "right in line with the market" and provides a return comparable to that on any first-rate security.

Rep. Kean (R-NJ) said that "in all situations, one has to meet the market. People won't buy bonds unless they are attractive."

Rep. Boggs (D-La) agreed "something has to be done." He said either interest rates could be raised or small savings bonds could be "tremendously attractive."

Some members said that only about 11 per cent of all taxpayers now show interest income of any kind in their tax returns. In the light of this, they said, it could cost the government very little to exempt income from small bonds from taxes.

Both Rep. James (R-Pa) and Rep. Sieminski (D-NJ) proposed the tax-free approach to Treasury officials in House Appropriations Committee hearings last week.

Spending $1,500 to Get $412 Profit Doesn't Pay

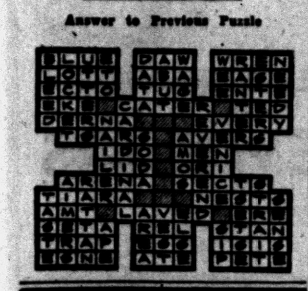

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The state fair wants to spend $1,500 to make $412, legislative auditor A. Alan Post said today.

In his analysis of the proposed 1957-58 budget, he said the $1,500 for "added attraction" at the horse show would bring in $412.

Post's suggestion:

'Charley's Aunt' to Star Carney

Crosby, Hope Wanted for Salute to Baseball in Mid-April

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — NBC's Matinee Theater Tuesday will air a play based on the romance and marriage of Sir Winston Churchill's mother and father.

Playhouse 90 will do "Charley's Aunt" March 7 . . . with Art Carney.

Baseball Commentator Ford Frick wants Bing Crosby and Bob Hope for NBC-TV's big Salute to Baseball in mid-April. Bet they do it . . . Joe Cates will produce . . .

Phil Silvers also may join in if CBS will permit him to cross the channels into NBC . . .

INFLATION NOTE

Mike Wallace, getting $3,000 a week for his new ABC-TV question bee, might be interested to learn Martin Starr, one of the first radio inquisitors, received just $3 per program when he started . . .

And did about 35 quarter-hours a week . . .

Maurice Chevalier's March 6 NBC film spectacular will be produced by Ted Mills, who was Tallulah's personal producing "dahling" back in the last bigtime radio spectacular, "The Big Show."

Polly Bergen signed an exclusive pact not only with CBS-TV but also with Columbia records . . .

Back in old radio days Morton Downey, Jack Pearl, Bing Crosby and Rudy Vallee had audiences of 40,000,000 people or more . . . The top network radio show these days doesn't have more than 2,000,000 sets tuned in . . .

COLOR EQUIPMENT

NBC now has 136 TV stations equipped for color; CBS has 123, ABC 6.

June Lockhart, one of show business' blithest brains, has been set for a future "The Last Word" panel; that's the new TV word game for eggheads . . .

Tab Hunter Doesn't Go for the Grasping Type

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Tab Hunter was saying he liked French actress Etchika Choureau . . . "I hope Hollywood doesn't ruin her . . . she's not one of these career-minded women that's got her claws out."

"Do most of the Hollywood gals have their claws out?" I asked.

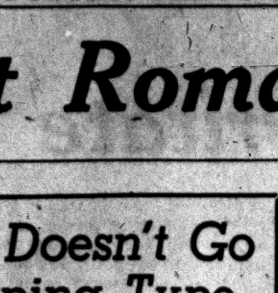

"Hollywood goes for the sexpots and there are so many of a grasping type who keep saying they're dedicated but who do nothing about it but say they are."

"Those girls," he added solemnly, "have nothing in common with Etchika Choureau. I don't mean to sound snobbish, but why waste time going out with those girls who don't impress you?"

TAB

His sudden and unexpected success as a singer ("Young Love" is No. 1 nationally) has brought Tab back into the public eye.

"But I don't think people realize I'm sincere and want to do something good. I'm sure there are people who say 'Tab HUNTER?' like they used to say 'Sonny TUFTS?'"

Tab's currently going around the country helping exploit "The Spirit of St. Louis"—a picture which he isn't in.

He also gets opportunity to plug his record.

"What range is your voice?" I asked, proving I was very musical.

Tab looked bewildered. "I don't have much of a range," he admitted. "A girl said my voice sounds like a girl might expect her boy friend to sing. I guess she meant pretty bad."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Ted Williams and Nelva More had a secret rendezvous here to discuss their future . . . Jerry Lewis' act is 100 per cent better'n his nervous opening night debut and they want him another four weeks.

Prince Philip's friend writer Sam Boal turned down a bundle to do a piece about whether Margaret is really wild and also the "inside" on the Thursday Dining Club . . . London blames Michael Parker's wife's statement to the press for starting the whole "rift" mess.

Them that has, etc.: Wealthy Marianne O'Brien Reynolds won a Buick in a raffle at Eden Roc, Miami . . . Mitch Leisen, of the Goodson-Todman office, lost a thumb water skiing . . . Jane Froman's recovering from surgery, in the West Indies . . . Actress Kim Hunter gets the Person-to-Person treatment Feb. 22.

Earl's Pearls . . .

Wives give their husbands sport shirts, loafer shoes and leisure slacks—then call 'em lazy when they act the part they're dressed for.—Al Cooper.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Charlotte Rae reports on a new drunk cure. It doesn't cure the hangover, but it brings back your taste for whiskey.

Sarah Vaughan explained at her testimonial dinner why she'd chosen a show biz career: "I wanted to get up in the world without having to get up in the morning. That's earl, brother.

U.N. Assembly Waits New Plan

Afro-Asian Group Aims at Compromise to End Strife in Algeria

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 27-nation Asian-African group was expected to go into the General Assembly today with a compromise plan aimed at ending French-Algerian strife in North Africa.

The Assembly's 80-nation top Political Committee voted earlier this week against Asian-African demands that France grant Algerians the right to determine their own future. It then approved two watered-down recommendations for French-Algerian talks to try to end the bloodshed. Neither one polled enough votes to assure it a two-thirds majority in the Assembly.

The committee voted 37-27 for a resolution by Japan, the Philippines and Thailand declaring the Algerian situation "may be normalized by the joint efforts of France and the Algerian people to find an equitable solution."

The other—adopted 41-33—recommended that the Assembly voice hope that a "peaceful and democratic solution' could be found. Argentina, Brazil, Cuba, Italy, Peru and the Dominican Republic sponsored that one.

Army's Mission to Be Deterrent

Taylor Reveals 58 Pct. of Funds Are Devoted to That Purpose

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor said today the Army is devoting most of its money and men to building up forces designed to deter any aggression.

Taylor, the Army chief of staff, said 58 per cent of the Army's dollars and 67 per cent of its manpower are directly assigned to strengthening of deterrent forces. The rest, he said, are devoted to training, research, supply and administration.

In a speech prepared for the National Security Industrial Assn., Taylor said this division of the Army's resources is based upon two assumptions:

1. That the primary purpose "of all our defense efforts should be to prevent the outbreak of general atomic war."

2. That nobody on either side of the Iron Curtain will deliberately start an all-out nuclear conflict.

Taylor said "the day is not far off, if it is not already here,' when both sides may have the ability to destroy the other in case of unrestricted general atomic warfare.

In the near future, he added, production of missiles will catch up with plans and "we will have to make up our minds about how far we will go in this expensive business" in the light of over-all needs for military strength in other areas.

'57 Grads Prefer Mid-Run Jobs to Executive Ulcers

CHICAGO (AP)—"More opportunity and comfort," is how University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher described the 1957 job situation for college students here today.

" 'More' applies to everything in today's world. But from management's viewpoint it means specifically more jobs, more money, more graduates, and more shortages," President Hatcher explained in a speech before the American Management Assn.

Regarding "opportunity," he said there is work for education, business and industry "in helping the college graduate to gain a realistic view of the world of paid employment."

"Comfort," he declared, applies to the comparatively few of today's graduates who are dreaming of becoming corporation presidents or even vice presidents.

He noted that this year's graduates will be satisfied with middle run executive positions because they would rather settle for a job devoid of ulcers, little or no family life and the high income tax that accompanies a high paying position.

Business and industry must relieve education from "a full measure of responsibility" for what the 1957 college grauates become and what they do in the future, President Hatcher asserted.

U. S. Department of Commerce records show that U. S. exports to Russia in 1952 included one passenger automobile. There is no record of any truck or bus exports that year.

Bob Considine Says:

Minor Economies Irritate LeMay

NEW YORK (INS) — People . . . places . . . things . . .

Gen. Curt LeMay, on the fringe-benefits squeeze which is helping to force costly-to-replace men out of the Strategic Air Command:

"After many generations we've produced a unique man in military science. In the event of an attack on the U.S. he will fly his bomber to an enemy target with no thought other than to reach that target.

"He'll fly on and on no matter how many planes are shot down around him. Nothing can stop him, except death or destruction of his plane, until he accomplishes his mission.

"And then somebody in Washington wants to take away his salted peanuts!"

TIFF OVER RELIGION

The first argument in the United Nations was over religion. Noting that the San Francisco conference opened without prayer, Carlos Romulo of the Philippines and several Latin American delegates asked Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius Jr., in charge of arrangements, to include the traditional prayer for guidance.

Stettinius took it up with the Russians and got a gruff turndown. When he insisted, he was told that the U.S.S.R. delegation was acting on direct orders from Stalin himself.

Stettinius yielded, to avoid a procedural wrangle at the start of the conference. But several groups continued to hammer away for vocal prayer in U.N.

One that is especially active is "United Prayers in United Nations." On Lincoln's birthday it sent all 80 delegations to U.N, a copy of the martyred President's great tribute:

"I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom, and that of all about me, seemed insufficient for the day."

CONVENTIONS DEAD?

Wrote a piece the other day fearing that the new long-range planes would turn a lot of treasured old stops like Gander into ghost towns.

Then yesterday we saw something that could very well put an end to the whole idea of conventions—the type of convention where the salespeople, dealers, and the executives from all over the country come into Atlantic City or Chicago to raise a little hell, inspect the new line, listen to the brass and predict doom for all competitors.

It was a demonstration of closed-circuit color television, put on for advertising people and a few industrialists by Fanshawe Lindsley, scholarly president of "Closedcircuit Telecasting System, Inc."

With the aid of some impressive-looking new equipment designed by RCA, Lindsley showed sample portions of one of those NBC color shows on a screen as big as your wall. The show came clean from Hollywood—but it was almost as sharp and colorful as if the players were acting it out before us.

Lindsley and his associates, including the company's board chairman, Arthur O. Choate, and its secretary, William Rockefeller, see a day when the introduction of any new product that has national acceptance will be by this means, on the ground that it saves traveling time, money, the need of providing something for the wives to do, and hotel furniture.

Price for a 50-city hookup, $125,000. With Dagmar to open the refrigerator doors, $140,000.

There are no immediate plans to beat the Atlantic City Auditorium or the Chicago Stadium into plowshares, however.

TWO GREAT LOSSES

Our trade lost two good hands this week—Edwin C. Hill and Leon Racht. Racht of the Hearst papers was a reporter who did what is so hard to do—let the story tell itself and neither embellish or starve it with words.

Hill was an artist, and one of the last men of true flair. He had the voice of a high-ranking angel, the manner of a boulevardier, and the heart of a good missionary. He went to the races in a Rolls Royce.

He was such an immaculate dresser that when he'd enter the courtroom at the first Jimmy Hines trial—he was covering for the New York Journal American—all action would stop. Press, public and principal would pause, and Judge Pecora would greet him with a "good morning."

Hill's class was not confined to the spats and the cane he carried so well. His death ends an era of colorful personal journalism.

Dick Whittington

Many years ago, in a small English village, there lived an orphan boy named Dick Whittington. He longed to see London. He was told that London streets were paved with gold and no one ever went hungry.

At last Dick went to London. But, alas, he found the streets paved with stones and he went hungry until he found a place in the home of a kind merchant, Mr. Fitzwarren. He lived with his pet cat in Mr. Fitzwarren's attic.

One day, Dick sent his cat out on one of Mr. Fitzwarren's ships. Now he was alone and miserable. Discouraged, he left London. He had not gone far when he heard church bells. The bells seemed to say:

"Turn again, Whittington, thrice Lord Mayor of London."

Dick went back to London to find his cat had brought him a fortune when sold to an eastern king. And, in time, Dick became thrice Lord Mayor of London, just as the church bells foretold.

Britain Tells Intent to Withdraw Troops

LONDON (AP) — Britain notified the Western European Union Council today of its intention to cut the size of its troop commitments in West Germany.

Similar notification is expected to be made later to the NATO Council in Paris.

Britain now has 80,000 soldiers in four divisions stationed in West Germany. Because of her financial condition, Britain intends to cut this contingent to about 50,000.

The WEU and NATO nations are expected merely to note the British proposals and refer them to their governments.

Gen. Lauris Norstad, supreme Allied commander in Europe, yesterday said there was very little room to cut NATO forces further and showed concern that a reduction in British military commitments might set off a chain reaction.

France already has had to deploy a big part of her armed strength to rebellious Algeria at the expense of her NATO force.
