Hoffa Denies Hiring Spy

Denounces Rights Bill

AP Wirephoto

ISSUES WARNING — Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) poses in his Washington office as he checks a speech prepared for delivery on the Senate floor. In the speech Byrd said the administration's civil rights bill "would make a 20th century American Caesar" out of Atty. Gen. Brownell if it passed in its present form.

Senators Dig In for Fight After Ike Backs Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opposing sides dug in today for the showdown fight over President Eisenhower's civil rights program after he reaffirmed his support of its basic provisions.

Eisenhower's statement was issued by the White House within minutes after the Senate voted 71-18 late yesterday to take up the legislation for debate and action.

"That's good," exclaimed Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), a leading supporter of the bill, when he saw the President's statement. Other senators backing the measure also hoped it would stiffen resistance to compromise moves.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) said he didn't think more than five or six Republican senators would vote for any amendments to the administration bill, passed by the House last month.

But Sen. Russell (D-Ga) said the Southern opponents he is leading "were prepared to expend the greatest effort ever made in history to prevent passage of this bill in its present form."

SUPPORT DRAWN

The Dixie forces already have drawn support outside their own ranks, from Democrats and Republicans alike, to delete or modify key features of the bill.

But if they fail in that effort, they still will be free to filibuster against the bill — a last-resort course with which they have blocked all civil rights measures in the past.

To choke off a filibuster takes the votes of 64 senators — two thirds of the entire membership.

Ohio Wins Plant Monroe Wanted

Jones & Laughlin Steel Rejects Michigan Due to Tax Structure

DETROIT (AP) — Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. says it will locate a new plant in Ohio rather than Michigan because the tax outlook for corporations in Michigan is "not at all encouraging."

★ ★ ★

This development yesterday was the latest in a running dispute over whether industrial firms are bypassing Michigan in their expansion plans because of the state's tax structure.

Jones & Laughlin, which at one time considered Monroe as a site for its new plant, said the installation would cost 16 million dollars.

Mayor Milton H. Knabusch of Monroe said the plant would have meant 700 new jobs in the area around his town of 22,000 in southeast Michigan.

★ ★ ★

"We've been labeled by the federal government for more than a year as a critical unemployment area with 2,000 persons unemployed, so the plant would have meant a lot to us," Knabusch said.

DISLIKE 'CLIMATE'

He said Jones & Laughlin officials at Pittsburgh, Pa., told Monroe city leaders they didn't like the "political and industrial climate in Michigan."

Michael Schnurr, general manager of Jones & Laughlin's Stainless Steel Division, said his company felt it will take "some years" to reverse the basic fiscal policies of Michigan toward corporations "and after that it will take even more time to get back on an even basis.

Schnurr said Ohio's tax situation "is almost the reverse" of that of Michigan.

Knabusch said Jones & Laughlin officials estimated their savings in Ohio, as compared with Michigan, would amount to $70,000 on initial operation.

The Ohio business franchise tax is $5,000. The Michigan franchise tax for the firm would have been $37,000, plus a $38,000 business activities tax.

$200,000 IN ALL

"They kept telling us it would only be $70,000 in the beginning but by the time they built the other two plants they planned, it would be $200,000," Knabusch said.

★ ★ ★

The plant, for the cold finishing of stainless steel and strip, will be located at Louisville, Ohio, near Canton.

There are no plans to move existing plants out of Michigan, Schnurr said.

Foresee More Manpower Cuts in U.S. Military

Expected to Follow 100,000-Man Reduction Approved for This Year

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

WASHINGTON — Further military manpower reductions in 1958 were foreseen today following the 100,000-man cutback in the armed forces approved by President Eisenhower for this year.

The President gave his approval late yesterday to the 100,000-man reduction after Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson advised him that the cut would make possible a 200 million dollar slash in military budget requests before Congress without "materially affecting deployment of major combat units abroad."

Wilson ordered the services to effect the reductions by the end of 1957, and indicated that further manpower economies may be expected next year.

The defense secretary told the services to eliminate the jobs of 88,135 enlisted men and 11,865 officers, reducing the total strength of the armed forces from 2,800,000 to 2,700,000 men.

He added, however, that a total reduction of 20,000 officers is contemplated, which would leave a cut of 8,135 to be accomplished next year. And he spoke of reductions of "80,000 to 100,000" in the enlisted rank, which at the top leaves a possible further cut of 11,865 next year.

The cutback order was in line with Eisenhower's cut-to-the-bone economy directive to government agencies June 28.

Wilson, himself, had previously pointed out that a 10 per cent reduction in defense spending was necessary to stay within the budget. The secretary said this spending reduction would involve both manpower and weapons, and a sharp cutback in weapons already is being effected.

The Army was hardest hit by the reductions ordered yesterday. Its dream of maintaining a million-man strength indefinitely was destroyed.

Record-Setting Pilot Feels No Sensation of Speed

1,015 M.P.H. Like Sitting in Chair

(What does it feel like to fly across the U. S. at speeds of more than 1,000 miles per hour? Marine Maj. John Glenn Jr., who set a new trans-continental record yesterday, tells his own experiences in the following article.)

By MAJ. JOHN GLENN JR., USMC

FLOYD BENNETT FIELD, N.Y. (INS)—Flying at supersonic speeds is nothing like going on a roller coaster or driving a car on the highway.

Locked in my plane shooting along at speeds which hit 1,015 miles per hour is like sitting in a chair at home and looking at dials.

There is no sensation, no indication of speed at that altitude of around 50,000 feet.

Of course, you know you are going like a scalded duck when you look down and see you are passing an entire state in a couple of minutes.

But as far as feeling the speed, it is less than driving a car about 60 miles an hour.

This flight was certainly not a one-man show. It was part of a team operation.

There are an unbelievable number of details that go into a flight like this and refueling in the air is the most ticklish part of the flight.

TIMING IS VITAL

Timing is most important. Remember, I'm going at a speed of 350 miles per hour and must come up to within 10 or 15 feet of the tail of the tanker.

★ ★ ★

The tanker must be level and smooth in flight or when I come up behind the plane can be banged up if we don't work smoothly.

I didn't have too much time to think because I had plenty of problems to take care of, but I must say I was always thinking "where are the tankers?"

I had to hit the tanker rendezvous right on schedule because I had just enough reserve fuel to get me into a nearby base if anything went wrong with the refueling operation.

★ ★ ★

You can see how ticklish this thing is because my partner, Lt. Cmdr. Charles F. Demmler, had some trouble and had to land.

Going at 12 to 15 miles a minute keeps a pilot pretty busy. I was always worrying about my fuel supply.

My "old girl" was really performing perfectly. And this was a standard plane with the fleet and not a souped-up job.

★ ★ ★

You will excuse me for being a little prejudiced for feeling we have the best fighter plane in the world—the F8U1.

Others can go higher but none combines the speed, maneuverability and altitude which make up the best general combat plane in the world.

Given a break in the weather, we can make the same flight in under three hours.

The old cross-country record was 3 hours, 44 minutes and 53.88 sec-

Find No Trace of Missing Plane

Air Force C47 Has 16 Aboard; Was Reported Down Near Taipei

TAIPEI (AP)—An intensive air, sea and ground search today failed to turn up any trace of a U.S. Air Force C47 missing with 16 persons aboard, all military personnel.

Radio contact with the plane was broken Tuesday night as it neared the end of a journey to Taipei from Clark Field, in the Philippines.

U. S. Air Force headquarters on Taipei said Wednesday afternoon —more than 20 hours after the plane vanished—there was nothing to substantiate Chinese police reports that it had crashed in the mountains between Taipei and the Formosa Strait.

The police earlier said they had heard an explosion and seen flames Tuesday night on Mt. Chiaopeng.

The missing C47 was attached to the U.S. air task force in Formosa. It was returning to Taipei on what headquarters said was a routine administrative support flight.

Monroe Requests Funds for Consolidation of Labs

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors will be asked Tuesday to appropriate $6,325 for the consolidation of public laboratories in the Pontiac City Hall, the Pontiac General Hospital Annex and the County Health Department administration building in Royal Oak.

County Health Director Dr. John D. Monroe wants all laboratory work moved to the new county health center in the Telegraph road service center.

The Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee, working with the Health Committee, is scheduled to ask for the funds to install laboratory facilities in the health center basement.

MORE EFFICIENT

The move would make laboratory work more efficient and economical, said Assist. Health Director Dr. C. A. Neafie.

The Pontiac City Commission has favored the switch, although official approval has not been given yet.

The city has been running its own small laboratory, although the city and county health departments have been merged under Dr. Monroe since 1952.

The Royal Oak and hospital annex (formerly the Contagious Hospital) operations are both under the county.

Dr. Neafie said consolidation is necessary in the face of the present shortage of trained laboratory technicians. It would eliminate duplication of work, too, Dr. Neafie said.

Partly Cloudy Skies Will Cover Pontiac

Kalamazoo Invites Philip

Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip are scheduled to visit North America next fall.

Wanted Cheasty Only as Lawyer, Teamster Says

Takes Stand in Own Defense on Charge of Bribery

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa returns to the witness stand today to back up his story that he hired and paid John Cye Cheasty as a lawyer, not as a spy.

Hoffa, a Teamsters Union vice president, is being tried on charges that he bribed Cheasty to get a job with the Senate Rackets Committee and feed its secrets to him.

Cheasty, the government's star witness in the case, already has testified he furnished Hoffa with information from committee files, but only after disclosing his identity and purpose to the committee and the FBI.

He said he cooperated with both in events leading up to Hoffa's arrest.

Hoffa, taking the stand in his own defense yesterday, said he had never had any discussion either with Cheasty or with Hyman I. Fischbach about Cheasty's getting a job with the committee.

"Mr. Cheasty was to be co-counsel with Mr. Fischbach," Hoffa said.

Fischbach, a Miami attorney, was indicted jointly with Hoffa on the charge, but the government successfully moved for a mistrial in Fischbach's case last week when his attorney became ill.

Called as a defense witness, Fischbach refused to testify yesterday because he still is subject to a later trial.

Hoffa said he decided to hire Fischbach as a lawyer for the Teamsters because of Fischbach's past experience as an attorney for various congressional committees.

He said Fischbach brought Cheasty to see him in Detroit and suggested that Cheasty be hired as co-counsel. He quoted Fischbach as saying they had worked together in the past on lawsuits and would make a fine working team.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa said Cheasty suggested that he be paid a $2,000 retainer, plus $2,000 a month. He said he balked at this because he did not know how much time Cheasty would have to devote to Teamsters' work, and countered with an offer of a $2,000 retainer plus $100 a day for work actually done, with a monthly ceiling of $2,000.

GAVE CHEASTY RETAINER

Hoffa testified Cheasty demanded his retainer in cash and that he gave him $2,000 from a union "rotating petty cash fund," asking that Cheasty send him a receipt.

Cheasty's version was that Hoffa gave him $1,000, not $2,000, at their first meeting.

Hoffa also testified there was no secrecy surrounding that meeting, and that he introduced Cheasty to other union officials under his real name. In that he was supported by testimony of another union official.

It's a 'Bearcat' Says Theater Writer

Earl Wilson Lauds Press Theater Tour Plans

By EARL WILSON
(Special to The Pontiac Press)

NEW YORK—That trip to New York which The Pontiac Press has lined up for 150 local citizens is a bearcat. Last week at the convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors in San Francisco, I bumped into the publisher and editor of The Press and they outlined the plan.

The list of shows which The Press has rounded up is the top list in town. I'd hate to have to dig up tickets to those five performances myself. New York is full of New Yorkers that haven't seen half of them and a lot of people haven't seen any.

"My Fair Lady"
"Happy Hunting"
"Bells Are Ringing"
"Tunnel of Love"
"Visit to a Small Planet"

EARL WILSON

That's a great array. I can promise all of you Pontiac visitors that you'll get a big kick out of the whole group. "My Fair Lady" has built up the largest reputation of anything in show business in the last several decades. Never in the history of the New York theater has anything found tickets as hard to get and commanding such fantastic prices.

★ ★ ★

I know of several specific instances myself in which people have paid as much for two tickets to this show as your New York visitors will pay for the whole trip. You're getting a tremendous bargain in this package deal which The Press is putting on.

★ ★ ★

I like that deluxe flight on the United Air Lines planes, too. That's the top in air flight today. After your party leaves Willow Run, you'll hardly have time to catch your breath before the hostesses will be telling you to look down on the skyscrapers of New York City.

★ ★ ★

I'm leaving shortly for South America but I expect to be back before you come down here in September and I certainly hope I can accept Mr. Fitzgerald's invitation to meet you at Leone's for an after-the-theater supper. I understand you're going to have some of the performers from the shows and I want to join the big shindig.

★ ★ ★

Good luck to all of you and you're facing a rare opportunity. I know. I live in this wonderful and expensive citadel. This is my territory and my beat as I report it to you every day in The Press.

Hospital Head Says 'Sirens of No Use'

DENVER (AP)—The manager of Denver hospitals wants sirens taken off the city's ambulances, which make an average of 10,000 runs a year.

"Nobody has shown me a case in which a life has been saved because of a siren," Dr. Lloyd Florio told a safety meeting.

Police Chief Walter Johnson recommended the sirens be kept because "people feel they are being cared for more efficiently."

The meeting reached no conclusion.

Ask Dismissal in Knifing Case

Defense Makes Motion on Self-Defense Plea; Decision Due Tuesday

The defense concluded its testimony yesterday in the examination of Elmer F. Martin for second degree murder before Waterford Township Justice Donald Adams and a ruling on a dismissal motion Tuesday.

The defense counsel, Clarence Smith, asked Justice Adams to dismiss the charge against Martin on the grounds of self-defense. Adams took the motion under advisement and said he would rule on it July 23.

MARTIN TESTIFIES

Martin took the stand to give his version of the fatal stabbing of Joseph Compeau, 27, of West Bloomfield Township. Martin, 33, of 264 N. Saginaw, admitted stabbing Compeau June 1 at the Waterford Township Dump, but claimed it was self-defense.

He said he was walking toward a fire in the dump when Compeau suddenly appeared beside him and resumed a quarrel which had been going on since last fall.

He testified that Compeau picked up a "pipe or other blunt instrument" and struck him twice, over the head and under the arm.

★ ★ ★

Martin said he pulled a knife from his pocket and that while he stood there with it, Compeau rushed forward and stabbed himself on the protruding blade.

Martin denied earlier testimony by James E. Petty who works at the dump that he had called Compeau over before the fight began.

★ ★ ★

Petty had said he heard Martin call, "Hey, Joe, come over here."

Petty, too, said he heard Compeau's scream, but did not witness the stabbing.

Man Pleads Guilty to 3 Traffic Violations

A Detroit man, Wyman C. Hall, 48, of 8033 Rangoon St., pleaded guilty yesterday to three traffic violations Tuesday before Farmington Township Justice Allen C. Ingle, and was sentenced to serve 10 days in the Oakland County Jail for each charge, after paying fines and costs totalling $125.

The charges were reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident, and driving with a revoked license. The jail sentences will be served concurrently.

What does color have to do with estimating distance, on earth and in the sky?

Take a look at the mountains next time you are 30 or 40 miles away, and out of them. At that distance they will almost surely be enveloped in a blue haze. At long distances on earth things take on a bluish hue.

In the sky the opposite is true, a secret of weather many people don't appreciate. The nearest clouds appear darkest, or bluest. The far away views produce red overtones.

At sunset, when you see clouds in the west, far away, quite often they will be all sorts of reddish colors. The sky is colored by the sun's reflection on the dust particles in the air when viewed from a distance.

With mountains, or earthly things, a bluish color denotes distance. In the sky, red is the color denoting distance.

Boy Found Dead 8,500 Feet Up on Mountainside

BRIDGEPORT, Calif. (AP)—The body of 2-year-old David Allen Scott was brought to this mountain community late yesterday after the youngster—dead of exposure and exhaustion — was found at the 8,500-foot level of Eagles Peak.

The boy strayed Saturday from the Sierra campsite of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott of San Diego.

The body, clad only in a T-shirt, red, white and blue socks and one shoe, was found among boulders on the steep slope. He had climbed an incredible 3,000 feet higher than the camp, losing his other little red canvas shoe and his brown play trousers along the way.

Undersheriff Jack Gardner said the child apparently died Saturday night.

Since the Army is the only service at full strength, its actual reduction amounts to somewhat more than 50,000 men while the total actual cut distributed among the other three services is just over 39,000.

However, the army will automatically accomplish a reduction of 25 to 30 thousand men in the withdrawal of U. S. troops from Japan, which is to be completed by Christmas.

The program is tailored to fix minimum draft calls of from 6,000 to 12,000 per month during the balance of this year, compared with 17,000 monthly early in 1957.

Three members of the Senate Armed Services Committee said today they want to take a closer look at the Pentagon order.

But two members of the House Appropriations Committee — Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) and Rep. Mahon (D-Tex) — generally approved the reduction.

Chairman Russell (D-Ga) of the Senate committee said he had not been informed in advance of the reduction plans.

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD), another committee member, said he wants to know "how much of a reduction this means in our combat power."

Ike Supporters Confident as House Begins Aid Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — House voting on foreign aid begins today with Eisenhower supporters expressing confidence they can beat further moves to cut deeply into the overseas program.

The Foreign Affairs Committee recommended a ceiling of $3,242,333,000, about 600 million dollars below what President Eisenhower asked and 375 millions less than the Senate approved for the new fiscal year.

A motion by Rep. Selden (D-Ala) to knock out the long-term feature of a new economic development loan fund provided the main threat to the authorization bill. The Senate has approved the three-year plan Eisenhower proposed. Selden is seeking to cut it to one year.

★ ★ ★

Both House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) and Minority Leader Martin (R-Mass) urged passage of the measure without substantial change.

A move to tie onto the aid bill a ban on foreign trials of GIs lost headway yesterday when Rep. Bow (R-Ohio), chief architect of the proposal, announced he himself would not offer the amendment.

Bow told the House he believes only a watered-down version of his proposal would be ruled germane, or in order, on the aid authorization bill. He said he prefers to have consideration of his proposal as a separate bill.

As approved by the Foreign Affairs Committee, the foreign aid bill would permit use of 500 million dollars a year for the next three years for a new loan fund for projects designed to promote economic development overseas.

★ ★ ★

Foreign aid officials say the long-range authority is essential to allow sounder planning for the projects.

Senators Line Up for Rights Showdown

This cleared the decks for getting down to action on the bill itself and the various amendments already proposed.

CALLS UP AMENDMENT

Sen. Anderson (D-NM) immediately called up an amendment he and Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) have offered to strike out Section 3 of the bill. Under this provision injunctions could be obtained to prevent interference with a number of civil rights—the right to vote being just one of them.

Another section of the bill, left untouched by Anderson's and Aiken's amendment, similarly would empower the attorney general to obtain federal court injunctions against violations or threatened violations of voting rights.

Tribute Paid to Friend Goat

Naval Academy Statue Honors Lengthy Line of Fleet Mascots

WASHINGTON — Enshrinement of a bronze goat at the United States Naval Academy finally puts one of man's most maligned best friends on a pedestal.

The statue honors a long line of Fleet mascots that have done as much as any other contemporary goats to keep up the genus's good name (Capra).

An old Persian proverb — "If you have no trouble, buy a goat" sums up a considerable body of opinion among the animal's detractors.

Contrary to popular notion, goats do not eat tin cans, old shoes, and shirts. True, few if any goats ever stare to death, but they can make do on the scantiest of diets.

Nor does the average goat have the temper of an obstreperous buzzsaw. Though bucks are inclined to be rough and redolent, the gentle sex is curious, chatty, lively, enterprising, affectionate — and clean.

★ ★ ★

If domestic goats have a tendency to regard themselves as folks, it may be because they have been among people for such a long, long time.

ANCESTRY TRACED

Domestic species sprang from the pasang, a wild goat of Asia Minor. This goat probably was domesticated before the cow, sometime prior to 3,000 B. C.

Goat milk, butter, cheese, flesh, hide, and hair have always been indispensable to peoples of the Near East. Ancient Egyptians worshiped the animal.

The angora goat has long been prized for its fine mohair. And the cashmere goat was famed for its undercoat of downy, soft fleece during the days of the Roman Caesars. At one time, cashmere yarn was reserved exclusively for kings and their courtiers.

★ ★ ★

Today the goat is one of the most widespread of domestic animals and lives everywhere except the polar regions. Many an immigrant to the United States arrived with a goat tucked away in a basket.

American Buys Shaw's Letters to First Love

LONDON (INS)—George Bernard Shaw's first love letters to copper-haired nurse Alice Lockett have been sold to an American dealer for $2,184.

The letters, written 72 years ago when Shaw was 29 but still an unknown, were bought at an auction yesterday by John Fleming.

The love affair, described as the one emotional involvement of the fiery playright's life, ended when Alice returned the letters and married a doctor.

Nightly, Shaw used to court the pretty nurse on the dingy platforms of London's Liverpool Street station, then go home and write the letters.

Auctioned off were 20 of the letters in Shaw's spiky hand-writing covering the shy beginnings of the love affair to its stormy end when Shaw declared:

"Beware. When all love has gone on me I'm remorseless. I hurl the truth about like destroying lightning."

Alice Lockett's daughter, Alice Buxton, attended the auction and recalled how Shaw saw her father and mother years after the romance and sent them tickets to his premieres.

She said she didn't think her mother, who died in 1941, would mind the letters being published:

"She was extremely practical. I don't think she regarded Shaw as a good conquest."

Israel Reclaims Ancient Seaport

Continues to Excavate Rich City, Caesarea, From Sand, Sea

WASHINGTON — Caesarea, once the largest and most dazzling city in Palestine, is being reclaimed from sand and sea.

The Israeli Government has been excavating the ancient seaport for several years. Next spring, an American expedition of skin divers will undertake similar work in the harbor that bristled with Roman gallerys for hundreds of years before it sank into oblivion.

RUINS FOUND

Statues, marble courtyards, mosaic streets, and ruins of resplendent buildings have been found. Further archeological work is expected to uncover many new clues about life in the fabulous Roman city.

Unlike most great cities, Caesarea never knew growing pains, the National Geographic Society says. Begun about 30 B.C., the city was created as a great port by Herod the Great and named after his patron, Augustus Caesar.

Herod picked a strategic though forbidding location — sunbaked desertland on the wave-battered Mediterranean coast 55 miles northwest of Jerusalem. Aqueducts brought fresh water from the nearby Crocodile River. A magnificent harbor was constructed by sinking stones 20 fathoms deep to form a breakwater.

The historian Josephus observed, "Not withstanding the recalcitrant nature of the site, he grappled with difficulties so successfully that the solidity of his masonry defied the sea."

A quarter of a million persons lived in Herod's city. It was renowned for its great beauty, superb fruit orchards, suburban sugar-cane plantations, palaces, amphitheater, public baths, and an oval hippodrome that seated 20,000 spectators.

Pontius Pilate and subsequent Roman governors made Caesarea their home. It was a chief outpost in the Roman Empire.

Jesus visited Caesarea. The Apostle Paul appeared there before the Roman governor, Felix, and was imprisoned for two years. Paul's journey to Rome started from Herod's harbor.

Philip the Evangelist brought the Gospel to Caesarea, and Peter preached there in the home of Cornelius the centurion. This Roman army officer's vision at Caesarea and his baptism were events of supreme importance in the early church for they marked the beginning of the spread of Christianity among non-Hebrew races. For a long time, the city was one of the principal seats of the Christian church.

Attorneys Call Last 'Big Guns'

Proof Develops 'Nicely' for Federal Lawyers in Segregation Trial

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Federal attorneys were calling the last key witnesses today in their effort to prove that 15 segregationists conspired to keep Negro students out of a previously all-white school in Clinton, Tenn.

"Proof is developing very nicely," said U.S. Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford Jr.

★ ★ ★

He had already put one of his big guns on the witness stand. The Rev. Paul Turner, a Baptist minister, described how he was beaten — so that his blood spilled over a parking automobile — after he accompanied six Negro students to the school last Dec. 4.

Further details of that episode, possibly implicating persons yet unnamed, are still to come.

Other witnesses will fill in the story of the events leading up to the anti-integration violence in Clinton last fall.

On trial are 14 Tennesseans, including a woman, and Northern segregationist John Kasper, their alleged leader. The government accuses all 15 of "acting in concert" to prevent Negro students from attending the school. It charges they knowingly violated a federal injunction against such interference.

An all-white jury is hearing the case, now in its second week. Legal experts believe the outcome may have important bearing on other civil rights cases in the South.

★ ★ ★

In a low, composed voice, Turner described how he went to the Negro section of Clinton last Dec. 4 and escorted the Negro pupils to school. He said he had determined to see them safely to school.

"I didn't offer them protection," he testified. "I merely offered to walk with them as a witness of Christianity."

The minister said that when he first appeared near the school, a crowd there shouted, "Nigger lover." He said one of the defendants, Clyde Cook, 35, a fireman, came up to him and said, "Preacher, what business have you got coming up here?"

The clergyman quoted Alonzo Bullock, carpenter and itinerant preacher, as saying, "If a lot of these nigger lovers would keep their nose out of things that aren't their business things would be all right."

He said he walked the Negro students to the school through "heckling," saw them safely inside and came out.

The beating occurred after that.

Defense lawyers battled strenuously to keep this part of the story away from the jury.

★ ★ ★

They argued that, once Turner left the school grounds, he was beyond the scope of the federal injunction against interference. One accused him, rather than the 15, of being the instigator of the troubles.

MSU Board Will Meet at Meadow Brook

EAST LANSING (AP)—The State Board of Agriculture, governing body of Michigan State University, will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday at Meadow Brook Hall, to be the site of a new branch college in Oakland County.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson presented their 1,400-acre estate to MSU in January for the establishment of an Oakland County branch. Valued at more than eight million dollars, the estate was accompanied by a two million dollar cash grant to start construction on buildings.

The board will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Friday. The Wilson's maintain possession of the manor house and another small house on the estate for the rest of their lives.

MSU officials have been working with a committee of Oakland County leaders to plan an academic program for the Oakland branch.

The Day in Birmingham

School Bus Drivers End 12 Hours of Instructions

BIRMINGHAM — School bus drivers have completed the 12 hour course of instruction in bus operation under the direction of David H. Soule, field service coordinator from Eastern Michigan College and Homer A Earl, consultant from Western Michigan University.

Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, Birmingham School Superintendent, said the 32 drivers met for four hour sessions three days at Torry School. He said the program has been launched to improve driver conditions in the men and women operating the more than 5,300 school busses on Michigan Highways.

Highway safety, first aid, state bus policies and the state vehicle code were among the subjects. A member of the State Police reviewed the motor vehicle code stressing those sections pertaining with school busses.

G. Gilmore of General Detroit Corporation gave a demonstration in fire fighting. Many of the drivers had an opportunity to use the extinguishers in putting out gas and oil fires.

Considerable discussion was held Monday night regarding the development of training section and tower for the Birmingham Fire Department. City Manager Harold K. Schone was authorized to make application to the Federal Civil Defense Administration for their possible participation in costs to the amount of 50 per cent.

Original figures for the completed project were estimated at $31,670. A change of plans extending additional space to form the tower on the fire hall rather than as a separate building has revised the figures to $17,800.

When completed the area will provide a place where men may keep in top flight training in the use of all fire-fighting equipment. It also will be provided with adequate draining to eliminate tht flow of water from practice sessions on to the street.

★ ★ ★

The training center at the Bowers station would service both that and the Chesterfield station. Its completion will eliminate the need of firemen conducting practice sessions on public streets as they have done in the past.

Parking Lot Accident Kills Detroit Father

VIENNA, W. Va. (AP)—Two men were killed and five other persons injured early today in a freak accident in a Vienna parking lot.

★ ★ ★

An automobile ran off the road at a curve, plunged into a lot and struck a car in which a Detroit family of five was sleeping, then wedged between a utility pole and a sign post and caught fire.

The dead were identified as Carl Burner, about 35, of Vienna, and Jesse Griffen, 36, of Detroit.

The five injured and in Parkersburg hospitals, all listed in "fair" condition, are William Crowser of Vienna, riding with Burner, and Mrs. Gertrude Griffen and her three children.

★ ★ ★

Penny Griffen, about 8, was pinned under the seat of her father's car. Volunteer firemen extinguished the fire in the Burner car.

The Griffens were believed to have been vacationing and to have parked in the lot for a rest. Their car was knocked about 75 feet.

Milk Producers Ask Rate Boost From Creameries

The Michigan Milk Producers Assn., wants dairies in the Detroit area to pay more for wholesale milk it buys from the association's 10,000 members in the Detroit milkshed.

The increase, if granted, may mean a boost in the retail price of milk in the Detroit area, which includes Pontiac and Oakland county.

The associated opened negotiations yesterday with representatives of the 63 southeast Michigan dairies it serves.

The association's proposal would increase the price of wholesale milk from the current $4.65 per hundredweight to $5 per hundredweight. A hundredweight contains 46½ quarts.

The current price of homogenized milk in the area is 23½ cents delivered to the home.

If accepted, the increase would go into effect Aug. 1.

The dairy owners had no immediate comment on the proposal.

On to Miss Universe Contest

Miss U.S.A. to Be Selected Tonight

LONG BEACH, Calif. (INS) — "Miss U.S.A.," the girl who will represent America in the "Miss Universe" contest, will be chosen tonight from a corsage of 15 of the nation's loveliest beauties.

Included in the 15 girls selected last night from a field of 44 entries representing nearly every state was Miss New York, Sanita Pelkey, who remained in the contest despite her father's death.

The home-grown contestants paraded their considerable charms before a packed house at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium last night as the formal competition in the sixth annual affair got under way.

In the strictly "American affair," Daub, a willowy blonde, was selected as the contest's "most photogenic" entry. She was the second consecutive, Miss Germany to win the honor.

MOST POPULAR GIRL

Gloria Noakes, 18-year-old Miss Canada of Toronto, was named as the "most popular girl" in the traditional kick-off parade that opened the weeklong round of activities.

★ ★ ★

Miss Canada won the title carried off last year by Carol Morris, of Iowa, who won both the "Miss U.S.A." and "Miss Universe" titles.

The American girls appeared first in evening gowns, forming a vivid array of color as they promenaded past the judges.

★ ★ ★

They then changed into bathing suits, and with the 32 foreign entries relegated to the sidelines, the contest was on.

BURST INTO TEARS

When the 15 semi-finalists were announced, Miss New York burst into tears and sobbed:

"I'm so happy I won. It made staying here worth while."

★ ★ ★

The father of the statuesque beauty, who has measurements of 38-24-37, died in New York of a heart attack shortly after his daughter arrived in Long Beach.

Jury Acquits Union Official

Oregon Teamster Chief Charged With Taking Bribe While on Council

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The head of the Teamsters Union in Oregon was acquitted last night of a charge of conspiracy to accept a bribe while serving on a Portland city commission.

Clyde C. Crosby dropped his head on his chest when the verdict was announced, closed his eyes momentarily and then flashed a broad grin at the jury.

★ ★ ★

The State Circuit Court jury of seven women and five men deliberated 2 hours and 48 minutes before returning the unanimous verdict of not guilty. The jury took only one vote.

Thus ended the latest major trial stemming from Portland's lengthy vice investigation.

Crosby, the Teamsters' international representative in Oregon, had been charged with conspiring to place the site of an eight-million-dollar sports center here. The prosecution said Crosby and others conspired to obtain property options at the site.

★ ★ ★

The 42-year-old Crosby said he favored the Broadway-steel bridge site here. That was where, the state said, the options were obtained.

But the commission charged with selecting a site chose another location, only to have the Broadway area picked at a general election.

The prosecution told the jury in its closing argument that its entire case rested on the testimony of racketeer Big Jim Elkins.

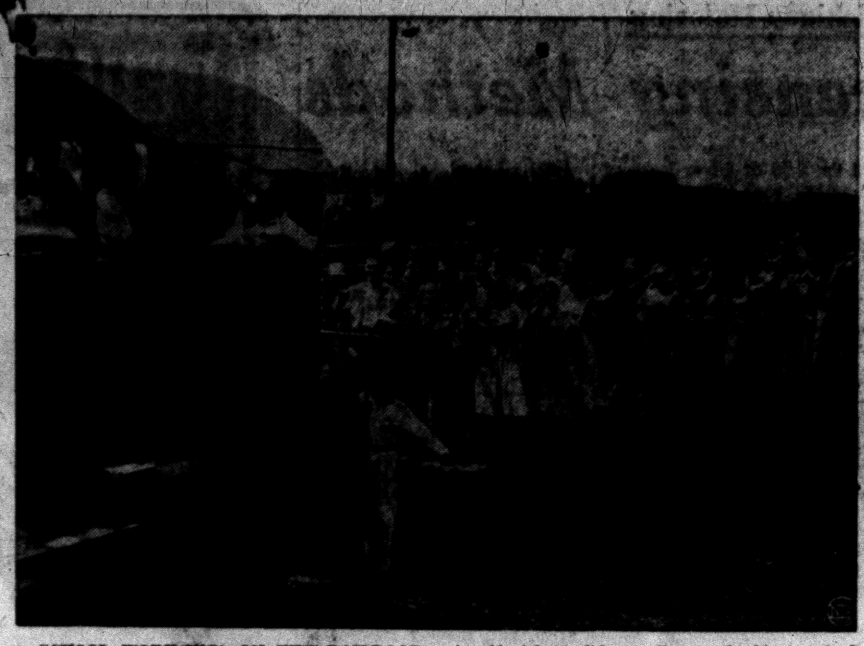

Elkins had testified that Crosby was in on a plot to obtain options at the sports center site. Crosby denied the charge from the witness stand.

★ ★ ★

Of the major trials thus far in the probe, two have ended in verdicts of innocent. Earlier, Mayor Terry Schrunk was acquitted of a perjury charge.

Seek Aid for Airport

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The Kent County Airport Board of Control voted Monday to seek about $419,000 in federal aid, which was ordered withheld more than a year ago by the Civil Aeronautics Administration until the airport met specified safety requirements. The board reported that defects have been eliminated at the field.

SCHOOL WORK(ING) ON THE RAILROAD — Old Casey at the throttle would really have thrown on the brakes if he had chugged into the Detroit Terminal Railroad to see these 42 local high school students operating the road. After two days of orientation, the youngsters — including 11 girls — did actually run the big terminal. They threw switches, weighed cars, classified trains, even operated Diesel locomotives. The educational project was sponsored by the Railroad Community Committee of Greater Detroit in cooperation with school officials.

From Heel to Hero

Deputy Becomes Bandit to Catch Bank Robbers

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Deputy Sheriff William A. Buyers had to work hard to become a "heel," but he became a hero almost overnight.

The 27-year-old deputy posed as a disgruntled cop and would-be bank robber for a year to help break a bandit gang as an FBI undercover man.

His heel-to-hero story was revealed yesterday in a copyrighted story in the Buffalo Evening News.

★ ★ ★

Buyers' undercover work was instrumental in smashing the gang and sending the alleged leader to prison.

The alleged gang leader, Frank R. Coppola, 24, Niagara Falls, was convicted last week in the $52,529 holdup of a branch bank here and was sentenced to 20 years.

Buyers became involved in the case shortly after his marriage to Donna Cuttaia Feb. 1, 1956, four days before the bank holdup for which Coppola was convicted.

When the FBI fingered Coppola as a suspect in that and other robberies, Buyers refused to believe that Coppola, his wife's cousin, could be involved. But when the FBI showed him the suspect's record he agreed to help.

★ ★ ★

At the request of the FBI, Buyers continued his part-time law studies at Canisius College, retained his full-time job as deputy sheriff, and worked his way into the gang and Coppola's confidence.

At the same time, he had to make a happy home for his wife while complaining about his job and his superiors and trying to make himself as obnoxious as possible to his fellow police officers, in order to remove any suspicions of the gang.

His marriage and studies both suffered.

★ ★ ★

At one time, he was suspected of tipping off FBI agents about some members of the gang and Coppola threatened to kill him. But Buyers succeeded in casting suspicion upon another gang member.

It was a tip from Buyers that finally trapped the gang Jan. 11 as it was en route to a tavern holdup that was to have financed another bank holdup. Buyers was in class at college at the time.

"Faust," adapted by Gounod from Goethe's play, has been performed more times than any other opera.

Art Association Fights Battles With Brushes

LIVERMORE, Calif. (AP) —The Livermore Art Assn. doesn't just argue over opposing theories of painting. It fights with brushes.

Six women members recently tackled the drab wall of the association's rented bululding. In jig time the wall was abloom with gaudy yucca plants, cacti and prickly pears.

★ ★ ★

The association president, Dr. James Paul Wesley, a theoretical physicist, took one look and "foamed at the mouth," he reported.

The yuccas, he shuddered, were a sickly yellow, the cacti a bilious green; the lines were bad, the taste poor.

He recruited another male member, Ray Gighofer. They speedily covered the ladies' proud handiwork with brown paint.

★ ★ ★

The women, far from defeated, washed off the brown paint and tenderly restored the desert scene.

"At least he recognized that the design included cacti and yuccas," remarked Mrs. Alice Corbett, chairman of the Decorations and Party Committee.

"I quit," said Dr. Wesley; writing his resignation.

Safety Council Rates Michigan Motoring

Raps Licensing Methods

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's driver licensing methods came in for strong criticism yesterday in a report by the National Safety Council.

Lack of an effective state-wide, public-supported safety organization also was cited in an analysis of Michigan's traffic safety activities presented at a meeting of the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee.

★ ★ ★

These areas were the only two in which Michigan slipped backwards from last year, the Safety Council report showed.

Michigan was given an overall score of 72 points, against an ideal total of 100, in competition with a group of other high population states. This compared with a 73.9 score last year.

Michigan was fourth in its classification, following Texas, with 79 points; California, 77, and Inidana, 76.

Trailing Michigan in the scoring were Ohio, 71 points; New York, 69; Illinois, 66; and Pennsylvania, 55.

PRESENT CERTIFICATES

Certificates of achievement were presented to Gov. Williams and State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs for improved performances by the state in the fields of school traffic safety education, accident records and police traffic supervision.

The state also will be cited for achievements in highway traffic engineering, Norman Olman, dirtriet director of the Safety Council, reported.

In the field of driver licensing, the state's rating dropped from 72.3 to 69, in public safety education from 82.3 to 78 and in safety organization from 85.7 to 66.

★ ★ ★

"One criticism of Michigan's driver licensing is that examiners are only given instructions for about two hours. The National Safety Council recommends 12 days of training," Olman said.

Eye examinations given drivers in Michigan also often are inadequate, he said.

"Driver licensing is probably our weakest area," conceded Secy. of State James M. Hare. "The trouble is we have no control over the examiners. We just about have to certify whoever is recommended by the chief of police or the sheriff.

"In some rural areas," Hare said, "the examiners are doing an atrocious job. In some cases licenses are renewed by telephone and I believe we have some drivers who are also receiving aid from the blind."

WANTS CENTRALIZATION

Hare, who has long recommended centralization of driver licensing in his office, said, however, that the proposal has always had the violent opporition of the county sheriffs.

In the area of public support of safety drives, it was recommended by the National Safety Council that Michigan establish a state-wide citizens progarm with an adequate staff and budget able to organize support at a local level and provide advice and assistance to local city safety groups.

The Citizens Action Committee for Traffic Safety announced that regional traffic safety conferences would be held Aug. 15 at Iron Mountain, Aug. 19 at Traverse City, Aug. 22 at Flint, Aug. 26 at Battle Creek and Aug. 29 at Holland.

Battle Creek Sends Cameron Supplies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. T. A. Thompson (D-La) was notiifed yesterday that four carloads of supplies and materials will leave Battle Creek soon for Cameron Parish, La., recently ravaged by hurricane Audrey.

The supplies, Thompson said, are gifts from the people of Battle Creek.

He said he already had expressed his personal thanks to Battle Creek for this "wonderful expression of sympathy."

"It exemplifies the true American spirit of caring for your neighbors in time of distress," he said.

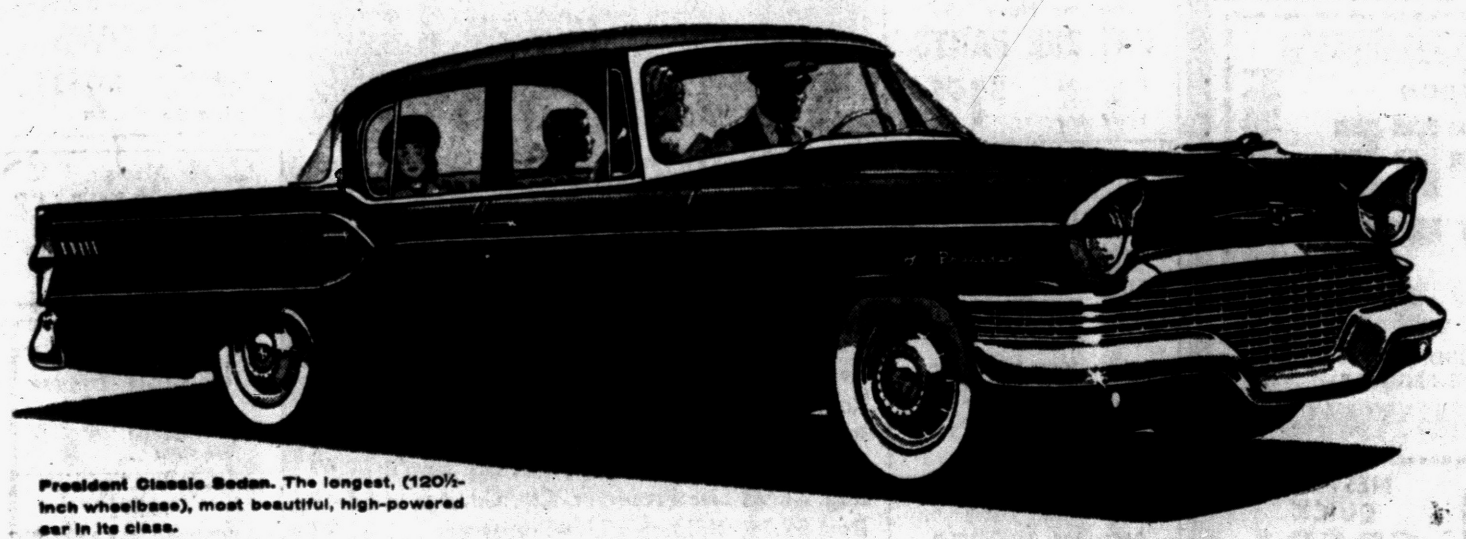

In the shipment, he said, will be building materials, food and canned goods, toys, stoves and sinks and cereals from the Kellogg Company.

The supplies whic hwill go to Lake Charles, La., warehouses, will be of "great assistance," he said.

Second Person Walks Through Glass Wall

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (UP)—Jay C. Van Nuys, an architect, suffered minor cuts of the hand when he walked through a plate glass wall at Rutgers University.

The wall, which apparently succeeds in being "invisible," is part of the university's ultramodern library.

Van Nuys is the second person in three months to miss seeing the wall. The last time, a young lady suffered minor cuts.

Blood-Red Watermelon Gets Man Acquitted

NORFOLK, Va. (UP)—Squashed watermelon figured in the aquittal of Edward S. Ferebee on a charge of disregarding a red light.

Ferebee, an attorney, told Judge Vernon D. Hitchings the watermelon, scattered across three traffic lanes at the intersection, was "blood red."

His first thought was that there had been an accident, he said, and his attention strayed from the red light.

Hot Rodders Use Radio to Outfox Lawmen

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (UP)—Teen-age hot rodders who engage in illegal drag races on the highways around here have a new gimmick to evade the law, police say.

The young drivers keep track of squad cars by monitoring police radio calls.

State police say they rounded up 15 youths last weekend. The young speed demons in their radio equipped cars kept moving from place to place to keep ahead of the police.

Jewish Refugee Called Walking Blood Bank

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (UP)—Herbert Schiftan, a Jewish refugee, is known as a walking blood bank at the Asheville regional blood center.

Schiftan left [illegible] many in 1938, [illegible]. Unable to enlist during World War II, Schiftan began donating blood. His total now is 48 pints.

Canada Seeks Trade With Other Countries

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Canada needs U.S. dollars to develop its vast resources and growing industries. It also likes and buys many U.S. products — more in fact than it sells us. It's less than entirely happy about either of these things.

The new regime in Canada—the Conservatives coming in after 20 years of Liberal rule—is reminding Washington that it plans to oppose some practices both by the U.S. government and by U.S. businessmen.

★ ★ ★

Prime Minister John Diefenbaker proposes to trade more with the British and less with us—about 600 million dollars a year less, in fact. He also squawks about our ways of selling farm surpluses abroad, which he says is unfair to Canadian farmers.

Since American investors have big stakes in Canada and are constantly adding to them, Secretary of State Dulles is going there in a couple of weeks to talk things over with the new boss men in Ottawa.

The squabble over farm surpluses grows out of Washington's attempt to squirm out from under the huge farm commodity stores by selling them abroad at the world price, which is considerably less than the U.S. government spent on them.

★ ★ ★

At first glance that would seem to hurt only the American taxpayer.

But Canada points out that Washington is selling its surplus wheat abroad for the currency of the purchasing nation. Canada sells its wheat only for the Canadian dollar—which is worth five cents more than the U.S. dollar.

Canada calls the U.S. practice a bargain basement tactic that is shutting Canadian wheat out of many foreign markets.

The trouble over trade between the U.S. and Canada is that we have been selling them well over one billion dollars more a year than we have been buying from them. And the deficit is growing. In the first five months of this year the gap was 670 million dollars.

★ ★ ★

The difference has been more than made up by American investors, who have bought Canadian securities and poured investment capital into our northern neighbor at so great a rate that the Canadian dollar is scarce in comparison with the Yankee dollar.

★ ★ ★

But the Conservative regime is happy about neither the trade gap nor the control that American corporations are getting over Canadian industries.

★ ★ ★

Americans, for example, control 70 per cent of Canada's gas and oil industry.

Canadians propose that U.S. corporations with Canadian subsidiaries admit Canadian investors to these firms, put more Canadians on the boards of directors and operate practically as Canadian concerns.

They aren't saying, "Yankee dollar go home." They just want to reduce the weight it throws around.

News in Brief

Jerry J. Threets, 25, of 519 Montana Ave., pleaded guilty to driving without an operators license Tuesday before Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib, and was sentenced to serve 15 days in the Oakland County Jail.

Vandals poured sugar into the gas tank of Glenn Snell's auto when it was parked in the driveway of 100 Washington St. yesterday Pontiac Police report.

Pontiac police are holding an 18-year-old man for investigation of breaking and entering the Hawthorne School, 1400 N. Telegraph Rd., Monday night. After entering the school through an unlocked window, someone broke the cafeteria door and walked off with a canister of marshmallows, two sets of dice and a set of keys, police report.

Work Underway on Biggest Dam

Feather River Barrier to Become Mighty Link in California Irrigation

WASHINGTON—Bulldozers have begun to gnaw at the banks of California's Feather River, clearing land for what is scheduled to be the world's biggest concrete dam.

When completed, 730-foot-high Oroville Dam will harness a stream that flooded disastrously in 1955. Its output of hydroelectric power will almost equal that of the Columbia River's Bonneville Dam. And it will become a mighty link in the irrigation system that turns the Golden State's Central Valley into a horn of plenty.

★ ★ ★

A green trough 500 miles long, Central Valley separates the Sierra Nevada from California's Coast Ranges, the National Geographic Society says. Nearly 60,000 farms and 2,000 factories thrive on its 12 million level acres.

Shasta Dam, massive keystone of the project, traps the Sacramento's northern headwaters. Canals slice across the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta where both rivers drain into San Francisco Bay. Pumps powered by Shasta's generators hoist Sacramento water into the San Joaquin basin.

Thus abundant northern water is funneled south, where it is needed. It replaces what the San Joaquin River system is constantly losing to irrigation. Concrete canals, one winding 153 miles, gurgle with diverted San Joaquin water. It ends up trickling through muddy ditches between citrus orchards, vineyards, and rows of California-size vegetables.

FLOW OF GREEN GOLD

By "moving the rains south," engineers have loosed a rich flow of green gold from the valley that yielded yellow nuggets in 1848. When the California gold rush subsided, many forty-niners discovered the good earth.

Cattle grazed on thousands of valley acres. Wheat filled the holds of square-rigged ships that ventured upriver, sometimes towed by hand. River shipping helped build Sacramento, the state capital.

Wheat Futures Prices Move Up

CHICAGO, (AP)—Buying by mills and commission houses pushed wheat futures prices upward another cent or more at times on the Board of Trade to-day.

There were reports of some flour sales, but they were said to be of family flour and not the big bakery business which traders have been expecting.

Other grains failed to display strength early, except nearby soybean contracts. July beans were up more than a cent at times on reports of export business.

Near the end of the first hour new style wheat was ⅛ to 1 ¼ cent higher, July $2.16 ⅝, corn was ½ higher to ⅛ lower, July 1.29 ⅛, oats were ¼ to ⅝ down, July 66 ⅞, Rye was ⅝ to 1 cent lower, July $1.33 ¾, soybeans were one cent higher to ¼ lower, July $2.47 ¾, and lard was unchanged to two cents a hundred pounds higher, July $13.72.

News in Brief

Market Shows Lower Trend

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was irregularly lower in moderately active early trading today.

★ ★ ★

Key stocks were generally lower by fractions, but there was a liberal scattering of small gainers.

★ ★ ★

The market was fairly active and mixed at the start, but a lower tendency made itself apparent very soon and extended in later dealings.

General Tire was one exception to the trend, rising around a point. United Aircraft was another one-point gainer. Revlon and Gulf Oil dropped about a point and Du Pont was off more than that.

Failure of the market to carry-through its early advances of the past two sessions was disappointing to the bullish segment of Wall Street. Yesterday's decline after a initial rise was discouraging to them in view of the generous budget of good corporate news.

★ ★ ★

Steels, motors, nonferrous metals, chemicals and oils were chiefly lower, but most of the losses were small. Rails were spotty, with fractional gains by Pennsylvania Railroad and Southern Railway.

Atlantic Coast Line and Baltimore & Ohio lost major fractions.

Among losers were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Anaconda, American Cyanamid, Union Carbide and Standard Oil (New Jersey). Boeing was up a fraction. Raytheon improved slightly following the news it has developed a tiny instrument called the spacistor, heralded as an improvement over the transistor.

He received $150 in cash as his state award and his maroon model sportscar convertible is now being judged with other regional winners for one of the university scholarships given to national winners. Big Rapids Manager Tells of Plan to Resign

BIG RAPIDS (AP) — City Manager George A. Granger has notified the Big Rapids City Commission of his plans to resign within 60 days in order to accept another position.

Granger declined to elaborate on the new post. He came to Big Rapids in 1947 from Grayling where he had been city manager 12 years.

Officials Invited to Visit Michigan

Army, Navy, Air Force Secretaries Asked to Attend Business Confab

WASHINGTON (AP) — The secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force were invited today to attend a Michigan business opportunities exhibit aimed at alleviating the state's unemployment problem.

The invitation came from Michigan's four first-year Republican House members, who are helping to sponsor the exhibit at Port Huron, Oct. 8-10. They are Reps. Broomfield, Chamberlain, Griffin and McIntosh.

The exhibit will be aimed at showing Michigan manufacturers how to obtain more defense department contracts with particular emphasis on small manufacturers who are eligible for subcontracts.

Michigan unemployment, the exodus of some industry from the state and failure to obtain some highly publicized defense contracts for Michigan has developed into a hot political issue. Republicans have blamed the situation on the policies of Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams, and the Democrats have denied it.

★ ★ ★

However, an aide to Rep. Griffin said the Port Huron conference will be "strictly non-political."

"The purpose of the exhibit is with government needs and procedures so that Michigan can obtain a greater share of the 14 billion dollars spent each year for defense purchases," Rep. Broomfield said.

"Through this program, we hope to stop the flow of industry from the state and create new job opportunities in labor surplus areas . . ."

Many of the two million items bought by the defense department yearly will be displayed at the exhibit.

Chicken Pox, Mumps Increase in County

Chicken pox, measles and mumps showed sharp increases in Oakland County last week despite the unusually low number of reported cases of other communicable diseases.

Ike Would Like Zhukov Meeting

Tells Newsmen Confab With Sec. Wilson Could Be Fruitful

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today a meeting of Russia's Marshal Zhukov and Secretary of Defense Wilson might prove useful.

Eisenhower made the comment at a news conference which ranged into foreign affairs, but also dealt heavily with a prime domestic subject—the administration's pending civil rights bill.

★ ★ ★

On the latter subject, Eisenhower said he could not imagine any circumstances which would induce him to try to enforce school desegregation through use of troops. Some foes of the civil rights bill have contended it would open the way to military enforcement.

★ ★ ★

The President's suggestion that a Zhukov-Wilson meeting might be worthwhile stemmed from a request for comment on the recent shakeup of the Kremlin top command.

On that point, Eisenhower said in his opinion the shakeup resulted from fundamental changes within the Soviet government.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower recalled that he and Zhukov, now Soviet defense minister, became quite well acquainted at the end of World War II. They were both in Berlin at the time.

★ ★ ★

The President went on to say that he and Zhukov at that time cooperated very closely, and that a Zhukov-Wilson meeting at this time might prove profitable by bringing together defense ministers of the two countries.

Kern's Department Store Sold in Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Ernst Kern Co., one of Detroit's larger department stores, is under new ownership today.

★ ★ ★

Ernst P. Kern, general manager of the firm, said majority stock was bought yesterday by Sattler's, Inc., of Buffalo, N. Y. The stock was owned by Kern's father, Otto Kern.

Details of the sale were not disclosed.

Kern said his father, president of the company, wanted to be relieved of the responsibility of running the store.

★ ★ ★

Kern said he understood no major changes were planned in the operation of the 75-year-old department store, and said he believed it would retain its name.

Hormel Plans Branch

Geo. A. Hormel & Co., one of the nation's leading meat packers with headquarters in Austin, Minn., has announced it will establish a branch plant in Detroit early in August, utilizing the facilities of the Glendale Provision Company but remaining separate in operation from that meat packing firm.

Parke, Davis Sales Up

DETROIT (AP)—Parke-Davis says it marked up record sales and earnings during the first six months of 1957. Net sales for the first half of the year totaled $75,886,342, the firm said, and net earnings were $11,096,496.

Hot Summer Changes Staid Nation

England Goes Quite Balmy

LONDON (NEA) — Just let the temperature soar into the 90s, as it has here recently, and a sort of midsummer madness seizes this otherwise staid nation.

The hottest summer Britain has known in ten years is breaking down social barriers, melting the native reserve, revealing unexpected, almost Latin, traits in this fog-bound island people.

Perfectly sober Britons, overcome by the heat, break their silence in the underground tubes and buses, remark to strangers, "Isn't it a scorcher!" This is revolutionary.

In weather which sea lions at London Zoo find too hot for swimming, the Englishman is shedding his jacket for shirt-sleeves, leaving his bowler and brolly (umbrella) at home.

Ordinarily, nothing short of a major disaster would induce the Englishman to part with these symbols of respectability; but now, in a khaki bush shirt which is a relic of Indian Army days he is beginning to look quite human.

A few die-hards, however, intent upon proving that "mad dogs and Englishmen" can take it, stubbornly cling to their Yorkshire worsteds.

Of the same hardy breed are those who continue to frequent pubs and bars, despite the warm beer and despite the absence of even the most primitive air-conditioning. The majority of imbibers have fled to the sidewalks with their pints of stout and bitters.

Not unexpectedly, the heat wave has brought the Englishman's love for his dog to the fore.

DOGS BEAT DROWNINGS

Thus, the London Daily Express gives precedence to the two miniature poodles who died in 91 degrees of heat at the Windsor champion dog show over nine drownings which occurred the same weekend.

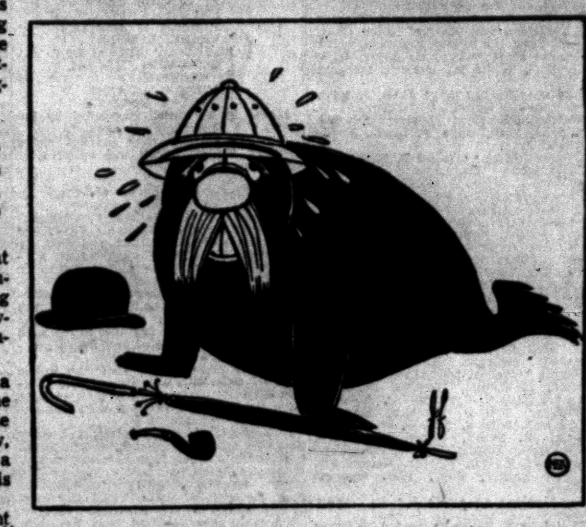

And horses. A suggestion that bonnets be provided for the mounts of the resplendent, red-tuniced Horseguards in Whitehall is contained in a letter from a woman reader of The Times.

Under the heading "animals," too, comes the suit brought by a 23-year-old mother against the tabloid Daily Sketch for alleging that she had posed nude in a lion's cage.

So far the "silly season" hasn't yet produced a saga equal to that of several years ago, when an Englishman, suffering heat srtoke, was taken ashore at Elsinore, Denmark, where the mercury registered over 100 degrees.

At the hospital to which he was removed attendants forcibly peeled from the reluctant Briton first a heavy winter overcoat, then a tweed suit, a pull-over, a flannel vest and a set of linsey-woolseys.

After a 24-hour rest, the Englishman, considerably refreshed, put on his vest, pull-over, tweeds and overcoat and continued his sightseeing in Denmark.

331 Near Collisions Reported by Pilots

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pilots reported 331 near collisions between aircraft in the first three months of this year, the Civil Aeronautics Board says. In 71 of the near misses, the planes came within 100 feet of colliding. In 144 cases, they passed within 500 feet.

California had the most near crashes — 61. Florida and Texas had 26 each; Washington, 15; Illinois and Oklahoma, 14; Maryland, 13; Arizona, 11; and New Jersey and New Mexico, 10.

Aerial Audience Foils Unsuspecting Robbers

DENVER (AP)—It shouldn't take long, Denver police decided, to find the second of two men who robbed a drugstore.

The pair parked their car in an alley.

Watching their flight from vantage points, police said, were a tree trimmer and a telephone linemen. Both jotted down the car license and descriptions of the pair.

One man was taken into cusutody within a few hours.

Trucker Fined $40 for Reckless Driving

Truck driver Bert E. Overton, 38, of 61 W. End St., was found guilty of reckless driving in a Telegraph Road accident May 14 which injured a Wenonah drive couple.

Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum ordered Overton to pay a $40 fine, plus a $10 probation fee instead of a 10 day jail sentence.

The injured couple were Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Pardee.

New Jersey Fish Get 'Artificial Respiration'

LITTLE FERRY, N.J. (AP)—Fish in Willow Lake have been dying, says the State Division of Fish and Game, because the sun has been evaporating oxygen from the water and there hasn't been enough rain to replace it.

★ ★ ★

Firemen have been giving the fish artificial respiration by circulating the lake water through pumps to aerate it.

Firemen Get Eye Exam

DETROIT (AP)—Fourteen Detroit firemen headed for eye examinations and hot baths after unloading 55 drums of ethylene diamine, a dangerous chemical, from a truck. The firemen were called for the unloading chore after a truck driver noticed that a barrel of the chemical had ruptured in his truck.

28 Men Accept Police Training in Waterford

Fifty men were present at a meeting last night to register for civil defense auxiliary police training in Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

An information talk was given by Trooper Gerald Tafel, of the Michigan State Police, who will instruct the men. He fingerprinted 28 men who plan on taking the course.

The project is strictly for Civil Defense in case of disasters such as flooding, tornados and enemy attack, according to Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson. He said this group will have nothing to do with regular police work in Waterford Township.

The first class is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the township hall.

Bakers Prexy Faces Lie Dare

Cross Hears Challenge From Witness, Lawyer to Pay Test Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) —Bakers Union President James G. Cross goes before Senate rackets probers today facing a dare to take a lie detector test.

Mrs. Nathan Ehrlich of the Bronx, N.Y., testified yesterday Cross once kicked her and slugged her husband. Cross denied her story.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) announced he would ask Cross whether he is willing to take a lie detector test to see who is telling the truth.

Mrs. Ehrlich said Cross beat up her husband, president of the Bakers Union Local 51 in New York City, and kicked her when she went to her husband's aid. She said the incident happened in a hotel room in San Francisco just before the union's international convention there last October. Ehrlich was opposing Cross' re-election as union president.

When Cross denied even entering the Ehrlich hotel room, the woman and her New York lawyer Max Goldstone promptly challenged Cross to a lie detector test. They offered to pay the bill for a truth check for her, Cross and anyone else who might shed light on what really happened.

McClellan said, "It's just that simple — one of you is telling a falsehood. . .one of you is committing perjury." Cross declined to discuss Mrs. Ehrlich's dare with reporters yesterday.

Canadian Dollar Moves to New High

NEW YORK (AP) — The Canadian dollar moved up to another new high since November, 1933, yesterday.

At $1.05 3-16 in terms of U.S. currency the Canadian dollar was up 7-64 of a cent from Monday. In November, 1933, the Canadian dollar was worth $1.05 5-8 in U.S. money.

Investment by U. S. companies in Canadian industry has contributed to the rise in the Canadian dollar. An immediate factor is the presence of a 25 million dollars city of Montreal debenture issue on the market.

U. S. dollars paid by investors for these debentures must be converted into Canadian currency before the funds can be used in Canada. The resulting demand pushes up the price of the Canadian dollar.

In Re: Dutch Elm Disease Control — Special Committee Abolished
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At the last meeting of the Board, notice was given of a motion which would be presented at this time to abolish the Special Committee of the Board known as "Dutch Elm Disease Control" which was created by a resolution of this Board on June 27, 1955.

2. That the problems relating to the control of Dutch Elm Disease on a county-wide basis be referred to the Agricultural Extension and Road Committees of the Board for study and report back to the Board at a subsequent meeting.

In Re: Legal Assistance

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas construction drawings are nearing completion for the first unit of the new county building, and

Whereas it is desirable to take construction bids as soon as such plans are available, and

Whereas legal action has been instituted against Oakland County which questions the methods of financing such construction as contemplated by the Board of Supervisors, and

Whereas it is deemed to be in the best interest of the citizens and taxpayers of Oakland County to proceed with our needed improvements on a "pay as you go" basis, and

Whereas an unfavorable decision to the County as a result of the legal action taken would result in the County being forced to construct the needed facilities through an Authority by the issuance of Revenue Bonds which would increase the total cost of the project through interest payments by approximately 4½ million dollars, and

Whereas the questions raised in the suit against the County are, in the main, ones dealing with financing and the handling of funds, and

Whereas the Special County Building Committee, with the concurrence of the Corporation Counsel, feels that no stone should be left unturned to insure a successful conclusion to the litigation, and

Whereas Mr. Claude Stevens has, for a number of years, been the legal advisor to Oakland County on matters of bonding and financing and is recognized as an expert in legal aspects of governmental finance,

Now therefore be it resolved that the Oakland County Board of Supervisors hereby authorizes the Ways and Means Committee to retain Mr. Claude Stevens as counsel to assist the Corporation Counsel's office in the trial of this litigation, and

Be it further resolved that Mr. Stevens be authorized to enter an appearance in this case on behalf of Oakland County.

Mr. Chairman, on behalf of the Special County Building Committee whose names appear below, and with the concurrence of the Ways and Means Committee, I move the adoption of this resolution.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At a joint meeting of the Ways and Means and Buildings and Grounds Committees held April 12, 1957, the matter of the purchase of the following described property was discussed and it was the unanimous opinion of the members of the joint committees that said property should be purchased to provide additional facilities for the emergency juvenile housing program as recommended by Dr. Louis Friedland, consultant, and presented to the Board on March 8, 1957, by the Ways and Means, Buildings and Grounds, Welfare and Juvenile Affairs Committees.

Now therefore, Mr. Chairman, I move, on behalf of the Ways and Means Committee, and with the concurrence of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, that the County of Oakland purchase the following described real estate:

and that the Corporation Counsel be instructed to take care of the necessary details to procure a deed and that the Board of Auditors be authorized to issue a check to Nicholie & Harger Company, a Michigan Corporation, owners, for the sum of $20,000.00 upon approval of the title and deed by the Corporation Counsel and, after approval of the Ways and Means Committee as to the existence of proper zoning of said parcel for the intended use, and the procurement of an appraisal of said property by the Board of Auditors;

Be it further resolved that after title has been acquired to said property, the Board of Auditors be authorized to make the following improvements on said property as requested by the City Building Inspector:

1. Fire alarm system.
2. Two shower heads.
3. Install new floor drain
4. Cut doorway through wall, frame and new door, install porch and steps.
5. Repair and extend retaining walls and steps of exit from basement to a point byond edge of new porch.
6. Enclose front stairway going upstairs with sheet rock and install door.
7. Install new toilet in upstairs bath.
8. Fencing back yard 4 feet high, 160 lineal feet, and three gates at an estimated cost of $3,200.00;

Be it further resolved that the sum of $20,000.00, being the purchase price of said property, be appropriated from the General Fund of the County;

In Re: Memorial—Edmund H. Waterhouse
To the Oakland Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas Edmund H. Waterhouse of Huntington Woods did capably serve Oakland County for sixteen years prior to October 1, 1955 as County Supervisor, and

Whereas he was well-known among his friends and associates by the characterization well expressed by the Daily Tribune in its account of his death, as "a blunt, forthright man", and

Whereas during his service on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, he was given many responsible assignments, of which possibly one of the most difficult was his service on the committee which recommended certain important organizational changes in the operation of county government, some of which were adopted and have proven very satisfactory; among the more important regular committees on which he served were the Juvenile Affairs Committee, the Salaries Committee of which he was Chairman, and the By-Laws and Welfare Committees. As a member of the Board, Mr. Waterhouse was never a "Yes" man but courageously voted his convictions. Consequently, his opinions were received by his associates with respect whether or not they agreed with him.

Both as a city official and as a private citizen, he was universally regarded as a man of high integrity and rugged honesty. As a friend, he was sincere and loyal. As a neighbor, he was considerate and friendly. As a family man, he was devoted and dutiful. He was well respected by all who knew him best.

In Re: Deed to Edmund H. Blakeman and Wife
To the Oakland County Board of Supervisors

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The County of Oakland acquired title to:

Lot 775 and Lot 776, Ward's Orchards, a subdivision of part of the north half of Section 6, Town 2 North, Range 10 East, Township of Bloomfield, Oakland County, Michigan, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 23 on page 24 of Plats, Oakland County Records by quit claim deed and land contract assignment from Anna Matthew on December 5, 1956, in payment for hospitalization.

Said real estate had been previously sold on land contract by Anna Matthew to Edmund H. Blakeman and Gladys V. Blakeman, his wife, of 1155 Fairfax Road, Pontiac, Michigan, by contract dated March 29, 1956.

The said purchasers have now fully paid the County the balance due under the terms of said contract and are entitled to a conveyance of the legal title to the property above described.

Wherefore, Mr. Chairman, I move that the Corporation Counsel be authorized to prepare the necessary deed to convey legal title to said lots to Edmund H. Blakeman and Gladys V. Blakeman, his wife, pursuant to the terms of the land contract and that the Chairman and Clerk of this Board be authorized to execute said deed on behalf of the County of Oakland.

In Re: Easement for Construction and Maintenance for Twelve Towns Relief Drains

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen;

Whereas an easement for the construction and maintenance of the Twelve Towns Relief Drains was secured on July 17, 1956 from Gordon and Winifred Jean Peterson through Lot 42 of the Eyester and Howarth Clawson Plat No. 2, City of Clawson, and

Whereas the Lot 42 of Eyester and Howarth Clawson Plat No. 2, City of Clawson was in fact sold by the Petersons prior to July 17, 1956 to the Geneva Builders, Inc., and

Whereas the Geneva Builders desire to use a portion of the property for utility easement purposes, and

Whereas because of the proposed rerouting of the Twelve Towns Relief Drains into the City of Troy, it is improbable that the Twelve Towns Relief Drains will use any portion of the easement, and

Whereas if it appears it will be necessary for the Twelve Towns Relief Drains to use a portion of said property, the use of a portion by Geneva Builders, Inc. will not interfere with the Twelve Towns Relief Drains structures in the easement, and

Whereas Geneva Builders, Inc. have agreed upon release of the easement by the County of Oakland to Geneva Builders, Geneva Builders, Inc. will execute a new easement to the County of Oakland for the purpose of construction and maintenance of the Twelve Towns Relief Drains through said property;

Now therefore be it resolved that the Oakland County Drain Commissioner be and is hereby authorized to execute a release of right-of-way to the Geneva Builders, Inc. of the following described property.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Whereas the Board of Supervisors of Oakland County is informed that the Congress of the United States has under consideration, the advisability of deepening, widen and straightening the Red Run Drain from the point where the last improvement project ended to the main body of the Clinton River, and

April 1, 1957

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of the County of Oakland, Michigan

Gentlemen:

Your Board of County Road Commissioners in compliance with the statutes relating thereto, takes pleasure in submitting for your approval our Forty-Fourth Annual Report of the work of this department for the period January 1, 1956 to December 31, 1956.

Northwestern Expressway

Northwestern Highway in Oakland County, which extends from Eight Mile Road in Southfield Township in a northwesterly direction to the west County Line near Fenton in Genesee County, has been approved as a limited access highway by the Michigan State Highway Department.

Acquiring of right of way and actual construction will be started in 1957 on the section between Orchard Lake Road and M-59, provided bonds can be sold to cover cost in addition to Federal Aid.

The estimated cost of the total project is $37,000,000.00 of which $25,000,000.00 is to be financed through a bond issue. Oakland County participates in the cost to the extent of $1,800,000.00 payable from Motor Vehicle revenues over a 20 year period. The State to pay the balance of the cost of the Expressway exclusive of Federal Aid.

Farmington-Brighton Expressway

The Farmington-Brighton Expressway extending from U.S.-No. 23 in Livingston County and paralleling U.S.-No. 16 easterly to a point about one (1) mile southeast of Middle Belt Road in Oakland County will have completed sections for traffic during 1957. Some of the grade separations have been delayed because of a steel shortage. The total cost of the project is estimated at $11,000,000.00 of which Oakland County participated to the extent of $300,000.00 payable in twenty (20) equal annual installments from Motor Vehicle revenue.

New Office and Shop Buildings

This Commission has under construction the second set of buildings on the County Service Center Site. The contract for the construction was awarded to the Campbell Construction Company of Detroit as low bidder as follows:

Office Building	$174,479.00
Shop Building	110,413.00
Total	$284,892.00

These buildings will be completed and ready for occupancy about April 1, 1957. The shop building will house a paint shop, electrical laboratory, engineering laboratory, carpenter shop, and a sign letter shop.

Plans are in process for the construction of our third and final set of buildings on the County Service Center Site. These consist of a warehouse to house cement, calcium chloride, salt, fertilizers, and seasonal equipment, at an estimated cost of $50,000.00. Also an additional storage garage to house regular equipment and to permit the full use of our present garage for a repair shop. This building is estimated to cost $360,000.00.

This Commission sold to the Michigan State Highway Department approximately 2.5 acres of land including building thereon at 550 South Telegraph Road, to provide right of way for M-58 (Telegraph Road) relocation for the sum of $104,000.00. The balance of land and buildings at this address of an appraised value of $143,000.00, will be offered for sale this spring.

Highway Needs Study

The "Highway Needs Survey" of Oakland County's Highways along with other counties of the State is before the Legislature in its 1957 session. No doubt some additional monies will be made available to the counties for highway improvement purposes. Traffic demands far exceed our annual improvement funds.

Eight Mile Road

There has been but little progress made on the Eight Mile Road relocation project near Northville, description of which is contained in our 1955 Annual Report. Condemnation proceedings are proposed for this year to acquire sufficient right of way. This project is a joint venture by and between this Commission and the Wayne County Road Commission.

County Road Maintenance

County roads are divided into two classifications, namely, Primary and Local. The Primary Roads are the main county roads as approved by the Michigan State Highway Department. The balance of the public roads and subdivision streets outside of municipal incorporations are local roads. Funds for the maintenance of these roads are provided from Motor Vehicle revenues under Act 51 of the P.A. of 1951.

Local roads have been maintained within the funds available supplemented by contributions from the Townships. The maintenance of county local roads costs $896,846.56 including labor, material, equipment rental, and distributive expense or an average of $460.66 per mile. These figures include sale of culvert pipe, calcium chloride brine as a dust layer and contribution by townships.

The cities of Hazel Park, Oak Park, Ferndale, Berkley, and Huntington Woods have maintained primary roads, within their respective City limits, under an agreement with this Commission.

Maintenance of County Primary Roads cost during 1956, $1,397,767.88 including labor, material, equipment rental, overhead, and distributive expense, or an average of $1,940.30 per mile.

State Trunkline Highways are maintained by this Commission under a contract with the Michigan State Highway Department for the fiscal year July 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957. This contract amounts to $437,356.00 or an average of $2,393.30 per mile.

Report on Dutch Elm Disease

During the year of 1956, this Commission removed a total of 348 elm trees which were infected with the above mentioned disease or were condemned as breeding places for the beetles, which are the carriers for the disease. This is a 94.4% increase for 1956 over 1955. Percentage-wise, it is down but still a larger number of trees are involved. This is affecting our Local Road Budgets and will continue to do so as long as the disease exists.

Because of the distance the wood has to be hauled for disposal and also the fact that this wood has to be destroyed by burning, our average cost can still be figured at $85.00 per tree this year.

Following is a list showing what roads and Townships were affected by this disease and removals:

This makes a total cost of $29,580.00 which was spent on Dutch Elm Disease infected trees for their removal and disposal.

This disease has been found in seventeen (17) of our twenty-five (25) townships. This definitely shows how the disease has spread throughout the County to a point where no control program, other than what is being done would warrant the expense involved.
