Death Rides a Steeple

Worker guides steel frame into position,

Plunge follows when hoisting boom breaks.

Worker Killed in Crash

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — J. B. Stanridge, 38, a steelworker fell to his death from a 175-foot church tower when a hoisting boom broke. He was one of three workmen atop the tower.

As Stanridge clasped the steeple framework, Jones clicked his camera, switched plates by habit, and then decided he'd make one more "just to be sure."

Jones said he used a 10-year-old Speed Graphic and shot at a shutter speed of 1-700 at f11.

Quake Shakes Alabama; Rain Pounds Plains

Tremor Knocks People Out of Bed; 18 Twisters Counted in Past Day

DALLAS (AP) — Cloudbursts behind a squall line that swept across eastern Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas flooded homes and highways in this waterlogged tornado-weary state today.

Approximately 600 persons were being evacuated in the Waco area where up to 6 inches of rain fell in less than four hours this morning.

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. An earth quake quivered a 90-mile area of North Alabama near the Tennessee border line this morning.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said Birmingham, Cullman, Jasper and Decatur had felt the effects of the quake, adding:

"Rather sharp earth tremors were felt, shaking buildings and in some isolated cases objects were shaken off shelves and tables. The quake was quite pronounced."

Police and other public agencies said no damage or loss of life had been reported in the quake.

Alabama State Patrolman J. W. Tate said the quake "shook some people right out of bed." He said he heard an Alabama disk jockey "got knocked right off his chair."

The weather bureau said it was the worst quake in the area in the past 12 years. Although it does not have a seismograph, the bureau said it was certain that the tremors had been an earthquake.

Patrolman Tate said:

"The quake sounded like thunder. We couldn't find any cracks in the ground, or any damage at all, but unconfirmed reports said that the shaking had been felt all the way into Georgia."

More turbulent weather pounded the storm-battered southern and central plains today after yesterday's eruption of 18 tornadoes in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Severe thunderstorms and heavy rain continued during the night

Pontiac Output Gains Over '56 Production

Semon E. Knudsen, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, says he expects the domestic new car market to absorb 6½ million cars this year, and the Pontiac Division to get nearly 8 per cent of the total.

Knudsen made the prediction at a news conference Monday afternoon following another in a series of dealer meetings. The meeting in Detroit was the 22nd in a schedule that calls for 26 conferences with Pontiac retailers around the country.

He told newsmen Pontiac is producing more cars now than it did in the like 1956 period and that assembly line output is in "close proportion to our sales."

"Under present conditions it appears that the domestic new car market will absorb more passenger cars in 1957 than in 1956 with a total volume of 6,500,000 cars," Knudsen said.

"Pontiac's share of that market should climb to a greater percentage of the industry than in 1956. Present schedules for the calendar year of 1957 are 15 per cent higher than 1956, and we are producing in close proportion to our sales.

"We have a 5-year advanced engineering and development program under way which we feel will accelerate Pontiac's climb to a much greater share of the market and move up our position in the industry. Our plans call for a car which will be youthful in styling and performance and at the same time continue Pontiac's reputation for dependability.

S. E. KNUDSEN

"We moved toward this objective in 1957, and our cars have had nation-wide approval by the public.

"Pontiac's sales are showing a steady increase and we look for a rapid increase when spring weather breaks through and with our 'Drive the Champ' demonstration program under way," Knudsen said.

"Our sales for the first 10 days of April were 6 per cent higher than the same period in March, and I am confident our April sales will exceed April of last year."

If Pontiac gets eight per cent of the 1957 new car market its share will be better even than it accounted for in the industry's record year of 1955.

Of the industry's total sales of 7,169,908 new cars in 1955 Pontiac accounted for 530,007 or 7.39 per cent.

Ike and Mitchell to Study Labor

Will Talk Thursday on Possible Legislation to Curb Racketeering

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower today called Secretary of Labor Mitchell to a Thursday conference here to discuss the possibility of legislation to deal with situations such as disclosed by the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

In announcing the conference plans at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty replied "Yes" when asked whether he looks for the administration to ask that Congress enact legislation in that field at this session.

The press secretary also emphasized that the President and Mitchell plan to discuss other phases of the general labor picture and the possibility of legislation in such areas as union health and welfare funds.

The President today also reaffirmed that the United States is confident "controls and reduction of arms are possible, desirable and in the last reckoning, indispensable."

The President's view was set forth in a statement issued at his vacation headquarters after he conferred for 75 minutes with Harold E. Stassen, his disarmament adviser.

Stassen flew to Augusta from Washington for the conference and made ready to start back to London for resumption of United Nations disarmament talks there tomorrow.

Replaces Chad Ritchie

Arthur G. Elliot Jr. Heads County GOP

By PETE LOCHBILER

Board of the Oakland County Republican Committee today announced a new county chairman and plans to bolster party strength.

Arthur G. Elliot Jr., 39-year-old Pleasant Ridge real estate and building man, was elected to guide the party out of the low fortunes in which it found itself after the April 1 election.

Elliot replaces Chad M. Ritchie, county chairman since April, 1955, who resigned, he said, "to give new blood plenty of time to plot the course of the 1958 primary."

Ritchie, re-elected to a two-year term last August, was immediately named to the county's executive board.

SUCCESSFUL STRATEGIST

Elliot is considered one of the party's most energetic, successful young strategists and has served as one of Ritchie's top lieutenants.

He was campaign manager during last November's election, in which Republicans felt they racked up decisive victories for county, state and national candidates.

In February, Elliot was re-elected to a second term as an Oakland County member on the Republican State Central Committee. He is a partner of A. G. Elliot and Sons, a Royal Oak firm.

Elliot sees his big job as strengthening and broadening the party from its lowest level up.

Dulles Urges U. N. Action on Suez Canal Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary Dulles said today the question of operating the Suez Canal should be placed quickly before the U.N. Security Council—possibly tomorrow or Thursday.

Dulles also said today the government is willing to allow a "pool" of American newsmen to visit Red China, provided existing bans on travel by other Americans to the Chinese mainland can be maintained.

At a news conference, however, he said leading news executives who have discussed such an experiment with him are bankrupt—as he said the State Department is—of ideas on how this could be done successfully.

Returning to the Suez problem, Dulles said the United States has no objection to American ships going through the canal, but advises that tolls be paid under protest.

Dulles refused to speculate on what the United States might do if Egypt rejects the Suez formula adopted by the Security Council and pressed by the United States in talks at Cairo.

EGYPT DECISION DUE

Dulles indicated a final decision by Egypt is expected shortly. But when asked if that meant within 48 hours, he said he had no such official information.

Dulles emphasized the United States would seek no action by the Security Council, that the U. S. move would be in the nature of a report.

On other matters, Dulles said: The United States sees no way that nuclear test explosions can be halted at this time without risking giving Russia a chance to gain a decisive upper hand in atomic power.

Jug of Whisky Ferments Plan for 'Honeymoon'

Many wives would think twice about presenting their husbands with a jug of whisky, since a husband plus a jug of whisky do not always add up to a happy situation from the woman's viewpoint.

However, Mrs. Emil F. Karaset, of 139 Welfare St., Walled Lake, tried it four years ago, and is now reaping benefits.

On the Karasets' first anniversary, she presented her husband with a half-gallon jug of whisky. Today that gift is paying off in what the Karasets call "a fifth honeymoon."

Upon consuming the last drop, Karaset kept the jug and began saving dimes in it. He told his wife that when they had been married five years, he would cash the dimes in and use the money for a fifth honeymoon.

Yesterday they took their 24 pounds of dimes and cashed them in for $460 worth of travelers' checks at the Community National Bank of Pontiac in Walled Lake.

The money will go into use May 13 when they leave for Denver, Colorado.

HAROLD A. FITZGERALD

Associated Press Names Directors

H. A. Fitzgerald, Press Publisher Is Renamed for 3-Year Term

NEW YORK (AP) — Members of The Associated Press re-elected four directors and elected three new directors yesterday at the annual meeting of the news cooperative.

The results of the balloting were announced early today.

Directors re-elected were: Mark Ethridge, Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal; Bernard H. Ridder Jr., Duluth, Minn., News-Tribune; Harold A. Fitzgerald, Pontiac, Mich., Press; and, for cities of less than 50,000 population, Dolph Simons, Lawrence, Kan., Journal-World.

The new directors were: W.D. Maxwell, Chicago Tribune; George W. Healy Jr., New Orleans Times-Picayune and Times-Picayune—New Orleans States; and John W. Runyon, Dallas, Tex. Times Herald.

★ ★ ★

There are 18 members of The Associated Press Board of Directors. They are chosen for three-year terms, with the terms of six expiring each year. The men voted on yesterday were nominated by the AP's nominating committee last Jan. 21.

Shirt-Sleeve Days to Continue in City

The weather man forecasts scattered showers and thunderstorms for tonight and tomorrow.

After reaching a high near 80, the mercury is expected to dip to 60 tonight.

Tomorrow will be even warmer, with the temperature expected to reach a high of 76 to 80.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 54. At 2 p.m. the mercury read 79 degrees.

Cut in Taxes for 1958?

But a tax cut is unlikely this year, he said last night at a dinner of the Rensselaer County GOP Committee.

The GOP chieftain blamed demands for new services from "the home folks" for high taxes and the big government budget, which he termed "too high."

The budget "can and will be reduced substantially," he said.

Board Agrees to Set Strength at 10 Employes

But Department to Stick to Limitations Imposed by Lower Budget

Waterford Township Board last night approved a compromise police budget submitted by Police Chief Frank Van Atta.

As a result, the Waterford Police Department will have eight officers and two civilians instead of seven officers and one civilian as ordered in a special meeting of the board Saturday when police strength was cut.

The police budget for the 42,000 population township will be within the approximate $5,000 a month or $63,667.50 a year recommended by the special township board meeting.

According to Elmer Johnson, supervisor, Waterford Township has one big $64,000 question. He said: "Just how to distribute that amount which is the present balance in the treasury, will be the problem until June when the first installment of a quarterly tax revenue comes in."

SUFFERS BLOW

The Waterford Township treasury suffered a $100,000 blow in mid-March when officials were forced to acknowledge an Attorney General's opinion prohibiting Justice of the Peace costs going to township funds.

Two bills are now pending before the legislature giving some funds from court costs to township governments.

Van Atta said today: "It would have been impossible to give the people of Waterford Township round the clock police protection with the seven men recommended by the township board Saturday. "With the additional patrolman and night operator we will be able to keep a skeleton crew on at all times. We will endeavor to give the people the best possible protection with what we have."

Judge Named in County Suit

Dehnke of Harrisville to Hear Case Against New Courthouse

Confirmation is expected soon from Lansing that a Harrisville judge will hear the suit blocking construction of a new Oakland County Courthouse.

It is expected Circuit Judge Herman Dehnke, whose circuit includes Alcona, Iosco and Oscoda Counties in the northeast portion of the Lower Peninsula, will begin the hearing May 14.

An outside jurist was requested because Oakland judges will be affected by the outcome of the case.

The Oakland County Taxpayers' Assn., a group representing downtown Pontiac lawyers, filed the suit against the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The suit charges the board with financial irregularities, including budget padding to accumulate building funds for a new courthouse in the Telegraph road county service center.

It also charges moving the courthouse site from downtown Pontiac would be illegal. The charges have been denied by the supervisors.

Crib Folds, Kills Baby

DEARBORN (INS) — A folding crib that collapsed was blamed today for the death of a six-weeks-old Canadian girl who suffocated in the Dearborn home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown of Scarborough, Ont., parents of the infant, were visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacNeil, when the tragedy occurred.

To Suspend Licenses

DENVER (AP) — Gov. Steve McNichols has issued an order directing indefinite suspension of a driver's license if he is convicted of two traffic violations within six months or of a single "flagrant" violation.

State UF Eyes Budget Figures

Dr. D. S. Smith Talks on Medical Research at Dinner Meeting

Representatives of the Pontiac Area United Fund attended the budgetary session of the Michigan United Fund in Lansing yesterday, to participate in reviewing requests of $4,034,756 for 14 state and 20 national health and welfare agencies for the coming year.

Dr. Donald S. Smith, 135 Wenonah Dr., was the guest speaker at the dinner last night, which climaxed the first of the two day session of the admissions and budgeting committee.

He addressed the group that Irving A. Duffy, Michigan United Fund and Ford Motor Co. vice president earlier had called "the very lifeblood of the entire united giving movement."

Dr. Smith has been chairman of the research committee of the National Heart Assn. for the past two years.

Speaking on "What Medical Research Means to the Local Community," Dr. Smith stressed the value of research by citing examples in his own Pontiac practice.

During the hearings, the Michigan Chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation was admitted to the state UF for a provisional six months period.

A panel of 34 committee members voted to slash the funds of the Michigan Chpater of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, which requested $326,872. Members voted to cut the 1958 sum by 20 per cent of the 1957 $275,000.

Overall budget requests represent a 33 per cent increase over the 1957 allocations of $2,925,000.

Panels which reviewed requests yesterday, will report their recommendations today.

Pontiac Area United Fund representatives who are attending the meeting are: Robert S. Nelson, chairman of the Pontiac Area United Fund Budget Committee; Richard Kirby, union business agent; Owen O'Neil, personnel department of General Motors Truck and Coach Division; Karl W. Bradley, executive director of the area group; Robert Langer, assistant director of the Pontiac Fund and Simon O'Shea, of the local public relations staff.

In 1957, the Pontiac Area United Fund gave the Michigan United Fund $40,000.

NO, THE CIRCUS IS NOT COMING — Although children will be disappointed to hear such disheartening news, Mom and Dad will be glad to know that in this huge 60 by 180-foot tent will house the fourth annual Home Improvement Show sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce. The show, which opens Thursday at 4 p. m. and runs through Sunday, will show Mom and Dad just how to fix up their homes with the most modern innovations. The tent went up yesterday south of the Tel-Huron Shopping Center, where Jaycees report that there will be plenty of free parking. The tent, replacing the Armory as the site of the show, is expected to provide more space for some 50 exhibitors and hundreds of spectators.

Quake Hits Alabama, Rain Pounds Plains

along a 700-mile front. The spring storms reached as far north as central Nebraska and extended southward in a solid line through the central sections of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Damaging wind and hail storms hammered some areas and rainfall in a six-hour period last night measured more than an inch in many places.

Wet weather was in prospect for most areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast.

Eight tornadoes were sighted or struck in Texas yesterday, two less than skipped across the nation's biggest state Sunday. Five twisters were reported in Kansas and five in Oklahoma. No injuries were reported in the tornadoes but there was considerable property damage.

The steady spring downpours in Texas appeared to have broken the state's seven-year drought but also have posed new flood threats in some areas.

East of the stormy weather, a smaller squall line brought heavy rain near the Mississippi River in western Tennessee. Showers and light rain fell in most areas east of the Mississippi River, with only New England, Florida and the Gulf Coast states escaping the wetting.

Surviving besides his wife, Margaret, are a son, Paul K. Riemenschneider Jr. of Pontiac; two daughters, Mrs. Audrey Lyons of Northridge, Calif. and Mrs. Eleanor Engelhart of Pontiac; and eight grandchildren.

Also surviving are two brothers, Henry and Ernest of Pontiac; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Scribner of Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. Margaret Harper of West Branch and Mrs. Agnes Peterson of Mt. Pleasant.

Bearers will be Charles D. Scribner, LaVerne Riemenschneider, Robert O'Reilly, Victor Williams, George Reid Jr., John Palmer, Alfred Martin and Floyd Tatu.

News Flashes

LANSING (AP) — The Senate, splitting on party lines, today voted to transfer sale of automobile license plates from the secretary of state's office to county treasurers. The vote was 21-9, with the Republican majority solidly backing the change and Democrats opposing it. The bill now goes to the House where it is certain to encounter strong resistance.

HARTFORD (AP) — Three youths died today in a car that sped out of control at a curve on U.S. 12 and crashed into a tree. State Police at the Paw Paw post identified the dead as: Bobby Joe Teeters, 19, the driver; Richard Louis Hunt, 21, and Paul Levi Dahlke, 19, all of Hartford.

Teeters was thrown from the wreckage as the car wrapped itself around the tree. He died of a skull fracture. A passerby pulled Hunt from the wreckage. But he had suffered burns over 90 per cent of his body when the gas tank exploded and died at the scene. Dahlke was trapped in the car between the tree and the instrument panel and he died in the flaming wreckage.

Mayor Schrunk Faces 4th Count

Senate Committee Calls Oregon Deputy Minielly to Capital for Probe

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Senate committee investigating labor and racketeering apparently intends to take another look into the Portland situation.

As Mayor Terry D. Schrunk of Portland was served with a fourth charge in the continuing vice investigation here yesterday, the committee subpoenaed Sheriff's Deputy George Minielly to appear in Washington, D.C., tomorrow.

Minielly was chief criminal investigator while Schrunk was sheriff for seven years prior to being elected mayor last year.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said in Washington that Schrunk also may be called again later.

The latest grand jury indictment against Schrunk accused him of plotting with Dist. Atty. William Langley, Teamster official Clyde Crosby, and with Oregon Journal reporters and executives to seize wiretap recordings from gambler Big Jim Elkins, 55, in an illegal raid.

Elkins, who has turned state's evidence, is the principal accuser against Teamster officials, Langley and Schrunk. He accuses the Teamsters of attempting to take over rackets here.

The 44-year-old mayor earlier was accused of accepting a bribe from a gambler; of perjury in denying he took the bribe; and of illegally copying wiretaps seized in the raid.

He denied it before the Senate committee that he had accepted a bribe.

Nine other indictments were served yesterday against six men, but the only new ones were against Schrunk and Crosby. Crosby was accused on a charge identical to Schrunk's. The other indictments repeated earlier charges, reworded to correct legal flaws.

JoAnn Slaying Trial Goes Into 2nd Day

DETROIT (INS) — The first degree murder trial of 38-year-old Philip J. Singer today entered its its second day in the courtroom of Detroit Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat.

The prosecution is expected to stress a confession made and then repudiated by the suspect.

The defense says it has a woman witness who will swear she was with the sugar warehouse foreman at the time of the murder.

A jury was selected and first witness were sworn in yesterday.

To Residents Planning Improvements

Home Show Offers Answers

Are you contemplating installing air conditioning in your home as hot weather approaches again? Or are you already looking ahead as far as next winter in thinking of a new heating system for your little abode?

Mother—do you want to show father the latest tricks in converting that kitchen into one that not even he will mind spending some time in?

Regardless of the question, the fourth annual Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce Home Improvement Show is expected to have the answers—and all under one huge tent.

The Jaycees decided to provide more room for exhibitors and spectators so they pitched a 60-by-180-foot tent south of the Tel-Huron Shopping Center as the site of their show.

OPENS THURSDAY

It opens Thursday at 4 p.m. and runs through Sunday at 8 p.m.

Admission is 50 cents for adults and no charge for children.

Howard Weedon, co-chairman of the show, reports that there are only two booths still available for exhibitors.

There will be 43 exhibitors from city and the Pontiac area firms demonstrating their latest wares in home modernization and equipment.

The hours of the show Thursday will be from 4 until 10 p.m. Friday it will run from 1 to 10 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m., and on Sunday from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.

Navy Quickly Makes Presidential Banners

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — The Navy, usually ready fustest with the mostest, found itself seriously short of presidential flags here when President Eisenhower decided to go to Bermuda on the cruiser Canberra.

The United States Flag and Signal Company here, which had never made a presidential flag, hurriedly finished four of them. But Navy planes flying them to Bermuda twice were turned back by mechanical trouble. The third attempt was successful.

Egypt Claims Resignation of Jordan's New Regime

PARIS (INS) — Cairo radio said today the new Jordanian government under Premier Hussein Khalidi has resigned.

The broadcast monitored by Agence France Presse quoted the Egyptian-owned Middle East News Agency as the source of its report.

Jordanian demonstrators reportedly demanded that the government reject the "Eisenhower Doctrine" of aid to the Middle East, expel the U. S. Ambassador and military attache, release pro-Egyptian officers who were jailed, and permit the return of others from exile.

Hussein still is fighting. A government spokesman charged that some neighboring Arab countries were spending large sums to organize riots against the King.

Iraq was alarmed. News from there said the government warned that it supports Hussein in his battle against leftist influences.

An Israeli spokesman charged that Egypt was making an intensive effort to foment riots against Husseoin's new regime.

In Cairo, Egypt has rejected Dag Hammerskjold's "compromise" proposal for breaking the Suez Canal deadlock and will issue "shortly," perhaps during the next 48 hours, a final blueprint for running the waterway on her own terms.

Diplomatic informants said today that U. S. efforts to get Egypt to open the door "even a crack" to let Israeli shipping through Suez failed completely.

Complete deadlock on all major canal issues is now foreseen, but western shipping is expected to use the waterway regardless in view of the tremendous cost and loss of time involved in rounding the Cape of Good Hope.

According to diplomatic informants, Hammarsjold proposed that the Egyptians attach to their Suez operating plan a covering letter addressed to the U. N. secretary general embodying certain portions of the U. S. proposals for complying with the third of the Security Council's six principles, from the politics of any nation.

Britain Discloses Pre-Suez Notes

Soviet Warning Revealed

LONDON (AP) — Britain disclosed last night Russia warned her before the Suez invasion that such an attack would prompt the Arabs to sabotage the canal, cripple Middle East oil lines and unite in holy war. The first two predictions were correct.

Publication of an exchange between Soviet Premier Bulganin and then Prime Minister Eden also revealed the British appeal to the Soviet Union to help in internationalizing the disputed waterway.

Prime Minister Macmillan's office made the hitherto secret letters public barely five hours after the Russians announced they would come out today with the exchanges between Bulganin and French Premier Guy Mollet.

Britain apparently hoped to take some of the propaganda punch out of what was viewed as a Soviet move to picture Russia as guardian of the Arab world, counter Middle East acceptance of the Eisenhower Doctrine and drive a new wedge between the United States and her two chief allies.

Officials in the French Foreign Ministry said Mollet's replies to Bulganin would remain locked in the files as far as the French government is concerned.

"The Russians are simply trying to show that only the Russians are helping the Arabs," said one Foreign Ministry official. "The Kremlin is just trying to remind Egyptian President Nasser that he didn't win his political victory without Russian help."

Another French official said that Russia is obviously concerned about the attraction to the Arabs of American policy, especially the prospects of American economic aid under the Eisenhower Doctrine.

He said the Kremlin plan to publish the notes was part of Russia's attempt to block the American doctrine.

NASIR HANI

Experts to Talk on Middle East at Cranbrook

Six representatives of the Middle East will present their country's point of view about the controversial area at the fourth annual World Affairs Seminar for Cranbrook and Kingswood students Thursday and Friday.

The two day seminar is co-sponsored by the history departments of the two schools.

It is designed to offer students "stepping stones into the world of international relationships through informal sessions with experts," according to Ben Snyder, Cranbrook history instructor.

Four men who will travel from Washington, D.C. are: Nasir Hani, cultural attache, Embassy of Iraq; Willie Morris, first secretary dealing with Middle Eastern Affairs, British Embassy; Dr. Salah El Din Tewfik, director of education and cultural attache, Egyptian Embassy, and Yekutiel Hugh Orgel, information attache, Embassy of Israel.

Jamal A. Said, research officer for the Arab States Delegation Office in New York and Professor A. Lobanov-Rostobsky, of the University of Michigan, are also scheduled to speak.

The Day in Birmingham

Parents Seeking to Pay for Spree of Four Youths

BIRMINGHAM — Parents of four area youths are negoitating to make restitution on property damaged by a quartet in a drunken spree here Sunday night, according to Detective Lt. Merlin Holmquist.

The youths are charged with breaking plate glass windows at the Turner and Frost auto agencies on South Woodward avenue and tearing receivers from several public phones.

They were arrested in Bloomfield Hills after eluding local police.

Two, Nicholas Micelli, 19, of Ferndale and Robert L. Streadwick, 18, of Bloomfield Hills, pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and were fined $25 each in Bloomfield Hills court yesterday.

Robert L. Smith, 18, of 685 Southfield Rd., was given a ten day jail sentence in addition to the fine. Police said he has a record of similar offenses and was on probation at the time of his arrest.

Roberts S. Sauer, 19, of 2209 Pine, Bloomfield Township, entered a plea of not guilty to charges of drunk driving. He will be heard by Bloomfield Hills Justice A. J. Richardson tomorrow.

Polic, who described the four as "belligerent" at the time their car was halted and at the police station, said there was a half-empty case of beer in the vehicle.

Lt. Holmquist reported the youths would probably appear in Birmingham's Court tomorrow to face charges of malicious destruction of property which is estimated at about $400.

About $200, including a $50 bill, was taken from the Presbyterian Church. The amount from the Methodist Church has not yet been determined, according to police.

City commissioners last night accepted the resignation of Mayor William Roberts as a member of the recreation board.

Other appointments include: Commissioner Carl Ingraham to the Police Trial Board and Commissioner Florence Willett to the Taxicab Board.

Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Highland Park Zonta Clubs will install their officers at a joint session following a 6:30 p.m. dinner at Devon Gables tomorrow.

Local officers will be Hazel Welsh, president; Alice Billings, first vice president; Effie Schaffer, second vice president; Dorothy McLachlan, treasurer; Delphin Michaels, corresponding secretary; Marjorie Hale, secretary; Betty Welch, Alma Hill and Kay Flint, retiring president, as directors.

Governor of Zonta District No. 5, Edna Nairn of Windsor, Ont., will visit the clubs and review Zonta projects and accomplishments.

Living Costs Up .2 Pct. in March

Will Bring Wage Hike on Escalator Clause; Food Down Slightly

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported today that living costs rose two-tenths of one per cent in March to another high. It was the seventh straight month of record costs.

The Labor Department said a slight decline in food prices, mainly for dairy and pork products, was more than offset by increases in all other major groups of consumer goods and services.

The March living cost hike means wage increases for 1,400,000 workers whose pay rates are geared partly to changes in the government's index. This amounts to an annual payroll boost of about 75 million dollars for these workers.

One million railroad workers are to get an added three cents an hour effective May 1. The other groups of workers—due to get smaller hourly pay raises of one to two cents an hour—are in the electrical, aircraft and textile manufacturing industries and in construction.

The Labor Department also reported that average weekly earnings of factory workers in March, after deduction of federal taxes, dropped by a little more than 30 cents, to $74.65 for a worker with three dependents and $67.25 for a single worker.

Factory workers' buying power also declined over the month, reflecting shorter working hours as well as higher living costs.

March was the first month in more than 2½ years in which factory worker take-home pay adjusted to living costs showed no gain from a year before.

Trainer's Son Killed in Drop of 600 Feet

Arthur Elliott Jr., County GOP Head of an election in which Republicans all but lost their position as the dominant Oakland County party.

MARGIN WAS SLIM

GOP candidates for state offices managed to gain a county victory April 1, but only a few hundred votes separated them from their Democratic rivals.

On a local level, Democrats made inroads in several traditionally Republican communities.

Elliot sees as the trouble, "not lack of strength—for I'm convinced Republicanism is as strong as ever in Oakland County — but lackadaisicalness, and failure to turn out the vote.

"The shift from a positive majority in the November election to our slim margin April 1 indicates to me the party has to start right now taking steps to make sure this lethargy doesn't happen again," the new chairman said.

Elliot said he would call for a program giving Republicans on every level an active voice in the county's policies.

INTEGRATION IS GOAL

He wants integration of the various party agencies, such as the women's groups, young Republicans and community clubs.

★ ★ ★

"And we need to develop our county committee, augmenting it to its capacity and operating full time its headquarters in the Pontiac State Bank Building," Elliot added.

Plans are in the making for a major fund raising drive to finance a big-scale operation, Elliot said.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem, who presided at the meeting accepting Ritchie's resignation, expressed his regrets.

"I'm confident, though, that Arthur Elliot will continue to build the party on the foundation that Chad Ritchie has so well laid," Ziem said.

Ritchie listed increased demands as a big reason behind his resignation. Formerly mayor of Birmingham, Ritchie also has served two years as party treasurer, developing machinery for fund-raising.

Admitting the spring campaign smacked of "staleness," Ritchie remarked that "it's time now for a change, when it can most profit the party."

Ritchie himself had taken over party reins upon resignation of Edward E. Wilson, of Bloomfield Hills in the spring of 1955.

Ritchie is 54 and lives in Bloomfield Hills. He is national trade mark promotion manager for Michigan Bell Telephone Co. in Detroit.

Toshiko's Jazz Suite for Orchestra Hailed

BOSTON (INS)—The genius of shy, 23-year-old Toshiko Akiyoshi is expected to provide the first significant Japanese influence on the hitherto totally American field of pure jazz.

Toshiko (her last name is seldom used in America) will present her evolutionary composition, "A Jazz Suite for Orchestra," at the annual Berklee School of Music concert April 28.

The work is considered the most important advance for Toshiko as a composer and it may provide serious jazz with the same tremendous surge given commercial jazz by George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

Toshiko (nicknamed "Tosh" by her American friends) ranks with the best jazz pianists in the world and her seven simple compositions have been welcomed by connoisseurs of the art as the work of a "future great."

In her "A Jazz Suite for Orchestra," Toshiko has composed a 15-minute work which, for the first time, combines classical elements of instrumentation with the excitement and emotion of jazz figuration and harmony.

Lawrence Berk, head of the Berklee school where Toshiko is studying on a four-year full scholarship, admits to being excited over this "radically different" jazz treatment. He introduced a note of caution, however, when he recalled that Toshiko's orchestration is still in its formative years. To this he added:

"Toshiko's imagination is great. We fully expect many important works by her that will influence jazz. Writing jazz for large symphonic groups is basically a new idea."

Toshiko has enjoyed her nearly two years in America, and says:

"People have been wonderful to me. They have accepted me as friend. I was told things would not be so friendly here, but those who gave me that advice were wrong."

She observed, too, the universality of music when she said:

"Too bad we don't have more people in the world who love music as we do. Music does not differentiate between race, color, creed or nationalities. There would be no possibility of international disagreement if everybody thought musically."

The genius of Toshiko has been accepted by her American tutors without reservation. Even the American Federation of Musicians, which traditionally makes it difficult for foreigners to join its ranks, has waived its rules to admit her as a full-fledged member of Boston local 9.

The U.S. Department of Immigration gave its approval of Toshiko's union membership so she would be able to put her theories into practice and so develop her creative ability.

3 MONTH TOUR

This summer Toshiko will make her second appearance at Newport's famous jazz festival. This will be but one stop on a three-month tour of the United States and Canada, during which she will appear in leading jazz clubs, possibly introducing her evolutionary large-group composition.

Meanwhile, Berk's prediction, together with other experts will bear remembrance.

"Tosh," he said, "will provide the first Japanese influence on jazz. We feel, and sense, it will be a definite influence."

Rome Readies for Coty Visit; French Head to Call On Pope

ROME (INS) — Rome is scrubbing up its welcome mat for the state visit by President Rene Coty of France beginning May 9.

Highlight of Coty's four-day stay will be an audience with Pope Pius XII. It will mark the first time in ages that a French head of state has called on the pontiff in Rome.

Coty will be received on his arrival by Italian President Giovanni Gronchi, who visited Paris last year, and by Italian and French officials.

The French president will be lodged during his stay at the luxurious Palazzo Farnese, the French Government embassy. The marble renaissance palace is being polished and decorated for the arrival of its distinguished guest.

"It will be Coty's first visit to Italy since he became president. He and his late wife vacationed in Italy many years ago and it is recalled that Coty expressed the wish to return to this "enchanted" country.

Coty's visit with the Pope, besides establishing a diplomatic precedent, is significant for future French - Vatican relations. Ties between the two have not been cordial, although France is a predominantly Roman Catholic country.

In 1904 French President Emil Loubet touched off a diplomatic crisis by failing to call on the Pope during a visit to Rome. The incident, regarded as a snub by the Church, led to a breach of relations between Paris and the Vatican, and separation of church and state in France.

Coty's visit is expected to heal the bitter memories of that past event.

Coty's reception by the Pope will be according to protocol devised by representatives of the Vatican and the French embassy to the Holy See.

The president will be met upon his arrival in Vatican City by Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, dean of the Sacred College, and led to the Papal chambers. Members of the Swiss guard will do the military honors.

Cardinal Tisserant, who is of French origin, later will repay the visit on behalf of the pontiff at the Palazzo Farnese.

City's scheduled visit to the Vatican has brought speculation that a concordat might be signed by the French government and the Papacy. High Vatican circles, however, dismiss this as a premature notion.

Premier Guy Mollet reportedly would like to conclude a concordat in order to stablize the political situation in France.

Folsom Denies Aid Gives School Control

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Folsom today labeled as "simply a phony" the argument that federal aid for classroom construction would mean federal control of education.

Folsom said this is a "major fallacy" raised by some critics of the administration's proposal for a four-year program to provide 325 million dollars annually in grants to the states to help build more schools.

★ ★ ★

And he reiterated that opponents of the proposal who he said contend that "the classroom shortage is a myth or figment of imagination" have made seriously misleading and clearly inaccurate public statements. Reports from state school authorities, he said, show a shortage of about 159,000 classrooms.

★ ★ ★

A House subcommittee has approved 6-1 a five-year 400-million-dollar annual grant program as a compromise between the administration's bill and a more liberal proposal introduced by Democrats. Action by the full House committee is expected early next month.

China-Soviet Volume of Trade Expanded

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China announced today its volume of trade with the Soviet Union last year was 4½ times that in 1950.

A Foreign Trade Ministry statement broadcast by Peiping radio said Red China imported from Russia in 1953 through the end of last year two million tons of steel, five million tons of petroleum and a couple of thousand sets of metal cutting machine tools.

China supplied Russia with ores, soya beans, tea, silk, wool, bristles and tung oil, the broadcast said.

To form an oak grove commemorating Australia's first Olympic Games, England has flown 30 sapling oak trees to Melbourne.

Reuther Concentrates Year Around on Votes

Reuther, the master strategist, is out to boost the labor vote. Considering past experience, it's a sure bet that he will use plenty of persuasion to gain his objective.

One of Reuther's statements at the convention indicated that he was delighted to see so many members bringing their wives to the convention now. He was downright serious.

He emphasized his belief that more wives interested in labor means more votes for labor candidates back home in the political areas. This is sound thinking and certainly makes sense.

Another announced plan is to concentrate on the vote of the 18-year-olds who are beginning to win the right to vote and may be the balance of power in many states. Should this right to vote of 18-year-olds spread, it will definitely deserve much thought.

With statistics showing the steady growth to suburbia, Reuther and his political experts feel that this calls for much exploration, re-evaluation and hard organizational work. Some people have alleged that when working people move to suburbs, they change their voting habits to become more conservative.

Reuther intends to hammer away at this area and keep the conservative life from affecting workers' political attitudes. He has plans for the old as well as the young, to keep active the year around, with special programs on the political front.

★ ★ ★

After the recent spring election it should be obvious to all that you can't win elections without plenty of hard work.

All votes count . . . and the UAW works hard night and day to make them count for labor.

Russian Threats Fail to Intimidate Norway

Norway has given a clear answer to Soviet Russia's threatening letter with regard to the establishment of missile and atomic weapons bases on its soil.

Should war come, the note said, Norway would pay dearly for its association with NATO and it left no doubt that Russia would attack with atomic bombs. Premier Bulganin cited the Hungarian fighting as a symptom of present day international tension.

★ ★ ★

Premier Gerhardson of Norway in dignified diplomatic language told the Russian "it must be the concern of each individual government to insure the defense of its country in the way it deems best." He pointed out that the aim of NATO is to safeguard members against attack from outside and through mutual cooperation based on solidarity, to prevent war. Each country fully retains its right of self-determination.

★ ★ ★

Turning to world affairs, he agreed that the situation was tense partly as a result of events in Hungary. Norway's Premier noted that this was considered as an uprising of a nation for its freedom and independence and that the Soviet attitude caused a spontaneous and strong reaction among the Norwegian people.

★ ★ ★

In regard to Russia's words on Norwegian-Russian friendship, Gerhardson declared that friendship must constantly be renewed "on the basis of mutual respect and confidence."

With the bitter memories of Nazi occupation still in mind, the Norwegians yet had the courage to speak out in defiance of their neighbor, Mighty Russia.

On his 50th wedding anniversary, a man told a reporter, "My wife and I have never had a quarrel." He is either a coward or he has such a bad case of claustrophobia he'd go nuts in the doghouse.

It is to be held Saturday next, at Flint with multi-millionaire

If you're interested, be on hand early next Saturday afternoon at Kishma Grotto Hall, 740 South Saginaw St., Flint. We have inside information that there will be at least one woman contestant.

Hitched His Wagon to a Star

David Lawrence Says:

Threats by Kremlin Betray Fear

WASHINGTON — The men in the Kremlin are showing signs of real fear of the West—and of their own people.

Something has happened recently to generate this fear anew. Perhaps it is the knowledge that the West definitely has superiority now in nuclear weapons and particularly in ballistic missiles.

LAWRENCE

Telltale symptoms are beginning to appear. The most sensational of these is a remark made last week at a reception in Moscow by Khrushchev, Communist Party leader, and the dominant man in the Soviet regime. It was the situation in Poland that really furnished the occasion for the outburst. Here was Khrushchev's comment:

"Don't test us as you did in Hungary. We are not saints and, if necessary, we will rap your knuckles."

There are many assumptions in that statement, but foremost is the fiction that the West caused the revolution in Hungary. The Kremlin knows better but prefers to adopt that alibi to cover up its own weaknesses inside Hungary.

REPEATED ON RADIO

It's an explanation that has been repeated dozens of times over the Soviet radio in recent months because it wouldn't be politic to admit that the people of Hungary actually had the desire or the courage to overthrow Soviet rule. For domestic consumption at least, the Soviet leaders have insisted that the revolt in Hungary was instigated by the West.

So Khrushchev is anxious that there be no further revolt in Poland and the threat to "rap your knuckles" was aimed at the Poles who just now are negotiating for $100,000,000 of American wheat.

There is still apprehension in Moscow over what is going on inside Poland. Former Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in a newspaper article published this week warns the satellite countries that if they ignore "fraternal ties with the Soviet Union," they will risk "a dangerous weakening."

BETRAYS FEAR

This betrays the uneasiness of the Kremlin. Certainly it will come as no surprise to the Western world to hear that the Soviet rulers disavow "sainthood," because the record of deception and double-cross is written indelibly in the broken promises to the West and in the plotting against the West that has been going on ever since the end of World War II.

Even while Khrushchev and Bulganin were exchanging smiles with President Eisenhower at Geneva in 1955, a secret agreement was being made to ship arms to Nasser—an event that led to the present crisis in the Middle East. There is no trusting the written or the spoken word of the Soviet rulers.

As for the series of warning notes recently sent to all countries now members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and to prospective members, the Soviet rulers chose this as a propaganda maneuver to help sustain the impression—also fostered by Communist propaganda—that the West is an aggressor and has designs on the Soviet Union.

OFFER TO PULL OUT

The Soviets have said repeatedly they would willingly withdraw their troops from the satellite states of eastern Europe if NATO bases were given up and American troops were withdrawn from Europe. This is so transparently fallacious that it will not be given serious consideration except among the few inside the western countries who are gullible and who seem to be willing to try appeasement even if it means suicide for the West.

Those who see merit in the Soviet offer to withdraw Western troops in exchange for withdrawal of Soviet troops from the satellite states so as to reunify Germany forget that once American forces return to this country a war could be started and it would be impossible to get American divisions back to Europe promptly.

Today air bases overseas are more important than ever before. To give them up would be tantamount to placing the West at the mercy of the Soviet Union.

"LI'L ONES"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Rehabilitate Weak Heart With Graduated Exercise

For success in channel swimming, mountain climbing, rowing, wrestling, football, marathon running or other endurance contest, "you gotta have heart"—more of it than you need, perhaps more than is good for you in everyday living.

DR. BRADY

A certain enlargement of the heart is an essential part of athletic training, of getting 'wind.' The size of the heart increases as the heart muscle (the heart is a hollow muscle) develops.

In athletic training, this heart enlargement, or, if you prefer the $10 term, cardiac hypertrophy, becomes apparent first on the right side of the heart.

The athlete who is properly trained develops more muscle in the right side of his heart and his condition or fitness depends on his "wind." If he has the heart for it, he gets "second wind," say, in the third quarter of a mile run—and that's what endurance means.

I advise every one, with or without heart trouble, to take his real heart tonic (vitamin B complex, toss his digitalis in the ash can and follow a rigid schedule of graduated daily exercise.

No set rule applies; but it is good common sense, I believe, for one with heart trouble to indulge in whatever daily physical activity one enjoys doing and does without becoming too breathless or fatigued. Such daily exercise is the best remedy one can take for chronic heart trouble.

BOOKLET EXPLAINS

If you take seriously the suggestion that your heart won't continue beating without a daily dose of digitalis, you may learn something to your advantage, if you're not an utter hypochondriac, by studying the booklet CVD (cardio-vascular disease) about heart and artery troubles, for which send me 35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Even if you are not interested in the booklet, I hope you'll remember graduated exercise is indicated, as doctors say, in every case of chronic (long lasting) heart trouble.

"Graduated" means beginning with the minimum—say walking a few steps with assistance—and increasing the dose by a few steps daily, and later by a few blocks weekly, until one takes six miles on the hoof daily, either in one dose or divided in two or three doses, with enjoyment.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

May I speak for myself and probably many others of my favorite gripe, those of us whose evening or Sunday drive is enjoyed very much except for one thing?

We choose a lovely country road with beautiful homes, lawns and trees and there on the side of the road somebody has dumped a large box or bag of trash. It breaks and scatters for many feet.

The Highway Commissioner and the County do a fine job of trimming trees and brush to make the scenery prettier and then some dope has to mess it up. Anyone caught dumping trash on the highway can be heavily fined and I've always wished I could see someone doing it so I could turn in the license number.

'Did Inner Beauty Match Clothes?'

Easter is a time when fineries of every type are abundant. Easter parades are held throughout the country. Everyone displays their new material wealth. Many go beyond what they can afford to out-do the next person.

Easter is a time to prepare for the coming of Him. Did you go through the same preparation for Him which costs you nothing? Were you as beautiful on the inside as the outside? Did you try to out-do yourself in preparing that inner beauty for Him? Remember that He is your best friend and He does not need anything extra special—just a pure, simple and humble heart.

Former Member Criticizes Union

Why doesn't the Government enjoin employes to keep dues back from questionable unions? If they aren't cleared, a rebate to workers would be welcome.

When anyone puts money into something like insurance, stocks, bonds, banks, etc., he gets a return, either dividend or interest. Only unions are able to take money without giving an account or return. Even churches give financial reports accounting for every penny.

Employers provide jobs and ask only a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. Since the union came along, employers don't even get that. People would be outraged if employers asked a cut each month for providing a job. However, unions provide nothing and take a monthly cut. Where did unions get the right to push workers around?

If a person is willing to join a union without force or pressure, that's his business. It is just as much a person's right not to belong if he doesn't want to. It's a crime against humanity to use force or pressure to make anyone join and pay money. We now have a union dictatorship in Michigan and many other states.

I would rather represent myself than pay someone else to do it because they had twisted my arm. I couldn't trust anyone who would hurt me to do a good job for me.

Former Union Member

Praises Work of State Police

I had the misfortune of having a speeding car tear up my lawn and leave broken glass, etc., driving off without so much as stopping to see what damage had been done. Luckily, my husband obtained his license number and the State Police did the rest. They handled it very efficiently, and I think the police should be handed verbal orchids instead of criticism for trying to keep our roads and streets safer for everyone.

'Shape's No Good, but Got My Man'

Will you please go jump in a lake and take Carlotta along with you? I have a Kentucky wonder bean shape, but I got my man. In fact, I got two so far. So why all the excitement? Why not cut down on that malarky and reduce the price of the paper?

Deflated Carlotta

'I Like Ike Signs Are Coming Off'

It seems I observe more people every day trying to scratch "I Like Ike" signs off their cars. I wonder if it could be for any of the following reasons?

The record peace time budget that throws more of the taxpayers' money away each year; the high cost of living and farmers' falling income; the Suez fiasco where Communism won another battle; the Hungarian tragedy where freedom lost another battle; the Post Office snafu; the longer and more frequent vacations away from the full time job of the presidency.

If these folks had saved some of the soft soap handed them in the '52 and '56 campaigns, they could remove those stickers with ease.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Nagging Wife? Treat Her Roughly

Wives, the two most critical periods in marriage are the honeymoon and the moment a woman gets panicky at having passed her 40th birthday. But the medical and psychological facts will banish these fears and help you keep your marriage permanently happy. So use the non-profit booklet named below as insurance for lifelong happiness.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case U-362: Henry G., aged 45, is the father of Lois, mentioned yesterday.

CRANE

"Dr. Crane, Lois was quite right in saying my wife nags me continually," he began.

"And she falsely accuses me of affairs with dozens of girls. For example, one day she may charge that I am in love with my secretary.

"The next day it may be a waitress who served us dinner at a restaurant. The third day it might be one of the high school teachers that Lois has.

"Although I protest my innocence, she keeps on with other accusations the next day.

★ ★ ★

"What can I do to show her that she is wrong? If things go on like this, we may end in divorce."

WHAT NAGGING MEANS

Nagging wives are usually unsatisfied wives in the erotic realm. For women have subconsciously hit upon the art of nagging a man when they want him to lay hands on them.

They simply try to force him into a more masculine role in their physical relationship.

That's why the more meekly a husband submits, the worse the nagging will become the next day.

This is true not only of married women but even of single girls whose escorts are too easy going and tolerant.

Shakespeare well understood this psychological problem when he wrote the play entitled "The Taming of the Shrew."

A shrewish or nagging woman simply wants strong-arm treatment from the male of her affections. Since he fails to give it to her, she tries to irritate him into a laying on of hands.

PROVOCATIVE NAUGHTINESS

Children, too, will show a somewhat similar device when they purposely irritate their parents until the latter lay on a hand in the form of a sound spanking of that naughty youngster.

This is called "provocative naughtiness" for the child may have a guilty conscience about some unconfessed sin and thus prod the parents into the spanking act with reference to an obvious offense.

However, the child allocates part of the punishment to that secret crime and thus attones in his own mind for not having confessed.

Well, wives often nag as a means of prodding their mates. The average husband fails to realize what his wife is after, so he simply argues with her.

In a few seconds they'll surrender and enjoy your kiss, for that's what the nagging wife has been "fishing" for by her petty irritation of her mate.

MAGGIE AND JIGS

Many of you readers are acquainted with the cartoon about Maggie and Jiggs.

Jiggs should read this Case Record. He could have Maggie eating out of his hand in a few minutes if he'd then apply the psychology outlined herein.

For most women don't yet know their own anatomy or physiology and thus they jump to wrong conclusions about their own organs.

Women are created to be alluring to their husbands all their lives. There is no date line on physical affection. A wife can be thrilling and thrillable through her Golden Wedding Day.

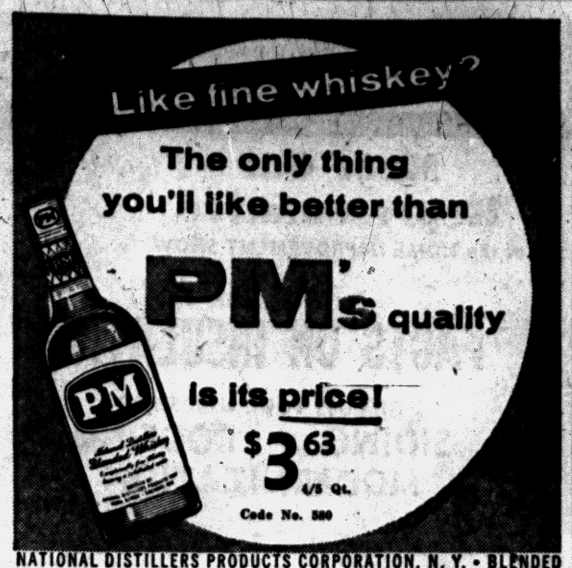

So send for the booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

3 Youths Held in Detroit Death

Tell of Woman Falling as They Grappled for Her Handbag

DETROIT (AP) — Three Detroit-area teenagers were held today for investigation of murder in the death of a 52-year-old woman who was injured fatally fighting off a purse snatcher.

Detective Sgt. Albert Schwaller said the trio told of trying to rob Mrs. Cecelia Mathis as she neared her home on Detroit's northwest side the night of April 1.

Mrs. Mathis, a saleslady at a downtown department store, suffered head injuries during the scuffle. She died three days later in Saratoga General Hospital without regaining consciousness. She had less than two dollars in her purse.

Schwaller identified the youths as Vito (Bill) Guaiana, 18, of Harper Woods; Martin Joseph Sears, 19, of Detroit, and Wayne Merritt, 16, of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Schwaller quoted Sears as saying in statements to Asst. Prosecutor George Kent that he grappled with the woman. "Sears said he grabbed the woman and Merritt tried to grab her purse," Schwaller said.

"The woman fought them off frantically. She struggled about to the end of her resources. She fell to the sidewalk and they ran, frightened. They never got the purse."

Guaiana said he sat nearby in his automobile.

★ ★ ★

Schwaller said a Provate Court waiver would be sought in order to try Merritt as an adult.

Advisory Council on Marketing to Be Organized

An advisory council to the Marketing Information Program of the Oakland County Extension Service will be organized tomorrow.

A meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Oakland County Board of Education, 1025 N. Telegraph Rd., Pontiac, to which any interested person is invited.

Representatives of various food producers, food handlers, civic leaders, communications personnel and professional people have been contacted to join in organizing the council.

The advisory council will assist the county marketing information agent in planning and projecting the program.

Mrs. Miriam Kelley, who directs consumer marketing information programs in 10 Michigan cities, will explain statewide activities. Mrs. Josephine Lawyer, county agent, will speak, and will be assisted by Lyle Abel, county agricultural agent, in conducting the meeting.

Sells Hodge's Hotel as Partial Restitution

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — State Auditor Elbert Smith last night announced sale of the plush Florida hotel, once owned by Orville Hodge, for $575,000.

The Esquire Hotel at Fort Lauderdale as well as other Hodge properties had been taken over by the state of Illinois in partial restitution for former Auditor Hodge's 2½ million dollars.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Girl Scouts Lose Active Leader

Mrs. Perry Reynolds Dies at 56 in Windsor; Formerly of Pontiac

Mrs. Perry J. (Mildred M.) Reynolds, 56, a director of Detroit Audubon Society and former president of the Oakland County Council of Girl Scouts, died yesterday in Hotel Dieu Hospital, Windsor. She made her home with her husband at 630 Merrick Ave., Detroit.

Born in Buffalo, N. Y. on Oct. 22, 1900, she came to Pontiac soon after her marriage here in 1922.

A landscape artist, Mrs. Reynolds conducted the Reynolds Nursery here at Lake Gloria.

A former leader of the Sea Scouts of Pontiac High School, she had also been in charge of a Girl Scout Troop in Waterford.

Mrs. Reynolds who came here from Windsor had attended Michigan State and Wayne State Universities majoring in horticulture and conservation courses.

★ ★ ★

After moving to Detroit several years ago, she taught classes in leader training for the Girl Scouts and Audubon Society for the City of Detroit under the auspices of the Parks and Recreation program and two classes a year at Marygrove College, Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Surviving, besides her husband, are a brother, the Rev. Father Arthur Meloche of Oxley, Ont.; and two sisters, Mrs. Manola Conte of San Francisco, Calif. and Mrs. Martha Peacock of Hamilton, Ont.

Service will be at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at the Janisse Brothers Funeral Home, 1139 Ouellette St., Windsor and at 10 a.m. at the Holy Name of Mary Church, 711 McEwan Ave., Windsor.

Burial will follow in Heavenly Rest Cemetery, Windsor.

Oddest 'Rancher' in Texas Raises Fishing Worms

McKINNEY, Tex., (INS) — Perhaps the most novel ranch in the ranching state of Texas is the one which belongs to Mrs. Doyle Nelson of McKinney, Tex., just north of Dallas.

Mrs. Nelson raises fat fishing worms and makes a nice fat profit at it.

With an original investment of $400, Mrs. Nelson keeps the California-type worms in specially prepared beds, 20 foot long, 20 inches wide and 20 inches deep.

She says the worms reproduce rapidly, doubling in number every 20 days, when the manure-filled beds are kept moist.

The worms are fed laying mash and water when they are ready for market, and the only thing that bothers the creatures is a thunder storm.

O'Brien Returns to Stage

NEW YORK (AP) — After an absence of 27 years from Broadway, Pat O'Brien is returning next season in a play, "A Casual Miracle."

In it he will play a familiar characterization — a hard-boiled newspaper editor.

Sen. Mansfield Proposes Shift of Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) proposed today that administration of foreign aid be shifted to the State Department and put in charge of a new undersecretary for economic affairs.

★ ★ ★

Mansfield, the Senate's acting Democratic leader, also called in an interview for transfer of the United States Information Agency to State Department and its operation under the direction of the assistant secretary for public affairs.

★ ★ ★

Mansfield made these proposals after Secretary of State Dulles appealed yesterday for public support to preserve the administration's foreign military and economic aid program from those with "a zeal to economize."

4-H Delegates Make Friends

Enthusiasm and Industry Impress Native People —Sometimes Too Much

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—Turn American farm boys loose overseas and there's no telling what will happen.

They'll defy death, disregard diplomacy and even refuse a daughter's hand in marriage. Yet they wind up winning friends all over the place.

All the 4-H delegates who go abroad live and work with rural families in other countries during their stay. Last summer a number of visitors from abroad lived with American farm families.

This exchange is sponsored by the National 4-H Club Foundation, the Agriculture Department, land grant colleges and the Ford Foundation.

As far as Lester Brown of Bridgeton, N. J., is concerned, the hospitality he received in India was fine, but it exceeded his wildest expectations.

"While assisting with a community canal construction project, one of the villagers apparently became quite impressed with my industriousness," he explains. "Thinking that I would make a good son-in-law, he proceeded to offer me his daughter's hand in marriage.

"Not only did he offer his daughter, but two fields of rice paddies," adds Lester. "In a country where land is extremely scarce, this was a remarkable offer."

Using all the tact he could muster, he refused. "It seemed best to politely decline," says Lester.

The King was there and the two boys marched up and introduced themselves on the spot.

"I guess we really shattered protocol," says David who reports that the shocked members of the entation to the ruler several days court arranged for a formal pres- later.

At their first meeting the King chatted with the boys for half an hour, however, and he was all smiles.

The young farmers could just do no wrong.

To speed up India's change to metric weights and measures a propaganda committee may be set up to popularize the new system among the illiterate masses in villages.

Slate Clean-Up Week for Keego

Designate May 6-12; Boys Club Asking for Scrap Metal

KEEGO HARBOR — The City Council with new Mayor Sam Whitmore presiding for the first time, has declared May 6-12 as "Clean-Up, Paint-Up Week" for the city, in connection with the annual Chamber of Commerce clean-up campaign.

★ ★ ★

The Boys Club of Keego requested that the Council ask the public to place scrap metal in separate piles, so that they might collect and sell it.

★ ★ ★

Citizens appointed to serve on a committee for the Farmington Interceptor project are: Peter Quinlan, Jack Loveland, George Hahnefeld, Hugh Lane and Edward Texaria.

Proclaims May 1-8 at Wolverine Lake

WOLVERINE LAKE—The village council of Wolverine Lake has set the first week in May as "Spring Clean-up Week."

★ ★ ★

In a proclamation addressed to all citizens, President George Belprez of the council urged all campaign to clean up all village property.

The proclamation follows:

1. Place all rubbish and small articles in containers and place at the street curb along with all other items.
2. Every effo.t should be made to utilize the volunteer assistance of neighbors to achieve success of this program.
3. The value of property will be enhanced by this program. Vacant property will also be more attractive.

A new all-purpose truck, recently purchased by the village, will be used to collect all rubbish during the clean-up campaign.

Almont Church Group to Elect and Install

ALMONT—Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will meet Wednesday evening at the church.

★ ★ ★

Dress-Up Event to Be Held May 3; Name Ten at Rochester

ROCHESTER — April showers change to May flowers as the Junior High Youth Canteen 'dress up' dance originally scheduled for April 26 has been changed to May 3 at North Hill Elementary School, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Alison Weeber, Sue Sutton, Eric Semble, Merrill Brandt, publicity; Barbara Curtis, entertainment; Mary Anderson, Mike Steib, Diane Klix, Eric Semble and Joy Trumble, decorations.

Members of the Rochester Junior Woman's Club, sponsors of the Youth Canteen, and their husbands who will be present are: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Price and Mr. and Mrs. David Herkless and C. Wayne Dennis, canteen director.

May 26 will see regular Friday Canteen for the Junior High at the American Legion Home, with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Queck of the Junior Woman's Club in attendance.

NEAL K. FENKELL

Rochester St. Paul Methodist men, holding their April meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday in the church, will hear Neal K. (Doc) Fenkell, public relations director of the Detroit Baseball Co. "Great Moments in Baseball and Predictions for the Current Season" will be his topic.

Attend 4 Items in Brief Session

Council OKs Meter Purchase; Examines Activity Report

ROCHESTER — In one of the shortest sessions on record here, the Village Council last night attended to four items in quick succession, adjourning at 9 p.m.

The group authorized the purchase of 23 new parking meters from Park-O-Meter Co.

Manager Robert Slone reported on Parking Lot No. 2, stating that black-topping will soon be started.

Third and final amendment to the zoning ordinance, on the agenda, was tabled for a month.

Council members took time out to carefully examine Slone's March activity report, and especially the Fire Department report.

The Village had 20 fires in the corporate limits, with total fire loss of $3,125; 28 calls for Avon Township with a total loss of $250. Avondale department District reported a total fire loss of $70,000. (Phil's Inn) Brooklands had 19 fires with no loss and Rochester answered 14 calls in Oakland Township, with loss of $750.

Total amount of fire loss was $73,225.

Your PTA Is Planning:

Two Schools Slate Fairs; Glengary Meets Tonight

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Helen Dewey, art instructor for the Walled Lake Consolidated School District, will be the main guest at the Glengary Elementary School PTA meeting slated for 8 p.m. tonight.

Parents have been invited to visit teachers in their respective schoolrooms from 7:30 until 8 p.m.

The PTA program will begin with a business meeting, to be mainly concerned with completing plans for a spring fair to be held on Saturday, May 4.

Mrs. Dewey will explain details of art work in connection with a display featuring pictures drawn or painted by Glengary pupils. Each grade, from the kindergarten through the sixth, will be represented.

Mariette

Saturday night, in the Bea McDonald School, the Elementary PTA will hold its annual fair.

This year the fair takes on the flavor of the old West and there will be a "Western Round-Up." There is no admission charge, and doors will open at 7 p.m.

Ask Wage Hike for Teachers

National Education Unit Warns of Alternative: Meaningless Degrees

WASHINGTON (INS)—The National Education Association warns that a college degree may become meaningless unless teacher salaries are doubled in the next ten years.

The association's Educational Policies Commission said small yearly raises "are not adequate to hold present faculty members and certainly not to attract well qualified ones."

The commission's report, based on a four-year study, cautioned against "panic or despair" at a mounting college population.

It said: "Higher education in the United States has doubled its enrollment four times since 1900. It can do so again."

The commission said the "most important problem" of higher education is to attract "the many able students who do not now receive education beyond the high school."

The report pointed out that extra-curricular activities may be working "at cross-purposes" with basic educational goals.

It said: "The excesses of athletic competition and the cultivation of an irresponsible recreation atmosphere are hardly justifiable in terms either of the traditional university or the needs of modern society."

It also warned against restrictions on the freedom of the individual scholar, noting that "the ivory tower is in many respects the main crossroads of social currents."

Three Area Students Interlochen Winners

'Sweet Adelines' From Four States to Vie May 25

An evening of entertainment is coming up Saturday, May 25, when the Sweet Adelines Inc. hold the second annual Barbershop Chorus and Quartet Competition.

Over 500 "Sweet Adelines," will be taking part in the competition. Last year's champs, the South Oakland County Suburbanette Chapter, will be hosts to the other chapters from Michigan, Ontario, northern Ohio and Indiana.

The program is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. at the new Henry and Edsel Ford auditorium. There will also be a special matinee in the afternoon, beginning at 1:30 p.m. Tickets will be available at the box office.

Name Councilman for Lathrup Vacancy

He will fill the vacancy left by the resignation of former mayor, John G. Campbell after the April 1 election.

A longtime resident of Lathrup, Anderson is a member of the Board of Appeals and served on the Building Committee. His term expires next April.

The council also approved special assessment bonds of $60,000 to cover costs of paving nine streets.

A short course in color photography will be given in Kalamazoo May 4 and 5 by John W. Doscher, under auspices of the Kalamazoo Camera Hobbyists. Enrollments now are being received from all parts of the state and details may be obtained from A. L. Dorn, 3823 Dale Street, Kalamazoo.

The course, in four sessions, will be held in Upton Science Hall on the Kalamazoo College Campus. This will be Mr. Doscher's only appearance in Michigan this year. He currently is on a lecture tour of the South and Southwest under sponsorship of the Photographic Society of America.

$100 Million Research

Seek New Uses for Crops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has before it a proposal for a 100-million-dollar-a-year research program to find new industrial uses for farm products and to develop new crops.

The Commission on Increased Industrial Uses for Agricultural Products said in a report that such a program offered the only hope of putting a "free and efficient" agriculture on a prosperous basis and of reducing taxpayer costs of farm aid programs.

It said an increased research program may show ways of converting many farm products into materials for making plastics, paints, building and structural materials, glues, waxes, adhesives, pesticides, papers, synthetic fibers, chemicals, industrial oils, coatings, improved clothing materials, detergents and drugs.

★ ★ ★

At the present time, the Agricultural Department is spending about $16,145,000 a year on research of this type.

Counsel Denies Intent to Kill

Calls Miami Slaying by Michigan Marine Not Premeditated

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Counsel for a Michigan Marine accused of first degree murder in the Christmas slaying of a retired railroad conductor says testimony will show there was no premeditation in the fatal stabbing.

Walter Coggins 3rd, 20, of Flint, a Marine corporal, is charged in the death of Raymond E. Devonshire. The 51-year-old Devonshire had invited Coggins to his Miami home last Christmas for the holiday season.

Mrs. Devonshire testified at the opening of the trial yesterday that her husband "felt sorry for the boy because he was far from home with the holidays coming.

"He asked him to stay with us and even invited some other boys (from the Miami Marine Corps Air Station where Coggins served) to join us for Christmas dinner."

Mrs. Devonshire said a sister's illness called her to Convington, Va., when she returned home Dec. 26, she said, she found Devonshire dead on his bed.

"There was a knife in his heart," she said.

State Atty. Richard Gerstein said he would show Devonshire was slain in cold blood.

Coggins was picked up and Devonshire's car was recovered in Michigan the day after the retired railroad conductor's body was discovered.

Coggins was quoted at the time as saying he and Devonshire fought over the latter's refusal to continue a drinking party.

Ellis Rubin, counsel for Coggins, said he would show "a good reason" why the stabbing occurred. He did not elaborate.

Lake Orion Men to Hear 'Rip' Zwickey

LAKE ORION — The Methodist Men's Club will hold its next regular meeting Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the church house with a return visit from "Rip" Zwickey, Detroit teacher, photographer and world traveler.

On a previous visit to Lake Orion he delighted his audience with his films on Latin America and bull fights in Spain.

This visit, he will show colored films taken by himself and wife on a recent trip around the world. All members have been urged to attend and guests are welcome.

38 Youths Receive Ford Scholarships

DETROIT (AP)—Thirty-eight Michigan sons and daughters of Ford Motor Co. employes have been awarded four-year college scholarships by the Ford Motor Co. fund.

In all, the fund awarded 70 scholarships to youths in 13 states. Michigan's 38 topped all. There were five winners each from New York, Ohio and Illinois.

The scholarships provide for payment of tuition and fees and a major portion of living costs, and winners may pick any approved college or university in the United States.

The Ford Motor Co. fund is a non-profit corporation organized for education, scientific and charitable purposes. It is supported chiefly by contributions from Ford Motor Co. and is in no way connected with the Ford Foundation.

Dinner Meeting Due

LEONARD — The public has been invited to attend the dinner of the Leonard-Lakeville Cemetery Auxiliary, Wednesday noon at the Auxiliary Hall here. A business meeting will follow.

Annual Smorgasbord Thursday at St. Philip

ROCHESTER — The seventh Annual Smorgasbord of St. Philip Episcopal Church is to be held Thursday at the church.

Mrs. Walter F. Swords is general chairman of the dinner and plans are to serve 120 persons at each period. The first serving will be at 5:30 p.m. and the second at 7.

Killed in Collision

BAD AXE (AP) — Peter Hrischuck, 39, of Hazel Park, was injured fatally yesterday in the collision of his car and a truck on M53, five miles west of Bad Axe. Velwood Pflueger of Saginaw, driver of the truck, escaped serious injury.

Last Meeting Slated

LEONARD — The Rev. Arthur Smith, superintendent of the Port Huron district, will conduct the last quarterly meeting of the Methodist Church here this year, Wednesday evening.

"Rock-n-Roll music is vulgar, noisy, disgusting, discordant, inarticulate, smutty, and horrible," roared a father to his teen-age son who replied, "You don't like it? .....A woman's somebody who won't breathe a secret to a soul without telling them not to breathe her secret to a soul.—Earl Wilson.

Air Force Plans Testing of B58

New 'Hustler' Bomber Eyed as Replacement for B52 by Service

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Air Force has laid plans for subjecting the B58 "Hustler"—possible replacement for the B52—to the most exhaustive tests ever applied to a plane.

The Air Force announced it will order 19 more B58s for 300 million dollars and thus bring the cost of testing the plane to about 750 million dollars — three-quarters of expenditures for the entire B36 bomber fleet. The first test fleet comprised 13 planes.

Officials said outright production of combat models of the plane have been delayed because "radical" features require further study, and intercontinental ballistics missiles may be improved so rapidly that bombers may be supplanted.

The "Hustler," a delta-winged bomber, was said to have reached speeds of 1,100 and 1,200 miles an hour during previous tests.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force also announced development of an advanced Matador guided missile capable of avoiding enemy jamming and operating over "wide expanses of water."

Observers felt the announcement indicated the new Matador might be used at bases in Europe and Japan.

New Officers Start Action

Plan Romeo Peach Fete

ROMEO — J. Arthur Farrell, 113 Pleasant St., was elected president of the Romeo Peach Festival Assn. last night during annual meeting in the Lions' Den.

Farrell immediately began to draft plans for the 25th annual peach festival to be held over Labor Day weekend.

He reported that invitations have already been received to have 1956 peach queen Ann Zemke of Armada appear in parades in neighboring communities next month.

The association plans to enter its peach festival publicity float in a number of parades in nearby towns during the summer months.

Directors granted the Ford Motor Co. permission to use festival banners and pennants during the company's annual stockholders meeting and dedication of its Michigan Proving Ground here May 23.

County Calendar

Troy

The WCTU here, to meet Thursday at noon at the home of Mrs. Florence Carpenter, 724 Trinway, is inviting all interested persons to attend. Potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

Special feature of this meeting will be the showing of Grosse Pointe Cinema League movies, based on the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center and its activities.

Members and friends of the club have been requested to bring movie sequences of general interest only to the meeting.

Wolverine Lake Sets Day for Tax Review

WOLVERINE LAKE — Village Clerk John C. Finlayson announced today that the Board of Review will meet from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday, May 6, at the Wolverine Lake Village Hall, 297 Glengary.

Property owners have been invited to discuss assessment or tax problems with board members.

Erie has adopted a five-point plan to develop tourism, at meetings in Dublin.

Gas Station Attendant Wowed by Honest Act

STUART, Okla. (AP)—Carl Frazier, who operates a filling station here, would like to know the name of his honest, impatient customer.

The motorist, apparently low on gas, broke the glass door at his filling station one night, unlocked the gas pump, filled his gas tank, locked the pump and returned the key.

The next day Frazier received a letter postmarked from a nearby town but without a name. Enclosed was $11 in cash and itemized statement: "winder $4.50; lock $2.00, Gas, 15 gallons, $4.50."

YOU have a stake in higher education

This country needs educated people as never before, and the need will increase. Our whole future may depend on men and women who have learned in college to think soundly and choose wisely — in business, in industry, in civic affairs.

Our colleges are facing a crisis. Already the pressure of applications is straining their capacity. It will double by 1967.

It's not just a matter of adding classroom, laboratory and dormitory space. Faculties, too, must be enlarged and strengthened. High standards of teaching must be maintained. That means increased salaries for professors.

For your own sake, your children's sake, your country's sake, help the colleges or universities of your choice — now!

If you want to know what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.

Horse Replaces Beck in Seattle Talk

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

SEATTLE (INS) — In Seattle, when one hears the term "reckless spending," he thinks first of David Beck, a local prestidigitator. But nobody talks much about Beck now because he's old news—sort of like a headache you had yesterday that's best forgotten today.

★ ★ ★

Beck's formerly genial family live in a "compound" of green and flowered acreage outside the city, and if they're talking, it's only among themselves. Armed guards keep out other conversationalists.

Dave's sister, Rita, a chatty middle-aged lady, has worked for years at the local Teamsters' headquarters as a switchboard operator, but even she currently is plugged up. We called at her cage-like window in the little, vine-covered building and addressed the girl in the earphones.

"Is Rita Beck in?"

"Who?" blank expression under the bifocals.

"Beck. B-e-c-k, Rita."

"Don't know her," said the lady.

★ ★ ★

A further check of two other persons in offices on the ground floor brought only the information that Rita was "off." The question, "For the day?" brought a shrug.

'THE 40 THIEVES'

Back at the offices of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, the boys were sitting around laughing, as newspapermen are wont to do when something amusing occurs, and it turned out that they had found another "member and sucker" for a private, non-exclusive organization around Seattle called "The 40 Thieves."

"Forget the Beck case," suggested Jack Jarvis, editor, "and get a load of some real reckless spending." He tossed over a manila folder.

Enclosed therein were all the loose facts and illegible figures on "The 40 Thieves," a band of newspaper, TV and radio people who—in a duped and dewey-eyed state—have joined pocketbooks in the purchase of a race horse.

As a matter of fact, "The 40 Thieves Syndicate" actually numbers 300 owners, which completes the aura of inaccuracy that surrounds this leggy black equine who will come to the races in June.

★ ★ ★

It all happened this way, according to Jarvis. A gentleman named Mel Meadows, who is INS bureau chief in Seattle, had a yen to own a thoroughbred. (The yen to own a thoroughbred is a disease like spring fever, most common cure is to dispose of one's savings in a pari-mutuel machine.)

BUYS No. 555655

Mel bought the filly No. 555655, in a local yearling sale for $3,000. Owing to the costly amount of oats she consumed, he decided to sell one-half of 555655 to friends.

★ ★ ★

Greedily, his buddies bought $100 shares in one-half the filly, not knowing which half—but as part-owner Emmett Watson puts it, "This is a minor detail, since most newspapermen don't know one end from the other, anyway."

Such interest was aroused that owners of $100 shares began splitting them up. And now virtually every horse-loving sucker in Seattle owns at least five dollars worth of "All-Babette," as 555655 is now called.

In the folder is a list of these small investors, labeled "The Cheapskates," along with enthusiastic comments. From an obstetrician, a check accompanied by a note saying "It eases my mind to know the horse I own 1/300th of is a girl. I am more at home with this sex."

"Great deal, Mel. For this you deserve a citation."

Well, All-Babette's no "Citation." In fact, no one seems even to know the name of her sire (her ma is vaguely remembered as a miler). But when she comes out at Seattle's "Longacres" in June, she will doubtless be bet down to something like 1-to-10.

For in projects like this one, as even "The Cheapskates" should know, it's not the initial cost but the sentimental upkeep that slenderizes your savings.

Breast Tumor Easily Cured if Found Early

Discovery of Cancer Is No Accident; Women Should Examine Selves Often

(This is the second of six articles written for INS providing the facts on cancer detection and treatment for a sane, sensible and life-saving approach to the problem of the disease.)

By DAVID A. WOOD, M.D.
President of the American Cancer Society

There are risks in everyday living that are impossible to avoid: Like the car, out of control, when you cross the street; or fire in the apartment next door. There is nothing you can do to protect yourself in advance against such unpredictable disaster; you just have to fatalistic and take your chances.

That is not true of cancer. Your chances depend upon your not taking a chance. I can think of no better example than cancer of the breast.

This cancer is most feared by women. And certainly the first cause of cancer deaths among women should inspire very sober concern. But excessive fear of breast cancer accounts for needless deaths every year—almost twice as many as are necessary.

Too many women who discover a lump in the breast are afraid to go to the doctor because they may be told they have cancer. They "wait for it to go away"; perhaps some friend waited and "it went away." And sometimes a lump does go away, because it may be nothing more than an enlarged gland.

MANY GROW

But for every lump that vanishes, many remain to grow: Among them cancers that carry penalty of death if neglected.

Benign (harmless) tumors of the breast are very frequent. So a breast mass does not usually mean cancer, especially in women under 50. But only a doctor can find out the truth. And doctors with the greatest experience believe the only sure method is the prompt removal of all tumors, for microscopic study and diagnosis.

Probably the greatest emotional block that keeps women with lumps away from the doctor's office is the dread that the whole breast will be removed. Many women appear to think that such drastic surgery is too readily performed "just to make sure." This is not true.

REQUIRE PROOF

Experienced doctors never remove the whole breast without positive proof of cancer. Even when they strongly suspect malignancy ahead of time they invariably wait to establish the diagnosis beyond doubt in the course of the operation. After the tumor or a small wedge of it is removed, a "frozen section" of tissue is rapidly processed at the time of surgery and a diagnosis made under the miscroscope by a pathologist.

If there is no cancer present, the benign tumor is removed—and with it the risk of its becoming cancerous later—and the operation is completed without removal of the breast.

If cancer is present, the breast must be removed together with underlying tissues. This may not be pleasant to contemplate, but it is very pleasant to know that your chances are better than good that your life has been saved!

CURES RUN HIGH

Where the disease has been properly treated in an early stage, breast cancer cures run as high as 80 per cent.

The tragedy is that only about half of those who could be saved are actually saved.

Think about that and measure the risk against vanity. And then learn how to detect a lump in the earliest possible stage.

About 90 per cent of breast cancers are found by women themselves. But unfortunately they are discovered accidentally, and when most of them have already grown to the size of a golf ball.

We believe the discovery of a tumor should not be left to accident. We believe that women can learn how to detect a tumor six to 12 months earlier, when it is no larger than a pea. By making a habit of monthly self-examination of the breast the average woman can become very skilled in detecting abnormalities. She can actually discover a lump so small the doctor himself may have difficulty at first in identifying it.

We know this to be true, for it is confirmed by the experiences of many women who have learned the technique of self-examination.

Five years ago the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute prepared a film entitled "Breast Self-Examination." At least 5,000,000 women have seen this educational motion picture, and we know beyond doubt that it has saved many lives.

It can save many more.

If you have not seen the film, let me urge every adult woman to do so promptly. Get in touch with your local unit of the Cancer Society and ask where and when you can see this 15-minute picture that demonstrates the simple steps of self-examination.

They take only a few minutes, probably no longer than brushing your teeth. Everyone agrees that brushing the teeth is an important daily habit. The monthly habit of methodical breast self-examination is vastly more important: It can save your life.

Plaque to Be Unveiled

KALAMAZOO (AP) — Kalamazoo College, the oldest college in the state, is celebrating Founders' Day today with the unveiling of a plaque issued by the Michigan Historical Commission. The college, founded in 1833, will reach its 125th anniversary during the 1957-'58 academic year.

Couple in City to See Son Gain U.S. Citizenship

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Guenther, of 1034 Premont St. will see their son, Gordon, 3, become a naturalized citizen today before Circuit Court Judge George B. Hartrick.

Mrs. Guenther, a German war bride, came to this country in 1948 and was naturalized in 1952. She returned to Germany with her mother in June, 1952 and adopted Gordon whom she had learned of through a cousin there.

A good deal of red tape followed but by November the way was cleared for Gordon's admittance to this country. The boy came to the United States under a special act which allows complete naturalization after two years as a resident here.

Suggest Plane Scraped Cactus on Ground

Tiny Spines in Plane Wing

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Tiny cactus spines seem to bear out the theory that a loaded passenger plane actually scraped against the ground in losing 10 feet of its left wing. It landed safely half an hour later.

★ ★ ★

The twin-engine Frontier Airlines DC3 limped into Phoenix Sunday after diving an estimated 4,000 feet in a severe downdraft. Twenty-three jittery passengers and three crewmen climbed out unhurt.

Inch-long cactus spines were found embedded in the wing's leading edge yesterday. Newsmen also noticed what appeared to be rock scratches.

★ ★ ★

Capt. Everett Aden of Denver plans to fly about 50 miles north of Phoenix today to hunt for the missing 10-foot piece of wing. If the cactus spines in the wing match those in the area in which the wing is found, Aden said, "that will wrap it up."

Company to Reopen Marysville Plant

PORT HURON (AP) — Pressed Metals of America, Inc., plans to reopen its plant in suburban Marysville on a "limited basis" June 1. It was closed March 15 because of a lack of orders.

Richmond said reopening plans resulted from "an encouraging attitude expressed by the auto manufacturers and the (United Auto Workers) union." The UAW is bargaining agent for the employes.

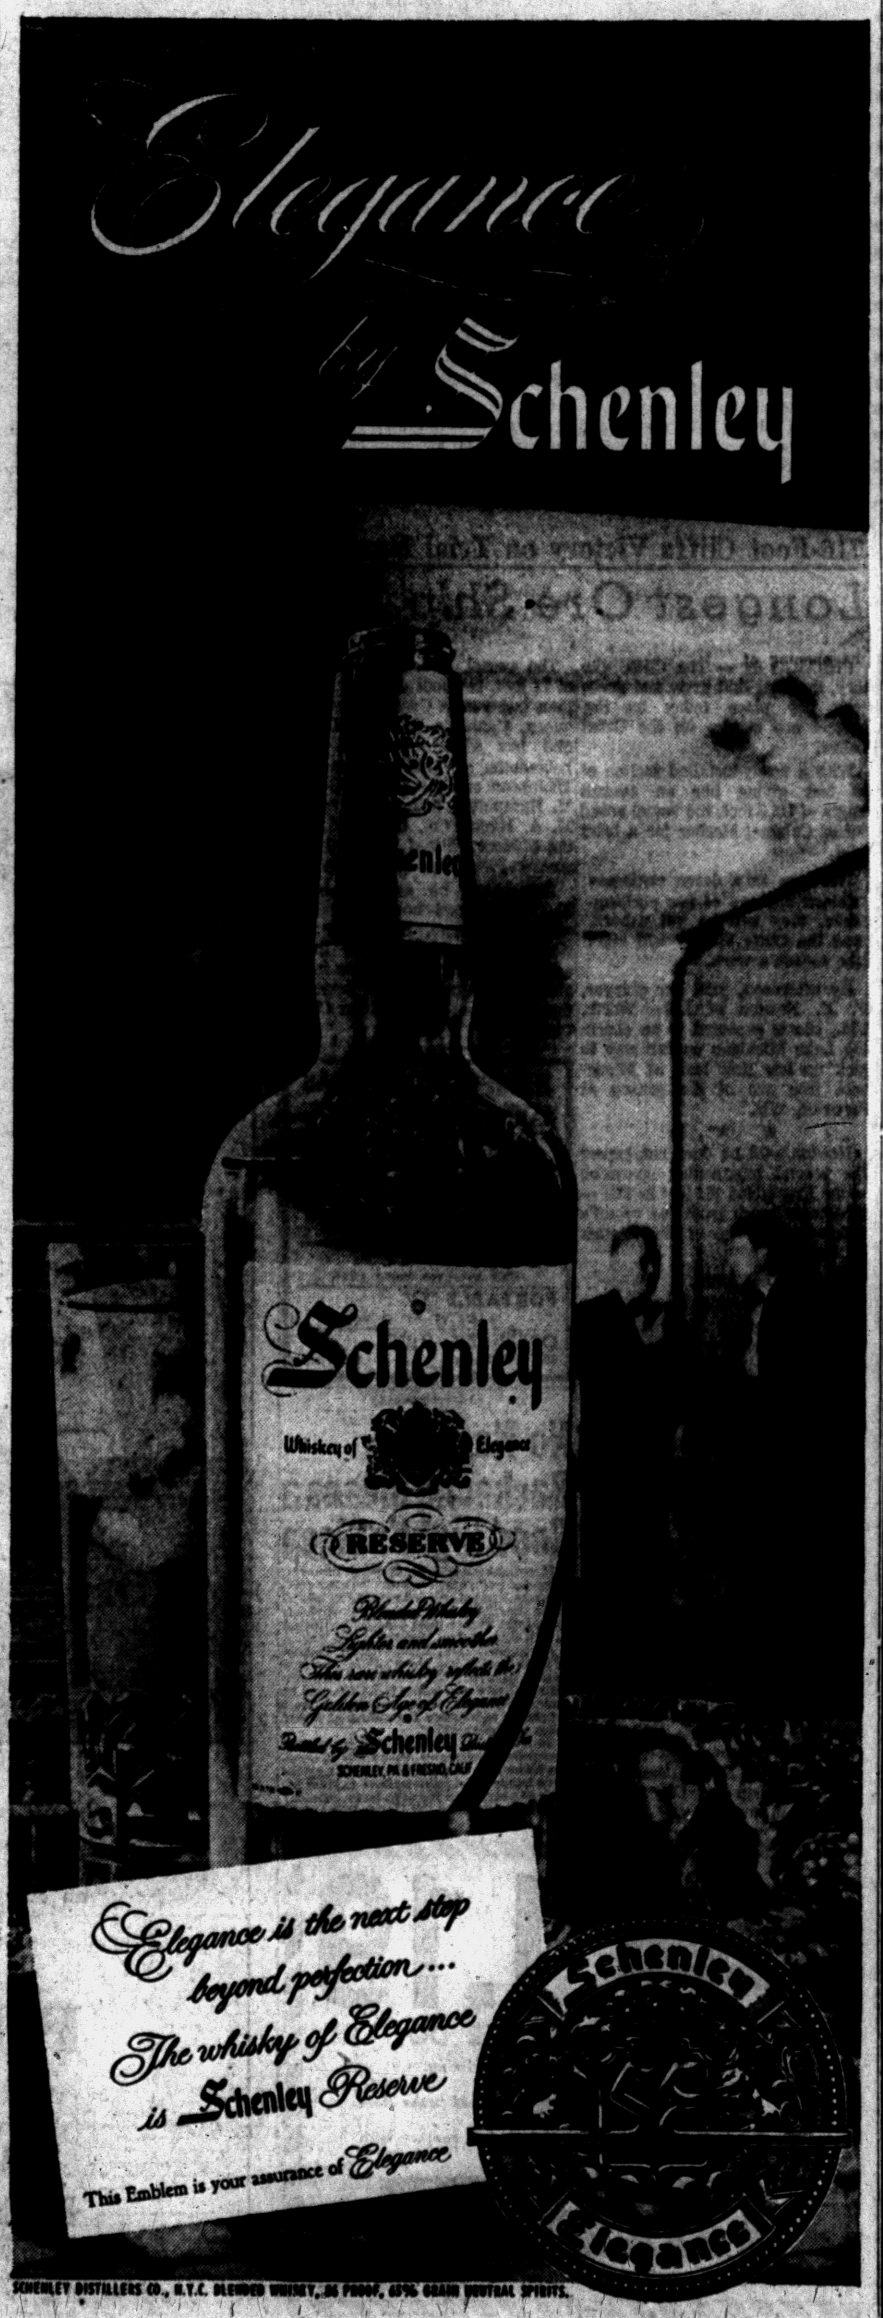

First Foreign Freighter Welcomed at Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—The first foreign freighter of the 1957 shipping season docked at Detroit last night.

The 258-foot Norwegian vessel Vesletjell was given an official welcome by Troy H. Browning, chairman of the Port of Detroit commission and Kathleen O'Sullivan, "Miss Port of Detroit for 1957."

Reports Jewels Stolen

Mrs. Frances Shoemaker, 208 W. Strathmore Ave., reported yesterday that someone had entered her house between April 14 and 21 and escaped with an estimated $276.95 in jewelry.

Eisenhower's Cough Clearing

Warm Georgia Sun, Rest, Exercise Having Good Effect

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower's stubborn cough, which developed in January, is "virtually cleared up" after a few days of golf in the warm Georgia sun, an aide said today.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters "he still coughs occasionally," but added that "the weather here, the warm sun, has virtually cleared it up."

The President arrived from Washington last Thursday for about a dozen days of rest mixed with work at the Augusta National Golf Club.

He played a round in intermittent rain that first day, but the weather since has been just about ideal—sunny and with the temperature in the eighties each day.

Hagerty also disclosed Eisenhower got in an Easter Sunday round. He usually doesn't play on Sundays. He was accompanied around the course by his house guest, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Of Eisenhower's game, Hagerty summed it up this way:

World War I Vets Get Hospital Care

BY RAY HENRY
Associated Press Writer

One question which seems to worry people nearing retirement is:

"Will I be able to pay for hospital care after I retire?"

Of course, the answer depends on a number of things. BUT, at least one large group of men who are near or in retirement are now assured free hospital care under most circumstances. They're the three million world war I veterans.

The Veterans Administration (VA) has 173 hospitals around the country in which it gives the care. During any given day, nearly one out of eight veterans treated in these hospitals is 65 or older. Yet only about one out of 25 veterans is that age.

Although the care is usually assured, it may not be immediate. The VA doesn't have enough hospital beds to give immediate care to all veterans applying for it.

Because of this, the VA has set up a preference list for admittance to its hospitals.

FIRST ON LIST

First on the list are veterans with disabilities resulting from wartime military service and all veterans who need emergency care. Under present conditions, World War I veterans in this group can expect immediate hospitalization when they request it.

On the tail end of the list are wartime veterans who need hospital care for ailments which have no connection with their military service and who are unable to pay for the hospitalization elsewhere.

OFTEN WAIT

Veterans in this group aren't always given immediate care. Those who have to wait will have their names put on a waiting list and will be admitted when bed space is available.

If you're a World War I veteran and you need hospital care, you should go to the nearest VA office, fill out an application and get a physical examination. Or, if you prefer, you may ask the VA to send you an application to be completed by your own doctor.

In either case, once the VA has your application in hand, it will set the wheels in motion to get you the care.

If you have a disability which is due to military service, the VA will ask you when you want to go into a hospital. If you're asking for care for a disability not related to your service and there is no bed open for you, your name will be put on a waiting list and you'll be told an approximate date you can expect to get in.

After you go into a VA hospital, you'll be given complete care — medical, surgical and hospital — at no charge.

Of course, if you need emergency care, you should have your doctor phone the nearest VA hospital for immediate admission and ambulance service if necessary.

When you ask for the hospital care because you can't pay for it elsewhere you'll be expected to give certain financial information about yourself, including your net worth, property, etc.

This information can't be used to deny you care, but it could open you to a law suit should it later be discovered that you falsified the financial information or got the care wrongfully.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service.)

Visitors to Be Greeted

TOKYO (AP)—Extra warm smiles and friendly hellos will greet tourists this summer at Tokyo's International Airport and the main harbors of Kobe, Yokohama and Osaka. The government is hiring college-educated, English-speaking Japanese girls to welcome the tourists when they arrive.

'I'm Drunk, Can't Drive'

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A parking lot owner was puzzled by a lone, unattended car when he opened for business. Under the windshiled wiper was this note: "I am drunk. I do not want to drive. I parked it here. Whatever it costs I'll pay." The owner signed his name.

France is expanding its new compressed woodwaste board sales to overseas markets.

716-Foot Cliffs Victory on Trial Run

Longest Ore Ship Sails

CHICAGO (AP) — The Cliffs Victory, the boat that grew and grew, took her place today as the longest ore carrier on the Great Lakes.

With a newly-installed section of 96 feet giving her an overall length of 716.3 feet, the vessel nosed out of Calumet Harbor for a brief trial.

As soon as a dozen engineers aboard approve of her performance, they will be put ashore, and the Cliffs Victory will start the season's work.

By afternoon, said her skipper, F. E. Newton of Lake Worth, Fla., she is expected to be churning Lake Michigan on her way to pick up her first load of Minnesota iron ore of the season at Superior, Wis.

Newton said he does not expect the second lengthening operation — the first added 165 feet in 1951 — to detract much from the vessel's reputation as one of the fleetest on the lake.

TRAVELED FAST

"I've turned 22½ knots (about 27.8 m.p.h.) when she was light," he said, "and I expect we'll be able to do it again." He said the Cliffs Victory has traveled about 20 knots loaded to 24.6 feet draft.

With her added hold, he said, the boat will carry about 16,000 tons or ore under present loading limitations. When the channel-deepening now under way in waters linking Lakes Superior, Huron and Erie provides a 27-foot clearance, he said, she'll carry a bigger load.

The Cliffs Victory began her career in 1945 as the sea-going Cargo ship, Notre Dame Victory. She was cut in two, and a 165-foot addition inserted. Then she was brought into the lakes from Bethlehem, Pa., via a coastal tow to New Orleans, and a slower trip up the Illinois-Mississippi waterway.

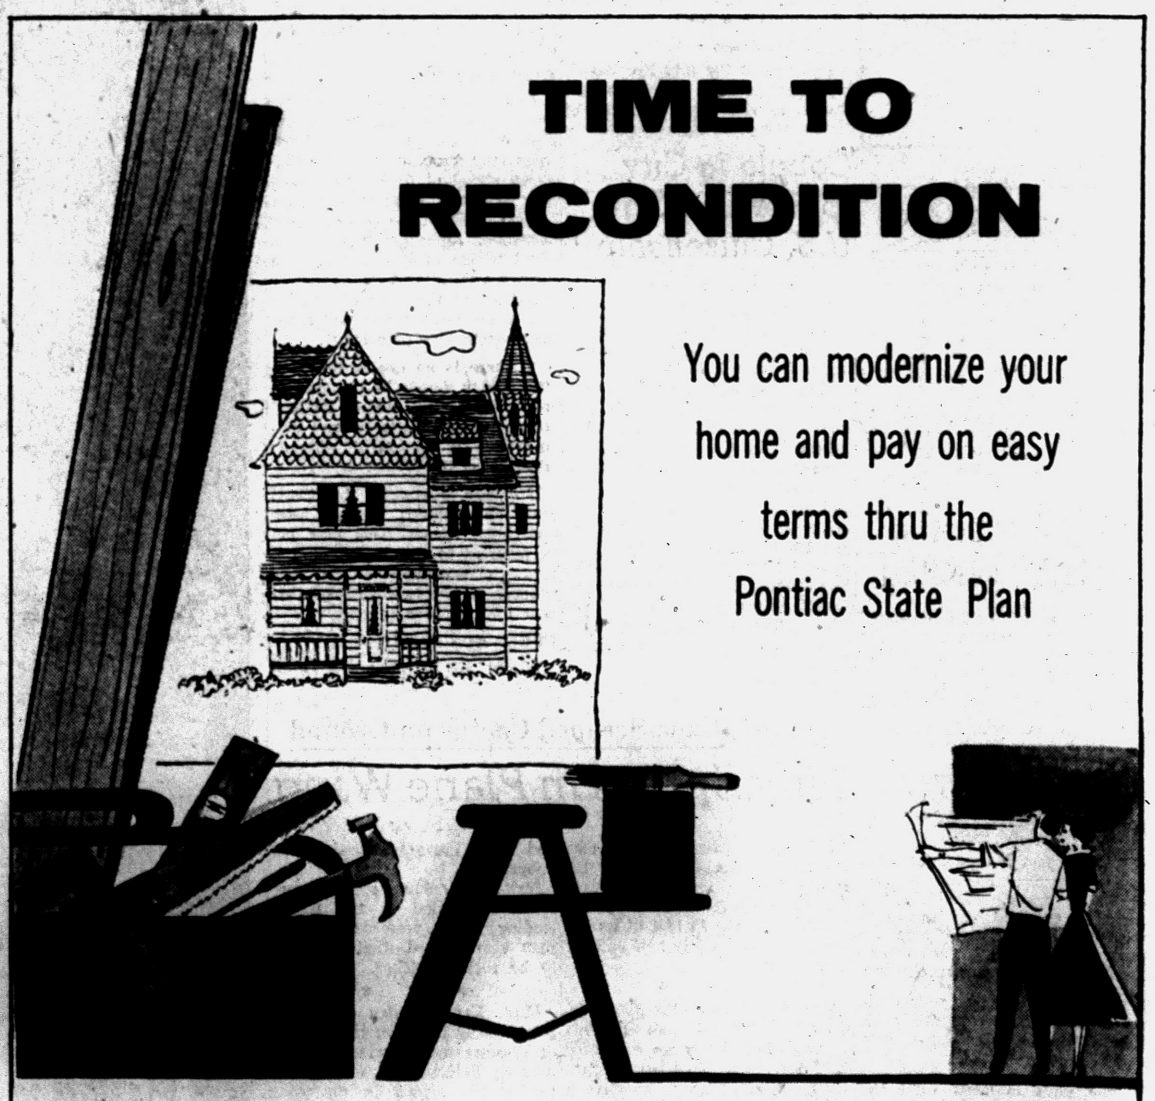

The vessel, which has a beam of 74 feet, is about one foot longer than last year's Great Lakes fleet queen, Canada's T. R. McLagan. She has also outstripped such behemoths as 714-foot Joseph H. Thompson and the 710-foot George M. Humphrey, both owned by the M. A. Hanna Co., Cleveland, and the 678-foot Wilfred Sykes of U.S. Steel's Pittsburgh Steamship Co.

But she'll be eclipsed by a 25,000-ton vessel now being built at River Rouge, Mich., for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee. The insurance firm will lease the vessel to the Columbia Transporation Co. of Cleveland.

Spring Costumes Suit Michigan

Mrs. Fotis Takis of Bloomfield Hills chooses pink as a favorite color for spring and summer. She likes long white kid gloves to accent the all-pink costume.

Pontiac Press Photos

Mrs. William Thomas of Franklin designs and sews most of her special outfits. Here she poses in an after-five dress which has a wide fringed sash. The scooped neckline is free of jewelry, but she likes either large cluster-type or drop earrings for this dress.

Mrs. George Wyman of Ottawa drive chooses a suit of silk and cotton mixture. Note the buckled shoes and stiletto heels purchased for the costume.

Mrs. Neil H. Sullenberger of Huntoon Lake wears a pink-streaked with white tweed dress which has a removable stole worn to resemble a panel-back sheath. She chooses wrist-length gloves for her dress.

Women's Section

TUESDAY, APRIL 23, 1957 PAGES 11-13

Mrs. Philip E. Rowston of Utica road poses in a trim black silk dress. She chooses a medium-length glove and a white straw and tulle hat to go with the costume.

Fabrics, Colors Geared to the Variable Weather

It's Not Yet Time to Begin Wearing Those Gay Summer Cottons

You're longing to put on those wonderful summer cottons, but Michigan weather is not cooperating. Anyway it's still spring and the great dame of fashion has given us such lovely clothes this season.

We've never had such fabrics to choose from — such beautiful colors. And look at the silhouette giving an even more slim look. Even full skirted clothes make much of a slender look by emphasizing snug waistlines and bodices.

Pontiac area women have chosen some lovely costumes for this particular season, many of which will carry them into summer — especially cool summer evenings.

Mrs. Fotis Takis has chosen an ice pink light-weight wool which she expects to wear for many occasions this season. The color is so cool and looks just wonderful with that lovely tan she picked up during a recent trip to Mexico.

She has chosen long white kid gloves for the outfit, and she has a small straw pink hat perched back on her head.

You'll love the silk and cotton pebble weave suit Mrs. George Wyman has chosen for spring and summer. With the jacket it is luncheon-in-the-city costume.

Without the jacket, it is a party sheath and has a rose - beige (taupe) chiffon top. The bow extends out over the jacket to complete the dressy look of the costume.

TRIM SILK SHEATH

Every woman wants the kind of dress Mrs. Philip Rowston has chosen for a special trip she's taking to Washington soon. It's the black printed pure silk sheath dress with very trim lines.

The rounded collar ties in a bow at the front, and there is a self-belt. With the dress she wears a perky white straw hat covered with white tulle and the classic opera pumps.

This is one of the beloved tweeds which have gained so much interest this season. They have a porous weave, a finer look, and are of puff-of-smoke weight.

Mrs. William Thomas wears the kind of dress every woman wants to wear. One that is simple, yet beautiful. It's for after-five or that favorite evening party.

Just think what you can do with accessories with this little black jersey dress. And you can wear as many of those pretty petticoats as you want to. Mrs. Thomas designs and sews most of her clothes, and we think her taste is as good as many top-notch designers.

Watch for other women about town in the new glamorous summer cottons soon in the Women's Section of The Pontiac Press.

Dior's Free Line Solves Problem of Skirt Length

The skirt length, the most acute fashion problem during the past three years, has been solved in Dior's "Free Line." He shows hemlines from 13 inches off the floor down to back-dipping trains.

Other Paris designers believe in street-clothes with skirt hems at 14 and 15 inches from the ground.

Even neckline styles have chosen freedom.

You can wear the "Guillotine cut" — round and collarless — or shirt-collar or cowl-cuff styles, a boat-neck or a heart shaped decollete. You can show as much or as little of your throat as you wish.

4 Give Travelogs

Mrs. Irene Albright, Faye Donelson, Elmer Thorpe and Irwin Gottschalk presented travelogs at the recent meeting of the Teachers Exchange Club, held at Adah Shelly Library. Mrs. Nora Smith and Mrs. Earl Wilson were cohostesses.

PEO Chapter Hears Report on Convention

Mrs. James Henderson opened her home in Bloomfield Hills on Monday to members of Chapter CL of PEO. Mrs. Harry Chapman assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Matson and Mrs. Martin Wager reported on the state convention held in Detroit during the past week. Mrs. Wager and Mrs. W. Henry Sink participated in the memorial program at the convention.

Bridge Winners

Republican Club Listens to Panel

Mrs. John E. Boardman, Mrs. Clarence Senger and Mrs. Frank McGregor participated in a discussion on education at the Monday afternoon meeting of Pontiac Republican Women's Club held at the Adah Shelly Library. Mrs. Eleah Patten served as moderator for the panel.

Mrs. W. E. C. Huthwaite, president, presided at the tea table during the social hour. Serving on the social committee were Mrs. Senger, Mrs. Lula Luby, Agnes Hilton and Mrs. J. L. Slaybaugh. Mrs. Emery Estes was a guest at the meeting.

Don't Drag Winter Pounds Into Summer

Time to Get in Trim for Swim Days

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I bring you my 9-Day Reducing Diet at this time each year because many women pick up from 5 to 10 pounds during the winter months. Many of them gain that much during Christmas and New Year's holidays and procrastinate about losing them until this time of year.

Then suddenly they realize that in just a few weeks thy will want to wear swim suits and shorts and revealing play clothes.

I gain weight easily and have once or twice allowed it to happen to me—namely, let those extra pounds drag over into summer. What a miserable state! It shouldn't happen to a dog and much less to a woman, especially when she can do something about it!

So, why not act now? Otherwise you are certain to feel self-conscious in your swim suit. You may even avoid swimming even though you enjoy it a great deal.

As you know by now if you have been reading this column for the past few days, I am again offering you my 9-Day Reducing Diet which brings you a loss of from 5 to 10 pounds.

WEDNESDAY'S MENUS

Breakfast

One-half grapefruit
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

Mid Morning

Glass of skimmed milk or buttermilk

Luncheon

One poached egg
One thin dry piece of whole wheat toast
One-half cup broccoli

Dinner

Two crisp raw carrots
Baked fish (medium portion)
One-half cup green peas
Shredded lettuce salad, lemon dressing
Fresh fruit cup (don't eat canned fruit)

If you have missed some of the menus or if you would like to have the diet in a convenient little booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Tomorrow: "A Sign of the Season—9-Day Reducing Diet."

Don't be self-conscious in your swim suit this summer! If you're a few pounds overweight, take advantage of Josephine Lowman's 9-Day Diet—and swim in the slim.

OES Chapter Initiates Four

Mrs. Russell Kneale, Elaine Kneale, Mrs. Robert Whitlow and Milton Walters were initiated into the Order of Eastern Star at a meeting of Chapter 228 held Monday evening at Masonic Temple.

★ ★ ★

Life, honorary and charter members were honored at a cooperative dinner held preceding the meeting.

Samuel Smith, worthy patron, announced that proficiency classes will be held on Thursday evenings.

Personal News of Interest

Italy, France and England are on the itinerary of the three-week trip being sponsored by the General Motors Girls' Club of Detroit.

The group will leave Willow Run at 5 p.m. on Friday by charter plane and arrive at Rome late Saturday afternoon. Traveling by rail and motorcoach they will visit in Naples, Florence, Venice, where they will be provided with a serenade by gondoliers on the canals.

Paris and London are other places of interest they will visit. Leaving London on May 18, they will return to Detroit on May 19.

Local residents making the trip are Dione Veazey of West Iroquois road, Mrs. J. A. Boyd of Arlene drive, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey W. Carless of Warren drive, Mrs. Matilda Landsparger of West Huron street, Mrs. Louis M. Kimm of Hickory Nut road, Ethel Graham of Lincoln avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Trissell of Old Orchard drive and Sally J. Barnett of Oneida road.

Also in the party are Jo Anna Wiggs of East Fairmont avenue, Jeannie McEnery of East Colgate avenue, Colleen McEnery of East Colgate avenue, Marjorie J. Baker of Lakeland drive, James E. Reekie of LaSalle avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Long of Owego drive, Frances Harrington of Orchard Lake avenue and Delores Markel of Milford.

Roland Cornell, junior at Michigan State University, recently pledged Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cornell of Dwight avenue.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. N. Stanley Hutchinson returned to their home on Pine Knob road on Monday from Waynesboro, Va., where they visited her mother, Mrs. Bert Sydnam, and her sister, Mildred Sydnam.

During their visit they also traveled to Washington, D. C., and Monticello at Charlottesville, Va.

Returning to their home today after spending the weekend in Pittsburgh, Pa., are Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Hoffman and daughters, Jean and Judy. Norma Sandavol, an exchange student who is making her home with the Hoffmanns, accompanied them.

While in Pittsburgh they were guests of Mr. Hoffmann's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Keisling.

Women Do Men's Work; How About Vice Versa?

By RUTH MILLETT

Women have sold the men on the idea that there is no such thing as "a man's job."

We've edged our way into almost every line of work that carries a pay check.

And at home, you'll see us mowing lawns, painting rooms, lugging in big sacks of groceries without ever a "Here, let me do that" from our menfolk.

We've even sold a lot of men on the idea that they need a woman's help in earning a living.

But though there is scarcely such a thing as "men's work" any more, we've failed to sell men on the idea that there's no such thing as "women's work" either.

LIST IS LONG

Whatever men don't like to do is still regarded by them as "women's work." That includes washing, ironing, cooking, washing dishes, making beds, scrubbing floors and so on.

A man may be married to a woman who puts in as many hours as he does at a paid, full-time job and who works at his side in the yard and on any do-it-yourself project the couple attempts.

She may not consider anything that needs to be done a "man's job." But he probably has a long list of things he considers "women's work." And he has no intention of learning how to do anything on the list.

That isn't very bright of us, is it?—to prove to men that we can do any kind of man's job, without also selling them on the idea that there is no such thing as "women's work."

It probably accounts for the reason why so many working wives grow bitter after a few years of doing a "man's job" all day and then finding out that the work that has to be done at home is still regarded as "women's work."

Group Initiates New Members

The annual birthday dinner and initiation of new members of Esther Court 13, Order of the Amaranth, was held Friday evening at Roosevelt Temple.

Past matrons and past patrons were honored guests at the dinner, attended by guests from Flint, Royal Oak and Detroit.

Plans were made to attend the Grand Court convention to be held at Hotel Statler in Detroit Thursday through Saturday.

Roses, roses everywhere. Paris prints them on silk taffeta and suggests that you add a couple of real ones to carry that lovely rose scent.

Ex-Star Frances Farmer Enjoys Quiet Private Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Frances Farmer, who once made $1,500 a week as a movie star, is thankful now to be working as a $70-a-week reservations clerk at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel.

★ ★ ★

"San Franciscans are extremely civilized people to let me get down to the business of living," Miss Farmer said yesterday.

Trim and attractive at 40, Miss Farmer said drinking and emotional difficulties ruined her acting career. She advises others in search of fame and fortune:

"You had better be sure you know what you want out of life."

The girl who began her career as an usher in a Seattle, Wash., theater said her chief interest now is settling down as plain Frances Anderson.

"Now I would just like to continue as I am, as a private human being," she said. "I'm living in a little medium-priced apartment and do my own cooking. My leisure time is spent rinsing the lingerie and washing the hair.

General's Lady Likes Washington

Mrs. N. F. Twining Finds Life in Capital Stimulating

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Nathan F. Twinning, whose husband has been designated chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, had only this to say when asked about her reaction to his most recent promotion:

"I was proud of him when he was a lieutenant."

The former Maude McKeever, who met the handsome Air Force general in Hawaii where her late father was in the sugar business, is pleased that his new high-ranking post will keep them in Washington.

"We have never been anywhere so long," she told me, "and I like Washington. Life here is strenuous, but it's always stimulating."

As for Peter, the Twining parakeet whose celebrated repertoire includes even quotes from Shakespeare — he'll be expecting a new answer to his daily query of the general: "Hello, Nate, what are you doing?"

'BRAGGING' MATERIAL

"The biggest excitement in the family is the arrival of our first grandchild," Mrs. Twining said happily. "We'll be quoting him from now on."

KEEPS 'ON GO'

Official and social obligations keep the general's lady constantly on the go, but she makes time for an active interest in the Air Force Officers' Wives' club, of which she is not only honorary president but, according to its more than 1,000 members in the Washington area, a "guiding light."

The Twinings love fishing, and the general is fond of golf and hunting, but they have little time for recreation these days.

★ ★ ★

"He does perfectly beautiful work," she said. He has made numerous handsome pieces for their attractive quarters, including a mahogany coffee table with marble top, and two Pembroke drop-leaf tables.

Watch Out—Your Virtue's Showing

By ANNE HEYWOOD

One wonderful thing about the human race is the way we protect ourselves, or the image of ourselves, in our own minds.

Sinners though we may be, we can always rationalize our behavior to make ourselves seem saints

This is all fine if we keep it at that. But if, at the same time that we're crediting ourselves with the noblest of motives, we also credit our neighbors with the basest, we're going to get into trouble.

That's Mrs. Y.'s mistake.

Mrs. Y. wrote me about two years ago, for advice for setting up a home project. Her next-door neighbor had one, selling cakes.

"She makes excellent cakes," Mrs. Y. told me, "but she's operating at a loss because she's no businesswoman. She's too stupid to figure out the proper price and stick to it. Just an amateur, that's all.

"Now if I were handling it—" and here she went off into a description of what she'd do.

She asked me some questions, which I answered in detail. I never heard from her again until just last week—and it was some letter!

'JUST TOO GENEROUS'

Mrs. Y. had gone ahead with her project which involved leather goods. But she soon found she was operating at a loss "because," she wrote, "I just haven't the heart to charge what they're worth. I'm just too generous for my own good, letting people buy the belts at less than they cost me!"

In short, on Mrs. Y. it was generosity itself, but her neighbor was just an amateur!

I'm sure that this uncharitable approach had something to do with her lack of success. After all, you can't go around crediting yourself with noble motives and crediting all other people with horrible motives, without having it show in your personal relationships.

HOW ABOUT YOU?

Next time you find yourself deploring somebody's behavior, watch and see if you would describe the same thing, in yourself, in such harsh words.

Once she's revised this approach, Mrs. Y. should settle down and determine on a fair price for her leather belts and stick to it. Many times it isn't so much generosity, as it is a subconscious conviction that the product isn't worth the price.

If this is a problem of yours—determining a fair price for a product you make—you might get some pointers from my pamphlet, Marketing A Home Product.

Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of this newspaper and I'll send you a copy.

Bride-to-Be Has Touchy Problem

Must Bridegroom's Sister Have Place as Attendant?

By EMILY POST

A bride-to-be asks the following question: "Is it considered discourteous to omit the bridegroom's sister from the wedding party? My fiance has a sister the same age as I, of whom he is very fond. I have no sisters of my own but had planned on having three very close friends of mine as attendants. (Two as bridesmaids and one as maid of honor.)

"Due to limited space at the altar, the number of wedding attendants will have to be limited, and if the sister has to be asked, it will mean that one of my own friends will have to be excluded. Will you please tell me the proper thing to do?"

You will have to talk this over very seriously with your fiance, because it depends entirely upon individual feeling. If the bridegroom will be hurt because his sister is not included, and if she wants very much to be a bridesmaid, it could very easily cause a very unhappy situation — perhaps a permanent one.

On the other hand, if your fiance assures you that neither will be hurt, it will not be necessary for you to change your plans.

Dear Mrs. Post: "When I was a litle girl my mother kept reminding me not to say "I am full" after eating because it was in bad taste. Consequently I cringe when I hear it. Through the years I have often heard it and by people who were supposedly well brought up. Do you not agree that such a remark is very unrefined?"

Answer: I certainly do agree. In my opinion, it is unthinkable.

Dear Mrs. Post: "Would it be proper to send flowers on Mother's Day to the mother of a young man with whom I have been going out for almost a year? We are not engaged."

Answer: If you go to her house often and know her well, it would be quite all right to send her some flowers. But if she is really more of a stranger than a friend, it would not be a good idea.

Potato Salad With Bacon Is German

Mrs. Freundt Uses White Vinegar in Warm Spud Dish

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

If you have never tasted German Potato Salad, you have a treat in store. It is entirely different from mayonnaise potato salad. In fact, it is served warm. One of its good features is that it can stand for some time with no danger of contamination.

Mrs. H. C. Freundt is today's cook. She serves this salad often, especially for summer outdoor meals. Living on Orchard Lake, Mrs. Freundt can indulge her love of swimming and skating. She also enjoys gardening and reading. Collecting perfumes is a hobby.

GERMAN POTATO SALAD
By Mrs. H. C. Freundt

Brown about one half pound of bacon, cut in pieces, with one large chopped onion. Make a paste of 2-3 tablespoons flour and water. Add to one cup white vinegar and one cup water. Put in ¾ cup sugar. Bring to boiling point and add to onion-bacon mixture. Let simmer a few minutes.

Boil potatoes (about one per person). Peel and slice. Pour hot mixture over warm potatoes. Stir gently so as not to break potatoes. Salt to taste. Keep on back of stove until ready to serve. It should be rather glassy looking.

Daily Beauty Care Is Kind That Counts

Beauty that is cared for each day has a far better chance of surviving into old age than beauty that gets a complete and drastic overhauling every six months or so.

MRS. ROBERT RYESON

Married Sunday were Lillian Tonya Lazaroff and Robert Ryeson. Lillian is the daughter of Mrs. Lazarus Lazaroff of Chippewa road and the late Mr. Lazaroff. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Ryeson of Elizabeth Lake road.

A gown of Chantilly lace with a portrait neckline of white tulle appliqued with pearls, sequins and embroidered roses of lace was worn by Lillian Tonya Lazaroff for her marriage to Robert Ryeson Sunday evening.

★ ★ ★

The full skirt flared from a draped waistline. The bride's veil of illusion was secured by a small coronet of seed pearls. Her jewelry was a string of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a crescent-shaped arrangement centered with a rose corsage.

Lillian is the daughter of Mrs. Lazarus Lazaroff of Chippewa road and the late Mr. Lazaroff. Robert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Ryeson of Elizabeth Lake road.

★ ★ ★

Evelyn Ryeson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Lillian's other attendants were Mrs. Robert Bego, Mrs. Theodore Lazaroff and Agnes Mazza.

WHITE OVER AQUA

They wore sheath dresses of white lace over aqua with bustle bows and carried pink roses in folded parasols. The maid of honor carried yellow roses in a folded parasol.

★ ★ ★

Teddy Lazaroff and Stephaie Lazaroff, nephew and niece of the bride, were ringbearer and flower girl. Stephaie wore a pink organdy dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Gus Nickols was best man. Ushers were Eugene Ryeson, brother of the bridegroom, Antony Mitchell and Sam Cosmos.

Skirts Are Longer

Skirt lengths are generally about one inch longer than those of the season past. Some designers (and among the top-flight ones, too) are holding steady on the skirt lengths. It's a season when your own figure demands can make the skirt length trend serve your best interests. There are longer lengths if you prefer them; the regular lengths if you like them best.

Ready-to-Wear Clothes Made by Top Designers

LONDON (INS) — More and more of Britain's top dress designers are going in for the ready-to-wear trade.

The nation's shops are filled with ready-to-wear summer clothes carrying the names of several of the haute couture designers.

This means the average woman can have dresses and suits with good line and good taste in color and fabric as readily as her more well-to-do sisters.

The shops, of course, claim that only an expert can tell the difference between these superb ready-to-wear garments and those made-to-measure. And the price difference is "fantastic."

These same shops report that continental women are snapping up these new ready-to-wear buys when visiting Britain and that Americans "just goggle" at the cheap prices.

Bob Considine Says:

Newspapers Wield Vital Influence in World

NEW YORK (INS) — As we were saying only yesterday, newspapers make a big difference in people's lives every day. They place a record of the world's achievements and failures in your hands not on the hour or the half hour, or at eleven P.M., but any time during the day or night when you want or need this vital intelligence. They spread the market place and the bazaar before you not at the speed of light but in retainable form, the better to barter.

In a world that moves swifter than sound the only document published in tune with the times, but which submits to being mulled over, is the newspaper. It stretches and gives permanence to immediacy. And always it has a definite, if sometimes subtle bearing on our lives.

For example, the largest police department in the country states without equivocation that the "Mad Bomber" would still be about his baleful business today, in the nation's greatest city, if the New York Journal-American had not beckoned him out of his sinister anonymity with a promise—quickly fulfilled—that the maniac's grievance would be thoroughly reviewed and he would be given the best available legal representation.

The Journal-American's feat is in the tried and trusted tradition not as yet shared by any other communication medium. Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is historically credited with galvanizing anti-slavery sentiment which prodded the successful prosecution of the Civil War by Union forces.

Actually, it probably had no more, if as much, to do with rallying these somewhat laggard Northern armies than the circulated account of the attack on Fort Sumter, written by reporters and re-write men on the Charleston (S.C.) Mercury of April 13, 1861 and carried north that day by telegraph to the New York World in the words of B S. Osbon.

The penetrating cartoons of Thomas Nast and the piercing words of George Jones of the New York Times warned and fended against future generations of urban pirates by bringing Boss Tweed to book, ending a notable pillage of the public treasury of New York City. In addition, one wonders how ill justice in the civilized world would have fared thereafter if Captain Alfred Dreyfus had not had the support of such journalists as Emile Zola, Jean Jaures, Georges Clemenceau, Anatole France, Leon Blum, and the nearly 300 working newspapermen who covered the second of the courts martial of the French officer.

There are fire laws today, because of the graphic newspaper coverage of great conflagrations in New York, Baltimore, Chicago and San Francisco a half century or more ago, just as there is and has been a spirited resolution to wipe out the ignorance and preposterous understatements surrounding such villainous killers as tuberculosis, cancer and polio. There are better working conditions today because of sweat shop exposes of decades ago.

WAR UNMASKED

There is better understanding of war, and the futility of it, because writers like Count Zeppelin, Henry Mortan Stanley, Whitelaw Reid, Henry Villard, Harriet Martineau, Osbon, Walt Whitman, E. H. House, William A. Croffutt, E. C. Stedman and Lawrence A. Gobright covered the Civil War; because Richard Harding Davis and W. R. Hearst covered the Spanish-American War, because Winston Churchill covered the Boer War, because William Howard Russell covered the battle of Balaklava, because Floyd Gibbons covered World War I, Eddie Neil and Red Knickerbocker covered the war in Spain, Ernie Pyle covered World War II, and Homer Bigart covered the Korean War.

There is less police corruption today because Herbert Bayard Swope, called by Lord Northcliffe "the greatest reporter," cracked the Becker case. Less horrifying conditions prevail in mental institutions because of Ned Ward's articles in the London Spy about Bedlam ("Hell in an uproar").

There is comparatively little chance that such concentrations of hate as the Ku Klux Klan can become epidemic in the country because the New York World and other newspapers ripped the sheets off these crackpots three decades ago.

The same is true of such movements as those inspired by Fritz Kuhn, whose idiocy was illuminated by Walter Winchell and others before World War II.

More of this anon.

Atomic Radiation Hazard Believed to Be Hereditary

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility of a hitherto-unsuspected hereditary hazard from atomic radiation has been reported by an Atomic Energy Commission scientist.

New evidence from mouse tests, reported Dr. W. L. Russell, suggests the possibility that radiation may tend to shorten the lifespan not only of the person receiving it but also of children sired by exposed individuals.

Up to now, shortening of the life span has been considered a potential hazard only for persons directly exposed. Genetic, or hereditary, hazards are considered to include such things as physical and mental defects but not shortening of the life span.

Dr. Russell, chief geneticist in the Biology Division of the AEC's Oak Ridge National Laboratory, prepared his report for the spring meeting of the National Academy of Sciences. He said the life-shortening effect showed up in first-generation offspring of exposed mice.

Describing tests made of male mice exposed to "moderate doses" of acute neutron radiation from a nuclear explosion — presumably at one of the Nevada tests, Dr. Russell reported these results:

Length of life in offsprings of such mice was shortened by six tenths of a day for each roentgen (unit of radiation) received by the father in his reproduction system.

If the same ratio were to hold true for humans, he said, it would give a 20-day shortening of a child's life for each roentgen of radiation received by a father. Conditions under which human beings would most likely be exposed might make the effect "somewhat smaller," he said.

"However," he said, ". . . it seems likely that, even when allowance is made for the conditions of human radiation exposure, shortening of life in the immediate descendants will turn out to be of a magnitude that will warrant serious consideration as a genetic hazard in man."

In an atomic bomb explosion, large doses of radiation can affect the body at one time. Between 400 and 600 roentgens received at a single dose and by the body as a whole would be lethal for most people.

The present maximum permissible whole-body or reproductive system exposure for workers in atomic energy plants is three-tenths of a roentgen a week.

Big Crowd Throngs to Music Festival

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—A cheering, capacity audience of 2,000 persons last night heard the concert opening Puerto Rico's first two-week music festival honoring Pablo Casals.

★ ★ ★

The podium where the famed cellist would have stood was empty. American violinist Alexander Schneider conducted the 47-man orchestra from the concert master's chair in the violin section.

Casals suffered a heart attack last week during rehearsals. He was resting under sedation last night and did not even hear the broadcast of the concert.

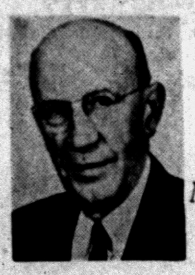

★ ★ ★

At the start of the program it was announced from the stage in the University of Puerto Rico theater that the entire festival is being dedicated to the 80-year-old Spanish-born musician. He now makes his winter home in Puerto Rico, his mother's birthplace.

★ ★ ★

The crowd came to its feet to applaud after the closing number, Schubert's Fifth Symphony. To the surprise of the cheering throng, Schneider led the orchestra in a repeat of the Bach C Major Suite which had opened the program.

The "big league" reputation of your Chevrolet dealer was built by fair business practices. That's why his signed OK Used Car warranty is a hit with car buyers.

Enthusiasm, optimism and good will are fine. But when promises are made in writing and signed as OK Used Car warranties are, your assurance rests on facts. The signed warranty you receive when you buy an OK Used Car outlines service agreements and is one of the six important benefits (five more are listed below) you get when you deal with an authorized Chevrolet dealer.

Chevrolet dealers guard their business reputations in your community. They do this to build the customer-confidence that attracts the volume of business they strive for. And it is the big volume of cars taken in on the new Chevrolet that makes possible the volume savings on OK Used Cars of every make and model. Right now your Chevrolet dealer is offering special values. See them!

Bizarre Tale of Eccentric 'Inventor'

Londoner Holds Woman Captive in Dugout

LONDON (AP)— A 28-year-old brunette claims an eccentric inventor held her captive for 105 days in a dugout beneath the back garden of his suburban home.

Her captor, John Bridal, 26, told reporters:

"She was not brought here under force, but she needed some persuading. She was not enthusiastic but agreed to help me with my experiments. I did not keep her against her will, except for the first few days."

In a statement to detectives, however, Miss Jordan declared Bridal, a complete stranger, kidnaped her from her bedroom in a lodging house two miles from his home the night of Jan. 7.

She said he taped her mouth, put her on the rear seat of his motorcycle and took her to the underground room. Reached by a shaft made from a large pipe, the room was 10 feet long, 4 feet wide and 7 feet high. The shaft exit was secured by a screw-down cover of the manhole type.

"He said, 'I need an assistant for some experiments I am going to make on metal work and machinery,'" Miss Jordan reported.

"He would come to the room each night and let me come up to his house. He would stand guard outside the bathroom door while I washed. Then he would lead me back to the room.

"He got an electric stove and fixed up current in the hole and then, every day, he would lower down food which he bought from shopping lists I made out for him.

"About three weeks ago he decided that I was resigned to my fate and he let down a wireless set.

"I had my handbag compact, luckily, so I was able to do my face each day and keep my self-respect a bit. But golly how I longed to go to the hairdresser or else have a darned good bath.

"I think I threw out six 'help' messages in all. I dropped them as we walked in the dark for my wash and I threw the last one over the fence into the next garden."

In his statement, Bridal said he was "perfecting a grinding machine and a coal conveyor. She was my assistant doing laboring work while I did designing and the lathe work."

Miss Jordan said that most of her time was spent helping Bridal make the dugout bigger.

"I shoveled out earth," she said, "and put it into buckets which he pulled up. Sometimes we loaded as many as 60 buckets a day."

Bridal insisted that he met Miss Jordan early in January while she was working as a shop attendant and "she said she would like to work for me."

"Her room in the cellar was a very good room," he told reporters. "She had every comfort. I even went to the library for novels for her."

All Business Closes for Weekend in Australia

Easter in U.S. Is Contradiction

By DENIS N. HAWKER
Visiting Australian Journalist

Easter in America could be labeled the "Great Contradiction." A big proportion of Americans — as shown by statistics of increased church attendance — is keenly conscious of the religious significance of Easter.

HAWKER

Yet on Good Friday, the holiest day in the church calendar, it was business as usual, except for three hours, throughout the nation.

Pontiac stores had one of their biggest — if not their biggest — trading days since Christmas, bartenders played a merry tune on their cash registers, and movie theaters did good business.

This contrasts — although not necessarily unfavorably — with custom in Australia and Britain where there is an almost complete shutdown of commerce and industry from Thursday 6 p.m. until Tuesday 9 a.m.

But — and it is a very big but — this does not mean that a bigger percentage of Britons or Australians go to church. In fact a far larger proportion of Americans go to church at Easter or any other time than Australians or Englishmen.

Saturday is much like any other Saturday with a big list of sporting events. Sunday is normal (stores, theaters, bars closed), although church attendances are higher than usual, and Monday is largely given over to sport and recreation.

But he does have one cardinal principle: If work and pleasure clash, there is only one thing to do — give up work.

Sinatra Turns Tide at Mocambo

Loren, Magnani Meet First on Paramount Lot

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tuesday topics —

Sophia Loren may have met Anna Magnani by now, but she had to travel 6,000 miles to do it.

The two Italian actresses are working on the Paramount lot these days, so they have a chance to shake hands. It seems incredible that two titans of the Roman film industry had never met.

★ ★ ★

"But it is true," said Sophia. "Film people are not a tight little colony in Rome. We do our work and then go home to different parts of the city. We do not see our fellow workers socially, as you do here. And I think it is better, because we do not have to talk movies all the time."

Has she met Gina Lollobrigida?

"Yes, but only for five minutes — in a studio in London," Sophia explained. She recently made a picture with Rossano Brazzi, but they had never met until production started . . .

★ ★ ★

There was much clicking of tongues over how Jayne Mansfield tried to out-bust Sophia by her entrance at the Romanoff's party before the "Boy on a Dolphin" preview. Also over Jayne's acrobatics at the "Spirit of St. Louis" preem. Pish-tush! Jayne is doing a yeoman job in her one-woman campaign to restore some excitement to this tired old town.

Hollywood won't soon forget Frank Sinatra's gratuitous nine-night run at the Mocambo to help out the owner's widow. Not only did it turn the tide of publicity in Frank's favor. It also afforded the movie colony a closeup look at the Sinatra magic.

As someone pointed out, the guy comes out on the night club floor and defies you not to like him. While his voice is past its prime, his style is better than it ever was. He sings each song as if he had just grasped the meaning of the words. His ballads are great and now he can handle faster tunes with rare skill, something he lacked in his earlier days.

Extradition May Be Long Battle

California Uses Charge of Forgery in Warrant; Scott Denies All Counts

DETROIT (INS) — An extradition fight that could last a year loomed today in the case of L. Ewing Scott, who has been accused by California authorities of slaying his wife and stealing her $600,000 estate.

An extradition hearing for Scott, 60, will be held Thursday morning in the office of Michigan Governor G. Mennen Williams.

The suspect was nabbed at the Detroit - Windsor, Ont., border April 15 to end an 11-month search. He is being held in Detroit on a federal fugitive warrant.

Scott has been indicted for the murder of his wife, missing Evelyn Thorsby Scott, and on 13 counts of grand theft and forgery from her estate.

The extradition warrant, brought to Michigan by Arthur Alarcon, deputy Los Angeles District Attorney, charges forgery only. Alarcon said evidence of only one crime is needed to support an extradition request.

Scott has denied all the charges and said he would fight removal to California.

His wife, a wealthy socialite, disappeared in May, 1955. Scott has expressed belief she is still alive, but may be a captive or suffering from amnesia.

Park Specialists Test Chemicals on Cherry Trees

WASHINGTON — With Washington's famed cherry trees in full bloom and the accompanying festival staged without a hitch, National Park Serivce horticulturists can breathe easily — for a few months.

Every autumn, Park specialists must peer into their scientific crystal balls to predict when the trees will bloom the following spring. Officials fix the date of the Cherry Blossom Festival accordingly.

Since the trees bloom only for about 11 days, there is scant margin for error. Park veterans still shudder at the nightmare memory of 1952, their worst miss of recent years. By festival time, the blossoms had come — and long gone.

Nagged by this perennial headache, the Service constantly tests chemicals that may afford some control over the trees' blooming. A host of growth inhibitors and accelerators has been tried without success. Hormone sprays failed to lengthen blossom life, and a naphthalene compound produced erratic results, retaining blossoms for an extra week on some trees while leaving others unaffected.

Farm Official Attends MSU Building Seminar

Jay Poffenberger, assistant Oakland County agricultural agent, attended a special farm ding seminar at Michigan State building seminar at Michigan State University recently.

He received instruction in constructing a pole barn and worked with a team of county agents in actually constructing one.

Instruction in dairy layout, expansion and remodeling plans and farm milk plants also were given.

Fusses Over Feline

Red Cross Seeks 15 Interested in First Aid

The course, starting this week, will be held from 6-8 p.m. Thursdays in Trinity Baptist Church, 123 Wessen St.

It will be conducted by Mrs. Gertrude Fleming, a Red Cross instructor. There will be a $1 charge for materials.

Television could be started in New Zealand for $7,000,000 experts have estimated, but the government continues to show no interest.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The first annual Pontiac Press Bowlerama is history. For the champions and the top prize winners, the Easter holiday took a brighter note as $1,600 was shared.

It was an interesting tournament and as we expected, we made some mistakes. But the experience which was gained gives us an opportunity to plan for a bigger and better Bowlerama, one which we hope will appeal to every man and woman bowler in Pontiac and Oakland County.

Some rule changes will be made and some color will be added to the tourney so that when the 2nd annual Bowlerama comes along in 1958 everyone will want to be included.

THE ACE IN BOWLING

Like the hole-in-one is to golf, the "300" game is to bowling. For Pontiac's Walt Rennhack who rolled the perfect game recently, the first here since 1952, it was a thrill of a lifetime.

Rennhack will be honored for his feat Wednesday night at the Motor Inn when he will receive several awards from the American Bowling Congress.

BIG "LITTLE COLLEGE" GAME

The big" little college" game on the football front in the state next season will be the renewal of the rivalry between Hillsdale and Central Michigan.

Both camps are already pointing for the game. It's too bad the two schools could not get together with their Little All-Americans in the lineups.

Jim Podoley is through at Central as is Nate Clark at Hillsdale, but both teams will carry long unbeaten strings against each other, and the game will have a strong Pontiac flavor.

★ ★ ★

Central has two and may have three Pontiac boys in the starting backfield and Hillsdale has a couple.

Central's coach Bill Kelly and Hillsdale's Muddy Waters met at a recent sportswriters' luncheon and "exchanged" a few secrets about their plans for the game.

Kelly is very high on Walt Beach and Phil Officer, ex-Chief gridders who spent four years in the service. "Beach will be better than Podoley," said Kelly.

Waters is also high on an ex-Chief, Walter Poe at halfback, and he has Bud Thompson, also of Pontiac, in the backfield.

It should be a warm afternoon when the two big giants of small college football in Michigan get together next September.

HOT SHOT — Whether on the basketball court or cinder track, Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain is a big gun at Kansas. The seven-foot cage All-America is a shot putter and high jumper.

Pitchers Stumble as Tigers Lose, 11-7

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers have obtained two route-going performances from right-hander Frank Lary, but the other four pitchers used in starting roles have been able to stay around for only a total of six and one-third innings.

"I'd say we have a small pitching problem," said manager Jack Tighe after the Kansas City Athletics drubbed the Tigers 11-7 yesterday. "It'll be another week before we can definitely set up our staff — until then, we're going to have to do a little experimenting and a little guessing."

Starter Paul Foytack was knocked out in the second inning after the A's clobbered him for three runs and five hits. Duke Maas, who succeeded him, was rapped for four runs and seven hits. But the loser was Jim Bunning, who had picked up a relief win on Sunday.

Bunning was the victim of the A's four-run uprising in the ninth inning that broke a 7-7 deadlock, the third time the two clubs were tied.

After pounding starter Maury McDermott and first reliefer Tom Gorman with six runs and seven hits in the first four innings, the Tigers could get only one more run and a double by Frank Bolling over the last five frames.

Tighe said a freak play that allowed the A's to tie the score in the sixth inning "may not have been the turning point, but it woke the other team up enough to beat us. They were dead until Maas threw that grounder away."

It was hardly a case of the Tiger reliefer "throwing" away the two-out grounder by second baseman Milt Graff. He tossed it underhand to first baseman Ray Boone, but the low throw skipped past Boone into foul territory in right field, and Billy Hunter, who was on first base when the play started, came all the way around to score the tying run.

The Tigers went ahead in their half of the inning and the A's came back with a run in the eighth to tie it for the third time. Bunning came on in the eighth when a single by Jim Pisoni and a pinch double by Irv Noren knotted the count.

He got the last two batters with ease but ran into trouble in the ninth when Gus Zernial led off with his third hit, a single to center. A sacrifice and an intentional walk set the stage for a run-scoring double by Hector Lopez.

Then came a sacrifice fly by Pisoni, a walk — then came the Tigers' fourth pitcher, Pete Wojey. He finished out a base on balls started by Bunning before shortstop Harvey Kuenn committed a two-run error to conclude the scoring.

Arnold Portocarrero blanked the Tigers in the ninth (he retired all six batters he faced) to pick up the victory.

RUSHING THE SEASON — Top "brass" of the Morey's Ladies' Golf League got away to a fast start at 9 a. m. today on the 1957 league action. The foursome (above from left) — prexy Virginia Hastings; treasurer Mary Bowes; secretary Mary Havel and Sally Campanero (wearing shorts), opened the season, believed to be the very first women's golf league to begin play at this early date. Most all others do not start until early in May. League has 35 members.

Seek Improved Pension

TORONTO (AP) — The National Hockey League Players' Assn. has asked club owners for improvement in the pension plan and participation in proceeds from television of games.

★ ★ ★

Ted Lindsay, of the Detroit Red Wings, president of the association, in a statement issued at the end of an association meeting yesterday, said there had been "considerable discussion at the meeting" about suggesting a change of date of the annual all-star game to a "convenient date in December."

The all-star game has been held before the season opens in October.

Lindsay said several matters "now are being submitted to the owners but any discussion now would be premature."

The players pension is financed by yearly contributions of $900 by each player, the take from a 25-cent increase on all tickets for the Stanley Cup playoffs and partial proceeds form the annual all-star game.

The current NHL plan, in force since 1947, calls for a player with two years service to receive a pension of about $15 a month starting at age 45. Increased payments are made on a graduating scale based on experience.

Canadian Gets Split Decision

Yvon Durelle Defeats DeFendis in TV Bout at St. Nick Arena

NEW YORK (AP)—Yvon Durelle, the Canadian boxer - fisherman, headed back to the fishing fleet today after scoring his second straight victory at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

★ ★ ★

That's a personal record for the tall, solidly built Canadian light heavyweight champion. He had never won a fight in the United States until March 25 when he stopped Clarence Floyd in the seventh round. Floyd subbed for Angelo DeFendis who withdrew because of a sore right arm.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

The upset defeat ended Angelo's winning streak at six. The Brooklyn slugger was a 4-1 favorite but the awkward husky from Bale Ste Ann, N.B., made the odds look foolish.

Perch Are Running!

The perch are running!

That was the hot news this morning from Anchor Bay, Lake St. Clair, according to Henry Thomas, boat livery operator at Anchor Bay.

"Come on over, the big ones are really hitting now" Thomas told Art Thomas of Pontiac, in a telephone conversation this morning.

Ringey's Blunt 'No' Stirs New Pittsburgh-Giant Feud

NEW YORK (AP) — The major league season is only one week old but already there's a nice feud breweing between two National League clubs — the Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Giants.

The feud actually began more than a month ago, during the early weeks of spring training, when Pittsburgh manager Bobby Bragan predicted the Giants would finish in last place.

It came to a head yesterday when Bill Rigney, the New York pilot, refused to grant Bragan permission to hold a post-game Pirate practice session and accompanied his denial with several choice words.

"The hell with them," was the mildest of Rigney's expletives when he was informed of the Pirate request.

It all came about this way. While Rigney was rejoicing over a 3-1 victory his team had just achieved against the Pirates, he was informed by Eddie Logan, the Giants' clubhouse man, that the Pirates had requested permission to use the Polo Grounds field for a workout.

This was in line with a practice the Pittsburgh club had adopted last year when Bragan replaced Fred Haney as manager. In 1956 the Pirates staged post-game practice sessions at least once in every park in the league, including the Polo Grounds. No club refused them.

★ ★ ★

After the game yesterday, two Pittsburgh players — Dick Groat and Paul Smith — requested the extra batting practice and a telephone call was made from one clubhouse to the other asking for the use of the field.

★ ★ ★

Actually, Bragan had no knowledge of this request since at the time he was appearing as a guest of Frankie Frisch on a post-game television show. Bragan later said, however, he was taking full responsibility.

Rigney's immediate reaction to the request was a blunt "no."

BATTING—Willie Mays, Giants—Hit his third homerun in three days, a three-run blast in the third inning to account for all New York's runs in the Giants' 3-1 triumph over Pittsburgh.

PITCHING — Clem Labine, Dodgers—squelched a Philadelphia threat by retiring two hitters with the potential tying runs on bases in the eighth inning and disposed of the Phils' one-two-three in the ninth in Brooklyn's 5-1 victory.

Mantle Blasts 1st Homer

Tebbetts Wins, Bragan Feuds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The 1957 baseball season has officially opened as far as Birdie Tebbetts, Bobby Bragan and Mickey Mantle are concerned.

★ ★ ★

Tebbetts finally saw his Cincinnati Redlegs post a victory after four straight defeats — a 10-6 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

★ ★ ★

Bragan, who speaks his mind with no thought of the consequences, finally succeeded in bringing about a feud between his Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants after his team's 3-1 loss at the Polo Grounds. Bragan, a month ago, prophesied the Giants would finish last.

Clem Labine turned in his third game-saving relief chore this season as the Dodgers whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1.

Kansas City, which hasn't been able to beat anybody else, gained its third straight success against Detroit 11-7.

Willie Mays hit his third home run in three days to account for all the Giant runs. Hank Bauer hit a grand-slam homer in the Yankees' rout of Chuck Stobbs, an old nemesis, while his mates rubbed it in by pulling off a triple steal.

★ ★ ★

Whitey Ford, supported by a 16-hit attack that included four hits by Gil McDougald, gained his second victory although he had to depart under fire in the seventh inning.

★ ★ ★

Carl Furillo and Junior Gilliam drove in two runs each as Brooklyn won its fifth in six starts. Roger Craig was credited with the triumph but he has Labine to thank for it. The Dodgers' relief artist took over in the eighth with runners on second and third and one out, Brooklyn leading 3-1. He disposed of Ed Bouchee on an infield tap and got Harry Anderson to end the threat with an infield popup.

★ ★ ★

Worm Rouser — Fish Caller

2 New Gadgets for Anglers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two new gadgets for the average fisherman offer him a helping hand from the science of electronics — and the average fisherman can use some help.

For years now, he's been advertised as "matching wits" with the fish. That's all well and good, but the whimsy of a man's family can get to be pretty hard on the vanity when he's a steady loser.

Neither of the devices newly announced is designed to dazzle the fancy of the dry fly purists. The first item, in fact, might be enough to make a man raised on imago patterns faint dead away. It's a electric worm rouser, and it may be welcomed by those who have forgotten — or hope they have — what a shovel is for.

Item number two is even more shocking — not literally, but figuratively. It's a fish caller. To the casual reader accustomed to hearing about expert moose callers, duck callers, crow callers and the like, that may not sound like much. But as a matter of record, the fish calling division of the hall of fame has been singularly free of candidates since no experts in simulating the call of a love-sick bluegill have shown up.

The fish caller doesn't, either. Just what it does simulate is not clear. Frank Birch, Milwaukee advertising agency executive who worked it out, says it sounds like an insect hatch in full operation. And it does, to people. But it works, spectacularly, even on aquarium fish that wouldn't know a caddis fly if it were mixed with their oatmeal.

Gene Awkward, Says Sugar Ray

Robinson Says Little About Coming Rematch With Fullmer

CHICAGO (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson refuses to be drawn into any controversial subject — such as rabbit punching — regarding his rematch with Gene Fullmer.

About the meanest thing he will say about the middleweight champion is that he is "awkward."

Robinson, opening the Chicago phase of his training for the Fullmer scrap at Chicago Stadium May 1, is quiet and unassuming.

Naturally, he thinks he will win. But there is no cockiness or overwhelming confidence that long has been associated with him.

He is a 3-1 underdog.

"Fullmer's best offense and defense is his awkwardness," said the 36-year-old Sugar Ray, who will be trying to recapture the middleweight crown for the third time after first winning it from Jake LaMotta at Chicago Stadium in 1951.

"You can't box with this fellow. He keeps his hands up. He is smart enough not to expose himself to get hit. He's very awkward, very unorthodox."

Extend Race Season

Meeting at Fort Wayne

Propose New Cage League

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — An attempt to organize a new professional basketball league will be made Saturday by the Fort Wayne Coliseum, home of a National Basketball Assn. team until owner Fred Zollner moved the franchise to Detroit recently.

Don Myers, manager of the coliseum, said arena operators and potential sponsors have been invited from Rochester, N.Y., which lost its NBA franchise to Cincinnati; Toledo, Cleveland and Dayton, Ohio; Louisville, Indianapolis, and Grand Rapids, Lansing, Mich.; Milwaukee and the tri-cities of Moline and Rock Island, Ill., and Davenport, Iowa.

★ ★ ★

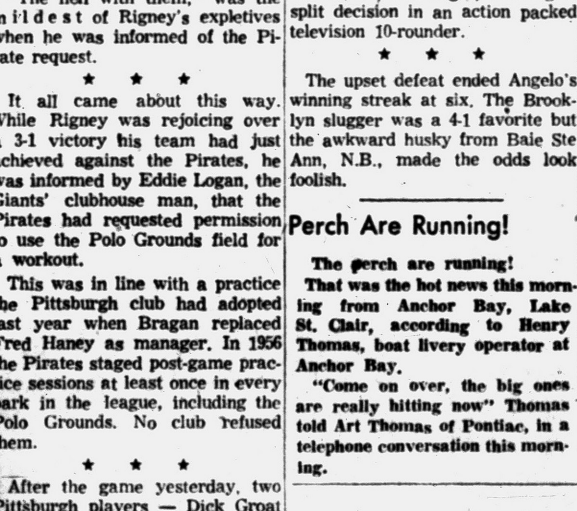

"We think there is plenty of interest in pro basketball in the area," Myers said. "We can start if we can line up six teams—but we'd rather have eight. With the NBA taking only about six men a year from the college crop, there is an abundance of players."

★ ★ ★

Hole-in-One at PCC

Sam Wiseman of Detroit fired a hole-in-one Sunday at Pontiac Country Club, the 1st ace at PCC this season. Wiseman sank his 7-iron shot on the 135-yard 8th hole. He scored 97 for the 18-hole round. Accompanying him were Ben Ross, Joe Metzger and Aaron Katzman, all from Detroit.

PGA Sues Blue Hills Club

BOSTON (AP)—The executive committee of the Professional Golfers Assn. has filed a breach of contract suit against Parkway Club Inc., which operates the Blue Hills Golf and Country Club —scene of last year's PGA championships.

The suit alleges the club has refused to pay $25,000 due the PGA as a consideration for awarding the championships to the club.

Atty. John L. Saltonstall Jr. filed the suit for the committee yesterday. In his bill of complaint he said the club agreed to pay $40,000 for the privilege of being co-sponsor with the PGA. He said $15,000 has been paid but that the balance has not despite demands.

SAFE IN TRIPLE STEAL — Billy Martin whips up a cloud of dust sliding across home plate in the 6th inning last night as the Yankees worked a triple steal against Washington. Holding his bat aloft is Gil McDougald. Martin streaked to the plate ahead of the slow pitching motion of Senator Dick Brodowski as New York scored seven times in the inning. Nat catcher Ed FitzGerald holds the ball in gloved hand. Yanks won, 15-6.

LOOKING BACK AT THE MAJORS

15 YEARS AGO TODAY—Lou Novikoff homered for the winning run in the sixth inning as the Chicago Cubs edged the St. Louis Cards 2-1 behind Bill Lee's seven-hitter.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY—Lou Boudreau had two doubles and a single to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 10-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

5 YEARS AGO TODAY—Bobby Cain of the Browns and Bob Feller of the Indians each pitched one-hitters but St. Louis won 1-0 on a first inning run.

Haney Contains His Enthusiasm

Milwaukee's Five-Game Victory String Doesn't Fool Braves' Pilot

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Fred Haney isn't about to go off the deep end over his Milwaukee Braves' five-game winning streak, mainly because they haven't looked like world beaters in the process.

★ ★ ★

"So we've got a streak going and we're leading the National League," he said before today's scheduled game with the Chicago Cubs, "but those two one-run wins against Cincinnati could have gone the other way.

★ ★ ★

"Take that ball (Ted) Kluszewski hit Saturday," Haney continued. "Another foot and it would have gone over the fence for a home run and they would have had two runs, enough to win." The Braves won that game, 5-4.

"Our pitching has been good, but we haven't been exactly overpowering the ball," he said. "Yesterday was the first time we had a little breathing space."

Jet Action Given Top Weight for Handicap

Racing Secretary Charles J. McClellan assigned 122 pounds to Switch On and 120 to Kingmaker for the 45th running of the Laurel.

Coast Man Seeks Revival of Suit Against the NFL

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Frank Ciraolo, who sought the National Football League franchise now held by the San Francisco 49ers, is attempting to revive an anti-trust suit and is asking treble damages, $1,680,000. His original suit was dismissed in Federal Court.

★ ★ ★

Ciraolo, who owned the defunct San Francisco Clippers, charged in Federal Court yesterday the NFL "conspired unlawfully" to deprive him of the franchise and refused to give him a franchise for Oakland.

★ ★ ★

The complaint amends a suit dismissed here in 1953 by Judge Louis E. Goodman, who ruled federal courts lacked jurisdiction. Ciraolo's attorney, Irwin Goldstein, said the Supreme Court's recent decision that the NFL is subject to federal anti-trust laws changes that.

★ ★ ★

Goldstein said the complaint charges the NFL was guilty of a conspiracy "specifically directed in restraint of trade" and that treble damage claims are allowed under sections 1 and 2 of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

★ ★ ★

The amended complaint names specifically the principal owners of the 49ers, Tony and Vic Morabito, together with Tim Mara of the New York Giants, Edwin Anderson of the Detroit Lions, George Halas of the Chicago Bears and Dan Reeves of the Los Angeles Rams. It includes all owners of the 12 NFL teams.

Marshall Leahy of the NFL said a motion would be made to have the case dismissed.

Baseball Nomad Sparks Red Sox in Early Games

★ ★ ★

The fugitive from five minor loops and the National League was brought up from Los Angeles to tighten the Boston defense and give the club more double play potential.

So far, the 5-10, 175 pounder has done much more. He has brought a sharp batting eye and aggressive spirit to the club.

In yesterday's 7-5 loss to Baltimore, Mauch, 31, singled twice for three runs batted in, scored once and made four putouts.

Government Asks Court to Do Away With Club; Hearing May 20

NEW YORK (AP)—The government proposed dissolution today of the International Boxing Club, on the grounds that the IBC is a monopoly.

The proposal was contained in a decree filed with U. S. Dist. Judge Sylvester J. Ryan, who ruled on March 8 that the IBC and its officers were guilty of violating antitrust laws by engaging in a conspiracy to monopolize professional title bouts.

The IBC, in submitting its own decree to the judge, suggested giving up exclusive contracts and limiting the number of championship fights it may promote during a year as a means of meeting government requirements.

A hearing on the proposals has been set for May 20.

The IBC also puts on the bouts which are televised nationally on Wednesday and Friday nights.

After issuing a 59-page decision last month, charging the IBC with monopolistic practices, Judge Ryan asked the government and the IBC for submission of decrees. Today's proposals were the result.

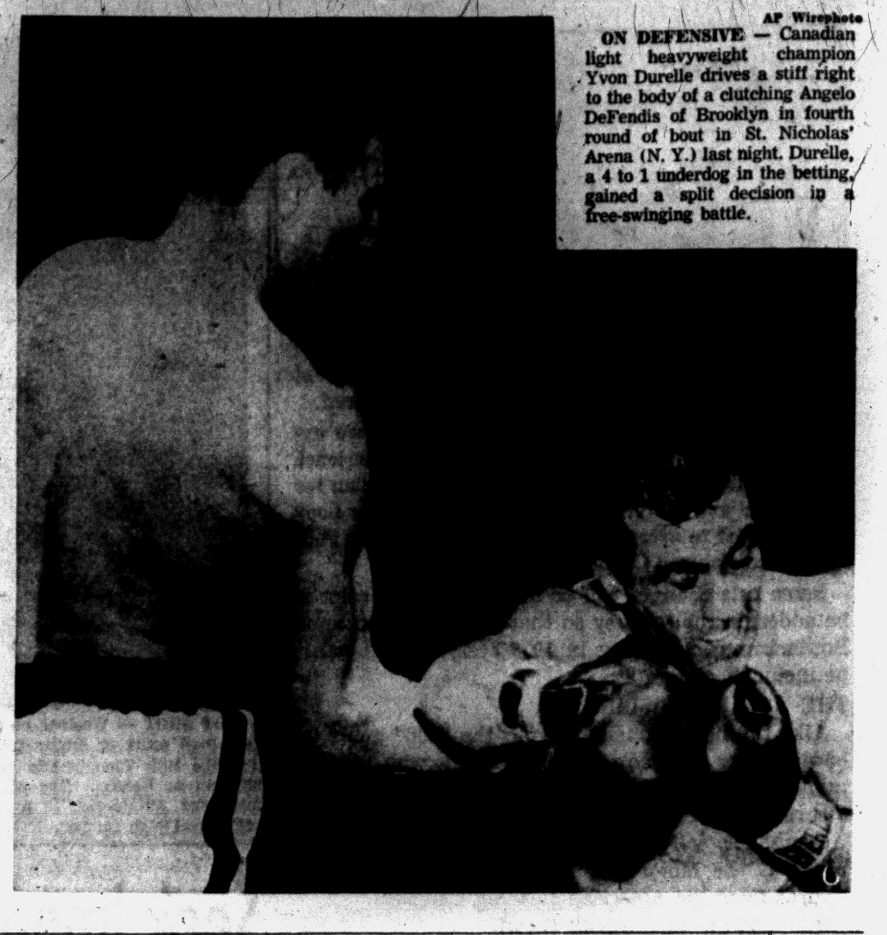

★ ★ ★

The government asked that the IBC setups be dissolved in New York, Michigan, Illinois and Missouri; that the IBC discontinue exclusive contracts with fighters; that James D. Norris and Arthur M. Wirtz, IBC top officials, sell all their capital stock in the Madison Square Garden Corp.

Norris, president of the IBC in New York; and Wirtz, president of the IBC in Illinois, were named as defendants in the suit, along with the Madison Square Garden Corp.

★ ★ ★

The IBC, in its proposal, suggested that the Garden be enjoined from promoting more than two championship fights a year, also that Norris and Wirtz, or any corporation owned by them, be enjoined also from promoting more than two title bouts in a 12-month span.

Around the Prep Front

By CHUCK ABAIR

By CHUCK ABAIR

Sunny skies prevailed around Oakland County yesterday afternoon but failed to smile on four local teams who went down to defeat in three different sports.

Pontiac High Golf Coach John Maturo summed up the general feelings of area coaches with the comment that "everything was fine except the score" after the Chiefs bowed to Flint Central, 12-3.

An 82 by Dick Singleton and Dick Whitmer's 84 paced the losers who made a battle of it on the 1st nine but faltered the rest of the way. PHS is now 2-1.

The Wayne-Oakland Baseball League got under way with a bang as an air tight pitching duel and an avalanche of errors featured the two lidlifters.

An unearned run in the 5th was all Northville needed to nip Clarkston 1-0 as big Jeff Goodrich outhurled Dave Gaddis. Gaddis prevented a no-hitter with his single in the 7th. He fanned 12 and Goodrich whiffed 14.

A ragged Bloomfield Hills defense and some steady hitting gave Milford an 8-1 triumph over the Barons. Hoy allowed just two hits and fanned 11 and Lancaster socked two triples and a double to lead the Redskins. Bob Barrett batted in the Bloomfield marker.

In track, a victory in the final event of the day—the 880 relay—gave Royal Oak a 57-52 victory over Waterford. The Skippers had led all the way until the Oaks tied the score at 52-52.

★ ★ ★

Cecil Dumbrique won the high jump and broad jump and added two seconds to lead the losers with 15 points. Bill Cole, Stan Jones and Leroy Vogl had the other Waterford 1sts. It was the Skippers 2nd dual loss.

Draper Qualifies for North-South

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Tom Draper of Birmingham, Mich., was the only golfer of a 10-man Michigan delegation to qualify for certain in the 57th annual North-South Amateur Golf Tournament.

Draper had a 77. It took a score of 78 or better to clinch one of the 64 places at match play.

Leads North-South Qualifiers

Robbins Opens Title Defense With 69

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Second Lt. Hillman Robbins has demonstrated that he is not going to give up his North and South Amateur Golf Title without a struggle.

★ ★ ★

The lanky linksman from Memphis, Tenn., now stationed at Blytheville Air Force Base, Ark., began an impressive defense of the championship he won last year by shooting a three-under-par 69 to win the medal in yesterday's qualifying round.

The only other man to break par 72 in the strong field of 141 was Keely Grice of Charlotte, who posted a 71.

So tight was the battle for the 64 places in today's first round of match play that 16 men tied at 79 for the last nine positions and were scheduled for a sudden death playoff today to complete the field.

Robbins, who hadn't realized that yesterday was his 25th birthday until he checked the date after he stepped off the 18th green, had a 33-36 card against a par of 36-36 for the rugged No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club. The course has been extended to 7,000 yards by tees placed as far back as possible.

★ ★ ★

The 16 men playing off at 79 today include such established players as former North and South champions Frank Strafaci of Miami Beach, Fla.; Mal Galleta of Old Westbury, N.Y.; Ed Meister of Cleveland, and Charlie Harrison of Atlanta.

Grice, with a 34 finish, and Dr. Bud Taylor of Pomona, Calif., who finished with 34 after a shaky 41 start, were the only men to master the back nine.

Three players tied for third place at par 72 and all had 34-38 cards to point up the troubles of the back nine. They were Lawrence Cook, Wrightsville Beach, N. C., policeman with a cross-hand grip, and the Augusta, Ga., pair of Jack Howard, semi-finalist last year, and Cobby Ware.

★ ★ ★

Former North-South champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W.Va., Hobart Manley of Savannah, Ga., Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., and Don Bisplinghoff of Winter Park, Fla., all qualified, although none menaced the leaders.

Hit Runners Hex Reds

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Cincinnati manager Birdie Tebbetts has been around baseball a long time but he's probably never seen anything like the string his team has running now.

★ ★ ★

It began Saturday when Johnny Temple was struck by a ball hit by Gus Bell.

Sunday, the Redlegs' Don Hoak was on base and the batter was Wally Post. Post tapped an infield roller. Hoak fielded it and casually flipped it to shortstop Johnny Logan of Milwaukee.

Umpire Frank Secory called Hoak out.

This play stopped a Cincinnati rally but the Redlegs won 10-6.

Jones, Keating Star in Relays

Former Pontiac High great Hayes Jones and Waterford grad Kerry Keating turned in outstanding showings to help spark Eastern Michigan to an impressive performance in the Ohio Relays held at Columbus Saturday.

Jones outraced some of the best hurdlers in the Midwest to take the 120-yard high in 13.9 seconds. He and Keating were members of the Hurons' championship 440 relay unit which swept past Ohio State and Northwestern. The time was 42.3.

Keating also played a key role in Eastern's victory in the mile relay which was won in 3:19.6.

Ginsberg Eases Paul's Worries About Catching

"What's wrong with Baltimore's catching? Until (Gus) Triandos gets back, I'm not worried about it in the least."

★ ★ ★

The performance of reserve catcher Joe Ginsberg was the reason for Richards' post-game dissertation yesterday.

Ginsberg replaced Triandos last week after the club's leading home run hitter and RBI man of last season hurt his back in a home plate collision. Triandos is expected to be out at least two weeks.

In yesterday's 7-5 victory over the Red Sox, Ginsberg knocked in two runs on a pair of doubles and a sacrifice fly. In previous games, Ginsberg had another double in six trips and two more runs batted in.

MONDAY'S HOME RUNS

Florida Racing Season to End

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Florida's long racing season comes to an end today with three jockeys battling for the riding championship of Gulfstream Park and W. J. Schmidt a cinch to win the trainers' title regardless of what his two closest rivals do on the final program.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

But it was Harrel Bolin, 17, of Lancaster, Tex., who again stole the show from his more experienced rivals at the Florida track Monday. The apprentice, who last week rode five winners one day, scored with three of his mounts to run his total for the meeting to 19.

Let's get the picture straight!

Some people have definite misconceptions about advertising. For one thing, they think it adds enormous costs to the products they buy.

The cost of advertising a product is but a wee fraction of its total cost. On cigarettes, for example, it is usually less than half a cent a pack. If it had not been for advertising you would be paying more for just about everything you consume. Advertising helped to create the demand for more products. This made for larger and less expensive production—and the savings were passed along to you.

You live in a country with the highest standard of living in the world. Advertising helped to bring about this high standard. You are the one who profits most from advertising.

Fights Tiger Jones

Dearborn's Gray Gets Big Chance Thursday

FLINT (INS) — Joe Gray of Dearborn, who will meet Ralph (Tiger) Jones, 5th-ranking middleweight contender, Thursday night in a 10-round main event at Flint's I.M.A. auditorium, transferred his training chores to Flint over the weekend.

When the Gray-Jones match was announced, most followers of fisticuffs were skeptical and thought that it was a mis-match. However, Gray has won a host of followers in Detroit who have watched him train.

Al Denapoli, veteran trainer of Jake Lamotta and currently the manager of Osee Groom, who also appears on Thursday night's card, watched Gray closely since promoter Ed Haley announced the bout. He said:

"It's a funny thing. You don't pay too much attention to a kid until he signs up for a big one. Then, suddenly, he becomes all important.

"Gray may fool a lot of the so-called experts. He looks like a champion, trains like a champion, and fights like a champion. He gives you the impression that he can't wait to prove his point."

Chicago Keglers Hold ABC Lead

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A Minneapolis team shot the best game in the American Bowling Congress tournament last night, but failed to challenge the open division leaders.

The East Side Beverage squad rolled a three-game total of 2833. Stanley Wojciak anchored the club with a 569 series.

Lawrence Rutt of Fort Worth led the singles action yesterday with a 659 set of games of 222, 224 and 213. Lewis Gilmore and Steve Galati of Akron, Ohio, pieced together the top doubles effort, 1,216. Gilmore rolled 615, Galati had 601.

Defends Top Record

Scanlon, formerly of Buffalo, N.Y., has 23 victories and one draw to his credit. Macias, of San Jose, has not won in his last eight bouts.

Bowlerama Pair Surprised Themselves

Happy Day for Champions

By CHUCK ABAIR

Bowlerama champions Joe Tinson and Donna Verhey, neither of whom even figured to be in the finals, were slowly getting back to normal today after an Easter weekend they likely will never forget.

The pair have been kept busy accepting congratulations since Saturday afternoon when they clinched the men's and women's crowns in the 1st Press singles handicap tournament. They won a total of $630 and two handsome desk-calendar sets in the finals held at Huron Bowl.

A 17-year-old Pontiac High Junior, Tinson was the most surprised of the champions. "I never thought I had a chance in the world against all these good bowlers," exclaimed the modest youngster. He said he had entered the tourney, his first, only because of the urgings of his brothers.

On the other hand, Mrs. Verhey did not realize she had qualified until she saw it in the Press last week. She became eligible on a tie for the last qualifying place at Dixie when another woman's score was decreased because of a previous error in averages.

Tinson was both joyful and sad with his success. The former Press newsboy had to make a big decision to bowl in the finals and was worried it might end his chances of playing baseball for Pontiac High.

The Chiefs had a doubleheader here Saturday while Joe, a pitcher, was bowling. "I want to play baseball real bad. I hope I don't get dropped," he remarked hopefully.

Pontiac coach Ed Heikkinen however jested when he heard his pitcher was a bowling champion. "Maybe his winning will carry over to the baseball team," he said.

A 242 actual game, the 2nd best of his three-year career, was a big factor in Tinson's victory. It included three strikes in a row twice and two in a row another time and offset a late bid by Stan Bott, who wound up 6th.

He has a 152 average for the season.

The first thing Mrs. Verhey did yesterday was to go right down to the bank and deposit her $205 share. "I'm not sure what we will do with it yet but it may go towards another needed bedroom," explained the Drayton Plains mother of two.

She breezed to the women's crown by a 42-pin margin despite having the 2nd lowest handicap of the 12 hopefuls. A 218 game and no splits was her big reason for dominating her division.

The 12-year-veteran of league and tourney play took a 151 average into the event. She had a streak of four straight strikes en route to her 1st 200 game in a year.

The winners, other finalists and earlier participants had praise for the 1st such Press event with many already making plans to enter again next season.

Men's runnerup Bob Pickett said he enjoyed the tourney and did some of his best bowling. Third placer Lou Seay, who like champ Tinson was making his 1st try at tournament play, commented: "I'll be back next year." He just started bowling in November.

Marion Urich, who finished 4th, said she had a fine time in the tourney. Runnerup Pat Donner was pleased and surprised she did so well as another rookie in tournament play. Marion McNair called it a "very nice" tourney.

Star NBA Cager Edges Howe for Hickok Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Gordie Howe, Detroit Red Wing hockey great, was edged out of the March award in the Hickok pro athlete of the year yesterday by Bob Pettit, towering scoring ace of the St. Louis Hawks of the National Basketball Assn.

Pettit who played the last part of the season with a broken wrist received 24 first place votes and 101 points on a 3-2-1 basis from a national panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Bob Cousy, star of the Boston Celtics of the NBA, was third with 12 and 51 points. Lou Camp, Dumont, N. J., bowling wizard, was fourth with 11 and 46 points.

Single in Fourth Spoils No-Hit Win

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Ed Coyle's single in the 4th inning spoiled a no-hit baseball game for pitchers John Herrnstein and Bob Sealby of Michigan yesterday as the Wolverines shut out the University of Detroit, 10-0.

Four Wings on NHL Team

MONTREAL (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings placed four players on the six-man National Hockey League's 1956-57 all-star team.

Goalie Glenn Hall, defenseman Red Kelly and forwards Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay were picked for the honor by a panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Howe, Detroit's five-time league scoring champ, returned to the first team after two seasons of playing second fiddle to Maurice (the Rocket) Richard of the Canadiens. He was an almost unanimous choice, polling 176 of a possible 180 points. The only newcomer to the team was Hall, who moved up from last year's 2nd team, replacing Jacques Plante of Montreal.

Named to the 2nd team was Plante, defensemen Fern Flaman of Boston and Bill Gadsby of New York, center Eddie Litzenberger of Chicago and forwards Richard and Real Chevrefils of Boston.

Points are awarded on a 5-3-1 basis for first, second and third place votes. Each National Hockey League city has three votes from a panel of sports writers and broadcasters with ballots cast for each half season.

Ohio Keglers Hold Top Places in WIBC

Central Ticket moved into the 4th spot after rolling 2,099 last night. The Ohio Woman's Bowling Assn. team No. 2 (Medina, Ohio), leads the division with 2,134.

Loretta Duda, Canton, Ohio, rolled 1,164 last night to take over 5th place in the all-events division. Clara Zaph of Cincinnati leads the event with 1,695.

28-1 Shot Winner

DETROIT (AP)—Carley Jayzoff, a 28-1 shot, won the fifth race at Northville Downs harness track last night, returning $58.20, $12.80 and $6.20.

NBA All-Stars Even Series With Champs

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — The NBA All-Stars evened their post-season basketball tour with the champion Boston Celtics Monday by rallying in the second half for a 136-129 victory.

CITY DELIVERY SPECIALIST-

HERE'S far and away the most popular truck about town. And no wonder! For it's GMC's beautifully balanced 370—the 2½-tonner that packs a 19,500-pound GVW—

It takes up to a 20′ body. The 140-hp Six, and a 206-hp V8 you can choose between, bracket all power needs for city delivery jobs.

Need more weight-carrying ability? You can boost the 370's capacity up to 22,000 GVW by specifying a 7,000 lb. front-axle option. Then, for unequalled traffic agility, route-time and fuel savings and even lower maintenance costs, there's a heavy-duty Hydra-Matic Drive.*

The 370 is a dream on the pavement. But knock it around the alleys and over cobblestones. You'll see the stamina that lets the 370 sail through brutal daily service—and still keep out of the repair shop.

Look around. See how many GMC 370's are covering routes in this town for delivery-wise owners. Then call your GMC dealer and get in on this yourself. *Optional at extra cost

GMC Money-Makers

GMC Series 370 haulers are also available as tractor units—with either 108" conventional or 89" dual-purpose cabs—rated at 32,000 GCW.

Urge Less Help, More Enforcement

Eye Income Tax Cheaters

WASHINGTON (INS) — A House subcommittee urges the federal government to tap a "great potential source of additional revenue" by spot checking more returns for income tax cheaters.

A ways and means subcommittee headed by Rep. Wilbur Mills (D-Ark.) recommended yesterday that the Internal Revenue Service give greater independence to its auditing division, described as "the backbone of the service."

The subcommittee's report urged that the service spend less time assisting high income taxpayers and more enforcing the law.

It called for additional personnel, if necessary, to audit low-income as well as high bracket taxpayers. Some 1,900,000 returns were audited last year and 2,100,000 spot checked.

Another proposal would return many powers to Washington that were delegated to nine regional offices in a 1952 reorganization growing out of tax scandals among high revenue officials.

The report also expressed "serious concern" over employe morale and was critical of a sometimes excessively stiff policy toward taxpayers.

★ ★ ★

The revenue service was advised to avoid "unwarranted public embarrassment, of taxpayers" and stop "reckless and inexpert overstatements of a taxpayer's liability to justify fraud charges."

Cost of Upkeep Dooms Salt Water Pools

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A favorite tranquilizer among San Francisco businessmen since 1894 — salt water bathing in downtown club pools — appears doomed.

Since the Gay 90s the Ocean Salt Water Co. has piped water nearly seven miles from the Pacific to supply swimming pools at the Olympic Club, the Press and Union League Club and the Elks Club.

Now, says J. Eugene McAtter, president of the company and of the parent Olympic Club, the system would have to spend around $500,000 to repair corroded pipes and reservoirs.

IMAGINE ME EARNING $300 A WEEK

By a Wall Street Journal Subscriber

I remember when I was earning $100 a week. I felt good about it. I dreamed that someday I might earn $200 a week. But it seemed remote.

Then came the flood of rising prices and rising taxes. I had to do something to keep my head above water. One thing I did was to subscribe to The Wall Street Journal. It was a life preserver! It told me things to do to win advancement, to protect my interests and to increase my income. Last year I hit a new high. Just the other day I said to my wife, "Imagine me earning $300 a week!"

• • •

That is the wonderful thing about The Wall Street Journal. A few minutes' daily reading of that amazing newspaper has put thousands of men on the road to increased earnings. The Journal helps salaried men making $7,000 to $20,000 a year. It is valuable to small business men. It can be of priceless benefit to ambitious young men who want to win advancement.

The Wall Street Journal is the complete business DAILY. Has largest staff of writers on business and finance. The only business paper served by all four big press associations. Grains Wobble, Then Level Off

Most of the strength was in May wheat, which was up a cent or more at times on buying influenced by export news.

Near the end of the first hour old wheat was unchanged to 1 cent higher, May $2.25⅜, new wheat ¼ higher to ⅜ lower, July $2.11⅞, corn was ⅜ higher to ⅛ lower, May $1.29⅛, oats were ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, May 71, rye unchanged to ¼ higher, May $1.28¼, soybeans were unchanged to ⅜ higher, May $2.40¾, and lard was unchanged to 2 cents a hundred pounds lower, May $14.10.

2 Children Succumb to Mystery Malady

GARY, Ind. (INS) — Doctors in Gary and Chicago were baffled today by a mysterious malady which has struck eight children, two of them fatally, in amid-town section of Gary.

Six of yesterday's sudden victims, including the two who died, were from one family and the other two were from a home next door.

Autopsies on Joanne Smith, 3, and her brother, David, 18 months, have failed to determine the malady, which caused severe swelling of the foreheads, just above the eyes and abdominal pains. This was followed by severe chilling of their bodies.

Joanne and David, along with their stricken brothers and sisters, Dolores, 6, Florence, one month, Algie, 5, and Dennis, 7, were brought to Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago.

Gregory McCloud, 7, and his brother, Arthur, 14, were sent to Gary's Methodist Hospital for treatment.

Several Stocks Move Upward

NEW YORK (AP) — Some steels, nonferrous metals and oils moved ahead to give an irregular stock market a higher tendency in moderately active early trading today.

★ ★ ★

Gains and losses among key stocks ran from fractions to around a point. Selected issues, however, made wider gains.

★ ★ ★

International Nickel was in demand as it rose about 2. Getty Oil rose well over a point.

★ ★ ★

While the business and economic news remained mixed, brokers said that speculative activity was increased through a relaxing of international tensions and by less pressure on money rates.

Car Sales Gradually Rising; Fall Short of Spring Boom

DETROIT (AP)—New car sales are picking up gradually across the country, but still fall short of spring boom stature, Automotive News states.

The trade paper said:

"Despite certain premature reports in the last fortnight that the 'boom' had arrived, dealers contacted by Automotive News say it must be happening to somebody else.

"As dealers swing into the final 10 day sales period of April, projections show registrations for the month should total approximately 550,000.

"Some dealers say the hoped-for spring spree may be just in th budding stage, with the blossoming of sales delayed until next month.

SPRING SURGE GONE

"More pessimistic retailers cite last year's experience and say the spring sales surge may have gone the way of the running-board and the inner tube.

"Other dealers say the spring boom is still a reality—but that it isn't apparent because dealers have pulled up sales in the other periods of the year so that they just about match the spring stanza.

"Some industry observers believe 1957 may turn out to be a unique year—a year in which the sales boom will come in the fourth quarter.

"They base this belief on the expectation that GM will shoot the works on its '58 models, and that Ford and Chrysler will add a little extra in an effort to overcome the anticipated GM onslaught.

GM STRESS

"It is reasoned that the GM lines will have a triple impact when they bow—in time for fourth quarter selling.

"Here's why: Chevrolet and Pontiac will have new bodies and Chevrolet will be straining every fiber to wind up the year No. 1 in sales; middle GM lines will be in for major revamping because of sales resistance this year and because they will have new competition from Edsel (most probable bet: Dropping the three piece rear window on B body) and GM may be expected to put a little extra frosting on the cake because '58 models will carry the corporation's 50th anniversary banner.

★ ★ ★

"In the best tradition of competitive retaliation, Ford and Chrysler can be expected to facelift their year-old body shells more extensively than usual as they gird for the fourth quarter fray."

Halts Shipments to Seven Cities

Teamsters Strike Hits Sending of Goods via Air or Rail Express

The Pontiac office of the Railway Express Agency said air express and rail shipments to seven major cities will be halted due to a strike of Teamster Union drivers there.

★ ★ ★

The strike affects agency offices in Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Newark, N. J., Philadelphia, St. Louis and San Francisco.

R. O. Rasmus, acting agent of the Pontiac office, said the curtailment will only hit less-than-carload shipments to the seven cities and some 10 adjacent cities. Carload lots will not be affected.

He said that incoming shipments from there also will be stopped by the embargo. The strike, Rasmus said, will affect approximately 30 per cent of the local office's business.

The strike, which began Monday, came at the end of a 30-day grace period provided by the Railway Labor Act. The union rejected a presidential board's recommendations for settlement which the company accepted.

The fact-finding board recommended a three-year contract, effective Nov. 1, 1956, consisting of a 29-cent package. Of this, 2½ cents was to be retroactive to Jan. 16, 1956.

The union demanded that its members be paid on the same basis as freight drivers.

Rasmus said packages cannot be shipped to the struck cities because the striking Teamsters normally unload and deliver shipments.

Ford Develops an All-Aluminum Body for Army

DEARBORN (INS) — Ford Motor Co. today announced the automotive industry's first all-aluminum unitized vehicle body.

The body was designed and built by Ford engineers, with the cooperation of army ordnance and Kaiser aluminum automotive engineers for a new experimental military vehicle, known as the Ford XM-151-E2.

The new vehicle, a four-wheel-drive utility unit, represents the latest phase of a developmental contract awarded to Ford by army ordnance five years ago.

The aluminum integral body and frame structure, which is spot welded throughout, weighs only 124 pounds, or about one-third the weight of the steel body prototypes.

Cantor Collects Social Security to Set Example

He said his primary purpose in picking up the check was to "get it across to people all over the country that the government owes them this money."

"Social security," he said, "isn't charity. It's the biggest insurance company in the world. Most of your life you pay in your premiums, so why shouldn't you collect when the time comes?"

Cantor, who has been piling up old-age benefits for the past 20 years, pointed out these are not benefits based on need, but payments on insurance built up through the years.

Cantor's check represented two monthly payments of $108.50 each. His wife, Ida, also eligible for social security, picked up two payments of $53.20 each.

Cantor will be paid each month like millions of other Americans past 65, so long as he does not earn in excess of $80.

"But I intend to work," he insisted. "I have six television shows coming up. And I feel great. I played nine holes of golf yesterday. I'm in better shape than (Jack) Benny!"

He says he will donate his social security check, plus all future checks, to the Surprise Lake Boys Camp at Cold Springs, N.Y.

Grill Parolee on Kidnaping

Suspect in Girl's Assault Nabbed Trying to Pass Police Roadblock

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

HOWARD CITY—Michigan State Police today were questioning a paroled convict in the kidnaping of a 19-year-old girl and her escort.

The girl was assaulted by the kidnaper after her boy friend was locked in the trunk of his car.

The suspect, Wallace Warner, 28, of Gladwin, was arrested in a stolen car near Howard City yesterday.

The kidnaping occurred Sunday night. Charles Harden, 20, of Saginaw, told state troopers he and the girl were parked in the car when the man forced his way into the auto.

Harden said he was ordered, at knife point, to drive 40 miles to Sanford, where the man forced him into the trunk and then assaulted the girl.

The assailant, who Harden said spoke of serving time in Jackson Prison, then ordered both victims out of the car and drove away.

He was caught trying to bypass a police roadblock and is being held in the Bay County Jail.

Commission to Discuss Trailer Park Zones

Grand Trunk Yard Contract Up to City

The dormant topic of the Grand Trunk industrial support yard in Pontiac's north end, has popped up again and faces the City Commission at its weekly meeting tonight at 8.

Up for consideration is a proposed contract between the railroad and the city covering construction of the $700,000 yard south of Walton boulevard and north of the railroad's belt line. The railroad has already agreed to the contract.

Included in the contract is the price for a three-acre parcel of city land needed by Grand Trunk for the yard, and certain land improvement features being sought by the commission.

Back in November of last year, commissioners climaxed a five months debate over the yard with a 4 to 3 vote approving the sale of the three acres. Northside residents fought to keep the yard out of their neighborhood.

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, in whose district the yard will be built, said today one of the major objections of residents is that the city agrees in the contract "to forego any attempts to extend Stanley avenue north across the yard," which they say, will hinder the development of the northside of Pontiac.

Other points to be acted on this evening will include a public hearing on amending the city's building zone ordinance to establish trailer park zones in Pontiac.

City Manager Walter K. Willman will be seeking authorization to advertise for bids for equipment for the new Public Safety Building.

Commissioners are slated to pass an ordinance adding the president of the Pontiac General Hospital's Women's Auxiliary to the hospital's Board of Trustees as an ex-officio member. The amendment will delete Director Miss Lauretta Paul's status as an ex-officio member of the board.

Twenty-eight items on the 37-point agenda will involve public improvement projects.

Included among these will be the following public hearings on intention to construct curb, gutter and related work for:

Cadillac street from Oakland to Rundell; Hudson street from Pingree to Summit; Jefferson avenue from Cadillac to Kimball; Kimball street from Jefferson to the south end of the street; Pingree avenue from Cadillac to LeGrande; Putnam avenue from Cadillac to LeGrande; Carlisle street from Cornell to Columbia; Rundell street from Baldwin to Pingree; Victory drive from Mt. Clemens to the south lines of outlots B and C of the Pontiac Knolls Subdivision; and for Colorado avenue from Bagley to Franklin.

Agriculture No. 3 Man May Quit

Mundt Says Department Now Seeks Successor to Earl L. Butz

WASHINGTON (INS) — Earl L. Butz, the No. 3 man in the Agriculture Department, was reported today planning to resign.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-ND) told an interviewer that the department is "now looking for a successor" for Butz, who is assistant secretary in charge of overseas surplus foods trade and distribution.

Mundt, who hails from a farm state, also said the slash in wheat supports may have an adverse effect on urban economy and GOP chances in the 1958 elections.

The North Dakota Republican described Butz as "one of the strong men" of Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's staff, but expressed no view on how he received the reported resignation, which he said he understood is impending.

Last week, Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) said it was Butz who was responsible for President Eisenhower's statement that price supports cost the government on the average $1,000 a farm. The president later revised his statement.

4 From State Hurt in Illinois Collision

BELLFLOWER, Ill. (AP) — Four Michigan persons were injured, two seriously, today when two cars collided headon near here yesterday.

Mrs. Helen Hecht, 58, of Frankenmuth, wife of the driver of one car, was reported in critical condition at a nearby Gibson City hospital. Mrs. Wilma Blair, 21, of Detroit, wife of the other driver, was in fair condition, hospital authorities said.

Also injured in the Blair car were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bandy of Detroit, both reported in good condition.

Charles Hecht, 58, and his sister, Amanda Bauer, 60, also of Frankenmuth, escaped injury. Jack Blair and his infant son also were unhurt.

Crosby Challenges Senator

Teamster Hits Charges

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—An indicted Teamsters Union official jumped up to challenge Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) when the senator called last night at a labor meeting for guarantees against "reckless handling of union funds."

"I invite you to see my lavish home which cost around $8,900, and you may check into my net worth. You may even dig in my back yard for tin cans with buried money," said Clyde Crosby, top Teamster official in Oregon.

★ ★ ★

Neuberger, speaking at Portland Central Labor Council meeting, declined to get into a debate with Crosby, who is under four indictments here, including charges of accepting a bribe and conspiracy to commit extortion.

★ ★ ★

The senator did not single out the Teamsters Union in calling for a program of standards "which either deserve legislative protection or which must be assured and protected by action within unions themselves."

These included assurance of democratic procedures and protection of union funds.

★ ★ ★

"It is fine that you should use the Teamsters as an example, since we are the only racketeers mentioned so far. But nothing has been proved as yet, and it won't be . . . I don't believe any money has been misused. It may have been misspent. I am getting thinskinned with all of these indictments. I am sick of the view that I have attained distinction as a racketeer."

Rock 'n' Roll Is Lazy Dance, Says Man at 90

MIDDLEBURG, N.Y. (AP)—A man observing his 90th birthday today figures rock 'n' roll is a lazy way to dance. That is, compared with what went on when he fiddled at the hop-picking square dances.

"After a hard day's work among the hops we would start our square dance at about 8 p.m. and keep right on going until the sun came up," says Andrew Moore.

Moore had to learn to fiddle in the woodshed when he was a boy. His mother believed "the devil was in a fiddle," he recalls.

The annual two-week hop-picking spree in this rural area southwest of Albany now is a thing of the past. Growing of hops, used in making beer and ale, became unprofitable for the farmers about 50 years ago.

The pickers were paid only 30 cents for filling a box, and that took four hours.

But Moore says "the people really didn't pick hops for the money. They came for the fun that everybody had."

Another part, Moore says, was picking up a girl and throwing her into the hop box she had been filling. This would compress the hops and make her work all the harder to fill the box.

How Does He Do It? They Wish They Knew

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Sheriff Melvin Hawley mused today over a message from Chicago police regarding a 16-year-old boy.

★ ★ ★

Lyle Wilson, the message said, escaped from jail in a Chicago suburb where he was held on charges of stealing two cars.

"When you find the boy, ask him how he escaped," said the message.

★ ★ ★

Too bad, said Hawley, that Chicago police hadn't asked the boy how he escaped from the county jail here last February when he was being held on a burglary charge.

Bones of Huge Skeleton Are Unearthed in Idaho

KAMIAH, Idaho (AP)—Bones from a huge skeleton unearthed on a hillside near this little north Idaho town are being studied today by University of Idaho professors, who say they are probably the remains of a prehistoric mastodon.

The skeleton, described as being "larger than that of an elephant," was discovered Sunday by a Kamiah contractor, Sigurd Groves.

Motorbike, Car Crash; Two Teenagers Killed

MT. PLEASANT (AP)—Two teenagers were killed yesterday when their motorbike and an automobile collided on M18.

State Police identified the two as Ray Morse and Terry Gransden, both 16 and of Beaverton township.

Troopers said the boys were trying to pass a bus and two cars and collided headon with an oncoming car.

Waterford Eyes Water Problem

Subdivision Supply Polluted; Bond Issue Proposed for Extension

Waterford Township board members and residents puzzled last night over the water supply system for the Venice of the Lakes subdivision, and also considered complaints about a private dump.

The privately owned water supply of the subdivision has been condemned as "unhealthy and polluted," and state-loaned emergency chlorination equipment is now connected to the well to supply the 100 property owners until the problem is solved.

Milton Thompson, representing a bonding firm of Detroit, told the group that it would be necessary to float a revenue bond issue for some $33,500 to connect into the township water supply lines.

The 12-inch township line is already installed at the corner of Elizabeth Lake and Cass Lake roads. The proposed main would have to be extended 3,700 feet south on Cass Lake road to the subdivision. Home owners would be charged a $100 fee to pay for the proposed bond issue.

A future meeting is planned with health officials, the subdivision association representatives, township officials and the bonding firm to seek an answer after a more thorough investigation has been made.

Residents living in the Pontiac Lake and Elizabeth Lake road area again appealed to the board to prohibit Norman D. Wilson of 7265 Pontiac Lake Rd. from operating a private dumping ground.

According to the spokesman for the group, Pete, Panoff of 7270 Pontiac Lake Rd., petitions with 170 signatures were presented to the former township board for formal action. However, it was tabled until after the election.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Elmer Johnson told the group that the board had started to investigate the matter and would come up with a solution in the near future.

The possibility of a trailer camp in the township was discussed, and board members will also look into this matter.

New Carrier to Join Atlantic Fleet

Ike to See USS Saratoga

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower will take part in training exercises aboard the new 60,000-ton aircraft carrier Saratoga off the east coast of Florida June 6-7.

Announcing this today, the President's vacation headquarters said he plans to go aboard the carrier at Mayport, Fla., its home port, possibly the evening of June 5. He will fly there from Washington.

The Saratoga is about ready to join the 60,000-ton Forrestal. The new ship is being assigned to the Atlantic.

The two carriers have so-called "angled" decks, making it possible for one group of planes to take off while another is landing.

The Saratoga has completed its shakedown cruise and is scheduled to sail from New York tomorrow for further training exercises scheduled in the Guantanamo Bay area of Cuba May 6-June 4.

The carrier then will go to its new home base at Mayport, just east of Jacksonville, Fla. At the base the ship will gets its full complement of jet aircraft.

★ ★ ★

Asked how many, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty smiled and replied:

"All I can say is quite a number."

The Saratoga will have 133 officers and 2,493 men, exclusive of between 300 and 400 men in the air group personnel. Its skipper is Capt. Robert B. Moore.

Eisenhower plans to return to Washington June 7.

Comet Visible in Evening Sky

Tail May Not Show This Week; Rapidly Fading Out

NEW YORK (AP) — A comet discovered only last November will be visible low in the northwestern evening sky for a week.

★ ★ ★

The Hayden Planetarium said each succeeding evening it will be higher, and be about as bright as the faintest of the seven stars in the Big Dipper.

★ ★ ★

The planetarium said that the comet, when last observed in February before it was lost in the glare of the sun, had a tail a few degrees long. During visibility this week, it may or may not have a tail. The planetarium said that the comet will be fading rapidly and probably will be lost to the naked eye by the middle of May.

★ ★ ★

"To astronomers," the planetarium said, "this comet is very bright, but to people who like to look at the sky even with binoculars it may be a disappointment."

★ ★ ★

The sky visitor is the Arend-Roland comet, discovered Nov. 8 by S. Arend and M. Roland, of Belgium's Royal Observatory at Uccle. The planetarium said it will not rival Halley's comet. When it will return has not been computed.

4 'Rabbit' Tots Join Egg Roll at White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was like Sunday in the park on the White House lawn yesterday as hundreds of children brought their parents along for the annual Easter egg roll.

The attendance was reported a bit off, despite bright, sunny spring weather—probably due to the fact that the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are vacationing at Augusta, Ga.

In a prominent spot facing the imposing south portico of the White House, a family of four children soon became a center of attraction, dressed in lavender and white rabbit costumes with floppy ears and each with a colorful Easter egg basket labeled "Flopsy," "Mopsy," "Cottontail" and "Peter" after the main characters in the story of Peter Rabbit.

They were the children of Mrs. Fred W. Johansen of Fairland, Md., who said she made the outfits for Bunny (that's her real name), 8, Hazel, 5, Darlene, 3, and Skippy, 22 months.

Mrs. Johansen said the children got in ahead of her while she parked the car and she ran into a brief challenge from White House guards when she sought entry because "I didn't have a kid." To get in, an adult had to be accompanied by a child.

Mrs. Johansen made it though, when she identified herself as the mother of the four rabbits.

B'nai B'rith to Hear Talk on Water Problem

Pontiac's water supply will be the topic of city manager Walter K. Willman when he appears as the speaker at Pontiac Lodge No. 850 B'nai B'rith, at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The session will be held at the Congregation B'nai Israel social hall.

Gets Service After All

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (AP)—Moses Edwards, 82, got the services of Mrs. Leola Matthews, 50, as a housekeeper after all. The widow answered a newspaper ad Edwards placed last fall but then decided she didn't want the housekeeping job. Moses was persistent and began calling on her. They were married last week.

Network Seeks Beautiful Voice

Ford Theater Reruns to Play Major Role in Summer TV

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—David O. Selznick may do a 90-minute TV version of "Duel in the Sun." Ralph Meeker opposite Jennifer?

The NBC radio network in 154 cities is seeking "the most beautiful voice in America." . . . In our salad days we'd have voted for Margaret Sullavan or Jean Arthur, or both.

You'll be up to your eyes in old Ford Theater films this summer, in place of "Lineup," Red Skelton, perhaps George Gobel and Danny Thomas . . . among others. . .

The British TV audiences tune in "I Love Lucy" in greater percentage (65 per cent) than U. S. viewers, although "Lucy" still is our top show . . .

Arthur Godfrey's son Dick has become a really popular sportscaster in San Francisco. . .

STORY OF BRISCOE

Playhouse 90's biography of Dublin's Jewish Mayor Robert Briscoe will be written by Elick Moll, who wrote the swell, tender teleplay "Sizeman and Son" for Playhouse 90. . .

"Perry Mason," due to take Gleason's place next season opposite Perry Como, has an $87,000 price tag attached. . .

Next season's programming will be awash with Westerns, crooners and mysteries.

NBC-TV is considering televising the Cotton Club Revue using the cast of the current Miami Beach show. . . It would be wonderful if they could use some of the great old songs by Harold Arlen and Rube Bloom from the original Cotton Club days.

Playhouse 90 may do Philip Barry's "Holiday," with its delicious notion of a young man who makes his fortune early and retires for the middle years, to return to work some time later. . .

LOVELY LORETTA

The "Martin Kane" TV films (made in Europe) already have been sold in a dozen cities. Bill Gargan starred. . .

Cuts Favored by Knowland

Likes Ike's Suggestions but Sees Further Need for Budget Trimming

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Senate Minority Leader Knowland (R-Calif) predicts Congress will welcome President Eisenhower's recommendations for cutting the budget, but says "I don't think they went quite far enough."

Knowland said before addressing a Republican fund-raising dinner last night that the Eisenhower suggestions would trim the budget by about $1,800,000,000, whereas the "general sentiment in Congress is for a reduction of between three and four billion dollars."

★ ★ ★

In his speech, Knowland said there has been "deep and widespread concern" over recent rises in government expenditures. He said federal tax rates are becoming an excessive burden and could "ultimately destroy our free enterprise system."

★ ★ ★

It was Knowland's first major address in his home state since announcing his retirement from the Senate. During a news conference he would not comment on whether he intends to run for governor of California or any other office.

He said he would have an announcement of his plans in the fall, but he would not reconsider running for senator when his current term expires.

Manville Has Picked Spouse Number Ten

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Romance isn't dead! Marryin' Tommy Manville, now 63, has asked blonde, six-foot showgal Pat Gaston of the "Ziegfeld Follies" to become the 10th Mrs. Manville.

★ ★ ★

"I might mull it over," Pat, a San Antonio-born beauty, says — although when Tommy asked her, she told him, "If I did, it wouldn't be for your money because after nine alimonies, you can't have any left."

PAT GASTON

"He's been a little angel," says Pat further. "I'm in flowers up to my . . . well, there are orchids all over the place. We go out in his specially-built Rolls-Royce. One night he invited us to a night club and wound up paying a check for 22 people. I genuinely like this man."

Broke for a Manville, maybe. His net worth in 1955 was $2,054,922 and his income was $74,000 a year.

Tommy, who hasn't married anybody in a year or so, got the old urge when he met Pat, who knows a lot about showgals marrying millionaires. Pat replaced Gregg Sherwood in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" when Gregg quit to marry Horace Dodge.

"He always has bodyguards with him when we go out," Pat said. "Pistols? I never noticed him carrying any. I know he only drinks coffee. I've grown genuinely fond of him."

"I'd like to be an actress but I'm too tall," she says. "They don't make leading men this tall."

★ ★ ★

Tommy frequently travels with a lawyer friend who may or may not be there just as a precaution. When one friend said to Tommy, "Are you going to start this all over again?" Tommy grinned like the Tommy of the 40's and said, "It might not be bad publicity!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Marilyn Monroe was back in the hospital undergoing maternity tests again . . . Hit Parader Dorothy Collins will pose for her first cheesecake pix . . . John Wayne has a $2,000,000 offer to host a TV series . . . England's Prince Philip is reported "unhappy" at his "prince of the realm" title — wants to be "prince consort."

EARL'S PEARLS . . . An executive's a man who doesn't have to work because he knows how to pick men who can do the job better than he can.—Glenn E. Burnell.

Netherlands Ship First to Travel Detroit River

DETROIT (INS)—The Prins Willem IV of the Netherlands today became the first foreign ship of the 1957 season to navigate the Detroit river.

Seeks Solution to Sanitary Problem

Pine Center Risks $9,000

The developers of Pine Center Subdivision, in West Bloomfield Township, agreed yesterday to "gamble" $9,000 that they have at least a temporary solution to the area's sanitary problems.

At present a system of sewer lines has been put in which ends above the beach area. They were intended to conduct the sewage effluent into a giant filter bed. However, there is a question as to whether the ground is suitable for such a bed.

Tests run so far, with strong dye, have not been conclusive. The first test at the north end of the property showed seepage onto the beach.

The developers' engineer argued at the meeting that, in the process of digging, the gravel had become clogged with silt, but would work when the filter bed was completed.

The State Health Dept. representative and the township engineer challenged him to install the bed and run chloride tests every day for a week. He agreed.

The test procedure will be set up by the state and will generally follow this formula: Water will be poured into the filter bed and common salt added. After three days of soaking, the testing will begin with some 20 samples to be taken each day at the beach and at 50 foot intervals out into Pine Lake for 300 feet along two lines.

If salt shows up in the lake or on the beach, it will be assumed that sewage would seep along the route. If no salt appears the system will get health department and township approval.

Cost of installing the filter bed is estimated at some $9,000 in addition to $12,000 for the sewer lines. Of this the residents have been asked to pay $471 each. Most have agreed, but several refused, saying the developers had guaranteed them a working sanitary system when they bought their homes.

The subdivision was originally developed with septic tanks and dry wells in most cases, but due to the clay condition of the soil, they have not worked over the past two years leading to a serious sanitation problem.

The filter bed solution has been agreed to by the health officials as "temporary", with the expectation the sewer system will one day tie into the proposed Middlebelt interceptor from Detroit.

Fight Inflation, Publishers Told

NEW YORK (AP) — William Dwight, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., said today the "threat of inflation" has become a "major concern" to the nation's newspapers.

The publishers were to meet in three executive sessions — for newspapers with circulation under 10,000; 10,000 to 50,000; and over 50,000.

Dwight, of the Holyoke (Mass.) Transcript-Telegram, told the under-10,000, group that publishers' problems are becoming "increasingly complex" each year.

★ ★ ★

"The threat of inflation is added to the 1957 list of major concerns," he said. "This system of people's capitalism we have developed in the United States, in fact our way of life, is at stake; and we newspaper publishers must apply our full powers and resources to the cause of halting the trend that can only lead to the destruction of our assets."

★ ★ ★

"There is no group in the land who can do more to fight inflation," he added.

David B. Lindsay Jr. of the Sarasota (Fla.) Herald-Tribune and Journal told the 10,000-to-50,000 session that publishers face "a constantly rising curve of costs in all the labor and materials that go into our newspapers."

Lindsay, chairman of the session, said the latest ANPA reports show that average newspaper wages and the cost of newsprint have both increased about 25 per cent since 1950.

★ ★ ★

ANPA Treasurer Mark Ferree of Scripps-Howard Newspapers, New York, said newspaper circulation and advertising volume are at an all-time high, and "so are wages paid to newspaper employes."

2 Miners Rescued in 1,000-Foot Shaft

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — A three-man rescue team found two exhausted miners last night resting at the bottom of a 1,000-foot air shaft some 12 hours after an explosive fire caused by a rock fall blocked off the mine's normal exit.

The two men, Walter Olshefski, 41, a section foreman, and Earl Hill, 33, a fire boss, made their way from the 1,500-foot level at the Glen Alden Corp.'s Inman Shaft, some 200 feet into the tunnel to the air vent before giving in to exhaustion.

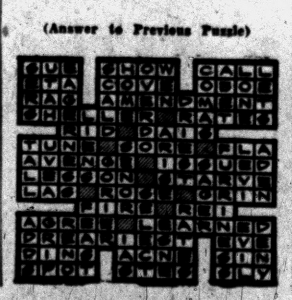

Unable to climb the steep slope to the mine cage, they were hauled on a thick plank to the top of the shaft and taken to Community General Hospital. Physicians said they were "in mild shock" but had not been injured.

Adlai Plans Visits to England, Africa

CHICAGO (AP) —Adlai Stevenson plans to visit England and Africa late this spring on business.

★ ★ ★

The twice-defeated Democratic presidential candidate yesterday said in a statement outlining the junket that he plans to go to Europe in the middle of May.

★ ★ ★

"Among other things," he said, "I will speak at Oxford University on May 24 and attend a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Encyclopaedia Britannica of England, of which I am a member."

★ ★ ★

Stevenson said he will then go to South Africa "on behalf of some American clients, returning through West Africa where I have some business to transact in the new state of Ghana."

★ ★ ★

Stevenson also confirmed reports of a pending merger of his Chicago law firm and the New York firm of Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison. He said his principal office will be in Chicago but he will also have offices in New York and Washington with his new partners.

BIRD SANCTUARIES

2. This Bird Really Lived Once

When Alice dropped down the rabbit hole into Wonderland, she met a dodo. Perhaps you think there never was such a bird. But until about 1681, dodos actually lived on a group of islands in the Indian Ocean.

Sailors who saw them have left us descriptions, and a live dodo was brought to London once. The dodo was a big fellow, almost as large as a swan, with gray feathers, white tail, yellowish white wings and a yellow, armored head. It was clumsy, and could neither fly nor swim.

Because they had been undisturbed so long, the dodos were fearless and friendly when men invaded their home. Soon they had all disappeared — become extinct.

Other birds have met a similar fate. Within much more recent times, the passenger pigeon became extinct in America. And hunters almost exterminated the beautiful egret. But today there are bird sanctuaries and laws to protect birds, so this won't happen again.

Paste this picture of Alice and the dodo on cardboard and color it. Fold the lower panels forward, and fold the picture forward on the dash lines, so it will stand up.

Auto Club to Pay Back Taxes

Supreme Court Rules State Unit Must Give Government $384,059

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Supreme Court yesterday upheld a government tax claim against the Michigan Auto Club in a test case which could have nation-wide repercussions.

The court ruled in a 5 to 3 decision, that the club must pay taxes for 1943 and 1944 of about $384,059.

Under the Michigan club's bookkeeping plan, if dues were received Nov. 1, two-twelfths would be reported in the current year and ten-twelfths in the following year.

This was done on the theory that the money was being held as a reserve to pay for services.

An American Automobile Association spokesman said that the national AAA and many state associations use the same method of reporting income and would be affected by today's decision.

The Supreme Court declared that the allocation of membership dues in monthly amounts "is purely artificial and bears no relation to the serivce which petitioner may be called upon to render for the member."

Two-Year-Old's Stroll in Philly Creates Turmoil

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— William Francis (Franny) McCoey is not quite 2, so his walk Monday morning threw his neighborhood in the Oak Lane section of Philadelphia into turmoil and confusion.

As near as anybody could reconstruct his movements—Franny climbed out of his crib at dawn, a trick he learned about a week ago.

Throdo took him to Mrs. Erna Egolf who did not recognize him. Police were called. Patrolmen picked up Franny and began a tour of the neighborhood. They picked up a teddy bear, crackers, milk and a blanket, but no clue to the youngster's identification.

★ ★ ★

At the McCoey home, Franny's parents, wondering why the child hadn't awakened them, went looking for him. They searched the yard, then called police.
