Over 31,200 Youngsters Trek Back to School

Crack Dope Ring —Kingpin Yields; Detroiters Held

NEW YORK (AP)—Harry Stromberg, alleged kingpin of a huge international narcotics smuggling ring, surrendered today in the office of U.S. Atty. Paul W. Williams, ending a search by narcotics agents.

Stromberg, alias Nig Rosen, described as a prominent rackets figure in New York City, Philadelphia and Miami, was among 46 defendants in a narcotics conspiracy indictment that was opened yesterday in the chambers of U.S. District Judge Edward Weinfeld.

He was tabbed the mastermind of an international narcotics ring netting up to 20 million dollars a year.

In surrendering, the 54-year-old Russian-born Stromberg kept a promise made through an attorney last night. The attorney contacted Williams and made arrangements for the surrender.

Narcotics agents had been searching the city for Stromberg without success.

Stromberg arrived at the federal courthouse accompanied by his attorney and immediately went to the prosecutor's office for questioning.

He was to be arraigned later before Judge Weinfeld, when he is expected to plead to the indictment and have bail determined.

Three former Detroit policemen have been named as co-conspirators but not defendants in connection with this million dollar dope ring.

The ring was reported smashed at New York yesterday when federal indictments naming 62 persons—46 defendants and 16 co-conspirators—were opened.

Federal officials said the ring smuggled up to 20 million dollars worth of narcotics into this country annually for the past seven years.

The Detroit men, who have served prison terms on narcotics charges, are Clarence E. Wilson, Henry Marzette and Williams Frank. They and nine New York men were convicted in 1956 when the Detroit segment of the ring was crushed by Detroit police and federal agents.

JUDGE HARTRICK

Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick was elected president of the Michigan Judges Assn. yesterday at a Dearborn meeting. He was first vice-president last year and has held all the other offices in the organization.

Racket Probers Mum on Progress in Detroit

DETROIT (INS) — Senate Labor Rackets Committee investigators continued today to investigate the Detroit activities of Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa, but declined to report on their progress.

Robert F. Kennedy, the committee's chief counsel, would reveal nothing. He turned down a Teamster invitation to attend a State Labor Mediation Board hearing.

Kennedy was invited by Bill Bufalino, head of Teamsters Local 985 (car washers).

Castra's Rebels Revolt in Cuba; Backed by Navy

Report Police Captured at Cienfuegos; Fighters Claim 'Batista Fallen'

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — A revolt backed by some naval units and maritime police broke out today in the central Cuban city of Cienfuegos. Fighting still is in progress.

First telephoned reports said the naval and maritime police units joined forces of rebel leader Fidel Castro and captured police headquarters. The fighting broke out shortly after dawn.

Police resisted, but Army troops stationed at Cienfuegos were said to have made no move to intervene.

Supporters of Castro were said to be thronging the streets of Cienfuegos shouting "President Batista has fallen," "Government has been taken over by military junta headed by Castro's men."

Reports from Cienfuegos said Police Chief Antonio Ruiz Beltron had refused to surrender his headquarters and ordered police to resist. They added Beltron later was seized by the rebels and his headquarters surrounded.

ARMY STAYS OUT

Cuban army troops stationed in Cienfuegos have made no move to intervene.

An aide to the army commander was reported killed in early shooting.

Cienfuegos' banks and most business establishments were closed. One Cuban there said "all authority has broken down."

A Cuban navy plane was circling Cienfuegos. Navy headquarters in Havana said it had no information of any outbreak in Cienfuegos.

Cienfuegos, a city of 60,000, lies about 200 miles southeast of Havana and is a big port for shipping sugar.

★ ★ ★

Sleeping Late Is Outlawed Until Next June

Pontiac Press Photo

DO I HAVE TO? — One of the hardest things boys and girls throughout the area will have to accustom themselves to this week is waking up in time to get to school after a three month vacation of sleeping late. Mrs. Charles Young, of 2585 Sunhill Rd., Waterford is one of many mothers who has the chore of arousing her youngsters. Debbie Ann, 8, looks on as Mrs. Young and Charles Jr., 11, (extreme right) tug at Paul, 9, who might be anxious to start school but agrees it's so hard to wake up. All three children will attend Jayno W. Adams elementary school and will enter the third, fourth and fifth grades respectively.

City, Waterford See Enrollment Reaching Peak

161 Teachers Added in Pontiac and Township as Classes Open

A freckled-faced red-haired boy with freshly scrubbed elbows and his little neighbor, a cute girl with neatly braided pigtails skipped along the street this morning on their way to prepare themselves to face the world.

They were two of more than 31,200 youngsters from 5 to 18 years expected to quench their thirst for knowledge during the 1957-1958 school year in the public and parochial schools of Pontiac and Waterford Township.

Classes for all Pontiac public schools except kindergarten officially began today.

Approximately 2,000 kindergarteners will register today and tomorrow.

Pontiac public schools are expecting an increase of more than 450 students over last year which should bring the total to 18,900. Waterford also anticipates an increase of 300, which would mean 10,300 students will attend the township schools.

The people who make hard things easier — the teachers will total at least 1,169, according to school officials.

161 NEW TEACHERS

Contracts for 83 new teachers in Pontiac and 78 in Waterford have been signed. An increase of 13 teachers in Pontiac brings the total to 742. Waterford now has 375.

Waterford junior and senior high school students began classes today. Township elementary students registered today and will officially start school tomorrow.

Two new elementary schools, located at 460 W. Kennett Rd., and 510 Bay St., will soon be ready for business.

Missing Meters Bureau Needed in Pontiac Area?

Pontiac police were almost ready to open a Bureau of Missing Meters this morning, after officer Clarence Smith found an unidentified parking meter.

Smith noticed the meter on the sidewalk, undamaged, on Mill street between Pike and Water streets.

A check disclosed no missing meter spaces in the Pontiac area, so the wandering meter's description was sent out over the Oakland County Sheriff Department's radio.

Sure enough, Keego Harbor police had filed a missing meter report last night.

Waterford Man Feared Victim

Arthur McHenry and Father-in-Law Missing in Northern Waters

A 39-year-old Waterford Township man is one of two fishermen feared drowned on Ogontz Bay near Escanaba.

Earl Bishop, 58, of Ishpeming, and his son-in-law, Arthur McHenry, of 6547 Saline Rd., were last seen yesterday morning when they left Indian Point near Escanaba.

Their 14-foot boat was found empty on the shore of St. Vital's Island, four miles off Indian Point.

Sheriff's deputies and Conservation Department men launched a sea search. Ogontz Bay is part of Big Bay de Noc.

McHenry, who is employed at Karen's Floor Shop in Drayton Plains, spends a month annually in the Escanaba area because he suffers from hay fever and asthma.

He and his wife left Aug. 23, and were living in a house trailer.

Adventurers Ready to Fly to New York

Monday can't roll around soon enough for 154 lucky adventurers.

You may scoff at this, but this Monday is going to be far from blue for the 154 who, in the very wee hours of Sept. 9, will be embarking on five fun-filled days along the sidewalks, cafes, and theaters of New York City.

The anxiety behind this year's Pontiac Press Theater Special is overwhelming. While dusting off the luggage, many to-be theatergoers are whistling show tunes and spinning their "My Fair Lady" records.

Others are scanning all the travel books they can get their hands on regarding the Big City. Which of many hundreds of famous eating spots shall we hit, they ask. "I hope Lord and Taylor has their fall fashions in," one lady was heard to remark.

Everybody has their sights set for the trek to Manhattan. Besides the numerous attractions on the itinerary The Press travelers will find plenty of free time to do up the town.

PREPARATIONS MADE

All the last minute preparations "to make this trip long to be remembered" are made, according to John A. Riley, The Press' assistant advertising manager, in charge of the tour.

Recent additions to the itinerary are tickets to a Wednesday afternoon television show, and an invitation to the ladies to visit an experimental kitchen.

Tickets to "My Fair Lady," "A Visit to a Small Planet," "Happy Hunting," "Tunnel of Love," and "The Bells Are Ringing" are awaiting the travelers.

Riley warned travelers not to forget two things: a 40 pound luggage limit per person due to air travel, and the 6 a.m. reporting time at The Press.

Guardsman Tells Reporter to 'Beat It'

Little Rock Crowd Still Shouting

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Armed National Guardsmen called out to prevent integration at Central High School today tried to break up a New York newspaperman's interview with persons in a shouting, turbulent segregationist crowd.

It was the third morning that hundreds of whites had appeared in front of the school in apparent support of Gov. Orval Faubus' conflict with a federal court order to integrate the 2,000-pupil white school immediately.

None of the nine Negroes, who were turned away by the cold steel of Guardsmen yesterday, showed up this morning.

★ ★ ★

Six Negroes, identifying themselves as Arkansas Baptist College students, were escorted from the school area. They said they came to the school to see what was happening.

A guard officer told them, "It'll be best if you turn around and walk the other way."

The Negroes complied.

Troops here this morning tried to break up interviews Ben Fine of the New York Times was holding with the crowd.

COLONEL WARNED

Fine said a colonel whom he could not immediately identify told him that, "It you do that again, you'll have to leave"—referring to interviews.

★ ★ ★

Demonstrators shouted, "He's from the North. He doesn't want the truth."

Fine continued his interviews —flanked by Guardsmen — until the colonel personally escorted him across the street and onto the campus.

Maj. Gen. Sherman T. Clinger later called a press conference behind National Guard lines to warn newsmen:

"You'll be arrested and fined if you do anything that might be inciting a breach of the peace."

It is the first time that National Guardsmen have been used to maintain segregation in schools since the U. S. Supreme Court's 1954 decision on integration. Last year, Tennessee and Kentucky Guardsmen were used to insure peaceful integration.

Other developments in the epochal test of states rights vs. federal rights in the school integration situation were:

—National Guard troops continued to guard the executive mansion of Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, who telegraphed President Eisenhower last night that federal agents planned to arrest him.

—At Newport, R. I., where the President is vacationing, presidential news secretary James Hagerty denied that federal authorities have given any consideration to arresting Faubus. Hagerty also spiked rumors that U. S. marshals and their deputies have

Shoots Himself, Dies in Hospital

Held Woman Physician at Gunpoint 10 Hours in Her Office

DETROIT (AP)—The former husband of a Detroit woman physician died yesterday of gunshot wounds in what police said was a suicide after he terrorized and shot his ex-wife.

Sym Bloch, 50, head of a Detroit commercial publishing company, died of a wound in the right temple. Doctor Sadie Thumin, 55, divorced from Bloch two years ago, was shot in the right hip.

Police said Dr. Thumin told them Bloch held her captive for 10 hours at her office yesterday and quoted Bloch as having told her "I'm going to kill myself."

Dr. Thumin said "I tried everything I could think of to delay and talk him out of it, but it didn't work."

Det. Harry Galloway said police scientific tests showed definitely that Bloch fired the gun.

The report declared the "effectiveness, safety and practicality of fluoridation as a means of preventing dental caries (cavities) is now established."

The report was based on a survey of fluoridation programs in 17 countries, some of them in progress more than 12 years.

The survey showed the "prevalence of dental caries in permanent teeth of children decreased some 60 per cent," the report said.

5-Power Talks in Deadlock

West and Russians Are Stalemated Over Plan for Disarmament

LONDON (AP) — The five-power London disarmament talks apparently were as good as over today with the usual lack of agreement. The West and the Russians were even deadlocked over who would take the initiative in ending negotiations.

Another meeting of the U. N. disarmament subcommittee was scheduled today despite the latest Soviet assertion that there was "no room for further discussion" of Western proposals.

That Soviet view was put forward last night at a Russian Embassy news briefing shortly after Valerian Zorin, the Soviet disarmament delegate, again told the subcommittee the Western proposals were not acceptable.

A Soviet spokesman told reporters there was no basis for negotiation in the package plan presented last week by the United States, Britain, France and Canada, the subcommittee's four Western members.

The Russians still demand an immediate and unconditional ban on atomic tests and the use of atomic weapons, the latter the West's only counter to the numerically superior Communist armies.

★ ★ ★

Zorin complained that the Western proposal for a two-year halt to nuclear weapon tests is "tied up in a maze of conditions which rob it of its essential value."

Wilson Agency Bought by GMT

Truck Outlet at Cass and Oakland Will Be Factory Branch

Establishment of a GMC Truck retail branch in Pontiac succeeding the Wilson GMC Company at 675 Oakland Ave., was announced today by R. C. Woodhouse, general truck sales manager for the GMC Truck & Coach Division.

Manager of the new Pontiac retail branch is Stanley R. Turner, former national used truck manager for the division.

Purchase of the Wilson truck agency, one of the most modern in the nation for GMC trucks, was made by GMC Truck & Coach when Wilson decided to devote his time to other business enterprises that needed his full attention.

Although the entire sales and service staff will remain under the new ownership, Fred Walker, agency manager and co-owner, is retiring from truck sales activity to enter other private business.

Located at Cass and Oakland avenues, the agency facilities include 16 truck service stalls, a mono-rail conveyor for lifting bulky truck parts to a balcony storage area, and a huge parts department.

STANLEY R. TURNER

Two 50-foot-wide cement driveways provide easy access to the building from both avenues.

A huge lubrication pit 50 feet long can accommodate, at one time, one 45-foot tractor-trailer combination, two medium sized trucks or three small trucks and is one of the most modern truck servicing features in the state.

One of the servicing advantages is a dust-free room for repairing Diesel injectors, and also carburetor repair.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

What are the "horse latitude" belts? Where are they and what weather characteristics do sailors know them by?

The horse latitudes, as sailors have termed them from ancient days, lie between the broad areas of prevailing westerlys and the trade winds. That is, they are found at about thirty degrees north and thirty degrees south of the equator.

The weather at this latitude, and some distance above and below the thirty degree mark, is almost always calm. It was poor weather for sailing vessels in the old days.

One theory is that air which has risen and dried out at the equator settles here—both thirty degrees north and south of the equator. The trade winds are found between the horse latitudes and the equator and come from the east. The prevailing westerlys begin where the horse latitudes end, and extend toward the poles to about latitude 60 degrees.

Seversky Calls It Best

American Airmen Praise Sleek Soviet Jet Airliner

McGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N. J. (INS) — American airmen today highly praised the sleek Soviet jet airliner which landed in New Jersey last night with 24 cases of vodka and employes of the Russian U. N. delegation.

The twin-jet TU104 touched down at McGuire Air Force Base at 9:43 p.m. (EST). The swift TU104, only type jet in commercial service anywhere, was the first Russian plane to land on American soil since World War II.

The craft made the 5,870-mile flight from Moscow in 13 hours and a few minutes air time. The total time, with fueling stops in London, Iceland and Labrador, was 21 hours, 54 minutes.

U. S. defense personnel tracked the Soviet plane by radar on the last stages of its flight, a routine procedure for all planes entering the American Air Defense.

MET HEADWINDS

The plane battled strong headwinds most of the way and landed in a sprinkle of rain at McGuire.

Another TU104, presumably bringing the head of the Soviet delegation to the forthcoming U. N. General Assembly, will arrive in this country next week.

Three American Air Force men boarded the TU104 at Goose Bay, Labrador, to help the Russian crew with U. S. flight rules and signals.

They were Capt. Harold G. Renegar, 33, of Keller, Texas; Capt. Boris N. Dubson, of San Francisco, and M. Sgt. Gaylor E. Robinson, 33, of Marietta, Ga.

Renegar described the craft as "a fine airplane." He said he was particularly impressed with the interior. "It compares very favorably with interiors in our planes."

Dubson handled the radar on the Soviet craft.

"It (the radar) was better in some ways and not so good in some other ways as ours," he said, adding, "it's a terrific airplane. There's no doubt about it."

Aircraft designer and builder Alexander P. DeSeversky looked at the Russian plane and declared, "At the moment, it's the best."

Seversky, a consultant of the U. S. Air Force, added:

"We must admit they are ahead of us . . . at the moment. But it is interesting to know in the planning stage we have much better."

The plane swept in out of the darkness with engines slow but screaming. It taxied to the floodlighted apron in front of the operations building where hundreds of newsmen and Air Force personnel were waiting.

On its silver side, in Russian, was the name Aeroflot, the Russian National Airline which operates the plane. And on its swept-back tail was painted a bright red flag embossed with a gold hammer, sickle and star.

Detroit gambler Earl E. Atwood left a downtown Detroit hotel just an hour before the time police figure he was killed and dumped in Waterford Township last Thursday.

This was the latest development by police following the discovery of Atwood's body Friday morning in the yard of the Airport Ready-Mix and Building Supply Co., 3770 Airport Rd.

He had been shot in the head.

A witness has told Detroit police that Atwood was seen in a Michigan Avenue bar last Wednesday and Thursday.

Police say he checked in and out of the Hotel Eddystone, on Park Avenue, Detroit, twice within the two-day period.

Oakland County Sheriff's detectives and Waterford Township police are cooperating with Detroit police in the investigation. They are confident now that Atwood spent all but his last hour in Detroit, and was hiding from someone.

Waterford Police Capt. Millard Pender said today that Atwood made three phone calls while at the hotel, calling his home once and his brother, Raymond, twice.

Atwood left his home last Monday, ostensibly to visit his mother in Indianapolis. His brother said Atwood did not seem worried.

Start Back to School in City, Waterford

school, which will accommodate more than 300 children, delayed by a slow-up in sewer and water line connections to the school, has been set tentatively for Monday.

The fortunate students who will attend a brand new $438,500 school in the Herrington Hills subdivision will have to wait until early October before they can move in.

They will attend Willis and Mark Twain Schools temporarily beginning today until the new school, which will hold 360 students, is ready for occupation.

Two new primary institutions of learning will be ready for business in Waterford tomorrow. The new elementary schools are the Henry R. Schoolcraft School, on Maceday Lake drive near Williams Lake road, and the William Beaumont School on Elizabeth Lake road near Lockhaven road.

Another $2 million junior high school is under construction on Hatchery Road near Crescent Lake road, and should be ready for operation by next September according to William Shunck, superintendent of Waterford schools.

Pontiac's Central, McCarrol, Lebaron and Emerson elementary schools will have cafeterias in the multi-purposes rooms this fall for the first time.

Students at the Hawthorne, Willis and Malkim schools in Pontiac are requested to bring their own lunches temporarily until the cafeterias in these schools are ready.

History was recorded today when Pontiac High School swung into a three-shift program for the first time.

Francis W. Staley, principal of the high school, today estimated there would be an increase of more than 400 high school students this year compared to last year.

The switch from the single shift operation was dictated by increased enrollment when more than 1,000 students will enter grade 10B.

The three shifts will be staggered one hour apart. Some students will start at 7:30 a.m. and leave at 2:30 p.m.; some 8:30 to 3:30, and others 9:30 to 4:30.

"By staggering the load, we will make additional rooms available," Staley added. Five more teachers have been added to the high school staff.

St. Frederick's High School students began the school year this morning with mass at 8 a.m. Approximately 350 students are expected to attend the secondary school. The elementary classes, first through eighth, will begin tomorrow morning with an anticipated enrollment of 500.

The number of students expected to attend St. Michaels school is a slight increase over last year. Officials report at least 700 boys and girls will attend grades one through 12 this year. Seniors will have the opportunity to enroll in solid geometry and trigonometry this fall. This is the first time these courses have been offered at St. Mike's.

Fifteen more students will attend St. Trinity Lutheran School, grades kindergarten through eighth this fall, bringing the total to to 100. Principal P. F. Stohlman reports a new school which will accommodate 140 is now under construction and is expected to be ready by November 1.

The Emmanuel Christian School, including students in kindergarten through the 12th grade, already had an enrollment this morning of 265, an increase of 20 over last year's figures.

Air Force Transport Lands Short at Field, Bursts Into Flames

A former Ferndale man and eight other Air Force crewmen escaped death when their Globemaster transport crashed and burned while landing at an airport near Binghampton, N. Y. last night.

★ ★ ★

Capt. William Sneed, 36, the co-pilot, is the son of Mrs. Marie A. Spencer, of 113 S. Maple Ave., Royal Oak. Stationed at Larson Air Force Base, Washington, Sneed suffered face, body and head lacerations and was reported in fair condition.

★ ★ ★

He reported to the Air Force how the transport, flying from Larson AFB, landed short at Broome County Airport, broke up and burst into flames.

Five aboard the plane, including Sneed, got out of the wreckage themselves. The other four were pulled out by an airport crew.

Married and with two children, the co-pilot telephoned his wife after the accident, saying he luckily was "the least hurt of the crew," his mother said.

Sneed is a native of Ferndale. He lived with his mother at 931 W. Lewiston and graduated from Lincoln High School.

He has been in the Air Force since his original enlistment in 1942. He saw combat in Europe during World War II.

Maple-Bates Alley Issue Facing 2nd Long Study

BIRMINGHAM — Plans for the Maple-Bates alley took a nosedive this week and the situation is now just about where it was when the issue came up.

The resolution approving the necessity has been rescinded and the alley now faces another extensive period of study.

It was approved by Commissioners in spite of a majority of property owners' objections. Officials felt that even though there are some undesirable aspects, the alley was justified as a traffic relief feature for Maple avenue.

Currently, a study has shown that the S. S. Kresge Building can, with minor changes, make use of the alley. Their lack of participation has been one of the sore spots with other property owners who felt the cost would be greatly reduced with the company's inclusion.

Commissioners now are planning to review records of all past discussions and actions, further study on the site and a complete new program of setting up the alley's construction.

Held on forgery charges by Birmingham Police, Robert Daniel Lawson, 25, of no known address, has waived examination and is bound over to circuit court. Bond has been placed at $10,000.

Police said Lawson is a parole violator in Detroit, on the same charge. He was arrested in Birmingham after he allegedly stole a check from D. F. Cooper, 1857 Washington Blvd., by whom he was employed. The man reportedly cashed the check locally.

Det. Lt. Merlin Holmquist said Lawson also had stolen four tires and sold them to a friend.

Robert Girardin, recreation director for the city, announced this week that there is an opening in his department. He said to qualify for the position of recreation supervisor, a person should hold a college major or minor in the field of recreation.

The position would include assisting in programming the ice rink, along with other winter activities, and take general supervisory assignments in the overall program.

City Manager L. R. Gare has received approval on his request for an appropriation of $12,700. The money will be used for the purchase of outlot "B" of the Quarton Lakes Estates.

Development of the land will be taken over by the city, partly as a flood control measure along the Rouge.

Assistant City Manager Robert Kenning has been named to represent the city of Birmingham on the South Oakland County Garbage and Rubbish Authority.

City Manager L. R. Gare will serve as alternate.

No Decision Reached on Hospital Appeal

No decision has been handed down by the Michigan Supreme Court on the appeal of six Pontiac General Hospital doctors that the hospital be prohibited from enforcing certain disputed regulations there.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman for the court said the case was heard yesterday. A decision might be made either today or tomorrow on whether the six plaintiffs will be granted a show cause order against the hospital.

★ ★ ★

The doctors, Roy V. Cooley, Robert W. Albrecht, Douglass A. Haddock, Maolin Han, Rodman C. Jacobi, Leonard Blackwell, claim the medical staff's by-laws deprive them of unrestricted surgical privileges.

★ ★ ★

The defendants say the rules are necessary to protect the general public's health, welfare and safety.

Marriage Washed Up After 12 Dry Years

CLEVELAND (AP) —Common Pleas Judge Felix T. Matia has heard all kinds of complaints in divorce cases but even he was startled to hear a man testify that his wife has denied him the use of the family bathtub for the past 12 years.

Eugene S. Klepek, 41, told the judge that he was forced to bathe in the basement laundry tubs because his wife would become infuriated "if I left a towel out of place or dripped water on the floor."

Not Being Friendly, Just Wants Off Roof

UNIONVILLE, Mich. (AP) — For some time Harry Beantenhead waved his red bandanna from a farmer's roof.

Passing motorists, acquaintances of Beantenhead, waved back cheerily.

At last a stranger stopped to inquire.

New Civil Rights Bill Moderate and Practical

The Civil Rights Bill passed by Congress and awaiting the President's signature is significant and practical.

It aims principally at protecting the right to vote as guaranteed in the 15th Amendment. The Attorney General is empowered to undertake suits on behalf of persons deprived of voting rights and this means that for the first time the authority of the United States will be a factor.

★ ★ ★

Defendants are provided with the right of jury trial in serious cases of criminal contempt involving voting rights and Federal judges are assured strong civil powers to enforce compliance with their orders. The new Civil Rights Commission will be empowered to hold hearings, subpoena witnesses and make recommendations.

This measure is the first Civil Rights Bill to be passed by both Houses since 1875 and insures that the right to vote shall "not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude."

Although the bill falls short of of what some Americans had hoped for, it still marks an advance. The Republicans were led by the President, Vice-President Nixon, Sen. Knowland and Rep. Martin. Sen. Lyndon Johnson was successful in preventing a bitter split in the Democratic party, although this required serious compromises on the part of Northern Democrats.

Sen. J. STROM THURMOND'S filibuster came at a time when the leaders of both the Senate and House were in full agreement on the bill. His talkathon put a strain on everyone, particularly some of his Southern colleagues who have approached the civil rights issue with realism and restraint.

The life long fight on the part of the Democratic South to keep Negroes in complete subjugation is being broken down. This bill marks an important step forward.

Passage of this Civil Rights measure appears to be the outstanding accomplishment of this session of the 85th Congress.

School Boards Should Be Economical as Possible

During the current summer, two national magazines have printed articles suggesting that new school buildings should be planned on more modest proportions than has been the custom in many places.

★ ★ ★

This does not mean that educational centers have to be hovels or dreary places. It does recognize that the taxpayers of the country are unanimously crying for assistance and they deserve it. School costs have been a very real part of the overall tax picture and certainly the end isn't in sight. Populations are growing rapidly, and especially in this area.

That means more children.

More children mean more schools.

Nothing has a more sentimental appeal to the average citizen than a school for the young people. At the same time, with the nation under the huge burden it bears today, all school boards everywhere must keep costs sharply in mind and provide the maximum amount of space with the dollars that are available.

ABOUT 5,000 babies an hour are flocking to this world. They are too young to know better.

"LAUGHING is good for the lungs," declares a physician. You might strengthen your lungs considerably by making it a policy of laughing at your troubles.

A Haven of Health

Facts Show That Our Area Is a Good Place to Live

Drug store: Where they now humbly apologize if they're out of bicycles or tractors.

Again the Pontiac area comes through with figures to prove that we are living in a health center. Figures from the Michigan Department of Health show that in a year the new cases of tuberculosis found in the state were 47 for each 100,000 population. In Wayne County it was 73. In Oakland County, 24.

With several Pontiac City officials attending the annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League at Mackinac City, I wonder if my good friend, and his city's chief booster, of Flint, is there. His commission turned down the proposition to pay his expenses, and mayors of other Michigan cities have been taking up a collection for him. He used to say Pontiac is the second best city in the world. Have you elevated us a notch, George?

Mayor George A. Algoe

When the golden celebration is over, I like the words of

One of Life's Little Mysteries!

David Lawrence Says:

U. S. Can't Interfere in Arkansas

WASHINGTON—Where the Federal power begins and ends and where the powers of the states begin and end is dramatically illustrated in the conflict which has arisen in Arkansas.

LAWRENCE

For there is no right under the Constitution whereby the Federal marshals or the Federal courts can tell the governor of a state that he cannot call out state troops to maintain order and prevent violence.

LAWS VAGUE

The Constitution says that the authority of the United States shall be employed within a state to protect the people "against domestic violence" only when the legislature makes application or when the governor applies in the event that the legislature is not in session.

The preservation of order is thus a state function. For any Federal marshals to be ordered into Arkansas to prevent the governor from carrying out his state responsibility in maintaining order would be a flagrant violation of the Constitution. It would be the proclamation of a dictatorship by the Federal government.

The issue in Arkansas, however, is not merely the preservation of order or the prevention of domestic violence. The Federal judge has issued an order the effect of which is to open the public schools to Negroes. His order, in effect, prohibits discrimination on the ground of race or color.

COURT CAN PUNISH

If the school authorities in Little Rock accept in good faith the fact that Negroes must be admitted when they apply, the Federal court can punish anyone who actually interferes with the decision made by the school board. But what is "interference"?

In the Clinton, Tenn., cases it was argued by the defendants that free speech no longer prevailed and that a court order abolished the right to speak. The judge apologized from the bench for the breadth of his order and endeavored to limit punishment to those who had actually interfered with the integration process in a direct way.

The actual scope, however, has not been passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States. It remains to be seen whether parents of white children meeting with other parents of white children to boycott attendance at a school constitutes "interference" or the exercise of a right of parents to choose the schools which their children attend.

The governor of Arkansas has the right to determine in the first instance whether law and order prevails in his state. A Federal court order banning segregation can continue to be in force, but its effective date of operation depends on when the state authorities decide that it is permissible to open the schools and allow the normal procedures to be operative.

The assumption that, the moment a state governor calls out troops to maintain order, he is violating a Federal court order and can be held for "contempt" is an exaggeration of federal power and would not stand up when taken to the higher courts.

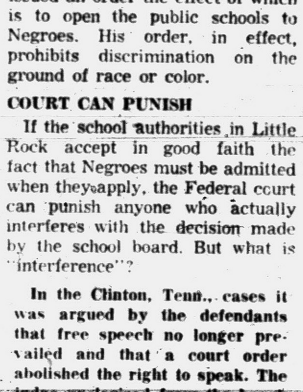

For if it were to be held by any court that the governor of a state cannot maintain order locally and must indeed close his eyes to possible violence whenever a Federal injunction of any kind is issued, the entire state machinery could be disrupted. There would be no way of fixing responsibility for any tragic events that might follow.

Until matters calm down and the legal question as to what does or does not constitute "interference" with "integration" is determined, no possible good can come from such impulsive action as is being suggested by some members of Congress here—namely, arresting the governor for contempt.

The issues are novel and the need for respecting the constitutional rights of the states as well as of individuals is a subject not for hasty action by Department of Justice lawyers but for orderly litigation through the customary channels.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Spot Signs of Mulnutrition in Brittle, Ridged Nails

The condition of the fingernails and toenails is discussed on page 6 of the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks, available free if you ask for it in writing, signed, and provide stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DR. BRADY

It takes nearly four months to grow a nail, and so a serious injury or illness or malnutrition shows its effect on the condition and appearance of the nails in two months—hardly in less than a month.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE

The effects of these things (serious illness or injury or ill-advised restriction of diet) are brittleness, ridging, pitting or cracking of the nails.

The application of so-called "nail polish" spoils the appearance of the nails—just as it would injure the skin or the hair—because it dissolves the natural oil out of the nails.

An adequate daily intake of the following nutritional elements is essential to maintain good nutrition in general and a healthy condition of skin, hair and nails:

Calcium, phosphorus, iodin, vitamin D, thiamin (B-1) and riboflavin (B-2.)

Under the autocratic control of our food supply it is very difficult for Americans to get adequate amounts of these elements from food—especially those who spend most of their leisure time on their ischial tuberosities.

For this reason, I recommend vitamin D and B complex as a supplement which, if eaten every day, will make good some of the deficiencies of our everyday diet.

Please remember it will take two or three months of this to improve the condition of the skin, hair and nails.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Case Records of a Psychologist

These Tests May Stop Squabbles

Myrna decided she should seek a divorce on the grounds of "mental cruelty." But she found the shoe was on the other foot, after she took the objective "Marriage Tests" described below. Many Judges of Divorce Courts have used them to jolt such biased mates out of their wrong notions. They apply to old marriages as well as new ones.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-382: Myrna L., aged 23, has been married about a year.

"Dr. Crane, I think I made a mistake," she announced self-righteously.

"My husband has a hot temper and he is very quarrelsome. Several times he has criticized me unmercifully.

"And twice he has used such strong language on me that I don't dare repeat it.

"So I feel it would be unwise to go on with our marriage. I certainly wouldn't want to rear any children in this kind of an environment."

"Don't you think we are incompatible? Could I get a divorce on the grounds of mental cruelty?"

MYOPIC MATES

A lot of married folks are biased. They have had a warped or abnormal home life, so they don't know how the rest of the world actually lives.

Family quarrels are not unusual even in the best regulated homes.

And the Iowa Supreme Court recently ruled that husband-wife spats are a normal part of marriage and must be put up with!

But they can often be reduced in number, as well as severity, by using a little common sense based on a better understanding of marital relations.

For example, Myrna was a spoiled "only" child of doting parents. She had attended a girls' boarding school and then a girls' college.

So she had missed the scoldings and quarrels which other girls experience who grow up in a family of brothers.

★ ★ ★

Thus, her husband's violent language would not have unduly ruffled the complacency of a woman who had been battered and bawled out by a couple of brothers throughout childhood.

BLIND MEN OF HINDUSTAN

Remember the Five Blind Men of Hindustan who visited their first circus? When they met the elephant, one seized his tusk. Another ran his fingers over the trunk. A third grasped his tail, etc.

That night they got into a hot debate as to the nature of elephants. The one who had grasped his tusk, maintained vehemently that elephants were like a spear. The second argued just as heatedly that they were like a snake. The third insisted an elephant was a rope, etc.

Well, they were partly correct, but largely wrong just because their experience with elephants hadn't involved even five per cent of that pachyderm.

So it is with life! If you come from an unusually sheltered and limited social environment, you can be as mistaken as Myrna, who self-righteously thought she was 100 per cent right and her husband 100 per cent as wrong.

★ ★ ★

So I gave her my 200-point "Tests for Successful Husbands & Wives." She rated her husband's 50 virtues or "merits" and his 50 faults or "demerits."

When she had finished, she was surprised to find that he came out with a "Superior" score.

Then I asked her to rate herself on the "Wife's Test." She did, and when she was through she found, to her shock, that she was only "Average."

PSYCHIC "EYE GLASSES"

These helpful Marriage Tests serve as psychological "eye glasses" to let you see your family relations more objetcively.

"Myrna, I didn't make up those 200 test items," I warned her. "They are the actual statements of 600 happily married wives.

"So, if you rate only 'Average,' that means you better try to improve your score.

"Many Judges of Divorce Courts have used these Marriage Tests to help jolt litigants out of their biased viewpoints, so why don't you go back home and try to improve your marital batting average in the next six months."

Send for those "Marriage Tests," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents. They may help you salvage your marriage before it is too late.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Voice of the People

Press Makes Exception for Two Unsigned Gripes

The Press does not print anonymous letters. We run anonymous signatures, but we require the writer to sign his name as evidence of good faith. Anyone who is afraid or ashamed to sign his correspondence is too cowardly to bother about. However, we're making an exception with two letters which came in the same mail. Two blasts the same day deserve recognition. This is the first:

★ ★ ★

"Miracle of miracles. To think The Press has finally permitted a letter to be printed that tells the truth about downtown Pontiac. Everything that Hal Higgins said is true, plus a lot more. Downtown Pontiac is a disgrace.

"It will continue to be true until The Pontiac Press does something about it. Give it more publicity, pictures, names, contests. Anything that will keep the readers interested.

"Quit pussy-footing around. Call a spade a spade. It might be worth while if you did step on a few persons' toes and hurt some feelings if it will help accomplish something."

Long Time Pontiac Resident

★ ★ ★

We can assure the writer that whatever we do accomplish will be done pleasantly, openly and without the aid of a poison pen.

And here's the second unsigned diatribe:

"Twould seem to me you have lost your claim to be a 'first class' paper with your publication on mixed marriages. Grow up! Your anti-Catholic element cannot be that important to you.

"Aren't our Pontiac daughters worthy of as much publicity and picture space as the Booth daughter?"

A Patron of Yours for Many Years, but Fast Fading From That Category

★ ★ ★

The Booth daughter's picture was printed at a time when her own family newspaper was out on strike and it seemed to be a friendly and gracious thing to do. We have run many, many Pontiac brides three columns. We recall one that was four.

★ ★ ★

As this patron "fast fades from that category," we express regret. We want everyone in the area to take and like The Press. But as some solace and consolation, may we humbly report that in spite of this loss, our circulation yesterday was 178 more than it was the day before. It looks as though we'll survive.

Outlines Causes of World's Woes

Billy Graham can name a good many causes for the world's woes. The right path to the river of life leads up over the seven surmountable hills called pride, covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony, envy and sloth.

'Can't Blame Kids if Adults Do This'

What's happening to people? The other day after tin can collection our old container was left at the curb so we could use it again. Before we could take it from the curb, a man and a boy come and picked it up without even asking. Why do people want to be so petty? The value of it isn't important, but it seems people can't be trusted to leave anything alone. If this man does that to us, he must do it to other people.

They blame teenagers for all kinds of things that happen, but when they have examples such as this set by adults, what can we expect?

Ike Explains No Tax Cut

Eisenhower says Congress didn't cut appropriations enough to justify a tax reduction. Well, whose fault is that?

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Either Ike or Arkansas Must Soon Back Down

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Someone has to back down on this one: President Eisenhower or Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas.

If Faubus gets away with what he's doing — using National Guardsmen to keep Negroes from a school ordered integrated by a federal judge — every Southern governor could feel free to do the same.

This would make a farce of the Supreme Court's ban on public school segregation. It would mean a breakdown of the federal government's power to carry out the law.

For almost 40 months since the court's ruling, Eisenhower has treated Southern resistance to integration with patience and platitudes. It seemed likely he could go on doing that as he prepared this week for a long vacation.

Some disturbances might occur at newly integrated schools opening this week. But that had happened before and there was no crisis. There appeared no reason to expect a crisis now. Then Faubus supplied it.

★ ★ ★

What he did he did twice.

Before a Little Rock high school opened this week federal Judge Ronald Davies had ordered it integrated. But when it opened Faubus had National Guardsmen there to keep Negroes out.

The school board, willing to enroll the Negroes but unable to do so because of the troops, asked Judge Davies what to do next. Again he ordered the school integrated. Again Faubus used the troops to keep Negroes out.

He said he wasn't defying the court but only trying to keep peace and order. One thing was certain: he was not cooperating with the court to carry out its order; he was obstructing the carrying out of that order.

He would have been cooperating if he had used the troops to prevent any interference with the Negro children who wanted to go to the school. Instead, he used the troops to bar the children who were neither disturbing the peace nor creating disorder.

Eisenhower is staying in the background so far, letting the judge and the Justice Department headed by Atty. Gen. Brownell, do the acting for the government. But the ultimate responsibility for whatever is done rests on Eisenhower.

Brownell has ordered the FBI to investigate the Little Rock situation and report to Judge Davies. That could pave the way for contempt of court action against Faubus if the administration is willing to force Faubus' hand. Faubus himself, in a telegram to Eisenhower, said he understood plans were being discussed to take him into custody by force.

If Faubus backs down, he stands the chance of looking ridiculous. He's the first Southern governor to try anything like this. If he wasn't willing to see it through, he simply created a national disturbance needlessly.

If Faubus stands firm and the judge wants to bring him to court to face contempt charges, what happens? The governor has stationed National Guardsmen around his mansion, and U.S. marshals could hardly force him to face the judge if he doesn't want to.

★ ★ ★

If he refused to go, what would happen then? Somewhere along this line Eisenhower — provided he's willing to take a stand and back up the judge—may try in one way or another to persuade Faubus to back down as gracefully as he can.

Eisenhower who has never said he approved the Supreme Court's decision, has nevertheless repeatedly said he would back up the court's ban on segregation if he had to.

It isn't clear what Eisenhower's next step would be if Faubus ignored efforts at persuasion and, if ordered before the judge, refused to go. It's possible he might order the National Guardsmen into federal service to take control of them away from Faubus.

They are under Faubus's control unless the President calls them out for one of three reasons: to repel invasion, quell insurrection, or enforce the laws.

★ ★ ★

The Guardsmen are paid by the federal government for drills and summer training but they are paid by the state government—as they are now—when the governor calls them out to handle a situation within a state.

Little Girl's Call Saves Movie Man

DRIFT, Ky. (AP) — A little girl didn't know it at the time but she probably saved Earl Turner's life during a rainstorm.

Turner was standing outside his theater when the girl telephoned to ask when the movie would start.

He told her 7:15 then reeled back from a blinding flash of lightning.

Leaving the box office, Turner dashed outside to the spot where he had been standing and found a 75-pound piece of limestone, knocked from the roof by lightning.

Jukebox Operator's Body Discovered

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The beheaded body of a man found in a wooded area on a farm near Springfield last night was identified as a missing 33-year-old jukebox and pinball machine operator.

Police said the victim was James DeRosa, who disappeared Aug. 19 after telephoning his wife he was on his way home.

Police said they were unable to establish any motive for the slaying immediately. They said relatives of DeRosa told them he was carrying about $1,500 when he disappeared. Only a few small coins were found on the body.

★ ★ ★

Police said DeRosa had been married twice and had two children by each marriage.

Coating Kills Germs

HARTFORD, Conn.—A Connecticut firm has introduced a long-lasting antiseptic plastic coating material. The semipermanent germicidal coating is brushed, dipped or sprayed onto telephone hand sets, toilet seats, flush levers, tops of tin cans, and similar objects. It can be applied to metal or plastic for about 8 cents a square foot.

New Salt Field Found

NEW GLASGOW, N.S.—A new salt field in Nova Scotia is expected to yield bacteria-free salt which can be used in Canada's vast fishing industries.

California leads in the number of auto registrations with about 5 million.

Hongkong Reporters Loaf

By FRED SPARKS

HONG KONG (NEA) — The highly publicized mission of 24 U. S. reporters to Red China is like a new show that bogs down while being tried out in Philadelphia and will never reach Broadway.

I am one of the cast stranded in Hong Kong and since the Peiping spokesman has rejected us as the editors of "Confidential" would reject an article on Persian rug-making, I have interviewed British and American officials here, Chinese (Red and White) and other foreigners recently tourists inside the neighboring prison-state.

SPARKS

Spicing their opinions with a bit of my own, formulated during 12 years of commuting to Asia, here is what I think on how the situation stands today:

Some of us 24 rejects will eventually be admitted, certainly not all. Reporters representing media other than the 24 will get fresh dinner invitations from Peiping.

It will be some time before any American journalist stamped "Okay, John Foster Dulles" gets any closer to mainland China than Hong Kong's Perfumed Winds tearoom.

Why? Because the Peiping government would lose face if it in any way appeared to play catcher for Washington's pitch.

In the same way, our government could not officially permit U. S. newsmen invited by Peiping last year to accept.

We can't let dictator Mao Tse-tung select particular American correspondents to report his country; he can't agree to the Dulles selections.

Those of us who hustled across the Pacific when the State Department agreed to lift travel restrictions walked into our own booby trap. The slightest study of Chinese Communist bargaining methods would have stopped us before we fastened our seat belts.

If our Air Force parachuted millions of silver chopsticks onto Red China, the Communists would order everyone to eat with knives and forks.

There is no possible concession Dulles could have made that would have won all or part of our cast's immediate entrance. A little parlaying here, a concession there, and even an occasional insult are all in order, like a case being settled out of court.

Already give-and-take is beginning, like the endless monotony of the Panmunjom peace talks that — after two years — finally notarized the document that ended the Korean killing.

Chinese Communists said they demand reciprocity, the right to have their own reporters go to Washington, although to call anyone working for a Communist paper a "reporter" is like calling a tiger in the Bronx Zoo a citizen of New York.

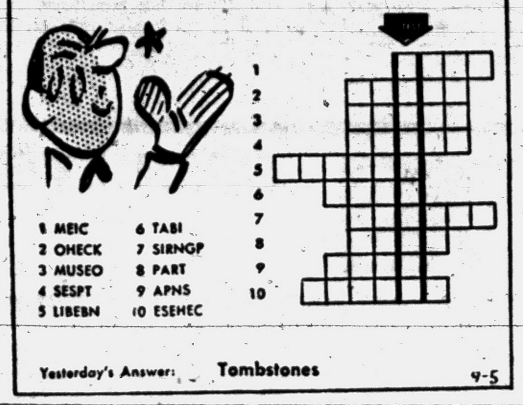

Well, at first Dulles said absolutely no. Then he "indicated" he would entertain requests from the Chinese Communist "reporters." So diplomatic step No. 3 — one step forward and two steps back — is under way like a well-rehearsed ballet.

There will be a compromise. The male penguin violently fights the female penguin for weeks before they mate.

Waiting fat and cozy here in Hong Kong, I am reminded again that correspondents always try to enter places everyone else is trying to get out of. The beautiful hills surrounding the harbor like a champagne goblet are pocked with the pathetic shacks of refugees. Red China leaks exiles like a wounded man leaks blood. Those killed are fortunate, those dragged back into the prison state face refined tortures. Meanwhile the correspondents here sample the delights of Hong Kong — where a scotch-and-soda is 30 cents.

Fete Couple Setting Up 50 Millionth Household

WASHINGTON (AP) — A young Washington area couple gets government recognition today for setting up the 50 millionth U. S. household.

★ ★ ★

Actually, nobody knows whether their $14,750 three-bedroom rambler is the 50 millionth home. The Housing and Home Finance Agency said it selected Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Lawless of nearby Vienna, Va., as symbols of the housing milestone.

★ ★ ★

HHFA Administrator Albert M. Cole arranged to present a certificate to the couple at a midafternoon ceremony at their home, purchased with an FHA loan.

Northeast Part of Nation Chilled by Cold Wave

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clear and cool weather prevailed over most of the northeast quarter of the country today but it was warm and a little wet in southern areas.

★ ★ ★

Clearing skies and diminishing winds brought further temperature drops in the cool belt during the night. Readings were mostly in the 50s, with 40s reported in the Great Lakes region. Near freezing temperatures were reported in sections of the Rockies.

★ ★ ★

In the southeast and from New Mexico through Texas, warm weather continued with temperatures in the 70s. Readings were higher in the southwest desert region, near 90 after another day of 100-plus marks. Yesterday's top was 111 at Yuma, Ariz.

★ ★ ★

Light showers that sprinkled New England moved eastward into the Atlantic. Showers and thundershowers were reported in scattered areas from the Dakotas southward through Kansas.

Light showers were forecast in northern New England. More thundershowers were in prospect in the southeast Atlantic and Gulf Coast states and westward through Texas and Arizona and northward through the northern plains.

Report OK of Formula for Red Visit to U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune said today it learned that Secretary of State Dulles has agreed to a formula of visa certificates for some visitors from nonrecognized Iron Curtain countries to come to the United States.

★ ★ ★

A Washington dispatch by Marguerite Higgins to the newspaper said the certificates would be for Red Chinese journalists, Olympic Games athletes and others fro nonrecognized Iron Curtain countries to visit the United States "where special circumstances warrant such trips."

The letter has a stamp all right, duly canceled by the Trenton Post Office, but it's an S & H green trading stamp, rather than a government issue. The stamps have a redemption value, but not with Uncle Sam.

Stripper Lili St. Cyr Plans to Manage G-String Girls

SAN FRANCISCO (INS) — Seeking a career, dear? See Lili St. Cyr.

The queen of non-clothes horses is starting her own stable of strippers.

When Lili decides to take her baths at home instead of before an audience she plans to manage, advise and design G-strings for the "Lili St. Cyr girls" fan dancers fanned across the nation.

Of course, this is a long range project. Lili disclosed her plans while peeling at The Village in San Francisco and before packing her bubble bath for appearances in Phoenix and Las Vegas.

Still, one of these days Lili will sit back and rock while her proteges roll.

★ ★ ★

So here's a chance for more extroverted career-seekers. Life behind the blue lights puts the green in your pocketbooks. But a girl can't just take off her clothes and be in the striptease business, Lili warns. The career involves hard work and hazard.

Ambition is the most important qualification, stresses Lili, who assumes that any girl seriously considering baring all will have a figure worth uncovering.

The blonde stripper, who undulates 5 feet 9 inches of curves—38-26-38—through a series of sophisticated undressings, weighs 130 pounds wearing only her long black gloves.

★ ★ ★

Good health is also necessary. Lili's bathtub act makes her the cleanest gal in show business but it also makes her susceptible to a sneeze. And in drafty nightclubs, the blue tinge doesn't come from the lighting effects.

On some northern tours, she appeared with enough goose pimples to satisfy a censor's cover-up demands.

Negotiate Pay Raises for Railroad Engineers

CHICAGO (AP)—Pay raises ranging from 6 to 49 cents daily have been negotiated with 65 railroad for locomotive engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen announced last night.

H. E. Gilbert, brotherhood president, said the agreement signed yesterday supplements a three-year contract signed last Nov. 20. Engineers received across the board increases of $2.12 daily and fiveday a week employes, $2.40 under contract terms.

Hal Boyle Says:

'Star Spangled Banner' Tops Hit Parade

NEW YORK (AP)—The chances are that, if asked to name the tune played most often in public in the last 10 years, you'd name the wrong one.

The right answer is "The Star Spangled Banner."

"It is played at least 225,000 times a month on radio and TV stations alone," said Israel Diamond, a slender, bald, 40-year-old accountant who is one of America's leading song statisticians.

Diamond is the logging director of Broadcast Music, Inc. His job is to find out how often each of the 150,000-plus BMI songs are played so that the composers or publishers who own the copyright can be paid.

This task, little understood by the public, is vitally important to the "June and moon" rhymers, a large chunk of whose income comes from the nation's radio and TV stations.

The work falls into two parts. A composer gets three cents from each station every time his tune is played over a TV or radio network. This is easy to figure out as the networks keep a complete list of every tune played.

Thus if you've written a tune entitled "It's Hard to Stay Straight When you Love a Wobbly-Hearted Girl," and a 150-station network plays it only once you'd get $4.50.

The difficulty lies in checking the country's 3,000 radio stations when they play music on nonnetwork or local programs. A tune played once on a local program nets the composer two cents.

Since it would be uneconomic to check them all each month a scientific sampling is made of 100 stations. Each lists all tunes it played in that period.

Diamond and a staff of 50 logging editors then go over the lists and pick out the BMI tunes. Coded cards for the tunes are then put into data machines which electronically add and multiply the figures from the scientific sample to reckon the final payment.

This Guy's All Wet

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The fire department said Paul Protzman turned up the heat in his apartment to dry some clothes. The heat touched off an automatic fire sprinkler. Protzman's clothes got all wet again and the water leaked down through another apartment into a photography studio and a beauty shop.

High, Low Spots Close

OAKLAND — High and low points in the U. S. are within 60 miles of each other in California where Mount Whitney rises 14,496 feet above sea level and Death Valley sinks 276 feet below it.

Small A-Reactor Costs $55,000

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP) — A miniature nuclear reactor that can be operated by one man has been developed for use in school, medical and industrial laboratories. The price: $55,000.

★ ★ ★

Its developers, Atomics International, a division of North American Aviation, Inc., said the reactor is cylindrical, eight feet high and eight feet in diameter. Its core is a stainless steel sphere containing a solution of uranyl sulfate.

★ ★ ★

The reactor, which can be installed without special facilities, is designed to be used to make demonstrations and conduct experiments.

Pipesmokers to Puff for National Honors

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — Pipe smokers will puff it out here Sunday for the 1957 championship.

The title goes to the smoker who can puff the longest on 3.3 grams of burley tobacco. Each contestant gets two matches and the pipe must be going in 60 seconds.

Max Igree of Flint, Mich., won last year. He smoked for 125 minutes, 7 seconds.

New Soviet Note Merely Rehash

Middle East Proposals Already Rejected; Need Good Faith by Moscow

WASHINGTON (INS) — Administration officials brushed off a new Soviet note on the Middle East today as a "rehash" of proposals already rejected by the west.

At the same time, top state department officials are studying a series of suggestions by middle east trouble-shooter Loy W. Henderson on how to block Syria's swing into the Soviet orbit and the spread of Russian influence in the strategic area.

State Department sources said that Henderson's proposals include strengthening friendly powers in the Middle East to make them impervious to subversion.

The new Russian note to Britain, France and the U. S., full contents of which are expected to be made public today, demands that the four powers agree to a declaration of "non-interference" in the Middle East.

★ ★ ★

The west replied before, and will probably do so again, that this is adequately covered by the United Nations charter and that what is needed is demonstrations of good faith by Moscow—not paper promises.

To Match County Sum for Blacktopping

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—Clerk Harold Doebler here has been instructed by the Township Board to notify the Oakland County Road Commission of the board's decision to match its sum of $2,550 for the total of $5,000, now available to blacktop a portion of Waldon road.

A motion was made and supported at the Tuesday night meeting to purchase six stainless steel fire extinguishers.

A motion was made by Ira Snader and supported by Carl Anthony that the Board approve the steps for handling new plats in the township, as submitted by the Township attorney, Milton Cooney on Sept. 3. Township employes were asked to notify all interested parties.

A motion to pay bilsl in the amount of $2,107.56 as isted was made and carried.

A resolution was passed to rezone a parcel of land in section No. 33 from Residential 1 to Residential 2. The parcel is located on the Dixie Highway south of Waterford Hill.

Picket Edsel Dealer

FLINT (AP)—Painters Local 1052 of Flint Wednesday picketed the opening day showing of the new Edsel car at Gavriloff Motors Inc. in protest against the company having remodeled its showroom with what the unios said was non-union labor.

Face AFL-CIO Today

Teamsters to Reply Briefly on Charges of Corruption

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the Teamsters Union are expected to give only a brief answer today to corruption charges pressed by the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee.

The Teamsters bosses were reported ready to ask the federation to wait until the coming Teamsters Union convention before passing judgment on whether the 1½ million member truck union is corruptly dominated.

★ ★ ★

But the AFL-CIO, having postponed four times in as many months a showdown with the Teamsters, appeared in no mood for further delay.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, repeated in Labor Day speeches that the federation can and will expel member unions which do not rid their ranks of corrupt elements.

Any expulsion of the Teamsters Union, the AFL-CIO's largest affiliate, could lead to bitter inter-union warfare, with the AFL-CIO trying to recapture Teamsters members and local union groups, and the Teamsters leaders seeking to lure away members from other AFL-CIO unions.

Reliable sources said the Teamsters, in their answer today, intended to ask the AFL-CIO to wait to see what new officers are elected and new union procedures installed at the Teamsters convention starting Sept. 30 in Miami. The Teamsters may challenge the AFL-CIO right to question affairs of an autonomous member organization.

James R. Hoffa, Midwest teamsters boss recently linked to gangster associations in Senate Rackets Committee hearings, leads the Teamsters delegation into today's meeting. Hoffa is the front-runner to succeed Dave Beck as Teamsters president.

★ ★ ★

Beck, enmeshed in corruption charges, said he would not run again. He is under indictment on charges of income tax evasion.

Both Hoffa and Beck are among those the AFL-CIO has named individually in its charges against the Teamsters Union.

Beck said a week ago the union's reply to the AFL-CIO charges that the Teamsters are corruptly dominated would be a "courteous" one, neither "hard nor soft." While the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee allotted today and tomorrow for the Teamsters, the union's leaders said they expected to be finished with everything they had to say in a half-hour or so.

★ ★ ★

On the conclusion of the Ethical Practices Committee hearing, the five-man group will prepare a report and recommendations for the AFL-CIO Executive Council which meets in New York Sept. 24-25.

Woman, Baby Injured in Car Collision on M59

Mrs. Madelin Radunz, 53, of 3030 Old Orchard Dr. and two-year-old Monica Liebner, 3040 Old Orchard Dr., Waterford Township were slightly injured in a two-car accident yesterday.

They were in a car driven by Elfriede Liebner, the girl's father. Liebner told township police that he was driving west on M59 at Josephine avenue when a car driven by Warren DeBeauclair, 45, of 727 Macdougal St., Waterford Township made a left turn into his path.

Mrs. Radunz and Monica were released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital.

Montana has an Indian population of about 15,000.

Group Postpones Rezoning Action

The City Planning Commission last night deferred action on a proposed rezoning of three lots on West Huron at Thorpe street, pending an opinion from David S. Geer, Pontiac's planning consultant.

The commission will also ask his opinion on whether the northwest corner of West Huron and Lincoln should be rezoned to Commercial 1.

The Huron - Thorpe proposal squeaked by the commission last month by a 5 to 4 vote, when 70 residents objected to the change. A gas station is proposed for the area.

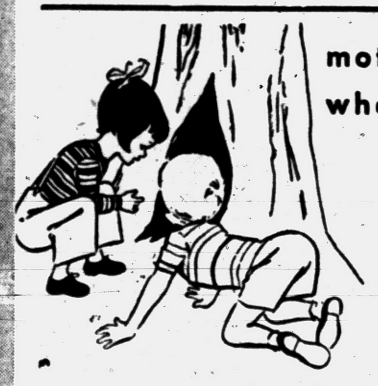

There will be a public hearing on the proposal before the City Commission Oct. 8.

State-Federal Battle Not New

President Madison Won Fight With Pennsylvania Militia in 1809

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Legal research indicated today that Gov. Orval Faubus's appeal to President Eisenhower may well bring forth a statement which will be decisive in the state-federal strength test in Arkansas.

When 2,000 deputy U.S. marshals were drawn up across the street from the Pennsylvania militia in 1809, President Madison's statement backing up the federal courts carried the day against the militia.

When Georgia defied the U.S. Supreme Court in 1828 and 1830 over control of Cherokee Indian lands, the state courts had their way when President Andrew Jackson took their side, saying, "John Marshall has made his decision, now let him enforce it."

These cases were included in items gleaned from old law books and records by Prof. Paul H. Sanders of Vanderbilt University Law School in his work as director of the Race Relations Law Reporter.

Noting that there was "a striking parallel" between the Pennsylvania case and the showdown in the making between state troops and a federal judge in Arkansas, Sanders went back for a deeper search on the background of the Pennsylvania case.

It started as a state court prize action on a privateer's capture of a British sloop in 1778, 11 years before the Constitution was drawn up.

It dragged on for 31 years as a stalemate between the state courts and the Continental Congress and then between the state government and the infant federal courts.

Finally U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall waved aside the Pennsylvania Legislature's interposition resolution and ordered a circuit judge to enforce his judgment against the state-appointed stakeholder.

★ ★ ★

The resulting tableau at the residence of a former state treasurer named Rittenhouse was subsequently tabbed, "the battle of Rittenhouse Square."

The state militia, commanded by Gen. Michael Bright, was thrown around the residence by Gov. Simon Snyder. U.S. Marshal John Smith summoned a posse of 2,000 and arrayed it across the street.

Gov. Snyder threw in his hand and withdrew the troops after his appeal to President Madison brought this reply from the man who had helped write both the Constitution and the first interposition resolutions:

"The executive is not only unauthorized to prevent the execution of a decree sanctioned by the Supreme Court of the United States, but is expressly enjoined by statute, to carry into effect any such decree."

★ ★ ★

Gen. Bright and eight other militia officers were indicted, tried by a jury and convicted of resisting the law of the United States and were sentenced to a fine and prison term by Judge Bushrod Washington, the first President's nephew.

The legal principal established, however, Madison pardoned them within a month.

'General' Treated Well

DALLAS (AP) — General Anderson got off with what some soldiers would consider a light court-martial. He pleaded guilty to a charge of theft. Judge Henry King gave him a three-year suspended sentence.

Homes Underground

FAIRBANKS — Many people living in the Arctic regions build houses that are partially underground as a form of protection against the winter temperatures.

Praises Lazy Man, Causes No Trouble

CLEVELAND (AP) — The lazy man is a better citizen than the "eager beaver" type, says author and lecturer William Hazlett Upson. He told a recent dinner meeting at Western Reserve University:

"The lazy man is always a better citizen, and does far more good for himself and society than the 'eager beaver.' In my opinion, it is the 'eager beaver' who causes most of the trouble in this world."

'Cuff List' Becomes Judicial Discovery

BOSTON (AP) — Municipal Court Chief Justice Elijah Adlow has discovered what a "cuff list" is.

The occasion was the case of Charles DiFranco who police said had in his possession $238, 13 betting slips and a cuff list.

The judge fined DiFranco $50 after it was explained the list was a roster of customers who operate strictly on credit.

About 800 languages are spoken in the world today.

Everything's Growing

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The Navy's newest LST (landing ship tank), the York County, can land 600 troops and 20 amphibious vehicles on hostile shores. The new ship is 442 feet long — some 114 feet longer than earlier LST's. Her displacement is twice as great and her complement of men three times as large.

Arctic plants remain small because of the lack of soil and water and the intensity of the northern summer sun.

Temperate Living Pays Off in Old Age

(Ray Henry has asked a group of specialists of the Public Health Service, the government's chief health agency, to tell some of the things being done to keep people healthy and happy when they get old. This is the last of a series.)

BY DR. ALBERT L. CHAPMAN
Chief, Division of Special Health Services
U.S. Public Health Service

Growing old is no sin.

It's as natural as the setting of the sun.

But, growing old spotlights the limits of the body. As you grow older, it becomes more and more important that you know your limitations and live within them.

How much you enjoy life in later years depends a great deal on how you conserve your physical and mental assets during the middle years of life.

If you live temperately, avoid getting fat, do not invite unnecessary worry and frustration, exercise moderately, get enough sound sleep each night, learn to relax—if you practice moderation and self-restraint, in short, you have a good chance of living out the maximum number of years allotted to you.

★ ★ ★

If you burn the candle at both ends, your chances for a long and enjoyable life are less.

Some people tend to live wisely; others do not.

UP TO YOU

The decision is in your hands. You — not some mysterious "aging process" — will, in the long run, determine the quality of your later years, and the number of them.

By making a habit of seeing your doctor regularly while you are well, you can avoid certain disabilities of chronic illness which often come with old age. The doctor's examinations make possible the early detection of disease and permit him to practice the best type of medicine — preventive medicine.

Plato, in his "Republic" points out that "he who is of a calm and happy nature will hardly feel the pressure of age, but to him who is of an opposite disposition, youth and age are equally a burden."

The famous Greek philosopher hastens to add that financial difficulties can disturb the serenity of even the best-disposed old person. Much has been done recently in this country to alleviate the financial problems of the aged. Much remains to be done.

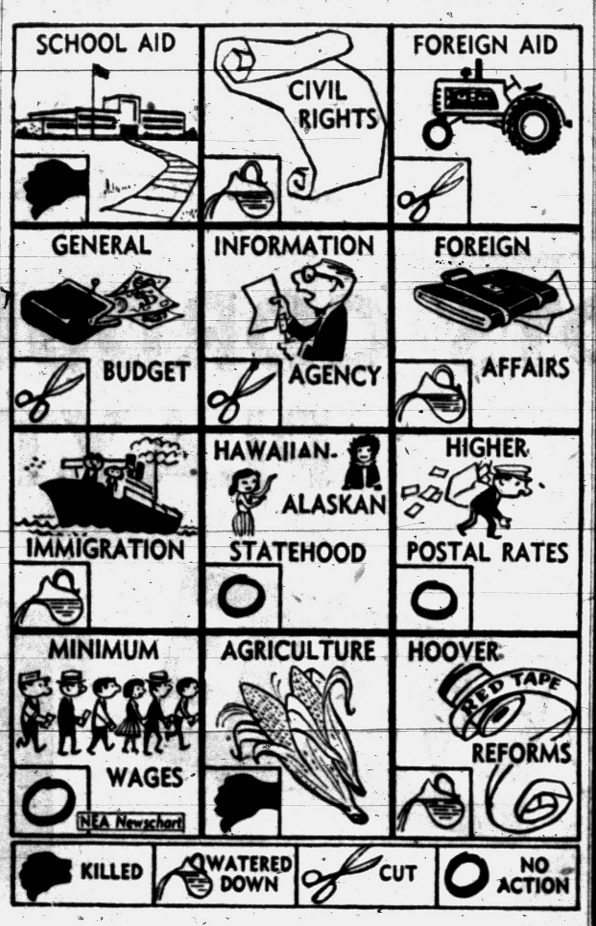

Many so-called geriatric "problems," such as housing and nutrition and medical care, have economic origins and we must seek economic solutions. Even psychological problems of older people are often related to the fear of or aversion to a dependent status.

This does not imply that we must not simultaneously push forward with research of a strictly medical nature, but physiological and psychological. We can never know too much about the actual aging process.

But individual wisdom remains, in the last analysis, the best preventive of an unhealthy and unhappy old age. Moderation and common sense applied to daily living throughout the "prime of life" will not only help make that period literally "prime", but will prepare you for a comfortable old age.

Your doctor is your partner in this undertaking. His continuing counsel over the years will assist you in a personal "health maintenance program" that is reasonable, attainable and far-sighted.

EISENHOWER'S SCORE SHEET — Action on legislation recommended by President Eisenhower to Congress is portrayed above. This record will be the keystone of political controversy about the accomplishments — or lack of them — in Congress and in the administration. Most bills will be considered when the second session meets in January.

Lapel Radio Receivers Keep Bellhops Hopping

INDIANAPOLIS, (AP) — The Marrott Hotel has a new shortwave radio system to keep its bellhops on the hop.

Palmer Suddaby, general supervisor, said the systems includes 28 alpel receivers and four sending stations powerful esough to reach personnel 30 feet outside the hotel.

★ ★ ★

"It should speed up our room service several hundred per cent," Suddaby said.

Air Conditioning Firm Finally 'Cools Off'

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Office employes and executives of the Vilter Mfg. Co. no longer have to sweat their way through orders for the air conditioning equipment manufactured by the firm.

The three-story office building has been air conditioned.

The roots of the licorice plant often reach 20 to 25 feet below the surface before they are dug up to make candy and seasoning.

State Supreme Court Upholds Cities' Right

State Supreme Court, Lansing, has upheld the rights of Royal Oak and Huntington Woods to alter their boundary lines by mutual agreement.

The court agreed unanimously yesterday that the two cities were within their rights in changing a boundary line that cut across several pieces of private property, leaving parts in both cities. The agreement transferred half of the properties to Royal Oak and half to Huntington Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Benjamin Jr. of Huntington Woods asked and got an order from circuit Judge Russell Holland. In effect, it directed the two cities to restore the original boundaries.

Justice George Edwards, who wrote the unanimous decision, said he was unable to determine why Holland issued the court order or why the Benjamins wanted to maintain taxpayer status in both cities.

"There may be more to this litigation than meets the eye," he declared.

Plane Simulator Acts as Trainer

Gadget Subjects Pilot to Any Flying Weather He May Encounter

ITAZUKE AIR BASE, Southern Japan (INS) — The F100 battled through storm - swept skies and zoomed in for a landing when the pilot's instrument panel indicated his hydraulic landing gear had failed.

He had a split second to act. Delay could mean the loss of his one million dollar plane. It could cost him his life.

But luckily for Lt. John P. Jones of Atlanta, Ga., attached to the Itazuke-based 8th fighter - bomber wing, the storm and the faulty hydraulics were all make-believe.

The machine he climbed out of after completing his "mission" was what the Air Force calls a "Simulator" — one of the most time-saving, money-saving, life-saving gadgets known to flying.

It consists of a cockpit identical to that of an F100, an instrument panel from which a flight instructor manipulates an array of buttons and levers, and rows of computers each recording a different aspect of the pilot's flight performance.

An F100 Simulator costs around $600,000.

By pressing one button, the instructor can cause a flameout. By working other levers or buttons he can surround the pilot in a storm, complete with lightning that throws bright flashes in his face.

The instructor can control wind direction and wind force. He can change the magnetic variation to conform to the area over which the pilot trainee is flying.

In fact, he can subject the pilot to every conceivable flying situation or emergency he may encounter.

To the trainee, it's exactly the same as actually flying an F100 except there's no feel of the force of gravity on the stick.

The Simulator even shakes up the pilot, reproducing the vibration caused when he lowers his flaps for a landing.

By piloting a Simulator, a flier learns not only how to handle an F100 in the air but also learns that split-second thinking and timing with which he must react to emergencies in supersonic aircraft.

"There's no better practice," Lt. Jones enthused, "especially for handling yourself in an emergency."

'Stay in School' State Chief Urges Wavering Pupils

LANSING (AP)—Lynn M. Bartlett, state school chief, has issued a plea for boys and girls considering such a move to reject thoughts of leaving school.

★ ★ ★

Bartlett said too often the temptation of short term earnings lures teenagers away from the classroom, and become a cause for later regret.

"The typical high school graduate earns some $50,000 more in his lifetime than does the dropout," he said.

Bartlett said many of the youth who drop out before finishing high school do so at the end of their summer vacation period—"the critical time for a critical decision."

★ ★ ★

He had some somber advice for parents.

"We are told by the Corrections Department that virtually all of Michigan's youthful law offenders failed to complete high school," he said.

All citizens, he said, should encourage wavering boys and girls to continue in classes, at least through high school.

★ ★ ★

Bartlett suggested that educators could help with the problem by "individualizing" school programs with the waverers in mind, and through aggressive counseling activity.

To Come in Next Decade

Army Plans Flying Jeeps, Trucks, Tanks and Cranes

WASHINGTON (INS) — Flying jeeps, trucks and tanks were envisioned today by army aviation planners as front line equipment for American ground troops in the next decade.

In addition, said the proponents of an army with its own specialized aviation, ground troops will be supplied in the heat of battle by such items as robot helicopters and "flying cranes" capable of transporting 12-ton cargoes.

Main objective of the whole program, according to Maj. Gen. Hamilton H. Howze, director of army aviation, is to provide mobility needed in modern warefare which calls for widely dispersed troops.

Col. W. G. Van Allen, of the army aviation directorate, said the army plans a 50 per cent increase by 1960 in the 4,500 airplanes and helicopters which now make up its air arm.

★ ★ ★

In various stages of development are better small observation aircraft; bigger, cheaper and more versatile helicopters; "drone" helicopters, and aerial jeeps, trucks and tanks.

The flying vehicles will not achieve great altitude but will release transportation from the limitations of roads and natural obstacles which hampered the Korean fighting.

Col. G. P. Seneff, chief of Army Aviation Research and Development, said prototypes of flying jeeps, trucks and tanks can be developed in "the next couple of years" based on expansion of a one-man flying platform which used ducted fans to rise off the ground.

Other innovations under consideration by the army are vertical and short take-off aircraft with the advantages of the helicopter but with more speed.

Drawings of the ships include one with three wings (such as flown in World War I), airplanes with adjustable wings and helicopters with rotors that can be tilted to provide vertical takeoff and then faster forward speed.

The helicopter industry, according to Seneff, is "studying a flying crane" that could carry small armored vehicles over natural barriers or onto bridgeheads with limited landing space. It possibly would be piloted by remote control.

HIALEAH, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Eve Haas, who handles complaints for the post office here, says she's found a sure-fire way to calm down irritated patrons.

She hands them a pencil and a complicated form to fill out.

Ask Federal Aid on Straits Bridge

Project to Be Included in October Report; Built to Specifications

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's application for federal support of the Straits of Mackinac Bridge will be placed on file with the Bureau of Public Roads by Oct. 1, the state highway department has reported.

Commissioner John C. Mackie said the bridge would be included in a report on all Michigan highways in the interstate system which were under contract prior to the enactment of the 1956 road act but which were not listed for public help.

The department has hopes of receiving 90-10 federal support for the bridge.

Rep. Knox (R-Mich). had said numerous other states had submitted similar projects for approval and suggested "Michigan should get in step with other states." Knox said there was no record of Michigan having filed for such aid.

Larry Rubin, Bridge Authority executive secretary, said the authority figured on such a possibility as long as three years ago when planning the 100 million dollar structure by having it built to federal specifications.

Japanese Workers Have Worst Diets

HONOLULU (AP) — Japanese immigrants working on sugar plantations here are eating the worst of two possible diets.

Dr. Niles P. Larsen, medical advisor to the Hawaiian Sugar Planters Assn., says the workers continue with the high salt diet known in Japan, and add the high fat diet Americans eat.

The result, Dr. Larsen says, iis a high incidence of both high blood pressure from the salt diet and heart trouble from the high fat foods.

Dr. Larsen said there is a lot of high blood pressure in Japan, but little heart trouble. The United States has a lot of heart trouble..

NOT GRAPE JUICE — Nashville fireman Spike Maloney takes an unhappy whiff of one of the fifty 60-gallon barrels of moonshine mash discovered by firemen who put out a blaze in a two-story downtown Nashville house. A 500-gallon whisky still and 50 gallons of homemade liquor were found on the second floor. Two men fled the burning building.

Detroit Eyes Building of 500-Boat Marina

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit's Department of Public Works has disclosed a proposal for a new public marina capable of docking up to 500 small boats.

Cost of the project was estimated at $1 million.

The proposed marina would be built from Lakewood to Marine Hospital, including a seven-acre trailer camp the Park and Recreation Commission has voted to seek by condemnation.

The entire marina would comprise 27 acres and be in addition to the 268-boat marina now operated by the city at Memorial Park.

Helps President Travel About

Dewey Long Charged With Transporting Ike to Base at Newport

By INTERNATIONAL NEWS

In almost every large office there is a man who carries so many unrecorded bits of information in his head that his departure from the job would throw operations, at least temporarily, into utter confusion.

Such a man is Dewey Long of the White House, charged with the task of moving President Eisenhower and a retinue of some 100 aides and newsmen from Washington to the Newport Naval Base in Rhode Island.

Eisenhower does not consult Long, who carries the formal title of transportation officer, before drafting a Middle East resolution or signing a civil rights bill.

But he would be in a very bad way indeed if he did not rely on the advice of his slightly-built, publicity-shy transportation aide in shifting his operations to such a spot as Newport.

It is Long's responsibility to see that the President and his staff are set down in Newport with a minimum of interruption in the complex behind-the-scenes operations that enable the White House to function as the command post of the free world.

This means installation of direct telephone and teletype lines from Newport to Washington. It means involved arrangements to insure speedy delivery to the President of pouches containing vital communiques from Washington—and from London, Moscow and Syria.

It means that Long, who doubles as communications expert, must have at his fingertips or in his head mountains of facts ranging from airlines timetables to the number of long-distance lines into Newport that could be converted to White House use in an emergency.

The transportation chief, who is in his late 50s—he doesn't like to say how late—was born on a farm in Cook County, Texas. He came to the White House as a Morse operator in 1933.

★ ★ ★

The teletype has replaced the telegraph key in normal White House communications but Long takes pride in keeping his "fist" in readiness.

He and White House Chief of Records Wayne Hawkes, another old telegrapher, sent top secret messages by hand for 12 hours on a Canadian fishing trip with FDR during World War II, when the modern transmission equipment broke down.

Long's toughest job was setting up communications for the 1945 Yalta conference. Retreating German forces had stripped the countryside of every spare bit of brass and copper wire.

Testing Reveals Artists Really Temperamental

NEW YORK (INS) — Extensive testing showed that artists really do have a special artistic temperament.

A New York University psychologist, Dr. Walter Myden, told the American Psychological Association in New York yesterday that his battery of tests disclosed people in the arts and people in the business world have "strikingly" different personalities.

Those in the arts, he said, were more introspective. They "indulged strongly in fantasy" and were able to turn these fantasies "into creating productions."

Dr. Myden declared the business and professional men he tested tended to conform to social conventions and repressed their feelings more often as a means of adjusting to society.

The extensive series of psychological tests was given to 20 recognized painters, writers, composers and choreographers and a group of 20 business and professional men.

Dr. Myden said the individuals in both groups were of superior intelligence. But he pointed out that the artistically inclined were judged to be making fuller use of their intellectual abilities.

"We clean yore dirty corsets, spats and camisoles. Trousers creased, front and back. Colman Cleaners."

"Wawona Boarding House. Swimmin' hole filled with sheep dip. Miners, burros and coyotes welcome."

"Flat beer, bumpy billiard tables, awful food — but good conversation at The Wheel."

Junior Editors Quiz on ACROBATIC FLY

QUESTION: How does a fly walk on the ceiling?

ANSWER: Tiny pads called pulvilli are attached to each foot of a fly's six legs. When the fly walks on smooth places, these pads flatten out against the surface so closely that they hold on—like a suction cup. Thus, a fly is able to walk upside down without falling.

If you see a fly, the best thing to do is kill it. This tiny insect may look harmless and you may consider it only a nuisance. In reality it is very dangerous because the tiny hairs on its legs carry bacteria that can cause serious diseases, even death.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Do your part to keep down the fly population. Keep garbage cans well-covered, make sure your screens fit tight. Use sprays, and make good use of a fly swatter or fly trap.

★ ★ ★

Solved Star Problem Suggests Still Another

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Young David DeLisle, noticing a star-like design before the serial number on a dollar bill, wrote the U.S. Secret Service for an explanation.

Back came a letter from U. E. Baughman, chief of the service, who explained:

"The small design in front of the serial number indicates it is a 'Star' note. Every one-hundred-millionth note is a 'Star' note. They are used to replace notes that are found to be defective."

Now David has a problem: Should he retain the one-in-a-million bill or live it up a dollar's worth?

Judge, It's His Turn

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — After granting a woman a divorce recently, Superior Judge Ralph K. Pierson asked her informally why she was willing to let her husband have their TV set. Her answer: "Well, I've been sitting watching it for four years now while he's been out playing around. So I guess it's his turn."

Malayan Communists Still Fighting in Jungle

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

One of the first official acts of newly independent Malaya was to issue "new and final" surrender terms for the country's remaining 1,860 Communist guerrillas hiding in the jungle.

The Reds will be given until Dec. 31 to surrender. Those who refuse to foreswear communism may be repatriated, with their families if they wish, to Communist China. Resisting rebels will be wiped out.

WON'T GIVE UP

There is no indication that the Communists will surrender. Malaya's sensationally swift drive for independence in the last two years has had less influence than had been expected on the Communist terrorists, nearly all of whom are Chinese.

Even before "Merdeka," or Freedom Day, last week the Malayan politicians had been governing the country, with the British High Commissioner sometimes offering advice but never issuing orders.

Had the Communists gone into the jungle in the first place because they hated British "Imperialism" it seems they would long ago have emerged to resume their part in normal civilian life.

SPREAD COMMUNISM

Their failure to do so suggests that their leaders are much more interested in spreading communism than in destroying colonialism.

The Reds have been relatively inactive since their party secretary-general emerged from the jungle nearly two years ago for abortive negotiations with Prime Minister Abdul Rahman. But this may be only because the Reds hoped to convince the federation government that it could afford to get rid of the British troops in Malaya.

In this the Reds have failed. The Federation of Malaya is independent but remains in the British Commonwealth and the British troops are remaining under treaty, for as long as they are wanted. They will be used against the communist guerrillas.

It is too early to judge whether the Communists will resume their warfare. And much depends on how much support they get from outside Malaya.

* * *

One factor in the cloudy future of the country that may play into the hands of the Reds is political. Will the three Asian communities, Malay, Chinese and Indian, remain united in the alliance party now that the political influence of the British has been removed?

The Chinese nearly outnumber the Malays and Indians in the Federation. And if Singapore ever is joined to the Federation the Chinese definitely will be the predominant population. The British already have carried out raids in Singapore and arrested top union and political leaders accused of trying to set up a Communist state.

Sen. Mansfield Defends Solons

Says Ike Should Spend More Time Fighting for Individual Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said today President Eisenhower should spend more time fighting for individual bills and less criticizing Congress if he wants his program enacted. Democratic leader, described the recent session as "a very responsible Congress" despite Eisenhower's news conference complaint that many presidential proposals were killed or shelved.

★ ★ ★

"The first session accomplished a great deal more than anybody expected when it began," Mansfield said in an interview. "The President submitted 155 proposals and more than half of them were acted upon, with another session yet to go."

Mansfield did not say how many of the actions favored Eisenhower's stand, but he added:

"It comes with poor grace for the President to be criticizing Congress when he himself was responsible for the failure of some of his proposals to get approval. A case in point is the school construction bill which was killed in the House when his party's leaders voted against it.

★ ★ ★

"If Mr. Eisenhower wants a school construction bill in the next session of Congress he had better make up his mind to fight for it."

Mansfield disputed Eisenhower's contention that the session which ended last week cut presidential appropriation requests less than a billion dollars.

"Conservatively speaking, the President's requests were reduced at least five billion dollars," he said. "Furthermore, the President can look forward to renewed efforts in the next session to cut his budget requests."

The Budget Bureau put out yesterday an analysis saying the total effective cut was only 928 million dollars — about the amount Eisenhower had mentioned. The remainder of the claimed cuts it said were either bookkeeping transactions or amounts which will have to be restored later in supplemental appropriations.

★ ★ ★

Mansfield forecast a drive next year for tax reduction along the lines cited by Sen. Byrd (D-Va). Byrd, also claiming sharp cuts by Congress, said that if the cuts were translated into actual reductions in spending and if revenues hold up, there could be a fou billion dollar tax cut plus a payment on the national debt.

Give Motorists Chance to Smash Up Used Car

ALLEGAN (AP) — Tired of dodging cars on the highways? Got the urge to smash into one?

Instead, visit the Alegan County Fair next week where, for 25 cents, you can rent one large sledge hammer and permission to smash a slightly used car twice.

The money will go for nursing scholarships for county girls.

Junior Outnumbered by Adults at Disneyland

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Junior is outnumbered by grownups at Disneyland.

Officials said yesterday that of the 8,951,534 persons visiting the tourist attraction since its opening in July 1955, adults outnumbered the children 3½ to 1.

Englishman Controls Most of World's Diamonds

LONDON (NEA) — If diamonds are a girl's best friend, Sir Ernest Oppenheimer, the German-born British-knighted financier who controls 95 per cent of the world's supply of diamonds, is the patron saint of girls everywhere.

If her engagement ring sports a diamond weighing one carat or more, a girl would be safe in giving 19-to-1 odds that the sparkler had passed through the Oppenheimer sales organization.

From Sir Ernest, the King of Diamonds, comes news that will gladden girlish hearts, indeed. The diamond market is booming.

The chilly beauties, which most girls seem to prefer to mink, now are Britain's No. 1 dollar-earner, having nosed out Scotch whisky and Jaguar motorcars for first place.

In dollar value they account for no less than 14 per cent of Britain's export trade with the United States.

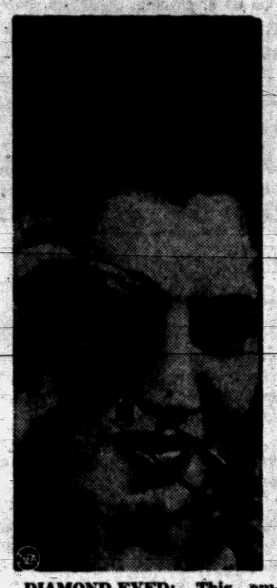

★ ★ ★

Not only that, but the demand for diamonds far exceeds the supply. So much so that American buyers are literally queuing up at the Diamond Trading Co. in London, center of the world market, for their share of the expensive pretties.

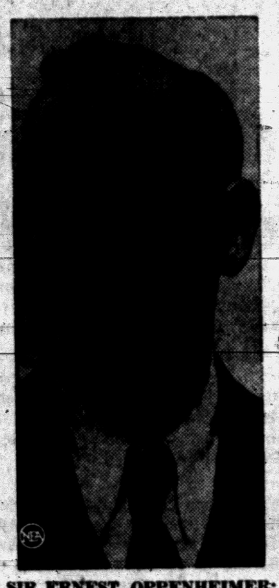

For Sir Ernest the news is gradifying. This small, slender man with the alert brown eyes, who is as shy as he is rich, recently shipped into London from his home in Johannesburg for one of his rare public appearances.

The occasion marked Oppenheimer's 77th birthday, as well as his completion of 60 years in the diamond trade (he started at 16 as an apprentice diamond sorter in London).

He has found time to open the new, nine-story horseshoe-shaped Oppenheimer building, which houses not only the Diamond Trading Co. (De Beers diamond group), but also the Anglo-American Corp. of South Africa (gold mines) and Rhodesian Anglo-American (15 per cent of the world's copper output).

DIAMOND-EYED: This emerald-cut gem is six carats.

SIR ERNEST OPPENHEIMER: He knew what he wanted.

1 OUT OF 3 A DETECTIVE

Company spokesmen scoff at the idea that every third man on the Diamond Trading Co. payroll is a plainclothes detective, but the new Oppenheimer building is probably as burglar-proof as human and mechanical devices can make it.

For example, in the exhibit room, where rough diamonds are displayed like so many lumps of opaque glass, one is cautioned not to touch the showcases.

The slightest finger pressure, one is warned, is enough to set alarm bells clanging in distant parts of the building.

She Lures 'Em Home

STANTON, Ky. (AP)—Mrs. Callie Bowen, 69, found a way to lure her children home for more frequent visits. She built a 5-acre lake on her farm, stocking it with bass. Then she built a cabin on the shore. Now so many of her flock are returning home at vacation time she is planning to build another cabin.

Safe Place to Drive

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Over 60,000,000 buses, cars and trucks have passed through the Norfolk-Portsmouth tunnel under the Elizabeth river here in five years without a single traffic fatality. There have been only 265 vehicle collisions in the one-mile tunnel.

DAV Will Launch 'Forget-Me-Not' Campaign in Area

The Pontiac Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 16, is once again about to launch its annual "Forget-Me-Not" campaign on the streets of Pontiac, Auburn Heights, Rochester, Lake Orion, Clarkston, Waterford Township, Milford and Holly.

★ ★ ★

This year's drive is set for Sept. 13 and 14. Members will be easy to spot along the street and in various business places wearing D.A.V. caps, uniforms or arm bands.

Funds collected are the only means of financing their Veterans Welfare Program over the coming year.

All funds are disbursed to the families of veterans in financial distress and vets confined to hospitals. Christmas baskets are also a project.

As of this month there are 32 veterans in the Oakland County TB Sanatorium and over 130 in the Pontiac State Hospital.

Petoskey to Enforce Weed Cutting Law

PETOSKEY (AP) — The city of Petoskey has dusted off a 40-year-old ordinance to use in its battle against ragweed and unslightly vacant lots.

The ordinance, never before enforced, makes it against the law to permit weeds to grow more than a foot high.

It also calls for a weed warden, with authority to cut unslightly weeds if the property owner doesn't and charge the owner for the work.

Work Bench Kills Boy

DETROIT (AP) — Three-year-old James Bailey of Van Buren Township was killed Wednesday when an iron work bench toppled on him. The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bailey, was playing in a neighbor's yard with several other children who were rocking the heavy bench back and forth when it toppled over on James.

Key to Spellman's Career Is His Habit of Being Ever Busy; No Minute Is Lost

(This is the fourth of five articles in which a famed writer describes the full, often dramatic life of Francis Cardinal Spellman, who will observe the 25th anniversary of his consecration as a bishop on Sept. 8.)

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK (INS)—The luncheon of lamb, broccoli, a potato and a pudding was finished. Francis Cardinal Spellman had talked of many things in his easy way as the meal was served and the dishes taken away by two silent Irish maids.

He had had his usual morning of work, and a long afternoon and evening of it would follow the short prayer of thanksgiving which he delivered after the meal. But while the food was there and we were seated he spoke in the way of a man whose interests run the spectrum of human endeavor.

But at last he gently pushed back his chair from the table, and led us out of the subdued dining room at his Residence. A member of the residence staff, returning from answering the door, smiled as he passed the Cardinal. He was carrying an armful of mail and a magazine, U.S. News and World Report. Someone else reminded him that he had an appointment.

"Jim Bishop did a piece about the kind of life I lead from day to day in 'The Sign' Magazine a few years ago," His Eminence said, trying to be helpful. "Maybe you can look it up."

We did and found it exhausting: up at 7 a.m., mass in his private chapel, light breakfast, his people calling in 15-minute intervals with reports on the enormous charitable, spiritual and educational work of the 4,717 square miles of archdiocese, pleas for aid in matters ranging all the way from new hospital construction to marital discord, and the parade of dignitaries.

MORE OF THE SAME

In the afternoon, more of the same, with a visit to this or that church, university, school, Catholic charities headquarters, or some-such, thrown in. Dinner at 6:30 with fellow workers and, sometimes, a visiting dignitary or old friend from any farflung part of the world. Then the saying of the rosary after dinner, before the small oaken chapel altar flanked by statues of the Holy Family.

Work on his sermons, books, articles, poetry, in his private office, heavy with books. Dictation into machines. Stacks and stacks of letters to sign. The ringing phones. The needs of seven auxiliary bishops, three bishops in residence, 2,344 priests, 7,711 sisters, tens of thousands of students in parochial schools, thousands in orphanages, an army of teachers.

This was one trip, in pursuit of his work: flew to Kansas City after celebrating ten o'clock Mass in St. Patrick's. Spoke at a dinner at the Hotel Muehlebach in behalf of Rockhurst College. Spent the night with Bishop Edwin V. O'Hara. Next morning, early, said mass for a community of cloistered nuns, then at a pontifical Mass. Addressed a luncheon group on "The challenge of the priesthood today." Laid the cornerstone of a new faculty building at Rockhurst. Spoke, contributed $5,000, visited diocese institutions. Dinner speaker again at the Muehlebach, under TV lights, met 600 guests later.

Next day, early mass at St. Teresa's College for women, tour of the flood-stricken area around Kansas City, contributed $10,000 to flood relief. Speech to the faculty of St. Mary's College, at Xavier, Kan. Took off at noon for New Orleans for a 5 p.m. TV show, and taped radio address. After dinner with Archbishop Rummel of New Orleans the two drove 75 miles to Bay St. Louis, where he officiated at the consecration of Bishop Bowers, first Negro bishop in the U.S.

3 HOUR RITUAL

Religious ceremonies the next morning, including a three-hour ritual at Our Lady of the Gulf. Speaker at luncheon for Bishop Bowers, and presented him with $5,000 for mission work. Trip to Gulfport, trip to Biloxi, both in Mississippi. Dinner with men at Keesler Air Base, late prayers and benediction. Off to New York early the next morning, after 5:45 mass, Jim Bishop concluded:

"The writer, in personal conversation with His Eminence, looked for signs of wear but found none. The Cardinal is buoyant, almost boyish in his enthusiasms and his energy. He seems to have time for everyone and everything, and the only person worn out was one tired Bishop—the author."

Msgr. John K. Cartwright, of St. Matthew's Cathedral in Washington, D. C., long-time friend of the Cardinal, says of him:

"One of the most remarkable things about His Eminence is the manner in which he stays in touch with what is happening through the world as well as what is happening here in America. It prepares him for any event, here or abroad.

"His energy, of course, is legendary. The key to his whole career is his habit of being constantly busy. His whole life is scheduled. Nc minute is wasted.

★ ★ ★

Spellman doesn't agree that he's an iron man, or superman. And once in Milwaukee, when asked to deliver an important speech on the day following an important one he had made, Spellman reached familiarly into a game he knows to explain why.

"Even the Braves have no pitcher who can pitch a double header," he said.

Tomorrow: Cardinal Spellman the crusader, the builder, the poet.)

Energetic 80-Year-Old Doesn't Want to Retire

LEWISTOWN, Md. (AP) — J. William Strine has retired as janitor of an elementary school he first entered 74 years ago as a first grade pupil.

His retirement, at 80, was not voluntary and Strine is still an energetic man.

"How old is old?" he asked. "If it is in their 60s that folks are supposed to sit back on their Social Security, someone should have told me long ago."

Worship Place of Ike Forebears to Be Auctioned

HOPE, Kan. (AP)—The auctioneer's hammer will bang down Sept. 14 on Belle Springs Church, where President Eisenhower's forebears worshipped.

★ ★ ★

The church is a quaint landmark about nine miles northwest of Hope. The President's grandfather and great-grandfather attended services there after the Eisenhower family moved from Pennsylvania.

They are buried in the churchyard, along with Paul, a brother of the President who died in infancy. The burial ground will remain.

★ ★ ★

Bishop Ray I. Witter, a first cousin of the President, explained the Brethren in Christ once had six churches in the county, when roads were poor and travel was slow. Fewer are needed now and one already has been sold.

Some Whites Cordial to New Neighbors

All's Quiet in Levittown; Negro Family 'Settled In'

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Emotions have simmered down. The restless, pushing, sometimes violent crowds are only a memory. From time to time local police make the rounds of routine patrol. State police, on emergency duty for about two weeks, have gone.

The men come and go to their jobs as usual. Their wives shop, chin with neighbors, wonder how they will get through the housework in the early September heat.

★ ★ ★

Such is Levittown—and specifically, its Dogwood Hollow section—three weeks after the first Negro family moved into the previously all-white housing development of about 15,500 homes and nearly 60,000 people.

Outwardly, Dogwood Hollow seems pretty much as it was before William and Daisy Myers came with their three children and settled down in a pink ranch style house Myers bought for a little more than $12,000.

Myers, his family and friends move about without molestation. Some in the neighborhood have accepted the family cordially, some grudgingly. Others say they had to yield unwillingly in order to prevent further violence. On that alone, the visitor is told again and again, there is unanimity—a determination there will be no further rough stuff.

★ ★ ★

The mid-August move of the Myers family touched off eight straight nights of noisy demonstration, with crowds of more than 400 milling about each night. Eleven persons were arrested.

Gov. George M. Leader sent in state police after local authorities pleaded the situation was getting out of hand.

The demonstrations ended, but not the sharp differences of opinion.

The Levittown Betterment Assn. organized for the avowed purpose of getting the Myers family out by any legal means, continued its efforts. Its leader, James Newell formerly of North Carolina, said: "The Levittown Betterment Assn. hasn't stopped working to oust Myers. We don't advocate violence, but we want to get him out, and we won't stop until our mission is completed." He said the association has 250 active members.

★ ★ ★

On the other side is the Citizens Committee of Levittown, led by the Rev. Ray L. Harwick, who asserted: "Now that the violence has stopped, we can talk sensibly. We want to attack the problem without emotion. We don't favor forceful integration, but we do feel a man has a right to live where he chooses." The Rev. Mr. Harwick said his group has about 100 adherents.

Perhaps the most unruffled person of all is Myers.

A 32-year-old refrigeration technician working in Trenton, N.J., across the Delaware River, Myers said:

"Time is my greatest ally. In a few months people will forget this stir. All I want is to be a good neighbor. I hope my neighbors will do the same. Good-neighborliness should be the goal of all of us."

Advises Negroes With White Wives to Leave Division

BAD KREUZNACH, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army has recommended that Negroes with white wives transfer out of the Texas-bound 2nd Armored Division.

"It's a means of preventing embarrassment" when the division begins to move from here to Ft. Hood, Tex., in November, a spokesman said. Some of the Negroes in the division have married white German girls.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman declined to say what would happen if a Negro with a white wife insisted on going with the division to Texas.

A spokesman at Army headquarters in Heidelberg commented: "I guess about all you can do in a case like that is appeal to a man's good judgment."

The division public information officer said he could not say how many of the 14,000 soldiers are Negroes and how many have white wives.

CHOW — Officials at Marineland, Fla., hope this cheery porpoise is ring the bell for school. But there's a good chance the bell's ringing chow call for the delightful sea creatures who learn their showmanship here.

Tokyo Now Called World's Largest City

TOKYO (AP)—The Tokyo city government claimed today that the Japanese metropolis has become the largest city in the world, passing New York and London.

The metropolitan office said Tokyo's population reached 8,518,622 on Aug. 1.

A special census conducted in New York last July put that city's population at 7,771,509, a drop of 120,448 from the 1950 federal census standard.

Reference works put "greater" London's 1956 count at 8,270,430.

Landslide Buries Five

TURIN, Italy (AP)—A landslide thundered down a 600-foot hill at nearby Verrua Savoia today, smashing a small hotel and burying five members of the hotelkeeper's family in the ruins. All were feared dead.

13 Michigan Masons to Get 33rd Degrees

BOSTON (AP) — Thirteen Michigan Masons will be awarded the order's 33rd degree Sept. 19 at the 145th annual meeting here of the Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Commanders of the 33rd degree, Scottish Rite Masons.

Among those to be honored are Claire E. Shepherd, Watervliet; Robert E. Lake, Benton Harbor; Robert F. Clybourne, Benton Harbor; William L. Eyke, Muskegon; John F. Bell, Lansing; Vernon E. Shelton, Bay City, and Stephen H. Terrell, Ishpeming.

Despite wage increases granted by the industry, French auto producers are offering improved models as unchanged prices, Paris reports.

Israeli Exports Up

JERUSALEM — Israel's exports in the first three months of 1957 totaled $52,700,000, nearly 25 per cent more than in the like period of 1956, according to the Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

And So Goes the Argument Over the Missile

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON (NEA) — At his press conference of May 8, 1957, President Eisenhower made the following statement:

"Why would the Army want a 1,500-mile missile itself, because the first requisite of using that kind of weapon is that you have very good observation to find out whether it is doing the job you thought it was?

"The only way you could find out would be with an Air Force that could penetrate at least 1,500 miles into the enemy territory; and that puts you right square into the big Air Force business."

Coming from the Commander-in-Chief this would appear to be the final word in support of outgoing Defense Secretary Charles Wilson's order limiting the Army to the operation of missiles with ranges of not more than 200 miles.

That order is the key to the big feud over guided missiles between the Air Force and Army, which incoming Secretary Neil McElroy will have to referee.

Ike's statement has not settled the matter.

The Army feels it has reason to be enthusiastic over its rapid progress toward an operational Jupiter IRBM. Until President Eisenhower's pro-Air Force statement, the Army felt it was making headway in its claim to be the service best qualified to use the IRBM.

IT IS POSSIBLE

And both Air Force and Army missilemen feel that if it is possible to fly a plane over the target for observation, then it's possible to use the same flight, or another, to deliver the bomb—and it would be unnecessary to send a missile to do the job.

RETIRING SEC. WILSON: Not more than 200 miles.

But in their view aircraft are obsolescent or obsolete, whether for observation or bombing; and they believe the missile will have to take over both jobs.

A "space platform" would be the ideal observation post. Missile or space platform reconnaissance would be supplemented by intelligence agents and other G-2 methods.

But the Army concedes it must make many improvements in battlefield reconnaissance and target acquisition.

The most profitable target for the IRBM will be the fixed target, such as a transportation center, a manufacturing complex or a fortified or strategically important city. It is doubtful an enemy would for long risk large concentrations of troops or supplies in the field.

PLOTTED FROM MAPS

IRBM firings, whether at fixed or mobile targets, would be plotted from maps, as artillery fire is directed. With the area devastation of nuclear warheads, there would be less need for pin-point accuracy.

★ ★ ★

Telemetric instruments, transmitting information from the missile in flight back to the launching site, would indicate the rocket was on course and reduce the need for post-strike observation.

One nuclear - armed missile fired on course would equal one target scratched from the list.

The Army points to its unique experience in missile support activities. Army Engineers have been busy for years mapping much of the free world. How much mapping of the Soviet Union has been done by either the Army or Air Force is a matter of Conjecture for the public.

TO DIVIDE WORK

Army Engineers would also build the ports, airfields, roads, bridges and rail lines to support employment of the IRBM; and provide liquid oxygen to help power the missile.

The Signal Corps would supply wire, radio and television communications, and fire direction systems. The Quartermaster Corps would furnish liquid fuel for the missile, and protective clothing for the missilemen.

And the Army would have the main job in taking or holding ground from which the IRBM would be launched — or so goes the Army argument.

One side-issue to the Army-Air Force missile controversy has received little attention so far—but it may give the new Defense Secretary the most trouble of all. It revolves around the methods the two services use in developing and building missiles.

★ ★ ★

The Air Force relies on private industry—the large aircraft companies. The Army uses a combination of private industry and its own Ordnance Arsenals which for many years have developed most Army weapons and equipment.

Air Force spokesmen say that research and development of missiles flourish best in the free, competitive asmosphere of private industry.

The Army feels that missiles use almost all the skills and experience accumulated in its arsenals in ballistics, metallurgy, precision work, propellants, warheads, electronics, fuses, hydraulics and fire control, among many other fields of science and technology.

Next: Can missiles kill bombers?

Chinese Wooing Overseas Folk

Taipei, Peiping Offer Dividends, Promises and Memories to Departed

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China is wooing overseas Chinese with a judicious mixture of business dividends, promises for increased educational facilities, and memories of the old home town.

Approximately 13 million live and work in other lands, mostly in Southeast Asia.

They are an important influence in their adopted countries and a valuable source of foreign exchange through remittances to the folks back home. Both peiping and Nationalist Formosa seek their goodwill.

Peiping's latest bit of enticement includes promises that overseas Chinese who want to invest in mainland industries will be able to take half the yearly dividend in their own currency.

Hard-working, thrifty and ingenious, the Chinese over the years have reached dominant economic positions in many of the lands they inhabit.

Both Taipei and Peiping offer advantageous terms and scholarships to overseas students. On Formosa, a student may continue his higher education at a cost of little more than $10 a month.

The Reds are trying to quicken the old home town spirit by offering low-cost tours of China for groups of overseas Chinese.

Spinster Spends $15,875 to Get Family History

NEW ATHENS, Ill. (AP)—Miss Pearl Wildy is $15,875 in the hole on her venture in family history.

The 67-year-old spinster spent seven years gathering photographs and documents and writing a 200,000-word manuscript tracing the family tree back to Switzerland and the year 1500.

It cost her $2,500 and she spent another $15,000 having 700 copies printed.

"We wanted the book and that was the way to get it," she said.

Miss Wildy managed to sell 65 of the volumes at $25 each. She has stored the others at the farm where she lives with a brother and their mother, an 89-year-old invalid.

To Keep Man, Plants, Animals Alive

Air Holds Only 10-Day Water Supply

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter

TORONTO (AP)— Our air holds only a 10-day supply of water to keep all humans, plants and animals living on earth.

If the air suddenly dried out—as you might wish on a muggy, humid day—earthly life would soon thirst to death.

There's really very little water in the total air surrounding the earth. Scientists estimate that water constitutes only 1-100,000th of 1 per cent of the earth's atmosphere.

These are some of the findings so far from scientists seeking to solve puzzles of the earth's water balance. That means the exchange of water between the seas, air and clouds, the soil, and all that happens in between.

An understanding of the exact mechanisms of water exchange and balance could give very practical results, Dr. H. Mosby, oceanographer of Bergen, Norway today told the meeting here of the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics.

The knowledge could lead to better methods of forecasting or controlling weather. It could prevent some water-troubled areas from becoming deserts one day.

These are some of the reasons for intensified studies of the oceans and air during the International Geophysical Year. Scientists of 64 nations are making cooperative researches to understand dozens of natural phenomena.

What has been learned about the water balance and future challenges were described by Dr. Mosby, by Dr. R. C. Sutcliffe, a British weather scientist, and others.

A strange carpet of turbulent air, only a third of an inch thick, lying over the oceans plays a vital but still poorly understood role in the earth's water balance, Dr. Mosby said. This carpet is full of holes, not uniform. To learn how it forms and exactly what it does are targets during the IGY.

Dr. Sutcliffe presented estimates of how much water there is in the air. Dr. Mosty said evaporation sucks thousands of cubic miles of water into the air from the oceans each year.

An attractive Soviet woman scientist indicated that the United States is ahead of Russia in some phases of work to launch artificial satellites into space.

Dr. Valerija Troitskaya, general secretary of the Soviet committee for IGY, said the Russians have not yet decided on the size or weight of their satellite and haven't built a model. U.S. scientists have their 20-pound satellite ready to go.

Blondes Lead in Contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Preliminary talent competitions continue today and tomorrow in the Miss America pageant.

The 51 girls representing 45 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canada, Chicago, New York City and Washington, D. C., were split into three groups of 17 girls yesterday so the 10 judges can see every entrant in all forms of competition.

Two blondes, Miss Arizona and Miss Missouri, won the bathing suit and talent championships last night in the first of three preliminary competitions.

★ ★ ★

Lynn Freyse, 20-year-old junior at the University of Arizona, captivated the judges in her beige and white wool bathing suit. Miss Freyse, 36-23-35 and 5 feet 5½, hails from Tucson.

Sara Ann Cooper, 18, of Buckner, Mo., danced her way to the talent championship with a lively interpretation of the Charleston.

Miss Cooper, daughter of Walker Cooper, catcher-coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, wore the traditional garb of the roaring Twenties for her three-minute dance before a convention hall audience of 6,612.

The hazel-eyed blonde said her costume was made with the help of her home economics teacher at Fort Osage High School last year.

Point totals in preliminary judging will be used to select 10 semi-finalists Saturday night. The field will then be narrowed to five for the selection of the new beauty queen. The girls can garner additional points for personality through breakfast interviews with judges.

Only the winners of each night's talent and swim suit competitions are announced.

Detroiter Sues Milkman

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Estella Vinson of Detroit filed suit for $20,000 Wednesday against the Borden Milk Co. and milkman Daniel G. Cronin of suburban St. Clair Shores. She charged in the suit that Cronin threw a brick through her back screen door when she could not pay an overdue $3 milk bill. She charged the brick hit and injured her 16-year-old daughter, Delores.

Congressman to Visit Local Communities

Broomfield to Consult Voters

Want to pat your congressman on the back for voting the "right way" last session? Want to scold him for voting "wrong?"

You can, easily, when Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) visits your community in his traveling office this mornth or next.

RETURNS HOME

Broomfield, just back from one of the longest Congressional sessions in Washington's history, is packing a selection of his files, records and government brochures into a housetrailer.

He plans to drive the whole kit and caboodle into the center of each city, village and township in the 18th (Oakland County) Congressional District. He'll hold regular office hours and you're invited in.

The young Republican congressman wants to put his ear "right to the ground," he says. He wants to talk to constituents personally and that's why he's making it as easy as possible for voters to meet representatives.

Broomfield wants complaints as well as praise, he says, in order to help him do a better job in Washington next January.

Just as important, the touring office will help county citizens to clear away the red tape" which often hampers dealing with the far-away Washington agencies of the Federal Government, Broomfield said.

Quite often, a Federal problem means either an expensive trip to Washington or a long series of letters which take a lot of time.

"By use of the trailer, I hope to provide Oakland County residents with a direct link to agencies and their Federal government."

Broomfield will begin his swing around the county Sept. 18. He expects to visit Pontiac for several days towards the end of the month.

Urban League Notes Success for Negroes

DETROIT (AP)—Despite reported Southern attempts to destroy organizations promoting desegregation in Dixie, the National Urbane League had before it today reports of continuing efforts to gain what was termed "equality of opportunity" for Negroes.

There were reports, too, that the efforts appeared headed for success in the face of what at least one speaker at the League's convention termed "lethal violence, spurious terror and tricky economic pressure."

The League is an inter-racial organization which lists as its goal, "equal opportunity for all and better race relations." It is a non-profit group dedicated to achieving objectives through "education, interpretation and inter-racial teamwork." Its membership is predominately Negro.

Nelson C. Jackson, the League's bership is predomisately Negro.

Nelson C. Jackson, the League's associate director, told the convention yesterday there have been attempts to scuttle the Urban League's southern units.

Pressures, he said, have been brought on both southern units and southern community chests from which some units draw support. He said chests in Jacksonville, Fla., and Fort Worth, Tex., had withdrawn support.

Ex-King to Tour Atomic Centers

Former Belgian Ruler to Visit With President During Stay in U.S.

BOSTON (INS)—Ex-King Leopold III of Belgium has started a weeklong tour of atomic research and cultural centers in the Boston area.

After his week's stay in Boston, the 56-year-old former Belgian ruler will tour the United States. He also will visit with President Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

He was accompanied on the flight to Boston by his wife, Princess Liliane, 39, and their son, Prince Alexander, 15. They were greeted yesterday at Logan International Airport, East Boston, by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of New York, Admiral Paul Foster, assistant general manager of the Atomic Energy Commission, Baron Silvercruys, Belgian ambassador to the United States, and J. C. Folger, U.S. ambassador to Belgium.

★ ★ ★

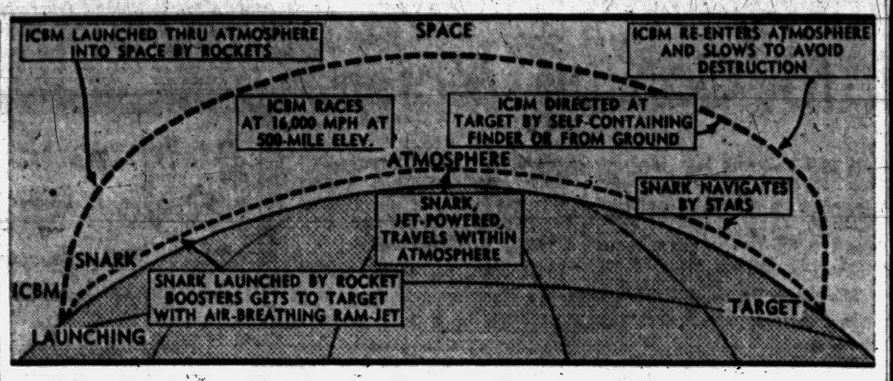

Leopold said he particularly wanted to visit Harvard University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He said he heads his country's Commission for the Development of Science, and wants to "see how the United States is planning to use atomic power for the benefit of the people."

★ ★ ★

Leopold expressed appreciation that President Eisenhower arranged for Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, "to accompany us on our atomic tour." Strauss, kept in Washington by business, will join the party later.

Paper Consumption Up

INDIANAPOLIS — Per capita consumption of paper and paperboard in the United States rose to 421 pounds in 1956, more than 150 times the amount used per person in many Asiatic and Near East countries.

GREAT MISSILE RACE — Russia's recent announcement of a successful Intercontinental Ballistic Missile has spurred on American efforts to perfect the "ultimate weapon." Diagram compares the Air Force's ICBM "Atlas," capable of 15,000-16,000 m. p. h., and the ICGM "Snark," a slower, guided but long-range weapon. Atlas has been tested and the Snark has reached the production stage. The "Titan," another Air Force project, is still in the research stage.

Ike May Return Calf to Youngster Who Misses It

WASHINGTON (INS) — A little girl who burst into tears when she found out her prize-winning calf was going to be given to President Eisenhower will get her calf back —if she wants it.

White House Secretary James C. Hagerty told a special news conference that Eisenhower has no intention of depriving Sharon K. Stauffer, of Walkersville, Md., of her prize Holstein heifer.

The calf won a first prize at the Maryland State Fair at Timonium during the Labor Day week end. After drying her tears, Sharon, with some prompting from her family, accepted a $1,000 check for the calf. When Hagerty heard the details, he took the matter up with the President.

He then announced: "We would never want to deprive any youngster of a calf she had raised."

John H. Zinc, president of the fair, promised to give Hagerty a complete report on the matter. From Hagerty's attitude it was clear, however, that the President's decision is final.

The Maryland State Fair and Agriculture Society had planned to present the calf to Eisenhower as a gift for his Gettysburg farm.

Need No Language in 'Numbers System'

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — You wouldn't have to know the language to reserve a hotel room in a foreign country, under a system being worked out by a State University of Iowa professor.

Prof. Erich Funke, head of the university's German department, calls the system Translingua. Under it you would simply substitute numbers of common words.

For instance, if you wanted to cable "Arriving Monday. Reserve single room with bath" you would simply transmit "432-27.212." Dr. Funke feels that such a system might be a boon to travelers and hotel operators the world over. The numbers, he explains, would mean the same in any language and clerks could decipher the number messages by consulting dictionaries now being prepared by Dr. Funke and his staff.

'Stain of Crime' Lingers Like Lady MacBeth's

FAIRMONT, Minn. (AP) — The stain of his crime was plain to see on a certain Fairmont teenager.

Arnold Jahn, plagued by thefts of gasoline from a tank in his back yard, rigged up a homemade thief catcher. He fixed a small charge of explosive so when the hose was lifted from the tank it would go off, spraying the culprit with hard-to-remove dye.

It worked, and not long afterward the sheriff's office arrested a teenage boy — brightly colored — for gasoline theft.

GI's Accuser Set to Testify

Soldier Says He Saw Girard Lure Women Onto Firing Range

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—The soldier who said William S. Girard tossed out shell casings to lure Japanese brass scavengers onto a firing range will testify Saturday in the trial of the Ottawa, Ill., GI.

Girard's trial on a manslaughter charge resumes tomorrow for thre days after a recess since its opening Aug. 26. He is accused of luring Mrs. Naka Sakai, a brass collector, to her death last Jan. 30.

Prosecutors announced today that Specialist 3.C. Victor Nickel, of Inkster, Mich., will be one of three witnesses summoned when the court convenes Saturday on Hill 655 outside of Maebashi. The session will be held on the firing range where Mrs. Sakai was fatally struck in the back with an empty cartridge casing Girard fired from a grenade launcher.

Nickel's statement saying Girard asked him to toss empty shells toward Mrs. Sakai and another brass picker was presented to the U. S. Supreme Court by the U. S. Army during a battle over which nation should try Girard.

Nickel has refused to comment on the case since he was first named as the man with Girard when the fatal shot was fired. An associate prosecutor, Kakuichi Sugimoto, said Nickel's testimony "will be most interesting."

★ ★ ★

The other two witnesses summoned to Saturday's session on the firing range are Hidetsugo Onozeki, 29, a farmer, and Kuji Sakai, 26, who is not related to the victim.

Japanese police have quoted Onozeki as saying Girard "enticed and induced" him and Mrs. Sakai before shooting at them. Kuji Sakai is called an eyewitness to the shooting.

Press Lake Search for Lansing Family

LANSING (AP)—An air, land and sea search for a Lansing family of six missing on a plane flight across Lake Michigan was continued today by state police, the Civil Air Patrol and the Coast Guard.

Raymond Hietikko, 40, his wife, Corrine, 32, and their four children, Cameron, 9, Mark, 7, Connie, 5, and Scott, 11 months, have not been heard from since they left Marquette Monday in their small private plane.

State police and CAP planes searched the upper part of the Lower Peninsula yesterday but found no trace of the plane. Neither did Coast Guardsmen from a base at Traverse City who searched the area as well as hunting in boats along Lake Michigan between Manistee, Beaver Island and Pellston.

U. of M. Prof. Earl O'Roke Retires After 28 Years

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—University of Michigan Prof. Earl C. O'Roke, called "the smiling Irishman" by his students, has retired after 28 years on the faculty.

★ ★ ★

O'Roke, who taught forest zoology, suffered a cerebral thrombosis a year ago. The illness caused him to lose his memory and he says he is now trying to relearn many of his past experiences.

A native of Kansas, Prof. O'Roke passed his 70th birthday on Aug. 2.

Two on Bicycle Injured in Collision With Car

Two persons, one a 15-year-old boy, were injured when the bicycle they were riding double, collided with a car at an alley on S. Saginaw St., just south of Orchard Lake Ave., Wednesday, reported Pontiac police.

Richard Mathis, 15, of 392 Ditmar Ave., was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for minor injuries and released. His companion, Kenneth R. Lewis, 20, of 388 Ditmar Ave., was admitted with a possible concussion and is reported in satisfactory condition today.

The car was driven by Clyde L. Rush, 37, of 258 S. Parke St.

A basket was found dangling from the cross that stands on Charing Cross Hospital, 100 feet above the London street level.

Best Identification Tag Soon May Be Your Ears

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Reporter

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Don't lend anyone your ears. They may be your best identification tag.

University of California researchers, spurred by the suggestion of a Chicago photographer of babies, are about to start a research project to determine whether the human ear changes shape during the course of life.

If they find it does not change contour, and that is what they fully expect, they plan to set up a system which could supplement or even compete with the fingerprinting as a means of identification.

The ear system might become the most nearly foolproof way of identifying babies and conceivably it could be a great help in criminology, said Dr. Douglas Kelley.

After talking with Manuel Zimberoff, the photographer, Dr. Keley said he was ready to get behind a one-year investigation to evaluate the ear identification idea.

Zimberoff said he got the idea from reading an account of the work of Alphonse Bertillon, French anthropologist who originated the fingerprinter system. Bertillon mentioned ears as a possible standard of identity.

The photographer developed an ear camera which can be used inside the hospital delivery room. As soon as possible after delivery a rectangular cardboard frame is hung over the infant's right ear. It is marked off both ways in millimeters or fractions of an inch to give accurate measurements.

★ ★ ★

A card bearing the family name of the baby, the name of the hospital and the date is set within camera range. A click of the shutter records the whole thing before the infant leaves the delivery room.

★ ★ ★

Zimberoff, whose business is photographing new-born infants, not just their ears, said he has supplied the identification equipment to scores of hospitals throughout the country and permits its use at no profit to himself. He has a patent on the ear camera and some other equipment features.

One Day at a Time,-No Miracle, Asks Hymn

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Mr. Walter O'Keefe, a man who chanced his first airplane ride in 1912 and has been up and down ever since in the scalloped swath of radio, was phoning a telegram to Western Union the other evening.

★ ★ ★

He gave the operator his phone number.

"Under what name is that registered, sir?" she asked.

"Walter O'Keefe," said O'Keefe.

"Gee," she pondered. "Whatever happened to him?"

Well, he is sitting here in a black-and-white striped shirt, tortoise shell spectaculars and an aura of philosophy, and he is saying, "I'm writing verse, what else?"

He also has a four nights weekly show called "Nightline" on NBC Radio, but that is so customary in O'Keefe's entertaining past it scarcely calls for mention.

"There are times for thinking, and whatever man is thinking comes out in verse," he says. "I remember when Lindbergh crossed that Atlantic—5,000 verses came in to one New York City paper alone, with people rhyming how they felt.

"So now men are worried about how things are going (for some reason, the world seems a little upset to everybody), and they're writing hymns. I've written one too, not because it's a trend, but because this hymn occurred to me, that's all."

★ ★ ★

O'Keefe's contribution to a troubled world would appear typical of the philosophy of a man who has been for more than a quarter-century engaged, good-humoredly but never complacently, in the most whimsical of professions. One day you give a sensational show and are in demand; the next, a miscue may lead to a dropping of sponsors and the mortgage on the homestead.

A hymn doesn't ask for a lifetime of peace, or even for a 13-week contract on contentment. With the kind permission of G. Schirmer, the songwriter quotes the verse intended to help others like himself who have learned enough of life not to ask for miracles:

★ ★ ★

"The Lord is showing me how to live,
Just one day at a time.

I ask for something I know he'll give,
Just one day at a time.

My prayer is one I can share with you, dear Lord,

★ ★ ★

Help me to do what I ought to do,
And give me the strength to carry me through,
Just one day at a time.
At last I'm learning to lean on the Lord,
Just one day at a time.

Just one day at a time.
The peace I know is enough reward,
Just one day at a time.
May every day be a work of art,
In which I may play a humble part,
I pray for an understanding heart,

★ ★ ★

Walter O'Keefe started his career as a song-writer in the '20's, before he became known as an entertainer, but the only song he has copyrighted is his version of "The Man on the Flying Trapeze." It made him famous in Broadway's "The Little Show" in the early 1930's.

In those days men needed, mentally and emotionally, to "think high"—hence the rollicking trapeze number. Now, in the '50's, men need, spiritually, even loftier thoughts.

★ ★ ★

O'Keefe, who knows a shaky format when he sees one, is doing his bit.

Lake Erie Oil Rights to Aid Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A state official predicts Pennsylvania may benefit by millions of dollars when it leases the first offshore oil and gas drilling rights along Lake Erie later this month.

★ ★ ★

"We have no hope of this being any way near as big as the offshore operations now under way in the Gulf of Mexico and off the coast of California," said Robert C. Barwick," but it could well mean millions of dollars for Pennsylvania just the same."

The state has fixed Sept. 24 to receive bids for leasing of two sections off Lake Erie, one 19,300 acres and the other 16,500 acres. Leases will be awarded the highest bidders with each operator required to pay the state royalties of an eighth of the field price of oil or gas that is recovered.

★ ★ ★

Pennsylvania owns about 735 square miles of land under Lake Erie and will be the first state to lease drilling rights although drilling is being done from the Canadian shore.

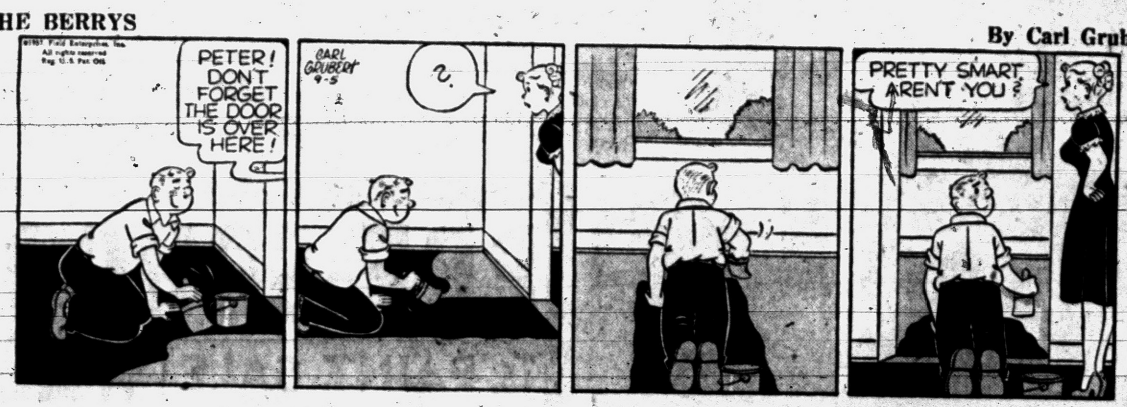

New 'Wrinkle' Proves to Be Dangerous One

TALOGA, Okla. (AP) — Carlos Squires thought he got a wrinkle in his sock when he hurriedly put on his boot.

The wrinkle didn't work out so he pulled off his boot — and a big centipede unwrapped itself from around his big toe. It bit Squires and he had to spend two days in the hospital.

Bulldozer Driver —a Few Beers— 5 Garages Gone!

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Five garages are missing in nearby Concordville today and state police blame it on an indignant interior decorator, a happy-go-lucky bulldozer driver and a few beers.

★ ★ ★

The garages used to be behind the home of Donald Baeshore, 46, the decorator. He thought they were an eyesore.

★ ★ ★

State Police Pvt. Earl Glasser said Baeshore was talking about them over some beers in a bar two weeks ago with a bulldozer operator, Charles Bennett.

Glasser said Bennett offered to get rid of them.

The garages were pushed into a nearby ravine and all but buried beneath five tons of dirt. The biggest clue to their disappearance, Glasser said, was the bulldozer tracks.

★ ★ ★

The tracks led to Bennett, he said, and Bennett led to Baeshore. Glasser led both men to Justice of the Peace A. Randall Mathues, who held them in $1,000 bail each for a further hearing on malicious mischief charges.

★ ★ ★

The garages were owned by Concord Foods, Inc., which took a dim view of the whole thing.

Reveal Gourmet Secret

SAVORY APPETIZERS — The price is right, if MSG seasoned ground beef is used in recipes to tantalize the appetite. No wonder many a guest "fills up" before the first course has been served.

Smorgasbord, antipasto, hors d'oeurves, canapes — mean "hearty appetite" in every language. So universal is the "appetizer" appeal, that they're devoured in countless variations by gourmets and gourmands throughout the world. And universally, their popularity depends on flavor and not on exotic ingredients. Even ground beef, so inexpensive and plentiful in America, can create appetizers that will tempt the most professional palate.

Gourmet Flavor Secret

No matter what the ground beef appetizer may be, MSG (pure monosodium glutamate) will highlight its individual taste. Derived from the lowly sugar beet, these white crystals, when shaken onto raw ground beef before tossing, bring out the wonderful natural meat flavor.

Until quite recently, monosodium glutamate was a culinary secret, shared only by chefs and gourmets. But now, MSG is used daily by enthusiastic cooks in homes all over the world.

Steak Tartare, is a sophisticated favorite, and has been since the Middle Ages. Easy to prepare, it needs only a good cut of very lean meat — sirloin or beef round — seasoning and an egg. The ground beef is tossed, then shaped into an oval, cross-hatched like a pineapple and surrounded by tomato wedges, chopped onion and capers.

Piroshki, diminutive version of pirog, is one dish to which no Russian has said "nyet." Neither has anyone else who's tasted one of these meat-filled turnovers. Served as an appetizer with cold soups or juice, their delicious taste and flaky texture makes the time spent in preparation very worthwhile. After all, a hundred thousand gourmets—and Russians—can't be wrong.

STEAK TARTARE

1 pound ground beef (top round)
1 teaspoon MSG (monosodium glutamate)
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 egg
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Combine ground beef, MSG, onion, egg, salt and pepper; blend well. Shape into oval in center of serving platter. Garnish with tomato wedges, chopped onion, capers and watercress. Serve with rye bread slices or crisp crackers. Yield: Approximately 2 dozen servings.

PIROSHKI
Pastry

½ pint (1 cup) commercial sour cream
½ cup butter, melted
2 eggs, separated
½ teaspoon sugar
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour

Beat a small amount of the sour cream into the butter; blend in remaining sour cream. Stir in sugar and egg yolks (reserve whites for brushing pastry); gradually blend in flour. Place in small, lightly floured bowl; sprinkle top of pastry with small amount of flour. Cover tightly with waxed paper and chill overnight.

Filling

1 pound ground beef
¾ teaspoon MSG (monosodium glutamate)
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 teaspoon minced onion

Break up meat with fork in mixing bowl. Sprinkle MSG, salt and pepper over surface of meat and toss lightly to distribute seasonings. Melt butter in skillet; add onion and meat. Cook meat, breaking up with a fork, until lightly browned.

To prepare Piroshki, quickly roll chilled dough 1/16-inch thick on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Cut out dough with a 3-inch round cookie cutter. Brush inside edge of each round with egg white; fill each with 1 teaspoon of the meat mixture.

Bring together opposite sides of the rounds and seal tightly with fingers. Place on ungreased cookie sheets, sealed side down. Lightly brush tops with egg white. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 20 minutes, or until lightly browned. Yield: Approximately 3 dozen.

Lunch Is Easy if Efficiency Is the Rule

Make lunch worth stopping for. Food served haphazardly from packages on a cluttered table or counter isn't worth sitting down for. Assemble frequently-used foods on a tray that can go from table to cabinet each day. This minimizes hunting. Let it hold such things as peanut butter, flavoring for milk, cheese jars, crackers, preserves, etc.

When preparing vegetables and relishes for other meals, set aside extra portions and store in pliofilm bags in the hydrator of your gas refrigerator. They will be clean and crisp, and this will cut down on preparation time for lunch.

Store left-overs from dinner in disposable foil containers; they can be used for reheating those foods for lunch.

Occasionally, assemble a tray of "quickies" and give children a choice for the day: soups, fresh or canned fruits, pork and beans, dry cereals, canned fish and meats.

★ ★ ★

Don't fight the peanut butter or other crazes—complement them with an interesting assortment of breads and crackers, dried fruits, relishes, bacon, honey and preserves.

A little pureed cooked spinach added to tartar sauce gives it a pretty green color and tastes good with fried or broiled scallops.

Advantages of Dry Milk Are Listed

Nonfat dry milk is a good buy because it helps to stretch your food dollar.

It is easy to keep on hand. It is especially convenient for the person living alone, for small families, and for families when everyone works away from home.

It is handy if you are vacationing away from a good source of fresh milk.

It is a refrigerator space saver. Dry milk can be kept on the cupboard shelf and reliquefied as needed.

It gives you the needed minerals, B vitamins, and protein that whole milk does.

It adds extra milk solids to various cooked dishes to help bring diets up to daily requirements. This is especially important in dishes for older people and for children who refuse to drink as much milk as they need.

It is low in calories, if you are weight watching. 1 cup of fluid dry milk has 85 calories compared to 165 in a cup of whole milk. It still has the same amount of needed calcium and protein. It adds more calcium and protein when added to whole milk.

Chopped cucumbers and tomatoes, seasoned with salt, pepper, a little sugar and some vinegar, make a fine accompaniment for a curry.

Cauliflower Glamorous With an Asparagus Sauce

Canned condensed cream of asparagus soup is so versatile. Its smooth flavor and soft green color make it perfect for an appetizer soup, or entree when combined with other foods. Have you ever thought of it as a sauce?

Try this: Blend 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of asparagus soup with ⅓ cup milk. Stir in ¼ teaspoon each grated lemon rind and orange rind. Heat slowly but do not boil. Serve over cauliflower. Makes 1½ cups sauce.

Creamed potatoes look pretty if you add minced chives, parsley or green pepper to them. Sprinkle with paprika before serving.

Oranges Color Seafood Salad

Sweet California oranges rate high for salads. When fresh oranges are combined with crisp salad greens these family favorites are greeted with new enthusiasm.

★ ★ ★

This Citrus Salad is a study in greens and gold. Pretty as a picture and good too.

Supper Citrus Salad

4 quarts coarsely chopped raw spinach leaves
4 oranges, cut into bite-size pieces
1 (7-ounce) can chuck style tuna
2 to 3 green onions
1 large avocado

Dressing

⅓ cup fresh lemon juice
2 tablespoons fresh orange juice
1 teaspoon grated orange peel
3 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon celery seed
⅔ cup salad oil

Place spinach in large salad bowl. Peel oranges, slice into cartwheels, then cut into bite-size pieces. Drain tuna and flake coarsely. Slice onions thin. Cut avocado into halves; remove seed and skin and cut into large cubes. Combine oranges, tuna, onions and avocado cubes with spinach. Pour dressing over all and toss lightly to blend. Serve at once.

Dressing: Combine all ingredients and shake thoroughly in small jar. Makes 6 servings.

They're Really Popovers

Open fresh popovers with a sharp knife, and insert marmalade and mince meat, combined half and half and warm slightly. Fold down the cover again and serve quickly. Robbers' Den is such a fine, descriptive name for popovers, and the filling adds novelty that makes them a real conversation piece.

TWO-TONED ICE CREAM — Make this delicious Two-Toned Ice Cream treat right in your own refrigerator. A rich and flavorsome blend of fresh fruit and vanilla pudding mix, it's as good as the old-fashioned kind, yet so easy to prepare.

Pretty Frozen Dessert Made With Pudding Mix

As a special treat try this delightful pink and white homemade ice cream—as good as the oldfashioned kind grandmother made in the hand freezer. It's inexpensive, too, and no fuss or trouble to prepare with vanilla pudding mix and fresh strawberries or peaches.

For added richness an egg yolk is cooked with the pudding mix. This is brought to a full boil, removed from the heat and added to the egg white which has been beaten into meringue peaks. A cup of light cream is then folded in and, for the finishing touch, strawberries or peaches are added to half the mixture which is poured into a freezing tray to chill until partially firm. The remaining vanilla cream is then spread on top, to freeze until firm. Delicious eating!

Two-Toned Ice Cream

1½ cup sliced strawberries or peaches
½ cup sugar
1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
2½ cups milk
1 egg yolk
1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup light cream

Crush fruit slightly, add 1/3 cup sugar, and let stand 20 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine pudding mix, ¼ cup sugar, salt, and ¼ cup milk in saucepan. Add egg yolk and blend well. Then add remaining 2¼ cups milk. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat.

Beat egg white until foamy throughout. Add 2 tablespoons sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Then continue beating until this meringue mixture will stand in peaks. Add hot pudding gradually. Then fold in cream. To half of mixture, fold in fruit.

Pour into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for coldest freezing temperature. Freeze until partially firm. Spread remaining pudding on top and freeze until firm. Freezing time: 3 to 4 hours. Makes 1¼ quarts. If desired, serve with a fruit sauce.

New French Toast Ideas

The next time you make French toast, try broiling instead of frying. It goes faster because you can make nine slices at a time. Served wth a warm sundae sauce, French toast may come to the dinner table as an inexpensive, tasty dessert.

Egg White and Sugar Will 'Frost' Grapes

Why not "frost" grapes as a feature of the salad plate or as a table surprise? Choose mellow grapes that are good to eat as well as look upon.

Dip each bunch in water, drain lightly on a paper towel, then shake in a paper bag which contains 2 tablespoons powdered sugar. You'll find that powdered sugar works better than confectioner's or granulated sugar.

Drain the fruit from chutney (if there is a great deal of sauce) and mix it with grated cheddar cheese for a delicious sandwich filling.

Pineapple-Orange Dish

This cool Pineapple-Orange combination will be a frothy compliment to pretty dessert dishes: Chill a can of pineapple chunks thoroughly, open can and drain. Place a serving of the chunks in sherbet glasses and spoon 2 to 3 tablespoons barely thawed, undiluted frozen orange juice concentrate over each serving. Sprinkle with chopped salted almonds. Serves 4.

Pack Nutrition in Lunch Box

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Off they go to school as the start of another year calls Oakland county children back to their studies. Clutched tightly in the hot little hands of thousands of these youngsters will be a shiny new lunch box. The hot lunch program in the schools is increasing each year, but there are still many many children who carry a lunch.

What goes into that lunch box is entirely up to you, Mother. Whether your children get an adequate lunch that furnishes at least one-third of their day's requirement of food is your responsibility. Of course you have to work around their likes and dislikes; but there is always an answer.

Let's review, first of all, just what does constitute a good packed lunch. When you have a pattern to follow, it is much easier. Nutritionists recommend two ounces of protein-rich foods such as meat, eggs or fish; three quarters cup of vegetables or fruits or both; one or more portions of bread with two teaspoons butter or margarine and a half pint of milk.

For the grade school child it might work out like this: two slices of enriched bread spread with butter or margarine and holding meat, eggs, fish or peanut butter. Carrot and cabbage salad goes along in a paper dish, along with a cookie and some fruit. In the vacuum bottle he can have milk, hot cocoa or a cream soup.

For the older child you must include almost twice the number of calories. He needs two sandwiches in addition to all his younger brother has. He may want both soup and milk and a heavier dessert.

When children buy milk at school, you can put fruit juice in the thermos if your child likes it. That is a good way to see that he has plenty of vitamin C. Of course, a tomato to eat out to hand will do the same thing.

Sometimes we meet mothers who deplore the fact that their children will eat only peanut butter sandwiches. While we never would suggest peanut butter as the sole article in the diet, we do know that is it a good protein food. If your child resists meat and eggs, peanut butter in his sandwiches not only gives him protein, but also thiamine, a B vitamin.

Children love hot dog and hamburger rolls. You can use them for unusual sandwiches. Scoop out the inside of a hot dog roll with a knife or an apple corer. Fill the cavity with the child's favorite meat filling and wrap in waxed paper. Little girls will like these rolls cut into midget sandwiches for daintier eating.

A hamburger roll can be sliced to make three pieces. In this you can put two different fillings for a double decker sandwich. Another different sandwich can be made with one slice of white bread and one slice of whole wheat bread.

If you freeze sandwiches in quantity, be sure to spread butter or margarine well out to the edge of each slice of bread. This will prevent the filling from soaking the bread. Remember that mayonnaise, cooked eggs and tomatoes do not freeze well.

If you have some unsolved lunch box problems, call on us. Maybe we can help you out. In the meantime, here are some interesting sandwich fillings using pineapple.

Vitamin Sandwich

Combine grated carrots (2) with equal amounts of chopped nuts, ½ cup crushed pineapple, dash of salt and 2 tablespoons salad dressing.

Pineapple-Ham Sandwich

Mix well 1 cup ground ham, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple, 1 tablespoon brown sugar and ⅛ teaspoon ground cloves; best on white or whole wheat bread.

Pineapple - Cream Cheese

Combine one (3 oz.) package of cream cheese, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise or salad dressing, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple and ½ cup finely shredded carrots.

Combine a 3 ounce package of cream cheese with ⅛ cup of crushed pineapple. Or for a special touch, add 2 tablespoons of chopped pecans. Makes 2-3 cup filling.

Half 'n Half

Combine ½ cup of peanut butter with ½ cup drained crushed pineapple.

THE KIBITZER — Karen Domas, who's a junior high student, buys her lunch at school. But she keeps an eye on what her mother, Mrs. Ben Domas, puts into sister Diane's lunchbox. Diane is fond of liver sausage sandwiches. A must every day is something crisp to nibble, like carrots or celery — and always fruit. The Domas family lives on Oakway drive.

Tired of the Old Mixes? Try Some of New Ones

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Be on the lookout for three brand new soups that are about to appear on the market. One of the country's leading manufacturers of soup is introducing Chicken Vegetable soup, Minestrone and Turkey Noodle soup. The Minestrone is an Italian-style vegetable soup. It has been several years since any new soups appeared and these should be worth a trial.

★ ★ ★

We have been trying several of the new cake mixes. One of them, a lemon custard-flavored angel food, is delicious. It lasted even less time than angel food usually does at our house — and that's never very long. It's a delicate yellow color with a matching flavor.

The same milling company has come out with a Cake 'n Frosting mix combining both cake and frosting in the same package. You have your choice of white cake with fudge frosting or devil's food cake with white frosting. It will make an eight or nine inch square cake.

The third cake mix, chocolate chip, may be used for a cake or for some easy drop cookies.

Chocolate Chip Drop Cookies

1 package instant chocolate chip cake mix
1 tablespoon water
2 eggs, unbeaten
¼ cup softened butter
½ cup chopped nuts

Place about half the cake mix in a bowl. Add water, eggs, and butter; blend well. Then add remaining mix and beat until smooth. Stir in nuts.

Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 10 to 12 minutes. Store in tightly covered container. Makes 3½ dozen cookies.

One more mention of a mix and we'll go on to other things.

A rival milling company up in Minneapolis has come out with a new pie crust mix. Adding water is all you do to make two nine-inch crusts from one package. The unusual feature is that it's golden. The mix is golden, the dough is golden and the pie crust is golden.

With all the local seasonal fruits in the stores you may not be buying many oranges these days. However, we should like to say a word about oranges at this time of the year.

You may reject some oranges because they are not the golden color you are used to. They may be green tinged. But they are perfectly good to eat.

Why some of the California oranges turn slightly green AFTER they have ripened is a mystery growers have not yet solved. The fruit is never artificially colored. California has a law that allows only mature fruit to go to market. Forget your worries about getting unripe oranges and take them as they come, orange or green-tinged.

If you have a baby in the house, here's news for you. You can get fruit - flavored meats in both strained and chopped form. Three flavors have found favor with the high chair set: pork with applesauce; ham with raisin sauce and lamb with mint.

Ever come across a "Bro-Hen" on the meat counter? Well, you probably will soon. "Bro - Hens" are the mothers of broiler-fryer chickens and have some of the same characteristics. These high quality birds formerly were called "stewing chicken" or "fowl." Now they are being dignified with a new term.

The advantage of "Bro-Hens" to the homemaker is that she will be assured a meaty, succulent chicken. The moist-heat methods are the proper cooking ones and "Bro-Hens" will stew, bake or braise.

Keep your eyes open for all these new foods. In a few weeks we'll be off to the Food Editors' Conference, and then we'll have even more new things to write about.

Lemon Cookies Use Cooked Egg

Here's a delicious and nutritious cookie that bears frequent repetition. It's so good the cookie jar won't stay filled. However, the recipe makes a generous amount, and you won't mind if the family like them so well they disappear. Whole California fresh lemons provide bio-flavonoids that are so beneficial for cementing cell walls.

2 lemons
1 cup sugar
1 cup butter or margarine
1 egg
3 hard-cooked eggs
3 cups flour
1 egg white
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
½ cup chopped nuts

Grate peel of lemon on sugar. Cream butter until soft. Add sugar gradually, creaming butter and sugar until fluffy. Beat in one egg. Press hard-cooked eggs through ricer or chop fine and add to creamed mixture. Put lemons through grinder and add ground pulp. Stir in flour.

Roll the dough into one-inch balls. Beat egg white slightly. Mix together the ½ cup sugar, cinnamon and nuts. Dip balls in slightly beaten egg white—then in sugar-cinnamon-nut mixture. Place on cookie sheet and press balls with thumb to flatten. Bake in slow over (325 degrees) about 30 to 40 minutes. Makes about 5 dozen.

A Fine Change in Waffles

Porch snack: gingerbread waffles with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream. If you want to go all-out, you can also offer butterscotch or chocolate sauce; both of these flavors go well with the gingerbread.

Cafe' au Lait Is Spicy With Cinnamon

The economy of fixing exactly the amount to be used and the convenience of "one-cup" preparation sometimes cause us to overlook some of the more intriguing possibilities of instant coffee. For example, there's Cinnamon Cafe' au Lait . . . with a party flavor and a breath of the South Seas.

Cinnamon Cafe' au Lait

4 2-inch sticks cinnamon
2 cups boiling water
2 tablespoons instant coffee
2 cups hot milk

Add cinnamon sticks to boiling water, cover and simmer for five minutes. Add instant coffee and hot milk. Remove cinnamon sticks and place in coffee mugs; pour in hot coffee mixture. Sweeten if desired. Yield: Four servings.

Or add a teaspoon of instant coffee to hot cocoa for a delightful mocha flavor. Use instant cocoa also for ease.

It's smart homemaking to take advantage of the many delightful shortcuts provided by today's convenience foods, particularly when the sun is shining and Mom's time is needed in other spots than the kitchen.

Cut Hole for Basting

When baking ham with a beer basting, follow this suggestion from a famous chef: Using a long-bladed knife, cut around the shank bone and pour in as much beer as the ham will hold. Then continue basting the outside of the ham during baking, pouring on the beer directly from the can or bottle about every 10 minutes.

Chill and Season at Once

Store tomato juice in a covered container in the refrigerator with a few celery tops, allspice berries, peppercorns and some coarsely grated carrot. Strain and serve as a first course with cheese crackers.

Put Fresh Corn in Fritter Batter

Historians now believe that American Indians in the Southwest had sweet corn at least 1,300 years ago, and that probably they got it from the Indians who lived in the Andes mountains of South America. Sweet corn may not be Yankee in its origin, but it's mighty American.

The white people in America didn't really get interested in sweet corn until some time after 1800, and farmers did little about improving varieties until about 1850. But today's sweet corn is much like today's automobiles — new models every year.

Here's an appetizing way of serving the 1957 sweet corn:

Corn Fritters

Chop 1 cup of corn and drain; add 1 beaten egg yolk; stir in ½ cup plus 2 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon each salt and baking powder, dash of paprika and 1 egg white, stiffly beaten. Dip batter by teaspoonfuls into hot shortening. Fry until golden brown. Recipe serves four.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Boneless Chuck Pot-Roast.

Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?

A. It comes from the chuck or shoulder section of the beef carcass. It is made from a portion of this section after the backbone, rib bones and blade bone have been removed. It's tied to form a compact, easy-to-carve potroast.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. Like any less-tender cut of meat, it is cooked slowly by the moist heat method of braising. It requires 3 to 4 hours cooking time.

Open a can or two of small whole potatoes and cook a package of green peas; heat the potatoes with the drained cooked peas and some butter or margarine. Nice quick vegetable dish for company.

Instant Coffee Adds Sun Tan to Angel Food

Even the luxurious mocha flavor of a Suntanned Angel Cake is quick-as-a-wink with a prepared mix and instant coffee.

Suntanned Angel Cake

To one package angel food cake mix, add two tablespoons instant coffee to flour mixture (usually termed "B" in packaged angel food cake mixes). Proceed according to package directions. Slice and serve with:

Mocha Whipped Cream Topping

1 cup heavy cream
2 teaspoons instant coffee
Dash salt
1 teaspoon shaved unsweetened chocolate
6 tablespoons confectioners' sugar

Whip together first three ingredients. Fold in chocolate and sugar and frost cake.

Whopper Sandwich Will Feed a Crowd

Cut a 2-pound loaf of round rye bread into halves vertically. Cut each half horizontally into 5 equal slices. Spread butter or margarine on cut surfaces.

Spread egg salad filling over bottom (fifth) slice. Top with fourth bread slice. Arrange lettuce leaves and chipped beef on fourth slice. Top with third bread slice and spread with a peanut butter filling, made by combining crunch-style peanut butter with chopped crisp bacon. Top with second slice, spread with mustard and cover with 4 slices Swiss cheese. Cover cheese with top slice.

Place 3 skewers into each sandwich half and arrange halves to form whole round loaf. To serve, cut each half, between skewers, into 3 equal portions. Remove skewers to serve. Makes 6 generous servings.

Oranges Impart Flavor to Salad

Here's a salad that helps to make the kind of a meal you enjoy. You'll be amazed at the lively flavor oranges impart to a seafood salad.

Hilo Lobster Salad

2 6½ ounce cans rock lobster (2 cups) or shrimp, crabmeat, white fish
1½ cups fresh California oranges, cut into bite-size pieces
1½ cups diced celery
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
Dash of ground cayenne pepper
½ teaspoon soy sauce
½ cup mayonnaise (add 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice to mayonnaise) lettuce

Place first 8 ingredients in a mixing bowl. Toss lightly. Serve on beds of crisp lettuce. (If desired, use shrimp, crabmeat, or white fish.) Makes 6 servings.

Steak Garnish Calls for Bacon and Tomatoes

Garnishes can be so easy to prepare and add color and individuality to a meat platter too. An unusual steak garnish may be prepared by wrapping a half slice of bacon around a tomato wedge. The bacon slice can be secured with a wooden pick. A mushroom cap can then be placed on the tip of the wooden pick.

These bacon-tomato-mushroom garnishes can be broiled with the steak during the last 8 to 10 minutes of cooking.

Trial of 'Confidential' Soon Going to Jury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The torrent of scandal gushing from the criminal libel trial of Confidential magazine has finally run dry.

Final arguments to the jury will begin tomorrow, the last day of the trial's fifth week in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The case is in recess today.

Probably by the end of next week the jury of six men and six women will begin deliberations. It will be up to them to decide whether Confidential and Whisper magazines, Publisher's Distributing Corp., Fred and Marjorie Meade and their Hollywood Research, Inc., are guilty or innocent of conspiracy to commit criminal libel and to print lewd and obscene matter.

If the jury finds them guilty of a felony, the penalty could range up to three years imprisonment, a fine up to $5,000 or both. If the jury decides the offense is a misdemeanor, the term of imprisonment could be up to one year in jail and the fine up to $1,000.

The dominant issue of the trial—was the story about actress Maureen O'Hara making love in a Hollywood theater true? — persisted to the very end.

The defense's final witness was a paralyzed former employe of Grauman's Chinese Theater. Testimony of Mrs. Jan Harkins, a young mother, was taken at her bedside in her Los Angeles home.

Mrs. Harkins testified that while working at the candy counter in Grauman's in the spring of 1954, she was told by a fellow employe, James Craig, that Miss O'Hara was "involved in a necking party" in the rear row of seats.

Mrs. Harkins sais she did not see Miss O'Hara in the theater.

She was the third former employe of the theater called by the defense in its effort to prove the story true.

Craig testified he saw Miss O'Hara and a Latin in a torrid clinch in November 1953. Later, Michael Casey, the theater's assistant manager, testified he saw Miss O'Hara and her companion embracing. He placed the time as February 1954.

★ ★ ★

Craig said he supplied the information for Confidential's story.

Miss O'Hara took the witness stand Tuesday and denied she ever was in Grauman's with anyone other than members of her family. She said millionaire Mexican business man Enrique Parra had never accompanied her to the theater. The defense had attempted to identify Parra as her companion in the "necking party."

State Couple to Aid Convict

Will Forward Letter to President on Behalf of Ex-Son-in-Law

PORT HURON (AP) — A Port Huron couple has agreed to help an escaped convict who was briefly married to their daughter in his fight to bring his case to the attention of President Eisenhower.

George Leroy Page, 28, wanted as an escapee from a South Carolina prison, has asked Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fitzner to forward a letter of his to the President which asks that he be exonerated or given a new trial.

Page, who is fighting extradition from Honolulu where he surrendered to authorities, also has asked the Fitzners to circulate a petition attesting to his character and send that to the President. The Fitzners have agreed.

Page escaped from prison in 1954. He was convicted in 1946 of the fatal shooting of a cab driver but contends he was not given a fair trial. In his letter to the President he said he believed he was not guilty of what he was accused of.

★ ★ ★

Page and the Fitzners' daughter, Betty Lou, 24, went to the West Coast after their marriage. He deserted her there and went to Honolulu where he turned himself over to police.

The marriage has been annulled but Betty Lou says she plans to stand by Page.

The blaze razed the Triangle Auto Sales Co. in the heart of the city. No one was injured but persons living above adjoining buildings were evacuated.

Police said the fire apparently started in a repair shop in one corner of the building. Several explosions during the fire were believed caused by gasoline and other inflammables in the garage.

Fire companies from Reed City, Morley, Cadillac and Mecosta assisted the Big Rapids department.

Tell of Crawling to Escape Death

Two Witnesses Testify in Pontiac Township Murder Examination

Two material witnesses to a killing testified yesterday they crawled away on their stomachs to escape death themselves.

Thomas Squires, 27, of Wyandotte, and Joseph Wells, 19, of Detroit, testified at the pre-trial examination of Lee Harris Jr., 25, Pontiac Township man accused of the first-degree murder of Eddie Hick, 28, of Wye Mills, Pa.

Harris lives in a trailer at the Glenview Trailer Park, 2300 Shimmons Rd. The victim was shot to death in front of Harris' trailer Aug. 26.

Squires and Wells testified before Township Justice Robert Hodge that they had driven with Hicks to the trailer the night of the killing. Squires admitted he had a grudge against Harris and planned to fight him.

But as they pulled in front of the trailer and Hicks, the driver, was getting out of the car, three shots rang out, the two men said.

The victim fell to the ground, shot once in the back. His two companions testified they hurried out the other side of the car and crawled away through the brush in order to escape injury themselves.

Assistant Prosecutor Jerome K. Barry said he also plans to call several sheriff's deputies as witnesses before the examination ends, probably today.

Harris' attorney, Clarence L. Smith, indicated the accused man will not take the stand to testify in his own defense.

Court on Porch Rules Against 'Spot' and 'Susie'

DETROIT (AP)—Court convened yesterday in the front yard of Mrs. Florence Bittikofer—in full view of her angry neighbors and her puzzled dogs.

Mrs. Bittikofer's defense was simple: "Spot is a good dog. My dogs don't bite anybody."

But the neighbors said Mrs. Bittikofer's two dogs—and their six puppies—were a nuisance. They said the dogs barked at night and often rushed at them.

★ ★ ★

Judge John D. Watts of Detroit's Traffic and Ordinance Court went to Mrs. Bittikofer's yard to hold the hearing after she said she was too ill to come to his courtroom. She was charged with harboring a nuisance.

Spot and the other dog, Susie, maintained a discreet silence. But Mrs. Bittikofer, 46, had plenty to say. At one point Judge Watts warned her: "Be quiet or you'll go to jail."

Mrs. Bittikofer lost the case. Judge Watts found her guilty but referred her to a probation officer. He ordered Spot and Susie sent to the Michigan Humane Society pound. The puppies had been given away.

The crowd drifted away and Mrs. Bittikofer sat sobbing on the steps of her front porch.

Wood Trays Return

By International News

Wooden fruit trays are making a comeback, judging from stylish room settings at the International Home Furnishings Market.

Triangles, round, square and even elongated trays appeared on cocktail and dining tables.

Home Business Has Parasites, Too

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Too many of us keep our amateur standing long after we've really become professionals.

This is especially true of women who make products at home. They begin making them without charge for friends and relatives and continue to do so long past the time when they ought to be charging money.

That's Mrs. Y.'s problem.

SPECIAL HOBBY

"My children are grown and have homes of their own now," she writes, "and I am indulging an interest I've always had, interior decorating.

"Through the years I've read up on it and have kept scrapbooks. I learned to make draperies, slip covers and all kinds of home furnishings.

"I'm especially interested in slip covers. They can make or ruin a room, and for such a small amount of money, relatively speaking.

"I have made beautiful covers for my own furniture and also made some for my daughter, daughter-in-law, friends and neighbors.

"But while I love making them," Mrs. Y. continues, "I'm beginning to resent doing it for free. My neighbors start by just asking my advice, but, before the job is done, I end up making them.

" 'Just lend me a hand in finishing this' usually means they want me to make the whole thing. I don't want to antagonize them, but is there any way I can make it clear that I want to be paid?"

The first step is to say "No" gently but firmly to all comers right now.

"I'd love to, but I haven't time" is all right if you're a coward. But it's better to say, "Sorry, I'm already working on a project." And don't relent.

The same goes for relatives. They'll value you more in the long run if you aren't ready to pitch in at the drop of a hat.

The next step is to take a decorating course—at your local high school if they give one or a good correspondence school course. If you feel educated, if you have studied it seriously, you will take yourself more seriously. And so will other people.

Finally, don't count on friends for customers—not until after you're really successful.

Instead, check with your local department stores and decorators and see if they can use a good slip cover maker. Or, if you want to be entirely on your own, advertise in your local newspaper.

Greet Guest With Warm Handshake

Custom Also Fine Way of Welcoming Old Friend

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am a woman in the early thirties and am confused about handshaking. Will you please tell me just when a woman is supposed to offer her hand?"

Answer: About the only time a woman must shake hands is as hostess when greeting her arriving guests. This is true even if she saw one of them earlier that day! Old friends often shake hands if they haven't seen each other for some time.

In her own office a woman would rise and shake hands with a visitor. Beyond these occasions women shake hands or not as they feel inclined. Obviously no lady would refuse a proffered hand.

"Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine who lives in the country wrote to me recently and asked me to buy something for her here in the city as she couldn't get it where she lives. I bought the item and paid for it and sent it to my friend, enclosing the sales slip so that she would know the cost of it. That was over two weeks ago and I haven't received the money for it.

"My finances are rather limited and I don't see why I should be out this money. Of course there is a chance that she sent the money and it went astray. How can I tactfully go about asking her for the money?"

Answer: You can quite correctly write to her and say something like "I am very hard up this month, would you please send me a check for the sweater I bought for you? The amount was 22 dollars."

"Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to have a white runner down the center aisle at my wedding. Will you please tell me when this should be put down—before the guests arrive or just before the bride herself walks up the aisle? I have had different opinions on this."

Answer: Since its sole object is to protect the freshness of the bride's train from the dust, or in bad weather, possible mud from the shoes of the guests, it is rolled (unrolled actually) up the aisle just before the wedding procession begins.

Teens Buy Good Shoes With Care

Poor Papa.

A just-released survey of teenage buying habits turns up the startling information that three million teenage girls will buy 9,000,000 pairs of shoes during the months of August and September. Which means an average of three pair each.

And hardly a pair will be worn with blue jeans. In fact, now that the teener has given up sloppy shoes, she's come full circle and decided to buy only the best shoes obtainable. She men say she spends more time reading the fashion magazines than anybody and takes more time (20 to 30 minutes to a pair) buying her shoes. She demands shoes of the best quality, too, with the finest leathers and the most careful workmanship—including trim, tailored leather soles and smooth leather linings.

The styles she's buying this year go with her classic pleated skirt. Here are a few of the most popular numbers:

A square-toed, hand-sewn moccasin, with brass-buttoned turndown collar in loden green, tobacco or vicuna, on trim leather sole, with leather welts to help them retain their shape.

A skimmer pump in smooth or brushed leather with frond-like trim of smooth leather along the sides of the throat. This is preferred in bark tones on a sled-shaped heel of stacked leather.

A winter spectator displaying two leather textures in lighter and darker tones of the same color. Grained and smooth leather will be combined with each other or one of these will be combined with suede in light and dark navy, brown or gray. The leather lining is color matched with the smooth leather upper.

'It's the Do-Gooders and Creeps Who Hate These Groups'

Teenagers Divide Sharply on Issue of Fraternities

By EUGENE GILBERT
President of the Gilbert Youth Research Co.

Do fraternities and sororities have a proper place on the high school campus?

As schools take up again, teenage opinion is divided sharply on the subject, with the opposing camps of nearly equal strength.

Our nationwide survey on this topic, which occasionally has agitated parents and educators, showed 56 per cent of the girls and 40 per cent of the boys hostile to the organizations. And it produced a spate of widely contrasting comments.

A high school student from southern California, for instance, insisted that "it's do-gooders and creeps who hate fraternities and sororities. These groups are an important part of high school life and should be strengthened rather than outlawed."

But a 17-year-old boy felt the clubs are "un-American" and should be barred.

"Nothing breeds prejudice more quickly," an 18-year-old girl noted, "than clubs where one group is free to exclude whomever they want."

SENSE OF INFERIORITY

Generally, those in the anti-fraternity forces argued that they "build up a sense of inferiority in people not invited to join," limit one's social circle, and "make some people think they're better than others."

From the pros came assertions that such organizations have "always been a part of American school life and belong there."

Said one high school sophomore, "They have them on nearly every college campus. Why not in high school?"

But the actual membership of these bodies is fairly small, the survey indicates. Only 11 per cent of boys between 13 and 15 years belong, and 23 per cent of those 16 and older.

★ ★ ★

High school sororities enrolled only 9 per cent of girls from 13 to 15, and 17 per cent of older girls. The survey covered school both with and without fraternal organizations.

Hostility on the part of many education officials doubtless has been an important factor in inhibiting the growth of the association.

Nationally, the picture is "an extremely spotty one," says Dr. Ellsworth Tompkins, assistant superintendent of the National Assn. of Secondary School Principals in Washington.

Most larger states have banned them, he noted, and the "general tendency" in localities where the societies are permitted is for educators to try to minimize their influence through a varied fare of regular school activities.

"I don't believe high school fraternities and sororities are growing nationally," the educator said.

★ ★ ★

"They're on their way out in some places, although they have presented a persistent problem in some cities."

In the nation's capital, the associations are permitted but lack formal recognition by school authorities, according to Dr. Carl F. Hansen, assistant superintendent of the District of Columbia Board of Education.

TOO EXCLUSIVE

"They shouldn't be part of school activities," he added, "because they're undemocratic in character, too exclusive, clannish and cliqueish."

Pointed Shoe Toe Boon to Women, Holds Foot Firm

The currently elegant pointed toe — even the "sharpened" toe — is actually a boon to many women because most of us have a long, narrow foot. In the pointed toe shoe those long toes spread out and act as a buttress, holding the whole foot in firm place. In more rounded toes, the long foot was apt to bunch up in front and flap up and down in back.

Not every pointed toe will fit you, though, and you may take a different size from what you've been wearing, so stand up in your new shoes and walk around thoughtfully before you write out the check. For one thing, long narrow feet usually have a long arch, so be sure the instep, too, is the right length for you. In a fashionable shoe it probably will be, because the "up-front look" means more room forward.

Wise Parent Knows When to Join Play

It's a wise parent who knows when to play with Junior's toys and when to handle them with velvet gloves — which means keeping "hands off!"

The father who is always looking over his son's shoulder and kibitzing every move, is allowing him to learn nothing. In fact, from such minor beginnings there are cases where the child learns to run to his parents every time a major problem comes into his life.

On the other hand, a father who doesn't monopolize, but tactfully guides, can help build good habits and character traits for his child. Junior needs to develop a sense of having control over a situation if he is to be expected to grow up into a well-adjusted adult.

Rich Tarts Will Melt in Your Mouth

Mrs. Fuller Uses Baking Powder in Easy-Do Crust

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Little tartlets that melt in your mouth will be yours if you follow this recipe from Mrs. Fred Fuller of Cass Lake. She says they travel well, wrapped in aluminum foil.

Mrs. Fuller, a charming vivacious woman, loves to entertain and to cook in her remodeled kitchen. She's an active Girl Scout leader and works in Civil Defense and with the Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary.

BUTTER PECAN TARTS
By Mrs Fred Fuller

Pastry:
1 cup shortening
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons vinegar
3 tablespoons water

Sift dry ingredients together. Add shortening and blend to consistency of cornmeal. Mix egg, vanilla, vinegar and water. Gradually add liquid to flour, mixing with a fork.

Place in wax paper and form into a ball. Roll out lightly and cut into circles to fit large tart pans. Fill and bake 30-35 minutes in 350-degree oven. Makes 16 tarts (3-inch ones).

Filling:
3 eggs
1 cup pecans, chopped fine
1 cup dark corn syrup
½ teaspoon cinnamon
⅔ cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup melted butter or margarine

Beat eggs slightly. Combine all ingredients. Pour into unbaked tart shells.

Versatile Dryers Sport Novelties

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (INS) — Versality of new clothes dryers is seen in some designed for all fabrics which will fluff dry clothes with or without heat. Some types will dry the most delicate fabrics without tumbling.

One manufacturer has a device to sprinkle clothes automatically and germicidal lamps may be obtained for other models. In addition there are devices to scent clothing with a pine odor.

The messy look haunts many women. It comes from too much jewelry, fussy accessories, bad handling of color, hats full of feathers and bows and veiling. To look chic and neat, keep things simple.

Well Cut Clothes Asset in Business

Working Girl Should Look Smart

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

The business woman should strive for good grooming and smartness rather than for glamor. This does not mean that her clothes or makeup should be dull. Attractive clothes and attractive makeup are assets in any job but they should be conservative rather than extreme.

Save extreme or exotic makeup, frilly blouses, garish costume jewelry and elaborate dresses for hours outside the office.

The woman with a job usually has more money to spend on her clothes than the average woman in the home. She will need to spend more on her clothes because she is a representative of the business firm for which she works and her appearance is important not only to her but to her employers.

At least one suit is the basis of her wardrobe. This should be an in-between suit, not severely and mannishly tailored but not dressy. Attention should be given to the material and the cut of the suit.

The material should be attractive, wrinkle resistant, comfortable and smart. The suit should be well cut.

A suit like this can serve many purposes. It can be worn at the office, and then with a few quick changes it can go out for the evening. Dressier blouse, shoes and hat, white gloves, and dressy ornament or earrings, and you are ready for dinner, the theater, or even a dance date.

Dressy sweaters also can be employed for evening wear. The suit is more flexible if the skirt is not severely straight up and down.

Daytime, well cut dresses of wool also are suitable. The dresses and suits should be in one of the dark shades. Bright colors are not so appropriate for work and are too easily remembered.

Clothes should be comfortable. Tight garters and girdles are distracting and may lead to varicose veins. Clothes or shoes that are poorly fitted lead to fatigue and poor judgment.

Be sure that your stockings are long enough. If not this also will tire you. If you are on your feet much, avoid high heels. Extremes are not best looking anyway for working hours.

The working-woman's clothes must be smart but practical and adaptable.

Elizabeth J. Taylor and Charles E. Sornig were married Saturday in St. Michael Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sornig.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES E. SORNIG

Elizabeth Taylor Speaks Vows in St. Michael Rite

St. Michael Church was the setting for the Saturday wedding of Elizabeth Jean Taylor and Charles Edward Sornig. The Rev. Norman Thomas solemnized the Nuptial High Mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor of Rose court, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sornig.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of imported French lace and nylon tulle over satin. The full skirt swept into a chapel-length train. A crown of seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil of French illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and red roses.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. William Hockenberry, was the matron of honor. She wore a yellow chiffon over taffeta gown and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mary Louise and Sally Ruth Taylor, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore Nile green gowns fashioned like that of the honor attendant. They carried cascade arrangements of green carnations.

GOWNED IN WHITE

Joy and Jan Taylor, sisters of the bride, wore white lace over nylon dresses and carried baskets of rose petals for their duties as flower girls.

★ ★ ★

Serving as best man was William Hockenberry. The guests were seated by Kenneth Rogers and Gary Sabourin.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Taylor chose an aqua sheath accented by a corsage of pink carnations.

Following an afternoon reception at the Taylor home the new Mrs. Sornig changed to a gray princess-style dress with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. The newlyweds will live on East New York avenue.

Longer fur trim is more flattering to the short full figure. The slender, with no hip problem, stops fur trim at the waistline.

When you greet an acquaintance, call him by name. "Hello, Bill" or "Good morning, Mrs. Brown" sounds much more friendly than just "Hello" or "Good morning."

How to Get and Keep a Husband——Article III

Every Woman Should Know Her 'Marriage Rating'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In her penetrating survey of modern woman's search for a happy and lasting marriage, Kate Constance recommends that every woman should sit back and take a long look at her "marriage-rating." In this third of a series of articles specially condensed for readers of The Pontiac Press from the Dorrance best-selling book, the author sums up the questions you should ask yourself whether you are single or married.)

By KATE CONSTANCE

If you are 30 years old and aren't married, something is wrong.

That something is not necessarily wrong with you. Perhaps it is in your environment or circumstances.

★ ★ ★

But very likely it is you—your attitudes, your personality, your objectives or your appearance.

Most unmarried women complain about a big shortage of men in this country available for marriage, either because they already are spoken for or because they are reluctant to assume the high cost of family maintenance.

Yet it is possible for you to have many opportunities to marry. Read the following sentence several times and memorize it:

For every woman who is right and ready for marriage there is a husband.

★ ★ ★

Plenty of men are looking for women who are right and ready for marriage, and there is a scarcity of women who fit that description. But to make your desires come true you must prepare your mind and your inner self, as well as your outer circumstances, in order to attract marriage.

ELIMINATE FAULTS

You've got to work at it daily, hourly, correcting conditions that stand in your way. Keep striving until you form habits that in turn become character controlling what you think, what you say, what you do and become a very part of your physical appearance.

★ ★ ★

First, give yourself a cold appraisal. How do you rate in the marriage race?

Be honest. Go on and swallow the dose. Don't give yourself one iota of credit where it is not due. The very fact that you recognize unpleasantries about yourself means that you are being honest and big enough to "take it."

Being right for marriage means this: A positive attitude toward men and the responsibilities of marriage, and the same attitude toward yourself and your shortcomings.

Here are some of the things that often discourage women when they examine themselves as marriage prospects. Ask yourself these questions:

Age—Are you burdened with a deepening pessimism because the years have passed and you are 30 or more without a husband?

★ ★ ★

Are you bogged down in hopeless resignation, drowning your disappointment in work and reading, all-girl social activities and family interests?

PITY YOURSELF?

Are you wallowing in self-pity, consoling yourself with the conclusion that love and marriage are only for the young and beautiful and wealthy women?

★ ★ ★

Physical deficiencies—If you are burdened with a deformity or defect, do you almost hate yourself for it and envy those who are happily married?

Does the knowledge that there are so many pretty women suffering from singleness depress you with a feeling that the chances for you are so much smaller?

Education — Do you feel that your inadequate education is keeping you from worthwhile contacts where you can meet men socially?

Do you shun social gatherings because you are afraid of saying and doing the wrong thing?

Are you satisfied with a mediocre job because you are afraid to try holding down a better position?

★ ★ ★

Money—Are you one of those single women who feel that if she had money she could get out of the rut and enjoy a fuller social life? Do you criticize people who have money and prestige?

NOT ATTRACTIVE?

Homeliness — Are you homely, maybe ugly? If your face or your figure so unbecoming that you cringe when you look in the mirror?

If a man looks at you, do you feel that he is sneering instead of admiring, because you have so little to please the masculine eye?

Just average—Perhaps you consider yourself just an average personality with nothing to distinguish you in a crowd of a thousand or even in a company of three.

Are you so tired of trying to look beautiful, of striving to be good and decent and sincere and contented, that you yearn to throw your pretenses aside? To settle down comfortably to a slovenly appearance and careless behavior?

If you are harboring any of these viewpoints you are not quite right for marriage—not yet! Get rid of those negative feelings toward yourself and your circumstances.

Now let's take a look at those attributes of which you are so desirous. They aren't as important as you think.

A fat bank account, youth and a good supply of pulchritude help attract male attention but they are far from guarantees of married love. Young and beautiful women do enjoy a lot of admirers, but many of them are "propositioners" instead of "proposers."

DESTROY STANDARDS

Too many women, finding it difficult to win a husband, resort to every available physical means to arouse and satisfy the males they attract. In so doing they destroy the very codes and standards they would prefer to live by.

★ ★ ★

Do not yield to the propositioners in the false belief that by doing so you are more likely to win a husband.

This is an age of unlimited freedom for the individual, and therefore it calls for greater self-discipline and more self control.

The woman who is different in the evaluation of men is the woman with high moral standards.

Men may shy away from married life with a woman who is too good-looking, fearing that she may overshadow him, that she will prove to be selfish and spoiled, and that she may be unfaithful.

★ ★ ★

The sad truth is that a beautiful woman too often feels that character and personality are unnecessary, and that she has all she needs to get by—until age creeps up and takes away her most precious asset.

DEADLY INDEPENDENCE

Money and beauty often impart a deadly independence to a woman, weakening her sense of responsibility and her desire to go the limit of her endurance for a successful marriage. She is likely to feel that she never really needed to marry and at the least provocation seeks her freedom.

Some men are afraid of the woman who "has everything" because they believe she may be unwilling to give love, enthusiasm and devotion that a more dependent woman is likely to give.

There is a lesson here for every woman. Those are things that you CAN offer, if you will.

Age and physical deficiencies of any kind in themselves are not obstacles to marriage. The real obstacles are the inferiority complex, self-pity and defeatism that creep over the mind because of these deficiencies.

A college sociologist made a survey of more than 250 married young people which revealed that none of them got exactly what he or she had expected in a mate. The men were twice as disappointed as the women.

Here are the qualities which husbands said they wanted most and failed to get: Emotional maturity, poise, considerateness, intellectual stimulation, and efficient homemaking.

None of those desired attributes had anything to do with beauty, age, physical perfection or money! They are matters of character and personality.

★ ★ ★

Your success in finding a husband and enduring happiness can be achieved by putting your better self to work.

No matter what your appearance, you have a better self—the real you, the Inside Person comprised of heart, mind, personality, character.

Use it!

Mavis Johnson Becomes Bride in Perry Park Rite

White gladoli and palms banked the altar of Perry Park Baptist Church for the Saturday evening wedding of Mavis Ruth Johnson and Fred J. Wilson. The Rev. Hilding Bihl performed the ceremony before 175 guests.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Johnson of Cameron avenue are the bride's parents, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson of Cherrylawn avenue.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of nylon tulle and Chantilly-type lace. The gown featured a Sabrina neckline, long hand-tapered sleeves and a fitted basque waist. She carried an arrangement of miniature roses and feathered carnations.

Mrs. Bill Rose of Kalamazoo served as the honor attendant and Janet Tweit and Marlene Liddy were the bridesmaids. They wore ballerina-length gowns of white nylon sheer over princess blue taffeta fashioned with Sabrina necklines and cap sleeves. They carried budded peach gladioli bouquets with white daisies.

Monty Tipton served as the best man. Daniel Bailey and Duane Whitson seated the guests.

For a reception in the church parlors Mrs. Johnson wore a beige Chantilly lace and nylon dress with brown accessories and a Hibberd rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a white and black sheath dress with white accessories and a red rose corsage.

The new Mrs. Wilson had changed to a navy sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet before leaving on a trip to northern Michigan.

The couple will live in Ypsilanti where the bridegroom is a student at Eastern Michigan College and affiliated with Kappa Phi Alpha fraternity.

Feeling of Being Different Burdens Child

(Mrs. Muriel Lawrence is on vacation. In her absence, noted phychiatrist Erie Fromm discusses six frequently asked questions on child-parent relationships. His answers are condensed from his book, "Man for Himself," published by Rinehart and Co.)

Q. What makes a child feel he is "disappointing" his parents?

A. One particularly subtle form which the feeling of disappointing the parents frequently takes is caused by the feeling of being different.

Dominating parents want their children to be like them in temperament and character. The choleric father, for instance, is out of sympathy with a phlegmatic son; the father interested in practical achievements is disappointed in a son interested in ideas and theoretical inquiry, and vice versa.

If the father's attitude is proprietary, he interprets the son's difference from him as inferiority; the son feels guilty and inferior because of his being different and he tries to make himself into the kind of person his father wants him to be. But he succeeds only in crippling his own growth and in becoming a very imperfect replica of his father.

Since he believes he ought to be like his father, this failure gives him a guilty conscience. The son, in attempting to free himself from these notions of obligation and to become "himself," is frequently so heavily weighed down by a burden of guilt over this "crime" that he falls by the wayside before ever reaching his goal of freedom.

The burden is so heavy because he has to cope not only with his parents, with their disappointment, accusations and appeals, but also with the whole culture which expects children to "love" their parents.

The foregoing description, though fitting the authoritarian family, may not seem to be correct as far as the contemporary American, especially the urban, family is concerned. But the picture I have given holds true, nevertheless, in its essential points.

Instead of overt we find anonymous authority expressed in terms of emotionally highly charged expectations instead of explisit commands.

Moreover, the parents do not feel themselves to be authorities, but nevertheless they are the representatives of the anonymous authority of the market, and they expect the children to live up to standards to which both—the parents and the children—submit.

Divide Drawers to Relieve Jumble

By International News

To overcome that jumble in bureau drawers, try dividers.

You can make them easily. First design the requirements—the exact sizes of spaces needed for lingerie, sweaters, accessories and the like.

Then from heavy cardboard, cut stripes to measure and tape or staple them into sections. The effect becomes decorative as well as organized if you use prepasted wallpaper to line the drawers and the dividers.

MR. and MRS. DANIEL R. CHERRY

Married Saturday in Our Lady of the Lakes Church were Rosemarie N. Goderis and Daniel R. Cherry. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goderis are the bride's parents. Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cherry.

Rosemarie Goderis Wed in Our Lady of the Lakes

At Our Lady of the Lakes Church Saturday morning Rosemarie N. Goderis and Daniel R. Cherry were united in marriage. Two hundred and fifty guests attended the 11 o'clock service performed by the Rev. Frederick J. Delaney.

★ ★ ★

Rosemarie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goderis of Airport road. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cherry of Mott street are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was gowned in a floor-length dress of white satin with Chantilly lace appliqued on the skirt. The dress, made by her mother, was of princess style featuring a scalloped neckline and long, tapered sleeves.

Securing her fingertip veil was a Juliet cap of white lace with sequins and pearls. The bridal bouquet was composed of a cascade arrangement of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Jack Hutchison served as matron of honor and Eloise Bradley was Rosemarie's only bridesmaid. Both wore princess-style turquoise dresses of crystalette with a Y front and back.

They carried hand colonial arrangements of white carnations and yellow roses and wore headpieces matching their dresses.

ASSIST BRIDEGROOM

Attending the bridegroom were Louis J. Goderis, brother of the bride, as best man and Edward C. Passmore, Richard Goderis, brother of the bride, and Marion Cherry, brother of the bridegroom, as ushers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Goderis chose a navy blue dress of lace over taffeta with navy and white accessories and corsage of pink and white roses for the evening reception at Amvets Hall on Oakland avenue.

The bridegroom's mother wore a nylon shantung dress of powder blue with blue accessories and red rose corsage.

★ ★ ★

For a trip to the Upper Peninsula, the new Mrs. Cherry changed to a brown sheath dress with brown and white accessories and the white rose corsage from her bridal corsage. Upon returning, the couple will reside on Marston street.

Where there's smoke there's probably a bride cooking.

Concentrate on Peaches While They're at Peak

Getting the children ready for the new school year leaves little time for other homemaking activities. Still there is food shopping and meals to prepare, and summer's harvest continues whether you stop to can or freeze or not.

PRODUCE—Peaches are still at the top of the fresh fruit list quality-wise, flavor-wise and price-wise. Look for Fairhaven and Hale Haven varieties now, suggests the MSU Marketing Information Agent Mrs. Josephine Lawyer. Both are very good choices for canning or freezing.

Peaches ripened on the tree are tops in flavor, but at this stage of maturity peaches are fragile and difficult to ship since they bruise easily. Have you thought of going to the orchard to pick tree ripened fruit?

Increased numbers of growers and shippers are hydro-cooling peaches picked at the firm ripe stage. As the peaches come from the orchard, they are immersed in an ice-cold water bath and chilled to about 50 degrees. These peaches, shipped in this slightly underripe, cool state, ripen more evenly and keep 4 to 5 days longer than uncooled ones. Compared to last year, the amount of peaches being hydro-cooled has doubled in Michigan.

Keep homegrown tomatoes on the shopping list. Supply and quality is very good. Seasonal prices are low.

Locally grown Bartlett pears can now be added to out of state supplies. Pears are an exception to the rule. They are better when not tree-ripened. It is up to you to finish the ripening. For the best flavor ripen pears in a cool, dark, humid place where the temperature is about 60 to 70 degrees.

Keep them in a fairly air tight container such as a paper bag or cabinet drawer. Check each day for some ripen faster than others. Ripening usually takes from 3 to 5 days.

More top quality cauliflower and broccoli are available.

★ ★ ★

Yellow summer squash and green striped Zucchini are delicately flavored. To keep the flavor, steam them in a covered pan with a small amount of water or tomato juice. Chopped green onion and cheese are complimentary flavors with these squash. There is plenty of butternut and acorn squash for baking.

Which eggplant will you choose? One of the first cues is color. A uniform dark color and a bright shiny surface are quality teammates. The best eggplants are light for their size rather than heavy.

PROTEIN FOODS—September's meat outlook indicates a continuation of large poultry supplies. The U.S.D.A. estimates there will be 5 per cent more turkeys and 6 per cent more fryers marketed this September than last year. This, plus the fact that fewer shoppers buy fryers at this time of year, are clues to what happens to price. Be on the alert nutrition-wise and money-wise for poultry values.

Egg supplies for the rest of this year are expected to be smaller than a year ago. Young hens that start laying in late summer are supplying more small size eggs. From a price standpoint they are your best egg buy. Three small eggs weigh the same amount as two large eggs.

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Michigan sports writers met at Cranbrook yesterday for their annual Fall gathering to hear Lions' head coach George Wilson and to plan their football strategy for the forthcoming season.

Wilson told the writers that the success of any team in the NFL depends on its ability to trade and to get new blood.

"Many teams have suddenly declined in the league because they hated to part with the older players," said Wilson. Likewise, Wilson pointed out that "not one rookie has left here feeling he did not get a fair shake.

"We have to gain some new blood every year or we will hit bottom like many other teams have done," he added.

WHY NO PHS-WATERFORD GAME?

Look at the football schedules of Pontiac and Waterford High Schools. Both have only eight games set for this year. Why can't they meet for that 9th game?

Saying Pontiac High is just too strong doesn't make sense. Pontiac isn't playing Royal Oak Dondero, yet Waterford is this year.

That is just as tough a game for the Skippers as PHS would have been.

AN OUTSIDER COMMENTS

While speaking of Pontiac High football, someone commented recently, "Pontiac sure has a fine stadium with horrible lights." This was a writer from another city speaking.

As a passing thought, no matter what the records may show, the Pontiac-Waterford game would fill Wisner Stadium. What would be wrong with still scheduling that game for the last week of the season and split the gate proceeds?

It might raise enough money to get those lights, and Waterford could gain some funds for its own grid field necessities.

Baptist Wins Playoff Title

Emmanuel Baptist, Waterford League softball champion in the regular season, made a clean sweep of honors for 1957 by winning the annual loop playoffs Wednesday night at Drayton Plains.

Behind the two-hit pitching of Harlan (Fat) Keith, the Baptist team shut out Drayton Drug, 3-0, in the long-delayed playoff final.

Keith struck out 15, including the 1st eight batters he faced, and did not yield a safety until the 4th inning. Only one ball reached the outfield.

Gary Boe hurled the distance for the Druggists and allowed five hits, two by Bill Pittman.

Emmanuel tallied one run in the 3rd and two more in the 5th. "Fat" aided his own cause by scoring twice.

Usual Rough Spots in 1st Scrimmages

U. of M. Scores Easy but Attack Needs Polishing

Wolverine Gridders Are Planning to Scrimmage Again Today

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's first scrimmage went off as expected — touchdowns came free and easy, but the attack needs plenty of polish.

"It was a typical first scrimmage," said coach Bennie Oosterbaan after it was over yesterday.

Seeking quick improvement, Oosterbaan said his Wolverines probably would scrimmage again today.

"Our blocking wasn't crisp, the ball handling and timing were bad and we were tipping off our plays," said Oosterbaan.

But on certain plays Michigan's offense clicked with beautiful perfection, especially when the first string was working.

Right at the outset, fullback John Herrnstein scampered 75 yards for a touchdown on a spinner. He was aided by a key block by right halfback Mike Shatusky, who levelled the safety man.

Herrnstein was to score twice more, once on a 35-yard gallop and again on a three yard plunge before Oosterbaan excused his first unit.

Shatusky, fighting hard to retain his berth as a starter, also tallied three times. One was on a 35-yard run and another came on a 30-yard pass from quarterback Jim Van Pelt. The third was on an eight-yard run.

Van Pelt also completed a 65-yard touchdown pass to sophomore end Chuck Teuscher, who was with the first team in place of the injured Gary Prahst.

Prahst pulled a muscle behind his knee in the morning workout. Although he was walking with a limp, his injury wasn't regarded as serious.

Sophomore quarterback Stan Noskin tabbed himself as a definite prospect by passing for two touchdowns after the reserves took the field. Both were 10-yarders to end Dick Jetteman.

MICHIGAN'S SPINNER — John Herrnstein, University of Michigan's star fullback, demonstrates the complicated spinning fullback maneuver, the start of many of the team's tricky plays in the single wing offense. Top left, he takes direct pass from center. Top center, the spin starts where he keeps, hands off or pitches out. Upper right, with back to line, he can tuck the ball in his stomach, hand off on a slant, end or end around play. Lower left, the ball is hidden by his overlapping arms as he continues to spin. Lower center and right, he starts his thrust toward the line. If the ball had been passed off, he is in blocking position. Herrnstein scored three touchdowns Wednesday at Ann Arbor in Michigan's 1st scrimmage of the season.

Spartans Stage Tough Sessions in 1st Contact

Minor Injuries Result as Expected From Head Bumping Drills

EAST LANSING (AP) — It was rough out there yesterday on the Michigan State football practice field.

Coach Duffy Daugherty staged his first scrimmage of the fall season and had his troops bumping heads in both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Some of the expected injuries resulted — including two minor concussions — but there were no stretcher cases.

"They were putting out good for the first scrimmage," said Daugherty. "I saw a lot of rough spots that need polishing, missed assignments mostly, but that's to be expected. Your defense always is ahead of your offense at this stage of the game."

Coaches alternated the first four teams on offense against a mostly sophomore squad of live tackling dummies operating on the defense.

Dr. James S. Feurig, team physician, listed these injuries after the dust from the last tackle had subsided:

Bob Jewett, end from Mason, and Bob Sanders, tackle from Hazel Park, both mild concussions; Joe Fomenko, center from Detroit, knee sprain; Andy Aljian, guard from Detroit, nose and face cuts, and Hubert Fisher, halfback from Evanston, Ill., dislocated finger.

The first team, quarterbacked by Jim Ninowski of Detroit, worked its way down to the 15 yard line before being stopped on downs by the defense. Right half Walt Kowalczyk, cutting around the left side of the line, was making the best gains.

Mike Panitch the second quarterback, picked up a lot of his outfit's ground by running with the ball and fullback Don Arend of Benton Harbor scored what would have been a touchdown from 10 yards out.

Greg Montgomery, an East Lansing product, directed the third squad to scrimmage and Larry Bielat of Center Line handled the fourth crew. Both are sophomores.

Henny Young, the 150-pound vest pocket fullback from Detroit, scored for Montgomery's outfit.

MBA Contends Skiers Liable for Own Acts

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A Michigan Boating Assn. spokesman contends that water skiers should be responsible for their actions independently of the boats towing them.

Clifford Montague of Grand Rapids expressed the opinion yesterday at an East Grand Rapids meeting on inland water safety. The conference was conducted by Kent county sheriff Arnold Pigorsh.

Montague said the association plans to seek a change in the state boat registration law in the next session of the legislature. The law becomes effective next March It requires all boats, except rowboats and craft on the Great Lakes and connecting lakes, to be registered.

"We feel it is only equitable to have all sailboats and power boats in Michigan come under the law," Montague said.

Pontiac Racers at Motor City

Pontiac's Joy Fair, well on his way to winning the hard top point championship at the Motor City Speedway, will bid for his 8th victory in 16 starts tonight at the track.

Fair proved again on Labor Day that his determination to capture the hard top title this year is no passing fancy when he set a track record in winning the 25-lap feature.

Joe Doyle and Rusty Kelly both of Pontiac and Bill Kourt of Brighton, all with feature wins to their credit, will be among 20 drivers who will try to qualify.

Trials begin at 7:00 p.m.

Can Tigers Finish in First Division?

DETROIT (AP) — After floundering on road trips all season, can the Detroit Tigers suddenly rejuvenate their traveling forces and finish in a fourth-place flourish?

That appeared to be the question to answer today as the Tigers prepared for a three - game home series with the Cleveland Indians beginning tomorrow. After that, it will be uphill road games until Sept. 27 when Detroit returns home to close the season against Kansas City.

One thing has been clearly indicated, however. The "no trade" label applied to the Tigers' brightest stars in past seasons is on the way out. This has already been announced by the Bengal hierarchy.

Even players of the stature of shortstop Harvey Keunn will not be immune from the trading block when general manager John McHale and his adviser on personnel, Charley Gehringer, start swinging the axe.

In addition to Kuenn, veteran Ray Boone and pitchers Billy Hoeft and Duke Maas are also believed to be expendable in trying to get a pennant contender in Tigertown.

The Tigers announced yesterday that pitcher Chuck Daniel will report to the club from their Charleston farm team when the American Association season ends Sunday. Daniel, 23-year-old righthander, had a brief trial with the Tigers in the spring.

Only a game and a half out of fifth place, Detroit's fourth-place future looks anything but bright — especially statistic-wise.

Outside the friendly confines of Briggs Stadium this season, Detroit has a woeful 25 victories against 37 defeats for a percentage of .403. They have split 10 games in Cleveland but are behind in six other cities.

At home, Detroit has played strictly first - division ball. It now has a 42-29 home record for a .592 percentage.

Figuring that the Indians have posted a 4-4 mark so far this season in Briggs Stadium where they open a three-game series tomorrow night, the facts are anything but in Detroit's favor.

Meanwhile, fifth place Baltimore beat Washington, 1-0, in 10 innings last night to slip within 1½ games of Detroit.

All the Tigers (including manager Jack Tighe who went home to Spring Lake) rested today but the pitching staff. Under coach Willis Hudlin, the hurlers worked out on Tighe's orders.

Jim Bunning, Detroit's best hurler of the season with a 16-7 record, has been named to meet Cleveland in the opener.

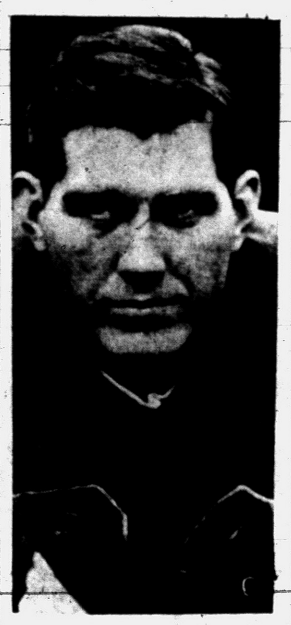

Fielding Yost's Michigan football teams hold a record for consecutive games without a defeat, going unbeaten in 56 games. The only mar was a 6-6 tie with Minnesota which came midway through the magic string.

Sports Writers Hold Conference at Lions' Camp

Sportswriters from the state of Michigan gathered at the Detroit Lions training camp at Cranbrook yesterday to lay plans for the coming football and basketball seasons.

Member newspapers of the Associated Press were named as central points for this year's prep season in relaying results, league roundups and as panel members for the high school grid poll.

The Pontiac Press was one of the papers named to the panel. In the election of officers, Bruno L. Kearns, sports editor of The Press, was named president of the Writers' Association for the coming year.

TRADED—Halfback Lew Carpenter, who is expected out of the service shortly, was traded today by the Detroit Lions for Roger Zatkoff, former University of Michigan gridder who lives in Hamtramck. Zatkoff, a linebacker, was the subject of a trade when Buddy Parker was with the Lions, and again this week when the Browns wanted to trade him to Los Angeles.

Detroiter III at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A Detroit youth has been lost by the Harvard football squad because of illness.

Carl A. Framke III, 19, underwent a sudden appendectomy yesterday. Framke captained last fall's freshman team.

Moves to Regain Title

Fullmer Batters Chico Vejar

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—Former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer opened a campaign to regain his crown immediately following his bruising unanimous decision over Chico Vejar last night.

* * *

Manager Marv Jenson said Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, "has promised Gene a shot at the winner of the Basilio - Robinson fight." Sugar Ray Robinson, the middleweight champion, and Carmen Basilio, the welterweight titleholder, fight for Robinson's crown in New York City's Yankee Stadium Sept. 23.

The Fullmer-Vejar fight last night was televised nationally, ABC. Fullmer, of West Jordan, weighed 158½. Vejar, of Stamford, Conn., 157.

Judge Del Markham scored it 47-41, Judge Bob Yokum had it 50-38 and Referee Ken Shulsen had it 49-42, all for Fullmer.

Gene showed a crowd of more than 9,000 why he still is ranked the No. 1 middleweight contender.

Fullmer sent Vejar sprawling to the canvas with a right-left-right combination in the third round. Vejar got up at seven but had to take the mandatory nine-count. Gene also had Chico groggy at the end.

* * *

Vejar's best rounds were the sixth and seventh. Fullmer said Chico was beating him to the punch but "Marv told me to start pressing him" and that ended Vejar's rally.

It was sort of "Fullmer against the world" night at the outdoor arena in West Jordan, about eight miles south of Salt Lake City.

Gene's two younger brothers, Jay and Don, also appeared on the card. And both scored knockouts.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHT

WEST JORDAN, Utah — Gene Fullmer, 158½, West Jordan, outpointed Chico Vejar, 157, Stamford, Conn., 10.

Janczarek Golf Tourney Slated Here Saturday

An 18-hole golf tournament dedicated to the late Henry Janczarek will be held Saturday at City Municipal course.

Janczarek, a native of Pontiac and for many years a standout golfer in this area, died suddenly of a heart attack last spring.

About 20 two-man teams are entered in the Memorial best-ball tourney and any golfer living in Oakland County is still eligible to participate. Interested persons should call Mike Andonian at FE 3-7418.

Tee-off times run from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. and starting times are listed at the city links. All prizes are being donated by Pontiac merchants and other area businessmen.

Ted Stays in Bed

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams was in bed with a respiratory infection at home today as the Red Sox flew to New York for a two-game series with the Yankees.

Dr. Ralph McCarthy, Red Sox physician, said last night Williams still was running a slight temperature and "I'm not going to allow him to go to New York."

At left is Herbert Steffey who teamed with four-time former doubles king, Leonard Skaggs (right) for Skaggs' 5th title in six years. This is Steffey's first time on the top rung. Skaggs won with Walter Cook four years in a row up to 1956, when they finished second to Lloyd and Floyd Bartley. Floyd is the 1957 singles champion. Skaggs won singles in 1953.

Mrs. Billie Hughes, Orion township archer, set several records in the women's Instinctive division of the recent Michigan target archery tournament at Jackson.

In the junior American round the former mark 598, set in 1955, Billie's score was 644, better by 46 points.

Former American round score was 570, Billie's was 546.

In the Columbia round Mrs. Hughes' 534 was a new record.

Her total for the four rounds was 2112. This too was a record.

In the double junior American rounds, only junior event, Kathy Hughes was first with 1091, a record total. John Hughes was third for boys with 1197.

Carpenter Traded for Linebacker

Lions Finally Swing Trade for Zatkoff

Roger Zatkoff, the oft-traded linebacker of the Cleveland Browns has finally become a member of the Detroit Lions.

In a deal which was mentioned when Buddy Parker was head coach, the Lions today traded halfback Lew Carpenter for the former University of Michigan gridder. Detroit will also give up an undisclosed draft choice to the Browns, according to general manager Nick Kerbawy.

Kerbawy said the trade was, in essence, the same one that fell through several weeks ago when Parker was still coach of the Lions. Parker resigned and is now head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The first time around the trade was voided by National Football League commissioner Bert Bell. He ruled against the deal when the Lions new coach George Wilson decided against it.

* * *

Kerbawy said Wilson favored today's swap. Wilson was not immediately available for comment.

The Browns acquired Zatkoff, a 26-year-old, 6-2, 220-pounder from the Green Bay Packers earlier this year.

Zatkoff, who makes his home in Detroit, was reported favoring a swap which would send him to the Lions so he could spend more time with his family.

* * *

A similar swap which would have sent Zatkoff to the Los Angeles Rams was called off earlier this week when the former Big Ten star said he would go home to Detroit rather than report to the West Coast club.

Carpenter, who is expecting his discharge from the army shortly, is stationed with a military unit in Germany.

Before entering service prior to last season, Carpenter had been an offensive mainstay for the Detroit team. The hard-running speedster was the Lions' leading ground gainer in the 1954-55 season.

No Water for Races

A strong southwest wind had blown much of the water out of the bay and onto the Canadian shore. Another attempt to hold the races will be made today.

Mrs. Fox Hits Year's Low in WMGA Action

Season's low card for the Metropolitan Golf Association's women's division was turned in yesterday at Glenhurst GC by Mrs. C. F. Fox. Mrs. Fox fired a 39-37—76 over the par 71 layout (men's par) for a women's course record. She won the WMGA championship a week ago.

Two were tied at 81 for 2nd (Mrs. Harold Martell and Mrs. Joseph Koss), two tied for 3rd at 84 (Mrs. Zada DeBolt of Pontiac and Mrs. W. H. Falco). Other top cards—Mrs. Charles Zahn, 86, and Mrs. J. W. Menefee, 87.

Joe Williams of the Pirates in the season of 1899 set a rookie record by slamming out 27 three-base hits.

City Doubles Champions

Leonard Skaggs and Herbert Steffey won the doubles title in the recent city horseshoe tournament at Oakland Park, rallying to defeat the Renda-Mortenson team in the best-of-five finals. The scores were 25-24, 7-25, 16-25, 25-6, 25-24. Six teams entered the tourney, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department.

Gene Sarazen was known as golf's fastest player.

Loss to Boston Leaves Champs Ahead by Five

NY Has Dropped 10 of 17 but Chicago Not Much Better

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Memo to the Chicago White Sox: Don't just stand there, do something! Stop fiddling!

What more could an American League contender ask than to have the New York Yankees stumbling over every club in sight as late as September?

The Yankees, hit by injuries just as the White Sox were earlier, suddenly have found their unbeatable bench unfrocked. The only club they've whipped in the past two weeks was the White Sox, but even that three-game sweep doesn't explain how they've managed to hold the lead.

In their last 17 games, the champs have lost 10 for a .412 pace surpassed in futility only by that of their cellar chums, Kansas City and Washington. The White Sox have played .529 ball in that span, but after falling 6½ games behind in the Yankee sweep have lost three of six.

★ ★ ★

The Yankees kept the door open for Chicago again last night. They blew a 3-0 lead, missed a knockout punch in a ninth-inning rally and finally lost 7-5 in 11 innings to Boston. That left the champs five games ahead of the idle White Sox.

And in the other AL game, Baltimore rookie Jerry Walker battled Washington's Camilo Pascual through nine scoreless frames, then won 1-0 in the 10th with a four-hitter.

★ ★ ★

Pete Daley, a .203 hitter, blooped a bases-loaded pinch single that capped a three-run rally in the ninth and led to a 5-5 tie for the Red Sox. Then he stayed in the game and rapped a two-run homer in the 11th. George Susce, 3-0 lifetime against the Yankees, won his seventh. He put down a two-run, tying rally in the ninth by fanning Bill Skowron and getting Yogi Berra on an infield grounder with the bases loaded.

★ ★ ★

Tommy Byrne, one of three southpaws among four pitchers used by Yank Manager Casey Stengel although the Red Sox were 17-7 against lefthander, was the loser for a 4-6 record.

Basilio's Hatred of Ray Sounds Like Real Thing

ALEXANDRIA BAY (AP) — When a fighter says he doesn't like an opponent, you normally can discount it as ballyhoo. In the case of Carmen Basilio, it sounds like the real thing.

"How can you like a guy who does the things that he (Sugar Ray Robinson) has done?" said Basilio at his training camp in the Thousand Islands. "I'm a fighter. He's a fighter. How can he look down on other fighters? He was a great fighter....notice I said was. His arrogance overcomes that."

Basilio, seven years younger than Robinson at the age of 30, says he has a double-pronged motive in beating the Harlem sugar dandy. "He has caused a lot of people a lot of aggravation and somebody's got to get even with him. Secondly, he wants all the money so let him take all the licking."

Cardinals Nip Braves in 12th, Dodgers Win

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A sacrifice fly in the 12th inning by Del Ennis gave St. Louis a 5-4 victory over Milwaukee and cut the Braves' lead back to 7½ games as the top club in each league had a tough time last night. Third place Brooklyn held on by belting the Phillies 12-3. The Dodgers trail by nine.

Outstanding pitching highlighted the other games. Rookie Moe Drabowsky halted the Chicago Cubs' losing string at seven with a two-hit, 1-0 first game victory over Cincinnati's Bud Podbielan, who allowed just three hits. The Redlegs took the nightcap 7-2.

Pittsburgh's Bob Friend beat the New York Giants 2-0.

Del Ennis singled home two in a four-run Cardinal first before his sacrifice fly clincher off losing reliever Don McMahon. Herm Wehmeier, the gent who beat the Braves out of a pennant on the next to the last day of the 1956 season, went all the way and won his eighth. He gave nine hits, including home runs by Del Rice and Ed Mathews that junked the Cardinal lead, but fanned eight and retired 19 in a row while blanking the Braves over the last seven.

The Dodgers, held to three hits in a 3-2, 12-inning defeat by the Phils Tuesday night, rapped six pitchers for 14 this time. Don Cardwell lost it while ailing Don Newcombe squared his record at 11-11 with relief help. The Brooks scored three in the first on Gil Hodges' home run. Added two in the third and bagged seven in the eighth.

Ernie Banks' 33rd home run won it in the fifth for the Cubs while Drabowsky retired the first 18 in order. He gave up only a triple to Johnny Temple in the seventh and a pinch-single by Jerry Lynch in the ninth while walking none and fanning five for his 10th victory. Podbielan who beat Boston needed only 1:27 to beat the Cubs 1-0.

The Redlegs broke out for 13 hits in the nightcap while Joe Nuxhall won his ninth with a nine-hitter.

28 Events Listed for Weekend Show

It is an all-day affair, starting with little folks musical stalls, running through the morning, with the first half windup the parade class. Grand entry opens the afternoon activities and women's musical stalls is the finale.

A number of races add much to the entertainment, such as the obstacle race, banding race and the open five-gaited race.

Defensive Unit Key in Lions' Success

Wilson Figures Detroit to Have Better Defense

Team Won NFL Crowns When It Had Lead in Pass Interceptions

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Much has been said about the heralded passing attack of the Detroit Lions and statistics support the aerial strength of the Lions, but in passing out laurels, the always rugged defensive unit tutored by Buster Ramsey could hardly be ignored.

With captain Joe Schmidt in the key linebacker's position, the Detroit forward wall and defensive backfield has been pretty stingy in giving up yardage.

"We look much better defensively this year," said Coach George Wilson. "Another year's experience and additional help from fellows like Jim Martin and Terry Barr we should be stronger."

The all-pro defensive backfield of Jack Christiansen, Jim David, Yale Lary, and Carl Karilivacz remains intact. Val Joe Walker and Barr give depth to this quartet, which grabbed 28 enemy passes last year.

Here is one category which Ramsey feels is important to any team in contention. In 1955 the Lions picked off only 15 opposing passes and finished in the basement.

During the prosperous years, in 1952, Detroit won the title when 32 passes were intercepted. In 1953, 38 were picked off and in 1954 there were 36 interceptions. These were title years.

The defensive line with Ray Krouse, Darris McCord, Bob Miller, Gil Mains, Gene Cronin and Jerry Perry, with linebackers Bob Long and Sonny Gandee and Schmidt have made it tough on opposing runners in the first three exhibition games.

Thus far, the opposition has picked up only 29 first downs while the Lions have made 56. In the rushing department where the Lions have not been too effective with 282 yards, the other teams had only 205 yards on the ground.

The Lions' passing strength is evident from the figures. The Bobby Layne-Tobin Rote combination has connected on 52 of 100 passes for 794 yards while the opposition has been held to 26 completions in 56 attempts for 384 yards.

"We aren't too worried about our defense, Ramsey is the best defensive coach in the league," said Wilson.

Sunday afternoon the Lions meet the Pittsburgh Steelers in Buffalo and coach Buddy Parker, the new Steeler coach who is quite aware of the Detroit defensive strength, will attempt to crack that rugged line and defensive backfield.

The Steelers have been a strong defensive outfit for a half but in most cases the lack of depth has often resulted in second half failures.

For the second straight week, a product of a Michigan college will guide the opposing forces. Last week, Al Dorow of Michigan State started at quarterback. Sunday it will be Teddy Marchibroda, former U. of D. signal caller who passed the Steelers to their first victory last weekend, who will get the assignment.

Large Number of Sophomores at Drills

PHS Varsity Is Small Squad

The doctor could stand a pill. That doctor is Jesse MacLeay new Pontiac High School football coach who looked over his grid prospects this week with more hope than optimism.

There have been over 110 boys working out since Monday at Wisner Field but of this group more than 65 are sophomores and newcomers.

"Actually we have only 35 juniors and seniors," said MacLeay, "and our big linemen will be a couple boys about 180."

After only four days, injuries have already plagued the team. "This is a very small squad and we really can't afford to lose any of the boys," said MacLeay.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs have their first full scrimmage set for Saturday morning, but because of the small number and the injuries, it may be cut short.

The few veterans returning from last year were shifted to different positions.

Mike Hardiman, a tackle of last year is now being worked at end. All-county center Joe Hill suffered a back injury and is out for limited action. He was being primed at fullback this year.

Veterans halfback Jim Hawkins and guard Willie Dunkin, a two way stalwart, are both hampered by knee injuries.

Most experience is probably at quarterback where letterman Dick Whitmer a 6-2, 185 pound senior returns. Another candidate for the signal calling role is cager Harrison Munson.

Les Watkins, a letterman is holding down the fullback slot with Archie Brooks, a hustling junior, vying for a halfback's job.

Because of the small number of upper classmen, MacLeay indicated that any sophomores who show they can push some of the returning varsity players for their jobs will stay with the varsity.

Despite the small squad the new Chief coach said he was "pleased with the spirit and attitude of everyone out." "The people of Pontiac can be assured that this team will give its all whether they win or lose," he said.

Season tickets for the five home games on the PHS schedule can be purchased by calling faculty manager Herb Sanford at the high school. The season sale will continue until September 17th.

Pontiac opens the season Friday night September 20th against Wyandotte in Wisner Stadium. The following week on the 27th, the Chiefs travel to Lansing-Sexton and then stay at home for three straight contests against Ferndale, Arthur Hill and Saginaw. Flint Northern, away, Nov. 1st. Bay City Central, home, Nov. 8th and Flint Central, away, Nov. 15th completes the eight game card.

Sox Recall 7 From Minors

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox today recalled seven minor league players for trials in their spring training camp at Tampa, Fla., next year.

★ ★ ★

Included are three pitchers — Joe Dahlke and Russ Heman from Chattanooga, and Bill DuFour from Indianapolis—two catchers, Chuck Lindstrom from Colorado Springs and John Romano from Indianapolis; and infielders Don Prohovich from Indianapolis and Jim Marshall from Vancouver.

★ ★ ★

Lindstrom, 20, is the son of former major league star third baseman, Freddie Lindstrom, now Northwestern University baseball coach. Prohovich is a former Holy Cross star.

Marshall, a contender for first base with the Sox earlier this year, batted .278 in 143 games for Vancouver this season, hitting 25 homers and driving across 83 runs.

★ ★ ★

The Sox yesterday called up six minor leaguers to finish out the American League season and purchased a seventh, pitcher Barry Latman (13-14), from Indianapolis.

Reporting Monday will be first baseman Ron Jackson, outfielder Jim Landis and pitcher Jim McDonald from Indianapolis; pitcher Don Rudolph from Louisville, and pitcher Stover McIlwain, 17, former Rollins College star, from Davenport, Iowa.

Catcher Earl Battey, optioned to Los Angeles, will rejoin the Sox Sept. 16.

Tempest, who is to start in the St. Leger at Doncaster next Wednesday, had been trained by Capt. Cecil Boyd-Rochfort, who is trainer for Queen Elizabeth. Mrs. Graham paid $38,220 for Tempest as a yearling.

Solon Opposes Army vs. Tulane

Fulton Against Service Teams Getting Involved in Segregated Sports

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rep. James G. Fulton (R-Pa) urges President Eisenhower to ban all U. S. military school, academy and service teams from participating in segregated sports events.

In a telegram to the president, Fulton specifically asked that Army be ordered not to play its scheduled football game with Tulane at New Orleans Nov. 16.

The Congressman said yesterday he based his protest on a law passed by the Louisiana legislature in 1956 that prohibits interracial sports participation and integrated seating.

★ ★ ★

At West Point, Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, superintendent of the Military Academy, refused comment on Fulton's wire. He released a copy of a telegram to Fulton explaining that the Department of the Army had granted permission to proceed with the Army-Tulane game.

No Easy Road to Amateur Title

NEW YORK (AP) — The head-knocking is due to begin early in the 57th National Amateur golf championship at the Country Club of Brookline, Mass., next week.

Both by design and accident, the strength of the 200-man field was distributed equally through the four quarters of the draw and as a result no player is likely to have an easy route to the finals.

And there's no favorite among the 200 survivors of an original entry of 1,592 players since there's no defending champion.

San Francisco's Harvie Ward, who has dominated the U.S. amateur scene for two years, now is just an applicant for reinstatement as an amateur since the U.S. Golf Assn. ruled last June he had accepted improper expense payments from his boss, Eddie Lowery.

In releasing the draw for the all-match-play tournament today, the USGA revealed that the names of 22 British and American Walker Cup team members were distributed through eight sections of the draw before the rest of the names were pulled out blindly. Most of the other big name players popped out with about equal distribution.

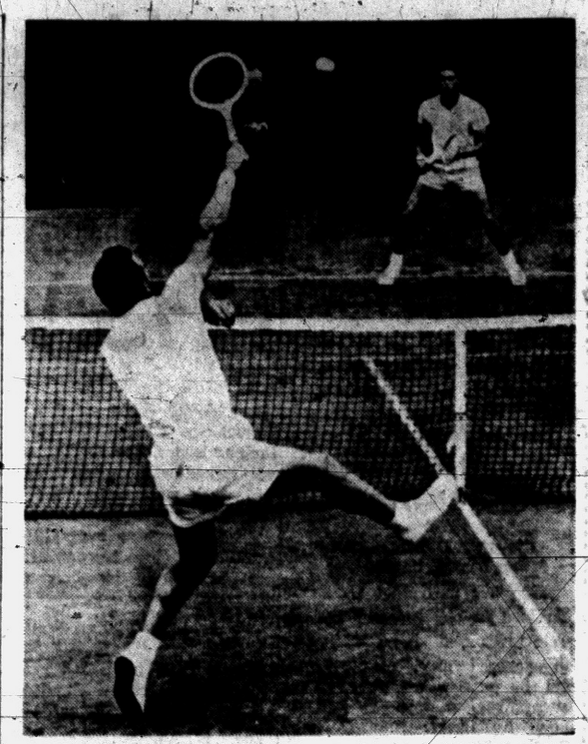

That means the top stars won't begin meeting each other until about the third or fourth round, but there are so many other good players in the field, some of them may not get that far.

For instance, 18 minutes after the first player tees off Monday, Ed Meister, Cleveland veteran who was a semi-finalist in the 1954 championship, tangles with long-hitting Jim Tom Blair of Kirkwood, Mo. A short time later Ted Bishop, one of the five ex-champions in the field, tackles Bob McCall of Gary, Ind., who went five rounds before Ward knocked him out in 1955.

Three Michigan golfers drew byes but seven others from the state were also scheduled to tee off for first-round matches Monday.

Drawing byes were James E. Funston and Joseph M. Grace Jr., both of Detroit, and Harold Brink of Belmont.

Paired for competition were: Richard L. Whitting, Royal Oak, vs. John H. Guenther Jr., Reading, Pa.; Gerard J. Berles, Grand Rapids, vs. Richard Diversi, Waterville, Maine; Charles Kocsis, Royal Oak, vs. Robert W. Kuntz, Larchmont, N.Y.; Ray Lovell, Birmingham, vs. Robert T. Kosten, Rumford, R.I.; Harvey E. Woodard, St. Clair Shores, vs. Robert F. Vickers, Wichita, Kans.; Victor Cuiss, Jackson, vs. John V. Harvey, Winchester, Mass., and Samuel D. Kocsis, Lake Orion, vs. Gerald H. Micklem, England.

VICTORY FOR VIC — Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, foreground, sends a smash to Ron Emerson of Australia during their match in the National Tennis Championships at Forest Hills, N. Y. yesterday. Seixas won his match in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2 and 6-4.

Cox Has Competition

Gophers' QB Is Pressed

MINNEANPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's football situation was back to normal today. Bobby Cox, the Gophers' slick quarterback and All-America prospect, is worried about his starting job.

"This is no phony modesty," dapper Bobby told a faintly surprised listener. "I've got plenty to worry about."

★ ★ ★

The man breathing on Bobby's curly locks is Dick Larson, a fancy quarterback in his own right who held off Cox's reputation and football gifts for nearly half the season last year before yielding the No. 1 spot in Coach Murray Warmath's split T offense.

"Larson is a terrific quarterback," Cox amplified. "It can't help but boost the team when you've got a real contest like that for a job."

★ ★ ★

Cox is being widely advertised as the man whose tactical brashness, spunky running and passing can push Minnesota into the forefront of the Big Ten's title and Rose Bowl scramble this fall.

Louisiana Body OK's White Foes for Ralph Dupas

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Lightweight contender Ralph Dupas has the go-ahead sign from the state athletic commission to meet white opponents while awaiting the outcome of a court battle over his racial status.

★ ★ ★

The 21-year-old New Orleans boxer, No. 3 challenger for Joe Brown's lightweight title, has a suit pending in Civil District Court to force the city to issue a birth certificate stating he is white.

★ ★ ★

Several weeks ago the commission ruled it would not approve matches for Dupas unless he produced such a birth certificate. But the group took a turnabout last night and voted 5-4 to okay bouts on Sept. 18 and Sept. 30.

Brooks and LA Closer on Move

Coast Man Says He and O'Malley About at Negotiation Point

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Harold C. McClellan, who was politically appointed to lure the Brooklyn baseball team West, says he and Dodger owner Walter O'Malley "are about to a point of negotiations."

McClellan, an industrialist who was named to negotiate for the Dodgers as a representative of Los Angeles city and county governments, said yesterday:

"I know what Walter O'Malley wants and I can make a deal. He is a flexible and a reasonable man, and has made no demands, only requests."

McClellan said he has conducted many telephone conversations with O'Malley and his aides since their meeting two weeks ago in New York, and that they are "well aware of the Sept. 30 move deadline."

Two From Michigan to Play in Seniors

While defending champion Al Watrous of Oakland Hills CC doesn't have to qualify, next week, in the National Senior PGA championship sectional rounds, he will be one of two to represent Michigan in the event at Dunedin Fla. during the winter. Al gets an all-expense paid trip.

The other state delegate will be named in Monday's round at Lansing CC, where Reg Myles Sr., of East Lansing and Jim Barfield of Grand Rapids are top favorites.

Dallas, Texas Champs

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Dallas won the Texas League pennant last night when Houston lost to San Antonio in the first game of a doubleheader. San Antonio beat the second-place Buffs 7-0.

Dallas also lost, falling before Tulsa in a 13-inning, 3-2 contest.

HE'LL MISS IT—Stan Musial nearly took the Polo Grounds apart on his last visit to the former home of the New York Giants and he gave the place a final salute. He always hit well in the park—and Ebbets Field, too.

New Aussie Net Star Upsets Savitt

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — A few more sharp performances when he gets home to Australia and Mal Anderson will be battling the United States in the Davis Cup Challenge Round this year.

"I know I'd use him instead of the other guy," observed U. S. Cup captain Billy Talbert today. "You know what you're going to get from him. You don't know what the other guy is going to do."

★ ★ ★

While Talbert took pains to avoid naming the "other guy," he obviously was referring to Neale Fraser, who has ranged from shaky to downright wretched all season.

Anderson put on another sparkling show yesterday when he gained the quarter-final round of the National Tennis Championship at the expense of — of all people —second-seeded Dick Savitt. The score was a breathtaking 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, and it took the angular Anderson less than an hour to do the job.

★ ★ ★

Conversely, Fraser was eliminated in the second round by unseeded Cliff Mayne.

"Mal was very impressive," admitted Talbert, who also said that Savitt still is refusing to make the trip to Australia.

"He gave me a convincing reason for not making the trip," snapped Talbert, who has long since wearied trying to convince Savitt to play on the Davis Cup team.

So now the quarter-final is set up. Budge Patty, Cooper and Cliff Mayne all gained their brackets Tuesday. In addition to Anderson, Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, Luis Ayala of Chile, Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Sven Davidson of Sweden moved along yesterday.

Seixas gave a fast lesson to Emerson, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4; Ayala stopped Nielsen, 6-4, 6-4, 8-6; Flam turned back Bob Howe, another Aussie, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, and Davidson whipped Bob Wilson of England, 5-7, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2.

In today's quarter-finals, Davidson plays Mayne and Patty goes against Cooper.

England's Shirley Bloomer, seeded No. 4, halted Janet Hopps of Seattle, 7-5, 1-6, 6-3; Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif., No. 5, trimmed Margareta Bonstrom of Sweden, 6-2, 6-2, and Ann Haydon of Britain was a 6-4, 6-4 victor over Sally Moore of Bakersfield, Calif. All the winners advanced to the women's quarter-final.

PARIS (AP)—Reports are circulating here when the International Olympic Committee meets at Sofia later this month Avery Brundage of Chicago will propose elimination of basketball and several other sports from the Olympic games program.

Alouettes Put Hill, Ellis on Waivers

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Alouettes last night placed import halfback Jim Ellis and lineman Dick Hill on waivers, cutting the number of imports on the Alouette roster to 17.

The Big Four Football Union's defending champions now have 12 imports — the legal maximum — registered with the Canadian Rugby Union and five on the reserve list, to be used in case of injuries between now and the mid-October deadline for import declaring.

Ellis, formerly of Michigan State University, tried out with the Alouettes after being cut by Chicago Cardinals. He has returned to the United States, Hill, formerly of the University of Michigan, will enter the U.S. Army

Mickey Trails by 7

NEW YORK (AP) — Grounding out in his only appearance — as a pinch-hitter — Mickey Mantle last night dropped seven points behind Ted Williams in the American League batting race.

Mantle tapped to the box while batting for pitcher Whitey Ford in the ninth inning of the Yankees' game against Boston and was thrown out by Mike Fornieles. His average dipped to .369.

Williams was out with a cold and his average remained at .376.

Bass, Panfish Still Hitting

By H. GUY MOATS

Oakland County's many lakes are still producing good sport for the panfish and bass fishermen. While warm weather slowed up some activity, and sent the big ones deep into cooler depths, some fish have rewarded fishermen.

Some of the biggest "speckled bass" or crappies, seen this season in the area have come to creel during the last few days, and big bluegills have been reported hitting on flyrod lures on a number of lakes. Bass fishing is a little slower. Some big perch also were taken over the Labor Day holiday.

Best perch fishing along the Lake Huron shoreline is at Huron and Sanilac County, where fair-sized fish are being taken. Anchor Bay and Lake St. Clair also offer some good fishing, B. R. Hellsten of District 12, fish division, reports.

Smallmouth bass angling has been spotty off the Thumb in Lake Huron, but is still fair in the Flats and Middle Channel, while walleyes are slow in St. Clair river, but fair to good in Lake St. Clair off the Clinton spillway and in Detroit river off Grosse Ile.

Two Saturday Races Offer Rich Rewards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two big races on the West and East coasts Saturday will help clarify the jumbled 2-year-old championship puzzle, but there is plenty of time and bankvaults of money available for the colt who can step out and win some big ones in the next month or so.

At Del Mar, Calif., the undefeated Old Pueblo will team up again with Eddie Arcaro in the $40,000-added Del Mar Futurity, a 6-furlong spin. Also on Saturday, the $30,000-added World Playground Stakes at seven furlongs will see another meeting of Edward Potter Jr.'s Plion and the Jaclyn Stable's Li'l Fella.

Rose Leaves Race Saturday at DRC

Top event in Detroit's weekend sports program will be the eighth running of the $10,000-added Rose Leaves Handicap at the Detroit Race Course—Schoolcraft and Middlebelt roads Saturday, Sept. 7.

Twenty-one highly rated fillies and mares have been nominated for the six-furlong sprint for 3-year-olds and up.

Topping the list of nominees is the Reverie Knoll Farm's entry of Romanita and Sealed Bid.

Romanita, a late arrival from Chicago, is the great runner who recently accounted for the $50,000 Monmouth Oaks, one of the finest races in turfdom.

Sold Out Already

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The NCAA eastern regional basketball playoffs, here for the first time next March 14-15, are a sellout. The Charlotte Coliseum will hold 11,463 customers.

Bob Considine Says:

Bearded Adventurer Became Solid Legend

NEW YORK (INS) — Bearded, gimpy old Peter Freuchen, one of the great adventure seekers-and-finders of the century, died in Alaska the other day. He was 71 and a solid legend, one phase of which was the story that he amputated his own leg during one of the rare occasions when the Arctic got him down.

He died with colorful friends of old, Lowell Thomas, Sir Hubert Wilkins, Admiral Donald B. MacMillan and Col. Bernt Balchen, all embarked on Thomas' new filmed TV adventure series scheduled for CBS in November. TV audiences knew Freuchen well through "The $64,000 Question."

Freuchen was a man of strong statements and could back them all. But the one I'll remember most was quite casual as well as accompanying a gesture of profound sophistication. Thomas, master of ceremonies at a Circumnavigators Club dinner at the Waldorf, brought together on the dais Freuchen and the then 88-year-old Matt Henson, the Negro valet who accompanied Peary to the North Pole.

In honor of the occasion of the meeting of the two old polar explorers, the Air Force flew a chunk of clear ice all the way down the globe from T3, the fresh-water ice island nuzzling through the Arctic salt ice near the geograhical pole.

By the time it reached the Waldorf it was on its last legs, or near its last lump. Thomas broke the remaining piece in half and dumped it in a scotch he had poured for them. Then he spoke about the wonders of the ice island, the establishment of a weather base thereon, the long flight to the dais, and concluded, "Now, old timers, let us see you toast each other."

Henson gracefully toasted, the younger man. Then it was Freuchen's turn. But first he reached a long, grizzled finger into his highball glass and flipped the precious lump of ice out on the carpet.

"Don't like ice in whisky," he explained.

Cosmopolitan Magazine's September issue deals with the brain, what it can and cannot do, how it operates our bodies, what role it plays in the success of, let's say, a member of a quiz panel on TV. It takes up the hunger of most minds and the cause of others becoming surfeited.

Jean Libman Block, one of the contributors to an exciting issue, tells us what happens to the brain during sleep: "Your brain practically turns itself off. Your blood pressure drops. There is less oxygen and sugar in your blood.

"Your heart rate slows down, sometimes as much as 20 to 30 beats a minute, effecting a saving of some 13,000 beats in eight hours. Your kidneys slow down, your muscles cease giving out electrical impulses, and your body temperature drops, usually to a minimum of about 97 degrees. All vital functions are at their lowest ebb as your system recharges itself for the next day's encounters with reality."

WHEN TO DREAM

The author reports that dreams occur chiefly in the early, light stages of sleep and in the hours before you awaken. When you are dreaming, your eyeballs move rapidly as they follow the action spun out by your mind. Dreams last up to a half hour, but are not believed to interfere with sound sleep. You average 20 major shifts of position each night.

(Except when the bills are due, of course.)

Gag Writer Says Women Lacking Sense of Humor

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Do women have a sense of humor?

Comedy expert Hal Kanter doesn't think so.

Before you start getting indignant, ladies, let me explain Kanter's credentials. He is one of the ace comedy writers in a highly competitive business, having dreamed up sallies for such artists as Bing Crosby, Ed Wynn, Martin and Lewis and George Gobel. Right now he's masterminding the film debut of a new team, Rowan and Martin, in "Once Upon a Horse," which he is producing, directing and writing.

★ ★ ★

That's who Hal Kanter is. He's also tall, charming and likes the opposite sex. Except on matters of humor.

★ ★ ★

"Go to a matinee of a comedy hit on Broadway," he suggested. "You'll find the predominantly female audience reacting in mild chuckles. Women simply don't laugh. They're inhibited. The laugh is caught somewhere in their girdles. They're afraid to laugh harder because their lipstick might run or their mascara smear."

"There are few really good comedienes compared to the number of comedians. The success of Lucille Ball in television is the exception that proves the rule. But I've never heard anybody say, 'Gee, Lucille was a scream at the Masquer's Club last night when she got up and ad libbed.'"

★ ★ ★

The average woman never fails to foul up a funny story when she tries to tell it, he added.

★ ★ ★

Since he is so firm about the female lack of humor, I asked him if he therefore writes his funny stuff primarily for men.

"No," he replied, "I don't write for anyone in particular. I recall what Goodman Ace said. He had heard people say he should write comedy for 12-year-olds in Iowa. He remarked that he took a plane out to Des Moines and talked to a lot of 12-year-olds.

★ ★ ★

"What did he find out? That 12-year-olds in Iowa knew a lot more and were aware of more that was going on than most 40-year-olds on Madison Avenue."

Judge to Hear Racial Issue

Court Has Twice Ruled Dallas School Needs More Time to Integrate

DALLAS (AP) — Federal Judge William H. Atwell ordered the long-smouldering Dallas segregation case brought before him a third time today.

Judge Atwell twice has ruled the Dallas independent school district should be allowed more time to study the problems of desegregation. Both rulings were reversed by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

★ ★ ★

The casestems from an attempt by 21 Negro children to enroll in white schools two years ago today.

Last July the Circuit Court of Appeals, for a second time, ordered Dallas schools integrated "with all deliberate speed." No definite time limit was set.

★ ★ ★

Judge Atwell declined to say what the proceedings today would include. "The matter will be taken up," was all the 87-year-old jurist would say about the case.

One new issue is a newly enacted Texas law which prohibits further integration without a favorable local option election.

★ ★ ★

The law prompted the Dallas school board to appeal for a rehearing of the July decision. The Circuit Court of Appeals turned down the request last week. The court, in effect, ruled the new Texas law was unconstitutional.

It pointed out the law did not remove the court's obligation to uphold the U.S. Constitution. The decision also noted that the measure does not remove such obligation from state officials in Texas.

★ ★ ★

In announcing plans for another year of segregation, the Dallas school board previously noted the conflict between the state law and the federal order to integrate.

Liquor Is Quicker, Tastes Better, Too

CINCINNATI (AP) — A "high-ball" is a better remedy for nervous tension than the new tranquilizer drugs, a Cincinnati psychiatrist says.

Dr. Warren Richards warns that self-medication with the new drugs can be harmful and asserts that a moderate amount of alcohol is preferable for temporary relief from nervous tension and anxiety.

Finds Example of Trend Toward Quick Building

BROWNSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The early britches get the bird.

Danny Demubrun washed his trousers and hung them on the line early in one morning.

That evening he found a fast-working catbird had built a nest inside a pocket. And in the nest was an egg.

Many U.S. Tree Farms

WASHINGTON — The United States has many tree farms which are privately owned on which trees produce continuous timber crops with the aid of experts in the field of forest management.

TAKING NO CHANCES — In Bogota, Colombia, matadors take no chance, when el toro gets huffy. They pole vault over the animal, as this swashbuckling gent did in a "Goyesca" tournament. Vaulting poles are just long enough to raise the matador over the bull's head. Not daring, but safe.

Hammarskjold Slaps at Critics

Denies Smaller Nations Have Too Much Voting Power in U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold has hit back at critics who say the smaller countries have too much voting power in the United Nations.

In an introduction to his annual report to the General Assembly opening Sept. 17, Hammarskjold said the United Nations is not a super-state but "an admittedly imperfect but indispensable instument of nations working toward a peaceful evolution toward a more just and secure world order."

★ ★ ★

The secretary general took issue with Sir Winston Churchill and other critics who want to give the major powers a "weighted vote," which would amount to more than the single vote they have now.

He declared that in any event voting victories "are likely to be illusory unless they are steps in the direction of winning lasting consent to a peaceful and just settlement of the questions at issue."

★ ★ ★

Hammarskjold did not refer to Churchill or anyone but it is known he has been upset by proposals from leaders in Britain, France, Australia, Belgium and other countries for drastic changes in the way the United Nations works.

Hammarskjold said it has been suggested that unless limitations on the present powers of the United Nations are removed, other means should be sought for obtaining world peace.

★ ★ ★

"This view does less than justice to the contributions of the United Nations in its short life," he declared.

Argument Breaks Out in Japan

Throw Pearls Into Ocean

TOKYO (INS) — Japan's pearl growers held a news conference this week to explain just why they are throwing thousands of pounds of cultured pearls into the ocean.

Reports last month said exporters were burning four tons of pearls to keep prices high.

★ ★ ★

But the Pearl Exporters' Association, representing a $20-million-a-year business, staged the conference at the Foreign Correspondents' Club in Tokyo to assert that:

—The pearls aren't being burned, but will be dumped into the sea around Oct. 1.

—It isn't four tons ("Can you imagine how many pearls that would mean?" asked one exporter), but closer to one.

—The pearls aren't being destroyed to keep prices up but to keep inferior products off the market.

★ ★ ★

The growers are celebrating the 50th anniversary of the invention of cultured pearls next month with festivals in Tokyo, Kobe and Toba.

When they first announced the golden jubilee, the exporters said several thousand pounds of low-quality pearls would be burned in honor of the occasion.

To their dismay, they said, they were swamped by cables and letters—most of them in a feminine hand—protesting that they were trying to keep pearl prices high by artificial measures.

★ ★ ★

Yoshitaka Mikimoto—grandson of Kokichi Mikimoto, Japan's fabled "pearl king" and head of Japan's biggest pearl firm—and Minoru Yokota, president of the pearl promoters' group, answered newsmen's questions.

Mikimoto said the growers were striving to export "quality gems only to meet the full satisfaction of all pearl lovers who have so highly appreciated this heavenly gift of beauty and happiness."

Yokota said reports cultured pearl prices have been nose-diving "are entirely erroneous." As a matter of fact, he said, production has lagged far behind demand and prices are rising. He added:

"However, because of this regularly increasing demand, a certain quantity of extremely poor quality merchandise was exported in an attempt to stretch the supply so that it filled the demand. As a result, the reputation of the cultured pearl could be damaged."

Yokota said the low-quality pearls "have come out of the sea and therefore should be returned to the sea."

Air Force Crew Brings in B47 After 14 Hours

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A B47 bomber slid to a safe belly landing today after flying 14 hours while crewmen tried to lower a stuck landing gear.

The plane was refueled five times during the 14 hours.

★ ★ ★

Airmen at Little Rock Air Force Base, where the plane is based, spread 3,000 feet of foam on the runway to reduce the chance of fire and to provide a slick landing surface.

★ ★ ★

The pilot, Capt. R. W. Dupras of Glacier Park, Mont., dropped the plane on the runway two feet from the edge of the foam and the craft skidded 1,600 feet before stopping. None of the crew was injured. Damage to the plane was minor.

★ ★ ★

The crew tried 65 different methods of repairing the landing gear. During the flight, Boeing aircraft officials from Wichita, Kan., were in communication by telephone and radio suggesting ways to correct the malfunction.

Million to Get Directory

DETROIT (INS) — The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. said today circulation of the Detroit yellow pages directory will top a million for the first time since the book was offered.

Business Boom in Mexico Due to Continue

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico is becoming a businessman's heaven. Soaring demand is far ahead of growing supply and the saturation point isn't in sight.

"The Mexican domestic market continues to expand at a remarkable rate, and there is no likelihood in the foreseeable future that any saturation point will be reached," says the National Bank of Mexico.

One reason for this growth in demand is Mexico's rapid increase in population—3.1 per cent a year, one of the world's highest. Population is well over 30 million.

Another factor has been a steady improvement in the standard of living. Mexicans can afford to buy things their ancestors just dreamed about.

No Time for Talking!

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (INS)—School Supt. Virgil T. Blossom was scheduled to speak to the Lions Club yesterday but integration difficulties at Central High School kept him from the meeting. He was to have spoken on "Problems of Our Public Schools Today."

Stock Market in Doldrums

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued in the doldrums with trading slow and prices slightly lower early today.

Leading issues declined from fractions to around a point or so. A good number of key stocks showed no change.

★ ★ ★

Turnover was at a rate no better than yesterday's, which was the lightest day in nearly a year. This indicated that traders and investors were waiting for a new fall trend in business.

Oils were subjected to profit-taking again after their recent rise with Royal Dutch down more than a point. Du Pont slipped around two. Schering continued to decline, dropping around a point.

Calumet and Hecla fell a major fraction following the news it may discontinue copper mining in Michigan because of low copper prices. Anaconda and Kennecott also took fractional losses.

★ ★ ★

But the major steel shares showed hardly any change. Motors barely moved. General Tire dropped about a point as did U. S. Rubber.

Grain Futures Holding Steady

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures held about steady on the Board of Trade today. There was little in the news to influence the market and consequently there was little or no pressure on the trade.

★ ★ ★

One commission house bought 400,000 bushels of December wheat at the start, but other than this trading was rather dull. Export business continued absent although traders look for an improvement soon.

Corn was a shade lower, but continued to get some support on rumors of a possible stoppage of sales by the Commodity Credit Corp. Soybeans showed a weaker tone after advancing up to three cents a bushel yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Near the end of the first hour, new style wheat was unchanged to ¼ lower, Sept. $2.18⅛; corn was ¼ to ½ lower, Sept. $1.24⅜; oats were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, Sept. 66½; rye was ½ lower to ⅜ higher, Sept. $1.33½; soybeans were ⅛ to ⅜ lower, Sept. $2.39¾; and lard was 5 cents lower to 15 cents higher a hundred pounds, Sept. $12.85.

Northern Lights Give Brilliant Show for Area

Thousands of Michigan residents were thrilled last night by a spectacular display of the Northern Lights, known to science as the Aurora Borealis.

★ ★ ★

In this area the display was dimly visible about 11 p.m. and increased in brilliance in the next hour. There was a crescendo of brilliance shortly before midnight.

Scientists said the lights were related to magnetic storms and also possibly related to a series of brilliant explosions noted on the sun this week by Swedish scientists at an observatory on the Isle of Capri, Italy.

No Factory Pressure Present

Auto Makers, Retailers Seen Living in Harmony

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — The nation's auto makers and the car retailers are living in more congenial relationship as a result of the manufacturers' greater concern about the dealers' problems.

So says Rear Admiral Frederick J. Bell (Ret.), executive vice president of the National Automobile Dealers Assn. (NADA). Bell said in an interview here yesterday that there has been no complaint from leaders about factory pressure. Instead, he said there has been much voluntary praise by the retailers of the factory interest in their problems.

CLEANUP CONCERN

Bell said there is some concern among the dealer body about the outgoing model cleanup problem this year. At the same time, he said, there has been little, if any, talk among the retailers about over-production that presented a major problem to the retailers in the industry's record year of 1955.

The dealer association executive said rewriting of dealer franchises, establishment of departments for faster handling of dealer problems and the greater participation of the factory in the retailers' difficulties were among major advances in improving the manufacturer-dealer relationship.

There were some retailers, he said, who favored government control of the industry. The NADA, he said, was unalterably opposed to such control. The proponents of that idea, he said, were very much in the minority but "the very fact there is such thinking is not good."

AGAINST CONTROL

"We don't need and never should have government control of the auto business," he said. There were some dealers, he said, who favored a return of regulations, which controlled credit terms and installment buying during part of the earlier postwar period.

This also was not needed, Bell said.

Bell said there was some restlessness among the car retailers mainly over general economic conditions.

Without going into detail he said there was "a lot more to be done—and a lot will be done"—in further improving the factory-dealer relationship. Pressed for a specific action in this direction, he said he thought it would be "completely practical for the factory to write into the dealer franchises a code of business standards" and to indicate the "type of man the manufacturer wants to handle his product."

Such action, he said, would eliminate the unethical dealer. The NADA, he added, would give full cooperation to such a move.

Bell was in Detroit to attend a luncheon at which plans were outlined for the NADA convention in Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 11-15. He said he had held no conferences with the car manufacturers.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MORRIS Pringle who passed away Sept. 5, 1954. Sadly missed by Dad & Sisters.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF BETTY Taylors Campbell, who passed away Sept. 5, 1951.
Do not ask us if we miss her,
For there is such a vacant place;
Oft' we think we hear her footsteps,
O; we see her smiling face.
For she left us broken hearted,
Friends may think the wound is healed;
But they know so little the sorrow,
That is in our hearts concealed.
Sadly missed by mother, Hazel, & Delores.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KENneth Johnson, who passed away Sept. 5, 1950.
The month of September now is here.
To us the saddest of the year;
We lost you, loved one, so good and fine,
You will live in our hearts, till the end of time.
Sadly missed by his Sister.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KENneth Johnson, who passed away Sept. 5, 1950
Dear Kenny, you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more;
Still in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
Sadly missed by his Neighbors & Friends.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KENneth Johnson, who passed away Sept. 5, 1950. You are waiting by the river, Just across the silent stream, Where sweet flowers are ever blooming And the banks are ever green. Aunt Avis & Uncle Alvin.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KENneth Johnson, who passed away Sept. 5, 1950. It's not the tears at the moment shed, That tell of the hearts that are torn. But the lonely tears in the after years, And the heartaches sadly borne. Sadly missed by Mother and Father, Mr. & Mrs. Phillip Johnson.

IN MEMORY OF MY DEAR MAma, Betty Lou Wilson, who passed away Sept. 3, 1954.
Hello Operator—
Oh say, could you help me?
I'd like to call Heaven.
Will you connect me please?
You see my mama's there.
And I know she would be
So very pleased and happy
If she could talk with me.
I want to tell her how I've grown,
I'm not so small any more.
I was just one when she went away
But now, I'm half past four.
What, no telephone in Heaven?
Oh, but you must be wrong,
Cause telephones are everywhere,
And Heaven is Mama's home.
Perhaps if I would tell her name
It would be a help to you,
Just put the call to Heaven
And ask for Betty Lou.
Oh—I—I'm sorry, operator,
But thank you very much.
I'll s'pose sometime I'll understand
About Heaven and phone and such,
Mama, I miss you.

Raymond

School Seeks to Reduce Danger of Night Driving

Students enrolling in Keokuk, Iowa, high schools this fall may live longer than many of their teenage friends. The reason: special training they'll get in how to drive a car at night.

The man who has pioneered this type of training is Richard Jones, driving instructor. He says, "The average driver is not trained for night driving, the most dangerous time to be on the highway."

National statistics support his claim. According to the National Safety Council more than 23,800 motorists were killed in night accidents last year.

Three times as many fatalities occur at night as during daylight, when based on total vehicle miles traveled.

Jones started his after-dark teaching sessions when he became convinced that classroom lectures, textbooks and films didn't offer sufficient training for students.

Here are some of the things motorists must learn to do when driving from dusk to dawn, according to Jones:

(1) Use headlights properly; (2) get accustomed to the glare of oncoming headlights; (3) not "overdrive" headlights or drive so fast they can't stop in the distance illuminated by their headlights.

Studies show drivers are blinded by oncoming lights at night. It takes an average of seven seconds to recover vision after looking at the lights of an approaching vehicle. With visibility reduced at night, motorists can't see or have less time to see curves, abutments and other hazards.

"By making hazards more visible at night with reflectorized signs or markers," Jones says, "many night accidents could be prevented."

Papers Ahead of Radio and TV

Eddie Cantor Triumph, 'Sizeman and Son,' to Have Sequel

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS) — "Wizard of Oz" gets its second CBS showing around Christmas (the MGM-CBS deal was for two TV shots) . . .

More people hear radio than view TV—but more read newspapers than harken to either, states the Sindlinger Report . . .

Eddie Cantor's finest TV hour, "Sizeman and Son" (Playhouse 90, by Elick Moll), will have a sequel on Playhouse 90. It started as magazine fiction, also will become a novel.

"Asta," the white wire-haired terrier of the movies' "Thin Man," becomes a black French poodle in the Peter Lawford TV version . . .

TV newscaster Chet Huntley may play himself in the movie "Cry Terror," which sounds stuffy already . . .

GISELE'S RIVALS

Gisele MacKenzie's opposition to her new NBC variety includes a CBS Western ("Have Gun, Will Travel") and ABC's Welk . . .

Only salaries of securities-commodity brokers top the take-home of TV workers, says the new Commerce Department census . . .

Playhouse 90 opens its new season Sept. 12 with "The Death of Manolette." No mention of the actor to play the Babe Ruth of bullfighting; John Cassavetes?. .

Answering a flock of letters: No, fee TV won't replace free TV, merely help make it better . . .

Judy Garland may settle her CBS suit amicably for two high-fee shows starring Judy . . .

SHOOTS FOR STARS

Milton Gordon, who bought out Edward Small's half-interest in TPA, TV film firm, will shoot for top stars by offering them big salaries, profits in the films they make, plus a slice of the company's total profits . . .

"Sets in use," meaning the number of TV sets tuned in to anything in this very off season, is way down, but even in the winter, 45 per cent of sets aren't on . . .

William Black, who hired Jackie Robinson for his Chock Full o'Nuts executive suite, says he would like to sponsor the Nat King Cole Show on a "regional basis," meaning cities where his coffee is distributed, if NBC can't peddle it on a full network basis.

Jayne Handed Mink to Wrong Person

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Actress Jayne Mansfield said her $5,000 mink stole was stolen last night while she was posing for publicity pictures at the Riviera Hotel, sheriff's deputies report.

Miss Mansfield said she handed the fur to a person she thought was the wardrobe mistress.

When the photographers left 25 minutes later, the coat had disappeared, Miss Mansfield told Det. Sgt. Edward Mills.

There Are Not Wolves Like Argentine Wolves

By EARL WILSON

BUENOS AIRES—I ran into the June Taylor Girls — so recently of the Jackie Gleason TV show—down here in "B.A.," and many were the wild tales they unfolded of the fabulous Argentina wolves.

"A doctor came to examine the girls for the Asiatic flu," said Stage Manager Stanley Gold of New York, "and he brought a whole entourage of male assistants with him —who just came to 'look.' To 'help' examine."

The Gals were here with "The Platters" from Hollywood and their popularity commenced the first night, a photographer pushed the door open and start shooting pictures.

"The girls were stark naked," Stanley Gold assured me. The photographers explained that the last show they brought in, from the Lido in Paris, had several nudes who didn't object. I also had to get extra police to keep the wolves away when the girls left the theater.

"They think nothing of going up to a girl they never saw before and putting their arms around her."

"They like to 'stroke' you on the hip and the thigh," show gals told me.

"The best thing to do is to have an escort who won't let them do it!"

★ ★ ★

The girls will always remember the Argentina wolves for one reason—they "look" at a girl thoroughly. Up one side and down the other and then all over again. One of the great male hobbies here is staring, quite without shame, and if soccer is ever replaced here as a sport, it will be supplanted by just that — by "looking."

Tito Climbing Ladder, Is Busy Greeting VIPs

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Josip Broz, the former Croat metal worker and Red underground leader, has come a long way since those days.

Now, as Marshal Tito, the Yugoslav president, he virtually is holding court for visiting bigwigs from both sides of the Iron Curtain — a term, incidentally, which is becoming very elastic.

Politicians are flowing into Yugoslavia, combining official talk with swimming and sampling the Dalmatian coastal wines.

Ho Chi-Minh, the North Vietnamese president who carved out a Red strip after years of bloody fighting with the French, has been in Belgrade.

Next came a delegation from Outer Mongolia. This group was welcomed with the usual officially-inspired press talk of warm relations between the Yugoslav and Mongolian peoples.

This caused a little bewilderment in Yugoslavia since most people never heard of Outer Mongolia until recently when the official press informed everybody that diplomatic relations had been established.

Next on the Communist ticket of tourists is Polish Communist leader Wladyslaw Gomulka. He and some Polish officials are reported making the "Socialist circuit" sometime this month.

This visit will have a different twist since it will be the first such since Gomulka defied that unpredictable bundle of energy known as Soviet party secretary Nikita Khrushchev last October.

At risk of an armed Polish-Soviet clash Gomulka won the right to get rid of Marshal K. K. Rokossovsky, the Soviet officer who headed all Polish forces, and the right to limited independence from Moscow.

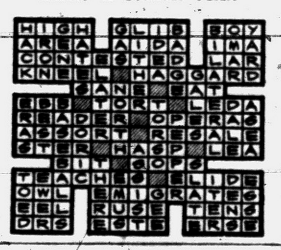

This also will be the first personal contact between Tito and Gomulka since Tito last year called on the Poles to join forces and fight "Stalinism" inside the Communist movement and thus try to extricate the movement from the crisis it was, and is, undergoing.

Again, this will be the first meeting since a former Yugoslav vice-president and former Tito comrad, Milovan Djilas, smuggled out from his Yugoslav prison a blistering indictment of communism.

Also, unlike many who seek Tito's advice, the shoe might be on the other foot this time. For there is little that the Poles could learn from the Yugoslavs in the field of internal democracy because the Poles have gone further than the Yugoslavs in permitting criticism and discussion.

AT LONG LAST — The king has answered. Arleene Francis, 15, of Columbus, Ohio, wrote King Hussein of Jordan last March after meeting Jordan's U.S. ambassador in Washington. The king said his reply was delayed because of "a slightly disorganized state of affairs in my office." Hussein said he was touched by Arleene's sincerity and outlook on world affairs. The king advised her that if she wrote again she should "write 'Personal' on the envelope." "It's just wonderful," said Arleene.

Plan Allocation of Flu Vaccine

6 Manufacturers Agree to Distribute Supplies by Population

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new Asian flu vaccine will be allocated to the states according to population.

Announcing this last night, the Public Health Service said "a program giving each state and territory its fair share of the vaccine seems to be the most equitable way of distributing the vaccine geographically throughout the country."

The Health Service said the six licensed manufacturers had agreed to this voluntary allocation system as proposed by Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney. The arrangement goes into effect at once.

The Health service endorsed a proposal that states and communities set up advisory committees to recommend what groups should get first inoculations of the still-scarce vaccine. Presumably these priority groups would include doctors, nurses, policemen, firemen and others needed to keep up essential services.

Burney said last week manufacturers expect to produce between 80 million and 85 million doses of flu vaccine by Jan. 1. So far, a total of 2,667,475 doses have been released.

Rudolph Bing Signs 5-Year Met Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Rudolf Bing signed a new five-year contract as general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Assn. yesterday, with an option for two additional years.

Anthony A. Bliss, association president, said Bing's old contract—due to expire June 1, 1959 — was cancelled by mutual agreement.

Bing currently is in Cologne, Germany, examining that city's new opera house. His salary is reported as $35,000 a year.

Bandleader Les Baxter Charged With Cruelty

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The wife of Les Baxter wants to end her six-year marriage to the bandleader and arranger.

Mrs. Patricia Baxter, 26, filed suit in Superior Court charging cruelty and asked custody of their two children, Robert, 3, and Leslie, 2, and $5,000 a month alimony and child support.
