Continues Bond on Texas Thug

County Awaiting Word on Fugitive Warrant From Illinois

Lowell E. McCormick's $7,500 bond was continued until July 27 in Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday while the prosecutor's office awaits action from the State of Illinois on a kidnapping charge against the Texas man.

McCormick, 34, of Fort Worth, is out on bond and reportedly was in Illinois on a fugitive war-

Tax-Break Bill Almost Ready

Self-Employed Savers for Retirement Would Be Aided by Measure

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) said today his Senate Finance Committee expected to complete action by tonight on a House-passed bill to give a tax break to self-employed persons saving for retirement.

He said the committee had to act on remaining amendments to the measure, which would change the federal income tax law, before it was sent to the floor.

An estimated six million self-employed persons would be able to qualify under the original House bill by setting up their own pension plans.

They would not have to pay income taxes on money put into the retirement fund, or on earnings of the fund itself, until the cash was withdrawn.

The bill was expected to stir up a fight when it reached the Senate floor, but sponsors still predicted passage this session.

About 200 million years ago there were huge insects, such as cockroaches about 12 inches or more in length, on earth.

7,500 Masons Gather for Templar Conclave

LANSING — An estimated 7,500 high-ranking Masons gathered here today for the annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Michigan.

The delegates represent 55 Michigan commanderies and one from Toledo, Ohio.

Stories of Knights Templar dignitaries from more than a dozen states and Canada were to attend. They included Wilbur M. Brucker, secretary of the Army, and Joseph C. Dunn, a New York attorney who will give the main address at a Friday banquet.

More than half the automobiles and trucks in the United States are produced in Detroit.

Nominating Petitions Are Flowing to State

LANSING (UPI) — The parade of hopefuls, both incumbent and otherwise, continues to the secretary of state's office with nominating petitions for the Aug. 2 primary election.

Among those making the trip was Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. (R-Mich.) who filed for a return to his Fifth District seat in Congress.

Ford, however, is an aspirant to the Republican vice presidential nomination at the GOP national convention next month in Chicago.

State Sen. Charles T. Prescott (R-Prescott) filed for a return to his seat, Rep. Arnold Engstrom (R-Traverse City) also filed.

Others recently filing included John P. Hopkins, Traverse City Democrat filing for the state Senate; Ralph E. Richman, Holland Democrat, seeking a state Senate seat; Clark F. Most, Alanson Republican who wants to become a member of the State House of Representatives, and Howard J. Dunn, Cabot Republican, also seeking a House seat.

Pier Angeli May Wed Italian Actor Arena

ROME — Italian gossip columnists say Italian actress Pier Angeli will marry Italian actor Maurizio Arena when her divorce from American singer Vic Damone becomes final.

The two have been constant companions for a couple of months. Arena is a dark-haired tough guy hero in Italian movies.

Arena was in the news on two occasions recently—when he was rejected for military training and when an Italian starlet who formerly was his companion was hospitalized for taking too many tranquilizer pills.

Who but Stu if Jack Tires?

Dark Horse Champs Bit

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—Barely a month remains until a stabfest of Donkey Party presidential entries stamped Los Angeles for one of the most exciting political horse-races of the century.

The current odds are on John F. Kennedy to win, and Lyndon B. Johnson to place, but an impressive number of Democratic "pros" are staking their all on Stuart Symington, the Missouri entry who will be flying the Truman silk.

Harry S. Truman, who came from behind to finish first in one of the surprise upsets of our times, was put out to pasture eight years ago. The old war-horse refuses to remain on the sidelines, however, and he says of the Symington candidacy:

"He's the best qualified—and I think I know something about the necessary qualifications."

The nominating convention is a "claiming" race. If you can judge by the claims of rival contenders, the Kennedy forces insist that their entry is already within 100 of the 761 votes needed to cross the finish line.

With equal bitterness, the Johnson stable boasts of 397 delegates favorable to the Texas darkhorse, despite the fact that his name has yet to be officially entered on the racing forms.

While the Kennedys and Johnsons count their delegates, the old pros now swelling the Symington camp are predicting victory for him on the third or fourth go-around.

It takes a lot of grooming to prepare an entry for such a glittering sweepstakes, and here are some of the professional groomers:

Dean Acheson, Truman's former secretary of state, who is serving as Symington's chief advisor on the world situation and the perils of summery.

Clark Clifford, former ghost writer and chief counsel for proxy Truman, who is masterminding Symington's overall political strategy.

Mrs. Allen W. Barkley, widow of the beloved "Veep," who is lion, he may become a little winded during the second halloing. That would still leave Johnson galloping along in front of him.

But if the Texas entry should

Economic Advisors, who is taking time off from his private consulting business to keep Symington posted on economic trends and problems of national growth.

Clayton Fritchey, former public relations chief for Adlai Stevenson and the Democratic National Committee, who joined the Symington stable last month as a speechwriter and braintrust.

Stephen F. Lee, popular Air Force public relations director while Symington was secretary of the Air Force, who has now joined his former boss as press agent.

The only votes Symington can definitely count on in the first lap are Missouri's 20, but Stu is no numbers player.

He figures that if Kennedy is over-trained for his lead-off position, he may become a little winded during the second halloing. That would still leave Johnson galloping along in front of him.

But if the Texas entry should stumble over some die-hard northern liberals, while Kennedy continued to lose ground, who but of Stu could come romping down the home stretch to victory?

It's a good question, but we won't have the answer until July.

Sylvan Council OKs Mrs. White for Job

The Sylvan Lake City Council last night approved appointment of Mrs. Geneva White as city treasurer and deputy clerk.

Mrs. White, of 338 Voorhees Rd., has been employed by the city as an office worker since a realignment of front office duties the first of this year.

At that time, the positions of city clerk and treasurer were temporarily combined with that of city manager to make a proposed change in bookkeeping and records procedure more effective.

City Manager David E. Firestone recommended to the Council last night that Mrs. White be treasurer and deputy clerk.

EASES ROUTINE LOAD
She has been with the city about five months.

Her capacity as deputy clerk will give her the power to sign certain papers but the post was created mainly to relieve the manager-clerk of routine duties. The Council also adopted a resolution opposing the 1 per cent income tax proposed by the City of Detroit.

"The Council is definitely opposed to the idea of Detroit taxing persons living outside its city limits," said Firestone.

The city manager also reported that the 1959-60 fiscal year will close with the city in the black for the second straight year. "It is difficult to estimate with accuracy how much money we will have left over, but our present budget figures point to a balance in the neighborhood of $2,000," Firestone said.

The auditing firm of Jane & Knight of Birmingham was hired to do the annual audit of city books.

Missile Strike Grows Bitter

5 Key U.S. Defense Installations Tied Up for Fourth Day

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An increasingly bitter union strike for higher pay tied up five key United States defense installations for the fourth day in a row today.

Convair, builder of the nation's only war-ready long range missile, and the International Assn. of Machinists locked in massive struggle.

"Still working were Convair's big plane and missile plants here. The union has insisted at bases where Convair Atlas missiles, capable of hauling nuclear warheads thousands of miles, play a prime role in the nation's defense.

The company countered with lawsuits, suspensions and cancellation of several union-benefitting clauses in the expired contract.

A threat of new walkouts in the troubled aviation-missile industry looms. The IAM said it broke off talks Wednesday with the Lockheed Aircraft Corp. missiles and space division at Burbank, Calif. Union officials expect a strike vote at a membership meeting Saturday.

And IAM members at Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica, Calif., are considering a strike in mass meetings. The United Auto Workers has set a June 15 strike deadline with Douglas in Long Beach. In all cases the unions demand wage and fringe increases.

$20 Million Program to Treble Ship Berths

CAIRO (UPI)—Saudi Arabia expects to treble the berthing capacity of Dammam, its only port on the Persian Gulf, early next year.

Moisture Blocks Corn Planting

Michigan Farmers Lay 15 Per Cent as Fields Remain Wet

LANSING UP — Wet field conditions to hold up corn planting in much of Michigan and only about 50 per cent of expected acreage has been planted. The Federal State Crop Reporting Service said Wednesday.

The figure is 15 per cent less than usual at this date.

Frequent rains have made cultivating difficult and weed growth is becoming a problem.

However, many southern counties have up to 90 per cent of the acreage planted.

80 PCT. SUGAR BEETS

More than 80 per cent of the expected acreage of sugar beets has been planted. Blocking and thinning have been completed on about one-third of the crop.

Dry bean planting is nearly on schedule despite wet fields which have delayed activity in a few east-central counties. A third of the expected acreage of soybeans is down.

Pasture and hay growth generally has been vigorous. Alfalfa is in the bud in early bloom stage. Some hay and grass silage has been made.

The condition of winter wheat varies from excellent in some areas to fair in sections where yield prospects have been hurt by surplus moisture.

The crop is heading in a few southwestern Michigan counties.

Oats are behind usual progress, mainly because of late planting, but prospects are good on the better drained fields. Winter barley is mostly headed.

STRAWBERRIES PROMISING

If weather conditions are favorable in the next several weeks, strawberry growers can look forward to a big crop.

Heavy picking is expected to get under way later this week in the southwest.

Prospects for tree fruits are variable.

Family Status Shown by Swimming Pool

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (UPI)—Swimming pools are replacing the second car as the mark of family success so rapidly that pool industry sales will top the $1 billion mark for the first time in 1960, according to Building Products magazine.

It predicted that a record 30,000 pools will be installed this year, and credited present-day easy installment financing as being the principal stimulant.

Only about 3 per cent of the total salt produced in the United States reaches consumers across the dinner table.

Such as Punkeydoodles Corner

Some Place Names Funny

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Once in a while someone's funny bone is tickled and a spot on the globe gets named Punkeydoodles Corner, Ont., or Igo, Calif.

Others are moments of sadness and such names are applied as Widowville, where many Civil War widows chose to live, in Ohio.

Sometimes the christener just goes. Such instances include Rio de Janeiro, named in the erroneous belief it was the mouth of a river, and Nome, Alaska, the result of misreading the pencilled inquiry "name?" on a map.

All this is reported in a study of place names by Mario Pei, professor of romance languages at Columbia University. Pei and Elaine Lambert collaborated on "The Book of Place Names," and UNESCO Courier, the magazine of the U.N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, this month publishes an article drawn from the book.

These are some of Pei's findings:

The word new appears in place names more frequently than any other. Examples include New England, New York and Nueva Armenia in Honduras.

Repetitions in place names are frequent. One of the most striking examples is Britain's Torpenhow Hill—which is really hill-hill-hill in four languages.

Instances of accidental humor in naming places include Upper, Nether and Middle Wallop and Great Scoring, all in England.

Others are Peru's Caballocoche (horse and carriage), Paraguay's Puerto Casado (married port) and Bolivia's Toretro (bull-bull).
Confusion enters the picture with Georgia both in the United States and the Soviet Union and Tripoli popping up in Syria, Libya and Iowa.
There are many repetitions of the same name but in different languages in different lands. Tish (or Tullis) in the Soviet Union's Georgia has its counterpart in Hot Springs, Ark., and S.D. New York's Stony Point is Venezuela's Punta de Piedras. Mississippi, Rio Grande and Gaudalquivir all mean big river. Nepal and Piedmont are both at the foot of the mountains.

Says Demand Ups Stock Price

Survey Calls Funds and Private Owners Cause of Shortage in Issues

NEW YORK (UPI)—One of the strongest reasons for expecting higher stock prices over the intermediate and longer terms is the ever-increasing demand for common stocks by institutions, mutual funds and individuals, according to the Fitch Survey.

Today there are many types of institutional portfolios invested partly in common stocks that 10 years ago were not allowed to purchase them, or bought them in small quantities.

Fitch also points out that individual owners have grown from about 6 million in number to well over double that amount now.

On the other hand, it says, new offerings of common stocks have been insufficient to meet this demand as opposed to an oversupply in the bond market.

Expect Mothers to Gain Rights

Civil Service Debates
Issue Today; May Kill
Advance Vacations, Too

LANSING (UPI) — Liberalized employment rights for women in state jobs who take maternity leaves were expected to be approved by the Civil Service Commission today.

The mother would have up to two years to apply for a return to her job under the proposed new rule.

Final action on the rule, which would also apply to women who adopt babies, was not expected until the commission's July meeting, a spokesman said.

A plan to prevent state employees from taking vacation time before they earn it was also expected to be adopted today.

The rule would require an employee taking time off to be docked in his check instead of charging the absence to leave time not yet accrued.

Three heads of state departments might come under civil service under another rule up for adoption by the commission.

The director of the mental health department, head of the aeronautics department and the Upper Peninsula State Fair secretary-manager would be affected.

The mental health department has also asked that the position of equity director be made civil service, the commission said.

Jersey Delegates Unpledged, for Nixon

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—New Jersey's 38 delegates to the Republican National Convention will go to Chicago unpledged next month but hopeful of nominating a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket.

COP State Chairman Carl Erdman said after the delegates held their organizational meeting they "were unpledged but entirely united on the candidacy of Vice President Richard M. Nixon for president."

Erdman added there was no sentiment for anyone other than New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for vice president. Bernard M. Shanley, national committee-man designate, said sentiment for Rockefeller had built up since he announced he would accept a draft for the presidency. The sentiment, however, was for running the governor for vice president, Shanley added.

When an employee laughs at his boss' jokes, it doesn't mean the jokes are clever — it means the employee is... Early to bed and early to rise probably means the TV set is being repaired... A pedestrian is a driver who has found a parking space. —Earl Wilson.

Joblessness Cut 13,000 in State During May

DETROIT (UPI) — The number of persons looking for jobs in Michigan dropped 13,000 during May, with more than half the drop coming in the Detroit area, the Michigan Employment Security Commission said Tuesday.

The MESC said 205,000 persons were looking for jobs in Michigan on May 31.

The report said 108,000 were searching in the Detroit area, a drop of 7,000 from the number unemployed in Detroit in mid-April.

The number of unemployed represented 7.1 per cent of Michigan's total work force of 2,872,900 while the number of job seekers represented 7.7 per cent of the Motor City's work force of 1,408,100.

Steel Pipe Gets Tired and Cracks After Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — An industrial resonance test that causes a steel pipe to crack itself is going one better than tensors who can shatter crystal glass by pure sustained tone.

Researchers at Tube Turns Division of Chemerton Corp. use rapidly spinning weights to induce test lengths of pipe to vibrate sympathetically in a way that, in minutes, simulates years of industrial stresses and strains, until fatigue occurs and the pipe cracks.

Nasser Forced to Bow to Lesser of Two Evils

ATHENS, Greece (UPI) — Statecraftsmen smile covered some diplomatic embarrassment when United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser arrived for a state visit.

One of the chief greeters was Wen Yan Nang, ambassador of Nationalist China and dean of the diplomatic corps in Athens.

The UAR at first objected to Wen doing the honors because it does not recognize Nationalist China. It finally accepted him because the next senior diplomat is the Soviet ambassador—and the Greeks objected to him.

Ex-Sheriff's Trial Set June 21 This Time

MUSKOGON on — Former Muskegon Sheriff Arthur Davis, who spent 48 hours in jail before appealing his May 11 assault and battery conviction and 90-day sentence, gets a new trial June 21.

Visiting Circuit Judge Archie McDonald of Hastings has been named to preside at the sessions which are expected to continue up to three days.

Davis is free on $100 bond to wait the new trial.

He was convicted by a Muskegon Municipal Court jury on the charge lodged by a Whitehall woman who claimed he made improper advances toward her while investigating a gun-firing incident at her home.

Asks for More Safety, Less Charm on Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Airline stewardesses are given more training in charm than in safety, a Senate subcommittee has been told.

Rowland K. Quinn Jr., president of the Air Line Stewards and Stewardesses Assn., urged that basic training and testing requirements be established.

A pressure suit worn by pilots at high altitude inflates automatically when pressure inside the plane is lost.

Alchemist Hit Secret of China 250 Years Ago

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — Just 250 years ago this week a German chemist cracked one of the best-kept secrets of the mystic East—how to make China tableware.

Johann Friedrich Boettger, self-styled "alchemist and godmaker," had been working on the problem for years. He succeeded on June 6, 1710—but the success did him no good.

August, the duke-elect of Saxony, under whose patronage Boettger had been working, promptly locked the inventor away in his castle. He was never seen alive again.

August hoped to keep the secret of China-making in the state of Saxony and thus corner the world market and bolster the state's sagging financial resources.

The secret eventually leaked out, but to this day Saxony, and the castle of Meissen, remain a center of the China-making industry.

PET DOCTOR

By A. W. Miller, D.V.M.

Question: Can we keep a monkey as a pet without endangering the health of our family?

Answer: The physical characteristics of the monkey resemble man more than those of any other animal.

Consequently, he is vulnerable to many of man's contagious diseases and precautions should be taken before he becomes a household pet. A complete medical examination, and polio and other preventive inoculations are necessary.

Be sure he is checked for ringworms, pinworms and tuberculosis. It is also advisable to have the veterinarian remove the fang teeth to prevent injury if the monkey should bite.

Given a clean bill of health, the monkey makes a fascinating pet, but bodily contact (particularly with children) should still be kept at a minimum.

(Address your questions to Dr. Miller in care of this paper. He will answer selected inquiries in his column, but cannot reply to them.)

Will Niki Visit South America?

Cuban Plans Stirring Hints He May Journey to Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev's decision to visit Cuba has stirred speculation that he will try to extend his trip to South America, and especially to Brazil.

Brazil lacks diplomatic relations with the Kremlin, so Foreign Ministry officials say an invitation is out of the question. But the talk refuses to die because a hypothesis no doubt could be found in this election year. Nationalist fever is running high for reducing Brazil's ties with the United States.

Recently Soviet Deputy Premier Alexei N. Kosygin stopped off in Communist-infested Recife, in Brazil's northeast sector, on his way home to Moscow from Argentine independence celebrations in Buenos Aires.

Kosygin and his party got an official welcome from the Pernambuco state governor, Cid Sampaio, and a ride into the city. He said the Soviet Union wants to re-establish diplomatic relations with Brazil, and that a good step was taken when Brazil, the Soviet Union signed a commercial deal last December.

Brazilian officials have been calling the deal a convenience. It provides an exchange of 100 million dollars worth of goods on both sides over the next three years. It is minor compared with the losses Brazil carries on with the United States and other Western nations.

West Berlin Attorney Dies in Soviet Prison

BERLIN (AP) — Dr. Walter Linse, a Berlin attorney kidnaped in an open street by Communists eight years ago, has died in jail in the Soviet Union, the West German Red Cross reported today.

The Soviet Union denied all knowledge of Linse, but the Soviet Red Cross finally informed the West German Red Cross he died Dec. 15, 1953, at the age of 40.

Linse was a leading official of the anti-Communist League of Free Jurists, dedicated to exposure of persecution of political opponents by the Communist dictatorship of East Germany. He was snatched by German Communist agents in the street outside his home in the American sector of Berlin on July 9, 1952.

Early Census Figures Show Suburbs' Spurt 6 Times Cities'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Preliminary figures for 27 of the nation's largest population centers indicate that suburbs have been growing six times as fast as cities in the past 10 years.

While the record of the 27 areas may not prove absolutely typical, it pointed up a well-established migration to suburbs that will be measured exactly after final 1960 census figures are available.

An Associated Press canvass to-day covered population centers which were among the first for which both city and metropolitan area statistics were available. Scattered through all sections of the country, they showed this 10-year record:

The 27 cities had a population gain of 6.6 per cent—up 1,243,294 to 20,058,946. During the same decade, the suburbs around these cities had an increase of 41.4 per cent—up 4,787,479 to 16,328,177.

11 LOSE

Of the 27 cities, 11 lost population between 1950 and 1960 as residents moved from old, crowded sections into the outlying areas. All the metropolitan areas showed sizable population gains.

Shrinking cities of the list were Baltimore, Detroit, Jacksonville, Fla., Jersey City and Newark, N.J., New York City, Philadelphia, Providence, R.I., Richmond, Va., Rochester, N.Y., and Worcester, Mass.

Philadelphia, for example, dropped below the two-million mark—from 2,071,605 to 1,954,886, a sharper loss— from 1,848,568 to 1,678,613.

The count in New York City is continuing but census officials there expect a final total of about 7,770,000 compared with the 1950 level of 7,891,957.

AREAS INCREASE
Even in these major cities, the metropolitan areas showed significant increases. The Detroit area increased from 3 million to 3 3/4 million.

This Farmer Wanted U. S. Consideration

DES MOINES (AP) — A census taker reasoned there must be some mistake. Here was a prosperous-looking farm with two late model cars in the yard and even a private swimming pool.

Yet the farmer had written on the census form that he didn't have an indoor toilet, or hot and cold running water in his home.

"Leave it the way I filed it out," the farmer told the census taker. "I'm not going to have the government thinking the farmer is well off."

The enumerator changed the form to make it correct.

It was the Duke of Wellington who said, "The Lord's Prayer contains the sum total of religion and morals."

Granddaughter of Bryan to Run Again in West

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The granddaughter of William Jennings Bryan will try again to upset the Republican incumbent in California's 21st Congressional District.

Mrs. Rudd Brown, 35, a tall, pretty brunette, won the Democratic primary in a three-way race Tuesday — with plenty of votes to spare.

She won the 1956 primary, too, but lost the general election to Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand. Hiestand was unopposed in the GOP primary Tuesday.

Her famed grandfather three times was an unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate.

How Private Is a Purse?

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UPI) — How much privacy is a woman's purse entitled to?

That's the question Mrs. Mary E. Hensley raised this week when she refused to permit officials at the Sportswear Manufacturing Co. where she worked to inspect her pocketbook.

Peter Stuck, plant manager of Angel's Sportswear, said that Mrs. Hensley was fired when she refused to allow the company to open her pocketbook as part of a routine inspection. Stuck said the company passed a rule that the 45 women at the plant must open their pocketbooks for inspection at the end of each work day.

He said the rule was made to curb "some petty thievery we've had around here."

Mrs. Hensley's husband Charles disagrees with Stuck. He said, "a woman's pocketbook is inviolable against search without a warrant."

Reporter Swims Into the Story

Senators Secretly Order Pool

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Herald Tribune said today it has learned that senators have secretly ordered a 20-by-30-foot swimming pool for the basement of the old Senate office building on Capitol Hill in Washington.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper added that plans for the white tile pool—"in which the senators can gambol between roll call votes"—are already on the drawing boards of the Capitol architect.

The story also said in part: Construction, expected to start soon, is to be paid for out of $100,000 remaining in an appropriation voted in 1958 to remodel "rusty plumbing" in the office building.

The pool is to be constructed in the private senatorial "health suite" out of public view under a stairway on the ground floor of the building. The "health suite" already contains an 8-by-12 foot pool and private dressing rooms "worthy of the baths of ancient Rome."

REALLY HIDDEN

The new pool would be hidden

Found Dead in Car on Milford Road

The body of an Ann Arbor man was found in his car by Oakland County Road Commission employees yesterday afternoon on Milford road near White Lake road in Highland Township.

Dr. Gerald Buchanan, deputy coroner, ruled that Norman Spencer, 28, had taken his own life. Death was attributed to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Senate OKs Tourist Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill authorizing a five-million-dollar start on a program of attracting foreign tourists to this country has unanimous Senate approval. The measure would create an Office of International Travel in the Commerce Department.

in more ways than one. A search of available records failed to turn up any report, hearing or legislation mentioning the pool. Its senatorial sponsors apparently hoped to build the project without anybody knowing it.

The Senate Office Building Commission, of which Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) is chairman, gave the pool the green light at a closed meeting 10 days ago. Plans were immediately drawn up by the office of Capitol architect J. George Stewart, who is not an architect. Stewart's office declined to confirm or deny all of this. Nor would any one give the estimated cost of the pool.

Two massive oaken doors, marked "Private—Senators Only" in gold letters, bar the way to the senatorial "health suite" and the existing, economy-sized pool.

Despite this, the Herald Tribune writer, David Wise, ignored the sign and walked in.

Last Terrible Touhy Dies in Bed of Cancer

CHICAGO (AP)—The last of The Terrible Touhy brothers is dead.

Thomas (Terrible Tommy) Touhy succumbed to cancer without realizing his hope to avenge the death of his brother—Roger "The Terrible" who was gunned down by assassins Dec. 15.

The Sun-Times disclosed his death today. The paper says he died May 16 at the home of relatives.

Tommy had been quoted as saying in the past: "I don't want to end up full of bullet holes in the street. I want to die in bed with my family around me."

He died in bed but there were no brothers around him.

Before his death, Tommy reportedly told a friend: "I'm going to get out of this bed someday, get a gun and kill the rats who murdered Rog."

EVERGREEN, Ala. (UPI)—County officials reported in vain all night for a plane a farmer thought had crashed, but was only the door from an Air Force transport.

Chicago Paper Reports:

Kennedy and Adlai Agree to Deal at Convention

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago deal supposedly was made May 21 when Kennedy visited Stevenson in his Libertyville home for less than two hours. Stevenson has said in the past he is not seeking the nomination and does not expect to get it. At a reception Wednesday given by the publisher of his book "Friends And Enemies," Stevenson told newsmen, "I don't have any plans at the present." He added that the defection of three former political advisers to the camp of Kennedy "doesn't change my plans at all." The three, Henry Steele Commager, Amherst College historian, and Harvard professors John K. Galbraith and Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., announced their support of Kennedy Tuesday.

The Tribune said the reported agreement includes these points: "1. Stevenson is to strive to keep his name out of the Los Angeles nominating convention July 11 for the first three ballots while Kennedy made his door-cle effort." "2. If Kennedy's all-out drive fails he is to throw whatever forces he can behind Stevenson for the presidential nomination." "3. Kennedy would accept the vice presidential nomination if Stevenson gets the top spot for the third time."

Stevenson issued a statement Saturday, "There was no discussion (with Kennedy) of our course of action either before or during the convention."

2 California Counties Reject Fluoridation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Fluoridation of drinking water was rejected by voters in Alameda and Contra Costa counties by substantial majorities Tuesday.

Absentee ballots will decide the outcome in Marin County.

Complete unofficial returns showed these results: Alameda, 118,426 yes; 83,502 yes. Contra Costa 33,569 no; 20,907 yes.

Marin 18,614 no; 18,492 yes. In Marin County 1,100 absentee ballots will decide the outcome.

ike Signs Bill to Bar Car, Truck Fumes

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill designed as the first step toward a program to require devices on all cars and trucks to eliminate harmful fumes was signed Wednesday by President Eisenhower.

The bill calls only for a two-year study of the problem.

Rep. Paul F. Schenck (R-Ohio), the author, says he hopes the study will be followed by a law to control innoxious fumes, particularly in urban areas.

County to Furnish 64 for Induction in Month of July

Oakland County draft boards will furnish 64 men for induction into the Army in July, according to State Selective Service.

Oakland Boards 65 and 67 in Pontiac have had their quotas set at four and 20 men, respectively.

Board 66 in Royal Oak will call 40 for induction.

The state will furnish a total of 879 inductees, and another 1,500 young men will be ordered to take preinduction physical examinations.

Selective service officials said all residents listed for induction will be at least 22 years of age except for delinquents and volunteers.

Livonia Mayor Thinks Aged Need Tax Relief

LIVONIA (UPI)—Senior citizens are rallying behind Livonia Mayor William W. Brashear, who has proposed tax relief for elderly persons on fixed incomes.

Brashear said more than 550 letters have poured into the Livonia City Hall backing his stand, and a state legislative committee has promised to investigate the tax burden on the aged this summer.

The mayor said he considers it unjust that persons 65 and over who live on social security and small pensions should be forced to pay today's high school taxes. He said 62 per cent of the property tax load in Livonia goes for schools, and he pointed out that the elderly residents of the community already have paid for educating their children.

Brashear believes that persons

65 and over should be exempted from school taxation. Sen. Raymond D. Drendzel, a Democrat who represents Livonia and Northeast Detroit in the State Senate, introduced a resolution in the Senate last March 15 to set up a committee to study problems of the aged and to recommend appropriate legislation.

Husband Goes for Ike, Wife Favoring Adlai in Same Paper

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—Harry F. Guggenheim, president and co-owner of the Long Island Independent, daily newspaper, announced Wednesday support of Richard M. Nixon for president.

He declared for the Republican vice president in a signed column opposite the paper's editorial page.

His wife, Alicia Patterson, co-owner, publisher and editor, came out recently in a signed editorial for Adlai E. Stevenson for the Democratic nomination.

Guggenheim wrote: "Survival in the space age is the first concern of all humanity."

He urged voters to pick "a leader most able to preserve this country and our allies from destruction, from war, either hot or cold."

He said of the candidates that "none has the experience and strength of Nixon."

In her editorial, Miss Patterson had called Stevenson the one most able to deal with the Soviet Union.

In a separate editorial Wednesday, she said her husband would continue to express his views during the campaign.

"They will not always agree with those of this editorial column," she said.

"The paper supported Stevenson in 1956 and President Eisenhower in 1960."

Enough to Shrivele Your Tattoo

Seems Smoking Not Masculine

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If you smoke, you may not like this. If you don't smoke, you will like it fine.

After 15 years of research on 232 Harvard men, a Harvard scientist, Dr. Carl C. Seltzer of Peabody Museum, has come to these "tentative" findings.

If you are a man and don't smoke at all, you are almost certain to be very masculine.

But if you smoke, you may be slightly "weaker" in the "masculine component." The more you smoke, the more likelihood of less "masculine component."

So then, what are you likely to be like, if you're a heavy smoker and "weaker"—according to the professor, that is?

You may tend to have an aversion to strenuous exercises and sports.

You are more frequently shy, self-conscious, inhibited.

You may tend to be more creative, idealistic, intuitive.

You may be a little less sharp in muscular coordination.

There's a chance you will be lower in physical fitness for hard muscular work.

You tend to talk well—but possibly aren't so strong in mathematics as the non-smokers.

You may tend toward arts, letters or philosophy.

You probably are sensitive.

You may tend to have a more feminine build than the non-smokers.

Dr. Seltzer also is trying to find out whether smoking causes people to be more susceptible to cancer and coronary heart disease.

He thinks there is a possibility that smoking doesn't do the damage. There is a chance that people who smoke are somehow different from people who don't.

It may be that the type of people who smoke are more susceptible to some diseases, whether they smoke or not.

This research also explains, of course, why the tobacco industry Research Committee is supporting Dr. Seltzer's work.

Dr. Seltzer developed a number of interesting statistics from the long study.

Non-smokers tend to go into the Navy, heavy smokers into the Army.

Heavier smokers apparently sigh more frequently than non-smokers, breathe more rapidly and swallow more frequently. They tend to drink more alcohol and coffee.

He found the non-smokers as a group seem to be more stable, more dependable with better thought-out aims and purposes.

The non-smokers tend to lead

Would Establish Study of Dry-Land Problem

SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (UPI)—Dr. Joseph Kaplan, chairman of the International Geophysical Year, urges creation of an international water year.

The UCLA physics professor said purpose of the study would be to consider problems common to the arid regions of the world.

In almost all of the alphabets in the world, the letters "m" and "n" are in close conjunction with each other.

"quiet, progressive lives." They usually are hard workers.

The heavy smokers seem to be "working for danger, be restless, have great energy."

Ford Developing Land Vehicles of 500 M.P.H.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A Ford Motor Co. executive says his firm still is experimenting with mass passenger land vehicles with speeds of 300 to 500 miles an hour.

Alex L. Hayes told the American Society of Mechanical Engineers that such a vehicle would travel on rails, be lifted a fraction of an inch off the rails by a stream of air, and be propelled by an airplane-type engine.

Haynes, in a paper delivered at the association's semiannual meeting here, said such a vehicle would be designed for use in intermediate distances. David I. Jay, also of Ford, co-authored the paper.

In another paper, William H. T. Holden, a Pasadena, Calif., consulting engineer, declared that single-rail mass transportation proposals are "fundamentally unsound."

He said European studies of single-rail proposals have been virtually ended after engineering studies.

Congressmen Eye School Bill

Senate - House Panel Works to Smooth Out Differences

WASHINGTON (AP)—By unanimous consent, the Senate today sent a federal aid to education bill to a Senate-House committee to iron out differences.

The Senate previously had passed a two-year $1,800,000,000 measure carrying grants for school construction and teachers salaries.

The House passed a four-year $1,300,000,000 program authorizing the use of federal funds only for school construction.

INFORMAL AGREEMENT

There was informal agreement in advance that the joint committee would drop the controversial teacher salary provision, scuttle an amendment sponsored by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) to prevent federal payments to segregated schools, and adopt a Senate formula for funds distribution which would give more money to needy states.

Southerners made it plain they would filibuster any attempt to enact the bill with the Powell provision in it.

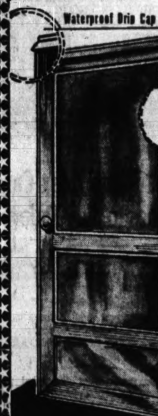

Edgar Allan Poe became a sergeant major in the Army, but he refused to follow the discipline of West Point to become a commissioned officer.

House Passes Tax, Debt Bills

Would Keep War-Born Levies, Set National Deficit for a Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted Wednesday to continue a batch of war-born taxes and to set the national debt limit at 233 billion dollars for the year beginning June 30.

Both actions were urged by the Treasury, which now will try to persuade the Senate to follow suit.

Unless Congress acts, revenues will drop an estimated four billion dollars a year and the debt limit, now 235 billion dollars, will be lowered at the end of this month to 233 billion dollars.

This debt bill would be too tough to crank the government's financial style during the lean months when it is waiting for tax collections. Administration hopes for budget surpluses would get a body blow.

The principal taxes involved are those on corporate income, alcoholic beverages, automobiles, parts and accessories, telephone service and passenger fares. Without congressional action, the rates would drop with accompanying revenue losses—$2,500,000,000, for example, in corporate income taxes.

By its action on the debt ceiling, the House left the permanent statutory limitation of 233 billion dollars intact. A $10-billion temporary extra authorization was in effect this year and the House bill would substitute for this an eight-billion temporary increase, for the coming year only, unless renewed.

The telephone and passenger fare rates have been at or above the present levels since 1942. Many members hoped they would be revised this year.

Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohio) complained in a speech that Congress, when it arranged a year ago to renew these taxes at the same time as the Korean War imports, led the public to believe that reductions were contemplated.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills (D Ark.) of the Ways and Means Committee argued that the telephone industry was behind the effort to repeal the tax on phone service.

He said he couldn't see where that industry was under any greater hardship than other industries affected by federal excises.

Mills cautioned against any move to cut taxes until the Treasury shows "a demonstrated surplus." And he said that hasn't been demonstrated yet.

Post Office Clerk Quite Optimistic

ACCORD, N.Y. (UPI)—Villagers here credit the name of their community to the optimism of a post office clerk in the 19th Century.

Settlers in the 1790s were engaged in a long controversy over a name, and finally one irate citizen wrote the postmaster general in Washington, suggesting that because of all the squabbling the new community be dubbed "Discord." A government clerk did a little editing, however, and the new name became Accord.

Curious Clocks Inside Humans Bother Night, Swing Workers

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N.Y. (AP)—The night workers' lot is often not a happy one.
It is even worse for those on swing shifts who must work some days and some nights in the same week.
One reason for difficulty, scientists are finding, is that night and swing hours can upset curious clocks that keep time in our bodies and regulate important rhythms of living.
Better knowledge of the clocks may aid night workers.

TIME DAILY CYCLES
These strange biological clocks are being discussed at a 10-day international conference of 100 scientists at the Long Island Biological Laboratory.
In humans, the clocks time daily cycles in body temperature, output of adrenal hormones, disease-fighting white blood cells, blood sugar governing fatigue and alertness and other functions.
Similar clocks in birds, bees, cockroaches, plants and almost all forms of life also seem to run generally on a 24-hour cycle.
The human clocks do not all keep the same time. Body temperature usually reaches a peak in the afternoon, a low in the early morning hours. But adrenal glands generally pour out hormones just before your normal morning waking hour to help you meet the challenge of a new day. Switching to night work can throw the clocks off schedule. Some people can treat their clocks more easily than others, or already have clocks that make them feel best at night.
Studies along this line were described in an interview by Dr. M. C. Lobban of the Medical Research Council Laboratories, London, England. Dr. Lobban is a diminutive woman who loves the arctic.
Spitzbergen, Norway, with continuous summer daylight, provided a perfect spot to test some Cambridge University volunteers. She took away their wristwatches.

Some got watches taking only 21 hours to tick off 24 hours. Others took watches taking 27 hours to show 24 hours.
NO SUNSETS, SUNRISES
With no sunsets or sunrises to mark normal day and night, the volunteers ate meals, worked and slept as though their watches really were counting off 24-hour days. Some men and women had more trouble in adapting, Dr. Lobban said.
She stressed that more studies are needed. But one indication could be that if someone is assigned to night work, he should be kept on long enough to reset his clocks, rather than being switched on and off night duty.

Decomposed Body Found in Trunk

ST. JOHNS, Nfld. (AP)—Canadian police and railroad officials are trying to find out who shipped a trunk from Toronto to Argentina May 4 with the body of a peroxide blonde inside.
The partly decomposed body was discovered Tuesday at the railroad express office in Argentina, a naval base about 90 miles from here.
The unidentified woman was in her 20s, 5 feet 1 1/2 inches tall and weighed about 115 pounds. She wore blue jeans, a blue denim shirt, and had no stockings or shoes on.
The trunk had been shipped collect to Argentina, addressed to "Mrs. Williams." The agent said there was no such person in the town.

Michigan Vacation Trail

Music Camp Noteworthy

(Editor's Note: One in a series of dispatches that will continue through the summer vacation season details the summer activities and points of interest for Michigan vacationers.)

By United Press International
All varieties of outdoor life and recreation are combined with excellent instruction each summer to students at the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

The camp, the world's largest and most famous arts camp, begins its 33rd season on June 26. It was established in 1928 as the summer home of the National High School Orchestra to test and develop musical abilities in America's youth.

The program has since been expanded to include private and group lessons for outstanding ensembles, bands, choirs and symphony orchestras.

The campers are also instructed in music literature and theory, composition, conducting, speech arts, drama, radio, television, crafts and all forms of the dance. More than 12,000 students have attended the camp, an affiliate of the University of Michigan, during its existence. They represented every state in the Union and many foreign countries.

IN 10 UNITS
Stretching over acres adjacent to M-17 in Grand Traverse County and along the shore of Lake Walke, the camp is broken down into 10 units—five each for boys and girls of various age groups. Each unit has its own program, housing, recreational leaders and counselors.

Last year the camp presented 30 programs during its 57-day season.
The principle underlying the activities at the nonprofit institution, according to President John E. Maddy, is "learning geared to performance." Each student-camper progresses as rapidly as his talent and energy permit.

Between June 26 and Aug. 22 concerts will be given daily except Mondays, with as many as nine performances scheduled on Sundays.

Lectures, recitals and other programs during the week are free and a nominal fee is charged for afternoon and evening concerts of major orchestral works by the National High School Symphony Orchestra.

Guest accommodations are available nearby.

SIDE TRIPS

—M-17 extends northward from Interlochen to the top of Old Mission Peninsula, which parts Grand Traverse Bay. At the tip of the peninsula stands one of the first lighthouses erected in the Great Lakes region.
—More than 300 inland lakes dot Grand Traverse County, which, combined with rolling hillsides, makes the area of year-round interest for visitors to Michigan.

Fowl Decision Poses Ticklish U.S. Problem

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is good news for the world's waterfowl. The government has decided their feathers no longer are of strategic military value.

The decision finds the General Service Administration, with 1,500,000 pounds of feathers on its hands that it doesn't want. It sent word to all federal agencies that if they need any feathers, now is the time to speak up.
Most of the feathers were bought from Red China, before the Korean War, for military sleeping bags and hospital pillows. Foam rubber and other products are now widely used for such items.

Texas is the only state permitted by congressional statute to divide itself into five states if it so wishes.

Better Mufflers Coming
By BEN FLEIGAR
AP Automotive Writer
DETROIT (U-P) - It looks as if the fellow who complains that it's not the original price but the upkeep of a car that he must be about to get a slight break. *

At least one manufacturer will equip his 1961 models with mufflers and tailpipes which should last the life of the automobile.

Exhaust systems have been a prime target for car owner complaints, mainly because they are apt to need replacing within two years or less. A recent survey by Steel Magazine showed muffler manufacturers figure the average life of a conventional muffler at 18,000 miles.

Since normal annual use of passenger cars has risen to almost 13,000 miles, this would mean a conventional muffler would have to be replaced every year and a half.

Some relief for car owners being showing up in this field in the last year or two with the adoption, as standard equipment, of zinc coated and aluminized mufflers on some cars. These units will last on the average of 32,000 to 34,000 miles, or almost three years of normal driving.

Just as with many other items on your car, you can buy better quality mufflers than those which come as original equipment. But not many buyers who have shelled out several thousand dollars for a new car want to start replacing "cold" spots which lead to condensation.

Some parts makers have been advertising lifetime mufflers but many of the ad claims contain a gimmick-lifetime means only the time you personally own the car.

Mufflers usually rust from the inside out. Corrosive gases condense and eat through the metal.

Back in its 1960 models tried a new attack on the problem with a single muffler unit replacing dual exhausts. The single unit is said to eliminate "cold" spots which lead to condensation.

The newest development to come down the original equipment road is the ceramic muffler and tailpipe. Preliminary tests indicate these will last in the neighborhood of 90,000 miles. Ceramic units will be standard on all 1961 Ramblers.

So far Rambler is the only line to announce plans to use the new mufflers immediately. But this independent continues to be a growing factor in the auto business.

Poor Ol' Ivan - He's Got a Pain in His Pocketbook

NEW YORK (UPI) — If a Moscow worker should lose his shirt, he'd have to work 15 hours to make enough money to buy a new one. That's 1,500 per cent more than the 56 minutes a New York City worker would need to purchase the same kind of cotton shirt.

An American works three minutes to make money to buy one pound of sugar. It takes Ivan one hour and four minutes to buy his pound.

These are part of many consumer items listed by the National Industrial Conference Board in its latest map of industry.

Wall Streeters, scanning the list, concluded that here is a major reason Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev scuttled the summit conference.

The market men say Khrushchev's action in Paris and his recent belittling are a big noose to take the minds of his peasants off the things U. S. workers take for granted.

The conference board used as a base for New York pay, $217 an hour. For the Russians it used four rubles an hour. Moscow prices were based on information in the Soviet press.

The list doesn't even mention the electrical appliances, the automobiles, motor boats, homes with flower gardens, and myriad other luxuries the Russians can't get at all.

If Ivan wants to buy his wife a rayon dress, he has to work 73 hours and 30 minutes. The New Yorker works four hours for the same dress.

The conference board makes no comment on the prices. But even with the high cost of U. S. living, we have it better than Ivan.

U.S., Red China Envoys Hold Two-Hour Meeting

WARSAW, Poland (U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Red China's Ambassador Wang Pingman, who have served off and on for contacts between Peiping and Washington for 21 months, had a two-hour meeting Tuesday. No details were announced.

Beam was scheduled to bring up the question of admission of American newsmen to Red China at a meeting last month which was postponed at Wang's request. Their next session is set for July 15.

EGGS HOLLANDAISE — Serve Eggs Hollandaise with slices of ham on days when meat is on the menu. You'll be pleased to find that preparation is simple and results are wonderful when you try the Mock Hollandaise Sauce and poached eggs on toast triangles for meatless days.

Eggs Hollandaise Can Be Delightful Brunch Dish

Pretty as a picture, Eggs Hollandaise may be featured at your finest brunch, lunch or dinner. Eggs are favorites in spring meals — and it's not surprising. They're so versatile that they can be used morning, noon or night. Not only do they star as main dishes at all three meals but they're used in appetizers, snacks, desserts and salads.

Eggs have other varied uses: to leaven souffles, omelets and cakes; to bind ingredients together in casseroles, croquettes and meat loaves; to thicken, sauces and custards.

As one of our best protective foods, eggs are inexpensive sources of high quality protein, vitamins and minerals. Since eggs are plentiful now, plan to serve them often.

Cooking eggs and egg dishes is a simple matter when you remember to treat the eggs gently. Use low heat, for high heat toughens the proteins and makes eggs rubbery. The delicate flavor and creamy texture of eggs is brought out by slow cooking.

To be certain that the eggs you buy are at the peak of freshness, insist on branded, cartoned eggs. Buy eggs from refrigerated cases and store them at home in the refrigerator in the carton in which you buy them.

Eggs Hollandaise
4 poached eggs
1/2 slice ham
4 small triangles, cut in half

Fry ham slices 2 to 3 minutes or until lightly browned. Place on toast. Top with poached eggs and cover with Mock Hollandaise Sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Sauce
Make 1 cup medium white sauce. Stir part of sauce into 3 slightly beaten egg yolks. Combine with remaining sauce and blend thoroughly. Add 3 tablespoons butter and 5 tablespoons lemon juice while stirring. Continue until completely blended.

Now You're Cookin'!
the whole family will enjoy!

Banana Split Salad Has Peanut Dressing

One for the girls is this prettier-than-a-picture luncheon party salad you can fix in a jiffy. For the Peanut Honey dressing, blend 1/3 cup peanut butter with 2/3 cup salad dressing and 2 tablespoons honey.

For each salad, arrange spears of Belgium endive or curly escarole on a chilled salad plate. Peel one banana and split lengthwise — with a fluted cutter, if you have one. Place banana on salad greens, banana split style, and on top line up three little scoops of pineapple cottage cheese, the center one topped with a green mint cherry, each of the other two with a daisy of sliced peanut halves.

Add a light swirl of nutty dressing and bring the rest to the table for those who like more. Dressing with piping hot corn bread and bacon muffins and coffee.

Best Butter Made From Sweet Cream

Hi there! ... Here's a note from our Consumer Marketing Information Agent. When butter rates $3 on the official Department of Agriculture score sheet, it earns the "top grade" label, "US Grade Double A." If it scores 92, it's Grade A. ... If it scores 90 or 91, butter is marked "Grade B."

The big difference between

"grades of butter" is the basic ingredient. Grade Double A and Grade A butter are made from sweet cream. Grade B butter is made from sour cream. Some people prefer butter made from sour cream, but on the "official score sheet," it is rated lower. Flavor, aroma, color and texture are counted in grading butter, says Mrs. Josephine Lawyer.

Some 45,000 aluminum-clad homes will be built this year, according to estimates made by Reynolds Metals Co.

Browned Butter Frosting Extra Good This Way

By teaming up butter and evaporated milk with confectioners sugar you can make a fabulously rich and elegant browned butter frosting. Simply melt 1/4 cup butter over low heat and keep over heat until smooth and thoroughly confectioners sugar.

Remove butter from heat, and stir in about a third of the sugar. Add 2 tablespoons evaporated milk and the remaining sugar and beat until smooth and thoroughly blended. Makes enough for 24 cakes or one 13" x 9" oblong cake. (One half cup toasted chopped almonds stirred in the frosting will make it even more elegant!)

Pickled Fish Can Be a Good Snack

In all Spanish-speaking countries, a favorite hot weather hors d'oeuvres is pickled fish. Use any small whole fish, fish steaks or fillets.

First sprinkle with salt and a little lemon juice, let stand an hour. Then wipe off, and simmer in a cup of Spanish olive oil for fifteen minutes. Add no water and keep the heat moderate. When fish is tender, gently remove to deep jar or bowl.

To hot oil add 10 pepper-corns, 2 bay leaves, half a cup of vinegar and 1 small onion, thinly sliced. Place all this in a deep jar or bowl and store for at least 24 hours. Delicious served chilled as a first course or snack.

No Subsidy Now

NEW YORK (UPI) — In 1886, Pamie Farmer paid for the publication of 3,000 copies of her cookbook. Since then, more than three million copies have been sold.

Beef Slow Sandwich

A sandwich within a sandwich, is this Beef-Slow Sandwich. Between slices of enriched bread is a "meat" sandwich—2 slices of cold roast beef hold a serving of your favorite cabbage slaw. Butter slices of enriched bread. On half the buttered bread, place a slice of roast beef, cover with cabbage slaw, a second cut of beef and top with a bread slice.

Soak onion rings in ice water for about half an hour before deep-fat frying them.

Meats for Barbecue Appeal to Buyers

Outdoors or indoors, barbecue gives special atmosphere to good eating, suggests the Consumer Marketing Agent, High on the favorite barbecue list are trier-broilers and hamburger, as well as the many steaks and ribs.

This week, shoppers will find whole fryers weighing two to two and one-half pounds an ideal choice for barbecue and several stores have featured them. For the most eating, look for a bird with plump meaty breast and legs. Those shoppers looking for ways to stretch food dollars, can do so by buying a whole bird and cutting it in half or in pieces, Mrs. Josephine Lawry advises.

you long twice, you'll see there is a lot more meat than on regular spareribs.

In the produce department, the news is that supplies continue to increase. Shipments in large territory throughout the country were still larger last week, your cue that good stores will display them as they arrive.

CUT OUT GREEN

California potatoes have reached their peak in supply. Six to eight cents is about the average price per pound for fresh potatoes. Remember that these discolored in light, that the green color is not good eating. Keep the ones you buy in a cool dark place, and trim deep if there is any green color showing.

The Grand Rapids area of Michigan is now area furnishing as a greenhouse tomatoes. Greenhouse tomatoes often have the extra attached, and will have more flavor than other tomatoes now arriving in our markets. Some shoppers feel the extra flavor is worth the extra cost.

You will still find strawberries from other states, but Michigan's harvest is started, and you'll probably find a few in many markets by the end of this week. Picking in the southwestern part of the state should get under way in full swing by June 5 or 10. By June 15, you should find them in volume.

Evaporated Milk Makes Creamy Scrambled Eggs

Using evaporated milk you can turn out beautifully fluffy scrambled eggs with a minimum of effort. Just beat six eggs until fluffy, then beat in 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons evaporated milk, ¼ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper.

Over low heat melt enough butter in a frypan to cover the bottom of the pan. Pour in the egg mixture, cover and cook over low heat about 5 to 6 minutes without stirring. Stir lightly, cover and cook until done, about 5 to 6 minutes longer. Makes 4 to 6 delicious servings.

This is the time of year when greens for salad are more plentiful and of better quality than usual. For a taste treat, one may choose combinations of the delicate salad bowl lettuce, tender romaine, escarole, endive or spinach as well as the more common head and heart lettuce. There is a heavy supply of radishes and a good supply of celery to go along with the salad greens.

Watermelon are increasing in size and number. Most stores sell plenty out to fit your family needs.

Have you noticed? Many stores are featuring dairy products and will continue to do so during June. This month is the peak of milk production.

CHARCOAL BROILED TROUT—Large or small fish can be grilled on a charcoal fire. This method of cooking gives a real woody flavor to the fish. If you're worrying about getting the fish done, do some on-the-stove cooking of it ahead of time and finish the job outside.

Outdoor Cooking Expert Says to Grill Your Trout

No matter whether you catch your own trout or buy them frozen, all ready for frying or grilling, at a supermarket, you'll find grilled trout to be one of the finest foods to serve when you're cooking out of doors. There are two ways in which you can prepare trout for eating at fresco, both given below. Either way, it's best to let the trout thaw before cooking them. In "James Beard's Fish Cookery," the author suggests this method:

Jim Beard's Broiled Trout

Dip dressed trout in flour and then in melted butter. Salt and pepper them and arrange securely in a wire grill. Grill over hot coals for about 4 to 6 minutes, depending on the size of the fish. Brush with butter during the cooking.

Charcoal Broiled Trout

For each serving, plan on one dressed trout (¾ pound to 1 pound each). Heat about ½ cup oil in a large skillet for 2 or 3 trout. Sauté fish on both sides until they are almost done, about 10 minutes. Brush the fish with liquid condensed smoke. Place on a grill or charcoal broiler and broil 1 or 2 minutes, or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

A good way to use leftover meat loaf is to cut it into small squares and layer it with leftover spaghetti and tomato sauce in a baking dish; sprinkle with grated cheese and heat in the oven.

If you want a roast for the potluck or even, the pork loin roasts may easily be your choice at 35 to 40 cents a pound in most markets this week. If the butcher has cut along the chine bone on the rib-end roast, it is easy to cut open, lay flat and make "country style" ribs. Many stores display these "country style" ribs already cut. And if

Trio of Fruits Blend in Sauce

It's the sauce, say the French, that makes the dish. So why not add a new sauce to your cooking repertoire that will bring a touch of magic to Spring menus.

You can make (or give a company dish with Pineapple-Orange Sauce. It will also dress up Sunday's baked ham or glamorize left-over ham or pork.

A menu suggestion for today is Beef Tongue with Pineapple-Orange Sauce, sweet potato purée and broccoli. A Strawberry Sundae would be a good dessert to follow this menu.

Pineapple-Orange Sauce

1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cornstarch
1 can (No. 1 Pils) crushed pineapple, drained
1 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon orange rind
Mix brown sugar and cornstarch; stir in remaining ingredients except orange rind. Simmer gently 10 minutes; add orange rind.

When pan-broiling steaks or chops, use a low temperature and do not cover the meat. Pour off the fat as it accumulates.

Make a Soup From Cress and Shrimp

(This quickly-prepared soup usually wins applause.)

Shrimp and Watercress Soup
2 cups watercress
2 cups shrimp (or remove each) chicken soup
1 cup water
1 cup cream
1 cup butter
1 cup onion (small) small wet-pack leaves shrimp

Cut stems from watercress, leaving leafy top; sprays; remove any leaves of bottom cutaway stems and add leaves to sprays. Remove any top fat from broth; turn into medium-sized kettle; add watercress stems — there should be a generous packed-down cupful; add water.

Simmer about 10 minutes or until broth has dissipated watercress flavor; strain, discarding stems. Return broth to kettle; add frozen shrimp and potato soup; slowly bring to a boil, stirring occasionally.

Add watercress leaves — there should be 2 cups packed down and cream. Drain shrimp, rinse in cold water and drain; add. Re-heat slowly to wilt watercress leaves. Makes 8 servings.

The remaining weeks of the trip will be spent in Nigeria where Palmer was a missionary from 1954 to 1957.

While in Nigeria, the evangelists will lead two training tentureships, one among the Ebi-speaking people and one among the Ibo. There are 200 Churches of Christ and two Christian Schools in Nigeria.

Planning to accompany Dean Palmer and Keeble is Rodney Grantham, of Crawfordsville, Ind., a freshman at NCCC, who is studying to be a preacher of the Church of Christ. He has raised $900 of the $1,500 he needs for the trip.

The group plans to return to the college on July 20.

Approves Contract for Work

Avon Twp. OKs Road Chloriding

AVON TOWNSHIP—The Avon Township Board last night approved a contract with the Oakland County Road Commission to provide for chloriding all unpaved roads in the township, outside the Village of Rochester.

The only roads not to be included in the three-application chloride program are primary roads now covered for by the commission and those already oiled.

The cost of the project will be $237 per mile, not to exceed $15,000.

The first payment of $5,000 will be made July 15, with the balance due Dec. 31.

The township electorate will be asked to authorize a tax spread of 1.5 mill on each $1,000 of assessed valuation outside the village to pay for the chloriding program.

It was announced last night that Avon Township Park will be ready for summer activity with three leagues, on July 1, if the weather warms up, the date may be moved ahead to June 15, Supervisor Cyril E. Miller said.

Insurance agents Dale and Nina Martin and the Jerome Hill Insurance Agency were named agents of record to handle the insurance business of the township.

They will be asked to conduct a survey of the township's present policies in the next 60 days to make recommendations on how they should be handled in the future.

The final plan for Stratford Knolls subdivision No. 1 on Avon road, east of Springhill subdivision was approved, subject to the final approval of 41 acres recently added.

The subdivision contains 45 lots.

Voters Stubborn About Changes

Con-Con May Not Get Far

By A. F. MARIAN
DETROIT (UPI) — Just because a state calls a constitutional convention, it doesn't necessarily mean it is going to get a new Constitution.

Only 10 states, excluding newly admitted Alaska and Hawaii, have constitutions written in the 20th Century. More conventions have been held than there have been constitutions adopted.

And the states have beaten down more proposals to call constitutional conventions than they have allowed to pass. Generally, one cannot be called without a vote of the people.

The people have the final word in any event in Michigan and most other states. No constitution becomes effective in them until and unless it is approved by a majority of the electorate.

Normally a constitutional convention, once its delegates are sworn in, is on its own. It is beyond control of the governor or legislature.

It can write a brand new constitution, submit amendments to the current one, or quit and go home without doing anything.

Some states have called conventions, however, that were

Rep. Meader to Run for 6th Election

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. George Meader (R-Mich.) announced he will file his nominating petitions for re-election June 10 to qualify for Michigan's Aug. 2 primary.

Meader has served five terms in the House as representative from Michigan's Second Congressional District. The district includes Jackson, Lenawee, Monroe and Washtenaw counties.

In a statement, Meader said he would run on his record and also would run for a "more aggressive foreign policy," among other objectives, if he is returned to Congress.

The Pennsylvania Commission pointed out the state's electorate had voted five times against calling a constitutional convention, but had adopted 50 amendments, 28 in the last 30 years.

limited to constitutional sections they might revise.

Michigan called a constitutional convention in 1867 to revise its Constitution of 1850, but when the convention's work was submitted to a vote the people rejected it, 110,582 to 71,753. A commission appointed by the governor came up with a new draft in 1874, but this, too, was defeated at the polls.

It was by the margin of 244,785 to 130,783 that the Wolverine State got its present Constitution in 1908.

Majorities voted against calling conventions in 1926 and 1943 to "modernize" this document. In 1948 and 1958, the majority voting on the calling of a convention approved, but both proposals failed because a majority of all those voting in the elections did not vote favorably on convention-calling.

In Pennsylvania only last year, a 15-member commission on constitutional revision recommended against a brand new constitution. It said the one of 1873 could be brought up to date via amendment.

The Pennsylvania Commission pointed out the state's electorate had voted five times against calling a constitutional convention, but had adopted 50 amendments, 28 in the last 30 years.

Bachelor Can Order Flowers

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I don't have a wife, live in a very small apartment and don't actually "keep house," and am not earning a whole of a salary. The combination does not make it easy to return the hospitality accorded me by married friends, particularly several couples who invite me frequently to family meals.

All I've done is to take a bottle of wine or whisky now and then, and then proceed to help drink it. I'd like to have your suggestions.

Answer: For occasional hospitality, a bachelor—especially one who is known to have limited means—is not expected to make any return. That he makes an effort to be agreeable to her guests is all a hostess generally asks of him.

For repeated hospitality, there does come a time when even a bachelor may be expected to make some effort to show a little tangible appreciation. So regardless of how your particular hostess feels about this, it would certainly please them to have you, let's say, send the wife a few flowers on an anniversary, or sometimes take her a box of candy; even a few toys for the children.

Or, as a special treat, if you can manage it once a year, invite the husband and wife out to dinner, or to the theater.

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband has just been made a partner in his firm. Would it be proper to send out announcements to this effect, and if so, how should they be worded?

Answer: It is the firm that sends out cards announcing that your husband has been made a partner. They also usually repeat the announcement as an advertisement in the business pages of the newspapers.

Dear Mrs. Post: When a group of women goes out to dinner together and the bill is always divided evenly, isn't it bad manners for one or two in the group to order the most expensive dishes on the menu? Shouldn't all try to order food within the same price range when the bill is split?

Answer: They must certainly should. To order expensive dishes to be paid for by the group is most unfair, or at the very least, thoughtless.

Peaceful Coexistence Best, Says Abby

Stay Out of Wife's Neighborhood Wars

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My wife often gets involved in neighborhood tiffs. It's usually over the children. None of these disagreements are very serious or lasting, but there is plenty of commotion at the time. Most of the time I think my wife is right, but then I hear only her side of it.

The trouble is she expects me to keep track of whom she is currently mad at and I am supposed to be mad at that woman and her whole family. My wife says a husband should be "loyal" to his wife and back her up.

I am by nature a friendly guy and I don't like being mad at people who haven't done me any harm. This is a sore point between us, Abby, and I'd like your opinion.

FRIENDLY

DEAR FRIENDLY: A man who "gets mad" at a whole family simply because of a quarrel between wives, shows his stupidity, not his loyalty. Let your wife fight her own battles and don't get involved in the neighborhood squabbles.

As in every crowd, there's always someone who wants to play "one more hand" to recoup his losses. As a result they play until dawn. I don't have to stay up to wait on them, but I can't sleep with those poker chips clinking all night.

Am I being unreasonable to ask them to have the game somewhere else once in a while?

MRS. CHIPS
DEAR MRS. CHIPS: If you want to keep the home fires burning, take the chip off your shoulder and throw it on the logs. Many "poker widows" would love to have your problem. At least you know where your husband is every Saturday night.

DEAR ABBY: Eleven years ago I married a man whose parents were European-born. His family thinks he has a halo over his head and I have horns growing out of mine. They all speak very good English, but when I'm around they start talking an old country language which they know I can't understand.

They claim they don't speak English because they don't want the children to understand what they are saying. Yet they use the most vulgar words in the English language when the children are present. I don't get it.

Don't tell me to complain to my husband. His parents can do no wrong. How does a good wife who loves her husband cope with a problem like this?

NEEDING ADVICE
DEAR NEEDING ADVICE: Ask your husband to teach you a few words of that foreign language. Then learn a few phrases. Next time his family congregates, toss out a phrase or two in their native tongue. Look wise and chime in occasionally. They'll assume you know more than you do, and soon they'll figure they might as well speak English, or learn another language.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BERGIE": True confession may be good for the soul—but it's usually bad for the heel. Don't nag him.

What's your problem? Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

This Exercise Will Help

Your Thighs Too Bulgy?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

You cannot mix skimpy skirts with bulging thighs, or knee-length skirts with pipestem legs and bony knees and expect the most attractive results.

Always wear your skirts a bit fuller if your thighs are too large and wear your skirts a little longer if you have skinny legs.

But to get to the source—reduce your thighs with special exercises. And if your legs are the pipestem variety, build up the muscles in the calves with exercise.

The calves can be especially troublesome—they may be either too large or too small. The first of the following two exercises will increase the measurement of the lower leg if you do it many times each day. The second exercise will reduce the calves.

1. Stand tall. Rise high on your toes, lifting the heels as far from the floor as possible. Hold for a few seconds and slowly lower heels to the floor. Do this 25 times each morning and each night. It will take a few months to see a difference since you actually are building muscle. Of course a gain in poundage also will help.

2. For reducing the calves lie on the floor on your back. Lift the left leg up as far as you can with a stiff knee. As you lift the leg upward turn the toe back toward your head. Lower leg to floor. Do the same thing with your right leg. Continue alternating left and right. Let me warn you not to execute this exercise suddenly. Feel your way along.

THIGH EXERCISE
Now, for those bulging thighs, try this exercise: Stand facing the wall or a chair or the end of the bed. Take hold of the chair or bed or place your hands against the wall to brace yourself. Bend the left knee up in front of you. Now kick with the left leg down toward the floor and a little toward the rear. Continue until you have kicked about 10 times with that leg at first—gradually working up to the point where you can kick 50 times with it.

Remember that there is always a middle road in fashion which is becoming to you and is still within the limits of current fashion. Remember, too, that there are corrective exercises for every figure fault.

If you would like to have my exercises for the legs send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 13 "Take Steps Toward Lovely Legs." Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Be Welcome Guest
of Married Children

By RUTH MILLETT

If you want to make sure that you are always welcome in the homes of your married children: Let them know when you arrive for a visit, exactly how long you intend to stay so they can make their plans accordingly. And make certain before you plan your visit that the time is convenient for them.

Learn to be a guest in your children's home. Be as considerate and thoughtful in every way as though you were a guest in a friend's home.

Don't offer advice or ask prying questions or in any other way treat your grown sons and daughters as if they were children. Don't interfere with the way your grandchildren are being reared. You had your chance with your own children. Now it is your children's turn to bring up their own children in the way the feel is best.

Don't criticize your children's friends. You may not like all of their friends but you don't have to say so.

Don't try to improve your daughter or your daughter-in-law's housekeeping. Either will resent it.

If your visit lasts more than a few days see that husband and wife get off by themselves now and then. Make some plans of your own or offer to stay with your grandchildren while their parents go out.

If there is any unpleasantness get out of the way. Go to your room to write letters—or do something—until the air is cleared.

Build husband and wife up to Station, New York 19, New York.

Area Man Bridegroom in Double-Ring Nuptials

East Bethel Lutheran Church of Detroit was the setting for the Saturday evening nuptials of Anita Lou Barass of Warren and Robert Eugene Hoisington. The Rev. Edmund Schildt officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony followed by Holy Communion.

MRS. R. E. HOISINGTON

The Eugene Hoisingtons of Giddings road, parents of the bridegroom, joined Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Alan Barass in the receiving line at their daughter's reception in the church social hall.

Classic simplicity distinguished the bridal gown of crystal white bouquet taffeta which extended into a court train.

A rose motif in Alençon lace re-embroidered with sequins and pearls, was applied along the portrait neckline of the pointed, beanie bodice and on the bouffant skirt, styled with butterfly bow.

Pleated taffeta and lace fashioned the princess cap which caught the tiered veil of silk illusion. An orchid centered the bridal cascade of Stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Joseph H. Riley of Reading, Pa., her sister's matron of honor, appeared in bouffant ballerina-length beige chiffon over taffeta with a blue bow accenting the bodice. A veiled beige caplet and short white gloves completed her ensemble.

Yellow streamers fell from her round bouquet of yellow carnations.

William Hoisington stood as best man for his brother. Seating guests were the bride's brother Bruce and Lawrence Conley.

Shoulder corsages of orchids accented Mrs. Barass' beige silk watercolor print sheath and the blue-grey sheath with lace bodice selected by Mrs. Hoisington for her son's wedding.

The newlyweds are spending two weeks at Niagara Falls.

Weary? Stretch

(NEA) — When we are fatigued we feel a natural tendency to slump. Try to stretch instead. Stretching is an excellent way to ease strain from weariness. Slumping, on the other hand, cramps the muscles and will add to that tired feeling.

Bigler-Kelley Vows Told Angelus Garden Unit in Election

For her marriage to Joseph Charles Bigler of Clarkson Saturday morning in St. Benedict Church, Mrs. Patricia Marlene Rohrer Kelley chose walk-length white silk organza over ice-blue tulle.

A hand-cascade of white orchids and blue-tipped carnations complemented her shoulder "choot" veil of ice-blue silk illusion.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Rohrer of Pingree avenue and the late Mr. Rohrer, was given in marriage by her uncle, Richard Rohrer. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jordan of Mount Morris are parents of the bridegroom.

Attendants included maid of honor Patricia Meschery; the bride's sister Mrs. Michael Polek; the bridegroom's sister Mrs. William Craibough of Mount Morris; and Mrs. Arthur Wygowski. She is the cousin of the Rev. Robert Wygowski who solemnized the nuptials.

White horsehair picture hats and short white gloves complemented the attendants' walk-length dresses of blue nylon over tulle. Flowers for the honor maid were blue daisies, and for the others blue roses.

The bridegroom's sister Mary Jordan of Mount Morris was flower girl and Timothy Kelley carried the rings.

Arthur Wygowski stood as best man. Garry Crane seated guests at his cousin's wedding, with Donald Cullen and Kenneth Abernathy of Arlington, Va.

After a honeymoon at Au Gres, the newlyweds are at home on Rio View road, Clarkson.

MRS. JOSEPH C. BIGLER

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel LaForge of Walsingham Center, Ont., attended their granddaughter's wedding. Mrs. Peter Proulx, the bridegroom's grandmother, came from Au Gres.

SHE MADE IT — Bedridden from injuries received in an auto accident six weeks ago, Mrs. William Goodwin of Milford nevertheless was able to see her only son graduate from high school last night. Hundreds of her friends and neighbors arranged to have her taken to Milford High School on a stretcher. Her son, Keith, hands her his diploma while her husband looks on.

On Stretcher, She Sees Son Graduate

Mom's Dream Is Realized

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Thanks to the efforts of hundreds of friends and coworkers, a bedridden Milford mother was able to watch her son graduate from high school last night. As misty-eyed Mrs. William Goodwin watched from a stretcher in the crowded Milford High School Auditorium, the pain of a recent accident injury was momentarily forgotten.

Her son Keith was among 143 Milford graduates who received their diplomas in the presence of more than 2,000 spectators. When the boy was handed the document, there was a loud round of applause from the entire assembly.

Mrs. Goodwin, or Rita as everyone knows her, still maintains she is the luckiest person in the world, despite her unfortunate accident six weeks ago. She drives school bus No. 13 for the Huron Valley School System.

On her way to work May 2, a blinding early morning sun blocked her vision as she attempted a left turn from M30 to the school grounds. A north-bound station wagon crashed into her car. She was taken to Pontiac General Hospital with a chipped hip bone, chest injuries and torn shoulder ligaments.

For 31 days she lay in her hospital bed fearing she would be unable to see her son graduate or hold open house after commencement as she had planned. However, 30 bus-driving friends, their husbands, wives and neighbors decided to do something about getting Mrs. Goodwin to the school for the graduation exercises, and they planned one of the biggest and best open house parties in the area.

All this was done without the knowledge of the mother, who had just come home from the hospital.

One hour before the ceremonies were to begin, her husband broke the news that a station wagon would arrive to take with a stretch-on-wheels to take Mrs. Goodwin to the school.

Later she said, "I had given up all hopes of ever seeing my only son graduate from high school, and I will never forget the wonderful thoughtfulness of all those who made it possible."

Recommendation for the scholarship came from Mrs. Lou Davis, teacher-counselor for the physically handicapped in the Pontiac schools.

It is obvious, says Mrs. Davis, that handicapped students have physical obstacles to overcome in the course of everyday school attendance.

HELPED BY FRIENDS
From the first grade on, Elaine has had to have students help her by carrying her books, running errands and performing other small tasks she could not do without assistance. Her junior high school classmates carried her to and from first and second floor classes for two years.

However, the most serious obstacle, says Mrs. Davis, is the student, himself.

A disability, of course, affects the attitude and performance of the afflicted. Some may compensate by unaccepted aggressive behavior. Others may allow themselves to become too dependent and lethargic.

Elaine, who will receive her high school diploma next week, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Sunny 76 Tomorrow to Follow Cool Night

Sunshine and a high temperature of 76 is the prediction for the Pontiac area Friday. Tonight will be clear and cool with a low of 53.

According to the weatherman, skies will be sunny Saturday with temperatures continuing warm. "Southeasterly winds this morning will become northeasterly at 9-15 m.p.h."

From a low of 48 degrees at 5 a.m. today, the mercury had climbed to 74 by 1 p.m. in downtown Pontiac.

6-Month Drought Ends

Buses Roll in Pontiac

RUNNING AGAIN — For the first time since Dec. 5, Pontiac buses are rolling the streets again. First-day riders boarding a coach in the downtown area are Irene Fisher (left), 87 Waterbury St., and Rae Gibbons, 2363 Woodbine Dr., Waterford Township.

Eleven Coaches Service Four Familiar Routes

Passenger Load 'Light' but New Firm's Proxy Is Optimistic
Buses in Pontiac are running again.

The city's new bus firm began operations at 5 a.m. today, ending the city's six-month transportation drought.

Eleven buses were operating this morning on four established routes.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley came under fire from John W. Hirlinger, manager of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, for refusing to allow the firm to station three buses downtown yesterday for advertising purposes.

Straley contended that the buses had not been licensed, according to Hirlinger. (Licenses were obtained in Lansing yesterday afternoon.)

"I can't figure it out," Hirlinger said. "New cars are allowed in parades without licenses—and these buses technically are the city's."

The company finally obtained one licensed bus from another subsidiary firm which was stationed downtown in the afternoon.

P. J. Giacomini, company vice president, said drivers reported passenger traffic "light" this morning.

"Prospects are very encouraging, however," he added.

"You have to think of the number of people who took a chance on catching the bus on the first day."

"We're optimistic and keeping our fingers crossed," he said. "The number of bus riders won't be known until morning shift workers turn in their collections later in the day."

GOP Rallying for Nixon After Rocky's Blast

Vice President Keeps Quiet About Challenge to Clarify Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans in Congress generally have rallied behind Vice President Richard M. Nixon in response to the challenge flung at him by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Several, however, agreed with Rockefeller that Nixon should take a clear stand on the issues faced by the nation. A number withheld comment, as did the vice president himself.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) said Wednesday, "If he feels this way about it, he ought to become an active candidate. Let Rockefeller and Nixon debate the issues before the convention and if Nixon is nominated, as I believe he will be, Rockefeller should openly and vigorously support him."

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) said he has urged Nixon in the past to speak out on issues, but added, "The vice president is a member of the administration and, in the main, the President's record will be the basis for this year's presidential campaign."

Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) said, "Mr. Nixon ought to speak out before the convention on both national and international issues." Aiken also said he did not approve of Rockefeller's criticism and saw no possibility that Rockefeller could win the GOP presidential nomination.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.), a strong Nixon supporter, said Nixon has presented his views on various issues over the years. Mundt said, "He has pointed out that until he has a status of his own he feels he is part of the (Eisenhower) team. I think his position is entirely appropriate."

Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.) commented, "That puts a little spice (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

Symington Cheered by AFL-CIO

12 State Delegates for St

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington, encouraged by a warm reception at the state AFL-CIO convention here, has been told he will get some Michigan votes for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Three of the state's 102 Democratic delegates met with the Missouri senator yesterday and told him he currently can count on support from at least 12 Michigan delegates to the party's national convention next month.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams and other state Democratic leaders have endorsed Sen. John F. Kennedy for the nomination and hope to win all the 51-vote delegation to his cause.

"It is very presumptuous to say that Kennedy has sewed up all 51 votes just because the governor has endorsed him," said Dr. Fred Matthews of Dowagiac, a delegate, after meeting with Symington.

Symington's strength in Michigan likely will become apparent, Matthews said, when delegates assemble at East Lansing June 15 at a pre-convention meeting called by the governor as delegation chairman.

The 1,200 delegates to the union convention, representing some 28,000 AFL-CIO members, gave Symington a rousing welcome and he responded with a sharp attack on the Eisenhower administration.

Reds Quickly Release Lost U.S. Glider Pilot

LUEBECK, Germany (AP)—American glider pilot Richard E. Schroeder, who got lost on a championship flight yesterday and landed in East Germany, was allowed to leave Communist territory with his glider today.

The 44-year-old flier, from Toledo, Ohio, was met here at the border crossing into West Germany by his wife Angie.

She had not been allowed by Communist authorities to accompany his trailer truck which had driven across the Iron Curtain border a few hours before to retrieve the sailplane and its pilot.

Schroeder's return to West Germany took less than 24 hours, one of the fastest such exchanges on record. Usually it takes several days for sport and glider pilots to arrange their exit when they accidentally cross into East Germany.

The all-metal glider landed Schroeder 30 miles inside the East German border near Kladitz, not far from where an Air Force plane carrying nine persons was forced down by Soviet fighters last week ago.

That group had also been released, together with their plane, with unusual ease and speed. They were held only four days compared to similar groups being detained in recent years as long as seven weeks.

The East German Communists said that Schroeder's "allegations" were checked before he was released.

This was not immediately explained. Presumably the Communists simply meant they checked out the glider pilot's story of getting lost and landing by mistake.

The East German border police had allowed the three glider crewmen to drive into East Germany and pick up Schroeder and his plane.

AFL-CIO Seat Goes to Beach

Unofficial Word Says State Executive Board Post Is a Certainty

Beach, president of UAW Local 653 (Pontiac Motor), will be the first local unionist to represent Pontiac on the Michigan AFL-CIO executive board in more than five years.

Another area labor chief, Fred V. Haggard, president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council, receives a board seat automatically by virtue of his position as a county council president.

There were a total of 40 seats to be filled. A slate of 40 candidates, including Beach, was endorsed by the delegates at large prior to yesterday's election. There were only "a few mavericks."

Although tabulations of the ballots have not been completed, Beach was reported to have a sufficient number of votes to carry him to a board position.

How to master 30 of the most crucial situations of modern traffic

By MAXWELL N. HALSEY

WHAT ARE THE ODDS?

Choosing the best of two or three lanes entering an intersection can be an interesting game. Practice makes perfect. Don't pick a left lane where the first car gives clues that it may try to turn left and be held up by oncoming traffic. Another poor bet is a right lane where the first car suggests it may try to turn right and be delayed by a steady stream of pedestrians. Any lane with a cumbersome truck is not a smart choice. The lane with the most cars could be your best bet.

That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride paving every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jelling on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sideways on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

TO BE DEDICATED — The 11-million-dollar Portage Lake lift bridge between Houghton and Hancock in the Upper Peninsula will be dedicated June 25. It has the world's largest lift span, which weighs 2,230 tons. On its lower level the span carries trains, and on its upper level, motor traffic and pedestrians. Secretary of the Army Wilbur Brucker and State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie will speak at the ceremony.

But No Land For 14

Has 21 Legal Wives

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia for the government by having them put their fingerprints on a long piece of paper.

Officials said they were considering amending the law to provide Baluwa Ben's extra 14 wives.

"The government man, he said I am the most successful polygamist in Southern Rhodesia," Baluwa Ben said.

The government man came to Baluwa Ben's village 85 miles from here—the entire population is his family—to take a wife count.

Polygamy, far from being illegal, is subsidized. A new law provides extra land for extra wives—but only up to seven wives.

"I was happily married to my 21 wives and then along came the government," Baluwa Ben said.

"It just be all or nothing. How can I give seven wives land and not give land to the other 14? Everything used to be peaceful."

Baluwa Ben listed his 21 wives

Poor Ol' Ivan - He's Got a Pain in His Pocketbook

NEW YORK (UPI) — If a Moscow worker should lose his shirt, he'd have to work 15 hours to make enough money to buy a new one. That's 1,500 per cent more than the 56 minutes a New York City worker would need to purchase the same kind of cotton shirt.

An American works three minutes to make money to buy one pound of sugar. It takes Ivan one hour and four minutes to buy his pound.

These are part of many consumer items listed by the National Industrial Conference Board in its latest map of industry.

Wall Street, scanning the list, concluded that here is a major reason Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev scuttled the summit conference.

The market men say Khrushchev's action in Paris and his recent bellying are a big noise to take the minds of his peasants off the things U. S. workers take for granted.

The conference board used as a base for New York pay $2.17 an hour. For the Russians it used four rubles an hour. Moscow prices were based on information in the Soviet press.

The list doesn't even mention the electrical appliances, the automobiles, motor boats, homes with flower gardens, and myriad other luxuries the Russians can't get at all.

If Ivan wants to buy his wife a rayon dress, he has to work 73 hours and 30 minutes. The New Yorker works four hours for the same dress.

The conference board makes no comment on the prices. But even with the high cost of U. S. living, we have it better than Ivan.

U.S., Red China Envoys Hold Two-Hour Meeting

WARSAW, Poland (U) — U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Red China's Ambassador Wang Pingnan, who have served off and on for contacts between Peking and Washington for 21 months, had a two-hour meeting Tuesday. No details were announced.

Beam was scheduled to bring up the question of admission of American newsmen to Red China at a meeting last month which was postponed at Wang's request. Their next session is set for July 15.

Slate Hearing on Home Bias

Will Look at Proposed Bar to Discrimination by Real Estate Men

LANSING (AP)—A public hearing will be held June 21 in Detroit on a proposed state rule to bar discrimination by licensed real estate men in selling or renting homes.

Lawrence Gubow, state corporations and securities commission, said the hearing for the regulation he drew up in the wake of a state probe of the so-called pattern of discrimination in home sales.

The system was designed to screen and downgrade prospective home buyers and renters possessing characteristics and mannerisms deemed undesirable.

Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams has ordered an end to the system which he said violates state law.

FACES REVIEW—A legislative committee ultimately must review the proposed rule which is expected to arouse bitter debate in the light of constant refusal of lawmakers to approve civil rights measures with similar content.

Under the rule, real estate men would be forbidden to refuse service to any person because of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry.
