Sen. Higgins Makes Bid for Governorship

County Resident Decides to Seek GOP Nomination

Candidate Assails Lack of Efficiency in Present State Government

Senator George N. Higgins of Oakland County is a candidate for governor.

The well known Oakland County man announced today that he will seek the Republican nomination in the primary. Sen. Higgins is probably the most formidable figure in the race and the primary promises to be a spirited contest.

Sen. Higgins' statement follows:

"I have decided to enter the Republican primary as a candidate for governor.

"For many months, friends throughout the state, as well as hundreds of voters unknown to me personally, have been paying me a high compliment by asking me to make this decision. The decision has not been an easy one for me to make.

"During eight years in the Senate, preceded by six years in the House of Representatives, I have been as close as anyone to the many problems of our state government. I know where the governmental machine squeaks, and where it is wasting power.

"As a business man, I have concluded that the basic fault is an astonishing lack of business principles and practices. We run our state government with less efficiency than we would operate a peanut stand.

"I do not mean to imply that government is strictly a business enterprise. Controlling, as it does, the health and happiness and prosperity of millions, it must have the warm heart and the guiding hand of an understanding leader.

"Yet a foundation of better management in a business sense can produce better government from the top levels down. That

Van Wagoner Quits Bridge Job

Would Forestall Critics of His Lobby Work for Bonding Company

Former Democratic Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner resigned last night as a member of the Mackinac Bridge Authority after registering as a lobbyist for a bonding house interested in the multi-million dollar bridge bond issue.

Governor Williams promptly accepted the resignation "with a heavy heart."

"I haven't done anything wrong, illegal or improper," Van Wagoner said in announcing his resignation from his Birmingham home.

"However, I am not going to let any action of mine adversely influence the Mackinac Bridge or embarrass the Authority."

The announcement of the former bonding house prompted Prentiss Brown, Authority chairman, to say:

"I think it is unfortunate he became involved in such a deal."

Van Wagoner tendered his resignation only a few hours after he became Michigan's first ex-governor to register as a lobbyist.

Yesterday morning Van Wagoner and a business associate, Charles S. Porritt, former state Democratic chairman, registered in the secretary of state's office as lobbyists for Stifel-Nicolaus & Co. of Chicago.

The Chicago firm belongs to a syndicate which won a bid to handle the $90,400,000 in bonds to finance construction of the bridge which will span the four-mile straits.

Van Wagoner included a formal statement with the resignation.

A few days ago, he said, he was informed that a bill had been introduced in the Legislature to permit the Port of Detroit Authority to buy the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

He said he was asked by the Chicago firm to see what he could

Soviet Minister Demands Big 4 Talk On Trieste

Molotov Makes New Attempt to Link Issue With Austrian Treaty

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov demanded again today that the explosive issue of Trieste be included in consideration of the Austrian independence treaty.

Specifically, he said the Big Four should spell out a clause that the disputed territory at the head of the Adriatic be demilitarized. It is now occupied by British, American and Yugoslav troops but the Western Powers said last October they were ready to pull out and turn over administration of their zone to Italy. Yugoslavia reacted bitterly.

The Russians tried once before to link Trieste with the Austrian question. The West rejected the idea then.

Then Molotov made what his top aides had described beforehand as a "new proposal" on Austria soon after tooday's Big Four session got to this last point on their agenda.

Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl appealed to the four powers to restore Austria's independence without delay. In the years since drafting of an independence treaty began in 1946 the points of difference have been narrowed to five. Molotov's proposal seems certain to cause further delay.

Russia's linking of the Adriatic port with the Austrian problem has been described before by Western diplomats as a deliberate attempt to block agreement. Today's proposal was regarded in most quarters as no exception to this reasoning.

Among other "certain additions" that Molotov proposed today were:

1. Insistence that economic payments to Russia as defined in previous treaty negotiations remain unchanged. Figl had appealed for an easing of this "harsh and inequitable" burden.

2. A new definition of troop withdrawal, so worded that the Russians could remain indefinitely in Austria, even after Austria has its sovereignty.

Name VanDusen to House Seat

Birmingham Man Wins Special Election in 3rd County District

By more than a two-to-one vote, Richard C. VanDusen won a seat in the Michigan House of Representatives yesterday in a Third District special election.

Unofficial tallies of the district's 37 precincts gave VanDusen, 28, Birmingham Republican, 1,782 votes.

His opponent, John C. Westerdale, 40, Commerce Township Democrat, tallied 838 ballots.

A practicing attorney with a Detroit firm VanDusen will take over Howard R. Estes' vacant seat in the House until Dec. 31. Estes resigned last November to become manager of the Oakland County Infirmary.

In Birmingham, VanDusen received 907 votes to 128 for Westerdale. Commerce Westerdale's home township, gave him 191 votes to VanDusen's 71.

The unofficial vote in other townships of the district was:

Bloomfield, VanDusen, 137, Westerdale 14; West Bloomfield, Westerdale 206, VanDusen 128; Milford, VanDusen 40, Westerdale 38; Troy, VanDusen 119, Westerdale 80; Lyon, VanDusen 65, Westerdale 56; Novi, VanDusen 32, Westerdale 5; Farmington, 208, Westerdale 117.

VanDusen will take his seat in the House as soon as the vote is certified.

Year's Coldest Recorded Here

Hospital Lists Zero; Tomorrow's Forecast Slightly Warmer

Pontiac area residents shivered in the winter's coldest weather this morning when the U. S. Weather Observation Station at Pontiac State Hospital reported the mercury at zero, at 8 a. m.

Downtown temperatures were only slightly warmer, with 3 above recorded at 8 o'clock.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reports that increasing cloudiness will bring slightly warm temperatures to the area tonight and tomorrow.

A low of 12 to 15 degrees tonight is expected to rise to a high of from 28 to 32 Saturday.

Thursday, the mercury climbed from a low of 11 to reach a high of 30 degrees in the city.

Temperatures began to drop gradually last night after 8 p.m. and continued to fall during the night.

The previous low here was recorded at 4 above zero, on Jan. 17.

Other parts of the state also had winter weather as sharp northwesterly winds blew a cold wave across most of Michigan Thursday night sending thermometers plunging below zero in the northern part of the state.

Sault Ste. Marie thermometers dropped to 11 below zero; Pellston recorded 6 below; Cadillac, -15; Alpena, -3; and Gladwin, Lansing and Marquette, zero.

Detroit experienced a low of 6 above early today.

Bills Introduced to Lower FHA Down Payments

Measures Also Would Stretch Out Repayment Period on Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation was drawn today to reduce the down payments and stretch out the repayment periods of Federal Housing Administration (FHA) home loans.

Identical bills by Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) and Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich), chairmen of the Senate and House banking committees, were described by the authors as the administration measures designed to carry out President Eisenhower's housing recommendations of Jan. 25.

They would cut down payments by varying amounts—for example, by $350 on a $10,000 house—and would reduce monthly payments by extending to 30 years, instead of the present 20 or 25, the time in which a loan must be paid off. Also, down payments as low on used houses as on new ones would be authorized. There is now a differential.

The proposed legislation, slated for full committee study, avoids any direct mention of Eisenhower's request for a four-year public housing program designed to start 35,000 units annually. Wolcott said Congress in 1949 authorized a 135,000-unit annual program which is still on the books.

Noting that the House Appropriations Committee refused to provide more than 20,000 units for the current fiscal year, ending June 30, he told newsmen a "simple amendment" wiping out this restriction would fall within the jurisdiction of that committee. An avowed foe of past public housing programs, he said he saw no reason to authorize in specific terms the President's request when an even larger authorization is already on the statute books.

The President would be given considerable leeway by the proposed legislation to change down payments, repayment periods and interest rates within a sharply defined range.

For example, the President would be empowered to set interest rates on a fluctuating scale depending on the average yield of long-term government bonds. Both FHA loans and those insured by the Veterans Administration could be set up to a maximum of 2½ per cent above the average market yield of these securities.

A new program providing 100 per cent government insurance for low-cost housing—up to a maximum $7,000—would be provided for families displaced by slum clearance or by any other "government action."

President to Hunt at Humphrey Farm

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flies to southern Georgia today to try his luck at quail shooting at the vacation estate of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

The President's private plane, the Columbine, is scheduled to take off from National Airport on the weekend trip shortly after Eisenhower takes part in Abraham Lincoln birthday anniversary ceremonies at the Lincoln Memorial.

Humphrey's pine farm, known as Milestone, is located near Thomasville, Ga., which in turn is about 20 miles from Tallahassee, Fla.

It is about a three-hour flight from Washington to the Thomasville area. Eisenhower plans to fly back to Washington Sunday afternoon.

Marquette Miss, 16, Wins State Cherry Pie Contest

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Pretty 16-year-old Miss Evadela Schaefer of Marquette today was crowned the state's cherry pie champion at the annual Michigan cherry pie baking contest.

The brown-eyed high school sophomore won the honors in a field of 60 contestants, each representing a Michigan county, at the 22nd annual contest.

The girls baked before a public audience in the civic auditorium.

The announcement of the winner was made at a luncheon. The girls were judged on the basis of method of preparation, quality of pie and personal qualifications.

Evadela is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Schaefer. As the champion she won her choice of a $175 college scholarship or a $50 cash award and will represent Michigan in the national cherry pie baking contest in Chicago Feb. 19.

Marie Leckrone, 16, of Copemish, and Judy Rose, 17, of Moorepark tied for second place. Each won $50 awards, half of the combined second and third prizes.

Another tie developed for third between Sandra Larson, 16, of Pullman, and Arlene Vinton, 17, of Sheperd. Each won $20.

Fourth place winner was Marilyn Mason, 18, of Gobles; fifth place, Joyce Ann Cox, 16, of Rodney, Mecosta County.

Joyce Myers, 17, of Hastings was in sixth place and Joann Roberts, 19, Cedar Springs, seventh.

Appraisers Give Land Estimates

Say $37,230 to $40,000 Maximum Value of Parking Lot Site

Three appraisers testifying for the city in a condemnation suit over land for a public parking site at 11-49 Parke St. yesterday estimated value of the land at from $37,230 to $40,000.

A jury will pass on the city's need for the land and determine the price the city must pay. The property is now owned by the Jack Habel Chevrolet Co.

The three realtors who appraised the area for the city and values they set are John K. Irwin, $37,230, Vernon K. Archer, $37,822, and George L. Scales, $40,000.

A compromise proposal offered by Habel was rejected Feb. 1 by Pontiac City Commission.

At that time Habel offered to sell the land to Pontiac for $30,000 on condition the city would deed him a portion of the former County-City Market adjacent to Habel's building at 34 Mill St.

Habel paid about $60,000 for the land under condemnation, bounded on east by Parke street, west by Clinton River, north by Slater apartments and city-owned property to the south. The city was negotiating at the time to pay $50,000 for the site.

The three appraisers said they thought the land in question was best suited for parking or storage of cars.

Parke street is a deadend street and not a main traffic artery, they explained, and therefore the land

Pontiff Continuing to Regain Strength

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius, apparently definitely recovering from three weeks of dangerous illness that gravely weakened him, today continued his improvement of the past several days.

Charge Man With Dealing in Baby Black Market

MONTREAL (UP) — Police today arrested a Montreal attorney, Herman Buller, charged with masterminding a multi-million dollar international black market in babies.

The arrest climaxed more than a year of investigation by New York and Canadian authorities into a ring which allegedly had smuggled more than 1,000 Canadian babies across the border to American couples for adoption.

$5-Million Plan Would Not Hike Current Taxes

Asks Voters to OK City Amendment to Provide Needed Improvements

A $5 million civic project which would take Pontiac about 10 years to complete was announced yesterday by City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Outlining the major program in a speech at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Pontiac Rotary Club, Willman said the project "would not effect an increase in the city's tax rate."

The average home owner would save only $5.40 each year if the charter amendment on the tax limit is not approved in the April election.

Willman said the tax rate was trimmed from $13.98 per $1,000 to $13.80 two years ago.

The proposed projects to be undertaken by the city if the amendment is approved would include the new public safety building, main library, garage and maintenance building, civic auditorium and three fire stations.

The public safety building would house the municipal court, police and fire personnel.

Three grade separations are also planned, of which a major part would be financed by state authorities.

Improvements are also seen in the city's sanitary storm sewer system. Municipal parking lots, expanding airport facilities and widening of main streets would also be in the plan.

The new city hall, nearly half finished, will be completely paid for when finished in the spring of 1955, the same time the city's debt will be retired.

Willman said the city has been able to take out of the 10 mill levy enough to pay for the new $1 million structure.

Citing a need for a traffic engineer in Pontiac, Willman warned that some of the city's streets are becoming obsolete with the increasing volume of traffic.

"The problem, in this industrial center, is not only in parking," he said, "it is also important to relieve some or our narrow streets now congested with the overflow of traffic."

Willman, who has been a city manager for 30 years, said the trend throughout the United States is for cities to regulate parking by eliminating parking on main trunk lines.

But the success of the project will depend on whether voters will continue the present tax rate of $13.80 per $1,000 of assessed valuation in the next general election, he said.

Also making the project possible will be the forthcoming retirement of the city's general obligation bonds in 1955, for which $350,000 in taxes has been collected annually.

Pontiac has been setting aside, Willman explained, $2 of the $13.80 levy to liquidate the city's debt next year.

After 1954, the city will not need the approximately $2 per $1,000 now taxed for debt retirement.

Last payment on the $1,501,000 gross debt remaining cannot be

Injunction Halts Teamsters' Plan

Hoffa Stops Meeting in Name of Union to Talk End of Trusteeship

An injunction restraining members of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614 (AFL) from meeting under the name of the union or its officials was issued late yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

James R. Hoffa, International Teamsters vice president, is said to have obtained the order on information that union members planned a Sunday meeting to map strategy for ending Hoffa's trusteeship over the union.

Hoffa, International Teamsters President Dave Beck and Pontiac union officials were named as defendants last Saturday in a bill of complaint and injunction in Oakland County Circuit Court by a group representing union members.

The group asks accounting of union funds, and discharge of present officers and the trusteeship under which the local is operating.

Yesterday's counter injunction, secured by Hoffa, restrains the anti-administration group from "calling any meeting in the name of local number 614. . . or under the guise or the authority of the trustee or trusteeship and interfering in any manner with the administration of the union affairs. . ."

March 9 is the date for show cause hearings on both injunctions.

House Gets Plan to Extend Official Terms to 4 Years

LANSING (AP) — A proposed Constitutional amendment providing four-year terms for state and county officials and legislators was half way through the Michigan Legislature today.

The Senate approved the measure with only two negative votes and sent it to the House. Such a proposal does not need the Governor's approval.

With one exception, the State Highway Commissioner, all state and county officers and legislators now serve two year terms.

If the House approves the proposal it will automatically be placed on the November general election ballot.

An attempt to eliminate legislators from the bill was lost by Sen. Donald W. Gilbert (R-Saginaw).

Gilbert argued that legislators must remain close to the people and subject to their wishes. He said four-year terms would destroy that principle.

Sen. Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) retored that "I feel very close to my people and I'm in my sixth year here. I don't think it would have made any difference if we'd had two-year or four-year terms."

Gilbert said that, as an example, the Legislature was afraid to vote itself a pay raise in an election year, but that if it had four-year terms it would operate on the theory the people would forget.

Coleman replied that, since the Legislature cannot vote itself an

Fourth Judge for County Wins Additional Support

Creation of a fourth circuit court judge for Oakland County won additional support Thursday with endorsement by two supervisors' committees of a bill now pending in the Legislature.

Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal) who introduced the bill, was "very optimistic" today about its chances in the Legislature, in view of the county's backing.

The bill authorizing the extra judge has been pending in the Legislature for some time, awaiting action by county officials.

"It's in the house judiciary committee now," he said, "and Rep. Howard Carroll (R-Mt. Clemens), the chairman, told me yesterday that they'd report it out immediately, if the county decided to endorse it."

Bloomfield said if the Legislature passes his bill, the new judge will be named by the voters at the coming November election.

The judge's term would start Jan. 1, 1955.

Committees endorsing the bill were the supervisors' ways and means and legislative units, headed by Fred W. Smith and William F. Nern, respectively.

Board of Education's Suit for Condemnation of Land Awaits Resolution's OK

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — The final step in starting condemnation proceedings of 22 acres for an elementary school and a playground for an existing school is expected to be taken Tuesday.

Supt. of Schools Dr. Dwight B. Ireland said today that passage of a final resolution authorizing the suit for land bounded by Adams road, Buckingham road, Derby road, and the Grand Trunk Railroad is likely.

The board of education's first action in seeking the land was a $1,250 per acre offer to the owners, the Birmingham Development Co. This brought a counter proposal for $4,751 per acre.

A playground for nearby Adams school and a new elementary school is planned if the land is acquired.

Ireland added that the board has discussed purchasing a portion of the so-called Porritt property, a 45-acre Troy Township parcel within the city limits, owned by the W. E. Reid Development Co.

Man Thought Dead Fights His Rescuers

LANSING (AP) — A Lansing Township man, who first was presumed to be dead, revived last night and wound up in the county jail instead of on a funeral parlor slab.

Township firemen were called to the Charles Dutton home where, they reported, they found Dutton apparently without a pulse and not breathing.

An ambulance was called and firemen started to work over Dutton with an inhalator.

Firemen said Dutton suddenly revived and started fighting his rescuers. One of the first aid men, who was writing out a report, hit Dutton over the head with a clip board but he continued battling.

Two sheriff's deputies joined in the scuffle and it finally took four men to pin Dutton to the floor.

Dutton was handcuffed and was taken to the county jail where he was booked on charges of being drunk and disorderly, assault and battery and resisting arrest.

Willman Outlines Huge City Project

made until 1963, but under present plans only $60,000 will remain to be added after 1954 and Pontiac will have the $1,501,000 in reserve to make payments as they come due.

The $2 assessment automaically would cease upon the debt's retirement.

In the April election voters will be asked to approve a charter amendment which proposes the $2, now going for debt retirement, to be continued and earmarked for public improvements, according to Willman.

If not approved, the tax rate would drop to $11.80 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, he said.

The amendment will ask for the right to raise the levy $2.50 per $1,000, but Willman stated: "The tax rate will remain at $13.80." If approved the amendment would take effect Jan. 1, 1955.

"The amendment provides that $1 per $1,000 may be levied in excess of the usual $10 for the purpose of expanding General Hospital," he explained.

"This expansion contemplates an addition of more than 200 rooms and is expected to cost $3,500,000. In order to cover properly the bond issue in that amount, it is necessary to vote for the $1 per $1,000 to insure the sale of the bonds, backed by the faith and credit of the city of Pontiac," he continued.

"But it is only planned," he said, to raise 50 cents per $1,000 by taxes and the remainder of the cost is to come out of hospital operating income."

This means that while a vote is needed for the $1 increase, it is only planned to levy 50 cents per $1,000 for hospital purposes, thus retaining the $13.80 levy, according to the manager.

As the registered voters are asked to approve this millage for hospital expansion, property-owner voters will be asked to vote authorization on the issuance of the necessary bonds.

The other phase of the two-fold charter amendment provides for "an increase of $1.50 per $1,000 to be allocated to an expanded public works program and a long list of worthy projects under study by the City Commission for a long time," Willman added.

"This increase to be levied will be requested on the commitment of the City Commission that the tax rate will remain at the usual $13.80 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

"It should be definitely understood that no increase in the tax rate for municipal purposes is contemplated in connection with this charter amendment," he further explained.

Willman also is the vice president of the International City Managers Assn., representing the midwestern states.

House Bill Extends Terms to Four Years increase in pay during its term in office, four-year terms might prove "an economy measure."

Sen. Cora M. Brown (D-Detroit) argued that new legislators have just begun to learn legislative process in two years and that much "training" is lost by two-year terms.

Under the proposal a Governor could serve only two terms, or eight years.

Negative votes were cast by Sen Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) and Harold M. Ryan (D-Detroit).

A consolidation of existing election laws was passed by the Senate and sent to the House. It includes an amendment reuniting the state and presidential ballots after a 10-year separation. Democrats opposed the bill.

A House committee killed the Cooper Bill to require the state Police to hire women for inside desk jobs.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said the bill would not save any money because he would have to hire 25 per cent more women to fill the jobs now held by troopers.

By FRANK PHILLIPS

Members of the Birmingham High School band received 11 out of 12 first place ratings Saturday in the Solo and Ensemble Festival at Ypsilanti.

PHILLIPS

Soloists receiving top honors were Dick Hubbard, Joan Gassaway, John Boulton and Tom Masters.

A brass sextet consisting of Ed Nordstrom, Jerry Mills, John Perkins, Tom Masters, Bob Mange and Bob Owen took top rankings in their division.

Also winning a first place was a mixed quartet of woodwinds, composed of Joan Gassaway, John Boulton, Ann Parnie and Dorothy Schurminer, and a woodwind trio of Joan Gassaway, John Boulton and Ann Parnie.

The cornet trio with Ed Nordstrom, Jerry Mills and John Schaffer was another winner as was a trombone quartet with Don Masters, Fred Barber, Jerry Beers and Bob Owen.

Other first place winners were a flute trio of Leila Barber, Jeanette Mange and Mary Jo Seegire and a clarinet quartet of Pat Booze, John Kraft, Bill Martin and Ann Parnie.

The Highlander will host the Eastern Michigan League Press Conference March 14 with delegates from East Detroit, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Mt. Clemens, Port Huron, Berkley, Kingswood, Royal Oak, Pontiac, Cranbrook, Troy and Bloomfield Hills.

Contests are being planned in newswriting, interviews, editorials, feature and sports writing with judges from big professional papers.

After the installation of new Student Congress officers last week the house of representatives voted on 20 applications for five honorary memberships to the house.

Chosen were Jerry Kraus, Douglas Green, Cherry Harris, Alan Brown and Sarah Colwell. Other memberships went to Burt Hutchings, Joan Gassaway, Thor Halvorson, Bob Allen and John Howard who were losing candidates for Congress offices.

Pictures of all freshmen, sophomores and juniors for use in the Piper, school yearbook, were taken last week by homerooms. The senior homerooms were not taken because each senior will have his individual picture in the book.

Th pictures were taken under the supervision of the editor-in-chief, Alice Basford. Assisting her were Jan McColl, Jane Racine and Frank Phillips. The yearbook goes to press April 1.

With one representative elected from each homeroom the Piper sales staff was formed and held its first meeting Tuesday. Dick Thalacker, sales manager, instructed representatives on sales procedure.

The sales campaign will begin Wednesday and run to Feb. 26. The price of the yearbook will be $2.50. The Piper will be delivered to students the last week in May.

The junior class is planning a talent show to be presented Feb. 26 at an all-school assembly. Tryouts for the show will be next Wednesday in the Maple room of the high school.

Student chairman is Helen Black. Her assistants are Jeanne Pedder, scenery; Fred Shinnick, sound; and Hester Lewis, makeup.

Zoning Request Dropped at Wednesday Meeting

BIRMINGHAM—Clyde H. Collins withdrew his request at a Zone Board of Appeals Wednesday night, asking permission to use an addition to his house at 191 W. Frank as an office for physical therapy treatments. Complaints had been made by neighboring residents.

Collins was given 30 days to dispose of the business.

do about getting the bill passed. The company is handling the sale.

Van Wagoner said that he "received no money or fee of any kind" from Stifel-Nicolaus.

"Yesterday (Wednesday), while I was in Lansing, I met a couple of members of the Legislature and discussed the bill. It occurred to me in so doing I might be in technical violation of the lobbying laws, so I immediately . . . paid my $5 and got a license to talk to the legislators."

Van Wagoner said it never occurred to him that this would be deemed improper. He added that he understood "members of other state boards . . . are registered (as lobbyists) and there is no connection between the Mackinac Bridge and the Tunnel project."

Van Wagoner said he had not been asked to quit the Authority post. Both Williams and Brown said they had not asked his resignation.

Brown said, "whether or not he feels he should resign is a matter for his own determination."

State Red Hearings to Begin March 29

DETROIT (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee said today that its Michigan hearings, scheduled to start Feb. 22, have been postponed until March 29 because of the illness of Rep. Kit Clardy, a committee member.

Clardy, who was hospitalized at Lansing this week with a heart condition, notified Rep. Harold Velde (R-Ill) he expected to be fully recovered by March 29th.

Clardy told Chairman Velde the hearings should proceed anyway on March 29, even if he (Clardy) were still ill.

In their opinion, they stated, the land is not well suited for retail merchandising development.

Habel's attorney, William J. Beer, asked Irwin if sale of land at higher price per square foot to Pontiac Retail Store was a comparable sale. Irwin said "no, because the Retail Store is located on a main traffic artery which gives easier access."

The suit, in Oakland County Circuit Court, is adjourned until Feb. 17, when Beer will begin presenting the Habel company's defense.

Sen. Higgins in Race for Governorship element has been lacking too long in Lansing.

"The revenue leaks in our government resemble those of a rusty sieve. The Senate Taxation Committee, of which I have been chairman for many years, has plugged many of those leaks by more equitable application of the present tax laws.

"Further improvements can be made, but as long as Michigan has a governor who cannot work closely with the Legislature, we cannot enact the obvious reforms that are needed so badly.

"I am proud of the Business Receipts Tax Act, and unlike any personal income tax, it is not paid by the individual citizen. Its equality and ease of payment has led a Washington newspaper to predict that the federal government may adopt this plan to replace federal excise taxes. I am thankful that my committee stood firm against all personal income tax proposals.

"My career in Lansing has been a broad, liberal education in all phases of government.

"My own life has been varied and gives me an understanding of people in all walks of life.

"Spending my boyhood on a farm in the Upper Peninsula, I was the son of an engineer who worked on the first Soo lock and I poured cement, myself, on the fourth lock.

"I know the headaches of the farmer. I was raised on a farm and live on, own, and operate a farm today in Oakland County.

"The years when I worked as a lathe operator with the Chevrolet Gear and Axle in Detroit, and carried my lunch and sweated out the days between paydays, are fresh in my memory today.

"My wife is the former Eva Quayle of Marquette County and we have been blessed with four children.

"With the firm belief that the Republican party has a great opportunity to serve the people of this state, I know that I can work with the Legislature in serving the people of this state.

"Should this great honor come to me, I resolve now to give Michigan a government of integrity and justice, efficiency and stability, close to and responsive to the people of this state."

Korea Offering Aid to Indochina

Possibility of Retaliation by Communist Chinese Realized by Minister

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea has offered to send a full army division to help the French fight the Communist-led Vietminh in Indochina, Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai said today.

Pyun said in an interview with this correspondent "it is quite probable" that Red China might retaliate by sending one or more of its divisions to help the Reds there.

The foreign minister said President Syngman Rhee wrote of his proposed offer to Gen. John E. Hull, U. S. Far East commander, before Hull went to Washington a few days ago.

The suggestion has been discussed with South Korean army commanders, Pyun said. He added:

"We are surprised and disappointed that the news leaked out before a formal reply came back to President Rhee." Diplomatic sources in Washington said Rhee offered one and possibly two divisions.

Hull said the ROKs had not offered two divisions, but he declined further comment.

No direct approach has been made to the Indochinese or French governments.

Jury Indicts Three Parakeet Importers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted three men on charges of importing parakeets illegally. Health authorities say many of the birds have died of parrot fever.

Some 400 parakeets were destroyed when tests showed they were infected, Carl F. White, U.S. customs collector, said yesterday. Warnings were sent to 30 persons who had been in contact with the birds, he added. They were urged to take inoculations of antibiotics.

Those indicated yesterday were George A. Emerson, head of the wild animal department at a film studio; George R. Todd, San Diego businessman; and Nicolas A. Spicuza, also of San Diego.

Nixon Follows Ike's Lead Softens Criticism of Dems

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon has advised fellow Republicans to avoid "indiscriminate" attacks on the opposition on the issue of communism, while accusing the Democrats of losing at the conference table victories won in war.

Whether by coincidence or in line with President Eisenhower's counsel to shun extreme partisanship, a number of GOP senators seemed to take a more moderate tone as the Lincoln Day speechmaking reached its peak volume on this anniversary of the Civil War President's birth.

There were still plenty of accusations that past Democratic administrations had coddled Communists, or been outsmarted by them.

Nixon himself, in a speech last night at New Haven, Conn., paid tribute to the way in which he said Secretary of State Dulles "has stood up to the Communists at the conference table in Berlin," and he added:

"The day is past when our diplomats lose at the conference table the victories which our fighting men win on the battlefields."

In counseling Republicans against indiscriminate attacks, Nixon said: "We must remember that millions of Democrats were just as fed up with Trumanism as we were in 1952."

Eisenhower told a Wednesday news conference the times are too serious for extreme partisanship. He said he would advise his official family against such tactics, and assumed the GOP National Committee would follow the same course. But he said he did not see how he could tone down others.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), who had said he could not "whitewash" what he calls "20 years of treason" under Democratic administrations to help win support for parts of Eisenhower's program, returned to his oft-voiced plea for a halt of trade with Red China.

In a speech at Dallas, Tex., last night McCarthy said "I know I don't agree with our administration on trade with Red China, but that doesn't mean I don't support that administration."

As for Eisenhower's plea to avoid extreme partisan attacks, McCarthy said "I think he is correct in that." He had said earlier he would not change tactics because he was reciting only the facts.

McCarthy also said there is no reason the two major parties should not work together to make all the world free. H said he has not been denouncing "the opposite party" but only "its leadership of the last 20 years."

The administration has opposed McCarthy's calls for U.S. action against friendly nations which carry on limited trade with Communist China, arguing that Washington should not dictate to its allies and that some trade is beneficial to the West.

McCarthy said last night he knows of these differences, but he added he supports Eisenhower "not because he's perfect but because his record has been so infinitely better than those in charge during the 20 years of treason there's no comparison."

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), who told his Senate colleagues yesterday he doesn't think the Democrats "should be crying foul," told a party audience at East Orange, N.J., last night that Democratic administrations "permitted Communists to penetrate into the highest policy-making branches of government."

He said the people in 1952 voted against an administration which "tolerated" Communists and which "permitted graft, bribery and favoritism to seep into almost every department of the government."

In delivering his speech, however, Carlson omitted a sentence from his text which said of the Democrats: "They weakened our defenses and it was through individuals in our own government that Russia secured the atom bomb."

R. W. Scott McLeod, whose political speaking tour has drawn fire from some Democrats because he is the State Department's administrator of security, said the security program "must be tight . . . that is where the previous administration failed."

McLeod told a party rally at Lander, Wyo.:

"I must say, without contradicting President Eisenhower, that communism is one of the great issues of our times . . . I hope, however, that it will not become a major issue in domestic policy. The party has a great responsibility to the American people, but we must also consider it a great opportunity."

New Jap Ambassador Hopes to Golf With Ike

TOKYO (AP) — Ambassador Sadao Iguichi, who leaves for his new post in Washington in about a week, laid bare a fond hope today.

"I would like very much to play golf with President Eisenhower," he told the Japan-America Society.

Policeman Is Freed in Assault on Judge

CHICAGO (AP)—A Municipal Court jury last night acquitted a policeman who had been charged with assault upon Circuit Judge John T. Dempsey.

The policeman, George E. Kuhter, 28, had been chargd with assault and false imprisonment. Policeman Donald E. Cummings, 27, is awaiting trial on charges of accessory before the fact to assault and false imprisonment.

Dempsey claimed that the two policemen roughed him up in Humboldt Park Nov. 14 while he was walking his dog.

Kuhter testified that he had been looking for a man accused by several youngsters of molesting children in the park. Dempsey was questioned because he resembled the description of the molester, the policeman testified.

$25-a-Plate Banquet Pays Off Temple Debt

ST. JOSEPH (INS) — Temple Bethel at St. Joseph was debt-free today because of a testimonial dinner for hotel owner Leon J. Harris.

Dinner guests last night paid $25 per plate to honor Harris, owner of the famed Whitcomb Hotel at St. Joseph.

Harris, however, picked up the check, which totaled $7,500, and spontaneously handed the proceeds from the dinner to mortgage banker John S. Stubblefield, who held the Temple's mortgage.

Tears welled in the eyes of Rabbi Joseph Schwarz, pastor at Temple Beth El, when Harris made his announcement.

DETROIT (INS) — Funeral arrangements are being completed for former common Pleas Judge Leonard L. Schemanske, who died in his sleep early today. He was 70.

Schemanske was a brother of Recorder's Judge Frank G. Schemanske, currently on the Detroit bench.

The elder Schemanske was a practicing attorney in Detroit for 45 years and retired in 1940.

Coffee Producers Vote Against Boycotting Brew

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Inter-American Economic and Social Council voted 15-1 yesterday to give the "widest dissemination" to a resolution condemning any coffee boycott campaign in the United States.

The one dissenting vote was cast by the United States.

The council, part of the organization of American states, includes the Latin-American coffee-producing nations.

Hospital Beds Needed

Pontiac's increasing need to have more hospital facilities made available is common knowledge to all local citizens — perhaps more so to anyone who has experienced being in a local hospital, or called on a friend or relative.

Time for expansion is now, not next year.

For years we have not had adequate hospital beds for a city the size of Pontiac. The city continues to grow but our hospitals stay static. The facilities are limited to the point that in some cases patients are neglected that should be receiving immediate care. It's not the fault of the hospital, but the lack of space.

A not uncommon sight is fifteen to twenty patients on cots in hospital corridors. They must wait their turn for someone to leave in order that they may have a regular hospital bed. Certainly this type of care is not conducive to the type of assistance Pontiac people should expect.

With industry in Pontiac and all over the country expanding to make adequate working conditions, why not follow this trend in our local hospitals? All business or institutions must continue to grow in order to live.

Let's Have All the Facts

It is difficult to see how Conservation Director EDDY could have taken any less severe action than to suspend with the promise of fair hearings, seven accused members of his staff.

These seven, all Upper Peninsula field officers, were involved in a grand jury investigation into alleged irregular dealings in State land and timber, and misuse of State facilities.

Though Circuit Judge HOLBROOK of Clare, the one man grand juror, handed down no criminal indictments, he recommended dismissal of the men.

At Marquette, DORIAS J. CURRY, the department's Upper Peninsula chief, protested the suspensions declaring the evidence against the men was shrouded in grand jury secrecy. CURRY added that he intended to defend them with every means at his command.

By promising the men fair hearings Director EDDY has indicated his intention to protect their rights. Moreover, if they wish they can appeal his ultimate decision to the Civil Service Commission.

This doesn't alter the fact that there have been rumors for months of irregularities in Upper Peninsula Conservation operations. Neither does it relieve Director EDDY of his obligation to safeguard the public's vital interests in the State's natural resources.

It's time all the facts were brought out into the open.

Lincoln and the GOP

Although the name ABRAHAM LINCOLN always has been rich in meaning for Republicans, it is more than ever so in this year of the party's 100th anniversary.

This is true because the Great Emancipator personifies Republican ideals and was its first successful Presidential candidate.

Contrary to mistaken belief, however, LINCOLN didn't enter politics as a Republican. He began as a Whig and was a member of that Whig faction, led by HENRY CLAY. Just about 100 years ago now dissatisfaction with the Whig party spurred the movement which led to the organization of the Republican party at Jackson in 1854.

It was not until 1856, however, that Lincoln went over to the Republican party. Two years later he became its Senatorial nominee in Illinois, but was successfully opposed by the Democrat Douglas of debate fame. Nominated and elected in 1860, Lincoln became the first Republican President of the United States.

As the Civil War progressed, the Republican party as part of its move for support from pro-Union Democrats, became transformed technically into a Union party. The result was that in 1864 LINCOLN was re-elected not as a Republican but as a Union party candidate.

Time has a happy way of helping us measure LINCOLN'S greatness. It reminds us again on this 145th anniversary of his birth, how much he has grown in stature since that tragic night at Ford's Theater 89 years ago.

We honor Lincoln today because he held the Nation together despite the stresses of the Civil War, because of his Emancipation Proclamation and his unceasing devotion to the common good.

LINCOLN'S detractors long since have been forgotten. But he continues to stand out as an inspiring symbol of all that is fine and noble in American life.

Carole Bloom Believes 18 Year Olds Not Mature Enough to Vote in U.S. Elections

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

On Jan. 7 the President proposed that the Constitution be amended to give the 18 year olds the right to vote, but the Constitution does not say voters have to be 21 or any other age.

The general argument is whether they are old enough to vote since they are old enough to fight. This argument is based more on sentiment than reality. We recognize the contribution teen-agers have made when our nation was faced with wars, but, we must not ignore the fact that these situations were emergencies. Under army discipline their lives were regulated from rising until retiring.

The problem of voting is a private and personal obligation and a long step from a regulated life to an undirected life. Observation seems to indicate that 18 year olds have not maturity and experience enough for our American system of the ballot.

Perhaps those who have gone through the trial of agony of battle may have obtained this maturity, but the percentage of those who have war experience is negligible in comparison to the over-all of teen-agers.

It is my judgment that an 18 year old is not ready to elect those who will guide the destinies of our nation. I speak as a teen-ager.

Says We Should Get Up Each Sunday to Worship

Political Speechifying Will See Trouble If Official Leave of Absence Required

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Out of the gracious speech in the Senate of Sen. Frank Carlson, Republican of Kansas, may grow a "Be-Kind-to-the-Democrats" movement applicable especially to the period of Lincoln Day dinners, but it will be of little avail unless the speakers of the Democratic party at Jefferson-Jackson Day banquets will reciprocate with a "Be-Kind-to-the-Republicans" attitude.

The Kansas senator thinks the Republicans at least have a right to criticize "extravagances" in government and "the fact that there was an effort to shield Communists."

Governor Dewey of New York, Republican, however, sees no good in attempting to gag the members of his party and charges that the Democrats in Congress who are trying to silence Republican critics cannot by such tactics "lessen the responsibility of the last administration for having bungled us into a war in Korea and for the ammunition shortage that caused the tragic, needless loss of many American lives."

On the other side of the political arena, Stephen Mitchell, the Democratic national chairman, doesn't seem to have taken too kindly to President Eisenhower's plea for more restraint and less extremism in political speechmaking.

For Mitchell, through his publication "The Democratic Digest," has just declared that Attorney General Brownell accused former President Truman of "treasonable conduct."

A careful examination of what Brownell said at Chicago and his statements before the Senate internal security subcommittee reveals that the attorney general merely accused Truman of laxity in administration and of having misjudged the evidence about Harry Dexter White. But if Mitchell keeps on repeating his own sensational misstatement as a means of diverting attention from the real charge, must the Republicans remain silent?

Or will they now be justified in reopening the publicity on the White case in order to set the record straight? That's the kind of dilemma that has been produced by President Eisenhower's effort to apply conciliatory measures to political combat.

Incidentally, some of the Trumanite reporters are out to get the Eisenhower administration with as bad a press as they can muster. If the Eisenhower staff are not quick on the comeback, they will lose ground for the Republican party.

A notable example of the partisanship evident in the news dispatches is the way some of the Trumanite reporters handled the political journey of Scott McLeod of the State Department.

McLeod happens to be tough on Communists and Communist sympathizers and, though he has said a dozen times his appointment was in no way brought about by Sen. McCarthy, scarcely a press dispatch goes out that doesn't attempt to link him somehow with the Wisconsin senator.

When the fact that McLeod had accepted the invitation of the Republican National Committee to make a few speeches in South Dakota became known, the State Department was bombarded with requests from the reporters as to whether McLeod had obtained "leave of absence" without pay. It turned out that he did take leave of absence.

Curiously enough, when other State Department officials under the Truman administration made political speeches for the Democrats, no such fuss was raised and, of course, none was on "leave of absence." Here are a few of those Trumanite speaking engagements:

1. Assistant Secretary of State George McGhee addressed the Young Democrat National Convention at Chattanooga in November 1949.

2. Undersecretary of State James E. Webb addressed the Southern Democratic Party Conference at Raleigh, N. C., in January 1950, and also spoke at the National Democratic Party Conference at Chicago in May 1950.

3. Assistant Secretary of State Edward G. Miller Jr. addressed a meeting in June 1950 under the auspices of the New York State Democratic Committee.

4. W. Averell Harriman, special assistant to President Truman, addressed the Midwest Democratic Conference at Denver, Colo., in May 1951, at which he was substituting for Secretary of State Acheson.

5. Adrian Fisher, legal adviser to the State Department, was the principal speaker at the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at Charleston, W. Va., on March 30, 1951.

6. Deputy Undersecretary of State Rusk, Assistant Secretary of State Barrett, and Assistant Secretary of State Thorp addressed meetings of the Women's National Democratic Club at Washington on various dates.

There's nothing wrong with what these Truman officials did in making those speeches. Nor is there anything wrong with what McLeod has done in making a Republican speech, though to read some press dispatches it might be inferred that he had done something that never had been done before.

If McLeod, who took leave of absence, is to set a precedent for all political speeches by government officials hereafter, the major parties are going to have trouble getting speakers from the government to go out on the stump unless the political committees compensate them. That's not a good system for either party.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Muscles in Dr. Crane's Hand Tend to 'Stutter'

Notice the "devil" that got into my right hand at a banquet of a State Dental Association. Ever since then my right hand has tended to "stutter" in the same type of banquet situation. For habits are specific. Paste this Case Record in your scrapbook to help stutterers overcome their nuisance habit.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case K-323: This case is about myself. A few years ago I was scheduled to address a State Dental Convention at its annual banquet.

During the dinner, I conversed with the dentist at my left, who was the President of the state society.

Wrapped up in conversation, I hardly noticed what I was eating. And late in the meal I lefted my coffee cup to my lips.

But I hadn't noticed that the waitress had just filled it with scalding hot coffee. It had been only lukewarm when I had taken the previous sip.

Now it burned my mouth and involuntarily my right hand jerked back until several teaspoons of the hot liquid spilled upon my dinner plate.

I thought nothing more about the matter, and continued with my conversation.

About a month later, however, I was again scheduled for a state dental convention. At the banquet, I was seated next to the president.

I lifted my cup of coffee to bring it to my mouth, but before it even touched my lips, my right hand started jerking and wiggling as if it were inhabited by a demon.

In total surprise, I watched my hand spill coffee in my plate. I looked on as if I were a neutral bystander, for my hand acted without any effort or intention on my part.

I was nonplussed, for I didn't remember the episode of a month before. So I set my cup down and tried to bring it to my lips a second time.

All went well till my hand levelled off even with my mouth. Then my hand shook as if it belonged to somebody else. Again my coffee was spilled.

Then I happened to remember the situation of a month earlier. So I knew what was wrong. I had simply become afflicted with "stuttering" except it was the muscles of my right hand which "stuttered" instead of those of my throat.

Keyed up nervously, as I had been at the first banquet, the intense burn from the scalding coffee, had released a disproportionate amount of energy via the muscles functioning at that instant.

So just one painful mishap had thus "set" this act of stuttering by my hand. The same is usually true of blushing or fainting or vocal stuttering.

One embarrassing or painful episode can "condition" the victim so he blushes or stutters or faints thereafter in the same situation.

So I immediately tried to lift my cup a third time, but, again it started its crazy action as it neared my face.

So I picked it up with my left hand. Now it came right to my mouth without the slightest quiver, for my wrist "stutter" had involved the right hand! Habits are specific affairs!

Notice that fact for it shows the definite selectivity of stuttering. Thus, a person who stutters in English, can generally speak in French or any other foreign language successfully!

For example, the usual case of spoken English during conversation with human beings in a normal tone of voice.

Alter any one of those three elements, and you can help stuttering!

For instance, talk to horses or dogs, and the stuttering disappears. Elevate your tone of voice or lower your voice arbitrarily, and the same tends to be true. Or speak in a different language!

At banquets, even today my right hand still tends to "stutter" unless I alter the situation by squeezing my cup with an abnormal grip or by hooking a different finger of my right hand through the handle.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER
International News Service

Close to 50 years ago Arthur Brisbane stopped hoss-guessing in New York with a terrific cartoon. That didn't stop the wagering. The boys bet an iron deer would beat a stone dog off the front lawn.

If Governor Dewey has his way we will have to paint stripes on the race hosses and claim Belmont Park as a merry-go-round.

The neighbors' children are trying to legalize off-the-track betting in New York. We already have off-the-cuff paying.

The cartoon Mr. Brisbane ran in the Evening Journal was by Bob Carter. It showed a raggedy mother pushing her baby through the $2 window at Sheepshead Bay.

It knocked racing off like an icicle in a thaw. The impact on public spirit was that of a stone fight inside a florist's greenhouse.

Bob Carter got a raise and went uptown to celebrate. He met Tom Powers, Winsor McCay and George Jiggs McManus. Along about dawn the quartette drew an even greater cartoon.

It showed the man in the $2 alcove shoving the raggedy mother's baby back through the window to mama. Along with 11 other infants.

The raggedy mother had scored on a long shot. Needless to state, Mr. Brisbane did not print the even greater cartoon in the Evening Journal.

Iron, Even Some Copper, in Daily Diet May Have Influence on Graying Hair

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

A vitamin is not a medicine. leave that childish conception of vitamins to the ninnyhammers who go for "shots" of this or that vitamin, administered by the trick specialist's near-nurse.

A vitamin is a food accessory, an element or factor essential for good nutrition, functional efficiency, health.

Every child or adult requires a daily ration of it today, next week and every day or week as long as he or she lives. Don't be a ninny hammer about vitamins.

In eighteen years of country, city and hospital practice I derived the impression, nothing more, that the daily ration of iron has considerable influence on hair color.

Especially in nutritional deficiency anemia, which doctors call hypochromic anemia (hypo, less; chromo, color).

This "gray sickness," it seems to me, has taken the place of what, in Dr. Osler's day, was known as "the green sickness" — chlorosis, a type of anemia that occurred in teenage girls.

The girl with chlorosis was not just pale, she had a distinctly greenish pallor.

The "gray sickness" occurs in women in the late 20s or early 40s. They complain of fatigue, lassitued, lack of "pep," palitation, lack of appetite, "gas", "indigestion."

Meats no longer interest them. In fact they have difficulty swallowing solid foods.

They tend to limit their diet to tea, toast, potatoes and little else. They look gray—dull gray complexion, dull gray hair. They do, indeed, need iron, lots of it, but not iron alone.

They need in addition the vitamins and minerals most Americans need to supplement their ultra-refined diet.

Nutrition chemists have found that copper deficiency causes the reddish coat of cows to lose color and look drab. Restoration of a trace of copper to the feed brings back the normal color.

That's all I know about it. Some good physicians believe that anemia responds better to a combination of iron with a wee bit of copper than to iron alone.

A wee bit of copper is the quantity some nutrition authorities estimate everybody needs daily — about 1-30th of a grain.

Foods rich in copper are wheat bran, wheat germ and of course plain wheat, from which nothing is removed in "processing"; calf liver; walnuts; pecans; Brazil nuts; bitter chocolate.

In my opinion any trace of copper that may get into food cooked or served in copper utensils, or any trace of aluminum that may get into food cooked or served in or from aluminum utensils, is good for health.

I have been eating food cooked in aluminum or copper since Topsy was a colt and I'm still in fine fettle, barring a tin ear and some lead . . .

Hal Boyle Says:

New Women's TV Show May Improve Housewives

NEW YORK (AP)—Many people complain about what television has done to American home life.

But what can television do for home life? Can it, for example, give every American home what it deserves most—the better housewife?

Yes, can television take an ordinary scrubby bride and mold her into the kind of wife she yearns to be—a charming, informed, all-around woman worthy of traveling down life's rocky road shoulder to shoulder with that fine fellow, the average American husband?

Well, television is going to try. It is already a guest in your living room. Soon it will be a guest who tells your wife how to make that living room look less crumby, and how she herself can also look less cru . . . I mean . . . look more attractive.

This video adventure in wife education will be launched March 1 via an NBC-TV daily one-hour network program called "Home." The idea is reported to be the personal brainchild of NBC President Sylvester L. Weaver himself, and he has authorized erection of a $200,000 set for "Home."

The mere announcement of this program upset a friend of mine, who said he had two objections:

"First, I have spent 20 earnest years trying to improve my wife, and the only result is that she is older. How can television do a better job on her in an hour a day? The program should be at least eight hours long, seven days a week, if it is to teach wives even half the things they really need to know.

"Second, every wife who watches that $200,000 set is going to feel sooner or later her husband ought to buy her a $200,000 house. Will that simple girlish goal help make your home life more peaceful?"

Beauteous Arlene Francis will act as editor-in-chief of the program. Assisted by a staff of experts, she will give illustrated hints to the American housewife on how to raise children or petunias, how to take spots off the family dog or her husband's necktie, how to cook better meals, both with and without a can opener. And, naturally, how to be more charming.

Personally, we wish Miss Francis luck in TV's greatest challenge so far—the building of perfect wives, of which every man could use at least one.

And for a starter, we'd like to see her tackle and solve a few typical old household problems, such as:

The wife who insists on getting something out of the medicine chest while her husband is shaving, and uses his razor to cut paper. . . . the wife who won't roll the toothpaste tube from the bottom. . . . the wife who can't make up her mind on colors while hubby is mixing the paint. . . .

The two-bathroom family in the one-bathroom house. . . . the neighbor wife who punishes her children if they are destructive in her own home but not if they turn your house into a city dump. . . . the wife who leaves her bobby pins all around the wash basin and yowls when hubby splashes water and gets them rusty. . . .

The wife who . . . (fill out your own list, boys, and mail them to Miss Francis. She'll help you.)

Of course, some husbands create household problems, too. But even television hasn't figured a way yet to improve the American husband.

We See the World the Way We Feel

By BILLY ROSE

Some 15 years ago, when his paintings cost a lot less than they do now, I bought an oil by Marc Chargall, the French impressionist. It was a happy picture—a dew-fresh rural scene full of flowers that looked like people and people who looked like flowers.

Over the years, many friends have told me that this painting made no sense—that flowers look like flowers, and people look like people. I have usually justified my fondness for the picture by telling them this story . . . .

BILLY ROSE

Back in my short-pants period, my folks lived in a cold-water tenament not far from the Manhattan Bridge on the lower East Side. At the time, I was wrapped up in my own pint-sized world, so I paid little attention to the horde of grownups who shared the building with us. With one exception: an old man named Benny Kujacks.

I first met Benny on the roof of the building one darkish afternoon when I went up there to terrorize the local pigeons with the B-B gun.

He was sitting in front of an improvised easel working on a water color of the East River down below.

"You a real painter?" I asked.

Kujacks smiled. "No, sonny," he said. "For a living, I am a night watchman. For something to do in the afternoon, I come up here and paint what I see on the river."

I looked down at the river, and what I saw were a lot of dirty tugs on a lot of dirty water. In Kujacks' water color, however, the tugs were a saucy red and the river a ribbon of robin's-egg blue.

"You ain't painting what you see," I said.

"I'm a man who feels good," said Benny, "so everything looks good to me."

Later on, when I got to know Kujacks better, I found why he felt good.

He had come to America from a villiage in Poland, and everything here had turned out the way he wanted. He had married shortly after his arrival and his home life had been a good one until his wife died.

Now, Benny's watchman's salary enabled him to live comfortably and to indulge in his hobby of painting which, in the Polish village, was a luxury reserved for the gentry.

And he was proud of his son, Victor, a six-footer in his 20s who lived uptown and made good money as a waiter. True, his son tended to "live it up a bit" and overspend himself, but what was wrong with that when a man is young and lives in so fine and exciting a city?

There came a day, however, when Benny Kujacks stopped feeling so good. While he was on the roof painting, someone entered his furnished room on the first floor and walked off with his savings which he had hidden in a cigar box under his bureau.

After thinking it over from all angles, the old man had to admit to himself that only two people knew where he kept his money—he and his son, Victor.

Understandably, Kujacks never reported the theft to the police and, as the days went by, his suspicions seemed to be confined. Victor hadn't been around to see him in over a week and was reported missing in the restaurant where he worked.

Ten days after the robbery, I heard some good news and ran up to the roof to tell Benny. It was a fine sunny day, but there was nothing happy about the painting on Kujacks' easel.

The tugs looked like so many garbage scows, and the river looked like—well, like the East River.

"Hey, Benny," I shouted. "You know the kid who runs errands for Mindlin, the druggist? Well, they just picked him up for robbing an apartment on 13th Street, and he confessed that he robbed your place, too. He says he knew where you hid your money because he spied on you through the window."

That Saturday Victor turned up with a plenty good explanation for his absence. He was wearing a soldier suit and told his father he had stayed away because he was afraid Benny might not approve of his having enlisted. . .

Soon after that, on the theory that it was cheaper to move than pay rent, my folks moved to the Brownsville section of Brooklyn, and I never saw any more of Benny's paintings.

I don't think I'm fancying it up, however, when I say I'm sure they were happy ones—the East River a stream of melted butter, and the tugs as red as candy apples.

In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if the old watchman had painted a captain on each tug, pink in the cheeks and dressed as Santa Claus.

Snoring Kennel Owner Thinks of Dog's Luxury

ORCHARD PARK, N. Y. (UP)—The owner of kennels here always has the welfare and comfort of his boarders in mind.

Victor Moench refused to board a 160-pound Great Dane whose owner insisted that Moench had to take the giant to bed with him at night.

"I snore and the dog wouldn't get a wink of sleep," Moench explained.

Ontario Legislature Plans for St. Lawrence Project

TORONTO (AP)—Ontario plans early action to prepare for development of St. Lawrence River power and a natural gas pipeline from Alberta, it was disclosed today in the speech from the throne read to the Ontario Legislature by Lieutenant - Governor Louis Breithaupt.

The 1,300-word speech, opening a session expected to last seven weeks, confirmed speculation that the Government plans the first redistribution of House seats since 1933, when the number was cut from 112 to 90.

It also hinted at important plans for agriculture, a new policy on provincially-owned parks and a busy program of legislation on public works, health and welfare.

"The impending construction of the St. Lawrence River power project, the last obstacles to which we are quite sure will shortly be cleared, will require legislation to give effect to plans now being prepared," the speech said. "The low cost hydro-electric power which can be developed from this project will greatly augment our power resources and facilitate our economic expansion."

The Governor reported "great progress" toward construction of the pipeline. Legislation was planned to enable the province to deal with new problems arising from the importation.

"The development of the St. Lawrence and the gas resources of the Canadian West will create new employment opportunities and fortify our long-term economic development."

The re-distribution plan in the House would be submitted as the result of increased and shifts in population.

Last year's expanded capital construction program would be continued in many phases—highways, public buildings, hospitals, including a new $9,500,000 cancer institute in Toronto, and conservation projects.

Approval of a legislative and financial program "for the social and economic betterment of the people" will be sought.

New proposals were planned for amending the province's welfare legislation. A bill consolidating into one act the Children's Protection Act, the Adoption Act and the Children of Unmarried Parents Act "will bring Ontario's child welfare legislation into conformity with the best in modern practice."

Overdose of Vitamins Causes a New Disease

HARTFORD (AP) — A new disease—hypervitaminosis—has been reported by the Connecticut state health department. You can get it by taking too much vitamin A or vitamin D.

Miss Gloria J. Pepl, the department's nutrition consultant, says that formerly it was believed that no amount of vitamin was harmful, but it is known now that a toxic effect will result from dosages beyond the limits prescribed by a physician.

High Schoolers Plunge Into New Semester

Students Active as Term Begins

Honor Rolls, Basketball Game Steal Spotlight at St. Michael, St. Fred

With spring in their minds and the commencement of a "sparkling new semester" high schoolers throughout the city seemed raring to go.

Honor rolls were posted in the parochial schools (St. Michael and St. Fred) last week and this week, naming those students who excelled in their studies.

Girls' basketball still stole the spotlight as whoops of victory resounded from St. Fred, and gloom prevailed (at least, temporarily) at St. Michael High over the recent game.

At Pontiac High School, new seniors took over as "wheels" and freshmen began to get accustomed to the teepee routine.

With spring just around the corner, social activities began to shape up for the coming season.

ST. FREDERICK

The second week of a brand new semester offered a fresh challenge to the brains of St. Fred's, writes scribe Mary Drake.

MARY

Seniors diligently donned their "thinking caps" and filed into the library to take the aptitude tests offered them by the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Juniors at the high school completed plans for their "Mardi Gras" dance which will be held in the parish hall on the 19th.

The highlight of the gala event will be the crowning of the King and Queen of the Mardi Gras.

Sodality representatives are looking forward to "Sodality Day" at the University of Detroit High School on Feb. 27.

Last but not least in the campus activities was the resounding victory scored by the St. Fred Lambs against St. Mike. The girls' basketball team was justly proud of the accurate "shooting" of the McHugh sisters, Jean and Marjorie, who helped make that 18-10 score possible.

PONTIAC HIGH

Newshound Vicky Micu reports that PHS corridors are fairly humming with activity as the new term gets under way.

VICKY

Students are busy, pen in hand filling out permanent program cards and electin student union and student council representatives. Each third hour class elects two students for the respective positions.

Budding Garbos and Barrymores brushed up on the theater arts as tryouts for the spring producton, "Mr. Peepers," began this week. The traditional dramatic offering will be presented in March.

Harold Richards assumed his duties as a lab assistant during the first hour period.

ST. MICHAEL

Margaret Martin, Michaelite pen pusher, reported that sophomore classmen gathered recently for a birthday - hayride honoring Roberta Wright.

MARGARET

Meanwhile, St. Michael bulletin boards sported the rather unique work of sophomore English students. The high schoolers have the interesting assignment of producing their own newspapers.

Underclassmen and seniors had a treat to brighten their February schedules. A movie was presented to the two groups on Tuesday. The film offered by the Dupont Company was titled "Cavalcade of America."

Visits Jailed Pals, Gets Thrown in Cell

Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies arrested a West Bloomfield Township man Thursday who was implicated by two others in several auto-tire thefts.

Gus E. Opdenhoff, 23, 1647 Mercedes, was arrested on a charge of receiving stolen property when he went to the Oakland County Jail to visit two friends being held there.

In jail for investigation of stealing tires from car trunks in the Elizabeth Lake-Keego area are Arthur Fansworth, 21, of 4021 Arcadja Park Dr., and Claude Garland, 19, of 7280 Howell, both of Waterford Township.

It was these two men that Opdenhoff had tried to visit at the jail when he was arrested by Detectives Delos Anderson and Leo Hazen, who say that so far four tires and wheels have been recovered.

Ohio School Board Bans Three Books

GALION, Ohio (AP) — The City Board of Education has removed Richard Wright's 1940 novel "Native Son" and two famed novels by Hervey Allen from the Galion High School library, following a unanimous decision that the books were not proper reading material for the students.

The two romantic novels by Allen are "Anthony Adverse" (1933) and "Toward the Morning" (1948). Wright's "Native Son" concerns the problems of a Negro boy growing up in the United States.

Russell Nichols, a member of the school board, said the board named a screening committee to examine all "textbooks, library and reference volumes and supplemental literature" used in the school system.

Bay City TV Channel 5 Is Testing This Week

BAY CITY (UP) — Station WNEM-TV was on the air today with a television test pattern on Channel 5.

Operations started at 6:08 p. m. Thursday and will continue on a test basis for an undetermined time, general manager John H. Bone said.

In addition to Bay City, Bone said the pattern can be received in Flint, Saginaw, Tawas City, Bad Axe, Mt. Pleasant, Owosso and nearly as far south and west as Lansing.

Boy Found in Icebox, Hungry, Cold, but Safe

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 6-year-old boy, trapped for 18 hours in an abandoned icebox, was freed yesterday—hungry and cold but otherwise none the worse for his experience.

James Edward Brice told police he crawled into the icebox and closed the door just before dark Wednesday. Cracks and ill-fitting doors allowing air to enter.

He was discovered yesterday when a neighbor woman heard his cries.

Britain's Economy Booms Since Churchill Took Over

By WILBUR G. LANDREY
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON (UP)—While Americans are arguing whether there is a recession, Britain's economy is booming.

Production and employment are at record levels, despite a drop in trade with the United States.

Stocks are rising toward record highs.

Government officials and economists say they believe any severe or prolonged American recession would hit Britain and the rest of the world.

Vital British exports to the United States slumped 10 per cent in the last three months of 1953. But figures published in the last few days show the British economy is strengthening. Things seldom have been so good.

Employment is at an all-time high in the closing months of last year. Unemployment is less than at the same time last year despite the seasonal increase.

Steel production last month was the highest for January in history.

Overall production was steadily climbing, according to the latest available statistics for late 1953.

Farmers set new production records last year for wheat, barley, oats, potatoes and turnips.

Industrial bond and share prices are just short of the all-time record set in 1947.

The gold and dollar reserves of the whole sterling area still are climbing steadily as it edges further into the black.

Retail prices have been steady for almost a year.

Wages as recorded by the official index have climbed 12 points since Prime Minister Winston Churchill's government took office in 1951; prices have climbed 11 points.

Last November the British working force reached a record total of 22,400,000 out of a population of about 50,000,000. That is the highest in history and after a seasonal decline in December it was still a record total for that time of the year.

The last figures show that on Jan. 11, the number of registered unemployed was 372,000, which was 52,000 below the same time in 1952.

Steel production last month was at the record high rate of 18,737,000 tons a year, while the index for overall industrial production recovered from a 1952 slump by climbing from 118 in January 1953 to 132 last November.

Total coal production for this year is running slightly behind that of last year but miners agreed when they obtained a recent wage increase that it would be reasonable to try to increase production by an extra 5,000,000 tons.

Wheat production was up 16 per cent, barley up 11 per cent, oats up 7 per cent, potatoes up 8 per cent and fodder roots as a whole up 17 per cent.

One place in town business was bad. The lunch counters and coffee shops around the stock exchange where brokers in their bowler hats and striped pants used to lunch leisurely now report customers only grab a sandwich and run.

Paris Traffic Becomes More Congested by Day

PARIS (AP)—Visitors and residents who have marvelled, and cursed, the increasing congestion of Paris streets learned recently that the traffic jams do not just seem to be worse.

Licensing authorities revealed that new vehicles are being added to the congestion at a rate of 180 daily.

The average American uses about 75 per cent fewer fresh peas than before the war, but about 5 per cent more canned peas and 500 per cent more frozen peas.

Ring Lost at RR Track Found 28 Years Later

BOWLING GREEN, Mo. (AP)—Twenty-eight years ago young James F. Donnelly searched frantically through the dust beside the railroad tracks near here for his mother's wedding ring. It had slipped from his finger while he was working on a Gulf, Mobile and Ohio train.

No luck then.

Recently workmen, installing a switch, turned it up and returned it to Donnelly, now a conductor.

The average American consumes around 18 pounds of candy a year.

Wife Put Lock on Phone, Husband Seeks Divorce

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Seeking a divorce, the husband told the judge he had spoken to his wife after she ran up long distance telephone bills of more than $100 a month.

Then, he said, she retaliated by putting a combination lock on the phone so he could not use it.

Although the Ice Age continued for about a million years, the periods during this time when ice covered large portions of the earth were short compared to those in which the earth's climate was relatively warm.

Lincoln Shrine City Marks His Birthday

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (AP)—Springfield, shrine city of Abraham Lincoln, will pay its traditional homage today on the 145th anniversary of the Civil War President's birth.

Center of events will be the emancipator's marble tomb in Oak Ridge cemetery, mecca of Lincoln pilgrims from throughout the world. Also figuring prominently in today's activities are the brown frame house that was Lincoln's residence for 25 years before election to the presidency, and New Salem state park, recreated village of his young manhood.

Heading the list of formal observances will be the American Legion's 20th annual pilgrimage to the tomb for wreath laying ceremonies and a speech by Arthur J. Connell, the Legion's national commander.

Friendliness Doesn't Pay While Delivering Mail

WATERTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — The friendly mailman was completing his appointed rounds. But why, the postmaster wondered, was he so slow?

The carrier himself explained he was in the habit of paying social calls during his tours of duty. Post office officials dismissed him, charging "loitering on the route and thus causing delay to the mail."

Blue Glass on License Is Traffic Violation

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit Police traffic director James Hoye warned today that persons using blue glass cover on their automobile license plates court a $1 violation notice.

Hoye said the plates obscure license numerals and reflect light at night.

Seek Cause of Fire Near UM Campus

ANN ARBOR (INS) — Firemen today sifted the ruins of $350,000 campus-area fire which destroyed four stores and routed a dozen apartment residents into early-morning cold.

Investigators said the blaze, which erupted yesterday a block from the University of Michigan campus, may have been caused by defective wiring or a faulty chimney flue.

No one was injured in the blaze, although several firemen became ill from the fumes of burning drug stocks in the basement of the Campus Drug Store, one of the shops destroyed.

Hastings School Faculty Granted $275 Pay Hike

HASTINGS (AP) — The board of education has approved across-the-board salary increases of $275 for faculty members.

The board also has authorized hiring of an architect to prepare plans for a fieldhouse on Johnson athletic field. Cost is estimated at $32,000.

Judge Sentences Athlete's Stabber

DETROIT (AP)—A 16-year-old high school student must spend the next three years in a training school as a result of the icepick stabbing of a high school basketball player Jan. 15.

The boy must stay in the institution "for training and re-education until he is 19," Probate Judge George Edwards ruled Thursday.

Judge Edwards acted after turning down a Recorder's (Criminal) Court request to waive extradition. Psychiatrists found the boy "hostile and impulsive."

Ross DeBoskey, 17, the stabbing victim, was attacked by the 16-year-old and several companions following a night basketball game. DeBoskey is recovering.

Three older boys, convicted after trial, are awaiting sentence for assault and battery.

Detroit public schools banned all night sports as a result of this and other rowdyism.

John S. Coppin Gives Pointers

Noted Artist Analyzes Society's Work

By WILMA GREENWAY

Members of Pontiac Society of Artists, a group that less than six years ago got its start by selling cookies to pay for its charter, last night brought out an impressive collection of original work for analysis and evaluation by internationally known artist John S. Coppin.

More than 20 canvasses were presented for criticism. The Bloomfield Hills artist, who has been hailed as one of Americas foremost portrait painters and is almost equally as well known for his sweeping murals and his arresting moderns, analyzed the paintings of the group from the light of form composition, color and general technique.

"When you are painting, decide what you are trying to say and then say it," the artist who has painted most of the famous persons of Michigan told his intent group of listeners.

"Stress the focal point of your picture. Remember, realism in art is not photographic. If you want a photograph, use a camera.

"But if you would achieve a work of art, work from within the limits of your subject, selectively. Leave out or minimize that which is un-essential—emphasize that which is important."

Coppin interspersed his serious discussion with many humorous anecdotes and remarks. Once after studying a picture which called for detailed criticism, he quipped "You know, this business of criticizing other people's work could very well go to a person's head!"

"There is no right way or wrong way to paint—there are only different ways. You yourself are the final judge as to whether a criticism is valid.

"Balance warm colors with cold, light with shade. Watch your edges.

"Say what you think.

"Be original. Work from live models.

"Most of all, paint. Paint, paint and paint some more."

This was the advice of the artist who has won prize after prize in competitions, whose portraits of the last three governors of Michigan hang in the State Capitol, whose painting of Gen. William S. Knudsen is displayed in Fredericksborg Castle, Denmark, and whose famous likeness of Alec Guinness in the role of Richard III is held by the Stratford Ont., Shakespearean Society for permanent display at the Shakespearean festivals there.

Of the Pontiac society as a whole Coppin said, "There are a few who are very, very good. There are some who have a long way to go.

"What I have tried to do is show how each picture could be made better. But there is no picture I have seen tonight that I think is without merit."

Coppin was introduced to the group by the past president of the Pontiac artists society, Guy Sanders.

In a short business meeting before Coppin's arrival, the group announced workshop meetings to be held Thursday nights at the home of Mrs. L. L. Sterling on Lorraine Court.

Tentative plans also were reported for an art festival this fall. Mrs. Sterling was hostess for Thursday evening's meeting.

Valentine Motive Used by Do-C-Do

Sweetheart Decor Featured Thursday at Webster

Two large and lacy "boy" and "girl" Valentines helped set the theme for Do-C-Do Square Dance Club members when they met Thursday evening at Webster School.

Large cutout letters, strung across the backdrop curtain, spelled out the age-old plea "Be My Valentine."

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Krumwiede were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Baer in planning and executing the timely decorations.

In tune with the Valentine theme, the evening's master of ceremonies, George Harkless, introduced each part of the program with an appropriate verse.

Callers for the evening included Vere Hodges, Sam Joan, Howard Powers, Enar West, Charles Uligian, Rex Lawrence and Gordon McLeod. Several novelty numbers were introduced by Mr. and Mrs. John Streit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blamy and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McCandless were in charge of refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Barrett attended the dance as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Streit. The Harold Cousins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Baer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coad came with the Jack Walsers and Mr. and Mrs. Benson Savedge were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rooney.

Symphony Event to Be March 16 science now helps you take off your fat while you eat the foods you choose

Do you like sweets, candy, cake and are you a real glutton when it comes to butter, gravy, potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat? Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening. You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why . . .

counteracts hunger

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing be found in all the advertised products offered today. It contains the concentrated proteins you've read and heard about. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping to give the feeling of a full contented stomach. Yet these tiny new capsules contain not just one but ALL the drugless reducing aids he found to be needed to actually automatically make you eat less without conscious effort and like it! In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

fat goes fast

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow more slim, more youthful looking, more active and enjoy better health.

We certify that ALL-IN-ONE CAPSULES are entirely safe for human consumption.

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Throw-It-Away Campaign Doesn't Include Albums

I've been preaching lately that everybody ought to get the good of his possessions and give or throw away any that aren't usable. So, not wishing to be inconsistent, I had a great time recently checking bureau drawers and closets. As a result, I guess I'll have to edit myself a bit, appropriately at this Valentine season, and admit that there really are some non-essential items in the way of keepsakes that the average person simply can't let go.

MISS McBRIDE

For me, one of these is a small black leather volume with gold embossed cover, all fountains and curlicues. The flyleaf bears the inscription, in delicate spidery writing shaded into elongated birds and spears of wheat, "Miss Susan M. Kerr, Rocky Hill, July 7, 1855."

Susan Kerr was my father's mother and when Susan left one town to live in another, the Forget-me-not Album was presented to her by her friend "S" with this dedicatory verse:

"To Miss Sue
"Should joy's sweet garlands round thee bloom,
"And peace and gladness be thy lot
"Or sorrow shroud they wayward bloom,
"Still, fairest Sue, forget-me-not!"

Other friends, undoubtedly young and carefree, wrote sentiments to Sue full of alases, adieux and serious references to the sere leaf of life, the everlasting nature of friendship and goodness.

Still another treasure I intend to keep in defiance of my own preachments is my mother's autograph book. The relic of the generation after Grandma Sue's runs to more cynical verses such as:

"Fall from a horse and break your neck
"Fall from a mast upon the deck
"Fall to the earth from heaven above
"But never, never fall in love."

The album craze skipped my generation — or me anyway, but I understand from two 17-year-olds I know, Sandy Ross and Priscilla Torsleff, that it's right back in style again. Sandy's red leather, zippered book contains such inscriptions as "A circle is round and has no end. That's how long I'll be your friend."

Priscilla's is full of wise-crack "Yours till" inscriptions — "Yours till bobby pins get seasick from riding permanent waves," "Yours till the kitchen sinks," "— the fire escapes," and "—Niagara Falls."

And some day, I suppose, grandchildren will cherish these for their quaint charm!

It's slimming, it's young, it's cut to fit the short, fuller figure! No waist seams, no alteration worries—even the busiest homemaker can whip this up in record time. Choose a cool cotton print, sew this now—have it ready.

Pattern 4683: Half sizes 14½, 16½, 18½, 20½, 22½, 24½. Size 16½ dress, 4⅛ yards 35-inch fabric; bolero, 1⅝ yards.

Wife Ignores Query About Sick Hubby

But Neighbor Was Not Rude in Asking Cause of Illness

By EMILY POST

A letter tells me: "The other day I met a neighbor of mine on the street and asked her how her family was. She told me that her husband was ill and, when I asked her what was wrong with him, she completely ignored the question.

"I was quite embarrassed over this and have been wondering ever since whether I was wrong to ask the nature of his illness. I would appreciate your answering this question so that I won't make the same mistake again—if I did make one."

Answer: You didn't make a real mistake because it is the natural thing to say. To one you do not know intimately, the safest thing to say is, "I hope it is nothing serious," and then she would or would not tell you.

If she doesn't, you would not press the question further, but simply say that you hope he will be better soon.

Dear Mrs. Post: A little over a year ago my daughter was engaged. A notice was sent to the newspaper and a large engagement party was given. Two months later the engagement was broken.

She has been going with another young man for the past five months and a second engagement is imminent. I would like to know what to do about announcing it. Would it be proper to send another notice to the newspaper and give a party — or just what is best taste?

Answer: You may send an announcement to the newspaper and write letters to your family and intimate friends. If you would like to give a second party, I would advise you to keep it very small.

Dear Mrs. Post: I come from a large family and all of us are married and living in our own homes except one brother, who lives with mather and father. There are occasions when all of us contribute to a sum to be spent in buying a wedding present or flowers for a funeral.

Accordingly, we would like to make it clear they are from all of us. Mother has been writing "Mr. and Mrs. Blank and family."

Judging by some of the thank-you notes in return, I am quite sure the present is assumed to be from mother and father and my unmarried brother living with them. Will you suggest wording to make the situation clear?

Answer: Mr. and Mrs. John Blank and their sons and daughters.

Wrinkle-Free Pellon Is High Style News

Some high style silhouettes look as though they couldn't be sat in but are quite practical. They're interlined with yet another "miracle" fabric, pellon, which is not only non-crushable itself, but also prevents the outer fabric from becoming crushed.

Pellon is washable and is said to eliminate the need for ironing any garment in which it's used. This looks promising for fancy styles made of sudsable fabrics.

Telephone Duster

A cotton-tipped swab stick is a handy gadget for cleaning dust and smudges from the number plate of the dial telephone.

You can't enjoy a vacation if your feet hurt. Here are two versions of resort-into-summer play shoes which are as comfortable as sneakers but lots more flattering. Left, straw moccasin of natural-colored raffia with blue, red or tan trim; right, wedge sandal of multicolored or natural raffia. Both have lightweight cork and crepe rubber soles, are easy to keep clean, fun to wear.

Learn to Live With 'Office Politics'

By ANNE HEYWOOD

"The trouble with this place is it's full of office politics."

That is one of the common complaints on the part of the unsuccessful worker. I say unsuccessful because that kind of person is going to find "office politics" wherever she goes.

Nine times out of ten, she causes the trouble about which she complains heartily.

Mary Anne, L. Was a typical case.

In her late 20s, she had had a long series of secretarial jobs. She was attractive-looking, well-groomed and well-dressed, with excellent business skills.

But she simply did not understand how to get along with people—and so, instead of blaming herself, she kept insisting that each place she worked was "full of office politics."

"But one day," Mary Anne told me, "I realized that I was getting nowhere fast. Whether I liked it or not, I was going to have to learn to get along with 'office politics.' I had a talk with a wonderful old family doctor, and he gave me two pointers which worked like magic.

"First of all, he told me I must work as hard as I could every minute of the day.

"He said that 'office politics' is the work which Satan finds for idle hands, and that most cases cleared up immediately if you were too busy to have time for thinking about them.

"Second, he told me that when people said or did mean things, instead of concentrating on what they did, I should concentrate on why they did it. Sounds silly, but did it work!

"When the boss blew up and said unpleasant things, instead of being hurt I would turn my mind to the reason why. I found out he was going through a terrific emotional and financial upheaval with a daughter in Reno.

"Well," Mary Anne concluded, "I no longer have trouble with 'office politics.' I'm so busy, and so pleased with my improved work, that I feel better and hardly ever need to blow off steam myself.

"And by consciously trying to understand others, I no longer get bothered with the things they say or do. And believe it or not, they no longer say or do so many unpleasant things!

Tasty Sauce Over Shrimp Today's Dish

Mrs. Lynch Offers Different Idea for Friday Menu

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

If you have run out of ideas for what to serve on Friday, try this Shrimp with Rice as fixed by Mrs. Michael Lynch. It calls for canned shrimp but could be made with a pound of cooked fresh shrimp.

Mrs. Lynch has been a career woman and homemaker for some years. At present she is working only part time so that she is able to spend more time with her adored grandchildren. She is a member of her Altar Society and of the League of Catholic Women.

SHRIMP WITH RICE
By Mrs. Michael Lynch

1 large can tomatoes
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 large stalks celery
1 onion chopped
¼ green pepper chopped
Salt, pepper, sugar, butter for seasoning
Speck of soda
1 can mushrooms
1 or 2 cans cleaned shrimp
1 cup uncooked rice

Cook rice in boiling, salted water. Drain and place in casserole; keep hot. Put all ingredients except shrimp and mushrooms in sauce pan and boil down until celery is tender. Add shrimp and mushrooms and pour over hot rice. Serve with toast or wafers.

If you like food a little hotter, add some cocktail sauce to the tomato mixture.

Don't Make Senseless Sacrifices

Others Will Not Be Impressed by Your Useless Denial

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Joan is a pretty girl of 15. Always people have commented on her resemblance to her father. Because of this, Mr. B. has enjoyed the flattery she receives. So it's easy for her to cajole extra money from him for anything she wants.

Mrs. B. resents her extravagance and Mr. B.'s indulgence.

For two years she's refused to buy a new fur coat, though her old one is costly to keep in repair. She won't buy the orthopedic shoes she finds comfortable, preferring to complain about the cheaper ones that hurt her.

For neither the coat nor the shoes areas important to Mrs. B. as possessing excuses for the self-pity by which she can attack her family.

How foolish she is! Because the self-pity is utterly unproductive. It does not change extravagance and indulgence into economy and discipline. Its only result is impatient irritation in Joan and Mr. B.

That's because it's the bad kind of self-pity. It's infected with self-contempt. If we remove the self-contempt from Mrs. B.'s self-pity, we have a very respectable feeling indeed.

For example, genuine self-pity would send Mrs. B. right down to the store for the orthopedic shoes she needs. It would not permit her to suffer the pain that results from her cheap shoes. What holds on to the suffering is the poisonous element of self-contempt in her self-pity.

And I repeat, it gets her nowhere. It produces no effect on the extravagance and indulgence she resents; nor does it produce material results of a new coat and comfortable shoes.

Isn't it absurd? Yet many of us, quite unaware of what we're doing, allow ourselves to waste years of joy and self-respect in just this kind of idiotic, dead-end war against ourselves, our needs and our own interests.

If we are healthy people, we don't go in for ineffective attitudes. We want results from them.

So if we deny ourselves a coat we need, we do it for a purpose. We apply the money we would pay for it to the new rug we would enjoy more; or use our money to purchase music lessons for the daughter whose talent gives us delight.

We just don't waste time with the kind of self-contemptuous denial and complaining that make us sacrifice our needs for nothing but perpetual and humiliating defeat.

IF you like ribbons—

Ribbon-like trimmings appear big for spring. Swell for the doll-type, but the big girl wisely settles for wide sashes and corselet belts.

Miss L. R.—Insets of ribbon help achieve the round, feminine curve this spring. There's a flare for ribbon trimmings in satin on chiffon dress-up gowns and wide satin sashes and corselet belts on after noon and cocktail dresses.

No wonder men have better dispositions than women—they don't have to endure high heels, girdles and permanent waves.

Prairie grasses often grow to a height of ten feet.

Shellac Cookbook

To keep your cookbook covers looking new and fresh, give them a thin coating of shellac while they're new. Then you can wipe them off with a damp cloth whenever they need it.

Outstanding TV Stars Honored

Murrow, Eve Arden, Donald O'Connor Win Highest Awards

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Edward R. Murrow, Eve Arden and Donald O'Connor won the top awards of the Television Academy last night, but a pudgy English professor stole the show.

Murrow, who rose to fame with his broadcasts during the London blitz, was named the outstanding TV personality of 1953 by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Murrow's See It Now was also named the best news or sports program.

Miss Arden, the glamorous schoolmarm of Our Miss Brooks, was announced as the best female star of a regular series at the gala dinner in the Hollywood Palladium.

O'Connor, one of the comedians on the Sunday night Comedy Hour, the best male star.

None of the top winners was present. The biggest ovation went to Dr. Frank C. Baxter, University of Southern California professor who delivers Shakespearian lectures on KNXT. He won two local awards for the best public affairs program, and as outstanding male performer.

Continuing on a highbrow level, the academy named Omnibus as the best variety program over the shows of Sullivan, Jackie Gleason, Sid Caesar and others. The two most popular programs in the country repeated their wins of last year. I Love Lucy was selected the best situation comedy program, and tight-lipped Jack Webb's Dragnet scored as the best mystery, action or adventure program.

The other national awards or bests:

Dramatic program: U.S. Steel Hour.

Public affairs program: "Victory at Sea."

Children's program: Kukla, Fran & Ollie.

New program: Make Room for Daddy and U.S. Steel Hour (tie).

Supporting actor in a series Art Carney of the Jackie Gleason Show.

Audience participation, quiz or panel program This Is Your Life and What's My Line (tie).

Supporting actress of a series: Vivian Vance of I Love Lucy.

The TV academy awards are nominated by television editors throughout the nation and final selections are made by the academy's 550 members.

The bark of the giant Sequoia tree is not hard and tough, as might be expected. It is so soft as to be quite spongy, yet fire seems unable to penetrate it, while insects dislike it as much as insects powder. The tree's greatest enemy is man.

Freak Plane Accident Puts Officer in Hospital

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Capt. Charles O. Smyre, 32, was in critical condition at Camp Carson hospital early today from injuries suffered in a freak plane accident.

Smyre, a passenger in a T33 jet trainer piloted by Maj. Frank Dowell, was catapulted through the plane's canopy yesterday when the craft's automatic ejecting seat was fired accidentally. The accident occurred soon after the plane from Perrin Air Force Base in Texas landed here.

Texas had eight capitals before it was admitted to the Union as a state.

3 Descendants Honor Lincoln on His Birthday

NEW YORK (AP)—The 145th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth finds only three descendants—all great-grandchildren—to join in celebrating the day.

They are Robert Todd Lincoln Beckwith, his sister Mary Lincoln Beckwith, and Lincoln Isham. All are grandchildren of Robert Todd Lincoln, the only child of the Civil War President to reach maturity.

The Beckwiths are children of Robert Todd Lincoln's daughter Jessie. Robert Beckwith was born near Chicago but has lived most of his life in Vermont and in and around Washington, D. C.

From his mother he inherited a farm near Washington in Virginia. His wife reported, "we are trying to farm it and not doing too good a job."

Mary Lincoln Beckwith now lives in Manchester, Vt., in her grandfather's old summer home. Unmarried and in her early 50s, she now runs the estate as a farm.

She also paints in oil and watercolor and does "a little sculpture." Some of her works are in private collections, none in public galleries.

Lincoln Isham is the son of Robert Tod Lincoln's daughter Mary. He lives in New York City and Dorset, Vt. Reached at his home in Dorset, he thanked reporters for calling but declined to talk about himself.

None of the three have children, although Robert Beckwith has several step-children.

Carrier's Crew Cavorts, Collects Cash for Kids

TOKYO (AP) — Traditional Navy discipline was thrown out for 43 days aboard the carrier Yorktown.

Chief petty officers served breakfast in bed to sailors. One chief shined shoes. And a ship's officer played hide and seek with the crew. All for a price.

The $25,000 booty will be turned over to Shriners' crippled children's hospitals when the 3,000-man crew and their fighting ship return to the United States.

Mitchell Lauds Fight for Dam

Dem Praises Oregon Battle to Save Site in Hells Canyon

BAKER, Ore. (AP) — Stephen A. Mitchell, Democratic national chairman, told eastern Oregon residents last night they were to be congratulated for starting the fight to try to save the Hells Canyon site for a high federal dam.

Speaking at this eastern Oregon town within 100 miles of the site in the Snake River Canyon, Mitchell said the fight had prevented the Idaho Power Co. from pushing through quickly its plan to get the site for a low-head dam.

He said Secretary of Interior McKay was in the forefront of those who wanted to turn the site over to the Idaho Power Co.

The delay caused by the fight "has made it possible for the people to make their views known on Hells Canyon," he said at a dinner meeting sponsored by Democrats.

"The fight to save Hells Canyon is a spectacular recurrence of an age-old battle. It is the battle by the people to develop their natural resources for the greatest good of the greatest number for the longest period of time," he said.

The Hells Canyon site is now at stake in a hearing conducted by the Federal Power Commission in Washington.

Mitchell also aimed these remarks at the cattle and grain industry in this area:

"The recession now spreading across the country had its origin more than anywhere else in the livestock industry. The place to stop this recession was at its source. But all last year the Republicans came up with no sign of any program to check the fall in livestock prices. Instead all we got from Secretary Benson was Pollyana talk about how everything would be all right now."

Of the Republican farm policy he said, "Never perhaps has there been so much advance buildup for any plan with such a small content of new ideas."

Tokyo Coffee Expensive; Taste? Unrecognizable

TOKYO (AP)—Coffee high back home? Well, it's 30 cents a cup here, $2.24 a pound or $1.40 for a two-ounce jar of the instant type. If you pinch pennies, you can buy a cup of bitter, unrecognizable brew for 17 cents.

It Wasn't All Lettuce She Deposited in Bank

NEW YORK (AP) — Vice president Theodore Theban was making final plans for opening a branch office of his banking firm when there came an insistent rapping at the door.

Theban opened the door to find a woman carrying a shopping bag topped by a head of lettuce. But the bag wasn't all lettuce.

Insisting that she wanted to be the first to open an account, the woman dug under the lettuce and produced $11,500 in cash. She got her wish.

About 1¼ million people live in Russian-controlled East Berin.

Guidance Clinic Holds Banquet

Psychiatrist for Detroit Tells of Group's Value to Pontiac

Dr. Joseph Fischhoff told a Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic audience Thursday that "in the strength of the community lies the strength of the child guidance clinic."

Dr. Fischhoff, staff psychiatrist of Children's Center of Metropolitan Detroit, spoke at the agency's annual dinner-meeting in the Hotel Hollywood in Mount Clemens.

Some 90 men and women turned out for the address on "The relationship of a child guidance clinic to the community." Four new directors were named and eight re-elected.

New members of the board of directors are Rev. Malcolm K. Burton of First Congregational Church; Mrs. Frederick Ward, Pontiac; Mrs. Fred Nicholson, Center Line and Rev. Theodore Tuenge, Mount Clemens.

Re-elected were directors R. A. Ambrose, Mrs. Edward A. Proctor, Mrs. David Hicks, Dr. Milton Hathaway, John Ahrens, Harold LeFevre, William McCarthy and Mrs. Elgia Ward.

Dr. Fischhoff's talk, geared to the needs of a group of Mount Clemens people who hope to establish a new clinic there, stressed the clinic's dependence on the people of its community.

He emphasized that a clinic, to succeed, has to have the support and keen interest of judges, teachers, doctors, civic leaders and the people of its area. It must have at hand the health, recreation and family agencies to give the help that its child clients need.

The people must be willing to pay for clinic offices, secretarial help, and supplies for the social workers and psychologists supplied by the state of Michigan.

The people of Mount Clemens and the rest of Macomb County now use the Pontiac clinic, which had 268 youngsters on its case rolls last year—87 per cent of them from Oakland county.

In her annual report, Miss Madeleine Half, executive director, commented that the Pontiac clinic's expenses totaled some $40,000 in 1953—about $8,000 over the 1952 total. Increases, she said, went for the salaries of added staff people and for remodeling the new clinic quarters at 113 Franklin Blvd., Pontiac.

The child guidance clinics work with emotionally disturbed children.

KING-SIZED EGG—R. W. Barrow of 4634 Midland, Drayton Plains, is shown above with a king-sized egg laid recently by one of his Jersey White Giant hens. The egg weighs one quarter of a pound, is three inches long and 6¼ inches in circumference. Barrow, who was formerly employed at a chicken farm, said this is the largest egg he has ever seen produced by a hen.

McQuaid Hopes Measures Pass

Enactment of Proposals Would Eliminate Much Red Tape

Orrin McQuaid, Oakland County register of deeds, is watching two bills now in the Legislature that could save his office $3,000 a year.

The two bills, introduced this week by Fred G. Beardsley (R-Oxford) and other representatives, would modernize the handling of chattel mortgages.

Both bills were drafted by the Michigan Association of Registers of Deeds, of which McQuaid is president.

The first bill would let the register's office set up a card index instead of book index for chattel mortgages.

"Often, people lending money to buyers of cars, furniture or equipment will call and ask us to search our records to make sure mortgages are pai dup," McQuaid said. "Now, we have to search several sets of books—one for each year as far back as they want to check—and it takes a long time. The card index would let us search for any person's record for five years back in less than a minute."

The second bill would let loan companies discharge paid-up chattel mortgages without having to sign the book in which they are kept—a process which, McQuaid says, "keeps our staff tied up witnessing signatures and handling a lot of awkward procedure."

Under this bill, anybody discharging a chattel mortgage could do so by sending a written statement to the register of deeds office. The bill would also let loan companies with a group of mortgages paid off at one time discharge them all in a single statement, instead of making out a separate form for each one.

"If these bills are passed," McQuaid said, they'll save time and money in every register of deeds office in Michigan — particularly Oakland County, for we handle over 60,000 chattel mortgages a year."

Want to Lose Weight... Easy-Like?

Danger Foods Are Okay but Keep 'em Separated

By ELMER WHEELER

Chapter 15

Every day I learned something new about myself and what went into me.

I learned there were "danger foods" for fatties.

Take that dab of hotel butter sitting there in front of you while some slow waiter takes your order and goes away for a nice long visit with the chef in the kitchen. Soon that dab is gone. Comes another. Each counts 25 calories at least.

I soon learned hard butter is more fattening because it takes more to cover a slab of bread. So I used soft butter—a little spreads so much faster and farther.

In dieting, I didn't really drop any single food.

I merely varied them, but I kept certain "danger foods" apart, like you keep two scrappy friends apart in the same party.

I wouldn't go mixing French fries with bread and butter and spaghetti and applie pie and a Tom Collins.

I'd take any one in stride. But never all together. Bread and butter, a Tom Collins, doughnuts—all fine in their places, but keep them separated.

I found out one thing that helps in reducing, which is to make dramatic comparisons to drive home a caloric point.

For example:

When I knew that one slice of bread and butter has more calorie than a Scotch and soda, I thought a moment.

I found other comparisons, such as:

A sweet Tom Collins or Planter's Punch can have more calories than sirloin.

A bag of peanuts, a bottle of beer, a bottle of buttermilk have about the same number of calories.

A sandwich and a candy bar are about the same in calories.

A sandwich has more calories than a fillet. Five French fries equal one small Idaho baked potato ... or a glass of bonded bourbon or rye.

A glass of milk is the same as two Scotch and sodas—almost a bottle of beer.

Orange ice, if overly sweetened, can have more calories than vanilla ice cream.

Coffee with cream and sugar has more calories than a blend of bourbon or rye—the same as bonded bourbon.

Asparagus and celery have about the same low number of calories per stalk, 5 each.

Two pieces of fried chicken are the same as a whole roast chicken.

You can eat 2 scallops, shrimps or oysters (not fried) and not get any more calories than from one cracker or one French fry.

Black olives have less calories than green, since when they ripen some of the oil leaves them.

It's hard to gain weight on any vegetable—many dietitians say it is impossible. You can't hold enough.

A double-decker sandwich is often more fattening than an entire 89 cent blue plate luncheon, including the gelatin dessert.

A candy bar with nuts has as many calories as two bottles of beer.

A double orange juice is the same as a bottle of beer, two bonded bourbons or a small fillet.

You can drink nearly 12 cups of consomme (if you can hold 'em) and equal in calories just one man-size bowl of cream of tomato, or only a cup and a half of split pea soup.

Vegetables give the body the minerals needed in dieting, and fruits leave behind an "ash" needed to keep us going.

Often a touch of something sweet—I said a "touch"—helps you to end a meal properly.

It slows up digestion—makes you feel full longer.

The more I learned the faster I went down. But I found out one thing—that the more overweight I was the faster I went down at first, when the excess was going off.

But at 190 it is plenty hard to get rid of those other four pounds.

Those are the ones you fight for (if you're in the predicament I was in, with 186 as your goal).

Because by then you're naked of fat. Drained of excess H2O. You really have to hunt around to find just four more pounds of fat to take off.

But like I always said—I'll make it, Ma. I'll make it.

No, Cecil, smoke from cigars, pipes or cigarettes has no calories.

In fact, I hear tell smoke often stimulates your metabolism—thus burning up a calorie or two.

Next: Cold showers shed more weight than hot ones.

Insults, Hot Chase Liven Jap Committee Session

TOKYO (AP)—Tempers soared during a Parliament committee discussion today of scandal charges in Japanese financial circles.

Liberal Koichi Tabuchi and Progressive Shiro Nakano exchanged verbal insults. Suddenly Tabuchi leaped at Nakano and chased him down a corridor. Guards broke up the chase but the committee prudently turned the discussion over to a subcommittee while tempers cooled.

Detroit Council to Consider Reuther Proposals Monday

DETROIT (INS) — The Detroit Common Council is expected to begin study today of CIO President Walter Reuther's six-point program for easing Detroit-area unemployment.

Mayor Albert C. Cobo thought it unlikely, however, that formal action on any of Reuther's proposals, handed councilmen yesterday, would come before next week.

Reuther, at a public hearing yesterday, offered these recommendations:

1) A council resolution urging the State Legislature to act immediately to increase and extend jobless benefits.

2) A speedup of public works projects.

3) A resolution to Congress asking tax relief in the lower income brackets.

4) A request that Congress and the Legislature adopt a moratorium on debts and instalments levied against workers idled through "no fault of their own."

5) A liaison committee to speed defense work into the Detroit area, and

6) A request that industry join in asking a government task force, such as that which operated in 1951, to scale down idleness.

Meanwhile, Detroit Board of Commerce Secretary Willis H. Hall leveled a blast at the Reuther strategy.

Hall said he objected to the manner of presentation in that the common council had become a "sounding board for the CIO."

Reuther's recommendations were accompanied by a mass of data and statistics of the job situation, which councilmen said they will review today.

Arrest Fourth Youth in Grocery Breakin

A fourth Waterford Township youth has been arrested in connection with the Feb. 5 breakin of Easley's Super Market at 7611 Highland Rd., according to Waterford Township Police Chief Frank Van Atta.

Richard R. Riley, 17, of 2921 Marietta, Drayton Plains, was arrested Tuesday by Patrolmen Charles Whitlock and Millard Pender, after Riley was implicated in the breakin by three others already being held in Oakland County Jail.

Arrested earlier were Harvey Cooper, 17, of 2900 Deland; his cousin, Marvin Cooper, 17, of 2591 Helen Dr.; and Chris B. Hicks, 17, of 3040 Deland.

The four are accused of breaking in a front glass window of the super market and taking $9 in change, Van Atta said.

Reporter Gets Kidnap Scoop -- About Himself

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A newspaper reporter who started home for supper a few minutes early because it was a "dull evening" wound up writing his own kidnap story after being robbed and left gagged in a lonely wooded area near here.

Less than half an hour after reporter Bill Woolsey broke his bonds and called police from a farm home, two alert Nashville officers arrested two men and charged them with highway robbery.

Police identified them tentatively as Perry William Moore, about 33, and Joe Sicurella, about 30. Moore said he escaped from Kilby Prison in Alabama in November 1953 while serving sentence for highway robbery. However, Kilby officials said the man may be Earl Phillips, alias Oliver Earl Moore.

The kidnaping occurred in the parking lot of the Nashville Printing Corp., just behind the editorial and printing rooms. Woolsey, of the Nashville Tennessean, said he went to his automobile and "thought the two men were a couple of passers-by.

"The next thing I realized was that Moore had a gun in my ribs."

Woolsey said the men robbed him of $11 and spent part of it on adhesive tape which they used to bind him up.

Douglas Opposed to Soviet Satellites

CHICAGO (INS) — Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill), declared today that the U. S. should withdraw recognition from all Soviet satellite nations because of Communist Russia's deceit.

Douglas told International News Service he will introduce a resolution in the Senate Tuesday calling for just such severing of diplomatic recognition with the Kremlin-dominated countries.

The Illinois lawmaker added that the bill also will call for measures leading to the possible expulsion of those satellite countries that are members of the U. N.

Baby Says 'No' to Cereal Bowl, Emphatically

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Thomas J. Fehr, Salt Lake City, reports little success with his brand of child psychology.

When his 20-month-old son Russell threw his bowl of cereal on the floor, Fehr says he paddled him, filled another bowl and placed it before the infant. That went to the floor too, whereupon another paddling and another full bowl.

But Russell wasn't learning very fast. The third bowl, then the fourth too, went to the floor.

Fehr went out and bought a plastic bowl.

Bob Considine Says:

Comet Jet Not Only Plane Grounded During Infancy

NEW YORK (INS) — As sure as twenty minutes to four in the clock ads, the rap has been put on the British Comet jetliner and, inferentially, on all commercial jet travel "unsafe," etc.

Countless seasoned air travelers remember when the DC-3, now considered safe as the Fort Knox gold, was grounded because it had killed a senator and Carole Lombard. The Constellation, a dependable old flying rug today, was repeatedly grounded in its youth.

So, for a considerable time, was the great DC-6, and the workhorse Martin that evolved into the 404. Aeronautical engineers tell me the simple DC-3 underwent more revisions than any other plane in history.

The British lost a Comet over the island of Elba recently and BOAC clucked for similar models to come back to the nest for a look-see. This move indicated no discovery of something basically wrong with the craft. It was a routine precaution taken at times on both sides of the Atlantic.

Two French airlines continue to fly their Comets at full capacity. The Royal Canadian Air Force's pet transport is still its Comet. They are not alarmed by the welter of vague reports that the speed of the Comet over Elba "ripped its wings off," or "it exploded in mid-air" — a cliche which sufferers from myopia who believe they witness plane catastrophes have been using since the time of Santos DuMont and the Wrights.

The Comet is a remarkable airplane. Take it from one who has flown in same. It represents as much of a change from conventional air travel as, say, the jump from the cinder-laden steamcars of the early century to the swift, efficient beauty of the modern streamliner.

The Comet aircraft was in operation a year and eight months before the Elba accident temporarily grounded some of them. The model had racked up 30,000 hours, which translates into perhaps 15,000,000 miles. In all that travel there have been five accidents. In three of these no one was killed. The Comet will be back. And other jets, including our own, will be born, be reared and mature. And one day the air-minded traveler will wonder how he ever brought himself to travel any other way.

Seeking Robots Worth 3 Billion

Armed Forces Have Extensive Program for Guided Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The armed forces have received or are asking authority to buy more than three billion dollars worth of guided missiles, which they started procuring four years ago.

This is for actual procurement of missiles. It does not include other multimillion-dollar outlays for designing, developing and testing experimental gadgets—the research part of the program.

The figures, made available today in response to a reporter's questions, do not mean that the American arsenal now necessarily contains three billion dollars worth of missiles for the Air Force, Army and Navy.

An undisclosed part of the total value is material still to be delivered on orders placed some months or even a year or more ago. And another portion, about 400 million dollars in requests for new spending authority, is contained in the proposed budget for the fiscal year starting next July 1.

But it is a measure of the effort being devoted to producing robot weapons to augment and eventually supplant some of the conventional weapons of the three services. It is indicative, too, of the emergence of controllable missiles from the drawing boards and laboratories to production lines.

The Air Force has had the largest part of the funds authorized for missile contracts, about $1,268,000,000. It is giving major attention to medium and long range, surface-to-surface missiles. The Matador missile, with a range understood to be about 500 miles, has been in production for more than a year. A second missile, the Snark, with a range substantially greater, is approaching production stage.

The Army's share is close to that of the Air Force—about a billion dollars. Present major procurement by the Army is going to Nike antiaircraft guided missiles, the surface-to-surface Corporal and heavy field artillery, rocket designated as the Honest John. The Nike has been in mass production for more than a year.

The Navy has a share of 742 million dollars in the missile procurement program. It has in production several missiles including the Regulus, a surface-to-surface type to be used in firing from ships or from submarines. Also included are two antiaircraft missiles for defense of ships against enemy planes—the Terrier and Sparrow.

Cement Mixer Mangles California Truck Driver

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The condition of a truck driver who lost both legs after falling into a cement mixer was listed as critical today.

Warren J. Murray, 25, of Alhambra, had delivered a load of cement to the site of a new building yesterday. He walked to a location above the mixer, which was five feet below the surface of the ground. Somehow he lost his balance and fell in.

The blades chopped off one leg and the other had to be amputated at Santa Monica Hospital. He also suffered internal injuries and his right arm was mangled.

He braced himself with his arms for almost an hour while a fire department rescue squad worked with torches to cut him free.

Technicality Delays Vote

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — Eighteen proposed amendments to the city charter won't be on the April ballot because of a legal technicality. Mayor F. Joseph Flaugh said a special election on the amendments probably would be in early summer.

U. S. to Supply Pakistan Army

Announcement of Pact With Turkey Expected Within Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Diplomatic officials said today the United States has decided to give substantial military aid to Pakistan regardless of India's angry protests.

An American military survey mission, they said, will go to Pakistan to look over its armed forces and determine the amount and type of military equipment needed.

An announcement of the decision probably will be delayed until after Pakistan and Turkey sign a broad defense, economic and cultural agreement, these sources said.

The two countries are reported to be negotiating the pact secretly, with U.S. encouragement. The agreement is expected to be announced formally within a matter of days. Pakistan officials are said to be eager to conclude it before next Tuesday's important provincial elections, hoping an announcement would help Premier's Ali's party.

Any American move to arm Pakistan would be certain to provoke bitter objections from India's Prime Minister Nehru. He has been mobilizing Indian public opinion against any such American-Pakistan military tieup on the ground it would upset peace in Asia.

Top American State and Defense department leaders, after carefully weighing Nehru's views, are reported to have decided to go ahead with military aid to Pakistan. They are represented as concluding that any backing down by the United States now would reinforce India's position in Asia as a potential leader of a bloc of countries neutral in the contest between the Communist bloc and the free world.

Encouragement of the Pakistan-Turkey negotiations reflects belief that Nehru can object less to American arms aid if it goes to support an anti-Communist military alliance.

The Pakistan-Turkey agreement is looked upon as the nucleus for a larger Middle Eastern defense alliance which other anti-Communist countries, including India, would be invited to join.

Actress, Hubby to Live Separately in Mansion

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress M'liss McClure and her estranged hubby, oil executive Harry S. Rothschild, have signed an agreement by which they will live in separate parts of their $185,000 Beverly Hills mansion until her divorce suit comes up for hearing Feb. 19. Neither is to molest the other.

Miss McClure's suit alleges cruelty. She and Rothschild have been warring over occupancy of the home since they separated Jan. 4.

Runaway Boy Foiled in Well-Prepared Flight

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A 10-year-old runaway, who financed his well-planned trip by selling gum drops at the YMCA, got as far as the bus station last night.

Detectives found Charles Edward Ryon sitting in the station equipped with a BB gun for "protection," a Boy Scout water canteen and a sack of apples and bananas.

Craft Children Boarded Here

6 Youngsters of Family Living in Hearse Put in County Home

The six Craft children were bedded down and given hot meals at the Oakland County Children's Home last night after being returned from Detroit by county officials.

The youngsters — ranging in age from 2 to 15 — were turned over to county officials at Detroit police headquarters yesterday. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Craft, were released to appear in Juvenile Court Tuesday on neglect charges.

All eight had been living in an old hearse since being evicted from their home near Lake Orion in January. Their diet consisted mainly of milk and sandwiches.

Food and gasoline money had been furnished by the Oakland County Social Welfare Dept. The agency has been aiding the family since December.

Craft, 46, has been unable to find employment since the firm he was employed by closed last September.

According to William Moulton, Jr., superintendent of the county Children's Home, a home has been offered the family by a Saginaw man.

Craft and his wife, Elizabeth, 36, have been in Juvenile Court previously on neglect charges. After they failed to reappear as ordered when the case was continued, they were sought by authorities.

Detroit police located them and notified court officials, who ordered the pick-up.

Coal reserves of Alberta province in Canada are estimated to extend about 25,000 square miles. They comprise about 15 per cent of the world's known coal supply.

Britains' prewar colonial possessions comprised a combined total of 12,230,457 square miles. The Dominion of Canada accounted for about one-fourth of the total.

Deputy Register of Deeds Set to Enjoy Retirement

Miss Lola M. Parkins, long-time Oakland County deputy register of deeds, will be in Florida soon on the first lap of retirement after closing her 35-year career.

But the folks who work in the register's office at 1 Lafayette St. claim Miss Parkins' philosophy of goodwill has stayed on to make the place a pleasanter one.

"She has as many friends as anybody in public life in Oakland County," Orrin McQuaid, register of deeds, says.

"I've never heard anybody say anything but good of her or her work. She'll sure be missed around this office."

Miss Parkins, born and educated in Pontiac, lives at 194 Auburn Ave. Active in Central Methodist Church and its Wesleyan service group, she is an organizer of Pontiac Zonta Club and Pontiac Chapter, Omega Mu Sigma.

After graduation from Pontiac High School and a short stay at the old Monroe Body Co. then making wooden auto frames, she joined the register of deeds' office staff in May, 1919, as a clerk-typist. The office, which now has 17 workers who handle some 10,000 deeds, mortgages and other papers each month, was then a five-man operation snuggled into a room now occupied by probate court, in the courthouse.

LOLA M. PARKINS

Stanley Rogers, register of deeds in 1919, welcomed Miss Parkins. As voters put one person after another into the register of deeds post, Miss Parkins stayed on.

She served with Mrs. Lucille Avery Whitfield and Miss Mable Brondige, Republicans; Henry McGaughan, a Democrat; and for the last 15 years with McQuaid, a Republican. It was Miss Brondige's regime that saw her named deputy register of deeds 25 years ago.

When the office moved to the Lafayette Street building in 1942, Miss Parkins went along and settled down for the last 11 years of a life career.

"The place seems like home to me," she smiled.

"I have to be sold on a job to work at it — and I'm sold on this one.

"I enjoy the folks who come to the counter; and I've tried to help with their problems. People take a lot of your time, sometimes — but if they appreciate your help, it's worth it."

Calvin Seminary Professor Works to Revise Psalm

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Dr. Martin Wyngarden, Calvin Seminary professor, is working on a new translation of some of the Psalms of the Old Testament and one of his problems concerns the beloved twenty-third.

The wording "I shall not want" reportedly confused a child, Dr. Wyngarden said and consideration is being given to possible changes. One suggestion: "I am not in want."

Dr. Wyngarden said he and associates are assisting in the forthcoming Berkeley version of the Old Testament, a companion work to the Berkeley New Testament already in print.

Ten-Year-Old Vickey Fisher Sweeps Honors in Juvenile Class

EAST LANSING (AP) — Vickey Fisher, a petite 10-year-old from Cleveland is the 1st winner in the 3-day Midwestern Figure skating and dance championships.

Vickey was meticulous with required figures, then whirled away from the field in the free style routine to win the ladies juvenile class, the only championship of last night.

Most of the night skating was devoted to the routine of cutting down the bulky field of more than 130 skaters.

Lilie Seyfried of Colorado Springs, Colo., was 2nd and Marjorie Cram of Cleveland 3rd in the juvenile class.

In the ladies novice figure skating division Donna Abbott was 1st and Diana Lapp, both of Colorado Springs, 2nd to give them a good edge. Both still have to go into the free skating division.

6 Starved Deer Found

LANSING (AP)—Six starved deer have been found in the Mio area, game men reported today.

All the deer, found last week, were on private lands restricted against the hunting of fawns and does.

Elsewhere in the Lower Peninsula, the deer herd was reported in no trouble.

Pontiac's two parochial basketball teams wind up Suburban Catholic League competition tonight, but the circuit's spotlight will be focused on the Orchard Lake St. Mary-St. Benedict clash at Highland Park.

St. Michael's Shamrocks borrow Pontiac High's gymnasium tonight to entertain Ferndale St. James. Dales beat the Mikes, 35-30, in their last meeting, but both teams have identical 5-6 loop marks. Winner of the contest will clinch 3rd place in final conference standings.

Varsity game, scheduled for 8:30 p. m., will be preceded by a junior varsity tilt at 7 p.m.

St. Frederick, winner of four of its last six starts, goes to Hazel Park to meet winless St. Rita in the Rams' final game of the season.

St. Mary's hopes for a 2nd straight SCL crown rest on the outcome of its crucial game with St. Benedict. If the Eaglets can surprise the undefeated Ravens, it will force a special playoff game for the title.

Orchard Lake won last year's championship under similar circumstances, defeating Royal Oak St. Mary in an extra playoff game.

Eaglets' only loss to date was a 33-32 decision to St. Benedict last month. Poles outshot the Ravens from the floor in that contest, but lost the game on free throws.

If an extra game is needed, it will be played on Tuesday. SCL's champion will meet the winner of the West Side division in 1st-round playoff for the Catholic League title on Feb. 21.

Ski Conditions Are Poor Here, Excellent Up North

Pontiac area ski enthusiasts will have to head north for good conditions this weekend.

Some base is present on the north slopes at Teeple Hill in the Highland Recreation area, but Pontiac Ski Club officials label the conditions as "poor." There may possibly be one tow in operation this weekend.

Elsewhere in the state, however, excellent conditions prevail with big weekends planned at Grayling and Alpena. Annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival is slated, highlighted by the selection of "Miss Michigan Winter Queen."

Peggy Bowman's Pontiac Skating Club also will appear in exhibition.

At Alpena, the 20th annual winter carnival and state outdoor speed skating championships are scheduled. Senior events in the interclub ski meet are at tap at Caberfae near Cadillac.

Conditions are excellent at Grayling, Caberfae, Snow Valley, Waters Ski Village and Otsego Ski Club. Skyline, Griswold Mountain, Sheridan Valley, Pioneer Hills, Avalanche, Boyne Mountain and Mt. Mancelona.

Ogemaw Hills, Snowsnake Mountain, Briar Hill, Hickory Hills, Holiday Hills and Missaukee Mountain report good conditions, while skiing at the AuSable Ski Bowl is only fair.

Deep Outfield Fence Doesn't Worry Gordon

'Greenberg Gardens' to Be Eliminated at Forbes Field

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have given up on Greenberg Gardens, their shortened left field barrier. But that doesn't worry Sid Gordon, who figures to carry much of the Bucs' batting load this season.

"There's no doubt that it'll cut out some of those cheap home runs," he said today, "but the guys who hit the long ball like myself shouldn't be affected too much."

The left field fence at Forbes Field will be 365 feet from home plate this season as compared with 335, the measurement since 1947.

Gordon, who was traded to Pittsburgh last December for Danny O'Connell in a six-player deal, was strictly an outfielder with Milwaukee last season. But he hopes Manager Fred Haney will give him a chance to play third base.

The Cincinnati Redlegs became the first major league club to sign its entire 1954 roster by coming to terms with pitchers Frank Smith and Clyde King. General Manager Gabe Paul said this was the earliest the club ever had brought every player in line.

Others to sign were shortstop George Strickland pitcher Dave Hoskins of the Cleveland Indians, infielder Pete Suder of the Philadelphia Athletics, catcher Stan Lopata of the Philadelphia Phillies, infielder Jerry Coleman of the New York Yankees, outfielder George Shuba and catcher Rubo Walker of Brooklyn, infielders Bob Hofman and Davey Williams of the New York Giants, outfielder Harry Elliott of the St. Louis Cardinals and rookie pitcher Paul Menking of the Chicago Cubs.

In other baseball news, Milwaukee southpaw Chet Nichols was mustered out of the Army and will report to the club in Bradenton, Fla., at the end of the month; the New York Giants revealed that infielder Daryl Spencer will be inducted into the Army at Wichita, Kan., Feb. 15; and veteran catcher Steve Lembo announced his retirement from organized baseball.

One of the evening's best singles test saw Bob Kent of Cigarette Service defeat Lloyd Syron of Newberry Market, 21-19, 24-26 and 22-20. Stewart's Ruth Saunders edged Carol Ryan of Furtney, 21-18 and 21-19, and Howard Heckman, Barbers, beat Dan Murphy, Varnish, 21-17 and 21-19.

Ashenfelter Will Shoot for Wilt's 2-Mile Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — Horace Ashenfelter will make an all-out assault on the world indoor two-mile record at the New York Athletic club games tomorrow night.

Ashenfelter wouldn't exactly promise to break Fred Wilt's mark of 8:50.7, but he said he'll make a real good try at it.

Kentucky Won't Accept Bid to NY Invitational

NCAA Is Tourney for Wildcats, With Stars or Without

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky squelched speculation today that it might take a shot at the National Invitation basketball tournament, where its big three scoring punch would be welcomed.

At the same time, however, the nation's No. 1 cage power kept itself in contention for the NCAA playoffs—with or without the men who have been mainly responsible for its lofty perch.

Athletic Director Bernie Shively said Kentucky has entertained no thought of asking the Southeastern Conference to waive its rule limiting member schools to participation in the NCAA. Kentucky is not interested in the NIT.

It was too early, Shively said, to answer all the questions involved in tackling the tough NCAA.

Coach Adolph Rupp was unable to answer those questions either, but he felt the school hasn't abandoned hope that its top stars can take part in the NCAA.

All America Cliff Hagan, Frank Ramsey and Lou Tsioropoulos will have won their bachelor degrees before the NCAA playoffs and presumably will be ineligible under a rule disqualifying graduate students.

Asked if he personally would like to undertake the NCAA without Hagan, Ramsey and Tsioropoulos, Rupp said that depended on whether three ailing players mend sufficiently soon enough.

Jerry Bird, Willie Rouse and Hugh Coy have been shelved most of the season but have been taking some practice shots recently. They were considered key men before the season opened.

Kentucky first must win the SEC crown to get into the NCAA, and since the Wildcats and Louisiana State dominate the conference a playoff between the two is considered a near certainty.

NIT Group Eyes Selvy, Bevo

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Invitation Tournament, competing with the National Collegiate Basketball Championships for the best college teams, has lost two battles but it may win the war yet by capturing the nation's highest scorers.

NIT hopes of landing Kentucky, the nation's top-ranked team and one of the two undefeated teams, were smashed last night when Athletic Director Bernie Shively said Kentucky would not ask the Southeastern Conference to waive its rule against NIT competition.

At about the same time as Shively's announcement, New York University won a 75-63 victory over Manhattan, the committee's last hope as an outstanding local attraction. Manhattan's record is now 11-8 while NYU is 7-7 and St. John's of Brooklyn only 7-8 even after nipping Richmond 62-59 last night.

Lacking a strong local team as an attraction, the NIT could solve its problems with Furman's Frank Selvy and Bevo Francis of Rio Grande, who between them will hold just about every collegiate scoring record by tournament time next month.

Selvy last night scored 51 points in Furman's 114-67 romp over Georgia Tech, running his 2½-year career total to 2,097.

Little Rio Grande has no technicalities barring it from the NIT but Furman would be bound to play in the National Collegiate Championships if it wins the Southern Conference tournament March 4-6. If the Southerners lose out, they'd have to get conference permission to accept an NIT bid. It's known the NIT has a bid all ready.

The NIT gained its third team yesterday when Dayton, with a 19-5 record in tough competition, accepted a bid. Duquesne, ranked just behind Kentucky as the nation's only other undefeated team, and Western Kentucky came in to the fold previously.

Boys' Clubbers Down Auto Five in 'B' Contest

Elks Beat Walled Lake Merchants in Exhibition Thursday Night

Boys' Club edged Oliver Buick, 53-51, last night for its 7th victory in nine City Class B Basketball League starts.

BC pulled away from a 23-all halftime deadlock to lead, 44-35, at the end of the 3rd period. Bill Buck led the winners with 16 points, but Oliver's John Shanks took game honors with 19.

George Feldman collected 18 points and teammate George Smith added 14 toward a losing cause as Walled Lake Merchants bowed to Elks Lodge No. 723, 53-50, in a "B" exhibition game. Joe Jenkins paced the Elks with 14 points.

OLIVER	12	10	12	16—51

2 Wolverine Gridders Sign With Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Two University of Michigan football players—end Gene Knutson and tackle Jim Balog—signed National Football League contracts Thursday with the Green Bay Packers. Knutson, a 225-pounder, was a defensive specialist until last fall when he became a two-way operator. He was the Packers' 10th draft choice. Balog, who weighs 220 pounds, was signed as a free agent.

Good Fishing Seen in State This Weekend

LANSING (AP)—Ice fishing conditions should be good in all areas of the northern Lower Peninsula this weekend, the state conservation department said today.

Road conditions were good. Most side roads were open but slippery.

Pike spearing was generally fair to good. Best pike reports came from Fletcher Floodwaters, Dunkin Bay, Thunder Bay River in Cheboygan county and Houghton, Cadillac, Little Glen, Leelanau and Missaukee lakes.

Smelt fishing was fair to good at Crystal, Portage and Cheboygan lakes and on the south arm of Lake Charlevoix.

Some lake trout were being taken from Walloon, Elk and Higgins Lakes. Pan fishing was fair to good in most areas.

Class D Loop Star Minor Batting King

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Russell H. Snyder, 19-year-old rookie outfielder with the McAlester, Okla., club of the Class D Sooner State League, is the 1953 minor league batting champion.

National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues announced today that Snyder's .432 average won for him the silver bat which goes annually to the minor league hitting champion, as well as the trophy for being the best rookie batsman of the year.

Snyder, who hits left and throws right, played in 138 games, and in 556 times at bat made 240 hits, scored 137 runs and batted in 84.

Stahley Jumps From 'Frying-Pan' to 'Fire'

MOSCOW, Idaho (UP)—J. Neil Stahley, backfield coach for the last place Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League, today took over as head coach of the equally flat University of Idaho as the Vandals tried to get back into Pacific Coast Conference competition.

Stahley, who was signed Thursday, is leaving a club that compiled an 0-8-1 mark in the Eastern Conference of the NFL to coach one that won a single contest last season.

Phillies Deny Offers for Cubs' Shortstop

CHICAGO (AP) — Philadelphia Phillies have denied a report that they are weighing an offer from the Chicago Cubs to trade infielders Roy Smalley, Bill Serena and Eddie Miksis for shortstop Granny Hamner.

Chicago Tribune said the Cubs have made such an offer to Philadelphia.

"I'm sure the Cubs would like to make such a trade," a club spokesman said in Philadelphia, "but it's just another one of those rumors and there's nothing to it."

Unconstitutional?

Bill Offers Leases on Great Lakes Land

LANSING (AP)—A second attempt is being made in the legislature to take away from the people of the state thousands of acres of public hunting and fishing lands.

First attempt was buried in a proposed new codification of marine laws last year. This was soundly defeated when sportsmen took an active interest.

This year the attempt is being made in a separate bill sponsored by Rep. Gerald W. Graves (R-Alpena).

Bill ostensibly would clear the title of land that property owners have built out into the great lakes.

But it goes farther than this. It would permit adjoining property owners anywhere along the great lakes and connecting waters to get a 99-year lease on the marsh and submerged lands in front of their property.

Under the lease which is tantamount to an outright deed, the owners could then exclude the public from their new property.

As the law now stands, all submerged and marsh lands along the longest shoreline of any state in the nation belongs to the people.

Despite this law, there have been widespread infringements.

Charles Millar, chief of the lands division of the conservation department, says he believes the titles of this kind of property should be cleared up. The public has lost the use of the land anyway, so no great harm would be done, he says.

But in a detailed analysis of the bill he has made, he questions whether it is even constitutional to give away the millions of acres of undeveloped lake edge land.

Washington Ties for SJHL Lead

Washington handed Waterford its 6th consecutive setback Thursday afternoon, 37-23, to move into a tie for the Suburban Junior High league lead with idle Eastern.

Coach Em Ghianni used 12 players against Waterford, with 10 of the dozen entering the scoring column. Bob Peckheiser led the Braves with 10 points, while Lynn Salathiel had 10 for the losers.

Third-place Jefferson dumped Lincoln, 37-25, in another SJHS contest. Larry Peet paced the Jeffs with 17 points, and Jim Maggard and Dave Diehm had eight apiece for Lincoln.

Ruel Unworried About Branca Holdout Report

DETROIT (AP)—Herold D. (Muddy) Ruel, Detroit Tigers general manager, isn't worried about coming to terms with pitcher Ralph Branca.

Ruel commented on a New York report which said that the big righthander Detroit obtained from Brooklyn last year had rejected a 1954 contract. The general manager said he was "not at all apprehensive" and was still discussing terms with Branca.

He predicted that Branca would sign a contract before long.

Branca was reported yesterday to be on his way to Florida. Ruel said this sounded "encouraging" since Tiger batternen have been ordered to report at Lakeland, Feb. 22.

Branca won four and lost seven while pitching for Detroit last year. He had an earned run average of 4.15.

200 Skaters Expected for Test at Alpena

ALPENA (AP)—With weather conditions ideal, some 200 of Michigan's finest speed skaters vie for titles in the state championships tomorrow and Sunday on Alpena's six-lap track.

Race officials say several new marks may be written into the record books with the temperatures ranging from 15 to 20 degrees and the ice in the very best of condition.

All eyes will be on Barbara Marchetti DeSchepper and Bob Snyder of Detroit who will be out to repeat in Senior Women Class A and Senior Men Class A divisions respectively.

Barbara hasn't lost a Michigan meet in three years and the experts agree she should repeat again as Michigan champion.

Big Names in Field

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Big names were in the field today in tune-up rounds for the $3,000 36-hole Laredo Open.

Heading 69 pros and 25 amateurs were Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., former National Open champion; Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Ed (Porky) Oliver of Palm Springs, Calif. Play starts tomorrow.

Black, Vejar Dated for April Encounter

CHICAGO (AP) — Welterweights Jed Black and Chico Vejar, who fought to a blistering 10-round draw in Chicago Stadium Wednesday night, will meet in a rematch at the Stadium sometime in April, Truman Gibson, International Boxing Club secretary, said today.

Gibson intimated that the encore, again to be carried on television nationally, probably would be within three weeks after Bobo Olson's middleweight title defense against Kid Gavilan in the Stadium April 2.

Giambra Is Rated Favorite Over Scortichini on TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Giambra isn't taking Italo Scortichini lightly even if he is a 3-1 favorite to win the telecast Madison Square Garden 10-rounder tonight.

The handsome, 22-year-old Buffalo, N. Y., middleweight contender thought he was in for an easy evening when he went down to Miami to box Bobby Dykes a month ago. What happened still has Co-manager Tex Sullivan pulling hair from his thinning crop.

Dykes outpointed Giambra and snapped Joey's 11-fight, 16-month winning streak. The loss dropped the former shoeshine boy from fifth to eighth in the rankings and cost him a lucrative shot with Joey Giardello, the current No. 2 contender.

"I'll be out to win 'em one by one from now on," said Giambra grimly. "Scortichini held Carmen Basilio to a draw last month and that's a good enough recommendation for him."

Scortichini claims that he has just become accustomed to the American way of fighting after a year of campaigning here.

On form, the rapid-firing long-armed Giambra should poke holes in the swarming Scortichini. Joey stands 5-11 to Italo's 5-7. Giambra has stopped 21 of his 40 rivals. His record is 36-3-1.

The bout will be broadcast ABC) and telecast (NBC) coast to coast at 10 p.m., EST.

Lady Golf Pros Pick Committee

Rift in LPGA Healed by Selection of Babe, Berg, Suggs

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Peace returned today to the Ladies Professional Golf Association after a new tournament committee was selected to replace one chosen only three weeks ago.

Tow dozen members of the association agreed at a meeting last night to a new committee composed of Babe Zaharias, Patty Berg and Louise Suggs. They succeed Betsy Rawls, Marilyn Smith and Betty Jameson.

Mrs. Zaharias, president of the group, was opposed to any sort of tournament committee, with prejudice toward no members.

Members of the new committee and Mrs. Jackie Pung walked out of the meeting but later were persuaded to return and the selection followed.

A set of by-laws drawn up by Miss Rawls, Miss Jameson and Betty MacKinnon was presented for adoption and will be circulated among members. Initialing the by-laws will mean adoption.

Time Will Tell Whether Baltimore Will Receive Orioles in Manner That Milwaukee Took to Braves

BY GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—What will happen to the new club members in the National and American leagues this season? The time will soon be at hand when we'll get most of the answers. Milwaukee has a year's jump on Baltimore and it is still a question of how much early frenzy has disappeared. We don't believe much of it has.

Coming up from 7th place to finish 2nd was quite a stunt. Unless miracles happen, the Braves can't crowd out the Dodgers. And they will have a rugged battle ahead to beat the Cardinals and the Phillies, both of whom should be better than last year.

The addition of Danny O'Connell and Bobby Thompson are sure to help the Braves. Can Eddie Mathews have another such year? Why not? Why shouldn't he be better at 23 than he was at 22?

O'Connell is a coming star. Every Pirate I've seen is all for him at second, short or third. But he can't make up the difference in the return of Don Newcombe to the Dodgers. A start pitcher is worth any two stars.

Baltimore is not a new baseball city. It goes back to the years of the Orioles—John McGraw, Johnny Doyle, Willie Keeler and the others who helped to make baseball history 60 years ago. Baltimore hasn't forgotten this tradition.

The Maryland metropolis knows what it has inherited—big-league franchise. That is all that Baltimore has been struggling for these many years.

What does a big-league franchise mean? It means a chance to see the best in the game at work or play. There is a big place in baseball for a minor leaguer—but the big leaguer is the final goal.

It must be admitted that there is a wide gap between the Orioles and the Yankees. But in a few short years the gap can be different: It must be admitted that for 1954 Baltimore doesn't belong with the Yankees, Indians, White Sox and Red Sox, but the fans back of the Orioles can help a lot. They will give the team a lift.

Baltimore is getting ready to give their team a chance. I already have seen bets made that the Orioles would outdraw five teams in the American League next season. Bets have been made against Chicago, Cleveland and Boston—even Detroit, possibly the best of all baseball towns.

Leaders Will Be Honored

Banding of Ivy Loop Schools for Pure Amateurism May Be Pattern for Future

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight of the East's leading universities, most of which were playing football long before the game was known west of the Mississippi, have turned their collective backs squarely on the high-pressure aspects of the sport and are returning it to the students, where it always belonged.

This might be heresy, but we have a strong feeling that the members of the newly formed Ivy League are establishing a trend which will within the next 10 years be widely fel throughout the country. Few who are willing and able to view the problem objectively do not agree that college football has gotten pretty well out of hand.

Members of the Eastern group have proved that it is possible to play a schedule without holding spring practice. They now are setting out to prove that it still is possible to play and enjoy the game without combing the hills for talent or awarding athletic scholarships. It is an idea which we believe will catch on.

We recently got dragged to a high school basketball game in our town and wound up enjoying it a lot more than the last one we saw at Madison Square Garden between the tallest and most highly paid goons in the world. What the high schoolers lacked in ability they more than made up in effort, and the girl cheer leaders were better to look at than Garden cops.

Being normally skeptical about college football, we suggested to a man who is close to the Ivy League that the coaches still would find ways and means of providing scholarships for halfbacks who can run and ends who can catch. After all, we pointed out, such old institutions as these have over the years accumulated many fine scholarships which must be awarded to somebody.

"Sure, it still will be possible for a good football player to get one," our friend conceded, "but when he does it will be because he can prove he is a better academic prospect than any of the other candidates.

It has become popular over the rest of the country to make jokes about the kind of football they play in the Ivy schools. The time will come when the eight college presidents who dared to put the game in its proper place will be honored for their courage and foresight.

Kalamazoo Tests Unbeaten Lansing Sexton '5' Tonight

By LLOYD NORTHARD

DETROIT (UP) — Kalamazoo Central, 5-time state Class A high school basketball champion, should get a good line on its title chances tonight when it invades Lansing to battle unbeaten Lansing Sexton.

Coach Bob Quiring's Kalamazoo quintet dropped two of its 1st four starts this season, including a loss to Sexton.

But those who have followed the basketball fortunes of Kalamazoo are quick to point out that the schools' early-season record doesn't mean a thing. Kalamazoo has a talent for hitting its peak around tournament time.

Kalamazoo is currently working on a six-game winning streak and has already turned the tables on Ypsilanti, the other team which administered a defeat.

Lansing Sexton, which has rolled up a dozen victories without a loss, should be able to preserve its perfect record until the March tournament if it can get past Kalamazoo.

There are only two other Class A teams that compete in the tournament which can still boast unblemished marks. They are Highland Park and Ferndale.

Both see action tonight. Highland Park goes after its 10th victory at Wyandotte. Ferndale, winner of 10 in a row, entertains Port Huron.

Fine Tourist Season

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's tourist industry is having a banner winter season, the director of the state tourist council said today.

"Every one of the 38 winter sports centers reports it is having a fine season," Robert J. Furlong said.

Bevo Far Ahead of Rival Scorers

Rio Ace Setting Pace for Small College Stars With 48.9 Average

NEW YORK (AP) — Remember when "point-a-minute" meant a high-scoring basketball team? This season a lot of small colleges could average that much using only two on the bench.

Statistics released today by the NCAA Service Bureau show 60 players averaging 20 points or more in games through Feb. 6.

Bevo Francis, of course, tops the list with a whopping 48.9 in 19 games. Back of the Rio Grande flash are Vince Leta of Lycoming with 31.5 and Clarence Burks of St. Augustine's with 30. Bill Warden of North Central with 29.7 and Ralph Bacote of St. Paul's Poly with 29.5 are very much in the battle for the runner-up spot.

The individual scoring has taken a terrific jump over a year ago when only 29 players were at the 20-plus mark this late in the campaign and only three were averaging as many as 27. Nine are the 27-and-over pace this winter.

It's Time Out!

Signs Bengal Contract

DETROIT (UP)—Outfielder Rufus Crawford signed his 1954 contract Thursday to become the 29th Tiger to come to terms for the coming season.

The 25-year-old recruit was obtained from the St. Louis Browns in 1952 for Cliff Mapes, Neil Berry and cash. He spent last season at Buffalo, where he hit .242.

10,500 Crowd Expected to See Saturday Battle

Indiana Boasts Edge on Purple in Nearly All Departments

CHICAGO (AP)—On paper Indiana should breeze through Northwestern at Evanston tomorrow night in one of the Big Ten's basketball features—but it may not be that easy.

Wildcats, breaking a five-game losing streak in defeating Ohio State Monday, 89-71 for their 2nd conference victory in eight starts, plan to make it hot for the Hoosiers. A capacity crowd of 10,500 at McGaw Memorial Hall will be screaming for an upset.

But all odds point heavily to the Hoosiers, unbeaten in eight Big Ten games. They are 2nd in conference in field goal accuracy hitting .383 per cent of their shots. Northwestern has a .331 mark.

Indiana has hit .660 per cent of its free throws to the Wildcats' .636, and is averaging 8.6 points per game to Northwestern's 66. Hoosiers have limited opponents to a 69.2 average, while the Cats have a slight edge in this defensive department by yielding 68.8.

Indiana's 6-10 center, Don Schlundt continues at a record scoring pace with a 30.2 average well over the all-time average of 26 set by Iowa's Chuck Darling. Illinois' John Kerr also is ahead of the record scoring average, with 27.7.

Northwestern's top scorer is Frank Ehmann with 17.7. He is ranked 9th in the conference, just behind another Hoosier star, Bob Leonard who has 17.8.

Northwestern takes on Indiana after the Hoosiers racked up one of their top scoring efforts of the season, a 90-77 victory over Minnesota Monday. Schlundt flicked in 36 points against the Gophers including 14 consecutive free throws for a Big Ten record.

Indiana was just as heavily favored in its two games with Northwestern last season. But the Wildcats nearly beat the champions, being edged 88-84 and then 90-88 in overtime.

Iowa currently leads the Big Ten in field goal percentage with .395, while Ohio State has dropped to 3rd with .382. Wisconsin is 1st in free throw percentage with .688 followed by Ohio State with .681 and Illinois with .680.

In other Big Ten games tomorrow, Illinois (5-3) is at Wisconsin (4-3), Iowa (7-1) at Minnesota (6-2) Michigan (2-5) at Ohio State (2-7), and Michigan State (3-5) at Purdue (1-8).

Mascot Helps Bruins

BOSTON (AP)—Maine gov. Burton M. Cross presented the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League with "Bruin Jr."—a seven-foot mounted bear—last night and the stuffed mascot went right to work as a good luck charm.

Boston had dropped seven straight games to Detroit, but pulled out a 1-1 tie with the Red Wings to boost their slim fourth-place margin over New York to two points.

Kerbawy Labels Canadian Football 'Token Nuisance'

DETROIT (UP)— General Manager Nick Kerbawy of the Detroit Lions said today Canadian teams, despite their lucrative offers to United States players, are nothing more than a "token nuisance" to the National Football League.

"Sure, the Canadian teams are going to get a few of our top players," Kerbawy conceded. "But they aren't financially capable of becoming anything more than a token nuisance."

He said "the stadia in Canada are small—generally around 25,000 seats—and gate receipts aren't sufficient to accommodate many high priced players."

Kerbawy also pointed out that Canadian-born players are becoming indignant about "working for peanuts while a handful of United States players get the gravy."

He termed as "Canadiann propaganda" reports that NFL teams are discouraging American college stars from negotiating with Dominion teams by threats.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

CASE—The Board System.

Best for Short Bowlers—If you are small in stature, 5 feet 4, to 5 feet 8, the board method of ball delivery is suggested.

Being built "close to the alley" is a natural advantage because it enables you to pick a target board and roll your ball over it consistently. Remember that control results from regulated speed, which comes with smooth footwork.

Concentrate on swinging the arm through to a full reach, as Cleveland's Eddie Koepp, a mighty mite, is doing in the action sketch. Notice he makes no effort to pitch the ball out over the foul line. Nor does he twist his wrist to put a lot of unnecessary stuff or hook turn on the ball.

He releases the ball, instead, on the foul line, continuing the arm straight on for direction. Swing is the thing. Swing for smoothness; reach for control.

Pontiac Swimmers Test Flint Central

Pontiac High's swimming team is in Flint this afternoon seeking to avenge an earlier season 2-point loss to Central's Indians.

Today's varsity test, scheduled for 4 p.m. was to have been preceded by a junior varsity meet.

After today's meet, Chiefs have only two more dual tests left before the Saginaw Valley Conference relays on March 5 at Flint. Coach Des Boyce's squad travels to Bay City on Feb. 19 and to Plymouth for a non-league match on Feb. 24.

Chiefs have won two of eight starts this season.

Oldtimers Schedule Box Social Saturday Night

Pontiac's Oldtimers Baseball Association will hold its Valentine Box Social Saturday night, starting at 9 p.m. at the VFW Hall, 396 South Saginaw St.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to outfit an 8-team midget baseball league in the City Recreation program this summer.

Dancing will follow the box social.

No Union Tilts Played

Two scheduled games failed to materialize in the Oakland County UAW-CIO Basketball League last night. Milford CIO won a forfeit from Local 653 No. 2, and a 2nd game was canceled.

Home Contests Mark 28-Game Card

BY JACK SAYLOR

Plenty of prep basketball action is available in the Pontiac vicinity tonight as a number of home games are carded on the 28-game schedule in the Oakland County area.

Pontiac High is idle, but St. Mikes will utilize the PHS gym for its game against St. James. Other teams in action on their home courts are Waterford, Walled Lake, Birmingham, Ortonville, Troy, Clarkston, Milford and Holly.

Waterford hosts Southfield and Walled Lake entertains Farmington in Inter - Lakes League games; Birmingham is at home to Hazel Park in an Eastern Michigan contest; Ortonville faces Mayville in a South Central tilt, and Troy has an Oakland B date with Fitzgerald.

Clarkston plays Brighton, Milford has Northville and Holly is against Keego Harbor, all Wayne-Oakland League encounters.

Besides Keego, other clubs who venture from home are St. Freds (at St. Rita), Avondale (at Clawson), Lake Orion (at Romeo), Oxford (at Lapeer), and OL St. Mary (at St. Benedict).

Several of the area's best winning streaks are in peril. Orchard Lake has won six straight, but bumps into an unbeaten team in St. Bens. Ferndale's perfect 10-game string doesn't appear to be in too much danger against Port Huron.

Northville, with six in a row, should have its hands full at Milford. Rochester (7 straight) is idle and Troy will be favored to run its streak to seven against Fitzgerald.

Clarkston and Utica defend five-game victory strings against Brighton and Lakeview, respectively and Ortonville takes a bead on Mayville's 6-game winning streak.

With only two weeks of play remaining prior to district tournament time, only three leagues have come close to deciding their champions. Rochester needs only to beat either Oxford or Lake Orion to clinch its 3rd straight Tri-County flag.

Troy, with a 2-game bulge and four to play, seemingly has ended Roseville's reign in the Oakland B; and Ferndale, with a 2-game edge and three to go, has the EML all but sewed up.

Ties already exist or are possible in five other county area conferences. Most won't be decided until the final night of play. OL St. Mary could tie St. Benedict for the Suburban Catholic lead tonight, which ends the regular SCL season.

Southfield and Farmington share the Inter-Lakes lead; Clarkston and Milford are close behind Northville in the W-O; Warren and Utica are knotted in the Bi-County; and New Haven is right on Brown City's heels in the Southern Thumb.

Tonight's schedule:

Southfield at Waterford; Farmington at Walled Lake; St. James at St. Mikes; St. Freds at St. Rita; Berkley at Van Dyke; Oxford at Lapeer; Lake Orion at Romeo; Keego Harbor at Holly; Brighton at Clarkston; Northville at Milford; Avondale at Clawson; Fitzgerald at Troy; Roseville at Madison; Hazel Park at Birmingham; Port Huron at Ferndale; Mt. Clemens at East Detroit; Mayville at Ortonville; Millington at Imlay City; MSD at North Branch; Lakeview at Utica; Center Line at Warren; South Lake at Eastland; New Haven at Almont; Brown City at Bryden; Memphis at Capac; Monroe at Royal Oak; Hartland at South Lyon; OL St. Mary at St. Benedict.

BATTLE STRATEGY—Ortonville High School has fallen from the lofty cage heights it has enjoyed for the past several seasons, but the Blackhawks still hope to do some upsetting before the season is over. Tonight Max Berry's quintet will try to upend Mayville, the South Central Conference leader, and possessor of a 6-game winning streak. Berry discusses a maneuver with (from left) Chuck Palshan, Leon Mozarowsky, and Bob Mills.

Leafs Upend Bruins, Draw Even With Montreal Sextet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Toronto Maple Leafs, surprise of the National Hockey League season, continued to fool the experts today—many of whom had picked them to finish in 5th place.

Leafs whipped the Boston Bruins 3-1 last night and climbed into a 2nd place deadlock with the Montreal Canadiens, who battled to a 2-2 tie with the tail-end Chicago Black Hawks.

Toronto piled up a 3-0 lead on goals by Ted Kennedy, Jim Morrison and Sid Smith before Porky Dumart's tally late in the 3rd period saved the Bruins from a shutout.

Bruins remained two points in front of the idle New York Rangers in their battle for 4th place. However, Boston now has played one more game.

At Chicago, veteran Gus Bodnar scored early in the 3rd period to knot the count as the Hawks came from behind a two goal deficit.

Toronto and Montreal, with 62 points apiece, are eight points behind league-leading Detroit Red Wings, who were not scheduled.

The Yankees have won 20 American league pennants.

NHL Expands Its Draft Rule

Teams Can 'Protect' 18 Players, All Others Are on Available List

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—National Hockey League owners have agreed that hereafter all players, regardless of age, will fall into the scope of the draft.

Previously, players 22 years old and under were exempt, but under new rules all players will come under the draft.

Clarence Campbell, president of the league, said following a league meeting here yesterday that each team is permitted to "earmark" 18 players a year in its protective list, with all other players forming an intra-league draft which assured availability and distribution of talent.

Detroit Red Wings announced that Bruce Norris will become chairman of the board, succeeding Jack Adams.

Calvin Holds Top Spot in MIAA Cage Rankings

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Calvin College was in undisputed 1st place in MIAA basketball standing today after dropping 2nd place Albion 62-53 in a closely contested revenge battle last night.

Victory was Calvin's 10th of the season in league competition compared to a single loss. That loss was inflicted 78-61 earlier in the season by Albion.

Defeat dropped Albion to an 8-2 standing.

Calvin won the game with a 17-point scoring outburst in the final quarter while holding Albion to 9.

Commission to Hear Details of Suspensions

LANSING (AP)—The state conservation commission will be filled in on the suspension of seven conservation department employes in the Upper Peninsula at a meeting today.

Conservation director G. E. Eddy suspended the seven while charges brought by a one-man grand jury are studied.

The commission may be asked to back up Eddy's temporary suspension order which has been criticized in the Upper Peninsula as hasty.

Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, Ohio State halfback, set a Big Ten record for kickoff runbacks in 1953. He ran 14 kickoffs for a total of 328 yards.

Williams 1st Homer Is Already Dedicated

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams has promised to hit his 1st 1954 home run for a pretty 20-year-old girl who lost both legs in a railroad accident last month.

Williams paid an unexpected visit yesterday to the home of Katherine Benedict at the request of her physician, Dr. Paul C. O'Brien—a friend of the Red Sox slugger.

Ted carried an armful of valentine gifts and told the girl she'll be his guest at the team's home opener against Washington April 15 in Fenway Park.

University of Oklahoma athletic teams are nicknamed Sooners. The name is derived from settlers who took choice claims before the date set for the land runs of 1889 and 1893.

Lincoln's Famous Letter to Mother of 5 Still Sought

BOSTON (AP)—Fifty thousand dollars for a scrap of paper! A scrap of paper a poverty-haunted Boston widow may have given or thrown away.

Such might be the collector's price today for a letter written in 1864, one of the most poignant letters Abraham Lincoln ever penned.

In this, the 90th year since it was written, authorities on the life of the Civil War President now feel that the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Lincoln's letter to the Widow Bixby may never be solved.

While search for originals of some Lincoln documents still continues, Dr. Robert E. Moody, director of Boston University library housing one of the most extensive assemblages of Lincoln material, cautions against paying out good money for anything supposedly signed by Lincoln. Consult an expert first, he says.

No signature, says Dr. Moody, has been forged oftener than Lincoln's.

That's why Dr. Moody would regard with caution the supposed original of Lincoln's immortal letter to the widow, Lydia Bixby—even if the purchaser paid $50,000 for it, which Dr. Moody says would be a fair guess at the price such a document might fetch if it were authentic.

For scores of what are purported to be Lincoln signatures are coming to light, but close examination under infra-red rays reveals many to be tracings, or penned with modern ink on paper made later than 1900.

No such cloud hangs over the touching letter which Abraham Lincoln—taking time from overwhelming duties—wrote Nov. 21, 1864, to Mrs. Bixby.

At that time, he and the War Department, the adjutant-general of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Bixby herself, all had reason to believe her five sons had been killed in the Civil War.

It is known now that only two of Mrs. Bixby's sons were killed in action. A third may have died a prisoner of war. More than one Bixby family had contributed heavily to the Union armies and similarity in names may have caused confusion in reports of deaths.

Almost 27 years after trace was lost of the original letter, purported facsimilies began to appear. But those who displayed the "facsimilies" failed to show the original.

Despite failure to find the original, despite discovery that Mrs. Bixby did not lose five sons in the war, the lustre of that most-moving letter of condolence remains undimmed.

After 90 years, its words still carry to other parents bereaved by war the same message of comfort that the President—soon to die himself—addressed to Mrs. Bixby:

"Dear Madam,

"I have been shown in the files of the War Department a statement of the adjutant general of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle.

"I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering to you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the Republic they died to save.

"I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

"Yours very sincerely and respectively,

"A. Lincoln."

Slight Memory Lapse Not Shared by Records

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—One man seeking a job with the Harrisburg City police was stopped at the finger-printing stage. He asked why.

"You probably have a record," he was told. The applicant protested he didn't.

"You served a term in a reformatory, six months at the Pennsylvania Industrial School, were in a penitentiary in Virginia three years and were put on parole in North Carolina," a clerk read from a file.

"Oh, I forgot about that," said the applicant.

Three U. S. presidents have been assasinated and four have died natural deaths while in office.

I FELT ALL RUN DOWN BEFORE I DISCOVERED O-JIB-WA BITTERS

"I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good O-JIB-WA has done me," says Mr. Nelson Sanford, 4736 First St., Columbiaville, Michigan. "I am happy to tell everyone what it has done for me."

"For five months I had been bothered with stomach trouble and felt completely run down.

Mr. Sanford

When I sat down at the table, nothing would taste good or even look good. I could hold in one hand all that I would eat in a day and that would turn to gas and pain me. When I would go to bed at night I would toss and turn and never get a good night's sleep. In this time I had lost about twenty pounds and was feeling worse all the time. My system was full of poison and I guess it was just getting the best of me. Then I decided to try O-JIB-WA BITTERS. I had heard of so many people that it had helped and when I look back I think that was the happiest day of my life. In just one week I felt like a new man. My appetite improved and I was able to eat anything I wanted without fear of suffering from gas pains and indigestion. I could sleep like a log and I began to feel better all around. All together I have only taken three bottles of O-JIB-WA BITTERS and it has helped me so much that I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me."

Delay Hearing of 3 Defendants in Knife Killing

Examination of two brothers and an AWOL Air Corps private, accused in the fatal Jan. 10 stabbing of Raul Velez, 19, of 294 W. Wilson Ave., was postponed until Wednesday after a two-day hearing before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Accused in the first degree murder warrant are Oliverio, 16, and Roberto Ortego, 21, of 270 Franklin Rd., and George Theobald, 19, of 562 Arthur St., who appeared at the hearings in uniform.

Oakland County Probate Court recently waived its jurisdiction on Oliverio as a juvenile so he could be tried as an adult.

Ten persons have testified so far and 10 others have been subpoenaed for the following hearing.

Williams Turns In Agency Projects List

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams today sent the legislature a $269,000,000 list of projects state agencies would like to build in the next five years—and then washed his hands of the whole thing.

He said he was submitting the list under a 1953 law requiring it.

But he added he disclaimed all responsibility for the "astronomical total" because the Legislature had not given him or his budget division enough money to "review and evaluate" the agency requests.

He said he saw no possibility that the state could afford such a building program "at any time in the near future."

The governor, however, recommended that the Legislature use the list to pick out some high priority building projects to be held in reserve as public works projects "in the event of continued unemployment."

Engine Wear Atomic Tested

Radioactive Wrist Pin Helps Railroad Check Equipment Usage

DENVER (INS) — The Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad is using atomic age science today to improve service of its petroleum age diesel engines.

The railroad recently announced completion of five months use of a radioactive wrist pin connecting one piston and connecting rod of diesel engine No. 5584.

Clicking of a sensitive type Geiger counter gave engineers an accurate measure of wear. The counter showed the pin giving off about one-tenth of its original radioactivity.

(It was pointed out such an atomic age measure of engine wear might be possible for all nations under President Eisenhower's atomic pool proposal.)

Rio Grande Engineer Ray McBrian of Standards and Research said next step in the atomic age engine-wear experiment will be use of radioactive piston rings. These will be "atomized" at Brookhaven National Laboratory on Long Island.

McBrian reported Rio Grande diesels now give 300,000 to 500,000 miles of service between lubricating oil changes. He said, "we want to improve this still more."

Seeking such an improvement, the railroad cooperated with the California Company, developer of a new air filter coating, in the experiment. They used the wrist pin in a basically simple process.

Last May, they sent the pin to Brookhaven where scientists placed it inside an atomic reactor for neutron bombardment.

The wrist pin — now radioactive —was gingerly installed in one of No. 5584's cylinder assemblies. Beside it was placed a scintillation counter, a more sensitive instrument than a Geiger counter.

Every movement of the wrist pin jarred some atoms off into the lubricating oil. The scintillation-counter measured wear on a recording device.

Periodically, engineers noted the recordings and removed samples of the filters. Notes and samples were sent to Tracerlab, Inc., of Berkeley, Calif.

The pin was mailed—in a lead lined case—after five months use to Tracerlab for final tabulation.

EUREKA, Calif. (AP)—While telling the story of his life to members of the Fortuna Rotary Club yesterday, 75-year-old Bert Morgan dropped dead. He had been telling of his experiences in this area's logging-camp heyday.

TV Experts Would Alter Abe's Classic Features

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS) — I wonder how the make-up men would have "Improved" Abraham Lincoln's face—if there had been television about a hundred years ago.

Would they have patted white paint along those deep sad lines running from nose to chin, and "reduced" that wart on his right cheek?

If they could have—what a loss there would have been in the memories and images this nation carries in its soul!

I am not one to decry changing ways, not one to yearn for the customs of another century. This 20th century is our century and only dreamers and idlers ever wish for an earlier one.

Who would have been the moderator to call time, or interrupt when the "speaker got off the subject at hand?"

But within this acceptance and gratitude for the present, there may be some who wonder that such high value is put today on the "appearance" and "performance" of our own great men and women.

It is nobility we long to hear, and strength and courage, when our leading men and women address us in our own troubled times. And when we do hear it, what matters is whether their voices be squeaky or resonant, high or low, halting or at ease?

Television and radio standards are fine for actors and panelists and comedians, but they aren't the law of the land for those engaged in the grave and perilous work of statesmanship.

I wonder how the Lincoln-Douglas debates would have fared if the miracles of radio and television had "taken them in charge."

For the past two decades we've had more voice coaching and more "personality" coaching every year, until now some advisors in both parties state openly that candidates for office must make a personable appearance on TV or else not get elected.

These are the people who, if they'd been there, would have wanted to "make up" and "play down" the deep sad lines and warts and wild blowing hair of Abraham Lincoln.

How Honest Abe would have laughed at them!

Youth Bequeaths Eyes to Hospital, Dies in Week

BRAINTREE, Mass. (AP)—About a week ago, Philip L. Hardy, 18-year-old high school student, arranged to donate his eyes upon death to the Massachusetts General Hospital eye bank.

On his way to school yesterday, he was struck by a train and died within a few hours.

Before nightfall, the corneas from his eyes were transplanted to a patient in the hospital.
