Two Men Tell of Buying 'Teamsters' Favors

In his formal rebuttal to former President Harry S. Truman, McCarthy charges that Truman—while a U. S. senator and vice presidential candidate—intervened against the dismissal from government service of George Shaw Wheeler, who later deserted to communism.

McCarty says that after Truman became President, Wheeler was reinstated, although he had been dismissed as a Communist.

The senator gives this description on what he calls "Trumanism":

"The placing of your political party above the interest of the country, regardless of how much the country is damaged thereby."

Praising the Eisenhower administration's efforts to rid the government service of subversives, he added however:

"Let us glance at a few cases where our Republican batting average is zero — where we struck out."

As an example he cites John Paton Davies, who he says helped deliver China into Communist hands.

The Wisconsin Republican senator addressed a nationwide television and radio audience last night in answer to Truman, who had assailed "McCarthyism" in a TV-radio speech a week ago Monday night in connection with the Harry Dexter White controversy.

Truman was reported asleep in bed at his Independence, Mo., home last night an hour before McCarthy went on the air.

Nor was there any immediate comment from President Eisenhower.

In his reference to the handling of Communists in government, McCarthy said he is somewhat concerned that the Republican party "might also fall victim to the same evil which beset the Democrat party and did so much toward destroying this nation."

Speaking of Davies, McCarthy said:

"He was unanimously referred by the McCarran committee to the Justice Department for indictment because he lied under oath about his activities in trying to put Communists and espionage agents in key spots in the Central Intelligence Agency. Why is this man still a high official in our government?"

Davies, a career diplomat, now is serving as counselor at the U.S. Embassy at Lima, Peru. The State Department sent him there last May after he had been shifted from his post as adviser to the U.S. high commissioner in Germany. Davies was cleared by the Loyalty Review Board during the Truman administration, and later was questioned again by the board. He had been assailed by

Canada Apparently Ready to Let U.S. Quiz Gouzenko

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada appeared ready today to announce formally that U. S. Senate investigators can question ex-Russian Igor Gouzenko any time they want—but that the questioning may finger him for the Communists he exposed in 1946.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, in a statement to Parliament this afternoon, was scheduled to outline his government's reply to a second request from a U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee for an opportunity to question Gouzenko, former Soviet Embassy clerk who revealed a Russian spy ring operating in Canada.

Unofficial sources speculated that arrangements might be made for a secret meeting between Gouzenko and a subcommittee representative somewhere in Canada. It apparently would be up to Gouzenko whether he wanted to run the risk of exposure by attending.

Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson outlined his government's new position on the Gouzenko request yesterday. He told the United Nations Correspondents Association in New York Gouzenko could, if he wished, go any place in the United States or Canada to talk to American investigators.

But if he does, Pearson added, Canada can no longer guarantee his safety or that of his family. Gouzenko, his wife and three children have been living under an assumed name and the protection of Canada's famed mounted police since he fled the Russian Embassy in Ottawa in 1946. He is now a Canadian citizen.

Pearson expressed confidence that the international tug-of-war over the former Soviet Embassy clerk would be cleared up to the satisfaction of both countries. U.S. Secretary of State Dulles told a Washington news conference yesterday he doubted the issue would put a lasting strain on U.S.-Canadian friendship.

The two requests to question Gouzenko were filed by Sen. Jenner's subcommittee, which is seeking to find out whether the ex-

Car Wrecked but Owner Sees Salvage

A steel truck capsized on Beaudrie's stalled car while he was going for a can of gasoline yesterday.

Returning with his gasoline, Beaudrie gazed at wreckage.

"Anyone want to buy a gallon of gasoline cheap" he said.

State to Draft 1,128 for Next January

LANSING (AP) — Michigan draft boards were ordered today to induct 1,128 men into the armed forces in January, Col. Arthur A. Holmes, state Selective Service director, said today.

The January call was an increase of 47 men over the December call, and was 592 less than last January.

Wayne will furnish 460 men for the January call and out-state counties will send 668. Oakland County's quota is 67 men.

City Officials to Study Budget of $4,122,019

Runs $246,000 More Than 1953; Hearing Set for Jan. 19

A proposed 1954 budget of $4,122,019 was received for study by Pontiac City Commission last night. The figure is approximately $246,000 more than the city's budget for this year.

City Manager Walter K. Willman submitted the budget, and the commission set a public hearing on the proposal for Jan. 19, 1954.

Some $2,553,000 of the amount is suggested as a tax levy. Increases in the city's assessed value will very likely permit the continuance of the $13.80 per thousand tax rate, Willman said.

Sources of municipal revenue other than taxes would supply $1,469,019 of the total, and $100,000 would be applied from surplus.

The proposed increase is accounted for by a planned hike in pay to city employes, higher costs of supplies and an expanded capital improvement program.

The major items in the recommended budget are $3,173,414 for general municipal operations, $184,044 for waste disposal and collection, $368,955 for debt retirement and $395,604 for the city's share of capital improvements planned in 1954.

Some $350,000 in gasoline and weight taxes will be collected during 1954 and be available for major and local street construction within the city. An estimated $300,000 in special assessment income should also be available for such work next year.

Within the capital improvement allocation is money for construction of certain sanitary, storm and combined sewers throughout the city and for purchase of sites for eventual use as city dump and new sewage plant.

Allocations also are made for completion of a branch library, for improvement work in the city's parks and purchase of right-of-ways in line with the city's master plan for arterial highways.

The commission must adopt the budget by Jan. 31, 1954.

New Yorkers Suffer From Bagel Strike

NEW YORK (UP)—New Yorkers, breathing easier after last week's siege of smoke and haze, came to grips today with a new crisis—a bagel famine.

One Has to Pay Kickbacks; Loses His Business

Iowa Lawyer Reports Highest Insurance Cost to Detroit Probers

DETROIT (AP) — A 60-year-old man told congressional probers the AFL Teamsters Union forced him out of business with strikes and "kickbacks" until he finally had to settle for a $50-a-week janitor's job.

Then they heard another trucking operator and a Des Moines attorney tell of alleged union favoritism toward other firms.

Willis McCarthy, the attorney, said that he represented several trucking companies in the Midwest Operators Assn.

He said that James R. Hoffa and other union officials insisted that operators favor insurance from the Union Casualty and Life Insurance Co. even though the firm had a higher retention rate for administrative expenses.

This same insurance firm was mentioned in testimony before the House Labor and Education Committee Monday in connection with a series of parties given union officials to induce their investment.

Howard C. Craven of Ann Arbor once a $400-a-week film trucking operator and now a security officer at the University of Michigan, told probers that the company he owned for 25 years went "broke" partly because of "kickbacks" to union officials.

He said that he sold his company for $7,000 and took a $50-a-week janitor's job.

Craven said that he was told to increase the amount of money kicked back to union officials or another company would enter the field in competition.

He further testified that a third company did enter the field, and that it was owned and operated by relatives of union officials.

McCarthy told the subcommittee that the retention rate of the union casualty firm, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., was 17½ per cent. That, he said, was the "amount the firm is authorized to retain" for administrative expenses.

He said that management negotiators went along with the union on the fund in an "effort to buy peace." The fund is administered jointly by union and management, he said.

McCarthy also told investigators of several "run-ins" he had had with Hoffa. One, he said, he represented a company that discharged eight truck drivers for allegedly collecting illegal delivery fees and keeping the money.

The local union protested and was upheld by Hoffa, he said. A strike was threatened and the firm put the drivers back to work and paid them $4,000 in back pay, according to McCarthy.

He cited an instance in which Merchants Motor Freight bought part of an operation in Detroit and was faced with "an unreason-

2 Cent Pay Hike in Auto Plants

Labor Bureau Official Feels Inflationary Spiral at an End

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that living ending in mid-October—assuring a costs edged up a bit in the month million CIO auto workers of a two-cents-an-hour wage increase.

The increase, of two-tenths of one per cent during the month, brought the index of the bureau of labor statistics to 115.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average, or 1.1 per cent above a year ago.

Despite the new living cost increase, Commissioner Ewan Clague of the bureau said the nation's inflationary period appeared to be at an end.

He said that lower food prices are likely in the coming winter months and may bring the overall living cost levels down from their present peak.

"I think the index will fluctuate within narrow limits," Clague told a news conference. "But the period of inflation appears to be ended."

During the month foods declined slightly but this was more than offset by increases in other cost.

Cool, Snow Flurries on Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Day in the Pontiac area is expected to be cloudy and cool with scattered snow flurries throughout the day.

A low of from 31 to 34 tonight is due to rise to a high of 36 to 40 on Thursday, according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Tuesday, .21 inch of rain, mixed with traces of snow, fell in the area. Low temperature recorded in the city was 35 degrees, with a high of 43.

Today at 8 a.m. the reading was 33, but by 1 p. m. in downtown Pontiac the temperature was 36 degrees.

GIs in Korea Ask Others to Share Holiday Dinners

SEOUL (AP) — American troops in Korea—and their United Nations and Korean friends—will eat turkey and fixings together tomorrow on the first Thanksgiving Day in four years unmarred by Communist shell-fire.

South Koreans and soldiers of the United Nations in this war-torn nation have eagerly adopted the traditional American Thanksgiving holiday and will join in the celebration.

Prayers, turkey dinners and entertainment are planned.

Army officials emphasize there will be no relaxation of the alert for possible Communist renewal of the war.

Many Army and Marine units will enjoy their first real day off in months under the policy of Gen. Maxwell Taylor, 85th Army commander, to celebrate Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's as normally as possible "within the tactical situation."

The weather should be fine for late November in Korea—sunny with no snow and temperatures in the high 50s.

U.N. troops in many areas will share the Americans' turkey dinner. And U.S. forces have invited hundreds of Koreans to help them celebrate.

The 49th Field Artillery Bn. has invited more than 100 families of Korean troops attached to the 7th Div. to turkey dinner.

Lt. Col. Philip J. Moore of Philadelphia, battalion commander, said some families arrived Wednesday.

"It's an old stateside battalion custom to invite the families of the men for Thanksgiving dinner," Moore said. "Although we are deprived of our families this year, there is no reason why our Korean friends should be."

Many other units—including the 25th the 45th, the 40th and the 3rd divisions—will entertain Korean orphans.

The Army announced that more than 750 tons of turkey will be eaten, willingly and unwillingly. Turkey might be an anticipated, special dish in the United States but in Korea it is a standard staple, reaching troops in one form or another two or three times weekly.

One Marine officer, asked about his meals, failed to mention turkey but pointed with pride to a menu including shrimp. Another mess officer told Associated Press Reporter William Barnard he was trying to arrange for another delicacy—boiled eel with mustard.

Stassen Sees Aid Reduction

Says Arms Assistance to Europe Can Be Cut in Fiscal '55

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Aid Director Harold Stassen has informed Congress it will be possible to make "a considerable reduction" in American military aid to Western Europe next year. He said that economic aid, with a few exceptions, can be ended.

Stassen set out these conclusions in a special report he sent to four congressional committees on Nov. 16. A summary of his letter was made public today by the Foreign Operations Administration (FOA).

By "next year," Stassen had reference to the next government fiscal year—the 12 months beginning next July 1.

City Churches to Sponsor Union Thanksgiving Rites

Tomorrow America will celebrate its 333rd Thanksgiving.

The holiday dates back to 1621 when Governor William Bradford set aside a special day for the ultra-Protestant colony at Plymouth, Mass., to thank God for the first harvest in the wild, new country.

Five union services of Thanksgiving have been scheduled in Pontiac for Wednesday evening or Thursday morning. The traditional service sponsored by the Pontiac Pastor's Association will be at 10 a. m. Thursday in First Baptist Church. The Rev. Herbert E. Ryan of Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church and local president of the Association will preach.

At 10:30 a. m. in Providence Baptist Church on Bagley street, the Oakland County Ministerial Association is sponsoring a union service with the Rev. Donald Morris, new pastor of St. John Methodist Church as the preacher.

Another union service has been planned at Oakland Park Methodist Church for all the churches in the north end of Pontiac. The Rev. Keith Colby of Galloway Lake and Elmwood Methodist Churches will be the speaker.

Thanksgiving Observance in Birmingham Churches to Include Union Service

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Thanksgiving locally will be marked by several church services here, tomorrow, among them the 9 a. m. Union service at the First Presbyterian Church on North Woodward sponsored by Birmingham Council of Churches.

"Putting You Into Remembrance" is the sermon topic of the Rev. John D. Rose, pastor of the Townsite Community Congregational Church in Southfield Township, who will preach the community service. The sanctuary choir of the host church will provide songs under the direction of L. Robert Slusser.

Churches attending this service include: Church of the Nazarene, Embury Methodist, First Baptist, Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian, First Methodist and Congregational.

At 10 a. m. family service at Christ Church, Cranbrook will feature the Blue Choir of Sunday school age children, making its first appearance without the adult choir.

Rev. Theodore Wuggazer of Redeemer Lutheran Church will speak on "The Wheel of God's Providence" at a special 9 a. m. service, with music by the combined choirs.

Thanksiving mass at Holy Name is to be at 9 a. m. The regular 7:00 and 8:00 a. m. masses will also be said. Our Lady of Martyrs will celebrate a 9:00 a. m. Thanksgiving mass.

"The Thanksgiving of the Holy Communion" will be the Rev. Paul Shippert's sermon topic at an 8:30 a. m. service at Ascension Lutheran. The new adult choir, directed by Robert Sheppard, will sing publicly for the first time since its organization this fall.

Our Shepherd Lutheran will have its Thanksgiving service at 11 a.m. when the Rev. Howard Allwardt gives his sermon on "Oh Give Thanks." The choir will sing "O Be Joyful" by Harding.

Rev. Harold Towne of St. James Episcopal Church will preside at a 9:00 a.m. service and Holy Communion, to be held at Baldwin School. Service on "Thanksgiving" will be at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m. at the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Oakland County Civil Defense Director Lewis C. Jarrendt described the preparations of Royal Oak, Pontiac and Milford for wartime emergencies and natural disasters when he addressed the Birmingham PTA Council this week.

He said that Milford, a much smaller community than Birmingham, has a complete and well functioning organization which was invaluable in the tornado disaster which struck there in May.

The council received an answer only from the State Police after its communications to them, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township police regarding motorists passing stopped school buses.

State Police will check hazardous areas and cooperate with Norman Wolfe, assistant superintendent of schools, in alleviating the problem.

Residents of Eton road between Lincoln and Fourteen Mile road facing Thanksgiving guests who may receive parking tickets, protested "no parking" signs placed along their newly widened street before the City Commission this week.

Commissioners reminded the residents that the recommendation had been to widen the street to 36 feet, but the lawmakers had cut it to 29 feet upon their protest, with the understanding that Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley could restrict parking there "at his discretion."

The residents were instructed to write their objections to the City Commission, and Moxley was asked to talk the situation over with them.

Allot Pembroke School Bids

Contracts of $572,618 Awarded to Three Low Bidders

BIRMINGHAM — Contracts totaling $572,618 for the Pembroke school were awarded to the three low bidders at a special school board meeting called Monday morning, it was learned yesterday.

General contract went to Bundy Construction Co., mechanical to Allen Briggs Co., and electrical to Cates-Trueman.

The action closely followed the acceptance of the bids Nov. 18, as the Board of Education hurried to get the building underway.

Construction has begun, with the necessary road being cut through and laying out of the building begun.

The bids total well below the estimated cost of $637,500, but Supt. of Schools Dr. Dwight B. Ireland said the addition of a six per cent architect's fee, equipment and landscaping costs, and approximately $19,000 for sewage facilities would put it slightly over the estimate.

An agreement of the school board, Birmingham, Troy Township, the Presbyterian Board of Church Extensions of Detroit, and two land developers for water, sanitary and sewage facilities for the school and adjacent land has not yet been signed, but it's anticipated momentarily.

Hearing Is Denied on Porritt Property

BIRMINGHAM—A request from the W. E. Reid Development Co. for a public hearing on annexation of the Porritt property on Adams between Maple and Lincoln, a Troy Township island in the city, was denied by a split vote of the Troy Township Board this week. One of the seven-member board was absent, resulting in a 3-3 vote.

Norman Barnard, Troy supervisor, said a hearing is not necessary in annexation procedures, but that the developer must file a petition before the board can take action.

Birmingham's City Commission has agreed to duplex and single family residence zoning of the area, if it is annexed.

3 Youths 'Tried' Off the Record

Put on Probation for 6 Months by New Type of Youth Court

Three youths received six months' probation each instead of a possible prison sentence yesterday when they appeared in Oakland County's "Off the Record Court" on a felony charge.

The trio was charged with conspiracy to do an unlawful act when "tried" before Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor said the youths didn't realize the seriousness of agreeing to steal hub caps from a parking lot.

One youth was apprehended in the lot and the others were picked up at their homes by police.

Arresting officers, complaining witnesses, the offenders and their parents attended yesterday's session of the "Off the Record Court."

Instead of receiving prison sentences they were placed on probation with the proviso that they report to authorities once a month, write a monthly report of their activities, and attend church regularly.

The novel court was established earlier this year by Ziem and Taylor to save youths from acquiring prison records.

Offenders are placed on probation after the "court hearing" and are warned that any future infractions of the law will result in a regular trial and a court record.

McCarthy Lashes Out at Truman Regime

McCarthy before last night's speech.

McCarthy also took the Republican administration to task because there has been no accounting of 900 Americans who are known to have been taken prisoner in the Korean War and who never returned. He said the Eisenhower administration is not responsible for the situation, but is responsible for its proper handling.

McCarthy, declaring his fight against communism in government to be an issue in the 1954 election campaign, said:

"The raw, harsh, unpleasant fact is that communism is an issue and will be an issue in 1954.

"It would not be an issue between our two great political parties if they were united in fighting communism. They are not so united today. Truman's diatribe against those who expose Communists is the best proof of that."

Looking to the 1954 Senate and House elections, McCarthy said:

"If the American people agree with Truman that what he calls 'McCarthyism' is bad, that it is wrong to dig out and expose traitors, they have a chance to get rid of me as chairman of the investigating committee next fall by defeating any Republican up for election."

Birmingham, Hills Get 18,000 Telephone Books

BIRMINGHAM — Approximately 18,000 new telephone directories will have been delivered here and in Bloomfield Hills by today, Albert Warner, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. manager here, has announced. The books will go into effect on Nov. 29.

Door-to-door delivery of the record number, about 2,000 more than were dispensed here last year began yesterday. Werner said that more than 1,000 new listings are included in the '53 directory.

Instructions are also given in the front of the book for the new nationwide toll dialing that began here Nov. 20.

Pontiac Boy, 9, Injured in Car-Bike Collision

Dayton R. Strickland, 9, of 930 LaSalle Ave., suffered possible internal injuries yesterday when his bicycle collided with a car on M-59 at Tilden St. in Waterford Township, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

He was reported in good condition this morning in Pontiac General Hospital.

Paul D. Pointer, 27, of 813 Glendale Ave. told deputies the boy pulled in front of him and he was unable to stop.

MISS MARY A. JOHNSON

City Woman Heads Hospital Association

Miss Mary A. Johnson, business manager of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, was named president of Eastern Michigan Chapter, National Association of Hospital Accountants, Tuesday.

Miss Johnson, who has served about 12 years at St. Joseph Hospital here, has been secretary-treasurer of the Eastern Michigan Accountants and was vice president last year.

Allies Try Again for Big 4 Meet

Send Notes to Kremlin Asking Get-Together on Austrian Treaty

LONDON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France called on Russia once again today to join them in an effort to conclude an Austria independence treaty. The Soviets have turned a deaf ear to all such Western proposals in recent months.

The British Foreign Office said the Western Allies delivered new notes to the Kremlin this morning on the Austrian question. A spokesman declined to reveal precisely what the notes contained.

Informed Western officials, however, reported the Allies have proposed the Big Four powers consider the Austrian treaty question through diplomatic channels. In the past the four powers have negotiated at conferences of the deputy foreign ministers.

The notes answered Russia's last reply in September to Western efforts to get the long-stalled negotiations moving again. Russia then declined to attend a proposed deputy foreign ministers meeting and said further discussions should be carried on through normal diplomatic channels.

The Russian also have sidestepped recent Western attempts to arrange a foreign ministers conference to consider the German and Austrian questions.

Negotiations on the treaty which would end the four power occupation of Austria first began in 1947. The deputy foreign ministers have held more than 260 meetings without reaching agreement.

Canada May Allow Quiz of Gouzenko

Russian has any new evidence bearing on Soviet espionage in the United States. Canadian authorities rejected the first request, asserting the former embassy clerk had nothing new to say. Published reports that Gobzenko himself said he might be able to help U. S. investigators prompted the subcommittee to submit a second formal request.

Pearson asserted that Canada has given the United States every scrap of information disclosed by Gouzenko in six or seven years of detailed questioning. "This ought to be enough to get out of him what he knows," the foreign secretary added.

U. S. Red Case Must Be Tighter

Judge Advises Federal Attorneys to Knit Proof Against 6 Communists

DETROIT (AP) — Government attorneys had a warning today from the court that they must knit a tighter case to prove that six Michigan Communists had conspired to advocate and teach the violent overthrow of the government.

Federal Judge Frank A. Picard told them yesterday:

"Sometime the government will have to arrive at the point of tying the defendants in. It's not enough to say simply they attended a convention."

Judge Picard made the statement as the jury listened to the third day of testimony by a Detroit practical nurse and grandmother, Mrs. Bereniece Baldwin. She served for nine years in the Communist Party as an undercover agent for the FBI.

Defense attorney Ernest Goodman objected several times during her testimony yesterday concerning a school for Michigan Communists.

Goodman's protest said that the government was failing to show that the defendants, who are accused of violating the Smith Act, had been actively responsible for the subjuects taught in the classes.

Mrs. Baldwin said that all but one of the defendants, Saul Wellman, were on the faculty of the school. She said it was opened in 1948 at the headquarters for Communists in the Ford Motor Co. in Detroit.

Mrs. Baldwin said William Allan, Thomas D. Dennis Jr., Philip Schatz, Nat Ganley, and Mrs. Helen Winter were the faculty members. All are defendants.

Churches to Sponsor Thanksgiving Service

Avenue United Presbyterian Churches will unite on Wednesday evening for a service. This year it is being held in the Baldwin Avenue Church. The Rev. E. D. Auchard, associate pastor of First Presbyterian Church, will be the guest speaker.

Many services also have been scheduled by individual churches. Among them are:

At the Festival of Thanksgiving in All Saints Episcopal Church at 10 a.m. Dr. Henri A. Stines, assistant rector at Grace Church (Episcopal) in Detroit, will be guest speaker. The church is located at 171 West Pike St.

As is customary in all Christian Science Churches a service of Thanksgiving has been planned at the local church at 11 a.m. The church is at Williams and W. Lawrence Sts.

At 10 a.m. in Marimont Baptist Church on Walton boulevard the Rev. William Bach of Hazel Park will be guest speaker.

In St. Trinity Lutheran Church on Auburn Avenue the annual service is scheduled for 10 a.m.

At St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church on South boulevard a Thanksgiving Mass is scheduled for 10 a.m.

Other Roman Catholic Churches will observe the regular week-day schedule of masses.

A 10 a.m. service of Thanksgiving is being planned at Grace Lutheran Church at S. Genesee and Glendale Ave.

Grosse Pointe Attorney, Grant L. Cook, Dies

Cook, a senior member of the Detroit law firm, Cook, Beake, Miller, Wroek, and Gross, had been ill for a long time.

Pontiac Deaths

James O. Dunigan

After a prolonged illness, James O. Dunigan, 50, of 130 S. Josephine Ave. died at his residence Tuesday morning.

Born in Ozark County, Mo., March 22, 1903, he was the son of Amos H. and Elizabeth Birdsong Dunigan. He married Leona Herschbach Oct. 9, 1926, and came to Pontiac eight years ago from Missouri.

Mr. Dunigan, who was last employed at GMC Truck and Coach Division, was a member of the Church of Christ at Keego Harbor and FOE.

Besides his widow and father, he is survived by three children, Loran of Keego Harbor, Bobby, recently returned from Korea, and Sally, at home.

Also surviving are three brothers and four sisters, William E., Leland C. and Mrs. Cecil Phelps of Pontiac, Harry of Flint, Mrs. Zelma Harper and Mrs. Pearl Jackson of Cardwell, Mo., and Mrs. Pauline Tucker of Lansing.

Funeral will be Friday at 2 p.m. from the Brace Funeral Home. The Rev. L. C. Utley, his pastor, will officiate and burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Terry Hal Martin

Prayer service will be Friday at 1 p. m. for Terry Hal Martin, 3-month-old son of James H. and Dora Knapp Martin of 1086 Meadowlawn Dr.

The Rev. John W. Mulder, assistant pastor at Central Methodist Church, will officiate at Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home and burial will be in Perry Mount Park Cemetery.

Born Aug. 17 this year, the baby was dead upon admittance to Pontiac General Hospital at 5:45 a. m. today.

Besides his parents and grandparents, he is survived by three brothers and a sister, Henry L., Lois J., James E. and Dean E., all at home.

South Rockwood Man Killed in 2-Car Crash

DETROIT (UP)—Emerson J. Luxmoore, 51, South Rockwood, was killed early today in a two-car collision at an intersection in suburban Taylor Township.

The driver of the other car, Dewey Price, 27, Allen Park, was injured and taken to Wyandotte General Hospital where he was reported in critical condition.

Two Men Testify Buying Union Favors able union demand" for $1,000 in back vacation pay.

McCarthy said that the case went up for arbitration before Rodney Baxter, who had handled cases for Teamsters locals as an attorney. Baxter found in favor of the union, McCarthy said.

Later Hoffa called him, McCarthy said, and laughed "I really rooked you on that one, didn't I?"

McCarthy added that Hoffa was backing Baxter, now a Detroit Department of Street Railways commissioner, in a political campaign at the time. Baxter was not available for comment.

Craven, one of the film hauling operators, said that the Teamsters Union moved into his company in 1940 when his employes were allegedly wooed away from the AFL Stagecrafters Union and into the Teamseters by Frank Fitzsimmons.

Fitzsimmons, Craven said, "declared himself in" for 90 per cent of the profit for carting lithographed advertising matrial for theaters.

The checks were made out to cash and either given to Fitzsimmons directly or to a John Curran, according to Craven, who added that he also had to pay Fitzsimmons income tax, amounting to about $600 on the $9,000 to $10,000 in payments.

Sometimes, he said, he paid Fitzsimmons in Hoffa's office, but he added that he was not sure Hoffa knew what the checks were for.

Fitzsimmons finally told him, Craven said, that he was not satisfied with the amount of money being paid and insisted that his own accountant, Lew Rosen, check Craven's books.

Rosen did, and took the canceled checks, Craven said.

Finally, Craven said another company was formed, headed by John Staley Jr., son of a Teamster Union business agent. The company was called Theater Trucking Services, Craven said.

Then a strike and a series of incidents ruined his business, he said and he sold out.

Pope Elevates Bishop to Rank of Archbishop

The most Rev. Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, announced today the honor conferred on Bishop Gannon, who has headed the Erie diocese since Aug. 26, 1920. The diocese is celebrating the centenary of its establishment. The papal action does not make it an archdiocese.

Two Get Minor Injuries in Auto-Truck Accident

Two motorists were treated at Pontiac General Hospital for minor injuries suffered in an auto-truck accident at Scott Lake and Pontiac Lake Rds., yesterday afternoon, according to State Police of Pontiac Post.

Stephens O. Adams, 25, of 1110 Crescent Lake Rd., Waterford Township, suffered cuts and bruises and Mrs. Robert Herbert, 38, of 3241 Wanamaker Ave., was treated for back injuries.

Police said the collision occurred as Mrs. Herbert proceeded through the intersection after she halted for a stop sign. Adams, driving a 2-ton truck, said he veered his vehicle to avoid the crash but struck the auto and rolled over.

Spokesman Modifies Wilson Statement

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Defense Department spokesman says Secretary Wilson didn't mean it literally when he said that, after World War II, "we were dumb enough to turn over the whole German submarine fleet to the Russians."

The spokesman said yesterday, in commenting on a story in the Washington Star, that Wilson meant giving some submarines to Russia supplied the Reds with technical data vital to building their present formidable fleet.

The Star said Wilson's recent statement was disputed by government records which show that, of 483 U-boats, 225 were scuttled and 213 destroyed by the Allies, with the remainder going 10 each to the United States, Britain and Russia. It said Russia may have gotten hold of 15 or so more on its own.

Dean Ridicules Red's Position

Asks Why Communists Want Russia as Neutral in Peace Talks

PANMUNJOM (AP) — U.S. envoy Arthur Dean said today "some method must be worked out" to assure the attendance of Soviet Russia as a full participant at a Korean peace conference.

The Reds want Russia to attend as a neutral. Dean charged this would mean the Soviet Union would not be bound by conference decisions.

He said Chinese and North Korean negotiators working on plans for the peace conference are holding Russia "as a theat over our heads."

Allied and Communist diplomats met for 3 hours and 45 minutes, the longest continuous session since the preliminary talks opened Oct. 26. They will meet again Friday.

Meanwhile, explanations to war prisoners who have refused to go home remained stalled and there was no indication that the interviews would be renewed.

"Why are you afraid to have the U. S. S. R. at the political conference as a full participant?" he asked.

"Is the real reason . . . because: (A) the U. S. S. R. does not wish to be bound by the agreement reached at the political conference and (B) you wish to use as a threat at the conference the possible nonaggression of the U. S. S. R. or its noncompliance with the agreements reached?"

"It was unadulterated hogwash," Dean said, "accusing us of bad treatment of prisoners and atrocities in prisoner of war camps. I told them we'd make progress if we cut out these stump speeches."

Huang Hua told Dean that the United States started the Korean War; that Russia had striven in the United Nations "for years" for a peaceful settlement.

"You have attempted to negate the neutrality of the Soviet Union," the Chinese told Dean. "Are you at war with the Soviet Union?"

Dean replied that Russia "is not and cannot be a neutral nation.

Senior Play Is to Be a Mystery

'Creepy Crest' Will Be Presented by Roosevelt High Students

KEEGO HARBOR — "Creepy Crest," a mystery play, will be presented by the Roosevelt High School senior class Dec. 8 in the school auditorium.

Robert Nelson will play the lead as Prof. Penn, a slightly absent-minded man with a sense of humor. He tries to keep his humor under control since he feels a college professor must always appear dignified and a bit stern.

Virginia Speer will portray the professor's wife, a sometimes shrewish woman, very practical and devoted to her husband and daughter.

Playing the daughter will be Fran Nickalson. The dark-haired Miss Penn longs for her father to become a big success and stop being a professor.

Herman Khuff will play Carter Wills, a well-read young man interested in farming, and full of fun.

His sister May will be played by Beverly Watts. Miss Wills keeps house for her brother and is a great talker.

Jerry Thomas rounds out the cast.

MRS. DOUGLAS D. GEIB

Saginaw Girl Exchanges Vows With Douglas Geib

ROCHESTER—Before an altar banked by candelabra and white mums, Geraldine Ann Stiner became the bride of Douglas D. Geib Saturday at Warren Avenue Presbyterian Church in Saginaw.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Steiner of Saginaw and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ormand G. Geib of 133 Walnut Blvd., Rochester.

For the ceremony, the bride chose a waltz length lace over satin gown with a satin cap and fingertip veil. She carried roses and carnations.

Matron of honor, Mrs. John S. Rue of Ann Arbor, chose a pink lace waltz-length taffeta gown. She carried roses and carnations.

Serving as best man was George J. Ross of Rochester. Seating guests were Gordon Williams and William F. Steiner, the bride's brother of Mansfield, Pa.

Following a honeymoon trip to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., the newlyweds will make their home in Milwaukee, Wis.

Project to Take 3 or 4 Weeks

Rochester Plans to Use 12-Acre Site for New Community Hall

ROCHESTER — Work on changing the course of Paint Creek will begin Monday, according to Robert Slone, village manager.

Slone reported to the village Council Monday night that the cost for removing the power house, dam, dike and cutting a new stream and filling the present one would be $3,060.

The project is expected to take three to four weeks to complete, Slone said today.

Changing the stream's course will provide the site for a community hall to be located on 12 acres adjacent to Avon Township Park.

In other business at the Monday meeting the Council passed a resolution asking for permission from the State Highway Department to erect Christmas decorations on M-15, a state trunk line.

The Lions Club was given permission to stage a Christmas Parade at 2 p. m. Dec. 12.

The Council voted to pay bills amounting to $5,230 including salaries and labor costs. The Avon Youth Service and Recreation Association will be paid $600 and $698 will go to the Michigan Municipal Employment Retirement Fund.

General government bills amounting to $5,431.81 were also ordered paid. These included sums for roofing the waterworks building and the final payment for water and sewer construction projects.

Christ Lutheran Church Choir Gives Concert

WATERFORD — The choir of Christ Lutheran Church gave its annual concert at the church Sunday evening with Mrs. Martin Wager Sr. as organist and director.

Guest soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lindquist, who sang works by Handel, Bach and Stainer.

Included in selections by the choir were "Sing Praises" by Glarum and "There Shall a Star Come Out of Jacob," by Mendelssohn.

Jeep to Plow Snow at Orchard Lake

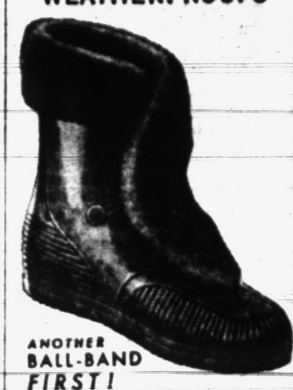

ORCHARD LAKE—A bright yellow jeep snowplow will help clear snow from long private drives here this winter.

The drive cleaning service is not a new one, according to Village Police Chief Elmer Peters, but the jeep was bought to get in tight private roadways easier than either of the two full-size plows the village operates.

He explained that only the driveways of approximately one-half mile in length are cleared by the village DPW—and then only after the public roads have been cleared.

The $2,000 piece of equipment is expected to be delivered this week.

3,600 Bushels on 13 Acres

Pair of Future Farmers Grow Big Potato Crop

MILFORD—A spill from a tractor last spring didn't dampen 16-year-old David Charlick's enthusiasm for farming.

After a six-week lay-off, David, with the aid of his foster brother Paul Vanston, 17, came up with some plans for high-powered agriculture which produced a bumper crop of potatoes this fall.

The potatoes were grown on a 13-acre plot after the boys convinced Charlick that a new way to raise the spuds would work.

The boys, top Future Farmers of America members, "side-dressed" the rows with a commercial fertilizer for the first time and came up with 600 more bushels of potatoes than last year.

The Katahdin brand of potatoes was experimented with and the boys received first, second and third prize ribbons at a recent Harvest Fair sponsored by the Milford PTA.

David and Paul not only harvest potatoes, but between them own 60 hogs and 11 buildings. They do all the haying and take care of 63 head of beef cattle and 300 chickens. The Charlick farm consists of more than 200 acres.

Paul, president of the local chapter of FFA is working to be an "American Farmer," a distinction only about two per cent of state boys attain. It is the highest degree to which an FFA member can aspire.

The elder Charlick has two brothers on surrounding farms and the family works over 1,000 acres in the Huron Valley. Grandfather W. H. Charlick also does some farming in the area.

Suwannee River Man Disclaims Treasure Story

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — A man who claimed he found buried treasure under the Suwannee River is now talking about 30 coins of little value instead of thousands worth a fabulous half million dollars or more.

William F. Sneed Jr., a coin collector and hotel operator, said last night the story of a treasure find he told 24 hours earlier in Jacksonville was "misinterpreted."

"I had around 15 doubloons and 15 gold pieces," Sneed said here. He said they did not have too much value but they were found in the vicinity of the Suwannee.

The Florida Times - Union at Jacksonville said its story was accurately written by a reporter who quoted Sneed as saying he found 4,500 Spanish gold doubloons and 3,500 silver pieces of eight worth over $600,000.

A radio-television interviewer at Jacksonville said Sneed also told substantially the same story as that which appeared in the Times-Union. Tommy Tucker of WMBR and WMBR-TV said Sneed told him he found about 8,000 coins in a barnacle-crusted chest under the Suwannee River and they were worth about $300,000.

Both newspaper and radio interviewers said Sneed told them he found the treasure last Saturday under several feet of water near the mouth of the Suwannee.

Last night Sneed, however, said the coins were found about three weeks ago near the Suwannee.

Settled in New Cottage Loaned by Members at Augusta Golf Club

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower, comfortably settled in a cozy new "Little White House," put golf at the top of his vacation agenda today.

The President flew here from Washington yesterday afternoon for a Thanksgiving holiday through Sunday with his family, three grandchildren and all.

He got in a round of golf at the exclusive Augusta National Golf Club shortly after he arrived, and planned more for today.

On the edge of the course near the 10th tee is situated the new 1½-story white brick cottage built by fellow members of the club for the President's use.

Called "Mamie's Cottage" for Mrs. Eisenhower, who is with the President, the house actually is much more than a cottage. There are no hard figures available on the cost of construction and the furnishings, which reportedly are in expensive good taste.

The lowest figure talked around Augusta is $40,000, the highest $130,000. Some of the few folks who have had a chance to inspect the place—all beautifully landscaped—say the bigger figure is far closer to being right than the lower.

On the first floor is a spacious living room with a handsome fireplace, and two master bedrooms, each with an adjoining dressing room and bath.

Upstairs are two more large bedrooms with baths and dressing rooms, and another big living room. In the basement is a communications headquarters which keeps the President in constant touch with Washington, a completely modern kitchen and quarters for secret service agents.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower were reported to be delighted with the place, which will be used by other club members when the Chief Executive is not in town.

On the way to Augusta yesterday for his fourth visit since he was elected, the President stopped briefly at Ft. Benning, Ga., to take aboard his daughter-in-law, Barbara Eisenhower, and his grandchildren—David, 5, Barbara Anne, 4, and Susan, 2.

The President's son John, an Army major, remained at Benning to have Thanksgiving Day dinner with his troops tomorrow. He commands the 1st Battalion of the 3rd Infantry Division.

After the dinner, John plans to come to Augusta to spend the rest of the weekend with the family and to take on his father at golf.

North Korean Delegates Leave Peiping for Home

TOKYO (AP)—The North Korean delegation headed by Marshal Kim Il Sung left Peiping for home this morning, Peiping radio reported today.

Kim signed an agreement for "economic and cultural cooperation" between Communist China and North Korea Monday. The pact quite possibly had military clauses but if so, they were not revealed.

Little Boys Pondering High Cost of Honesty

SANTA Fe, N. M. (AP) — Little Danny Gonzales and Floyd Rodriguez spotted five 1-gallon packages of ice cream on the road.

They were picking up the last package when a trucker drove up, thanked them for finding the ice cream and left them two gallons as a "reward."

Along came another trucker who claimed he lost the ice cream and made off with the reward.

Writ of Habeas Corpus Restored in Philippines

MANILA (AP)—Outgoing President Elpidio Quirino restored the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus yesterday throughout The Philippines. The Writ was suspended Oct. 22, 1950, as a step toward breaking the Communist-directed Huk guerrilla movement.

Tells Adrian Group Bohn Plant to Open

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Air Force Talbott told an Adrian, Mich. delegation yesterday he is "confident" he can get another company to run an Adrian plant being given up by the Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corp.

Bohn has served notice it wants to wind up by May 1 its contract to make magnesium extrusions in the big air force plant.

Talbott told the Adrian group headed by Mayor Claude E. Porter that several other firms have been invited to submit proposals to operate the plant.

Car Left for Repairs Used by Two Trusties

UTAH STATE PRISON, Utah (AP) —When Utah State Prison officials allowed two trusties outside the main prison last night to repair a plow in the institution's mechanical shop, they apparently forget about an automobile in the shop for repairs.

It was not long before a broadcast alerted police throughout the state to be on the lookout for a car bearing a big state seal on each side and carrying two men wearing blue prison denims.

Post Office Reports Get-Rich-Quick Letters

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department said today a new epidemic of get-rich-quick letter schemes is sweeping the country.

Basically, officials said, "endless chain" letters now going the rounds appear to be a revival of the old pyramid club plan which flourished years ago, and which the Post Office barred from the mails.

Gail Russell Booked for Tooting Her Horn

SANTA MONICA (AP)—Police report that they booked actress Gail Russell last night on suspicion of drunk driving.

Officers Ed Sweeney and Bert Dillinger took her into custody, they said, after she repeatedly honked her horn at their police car, which was stopped at a red signal.

O-Jib-Wa Bitters Proved There IS Help For ARTHRITIS

If you suffer from rheumatism or arthritis and haven't found relief—you haven't tried O-JIB-WA BITTERS. Mrs. Rose Gularek, 4392 Lonyo, Detroit, will tell you that O-JIB-WA really does help these conditions.

"If you spent a month and a half propped up in bed as I did, then you would know how grateful I am to O-JIB-WA BITTERS for putting me back on my feet. Off and on for the last seven years, I suffered horribly from arthritis and rheumatism in my right shoulder, arms, hands and knees. The pain seemed to go right to the bone and I couldn't bend my knee or stoop over. Although I tried about everything including salves, rubbing oils and shots, nothing helped me. O-JIB-WA BITTERS was recommended to me by a friend whose husband was greatly helped by your medicine. I took it faithfully and in about two weeks was improved and in a little over a month was completely well. My ankles and knees no longer hurt and I am 100% better. I feel like a real young person again and can bend and reach and do my work like nothing. My husband is also a satisfied user, so it's no wonder that I recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS to everyone I meet who is suffering from rheumatism or arthritis. O-JIB-WA BITTERS proved to me that there is help for arthritis. If you suffer, why don't you try it?"

An Ill Advised Candidacy

Many readers no doubt will share our hope that a Washington dispatch reporting the intention of J. PARNELL THOMAS to seek return to Congress proves incorrect.

THOMAS is a Republican and was chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee while representing his New Jersey district. Convicted of accepting kickbacks from his office employes, he served a Federal prison term which was shortened when President TRUMAN granted him a pardon.

Now the publisher of a weekly newspaper, THOMAS is said to feel that he is as popular as ever in his district and that the climate is right for a political comeback.

Our objection to such a candidacy has nothing to do with his work on the Un-American Committee. As far as we know there is no legal barrier to his nomination. Moreover, we feel that having paid the penalty for the crime which sent him to prison, no obstacle should be placed in his path back to success in private life.

The only issue here is political morality. We believe that anyone who has violated a public trust shouldn't ask the voters to return him to any Government post, especially the one his conduct besmirched.

Congratulations MSC!

For Michigan State's great football team the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow turned out to be that New Year's Day date with the UCLA Bruins in the Rose Bowl.

The fact that the vote was a surprise to many in no way diminished the enthusiasm of the celebration on the East Lansing campus. Neither did it dull the luster of the team's great performance in its first Big Ten season.

Michigan is proud of the Spartans and can rest assured they are worthy representatives of the Big Ten. We congratulate Coach BIGGIE MUNN and his young men on the honor they have won and wish them success on New Year's Day.

2-Package Tax Plan Seen

Though the return of Congress still is more than a month distant, experts are hard at work drafting the tax program to be submitted to the lawmakers by the EISENHOWER Administration.

Collaborating in this work are the Congressional Joint Committee on Internal Revenue, the House Ways and Means Committee and the Treasury Department. Present indications are that the result will be a two package tax program.

One package will be a "rates" bill setting new levels for the corporation income tax and certain excise taxes. The other is intended to revise the whole tax system.

If a manufacturers' sales tax is deemed politically inadvisable in an election year, strong pressure may be exerted for upward revision of the excises. There also are signs of growing pressure for more liberal income tax exemptions and deductions.

While Chairman REED of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee in the past has opposed increasing blanket exemptions, he is known to favor elimination of hardship provisions.

Bills submitted during the first session indicated strong support for liberalizing individual income tax deductions. Several dealt specifically with amounts paid by a widow or widower in providing for the care of children while the taxpayer was employed. Others would increase exemptions for taxpayers and their dependents and increase allowable deductions for medical care.

The only certainty in the situation is that the task of Congress in enacting new tax legislation is complicated by two important factors. One is the Administration's need for revenue to replace that lost in the scheduled income tax reduction and expiration of the excess profits tax.

The other is the strong sentiment in Congress for tax reduction without regard to the date when the Federal budget finally can be balanced.

"RUNNING a business without advertising is like making love to a girl in the dark," says an advertising agency executive. He's mistaken. Making love to a girl in the dark often gets results.

November, December Draft Calls Come Close Together

Daffynition

Insomnia: What a person who snores never seems to be bothered with.

After ordering the local draft boards to send their November quota two days before Thanksgiving, the War Department asks that their December quota be sent only eight days later, on Dec. 2. The quotas for both months are below the average since the Korean hostilities ceased. Thanks for the many gifts received Tuesday by the city contingent was expressed by its group leader,

Gerald Arthur Moore

and the same sentiments were expressed by

Norman E. Hovis,

In the final game in the Man About Town football contest, which takes place Saturday between Army and Navy, the 14 survivors predict as follows: Army, 10; Navy, 4.

Eighty-six years of age, and hunting for 76 years,

reports that 25 of the 27 hunters there also had their deer that same day.

The other morning when the ground was slightly frozen on its surface,

"Why did so many of our pioneers come from Dutchess and Orange Counties in New York?" is a question frequently asked. Both are quite available to the Erie Canal, on which they embarked for the journey across Lake Erie and up the Detroit River.

It cost more to live 560 years ago than it does today, in proportion to wages, according to an old clipping sent me by of 940 Lakeview Ave. It tells of an expense account in England in 1390, when sugar was 36 cents per pound and a carpenter earned 12 cents per day. While the prices on some other commodities were lower than now, a person's earning power was far lower in proportion.

Reader Says Work of Postal Employes Specialized; Deserve Increase in Pay

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I heartily endorse the plea of post office employes for an increase in pay. They never have been paid what they are entitled to. True, they have a guaranteed yearly income such as Reuther is asking for, but apparently they can't live on the guarantee.

The work of the postal employe to a great extent is highly specialized and they must be on their toes at all times. You can't push a button and let a machine do the work.

That Fifth Amendment!

ADA Challenges President's Speeech; but Suspects Are Given Every Chance

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—From one end of the country to the other the headlines and news dispatches have emphasized a few sentences from a speech here Monday night by President Eisenhower about the "right to meet your accuser face to face."

The President was discussing principles of American jurisprudence, presumably in court proceedings. Promptly, however, the "Americans for Democratic Action," a radical organization which has regularly been denouncing congressional investigations on communism, jumped all over Eisenhower with a tart charge of insincerity on the ground that he was not applying the principle in the practices of his administration.

It seems somehow to be an example of a "political motive" for the attorney general of the Eisenhower administration to reveal the laxity of former Presidet Truman in handling spies in the government but not at all "political" or "partisan" for the ADA, now headed by Adlai Stevenson's chief advisers in the last campaign, to condemn the President of the United States by challenging his sincerity.

The ADA demanded that the President apply the principle of letting the accused face the accuser in three "concrete cases." The first charge of violation of the principle was attributed as follows:

"To your own security program, which covers millions of government employes and workers in defense plants who today can be discharged as 'security risks' without this 'right to meet their accusers face to face'."

Now, the foregoing contains an inaccurate implication. The method whereby a security procedure in the governmental departments is conducted today is the same as that which prevailed under the Truman administration.

This provides that the accused must be furnished with a stenographic transcript of all charges and names of witnesses who made the charges except in those instances where, to reveal an informant, is to endanger the life or continued usefulness of the informant—as, for instance, when an FBI undercover agent actually attends Communist meetings and reports on what he sees.

But the information itself and the charge is nevertheless made available now, as under the Truman administration, before judgment is rendered. Where the identity of a witness can be revealed, he is subject to cross-examination by counsel for the accused in security proceedings.

As a matter of fact, the Eisenhower administration has actually added some procedural safeguards for the accused which were not available under the previous administration's security program.

The next ADA charge applies as follows:

"To the recent practice of your attorney general in pronouncing unilateral findings of guilt predicted on half-disclosed reports from confidential sources."

This denies the right of the government to preserve itself — for the government's right to make its own inquiry on the loyalty of its own employes, plus the right to dismiss on the basis of its own findings, has been upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States.

To work as an employe of the government is not a right, but a privilege, and this can be terminated without submitting the evidence to a court or jury to determine guilt or innocence under espionage laws.

The ADA charge is applied as follows:

"To congressional investigations where men's reputations are besmirched or destroyed without opportunity to confront and answer their accusers. We urge you to translate your fine leadership into leadership in deeds."

The President of the United States does not make the rules for committees of Congress. The Democratic Party is just as much responsible for existing rules in congressional inquiries as is the Republican Party.

Also, it is not accurate to say that a person accused does not have the right of reply.

In all the recent investigations, the congressional committees have afforded to any person accused an opportunity to testify or to file a statement in rebuttal and to have it made a part of the record.

No cross-examination of witnesses is permitted by counsel for the accused, though some Democrats and Republicans have favored such a practice.

But why is the ADA silent on the most flagrant abuse that exists today—those citizens who refuse to answer questions asked by their own government and who hide behind the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution nor merely to protect themselves but to protest spies, thus depriving the naional government of valuable information available to such witnesses and needed to maintain the security of the United States?

Former Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, in a speech Tuesday in Atlanta, said the American people are entitled "to have the facts in the Harry Dexter White case and similar cases developed, evaluated and disclosed soberly, honestly, impartially in a manner consistent with national interest, security and dignity."

Does Stevenson know of any dignified way to find out why former President Truman never revealed the facts heretofore to the American people, although warned again and again by the FBI about spies in the government?

If Stevenson can devise an "objective" way to get an answer from Truman as to why he didn't withdraw Harry Dexter White's commission when he was advised to do it and why 14 months later he still wrote White an effusive letter of praise, it will still be interesting news and be helpful indeed in disclosing how the Democratic administrations were duped by certain Communist spies masquerading as New Dealers and loyal Americans.

* * *

Stevenson accused Attorney General Brownell of "political motives." Presumably his own speech on the Brownell-Truman controversy was not influenced by any "political motive."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Says Right Point of View Necessary for Success

Jesus showed Peter that failure vs. success was simply a matter of shifting one's outlook a few degrees from the left to the right side. Scrapbook this Case Record so you can re-read it. Then compare it with the unique hypnosis case described tomorrow.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-351: The scene for this Case Record is near a little lake in Palestine in the year 29 A.D.

Jesus appears at dawn on the shore and calls to Peter, plus a few of the others who had been fishing all night.

"Children, have ye any meat?" Christ asked them.

And they replied that they had not caught a single fish in their nets. They were total failures on their fishing jaunt.

Now Jesus might have criticized them for not employing a modern streamlined boat.

Or he might have told them they should buy a new net. Or he could have urged them to take a "refresher course" in fishing school so they could learn how to net an ample supply of fish.

But Christ didn't do any of these three things. For he knew that the only thing that prevented these failures from being preeminently successful, was the wrong viewpoint.

"Cast the net on the right side of the ship and ye shall find," Jesus suggested.

And when they did so, the net was so overflowing with fish that they couldn't draw it into the ship!

Most of you readers of this column who now bemoan the fact you aren't popular or good public speakers or influential Sunday school teachers or star salesmen or successful in other fields, are just like Peter.

You probably have all the "makings" for a huge success—except the right point of view! You are figuratively fishing out of the wrong side of the boat.

So if you will just think right, you can do great things with the same brain and hands and eyes and tongues which are now so unsuccessful.

Thomas A. Edison said genius is 99 percent perspiration, not inborn talent or inherited ability.

So think positively. Quit complaining about your health or the weather or the stock market.

Everybody gets arthritis ultimately, if he lives long enough. And your competitors encounter the same bad weather or adverse market conditions as you do.

So start thinking positively. Quit saying "I can't." Instead, whisper to yourself "With God's help I can!" And repeat that whisper day after day.

Oh, it may take a little time to attain your goal. But you'll see your progress every day if you think positively.

Aim high, for you will rarely overshoot your goal. Most of us err in aiming too low in life. We don't think in big enough terms.

When I was visiting the Hendy Iron Works in California during World War II, I was impressed with a slogan on a large placard on the wall.

"The very difficult may take us half an hour," it read. "The impossible, a little longer."

It is this positive attitude which has typified our great American progress. And it is based on sound psychology.

For when you think big, your muscles will actually show greater strength, as tomorrow's Case Record will demonstrate.

So shift your point of view to the right side of the ship, as Jesus admonished Peter, and you will surprise yourself at your success in life.

Baering Down

By ARTHUR "BUGS" BAER

International News Service

First two rows at Mohammed Mossadegh's trial were occupied by Iranian reporters and Turkish photographers. They ran justice American-style with popcorn in the lobby.

Nobody knew the value of publicity better than the epileptic Mossy. He never threw a wingding that was out of focus.

The old premier came to trial in a nasturtium set of pajamas trimmed with sleigh bells.

All he was accused of was upsetting the status quo, fishing in the shah's goldfish bowl, streeting parliament and ringing up fares on a curve.

Mossy pranced, played leapfrog, hollered wolf for two hours and finally did a back-bend into a saucer of cold coffee. Exactly like the Commie mouth-pieces in front of Judge Medina.

No doubt at all those Iranikans are quick studies. They learned etiquette from movie shorts of the three stooges.

It's those two rows of newspapermen that herds my goats. We hope Chief Justice Warren remembers that the next time the Supreme Court runs pre-views of the Gabor gals.

Mossy's trial was for his life. Which wouldn't be a laffing matter if it wasn't for Mossy. Just two years ago he took a $2,000,000,000 oil racket and rang up no sale on the exit turnstile.

The fours F's in England do not include forgive and forget. For two years the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company has been staging weasel races in its pipe-lines.

Mossy never reached the heights of Louis the Dozenth, who said, "I am the state."

With Mossy it wasn't a state. It was a condition.

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Gink (gingk), noun. An absurd, eccentric person. Slang, U. S.

So said Webster in 1935. If he has said any more or less about it since then, I wouldn't know.

Now, how about geek?

Up to 1935 there was no such word in the American slanguage, so far as Webster was concerned.

But, then, how much help do you get from the New International when you come across such words as cri and vite?

Don't make the special editors laugh. There ain't no such words.

It would be hard to say offhand when the term geek first appeared in this column. Probably in the 30s. I didn't invent it. It just happened by virtue of my defective hearing, I suppose.

At best my hearing is monaural. Now, speaking of words, there's one that may stop ordinary readers but not readers who have been exposed to Greek and Latin in high school.

The principal drawback about hearing with only one ear is that you have no sense—I mean no sense of the direction from which a sound comes.

For example, if some one in a group or crowd speaks to you or asks a question, you can't guess where the blighter is unless you happen to catch him while his jaw is still waggling. This makes you feel and look stupid or impolite.

Another drawback is that in a room buzzing with conversation or a room where radio or television is going yakety-yak you just can't hear a blamed word if some one addresses a remark to you.

This makes you so blankety-blanked . . . and it's no good trying to tell everybody you're hard o' hearing when they know perfectly well that in a quiet place you hear everything you want to hear or maybe things they don't want you to hear.

So you just say the heck with them, grab your pipe and hie to the bowling green.

If any of the loafers there don't like monaural hearing, the heck with them, too. You grumpily go ahead and beat the bejabers out of them anyway.

So on a visit to 39 Chapel St., Canadaigua, that beautiful old town at the western gateway to the Finger Lakes region of the Empire State, we were listening to Walt's stories of the doings of a character of the town, and when he referred to the character as "the poor gink" I recorded it as the poor geek.

And that's what I mean when I say geek—an absured, eccentric person. For example, Ol' Doc Brady.

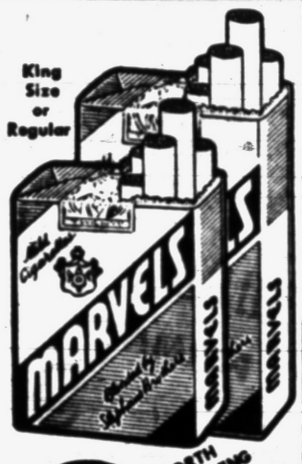

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self addressed envelope is enclosed.

Decade of Thanksgivings: Some Good, Some Bad

By ARTHUR EVERETT

NEW YORK (AP) — It was a Thanksgiving Day, with many an empty chair at the dinner table. Some such empty chairs never again were to be filled.

In Italy, the American 5th Army threw a beachhead across the River Sangro, "fighting in extremely bad conditions of mud and rain." Then the dead were counted.

British and American bombers were over France. Five failed to return. On Formosa, an Allied air raid wiped out 31 Japanese aircraft.

At home, a boys' parade in New York featured the hangings in effigy of Germany's Hitler, Japan's Tojo. And at the base of the Statue of Liberty, a religious group prayed for an end to the war.

That was Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, 1943, at the height of World War II—just 10 years ago today.

Americans have come a long way together through the past decade, and tomorrow is another Thanksgiving Day.

Beats there a heart anywhere in this great nation so forlorn that it can bespeak no thanks this holiday? If so, perhaps it can be softened by the moving finger of history, and the poet's pure, sweet song. Many years ago, before the first Thanksgiving, William Shakespeare prayed:

"O Lord! That lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness."

The fortunes of war were improving for America but, nevertheless, in the words of a current historian, Thanksgiving was "the bleakest we have known in years."

Allied forces were fighting in the streets of Strasbourg. Allied bombs rained down on Tokyo in full daylight. American combat troops on Leyte were soaked with rain. But there were thanks in fighting men's hearts.

"For life is sweet, and after life is death" — A. C. Swinburne (1837-1909)

At home, turkey sold at 49 cents a pound—but there were few to be had. Civilians were urged to substitute unrationed roast veal.

Many a turkey dinner was served on a tray to a blind or maimed or mentally unhinged veteran, hopelessly imprisoned in a service hospital.

1945

Peace made this a day of profound thanksgiving for the first time in four years — at least in America. But Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was in Washington to plead for congressional aid for war-ravaged Europe.

American religious talks were broadcast over Radio Tokyo. Stilled at last were the dulcet enticements of Tokyo Rose, the nasal hysteria of Japan's war lords.

1946

Great was America's bounty this Thanksgiving and deep its thanks. But hunger crouched astride Europe like a vulture. "Many have been our blessings in contrast to other people," remarked an American general, aghast at the despairing plight of conquered Germans.

1947

Europe's hunger touched the conscience of well-fed Americans this Thanksgiving. President Truman went without bread and eggs to symbolize the nation's food conservation program to aid the hungry overseas.

The Marshall Plan was funneling American aid overseas.

Displaced persons arrived in America in a steady stream, tasting for the first time the delights of a Thanksgiving holiday.

A quiet peaceful Thanksgiving, the last America was to know in four years.

"Rest and be thankful"—Anon.

The traffic toll hit Thanksgiving high of 123.

The West German government pledged itself to an anti-war policy. Britain's house of lords voted that nation a step nearer steel nationalization.

War, again, and a Thanksgiving clouded by suffering, the taste gone from the turkey, the sparkle from the air.

"Once to every man and nation, comes the moment to decide, in the strife of truth and falsehood, for the good or evil side"—James R. Lowell (1819-1891).

America and the United Nations had made their choice in Korea. There a final, home-by-Christmas drive was poised against Red Korea. It was to end three days later with China's entry into the war.

1951

Korean truce talks were under way. A hope for an armistice by Christmas buoyed America this Thanksgiving. American casualties neared the 100,000 mark.

1952

Still no peace in Korea and Gen. James A. Fleet told the U. S. 8th army there:

"Let us all thank God that we have Allies to fight with us and that we have a united team in Korea.

"Let us thank God that we are still free to worship as each man feels in his heart he wants to worship Him."

There it is, in brief. Those were our Thanksgiving these past 10 years. Some good, some bad.

Tomorrow?

Well, if nothing else, heed the words of the poet Walt Whitman, who once said,—"Thanks ere I go: for health, the midday sun, the impalpable aid for life, mere life, for precious ever-lingering memories."

Cranberry Salad Gives Menu Lift

Mrs. Hruska's Rule Is Timely Treat for Tomorrow

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

You're sure to be serving cranberries in some form tomorrow. No Thanksgiving dinner is complete without the all-American berry. For variety try Mrs. T. V. Hruska's Cranberry Salad recipe. She says it will keep indefinitely in the refrigerator—should there be any left to keep.

Outside of her home duties Mrs. Hruska is active in the Woman's Association of her church and serves as the secretary of the Opti-Mrs. Club. Her hobby is cooking. Many a PTA and church dinner has been excellent because she has been the kitchen chairman.

CRANBERRY SALAD
By Mrs. Tom Hruska

2 packages cherry gelatin
3 cups hot water
1 can whole cranberry sauce
1 cup finely chopped celery
½ cup chopped nutmeats

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Soften cranberry sauce over low heat, stirring constantly. Combine mixtures. When cool, stir in celery and nuts. Mold.

If you prefer to use fresh cranberry sauce, 1½ cups of the sauce should be right.

Does Girl or Escort Pay Losses?

She Assumes Own Card Expenses if Skilled Player

By EMILY POST

This question is from a young woman who asks: "When a man takes his date to a friend's house and they play cards, is it up to him to reimburse the girl for any losses she may sustain?

"A friend of mine insists that he would do this, since if he had taken her anywhere else the expense of the evening would have been his and, therefore, he should assume this expense. Your opinion will be appreciated.

Answer: If she is an expert player who habitually plays for these same stakes, she keeps her winnings or pays her losses — as she does everywhere.

If she is a novice, or does not habitually play for money, he assumes her obligations and pays her losses or keeps her winnings. This must, of course, be understood before beginning the game.

Dear Mrs. Post: The other afternoon at our group meeting, one of the members who had been away for some time went around the room shaking hands with the other members on her arrival.

She was wearing gloves but did not remove them until after she was seated. Don't you think she should have removed her gloves before shaking hands?

Answer: If it was a perfectly fresh glove, it was more correct to keep it on to shake hands than to take it off. As a matter of fact, at a really formal party gloves are exacted.

Dear Mrs. Post: In a discussion the other evening the subject of drinking toasts came up. One of the individuals insisted that it is improper to drink a toast to anyone in anything but an alcoholic beverage.

He was immediately pounced upon by several teetotalers who said that it was equally proper to drink a toast in a nonalcoholic beverage. Will you please settle this difference of opinion for us?

Answer: Although usually drunk in a stronger beverage, there is certainly no impropriety in drinking a toast in a beverage that is nonalcoholic.

LISTEN, LADIES! Isn't there a way of keeping your sweater or blouse tucked into your skirt—when you stretch or reach? Are they too short to start with? Or do they shrink?

Mary Margaret McBride Says:

Video Murders Glamour as Stars Lose Mystery

Television, by bringing celebrities into every home, has murdered glamour.

That is the charge of a man I know who sighs for the grand old times. Recently he was wistfully recalling the heyday of Enrico Caruso, almost the last of the great personalities.

MISS McBRIDE

When the opera star entered a restaurant, maintains my friend, the whole place would fill up with his adorers, jockeying for tables close by, each hoping to catch his attention and be immortalized by one of his famous pencil caricatures on the tablecloth.

Of the millions who heard his voice by way of the phonograph, which came along just in time to record him, only a minute percentage ever had any idea what he looked like. The result was that he remained a person apart.

This was true of most of the celebrities of the '90s and early 1900s. The bigger they were, the more they seemed to believe in reticence. Maude Adams never gave interviews and wore heavy veils when she had to appear in public. Her admirers had so much reverence for her that they unharnessed the horses and pulled her carriage through the streets themselves as a tribute after her best performances.

The comfort of Mrs. Patrick Campbell was so much the concern of whole municipalities that tanbark was thrown in front of theaters where she was playing so that she wouldn't be disturbed by noise.

Admirers followed the famous Lily Langtry all over the country when she went on tour, and one enchanted young man kept vigil over her private railroad coach just for the pleasure it gave him to see the Jersey Lily's graceful arm pull down her shades at night or raise them in the morning. The man who did this told me the story himself. He never was introduced to Lily Lanktry so he was never disillusioned.

Apparently even age could not wither glamour in those days. At least there was a beautiful singer who in her prime smiled—nothing more—on a bewitched young man. Later, when she had spent all her money and could sing no more, the man whose imagination had been caught and forever held by her beauty directed that she receive each month until her dying day a check for $500. She lived to a great old age, too.

It is true that movie stars have fans today, but mostly of teenage, and every now and then there is a nasty suspicion that such followers make a profitable business of hovering ardently. In other words, that they've been subsidized by press agents.

Maybe today's celebrities are a little to blame for losing their place in the sun. Perhaps they've made themselves too accessible.

I can think of only two people who have some of the old-fashioned glamour and mystery. One is Marlene Dietrich who, though seen in public now and then and even interviewed occasionally, still manages to maintain a wall of silence between the public and her private life.

The other person of course is Greta Garbo who has never been interviewed, hasn't made a public appearance or a film for 20 years and yet is the one story every newspaperman or woman longs to get. There must be a moral in that somewhere.

Grooming 'Musts'

Definition of good grooming: "Cleanliness, and the ability to dress neatly and in good taste."

Many Following in the Footsteps of J. Appleseed

Most grade-school children can readily recite the story of the romantic figure who, according to folklore, tramped across the countryside planting seeds to beautify the land for succeeding generations.

But few people realize the existence of modern-day Johnny Appleseeds who are also planting trees along the nation's highways.

These real-life followers of the legendary figure, are employes of many state highway departments throughout the United States.

Though they may never be celebrated in song and story as their illustrious predecessor was, they are performing two valuable services for American motorists. Their tree-planting activities are resulting in fewer automobile accidents.

Roadside tree planting is considered so important as an accident prevention measure that a typical state highway department spends $30,000 a year on the project.

Linoleum Refinished With Enamel

By HUBBARD COBB

The linoleum they turn out today is pretty tough stuff and can take a whale of a lot of wear, but eventually the colors will begin to fade and the pattern becomes somewhat obscure.

What you can do here if you aren't ready to replace the linoleum is to give it a new finish.

First, the linoleum must be cleaned so that it is free of dirt and wax. The best thing to use for this job is a non-inflammable solvent.

Benzine and gasoline can be used, of course, but even with the best ventilation in the world this can be a highly risky adventure.

After the linoleum is clean you go to work and give it a base coat. This should be a good grade floor enamel.

Apply it just as you would to a wood surface. A solid color will of course, show dirt and foot marks and keep you busy cleaning the floor. As few people like to spend their time cleaning floors, we suggest applying a spatter finish over the enamel base.

This is done by selecting a paint of another color from the base paint and applying it over the base with a sponge.

Pour some of this second color paint into a thin dish, dab the sponge into it and then dab the sponge over the floor. You don't have to worry about following any particular design.

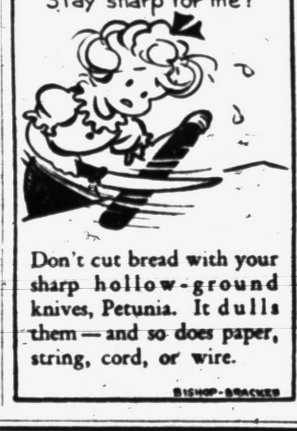

When the second coat of paint is dry, give it a coat of wax to protect it from wear.

St. Frederick Alumni Dance Saturday Promises to Be Large Reunion

Nursery School Planned by Club

A nursery school for infants under 2 years will be a special project of the Couples Club of First Presbyterian Church.

The nursery school, which will be held during the worship service, was planned Monday evening when the group met at the church.

Elected presidents of the group were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mehlberg. The Robert Lazelles are program chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Brown, food chairmen, and the Tom Callahans, secretary-treasurers of the Club.

Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson, the Leon Groggs and Mr. and Mrs. D. Edward Rightmire.

Parish Hall to Be Setting for Grads

The occasion is the second annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by St. Frederick High School alumni.

Cochairmen of the dance, Jack Sheridan and Joan Yenor, have announced that dancing will begin at 9 p.m., with a local orchestra furnishing the music.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or from the ticket chairmen, Kay Currier and Tony Stiel.

Mary Adelaide McIntyre is responsible for decorations, which will consist of pictures of graduating classes taken from the school.

President of the alumni group, Bill Brown, has announced that there will be a grand march according to graduating classes, beginning with the oldest.

Honors will be given to the earliest man and woman graduate present.

Blue Star Hears Yule Box Report

A report on Christmas boxes sent to Korean orphans was heard Tuesday evening when Blue Star Mothers Chapter Four met at the YMCA.

Mrs. William Morris made the report. Other reports were given concerning a television set presented to Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and Christmas cards and checks sent to men in service.

The group is planning a December Christmas party for Scott Farm Home and Care Center, and a party for the families of club members Dec. 16. Announcement was made of the election of officers to be held at the next meeting.

Skating Is Enjoyed by 152 Girl Scouts

Northern Oakland County Girl Scouts met for roller skating Monday. Parents and leaders taught roller skating to the 152 girls present, and plans were discussed to make Christmas tree trimmings at the next meeting.

The Girl Scouts will trim a Christmas tree at the roller skating rink.

Some Park Avenueites Banished

Blue Book Brings Sorrow to Outcasts

NEW YORK (INS) — The Bible of New York's high society, the New York Social Register, sprung its 1954 edition this week and caused a loud gnashing of teeth from several Park Avenueites who fell from the Blue Book's favor.

Horror of horrors — in high society parlance — was the omission of the name of the playboy Marquis of Milford Haven. The British noble was Prince Philip's best man at his marriage to Queen Elizabeth.

But the Marquis' own marital — the Blue Book never explains — troubles seem to have been the reason for his banishment from the sacred pages. The Marquis' wife, the former Romaine Pierce Simpson, has sued him for divorce, charging he was flagrantly indiscreet with Hungarian-born actress Eva Bartok.

Another name dropped in the new edition of Manhattan peerage is that of the former Diantha Mander, divorced wife of Theodore Mander. Last March she married Russell Nype, the Broadway singer who is the Duchess of Windsor's favorite crooner.

Then, too, there is H. Nelson Slater of Newport, R. I., the prominent clubman whose name was omitted following his marriage to Princess Maria Louise of Croy.

Not until next year's edition will the decision be known in the case of glamorous Brenda Frazier Kelly. She is estranged from John (Shipwreck) Kelly — and their names were listed separately — but she may get the ax next year if her boy friends continue hitting the front pages with unfavorable publicity.

The quickest and most usual road into the Blue Book is through marriage. The register bestowed its accolade this year on Lord Malcolm Douglas-Hamilton, who is now wed to Mrs. Natalie Wales Paine.

For the Rockefellers, it was clear sailing once again. Barbara Olson, the blonde beauty who last June married Rodman Clark Rockefeller, now graces the pages of the register.

Don't Select Vocation for Any Reason but Tremendous Enthusiasm for Field

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Too many times, vocationally speaking, we let the tail wag the dog!

Most of the people whose careers have been miserable—who have been unhappy, frustrated and underpaid in their work—have been so because they selected their job for the wrong reasons.

In my mail the other day, there was a letter from an intelligent young woman who, judging from what she says, is about to make this dreadful mistake. Here is what she says:

'I am a young girl in my early 20s, at present working as a receptionist for an industrial firm, but I am bored with the daily routine of office work.

"I would like very much to start a business of my own. I have decided that I would like to open a real estate and insurance agency.

"I am writing in hopes that you can tell me where to get information about starting a business of this type.

"Also, where would one get listings to contact clients, besides advertising in papers"

Then she goes on to the really significant fact.

"I know very litle about insurance or real estate, but know that I can learn . . .

"If you are wondering why I picked a field I know so little about, the reason is that I can run this business from my home with very little overhead, which would mean that much more profit."

Here is a young girl with ambition and energy, and yet if she selects her field of work just because she can do it at home, with no attention to experience, or trying it first, with no consideration about whether or not she really will like it, she cannot possibly succeed.

I suggest that she apply at one of the insurance companies for a job as saleswoman. They have excellent tests and hiring techniques, and they can decide whether or not she has what it takes for the field.

Also, they will train her, teach her how to sell insurance out of their headquarters.

If, after a few years, she is succeeding, if she likes the work, that is time enough to think about hanging out her own shingle and working out of her own home.

Don't ever choose a field for any reason except a tremendous enthusiasm for the work itself—entirely apart from any of the superficial aspects of it.

Teenager Needs Sufficient Rest

As the football season ends, mothers of high school athletes should beware that their sons do not overdo in casting strict training regulations to the winds.

Of course, the teenager doesn't need as much sleep as he did when he was drilling daily on the football field. His physical exertion is far less.

However, it is natural for him to want to catch up on some of the fun he missed during training, and in his enthusiasm he may keep too many late hours.

The player's mother, therefore, should help impress the importance of adequate rest to his health, schoolwork, and even popularity. Prolonged lack of proper sleep will make him physically run-down, less alert in class, and too listless to be much fun.

Just as important as an adequate amount of sleep is the quality of rest. For refreshing slumber, sleep equipment must be in good condition.

You can enjoy the pleasure of smoking and still not ruin the beauty of your hands with ugly tobacco stains if you use this cigarette holder. The same filter that prevents tars and nicotine from discoloring your fingers will keep your smile bright and white.

PTAs Ought to Discuss Self-Trust

Today's Grownups Actually Fear Own Youngsters

Are we afraid of our children?

"Yes," saiy juvenile authorities in city after city across this nation. They say our fear has a lot to do with the rise in juvenile lawlessness everywhere. Writer Howar dWhitman, whom I quoted in my last column, said, "No, I don't believe it."

So the juvenile officials in San Francisco took him on a call to the home of a 17-year-old boy whose father said: "He stays out until 3 and 4 in the morning. He's out somewhere now — I don't know where. I can't tell him a thing. I'm at the end of my rope . . .

Then pleading for help with control of his son, this 48-year-old parent said, "He thinks nothing of taking a poke at me."

A new low in parental helplessness? Maybe. But if it is, it's only a new low in an old trend.

Within the next months we'll be reading many learned opinions on the causes of this new wave of juvenile defiance. We'll be hearing a lot about children's need for more parks, more supervised recreation and "understanding."

What we may not hear about is their need for more parents who know what they believe in.

That's the real trouble.

For if we want regular hours, we have to know what we believe about late ones. We have to be so sure that 4 a.m. is a wasteful and unproductive time to come home that we can explain it to our son.

But if we don't show our conviction, anything can happen. We may have to call in others to do our talking and acting for us.

This rush for other people's thinking is something I'd like to see our PTA groups talk about. For it's perilous to fool ourselves. There's no difference whatever between the fashionable young mother's dependence on her child psychologist and this helpless father's dependence on the juvenile officials.

Both want relief from the responsibility of judgment.

What is this self-distrust? What enemy sowed it in us? Why are we so complacent about the way we rush for some "expert" in human relationships the moment one gets mixed-up?

Is it just our Age of Specialization? Have we come to regard the psychologists and juvenile officials the way we regard the experts who make out our income taxes, decorate our homes or organize a bridge foursome at a summer resort hotel?

What's happened to our faith in our own power to think and act well? It surely seems a subject for our PTA groups to start talking about. Alone. By themselves. Without any experts or authorities.

Boy Likes Girl, but Only Walks Her Around Block, Never Asks for Dates

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I like a boy who lives very near me—he knows it and he has told me that he likes me. He comes around quite often and each time he asks me to go for a walk.

"I go, but sometimes we just walk around the block for 10 or 15 minutes, then he goes home and that's all there is to it. He has never asked me for a date, but I'm hoping he will.

"Can you tell me how I can get him to come around more often and stay here longer?"

Those 10-minute strolls aren't likely to satisfy any girl who likes a boy. You can hardly pass the time of day before you're back at your own front door saying goodnight to him. Seems odd that they should satisfy him. Unless, of course, he hasn't really started to date yet.

But it oughtn't to be too hard to turn those walks of yours into the beginning of something bigger. Does he have to trot on home as soon as he gets you to your house? Couldn't he be persuaded to accept an invitation to stop in for a minute?

If there's an interesting program on, he might be tempted to listen or watch for a while. If there's a scrumptious chocolate cake to pass around, he might be teased into eating his share.

If your family is welcoming, he might find the atmosphere inside your house completely agreeable. Such fun, in fact, that he forgets how time is passing. And you'll have a whole evening together.

That's not exactly asking for a date. But it's certainly laying the groundworkd. The next time he stops by seeking a walking partner, as!: him to sit down for a visit first, and take your stroll later—thereby prolonging his visit.

After a few of these accidental stopoffs at your house, he might find it more interesting to stick around there than to hie you forth into the night. Unless, of course, there's a party to go to, or a show you both want to see. And there you'll be with a real date on your hands, finally!

"Dear Miss Woodward: I met a new boy the other day and I think he is very nice. He seems to be very shy when with a girl.

"In fact, I heard that he went with a girl for six months and never did kiss her! He'll take a girl out if it is a double date. I need your help with this guy!"

Having just met the boy, you seem to know quite a bit about him already. But the important thing is that he'll go on double dates. And a double date is something you can get fixed up for yourself without really asking him for the date.

Get your girl friend to ask her boy friend to ask your boy friend to make the fourth some evening. If he's as shy as you think he is, he might like the idea of having all the arrangements made for him. If it's just plain laziness, he might follow the leader.

Let somebody else ask him for your date. You might get it. After all, the straight line isn't always the shortest way to date with a skittish guy.

Oliva Viola Addresses Study Club

Discusses Teenage Behavior Tuesday at Reynnells Home

Oliva Viola of the Pontiac Child Guidance Clinic was guest speaker when members of Child Study Club Group Three met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Reynnells of North Johnson avenue.

"Special aspects of behavior in the adolescent and teenage groups" was the theme for Miss Viola's speech.

She stressed the confidence one should have in oneself to guide youth through the adolescent stage. The adolescent is under stress from two sides, she pointed out. The parent is trying to guide him, yet he desires to be independent and follow other youth.

The parent is inclined to try to keep him as a youth. Regardless of how parents try to guide him, the only way he is going to learn is from his own experience, Miss Viola said.

The speaker also pointed out that there are four things the adolescent needs from his parents. The parents must be around when needed, the adolescent must be understood, he must be accepted and he must have the confidence of his parents.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Lester Krumwiede, Mrs. Carl Bird, Mrs. Donald Rath and Mrs. Bob Rogers.

Mrs. Bruce Hubbard and Mrs. L. Verl Kline are new members, and guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Elwood Bigler and Mrs. Donald Frazier.

The next meeting will be a sandwich luncheon held at the home of Mrs. Milton Hathaway Dec. 15 with Frieda Huggett as speaker.

CARE OF HANDS

The same rules apply to our hands that govern the care of skin and hair. We cannot remove all the oil from skin and nails and still have good looking hands.

Of course nutrition plays its part, but the chief cause of rough, dry hands and broken nails is the detergents we use in our housework.

These strong cleansers are excellent aids in our house cleaning, but are ruinous to our hands. The only satisfactory solution to this problem is rubber gloves. If you haven't tried them for awhile you may be surprised, the new ones fit better and wear better.

Next week . . . simple manicure procedure.

Silent Film Pioneer Dies in Illinois at 81

CHICAGO (AP)—George K. Spoor, 81, a pioneer in the motion picture industry in Chicago who gave many stars of the silent films their start, died yesterday in his home.

Spoor and Gilbert M. (Broncho Billy) Anderson founded the Essanay Film Co. in 1897. Stars who started their movie careers on the Essanay lot on Argyle Street included H. B. Walthal, Gloria Swanson, Wallace Beery, Francis X. Bushman and Charles Chaplin.

The Essaney lot was closed in 1916 when the motion picture industry started in Hollywood.

Spoor, who was president of the company, was credited with making one of the first projection machines that enabled filmed pictures to be flashed on a screen.

Spoor's wife, Ada, a sister-in-law of the late evangelist, Billy Sunday, died in 1951. He lived with his daughter, Gertrude, and her husband, Douglas L. Weart, a retired major general.

State of Nevada had a treasury balance of $10.8 million at the end of its most recent fiscal year.

Builds Morale of Cops With Cash Awards

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — This isn't "Help Your Policeman Week," but Bert Guterman thinks there's no time like the present for showing cops you're glad they're around.

Guterman's hobby is rewarding outstanding cops — with money.

He has set up a standing reward of $100 to be presented each month to the "outstanding policeman or sheriff's deputy" in line of duty.

Altogether, he spends $5,000 a year rewarding good cops all over the country with cash gifts or trophies. "It helps their morale," he says.

Guterman, a retired furniture manufacturer, met and liked some policemen on a train out of New York City 40 years ago. That started it.

As a by-product of his hobby he has a gun collection he values at $50,000 on display at his Hollywood home. Nearly every weapon was used in a crime of violence. They were presented to him by police.

Policemen, detectives and sheriffs have given him more than 550 police badges from all over the world. Seven badges are studded with diamonds. One Los Angeles deputy sheriff's badge with seven diamonds is valued at $2,000.

Guterman travels throughout the nation visiting police departments and exchanging ideas with police officers — from commissioners to rookies.

Guterman always is in the midst of a fight to increase a city's police budget. He is always for the good cop.

"I have one motive and that is to bring cooperation between citizens and police officers," he says.

"I never ask for a favor."

2,000 Attend Symphony on Grocer's Free Tickets

CINCINNATI (AP)—A grocer with a love for music—and an ear for public relations — presented the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra free last night to 2,000 Cincinnati concert-goers.

William H. Albers, sponsor of the pop concert, made no bones about why he would support two more similar programs this season. The music is good advertising for his business.

Czech Escapees Tell of Bullets

Flee Over Line Amid Shots; One Knows of Colorado Relatives

REGENSBURG, Germany (AP) — Two anti-Communist Czechs who skittered over the Iron Curtain to freedom in a tiny sports plane said today they had fled their homeland because "We no longer could distinguish truth from lies."

The two were Jiri Wertheimer, 25, a mechanical engineer, and Zdenek Volf, 23, an agriculturist.

They made a daring flight across the West German-Czech border Sunday in a heavy fog, and landed their little 60 horsepower sports plane in a farm field southeast of Regensburg.

Communist border guards let loose a hail of bullets as the single-engined plane sped over the frontier, but the shots missed.

Both have relatives in the United States, South America and Australia. Wertheimer said some of his kin were in Denver, Colo., but that he knew them only by the name "Fuchs" and had no idea of their street address. They have not made any plans for the future but would like to emigrate to a new home together.

Speaking before a jammed news conference, they disclosed that the imminent draft of them both into the Czech army crystalized their plans to escape.

"We both had ideas of escaping," Volf said. "Then we learned that we would soon be drafted into the army. For a month we planned our escape and planned to take the first opportunity. This came last Sunday when we were apprised of a day at Prague airport for the Communist Youth Flying Club."

He explained that both had joined a glider club which later was taken over by the Czech army and turned into a "voluntary" youth movement.

Volf said the plane in which they made their escape had been turned over to the Czechs by the U.S. government back in 1945 and had been used as a training plane by the youth air club.

Each had seven hours of training in the little sports plane.

Their first solo flights were to be made on the day of their escape.

Volf gassed up the plane with the permission of his companion in his job as officer of the day. Then they taxied the plane to the end of the runway where they pretended to be photographing each other as a memo of their "solo" days.

Suddenly, they both clambered into the plane, gave it the gun.

They flew in the general direction of the Danube River.

The two youths were moving steadily toward freedom when one wing of the plane began to drag. Ice had formed on it. Several times the engine coughed and sputtered.

The icing forced the plane lower and lower and they were within rifle shot as it crossed the frontier. A sharp-eyed Czech guard unlimbered his rifle and sent a futile rattle of shots skyward as it teetered over the border. They headed for a field and ended their thrill-filled 2½ hour flight.

U.S. authorities declined to comment on either the next move of the two Czechs or what would be done with the airplane.

Stolen Fowl Is Swan, Not Thanksgiving Bird

NORWALK, Conn. (AP)—That fowl stolen from Pete Hettings' ranch is no Thanksgiving bird, he announced today. He said it's a young swan, not a goose, and would make a pretty tough holiday dish.

The rancher, who values the swan at $125, says he'll give the thief a goose, however, and will ask no questions if the swan is returned.

Achieved Honor as Bond Seller

With Ted Collins' Aid, Singer Attains Success as Entertainer

NEW YORK — If there were ever a personality whose fame was synonomous with the best in American tradition, whose name was as familiar all over the world as the term "Yankee," and whose gracious charm has endeared her to many millions of fans — that personality is Kate Smith.

The magnetic star of TV's Kate Smith Hour was once introduced by the late President Roosevelt to the King and Queen of England as, "This is America — this is Kate Smith."

A great singer of songs, Miss Smith has achieved equal distinction as "America's number one saleswoman" and as a humanitarian devoting much time and effort on behalf of worthwhile causes.

Her straightforwardness and charm achieve wonderful results, according to sponsors and fund drive chairmen.

Katherine Elizabeth Smith was born in Greenville, Va., and made her first public appearance at the age of four as a singer in a church choir in Washington, D. C. During World War I, although still a little girl, she entertained troops with her singing.

Kate's first regular radio program began in the spring of 1931. It consisted of 15 minutes of song. This was followed by a number of successful programs which included comedy and variety formats.

With her increasing popularity, Kate's theme song, "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain," became a familiar label to radio audiences the nation over.

In 1938, Ted Collins astonished the radio entertainment field by announcing that Kate Smith was to do a daytime program as a commentator, in addition to her evening singing show.

Radio executives who expressed skepticism soon learned that the potency of Kate Smith's personality as a singer carried over into her neighborly chats on "Kate Smith Speaks," with the program achieving high ratings.

With the outbreak of World War II, Kate began extensive participation in entertainment of troops in the United States and Canada.

KATE SMITH

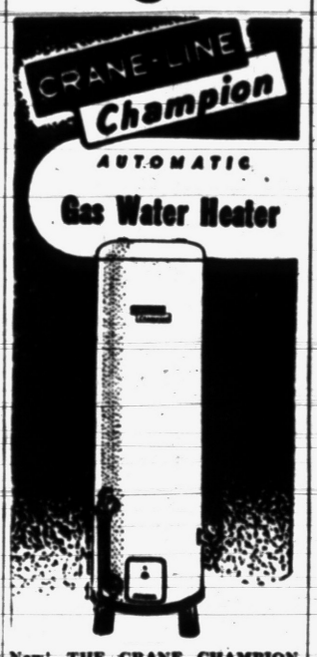

Her most dramatic contribution of the war effort was that of "bond salesman." In a series of 'round-the-clock radio appeals, she sold a total of $500,000,000 worth of war bonds—more than was sold by any other person in America.

On Sept. 25, 1950, Kate began her popular daytime TV series. It was the first major daytime television program, and as such represented an entirely new concept in TV programming.

Skilled showmanship and entertainment know-how have contributed to her program's leadership in daytime television. It proved again that the Smith-Collins combination in entertainment spells success.

Marriage Sours for Young Man's Rich Bride, 75

WICHITA, Kan. (UP)—A 75-year-old woman filed a divorce suit against her young husband yesterday to end what her lawyer called a "March-November" marriage.

The husband, Bob L. Stover of Tulsa, gave his age as 29 when they were married last March.

Mrs. Helena Robbins Stover owned property worth half a million dollars and after their marriage Stover started several lawsuits involving the property.

Ray Tinder, Mrs. Stover's lawyer, said one suit challenged the validity of a deed to oil land which Mrs. Stover gave to her only son, Neal Robbins of Wichita. The suits are still pending.

The divorce suit charges gross neglect and cruelty.

Kerr and Russell Say Adlai Has Head Start

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senators Russell (D-Ga) and Kerr (D-Okla), both unsuccessful candidates for the 1952 Democratic presidential nomination, say Adlai E. Stevenson, who won it, has a head start for 1956.

Russell told newsmen yesterday "it's very likely" Stevenson will seek the nomination again. He added: "As titular head of the party (he) has the advantage over any other candidate."

Kerr agreed but said he does not know Stevenson's plans.

Exiled Colombian's Case Will Test Right-of-Asylum

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign News Editor

Searchlights play on the walls of the Colombian embassy in a swank section of Lima, Peru, by night and guards with tommy guns in the crooks of their arms check each person entering or leaving by day.

The reason is 58-year-old Victor Raul Haya de la Torre, a man who lives in exile in his own country.

Peru wants him on a charge of treason.

Colombia protects him under the time-honored "right of asylum," a diplomatic tradition peculiar to Latin America but unrecognized under international law.

In January, Haya will begin his sixth year behind the Colombian embassy walls, while debate continues to rage over his future.

His case comes to attention now because it has been taken under advisement by the Inter-American Peace Commission in Washington, which is a part of the organization of American states and is composed of five members—the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Cuba and Mexico.

Colombia requested that the commission take up the Haya case, which so far has resisted solution even by the international court at The Hague.

But the commission itself has sharply limited powers and can only act to help settle a dispute if both sides are willing.

Peru has given no indication of its attitude toward the latest move.

To millions of Latin American Indians and mixed blood "mestizos" he is a hero because of his campaign to improve their lot.

He also is an exceptionally brilliant man and is once said to have been described by Dr. Albert Einstein as 1 of 12 people in the world who understood Einstein's theory of relativity.

Haya was born in Trujillo, a small northern Preuvian town, the son of the founder and editor of a provincial daily newspaper. His uncle was a priest.

At 19, he enrolled in the University of Cuzco where he began his political leadership at the head of the Peruvian University Students Federation. In Cuzco, seat of the ancient Inea regime, he saw the plight of the Indians and decided to do something about it.

Later, he founded the American Popular Revolutionary Alliance (APRA) and by his followers was given the name "Pachacutec" (he who moves the earth).

They claim that he was elected president of Peru but that the opposition falsified the returns.

It was on Jan. 3, 1949, that he took refuge in the Colombian embassy to escape, just ahead of Peruvian police who wanted him for alleged participation in an abortive sailors' revolt at the port of El Callao on Oct. 1, 1948.

Meantime, Colombian ambassadors have come and gone but Haya remains.

Haya has been a strong supporter of close cooperation with the United States and has professed admiration for the American way of life. Opposed, however, are those who call him a dangerous rabble rouser.

At any rate, his case now is two-edged. On the one hand, it is a test of the "right of asylum" theory. On the other, is Colombia's feeling that it may become a "threat to the peace" of the Western Hemisphere.

World Warned to Plan Food for Big Census

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP)—The world was warned today to either solve its food crisis or face the revolutionary wrath of a mostly hungry populace increasing at the rate of 100 million persons every four years.

Norris E. Dodd, onetime U.S. undersecretary of agriculture and now general director of the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), told the organization's seventh world conference:

"It must be frankly faced that the distribution of production between the developed and underdeveloped regions remains unchanged, unbalanced and unsatisfactory. . . .

"Moreover, government plans and programs, even if fully achieved, do not offer prospect of significant improvement in these disparities. . . .

"The millions who are short of food and other necessities of life have become, year by year, more keenly aware that a better life is possible. They are demanding action to improve their lot."

FAO estimates 70 per cent of the world's population is ill-fed, and that this population is increasing at such a rate "that there will be over 100 million more people to feed in 1956-57 than there are in 1952-53."

Dodd gave this appraisal in his biennial report to the 500 delegates here from 68 nations for the meeting.

Ordinance Pushed Through to Conserve City's Water

Measure Affects Air-Conditioners

Orders Recirculation Device for Units of Over 3-Ton Capacity

An ordinance designed to cut the water consumption rate of air-conditioning and refrigeration units was passed last night by Pontiac City Commission.

The measure is expected to prevent water waste by regulating installation and operation of such units using city water.

The ordinance requires conditioning units of over three-ton capacity be equipped with a recirculator or other conserving device to permit use of the same water.

Such a system can cut a unit's consumption as much as 90 per cent, according to City Manager Walter K. Willman.

The regulation allows 18 months to equip existing non-conforming units with the waste-saving device. Thus all units will be converted before the summer of 1955.

In other action the commission approved a year's lease of 10,000 square feet of space in Hangar No. 1 at Pontiac Municipal Airport to Gordon's Air Service. The company will use the area for storage and repair of aircraft.

Commissioners decided further study was needed on renewal of a contract with Consumer's Power Co. for furnishing electricity for city water pumping.

Action taken on other matters included:

Proposed termination of an escrow agreement with the Tel-Huron Shopping Center was deferred for more study.

A public hearing held on intention to construct a water main in Sheffield from Baldwin to University.

A resolution accepting deeds for widening Northway drive was adopted.

The commission approved a request from The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. asking permission to construct a foot-bridge across the Clinton river near the intersection of Cass and Pike to open an additoonal parking area for store customers.

A request from N. C. Zack, attorney for the Dan Rose real estate firm of Detroit, asking permission to erect a sign between the curb and sidewalk on the southwest corner of Baldwin and Columbia was denied.

The commission also:

Received a communication from Eva Palaian on behalf of the Pullman Lunch, 724 Glenwood Ave., requesting a Class C liquor license.

Declared a public necessity for construction of curb, gutter, drainage and two-inch blacktop pavement on Algonquin and Seminole to East Iroquois, on Oneida from Algonquin to Menominee and on Ontario from Wenonah to Menominee.

Moved to advertise lot 47 of Robert Herndon Pontiac Apartment Subdivision for public auction on Dec. 8.

Millard Upholds Narcotics Law

Says 20-Year Minimal Sentence for Dope Sale Is Constitutional

The constitutionality of a recent state statute setting a minimum 20 year sentence for persons convicted of the sale of narcotics has been upheld today in a written opinion from Attorney General Frank G. Millard.

Circuit Court Judges Frank L. Doty and George B. Hartrick requested the opinion because they felt "the act takes away the discretion of the Court in miniumum sentences and violates the separation of powers."

Millard said in his report: "—the statute is constitutional as far as the penalty clauses are concerned—and the matter of minimum sentence is under exclusive province of the legislature."

He continued: "The legislative enactment merely reflects the growing concern throughtout Michigan over the expansion of the narcotic traffic."

Eugene Thompson of Flint was sentenced under the new statute last April by Judge Hartrick, and Richard Brown, Jr. of 249½ Rockwell St. is awaiting sentence on a narcotics sale charge.

Army Makes Lab Tests in Tot's Death

TOKYO (AP)—Army investigators said today they are making laboratory tests which may show whether Susan Rotschild was Japanese or Caucasian.

The Army said strands of hair, not her own, were found on the body of the little girl who was strangled and thrown into a drainage ditch Saturday evening.

There was no evidence of rape but the pretty child had apparently been choked to death by the bare hands of her slayer.

Her father, Col. Jacquard Rothschild of Chicago, found the little girl's body in the ditch near their home in an Army housing area.

American criminal investigation agents have headed the investigation. There have been a handful of reports that an American soldier was seen in the area.

Kid Wants to Be a 2nd Rose; Billy Says---Drown Him

By BILLY ROSE

Witness this first paragraph of a letter which arrived in the mail today from a Mrs. Emma Bennesey of Baltimore:

"Dear Sir,

"I am not in the habit of writing to perfect strangers, but my son Norman, aged 13, is molding his life after yours and says he wants to be the Billy Rose of 1975. Frankly, I don't know what to do . . ."

BILLY ROSE

In her five-page letter, Mrs. Bennesey goes on to give me a case history of the lad.

It seems that when he was 10 he read "Wine, Women and Words," a book of my columns which stressed the importance of publicity in the career of a showman.

Inspired, if that's the word, Norman immediately set out to make his name known to all and sundry.

The opening gun in his quest for self-identification was an innocent-enough prank—he painted up a sandwich board saying, "I Am A Backward Boy," and walked backwards all the way from Baltimore to Annapolis.

A local paper ran a picture of Norman and this sandwich board and encouraged by this publicity, the lad began dreaming up other gimmicks. The next two stunts, however, didn't work out so well. First off, he lost his job as manager of his eighth-grade basketball team when he had programs printed up reading, "NORMAN BENNESEY presents his five Baltimore Tigers—Count 'Em."

A month later, he lost his paper route when he red-stamped the front pages so they read, "NORMAN BENNESEY presents the "Baltimore Sun."

A more recent incident, and evidently the one which prompted Mrs. Bennesey to write her letter, was of a more devious nature. Norman, having read that I owned a collection of antique silver, hit on a plan which he figured would make him rich overnight.

His notion was to walk into a bank with a storage battery in one hand and a small vacuum cleaner in the other.

At the teller's window, he would announce it was a stick-up, thrust the vacuum head between the bars of the cage, and suck up all the paper money in the cash drawer.

As soon as the boy had worked out the details of this operation, he wrote the president of a vacuum cleaner company, pointing out it would be fine publicity for the company's product, and suggesting it sponsor him.

The president wrote back promptly — and according to Mrs. Bennesey it was a kindly letter.

If Norman, he said, promised on his Scout's honor not to carry out his plan, the company would send him a check big enough to pay for psychiatric treatment for a whole year.

As of now, writes the mother, her son is working on a brand new project — polka-dot paint. The way Mrs. Bennesey describes it, you paint over a surface with a brush, and an hour later the surface is all over polka dots.

In her concluding paragraph, the lady from Baltimore says, "Norman thinks it would make it a lot easier for him to become the Billy Rose of 1975 if you would will him your name when you pass away.

"He is so serious about this that he says if you don't do it, he'll come to New York and release his flea circus in your theater.

My problem is, should I encourage Norman and give him his head (my husband says I should make that 'give him his two heads'), or do you think I ought to accept the check from the company and take him to a psychiatrist . . . ?"

This ominous leter, as the saying goes, gave me pause, but after taking a cold shower I managed to answer it as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Bennesey,

In answer to yours of the 18th inst., please inform your son that he has no chance of being the Billy Rose of 1975. That exalted station I have reserved for myself.

"As for your immediate problem, I doubt whether a psychiatrist is the answer. My considered recommendation is that you take Norman and the first pussycat you can find to Chesapeake Bay. When you get there, push them both off the dock. Three minutes later, fish out the cat.

"Believe me, madam — and I know whereof I speak — you're much better off with a wet pussycat, than with a kid who wants to be Billy Rose."

Justice Fired in Foreign Post

State Department Ousts Appeals Court Judge in Germany

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Chief Justice William Clark of the U. S. Court of Appeals in Germany said today he had been fired by the State Department for "failing to take orders." However, the jurist declared he would ignore the dismissal notice and continue to hold court.

Clark, a native of Princeton, N. J., was recently named head of a three-man group assigned by the American Assn. of Lawyers in Germany to investigate reports that telephones in the headquarters of U. S. High Commissioner James B. Conant were equipped with recording devices.

At a news conference today, Clark said he had received a cable Monday from the State Department declaring him "surplus" and advising that he would not be reappointed when his regular term ends Jan. 8.

"They ordered me back to the United States for 'consultations' within the next 10 days," he said. "But I am not going to go. This is an attempt to discipline somebody who won't take orders. The shocking thing is that judges are not supposed to take orders. I am the chief justice of an independent court."

Charging that the State Department regarded the chief justice as "a State Department clerk," Clark asserted it "would take much more than locking the door" to keep him from the bench.

Clark is a former judge of the 3rd U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Philadelphia.

He said he would not vacate his office even on Jan. 8 because he believes his tenure is indefinite and that any removal must come for cause.

There was talk today that the American lawyers association here would protest Clark's removal. The association president, Franklin Potter of Hollywood, Calif., sent a letter to Conant today that one less judge on the court would "result in great injustice to litigants."

Sabotage in Scotland

DUMFRIES, Scotland (AP)—Saboteurs have made two attempts to blow up electricity lines linking Scotland and England, police said last night.

Commission OKs 9 New Pontiac Voting Precincts

An ordinance revision carving out nine new voting precincts in Pontiac was passed by the City Commission last night.

The move provides for boundary changes in precincts 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 15, 16, 19, 30, 31, 32 and 35, giving the city a total of 44 precincts.

Only a fraction of voters in each precinct will need to change registration, according to City Clerk Ada R. Evans. Cards will be sent to approximately 11,000 voters affected by the change.

Need for the revision was brought out during the last presidential election when accute overcrowding occurred at some of the city's former 35 precincts.

Harrelson Examination Advanced to Nov. 30

Examination of Leaun Harrelson Jr., 18, on a negligent homicide charge has been advanced from Dec. 2 to Nov. 30, according to Chief Assistant Prosecutor George F. Taylor.

Harrelson, of 26 Delaware Dr., appeared before Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice Finnegan on Nov. 18 but the examination was continued until Dec. 2 when three witnesses were unable to appear.

The youth is charged in the death of Mrs. Veda H. Coon, 37, of 49 Dwight Ave., who was hit by Harrelson's car on W. Huron St. at Dwight Ave. Oct. 9.

Parade to Usher in Yule Season

Religious Floats Will Tell Christmas Story on Dec. 5

The annual parade will officially usher in the Christmas season Saturday, Dec. 5 at 9:30 a.m.

Meanwhile, ministers, merchants and organizations across the city hailed the return to the religious spirit of Christmas planned for this year's parade.

"The pastors' association is solidly behind this accent on the true meaning of Christmas," says Rev. H. E. Ryan of Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church and pastors' association president. "There's no doubt about it—it will help revive the true Christmas spirit."

Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly of St. Michael Church had similar comments.

"I think this is a fine thing," he said. "Our church intends to be in the picture next year. I hope this project keeps growing and is more and more successful every year."

John W. Hirlinger, assistant manager of Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, commented that "everyis enthusiastic about this project. "Our local merchants," he said, "are eager to see the accent placon the inspirational side of Christmas. It'll do a lot for Pontiac's community spirit."

Twenty-two churches and organizations so far, have signed up to enter floats in this year's parade.

Churches include First Baptist, Trinity Baptist, First Presbyterian, All Saints Episcopal, Calvary Assembly, Ascension Lutheran, St. John Lutheran and St. Trinity Lutheran.

Other floats are planned by Central Christian Church, Hellenic Orthodox Church, First Assembly of God, First Methodist, Free Methodist, Baldwin Avenue Evangelical Baptist and Central Methodist churches and the Christian Temple.

Other "pageants on wheels" will come from the Boys' Club of Pontiac, Women's Christian Temperance Union, Pontiac YMCA, Oakland County Children's Home and Pontiac Citadel, Salvation Army.

Airline to Shuttle Santa's Letters

For the sixth consecutive year Pan American World Airways is going to help prove that Santa Claus exists with letters from the gentleman himself, written on his own stationery.

The airline says it plans to pick up mail from Santa's dog-sled service between the North Pole and Alaska and dispatch it by air to children all over the country.

Last year on Christmas eve, thousands of American youngsters had a letter from Santa under their pillows, the airline said.

On the envelopes was a picture of the jolly old man and the letters inside were written on his own stationery.

Parents who want their children to receive a letter from Santa this year are asked to write it on stationery acquired from a Pan American office or travel agent.

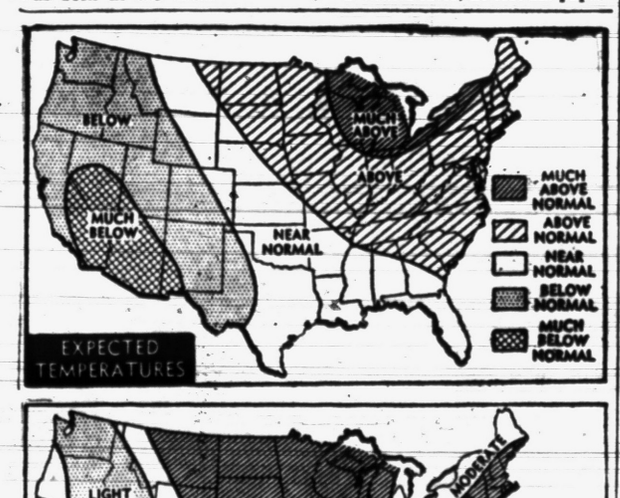

Letters should be addressed to the child and taken or mailed to the nearest Pan American office or travel agent so it arrives before Dec. 15. Each envelope requires a six cent stamp.

The airline will fly the letters to Fairbanks, Alaska, and mail them back to children in the United States.

Cheboygan Boy Shoots Bear After Dog Barks

CHEBOYGAN (AP)—Leo Chamberlain, a Cheboygan Catholic High School freshman and his stepfather, Robert Durfee, grabbed their guns and came a runnin' when they heard the dog bark on their farm.

They found a 150-pound black bear doing the wildlife equivalent of dipping into the cookie jar. In this case it was a bee hive. They both fired. Durfee said his stepson's shot brought down the bear.

WEATHER FORECAST—The weather maps above give the U. S. Weather Bureau's long-range forecast for the rest of November and the first half of December. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but is an estimate of the average rain or snow and temperatures for the period. The Pontiac area can expect temperatures to be much above average, with moderate amounts of precipitation.

For the Record

Generalissimo Franco Admired as Dictator, Yet Unpopular With People

Miss Alice-Leone Moats, author of "No Passport for Paris" and "A Violent Innocence," tells how Franco's policies are winning him the grudging admiration, but not the friendship, of his countrymen.

MADRID—Eight years after the end of World War II, Franco is still chief of the Spanish state, the only pre-war dictator to have remained in power. That in itself would be remarkable, but even more remarkable is the change in the Spaniards' attitude towards him.

On my previous visits to Spain, I scarcely heard anybody express anything except hatred or bitter criticism of the Caudillo. This year, one after another of the people I talked with outside of royalists circles (the monarchists continue to whistle the Don Juan tune in the dark) surprised me by saying, "It can't be denied that he's done a good job for us."

MISS MOATS

This doesn't mean that the Generalissimo is ever going to win any contests for the title of the most popular kid in town. It merely indicates that Spaniards are realists who don't have to love a man to admit that he has ability, an objective point of view that is difficult for Americans to understand since it is our special weakness to overestimate those we like and to underrate those we dislike.

I remember how, on my arrival in Moscow a few weeks before the Nazis attacked the Soviet Union, our Ambassador referred to Stalin whom he'd never met as, "that jerk". After the Russo-German war started, and we had become enthusiastic admirers of our new-found co-defenders of democracy, Stalin deigned to receive the American Ambassador who came away from the Kremlin babbling about "that brilliant, that extraordinary man".

Considering our experiences with Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini, de Gaulle and the other villians and heroes of the past twenty years, we should have learned that it's only good sense to recognize a friend's defects and an enemy's qualities. Yet, even today, any one who ventures to suggest that Franco is a pretty bright fellow, risks being labelled a Fascist. It is not fashionable to like him, therefore he must be a fool.

The record shows that, far from being a fool, he is one of the ablest politicians of our time. Or, at least, one of the great poker players of all time. Ever since the end of the Spanish civil war, he has been sitting in on a game of political poker against players with every winning card in the pack, while he has had a single ace—Spain's he has either managed to hold his own or has raked in the chips.

From 1939 to 1945, he had one objective that he never lost sight of for a moment—to keep Spain out of the war. During the fourteen months I spent in Madrid in 1943-44, I had an inside view of how he went about attaining it.

Over and over again, he outsmarted the Germans, letting them think they were going to get what they wanted and then either not delivering or delivering the minimum. He used his brother-in-law, Serrano Suner, then Foreign Minister and genuinely pro-German as front man to convince Hitler of his friendliness. Serrano Suner sat in on conferences, went to Berlin for talks, made proposals and promises, and then was sent back redfaced to explain that he apparently hadn't understood Franco's orders and negotiations would have to be started over again. Grasping every means of delay, he turned, twisted, evaded and wasted the Germans' time in order to gain an hour, a day, a week, a month for himself.

When the Nazis informed him that they must have bases in Spain Franco didn't argue. Instead, he gave them the warmest assurances that they could count on him for anything they needed if an emergency should arise.

But, in the meantime, he didn't think it would be wise to send German troops into Spain: Spaniards, he explained, didn't like foreigners and they might make things unpleasant even for those engaged in a peaceful occupation; there was so little food that all supplies would have to be shipped in at vast trouble and expense; Spain could be more useful to Germany at that moment by remaining neutral.

The emergency arose the day the Allies landed in North Africa. Hitler immediately demanded the promised bases. Although Franco's answer was couched in refined diplomatic terms its meaning was quite crude. Stripped of polite verbiage the message amounted to, "Come and get them. Just come and get them".

The Germans raged, they cursed, they called Franco an ingrate and a double crosser, but that was all they could do. They weren't in a position to extend the war to Spain and, besides, they had found out in Russia what it was like to be harried by guerillas and knew what they would be up against if they tried to fight their way across the Iberian Peninsula.

After that, there were nearly three years more of pacifying Hitler on the one hand and avoiding any incidents with the Allies on the other. Franco managed so skillfully that he attained his objective and earned the right to expect the gratitude of the Spanish people for keeping them out of the war.

United Nations Rebukes Israel

By TOM ROGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Ignoring Israeli appeals, the U.N. Security Council by a 9-0 vote last night rebuked the Jewish state for the killing of 53 Arabs in Jordan's Kibya village and called on her to see that such actions do not happen again.

The resolution—sponsored by the United States, Britain and France—brought protests from both Jordan and Israel. They do not belong to the council and have no vote there.

Israeli Delegate Abba Eban charged that the censure was loaded in favor of Jordan and warned that it might torpedo the direct Israeli-Jordan talks his government has demanded.

Sources close to Jordan labeled the resolution a "milk-sop" which merely chided Israel and did nothing to punish her.

Charles Malik of Lebanon, only Arab member of the 11-nation council, abstained on the vote along with Russia. Malik explained to reporters later he felt the resolution was not nearly strong enough and did not call for compensation to families of the Kibya victims.

Israel derived some consolation, however, from the Big Three's last-minute change in their resolution to take note of Eban's invoking of Article 12 of the Israel-Jordan armistice agreement to summon both parties to obligatory peace talks. One Israeli source said this was the only constructive result of the long, bitter Kibya discussion.

U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was reported arranging with Jordan for a time and place for the projected talks. Arab sources indicated that Jordan, which ignored an earlier informal request for talks, would heed the U.N. summons.

Model Immersed in Wine? Well—Only Partially

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The judge leaned forward yesterday when Billie Infante, a pretty model seeking a divorce from her husband Anthony, testified:

"Once he immersed me in wine."

"Immersed you in what?" Judge I. L. Harris shot back.

"In wine."

"Oh, how did he do it?"

"Poured it over my head."

"In other words, he didn't dunk you in a bathtub or anything. Was it red or white wine?"

"As a matter of fact, it was red."

"A bottle or a glass?"

"A glass."

"Not exactly total immersion then," the judge said, winding up the matter.

Divorce granted.

Old-Timer Confused in Remodeled Jail

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A new booking desk resembling the one at Charleston's city jail has been installed as part of the face-lifting job at Kanawha County Jail.

One of the county jail's regulars, a 68-year-old man charged with drunkenness, was booked yesterday. On his way to a cell, the man mumbled to himself:

Ponder Effect of Talbott Ruling

Officers Speculate on AF Chief's Reversal of Reservist's Ouster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon officers speculated today over the effect Secretary of the Air Force Talbott's reversal of a reserve officer's security dismissal might have on similar cases under study.

Talbott would say only that "the decision was mine alone."

He authorized this direct quotation for a report some hours after he announced yesterday that he had cleared Lt. Milo J. Radulovich, who had been threatened with discharge because of alleged Communist sympathies of his father and sister.

In recent months the Air Force alone has been faced with security decisions involving about 100 officers. All have arisen from derogatory information supplied to security officers, mostly from within the Air Force itself.

In some of the cases the officers involved have chosen to accept discharge under honorable conditions. Other cases are still pending.

The other military services are known to have had similar security problems. The Radulovich case has been one of the very few that has come to public attention.

In this case, as in similar ones, the person involved is informed in writing that the military service is considering revoking his commission. He is told the nature of the information lodged against him and given a choice of accepting discharge under honorable conditions or of fighting to stay in the service.

In most cases, the individual has chosen to go along with regulations and keep the matter between himself and the service concerned. There have been cases where an individual has requested and gained a hearing, with no word leaking out to the public.

In the case of Radulovich, the Air Force gave him all the rights provided in the rules. He received written notice of intention to dismiss him. He asked for and was given a hearing before a security board convened by the 10th Air Force at Selfridge Field, Mich. After that hearing he sent a brief to the Air Force personnel council in Washington.

The original security board found he was a doubtful security risk—but did not question his loyalty—and recommended that his commission be recalled. The personnel council, top-ranking adviser to the Air Force secretary on such matters, disagreed with some details but agreed with the conclusion.

Thus, Talbott overruled all of the agencies and advisers provided for him by law in clearing Radulovich.

Mayer Acquitted in Iowa Slaying

BLOOMFIELD, Iowa (AP)—Walter M. Mayer, prominent Santa Fe, N.M., rancher who was acquitted of a first degree murder charge yesterday looked forward to a happy Thanksgiving reunion with his two sons.

A jury of nine men and three women found Mayer innocent in the fatal shooting last May 2 of John C. Wisdom, 51-year-old Iowa stockman, on the 918-acre Wisdom farm near here.

Mayer and his wife Katherine, 48, a member of the New Mexico state Republican Central Committee, were in Ottumwa, Iowa, today checking on a $50,000 damage suit brought against him by the Wisdom estate. The suit charges he "unlawfully" killed Wisdom.

During his trial, which started Oct. 29, Mayer had contended he shot Wisdom in self defense after the Iowan had rushed at him "like a wild man" when they were arguing over a debt of about $6,500 he claimed Wisdom owed him.

The state had contended Mayer went armed to a meeting Wisdom had requested, with the intention of shooting the Iowa livestock dealer.

Phil Silvers, 41, Doesn't Worry About Bald Pate

By BOB THOMAS

Phil Silvers, the funny man, is one. He started getting bald 12 years ago, when he was a mere lad of 29. For many years he has had a lovely head of skin. But he doesn't mind. Not any more.

"Oh, I used to let it worry me," he says offhandedly. "I would sit around and brood about it. It got to be a big thing with me. But then I snapped out of it.

"What the heck—I've been doing well in my chosen profession, and there are one or two girls who like me. I should worry."

Silvers has become so accustomed to his barren scalp that he balked at the suggestion that he wear a rug (hair piece) in "Lucky Me" with Doris Day and Robert Cummings.

"At first I didn't go for the idea," said the comic, who philosophizes about everything. "I couldn't see that it made any difference. But they said that a man with hair on his head standing beside a pretty girl is better than a bald man. So, who can argue?

He still argues that his scalp dolly—which is a distinguished, high-off-the-forehead number—makes not a whit of difference. He proves this with a story of what happened when Jean Simmons visited the set.

Silvers, an intimate of Miss Simmons and Stewart Granger, asked if she noticed something different.

"That's a lovely new tie," she replied. He finally had to point out the new toupee.

Silvers remarked that the hirsute public has a mistaken notion about baldness, associating it with oncoming age. Such is not always the case, he said. Like many other men, he begin balding in his 20s.

"And take a guy like Bobo Olson," the comedian continued. "He's plenty bald, but no one ever told him that meant he was getting old. He went ahead and knocked the bejeepers out of Randy Turpin, who has all the hair he needs."

I suggested having a Be Kind to Baldies Week. Perhaps there could even be a campaign for leading men to toss away their toupees and win the girl without them.

I would estimate that a good 25 per cent of male stars have their glamour boosted by the wig manufacturers.

Silvers failed to evidence much enthusiasm for the drive. "Live and let live" is his motto.

However, he has long nurtured the yen to get the girl in a movie, whether his pate is padded or bare. He has a routine about his earlier career in pictures, when he always played "Blinkie," the pal of the hero.

"I always came in at the first of the picture and said, 'Hey, I got the stuff in the car'," he recalled, "I did that for years and I never did find out what the stuff in the car was."

At least he's making some progress. In "Lucky Me," he doesn't play the buddy of the hero. But he still doesn't get the girl.

Something in the Air Alerts Rail Workers

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Two men from Jersey City, N. J., developed a strong suspicion they picked the wrong car right after they boarded it. It was loaded with fertilizer.

When the pair came into the station at Hagerstown, railroad workers smelled a problem and the cops were called.

There was an understandably speedy hearing in magistrate's court for the two, booked as Jesse Sickel, 47, and Michael Power, 61, then they were hustled off to the showers. They got five days for trespassing on railroad property.

Hal Boyle Says:

Thanksgiving to Be Best Since Korean War Began

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—America looks forward today to the best Thanksgiving since the twentieth century reached middle age.

The guns at last are silent on this harvest holiday of happiness for the first time since 1949. No American is shooting off anything except his mouth, which in our land remains not only the national pastime and a form of exercise—but a God-given right.

There may be flyspecks in the economy, but the great majority of our people have more to be cheerful about than they have had in years.

Peace may be a mirage, but the nightmare of Korea is ended at least for a time. The foe is halted. The atom and hydrogen bombs remain in their darkened stables. We may forget the guided missile as we reach for a turkey drumstick with a guided muscle.

Most every man who wants to work still has a job, a table to put his feet under—and something to eat on the table. As a nation we have reason to celebrate with a full heart as well as a full stomach.

It has been a good year, now, hasn't it? Particularly if you forget the weather. The weather man has given us a long series of tornadoes, floods, and droughts, and, in the cities now his theme song is "Smog Gets in Your Eyes."

But it isn't his fault. Every once in a while the climate just gets out of his control. Let's hope the weather fellow gets a piece of turkey tomorrow, too—even if it is only the neck. He's been sticking his own neck out all year.

Who doesn't have something to feel grateful for?

The nation's health keeps on getting better. We took a long step forward in the conquest of polio.

Somebody built a doughnut with a smaller hole, and another fellow found a way to put a lime flavor in popcorn.

Rita Hayworth got a new husband. The movie industry came up with a new screen wide enough to give a full view of Marilyn Monroe. Television discovered and began to feature a bright new playwright—William Shakespeare—and put on "King Lear" without having old Lear do a beer or razor blade commercial.

The Republican party could feel grateful all its defeats were local in nature, as there was no national election, one of the really nicest things about 1953. The Democrats were equally grateful that Harry Dexter White hadn't been born twins.

* * *

The sports world had its moments of bliss to look back on, too. The St. Louis Browns, after all these years, got a chance for a new start in life under a new name. Notre Dame's football team managed to make a few lucky first downs, a feat Coach Frank Leahy had expressed doubt they could pull off at the start of the season.

'Wild West' Player, 8, Shoots Up House, Car

PORT HURON (AP) — An 8-year-old boy, playing "Wild West" with two .22-caliber rifles taken from his father's gun cabinet, peppered a house and automobile with bullets yesterday. No one was hurt.

Police, called by neighbors, found the boy taking cover behind a window frame like a bad man of old. They turned him over to his parents for punishment.

Sooners Near Major College Rushing Title

Oklahoma Eleven Trails Cincinnati by 2 Yards; Texas Tech 3rd

NEW YORK (AP)—University of Oklahoma football teams have gained more than 30 miles by running in the last eight seasons. This year, for the first time, the Sooners may win the national major-college rushing title.

Figures released by the NCAA service bureau today showed the Sooners not only a mere two yards behind Cincinnati in the race for ball-carrying honors with one game left for each, but disclosed an unmatched sustained performance since 1946.

In that span, opened by coach Jim Tatum the first year and occupied by Bud Wilkinson ever since, Oklahoma has the best winning percentage in the country, the highest rushing yardage total and has been among the top rushing teams each year, placing second in 1949 and 1952.

This year's figures are 2759 yards for Cincinnati, an average of 306.6 yards a game, and 2757 for Oklahoma, or 306.3.

That makes an eight-year total of 22,889 yards rushing for the Sooners, or 289.7 a game.

And as for punting that yardage to victorious use, Oklahoma can boast a record of 66 won, 10 lost and 3 tied for a percentage of .854 — just ahead of Notre Dame's 61-8-6 for .853, the Irish, incidentally, are also second in rushing for the eight-year period by a wider margin, with 260.8 yards a game.

However, the rushing title that has always eluded it may do so again, when Oklahoma finishes up against Oklahoma A&M Saturday (the Sooners are going to the Orange Bowl, but bowl games don't count statistically).

Cincinnati will be finishing up against Miami of Ohio tomorrow while third place Texas Tech makes its last outing against Hardin-Simmons Saturday.

In total offense, Cincinnati holds a comfortable margin over Texas Tech, 422.6 yards a game to 380.0, and in scoring the positions are reversed but the margin is smaller, Texas Tech averaging 38.2 points a game to Cincinnati's 37.8.

Five Pontiac Gridders Win Awards at Olivet

Four Pontiac football players were awarded letters for participation this seaon at Olivet. They are end Leonard Compton, 150 Chippewa; guard Jim Hawisher, 2548 Silverside; center Dick Powell, 1474 Woodlow; and back Chuck Twitty, 452 Bloomfield.

Cliff Officer, 64 Gillespie, won his numerals. Comets finished the season with four wins and five defeats, placing them 5th in the MIAA standings.

It's Time Out!

HAPPY QUARTERBACK—Bernie Faloney, ace quarterback of the nation's number one team, University of Maryland, and his fiancee, Miss Jan Wallace, pose at her home in Silver Springs, Md., with the engagement ring the 21-year-old senior gave her after last Saturday's 21-0 victory over Alabama. Faloney, from East Carnegie, Pa., injured a knee in the game but is expected to lead his team against Oklahoma in Miami's Orange Bowl on New Year's Day.

Cornell Is Ivy Loop Champ, but Penn Is Favored in Annual Battle; Cotton, Sugar Bowls in Scramble

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—Cornell and Pennsylvania have been playing football together almost since Achilles ran Hector off the walls of Troy. They meet again tomorrow at Franklin Field in another keen contest, which I don't think should involve Cornell's place in the Ivy League race.

Cornell is the only Ivy League team Pennsylvania meets. Cornell clinched the Ivy League championship by its win over Dartmouth.

That gave the Big Red victories over Princeton, Columbia and Dartmouth, plus a tie with Yale. That should be enough to establish their top position in the Eastern League.

The ancient renewal between Cornell and Pennsylvania should be quite a battle. It looks to be close, with Pennsylvania favored through better material, trained in much harder warfare.

Cornell's schedule can't measure up to the teams that Penn has met, which include Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State, California and Navy. Cornell has been improving, although her defense blew wide open in the Dartmouth game.

On this same Thanksgiving date, Texas may wind up the Cotton Bowl situation by beating Texas A and M. Alignment of various conferences into Bowl agreements has the Sugar Bowl sponsors at New Orleans worried. Before this happened the Sugar Bowl had the better of the Bowl picks.

But this year the champions of the Big Ten, Pacific Coast, Big Seven, Atlantic Coast Conference, and the Southwest Conference have already roped in five of the eight places. They have the Rose Bowl and the Orange Bowl sewed up, plus an entry in the Cotton Bowl.

Cotton Bowl will reach for one of the strongest teams left. Kentucky's late October and November record is worth looking at. Bear Bryant has turned in a big job after the first two games. He has one of the best teams in his conference.

Seeking Health? Play Outfield, Says Ex-Tiger

DETROIT (AP) — There's something about the outfield—maybe it's the wide open spaces—but David Jefferson (Davey) Jones, one-time Detroit Tiger leadoff hitter, thinks it's healthy.

Jones, 73, on pennant-winning teams in 1907-08-09, and his wife, Mae, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary yesterday. They were married at Tomah, Wis., in 1903.

Jones played in the outfield with Ty Cobb, the Georgia Peach, and Wahoo Sam Crawford.

"Must be something about it that gives you a long life," Jones said. "Cobb and Crawford both are living.

"Before coming to Detroit I played with the Chicago Cubs and the only three members of that team still living are outfielders, Jimmy Slagle, Jake Harley and myself."

Irish, Trojans Tired for Saturday Game

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Notre Dame football squad gets in tomorrow to play the University of Southern California, and it could be a struggle between two tired teams Saturday.

Both have reason to be emotionally spent as they near the end of the 1953 season. USC winds up against the Irish and the Irish still have Southern Methodist ahead.

It is no secret that everyone points for Notre Dame. Until their 14-14 tie with Iowa last week, Notre Dame was rated No. 1 team in the nation. Tie dropped the Irish to No 2.

Branoff Named 'Most Valuable' by Wolverine 11

The team rushing leader with an average of 5.2 yards per play, he was a mid-year enrollee in 1951 and played as a freshman under the Western Conference's relaxed eligibility rule. He carried the ball 101 times this season for 527 yards.

Branoff tallied six touchdowns and made good three of seven extra point tries as Michigan won six of nine games this season and finished fifth in the conference with a 3-3 record.

Pointers Have Had Tough Job Getting Ready

Injuries Made Blaik Shift Squad; 102,000 to See Saturday Tilt

By BOB HOOBING

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Army, a makeshift team in September, goes into the Navy game Saturday rated even with the Middies and possessing the best record in major eastern college football.

The West Point success story is one of recovery from the loss of five "regulars" just before the season to the No. 18 position in national ratings.

The road hasn't been an easy one. But coach Earl (Red) Blaik and a fighting squad have done an outstanding job in bringing Army to the threshold of the "Big One."

A combination of injuries and resignations snatched starting tackles Neil Chamberlain and Ron Lincoln and backs Dick Reich, Fred Meyers and Mario Delucia from the team. Gerry Lodge, listed as a guard, had to be moved to fullback when regular Fred Attaya suffered a pre-season knee injury.

Due to a recurrence of that injury Attaya remains a doubtful performer for the traditional battle to be played before a capacity crowd of 102,000 in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium and a nationwide television audience (NBC).

Bob Farris, a center when he transferred to West Point from Vanderbilt, was moved to tackle on offense and linebacker on defense. Army coaches consider him the leader in the forward wall.

Army looks good by comparative scores. Cadets edged Duke 14-13 while Navy had to be content with a scoreless draw with the Blue Devils. Both met Columbia but while Army ran wild 40-7 Navy was held to a 14-6 victory. Against Penn Cadets won 21-14 while the Middies dropped a 9-6 decision. Navy did hand Dartmouth the worse licking, 55-7 as against 27-0.

However, both coaches—Navy's Eddie Erdelatz and Army's Blaik—agree past performances, records and comparisons can be thrown away for this game.

West Pointers will be trying for their first victory since they won 38-0 in 1949. Erdelatz is looking for his fourth straight over the soldiers—something no other Middie coach has accomplished.

Cameron Rated Back of Week

UCLA's Star Honored for Sparking Victory Over Trojans

NEW YORK (AP)—Tailback Paul Leslie Cameron, guiding football genius at UCLA, today was named the Associated Press Back of the Week for leading the Bruins to a victory over Southern California and into the Rose Bowl.

Cameron, a Burbank, Calif., native who has been singled out for his all-around ability and team leadership throughout the season, scored the touchdown that clinched UCLA's 13-0 triumph.

The six-foot, 185-pound senior is the ace runner, best passer and the team punter in addition to being one of the Pacific Coast leaders in pass interceptions.

Against the Trojans, Cameron cracked through the tough USC line for the last six yards in the final period after sprinting 12 yards to set it up. His punts and kick returns were instrumental in bottling up the Trojans.

Ward, Wilson Battle Added to Dec. 2 Card

DETROIT (AP)—Nick Londes, local International Boxing Club promoter, has announced that Moses Ward of Detroit will meet Irish Jackie Wilson of Boston in a ten round middleweight bout Dec. 2 at Olympia Stadium.

Londes said yesterday that the Ward-Wilson scrap will be a co-feature on a card that also carries a bout between Ernie Durando and Norman Hayes.

The Durando-Hayes bout will be televised but the Ward Wilson match will be blacked out, he said.

AP Sports Panel Picks Schoolboy Grid Squads

LANSING (AP)—Annual meeting of sports writers to select the Associated Press' all-state high school football teams was held Tuesday in the Lansing State Journal Building.

Teams from classes A-B and C-D were picked by the panel of 13 high school writers. These teams will be announced next week.

Coast Writers Barred From Spartan Practices

EAST LANSING (AP) — West Coast sports writers will be barred when Michigan State stages its practice sessions prior to the Rose Bowl football game with UCLA.

MSC coach Biggie Munn said he would follow the practice of other Big Ten teams in staging secret sessions. Only Midwest sports writers who have followed the Spartans during their regular season will be allowed.

"We definitely will hold the closed practice sessions," Munn emphasized.

Prep football season officially ends Thursday morning with the playing of the annual Birmingham-Royal Oak game at 11 a.m. at Royal Oak's Cass Field.

Royal Oak, riding the crest of a six-game winning streak, is favored to extend its advantage in this ancient series, which dates back to 1898.

However, the "modern" scheduled series began in 1913. Games were played every year except 1914, 1920 and 1921. Royal Oak has won 20 of the 41 games and Birmingham, 14 while seven have ended in ties.

Since 1924, the rivals have played for the "Little Brown Jug."

Rarely does the victory margin exceed one or two touchdowns, but Jim Manilla's potent Acorns will be favored by at least two touchdowns this year.

Royal Oak has averaged nearly 26 points per game in winning seven of eight games. Only loss was 19-0 to Grosse Pointe. Acorns reached their peak by slaughtering hapless Highland Park 67-0, Nov. 13.

Pacesetters in the Royal Oak offensive scheme are Dick Nash and Jack Drawbaugh. Each has scored 11 touchdowns and Nash has added 20 extra points. The pair has accounted for 132 points.

Meanwhile, Birmingham needs the victory to equal last year's record of 5-3-1. After winning only two of its 1st six games, Vince Secontine's team has won its last two, beating Waterford, 14-6, and Berkley, 19-7.

The Turkey Day tilt will wind up the prep careers of seven Maple regulars, including end Chris Christie, tackles Jerry Beck and Dick Thalacker, guard Howard Blake, center Bill Hohmeyer and backs Jerry Wedge and Payson Chapman.

Reese Waiting in Wings

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—It is doubtful that any manager ever took over a big league ball club under more unenviable circumstances than Walter Alston, the big, unheralded minor leaguer from the Midwest who was smuggled into town yesterday and poured into the toga shed by Charlie Dressen.

If the central figure in the latest of a long line of zany managerial shifts in Brooklyn wasn't too bewildered by it all to think clearly, he must have wondered if fate hadn't maybe slipped him one from the bottom of the deck.

Alston, without a moment's managerial or coaching experience in the big show, is being asked to take over a collection of veteran stars, some of them highly temperamental in the bargain, and at least equal Dressen's record of two pennants and a tie in the past three years.

If he doesn't get the horsepower out of the Dodgers that Dressen did, Alston will be cooked and Whistlin' Charlie will become a greater martyr than ever in the eyes of the Brooklyn fans.

But to get back to the new manager himself, let us suppose he is blameless personally, that he handles his athletes cautiously and well and leads them to a third straight flag. Where would that leave him?

Well, so far as anyone knows to the contrary, it still would leave him just back of Pee Wee Reese in the club's annual managerial sweepstakes. For all his record as a minor league pilot, Alston realizes he is being given the job now only because the great little shortstop let the club know he believed he had a couple of good years left and didn't wish to start out as a playing manager.

When Reese is ready to take over, the pressure on the owners to give him his chance will remain strong.

Alston Wasn't Hired as 'Interim Manager'

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN (AP)—Walter (Smokey) Alston, new Brooklyn Dodger pilot, will not be an interim manager.

Dodger President Walter F. O'Malley stressed that point with special emphasis today, going at great lengths to explain that "no one will be breathing down his neck. The job is his . . . for many years to come. . . I hope."

* * *

Alston, a comparative unknown, was named to succeed Charlie Dressen yesterday after Pee Wee Reese shortstop and captain of the Dodgers, had declined the role of a playing manager.

The contract is for one year at an estimated $25,000 salary.

The 42-year-old resident of Oxford, Ohio, who has been serving as manager in the Dodger farm system for 8½ years, saw the briefest of service in the major leagues. He appeared in only one game and was at bat only one time. That was in 1936 as a member of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"I got up only one time," he recalled with a smile. "Lon Warneke was pitching. I fouled off a couple then struck out. We had Johnny Mize, Rip Collins and Dick Siebert so I just had 'a cup of coffee.'"

O'Malley, who sat side by side with his new manager during the two-hour press conference at the Dodgers' office, frankly voiced his concern that Alston would be looked upon in certain quarters as an interim manager, filling in only until Reese was ready to take over the managerial reins.

"That definitely is not so," he declared. "Reese will not be a shadow creeping up on Alston. Pee Wee is a fine, understanding and wonderful person. If Reese wants to manage when his playing career is over, we will give him an opportunity to manage in our minor league organization. Or he may start out on top—but it would have to be with another big league club.

"Alston is the logical man to succeed Dressen. His promotion, in line with our policy of rewarding our own men, is a justification of his record in the Dodger organization."

Chavez-King Victor Could Get Title Shot

Lightweights Will Meet in Nationally-Televised Bout From Coast

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Canadian lightweight title holder Arthur King of Toronto squares off with fast punching Eddie Chavez in a 10-round fight tonight which may propel the winner into a favorable position for a future world championship go.

Chavez, 23-year-old California Mexican from San Jose, is ranked fifth among the world's leading 135-pounders. King is rated ninth.

The bout will be nationally televised out of Winterland Arena starting at 10 p.m. EST, by CBS. Referee and two judges will score it under the California system of 11 points to the round. An even round is scored 5½-5½.

Chavez, a busy ringman who lets fly with flurries of punches, is the favorite hereabouts. He scored a non-title 10-round decision over champion Jimmy Carter early this year.

King and Chavez have met two common opponents, each chalking up decisions over Armand Savoie and Henry Davis. King won the Canadian title from Savoie.

In 68 fights, King has won 58 and lost 10. Chavez' record in 56 contests is 46 wins, 7 defeats and 3 draws.

The Californian has won 5 out of 6 this year. King has won 3 out of 4. The Canadian has scored 18 kayoes to Chavez' 12.

Because of the local dinnertime (7 p.m., PST) start of the battle, a second 10-round feature is scheduled to end the program.

Birmingham's Basford, Shamrock's Ron Kramer Among Standouts

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Graduation will make a lot of holes in Michigan's football team between now and the start of the 1954 season. But a "better than average" freshman squad may fill a lot of the gaps.

And, standing out among the backfield candidates, was a five-foot, 11-inch, 175-pound triple threat halfback, Terry Barr. Barr hails from Grand Rapids Central high school and rates as a pinpoint passer as well as a fine defensive player.

Two good quarterback candidates were Jack Greenwood and Jim Maddock. Greenwood, former all-state player at Bay City, missed a portion of the season with injury. Maddock, teammate of Notre Dame's Johnny Lattner at Chicago Fenwick High School, also rated as a top punter.

Outstanding among the fullback candidates were Joe McKoan, of Algonac and Mike Basford, of Birmingham.

Top ranking among the large and crop were Ron Kramer, of East Detroit, and Charles Brooks, who arrived here by way of Marshall and Culver Military academies, where he starred.

Cougars, Utes on TV Feature

Rocky Mountain Foes Meet in Turkey Day Tilt at 3 P.M.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A team that has little reserve strength will tackle a club that is three or four deep at all positions in the nation's Thanksgiving Day television football feature.

Brigham Young University, with a good starting team but few capable substitutes, meets University of Utah, which boasts nearly 50 players on its active varsity squad.

The game, beginning Thursday at 3 p.m. (EST) will be televised nationally.

Utah is unbeaten in Skyline Conference play and won its 3rd consecutive league crown. Outside the circuit, the Utes lost to Washington and Colorado.

Brigham Young won just one conference game, against Montana, and tied another, New Mexico. Cougars have one other victory, over Idaho, but have lost six.

Both teams use modified T-formations. Quarterback Don Rydalch does most of Utah's passing, while Brigham Young's top passer is quarterback Lavon Satterfield.

Baseball Attendance Drops 7 Per Cent

COLUMBUS, O. (UP) — Organized baseball's 38 minor leagues felt an attendance drop of 7.8 per cent in 1953 as compared to the previous year, George Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues said today.

In an annual statement, Trautman said the overall paid attendance in the minors was 22,183,821, which represented a loss from the 1952 season of 1,881,863 customers.

Bowl Bid Seen Heralding New Era for State

Relations Between MSC, Wolverines Expected to Show Big Change

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (UP)—Michigan State isn't mad at anybody any more.

People close to the scene at MSC believe the nomination of the Spartans for the Rose Bowl heralds the beginning of a new era of good feeling between Michigan State and the rest of the Big Ten —especially Michigan.

They are convinced over here that Michigan helped vote them in. So how do you react when you get a kiss when you expected a kick? You throw the kiss right back.

Coach Biggie Munn still refers in speeches to the 55-0 beating he was handed his first year at Michigan State, in 1947.

"After that game, we could have held an alumni meeting in a phone booth," he has said.

But he has been stressing another theme lately in his talks. Here's a recent quote:

"We have a most friendly feeling toward Michigan. That's the way it should be—on both sides!

"If we can't be good friends, as well as being great rivals as schools in the same state—if we can't be good friends, then there is something sadly wrong."

Munn went over to the Michigan dressing room when the Wolverines were here a few days ago to congratulate the players on a good game and wish them luck against Ohio State.

MSC's Dohoney Named at End on First Team

Leroy Bolden Awarded Berth on Second Eleven in Annual Poll

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (UP) — Midwest with five players dominates the 1953 United Press All-America football team, selected today in a nation-wide ballot of 265 sports writers and broadcasters.

Selected as the 11 finest football players in the land were:

Center—Larry Morris of Georgia Tech.

Backs — John Lattner of Notre Dame, Paul Giel of Minnesota, Paul Cameron of UCLA and J. C. Caroline of Illinois.

Only one of these players, Lattner who led in the balloting, is a repeater from the 1952 United Press All-America team. Two, Cameron and Giel, were on the 2nd team last year.

Lattner, named on 249 of the 265 ballots, received a total of 2,624 points out of a possible 2,915. That was 17 points more than accumulated by Giel, who was named on 251 of the ballots. Lattner, however, received 226 first place votes against 220 for Giel. The Minnesota haldback received more 2nd team votes than Lattner, 31 to 23.

Roberts, Oklahoma's brilliant guard, led the linemen in the voting, receiving a total of 1,891 points, with Mims, the other guard, 2nd with 1,255 points.

There were close contests for the 1st team guard and tackle berths. Steve Eisenhauer of Navy was only 25 points behind Mims while Ed Meadows of Duke trailed Jones by only 19 points for a tackle berth. Hunter received a total of 1,078 points, Jones 1,076 and Meadows 1,057.

For the 1st time since the World War II days of Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis of Army, a sophomore made the mythical eleven. Caroline, the Negro speedster who shattered Red Grange's sophomore records at Illinois, won the 4th backfield spot with 1,748 points, 645 more than Bob Garrett of Stanford.

Abolition of the 2-platoon system meant that each of the All-Americas played both ways — offense and defense. Each of those named was outstanding at his position and even the most pessimistic of coaches would smile to have those 11 players going for him.

Towler Pressing Perry for NFL Rushing Lead

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — Deacon Dan Towler of the Los Angeles Rams is making a strong bid to retain his ball carrying honors in the National Football League.

Including games of last week end, Towler, former Washington & Jefferson great, is just 58 yards behind the loop's leader, Joe Perry of the San Francisco 49ers. Perry has ground out 790 yards to 732 for his West Coast rival in the nine league games each has played.

Towler moved back into serious contention last week by picking up 205 yards against the Baltimore Colts—one of the best yardage performances by any back in the loop's history.

Top passing honors remained in the firm grasp of Otto Graham, of the Cleveland Browns, who has tossed 129 completions in 202 attempts for an average gain of 10.34 yards and a completion percentage of 63.9.

Lou Groza is leading the league's scorers by five points with 76, Doak Walker of Detroit and Bob Walston of Philadelphia are knotted for second with 71.

Rollins' Infighting Wins Against Cotero

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Dave Rollins, 126, Detroit, made the most of his infighting skill Tuesday night to gain a close but unanimous 10-round decision over Jose Luis Cotero, 124¾, at Olympic Auditorium.

NCAA to Study Fake Injuries

Crisler Says Rules Body Frowns on Such Actions

ANN ARBOR (UP) — The NCAA football rules commitee which meets Jan. 11-13 may find the subject of fake football injuries on its docket.

Chairman of the rules group, H. O. (Fritz) Crisler, University of Michigan athletic director, said the subject had not yet been formally raised with him. But, he said, if it is it will be considered.

This was not to be taken as a comment on Saturday's tie game between Iowa and Notre Dame, he emphasized. Considerable comment has already been raised by the game in which Notre Dame players seemed to be hurt at strategic moments that stopped the clock. It has been reported that the time-outs permitted plays that enabled Notre Dame to tie the score, 14-14.

Crisler said that rules committee "frowned on" fake injuries. The way the rules stand he said "an official can keep the clock running if he is certain the injury is feigned."

Duffy, on 87th Birthday, Sees .438 Record Secure

BOSTON (UP)—Baseball's greatest all-time batter, the .438-hitting Hughie Duffy, tomorrow observes Thanksgiving, along with his 87th birthday.

Still in harness as director of the Boston Red Sox' summer baseball school, the spry octogenarian finally has become convinced that the batting mark he set for the Boston Nationsl back in 1894 is a permanent item in the game's record book.

Some years ago, Duffy had high hopes that his current batting idol, Boston's Ted Williams, would break his record. But now Hughie will be satisfied if Williams, who batted .406 in 1941, becomes the fourth modern player to enter the highly exclusive .400-circle for the second time.

Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby each made it three times and George Sisler twice.

Duffy became a professional player for the Lowell New England club in 1886 and entered the majors with Chicago in 1888.

Starting in 1889, he batted well over .300 for 10 consecutive years.

Quiet, unassuming but always eager to help every aspiring youngster who seeks his advice, Duffy still cherishes his election to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1945 as the greatest thrill of his life.

Mt. Pleasant Named State Grid Champ in Class B

By LLOYD NORTHARD

DETROIT (UP) — Mt. Pleasant, which posted a perfect record of eight victories and no losses, was named the mythical state high school football champion in Class B today by the United Press.

Oilers of Mt. Pleasant, titlists in the tough North Central "B" conference, had stout competition for the state crown since five other schools in the class finished with unbeaten records.

There were no changes in the Class A ratings which do not become final until after three traditional Thanksgiving Day batles.

Fourth ranked Detroit Catholic Central was the lone team in Class A ratings to see action the past week-end. Coach John Hackett's powerful Shamrocks trounced Toledo Catholic Central, 60-7, to remain behind Ann Arbor, Flint Northern and Grand Haven.

Flint Central, Port Huron, Royal Oak, Bay City Central and Monroe round out the Class A ratings.

Thanksgiving Day games include Flint Northern vs Flint Central for the Saginaw Valley League championship, Saginaw vs Saginaw Arthur Hill and Royal Oak vs Birmingham.

Indiana Heavy Favorite for Big 10 Honors

Hoosiers Are Also Given Good Chance to Keep NCAA Crown

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (UP)—Big Ten basketball coaches, recognizing Indiana as one of the most "loaded" teams in the country, today overwhelmingly selected the Hoosiers to repeat for the conference title.

In addition to being held in high esteem in the Big Ten, Indiana is ranked nationally with Duquesne, Kentucky and California as potentially the most powerful outfits in the country and is given a good chance for a second successive NCAA championship.

Coaches, in an Associated Press survey, named Minnesota as the main threat to Indiana's Big Ten supremacy. They listed Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Iowa in a battle for other first division spots. Gophers were the only conquerors of Indiana in 18 league games last season.

Coaches look for general improvement throughout the conference as the teams line up for return to a 14-game league schedule after an experimental 18-game slate.

The season will open Tuesday with Ohio U. at Illinois and Valparaiso at Purdue, and gain momentum through the non-league phase until the championship chase starts Jan. 2. Openers include Minnesota at Illinois, Indiana at Michigan and Purdue at Wisconsin.

Only one reserve is missing from Indiana's 1953 NCAA title squad. The entire starting five returns—center Don Schlundt, who had grown one inch to 6-10 and added 15 pounds to 230; forwards Dick Farley and Charlie Kraak and guards Bob Leonard and Burke Scott.

In addition, 6-11 Lou Scott, Schlundt's understudy, is back after being ineligible last half of the 1952-53 season.

Soapy's Trophy Finds New Home in MSC Union

EAST LANSING (UP) — The controversial governor's trophy, awarded to Michigan State for its football victory over Michigan found a new home today.

MSC athletic officials moved the huge trophy, a replica of Paul Bunyan, to the College Union from Jenison gymnasium following an editorial in the Michigan State News, student daily newspaper.

"Placed in a case in the Union building, the governor's trophy would take on greater significance, be seen by more students and be protected," the editorial said in part.

Advantages Are Offered by Coyote Hunting

Scribe Fails to Get Deer but Will Collect Bounty From State for Predator

By JACK PATTERSON

Regular readers of this column, if any, should be aware by now of a peculiar perversity of fate which seems to dog the hunting efforts of this writer. Whenever we set out in pursuit of some particular beast or fowl we generally wind up shooting something else. Well, the first crack at the '53 deer season proved no exception to what is rapidly becoming the rule. We spend a few days sneaking through the dry woods with all the stealth and subtlety of a steam calliope, intent on blasting a deer. So what do we get? A coyote, that's what.

PATTERSON

This particular specimen apparently had her mind on other things because she obligingly ran toward us and stopped broadside to about twenty feet away. She regarded us for a moment with eyes of cold green fire and then as she started to clear the area we spent a 170 grain slug into her spine thus ending her aims and aspirations.

She was a beautifully furred silvery-taupe animal, looking for all the world like a bushy-tailed police dog, and as we watched her breathe her last we felt a little as though we'd taken Old Rover out behind the barn and done him in.

Aside from a natural reluctance to shoot the spitting image of man's best friend, there are two advantages to coyote shooting. First, of course is the bounty—twenty bucks in the case of a female. Second is the fact that no coyotte so far recorded ever wore horns, so the deer hunter's frequent soliloqy: "does it have horns or doesn't it" is not called into play. This later is important both to health and morale.

Dr. Fred Baker apparently arrived at these conclusions independently, for on the very same day the above events took place Fred shot a coyote only a couple of miles away.

As the deer season progresses enough information is coming in to establish a pattern. Fewer deer sighted, but a higher percentage of bucks, and deer bagged are averaging somewhat larger than last year.

Louis Cole shot the biggest buck he's seen in ten years. By that time the boys in camp were getting a little tired hauling in deer, and Louie knew if he let out a standard victory cry he probably wouldn't get much assistance. So he raised a hullabaloo and the boys, thinking he'd probably shot himself, came a-running.

Worked like a charm, claims Louie, though he admits there was some muttering in the ranks.

With recent rains and a little snow here and there and constantly slipping temperatures apparently established, the balance of the deer season should be good.

Time Drawing Short to Enter Deer Contest

Nimrods Have 4 Days After End of Season to File Entries

Less than a week remains for Oakland County hunters to try for one of the $100 U.S. bond awards in Pontiac Press' 3-way deer contest.

Hunting season ends next Monday, and nimrods will have an additional four days afterwards to file entries. Extra period will allow Upper Peninsula hunters time to return with their bucks.

Latest entry in the best rack division was a 4-pointer entered Tuesday by E. A. Bellarby of 58 Hudson street. Bellarby downed the buck near Lewiston.

Tony Kazakos, of 223 Oakland avenue, bagged a 10-pointer bearing one of the largest racks yet reported. The 180-pound buck was apparently 10 or more years old, and his horns showed the results of many fights. Kazakos shot the deer near Ishpeming.

A party of four — DeWitt Carrington and Bill Totten of 149 Parkdale and Detroiters Otis Shamberger and Frank Puhek — returned from a hunting trip near Rose City with four bucks. Biggest buck was a six-pointer.

Stone Age men used clamshells for spoons.

Michigan Pays $14,890 in Bounties in October

LANSING (UP) — State conservation department bountied three wolves, 360 coyotes and 1,720 foxes in October, it was reported Tuesday.

Bounties cost a total of $14,890 for the month.

One wolf each was killed in Gogebic, Luce and Marquette counties. Sixteen of the coyotes came from the Lower Peninsula. Of the Upper Peninsula coyotes, 53 were taken in Delta county, 52 in Iron county and 47 in Ontonagon county.

Jackie Gordon of the Cleveland Barons was the 71st player in the history of the American Hockey League to score 100 goals.

Thousands of Hunters Expected to Go North for Final Week of Deer Season

(By United Press)

Michigan's 1953 deer season entered its final week today.

Conservation department said it believed thousands of hunters would go north to hunt Thanksgiving Day and remain until Sunday.

The number of persons killed by gunfire, which now stands at seven, was expected to increase as tempo of hunting activity increases later this week.

At least 35 other hunters have been wounded and seven sportsmen have died of heart attacks while deer hunting. Last year, 16 hunters were killed and 72 wounded.

Many sportsmen going north may remain to take advantage of a one-day "any deer" season on that day.

The regular 16-day deer season ends at 7 p. m. Monday but it will be legal to shoot any deer — buck, doe or fawn — in the lower peninsula above highway M-55 next Tuesday.

Sportsmen who kill a buck during the regular season are not permitted to hunt during the special season, which is designed to reduce size of the state's deer herd in areas where there are too many deer.

Conservation officials said deer hunting conditions have improved considerably since the season opened and hunters were cheered by forecasts of snow flurries in the northern part of the state.

Conservation officials report that homeward-bound sportsmen have taken more deer across the Straits of Mackinaw during the first 10 days of the deer season than they did during all of the 1952 season.

An estimated 8,500 deer were counted on southbound cars that cross the Straits from St. Ignace to Mackinaw City on state ferries.

Main reason for the sharp increase is that more sportsmen went into the upper peninsula to hunt this year than a year ago.

Officials said 224 bear have been counted so far this year compared to 244 during the first 10 days of last year while five coyotes have crossed the Straits against 42 last year.

Special Deer Seasons Asked in Certain Areas

By MORT NEFF

Many of you may have seen the "Michigan Outdoors" TV show recently, with Conservation Department game chief Harry Ruhl as an impressive guest. If so, you now realize that management of our Michigan deer herd is no small problem, and that in the years ahead the legalized killing of does and fawns must continue. Mr. Ruhl, well-equipped with statistics to back up his statements, said that the present Michigan range could adequately support a herd of about 00,000 deer if they were properly distributed.

NEFF

He further stated that, to maintain the herd at that figure so that winter starvation would be avoided, we could and should "harvest" up to one third of the deer annually, including does.

There is no arguing with biological facts. This writer will go along with game experts who have declared the peak deer populations should be around the half million mark.

But when it comes to arranging that deer herd so that the animals are properly distributed over the state assuring plenty of food to go around—we'll have to ask how the present deer law is answering that problem!

It would appear that the only sensible method of control in the future, once the size of the herd is pared down by present regulations, is to specify areas where the deer population is too large and open a special season in those problem territories.

"Half-way measures will always bring strong censure from the public. Open "any deer" seasons will always result in an erratic harvest of animals with over-kill in some places and under-kill in others.

It seems to this writer that the distribution of hunters is just as important as distribution of the deer in our herd control project, so why not plan future regulations accordingly?

Tagged Fox Posts State Travel Mark

LANSING (UP)—Conservation department Tuesday reported a tagged red fox had set a Michigan travel record.

A young fox was trapped and tagged at Rose Lake Wildlife Experimant station near Lansing on June 6.

It was killed by a car near Omena in Grand Traverse County early this month.

The 160 miles the fox had traveled is far more than the usual 40 miles that foxes travel from their birth site.

Nearly 1,000 Arrests for Game Law Flouting

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's conservation department said today that 919 hunters have been arrested for violating game laws during the first 10 days of the 1953 deer season.

Gibson Leads MVC's Rushers

Kline Increases Aerial Offense Margin; Titans Top Scorers

By ED WILKS

ST. LOUIS (UP)—With halfback Don Hargrove of Houston finally stopped, Oklahoma A & M halfback Dorsey Gibson is the new leader this week in Missouri Valley Conference football rushing averages.

Gibson retained his 6.7-yard mark on 53 rushes that have netted 354 yards. Hargrove was halted as Texas Tech defeated Houston in a non-league game.

Fullback Earl Lunsford and halfback Indian Bill Bredde of Oklahoma A & M retained their one-two lead in rushing offense.

Best gain by a Valley back this week was made by Detroit halfback Bob Burgmeier. He carried 11 times for 60 yards to take over 5th place in rushing as the Titans defeated Tulsa.

Burgmeier also scored once to increase his scoring lead to 60 points on 10 touchdowns. Detroit halfback Lee Riley also moved up, scoring twice to become the runnerup with 42 points.

Detroit quarterback Dave Kline increased his passing offense lead and now has completed 49 of 129 for 716 yards and five touchdowns.

Temporary Fish Permits Ready

Non-Resident Licenses Now Are on Way to Dealers

LANSING (UP)—The new 15-day temporary non-resident fishing licenses are on their way to license dealers, the state conservation department said Tuesday.

Extension of the licenses from the previous 10 day period was authorized by the legislature to cover the normal two-week vacation.

The 15-day permits will cost $2, the same as the 10-day licenses did.

The new licenses went out with all other 1954 fishing licenses, which must be used after Jan. 1, 1954.

Department sources expect some 850,000 resident fishing licenses, 160,000 temporary non-resident and 150,000 pernanent non-resident licenses will be sold next year.

Feel Weight Of Ball — The thing that stands out in the style of Ned Day, former match king, is his smooth, relaxed footwork. You, too, can develop his easy delivery.

Take this tip from him: "Always feel loose. No tightening up at any time, from the time the push-away of the ball puts it into swing and sends you into stride.

Keep the swinging arm relaxed throughout, back and forth. No hurry to get to the foul line. Rushing brings tension." Feel the weight of the swinging ball and, as the illustration shows, you'll hold the groove and be in position at ball release to apply hook turn—with accuracy.

Eddy, Reid Represent State at Meeting

LANSING (UP) — Conservation director G. E. Eddy and labor commissioner John Reid have been named by Gov. Williams to represent Michigan at the Mid-Century conference on resources for the future.

The conference, to be held in Washington Dec. 2 through 4, was called by Resources For The Future, Inc. It will gather some 1,000 from all over the country representing industry, education, the press and government to survey the available natural resources in the country and determine the needs in the future.

Hibernating Birds

Discovery of a Nuttall's poor-will sleeping through the winter in California's Chuckwalla Mountains is the first definite proof that some birds hibernate like mammals and reptiles, says the National Geographic Society.

GET FIXED
it's goin' to get cold!
And when days and nights get cold, motorists get trouble and motorists have accidents.
Motor car owners who belong to the Automobile Club of Michigan and insure their car with this Exchange at the Club have unusual winter advantages, privileges and protection. They simply are likely to get along better than non-members when the cold comes.

Bob Considine Says:

Someday Ocean Waters Will Make Desert Bloom

NEW YORK (INS)—People. . . places. . .things—

From a point just east of Los Angeles to a point that seems about a thousand miles into the country, not a living creature stirs, not a curl of smoke shows its smudged face.

This land of 160,000,000 human beings, the greatest nation in history and more productive in its short history than all the other nations combined is so sparsely settled that a flight over portions of it gives one the eerie feeling he is making the first low-level inspection of the moon.

From the time our non-stop DC7 of the American Airlines lifted us over the first wall of mountains on the trip east, the earth below us took on the frozen unreality of a great bias-relief map.

Yet there is water beneath this crust of desolation, and we are spending enough on arms and the support of needy friends to irrigate this whole section of the world.

Someday the waters of the Pacific, cleansed of salt, will cascade life into the veins of these dusty plains, and what will generally have seemed to us a bountiful land will have represented, in truth, sterility beyond measure.

Watching this incredible span of unpopulated earth, much of it spectacularly beautiful and most of it bristling with untold resources, one's mind turns to the appalling conditions in the slums of the great American cities.

I grew up in Washington near the Capitol and know that within its shadow there are still wretched, plumbingless alley dwellings that would have been considered bad housing in a medieval ghetto.

And for some time I have lived at a socalled "good" address in New York within two or three blocks of a sordid area where Puerto Rican families live in squalor that must make some of them yearn for the littered slums of San Juan.

And yet all this land, and all this good clean ozone, and all this opportunity to exploit, goes ignored.

Hal Hayes, who gave a party for the inmates of the DC7's press flight to Los Angeles, is a man whose explorations in the field of gadgetry impresses even Hollywood—where old time movie makers were considered ostentatious if they didn't build a disappearing swimming pool.

Hayes, who builds things for the U. S. armed forces overseas, has a hilltop house best reached by funicular. He designed it himself and it's strictly ad lib.

Entrance is through what appears to be an abandoned section of the Coney Island's tunnel of love. Then you climb to different tiers on lacy metal steps that provide a giddy view of the scenery far below.

A big upper room is enclosed in cellophane. One of the few substantial-looking rooms in the house, Hayes' bathroom, contains in addition to the traditional furnishings a wardrobe with 75 suits and a set of the Encyclopedia Brittanica, diving boards protruding from the hilltop. It helps to be able to tight-rope.

To complicate a bewildering situation, Hayes invited (at rough count) 79,314 guests to meet the visiting reporters. But the fabulously expensive party was thrown out of kilter by a 10-cent fuse which burned out.

It was run off in semi-darkness, dispelled only by candles here and there on the floors, and pots of glowing charcoals. Miraculously, nobody burned to the ground, but a number of guests — intrepidly by Florabelle Muir — fell in the blacked-out pool.

Toddler Likely to Be Around Some Time

KINGSPORT, Tenn. (UP) — If 16-month-old Lester Strong takes after the rest of his family, he'll be around for about five generations.

The youngster boasts living ancestors dating back that far on two limbs of the paternal line. All Lester's living paternal antecedents, including his 21-year-old father, Ralph Strong, are farmers.

Grains Pick Up After Hesitating

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain hesitated at the start and then decided the easiest path was upward on the board of trade today.

The market acted as if it were waiting to see if there was much of a carry over of the late selling which hit soybeans and new crop wheat with particular force last in yesterday's session. There wasn't, and when that fact became clear a little demand developed in all pits.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅛-¾ cents higher, December $1.99, corn unchanged to ¾ cents higher, December $1.55⅛, oats unchanged to ⅛ cents higher, December 76½, soybeans ½-2¼ cents higher, January $3.04½, and lard 20 to 32 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $14.62.

Stocks Looking Upward Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market was mixed today with a tendency to the higher side.

Changes either way were almost entirely in the smaller fractions. The opening was active with many large blocks on the tape. Thereafter, however, the pace slowed.

The stock got the benefit of stock split hopes newly voiced in Wall Street and also the praise in brokerage circles of present and prospective earnings.

Fog Shrouds England

LONDON (AP)—Thick fog blanketed much of southern England today hampering shipping along the coast. But London escaped and enjoyed warm sunshine.

RE-ENGINEERED FOR 1954—Typical of completely re-engineered Chevrolet trucks making their 1954 model debut this week is the three-quarter ton (6500 GVW) stake, on which dual rear wheels are now available. Loading height has been lowered and floor area between stakes increased. More horsepower in each of three new engines, greater durability through sturdier construction, optional automatic transmission, improved comfort and convenience are among Chevrolet truck advances.

Man Injured When Auto Runs Down Embankment

John Kausch, 53, of 2675 Lake Angelus Rd., Waterford Township, was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital late yesterday after his auto plunged down a 20-foot embankment on Telegraph road north of Long Lake road, according to State Police of Pontiac Post.

He suffered a broken leg, multiple rib fractures, cuts and bruises.

Kausch told police that he passed a truck on Telegraph road and skidded off the road when he tried to get back into the right lane.

Sees Return of Confidence

Chevrolet Believes 1954 May Be Its Third Largest

By ROBERT B. TARR
Pontiac Press Managing Editor

Chevrolet Division of GM looks forward to 1954 with confidence that it will be the division's third best year, and possibly approach close to the current year's business volume.

W. E. Fish, Chevrolet general sales manager, told automotive writers at a news conference Tuesday that a renewed feeling of confidence has developed throughout the nation in recent weeks.

He said his personal conviction was that the domestic market for the industry in 1954 would be between 5,300,000 and 5,500,000 cars.

He said he believes the lower price group of cars will get a larger share of this volume in the coming year, possibly as high as the 60 per cent reached in post-war years.

Chevrolet's largest year was 1950 and this year will be the second largest. Production by the end of this year is expected to be around 1,700,000 units.

The division will introduce its 1954 line of cars on Dec. 18 in dealer showrooms throughout the nation.

Whether they will carry revised price tags is yet to be determined, it may or may not be significant, however, that the 1954 trucks, introduced today, carried unchanged price tags.

Fish said Chevrolet was scheduling a greater production volume for the first quarter of next year than it built in the January-March period of 1953. (This came to something in excess of 350,000 passenger cars and nearly 120,000 trucks.)

He stated that Chevrolet new car stocks throughout the country are at low levels, with less than 20 days' supply on hand, including about 20,000 demonstrators.

Fish said that a factor in his predictions for the coming year is the fact that 1950 was the division's best year, and that the normal cycle of buying will bring many of the 1950 purchasers back into the market next year.

He cited population and employment increases and "the tremendous buying power of the country."

Research shows, too, he said, that "savings are accumulating at an all time rate." Moreover, he added, one third of the autos on the highways now still are prewar models.

He predicted that new car buyers would be more discriminating, pointing to the need for greater selling effort on part of agency staffs.

"We do not subscribe to the idea that emergency selling is necessary if intelligent planning has been maintained by the manufacturer," he said.

He said not a single dealer had complained to him that too many cars were coming from the factories.

At the same time he added the conviction that "some dealers have hollered before they were hurt. "There still are some dealers," he added, "who are living in a dream world of postwar selling."

Commenting on the frequently talked-about Chevrolet-Ford battle for first place in car production and sales, Fish said:

"We have heard the 'Beat Chevrolet' slogan for years, and we're still in first place. Neither Chevrolet nor its dealers have any intention of giving up first place."

In Memoriam 1

Sweet memories will linger forever,
Time cannot change them it's true,
Years that may come cannot sever,
Our loving remembrance of you.
Sadly missed by his wife and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY "sweetheart" and husband, Charles F. Tremain, who passed away November 25, 1950. The dearest husband the world could hold the cheerful smile of gold, and those who knew him all will know how much I lost three years ago. Fondly remembered by his wife, Tillie Tremain.

May Decorate Heroic POWs

Air Force Considering Medals for Five Who Resisted Torture

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is considering decorating or giving some other recognition to former war prisoners who resisted torture and refused to make false confessions for Communist propagandists.

A spokesman said today that official recommendation of such action must await completion of a detailed study of each individual case.

Such recognition presumably would go to five airmen who refused to succumb to pressure by the enemy—Lt. John Streit of South Orange, N. J.; M. Sgt. George Morar of Rockville, Md.; Capt. William Preston of Batavia, N. Y.; Capt. Zach Dean of Douglass, Kan., and Capt. William McTaggart of East Brady, Pa.

In the course of interrogating other former prisoners, more cases of heroism probably will come to light.

Regulations apparently would make appropriate any one of several decorations, among them the Legion of Merit, for outstanding service; the Soldier's Medal, for heroism involving voluntary risk of life; the Bronze Star, for outstanding service or heroism, and the Commendation Ribbon, for meritorious achievement or service.

Under military regulations, any officer or other member of the armed forces can suggest recognition. Normally, the formal recommendation is forwarded by the immediate commander, but in these instances the initiation may come from higher levels in the Pentagon.

While a policy for dealing with the men who refused to confess is crystalizing, the problem of what to do about the others remains unsolved. It may be months before the scrutiny of each case is completed.

Also involved is the matter of 22 Army soldiers who so far have refused to come home from enemy hands, preferring to live with the Communists.

These new problems, most of them without precedent, are the subject of almost daily meetings in the Pentagon to decide not only the individual cases but to frame a general policy.

1st Commercial Airliner of Japan Crosses Pacific

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With the Japanese merchant flag emblazoned on the fuselage, the first commercial Japanese airliner to cross the Pacific landed here yesterday. The big Douglas DC6B carried 57 crewmen and passengers from Tokyo. It was a trial flight, preparatory to the start in early February of twice-weekly service between Tokyo and San Francisco by Japan Air Lines.

Laniel Threatened on Army Issue

PARIS (AP) — French parliamentary deputies in a new rebellion against the proposed European army threatened the life of Premier Joseph Laniel's government today, almost on the eve of the Bermuda conference.

The Cabinet in a predawn session authorized Laniel to demand a vote of confidence from the National Assembly. The government hoped, however, the deputies would make this unnecessary by approving a Socialist resolution endorsing the army project in principle but with certain reservations.

Should this fail, the government planned to put forward its own motion on which it must resign if defeated.

The assembly was to resume debate today, on the Socialist resolution and 10 other motions made by various parties and deputies during the week-long foreign policy debate.

Cabinet experts struggled over a draft for the confidence resolution they may put forward. In general, it was slated to pay lip service to the idea of European unity but to cautiously sidestep any support yet for the European army.

District Attorney Gives Juror Cigars, Aspirin

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—There was some concern when Dist. Atty. Alfred B. Cenedella halted a grand jury session yesterday and said:

"I now have a very serious matter to take up with you!"

All leaned forward expectantly.

"Juror Harry B. Deal has just become the father of a boy—9 pounds 8 ounces," Cenedella announced.

"Whew!" said Beal.

The district attorney handed him two cigars and two aspirin tablets. The jury went back to business.

GI Bill Allows Vets Additional Earnings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Veterans Administration today reminded veterans attending school under the Korea GI bill that any money they earn outside school hours does not affect their GI allowances.

The VA said such earnings do not even have to be reported.

However, the Korea GI bill does place a ceiling on the amount a veteran taking on-the-job or apprentice training may receive without having his allowances reduced.

The VA said the $310-a-month ceiling works this way: when the veteran's earnings as a trainee, plus his monthly GI allowance, exceed $310 a month, the allowance is scaled down so the combined total does not exceed $310. If the veteran should earn $310 a month or more he would get no allowance.

According to the Census Bureau, there are 18,272,000 persons in the United States 60 years of age or older.
