Free Tickets to see the Food Network's Alton Brown

Star of "Good Eats", a show that combines "pop culture, comedy and plain good eating", the Food Network's Alton Brown will speak at Oakland University at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, September 30 in the O'rena. In addition to 10 years as a writer, producer and star on the award-winning "Good Eats", Brown hosts "Feasting on Asphalt" and "Feasting on Waves" and is the lead commentator on "Iron Chef America". Sponsored by the Student Life Lecture Board, the OU Alumni Association and the Oakland Press, the event will offer a fun and fresh perspective about the "Science of Food".

As a benefit of membership, the Oakland University Alumni Association is providing a limited number of tickets to OUAA members on a first come, first served basis. There is no charge for the tickets, but the offer expires August 31, pending availability. There is a four ticket limit per OUAA member. Current OUAA members can register at this link.

Not a member? Join now to take advantage of this special offer. Membership has its benefits!
