2 Top Diplomats Boycott Russian Embassy Event

WASHINGTON — Two top American diplomats last night shunned a Soviet Embassy reception celebrating the 37th anniversary of the Russian Revolution.

The Americans made a gesture of protest against the shooting down near Japan of a U.S. RB 29 reconnaissance plane.

Although lower echelon State Department aides attended the plush gathering, Livingston Merchant, assistant secretary in charge of European affairs, and his deputy, Walworth Barbour, canceled plans to attend.

Most of the embassies, East and West, were represented.

Among the guests was Paul

Robeson, American Negro singer, who wore a Stalin Peace Prize medal pinned to his lapel.

Night Club Uses Menu in French to Disguise Order of Chopped Liver

By EDDIE CANTOR

I have nothing against night clubs. I think they're a lot of fun. It's a great place to relax, but I seldom go to them. You can save a lot of money that way.

Any time I feel like nightclubbing, I have Ida blow smoke in my face, several of our daughters step on my feet, I turn the television set on loud—try it sometime.

The other night, however, was an occasion. It was a birthday. I really had myself a big evening. At 11 o'clock I was doing the rumba, 12 o'clock the samba, 3 o'clock the mambo, and at 4—plasma.

Why do most of the clubs have menus in French? I ordered a dish that was piled high with repes suzette, crabmeat, petite marmete.

I didn't enjoy it until I got to the bottom. What that club went through to cover up the chopped liver!

Ida ordered lobster. For one lobster, $10! The waiter explained why it was so expensive.

"Mr. Cantor, this lobster was flown in from the East on a fast plane." I said, "Couldn't you bring us one that had hitch-hiked?"

Hollywood night clubs are pretty swanky. You should get a peek at their coat rooms. In this particular place where we were celebrating, the coat room was loaded with sables, chinchillas and ermine. Poor Ida—she handed the check girl her silver fox and three mink coats got up and walked out.

Non-Typing Typists Hired by Boss for Good Reason

By MARGARET LATROBE

My former boss was always hiring typists who couldn't type. I don't mean, couldn't type well. I mean, not at all. Couldn't even tell a typewriter from a sewing machine.

This quirk of his caused much despair in the personnel department, which wasn't really a department in the strict sense of the word. It was only Everett, a sweet guy—part office manager, repair man, delivery boy and confidant.

Although he never got the chance, Everett was supposed to hire the stenographic help. But not fire them. Nobody ever got fired, nor did they ever leave except to get married or something.

Everybody loved working there, though they shied away from the boss—who probably had the most explosive temper in Carter County, not to mention a formidable command of the choicest oil field vocabulary.

His private office had heavy oak doors which sometimes shook like shutters in a high wind when he was expressing himself. Like when he imported an efficiency expert to get things straightened out around there, but that's another story. Badly typed memos upset him something awful, but still he kept right on hiring stenographers.

who couldn't type, or couldn't write shorthand because it took longer than longhand.

The last straw was the day he appeared with a shy incompetent for the hardest job in the whole office—receptionist. Geologists you could always get, but not good receptionists.

"How come?" said I. "This is our key job, and we've had enough of your nonsense. Why on earth didn't you hire a girl who can type?"

The heavy oak doors banged. The familiar rage warnings flared. His blue eyes narrowed into B-B shot, white curls bristled high on his head, his face the color of a dish of loganberries.

"Sit down and listen!" he growled, laying aside the telephone receiver in the middle of a conversation with Los Angeles—he always said it was cheaper to phone, because time is worth so much. "I hire my folks for just one thing—and that's character. Nothing else."

I want folks around me that I can trust, that I am proud to take home to dinner with my kids." (He meant when lunch-time caught him in the middle of a sentence, we all went home with him.) "They know my business," he continued, "they know all about me, and by blanketly, blank I want that dope in honest hands. My office folks are hand-picked — by me — for character. Any damfool can learn to type!"

Well, that's the way it was. We always loved him for that. He made us all feel hand-picked, for character. And somehow those girls always learned to type.

"I like the Rennel way since it is such a very pleasant way to lose weight. I have lost 15 lbs. in two months and feel so much better. Until my correct weight is reached, Rennel will be my reducing aid," writes Marion Taylor, 1345 S. Williams Lake Rd. "I have taken many kinds of reducing pills without any results. In the past I have been troubled so much with a colon ailment and now I find that Rennel is the first help that I can depend on. So it will be Rennel for me to keep this trouble corrected and to keep my weight down."

Nazi's Release Seen as Propaganda Fuel

STUTTGART, Germany (AP)—Former Nazi Foreign Minister Konstantin von Neurath, arriving home from Spandau war crimes prison last night, suggested the Soviets might try to gain propaganda value from his release.

The four occupation powers paroled 81-year-old Von Neurath Saturday on humane grounds because of his age and failing health. Hitler's first foreign minister and Nazi "protector" of Czechoslovakia, he was the first of the major Nazi war criminals convicted at Nuremberg to be freed. He had served eight years of a 15-year term.

Fiery Arrest Staged

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Alvie Watham was happy the police arrested him. Officers W. A. Williams and W. E. Davis arrived in time to jerk Watham out of a burning bed where he had gone to sleep with a lighted cigarette in his hand. He was jailed on charges of four separate traffic violations.

Artist Gets Catholic Blessing at Funeral

NICE, France (U)—Henri Matisse, in his youth an iconoclast against traditions of thought as well as art, today received the full funeral blessing of the Roman Catholic Church into which he was born 84 years ago. The famous artist died of a heart attack here Thursday.

Though not a practicing Catholic for many years, Matisse in later life turned more and more back toward the church and devoted all his famed talent for several years to designing a chapel at nearby Vence for a Dominican monastery.

Danny Kaye, Manager, Charged With Beating

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A physician complained to police today that actor Danny Kaye and his business manager struck him in the ribs and beat him on the head during an altercation at Los Angeles International Airport.

The physician, Dr. Roland Marks, signed a battery report at the airport sub-station complaining that Kaye and Edward Dukoff, 45, pummeled him during an argument over the doctor's parked car. He also complained that Kaye gripped him in a headlock while Dukoff beat him.

Fred Allen Getting Rich, Makes $9 on His Book

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Fred Allen's already getting rich on his new book. Reader's Digest paid him $10 for a joke, and the Wm. Morris agency took out a $1 commission—net profit already, 9 bucks!

"The brain trust of one big political party met to try to humanize one of its leading figures," reports Leonard Levinson. "It had to adjourn—it came to the conclusion he wasn't human."

Cleveland's lovely Joan Diener of "Kismet" has had a couple of dates with Aly Khan—who saw the last 10 minutes of her show last spring (he arrived a little late). Joan admitted it when I asked her, adding, "But it'd be nice if you said nothing about it. Poor guy! He's awfully nice, and people are always taking advantage of him to get publicity." Joan also told me she isn't the gal for whom he recently bought a mink coat. "I have my own mink coat and mink stole," Joan said, adding, "But I bought 'em myself!"

"The way things are going now," says Jackie Gleason, "Frank Sinatra's gotta wind up with Marilyn Monroe." Jack Paar of the CBS Morning Show's made it. A horse has been named for him. Speaking of a California critic who was always blasting him, Jack said: "He drove me out of Hollywood... he drove me right into a gold mine."

"Tallulah Bankhead removes her makeup with Energine and Kim Hunter takes her off with Crisco. ("The Crisco Kid?")... Marion Brando's coming in by boat. He went from naughty to nauti-cal... Guess who comes off better'n anybody in "No Business Like Show Business"—just an ex-hops picker named Johnnie Ray.

The woman Tyrone Power prefers these days since he and Linda Christian busted is an attractive staffer on a NY fashion magazine, somewhat older than Ty, a comparatively recent acquaintance, and her initials are M. R. But we doubt that they'll be MRS. 'cause Ty right now doesn't want to marry anybody.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL...

Victor Mature's capturing the Las Vegas beauties one at a time... Henry Youngman sprinted up and pinched Debbie Reynolds. "I just wanted to touch the new Fisher body," he explained... The curvy new dancer at Arele's Roumanian is Janet Gray.

Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher'll attend the Jennie Grossinger testimonial at the Waldorf Tuesday... Several major film companies are bidding for the right to distribute the movie, "N. Y. Confidential."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's Mike Connolly's description of a true San Franciscan: "A guy who asks, 'What's the name of that girl DiMaggio divorced?'" LAS VEGAS WAS ONCE THE land of the six-shooter, notes Bob Kennedy. Now it's the land of the seven-shooter... That's earl, brother.

Well-Heeled Trio Kidnap 2 Ducks in Public Park

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—An elderly woman got out of an expensive automobile in Golden Gate Park, followed by a young woman and a man. The young woman carried a sack, from which she spilled a trail of grain. This lured a pair of gullible white ducks to follow them.

A witness told police that, as this strange procession neared the limousine, the elderly woman and the man seized the ducks, stuffed them — quacking in protest — into two cartons. With that, the group piled into the car and sped away. But the duck-nappers are tabbed. The witness got the car license number!

Woman Injured in Fall

Miss JoAnne Pohorsky, 24, of 17191 Ridge Rd., Northville, was admitted to Pontiac General Hospital with a concussion and possible head injuries suffered Saturday when she fell from a horse on the Clarion Farms near Clarkston. Her condition is reported as good to day.

Moms of Victim, Slayer Embrace

Vow to Offer Prayers for Each Other's Child
in Sex Murder

NORWOOD, Mass. (U)—The heartbroken mother of a slain girl and the sobbing mother of a boy accused of the slaying locked in a tearful embrace yesterday in an emotional scene of mutual compassion.

Both promised to pray for the other's child today, when Geraldine Annesse, 15, will be buried and Peter Makarewicz, also 15, will answer in court to a charge of murder.

Mrs. Adrienne Makarewicz and Mrs. Mary Annesse met in the latter's bedroom yesterday for the first time since Geraldine's nude body was found Friday morning in a two-car garage at the rear of her home.

Dist. Atty. Myron G. Lane said the girl was strangled in a sex attack.

The Makarewicz and Annesse families live in three-family houses separated only by a vacant lot. Geraldine and Peter knew each other nearly all their lives but they seldom went out on social engagements together.

Lane said Makarewicz signed a statement saying he hid in the garage until Geraldine came home from a double date about 10 p.m. Thursday night and called to her as she walked by.

240 Moslems Injured in Torchlight Parade

BEIRUT, Lebanon (U)—More than 240 Moslems were injured last night when fire, followed by panic, broke up a torchlight procession here honoring the birthday of the prophet Mohammed.

No deaths were reported, but official sources said many victims were in a serious condition.

The fire spread through the crowd when torchbearers leaving a Moslem school accidentally dropped their burning brands.

Mother, Daughter Hurt in M24 Accident

An Avon Township mother and daughter were injured Sunday when the car in which they were riding was struck from behind by another auto on M 24 just north of Lake Orion.

Treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital were Mrs. Eileen Lucero, 34, of 3397 Donley, for shoulder injuries, and her daughter, Paula, 10, for possible head injuries.

They were passengers in a car, driven by Pedro D. Flojo, 50, of 3397 Donley, which was struck from behind by an auto driven by Charles J. White, 51, of 97 Cottage St.

Voting Machines Cheaper

Once again election results emphasize the needless extra cost and inefficiency of the paper ballot method compared with machine voting.

In only six Oakland County townships and the City of Pontiac has the horse and buggy method of voting survived. Involved are 54 precincts, 44 of them in the City.

As for the inefficiency of this method, our own Press staff was able to tabulate some of the machine precincts two hours after the polls closed. In some of the paper ballot precincts, election staffs worked as long as 17 hours after the last vote was cast.

City Clerk EVANS reports that the average time worked by Pontiac election boards after the polls closed was seven hours. She says that the average for machine precincts was two hours. Election board workers are paid at the rate of one dollar an hour plus an extra dollar for the chairman. The total cost of Pontiac's election is estimated at $6,204.

In the County the cost for paper per voter is 70 cents in non-mechanized precincts and 50 cents in machine precincts. In 1948 the County used 23,000 pounds of election paper. With the addition of more voting machines the paper consumption dropped to 6,080 pounds in 1952.

From costs in 44 machine precincts totaling $4,664, it is easy to see that Pontiac's 22,350 votes could have been cast and tabulated by machine at a saving of $1,540.

On price, speed and accuracy, voting machines costing $1,250 each are a sound investment. Certainly, the facts above constitute a strong argument for a City Commission decision to convert gradually to mechanized voting.

Treaties Going to Senate

Several important matters of foreign policy will play a brief part in this week's special session of the Senate.

This is because of President EISENHOWER's decision to start through the upper chamber toward ratification of certain treaties and agreements. These have to do specifically with binding up European and Southeast Asian defense arrangements.

First of the agreements is the protocol to the North Atlantic Treaty admitting the West German Federal Republic to NATO. Another is the Southeast Asia defense alliance linking the U. S., Australia, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines and Thailand.

Third is the Pacific Charter. This pledges collective action against subversion. It also promises promotion of self-government for all countries whose people desire and are able to undertake its responsibilities.

Some doubt exists as to the need of Senate ratification of an agreement signed October 23 in Paris. This protocol to the Bonn peace contracts restores German sovereignty and permits it to be rearmed.

The President's idea in submitting these matters now is logical. His aim is to facilitate ratification early in the 84th Congress by giving the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee plenty of time to consider the agreements.

With leaders of both parties making post-election pledges of bipartisanship in foreign policy, Mr. Eisenhower should have little trouble getting the ratifications he wants.

Substandard Housing

City Sanitarian COHEN has done well to call public attention anew to a city ordinance which prohibits the lease or rental of substandard living quarters.

Almost daily his office receives calls from persons who would like to move into a garage, basement or attic apartment, or from property owners who desire to rent such space.

The majority of these callers have to be told that the property in question fails to qualify under the city ordinance as suitable for occupancy. In most cases these properties fail to comply because of three chief faults—lack of toilet and bath facilities, of adequate ceiling height and of two entrances.

While this ordinance and similar State law may seem drastic to prospective landlords and tenants, they have been enacted for the health, welfare and protection of the public. Before renting or buying any property, it is wise to find out from the Sanitarian's office, city engineer or the Fire Department whether the property complies with the ordinance.

It is especially important for landlords to realize that fire insurance policies may be nullified if their property is occupied by an excessive number of families.

Nor nearly so many people as formerly are under the impression that an airplane accident can kill a person 14 times as dead as can a highway crash.

The Man About Town

Few Democrats

Not Many From That Party Have Held County Offices

United Fund: All the eggs in one basket.

In response to a great flood of inquiries, we find that the last Democrat to be elected to a county office in Oakland County was Franklin E. Morris who was chosen Prosecuting Attorney in 1936. The last Democratic Sheriff goes back beyond the time when the political affiliation was recorded in the official records, but it is believed to have been

William A. Brewster who was elected soon after the turn of the century. Making his first step toward his elevation as Democratic Governor of Michigan.

Murray D. VanWagoner started as County Drain Commissioner 20 odd years ago, as the lone Democrat chosen, in which office he was succeeded by Henry Wedge who was the last Democrat to hold that office here. While one of the top country Democrats of his time.

James H. Lynch, was Judge of Probate in 1936-37, he received that office by appointment to fill a vacancy, and was not elected by the voters.

Saturday's game between Omaha and Wayne reduced the survivors in the MAT football contest to 10. Omaha won it, 59-7, so the 14 of the 25 remaining in the contest previous to that game, and the single entry who predicted a tie game, are eliminated. In next Saturday's game between Michigan and Michigan State these 10 are divided as follows: Michigan State, 8; Michigan, 2.

An echo of the dispersal sale of Hereford cattle at the Hi-Point farm of Edward F. Fisher last month comes from Traverse City. A bull calf and its mother purchased at the sale for $15,000 by that north Michigan farm have been sold for $17,500.

Our neighbors often can beat us on queer ways. A Genesee County voter got out his knife and scratched the bingo amendment off the voting machine.

The deer in the Pontiac area are not only getting domesticated, but they're also quite obliging, as reported by Mrs. Norton Brownsohn, who says a big buck and two does graciously posed for several camera fans near her home on Rochester Road.

Advice comes directly from the Jack Miner Sanctuary near Kingsville, Ont., that the enormous flock of wild geese seen passing over Pontiac one forenoon last week landed there shortly afterward. It was a flock that makes a stop at the Miners' twice each year, on each migration, their dates not varying more than a day or so.

'Disgusted' Says Pontiac Needs More Places of Recreation for Its Teenagers

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

People who have nothing else to do except sit back and gripe about bad teenagers, drinkers, bingo and beer gardens are the ones who wouldn't turn their lily white hands for anything clean and decent.

It's also a crime, in my book to read about raided teenage drinking parties and a worse crime to have a town as big as Pontiac with no places for young folks to go. Why haven't we got a roller rink inside the city limits? Or is that against the law, too? If so, why.

The so-called good citizens are driving people to drink and they won't stop there. It will be your children next unless we can get together and demand some kind of decent places for the kids to go.

All work and no play makes Pontiac a dull town.

Disgusted

Says Exercise Better Than Paying Bus Fare

I want to thank the Pontiac City buses for putting me on my feet. Since they raised the bus fare, I have been walking downtown which is a mile.

I am 75 years old and I find the exercise does me a lot of good. This means a walk of two miles down and back.

People who take a bus to go a few blocks would be better off both financially and physically if they did a little more walking. I guess they are more to be pitied than censured. However, it is none of my business.

Good Teacher Employs Basic Text, Doesn't Substitute Mimeographed Stuff

Paul is a poor teacher. He ridicules his pupils when they ask questions. For he goes on the defensive and considers their queries an indictment of his teaching methods. He also refuses to use a standard textbook. Test all your teachers by the "Test for Good Teachers" named below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE Case M-361: Paul R., aged 31, teaches mathematics in a Chicago high school.

"But he is ruining my son's enjoyment of mathematics," one of my medical colleagues informed me.

"My boy Tom has always been fond of geometry and algebra. In fact, he has made straight 'A' grades in math.

"But this new teacher doesn't like the textbook assigned, so he gives them new problems of his own.

"And he doesn't take time to explain his different methods. Since his assignments aren't in their book, then the pupils are at sea.

"Tom says that his teacher curtsies the class if there are any questions. But if anybody dares raise a query, then he bawls the student out.

"Tom is a brilliant boy, so I rely on his judgment. And Tom says this young teacher is working on his master's degree, so is more interested in his own advancement than in his pupils' welfare."

Teachers deserve untold praise

Aunt Het

Bill was too suspicious. If he got up there, he probably wondered what secret motive Saint Peter had for giving him wings.

when they are good teachers. And most of them are O.K.

But a minority aren't worth their salt. In fact, they shouldn't be in the classrooms, for one bad teacher can ruin the entire educational appetites of hundreds of youngsters.

No good teacher will curtsy ask for questions and then be caustic or ridicule his pupils for raising a timid query. Yet Tom's teacher does this.

A good teacher also employs a basic textbook which is the backbone of the homework assignments for his students. Then, if they don't get his quick examples on the blackboard, at least they can pore over the pages of the textbook at night and find the explanations.

It is perfectly right and proper that a teacher amplify the textbook with his own lectures and even with mimeographed material. But when a teacher disdains the many good textbooks in the field and then inflicts a batch of mimeographed material upon his pupils, that is usually a sign of pedagogic egotism.

Yet many professors in colleges do this very thing. They also charge their students almost the price of a bound textbook, for their own loosely organized mimeographed pages.

In every field of knowledge there are several adequate textbooks, so it is inexcusable for an egotistical professor to disdain a bound book and compel his students to buy his own mimeographed stuff.

If a man is a competent teacher and has prepared materials worthy of publication, then let him submit them to a publisher and get them out as a standard textbook.

As a test for a good teacher, employ the following items:

interesting and practical for he has missionary zeal about his subject matter.

(2) He smiles and is friendly with his students, instead of acting caustic or sarcastic when they ask a question.

(3) He has a sense of humor, so he doesn't magnify his own importance to such an extent that he disdains printed textbooks in favor of his own mimeographed notes. And he doesn't go berserk if students chew gum or occasionally indulge in mild horse play.

(4) He attends PTA and the school athletic events. He is a great rooster for the school's teams. For further test items, send for my "Test for a Good Teacher," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus a dime. Use it for PTA discussion.

David Lawrence Says:

Errors in Watkins Report May Undermine Censure

WASHINGTON — Two glaring misstatements of fact—errors that have astonished parliamentarians of long experience on Capitol Hill—have been found in the Watkins committee report which may mean the collapse of two of the three points in the censure resolution proposed against Sen. McCarthy of Wisconsin.

These misstatements of the law and the precedents will prove embarrassing to Sen. Lehman of New York, Douglas of Illinois, Humphrey of Minnesota, and a number of other senators on the so-called "liberal" side who will be abandoning their convictions and reversing themselves if they accept the doctrine laid down in the Watkins report that the Senate is a "continuing body."

The point at issue concerns the flat statement made in the Watkins report that, because the Senate is a "continuing body," Sen. McCarthy can be punished for something that happened during his prior term in Congress. The exact opposite—that the Senate is not a "continuing body"—was vigorously contended by a large number of so-called "liberals" in the Senate just 22 months ago.

The loose language of the Watkins Committee report which is disputed by the parliamentarians is as follows:

"Senate rule XXXII provides that the legislative business of the Senate shall be continued from session to session, and that the legislative business which remains undetermined at the close of the next preceding session of that Congress shall be resumed as if no adjournment had taken place. This rule makes it clear that all legislative business continues from session to session."

The report then immediately draws this conclusion: "The Senate has the power to censure a senator for conduct occurring during a prior term."

But the Watkins committee report is factually wrong, because the Senate rules do not provide for any such continuity in the status of legislation. When this question was last debated on Jan. 6, 1953, in connection with an effort to remove the ban on changes in the cloture rules, Sen. Lehman of New York, Democrat, who has recently been one of the archfoes of Sen. McCarthy, said:

"Obviously, the continuance in office of 64 senators does not mean that the Senate, as an organized body, continues beyond the expiration of the Congress of which the Senate is an integral part. That would be an impossible contradiction."

"When the Congress dies, the Senate, as an organized body, dies too. It is revived, as the House is, on the third day of January when the new Congress begins its term. The fact that 64 senators remain in office provides a bridge of personal continuity. But that continuity has no relationship to the fact that at the end of the term of the whole Congress the whole Congress is finished, and that includes the rules of the Senate."

Sen. Lehman filed a brief prepared under the auspices of the 1952 leadership conference on civil rights, which included the American Civil Liberties Union, the Americans for Democratic Action, and many labor unions and religious and veterans' organizations.

This made an even stronger legal case against the concept that the Senate is a "continuing body." After pointing out that legislative business may be carried over from session to session only of the same Congress, the brief says: "It is clear from the rule (XXXII) that legislative business lapses at the end of each Congress so that committee hearings, committee reports, Senate debate and even progress through the Senate calendar are all for naught if the legislative business has not been completed by that time."

Sen. Douglas of Illinois, Democrat, said in the same debate:

"Despite the hold-over of two thirds of its members in each new Congress, it is conceded by everyone that the Senate is not a continuing body for the consideration of legislation, executive appointments, treaties, officers or committees. There is no basis for a different conclusion on the matter of rules."

Even the brief submitted at that time by the Republican Policy Committee sponsored by the late Sen. Taft on the other side of the debate contained the following concession:

"No direct precedent has been found in the form of a Senate ruling either on the question (1) Whether the Senate is a continuing body or (2) Whether its rules are continuing."

While the Senate failed by its subsequent vote to permit the previous rules to be discarded in favor of an amendment to restrict debate, the vote was taken on that issue directly rather than on whether the Senate was a "continuing body."

The other grave error in the Watkins committee report is a misleading statement on the matter of precedents. The committee's language was as follows:

"A member may be censured even after he has resigned. Precedents in both the Senate and House for expulsion or censure for conduct occurring during a preceding Congress may be found in 'Hind's Precedents.'"

But a careful examination of the same source—"Hind's Precedents"—shows that there is not a single case of such conduct occurring in a prior term which had become known to Congress in such prior term. In the McCarthy case, on two of the three points charged against him the information was available before his old term expired.

Only the third count—the Zwicker case—occurred during the same term in which the action for censure was brought. "Hind's Precedents" also reveals that such censure as occurred after a member resigned was in connection with proceedings initiated at the same term and before the resignation occurred, or else on court convictions which became final during a subsequent term.

There is no parallel to the McCarthy case cited in "Hind's Precedents," but the Watkins report gives the erroneous impression that there have been such precedents on which censure has been voted. Actually, the committee for some strange reason omitted mention of those precedents in which both the Senate and the House deliberately refused to vote censure for conduct disclosed during the previous term of a member.

The Watkins committee apparently accepted the draft written by counsel unfamiliar with the legal precedents involved. Yet the Senate is expected to act impartially on the basis of such a defective document. It was a hastily done job.

Natural Breathing a Series of Inflation of Belly—Americans Don't Know How

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

It seems logical to assume that, since breathing is automatic, it is best left to nature. But our way of life is hardly natural.

Breathing is not entirely automatic. The function is more or less under control of the will. You can hold your breath or breathe faster or more deeply for a little while.

And most Americans have been taught in childhood or early youth to throw out the chest, protrude like a pouter pigeon, or pose like a tin soldier. This caricature has prevailed physical and military training in Yankee-land chiefly, I believe, because most Americans—including high school and college graduates—are ignorant of anatomy, physiology and hygiene.

With few exceptions, Americans just don't know how to breathe. This astute observation started out to be an honest one. I assure you, just as I started out to be an honest doctor; but right away after I made it I realized that—oh, well, if you wish to learn something to your advantage, no matter whether you are invalid or disgustingly healthy, send me 25c (clean) and stamped, self-addressed envelope for Little Lesson 21 "How to Breathe."

Trouble with a lot of you poor souls is you are prudish about some words and shameless about others. For instance you boggle at mention of the belly but scarcely bat an eye about leg, thigh, hip or bottom.

Webster says belly means bulge, bag, pouch, bellows. He gives no hint that the word is indecent or improper. No other modern word conveys the same meaning. It is ridiculous to substitute such awkward words as midriff, middle, tummy, misdirection, diaphragm, stomach, or abdomen for belly. Particularly not abdomen.

The abdomen—accent the "dough"—is the larger body cavity containing stomach, liver, spleen, gall bladder and ducts, duodenum, intestines. The belly is the front wall of the abdomen.

The smaller body cavity is the thorax or chest, containing heart, lungs, great veins and great artery (aorta).

The two body cavities are divided by a partition, composed of muscle and tendon, called the diaphragm. The diaphragm is attached to the tip of the breastbone, insides of the ribs, and the lower dorsal vertebrae. It covers liver, stomach, and spleen as a tarpaulin covers a haystack. The diaphragm is shaped like an inverted soup plate.

When the diaphragm contracts it presses or squeezes down on the liver and gall bladder—incidentally, this gently massages the biliary system if breathing is natural. At the same time contraction of the diaphragm lowers pressure in the thorax, chest, lungs, and so air is sucked into the lungs—inspiration, inhalation, inflation. But that is only part of the function of the great breathing muscle, the diaphragm. It serves also as a booster pump, without which the heart alone can scarcely maintain efficient circulation.

"If breathing is natural," I said. Natural breathing is bellows breathing, belly breathing, diaphragmatic or abdominal breathing. Watch the breathing of an animal, a primitive man, or even a civilized man when he is asleep, unconscious or under anesthesia, and you will see that natural breathing is a series of inflations of the bellows (belly).

Signed letters, not more than one page, on the words how, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Physician Links Faith, Medicine

AMA President-Elect Says Doctor Entering Sick Room Is Not Alone

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Dr. Elmer Hess, president-elect of the American Medical Assn., said today any doctor "who lacks faith in the Supreme Being" has no right to practice medicine.

"A physician who walks into a sick room is not alone," said the Erie, Pa., doctor, who is a specialist in urology. "He can only minister to the ailing person with the material tools of scientific medicine—his faith in a higher power does the rest."

"Show me the doctor who denies the existence of the Supreme Being and I will say that he has no right to practice the healing art," Hess made the statements in a prepared digest of extemporaneous remarks he planned for the opening of the 48th annual meeting of SMA, with a total membership of 10,000 doctors, ranks second only to the Southern Medical Assn. The AMA is the largest general medical organization in the country.

"Our medical schools are doing a magnificent job of teaching the fundamentals of scientific medicine," declared Hess. "However, I'm afraid that the concentration on basic science is so great the teaching of spiritual values is almost neglected."

Collins in Viet Nam to Study Problems

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, President Eisenhower's special envoy to South Viet Nam, arrived today to lend a hand at trying to solve the acute political and economic crisis threatening the Indochinese country.

Coming in his personal plane from Tokyo, Collins said he had devoted considerable study to the situation in Viet Nam but came with "no preconceived notions or anything of that sort."

The former U. S. Army chief of staff added that he hoped to "render maximum help to the Vietnamese people in solving their problems."

Bob Considine Says

Judge in Sheppard Case Lets Juror Stay Asleep

CLEVELAND (INS)—"Where are you from in Wales?" I asked spry and spindly old Judge Edward Blythin the other day, during a recess in the Dr. Sheppard murder trial.

"Rhyl," he replied, staring pleasantly through his milkbottle glasses.

"What's that near?"

"It's near Llanfairpwllgwyllgi, gerychwydrobllantysiliogogoch," he explained.

Quite a card, this judge. Now 70, and elected last Tuesday to another six year term as presiding criminal court judge of Common Pleas Court, Blythin reached Cleveland as a poor 16-year-old Welsh immigrant. The local legend is that the first question he asked was, "How do I get on the ballot?" Actually, he didn't get around to asking that until he obtained his law degree at 24.

A son is now general counsel of Packard Motor.

Blythin is a much sought-after speaker in the Cleveland area. He was chosen to make the principal address at the big civic dinner which marked the elevation of Cleveland's Harold Burton to the U. S. Supreme Court. A newspaper commented on Blythin's rich, rolling Welsh brogue.

Blythin's daughter, who is very close to her father, read the reference and looked up at him in astonishment.

"But Father, m'darlin', you dinna have one little bit 'a accent," she protested.

"R-R-R-ought," he agreed.

The judge has the real lowdown on the Sheppard case. He took Chesta Fulmer, the sweet-tempered Dayton (Ohio) columnist aside today, leaned down to her ear and whispered:

"It's a whodunit."

He cannot escape Bill Corrigan, the colorful and grizzled defense lawyer.

"I met Bill in 1906," he was saying. "I took a room just across the street from where all the Corrigan's lived. The father was a cop. Grand fellow, Bill. In 1935 I moved my family into a new place and who should occupy a house just across the street but Bill? So I drew the Sheppard case, and here's Bill again."

During a long medically-termed cross-examination of Deputy Coroner Lester Adelson on Friday one of the jurors appeared to be sleeping.

"Why do you permit a thing like that in your court?" a reporter asked the judge during the next recess.

Blythin shrugged. "First I ask myself, 'Is he comfortable?' And if he's comfortable, relaxed, and having a refreshing sleep, why disturb him?"

The judge has been mayor pro tem of Cleveland (last Republican to hold the office), solicitor of the state, treasurer of Western Reserve University, and other honors have come to him. But the Sheppard case is making him internationally famous.

"Lot of interest in the case in Reykjavik, Iceland," he said to us. "Then I had a very nice letter from a young English couple—Essex. She's 20, he's 21. He wrote, 'I love my wife dearly.' He's studying to be a physical educator and she's an office worker."

"He said he wants to give his darling the best of everything. So he's decided to bring her to this country. Wants me to sponsor him and promise that he doesn't become a public charge. I'm looking in the provisions of the law. A sponsor was liable up to $500 when I came across... but that wouldn't go very far now, would it?"

The judge is somewhat deaf but refuses to wear an electric horn. When his old friend Corrigan is angry at him for overruling a motion, Bill purposely lowers his voice and makes the judge lean forward and cup an ear to hear him. The deafness leads to some interesting dialogue, too. Example: Judge (to a juror)—And do you have a family?

Juror—Yes, I have a daughter 12 years old.

Judge—You don't say; now please give me the daughter's age.

U. S. Political Division Close

Democrat Vote Margin Less Than Half Million Outside Solid South

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Democrats outvoted Republicans by more than 1 1/4 million in Tuesday's election with the usual big assist from the South.

Excluding Democratic Dixie, the party division reflects more clearly the dramatic tightness of the struggle for control of Congress — a struggle in which a shift of a few thousand votes either way in key spots could have swung it to the GOP or given the Democrats more solid majorities in Senate and House.

For the Democrats rolled up only about 371,000 more votes than the Republicans outside the South. That's on the basis of incomplete

Find Healing Substance That Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In case after case, pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form under the name of Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores—money back guarantee.

unofficial returns compiled by The Associated Press.

They show that:

Nationally, the Democrats harvested 21,849,811 votes, the Republicans 20,099,328 for a total of 41,949,139 and a Democratic edge of 1,750,483.

Outside the South, the Democrats drew 19,823,519 votes, the Republicans 19,451,674 — a difference of 370,845 in a total of 39,276,193.

Carver School Recount Replaces Board Member

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—The much disputed July 12 board of education election of the Carver School, which saw 47 teachers picket the school and parents keep their children at home when the school board refused to obey an Oakland County Circuit Court order to hold a recount, was cleared up Saturday.

Board secretary Lonnie Cash,

4 Juveniles Admit Cottage Vandalism

Four vandals have been connected to the weekend destruction of furniture, wiring, and windows of 15 summer cottages on Woodhull Lake, according to Michigan State Police Detective Charles Leaf of the Pontiac Post.

Leaf said the youths, all 16 years old, could give no reason for their destruction spree. One suspect, when questioned by Leaf, admitted the vandalism and implicated the other three.

The four will go before Oakland County Juvenile Court officials today, Leaf said.

who polled 435 votes in the original counting, registered only 399 in the recount, and lost his seat on the board to Samuel Jackson, who picked up 27 votes, from 402, in the recount.

James Harrison, proclaimed elected with 440 votes in July, retained his position when the recount gave him a total of 418.

A Citizen's Improvement Committee headed by Otis Eaton brought about the recount, charging the July election was "rigged."

The Carver School board had originally planned to appeal the court's recount order to the state Supreme Court, but vetoed this idea after a conference with State Superintendent of Public Instruction Clair L. Taylor, and Oakland County Superintendent of Schools William J. Emerson.

Six Local Men Run for Sultan of Hospital Follies

Pontiac is to have a Sultan for a day.

The lucky man will reign over the beauties in the "High Fever Follies of 1954," a benefit presentation being given this Wednesday and Thursday nights at the Pontiac High School Auditorium by the Women's Auxiliary to the Pontiac General Hospital.

Six nominees have already been chosen for the honor. They are: Fred Hoenstein, representing the Civitan Club; Dr. H. A. Miller, the Optimists; Howard Powers, the Exchange Club; Robert Oliver, the Downtown Kiwanis; Floyd Baker, West-side Kiwanis; and Tom Reese, North-side Kiwanis.

Mrs. Robert Sutton, chairman of public relations for the Follies benefit, says that easels with the candidates pictures are posted at various spots with accompanying canisters. Interested parties, she said, may vote for their candidates by placing a penny in the canisters for each vote.

"Voting booths" may be found in the Pontiac Hotel and Waldron Hotel Lobbies, as well as at Osmonds.

On Wednesday night, the potential sultans will be introduced on stage at the follies performance at the high school. On Thursday at 5 p. m. voting for the sultan will be closed.

The winner, as well as reigning over the dozens of local follies beauties, will be awarded a $100 bond to be given the club which he represents.

Surgical Device Inventor Started With Toy Train

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—An electric train started Dr. Ernest B. Emerson Jr. on his hobby of designing surgical instruments, which has resulted in 28 new implement ideas.

His wife gave him the train 16 years ago, and immediately the doctor began to tinker and make new tools to keep it going. At the same time he saw a need for many new and improved surgical instruments.

So he transferred his tinkering to medical implements, and now has a wide variety of them being produced by five manufacturers. And this he does, in his spare time, when he isn't operating, seeing patients, or teaching at the University of Rochester Medical School.

Because Dr. Emerson has specialized in ear, nose and throat surgery, most of his instruments are designed to solve surgical problems closely related to his own field.

His first instrument was a radium applicator for the treatment of deafness. It resulted in the development of an entirely new treatment technique for certain types of deafness.

His latest development, a laryngoscope, is a basic instrument with a series of sized attachments which can be used for examinations of the larynx, and to clear obstructive secretions from the throat, from the time of birth through adulthood.

Each of the doctor's instruments makes easier some complicated task the physician or surgeon must often perform, and many cut operating time. Some save up to 45 minutes operating time. None of the ideas is patented. "Every man hopes he will be able to make a unique contribution in his field," Dr. Emerson said. "That's how I feel about the instruments."

THE FORWARD LOOK

"These 9 top aircraft designers salute

Chrysler Corporation's all-new 1955 styling."

L. L. Colburn, President

THESE nine world-famous authorities in aircraft design recently attended a special preview of Chrysler Corporation's all newly designed automobiles for 1955: THE FORWARD LOOK.

What they saw was new-styled engineering... entirely new design from frame to roof, from headlight to tail-lamp—design created to match the mood of today's car owner.

They saw long, low lines—with a reason for every line. They felt a sense of forward motion even when the cars were standing still.

They found many features the public has been seeking... features new to motor cars and right up an air-minded man's alley.

They were right at home with the New-Horizon windshields—fully swept back and fully wrapped around—new windshields that provide visibility equalled only by an airplane pilot's. They admired the bold sweep of glass as they sat in the driver's seat.

They experienced the convenience of the PowerFlite Range Selector in a surprisingly new and logical place—a place an aircraft designer might well have chosen himself.

THE FORWARD LOOK intrigued these men as it is bound to intrigue you, too. It is a design concept that brings together the things you have been asking for—in looks, in taste, in luxury, in comfort, in performance.

We believe this new design concept will bring you fresh pride of ownership every time you step into your 1955 Plymouth, Dodge, DeSoto, Chrysler or Imperial. This is THE FORWARD LOOK—See it at your dealer's soon.

Do You Know Your Congress?

Must Campaign Winners Report Costs?

Q—Do congressmen have to report campaign contributions and expenditures after election?

A—Yes. The Federal Corrupt Practices Act requires every candidate for the Senate and House of Representatives to file a report of contributions and expenditures within 30 days after election. Candidates also were required to file similar reports before the election.

Q—Why isn't election day on Saturday, when people have more free time?

A—In 1872 Congress established election day as the Tuesday following the first Monday in November on every even numbered year, unless a state constitution, then in effect, set another day. Maine has its elections on the second Monday in September.

Q—What requirements must a person elected to Congress have to be seated?

A—Four Constitutional requirements must be met by the elected person. He must be 25 or over for the House, 30 or over for the Senate. A representative must have been a U.S. citizen at least seven years; a senator, at least nine years. Both representatives and senators must be inhabitants of the state in which they were chosen. And when sworn in or any time during their tenure they cannot hold office under the United States.

Q—Has Congress ever refused to seat a duly elected person because of his marital status?

A—Yes. In 1900 the House refused to seat Brigham H. Roberts of Utah on the ground that he was a polygamist.

Q—When does the term begin for a congressman who was elected this year?

A—The terms of the newly-elected congressmen begin at noon, Jan. 3, 1955. The terms of members elected to fill unexpired terms is determined by certification of state election boards.

Q—How many states permit voting by absentee ballot?

A—All states except Alabama, Louisiana, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and South Carolina. Even these states permit absentee balloting by servicemen—New Mexico is the only state which has no absentee ballot for men in the armed forces.

Q—What are the "standing" committees of Congress?

A—There are 15 "standing" committees of the Senate, 19 of the House. Special and select committees are often created temporarily or to handle specific problems. In addition, there are more than a score of joint committees and congressional commissions, also devoted to more specific activities. Standing committees handle most of the legislation in Congress; rarely do special or select committees study and report out bills.

Q—At what times do the Senate and House of Representatives meet in joint session?

A—The two Houses meet in joint session for the official count of the Presidential electoral vote, to receive messages delivered in person by the President and to receive distinguished foreign visitors. They meet in joint session to pick up 8 p.m.

Debate Rolling on Atom Plan

France Keeps American Proposal on U. N. Floor; Wait for Russian Move

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—France kept the debate on President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace program rolling in the U. N. Assembly today as delegates studied a new seven-power resolution designed to make the program effective.

The resolution was put into the Assembly hopper over the weekend by the United States and six other countries already negotiating to set up an international atomic energy agency. They are Britain, Canada, Belgium, France, Australia and South Africa.

There was no indication when the Soviet Union would reply to invitations to join the agency, extended by President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and U.N. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. Delegates expect Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister, to demand Red China's inclusion in the list of countries invited to send scientists to an international congress on the peaceful use of atomic energy. The resolution calls for the U. N. to summon the scientific congress before August 1955.

240 Scout Leaders Attend Huge Event

The largest event of its kind, ever held by the Clinton Valley Boy Scout Council, took place this weekend when 240 patrol leaders and adults unit leaders will receive camping instructions at Camp Agawan.

The patrol leaders received training designed to equip the leaders with experience to be carried over to other troop members.

Scouts from the following communities attended the event: Waterford Center, New Baltimore, Green Lake, Mt. Clemens, Utica, Goodinson, Clarkston, Framington, Milford, Ann Arbor, Selfridge Air Force Base, Auburnshire, Pontiac Lake and Pontiac.

Cabbie Resists Thugs, Wins Coat as Reward

BALTIMORE (AP)—Taxicab driver Melvin Benton not only resisted a holdup here last night but he also wound up with a tweed overcoat left by the man who tried to rob him.

Police said Benton reported he yelled and kicked a passenger beside him when the other passenger in the cab seized him from behind.

Both passengers ran. The man who had been in the back seat left his overcoat behind.

Slide Narrows Panama Canal

1-Way Traffic Moving Through Gaillard Cut; Dredges Now at Work

BALBOA, Canal Zone (UP)—A dipper dredge worked this weekend to clear away the approximately 5,000 cubic yards of rock which slid into the Panama Canal at Gaillard Cut and blocked half the channel.

The huge mass of rock and mud tumbled from the north end of Contractors Hill into the vital waterway sometime Thursday night. It was discovered at dawn Friday by an inspection launch.

Authorities could give no estimate on how long it would take to restore Gaillard Cut to its normal width. For the time being, ships moving through the canal must take turns using the one lane left open.

There were no ships nearby at the time of the slide since there is no night transit on the canal at present. Canal officials said the latest slide was "not a direct result" of present operations for removing the crack-torn face of Contractor's Hill which overhangs Gaillard Cut. They attributed it to weathering which broke off a previously fractured slab of rock.

No other lotion or cream, regardless of price, can soften your skin (even extra-dry, rough hands) as quickly and effectively as Aloma Lotion. Your own good common sense tells you that no thin, watery lotion could ever replace natural skin oils that have been removed by weather, detergents or your daily work. This is why we make Aloma so full-bodied and extra-heavy... so extra-rich in lanolin and other skin softening ingredients. That's the reason why Aloma will quickly soften and smooth red, rough hands with real deep-down and lasting benefits.

By JANET ODELL

From the old to the new; from the authentic Pueblo Indian who greeted guests as they entered the tepee to the shining new Pontiac displayed on the front lawn; from the conventional bouquets of yesterday to the stylized arrangements of today—the contrast between the past and the present were evident throughout the flower show held Sunday by Pontiac's oldest and largest greenhouse.

Over 2500 visitors went through the tepee erected over the front entrance. Touring first the greenhouses, where acres of flowers, including some 3000 chrysanthemums were blooming, they filed through the display rooms to admire first one bouquet, then another.

Contrast in age! When one of the designers was on vacation in Greece some time ago, she picked up pieces of an antique urn just unearthed in some archaeological excavation, also some stones from the Acropolis in Athens.

These she mounted on a piece of styrofoam along with two hand-some pieces of modern Greek pottery, a plate and a vase. A modernistic candle and rosebuds in the vase completed the grouping.

Contrast in arrangement. One table was devoted to the type of bouquets popular some forty or fifty years ago. A pyramid of white carnations entwined with pink buds centered the table. On either side plaster Cupids held gold wired hearts and roses. Below were two old-fashioned nosegays of sweet smelling violets.

Pink mallow, white dillies and pink and white ribbons were everywhere. Today's arrangement featured white carnations again, only combined this time with bunches of black grapes, accented with the green of lycopodium and nassy leaves.

Other striking modernistic bouquets featured Snowdrift mums (small shaggy ones) dyed in brilliant hues to match any table scheme.

Contrast in size. Tall urns held a dozen or more mammoth chrysanthemums, some measuring seven inches in diameter. At the other end of the size scale a pottery Madonna vase was filled with philodendron leaves and a few tiny white rosebuds, the whole entitled "Blessed Mother Home Shrine."

Contrast in containers and flower holders. There is no end to the articles one may use to hold flowers. Bright blue ear muffs held a yellow mum as companion to the maize and blue corsage a girl might wear to a Michigan game.

If she were a State fan, she could carry a cane twisted with green ribbon tying on white mums. A striking arrangement without any flowers at all was christened Kon Tiki by your reporter. The designer had built a miniature raft of bamboo, the heavier pieces making the raft itself, the lighter ones the sails. Deep red anthurium leaves and green foliage provided color.

Liberace was there! On gold-dusted styrofoam stood a piano vase filled with pink Bountiful rosebuds. Behind was a picture of the smiling pianist. Two gold washed candles towered to the left.

A pheasant made of hundreds of bronze pompon mums with colored sea oats for wings, a carved wooden head and real pheasant feathers for a tail grace one window.

Hose Demand Attention

The teenager who prefers nylons to kneelength cotton hose or "bobby sox" must be doubly careful in attaining a neat appearance.

The girl who's seen constantly with a run in her stockings is inviting criticism of her grooming reputation.

By taking several smart precautions, you can lengthen the life of your nylons and strengthen them to resist runs and snags.

Before wearing your brand-new nylons, rinse them first. This will help strengthen threads, and rid the stockings of their original "shine."

Using lukewarm water and mild soap flakes, wash your stockings after each wearing. If you allow the grime that's accumulated during the day to remain on your stockings, it will damage the fiber overnight.

Before dunking your stockings in the basin for their nightly tubbing, check your fingernails. Chances are your fingernails may be rough or broken and will cause snags in the washing process.

When drying your nylons, roll them in a towel first. Then, hang them on a towel bar or shower-rod—surfaces that won't cause snagging.

If you're a girl who's especially rough on nylons (always catching them on your school desk) then perhaps mesh stockings are a good choice for a solution.

And, if you have a great deal of trouble keeping your stockings seams straight, then try seamless mesh stockings.

Girl Wants Lad to Know She Cares

He'll Be Convinced by an Affectionate, Approving Attitude

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: How can I show my boy friend that I really care? We've been going steady for six months and lately he has been a little moody."

"Last night I came right out and asked him what was wrong. He said he sometimes wondered if I really liked him or not and that's what was bothering him. We talked it all over and it ended up wonderfully, both promising to try to do better."

"But I'm puzzled and worried, too. Evidently I haven't expressed my feelings effectively enough. I do love him a great deal. What can I do to convince him?"

A girl can't gush and gush every minute of the time. And I think your boy friend would be slightly embarrassed if you were to put on such an act.

But you can specialize in big and little ways of making him feel that you're forever for him and rarely against him. That constant "we are a team" sort of thing.

You like to have him tell you when you look nice. Make a point of compliments to him. His new suit or tie, the way his shoes shine, those broad shoulders of his that seem to carry your load of burdens so easily. Notice when he gets a haircut.

Turn his compliments to you back in the form of compliments to him, his tastes, his likes and dislikes. And since you know them so well, play up to them.

Let him see that you're aware of him whenever he's near. Let your eyes twinkle whenever they meet his. Smile your private smile across the room at him. Hover close for the sake of his companionable noise.

Make a point of functioning as only half of the team. Make no engagements for him without consulting him first. Don't express his opinions for him—cue him into speaking for himself.

Ask his advice and suggestions. In a discussion defer to what he wants to do, where he wants to go.

Instead of a flock of pretty speeches, let your whole attitude show your appreciation for him as a personality, your admiration of him, your thoughtfulness and consideration. Your whole-hearted approval should make him feel a warm glow of confidence in your affection.

Feed him such attentions as a constant diet. And spice it up occasionally with squeals of sheer delight because it's exciting to be with him.

Now and then show awe and wonder over the very mystery of him. And top it off with a gurgle or two over how happy he makes you.

STYLED just for you!

No Profit in Typing Envelopes at Home

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Some weeks ago we told here about the terrible experience of a young mother who had tried typing envelopes at home, who had worked her head off, disrupted her whole household, been forced to run up bigger than average food bills because of having no time to market carefully—and who had almost lost her husband to boot.

We ended up with the strongest warning—typing envelopes at home never, never pays.

Well, listen to what one reader has to say:

"I read your column about how typing envelopes at home is never profitable, but just the same I want to do it. Will you please give me the names of organizations in my town who farm out such home-work?"

The only conclusion I can draw is that this young woman wants to be a martyr, and wants her poor husband to see how very hard she works and how much she suffers.

Because there honestly isn't any profit in such work, unless you are the fastest typist in the world—which she admits she isn't—or unless you can do it for a straight, uninterrupted eight hours a day—which she can't.

And even at that, if you have that kind of energy and that kind of time, you could make at least 10 times as much profit doing just about anything else in the world!

The only way that home typing can be made to pay is if you add something to it.

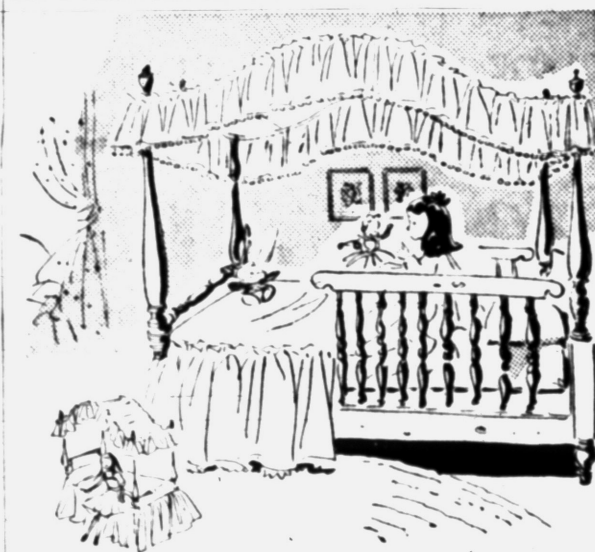

If you are an excellent manuscript typist, capable of reading very difficult handwriting and sloppy copy and putting it into slick, professional shape; or if you are an excellent stenographer, who can take fast dictation and can arrange to go for the material and then deliver it; or if you have some knowledge of another language, and can include some translating or polishing; or if you have training in some special field like engineering or medicine or chemistry, and can understand difficult terminology and make sense out of it—any of these might help in finding this kind of work.

But the poor girl whose typing is low and plodding, and who thinks she can dash off a few envelopes between feeding the baby and waxing the floor, is in for a terrible letdown!

And it is my duty to tell her so, even if she doesn't believe me.

Please Your Little Miss With Roomful of Beauty

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

Anyone who ever wanted to give a little girl the world with a pink ribbon around it isn't satisfied with an ordinary look for her room.

She started in her crib to notice everything pretty, and a pretty room for her is a delight.

Plan ahead for her room now that Christmas is coming. Look for a new paint color or a dainty wallpaper.

Daddy might plan to change the walls himself, and mother may have time to make a bedspread and new curtains. New furniture for her room might be the little girl's big gift.

It can be something she needs, but make it something special. It could be a bed like this, a graceful canopy four-poster in pine that insures safety for her now and is beauty to last.

The bed has guard rails to make it a youth bed, but the rails remove to leave not a trace in later years, and it will be beloved in her teens just as it is now.

Mrs. J. McM. "While I was away for a week, my husband painted our bedroom walls dark blue. This does nothing for our dark mahogany furniture, and with our dull rose spreads and draperies, the room looks dark and gloomy."

"I will change the rose to another color if you will suggest what it should be to make the room lighter and more attractive. The woodwork is white."

Cheerful colors in a wide-spaced pattern on a white background will look good with the dark blue walls, or the pattern might be shades of blue on white.

A lighter effect for the room will also be helped by curtains that let in plenty of light, instead of heavy draperies.

Mrs. C. C. H. "We plan to use bolsters on the beds in our daughter's room, but I am in doubt about what bolster to buy because the beds are placed along the wall to meet at a corner, without leaving room for a corner table. What is your suggestion?"

You may be able to find bolsters to outline the wall, but this must include one shorter bolster for the end of one bed, in addition to the four long ones for the bed lengths.

A single large bolster, perhaps wedge-shaped in the center of each bed could also be used.

Casts Doubt on the Silent Cal Legend

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

A man at dinner the other night told all over again what is probably the most threadbare of the many Calvin Coolidge jokes.

You know it: The former President, returning from church on a Sunday, was asked by Mrs. Coolidge what the sermon was about.

"Sin," answered her husband.

"What did he say about it?" pressed Mrs. Coolidge.

"He's again it," dead-panned the then-President.

It's probably one of the stories that never happened, for I doubt that Mr. Coolidge went in for words like "again" and, anyway, was he really the tight-lipped, silent Cal of legend? My one meeting with him made me wonder—though I have misgivings about trying to tear down a legend that so many people take pleasure in.

The time I'm talking about was 10 days before Calvin Coolidge's death in 1933. He and his wife were at their home in Northampton, Mass., and I went up there on an assignment from a magazine.

Earlier I'd written Mrs. Coolidge asking for an interview and received a polite note refusing. But I decided to take a chance on her changing her mind if I were on the spot. I sent a note from the hotel saying I was in town and would she please see me.

The note had scarcely left my hands when the telephone rang and a friendly voice said: "This is Grace Coolidge. I have your note and I am sending the car to the hotel for you to come right over."

The gracious former First Lady received me in her big, comfortable living room. There was a bright fire burning and she knitted as we talked. I remember she spoke of a trip she and her husband had taken to the Grand Canyon and how excited she'd been by all the beauty.

She answered all my questions and never once referred to the fact that she had told me not to come.

After a while Mr. Coolidge came in. His wife introduced us in simple, friendly fashion, and left the room to see about getting a car to take me to the train. Mr. Coolidge smiled at me and said, "I see that you came up after all."

"Yes, sir," I said. "I did. It was so important to me to talk to Mrs. Coolidge face to face that I took the chance and came."

"Well," he said, "that's the way—that's the way to get things. I'm glad you could come. My wife and I have felt that we didn't want to embarrass the administration at Washington by being in the limelight and so we've made a rule about interviews."

He hesitated a moment. "But I don't know—sometimes I think perhaps we ought to alter that a little, with times so hard for writers."

I said it would be wonderful if they did and I thought to myself that perhaps he had a fellow-feeling since he had turned writer himself after leaving the White House.

By then it was snowing hard outside and I mentioned that there had been a blizzard the week before when I'd been in Washington.

"Maybe you carry them around with you," he suggested with a chuckle.

When I drove off, Mrs. Coolidge was waving and the ex-President was nodding and smiling pleasantly. And that's the way I see the 30th President of the United States every time I hear one of those jokes about laconic Cal.

Daughter Calls Mom Over-Strict

Should Girl Visit Prep School With Boy's Parents?

By EMILY POST

A mother writes me: "My daughter has been invited to a dance at a prep school in another city and the boy's parents are going to drive her there. As the distance is too great for them to return that same night, she is also to be their guest at the hotel."

"I feel that it is wrong for me to let her go with this family, all of whom with the exception of the boy, are strangers to me. My daughter thinks I am being over-strict with her and is making a great fuss because I disapprove of her going."

"Maybe I am being old-fashioned and unfair to her, so will you please give me your opinion."

Answer: If you approve of the boy and know nothing but good of his family, and his mother has invited her to go with them, it would be entirely proper for her to do so.

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening while dining with some friends we met this past summer, the waitress poured a little wine in the host's glass before going around the table to fill the glasses of the guests.

I had never before seen this done and would like to know if this was proper, and, if so, what is the reason for it?

Answer: It is entirely correct and is done so that the host may be sure that the wine is good and not "cracked."

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married in the very near future. I have a very close relative who I had always intended to have as my best man.

However, my fiancée thinks that I should ask her brother to act as my best man. I don't want to start a family feud, but is it not my place to choose my own attendant?

Answer: It is definitely your privilege to choose your own best man just as it is the bride's privilege to choose her maid of honor.

Fairy Tales Are Necessary for Children's Imagination

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Two days after the Christmas I was 8 years old, a lovely thing happened to me—I found a still-unopened gift.

It was a book, and reading it, I came upon one of those sentences that sinks unforgettably into the heart of childhood: "In fact, the fairies had turned Tom into a water baby."

The book, which was "Water Babies," of course, told me this as casually as I had been told that Alice walked through the looking glass, and that Pinocchio's wooden fingers snatched the wig off old Geppetto.

Its author, like the writers of all great children's books, knew that Nature suspends her laws for them as she does for saints.

So when I came upon a juvenile book that treats miracles as commonplace, I rejoice for childhood. Such a book is the just-published "Beyond the Pawpaw Trees" by a young man named Palmer Brown.

It is a lovely book. And I envy the child who will climb up on Anna Lavina's desert mirage to learn the secret of its musical fountain.

Real fairy tales are rare in this world of ours, so anxious to face "reality." We have, I think, some ideas that they are psychologically unwholesome for children. We are scared to encourage wonder in what we believe does not exist—and thus prefer to give them books on the wonders of Hoover Dam and the auto industry.

As a consequence of this refusal to feed children's imagination with imagination, it is starved in many American youngsters.

This, if I may say so, seems psychologically unwholesome. For Susan's imagination, as part of her nature, cannot be denied without making trouble. If it is starved in childhood, it can later become ravenous.

Thus, in the very country that frowns on real fairy tales for youngsters, we have an adolescent population that adores the false kind.

Our teenagers can't gobble up enough of the bad fairy tales told them by second-rate movies, juke boxes and love pulp magazines.

So I'm for magic in the magical age of childhood.

I'm for encouraging that magical age to seek its wonders in cardinals of talking flowers, in the brownie who lives with the mole in the garden, in the empty chrysalis swaying from the bush at the kitchen window, or in the wondrous adventures little Anna found out past the grove of pawpaws.

Long Time Favorite Is Still Good

Mrs. James Brown Makes Custard Pie as Grandma Did

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor

An old-fashioned favorite, still popular today, is custard pie. Mrs. James Brown gives us a recipe for this delicacy which she calls Grandmother's Pie.

Mrs. Brown is a transplanted southerner. With two children in school, much of her "free" time is spent taking her son to music rehearsals, or helping with a Campfire group to which her daughter belongs. Active in PTA at Hawthorne school, she is also a room mother there this year.

GRANDMOTHER'S PIE

By Mrs. James Brown

3 eggs or 4 yolks

1/2 cup sugar

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon butter

2/3 cups milk, scalded

Beat eggs slightly. Add dry ingredients, then scalded milk. Scalding the milk prevents separation of the custard. Pour into a prepared pie shell (uncooked). Bake 15 minutes at 450 degrees. Reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake 30 minutes longer, or until a silver-knife inserted in the custard comes out clean. This is enough filling for a 9-inch pie crust.

A new alfalfa variety called Lanthan is said to be practically immune to injury from the stem nematode.

Popularity of Leather Prevalent

The popularity of leather is such that you see it everywhere this season. Simulated leather (vinyl plastic) not only looks like real leather, but is a fine substitute for the girl who must count pennies. Just a few whisks with a sudsy, soapy cloth is all that is needed to keep leather-like items in top-notch condition.

Most women will delight in slim skirts and matching vests of simulated leather. These separates look smart when teamed with long-sleeved, striped, cotton blouses.

The classic white shirt takes on a smarter look when trimmed with matching leather collar and cuffs in sparkling fall colors—turquoise, copper, bright blue and tangerine.

Simulated capeskin blazers are expected to become very popular with the teenage crowd. An especially smart blazer is the white jacket, piped with red or black, with a colorful crest on the pocket.

Some of these new jackets feature high-standing collars and substitute huge buckles instead of buttons.

Because of their fine washability, simulated leathers are ideal for junior's rough-and-ready wardrobe. Coats and jackets for the small-fry set are lined with milium to keep junior warm in cold weather. These interlinings also help to insure the shapeliness and fit of these coats.

The budget-minded mother will save by noticing that simulated leather makes good, firm, elbow-and-knee patches for junior's cloth jackets and dungarees.

Admiring the aprons which will be on display Thursday evening at the Grace Lutheran Church annual bazaar and roast beef dinner are (left to right) Mrs. Otto Mielke of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Emery Mitchell of Baldwin road, Mrs. Fred Rath of Mt. Clemens street and Mrs. Max Schroeder of Dwight street. The public is invited to the affair which will be held from 5 until 7 p.m.

Award Film Scheduled

An all Academy-Award winning program has been selected as the next presentation by the Film Society at Will-O-Way Playhouse in Bloomfield Hills.

John Ford, three-time Academy Award winner, is director of "The Grapes of Wrath" starring Henry Fonda, Jane Darwell (in her Academy Award role), Charles Grapevin and John Carradine. Based on the best-selling world famous novel by John Steinbeck, the story tells of the plight of the "Okies" during the early days of the great depression.

The production, which brought fame to Darryl F. Zanuck and the Twentieth Century-Fox Studios as producers of one of the first social documentary dramas, won the citation from Life Magazine of "Earning a badge of honor for the U. S. Motion Picture Industry."

"Grapes of Wrath" will share the bill with a Charlie Chaplin Comedy Short, "The Face on the Barroom Floor," and will be shown one night only, Friday at 8:40 p.m.

On Saturday, Frank Capra's comedy production which was honored with five Academy Awards, "It Happened One Night" will be presented.

Starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert, this is the picture that skyrocketed the two stars to success. It tells the story of how a reporter goes about looking for a missing heiress. The exceedingly funny cross-country trek brings over 100 minutes of outstanding comedy-romance.

Released in 1934, "It Happened One Night" is now recognized as one of the great examples of screen comedy. The one night only performance starts at 8:40 p.m., Saturday. All seats for the performance are reserved.

The U. S. Army announced today that they are seeking recruits to fill the ranks of the 10th Infantry Division of Fort Riley, Kan., which is slated for overseas shipment next summer.

An intensive campaign to bring the division to full strength will take place between now and July when the unit heads for European assignment.

The Army announced that tours of scenic and historic attractions in Europe will be available to division personnel. Details may be obtained at the nearest Army Recruiting Sub-station, which in Pontiac, is in the Post Office Bldg.

British Industrialists Seek More Trade With China

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
British industrialists are about to make their biggest bid to date to increase their trade with Communist China.

A 33-man delegation is to leave for Peiping this week to study the possibilities of increasing exports to and imports from the "People's Republic."

The delegation represents more than 100 companies which cover a wide field of British industry.

In its negotiations, the delegation will be bound by the British government's commitments against the export of strategically valuable goods to Red China.

But the mission has the blessing of the Foreign Office and the Board of Trade, which in Britain is a government department.

There seems to be a strong feeling in both industry and the government that British-Chinese trade can be increased materially without violating the strategic goods ban.

The present mission stems from last summer's conference in Geneva which brought the end of the war in Indochina. Negotiations were conducted there between representatives of British industry and members of the Chinese Red delegation.

The Peiping government has said that it is interested in getting both machinery of all sorts and consumer goods. It gives priority to any supplies which will help it in its ambitious five-year plan of industrialization.

Communist China now conducts nearly 75 per cent of its foreign trade with the Soviet Russian Bloc. But there are indications that the Russians have given the Chinese little beyond military supplies and only a small quantity of raw materials and machinery.

British exports to Red China are now running at the rate of about $19,500,000 a year. Exports from China are at the rate of about $23,500,000. This, of course is a mere trickle.

The British delegates will know, when they arrive in Peiping, what they can supply the Chinese Reds.

What they have to find out is what the Peiping regime can send to Britain to pay for the things it wants.

Many British experts are pessimistic over trade possibilities. They hold that the Reds have little with which they could balance a big flow of trade.

Chinese Communist authorities are reported to have hinted that they would want credit arrangements in any big trade deal. There is no disposition in London to grant any extensive credits to a regime like that in Peiping.

Hence there is little excitement over the possibility of a dramatic increase in British-Chinese trade. But British traders are trying to establish a basis for the future.

Teddy Roosevelt was said to have clocked a lion which traveled 100 yards in 3 seconds.

U. S. Maestro Wins Gift for Norwegian Orchestra

TRONDHEIM, Norway, (AP) — A wealthy Trondheim citizen has donated 15,000 kroner (about $2,100) to the Trondheim Symphony Orchestra as a token of his admiration for American Negro conductor Dean Dixon.

Julius Holm, general manager of a Trondheim business firm, said he gave the money to express his gratitude for the concerts the orchestra has been giving recently under Dixon's baton.

Americans, at one time or another, have won Nobel prizes in all award categories — physics, chemistry, medicine and physiology, literature, and peace.

JUNIOR EDITORS

A TRIP TO THE ZOO—4

Here is a sea lion for your Junior Editors zoo. Sea lions—also called seals—are intelligent and easily trained. They are sociable and playful and are fast and graceful swimmers. Make a pool and a seal this way:

1. With water colors or crayons, color the objects in today's picture. Make the seals brown, and the balls blue and yellow. Cut out the square and paste it smoothly on stiff paper. Press under books until dry.
2. To make the pool, use a shallow cake pan or metal candy box. Put a flat-topped stone in the middle and fill the pan with water.
3. Cut out all the parts of the picture. Paste both sides of the seal together, leaving unpasted the flippers and the tail, paste the two balls together, but leave a small opening at one side.
4. When the paste is dry, place the seal on top of the rock. Spread its flippers and tail so it stands as shown in the small drawing in today's picture. Make the seal bounce the ball by spreading the ball over the tip of the nose.

Tyrone Power, Partner Buy Spiritual Story

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Tyrone Power, rehearsing in Connecticut with Katharine Cornell for "The Dark Is Light Enough," took time off to talk to John Ford about Bruce Marshall's book, "The World, The Flesh and Father Smith."

When Ty and John were at 20th they both wanted to make this spiritual story and they vowed that whenever they left the studio they would do it. Now Ted Richmond, Ty's partner, has bought it for $50,000.

Ty is living in Raymond Massey's apartment in New York, and Linda Christian is with Fontana at the Plaza. She's auditioning for the road company of "Oh Men, Oh Women" and arranging TV appearances.

Broadway producer Max Gordon gets here tomorrow to discuss several offers for "Solid Gold Cadillac," by George Kaufman and Howard Teichmann. 20th wants it for Marilyn Monroe and Columbia for Judy Holliday.

The character that Josephine Hull was so wonderful in on the stage will be a much younger woman and, of course, the love interest at the end of the play will be changed. This ending will not hurt the play and, after all, where would you find another actress the age of Josephine to be as good as she is?

Oh, I forgot to say that Hal Wallis is considering it for Shirley Booth, who wouldn't be bad, you'll admit.

At this very moment Jose Ferrer is in Spain arranging to film "Matador," the Barnaby Conrad story in which Ferrer will star and also produce.

No, he's not staying there long because he has scenes to finish in "The Shrike."

Rosemary Clooney, who is expecting her baby in January, went as far as New York with her traveling husband.

Jose receives $200,000 and a third of the profits from Harold Mirlach and the group who are producing this exciting novel. Audrey Hepburn will be his co-star.

Of all the new George Gobel fans, none is wilder in her admiration than Barbara Stanwyck who has never met the little man.

But the other morning, Barbara heard that Gobel was on the RKO lot making a March of Dimes trailer. What does missy do but get permission to leave "Escape to Burma" set, his herself over to Gobel's set and throw her arms around him and kiss him. "You I Love," she said.

Barbara was so surprised by her own antics she nearly fainted — and Gobel nearly fainted beside her.

My favorite neighbors, George Burns and Gracie Allen, celebrate 20 years of living in California, most of it spent in their big white house on Maple drive, and today,

Gracie is planning an unusual way of celebrating the anniversary. "When George and I came here, naturally we had to have a swimming pool like the other actors. I insisted on it. For 20 years I've been looking at that pool, sitting by it and walking around it. I've never been in it."

"I think our 20th anniversary as Southern Californians calls for something drastic—I'm gonna dunk in that pool, at last!"

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Everyone is so sorry Mercedes McCambridge (Mrs. Fletcher Markel) has lost her baby. This is the second time this tragedy has happened to Mercedes.

No one will be surprised if Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher make it a December wedding instead of June.

Dolores Gray and Milton Rackmil have been seeing each other again and when Milt went east he left his car with Dolores.

Vera Ellen will be back in town for her fiancé Victor Rothschild's birthday Nov. 11. They are talking about an earlier marriage date.

Orson Welles is in the American Hospital just outside Paris to undergo a series of exhausting tests. Too much weight, his doctors say.

At the opening of "The Barefoot Contessa," Lauren Bacall applauded louder than anyone for her boy friend Bogey. He was unable to attend the first night because he had to get up early for work.

Kramer Shines as Illini Bows in Bitter Scrap

Brilliant Soph End Is Top Figure in 14-7 Ann Arbor Victory

By JACK SAYLOR

ANN ARBOR—To grizzled old-time University of Michigan football fans it probably seems like rank heresy to speak of any end in the same breath with Bennie Oosterbaan, 3-time All-American from 1925-27.

Yet that's what is happening around this gridiron bastion because of the play of big Ron Kramer, Wolverines' brilliant sophomore wingman from East Detroit. The 6-3, 215-pounder has been a standout all season and he was the dominant figure Saturday as Michigan downed Illinois, 14-7, before 58,812 spectators.

Michigan's victory ended a 4-year string of wins for the Illini and kept alive Rose Bowl hopes for the Wolverines. UM holds 2nd place alone in the Big 10 behind unbeaten Ohio State.

Michigan faces MSC and Ohio State has a tough test in Purdue before what would be the climactic game at Columbus, Nov. 20.

All-American selectors are hesitant to name sophomores, but Kramer is building a strong case week by week. He has caught 18 passes for 227 yards and leads Michigan scorers. He handles kick-off duties, has punted 12 times for an excellent 41-yard average and has booted 10 straight extra points. His defensive work is superb.

In Saturday's triumph, Kramer averaged 38 yards on 4 punts, booted 2 conversions, blocked an Illini punt, and along with Art Walker was a defensive giant. He caught 2 passes for 39 yards, including a circus catch up Danny Cline's toss to set up UM's winning score.

Illinois scored in the 1st 10 minutes to take a 7-0 lead. A pair of soph halves, Harry Jefferson and Abe Woodson, alternated in cross-backing the UM tackles to spark a 72-yard scoring march.

Woodson tallied from the 6 and Bob Willman converted.

Michigan came right back with a 70-yard drive of its own. Lou Baldacci did the heavy work and passes from Jim Maddock to Baldacci and Terry Barr helped move the ball to the Illini 21. Baldacci burst over on the 1st play of the 2nd quarter.

After adding the point, Kramer broke through to block Woodson's punt, which Oxford's Ed Meads recovered on the Illinois 15. Michigan failed to score, however, as Kramer stepped over the scrimmage line on an end-around pass play.

Michigan let another opportunity slip by as an Illini gamble on 4th down failed at their own 40. With 2½ minutes left in the half, UM was on its own 11-yard line. Fred Baer made 3, Cline added 12 and Ed Shannon 5 before Cline raced 23 yards to the Illini 46.

Then came Kramer's spectacular catch of Cline's pass at the 21. Cline faded to his left and threw "cross country" to Maddock for the TD with 30 seconds remaining.

Illinois dominated the 3rd quarter, but Michigan held twice at its 17. Tom Maentz recovered Jefferson's fumble to halt another Illini threat in the 4th quarter. Michigan moved to the Illinois 11 as the game ended, but settled for the 14-7 advantage.

Jefferson, subbing for injured J. C. Caroline, was the top ground gainer with 92 yards. Woodson had 68. Cline netted 70 and Baldacci 58 for UM. Caroline made only a brief appearance in the 3rd quarter.

Ho-Hum, Sooners Near Big Seven Grid Crown Again

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Missouri's unpredictable Tigers stick their collective necks into the Sooners football wonderland Saturday in a game expected to move Oklahoma within one game of its seventh straight undisputed Big Seven championship.

The game at Norman should kill Missouri's last mathematical chance of playing in the Orange Bowl. The Tigers would have to beat Oklahoma, something no Big Seven team has been able to do since Bud Wilkinson became head

SPARTANS' 1ST TALLY—John Matsok, Michigan State quarterback, breaks into the end zone for Michigan State's 1st score on Saturday, in the Spartans' 54-6 win over Washington State. Matsok carried around his left end, cut to his right into the end zone, the play covering 16 yards. MSC player besides Matsok in the picture is Randy Schreengost (76), who was injured on the play. Making a futile try to stop Matsok was Washington State's Bob Iverson (20). Other Cougars are Vaughan Hitchcock (63), Duke Washington (22) and Jim Welch (67).

Leaders in Both Divisions of NFL Collide Sunday

By ORLO ROBERTSON
The Associated Press

Commissioner Bert Bell couldn't have done a better job if he had waited until today to make up next Sunday's National Football League schedule.

The New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles are tied for the Eastern Division lead, each with 5-2 records. They meet Sunday at New York's Polo Grounds.

The champion Detroit Lions lead the second-place San Francisco 49ers by a game in the won-lost column. They will clash Sunday at Detroit with the Lions seeking to square accounts for the season. The champions' only setback was a 37-31 beating by the 49ers at Frisco. They have won five. The 49ers are 4-2 with one tie.

The two naturals were setup over the weekend when the Giants dumped the Pittsburgh Steelers out of a three-way tie for the top spot in the Eastern division 30-6. The Eagles downed the Chicago Cardinals 30-14, the Lions rode roughshod over the Baltimore Colts 27-3 and the 49ers dropped a 42-34 decision to the Los Angeles Rams.

At the same time the Cleveland Browns, who with the Lions have played one less game than the remainder of the clubs, kept right at the leaders' heels with a 62-3 romp over the Washington Redskins. The victory left the Browns, defending Eastern champions, with a 4-2 mark. The Chicago Bears edged the Green Bay Packers 28-23 in the other game.

The ease with which the Giants knocked off the Steelers came as the big surprise of the day although the Rams' win over the 49ers was not what the experts expected. They had tied 24-24 earlier in the season.

The 49ers missed the injured McElhenny yesterday for they slowed down noticeably after scoring 17 points in the first period. Three was the magic number for Norm Van Brocklin as the Rams came from a 17-7 first quarter deficit to beat San Francisco. Van Brocklin tossed three aeriels for six-pointers and set up the other three with his aeriels.

George Ratterman, subbing for Otto Graham, connected with 10 of 11 passes, three of them for touchdowns, as the Browns sent seven different players across the goal line. Darrell Brewster tallied twice.

The Bears took a 14-point lead over Green Bay in the first half but then had to come from behind in the last three minutes with George Blanda connecting on five successive passes for the winning touchdown.

Trail Kazoo, Midland in Saturday Cross-Country Test at Ypsi

Pontiac High's cross country squad finished among the top four teams for the 5th time in eight years Saturday at the state meet at Ypsilanti's Michigan State Normal College course.

Chiefs, led by junior Bill Douglas and sophomore Perry Williams, placed 3rd with 128 points. Kalamazoo Central won the Class A event with 88 points, followed by Midland with 103.

Douglas was the top PHS runner, finishing 9th, while Williams was 11th. Other Pontiac entries were junior Rod Treals, 24th, junior Eugene Cretal, 37th, Norris Jackson, 47th, and Fred Cox, 80th.

Trailing Pontiac in the point standings were Jackson 135, Lincoln Park 199, Birmingham 201, Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills 241, Lansing Eastern 260, Lansing Sexton 269 and Grand Rapids Union 279.

River Rouge won the Class B title, with Wallied Lake finishing 4th. Class C-D honors went to Spring Arbor.

Touchdowns: UM—Baldacci, Maddock; Ill—Woodson.

Hasseyampa, Hasty Road to Meet at Pimlico

BALTIMORE (AP)—Barring injuries or ailments, the horses that finished first and third in the Preakness last spring will tangle at Pimlico again Nov. 20 in the $50,000 Pimlico Special.

Hasseyampa, the show horse in the Preakness, became a definite starter yesterday when the Maryland Jockey Club announced his owner, R. W. McIlvain of Walmac Farm, had accepted the invitation.

A bid extended to the Preakness winner, Hasty House Farm's Hasty Road, was accepted earlier.

Hasseyampa's entry raises the field for the mile and 3-16 Special, limited this year to three-year-olds to six. Others include C. V. Whitney's Fisherman, Foxcatcher Farms' Chevalon and Parlo, Mrs. Gordon McMacken's Canadian-bred King Maple, and Hasty Road.

Victory-Hungry State Crushes Wash. State

Duffy's Club Piles Up Biggest Total of '54 in 54-6 Victory

By BILL MARTIN

EAST LANSING — "Have the Spartans finally found themselves?"

That question was uppermost in the minds of many of the 45,849 fans in Macklin Field Stadium Saturday as Michigan State's victory-hungry team routed Washington State, 54-6.

Although Coach Duffy Daugherty pointed out after the game that the Spartans still "made some mistakes," their performance against the admittedly weak Pacific Coast Conference squad left very little to be desired. Seldom, even in the days of MSC's 1950-'53 gridiron juggernauts, has Michigan State so completely outclassed an opponent.

Michigan State's 54-point total was the 2nd highest ever scored against Washington State. A 61-0 trouncing by California in 1922 still stands as the record total.

More good news for MSC fans, looking ahead to this Saturday's annual clash with Michigan at Ann Arbor, was the brilliant return to form of halfback LeRoy Bolden. The diminutive Flint speedster, plagued by injuries all season, looked like the Bolden of old as he piled up 109 yards in eight carries. In previous games, he collected only 127 yards in 44 tries.

Daugherty used 53 of his 57 players Saturday, and 11 of them contributed to the scoring. Bolden, Johnny Matsok, Bert Zagers, Travis Buggs, John Lewis, Vic Postula, Gerald Musetti and Al Frasca scored touchdowns, and Gerald Planutis, Earl Morral, Gary Lowe and Musetti added conversions. Spartans' other two points came on a 3rd-period safety.

Matsok posted Michigan State's 1st score at 2:08 of the opening period, going over from the 16 after recovering a Washington State fumble on the 32.

Spartans went for touchdowns three of the four times they had the ball in the following period. Zagers went the final 18 yards in an 80-yard march. Buggs circled left end for 10 yards and another TD and a Morral-to-Lewis pass that covered 40 yards accounted for a 3rd.

Cougars scored their lone tally late in the period, moving 40 yards in 10 plays. Halfback Jim Hagerty took a 6-yard heave from quarterback Bob Iverson and dived five yards into the end zone.

Daugherty began using reserves midway through the 3rd quarter after Bolden scampered for another marker, but the eager subs came through with three more touchdowns to complete the rout.

Orchard Lake St. Mary clinched at least a 3rd-place finish in the Suburban Catholic League yesterday by trouncing Ferndale St. James, 27-7.

Guard Dan Lazowski and end Tom Kalasz were offensive standouts for the Eaglets. Lazowski pulled out of the line to take a handoff and bull five yards for one touchdown and picked up a loose fumble to race 45 yards for another.

Kalasz scored once on a pass from Paul Szankowski that covered 63 yards and kicked three extra points. He set up another tally, taking a heave from Szankowski and then lateraling to Bill Blaskovich for the TD.

St. Clement handed St. Rita, undefeated in six previous SCL starts, a 24-0 trouncing to keep alive hopes for a share of the title. Royal Oak St. Mary downed St. Benedict, 6-0.

Arkansas First SMU Has Rough Road to Title in SW Loop

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist can compile one of the best football records in the nation by beating on consecutive weekends—Arkansas, Baylor, Texas Christian and Notre Dame.

It makes Coach Woody Woodard wince to think about it. In fact, he said he refused to think about it. "We're thinking only of Arkansas," he declared. "If I included those other teams I'd pick up my bats and go home."

He wonders if any team ever faced a tougher row in the final four weeks of a campaign.

SMU, which wasn't rated very highly before the season started, can gain a strong leg on the Southwest Conference championship Saturday if it downs Arkansas. Then, SMU would be leading the race by a half-game and could win the title by winning over Baylor and TCU.

"My boys will be ready to play a football game Saturday," he said grimly. "They'll have to be, too, because Arkansas has a great team. I thought at first, part of its success came from being fortunate in some things but I know now it's only because it has a real football team."

Red McClain, the SMU scout who saw Arkansas roll to its seventh straight victory, beating Rice 28-15 last week, brought back word that Arkansas had everything.

Lindsay Fires 'Big' Goal in Win Over NY

Ted Registers 250th Lifetime Marker for 1-0 Triumph

DETROIT (AP)—After 11 years in the big time, Capt. Ted Lindsay of the Detroit Red Wings can still come up with the "Big" goal.

The fiery left winger rifled his 250th lifetime goal last night—and it carried the Red Wings to a 1-0 victory over the New York Rangers.

It was an important victory for the Red Wings, keeping them two points behind the Montreal Canadiens in the battle for 1st place in the National Hockey League.

It was fortunate for the Wings that Lindsay found the range. For after he scored after only 2:33 of play, Red Wings were frustrated by New York's goalie, little Lorne (Gump) Worsley, who turned in a magnificent performance while stopping 46 shots.

Worsley's one-man show was one of the finest seen on Olympia stadium ice in many a game. But he couldn't handle Lindsay's hot 15-foot drive in the opening minutes.

Due to the injury to Gordie Howe, Lindsay was skating on a makeshift line along with Alex Delvecchio and Vic Stasiuk. Both these players performed perfectly in setting up Lindsay's goal—his 5th of this season.

Stasiuk fed a pass up to Delvecchio, who skated into New York territory. Spotting Lindsay breezing across the blue line, Delvecchio fed him a pass and Lindsay never lost a stride while shooting the puck into the twins.

It was the 2nd time in three games that Lindsay took up the scoring slack left by the absence of Howe, who is sidelined with a shoulder injury. Last Thursday in Boston Lindsay also scored the winning goal in a 3-2 win over the Bruins.

Richard's Goal Beats Bruin 6

Rocket's Marker Nets 4-3 Edge for Montreal Canadiens

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Old Maurice (Rocket) Richard, now well into his 13th season with the Montreal Canadiens, still is one of the finest stick handlers in the National Hockey League. He can still get the important goals.

The Rocket scored a big one last night when the Canadiens stopped the Boston Bruins 4-3. He skated in from the Boston blue line at 10:52 of the final session to beat Jim Henry and give his club a 2-goal margin. It was the big goal because the Bruins' Milt Schmidt, another old-timer, sent the puck home at 14:10 to close the gap.

So the Canadiens still hold a two-point lead on the defending champion Detroit Red Wings. In game, the Toronto Maple Leafs outlasted the Chicago Black Hawks 2-1 in a rough game.

West German Riders, Horses Outshine American and Mexican Entries at National Horse Show

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—To Americans who think of Germany as a divided country still trying to pull itself together after World War II it comes as a surprise to find a West German team sweeping the honors at the National Horse Show.

The German riders are superb and their German-bred horses are overshadowing the American and Mexican mounts among others.

Hans Winkler, the world champion from Warendorf in the province of Westphalia, has been dominating the international competition with his horse, Halia. The nine-year-old brown mare has a harness horse background on one side of the family tree but she has been vaulting over the Madison Square Garden hurdles with the greatest of ease.

Like the other members of the German team, Mrs. Helga Kohler and Fritz Tiedemann, Winkler has been riding since he was old enough to walk. Only 28, he won the world title at Madrid this year, his second season of international competition.

Mrs. Kohler's father, a practical doctor at Verden, a city near Hannover, owns the horse she rides most of the time. The horse is an 11-year-old chestnut gelding, named Armalva.

Like any woman would be, Mrs. Kohler was most interested in shopping when she finished her two-day routine at the horse show.

"All those lights, those big cars and the tall buildings. They are so different," she marveled. The blue-eyed blonde has a three-year-old daughter back in Germany but the daughter will have to wait until her mother competes in the Toronto show after the completion of the nationals before she sees her again.

Tiedemann, 36, has been called "best rider in the show" by Gen. Humberto Morales of the Mexicans who exempted his own team from his rankings.

Colgate and Syracuse are meeting for the 55th time in the oldest traditional rivalry for both teams, who are keyed high for the game.

Syracuse receives the kickoff and blasts back to its own 28-yard line. On the 1st play from scrimmage, the Syracuse left half fumbles a wobbly pitchout and covers the ball on his own 16 for a 15-yard loss. The ball is on his own right hash mark, 15 yards from the sideline.

With 2nd down and 22, the Syracuse quarterback calls a play that his coach thinks is very smart football. As the Syracuse quarter, rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 for this spot, with the Orangemen using the wing-T formation (T-formation with one half set a yard outside his end):

Handoff into the line
Deep reverse to open side of field
Punt
Flat pass to open side of field (pass thrown shallow)

AL Expected to OK A's Shift to Kaycee Today

NEW YORK, (AP)—Despite opposition from Detroit and Washington, the American League was expected to approve the transfer of the Philadelphia franchise to Kansas City today at a special meeting here to club owners and executives.

Cleveland held the ace card and as late as this morning, both factions were trying to win the Indians over. Six votes are needed to complete the transfer. New York, Baltimore, Chicago, Boston and, of course, Philadelphia, favor the move. Detroit and Washington are against it.

League officials are scheduled to go into session at 10:30 a.m. EST.

So as Cleveland votes, so goes the verdict. The Indians, however, voted for the original plan to move the A's to Kansas City last month. That was before the league turned down the purchase of the franchise by an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate.

General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Indians said his club would not make up its mind until the last moment.

"We want to sit down and talk over what's best for the league," he said. "Only then will we make up our minds."

Possibly the one point that would sway the Indians to the "approval" group was the endorsement of Arnold Johnson, the would be purchaser, by Commissioner Ford Frick. President Clark Griffith of Washington objected to Johnson owning both the A's and the Yankee Stadium.

"I don't see anything wrong with Johnson retaining ownership of the Yankee Stadium and leasing it to the Yankees," said Frick. "Of course, he can have nothing to do with the Yankees and the lease must be passed by the American League and the commissioner's office.

"There are other conditions which will have to be met and Mr. Harridge (American League President William Harridge) and I have discussed them and are in perfect agreement. It's just the same as Connie Mack renting his ball park to the Phillies and to the Philadelphia Eagles for football."

While Griffith did not say so publicly, it is known that if the A's are moved to Kansas City, Baltimore would become an Eastern team like Washington. The two then would be in direct competition in the matter of home dates, radio and television.

Detroit is against the move for two reasons:

1. President Spike Briggs doesn't think Kansas City is ready for a major league team.
2. He's against anything the Yankees are for because he feels they are running the American League.

Actually two votes will be taken, the first will be on the sale of the stock to Johnson and the second on the transfer of the club. Johnson says he already has purchased the controlling stock held by Connie Mack and has an agreement to buy that of Earl and Roy Mack.

Edmonton Team Flouting Jinx in WIFU Final

Eskimos Hope Modern History Won't Repeat Itself

By The Associated Press

The Edmonton Eskimos are flouting a jinx in the Western Interprovincial Football Union final.

They defeated Winnipeg Blue Bombers 9-3 in the opener in Edmonton of the best-of-3 championship series Saturday night and now they can only hope that modern history doesn't repeat itself and knock them out of the Grey Cup picture.

Two years ago the Bombers met the Saskatchewan Roughriders in the WIFU finals. The Bombers took the first game, lost the next two and the Riders traveled to Toronto for the cup classic. A year ago it was the Bombers and the Eskimos. Edmonton took the first game and dropped the next two.

The Eskimos didn't impress the record crowd of 19,817 at Clarke Stadium Saturday night. They held a slim 3-0 lead going into the fourth quarter, had it matched in the final 15 minutes and staged their only concerted drive of the game to score a converted touchdown for the decision.

The Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders, both out of the playoff picture, played bruising ball all the way at Toronto before the Argonauts pulled out an 18-12 decision. At Montreal, the Alts and Hamilton Tiger-Cats put on a no-holds-barred Big Four playoff review and a two-touchdown final quarter drive gave the Alts a 19-15 victory.

CASE—Angling to Right

The bane of the bowlers' existence is the No. 10 pin formation. And experts disagree on what type of delivery should be used to make the 10—hook, straight, or backup (reverse) ball, shown in the sketch.

Actually, any one of the three methods serves the purpose. It's up to the individual. I have always used the backup, and a good many top stars employ the reverse. But just as many shoot a hook.

Important in negotiating right-hand spares (3, 6, 9, and 10 pins) is that you stand on the left side of the alley (left of center). It's strictly to left-to-right angle shooting. Type of delivery? Practice must determine that.

Touted Utah Boxer, Gene Fullmer, Makes TV Debut

By MURRAY ROSE

The Associated Press

Gene (Cyclone) Fullmer, highly touted and unbeaten Utah middleweight prospect, makes his Eastern and network television debut tonight and he couldn't have picked a better time.

This is a very light week for the beak-busting sport and 23-year-old Fullmer will get plenty of attention when he takes on muscular Jackie LaBua of New York at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena (ABC-TV, 10 p.m., EST).

The West Jordan youngster, an Army veteran of the Korean campaign, has won all 24 of his pro fights, 19 by knockouts. Twelve of his kayos have been racked up in the first round.

Cuba's Orlando Zulueta, stung by his recent upset loss to Richie (Kid) Howard which dropped him to fifth in the lightweight rankings, hopes to take it out on Kenny Lane at New York's St. Nicholas Arena tonight (Dumont-TV, 10 p.m., EST). Zulueta has a 51-20-9 record. Lane, from Muskegon, Mich., has a 22-3 record.

Hector Constance, the Trinidad welterweight who looked real good in beating Chico Varona in September, meets rugged Ralph (Tiger) Jones at New York's Madison Square Garden Friday night (NBC radio-TV, 10 p.m., EST).

DeMarco Sets Saxton as Goal

Hopes TV Match in December Will Lead to Title Shot

BOSTON (AP)—Tony DeMarco, working on a string of 15 straight victories and boasting a terrific knockdown wallop, is setting his immediate sights on a Dec. 11 television date with hopes of an eventual match with welterweight champion Johnny Saxton.

Tony, the Boston Bomber, needed just one minute and six seconds and three knockdowns to score a technical knockout over Syracuse's hard-hitting Pat Manzi before a national television audience Saturday night.

Talk had been of a Vince Martinez match for Tony which may or may not be next on the program now that DeMarco made such an impressive showing.

When the Detroit Lions defeated the Baltimore Colts 35-0 this season it was the Lions' first shutout since 1945. The victims were the Chicago Cardinals.

Magic Number Is Three for NFL Passers

NEW YORK (AP)—Three was the magic number for quarterbacks in the National Football League games yesterday.

Four of the league's aerial artists each tossed three touchdown passes. They were New York's Charlie Conerly, Philadelphia's Bobby Thomson, Los Angeles' Norm Van Brocklin and George Ratterman, Cleveland's second string signal caller.

Van Brocklin made the figure three stand out even more prominently by setting up three more touchdowns with passes as he completed 16 of 18 during the Rams' 42-34 victory over San Francisco.

Arkansas 'Cinderella' of College Football

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

Whatever happens in the fading weeks of the season, the University of Arkansas will go down in the books as the "Cinderella Team" of 1954.

Ignored in pre-season forecasts, the Razorbacks today rode their lofty perch atop the tough Southwest Conference and needed only one more victory to wrap up their first crown in 18 years.

In September, the talk was all

Texas, Rice and Baylor. Bowden Wyatt and his young team were regarded as being a year away from anything even resembling success. Texas, in fact, was tabbed as the most overwhelming favorite in 40 years to win the conference championship.

When Arkansas whipped Texas in its fourth game of the season, the Razorbacks tabbed themselves as definite title threats. Now they need nothing more than a tie against Southern Methodist, itself a surprise power, this week to win the championship. The Porkers beat Rice 28-15 Saturday.

For the other powers among the unbeaten, the road is becoming easier, although not completely clear. UCLA, the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, has only one more game to play. That is against Southern California in two weeks. The Trojans, although Rose Bowl bound, hardly are in UCLA's class.

Ohio State, which emerged from the Big Ten scramble as the logical Rose Bowl candidate, boasts a 6-0 record and still plays Purdue and Michigan. Both teams have been in-and-outers all season.

Oklahoma, it appears, never will lose again. The Sooners go on and on, sometimes looking good and sometimes seeming to lose interest. They slugged Iowa State 40-0 Saturday and now have to skip over Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma A. & M.

Cincinnati is the fifth all-conquering team, having run up an 8-0 record. But the Bearcats are in the gravest danger of all. They play once-beaten Wichita this week and Miami of Ohio the following Saturday. Miami scored a major upset Saturday by edging Indiana 6-0.

The major powers are thinking in terms of bowl bids and the next week or two will tell the story. Right now, Southern California (because UCLA is ineligible, having played last Jan. 1.) has clinched a Rose Bowl berth, with Ohio State a likely opponent.

If Arkansas wins the Southwest Conference and goes to the Cotton Bowl, the invited club might be Mississippi, currently boasting a 6-1 record. Georgia could wind up the host team in the Sugar Bowl, although it still must meet Auburn and Georgia Tech. The visiting squad probably will be the runner-up in the Southwest Conference.

The winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference goes to the Orange Bowl. Right now Duke is leading, but Maryland has been getting more impressive each outing for the past two weeks.

Nebraska, which should finish operations behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven, is in line for the trip to Florida. The Sooners are ineligible because they played there last New Year's.

Grissom Denies Assault Charge

Jockey Agent Claims
Detroit Struck Him
With Binoculars

DETROIT (AP) — T. A. Grissom, Detroit automobile dealer and race horse owner, said last night reports that he hit a jockey agent over the head with a pair of heavy binoculars Saturday at Churchill Downs was not true.

Louisville police, attempting to serve a warrant on Grissom, missed him by 10 minutes at the Louisville airport, where Grissom boarded a plane for Detroit Saturday.

Police said Gilbert Hardy, a Lexington, Ind., jockey agent, charged that Grissom hit him during the races. Six stitches were required to close the wound.

Police said Hardy told them he did not know why Grissom hit him. Grissom refused further comment.

He had three horses entered in Saturday's races. One won but the other two finished out of the money.

Normal Faces Toughest Test of Season Saturday

By Associated Press

Michigan Normal College, bidding for a perfect season, faces its toughest task of the season Saturday when the Hurons travel to Mt. Pleasant to meet Central Michigan College.

With eight straight victories, Michigan Normal will match a baffling air attack, featuring quarterback Bob Middlekauff, against Central Michigan's powerful running.

Championship of the IAC conference will be at stake. Hurons hold that spot with a 5-0 record, but Central Michigan, now 4-1, can tie for the title by pulling an upset.

Teams played a riotous 33-33

tie last year as Central Michigan won the conference championship.

Another high-scoring game is in prospect. Central Michigan, led by Jim Podoley's 19 touchdowns, has rolled up 293 points this season, while Michigan Normal has accounted for 203.

Both teams were impressive in winning last Saturday. Michigan Normal trounced Illinois Normal 25-7 as Middlekauff pitched two touchdown passes. He has 14 for the season.

Meanwhile, Central Michigan powered past Northern Illinois, 46-7. Podoley was held to a mere 31 yards rushing and scored only one touchdown, running three yards.

In the MIAA conference, Hillsdale took over undisputed possession of 1st place by defeating Adrian, 26-13, while Albion—which had been tied with the Dales—fell to Hope, 25-6.

In another MIAA game, Kalamazoo defeated Alma 21-20 on three straight conversions by Rudy Walchico, a freshman tackle.

It's Time Out!

"All right, Ferguson, but I'll have to be a quickie . . . I go to Florida in January!"

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Each of 12 horses in the Golden West Trot at Hollywood Park broke the world's record for the mile and three-sixteenths, clockers reports disclosed today.

The fastest of all, longshot Scotch Victor, won the $32,875 harness race in 2:22.4, nearly four seconds better than the previous world's record set here last year by Pronto Don.

Saturday's big trotting event drew 17,300 fans, who ran $1,003,406 through the pari-mutuels for the day — the fourth million dollar handle in the history of the Western Harness Racing Assn.

Scotch Victor paid $25.20, $9.80 and $6.70; Katie Key returned $5.50 and $4.50, and Tag Me $10. Joe O'Brien drove the winner.

You Be the Quarterback

(Answer)

4. Flat pass. I can think of no worse call. Your team is excited. This play could lead to an interception and a touchdown.

3. Deep reverse. Poor call. You can ill afford to lose yards again, and a deep reverse can lose plenty.

2. Handoff. Not a bad choice. This play is comparatively safe even for a jittery team, but you can fumble.

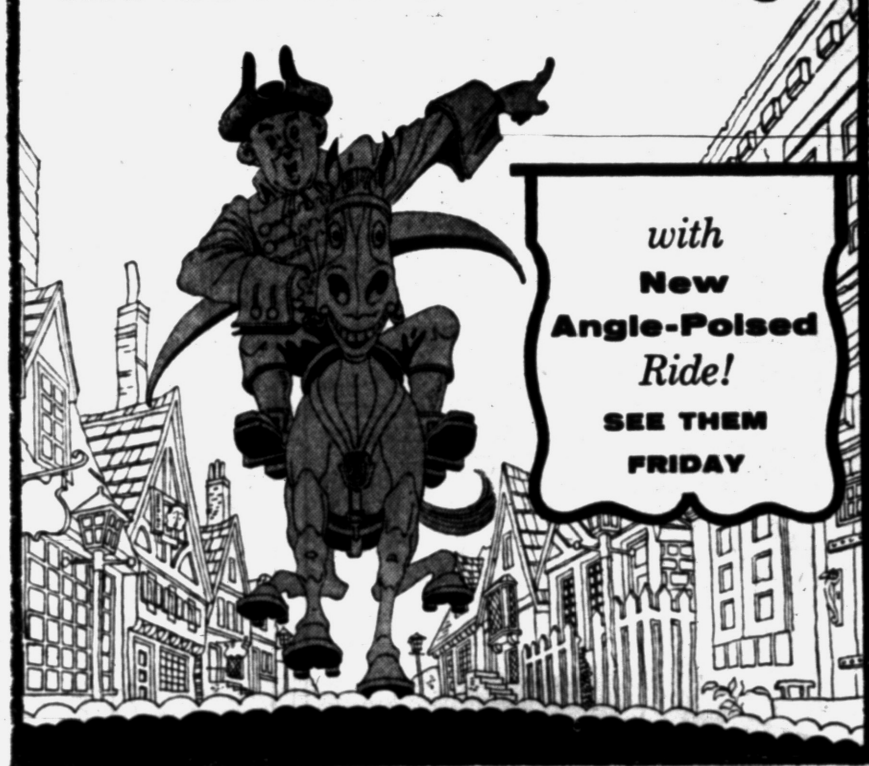

1. Punt. Best call. Kick out of danger with 2nd and 22. A team on edge can settle down while playing defense.

Hal Boyle Says

America Missing Chance to Preserve Landmarks

NEW YORK (AP)—It has been 462 years since Christopher Columbus discovered America and still there is no great national monument to him.

Nor, for that matter, has the federal government erected a memorial to Amelia Jenks Bloomer, who pioneered in freeing women by appearing in public wearing bloomers.

Nor has anyone stepped forward to raise funds to put a plaque on the birthplace of the man who brought women an even greater prominence by inventing "falsies."

It's all kind of sad. For a young people who are fast growing middle-aged we are mighty forgetful. Our storied past is crowded with colorful, fabulous figures, but we do little to keep alive the atmosphere of the times they lived in. We pull down their homes to make office buildings. We raze the schools they attended to make a parking lot. Nothing is left of our heroes and rascals except a printed memory.

In Europe it's the other way around. A tourist can't walk 50 steps in any direction without bumping into a historic landmark—a cathedral where kings were crowned, an alleyway unchanged since Jack the Ripper lurked there. There has been some improvement in this country in recent years. But we are still pretty well limited to Civil War battlefields, statues of half-forgotten generals and politicians that serve chiefly as flight decks for pigeons, and guest houses with signs bragging that "Washington slept here." The signs don't admit that Washington was awfully tired at the time, and the bed is so hard that no guest since then has even been able to doze.

Ask the average guy to name five famous American historical monuments. He'd probably name the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument, the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. Then he'd be stumped—unless you let him include Mae West or Sophie Tucker. In this matter of keeping the flavor of the past alive, we have to take a back seat to our British cousins. Nobody can tear down their traditional haunts in the ridiculous name of progress.

The British not only preserve Westminster Abbey and their cathedral. The government also protects against change or destruction 5,000 pubs, including one in which the first Queen Elizabeth quaffed nutbrown ale and another in which Henry V took a farewell nip before hopping the channel ferry to France and the battle of Agincourt.

The government, explaining that "the events that occurred in these inns would make a history of England," plans to list as historical monuments several thousand more pubs. The British lean to the theory that any spot where a man slakes his thirst has a place in history.

Americans are loathe to make monuments of their saloons, even though some of modern society's bluest blood has been shed in them in recent years, and despite the fact George Washington made his farewell address to his officers in a tavern. But, after all these years, doesn't the distillery that fueled Gen. U. S. Grant perhaps deserve a memorial marker? Any Southerner will confirm that it was only bottle courage that gave Grant the nerve to take on the peerless Robert E. Lee.

How about the bar off Gramercy Park, New York, where lonely O. Henry dreamed up his stories? Isn't that a kind of monument worth keeping?

There are many interesting political sites worth preserving as historic monuments—such as the smoke-filled room where Warren Harding was picked as a presidential candidate, and the exact spot where Calvin Coolidge put on his first Indian headdress. These would please Democrats greatly. Republicans might equally enjoy making a federal museum of Tammany Hall, or erecting a granite tower commemorating the "Truman dollar."

Everybody, of course, would be glad to contribute toward a national monument for the first man in America who finds a free place to park his car legally. But no such fund will ever be raised. No guy lucky enough to find a parking space would give away his secret for so empty a reward as fame.

Taxpayer's Paradise

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—Five successive annual property tax cuts—by eliminating non-vital city expenditures—brought Richmond's rate per $100 assessed valuation from $2.50 in 1949 down to $2.17 in 1954.

Grain Retreats Under Hedging

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 (AP)—Grain retreated under the weight of hedging pressure on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were quite active, at times.

Soybeans lost the most ground. In addition to hedging, beans had to absorb quite a bit of profit taking. Wheat and corn also found that the path of least resistance was downward, although probably recovering from extreme losses.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 1/4 to 1/2 lower, December 2.23 1/2; corn 1/4 to 1/2 lower, December 1.29 1/2; soybeans 1/4 to 1/2 lower, November 2.85 1/2; and lard 5 cents lower to 33 cents a hundred pounds higher, November 16.10.

Quits Movie Role and Goes to TV

Never Beaten Champ Voted Best Swimmer of the Century

NEW YORK—Johnny Weissmuller is taking another plunge—this time into television.

The world's greatest swimmer who played Tarzan for years in motion pictures, will have his own TV film series, Jungle Jim.

When Weissmuller started his "Jungle Jim" motion picture series, the role was new to him, but not the setting. Johnny played "Tarzan" for so many years that he began to think that he was born in the jungle. Actually, Johnny was born in Winbar, Pennsylvania, and grew up in Chicago.

In Chicago, the Weissmullers lived near Lake Michigan, and John's main recollection of his childhood is sneaking away from the house to swim in the lake. It was always his ambition to become a swimming champion.

After leaving school, Weissmuller got a job as an errand boy in a Chicago wholesale house, delivering church supplies. Later he was an elevator boy and bell hop in the Illinois Athletic Club. Every chance he got he would swim in the club pool. It was here that he met William Bachrach, famous swimming instructor who was to have such an influence on his later career.

Bachrach recognized John's superior swimming ability and decided to coach him. John won his first swimming meet at the age of 17, and later became world's champion under the coaching of Bachrach.

Weissmuller was on the American Olympic swimming team in 1924 and 1928. He won five Olympic swimming championships. During his career, he won 52 national championships and broke a total of 67 world's records. He was never defeated during his entire competitive career, a record of which no other swimming champion can boast.

In 1930, Associated Press sports writers throughout the world voted him the greatest swimmer of the first half of the Twentieth Century.

One day in 1930, Johnny was working out in the Hollywood Athletic Club pool, and Cyril Hume, the novelist, saw him, took him out to the studio, where he was tested and signed immediately. His first Tarzan picture was "Tarzan and the Ape Man," released in 1931. Subsequently, John made 18 Tarzans, his last one being "Tarzan and the Mermaids" in 1947.

Off the screen, Johnny dresses casually in sport clothes and tweeds. He dislikes formal dress and large parties. He likes to play bridge and canasta between scenes of his movies, and when he is not working he keeps in condition by swimming several times a week.

In addition to his swimming ability, Johnny is an amateur golfing champion and is married to the former Allene Gates, who is also an amateur golfing champion. They live in West Los Angeles.

How Can Any Program on TV Be Spectacular?

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

Well, so there's just been another one! Another "spectacular" on TV, the umpteenth of the series, in full glorious color for them few that has full glorious color sets—and in plain black and white for the rest of us black-and-white bums that only support the whole industry!

This newest spectacular merely starred Frank Sinatra, Judy Holiday, the French comic Jacques Tati, the American comic Ted Shawn, the American humorist Steve Allen, plus nine million sequins and spangles on the girls' dresses, musicians galore, expensive stage sets, expensive stage hands, more sequins and spangles and musicians—

You probably saw it yesterday, but I myself was doomed to miss it, being not only—paraphrasing the expression—out of town, which sounds like a dodge, but literally out of the country for a short time. No fooling, passport and everything.

Just the same, the notice on my TV page brought to mind lots of previous spectacles this fall which I didn't miss, which I witnessed for the full ninety-minute run, sometimes with pleasure.

More than anything, though, it reminded me of some real hot remarks I listened to right after Ginger Rogers' TV debut in the three Noel Coward plays—a spectacular, by the way, I thoroughly enjoyed on my little 17-inch set.

The hot remarks came from a famous Hollywood and Broadway playwright, the adapter of Noel Coward's plays for the great event of Ginger's debut, F. Hugh Herbert, who's a bit spectacular himself with what being the author of such smash hits as "Kiss and Tell" and "The Moon Is Blue."

"Spectacular!" he burst forth when I joined everybody else in complimenting him on the way the show had gone, it being his own debut in television too. "What a word—that 'spectacular.' It's a disaster, that's what it is, an oc-

North Carolinian Dies Sunday After 2-Year Illness

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—Gov. William B. Umstead, 59, who had been ill since he took office less than two years ago, died in Watts Hospital here yesterday. He suffered heart trouble and pneumonia.

Umstead, a life-long Democrat, had served as U. S. representative and senator and was elected governor in 1952.

He will be succeeded by Luther H. Hodges, 56, elected lieutenant governor in 1952 in his first political venture.

Hodges, a former vice president of Marshall Field Co., will be sworn in tomorrow.

Umstead had been in poor health since suffering a heart attack Jan. 8, 1953, two days after his inauguration as governor. He was readmitted to Watts Hospital in Durham Thursday with a severe cold.

His wife and 12-year-old daughter, Merle Bradley, were at the bedside.

Plan to Select Site for 'Canada House'

SAINT JOHN, N. B. (AP)—Canada's consul-general in New York, Ray Lawson, says sponsors of a proposed eight-million-dollar "Central Canada House" hope to select a site in New York City before the end of this year.

Interviewed during a visit here yesterday, Lawson said 29 private sponsors already have pledged $100,000 each to get the project going. A sponsors' committee will be named soon to select the building site, he added.

The building is planned to house offices of Canadian government agencies and firms as well as the Canadian Club of New York.

Bohlen, Russian Premier Chat at Bolshevik Dinner

MOSCOW (U. S. S. R.)—Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov and U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen dined at the same table last night and talked seriously for half an hour afterwards. The occasion was a big Kremlin banquet celebrating the 37th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

The traditional Red Square military parade lasted only 20 minutes this year, and an air show was canceled because of an overcast sky. A speech by Defense Minister Marshal Nikolai Bulganin avoided the usual blasts at the United States.

The conversation between Bohlen and Malenkov, amid the hubbub of the party for 2,000 ranking Soviets and foreign diplomats, was the first time the two had gotten together since Stalin's death.

Questioned later by reporters, the American envoy gave no hint what they talked about. He said only: "No business was transacted."

An hour-long talk that Malenkov and Communist Party Secretary Nikita Khrushchev had with Yugoslav Ambassador Dobrovic Vidic a little later stirred almost as much curiosity as the Bohlen-Malenkov talk. Earlier anniversary speeches by Soviet leaders had hinted at a revival of friendship with Yugoslavia, the only Communist country outside the Soviet bloc.

The gala dinner party, in the Kremlin's ornate St. George Hall, wound up a two-day celebration of Russia's biggest holiday.

Bohlen sat with 27 other guests at the main table. Included were the members of the Soviet Presidium and the British, French, Indian, Burmese, Indonesian, Polish and Communist Chinese ambassadors and their wives.

Five hundred others ate from buffet tables around the hall, and the feast was spread in a series of other rooms.

The honored guests raised their wine and vodka glasses in 15 formal toasts while an intrigued, eavesdropping throng hovered about their table.

U. S. Rep. Victor Wickersham (D-Okla.) was among the guests who shook hands with Malenkov when the Soviet government chief strolled around the room after dinner.

Wickersham, in the Soviet Union on a tour, said Malenkov asked:

London Show Accepts Painting Done by Girl, 8

LONDON (U. S. S. R.)—A picture by an 8-year-old girl, submitted by her mother as a prank, was placed on exhibition today along with paintings by some of Britain's big name artists.

Here's what happened: Tania Hunter, the little girl, has a mother and a half-brother who paint — seriously. A few weeks ago they were discussing what pictures they would send to the London Group for consideration as entries in the annual show at the new Burlington galleries.

"Oh," said Tania's half-brother, "mine won't be accepted. I was turned down last year."

Mrs. Bryan Hunter, Tania's mother, shook her head. "Send something along all the same. Some shows accept paintings that might have been done by a child of 8."

She paused as another idea came to her. Little Tania had a painting she'd once done of her Japanese doll. Mrs. Hunter found it and sent it along with some of her own work and her son's — just to see what would happen.

London group officials rejected the work of the mother and the brother, but accepted Tania's and, as picture No. 268, it hangs in the exhibition, with a $35 price tag on it.

The subject was no laughing matter at the galleries. Inquiries encountered an icy reception.

Lawmaker May Refuse House Leadership Job

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (U. S. S. R.)—Rep. J. Percy Priest of Tennessee's 5th District says he probably will turn down the job of House majority whip in the new Congress.

But, he said, he plans to devote most of his time to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, of which he is the ranking Democratic member.

Shotgun Squad Routs Cincinnati Starlings

CINCINNATI (U. S. S. R.)—Forty shotgun "minute men" popped off at starlings in downtown Cincinnati last night and very few birds were sighted thereafter.

The shooting is Cincinnati's method of ridding itself of a pest of many years standing. Smoke, noise chemicals and fake owls have failed to get the critters.

In 1935, France had 48 auto manufacturers, but now 98 per cent of her cars are produced by 5 manufacturers.
