'Advise and Consent' Among 13 Pulitzers

NEW YORK (AP). — Pulitzer Prizes have been awarded to Allen Drury's best-selling novel "Advise and Consent," the Broadway musical "Fiorello!," and the Los Angeles Times.

A. M. Rosenthal of the New York Times has also been honored with the highest accolade of his profession for the reporting that resulted in his expulsion from Poland last year.

The 1960 prizes were among 13 awards and one citation in the fields of letters, music and journalism announced by the trustees of Columbia University Monday.

Awards in newspaper cartooning and art were not made this year.

The Los Angeles Times won the gold medal for meritorious public service for its campaign against narcotics smuggling across the Mexican border. The newspaper was cited for the far-reaching effects produced by a series on the problem written by its reporter Gene Sherman.

The Times won the medal in 1942 for a battle to uphold freedom of the press.

In its narcotics fight, Sherman spent seven months traveling to Mexico, Washington, New York, Texas and San Francisco, poring over records, interviewing officials, addicts and even peddlers.

★ ★ ★

Reporters for the Atlanta Constitution, the Washington Evening Star, an editor of the Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance, the editor of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot and a United Press International photographer won other prizes in journalism.

Individual journalism awards carry a $1,000 prize. Prizes for arts and letters are $500 each.

"Advise and Consent," a massive novel on Washington politics, has been a best-seller since its publication last year. It has been serialized, sold to the movies and is being prepared for the New York stage.

It was the first novel that Drury, a Washington newspaper correspondent for 17 years, ever wrote. Drury, a 41-year-old bachelor born in Houston, Tex., was a member of the New York Times staff when he finished it.

He has since become capitol correspondent for the Reader's Digest.

The award to "Fiorello!," a musical based on the life of New York's late Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, caught Broadway by surprise. It was only the third time in the 44-year history of the awards endowed by the late publisher Joseph Pulitzer that a musical had won such an award.

Labor Backs School Tax

The Executive Board of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council last night unanimously endorsed the Board of Education's request for a 2.8 mill increase in the voted tax rate for operation of the school system.

The Board's proposal will be presented on a May 9 ballot. All registered voters in the school district may cast their ballots.

The union council represents some 50,000 rank and file members.

Action to support the Board's tax increase proposal was taken by the union board, Secretary William Lindsey said, because the Council body does not meet next until after the May 9 election.

The labor bloc went on record, said Lindsey, because "necessary facilities to educate children have got to be provided."

Europe Press Hits Execution

Chessman Gets Little Attention in Asia or Middle East

LONDON (AP) — Europeans today bitterly denounced the execution of Caryl Chessman.

Two small youth demonstrations were reported from Latin America, but Africa, the Middle East and Asia paid almost no attention to the California sex criminal whose legal maneuvers kept him out of the gas chamber for 12 years.

The European continent heard the news of Chessman's death with horror and incredulity.

Few saw his protracted fight for life as a tribute to American justice. They viewed it as legalized torture. Some said it would harm the prestige of the United States.

The execution dominated European front pages. Headlines screamed of the telephone dial mixup that robbed the condemned man of an extra hour of life.

There was little attempt to trace the history of the case or to describe Chessman's crimes in much detail.

Not since Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were electrocuted in the United States for treason had an execution aroused such controversy in Europe.

Rocks were hurled through the windows of the U.S. Embassy in Lisbon. Paris police stood guard over the U.S. Embassy there.

Lord Birkett, one of England's foremost lawyers, termed the execution repugnant and said: "Chessman must have suffered a thousand deaths before the end came."

★ ★ ★

The Italian Communists and Roman Catholics were joined in rare unanimity. L'Unita, organ of Italy's Reds, wrote of the "atrocious crime by so-called American justice." Rome's Il Messagero said: "The law killed a man on his way to redemption. Justice which resorts to torture is no longer justice."

U.S. Agencies to Centralize in Old Post Office

Donaldson Not Sure His Department Will Have Enough Space

The Pontiac Federal Building on Huron and Perry streets will undergo a $250,000 remodeling to centralize the federal government agencies located in this city, it was learned today.

The "repair and improvement" project calls for no enlargement of the post office building.

Space to house Social Security, Internal Revenue, FBI, Department of Agriculture, Civil Service and Air Force, Marine Corps and Navy recruiting offices should be ready for occupancy in about a year.

The building belongs to the General Service Administration (GSA). The GSA regional office in Chicago said invitations were issued today to bid on the project. The bids will be opened in Chicago on May 31.

William W. Donaldson, Pontiac's acting postmaster, regarded the announcement with mixed feelings.

"It may pose a problem for us," he said. "The question is whether we (the post office) will continue to have adequate space once the remodeling is completed and the new tenants move in with us. As I understand it, our space will be cut down."

H. W. Keefer, the GSA's building custodian here, acknowledged that the Post Office "will lose a little operating space, but not much."

"The purpose of the remodeling is consolidation," said Keefer. More than half the building is not being occupied at present, including the whole ground floor from Mill street. The first floor is not even half occupied.

"The whole lobby is going out of there and there will be only one main entrance from the front of the building on Huron street. There will be no Post Office customer entrance on Perry Street."

Keefer said there will be no ex-

'I Never Waked Up'

ALL'S FORGIVEN — Six-year-old Donald Wortman of Waterford Township just cannot get enough of his mother's wonderful food after spending a cold, hungry night sleeping in a chair in a friend's back yard. After a 14-hour manhunt by several hundred area police and volunteers, the boy was found by newspaper boys early today on Motorway drive, more than a mile from his home.

Congress Told: Better Get Busy

Ike Says Lots to Be Done; Lists Foreign Aid, Wheat Surplus

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower lectured Congress on election year statesmanship today in a special message urging nonpartisan action on his legislative program.

The 3,500-word communication offered no new proposals but outlined virtually the whole range of administration recommendations and advised the legislators "we still have a great deal to get done for America."

★ ★ ★

Top listing was given to foreign aid and a new farm law aimed particularly at the wheat surplus, but Eisenhower mentioned a score of other items, some of which he said are of a sort that "at the expense of responsible government, tend to be shunted aside in an election year."

Eisenhower gave last position in his listing—but at least equal emphasis—to a renewed call for "restraint in new authorizations for federal spending."

He was obviously aiming at the Democrats in Congress in that implied renewal of the administration complaint against what it calls "budget-busting" proposals.

So far as the letter of what he said was concerned, Eisenhower took in both parties when he reminded that only two more months remain before the time when Congress plans to quit for the summer, and told the members:

Six-Year-Old Found After Night Outdoors

A cold and frightened Waterford Township youngster was found early this morning by boys delivering papers after several hundred police and volunteers had searched all night for him.

Six-year-old Ronald Wortman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Manes of 3946 Hazelett St., was wandering desolately along Motorway drive, near Dover street more than a mile from his home when four boys found him.

The youngster said that after school, he went over to visit his friend, Jeffrey Warner, 6, of 337 Ascot St. The boys played until supper time, and when Jeffrey was called in, the Warners assumed that young Wortman had gone home.

Instead the 50-pound youngster decided he "was too tired" to go home, curled up in a porch chair in back of the house and fell asleep.

"I never waked up," he said.

His distraught parents, unable to find him, notified Waterford Township Police, who then put out an alarm for the missing boy.

★ ★ ★

Sheriff's deputies, state police, Sylvan Lake and Keego Harbor police assisted Waterford police in an intensive search which ended at 7:30 a.m. today.

Shivering and crying, Ronald was found by Michael Reddish, 13, of 3668 Cresthaven St., Gary Ryden, 14, of 3838 Faber St., David Tinkis, 14, of 3995 Cresthaven and Richard Raber, 14, of 666 S. Winding St.

The boys hailed Orchard Lake police patrolling the area, who then notified the township police and returned the boy to his near-exhausted parents.

JOHN P. NIGGEMAN

Pick Niggeman for UF Position

Bank Vice President Will Head Commercial Division in Drive

Appointment of John P. Niggeman as chairman of the Commercial Division for the 1960 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign was announced today by S. E. Knudsen, general campaign chairman.

Niggeman is a vice president of the Community National Bank. He lives at 1986 Lakeland Ave., Sylvan Lake.

In the Commercial Division, Niggeman will head the campaign's second leading fund raiser. He was a vice chairman in 1959 when the group raised $175,105. The Division collected $165,450 in 1958.

"The Commercial Division is currently undergoing complete reorganization and details will be announced in the near future," Niggeman stated.

Niggeman is married and has one son, John Jr. He is a past president of Kiwanis and also holds membership in YMCA, High Twelve, Elks, and the Congregational Church.

Robbed of $1,128

Find Bound Theft Victim

Two Pontiac teen-agers found an Oxford Township man bound and gagged in his car off a lonely dirt road near an Orion Township picnic area last night.

* * *

The victim, Edward Jostock, 27, owner of the Perry & Walton Service Station, 2005 E. Walton Blvd., told sheriff's deputies two men held him up and took $1,128.

Jostock was reported missing by his wife at about 8 p.m. when he didn't arrive home for dinner.

Deputies were called by James R. Landry, 19, of 262 Judson St., and Penny S. Parker, 17, of 795 Hogarth St., at about 10 p.m.

The teen-agers led detectives to the spot where they had found Jostock.

Jostock told deputies he left his gas station shortly after noon Monday with a bag containing checks and receipts which he was taking to the bank.

"I went south on Perry street and as I reached up to adjust the rear view mirror, a voice from the back seat told me to leave it alone," he said.

* * *

Jostock said the man said, "Do as you're told and you won't get hurt," and then directed him to a small drive off Old Bald Mountain road.

"He made me drive into a field and then another man approached the car and they tied my feet, chained my hands to the steering wheel, blindfolded and gagged me," Jostock said.

The gas station owner said he didn't get a good look at the men but that they both had southern accents.

* * *

They took the cash and left about $100 worth of checks, detectives said.

4-H Doesn't Have to Move

County Board Allows Club to Stay at Perry Street Site

County 4-H members don't have to move, the Board of Supervisors decided yesterday.

* * *

After several committees had discussed the subject of moving the 4-H Fairgrounds to the growing County Service Center, the full Board gave its unanimous approval to allow the organization to stay on its 17-acre Perry street site for at least another five years.

Because the young men and women spent so much time and money developing new buildings on their home of the past 19 years, leaders fought off the county's plans of relocation.

With the stay of five years came approval, too, of a study to show what the facilities and space requirements of the 4-H will be for the next 10 years. It will be conducted by the County Planning Commission.

* * *

Added to the resolution also was a stipulation that the five year lease could be terminated with six months notice "if definite plans develop prior to the end of the five-year period as to relocation of the county 4-H Fair at another site."

* * *

The county had planned to sell the present site and move the fair to the Telegraph road site where other county buildings are located.

* * *

Supervisors yesterday also voted to take $1,250 from the county's contingent fund to match the same amount in state funds to be used for the maintenance of the present site.

Most of Nation Smiling Over Pleasant Days

By The Associated Press

There were some wet spots and it was cool in northern border regions but fairly pleasant spring weather prevailed in most of the country today.

* * *

The cold front extended from the northern Great Lakes region across the northern plains, curving into southwest Canada along the eastern slopes of the Rockies. It was below freezing in northern Minnesota and North Dakota.

* * *

Thunderstorms which rumbled across northern Iowa and Wisconsin diminished during the night, with scattered showers and hail from the upper Mississippi Valley into the northern Great Lakes.

Rain continued in southern Georgia and Alabama, with more thunder storms in the warm air over Florida.

ATTORNEY DIES — Henry Breckenridge, 73, an attorney and former assistant secretary of war, died Monday at New York's St. Vincent's Hospital. As attorney for Col. Charles A. Lindbergh when the Lindbergh baby was kidnaped in 1932, Breckenridge conducted the lengthy and futile ransom negotiations.

S-P Purchases Firm That Makes Tractors

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Studebaker-Packard Corp. says it has agreed to purchase Gravely Tractors, Inc., in an undisclosed cash and stock deal.

Gravely, of Dunbar, W. Va., builds self-propelled outdoor power tools. Gravely is the third firm outside the auto field acquired by Studebaker-Packard in the past two years. It earlier acquired Gering Plastics and CTL Division, a Cincinnati plastics firm.

Studebaker-Packard said Gravely would become one of its divisions but continue under its present management.

Strachan Stands Mute to Charge of Robbery

Frank W. Strachan, who led police on an intense chase through West Bloomfield Township Saturday and early Sunday, stood mute on an armed robbery charge yesterday.

* * *

* * *

The warrant, issued for his arrest April 6, charges him with robbing a cabbie in Southfield of $28 April 4.

Strachan was returned to the Oakland County Jail after failing to furnish a $25,000 bond set by Lawson.

* * *

His examination is scheduled for May 10.

* * *

Strachan, 24, escaped from the Oakland County Jail March 23. Police said he terrorized and robbed numerous Detroit cab drivers while at large.

BEGIN RESCUE OPERATIONS — Literally floating in sludge, this valuable bulldozer apparently was the hapless object of a children's prank last night. Sitting unattended on a hill overlooking the sludge lagoon east of Pontiac's sewage treatment plant, the bulldozer was started, placed in reverse gear and sent scuttling downhill 600 yards, over a 15-foot cliff into the lagoon. Rescuers attached a chain (right) to keep the machine from slipping farther into the sludge and today were trying to raise it. The Chassie Construction Co. of Detroit owns the bulldozer and had it parked near the State Highway Department's Featherstone road office.

Overcomes Opposition

Croteau Renamed Supervisor

An attempt to bump Maurice Croteau from his long-time post as a Pontiac representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors failed last night as the City Commission reappointed him and three other veterans to new one-year terms.

A move by District 5 Commissioner John A. Dugan to replace Croteau with another District 5 man was defeated by one vote.

Croteau opposed Dugan in the City Commission election last month.

In a secret ballot on five nominees, the Commission gave Croteau four votes, enough to win.

Dugan's nominee, Wayne Annable, got three.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and veteran Supervisor R. Clare Cummings won reappointment with seven votes each, and Mrs. Margaret Hill got six.

10th YEAR

Croteau, 112 Marquette St., begins his 10th year as a supervisor. Cummings, 205 E. Iroquois Rd., has served 22 years, while Mrs. Hill, 35 Carter St., has served five.

Rowston went on the Board earlier this year to replace Robert R. Boyer who had been considered a representative of labor.

After Boyer's resignation, it was decided that closer liaison between city and county would be encouraged by having the mayor on the Board.

Croteau not only clashed with Dugan in the election, but also has clashed with the majority of the City Commission on the subject of Police Chief Herbert W. Straley, whom he has supported and they have opposed.

* * *

Croteau received vocal support last night from the three commissioners who supported Straley during the recent political campaign.

He was nominated by Commissioner Winford E. Bottom, backed by Commissioner Milton R. Henry and praised by Commissioner Robert A. Landry for his work on the county's welfare committee.

Dugan said his candidate was a representative of labor.

Annable, 642 First St., is a Pontiac Motor Division employe and active in the United Auto Workers.

* * *

During debate on the nominees, Rowston's observation that the city currently has no labor representative on the Board drew a sharp response from Henry.

* * *

"Just because someone's a labor man, does that qualify him for anything under the sun?" Henry demanded. "What's this talk got to do with city government?"

Both Henry and Landry claimed Rowston had broken tradition by calling for nominations before possible candidates were reviewed privately by commissioners in an informal session.

"This is government by crony," asserted Henry.

Rowston had announced at last Tuesday's meeting that he would call for nominations last night.

City Will Eye Transit Board Plan

The proposed public transit commission will be a leading topic of discussion next week when the 1960-1962 City Commission is briefed by City Manager Walter K. Willman on current administration proposals.

* * *

Commissioners decided last night to hold their first informal meeting next Wednesday night and so far have put off until then discussion of the most far-reaching proposal from the Mayor's Public Transportation Committee.

The proposal was formally submitted in letter form by Floyd P. Miles, committee chairman. Details had been made public last week.

Miles' committee indicated that a transit commission could provide a firm hand in bolstering any new bus company that might begin operations in Pontiac.

* * *

Behind the plan, he said, lies the belief that the city must begin an active role in transportation.

City manager Walter K. Willman asked for the informal meeting to bring old and new members of the Commission up to date on the irons the administration has in the fire.

* * *

Willman returned yesterday from a Florida vacation and speaking tour as president of the International City Managers Assn.

Van Wagoner to Take Over Williams Spot in Case of Emergency

Former Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner of Bloomfield Township was one of three men named to succeed Gov. G. Mennen Williams on an emergency interim basis in event of an enemy attack on the U.S.

* * *

All the state administrative board members have chosen successors under the 1959 executive succession act. The successors serve if the appointing officials become unavailable.

* * *

C. Allen Harlan of Bloomfield Township was one of those chosen to succeed the Secretary of State.

Donald E. Adams of Drayton Plains was lined up for the Attorney General's office and J. A. Wills, a Pontiac road official, is a possible successor to the Highway Commissioner.

Van Wagoner was a Democratic governor more than 20 years ago. Harlan is a Detroit electrical contractor and a trustee of Michigan State University Oakland.

Adams is a justice of the peace in Waterford Township and Willis, a Livonia resident, is district engineer for the State Highway Department.

Teacher Gives Backing to Extra Tax Millage

As a teacher, Garth Errington knows only too well from his vantage point at the head of the classroom what it takes to keep today's youngsters abreast of the times.

* * *

That is why he is 100 per cent behind the Board of Education's request for a 2.8 mill increase in the voted tax rate for operation of the school system.

* * *

"It takes money," says Errington, English instructor and director of dramatics at Pontiac Central High School.

"We are faced with new concepts and new levels of learning. We have learned a great deal more over the past decade about the learning progress of children from kindergarten through the 12th grade.

"We have to keep up in our extreme progress in this technological age. We can't stand still while all other areas outside of education progress. We must prepare the students to progress as well."

* * *

Errington said we need more dollars to work with the new and proved ideas of instruction. He cited a specific example in his own area of teaching:

* * *

"In the reading program in the English and speech areas, for instance, we demand of the students that they be able to communicate. More and more we are dealing with technical data which we have never seen or heard before.

* * *

"If we are unable to read and to analyze and communicate this information, we are going to be at a loss to deal with it at all.

"Specifically, we need more money for more programs in reading improvement. This calls for more classes and more teachers. In order to attract new teachers and the qualified teachers in these specialty areas, we are also going to have to offer more attractive salary schedules. This holds true right down the line."

The millage proposal will be presented on a May 9 ballot. All registered voters in the Pontiac school district may vote.

pansion on the building except for one room that has been used for storage and now is eyed as office space.

Of the three-floor building, the Post Office will occupy a little more than one-third of the first floor and the rest will be used for other federal agency offices, according to Keefer.

Keefer said the building will be rewired, the first and ground floor will get false ceilings and new plumbing, fluorescent lighting and floors will be installed.

A new coat of paint will be applied outside and in and some minor work will be done to the roof of the building. The skylights will be removed.

Keefer said the project has been contemplated for two years.

Conelrad Test Today Opens Defense Alert

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every television station in the country goes off the air for a half hour today at 1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, and all radio stations switched to two special frequencies for a civil defense test broadcast.

President Eisenhower recorded a brief talk for broadcast. Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates and Civil Defense Director Leo Hoegh also arranged to speak, and there were special state and local presentations.

It is the most eleborate test so far of the Conelrad system, which aims at confusing enemy bombers. Conelrad stands for control of electronic radiation.

The test marked the start of "Operation Alert—1960," in which key government officials will leave Washington for outlying areas and practice running the government for two days under emergency conditions.

To Receive Plaque for Classroom Gift

Glenn H. Griffin, Pontiac mortician and secretary of the Michigan Mortuary Science Foundation, is scheduled to accept an achievement plaque in Washington, D.C., recognizing the foundation's gift of a $100,000 classroom building to Wayne State University.

The United States Chamber of Commerce is to present the plaque during its annual leadership recognition banquet to Griffin and Charles L. Verheyden of Grosse Pointe, foundation president.

Dick Still Quite Debonair

'Did Not Favor Clark,' Says ABC President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The president of the American Broadcasting Co. denied today that Dick Clark was given preferential treatment over another disc jockey who was fired for refusing to say whether he had taken payola.

ABC President Leonard H. Goldenson also disputed a charge that his network was guilty of a double standard of ethics.

* * *

Goldenson said the fired disc jockey, Alan Freed, was the only ABC employe who refused to sign an affidavit that he had not received payola.

* * *

Freed, once known as king of rock 'n' roll was fired last November by ABC's New York radio station WABC.

The station's manager, Ben Hoberman was due to follow Goldenson in testimony before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) told reporters he hopes today's testimony will conclude the group's investigation of undercover payments to disc jockeys to plug records.

* * *

Both Goldenson and Hoberman faced questioning as to whether other ABC disc jockeys and employes were treated as nicely as Clark, the country's only deejay with a nationally televised show.

The subcommittee has been told the answer is no. One witness said Clark benefited by a double standard of ethics by ABC.

Clark wound up two days of testimony late Monday, still debonair and composed and still insisting payola had never crossed his palms.

* * *

"You have, from your own point of view, been a good witness," Harris said, adding an admonition to cooperate with Congres in attempts to rid the broadcasting industry of irregularities and questionable practices.

* * *

Harris, his voice deliberate and tinged with irritation, made the latter point after Clark defended his taking $7,000 to plug American Airlines on his afternoon "American Bandstand" show.

Clark brushed off as a common and accepted practice in his business. "I never gave it a thought," he said.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield Hills Honors 40 of 'Best Generation'

BIRMINGHAM—Forty of America's "best generation" were honored last night for scholastic and citizenship achievements at Bloomfield Hills High School by members of that city's Rotary Club.

Pinch-hitting for the featured speaker, Dr. R. C. Young, Durward B. Varner, chancellor of Michigan State University Oakland, refuted claims by some that the younger generation consisted solely of juvenile delinquents and beatniks.

"I'm definitely convinced that this is the best generation ever," Varner told a gathering of Rotarians, students and parents in the Junior High School auditorium.

Besides those students in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades honored for their achievements, nine students from the same grades who had made the best advancements in their grades during the past semester compared to prior academic records received copies of Roget's Thesaurus.

* * *

These were: Jerry Lingeman, Ty Cool and Lou Reszka, grade 10; Katherine Naughton, David Robinson and Sarah Snyder, grade 11; and Lee Gallo, Chuck Cannon and Bob Eoff, grade 12.

The other books went to: Barbara Stelzer, Kay VanderMeer, Carolyn Clagne, Christine Gryson, Meredith Plaxton, Bette Joines, Patricia Gaubis, John Major, Jeffrey Trimmer, Valerine Hart and Marilynn Robinson, all in Grade 10.

Joanne Psenka, Kristine Puvogel, Marty Hoppin, Bob Gruen, Sue Hallas, Paul Kasameyer, Linda Dewey, Sue Wotila, Jean Richardson and Pat Maddock, grade 11.

Beverly Balfour, Lynn Marshall, Mike Zweig, Sharon Newman, Jeanne Common, Renie Sinclair, Nancy Cowan, Deanna Laughlin, Susan Woodhouse and Sally Wilson, grade 12.

Recommendations for a city-owned parking lot costing an estimated $500,000 were presented to the City Commission last night by City Manager L. R. Gare.

The proposed municipal parking area would be located just north of the business district in the area of Woodward avenue and Willits street.

The Commission set a public hearing for May 31 to hear any objections to the plans.

* * *

The area for the most part is now used for parking facilities but owned by private concerns.

Commissioners approved a four hour parking meter zone on two streets south of the business district.

The four hour meters will be placed on Merrill street between Bates and Chester streets, and on Bates street between Townsend and Brown streets.

Parking fees will be 5 cents for one hour, 10 cents for two hours, and 20 cents for four hours.

A public hearing on the 1960 road oil program was set for May 23.

Superintendent of the Department of Public Works T. C. Brien, in a report to the Commission noted that the oil program this year is quite extensive due to the severe damage caused by the recent thawing.

The request of the Wallace J. Newton Co. to rezone a parcel of land on Woodward avenue to permit the construction of 3 or 4 story "luxury apartments" was denied by the Commission.

The property, north of Oak street and south of Colonial Terraces, is presently zoned for two-story structures.

Newton has proposed building an 85-unit apartment on the site.

Shooting Spree Wounds 2 Men

Wild Firing Takes Place on Detroit's East Side; 6 Persons Arrested

DETROIT (AP)—Two men were wounded and two others fired on last night in a 90-minute shooting spree on Detroit's East Side which police blamed on a gang of teen-agers.

A dog tied in a back yard also was wantonly shot in the savage and unprovoked outbreak carried out with a deer rifle and a shotgun.

Police quickly arrested three 14-year-olds, one of them a girl; two youths, 17 and 18, and a 31-year-old man and held them for investigation of assault with intent to commit murder.

All those held are Negroes. Those shot at all are white. Police quoted one of those held as saying, "We just wanted to shoot." The neighborhood is a racially mixed one.

* * *

Michael Maryonovich, 72, and Joseph H. Smith, 38, both were wounded in the wild, four-block firing foray. Police Sgt. Arnold Ostrowski got a bullet through his coat sleeve while investigating. A shotgun charge fired through a kitchen door missed 26-year-old Leonard Chance.

* * *

Maryonovich and Smith were described as in serious condition at a hospital. Maryonovich was shot twice in the right shoulder with a high-powered deer rifle. A rifle shot went through Smith's right thigh and lodged in his left leg.

Maryonovich said he and his wife, Rose, had just gone to bed when their front doorbell rang. Then moments later, he said, he heard a brick crash through a kitchen window. He got up to investigate and was walking away from a window when he was felled by a bullet.

Maryonovich said he staggered to his feet and was hit by another bullet.

* * *

Smith was working on an automobile in his garage when he was shot. John Raines, with Smith in the garage, told police "I thought a bomb had been tossed."

Poll Sees Kennedy Due to Lose in W. Virginia

NEW YORK (AP) — The Wall Street Journal, which conducted a poll, said today that if the May 10 West Virginia Democratic presidential primary were held today, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts would lose — perhaps heavily—because of his religion.

* * *

A Charleston, W. Va., story by staff reporters Paul Duke and Alan L. Otten said the vote against Kennedy could go as high as 60 per cent of the total.

Tunisia, Russia Agree

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio announced today that the Soviet Union and Tunisia have agreed to exchange ambassadors. The broadcast said dates for the opening of the two embassies will be decided in the near future.

Hospital Finances Improve

As of the end of last month, the Pontiac General Hospital finance picture was about $100,000 brighter than forecast in this year's tight break-even budget.

The excess of income over expenses so far this year amounted to $148,700, reported Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator.

The bulk of this came from a $94,000 windfall from the Michigan Hospital Service (Blue Cross), which announced two weeks ago that it was going to give the hospital a far better settlement for 1959 than the hospital, in its conservative planning, had anticipated.

In the budget, the hospital figured it would be about $42,300 ahead at this time of the year, which usually is a profitable time because of high occupancy rates.

The hospital's profit-loss record is expected to be affected by the usual drop-off in occupancy beginning with the warm summer months, Euler said.

During last year's poor financial showing, the hospital had lost $29,000 in the first four months.

Borman Income Rises

DETROIT (AP)—Borman Food Stores, Inc., today reported net income for the nine month period ended March 26 was $1,250,257, compared with $1,043,948 for the similar 1959 period.

Berkley's VFW Entry a State Service Winner

An Oakland County VFW post and auxiliary entry has been named one of the six winners in the ninth annual state community service contest sponsored by the VFW.

Named fourth place winner among the six top entries was Berkley Post 9222 and its auxiliary.

Winning top spot among the six finalists was Macomb County Roseville Post 2358 and auxiliary.

The six best Michigan entries will compete in the national contest and the winners will be disclosed during the National VFW Convention at Detroit in August.

Two other area posts received honorable mention in the contest. They are Walled Lake Post 3925, and Center Line Post 6756.

They were among 14 state posts to receive honorable mention.

Average water use per citizen in the United States, counting industrial, personal and other needs, is now estimated to be in the neighborhood of 1,300 gallons daily.

Traffic Deaths Skid in April

Ninety Listed in State With 126 Counted for Same Month in 1959

LANSING (AP)—Deaths on Michigan highways nosedived last month but not enough to pull the state's safety record so far in 1960 ahead of the corresponding period of 1959.

★ ★ ★

Ninety fatalities were recorded in April, with prospects the figure will be raised by delayed deaths. The firm total for April a year ago was 126, or 36 higher.

After four months, the 1960 death toll stood nevertheless at 400 compared with 362 for the first third of 1959, an increase of 38.

State police statisticians said the favorable April showing in part reflected comparison with an abnormally high toll for April 1959, and thus was not as encouraging as at first might appear.

Final data on March showed there were 101 killed, 6,345 persons injured and 18,579 reported accidents, increases of 11, 47 and 30 per cent over March 1959.

Analysis of the first quarter of the year disclosed a 41 per cent increase in urban fatalities, a 17 per cent rise in rural deaths and a 10 per cent decrease in pedestrian fatalities.

DRIVER DIES — Stock car race driver Schyler Crofoot, 36, Elkhart, Ind., was killed Monday when the car he was driving on U.S. 33 near Elkhart rammed into the side of a semi-trailer truck. The rear of the car juts out from under the truck.

Sales, Use Tax Set Record

Levies Top Last March by 9 Pct.; $500,000 Laid to Auto Spurt

LANSING (AP)—Sales and use tax collections of $29,609,880 in April on March business were the largest on record, the State Revenue Department reported Monday.

Clarence W. Lock, state revenue commissioner, reported the total as $2,407,579 more than the $27,202,300 collected during the same month last year, a nine per cent increase.

Lock said three new changes in the law accounted for about $1,500,000 of the increase. These were the inclusion of hotels and motels, telephones and government contracts under the tax, he said.

This would make the increase in regular collections just under one million dollars. About half a million dollars of the increase came from a boost in car sales, Lock said.

77 Sunset Strip Star Leaves Wife and Baby

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The marriage of actor Efrem Zimbalist Jr. apparently is heading for the divorce court.

Mrs. Zimbalist said her husband moved out a week ago.

"I don't know who will get the divorce, but I suppose he will," she said. "This was his idea."

Zimbalist is the star of TV's "77 Sunset Strip." He and his wife, married in 1956, have a 3-year-old daughter.

OF ALL WHO TRADE IN FOR OUR 1960 MODELS—

71% Switch From Other Makes To Rambler!

RAMBLER

HERE'S WHY THOUSANDS OF "OTHER MAKE" OWNERS SWITCH TO RAMBLER EVERY WEEK!

There are many good reasons why astute car buyers are switching to Rambler in record-breaking numbers. They have learned that Rambler offers the highest standards of quality in the industry . . . with prices starting well below any other U.S. car. They know that only Rambler balances big car room and comfort with small car economy and handling ease. They know that Rambler is the only compact car proved by 10 years' experience and 25 billion owner-driven miles. As a result, Rambler plants are now operating 24 hours a day, six days a week, to meet record demand.

RAMBLER IS FIRST IN VALUE! Rambler offers highest quality in all 33 models . . . the proven quality of Single-Unit* construction and Deep-Dip* rustproofing. The Rambler American is the lowest-priced U.S.-built car. The Rambler Six and Rebel V-8—while providing as much room and comfort as bigger cars—are priced well below them. And the Ambassador V-8 by Rambler—America's only compact luxury car—saves hundreds of dollars over any other luxury automobile.

RAMBLER IS FIRST IN ECONOMY! Rambler's remarkable economy has been amply proved by official tests and in billions of owner-driven miles. Recently, one model—the Rambler American Custom with automatic transmission—topped all other cars in all classes with most miles per gallon in the 1960 Mobilgas Economy Run.

RAMBLER IS FIRST IN OWNER SATISFACTION! Actual official registrations show that Rambler enjoys the highest owner loyalty in the industry. Most Rambler owners buy Rambler again and again. See your Rambler dealer now during his "Sales Spectacular." Get a Spectacular Deal!

5 State Primaries in Spotlight Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters ballot in five primaries today. Three touch the fortunes of presidential candidates. One focuses on civil rights. The fifth is a local affair.

★ ★ ★

The primaries in Indiana, Ohio, and the District of Columbia affect the candidates for the Democratic and Republican presidential nominations.

The primary in Alabama sends some signs to Democrats on whether to expect a Southern bolt over civil rights at the national convention in July.

The primary in Florida nominates candidates for governor, Congress, and the State Legislature.

★ ★ ★

The day's major interest will center on the showings of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts in Indiana and Ohio.

The Republican totals for Nixon and delegates pledged to him will be compared with the Democratic totals for Kennedy and those pledged to him.

Supporters of Adlai E. Stevenson hope the day will show a burst of popularity for him in the District of Columbia even though his name is not on the Democratic ballot there.

★ ★ ★

The only candidates on the ballot are Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Wayne Morse of Oregon.

In Indiana, more than 700,000 persons are expected to vote. Kennedy and Nixon have only minor opposition on the presidential preference ballots.

Victories would bind Indiana's 34 Democratic convention votes to Kennedy and its 32 Republican convention votes to Nixon on the first ballots.

Republicans have won every presidential election in Indiana since 1936. In the 1956 primary, President Eisenhower's Republican total topped Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee's Democratic total by a 3-2 margin.

In view of this, Kennedy would add considerable momentum to his drive for the nomination if he should outpoll Nixon.

In Ohio, cool, sunny weather may insure that more than 1¼ million residents will vote. Intramural fighting within both parties has perked up interest in the primary.

In Southfield Barns

Five Horses Die in Blaze

A blaze firemen believe was started by faulty wiring yesterday killed five saddle horses and destroyed two small barns in Southfield.

★ ★ ★

The owner of the horses, Robert Petke of 27375 Northwestern Hwy., estimated the total loss at $7,000. He was renting the frame buildings from the Rosehill Realty Co., Southfield.

The only person in one of the barns when the blaze broke out, caretaker Ronnie Graham, 62, was unable to save any of the horses stabled there. Flames spread too rapidly.

He was barely able to flee the fire in time himself, Southfield firemen said.

The barns already were enveloped in flames when firemen arrived., They were further hampered by a lack of water in the area.

★ ★ ★

A second fire in Southfield last night destroyed a house trailer at Phons Lake House Trailer Park, 3000 Southfield Rd.

★ ★ ★

Unoccupied at the time, the trailer was owned by James Shelley.

★ ★ ★

Talks Expected in Bus Strike

Great Lakes and Union Plan to Hold Meeting on Wednesday

The first meeting between union and management since 56 mechanics of the Great Lakes Transit Co. went on strike Saturday is expected to take place tomorrow, a union representative said today.

More than 25,000 commuters from Oakland County and downriver Detroit have had to find other means of transportation since bus service to the communities was halted Sunday. Contract negotiations had bogged down over a wage increase at the company's two garages.

Plans are being made for a meeting tomorrow, according to Kenneth Morris coregional director for Region 1 of the UAW.

He said that a time and place had not been selected as yet but should be announced late today or early tomorrow.

The maintenance workers are members of UAW Local 417 in Birmingham and Local 563 in Wyandotte.

★ ★ ★

Bus drivers at the garages, members of AFL-CIO Local 1303 have refused to cross the picket lines at the garages.

The mechanics are asking a three-year contract with 10 cents an hour raise. They are being paid $2.87 an hour.

Airline Workers Who Hold Stock Challenge Board

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Employes of Capital Airlines have started a proxy fight to unseat the present management of the debt-ridden company, which they say has given "poor leadership."

Charles E. Beatley Jr., president of Capital Shareholders Assn., said the group would seek an immediate stockholders meeting and push for election of new officers and directors of the company. Present directors were re-elected just two weeks ago.

Capital President David H. Baker said he would have no comment on the association's statements until he has time to examine them.

Japanese men average about five feet three inches in height and the women are about four to five inches less.

A wonderful gift for Mother...

a Princess phone of her own

The lovely, little Princess phone is the ideal gift for Mother. It's a gift she'll appreciate for years—because it offers so many features she'd like to have in an extension phone.

It's small—to take up less room on desk, table or kitchen counter.

It's modern—styled to go anywhere in your home, and go beautifully. And it comes in a choice of five decorator colors—white, beige, pink, blue and turquoise.

The dial lights up. It glows in the dark and, when you lift the receiver, lights up brightly to make dialing easy.

Order a Princess phone from your telephone business office. You can have it installed by Mother's Day if you call promptly.

Spies Peek Around Auto Industry Plants

By JACK VANDENBERG
UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT — The auto industry operates one of the largest espionage setups in the world outside of official government circles.

Right now almost any auto company could tell you—but won't—what its competitors have on the drawing boards for 1962.

All of the auto companies are making advertising plans and adjustments in their own products to offset the innovations their competitors plan for 1961, secrets which will not be revealed to the public until next fall.

For example, last fall Ford came out with an advertisement showing how an arrow weighted in the rear went astray while an arrow weighted in the front went directly to the target.

The advertisement, which took several months of preparation, appeared just before Chevrolet introduced its new Corvair, with the engine in the rear.

Ford knew far in advance of the public introduction of the Corvair that it would have the engine in the rear and planned its advertising campaign accordingly.

Actually, spies for the various companies exchange information among themselves long before the auto companies are willing to make the same information public.

* * *

They know it generally requires a production lead time of about three years to build a car. Even an expensive crash program can't bring out an entirely new car in less than 18 months to two years.

So in the later stages of development of a car, the auto companies aren't too worried about their competitors matching their offerings.

But the auto makers feel they can be severely hurt by information leaking to the public too far in advance of introduction of new models. They feel many prospective customers for their current models, might delay their purchases a year if they knew what was coming up in the future.

If competing companies know about another company's product and advance information will hurt the other company's sales, why doesn't the highly competitive auto industry reveal all it knows about the opposition?

* * *

One answer is fear of retaliation. Another is that would be like advertising their competitors' product once it is introduced. And a third is that they may have some misinformation.

HAPPENED TO FORD

This happened to Ford three years ago.

At a press preview of the 1957 Fords, that company suddenly decided to show its retractable convertible to reporters. The very next day, Chevrolet announced its new fuel injection system at a press conference.

Neither development was a complete surprise. Ford had had the retractable on the planning boards for years and everybody saw fuel injection on experimental engines before it was introduced.

But Ford hurried its decision to show the retractable because of some stray piece of misinformation that Chevrolet was planning to unveil something really startling the day after the Ford introduction.

The industry's spies—many of them former FBI agents who joined the auto industry for higher pay—seldom miss, however.

1949 Ford.

Still spying can sometimes work to the advantage of the company spied upon even when the information is accurate.

* * *

About nine months before the 1949 Pontiac was introduced, George Walker, Ford's chief stylist, discovered the Pontiac featured a spinner arrangement on its grille. So did the Walker-designed

Walker called Pontiac and told them of the coincidence and Pontiac, which was to be introduced later than Ford, avoided the possibility of appearing to copy Ford by making a minor change which corrected the situation.

PRICES

Do things seem to cost more every day? Is there nothing we can do about zooming prices? 64 top representatives of education, labor, business and government say plenty can be done. They met recently at the American Assembly—and concluded that America can enjoy dynamic growth . . . low unemployment . . . and reasonably stable prices. But only if we all work together to achieve these goals. The best way to do this? Make sure there's a steady rise in productivity.

Water Resource Study Urges Better Planning

The Senate Select Committee on National Water Resources has made its report as a guide to sound and effective measures to conserve our water supply.

"The United States is not running out of water," says the committee, "but water trouble threatens because demands are growing faster than facilities are being provided to make the resource available for use and to protect its quality . . . every part of the country now has at least one type of major water problem."

Difficulties become more acute as population expands. Demands on water supplies to meet needs are expected to double by 1980, soaring to a daily consumption of 600 billion gallons. Engineers think that this is close to the ceiling under present techniques.

The problem then is to find ways of expanding our facilities, more intelligent use of existing supplies and new techniques in purification. Authorities believe that the situation can be controlled by larger reservoirs, maximum reuse of water, elimination of pollution and research on more efficient use of present sources.

★ ★ ★

In most areas, according to the Select Committee, the key to adequacy of the water supply is the planned construction of dams and reservoirs to release water as needed for domestic consumption, to dilute pollution, keep navigation moving, generate power and preserve fish and wildlife. Few river basins have anything like adequate reservoir capacity to meet growth needs.

★ ★ ★

The Fact Sheet supplied by the committee states that "the most serious aspect of the national water problem is the lack of public awareness of its existence." That seems to be an exaggeration. Even in this favored Great Lakes area we are acutely aware of lower water tables, greater consumption and pollution.

Brazil's New Capital Emerges From Bush

Brasilia, the new capital of Brazil is 600 miles northwest of the old capital of Rio and far in the interior on a 4,000 foot high central plateau. Although carved out of bush almost overnight, provision for the relocation of government was made in the 1889 constitution. Nothing was done about it until Pres. JUSCELINO KUBITCHEK asked for formal approval three months after his inauguration in April, 1956.

Because under Brazilian law a president can not succeed himself, Pres. Kubitchek had to move fast to make such progress that a new administration would not dare scrap the program. In four years a modern city has been designed as a capital with buildings taking the form of horizontal and vertical slabs, domes, inverted funnels and bowls.

Typical urban problems have been eliminated in building Brasilia. It is unlikely that there ever will be traffic or parking problems. Streets are wide. Tall apartments are built in large parks. Shopping areas are decentralized. But because of its very modern and standardized architecture, it has been the target of some criticism.

★ ★ ★

The point is, however, that this new city opens up virgin territory in the Texas-sized state of Goias. It should attract men and money into the interior for developing Brazil's vast and rich natural resources. By 1963 Brasilia is expected to have a population of 500,000 drawn from overpopulated Rio de Janeiro and other coastal cities. As Pres. Kubitchek recently remarked he has truly "awakened the giant" of Brazil.

MSU Board Decision on ROTC Is Wise

The Board of Trustees of Michigan State University voted 4 to 2 recently to retain compulsory ROTC. We think this was a wise vote and the right stand to take.

★ ★ ★

The following statement by C. Allen Harlan pretty well states the case: "History may be hanging on the decision which we make here."

Compulsory ROTC is nothing new. It became traditional in the land grant colleges during the Civil War. For years it has been the backbone of our officer corps in time of emergency.

★ ★ ★

The training these men have received over the years has been good for the national spirit. It has had a great effect on these young men in pointing out what our Department of Defense stands for. The majority of boys taking ROTC training have been better men for it.

★ ★ ★

We admire the positive answer given by the MSU trustees in considering our national security.

David Lawrence Says:

Many Big Contributors to Treasury

WASHINGTON—If 24 persons got together and decided to give away approximately seven million dollars a year—the money to be used for everything related to the "general welfare"—it would certainly be worthy of mention. Maybe they would even be hailed in their respective communities as public benefactors.

LAWRENCE

Well, it so happens that there are many groups of 24 public benefactors of this kind whose contributions each year remain anonymous. They, therefore, get no accolades from their countrymen.

Were it not for the fact that the Securities and Exchange Commission is required by law to make public the incomes received by the executives in American business, there would be no way to estimate how much is annually given away by these men to the Treasury of the United States to be expended for any purposes that the government may choose.

At the top of the list is Frederic G. Donner, chairman of General Motors Corp., who last year gave nearly $500,000 to the federal government. This was almost three times what he himself retained.

It is interesting to note how many of the business executives are making unprecedentedly large contributions to the public treasury. Taking at random the names of some of the heads of a few large companies listed in the Securities and Exchange Commission records, on file and available to the public, one finds in addition to Donner a substantial number on the "honor roll."

Assuming normal deductions of 10 per cent of total pay, the estimated contributions to the Treasury of the United States are as follows:

John F. Gordon, General Motors Corp., $440,030.

Louis C. Goad, General Motors Corp., $370,415.

Henry Ford II, Ford Motor Co., $345,763.

Ernest R. Breech, Ford Motor Co., $345,763.

Sherrod E. Skinner, General Motors Corp., $340,740.

James E. Goodman, General Motors Corp., $327,090.

Cyrus R. Osborn, General Motors Corp., $312,092.

George Russell, General Motors Corp., $306,773.

Arthur B. Homer, Bethlehem Steel Corp., $282,866.

John Dykstra, Ford Motor Co., $277,910.

William T. Gossett, Ford Motor Co., $269,135.

Hugh Robertson, Zenith Radio Corp., $268,093.

J. W. Schwab, United Merchants and Manufacturers, $263,928.

C. M. White, Republic Steel Corp., $256,772.

Samuel Bronfman, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams Ltd., $242,802.

C. H. Greenewalt, E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co., $237,136.

John S. Bugas, Ford Motor Co., $227,960.

Irving A. Duffy, Ford Motor Co., $227,960.

E. H. Little, Colgate-Palmolive Co., $219,902.

Roy T. Hurley, Curtiss-Wright Corp., $219,502.

Morse G. Dial, Union Carbide Corp., $217,499.

W. K. Whiteford, Gulf Oil Corp., $215,901.

Thomas E. Millsop, National Steel Corp., $211,972.

Now, of course, some individuals give away large sums to private charity, and this would lessen the amounts given to the U. S. Treasury, but, generally speaking, the above table—which is based on total compensation, including bonuses—tells the story of what several successful American businessmen are doing, under a free-enterprise system, to support the finances of their government and private charity.

Not so many years ago it was considered a good salary if an executive in a big industry received $75,000 a year. Actually, very few executives today retain the equal of that amount in purchasing power. For the dollar today is worth only 47 cents as compared with the dollar of 1939. Union members in many industries, on the other hand, get around three times what they used to earn in 1939, so they are not affected as much by the drop in purchasing power of the dollar.

The story would not be complete, however, without referring to the opportunity the executives have in many businesses to buy the stock of the very companies whose value they are helping to enhance by their daily work. Were it not for such incentives, the enthusiasm of the managers of American business would long ago have faltered.

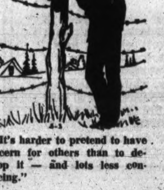
The Country Parson



"It's harder to pretend to have concern for others than to develop it — and lots less convincing."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium Capsules Are Key to Happy Remarriage

"Five years ago I remarried, and my husband had terrific leg cramps, which nothing seemed to help. One day I read your article and sent for your free pamphlet (Adult Tetany and Growing Pains, for which send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope). Now he enjoys life, free from the dreadful pains he used to have.

DR. BRADY

"We have reshingled and painted our home, refinished the basement, redecorated rooms, etc. I have learned to use a paint brush and a hammer, work in the garden and, best of all bait a hook and catch some trout.

"Our life together is one of complete harmony. My husband is 67 and I am 53. We both lost our first mates, about two months apart. We each have a son and a daughter, all married. I have five grandchildren and my husband has four.

"I wholly recommend remarriage. Our children are happy and so are we. Our puppy, a year old, is a wonderful companion to us.

"My husband works every day as a ———, has a nap every afternoon, then dinner, and in the evening we take a walk with our dog . . .

"Calcium capsules are a must here. Also I see to it that we each consume three glasses of milk every day.

I hope this picture of bliss may inspire other widows and widowers to follow suit. Health and good nutrition help a lot, but for contentment add a good measure of companionship.

★ ★ ★

So thankful for the pamphlet on deafness, As long as I do the exercises you prescribe my hearing is as clear as a bell. My father grew progressively deaf as the years passed, and I'm sure that would have been my lot but for your teaching. (Mrs. B.J.)

Ans.—It's possible. On written request any reader who provides stamped, self-addressed envelope may have the pamphlet Deafness and Tinnitus (head noises). It contains instructions for the exercises Mrs. J. mentions.

Recipes for using whole wheat . . . (Mrs. L.I.B.)

Ans. — Several such recipes, sent to me by readers, are given in the pamphlet Wheat to Eat, for which send stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

'That's Quite a Fancy Menu at the Free Lunch Counter'

Have you noticed the menu on the free lunch counter lately?

The Forand Bill — free medical aid to the aged. Free Federal money for schools for the young.

Free Federal money for public housing the ne'er-do-well.

Free Federal money for depressed areas where unrest has driven out business.

Free Federal money for the farmer which helps the bureaucrat.

Free Federal money for public power for the Socialists to play with.

Free Federal money for South America land reforms for the "Dogooders."

Free Federal money for the cranberry grower who was injured by a stupid or dishonest politician who hasn't been fired as he should have been.

Free Federal money to entertain murderers and thieves like Khrushchev.

Free Federal money for everything or anything.

Mr. Downes Again Defends His Stand

Pontiac school district takes in parts of Bloomfield, West Bloomfield, Sylvan Village, Orion, Avon and Pontiac Townships. I'm still for the kids and teachers. But do we need this 2.8 mills at this time? They're taking in this year over $10 million, and Dr. Whitmer admitted it to me, and the County has knocked the props right out from under the School Board.

★ ★ ★

See Thursday's Press for the increase of State equalization for the City of Pontiac alone, a raise of $12,759,545. This means an increase of new revenue of $231,331.55 next year without any so-called seven per cent increase. It is wrong for me not to bring these matters to the general public.

I'd like to know where Glenn Griffin got these latest figures of $9,746,375, as Dr. Whitmer gave me a bulletin two weeks ago which says $9,646,375 total including debt service. I'm wondering where the $100,000 difference came from. Also according to this bulletin, it says the debt service for next year drops $728,000 from what they paid this year. Also, their figures were based on the State equalized valuation dropping to $345 million this year and 1961 from $348 million, whereas it is jumping up in a hurry.

This whole matter on the part of the School Board was loss in income and that's why they needed the extra millage, whereas they're not losing it. They're getting it back in a hurry and if anyone can shown me they needed it, I'd be on their firing line in a hurry.

League Clarifies Cancellation of Meeting

The League of Women Voters scheduled a meeting for April 27 on the school millage proposal. Both sides agreed. We weren't told who the speaker for the school administration would be. Dr. Whitmer told us he wouldn't be able to speak on that date and a week before the meeting we learned no spokesman for the "pro" side of the issue was available that date. An offer was made by Dr. Whitmer to have a speaker on May 4. Due to other League plans, we couldn't change our date. The notice of cancellation in The Press was only to let members know the meeting wouldn't be held. We didn't mean that anyone was remiss or trying to evade the debate.

Laura Belz, President

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Use Horse Sense With First Aid

Don't "blindly" follow first aid advice but mix a little gumption or "horse sense" with your handling of accidents. Scrapbook this case. And discuss it at the dinner table so even your children will know how to meet a crisis.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E - 450: Harry B., aged 34, was walking along in front of the Chicago Tribune during a blizzardy day in winter.

A sudden gust of wind blew his hat into Michigan Avenue, and Harry darted after it.

DR. CRANE

Alas, the street was full of swiftly moving cars, so Harry was struck and both legs were broken. He was carried to the sidewalk to await the arrival of an ambulance.

"Let's take him inside where it is warm," a passerby suggested, for the temperature was near zero and a stiff wind was blowing.

★ ★ ★

"No, you must NEVER move an injured person," came the rejoinder.

As a result, Harry lay there for 25 full minutes, already in a state of shock from the double fractures, and now chilling to death by the frigid wind.

He later died at the hospital. So let me give you some long needed medico-psychological facts regarding safety!

(1) Don't unnecessarily move fractured cases — BUT, don't leave such a victim lying in frigid temperatures very long!

If Harry could be carried 20 feet to the sidewalk, he could have been carried another 100 feet inside the warm lobby of the Tribune Building!

★ ★ ★

So use a little "horse sense" with your first aid. Don't just parrot textbook advice or routine suggestions in your Boy Scout manuals!

(2) If a person is struck by lightning or a car or is otherwise badly injured, don't panic. Instead, make sure he is breathing. If not, give him artificial respiration.

And, if bleeding occurs, then stop it. Don't fret in an emergency about where to apply a tourniquet. Press hard right over the cut and you'll generally stop bleeding, even without a tourniquet.

If the victim is breathing and you have his bleeding stopped, then that's about all a layman can do till a doctor arrives, except to keep him warm and if he is conscious reassure him that an ambulance will soon pick him up.

HOME MEDICINE

Remember, too, that soapsuds made a very good disinfectant. In fact, some surgeons never paint the skin with iodine or other medical antiseptics, but just use strong soapsuds!

★ ★ ★

For soap forms an alkali in water and this kills germs. A similar alkaline treatment helps stop the midnight throbbing of a tooth with exposed pulp.

Just stick a little dry baking soda in the cavity, and the aching will usually cease till you can get to your dentist next morning for more complete care.

If you are sensitive to poison ivy, lather your skin with strong soapsuds before you go on a hike and let the suds dry on your skin. As soon as you return, then lather up again and wash thoroughly, for the soap removes the oily exudate of the ivy, which contains the irritating substance.

If a person swallows lye or other caustic alkali, quickly drink water and vinegar, or fruit juices, and aspirin (which is also an acid).

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF AN ACCIDENT
E-450

On the contrary, if a person swallows acid, drink plenty of water but try to get baking soda or soapsuds down the hatch as soon as possible, for they neutralize acid and vice versa.

For poison cases, dilute fast with liquids, such as water and milk. And produce vomiting as soon as possible until stomach pumping can occur.

Meg Isn't the Only One Who Finds Him Fascinating

Antony's Gay and Charming, but Not the Wild Sort

By EDDIE GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — Antony Armstrong-Jones is a charming young man with golden hair and big blue eyes.

He is colorful, but not flamboyant.

He has been a bit of a Bohemian, but not in the grand eccentric manner.

He used to give midnight parties in his arty basement apartment, but they were never the wild abandoned revels that some people imagine.

He is a witty commentator on people, places and things, but lacking the mature wisdom or wit of a man of the world.

Tony is 30.

* * *

He is known and liked by widely varying people—London toughies, wan young men, debutantes, stylishly sloppy juveniles, actors and actresses, exotic beauties, and aristocrats as well as average subjects of the crown.

WASN'T MARRYING KIND

Although highly attractive to women he was not—until he wooed Princess Margaret — regarded by girls as the marrying kind.

Yet among this varied circle of friends few, if any, ever have been known to say they don't like him.

* * *

In describing him they invariably use the word charming.

Four years ago he pointed a camera at the Duke of Kent—and fate stared over his shoulder.

With that snap of a shutter he was on his way down the royal road of romance.

The then 21-year-old duke liked what Tony's camera did for his hardly classical features.

More important, perhaps, the duke's mother liked the picture, and the Duchess of Kent is an arbiter of fashion behind Britain's royal family.

MADE AT 26

Tony was then only 26.

One of the persons to whom the duchess spoke was Queen Elizabeth II.

Impressed, the Queen commissioned Tony to photograph her children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne.

Tony scored a royal double and then parlayed this into a commission to take Princess Margaret's official birthday photograph.

Entering her last year before she would be 30, the spinster princess not only liked Armstrong-Jones' portrait, but liked bachelor Tony. They had met earlier at a party.

* * *

Tony's success in life began with a failure—when he flunked his examinations at Cambridge.

Tony became an apprentice to the late Baron Nahum, a photographer to the royal court.

He applied himself and set himself up in a former hardware shop in London's unfashionable Pimlico section.

Here he took pictures, entertained friends, did his own cooking and threw gay parties, some noisy but not naughty.

HAD POLIO AS CHILD

As a child Tony had polio.

In overcoming a slight limp he developed a rapid, almost bounding way of walking. But no one ever called him a bounder.

He and actress-model Jackie Chan were very close friends.

Another great friend was Jane Baker, 24-year-old niece of Lord Bridport.

"You know," she once recalled, "Tony just didn't seem the marrying kind."

* * *

Tony—and that's the way he likes to be known—is 5-feet-4 and slight with a head like an Adonis.

In his active photographer days, he dressed in tight-fitting jeans or cavalry twill slacks and a large bulky sweater.

He did not like ties.

HE'S A NEW MAN

Now all this has changed.

As the man who will marry the Queen's sister, he wears dark tailored lounge suits and always a tie.

As the husband of Princess Margaret he will probably never have to worry about money.

* * *

But some who know the princess say he may have other worries.

She is headstrong and outspoken. She can sulk, fume, flash her pale blue eyes, stomp her tiny feet and wither listeners with sarcasm.

But she can also be gracious, friendly and entertaining.

They appear to be deeply in love.

Gas May Rise by $1.35 a Month

Consolidated Asks for Permission to Raise Rates $14 Million

LANSING (UPI)—The gas bill of the average householder will be raised $1.35 a month if the State Public Service Commission approves a revenue increase asked by Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

Hugh C. Daly, executive vice president, told the commission yesterday the utility would justify an annual $14,370,000 annual rate increase.

"It sounds like a lot in a lump sum," said Daly, "but it scales down to 4½ cents a day for the average user."

More than half of the 850,000 Michigan Consolidated customers are located in the Detroit area. Other major cities served include Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Ann Arbor, Mount Pleasant, Greenville, Belding, Big Rapids, Traverse City, Ludington and Cadillac.

CITES CONSTRUCTION

Daly said Michigan Consolidated has been averaging 28 million dollars a year in new construction for the past five years. He estimated the 1961 bill for new construction at $28,700,000.

"If we get permission to serve the Upper Peninsula, we'd have to spend some eight million dollars more," Daly said. "That would make our 1961 expansion total more than 36 millions."

The last hike granted the utility was a $5,998,000 increase awarded in February 1958.

Half the increase, or $7,173,000, Daly said, is needed to offset the higher cost of buying bulk gas from the American-Louisiana Pipeline Co.

The Federal Power Commission authorized a former supplier—Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co.—to stop selling gas to Michigan Consolidated last fall.

Algerian Rebel Gets 9th Death Sentence

MARSEILLE, France (AP) — Omar Haraigue, head of the Algerian rebel organization in southeast France, now has been sentenced to death nine times. The French still have to catch him.

A military court Monday handed down the ninth death sentence against the 33-year-old Algerian after convicting him of helping plant a bomb on the liner President de Cazelet in 1958. The explosion 20 miles off Marseille, killed one crewman and injured 11 other persons.

Haraigue has been missing since 1958.

Two other Algerian fugitives also were sentenced to death for the bombing.

2 Probate Court Workers OK'd

To Handle Mentally Ill; County Also Will Hire Adviser, Register Aide

Two new Probate Court workers, to help in the investigation and reimbursement surrounding mentally ill hospitalization cases, were approved yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

* * *

The request came from Judge Arthur E. Moore following criticism from some supervisors. They said citizens had complained about collection procedures employed by Mrs. Mary W. Shanks, county reimbursement director.

Approved was the hiring, to cost the county $7,283 the rest of the year, of a legal adviser and assistant deputy probate register.

The advisor's yearly pay will be $7,300 and the register's $3,650.

* * *

Salaries for the rest of this year will come from the county's contingent fund.

'Bug' Gets Swatted

CARMEL, N.Y. (AP) — When police stopped a car carrying three teen-agers, they found five shotguns and a revolver.

"I'm a bug on guns," said one of the boys.

Police, realizing that there are certain limitations to hobbies, booked the trio for illegal possession of weapons.

Requested Millage Means $2.3 Million in 5 Years

Over the next five years the 2.8 mills tax increase sought by the Pontiac Board of Education would bring in $2,308,506 in added income, according to Otto C. Hufziger, assistant superintendent of schools.

During the same period, it will cost $52 million to finance the school system, Supt. of Schools Dana P. Whitmer pointed out recently, in outlining a 10-point program of goals for the school system.

According to School Board plans, 1.4 mills of the increase will replace an equal amount of allocated millage in Pontiac. Thus, the net increase in Pontiac would be 1.4 mills.

Township areas of the school district would have a net increase of 2.8 mills since their present allocated millage for schools is now 1.4 mills less than that of the city, Hufziger said.

The need for the additional income was determined after study of projected needs for the schools and income for 1960-1965 by the Board since last October.

Enrollment increases, the rising cost of living index, and educational improvements were considered. It is the view of the Board that this long range financial planning is important to provide financial stability in the schools, and avoid unexpected crises, the official stated.

★ ★ ★

The results of this study appear in the published document, "The Financial Needs for Operation 1960-65 of The School District of the City of Pontiac, Oakland County, Michigan."

This report shows predicted operating deficits each year of the five year period in varying amounts. The amount to be used each year is as follows: 1960 — $86,320, 1961 — $523,796, 1962 — $815,875, 1963 — $355,141, and 1964 — $527,374. The cumulated deficit is estimated at $2,308,506.

This sum determined the amount of additional millage which is proposed by the Board of Education.

If the 1.4 mills were not voted for the 1960-65 period, it would be necessary to vote every year for that additional income needed that year, board members felt.

School officials point out that the proposed increase in income is not large for the Pontiac School System which will have an average enrollment of approximately 21,300 pupils in the next five years.

They also point out that unless income is increased, many of the quality features in the educational program cannot be continued.

Upjohn Co. Reports 16 Pct. Profit Rise

KALAMAZOO (AP)—The Upjohn Co. Monday reported profits of $5,869,000 for the first quarter of this year. An increase of 16.2 per cent over the same period a year ago.

★ ★ ★

Earnings amounted to 42 cents a common share against 36 cents for the first quarter of 1959.

★ ★ ★

Dr. E. Gifford Upjohn, president of the drug firm, told stockholders that a 7.8 per cent increase in sales "is due in part to the greater than normal incidence of influenza in this country early this year, reflected in the sale of products used in the treatment of upper respiratory infections."

ARRESTED FOR PLANE BOMB HOAX — Barbara Nicholson, 16, right, was arrested in Milwaukee by the FBI Monday night for making a false bomb report involving an Ozark Airlines plane last week at Moline, Ill. Her mother Myrtle and brother Richard used their coats to hide from the camera. Barbara was released on $3,000 bond for a hearing May 16. The FBI said she made the false report in order to delay her return home.

Roach, Broke Before, Back With Comedies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "What happened was that my son lost 6½ million dollars in four months."

THOMAS

This was Hal Roach Sr. telling why at the age of 68 he is deep in plans to revive his famous fun factory.

"I thought I was all fixed for an income of $60,000 a year for the rest of my life," said the pioneer comedy producer. "One day I woke up and discovered I wouldn't be assured of that income. It was coming from Hal Roach Productions, which was broke. So I had to go back in business."

★ ★ ★

The reason for the Roach debacle was a stock manipulator named Alexander Guterma. Hal Roach Jr., who had been guiding the studio fortunes, got the company enmeshed in the Guterma empire, which had swallowed other reputable concerns. When the Guterma bubble burst, the Roach millions exploded with it.

★ ★ ★

Friends say there is no bitterness between father and son. Nor does Roach Sr. appear to be brooding over the loss: "I've been broke before," he says. Now he is turning to what he knows best: the business of making people laugh.

"I don't think the public is getting enough good comedy nowadays, either in movies or on TV," he said. "Most of the TV comedy is the kind of thing you get on the stage. It's not the kind of sight comedy that we had to develop before the movies had sound."

Roach hopes to supply that kind of comedy. He plans an hour-long TV format that would include all kinds of comedy and 45-minute "streamliners" which would complete a double bill with one of today's extra-length movies.

"I want to sign to 40-week contracts the best comedy performers, writers and directors I can get," he said. "I won't go after stars like Jerry Lewis and Red Skelton, because they're too expensive and I want to limit each performer to 10-minute routines."

Among those he has approached: Buster Keaton, Imogene Coca, Alan Young, Ed Gardner, Zasu Pitts, Reginald Gardiner, Eddie Bracken. All expressed a willingness, he said.

As proof of the public yen for comedy, Roach cited the continuing TV popularity of his Laurel and Hardy comedies—"and I haven't made one in 25 years."

★ ★ ★

Roach, still a big, chunky man with a hearty air, outlined some of the comedy situations he had in mind. They sounded hilarious. "People ask me what I'm going to do for scripts," he laughed. "Heck, all I have to do is remember."

Nobody Knows Cause of Cancer: Surgeon

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A surgery professor says "there isn't a man in the world that knows the cause of cancer."

Dr. Thomas H. Burford of the Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis, testified Monday in a cigarette-lung cancer trial. He said anyone attempting to define the cause of lung cancer is "fishing in extremely deep waters."

Marshal Zakharov Gets Sokolovsky Reich Job

MOSCOW (AP)—Marshal M. V. Zakharov, former commander of Soviet troops in East Germany, apparently has replaced Marshal V. D. Sokolovsky as chief of the general staff for the Soviet army and navy.

★ ★ ★

Sokolovsky, 63, has been reported in ill health.

★ ★ ★

Zakharov greeted foreign military attaches at the May Day ceremonies Sunday in Red Square. A veteran of the Bolshevik revolution, Zakharov took part in the storming of the Winter Palace in 1917.

Throng of Voices Will Present PCH Concert

Pontiac Press Photos

"Life Is a Beautiful Thing" when it's spring, and you're decked out in gay formal attire. It's also the title of one of the concluding numbers Pontiac Central High School's A Capella Choir will sing Thursday and Friday evenings. Members from left are Gary Bowes of Chamberlain street, Vicki Annas of East Iroquois road, Ruth Bell of Hudson avenue and Gary Harnack of Oneida road.

A silver anniversary presentation of Pontiac Central High School's annual "Say It With Music" concert is set for 8 Thursday and Friday evenings.

Music groups encompassing more than 500 voices will present a varied program.

* * *

Music department staff working with their groups include A. Michael Dempsey, director of Glee Clubs, Songspinners, Selective Girls' Glee Club and Junior Girls and Senior Boys' ensembles.

Richard A. Morse director of band and wind ensembles and Robert M. Peterson, director of orchestra and string ensembles have worked closely with Mrs. Doreen B. Voltmann in preparing the program.

Mrs. Voltmann directs the A Capella Choir, Glee Clubs, Harmonaires, Select Boys' Chorus and Senior Girls' ensemble.

* * *

The orchestra and instrumentalists will be programed for the first in the 25 years of the concert's history. The orchestra will present the first movement of Mozart's "Sinfonietta in D" and will accompany oboist Larry Reynells and duo-pianists Gary and Deanna Relyea in their featured numbers.

Twenty foot gold organ pipes will be the background setting for the A Capella Choir's numbers. Choir members will be wearing new gold stoles to mark the occasion.

Other soloists featured will include Michael Pierce, Ted Purdy and John Cummins in a drum trio; and Larry Green presenting an alto sax solo.

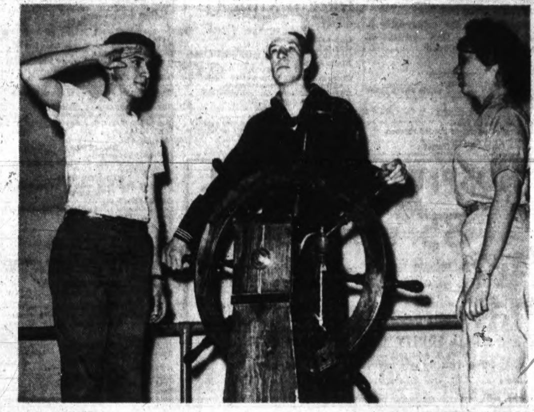
Emmy Hardy and Judy King will sing a duet, "One Girl in Every Port," arranged by Mrs. Voltmann.

Final numbers by the massed groups will be conducted by George Putnam, director of instrumental and secondary vocal music in the Pontiac Schools.

Concert accompanists and organists will be Karen Broncel, Judy Hinkley, Deanna Relyea, Gary Relyea, Harold Tate, Carol Wargelin and Diane Williams.

All seats are reserved but tickets will be available at the door.

Three Pages Today in Women's Section



Boys' Glee Club members are joined by Judy King, right, of Steinbaugh court who will sing in a nautical duet. Adding salt to the program are sailors Ed Haroutunian, left, of Douglas street and David Douglas of Ottawa drive.

His Wife Should Get on the Ball

Bowls 'Em Over at the Alley

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: My husband has personality plus. All the women make a fuss over him and he eats it up. He's a good-looker and doesn't show his age (49). I am 47 and nothing special. Albert bowls with a mixed group from work.

I can't bowl because I have a bad back. The bowlers had their pictures taken in a group. Wives with husbands, friends with friends, etc. But Albert was the only one in the picture holding a girl (young, pretty and single) on his lap. This picture got in the local paper, and the bowling alley even put it up on the bulletin board.

Everyone I know saw the picture and laughed about it. Plenty of remarks were passed. How would you take this, Abby?

BOWLER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I'd try to take it like a good sport. Your husband is at the dangerous age. Help him stay out of trouble by keeping an eye on him. If he needs constant reassurance that he's desirable — reassure him. If you can't bowl, go along and keep score. (At least that way you'll know what the score is.)

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me what to do. A few months ago I met a young man and I like him very much. Whenever we go out to eat, as soon as the meal is over, out comes a toothpick. None of my friends or any of my family use toothpicks in public, Abby, and this disturbs me. I've seen many a glance cast his way and, naturally, I am embarrassed.

He is a nice person, but I can't stand those toothpicks. Should I mention it to him?

EVIE

DEAR EVIE: If you like him and expect to see more of him, tell him in a nice way that the toothpick-in-public bit won't do. If he doesn't accept your constructive criticism like a gentleman—lose him. He will have revealed a more serious fault.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am one of four children. Ellen is 17, Muriel is 15 and I am Shirley, 13. Our baby brother is three and he is our problem. Our mother tells everybody that she has three built-in baby sitters and she means it, too.

She doesn't realize that we girls have things to do and can't be chasing after the baby every evening after school and on weekends. We can't make any plans because she depends on us to watch the baby. Don't you think she could hire a sitter and let us live our own lives?

If she paid us the regular sitters' rate we wouldn't mind helping her out.

BUILT-IN SITTERS

DEAR BUILT: Come now with three young ladies in the home your mother shouldn't have to hire sitters. Surely each of you is able to help out once or twice a week. The experience will come in handy. And it should be a privilege to repay your mother for the hundreds of little favors she has done for you. Shame on you!

P.S. And if your sisters feel the same—triple shame!

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO JOEL AND STEVE: Why look for beer when you have champagne in your refrigerator?

* * *

"What's your problem? Write to Abby in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Meg Using Ballet Style for All 8 Maids' Gowns

LONDON (UPI) — Princess Margaret has turned to the classic ballet in choosing gowns for herself and her eight young bridesmaids at her wedding in Westminster Abbey this Friday, it was disclosed today.

Both the Princess and the prospective groom, Antony Armstrong-Jones, are devotees of the ballet. Its influence will be plainly seen in the splash of white and silver which will mark the royal retinue.

* * *

Exact details of Margaret's gown remain secret. However, it is known to have a long tight bodice with three-quarter sleeves and a flaring, floor-length skirt. The material probably will be organza. She will wear a diamond tiara with her wedding veil.

* * *

Princess Anne, 9-year-old daughter of Queen Elizabeth and the bride's niece, along with seven other girl bridesmaids, will have dresses cut along "little ballerina" lines.

WHITE FEATHERS

They will wear head-bandeaux of small white swans' feathers decorated here and there with crystal.

These were designed by Hugh Skillan who made all the decorative wear for Prima Ballerina Dame Margot Fonteyn and other members of the royal ballet in its new production of "Sleeping Beauty." He is a good friend of the groom's uncle, theatrical designer Oliver Messel.

* * *

To set off her headdress, Princess Margaret will have a special coiffure prepared by Rene Moulin.

* * *

To prevent the possibility of any mussing up, it will be set for her early in the morning before the wedding.

Westminster Abbey has been closed to the public in order to allow officials to prepare the giant hall for the wedding.

A fairy princess wedding cake is being prepared by the British army catering corps for THE Friday wedding. Staff Sgt. Neil Smith paid for and made the five foot, 130 lb. cake after learning Princess Margaret would accept his proffered confection.

Whittier Group Planning Panel About Children

The Preschool Study Group of Whittier PTA will present a special program Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. Ruth Spurlock, local social worker, will speak, preceding a panel on the topic "What The School Expects of Your Child."

* * *

Panelists will include Mrs. Spurlock; Mrs. Pearlina Butler, principal; and Barbara Robinson, kindergarten teacher.

Mrs. Clifford Eason preschool chairman, is program director.

All parents of preschool age children and those with children in school are invited.

Phi Mothers, Daughters Dine

Members of Phi Alpha Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met for a mother-daughter dinner Sunday at the Green Parrot Restaurant.

* * *

Guests were Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, Mrs. William Black, Mrs. Allan F. Earl, Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Mrs. Francis Bennett, Mrs. Frances Tinkis, Mrs. Ralph Dempsey, Mrs. H. H. Cole, Mrs. V. A. Barnard and Mrs. Margaret Johnson.

Open House to Be Held at Camp

Annual spring open house will be observed at Camp Sherwood from 1 to 4 p.m. May 15.

Families of girls new to scouting or camping will tour the camp owned by Northern Oakland County Girl Scout Council and located on Davis Lake north of Lapeer.

* * *

Families may bring a basket lunch and purchase soft drinks, coffee and candy at the snack bar. No fires will be permitted. Tours should be completed at 4 p.m.

* * *

Girl Scouting is an agency of the United Fund. Campers' fees and 85 per cent of the annual cookie sale proceeds help support the group's winter work.

* * *

Clerical help for registrations and a full time council executive are provided by the UF.

Mrs. Roberts Is Singer for Musicale

A program of oratorio music was sung by Mrs. Aubrey Roberts when the Matinee Musicale Club met Sunday at the Ogemaw road home of Chris Griffin. Mrs. Henry Sink accompanied.

Youngsters performing were George Allen, ValJean Simson, Cindy Jones, Beverly Patton, Mary Stewart, Bill Strait, Stephen Hershey, Bonnie Barton, Julie Bird and JoLynn Yansen, all piano.

David Barton played in a violin duet with his sister Bonnie and later presented accordion selections.

Madison PTSA Plans Meeting

Clark Balch will be in charge of the program "Youth Speaks Out" for Madison Junior High School's PTSA meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Seventh and eighth graders will participate.

Following installation of officers refreshments will be served.

Maria Roumell Cheered

Singer Scores Here

By MARJORIE EICHER
Women's Editor
The Pontiac Press

Bravos from a supper club audience rewarded singer Maria Roumell Monday evening when she stepped from her usual concert stage role to that of chanteuse.

Occasion was the closing evening of Kingsley Inn's "April In Paris Festival."

* * *

Accompanied by Danny Varzos, Miss Roumell presented a potpourri of numbers ranging from opera through musical comedy. Her program was international in scope, including a medley of French numbers, selection from "Can Can," the swarthy Spanish "Granada" and a haunting contemporary Greek ballad, "Beautiful Eyes."

Singing with verve and warmth, Miss Roumell revealed a definite and likable style in this lighter vein. Pianist Varzos accompanied with sympathy producing a too infrequently heard ensemble between piano and voice.

Heard locally in the concert version of "Tosca" last fall with the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra, Miss Roummell drew admirers from a broad area.

* * *

Guests at the gala affair included French consul Jean Paul Desparmet and Mme. Desparmet, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Beardon, the Harold Jacobsons, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cole, the George Richmans, Mrs. Alice Tuttle, Dick Lewis, R. W. Moore, Dr. John R. Ylvisaker and party, Lew Wisper and the Jean Pierre Autechauds.

Hostess to Sisterhood

Mrs. Charles L. Coppersmith of Woodland drive, Sylvan Lake, was hostess to Chapter AW of PEO Sisterhood Monday.

* * *

Mrs. James B. Boaz and Mrs. Webster S. Francis reported on the Michigan State Convention held last week at Detroit's Hotel Fort Shelby. Next year's convention will be April 20 to 22 at Muskegon.

Last chapter meeting of the season will be May 16 at the Motorway drive home of Mrs. C. W. Oliver.

Snacks Needn't Be Passed

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Whenever I have guests in for an evening, I usually serve salted nuts, potato chips or some other snack with a drink. I put these snacks on the cocktail table so that guests may help themselves.

My husband thinks I should pass them around to the guests as many people would hesitate to get up and help themselves. I do not think that this is at all necessary and that guests will readily help themselves if they want anything.

* * *

Answer: Guests are expected to help themselves, but if you see they are shy about doing so, you would pass the snacks around at least once and then ask them to please help themselves.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: I am secretary to one of the executives in this firm, and I have a desk just outside my employer's office. When someone comes in and asks to see him, I always ask, "What do you want to see him about?"

I have been told that this is very impertinent on my part and that it isn't any of my business what he wants to see my employer about. Will you please tell me if I am wrong in asking this question?

* * *

Answer: To ask this question of someone who comes into the office regularly would be very impertinent. But to a stranger coming into the office and asking to see Mr. Jones, it is entirely correct to ask the question. A busy person can't be interrupted by everyone who comes into the office.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: When giving a dinner party at home at which place cards are to be used, is a card put at the host and hostess's places too, or are they put only at the guests' places?

* * *

Answer: Only at the guests' places.

Neeb-Nyman Vows Read by Candlelight

Reception for 300 guests at the Italian-American Club followed Saturday nuptials of Florence Marilynn Nyman and Lynn Ray Neeb in St. John Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Arvid Anderson read the candlelight ceremony.

Daughter of the Axel Adamus Nymans of Euclid avenue, the bride chose white chantilly lace over taffeta, designed with tiers of back ruffles. The bodice of lace featured scalloped neckline and long hand-tapered sleeves.

* * *

Mounted on the bride's white satin-covered Bible were pink and white miniature rosebuds. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a jeweled crown.

Kay Harry, honor maid, wore pale blue floor-length chiffon, and bridesmaid Sally Ronthi of Walled Lake chose powder blue. They wore matching veiled headbands and carried pink carnations.

Pfc. Earl C. Neeb of Fort Gordon, Ga., served his brother as best man. They are the sons of Mrs. Marguerite Neeb of Seward street and Edward Howard Neeb of Keego Harbor. Another brother, Clarence, seated the guests with Barry Erickson. Both are of Keego Harbor.

* * *

Dressed as a miniature bridal couple were Susan A. Harroun, flower girl, and Douglas Danielson, ring bearer.

MRS. LYNN RAY NEEB

After a brief northern honeymoon, the newlyweds will live on Euclid avenue.

Guests from Cloquet, Minn., included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Swan Bystrom, and her cousins, Mrs. Howard Johanson and daughter Kay Gean, and the Carl W. Bystroms.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Have you entered the Gerber Happy Future Contest yet? You can win up to $10,000 for your baby's future, a possible cash bonus for yourself. For full details, read the Gerber advertisement in the May issue of most women's magazines or get your entry blank and official contest rules at your grocer's.

•

Do you know that your baby grows at a much faster rate during the first year than the next few put together? That's why he needs plenty of protein foods—the great growing aids of the body.

•

Growth progress gets a real helping hand from meat protein. Gerber Strained and Junior Meats have protein to spare. Made from succulent, selected Armour cuts, they're specially processed to preserve true-meat flavors and the utmost in nutritive values. Gerber Meats for Babies are notable for their smooth, moist texture and easy digestibility. 8 strained and 5 junior varieties—all prepared for your baby's pleasure. Armour Meat Protein is complete protein, supplying all the essential amino acids that build and rebuild vital body tissues.

•

Growth progress gets another helping hand from Gerber Strained and Junior High Meat Dinners. That's because they have heaps of meat and a goodly share of protein. And all this savory meat is subtly blended with selected vegetables for especially interesting flavor and a good assortment of nutrients. Beef, Veal, Chicken, Turkey and the new Ham with Vegetables.

•

Shampoo cue. Easy way to prevent stinging eyes during shampoo time: rub a bit of cold cream above baby's eyebrows. Wonderful how it side-tracks suds and keeps 'em from trickling into baby's sparkling eyes. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.

Assisting Mrs. Strickland are Mrs. Brady B. Adams, Mrs. Frank Gray, Mrs. Fred L. Haushalter, Mrs. Allen Priestly and Mrs. Allan Hersee.

Now Redistribue Weight

Nine-Day Diet Nears End

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Tomorrow is the last day of my 9-Day Reducing Diet for those of you who started when the diet first appeared in this newspaper. The day after tomorrow is the day on which to weigh and measure yourself. When you measure be certain to wear the same bra you have worn for the first measurement.

If your measurements were out of proportion when you started dieting, they probably will still be so, although you will be smaller all over. Exercise is the only way to redistribute your weight more attractively.

EXERCISE

The day after tomorrow, after weighing and measuring yourself, decide which measurement or measurements are out of line and begin exercising regularly to correct any defects.

Most of you know that there should not be more than two inches difference between the bust and the hips and that the waist should be 10 inches smaller than the hips.

Not every woman can achieve these proportions, because of differences in bone structure, but if your waist, hips or bust are way out of line concentrate on exercises which are corrective to your particular figure fault.

★ ★ ★

I will be glad to send these to any of you who wish to have them. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request, please.

After tomorrow begin gradually increasing your daily calorie intake. Feel your way along and watch the scales.

Here are the menus for tomorrow:

BREAKFAST
One poached egg
One thin slice whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON
Salad made of shredded lettuce and one medium tomato (Lemon for dressing)
Two tablespoons cottage cheese
One glass skimmed milk
One-half grapefruit

DINNER
Broiled liver
One portion spinach
One portion beets
One glass skimmed milk
One orange

If you would like to have my complete 9-Day Diet in a booklet which also has a weight and height chart and a list of substitute foods, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

If your measurements were out of proportion when you started dieting, they probably still will be so, although you will be smaller all over. Exercise is the only way to redistribute your weight more attractively.

TENSE MOMENT — Rehearsing a gripping scene from the Romeo Players' forthcoming production of the two-act play, "Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams are the four members of the cast. They are, from left, Thomas H. Williams, Mrs. Louis R. Wolf, Jane Johns and J. Gerald McLean. The play will be presented at 8:15 p. m. Friday and Saturday at the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center. Mrs. Philip M. Stone and McLean are codirectors of the production.

South Lyon Treasurer Appointed City Clerk

SOUTH LYON — City Treasurer Thurman Bunn was appointed city clerk last night by the Council. He will take over the post June 1.

The appointment was made following the resignation of Arthur C. Digby, who came out of retirement to take over the post last August.

Digby, 77, told the Council in resigning that the "work was getting too much to handle and I better get out of it."

Due to his failing eyesight, his wife had been helping him since he took over the post, Digby said, and the paper work was becoming a "strain" on both of them.

* * *

The new clerk was named treasurer last December when he replaced William C. Troost. Bunn, 61, lives at 415 W. Lake St. with his wife, Ruby.

He is co-owner of a coal and feed supply company in the city.

Recommended to take over the treasurer's job was Mrs. Russell P. Sopp, 610 W. Lake St.

The appointment is expected to be confirmed this week.

SET POLICE STUDY

Mayor Ross Sinclair and Councilman Robert McFarland will meet this week to study police needs for the city.

The two men appointed themselves a committee to make the report following a discussion of the three-man police department.

During the discussion it was learned that three days of the week in the morning hours the city was without police protection.

* * *

Newly appointed Police Chief Lyle Gillespie told the Council that he can work his department four days a week 24 hours a days, but that seven 24 hour days were impossible.

"The men have to have some time off," he said.

ANOTHER NEEDED

Mayor Sinclair said another man was needed for the department.

"You can't stretch three men to do four men's work," he said.

* * *

At the meeting between Sinclair and McFarland Wednesday, it also will be decided if the police force should be deputized instead of appointing a constable.

A $28,169 paving and curbing contract was awarded to the Washtenaw Asphalt Co. of Ann Arbor for its low bid on the work to be done on Whipple and Liberty streets.

The contract includes the construction of a storm sewer on Liberty street.

* * *

Tabled for further study was a proposal from planning consultants Waring and Johnson of Detroit to draw up a master plan for the city.

The plan would take three years to complete and would cost the city $6,000.

A proposed budget, only $1,500 higher than last year, was submitted to the Council last night for study. Last year's budget was set at approximately $95,000.

The Council will continue its study at a special meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Manager's Resignation Is Accepted at Troy

TROY—The resignation of Troy City Manager David W. Hasse, 33, was accepted last night by a 5 to 0 vote of the City Commission. Not present to cast their ballots were Mayor Robert J. Huber and Commissioner Stanley Smith.

The mayor and three other commissioners were accepting Hasse's resignation when it was first presented a week ago. Favoring the move at that time were Louis Yanich, Roy L. Duncan and Smith.

The squabble that led to the manager's decision to vacate the post centered mainly over his failure to comply with the city charter that makes it mandatory for a manager to reside in the city. He lives in Royal Oak.

A proposal that Hasse be given 150 days to take up residence in Troy failed to get Commission support last Wednesday night.

Yanich also suggested that the manager's resignation be accepted and that he become director of public works. Hasse vetoed this proposal.

Formerly city engineer, Hasse took office as city manager one year ago. His resignation becomes effective Aug. 15.

No replacement has been named.

* * *

In other action last night, the appointment of former Commission candidate John Czarnowski and Commissioner Clifford F. Sutermeister Jr. to membership on the Board of Appeals was approved.

Commissioner George T. Yeokum was appointed to the Safety Committee.

A proposed charter amendment to permit selling general obligation bonds within three years after approval of the electorate was referred to the city attorney for revision and rewording.

He in turn will present the amendment to the state attorney general for his approval after the changes are made.

On the request from the state police headquarters, the Commission voted to erect "No Parking" signs on Rochester road between Tropey drive and Boyd street.

This portion of the meeting was over in less than two hours. The remainder of the four-hour session was devoted to discussion of the 1960-61 budget.

Vote Registration to Start in White Lake

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—Registrations for the township's Aug. 2 primary election will be accepted beginning tomorrow and each Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Town Hall, 7525 Highland Rd., Clerk Bert McKeachie said today.

Only those who have not registered previously in the township or those who have allowed their registration to lapse because of failure to vote for a period of four years are required to register, he said.

* * *

Registration for the primary ends July 5.

McKeachie said that those who find it inconvenient to register at the Town Hall may do so at his home, 5940 White Lake Rd.

Roosevelt Mothers Plan Sale Friday, Saturday

KEEGO HARBOR — The Roosevelt Elementary School Mother's Club will sponsor a rummage and bake sale Friday and Saturday in the old Batchelor Building at 3016 Orchard Lake Rd.

The sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Proceeds from the sale will go towards the purchase of school equipment.

School Vote Set June 13 at Dublin

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—The annual school election in the Dublin School District will be held June 13.

Voters in the district will elect three members to the five-man school board. Two members are to be elected to three-year terms, the other to a one year term.

The three-year terms expiring are held by Donald Fish and R. E. Hoffman. The one-year term is held by Onni O. Kuhna. He filled the unexpired term of Carlton M. Richmond who resigned in March. Richmond was president of the board when he resigned.

Petitions for the three posts must be returned to the superintendent's office by May 24.

The Dublin School Board will remain a five-man board even though a recent state law requires five-man boards in fourth class schools to increase by two members.

The law also states that the boards must increase if the school has kindergarten through the 12th grade. Dublin has only kindergarten through the eighth grade.

Developers Will Elect Officers in Dryden

DRYDEN — Election of officers will highlight the annual meeting of the Dryden Area Development Assn. Thursday at the Ladies Library Hall.

* * *

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. by local members of the Lapeer County General Hospital auxiliary.

Benny Havens will show colored slides and describe his recent hunting and fishing experiences.

Tickets for the Boom Day celebration July 4 will be distributed at the meeting.

Lions Elect Vincent Syracuse at Rochester

ROCHESTER — Vincent Syracuse last night was elected president of the Rochester Lions Club. He succeeds Howard L. Rummel in the top post.

Named to serve with Syracuse for the coming year were Wayne Mickelson, first vice president; Cyril Korompay, second vice president; and George Hesketh, third vice president.

Other new officers are Lee Smith, secretary; and Clifford Serre, treasurer.

The club will hold its "Presidents Ball" June 6 at Hillcrest Country Club, Mount Clemens, to honor both the incoming and outgoing heads of the organization.

The new officers will assume their duties July 1.

No Sad Children Here in Spite of Handicap

Hold Open House at Lapeer Home

By DICK HANSON
Suburban News Editor

The Lapeer State Home and Training School is holding a series of open houses this week in observance of Mental Health Week. Yesterday was "Public Officials and Press Day."

It also was the day the new superintendent of the institution, Dr. Anthony M. Abruzzo, assumed his new duties.

Contemplating upon an institution for the mentally handicapped will stir at least some misgivings in the minds of the uninitiated.

Many will shy away from the experience, perhaps because they don't want to see uncomprehending sadness in a child's eyes.

* * *

These people are in for a big surprise if they do visit Lapeer State Home.

Their heart-strings will be pulled — that can't be helped— but, it won't be nearly as hard a tug as they expected.

They will be relieved to find happy children — smiling youngsters, unmindful of their apparent deficiences, children, like those everywhere, clamoring for affection.

NOT HOPELESS

Given this affection, and they receive it at Lapeer along with patient care, these youngsters are not hopeless. They obviously don't feel hopeless either.

They will never surmount their handicap (those being treated at Lapeer have all been born with a mental deficiency that cannot be overcome although they can be helped to some, varying degree.)

But, they will never be crushed by despair so long as they continue to be helped by the specially trained personnel who operate the institution.

Dr. Abruzzo's first act upon assuming his duties was to take the tour with visiting state government officials and members of the press.

None of these people could be satisfied by a tour of only what might be considered the best at the institution. Nor was any attempt to "cover up" made by the administrators.

The group visited the oppressively hot nursery. Here infants sweltered in their cribs while cool breezes fanned the outdoors.

The explanation for their discomfort was simple enough if hard to accept.

The ancient building housing the nursery possesses no method of heat control. Heat from furnaces stoked for a cool night lays heavy in the poorly ventilated rooms later in the day.

In sharp contrast was the recently constructed Woodside School building, where mentally handicapped children are patiently taught as much as they are able to cope with. Here all is hopefulness and light, thanks to modern methods of architecture.

"There is progress here and the promise of more progress," remarked Dr. Abruzzo. "This is the reason I decided to accept my appointment here," he explained.

There are nearly 4,000 cases at Lapeer—far too many for any one institution, administrators agree. But many of the patients are due to be transferred to other facilities, and many others already have been moved.

THOUSANDS WAIT

Yet there remains thousands of mentally handicapped persons waiting to receive the special attention that can be provided only in such institutions.

Hopelessly incapable of living in a normal society, they require a cheerful world created especially for their limited abilities.

Such a state exists abundantly in the newer buildings at Lapeer State Home, with all their bright colors and sunshine.

* * *

The older buildings, however, and some of these date back to 1895, present a formidable obstacle to happiness. Ingenuity has overcome a lot of the shortcomings, but it can't help but wear thin in many ways.

The old buildings are being replaced one by one, only this takes time. Tax dollars have to mount up before construction can begin.

The next building to be replaced is the old nursery.

With construction scheduled to begin this summer, the new nursery will contain latest facilities available for the children's comfort.

Today is "Special Educators Day" with teachers and supervisors of special education touring the institution at Lapeer. Tomorrow, doctors, psychologists and social workers will visit.

* * *

The general public will be able to attend open house Thursday and Friday, starting at 1 p.m. both days.

Royal Oak Man to Aid Brother

Malcolm Quits Job to Work With Dr. Dooley at MEDICO

Malcolm Dooley of Royal Oak, whose brother Dr. Thomas Dooley is devoting his life to medical services in Laos, is leaving his work with a Detroit brokerage firm to assist the doctor.

Malcolm, 31, of 1011 N. Edgeworth St., will take a leave of absence from his job to serve as executive director of the medical relief organization, MEDICO, in New York.

Dr. Dooley helped found MEDICO, which raises funds for medical help in all parts of the world, in 1957.

Malcolm said he made the decision after reading in a new book by his doctor brother that he is hampered by the administrative work in MEDICO.

Dr. Dooley wrote that the administrative and fund-raising chores take him away from his medical work in Laos.

* * *

Malcom, who is married and has five young children at home, said it suddenly occurred to him that his financial and administrative training could be useful in the effort for worldwide medical care.

* * *

Both brothers were inspired by a letter written by their brother Earle, who was killed in battle during World War II. Earle had asked his brothers to work for world peace as he intended to do if he lived.

Pointe Hearings Cause Outbursts

Women Boo Solicitor as He Opens Questions to Witnesses

DETROIT (AP)—Is a point system used to rate prospective home buyers in the suburban Grosse Pointes "fair, conscientious and sincere" or is it "morally bankrupt?"

Both points of view were aired Monday at the opening of an investigation by the state into a home buyers screening process system used in the fashionable cities.

Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams ordered the investigation after denouncing the system as "morally corrupt."

BOOS RING OUT

Solicitor General Samuel J. Torina was booed by several women spectators when he began questioning witnesses at the hearing called by the State Corporation and Securities Commission.

The women applauded when Paul Maxon of Grosse Pointe Shores, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Brokers Assn., testified.

Maxon defended the system as a "fair, conscientious and sincere" effort to meet the problems of prejudice.

"I believe the cause for concern is not the brokers nor the property owners associations but human prejudice everywhere," Maxon said. "This plan is being conducted in fine residential communities all over the country but in a more informal manner—in more haphazard, less fair, less intelligent manner than our own conscientious, sincere attempt to make the best of these well-known prejudices as they exist."

* * *

Under the system, prospective buyers are graded by brokers and property owner groups on such items as nationality and social background. Points are tabulated for each. The standard passing grade is 50 points. However, a Jew, for example, must score 85 points to pass. A home owner uses results of the point system before deciding on sale of his property.

Besides smoke signals, Indians once waved blankets or rode ponies in certain designs to carry messages to friendly tribes watching from afar. Waving blankets repidly over their heads signified: "Be alert. Enemy is coming."

Readying Parks a Big Conservation Dept. Job

Michigan Conservation Dept. managers and rangers are getting set for one of the busiest seasons in park history.

Preparing to handle the thousands of outdoor-minded people who visit the 15 state parks in the Pontiac area is a tremendous amount of work.

Nature trails are being cleared and labeled; freshly varnished picnic tables are being taken to park locations, outside water pumps are being installed, boat launching sites are being cleared and camp areas are being leveled for avid nature lovers.

This is only a small part of the spring preparatory work that goes into making the state parks beautiful. However, without the help of the many conservation men who devote much time and energy to the project, Michigan would soon lose its reputation for having the finest state parks in the country.

PROUD LAKE

The Proud Lake Recreation Area near Milford, with its 4,000 pine tree-laden acres, is teeming with activity for the anticipated crowds that are already flooding the area on weekends.

Park manager Al Masini is directing the spring cleanup and repair work. Picnic areas are being reseeded, stoves renovated, the dock restained, and the shores along the Huron River cleared.

A half-mile back from Wixom road, the Proud Lake dormitories and other buildings are getting a thorough spring cleaning and the landscape is being beautified.

School children or organizations may register for one-week periods at a minimum cost, and park rangers prepare field trips, supervise rifle training, and instruct groups in every phase of outdoor living.

The Conservation men do all this on their own time—usually over the weekend, Masini said.

"It's surprising that people don't realize how much preparatory and maintenance work goes into the parks, which they so often take for granted," he added. "And another thing—education in good outdoor manners is still one of the main problems facing parks and recreation officials."

Trees are stolen, people clean out and dump debris from their cars in the parking lots, fires are left burning in the stoves and tables are mutilated with carvings. The spring replace-and-repair operations remedy much of the damage.

PONTIAC LAKE

At the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, Manager Paul Wigg is supervising the reseeding of a new 3-acre picnic area, fertilizing 300 trees planted last year, and getting the sandy beach ready for eager throngs. Last year more than 370,000 people had fun at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, Wigg said.

Construction of life buoys for the protection of swimmers is now the main project under way at the Area. Oval lifesavers have become obsolete, according to Wigg, and his crew is making torpedo-shaped buoys from light sheet metal for several other state parks as well as Pontiac Lake.

Some 5,000 feet of snow fence has just been removed from the beach. Wigg explained that the fence was erected last fall to retain the sand on the beach as well as keeping it from blowing up and damaging the grassy picnic grounds.

Of the nine divisions in the State Conservation department, one of the most important is the Forest Fire unit, headed by Marvin Hartwig, whose office and garage is located on Williams Lake road near M59.

Already there has been a spring flareup of fires on state land, mostly due to careless smokers or people leaving fires unattended. There has also been a rash of fires along the railroad between Pontiac and Durand, he said.

Out in the big garages on White Lake road, John Lanaville has charge of more than 1,000 pieces of huge conservation equipment which he keeps in shipshape condition.

Lanaville's Region No. 3 territory begins at Bay City and continues southward to the Ohio border, and from one side of the state to the other — "coast to coast."

USE CONVICTS

Much of the Conservation help is obtained from Jackson Prison convicts assigned to honor camps in various sections of the state and transported to the parks.

Lanaville and his rangers are in charge of 12 such crews, with more than 80 men working, and learning a mechanics trade, every day. "We are trying to help these men by teaching them welding and other machine shop work so they will be better working citizens when they are released," he said.

Stocking Oakland County's lakes and rivers with tiny fish each spring has been a 45-year job for Harold L. Hughes at the century-old fish hatchery in Drayton Plains. He will retire in September, leaving a well-organized state fish operation.

PLENTY OF FISH

Exactly 53,728 trout, largemouth bass, northern pike and blue gills will be planted this year. The project started Friday.

Delicate three-month-old fish are carefully put into tank trucks at the hatchery, then taken to boat landing sites and carefully dipped out and dumped into the water.

This operation continues until the waters freeze over. With the planting and hatchery-stocking, the operation involves handling of some 2 million fish each season, Hughes said.

Eleven large fertilized ponds on the 55-acre hatchery site are drained and cleaned during the winter for spring plantings.

Asked what he planned to do after September, Hughes said, "Fish."

Superintendent of Bloomer Park No. 1, Albert Jasko is truly a jack-of-all trades, as most conservation men have to be. He directs the table varnishing, helps repair motors and conducts children on stimulating field trips.

COMMERCE DODGE

In Commerce Dodge Park No. 5, Donald Hungerford has been helping remove disease-laden elm trees. Trimming other trees, keeping the scenic Huron River banks cleared and the roadways scraped and graveled is all part of the spring "get-ready" operation.

This year, Conservation officials hope the people who avail themselves of United States' most beautiful state parks — in Michigan — will take another look before making careless mistakes.

INSTALLING WATER PUMP — There's nothing like an old fashioned handle pump when you're thirsty and out in a state park. Manager of Proud Lake Recreation Area, Al Masini (center) helps Park Rangers Mathew Kling and Herb Chambers set up the pump.

FISH PLANTING — Fish Hatchery employes, Ronald Weaver and Melvin Brandt use a huge net to gather baby fish which will be carefully "bucketed" into county lakes and rivers. They made their "catch" in one of the 11 feeding ponds at the Hatchery in Drayton Plains.

THE PARK 'FLEET' — Taking care of 1,000 pieces of Conservation Dept. equipment is only a small part of manager John Lannaville's job at the big garages on White Lake road.

CARPENTER — Superintendent of Dodge Park No. 5, Donald Hungerford repairs, builds and creates necessary items for park use, as well as being an expert machinist.

SPRUCES UP FIRE TRUCK — Marvin Hartwig, who heads a forest fire unit of the Conservation Department, puts a little touch of red around the sign on his fire truck. The division office and garage is located on Williams Lake road at M59.

SETTING UP TABLES — Hundreds of newly varnished outdoor picnic tables have to be moved back into parks after winter storage. Here Ranger Roy Kern gives Bloomer State Park Manager Albert Jasko a hand in unloading them from a truck.

Nixon Requests Rights Plank

But He Wants It Kept Moderate in the GOP Platform

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has passed the word to Republicans he wants a moderate civil rights plank written into the party's platform.

It would be based largely on the civil rights program President Eisenhower submitted to Congress. Parts of this were included and parts omitted from the bill now awaiting Eisenhower's signature.

Although Nixon is prepared to take advantage of an expected Democratic split, he has told friends he doesn't expect civil rights to be a paramount issue in the fall campaign.

This will be particularly true, he is quoted as saying, if the Democrats nominate Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass)—as Nixon now thinks they are likely to do.

Although Kennedy voted for most of the more stringent amendments that were offered to the civil rights bill Congress passed this year, he sided in 1957 with Southern opponents on a couple of important tests.

Pull No Punches in West Virginia

Knock-Down, Drag-Out Politics in Mountainous Primary Campaign

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Wisconsin was never like this.

Camp followers of Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) argue over almost everything, but they agree that in the mountains of West Virginia they take their politics straight, and seriously.

* * *

The Wisconsin presidential primary, won by Kennedy, was comparatively gentle and sweet.

Here, with the primary coming up a week from today, both sides have slugged away. Interest has been high.

"In Wisconsin," said Bob Kennedy, the senator's brother, "we never mentioned Humphrey once."

Here Humphrey is pummeled so ferociously an innocent bystander might think he was a Republican. He is hit at in speeches, in statements and in a paid political cartoon that shows a voter casting a ballot for Humphrey. But he's wasting it, the cartoon says, for in effect he's putting it in the garbage can. This is the incessant Kennedy refrain: "Poor Hubert, he can't win."

* * *

This change in technique is explained by Pierre Salinger of Kennedy's staff: "In Wisconsin, we were ahead. Here we're behind; we had to do something."

Humphrey, a man never renowned for his agility at turning the other cheek, has been punching back just as industriously.

While this doesn't add much to the stature of U.S. politics, it does add zest to the show.

Both sides report crowds have run above expectations. State newspapers, radio and television stations have reflected this interest by devoting considerable space and time to the campaign.

This is especially gratifying to Humphrey's supporters. They poured more than $100,000 into Wisconsin—all they had, they say—and they claim they have to scrimp here.

Air Crash Survivor Dies; Only One Lives

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Jose Cachin, one of the two survivors from whom authorities hoped to learn the cause of a Venezuelan airliner crash, died Monday.

The other survivor, a Venezuelan housewife, is still in critical condition and not able to be questioned.

The airliner crashed Thursday near Calabozo, killing 11 of the 13 persons aboard. Road workers who picked up Cachin before he lapsed into unconsciousness said he told them a White Russian passenger named Vyacheslav Lavinski exploded a grenade in the plane.

All Invaders Routed

ASUNCION, Paraguay (AP)—A government source says the armed forces have routed all invaders from Paraguayan territory. The source said the government has completed its mopping up operations and is convinced all rebels who invaded Paraguay from Argentina last Friday have been killed or chased over the border.

KICKS FOR A BIRD — Masters champion Arnold Palmer, golf's dominating power these days, gives out with a kick and some body English after putting for a birdie on the 17th green at the Houston Classic Monday. The big shot enabled him to tie Billy Collins at 280 and force an 18-hole playoff today.

Palmer, Collins Battle in Playoff at Houston

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, golf's current money leader, sought his sixth tournament triumph in four months today as he met big Bill Collins in a playoff for first money in the $35,000 Houston Classic.

★ ★ ★

The two tied at 280 for 72 holes in a drama-packed finish Monday when Palmer, the Masters champion, closed with birdies on two of the last four holes for a 1-over-par 73 while Collins had a 75 and barely failed on a 15-foot putt on the final green that would have given him first money of $5,300.

Jack Fleck of Los Angeles missed the playoff when his putt for a birdie on the eighteenth hole was six inches wide. He had a closing 72 for 281 and $2,200 third money.

Regardless of whether Palmer takes the playoff he still will have piled up the most money he ever won in a year. In 1958 Palmer earned $45,607.93 in 33 tournaments. This year he has participated in only 14 and will have won $47,657.57 even if he takes only second money of $3,400 here. With first money he will have $49,557.57.

Palmer could attribute a putting lapse on the third hole for his failure to win the tournament Monday. He overshot the green, chipped short and 3-putted for a double bogey. His second putt was only 18 inches.

Collins said the shot he would have liked to make over again—and the one he figured kept him from winning the tournament outright—came on the first hole of the final round. He had a muddy lie for his third shot, tried to pitch to the green and skulled the ball. It went over the green and he wound up with a bogey. He said he should have tried to chip it.

★ ★ ★

Collins, the ex-Marine from Baltimore, said he played his worst round of the tournament but the mishap on No. 1 was the one on which he had rather have an another try.

A crowd of 12,000 turned out for the final round, which was less than half the number on hand Sunday.

This will be the third playoff in seven years. Last year Jack Burke beat Julius Boros.

★ ★ ★

This also was Collins' second playoff this year—he lost one to Fleck at Phoenix.

Women Keglers Tops at State

Members of the Pontiac Women's Bowling Association won a total of $965.94 in the Michigan State Tournament which ended in Detroit.

Griff's Grill, captained by Eva Miller, topped the teams in 20th place for $85 and added $36 in other events for $121.

Crissman Chevrolet took home the best total of $195, Huron Bowl won $173.73, Kuhn's Auto Wash $157.90, Detroit Tool $127, Dishmaster $82.50, Ward's Furniture $81.81 and Pizzuti's $27.

Capt. Peggy Bender and Sally Hoffman featured the doubles contestants. The Kuhn's mates were 9th for $110. Marvel Szot-DeJanet Wilson of Tool were 13th for $80, Gene Bradley-Marie Reynolds, Huron, ranked 36th for $58.75, Amanda Zschering-Evelyn Prosser of Dishmaster earned $33 and Doris Lanktree-Vi Cargal of Ward's $25.

A 13th place headed the pack in singles. That was posted by Lorrie Dulze of Crissman. She got $70. Neva Shain and Mary Steward of the same team won $55 and $20, respectively. Tool Star Marie French took home $35 for being 50th.

Troubled Tigers Begin Eastern Tour

Open 9-Game Invasion Today at New York

Team Batting at .202 After First 11 Starts; De Witt Confident

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time once again to stash away all those flowery adjectives. The Detroit Tigers are having their troubles.

They are neither as good as they looked in the first week of the season, nor as bad as they have looked in the second.

Despite all the frenzy and excitemet of the five-game winning streak, and the deep disappointment of a six-game losing string, the Detroit club probably is just about as good as the pre-season appraisals indicated.

When the home run hitters don't hit home runs, the shadows lengthen.

"It's the hitters," moaned manager Jimmie Dykes today while waiting to send his club against the New York Yankees. "No one is hitting and I mean no one. I look at the averages and I can't find any of my guys. That's how far down they are."

The figures give mute testimony to Dykes' analysis. When the Tigers were 5-0, the team as a whole was batting .246. Not sensational but adequate to win behind solid pitching. Now the team B. A. has dropped to .202 and Dykes is getting desperate.

★ ★ ★

"I can't fault the pitchers," Dykes said. "They have been coming through fine. Tom Morgan in the bullpen has been great. But those hitters, ugh!"

Rocky Colavito hit three homers in three days and has only one hit since. Al Kaline, still limping a little from a twisted ankle, has knocked in just one run since the second game. Steve Bilko went 0-for 25. And so on down the line. ...

"They're swinging at bad balls," the chubby little pilot volunteered. "They're reaching out instead of taking a good cut. I don't mind a guy striking out on something good, but the way my guys are doing it can get you."

★ ★ ★

Things are so tough that Chico Fernandez was the Tigers' leading hitter for a while. Now he, too, has fallen off.

"Well," said Dykes, "at least we got Chico for his fielding and didn't figure on him doing much hitting."

President Bill DeWitt insists this is no time for panic. He says he is certain the club will snap out of the slump.

★ ★ ★

But there's no poorer time for a team to be slumping than on the road. The Tigers have lost five straight on the road and must play nine more before returning to Briggs Stadium.

They open a two-game stand against the Yankees in New York today, then go to Boston for two, Baltimore for a Sunday doubleheader and to Washington for three games before returning to Detroit.

In today's opener, Dykes nominated Don Mossi to face the Yankees. The best Yankee-killer of them all, Frank Lary, will pitch the other game of the New York series.

Decide Classic Title Friday

Huron Teams Fight It Out

With its last loop session scheduled for Friday night, the Huron Bowl Classic is still anybody's to win, place or show. Possibility of a three way tie, two way tie, or a single winner exists after the Classic's last meeting. In a virtual deadlock are West Side Mobil, Pasquale's Pizzeria and Sno-Bol.

★ ★ ★

West Side Mobil meets Pasquale's Friday, while Sno-Bol tangles with fourth place West Side Lanes, and anything can happen. Either Mobil or Pasquale's can win by sweeping four. Either can assure at least a tie by taking three. Sno-Bol could win by taking four while Mobil and Pasquale's split, or gain a tie with either or both.

In the event of a triple tie a draw pits two teams in a three game roll-off, the winner being matched with the odd team in a second three game match.

All this confusion was brought about as a result of latest Huron Bowl Classic action. Montcalm Centre outslugged West Side Mobil for four points as Tony Eisele and Dick Cork posted sets of 618 and 617. Monroe Moore and Clark Balch had 624 and 600 for the losers.

Meanwhile Pasquale's swept four from Spartan Air Conditioning behind a 625 from Al Pietz, and Sno-Bol kept pace by shutting out Felice's market. Ray Keith paced Sno-Bol with 601, and John Nickel fired a 651 for Felice.

Joe Foster led West Side Lanes to three points over Oakland Mill Supply with a 620 to slip into fourth place. Buck McDonald's 603 was high for Roth Lumber in their sweep over Stroh's. Bill O'Brien had 615 for Stroh's.

★ ★ ★

Kasper Manufacturing split with C. Fancher, and Calbi Music bested Furtney Drugs for four. George Chicovsky recorded the night's high series, a 221, 228, 227-676, and Bill Bull added a 609.

Temple Keeps Indians Winning as Castoffs Flounder

Lane Looking Like Genius

By The Associated Press

Whoops! Somebody better cut Frank Lane down from that telephone pole. Cleveland's Injuns ain't deal after all.

★ ★ ★

Lane's trades, which had fans so wild they hung the Cleveland general manager in effigy, now have the Indians in a first-place tie with the Chicago White Sox. The Tribe made it with a 3-2 victory at Washington, their fifth in a row, Monday night while the White Sox were losing 11-6 at Baltimore in the only American League games.

It was Johnny Temple, the second baseman Lane got from Cincinnati, whose two-out single scored the clincher against the Senators. And it was Herb Score and Don Ferrarese, two southpaws Lane swapped to the White Sox, who were tagged with seven runs as the third place Orioles, (just .012 points behind) cut Chicago's streak at five games.

★ ★ ★

The Indians, who jumped from eighth to second in a Sunday doubleheader sweep against Kansas City, scrambled to the top in a three-run seventh inning at Washington after being shut out on five hits by loser Pete Ramos (0-2) for six. Singles by Russ Nixon (the catcher Lane couldn't get rid of) and pinch-hitter Bob Hale, plus a walk, loaded the bases in the seventh. Vic Power, whose two-run single won Sunday's second game, brought in two again with a two-out single. Then Temple put it away.

Right-hander Gary Bell (2-1) had the Senators blanked on one hit until the seventh, when singles by Bob Allison and Jim Lemon and Julio Bequer's pinch double got their two. Bell finished with a six-hitter and his sixth in a row over the Nats since July 15, 1958. He hs a 7-0 career record against them as a starter (his lone loss was in relief), with his last six all complete games.

The Orioles made it seven out of eight although out-hit 11-6. One of those half-dozen hits off six Sox pitchers was a three-run homer by Jim Gentile. It came in the sixth off Dick Donovan and upped Gentile's AL-leading RBI count to 17.

Baltimore had it bagged by then however. The Birds scored three in the first off Score—on four walks and a two-run single by Gus Triandos—then hustled from behind for an 8-5 lead by pairing four of their hits with three walks in a five-run fourth against Ferrarese (0-1). A two-run double by rookie Marv Breeding was the big hit.

★ ★ ★

That frame also junked a string of 21 2-3 shutout innings by White Sox relief pitchers while setting up a second victory for Baltimore's Arnie Portocarrero, who pitched five frames of three-hit relief.

McCormick and Kline in Top Form

By The Associated Press

The San Francisco Giants are within one game of the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates again because Mike McCormick has come of age—and a winter trade has come back to haunt the Bucs.

★ ★ ★

Ronnie Kline, the right-hander Pittsburgh swapped to St. Louis, junked the Pirates' winning streak at nine games Monday night, pitching a seven-hitter as the Cardinals made off with a 4-3 victory on a bases-loaded walk in the ninth. And with McCormick throwing a four-hitter for his second shutout and third victory without defeat, the Giants closed in with a 5-0 decision over Milwaukee's Braves.

Cincinnati tripped Los Angeles to fifth, a half game behind St. Louis, by beating the Dodgers 6-5 on five unearned runs and Ed Bailey's three-run double. The Chicago Cubs defeated Philadelphia 8-7 with a three-run ninth capped by Don Zimmer's two-out single.

Elroy Face, the right-hander who built a relief record of 22 consecutive victories by winning his first 17 last season, was tagged with a 0-2 mark by the Cardinals. He walked pinch-hitter Carl Sawatski on a 3-1 pitch following Stan Musial's single, Daryl Spencer's fourth hit, a double, and an intentional walk to Leon Wagner that loaded the bases. Face had taken over from starter Harvey Haddix in a two-run seventh—giving up a pinch-single by George Crowe that tied it.

★ ★ ★

Kline, traded for outfielder Gino Cimoli, was touched for two runs in the second and a solo homer by Smoky Burgess that gave the Bucs a 3-0 lead in the fourth. But he breezed the rest of the way for his first complete game and first decision in three starts as a Card.

★ ★ ★

McCormick, 21, the $50,000 bonus kid of four years ago who now is a solid No. 2 starter behind Sam Jones, held the Braves to one hit for five innings, then got the edge as Jim Davenport broke up a shutout duel with Carl Willey (2-1) with a sixth-inning homer, his fourth. The young southpaw walked but two and struck out two.

★ ★ ★

The Giants, beating back the Braves bid for second place, made it a romp in the eighth with four runs off relievers Don McMahon and rookie Ken MacKenzie, a lefty making his major league debut. They did it with two singles, by Davenport and pinch-hitter Joe Amalfitano, two walks, an error, two passed balls and a squeeze bunt by Hobie Landrith.

It was Davenport's first return to the starting line-up since the third baseman was hit on the collarbone by a pitch at St. Louis last Tuesday. And it was Landrith's first start behind the plate, due to a spring training hand injury.

★ ★ ★

The Reds, whose only earned run was Billy Martin's first National League homer, a solo shot for a 3-3 tie in the seventh, got their winning three in the eighth after Vada Pinson's leadoff single and the game's second error by Dodger second baseman Charlie Neal. Loser Roger Craig (1-1), who had won six in a row back to last August 22, injured his pitching shoulder in a run-down collision with Pinson, and left after lobbing three balls to Lee Walls.

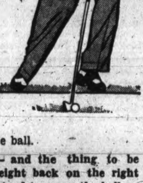
Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "Iron shots baffle me."

DIAGNOSIS: Failure to hit down and through.

TREATMENT: Today's illustration shows a golfer who has correctly shifted the bulk of his weight to the left side at the start of the downswing — just as he should have done.



The drawing does not, of course, show the start of the downswing, but it does show the correction position just before impact. And this correct position cannot possibly come about unless most of the body weight is shifted over to the left side as the downswing is begun.

The action indicated here is the cure for most of the bad iron shots you see. It shows the player hitting down and through the ball.

The opposite action — and the thing to be avoided—is keeping the weight back on the right side. This makes the player tend to scoop the ball up with a faulty hand action, and his iron shots will generally be high, short, and off line.

Note that the hands are ahead of the clubhead as the ball is about to be struck. Notice also that the left hip is turning around to the left. There are points to work on to improve your iron play.

Notre Dame Hands 'M' Eighth Setback, 8-4

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—Fine pitching by Nick Palihnick and solid batting by John Carretta and Jack Gentempo led Notre Dame to an 8-4 win yesterday over Michigan.

Palihnick struck out 11 Michigan batsmen and held the Wolverines to two runs until he tired and surrendered the mound to Jim Fitzpatrick in the ninth inning. The victory was Palihnick's fourth in a row this season. 'M' is 13-8 now.

167 - Average Kegler Hits Big 290 Game in Doubles Action

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Floyd Thornton, who carries 167 average in league play in Davenport, Iowa, was the star of the big show with a 290 game in the American Bowling Congress tournament Monday.

Thornton, whose best previous game in three and a half years of bowling, had been a 247, scored his 290 in doubles play.

The big game was sandwiched between 138 and 169 games, giving the Iowan a 597 total, another career high.

The 290 game ties Bess Bosco of Akron for the second highest singles game in this year's tournament. Louis Facsko of Lorain, Ohio, has the high single game with 300.

There were two changes in minor events standings, as Ronald Weigand and Robert Bellew of Evansville, Ind., totaled 1298 to move into fifth place in doubles. Stanley Klugiewicz of Chicago fired a 703 for sixth place in singles.

Schoolboy Dies on Field After Practice Run

MAYVILLE, Wis. (AP) — A 15-year-old Mayville High School freshman, Danny Gleisner, collapsed and died Monday after he stopped running in a track practice session.

Witnesses said the boy fell to his knees, remained in that position breathing hard and then toppled face down on the athletic field.

The rescue squad worked an hour in an unsuccessful attempt to revive him. Dr. M. E. Royce, who was called to the field said there were indications Gleisner had suffered a heart attack.

In Amateur Bout

New Brooklyn Fighter Once Beat Johansson

NEW YORK (AP)—Bjarne Lingaas, a Norwegian carpenter who now resides in Brooklyn, gasped today when he heard the name of Ingemar Johansson.

"Yes," he admitted in a low voice as though the world heavyweight champion were listening on the other side of the wall, "I beat Ingo when we both were amateurs in Oslo in 1952.

"But I'd hate to let Ingo know I said so. He might not like it."

Lingaas made his professional debut Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena by decisively outpointing Al Thomas, a last-minute substitute, in a preliminary four-rounder.

"I know I waited a long time before turning professional," said Lingaas. "But one thing I want understood. I didn't become a pro because I beat Johansson. That has absolutely nothing to do with it."

Lingaas said he won a three-rounder from Johansson eight years ago when both were getting ready for the Olympics.

"It was a decision," he observed with a smile.

Calumet Tries Out 3 Derby Hopefuls

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Nothing succeeds like success, they say, and Calumet Farm this year is trying the same formula that provided five of its seven Kentucky Derby winners.

The Calumet trio of Hillsborough, Pied d'Or and Fango are among the 12 three-year-olds entered today in the one mile $15,000 added Derby Trial at Churchill Downs.

Trainers Ben and Jimmy Jones traditionally have run the Calumet Derby hopefuls in the Trial after passing the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland in favor of prep races here.

Doesn't Like It, but Champ Flies to Olympic Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Cassius Clay, 178-pound Golden Gloves and AAU champion, agreed Monday night "with some misgivings" to fly to the Olympic boxing tryouts in San Francisco.

Clay, who talked with an Olympic regional boxing committee, said he has flown before but "I don't like it."

He was on a plane when an engine failed before takeoff at Chicago. Clay got off and came back by train.

Joe Martin, head coach of the eastern regional boxing team, said the committee explained to Clay the problems that would be created by a refusal to fly.

Wins Oakland Pace

DETROIT (AP) — Express Byrd did the mile in 2:04.4 last night to win the feature Oakland Pace at Hazel Park Raceway. The win was worth $11. A crowd of 6,360 bet $338,259.

Area Prep Teams Stay Unbeaten

The unbeaten golfers of Walled Lake and Bloomfield Hills and Romeo's perfect-record baseballers kept rolling along yesterday while Lake Orion pitcher Mike Ruch was posting 17 strikeouts on another big day of prep action.

A one under par 35 by Bill Dingell paced Walled Lake to a 196 total in a triangular romp. Farmington had 218 and Pontiac Northern 229.

Jim Buck and Tom Balkwell fired 39s and Don Stipcap 42 for the Vikings. Rich Mander and Ken Rosely totaled 42 for Farmington and Dick Delano and Bill Hester matched PNH 43s.

The Barons had 171 to 182 for Holly and 203 for Milford. Gordon West became the 4th team member to be medalist with 37. Don McKenzie topped Holly at 39 and McCracken had 44 for MHS.

Romeo won its 4th straight in the Tri-County League blasting Rochester, 13-3. Ron Schmidt batted in five runs with a single and triple, both with the bases full, Jim Ritter had three safetys and winner Bob Galan drove in three tallies in a 15-hit attack. Bob Kelly and Schemer homered in defeat.

Ruch allowed Ortonville two hits and no walks in a 6-0 triumph. A four-run 4th decided the issue early. Don Flaler slammed a double and two singles for the Dragons. Orchard Lake St. Mary dropped a diamond tilt to St. Rita, 3-1. A two-run single by Al Butavicni and triple steal in the opening frame resulted in the Eaglets' 3rd loss.

Clarkston and West Bloomfield were Wayne-Oakland baseball victors. Bob Porritt fanned 14 and helped pace the offensive with two hits. Jerry Powell also had a pair in a 4-2 verdict over Holly. Keego jumped on Jim Gerhart early in a 7-2 beating of Bloomfield Hills. Jim Lucadam had three hits for four RBIs an John Long sockd a two-run homer before Jim Hinds could come on with some excellent relief.

The W-O batting leaders announced by the league on reported games are as follows: Jeynes (BH) 1.000, Tregenza (BH) .666, Atchison (Northville) .636, Debose (Clark.) and Hoggard (Milford) .429, Miller (M), Stuber (N) and Preels (Clarvle.) .400, Nettles (Brighton) ,375 and Thomas (Clark.) .357.

In tennis Monday, Cranbrook took an early lead by sweeping the doubles and held on to nip Detroit Cody, 4-3. Bucky Steed won in singles.

Meet PNH Thinclads Today

Chiefs Tune Up for SVC

Pontiac's two Class A prep track and field teams collide this afternoon on Wisner field, in what is expected to be a very interesting tuneup for Dean Wilson's PCH Chiefs, pointing for the big Valley championships at Saginaw on Friday.

While PNH's Huskies are decidedly in the role of the underdog, Dick Marsh's crew has some good performers who could make it tough for Chiefs in their events.

Today's test, at 4 p.m. is one of eight meets today, for the area's schoolboy athletes. Birmingham (Seaholm), new Central Michigan Relays champion, is at Ferndale in an EML match, goes to Monroe Saturday for the Dick Waters Relays.

Chiefs travel to Saginaw (Arthur Hill HS) for the Valley battle with Flint Northern as chief opponent. Vikings defeated PCH in last week's 2nd SVC meet, but may not have the depth to turn the trick in this 8-team meet. PCH then takes in the big U. of Detroit Relays on Saturday.

Among other county tests is the Waterford-Cranbrook meet on the CMU Class B champions' own grounds. This one could be a dandy. Two triangulars pit Bloomfield Hills, Northville at Milford, and Roseville and L'Anse Creuse at Rochester.

The Chiefs will lean heavily on their shot-tossing triumvirate, unbeaten Bredell (Bill) Pritchett, Charley Brown and Jerry Rush. Teammates have dubbed the three "Big Poppa," "Li'l Abner" and "Big Momma," respectively. They have not been unplaced all season, and usually finish 1-2-3.

Some of the closest races today were expected in the 440-yard run, the hundred, 880-yard run and the 880-relay. Norm Mosley has been at :54.0 several times, while PCH's Van La-Core has hit :53.0. Bill Young (10.7) faces Bill Ratcliff (:09.9) in the century. Ed Murray has become a half-miler and could be very tough. Triple threat Bob Hocking leads Huskies in the vault and jumps.

Chiefs are strong in the hurdles, the high and broad jumps, the pole vault, dashes, among other events.

Huskies entertain Inter-Lakes member Walled Lake on Thursday and Saturday compete in the Dick Waters Relays at Monroe.

Warren Fitzgerald last night won its 10th straight dual track meet, 76½-32½ over Troy, to stay on top of the Oakland-B league with a 4-0 mark. Troy is 3-1.

Madison defeated Avondale 68½-40½, also at Fitzgerald, and Lake Orion crushed Oak Park 75-34 at Oak Park. Clawson was idle.

Phil Morgan, Bill Laney, Ron Kozlowski and Bob Radlinski were tops for winners. Radlinski set a school mark of 2:08.2 for the 880 and the 880-relay team's 1:37.2 was the best since 1953 for O-B. Rocky Bronson won the hurdles for Troy.

Madison's spectacular Lee Hill hit another triple for 16¼ points, his 3rd straight meet total over 15, as Madison thumped Avon. Sid Blomberg's 2:10.1 for the half-mile was a school record. Doug Gawne and Bucky Craven led Orion with two wins each, Gawne taking the vault and low hurdles and Craven the 100 and 220.

Material Used at Takeoff May Be Questioned

However, AAU Official Believes IAAF Will OK Thomas' Record

NEW YORK (AP)—An unexpected snarl developed today in John Thomas' world high jump record of 7 feet, 1½ inches. It came from an unexpected source—the composition of the take-off.

* * *

"When we submit the record for approval by the International Amateur Athletic Federation, we'll call attention to the fact that the jump was made from an asphalt-composition takeoff," said Pinky Sober, chairman of the AAU Track and Field Committee."

Thomas made his record on his first try last Saturday at the Penn Relays in Philadelphia. The composition takeoff was the same one the Russians objected to in their meet with the U. S. last summer. Later, when a rainstorm practically inundated the field, they used it and pronounced it satisfactory.

* * *

"I'm certain the AAU will approve Thomas' record for an American mark," said Sober. "My personal opinion is that the IAAF will accept it, but of course, I can't speak for that organization."

The IAAF rules state that the surface from which the takeoff is made be capable of taking normal spikes.

"That's where the complication could come in," Sober continued. "What are normal spikes. Thomas actually was using the indoor, needle-type spikes on his jump because that surface won't take the longer, outdoor-type spikes.

"So the rule is a little ambiguous. We will ask the IAAF to draft a new rule taking cognizance of the composition material (usually rubberized asphalt or asphalt and cellulose)."

* * *

If the IAAF does not accept the new-type of takeoff, U. S. athletes—and especially the high jumpers like Thomas and Charlie Dumas—will be in trouble. Most of the takeoffs in this country now are made of composition material. That includes Villanova, Pa., Berkley, Calif., and Bakersfield, Calif., where the IC4A, NCAA and National AAU championships are to be held.

The Olympic tryouts at Stanford will have a grass takeoff.

The world record now on the books is Yuri Stepanov's 7-1. The Russian used a special shoe with a built-up sole when he made his record in 1957. The shoe since has been banned.

Mikemen Trip Dales

A four-run sixth frame wiped out a St. James' 4-3 edge over St. Michael, yesterday, at Ferndale, and produced the third SCL win for the Shamrocks, 7-4.

Ken Biron racked up his 3rd win as starting pitcher, and Gary Hintz and Paul Harding led the hitting. Harding got a homer, Hintz a pair of singles.

The two clubs share 3-1 records.

Injured Fighter Gains

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Leroy Sayles, middleweight fighter injured April 25 in his second pro fight, Monday was reported making progress after a brain operation.

The 22-year-old Berkeley, Calif., boxer was knocked out in the second round by Floyd Ryan, who also was fighting his second pro bout.

Wait a Minute—What About Henry Wallace?

'Nixon's Had BEST Preparation'

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower can get an argument on his idea that no vice president in history had such careful preparation as Richard M. Nixon for carrying out the duties of the presidency.

What about Henry Wallace? President Roosevelt made a lot of use of the tall Iowan when he was vice president from 1941 to 1945. Wallace's total experience in government was probably broader than Nixon's.

★ ★ ★

In the 1956 campaign, when Eisenhower and Nixon were running for re-election, the President told a Republican picnic at Gettysburg "There's no man in the history of America who has had such a careful preparation as has Vice President Nixon for carrying out the duties of the presidency, if those duties should ever fall upon him."

★ ★ ★

Last week Democrats jumped on Eisenhower for saying he may let Nixon sit in for him at the summit meeting this month if it runs too long. They interpreted this as an effort to build up Nixon for this year's presidential campaign.

WHY NOT MORE?

But looking back — particularly upon the four years since that statement in Gettysburg in 1956 —the wonder is not so much about the use Eisenhower has made of Nixon but that he has not used him far more.

Nixon served in the House and Senate, thus getting insights into the legislative branch of government. Wallace was never in Congress.

But from 1933 until 1941 Wallace as secretary of agriculture under Roosevelt, headed one of the most important and controversial agencies of the executive branch.

★ ★ ★

That's a kind of experience Nixon never had. He sits in on meetings of the Cabinet and the National Security Council. But Wallace was in Roosevelt's Cabinet, too.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower has used Nixon as a good will ambassador and personal representative to foreign countries — he has visited 55.

Roosevelt used Wallace as a "messenger," to use his own phrase, and good will ambassador, too. He sent Wallace to the Soviet Union, China, India, and Latin America.

★ ★ ★

Although Nixon served on a couple of minor committees appointed by Eisenhower, Roosevelt used Wallace in far more important jobs while Wallace was vice president before and after we got into the war.

★ ★ ★

Wallace became a member of the Commission on Inter-American Affairs. He was chairman of the Economic Defense Board and head of the Board of Economic Warfare.

But there is one big difference between the vice presidencies of Nixon and Wallace. Nixon is a politician; Wallace never was. The Republican pros are in Nixon's corner, all set to nominate him for president.

But in 1944 the Democratic pros teamed up against Wallace. This was when Roosevelt sought a fourth term, his health was failing, and it seemed possible his vice president might become president through Roosevelt's death.

★ ★ ★

Southern Democrats and the Democrats' big city bosses blocked Wallace from running for the vice presidency again. Roosevelt did not fight for him and Harry S. Truman got the nomination.

Eisenhower already has given Nixon his hearty endorsement for the presidency.

Korea Demands Immediate Vote

Students Defy Martial Law; Shout 'Assembly Must Resign'

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Thousands of rebellious students defied martial law today to surge through four South Korean cities today demanding new National Assembly elections at once. Troops broke up one demonstration in Seoul with tear gas.

★ ★ ★

About 20,000 students marched in Pusan for the third straight day, 700 paraded in Taegu and 1,500 in Kimhae, all demanding the Assembly's dissolution.

No clashes were reported in those three cities, although armored cars and troops moved in to contain the Pusan marchers and keep townspeople from joining the parade.

About 150 students squatted for 40 minutes in front of the National Assembly building in Seoul.

The students chanted: "You are not qualified to pass on any constitutional amendments! President Rhee stepped down, Lee Ki-Poong killed himself, the Assembly must also resign."

The demonstrators charged the Assembly's election in 1958—"through use of violence, money and illegal tactics"—was as fraudulent as the March 15 election that gave Syngman Rhee a fourth term and elected Assembly Speaker Lee Ki-Poong vice president.

★ ★ ★

Acting President Huh Chung's caretaker government wants the Assembly, before new elections, to adopt constitutional amendments changing the existing American-style presidential system to a premier-cabinet form of government. The changes are expected to transfer much of the president's power to a prime minister elected by the Assembly.

Troops fired tear gas shells over the heads of the Seoul demonstrators just as they were ending their sit-down. No one was hurt.

Test Noncancellation of Auto Insurance

CHICAGO (UPI)—Allstate Insurance companies Monday guaranteed its automobile insurance policy holders in two states that their protection cannot be canceled because of accidents.

★ ★ ★

The new program—featured noncancellation and guaranteed renewable policies — will go into effect May 11 to drivers in Illinois and Ohio.

Allstate said it would test the plan in Illinois and Ohio before deciding whether to offer it to drivers in other states.

Gagged Cuban Press Recognized in U.S.

The Inter American Press Assn. has recognized the continued membership of four Cuban publications closed down or seized by the Castro government.

IAPA President William H. Cowles, Publisher of The Spokesman-Review, Spokane, Wash., said they would be continued as members "until they have been restored to their rightful owners and allowed to appear freely."

The publications are Avance, El Pais, Excelsior, and Occidente.

Waterford Sets Up Street Light District

There were no objections to the establishment of a special street lighting district in the Vancicle subdivision near Airport road, and the project was approved last night by the Waterford Township Board.

* * *

There are 198 assessments in the average 40-foot lot subdivision, and each property owner will be assessed $2.02 annually for each lot.

Bids for two trucks were opened. Eddie Steele's Ford Agency in Keego Harbor was awarded the contracts. His low bid for a ¾-ton truck for the Parks and Cemetery Department was $2,459.

The firm's low bid of $1,515 on a ½-ton truck to be used in picking up stray dogs in the township was challenged by Robert Simpkins of the GMC Factory branch at 675 Oakland Ave.

* * *

Simpkins bid was only $3 higher than Steele's and he pointed out that his bid would provide larger tires, foam rubber cushions, electric wipers, and would have 150 horsepower engine as compared to Steele's 130 horsepower straight six engine.

In other business, six bids for fencing the Waterford Center Cemetery were opened and tabled for further study. The Cyclone Fence Co. of Detroit submitted a low bid of $2,046 for fencing in the century-old cemetery.

The board authorized the purchase of two new police car radio transmitters to be installed in two new police cars. Bids for the radios will be asked.

* * *

Police Chief Millard J. Pender was authorized to get three or four quotations from local photographic companies for the purchase of approximately $1,000 in photo equipment for the police department.

The possibility of establishing an intercity radio frequency system was tabled for further study, and after much discussion, on establishing a vacation, sick-leave policy for township employes, this project was tabled.

Pontiac's Production 2nd in GM

Pontiac Motor Division production kept its grip firmly on second place in the General Motors Corp. family last month.

During April, 43,419 new Pontiacs were built, compared with 41,399 in April last year. GMC Truck & Coach Division produced 9,064 units last month, compared with 8,262 a year ago.

So far this year, 171,211 Pontiacs have been produced, compared with 157,351 during the same period a year ago.

This year has seen 42,053 units built at GMC Truck & Coach Division, compared with 31,658 during the first four months of 1959.

* * *

GM plants in the United States and Canada during April produced a total 355,567 units last month, compared with 332,503 a year ago. There were 306,254 GM passenger cars produced last month and 49,313 trucks and buses.

* * *

Company figures show that the five major automakers turned out 582,848 passenger cars in April, only 4,000 units more than the 578,848 turned out last April, 1959's record month.

Compact cars accounted for 166,658 of the units built in April, or 28.6 per cent of the total.

Seek to Extradite Forgery Suspect Now in Illinois

Pontiac police planned to start extradition proceedings today for a man wanted here for uttering and publishing and forgery since last summer.

The suspect, Frank M. Zietek, 38, was arrested yesterday by Illinois state police and is being held on a fugitive warrant in Herrin, Ill.

Police said Zietek passed some $2,000 in bogus checks in Pontiac last June.

Pontiac police obtained a warrant for his arrest in July, but Zietek fled the state. He told Illinois authorities he won't waive extradition.

* * *

"Zietek passed about 15 bad checks in this area," said Detective Robert A. Emery.

He is an ex-convict, having served time in Jackson Prison for breaking and entering and safe burglary.

Ferndale Man Wins Pulitzer Poetry Prize

DETROIT (UPI) — William D. Snodgrass, Pulitzer Prize winner for poetry, has taught at Wayne State University since last September.

The 34-year-old English professor was cited for his "distinguished volume of verse" entitled "Heart's Needle."

Snodgrass, a Ferndale resident, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Rochester.

* * *

He won the Longview Literary Award in 1959, presented by the Poetry Society of America, for a group of poems which appeared in the Hudson Review.

Illegal Sale, Loitering Alleged

Nab 5 in Moonshine Raid

Three men and two women were arrested by Pontiac vice squad officers in a raid on an area home where moonshine was allegedly being sold.

* * *

James Adams, 35, and his wife Hattie, 30, of 604 Bloomfield Ave., were held for investigation of violating state liquor laws.

Held on loitering complaints were Smith Hampton, 50, of 611 Ditmar St., Willie J. Stewart, 37, and Annie Bridger, 47, of 3663 Heidelberg, Detroit.

All were in the Adams house when special investigators swooped down on them at about 10 a.m.

* * *

"We've had them under surveilance for over a month," said Lt. William F. Nesbitt, head of the special investigations unit.

"We confiscated about three gallons of moonshine and many empty bottles," he said.

* * *

Bottles and illegal liquor reportedly were found throughout the five-room frame dwelling. Police estimate Adams sold 8 to 10 gallons a week, charging $2 a pint.

Adams reportedly said he never sold more than three a week. All sales were made at the house, officers said.

Carpet Company Opens Branch in Drayton Plains

The Beckwith Evans Carpet Co. is open for business at 4990 Dixie Highway in Drayton Plains.

This seventh branch of the national firm has more than 200 rolls of acrilon, nylon, wool and mixed varieties of carpet on display. Every color in the rainbow has been emphasized by the off-white walls in the 3,500 square foot cement block and brick building.

The Beckwith Evans policy of allowing credit, making deliveries, and installations and giving free estimates will continue in the new store, according to manager Barney Egnater, who lives with his wife and 2 children in Oak Park.

The products of twenty-five manufacturers have been included in the inventory and textures.

"With the experience of our other two salesmen, David Silver and Frank Lorang, we have more than 35 years of combined carpet selling experience," Egnater said.

The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every week day except Tuesday when it will close at 6 p.m.

Michigan Blue Shield to Ask for Increase

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Blue Shield is going to ask the Michigan Department of Insurance for approval of a 19.5 per cent increase in rates in Blue Shield prepaid medical insurance.

In voting to ask the increase, Blue Shield directors said the doctor-owned organization had run a deficit of $695,351 in the first two months of this year.

She Works and Works for All but Herself

LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) — After spending most of a year setting up the machinery for primary and general elections and registration, Mrs. Cecile E. Cole, deputy election commissioner, learned she couldn't vote herself.

She moved and did not have 30 days residence at the new address.

May Wheat Contract Recovers Some Loss

CHICAGO (AP)—The May wheat contract recovered today some of its broad loss of yesterday but the grain market otherwise was steady to slightly weak during the first several minutes of futures dealings on the Board of Trade.

May wheat was up a major fraction on a report that Poland had bought 1¾ million bushels of hard wheat for shipment by the end of July.

* * *

Liberal offers to deliver soybeans on the May contract brought some selling into that commodity again. It also was influenced by easier markets for soybean oil and soybean meal.

Dostal to Leave Despite Offers

Shareholders Give OK for Merger With Firm in Cleveland

Despite an offer made by AFL-CIO union members at the Dostal Foundry and Machine Co. in Waterford Township to take a $500 a month salary cut, the firm's shareholders voted to merge with a Cleveland firm and pull out of this area.

* * *

The Dostal Co. produces a type of permanent mold castings, and firm president Russell K. Dostal said, "with growing competition in the iron foundry industry a company must make more than one type of casting to stay in business."

Dostal said that neither taxes nor union leaders had anything to do with the merger with the Forest City Foundries of Cleveland.

There are 121 employes at Dostal, and approximately 40 hourly-rate men have been asked to move with the company. All of the supervisory personnel will also move. Dismantling of machinery will begin about the middle of June, Dostal said.

* * *

Dostal will be employed as general sales manager of his unit after merging with the new company, which produces many different types of mold castings.

Edison Declares Dividend

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Edison Co. has declared a dividend of 50 cents a share, payable July 15 to stockholders of record June 24. The firm said its earnings for 1959 were $33,430,000, an increase of 11.1 per cent over 1958. It said it spent $59,000,000 on construction in 1959 and planned to spend $7,000,000 on construction in 1960.

Register Office Reports Intake

Receipts Down in Past Month Compared With April 1959

The usual seasonal upswing in real estate sales hasn't materialized, Clerk-Register Daniel T. Murphy Jr. said today, so receipts in the Register of Deeds Office last month show a corresponding decline.

* * *

Compared with April 1959, receipts were $3,328 lower this past month. There were 1,919 fewer papers filed.

Last month there were 11,799 papers for $16,721, while in April '59 there were $20,049 in receipts from 13,718 papers.

* * *

"This is generally a period when we're moving toward more transactions," said Murphy. "But real estate isn't moving, and when it isn't my office doesn't get much business."

* * *

Deeds and mortgages dropped over the 12-month period, he added. Figures in a monthly report show 2,646 deeds and 1,265 mortgages file last year in April, and 2,042 deeds and 836 mortgages file last month.

There were seven new land plats filed last month, Murphy said.

More menhaden are caught on the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts than all other fin fishes combined, according to the estimates of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Market Smiles in Brisk Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market staged a brisk rally as it rebounded above its 1960 lows. Trading was moderate early this afternoon.

Gains of fractions to more than a point prevailed among most key stocks.

* * *

The action was a well-advertised "test" of the lows reached on March 8, to see whether they would hold as a support level or whether prices would break sharply below them.

Steels and motors were active in the recovery drive which followed four straight sessions of decline.

The market was mixed at the start, refusing to give ground. Brokers said this apparently served as a signal to traders as well as some investment buyers to pick up stock.

The buying was vigorous and was accompanied by a briefly late ticker tape. As trading slackened, prices settled a bit below their tops of the day.

The market rally came in the face of some depressing industrial news. Steel production was slated for the lowest rate since last November. Auto assemblies in April were the lowest for any month this year.

Followers of stock graphs, however, were watching to see whether the Dow Jones Industrial Average, which closed at 599.61 yesterday, would drop past the year's closing low of 599.10 reached March 8. At noon the Dow Industrials were up 4.65 to 604.26.

Go Into Politics, Business Told

Top C. of C. Man Warns of Possible Inflation, Lists Dangers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States Chamber of Commerce was told today that the threat of inflation is "as potent and dangerous as ever."

* * *

William A. McDonnell of St. Louis, board chairman of the chamber, urged that businessmen take a more active part in government to do something about it.

* * *

Despite "the temporary relaxation of inflationary pressures the threat is still there," McDonnell said in an address prepared for the chamber's 48th annual meeting.

* * *

"Even a cold war cannot be won without sacrifices," he said. "We cannot win with shorter hours of work, with long and costly strikes, wage-price spirals, feather-bedding, unbalanced budgets, and fiscal practices which discourage savings and stifle initiative and self-reliance."

He urged more direct action by businessmen.

* * *

"We of the business management community have until recently failed in our responsibility as citizens by leaving politics to others.

News in Brief

Several bottles of hair tonic, four cans of powder, and a radio valued at a total about $54 were stolen yesterday from Hank's Barber Shop, 8 W. Pike St., the owner told police.

Robert Anderson of 171 Earlmore Blvd. reported to police yesterday that someone stole a golf bag and six clubs from his car parked at his home.

Orville Hayward of 439 Midway St., told Pontiac Police Saturday that someone entered his home and stole his wallet containing $177 cash.

Chemical Curbs Cholesterol in Test Rabbits

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Cholesterol, a fatty substance believed to be a factor in heart disease, has been permanently curbed in test rabbits by a chemical.

* * *

Dr. J. Philip Savitsky, a research associate at Montefiore Hospital in the Bronx, N.Y., said he had treated the rabbits with injections of desoxynucleic acid.

It may be dangerous to treat humans with the acid until further information is known, Savitsky reported to the annual meeting of the American Society for Clinical Investigation.

HELD IN SLAYING — Sixteen-year-old Gloria Jean Burge of Indianapolis, Ind., was arrested Monday night after her stepfather and mother were found slain. Police said she admitted the killings. She sobbed out her story to a sheriff's investigator, who said, "She still has blood on her hands which she hasn't washed off yet."

Another Yankus Case

Auction Hillsdale Farm for Unpaid 1957 Taxes

HILLSDALE (AP)—Ralph Shinaberry's 120-acre farm was auctioned off today for $310.98 because he refused to pay Hillsdale County taxes "on a farm I don't own." The bid equaled taxes due for 1957.

The 68-year-old Shinaberry rebelled against federal government control of his wheat acreage and has been fighting a running battle against a U.S. penalty assessment of $916.92, which he still hasn't paid.

When Shinaberry refused to pay Hillsdale County taxes for 1957, Circuit Judge Charles O. Arch finally ordered the form put up for auction. It was bid in today by Herbert Jessup of Athens.

Shinaberry owns 150 acres which he operates with his son, Max, 21, but 30 acres is tax exempt under Michigan's Veterans Homestead Exemption Act. Shinaberry started his row with the federal government in 1954.

Under Michigan law he can reclaim his farm any time within 18 months by paying the amount bid, plus interest of one per cent per month to Jessup. Shinaberry still owes 1958 and 1959 taxes totaling approximately $600.

In fighting county taxes, Shinaberry said that "if the government can tell me how much and what I can grow, then I don't own the land and the government can pay the taxes."

He fought a losing battle in federal courts thus far.

* * *

Shinaberry and the federal government locked horns on wheat acreage allotments about the same time that Stanley Yankus of Dowagiac and federal authorities began a battle on the same issue that ended with Yankus selling his farm last year and moving to Australia to start over."

* * *

The Hillsdale farmer says that if finally he loses his farm for taxes or for his rebellion against paying federal assessments, he's going to hook a car to a house trailer he owns and go about the country broadcasting from loudspeakers to all who will listen his argument against federal control of what farmers may grow.

Body Lies Unclaimed in East

The body of an 80-year-old woman, born in Lapeer, has lain unclaimed in the morgue in Washington, D. C., for nine days since her death in her modest hotel room. She leaves an estate valued at $121,000.

* * *

This was revealed yesterday in papers filed in Federal District Court. They also showed that Mrs. Bowers, who left no will, owed the hotel $235.

The rest of her estate, if unclaimed, will go to the District of Columbia.

George J. Charles, attorney for the hotel, told police Mrs. Bowers was a retired government worker and that her records listed a "Mrs. Burdick" of Flint as a cousin.

Police said they couldn't find Mrs. Burdick.

State Department records show Mrs. Bowers worked there from Nov. 1, 1922, until her retirement April 30, 1942, and that she was born in Lapeer Nov. 15, 1879.

State Digs and Digs for School Payments

LANSING (AP) — The State Administration Board today dug deep into the state's general fund treasury today to make a 38 million dollar primary school interest payment.

The payment, due May 15 to schools across the state, will be met on schedule, said State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown.

Check 1,253 Motor Vehicles on First Day

There were 1,253 vehicles checked yesterday in the first day of this week's Motor Vehicle Safety Check, sponsored by the Safety Committee of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce.

The check will last through Friday.

Police officers, service club members and driver training pupils of the city's high schools are running the check from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and from 5:30 to 8 p.m. on Orchard Lake avenue at Tom's Market, on West Huron street at Crofoot School, and on Auburn avenue near Marshall street.

During the evening hours the check is also made on Montcalm street at Lincoln Junior High School and on North Johnson avenue at Norton street.

Card of Thanks 1

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY husband, Albert Minton, who passed away May 3, 1959.

We never thought when you left home,
You would never return again;
The shock was hard and the pain was severe,
We never thought that death was near.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died;
To think you could not say goodbye,
Before you closed your eyes.
We prayed so hard to save you,
Our prayers were not in vain;
For now you are in heaven,
And some day we'll meet again.
Sadly missed by Wife and Daughters, Mother & Dad, Brothers and Sisters.

To Lift Weight Curbs on Trucks Wednesday

LANSING (AP)—Truck weight restrictions will be lifted effective at noon Wednesday to allow normal legal loads on all state trunklines in the Lower Peninsula.

The State Highway Department said restrictions will continue in the Upper Peninsula except on trunklines designated as all-season highways.

TV News and Reviews

Captain's Conversion Brassbound Success

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — George Bernard Shaw's solid gold comedy, "Captain Brassbound's Conversion," shone brightly last night.

The Hallmark Hall of Fame production on NBC-TV was expertly trimmed, shuffled and squared off by adapter Theodore Apstein without serious damage to the play's substance, which dealt with similarities between law and outlaw, and explored the various realms of self-interest.

The 90-minute show was staged amid beautifully colored scenery by Producer-Director George Schaefer (TV's best), and had splendid costumes. But the real enjoyment came from Shaw's dialogue and the cast.

Greer Garson as Lady Cicely Waynflete and Christopher Plummer as Brassbound were near-perfect. (It's getting monotonous, this business of lauding Plummer's TV work. When is he going to go into motion pictures and give up TV, like the rest of 'em?)

★ ★ ★

Lady Cicely, of course, is Shaw's famous supergal, a sugar-laden torpedo who scuttled old Brassbound's vessel of vintage vengeance.

She turned Brassbound from a whiplashing bully-boy into a blubbering and dependent clinging vine. And it was wonderful entertainment to behold.

My notes show scores of little touches that helped make the show delightful, but I'll only spell out one. That was when Plummer's arm began joggling resignedly as Miss Garson showed him how to wear a jacket.

★ ★ ★

"The Shape of the River," last night's Playhouse 90 special on CBS-TV, showed how Samuel Clemens piloted his way through a series of personal tragedies.

FAMILY TRAGEDY

Clemens, or Mark Twain, went broke as a publisher and left his daughters at home in order to go on a world lecture tour that would pay his creditors.

While away, one daughter, Suzy, died and another fell victim to epilepsy. Later, his wife, Livy, suffered a nervous breakdown. She died years later in her husband's arms. Finally, Jean, the epileptic daughter, drowned in a tub.

Despite a glowing performance as Livy by Katherine Bard, the close bond between husband and wife was never satisfactorily projected by the script.

Franchot Tone, as Sam Clemens, handled his extremely difficult role with deep understanding and succeeded in making the famed author-humorist a complex, sympathetic, sound human being.

★ ★ ★

Tone was handicapped by a makeup job that seemed, at times, to have been derived not from photographs but from caricatures. Directed by Boris Sagal and produced by Fred Coe, the play brought us closer to Clemens the man.

Would Aid Missionary Work

Southern Presbyterians Favor Racial Integration

By The Associated Press

Southern Presbyterians have come out for racial integration as a means of helping their mission work.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States adopted a committee report Monday which urged "the opening of the doors of our institutions to qualified students without regard for racial distinctions."

The report was submitted to the Jacksonville, Fla., meeting by the Presbytery of the Potomac.

"Our mission work is severely handicapped in Africa and elsewhere by our inability to educate potential native leaders in white Presbyterian U.S. colleges whereas scholarships are provided for them behind the Iron Curtain," the report said.

The Presbytery of New York, meeting at Staten Island, N. Y., adopted a resolution calling on the national church to use its influence as an F. W. Woolworth stockholder against the chain's segregated lunch counter policy in the South.

The Methodist General Conference at Denver, Colo., said it favored desegregation in its institutions but declined to cut off funds to achieve that goal.

A proposal to apply economic pressure to stop segregation at Duke University and other Methodist facilities was defeated. Duke and Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., do not admit Negroes. Ten other Methodist seminaries do.

The actions by the church groups occurred on a day marked by a major fire in a Kentucky Negro college gymnasium, a bomb threat in Alabama and the first organized antisegregation protest at Augusta, Ga.

Fire caused an estimated $100,000 damage to the gymnasium at Kentucky State College in Frankfort. Investigators said all signs pointed to arson and that a small explosion might have started the blaze.

A series of fires broke out shortly after two teachers were discharged and 12 students expelled in connection with a boycott of the campus snack bar and cafeteria by students seeking more privileges and better food.

Methodists End Row in Amity

Most Delegates Happy After Racial Struggle Sours Conference

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Amity took the place of argument Monday night as the Methodist General Conference ended a drawn-out struggle over racial policy and tightening church organization.

Most of the delegates, North and South alike, seemed happy with the outcome.

By a 723-57 vote, they approved a constitutional amendment linking regional jurisdictions more closely with the national church, and leaving steps for racial integration on a voluntary, regional basis.

The result was a professed compromise, with Southerners skittish about a more cohesive church government, although optional regional alternatives are allowed; and Northerners generally wishing stronger measures for racial integration.

But after the vote representatives of both sides praised the outcome as preserving Methodist unity, and forestalling a possible split.

On Enoshima Island in Japan there is an escalator to take sightseers up a rugged hill. Climbing from sea level to a lovely botanical garden at the top, the four-stage escalator cost $500,000.

Newest Mystery Is Return of the Hyphen'

By EARL WILSON

LONDON — Never mind what Jack Paar's really like—it's now, "What's Tony Armstrong-Jones really like—and where did that hyphen in his name go when it was missing?"

WILSON

The Beautiful Wife and I are here for "The Wedding" and we're agitated perhaps unduly—about the Hyphen That Came Back.

Tony's pater used the hyphen, so did Tony as a boy. Then when he became a working photographer, he dropped it. Recently the hyphen mysteriously reappeared — coincidentally with the engagement.

When Tony was a photog (without his hyphen), he shot some scenes one day at the home of a famous titled lady. When lunch time came, she consigned him to eat with the help.

★ ★ ★

Then Tony (with the hyphen) got engaged to Princess Margaret. Would Lady So-and-so be bidden to the nuptials? Or would she be consigned to watch with the help? She got invited. Tony (with the hyphen) isn't mean.

Tony roared around London on a motorbike not long ago. He considered it a fast, cheap way to get about in the crazy traffic here.

The Palace needn't worry about his political opinions. He probably doesn't have any. As for books: he's the sort of bloke who'll publish one (of photographs), but not read one. No egghead, Tony.

He has enjoyed the spoof approach in photography, but when working he's temperamental and not above stamping his foot to get what he wants.

Tony shot pictures of the play, "Rashomon," in Philadelphia and New York last year, and got what he wanted — often against the wishes of some of the stars—because he had the support of the director, Peter Glenville. Tony uses the Japanese Nikon camera and was thought of as being "a little too arty" by the newspaper-type photogs.

★ ★ ★

As in London, Tony was chummy in New York with "off-beat" types.

Tony was a pretty bad student at Eton and Oxford. However, in his defense, he had polio at school, but licked it, and taught himself to be active and even athletic.

Through the photography that he loved, he overcame his bad marks at school, got successful and by marriage is becoming the Cinderella boy who winds up sleeping in the palace.

★ ★ ★

All you parents who are trying to emphasize to your children that they should do well in school—butter not tell them the story of Mr. Antony Armstrong Hyphen Please Jones. It doesn't conform. Neither does Tony.

Pontiac City Affairs

Bar Tel-Huron Carnivals

Acting on complaints by residents of his district, Mayor Phillip E. Rowston has closed the door on carnival-festivals at Tel-Huron Shopping Center.

As a climax to several years of controversy over promotional activities at the shopping center, Rowston won support from the City Commission in denying permission for carnivals this year.

The Tel-Huron Merchants Assn. had wanted to stage three festivals, May 16-23, July 11-18 and Sept. 12-19.

Protests against the festivals came in person from three residents, near the center, in letter form from seven others, and on a petition signed by 15 more.

They complained that the festivals and carnivals of the past had disrupted the peace of the residential neighborhood east and south of the Telegraph road-West Huron street shopping center.

No objections were raised during public hearings last night on seven proposed neighborhood improvements.

Included are curbs, gutters, grading and graveling on Roland road, from the south line of Assessor's Plat 159 to Argyle avenue; Fourth avenue, Joslyn to Highwood; Second avenue, Joslyn to Laurel; and Tennyson avenue, Fuller to Arlene.

Three residents raised questions concerning drainage in the Second avenue area.

Other hearings were on plans for a sanitary sewer extension of 300 feet on Oakland avenue, from Pershing south; a combined sewer on the north side of Walton boulevard, Stanley to Richmond; and sanitary sewer extensions on Astor street, from Michigan to a connection near Pike street, and on Northway drive, Astor to East boulevard.

There were no objections during hearings on assessments rolls for a sanitary sewer and a water main on Hess street, Grant to Irene, and on Irene street, Hess to Warner.

Placed on the improvement program on motion of Commissioner John A. Dugan was the grading and graveling of Lehigh street, Highwood to the east line of Glenwood Estates subdivision.

It was announced to the City Commission last night that the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. had donated $50 to the Hayes Jones fund.

Hayes Jones is the former Pontiac Central High School track star who is considered a leading contender for a place on the U.S. Olympic Team in Rome this summer.

The drive is to provide funds for air transportation to and from Italy for Jones' parents.

Cheryl Gives In, Calls Her Dad

She 'Lived on Beans'; Crane Turns Her Over to Officers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "You can't run away forever."

With these words, 16-year-old Cheryl Crane—actress Lana Turner's daughter—ended her latest flight from authority.

★ ★ ★

She and two other girls escaped Friday from the El Retiro home, a county-operated girl's school in suburban Sylmar.

Monday, after subsisting three days "mostly on beans," Cheryl called her father and said they wanted to go back to the school.

Steve Crane, Beverly Hills restaurateur, picked them up near a supermarket a mile from the El Retiro home.

He turned Cheryl, Donna Wilson, 16, and Cheryl Zumbrum, 15, over to juvenile authorities. They said probation officers will decide if the girls will go back to El Retiro, a minimum security facility, or to some more heavily guarded home.

★ ★ ★

Cheryl became a ward of the court two years ago after she fatally stabbed John Stompanato, her mother's lover, in Miss Turner's Beverly Hills home.

At 13 she had run away from a girls' school and was found wandering alone on skid row in Los Angeles.

Crane, second of Miss Turner's four husbands, said the girls were "tired but hungry, but otherwise in good condition."

They said they spent the weekend at the home of a friend, whom they wouldn't identify. They had $1.10 between them.

★ ★ ★

The girls said they would be glad to get back in school, Crane said. Cheryl was sent there seven weeks ago for what her mother said was psychiatric therapy.

Court Postpones Hoffa Fund Trial

Appeals Bench Wants to Get Look Into Many Disputed Points

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa has won an indefinite postponement of a trial aimed at having him ousted as president of the Teamsters Union. It had been scheduled to start today.

Charges of misusing $600,000 of union funds were brought against Hoffa by the court-appointed monitors of the union. Hoffa has denied any wrong-doing.

The U.S. Court of Appeals granted the indefinite stay Monday by a 2-1 decision.

The court majority said it wanted to hear a number of union appeals in connection with the case next week before allowing the trial to start. It also said the status of the union monitors was in question and the union was attacking the validity of the trial itself. In addition, it said, attorneys representing large numbers of Teamsters members are seeking to intervene in the case.

All these things must be decided, the court majority said before the district court can proceed with Hoffa's trial. Judge Wilbur K. Miller dissented, saying he favored allowing the trial to start today.

Judges Henry Edgerton and Charles Fahy granted the stay pending arguments May 9-10 and pending "further orders of this court."

Wants Rocky for Partner

'High Authority' Says Nixon to Give Governor Chance Till the End

NE YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune reported today that "it can be said on high authority" that Vice President Richard M. Nixon definitely wants Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as his running mate.

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper said: "on the assumption that he himself will be nominated for president, Mr. Nixon is prepared to wait until the last minute at the Republican National Convention in July to give the New York governor a chance to make a final judgment on accepting the vice presidential nomination.'

The story noted that Rockefeller has said unequivocally that he would not "entertain any thought of accepting nomination to the vice presidency."

The newspaper said that not until Rockefeller has been given every possible chance to reconsider at the Republican National Convention "will the Nixon forces turn to another candidate, if the governor still declines."

Rockefeller took himself out of the running for the presidential nomination last December.

The Herald Tribune story said Nixon is convinced that a majority of the Republican party leaders want Rockefeller for the second place on the ticket.

Passer-By Killed in Blast, Cave-In

DETROIT (AP)—Floors caved in and walls collapsed in a "gush of fire" explosion that shattered a factory building and killed a passerby yesterday. Eleven persons were hurt, one seriously.

The man who died, Arthur W. Partee, 33, was engulfed by derbis when the sidewalk apparently fell from beneath him and he was thrown into the plant basement.

The blast, blamed on a gas leak, shattered the two-story brick building of the Tri-Part Manufacturing Co. on a fringe of downtown Detroit. The company makes flourescent light fixtures.

Debris was flung over an area of a square block. Fire Marshal Glenn Thom estimated the damage at $100,000. Windows were broken in buildings two blocks away.

Traffic 'Copter Crashes, Killing Voice of Safety

CHICAGO (AP) — A fiery helicopter crash has stilled the familiar radio voice that had guided thousands of Chicago's rush-hour motorists around traffic tie-ups for 17 months.

Police flying officer Leonard Baldy, 33, who took to the skies in a helicopter and relayed traffic information over radio station WGN, died in the crash shortly before one of his scheduled broadcasts late Monday. Killed with Baldy was his pilot, Horace G. Ferry, 40.

The familiar white helicopter crashed in flames into a concrete sidewall of a 20-foot railroad embankment at a busy near West Side intersection. No one at the intersection was hurt.

Fire Commissioner Robert Quinn speculated that the helicopter had engine trouble and Ferry tried to land it on a railroad track.

Nine Japanese Study American Buying Ways

Their five-week consumer education survey is sponsored by the International Cooperation Administration.

Play Tunnel Caves In

Men Save Buried Boy

The quick action of four men Monday was credited by sheriff's deputies as saving the life of a West Bloomfield Township boy buried in sand for five minutes.

Clifford Marttila, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Marttila of 7486 Hardisty St., was playing with his friends, David, 9, and Gary Hartman, 11, both of 2240 Keith Rd., West Bloomfield Township.

The boys dug a hole about four feet deep in a field behind 2360 Keith Rd. Then they started to tunnel.

★ ★ ★

The tunnel was about six feet long when it caved in, completely burying Clifford. The boys ran screaming for help.

★ ★ ★

Jack Hartman, their father, Larry Siersma of 7669 Barnsbury St., Eugene Taylor of 2365 Keith Rd., and Robert Ennis of 2275 Keith Rd., rushed to the scene.

The men dug furiously with their hands until Clifford was freed. Deputies cleaned the dirt from his mouth and West Bloomfield Township firemen gave the lad oxygen.

★ ★ ★

Bank Depositors Pull Out Cash

California Police Keep Crowd in Order When U.S. Closes Firm

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—In a scene reminiscent of depression-days bank runs, nearly 1,000 depositors jammed the sidewalk Monday in front of a savings and loan firm seized by the government.

Twenty-five policemen kept order as depositors filed into the Long Beach Federal Savings & Loan Assn. to withdraw their money.

Federal officials watched as officers of the firm wrote checks to the customers. There was no panic.

Coal Newell, vice president of the Los Angeles Federal Home Loan Bank, said the run was expected. He said all legitimate demands for money were being paid, and said depositors should have no concern about their funds, which are insured up to $10,000 for each account.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board ordered seizure of the association at close of business last Friday, citing bad management, delinquent loans and an "emergency situation" which demanded protection for depositors.

The association has savings accounts of about 96 million dollars, with more than 90,000 depositors.
