Lengthy Westinghouse Strike Over

Workers Happy as Long Strike Comes to an End

AP Wirephoto

WESTINGHOUSE BACK-TO-WORKERS — Plant guard Gust Luffey, left, checks five returning employes through the gates of the East Pittsburgh works of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. this morning as the men return to their jobs for the first time since the beginning of a strike last Oct. 17.

Picketers Head Back to Work After 156 Days

Union Vote to Accept Government Peace Plan Ends Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike, one of the longest in the nation's modern labor relations history is over.

Strikers weary of picketing idle plants for 156 days headed happily back to work.

The dispute — punctuated at times by violence — probably cost hundreds of millions of dollars in lost wages and business.

Settlement came last night when the striking International Union of Electrical Workers (IEU) voted to accept a peace plan proposed two weeks ago by government mediators, but changed somewhat in the union's favor since then.

The new contract gives IUE workers annual pay raises ranging from 5 to 22 cents an hour, added to their prestrike average of $2.10 an hour. Additional raises up to 12 cents an hour were provided for skilled workers.

Pensions and insurance benefits were improved. For example, the company will take over full cost of employe insurance after November 1958.

Westinghouse announced that nine of its consumer products plants will get back into production today. They are at Springfield, Mass., Metuchen, Bloomfield, Belleville and Trenton, N.J., Fairmont, W.Va.; Elmira, N. Y.; and Mansfield and Columbus, Ohio.

BACK AT WORK SOON

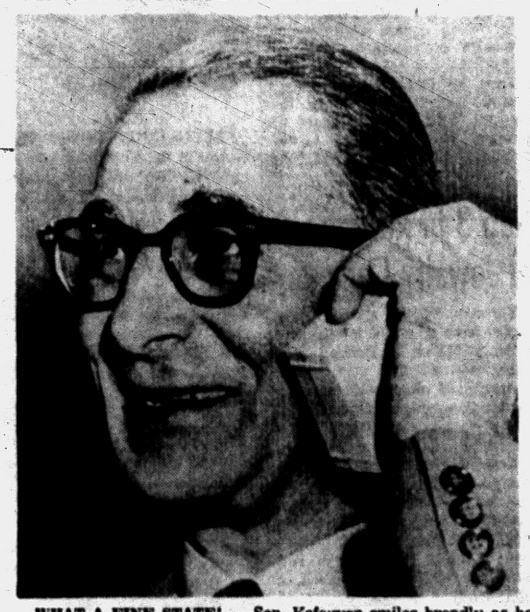

The bulk of the 44,000 strikers represented by IUE are expected to be on the job again in a matter of days. However, at some heavy machinery plants, notably the company's East Pittsburgh works, it will take a month to restore production.

The strike, started in mid-October, delayed by nearly half a year introduction of the 1956 line of Westinghouse products.

For that reason, the company now expects to step up output "considerably beyond prestrike levels at all consumer product plants."

A strike of nearly 10,000 Westinghouse workers represented by another union, the independent United Electrical Workers (UE), will continue pending a separate settlement. But an early agreement was expected, based on the IUE terms.

Candidates Hear News

WHAT A FINE STATE! — Sen. Kefauver smiles broadly as he listens in Minneapolis last night to returns from Minnesota's Democratic presidential primary that gave him a significant preference over Adlai Stevenson.

Voters Deliver Damaging Blow to Stevenson

Tennesseean Pulls In 26 of the State's 30 Dem Convention Seats

MINNEAPOLIS (INS) — Adlai E. Stevenson's Minnesota primary "blitz" backfired and today Tennessee Sen. Estes Kefauver claimed all but four of the state's 30 Democratic convention votes in returns from Tuesday's upset presidential election.

Kefauver's victory, conceded by Minnesota Gov. Orville L. Freeman early today, was a damaging blow to the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee's White House aspirations.

But Stevenson announced at once in Chicago that he will carry on in his pre-convention campaign for Democratic delegates and remain in the four delegate primaries in which he is entered. These are Illinois, Pennsylvania, Florida and California.

With 2,985 of the state's 3,868 precincts unofficially reported, Kefauver had 212,387 votes to 164,189 for Stevenson.

Stevenson spokesmen said the results indicated that many Republicans crossed over and voted for Kefauver in the Democratic primary, which they can do under Minnesota law.

Kefauver was leading and appeared to have won seven of the state's nine congressional districts, but the final outcome was still in doubt with a possibility that Stevenson would emerge with three districts for a total of six convention votes.

SECOND SURPRISE

This was the second dramatic outcome in what was only the second presidential primary in recent Minnesota history. In 1952, the first time the state used its new primary law, the then Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower received more than 108,000 write-in votes for President.

In Tuesday's primary, President Eisenhower walked off with all 28 Republican convention votes, scoring 175,228 votes to 2,802 for Sen. William S. Knowland (R-Calif) with almost 1,000 precincts still to be recorded on the Republican side.

Gov. Freeman told a gloomy gathering of Stevenson campaign workers shortly before midnight that it was apparent Kefauver had "won a clear-cut victory" in the Democratic-Farmer-Labor primary. Then he went up to the senator's hotel room and congratulated him personally on his triumph.

Kefauver in turn told a news conference he thought the Minnesota outcome "marks a turning point in my campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination."

Freeman declined to participate in the Kefauver news conference.

William B. Stout Dies in Phoenix

Pioneer in Automotive and Aviation Suffers Heart Attack at 76

PHOENIX (AP) — William Bushnell (Bill) Stout, 76, pioneer automotive and aviation inventor, died of a heart attack at his home here yesterday.

He was prominent in Detroit from 1914 until he moved to Phoenix several years ago.

STOUT

Stout designed the old Ford trimotor plane; built the first all-metal plane for the Navy; built the first commercial monoplane; operated the first exclusive passenger air service in 1926 and was active in civic life in Detroit.

The mop-haired inventor, who good naturedly said he frequently had been called a "screwball" because of his advanced engineering ideas, adapted aircraft principles rear engine, plastic-bodied vehicle, to automotive design in the construction of his "Scarab" car, a He frequently said a combination automobile-airplane would become commonplace.

Stout was an engineering graduate of the University of Minnesota. He had been a newspaper columnist, editor of automotive magazines and chief engineer for a Detroit motorcar manufacturing company.

His accomplishments included development of small pancake engines, folding portable houses, a pusher-type plane and numerous other items.

He was an accomplished pianist and a pen and ink artist.

Stout was born in Quincy, Ill. He was a former president of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

Mothers Will Get New Traffic Light at Picketing Site

Irate mothers, who blockaded traffic this week to protect their children, will get a traffic light today.

A meeting of city officials yesterday afternoon decided to install the light "as soon as possible" at the corner of East Boulevard and Valencia Drive.

According to the city's electrical supervisor, John Emerson, the light may be ready by the time grade-schoolers alight from school buses at 4:45 p.m.

Traffic Engineer Theodore M. Vanderstemple said he, City Manager Walter K. Willman and Police Chief Herbert W. Straley studied the situation and decided to push a plan adopted two months ago.

While police directed traffic, sign-toting mothers Monday started their campaign, after a boy, 7, was critically injured while crossing the street Friday.

Sunny Skies Going, Rain, Snow Coming

Sunny skies are bringing somewhat warmer weather today. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicts rain mixed with snow tonight with a low of 32-36 degrees.

Thursday will be mostly cloudy and colder with rain in the morning and a high of 38 to 42 degrees.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m. was 25 degrees. The mercury rose to 44 at 2 p.m.

Loot: 20 Cigarettes Risk: Fifteen Years

The burglar who broke into the Sportsman's Grill in Avon Township last night must have wanted a smoke pretty badly, Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said today.

He took just one package of cigarettes, leaving everything else untouched. If caught, he faces a maximum 15 years in prison.

Confident of Progress

Ike Calls for Racial Calm

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today urged the nation not to regard the school integration issue as one which could separate Americans and create a nasty mess.

* * *

Eisenhower again, at a news conference, appealed for moderation. He said the problem of desegregation is one of deep emotion. But he said he is confident progress can be made.

For the second week in a row Eisenhower spoke with deep feeling of the controversy created by the Supreme Court's decisions striking down race segregation in public schools.

Discussing specifically the trial of a group of Negroes in Montgomery, Ala., in connection with the Negro boycott of that city's buses, Eisenhower said he understands there is an Alabama law covering that situation.

* * *

As for the situation generally in the South, Eisenhower said it is incumbent upon the people of that area to show some progress in good race relations.

COURT'S VIEWPOINT

That, he added, is what the Supreme Court asked for. The court, in implementing its segregation ban, called for progress with "all deliberate speed."

* * *

He also dealt with these other matters:

MIDDLE EAST—Any outbreak of major hostilities in the Middle East would be a catastrophe for the world, Eisenhower said. He added the United States must regard every bit of unrest there as a most serious thing.

POLITICS—Eisenhower avoided direct comment on contentions that the upset victory of Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) in the Minnesota presidential primary yesterday reflected a revolt against administration farm policies.

As for the farm situation, the President repeated a statement he first made in the 1952 campaign—that we should continue to work for 100 per cent parity in the market place.

* * *

If 100 per cent in the market place is not the goal, Eisenhower said, then crop surpluses will continue to pile up.

RAPS FARM BILL

Speaking then of the election year farm bill approved by the Senate two days ago, Eisenhower said he does not think it is a good bill. He said it is not workable and would bury the farmers under surpluses they couldn't stand.

The President expressed hope a Senate-House conference committee will be able to come up with a good bill. Such a group must try to reconcile the many differences between separate farm measures passed by the two branches of Congress.

STALIN — Eisenhower said no one can give a positive answer in trying to interpret the meaning of reported efforts by present Kremlin leaders to destroy the Stalin legend in Russia.

BULLETIN

LANSING — The State Senate pumped new life into the Michigan Turnpike Authority this afternoon, approving renewed appropriations for the toll road agency by a margin of 22 votes. Approved was $150,000 to carry on the work for another year.

Mexico Slayings Identity Probed

Check Detroit Pair With State Agent Embezzler Hinted in Same Nation

VICTORIA, Mex. (INS) — Authorities today were investigating the possibility that a Detroit couple found murdered in the Mexican bush may have been the victims of a grim case of mistaken identity.

Police said Everett B. Kennison, 58, and his wife, Pauline, 50, found bludgeoned to death Monday in desolate brush country east of Victoria, may have been mistaken for a St. Clair Shore, Mich., couple believed to have fled to Mexico with embezzled state funds.

Mrs. Anna V. Thorpe, manager of a Michigan secretary of state's branch office in St. Clair Shores, her husband, Floyd, and their nine-year-old daughter, were last seen boarding a plane in Windsor, Ont., for Mexico City.

An audit of the branch office's books taken just after the Thorpes' disappearance showed a shortage of $74,841.

Meanwhile, Mexican police said two American residents of Victoria are prime suspects in the slayings because both men disappeared shortly after the bodies were found.

The missing men, William A. Shelton, 25, and Joseph O'Brien, 30, were lease-managers of the motel where the vacationing Kennisons stayed until March 12, the day they were murdered.

Pontiac Driver in Fatal Crash

Warren Resident Dead, George Washburn Hurt in Smashup

A Pontiac driver was injured and a Warren Township man killed in a two-car collision yesterday afternoon near Mt. Clemens, Macomb County Sheriff's deputies said.

George W. Washburn, 23, of 85½ Perkins St., who suffered a fractured rib, was not held after making a statement in the death of Charles L. Vanderstorm, 84, they said.

Washburn said he was going 55 miles per hour west on M59 when Vanderstorm's car suddenly pulled out in front of him at Romeo Plank road.

Vanderstorm was dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Mt. Clemens, where Washburn was treated for minor cuts and bruises. He sought treatment for a rib fracture at St. Joseph Hospital in Pontiac last night, authorities said, and was later released.

SEN. W. S. BROOMFIELD

Broomfield Asks U.S. House Seat

Royal Oak State Solon Will Campaign for Post Vacated by Dondero

State Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination to run for the U.S. Congress from the 18th District (Oakland County).

Broomfield, 34, will compete for the nomination with chairman of the Michigan Turnpike Authority George N. Higgins, of Ferndale, who preceded the Royal Oak man as Oakland's state senator. Richard Kuhn, of Pontiac, is also in the field.

The latest candidate was elected to the Senate in 1954, following three terms as a state representative. He was the youngest man in Michigan's legislative history to serve as Speaker protem of the House.

Broomfield attended Royal Oak schools and served in the Air Force during World War II. He is married and has two daughters.

The senator said he will "wage a vigorous campaign on the platform of President Eiseenhower . . . I am totally committed to the preservation of freedom and the continuance of peace and prosperity for all."

Interceptor Moves Ahead as Legislature OKs Bill

Passage of a bill by the State Legislature yesterday cleared the way for completion of an agreement which will allow construction of the Evergreen Interceptor Sewer by six South Oakland County communities.

Southfield, Lathrup Village, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield Township have been ordered by the State Water Resources Commission to stop allowing untreated wastes to flow into the Rouge River.

They decided to set up an authority to construct a sewer up Evergreen Road from Eight Mile Road to Fourteen Mile Road then branching out to the north, said Oakland County Drain Commissioner Ralph A. Main.

It would pick up the sanitary flow from their areas plus the west part of Troy city and carry it into the Detroit treatment system.

Southfield has voted to incorporate as a city, but hasn't approved a charter, Main explained, therefore having no status as a township or a city under which ite could enter an authority.

The bill passed yesterday allows Southfield to legally enter the authority whether it adopts a city charter or reverts to township status.

Details for financing the interceptor are just about completed, said Main, "and work probably will get started this fall."

Urges Abolition or Activation

Surveyor Says Office Is 'Outmoded'

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

Oakland County's present elected surveyor and another man who held the post for 14 years agreed yesterday that the job, as now set up, gives little or no service to the public.

The position should either be done away with "and save ballot-printing costs," they feel, or be activated to the point where it can do some good.

These views were put forth by County Surveyor Omar E. MacNutt and a former county surveyor, Maurice E. Baldwin, who now heads the surveying department of a local engineering firm.

When the office was first set up, they explained, many people were buying land from the government and someone had to be around to show them where it was.

The county surveyor now is supposed to settle disputes between private surveyors in a court case where they can't agree on a section line," said MacNutt. "I've had to do this once in eight years."

The setup calls for MacNutt to be paid by the township he is asked to work in. "And I didn't get paid for the one job I did," he stated.

"The surveyor used to keep a lot of records," he explained, "particularly of section corners into which all surveys are tied.

"The way the value of land has increased, that work is still important. If markers are removed, they should be relocated and replaced, but I receive no allocation to finance such work or keep up even a part-time office where records might be kept and made available to the public."

Baldwin advocated "setting up a central office in the county where all surveyors could record their location of section corners. The Road Commission is doing as good a job of this as possible, but very few surveyors turn their information over to the commission."

Each private surveyor locates some section corners, said MacNutt, "but confusion arises as various subdivisions are tied in."

The office, as now constituted, has little use in this area, said Baldwin, "Wayne County has already eliminated it."

In less-populous northern counties which have few surveyors the county surveyor still has considerable work, he explained.

Malenkov Tour Full of Interest

Mile Hike, Car Mishap, Autograph Hounds Hit Soviet on Junket

BIRMINGHAM, England (UP) — A one-mile hike, a traffic collision and a happy crowd of autograph seekers marked the tour today of Georgi Malenkov and his junketing Soviet electricians.

* * *

The former Soviet premier and his party visited the huge Hams Hall power station. Then they went to the English electrical company plant at Stafford where generators similar to those used at Hams Hall are being built for the Soviet Union.

When the motorcade left Hams Hall it sped northward through the Warwickshire countryside. Suddenly on the open road it stopped. Malenkov stepped from his car and said, "I would like some fresh air."

* * *

He marched off for a mile along the road while the automobiles crawled behind like a funeral procession. Then Malenkov returned to his car and the convoy sped through Litchfield.

A truck coming from the other direction stopped abruptly at the sight of the convoy. A smaller truck crashed into its rear and the woman driver was injured seriously.

Several Hams Hall workmen presented copies of Russian magazines for Malenkov to autograph.

Another worker recited Robert Burns' poetry. Malenkov said on the day of his arrival in Britain that he is a great admirer of Burns.

Photos of Japan to Be Exhibited at Cranbrook

Fifty photographs of Japan, taken by the late Werner Bischof on a two-year Japanese assignment for the Swiss magazine, "Du," will be exhibited at Cranbrook Institute of Science for two weeks, beginning Sunday.

Bischof gained wide recognition as a technician and reporter before his death in 1947, when his jeep fell from a Peruvian mountain where he was photographing Incan architecture.

The current exhibition is being circulated through the country by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service. It was first shown at the Art Institute of Chicago.

First section of the show portrays ancient Japanese tradition still living in modern religion, love of nature and social customs.

The second part deals with modern Japan, a nation of growing industry and progressive Westernization.

House Will Consider Water Study Aid Bill

A bill which would allow the State Water Resources Commission to join with local communities in surveying long-range water needs was reported out of the House Marine Affairs Committee last night.

"Its consideration by the full House should begin immediately and I don't expect much opposition," said State Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), who introduced the measure which has already passed the Senate.

The bill is designed to help communities, such as Pontiac, in designing and financing long-term water supplies.

'Mr. U.S.' May Have Receding Chin in 2056

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Is the American race undergoing a genetic change in its facial characteristics and inclining toward the receding chin type?

Dr. Alton Moore, assistant dean of the University of Washington School of Dentistry, says there is evidence to indicate that such a change is taking place.

The face of Mr. America of 2056 may look very much like Caspar Milquetoast of 1956. School surveys of children in Seattle and other cities in the nation showed that 71 per cent of high school students had badly aligned teeth. In more than half these cases, this defect causes disfigurement—usually a recessive chin, he said.

This, he told the Los Angeles Dental Society, may mean that we are drifting away from the straight Roman profile as the common standard of facial beauty.

Nab 3 in Robbery of Jewelry Company

Three additional arrests yesterday cleared up a $500 jewelry store robbery March 7, Pontiac police said.

Arraigned along with three alleged companions arrested Saturday was Leroy Gray, 20, of Ferndale.

Gray waived examination on a charge of breaking and entering and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court, as were William D. Patterson, 17, of Royal Oak; Raul L. Wiley, 19, of Ferndale and Willie R. Campbell, 19, of Detroit.

They were placed under $2,000 bond each by Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum and returned to jail pending appearance Monday.

Ricco Henderson Jr., 30, of Ferndale and William J. Zeigler, 18, of Ferndale were sentenced by McCallum to 30 days in jail after pleading guilty to receiving part of the stolen goods.

SPRING CHORE: DIGGING OUT — In a scene typical of the New York City suburban area, motorists in Yonkers wield snow shovels in bright spring sunshine to extricate autos trapped in the east's worst storm of the season. Conditions are rapidly returning to normal from Maine to Virginia as snow clearance crews attacked blizzards' drifts.

Spring Sun, 10,000 Men Work on New York Snow

From Our Wire Services

A bright spring sun, warm temperatures and 10,000 sanitation men worked away today at what was left of 18.1 inches of snow that was dumped on New York City last weekend.

The metropolitan area, dealt a staggering double-fisted blow by successive storms on Friday and Monday, virtually had recovered as trains, planes and buses moved on schedule once again.

Schoolchildren who had enjoyed a two-day "snow holiday" were ordered back to classrooms as traveling conditions improved and roads were cleared.

The commissioner warned owners of vehicles abandoned during the worst of Monday's 13.5 fall that they must remove snowbound cars from streets by this afternoon or they will receive tickets.

In the Southeast, temperatures were near or below freezing in the Carolinas and Georgia and in the 40s in Florida. It was as cold in Macon, Ga., early today as in Chicago, each city reporting 31 above. The 34 mark at Fargo, N.D., compared with 39 at Jacksonville, Fla.

Most of the area west of the storm-stricken Northeast reported nearly normal weather.

Explosion Destroys GE Plant; 2 Missing

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — A huge explosion and raging flames destroyed a four-story building at the General Electric plant here early today and two persons were reported missing and presumed dead.

* * *

The blast, at the company's main plant in downtown Schenectady, rocked the city. Lesser blasts followed. The cause was not determined.

The building housed a chemical materials shop.

* * *

The names of the workers missing were not determined immediately.

Donald Cree of Schenectady, was hospitalized with serious injuries.

At least one other worker was treated at the scene.

* * *

Large barrels of resin and varnish were reported stored in the building, a concrete structure reinforced with steel and known as No. 77.

It took firemen about six hours to control the flames.

Now It's 'Snow' Problem

NORTHFIELD, Mass. (UP) — A group of Northfield residents has found a way to make use of the huge piles of snow that line the streets after two blizzards. They invited the children to line main street with snow sculptures. If the idea works out they'll make an annual affair of it, they said.

Identify Body of State Man

FBI Report Victim in Texas Murder Was From Michigan

CANYON, Tex. (UP) — The body of a man found stabbed to death in a roadside park near here Saturday was identified by the FBI yesterday as Robert Boyd Chapman, 30, of Holt, Mich.

Identification was made from fingerprints. Agents said two small boys found the body. It apparently had been dumped from a car and covered with weeds.

Chapman had operated a service station in Phoenix, Ariz., for the past two years. He had visited his wife in Michigan when their baby was born last month. The couple decided to sell the service station so Chapman could live in Michigan.

Police said Chapman called his wife March 13 and said he would be home as soon as he could finish signing the papers to sell the business.

Texas authorities said Chapman apparently was murdered that night.

The park where his body was found is about a 12 hour drive from Phoenix.

The body had been stabbed 14 times, apparently with a double edged knife. The head had been crushed.

Report Smoking Adds to Risk of Lung Cancer

CHICAGO (INS) — The director of statistical research for the American Cancer Society has reasserted that cigarette smoking increases the risk of lung cancer.

E. Cuyler Hammand, speaking yesterday at the society's Illinois women's fund-raising luncheon in Chicago, said lung cancer last year killed 22,000 men and 5,000 women in this country. He said that a study into the relationship between lung cancer deaths and cigarette smoking showed only a "mere handful" of victims were non-smokers.

Jackson Doctor Dies

JACKSON (UP) — Dr. Charles Ahronheim, 80, a medical officer in the German army in World War I, died Tuesday following a stroke. He had practiced in the United States since 1935.

EMERSON F. ALSTON

Auto Club Head Taken by Death

Emerson F. Alston Dies in Local Hospital After Brief Illness

Emerson F. Alston, Pontiac division manager of the Automobile Club of Michigan, died in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital this morning, after a six-weeks illness. He was 64.

Associated with the Auto Club for the past 20 years, he had recently been cited by the firm for his service to Pontiac and Michigan motorists through the years.

Born in New York, Alston came to Michigan in 1931 as a stock broker in charge of a Pontiac office. He joined AAA in 1936, and had been division manager for the past two years.

A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Lions Club, Cook - Nelson American Legion Post, and Heart of the Lakes Post VFW. He attended St. Vincent de Paul Church.

He was named outstanding club manager of Michigan by the AAA board of directors in February.

Surviving is his wife, Anna, with whom he resided at 1615 Lakeview Dr. Funeral arrangements are pending at the Brace-Smith Funeral Home.

A Netherlands firm is in the market for automobile safety belts, The Hague learns.

Grocer Arrested in Utica Knifing

Charged With Stabbing Companion in Dispute Over Dice Game

A Utica resident is in fair condition today in St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens, after allegedly being stabbed several times with a 14-inch butcher knife by a grocer after an evening of drinking.

His reported assailant's surrender led police to the wounded victim.

Walter Lyon, 34, of 47787 Betty St. was given 79 stitches and blood transfusions after police found him collapsed near his car early yesterday morning.

Grocer Jesse J. Robinson, 40, stood mute upon arraignment on a charge of felonious assault with intent to commit murder. He was released on $2,500 bond by Justice-of-the-Peace Francis A. Castellucci.

Robinson told Utica police the stabbing followed an argument over a dice game which the pair were playing in the back room of Robinson's store, at 7690 Auburn Rd., after a drinking bout.

Kefauver Victory Hits Adlai's Hopes

But Kefauver said he welcomed the governor, Sen. Hubert Humphrey and other top Stevenson sponsors to places on the Kefauver-controlled convention delegation. He said he didn't know whether they would accept.

SEES REVOLT

The senator also said the election "indicated a revolt in the state and in the entire Midwest against the Eisenhower-Benson farm program."

He added: "It is clear to me that we Democrats can and will win in November."

* * *

The senator, whose handshaking and direct appeal to the voters also won him all of New Hampshire's 12 Democratic presidential delegates last week, called Stevenson "a fine man."

Explaining why he thought he won, he told reporters, "I may have spelled out my program in more detail, worked harder and met more people."

Asked if he thought California's June 5 primary election would be any tougher than Minnesota's, Kefauver replied with a tired grin: "They don't get any tougher than what I started out with here."

* * *

Reporters who traveled with both candidates as they criss-crossed Minnesota last week said it was evident that Kefauver's crowds were more enthusiastic in their response.

The senator pounded away at the theme of "bossism" by state organization leaders, who sponsored Stevenson's candidacy, almost as much as he did the Eisenhower farm program.

* * *

Stevenson planned a news conference in Chicago today to give his own reaction to the Minnesota story.

Mexico Approves Visit

MEXICO CITY (UP)—Congress has given final approval for President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines to leave the country for his meeting with President Eisenhower and Canadian Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent in White Sulphur Spring, W. Va., March 26-28.

The Day in Birmingham

Plan Board Cites Need for Alleys in Two Areas

BIRMINGHAM — Two areas where lack of alleys behind business sites presents problems in unloading of merchandise were discussed at City Planning Board meeting last night.

In both cases, planners indicated that unloading should be in alleys rather than from the street.

Woodry-Walker Company's request for an alley to the rear of stores on the east side of Woodward between Ravine and Park won planning board agreement, following a study by the board of the whole block's unloading problems and an engineering department study.

Max Broock, Inc. had requested that buildings west of S.S. Kresge store on West Maple be given permission for street-unloading until 10 a.m. His request should be denied, the planners decided.

"Creation of such a loading zone would be a hindrance to free flowage of traffic on Maple and would be at the expense of three parking spaces," their resolution stated.

A proposed terrace development on North Woodward south of Colonial court on unplatted parcels 1A and 1B was discussed, with plans made to consult property owners of single family zoning across the Rouge River from the back of the property.

The terrace developer wishes to extend his buildings beyond the 300-foot line from the front of the property, but planners wonder if it is too close to the river line and the home areas beyond.

The single family homeowners will be asked to attend the April 24 planning board informal meeting to discuss the zoning change and see sketches by the developer's architect.

* * *

Admission of taking money, liquor, beer and golf clubs from homes, cars, and Knollwood and Twin Beach Country Clubs has been made by John Duncan, 17, of Milford, according to Birmingham police.

Duncan, who gave himself up after Joseph Pinter reported seeing the youth trying to enter Pinter's gas station on Quarton, is being charged with attempted breaking and entering in the nighttime.

He waived examination in justice court and is free on $500 bond until his arraignment in circuit court on Monday.

Drop First Charge Against the Prophet

DETROIT (UP) — One of two charges of gross indecency against Prophet Jones, Negro religious cult leader, was dismissed today after the complaining witness failed to appear.

Recorders Judge Frank G. Schemanske dismissed the charge when the prosecution said the witness, Alfred Cartaniz, 18, cannot be found.

Jones, who was accompanied to court by 150 of his followers, is still awaiting trial on a second gross indecency charge in which the complainant is patrolman John Henry. The Prophet was arrested Feb. 20 following a vice squad investigation.

Following the court hearing, Jones' followers gathered on the court house steps and sang patriotic songs while saluting an American flag on a building across the street.

Pythian Sisters Past Chiefs will meet at Anna Mary Deneau's home, 25670 Franklin Hills Drive, at 8 p.m. Friday.

A pancake supper is being sponsored tonight by Chapter 220, OES, at the Masonic Temple from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Funds will go for the grand chapter's educational program.

* * *

Lenten suppers slated include tonight's at St. James Episcopal Church at 7 p.m., and tomorrow night's at First Congregational Church, at 6:30 p.m. Following, Episcopalians will have a worship service on "Religion of the Prayer Book," and Congregationalists will hear Stainer's "Crucifixion Cantata."

Frances R. McLennan

Frances R. McLennan, 14231 Manhattan, Oak Park, retired nursing superintendent, died Tuesday. Her body lies at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. and service will be at 10 a.m. Friday in St. John's Episcopal Church, Royal Oak. Burial will be in Bay City, where she was born.

Calls for Probe of State Offices

Former Auditor General Claims 'Politics' Cause Laxity in Branches

BIRMINGHAM—"The time has come for a full scale investigation of practices in the branch managers' offices of the Secretary of State to determine how a political hack could be put in charge of the collection of hundreds of thousands of dollars under circumstances which enabled her to depart happily with $74,000 dollars of taxpayers' money," former Auditor General John B. Martin told Republicans at a meeting of the Birmingham - Bloomfield Republican Club here last night.

"The Thorpe case which now leads to Mexico and points south is not the first instance of shortages in the branch managers' offices," Martin said.

There was an earlier case at Charlevoix, he pointed out, and another at East Dearborn where the manager was allowed to "make up" the difference and no proper action was taken.

"In the case of the Thorpes, however," Martin said, "a little acorn grew into a big oak before anyone knew what was happening. This is a prime example of what is bound to happen where public business is handled on a political basis. This is the biggest scandal to hit the Department of State in 20 years."

"Furthermore," Martin said, "there have been published newspaper stories, apparently not denied, indicating that certain branch managers' offices of the Department of State are being used to build up a political slush fund for the 1956 campaign. If these charges have any basis in fact they should be fully gone into and the whole truth told the public.

"We ought to know what is going on behind the scenes," he concluded.

TV Salute to Mamie

NEW YORK (UP)—The CBS-TV birthday salute to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at 1 to 1:30 p.m. EST Thursday will feature Tony Martin, Marion Marlowe, Robert Rounseville, Martha Wright and Mahalia Jackson.

Adversaries Square Off in Hassle Over Base Site

WASHINGTON (UP) — Adversaries squared off today in a new effort to settle a two-year dispute: where in Michigan should the Air Force build a jet fighter base?

* * *

A Senate Armed Forces subcommittee called a hearing (10:30 a.m. EST) to take testimony on the long controversy.

The Air Force has picked a site in Kalkaska County. But the House Armed Services committee recently voted to move the proposed base to Manistee County.

Both are in the northwestern part of Michigan's lower peninsula. Cost of installation eventually would run to more than 20 million dollars, including an elaborate new aircraft warning system for which rental of telephone lines alone would run several hundred thousand dollars annually.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich) and at least three Republican House members from Michigan—Reps. Knox, Ford and Bentley—are backing the Air Force's choice of Kalkaska.

Rep. Ruth Thompson (R-Mich) favors Manistee, which is in her congressional district. Kalkaska is in Knox's district.

Miss Thompson, Potter, Ford and Knox were scheduled to testify at the Senate hearing.

Bentley gave his reasons for preferring Kalkaska in a statement. He noted the Air Force's claim that it has already spent or committed $500,000 at Kalkaska and that telephone line rental for the communications project would run $460,000 more a year at Manistee than at Kalkaska.

Miss Thompson, in an interview, quoted Secretary of the Air Force Quarles as saying that commitments made at Kalkaska could be transferred to Manistee. Quarles telephoned this information to the congresswoman's assistant yesterday, she said.

Fine First Violator of Refrigerator Law

Oakland County's first case involving violation of the 1954 "ice-box law" resulted in conviction of a Davisburg appliance dealer yesterday.

Pontiac post State Trooper Gerald Tafel said Walter Samuel had his store surrounded by empty refrigerators, standing in the open with doors and locking mechanisms intact. The warrant charged six specific menaces to children.

Springfield Township Justice Emmett J. Leib heard Samuel's plea of guilty and fined him $75 with $25 costs, which he paid.

Pontiac Teacher Receives Award of Urban League

Pontiac teacher and librarian Miss Viola B. Fitch last night received the Pontiac Urban League annual award for outstanding contribution to racial and religious understanding in Oakland County in 1955.

League director Everett C. Spurlock, presenting the plaque at last night's annual meeting, said:

"In her own quiet way, Miss Fitch has perhaps done more than any other person to further the objects of the League. For a job well done, this plaque is presented with our warmest affection."

Among constitutional amendments adopted last night, the League decided to reduce the number of board members from 24 to 18; to eliminate the "equally biracial" provision from board composition; and to permit board members to be re-elected after a year's absence from the board when they already have served two terms.

Board members Robert Boyer and Norman Kuijala were nominated for second terms. Directors Dr. William A. Gordon, Mrs. Edwin V. Clarke, Mrs. Harry L. Riggs, T. Warren Fowler, Rev. William H. Bell and Dr. Robert R. Turpin, whose second term expired last night, left the board

Two new board members will be elected by the board.

Speaker for the evening was Wayne County Circuit Judge Wade McCree, at 36 the youngest man ever elected to that office. His topic was school segregation as it applies to the country as a whole.

"The race problem is the most pressing single issue in America today," Judge McCree said. Reviewing progress since passage of the 14th Amendment in defeating segregation, he pointed out that the 1954 Supreme Court decision on school segregation was "evolutionary, not dramatic."

He said a "national crisis" exists in five southern states—Virginia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia—but that most southern states were making progress in overcoming segregation.

The role of northern communities absorbing Negro immigrants from the south, Judge McCree said, is increasingly important. He said northerners wishing better relations and smooth integration of these newcomers must act vigorously to "convince the popular mind."

"The Negro is the yardstick of American democracy," Judge McCree concluded. "In this way, perhaps he has a greater responsibility than anyone else."

Judge McCree was introduced by Michigan's Lt. Gov. Philip Hart.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often tell-tale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Youngster, 7, Suffering From 25th Heart Attack

NEW ALBANY, Ind. (AP)—Seven-year-old Sheila Whitehead is back in the hospital again, suffering from her 25th heart attack.

The little blonde, blue eyed girl's heart is too big for her body, doctors say, and they have advised her mother, Mrs. Hazel Whitehead, an operation may be fatal.

Sheila suffered two attacks Monday after her temperature suddenly rose to 106. So back she went to the hospital and the familiar oxygen mask.

Legion Leader Fined

IRON RIVER (AP)—Mark Powell, commander of the Iron River American Legion Poist, was fined $100 Tuesday for violation of sate gambling laws. Powell was charged in his capacity as post commander after police confiscated three slot machines at post herdquarters last Dec. 5. Circuit Judge Ernest W. Brown dismissed a charge against Edward Nasser Jr., alleged owner of the machines.

Judge Nursing Injuries After 'Unmerciful' Fight

DETROIT (AP) — Municipal Judge Arthur S. Decker nurses a bruised jaw and sore back today as the aftermath of an "unmerciful" beating in a fist fight.

* * *

But his opponent, 7 inches taller, 27 pounds heavier and 25 years younger, appeared to be the loser in his battle with the law.

Judge Decker told the story this way:

He was driving to work yesterday morning from his home in suburban Wyandotte when a car passed him at 60 miles an hour. Judge Decker took up the chase.

The motorist parked and went into a post office. The judge followed.

Decker, a former professional boxer, tapped the man on the shoulder, identified himself and announced he was making an arrest. The motorist, 6 feet and 175 pounds, knocked the 49-year-old jurist off his feet and kicked him in the face.

* * *

"It was unmerciful," said Judge Decker, 5 feet 5 and 148 pounds. "I didn't stand a chance."

* * *

After unsuccessfully trying to stop the man as he left the post office, Judge Decker said he noted the license number of the car and gave it to police. Officers arrested Dale G. McElhinney, 24, a few blocks away. McElhinney faces assault and battery charges.

Gas Ship Opens Bay

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The gasolien ship Daniel Pierce plowee through 4 inches of ice Tuesday to open the navigation season on Grand Traverse Bay. Ship's officers reported little difficulty in the vessel's journey up Lake Michigan from Chicago.

Foreign Aid Official Facing Quiz Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Aid Administrator John B. Hollister faced heavy questioning today on the administration's request for $4,859,975,000 in new foreign aid money.

* * *

Chairman Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee predicted extensive questions for Hollister and Asst. Secretary of Defense Gordon Gray at morning and afternoon hearings.

Richards is one of numerous congressmen in both parties who say President Eisenhower's foreign aid budget is too big.

Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. told the committee yesterday the Soviets have made firm foreign aid commitments of 275 to 300 million dollars. He said they have centered on the Middle East, South-Southeast Asia and "to some extent" the Far East.

Hollister said Soviet offers have included arms to Egypt, Afghanistan and other countries, and machinery, food, industrial plants and technicians to many parts of the world.

Pleads Guilty in Death

MIDLAND (AP)—Francis Barber, 57, of Grand Rapids was free under $500 bond today after pleading guilty to negligent homicide Tuesday at his Circuit Court arraignment. Barber's car collided head-on with one driven by Harold Whipple of Midland on M20 about 8½ miles west of Midland last Nov. 12. Whipple's wife, Rhoda, was killed in the crash.

HORMONEX BEAUTY SERUM

SO POTENT

$3.50 PLUS TAX

3 MONTH SUPPLY

REJUVENATE THE BEAUTY OF YOUR SKIN —perhaps as much as 15 years! It is a known fact that estrogenic hormones can supplement the waning supply in your own body. And Hormonex Beauty Serum is so easy and pleasant to use. With dropper count out 7 to 8 drops into the palm of one hand. Then with the fingertips of the other hand spread the precious liquid over the skin with special attention around eyes, mouth and throat. It's fragrant and greaseless—so thrifty, too, one bottle will give you nearly a 100 day supply.

FACTS ABOUT HORMONEX BEAUTY SERUM

It is so concentrated—you use it drop by drop. Helps ageing skin to look younger in a very short time. One dropper bottle contains 50,000 International Units of natural estrogenic hormones, over 25% Lanolin and over 25% Sesame to insure deep penetration and fast absorption by skin tissue.

7 or 8 DROPS EACH DAY —gives skin its maximum daily allotment of hormones. One drop is 5 times as POTENT as a dab of ordinary hormone cream—so potent, in fact, you can concentrate hormone treatment on spots you select as needing them most—around the eyes, the mouth or the throat.

RESULTS ARE GUARANTEED Hormonex Beauty Serum can dim or fade wrinkles, crow's feet and sagging and cause your skin to be softer and clearer. Your skin will take on a look of revived freshness, firmness and vitality. And, if used in time, age signs may be retarded indefinitely. You must be delighted with Hormonex Beauty Serum or you get a complete refund.

Consolidated Gas Co. to Serve Waiting List

LANSING (AP)—Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. said today it will be able to serve all those on waiting lists for space-heating service as soon as a proposed new natural gas supply is approved.

About 40,000 potential customers now are on the waiting list for space-heating service, more than 30,000 of them in Detroit, the utility said. Applications also are on file from Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, Muskegon, Ypsilanti, Greenville, Belding and Mount Pleasant, the company said.

The State Public Service Commission was asked to approve addition of the new customers as soon as the Federal Power Commission determines the volume of gas the company can purchase from its present supplier, the Michigan Wisconsin Pipeline Co., and from a new pipeline being constructed from Louisiana to Detroit by the American Louisiana Pipeline Co.

Grant State Truckers Freight Rate Increase

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has approved a 7 per cent truck freight rate increase for truckers operating in Michigan.

The rate increase was made effective starting March 28 for a 60-day period. Truckers will be asked to report back to the commission at the end of that period with a breakdown of operating expenses and other information before the rate jump becomes permanent.

The increase followed a 6 per cent freight rate hike recently granted the nation's railroads.

Ex-Communist Woman Cited on Fraud Count

DETROIT (AP) — A former woman labor union official was under three years probation today for false signingo of a non-Communist affidavit.

Federal Judge Theodore Levin handed the sentence yesterday to Olga Zanchuk, former financial secretary of Detroit local 69, united packing house workers. She pleaded guilty Jan. 20 to one count of a two-count indictment charging violation of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Miss Zanchuk admitted signing a non-Communist affidavit Oct. 20, 1949, in accordance with a Taft-Hartley ruling, although she was affiliated with the Communist party at the time.

Prisoner Easily Flees From 'Breakproof' Jail

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — While waiting to be returned to his cell after questioning yesterday, city prisoner Leon Ray Hays was left unattended.

* * *

He walked through an open door, took the screen off an unbarred window and slid down a convenient tree beside Amarillo's new "breakproof" jail.

* * *

The police force literally threw out the dragnet.

* * *

Last night, Hays walked into the police station and told Lt. E. E. Story, "I tried to call to tell you I would be back. I just wanted to see what you guys would do."

Bob Considine Says:

New York's Finest Picks on Poor Cabbies

NEW YORK (INS)—A small observant girl we know was being taken to the country last weekend in the family station wagon. She and her brothers fell silent as a hearse drew abreast and the two cars inched forward together in heavy traffic.

It was she who broke the silence with a single, Brooklyn-flavored word that either had something to do with the drapes on the hearse's window, or the significance of the vehicle itself, or both.

"Coitains."

When are the New York cops going to stop picking on cab drivers? New York has the best cabbies in the world.

To generalize about them for a moment, they are the finest drivers in the business, the most honest, the hardest working, and certainly the most colorful.

The recent crippling snowfall that drove so many of them to cover revealed just how much the city depended on them and how helplessly immobile it is without them.

TREATED SHABBILY

But they're treated shabbily by that other grand Gotham ornament, the cop. If they are forced to park a few minutes for even the most drastic reasons, chances are that they will find a ticket on their windshield wipers when they return to the car.

A sawbuck is a good day's work for a New York cab driver. These often unfair tickets cost him that much at least and run up as high as $25. Seems a rotten shame.

Pretty soon people will be graduating from TV, the newest industrial colossus, and going into other dodges. Robin Moore, veteran 31-year-old closed-circuit television man, has been named to the board of directors of the Sheraton Hotel chain. His appointment was hailed by other old timers in TV.

Moore reached his present job by way of Harvard, the Air Force, and foreign correspondence. He put closed circuit TV into the hotel chain whose board he now graces.

It has become so big that when Studebaker-Packard put two new horseless carriages on display Tuesday the company was able to show the sleek wagons simultaneously to 2,000 dealers assembled in Sheraton and anti-Sheraton hotels in 25 cities across the country.

Salesmen and dealers in five of the cities—New York, Detroit, Chicago, Kansas City and Los Angeles—talked back and forth with top management on company problems and potentials.

MUST IRK IKE

The restrictions the doctors have placed on President Eisenhower's physical activities must gall him. A friend sends this excerpt from "My Three Years With Eisenhower" by Capt. Harry C. Butcher, Ike's naval aide during the war years:

"I first met Dwight D. Eisenhower in Washington . . . He was then a major. One of the few things that stick in my mind about that evening I met him was that all of us did various parlor tricks.

"Ike had one none of us could do: He stood stiffy erect, slowly fell forward without moving a muscle but at the last instant, just before it seemed he would break his nose on the floor, his strong hands and muscular arms broke the fall.

"He can still do the trick and does on appropriate occasions," Butcher wrote at the time (1946).

Maybe we should identify good kids as juvenile delinquents, which maybe is the antonym of delinquent. Such as Dick Rubenstein, 18, Harvard freshman out of Woodmere, Long Island, N. Y.

He's on the dean's list, the fencing squad, a concert pianist, and on his day off teaches French to interested inmates at Boston's Norfolk State Prison.

Plans for Birthday Dinner Readied by Legionnaires

Final arrangements for the 37th annual birthday dinner of American Legion Cook-Nelson Post 20 Saturday at 6:30 p.m. have been completed, general chairman Mrs. Ray Jewell said Monday night at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the post.

Guest speaker at the chicken dinner meeting will be Charles Snyder, past first zone commander from Detroit.

Special guests will be Mrs. Norman Wiseman, 18th district president from Royal Oak; Ray H. Lawson, 18th district commander from Rochester; Orvin Weaver, post and district chaplain; and Mrs. Charles Crawford, toastmistress, of Pontiac.

Entertainment by the Jackie Rae dancers is scheduled.

Auxiliary members assisting are Mrs. Roger Dean, program chairman; Mrs. Carl Shindorf, kitchen chairman; Mrs. Gladys Williams, dining room chairman; Mrs. Leo Mineweaser, entertainment chairman; and Mrs. James McKee, invitation and ticket chairman.

MSU Receives $10,000

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University has received a grant of $10,000 from Miss Jesse T. Fee of Adrian for upkeep of the Hidden Lake Gardens in the Irish Hills section of southeast Michigan, near Tipton. The 227-acre tract was given to MSU in 1946 by the late H. A. Fee of Adrian.

Floating helicopter stations may be placed on the Thames at London.

Ike Makes Strong Plea for More Foreign Aid

In a special message to Congress President Eisenhower has made a strong plea for foreign aid appropriations totaling $4,859,975,000.

Of this sum, which is $2,159,975,000 more than was voted last year, $1,640,000,000 is earmarked for military aid to Asia and the Middle East. The remaining $3,219,975,000 would be used for economic aid to friendly nations which need our help.

The message clearly indicated the President's awareness of strong Congressional opposition to his foreign aid program. Not only is there objection to the increased amount but also to the request for authority to make long term commitments up to 10 years.

"With Soviet leaders openly proclaiming their world aim," the President rightly pointed out "it would be folly for us and our friends to relax our collective efforts toward stability and security." He was on sound ground in emphasizing that the amount he is asking is a low price to pay for security and greater chances of world peace.

It is to be hoped that once Congress realizes the change that has taken place in the cold war since the Geneva conference, there will be more sympathy for this program. The truth is that the Russians are carrying on a far flung economic offensive with bilateral trade agreements and barter as their weapons.

In our view, our own national security and the security of the free world makes it imperative that the funds necessary for an effective counter program be made available.

PHS Five in Spotlight

One of the noteworthy developments of the basketball season is the fine showing of Coach Art Van Ryzin's Pontiac High School cagers.

By coming from behind to defeat the Vikings of Flint Northern Saturday night 54-51, the Chiefs qualified to meet Detroit Catholic Central's team tonight in Livonia. Fans who have watched them all season look forward to that contest with optimism as the locals already have defeated Catholic Central twice this season.

This game is of special interest for if they can defeat the Detroiters a third time they will qualify to play in the State semi-finals at East Lansing Friday night.

We congratulate Coach Van Ryzin and the players on their achievements so far and wish them every success in the crucial contest ahead.

Soil Erosion Costly

For indisputable evidence that everything possible must be done to combat the loss of valuable soil through erosion, consider the Mississippi River delta.

According to Army Engineers, the delta is creeping out into the Gulf of Mexico at the rate of 85 feet a year. Since the turn of the century it has pushed outward almost a mile.

This steady accumulation of silt in the delta is the work of rain, floods, snows and the Mississippi River and its tributaries. It has created a multibillion dollar headache because of the necessity for constant dredging to keep the ship channels deep enough.

★ ★ ★

A much greater loss occurs because this silt is the priceless top soil of the 31 states drained by the Mississippi River system. Obviously, it behooves every one of these states to employ every known means of combating this continuous loss of priceless soil.

Fred Allen—Humorist

Millions in the television and radio audiences have been saddened by the sudden death of the raspy voiced comedian Fred Allen.

Probably no star of show business in recent years had a more unusual start. Born in Cambridge, Mass., he began as a juggler using the professional name of Paul Huckle though his real name was John Florence Sullivan. Later at the suggestion of his agent he adopted the name "Fred Allen" by which he was known to virtually everyone in the country.

While Allen had been active in television, first with a program of his own and later as a member of the What's My Line panel, it was in radio that he made his greatest success. He and Mrs. Allen, who used her maiden name of Portland Hoffa, launched their radio careers in 1932.

At one time it was said that one in every three radio listeners was a devotee of their Town Hall Tonight program. A feature of that program was a weekly stroll down Allen's Alley which was peopled with such droll characters as Sen. Claghorn, Mrs. Nussbaum, Titus Moody and Ajax Cassidy.

★ ★ ★

The baggy eyed Allen was a true comedian. He was gifted with a sharp wit, a talent for sardonic humor and a deep kindliness he never was quite able to hide. His death is a real loss to the world of entertainment.

The Chip on Their Shoulders

David Lawrence Says:

Controversial, Patchwork Farm Bill Could Be Killed and Buried by the Veto

WASHINGTON — A conspicuous illustration of the power of the presidency in writing legislation is about to be given the country. For there will be no farm bill enacted into law unless the measures that have passed the House and the Senate are rewritten by a joint Senate-House committee in the form of a single compromise bill satisfactory to Eisenhower.

The threat of a veto is meaningful because there is no two-thirds majority in both Houses to pass a bill over the President's disapproval. Hence, the factions all know they must make concessions to the presidential viewpoint.

As a matter of fact, many of the senators and representatives cast their votes on specific amendments to the omnibus farm bill with the knowledge that no such provisions would ever become law. They had to show their contituencies, however, that they had made an effort to get the supports on prices that were desired by cotton or wheat or corn or cattle farmers.

LOCAL INTERESTS PREVAIL

The experience of the Senate on the farm bill, with so many close votes and so many contradictions, is indicative of the kind of thing Congress has gone through again and again on tariff legislation in the past. Local interests usually force individual members of Congress to take positive positions which are at variance with the views of other members of the same party. Sectional interests predominate in such a situation, and the President alone looks at the problem as a whole from the viewpoint of all the people rather than of any group.

* * *

No better description of this phase of the American legislative process has ever been written than that once penned by Woodrow Wilson, the centennial of whose birth is being celebrated this year. He wrote in his book, "Constitutional Government in the United States":

"So far as the government itself is concerned, there is but one national voice in the country, and that is the voice of the president. His isolation has quite unexpectedly been his exaltation. The House represents localities, is made up of individuals whose interest is the interest of separate and scattered constituencies, who are drawn together, indeed, under a master, the speaker, but who are controlled by no national force except that of their party, a force outside the government rather than within it.

"The Senate represents in its turn regions and interests distinguished by many conflicting and contrasted purposes, united only by exterior party organization and a party spirit not generated within the chamber itself. Only the president represents the country as a whole, and the president himself is cooperatively bound to the houses only by the machinery and discipline of party, not as a person and funtionary, but as a member of an outside organization which exists quite independently of the executive and legislature."

It is interesting to note that the same problem of presidential influence and power is emerging today with respect to the farm bill.

Basically, the proposed farm legislation is an effort by all its sponsors to bolster the agricultural industry, just as the tariff laws were designed to support the manufacturing industry of the country. The farm groups feel that the federal government must protect them against the ruinous competition brought by world prices and by the uncontrolled production of crops.

* * *

Today all schemes of regulation and support of farm prices—whether they are called "flexible" or "rigid"—aim to maintain high levels of farm income. The power of the government is interjected to help control the law of supply and demand.

When politics gets the upper hand, huge surpluses are accumulated and the subsidy to the farmers reaches many billions of dollars, which all taxpayers must pay. The result is not necessarily a reduction of costs to the housewife but a maintenance of farm incomes, irrespective of that consideration.

So with pressure groups influencing the course of government, the only force that can help achieve a balance between producers and consumers is the president. In a campaign year, minority groups exercise an influence out of all proportion to their numbers or their legitimate claims. It will be interesting to observe how much the pressure of votes will affect the president himself and the kind of farm legislation that he will demand as he faces a political revolt in the farm states.

Nutritional Deficiency Causes Decay of Teeth

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Good digestion begins in the mouth and depends on good mastication, which, of course, requires not less than 28 good sound teeth or functionally efficient dentures.

* * *

One might still maintain fairly good digestion, health and vite and hope, barring accident, to attain longevity with only 22 to 24 teeth or equivalent dentures. I happen to have 28 — four wisdom teeth missing.

Rarely, if ever, will a good dentist extract a tooth because extraction is quicker or cheaper than filling, inlay, or whatever other treatment may be necessary to put the tooth back at work.

I never fully realized the absurdity of brushing the teeth with some kind of glorified soap until I visited the Lonely Isles (Tristan da Cunha) in 1950 and saw the fine teeth of the inhabitants — people who had no use for brushes or dentifrices, people who, up to that time, had always lived on natural foods such as milk, eggs, fish, vegetables, fruits, eggs, fish, vegetables, fruits, and wheat when they received a shipment, and rarely indulged in refined foods, sugar, candy, and the like.

* * *

Not that sugar, candy, refined foods do any harm to teeth or health. But these foods are generally gulped so they by-pass an important part of digestion, and they quickly satiate, so that the unfortunate consumer takes insufficient undenaturized or natural food to supply his minimum vitamin and mineral requirements.

* * *

One effect of such nutritional deficiency is decay of the teeth, and now that the Tristan people can get sugar, syrup, candy, white flour, etc., from the store — stocked from Capetown — ten or twenty years hence their teeth will probably be no better than yours or mine.

Describing the services of a good dentist. I said here recently "One anticipates a visit to such a dentist with anxiety." I don't know whether the error was mine or the printer's. Anyway what I meant to say, of course, was "without anxiety."

At least I anticipate my visits to my dentist without anxiety because the dentist employs (1) rigid surgical cleanliness about all his work) (2) handles mouth and instruments with unfailing gentleness; (3) uses local anesthetics with skill, to insure painlessness; and (4) makes or installs fillings, inlays, or dentures that are perfectly comfortable from the word go and function so well it is like getting new teeth to replace the old, broken down teeth. Restoration of good mastication raises your morale.

This I know. My dentist has contributed a good deal to the functional efficiency, health, and vite I enjoy today.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Says Dye-Clark Trial Was Most Dramatic She's Seen

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

If nothing else can be said about the Dye-Clark trial, it was the most dramatic I have ever seen in an Oakland County court room.

Here you have a former judge of one of our southern states claiming he handled only a few criminal cases when a letter was introduced showing a total of 2,400. If a man is not capable of the truth, why was he brought to trial in the first place? Are we to believe that even though you're caught stealing a squealing pig, it pays to deny it?

If he is a responsible person, why isn't something done about these contradictions? What happened to our perjury law? As the matter stood Judge Adams was left holding the hot potato and it is interesting to follow its final disposition.

Women Question Policy of Local Animal Shelter

I would like everyone to know just what happens to pets that are taken to the animal shelter.

My sister and I took a little cocker spaniel female puppy there to be placed in a good home as we could not keep it. We went back to see it before we left and were told she was dead.

We were very brutally told that all females brought there are killed and some of the males, too, if left there over three days. This included lost pets as well as ones brought in by owners.

The place, in my opinion, is very unfairly named, as it is not a shelter but a slaughter house. So to all who have lost your pet, please call the shelter as soon as you miss it, because if they have it, it will be dead within three days after they get it.

To me that is just plain murder. How do the rest of you feel?

Mrs. Maurice L. Shanks
Mrs. Norman L. Cullison

Lake Orion

Editor's note: The Oakland County Animal Welfare Shelter has informed us that with the amount of dogs brought in to the shelter, they cannot keep them all. If the animal is the proper type of dog for a pet, they sometimes keep them longer. They also feel that they are in no position to pass on to another family a dog that was unmanageable or undesirable for the people bringing it to the shelter, especially when there are so many other animals suitable for pets.

Feud Among Oil Interests Keeps Mideast in Uproar

BY JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

The clash of oil interests is a big factor in keeping the Middle East in turmoil.

Saudi Arabia, where the Arabian American Oil Company (Aramco) operates in extracting the black rich flow, for years has been battling with the British, who protect prospective oil riches along the Persian Gulf.

Britain accuses Saudi Arabian King Saud of using royalties from American-produced oil to undermine British influence in the Middle East and fight the Baghdad Defense Pact.

Saudi Arabia denies this but also clashed with Iraq, which is a member of the pro-Western Baghdad Pact and which is benefited by British oil operations.

Not only British economy but also the industrial prosperity of Western Europe depends upon keeping the oil flowing from the Middle East.

If the oil were cut off, it could not be replaced. In fact, last year approximately 75 per cent of all the oil required in Western Europe came from the Middle Eastern fields, and the percentage is expected to increase.

The Middle Eastern fields have two-thirds of the world's proved oil reserves.

Companies operating in the old feudal areas expect to be producing 400 million tons of crude oil annually in 10 years' time.

Middle Eastern oil fields are out of the Arab-Israeli war zone. Only the oil from Kirkuk in northern Iraq must be piped to the Lebanese coast and this line is north of the battle zone. An old line through Jordan to Haifa no longer is in operation.

The remainder of the oil wealth in southern Iraq and Iran and also Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and other areas is shipped from the Persian Gulf. Most of the ship traffic through the Suez Canal is made up of oil tankers.

Approximately two-thirds of the oil in the Middle East comes from countries allied to Britain. Kuwait, the biggest producing center of all, is a British protectorate. Iraq and Iran are members of the Baghdad Pact which Saudi Arabia is fighting.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

To Get Along With Children, One Must Be Able to Understand Their Outlook

Notice Danny's clever subterfuge. He wanted me to spend 75 cents so he could win a free 1 cent prize. Many confirmed gamblers show no more gumption, for they squander a fortune at race tracks trying to win a few bucks back again. Children of Danny's age improve, but the adult gamblers seldom do. They are "fixated" at a childish Santa Claus level. See tomorrow's follow-up.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-309: When our son Danny was 3½, he started pestering me with his recurring:

"My go barber shop!"

Busy typing my Case Records for the week, I showed little interest.

But Danny persisted. Finally I noticed what he said.

"But you don't need a haircut yet," I objected. "You went to the barber just last week."

"My get sucker," he laconically let the cat out of the bag.

Danny had been hungry for candy. And he remembered that the barber always gave him a lollipop for being a good boy while he sat in the chair.

So he figured that another haircut would be the solution to his problem. Haircuts were 75 cents then, so he wanted me to spend 75 cents in order that he could receive a free 1 cent piece of candy.

"That's not logical," an adult might add, but children are not capable of our adult logic.

For example, a normal child at the age of four years can copy a square very well. But he can't copy a diamond. Indeed, he must be seven years of age before he can draw a diamond.

"But they are both four-sided figures and much alike!" you adults may protest, incredulously.

That seems true enough to us adults, but the acute angles and obtuse angles of the diamond apparently confuse a child of four, so he requires three additional years of mental growth to comprehend them.

GIANT STORIES

"How can children believe those fanciful tales about giants?" I have also been asked by unimaginative parents.

* * *

"That's easy," I reply, "for children really are surrounded by giants and giantesses all day long!"

And that is quite true. We grownups have forgotten the viewpoint of toddlers. To regain it, just imagine that we adults were suddenly dropped into a society where all the other human beings around us were 12 feet tall and weighed 1,000 pounds.

That is the relative condition confronting the toddler, whose Daddy may be twice his height and five times his weight.

So children don't need to stretch their imaginations an iota to believe stories about giants.

And they relish having the elf or dwarf best those giants for that is a longtime aspiration of all youngsters.

POTENT PRAISE

Our most potent praise for a child is to exclaim:

"My, Junior, how tall you've grown! Come over here and let me measure you."

* * *

Children thus stretch and strain to be even half an inch taller than other youngsters, for tallness is a sign of that "Promised Land" of adult freedom which they yearn to reach.

And they boast about being even a single day older than another child, hoping to intimate they are thus that much more adultish, meaning giant-like.

To win the affection of children, therefore, we must understand their outlook on life.

And it is excellent strategy to "bait" them favorably toward necessary "sittings" as for the barber or photographer or dentist or physician, etc.

Smart doctors, like tactful barbers, offer rewards to children for good behavior, such as gum or even prescriptions for ice cream comes.

Send for my "Tests for Parents," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It shows how to rate well with children, whether as parents or teachers, barbers, dentists, etc.,

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Shoots 1,070 Grouse for Record in Day

LONDON — The record bag of red grouse in one day by a single gun was achieved in 1888 by Lord Walsingham on a Yorkshire moor — 1,070 birds.

He started shooting soon after 5 a. m. Later he wrote to a friend: "I never had the semblance of a headache . . . nor was I in the slightest degree tired. I played cards the whole evening as usual."

A record 1,669,884 copies of the Scriptures were sold in Japan in 1955.

New Icelandic Device Cleans Eiderdown

REYKJAVIK, Iceland — An Icelandic inventor has solved the age-old problem of how to clean eiderdown quickly and efficiently.

His machine, which beats and rotates the down in an enclosed box, takes most of the work out of the cleaning job. The down sells for as much as $18 a pound in Iceland, but primitive cleaning techniques have held down production.

An estimated $840,000,000 now is spent on research in Britain annually.

India Sugar Production Hits New Peak in '55

CALCUTTA — India's production of refined sugar reached a new high of 1,586,000 tons during the 1955 season, which ended October 31.

Output was 586,000 tons above the year before and exceeded the previous record of four years ago by 87,000 tons.

Lloyd Mangrum and MacDonald Smith (1928-34) have won the Los Angeles Open golfing classic four times. Mangrum made it four this year.

Dog Treks 21 Miles

PERRY (Mich.) — Joseph Smalec, who recently moved from Perry to Lansing, missed his pet collie a few days after settling in the Lansing home. Returning to Perry for a few household belongings, he found the dog had walked back 21 miles to curl up in a kennel.

Minors Warned About Drinking

Sheriff Alerts Parents of Children Carrying Liquor in Autos

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—"We're going to crack down on minors drinking in cars," Sheriff Arnold O. Pigorsh said Monday. "We're going to crack down hard!"

Pigorsh addressed his waring to 30 adults, relatives of 17 youths under 21 years of age who have been arrested since Feb. 1 for drinking liquor in cars.

The sheriff called a meeting of the youths with their parents or relatives because of a recent upsurge in teenage arrests on auto-liquor violations.

* * *

He advised the adults to "take firm discipline." Describing a typical case, he told of the arrest March 10 of eight youths on their way to a dance out of town.

* * *

All rode in a single car and were supplied with a large quantity of beer, Pigorsh said.

"What a terrible accident might have happened if deputies had not stopped that car," he told the group. "Eight persons jammed into one car, most them drinking. Sounds like the perfect ingredients for tragedy.

Of the group at the meeting, three teenagers were held for arraignment in court on drinking charges and delinquency petitions were sought for some others.

Little Red Kite Seals Bond Between a Father and Son

By RALPH WHEELWRIGHT

There is a little red kite in a dusty corner of our garage. One of the cross-sticks is snapped in two. Dried weeds and burrs tangle the rag tail. The string is broken off at the bridle.

It's been there more than a year now. I've wondered many times about that broken string.

Wheelwright

It was so very important that the string on our little red kite should break exactly as it did. Exactly when it did. Or we should never have experienced, Ralphy and I, our Big Adventure.

He was 8, going to be 9. The long afternoon shadows were already slanting across the lawn. My back throbbed from Sunday garden toil. And he was hounding me to take him kite-flying.

There isn't much room in the city today for a boy and a kite, even in California. But we found a wonderful spot, just around the bend on Sunset Boulevard, the deserted Will Rogers polo field. Wide, flat acres.

"Can I fly it myself?"

Now I knew. This was a most important day. His solo flight.

"Were you frightened, Dad, the first time your father let you fly your kite?"

"A little, maybe."

He had never tired of my telling him about my own red kite. I guess I told him the story a hundred or more times. He knew every small detail by heart. . .

And now, he was going to try it alone. His big day.

The kite went high and it caught the setting sun on its red belly, pirouetted gaily on its tail. Then I saw the string go limp in his hands. A glance skyward showed the kite doing cartwheels as it plummeted earthward.

"The string broke!"

We watched it go, far down the canyon.

"Don't worry, son. We'll get it."

Before long we caught a glimpse of something red dangling in a tree top.

"There it is! It's in somebody's back yard."

I could feel Ralphy's eyes upon me. "Gee, Dad. What if they won't give it to us?"

I knew the role I was playing.

"Then," I said as heroically as I dared, "we'll go in fighting!"

I never saw his eyes so wide.

"Where will I be?"

"Right beside me."

"I will?" he exclaimed, incredulously.

I looked down into his exalted face and thought I'd never seen him so happy. He put his hand in mine, his strong, squarish little hand, and I felt an intangible something flow between us. At this moment, above all others, he was a part of me. My son.

An unkempt man brandishing a pitchfork came toward us.

"I'm sorry," I said, "but our kite fell in your yard."

A kid about Ralphy's age grimaced from the gate.

"Finder's keepers. It's mine now!"

Ralphy withdrew his hand from mine. He clenched and unclenched it experimentally behind his back.

The man put down the pitchfork.

"Well, if it's your kite, come and get it down."

We got it down, torn and broken. Ralphy couldn't wait to get home.

"Gee, I gotta tell Mommy. Almost had a fight, didn't we?"

"Yes, we did."

"We scared 'em, don't you think?"

"We sure did."

We put the little red kite with the broken string in the corner of the garage where it still stands. We didn't take it out next Sunday, or any other Sunday.

For something we never knew about our little boy became apparent in the next few days. The doctor told us he had leukemia.

CREEPING PALLOR

We stood by his bed, Mommy and I, such a terribly short time later, and watched that awful pallor creep upon him, watched our boy die.

I have wondered many times about that broken string. How did it happen to part, and at that very particular moment?

Over a period of time, peace gradually softened the edges of sorrow, and I ceased to wonder.

For I came to know that only the hand of God could have reached out to perform that small miracle, to give to me that most precious memory, the happiest I shall ever know.

And I found a renewed faith, faith and hope that another such moment, another little red kite, perhaps, may one day be ours.

TOMORROW — William Nichols, magazine editor, tells of the "words" that came to him in a time of great trouble.

New Divorce Grounds

DENVER (AP)—Mrs. Emma L. Vocate, 32, was granted a divorce from bus driver Robert L. Vocate, 31, after complaining she was forced to wear a coat in the house to keep the heat bill down and was restricted to use of one electric light at a time.

Israel has ordered $2,800,000 worth of buses from an English firm, Tel Aviv reports.

Just Plain Laziness Loses Most Jobs

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — "Just plain laziness" was blamed Monday for a large percentage of workers losing their jobs.

* * *

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, an educator and General Motors consultant, said laziness and lax moral attitude cause far more workers to be fired than a lack of know-how.

Addressing the 31st annual meeting of the Dairy Assn. of Kentucky, McFarland said:

* * *

"The correlation between morality and longtime success of the individual is very high, our studies show. A skill becomes valuable only when it is delivered to the job and kept there."

VA Aids Building 4,300 'Wheel Chair Homes'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Veterans Administration said today more than 4,300 seriously disabled veterans have received federal grants of over 41 million dollars for "wheel chair homes." VA pays half the cost of such homes up to a maximum of $10,000. The average grant has been $9,482.

"Wheel chair homes" incorporate such special features as ramps instead of steps; doorways wide enough to accommodate a wheelchair; special bathroom features; and exercise rooms.

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away . . . .
Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upsets or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation ... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.
If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation; and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys — tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.
So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable...with restless, sleepless nights...don't wait...try Doan's Pills...get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Get Doan's Pills today.

Underseas Black Gold Awaits the Wealthy

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

GALVESTON (INS)—Take it from those who know where the booty is buried — this state is so wealthy that even when you go swimming there's gold under your floundering feet.

* * *

Of course, it's "black gold," the affectionate nickname the Texans give to oil, but who cares. Yellow or black, it buys plenty of the second-best things in life and goes a long way toward impressing the neighbors.

We heard about this black gold, which lies in large quantities off the coast of Galveston, and hurried on down laden with large ideas and a deep sea helmet, only to be told it's a highly complex business.

"First you've got to get a lease from the government to prospect for oil under the gulf waters," said a drilling specialist named Les Weber, "and then you better get up a few million dollars. In fact, maybe," he amended, "you better make it mor'n a few. Several, say."

* * *

The cold, hard mercenary fact is it takes about six times as much money to drill for underwater deposits of oil as it does on land. And so far the rewards have been hardly enough to keep a small, easy-to-feed hope alive.

TRIFLING RETURN

Two large and prosperous oil companies have tapped—or, as they say here, "brought in"—one well apiece. To indicate what a costly gamble this underwater wildcatting is, one of the corporations has invested $77,000,000 for a piddling $7,000,000 return.

* * *

"We know it's here though. Seismographic explorations indicate that. So everybody keeps going," says Weber. "Someday—any day—there're gonna strike it big and then, man! They'll build a city on that water."

Already, as you gaze west from the powdery sands of Galveston, you see what appears to be a skeleton settlement rising on the horizon. It's millions of dollars worth of pontoon-mounted derricks cracking down into Davey Jones' locker to see what loot is there.

Oil companies already have leased more than 100,00 acres of the gulf floor from the Texas State government (which owns the shoreline for the first 10½ miles) and the federal government (which owns the waters from there to the "continental shelf" up to 65 miles off-shore).

So far, the more distant areas are believed to hold the most oil, so the U.S. Treasury has collected more than 250 million dollars in leases for the potential paydirt underwater. The state of Texas has managed to struggle along with lease sales of only 32 million.

"In fact, so far it is a charity operation for the government," Weber grunted happily. "Hope we're saving you taxpayers a little money."

* * *

Oil companies who don't have many millions to gamble are sticking to their thriving land operations.

But outfits which can afford to indulge their pioneer spirit see in this underwater drilling an exciting challenge to find new, rich reserves of oil and gas. And the profits therefrom.

There are 510 square miles of potential oil land available for five-year leases under the gulf in this area. Less than one-third of the land is spoken for.

So if you like black gold, now is the time to take the underwater plunge.

Don't forget, though. Bring plenty of that yellow gold along. As anyone can see by looking at his salad bowl, this is a danger area for shrimps.

Boy in a Bottle

Did you ever see a ship placed inside a bottle? That is a difficult thing to do. But it's easy enough to put this boy in a bottle and have an interesting decoration for your room.

In a small jar place a layer of sand and pebbles an inch deep.

Now color Juanito and his two cactus plants, paste them down on cardboard, and cut them out. Spread the tabs at the bottom in different directions. Then stand them in the sand. Some sprigs of real leaves can also be pushed into the sand if you like. You can mount the parrot on Juanito's head by inserting its feet in a slit in his hat band.

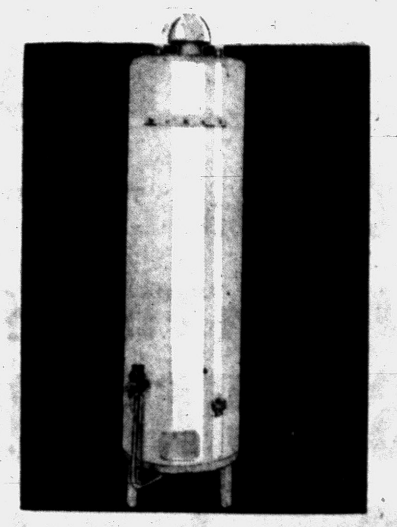

And that is the way to put a boy in a bottle.

Junior Editors pays $10 for usable ideas. You should send them in care of this paper.

Your Income Tax Primer—No. 9

Two Methods Available for Figuring Deductions

By RICHARD A. MULLENS
(9th of 13 articles)

Every taxpayer, regardless of the amount of his income, has the right to choose one of the two following amounts and to subtract such amount from his income before computing his tax:

1. The total of his expenditures in 1955 for deductible personal items like contributions, taxes, interest and casualty losses, or

2. The so-called standard deduction, which amounts to about 10 per cent of your income under $10,000.

The idea is to choose whichever of the above amounts gives you the larger deduction. Most taxpayers find that the standard deduction gives them the larger deduction, but before you can wisely decide which amount is best for you, you have to know what deductions you can claim. This and the next article of the Primer describe the deductible items.

You can claim as a deduction contributions to recognized, nonprofit religious, charitable, educational and scientific organizations; to societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; and to governmental organizations for exclusively public purposes.

You cannot deduct dues paid to social organizations even though they have charitable or welfare subsidiaries to which gifts are deductible.

You cannot deduct gifts to individuals no matter how needy they may be. Contributions to political parties or to any organization which uses the money to influence legislation are not deductible.

Prior to 1954 you could not claim charitable contributions in excess of 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income. The new law retains the 20 per cent as a general limitation but allows you to deduct an additional 10 per cent if the additional contribution is paid to exempt religious organizations, schools or hospitals.

Any contribution claimed must have been actually paid in cash or property in 1955. A pledge to pay money in some future year is not deductible in 1955.

Printed with this article is a check list of some typical organizations contributions to which are deductible. There are many other organizations to which deductible contributions can also be made.

* * *

All interest paid on loans can be itemized on page 2, Form 1040 except interest paid on loans incurred to buy wholly tax-exempt securities or single premium life insurance or annuity contracts. The taxpayer deducting the interest must be legally obligated to pay the interest.

HOME PAYMENTS

Those of you who are purchasing a home by monthly payments are undoubtedly paying a considerable amount of interest each month. In many instances, the interest payments will be so large that it will pay you to itemize all your deductions rather than take the standard deduction.

When a loan is repaid in monthly amounts, a certain amount of each payment is usually for interest while the rest is either applied on the principal or for insurance, service charges and the like.

If you don't know how much of your monthly payment is for interest, ask the bank or person to whom you made the payments for a statement showing the interest payments you made in 1955.

Interest charges on installment purchases can now be deducted, even though not separately stated, as long as there is at least a carrying charge separately stated.

If carrying charges on an installment purchase are separately stated, but the amount of interest included therein is not separately stated, then the carrying charges will be considered to include not more than a six per cent interest charge based on the average unpaid balance under the contract during the year, but not in excess of the carrying charge attributable to that year.

Many of the taxes you paid in 1955 can be deducted on Page 2 of Form 1040 if you choose to itemize your deductions. To be deductible the tax must be imposed on you and paid by you. That mans you cannot deduct taxes you pay on your mother's property.

Page 11 of the official instructions gives a list of taxes which you can and cannot deduct, the most important of which are state income taxes, property taxes, and local gasoline and retail sales taxes.

Most taxpayers do not have receipts or do not keep a record of small payments for deductions like gasoline tax and sales tax. The Internal Revenue Service may allow an estimated deduction provided it is reasonable.

The gasoline tax can be estimated by dividing the total number of miles driven in 1955 by the average number of miles your car operates on a gallon of gas. Then multiply this by the state and any local tax per gallon.

Do not include the Federal gasoline tax.

SALES TAX

The following plan will give you a reasonable estimate of the sales tax. There is generally no sales tax on rent, insurance or savings. First, add up what you spent or set aside for items on which there is no sales tax, and subtract it from your total expenses.

To this remainder, add anything you bought out of savings, or installments that would be subject to sales tax. Multiply the sum of these by your sales tax rate. This will give you the amount to deduct as sales tax. If you live in a locality where food is subject to sales tax, add what you spent on food to the amount subject to tax.

NEXT: Other deductions.

Deductible Gifts

Here is a list of some organizations to which contributions are deductible. There are many other organizations on the approved list. You can deduct what you gave during 1955, in money or the fair value of goods, up to a total that does not exceed 20 per cent of Item 11, page 1 of Form 1040, plus an additional 10 per cent to certain organizations as described in this article.

Pop's 6 Children to Be Married on Same Day

BLENHEIM, Ont. (INS) — Leo Dorssers, immigrant Dutch farmer and father of 15, had this to say when four of his daughters and two of his sons announced spring wedding plans:

"So you all decide to get married in the spring. Good, I give you my blessing. But the weddings will be all the same day and in the same church.

* * *

"Spring is a busy time for a farmer. So I can't be running all over the country, here one day and there the next for a lot of weddings."

The children agreed and the marriages will take place April 28 in little St. Mary's Church at Blenheim.

Four other of the Dorssers' children already are married. The family came to Canada on the installment plan. Three sons and two daughters arrived in 1953. The parents and the other 10 children followed in 1954.

Landlady Just Can't Abide That Black Pitch Patch

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Catchings just can't abide that black asphalt patch on the white concrete sidewalk in front of her apartment house.

City workmen fixed a hole there. Mrs. Catchings scrapped away the asphalt before it hardened. The city workmen put it back; she removed it again. After one more round, City Manager Joseph W. Watson suggested they all see if white cement wouldn't blend the patch in with the rest of the sidewalk.

Miss Catchings has agreed. She said she just wants a patch that won't jar the color sensibilities of her and the tenants.

THE STORY OF EGGBERT — An Easter Adventure — By Walt Scott

Rocket to Carry 'Earth Moon'

Missile Will Hold First Man-Made Unit Into Outer Space

BALTIMORE (AP)—A rocket resembling a huge rifle cartridge—72 feet long and only 45 inches in diameter at its widest point—will carry the earth's first man-made moon 300 miles into outer space in about 10 minutes.

* * *

The first public description of the 22,600-pound Vanguard rocket was given yesterday in a joint Navy-Glenn L. Martin Co. announcement.

Martin is building the three-stage rocket, which is scheduled for launching from the Air Force missile test center at Cocoa, Fla., as part of this country's participation in the International Geophysical Year, 1957-58.

* * *

Martin said the Vanguard will be the "first liquid fuel rocket designed to be controlled without the use of fins," an innovation termed "a scientific break - through by Martin engineers."

The rocket will be guided by a power plant installed on a semi-pivot, making possible directional changes in the stream of power from the rocket's tail. This plant will guide the rocket.

* * *

The first stage will boost the rocket practically straight up about 38 miles above the earth.

The second stage, which fits just above the first, will ignite immediately upon separation and proceed on a progressively more inclined trajectory to an altitude of about 140 miles. At a predetermined point in its flight, the second stage rocket will jettison its streamlined nose encasing the third - stage rocket, leaving it and the satellite exposed.

After its burnout, at about 140 miles altitude, the second - and third-stage combination will coast upward until it reaches the satellite's orbit 300 miles above the earth and about 700 miles horizontally from the launching point.

Stage 3 will be given a spinning motion to insure stability on its orbit before the second-stage rocket drops off.

* * *

Stage 3 has the task of increasing speed up to 18,000 miles an hour, a velocity high enough to counteract the earth's gravitational pull.

Ambassador Resigns

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist government announced today that it had accepted the resignation of Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo as ambassador to Washington.

James Petrillo Shines at Banquet for Sullivan

NEW YORK — It was a night that made me glad I left the farm.

All the glitteringest stars were out—Margaret Truman and fiance, Marlene Dietrich, Joan Crawford, Nanette Fabray, Cyd Charisse—but music czar James Caesar Petrillo outshone everybody with an impromptu speech at the Friars' banquet for Ed Sullivan.

★ ★ ★ ★

Not that Jimmy Petrillo outdid Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews whose "My Fair Lady" is the greatest musical of our time . . .

Petrillo somehow got to lawyers.

"Lawyers!" he sneered. "A lawyer, you can trust him with anything you got, if you haven't got anything. I got a staff of lawyers at $200,000 a year, and believe me, I have to tell them how to keep me outa jail."

Toastmaster Joe E. Lewis who claimed he'd recently had a throat operation—"I once swallowed a shot glass in Chicago"—begged to introduce "the greatest Fisher body in the world," Debbie Reynolds.

★ ★ ★ ★

The swirl around Margaret Truman at "My Fair Lady" didn't prevent her from thanking me for mentioning how brilliant she was in selecting a newspaperman for a husband. "Thanks for the plug," said her espoused.

Somehow came also this tale. Purportedly Irving Berlin heard a rock-and-roll hit record and expressed surprise. "Isn't it amazing," he said, "that a song like that should be written by a 13-year-old boy?" . . . "Is it so amazing?" asked a friend . . . "It is," said Berlin. "I thought songs like that'd be written by 6-year-old boys!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Bing Crosby's frozen juice company reportedly faces investigation on competitors' complaints of monopoly . . . Kim Novak and Frank Sinatra are set for the film, "Pal Joey" . . . RENEE ROY

Is Eddie Cantor planning a screen return in "The Fifth Season"? . . . Ava Gardner's in Mallorca, aboard Errol Flynn's yacht — but Flynn's in H'wood! . . . Renee Roy, a former Miss New York City, was signed for "The Ziegfeld Follies."

Louis Armstrong will be accompanied to Australia by Dr. Alex Schiff, who melted 100 pounds off him . . .

Jack Dempsey will close his B'way restaurant for one day soon to give a big private party for his new honey, May Mann.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

We admire those bold politicians and military men who have decided that at last it can be told—at $2.50 a word.—Banking Magazine.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Chris Schenkel spotted this sign along an Ohio road: "This is God's Country. Don't Drive Like a Bat Out of Hell."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Ted Steele found a REALLY rich Texan. This guy has a different dentist for each tooth.

"Whatever it is that keeps people from getting rich," sighs Tony Pettito, "most of us have it." That's earl, brother.

Aldous Huxley Weds Italian Concert Star

YUMA, Ariz. (AP)—Aldous Huxley, 61-year-old British novelist best known for his "Brave New World," has married Italian concert violinist Laura Archera, 40. The ceremony was performed here Monday. Huxley and his bride both said their homes were in Los Angeles.

The marriage was the second for Huxley.

Hot-Rod's Blues

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—In this hot-rod age Kenneth Wagner's problem will be hard to solve in this area. A teen-ager learning to drive smashed into Wagner's 1925 Model T Ford. He figures it will cost $200 for a wooden spoke wheel, headlight and fender, but so far he hasn't had any luck in finding parts. The Ford had never been in an accident before, but it had been in storage several years.

Foreign firms now may have branches in Sweden on easier terms, Stockholm learns.

Science Develops New Tablet:
Relieves "Hot Flashes," Irritation From Change-of-Life For 8 of 10 Tested—Without Costly Injections

Boston, Mass. (Special)—Medical science now offers women new freedom from much of the miseries of change-of-life! You no longer have to face those years with dread. Today, you can have relief from "hot flashes," tortured nerves and other functionally-caused distress...thanks to a remarkable tablet developed especially to relieve these discomforts. Doctors report amazing results using this home treatment alone ...and no expensive injections.

Irritability was calmed. Dizziness was relieved. Suffocating heat waves subsided. A feeling of "well-being" returned for woman after woman. 8 out of 10 women tested found complete or striking relief!

Unlike aspirin and "general-purpose" remedies, this new formula is a unique combination of special medicines... that acts directly on the cause of these troubles. The new tablet acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve the tense feelings and physical distress that have brought unhappiness to so many homes. Clinical tests prove it has positive medical action.

This amazing formula is now sold at drug stores, without a prescription, under the name of "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets." Developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to women's ailments! Easy-to-take, contain blood-building iron.

If you are going through change-of-life, don't let it rob those years of joy. Start taking Pinkham's Tablets at home today. See how fast you can feel your happy self again—without troublesome injections! (Also liquid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

Sec. Dulles Returns From Asia Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles returns today from a three-week swing through Asia to take charge of U. S. efforts to prevent an outbreak of war in the Middle East.

* * *

Time appears short. Israel has been talking about resuming work by mid-April on a Jordan River development project if the Arab states have not taken steps by then toward joining in an international plan for the river.

Syria has talked of military action if Israel units move into the area. Egypt and Saudi Arabia are backing Syria.

* * *

Dulles is returning after visits to 10 countries in South Asia and the Far East. He will report to President Eisenhower and on Friday night to the nation by radio and television.

New Bailout Announced by Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force plans to parachute human beings from balloons riding 17 or more miles above the earth.

The unprecedented bailout would take place over the New Mexico desert late next fall. The men would jump from heights as much as two times any heretofore attempted.

* * *

Plans for Project Explorer were disclosed at a news conference last night by three Air Force officers associated with high-altitude, high-speed bailout experiments.

The officers reported that Lt. Henry P. Nielsen, 31, coholder of the unofficial record for high-altitude parachute jumps, will lead the new attempts. Nielsen and one other airman would make the jumps, using recently developed automatic operating parachutes and other experimenal equipment.

Taking part in the news conference were Nielsen; Col. Arthur Henderson, assistant chief of the Aero Medical Laboratory, Dayton, Ohio; and Capt. Edward G. Sperry of the Air Research and Development Command, Baltimore.

Henderson said the purpose of the planned jumps is to develop safe equipment and procedures for bailing out of fast planes at altitudes up to 90,000 feet.

Big Gains in 10 Years

Research, New Drugs Speeding Cancer Cures

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon General Leonard Scheele said today one out of every two cancers can now be cured, thanks to research gains in the last 10 years.

* * *

In a talk prepared for the scientific assembly of the American Academy of General Practice, Scheele said that "through early diagnoisis and adequate radiological (X-ray and radium) and surgical therapy, the rate of cure in all cancer cases has increased in the past 10 years from 15 per cent to more than 50 per cent."

And, he said, promising gains are being made in the use of drugs and other chemicals against some forms of cancers, although no curative ones have yet been found.

"Drugs and hormonal substances are gaining increasing value in the treatment of the leukemias and the more common cancers," he said. "Some lives are being prolonged and the patients are more comfortable."

* * *

Scheele also told of progress against hypertension, commonly called high blood pressure, declaring:

"Ten years ago, the physician faced with a case of hypertension had little to offer, except his personal effort to win the patient's cooperation in following a health-conservation regime.

WIDE CHOICE OF DRUGS

"Today, the physician has a wide choice of new drugs—none of which is perfect, none of which is suitable for all cases, but all of which have proved effective in one way or another."

* * *

Earlier, the same gathering was told of a possible robot cancer sleuth designed to speed up and simplify laboratory diagnosis of cancer.

The American Cancer Society today described the machine, called a "cytoanalyzer." It is designed to tell quickly, by electronic means, whether cells contained in tissue samples on a microscope slide are healthy or cancerous.

Under conventional methods such slides must be examined through a microscope by a technician who refers suspicious slides to a pathologist. The robot is designed to do the work automatically and in large volume, cancer society representatives said.

* * *

Said to have shown promising results in preliminary tests, the robot was described this way:

It contains an optical-electrical device which "looks" at cells on the slide. The image is magnified and scanned by a ring of tiny holes in a rapidly rotating disk. Light from each cell image passes through each scanning hole and falls on a supersensitive electric eye tube, causing a pulse of electric current.

The pulse, the society said, contains information about the size, color and composition of the cell.

* * *

This current pulse then enters a computer designed to distinguish between cancer and non-cancer cells on the basis of the type of electrical signal fed into it.

Private School Profs Lag in Cost of Living

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Assn. of University Professors has reported that professors in private colleges have fallen far behind in the cost-of-living race since 1939.

Their colleagues in tax-supported institutions have just about kept up, it said.

The AAUP's Committee on the Economic Status of the Profession estimated that salaries of professors in private schools would have to be boosted by amounts ranging to over 25 per cent to get them back in the running. However, beginning instructors in the same institutions are only about 4 per cent behind.

The committee surveyed 35 private institutions and six large state universities.

Lawn Care Slated as Meeting Topic

Fifth and last in a series of meetings for Pontiac Motor employes and the general public is slated at 8 tonight in the Pontiac Motor Div. Auditorium.

Sponsored by the Oakland County Cooperative extension Service, the program will highlight lawn care. Topics covered will include: How to establish a lawn, how to care for the established lawn, annual flower varieties, culture and use and perennial flower selection and their care and use.

Speakers for the evening will be Lyle Abel, Oakland County farm agent and his assistants John Rocke and John Bray.

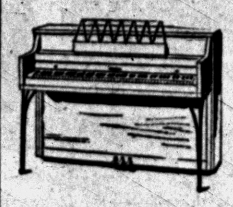

To See Ship Operations

WASHINGTON (AP)—An estimated 80 senators and representatives arranged to fly to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba today to witness operations aboard the U. S. Navy supercarrier Forrestal and the guided missile cruiser Boston.

O-JIB-WA OFFERS YOU
FREEDOM FROM PAIN
This true, unpaid for testimonial, from Mrs. Sherman V. Taylor of Route 2, Lowell, Michigan, tells the facts of how O-Jib-Wa Bitters made it possible for her to walk again, without the terrible pains of Rheumatism and Arthritis.

Mrs. Taylor
"I first learned about O-JIB-WA BITTERS about 15 years ago, through a newspaper ad. I was bothered at the time with severe gas and indigestion, so decided to try it. It helped my stomach so much that when rheumatism struck my legs and hips recently, I again called upon this wonderful medicine for help. My left leg often gave out, and at times I couldn't walk a step. I managed to get meals and do some housework, but it was a real chore. I could just barely get around by slowly moving one foot out in front of the other. I didn't see much change in the first five days, and was a little disappointed, but by the time I had taken your medicine for two weeks, I was feeling lots better. I am completely free of pain and stiffness now, and can walk good, and do all my housework with no pain or trouble at all. My brother also took O-JIB-WA BITTERS with good results, so sure thank you for making us feel so good. I'm glad to have this opportunity to tell other sufferers bothered with rheumatism, arthritis or stomach trouble, how O-JIB-WA BITTERS helped me. I'm certain that anyone who gives this medicine a fair trial, will soon see why I praise O-JIB-WA so highly."

'Sports and Builders Show' to Open at Waterford

3-Day Exhibit Begins Friday

Affair at CAI Building Will Feature Selection of 'Miss Waterford'

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The newest and best for the home and the latest things for summer sports will be featured this weekend at the "Sports and Builders Show" at the Community Activities Building on Williams Lake road.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the show will begin Friday at 6 p.m. Doors will open on Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m., and closing time for all three days is 11 p.m.

Fifty-six exhibitors will have booths at this second annual Jaycee event.

Interesting new trends in interior decorations will be shown—the latest in wall papers, paints, floor fashions, kitchen utilities, furniture and television sets, and automatic heating.

For the homeowner interested in exteriors, there will be plans and displays of brick, block and frame construction, awnings and window treatments and well-drilling. The landscape enthusiast will find a complete line of gardening helps on hand.

INFORMATION AVAILABLE

Information for financing the home or the improvements will be available. And a home safety program will be explained by experts in that field—members of the Waterford Township Fire Department.

Displays in the sports section will include golf, fishing, softball and tennis equipment, and motors and boats.

The selection of a queen, "Miss Waterford of 1956," will climax the weekend's activities. The winner is to be announced Sunday evening.

MANY PRIZES

Prizes will be given away each night and the grand prize, a 21-inch television set will be given away Sunday evening.

Refreshments will be served by the Jaycee Auxiliary. This group will also have a bazaar booth with all kinds of handmade articles on display.

Proceeds from the show will be used by the Jaycees for their community projects.

Auto Wrecking Ordinance Receives Long Discussion

The pros and cons of a proposed auto wrecking ordinance were bounced around for more than an hour last night at the City Commission meeting.

The end result of the long discussion was the acceptance of the first reading of the revised ordinance.

An original ordinance was rescinded by the commissioners last night in a session which heard attorney Harvey Lodge represent the Greater Pontiac Auto Wreckers' Association.

About 70 spectators in the audience, who had gathered to discuss three issues last night, heard the reading of the new ordinance to license and regulate the storing, wrecking and dismantling of wrecked automobiles within the city.

* * *

The law would require all persons, firms, or organizations engaged in the storing, wrecking, and dismantling of automobiles unfit for reconditioning for highway use to secure a license from the city clerk upon the approval of the City Commission.

Previously, a yearly $20 license to sell used auto parts was the only requirement.

The license will be granted at a yearly fee of $50 and may be suspended or revoked by the City Commission on proper cause shown.

This section answered a question raised when Commissioner Roy V. Cooley (District 1) who asked that the felony clause of the proposed act be "more stern."

This clause would require all applicants for a license to swear by affidavit that they had not been convicted of a felony in the last five years preceding application.

Cooley requested to know what action would be taken if an auto wrecking establishment owner knowingly accepted stolen auto parts secured in a felonous manner.

A suggested insertion in the ordinance to cover such a case was ruled unnecessary when City Manager Walter K. Willman pointed out the revocable power of the commission.

The ordinance would also prohibit junk and waste products from collecting in "any lawn, yard, garden, or premises within the city."

It would also prevent residents from retaining any late model wrecked cars in their yards that they did not intend to recondition.

The license will require a seven foot fence to obliterate auto wrecking places and require permission from the city manager to burn wrecked automobile bodies in locations approved by the manager.

Violation of any part of the ordinance could result in a $100 fine or 90 days or both.

The law also will make it unlawful for any licensee to carry on business on Sundays.

Attorney Lodge spoke of the cooperation he and his clients had received from the city officials in formulating the new law.

It will take effect 10 days after the final passage by the City Commission.

Mrs. E. Windeler to Head Area Civic Association

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Mrs. Edmund L. Windeler was elected president of the Waterford Township Civic Music Association when the officers and board of directors of the organization held their annual meeting last night. Neil Hunter is the new executive vice-president and George Underwood was re-elected treasurer.

Vice presidents are Mrs. Martin Wager, publicity; Mrs. Donald White, arrangements; Mrs. William Shunck, organization, and Mrs. James DenHerder was appointed prospect chairman.

The association has set the week of April 30 for its membership campaign this year. Its 1955-56 concert series included dancers Goya and Matteo; the Vienna Choir Boys; duo-pianists Luboshutz and Nemenoff; and bass-baritone Carl Palangi.

The next business meeting of the Civic Music Association is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday at the high school. At that time, Mrs. David Davis, New York representative of Civic Concert Service, Inc., will be present to outline campaign plans.

Train-Car Crash Fatal

OWOSSO (AP) — A New York Central freight train collided with an auto on the outskirts of Owosso Tuesday, killing one man in the car and critically injuring his two companions. Coroner William Scarlett identified the dead man as Richard Decker. Injured were La Verne Hulliberg, 39, and Dallas Woodworth. Scarlett said the men, all from Owosso, were on their way to night shift jobs at an auto plant here.

Pruning Tips Given at Saturday Session

Two pruning public demonstrations will be held on Saturday. The first of these will be at 10 in the morning at Pontiac State Hospital. This demonstration will be on apples, peaches, pears, and grapes, and training as well as pruning will be demonstrated.

The second demonstration will be held at 1:30 p.m. at the farm of James Ford, 3401 N. Adams Road, Birmingham. Here apples is the major crop.

Karl D. Bailey, District Horticultural Agent, will conduct both pruning demonstrations, aided by John K. Bray, Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

Gideon Unit, Auxiliary Will Elect Officers

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The Pontiac Camp of Gideon and Auxiliary will meet for a business meeting and election of officers at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at Sunnyvale Chapel.

Hosts and hostesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bradley.

Brandon Township High School Seniors Promise 'Eventful' Talent Show Friday

By MARTHA LEWIS
Ortonville Correspondent

ORTONVILLE — The seniors of Brandon Township High School are guaranteeing that "whether you are seven or seventy, or somewhere in between," you will enjoy the talent show they are sponsoring on Friday in the school auditorium.

Curtain time, announce student directors Mike Suchy and Duane Porter, "is 8 p.m. sharp."

Trophies will be awarded talent winners of each of two contests — necessary because acts are being used from elementary as well as intermediate and high schools.

One contest will cover grades three to six and the other will be for older students. Proceeds will help pay expenses for the senior trip in May.

Acts from the "top ten" to be given were chosen from 35 acts presented at rehearsal this week, with three grade teachers and Gerald Irish, head of the music department, as judges.

A few of the high school acts will be:

Mike Suchy and Bill Killain, singing "hillbilly" songs to the music of Mike's electric guitar.

A girls' quartet, composed of Joan Coventry, Barbara Burt and Lura and Millie Olsen, will be accompanied and directed by Carol Burt.

Not to be overlooked is the "Girls Chorus Line" which must be seen to be appreciated, say the directors.

The lineup includes "Bubbles" Boschma, "Legs" Suchy, "Fanny" Arcand, "Curly" Davison, "Feathers" Kassuba, "Naughty" Brooks, "Wiggly" Francis and "Can-Can" Porter.

A portion of the music will be furnished by students classified "First Division" in a recent solo and ensemble contest.

A few of the acts from the elementary grades are: The Tonettes, a group of 30 fourth graders, accompanied on the piano by Gerald Irish and directed by Mrs. Adelmi Sherman.

A girls quartet from the fifth and sixth grades composed of Mary Ann Kennedy, Linda Jencks, Diane Grovensteen and Carol Kelly may compete with the high school contestants.

Troy Sets Up New Districts

For Water Improvement to Be Financed by Special Assessment

TROY—First districts have been set up here for water improvement to be financed by special assessment. Total cost of the improvements will be $264,000.

At the Monday night meeting of the City Commission, City Manager Norman R. Barnard presented proposed plans and estimates of the costs.

The Commission is asking for ing dates on the proposed districts for April 2 and 3.

The lawmakers also drafted the policy for spreading costs on the special assessment districts which are being set up and which will not require any initial deposit.

Barnard said it has been proposed that costs will be spread over a period of five years with annual installments, and the cost of intersections and unassessable frontage will be spread over the districts.

The Commission is askding for advisory petitions from any streets which can be connected with existing waterlines.

Streets being taken up April 2 at 8 p.m. are Habrand, Wright, Fabius, Kirts, Heide, Lowry, Mont Clair, Sylvanwood, Leetonia, Minnesota, Harris, Hartland, Glaser, Bradley, Evaline, Butterfield and Hart Street.

Those to be considered April 3 are Louis, Lange, Eastport, Lamb, Soperton, Muer, Banmoor and McClure.

* * *

The city purchased another police car, a Ford; and also bought a tax accounting machine to be shared by the tax department, the treasurer's office and the water department.

The commission appointed George T. Jeffers as civil defense director under the new title "Civilian Emergency Director," a non-paying volunteer position.

Oldest Citizen Ailing

KALAMAZOO (AP)—William (Dad) Eddington, believed to be Michigan's oldest citizen at 106, was in Bronson Hospital here today for treatment of anemia. Eddington, who will be 107 May 20, was stricken last Friday.

Slate Easter Program

METAMORA — The Pilgrim Club will hold an Easter program at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Andison at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Roy Best will be co-hostess. Mrs. Lowes Walker will be leader.

Residents Fighting Move to Allow Auto Wrecking

Some 35 determined residents of the Dixie Highway Subdivision area on the city's northwest side, last night promised a long fight to block a proposed rezoning which would allow an auto wrecking establishment to expand in their area.

After a month's delay upon the request of City Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, the proposed rezoning of lots 145 through 147 to manufacturing 3 was aired at last night's City Commission meeting in a continued public hearing.

Miles requested the postponement in February in order that the commission might first take action on a proposed auto wrecking ordinance.

More than an hour's discussion was held last night on the rezoning after some 70 people in the chambers heard the first reading of the revised auto wrecking law.

If the lots in question were rezoned to manufacturing 3, this would allow Louie's Auto Parts at 986 Oakland Ave. to expand his business in the area.

A spokesman for the anti-rezoning group said they were present at the meeting not to "try and run Louie out of business, but to stop him from enlarging."

The commissioners heard a report from the City Plan Commission stating the facts in the growth of the auto parts establishment and the permits issued to it.

The communication said only lot 147 applied to the non-conforming use ruling which, according to City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn, would allow him to expand 100 per cent in this lot.

Some four persons in the audience claimed they had never received notice of a hearing on this case before the plan group.

One man further charged that "if these junk yards keep advancing on our homes, they won't be worth a thing and the neighborhood will not be fit to raise children in."

Commissioner Miles, in whose District 4 the area is, said there was a "misunderstanding as to why the people did not receive notice of the City Planning Commission hearing."

"A better study of this matter must be made before the City Commission makes an adjustment in the case," he added.

The matter was tabled for one week in order that a survey might be made to secure more facts in the case.

This continued postponement resulted in a charge by one man in the audience that the delay might be a "political move because of the election coming up."

All 35 irate members of the group left the chambers declaring a "bigger delegation than what was here tonight will be on hand next week."

Two Opponents Asked to Meet

Principals in Fight Over Turnpikes Invited to 'Smoke Peace Pipe'

LANSING (AP)—The two principals in the fight over turnpikes have been invited to sit down together next week and smoke the peace pipe.

* * *

Sen. Haskell Nichols (R-Jackson), chairman of the Senate Highways Committee, asked State Highway Comm. Charles M. Ziegler and George N. Higgins, chairman of the turnpike authority, to meet with the committee March 28.

He said the meeting was arranged "to try to reconcile the differences which have caused an impasse on the construction of toll roads."

"The safety, the economics and the welfare of our citizens justify a prompt and immediate solution to this most perplexing problem," Nichols said.

"I believe such a meeting is not only mandatory, but in an effort to solve the problem, any differences should be eliminated," he wrote the two.

Ziegler, while insisting he is not against turnpikes in general, is going ahead with plans to build a freeway which would run parallel to the route of a proposed turnpike from Saginaw to Rockwood.

Turnpike backers fear the freeway will wreck chances of selling bonds for the toll superhighway.

Meanwhile, the Senate has advanced a bill giving the turnpike $150,000 for operations during fiscal year 1956-57. A final vote on the measure is expected this week.

Seeking Storm Sewers for Northwest Subdivision

Chances for storm sewers for the Kennett Gardens Subdivision in the city's northwest corner loomed brighter today as several residents of the area continued their pleas for the project at last night's City Commission meeting.

After a background history of sewer projects in this area by City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn, Commissioner Floyd P. Miles (District 4) recommended the residents submit a petition requesting the work.

This followed a discussion in which one resident, Charles Dugas, 1163 Meadowlawn Dr., asked the commission how long the area would have to "continue to be a backward area in the city while other sections received all the developments."

City Manager Walter K. Willman explained to Commissioner Miles that there was no chance of these trunk and lateral lines to be included in the present capital improvement program.

"A petition would be the most concrete way in which to find out what the people in the area want," Miles said.

The proposed project was once declared a public necessity, Wrenn explained, but was defeated because of the heavy assessment burden and city share cost of the job.

According to a 1955 estimate, residents of the Cherrylawn, Meadowlawn, Cloverlawn street area would be assessed $200,000, while the city would pay $385,000, or 60 per cent of the total cost of $570,717.

Wrenn emphasized that no credit would be given for a sewer installed in the 1930's because of the difference in costs now and the present.

Unretires for Pulpit

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Frank Adams Taylor retired in Florida six years ago at the age of 44. He had been a professional athlete, tobacco inspector, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture official, real estate developer and an insurance salesman. Now he is about to come out of retirement to officially begin his career as a Presbyterian minister. He will receive his bachelor of divinity degree in May.

MR. AND MRS. ORTON ARMSTRONG

Armstrong-Crivea Vows Spoken at Mandon Lake

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Muriel Jean Crivea and Orton Armstrong spoke their marriage vows in a setting of candlelight, palms and white gladioli, Friday evening, in Mandon Lake Community Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Crivea, 1155 Myrtle St., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Armstrong of 938 Premont St., Pontiac.

Muriel chose for her wedding a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace with a long train. Her veil was of fingertip length and she carried white hyacinths and white roses on a white Bible.

Matron of honor for the occasion was Mrs. Ilene Armstrong, of Enterprise, Ala., and bridesmaids were Ruth Goodwin, May Lou Lackie and Sharon Walton, all of Pontiac.

Patricia Crivea, sister of the bride, acted as a junior bridesmaid.

Lowell Fockler, Stanley Rock, George Lozenburger and Levi John Crivea are attendants for the bridegroom.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Mandon Lake Church and the couple left afterward for a planned trip to Niagara Falls.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will live on Stout street, Pontiac.

Arctic Ocean Open, Says Navy Scientist

WASHINGTON (INS) — A Navy scientist states that the Arctic Ocean up to the North Pole might be an open sea part of the year except for the gales that pack ice into thick ridges.

Hollywood Headlines:

Film Musical to Feature Grace's Royal Romance

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — The romance of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III will be the subject of a musical to be filmed by Leo McCarey.

He has permission from the prince, with whom he had several conferences. It happened after Leo met Father Tucker, who brought about a meeting between the motion picture director and the ruler of Monaco.

"I do not plan to use the names of the principals, nor will the story be patterned 100 per cent after Miss Kelly's romance with her prince," said Leo. "I hope to film the exteriors in Monaco."

"I wish you would write it," Zsa Zsa told Anita Loos when she came and sat at our table at Romanoff's.

Zsa Zsa will be escorted by Cowles at Eva Gabor's opening in New York. She says it's all off with Rubirosa—the first time she has admitted it. She says she will attend her sister Magda's wedding while she is East. Magda is marrying Tony Galluci, and the Gabors are all happy over Magda's choice.

MAGNIFICENT FILM

"Moby Dick" is a magnificent picture, a real work of art. The subdued color, the long vistas of the sea and the beautiful scenery give the impression of rare etchings.

Gregery Peck as Captain Ahab makes Herman Melville's character live. Richard Basehart is very good too. There's nary a woman in the whole picture.

John Huston spent months and months and months in making "Moby Dick." He's a perfectionist in every way and, believe me, it shown in his work.

Socially speaking: At the Henry Rogers dinner honoring Art Buchwald, Lana Turner told me that she and Lex Barker are getting to be regular stay-at-homes. This was the first time they'd been at a party in weeks.

Van Heflin, very thin I thought, says he hasn't made up his mind about his next picture. He seemed disappointed that "A View From the Bridge" won't play in London.

Mrs. Adolph Menjou hasn't aged a day. She looks wonderful. Adolph told me about the good time he had making "Ambassador's Daughter."

The more I see of Eva Marie Saint the better I like her. She and Jeffrey Hayden, her nice husband, sat at our table.

PLANS TV SERIES

Mary Kaye, who is bringing them into Ciro's, had the fright of her life when her brother Norman's 2½-year-old son swallowed almost a full bottle of aspirin. He had to have his stomach pumped out.

Burgess Meredith is trying to get Nat "King" Cole's name on a contract for Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones."

Betty Bacall tells me she hopes to take Bogey home the end of the week. She says he's like the old Bogey now, feeling much better, which is good news.

Ava Gardner's most recent dates are with Mil Parado, famous jet pilot—that is, while she's in Madrid.

Over the weekend Liz Taylor and Michael Wilding, Joan Collins and Arthur Loew Jr. were at La Rue in a party of four.

This is the season for Molly and Charlie Berns to visit Hollywood, and everyone's trying to get into the act giving them parties.

New Heat Detector Five Times Faster

MINNEAPOLIS — A Minneapolis concern has developed a thermoradiation detector that it says is five times faster than existing models.

The new unit permits measurement without any actual physical contact and is suited for taking temperatures of fast moving bars, billets, and sheets on "target" for less than one second.

To Finance Volumes

LANSING (AP)—The State Historical Commission will finance the writing and publication of a series of volumes on the history of Michigan education. Fellowships ranging from $500 to $2,500 and additional grants for research and writing expenses were made available by a fund established by the late John M. Everyone Shares Misery, Adventure

Snow Crisis Turns New York Into Village

By RELMAN MORIN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—Mother Nature has waved a magic wand over New York, and turned the big city into a village.

* * *

As you saw in the papers, we have been getting snow here, a fantastic amount for this corner of the country. Some of the old-timers—sitting around in Manhattan equivalents of the general store with the pot-bellied iron stove—are comparing this storm with the real wing-ding blizzards of the past.

TRAFFIC VANISHES

It has choked the streets, buried parked automobiles, and most wonderful of all, made the traffic simply vanish in thin air.

* * *

It delights children, opens theater doors (because so many people with tickets can't get downtown), makes strangers feel like talking to each other, and gives everybody a chance to tell you "how I got to the office." Or vice versa.

It has been magic, pure white magic.

You think of New York as the epitome of the machine age, in fact, as a great roaring machine itself. But when the storm engulfed it, the city was as helpless as any cross-roads community. Snow plows and trucks, and steam conduits beneath the streets, cleared some places. Mostly, though, it was done with muscle and shovels.

DOWN THE MIDDLE

Before they started, however, people going to work simply walked down the middle of the streets.

* * *

It gave you an eerie feeling to see the avenues deserted except for an occasional bus or truck. And walking along the tracks they had made came pedestrians. Imagine walking down the middle of Fifth Avenue at 9 o'clock in the morning—and living!

Together, the wind and snow fashioned shapes of incredible beauty.

* * *

GREAT FOR KIDS

The kids of course had a field day. Two boys, struggling with undersized shovels to clear a patch of sidewalk, stopped for breath as I passed. "Well, anyway," said one, "this is a lot better than going to school."

* * *

I also had a brief conversation with an elderly airedale who was taking his master for a walk. Unlike most dogs, this old fellow did not like the snow or any part of it. He put his old foot down gingerly, took one step and stopped. Then he would take another step and stop. Then he growled and the growl turned to a complaining whine.

* * *

What he said about this blizzard was picturesque, but unfortunately, not printable in a family newspaper.

New Yorkers are usually worse than Englishmen about not talking to strangers. But on the bus, everybody was an old friend of everybody else. The blizzard was an experience shared, a common bond.

ABANDONED CAR

A man said: "It sure taught me one thing ... never go out in this kind of weather without a full tank of gas." A woman across the aisle asked what had happened, and he described how he had had to abandon his car on a highway beside the Hudson. Everybody clucked and offered sympathy.

* * *

The bus driver said: "I saw at least a thousand cars left on the West Side Highway."

"That would be a tough place to be," said a man. "There's the river on one side and a railroad on another. You suppose they walked all the way in to town?"

"Beats me," said the driver.

* * *

He saw a man signal from the curb, and although it wasn't a scheduled stop, he halted the bus at the corner.

The man said as he came aboard, "You're a gentleman, Sir. Thank you."

"I had to come to work myself," said the driver. "I know how it is."

Smoking Rules Eased

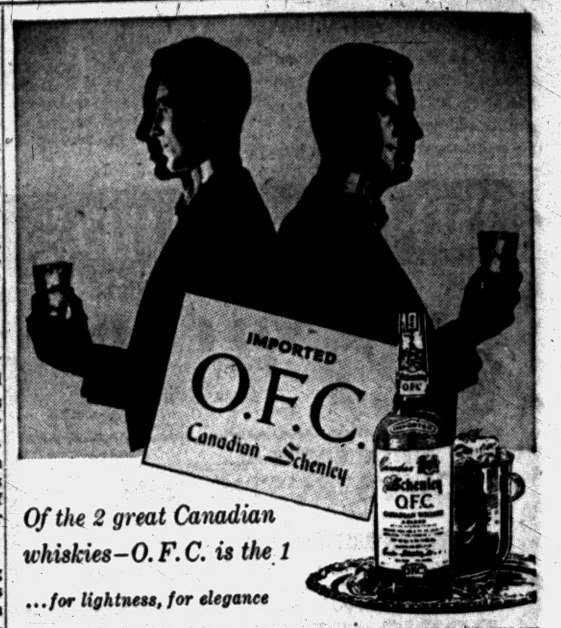

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University has relaxed strictness of its rules forbidding smoking on the campus. Smoking is still prohibited in classrooms, lecture halls, teaching laboratories, barns, farm buildings and storage buildings. Smoking now is permitted in private offices, conference rooms, non-teaching laboratories and other areas where no hazard exists.

The port of Buffalo, N.Y., with 37 miles of waterfront, is the greatest freshwater port in the world in value of tonnage.

Impulse Proves Costly

EAST LANSING (AP) — East Lansing Police checked through old records to slow down Thomas Kenger after he ripped a "stop" sign from a police car. The impulse cost Kenger five days in jail and $54.30 in fines and costs plus $24.30 for an accumulation of old parking tickets and $14.30 for an overdue speeding ticket.

One-hand field goal shooting grew from 52 per cent of all shots in 1939 to about 93 per cent in 1948, and the accuracy ratio increased accordingly.

Jewish Institute Promotes Religious Understanding

The weekly Sabbath table was also represented at the Jewish Institute held Tuesday at Temple Beth Jacob. Over 300 women from Protestant and Catholic churches, St. George Greek Orthodox Church and the Salvation Army attended. Pictured are Mrs. Samuel Chafets (left) of South Genesee avenue and Mrs. Harry Arnkoff of Illinois avenue, who assisted with preparations. The Jewish Sabbath is from sundown Friday to sundown Saturday.

Pontiac Press Photos

Standing in front of the Ark with its six engraved panels symbolic of the Jewish religious holidays are (left to right) Mrs. H. B. Stenbuck of Bloomfield terrace, chairman of the Jewish Institute at Temple Beth Jacob; Mrs. Myron Fine of Dakota drive, Mrs. Sidney Barnett of Cherokee road and Mrs. George Wyman of Ottawa drive. The women were members of the executive committee in charge of arrangements for the Tuesday affair at the temple.

One of the seven tables prepared for the Jewish Institute at Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday was the Rosh Hashono, or the New Year's Table. Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein is pictured with Mrs. Ben Bisgeier of Josephine avenue. At the extreme left on the table is the Torah cover made of heavy cream satin embroidered with jewels and gold braid; next to the cover are the rods or bars on which the Torah is rolled. The Torah scrolls contain the first five books of Moses. Also on the table is the Shofan, or ram's horn, formerly used to call the Jews to battle. It is now used to call them to repentance. To the right is a small dish of honey, symbolic of prayers for a sweet year of blessing.

Sisterhood Has Guests of All Faiths

Rituals Explained at Tuesday Event in Beth Jacob

More than 300 women gathered in Temple Beth Jacob Tuesday afternoon for dessert and coffee and to hear Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein and Rabbi Frank Rosenthal of Huntington Woods in the Jewish Institute.

* * *

The women, members of Pontiac churches, were invited by the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob to see several tables portraying Jewish holidays and to hear "What the Jew Believes."

Rabbi Saperstein spoke on the customs and ceremonies. He began with a typical day in the life of a Jew, going on to the week, then the year's cycle.

The Day of Atonement , or Yom Kippur, follows 10 days after Rosh Hashono. Mrs. Harold Chapman and Mrs. Paul Mandel assembled the flowers and candles. No food was displayed on this table as the holiday is one of fasting.

* * *

Yom Kippur is the time to seek divine pardon and to grant forgiveness to others. The scrolls, written on parchment by hand and containing the first five books of Moses, are opened on Kol Nidre Eve, the beginning of the Day of Atonement.

MERRY HOLIDAY

Purim, the merriest of the holidays, marks the deliverance of the Jews as told in the book of Esther. This table was centered with pink roses, geraniums, azaleas and snapdragons. Sweet fruits were in the Shalachmonus basket. The children dress in costume for the gay festivities and three cornered cookies, "Hamantasher," are served.

Mrs. Irving Steinman and Mrs. Alvin Steinman arranged the table.

* * *

Mrs. Marvin Talon and Mrs. Marvin Eller were in charge of the Chanuko or Feast of Lights table. This is an eight-day winter holiday.

Lights are lit on a special candelabrum (menorah) each night for eight days; one on the first night, two on the second and so on. Prayers of thanks are voiced to God and petitions are made to overcome hatred and prejudice.

Small gifts are given with the evening dinner. Gourds centered the table and the menorah was the Jewish color, blue.

* * *

Sukos, the Feast of the Ingathering and Tabernacles is celebrated in October.

HUT ARRANGED

A hut was arranged on this table by Mrs. Thomas Horwitz and Mrs. Harold Abrams. It is usually constructed of cornstalks reminding the Jew of the journey to Palestine after deliverance. Fruit adorned the hut or Sukkah.

* * *

For Sukos, children carry baskets of fruit to the temple. They are later given to hospitals and the needy. Sukos is the holiday after which the Pilgrims patterned Thanksgiving Day.

An arrangement of daffodils, gladioli, daisies and chrysanthemums in shades of yellow with an accent of blue hyacinths centered the table for Passover or Festival of Freedom.

Symbolic were the matzos, unleavened bread, and the cup of Elijah. In ancient times, the prophet Elijah was viewed as the forerunner of the Messiah, announcing the tidings of peace and salvation, and the final redemption of all mankind from oppression.

Mrs. Harry Ackerman and Mrs. Sam Stolorow assembled the articles for display.

* * *

Before the master of the house on a large platter is placed the following: A roasted meat bone, a roasted egg, bitter herbs and charoses, a sweet mixture, all symbolic of the bitterness of slavery and God's kindness for deliverance.

GREETS GUESTS

Mrs. H. B. Stenbuck, chairman, introduced the sisterhood president, Mrs. Irving Gordon. She brought greetings from the sisterhood and expressed the wish that all church and synagogue women may become friends.

* * *

The Jewish Institute, she said, was arranged so that women of other faiths might have a better understanding of Jewish customs and beliefs.

Mrs. Rebecca Gould was vocal soloist, accompanied by Charles Wilson at the organ.

Rabbi Rosenthal spoke on "What the Jews Believe."

* * *

The sisterhood hopes to make this an annual affair, inviting different groups each year.

Shown as they arranged the flowers on the coffee table are (left to right) Mrs. Abraham Zamek of West Iroquois road, Mrs. Benjamin Swimmer of Neome drive and Mrs. Charles Golde of James K boulevard. Women of Pontiac churches were invited to attend the Jewish Institute Tuesday to promote better understanding among women of different faiths. Sisterhood of Temple Beth Jacob plans to make the institute a yearly affair.

There's No Need to Formalize Steady Deal

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

It's not as though you'd just become engaged to be married. That's a subject for public announcement that concerns two families and is of real interest to friends and relatives.

It's a public announcement of intent, rapidly followed by a flock of parties, showers, planning, shopping and thank-you notes. A big deal that says you have made your decision and this is it.

Going steady is something different. You don't have to announce it in the school paper. You don't have to wear his letter sweater. You don't have to wear argyles that match.

You don't even have to agree between you that this is a steady thing. Your habits of behavior are proof enough.

But this girl is making a big production of it. Here's what she writes:

Dear Miss Woodward: My boy friend and I want very much to go steady and there's a hitch. I want to have the consent of my parents (his already have approved) and when I approach my father on the subject we're almost sure to have him ask this:

"You two have been going together all along, going with each other and no one else, and it's been going swell, so why go and make a public declaration by officially going steady?"

"Would he have a point, Miss Woodward? There's this, too: If and when other boys ask me for dates, I now feel that I wouldn't want to accept them, and if I were going steady I'd have a legitimate and tactful way of turning them down.

"Already many of the kids are surprised that we have been dating just each other for three months without going steady.

"Will you please help us with the way to approach my dad so we can go steady?"

Answer: A rose by any other name would smell as sweet, Shakespeare said. You couldn't be going steadier than you two are at the moment. You two know you aren't dating anyone else.

Your parents know it, all your friends know it. It's already in effect, whether you've asked your dad's consent or not.

Further public declaration is unnecessary, in my opinion. In fact, you're safe in taking the thing for granted without any further discussion with your boy friend.

As for other boys, they're not likely out of the blue to ask you for dates when they see you with the same boy all the time.

And if they should, you can say sweetly that you appreciate the invitation but you aren't dating around generally these days, you're pretty well kept busy by just one boy. It's the truth too, though you haven't mentioned going steady. It all adds up to the same thing.

Mom, Girl Disagree About Shoes

Daughter Displays Unrefined Taste by Removing Pumps

By EMILY POST

A mother writes me: "My daughter has a habit of removing her shoes the minute she sits down She generally wears an opera pump which is very easy to slip in and out of.

"I wouldn't mind so much if she did this when only the family was present, but she even does it when we have company. I think this is very bad manners and I have told her so time and time again but she just laughs and says, 'Don't be an old fuddy-duddy.' A word from you might convince her."

Answer: To have someone sitting around in stocking feet would be extremely unpleasant, and no one of refined taste would do it.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please settle the following question that has come up between a friend and myself? After a funeral, is it customary for a member of the bereaved family to invite relatives back to the house for a bite to eat. She says it is, but I have never heard of such a practice."

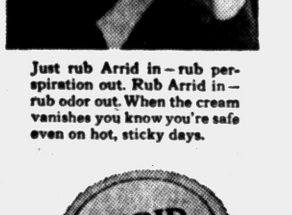

Answer: This is a custom of other days when distances were great and relatives were given something to sustain them before making the return journey. In the present day, relatives who come from a distance would be provided for if necessary, but not otherwise.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When a man takes his mother and fiancee to the theater, should he sit between them, or do the two women sit next to each other and the man on the end? If this last is correct, then should his mother, or his fiancee be seated next to him?"

Answer; If the seats are on the aisle, he would sit in the aisle seat with his fiancee next to him and his mother next to her. Otherwise he would sit between them.

To reheat bread or rolls, place in a paper bag, sprinkle bag with water and heat in a 400-degree oven for 10 minutes or in a bun warmer on top of the range.

Chapter Installs Officers

Mrs. John H. Little, newly installed president of Chapter AW of PEO Sisterhood, presided at the Monday evening meeting of the organization held at the home of Mrs. James Boaz on Frembes drive.

• • •

Other officers installed were Mrs. William L. Miller, vice president; Mrs. John L Wilson, recording secretary; Mrs. Norman Allen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Boaz, treasurer; Marian Emery, chaplain, and Mrs. Everett Peterson, guard.

The program of the evening was "Religion in AW," presented through a review of the book, "The Rosebush of a Thousand Years," written by Mabel Wagnall.

Mrs. Mary Kinney, of Chapter CM in Ann Arbor and religious education director of the First Congregational Church in Rochester, presented the review.

• • •

Mrs. Grace Beall of Chapter AF in Wyandotte spoke on Cottey College. The April 2 meeting will be held at Hotel Waldron with Mrs. Clarence Norton as hostess.

Motorists Keep Alert With Torsion Bars

There are more accidents caused by driver drowsiness in winter than in summer because on cold days windows are kept closed and lack of fresh air makes drivers susceptible to fatigue.

To help keep drivers alert, some cars today are built with torsion bars instead of with springs, giving a smoother and appreciaby less fatiguing ride. Torsion bars are found an many European sports cars and several American cars.

HAS PERSPIRATION EVER RUINED YOUR DRESS?
Once a dress has perspiration stains, no amount of cleaning will take them out. Well, here's a new vanishing cream deodorant that stops all that.

DRAMATIC STEAMBATH TEST SHOWS HOW
Arrid with Perstop* Keeps Skin Dry Stops Perspiration Stains

This woman was put in a steambath at 104 degrees. Arrid with Perstop* was rubbed into her forehead. Fifteen minutes later . . .

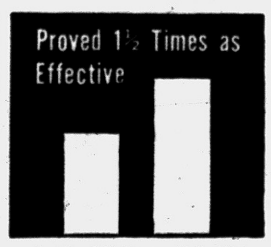

. . . her face was dripping with perspiration — but Arrid with Perstop* kept her forehead dry. Arrid will do the same for your underarms, too.

Just rub Arrid in — rub perspiration out. Rub Arrid in — rub odor out. When the cream vanishes you know you're safe even on hot, sticky days.

Arrid, used daily, keeps your clothes safe from ugly stains, keeps your underarms dry, soft and sweet.

Arrid with Perstop* is 1½ times as effective as any other leading deodorant against perspiration, against odor.

So . . . don't be half-safe. Be completely safe. Use new Arrid with Perstop* to be sure. 43¢ plus tax.

Mom Suffers When Pop 'Helps' With Housework

—By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

There's more and more talk these days about how men are doing the housework in America and women are taking on such chores as mowing the lawn and fixing the plumbing.

This all sounds fine in print, but in actual practice it's a little frightening.

NO BACON 'N' EGGS

Now let's take that business about Pop doing the marketing. Whenever this happens in our family, the man of the house comes back laden with such things as caviar, pate de foie gras, truffles and club soda, but no bacon, eggs or potatoes. He has spent twice as much as the usual order costs, and still acquired little from which to fix a meal.

Or he decides to go out and select personally the steak he is going to broil on the outdoor grill. This becomes a high adventure.

He comes back with a choice steak, it's true. But usually it is twice as big as he needs and its cost runs into astronomical figures.

When the time for cooking nears, the male chef becomes a prima donna. He fusses over the fire for what seems hours, and then when it reaches a state that is to his liking, he barks orders for salt, pepper, butter, fork, tongs, barbecue sauce and carving board—like a surgeon in the operating room.

In our household it requires at least two assistants to supply the necessary service, have the plates hot, the salad cold and the coffee brewed at the psychological moment.

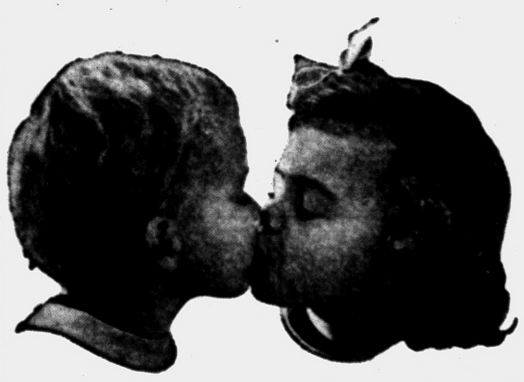

When the meal is served, it is superb. Guests applaud, and Pop glows in the general aura of approbation.

While this goes on, the women of the family are trying to mop up, repair other ravages in the kitchen and wash a young mountain of dishes, pots and pans.

Such experiences have taught most wives that it sounds like a fine idea to have the husband help with the housework and it's great for his ego; but things are a lot simpler if you do it yourself.

Mrs. Valuet Uses Chopped Vegetables in Spaghetti Sauce

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Every family, it would seem, has its own favorite way of preparing spaghetti. The Richard Valuet family is no exception. They like celery and green pepper in their sauce. However, its chief value is that it can be made in half an hour.

With a brand new baby daughter to care for, as well as three older children, Mrs. Valuet stays close to home these days. She likes to sew and has made many of the curtains for her new home.

The lake is Mrs. Valuet's hobby. She loves to fish, swim and boat. She belongs to several social clubs with her husband. Home movies are a family hobby.

FAMILY STYLE SPAGHETTI
By Mrs. Richard Valuet

1 pound ground steak
1 cup chopped celery
1 cup chopped onions
¾ cup chopped green pepper
1 clove garlic, chopped fine
1 teaspoon chili powder
1 level tablespoon sugar
2 cans tomato paste
3 cans water
3-4 bay leaves
Salt and pepper

Brown the ground steak lightly. Add all other ingredients and simmer at least twenty minutes. Cook half a pound of thin spaghetti and mix with meat sauce. Serve with grated cheese. Makes 6 servings.

Kitchen Chores Can Be Enjoyed

Kitchen work is fun, according to a recent poll of homemakers, if the kitchen is well planned, well equipped and efficient. Kitchens like this just don't happen!

It is the result of combining your specific needs and your pet ideas with the specialized knowledge of people long experienced in planning and building kitchens.

For example, make the main work area small but not crowded. Plan your kitchen to meet your special requirements—canning, laundry, play center for the children. Allow for a desk with phone, recipes, pads for making out lists.

The word "Blurb" was coined by Galett Burgess and was defined by him as a noise made by a publisher.

'Volunteer of Month' Is Named

Mrs. Jay Bendall Cited for Working With Girl Scouts

Mrs. Jay Bendall of Malcolm drive has been selected as "Volunteer of the Month" by the Central Volunteer Bureau, a Pontiac Area United Fund agency serving Pontiac, Birmingham and Waterford.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Bendall have three daughters and a son. Judy is 16, Larry, 14, Juline, 13, and Jayette, 6. The youngsters all attend schools in Waterford Township. Mr. Bendall is a truck driver with Fleet Carrier Corp.

Although Mrs. Bendall is a member of three PTAs and also belongs to the Elizabeth Russell Guild of the Four Towns Church, most of her volunteer service is concentrated in the area of Girl Scouting.

She began this service career when her oldest daughter, then 8 years old, came home from a Brownie meeting and announced that an assistant leader was needed. Within a short time, Mrs. Bendall found herself a full-fledged leader.

* * *

With her homemaking talents, a desire to serve and a willingness to learn, she gradually acquired the know-how of Girl Scouting that has placed her in the position of trainer of leaders, a vice president of the Northern Oakland Council of Girl Scouts and day camp director.

AIDS IN HOME LIFE

This know-how has been an integral part of her family life, too. Her children and their friends have received expert instruction in handicrafts, homemaking and outdoor skills. Weekends are always family affairs.

* * *

Two years ago Mrs. Bendall was chosen by the Girl Scout Council to take training for the position of day camp director. This is normally offered only to adults with a college background, but her capabilities made her a natural for the opening.

Mrs. Bendall has found satisfaction from her volunteer service in many ways. She has the companionship of other adults, she is helping young people find worthwhile activities, and her family is benefiting — learning new skills and growing in self-reliance and responsibility.

As she says: "I certainly enjoy my Scout work. I've made a lot of friends, and I understand and appreciate my own children, and other people, too, a lot better. With this volunteer work I feel that I'm doing something useful.

"I had lived here two years and didn't know anybody when I went into Scouts. It was a good way to meet people and, as you know, you meet the nicest people in volunteer work!"

The bulky hat look is not for every woman. If it's wrong on you, buy your spring hats in a scaled-down version. There are plenty of them.

HAIR TINTING

Spring is here . . . and if you have been debating about tinting your hair . . . now is the time to take the plunge! In the past, hair coloring was a subject one just didn't talk about. Happily this attitude is past and hair coloring is taking it's rightful place.

It is no more artificial to improve the color of the hair than to put in a curl and it does equally as much for the wearer. The product and the technique have improved over the years so that now a natural and altogether charming effect may be achieved. No matter that your hair coloring problem is we can help you.

Fashion Neglects Plight of Small, Mature Woman

The plight of the small mature woman is something that receives far less attention than do the difficulties of the large woman.

There are far fewer mature women with small bony structures who remain slight throughout their lives than there are women who grow heavier year by year.

Yet these women, however few, do have real problems when it comes to looking attractive. The diminutive or petite sizes are aimed at women five-feet-five or less.

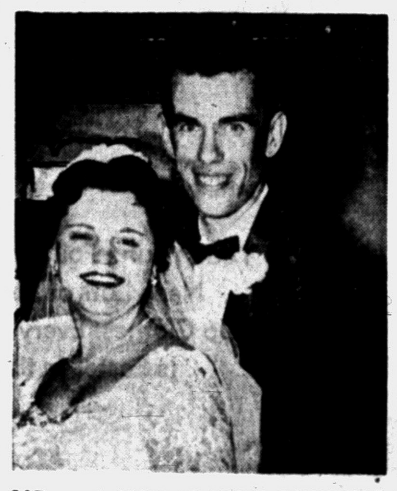

Since the "tall" sizes start at five-feet-seven, it looks as if the manufacturers feel the "average" woman is five-feet-five or five-feet-six. This leaves the woman who's five feet tall or less feeling mighty tiny.

If these women aren't home needleworkers or haven't been lucky enough to rear a daughter with a real knack at adapting patterns, they wear themselves out trying to find the simplest house dresses.

These women do cling to one another, fortunately. If a line of clothes that fits comes into a local store, they spread the word.

Though they're a minority, these women may someday get attention from some wise manufacturer who will tend to their smallest need.

Stripe fabrics are available in casements, ranging from a tweedy beige number with a white stripe to a gold metallic stripe on a gauzy white sheer.

MR. and MRS. CADLE BURRELL

Betty Ann Sneed became the bride of Cadle Burrell Saturday evening in Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sneed of Hudson avenue. He is the son of Cadle Burrell of Gage street.

Betty Ann Sneed Wears Chantilly Lace and Satin

In a candlelight ceremony at Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church Saturday evening, Betty Ann Sneed became the bride of Cadle Burrell.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over bridal satin. The fitted bodice featured long sleeves which tapered to points at the wrists. The gown was trimmed with sequins, and the fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a crown of pearls and sequins.

The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a satin-covered Bible with stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sneed of Hudson avenue are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Cadle Burrell of Gage street.

* * *

Mrs. William J. Thomas wore a floor-length gown of blue nylon jersey for her duties as matron of honor. Her flowers were yellow roses and white carnations.

WEAR PINK, YELLOW

Bridesmaids Rita Banks and Muriel Upton wore ballerina-length gowns of pink and yellow, respectively, and carried bouquets of Johanna Hill and bronze roses.

* * *

Dale Burrell served as his brother's best man. Ushers were John Sneed and William J. Thomas.

For the reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Sneed greeted the guests wearing a gown of navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of roses and pink carnations.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon trip to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Burrell was wearing a charcoal gray dress with pink and white accessories. The couple will reside on West Huron street.

The woman who knows how to show good taste and still be distinctive will appreciate an evening cape of tissue-thin leather in embossed gold, or almond-meat white, or one of the exotic, sari colors.

MSU Life Quiets Down as Students Take Exams

Spring Vacation Occupies the Plans of Hard-Studying Collegians

By BARBARA JOHNSON

The MSU campus was unusually quiet this week and the Union was practically void of happy faces. Only one thing could have caused such a startling change in this ordinarily lively and noisy section of East Lansing.

* * *

Yes, final exams began Friday and continue through Thursday. Dormitories and other living units are enforcing constant quiet hours so that students can study undisturbed.

Everyone has hopes of bringing up his marks by taking finals since they make up 50 per cent of the term's grade. But, of course, this is not as easy as it sounds so collegians are really concentrating on it.

The results will be seen when marks are sent to each student's home next week.

* * *

All university organizations, such as the State News, Spartan magazine and Student Government Office, have closed up shop in preparation for the coming vacation.

SPRING TERM

Registration for spring term will be held April 2 to 4 and classes will resume on April 5.

* * *

This spring vacation is being looked forward to by all, and everyone hopes that the temperature will rise, giving us some nice weather.

Speaking of spring vacation, let's take a peek and see what Pontiac area students will be doing to occupy their time.

Ann Oliver of West Iroquois road is flying to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after her exams to meet her parents, the Robert B. Olivers.

* * *

Louis Schimmel Jr., also of West Iroquois road, is going to Washington, D.C., to spend the vacation with relatives.

DRIVING TO KANSAS

Jack Porritt of Cherokee road and his mother, Mrs. Donald C. Porritt, are driving to Salena, Kan., for a visit with his sister.

The favorite spot for vacationers seems to be sunny Florida. Robert Alflen of Walled Lake, James Brown of Vinewood avenue and Robert Cotterman of West Iroquois road are just a few of those who are planning trips there.

Expecting to journey to New York for a week with relatives is Jo Ann Ulgian of Starr avenue.

However, many students are contemplating just staying home and enjoying the time with their Pontiac friends. A few of these are Michael Slivensky of West Huron street, Carol Young of Nelson street, Gerald Mazza of Lounsbury drive, Bruce Robertson of Henry Clay avenue and Diane Euler of Ottawa drive.

Some will work and some will just relax, but whatever is planned, each person is expecting to have an enjoyable week and a half and to forget completely about books and professors.

Now You Can Buy Pickpocket Safe Petticoats

CHICAGO (INS) — A Chicago widow got mad when somebody filched $210 out of her purse in Rome, Italy. So now women can wear pickpocket-proof petticoats.

* * *

Not even an experienced eye can tell one of Mrs. Constance Amburgh's petticoats from the beribboned and laced ones that women are fond of wearing under their dresses.

Mrs. Amburgh has designed a pocket into the petticoat — one large enough to hold a passport and/or currency — that lies flat just above the knee no matter whether a woman walks, sits or stands.

A zipper opens or shuts the pocket which looks like part of a center seam in the lingerie.

Mrs. Amburgh said she wore the petticoat with the "mobile safe" for several days to make certain it doesn't hamper a woman. She said:

* * *

"I stuffed the pocket with a notebook, a passport and money. At first I felt it bumping against my knee but soon I forgot about it."

Try Chic Separates in Easter-Egg Hues

The approach of Easter brings to mind the choice of delectable Easter egg colors available to you in dye-to-mach separates.

* * *

California's Spring green, baby rose pink, and sun yellow are some of the colors seen in full, full, cotton quilted skirts and tapered pants which are perfectly color-matched to blouses. The latter are beautifully detailed with rows of box-pleated ruffles edging three-quarter sleeves and outlining a front placket of rhinestone buttons. Blouses also come in a classic baby doll style.

The tea habit is spreading in the United States and Canada, India's goodwill mission reported on its return to Calcutta.

Spring Neckline to Be Lacy

NEW YORK (INS)—The stylish neckline accent this spring will be as prominent as a pouter pigeon's.

* * *

For 1956, we're switching from little white collars to great big jabots. And they've got to be multi-ruffled or many-pleated jabots, too.

The jabot is the big cascade of frilly fabric that men first wore on shirt fronts in the days when shirts were trimmed with lace cuffs.

It's been popular on and off as ladies' neckwear for many years. This year, it's definitely on again . . . and the stylish girl has to have ruffles starting under her chin and tapering down her neckline.

The jabot fad actually is a smart way of feminizing a plain sheath or suit, and 1956 know-how has made it a lot easier to keep jabots clean, crisp and ruffled. The new ones are being made of such quick-wash fabrics as permanently pleated white nylon or stay-stiff cotton lace.

* * *

You can buy jabots in various styles, including both drape-yourself jabot scarves and completely finished dickies. They're available from about a dollar up.

Decorated gloves, for the woman who already has all she needs in plain ones, are fringed, embroidered (often with flowers, birds, pearls or multi-color needlework), or worked with insets of lace, organdy or net.

YMCA Coeds Will Hold Hunt for Easter Eggs

Pontiac YMCA Coeds were hosts Sunday to representatives of the various young adult clubs throughout the state as they met to plan the state Young Adult Council conference to be held this spring.

This meeting was held at the Birmingham YMCA with Cliff Crury, associate secretary of the state staff, serving as chairman.

On Tuesday evening members turned their thoughts to the coming of Holy Week by viewing the film, "The Last Supper." Following a brief business meeting, refreshments were served.

To conclude a busy month of activities, the group will have an Easter egg hunt and coloring party on March 28 at 8:30 p.m. at the YMCA.

There will be a prize for the one finding the most eggs and then the members will display their artistic talent by coloring them. The colored eggs will be given to the youngsters at the Baptist Children's Home for Easter.

Serving on the program committee for the month were Jessie Henderson, Jim Patterson, Carole Peasley, Pat Riley and Nellie Slaybaugh.

Sorority Plans Banquet in May

Fourteen members were present at the Tuesday evening meeting of Xi Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority held at the home of Mrs. Enar West on Neome drive.

* * *

Margaret Luther, president, appointed Elizabeth Halsey and Mrs. Alphonse Fowler to the nominating committee. Mrs. Ralph Price will serve as chairman of the Xi Pi banquet in May, assisted by Virginia Luther.

A report on the council plans for the Founders' Day banquet to be held April 25 at Devon Gables was presented by Mrs. Howard Shaw.

* * *

Mrs. John Black presented a film, "Caribbean Holiday," during the program portion of the meeting.

Plan June Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Allen of Royal Oak, formerly of Ottawa drive, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Darlene Mae, to Bernard Maneli. He is the son of Mrs. Sol Maneli of Detroit and the late Mr. Maneli. The couple plans a June wedding.

Committee members for the ARF Rosdom Chapter's annual "Spring Hop" are pictured at a recent planning meeting. Shown (left to right) are Ed Metzoian of Berwick boulevard, Mrs. Berj Gerjekian of North Marshall street, Mrs. George Arakelian of South Jessie street, John Haroutunian of Ferry avenue and Berj Gerjekian of North Marshall street, dance chairman. The Pontiac chapter is sponsoring the dance Saturday at Bemis-Olson Amvets Hall. A Detroit orchestra will play Armenian and American dances from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Proceeds will be used for the organization's charitable work.

Don't Let 'Rules' Stifle Judgment

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Because in the Middle Ages our ancestors started the rumor that the shadow cast by a gallows was dangerous, you and I still go out of our way to avoid walking under a ladder.

* * *

We are performing a superstitious ritual—an act we take, not because our own reason sees it as protective, but because some one else has said it is.

I think the mother who signs herself "Mrs. Edward O." may also be a victim of superstitious ritual.

Her 14-year-old girl is being rushed by a new school "crowd." Unlike the "quiet" youngsters who used to be her friends, her new ones make free use of her family's telephone, icebox, TV.

* * *

Two of the girls have had to be reminded that Mr. O.'s den exists for reasons other than their necking convenience. Never before this new "crowd" leaves do its members make any attempt to help their hostess clean up.

NEEDN'T AGREE

Yet her mother writes, "I suppose you'll think we should put up with it. I know that you child training experts think that home entertaining is very important to girls of my daughter's age . . ."

Even if all the experts in the world think you have to entertain unmannerly young people, it does not mean we have to agree with them. The good ones wouldn't want you to.

Instead of agreeing with them, they'd want you to think for yourself as you sit in your kitchen in recoil from the aggressiveness that stampedes through your home, abuses your goodwill and exploits your child.

Instead of seeking our solution in anyone's generalized rule for parental behavior, let's look for it in our own individual experience.

* * *

Let's begin to think like this:

"Do I like people who treat me as these youngsters are treating my child? No, I don't. Then maybe she doesn't either. Now I come to think of it, she's complained several times about the way the girls leave her alone to clean up.

RIGIDITY DEVELOPS

"Could she be holding on to them for a reason other than friendship? Maybe she's holding on to them because she thinks I want her to. Is this whole problem just the child's struggle to produce the social activity she thinks I want from her?"

* * *

Obedience to child training rituals is bound to develop rigidity in us that makes it impossible to use our own experience and judgment.

If Mrs. O. didn't suffer from it, she'd herself know that she hasn't been encouraging "home entertaining."

She's been encouraging aggressiveness.

Small neat collar, high mounted sleeve, calf-length straight skirt and a cuff-length straight suit jacket will help to elongate the short, square figure.

Straight suit jacket with long narrow panels, bracelet-length sleeves, definitely help to slim the bulkiest part of the figure. Open neckline with flat collar creates the illusion of a longer neck and less bust. Avoid tight fit.

Unit Installs New Officers

Mrs. Arthur Witt was installed as commander of Cora M. Eves Tent-Hive 247 of the Maccabees Tuesday evening in the VFW HAll.

Installing officer was Larry F. Ayer of Detroit, great commander. He was assisted by installing director Mrs. Earl W. Riley and installing chaplain Mrs. Earl Johnson.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Riley, past commander; Louie King, lieutenant commander; Goldia M. Caldwell, record keeper; Mrs. William Lennex, assistant record keeper, and Mrs. Dessa Quinlan, chaplain.

Following the installation, a program of tap dancing was enjoyed and the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ayer, were introduced.

Lake Orion and Oxford were visiting hives. Dora D. Nicholson of Detroit, district manager, also attended.

Refreshments were served in the Easter theme.

MRS. ARTHUR A. WITT

Meeting Conducted by New Sylvanites

Mrs. Ambrose Powers of Lakeland avenue opened her home to the New Sylvanites Club. Mrs. Donald Johnson, Mrs. William J. Sanderson and Mrs. R. C. Lippard were guests at the recent meeting.

A slate of nominees for the coming election was presented at the business meeting, followed by cards and refreshments.

Mrs. James Morrissey of Lakeland avenue will be hostess at the next meeting.

Pontiac High PTA to Meet Thursday

"Report Cards, Do They Tell The Story?" will be the discussion topic, directed by William Wright, at the Pontiac High School PTA meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Donald North, president, announces that election of officers will be held and square dancing will follow the meeting.

Coming Events

Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of First Baptist Church will meet for supper Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Helen Dunkeld will speak. Pioneer girls will present the program.

The Child Culture Club will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Brannack, 3996 Auburn road with a program on the retarded child.

Ladies Aid of St. John Lutheran Church will meet Thursday 9 a.m. in Church parlors.

The Friends Prayer Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mattie Jackson, 27 Miller St. Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Byron Barnes Hostess to Sorority

Mrs. Byron Barnes of Murphy avenue was hostess to members of Zeta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority Monday for their monthly social meeting.

Members enjoyed an evening of games, following which refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Richard Hague invited the group to her home on Shaker road for the April 2 meeting.

Billy Graham Preaches to Millions

Belief Is Booming Again in America and the World

By TEX SHANNON

Remember a few years back, when know-it-all sophisticates were proclaiming that the old-time religion was old hat?

You recall their talk. Faith, they sneered, was a crutch for "morons." Clergymen were "libertines" and "grafters" — the villains of slick, sexy novels and blase Broadway plays written by lofty highbrows who'd voted God out of their thinking.

Recollect, also, how their scornful skepticism seemed to be registering? Churches were just about as lively as funeral parlors. Many were barely existing, what with few younger converts coming along to replace them.

But, today, belief is booming in America and the world. Churches are thriving — and burning mortgages. Attendance and membership figures have soared to heights which make skeptics — not worshippers — look like fuzzy dodos.

A major part of this upsurge is due to the preaching of a six-foot North Carolina country boy with whom I talked recently.

His earliest audiences were indifferent rabbits and quails, on whom he practiced his first shy sermons in the lonely recesses of a Dixie swamp.

HEARERS IN MILLIONS

Now, in this sixteenth year of his ministry, his hearers number millions of men and women who have found new hope and purpose, after listening to him in jammed auditoriums from Boston to Bombay.

He is, of course, Billy Graham — the man who's covered more miles to change unhappy lives than any evangelist since the Apostle Paul.

I'd been wanting to meet this challenging apostle of our times ever since witnessing one of his evangelistic movie productions, "Mr. Texas", in a New York City church. The film revolves around the life of a Texas millionaire who realized, through Billy's preaching, that a bankroll alone cannot buy contentment.

It was hard to believe that I was watching a celluloid figure of a man as I watched the episodes of Billy in action. Somehow, he seemed to be stepping right down from the screen into the pulpit of that little church where I was sitting.

His emphatic pulpit manner, his striking gestures, his fluent knowedge of the Bible, made me realize that a movie had recorded one of the most dynamic personalities of the 20th century.

We met recently in Ocean Grove, New Jersey where Billy was holding a three-day revival. Handsome as a Hollywood hero and as immaculately dressed, he talked to me with deep frankness —and with that intense earnestness—which moves individuals as deeply as it moves audiences.

BASES VERSUS A BOOK

"What started you in your career of evangelism, Billy?" I asked. "Did you decide while a little tad to be a preacher as some youngsters make up their minds to be a preacher or a baseball player?"

* * *

Billy laughed heartily. "I meant to be a baseball man, all right—the star first baseman of the Philadelphia Athletics, no less." Then his face took on that serious, consecrated look which had been so impressive in the movie.

"But God decided it was no go for me. During my senior year of high school in Charlotte, North Carolina I became converted at a revival meeting.

From that night on, I knew that Divine Providence was guiding me to the pulpit and not to the diamond."

The children are Virginia, 8, on Graham's right; Anne, 6, on his left; and Ruth (Bunny) 3. Mrs. Graham stands behind her husband. The evangelist estimated he preached to 2,500,000 people in seven countries.

U. of M. Community Course to Begin

What do you know about our community, what services it offers, how it compares with other communities, how things get done in a community?

Beginning Thursday the University of Michigan "Let's Take a Look at Our Community" course begins at Pontiac High School for one night a week for a nine week group discussion course on the Pontiac area community.

The course is designed for civic and organizational leaders and thos citizens who are interested in promoting the welfare of their community. All items and meeting plans, including the communitiy fact finder, are especially for this course and are furnished by the University.

A member of the University's community adult education staff will participate in the first and eighth session of the course. He will act as a consultant to the course as his services are needed. Group discussion will be used; leadership will be shared by the course members.

This is a "do it yourself" plan with films, materials and consultation from the community adult education department of the University. Each group will be limited to 30 persons to allow for participation.

Registration is being handled by Pontiac Consumer Cooperative in the Community National Bank building or the adult education department of Pontiac High School.

Commies Name New Red Boss in Poland

VIENNA (AP) — Edward Ochab, who purged Polish farm trade union and army ranks, has been named to succeed Boleslaw Bierut as boss of Poland's Communist party.

* * *

Warsaw radio today announced the election of Ochab as first secretary of the Communist United Workers' party. Bierut died in Moscow March 12.

Ochab, now 50 and a long-time Red, rose through the ranks to such key posts as boss of the peasant cooperatives, head of the trade unions, political chief of the army and Politburo member.

* * *

Sources in Vienna have predicted that the new secretary will share a "collective leadership" of Communist Poland along with Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz and with Moscow exercising even closer supervision than in the past.

Since the Reds took over China, refugees have swelled Hong Kong's population by about one-half million.

Urges Rejection of Electoral Bill

Case Appeals to GOP Solons on Move to Alter Presidential Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) appealed to his GOP colleagues today to reject a proposed constitutional amendment that would revise the system of electing presidents and vice presidents.

* * *

Although 30 Republican senators are listed as sponsors of the proposed amendment, Case contended its "adverse effect on the Republican party for the indefinite future cannot be questioned."

He also maintained in a memorandum sent to his fellow Republicn senators that the proposal would cause what he termed "great and permanent injury to our society and our form of government and to the American two-party system."

PARTY LINES MIXED

Senate debate on the legislation got under way yesterday. Almost immediately there were sharply conflicting interpretations of its possible effect. Party lines were mixed on the question.

The proposal would do away with the present "winner-take-all" system under which a state's entire electoral vote goes to the candidate receiving the most popular votes, no matter how slim his margin.

The proposed amendment, as originally approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee, would divide each state's electoral votes for president in proportion to the popular votes received by the candidate.

A substitute amendment, worked out by Senators Daniel (D-Tex), Mundt (R-SD) and Thurmond (D-SC), would let each state decide whether to cast its electoral vote in that manner, or to choose presidential electors as they now select their senators and representatives in Congress.

30 GOP SUPPORTERS

Put forward as a compromise, the substitute now lists as sponsors 54 senators—30 Republicans and 24 Democrats. Daniel said he thought it had, "a good chance" of winning Senate approval.

* * *

To become effective, a constitutional amendment must get approval of two thirds of those voting in the Senate and the House, and be ratified by three fourths of the states.

The principal argument of sponsors is that the proposed constitutional change would bring about a more accurate reflection of the popular will in presidential elections.

Senators Douglas (D-Ill) and Kennedy (D-Mass), opposing the plan, contended the effect would be to increase further what they called the present overrepresentation of rural areas in government.

Greek Archbishop Spyridon, 82, Dies

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Archbishop Spyridon, 82-year-old Greek Orthodox primate and chairman of the Panhellenic Committee for Union of Cyprus with Greece, died early today.

The archbishop entered a hospital here Sunday for treatment of a heart ailment and blood circulation disorder.

In support of the "Enosis" campaign to join Cyprus to Greece, Spyridon presided March 10 over an emergency meeting of the Greek Orthodox Holy Synod, which appealed to world religious organizations to back Archbishop Makarios of Cyprus.

Makarios, leader of the Cypriot movement to merge the British island colony with Greece, was exiled by British authorities March 9.

Jobs Provide 40 Pct. Older Folks' Income

WASHINGTON—There are some 14,000,000 Americans over 65 years of age and the group is increasing by some 400,000 a year.

A Government survey indicates that 40 per cent of all regular income received byt these older people comes from their earnings. Some 2,000,000 men and women in the over-65 group are still working.

Lincoln Expert Loses Out on $64,000 Query

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert Edward Bennett, 48-year-old store clerk of Kingsland, Ga., has failed in a bid for the grand prize on The $64,000 Question.

* * *

He thereby loses his winnings of $32,000 piled up over the weeks by answering questions about Abraham Lincoln on the CBS television show. He'll receive a Cadillac as a consolation prize.

Bennett lost out on the program last night by not knowing how much Lincoln offered to compensate the states per slave for voluntary emancipation.

He guessed $2,000. Ralph Newman, proprietor of the Abraham Lincoln Bookshop in Chicago, who was serving as Bennett's expert adviser, said he thought the offer was closer to $1,600.

Master of ceremonies Hal March said $400 was the figure.

Bennett was the first contestant on the show to gamble for the grand prize and lose. Three have won the $64,000 prize.

Pontiac in Quarter Finals Tonight

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Three tries and three setbacks. That has been the story for Pontiac high school in its bid for a state semi-final berth during the past 10 years under coach Art Van Ryzin.

Tonight the Chiefs get their 4th crack at the semi-finals on the neutral court at Livonia Bentley high school where they face ambitious Detroit Catholic Central in the quarter-finals.

A victory against the Shamrocks would pit Pontiac against the Arthur Hill-Muskegon Heights winner at Jenison field house Friday night at 8:00 p.m.

Pontiac, with a 13-5 record to date, trimmed Catholic Central twice this season. The Shamrocks boast a 17-3 mark.

* * *

Coach Bill Foley of the Detroit school has indicated that his squad is at top peak for the game.

"We will be able to use a little more reserve strength than we were able to earlier in the season," he said, "they've gained more experience."

During the regional play at Birmingham, Foley utilized more players from the bench as the Shamrocks had little trouble in whipping Royal Oak, Birmingham and East Detroit.

* * *

The players Pontiac will have to stop are 6-4 Bob Skrzycki, all-state center, who is bucketing 18 points a game, along with guard Brian Hussey whose deadly long shots could be troublesome.

Central Catholic is a fast moving team with strong outside shooting.

The Chiefs will be counting heavily on the rebounding of 6-4 sophomore Hudson Ray to offset Skrzycki's height, along with the scoring punch of Willie DeWalt and Rod Treais.

In the past two encounters it was Dave Diehm who led the scoring against Catholic Central.

In the guard spot vacated by the injured Larry Peet, Van Ryzin may go along with Terry Zellhart who played nearly the entire game against Flint Northern.

In 1947, Pontiac defeated Catholic Central in the regionals to move in the quarter-finals against Flint Northern. Northern went on to win the state title that year.

* * *

Two years later in 1949, the Chiefs lost 40-29 in the quarters to Ferndale and in 1954 it was Highland Park which prevented Pontiac from going to the semis.

* * *

Game time tonight is 7:30 p.m. Students and fans are urged to get to Bentley High School early. Ticket windows will open at 6:30 p.m. and only 1,800 ducats will be available.

Tonight's Pontiac high school basketball game will be carried from Bentley High School over station WPON starting at 7:15 p.m. The station will also carry the state semi-finals should the Chiefs beat Catholic Central tonight.

ROLLS A TRIPLICATE

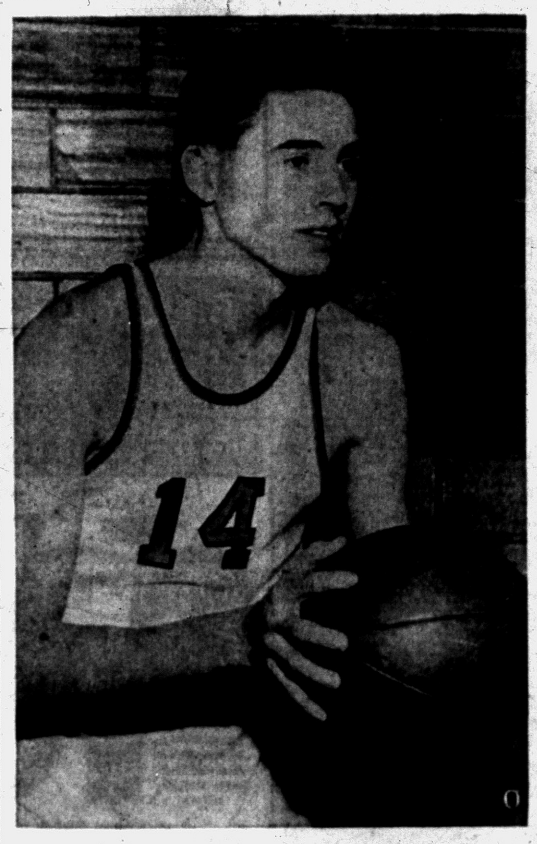

Art Kanisto, a 166 average bowler, rolled a tripicate 161 at the Huron Bowl in the Pontiac Motor bowling league Tuesday. He bowls for Jesse's team in the league. This has been the 2nd triplicate in the league this year.

* * *

Johnny Poloncak, Spartan defensive halfback during the 1947-49 seasons, is the newest addition to the MSU football coaching staff. He was backfield coach at Bolling Field Air Force Field last season.

* * *

MSU will be the site of the National Collegiate Billiards championship Saturday, March 24th. Bob Strange of Michigan State is three cushion champ of the past two years.

SENIOR LETTERMAN — Carrying the Chiefs' hopes into the state playoffs this weekend, starting with the quarter-finals against Catholic Central today, will rest heavily on the shoulders of senior Rod Treals. The 6-1 forward hurt his ankle in the opening game of the regionals but then helped Pontiac to its two wins over Flint Central and Flint Northern. Game time at Livonia Bentley tonight is 7:30 p. m.

Boxer Admits 3 Fixed Bouts

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The governor's special committee investigating California boxing resumes its hearings today after receiving testimony from boxer Tommy Campbell that he was instructed to throw three fights.

* * *

Babe McCoy, matchmaker at Los Angeles' Olympic Auditorium, was scheduled to testify for the third day. Campbell accused McCoy of instructing him to take a "dive" in his May 16, 1950, bout with Art Aragon at the Olympic. McCoy denied the charge.

"I was supposed to look good until the fourth round, then get hit and that was all," Campbell yesterday told James Cox, special consultant to Governor Goodwin Knight in the investigation.

Campbell knocked Aragon down in the second round. Aragon knocked him down to stay in the third.

Aragon, in training at a ranch near here, said it was hard for him to believe the fight was "fixed." He added:

"I never hit anyone in my life as hard as I hit Campbell when I knocked him out. I could have taken a shower and come back before they revived him. I'd have quit boxing a long time ago if I had suspected any of my fights were not on the level."

Burkemo Wins at Seminole

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The field was assembling today for the start of the 72-hole, $15,000 Miami Beach Open Golf Tournament.

* * *

Entered are some of the nation's top professionals who played in the Seminole professional-amateur tournament which ended yesterday at Palm Beach.

* * *

Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., won the 36-hole Seminole event with a score of 68-70—138. That was two strokes better than that of the second place man, Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Ed Furgol of St. Louis, Mo., and Jack Fleck of Davenport, Iowa, tied for 3rd place with 141s.

* * *

Burkemo's share of the purse for professionals was $1,800, but Kroll, who was also the professional half of a pro-am team that won that division of play, took $1,000 for each performance.

A 22-year-old Miami Beach amateur, Doug Sanders, won the qualifying round for the Miami Beach Open Tournament with a six-under-par 66, setting a Bayshore Club record for amateurs playing in competition.

Medalist Upset in Seniors Tournament

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Paul Dunkel of Ridgewood, N.J., upset medalist Frank Ross of Hartford, Conn., in the opening round yesterday of the American Seniors Golf Assn. Tournament.

* * *

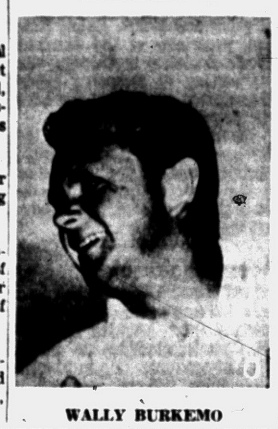

The match went 21 holes after Dunkel pulled square by winning No. 18.

* * *

Edward H. Randall of Rochester, N.Y., defending champion of this tournament for players over 55, eliminated William Pressing of Anderson, Ind., 3 and 2.

* * *

The 1954 winner, Judd L. Brumley of Greenville, Tenn., knocked off James B. Hull of Zanesville, Ohio, 6 and 5.

Montreal Rips Rangers, 7-1

Richard Leads Victory With 3-Goal Hat Trick in Rout of NY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maurice (The Rocket) Rcihard, the poker-faced right winger of the Montreal Canadiens who has scored more goals than any other National Hockey League player, was all smiles today. And with good reason.

* * *

He turned in the three goal "hat trick" last night to lead the Canadiens to a whopping 7-1 victory over the New York Rangers in the first game of their best-of-seven semi-final series for the prized Stanley Cup.

* * *

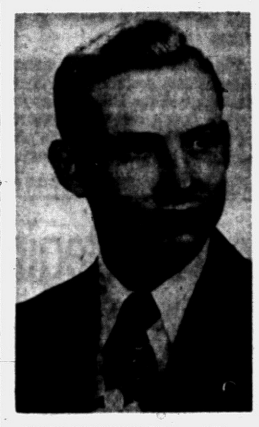

The Rocket well remembered that he was on the sidelines in last year's cup competition. He was suspended by League President Clarence Campbell for participating in a stick-swinging melee in Boston shortly before the close of the regular campaign.

* * *

But he was just about the whole show last night in the powerful offensive turned loose by the NHL pennant - winners. Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion bagged a pair for the Canucks and Jean Beliveau and Dickie Moore got one goal apiece. Defenseman Jack Evans got the Rangers' lone tally early in the second period.

* * *

Goalie Lorne Worsley, who had a rough night in the New York nets, aggravated a knee injury he received last week against Detroit. There were reports that Johnny Bower would be brought up from Providence of the American League in time for the second game in Montreal tomorrow night.

NEW PREXY—Elmer Klemm has been elected president of the Pontiac Table Tennis Assn. for the 1956-57 season, which begins next fall. Howard Heckman, James Reed and Ellen Tiffany were elected vice presidents and Ronald Beckman was named secretary-treasurer.

Redskins Ink Ex-Spartan to '56 Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Redskins today welcomed end Paul Dekker back from two years in the army and signed him to a 1956 contract.

Dekker, 6-foot-5 former Michigan State player, caught 14 passes for 182 yards in 1953, his only season with the Redskins before entering the service.

Ex-Tiger Star Trout Joins Detroit Squad for Mound Workout

MIAMI (AP) — Former Detroit Tiger pitching star Paul (Dizzy) Trout, now retired, says he wants to make a comeback.

* * *

Trout joined the Tiger squad three days ago and has pitched batting practice since his arrival.

"I swear he's faster now than he was three years ago," catcher Frank House said. "He has got as much stuff as a lot of guys we've got."

Trout says he's willing to go with anyone who'll have him.

Syracuse Bowlers Lead ABC Tourney

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—A Syracuse, N.Y., team held the lead in the team division of the American Bowling Congress Tournament today.

* * *

The Meade Floor Covering team rolled a 2,997 to better by 2 pins the score posted last week by Stroh's Beer of Detroit.

* * *

Frank Fabrizio sparked his team's performance with a 699, the second highest series of the tourney so far in any event.

* * *

Fabrizio, a 182-average kegler, rolled games of 205, 228 and 266. He rolled nine strikes before leaving a 7-9 split on his 10th ball.

There were no other changes in the top division leaders yesterday.

Akins on TV Bout Tonight

Victory Could Result in Welterweight Match With Saxton

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sixth - ranked Virgil (Honeybear) Akins can land a bout with welterweight champion Johnny Saxton if he overcomes a habit of missing his big chances and defeats Hector Constance in a 10-round fight tonight.

* * *

Saxton is looking around for opponents before he gives Carmen Basilio a return crack at the title.

* * *

Akins has all the equipment to make a champion. He is a good boxer and good hitter, but often has lacked fire.

* * *

The St. Louis fighter also has a hometown jinx to overcome. Almost all of his best showings have been away from here.

* * *

Constance, of the British Island of Trinidad, is fast and holds victories over Kid Gavilan and Ralph (Tiger) Jones.

* * *

The event will be televised nationally (ABC, 10 p.m., EST)

DeSpirito Back in Saddle as Winner

BOWIE, Md. (AP) — Tony DeSpirito may be one of those champions who can come back.

* * *

The leading jockey of 1952 is riding winners as of old at Bowie after being hospitalized for five months. He was so badly hurt in a spill last September that at first it appeared doubtful he would ever ride again.

* * *

The accident happened in the Beldame at Aqueduct. Three horses went down and DeSpirito was kicked and suffered a broken jaw and brain injury.

The 22-year-old from Lawrence, Mass., is riding as good as his best at Bowie today.

Yesterday, he brought in three winners to give him 17 for 10 days of the meet.

THE POWERHOUSE By JIMMY POWERS

BRADENTON, Fla. — All Charley Grimm wants is some kind of "miracle health and accident insurance—I'll do all right if my heroes can be prevented from tying their muscles up in knots, slipping a disk or pulling a tendon," he says.

The Braves finished a poor second to Brooklyn in 1955 but they must be considered the No. 1 threat to our dear, dashing Dodgers.

"I don't like to say it but it's Brooklyn's turn to get the bad bounces," said Grimm. "Everything fell into line so neatly for them last year.

They got off to that tremendous start. Every move they made was the right one. Their pitchers took turns taking up the slack for one another. Their slumps came when it didn't hurt. How lucky can you get?"

★ ★ ★ ★

Grimm thinks pitching will win the pennant . . . "I've got 26 fellows trying for starting berths. There are 21 on our regular roster, the other five are up for a look-see."

Grimm feels the Dodgers got off to a good start because the team was literally put through a meat grinder of desperate training.

"I'm doing the same thing. I'm running my guys bowlegged. I have a batting practice deal. When a pitcher knocks the ball out of the park he gets a box of cigars but as soon as the ball sails over the fence all work stops and all pitchers have to run around the park. They average eight to 10 gallops a day."

How is Warren Spahn?

★ ★ ★ ★

"He had a sore knee last year and still won 17. He says the knee is OK. That's good enough for me. But we won't know until he actually gets out there and tests it. I think he'll win 20 sure."

BRAVES DOGGED BY BAD LUCK FOR 3 YEARS

Grimm had not had too many dates with old Lady Luck since he took over Milwaukee, replacing Tommy Holmes in 1952. His home park record last year was 46-31.

In night games he was 34-33. The club was seventh in fielding, third in pitching and fourth in batting. His starting pitchers very likely will be Bob Buhl (13-11) Lew Burdette (13-8), Gene Conley (11-7), righties; the lefties are Spahn (17-14) and Chet Nichols (9-8). Ernie Johnson heads the bullpen brigade (5-7). Gene Bearden who won 18 at San Francisco will probably get a good trial run.

★ ★ ★ ★

Actually, despite all the optimism and jokes, Grimm is going to have practically the same team he had last year judging from the roster and the faces in the important posts at this camp.

Dodgers Belt Tigers Again

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Class always tells, they say, and the Brooklyn Dodgers wasted little time in demonstrating to the Detroit Tigers why they're considered the classiest team in baseball.

* * *

Trailing 2-0 at the end of four innings in an exhibition game here last night, the world champion Dodgers pushed across three runs in the 5th and exploded for another five in the 8th to shellack the Tigers, 8-2.

It was Brooklyn's 2nd straight victory over the Tigers and 3rd in a row in exhibition play.

* * *

Two rookie hurlers, Bob Darnell and Stan Williams, clamped the lid on Tiger batsmen, holding them to four hits while Dodger hitters were connecting for nine blows.

* * *

Darnell, a righthander who chalked up a 9-9 record with St. Paul of the American Assn. last year, was tabbed for three hits and two runs in his five-inning performance and got credit for the victory. Williams, who towers 6-5 and weighs a hefty 225, unleashed a blazing fast ball and only Jim Delsing's single in the 6th kept him from holding the Tigers hitless for the last four innings.

At the same time, Detroit had little to complain about in the performance of young Bob Miller, their promising southpaw. Miller gave up only four scattered singles in his five-inning stint but was charged with the loss when three unearned runs were scored on errors by Harvey Kuenn and Buddy Hicks.

* * *

Little Joe Presko fared much worse. He shackled the Dodger bats for two innings but in the eighth frame Walter Alston's men pounded him for five runs, including a two-run homer by Jim Gentile, rookie first baseman.

Both Tiger runs came in the third inning. Miller whacked a double. Kuenn got on base on Jackie Robinson's high throw of a grounder and scored on a single by Wayne Belardi.

The Tigers' four game series with Brooklyn continues in Vero Beach today and will wind up at Lakeland tomorrow. Ned Garver is scheduled to handle the pitching chores for Detroit today.

Short Defends Title

PTTA Tourney Thursday

The Pontiac Table Tennis Association will hold its annual city championships Thursday night at the Bethany Baptist Church auditorium on West Huron.

* * *

Bobby Short will defend his men's singles crown against some of the city's top paddle-swingers. Ellen Tiffany is defending women's singles champion.

Short and James Reed, both three-time state junior boys' champs, will team up for men's doubles.

Competition will be held in men's singles and doubles, mixed doubles, women's singles, boys through 15 years of age, and junior boys through 18.

Awards will be made to winners of all events. Spectators are welcome.

* * *

Entries will be accepted until Thursday. Anyone wishing to enter the tournament should call Elmer Klemm, FEderal 4-8730.

Carter Scores Decision Over Bob Satterfield

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (INS) — Harold Carter of Newark, N. J., climbed a rung in the heavyweight division by pounding out a 10-round decision last night over hard-punching Bob Satterfield at Miami Beach Auditorium.

Carter, 21, who has lost only one fight in his 18 professional battles, weighed 194 and his Chicago opponent 183 for the non-televised bout.

Industrial Keglers to Roll Saturday

The ninth annual National Industrial Bowling Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday at Pontiac's Motor Inn Recreation alleys.

* * *

GMC Truck & Coach Division and Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company are hosts for this year's tournament.

Five Pontiac industrial teams —two from Baldwin Rubber, two from GMC Truck & Coach, and one from Fisher Body—will be rolling in the tournament.

Forty-two teams are entered, the largest number in tourney history. There are 13 teams from Michigan, three from Indiana, one from Illinois, and 25 from Ohio.

* * *

Last year's champion, the Studebaker - Packard Corporation of South Bend which rolled 8,257 pins in nine games, will be here to defend its crown.

Bowling sessions will start at 11 a.m., 1:15 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. Saturday and at 10:30 a.m. and 12:45 p.m. Sunday.

Trophies will be awarded to the five teams with the most total pins, the team boasting the high series, and the team listing the high single game. Individual awards go to the top three bowlers in single game, series, and nine games.

The opening ceremonies will be held Saturday at 10:45 a.m. when Earl A. Maxwell, Personnel Director of GMC Truck & Coach, welcomes all industrial bowling teams.

Trainer Suspended for Use of Stimulant Drug

BOWIE, Md. (AP)—James McGee of Holmesdel, N.J., was under suspension as a trainer for the second time in 11 years in Maryland today because a stimulant was reported in tests on one of his winning horses.

The Bowie stewards suspended him yesterday for the duration of their meeting, ending April 17. They referred the case to the Maryland Racing Commission which may make the suspension longer.

In 1945, the commission suspended McGee for one year after "a drug of the nature of caffeine" was reported in tests on British Buddy who won the Maryland handicap.

* * *

A similar drug was reported by chemists who tested Morning After, winner of Friday's sixth race at Bowie. The horse trained by McGee is owned by Gough W. Thompson of Pikesville, Md.

The stewards in addition to suspending McGee, disqualified Morning After and ordered the $4,000 purse redistributed among the next four horses.

No change ever is made in the payoffs to the bettors. Those who had Morning After received $6.40 for $2.

Casey Stengel Gives Out With Doubletalk

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — New York Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, the master of the doubletalk, made another one of his classic remarks today.

* * *

Speaking of Bob Turley's ineffective pitching so far this spring, Casey remarked: "He doesn't smoke, drink or chase around but I can get better pitching out of a drunk."

Seattle Pilot Quits

SEATTLE (AP) — Horace Brightman resigned as head baseball and basketball coach at the University of Seattle yesterday.

Star Slugger Needs Net to Catch Flies

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Rookie Wes Covington of the Milwaukee Braves is a star in the batter's box but he admits he's no expert in the outfield.

* * *

He hit two doubles and a single in five trips to the plate against Kansas City Tuesday, but his fielding woes included mistakes on two fly balls that dropped for a double and a triple.

* * *

"I should have had a fish net out there today," the husky slugger said.

Indians Irate Over Bonus 'Wise Guy'

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Some of the officials of the Cleveland Indians were reported today to be unhappy with the performance of Kenny Kuhn, the Tribe bonus boy.

* * *

The officials say Kuhn, who observed his 19th birthday yesterday, isn't exerting himself during practice.

* * *

And when a veteran or coach offers him some advice, the infielder cuts in with "I know how it's done."

Pete Reiser won the National league bat crown with Brooklyn at age 22.

Red Wings Rally to Win, 3-2

DETROIT (AP) — A "very ordinary" looking club for 40 minutes and a revenge-bent crew that struck with dramatic suddenness for the next 20 — that was the Detroit Red Wings.

The difference between night and day is little more pronounced than that of a team that played puzzling hockey for two periods last night then came roaring back to trigger three quick goals and turn an apparent defeat into a 3-2 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs.

It gave the Red Wings a sizeable boost toward a Stanley Cup showdown with the title-winning Montreal Canadiens, who blasted New York last night 7-1.

"Right now we're concerned with Toronto," said coach Jimmy Skinner, Wings' general manager Jack Adams wrapped up the story of the comeback victory in just one sentence: "This club looks very ordinary out there, and then all of a sudden they get mad and there you are."

For a long while, it appeared the Wings would never "get mad." Toronto completely dominated play in the frist two periods, scoring once in each. The Wings' attack sputtered and stalled and they made few real threats.

George Armstrong made it 1-0 midway through the first period with assists from rookie Dick Duff and veteran Jim Thomson.

Ron Stewart deflected the puck off his hip and it bounced past Detroit goalie Glenn Hall at 11:31 of the second period for Toronto's second goal.

Close checking by the Leafs and alert goal tending by Harry Lumley suppressed the Wings' mild offensive halfway through the second period.

The third period was less than one minute old and each side was a man short when Gordie Howe bounced a 10-footer off Lumley's chest for the Wings' first goal. It was a tonic for the second-place Detroiters, and they kept the pressure on the rest of the way.

John Bucyk, 21-year-old winger playing in his first cup playoff, got the equalizer a few minutes later. The stocky Edmonton, Alta., lad, who didn't own a starting job until the seaon was well along, picked up a passout from Alex Delvecchio and steamed the puck through Lumley's legs for the goal that tied the score. The Leafs lost the puck on their first effort and within 44 seconds they trailed the resurgent Wings.

A scramble in which Detroit's Metro Prystai sent the puck toward the goal mouth gave Delvecchio an opening and he jabbed at it twice, finally getting the best of a duel with goalie Lumley. The Red Wings controlled play the rest of the way and controlled shooting for the third period with a 20-8 edge.

Drivers of 6 Nations Race

Argentine Daredevil Is Top Contender in 12 Hour Competition

SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — Champion drivers of six nations will battle for top honors Saturday when 60 of the world's fastest sports cars roar away from the starting line in the International Grand Prix of Endurance.

* * *

Hottest contender in the list of drivers who will compete in the gruelling, 12-hour race around an abandoned Sebring Air Force Base will be the Argentine daredevil, Juan Fangio, who won the world sports car driving championship last year.

* * *

Fangio will head a team of six drivers for the Ferrari factory of Modena, Italy. He predicts that when the test of men and machines ends at 10 p.m. (EST), a Ferrari will get the checkered flag of victory.

* * *

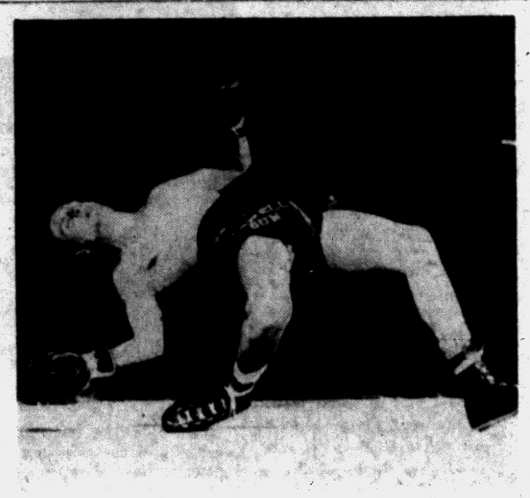

Second best known driver on the Sebring course Saturday will be the English champion, Stirling Moss, who was runner-up to Fangio in last year's fight for world honors. Moss will be the top driver for the formidable Aston-Martin team from England.

Blow From Golf Club Fatal to Teenage Boy

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The coroner said Phillip Walker, 16, died from a skull fracture caused by an accidental blow from a golf club at suburban La Mesa, Tuesday.

Manny's Upsets Clarkston

Manny's Bar scored a 71-69 upset over the Clarkston Merchants Tuesday night at Crary gym to win the Waterford Township Recreation League post-season basketball tournament.

The championship final, which officially closed the season, was hotly-contested all the way and neither team held more than a two-point lead at any time. Dick Stacey and Bob Campbell each tallied 18 points for Manny's while Pete Palshan topped Clarkston with 24.

The Waterford High School faculty defeated the high school reception league all-stars, 50-35, in the preliminary game.

* * *

Joe Umphrey of Johnson & Anderson was honored as the most outstanding player and Tex Klaus of Philgas received the sportsman's award. Individual trophies were given to the Clarkston players for winning the league title and Bill Frankenfield of Manny's Bar accepted the traveling trophy, emblematic of the playoff crown.

Ferryman Crowned City Chess Champ

Frank Ferryman of Pontiac was crowned city chess champion in the Parks and Recreation Department's chess and checker tournament Monday night at the Adah Shelley Branch Library.

Ferryman won the title with two straight victories over Edward Garrahan, also from Pontiac.

On the way to the finals Ferryman eliminated Mrs. Eleanor Sundheim and George Danic in single games. Garrahan ousted Mrs. Linus Pace and Mrs. Pauline Albertson from Keego Harbor.

Dan Chapman and Delos Dunham, both of Pontiac, will duel for the checker crown next Monday night at Adah Shelley at 7 o'clock.

GRAPEFRUIT League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In the spring a young man's thoughts turn to many things. Some of the older guys are concentrating their efforts on winning jobs in major league baseball.

Ellis Kinder, 41, is trying to find a new life with the St. Louis Cardinals. Sal Maglie, 38, is out to show Cleveland he still has something left in his right arm. Howie Pollet, 35, is being given a tryout with the Chicago White Sox after being released by the Cubs. And Wally Westlake, 35, is bidding for an outfield spot with the Philadelphia Phillies after getting the pink slip from Baltimore.

* * *

Now comes Max Lanier. Forty years old last August 18, the southpaw pitcher is being given the once-over by the Phillies. Out of baseball last year, Lanier made his first appearance of the spring yesterday, pitching two innings as the Phils trounced Washington 7-1. Max gave up two hits and a run in two innings.

* * *

Angelo LiPetri, who was only four years old when Lanier began his professional career with Greensboro, N. C., in 1934, and Bob Miller, also pitched for Philadelphia yesterday. The trio combined to hold the Senators to six hits as Ted Kazanski paced the Phils' attack with a double and two singles.

In other games, the Chicago Cubs, with home runs by Ernie Banks, Hank Sauer, Walt Moryn and Ed Winzeniak, walloped the Indians 14-7. The Cincinnati Redlegs rapped out 13 hits to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-3 behind the effective pitching of Rudy Minarcin and Tom Acker. The Kansas City As rallied for three runs in the ninth, two on Harry Simpson's homer, to edge the Milwaukee Braves 7-5.

* * *

The St. Louis Cards snapped the five-game winning streak of the New York Yankees 3-2 on an unearned run made possible by the two errors of Yankee pitcher Johnny Kucks. Dusty Rhodes slammed two homers and a double to lead the New York Giants to a 9-5 victory over Baltimore. The champion Brooklyn Dodgers won their third exhibition in a row, clubbing the Detroit Tigers 8-2 on a nine-hit attack against Bob Miller and Joe Presko.

The Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox were not scheduled.

Set Coon Dog Trials

The Pioneer Coon Hunters Association will sponsor a coon dog field trial Sunday on Grange Hall Road, 15 miles north of Pontiac and two miles east of Dixie Highway (three miles west of Ortonville).

John Feldman will be the field marshal. Competition will be held in senior, junior and green heats and 150 dogs are expected. A $200 purse is guaranteed.

Ground-squirrels are not true squirrels, and guinea pigs are not pigs. They are rodents.

ROPE JUMPING SHEPHERD — Joe Depa of Dearborn puts his trick-trained German Shepherd through a rope jumping act. The dog named "Laria" is five years old and it will appear Saturday night at the Pontiac Sportsmen's Showing which starts Thursday for a four day stand through Sunday at the Pontiac Retail Store, 63 Mt. Clemens. Exhibits run daily from 1:00 to 10 p. m. with demonstrations and shows set for 8 p. m. daily as well as 3 p. m. Saturday and Sunday.

Large Crowd Sees Trials

Bird dog field trials returned to Saginaw Valley in big way last weekend when over 600 spectators braved the cold, wind and snow to watch 82 dogs vie for honors during the running of the first annual spring field trials sponsored by the Tri-City German Shorthaired Pointer Club of Michigan.

From the spectators' viewpoint probably the most interesting trial run during the 2-day event held near Sanford, was the amateur shooting dog stake.

First place winner was Max V Schullenberg, a German Shorthair owned by H. Weiss and handled by P. Radde of Toledo, Ohio. Hansv Hohnenbrok, another GSP, won second honors. He is owned and was handled by R. Holmes of Toledo.

All other stakes during the trials were limited to German Shorthaired Pointers only. Winner of the puppy stake was Bruce v Haughn, owned and handled by E. Haughn of Archbald, Ohio.

Fritz Vunderbar, owned and handled by H. Snow of Detroit was second and also received the trophy for the best field type puppy.

Wild Turkey Program Will Be Stepped Up

LANSING (AP) — The state conservation department said today it will step up its program of re-establishing the wild turkey in Michigan.

The department said some 400 turkey eggs will be shipped from Pennsylvania to the state game farm at Mason this summer. The birds will be released in wild areas when they are 12 to 14 weeks old.

The program was begun in 1954 in the Allegan State Forest. Other turkeys were released in Lake and Newaygo counties last year.

A department count in January showed 118 turkeys in Allegan county, with 16 individual flocks reported.

In Newaygo county, 35 of the 79 turkeys released were alive in January.

Sportsmen's Show to Begin

The second annual Pontiac Sportsmen's Show opens Thursday afternoon in the basement showroom of the Pontiac Retail Store and continues through Sunday evening.

A galaxy of exhibits and demonstrations plus the appearance of well-known personalities will provide an entertaining program for sportsmen and all others interested in outdoor life.

Various kinds of top-notch fishing and pleasure craft will be on display in addition to the newest types of outboard motors and other marine hardware. The latest in fishing tackle and bait is also in the offing.

* * *

Among the list of notables headlining the four-day show is Mort Neff, Mr. Michigan Outdoors, who will appear Sunday at 8 p. m.

Ben Hardesty, world champion flycaster, will give instructions and demonstrations throughout the four days, and Lt. Coykendall of the Michigan State Police will demonstrate pistol shooting Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Depa of Dearborn will present a rope twirling and dog jumping act with Laria, a 5-year-old German Shepherd, at 8:30 p. m. Saturday.

Hunting dog displays are scheduled from 1 to 10 p. m. each day. Beagles are slated Thursday, Springer Spaniels on Friday, Irish Setters on Saturday, and other breeds on Sunday. Shows spotlighting these different breeds will be held each afternoon at 3 o'clock and Saturday and Sunday nights at 8.

A demonstration in taxidermy will be given, showing the complete mounting of deer heads from the beginning of skin preparation to the final work of installing eyes and touching up.

The complete mounting of pheasants, ducks and other birds is planned each afternoon and evening.

Also featured will be members of the Pontiac Archery Club, exhibiting trick and fancy shooting with bow and arrow.

The little theater, a successful part of the show last year, will be in operation again with the continuous running of several modern color and sound motion pictures.

A miniature automobile will be presented as a free door prize by the downtown Retail store. Fifteen merchants from the Pontiac area will be represented in the show.

There is no charge, according to Henry Gotham, manager of the Pontiac Retail Store. Doors open each day at 1 p. m.

Exhibit Attention Is Drawn to National Wildlife Week

By JACK PATTERSON

The second annual Pontiac Sportsman's Show which opens tomorrow and runs through Sunday will again take place at the Pontiac Retail Store on Mt. Clemens at Perry.

Because of the public interest shown last year, exhibitors feel that sportsmen have expressed a real desire to see what's new in sporting equipment without obligation.

Exhibitors are spending their time and money to that end.

While we imagine that most any of the canny merchants taking part in the show could be wheedled into selling something, the emphasis will be where it should—on display, not selling.

What happens when the primary purpose of a sportsmen's show—exhibition of new or improved items of interest to sportsmen—is lost sight of was perfectly illustrated by the recent Detroit show. That affair which has declined annually, and now it has become more of a surplus sale than a sportsman's show. Pontiac merchants are striving to avoid such a pattern.

In addition to seeing what's new on the market, visitors to the local show will have a chance to iron out their problems with leading hunting, fishing and where-to-go authorities.

PATTERSON

This is National Wildlife Week and its theme is to draw attention to the plight of some forty species of wildlife which are headed toward extinction. For some species, such as the whooping crane, much effort is being made to hold the line.

* * *

There are less than twenty-five of the birds left in the world. In the case of other species, notably the grizzly bear, whose total U. S. population is approximately 700 and is classed as a predator throughout most of its range, little has been done, to date, to assure the continuation of the species.

Prairie chickens, getting scarcer every year, seem assured of a national refuge in the near future, but as a game bird their time is running out.

In Michigan, the sturgeon of the Great Lakes is losing the struggle. In non-game species, the red-headed woodpecker, particularly vulnerable to automobiles because of its low-flying habits, has become scarce.

Many Michigan species not currently endangered are scarce enough to merit complete protection if they are to stay off the danger list.

* * *

Hunting pressure apparently doesn't have much effect on established species, provided seasons are intelligenty set and limits are realistic.

In the case of declining species, however, gunning, legal or otherwise is apt to be a determining factor. "Casual" shooting of odd species, unfortunately a common habit among many hunters who know better, can extinguish a species forever.

Better think a minute before you take a crack at that odd-looking whatizzit. It might be the last of its race.

Fox Hunters Hold Mulligan Saturday

The Michigan Fox Hunters Association are holding a one-day fox race Saturday, March 24 at the Lapeer State Game area, on Five Lakes road.

Running is for members only, but the membership roll is open for those wishing to join.

A Fox Hunters' Mulligan will be held afterward. Association secretary William C. Shaw, 7290 Howell road, Pontiac, has information on the hunt.

The muskrat is not a rat. He is an amphibious rodent and should be called a "musquash."

North Carolina State drew 256,000 for its 1954 - 55 basketball games, the top-attendance on current records.

Storms Damage 3,335,000 Acres

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department states 3,335,000 acres of land in the Great Plains have been damaged this season by dust storms.

A survey showed further, it said, that 19,400,000 acres were in a condition to be damaged by wind erosion, due to lack of moisture and soil cover.

The department said about 94 per cent of the land already damaged this season is located in Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. About 85 per cent of that in a condition to blow was said to be located in the same states.

The department said the land already damaged and that likely to be damaged was about the same total acreage in similar conditions a year ago.

Damage to growing wheat this season was put at 511,000 acres, most of it in Colorado and Texas.

Grains Retreat After Fine Start

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains fell back after starting out firm on the Board of Trade today. Some futures dropped below the previous close. Trading was slow.

* * *

In the early trade May wheat went to a new seasonal high, influenced largely by the very strong manner in which the March contract was closed out yesterday.

New crop wheat was under some pressure on a forecast for light moisture in parts of the winter wheat belt. Distant corn contracts also fell back. Soybeans maintained most of their early gains.

* * *

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ lower to ½ higher, May $2.22¾; corn ¼ lower to ⅜ higher, May $1.38½; oats unchanged to ¼ higher, May 63¾; rye unchanged to ½ lower, May $1.28¼; soybeans ¼ to 1 cent higher, May $2.63⅜, and lard unchanged to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $12.20.

Rips State Secretary on Suspension Issue

LANSING (AP) — Ingham County Sheriff Willard P. Barnes today charged Sec. of State James M. Hare with "trying to make a political mountain out of a molehill" in suspending his right to conduct driver license examinations.

* * *

Hare ordered the suspension pending an investigation of alleged irregularities. Hare said his action followed a complaint that Barnes had issued a license to a Lansing resident and listed his own (Barnes) home at Mason as the address.

Barnes, a Republican, charged that Hare, a Democrat "is attempting by any devious means he can find to take licensing functions away from local officials and concentrate them in his own hands."

Barnes said there was "one instance" where a Lansing resident processed his license request through the sheriff's office instead of going to Lansing police for renewal.

Business Notes

Pontiac native Eugene L. Klein has been appointed eastern representative for the rocket fuels division of the Phillips Petroleum Co., according to President Paul Endacott. Klein is the son of Mrs. Rhea A. Klein, of 6 Delaware Dr.

Prior to joining the firm, Klein spent 10 yours in military research and development work, serving the last two years as staff assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense in that field. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he received a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering.

The appointment of R. E. Holsaple as sales manager for the north-central region of the Tractor & Implement Division, Ford Motor Co., was announced yesterday by E. H. Woods, general sales manager.

He succeeds J. M. Swetland who has been assigned to the division sales staff in Birmingham, the firm's headquarters.

Holsaple, a former GM sales executive, will direct and plan division sales activities in six states and portions of two others. His new headquarters will be in Minneapolis, Minn.

Blame Juvenile Prank With Causing Mishap

Juveniles who dragged a 12-foot bicycle rack from Drayton Plains schoolyard into the middle of Williams Lake Road last night are responsible for a minor accident, Waterford Township Police Chief Frank VanAtta said today.

A car driven by Jay Sweet, 22, of 763 Portland St., crashed into the heavy rack in the darkness. Damage was minor.

"It could have been a lot more serious," Chief VanAtta said.

Pennies Buy License

LANSING (AP) — Duane Peterson, Michigan State University basketball center, produced $2 in pennies to pay for a marriage license at the Lansing city clerk's office. Peterson, from Elkhart, Ind., and Barbara Brines of Midland, an MSU coed, will marry Saturday at the University Chapel.

Lansing Eyes Parking

LANSING (AP)—The Lansing City Council has ordered a study of downtown parking problems. The purchase of additional property for city-operated lots and the construction of a 4 or 5 story parking ramp were among suggestions forwarded to solve the shortage of parking space.

Milan Bond Approved

MILAN (AP) — Milan consolidated school district voters Tuesday approved by a vote of 820 to 291 a 1½ million dollar school construction bond issue. It was the first bond election in the district in 25 years.

Mercury and Nash Hike Deliveries During March

DETROIT (AP)—Ford's Mercury Division reported yesterday its retailers delivered 8,673 new cars during the first 10 days of March. This compared with 6,939 in the first 10 days of February.

American Motors' Nash Division reported its new car retail sales in the first 10 days of March numbered 2,902 units. This was up 32.7 per cent over the last 10 days of February.

Jail Youths for Shooting Dogs, Children With BBs

Two Drayton Plains youths who admitted shooting at dogs and children with BB guns from their car were sent to jail yesterday.

Glen Miller, 18, and Peter Hawke, 19, pleaded guilty to the charge before Waterford Township Justice Willis D. LeFurgy. They failed to pay $10 fines and $10 costs apiece, and began 10-day jail terms.

Market Lower, Volume Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined today on an expanded volume of trading.

* * *

Prices in the early afternoon were off 1 to around 3 points at the outside. There were only a handful of gainers, and the best of the rise didn't get past a point very often.

Trading hit a pace of better than 3,000,000 shares for the day, that compares with ~2,960,000 shares traded yesterday when the market advanced in an irregular manner to another new record high mark.

* * *

Selling today was centered in the steels, coppers and aircrafts. Both the steels and coppers have been strong recently, and they were ready targets for profit-taking.

The aircrafts have been relatively quiet lately, but today they were shaken following the Air Force announcement that it was cancelling orders for 100 million dollars in jet contracts held by Republic Aviation. That stock was off between 1 and 2 points in trading that was active at times.

* * *

Some gold mining shares were given a buying whirl as the Canadian government opened up a free gold market along the lines of those currently operating in Europe.

Homestake Mining was up between 2 and 3 points at its best and active. Dome Mines also was active and up around a point.

* * *

Spencer Kellogg, up 2½ yesterday on merger rumors, was down nearly as much today after the rumors were spiked.

RAYMOND T. PERRING

Edison Elects Banker to Director's Position

Raymond T. Perring, president of The Detroit Bank, has been elected a director of the Detroit Edison Co., succeeding Russell W. Symes who resigned recently after 39 years with the utilities firm.

Perring lives on Yarboro Road in Bloomfield Hills.

Active in Detroit-area civic affairs, the new director has been a leader in the Junior Achievement movement and has headed the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Perring joined The Detroit Bank in 1927 and was elected president and director in 1952.

Symes, who lives at 15 Elm Park, Pleasant Ridge, retired as a vice president of the bank in 1946 but continued as director and tax consultant. He is regarded as a national authority on standardized utility accounting procedures.

He is a former member of the Pleasant Ridge Village Commission.

Shooting Count Jails Constable

Shelby Township Man Demands Examination Upon Arraignment

A Shelby Township constable Harry L. Shutnik, 29, is behind bars today facing a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

His arrest came yesterday as a result of a complaint he himself made to Romeo State Police two weeks ago when someone hurled a sign ripped from a nearby nursery store against the front door of his home at 53303 Hayes Rd., Washington.

At that time, State Police Trooper Milton Jury was told by Shutnik that previous trouble with prowlers had caused him to fire at a car in his driveway some months before.

Jury, remembering an unsolved shooting Nov. 23, took Shutnik's revolver and sent it to ballistics experts in Lansing for testing.

The Nov. 23 incident involved an Elmer Koss, 29, of 55630 Hayes Rd., Washington. Koss had reported to State Police that a car had followed him when he returned from a date, parked behind him in his driveway, and that the driver had got out and fired three shots when he (Koss) left his car to investigate. Two shots went wild, Koss said and a third hit the car after narrowly missing him.

The Lansing ballistics report yesterday identified Shutnik's gun as the one that had fired the slug found in Koss' car, police said, and Shutnik's arrest followed.

Shutnik was arraigned shortly after his arrest in the court of Justice Francis A. Castellucci, Mt. Clemens. He demanded examination, and a hearing date of April 3 was set. He is being held in Macomb County Jail after failing to furnish $3,000 bond.

Romeo State Police said that Koss' story that the shooting occurred in Koss' driveway three blocks from Shutnik's home was confirmed by three of Koss' relatives who heard the shots.

American to Inaugurate New Cross-Nation Flight

Special DC-7 aircoach service between New York and Los Angeles will be inaugurated May 20 by American Airlines, officials announced yesterday. The firm will call the flight "The Royal Coachman."

The service will feature a new seating innovation which will make it possible for passengers to reserve seats when they buy tickets, making their selections from seating charts.

A similar flight will be put into effect June 17 between Washington and Los Angeles.

Hint Auto Industry to Hold Gotham Show

DETROIT (AP) — Chances are good that the auto industry will hold a national automobile show in New York late this year.

The show would be the first to be sponsored exclusively by the car manufactuurers since 1940. It would be held in the new coliseum on New York's Columbus Circle.

Engineers Gird for Clash in '57 Auto Sales Market

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP) — Engineering and design changes scheduled for 1957 model automobiles undoubtedly will include more pushbutton controls, more vehicles with non-skid differentials and perhaps at least one make with fuel injection in place of the conventional carburetor.

Packard and Chrysler introduced pushbutton gear shifting with their automatic transmissions this year. The Packard system is electrically operated; the Chrysler unit is a mechanical linkage. Both companies report popular acceptance of the systems.

Studebaker-Packard Corp. also introduced the first passenger car line with the non-skid differential. This device is designed to provide traction to the drive wheel in the clear when one side of the car becomes mired in mud or snow or starts to spin in an icy rut.

Engineering authorities have called it an outstanding advance in automotive development.

Some industry analysis look for the fuel injection system to appear in one of the so-called "prestige" cars next year. It will be an extra-cost item for some time to come. Its advocates say, however, that increased power and greater fuel economy will be immediate results of the switch from carburetor to injection system.

In the injection systems tried out by the various car makers, fuel is sprayed directly into the combustion chambers without first passing through the carburetor and manifold. It is about as close to a major engineering change as anything contemplated for any 1957 model cars.

Some speculation in industry circles centers around whether any other car maker will have a small "personal" model to compete with Chevrolet's Corvette and Ford's Thunderbird. A sharp competitive battle already is under way between these two larger car makers for a major share of the market in this field.

There still is considerable question among the trade authorities as to whether the over-all smaller car market holds a substantial profit potential. In the case of both the Corvette and the Thunderbird the retail delivered price runs well above $3.000.

At the same time it has to be noted that high quality engineering is a characteristic of both vehicles.

Ford, which has broadened its Mercury price range, has another competitive model in the making. As yet unnamed, the new car will give Ford a competitor in the price range between the Mercury and the Lincoln. There have been no company disclosures to substantiate this.

The industry experts see the new model planning, along with the relatively recent advent of the $10,000 Continental model, as part of the Ford preparation for greater competition, in all brackets, with General Motors.

GM's Cadillac Division will have its newest prestige model, the Eldorado Brougham, ready for presentation sometime in August of this year. This is the car Cadillac reportedly developed as an answer to Ford's Continental.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commission Awards 3 Contracts for $800,000 Public Safety Building

Half of the six contracts for the $800,000 Public Safety Building were authorized to be signed last night in action taken by the City Commissioners as they met in a 3½-hour session.

Contracts for the general architecture, heating and electrical work were authorized to be signed by the mayor and city clerk, while the signing of three other contracts was put over for a week upon the request of City Manager W. K. Willman.

Most of the 30-point agenda, containing public improvement procedures, was overshadowed by two issues involving car wrecking establishments in the city. These issues took up more then two hours of the long meeting.

In other action, the commission approved an agreement with the Newton Building Co. concerning installation of water mains in the Chambers-Bowen Subdivision.

Two deeds from the city were approved by the City Commission for the Consumers Power Co. for part of lot 12 assessor's plat 147, and the second for the Vernor Ginger Ale Co. for part of lot 4, assessor's plat 76.

A contract between the city and Lewis Kevorkian for installation of water mains in the city was accepted by the commissioners in continued action on the agenda.

Engineer estimates were aired last night for the following projects and the city clerk authorized to advertise for March 27 public hearings on the jobs:

Sidewalk and related work on north side of Michigan avenue from Jessie to Tasmania avenue at a total cost of $5,293.75.

* * *

Sanitary sewer for Astor street from Maines to Michigan. Total cost will be $10,789.35.

Curb, gutter, and related work for Valencia drive from Mt. Clemens to south line of lots 144 and 253, and for Hazel street from Telegraph to Starr.

Storm sewer in Astor street from Maines to lot 57 of the Clinton Heights Subdivision, storm sewer outlet in outlot "A" of the subdivision and Astor street from Maines to the Clinton River.

Further action saw two public hearings held on intention to construct curb, gutter, and related work on Yale and Hopkins streets from Baldwin to University.

A written objection is expected by City Engineer Lewis Wrenn on a portion of the Yale street project as a member of last night's audience voiced objection to the job.

The city assessor was authorized to prepare special assessment rolls for the projects and report to the commission next week.

An assessment roll for the Pontiac Creek storm drain for the city's northwest section was accepted as was a low bid of $342,649 of the Greenfield Construction Co. of Detroit for the construction of the drain.

A public hearing on the Pontiac Creek assessment roll will be conducted at next week's meeting.

Special assessment rolls on which public hearings will be held next week also were accepted last night on the following projects:

Curb, gutter and related work for Princeton avenue from Baldwin to Stanley, East Princeton from Baldwin to University, and Del Rey drive from East boulevard to 94 feet west.

Combined sever and related work for the west side of Joslyn avenue from Second to Third.

Water mains for Grandview boulevard from Paddock to Omar, McGregor avenue from Paddock to Gilmour, Gilmour drive from Grandview to Paddock, Peacock avenue from Joslyn to Fuller, Clare avenue from Joslyn to east property line of lot 30 assessor's plat 102, and for Fuller avenue from Peacock to Columbia.

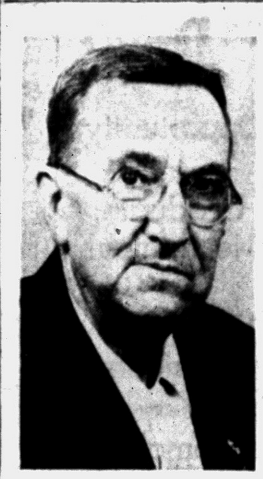

The A & A Asphalt Paving Co. of Birmingham had a low bid of $81,225.65 accepted by the commission for two-inch blacktop paving projects in the city.

After being tabled for a week, a report recommending the rezoning to residential 3 of the south side of Auburn avenue from Perkins to Center, was approved by the commission.

They also received the first reading of an ordinance to amend a section of a previous zoning ordinance regarding the prohibiting of automobile bump shops in commercial areas. A public hearing will be aired on this ordinance April 17.

In other action, plans for the Robert Herndon Pontiac Apartment Subdivision were approved for lots 39 to 44.

A petition opposing any street improvements in 1956 for Colorado avenue from Franklin to Bagley was received by the commission and filed in final action last night.

Earnings

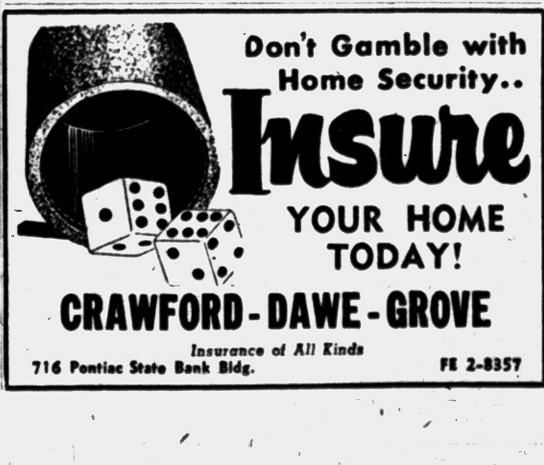

NEW YORK (INS)—Phillips Petroleum Co. reports net income for the year ended Dec. 31 of $98,203,075, equal to $5.55 a common share. This compared with $76,234,679, or $5.20 a common share, on a smaller number of shares, in the preceding year. Revenues totaled a record $813,313,886 as against $786,129,752 in 1954. K. S. Adams, chairman, predicted a continued gain in demand for petroleum products and was optimistic about the petro-chemical outlook. He also expressed the belief that there was a need for higher prices for crude oil and petroleum products.

NEW YORK (INS)—Cities Service Co. anounced net income for the year ended Dec. 31 of $49,306,515, equal to $4.88 a common share. This compared with $43,724,163, or $4.32 a common share in the preceding year. Revenues increased to a record $923,240,384 from $813,173,602 in 1954. W. Alton Jones, chairman, said that management last year placed major emphasis upon increased oil and gas production, additions to underground reserves and expansion of activities in the growing field of petro-chemicals.

CHICAGO (INS)—Montgomery Ward and Co. reported net income for the fiscal year ended Jan. 31 of $35,441,046, equal to $5.23 a common share. This compared with $35,232,600, or $5.20 a common share, in the preceding year. Sales increased to $909,946,906 from $887,336,812 in 1954, marking the first reversal in a downward trend which started in 1951. John A. Barr, chairman, said the earnings outlook for 1956 appears satisfactory although "profits will be affected by further increases in business expenditures generally."

Expect Prosecution to Rest Case; State Plans Fresh Evidence

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The prosecution expected to rest its case today and make ready to meet defense arguments in the bus boycott trial of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

* * *

On the third day of testimony, the state planned to offer fresh evidence in an effort to pin boycott conspiracy charges on the first of 90 Negro leaders.

Circuit Judge Eugene Carter is presiding at King's trial and will also decide on the guilt or innocence of the other 89 boycott defendants who likewise have requested nonjury trials. Each case will be heard separately.

The state was partially successful yesterday in getting evidence admitted which was designed to show that Negroes have been threatened and intimidated to keep them riding buses during the 16-week-old mass protest against segregation.

Carter permitted two Negroes to testify about threats they said they had received, but ruled out the testimony of another Negro.

King, 27, a Baptist minister, is president of the Montgomery Improvement Assn. The state says he and other leaders in the organization have conspired to maintain the crippling boycott against Montgomery City Lines, Inc.

Chicken Pox Increase Seen in County Area

Chicken pox is up slightly in the county according to a report from Dr. John D. Monroe, health director, and measles in Pontiac have risen from 18 to 34 cases in the last week.

The county report shows a slight increase in scarlet fever cases in the last week from 8 to 20.

A breakdown of reports from the health departments on communicable diseases follow:

Composer Innocent of '52 Drunk Count

VAN NUYS, Calif. (INS) — Merle Travis, 38, composer of the hit song, "16 Tons," has pleaded innocent to a drunk charge filed four years ago.

Travis entered the plea yesterday after learning that a warrant had been issued for his arrest. He said he could not even recall the event.

Police said he was arrested in 1952 on the drunk charge but the arrest did not come until four years later because the warrant was "delayed or mislaid" in processing.

Farmington Resident Injured in Crash

Carl G. Pappas, 21, of Farmington, who lost control of his car on 12 Mile Road near Orchard Lake Road yesterday morning, was treated for lacerations and released from Pontiac General Hospital.

The car hit a utility pole, Sheriff's deputies said.

2 Young Brothers Die as Fire Sweeps Home

MARQUETTE (AP) — Two young brothers died yesterday in a fire which destroyed their cabin home at Beaver Grove, nine miles southeast of Marquette.

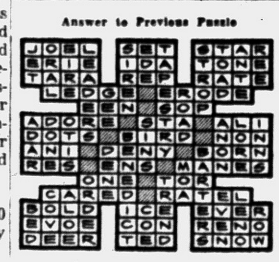

They were TLerry Thoune, 2½, and his brother, Phillip Jr., 10 months. The fire broke out while the mother was shopping at a grocery a few doors away.

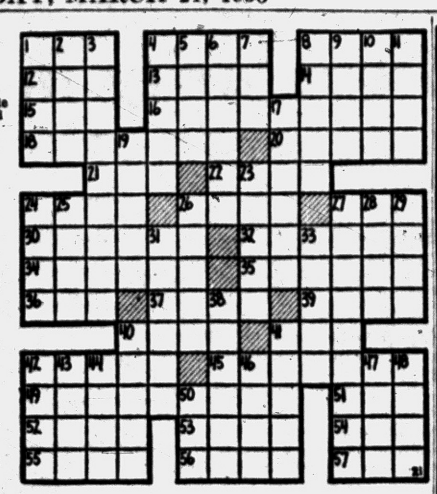

Firemen from Marquette and Northern Branch State PRISON AT Marquette fought the blaze. Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Filmland Divorce Hassle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Jayne Mansfield faces a contested divorce. Her estranged husband Paul Mansfield, Dallas public relations agent, filed an answer yesterday to her suit and asked for custody of their 5-year-old daughter Jayne Marie. He denied her accusations of cruelty and claimed she was unfit as a mother.

Honduras has a $4,200,000 World Bank loan for highway maintenance.

Oscar Awards Given Tonight

Filmland's Best in 1955 Vie for Top Honors; Last Appearance for Grace

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tonight is Oscar night in movietown and for the first time this traditionally gay night will be tinged with a little sadness.

* * *

Never before in the 28-years of the Academy Awards has a dead man been one of the favorites to win a top Oscar. Then too it is expected to be the last Hollywood appearance of Grace Kelly, a movie queen soon to become a real princess.

Many in Hollywood feel that if the late James Dean doesn't win the top acting award, the Academy should give him a special Oscar. The brilliant young actor was nominated for "East of Eden."

* * *

Dean was killed last September in a car crash, but he still gets more fan mail than any other star on the Warner lot.

He could well win. He's the choice of many, including Frank Sinatra, who was nominated himself for "Man With the Golden Arm."

BORGNINE TOP FAVORITE

But Hollywood is a practical town. Most of the voters want to see an Oscar go to someone who can get some good out of it. That makes Ernest (Marty) Borgnine the favorite.

Others in the top acting circle are James Cagney and Spencer Tracy. Both are previous winners and both gave performances, Cagney in "Love Me or Leave Me" and Tracy in "Bad Day at Black Rock," that are Oscar caliber.

* * *

Among the girls, it's a down-to-the-final-gun race between the Italian Anna Magnani and Brooklyn's Susan Hayward. Magnani, one of the world's great actresses, scored in "Rose Tattoo." It was her first American picture and the part was tailor-made for her by playwright Tennessee Williams.

Miss Hayward, in the charmed circle for the fourth time, is up for the Lillian Roth story "I'll Cry Tomorrow." Her portrayal of a lush was superb.

Others in the top actress race are Katharine Hepburn ("Summertime"), Jennifer Jones ("Love Is a Many-Splendored Thing") and Eleanor Parker ("Interrupted Melody").

For best picture, "Marty" and "Mr. Roberts" are the favorites, but tough competition can be expected from "Picnic," "The Rose Tattoo" and "Love is a Many-Splendored thing."

* * *

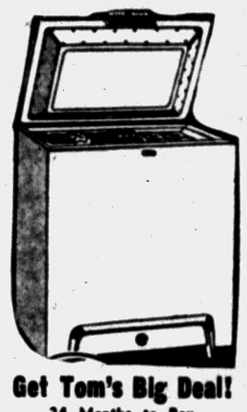

The nation will be able to see and hear the big show over NBC-TV and radio from 10:30 to 12:15, EST.

Two Traffic Counts Jail Clarkston Man

Leslie Cocking, 45, of Clarkston, who appeared on two traffic counts yesterday before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle, pleaded guilty to both and was sentenced to jail.

For driving without a license, Cocking was fined $25 with $25 costs and sent to jail for 10 days. For having defective equipment on his car, he was fined $15 with $10 costs.

Can President's Popularity in Oregon Lead to Unseating of Morse?

By MORRIE LANDSBERG

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The big question in Oregon today is, "Can you like Ike and Wayne Morse at the same time?"

* * *

Judging from a survey of political opinion, it wouldn't be surprising if the independent-minded Oregon voter confounded Republican strategy and said a paradoxical "Yes."

Republicans, deeply determined to unseat Morse, are billing it as a direct test between President Eisenhower and the outspoken Democratic senator who was elected as a Republican in 1950. But not everyone sees it that way.

* * *

"There's nobody like him," a Democratic taxi driver said admiringly of the President. "Sure, I'll vote for him again." And Morse? "He's a real fighter, that guy. He's okay."

Eisenhower is riding high in popularity in Oregon, which he carried by a fat margin in 1952. How much of it will rub off on Morse's Republican opponent, probably Secretary of the Interior McKay, could very well decide the Senate election.

MORSE MAIN TARGET

Republicans, who call Morse a "turncoat" because of his party switching, will be spurred by other incentives. His retirement would help them regain Senate control—now 49-47 Democratic. And it would remove one of the administration's sharpest critics.

Oregon Democrats, however, almost gleefully welcomed Douglas McKay's last-minute candidacy. While hesitant to forecast their presidential chances, they predicted Morse would receive solid Democratic support and attract 10 to 20 per cent of the Republican vote.

* * *

Not all Republicans were happy that the party's national leaders, with Eisenhower's warmly worded sendoff, nudged McKay into filing for the May 18 primary. Some elements felt they had two less vulnerable candidates in Lamar Tooze, Portland attorney, who withdrew immediately, and former State Sen. Phil Hitchcock.

Hitchcock, a prominent Presbyterian lay leader, refused to step out. He remained on the Republican ballot along with Elmer Deetz, a dairyman, and George Altvater, a political unknown.

Morse is opposed for the Democratic nomination only by a political unknown, Woody Smith of Hood River.

* * *

McKay has been the favorite target of Morse's "giveaway" charges against the Eisenhower power partnership and other natural resources policies. These are sensitive issues in the Far West—especially in the Pacific Northwest, where the cry for "cheap power" is strong.

"I'm as delighted to see McKay in the Senate race," said Democratic State Chairman Howard Morgan, "as (Republican National Chairman) Leonard Hall is to see him out of the Cabinet."

McKAY DEFENDS POLICIES

But McKay is ready to defend his and Eisenhower's policies, and has challenged Democrats to "name one thing" the Republicans have given away.

McKay plans to resign as interior secretary before the primary. A former Oregon governor, McKay is 62 but in good shape, he says, to enter what he views as a tough campaign. Morse is 56.

Oregon, once a Republican stronghold, is gradually drifting toward a Democratic registration as its population grows.

* * *

In Grants Pass, near the California line, Glen Provost, a welder and Republican, declared he's "for Ike and nothing against Nixon." It was "Ike and Nixon without reserve" with insurance agent Carl Kennedy, also a Republican. Democrat Henry Turk, a gladiolus bulb grower, voted for Eisenhower last time but says he will not again.

In Eugene, one Democratic housewife declared for Adlai Stevenson; another said, "I'll take Ike over Stevenson." The Republican manager of a large department store backed Eisenhower. He said the overriding influence in this university and lumbering town is prosperity. "The people like it," he said.

* * *

A Democratic salesman in Salem, who had just changed his registration from Republican, contended business drops when farm income slackens and "the Democrats do more for the farmers." A Republican farmer visiting in the state capital also sized up the farm problem as the big issue but said the administration's soil bank program will work "if we give it a try."

Royal Commission Recommending 3 New Grounds for British Divorce

LONDON (AP)—A royal commission recommended today that Britain recognize three new grounds for divorce, now limited to adultry, cruelty and desertion.

But it warned that the idea of life-long marriage is in danger through growing social acceptance of divorce as a casual matter.

The commission, headed by 68-year-old Lord Morton, spent 4½ years sifting evidence on Britain's altering marriage pattern in a study intended to help bring marriage laws up to date.

Its 300,000-word report carried this theme: divorce must not be made easier and all efforts should be made to bring divided couples together before dissolving a marriage.

GROUP IS UNANIMOUS

But the 19-member commission, including lawyers, educators and doctors, unanimously recommended recognition of these matters as grounds for divorce:

1. Wilful refusal of one party to consumate the marriage (instead of being a ground for nullity, as at present).

2. Artificial insemination of a wife without her husband's consent.

* * *

3. The fact that one party is a mental defective who has been detained for at least five years and who shows no hope of recovery from violent or dangerous characteristics.

Its report will be studied by the government and later debated in Parliament, which can adopt or reject all, or any, of the proposals.

RECOMMEND CHANGES

Among the main recommendations for divorce law changes is that a husband should have the same right as a wife to claim maintenance "where he is destitute and the wife has more than is reasonably sufficient for her own support."

* * *

Another is that a wife should be given the same right to claim damages from an adulteress in a divorce action as her husband has to claim them from an adulterer.

Divorces on grounds of cruelty should be allowed on past cruelties, the commission said, and it should no longer be necessary for the applicant to prove that he or she needs protection from cruelty at the time of seeking a divorce.

* * *

The three-year period of desertion is needed for divorce should be altered to three years within any period of three years and one month to allow for a trial period of reconciliation, the commission said.

It also recommended that no decree nisi, a preliminary divorce order, should be made absolute until the children of a broken marriage have been cared for.

Starts Removing Tire Chains on the Wrong Car

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — With last weekend's snow just about gone from the streets, Atty. W. Lee Harrison decided to remove his tire chains.

He had removed one set from a car outside the courthouse and was working on the other when a stranger stepped up and said:

"Everything is all right. I was going to remove them myself."

Then Harrison noticed that his car was parked in back of the one he was working on. Both were the same make, the same color and bore the same type chains. The embarrassed Harrison then went to work on his own chains.

House Approves Funds for Dredging River

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House tentatively has voted a $25,000 appropriation for dredging the Kalamazoo River at its junction point with Lake Michigan.

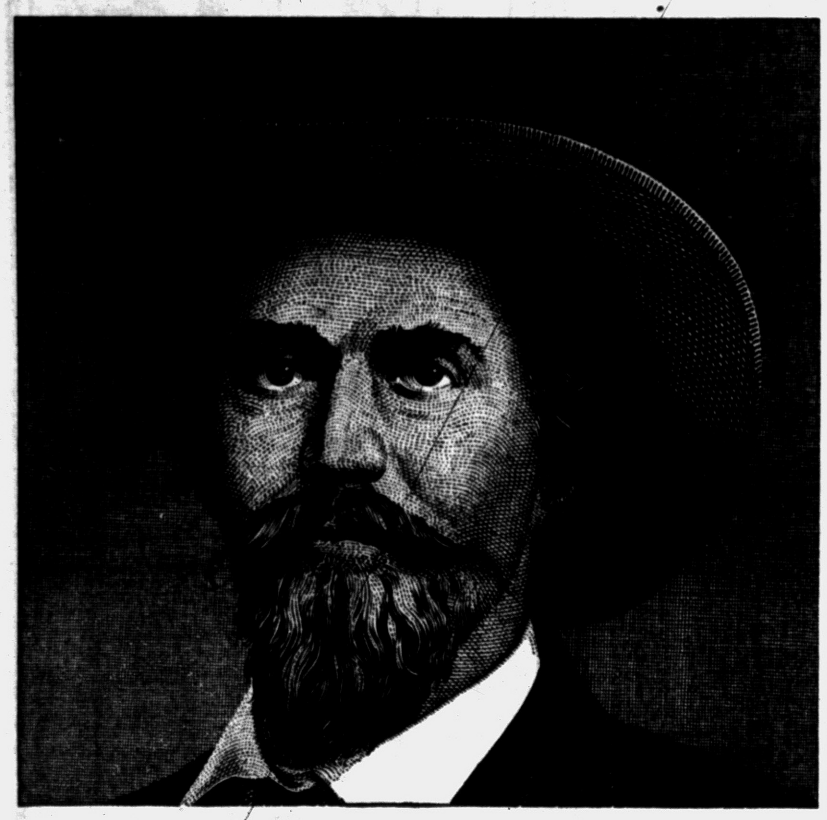

On an amendment by Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich), the money was added yesterday to funds provided for the Army Engineers in a supplemental appropriation bill scheduled for final passage today.
