Mystery Slaying of Secretary Puzzles Police

Victim in Target-Practice Accident

Rifle Bullet Kills Youth

Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Paul Mandel handed down an "accidental" ruling today in the fatal shooting of Gerald E. Cullens, 17, of 5491 Elizabeth Lake Rd., Waterford Township, Sunday night.

The incident took place while Cullens was target shooting with three companions on Collier road between Baldwin and Joslyn Roads in Pontiac Township.

It was the second such accidental shooting in a target shooting area this season.

Cullens was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Leon Cobb, Oakland County deputy coroner, after being struck in the back of the head by a .22 caliber bullet from a gun carried by 16-year-old Danny D. Kniffen.

Kniffen told investigating city and county police he tripped on something and fell forward, causing the gun to discharge.

Cullens was walking directly in front of Kniffen when struck. Kniffen said he had just reloaded his rifle and the boys were walking up a hill when the shooting occurred, according to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

The boys, who had gone to the scene to practice with their rifles after work early in the evening, were released in the custody of their parents. The others were Gerald C. Myers, of Milford, and Robert D. Vinson, of 137 Parkdale Ave.

Cullens was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Solan Cullens. Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home.

Tito Bypasses Tomb of Stalin at Soviet Shrine

Lays Wreath for Lenin in Moscow Mausoleum on Protocol Visit

MOSCOW (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito visited the Lenin-Stalin mausoleum today and pointedly ignored Stalin, the man who expelled him from the Communist family of nations eight years ago.

The Yugoslav President, here to cement his new friendship with the Soviet Union's post-Stalin leaders, laid a giant wreath of Easter lilies and tulips at the tomb in Red Square. The inscription on it said:

"To Vladimir Ilyich Lenin from Josip Broz Tito."

Without missing a step, Tito marched briskly past the glass-encased bodies of Lenin and Stalin inside the mausoleum. Abreast of Lenin's casket, the visitor turned his head and looked briefly.

He walked past Stalin's body without turning his head.

Eight minutes after he left his car, the Yugoslav chief had walked through the mausoleum, marched past a line of some 40 tombs of Communist leaders encased in the Kremlin walls and was being driven away.

Tito was accompanied on his hurried pilgrimage to the dead Reds by his handsome wife Jovanka, smartly dressed in a pink silk gabardine dress and a white hat.

Tito took a breather from his policy talks yesterday to browse through Moscow streets where he hung out while training here as a revolutionary.

Dedicate Seaway Lock to President as Work Begins

The Dwight D. Eisenhower Lock of the St. Lawrence Seaway was dedicated yesterday with tributes paid by Congressional leaders as to its role in peace and war.

A brief ceremony was held at the lock site where contractors last week started pouring concrete for the $22-million project.

Rep. George A. Dondero said the finished seaway would be "the greatest inland waterway in the world." He and Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.), were co-authors of the Seaway Bill passed by Congress in 1954.

Stalin Planned Another Purge, Tirade Reveals

Charge May Have Led to Execution of Tyrant; Full Story Released

WASHINGTON (AP) — The late Joseph Stalin was accused by one of his successors, in a speech disclosed here today, of planning a murderous new purge of some of the highest officials of Soviet Russia at the time of his death.

The charge immediately stirred speculation among American officials that Stalin may have been murdered to prevent him from carrying out his alleged purpose.

Stalin's death March 5, 1953 was attributed to natural causes in Russian reports, and there was little inclination at the time to doubt them.

The accusation against Stalin, including the charge that he was preparing to wipe out some-time Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and Politburo member A. I. Mikoyan, was made in a speech Feb. 24-25 at the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist party in Moscow.

The speech was by Nikita Khrushchev, Stalin's successor as first secretary of the Communist party in Russia, and the dominant figure in today's Soviet regime, headed by Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

25,000 WORD TEXT

Some parts of the speech had been previously reported, but only today the State Department released a 25,000-word version of it which contained many sensational details hitherto undisclosed.

The official Soviet version has been that Stalin succumbed to a brain hemorrhage.

But the line taken in the Khrushchev speech, picturing Stalin as a victim of suspicions and fears, ruthless in his use of power, driven by "mania for greatness," plotting a new purge, suggests that the men who were closest to Stalin had strong reason to get rid of him.

* * *

Authorities here said there is no way to know the facts and evidence may never be conclusive.

Khrushchev said Stalin's charge against Molotov and Mikoyan were baseless.

Gun Victim Bullet Only Clue in Death Outside Niles Nightclub

MRS. MARION DAVENJAY

Canadian Consul's Aide Struck in Heart; Area Questioning Continues

NILES (AP) — "Nothing to work on" confronted police today in the search for clues to the slayer of Mrs. Marion Davenjay, who was shot to death in front of a Niles nightspot early Sunday.

The 27-year-old secretary to the Canadian Consul at Chicago was found with a .22 caliber bullet through her heart. She had been shot in the back as she was about to enter the nightclub.

Police Chief Arthur N. Pears said he was "suspicious of everyone and everybody but we don't have anything to work on right now."

The death bullet and Mrs. Davenjay's clothing were sent to the State Police laboratories at East Lansing for tests to determine the distance the shot was fired.

Pears said he also planned further questioning of Mrs. Davenjay's companions although he said they had been cleared in the slaying.

QUESTION RESIDENTS

Mrs. Davenjay's date, Gene McClane, a magazine salesman, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClellan, all of South Bend, Ind., were inside the supper club, the Club 66, at the time of the shooting.

Officers questioned witnesses within a block radius of the supper club but found no one who heard the shot. The supper club is located on heavily traveled U.S. 31.

Mrs. Davenjay had left the nightclub less than 15 minutes before the slaying to go across the highway for some beer.

Chief Pears said he was inclined to discount a theory that the bullet was fired by pranksters cruising in a passing car. There were some window shatterings in the area last fall, he said, but all involved air guns and not rifles.

He said it might have been a stray bullet or that Mrs. Davenjay was slain by someone who mistook her for someone else.

Mrs. Davenjay, an attractive brunette, came to Niles by train from Cihcago late Saturday to meet McClane. They formerly worked at the same office. McClane said it was their first meeting since 1948.

Twin Tornadoes Hit in Oklahoma

Mustang People Escape Injury as Twister Wrecks Entire Village

MUSTANG, Okla. (AP)—Residents of this central Oklahoma farm community waded through tornado wreckage today, marveling at the miracle that had spared the town's 210 citizens.

Weather observers said that if the twin funnels that swirled over at tree-top level early yesterday had moved a few feet nearer the ground, untold damage and loss of life would have resulted.

Although property damage was estimated at $200,000 and nearly all the residents were caught without any warning, there was not a single injury.

The pair of clouds, one apparently close on the heels of the other, first touched down some two miles southwest of Mustang at the R. J. Merrill farm, then skidded to the edge of town.

TREES SHATTERED

Hopskipping along, the funnels traveled across the tiny hamlet, sucking flimsy outbuildings into splinters and uprooting large trees. They set down again at the northeast edge of Mustang in a grove of towering cottonwoods.

The massive trees were shattered and lined along the path of the storm, which the highway patrol said covered an area about two miles square. The turbulence then appeared to move skyward and sailed harmlessly over Oklahoma City, 10 miles to the northeast.

Not a single home here escaped damage entirely.

Ike Dedicates Union Building

8,000 Attend Opening Capital Headquarters of AFL-CIO

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told organized labor today its growing strength carries with it a vast new responsibility, like that of government, to serve the people without seeking to dominate them.

"Dedicated to the service of people—that is what labor and government must always be," Eisenhower said.

The President, speaking from a sun-drenched platform, dedicated the new national headquarters building of the AFL-CIO.

Some 8,000 spectators looked on as Eisenhower said he was delighted to "pay this neighborly call from my place across the square." The headquarters building is just a short distance across Lafayette Park from the White House.

Eisenhower assured leaders of the recently merged labor organization he will always be willing to "discuss anything of mutual interest."

The President spoke of the merger as bringing great new strength to organized labor and its leaders, vast new opportunities, and also "a vast increase in responsibilities."

The greatest responsibility, he said, is to maintain free democratic institutions within labor in keeping with those of the nation.

Auto Death Takes Sailor After Five Major Crashes

Death via an automobile finally caught up with the Navy son of an Oakland County couple Saturday.

After five serious injuries in major auto crashes during the past five years, Yeoman 2.C Anthony Ring of Grosse Ile Naval Air Station died in Wyandotte General Hospital early Sunday.

According to Trenton police, he was the apparent victim of a hit-and-run driver near the county bridge leading to Grosse Ile.

Ring was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ring, of 27441 Park St., Madison Heights, and had been in the Navy eight years, at Grosse Ile since 1951. He was married and the father of two children.

Last July 4 Ring was involved in a smashup, and received more than 100 stitches in his face, but recovered to become an auto victim Sunday.

Ring, who was a passenger in the auto wrecks he was involved in, did not drive himself, and had not had a driver's license in years.

Police Hold City Man in Saturday Shooting

The fatal shooting of a foundry worker, 37, climaxed an argument during a party Saturday evening in the Lakeside Housing Project.

Jimmie L. Fields was shot four times about 7:15 p.m. in front of his apartment at 320 Howard McNeill St. He died two hours later in Pontiac General Hospital.

Police are holding a neighbor, R. D. Davis, 37, who lives across a court at 306 Howard McNeill.

According to Davis, Fields pulled a pocket knife and threatened him, Detective Allen Noble said. Witnesses said Davis later shot Fields when Fields lunged through the door at him.

Rochester Man Highway Victim

Arthur Anderson Killed Between Truck Trailers Near Jackson

A Rochester man, 40, died in Jackson, Saturday, of injuries suffered when he was crushed between two truck trailers.

Arthur W. Anderson was caught between the trailers when the brakes in his cab failed, according to Jackson County Sheriff's Deputies.

He evidently had been attaching the two trailers at about 11:30 a.m. after unloading gravel at a highway by-pass being constructed west of Jackson, deputies said.

Anderson died of chest injuries at 1:55 p.m. in Mercy Hospital, Jackson.

In another weekend accident, a Highland Park man, 37, died when crushed beneath his car at 11:45 a.m. Sunday near Utica.

Robert L. Sibola evidently lost control heading south on M53 Macomb County Sheriff's Deputies said. His car skidded across the road about one-quarter mile north of Utica road, rolling over in a ditch, and throwing the victim out, pinning him under the wreckage. No one else was in the car.

'Ike and Mike—They Look Alike'

AP Photo

VISITOR OR RESIDENT — Confusion reigned around certain parts of Washington, D. C., over the weekend when Pontiac's "double" of President Eisenhower, Hector J. Chambers, 388 S. Anderson street, invaded the capital. And Gene George, Washington sightseeing guide, was no exception to the bewilderment. Taking a second look at Chambers (right) in front of the White House is George who is puzzled by the resemblance of the Pontiac visitor. Chambers, a Grand Trunk brakeman, was in a group of 40 members touring the capital as part of Janice Antona's citizenship classes in the city for the foreign-born. Chambers is a native of Ontario.

Progress Defies Views of Early Critics

1957 Hunters May Open Span at Straits

By JOE HAAS

MACKINAW CITY — In spite of the fact that it was only 20 years ago today that a Congressional report, fathered by one of our own Michigan congressman, stated that a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac was "a wild fantasy of the imagination," it now is assuming shape.

* * *

The engineers in charge of the work say there is little doubt that the deer hunters bound for the Northern Peninsula in next year's open season will be among the first to cross it. A big opening celebration is planned.

During the 1956 resort season it will be one of our state's biggest attractions. However, if you saw the work accomplished by last autumn, a trip there now to note its progress is not worth the trouble. Put it off until later in the season.

The central towers have reached their full height of 552 feet above water. All of the underwater work has been completed. In the caissons and pier foundations, which go down to 200 feet, is a greater weight of material than will appear above water.

* * *

The stringing of the first suspension wires between the central towers has started. They appear like fragile threads and are hardly visible from shore. They are only one-fifth of an inch in diameter.

But in the total assemblage there will be 12,876 of these wires, wrapped into two cables each 24 inches in dianfeter and 8,362 feet long. The total weight of the two cables will be 23 million pounds, and the total length of the wires in them 41,000 miles.

The weight of all materials in the bridge will exceed a million tons, three quarters of which is under water. Structural steel to the amount of 75,000 tons goes into the work, the rest being concrete.

Work is progressing on placing the cantilever steel on the tops of the 33 caissons on either approach to the central span. In some cases the level of the four-lane roadway is apparent. It is only a few feet above ground level as it reaches either shore.

The overall length of the bridge is to be 26,195 feet, the longest of any such bridge in the world. The suspension span is 3,800 feet, 200 feet less than the Golden Gate bridge at San Francisco, whose towers also are higher than those at Mackinac.

The Mackinac bridge will handle 6,000 cars per hour, over five times the number now within the capacity of the five ferries. The crossing time will be less than 10 minutes.

Views Vary on Merits of Merit Pay Plan

Eyes in county education circles were turned toward Waterford Township last week when teachers there were presented with a proposal for special merit pay awards.

The Professional Problems Committee of Waterford Township Schools in a close vote Thursday turned down the proposal presented by Supt. of Schools William A. Shunck at an MEA meeting Monday.

Educators throughout Pontiac and Oakland County voiced varying opinions on the controversial issue.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, Pontiac Supt. of Schools, said he would rather not give his opinion on the issue at this time. "If we decide to seriously consider this in Pontiac, I want to save my opinion for then."

William Vanderven, Supt of Dublin School in White Lake Township, said. "We have accomplished a lot for the average teacher. Now I feel it's time to do something for the outstanding. School districts should go ahead and reward outstanding teachers. Waterford's heading in the right direction."

Murray Adams, Walled Lake High School teacher and president of that MEA, said "I haven't seen any criteria that would be fair. However, the idea sounds as if it merits investigation and perhaps it is something which Walled Lake's Teachers Club should consider another year."

Teacher William Lyle, of Avondale High School, said the proposal has "possibilities." However, there are dangers, he continued, "if it would tend to destroy what they've (teachers) worked for all these years. . . getting a uniform salary schedule.

"Until I'm assured of a foolproof plan to determine merit, I would want to go easy on it."

Fred B. Wiegman, principal of Lake Orion High School said, "Merit pay has definite qualities that are desirable for us as a profession, but I think we have an obligation to thoroughly screen teaching personnel before we should try and subject them to a merit rating.

"Along with that we should provide for adequate, intelligent long-sightedness in our rating developments and this shouldn't be an administrative tool to pressure teachers and it shouldn't be a teacher tool to lay down on the job and collect a salary.

"My feeling is that the teaching profession should become professional and remain professional."

Shunck's plan involves selection of a teacher to receive the merit award by two bodies, one representing teachers and the other administrative.

If a teacher's name appeared on lists prepared by both groups, his name would go before the Personnel Committee of the Board of Education, composed of two board members and the superintendent.

A screening process there would send the final recommended names to the Board of Education.

The Professional Problems Committee of the Waterford Schools plans to study the issue further next year. They turned the issue down by a vote of 10 to 7.

County Democrat Elected Alternate State Delegate

Mrs. Donald Lee of Farmington was elected one of 16 alternate delegates-at-large to the 1956 Democratic National Convention in Grand Rapids.

The convention confirmed the Oakland County delegation's choice of four half-vote delegates and two alternates. They are:

Carlos G. Richardson, county chairman, of Waterford Township; Billie S. Farnum, of Drayton Plains; Dr. Howard McNeill, of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Harriett Phillips, of Huntington Woods; Mrs. Margaret McCall, of Holly, alternate; and Mrs. Martha Sheppard, of Ferndale, alternate.

In caucus Sunday, Gov. G. Mennen Williams, a delegate at large, was elected to head the state's delegation to the national convention in Chicago Aug. 12.

At the delegation's first Chicago meeting, two members of the Democratic National Committee will be picked.

Mrs. Margaret Price of Ann Arbor faces no opposition for her seat, but Ernest C. Lacey of Detroit probably will be ousted by Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh, who emerged at this weekend's convention as a surprise candidate of Williams and other top Democrats.

While the "Michigan Declaration" adopted by the convention set the stage for another bitter civil-rights fight at the national meeting, an ironic battle over seating of Negroes at the state convention touched off a walkout by Negroes from the First Congressional District in Detroit.

Walter Bates, district vice chairman, asked State Chairman Neil Staebler to "restore the principals of civil rights" to party operation in his district.

When his group was denied credentials by the state convention, Bates said:

"After this action we feel it is useless to carry this fight longer within the Democratic Party against such biased odds with people representing the CIO dominating and dictating to the Party.

"We shall make every effort to see to it that the people of our district are not misled."

Bates charged the district convention was "rigged" by Congressman Thaddeus Machrowicz. The victorious delegation was made up of three members of Polish extraction and one Negro.

Justice Douglas wrote a dissent, in which Chief Justice Warren and Justice Black joined.

The ruling was given on an appeal by the United Automobile Workers from a decision by the Wisconsin Supreme Court. The state court upheld an injunction which restricted picketing and other union activities during an April, 1954, strike at the plant of the Kohler Co., in Kohler, Wis.

One of the repatriates is former Gen. Otozo Yamada of Japan's wartime Kwangtung army and one of the highest-ranking Japanese captured by Soviet troops.

Inventor Dies in Birmingham

John Searight, 93, Was Originator of Early Adding Machine

BIRMINGHAM — John R. Searight, 93, inventor of one of the early adding machines, died today at his home, 767 Harmon, after a brief illness.

Mr. Searight developed the Wales adding machine, which was later purchased by the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. He also invented the compound lever shears and snips and several other items.

A 32nd degree Mason, he belonged to the Palestine Lodge F& AM and the Moslem Shrine, both of Detroit.

He taught in the Detroit Business University after coming to Detroit from Ohio in 1886. He had attended Oberlin College.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Arthur J. Bleazby of Birmingham; one granddaughter and two great-grandchildren.

Service will be at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. at 3 p.m. Tuesday and interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery here.

Work Progresses on Straits Bridge

as compared to an average of 53 minutes with the ferries, not including the long waits at rush periods. The charge will be slightly higher than on the ferries.

* * *

In spite of some reports, there is very little complaint at Mackinaw City that the tolls both ways on the bridge are to be collected at St. Ignace, its north approach. Good business favors such a system.

Owners of motels on both sides, totaling over 5,000 rooms, feel that the bridge itself is an attraction, and will more than compensate for the patronage they will lose from those who now make it a stopover.

Incidentally, aside from the bridge construction, this is a good time to visit Northern Michigan. The highways are not crowded, the landscapes are at their best, and the back-to-nature element is tops.

For instance the 20-mile drive through the forests below Cross Village reveals thousands of acres with a wildflower carpeting. Millions of trilliums (poetic, isn't it?) abound in flowers running up to the size of your hand, all with the three-leaf and three-petal never-failing beauty.

And around Traverse City the hillsides look like snow banks in the profusion of cherry blossoms. But you'll have to hurry. Everything was at its peak last weekend.

Kelly Denies Knowledge of 'Heir for Monaco'

PHILADELPHIA (INS)—John B. Kelly Sr., father of Princess Grace of Monaco, said today if his daughter and Prince Rainier are expecting a child he knows "nothing about it."

He also displayed angry impatience with a published report that Grace and the prince she married last April are anticipating an heir or heriess in January.

The Day in Birmingham

Seek Approval Tonight of 2 City Appointments

BIRMINGHAM — Appointment of City Engineer L. R. Gare to the post of director of public works and of assistant city engineer Grover Serenbetz to the city engineer's post is being submitted to the City Commission tonight.

City Manager D. C. Egbert, in a letter asking the commission's approval of his two appointments, explains that Gare "has done practically all of the duties assigned to the director of public works" for several years.

Gare became city engineer in 1949, and Serenbetz took his present post in 1952 after three years as a civil engineer in the department.

Egbert's appointment of the two officials requires commission endorsement.

Also on tonight's agenda are hearings for Park Street pavement from Oakland to Euclid, Lincoln street pavement east from Eton street, and Eton widening from Lincoln to Yosemite street.

Ready to start construction of a new elementary school at Midvale and Maplewood streets, the Board of Education, according to Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of schools, wishes to pave the area that would be the Maplewood right-of-way for a school driveway. He asks city permission tonight.

A resolution allowing the use of streets for parts of the projected Twelve Town Drain goes before commissioners tonight.

It is part of "red-tape" being cleared away preliminary to final details for the drainage project.

Building Inspector Andrew F. Butt reports that permits issued last month were for buildings valued at an estimated $327,183. Seven new homes, 37 garages, 2 swimming pools and a school addition are among the 68 projects approved.

Members recently agreed that they have not had time to decide on the merger with the Evanglical and Reformed Church proposed in 1953.

The local church members also have resolved to study the need for an assistant minister.

GM Scholarships Go to 100 Seniors

One hundred high school seniors have been awarded annual General Motors four-year scholarships in national competition, corporation spokesmen announced today.

The 68 boys and 32 girls who won competed against 20,000 other seniors who applied for the awards, GM said.

Valued at from $200 to $2,000 a year, the scholarships' size depends on each student's need. Non-tax supported colleges and universities which winners attend also receive grants-in-aid equivalent to the tuition rate charged. More than 60 per cent of the students selected the sciences and engineering for further study.

A Detroit senior, Margaret Anne Moore, of Denby High School, was among the winners.

Driver Charles DeVol, 17, of Walled Lake, told Novi Township police he did not see the man due to heavy rains and could not avoid the accident.

Elks Planning State Convention Here

The 1956 state convention of Elks to be held here Friday through Sunday may be the largest such gathering ever held in Michigan, Clifford Maison, publicity chairman for the convention, said today.

The host Pontiac club expects over 1,500 Elks and their ladies will attend the three-day session at the new Temple on Orchard Lake Avenue.

Convention activities begin with registration Friday at 10 a.m. and will continue through a Sunday morning Memorial Service. A host of business and sporting events are planned for the session.

Louis A. Koetfgen, of Port Huron, president of the Michigan State Elks Association, will preside over the convention. National Convention delegates from each state lodge will be in attendance. Exalted ruler Jack Bender is the Pontiac delegate.

One of the many features of the event will be a ritualistic contest to be held at the Knights of Columbus hall with 30 teams competing. Bowling, golf and sightseeing will also be enjoyed by visitors.

A dinner-dance is being planned for Friday night. Business meetings are scheduled for Saturday morning and afternoon. A meeting of the state committee will also be held in the afternoon.

Women's brunch, a fashion show, bowling, golf and a tour of Pontiac are other events on the agenda for Saturday along with the annual President's Banquet.

The 11 a.m. Sunday service will conclude the convention. It will be conducted by the Saginaw Elks in the Temple Lodge room. Out-of-town Elks will depart for their homes following the service.

It will be the third state convention of Elks to be held in Pontiac and the first since 1942. Local Elks have been making plans for the event for several months and will complete decorations and other work early this week. Visiting Elks and their wives will be quartered throughout Pontiac and surrounding areas.

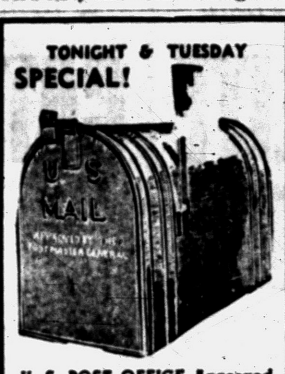

Russell Dodd is general chairman of the convention. Mark Scott is in charge of housing, and Kenneth Miller is transportation chairman.

Big Boy Blues

By DAMON RUNYON

"Big Boy Blues" was the last guys and dolls Broadway story written by Damon Runyon. It was published first in September 1945 after he had written his will and directed his ashes be "scattered over the place that I have truly loved and that was so good to me"—Broadway. That the characters Runyon found around Mindy's have lost none of their appeal in the passage of time is evident in "Big Boy Blues." Today begins the first of five parts of "Big Boy Blues."

(PART ONE)

It is along toward two o'clock one pleasant morning and things are unusually quiet in Minday's restaurant on Broadway and in fact only two customers besides myself are present when who comes in like a rush of air, hot or cold, but a large soldier crying out in a huge voice as follows:

"Hello, hello, hello, hello, hello."

* * *

Well, when I take a good glaum at him I can see that he is nobody but a personality by the name of West Side Willie who is formerly a ticket speculator on Broadway and when he comes over to me still going hello, hello, hello, hello, hello, I say to him quite severely like this:

"Willie," I say, "you are three hellos over what anybody is entitled to in Mindy's even if there is anybody here which as you can see for yourself is by no means the situation."

"Oh," Willie says, "I happen to have a few hellos to spare and besides I am so glad to get back on the big street again that I feel liberal. We are here for a run."

"Do you mean the war?" I say.

"I mean Gee Eyes, the soldier show I am with," Willie says. "We are a riot on the Coast. We lay them in the aisle in Denver. We kill the people in Cleveland. We will do a wonderful trade here."

Then Willie sits down and explains to me that one day when he is in camp in the desert out in California and practically dying by inches of the heat and the drilling and the victuals and the other hardships of soldier life and especially the victuals, his commanding officer sends for him and says:

SO MUCH FOL-DE-ROL'

"Klump," he says, for such is West Side Willie's family monicker, "they are organizing an all-soldier musical show at Santa Ana and there is a request out for the names of all enlisted men in this area who are formerly connected with show business.

"I understand," the commanding officer says, "that you are familiar with matters of this nature and you will therefore report at once to Santa Ana to participate although personally," he says, "I consider it all just so much fol-de-rol and how the hell we can win the war behind the footlights I do not know."

Well, naturally Willie does not inform the commanding officer that his connections with show business is slightly informal but he gets on a train at once and goes to Santa Ana and there he discovers that the guy who is putting on the show is nobody but a playwright by the name of Hathaway Go who is once befriended by Willie to the extent of a meal in a one-arm gaff in West Forty-ninth and who is grateful ever since.

HIS HEART IS TOUCHED

He is slightly surprised to see Willie appear in answer to a call for show people as he is aware that Willie does not sing or dance or play an instrument but after hearing Willie's description of soldier life in the desert his heart is touched and he says he guesses he can use a sure-footed guy to take tickets although when Willie asks what about selling them Hathaway Go gives him such a long slow look that Willie never renews the subject.

However, he is greatly downcast when he thinks of the opportunities in connection with these pasteboards because he feels that everyone will want them and when Willie is in action on Broadway he is known far and wide for his skill in manipulating with tickets to theatres and prize fights and hockey games and one thing and another that everyone wants but are unable to get unless they see Willie and pay his ise, which is a way of saying his premiums.

I often hear complaint that sometimes Willie asks more ice than the face value of the tickets but this is probably only for tickets that are very hard indeed to get and naturally Willie is entitled to some compensation for saving the customers the trouble of standing in line at the box offices to buy the tickets and then finding the tickets all gone anyway.

Besides Willie frequently has to take care of others out of his end to get the tickets in the first place so life is really not all ice with him.

"Well," Willie says, "I make the best of the position to which I am appointed although I must say the spectacle of throngs of customers is being permitted to buy our tickets at face value at the box office when they will be delighted to pay two, three, four, five or six slugs premium if they cannot get them any other way is most disheartening to me.

A city-dweller who smokes two or more packs of cigarettes a day and travels some 12,000 miles or more a year in motor traffic.

Evidence pointing to tobacco smoke, motor exhaust fumes and general air pollution as the causes of deaths due to lung cancer has been accumulating rapidly.

The entire issue—hotly-debated and still unsettled in the minds of many scientists—comes under the scrutiny of the world's leading cancer specialists at the third national cancer conference in Detroit today.

Scientists from 23 foreign countries will join American experts for the three-day meeting.

TESTS IN CITY

The latest "finger of suspicion" pointed at smoking, exhaust fumes and smog-like pollution is based on a nine-year survey by Dr. Clarence A. Mills of the University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Mills and his staff at the laboratory for experimental medicine surveyed groups living in three different areas—"The dirtier basin districts of Cincinnati, the city's cleaner suburbs and rural populations living in the cleaner country air of Ohio's rural counties.

Based on this survey, which he calls "preliminary and unpublished," Dr. Mills told International News Service:

TRAFFIC FUMES

"I believe that tobacco smoke is unquestionably and significantly related to increased lung cancer cases and that the lung cancer rates are sharply increased for those men who travel 12,000 miles or more a year in motor traffic."

By occupation, Dr. Mills found the lung cancer rate greater among heavy-smoking (two or more cigarette packs a day) truck drivers, taxi drivers, salesmen and "other occupations requiring many hours each day of exposure to motor traffic."

Dr. Mills believes there is a "pyramiding effect" at work, with each of the three suspected agents —smoking, exhaust, smog—working together and reinforcing each other.

AIR POLLUTION

Dr. Daniel Horn, co-author of the American Cancer Society's full-scale study of lung cancer and cigarette smoking, offered this comment on Dr. Mills' work:

"We never maintained that there would be only one reason for the increase in lung cancer. Smoking of cigarettes alone appears to account for three out of every four cases of lung cancer.

"This leaves 25 per cent of the cases unaccounted for; there always has been the suspicion that air pollution might account for some part of these unexplained cases.

"These suspected cancer-causers could be reinforcing or they could operate independently. More research is needed along these lines.

"It is possible that cigarettes can be manufactured to screen out the guilty substance. If that happens and if our air pollution problem gets worse, we may soon find all of the lung cancer cases due to polluted air."

New Zealander Contributes to Twister Fund

LANSING (AP) — A 20 shilling contribution from a New Zealand woman to Michigan storm and flood victims has found its way into Red Cross hands.

The contribution, in the form of two 10-shilling money orders, came from Frank Williment of Wellington, N. Z., on behalf of a Mrs. Parton, also of Wellington, an accompanying note explained.

Williment's letter was addressed to Gov. Williams.

"In our paper today we read of the sad news of floods and storms in your home areas in the United States," it said. "There is so little we can do to help our American friends, but our sympathy is with them."

A letter of reply from the governor's office informed Williment that the money had been turned over to the Red Cross, explained that emergency conditions had passed and extended the governor's "most sincere thanks to the donor of this gift on behalf of the people of Michigan."

Noted Prof to Visit

EAST LANSING (AP)—Dr. Arhtur W. Hummel, chief emeritus of the Division of Orientialia of the Library of Congress, will be a distinguished visiting professor at Michigan State University this summer. He will offer a short course on the cultural history of China from June 26 to Aug. 3.

Unhospitalized Victims Spreading White Plague

Experience in this country has made it clear that the big problem in the war on tuberculosis is the unhospitalized patient.

This fact was emphasized during the 52nd annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association in New York. One speaker who discussed this problem was Dr. EDWARD S. MIKOL, general director of New York State's tuberculosis hospitals.

A study made by the U. S. Public Health Service, Dr. MIKOL said, revealed that 45 per cent of tuberculosis patients are not hospitalized. He added that of these, 87 per cent are in advanced stages with the infection status unknown in almost half the cases.

"Certainly," said Dr. MIKOL, "the unhospitalized tuberculosis cases, both known and unknown, produce the 80,000 new cases reported each year in this country."

That this problem exists in Michigan is well known to our State Health Department and the Tuberculosis Association. Records show there are 7,000 known cases of active tuberculosis here. Of these, 3,000 are not hospitalized.

Since the situation concerning unknown cases obviously must be worse than the known cases on which the study was based, Dr. MIKOL states that case finding must be intensified.

★ ★ ★

One doesn't have to be a specialist in the treatment of this disease to recognize that Dr. MIKOL is right. Naturally, complete conquest of TB will be impossible until the problem of the unhospitalized is solved.

New Interior Secretary an Experienced Official

President EISENHOWER has chosen wisely and well in nominating FRED A. SEATON to be Secretary of the Interior.

The Nebraskan, a native of Washington, D.C., is an experienced administrator. Though he hasn't served in the Interior Department, he is well qualified to assume the responsibilities of the cabinet post made vacant by the resignation of DOUGLAS MCKAY.

Publisher of the Hastings (Nebraska) Tribune, SEATON also is an officer of companies publishing dailies in Nebraska, South Dakota, Wyoming, and Kansas. In addition he has weekly newspapers, farm magazine and radio interests.

A liberal Republican, the nominee for the past year has been a White House assistant in charge of administrative liaison. Previous to that he had served as Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs. In 1951 he was interim Senator from Nebraska following the death of Kenneth Wherry.

★ ★ ★

His experience as a stock raiser qualified him as an agricultural trouble shooter. He also had much to do with development of the Administration's soil bank program.

The President is to be congratulated on his choice of so capable an administrator to direct this important Government department. Mr. SEATON deserves and should get early Senate confirmation.

Twining's Russian Trip

This newspaper believes there not only should but will be general public support of the decision to accept Russia's invitation to its June 24 Aviation Day observance.

From the moment it became publicly known, there was opposition to acceptance in some Washington circles. We feel, however, that the order to the Air Force's top officer, General NATHAN F. TWINING, to choose a delegation to make the trip to Moscow with him is both wise and safe.

It is doubly so because it has the approval of Secretaries Dulles and Wilson and was dictated personally by President Eisenhower. In our view no one need waste any time worrying about a trip that has been OK'd by the free world's top military leader.

So far there has been no Administration effort to list probable benefits of such a visit. However, Air Force Secretary QUARLES no doubt was on solid ground in saying the President obviously saw benefits in it or he wouldn't have ordered General TWINING's acceptance.

★ ★ ★

It also is known that among certain highly placed officials there exists a definite hope that further and more significant exchanges and military visits may follow this. Such visits if wisely arranged certainly would afford a splendid opportunity to test the theory that free contacts make for greater understanding.

We can't believe there'd be any risk to us!

David Lawrence Says:

Molotov 'Resignation' Still Won't Change Attitude of Communist Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON—How easy it is to fool the American people with those censored dispatches from Moscow telling about the "resignation" of Molotov! At least so reason the strategists in the Kremlin in their campaign to make the world believe the leopard is changing its spots. But it takes a Russian to debunk a Russian move. Here is what one of the best informed and keenest of the Russians in Washington told this correspondent over the weekend:

"Molotov wasn't dismissed and he wasn't necessarily downgraded. He is still one of the eleven members of the Presidium—the ruling clique of the Soviet Union today."

"While Molotov publicly asked to be relieved of the foreign ministry, it must be noted that for more than a year Khrushchev and Bulganin have really been directing foreign policy. When Molotov gives up the post of foreign minister, it is as if the prime minister of a Western country who has taken on an extra cabinet post relinquishes it to attend to other duties.

TO APPEASE TITO?

"On the surface it would appear that Molotov gave up the post of foreign minister to produce a certain effect on Tito and the outside world and also internally to give the impression that a Stalinite was being removed. But Molotov is still a member of the Presidium and also is first deputy premier. The fight for power inside the Kremlin still goes on. Remember that Malenkov stepped down from the premiership but remains as a member of the Presidium and went to England recently on a formal visit. It is not clear yet what the balance of forces is or is going to be inside the Presidium."

"What is the meaning of the changes just announced concerning the system of justice?" I asked.

"It doesn't mean very much—the top officials are still in control. Only the other day we read of the execution of Rajuriof who at the 19th party congress had been elected an alternate member of the Presidium. Three of his associates also were executed. He was known as "a little Stalin" and was, indeed, the ruler of one of the so-called republics—Azerbaijan. News of the executions was printed in the newspapers of the capital—Baku—but not in the Moscow newspapers. Nor was any report of the trial or details given."

"Do you think the so-called 'decentralization' moves are important?" was my next question.

"They are not very significant," he replied, "though they might mean that the present government feels more certain of itself and more inclined to take chances in making concessions to the people."

ALLIES BOOST PRESTIGE

"Are we in any way helping to build up the prestige of the present government in Moscow?"

"Yes. The Soviet government wants to give the impression to the people of Soviet Russia that it is favorably looked upon by the other governments of the world and that its foreign policies are a success. So every time the United States plays up to the men in the Kremlin either by sending important missions or by fraternizing with them, the Soviet rulers gain a big advantage inside Russia."

An example of the opportunism of the Kremlin is to be noted from a re-reading of Stalin's speech of March 10, 1939, to the 18th congress of the Communist party. It is interesting to compare Stalin's agruments against "neutralism" with what today are called the policies of the "uncommitted" countries. With a substitution of "Soviet Russia" and "Red China" in the mind of the reader for "Germany and her allies," the speech is a realistic demonstration of the opportunistic behavior of the Soviet strategists.

"A new imperialist war is (March 10, 1939) already in its second year, a war waged over a huge territory stretching from Shanghai to Gibraltar and involving over five hundred million people. The map of Europe, Africa and Asia is being forcibly redrawn. The entire post-war system, the so-called regime of peace, has been shaken to its foundations . . ."

Yet just a few months later, in the same year, Stalin, discouraged by the appeasement policies of the Western democracies, removed Litvinov as foreign minister, put in Molotov and then joined Hitler and invaded Finland only to find himself in June 1941 attacked by the Nazi military machine itself.

The world, therefore, has to accustom itself to the fact that moves reported nowadays in the censored news dispatches which come out of Moscow do not mean what they say on their face.

Calcinatal Pills Will Help Diet of Expectant Mother

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

It is not a paradox to say that many individuals who are twenty or thirty pounds overweight are poorly nourished. That is to say, they do not get from their food the quantities of minerals and vitamins they need, and in an instinctive way, they try to satisfy the need by overeating, but unfortunately the superfluous food they consume in this way is almost entirely refined carbohydrate — refined white flour, refined white sugar. This supplies enough calories to carry them into the middle of the next week, but scarcely a vitamin or a mineral in a bellyful.

It does little good to tell these undernourished citizens to use crude raw sugar instead of refined white sugar and plain wheat (whole grain, cracked or ground by your own hand mill—coffee mill daily) instead of refined white flour.

They haven't the gumption to find such items, and if they do find a place where crude raw sugar and-or wheat is available, the grocery clerk scares them off by showing them the sugar is labeled "not for human consumption," or the farmer's hired man informs them that wheat like that in the bin is for pigs and chickens.

★ ★ ★

So it becomes necessary to spoon feed the poor souls their vitamins and minerals in tablet form, as described in the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks, for which send a stamped, self-addressed envelope. This won't work a miracle overnight, but if continued for at least six months, this daily dietary supplement will replace that tired feeling with vite.

★ ★ ★

The old-timers had little or no knowledge of nutrition; but, heck, they didn't need it to satisfy their customers with such sage advice as "a well-balanced" diet—whatever that meant—and "nourishing but easily digestible" foods. This did the customers no great harm even though it did them no good. Another aphorism of the old-timers is still in circulation, namely, that the expectant mother must "eat for two."

If only natural or undenaturized foods were available, this would not be so bad for the expectant mother. But what with the grocery clerk and the hired man holding her off from such foods, how in the world is the lady going to satisfy the demands of the greedy little parasite ensconced within, to say nothing of her own vitamin and mineral requirements, which are greater during pregnancy than at any other time of her life?

Let the expectant or nursing mother supplement her ordinary diet with a daily ration of two to six calcinatal tablets. Calcinatal supplies ALL the extra vitamins and minerals the expectant or nursing mother requires: "Calcium A, vitamin B (thiamin, riboflavin, niacin), Vitamin C (ascorbic acid), vitamin D and even B12 (the red blood vitamin).

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan.

Voice of the People

Lake Orion Resident Asks About Moving Courthouse

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I am interested in finding out why the Board of Supervisors has taken it upon itself to move the courthouse out on Telegraph road.

I have investigated the cost and it would be far greater both to build and maintain out on the highway than to build a new one downtown.

The first floor of any large building could readily be rented and bring revenue to the county in excess of $100,000 per year. I am sure citizens of Oakland County would be interested in being relieved of the expense of maintaining a building that size.

I also found the title to the land upon which our present courthouse is situated would revert to the heirs of those who gave the land because it was to be used expressly for a courthouse. Competent real estate brokers have estimated to me that the value of this land is in excess of $500,000 and may even approach a million.

When I asked one of the supervisors about this loss, he advised me that amount is just "peanuts." I realize this is an age where large sums of money mean little to some people in public trust, but I am a working man, and it is people like me who pay for whims of a group of men who plan to move our courthouse to a highway already overloaded with traffic.

I should appreciate an answer to these questions, because I cannot seem to get any satisfactory answers from the supervisors with whom I have spoken.

Tito's Return to Moscow Completes Strange Cycle

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

Yugoslav President Marshal Tito has gone to Moscow in a cycle of bloodshed and bathos.

His triumphal return to the Kremlin as one who challenged the late Dictator Stalin successfully completes a round of reconciliation that began plainly a year ago when Soviet party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Premier Nikolai Bulganin visited him in Belgrade.

A year ago Khrushchev with an amazing show of apology addressed the Yugoslav Communist rebel as "Dear Comrade Tito" and blamed the famous 1948 break between Moscow and Belgrade on the dead Lavrenti P. Beria, former secret police chief.

Khrushchev at the time did not mention Stalin or Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov, another long-time critic of Tito. Nor did he mention the dead Andrei Zhdanov, who had been chairman of the Communist Information Bureau (Cominform), the group of Red states that kicked out Tito eight years ago.

★ ★ ★

But since then the Kremlin leaders have been criticizing Stalin and the "one-personality cult." And the Cominform also was dissolved last April 17, another step in wooing Tito.

GOOD QUESTION

The three weeks which Tito now will spend among the self-professed "ex-Stalinists" are expected to complete a historic forgiveness—although who is forgiving whom is a good question.

★ ★ ★

It's supposed that Molotov will don his best wooden expression if he's in the reception line for Tito. Molotov virtually invited pro-Moscow Yugoslav Reds to assassinate Tito in 1948, and he was conspicuously absent from the Soviet pilgrimage to Belgrade a year ago.

Tito wasn't regarded as a good "Marxist-Leninist" by Moscow and its satellites in 1948. But today he has set a pattern for national, as distinguished from Moscow-led international communism.

And this clearly has affected thought and action in neighboring countries of Eastern Europe and perhaps in Russia itself.

The new Kremlin rulers did a grim bit of stage play before Tito's arrival. They executed Mir D. A. Bagirov, former Communist Party boss in Azerbaijan province, and some of his pals, on charges of having collaborated with the executed Beria—the alleged devil who worked against Tito.

The truth, of course, was that Bagirov and his companions merely lost in a power struggle. Bagirov actually had been highly praised as a hard-fighting old Bolshevik, a five-time winner of the Order of Lenin, and numerous other decorations.

GETS SOVIET AID

Tito now is getting big credits and loans on favorable terms from the Soviet bloc, after the U. S. and other Western powers bailed him out financially in the lean years.

★ ★ ★

Western diplomats will be uncertain just how Tito plays his assertedly independent role free of East and West blocs. It may be Tito himself will be uncertain just how to react to the beaming "new look" he receives in Moscow.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

If You're After Success, You'd Better Set Your Goals High and Stick to Them

Alan raises a question that is common among athletes. Why does a mediocre player rise to a higher peak of skill when pitted against a champion? The answer to that query is a compliment to the human race. God gave us tremendous potential but most of us fail to use even 25 per cent of our ability.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-373: Alan R, aged 21, is a mediocre tennis player.

"Dr. Crane, I have a common problem in athletics," he began.

"When I am matched against a much better tennis player, I do far better than when I am pitted against an inferior man.

"It seems as if I play over my head, so to speak. And I have noticed that big league baseball teams often do the same.

"For example, the team occupying the cellar position may rise up and knock off the leaders in three games out of four.

"How do you psychologists explain this effect?"

POWER OF THE MIND

It seems that greatness acts somewhat like a magnet. It draws us up to meet the larger expectations.

For Alan is correct in saying that athletes usually "play over their heads when pitted against better opponents.

Actually, they don't "play over their heads," but simply rise to the latent power already within themselves.

They have a more positive outlook and subconsciously tend to imitate the greatness around them.

They concentrate more closely and synchronize their movements more precisely, as in the double play combination around second base.

Jesus exerted just such an influence on the ordinary working men whom he chose as his 12 Apostles.

If they had never met Christ and had not been associated with him, they would have lived and died as ordinary fishermen or tax collectors and other tradesmen of their day.

But Jesus pulled the best out of them. And it is remarkable how much potential merit lies in every human being.

RAISE YOUR SIGHTS

"Not failure but low aim is crime," said Lowell.

Most of us err in not aiming high enough. We are content to sell out for a "C" grade in school instead of aspiring to an "A".

But once a human being gets caught on fire by his zeal for some great cause, he rises to nobility of stature.

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale has been preaching the power of positive thinking. But so have all clergymen since the dawn of the Christian era.

That has likewise been the theme of this educational column for over 20 years.

Neurologists estimate that we never employ more than 25 per cent of our total number of brain cells (neurones).

It isn't hard work that causes nervous breakdowns, but negative thinking and indecision.

Hamlet's famous "to be or not to be" is a typical example of the uncertain mental outlook which leads to collapse and inefficiency.

SUCCESS FORMULA

"Pick a laudable goal and aim high," is one of the cardinal principles in our psychological formula for success.

Then keep everlastingly at your goal, remembering that Thomas A. Edison once stated:

"Genius is 1 per cent inspiration and 99 per cent perspiration."

Some major projects take a long time to accomplish. Many men attain the top rung on the ladder of success just because they outlived their opposition, as I'll explain re Dr. Freud's case tomorrow.

Team up with God and lay your workaday worries down when the quitting whistle blow. Also cast aside such worries on the Sabbath.

Then you will be surprised at the great things you can accomplish before you graduate from this earthly classroom in God's Cosmic School System.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Get Away From TV

Aged People Should Work to Nurture Health, Vigor

BOSTON (INS)—Oldsters, stop drowsing before the TV set and go to work.

• • •

The "no drowsing please" advice was given before a Harvard medical school alumni symposium by Dr. Paul Dudley White, internationally famous heart specialist, who treated President Eisenhower.

Dr. White, who is 70, said:

"We know a thousand times more about disease than did our ancestors, but less about health. Our forefathers practiced far better than we the rules of health.

"It has yet to be proved that work, per se, even hurt a healthy man, woman or child.

"Industry has been blamed for arteriosclerosis, but it is doubtful if physical work is responsible.

"Work is one of the most potent sources of health, particularly for older persons.

"If those who drowse before the TV screen could, with planning use their skill and experience for many years longer, they would be much better.

• • •

"Keep our oldsters working mentally and physically and you will do away with most of the vast programs for the aging.".

Bigamist Goes Home to Wait for Court

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Edward Voss, 30, a man with too many wives, was home with No. 2 today while free on $5,000 bond.

• • •

The red-haired electronics engineer's double life was exposed Saturday when Wife No. 1, Mrs. Sixta B. Voss, 35, whom he married in Panama in 1952, attempted suicide.

Neither she nor Wife No. 2, formerly Doris Compton, 32, whom he married Dec. 20 in Las Vegas, wanted to give him up. Both were sure they would win him in the end.

• • •

But Voss, who had kept his wives separate by telling each he traveled a lot, went home with No. 2 to await formal bigamy charges.

Unusual Bird Sighted

EAST LANSING (AP)—The cattle egret, a bird found primatily in Mediterranean countries, has been spotted in St. Luke's Marsh near the southeast corner of Lake St. Clair, Ontario. Prof. Miles Pirnie of the Michigan State University Wildlife Department said the report was the first that the bird has been seen in the Great Lakes region. The MSU expert said the bird was taken from Spain to South America and gradually has been moving north.

U. N. Rejects Korean Communist Request

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The U.N. Command today rejected a Communist compromise proposal to soften the order expelling the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission from South Korea.

The Reds had said they would agree to "temporary withdrawal" of the inspection teams if the Communist side could retain the right to send periodic inspection teams south in the future.

The exchange took place at the first meeting of the armistice group since the U.N. Command last Thursday ordered the truce teams to return to the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea.

The U.N. Command charged that the supervisory group's members from Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia had worked with the North Korean Reds in an attempt to conceal a buildup of modern arms and jet aircraft in the north. The 1953 armistice limited both sides to the numbers of arms, men and aircraft they had in Korea when the truce came.

Panacea for Disease Possible

Cancer Research Searches for PenicillinType Drug

DETROIT (AP) — Scientists May yet find a kind of "penicillin" to control most or all forms of cancer, a British scientist said today.

* * *

It would depend upon discovering a common denominator difference between cancerous and healthy cells. The drug would take advantage of the difference.

It "is not impossible" that such a penicillin-like drug might be found, because of research developments in the last five years, said Dr. Alexander Haddow, famous cancer researcher from the Chester Beatty Research Institute, London, England.

Dr. Haddow explained the prospect and problems in a news conference at the opening of the third National Cancer Conference sponsored by the American Cancer Society and National Cancer Institute of the U.S. Public Health Service.

The conference is being staged to inform physicians of the latest findings helpful in diagnosing and treating cancer.

* * *

Cancer strikes many different body organs, and some experts consider it a variety of different diseases in its various forms. Others think it might have a common cause, from a virus or something else.

MANY VARIANTS

One view is there is little hope that any single drug could affect all forms of cancer, or even a number, like penicillin hits numerous bacterial diseases.

Scientists have discovered differences in the microscopic appearance of various cancerous cells compared with healthy ones. And they have detected some differences in the chemical makeup or chemical appetites of cancerous compared with healthy cells.

Speaking on this, Dr. Haddow said these clues might yet show some difference common to all cancerous cells. He said, "We cannot exclude the possibility of a penicillin-like drug."

Some animal tumors have been cured by drugs, he said. And many different chemicals, and radiations, can produce cancer.

Silent Screen Beauty Dies After Long Illness

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Katharine MacDonald Holmes, the "American Beauty" of the silent screen, died early today after a long illness.

* * *

Miss MacDonald attained stardom and was chosen the "American Beauty" at about the same time that Mary Pickford became noted as "America's Sweetheart."

Doctors at St. Francis Hospital said death resulted from a series of ailments. Her right leg had been amputated in a surgical attempt to prolong her life.

Legion Leader Scores Twining's Soviet Trip

HILLSDALE (AP) — The National commander of the American Legion J. Addington Wagner, says he thinks it is a mistake for Chief of Staff Nathan Twining of the U. S. Air Force to attend Soviet Russia's national aviation day.

The Battle Creek attorney said Gen. Twining's acceptance of the Russian invitation obligates the United States to invite high-ranking Russian air force officers to this country.

Seek Legislator in Slaying of 7

Wife, 4 Children and Two Men Murdered in Alberta Farmhouse

ERSKINE, Alta. (AP)—Police today sought an Alberta legislator for questioning in the rifle slaying of his wife, their four children and two men in the lawmaker's isolated frame farmhouse.

The missing man was John E. Clark, 41, a part-time teacher and farmer who had represented the Settler district in the Provincial Legislature since 1952.

Inside the hilltop farm home a neighbor yesterday found the bodies of Clark's 36-year-old wife; their four children — Jenena, 8, Ross, 7, Ann, 5, and Linda, 4, and the hired man, Geore Anderson, 20, of McLennan, Alta.

* * *

Bill Olah, 30, a Royal Canadian Navy sailor from Medicine Hat, Alta., was found wounded and died in a hospital. He had been an overnight visitor at the farm.

Police said all had been shot with a .22-caliber rifle. The officers said they found a single-shot .22 Clark had borrowed from his uncle but later reported this was not the murder weapon.

Police could give no explanation for the mass slaying.

The search fanned out over the lush rolling farm land surrounding the two-story yellow house. The house is 10 miles from the nearest main highway and has no telephone.

A new automobile and a truck belonging to Clark were found on the farm. They had been parked Saturday and had not been moved since, police said.

JUNIOR EDITORS

HOME ON THE RANGE—1

FRISK THE BUCKER

This week we're visiting our own Junior Editors' ranch, the "J-Bar-E" (J-E). Here's our bronco, Frisk, as you can see from the brand on his flank and the mark on his saddle.

Like all good broncos he is steady and reliable. If the cinch starts to loosen and the saddle slip when he is on a mountain trail he will stand still while the rider dismounts and tightens the cinch. But when he has a strange rider — especially an unskillful one — Frisk will buck. Few riders can stay on while he is bucking.

Color this picture with your crayons, and then paste it down on cardboard. Cut out the parts carefully.

Fasten Frisk to the base by slipping the long tab behind it and securing the two with a brass fastener or a bent pin through the indicated holes. Fold back the ends of the base on the dotted lines so that it will stand, and then you can swing Frisk up and down like a real bucking broncho. Keep the cutout for a J-E ranch collection.

Cut a slit in each stirrup as indicated, and tomorrow we will bring you a daring young Junior Editor who thinks he can ride Frisk.

(Martha Waldo, Collegeville, Pa., wins $10 for this idea. If you have an idea for Junior Editors send it in care of the newspaper, and it may be worth $10 to you. Voilet Moore Higgins; AP Newsfeatures.)

Tomorrow: A Rider for Frisk.

Vacation or Torture?

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Starting a five-week vacation to Mexico, the Cloyd Taylor family found the youngest boy had chicken pox. He was left behind. Then every connecting rod in the car burned out. Taylor had to buy a new car. Fishing was impossible as flood waters swelled Western streams. Mexican temperatures dropped to 11 above and $50 worth of color film taken was blank because the camera lens was stuck open all the time.

Negro Takes Pulpit of Integrated Church

CHICAGO (AP)—A Negro minister, the first ever appointed pastor by a white congregation in Chicago, delivered his inaugural sermon yesterday before an integrated church membership.

The Rev. Dr. Abraham Lincoln Reynolds Jr., 39, formerly of Topeka, Kan., assumed his pastorate of the Sixth United Presbyterian Church at 11 a.m. services yesterday. He was appointed pastor May 11.

Alexander Stevenson, chief usher, said 246 worshippers attended the service, 60 per cent Negro and 40 per cent white. Negroes had attended services previously as visitors but never before as members.

At the time church elders began a search for a new pastor, parishioners began a canvass of the neighborhood to invite Negroes to become members of the 59-year-old church.

When he checked again, the swap was complete, and the traded hat was gone.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — Policeman J. B. Davis says the motorcycle will never replace the horse. An unidentified cowboy later roped the cow and left it tied to a tree until the owner could recover it.

Friendly Competitors

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Gasoline spouted for 50 feet when a 3-inch pipe broke at an oil company's bulk plant. Tank trucks were sent by four of the company's competitors, who succeeded in catching about 10,000 gallons of the fuel from a 15,000-gallon tank. They restored the salvaged gas after the pipe was repaired, then resumed their interrupted competition.

Rest, Recreation, Relaxation---Solution to Anxiety

(Summer's coming, with more time for play—but are YOU getting the most out of your leisure time? What's the best recreation after a long day's work in office or kitchen? In this series of five articles The Pontiac Press brings you advice from America's top experts on these and other vital questions, plus simple, handy tips and check lists for your guidance.)

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

"What you need is some rest, recreation and relaxation."

That is a familiar prescription in our so-called "age of anxiety"—a time in which the doctors tell us we are gripped with "20th century tensions" and "the H-bomb jitters."

It could be given to a business executive hospitalized after a coronary attack felled him at his cluttered, phone-jangling desk; a mechanic whose work production has skidded; a harried housewife bracing for the meal-time pandemonium of her three strapping teenagers.

Basically, the experts agree, the businessman, the factory worker and the homemaker are getting good advice: The three R's of rest, recreation and relaxation are necessary for physical well-being and mental health.

TROUBLE BEING EASY

And with labor-saving devices, shorter work weeks, early retirement, paid vacations, more people have more time to take it easy.

The only trouble is that we are finding it hard to take it easy—despite all the good medical advice, free time and full pocketbooks.

At the recent annual meeting of the American Psychiatric Assn. in Chicago, some 10 million Americans were likened to taut strings ready to snap under an extra ounce of pressure. Are you one of them?

Said Dr. Alexander Reid Martin, the association's chairman on leisure time activities, surveying hurrying commuters during a walking interview:

"The complete inability to relax even for a moment is a common complaint and evidence of neurotic disturbance."

RELAXATION UNKNOWN

Dr. Edmund Jacobson, a pioneering physiologist, looked over a crowded cocktail lounge and said:

"Most people have no idea what true relaxation is, much less how to relax. As a result we get mental disorders and physical symptoms like ulcers, colitis, high blood pressure, insomnia, irritability."

Said Dr. Thurman B. Rice:

"We are living at a rapid pace these days, and as a result our people are dying before their time of various degenerative diseases — organic heart disease, arterial disease, apoplexy, nephritis (Bright's disease).

The rapid pace and tensions the psychiatrists cite are known and experienced by all of us.

Studies show how worries affect our health in a complex chain of mental processes and body chemical reactions. Dr. Roy R. Grinker, of Michael Reese Hospital and the director of the Army's "Operation Worrybird" project, has given the most thought to this subject.

ANXIETY CAN HELP

Dr. Grinker likens anxiety to a signal that warns us of internal dangers. He believes a "moderate amount of anxiety is a good thing" in our daily civilian combat, since it keeps us alert to solve everyday tasks and surmount ordinary obstacles.

But in some persons this anxiety buzzer gets "stuck"—instead of ringing once in a while it sounds continuously, alerting the whole body around the clock.

When this happens, inner organs are stirred up, the defense system is tensed for action that may never come.

Result: Nervousness, bad digestion, high blood pressure, irritability, neurotic and perhaps psychotic reactions.

In the view of the experts, the anxiety buzzer must be "unstuck." But how?

HEED THE 3 R'S

By teaching people the three R's of rest, recreation and relaxation, says Chicago heart specialist Dr. Maximilian Kern.

Offices are becoming more like homes and homes are beginning to resemble offices.

It is all part of the trend towards relaxed efficiency while working—the time-motion study men and the human engineers maintain that the tense, nervous housewife or employe is the ineffective worker. The statistics on production, absenteeism and work quality bear this out.

As a result, morning and afternoon coffee breaks are now accepted customs in many offices throughout the country. Some financial firms along Chicago's La Salle street have installed kitchens for their employes.

The most dramatic industrial trend has been the relocation of plants from the central city to the outlying suburbs where they have been designed to blend with the surrounding residential character.

A spectacular move was made by a Chicago publishing company: 100 editors, artists, clerks and stenographers moved to the 160-acre estate of meat-packing heir Philip D. Armour.

Business is conducted from a 50-room mansion looking out over woods and water at Lake Bluff, Ill. The secretaries eat their lunch in the shade of elms at the side of a swimming pool.

A persuasive argument in favor of this trend comes from St. Louis business executive Francis J. Curtis, vice president of Monsanto Chemical Co. He strongly believes worry-relieving breaks in business routine should be made just like any other appointment during the day—and should be kept.

DON'T DO THESE:

With a wry sense of humor, Curtis recently listed the "10 rules for membership in the coronary club"—all possible steps to heart attacks:

1—Your job comes first—personal considerations are secondary.

2—Go to the office evenings, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

3—Take your briefcase home in the evening. Review the day's worries.

4—Never say no to any request.

5—Accept all invitations to meetings, banquets and commttees.

6—Don't eat a restful relaxing meal—plan a meal time conference.

7—Regard recreation as a waste of time and money.

8—Don't take all the vacation time you are allowed.

9—Don't delegate responsibility; carry it all yourself.

10—If you have to travel, work all day and drive all night to keep the next day's appointment.

Grilled Hot Dogs Are Good, But—

State Teenagers Warned

ANN ARBOR (INS)—A University of Michigan public health nutritionist claims that "many Michigan teenagers are trying to lose weight by strenuous and sometimes dangerous methods."

• • •

Associate Prof. Adelia M. Beeuwkes explains that "among high schoolers, motivation for weight loss may be so great and urgent that students will look neither to right nor left for assurance of safety in achieving their goal in weight control."

• • •

Prof. Beeuwkes says nutrition education at the high school level can capitalize on this great interest in weight control by showing students how their goals can be achieved with well chosen foods and balanced menus. She says:

"All ages in our population are struggling with the problem of weight control, but because adolescent girls are particularly interested in appearance, a basic understanding of the causes obesity and sensible methods of weight control should be available to them when they want and need this information most urgently."

Nutritionists, she suggests, should try to convey this information in terms which the student can easily understand.

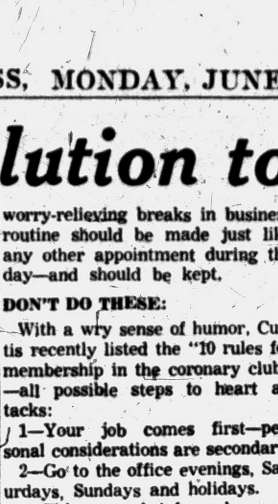

"We should not be known to students as experts who condemn the hotdog, but as friends who can help them build a good meal around this favorite food," she says.

• • •

Such education, she continues, should be designed for lifelong use as well as the adolescent's immediate objectives. Students should be taught to shop intelligently for foods and realize that their dietary needs will change gradually throughout life.

Cut in Federal Excise Tax Seen Improbable

WASHINGTON (UP) — Prospects for Congressional overhaul this session of the federal excise, or sales tax, laws have become increasingly uncertain as adjournment time nears.

* * *

The vast and complex job, affecting the pocketbooks of most taxpayers either directly or indirectly, is proving a headache to members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee and to Treasury officials.

Some 80 specific recomemndations have been made to the full committee by its subcommittee on excise tax revision. The committee has tentatively approved some of the technical proposals, but some of the knottiest tax problems still remain to be dealt with.

BILL WILL DIE

Even if a final bill is drafted and the House acts before Congress adjourns, House tax experts say the complexities of so vast and technical a job would appear to make Senate action questionable this year.

Any bill passed by one House but not the other will die when the present Congress expires at year's end.

* * *

Federal excises are far ranging. Congress in 1954 cut most of them back to 10 per cent from Korean War highs ranging up to 20 per cent. Some are added to the retailer's price, others are included and not apparent to the average buyer.

DIVERSE GOODS

They apply to such diverse goods and services as club dues, tires, purses, gasoline, railroad tickets, tobacco, liquor, night club entertainment, household appliances, slot machines and corporate securities.

The House Ways and Means Committee is still studying recommendation — vigorously opposed by Treasury officials—to change the method of collecting liquor and tobacco taxes.

* * *

Makers of these items now must buy and pay for tax stamps to put on their products before sale. They want instead to make periodic tax returns after the product is sold. The delay in tax collections resulting from such a switchover would cost the government an estimated 300 or 400 million dollars in revenue.

TO CUT TAXES

Treasury officials say this feature alone would cause them to oppose any tax revision bill which included it, regardless of other proposed changes they dislike.

Other subcommittee recommendations would cut in half the present 20 per cent tax on cabaret and night club tabs, club dues, and admissions to horse and dog tracks.

* * *

The full committee has approved new 10 per cent taxes on gas incinerator garbage units, tape and wire recorders and record players. Also approved is a one-cent a pound increase in the tax on tubeless tires.

Pentagon Cave to Be Expanded

Additional Funds Asked for Emergency Military Offices in Maryland

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Pentagon plans more construction at the alternate military headquarters carved out under a western Maryland mountain for use in event of an attack on Washington.

An undisclosed amount of money for the cavern project, in which at least 35 million dollars already has been invested, is contained in the military appropriation measure waiting final action by Congress.

* * *

This program for additional work at the installation which includes Ft. Ritchie, Md., and a considerable area of land embracing Rock Raven Mountain apparently indicates a new decision for expansion. More than two years ago the Defense Department said the project was "100 per cent completed."

Military secrecy surrounds details for expanding the installation.

However, the new program presumably includes addition to existing administration and living space to make the cavern into an actual "underground Pentagon" instead of a mere "supplemental communications installation" called for when the original project was started in January 1951.

During last year's Operation Alert—the civil defense test in which top officials of the administrative branch left the capital in a government dispersal test—the installation was used as an actual nerve center for the military command for several days.

This was the first time the cavern had been put to use, other than for testing of elaborate telephone, telegraph and radio system which leads to military commands in the continental United States and abroad.

Benton Harbor Editor Heads State AP Unit

GAYLORD (UP) — N. A. (Bert) Lindenfeld, news editor of the Benton Harbor News—Palladium, is the new chairman of the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Assn.

He was elevated from vice president to succeed Hobart Chipman, editor of the Battle Creek Enquirer and News, at a meeting of the MAPEA Saturday at nearby Hidden Valley.

Arthur Gallagher, editor of the Ann Arbor News, was named vice chairman. Louis J. Kramp, Detroit bureau chief of the Associated Press, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Japanese Diet Okays Philippine Reparations

TOKYO (UP) — Japan's upper house last night ratified a treaty pledging 800 million dollars in goods and services to the Philippines for World War II damage. This completed action by the Japanese Diet (Parliament) on the agreement.

The Philippine Senate is expected to ratify soon both the reparations pact and the long-delayed Japanese peace treaty.

'Where You All From?' Yankee Hears on Radio

LEOMINSTER, Mass. (UP) — Police Sgt. Francis Gillis called a cruising car over the station radio during a rainstorm but the answering voice didn't sound like a Leominster patrolman.

"Who are you?" Gillis asked.

"This is Car 2 in Stokes County, North Ca'lina," came the reply. "Where you all from?"

Grounded Freighter Blocks Detroit River

DETROIT (INS) — Freighter movements in both directions on the Detroit River were halted today as a grounded ship blocked the Ballard Reef Channel in the lower river near Detroit.

Nearly 24 ships were anchored in the river and others were strung out in the western end of Lake Erie and in Lake St. Clair.

The 637-foot Lehigh, a huge freighter loaded with iron, ran aground last night. The Bethlehem Transportation Co., ship from Cleveland, was stuck fast on the east side of the channel.

It Grows 'n' Grows

ONEY, Okla. (UP) — Mrs. Dora Popejoy, was overjoyed to receive a batch of yeast dough from a friend. She put it into her handbag and started home. Before she arrived the satchel was filled and the dough was oozing out.

Bob Considine Says:

Howard Hughes Hires the Handicapped

NEW YORK (INS)—Survivors of the weekend may be interested to know that Howard Hughes employs the following at his aviation place in California:

Five double-leg amputees, 34 single leg amputees, 21 vets who have lost their fingers. Plus 44 wheel chair paraplegics, 41 post-polio-spinal victims, 29 with paralyzed legs, 12 with stilled arms or feet. Plus six totally blind, 19 blind in one eye, seven totally deaf, 16 deaf mutes, four spastics, three sufferers from osteomylitus, and a muscular dystrophy case.

On the payroll at Hughes, and doing good work like the others afflicted, are three dwarfs, two epileptics, five heart cases, three with arrested tuberculosis, one with rheumatic fever, a diabetic and a cancer patient.

This information did not come from Hughes, who has never mentioned it. It came from his friend Lloyd Pantages, who has devoted much of his own life these past 15 years to work in the veterans' field.

RUB OF THE GREEN

The story out of Galveston, Tex., simply said that Babe Didrikson Zaharias would remain at the city's medical research center for continued cancer treatments. The greatest woman athlete of them all has been there for two months.

For a long time after this wonderful woman underwent surgery it seemed that the miracle had happened and the cancer had been arrested. Then she was abruptly told she must return for more treatment.

Outside of "The Lives of the Saints" one doesn't get more heroic statements that Babe uttered when they told her she must go back.

"That's the rub of the green," she said with a shrug.

Can that ever be topped for valor?

The current furore over the fact that Mickey Mantle is ten days or a couple of weeks ahead of the pace Babe Ruth set 29 years ago when he wound up with 60 home runs naturally brings to mind all the others in that time who promised to make the history books forget the one and only.

There was Gehrig, of course. Mays, among others. Now there and Foxx, Greenberg, Rudy York, Hack Wilson, Kiner and Mays, among others. Now there is Mantle, whose batting output is so meticulously measured that one day I expect to read that he has set a new record by rolling into a 135 foot double play.

In the last months of his life, Babe talked a lot about his record of 60. I was helping him with his book at that time. Wherever he went, be it the Library of Yale (where he gave the original manuscript to the university) or a saloon (where he gave the bartender a memory the man's great grandchildren would treasure) the subject of the 60 home runs was sure to come up. Babe had an off-handed answer he had picked up somewhere. He'd say, "records are made to be broken."

But he didn't feel that way at all. I showed him a clipping one day which has a two-line head that referred to a then current player as the "new home run king." Babe was hoarsely indignant.

"What do they mean 'new home run king'?" he demanded. "Has this bum or anybody else beaten sixty?"

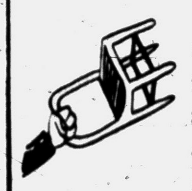

* * *

The Great Man was prouder of that 60 in one season than the 714 for his lifetime. Babe was kind of proud, too, of another mark which nobody gives him credit for. He produced the second best season's record, too, by hitting 59 in 1921.

Sloan Foundation to Aid Psychiatry

NEW YORK (AP)—The Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, Inc., has made a grant og $150,000 to the Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kan., in support of the Menninger School of Psychiatry.

The two organizations jointly announced the gift today. It is the first major grant in the mental health field made by the Sloan Foundation.

The Foundation said the "alleviation of the shortage of competent specialists in the psychiatric field has a high priority."

The Menninger School of Psychiatry is one of the nation's largest training centers for Psychiatrists.

The Sloan Foundation, founded by the automotive leader and associates in 1934, has been active in various fields including economic education and research, cancer and medical research, business education and the promotion of educational opportunities for the young.

The average American consumed less than three bushels of wheat in 1955.

These are friends in need but expensive indeed!

Their services cost money—and, though it's worth every penny these indispensable gentlemen charge, sometimes even well-budgeted families just don't have the money right at the time it's needed.

Whenever this happens to you—remember, there's a solution just as close as your nearest HFC office. The folks at Household are experts in family finance, so it's a very logical place to take your money problems. If you have a steady income and can repay in regular monthly instalments, you have the principal requirement for borrowing at HFC.

Airy Audrey Now Acts More Like a Mortal

Marriage Brings Hepburn Down to Earth

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS)—Before her marriage, Audrey Hepburn was ethereally actressy. She resembled nothing so much as a sleek, nervous bird poised for flight; final nesting ground—Never-Never Land.

Recently she flew into New York again, and it was obvious that Mel Ferrer has clipped her wings ever so delicately. She no longer flutters when she says, "Really?"

"I feel better this way, too," said Audrey happily, when advised that she seemed changed by wifehood. "I think it does settle your life more, being married. There's much more serenity.

She wrapped long, thin arms around her almost transparent waist.

* * *

"A girl who isn't married runs around looking for something, not knowing exactly what. But whether she admits it or not, she's looking for love, and when she finds it, something happens. . .

"You relax."

Miss Hepburn and Ferrer—two of the longest, lightest human shapes in existence—were in New York for only a few hours, to publicize the film "War and Peace," which they have just completed. It will be shown here in August.

They have lived in two homes, in Paris and Switzerland, since their marriage and intend to stay aboard.

Academy Award-winning Audrey received $389,000 for playing the role of Natasha in Tolstoy's drama, and it seems logical that one reason she wants to remain in Europe is to keep a sizable chunk of her earnings.

"But you know I won't talk about that," she said softely. Her eyes were neither coy nor calculating, but somewhere in between.

"Two things I never talk about are salary and religion. I find them sort of intimate things, and besides it changes all the time."

She hastened to add, what she meant is that her salarly changes. "My religion has been the same for 27 years, but I won't tell anybody what it is. Not that I'm a Mohammedan, or anything surprising. I just keep it to myself."

SVENGALI STORY

The last time Audrey and Mel were much besieged by newspapermen was less than two years ago, when both were playing in "Ondine" on Broadway.

Then, there were disturbing innuendoes in the press, to the effect that Ferrer was acting the Svengali to Miss Hepburn's Trilby; that he was controlling not only her business life but her personal affairs.

"I want to tell you right now," she said, "that Mel doesn't advise me any more than any other husband does a wife. My business is handled by my agent and my lawyer."

"However," she added, with one of those never-never Hepburn grins, "he is wonderful, and I'm not going to defend the fact that we talk over everything we do, and disucss the pros and cons. That is only sound married policy."

* * *

Miss Audrey, in a beige sheath tiny knot, still looks like a lithe childlike creature from another world, brought to earth on a light breeze.

But now she talks and acts more like a mortal. And she knows it.

"I hope," said the lady serenely, "that nobody is disappointed."

CLEAN FLAG DRIVE — The Gresham Cleaners, 605 Oakland ave. have begun a drive to give "New Glory to Old Glory." The cleaning establishment will clean flags free of charge through June 12 with the provision that the person or organization owning the flag fly it on Flag Day, June 14. Leon Sirlin, left, was one of the first to take advantage of the drive. He is shown presenting the Jimmy Dey Post Amvets flags to cleaner Sam Merkovitz. The shop is owned by Ralph Gresham.

Iowa Primary to Gauge GOP

Farm Policies of Ike, Contest for Senate Seat May Reflect Attitude

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa's voting in today's primary election is being watched nationally for two guides, although the indications are it doesn't bear the importance nationally of the balloting in some of the larger states.

One of the highpoints is the contest for U.S. senator and how it may reflect the attitude of residents of this state toward President Eisenhower's farm program and policies.

The other guide will be the Republican and Democratig vote totals which could indicate the President's strength now compared with 1952.

But Iowa, which does not have a provision for a presidential preference in its primary, will not offer any indication of the relative strength of two Democratic presidential aspirants — Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

The big Iowa showing will be what some may regard as an indirect test of the administration on agricultural matters in this hub state of the Farm Belt.

It comes in Sen. B. B. Hickenlooper's contest for Republican renomination with Iowa Atty. Gen. Dayton Countryman.

Hickenlooper, 59, and seeking a third term in the Senate, has cited his support of Eisenhower policies and has stressed during his campaign the new soil bank program and his amendment increasing acreage allotments. The senator has backed the administration, including the flexible farm price support plan.

Countryman, 38, has campaigned for high rigid price supports and has criticized Hickenlooper's vote for the natural gas bill.

Harriman Resting After Hospital Stay

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Averell Harriman, out of a hospital and saying he is "feeling fine," plans to spend the next few days at his New York City home.

The governor yesterday left Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center, where he underwent minor surgery of the prostate gland two weeks ago. His aides said physicians pronounced his condition excellent.

* * *

There was no immediate announcement on speaking plans for the governor, who says he is not an active candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Zontians Hear World Traveler at Annual Breakfast

Miss Jones Is Speaker on Sunday

Mrs. Fotis Takis to Head Zontas in Coming Year

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Women's Editor, The Pontiac Press

Sarah Van Hoosen Jones took 80 members and guests of Zonta Club of Pontiac on an imaginary but inspirational trip around the world when she recounted the 108 days' cruise from which she has recently returned, at the annual breakfast Sunday.

Entitling her talk, "United States Now and Always," Miss Jones told her audience gathering at Rotunda Inn that they covered 33,000 miles of sea and approximately 10,000 miles on land. There were heavy seas during the trip, but no storms, she said.

There was excitement, too, when "man overboard" was heard by the 510 passengers. The rapidity with which the ship made a semi-circle to keep the man from the ship's propellers, was a tremendous thing to watch, Miss Jones said.

Sailing in mid-January, from New York, the ship docked at 23 ports.

Beginning her talk with South Africa, the speaker said that the passengers were thrilled with its beauty, and the fact that it had been settled much as this country has been settled.

At Capetown they saw the compounds where the natives were kept at work in the mines, and watched the training of the dogs that watched over the mines.

Victoria Falls failed to inspire them as Niagara Falls does, but they found the krails (mud huts with palm tree roofs) and the native dancing colorful.

SINBAD THE SAILOR

At Zanzibar, a tiny island off the coast of South Africa, "Sinbad the Sailor" comes to life. This typical character boards ship up towards Persia bringing rugs to the harbor of Zanzibar where he picks up spices. He is an Arab, with the typical flowing robe, giving the idea that he has just stepped out of the story book, "Sinbad the Sailor."

The audience was shown the over-sized coconut which is grown in what is an almost unknown spot, the Seychelles Islands on the southern part of the Indian Ocean.

Early explorers called these "coconuts of the sea" as they found them floating there. These coconuts take seven years to develop and are not edible. Only the oil is used, the speaker said.

India with its exquisite Taj Mahal filled the tourists with awe. They watched the sun rise behind it one morning and felt they had never seen such beauty.

The influence of the United States is seen all up the coast of the Pacific ocean, Miss Jones said, and she pointed out that the glory of Manila in the Philippines belongs to the United States. She told how the tourists relived the battles of a few years ago when they went through Corregidor and Bataan.

They also visited in Hong Kong, at Okinawa and they went into Japan, where they noted the marked Western influence.

Hawaii, the speaker referred to as an ethereal group of islands with its Polynesian background and its influence of missionaries from the United States. Savage music and the hymns of the missionaries combine to make Hawaiian music the beautiful thing it is today, she said.

As she spoke of Hawaii, a record of "Aloha" formed the background.

General chairman of the affair was Mrs. H. C. Brooks assisted by Mrs. Charles Wait, Mrs. S. B. Wattles and Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson.

Lauretta Paul was toastmistress and Maude Chambers spoke on the dividends of Zonta.

New members were initiated by Mrs. Brooks and officers were installed by Mrs. L. Harvey Lodge.

Officers installed were Mrs. Fotis Takis, president; Mrs. Marion Burnes, first vice president; Mrs. Chadd Mellinger, second vice president; Mrs. Lloyd Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Lois Ellis, recording secretary and Mrs. Beecher Connell, corresponding secretary.

New members include Marion Emery, Mrs. Nat Morrison, Mrs. Margaret Stark, Mrs. John Kinzler, Phyllis Pope, Mrs. Reba Netzler and Mary A. Kelly.

Members of the Liggett School alumnae have been invited to attend a tea Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Country Club drive home of Mrs. M. M. Burgess of Bloomfield Hills. The group will discuss the possibility of a Bloomfield-Birmingham branch of the school.

Newly elected officers planning for the tea are Mrs. Thomas S. Torgerson, president; Mrs. Charles W. Adams, vice-president; Mrs. Edward P. Hammond, Jr., secretary and Mrs. Roy L. Potter, treasurer. Board members also on the tea committee are Mrs. Charles Casgrain III., Mrs. Theodore Hodges II., Mrs. John Keough and Katherine Kay.

Banish That Old, Weary Feeling

By ANNE HEYWOOD

What do you do on those terrible days when you suddenly begin to feel old—when your mirror or a friend's face or an unaccountable weariness informs you that you're no longer as young as you used to be?

* * *

This feeling can happen at almost any age, and it's no fun. The wise woman faces the fact that such moods are bound to come and go.

She learns a method of coping with them, some kind of technique for overcoming the feeling, instead of giving in to it for hours and hours of moping.

One friend of mine, who is a very young 57, admitted that when she feels her age, she goes to visit her two maiden aunts, both in their 70s.

"Compared to those wonderful old ladies, I feel like a spring chicken!" she says.

Mrs. K., a reader in Indiana, has another approach.

"I am a widow, 63," she writes. "My only child lives in Texas with his family, so loneliness has been quite a factor in my life.

"A year or so ago, I began seeing my friends getting sort of sick and old and out of commission—not all of them, of course, but a good many of them. I began to feel as if old age were here to stay and it was a horrible feeling.

CAROLYN THOMPSON

Carolyn Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Thompson of Osmun street, will graduate Saturday from Mercy School of Nursing, Mt. Carmel Unit in Detroit.

"I decided," she continued, "I couldn't stand it any longer—sitting around moping all day, feeling it was only a matter of time before life would be over for me.

"So on the spur of the moment, I gave a party for a lot of the neighborhood teenagers. I figured it would keep me busy and give me the young point of view.

NOT TOO JOLLY

"The first party wasn't too successful. There was a lot I didn't know about young people, but I do have a piano and my son's old record collection and that carried the day. The kids adored hearing all the 'oldies' on the phonograph.

* * *

"After that, I decided to have a party once a week for them and really dream up interesting things. I always used to get along with young people and little by little my skill came back. If I say so myself they began to love me.

"Now my parties are quite the thing. The kids like having somebody who is not parent to talk things over with. My life is full and rich and I feel young as can be!"

If you'd like to see more young people, send for my pamphlet, "Playing with Children for Profit."

First Baptist Church Holds Psalm Rites

Neva Brian gave the devotions from Psalm 84 when members of the Wayside Gleaners of First Baptist Church met Friday afternoon at the church.

The Honor Choir of Baldwin school directed by Mrs. Harold Northon presented several songs and Mrs. Orval Dunkeld, a missionary on furlough from Africa work, spoke of her work with the African women.

Received into the society were Mrs. Edna Hayden and Mrs. Martha Vaught.

Visit Five and Dime

The five-and-dime yields lots of things helpful to wardrobe upkeep. Those little sewing kits, for instance, with thread in every color of the rainbow. Handy for home or travel. And toe rubbers that can go into a handbag in their little plastic carryalls.

Prettier than a picture were these three-year-olds photographed at the annual Cradle Roll Tea at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday. Wide-eyed Sara (left) is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William DeRoo of Pioneer avenue, Timothy, all spruced up for the affair with a perky bow tie, is the son of the William Godfreys of Balboa Place and blond curly-haired Vivki Lynn's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Oosterhof of Devonshire road.

Avoid Separate Vacations for Hubby, Wife

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

There are all kinds of vacations!

* * *

There is the family vacation when the children go along with their parents. Then there is the stag vacation when father roughs it at camp with the boys and of course there is the vacation taken by the wife and husband without the children.

One seldom hears about a wife and mother going off on a vacation alone, although many go North in the summertime with their children. All of these vacations have their individual value. It's different and fun when the man of the house gets away with men only. The same thing is true of the woman.

It is most restful and adds variety if the woman in the home sometimes takes a little vacation with her friends. Usually both the man and woman turn the clock back a few years at times like these with lots of laughter and a change of pace and companionship.

Yet the idea of husband and wife spending vacations away from one another is not a good prescription for a happy marriage. Spending leisure apart is placed at the head of the list of divorce causes by some authorities.

Then, too, think how much fun you would miss, because a husband and wife who are congenial have such good times on trips and vacations.

SOMETIMES BEST

Of course if a husband and wife are absolutely incompatible and cannot have pleasant times together, it's a shame to ruin a vacation for both of them. Separate vacations may make the home waters smoother for them because of the separation.

* * *

While the children deserve some trips with the parents, the parents also should have some trips alone if the children can be arranged for. No matter how much you love them, travel with children is hectic and married couples merit some carefree, gay times alone.

It seems that the best thing to do is to vary the vacation from year to year so that you do not go to the same place and with the same family group each year, year after year.

You and hubby can have a lot of fun together on your vacation.

At this time of year most folks get that faraway look as they dream of their summer vacations. Many of these dreamers bemoan the fact that their vacation is so short.

* * *

It is true that often it seems that the packing before and the unpacking after is the main part of a two-week vacation. These two points are held together by a few highlights in experience which happened in between.

Once I took a 1,000-mile motor trip with my two young children. Afterward, looking back, I had no memory at all of driving through the countryside but only of getting in and out of the car to take care of their various needs.

CHECK YOUR CAR

There are many things you can do to make your vacation more restful and more enjoyable. In the first place, if you are going by car, be sure to have the family bus thoroughly checked as insurance against car trouble.

* * *

Also be certain that your tires are adequate. It is sheer madness to start out on a pleasure trip with tires which will give you constant trouble, to say nothing of the danger of this procedure.

Plan carefully about the clothes you will take. Do not burden yourself with too many but see to it that you have the right kind. If you are going to a resort hotel, write to the manager to find out what you will need if you do not know.

If you are traveling to a different part of the country, write to the local Weather Bureau to find out what temperatures and weather conditions you are apt to run into.

The experienced traveler travels "light." Today there are so many combination clothes for women. There are all kinds of separates which can be combined in different ways for different occasions. There are crease-resistant materials and nylons and other garments which do not have to be ironed. Discard all unnecessary items.

* * *

LESS HECTIC

Out of sheer hysteria many of us throw things into the suitcase or the car at the last minute because we think we "might need" them. Careful planning makes travel a lot less hectic.

If you are going camping take along a well-stocked medicine chest and do not forget those wonderful insect-repellent products.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Tricks in Camping," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 69 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Secretary Asks 'Yes?' When Called

Should She Instead Always Say 'Hello' Over Inter-Com?

By EMILY POST

A secretary writes me as follows: "My employer has his own private office and I have a small office just outside his. We have an inter-office telephone. When he wants anything he buzzes and I pick up the telephone.

"Is it necessary to say 'hello' every time he calls me for something? Or may I say 'yes?' I have been saying the latter and have been criticized by someone in the office for doing this. I would very much appreciate your opinion on this matter."

Answer: Your brief word is entirely correct—unless your employer tells you that "hello" is what he wants you to answer.

"Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening a young man took both my friend and me to the movies. He drove us home and, as she was staying at my house, both of us got out. He said goodnight and drove off.

"I thought his behavior in order as there were two of us to walk together to the door. My mother thinks he was wrong to leave us this way. Had I been alone, I agree he should have seen me into the house, but under the circumstances wasn't this unnecessary?"

Answer: Very definitely he should have seen you both not only to the door, but should have waited until you were safely in the house.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Since other mourning customs have changed so drastically during the past two years, I would like to know if it is proper to use plain white notepaper for acknowledging sympathy rather than black-bordered paper.

"Mother thinks black-bordered paper is correct, but I think it is out of fashion along with the crepe veil. What is your opinion?"

Answer: Although black-bordered paper is still correct, you will not be criticized if you use plain white paper.

Steam Iron Does It

If edges or corners of your carpet have curled up, use a steam iron on top or back surfaces to press back into place. If you use a regular iron for this job, be sure you have a damp cloth underneath the iron.

Any Fruit Goes Well in Kuchen

Mrs. Skarritt Often Uses Mom's Recipe for Filled Pastry

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

One of the best gifts a mother can give a daughter is a knowledge and love of cooking. We come across many women who cherish recipes from their mothers' collections. Such a recipe is Mrs. Jack Skarritt's Fruit Kuchen.

Mrs. Skarritt has three children. Her hobby is music, specifically the piano. Knitting and sewing are favorite leisure time activities. At present she is learning to garden.

FRUIT KUCHEN
By Mrs. Jack Skarritt

1 cup sifted flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup shortening
1 egg
1 quart canned fruit
¼ cup cornstarch
Sugar
Cinnamon
Butter

Mix flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add shortening and mix well. Put the egg in a measuring cup and add enough milk to make ½ cup. Mix with dry ingredients. Line a 9-inch pie pan or 12 muffin pans with this pastry.

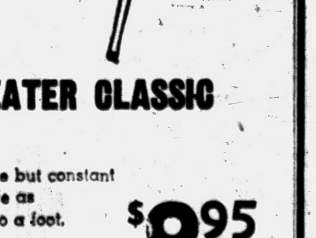

Place canned fruit in a saucepan, add cornstarch and sugar to taste. Cook until thick. Pour into pastry-lined pans. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar and dot with butter. Bake at 400 degrees until brown.

If you are ultra feminine, choose blended and subtle prints. Avoid strong contrast stripes. Soft, pretty fashions are best.

The genuinely feminine woman is more appealing in soft grayed pastels or in white and the fabric, too, should suggest the etheral, illusory quality of her personality. Wide stripes need to be on a taller figure.

About 300,000 gallons of paint were used on the new U.S. aircraft carrier Saratoga.

It takes a magician to get a rabbit out of a hat, but anyone can let the cat out of the bag.

Annual Breakfast Held by Omega Mu Sigma

Alice Serrell Is Speaker for Event Held Sunday

By MARGARET COLE

Twenty-four members and guests attended the annual breakfast of Omega Mu Sigma sorority at Rotunda Inn. Each year the sorority, that was organized in Pontiac 53 years ago, holds the annual event honoring new members. Honored Sunday were Mrs. John Guenther and Mrs. Robert Reynolds.

* * *

The T-shaped table was centered with a miniature wishing well and individual places were marked by "old oaken buckets." Arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout the dining room.

Mrs. Wayne Anable, Mrs. Emnia Olson, Mrs. Austin D. Esler and Mrs. Louis B. Livingston served on the committee arranging the affair.

Mrs. Elwyn E. Tripp, president, intorduced the guests and extended greetings on behalf of the sorority.

A trip around the world with Alice Serrell, a former member of the sorority, and speaker of the day, was a highlight of the gathering. The speaker told of visiting 18 countries and 23 ports on her recent voyage.

The ship on which she traveled was compared by the speaker as comparable to living in a community with a population of 1300 persons.

STOP AT TRINIDAD

Departing from New York, the first stop was at Trinidad from where they continued to Bahia, known as Old San Salvador and on to Rio de Janeiro. "Rio de Janeiro, the speaker remarked, is as modern looking as New York, with a beautiful surrounding area, the only distinct difference being the Mosaic sidewalks."

At Tristan de Cuhna Island the speaker told of her experiences in dealing with islanders. The island being occupied by 300 inhabitants with but only seven surnames.

From Capetown, a ten-day train trip to Kimberley, Kruger Park, Pretoria, Victoria Falls and the native village of Malapye broke the ocean traveling. From Durbin the cruise continued to Zanzibar where 90 per cent of the cloves in the world is grown, and on to Seychelles, supposedly the location of the original "Garden of Eden."

"Tea, toast and tangerines were our diet while in India." Miss Serrell stated, "this being due to the unsanitary living conditions." Bangkok was described as a most beautiful and extraordinary city, boasting over 300 temples and one where gold plating is used in great abundance.

A plain, sweet people welcomed the traveler at beautiful Bali, the speaker continued. Other points of interest on the itinerary described by Miss Serrell included Manila, Hong Kong, Okinawa, Colby, Yakatama, Tokyo, Honolulu and Los Angeles.

Concluding, the speaker presented a brief description of Acapulco and Panama. In all, the trip took 108 days, 58 of which were spent on water and 50 on land. Items from the various countries visited were displayed.

Guests attending were Sharon Livingston, Mrs. James T. Allan and former members Mrs. William J. Preece, Mrs. Albert Riley and Georgianna Block.

Laying aside their philanthropic activities for a day, members of Omega Mu Sigma sorority enjoyed a social event on Sunday when they gathered at Rotunda Inn for breakfast to welcome new members of the sorority and to reminisce with those members who returned for the annual event. Mrs. Merrill Petrie of South Genesee avenue, treasurer of the sorority, and Mrs. Leo Halfpenny of Lewis street, program chairman, (left to (right) sit back and enjoy their coffee following breakfast.

Fear of Criticism Imposes Strain

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Sitting down to put new buttons on Sissy's spring coat, Mrs. Martin discovered her scissors were missing. It took 10 minutes to find them in a box of paper dolls thrust under her older daughter's bed.

* * *

So when Dotty came home from school she said, "Why did you take my scissors again for your paper dolls? How many times do I have to tell you that I don't want paper cut with them?"

Instantly, Dotty said, "Sissy took my scissors. She doesn't know what she did with them. I've looked and looked for them because Sissy doesn't remember where she put them."

Dotty always meets your criticism of any carelessness or disobedience by denying it this way.

* * *

If she defies you, it's only because she was forced to. If she's late getting to the dinner table, it's not because she chose to finish her comic book but because she didn't hear you call her.

CAN'T ADMIT IT

For though she's only 11, Dotty cannot acknowledge any normally resistive feelings in herself. She has to try to make you believe that her defiance or carelessness was compliant, well-intentioned virtue.

Will it help Mrs. Martin to know that Dotty's problem is this perfectionism?

Only if she can acknowledge it in herself. Only if she can think. "Have I shown myself intolerant of any error in myself? Must I be always right, hating any criticism made of me so that Dotty has the idea that any human weakness is shameful? Do I dread criticism too?"

If she can answer "Yes" to these questions, she can help herself as well as Dotty.

For fear of criticism puts a dreadful strain on us. As none of us is perfect, the criticism is inevitable. So what our fear of it does is to keep us constantly tense, braced for instant defense.

The job is to see that what we've been embracing is not human at all but some Dream Child demanded by our parents' training. And to suddenly know that our haunting fear of criticism is actually our childhood's fear of losing their love.

All Baby's Needs Carried in One Small Basket

NEW YORK (INS) — The most important thing to remember when traveling with a baby is to bring all his infant's paraphernalia with you.

* * *

A basket has been outfitted to hold all the gear essential to a baby's comfort and well-being. It's made of lightweight oak—with handles—to look on the outside just like a picnic basket.

Lined with figured plastic, the basket has a special compartment for wet diapers, and elastic loops provide space for cotton and powder. There's also space for a plastic bib to match the lining, and a plastic juice glass, spoon and bowl.

* * *

When the basket's unloaded after the trip, the lining and equipment can be washed with hot soap or detergent suds.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

Soviet and U. S. Clerics to Talk

10-Day Visit to Feature Parley Cementing Ties of Churchmen

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP)—Eight visiting Russian church leaders and American church leaders start formal talks today aimed at establishment of communications between Christian churches of the Soviet Union and the United States.

The Soviet prelates, due here from New York City, are in the United States as guests of the National Council of Churches for 10 days.

Last night the Russian clergymen wound up a busy day in New York by catching a glimpse of what for them was no doubt a highly unusual sight — a group of young people dancing on a Sunday night in the halls of a church. In the Soviet Union, churches are not used for social activities of any sort other than formal church gatherings, and certainly not for dancing.

They saw this at the Broadway Tabernacle — a distinguished New York Congregational church — where they were the guests of honor at a regular Sunday night meeting of young adults of the congregation.

Earlier in the day, Metropolitan Nikolai of Moscow, the leader of the Soviet delegation which consists of representatives of four different Christian denominations, preached a sermon at the Russian Orthodox Cathedral of St. Nicholas in New York. He declared the Russian orthodox faith will never die, that Russian people remain faithful to the Orthodox Church and will guard their Christian faith as a priceless heritage.

WCTU Attacks Drinking Plugs on Nation's TV

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The head of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union said today that "radio and television commercials influence hundreds of thousands of teen-agers to start drinking."

* * *

Mrs. Glenn G. Hayes, president of the WCTU, predicted that local option prohibition elections in the 34 states permitting them will jump from an average of some 500 to 1,000 or more this coming November.

TV HELPS

In a statement issued from WCTU headquarters, Mrs. Hayes said, "There is a gradual but steady awakening to the fact that radio and television commercials influence hundreds of thousands of teen-agers to start drinking, the first step away from their school and church and toward juvenile delinquency.

* * *

"Alcoholic beverage advertising will continue to be dishonest until it shows what it creates — the drunk on skid row, drink-associated crime, the automobiles wrecked by drunken drivers, and the deserted families and impoverished children of drunkards."

He's Gotta Exercise!

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Waite have offered a reward for information leading to recovery of 200 pounds in barbells and weights stolen from their home two weeks ago. Mrs. Waite says her husband, 38 and 230 pounds, an exercise enthusiast more than 20 years, "is lost" without the weights.

City Recreation Units Prepare for Record Crowds

TAKE YOUR PICK — Pontiac residents won't have to look far for leisure time activities this summer as this map indicates. Prepared by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Dept., it shows the location of city operated playgrounds and parks situated throughout Pontiac. The parks have been opened since May 1, while on June 18, 23 playgrounds for children from six years up will be opened to keep youngsters entertained during summer months.

Leisure time activities in Pontiac will once again be in abundance this summer for all ages from six to 60. That's the report from David R. Ewalt, director of the city Parks and Recreation Dept.

Nearly 50,000 persons used the summer recreation facilities last year and Ewalt expects a 10 per cent increase in users this summer.

Everything from 23 playgrounds opening June 18 to numerous activities of the Sunset Club for persons 60 years of age and above will again be offered to keep Pontiac residents entertained.

Registrations are still coming into Ewalt's office for children to attend this year's "Frog Hollow Day Camp." Seven five-day periods are offered where boys (7-13 years) and girls (9-12) will have the "time of their lives" with fishing, swimming, hiking, cooking, campcraft, and camp fire activities.

And Mom and Dad need not be worried about the kids. Fifty-four well-trained supervisors will guide this camp and the other summer activities. Many are school teachers well acquainted iwth the children.

"This year 95 per cent of the supervisors that worked in our summer program the last two years will be back again to offer experienced leadership," Ewalt said.

For the golf enthusiast, the Municipal Course will offer another year of challenge. The nine-hole course is located on Golf drive between Telegraph and Bagley. Fee for nine holes is 75 cents.

The accompanying drawing (left) shows the location of 23 city-operated palygrounds for children six years or older. Most will be opened five days a week, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except Murphy and Oakland Parks which will remain open until 10 p.m. Leadership will be available at Oriole Field from 4 p.m. until dark.

Ewalt recommends that parents send their children to the park nearest their home.

An annual "Fishing Rodeo" is scheduled in July or August.

Also included in the summer activities sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Dept. will be the "Fashion Your Figure" and "Fashionettes" social clubs for women worried about waist lines.

Both men and women are expected to get plenty of summer enjoyment from the chess and checker clubs.

Teams in men's and women's official softball leagues will compete against each other every evening Monday through Friday on lighted fields at Beaudette and Northside Parks.

For those who enjoy a relaxing game of shuffleboard, courts will be available from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. at Murphy and Oakland Parks. Equipment will be available and tournaments scheduled.

Games of horseshoes and tennis are available at facilities in Beaudette and Northside Parks. Sixteen tennis courts are available at Beaudette, Murphy and Oakland Parks.

Picnic grills and benches are set up at many of the city parks waiting for those hot dogs and steaks.

The department is also setting up up an archery range at Northside Park.

For added information on this and all the numerous leisure time activities offered, Ewalt urged citizens to call the department at its City Hall location.

U. S. Science Seeks Ways to Use Atom in Kitchen

NEW YORK (UP) — Industrial scientists are looking to the atom and miracle drugs in their search for ways to prolong the edible life of food.

The day when you can leave meat, fish, milk, and vegetables just sitting around indefinitely on the pantry shelf may be some distance away. But large sums are being put into the search. And progress is being reported.

Chiefly interested in the long run will be housewives. But right now it's of prime importance to the Army, which has a big problem feeding distant troops. And it's being studied, and in some cases used, by the processors, distributors and retailers of food. In time it conceivably might be of interest to the makers of cans and glass jars, and to some in the frozen food industry.

The long term business goals: Cut food losses during storage, simplify food preparation, tenderize meats, expand the market for foods.

The Army plans a pilot plant for research on adapting atomic energy to the food market. Already some foods have been kept long periods by subjecting them to atomic irradiation. Scientists are busy now trying to overcome the changes in color, flavor or texture that such irradiation often causes.

On the miracle drug front, aureomycin is being used to keep some foods fresh for longer than usual periods. A number of poultry processors in the south and east report commercial success with it, and the Canadian fishing industry is seeking a permit from the government there. Scientists are studying the use of aureomycin for red meat products, such as fresh pork sausage and ground beef.

Atomic treatment of food still has some hurdles ahead.

But Dr. Robert R. Baldwin, chemical research director for General Foods, believes "you will feel some impact of atomic energy in your kitchen—and not too far in the future."

The canning and frozen food industries aren't too worried yet. Both the National Assn. of Frozen Food Packers and the National Frozen Food Distributors Assn. have been assured by some of their members that atomic sterilization of foods are still far from being practical.

And then there are the final hurdles: The Food and Drug Administration and the surgeon general.

Arsenic Deaths Trial Opens

Alabama Wife Accused of Killing 2 Husbands, Her 3 Children

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UP) — Plump, red-haired Mrs. Rhonda Belle Martin goes on trial today for the arsenic poisoning deaths of two husbands, her mother and her three children.

* * *

The state is expected to seek the death penalty.

Mrs. Martin pleaded insanity at her arraignment last month.

Circuit Solicitor William F. Thetford said she was vague about a motive for her actions but that she had some insurance on each victim.

EXPLAINS DEATHS

The string of deaths began in 1937 and was uncovered last March when husband No. five became paralyzed instead of dying from his arsenic-spiked coffee. This led to her arrest.

The 49-year-old waitress detailed in a signed statement for police how she accomplished each death. Thetford said she also took responsibility for the attempted murder of her present husband—28-year-old Ronald C. Martin, who is paralyzed. He is the son of her fourth husband.

* * *

The deaths started with 3-year-old Emogene Garrett, the statement said, who died in 1937 of ant poison in her milk. This was followed in 1939 when George Garrett, her second husband and father of her children, died of whisky laced with arsenic. In 1940, Carolyn Garrett, 6, died of the fatal milk potion. The third child, Ellyn Elizabeth Garrett, 11, died the same way in 1943.

IN HER COFFEE

The bespectacled woman said her mother, Mrs. Mary Frances Gibbon, died in 1944 of coffee spiked with arsenic.

After an interlude for a third husband, her fourth husband, Claude Martin, died of poisoned coffee in 1951. Then she married Martin's son, Ronald, now paralyzed.

All six bodies were exhumed and traces of arsenic was found in each.

Diesel Thief Does Fine Job of Railroading

DETROIT (UP) — A stolen diesel locomotive was back safely at the Fullerton yard today with nine extra box cars thoughtfully added on by playful thieves.

* * *

For more than two hours early yesterday, the phantom railroaders sped through a complicated maze of tracks in West Side Detroit with their stolen freight train — switching expertly from track to track and making three stops at sidings to pick up additional cars.

Frantic railroad policemen discovered the theft but didn't catch sight of the pilfered train until it was brought safely back to the Fullerton yard and abandoned.

* * *

"A terrific piece of railroading," grudgingly admitted yardmaster Arthur A. Root "obviously not the work of amateurs."

'Sic 'em, King' Puts Man, Lion Behind the Bars

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Police said they chose the obvious solution when confronted with a tipsy truck driver and his disinterested companion, an 8-month-old pet lion.

* * *

They put 'em both behind bars.

Officers reported they discovered King, an 85-pound lion, glaring from a parked car in a residential area. A short while later, they related, John Shinners, 21, arrived on the scene listing slightly.

Shinners opened the car door, the officers said, grabbed King by the collar and told him to "Sic 'em!" King just yawned.

Shinners, who twice has been evicted from his lodgings because of his pet, was booked on suspicion of drunkenness. King was taken by an animal inspector to an animal shelter via a truck cage.

West Pointer Marks His 75th Anniversary

WEST POINT, N. Y. (AP)—Maj-Gen. Henry Clay Hodges Jr., of Stamford, Conn., has been an old grad at many graduations here, but this year his visit is something special. It's his 75th anniversary.

* * *

You have to call it an anniversary, not a class reunion, Hodges points out. "You can't have a reunion of one," he said.

* * *

But the lone surviving member of the class of 1881, who also is the U. S. Military Academy's oldest graduate, and may be the first ever to celebrate his 75th anniversary of the Point, made quite a celebration of it all the same.

The 96-year-old general started off his three-day visit to West Point yesterday with a quarter-mile walk to breakfast at 9 a.m.

Over 115,000 Lost Husbands Under 55

Survey Looks at Widowhood in U. S.

Despite increased postponement of widowhood to the older ages as a result of the declining mortality prior to midlife, last year over 115,000 wives were widowed in the U.S. through the death of a husband less than 55 years of age, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's statisticians.

* * *

At the time of the census there were, in all, 700,000 widows in the U.S. who had lost their husbands within the preceding decade, and who were under 50 years old at the time of their loss. Of these, almost one-third had been widowed two to four years, and one-half for five to nine years.

These facts emerge from a study by the statisticians of young widows and their dependents based upon 1950 Census data. Other details set forth in the statisticians' report include the following:

* * *

Four-fifths of the widows under 50 years of age had borne children and many of these children were quite young—about 80,000 were under age five. Nearly three out of every five of the widows still in their early twenties had preschool children.

The problems of widowhood are many, the report notes, a common one being the readjustment of the household to reduce circumstances after the death of the breadwinner.

* * *

About 54 per cent of the widows included in the study were gainfully employed at the time of the census. For the younger women in the first two years of widowhood, the proportion was appreciably smaller, yet about 44 per cent of them were employed.

BULL (FROG) SESSION — A curious "Lassie" of movie and television fame nuzzles a new friend while waiting to go before the cameras for another episode of a TV series of which he is star. Men Only Obstacle to Woman Veep in U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—There is only one remaining obstacle to the election of a woman as vice president of the United States.

"It's men!" said Miss Lou Payne, the Joan of Arc of a new crusade to create a lady veep. "They're against the idea merely because it's new.

"Men like to think they run the country—which is all right, so long as they only think it."

* * *

Miss Payne, who is 30, green-eyed and pretty, left Mississippi to conduct a TV program for housewives in Chicago. Although a single lady herself, she is also director of the Mrs. Homemaker's, Forum, a nonprofit organization which claims a million housewives are members.

Until recently the forum was content to trade household hints and work toward "elevating the status of the homemaker"—whatever that means.

85 PCT. AGREE

Then the members were surveyed as to whether they thought the United States needed a lady vice president. Well, sir, 85 per cent of the housewives said it did, 5 per cent said no, and 10 per cent either had no opinion or were too busy wiping their children's noses to care.

Miss Payne took the results of the poll as a clear clarion call for action. Since then the forum has been bombarding politicians — from ward bosses to national party chairmen — with demands that they endorse skirt-wearing candidates for veep.

* * *

The petticoat brigade is deadly serious.

"It is probably too late for us to win in 1956," said Miss Payne, who says she has no political ambitions herself. "But we'll win in 1960.

"If it comes to the worst—if all else fails—we will march on Washington. That should prove effective."

RECOGNITION SOUGHT

The ladies aren't altogether altruistic.

"With a woman acting as the president's right hand man," remarked Miss Payne, "housewives would have a better chance for government recognition. For one thing, they could get security. A housemaid has social security. Why shouldn't a housewife have it, too?"

As to the reasons why women in general should be given higher political posts, Miss Payne made these points:

"There are more women than men voters, but they have less representation.

"Women control most of the spending in America. If they can control most of the money, why shouldn't they control the government?

"If England can have a queen, the least that U. S. women are entitled to is the vice presidency.

* * *

"Women enjoy talking more than men, and the longer statesmen talk the less chance there is they will go to war."

FOUR LEAD REST

In their poll the members of the forum named as possible candidates for lady veep the following: Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Ambassador to Italy Clare Boothe Luce, and Frances E. Willis, ambassador to Switzerland.

* * *

Mrs. Roosevelt rather pulled the rug out from under the ladies by writing in a magazine that she felt the time wasn't ripe yet for a woman vice president. The forum has chided her for this view and is seeking to change her opinion.

* * *

If it's a good idea to have a lady veep, who will not break completely with political tradition and elect a woman as president and another woman as head of the United Nations.

* * *

"One thing at a time," said Miss Payne, her eyes gleaming with visions of distant feminine victories.

Jet Pilots Now Park in the Sky

Enjoy Coffee Breaks With Mother Bomber's Crew in Mid-Air

SPOKANE, Wash. (INS) — The driver parked, climbed out, went inside for a cup of coffee and then left.

* * *

The news is:

He "parked" at 200 miles an hour—and miles high in the sky.

The driver is a U. S. Air Force pilot of a RF-84F Thunderflash.

This photo-reconnaissance fighter can "land" and "take off" from a 10-engine B-36 bomber in flight. It has been revealed that first operational hook-ups by Air Force units were made recently in neighboring skies.

Thunderflash pilots from the 71st Strategic Reconnaissance Wing at Moses Lake, Wash., recently made the hook-ups to B-36's from the 99th Bomber Wing here.

USUAL ROUTINE

The usual routine is for the Thunderflash pilot to nose his 650-mile-an-hour-plus into the bomber's trapeze mechanism at a comparatively "slow" 200 mph.

The trapeze draws the smaller plane up into the B-36's bomb bay. The Thunderflash pilot then steps out for coffee with bomber crewmen in the B-36's photographic compartment before returning to his plane and dropping away.

The two-plane combination joins the Thunderflash's speed and 2,000-mile range to the 10,000-mile range of the bomber for global missions.

Abbey to Mark Its 900th Year

Benedictine Monastery in Germany Noted for Baroque Church

Weingarten Monastery in Ravensburg, Germany, will commemorate the 99th anniversary of its founding from June 28 to July 1, according to the German Tourist Information Office. The ancient Benedictine abbey, founded by the Guelph dynasty in 1056, is famous for its three-towered abbey which is the largest Baroque church building in Germany, and for its cultural achievements.

The abbey, built between 1715 and 1722 by Franz Beer, contains stucco ornaments by Schmuzer and ceiling frescoes by the great 17th century architect and painter, Cosmas Damian Asam.

The large vestibule organ was built by Gabler in 1737. There is also a monument erected in 1859 by King George V of Hanover, who was of the house of Guelph.

Commemoration ceremonies will begin June 28 with pontifical vespers and will close on July 1 with a pilgrimage to the Holy Blood reliquary.

During the festive days there will be an exhibition illustrating the cultural and historical importance of the monastery, showing old manuscripts from its scriptorium. These include the famous Weingarten Lieder manuscript containing poetry by Walther von der Aue and other great choristers.

Welcomes New Troy Manager

Norman Barnard Tells Governmental Matters in Letter to Holway

TROY — Welcoming the new city manager of the city of Troy, Orlando G. Holway, Norman Barnard has thrown light on many governmental developments in a letter to Holway.

Holway is in his first week as the city's new manager. Barnard retired a month ago to become clerk of the county board of supervisors.

Water supply, Barnard writes, "is one of the more important matters facing Troy at this time." Connections with Clawson, recently arranged, and with Birmingham, with whom negotiations are underway, are possible solutions. The engineer's plan for additional storage and pressure in the northern section of the city should be carried out in the near future, he says.

First hearing for proposed assessments for water districts is set for June 11, he points out. He urges completion of these hearings as soon as possible, so that construction can begin.

Troy Votes Tuesday on Annexation Issue

TROY — Sections of Troy Township are subject of a vote being conducted by the township, the City of Troy, and the City of Birmingham tomorrow.

Only a few parcels will remain in the township if voters approve annexation of the small parcels by, in some cases Birmingham, and in other cases, Troy township.

Troy officials look with worry at the parcels that would remain in the township, because of difficulties in providing municipal services such as fire and police protection. Only a few lots would remain.

Troy Names Top Seniors, Slates Graduation Dates

TROY—Troy High School seniors, who are headed by Valedictorian Lynda G. Litzner and Salutatorian Jerome Char, have class night on Tuesday and commencement on Thursday.

* * *

The class of 94 seniors attended baccalaureate service yesterday at the high school, where class night and commencement are scheduled, both at 8 p.m.

Lynda was chosen valedictorian for her all-A average. Daughter of the H. A. Litzners of 1160 Boyd St., she has led cheers, debated, acted in the junior and senior plays, and been vice president of the National Honor Society.

She plans to attend Wayne University and become an elementary teacher.

* * *

Jerome, whose average has been 3.963, down from 4 because of one B, is son of the Isaac Chars of 1731 Rochester Rd. Treasurer of the NHS and class vice president for two years, he plans to study medicine at University of Michigan.

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane of Detroit's Central Methodist Church will be speaker at commencement at 8 p.m. at the high school on Thursday. "Thermometers and Thermostats" will be his subject.

Degrees will be given by Mayor Frank Costello, who is president of the board of education, and Dr. Crane's introduction will be by Alex Tunstell, treasurer of the board.

* * *

At class night, the cap-and-gown wearing seniors will hear who has won awards in various competitions and study fields.

* * *

Sylvan Manor Group to Meet

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Sylvan Manor Assn. will meet at 8 tonight in the West Bloomfield Township Hall, under the leadership of Paul S. Kearns, president.

Committees will bring members up to date with regards to latest developments on the following projects: Blacktopping petition, chloride treatment for the roads and the progress being made on collection of the $7 fee, blueprints showing the location of the street lights proposed for the subdivision, and an insect spray project for the area.

Proposed amendments to the bylaws of the Sylvan Manor Assn. will be read. Refreshments will be served after the meeting

This will be the last meeting of the association for the summer. The next meeting date is Sept. 10, the second Monday of the month. Since Labor Day falls on the first Monday.

Meet Tonight on Upped Costs

Board at Southfield Faces Hurdle in School Building Program

SOUTHFIELD — How to stretch $3½ million to cover the increased costs of the school building program, will be the problem to be faced by the school board when it meets here tonight.

* * *

Rising prices of land and construction has forced Southfield to revise its building program.

The $3½ million bond issue recently approved was planned to pay for a swimming pool addition to the high school, a junior high addition, a new elementary school and additions, as well as new school sites and improvements.

With $1,243,633 already spent on McKinley, Anglin Road and Brace school additions, and $169,159 spent on school sites, the question is: will there be enough money left to build the new 12-room elementary school planned for the Twelve-Mile site.

*

Contracts will be awarded tonight by the board to the lowest bidders for the building of the swimming pool and the 15-classroom-and-gym junior high addition to the E. J. Lederle school at Nine-Mile and Evergreen.

Building Lags on High School

Construction Project at Lake Orion Delayed by Wet Weather

LAKE ORION — Construction work on the new high school has been delayed by the wet weather.

The work, according to a letter received by the Board of Education from Leo Kuhlman, builder, is about 45 days behind schedule. The weather conditions have also necessitated an expenditure of $12,000 over the estimated cost of construction, school officials said.

Fred Wiegman, principal, presented an attendance report for the period from April 9-May 18. An average of 89 students were absent each day from an enrollment of 1,100. He suggested the school district needs an atttendance officer who can devote his time to this problem.

SOUTHFIELD — With $95,000 "short" of funds to balance the budget for the present fiscal year, officials here are trying to decide which departments to trim to make ends meet.

The township had sought $229,000 in property taxes on a proposed budget of $515,000.

Supervisor Eugene Swem said he had no idea which corners would be cut, and that the one-mill levy for township operating expenses allowed by the Oakland County allocations board made it necessary to start trimming somewhere.

Reuther Sees Shorter Hours

Claims UAW Has Given the Worker 'a Sense of Belonging'

SOUTH BEND (AP) — Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, predicted last night that the 32-hour work week would be the "next great achievement" in the auto industry.

* * *

Reuther, prior to addressing 900 persons attending ceremonies marking the beginning of a nation-wide observance of the union's 20th anniversary, said automation and production would lead to the shorter week.

* * *

"The economic gains that the UAW has made in the last 20 years are not really the important thing," Reuther later told 700 persons gathered in the University of Notre Dame dining hall.

The real thing that we have given the people is a sense of belonging. We have taken name less, faceless people and given them a place in society."

"In the next 20 years," Reuther predicted, "we will celebrate goals we cannot now even comprehend."

He called on the union to make its aims "morally right and socially responsible."

* * *

Emil Mazey, the secretary-treasurer of the union, said the basic reasons for the organization of the UAW here 20 years ago were "the dictatorship of management and the workers search for security.

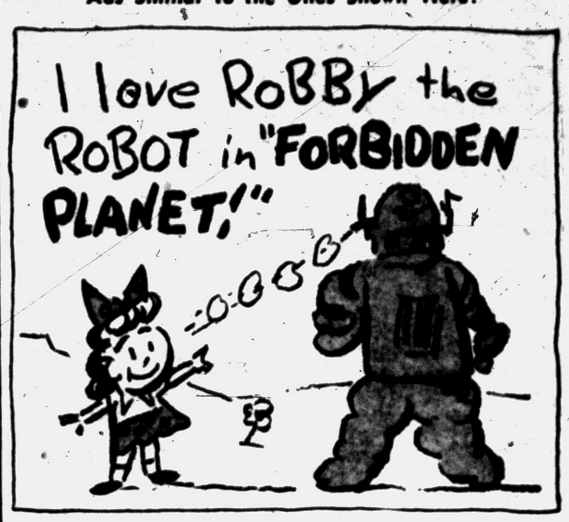

* * *

In its 20-year existence, the union has grown to an organization of 1,500,000 members with resources of nearly 40 million dollars.

Indonesia Knows Column; Louella Is Most Flattered

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Very intriguing is the idea Buddy Adler has to film the life story of Townsend Harris, our first ambassador to Japan. It was just a hundred years ago that Harris went to Japan.

He drank to excess and was forgotten in his own country, and at first not thought much of by the Japanese. It was a Geisha girl, Okichi, who was responsible for Harris' regeneration.

Today, the story is a Japanese classic and there is a statue built to the memory of the long ago U.S. ambassador.

Chatted with Eric Johnston, who was here to host the industry dinner for the president of Indonesia. Our head man told me that the foreign grosses this year for motion pictures exceed last year's return. He said business is very good in most of Europe.

Had a glass of champagne with Marilyn Monroe to wish her a happy birthday at the Nedda and Josh Logan party in honor of Josh's brother Marshall Noble, who is traveling with Dr. Sukarno and his party.

The Indonesian delegation of newspapermen (and there were many) weren't interested in whom Marilyn might marry, they were interested in the girl herself. I've never seen anything like the way they swarmed around her.

It gave me a great lift when these men said that my column was printed in Indonesia and they had asked to meet me. They proudly told me there were eighty million people in their country and that motion pictures are very popular. They have no TV and depend entirely on the movies for entertainment.

Chatter in Hollywood: Ever since his return from Japan, Marlon Brando has been an everynight visitor to the apartment of the East Indian beauty Anna Kashfi. You might say he has picked up where he left off before he went on location for "Teahouse of the August Moon." Three days before Marlon went away he met Anna in the Paramount commissary and really gave her the big rush before he planed to the Orient.

Apparently, absence didn't cool his ardor. Very quietly he's taking her to dinner at the less publicized spots and for long rides along the beach roads. However, Marlon isn't the only one in our town who admires the dark-eyed lovely.

At the Kirk Douglas party to welcome Betty Hutton back to pictures after four years absence, Laura La Plante shared the spotlight.

Laura wore a perky red hat and dress, and it wasn't until Betty and Laura got together that they discovered that Laura's daughter, Jill Asher, is teaching Betty's daughter, Candy, at the Buckley School.

"Spring Reunion," which Betty is making with Dana Andrews for Kirk, marks her return to the screen. Laura plays her mother.

Snapshots at Random: A very gracious hostess was Nedda (Mrs. Joshua) Logan, who looked beautiful in a raspberry color gown with matching hat at the cocktail party she and Josh gave for the visiting Indonesians. Just before the arrival of Dr. Surkano, the appearance looking like dolls. two Logan children made their Noticed the president drank two glasses of orange juice, and not one of the newspapermen traveling with him took a drink.

I had the pleasure of introducing the Walter Winchell of Indonesia—the top newspaperman—to Marilyn Monroe. He speaks perfect English. I cannot spell his name.

Rosalind Russell, Freddie Brisson and Kitty Le Roy had to rush off before Eric Johnston's dinner for President Sukarno, because of the preview of "The Bad Seed."

Gracie Allen and George Burns also were early arrivals. They, too, had a dinner engagement.

Roy Rogers told me the little Korean girl he and Dale Evans adopted, will get here June 12th. She's been quarantined with measles. He said their other children were excited about meeting Dr. Sukarno's twelve year old boy.

Jimmy Stewart was so modest they had to push him into the front row to have his picture taken with the president. He has finally finished "Spirit of St. Louis" and he and Gloria are going away on a trip.

Wiley Repeats Support for Ike

Wisconsinite Is Blaming Foreign Policy Haters for Convention Setback

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) proclaimed anew today his support of President Eisenhower's foreign policy and blamed "Eisenhower haters" and "saboteurs" of that policy for a state convention setback.

The Wisconsin GOP convention on May 26 declined to endorse Wiley for renomination and instead chose Rep. Glenn R. Davis (R-Wis) to oppose him in the Sept. 11 primary.

Wiley said in a speech prepared for the Senate that the Davis endorsement was "manipulated" by what he called "a handful of unscrupulous and self-appointed kingmakers." He did not name them, but said news dispatches reported "four individuals" had pledged $150,000 to support Davis' candidacy.

* * *

Wiley said Davis has talked "of our respective percentages of support" for Eisenhower and added:

"Some people who take great pleasure in trying to sabotage the President falsely proclaim that they allegedly support him on domestic policies, even though they fight him tooth and nail on foreign policy."

Such people, he said, proclaim support of the President on "every conceivable domestic issue which is almost completely noncontroversial," but "when the chips are down on a real issue . . . then these people eagerly sabotage the President."

There was no immediate comment from Davis. He says he has consistently supported Eisenhower on domestic matters.

Among other things, Wiley supported the administration's fight against the Bricker amendment to limit the President's treaty-making powers. For that stand he was censured by the Wisconsin state convention in 1953.

Atom Radiation Results Ready

Academy of Sciences to Publicize Findings on June Thirteenth

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Academy of Sciences said today it will make public a week from Wednesday the initial findings of a study of the effects of atomic radiations on man and his environment.

* * *

There are wide differences of opinion among scientists as to the danger, particularly as future generations may be affected.

Announcement of the forthcoming report was made by the academy's president, Detlev W. Bronk, who also heads the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York City.

OF IMPORTANCE

Saying that "more than 100 leading scientists . . . have studied this serious problem for many months," Bronk said in a statement that the findings "are of importance to every man, woman and child" in the world.

He said the report will embrace an assessment of all presently available information as to the effects of radiations on human health, heredity, agriculture and food supplies, the oceans and fish life, and the weather. It also will cover the subject of disposal and dispersal of radioactive wastes.

Bronk made no reference to the controversy that exists about the degree of hazard from atomic radiations—especially as regards the genetic or hereditary aspects.

* * *

The Atomic Energy Commission has been accused by some scientists of using misleading language in its statements that the present rate of testing A-bombs and H-bombs constitutes only a "negligible" radiation hazard to future generations.

Tiger Streak at 6 Games, Beat Yankees, 6-3, 7-4

NEW YORK (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, taking to the road with the enthusiasm of a carnival shill man fresh from winter quarters, were tied for 4th place in the American League today.

A doubleheader victory over the mighty Yankees yesterday extended the longest Bengal winning streak of the year to six games and brought their won-lost average to .500.

Timely hitting by Harvey Kuenn and Charley Maxwell gave the Tigers the back-to-back victories over the league leaders, 6-3 in the opener and 7-4 in a 10-inning nightcap.

The surprising Detroiters, who seem to come alive outside fungo distance of Briggs Stadium, spilled the Yankees twice in six hours and 20 minutes of turnabout baseball. The wins gave the Tigers, the 3-game series, the first the Yankees have dropped since the Bengals pulled the feat last year.

The pitching of Billy Hoeft and the 3 for 4 hitting of Kuenn helped the Tigers through the opener. A 3-run 10th inning rally set in motion by Kuenn's double pulled the last game from the fire.

The Tiger shortstop poled out five safeties in nine trips yesterday for a fat .412 average off Yankee pitching for the series and a sterling .356 average for the year off all offerings.

Maxwell also contributed more than his share. His 2-run homer in the 6th inning of the 2nd game gave the Tigers a 4-2 lead, and his run-scoring double in the 10th wound up the winning rally.

* * *

Just as vital was Maxwell's outfield throw that nipped pitcher Don Larsen at the plate in the 7th and cut off the run which might have kept the game from an extra inning.

Larsen and Steve Gromek started the nightcap but the victory went to Al Aber (2-1) and the loss to Tom Morgan (2-4).

In the 1st game, the winning pitcher was Hoeft and the loser Whitey Ford.

Hoeft gave up nine safeties and his teammates rapped Ford and three relievers for an equal total.

Ford, who dropped his first game this year to Tiger batters, was shelled from the mound in the 5th when Detroit took a permanent lead with four runs off as many hits.

Mighty Mickey Mantle contributed two Yankee hits in the 1st game but lost the range completely in the 2nd.

The two important victories created confusion in the American League pennant race. The double win gave the Tigers a 21-21 average and was the 8th Detroit victory in the last nine games.

The Tigers are idle today and move on to Boston Tuesday for a 3-game series with the Red Sox.

Picked Tigers
Maybe Datatron Didn't Really Blow Its Fuse

NEW YORK (INS) — Datatron's favorite for the American League championship, the Detroit Tigers, is making the electronic brain look good.

* * *

Datatron is one of those know-all, foretell-all mechanical geniuses, a close relative of Univac.

After analyzing scores, averages and other data from the 1953, '54 and '55 seasons, Datatron came up with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Tigers as its 1956 pennant picks.

They're still laughing about the Tiger pick but Yankee manager Casey Stengel, baseball's answer to mechanical brains, isn't so sure the machine blew its fuse.

* * *

For the Tigers are methodically chipping away New York's lead with five victories in eight games with the Bombers.

Yesterday's 6-to-3 and 10-inning, 7-to-4 twin killing before 40,911 fans in Yankee Stadium represented the Yanks' first doubleheader defeat since last July 16.

BEAMING BENGALS—Happy over their double victory against the New York Yankees yesterday, are Tigers Bill Tuttle, Harvey Kuenn and Charley Maxwell (left to right) who put together some clutch hitting to give Detroit a sweep of the three games. The double win boosted the Tigers into a fourth-place tie with Boston, and ran their winning streak to six games.

PIRATE GETS LIFTED — Del Rice, catcher of the Milwaukee Braves (7), falls to his knees and jabs the ball deep into the stomach of Pirate Frank Thomas, lifting Thomas off the ground as the Bucco attempted to go home on a squeeze play in the second game yesterday. The teams split the doubleheader in Milwaukee.

THE POWERHOUSE
By Jimmy Powers

Tom Gallery has just released the roster of football teams that will be telecast locally this year. The list includes Yale, Princeton, Army, Navy, Notre Dame and Syracuse.

★ ★ ★

Apparently millions of New Yorkers will get their gridiron thrills via the orthicon tube this autumn and the "in person" aficianados will have to wait . . . How long? . . . Well, it may not be as distant as imagined earlier.

"So far as the Yankees are concerned there will be an Army-Notre Dame game in the Stadium, and as many good college games as possible — if I can possibly swing it," said George Weiss, the big "GM" of baseball.

"This isn't a 'case-closed' deal at all. I feel this big game belongs in New York—and no other city. It is a traditional New York contest.

★ ★ ★

"I base my optimism on the fact that the Yankees DID bring Army-Notre Dame to New York for 21 of 22 years. Both parties were perfectly satisfied over that span of time.

★ ★ ★

"Contrary to earlier reports, the Yankees offered Army, the host team, every possible concession, rental-wise, short of red ink. The fact that the game is not being played here is definitely not the fault of the Yankees. I'd like to make that point clear."

It is significant to note the one time in 22 years the game was lured away from New York it was taken to a municipal stadium—Soldiers Field, Chicago.

NOW IT GOES TO PHILADELPHIA

Now another municipal stadium, Philadelphia's, gets the plum. Which brings up a painful problem worrying many club owners who own their own parks or lease them from tax-paying corporations.

★ ★ ★

All wrapped up in the knotty problem of private enterprise versus tax-free competition are the Coliseum, the Dodgers at Jersey City and the Indians, Braves, Athletics and Orioles.

★ ★ ★

Some clubs, in a highly competitive sport, can operate at comparatively cheap rentals out of city-owned and, of course, tax-exempt real estate. Others must pay high taxes through the nose. The taxpayer eventually picks up all the tabs for the former.

What worries far-sighted baseball brass is the possibility that eventually those rugged individualists who own their own parks, pay terrific tax bills, maintain their own equipment and gamble their own money on future improvements to the plant, will be squeezed out in the general exodus to the so-called "free" municipal projects.

★ ★ ★

This is happening not only in baseball but in other sports as well. Some pro basketball teams are having their rental tabs picked up by the community taxpayers. We eventually may have all our big golf tournaments played over city-owned courses with the cities paying for the maintenance of the courses and booster committees putting up the purses.

Hit Top After 8 Years
Bucs Lead NL—for 1 Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For 145 golden minutes, the giddy Pittsburgh Pirates led the National League yesterday afternoon before losing the second half of a double-header.

Bobby Bragan's upstarts finished the day six percentage points behind Milwaukee, and it would take a brave man to predict they never again would hit the top.

* * *

The Pirates, whose careening journey from the depths of the cellar has excited the nation, actually lead Milwaukee by half a game in the won-and-lost figures. Due to a difference in total games played (40 by Pittsburgh, 33 by Milwaukee), the Braves hold the edge in percentages.

Milwaukee's muscular home run hitters had smashed 14 in their last three games and 16 in their last four until Pirate pitching clipped their wings. With Bob Friend, Red Munger, Ronnie Kline, Roy Face, Nelson King, Vern Law and Jack McMahon doing their tricks, not a single Milwaukee homer was hit in the four-game series.

When Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee in the first game 3-1 it was the first time they had been in first place since June 16, 1948, when they shared the lead with the then Boston Braves. A two-run uprising in the sixth broke up a tight battle between Face, getting his first start after 15 games in the bullpen, and Milwaukee's Ray Crone. King finally came in to stop the Braves in the ninth with men on second and third and only one out.

Pittsburgh almost pulled out the second game against Bob Buhl but finally bowed 4-3. The Pirates closed the gap to one run in the seventh and had two men on in the ninth with two out when Gene Freese grounded out. The defeat was charged to Law, who gave up all Milwaukee's runs.

The American League "runaway" became more of a pennant race when Detroit dumped the leading New York Yankees twice 6-3 and 7-4 in 10 innings. The results cut the Yanks' lead to 4½ games over Chicago, which took over second by thumping Baltimore in two games 12-0 and 9-2. Cleveland dropped to third in a split at Washington. The Tribe took the first in 12 innings 8-4 with the help of Vic Wertz's three-run homer but Washington won the second 7-1 behind Hal Griggs. Kansas City eked out a 7-6 edge over Boston in 10 innings on Tim Thompson's winning single.

Dick Donovan of the white Sox shut out the Orioles with seven hits in the first game at Baltimore and Jim Wilson, an ex-Oriole, held them to four hits for the sweep. Bob Nieman ruined Wilson's shutout chances with a two-run homer in the fourth.

Five home runs were hit in the first game at Washington with Wertz's big blow the decisive one. Bobby Avila and Jim Began of the Tribe and Lou Berberet and Jim Lemon of the Senators joined the bombing.

* * *

Thompson's winning single in the 10th for Kansas City was his third hit of the game. In relief work by Dave Sisler and George Susce cost Boston the game.

Still Win, 3-2
21 Barons Strike Out

Tom Smith, pitcher for Detroit Country Day, suffered a heart-breaking defeat Saturday. The southpaw hurler struck out 21 batters—and lost.

Bloomfield Hills scored one run in the 7th inning without benefit of a hit to nose out Country Day, 3-2, on the loser's diamond. Mike Monaghan went all the way to 2nd base on a missed 3rd strike and bad throw, stole 3rd, and tallied the winning run on a wild pitch.

In addition to his 21 strikeouts, Smith did not walk a man, although he hit three batters, and gave up only two safeties. Neither hit figured in Bloomfield's scoring.

Ken Newberry pitched the route for the Barons, who concluded their 1st varsity baseball season with three wins and nine losses.

GM, Jets Win in 'A' League

Coachers Roll to 5th Straight Victory With 12-0 Decision

General Motors rolled to its 5th consecutive victory with a 12-0 decision over Griff's Grill and the Anderson Jets came from behind to defeat Oliver Buick, 4-1, in a Class A City Baseball League doubleheader Sunday at Wisner Field.

* * *

GMC continued to display heavy hitting and airtight pitching in defense of its city title. The Coachers bombarded two Grill pitchers with 16 hits to more than adequately support Jerry Taylor's 4-hit shutout.

The unbeaten Coachers settled the issue early with an 8-run, 8-hit assault in the 1st inning. Taylor aided his own cause with a 2-run homer in the 2nd.

Oliver Buick held a 1-0 lead in the nightcap until the 5th stanza when the Jets scored three runs on only one hit, a 2-run single by Hurston Avery. Three straight walks and an infield out tallied one run and set the stage for Avery's key blow.

* * *

Cecil Kaiser hurled the distance for the Jets and effectively scattered six safeties. Ernie Zubalik accounted for Oliver's lone run with a home run blast in the 1st inning. Hudd Johnson, the 2nd of three Buick pitchers, was tagged with the loss.

Villanova Vaulter Makes Three Attempts at Mark

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) — Villanova's Don Bragg has sharpened his challenge to the world pole-vault record of 15 feet 7¾ inches that Cornelius (Dutch) Warmerdam set 14 years ago.

* * *

Still improving, Bragg bettered the National Collegiate outdoor record here Saturday night when he cleared 15-3¾ in winning at the AAU Pacific Assn. meet. The record, 15-1¾, was set in 1951 by Don Laz, formerly of the University of Illinois.

After breaking the Laz record, the 1955 NCAA champion had the bar hoisted to 15-8½ and made three attempts at Warmerdam's record.

Bragg's vaulting, the shot putting by champion Parry O'Brien and the double sprint victory of Duke's sophomore Dave Sime highlighted the meet here. Also there was the driving finish that won the 800 for Villanova's Ron Delany who the night before had run a mile in 3:59.

O'Brien, after winning with a throw of 60 feet ¼ inch, uncoiled a tremendous extra putt and the 16-pound ball traveled the farthest ever, 61-8¼, but it goes into the books only as an exhibition since he had used his official chances for the night. O'Brien's official record is 60-10. He has an outdoor 61-1 and an indoor 61-5¼ awaiting official approval.

* * *

Sime won the 100-yard dash in 9.3 seconds with a gust of aiding wind measured at 4.75 m.p.h., just a breath above the 4.473 allowable for the mark to be submitted as the second time the big sprinter had tied the official world record.

Wolverine Gridder, Co-Ed Hurt in Fall

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Jerry Goebel, University of Michigan football player, was nursing a broken leg today, suffered when a porch railing he and a girl friend were leaning against collapsed.

His date, Joyce Tobeler, 19, suffered a broken arm in the 35-foot fall. Both are from Grosse Pointe.

The 20-year-old first string Wolverine center and his co-ed companion were admitted to University Hospital. Their condition was described as "good."

1st Ace at Glen Oaks

Glen Oaks Golf Club Saturday reported its 1st hole-in-one for the 1956 season. W. J. Herrmanson, Detroit, holed out his tee shot on the 160-yard 3rd green. He used a No. 6 iron and his 18-hole total was 88.

Free Methodist Loop Begins Play Thursday

Free Methodist Church Softball League gets under way Thursday at 6 p.m. for the 1956 season with all four clubs in action. Games are to be played at the General Motors field at Opdyke road.

Ahead in Texas
Littler Has 2-Stroke Lead

DALLAS (AP)—Gene Littler, the cool and calculating Californian who's at his best when the stakes are high, led the $70,000 Texas International Open into its final round today with a two-stroke bulge over Cary Middlecoff, the deliberate dentist from Memphis.

* * *

Littler, ex-amateur king from Singing Hills, Calif., who has won some of golf's biggest purses in his three years as a professional, will be after $13,478 first money. He takes a 54-hole total of 197 into the last round.

* * *

Littler already has one of the largest prizes in golf, the $10,000 first money in the Las Vegas Vegas Tournament of Champions, on his string.

The 25-year-old links star rode easily into the lead in the Texas International yesterday. He started the third round tied with Roberto de Vicenzo, the Argentine who is pro at the Mexico City Country Club. Each had 130 for 36 holes. Gene strode through a three-under-par 67 over the soggy, 6,216-yard Preston Hollow Country Club course.

* * *

De Vicenzo, however, had nothing but trouble on the front nine and wound up with a three-over-par 38. But the strong man of the pampas dug in. He managed a birdie on 12, fell to consecutive bogeys on 13 and 14, then came rolling in with four straight birdies for a par-70, his putter working like a charm.

Clarkston Wins, 12-3

The Clarkston Merchants banged out nine hits to easily defeat Mount Rose, 12-3, in a Tri-County League baseball game Sunday afternoon at Mount Rose. It was Clarkston's 3rd victory in five starts. The Merchants play again this Sunday on the Clarkston field at 2 p.m.

Soft Courses Tough for Qualifiers

By H. GUY MOATS
Pontiac Press Special Writer

After Sunday's rain, and with still threatening sky Pine Lake and Orchard Lake Country Clubs today offered the 138 National Open Golf Championship qualifiers a tough proposition. The fast field got away in two divisions at 7:30 a.m. with few changes in previously announced starters. Eight places for the big National are stake in today's test.

Because of the softness of both courses, in some portions, a few special rules were put in force today. On both layouts the state's top professionals and amateurs will face rather tough going. Courses will play long, with very little, if any, roll on the fairways.

Orchard Lake, particularly, has some special regulations. Players may clean muddied balls on the greens. They may improve lies on three holes, No. 1, No. 9 and No. 18 and any imbedded ball may be lifted and dropped.

* * *

Players got away on schedule at Pine Lake, but there were several withdrawals from the early threesomes at Orchard Lake. These included Mort Cohn of Monroe in the 1st set, Jerry Hood of Detroit in the threesome leaving at 7:50 a.m.

The field at Pine Lake goes over to Orchard Lake after its first 18 hole round. Orchard's field takes to the Pine Lake tees and greens in similar fashion. Pine Lake is official qualifying test headquarters.

Among the early starters were Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile, Bob Whiting of Royal Oak, Ralph Ellstrom of Dearborn, Harold Brink of Grand Rapids, all amateurs; Mike Dietz of Indianwood, former state open champion and medalist in the recent PGA qualifying round. All got off the tees at Orchard Lake.

Early teeoffs at Pine Lake included amateur Tommy Watrous of Royal Oak, pro Eldon Briggs of Saginaw; amateur Art Olfs of Lansing; Horton Smith, Detroit Golf Club.

The field includes Wally Burkemo and Chick Harbert both former PGA champions, Chuck Kocsis, high-up amateur of long standing, and his brother Sam, last year's National Publinx champion.

Badger and Dobson Star in Golf, Tennis Meets

Two Oakland County individuals claimed honors, but area prep teams all fell short of the mark in Saturday's state high school golf and tennis championships.

Bud Badger of Bloomfield Hills fired a 77 to take medalist honors in the Class C-D golf meet at Black River Country Club in Port Huron.

Jerry Dobson of Cranbrook successfully defended his Class B singles title by downing George DeVriee of Lowell, 6-1, 6-4, in the tennis meet at Kalamazoo.

* * *

Cranbrook scored 5½ points to share 2nd place with Kalamazoo State High. East Grand Rapids was the 'B' champion with 7½ points.

Waterford's Jack Reymolds shot 78 as the Skippers finished in a 5th-place tie with Royal Oak on 343 in the Class A golf meet. Birmingham posted 341 to take 4th spot. Dearborn was the surprise winner on 327, with defending champion Jackson and Ann Arbor gaining 2nd and 3rd respectively.

Jackson St. Mary repeated as Class C-D champion. Al Lesert of runner-up Jackson St. John fired a hole-in-one on the 174-yard 4th hole, the 1st ace in state torunament history. Kalamazoo State High won the 'B' title a week earlier.

* * *

Hamtramck won its 8th consecutive Class A state tennis crown while the 'C-D' title was shared by Grosse Pointe University School and Plainwell.

Tigers Take League Lead

Tigers of the Boys' Club Federal Savings Midget baseball loop Saturday came through with a 15-3 victory (their 3rd) over the Indians, to assume the league leadership.

* * *

Losers got only three hits off Tigers' Johnson. Mike Merwin got four RBIs with his three hits, to spark Tiger scoring.

In another game White Sox took a 4-3 win from the Yankees, with the decision in doubt until the last frame. In that inning Sox' Banks, Whiteman and Goff all singled to send the club ahead.

Senators-Athletics tilt was a thriller. Senators came from behind a 3-run early deficit to nearly catch the As, but didn't quite make it, and bowed, 5-4. Athletics never scored after the 1st two big frames, while Senators got tallies in the 3rd, 4th and 5th, but not enough.

In a scoring duel Orioles had the bigger "guns" and beat the Red Sox 10-6. Green, winning hurler, also got three hits in three trips to the plate. Shinnick and Watrous each got two-for-three for losers.

Bauer Sisters in Top Spots

Fay Crocker Falters at Pittsburgh to Tie for 2nd Place

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The famed Bauer golfing sisters are a little richer today, with Marlene picking up $1,350 for first prize in the Churchill Valley Women's Invitational Golf Tournament and Alice pocketing $855 in tying for second.

Marlene, a resident of Asheville, N.C., shot a sparkling 71 yesterday despite soggy greens and inclement weather to finish with a 72-hole total of 293. She posted a two-over-par 38 on the first nine, then came home in a dazzling one-under-par 33 on the par-70—6,000-yard course.

* * *

Meanwhile, sister Alice, from Sarasota, Fla., was posting a final round of 73 to give her a 298 total and a second-place tie with Fay Crocker, U.S. Women's Open champ from Montevideo, Uruguay. Miss Crocker had a final round 77 to lose the one-stroke lead she held for three days.

Other top money winners and their scores included:

Patty Berg, St. Andrews, Ill., and Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., tied for fourth at 299, each collecting $614. Miss Suggs had a 74 on her final round and Miss Berg a 75.

* * *

Beverly Hanson, Apple Valley, Calif., 74-303, $486; Mickey Wright, San Diego, Calif., 77-309 $414; Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Tex., 78-310, $342; Gloria Armstrong, Oakland, Calif., 77-311, $279; Bonnie Randolph, Linworth, Ohio, 82-312, and Betty Dodd, Louisville, Ky., tied for 10th, 80-312. Each won $218.

Pope Pius Warns Working Girls About 'Wolves'

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII has cautioned girls who come to Rome as housemaids to cling to their Christian training and shun "rapacious wolves disguised as lambs."

* * *

In a 15-minute speech to thousands of domestic servants gathered in the Vatican's Benediction Hall yesterday for their annual audience, the pontiff warned the maids not to be too dazzled by the bright lights of the big city.

"The first encounter fills you with amazement," the 80-year-old Pope said. "You may not even imagine what shadows are hidden behind the brilliance of some lights; what mire is ready to dirty and engulf you while you stand astonished before the offer of certain flowers."

It was the Pope's first speech since fatigue weakened his voice last week and forced him to forego addressing crowds.

Wheat Steady, Others Weaker

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat held fairly steady to firm but other grains registered weaker tones on the Board of Trade today.

With the exception of the bread grain, most cereals were lower at the opening, influenced by a number of factors including large cash corn receipts and a weaker tone in soybean oil.

* * *

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ⅜ to ¾ higher, July $2.02⅞; corn ⅛ to ⅝ lower, July $1.49⅛; oats ⅜ to ⅝ lower, July $.64⅛; rye ¼ to 1 lower, July $1.18¾; soybeans ⅜ to 2 lower, July $3.00½; lard 20 to 35 lower, July $11.50.

One Killed, Many Hurt in Rioting at Bombay

BOMBAY (INS) — One person was killed and possibly a hundred injured in Bombay last night when police opened fire on thousands demonstrating against the government.

The mob gathered after Prime Minister Jawahrlal Nehru announced that Bombay would be under federal control for five years. The demonstrators wanted the city included in a Marathi-speaking state.

Virginia extends farther to the west than its neighbor, West Virginia.

Market Makes Slight Progress

NEW YORK (AP) — Only slight progress was made today in the stock market.

* * *

Prices in the early afternoon moved between 1 and 2 points in either direction, but small fractional changes were by far the most numerous.

Trading was around the slowest pace of the year. Friday's total was 1,440,000, the second lowest of 1956, and the rate today was in that neighborhood.

Not a single major group exhibited exclusive tendencies, although the aircrafts showed unchanged to higher inclinations.

Higher stocks included Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, Air Reduction, International Paper, American Tobacco, Santa Fe Railroad, Texas Co. and Hiram Walker.

* * *

Lower were U.S. Steel, Goodrich, Commonwealth Edison, Anaconda Co., Allied Chemical, General Electric, Pennsylvania Railroad and Royal Dutch Petroleum.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 20 cents at $178.80. The better showing of the average was due entirely to strength of individual issues.

* * *

Last week the stock market surged ahead on Tuesday to score the widest advance in 17 years as measured by The Associated Press average which was up $3.30. That broke the back of the three-week reaction which had sent prices tumbling down from around the highest levels on record.

Friday's market was an extremely quiet affair with the AP average up 40 cents on the day at $178.60.

The other drownings were all boys under 15 years old. Three died when a boat capsized in Lake View, northwest of Stanton, drowning Thomas Donsonia, 12, of Saginaw; Lee Sias, 5, and his brother, Gordon, 4, of Lake View.

Death Blast Ruled to Be Self-Inflicted

The Oakland County Prosecutor's Office ruled death by suicide today in the Thursday morning shooting of Mrs. Anna Blasiola, 47, of Bloomfield Township. The woman died Saturday at Pontiac General Hospital.

* * *

The Lenox Road resident was found mortally wounded beside her station wagon near Ortonville early Thursday with a gun in her hand, according to Sheriff's deputies. She was reportedly shot in the head.

Prosecutor Fred Ziem said today that investigation had proven there was no question about it being suicide. He explained that three suicide notes were found near the scene and added that a doctor's examination had disclosed powder burns.

NAACP Official Says: 'Segregation Is Dead'

JACKSON, Miss. (INS) — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, says that segregation is "dead as sure as God made little green apples."

Speaking before some 2,500 cheering Negroes at a state-wide NAACP rally in Jackson's Masonic Temple, Wilkins also predicted fewer Negroes would vote the democratic ticket in this year's presidential election.

Tin Can Mail Story Draws Interest of Press Reader

A Pontiac resident has submitted proof-positive evidence of what might be the most unusual mail delivery scheme ever dreamed up by man.

M. A. Crorkin, of 2413 James K Terrace, noticed a Washington datelined story in the May 24 Pontiac Press on the "Tin Can Island" of Niuafo'ou in the Tonga Islands in the South Pacific.

* * *

The story related to the now-extinct mail delivery method out of the island where natives, clinging to logs, would swim out to ships standing off shore with the outgoing mail.

This mail was wrapped in greased paper put in sealed biscuit cans and tied to the tops of sticks and carried high above the swimmer's head.

But sharks soon intervened with this unique system. So a regular canoe mail service was devised by George Quensell, founder of the old system, to protect the "mailman."

Crorkin is the owner of three pieces of mail from the island. He bought the collection in an auction four years ago for about $10.

* * *

In the collection is a letter from Quensell to a gentleman in Brooklyn. It tells of a four-month period in 1934 that it took the latter's mail to reach the island.

Quensell's letter had a return address of "Tin Can-Canoe Island, Tin Can Mail."

Crorkin, a Ford Motor Co. employe in Detroit, purchased the letters for his stamp and cover (envelope) collection. He said the three pieces are now worth approximately $15.

The small island, inhabited by Polynesians prior to 1946, is a fertile crater famous for growing some of the largest coconuts in the South Pacific. The British-owned isle was vacated in 1946 after a severe volcanic eruption.

The Tonga Island, a British possession, with a population of 47,000, sits 2,800 miles southwest of Honolulu.

* * *

Niuafo'ou (pronounced nio-foo) Island was encircled by towering lava cliffs making landings impossible. No harbor was available which necessitated the Quensell mailing system.

As the paddling postmen's fame spread, stamp collectors sent countless letters to be reposted from the 10-square mile with the "Tin Can Mail" imprint.

Northwest Eyes Threat of Rain

Columbia River Rising; 1,000 Evacuated; Army Calls Flood Emergency

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain clouds threatened to send more water into the flooding Columbia River in the Pacific Northwest today.

* * *

Some 1,000 people have been evacuated and thousands of acres of land have been flooded as the Columbia and its tributaries carried runoffs from record mountain snowpacks.

A crest of 27 feet has been forecast at Vancouver, Wash., where the Columbia rose to nearly 12 feet above flood stage. Army engineers expected the major dikes to hold at a 28-foot level.

MANY TOWNS HIT

However, one major diking district went underwater yesterday when workers gave up efforts at closing a hole in a levee apparently burrowed by beavers. The water covered 1,600 acres of land and 12 families who lived in the area were evacuated.

* * *

A number of river communities on the Washington side of the river were flooding.

* * *

The Kootenai, a Columbia tributary in Idaho, rose to near record crests at Bonners Ferry. Some 18,000 acres of Idaho farmland have been flooded.

* * *

The upper Snake in eastern Idaho and Wyoming also was well above flood stage. A flood emergency has been called by Army engineers for several communities bordering the Snake.

MSU Schedules June 21 as Elevator Career Day

LAPEER—Young men from Lapeer County who are interested in a career in the feed and grain trade may take part in the fifth annual Elevator Career Day at Michigan State University, June 21.

Jim Crosby, Lapeer County assistant agricultural agent, points out there is a shortage of qualified elevator men in Michigan and in other states.

Salaries offered, he says, range from $4,000 to $5,000 for qualified personnel, depending upon ability and experience.

They will learn about the elevator and farm supply short course which opens Sept. 24 at MSU, Crosby said. And they will be told how to apply for the many scholarships furnished by the feed and grain trade. Scholarships are $100 for each term of work at MSU.

The course includes two terms at MSU, experience in an elevator for two terms, and two more terms of classroom work. The experience in an elevator pays the trainee about $65 a week, according to George Greenleaf, in charge of the course. He indicates there are many requests for graduates of the course which remain unfilled.

Prospective students will hear about opportunities in the trade from E. G. Cherbonnier, St. Louis, Mo., dean of the feed and grain business and an advisor to the National Grain and Feed Dealers' Association.

Group counseling sessions will be under the direction of members of the trade: Charles Force, Kalamazoo; James Bluss, Michigan Elevator Exchange; Ray Bohnsack, Farm Bureau, Lansing; and Don Shepard of thea MSU short course department.

Guy Rench, Chesaning, veteran feed and grain man, is chairman of the event.

U. S. Milk Sale Shows Increase

Dairymen Enjoy Better Profits in Survey Taken by Texas A & M

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (INS) —United States cows and U. S. Dairymen both are becoming more efficient.

The Texas A&M College extension Service has analyzed a report on the subject, from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and comes up with the conclusion the number of farms in the country selling milk is declining, yet the total milk sales have reached a new record high. Sales per farm have increased rapidly.

The report from the Texas college said statistics showed for the country as a whole, a decline of 19 per cent betewen 1944 and 1950 and an additional 20 percent from 1950 to 1954, in the number of farms reporting milk cows.

Sales of whole milk per farm averaged 88,000 for the United States in 1954, or 240 pounds per day. All states showed a higher average per farm in 1954 than five years earlier.

Part of the increase in volume was ascribed to higher production per cow. The rest was due to more cows per farm. The gain in average rate of production per cow for the past 15 years has been between one and two percent annually. The greater amount of milk from each cow was due to improved stock and better feeding and management.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR, WE INVITE COMPARISON WITH ANY OTHER CUSTOM HOME IN THIS CLASS AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

$52 PER WEEK, IS THE INCOME THAT THE PRESENT OWNER IS GETTING FOR THIS 3-FAMILY. WITH A GENERAL CLEAN-UP AND PAINT JOB, YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO REALIZE ADDITIONAL RENT. THIS BUY IS ON THE WATER AT CASS LAKE IN KEEGO HARBOR

IF YOU OBJECT TO PAINTING, THEN WE SUGGEST THAT YOU TRY THIS 3 BEDROOM FULL BASEMENT HOUSE WITH ITS NEVER-REQUIRING-PAINTING ALUMINUM SIDING. IT ALSO HAS A LOW-INTEREST RATE MORTGAGE.

OUR PROPERTIES ON AND NEAR ELIZABETH LAKE WILL STAND THE MOST RIGID INSPECTION BY EITHER THE SMALL HOME BUYERS OR PEOPLE WITH AN EYE TO THE FUTURE WHO CAN AFFORD AN INCOME PROPERTY.

GETTING BACK TO THE CITY, WE HAVE THE NEIGHBORHOOD SHOWPIECE AVAILABLE AT $12,000. COMPLETELY REDECORATED INSIDE AND OUT, AND WITH ITS LOCATION YOU ELIMINATE THE NEED FOR 3 CARS.

THIS OWNER HAS 2 SEPARATE HOUSES AND WANTS TO SELL. WHAT DID HE DO??? HE CALLED OUR OFFICE AND OF COURSE HE IS NOW GETTING REAL SERVICE. ONE IS AN OLDER FRAME HOME THAT NEEDS SOME REPAIRS AND PAINT. THIS OFFERING IS FOR THE BARGAIN-HUNTING DO-IT-YOURSELF PERSON. HIS OTHER ONE IS A CITY INCOME THAT BRINGS IN A FULL $20 PER WEEK PER UNIT OR A GRAND TOTAL OF $40 FOR THE TWO. Dale Robertson Weds Actress Mary Murphy

YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — Actor Dale Robertson and actress Mary Murphy, a steady twosome for several years, are honeymooning here today after an elopement. They drove alone from Hollywood and were married here yesterday by a Baptist minister in a wedding chapel.

It was the second marriage for Robertson, 32, and the first for Miss Murphy, 25.

Royalty Incognito

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — They aren't all muts and cross-breeds in a city pound. Sometimes there's a treasure. Mrs. L. K. Stout got a kitten from the pound for her children. They entered it in the household pet division of a cat show. The manager suggested they reenter it in the black Persian male division. It won.

Most birds perch crosswise on a tree limb, but the nighthawk perches lengthwise on it.

Frankie Laine Signed as Wednesday Sub for Godfrey This Summer

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK (INS)—Hal March gets $11,500 for his star role in a musical spectacular July 15. Steve Allen wrote the score . . .

The book (a "Tender Trap" type) is by Seaman Jacobi and Arnie Rosen who originated much of Jackie Gleason's TV fun . . .

Carol Haney may get the star spot opposite Hal . . .

Frankie Laine gets the Godfrey summer sub Wednesday nights.

Charlie Andrews, Garroway's first fine writer in TV's wonderful early "Chicago school" days, will write-produce the Laine show, for which Frankie will get $5,000 per Wednesday.

In case you want to take off the next six weeks and can't stir until you know how the Steve Rowlands, who've won eight years of $100-per-week income on "Do You Trust Your Wife," will make out—they actually have won 14 years to date (the film the show that far ahead, you see) . . .

That's $78,000—'way ahead of "$64,000 Question."

DEAN MEMORIAL

ABC has a "James Dean Memorial Spectacular" in mind with clips from his films . . .

Danny Costello of the Godfrey gang could be another Julius La Rosa . . .

Frank Parker gives Arthur's shows their only dependable touch of gaiety . . .

The sponsor decided to cancel Bob Hope's final TV show of the season June 12 so NBC will repeat "The Twisted Cross," Hitler documentary . . .

Vic Damone hopes to prop up his sagging career as summer sub for "December Bride" . . .

NBC has been talking over a "Television City" with the Rockefellers and their architect . . .

MGM DEAL OFF

MGM's $50,000,000 deal to sell its old films to TV apparently is off.

CBS got so many requests for Victor Borge show ducats next month, a bigger studio will be used . . .

Old Loretta Young TV films will succeed "Mama" in August . . .

"Big Story" returns for another season . . . Danny Thomas' ABC-TV series was renewed, of course, and Leo Durocher signed for another NBC year . . .

One of the fat Egan brothers of Hartford who won $32,000 on "The $64,000 Question" caught the telefever and now is a local TV quizmaster . . .

Johnny Carson's new CBS-TV daytimer is strictly conventional and makes you wonder why Jack Paar and R. Q. Lewis were dropped . . .

Sonja Henie Ready to Wed Once Again

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Daily News said today ice queen Aonja Henie and shipping magnate Niels Onstad revealed last night in an interveiw that they will be married within 10 days.

The 46-year-old Onstad, a Norwegian, is living in Manhattan. Miss Henie, 43, also has an apartment here.

The skater's marriage to socialite Winthrop Gardiner Jr. ended in divorce last month. She previously was married to Dan Topping, co-owner of the New York Yankees baseball team.

Opera Star Pearce Off for Russian Tour

NEW YORK (AP) — Metropolitan Opera star Jan Peerce took off by plane yesterday for a month's tour of the Soviet Union.

The tenor, who was born on Manhattan's Lower East Side, said he was "glad to be going" and wanted to show the Russians "how a man can advance himself under democracy."

Real Live Gluttons

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Crabs, starfish and snails are big eaters, Gunnar Thorson of the University of Copenhagen's zoological museum told an international meeting of marine scientists. They eat 20 to 30 per cent of their own weight in food daily during their growing period, he said. A 90-pound boy would have to eat 18 to 27 pounds a day to match that.

Barry Sullivan Credits Success to Baggy Eyes

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"What's the secret of your acting success?" I asked Barry Sullivan—a real corny question—and he answered, "The bags under my eyes."

"My beat-up look," he added.

"For years," he says, I looked like a baby-face, I finally got the message. A kind of a harassed face makes a man more interesting to women. So it became very important to me that I go out and get some bags under my eyes."

BARRY SULLIVAN

"How did you carry out this difficult assignment?"

"I studied Humphrey Bogart. I guess everybody knows how he gets bags."

And sure enough, when he looked like he'd been out all night — which he hadn't been, of course — he got the Lt. Barney Greenwald part in "Caine Mutiny Court Marital" and the title role in the new TV series, "The Man Called X." And the chance to do "A Bell for Adano" on TV.

Horse playing is one of the inconveniences he forced himself into to acquire that harassed look.

"Where? Why, wherever I happen to be. Got to drive myself, you know. One day out at 'Anita,' I had a long bet on a $60 horse. Well, I went right out and bought my trusting wife a mink coat."

He's perhaps added to his beat-up look by not learning his lines thoroughly before filming his TV show.

"I've watched too many actors 'freeze,'" he said. "They're the ones who've learned it perfectly—in front of the bathroom mirror."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The whole NY Yankee team is exposed to the mumps! Nicky Kass, 12, baseball whiz on "Break the Bank," sat on the bench, on the laps of Mickey Mantle, et al., then went home and got mumps. Mantle, Billy Martin, Yogi Berra and Phil Rizzuto all "got funny swollen fellings"—but doctors say it's psychomatic, though warning that the danger period has several days to go. A Giant fan asks, "Any way we can rent that kid and send him to Brooklyn?"

Beautiful Dana Wynter tells us she'll retire from movies after marrying Greg Bautzer within two weeks. Adds the British star, who'll be 24 June 9, "Greg prefers it, and in him I'm getting something much, much greater than a career" . . . Frank Sinatra's been phoning Nancy in L. A. from Madrid. What's up?

Comedian Ole Olsen, deeply religious now, is off to London to play for a week in the Moral Rearmament show . . . Jackie Gleason's going to fight camp with Rocky Marciano, hoping to work off 60 lbs. . . . Eddie Foy Jr. went to Cincy to see Eddie rd in "Damn Yankees" and a rumor spread he'd wed dancer Doris Lorenz (untrue, however).

Victor Mature's ex, Dorothy, is enroute to Spain. She'll see Sinatra . . . The Andrews Sisters reunited and will open in Las Vegas . . . Sloan Simpson's in the hotel biz in New hope, Pa. . . . Carol Nelson, an ex-Miss Hollywood, is now also "Miss Perfect Posture."

The newly-opened Coliseum rejected an international bebop fesival . . . Nat "King" Cole got his first bid for inclusion in "Who's Who in America" . . . Eddie Fisher's intimates shrug off reports of a hassle between Eddie and his manager, Milton Blackstone . . . Alfred Hitchcock mused to singed Leyna Gabriele, "Wouldn't it be dramatic if, while you were singing, a customer got up and shot you . . ."

CAROL

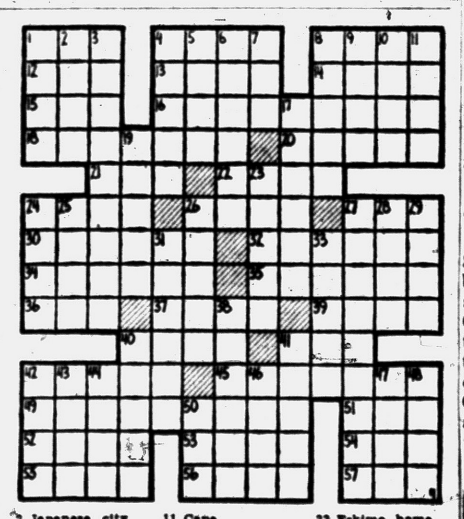

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

Man is peculiar. He makes his home insect-proof and air-conditioned—then goes out on a picnic.—S. S. Biddle.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The cocktail circuit reports that women fall into three age groups—looked at, looked over and overlooked."—Les and Liz Carpenter.

"The man who can make a women listen," says Charlie Jones, "usually does it by talking to someone else." . . . That's earl, brother.

Adlai Is Called on Racial Issue

Kefauver Making Final Bid for California Votes in Populous South

By WAYNE HARBERT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver carried to Los Angeles today his determined bid for victory in California's presidential primary after calling for Adlai Stevenson to speak further on racial integration.

* * *

Why is it that "the Talmadges, the Ellenders, the Caldwells are flocking to his banner?" the Tennessean asked in a speech in a Negro district of Oakland. He said he had hoped his Democratic opponent against whom he contends in tomorrow's primary for California's 68 convention votes would end desegregation as an issue by answering the question.

"Has anything been said in private to these segregationists that makes him more acceptable than I?" Kefauver asked.

"The quicker this subject gets out of politics . . . the sooner the problem will be solved," he said.

QUESTIONS SUPPORT

Kefauver acknowledged that Stevenson's own statements upholding the U.S. Supreme Court's order to end segregation in the schools are like his. But he asked why it is that Millard Caldwell, a former Florida governor; Herman Talmadge, an ex-governor of Georgia; and Sen. Ellender (D-La) supported Stevenson in the Florida primary.

* * *

The weary senator ended his northern California campaign with a midnight flight to the populous south. He told an Oakland audience of about 200 he expects to win in California by 185,000 votes.

In a statewide television program, the senator said Californians, in choosing between him and Stevenson, will choose "a timid campaign" or "an aggressive, liberal campaign—one which shows there really is a difference between the Democratic nominee and President Eisenhower."

Pontiac Girl Wins in Baton Twirling Meet

Seven year old Nacny Strassburg, a 2nd grader at Willis School, took first place honors in a baton twirling contest held at Florida, Ohio. There were more than 70 participants from the midwest entered in the contest.

Miss Strassburg won the beginner's division event and 2nd place in a twirl-off of the advanced division.

She has been practicing with the baton since last September.

Ponce Enriquez Leads in Ecuador Elections

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Conservative Camilio Ponce Enriquez took a mounting lead for Ecuador's top office today as returns from Sunday's presidential election reached the two-thirds mark.

Ponce had trailed the other three candidates in the early returns but during the night built up a solid lead. He was the only Conservative candidate, while Liberal, Leftist and Independent forces were split.

But—It Was Rabbit

DENVER (AP)—Albert Moss wants his entry fee returned. He entered his beagle, Bella, in a dog show at Pueblo, Colo., with high hopes of winning a title. The hopes and Bella vanished when the hound went over the hill in pursuit of a rabbit. She hasn't been seen since.

Minister Wins Out

ANDARKO, Okla. (AP) — Newt Spradlin is going to think twice before making more rash propositions. The Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg went into Spradlin's store to buy a bicycle and the proprietor told him "if you can ride the bicycle out of here you can have it." Gregg mounted the two-wheeler and rode off.

$100 Is Yours If You Answer Puzzle No. 2

POT-O-GOLD, the Pontiac Press' exciting new summer word game, begins its second week with Puzzle No. 2, below. It's fun—read the directions carefully, fill out your entry and send it in. It can mean at least $100 to you every time you win.

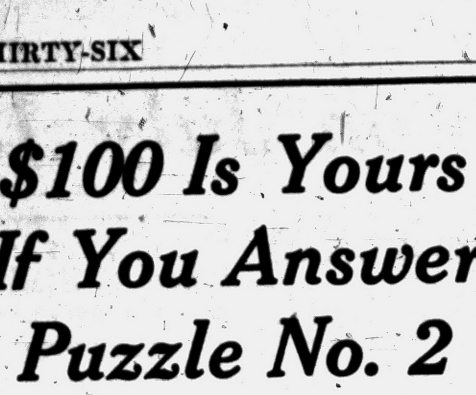

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then, would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conform to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

That's all there is to it. Good luck!

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end, Labor Day. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries become the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.
