Life Rafts Spotted Off Spain

Search Planes Report No Sign of Life Aboard

Air Force Says Ships to Reach Scene at Noon — Fogs Closing In

LONDON (AP) — Search planes today spotted two life rafts off Spain where a giant American military airliner is believed to have crashed three days ago—but radioed they saw no sign of life on either raft.

An earlier report said there appeared to be 1 man on one of the Gibson Girl rafts capable of holding 20 men.

U. S. Air Force headquarters at Ruislip announced:

"No sign of life has been observed on either of two life rafts observed from the air."

The missing plane, a C118 Liftmaster with a crew of nine Navy men, was carrying 50 Air Force men back to the Air Force base at Lincoln, Neb., from duty in

Father Jailed in Child Cruelty

Charge Waterford Man in Alleged Burning of Son's Hands

Arthur D. Martin Jr., 27, of 2839 Newberry Rd., Waterford Township, waived examination and was bound over to Circuit Court Friday on a cruelty charge involving the alleged burning of his four-year-old son's hands.

The factory worker, who police say admitted he inflicted the burns to teach the child a lesson, will be arraigned in Circuit Court Oct. 22. He was lodged in the county jail under $3,000 bond following an arraignment yesterday.

The child, Dennis, is under treatment for first and second degree burns which the father reportedly caused by holding his hands over the flame of a lighted gas stove.

The charge concerns only Dennis, although another son, Terry, 2, was also said to have been burned slightly by Martin.

He was arrested Thursday by Township police after his wife, Shirley, 22, complained to the county prosecutor's office about the incident. She said she was working at a nearby drive-in restaurant when the burning occurred.

Bleeding Wrist Traps Burglar Cut at Breakin

Blood from his slashed wrist tripped up a burglar who admitted he cut himself climbing through a broken window into a grocery store at 78 Lull St. last night, Pontiac police said today.

James H. Chambers, 29, of 446 Branch St., was arrested a half-block away, holding the injured wrist.

Police suspected him after finding blood on the glass. They said they believe a companion driving a getaway car escaped with several bottles of whiskey.

Honor Guard at Funeral

Soldiers Who Loved Him Bury 4-Year-Old Stevie

Soldiers in Auburn Heights said good-by to their little captain this morning.

Four-year-old Stevie Jones, cancer victim whose friendly wave and cheerful grin won him many khaki-clad friends and an honorary rank in the 516th AAA Missile Battalion, was buried in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery after services at the Dudley H. Moore Funeral Home.

The 100 members of D Battery, excused from inspection at their Nike base, showed Stevie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Jones of 3481 Featherstone Rd., that their only child had many friends.

Soldiers served as pallbearers and honor guard for the tow-headed youngster whose plight they understood fully only a few months ago.

Stevie, unofficial mascot since the battery arrived a year ago, was a victim of cancer which attacked his nervous system. He lost one eye to the disease last October.

Just the same, the youngster in love with the Army stood every day at the road by his house and waved as his friends returned to lunch. They came to expect him there.

Others were fond of Stevie, too. Auburn Heights firemen made him an honorary fire chief and gave him a ride on their truck.

On Stevie's fourth birthday, last Oct. 24, soldiers gave a party at their mess hall. Weak from illness, Stevie had to be carried in for ice cream, cake and presents from the soldiers.

During his last few days, he was careful to wear them when he was carried out at noon by his mother to give the strongest wave he could muster to the passing GIs.

At the hospital last week, he planned to ride home in an Army truck which the soldiers had promised him.

It was a promise they couldn't keep.

Ike Defends Wealthy Aides

President Appears on Nationwide TV Question and Answer Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower warmly defended last night his use of men from "big business" in key administration jobs. But he also told a member of a garment workers union "you are just as important to me as any millionaire that ever walked the earth."

In an unprecedented nationwide radio-TV question and answer session, Eisenhower also said at the outset key nations involved in the Suez Canal crisis had at long last "agreed on a set of principles on which to negotiate."

Both during and after the broadcast, Eisenhower replied to questions from what the White House called "a cross section of Americans" invited to Washington from all sections of the country by the National Citizens for Eisenhower Committee. He met with them in a Washington hotel.

The broadcast portion had ended when he got an inquiry dealing with the men from "big business" to whom he has given top government jobs.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, has been accusing Eisenhower of turning over his administration to big business and forgetting about "the little fellow."

Against that background, Isadore Siegal of New York identified himself as a member of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union for 25 years and "an independent voter." Then he told Eisenhower:

"I voted for you in 1952. I didn't make up my mind yet in this election.

"You have a lot of people that are big shots in the cabinet. I

Commissioners Delay Decision on RR Yard Site

Call Meeting With GM Representatives; Doubt of Proposal Expressed

Pontiac city commissioners once again stalled Grand Trunk Western Railroad from beginning its proposed $700,000 industrial support yard. The commission called for a meeting with General Motors representatives before handing down a long-awaited decision on the yard.

Several of the commissioners openly expressed doubt at the conclusion of last night's two-hour meeting that the railroad would ever alter its determination that the yard must be built where it proposes it.

The meeting between the City Commission and four railroad officials was another in an attempt to solve a four-month discussion between the two groups.

Frank N. Gaffney, Grand Trunk vice-president and general manager, said he "resented" the commission "for putting it's theory against our experience" in its insistence that the yard be constructed at a city-suggested site.

In June, the railroad requested approval from Pontiac to build the yard south of Walton boulevard, north of its present belt line, and between Baldwin avenue on the east and Stanley avenue on the West.

City officials have opposed this site, claiming it will block a planned extension of Stanley needed to lessen overflow traffic congestion on Baldwin.

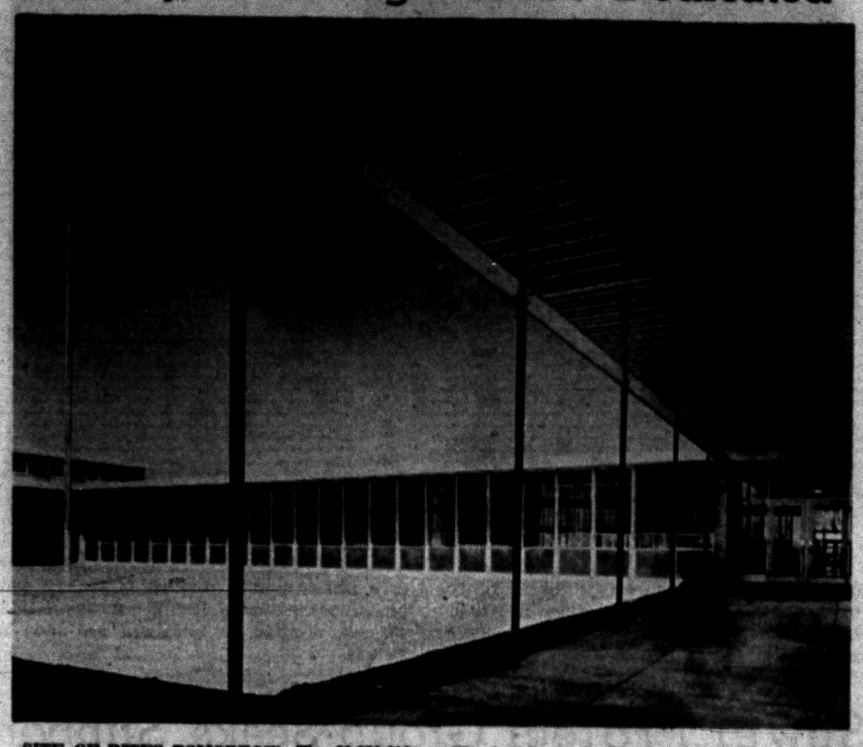

If it can be arranged, the meeting with GM officials will be held Tuesday night.

RULE OUT 2ND SITE

Commissioners again asked why the yard couldn't be put to the southwest of the railroad's site paralleling Telegraph or north of Columbia avenue, south of Walton,

New Junior High to Be Dedicated

SITE OF RITES TOMORROW—The $1,250,000 new James Madison Junior High School will be dedicated in a ceremony at 3 p.m. tomorrow. The building, of which a portion is shown here, houses more than 700 students. It was placed in use in February.

Madison School Dedication Set

Main speaker will be Dr. Donald Leu, associate professor of education administration and director of building planning for Michigan State University. He will speak to visiting parents and friends on "A School for Tomorrow."

Also on the program which opens a full week of dedication activities will be Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools, who will present the building; Louis H. Schimmel, president of the Board of Education who will accept the building for Pontiac, and Principal George Yansen who will welcome guests.

Listed on the program which precedes an open house until 7 p.m. will be C. H. Haberkorn of H. E. Beyster Associates, the architectural firm in charge of the building, and Mrs. Alice Jewell, chairman of the Americanism Committee of Cook-Nelson Post of the American Legion. Both will present flags which will be accepted by Charlene Dortch and Thomas Hoisington, presidents of Madison Student Council.

MAYOR TO ACT

Mayor William W. Donaldson will proclaim the week James Madison Junior High School week in Pontiac.

The Rev. Edmond Watkins of Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church will give the invocation. Mrs. Lyle Cos, president of the Madison PTA, will give benediction.

Music will be furnished by the junior high Glee Club directed by William Coffing. Instructor Jean McFarlane will sing.

The one-and-a-quarter million dollar building houses over 700 students. Students moved into the building in February before it was fully completed.

The gymnasium-cafeteria wing and the music facilities were completed over the summer in time for opening in September.

Adlai Charges Ike Twisting His Ban on H-Bomb Tests

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson flew home from an intensive campaign in the Far West today, pinning high hopes for a Democratic victory on making his proposal to ban H-bomb tests a major issue.

He said he will devote a nationwide TV broadcast to it from Chicago Monday night—9:30 Pontiac time on ABC.

Stevenson arrived in Chicago this morning and drove directly to his Libertyville farm where he will spend the weekend.

The proposal to ban H-bomb tests was Stevenson's big gun as he wound up a five-day aerial stumping tour through California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana. Their total of 55 electoral votes all went to Eisenhower in 1952.

But he also sought as in his wind-up speech at San Diego last night to make these other points before a cheering crowd of 4,700.

1. Eisenhower has failed as a leader and, if re-elected, will be "a lame duck president" since law prohibits a third term. Therefore a vote for Eisenhower is a vote for Vice President Nixon.

2. Eisenhower is a Republican "indistinguishable" from the party leadership and "the Republican old guard still rides high."

3. Under Eisenhower national policy is "stalled on dead center," there is "a paralysis of will" and "something has gone out of American life . . . something that gave people's lives meaning and dignity."

Stevenson said Eisenhower misrepresented his proposal to ban hydrogen bomb tests. He told an airport crowd of about 2,000 at Long Beach:

"The President has indicated that I proposed that we halt tests of atomic weapons. I didn't propose any such things. I proposed that we halt tests of hydrogen weapons.

"They are not the same thing at all. Perhaps someone ought to explain to him the difference. He has indicated that I favor discontinuance of research in atomic weapons. I didn't propose that at all."

Cashier Held in Rifling Till

Charge Store Employe Stole $650 From Boss Over 7 Months

A West Bloomfield Township market cashier will be examined in Justice Court Oct. 23 on a charge she embezzled about $650 over a period of seven months.

Mrs. Josephine L. Schwartz, 23, of Detroit demanded the examination at an arraignment Thursday before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

She was arrested at the store at 7371 Orchard Lake Rd. Thursday by township police.

Mrs. Schwartz was arrested after she allegedly failed to ring up a purchase by a state trooper and placed the money in her shoe, police said.

Store owner Charles Cole told police he has been missing funds since March 1. Mrs. Schwartz is in the Oakland County Jail under $500 bond.

16 Miles of Xway to Open

LANSING (AP) — Another important link in the planned Detroit-Chicago Expressway will open to traffic Monday near Jackson. It is the so-called Jackson North Belt, a stretch of fourlane divided highway on U. S. 12 from four miles east of Jackson to west of Parma, a distance of 16 miles.

Decision Goes to U. N. Council for Approval

See Big Debate Ahead Before Voting on Plan to Ease Tension

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council was called on today to approve six principles on which Britain, France and Egypt have agreed to base settlement of their Suez Canal dispute.

The council was expected to unanimously endorse a resolution being drafted by Britain and France, but there were signs a long debate might precede the vote.

Agreement on the six principles was reported to the council in a two-hour secret session last night.

They call for freedom of navigation, respect for Egyptian sovereignty, insulation of the canal from national politics, fixing of tolls by agreement between Egypt and the users, use of a fair part of the dues for canal improvement and arbitration of any disputes between Egypt and the expropriated Suez Canal Co.

President Eisenhower in Washington hailed the development as "most gratifying." He declared it looks as though "a very great crisis is behind us."

Secretary of State Dulles was reported highly pleased over the latest step and said there seems to be solid ground for a favorable outcome.

The agreement resulted from six private huddles among British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau, Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi and U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Pineau said, "great progress has been achieved." But he added, "As for implementation of these principles, we have not gone too far yet." He said France and Britain still believe the 18-nation proposals are the best means of implementation but Egypt still disagrees.

'Situation Saved'

Here's the Summer We Missed in August

It will be warmer tonight. A low of 60 to 64 is predicted.

The forecast for the Pontiac vicinity tomorrow is partly cloudy and warm. The temperature is expected to reach 82 to 86.

The low last night in the downtown Pontiac area was 54. At 2 p.m. today the mercury rose to 79.

Williams Talks on Farm Policy

Governor Says State Agriculture Problems Have Been Met

BERRIEN SPRINGS (UP)—Gov. Williams says his administrations have been good ones for the farmers of the state.

At a Democratic dinner meeting here Friday night, he said his staff has kept in close touch with farm organization leaders, worked hard on farmers' problems and made significant accomplishments.

"The Republican candidate says he doesn't know anything about the problems of farmers, but if he is elected he will call in some farmers and find out what to do," Williams said.

"That idea comes a little late." Williams said in recent years that with organized community help 17 special marketing drives have been conducted to work off agricultural surpluses.

One of these is under way now to dispose of this year's bumper grape crop, he said.

Williams said the State Soil Conservation Program has expanded greatly until it includes 30,000 farmers and 90 per cent of state farm lands.

He cited the new animal industries center and veterinary medicine school at Michigan State University as achievements of cooperative effort in which his administration had a hand.

"It is because we have worked together that we do not need to concern ourselves with someone else's idle promise to continue what you and I together successfully have been doing right along," he said.

EAST-WEST BATTLE — Tanya Chwastov, 2½-year-old Philadelphia born girl, is carried off the Soviet ship Molotov by her father, Alexis, in London yesterday a half-hour before they were scheduled to sail for Russia. A writ was issued by a British court to hold her in England until her custody is decided. Her mother, Mrs. Helena Dieczok, divorced, is remarried and lives in Detroit.

Sewer Project Group Seeks Support From County to Finance Credit Bonds

Representatives of the six municipalities involved in the off-again on-again Evergreen Interceptor Sewer project voted to ask Oakland County to put its full faith and credit behind bonds for the project.

Supervisors will act on the request at their meeting Tuesday morning.

The move would clear the way for financing the project, stymied now by the confused legal status of Southfield Township.

Township voters have approved extra millage for the sewer three times, but bonding companies were reluctant to handle the township's share because of legal technicalities.

Yesterday's meeting was called by Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, at the request of Birmingham City manager Harold K. Schone.

Schone is secretary of a splinter group, the North Evergreen Authority, formed after the collapse of the original project to handle sewage from Birmingham Troy, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield township in an expanded Birmingham treatment plant.

Original plans called for piping the sewage into Detroit for treatment there, but the line would have passed through Southfield.

Southfield and Lathrup Village, now facing contempt charges for allegedly failing to alleviate pollution conditions, have made several attempts to launch a similar "South Evergreen" authority, but have grounded on financial rocks.

According to bonding attorney Claude Stevens, if the Board of Supervisors agrees to back the project, state legislation will be needed to authorize the action.

Stevens said there is no hope of getting such legislation passed before January.

Meanwhile, if Southfield votes to accept its second proposed City charter Dec. 3, county support for the project will not be needed, since the new city then would be able to levy taxes outside the present 15-mill limitation.

OCT. 25—Brucker at Caro, Vassar and Saginaw.

Blood Bank Issues Appeal for Month's Quota

The Community Blood Bank of Oakland County has issued an appeal for help to reach its quota for the first time in three months by donating a pint of blood from 2 to 8 p.m. Monday at the Elks Club.

"We need blood desperately," said blood chairman Mrs. Adolph H. Magnus today. She said the monthly quota is 800 pints which has not been reached since June.

All walk-ins and donors by groups will be welcome during the six-hour session as only 53 appointments have been made for contributors thus far.

Mrs. Magnus, who has charge of the blood drive for Pontiac and surrounding areas, pointed out the heavy demands of county hospitals make the need for blood urgent. "We collected only 380 pints from Sept. 1 to Oct. 1 and yet released 662 pints to hospitals," she said in explanation of the low local supply.

President Defends Rich Cabinet Aides

want to ask you, Mr. President, do you think of all the working people alike — like in the big business?"

Sitting in the room with Eisenhower, you could see his jaw set, his face flush just a bit. Then he noted that he had remarked earlier that he grew up in a family that had to struggle to make ends meet. And he went on to tell Segal:

"You or anybody else is just as important to me as any millionaire that ever walked the earth.

"Now I have three or four very successful businessmen in my cabinet. My friend, in the Defense Department is spending something like 40 billion dollars a year of our money.

"Who would you rather have in charge of that—some failure who never did anything, or a successful businessman?"

Referring then to Secretary of Defense Wilson, former president of General Motors Corp., Eisenhower went on in crackling tones:

"I got the head of the biggest company I could go to, General Motors, and said, 'will you come in and do this for us?' I think he has been doing a good job."

Alluding then to wealthy George M. Humphrey, Eisenhower said:

"I have got another businessman of the same sort in charge of the Treasury, because he is the kind of man that not only just doesn't hoard money, he uses money for the good of America, to build jobs."

In contrast, then, he mentioned Secretary of Agriculture Benson and pictured him as a man "I suppose, (who) hasn't a cent. . . . I know he is a poor man." The President added:

"Now, that is the kind of people we have, all kinds of people, in that cabinet, and I assure you that they are doing one thing—they are working day and night for your benefit, yours and mine."

The news conference was attended by question-askers from many walks of life—a school teacher, a minister, an insurance executive, a sailor, a lawyer, a real estate man, a fisherman, a stenographer, a dress shop proprietor, to mention a few.

Waterford Set for GOP Rally

Potter Guest of Honor; Cobo and Broomfield to Attend Tuesday

Plans for a barn dance and political rally Tuesday night in the Waterford Hill barn of Donald E. White have been completed, White said today.

Republican Sen. Charles E. Potter will be guest of honor, and Detroit Mayor Albert E. Cobo will head the list of GOP candidates present.

Congressman George A. Dondero plans to attend the rally, and State Sen. William S. Broomfield, seeking to succeed Dondero, also will appear.

According to White, invitations have been distributed to homes throughout the northern part of Oakland County, "but it isn't necessary to have an invitation to attend."

Dancing and short hayrides will be offered, White added, and the rally is open to the public.

Police Arrest 8 on Liquor Counts

Three Juvenile Boys, Five Others Under 21 Nabbed at Party

Pontiac police made eight arrests on liquor offenses when called to a "noisy" party last night at 370 E. Tennyson Ave.

Three juvenile boys and five others under 21, including three girls, were among those charged.

Robert Putman, 21, of 244 W. Brooklyn St. was charged with furnishing beer to minors. Kenneth L. Majors, 46, of 368 Hickory Lane, and Robert Noel, 21, of 590 E. Columbia Ave. both were charged with drunk and disorderly conduct.

* * *

Charged with illegal possession of beer because they are minors were:

Sue Chambers, Jenylou M. Hutchins and Helen Y. Badalow, all 17, of Lake Orion; and Robert L. Mersino, 17, and his brother Arthur, 18, both of 370 E. Tennyson

All were held for arraignment today except the juveniles, who were released to parents pending appearance in juvenile court.

City Girl Is Bruised When Two Cars Collide

Barbara Evans, 16, of 71 La-Grand St., suffered a slight knee injury when the car she was riding in struck another vehicle at the intersection of Putman and Jefferson streets last night.

The girl was released by Pontiac General Hospital following treatment. She was a passenger in a car driven by Larry D. Price, 16, of 110 Putman. The other car was operated by Alvin A. Rhodes, 24, of 149 Branch St.

Driver Hospitalized After Car Rolls Over

Fred J. Castle, 22, the driver, is in Pontiac General Hospital with multiple cuts and possible internal injuries. His passenger, Beatrice O'Connor, 15, of West Bloomfield Township, was released.

Life Rafts Spotted Off Spanish Coast

* * *

Spurred by an SOS signal, 100 planes were in the air yesterday searching for survivors, or some hint as to the big plane's fate. This morning, German and British ships picked up SOS signals which turned the search planes to an area 80 miles off Cape Finisterre, the northwest tip of Spain.

An Air Force announcement said five ships were expected at the scene this afternoon.

The first raft sighted from the air appeared partly inflated, a spokesman said, but the second raft "appeared to be deflated, with no one apparently aboard." The two rafts were about 20 miles apart.

"Dye marker was seen in the area," the Air Force announcement said. "Weather in area is closing in, with fog patches and clouds with base at 100 feet above sea level."

Eight planes circled the area while a ship sped toward the life rafts. Fresh winds kicked up three to five-foot waves, making the possibility of a seaplane landing at the scene hazardous.

Six-engine Strato Jet bombers and other U. S. and British planes from Europe, North Africa and America, plus aircraft carriers of a U. S. task force, participated in the search for the missing men.

Lie Test Is Given Howard W. Moore

Accused sex-slayer Howard Wayne Moore took a lie detector test yesterday at his own request, but Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem declined to make the results public.

Ziem said publication of the results would make selection of an unprejudiced jury difficult for Moore's trial Tuesday on a charge of first-degree murder.

The 23-year-old former furnace repairman had confessed the slaying of his Lake Orion neighbor's daughter, Martha Little, 3, but later repudiated the admission.

Results of the test probably will not be admissable as evidence during the trial, Ziem said.

CANCER VICTIM — That the cancer victim standing above was able to "tell" his story seemed miraculous to Pontiac Area United Fund workers with him. Andrew Barto, manager of the Motor City Speedway in Detroit had his vocal cords removed because of cancer, but American Cancer Society helped him to speak artificially. He talked at a training session conducted by Fund Educational Chairman Elmer Rosenberg, left, for Torchlighters of the Commercial Division's Fund Group, headed by John Napley, right. The Cancer Society and 53 other youth, social and assistance agencies will benefit by this year's $612,202 drive, Oct. 23 to Nov. 16.

Committee Totals 350 for 10,000 at Halloween

BIRMINGHAM — With about 10,000 children to be entertained on Halloween, Rollie Reese and Rocky Craig are leading a committee that probably will total about 350 before the "spooky" night arrives.

"Most of our committeemen have helped so many years they know what has to be done," Reese says.

"This year we have the new Derby school to provide for, and the seventh and eighth graders there will have a party at their school after the parade and 'feed' while the ninth graders go to a dance at the Community House," he says.

Tickets for all youngsters from pre-school through high school will be provided, including parochial youngsters who attend local or Detroit area schools.

Besides the Derby events, there'll be a party for Baruum Junior High students at their school, a movie for Baldwin School fifth and sixth graders, and a dance at the Birmingham Senior High for all high schoolers.

Younger children aren't to have parties, since they should be home in bed by the time the parade is over, Reese explains.

On the central committee with Reese and Craig are Mrs. C. L. Miller and Malcolm Adams, coordinators, and Mrs. William H. Jackson, secretary-treasurer.

Parade marshall will be Frank Whitney. Working closely are Robert Girardin, members of the city's PTAs and civic groups.

Fire losses last month only totaled $50, according to Fire Chief Park Smith.

New trucks bearing the mail to suburban localities served outside the city are special left-hand drive ones received on Thursday, says Postmaster Rollie Reese.

The seven new vihicles will replace the cars urban carriers leased to the department and used in the box-to-box deliveries in the 70 square miles the post office here serves.

Wilson Expects to Cut Military

Sees 168,000 Slash in Forces, but Increase in Spending

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson says the armed forces may be reduced a little in size next year but will need nearly two billion dollars more than this year.

Wilson indicated at a news conference yesterday the number of men in uniform next year may be from 100,000 to 168,000 below the present strength of 2,800,000 men.

But defense spending is expected to increase 4 to 6 per cent, in the range of from 1½ to two billion dollars, over the present 36½ billion dollar rate, he added. The increase will be "certainly less than 1 per cent," he said.

Asked whether the present Air Force goal of 137 wings by next June 30 will be reduced, he replied "I don't think anybody knows at the moment."

Without mentioning the Democratic presidential nominee by name, Wilson criticized suggestions by Adlai E. Stevenson that this country take the lead in seeking to halt H-bomb tests if other atomic powers agree, and that the possibility of ending the draft may be approaching.

"I think that both these things are irresponsible approaches to some very practical and realistic question.

Wilson said atomic weapons control has been discussed at high levels and "there is nothing on a unilateral basis that we can safely do that will affect this business."

As for the draft, he said, he does not believe that more than one half the present uniformed strength could be kept up without it. Wilson said he is "personally disturbed by the fact that raising the question in this way tends to deceive the American people" and perhaps confuse America's allies too.

Grandson Has Ike in Turmoil Over Name

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower is grappling with a problem — whether to have his eight-year-old grandson address him as "Ike" or as "Mr. President," when they go on nationwide television tomorrow night.

They will be on TV together from the White House in a program marking the President's 66th birthday on Sunday.

Young David Eisenhower has called his grandfather "Ike" — at the President's request —from the time he learned to talk.

But the President confided to actress Helen Hayes today that he is wondering whether it would be better for David to address him as "Mr. President" on the TV program. Miss Hayes said Eisenhower sought her advice when she called on him at the White House.

"I passed," she later told newsmen, adding with a grin that she left that decision to the President.

City Commission Delays RR Decision

Gaffney and A. N. Laird, chief engineer for the railroad, ruled out the Telegraph site because of a increased grade making switching of freight cars impossible and because of its distance from Pontiac Motors and Fisher Body.

The yard is planned to provide increased service for both plants.

Explaining the reason for calling in industry representatives, Commissioner John A. Dugan said: "I certainly want to know how important this yard is in a matter of time, and I want General Motors to prove to me why this is so necessary."

The railroad men emphasized that the Walton boulevard-belt line site remained the "only site where the yard could be built and operated."

Gaffney read a letter from Charles H. Blackman, engineer hired by the city to study it's site, to prove he too said the yard "wouldn't work at the city-suggested site."

MILES SPEAKS OUT

Commissioner Floyd P. Miles took exception to Gaffney by charging Blackman said "the yard could be built there but that it wouldn't be advantageous."

A brief discussion followed whether the yard could be shifted further west to clear Hollywood avenue for its use in lessening Baldwin avenue traffic.

Gaffney said the railroad would be willing to pay 50 per cent of the cost of constructing a pedestrian bridge over this street for children from the south of the belt line going to Wever School.

City and school officials listed a hazard to children as another objection to the railroad plan.

Laird asked the commission whether residents of the north end didn't realize their area was zoned manufacturing, permitting construction of the yard. "They must have assumed they would get industrial development along the tracks that were there when they moved in," he said.

Prague Asks Ouster of U.S. Embassy Aide

VIENNA (AP)—Prague radio announced today the Czechoslovak government has demanded the ouster as "persona non grata" of an American woman employed in the U.S. embassy in Prague.

In a note delivered to the embassy yesterday the Czechs charged Mrs. Vera Margaret Osso had violated Czech laws by using false identity papers. She is alleged to have traveled in the provinces of Slovakia and Moravia while using papers made out in the name of a Czech woman. Czech security police arrested her in the Tatra Mountains and handed her over to the embassy. Embassy comment was not available.

BOLD VOYAGERS — 6
The "Santa Maria"

This is a picture of Columbus' flag ship, the "Santa Maria," the largest of his three small ships. It was only about 90 feet long, and carried a crew of 39.

The name Columbia we sometimes use to describe America is a small effort to honor the discoverer. America was named after Americus Vespucius, a ship's astronomer on later voyages to South America, who realized that this was a vast new continent. He wrote about it on his return to Europe and his name soon appeared on maps of the New World.

Using your crayons, color this picture, and don't forget to make the caryed base look like wood. Paste it down on cardboard, and cut out the parts carefully. Fasten the two parts together with a brass fastener through the indicated holes, so the ship will rock in the water.

Now you have a set of model ships with their three great navigators who helped to open up this land.

JAKARTA—Some 70 per cent of Indonesia's total population, or nearly 60,000,000 persons, are residing on the islands of Java and Madura, which make up only about 9 per cent of the total area. On these two islands the population density runs about 1,000 per square mile, the highest in the world for any comparable area.

European GM to Boost Output

ANTWERP, Belgium — General Motors Continental will produce 53,000 passenger cars and trucks at its expanded assembly plants here this year for the growing markets of Belgium, Luxembourg, and Holland, Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, disclosed today.

Curtice, inspecting General Motors assembly and manufacturing operations in Europe, said 1956 output by GM Continental represented a "substantial increase" over 1955 and was made possible by completion of a $6,000,000 expansion program.

A further increase of 10 per cent in GM Continental output for 1957 was forecast by the GM president.

Curtice conferred with GM Continental executives and toured the assembly facilities here during a two-day visit. He also conferred with Belgian Prime Minister A. Van Acker and U. S. Ambassador Fred M. Alger, Jr.

Curtice came to Belgium after inspecting GM operations in France, where facilities are being expanded to increase manufacturing capacity for Frigidaire and AC-Delco products. The program is scheduled for completion in 1957.

Youths Damage Car Stolen From Pontiac

Three Detroit juvenile boys abandoned one stolen car here yesterday, Pontiac police said, to steal another in which they were later arrested by Roseville Police.

The local car, stolen from a downtown parking lot, was extensively damaged, although not involved in a wreck, police added.

The boys will be prosecuted in Detroit, police said.

Exiting Foreign Student Faces Readjusting Task

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Foreign students who attend American universities often find it difficult readjusting to the customs of their own countries when they return home, the director of the University of Michigan's international center said today.

James M. Davis told the regional conference of the Michigan Education Assn. these students from faraway lands tend to suffer through an uncertain period after arriving home. Their discontented letters to American friends prove this, he said.

But the trying period is just a temporary phenomenon, he added, saying once the foreigners get settled at home, they stop letter writing.

Davis visited 900 Michigan alumni in 28 countries earlier this year. He reported most of them appear happy and well adjusted. He said he found two general categories of alumni in his trip abroad.

"First there are mature people who were here between World Wars I and II who are now a strategic group," he remarked. Since World War II, these people have become in many countries the leaders of the newly emerging nationalist movements because of their understanding of the United States.

"Then there is the large mass of alumni who have gone back since World War II and who represent the junior level. These are professional people in business, government and education."

Screams Save Pair in Wreck

Man, Woman Pinned in Crash on Hillside Off California Highway

ROSS, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Eva Moffit's screams brought help yesterday 12 hours after she and Raymond Sorro were injured when their car was wrecked on a lonely mountainside.

The car hurtled 200 feet down the slope of Mt. Tamalpais after failing to make a curve.

Mrs. Moffitt, 20, of Millbrae, Calif., suffered neck and back injuries and deep scalp cuts. Doctors said her neck may be broken.

Sorro, 23, of San Francisco, was in deep shock. His ankle was broken. Both were thrown from the car and knocked unconscious.

Mrs. Moffitt revived "sometime during the night." She said she tried three times to inch her way to the roadside.

"The first time I came within 50 feet of the top and passed out," she said. "I regained consciousness, all I knew was — the sun was shining. I was afraid we both might die.

"So I tried again."

Mrs. Moffitt crawled to within 20 feet of the top in 30 minutes. She screamed intermittently for two hours before two groundskeepers for the Meadow Club heard as they drove along the road.

Earl Winters and Chuck Malone stopped and looked down the mountain slope. They saw Mrs. Moffitt clutching the bush below the road.

Australia's present international airports will be adequate for the new jet-age aircraft to be introduced in three or four years, Donald Anderson, Director-General of Aviation, decided after an investigation.

Reflections

SUNDAY SCHOOL WEEK

J. L. VOORHEES

A child may go to school, be an excellent student and be a problem. In Sunday School he is taught the fundamentals of Christian living, these simple truths become part of his philosophy, acting as a brake to unsocial behavior. His teacher becomes his ideal, his hero, and all boys and girls emulate their heroes.

M. E. SIPLE

A child wants attention. The greater his hunger for recognition the greater are his chances of being a leader. Wrong companions can satisfy that hunger as well as Christians; Sunday School attendance provides the positive leadership, inspiration to build, better, to be one who will leave a heritage for other youth to emulate.

Introduce your child to the greatest building force on earth; a Sunday School class in the church of your choice.

More Family Events Are Suggested by Straley

Our cities would retain more of the friendly flavor of small towns if parents would consciously promote more events in which the whole family could participate.

This suggestion comes from no less a person than Pontiac Police Chief Herbert Straley. He voiced this sentiment in an interview recently with a representative of the Pontiac Press.

Outings, fishing trips, picnics during the summer, color tours in the fall and skating parties in the winter are only a few of the events that offer ideal opportunities for the whole family to get out together in healthy pleasant enjoyment of the out of doors.

Such events not only are enjoyable in themselves, but they tend to knit the members of a family more closely together. They help to make Father something more than that man who comes home at night, tired out after a hard day at work, who just wants the youngsters to keep quiet while he gets some rest.

Athletic contests and games are another type of event in which the youngsters usually are interested. Many times the parents are not. Yet if they showed an interest and went to the games with their children, both would benefit from the experience.

Family life has changed less in the smaller towns. There is a friendlier feeling among all the people there. Everybody knows everybody else, and you don't dislike many people whom you know well.

The bigger the city, the colder its social atmosphere. There may be exceptions, but the statement generally is true. In fact the exception to the rule is the goal at which the residents of every city should aim.

In families where everybody takes part in wholesome outside activities there are fewer cases in which sons and daughters are out until unreasonable hours without their parents having any idea where they are, who they are with, or what they are doing.

As a result, there are fewer regrets later, fewer tragedies take place, and a generally happier, more wholesome feeling exists. This is true not only of the individual family, but each such family contributes to a more pleasant neighborhood.

One parent cannot transform a city, but each has the opportunity to do his or her part. We cannot all be the Mayor, or a City Commissioner, but each one of us has the chance to be a good citizen and exert a very real influence in making ours a better city.

City Has Chance to Cut Record Low Fire Losses

From Fire Marshal Charles Metz has come a Fire Prevention Week fact that should spur every householder to intensify efforts to rid their homes of fire hazards.

Pontiac, says Mr. Metz, has a chance to keep 1956 fire losses the lowest in years. Last year the City distinguished itself by keeping losses down to seven deaths and property damage to $182,000 in 325 home fires.

The City has an annual average of 400 residential fires. So far this year there have been only 231 with a quarter of the year remaining. Through September, fire losses were only $96,038 with one death, the result of an industrial accident on a street corner.

Fire Underwriters records show that last year the national average was 800 homes struck by fire every day in the United States. These same records reveal that 11,000 persons die every year as a result of fires, 2,000 of them children.

Most experts agree that a little prevention goes a long way. Things to guard against include overloading electrical circuits, indoor use of flammable cleaning fluids, careless smoking, leaf fires and accumulation of rubbish. Care should also be taken to keep all heating equipment in good repair and never, never use kerosene to start a fire in stove or furnace.

The Fire Marshal is on sound ground in urging householders to renewed efforts toward home fire prevention. Let's get behind this effort to make Pontiac a safer community.

Let's be on guard against home fires!

The Egyptians have slipped a lot through the centuries. They used to build huge pyramids, and now it seems they can't build so small a structure (comparatively) as a dam on the Nile.

The People's Business:

GOP Optimistic

State Republicans Note Encouraging Trends

By ROGER LANE

LANSING—There's a growing optimism among Republicans in the State Capitol trying to gauge Republican chances on Nov. 6.

At least some Democrats concede that the GOP has made gains, but say they don't believe the gains are very significant.

The consensus seems to be that the recent Republican strides have been largely organizational, and that the start of the pickup in campaign effort coincided with Vice President Nixon's visit to Grand Rapids Oct. 1.

As one Republican spokesman put it, "Nixon's appearance had a good psychological effect. It inspired party workers to get busy, got them away from their television sets evenings and into voters' homes."

President Eisenhower's increased campaign activity also appears to have given the party cause a lift—as it probably did nationally.

SHARPER SPEECHES

Then too, the sharper tone of the President's speeches is well received by organization people on the doorbell-ringing level.

★ ★ ★

Republican State Headquarters reports that Detroit Mayor Cobo, the GOP governor candidate, has been drawing larger crowds.

But what has heartened Republicans most of all is the heavy wave of voter registrations in strongly Republican areas just in advance of the deadline last Monday.

SUBURBAN TREND

This pattern reflects sharp increases in the numbers in suburban and, to some extent, rural townships where Republican sentiment often runs strongest.

As an example, take Washtenaw County, where the Republican margin for governor in 1952 was 33,744 to 21,528.

For the county as a whole, registrations were up 14 per cent, although in Ann Arbor, the urban center of the county, they declined 4 per cent.

There's at least one other aspect of the present stage of the campaign that Republicans mention with satisfaction, and that is the pacing of their effort.

John Feikens, Republican state chairman, told a meeting of county chairmen this week that the Democrats reached their peak too early in the campaign, and will have difficulty maintaining it, while the Republicans are just now swinging into full stride.

Days of All Faiths

National Bible Week Observed

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

National Bible Week is promoted during the third week in October each year by the National Laymen's Committee, an independent, nondenominational group of prominent businessmen devoted to the application of the Golden Rule to the daily affairs of life. Founded in 1940, the committee stated its purpose as "the reawakening of religious thinking in every way possible."

This week of emphasis on the importance of Bible reading is only one of many activities carried on by the committee. Perhaps the most familiar of their projects has been the placing of "Grace before meals" cards on restaurant and dining car tables. every traveler has seen these little "tent cards," on which are printed three suggested prayers: one for Protestants, one for Catholics, and one for Jews.

In the official message proclaiming National Bible Week the committee affirms its conviction that Bible reading "will arouse a new spiritual force for good throughout this troubled world."

National Bible Week is publicized each year by proclamations from the President, from governors, mayors, and other civic leaders, as well as by the usual media of printed materials and radio and TV announcements.

MOTHERS' SAINT

One would naturally expect the patron saint of mothers would be a woman, one who had herself experienced motherhood. Certainly one would not expect to find a man, and a lay monk at that, to be the mothers' saint.

But the fact is that millions of women pray to St. Gerard Majella, both for the blessings of motherhood itself and for help in the difficulties all mothers have in the rearing of their families.

St. Gerard, born in 18th-century Italy, was renowned during his lifetime for his miracles, none of which, however, seems related to his present position as the mothers' saint. He was often seen to float several inches off the floor during his prayers. He once restored to life a child who had been killed in a fall from a precipice.

There are authentic records of his having been seen and heard in two separate places at the same time. There was one occasion on which he blessed a poor family's scanty wheat supply and it miraculously lasted until the next harvest. And once he walked across the water to rescue a stricken boatload of fishermen.

He was called in his time "the wonder worker of our day." And after his death, on Oct. 15, 1755, his wonders continued to be showered on those who asked for them.

It was the mothers of Italy who first took him as their patron calling him "the saint of happy childbirth." His popularity spread and still continues. Thousand of women in the United States and Canada wear his medal as their confinement approaches, and many Roman Catholic hospitals dedicate their maternity wards to him.

LION SERMON

Tuesday, Oct. 16, as on every Oct. 16 since 1647, the people of the Church of St. Katharine Cree, London, will hear the "Lion Sermon," preached in commemoration of the miraculous deliverance of Sir John Gayer from the wild and hungry beasts of the desert.

Sir John was a London Merchant with a yen for adventure. He traveled from London to the Near East and there joined a caravan and set out to cross the desert. One night he found himself in a terrifying position, separated from the caravan and surrounded by snarling lions.

Even in his fright his memory still served him, and he prayed the prayer of Daniel. The lions did not touch him. (It is not recorded that Daniel prayed while he was actually in the lions' den—at least, his words are not given. Probably the prayer Sir John remembered and said was the one to be found in Daniel, chapter 9, verses 4 to 19!)

Gayer's experience happened on the night of Oct. 16. In his will he left money to provide a fee for a preacher to deliver a sermon on this date every year. The sermon always deals with Sir John's life history and with his providential escape from the lions.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Medical Books Can Be Obtained

The best medical books on geriatrics seem unavailable in bookstores, other than popularly written books. I am under my doctor's care for high blood pressure . . . (Mrs. W. D. McA.)

Answer — Medical books are not available to the public. If your physician approves of any such book for the layman, he'll get it for you or prescribe it. I have mentioned here several times the book I consider best—The Patient Past Fifty, by Ernst P. Boas, M. D., The Year Book Publishers. If your doctor treats you for "high blood pressure" a change of doctors might be beneficial.

For years I read your column for chuckles, in a detached way, thinking the allusions to ailments applied to others, not to me . . . suddenly realized you were describing my trouble — excessive thirst, excessive hunger, easy tiring, pain in legs, etc. I had a urinalysis, found I was diabetic . . . (P. F. W.)

Answer — Probably a million people have diabetes and don't know it. Most diabetics have been overweight five or ten years before they learn they have diabetes. Send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope for booklet Training for Diabetes.

My wife's sick headaches have disappeared. She is very grateful. She took your calcium-vitamin D treatment for five or six months. (R. E.)

Answer — Thank you. Pamphlet Why Have Headache free if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope.

When my baby was born . . . the doctor asked if anybody had any warts . . . he said he'd use an old Tom Sawyer, Huck Finn . . . in two weeks my warts disappeared . . . (Mrs. M. M.)

Answer — You don't say so, not in this column. We've heard about putting castor oil on 'em, touching with iodine, applying the familiar corn collollion, and stealing a piece of salt pork from your grandmother in the dark of the moon . . . and that will do.

Kindly send your pamphlet on foot itch. (M. J.)

Answer — You omitted stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Have you any literature on the climacteric? If not, can you advise where I can get pertinent books on the subject. (Mrs. F. L. A.)

Answer — Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for pamphlet The Menopause. "Climacteric" is misleading term, implying some kind of "critical" or pathological fate. It's a $10 substitute for the 69 cent "change of life."

Shingles pained terribly. I went to the doctor twice — he gave me each time shots of ACTH and vitamin B-12. This relieved the pain and carried me through the attack in fine shape. (Miss M. H. W.)

Answer — Thank you Ma'am, anything that gives such relief for the pain of shingles (herpes zoster) should be made known to doctors and patients alike.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

There has grown up in this country under a 20-year bureaucracy various favored blocs who have been bamboozled into believing that the government is able to hand out pay for not working, also free this, free that and the other thing like a magician pulling rabbits out of a hat.

The Democrats got away with such handouts by huge taxes and by piling up a national debt the size of which is beyond any comprehension, plus a hideous so-called prosperity brought about by three Democrat wars. That is the truth, regardless of how hard the Democrat politicians try to make us forget it by wisecracking, mudslinging and half-truths aimed at an honest government and individuals of unquestionable character and ability.

If enough of the voters of the United States are so gullible as to be fooled by that propaganda and elect the candidates proposed at Chicago, we can expect another war just as surely as the same clique got us into the three previous wars.

The bombs to fall in the next war will be a thousand times more deadly than the one that fell on Hirpshima. That bomb resulted in a hundred thousand meeting a ghastly death. No power we know of as yet will prevent many of these bombs penetrating our defenses. Millions of Americans in homes in big cities will surely die and other casualties by the million will suffer and die later from delayed effects of the bombs.

Earl E. Pierce

We need parties and we need politicians in order to properly run our country, but the big trouble at this time is that too many of these politicians are selfish and greedy and only concerned with what they can get for themselves, instead of being interested in the welfare and betterment of our country and all of its people.

If all these politicians would turn and practice the fundamentals of Christianity; that is follow the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments and the brotherhood of man as taught by Christ, our country and it's people would profit tremendously.

I sincerely believe that if we ever had a Christian gentleman in the White House, we have one now.

We should all get down on our knees and sincerely pray to God for guidance and help, and help him save our present civilization. No man-made plan will do it. Unless we turn to God, we are lost.

Ralph T. Keeling

If we of the Republican party are merely children of the General Motors, Ford, etc., as claimed by Democrat and union leaders, those concerns surely show their love for their children in odd ways, such as closing their plants down every two years for change-over, and picking election years to shut down.

After all, a few weeks layoff is better than a few years of war, with our boys dying at the front. Under the New and Fair Deal we were sitting just in the middle of the stream or on the banks at election time.

And don't forget this one thing, from the beginning of time until Gabriel blows his trumpet has there ever been complete universal employment for mankind, except possibly when we were cave-dwellers?

Michigan State University wishes to thank your newspaper for its fine assistance in promoting the MSU extension courses in your community this fall. Such cooperation is vital to the success of the program.

MSU is eager to expand its off-campus educational program. Such extension courses make it possible for teachers, engineers, housewives and others to systematically work towards college degrees. The classes also help many of these men and women to increase their vocational skills and to gain new interests.

Such courses are offered across the state in answer to requests voiced in the various communities. Adults interested in specific credit or non-credit courses may report their needs to local school officials or to the Continuing Education Service at MSU.

30 pt. cent bodl & OL—JOIN

Daisy offers proof of the great value in joining the "League of the Golden Pen." Don't delay too long in rendering verbal bouquets to deserving folks here on this earth while they are still alive and can be buoyed up by your appreciation. This is an ideal church project, so discuss it tomorrow.. It's the Golden Rule in action!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case S-390: Daisy McBroom, aged 88, is a former Sunday school teacher of my mother, myself and my five children.

In fact, half the church folks in the little Indiana town where my folks live, have profited by contacts with Daisy.

She faithfully undergirded the little church there for over 60 years. She'd wade deep snow in her rubber boots to get to town before 9:30 on wintry Sunday mornings to ring the church bell.

Then she'd lead the singing and put pep into it. She never believed in funeral tempo.

In recent years she has been partially bedfast. I keep her supplied with vitamins and iron tonics, but don't get to see her very often.

Recently I received a letter from her, part of which stated:

"I want you to make a talk at my funeral. So I am enclosing one of the nicest letters that I have ever received. It made me very happy. Maybe you could read it at my funeral."

Then I noticed a familiar handwriting, and saw a note to Daisy from my daughter Judy, who was finishing her senior year at Hillsdale College.

"Dear Daisy," Judy had begun. "This is just a short note to express my gratitude for the part you have played in my life and the Christian example you have given all of us at the Hillsboro Church.

"I made a New Year's resolution to join the League of the Golden Pen that Daddy has so often talked about, wherein you write a letter of praise and thanksgiving to some one whose life, by touching your own, has made it a little better. And yours has done just that for mine.

"Some one has said, 'Children need less critics and more models.'

"In all the time I've known you I've never heard you criticize a youngster and yet your life has been a yardstick for us all to measure our own against.

"I can't tell you how much I miss your leading the singing in our church with your gay little hats and the glory of God on your face.

"The first time I ever really paid attention to the words of a hymn was once several years ago when you were leading 'The Touch of His Hand on Mine.'

"You actually make a prayer out of singing. I never hear or sing the above hymn without thinking of you.

"Thank you, Daisy, for all you've done for me knowingly and unknowingly. We all love you dearly.

Judy Crane."

GOLDEN PEN PROJECT

Earlier I mentioned the League of the Golden Pen, which makes an excellent project for Sunday school classes, women's clubs, etc.

All you need do to become a member is to keep writing one letter per week of appreciation or condolence to people who are not normally on your mailing list.

Judy's letter obviously exerted a golden influence on Daisy McBroom as she lay invalided.

But you can write to children or teen-agers, too. Don't procrastinate too long, for elaborate floral wreaths at the funeral can't make up for the unspoken words of appreciation we should have offered to deserving folks while they were alive.

College students, you waste a lot of time despite your groaning, so how about joining the League of the Golden Pen, too? Imitate Judy.

"As we must account for every idle word," said Benjamin Franklin, "So we must for every idle silence."

And most of us keep mum too often when our companions are struggling to make this world better. We need to praise them before they lose heart.

Use it to start a project of that type in your church or clubs. You'll feel a happy glow inside and so will the recipients of your praise.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

'Slumbering' Church Awakes to New Life

Nestling amid the headstones of by-gone members, the little Baptist church of White Hills, Conn., was only a place of historical interest after its doors had closed in 1916.

Built in 1839—when a pastor could be secured at $4 per week—the church had housed anti-slavery meetings, was the center of a vigorous Baptist witness. Then it was left behind in the 20th century's trend toward city living.

Last summer, stirred from a 40-year slumber, its bell rang out again, calling worshipers to hear Rev. Herman Noyes, pastor of nearby Shelton Church, preach in its ancient sanctuary.

It was a sign of new life: local Baptists may make it a wayside chapel or possibly an aggressive community church.

Sheriff Frank Irons to Speak Monday

Sheriff Frank Irons will speak to the Christian Men's Club at 12 noon Monday in the Waldron Hotel.

At a recent meeting the following officers were elected: William Spence, president; Kenneth Hempstead, 1st vice president; Roland Polley, 2nd vice president; Dr. Walter Dodsell, secretary and John Trumble, treasurer.

Appointed to the Christian Youth Banquet Committee were Captain Magnus A. Michalsen, Mr. Hemstead and Dr. Dodsell.

SAGINAW (AP) — Because not enough churches were interested, the chamber of commerce said it's calling off this year's Christmas parade aimed at "showing the true meaning of Christmas." Out of 200 churches questioned, only eight said they wanted the parade, which has been held annually since 1952.

Woman Reports Both Good, Bad in 'Red' China

The United Church of Christ in Japan, of which the Methodist Church is a part, recently sent a representative, Mrs. Kiyoko Cho, to China. Mrs. Cho is an associate professor at International Christian University in Tokyo.

During her trip Mrs. Cho visited Shanghai, Canton, Nanking, Hanchow and Peking. On her return to Japan she reported: "I made an effort to see both the good and the bad features of Red China.

"At a farm in Hanchow, when I asked an elderly lady of 85 which she liked better, prewar or postwar China, she replied, 'Before the war old people were annoyed and told to die. Also there were many thieves. Since the war, there are no beggars and no thieves. Our life is friendly and peaceful.' But she didn't know why.

"Many people thought that Christianity would perish in China because of the revolution but church representatives met Mao Tse Tung and secured from him a promise not to suppress the Sanjiai (self-government, self-support and self-propagation) Movement. As a result Christians renewed their faith so that now there are three million Catholic Christians and 700,000 Protestants.

Men's Fellowship to Sponsor Dinner

Speaking Wednesday evening at the Congregational Dinner in the First Christian Church will be the Rev. Lawrence Maines, executive secretary of the Michigan Christian Mission Society. Sponsored by the Christian Men's Fellowship, the dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Maines came to Michigan from the Cleveland Disciples Union, Cleveland, Ohio where he had served seven years. Special music will be arranged and furnished by the Co-Weds.

Guest Ministers, Choirs, to Preach, Sing Sunday

The 8th Anniversary Service of the Providence Missionary Baptist Church will continue throughout this week.

Prior to the morning worship hour at 11 Sunday morning, the Rev. T. Walter Harris, pastor, will baptize a class at 10:45.

At 3 p.m., the Golden Leaf Baptist Church of Flint will be guests of the church with the Rev. W. A. Vaughn speaking. The Junior Choir will present several selections directed by Mrs. Josie Mae Holder. Mrs. Arubutis Brice is the leader.

The Mt. Zion Baptist Church of Detroit will be in charge of the service at 8 p.m. The Rev. R. W. Wright, D.D., moderator of the Pleasant Grove Baptist Association, will give the sermon. Mrs. John Cox will be the evening leader. The Rev. William Long will be the morning preacher.

Mrs. Hattie Scott is general chairman of the anniversary program.

Mrs. Blanche Joki Will Conduct Class

Mrs. Blanche Joki has chosen "Accept Your God" as her subject for Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Unity Church of Oakland County. Sunday School will be held at the same time in the church rooms at 71½ N. Saginaw street.

On Thursday, Mrs. Joki will be in the rooms for consultation from 1 to 5 p.m. She will conduct the class in "Let There Be Light" at 7:30 p.m.

Baptist Assn. Nears 250

Philadelphia Church to Observe Birthday in 1957

Few things on the American scene are 250 years old. One is historical Chestnut street in Philadelphia, which last month celebrated its 250th birthday in a week of fabulous festivities. Another, the Philadelphia Baptist Assn. — organized in 1707 and chartered in 1747—is rounding the bend to its 250th yeor.

Old acquaintances, Chestnut street and the Baptists have come a long way together. Both have played a part in the building of America. An ancestor of the freedom born in Independence Hall was Baptist insistence in the "competency of the individual soul before God."

As Chestnut street has brought a wide dissemination of wares to a growing city, the Philadelphia Baptists have fed its spiritual needs with the light of the gospel.

In 1876, the American Baptist Publication Society moved from its Arch street headquarters to 1420 Chestnut street, and after a devastating fire in 1896, erected the 12-story Crozer Building on the same site.

PRESENT DAY HOME

Eight years later it built the Roger Williams Building at 17th and Chestnut streets, the present-day home of the Society, the Philadelphia Baptist Assn, and the Pensylvania Baptist Convention.

As Philadelphians saluted famous Chestnut street amid a parade of old-time vehicles and the giving away of free gifts and corsages, Philadelphia Baptists made extensive plans for their 250-th anniversary celebration in 1957.

The event forms the center of a many-pronged drive to advance evangelism, church extension, Christian service and Christian education in the nation's third largest city.

Coinciding with it will be the 50th year of the American Baptist Convention and the 125th anniversary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society—all to be celebrated at the annual Convention, May 29-June 4, 1957, expected to be the ABC's largest.

Baptist Movement Passes Resolutions

Resolutions passed by the National Assembly, legislative body of the Baptist Student Movement, included a strong plea that every Baptist student participate actively in political parties and use Christian criteria in voting.

Another resolution urged that the U. S. considerably decrease its present military budget and thus release funds to be expended through the United Nations for relieving conditions of human hunger, poverty and disease around the world.

It was also urged that the number of atomic tests be reduced and testing be moved from the Pacific area to another location where fall-out would present less danger to human life.

Missionaries to Show Slides of Indian Work

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cheeseman, missionaries to the American Indians in Farmington, New Mexico will show slides of their work at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Here with the Cheesemans will be the Indian son whom they have adopted and a Navajo Indian woman, their interpreter.

Church of God Plans Afternoon Program

"Harvester for God" will be the theme of a Harvest Home program sponsored by the missionaries of the Church of God, 132 Wessen street. The program is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Elder M. J. Watkins, the pastor, states this will be a building fund drive. The public is invited.

Labor, Clergy to Meet

Labor leaders and clergymen of Fresno, Calif., have made plans for a series of joint meetings. Representatives of the Fresno Central Labor Council will meet with clergy representing the Fresno Council of Churches and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Monterey-Fresno.

First topic on the agenda will be the Sunday closing of stores and businesses.

Pioneer Girls Trained for Leadership

The girls of First Baptist Church are organized into three groups known as the "Pioneers." It is interdenominational and has for the philosophy "Christ in Every Phase of a Girl's Life."

Ranks and badges have to be earned much like that of the Camp Fire or Girl Scout groups. The aims of this Christian organization are: to lead the unsaved girl to accept Christ as her personal Savior; to train the girl in good habits of Christian living and leadership, and to encourage the development of well-rounded lives and gracious personalities.

Directing the three groups are Evelyn Beeson, Isabel Deighton and Mrs. John Stepleton.

Meeting are held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursdays and divided into four parts, the Column Council, Informal Activity, Song-time and Bible Exploration.

The column consists of six girls, the leader known as the pilot. She leads in the devotions, takes attendance and "shares" Each group is financed by the money given by the girls.

The money is used for refreshments at parties and crafts. The last meeting of the month the money, called the "shares," is sent to national headquarters to be used in the support of five missionaries.

Included are Helen Ebough in Holland, Virginia Anderson in West Germany, Louis Troup of South Africa, Phyllis Jensen of Japan and Katie Vorgthander with the Wycliff Translators in Mexico.

The informal activities session is used to work on badges and ranks. At this time, games, crafts and special features are included.

The third section of the weekly meeting is the Song-fest. Rounds, hymns and chorus work is enjoyed.

The meetings come to a close with a short Bible study, story or message. The girls then join hands and sing the good night hymn.

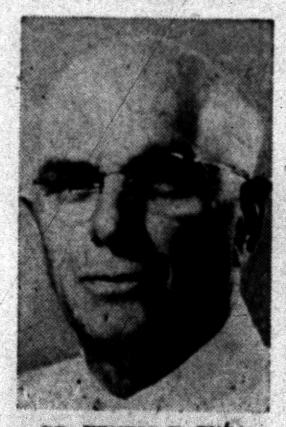

The average attendance last year was 87. The girls participated in the following community projects: Thanksgiving favors for trays at Pontiac General Hospital, caroling at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital during the Christmas season, valentine games for the children's ward and tray favors at Easter for Pontiac General Hospital.

World Mission Director to Speak at Conference

Dr. Ernest E. Tuck, director of Methodist World Missions, will be the speaker for the first Quarterly Conference which will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church.

The meeting will include all Methodist churches of the Pontiac Sub-District of the Flint District. They are Clarkston, Commerce, Four Towns, Keego Harbor and Walled Lake.

DR. ERNEST E. TUCK

In Pontiac, the churches are Baldwin Avenue, Covert, Central, Elmwood, First, Galloway Lake, Wilson Avenue and Oakland Park.

Dr. William C. Moulton, district superintendent, will conduct the conference.

Dr. Tuck was mission superintendent and treasurer for the Methodist Church in the Phillippines for 16 years. He had a major part in planning the postwar evangelistic, educational and reconstruction program of Methodism and knows the problems of the young republic.

A native of Australia, Dr. Tuck was educated at the University of Denver and Boston University School of Theology. He began his missionary career in 1919 in northern India where he served five years.

During World War II, Dr. and Mrs. Tuck were prisoners in the Los Panos Camp near Manila.

After aiding in the reconstruction and rehabilitation program in the Philippines, Dr. Tuck was called to New York in 1952 to become the director of the Advance Program of the Division of World Missions.

Missions Secretary Speaks at Conference

Dr. Tracy K. Jones, secretary of the Division of World Missions of the Methodist Church, told the American Baptist Missions Conference meeting at Green Lake that the church must speak to the world through its interracial and international characteristics.

For this reason new strategic concepts of missionary teams are emerging. The church must confront political, economic and world problems as realistically as the Communists.

In the audience were missionaries and leaders from every ABC field.

Women Can Help

Women and women's societies can help promote RIAL (Religion in American Life), the purpose of which is "to strengthen the place of religion in personal, community and national life . . . by urging every American to attend regularly the church or synagogue of his choice."

DON'T PROTESTANTS Believe In Confession?

But Protestants don't believe in confession, do they?" Bob asked a friend who was a leader in a nearby Protestant church.

"Why, of course, we do, Bob. What makes you ask that?"

"There's no confessional in the Protestant church, is there?"

"No, there isn't. But that doesn't mean that we don't believe in confession. We believe that every person must confess his sins. The Bible says, 'If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He (God) is faithful and just to forgive us our sins.'" (I John 1: 8, 9)

"But you don't have any priests. To whom do you confess?"

"No, we don't have priests in the sense you probably mean, Bob. The Bible says that every 'born again' Christian is a priest." (Revelation 1: 6)

"Then do you confess to one another?"

"We can. The Bible tells us that we should confess our sins one to another when we have wronged one another. But there is a big difference between confession and forgiveness. The only One who can forgive sin is the One against Whom we have sinned —that is God. God the Father saw the great guilt of sin which would be on every human soul. The Bible says that God showed His love toward us, 'in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.'" (Romans 5: 8)

"I believe I understand that, but how do I confess my sins?"

"It is very simple, Bob. Jesus Christ, God's Son, died for you and me, and thus He paid in full the penalty for our sins so that God could forgive us. God is everywhere and knows everything. Anyone, anywhere, can turn to God in prayer and confess his sins. Jesus, when He was on earth, invited people to come directly to Him. He said, 'Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.'" (Matthew 11: 28)

Bible-believing Protestants go directly to God, confess their sins and receive forgiveness. They believe and do what God commands in His Word, the Bible.

Confident Living:

Make the Most of Abilities, God Granted All You Need

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

When I was a youngster, I worked for an uncle of mine in Iowa one summer. Uncle Will was in the real estate business, He'd buy a plot of unimproved land, stake it out and then hold a lot sale. My job was to do the staking and to paint the posts.

* * *

When everything was ready, he would walk along the main street of the small town with a 10 dollar gold piece in his hand (remember them?) and say to people whom he would pass on the street, "I'm going to give away a 10 dollar gold piece on the corner at two o'clock this afternoon.

DR. PEALE

Well, they may have thought he was a bit cracked, and some of them didn't believe him, but at two o'clock he would be down at the corner and there would be a sizable crowd around him. He passed out slips of paper, had everyone write his name, put the slip in a hat, got some little girl to draw one and the person whose name was drawn would be richer by that 10 dollar gold piece.

This was his way of advertising his lot sale. It worked too. He made enough so that he could afford to lend me the money to go through college. He made me pay it back too, every penny, with interest. He was that kind of man — if you borrowed money, you paid it back. And if you had money, you used it to help others get ahead. He was always thinking up original ideas. Others would say, "Why didn't I think of that?"

Uncle Will died last year, but I remember him as a wonderful man. He made his way up from humble beginnings. He made the most of his abilities, and was a great inspiration to me and to others.

WHAT'S UNDER YOUR HAT?

In the South I sometimes stay in a hotel whose owner posts signs in the rooms, many of them his original sayings. One reads, "There are vast, unexplored resources under your hat." I think of this when I think of my uncle — he knew how to explore his own resources. Have you ever analyzed the unexplored resources under your own hat?

None of us has ever tapped a fraction of what is in us. But we should, and we can, if we make up our minds to do so and are willing to live by God's laws and let them guide us.

The history of our country is the story of people who have been able to see and meet the opportunities offered them by the American way of life. Everyone, whatever his background, has the same opportunity. You have only to remember that you are a child of God and therefore have within you His vast resources awaiting discovery.

* * *

Don't think negatively about yourself or your country. You have equal opportunity to do the great things done by men who believe in God, our country and themselves.

That factual and realistic book, the Bible, says: "What is man, that thou art mindful of him? . . . For Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and has crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion . . ."

It is indeed a creature of great potential that God has created. We need not only humility, but also a proper sense of self-esteem. Part of man is of the earth, there is no denying that. But the greater part, what John Donne called "the immortal part," comes from heaven, and we must not forget it.

COPE WITH EVERYTHING!

It is pathetic when any man is beaten and downcast, and it is tragic when a man has lost respect for the enormous potential within himself. Almighty God made you equal to any problem or difficulty that can ever face you.

Think of all that He stored up in you; the ability to feel and think, to hope, to dream, to create. He gave you the ability to suffer, to struggle, to love, to pray and to believe. What more do you need?

Have respect for your resources and never forget the greatest resource of all — God. He will help you. And with His help nothing is impossible.

Prayer Wins Battle With Death for Local Adventurer

Stretching along the eastern coast of Canada is one of the "most desolate, and most wonderful parts of the North American continent," says prospector Frank Rand of 4224 Lanette St., who recently returned from his 24th trip to Labrador.

He went there in 1932 when in search of a lost gold mine, Mr. Rand's maternal grandfather, Jacob Pickels, one time magistrate in Nova Scotia, came into possession of papers giving directions to the mine about 1880. These came down to Rand from his mother when he was about 21.

He treasured the papers and decided to go there fishing and look up the mine years later. He not only discovered the mine but found the area rich with other scarce minerals used in the making of steel and paint pigments.

As a prospector and adventurer, Rand has had many experiences. He tells of one of them:

"At Lobster Bay in Labrador while prospecting with five men, I discovered we were out of bread. It was up to me to find some. I started for Baddy Rush in a very light boat to get bread from a fisherman. It was 11 miles away.

"On my arrival at the end of the bay, I found the water very rough on the outside and did not dare to venture out into the waves in my little boat, so I pulled it up on the rocks above the tide and walked the three miles across the point.

"It got dark and fog rolled in from the sea. I could not have found my way if it had not been for the telegraph line that runs to Baddy Rush.

"The Kennedys were surprised to see me at that time of night and in the fog. They gave me bread an with lanterns guided me over the hills to my boat.

"As I pushed off back to camp, it was so dark I could not see the walls of the water-filled ravine. I followed the grey streak in the sky, hoping I would not hit the rocks on either side which were only a few yards away.

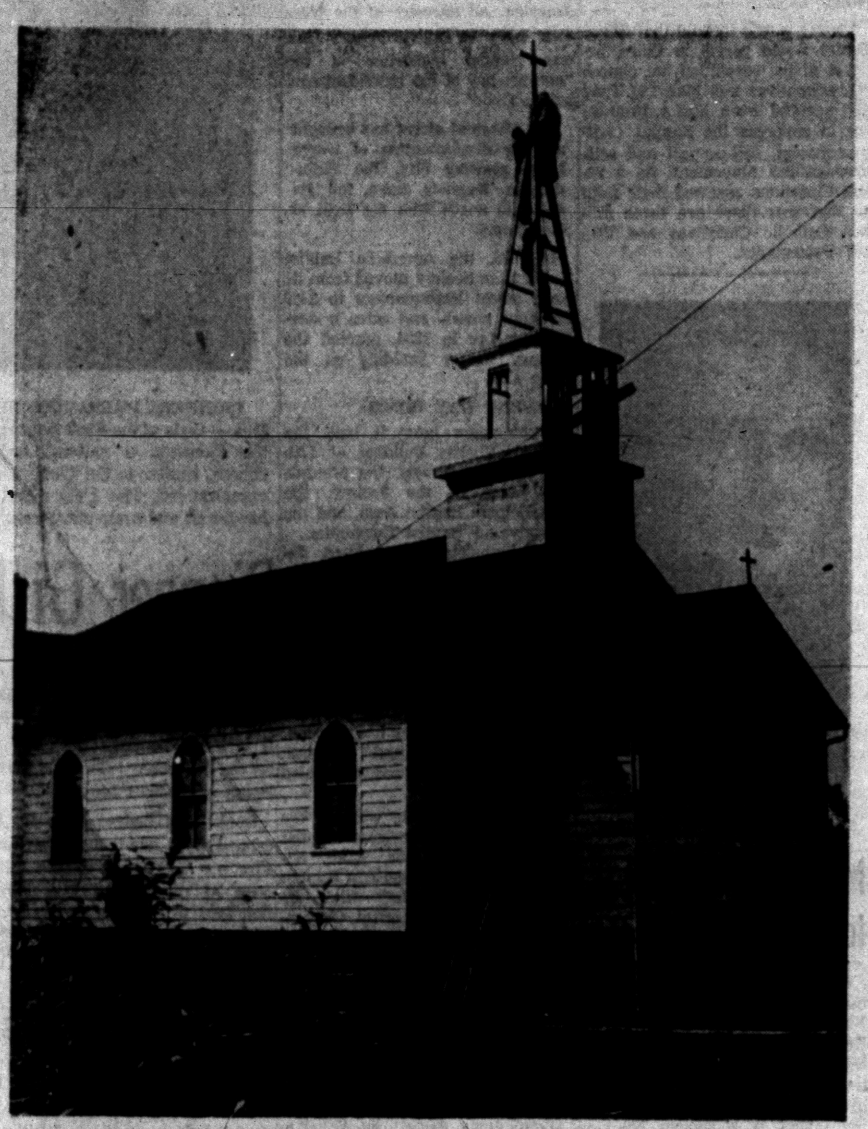

"Suddenly I realized I was being followed by many large fish. I discovered they were not seals, as seals make no noise while swimming. They were swordfish. All around me they were slapping their long swords on the water by my little boat.

"Every time I pulled on the oars, the phosphorus on the water would light up as I have never seen it before or since on my many trips at sea.

"My only hope was that they would not touch my boat and dump me into the water.

"I have always heard of the power of prayer and song to calm one's nerves, so I began to sing "Coming In on a Wing and a Prayer." To my astonishment, every fish left and the water became calm."

Mr. Rand has brought back movies and colored slides of this barren land which is so rich in iron, copper and other minerals.

CLASS ERECTS CROSS—The Wesleyan Class, comprised of young adults, is engaged in erecting a steeple and cross on the Galloway Lake Methodist Church. Of colonial design, it will rise about 60 feet in the air. Designed by Fred Feekart of Lapeer road, it is being built in three units; the base, surmounted with a rail and colonial corner posts; the bell-house, and the spire and cross. When finished in about three weeks, the entire steeple and spire will be lighted. Shown working are the Rev. Kenneth Stephens, pastor; Robert Cartier of Ridge road who directs the work and Mr. Feekart.

French Bishop Starts 'Poor Pilgrim' Center

LOURDES, France — Bishop Pierre M. Theas of Tarbes and Lourdes inaugurated an international center for poor pilgrims on a 36-acre site near the famed Marian shrine here.

* * *

The partly-completed reception center, known as the Cite-Secours St. Pierre, is being erected by the French Secours Catholique organization to house free of charge pilgrims whose finances normally would not permit them to make a pilgrimage to the shrine.

Situated on a hillside overlooking Lourdes, the center will comprise 12 pavilions of original design, decorated in bright colors and having the maximum of comfort.

Msgr. Jean Rhodain, chief promoter of the project, has aimed at making the center "an oasis of peace and quiet" among beautiful natural surroundings. No stores will be permitted on the site and loudspeakers have been banned.

High spot of the inaugural ceremonies was a Mass celebrated by Bishop Theas at the replica of St. Bernadette Soubirous' thatched shepherd hut, which has been built as a chapel.

12 Countries Send Delegates to Meeting

Delegates from 12 countries attended the First Asian Baptist Youth Conference held for six days in Hong Kong.

Present were 120 young men and women. They voted to form a permanent Asian Baptist Youth Fellowship, to convene every five years, and to send a delegation to the 1958 World Conference, Toronto.

The Japanese delegation of 26 was the largest at the Hong Kong Conference. Other delegations came from India, the Philippines, Burma, Ceylon, Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Indonesia, Malaya and Okinawa.

Harvest Home Banquet Friday

Dr. Joseph T. Edwards to Talk at 66th Annual Affair

Dr. Joseph T. Edwards, director of evangelism for the Michigan area, will be speaking Friday night at the 66th annual Harvest Home Banquet in the First Methodist Church. The festive event will begin at 6:30 p.m.

For the past five years, Dr. Edwards has served as a field director on the staff of the General Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church with headquarters in Nashville, Tenn.

He has had experience in working with youth and has directed Spiritual Life Missions at several conferences.

Lewis Butler, general chairman, will be assisted by the following committees: Paul Brown, Gerald Augsburger, Guy Emery, Mrs. David Livingstone and Mrs. John Rawley, program; Norman Legge, tickets, and Mrs. George W. Hevel, publicity.

Others working with him will be Pere Parsons and LaVerne Cox on the gifts committee and serving on decorations are Mrs. Oliver Dunstan, Mrs. Arthur Stewart and Mrs. Fred Varnum.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will be in charge of the banquet.

Church Groups Battle Obscenity

ST. ALBANS, Vt.—Priests here have been joined by Protestant clergymen in denouncing some of the magazines being sold on local newsstands.

The publications were described as "sewer literature," "rotton" and "filthy," while milder critics referred to them as "indecent literature" and "obscene magazines."

At present, there is no ordinance against the sale of such literature here, but it was expected quick action will be taken by the city council.

The local drive was launched after similar action in another Vermont community, Springfield, where the board of selectmen, in cooperation with the League of Decency, banned the sale of objectionable literature.

Hire-purchase sewing machines are being supplied in India to women in lower income groups, by the National Small Industries Corporation.

Plan Open House at Sacred Heart New School Site

The parents of students at the Academy of the Sacred Heart and the alumnae are holding a "Meet the Property" afternoon, Sunday at Bloomfield Hills.

They and their friends will see the 20 acres of land recently purchased as a site for a new school to be erected between Squirrel and Kensington Rds. on what formerly was part of the Walter O. Briggs estate.

A tent inside the gate will give an "open house" atmosphere and hostesses will serve refreshments.

Markings on the grounds will indicate the location of future buildings and playgrounds. Girls from the school will act as guides. Parking will be arranged by a squad of University of Detroit High School volunteers.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Don E. Ahrens and Mrs. Norman J. Fredericks. They will be assisted by Mrs. Thomas Sennett, Mrs. John Kent Brennan, Mrs. Warner Canto, Mrs. Harry Brickly and Mrs. Frank O'Toole.

Finish New Church in South African Town

BASUTOLAND, South Africa—A new church has just been completed and blessed 7,000 feet up in the Thaba Putsua mountain range in this British protectorate.

Constructed from stone hewn from the mountain—black basalt and white sandstone—and dedicated to the Immaculate Heart, the church has a vista of endless mountain peaks.

It is 165 feet long and 55 feet wide, with transepts and a high tower. It was built by the Oblate Fathers with donations from Canada and South Africa, and gifts of stone, money and labor from Basuto Catholics.

Expect FHA Loan to Expand College

WASHINGTON—Trinity College here has received preliminary approval from the Community Facilities Administration of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency of a loan for $1,276,000, Sr. Mary Patrick, college president, announced.

The agency has made a reservation of Federal funds pending final approval, she said. The loan will provide for a new residence hall on the 35-acre campus of the liberal arts college for women directed by the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur.

Construction is expected to begin in November. The building will house 204 students and four faculty members.

Young People Sponsor Singspiration Sunday

Singspiration, sponsored by the Oakland Youth Fellowship, will be held at 9:15 Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church.

The Emmanuelettes, a girls' trio comprised of Dixie Rollison, Mary Wyers and Donna Purett, will be presenting special numbers on the program.

Doug Brown, Glyn and Eugene Stone will be playing a trombone trio with Ron Poloy, song leader, and Ponnie Sue Davis, pianist.

Tackle Segregation Problem

Southern Church Leaders Disagree on Race Issue

NEW YORK.—A group of southern Protestant church leaders this week demned segregation as having "no biblical support either in the Old or New Testaments" but at the same time disagreed as to the role of the church in dealing with the problem.

The symposium, organized under the auspices of a popular Magizine to discuss the moral problems of segregation, consisted of Dr. Duke McCall, president, Southern Baptist Seminary; Dr. L. Nelson Bell, former member Presbyterian Board of World Missions; Bishop Paul Neff Garber, resident bishop of the Richmond, Va. area of the Methodist Church; Bishop Henry Irving Louttit, Episcopal bishop of south Flordia; Dr. A. C. Miller, executive secretary, Commission on Christian Relations, Southern Baptist Convention; Mrs. Spann W. Milner, vice president, United Church Women; Edwin Jones, executive committee member, World Methodist Council.

The moderator was Stanly High, noted religious journalist, who led the group of eight in the consideration of such questions as: Does the Bible condon segregation? How can we apply to segregation the universal Christian principle that we are all under one God? Should the Christian churches take an active stand for or against segregation?

The views of the southern church leaders on these questions appear in the current issue of the magazine along with an article by southern evangelist Billy Graham, addressed to the same subject.

GRAHAM'S STAND

Graham, while agreeing with the round table that "the whole weight of Scripture is for treating all men with neighbor-love, regardless of race or color," admits that there is nothing Biblical to prevent voluntary alignments on the basis of social and other preferences, "where personal choice alone is involved and where the Christian ethic is not at stake."

Graham points out that it was "after study of the Bible, as well as current events," that segregation was ended in his evangelistic crusades.

In his last four desegregated southern crusades, Nashville, New Orleans, Richmond and Oklahoma City, there has not been a single incident. On the other hand the evangelist notes that since the crusades have become desegregated Negro attendance has fallen off.

NOT EXTREMISTS

The evangelist says that his talks with southern leaders of all denominations and both colors have convinced him that most southern ministers are not extremists on either side.

"Most of them feel that segregation should be ended now on buses, in railroad and bus stations, hotels and in restaurants."

However, most of them feel that it is far too early to implement school segregation in some sections of the deep South. They seem to feel that the day will come when both races will be psychologially and spiritually ready for it, but that the time has not come yet.

Most ministers of the South agree that race relations are worse now than they were two years ago. Most of them have confessed, too, that the church is doing far too little about it."

DISAGREE ON CHURCH ACTION

Graham's conclusions are borne out in the discussions of the other church leaders. While noting that "progress in the field of race relations in the South prior to the Supreme Court decision was underway toward the solution of the whole problem and that the church was in the forefront of this advancement," the group divided as to what the ideal church role in dealing with the field of Negro-White relations should be.

Some felt that churches should take the lead in achieving a solution, and that by keeping silent on the subject they were shirking their Christian duty. Others felt that the problem, the schools, is the concern of the state and of the individual Christian, not of the church as an organization.

In summarizing the group's views, Stanley High called it "the most hopeful fact," and one "which northerners seldom recognize, that all over the South, Christian ministers are courageously wrestling with this problem.

They are earnestly seeking to find a solution which, on the one hand, recognizes the serious social questions involved and, on the other hand, expresses the increasing responsibility of conviction that Christians and the Church have an inescapable responsibility to work toward a solution which will be an unmistakable implementation of the New Testament gospel of love." he concluded.

Violinist and Pianist Present Concert Tonight

Keylor Noland, violinist, and Carol Rhodes, organist and pianist, will present a concert in the Seventh-day Adventist Church tonight, Saturday, at 8 o'clock.

Keylor Noland gave seven concerts in Japan and is currently a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Miss Rhodes is a teacher of music at Adelphian Academy.

Welsh Schedule Songfest Sunday

Holding Sacred Festival at Woodward Church in Detroit

The Welsh people of Detroit and vicinity will hold their annual local Gymanfa Ganu (Festival for Sacred Song) on Sunday at the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church, corner of Woodward and Philadelphia, Detroit.

Services will be at 2:30 in the afternoon and 7 in the evening.

Robert C. Jones, general chairman, announced that the Welsh songfest will be under the direction of Albert T. Davies, L.L.C.M. of Detroit, accomplished musician and widely known choral director.

Davies will lead the singing of favorite Welsh and English hymns at the music festival, which annually attracts hundreds of Welsh and Welsh-Americans from a wide local area. He has been the leader for large song festivals in Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, California and Michigan.

Mrs. Laura Bellis Jones, contralto, and Wilfred Phillips, tenor, of Detroit, will be guest soloists.

Mrs. Daniel E. Clayton, former organist at Emmanuel Episcopal Church of Detroit, will accompany the congregational singing on the organ.

* * *

A "Noson Lawen" will be held at the Welsh Presbyterian Church, 2504 Monterey Ave., Detroit, tonight at 8 p.m.

Church Delegates From 19 States to Attend Parley

BATTLE CREEK—More than 500 delegates from Congregational Christian Churches in 19 states will gather at the First Congregational Church of Battle Creek, October 16 to 18, for the denomination's 28th annual Midwest Regional Meeting.

Theme of this year's meetings, according to the Rev. Mr. Thomas C. Dick, chairman of the planning committee and pastor of First Plymouth Congregational Church of Lincoln, Neb., will center around the denomination's state conferences and their role in serving local churches as well as carrying out the concerns of the denomination's national boards.

* * *

Delegates will hear an address on "The State of the Union" by Rev. Dr. Albert Buckner Coe, Boston, former moderator of the Congregational Christian Churches and presently serving on the Executive Committee of the denomination's General Council.

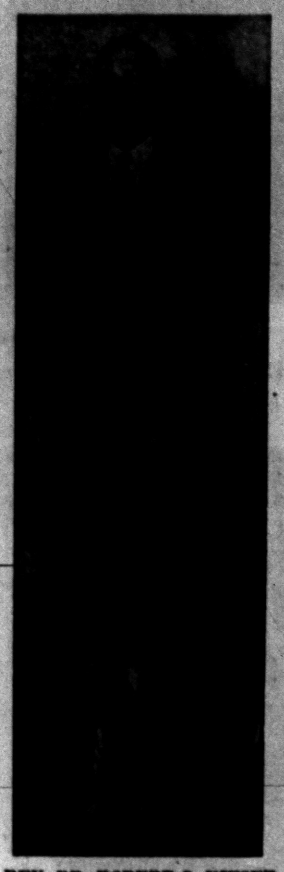

The Congregational Christian Churches are scheduled to unite with the Evangelical and Reformed Church in June, 1957.

Blind Minister to Address Men's Club Wednesday

The Rev. Dr. Robert S. Kieser, blind minister of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Springfield, Ill., will address the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church at the 6:30 dinner Wednesday evening. His subject will be "Adventures in Darkness."

Dr. Kieser was a student in Jacksonville, Ill. when Dr. William H. Marbach was pastor there.

REV. DR. ROBERT S. KIESER

In his lecture he will demonstrate how Seeing Eye dogs are trained and give many experiences. Dr. Kieser also uses his relationship with his dog to illustrate spiritual truth and brings lessons in faith and guidance.

The blind pastor will read from his Braille Bible and explain how it is read and written. His dog travels with him everywhere on trains and busses and guides him through city traffic.

The Rev. Galen E. Hershey will preach on "The Parents Part in Christian Education" at 9:30 a.m. Sunday.

At the 11 o'clock service, Dr. Marbach will preach on "Men with a Mission". Baptism of children will be included at this hour.

The film "Family Altar" will be presented to the Pioneers and Tuxis Societies Sunday evening.

Inauguration Slated Oct. 17

Priests to Participate With Program for New Rector and President

The Very Reverend Wallace J. Filipowicz will be inaugurated rector of SS. Cyril & Methodius Seminary and president of St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake Wednesday.

The Inauguration Program will begin with a Solemn High Mass in the campus Classics' Chapel at 9:30 a.m. with Father Filipowicz as celebrant, and Fathers Edward Popielarz and Michael Koltuniak as deacon and subdeacon respectively.

Formal Inauguration Exercises will commence at 3:30 p.m. in the college auditorium, with Rev. Peter Walkowiak of Hamtramck as chairman. The Rev. Joseph Rybinski, seminary dean of studies, will induct the Very Reverend Wallace Filipowicz into the office of rector and president.

The traditional "Veni Creator" and "Magnificat" will be sung by the Seminary Schola Cantorum, and St. Mary's College Band will perform musical compositions in keeping with the tenor of the afternoon program.

WHAT IF THIS SIGN SHOULD BE ON THE CHURCH DOORS IN OUR LAND?
CLOSED
In many countries today the people know what it is to be forbidden to enter the church of their choice. How thankful we should be for a place to worship the Lord as we please!
How careful we should be to avail ourselves of this opportunity that still is ours! Are you in Sunday School each Sunday morning? There's a place in Sunday School for YOU.
Our Sunday School invites you to join us this week as we gather to worship the Lord. You will find new strength for the days ahead as you come to His house on the first day of the week. We have the glorious freedom of worship in America. Let us not neglect such a privilege!

Author, Producer Slated to Speak at First Baptist

Eugenia Price, author and radio producer, will speak in the First Baptist Church at the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday.

The story of Miss Price's years of building herself and her own production office in the competitive world of radio, and her ultimate conversion to Christianity have caused "The Burden of Light" her autobiography to hit the religious best-seller list.

Miss Price is also author of a devotional book entitled "Discoveries" and a book for teenagers "Never a Dull Moment." With her associate Ellen Riley, she writes a column "Strictly for Girls" which appears monthly in the Youth for Christ magazine.

Ten Commandments Wins Cardinal's OK

LOS ANGELES — James Francis Cardinal McIntyre was in the first audience to view Cecil B. DeMille's new dramatization of "The Ten Commandments."

Mr. DeMille invited the cardinal to see the film before its final editing so that he could have his reactions and views.

The cardinal described the film as "a great mission — a superhuman mission to have conceived such a stupendous production of the greatest reality in life."

Study Retirement Pay for Lutheran Clergy

HARRISBURG, Pa. (INS) — Delegates to the 20th biennial convention of the Lutheran Church in America are studying a compromise retirement plan for ministers.

The plan was worked out by a special committee assigned to the task after delegates were unable to resolve differences between a plan endorsed by the church's Executive Board and one from the convention floor.

The compromise plan authorizes a minimum pension of $1,200 a year which will be graded upward over the next five years until a new top minimum of $1,500 annually is reached. The pension minimums would be exclusive of Social Security benefits.

Mrs. G. Mennen Williams (second from left) was honored at a brunch held at the Louis Golden home on Lake Angelus Friday. Here she is shown with Mrs. Golden (left) Mrs. Clyde Nelsey of Davisburg and Mr. Golden on the patio of the hosts' home.

County Dem Groups Hear Address

Breakfast, Brunch Held on Day Devoted to Nancy

Oakland County Democrats devoted Friday to "Nancy Williams Day" beginning with early breakfast in Keego Harbor.

Following the breakfast more than 200 members of the county organization and their friends gathered at the Lake Angelus home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Golden for brunch.

Speaking for the governor, Mrs. Williams said issues being discussed in this campaign are not fundamentally important, but instead, she stated, opposing parties are making personal accusations.

Mrs. Williams appealed to the group which included members of each party to think of the government as being close to them and to feel a part of it. The governor, she said, has brought state government closer to the people.

Following the brunch the Waterford group held a tea in Mrs. Williams' honor at the CAI building.

In the evening a dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Markle near Rochester. Rounding out the day was an evening meeting at a local union hall on East Kennett road.

Special guests attending the brunch were introduced by Mrs. Clyde Nelsey of Davisburg, vice chairman of the Oakland County Democratic Committee.

Iota Eta Chapter Plans Project on November 10

Iota Eta Chapter of Pi Omicron national sorority met with Mrs. George Reuter of Summit avenue Thursday evening. Mrs. Leon Skelley presided.

* * *

Plans were made for a money-making project to be held Nov. 10, with committees to be announced at the next meeting.

Other coming events discussed were the Christmas party set for Dec. 12 at Hotel Waldron and the state convention in Saginaw next May.

The group agreed to donate Christmas gifts to the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children again this year.

* * *

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Raymond Clemens, Mrs. Jon Karou and Mrs. Bernadette Arnold. The group will meet in November with Mrs. E. Vern McColl, with Mrs. Stig Danielson and Mrs. Robert Dunham assisting.

Ellen Fay Febrey Wed in Utica Rite

St. Lawrence Church, Utica, was the scene of the wedding this morning of Ellen Fay Febrey and George M. Oleski. The ceremony was performed in the presence of 175 guests.

* * *

Fay, of Delaware drive, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Febrey of Torrance, Calif. George's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Oleski of Utica.

For the 10 o'clock service the bride chose a gown of pearl-embroidered Chantilly lace and tulle. The lace bodice was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline coming to a V in the back and a petal-shaped peplum. The bouffant skirt was of tulle over satin.

ATTENDS BRIDE

Leone Levendis of Warrenville, Ill., served as her cousin's bridal attendant wearing a cloud gray floor-length gown of satin, flamingo accessories accented the sheath dress and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and ivy.

Albert J. Lilly Jr. of Detroit was best man. Frank Kearney, also of Detroit, and Wilbur Meldrum of Roseville were ushers.

The newlyweds will make their home in Rochester.

Ellen Fay Febrey and George M. Oleski were married this morning. Ellen, of Delaware drive, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Febrey of Torrance, Calif., and George's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Oleski of Utica.

At DAR Meeting

Walter Van Dien Speaks

Walter Van Dien, conservation education consultant of the Michigan Conservation Department, spoke before the General Richardson Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

* * *

He showed colored slides of flowers and spoke of their habitat and distinguishing features. Mr. Van Dien pointed out that many Michigan wild flowers are protected by law and cannot be picked without the permission of the owner of the land on which they are growing.

Mr. Van Dien was introduced by Mrs. Harry Chapman, conservation chairman of the chapter, at the Thursday luncheon-meeting held at Haven Hill Lodge for 41 members and guests.

Mrs. Chapman was assisted by Mrs. L. L. Dunlap, Mrs. Glenn Gillespie, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. George H. Boles and Mrs. Robert Mielke.

Mrs. Allan H. Monroe, regent, presided at the business meeting.

Mrs. Dunlap, chairman of the national defense committee, spoke about the Federal Union and the Atlantic Union, two organizations which tend toward World Government; under which the United States would have to surrender its sovereignity. The National Society DAR is opposed to this situation.

Mrs. N. W. Peterson, senior president of the Colonel Stephen Mack society, Children of the American Revolution, announced a meeting of the society later in October.

Short Rest Periods Cancel Fatigue

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

If chronic fatigue dogs your steps day by day, there is something wrong, and you should see your physician for a complete checkup.

* * *

There are many conditions which can cause this, among them low blood pressure and anemia. If your doctor finds that you need it he will give you the necessary medication and prescribe a daily routine for you to follow.

* * *

The fatigue most of us experience is acute, the direct result from a prolonged physical, mental or emotional output. In the case of this sort of weariness we only need rest and relaxation to restore us to normal.

* * *

However, too many repeats can lower our resistance to disease and make us melancholy or irritable.

* * *

If you would just form the habit of short rest periods you would be amazed at the change in your life. Women who work in offices do not always have this opportunity, although many of the most progressive firms provide a place for short periods of relaxation.

TYPE OF REST IMPORTANT

The woman in the home can always take 10 or 15 minutes during the day, if she will. Just a few of these will bring her to the end of the day refreshed. However, the quality of the rest period is important.

You should isolate yourself and lie down. If your rest period is interrupted it will mean little. Why not muffle the telephone for this short time? Some women find that cool, damp little cotton pads over the eyes induce complete relaxation.

The chronic tiredness which haunts so many people may come from disease or infection some place in the body, but more likely than not it is due to incorrect living habits.

* * *

Many of the famous people we know have developed the art of relaxation to a high degree. Many of the world's great can lie down and sleep for ten minutes and awaken completely refreshed.

Gallery Exhibit Features Fine Arts From Europe

Peggy de Salle is presenting an exhibition and sale of European fine arts and crafts at the Little Gallery in Birmingham. The art was gathered from six countries on her last trip abroad.

From France, she brought paintings by Andre Poujet, bright abstracts inspired by American Indian cultures. She also acquired prints and signed lithographs by such artists as Picasso, Matisse, Rouault, Miro, Vlaminck and Cezanne.

From Italy, there are brilliant watercolors by Severa, oils by Bergolli, Crippa and Peverelli. And a distinguished group of enamels by Santi, one of Italy's young designers, is also included.

There are metal crafts and jewelry from Austria and Germany. Delicate pastels by Kontny and casein studies by Hans Jaenisch are also shown. A group of ceramics and carved wood fantasies is a result of her trip to Denmark.

* * *

Fine old prints and wood blocks, as well as a group of colored coats-of-arms representing the greats and near greats of the 18th Century, were brought from England.

* * *

The exhibition will continue through Nov. 10 daily except Sunday from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Spectator Dress Features Distinctive Lines, Detailing

When Helen Rose plots the costuming for an MGM production, she must consider not only the plot of the story, but the personality of its stars both in and out of character.

For Joan Collins, co-starring in "The Opposite Sex," she has designed this spectator sports dress in beige shantung with a red and white polka dotted scarf, the polkas reappearing in the lining of the sweater. Simply cut, but with a definite distinction, the dress has buttoned tabs across the low V of the bodice and on the pressed inverted pleat of the skirt front.

The skirt sides are gathered but the back is made with a two gore flare. The slight bloused effect of the top is achieved with three tiny box pleats at the sides.

These fine details, that give the dress high fashion quality, are all simple to manage since the custom cut pattern is accurately perforated for easy marking and matching.

Select shantung, plain crepes, cottons, wool crepe, linen or novelty wool. If your dress fabric is fancy, choose a solid color for the scarf. From this chart select the one size best for you.

10	34	24	35	16½
12	35	25	36	16¾
14	36½	26½	37½	17
16	38	28	39	17¼
18	40	30	41	17½

Size 12 requres 3½ yards of 54 inch material for dress and 1⅛ yards of 36 or 39 inch material for contrast. To order Pattern No. 1282, state size, enclose $1. Disfellowshiped Man Loses Suit

Judge Raps Witnesses for Partisan Testimony at Trial

Chester Waugh, "disfellowshiped" Jehovah's Witness lost another legal battle Thursday but heard Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum condemn church partisanship during a recent trial in his courtroom.

* * *

Saying church members as trial witnesses "tried every effort to place Waugh in a bad light," McCallum added that if there is trouble again, "I'm going to get right to the bottom of it."

Religious "emotionalism" is out of place in court, he added, saying, "I'd hate to be on trial and at the mercy of some of the witnesses involved in this case."

DEFEND POLICIES

Waugh lost his case, McCallum said, because he entered the hall expecting to be expelled and was not frightened when grabbed by the arms and forced out the front door. Waugh also claimed he was kicked from behind and landed on his knees.

McCallum said apparently the only disturbance came when Waugh was ejected. According to church rules, he said, a disfellowshiped member may attend services if he is quiet.

* * *

He added, though, that church rules are not the business of a civil court. "But if this comes up again," he stated, "I'm going to settle the question."

Waugh lost a Circuit Court suit last spring seeking legal entry to Kingdom Hall in Drayton Plains. His demonstrations, he says, are part of a private war calling attention to what he calls his "unfair" ouster in 1954.

Elvis Trying to Wiggle Out of Big Lawsuit

DALLAS, Tex. (INS) — Elvis Presley was caught with his hips down, so to speak, and as a result faces a $38,000 breach of contract suit.

* * *

Pike touched the papers to Elvis' wrist before he was able to squirm. Now Presley must answer a charge by R. G. McElyea, Forth Worth wrestling promoter, who claims he signed Elvis last year for a series of shows at $500 each before Presley became famous.

This official act was followed by a lot of hysterical screaming, but it was not from Elvis. It was 26,500 of his fans and they were not screaming at his misfortune but at his bumps and grinds and singing as he bounced around the 50-yard line in the huge Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

STRATOSPHERIC SCREAMS

Presley got more cheers in his 40-minute act than all the football greats who played in the stadium. His teenage fans, mostly girls, kept up an ear-splitting screech that heightened to near a point that only dogs can hear.

A hundred policemen kept the fans behinds a 10-foot fence built to protect Elvis.

For Kim Novak: Picnic Simplicity to 'Duchin' Style

"From rags to riches" is just about the story of Kim Novak's career, both in private and in her screen life. Completely unknown two years ago, she is today one of filmdom's most famous star personalities.

* * *

On the screen, in "Picnic," Kim wore three gingham dresses for her role of a small-town belle.

Playing one of the richest debutantes in New York history, Miss Novak has, in "The Eddy Duchin Story," 23 costume changes consisting of the most expensive gowns and dresses, topped by mink and sable coats. Counting the rare jewelry accessories she wears with her outfits, Kim's entire wardrobe is valued at $125,000.

The three gingham dresses in "Picnic" cost approximately $22.50.

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Remember Raymond Hatton?

* * *

Oldtime movie goers will recall him as the comic co-star with Wally Berry in a series of riotous movies. Youngsters know him too, as the sidekick of Johnny Mack Brown, Tim McCoy and Buck Jones in old movies now on TV.

His old and new fans will be happy to know that Ray is still going strong and celebrating his 45th year in movies.

* * *

Forty-five years is a long time to be in any business, but it's an amazing record in a fickle industry like the movies. Year in and year out, Ray has managed to keep active in films. His latest stint was a familiar one—a grizzled buffalo hunter in "Pawnee."

I caught up with Hatton at the Masquer's Club, favorite hangout of film veterans. At 64, he is still vigorous. If he gets a little hazy about dates and titles, that's understandable.

"I wish I had kept a list of all the pictures I've been in," he reflected. "There have been hundreds of them. Some people ask me about a picture I made years ago and I can't even remember it.

He does recall that he came to Hollywood in 1911 with a vaudeville act that broke up here. A friend talked him into trying motion pictures, then considered beneath the dignity of most actors.

* * *

The two young actors took a streetcar ride to Glendale, where a film company was on location. The director asked Hatton if he could put on a beard. Hatton said yes. So he donned crepe hair and a white night shirt with a rope around the middle and played a Russian peasant storming a castle.

Thereafter he played with Mary Pickford, Mack Sennett and other Biograph stars.

* * *

He joined the Lasky company and began a long association with Cecil B. DeMille, playing in all of the director's films over a 12-year period. He played in numerous films with Wally Reid, whom he calls "the greatest star of them all."

Ike Picks Director of Road-Building

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has picked Burton D. Tallamy of New York to head the government's new 33-billion-dollar highway construction program.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Tallamy will take over the job early next year.

Meanwhile, it will be filled on an interim basis by John A. Volpe of Winchester, Mass., head of a construction company bearing his name.

Honor Legless Senator

DETROIT (AP)—State Sen. John B. Swainson (D-Detroit) who lost both legs in World War II, has been named "Mr. Success of 1956" by the Detroit Chapter of the American Federation of the Physically Handicapped.

Wild Filipino Kills 16

MANILA (AP)—Police here have received word a Filipino Moslem went berserk on Palawan Island killing 16 persons before he was subdued.

Police said the man identified as Domingo Salazar, 42, staged the massacre on Thursday in Roxas town, Central Palawan. He was charged with multiple homicide.

The report said Salazar's act was attributed to a "lingering illness" and his "failure to collect outstanding debts." The dead included Salazar's wife, 10 other adults and 5 children, police said.

Protest U. S. Land Grab

TOKYO (AP) — Some 2,000 police clashed today with 3,500 demonstrators in the second day of strife over government plans to extend the U.S. Tachikawa Air Base. Several Socialist members of Parliament were reported injured as well as several labor union members. Residents of this village near Tokyo complain the base has encroached on their land.

Men's custom-made suits and overcoats and women's dresses recently have become important mail order exports from Hong Kong to the United States.

Loves That Hospital

BAY CITY (AP)—Trouble hit 6-year-old Frank Wheeler from one end to the other. He suffered a fractured skull Sept. 5 when a playmate hit him with a hoe. Just out of the hospital, the boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, fell out of a tree. He's back in the hospital with a broken leg.

Hubby Approves Acting for Mrs. A & P's Career

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—I was conversing with Mrs. Huntington Hartford 3d, a pretty thing, one recent afternoon, when Mr. Huntington Hartford 3d strode into their Beekman Place penthouse attired in a 5 o'clock shadow and an appetite.

MARJORIE

Her classic features clouded. Cook was away. Cupboard was almost bare. Agilely as a ballerina, she ran in bearing him a glass of milk, which he accepted as though it were bouillabaisse. He beamed upon her for, her cleverness.

Which perhaps struck only me as remarkable—since Mr. Huntington Hartford 3rd never need have any trouble getting groceries, he being "Mr. A. & P."

"Darling," he asked a little later, "would you like me to pick you up at the theater?"

She would. He was off. Then, bouncing around the floor on her knees, Marjorie Steele of the stage confessed that being a society matron busy with house management chores is not for the likes of her.

"I think if you have money it's good for your children to see you working," added the mother of two, who now has the Barbara Bel Geddes role in "Cat On a Hot Tin Roof"—and is soon to go on the road for a year.

Then her husband hadn't protested about her leaving the hearthside?

"'Hunt,'" she told me, "want me to be an actress. That will never be a problem."

But, quite earnestly added this one-time Ciro's hatcheck girl formerly of Reno and San Francisco, there are problems outside the home.

"People ask me, 'Why do you work—why not stay home?'" she said.

"To me that would be the most difficult work in the world. Somebody even asked me why I gave up society for acting—forgetting I've been acting since I was 14."

And there have been the inevitable rumors . . .

"There would be! We don't let them bother us any more, we don't deny them any more. 'Hunt' will be flying to see me all the time, and when I get to Chicago, we'll bring the family out."

Mrs. Huntington Hartford 3d admitted that she has had a couple of bad reactions to the passionate wife part that she plays.

"One woman stood up in the audience and said, "Disgusting play! Look at her in that slip!' And she left."

"You must have been glad?"

"Delighted! I feel that people who proclaim their innocence of life that much are in danger of slipping over in the other direction."

Detroiter Held in Wife's Death

Police Also Questioning Man on Whereabouts of First Mate

A Detroiter, charged with the murder of his second wife, has repeatedly maintained innocence in the mysterious disappearance of his first wife, the sister of a Milford woman, Detroit police said Thursday.

John Bishop, 45, claims Mrs. Ioma Marie Bishop, 34, left her home and four children without warning six years ago and has not been heard of since, according to Det. Sgt. Angus McIntyre of the Homicide Bureau.

Bishop at Wayne County Jail shooting of his wife, Caroline, 43, with a rifle at their Herman Gardens home Saturday. He will be examined on a charge of first degree murder Wednesday.

McIntyre said he questioned about his first wife, but uncovered no indication of foul play on Bishop's part.

The woman's disappearance recently made news because she may unknowingly fall victim to cancer which has struck several members of her family.

Mrs. Spence said the sister disappeared from the same Herman Gardens home Dec. 17, 1950 after repeated quarreling with her husband. Her children, who stayed with Bishop, are in custody of Wayne County Juvenile officials.

Local K. of C. Publicizing Change in Pledge to Flag

It's common knowledge that Christopher Columbus discovered America in 1492, an event hailed on Columbus Day today.

But Columbus' modern supporters feel that an important event two years ago is not so well known — a change in Americans' pledge to their flag.

The local Msgr. Shafpe Council of the Knights of Columbus is seeking to remedy this as part of this year's Columbus Day observance.

They have distributed copies of the new pledge to public and parochial schools and to downtown businesses for display today.

The change — which adds the words "under God" between "one nation" and "indivisible" — was approved by President Eisenhower after three years of campaigning by the Knights' national council.

Robert Landry, chairman of the local observance, said copies of the new pledge will hang in every Pontiac schoolroom. A dance Saturday night at the council hall, 222 S. Saginaw St. will conclude the observance, he said.

Wired-Up Lions After 3rd NFL Victory

Detroit Meets Strong Offense of Los Angeles

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

DETROIT — The Detroit Lions, enjoying their best National Football League start in two seasons, move into the electronics age on the gridiron tomorrow against the high-powered offense of the Los Angeles Rams at Briggs Stadium.

Currently leading the Eastern Division with a 2-0 mark, Detroit will attempt to counter the Rams' potent aerial attack with the help of an electronic device called the "Audipage."

It will be the helmet of captain Joe Schmidt, the team's defensive signal caller, which will carry the circuit from Lion coaches in the press box and on the field.

Teams throughout the NFL have begun using the gadget, and the Chicago Cardinals, leaders in the Eastern Division with a 2-0 record, credit their success to the "Audipage."

* * *

The Rams are deep with passers and receivers, and coach Sid Gillman has selected veteran Norm Van Brocklin to start at quarterback with Bill Wade and Rudy Bukich in reserve.

The Lions will match Van Brocklin's arm with that of Bobby Layne, who last week rolled up 236 yard passing against the Baltimore Colts.

The return of Bob Bowman to the fullback slot will help Detroit's running attack, which also came out of the doldrums last week.

* * *

It will be the home debut in the regular season for rookies Don McIlhenny and Hopalong Cassady, both of whom showed their best wares against Colts a week ago.

The Lions were beaten twice last year by the Rams who won the Western Division crown. Los Angeles has always been a tough customer for Detroit.

In 21 meetings between the two teams, LA has been on the winning side of the ledger 15 times.

Game time tomorrow is 1:30, and a capacity crowd bettering 52,000 is expected.

GETS WIRED UP — Detroit Lion captain and linebacker Joe Schmidt will hear air waves in his helmet tomorrow when the Lions tangle with the Los Angeles Rams at Briggs Stadium. Schmidt will wear a helmet which will have a gadget in it called the "Audipage." It is an electrical device through which Schmidt will get defensive signals from a coach in the press box who will be watching the LA offenses.

Romeo Scores at Gun, 26-19

Romeo beat the final gun with a last second touchdown to defeat Lapeer, 26 - 19, in a see-saw thriller on the Bulldog gridiron last night, to get in the unbeaten ranks.

The Bulldogs scored first in the opening stanza with Butch Dallwitz going over from the 1 after a 40 yard drive.

Tom Wilson, who scored all of Lapeer's points, went 20 yards to climax a 65 yard march and it was 6 to 6 after one period.

Before the half ended, Dallwitz completed a 35-yard pass play to Tom Williams and Romeo led, 12-6 at intermission.

In the 3rd period, Wilson went around end 90 yards and he ran the point to give Lapeer a 13 - 12 lead.

Romeo regained the lead when John Fowler scooted 18 yards for the TD. Dave Proper passed to Fran Chapman for the point and it was 19-13.

Only four minutes remained when Wilson went six yards over tackle after a 70 yard march to make it 19-19 as the point was missed.

Not for Another Year

Nat Shift Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP)—The question of whether the Washington Senators will be moved to another city this year may come to a head next Friday when the club's directors hold their next regular meeting.

* * *

Calvin Griffith, president of the American League club, said last night that "if I have a concrete proposition, I will submit it to the board at that time."

"As yet," Griffith said, "we have had no offers in writing."

The Senators have received feelers from Los Angeles, San Francisco and Louisville.

Even if a firm proposal should come in by the Oct. 19 meeting, several obstacles would seem to make unlikely any shift of the franchise at least until after next season.

* * *

For one thing, the league would have to approve any move for the coming season before Oct. 31—only 12 days after the next directors' meeting here.

Furthermore, H. Gabriel Murphy, the Senators' treasurer and holder of a 40 per cent interest in the team, has threatened possible legal action to block any move to another city.

Griffith conceded Murphy could "slap an injunction on us and delay any shift of our franchise."

* * *

Murphy and Griffith are members of the 5-man board, which could approve a club move by majority vote. It appears only Murphy would cast a "no" vote.

Yesterday, Griffith said he spoke by telephone with Will Harridge, American League president, and that Harridge told him a meeting of club owners would be called "if we have any proposition in black and white that he thinks the league would consider beneficial." Six of the league's eight owners must okay a franchise shift before it can go through.

* * *

With the directors' meeting less than a week away, Griffith and Los Angeles officials were at odds over how negotiations should be conducted. Griffith said "we are not moving out of Washington until we receive a proposition here." But Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said Griffith should go to the West Coast to discuss terms.

Stengel Signs Two-Year Pact

NEW YORK (AP)—Now that his own status has been resolved—he's going to be back at the helm for two more years — Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees today turned to ways and means of keeping the world championship banner flying over Yankee Stadium.

"Right now," he rasped, "our weak spot is left field. If we make a trade, it will be for another outfielder. I'm set with Hank Bauer in right and Mickey Mantle in center."

About 40-year-old Enos Slaughter, Stengel said he doesn't plan to go along with him for another year, adding that he is reserving the right to change his mind.

"After all," he said, "we bought him in the first place for insurance and pinch hitting."

Class D Crowds Rise

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — The Class D Midwest Baseball League set an attendance record of 453,688 for the 1956 season, League President Clarence Hoffman announced today.

For the second straight year, Dubuque, Iowa, was the top club in attendance with 92,364. The league has been in operation since 1947.

Wiffi, Romack in Semifinals

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Wiffie Smith and Barbara Romack, two young but experienced golfing veterans, collide today in the feature semifinal of the Trans-Mississippi Amateur Championship on the Monterey Peninsula Country Club course.

* * *

Polly Riley, the defending Trans-Miss champ from Ft. Worth, Tex., meets Mrs. James Ferrie, a two-time California state titleholder from Gardena, Calif., in the other 18-hole semi.

Barbara, 23-year-old Sacramento, Calif. blonde, and the red-haired Wiffie, a Texan from Orange, both went two over par yesterday in winning quarterfinal matches. Mary Sargent of Pebble Beach lost to Barbara 6 and 4 as Wiffie was downing Mrs. Stradon Loveys, Los Angeles, 2 and 1.

Polly, a five-year Curtis Cup member, disposed of Mrs. Ruth McCullah, Santa Monica, Calif. grandmother, 5 and 3. Mrs. Ferrie, a golfer for 22 years, made good use of her experience to defeat Barbara Williams, 18, of Richmond, Calif., 1 up.

Leading Teams Battle

Intersectional Games Top Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

College football teams which have been enriching the railroads and airlines, as well as their own coffers, by playing games in distant regions, get their last fling at seeing the country this weekend before settling down to more serious matters.

* * *

Today's far-flung games just about wind up the intersectional part of the seasn and prvide the final line of comparison for the experts who try to rate teams on a national basis. From here on, major conference teams will devote their attention mainly to settling their own sectional championships. Only a few ambitious independent teams, such as Notre Dame, Navy, Pittsburgh, Miami of Florida and Villanova will indulge in any great amount of intersectional play during the rest of the season.

Navy's alternating "first" teams both are expected to see a lot of action against Tulane at New Orleans. Although Navy has a 2-0 record and Tulane 2-1 against stronger opposition, the status of the Midshipmen is uncertain. Coach Eddie Erdelatz apparently hasn't been able to settle on a definite lineup.

* * *

From the Southwest, Texas Christian, Rice and Southern Methodist all go into the southern area to play Alabama, Florida and Duke, respectively. All three visitors should have the edge. Meanwhile Baylor and Arkansas tangle in the only Southwest Conference game and Texas takes on Oklahoma, No. 1 team in the nation in The Associated Press ranking poll, in a contest with a slightly intersectional flavor.

Oklahoma, the dominant team of the Big Seven Conference, has just learned that its 32-game winning streak isn't a modern record. Statisticians dug up the fact that Pittsburgh won 33 in a row from 1914 to 1919. So today's game gives Oklahoma a chance to tie the record and when they return to their whomping of conference rivals, they'll be going for a new mark.

Cards Favored Over Redskins

NEW YORK (INS)—The amazing Chicago Cardinals are favored to post their third straight victory tomorrow and continue their reign over the national football league in the Eastern Division.

* * *

The rest of the schedule and prices are as follows: Chicago Bears by 10½ over San Francisco at Chicago; Pittsburgh by 2½ over the Philadelphia Eagles at Pittsburgh; Baltimore by one over Green Bay at Milwaukee, and New York at Cleveland in a pick-'em game.

The Cardinals, a fourth-place team in 1955, started the season by whipping the world champion Browns, 9 to 7, and adding a 35 to 27 conquest of the Giants last week.

* * *

The Cardinal runners are hot and if Lamar McHan improved as much as he looked at quarterback against the Giants, the team could be the Eastern dark horse.

Safety Decides Maple Victory at Hazel Park

Birmingham used a third period safety as a deciding factor in its 14-13 win over Hazel Park last night.

The Maples, behind 6-0 at halftime, scored in the 3rd period when a short kickoff was fumbled by a Viking lineman and grabbed in mid-air by George Miller who raced 28 yards to the three from where Chuck Gibson tallied.

Hazel Park was pushed back to the goal on penalties after the ensuing kickoff and Dave Richie smeared a Viking back for the safety.

Mike Nordstrom made it 14-6 on a 3-yard buck to start the 4th quarter, and the Parkers completed a 25-yard pass play for their 13th point.

Ortonville 11 Wins 18-12 SCC Thriller

Ortonville came from behind to defeat Millington, 18-12, in an exciting South Central Conference football game last night at Ortonville. The Blackhawks scored their winning touchdown in the final minute of play.

The Hawks spotted Millington a 6-0 halftime lead, then tied the count in the 3rd quarter with an 80-yard drive, climaxed by Bill Sallivick's 12-yard run. After giving Millington the advantage again, Ortonville fought back for a 12-12 deadlock when Arnold Hungerford grabbed a fumble and raced 52 yards to score.

A pass completion from Ed Hungerford to John Uloth, which covered 50 yards, tallied the winning TD for the blackhawks. Don Beebee scored both touchdowns for Millington on runs of five and 10 yards.

Ortonville's Dave Kowalsky, a sophomore halfback, suffered a broken shoulder blade in the 3rd period. He will be sidelined for the rest of the season.

Almont Rolls

Dryden Loses 1st in STL

Memphis took over sole possession of the Southern Thumb by downing previously unbeaten Dryden, 21-13, with the winning touchdown in the final three minutes of play.

Two quick touchdowns in the first period gave Memphis a 14-0 lead, one resulting on a Dryden fumble.

Dryden scored in the 2nd period when Clair Wentworth passed to Herb Sawgle on a 65 yard play tto make it 14-7 as Dave Daley made the point.

In the 3rd period, Daley went through tackle 10 yards to make it 14-13 but Sawgle's plunge for the point failed.

* * *

Helpless Brown City was smeared by Almont, 51-0, in another Thumb game as Alex Iloncia scored 4 times on runs of 3, 30, 16 and 7 yards. Larry Kersten also scored twice on passes of 18 and 29 yards.

In a South Central game, Imlay City ripped through North Branch, 32-7, on long scoring plays, including a 60 yard dash by Stan Stover and a pair of 50 yard pass plays to Bob Lindsey for two touchdowns.

Rangers Shutout Black Hawks, 3-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Montreal's powerhouse Canadiens take the ice for the first time this season in the National League tonight in a home game against the Boston Bruins. The defending champions are the only team which has yet to see action.

In last night's single contest, the New York Rangers and goalie Lorne Worsley scored the first shutout of the season, 3-0, over Chicago to spoil the home opener of the Black Hawks.

Pankey's 10 Points Capture PTTA Lead

Pankey's Hangar Grill downed Fleet Carrier, 4-2, to take over 1st place in the Pontiac Table Tennis Association. Pankey's has 10 points to its credit.

In other league matches, Pontiac Varnish downed Capital Barber, 5-1; General Conveyor bested Nicholas Market, 5-1; and Bethany Baptist dumped Frayer's, 4-2. The Varnish, Conveyor and Baptist teams have eight points apiece for a 2nd place tie.

Capital Barber has six points, L. H. Cole Oil five, Newberry Market five, Fleet Carrier five, Nicholas Market three and Frayer's two to complete the standings.

Jim Beal and John Stephens of Frayer's defeated Bethany's Jim Fair and Dave Jones, 21-18, 19-21, 21-19, in the best doubles match of the evening.

Cadets at Ann Arbor

'M'-MSU Both Favored

ANN ARBOR (INS) — Fair and clear weather is expected to bring out a crowd of 95,000 today for Michigan's battle with army at Ann Arbor.

The Wolverines, 9 to 0 victims of Michigan State last week, are back at full strength and rule a touchdown favorite to make it two in a row over army. Michigan won last year's game, 26 to 2, after dropping the first five games of the series beginning in 1945.

Army has won both of its games this year, including an impressive 14 to 7 triumph over Penn State last week. The cadets have a strong but light line and fast backs.

Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty fears his players may suffer an emotional letdown after last week's 9 to 0 win over Michigan. Indiana, on the other hand, goes into the game inspired by a surprisingly good showing against Notre Dame.

Scheffing Gets Fast Start by Firing Coaches

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Scheffing, newly appointed manager of the Chicago Cubs, doesn't have much experience but that doesn't keep him from being a fast worker.

Scheffing, 41, fired all three coaches who served under Ex-manager Stan Hack yesterday shortly after he received his appointment.

A former catcher with the Chicago Cubs, Scheffing led the Los Angeles Angels to the pennant in the Pacific Coast League this season. His first act as Cub manager was to request the resignations of coaches Ray Blades, Pepper Martin and Dutch Leonard.

Falcons Trounce Center Line 11

Rochester's long-range scoring guns went wild Friday night at Center Line as Gene Konley's Falcons trounced Center Line High, 42-20, in a wide-open display of offense.

The victory was the 4th of the season for the Falcons and enabled them to maintain their unbeaten, untied record.

Classy halfback Dave Peters rambled 80 yards for one touchdown, Fred Weaver scooted 78 yards for another, Dave Eldred hit pay-dirt with a 94-yard jaunt, and Weaver passed to Peters for a 51-yard scoring play.

Patty Berg Holds Four-Stroke Lead

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (INS) — Veteran Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., held a four-stroke lead today at the halfway mark of the $5,000 Women's Open Golf Tournament at Hot Springs.

Miss Berg turned in a fine 69 yesterday for a 36-hole total of 141. Tied for second place were Peggy Kirk of Southern Pines, N. C., who had a 70 yesterday, and Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., who had 72.

The first round leader, Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., slumped to a 75 and moved back to a 4th place tie at 146 with Alice Bauer of Palos Park, Ill., who had a 70.

Pair of Pliers Solves Problem

NEW ULM, Minn. (AP) — Tackle Harry Kuehn, a 195-pounder, was in tears when he had to leave a bruising game between Holy Trinity High School and Faribault Bethlehem Academy because of a broken tooth.

* * *

When he saw Bethlehem score a touchdown over his position, he called for a string to pull out the broken tooth. None was available, so trainer Tom Manderfeld provided a pair of mechanic's pliers used to tighten cleats.

Kuehn yanked out the tooth with the pliers. When the bleeding stopped, he returned to the game and sparked his team to a 26-6 win.

Viking Runners Easily Dispose of Hamtramck

Walled Lake High School's strong cross-country team ended its dual meet season yesterday with a lopsided 15-50 victory over Hamtramck at Walled Lake. It was the 5th win in six starts for the Vikings and their 24th triumph in their last 25 meets.

* * *

Of the field of 30 runners, the 1st dozen finishers were from Walled Lake. Captain Charles Wilson came home 1st in the time of 10:45, a new record for the two-mile course. Following Wilson across the finish line were Bill Hosley, Bob Schoenberger, Jim Wilson, Mike Kerrigan, Dennis McClure and Steve Johnson.

The Inter-Lakes Conference cross-country meet will be held Thursday, Oct. 18, at Hickory Hills Golf Course.

Two Top Races Set for Today

Nashua Bids Goodbye to Racing in Belmont Gold Cup

NEW YORK (AP)—Nashua bids goodbye to racing today in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park, after which the 2-year-old stars tackle the rich Futurity Stakes on an afternoon reeking in tradition and greenbacks.

The sparkling program promises a big afternoon with seven horses in the Gold Cup, and 14 in the Futurity, but overall looms the shadow of the great sire—Nasrullah.

Nashua, who is making the 30th and final start of his colorful career, is expected to rule a 4-5 choice in the 2-mile Gold Cup with Mister Gus next at 5-2.

In the Futurity, 6½ furlongs down the Widener Straight Course, Bold Ruler is favored at 6-5, with the entry of Nashville and Blue Spruce next at 5-2.

Wolves Rip Saginaw, 71-13 in Warmup for Northern

Elmer Engle's rough-and-ready Wolves from Bay City Central High have made a powerful bid to step into the state's No. 1 prep football spot with a 71-13 shellacking of Saginaw High.

The unbeaten, untied Wolfpack roared to one of the season's most lopsided margins in dealing Saginaw its third setback compared with one victory and a tie.

Little Namon Smith, a jet-propelled fullback who weighs only 137 pounds, sparked the Wolves to their 5th consecutive triumph, scoring four times on runs of 86, 43, 21 and 52 yards and adding an extra point. Quarterback Terry Ebright and left halfback Jim Johnson each scored twice.

The Wolves, ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press class A poll, face all-victorious Flint Northern in the "high school game of the year" next Friday night at Flint. Northern, the state's No. 1 team, made it five in a row Friday night by thumping Muskegon 26-0.

Turkey Shoot Sunday

January Leads Western

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sharp-shooting young Texas pro Don January held the lead of the Western Open Golf tournament today with 138 on a pair of three-under-par 69s.

The Lampasas Kid, who turned pro only last year and has captured only one major tournament, was one stroke out in front of long-hitting Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., veteran who put together 70-69 for a two-round total of 139.

First round leaders fell back slightly. Pro Bill Casper of Chula Vista, Calif., added a par 72 to the fine 68 he had Thursday, and amateur Johnny McMullin of Alameda skidded to a 74. That, with his first round 68, left him four strokes off the pace at 142.

The big field was cut to 55 pros and eight amateurs today, with scores of 150 or better needed to advance into the third round.

Defending champion Cary Middlecoff encountered tree trouble yesterday& losing a ball and carding a 73 for a two-day total of 143. It was a tee shot on the eighth that ruined his second round score. The ball was last seen heading toward trees and nobody could find it. It is an easy way to lose a ball on this course.

The players were harassed by the treacherous, lumpy greens. Most of the griping was subdued but Bobby Rosburg of San Francisco called the greens "as bad as they could be—awful."

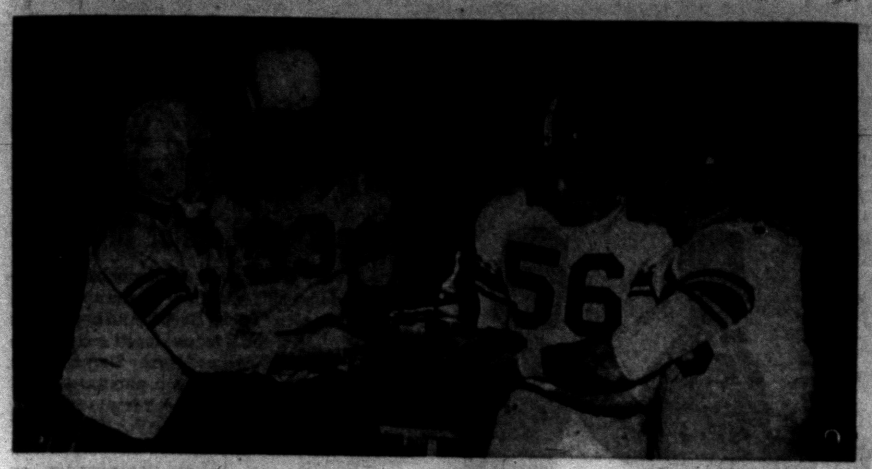

Ed Furgol, former National Open champion, wanted to know what Rosburg was "squawking about—Bob only had a 69 today."

Quick-tempered Tommy Bolt provided some action on the 17th when, after missing a putt, he threw his club into the trees and broke it. He played out using his 2 iron to putt.

TUG FOR SHOE — Co-captains of the Lake Orion and Oxford football teams engage in a tug of war for the bronze football shoe which has been instituted as the trophy between the two rivals. Orion's co-captains Ed Braid and John Parker (right) were the victors in gaining the trophy as the Dragons trounced Oxford, 33-0. Wildcat captains (left) are Buck Beardslee and Bob Harrison.

Orion Routs Oxford

BY CHUCK ABAIR

OXFORD — Racing to a touchdown right after the opening kickoff, the Lake Orion Dragons kept pouring it on the rest of the night to wallop traditional rival Oxford 33-0, before an overflow Homecoming Game crowd here last night.

The one-sided victory enabled the victors to be the first school to gain possession of the bronze shoe trophy which is being awarded annually to the winner of this battle of neighboring schools.

There was little doubt about the final outcome following the opening six-pointer as Coach Ted Sela's charges scored one of the most lopsided victories in the history of the rivalry between the area grid elevens.

* * *

The series stands even now at four wins apiece with three other contests ending in ties since 1946. Oxford had dominated their meetings prior to the war.

* * *

It was the fourth triumph in five outings for the Dragons this season and a complete reversal of form from a week ago when the Orion gang was dropped from the unbeaten ranks at the hands of Clawson. Coach Sela explained the rebound with the comment: "This was the best we've looked this year," following the game.

Despite the absence of injured speed merchant John Schoff, the Dragons displayed a wealth of good running backs in piling up 15 first downs and 351 of a total 363 yards by rushing.

Doug Storey topped the group with a pair of scores. Hard-hitting fullback Ralph McLachlan, quarterback Nick Neira, and Larry Kelly made the others as the visitors ripped through the Oxford line at will.

* * *

Storey got the scoring parade underway in the first two minutes of play by plunging over from the two-yard line after a 58-yard march.

In the second quarter, McLaughlin scored from the three, Storey went 15 yards for another and Niera raced 60 yards on a pass interception. Kelly's 72-yard dash set up the final period score.

The Wildcats had several hard-running ball carriers in Mike Lewis, Wendell Smith and Bill Kennedy but could never go all the way. Coach Jean Harkness could only remark that "it was a bad night" for his club.

Holly, Lakers Victorious

W-O Race Gets Topsy

WAYNE-OAKLAND

	League W	L	T	All Games W	L	T
Northville	1	0	1	2	2	1
Brighton	2	1	0	2	3	0
Holly	2	1	0	2	2	0

Clarenceville	1	2	0	1	4	0
Clarkston	1	3	0	1	4	0

* * *

Northville occupies first place in the Wayne-Oakland Conference today and the Mustangs accomplished the feat without even trying.

While Ron Schipper's gridders were playing a non-league game with Thurston, West Bloomfield was rocking Brighton for its 1st win of the season and Holly was rudely dumping Milford to throw the topsy-turvy W-O race into a wide-open affair.

The Lakers, who finally wearied of being everybody's doormat, rose up and conquered Brighton by a 26-20 margin while Holly continued to gain momentum with an 18-0 victory over the Redskins.

Clarkston, minus star quarterback Leroy Parks, bowed to Clarenceville last night in the remaining W-O game. The 13-0 decision was Clarenceville's 1st triumph of the season.

Brighton scored 1st in the see-saw battle at Brighton, but that failed to prevent the Lakers from stealing the show.

Sean Lavan's five-yard run and Herb Snyder's quarterback sneak gave the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead, but West Bloomfield rebounded with a 20-yard pass from John Lucadam to Roger Wolfe and a 15-yard gallop by Wolfe to grab a 13-7 advantage as the 2nd period rolled around.

Snyder's two-yard plunge handed Brighton a 14-13 edge at halftime, but the Lakers came back again, this time marching 70 yards for a touchdown with Lucadam going over from one yard out. The visitors never again relinquished their advantage.

* * *

Lucadam tallied for the Lakers once more, punching across from the one to climax a 60-yard drive. A 40-yard aerial strike from Snyder to Jim Paddock brought Brighton its 3rd TD, but the Bulldogs were doomed to their 1st league setback.

Holly's upending of Milford showed clearly that the Broncos must be reckoned with before the league campaign is finished. Reese Prota's gridders hit paydirt in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd quarters.

Bill Taylor's 12-yard pass to Dennis Clark accounted for the opening tally. A 22-yard jaunt by Amos Bradsher posted the next TD and Danny O'Brien scotted 15 yards to complete the point-making.

Clarkston sorely missed the services of Parks as Ed Hintz's injury-riddled Wolves lost for the 4th time this fall. Dave Hanaford's eight-yard dash in the 1st quarter and Dale Devitt's 11-yard run in the 2nd period scored for Clarenceville.

WL, Waterford Hold Lead in Lakes League

Faltering Southfield Is Beaten Again, 26-6 by Van Dyke

By JERRY BARNFATHER

Dig this crazy Inter-Lakes Conference race! Waterford and Walled Lake stayed unbeaten and atop the league by a hairline, and unpredictable Southfield got trounced for the second straight week. This time by Van Dyke.

Overcoming a poor first half, Waterford bounced back to score twice, and hand Berkley its 4th defeat, 13-6. The triumph was Waterford's 3rd straight in the I-L conference.

Berkley capitalized on a 2nd half interception to obtain their only tally which held until midway in the 3rd stanza. Quarterback Bob Taylor leaped over from the one yard stripe.

The Skippers called upon services of Ed Clark to score their 1st TD. The fleet back bulled 15 yards into the end-zone with Clayton Roth converting.

* * *

Waterford iced the contest when Roth pounced on a Bear fumble of a punt on the Berkley 15 yard line. Lyndie Salathiel skirted left end for the necessary yardage.

Berkley threatened in the waning seconds when Herb Duncan unleashed an aerial which covered 44 yards but the clock killed the threat.

* * *

With speedster Frank Fink out of action with a leg injury, Walled Lake was still riding the laurels of last week's win over Southfield and as a result the Vikings came away from Farmington with a 7-6 squeeker.

Fullback John Walker picked up 200 of the 253 yards rushing and scored the lone TD and extra point in the 3rd quarter.

Farmington followed with a 3rd period tally when Dave Rentz went 65 yards with an intercepted pass, but the kick was missed.

* * *

The Jays were lifeless and were still singing the blues over the loss to Walled Lake a week ago.

Miami Defeats Maryland, 13-6

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Miami's Hurricanes, proving they could travel through the air as well as on the ground, defeated Maryland 13-6 last night for their third straight victory of the football season and their eighth in a row over a two-season span.

Sam Scarnecchia, the No. 1 quarterback, and his understudy, Bonnie Yarbrough, each connected with a touchdown pass after Maryland's big line had barricaded Miami's rushing attack. Between them, they completed nine of 12 throws.

"We played them man for man in the line but we couldn't begin to match them in the backfield," said Maryland's Coach Tommy Mont.

Jackets Win; Troy Romps

OAKLAND—B

Clawson	3	0	1	3	1	1
Lake Orion	2	1	0	4	1	0

Madison	1	3	0	2	3	0
Fitzgerald	0	3	1	0	4	1
Roseville	0	3	1	0	4	1

A second-half surge by Avondale kept the Jackets' Oakland B title hopes alive in the 20-6 win over Roseville.

The Wildcats held a 6-0 halftime margin when Fred Olds picked up a Jacket fumble and went 35 yards. Avondale marched 70 yards and was perched on the goal line as the half ended.

Sven Blomberg went 15 yards on a handoff and Sanders' points made it 7-6 in the 3rd period. Ron Elmy made it 13-6 with a 5-yard plunge late in the quarter.

Avondale dominated the game the rest of the way, and Blomberg went five yards for the final score as Sanders made it 20-6.

* * *

The win gave Avondale a 2-1 league mark, behind Troy and Clawson, both of which scored wins last night to stay in 3-0 deadlock, followed by Lake Orion which is also 2-1.

Seven Colts got into the scoring, with Dick Kelly, Wayne Figley, Jack Fifield twice, Luke Parker and Joe Gajowiak scoring touchdowns and Sim Acton and Leo Valko converting. Longest score was 52 yards after a pass interception by Parker in the 3rd period. Score at halftime was 20-0.

* * *

Clawson stayed neck and neck with Troy by trouncing Madison 20-12, and next Friday afternoon the Trojans will have the big showdown with the Colts on the Troy gridiron.

State Pro Cage Ace Is Injured

Spoelstra hit a backboard upright in Lewiston Armory Thursday night during an exhibition game between his Rochester Royals and the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn.

PHS Is Beaten, 13-12

By BILL CORNWELL

Flint Central's striking power slept for nearly three quarters last night, then suddenly came to life. And thereby hangs a sad tale.

The Indians broke the prolonged frustration on the 1st play of the final period and kept up the pressure to hand Pontiac a heartbreaking 13-12 setback in a Saginaw Valley Conference engagement at Wisner Stadium.

Three of the four touchdowns were scored during the hectic 4th quarter in a well-played, see-saw struggle which thrilled a near capacity crowd.

Pontiac completely dominated play in the 1st half, especially in the 2nd stanza when the Chiefs controlled the ball for all but four plays from scrimmage. Central's limited use of the pigskin in that period netted a negative three yards.

Despite this ball control, the Chiefs were able to score only once. Early in the 2nd quarter they drove to the Central 12-yard line where Ray Metcalfe recovered a fumble to kill the threat.

The Chiefs reached pay-dirt the next time they got their hands on the ball. With fullback Charley Spann carrying the brunt of the attack, Pontiac marched 36 yards for its 1st tally. Halfback Charley Robinson cracked over from the two and PHS led at halftime, 6-0.

Central's dormant offense started moving towards the end of the 3rd quarter. Jim Shorter's interception of quarterback Bill Ringer's pass temporarily held the Indians at bay, but following a Pontiac punt they struck swiftly.

On the opening play of the last quarter, Art Thrash, a brilliant runner for Central last night, broke into the clear and galloped 47 yards for the tying tally.

* * *

This aroused the ire of the Chiefs, who came storming back to grab a 12-6 advantage. PHS drove 58 yards in seven plays for its 2nd touchdown with quarterback Dick Whitmer sprinting the final six.

Central was not to be denied, however. The Indians took the ensuing kickoff and marched 74 yards in 13 plays to tie the score. It was Ringer and Thrash all the way and the two combined for a 17-yard pass completion to reach the PHS five.

Three successive smashes into the line by Thrash were required to score, with the final slant covering one yard. Ringer swept wide around right end on a bootleg for the all-important extra point with 3:18 of game time remaining.

Pontiac tried desperately to bounce back, but Lawton Willis-ton's interception of Whitmer's aerial ended all hopes for the Chiefs as Flint ran out the clock.

Brazilian Champ Wins

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Paulo de Jesus, Brazilian welterweight champion, rallied from a 8-count knockdown in the third round to gain a 10-round decision last night over Oscar Pitta of Argentina.

Spectators hailed it as the best fight in the last five years in Pacaembu Stadium.

Kefauver Ill, Cancels 4 Kentucky Speeches

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver cancelled his four Kentucky speaking engagements scheduled for today and tried to shake off the sore throat and cold which he aggravated with long hours of touring in the dust blown farm country.

* * *

The Democratic vice presidential nominee last night reluctantly made the decision not to keep the Kentucky dates after his advisors had insisted that the final three weeks of the campaign starting next Monday were too important to jeopardize.

* * *

But Kefauver wanted to keep the dates because the Bluegrass State is a crucial battleground this year particularly in the fight for control of the Senate. Two Senate seats now held by Democrats are at stake in the state. Republicans have high hopes of picking up at least one of them.

His aides said he would try to get to Kentucky some other time before Nov. 6.

* * *

He had a new flareup of his sore throat yesterday morning after a 22-hour day he put in on Thursday most of it motoring over rural roads in Iowa and visiting a dusty farm improvement show.

But he insisted on going ahead with his important engagement at the National Corn Picking Contest at Columbus, Neb., yesterday afternoon and reportedly was glad he had done so.

* * *

His aides were highly pleased at estimates of Nebraska newsmen that the Democratic nominee drew a crowd about a third larger than the audience which heard Vice President Nixon from the same platform four hours earlier.

Police estimates of the size of the crowd on the grounds varied from 60,000 to 100,000 but not nearly all of these gathered at the platform for the speech by either nominee.

Kefauver released today as a statement the text of a speech he had planned to make in Kentucky answering a talk made recently by Nixon at Nashville, Tenn., in which the Vice President pledged support of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The Senator listed a long series of votes which he said Nixon cast against TVA funds as a member of Congress, and declared "his appearance in the role of TVA supporter is an insult to the people of the Tennessee Valley."

Kefauver also said the "notorious Dixon Yates contract is a monument to President Eisenhower's breach of faith with the Tennessee Valley. It is symbolic of the many broken promises that mark the four years of the Eisenhower administration."

This contract, now cancelled, was negotiated by the Atomic Energy Commission at Eisenhower's direction to build a private utility steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., to supply power in the TVA area.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A retired school teacher has a note of thanks from an old grammar school classmate—Dwight D. Eisenhower. Miss Mame Goodell sent the President a photograph showing him in class at Garfield School in Abilene, Kan. She received a note saying:

"I received with great pleasure the picture you sent me for a birthday gift. It takes me back to happy memories of some 60 years ago. You may be sure it will find a place in the Eisenhower museum."

Truman Charges GOP Farm Plan 'Communistic'

MARSHALL, Minn. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman wound up a busy day of campaigning in southwestern Minnesota by telling an audience here last night the Republicans favor a farm program which he said could end in absentee ownership and collective farming.

Speaking to an audience of about 1,800 in the heart of a farming area, Truman accused the Republicans of misstatements on farm matters. He questioned the basic arguments he said the Republicans were advancing.

Truman said "their first argument seems to be that Eisenhower is a nice man and very popular. If we elect a man president because he is a nice man, there are a whole lot of candidates who can fill that bill."

He said "the farmer can have peace and prosperity and under Stevenson and Kefauver they will have both."

Helps Heart Victims

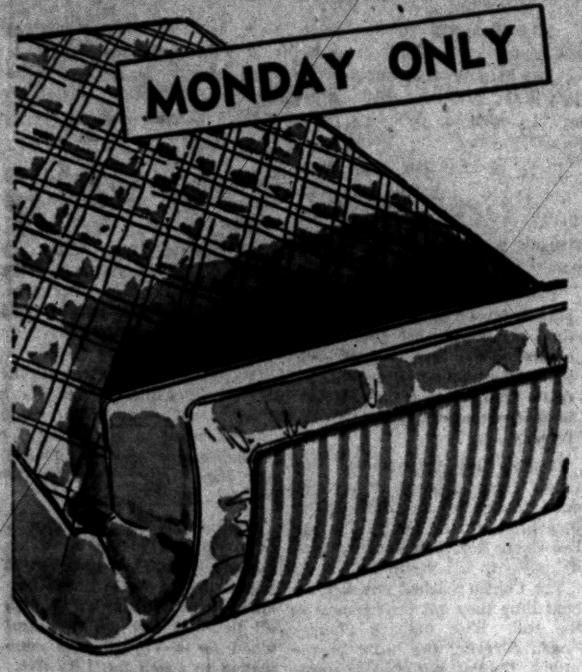

CAPE TOWN—South African research on heart disease has led an African marine-oil-refining concern to divide fats into fractions and produce a fat said to reduce cholesterol content in the blood. The company says tests show that an ounce of the drug taken daily for seven weeks can reduce the blood cholesterol of a patient from a 317 count to the normal 245 even though the patient continues on his normal diet.

Ex-U. N. Envoy Ailing

Your Neighbor's House:

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

After years and years of keeping house in an old home on Fairgrove avenue, Mrs. Donald B. Hogue is delighting in a brand new home in Franklin Village.

* * *

With their sons grown and away from home, the Hogues no longer needed a large house. Mr. Hogue's work is in Dearborn, but their social life has always centered around the Pontiac area. Mrs. Hogue taught music at Eastern Junior High School for many years.

House-hunting took them all over Oakland County. They finally decided on a house on Romsey street, just south of Fourteen Mile road. This put Mr. Hogue much nearer his work, yet allowed the couple easy access to the friends and community activities in this part of the county.

The Fairgrove street house was big, with dark woodwork and walls, a drafty open stairway and an old-fashioned kitchen. Their new home is all on one floor, has light walls and woodwork, lots of storage space and a kitchen that is as efficient as it is attractive. The Hogues love it.

When they knew definitely that they were going to move, Mr. Hogue issued an ultimatum. No old furniture was to go with them.

* * *

Then they engaged an interior decorator, a personal friend of theirs from Grosse Pointe. She found many pieces of furniture in the old house that would look right in the new one. So like the compromise question of location, this ultimatum became a compromise.

Mrs. Hogue's bedroom is furnished in antiques. Her mother's silver spoon collection—long since consigned to the attic—has a place of honor in the living room. In the kitchen there is an old-fashioned spice cupboard on one wall. Certain treasures of the past are at home in any scheme of decorating.

The Hogue house is one-story with an attached garage. The exterior is red brick with aqua trim. Setting comfortably in the middle of the one-acre lot, the house is surrounded by wide areas of green lawn and trees in the distance.

At the back, sheltered from the summer sun, there is a terrace filled with lawn furniture. A rose and chrysanthemum garden has been planted in the corner between the garage and the kitchen walls.

Right smack in the middle of the front door — which incidentally is painted a bright salmon—is the doorknob. It's such a surprising place to find a knob. But it works just like any other knob.

The entry hall is one step down from the main part of the house. On the living room level there is a coat closet. The wall around this closet is papered in yellow. Silver and gray stylized trees make a pleasant design.

Between the living room and the entry hall there is an unusual divider. Made of glass set in a wooden frame, the see-through wall permits light to penetrate and provides narrow shelves for knick-knacks.

The living room has gray walls and gray-green carpeting. In contrast, both in color and texture, the fireplace wall is red brick. It stops several feet below the ceiling.

On top of the exposed bricks, the Hogues have placed their violin collection. On one side are completed instruments, on the other unfinished ones made by Mr. Hogue's father.

* * *

The fireplace itself is framed in slate. It is set about a foot above the floor, with a narrow slate hearth, below. On one side of the hearth is a lounge chair and ottoman covered in a gold and beige tweedy fabric; on the other side there's a platform rocker covered in gray-green.

One small armchair is red to blend with the fireplace wall. The sofa is gray. A new one has been ordered; but it has been missent somewhere in shipping and hasn't yet arrived.

As Pontiac people know, Mrs. Hogue is a musician. A piano is an important piece of furniture to her. When she moved, she had her piano refinished. It came out a beautiful light mahogany with the grain of the wood showing plainly.

At the back of the house, behind the living room, are the kitchen and TV room. The north wall of the room has a large regular window and above that, a clerestory window for extra light. Only the lower portion is curtained. The decorator found dark blue cotton with a green vegetable print to use here.

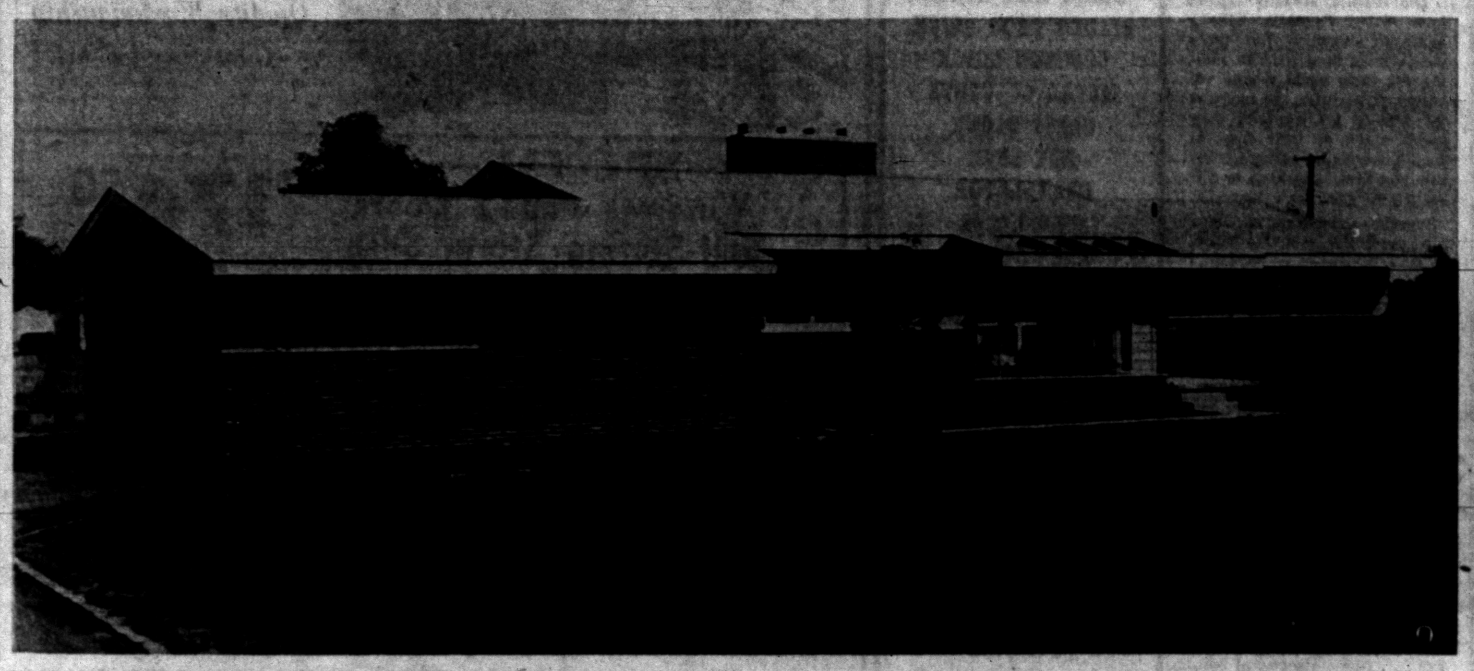

The Hogues have a cherry drop-leaf table and captain's chairs. They can look out on their flower garden while they dine. The corner and wall around the table is papered in white with terra cotta birds on it.

The little spice cupboard mentioned earlier hangs on this papered wall. It has small drawers labeled sago — ginger — cloves—tea—borax—sulphur, etc. There are two larger drawers for starch and coffee.

The TV room has its own fireplace. The wall beside the fireplace is filled with bookshelves. In this room the floor is made of cork, while the walls are paneled in Philippine ma-

IN FRANKLIN VILLAGE — The Donald B. Hogues exchanged an old home on crowded Fairgrove street in Pontiac for this new, low red brick modern in Franklin Village. The planter box in front has an opening in the roof for light and rain to enter. Behind the attached garage is a flower garden with gravel paths.

Pontiac Press Photos by Jim Mahar

A PIANO IS NECESSARY — In the Hogue home a piano is an important piece of furniture. Mrs. Hogue poses for the photographer at her baby grand in one corner of the living room. The draperies behind her are sheer white with a gold design. On the wall behind the piano hang two of the paintings the Hogues have rematted and put into modern frames. J. Renwick Metheny, a former Pontiac artist and musician painted the water colors.

FEMININE ROOM — Mrs. Hogue's bedroom is a feminine room with chintz at the windows and quilted chintz on the bed. The colors are pale green, lavender and rose. The little rocker on the left was once a folding rocker. It is covered in an old-fashioned looking material. Mrs. Hogue uses an old walnut wash stand for a bedside table.

APPLIANCES DECORATE — Mrs. Hogue uses all her electric appliances as part of the kitchen decoration. Set out on the counter top, they make an attractive display. The cupboards in this kitchen are Philippine mahogany with terra cotta counter tops and splash boards. The floor is gray.

Hanging on the walls of this room and throughout the rest of the house are a number of water colors and oil paintings. They were painted many years ago by a local artist and musician, one J. Renwick Matheny. Now, rematted and framed in modern frames, they are an important part of the color scheme.

There are three medium-sized bedrooms in the Hogue house. The first one serves several purposes. It has a small poster bed for overnight guests. Mrs. Hogue has her desk, her sewing machine and a music storage cabinet here also.

The bed and small sewing chair have covers of heavy blue cotton. For accent and to match the curtains there are pillows of flowered material.

Mr. Hogue's room has a deep blue rug and mahogany furniture. This rug, a Wilton, was the first thing the Hogues bought for their house after they were married. It was used in their first living room.

The family bathroom is backed up against this one and has only a translucent glass window that permits light from the outside bath to filter into the inside room. The shower curtain and the curtains on the "window" are white with a yellow seashell and butterfly pattern.

Mrs. Hogue's room has gray walls and gray-green scatter rugs on the floor. Her bed has a quilted headboard with a matching spread. The dust ruffle is gray-green.

The Hogues actually moved into their Franklin Village home in January. But three weeks later they went to Florida for their usual winter vacation. Then Mrs. Hogue was ill. During the summer they spent much of their time at their Lake Huron cottage. They are just now beginning to feel settled in their new home.

Do's and Don'ts to Repair That Leaky Faucet

DO . . . shut off the water to faucet, unscrew nut directly under handle by turning counterclockwise, then rotate handle in same direction as if turning on water—and entire assembly will come loose.

DON'T . . . give up if the faucet stem is beyond repair; you can buy a replacement stem similar to the one in your faucet or a new model which does away with the screw-type washer.

Here's the Proper Way

Antiquing or glazing a surface to give it a mellow look, is done by applying a tinted glazing liquid to a painted, enameled or stained surface. The glazing liquid, mixed with a little raw or burnt umber—depending upon the tone you want—is usually brushed on, then blended out with a piece of cheesecloth. The uneven areas, where there is moulding or carving, are often left darker. Flat areas are highlighted by removing the glazing liquid from them almost entirely.

Before beginning a major project, better practice a little on a small unimportant area. Or, if you happen to have an old piece of furniture you don't like, use it for practice. You'll be pleasantly surprised with the results.

Clean Screens Well

When you take your screens down, give them a thorough cleaning, using the dusting brush of your vacuum cleaner to draw the occumulation of dust and soil from the mesh and frames. Store in a clean, dry place, and cover with newspapers.

AN UNDER-BED STORAGE DRAWER — A convenient place for extra blankets. It's easy to make such a drawer by using 1 by 6-inch lumber for the sides and splinterproof hardboard of the tempered pressed wood type for the bottom and lids. Attach a door pull to each lid and a caster to each corner of the bottom. For use under a double bed, the drawer may be 4 feet square. One panel of hardboard suffices.

Swiss Depend on Their Navy

Fresh-Water Steamers Plying Lakes to Connect Nation With Neighbors

"True, they are fresh-water steamers plying the Lakes of Constance, Geneva, and Lugano," says the traveling wife-husband team, Jean and Franc Shor. "But they carry as many as 1,500 passengers and form an important link between Switzerland and her neighbors."

Less than half the area of Maine, Switzerland is home to nearly 5,000,000 people who speak four languages—German, French, Italian, and Romansh. They stand as one, however, in defense of their country.

"Switzerland does not have an army," a Swiss major snapped in answer to a query about many troops seen in training. "Switzerland is an army . . . If an invader should strike tomorrow, we would be ready. Practically every important bridge in the country is mined, ready to be blown up at a minute's notice. All important factories have reserve stocks of vital materials. Every family has reserves of food. Most important, every able-bodied man has a gun he knows how to use."

In their wanderings, the Shors found that Switzerland has cheese as well as guns, along with castles, covered bridges, peaks, lakes, and hotels to gladden the vacationer's heart.

At the Matterhorn-dominated resort of Zermatt, whose winding streets were crowded with climbers toting knapsack, rope, and ice ax, they learned that assorted conquerors of that famous mountain include a high-school student in blue jeans and tennis shoes, a one-legged German, and a hotel barmaid tired of listening to patrons' boasts.

But the Matterhorn, like other Swiss peaks, has its dangers. Later, the Shors met the life-saving "Glacier Pilot of the Alps," who filled them in on tragedies and successes of rescue flights, and the amazing feats of "avalanche dogs" that are trained to find people buried under snow.

PALM TREES AND EDELWEISS

South of St. Gotthard Pass, the authors exchanged alpine glaciers and edelweiss for a sunny beach and swaying palm trees in the Riviera atmosphere of Italian-speaking Ticino.

At the capital city of Bern, medieval facades, clock towers, and soaring Munster Church enchanted them; as did the municipal bear pits where the artful animals begged in amusing antics for carrots and figs.

In a Geneva watch factory, the Shors heard an amplifier turn almost inaudible wristwatch ticks into a roar. Like a doctor with a stethoscope, said their guide, a good watchmaker can tell a lot from the tick.

The travelers were prepared for Swiss precision instruments, Swiss chocolate, wood carvings, and alpenhorns. But telephone service was another surprise. Over it they could get a news summary, hints on where to shop and locate a hotel room—and a perfect A if they had needed to tune a violin.

More significant, as a symbol of democratic Switzerland, was the termination of a Bern interview. Looking at his watch, the gentleman with whom Mr. Shor was talking said, "You'll have to excuse me, or I'll miss my bus. Come out with me, and we'll talk while I wait."

Decorator Says Tones of Wood Good Base Color

"Monochromatic color schemes are especially tasteful for the popular multilevel homes springing up all over America today," says Elsie Doty Sopp, A.I.D., leading western home decorator.

"Wood paneled walls especially lend themselves to a monochromatic theme," Mrs. Sopp states, "and eliminate a chopped look that must be avoided especially in an open floor area on different levels."

By using one of the western softwoods such as Douglas fir or west coast hemlock for wall paneling and built-ins you achieve a fluidity and spaciousness in the split level house, with a neutrality of color that invites any and all other hues to blend or contrast perfectly.

The monochromatic theme may be achieved by using colors right from the grain of fir or hemlock, and lights and darks with touches of bright contrast.

Mrs. Sopp warns, however, that in any interior color plan, too many different colors will break up the continuity and rapport of one room with another.

You may use three major colors, she suggests, and apportion and combine them differently in every room, so that you do have variety, but not an alienation of one part of the home from another.

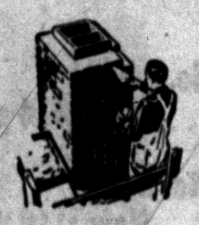

As November often is a wet month in Melbourne, the panama hats to be worn there by British Olympic athletes have been waterproofed, London reports.

A doctor has removed a needle from the finger of Mrs. Dan McDonald of Springhill, Nova Scotia, 28 years after she accidentally pushed it under the skin.

ENSEMBLE — A one-room career girl apartment, on a limited budget, shows Bates' Westchester bedspreads and draperies. The dual-purpose beds, used during the daytime hours for seating space and during the night for sleeping quarters, use the slate coloring of Westchester against red walls, a color which has been picked up from the design. An all-cotton textured rug in black and white completes the scheme of the room.

The room is colorful, yet practical, too — since everything in room is slow to show soil — and when a cleaning is needed, it may be done without special equipment or instructions.

Decorators Use These Tips

It's easy to color-decorate your kitchen like a professional. Just follow these simple rules used by leading decorators and compiled by the Youngstown Kitchens Planning Institute:

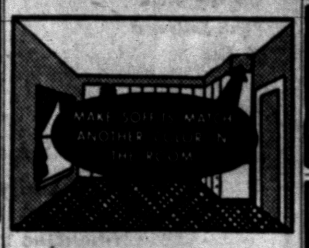

For your steel kitchen cabinets, choose what decorators call "earth" colors—a soft white, a clean, dawn yellow, a meridian blue, or a sunset copper shade. These are colors found in nature, colors that harmonize with almost all others. Do not use "faddish" colors. They become tiresome and rapidly go out of style.

Valves Closed in Hurry

DENVER—Power attachments for emergency trucks are being used in Denver to close big valves on 36-inch water mains in a hurry. The mechanical valve closers can shut off the flow of water in about 10 minutes. The same operations done manually would take workmen about 90 minutes, which would mean the loss of a lot of water.

Machine Plants Trees at Rate of 1,000 Per Hour

CLEVELAND—In a recent demonstration here a mechanical tree planter put 6,000 trees into the ground in about 6 hours. The trees, planted on ground of the metropolitan parks system, are to provide a screen of greenery for a proposed parkway.

A tractor draws the planter, which has trays with seedlings in them, a disk that cuts through the sod, and a small plow that opens the earth.

The planter operator pokes a seedling through a slot in the machine and into the ground about every six or eight feet. In back of him two rubber-tired wheels placed in a "V" shape pass over the earth and close up the opening.

Secret Weapon Nips Tax Errors

WASHINGTON (NEA) — One of Uncle Sam's top secrets is an improved method of sorting income tax returns to spot errors and fraud quickly and accurately.

Devised by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service it will add more than one and a half billion dollars to the U. S. Treasury this year.

If the code to the system were made public, or if it got into the hands of unscrupulous persons, the government could lose untold millions in taxes.

As returns are filed they're sorted into scores of piles according to the formula of the secret code. One of the big advantages of the system is that any unskilled clerk can do this job. It enables the trained auditors to concentrate on the more complex work of analyzing returns.

Many combinations of figures and facts on a return can indicate if it is likely to be incorrect, and into what pile it should be placed.

But beyond these obvious divisions the improved sorting system becomes more subtle and many-pronged. A chief feature is that it enables IRS to make a highly-profitable audit of low-income returns.

The new sorting system, plus streamlined office procedures, will permit the Revenue Service to audit a record number of four million returns this year, twice as many as any time in the past. There are about 60 million returns filed each year.

When the sorting is finished most of the piles are not audited. And that's where the danger of exposure of the sorting code is involved. Knowledge of the system would enable a taxpayer who wanted to cheat to juggle his figures so that his return would be placed in a no-audit pile, IRS experts admit.

They make spot checks against this possibility. But widespread knowledge of the code would force a revision of the system.

In 1954 money collected from the audit was one billion dollars. In 1955 it was jumped another 200 million. This year it is expected to be more than one and a half billion.

"At the same time the number of criminal cases developed by the Revenue Service is at an all-time high and this increase will continue throughout the next few years," promises Charles K. Rice, Assistant U. S. Attorney General.

In addition to devising the improved sorting technique and improving office procedures IRS in the past two years has increased its staff of auditors from 7,000 to 11,000. For every dollar spent on the auditing of suspected returns Uncle Sam collects $18.

IRS officials are anxious to point out that while they have tightened enforcement of income tax laws they have improved the procedure for appealing the decision of an auditor.

First step is an informal discussion with the auditor's group supervisor. If that doesn't settle the matter the taxpayer can go to a special appeal group of the IRS which is instructed to take a fresh and impartial view of the dispute. Finally, a taxpayer can go into court to challenge an auditor's findings.

All audits are now being completed 21 months after the date of filing, an IRS spokesman says, although a return can be reviewed within three years.

Woman Held on Kidnap Count

Authorities Find Infant and Suspect in Bed at Apartment in Gotham

NEW YORK (AP)—A woman who said she recently lost her own baby during pregnancy was arrested today as the kidnaper of six-weeks-old Joanne Wells.

* * *

Police found Joanne alive and well in the Brooklyn apartment of Mary Jackson, 35, and her common-law husband, Richard Glanton, 38. Mary Jackson was booked on a charge of kidnaping.

Authorities were tipped to the whereabouts of the baby by Albert Corbin, 23, who said he read about the case in the newspapers.

Joanne was being cared for Thursday by Mrs. Clarise Hall while the mother, Mrs. Gloria Wells, 24, was away at work as a nurse's aide.

A woman, a stranger to Mrs. Hall, convinced her she knew the mother and took the infant for an airing. She never returned.

* * *

When police arrived at the apartment designated by Corbin, they found the baby in bed with the Jackson woman. She told them the baby was hers and that it was born nine days ago.

Officers thought the baby looked much older and that the blankets bundling the child fitted the description of the comforter covering Joanne when she disappeared.

*

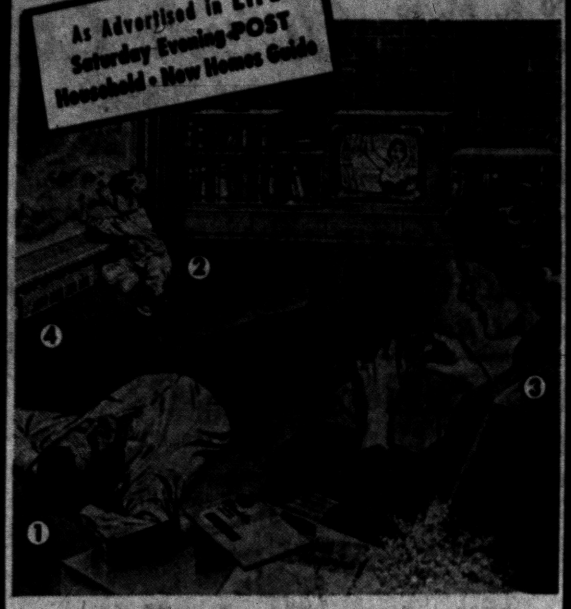

Mrs. Wells said she recognized Miss Jackson as someone she talked with while in Kings County hospital after Joanne was born. Mrs. Wells said she gave the woman her home address after being told she had some clothes for the baby.

* * *

Miss Jackson said she was pregnant and lost her own baby about a week ago.

Fires Start Small, but Quickly Spread

Fires generally start small, but just as acorns make oak trees, little fires make big ones if they aren't stopped by quick and intelligent methods. Remember Mrs. O'Leary's lantern? That's why every homemaker should have a basic knowledge of the three different classes of fire and the emergency treatment for each, particularly since each calls for a different treatment.

There's a "Class A" fire . . . burning wood, paper, textiles or trash. Quantities of water are the prescribed remedy. Strategically placed buckets that can be filled quickly with water, or a hose that can be easily attached to a tap are sound safety precautions for every home.

"Class B" fires include burning oil, gasoline, kerosene, paint, fat and paraffin. 5.6 per cent of all home fires originate in the kitchen, and most of them fall in this "Class B" category. They're the result of fat-splattered ranges catching fire, fat in the skillet or broiler flaring up, paraffin, used in preserving, overheating and bursting into flames. Never use water on such a fire. It will spread the fire, splatter the grease. You're apt to get burned.

Baking soda dumped directly on the fire is an excellent extinguisher, for it creates carbon dioxide gas which cuts off the oxygen supply, a necessary ingredient to any fire. All fire-conscious homemakers will therefore keep an old salt or oatmeal box or an old canister labeled "fire" filled with baking soda within easy reach of the range. The soda won't harm food . . . just rinse the burnt meat off with hot water and it's as good as new and ready to eat.

While hadfuls of baking soda tossed on the base of flames from burning paint, oil, gasoline or kerosene will smother them if the flames aren't deep-seated, it is recommended by the National Fire Protection Association that every home be equipped with a dry chemical extinguisher. One of the most effective dry chemical extinguishers on the market today is charged 97 per cent with baking soda.

"Class C" fires are those that originate in electrical equipment. These are tricky to handle, because they must be fought with agencies that are non-conductors if the fire fighter doesn't want to be suddenly knocked into the next world. A stream of water is a dangerous conductor. Neither a carbon dioxide extinguisher nor a dry chemical extinguisher conducts electricity, so both are effective on this type of fire. The appliance should be disconnected if possible before the extinguisher is applied.

It all smolders down to this. Know the origin of the fire should one break out in your home, and then apply the proper first aid treatment after calling the fire department and getting everyone out of the house. Check your home for extinguishers. Is there a box of baking soda in the kitchen? Are buckets for water or a hose centrally located in the house? Is there an approved type of fire extinguisher in your home that will quell a "Class B" or "C" fire?

Make sure your extinguisher is approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. on a plate designating the class of fire for which it is intended. Make sure it's large enough to do the job but not too heavy to handle, that every member of the family knows how to use it, and that it's fully charged BATHROOM SKYLIGHT—Building of interior rooms, approved by FHA if ventilation is provided, makes it possible for homeowners to take full advantage of a home's floor space. An interior bathroom in the core of the house provides convenience and easy accessibility. Daylighting such a room is easy with a roof-lighting panel, such as used here by an enterprising home designer. Consisting of prismatic glass units set in an aluminum grid, this ingenious system rejects heat from the hot summer sun, insulates against heat loss in winter, but always providing an all-day supply of glare-free, diffused daylight.

Police Gassed Out

Aerial Focusing Aided

CHICAGO—An automatic focusing device said to be accurate to within .010 of an inch at f/6.3 has been developed for aerial cameras. Focusing long focal-length lenses has long been a major problem in aerial photography, since even temperature changes can disrupt critical focus settings.

The Better Vision Institute says that, while many prople have poor color discrimination, only 125 cases of total color blindness have ever been reported.

Australia may build its first atomic reactor at Mt. Isa, in Queensland, a principal mining center, Sydney reports.

DETROIT (INS)—Rep. Charles C. Diggs (D-Mich), refused yesterday to join fellow Negro Rep. Negro Adam Powell Jr., (D-NY), in supporting President Eisenhower for re-election.

Powell disclosed yesterday he would back the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket and said he would seek Digg's help.

"Certainly, I will not be influenced by anything Mr. Powell says or does regarding endorsement of the Republican ticket.

"I am supporting the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket and wish Mr. Powell would do the same."

Powell, after a White House interview, said he would form an independent Democrates-for-Eisenhower group because he thinks Adlai Stevenson has snubbed "the whole liberal group on the civil rights issue."

Plywood Improved

SAN FRANCISCO — A plastic overlay for plywood has been developed by a San Francisco concern to make plywood more practical for outdoor construction. The plastic surface is bonded to the plywood under intense heat and pressure to provide a smooth, water-resistant surface.

New Scotch Tartan

GLASGOW, (INS) — There's a new tartan in Scotland today. Glasgow's George Dowman has bred a new strain of budgerigar (parakeet) which he has named "The Tartan." It is green, yellow and blue with black markings.

SILENT VALET — Wouldn't it be nice if we all could afford to hire a valet? It's easier and far less expensive to do like NBC's television actor Steve Terrell did and build your own silent valet. You will notice there's a place for his coat, trousers, tie, belt, shoes and all the things in his pockets. Building this silent valet is easy with the full size pattern that lists required materials along with easy-to-understand directions. Sweden Building 1st Plutonium Plant

* * *

Sweden's first nuclear reactor, rated at 10,000 kilowatts, is expected to be ready for operation in January, 1959. A second reactor, to be purchased from the United States, also will be functioning in 1959.

* * *

This will probably be used for testing materials in connection with construction of a heat-producing reactor of 90,000 kilowatts, which will be built near Vaesteraes.

Improvements in Homes Noted

Although real estate admittedly is expensive in these days of high costs, the prospective home buyer frequently gets more for his money than did his pre-World War II counterpart.

For one thing, even budget homes built by progressive contractors often include quality materials in the most heavily used areas. Improvements in installation techniques have brought ceramic tile bathrooms and kitchens into inexpensive homes, for example.

Another bonus for the home buyer nowadays lies in the many advantages—often not obvious—of a home built by a reputable homebuilder to plans designed by an architect. Some of these advantages are:

1. The home is integrated into the community and related to family requirements and maintenance of stable real estate values.
2. Landscaping and street arrangements are varied to enhance the identity of individual homes even in large residential tracts.
3. Understanding of materials and their utility and ornamental qualities. Many architects are now using ceramic tile on the exterior walls of homes even in the northern part of the United States.
4. Provision for present requirements of the original tenants as well as future needs from the point of view of resale and mortgage lenders.
5. Flexibility in design that permits conversion of general purpose rooms to bedroom use as families enlarge, or addition of room or a wing when and if needed.

Utility Closet Big Help to Any Housewife

A paramount help in any home is a utility closet, which preferably should be placed somewhere close to the center of homemaking activities so that the vacuum cleaner, for example, conveniently can be taken out and used in the various rooms.

Of course, part of a closet is ideal, but if none is available, most any man can build a small storage nook at the back of a hall or in a jog. Failing that, a small inexpensive cabinet can be purchased, sufficiently large to hold the vac and its assortment of handy tools.

If you wax your floors on a humid day, remember that it may take longer than usual for them to dry.

Bulging Indian River Forces Evacuation

NEW DELHI, India, 13 (AP) — Indian authorities prepared to evacuate more than 300,000 persons today as reports said the rain-swollen Jumna River near New Delhi was in danger of overflowing its banks.

Some 50,000 persons have been warned to leave low-lying areas immediately. A team of 200 army engineers and miners worked all night reinforcing the river banks and building sandbag levies north and south of the city. With the Jumna expected to rise six feet above the danger mark tonight or tomorrow, floods threaten Agra, site of the Taj Mahal, 120 miles south of New Delhi.

DIAGONAL FLOOR — Lay floor tiles "on the diagonal" for a change. It starts along diagonal guide lines after trial layout of tiles to determine the exact starting point is made.

Laying Tile Diagonally Makes Interesting Room

Surveys have shown floor tiling to be a favorite project of do-it-yourself homeowners. Yet we'll wager that not one in 10 has ever laid floor tile in a diagonal pattern. Most choose the "square" design, in which tile rows run parallel to walls.

* * *

Although diagonal tiling is a trifle more complicated, you may find the design more interesting and "different." Here's how to lay out a room for tiling on the diagonal:

First step is finding the center point and squaring off the room. The procedure is the same for square and diagonal tiling, beginning with finding the midpoints of two opposite walls and snapping a chalk line on the floor between them.

Midway on this line is the center of the room, through which another line must be struck at right angles to the first line at two points three feet to the right and left of center. Then, using any radius greater than three feet and the two new marks as centers, scribe arcs on both sides of the first line.

The arcs will cross at two points and a chalk line snapped through both points will be at right angles to the first line.

If you were laying tile in a square pattern, you could begin here, but for diagonal tiling it's necessary to go a step further and strike two diagonal lines on the floor.

The new lines must cross at the center point of the floor at 45-degree angles to the two lines that square off the room. (The explanation is getting involved now, but stay with me. It's easier than it looks in print.)

Mark each of the original lines at points four feet from, and on both sides of, the center point. Next, using a four-foot radius and the four new marks as centers, scribe arcs on both sides of each line. They'll cross at points diagonal to the center and you can connect them with chalk lines that extend all the way to the walls.

If you are flooring with resilient tiles that features half tiles of the same color along all four walls of the room. To achieve this you'll have to start the design in one of two ways. Depending on the size of the room, it will be necessary to either start with one tile directly over the room's center point, or with the corners of four tiles touching the center point.

If the trial layout of tiles reveals that for matching half tiles along each wall the center tile should be positioned squarely over the midpoint of the floor, it will be necessary to move the diagonal lines. Move them a half tile's width away from their original positions.

* * *

A border is generally desirable, especially if you are flooring with tiles of more than one color. Its width can be adjusted to permit using half tiles along the edges of the field. Border width may differ on adjoining walls.

Border material for some resilient tiles is supplied in 18x24-inch size that you can cut to fit. Half tiles also are available precut on the diagonal.

When using a brush to paint a wall use fan-shaped strokes in all directions until within a few inches of a window or door frame. When close to the door frame or window use straight strokes.

Know Your Plywoods—There Are Different Kinds

There are three types of hardwood plywood, in terms of the adhesives used to bond the layers together. Type I is waterproof and is used on exterior jobs. Type II is water-resistant and is used for most interior applications. Type III is medium water-resistant and is used where it will not be subjected to high extremes in temperature and humidity.

Most-used by home craftsmen is Type II which, according to the standards of the Hardwood Plywood Institute, must withstand an average of 10 cycles of the cold soak test. Each cycle consists of four hours soaking in water and 20 hours drying.

Desks Gaining Popularity, Some Serve Dual Purpose

Managing a home these days requires the financial skill of a Wall street broker. So the revival of the desk is an inevitable outcome.

* * *

By doubling as a "home office" for dad as well as a headquarters for family budget-balancing, the desk becomes an important, functional piece of furniture. And they are receiving fresh attention from furniture designers.

Among designers who have contributed much toward popularizing the desk in the house is J. Gordon Perlmutter. In a collection he designed Perlmutter has included a five-drawer desk that provides ample storage and work space, yet is graceful and refined enough to blend with the most elegant living room.

NEW STYLING

A warm, brown finish, antiqued brass drawer pulls, and handsome tapered square legs are the details that make the difference to the homemaker who has always wanted a desk, yet would not settle for the heavy-legged, solid front presented by yesteryear's models.

An equally welcome Perlmutter innovation is the inclusion of a family file drawer in a square lamp table, from the same Italian Provincial collection.

A modern design interpretation has provided dual-function as well as design appeal by including a book trough at the back — the place where so many desks lack distinction.

* * *

Another designer has incorporated many functions in a drop-leaf "dining desk." Provincial in feeling, the 24 by 36 inch piece has a bottom shelf that lifts off to become the center leaf for dining. A matching provincial chair has an upholstered back and seat.

One desk is so versatile it doubles as a bedroom vanity. Suitable for bedroom, living room, guest room or foyer, the lightly scaled piece is available in either light or dark finish.

Gas Console Attractive

A model designed along the lines of a television console is among the many styles of compact, attractive gas space heaters offered. It can provide cozy viewing for those at the real TV set, without interference or overloaded circuits.

Hey, Pop, Hop To!

Have dad check the children's outdoor vehicles—bicycles, scooters, wagons. It's a safe bet it's been a coon's age since he's tightened bolts, applied oil and grease in the proper places.

New Plan Insures Mortgage Payments

A Michigan life insurance company has developed an all-new mortgage payment life insurance policy which provides 24 months of rent or home mortgage payment money to a beneficiary. Called Occupancy Guaranty 1-2-3, the policy provides rent for two years so that a beneficiary need not be forced to move or to sell the house during an economically inconvenient period.

Spider Season's Here

The spider season is flourishing right now. The pests and their webs can be found almost anywhere. Use one of your vacuum cleaner tools to pull down each web as it appears. If you see the spiders, try to pull them into the cleaner, as well. From there, however, you are on your own!

A Lot of Money

American families have invested more than 100 billion dollars in new homes since the end of World War II, says the United States Savings & Loan League. This was put into the purchase of more than 10 million homes.

Grass Roots Homes Abound

Grass roots architecture, a style that satisfies people who say they want a house that looks like a home, has been the biggest development in the biggest home building boom in history—from 1946 to 1956.

* * *

You can spot this style in most of the new homes being built this year. It spreads from the Everglades and the bayous to Hudson Bay and from Cape Cod to the Golden Gate. A house that carries it came from no text book in a school of architecture. It just grew over the past 10 years with every home buyer putting in his two-cents worth (plus a few thousand dollars).

Houses that have not conformed to this new North American style have been lost in the shuffle of more than 10 million new homes built since World War II. Prewar designs—good houses, too — economical two-story residences, have not kept pace with rambling ranch styles and popular trilevels, which long-haired critics call "banana splits."

The South and the Southwest have stolen the show in this evolution. Houses without basements terrified the North until radiant heating and adequate insulation demonstrated economy. Windows with shutters horrified Western architects until they found that people want them as badly as they want lapels on their jackets. Cellars were regarded in the South as damp lizard nests until Northern designers showed how you can create dry and sunlighted space down there for a tenth of building costs above ground.

HAS LIVABILITY

But the most important achievements have been in livability—a fancy word meaning that you can enjoy every inch of your house with your shoes off or on. This came about from people wanting bigger rooms. Why waste this hall space? they asked architects and builders. You can't stretch out on a sofa or play table tennis in a narrow hallway.

And building costs kept going up, too. So space wasted by useless partitions, such as between living room and dining room and dining room and kitchen, gave way to open planning. The housewife in the kitchen joined the family again —became a member of her own party, she said.

When too much house began to sprawl out on one floor and became too expensive, the more condensed split-level was borrowed from a hillside. In such houses, no matter whether you have three, four or five stories, there is not a full flight of stairs in the house. Just half a flight and you get where you want to go—unless you're like the woman who said no matter where she was in the house, she wished she were someplace else.

AIR CONDITION HELPS

Then California and the balmier climes chipped in their two-cents worth (plus), and patios and terraces, sun decks and glass jalousies joined the parade to the modern home. Window walls and sliding glass doors fitted the yen of every suburbanite for indoor-outdoor living. Glass manufacturers had to scramble to invent double insulating glass for such glamor in the frigid zones.

Air conditioning, still somewhat of a luxury in many regions, played a big part in this evolution. It cost so much to keep a house cool with the sun blazing in windows and superheating the roof that broad overhanging eaves became part of the styling of homes and thick insulation became part of their equipment.

All in all, today's house is a very comfortable and attractive place. It is far more functional than any of the dreamers demonstrated with their so-called modernistic homes of a generation ago. It is still traditional enough to please your great aunt from the Back Bay section. And considering all the work that goes into its construction and equipment, it's usually a pretty good buy.

Important to Space

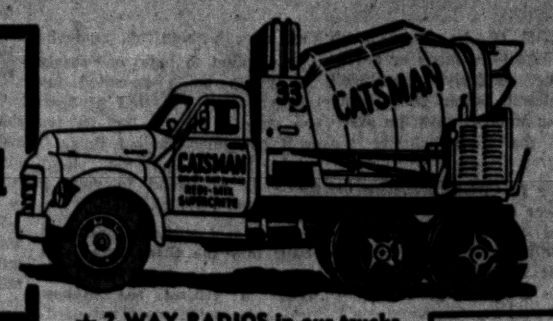

On unbroken wall spaces, no point should be more than six feet from an electrical outlet. Also, any unbroken wall space of three or more feet should have an outlet while every four feet of kitchen counter space requires its own outlet. Large appliances require their own outlets, of course.

Cisler Tells of Safety Plans for Monroe Nuclear Plant

MONROE (AP)—An atom bomb type of explosion, large or small, would be "entirely impossible" at an atomic power plant being built near Monroe, says the president of the firm building the plant.

Walker L. Cisler, president of the Power Reactor Development Co. and of the Detroit Edison Co., outlined safety factors to be built into the controversial plant in a speech yesterday to the Monroe Businessmen's Assn.

Safety of the plant, being built by Power Reactor Development Co., became a public issue several months ago when Thomas Murray of the Atomic Energy Commission questioned whether scientists know enough about this particular type of plant to build one safely.

It is to be a so-called fast breeder type, one that produces one type of atomic fuel as fast as it consumes another type. A public hearing on the plant's safety is scheduled to open in Washington Nov. 13.

Cisler said safety factors to be built into the plant before its completion in 1960 would include a control rod system which he said would automatically shut down the atomic reactor in the event of any improper operation.

He said the plant also would have a "negative temperature coefficient," which, he said, means that as the speed of atomic reaction increases and temperature rises, the reactor will tend to shut itself off.

"Should all reactor controls fail and the negative co-efficient effect be nullified in some unknown manner," he said, "all that would happen would be release of heat energy.

"This energy release," he continued, "might cause radioative sodium to escape from the reactor's coolant system, but this, in turn, would be confined harmlessly in a gas-tight outer shell."

The 54 million dollar plant was started in August about seven miles north of Monroe and 30 miles southwest of Detroit. It is designed to produce 100,000 kilowatts of electricity.

Cottons Improve Being 'in Doghouse'

By MARTHA LEWIS
Ortonville Correspondent

ORTONVILLE—Being in the doghouse wouldn't be half bad out at Englewood kennels, especially after Mr. and Mrs. Volney Cotton, kennel owners, complete their plans for the most modern ones in Michigan.

The Volneys establishment is at 2475 M15, on Lake Louise, a mile south of Ortonville and their "doghouse" measures 2,232 square feet.

House of six Irish setters, there are separate quarters for each dog, as well as a room for grooming, a whelping room and an office for records and files.

"At show time, the grooming room really comes into use," says Mrs. Cotton, "although dogs as well as kennels are kept scrupulously clean all the time."

The Setters range in age from six months to six years, besides the new family additions, seven three-week-old puppies. Parents are Emastarr and Kopper Challenge of Englewood.

Care of the dogs takes "practically all my waking hours," says Mrs. Cotton. "Puppies are a lot of care after they are weaned," she adds. "It's necessary to feed them three or four times a day until they are three months old, and then we cut them down to twice a day."

"A puppy needs all they can eat," she says, "until he is a year old. We start giving them shots at three months, but a veterinarian has to give the live-virus shots for distemper."

Two of the Cottons' setters who have received many ribbons are Betsy Maine and her son, Sunnyflame. He, at nine months was named one of the outstanding male Irish setters in the county at the Progressive Dog Club of Wayne County last March.

Also, he won best in show in a field of 336 entries with 42 breeds represented.

In August he won "best of winners" and won his first major show at Kent State University stadium sponsored by the Ravenna Kennel club.

The Cottons are amateur handlers, but do all their own training. The "show's" the thing with them, but they do develop some dogs into fine hunters.

They are members of the Irish Setter Club of Michigan, Pontiac Kennel Club, and the National Red Setter Field Trial Club of America, and have pedigrees of six generations registered with AKC.

Her pieces of Early American glassware over 100 years old and other antiques of value take side interest to "maintaining Irish setter standards as they are or improving them if possible," Mrs. Cotton says.

Stormy Debate Seen Ending

Job in Madison Heights for Police Safety Gains Assurance Today

MADISON HEIGHTS — Edward Morgan's job as public safety director of the police force here seemed assured today as City Manager Donald V. Smith spoke strong words of praise this morning for Morgan's achievements while working for this city.

Morgan's ouster was demanded by councilman Darrel K. Davis at a stormy meeting Thursday night. Davis' motion lost by a 4-3 vote.

Councilman John Machrina countered by demanding a police investigation of gun-toting by Davis. Davis has a permit to carry a .38 caliber pistol, which he does at all council meetings.

He has been with the Madison Heights police force since August and was formerly superintendent of the Detroit Police Department for 32 years, having retired from the Detroit force.

Mayor Lloyd Ferguson, Councilwoman Virginia Solberg and Davis voted against Morgan.

Ferguson said he felt Morgan was too old for the job. Morgan is 61 and Ferguson is in his late 50's.

Milford Area Unites for Fund for First Time

MILFORD — This year for the first time, Milford, Highland, Dublin, White Lake and Clyde are uniting together in one big drive for the United Fund Campaign.

A kick-off dinner Monday night at the General Motors Club House will begin the drive for the $16,500 goal, according to Huron Valley chairman, Mrs. N. E. Boettcher of Milford. Everett Gillow has charge of Dublin and White Lake.

Forty captains will have their committees organized for a concerted one-week campaign rather than spreading it out over a month period, as in former years, Mrs. Boettcher said.

Tomorrow morning fourteen Seniors will give short addresses in each of the six churches, regarding the purpose and informing people about the operative procedure of the United Fund campaign.

Candidate Slates Speech to Women

ROCHESTER — The Woman's Republican Club of Rochester will meet Monday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. H. Whitlock, 1266 Washington Road, to hear Farrell Roberts, Republican candidate for state representation from the Third District of Oakland County.

Roberts will speak on the organization set-up for "getting out the vote."

Churches to Fete Harvest, Bid Farewell to Minister

Area church events tomorrow include final sermon by the Rev. Everett A. Smith at Monroe Street Methodist Church, Lapeer a Harvest Festival Service at St. Philip Episcopal Church, Rochester, and a day of recollection at St. Patrick church, White Lake Township.

Lapeer

A farewell party for he and Mrs. Smith was held in the church parlors on Thursday.

Next Tuesday, the new pastor, the Rev. Raymond Lamb, 34, will arrive from Gaylord, where he has been for eight years.

Rochester

The St. Philip Harvest Festival will be at 11 a.m. service, with the vested choir under Mrs. George Ross Jr. singing "Hail Thee Festival Day.

On Thursday, the church's Altar Guild will have its annual harvest dinner in the Undercroft at 6:30 p. m. with the Rev. Edgar A. Lucas showing slides of church events following the pot-luck meal.

* * *

Also in Rochester, the First Congregational Church will hear the Rev. E. John Yuells begin a series of sermons on "The Claims of Christ." The seven-week series will be preached at both 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

White Lake Township

The day of recollection at St. Patricks will be Sunday afternoon, with the Court Detroit of the Catholic Daughters of America sponsoring the event. All men and women of the parish are invited.

Members of the CDA, of which the Rev. Louis A. Prohaska is now chaplain, will receive Holy Communion as a group at the 11 o'clock Mass, after which they will be served breakfast by the church's altar society. Fr. Prohaska was the church's former pastor.

The conference will start at 1 p.m., and close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4 p.m.

Commerce Township

A training class for persons interested in joining the Commerce Methodist Church will begin at 9:45 p.m. Sunday in the church library, with the Rev. Perry A. Thomas conducting. Those interested should contact him previously.

Walled Lake

The junior choir will make its first appearance at the 8:30 a.m. worship service at the Walled Lake Methodist Church, Sunday, Oct. 14. The adult choir will sing at the 11 o'clock service.

Annual harvest ingathering will be celebrated with gifts of canned goods, fruit, produce and groceries arranged around the altar. The gifts will later be taken to the Methodist home for the aged at Chelsea.

Citizens Unit Elects Staff

Waterford Townshipites Plan Further Talks on Government

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Meeting "in committee" at the Township Hall last night, the Waterford Township Citizens study committee elected officers, with David Hertler, a township attorney, elected as chairman.

Four sub-committees were formed to study tax-base and cost of government, schools and education, types of government in comparison, and structures of government and official powers.

* * *

The series of public meetings on government will be continued, such as the one slated Monday night at 8 o'clock at the High School Cafeteria. At that time, Paul Reed, director of the Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission, will speak on community planning.

County Calendar

Romeo

Members of the Romeo Book Club will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Don S. Miller, 1130 Brewer road, for a Bird Day program with Mrs. Howard Tinceknell and Mrs. Sidney White as cohostesses.

North Branch

The North Branch Unit of the Lapeer County Hospital Auxiliary meets with Mrs. Leonard Huessner, 2611 Gravel Creek Rd., at 8 p.m. Monday. Each member is asked to bring an article for "blind auction."

Troy

The Women's Assn. of Troy Center Presbyterian Church will meet in the church at 12:30 noon on Tuesday. Hostesses are Mrs. Duane Clodfelter and Mrs. Edward Yankankas. Attendance of all members urged.

Gingellville

The Second Chance Extension will meet at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Odes Case, 775 Joslyn Rd. Mrs. Sherly Green and Mrs. Jerry Hurlik will give the Christmas workshop lesson, for which members are to bring shears, heavy paper, and scotch tape.

One-Way Traffic Set for Water Off Perry

Water street between Saginaw and Perry will be converted to one-way traffic eastbound beginning Monday, Theodore M. Vanderstempel, Pontiac traffic engineer announced.

He added that Water street between Perry and Parke will be changed to two-way traffic effective the same time.

Previously, traffic between Mill and Saginaw was restricted to one-way westbound thus prohibiting northbound Saginaw traffic from turning onto Water.

Burglars Loot Juke Box, Steal Shotgun, Camera

Burglars who axed their way into a drive-in at 334 Diston St. last night stole $25 from a juke box, shotgun and a camera, Pontiac police said.

They also took 2½ gallons of ice cream, according to the owner, Clarence McClenney of 122 Wessen St.

News in Brief

Nothing apparently was taken from a warehouse at 20 Osmun St., where there was an apparent breakin attempt last night, Pontiac police said. A side window was found broken.

Charged with furnishing beer to a minor, Waller J. Rotramel, 22, of 416 Elm St., yesterday pleaded guilty before Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan and was placed on 90 days probation.

A $100 fine was imposed yesterday by Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan on James C. Phillips, 38, of 205 Elmhurst St., Highland Park, who pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor.

Pleading guilty to drunk driving, Mrs. Vera Lipke, 42, of 23270 Canfield Dr., Farmington, was fined $75 and paid $25 costs at an arraignment before Justice Elmer C. Dieterle of West Bloomfield Township.

Patricia A. Lantis, 19, of 26320 Wolverine Rd., Madison Heights, is serving five days in the county jail on a shoplifting charge. She pleaded guilty yesterday at an arraignment before Royal Oak Justice Fletcher Renton.

An empty cash register, believed to have been taken from an area service station, was turned over to the Oakland County Sheriff's Department yesterday after it was found in a ditch on South boulevard between Crooks and Adams roads by a road commission worker.

Police Arrest Two Men as Burglary Suspects

Both men will make statements at the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office today, according to Det. Sgt. John DePauw.

One of the men, he said, is suspected of holding up a clerk at gunpoint in the Edison Street Food Market, 185 Edison St. while the other is believed to have driven the getaway car.

About $284 in bills and $19 in change were taken, police said.

Drunk Driver Goes to Jail

3 Paratroopers Ride One Chute

Sergeant Grabs Mates Tangled on Way Down, Heads Off Disaster

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — Two paratroopers could thank a master sergeant for saving them from possible death or serious injury when he grabbed them during a jump recently and the three descended on one parachute.

The incident, which occurred Wednesday during a mass jump at Ft. Benning, Ga., came to light yesterday.

The hero of the story is M. Sgt. Louis Berthiaume of New Orleans, a veteran of 15 years service, who held on to Pfc. Frank L. Ruminer of Pittsburgh, and Sp.3.C. William J. Meek of Chillicothe, Ohio, after their parachutes became entangled.

Berthiaume, whose chute was fully opened, said he saw Ruminer's boots coming "at me from the right" 800 feet over the drop zone. Ruminer's chute became entangled in Berthiaume's suspension line and as he slid by, Berthiaume grabbed him. Ruminer said he "had been swinging wide from another trooper to avoid tangling with his chute."

Meek's parachute then fell atop Berthiaume's, becoming entangled in the upper part. Berthiaume grabbed him and the three rode down together. They did not pull their emergency chutes for fear of worsening the situation.

Meek received two sprained ankles, the only injuries received among the three.

Urges Honest Accident Claims

Blames Jammed Courts on Litigation Conscious Public

BALTIMORE (AP)—A "return to good old fashioned honesty" instead of suing after an automobile accident just because the other fellow is insured was urged today by a Philadelphia lawyer.

* * *

"It has always been a source of wonderment to me that a thoroughly honest citizen in all other matters will not hesitate to twist circumstances to suit his convenience in a claim against an insured and justify it on the basis that the insurance company will have to pay the claim," J. Harry LaBrum said.

He ventured in a speech prepared for the Mid-Atlantic Regional Meeting of the American Bar Assn. that the clogged condition of court dockets, "is due to this kind of a case, none of very few of which will ever be tried."

"Every accident should not result in the filing of a suit," he stated. "The public in recent years has become litigation conscious, and many claims resulting from automobile accidents which 10 years ago would have dismissed with a shrug end up in a suit today.

DENY GUILT

"No one, or shall I say hardly anyone, admits fault in these cases.

"If the public generally would look askance at a neighbor, acquaintance or friend, who, even though at fault, brings suit justifying his action on the basis that the claim is against the insurance company and not the other individual, it would not be long before the case load would be diminished greatly," he said.

LaBrum urged the public to "recapture good conscience and old fashioned truth. They can begin by examining their consciences, being factual and stating frankly the conditions which brought about their claims and explaining to their lawyers what really happened."

Ava Likes Rome, May Live There

Staying in City Again, Stuck in Love Triangle but Frank's Out

ROME (INS) — Ava Gardner has just about made up her mind to settle down here.

* * *

On hand to meet her, though, was the "third man": Pittsburgh's Frank Silvester who—as he puts it—"will not count myself out" with Ava.

Silvester had received a telegra from Ava about her arrival at Ciampino Airport and he dropped everything to be there in time to greet her.

COLD, THEN HOT

His jaw dropped and his smile stiffened when he saw Chiari coming down the ramp after Ava. But she threw her arms about him and embraced him so warmly that blood again reddened Silvester's cheeks.

Ava's stays in Rome last only a few hours. She told close friends she is going to "hide out somewhere to read a couple of movie scripts."

Chiari also disappeared and it was not immediately possible to check whether he had gone to Milan to wind up rehearsals in the musical comedy company which he heads and which is scheduled to open in a matter of days.

* * *

After that she is expected to go back to America, finalize her divorce from Frank Sinatra and then return to settle down in Rome.

The movie scripts are said to be for pictures to be made in Italy.

Pooched Convict Found Below Open Window

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — At 3 a.m. Indiana University Hospital officials reported Jack Swain, 36, Indiana State Prison convict undergoing treatment for high blood pressure, had climbed from a fourth-story window on a rope made of clothing and slid down a drain pipe.

Police couldn't locate him, but at 8 a.m. hospital officials found him sleeping peacefully at the bottom of the drain pipe—suffering from a bruised leg and obviously exhausted.

Western Europe bought 27,00,000 tons of coal from the United States in 1955—some 70 per cent of all the coal shipped out of America during the year.

Nixon to Reply Dem Charges

Address Will Deal With the Misrepresentations of Ike's Record

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP) — Vice President Nixon worked today on a reply to what he has termed Democratic misrepresentations of the Eisenhower administration record.

Aides said Nixon's talk scheduled for Alexandria, Minn. will deal with campaign points raised by Democratic candidates Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver, and by former President Harry S. Truman.

Nixon paused overnight in Michigan. He spoke last night in the Upper Peninsula mining area, predicting that "labor is going to vote for Eisenhower."

Nixon said he thinks wage earners realize that with average income up, unemployment at "its lowest peacetime level in history," and inflation checked, they "never had it so good."

The Vice President old an audience in Negaunee, Mich., he would like to adopt as a campaign slogan a phrase he said he has heard on his current cross country campaign swing: "Ike kept us out of war, let's keep Ike."

'Omnibus' Adds Richness to Sunday Evening Video

NEW YORK (AP)—Sunday evening television entertainment has been considerably enlivened and enriched with the advent of Omnibus on the ABC-TV network.

For its debut Omnibus executive producer Robert Saudek and his staff made a wise and rather typical choice. Composer-conductor Leonard Bernstein, who has developed into an interesting TV personality, led us on an absorbing odyssey of American musical comedy from its post-Civil War birth to "Damn Yankees" and "South Pacific."

It was a mildly serious look at a mildly frivolous subject. And that is typical "Omnibus philosophy and technique: to reflect seriously on the amusing, and to ponder amusingly on the serious.

Bernstein led us on a well-paced journey, lingering over-long only once, in the opinion of one viewer, when he strained a comparison between "The Mikado" and "Of Thee I sing." Typical too of Omnibus productions was the refusal to present "big name" entertainers who might distract from the theme. In short, musical comedy itself was the protagonist.

Many viewers in the enlarged audience which Omnibus now has in its night-time spot will find themselves continually taken by surprise — in itself the essence of good entertainment. Just when they believe they are conditioned to one kind of entertainment on Omnibus they'll find the program offering something entirely different. It's the most needed quality in this new TV season's programming.

Occupational Hazard

DALLAS (AP) — A masked police character, 21, appeared on a local TV show, "Confession," and said he couldn't go straight because "police pick me up every time they see me." He was right. Police arrested him after they found a piece of metal in his car that officers said matched a safe in the Quinlan Lumber Co. that had been cut open.

Move Over, Buddy!

DALLAS (AP) — A construction foreman, 35, became annoyed at a pair of Sunday drivers. "Get that car out of the way," he shouted as he breezed past. The Sunday drivers, Sheriff's Deputies R. J. Weaver and Charles Deshazo, did speed up a bit.

Oakland County Electronic Association

BE PENNY WISE

Would you entrust a fine watch to a neighborhood handyman for repairs? Chances are that you wouldn't even think of doing such a thing. Likewise, it's not advisable to allow a complex electronic device, your TV set, to receive that type of service. Why not have professional service? It may cost a few cents more, but most likely it will save you money. An honest, reliable repairman with the skill born of years of experience and an adequate supply of top quality replacement parts is the best combination for efficient and economical service. Call an Oakland County Electronics Association Member. Save time. Save money.

Bye, Bye Snatchers

BLOOMFIELD, N. J. — "Bulb snatchers" are likely to become extinct, because the home lighting of tomorrow will probably come right out of a wall. Lighting engineers are perfecting "electro-luminescence," a new light source from phosphor-coated panels about as thick as a window pane. These panels can be cut to any shape. They switch on and off like an ordinary light bulb.

Hooray for Automation

CHICAGO — Employment in the durable-goods-manufacturing industries in this country has risen by 20 per cent since 1947, but there has been only a small gain in the nondurable-goods industries.

FTC to Watch TV for False Advertising

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Federal Trade Commission announced today it has set up an investigative group to monitor radio and television programs for false and misleading claims.

The agency previously scanned scripts and continuities in its search for misleading advertising, but FTC Executive Director Alex Akerman Jr., pointed out "examination of the written script alone does not guard against visual deception."

The FTC said attorneys in the commission's eight branch offices will help monitor programs in addition to their other work. The offices are in New York, Chicago, New Orleans, Cleveland, Kansas City, San Francisco, Seattle and Washington.
