Talk at NATO Conference

AP Wirephoto

West Toughens Berlin Formula as NATO Forges Offer to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Atlantic Council concluded its debate on the Berlin crisis today with one foreign minister after another calling for stern defiance of Soviet efforts to drive the West out of the divided city.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western powers appeared today to be toughening their policy on negotiations with the Soviet Union over the Berlin crisis.

As the NATO foreign ministers meeting went into its second day here, the United States, Britain and France were reported shelving some proposals which could be construed as offering possible concessions to the Soviets.

The United States, meanwhile pledged anew the full use of its nuclear missile and bomber striking force in defense of Western Europe and North America if military action ever become necessary.

Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter told the 15-nation Foreign Ministers Council late Thursday that U.S. power today is greater than it has ever been. He declared that this country is now making faster progress in the development of missiles than is the Soviet Union.

"I pledge also full willingness to use our strength in the common defense if need be."

★ ★ ★

West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano was scheduled to lead off today's debate on the Berlin crisis and the development of Western policy for dealing with it.

The debate opened Thursday after President Eisenhower's morning address in which he declared that NATO must be prepared to carry on for years in a world of continued "tension and bickering" between the free nations and the Soviets.

The Western Big Three are seeking support from the whole NATO Council on the general policy lines which they have so far developed for negotiations with the Soviet Union at a foreign ministers meeting beginning in Geneva May 11 on the problem of Germany and the specific crisis over Berlin.

Britain has been reported as favoring a softer approach to the Geneva negotiations than the United States and France. West Germany is known to advocate a hardboiled strategy, reserving any concessions until a late stage and avoiding any evidence of willingness to pay a price to get the U.S.S.R. to ease up on Berlin.

★ ★ ★

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told the NATO meeting any plan for neutralizing or demilitarizing Germany would constitute the worst possible solution on the German problem. He declared Britain would not advocate any freeze on armed forces in central Europe unless it were linked with the goal of reunifying Germany. This latter point indicated a shift in Britain's position.

Seek to Trace Gunman's Car

Hunt Black Chrysler With 'CH' License in Oxford Shooting

State Police have launched an exhaustive search through license plate files in Lansing in hopes of coming up with the man who shot an Oxford policeman early Thursday morning.

Patrolman Roscoe M. Zolman, 28, a wounded and decorated Korean war veteran, remained in satisfactory condition today at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital with bullet wounds in the hand and thigh.

Roadblocks and a widespread manhunt by police officers over a five-county area yesterday turned up only one suspect who was driving a car answering the description of the one driven by Zolman's assailant.

He was released after Oakland County sheriff's detectives became convinced he had nothing to do with the shooting. Today detectives continued to search the Oakland County area, but up to noon had not uncovered any new evidence.

State police and sheriff's deputies throughout southeastern Michigan have been alerted for the car, described as a black 1947 or 1948 Chrysler with license plates beginning with the letters "CH."

The gunman was described as being about 30 years old with blond hair.

Zolman, who lives at 53 Hovey St., Oxford, with his wife and their three children, had stopped the car for a traffic violation when the driver suddenly opened fire on him.

As the car sped away, he got only the first two letters of the license number. The plates were issued in Wayne County.

Beat TUC Deadline, Gov. Williams Urges

LANSING (UPI) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams today urged eligible jobless persons to beat the deadline for filing for temporary unemployment compensation (TUC).

Williams said the federal law signed Monday by President Eisenhower would provide TUC for only those who—

2 — Filed a claim for TUC before Sunday.

3 — Have not exhausted that claim before Sunday.

He encouraged the "widest possible dissemination of this information."

Third in Short-Range Test

Fire Titan Out Over Atlantic

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A roaring Titan ICBM was fired today on the start of a third short-range flight test.

The 90-foot weapon, first of the more advanced "second generation" missiles in the U. S. arsenal, was aimed toward a patch of Atlantic water some 200 miles from here

The launching, which came at 12:11 p.m., was the third apparently blast-off of the missile in 56 days in a top priority program to make the Titan operational within a year.

The Martin rocket, which has a range capability estimated as high as 9,000 miles, looked like a flowing bullet as it rose. The rays of the sun bounced off the gold-tinted rocket as it climbed.

The two-stage, 110-ton rocket blazed straight up for some 60 seconds before curving high in the sky. A puffy vapor trail then appeared.

The second stage, which stands about 36 feet, was dead. It was loaded with water for ballast instead of potent rocket fuel.

Topped by a 3,000-pound stainless steel nose cone, the Titan was to impact in the Atlantic all in one piece, if all went well.

With both stages operating, the Titan would churn out more than 380,000 pounds of thrust on an ocean-spanning trip.

★ ★ ★

The Titan logged its first successful flight Feb. 6 when the missile streaked 220 miles downrange after failing to fly on two previous attempts.

Excused Juror Hints Acquittal for Thompson

She Claims Evidence Insufficient to Back Arson Charge

FLINT — An excused juror gave a hint of acquittal of Flint Teamsters business agent Jack D. Thompson just before a jury of nine women and three men today began deliberating Thompson's innocence or guilt as Frank Kierdorf's arson accomplice.

Before she was excused this morning from any further duty on the jury panel, Mrs. Amanda Odom said she would not have convicted Thompson because she didn't believe there was sufficient evidence presented by the state to back the arson charge.

Mrs. Odom, a housewife, was eliminated from the jury by lot when the 10 women and three men had to be paired down to the customary 12-member panel. An extra two were picked March 17 in case others might have been forced to withdraw from service.

Mrs. Odom's dismissal followed Genesee Circuit Judge Stephen J. Roth's instructions to the jury. The judge said the verdict could either be guilty or not guilty, but cautioned the jurors they "could not decide this case on a guess or suspicion."

Jurors then went behind closed doors to begin their balloting at 10:10 a.m.

Genesee Circuit Judge Stephen J. Roth postponed his instructions to the jury late yesterday until this morning after Prosecutor Jerome F. O'Rourke and James E. Haggerty Sr., Thompson's attorney, spent all of yesterday on closing statements.

Thompson, accused of being Frank Kierdorf's accomplice in the burning of an east side suburban Flint dry cleaning pickup station Aug. 3, could receive up to 10 years in prison if convicted.

The silver-haired Haggerty, a veteran Detroit lawyer who is considered one of the top attorneys for the Teamsters Union, expounded for nearly 2½ hours in an at-

Castro to Seek Funds, Support on U.S. Visit

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro says he will be looking for money as well as defending "Cuba and her revolution" on his visit to the United States later this month.

The Batista government left only 70 million dollars in the treasury, Castro said, adding that Cuba's economic situation was further aggravated by falling sugar prices and increased competition from other sugar countries.

Castro is leaving for Washington April 15 on an unofficial visit as the guest of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. He accepted the invitation before becoming prime minister Feb. 2.

Castro said he had no fear of any questions that may be asked him by American newspapermen.

Precipitation will measure half an inch as showers Sunday and again Tuesday or Wednesday.

Forty-two was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The thermometer reading at 2 p.m. was 39.

Railroad OKs Automatic Gates

Installation Promised to Safeguard Crossing on West Huron

The Grand Trunk Western Railroad has agreed to install the city's first automatic gates for traffic protection at a railroad crossing.

The gates, which the city estimates will cost $15,000, will be at the West Huron street crossing, the highest accident crossing in the city.

Theodore M. Vanderstempel, city traffic engineer, said today that the railroad has informed the Michigan Public Service Commission that it would comply with an order that the gate be installed.

The railroad will pay the full cost of installing the gate and also furnish maintenance of it after its installation, according to a letter written to the Commission by C. J. Morris, chief engineer for the railroad.

NO COST TO CITY

The city, which has gone on record in favor of gates, at one time appeared ready to pay part of the costs, but won't have to now, said Vanderstempel.

There was no indication how the railroad would reply to another order for gates at the Oakland avenue crossing.

Morris asked the State Highway Department to authorize any construction on Huron (M59) needed to prevent cars from skidding into the gates when they are in operation.

Vanderstempel said he didn't think any new construction was necessary. After testing the approaches to the railroad tracks this morning, Vanderstempel said he didn't think any adjustments in the road were necessary.

In the 4½-year period ending last September, there were 28 car-train accidents at the West Huron street crossing, including 16 in which persons were injured, two fatally.

If is expected that construction of the gates will begin soon, Vanderstempel said.

OKs Nevada Divorce

DEBBIE GIVES APPROVAL — Debbie Reynolds tells a group of newsmen she'll agree to a quick Nevada divorce for husband Eddie Fisher, so he can marry Elizabeth Taylor. She approved the couple's request when she arrived at International Airport, New York, yesterday after a flight from Europe. She divorced Fisher in Los Angeles in February, but it's not final for a year.

Liz, Eddie Plan Wedding, Elated at Debbie's Consent

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An ecstatic Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher today made plans for a private wedding that will take place probably May 11.

"No one will know about it until it's over," the joyful actress told a reporter Thursday night. "We are both very grateful to Debbie."

She was referring to Debbie Reynolds, Fisher's wife, who announced Thursday she would not oppose Fisher's desire to get a quickie Nevada divorce so that he could marry Miss Taylor.

"I wish Liz and Eddie happiness," Debbie said as she arrived in Los Angeles after a transpolar flight from a movie location in Spain.

The news made Liz and Eddie so happy that they literally jumped for joy. A reporter told them of Debbie's statement while the two were at the $500-a-week dude ranch that Miss Taylor rents while Fisher performs nearby at the Tropicana Hotel.

"Liz is flipping," said Fisher. "She's jumping all over the room. I'm grateful that Debbie did this."

Then Liz got on the telephone and said: "I'm so happy I almost passed out at the news. I knew all along that Debbie would consent. Just chalk it up to woman's psychology or intuition."

Liz originally had made plans to attend Burl Ives' opening at the Flamingo Hotel Thursday night. Ives, her co-star in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" and also a fellow Academy Award nominee, was Elizabeth's guest at Fisher's opening Wednesday night.

"I decided that Eddie and I should be alone," she explained. "Also, I've been fighting a sore throat."

She was not at Fisher's supper show but the singer went out to the ranch between shows and she returned with him to the midnight show.

"I'll be here every night from

Legislators Go Home, but Set an Early Vote

Morning of Wrangling in House Sees Dems Foiled on Bill

LANSING (AP)—The House today set the stage for a vote next week on a bill to bring Michigan under a 13-week extension of temporary unemployment benefits.

Republicans fought off a Democratic attempt to kill Senate-approved changes in the state's unemployment compensation law after a confused wrangle marked by complicated parliamentary maneuvering.

Immediately following the decisive vote the House quit for the weekend at 12:04 p.m., following the Senate into adjournment until 8 p.m. Tuesday, the day after Monday's spring election.

Democrats, joined by three maverick Republicans, tried to push through a simple extension of jobless pay benefits. They won the issue on a 52-42 vote.

★ ★ ★

But under a House rule requiring 56 votes for approval of decisions made in debate stage of consideration, they mustered only 54 votes.

HOUR-LONG DEBATE

An hour-long debate raged over an amendment reversing a State Supreme Court decision awarding unemployment compensation in the Detroit area to Ford Motor Co. workers idled by a Ford strike in Ohio.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron), one of the rebel Republicans, called it a "cruel hoax on the unemployed" to attempt to do anything at this time but extend jobless pay benefits.

Joining him, Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) urged lawmakers to concern themselves later in the session with other proposed changes in compensation laws.

Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingston), GOP floor leader, branded the action of the Democratic-controlled court in the Ford case a "crackpot decision."

"It amounts to licensing thievery by taking money from industry and business and mak-

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Chandler Harper, 1950 PGA champion who was one of four players under par for the first round, went two strokes over on the first nine holes of the second round in the Masters golf tournament today.

Despite almost perfect weather, the balding veteran from Portsmouth, Va., shot a 38 over the 6,980-yard, par 36-36—72 Augusta National course.

Leonard, with an opening 69, was one of the later starters, as were Palmer and Burke.

Buster Cupit of Fort Smith, Ark., had the best front nine holes among the early starters. He shot a 33, three under par, but he had an 81 yesterday.

Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., one of the new young pros, had a front nine 35 to go with a first round 77. Dick Metz, 50-year-old veteran from Fort Worth, Tex., also had a 35 after shooting an opening 78.

Herman Keiser of Barberton, Ohio, who was the dark horse winner of this event in 1946, had a nine-hole score of 36. He shot 78 yesterday.

Flood Threats Increase in Portions of Midwest

By The Associated Press

Rains which doused wide areas in the eastern half of the nation diminished in most areas today as flood dangers in some Midwest sections appear increasing.

Tornadoes struck two small communities in central Missouri Thursday night, causing some property damage.

No one was injured as the twisters damaged 10 homes in California, a town of 3,500, and one in Otterville, population 400.

Strong winds, with gusts up to 72 m.p.h., lashed St. Joseph, in northwest Missouri.

Earlier Thursday tornadoes hit the Dade City and Orlando, Fla. areas, killing one person and injuring nine others. Damage was estimated at more than one million dollars

HITS RURAL AREA

A twister also struck a rural area near Washington, N.C., damaging several buildings.

Heavy spring rains have caused some flood in sections of Missouri, Michigan, Indiana, New York, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and western Washington.

Some 1,700 persons have been forced from their homes in the Rockford, Ill., area by flood waters from the Rock River. More rain fell in the area during the night.

★ ★ ★

Showers or occasional rains were expected to continue during the day from the Great Lakes region southward into the Ohio and Tennessee valleys, spreading eastward into parts of the mid-Atlantic Coast by tonight.

END DURING MORNING

Rains or mixture of rain and snow in the upper Great Lakes region and showers or snow flurries in Wyoming and Colorado ended in most areas during the morning.

It was a little cooler across most of the northern half of the country from the Rockies eastward to the Atlantic Coast.

Cooler air extended from the tip of Florida northward along the Atlantic Coast into northern New York and from Alabama northward into the lower Great Lakes region.

Official Faces Morals Charge

Leelanau Prosecutor to Be Examined in Case Involving Girl, 15

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Leelanau County Prosecutor Glenn Aylsworth will be examined Thursday on charges of statutory rape and indecent liberties involving a 15-year-old girl boarder in his home.

★ ★ ★

Aylsworth, a 34-year-old father of four children, was freed on $2,000 personal bond yesterday after demanding examination before Elmwood Township Justice Clyde Hazard.

★ ★ ★

A two-count warrant was ordered issued after the girl, whose name was withheld, complained to State Police. The girl is a ward of the Leelanau County Probate Court.

Perry A. Maynard, assistant state attorney general, said Alysworth, now serving his second term as county prosecutor, surrendered himself for questioning. Maynard said the charges cover a period between late December and March 8.

Alysworth denied the charges. He said they resulted from the girl's resentment of curbs on her activities while living in the Alysworth home.

★ ★ ★

"The charges grew out of the fact we stopped her from going with a boy friend whom we did not approve," Alysworth said. "She ran away also because of that."

Alysworth said the girl was placed in a Traverse City home and ran away again. He said she was picked up with her boy friend in Monroe County.

Green also lit into Justices Eugene Black and John D. Voelker, two of the five Democrats on the high court.

Voelker, Green said, lowered the dignity of the court "by posing in the nude for a national magazine." His reference was to a photograph showing Voelker in a Finnish bath in the Upper Peninsula.

However, a bill to guarantee state school aid payments at a $190 a pupil level for the 1958-59 school year won a 93-1 vote of approval in the House today. Already past the Senate, it was steered to the governor's desk for signing.

ANTICIPATING VICTORY—Waterford Township workers this week were cleaning up the winter debris around the site of the proposed township library. Whether the library will be built hinges on the outcome of the election Monday in which voters will decide if funds are to be made available.

Library Hour of Decision Due Monday in Waterford

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

The time of decision is drawing near for Waterford Township's proposed $250,000 library.

Voters Monday will decide three separate proposals to make funds available for the library, which would be constructed on a beautiful 17-acre site donated to the township for the project by Frank Steere. All must be approved for the library to become a reality.

In donating the land on Highland and Pontiac Lake roads, Steere stipulated that a building costing not less than $250,000 be constructed, and that a fund of not less than $36,000 be established for annual operating expenses.

For almost two years an 11-member Waterford Library Study committee has been compiling facts and figures relative to library construction costs, ways to pay for it and other necessary data. Its recommendations paved the way for placing the project before the township's voters, according to Township Supervisor Elmer Johnson.

Proposal No. 1 asks for a tax increase of one mill to pay off $300,000 in bonds over a 10-year period "to establish a free public library and to construct a building."

This would cost the taxpayer approximately $1 for each $1,000 assessed valuation as equalized. With Waterford Township's average assessment rate at about $2,000 for each home owner, this would mean approximately $6 a year per family, according to the committee's reports.

MAINTENANCE MILLAGE

The second proposal asks that an additional one-half mill be approved for operation and maintenance of the library. This would produce about $10,000 for the library budget and would be divided between a full-time librarian's salary, additional books and furniture and equipment.

The third proposition pertains to the first, asking that the township be allowed to "borrow $300,000 and issue its bonds for the purpose of establishing and constructing a building."

Chairman of the committee, the Rev. Walter Teeuwissen, pointed out the if the proposals are approved, the township would immediately acquire 17 acres of the most scenic land in the county.

Because the library would require only two acres for the building and parking area, this would leave a little less than 15 acres for a future hospital, additional library wings, and eventually a large cultural center.

Facing Pontiac Lake road, there is a small, cleared hill suitable for the library site. All of the other property is filled with unusual trees and shrubs planted during the last 25 years by the Steere family.

In the center of the acreage is a spring-fed pond, with a winding path around the edge and over a hill to a huge, well preserved barn. This could be used as a Little Theater for township residents, according to Steere.

The proposed library would be some 12,000 square feet, and would include at least one large meeting room for civic and cultural groups, according to the plans.

A public display center for arts, collections of recordings and films would be available for borrowers. Programming assistance, introduction to libraries for elementary grades could also be provided.

Reference headquarters for the nearby high school and junior high schools along with research material, which the new Michigan State University Oakland will require from students of this area, also are in the proposed plans.

In addition, adult education resources, including job-helps and leisure time activvities, would be available free of charge to all township residents.

A deadline for building the proposed library has been set for 1962, in the Steere-Township Board agreement. Should the township fail to have the library in operation by then, the donated land offer would automatically be withdrawn.

Defense Siren Tests to Be Cut to One Minute

Robert A. Stierer, deputy civil defense director, said the period the sirens sound during tests the first Saturday of every month will be cut from three minutes to one minute.

"Citizens have complained they don't like the sirens and we've found that a one minute test is just as good as a three-minute test," he said.

The change will go into effect when the sirens sound at 1 p.m. tomorrow, Stierer said.

The first test, as usual, will be a steady blast, indicating civil defense alert. The second will be a wailing blast, meaning take cover.

If the sirens sound at any other time during the month, they probably will indicate tornado danger Stierer said, since springtime is tornado weather.

"Was it a 'rambling, weak mind' that responded consistently to 510 questions you tossed at her during cross-examination?" the prosecutor asked.

Thompson, nattily dressed, sat chewing gum and shifting nervously in his chair at the counsel table while O'Rourke pieced together his web of evidence which, he said, shows that Thompson "either directly assisted (Kierdorf) or was an accessory" to the arson.

Thompson, a $9,000-a-year agent for Flint Local 332, denies any part in the fire or in transporting Kierdorf to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

He says he was home in bed after a weekend with his wife and daughter at their cottage near Grayling shortly before 11 p.m. when the Latreille Dry Cleaners was set afire.

But O'Rourke has pointed out throughout the trial that this story doesn't jibe with that of Mrs. Dorothy M. Wallace, the star witness Haggerty criticised.

Mrs. Wallace, a 28-year-old divorcee, said she saw Thompson and another man drive in and out of the driveway of the apartment house where she is caretaker and where Thompson's mother lives shortly after the fire.

O'Rourke believes Kierdorf was taken there by the accused so that his mother, a practical nurse, might treat his head-to-toe second and third degree burns. The burns, however, were found so severe that Mrs. Thompson told her son to rush him to a hospital, O'Rourke theorizes.

The Pontiac hospital was picked in an apparent attempt to take Kierdorf as far away from the scene of the alleged arson as possible, investigators say.

The young Genesee prosecutor has, as evidence, three fingerprints of Thompson, found on Kierdorf's station wagon the day after the fire to strengthen his case.

Haggerty, in attempting to tear down the testimony of one witness who said he saw two men holding a fiery object behind the cleaners, said if this were true Thompson then could be considered as fortunate "as the three young men in the fiery furnace of Babylon" in that detectives found no signs of burns on him after the fire.

Water in Downtown Midland

Flood Menaces Saginaw

★ ★ ★

The Tittabawassee and other tributaries poured flood waters into the Saginaw River, posing a threat in the Saginaw area.

The Poseyville road south of Midland was flooded and closed to traffic. Dow Chemical Co. workers who usually use the road had to use an alternate route.

Floodgates of the Wolverine Power Co. dam at Edenville were spilling 29 feet of water. Floodgates at the company's Sanford dam were spilling 26 feet of water. The gates can be opened to a height of 30 feet.

The Tittabawassee was rising at the rate of one inch an hour. It spread out over lowlands. Ashman street leading to the municipal park was covered with water but no homes were immediately affected.

E. J. Lee Co. coalyards were under water. Other business places surrounded by water included a lumber company and the railway express office.

The Saginaw River rose to 17.1 feet, about two feet short of the 19-foot flood stage this morning. It has risen two feet in the last two days.

The Tittabawassee joins the Cass, Flint and Shiawassee Rivers south of Saginaw to form the Saginaw River.

Quarrel Ends in Death for 2

Royal Oak Man Shoots Ferndale Widow, Turns Gun on Himself

Apparently climaxing a quarrel, a rejected suitor shot and killed a 37-year-old widow at her Ferndale home last night, then fatally wounded himself in the head, Ferndale Police reported today.

Dead are Mrs. Ann Amerell of 1560 Moorehouse St. and Garnet Van Conant, 51, of 122 Woodsboro St., Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Amerell was slain when she answered the door for Van Conant shortly before 9:30 p. m. She died instantly, shot in the chest. The victim's mother, Mrs. Edna Whitman, was present at the time. She gave this account to the police:

★ ★ ★

Van Conant, who had gone out with Mrs. Amerell on several occasions before, called four times last night to ask for a date but the widow said she would not go out with him.

But Van Conant came over anyway. Mrs. Amerell talked to Van Conant but told him to go home. Then she told her mother to call police.

As Mrs. Whitman went into a back room to telephone, she heard a shot. She returned to the front room to find him standing over her daughter, gun in hand.

Mrs. Whitman shoved the man, whom she knew only as "Van," out of the house. He fell down a step and rolled on the sidewalk.

Ferndale police were put on Van Conant's trail when Mrs. Whitman's son, Edward, of 1304 Marywood St., Royal Oak, said he owned a gas station on 11 Mile Road in Royal Oak.

Royal Oak police went to Van Conant's home, kicked in the door and found him sitting in a chair, next to a blaring TV set, shot through the head.

Royal Oak police who knew Van Conant described him as a "pretty even tempered fellow who was never known to be in trouble of any kind." He had been married twice and was believed divorced from his second wife.

He was known to many policemen because he serviced their patrol cars on weekends and holidays when the DPW garage was closed.

Van Conant was not able to give a statement to police. He was conscious when first brought to William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak but unable to talk.

He died at 8:30 this morning.

TO CHARGE INCOMPATIBILITY

That means two shows a night for the next six weeks, the time needed for Fisher to establish Nevada residence. He said he probably will charge incompatibility in his divorce suit against Debbie.

★ ★ ★

Debbie got a California decree in February from Fisher but it will not be final for a year. As a result Liz and Eddie cannot live in California as man and wife until February 1960. Otherwise Fisher would be subject to prosecution for bigamy in that state.

"It will be no hardship to spend a year away from California," Liz said. "I've already packed for a year's absence."

Debbie, who had turned 27 during the transpolar flight, was smiling and gracious at the Los Angeles airport. But her manner was matter-of-fact and her initial announcement a crisp: "Yes, I will consent."

The petite actress then expressed some bitterness because she had learned of Fisher's latest entreaty from reporters.

★ ★ ★

"This has caught me a little by surprise to say the least," she said. "However, this will be my last statement on the subject. I'm sure everyone is exhausted by this topic as much as I am.

"I wish Elizabeth and Eddie happiness."

The Day in Birmingham

Kite Contest Judges to Be Up in the Air Tomorrow

BIRMINGHAM — Everything will be up in the air here tomorrow, including the judges.

Co-sponsored by the Birmingham Recreation Board and the Bloomfield Art Assn., the annual Kite Tournament will be held from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at Poppleton Park.

Through the courtesy of Selfridge Air Force Base, Col. James McPartland will fly over the area in a helicopter to judge the height of contestants' kites.

Other judges will be John S. O'Gorman Jr., Foster Toothacker and Dr. Richard Galpin.

All kites must be registered and will be judged on the basis of size, height attained and design. Each contestant will have half an hour to fly his or her kite. The three classifications are elementary school pupils, junior high school students and adults.

Prizes will be awarded, including those for the design contest held two weeks ago. In the event of unfavorable weather, the flying contest will be held on the following Saturday.

Persuaded by his mother, Jerry Martinko, 19, of 20471 Anglin St., Detroit, gave himself up to Birmingham Police yesterday. Martinko was sought after his two companions, William J. Furie, 17, of 19161 Omira St., Detroit and Guy J. Naroni Jr., 18, of 500 E. Maplehurst St., Ferndale, were apprehended yesterday morning when police caught them removing a tire and wheel from the Rambler Sale parking lot on S. Woodward avenue.

The United Church women of Birmingham will sponsor the first showing of the world famous collection of ancient Bibles, scrolls and manuscripts owned by Ben R. Donaldson, Detroit Biblical authority.

The display will be shown to the public during three days beginning April 7 from 11 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Grinnell's Auditorium on W. Maple avenue.

The collection includes the complete manuscripts of a King James Bible printed in 1611 as well as scrolls of early Bible writings and a page from the famous Gutenberg Bible, first edition to be printed.

Donaldson has spent 35 years gathering his collection. He is now opening it to the public to raise funds to further church programs among the estimated 100,000 migrants who annually work in Michigan in the fruit and vegetable fields.

Eleven non-partisan candidates for local offices will appear on Monday's election ballot in Birmingham.

Running for the two commissioners' terms of three year's duration are Carl F. Ingraham and Charles W. Renfrew. Vying for the one-year term of commissioner are William H. Burgum and Claude L. Kidd Jr.

Two members of the Library Board will be elected for three years. Candidates are Ann G. Miller and Daniel Nesbitt.

Competing for the one seat of municipal judge for a four-year term are Walter R. Denison and John C. Emery Jr.; and for the four-year term of associate municipal judge, David F. Breck and Edward B. Emery.

In Bloomfield Hills, voters will elect three commissioners and a constable. John S. Bugas, Lyman J. Craig and Dominick Vettraino are candidates for the commissioner posts. And, Homer J. Murphy is the sole candidate for the constable job.

Birmingham Recreation Board members met last night to approve the $100,287 operational budget for the coming year.

The budget, not yet presented to Birmingham City Commissioners for their approval, is slightly higher than last year's figures.

Recreation Director Robert Girardin will attend the National Recreation Assn. six-state regional meeting at South Bend, Ind., next week. He is a representative of the state association.

Mrs. Floyd Thompson

TROY — Service for Mrs. Floyd (Gussie) Thompson, 65, of 2470 Crooks Rd., will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow from the Sawyer Funeral Home in Berkley. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery here. Mrs. Thompson died suddenly at her home Wednesday night.

A resident of the area for 32 years, she was a member of the VFW Auxiliary in Royal Oak.

Mrs. Thompson is survived by a son, Jerry B. of Davisburg; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Johnson of Berkley; six grandchildren, a brother and a sister.

Life in Prison Imposed on Area Man in Robbery

A Royal Oak Township construction worker, who lost a leg when he accidentally shot himself in a robbery last September, today was sentenced to life imprisonment by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Johnson, who has already served a total of 11 years in prison for four previous offenses, had to have his left leg amputated below the knee after his sawed-off shotgun discharged as he was fleeing from the City Finance Co. of Royal Oak.

Police said the gun discharged as he was about to turn it on the assistant manager of the company who was chasing him.

Pakistan to Get B57s

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is planning to begin delivering B57 jet bombers to Pakistan late this year, the Pentagon says.

Blaze Strikes Reed City

REED CITY (AP)—Fire swept the Remenap Hardware Store and adjacent structures here Thursday, causing damage estimated at $45,000. The blaze, believed to have started from cigarette ashes dumped in a wastebasket, raged out of control for an hour and a half.

★ ★ ★

Smoke or fire damage hit an adjacent furniture store, a drug store, the Masonic lodge and a supermarket.

RALPH M. LaBARGE

TROY — Service for Ralph Mark LaBarge, 31, of 6735 Montclair St., will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Pixley Funeral Home, Rochester. Burial will follow in White Chapel Cemetery.

Mr. LaBarge died Thursday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, as a result of burns he received Good Friday in an explosion at the home of a neighbor.

Surviving are his wife, Yvonne; a son, Mark and four daughters, Linda, Judy, Dianna, and Yvonne; his father, Mark LaBarge of Rochester and a brother, Norman of Rochester.

MRS. ACHILLAS LAPHAM

ROYAL OAK — Service for Mrs. Achillas (Harriett) Lapham, 88, of 118 E. Windmere St., will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday from the Spiller's Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Oak View Cemetery.

Mrs. Lapham died Wednesday at her home following a heart attack.

Surviving are three sons, Fred of Marysville, Gordon and Karl, both of Clarkston; four daughters, Mrs. Anne Fyfe of Pontiac, Mrs. Edna Nantan of Windsor, Ont., Mrs. May Campbell of Aylmer, Ont., and Mrs. Pearl Stiles of Woodstock, New Brunswick, two brothers, a sister, 57 grandchildren 32 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

DONALD C. LIPINSKI

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Service for Donald Carl Lipinski, the 8½-month-old son of Mrs. Jaydene Lipinski of 9045 Hutchins Rd., will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Mandon Lake Community Church. Burial will follow in Oxbow Lake Cemetery.

The body will be at the Pursley Funeral Home, Pontiac, until 11 a.m. Saturday when it will be transferred to the chuch.

The child died Thursday in Pontiac General Hospital following a four-day illness.

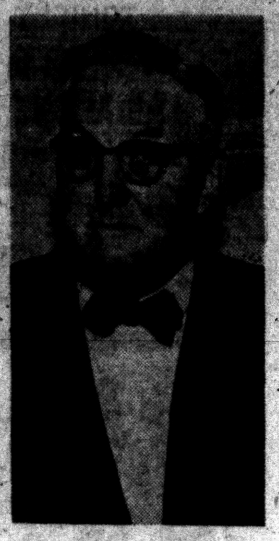

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Jaydene Lipinski; a brother, Kenneth and two sisters, Cheryl and Linda, all at home.

HENRY F. TIETZ

TROY — Service for Henry F. Tietz, 78, of 1037 Larchwood St., will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Price Funeral Home. Burial will be in Mt. Avon Cemetery, Rochester.

Mr. Tietz died Wednesday at his home following several months illness. He was a retired meat cutter and was employed at the Forsythe Meat Market in Troy and had previously worked in Rochester.

Surviving are his wife, Mary; two sons, Edward of Lapeer and Raymond G. Leighton, at home; a brother and a sister and three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

GLENFORD E. HAVILAND

Ex-Pontiac Motor Employe Dies at 77

Glenford E. Haviland, receptionist for the Purchasing Department of Pontiac Motor Division from 1935 until his retirement in 1951, died unexpectedly of a heart attack in Pontiac General Hospital yesterday.

* * *

Prior to his employment at Pontiac Motor, he was floor manager at Waites Department Store for many years.

Mr. Haviland, 77, was a member of First Baptist Church from 1900 to 1933 when he transferred his membership to Bethany Baptist Church. Two years ago he was made a life member of the Church Board of Deacons.

Surviving are his wife, Maude; two sons, G. Maxwell of Royal Oak, and Delbert of Pontiac; four grandchildren; a brother, and three sisters.

Service will be held 1:30 p.m. Monday at Farmer-Snover Funeral Home with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery.

To Vote on Tax Limit in West Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Voters here will decide a tax limitation proposition in Monday's election. If approved, this will allow for the continuation of a one-mill operating levy for a period of three years and will not require any increase in taxes.

"It is quite necessary that the proposition be approved as any money received from the Oakland County Allocation Board would penalize the school board or the county or both," said Township Supervisor Hiram M. Thatcher.

Ease Milk Rules, State Bill Asks

Claims Regulations for Producing Grade A Are Too Costly

LANSING (AP)—The chairman of the House Agriculture Committee today submitted a bill to ease sanitation regulations on dairy farmers producing grade A milk for public consumption.

Rep. George A. Gillespie (R-Gaines) said dairy farmers are put to too much labor and expense to comply with the state's two-year-old grade A milk law. Partly because of it, he said, some are being driven out of the business.

"One dairy in Flint said it lost more than 100 of its supplier farmers for this reason," said Gillespie, himself a farmer.

Gillespie said farmers from most Lower Peninsula dairy farm areas had complained about stiff regulations. His amendments would do away with the ban against accumulation of wastes from stables and milk rooms in barnyards and prompt removal of manure to prevent breeding of flies.

It also would eliminate a requirement that cow stable doors and stock watering tanks have at least six-foot approaches of concrete, gravel or like materials.

Gillespie said he would call a public hearing on his bill.

Area Students in Symphony

Schedule Youth Concert

The Michigan University-sponsored Youth Symphony will give a concert at 2 p. m. Saturday in the Ferndale High School located on Pinecrest street north of 8-Mile road.

* * *

The group is made of more than 100 junior and senior high school students from throughout southeastern Michigan. They are trained at Ann Arbor under the direction of Orien Dalley, lecturer at U. of M.

Musicians participating this year include Robert Milne, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Milne of 1201 Hattie Fox Rd., Rochester and Karen and David Eicher, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Eicher of 3218 Winterberry Rd., Orchard Lake.

Also Kay Buchbinder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Buchbinder of 30655 Woodside Rd., Southfield Township, and Betsy and Dan Rodgers of 952 Wimbleton Dr., Birmingham.

A private concert has been scheduled by the group for the Federation of Music Clubs in Detroit on April 11.

But 'He Added to Confusion'

A. F. Lt. Colonel Cleared of Bumping Enlisted Men

TOKYO (AP) — The U.S. Air Force today cleared a lieutenant colonel of charges he bumped six homeward-bound enlisted men from a transport plane so he and his family could fly to Hawaii for a vacation.

But an Air Force investigating board said the officer, Lt. Col. Charles Platt Jr. of Brooklyn, N.Y., "by his actions contributed to the confusion" which caused the "administrative error" that was blamed for the bumping.

The Air Force did not say specifically what had happened but implied that subordinates handling the flight became flustered by the presence of Platt — their commanding officer—and dropped the waiting GIs from the passenger list.

As it turned out, the investigators said, there were eight vacant seats on the plane all the time; if the snafu hadn't happened, the servicemen, the colonel and his family all could have gone.

The board said it had turned its findings over to "appropriate commanders to determine whether or not disciplinary action is required."

The six enlisted men were all on emergency leave because of death or illness to close relatives. The plane took off without them from Tachikawa Air Base, just outside Tokyo, on March 26.

Lt. Gen. Robert W. Burns, commander of American forces in Japan, personally ordered the aircraft to turn back after one of the outraged servicemen called him and complained that Platt, the passenger terminal commander at Tachikawa, and his vacationing family had taken their seats.

When the plane returned, the colonel, his wife and four children were taken off. Five of the soldiers got on and completed their journeys to the United States.

The sixth, Lewis Stramski of Harrah, Okla., had left the base but caught another flight the next day. Because both his first and last names were listed on the manifest, it was at first believed that seven airmen were involved in the incident. Stramski's sister died of polio a few minutes before he reached home.

Platt canceled his vacation to await the investigation. After the board's findings were made public, he told a reporter: "The less I say about it the better. The board findings have to be reviewed, and I would just add fuel to the fire."

"A lot of to-do about nothing," said Gen. Burns, whose popularity with the enlisted men in Japan has soared.

The airman who cut the military red tape and telephoned the general was Cole Y. Bell, 27, of Fayetteville, Tenn., whose brother had been seriously hurt in a traffic accident.

The other enlisted men were Airman 2.C. Robert J. Kindl of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., going for the funeral of his 4-year-old son; Airman 3.C. Gordon N. Read, Ithaca, N.Y., whose mother had died; Sgt. Paul S. Cain, Sedalia, Mo., whose 9-month-old daughter was critically ill; and Staff Sgt. John P. Snyder of Vandergrift, Pa. Both Bell's brother and Cain's daughter are reported improving.

Kindl said Platt "got mad, pulled rank and ordered a major underneath him to bump us. We were little wheels and he was a big wheel. So he wanted to get to Hawaii and have a good time. He didn't care who it hurt or what the trouble was."

Platt, 49, is a specialist in aerial transportation and was awarded the Legion of Merit in World War II for his work in moving Air Force personnel and equipment from Africa to Europe. During the Korean War he commanded the terminal squadron at Travis Air Base in California.

Star Gazer Shortage

NEW YORK (UPI) — It is estimated the United States has only about 50 astronomers capable of charting this country's future explorations into outer space. The shortage of three professional star gazers is so acute that industry is bidding up to $200 a day for celestial consultants.

Pontiac's Current Police Plan Fails After Thorough Trial

Voters face an important issue next Monday in the matter of the special ballot on the Pontiac Police Officers' Association. It's called Special Issue Number One.

Shall we continue with the current plan or shall we cancel it and start over?

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac Press has watched the results and we have come to the conclusion that the current act does not best serve the interests of the public.

The Chief isn't the boss.

★ ★ ★

Discipline is important everywhere. And it's especially important in police work. The dignity of the uniform suggests greater discipline than we expect in offices, stores or other occupations.

★ ★ ★

A policeman is a form of soldier. A uniform, a badge — and often a gun — are "standard equipment." AND SO'S IMMEDIATE DISCIPLINE. What good is a Chief who is under the frustrating handicap of knowing that any action he takes can be second guessed all over the department?

★ ★ ★

Our lives and our property are placed in these hands for safekeeping. We have faith in Pontiac's police force as it's composed of high class men. But it's operating under a plan that seems unfair to the taxpayers. The people that foot the bills have a right to expect that when the Chief decides officer Zyphyzy "is through" that officer Zyphyzy is really through. Otherwise, no one has any regard for the Chief's orders—or the Chief.

★ ★ ★

It makes a mockery of the Chief's position. It cuts him down to the point that he loses efficiency and standing. Even when he makes an occasional mistake, the taxpayers are better off to have someone with final authority calling the shots.

Every business needs this.

Every police force does.

★ ★ ★

Also, as events now prove, the Police Chief himself occupies a novel niche in our unique scheme of things. Apparently he can't be let out himself without a public trial, a parade of witnesses and a grand right and left of half the populace. This isn't very businesslike or satisfactory to the folks that pay the shot. It makes the community ridiculous before the rest of the state.

★ ★ ★

When the current plan was first proposed, the magic of the words "civil service" lulled most of us into a false sense of security. Many of us were fooled—including this newspaper. The City Commission could foresee the trouble ahead and refused to endorse the plan and the Police Association only got it on the ballot by circulating petitions.

★ ★ ★

After a fair and convincing trial, we have come to the conclusion that the current system seems to lessen efficiency, and reduce obedience. How far would Sears Roebuck get if everyone in the Pontiac store who was disciplined or released had the right to demand a trial of a board of three citizens at large? And how far would Sears get if the General Manager couldn't be replaced for inefficiency without a series of trials, charges, indictments, public hearing and reams of testimony.

★ ★ ★

Baldwin and Cole Make Fine Justice Candidates

Oakland County offers Michigan voters two fine candidates for Supreme Justices in MAURICE F. COLE and WILLIAM H. BALDWIN. The first name has long been a Ferndale man and enjoys a splendid reputation for honor and integrity.

★ ★ ★

William H. Baldwin is a resident of Birmingham and he has made an enviable record as an attorney and as a constructive citizen. Both of these candidates are worthy of the high office. Supreme Court justices in various localities have been under fire over the past few years for decisions that seemed to puzzle attorneys and citizens at large.

★ ★ ★

Both Messrs. BALDWIN and COLE can be counted upon to uphold the dignity of the Court and render decisions in accordance with the facts. They deserve your vote and your support.

The Man About Town

Ice Still Lingers

Our Lakes Are Keeping It Much Later Than Is Usual

Delay: What may cost you $250 —in our baseball contest.

The ice on the numerous lakes in the Pontiac vicinity is lingering in the lap of spring more persistently than in any year for a half century or more. Its excessive thickness, and absence of any early long spring thaws is the reason.

The coming of April found no open water, except where a stream enters or leaves a lake, and on most lakes the honeycombed (and unsafe) ice is still over a foot thick.

The ice on our largest body of water, Cass Lake, according to close watchers like who have lived near it for many years, is breaking all records for stubborness. In some former years it has all been melted early in April, but it now shows little sign of breaking up.

Should the final breakup be accompanied by a strong wind from the west, Cass may also break any of its former spectacular efforts by piling it high along its east shore.

One week from today our baseball contest closes. Do you want that $250? Full particulars on contest are given in yesterday's column. Better get busy. A delay may rob you of $250. Do it NOW, before you forget it.

Claiming to be the oldest city in our nation, St. Augustine, Fla., quite appropriately gives the name of

to a pathway among some of its most aged trees.

'I Hear Lots of Voices . . . But No Action'

David Lawrence Says:

Unity of NATO Breeding Strength

WASHINGTON — In unity there is strength — and a dramatic example of it was noted in the tenth anniversary meeting here this week of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Council.

LAWRENCE

The speeches were significant of a common purpose. They were symbolic of a cause that offers the counsel of moral force but at the same time, in the background, displays a firm intention to use military force to resist aggression.

President Eisenhower's address gave warning that the Western world must "always avoid substituting illusions for reality" in dealing with East-West disputes.

He pleaded for the "sacrifice needed to maintain and improve our collective strength over a long period of time." But he also pledged that "we shall always keep open the door of honest discussion —even to those whose creed is world domination."

Eisenhower said the West would "never cease to encourage" the "abandonment of the Communist purpose of world domination."

He did not say how this could be accomplished, but he was doubtless expressing the hope of the many believers in moral force that somehow in due time the truth will penetrate behind the iron curtain and the peoples there will themselves either change their rulers or cause them to abandon their aggressive purposes.

It was interesting to note throughout all the speeches a recognition of the gravity of the whole situation.

Christian Herter, acting secretary of state of the United States, said the threat of aggression is "no less dangerous" than it was when NATO was organized a decade ago.

He pointed to the accomplishments of that period — the economic as well as military progress of the West. He said:

"If we are to meet the old challenge under new conditions, we must continue to remind ourselves that military strength, and the courage to employ that strength if required, were necessary to permit a decade of political and economic advancement, and is the indispensable condition for further progress."

But it is significant to observe that some of the strongest warnings against apathy or appeasement came from the two top men in the NATO council itself.

Thus the President of the council, Joheph F. Luns, the able foreign minister of the Netherlands, appealed to the other Western representatives to avoid any feeling of defeatism.

He said this has never been able to preserve peace. He added:

"We should not assume that our peoples are wholly imune against a state of mind to be described as weariness, if we wish to be kind, or as defeatism, if we prepare to put it strongly.

"There have always been people questioning the value and vitality of our civilization. They are prophets of woe . . . some are honest men with noble hearts unable to face the idea of conflict and sincere in their pacifism.

"Some, on the other hand, are Crypto-Communists or fellow travelers. But most of them are just frightened men, whose will and stamina are not strong enough to endure the continuous tensions of the cold war."

Another statesman of the West, Paul-Henri Spaak, council chairman and secretary-general of NATO, was also unequivocal in his statements, he said:

"Ten years ago, the North Atlantic Treaty gave practical expression to the union of 12 countries and to their common determination to resist any act of aggression.

"Today, this union and this determination appear to us so natural and so necessary, that we can no longer conceive for our peoples a free and peaceful existence without them.

"Yet we did not seek this union when the war ended. It was imposed on us by the dangerous, unacceptable policy followed by the Soviet Union."

Spaak pointed proudly to NATO's achievement in bringing within its framework West Germany, and France in a system of joint defense.

★ ★ ★

He declared that, due to the political consciousness developed by NATO in Western Europe, the "major accomplishment of reconciling France and Germany has proved possible."

The Country Parson

"I like to see some folks behave so you can say nice things about them without flattery."

Dr. William Brady Says:

Calcium and D Deficiency Often Causes Lumbago

An Ohio reader (Mrs. R.C.L.) says she suffered for years with lumbago, was bedfast every winter, had to be carried about. Had pains in elbows and knees. Tried shots, all kinds of medicine and heat lamps. Nails shattered and broke. She has supplemented her diet with calcium and vitamin D, I suggest in booklet The Calcium Shortage (35c and stamped, self-addressed envelope), for the past six months. Now she doesn't have ache or pain, her nails are lovely. She will be 61 in April.

Lumbago. Just what is it? It is quaint name for backache or pain in the lumbar region, the loin, that part of the back between thorax (chest) and pelvis.

Only rarely is such low backache, lameness or stiffness due to kidney trouble. And if it happens to be from kidney trouble it is usually a surgical condition such as stone in the kidney or ureter, hydronephrosis (collection of urine in the kidney and formation of a kind of cyst) or pyonephrosis (suppuration of such a cyst).

In insidiously developing and long lasting (chronic) low back pain or ache — lumbago if you like — is a common manifestation of the national malnutrition — calcium and D deficiency through the years.

But, shucks, it is hard to make people understand. They want some kind of magic medicine. They don't want to mess around with nutrition. If the trouble, which they developed in, say, a few years, doesn't vanish in two or three weeks they'll "try" some other treatment.

SCARED OF CALCIUM

It is difficult to persuade them even to follow a high calcium diet and at least retard or possibly arrest the steady loss of calcium, for in all likelihood before they have quite gotten used to drinking three glasses of milk daily they will come across that oft-reprinted warning by the eminent but unknown "science" writer against "too much calcium," and get back on the "safe" diet which produced the trouble in the first place.

It may be well to mention here —I have no intention of offering medical information or advice about it — that low back pain in elderly persons is commonly found (by X-ray) to be due to a compression fracture of one or more lumbar vertebrae, produced by such slight trauma or injury that the victims hardly remember it. This susceptibility to fracture from slight injury is due to loss of calcium from the bones.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Former Trial Board Head Urges Civil Service Defeat

Monday citizens again vote on Civil Service. Because of broad news coverage the last few weeks, I feel voters now realize they were sold a bill of goods two years ago and will now vote to take Civil Service out of the police department.

★ ★ ★

When it was voted in, I was chairman of the Police Trial Board. Having clearer insight of the situation than the general public, I felt at the time that adoption of this act would result in a chaotic condition in the department because it made the Chief powerless to run his department. It's like giving a soldier an empty gun and sending him against the enemy.

★ ★ ★

Events of the past two years prove the voters were misled by the false charges and unfair castigations that were heaped upon the Trial Board at the time. If this act is thrown out and if the Police Officers Association will make a sincere effort to curb recalcitrants who caused all this trouble and expense, the original Trial Board as provided by the City Charter will do all in its power to work with all factions with complete impartiality in the public interest.

James F. Flanary
Chairman, Trial Board
(Before Civil Service)

'Her Definitions Are at Variance'

Eleanor Roosevelt says "Mikoyan is an adroit gentleman." Perhaps he's one that entertains her on her friendly visits to Commyland and so she may feel very kindly, but I wish she would take up this classification of "gentleman" with Hungarians and other nationalities who've been slaughtered in cold blood by this butcher.

Mrs. Roosevelt would look better if she confined all her "advice and comments" to members of the Democratic party.

Wants Crackdown on City Traffic

I hope individuals and organizations will heed the very dangerous situation we're approaching in Pontiac.

While trying to cross Cass Avenue with our four children, my wife was nearly run down by four drivers. She was crossing with the light and pushing a twin stroller, but it made no difference with drivers making a turn. As our sons were approaching panic, a woman stopped and let my family finish crossing the street. At the same time another male zoomed around her car and brushed the coat of one of my sons.

If this is the attitude of Pontiac drivers, let the walker beware. We're going to have many saddened families before very long. We must have a crackdown. If police are writing 1,000 tickets a month, they should be writing 10,000.

★ ★ ★

I'm sure most people would prefer a slower movement of traffic than injury or death to a member of their families.

'Could We Follow Europe Example?'

Some European countries have six days a week and only four weeks of vacation. In eight years they teach what we do in 12. As a taxpayer, I'd like to ask if that is practical here?

Mrs. W.

'Pontiac Deserves Good Government'

Like the great State of Michigan, Pontiac has been scandalized." One feature of the Straley hearing evidence is lack of leadership displayed by our City Manager, our legal department and some of our Commissioners.

★ ★ ★

From evidence given by three outstate police chiefs, it's evident our force can't be run efficiently if, through politics or a personal vendetta, the Chief's hands are tied and authority withheld or countermanded. We taxpayers are saddled with the extra burden of paying salary and expenses for a newly created job of Safety Director, while in return Mr. Eastman takes away our protection of foot and motorcycle patrols.

★ ★ ★

To rectify this situation, we must either dispense with Straley and make every member of the PPOA a chief and have an army of generals, or we throw Civil Service out, dissolve PPOA, put Straley back with full authority, remove the City Manager and replace him with a man who'll support the Chief and at the next election remove Commissioners who aren't qualified. Pontiac is a good city with good people, entitled to good government. Let's have it.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Gals, Don't Fall for This Old Line

Betty is confused for she doesn't know if she is infatuated or truly in love. And this dilemma strikes almost every attractive person once or twice in life. So study this case carefully. Discuss it in Sunday School. And send for the booklet below for it gives many specific cases. And remember the high-pressure wooing of Amnon: Don't believe such a suitor.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, I am very unhappy," she protested, "for the boy I have been dating regularly wants me to prove my love for him.

DR. CRANE

"He makes demands that my parents have taught me are wrong. And I am so crazy about him, I waver.

"He argues that if I really love him, then nothing else matters. And he says he will not believe I love him unless I give in to him.

"My faculty adviser suggested I talk to you, for I am confused and don't know what to do."

LOVE VS. INFATUATION

★ ★ ★

Amnon protested he loved her. In fact, the Bible says he took to his bed and became sick with his desire for Tamar. That's where the term "love sick" originated.

But when Amnon finally forced Tamar, you Bible scholars know what happened.

His supposed love was purely selfish infatuation, so he called his servants and actually had Tamar thrown out into the street: See II Samuel; Chapter 13.

"Yes, Dr. Crane," Betty added, "but is it infatuation if you feel trembly all over when you meet your boy friend or kiss him, and you get butterflies in you stomach?"

★ ★ ★

Yes, Betty, it can be infatuation alone, for in true love as well as infatuation, you feel all those exhilarating sensations.

So you dare rely on your emotional feelings to determine whether your present romance is a selfish case of infatuation, or one of true love.

LOVE IS UNSELFISH

True love is very unselfish. Infatuation is purely selfish.

Use that yardstick to jolt yourself out of unwise romances.

To be specific, the girl involved runs the risk of contacting BOTH gonorrhea and syphilis, which are still very serious diseases despite this age of penicillin and other modern drugs.

She may likewise become pregnant and thus have to drop out of school before graduation, which will almost break the hearts of her parents.

Moreover, she will then be required to have the baby adopted, or else keep it and stigmatize it in the neighborhood as a child of unwed parents.

And she will lose her spunk, which is a girl's greatest charm in the eyes of men, for the moment she submits to the juvenile sex experimentation of her teenage lover, she gets shifty eyed and suffers a guilty conscience.

Besides, if anybody needs to "prove" love, let the male prove that his regard is true love by treating the girl as a gentleman should.

★ ★ ★

Illicit affairs indulge the selfish desire of the male but subject the woman to all the hazards and penalties. It is obviously unfair to the girl, so a "true love" would not demand such sacrifices.

Besides, when you pick a mate, you cast the proxy votes of your future unborn children, so use a lot of logic and rigid analysis.

Let neither a romantic moon nor alcoholic moonshine make you sell out the happiness of your parents, plus that of your future children.

For further specific advice, send for my booklet "Sex Problems of Young People," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 10 cents (non-profit).

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

On Big Auction's Eve, Yankus Confident of More Freedom in Australia

He hopes to realize $25,000 from the sale, enough to finance his family's move to Australia. He doesn't know where in that large country he will settle or how he will earn his living, he said. But he is confident he will enjoy more freedom than here.

Yankus' disenchantment with life here began in 1953 "when a man came into my farmyard and told me I couldn't grow wheat to feed my chickens."

Yankus raised about 5,000 fowl on his 100-acre chicken-and-egg farm, and produced wheat and barley to feed them. He needed 35 acres of wheat as feed, he said, and the government agent told him he could grow only 15.

COULD ENROLL

He was told he could enroll in the government's farm program and be paid for not planting the 20 additional acres. But Yankus did not subscribe to the "something for nothing" philosophy. He planted the grain.

"It boils down to the question, do I own my own land or don't I?" he said.

★ ★ ★

He had never accepted a government subsidy, never signed up to participate in the wheat program, and had not even been allowed to vote against it. His acreage was less than the minimum required for eligibility in the voting.

★ ★ ★

Yankus argued he violated no law. He insisted his constitutional rights were violated because he was deprived of his property and his liberty by the wheat acreage program.

But the government seized his property, and the farmer was forced to sell some of his stock to pay the $5,070 in fines and interest imposed on the man who would not accept a federal handout.

Last Feb. 20 he announced he was moving to Australia with his wife and three children.

WHY AUSTRALIA?

Why, he was asked, did he choose Australia?

A million persons imigrated there in the last 10 years, he said, about one-tenth that country's population.

"They fled from countries with welfare schemes," he said. "They are sick of socialism and as they become citizens and as their children grow up and vote, they're going to vote against it."

Also, he said, Australia is an agricultural country.

"People close to agriculture tend to have more common sense and less desire to be dependent on the government, even though the politicians here have enticed farmers away from freedom," he said.

Yankus said he has received about 500 letters since he announced his move, mostly from persons approving his stand and urging him "to stay and fight."

"But these people forget I can't fight without feeding myself and my family, and that I'm not permitted to do," he said.

"The will for freedom must exist before you can have it," he said. "A majority of Americans don't value freedom, and that's sad."

Everyone, Yankus said, is quick to hold out a hand for government help, and a day of reckoning is inevitable.

"Sooner or later we reach the point where everybody's getting something for nothing," he said. "Then who pays? Who does the work?"

WIFE 'SICK ABOUT IT'

He was asked how Mrs. Yankus viewed the move.

"She feels sick about it," he said.

"We spent years fixing up this eight-room house—laying the tiles—building new porches—installing heaters—painting it. It's a hard thing for anyone to do, this move."

Yankus believes there is only one trait which makes him different from other men.

"I risked my property for what I believed, that's the only uncommon thing about me," he said.

Firemen Urged to Go to Big Ones to Learn

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Big forest fires have become so infrequent in the upper Midwest that firefighters in nine north central states have been urged to make quick trips to a big blaze if one breaks out in a distant place.

That's the only way the firemen will gain experience, it was emphasized at the firefighters' meeting.

First Page Raps U.S. Generals

British Paper Calls Them Meddling, Threat to World Peace

Alongside an editorial, the pro-Laborite paper carried a photograph of U.S. Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO's top commander, labeled: "A threat to the hopes of world peace."

The editorial said there was a new menace to world peace—"the loudmouthed American generals."

"They appear totally unconcerned at efforts by the statesmen — Mr. Macmillan, Mr. Khrushchev, President Eisenhower — to settle the future of the world round the conference table."

The newspaper's ire was roused by Norstad's rejection of so-called disengagement in Europe during a British television interview, and by recent testimony before a U.S. congressional committee by Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Gen. Thomas E. White, U.S. Air Force chief of staff, about the readiness of rocket bases in Britain.

The Mirror also condemned the flight last week of a U.S. plane to Berlin above 10,000 feet altitude, an action which has drawn Soviet protests.

The name of the U.S. general who ordered the flight has not been disclosed, the paper said, "but irresponsibility—or lunacy—of his action is apparent to all."

Italian Police Conclude Mussolini Diary Fake

VERCELLI, Italy (AP) — After an 18-month investigation, police say a diary attributed to the late Benito Mussolini is a fake.

Amalia Pavini Rosati, 46, was ordered arrested on charges of trying to sell the diary for eight million lire ($12,800). She claimed her father, a police official, found the diary in an investigation.

Space Suit Tests Make Doctor Late for Dinner

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Mrs. Richard H. Tabor rapped on the window, shook her fist in mock anger, pointed to her wrist watch and told her husband it was time for dinner. She asked him to come back "from out there 100,000 feet on the edge of space."

Dinner was ready at home, the five children were waiting.

Lt. Richard Tabor, Navy doctor and airman, was sitting bundled up in a space suit in a test chamber where the air pressure had been dropped to that which would be found on the surface of the moon.

The hands on dials on the outside of the pressure chamber wound around and around as the pressure dropped—40,000 feet 60,000 feet, 80,000 feet, 100,000 feet.

The test pressure chamber is at the naval air station here, where the Navy is peering toward the era of space travel. With volunteers like Lt. Tabor, it is learning what problems will confront man when he roams out into space.

At 100,000 feet, air and atmospheric presure are virtually nonexistent. The conditions are those man would find if he walked in the valleys of the moon, say the Navy experts.

But Tabor's helmet and pressure suit keep his body at a tolerable pressure level of 35,000 feet latitude.

The pressure chamber at the naval air station seems like a quiet, safe sort of place. But, like space itself, danger lurks in that windowed, lighted chamber from which almost all air has been pumped.

At a simulated pressure of 60,000 feet altitude, the volunteer in the chamber would stay alive only about 70 seconds if his pressure suit failed. In an adjacent chamber two Navy hospitalmen, wearing oxygen masks, stand ready to move quickly if trouble occurs. Their chamber has a pressure representing 20,000 feet. They wear oxygen masks and keep an eye on Tabor through a porthole.

★ ★ ★

In Tabor's chamber, a beaker of water stands on a table. As the air pressure drops the water begins to boil. This is what would happen to the blood in Tabor's veins if he weren't protected by the space suit.

Tabor, a native of Charleston, W.Va., has been experimenting with designs of space suits and pressure chambers since 1956.

The present design is the best yet, Tabor says. It permits comparative freedom of movement of the arms, legs, hands and head. With the new suit, he has flown a Navy jet fighter, can write notes even wearing the gloves of the space suit, can eat (in a somewhat hurried and restricted manner) while at simulated high altitudes.

Thursday's demonstration by Dr. Tabor of the high altitude pressure chamber was a short test, lasting only long enough to make him late for dinner.

Last year Tabor conducted an endurance demonstration. For 72 hours he remained in the pressure chamber, under conditions found in space. He ate at intervals by flipping up the mask of his helmet, bolting and swallowing food before the airless condition of high altitude could knock him out.

Say 2 Men Behind Ship Bomb Plot

VALLETTA, Malta (AP)—Two Maltese—one a steward in the Royal Navy—were charged today with planting a homemade bomb in the 2,000-ton British radar picket destroyer Broadsword.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

There has been agitation against the British for months in this colony in protest against the Royal Navy turning over its big dockyard to a private firm. The Maltese fear the shipyard will be shut down or curtailed and the island's economy wrecked.

Justice On the Spot From Offending Angler

One of the four called court into session on the river bank and fined himself and the other three $10 each. Then he suspended the fine on promise of good behavior.

The one angler, Reavis said, was Justice of the Peace F. L. Welch.

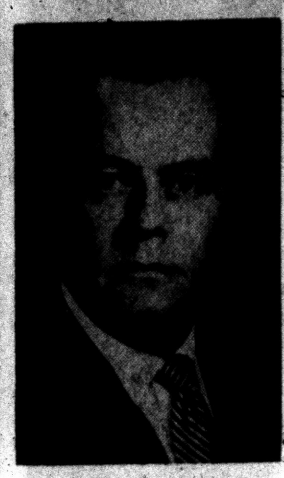

Chile ranks next to the United States in copper production, mining about 20 per cent of the world's supply.

Urges Reform Label on GOP

Bagwell Asks Party to Lead Michigan Out of Current Crisis

DETROIT (AP)—Paul D. Bagwell called on the Republican party "to become the party of reform in Michigan" at a $100-a-plate GOP fund raising dinner last night.

Bagwell, who was unsuccessful in his bid to unseat Democratic Gov. Williams in the November election, said "the situation in Michigan calls for leadership which rises above narrow partisan interests and diehard political philosophy."

"I ask the Republican party to become the party of reform in Michigan, knowing that this is a hard road, but knowing as well that in this regard we can best serve our people and our state," he said.

The GOP leader said that to become a reform party the Republicans must join in "a bi-partisan compromise approach to Michigan's problems."

He called on the GOP to push for reform in taxes, government economy, the judicial system, the economic climate and the state construction.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif) also spoke at the dinner.

Solons Off Monday

LANSING (AP)—The legislature has voted to take next Monday off to allow lawmakers to keep tabs on election returns in their home districts. They will go back into session Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Old Cavalryman Answers Plea of Youngster

The boy with the problem is Philip Peatman, 11, Madera, Calif.

Philip addressed a letter to the "Chief of Cavalry," United States Army, Washington.

He explained he has two brothers, 12 and 6, and a 19-year-old horse.

★ ★ ★

The horse, Philip wrote, "rides well in the field but when we are coming home he wants to run back to the corral."

What Philip wanted to know was: "How would you stop him from running back to the corral? No matter how hard we pull he won't stop."

Although the Army abolished its chief of cavalry before World War II, the boy's letter fell into good hands in the adjutant general's office. Brig. Gen. Frank S. Henry, whose present job is handling the assignment of general officers, started his military career as a cavalryman and is rated one of the best horsemen in the Army. His present specialty is tanks and armored warfare.

Horseman Henry told Philip in a letter sent from the Pentagon Thursday that his problem was the Army in past years frequently had the same problem with its horses.

The general offered two suggestions to solve Philip's problem. First, he recommended using a double bridle with both a curb and snaffle bit, but urged Philip to talk this suggestion over with his dad "because some horses do not react too well with these bits."

★ ★ ★

The general's second piece of advice was that Philip and his brothers, when returning home after a ride in the field, pull the rein on only one side. That would turn the horse in a small circle until he slows his gait.

Henry added that he fully realized that it is "pretty hard to teach a 19-year-old horse any new tricks, but I believe that if you will follow one or both of the suggestions, you should get a slower ride home."

Highway Work Starts

LANSING (AP)—The State Highway Department announces work has started on a $1,279,215 Detroit-Chicago expressway project providing 1.4 miles of expressway and three structures from the west bank of the Kalamazoo River east in Calhoun County.

They're Very Rigid About Prison Books

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP) — The State Prison library has 20,000 new books—none of them on firearms, gunpowder or medicine.

The Volunters of America, which presented the books, said such books were screened out along with "flagrant sex."

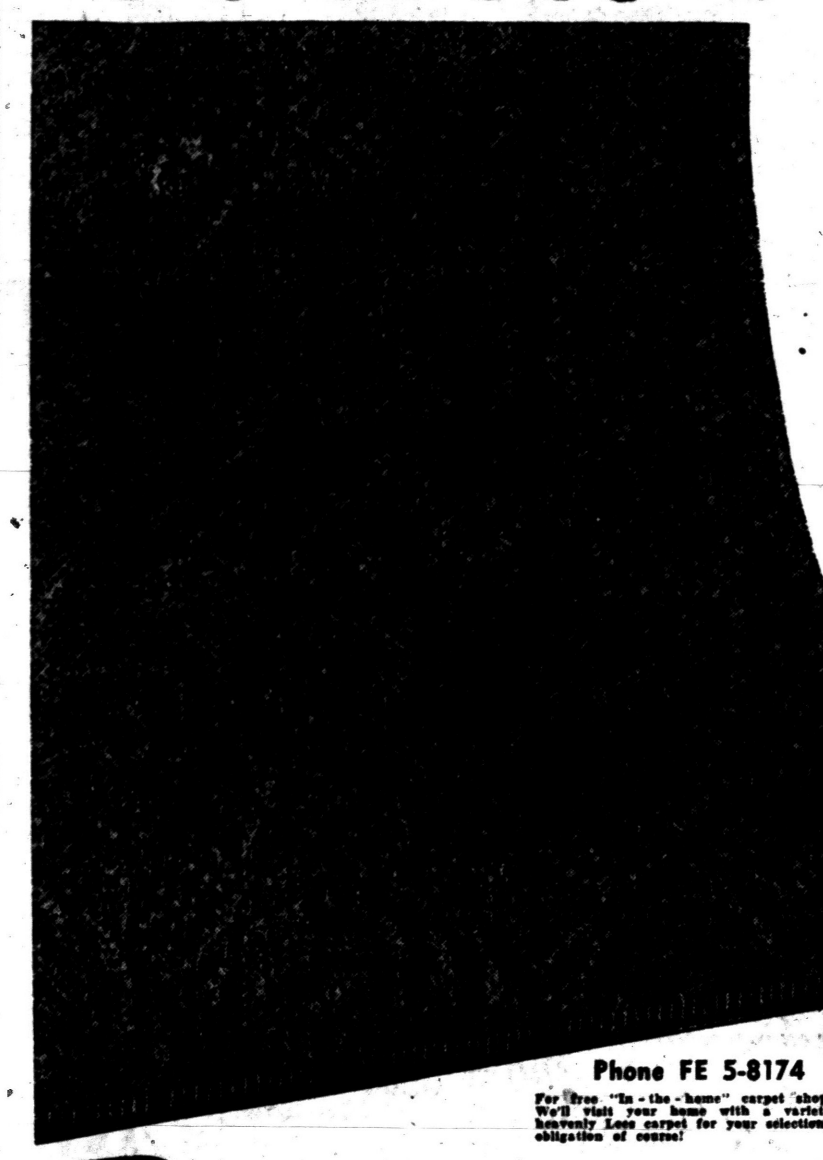

Books on medicine were left out, the donors said, because "ome inmates fake symptoms found in medical books and are able to goldbrick for several days before doctors catch on to them."

Hal Boyle Says:

Atlantic Cloaks Struggle for Naval Power

NEW YORK (AP)—The gray wastes of the Atlantic today cloak a silent, never-ending struggle for leadership in naval power.

Adm. Jerauld (Jerry) Wright, top sea dog for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has a new worry—reports that the Soviet Union is developing a submarine that can launch a guided missile with an atomic warhead.

"They can convert a number of their existing submarines to that purpose," he said grimly. "The defense of North America from the threat of attack by guided-missile submarines is occupying a kood deal of our attention."

This and a multitude of other problems in the day-to-day race for supremacy at sea are under constant study by 140 NATO officers at Wright's headquarters at Norfolk, Va. He is proud of the fact it is the first and only Allied military headquarters ever established on U.S. soil.

As American naval commander in the Atlantic, he guards the eastern approaches to North and South American continents from the North Pole to the South Pole.

As NATO's Atlantic commander, his ships and men from eight Allied nations patrol millions of square miles between the West Indies and the North Pole, all the vital sea lines that link Europe and North America.

"It isn't an easy thing to bring naval forces of different nations into a coordinated task force," he said, "but we feel we have done it. They get along well, and they work together as a team."

"Three-fourths of Russia's 450 submarines are concentrated in European waters," he pointed out. "There they are in position to try to sever Europe from America and extend the Iron Curtain to the very shoreline of the United States and Canada."

★ ★ ★

The admiral, who has been associated with NATO for all but a few months of its 10-year history, feels the public still isn't aware of the "enormous value of NATO to the defensive strength of the United States."

Wright, son of an Army lieutenant general, at 19 was one of the youngest men ever to be graduated from the Naval Academy. He served as naval aide to Presidents Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover, played a hero's role in a number of daring naval combat missions during World War II.

Known in naval circles as a salty phrasemaker, the four-star admiral is friendly rather than crusty, sometimes curbs overexuberant junior officers with the dry admonition: "Save your superlatives for emergencies."

Jacksonville Golf Links Shut in Integration Fight

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — This city will close its two municipal golf courses rather than bow to a federal court injunction opening them to white and Negro players on an equal basis.

The courses have been open to Negroes one day each week.

What is believed to be the largest floating drydock in the world is located at Amsterdam.

Big Shoes Await Clare Luce

Brazilian Envoy Briggs Wins Praise From All Quarters There

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—From that Brazilian point of view, Clare Boothe Luce will have to fill a big pair of shoes when she becomes U.S. ambassador to Brazil.

The shoes are those of Ellis Ormsbee Briggs, who has spent 2½ years as U.S. representative here. After long service in Latin America, he is moving on to Greece.

Briggs has traveled in every one of this nation's 25 states and territories.

"I have had the good fortune personally to observe the accomplishments of a fruitful collaboration between our two countries and to witness Brazil's phenomenal progress," Briggs says.

★ ★ ★

The newspaper Jornal do Brasil has expressed hope "the dynamic Mrs. Luce will continue the traditions of tact, understanding and discreet efficiency implanted in the American embassy by her predecessor, Ambassador Briggs."

The newspapers Tribuna da Imprensa and Ultima Hora had similar praise.

Briggs beame a U.S. diplomat 33 years ago. Most of his time has been spent in the republics below the U.S. border. His first assignment was as vice consul in Peru in 1926.

★ ★ ★

Fiery Copter Crash Kills 3 Army Men

RICHLAND, Wash. (AP)—Three men were killed Thursday evening when an Army helicopter crashed and burned on the sprawling Hanford Atomic Works Reservation 25 miles north of here.

One of the men, Capt. Patrick McDonnell of Vancouver, Wash., and Richland, was a brother of an Air Force sergeant, William A. McDonnell, 25, who died in a similar helicopter crash in the Spokane River at Spokane, Wash., March 22.

★ ★ ★

The other two killed Thursday were Chief Warrant Officer Leo F. Tuttle, the pilot, of Palouse, Wash., and Maj. Joseph Giuliani of St. Paul, Minn., and Richland.

★ ★ ★

McDonnell was married and the father of four children. Giuliani's widow and five children live here, and Tuttle's widow and two children reside in West Richland, Wash.

Scoreboard Prophet

Can Use Poison to Cure Cancer

Patient Will Survive, as Diseased Area Is Isolated in Treatment

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. (AP)—Now scientists can poison an arm or leg to kill a cancer without killing the patient.

The technique is also being used on the lungs, breasts and pelvis to fight regional cancers.

★ ★ ★

The treated part of the body has to be shut off from the rest and supplied with a separate source of fresh blood.

Dr. Oscar Creech Jr. of Tulane University described the new method before this week's American Cancer Society seminar.

A pumping machine that acts like an artificial heart and lung outside of the body makes the technique possible.

Suppose a doctor wanted to treat a cancerous leg with chemical poisons in an effort to kill the tumor.

He can shut off the cancerous leg by a tourniquet. Then he can hook up the artificial heart and lung to the blood vessels of the leg, circulating freshened blood through this area.

In this way, he can introduce strong poisons to the leg's blood stream for up to an hour without fear of poisoning the patient. Poisonous anti-cancer agents like nitrogen mustard can be used in fairly strong concentrations with little harm to the rest of the body.

★ ★ ★

There is some leakage, but it is not enough to hurt the patient.

Essentially the leg or any other part of the body is kept divided from the rest of the body. But in isolating some areas like the pelvis or the breast, isolation is less complete.

★ ★ ★

Instead of tourniquets, these areas may be isolated by using small balloons within the blood vessels to block the blood flow.

Four Airmen Perish in Stratojet Crash

MOUNTAIN HOME AFB, Idaho (AP)—Air Force investigators are expected to report today on the B47 Stratojet crash which killed its four occupants.

Victims were Col. Herbert I. Shingler Jr., 41, commander of the 43rd Bomb Wing and native of Ashburn, Ga.; Capt. Charles A. Walker, 39, Newton, Kan., navigator; Capt. James R. Hartley Jr., 32, Wakefield, R.I., and 1st Lt. Oscar B. Tucker Jr., 29, pilot, Stonega, Va.

The craft was on a flight over the western states and was not scheduled to land until it got back to its home field, Monthan AFB, Ariz.

★ ★ ★

It apparently developed trouble over Billings, Mont., and began a long glide to the Idaho base. Just as it entered the traffic pattern it dived into the ground at an almost level flight angle.

13 Universities Get Together

Unite for Study of Weather

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Tired of just talking about the weather?

Thirteen universities are banding together to do something about it. They're mapping plans for a 71-million dollar weather research institute.

The schools have formed a University Corp. for Atmospheric Research to start the project. Plans were announced at a news conference at the University of Arizona Wednesday night.

Dr. Henry C. Houghton, head of the department of meteorology at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and chairman of UCAR, said the institute would lead to better weather forecasting and control.

No site has been chosen for the institute. Money for the project is expected to come from the federal government's National Science Foundation.

He gave this picture of the proposed institute:

It would have a staff of about 550, including about 100 research scientists. A fleet of nine airplanes, including several of transport size, would gather atmospheric data. Information obtained in these studies would be a major step forward in the nation's efforts to solve mysteries of the atmosphere.

Houghton said the benefits to the nation's security, agriculture and industry would be invaluable.

He said the Soviet Union is well ahead of the United States in applying the institute approach to weather research.

Scientists have been studying plans for the proposed institute for 18 months. If Congress agrees to appropriate the necessary funds, he said, the project will need at least another year of preparation before construction can start.

Houghton said the site would have to be near "an academic institution."

★ ★ ★

UCAR members include the Universities of Arizona, Michigan, Wisconsin, Chicago, Washington, Cornell, St. Louis, Florida State, New York, Texas A&M, Pennsylvania State, Johns Hopkins and the University of California at Los Angeles.

Deaf Mutes, Helpless, Watch Tree Kill Man

ACQUI, Italy (AP)—Two lumberjacks chopped away at a tree near this north Italian city.

Pietro Bogliolo, 86, stepped in the way just as the tree began to fall and was killed.

The lumberjacks looked on helplessly—unable to shout a warning.

All three were deaf mutes.

Misled Army 'Brat' Leads NATO Navy

★ ★ ★

"Jerry" Wright grew up on Army posts around the world. But he chose to make his own career in the Navy, in which he's spent nearly 46 years.

It has been a distinguished career, capped by his present dual assignment as NATO's "Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic" and as Commander in Chief of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet.

He has held both posts since 1954, administering his far-flung responsibilities from a joint headquarters at Norfolk, Va.

U. S. Scientists Study Reading, 'Riting Russian

BRECKSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Some of America's top scientists have gone back to school to learn a slightly revised version of the three R's—reading and 'riting Russian.

The students are chemists and physicists at the B. F. Goodrich Co. who attend school after working hours so they may learn to read Russian scientific journals in the original.

Scholarships Going Begging—Any Takers?

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—There is an organization in New York City that is trying its darndest to get rid of some nice, fresh money, but usefully.

They would like to present it to some nice, fresh college kids or graduates, with no success. The money is going begging.

Leaves you kind of all choked up, doesn't it?

It seems that although there are quite a few dozens of thousands of dollars ready to be turned over to today's youth, today's youth isn't sticking out its hot hand. Not that they are cool toward money—they may be beats, but not bats—they just don't know that this free green is being proferred.

So a young lady named Pat King, who looks like Audrey Hepburn brought down to earth, came to this department to explain what is up.

"Can you imagine," she imagined, "someone's offering you a free scholarship to study for the most wonderful job in the world? . . .

★ ★ ★

"Well, maybe I'm prejudiced, but I think it's the most wonderful job in the world because there are two ways for a young woman to find fulfillment in life. First, she must be needed. And second, she must give of herself. And this is the job.

6,500 NEEDED

"It is—that is, I am—a medical social worker. You probably haven't heard much about it because it's the most neglected of all the health professions. There are only 3,300 of us in the whole United States, mainly in the big cities, and we need 6,500 more medical social workers almost right away.

"That's where the free money part comes in . . ."

She went on to explains, stopping for breath only at dollar signs, what the money part is:

The "National Foundation," which began life as the old polio foundation set up by FDR, has expanded into an organization for research into many diseases—and the training of specialized people to help fight them.

This foundation is offering 101 medical social work scholarships, to college sophomores and up, to train them in this profession. Assisted by the March of Dimes, the fundation will pay $500 a year for up to four years of college and post-graduate training.

MAY 1 DEADLINE

"The application deadline for these scholarships is May 1, 1959," Pat went on ecstatically, "yet almost no applications have come in.

"It's crazy. But then I probably wouldn't have known about medical social work either if I hadn't read a little piece about it in a woman's magazine. I thought, baby, that's for me. So I got my college degree at Miami University and came to the New York School for Social Work for two years of graduate study.

"And here I am, working in the emergency ward and the cancer ward of a big hospital—the most exciting places in the world.

"Every day you see people who need you. When you can make them smile, it's like somebody handed you a hundred dollars. When you can make them laugh, it's worth a million. Tax-free."

(Smiles and laughs aside, Pat, although almost a newcomer, earns more than $5,000 Taxed.)

For her job, Pat is called upon to be the following, on any given day: Detective, arbitrator of family disputes, financial advisor, domestic counselor, home-finder and psychological inspiration to the sick and despondent.

It's a job that requires not only sympathy but stamina. "But if you have those—you'll wind up every single day of the year (except for your five weeks' vacation) feeling full of security and satisfaction."

She sighed, secure like, and dropped a note on the desk. It read: "Applications for a scholarship to an exciting career and a full life should be mailed to the National Foundation, 800 Second Ave., New York City."

New Golf Ball Is Visible Anywhere

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — A duffer's dream, a golf ball that's almost impossible to lose, has now come true.

★ ★ ★

The new ball, invented by Franklin Veatch of Cleveland, calls for coating the dimples with a mirror-like metal that glistens in any light.

★ ★ ★

'57 Bomb Hoax Nearest Thing to Attack on NATO

PARIS (UPI) — The nearest thing to an "attack" on NATO headquarters was a note that arrived about noon on Feb. 7, 1957, warning that three bombs would go off at 5 p.m.

★ ★ ★

French Communists were demonstrating at the time against the appointment of German Gen. Hans Speidel to command NATO ground forces in central Europe.

But police theorized that esthetics may have been involved. The temporary headquarters building is an eyesore that spoils the view across the Seine to the Eiffel Tower.

★ ★ ★

(NATO will move into a new headquarters building within a year or so.)

HOME OWNERS and TAXPAYERS

Do We Want ANOTHER $3,300,000.00 30-Year Tax Mortgage on Our City ?

IF NOT

KEEP OUR CITY ON A PAY-AS-WE-GO BASIS

1. IN 1954 WE VOTED ABOUT $1,000,000.00 (3½ MILLS) PER YEAR FOR A CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM so we would need no more bond issues. In 1956 City Hall asked for a $3,000,000.00 BOND ISSUE to build and equip a 150 bed hospital addition and parking lot. To date we have had nothing but a $4,500,000.00 headache and scandal and still hundreds of thousands to spend. Two times since then City Hall has tried to force us to vote more 30 year bonds by saying they would "board up" our hospital, we said no . . . now it is being finished pay-as-we-go at a savings of about a $1,000,000.00 in bond interest alone. There is an old saying "A SMART MAN NEVER MAKES THE SAME MISTAKE TWICE." VOTE NO BONDS, let's continue to pay-as-we-go and save millions in income tax exempt interest.

2. DO YOU KNOW WE ARE STILL PAYING ON BONDS AS A RESULT OF THE DAWSON MILL POND SCANDAL AND GAY 20s BORROWING? These bonds cannot be paid off until 1963 . . . When you vote a 30 year bond issue you are stuck with it for 30 years, whether you like it or not . . . would you sign such a mortgage on your home? If you vote such a mortgage (BOND ISSUE) we will pay over $5,000,000.00 (including interest) in 30 years. LET'S PAY AS WE GO and use this money for other needed capital improvements . . . ROME WASN'T BUILT IN A DAY!

3. IF A SEWERAGE PLANT IS A NECESSITY WE CAN AND SHOULD PAY FOR IT IN FIVE YEARS WITH OUR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT FUND and what about the millions in cash and surpluses we have at City Hall right now? There is no legitimate reason to mortgage our homes and property (CITY) for 30 years for the benefit of a select group of bond buyers who want this income tax exempt interest for the next thirty years. WE BETTER SAVE THAT $5,000,000.00. BONDS ARE A DEAD END STREET . . . HIGH TAXES . . . LONG PAYMENTS. VOTE NO, MONDAY, APRIL 6TH.

4. DO YOU KNOW THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS ADVANCED $399,600.00 to the Oakland County Public Works Department to complete development and study of a master sewerage plan for the Clinton River Basin, of which Pontiac is a part? This sewerage plant is not a life and death matter, it would seem only reasonable to wait until this plan, which is under way right now, to be completed. In fact the portion of the plan to service MSUO is planned to be completed this year. Now it would seem only reasonable to see what the results of this study will be, it might be a lot cheaper to join with the county and area, if not, we can always build a sewer plant.

5. CITY HALL NOW HAS MILLIONS IN CASH, ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE AND UNAPPROPRIATED SURPLUSES that are being wasted. Just consider the Public Safety Building (jail) scandal, Hospital scandal, Police scandal and now comes the sewerage system scandal . . . just vote no and let's get our house in order. Protect your home, taxes and future VOTE NO 30 YEAR MORTGAGE (BOND ISSUE) ON OUR CITY, HOMES AND PROPERTY!

YOUR VOTE IS NOT ENOUGH. UNLESS YOU WANT MORE TAXES ON YOUR HOME AND PROPERTY, GET YOUR NEIGHBORS OUT MONDAY AND VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT No. 3.

Red China Students Study Law by Making Posters on Marxism

(This is the last of three dispatches by a prominent Yugoslav Communist law professor reporting his reactions to what he saw and heard in Red China. His dispatches are digested from a lengthier report published late last year in a provincial Yugoslav newspaper.)

By PROF. MAX SNUDERL
United Press International

Economic development, rapid industrialization and progress in the countryside are fostered in China by the quick growth of technical schools, particularly a kind of high school.

In Peiping there are at least 30 schools for all conceivable professions—aeronautics, railways, geology, veterinary science, medicine, agronomy, forestry, agricultural machinery, radio engineering, films, social sciences, etc.—even for professions which we do not know at all.

The level of the professions is low because so many scientists have been expelled and replaced by "xperts." That is why the cadres emerging from these schools are not so good. However, they are better than nothing, and it is believed that they will improve with practical experience.

A severe rule prevails in all these schools. Experts are needed urgently and at any price. There are no democratic or academic freedoms, or basic rights of man! "Study and work tirelessly!"—this is the slogan.

At the National University of Peiping, when Comrade Ni Tsen, the deputy rector, began talking about the university and its works, my attention was called to the word "poster."

The interpreter, following my questioning glance, explained with gestures that a poster is a large piece of paper on which a text is written and then hung up somewhere. Comrade Ni Tsen said that students at his university had recently drawn 500,000 posters attacking waste and intolerance.

He stressed with pride that the students of the university had twice broken the record for writing posters; in 1957 and 1958.

ENDLESS POSTERS

All the walls of the numerous buildings of the university, inside and out, were hung with posters as high as a man could reach! In front of the buildings there were racks on which posters hung. Every corridor was decorated with posters.

Strings were stretched across the corridors from one wall to the other, with posters hanging from them, like laundry hung to dry. You had to stoop in order to pass under them as you walked along the corridors.

I thought this was only a specialty of the National University. Soon I found that the making of posters had become the first and foremost method of general education among the youth, for the "discovery of rightist trends" and for the training and disciplining of students throughout China.

★ ★ ★

I found the flood of posters at every university, faculty, high school and institution I visited in Peiping, Shanghai, Nanking and Wuchang. I was told that such posters could also be found in offices, hospitals and elsewhere.

AT 'LAW' SCHOOL

At the high school of law in Wuchang, I asked what the posters said.

"Problems of Marxism-Leninism," was the reply. "The students write about revisionism, evidences of rightism, bourgeois views and so forth."

"What about legal problems, since you are a high school of law?"

"No, the purpose of our teaching is to create full-fledged Marxists and experts. That is the same thing."

I was puzzled. "The same thing? If I understand you properly, you want to have students who are good lawyers and simultaneously good Marxists."

"No. The basis of the law is Marxism-Leninism."

But I still did not understand.

"I do not think we understand each other," I said. "Every science has its philosophical and ideological basis, both in Communist and in bourgeois states. This is especially true of law considered as a social science.

★ ★ ★

"A skilled profession, however, remains a profession. Within a particular profession there are technical problems which are not directly connected with the problems of Marxism-Leninism . . ."

"No," came the laconic reply, "there are no such problems. Marxism-Leninism and the law are one and the same thing."

I did not want to surrender.

"What do you mean?" I persisted. "Comrade Li Khen Hin will confirm the fact that in criminal law there are many questions arise which are professional. There are also problems of state organization for example, the bicameral system, questions of legislation, administration, the right of domicile.

'BOURGEOIS VIEWS'

"These," I said, "are professional questions, and one needs expert and scientific advice to solve them."

"There used to be such lectures here, too," came the answer. "However, the students discovered from their posters that those were bourgeois views implying a tendency toward the right. That is why we have abandoned these lectures. All of the questions you mention are settled by correct Marxist-Leninist analysis."

I must say the answer made me faint-hearted.

"You have courts," I persisted, "and you have laws. How are laws implemented?"

"We have Party organizations and secretariats which take care of that," I was told.

★ ★ ★

I gave up. I saw that if I had to revise my present concept of the legal state, I would indeed have to become a real revisionist.

Kennedy Eyes Wisconsin Try

Begins Speaking Tour That May Decide Him on Entering Primary

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) swings into Wisconsin next week on a three-day speaking tour that may help him decide whether to pick the state for an early showdown in a bid for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Should Kennedy's visit stir up the enthusiasm his friends anticipate, he might elect to enter the Wisconsin presidential primary in April 1960. That could lead to a head-on collision with Sen. Hubert Humphrey of neighboring Minnesota.

★ ★ ★

At the outset, Kennedy accepted an invitation to address the annual Gridiron Dinner of the Milwaukee Press Club April 9. The visit now has taken on all the aspects of a campaign tour. His expanded itinerary calls for three days of speechmaking with public appearances in Milwaukee, Sheboygan, Beloit, Janesville, Appleton and Madison, plus the usual round of receptions, news conferences and radio and TV dates.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy's schedule aws arranged by Pat Lucey, state Democratic chairman. On at least two occasions, Kennedy will be introduced by Wisconsin's Gov. Gaylord Nelson, the state's first Democratic governor in more than a quarter-century.

Although neither Kennedy nor Humphrey has committed himself to enter the Wisconsin primary, Nelson thinks they will elect to test their strength here. If they do, the governor says he will urge state party leaders to remain neutral.

14 Area Men Leave for Service in Army

Fourteen men were inducted into the Army and left Wednesday for assignments, according to the Michigan Local Board 67 of Selective Service System.

The volunteers are Charles K. Bonecutter of South Lyon, David A. Wilkinson of Orchard Lake, Charles R. Knott of Lake Orion, Ronnie M. Yatzek of Detroit, and Bruce M. Kinney and John R. Groves, both of Birmingham.

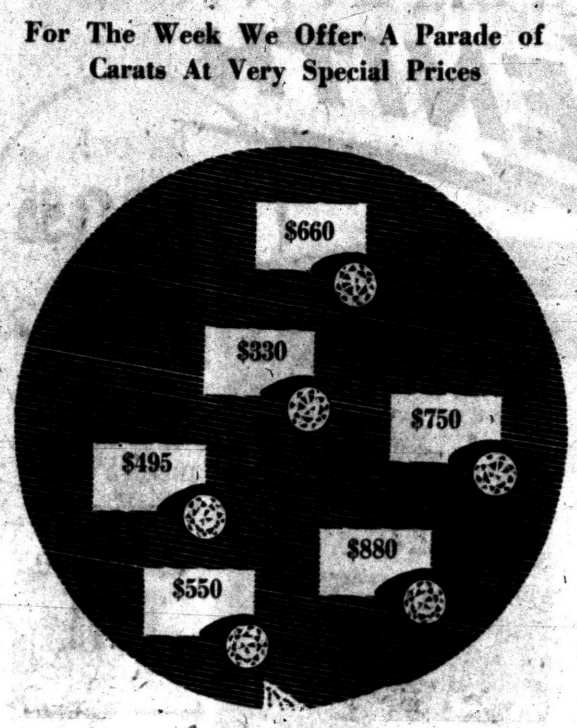

Also William T. Mudd of Orchard Lake, Ronald L. Hall of Oxford, William J. Unruh of Milford, Max E. Dunn of Ortonville, and Warren D. Gritzinger, George D. Fenton, John D. Black and Solon B. Johnson, all of Clarkston.

Want to Avoid Jury: Have Lots of Children

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Homer A. Root wanted to be excused from federal jury duty; U.S. District Judge Alfred A. Arraj wanted to know why.

"Your honor, I have eight children," Root said. "Sir, you've convinced me," Judge Arraj replied. "You're excused."

In 1903, the first auto crossed the United States under its own power. The trip took 52 days. Today, more people travel by auto than by any other means of transportation. And the automobile manufacturers of America invest more ad dollars in newspapers than in any other media.

'The Babe and I'

By MRS. BABE RUTH with Bill Slocum

(Condensed from "The Babe and I" Copyright, 1959, by Mrs. Babe Ruth, and published by Prentice Hall, Inc.)

The year 1948 started out filled with promise. The experimental injections seemed to have done Babe much good and he was regaining some of the weight he had lost.

We went down to the Golden Strand outside of Miami and stayed until Easter. The Babe did a little fishing and even some golfing.

He was rebuilding his strength for a chore he had to do and one he felt was most important.

He was to advise the Hollywood technicians and artists making "The Babe Ruth Story." He wanted it done just so.

He had been in two full length movies in the twenties and I have his fervent word for the fact that they were both horrible.

He also had made short subjects and appeared as himself in "The Lou Gehrig Story." Most people like the Gehrig picture. Babe was disappointed in it.

He accepted the dramatic license as a legitimate part of the art of making a movie; but he was horrified by the baseball scenes. He wanted his own story to be as true to baseball as it was to himself.

★ ★ ★

I was far more of a movie fan than the Babe, and had hoped Paul Douglas would be chosen to portray my husband.

ADVICE NOT WANTED

In Hollywood, Babe was to view the rushes and make suggestions. He was also to advise on the baseball scenes.

For a reason that I can now understand only too well, we never did get to see any of the footage that had been made.

We had three or four appointments to watch location shooting, but by some macabre coincidence we always got to the location just as shooting stopped.

We were there almost a month, and most of Babe's time away from the hotel was spent in interviews the studio set up.

There was one happy moment for Babe when he finally cornered Bendix long enough to give him a lesson in the basic rudiments of holding a baseball bat.

Bendix was nice; he was willing. But the baseball swing was a mystery he never conquered.

We had traveled many weary miles to plug a movie. Babe was exhausted when, at long last, we escaped.

The people making the picture had seen enough of Babe to know that speed was of the essence if they were to realize a full return on their investment.

I am not critical of this attitude. The Babe was just another property to them.

★ ★ ★

But I feel that the picture lost whatever little quality it might have had because it was rushed to the public.

We attended the New York premiere and Babe had to leave in the middle of the picture. He was feeling quite badly even before we went to the theater.

On June 13, 1948, the New York Yankees celebrated the Silver Anniversary of the building of "The House That Ruth Built."

As in all these promotions, the Yankees, who at times didn't even seem aware that Babe had a telephone in his home, were clever enough to find his unlisted number and invite him to participate.

In fact, the Yankees were to highlight the ceremony by permanently retiring Babe's No. 3 uniform. No other Yankee in history was to wear No. 3 ever again.

I was touched. So was the Babe. But the Babe's emotions were far purer than mine. Again, he was all atwitter about his uniform and his spikes and his cap. Everything must be perfect.

And, save for the little fact that the hero of the day was an obviously dying man, the Silver Anniversary celebration at the Yankee Stadium was a tremendous affair.

And, in truth, the Babe got an immense satisfaction from it all.

He stood out there near home plate and looked up at the crowd that rose to acclaim him.

He stood out there, so very thin and bent. The bat in his hand was no longer a weapon of destruction. It was a thinly disguised support for his trembling body.

★ ★ ★

A GREAT HUMAN

On the steps Babe read a sign and said, "Doc," this is Memorial. Memorial is a cancer hospital. Why are you bringing me here?"

Dr. MacDonald explained that all patients at Memorial aren't cancer victims, which is true. But not in this case.

A thousand people wanted to see him. Only a few did. One was Matty Martin, a milk wagon driver, who for 20 years had brought Babe gifts of ice cream.

On the night of Aug. 16, I kissed my husband goodnight and he said, "Don't come back tomorrow. I won't be here."

I did come back the next morning, of course. And he was there, but only for a little while. He died that evening at 8:01.

And, in the next few hours, then days, then weeks and months and finally years I was to learn more and more something I never had realized when I was in love with the living Babe Ruth:

I thought I was the only one who loved him. Now I know I wasn't. A nation loved him. Not just because he hit 714 home runs, and did all sorts of wonderful things on a baseball field.

But because the people sensed that he was one of them. He had their faith and their weaknesses. They loved him because he was, above all else, a great human being.

And they were . . . and are . . . so right.

THE END

No. 3 makes its last appearance in the Yankee Stadium.

Expert Sees Vaccine for Colds in 2 Years

CHICAGO (AP)—An expert today predicted a vaccine that will prevent from 60 to 70 per cent of all common colds probably will be available within the next two years.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Thomas G. Ward, professor of virology at the University of Notre Dame, said he believes a vaccine can be developed against "an acceptable proportion of the common colds."

★ ★ ★

He said 75 to 80 per cent of common colds are caused by a group of viruses or a group of bacteria of the streptococcus type.

Vaccines made from dead or tamed viruses can be injected into the body and develop resistance against viruses.

"I realize that I have stuck my neck out," Dr. Ward commented in an interview in Today's Health, a magazine published by the American Medical Assn.

★ ★ ★

He expressed the opinion the common cold will not be wiped out, even with an effective vaccine.

He pointed out that some people do not use the antipolio vaccine.

City Workers Can Gripe

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) —Richmond city employes are getting an opportunity to air their gripes. The personnel department is asking them to say, in unsigned re.lies, what they think of their boss, their work, their salaries and whether they are proud to work for the city. Nearing Cooperative Program for MSUO Church Education

A group of area ministers meeting at Michigan State University Oakland yesterday took preliminary steps toward setting up a cooperative program to meet the educational needs of all churches in Macomb and Oakand counties.

★ ★ ★

The program, to be conducted at MSUO, will be available to all denominations and faiths, Dr. Lowell R. Eklund, director of continuing education at MSUO, emphasized during the session.

Only Protestant churches were represented at yesterday's meeting, but all present agreed that the church-university program should be open to every church and religious group in the entire area.

The Rev. Donald F. Schroeder of Ferndale, director of family life for the Detroit Council of Churches, was elected temporary chairman of the group.

TO MEET MAY 7

The first official action taken was to slate a meeting May 7 support for the proposed program, which will be available to ministers, church school superintendents, teachers and all other church workers.

At the forthcoming meeting a committee of five will be named to work as a liason group between the larger church organization and the university.

The committee's functions will be two-fold. It will confer with MSUO officials to decide what type courses and facilities should be offered.

It will also determine the best method to stimulate interest in the proposed program in all communities in the two-county and fringe areas.

Calling themselves "ministerial friends" of MSUO, the group yesterday was informed what courses could be made available.

Among them are "Teaching Techniques for Church Schools," "Counseling and Guidance," "Home and Family Living," "Church Music," "Church Management and Financing," and others.

Eklund emphasized the subject matter of the courses will be purely of a general educational nature—not relegated to the dogma of the particular faiths.

They will be sponsored through the extension service of MSU at East Lansing, he said.

Each course will be taught by a particular department at MSU and instructors or professors will come to the "sister" university near Rochester to conduct the classes to be set up as interest and attendance demands, Eklund said.

The director expressed the hope that MSUO "would have the opportunity to serve all faiths" in addition to those represented at yesterday's session.

PATTERNED PLAN

Eklund added that this church plan is patterned after others already tried successfully at MSUO with nurse and volunteer groups.

Three of the ministers were named to plan the May meeting. They are the Rev. John W. Parrish of First Methodist Church, Ferndale; the Rev. Raymond F. Wolf of American Lutheran Church, Mount Clemens; and the Rev. Galen E. Hershey, First Presbyterian Church, Pontiac.

Ministers or any other church group representatives interested in attending the May 7 meeting are asked to contact one of these three men so an accurate attendance estimate may be made.

Other church officials present yesterday, in addition to the temporary chairman and the three on the planning committee, were the Rev. Ralph Stribe, Church of Our Saviour (Presbyterian), member of the Farmington Assn. and Birmingham Council of Churches; the Rev. Robert Hermanson, University Presbyterian Church, Rochester; and the Rev. Raleigh E. Sain, Detroit Council of Churches.

★ ★ ★

NATO's Top Man Named General at 36

PARIS (UPI) — At a noisy officers' club in North Africa one night in 1943, a newly-arrived colonel waved his glass at a young man in civilian clothes and said. "Son, will you run over to the bar and get this filled up for me?"

★ ★ ★

The young man silently complied, a resigned grin on his face. For, at the age of 36, he already was a brigadier general in the Air Corps.

It was no new experience for Lauris Norstad, whose looks and age still haven't caught up with the dizzying climb of his military career.

He became a four-star general in 1952 — at the age of 45 — and Supreme Commander of NATO in 1956 at the age of 49.

Seek Liquor Curtain at Michigan Border

LANSING (AP)—A bill to clamp down on illegal liquor imports across Michigan's southern border landed back in the Senate Judiciary Committee for overhaul today.

Senators were told state liquor sales were down 16 million dollars last year, partly due to sneaking whisky in from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois where prices are cheaper.

Sen. John Minnema (R-Traverse City) said the bill would allow State Police and state investigators to stop and search cars suspected of transporting liquor illegally without first obtaining a search warrant.

Divorce Granted 24 Years Ago Finally Official

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A divorce granted July 17, 1925, has became official at long last.

Dist. Judge Sears McGee signed an order Thursday divorcing Florence Cox, now Florence Johnson, from John E. Cox.

The original divorce was granted by retired Dist. Judge Ewing Boyd but never entered on the court's official minutes.

Mrs. Johnson, who remarried 30 years ago, didn't discover the error until she recently asked for a copy of the decree as a document for a Social Security compensation application.

Mrs. Johnson's attorney, Victor M. Petty, obtained an affidavit from Boyd last week certifying the divorce was granted in 1925.

Between 40 and 45 per cent of the medical discharges issued by the Army in World War II were for psychiatric disabilities.

Enough milk is produced annually in the United States to fill a river 3,000 miles long, 40 feet wide and three feet deep.

Pianists, Soprano Slated by Birmingham Musicale

The Birmingham Musicale will present three noted artists at its April 9 program. The concert will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Birmingham Community House.

Marion Hahn, pianist, new to active membership of the club, will appear before the group for the first time. Miss Hahn is a graduate of Marygrove College and Wayne State University and was a student of the late Beudetson Netzorg. Her activities have included teaching at the Netzorg School of Piano and the Detroit public schools as well as many appearances as recitalist with chamber music groups.

★ ★ ★

Later in the program she will be joined by Rebecca Frohman, Detroit pianist, for a duo piano rendition of Rachmaninoff's "Fantasy for Two Pianos, Opus Five." The two have appeared frequently together in Detroit music circles. Miss Frohman is a Detroit teacher, concert pianist and accompanist.

SOPRANO SOLOIST

Soprano Natalie McKaig, who was with the Columbia Workshop and has been soloist with the Springfield Symphony and the South Oakland County Symphony, will present a vocal program. Her accompanist will be Mary Dolan, a graduate of Northwestern Missouri State College.

★ ★ ★

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. John C. Wright Jr. Mrs. Robert F. Connor will be chairman of the traditional tea following the program.

Committee members assisting will be Mrs. Allen R. Shilts, Mrs. William R. Rudell, Mrs. Kenneth E. Bond, Mrs. Earl Connor, Mrs. Richard Kassabian, Mrs. Lawrence Middleton and Mrs. Eric Bergishagen.

Mrs. Joseph Beckley and Mrs. William J. Lambert will preside at the tables.

Mrs. Hutchinson Hosts Phi Kappa Tau Chapter

Mrs. Stuart Hutchinson of Waterford was hostess to Phi Kappa Tau Chapter of Pi Omicron Sorority Thursday.

Selected for the nominating committee were Mrs. Robert Angel, Mrs. Richard Maier and Mrs. Robert Scharf. On the minutes committee will be Mrs. Donald Steele and Mrs. Charles Peters with Mrs. Robert Young and Mrs. John Adams on the audit committee. Mrs. Hutchinson was elected delegate to the Michigan State Convention, to be held May 16 and 17 at St. Clair Inn, St. Clair.

The chapter has donated funds to send one child to Camp Crile though the Michigan Society for Epileptic Children.

Mrs. Gene Schell a new pledge received the fourth degree.

Mrs. Shelton Hosts Leal Emes Group

Members of the Leal Emes Group of First Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Shelton on Henry Clay avenue Wednesday.

Mrs. Paul Blystone assisted the hostess. Mrs. Shelton participated in the program.

Dear Abby . . .

Auntie Is Carrier of Gloom With Telephone as Weapon

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: My problem is my aunt. She upsets my mother. Every time the phone rings and it's my aunt I know she has some bad news. The only time she calls my mother is when she has news that somebody died or somebody is getting a divorce or somebody has cancer. I am only 14 years old but even I know better than to call up with only bad news all the time.

ABBY

"Do you think I am old enough to tell my aunt in a courteous way next time I see her that I wish she would call up my mother just once in her life and make her feel good?"

FOURTEEN

DEAR FOURTEEN: I don't advise 14-year-olds to criticize their elders, but your aunt could use a little common sense and convey good news occasionally. Perhaps an adult member of your family could make the helpful suggestion.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this boy (steady) a long time and we are very much in love. The only thing is he can't control himself. We plan to be married in three years. We hardly ever double-date, which is the trouble. Abby, I want our marriage to have a clean start. He says a boy is different but I'm sure that by denying him I'm right. How can I convince him I am right? I am 16 and he is 20."

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: He knows you are right. He is only trying to wear down your resistance. Insist on double-dating to reduce the temptation. A 16-year-old girl would be wise to re-evaluate her opinion of a man who encourages her to abandon her moral code. He's selfish, and a selfish suitor makes a poor husband.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I wasted two years of my life going with a no-good louse. There isn't room enough in your column to print all the lowdown tricks he pulled on me. A girl I know (she works in the office I used to work in when I went with him) is now falling for his line, just like I did. I would like to tip her off to what kind of a bum he is, but wonder if you think she would appreciate the information? I hate to make a fool of myself."

EX-CHUMP

DEAR EX: Love is not only blind—it's deaf, by choice. If she's emotionally involved with him, your well-meaning advice would be about as welcome as a skunk at a garden party. She'd regard you as "a woman scorned," so unless you're asked, keep our lip zipped.

Why don't your parents trust you? Get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know." Send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this newspaper.

PTSA Has Election, Panel Talk

Some 100 parents, teachers and students met at Pontiac Northern High School's library Wednesday evening for election of PTSA officers.

★ ★ ★

Named president was Jack Horton. Others who will serve this year include Mrs. John Neaves, mother vice president; Robert Everett, father vice president; Daniel Hutchens, teacher vice president; Mary Ellen Oltesvig, student vice president; Mrs. Richard Gould, secretary; Mrs. Wilbur Williams, treasurer; and Mrs. Harrol Beebe, historian.

★ ★ ★

Following the election, musical selections were presented by Bonnie Plummer, who played the violin, accompanied by Charlotte DeRousse; Joanne Dembinski and Jackie Horton, clarinet duet; and Marvyl Simson, flute solo, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Arnold Simson.

PANEL DISCUSSION

A panel discussion, with Judge Arthur Moore as moderator, was introduced by Mrs. Dawn Davis, outgoing teacher vice president. "Bringing About a Better Understanding between Teenagers and Adults" was the subject of discussion. Panel participants were the Rev. James Deeg, Mrs. Kenneth Lyons, Beverly Donato, Ronald Miller, Donald McCracken, and John Maturo.

★ ★ ★

Plans for a candy sale, to be held at the school April 15, were made. Attention was called to the May 6 meeting at which a talent show will be featured, with Edna Williams in charge. Students, teachers, and parents will take part.

Members also contributed to a collection for the PTA Scholarship Fund.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Francis Oak and Mrs. Lyons, outgoing president; poured at the tea which concluded the meeting.

Joan Frances Gruschow and Francis Keating Kuhn were married Thursday morning at Holy Name Church, Birmingham.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Willard F. Gruschow of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kuhn of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The bride wore a white street-length taffeta dress accented with Alencon lace. A lace cap held her shoulder-length veil.

ATTEND BRIDE

Mrs. Thomas S. Torgerson of Birmingham was matron of honor. She wore a pastel blue lace dress with matching velvet band in her hair. Susan Gruschow was junior bridesmaid. Her dress of organza matched the matron of honor's.

★ ★ ★

A reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Gruschow of Birmingham.

★ ★ ★

Anyone with information about members of the class may contact any member of the committee. Members of adjoining classes and teachers also are invited.

Wrong Age on Social Security Can Cost You Money

It's All Right to Fib to the Boss, Ladies but Let's Be Honest With Uncle Sam!

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Somehow a lot of women who back in 1936 signed on for social security coverage at a professed age of 30 or 35 are turning out now to be 62 and therefore ready to retire.

The way the government counts birthdays, these ladies still have from 4 to 9 years to go before starting to collect their retirement pay. So now they are faced not only with admitting they lied about their ages originally, but with proving it.

Sometimes this is tough.

One youngish looking lady in some such fix is reported to have told a social security agent who asked for proof of her birth date:

"Well, I don't have any papers or anything, but I've lied so much about being 41 I probably have some friends who will swear they have heard me saying it for the last 30 years."

Women apparently have been fibbing about their ages since Eve, who very likely tried to justify her conduct on the grounds she was too young to know any better. And the advent of the social security program in the late 30s certainly was no incentive for the girls to turn honest.

★ ★ ★

Jobs were hard to come by then, especially for people 40 or over. Women, and men too in those days, were giving themselves every benefit of the doubt.

Job applicants couldn't believe then, and some still can't, that employers can't check on ages as listed with social security.

★ ★ ★

The government doesn't care, and won't tell, if you lie to your boss. It does wish though you would level with your Uncle Sam.

A recent sampling by the Social Security Administration showed that maybe one person in every 10 had substantially understated his (or her) age in applying for a social security number.

The agency claims not to have noticed which sex was the worse offender. It says men as well as women have been caught shaving their ages. It does happen though that many of the case histories the agency cites involve perfidious women.

When the showdown comes, a lot of these ladies immediately think of their marriage licenses as a good place to look for proof of their age. But in the experience of some social security experts, that is probably the worst place of all. If ever a woman is going to downgrade her age, apparently, she does it when about to get wed.

WHERE GET EVIDENCE

All sorts of evidence of actual age is available to most people, though. A birth certificate is the best of all, but these weren't generally in use 62 (or in the case of men, 65) years ago.

One worrisome possibility is that some people may be denying themselves benefits to which they are entitled rather than admit they originally understated their ages. This is one case though where lying to the government is not an offense.

Uncle Sam says come in, and come clean, and he will bend every effort to help you prove you weren't honest.

Emerson PTA Set for Dance

Emerson School PTA is sponsoring a square dance and bake sale to be held from 9 to 12 p.m. Saturday in the school multipurpose room.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. L. D. McLauchlin is general chairman, with Mrs. Donald Agar chairman of refreshments and Mrs. John Flanagan chairman of the bake sale. General cleanup committee is under the direction of Lewis Sullivan, principal.

★ ★ ★

The public is invited and tickets will be on sale at the door. Proceeds will be used for purchasing playground equipment for the school.

Mrs. Carey to Head Zeta Unit

Mrs. Eugene Carey was elected president of Zeta Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa Sorority at the meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Royal Exline on Indianwood road.

★ ★ ★

Other officers elected were: Elizabeth Halsey, vice president; Faye Donelson, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Bennett, recording secretary; Mrs. John Borsvold, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ruth Wright, historian; Mrs. Alton Madden, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Arthur O'Neil and Mrs. Mary Wagner, chaplains.

Faye Donelson presented a travelogue of her trip through the south, and Jerry Exline presented piano selections. Mrs. Wright presided at the tea table.

Philia Theta Club Plans April Project

Plans were made by the program committee for a rummage sale to be held April 25. Appointed to handle arrangements for the event by Mrs. Douglas Austin, president, were Mrs. Richard Kistner, Mrs. James DeQuis, Mrs. Edward Shaw and Mrs. Marshall Katchka.

A representative from Girls Ranch will speak to the group at the next meeting.

St. Benedict Groups to Hold Star-Dust Ball

St. Bernadette Guild and the Men's Club of St. Benedict Church are sponsoring the second annual Star-Dust Ball. The semi-formal dance will be held from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Saturday at Pontiac Country Club.

★ ★ ★

Cochairmen of the dance are Mrs. James Bale and Dr. John Schmitt. Mrs. Fred Hurtubise is in charge of decorating. On the ticket committee are Mrs. S. J. Salvador and Wayne Miller. Mrs. Ernest Mallery is in charge of publicity.

★ ★ ★

Shower Fetes Miss Vollmar at Knight Home

Dr. Jones Addresses Zonta Club

Gives Travelogue at Meeting Here Thursday

Dr. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones spoke on "The Tripping Traveler" at the Zonta Club meeting held Thursday noon at Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. Jones' travelogue began with her 1909-10 year of study in Vienna, Austria. In 1922 to 1923, with her mother and the late Dr. Bertha Van Hoosen, her aunt, she took a trip around the Pacific and witnessed the earthquake in Tokyo in 1923. She also told about the coronation in England in 1953, and her most recent trip with Alice Serrell in 1958 through Scandinavia.

A Zonta business and dinner meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Kingsley Inn and a charter dinner in Toledo, Ohio, for the new club at Findlay, Ohio, will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Dr. Jones invited members and guests to an open house at her home from 3 to 6 p.m. April 12, honoring the Pontiac club.

Mrs. James Muir Marks Birthday

Cards were played and a luncheon was served to guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Shigley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bickford, Mr. and Mrs. William Ulman and their son, Robert.

All Saints Women Plan Handbook

The Episcopal Churchwomen of All Saints Episcopal Church met Thursday morning at the Rose Kneale room of Stevens Hall.

A handbook entitled "One Hundred Twenty-Two Years with the Women of All Saints" was planned for distribution in the near future. The church will be 122 years old in September.

"The Potting Shed" by Graham Green will be presented by St. Dunstan's Guild April 10, 11, 17 and 18.

Rehearsals have been going on for several weeks under the able direction of Jervis B. Mechan. A special performance will be given April 16 as a benefit to the Oakland County Child Guidance Clinic under the sponsorship of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Birmingham chapter.

In the cast are Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, Mrs. Frederick C. Pew, Waldemar H. Adams and his 13-year-old daughter, Natalie Adams. Natalie is a student at Kingswood School Cranbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. F. Meyer leave Saturday to motor to Arizona. They will spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butterfield in Middletown, Ohio.

Church Unit to Hear Talk on Teens' Mental Health

Mental health in relation to teenagers will be the subject of the talk given by Dr. L. Jerome Fink at the meeting of Woman's Auxiliary of Episcopal Church of the Advent at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the church.

DR. L. JEROME FINK

Dr. Fink is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wayne University College of Medicine. His internship was at Providence Hospital in Detroit and his resident training in psychiatry at the Pontiac State Hospital.

During the war, Dr. Fink served in the Army Medical Corps specializing in neuropsychiatry and in his latter tour of duty he received much in-patient experience in prison psychiatry at the Fort Leavenworth Prison.

Since 1948 Dr. Fink has been engaged in the private practice of psychiatry in Pontiac. He serves in a professional capacity on the staffs of Pontiac General Hospital, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and the Haven Sanitarium in Rochester.

Dr. Fink is active in many county, state, and national medical societies and is also on the lecturing staff of Michigan State University and Central Michigan Teachers College.

Simmer Pork Chops in Chicken Rice Soup

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Cuts of pork are of the best buy list this week. If you like pork chops, you might like to fix them in the following manner.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William D. Mayo is today's cook. A newcomer to Pontiac, she comes originally from Connecticut. Membership in the Eastern Star and a neighborhood bridge club keep her spare hours filled.

FRICASSEED PORK CHOPS
By Mrs. William D. Mayo

6 pork chops
Prepared mustard
Salt and pepper
Flour
1 can chicken with rice soup

Spread chops sparingly with mustard and dip in flour. Brown on both sides. Pour undiluted soup over meat and simmer until tender, about 30 minutes.

Style Show Is Planned by Sorority

Plans were discussed for the "Spring Banquet of Fashions", to be held by the group at 8 p.m. April 30 at Pontiac Northern High School. Fashions will be by the DeCor Shop and Alicia Beauty Shop.

Shower Honors Bride-to-Be Mary Ellen Wait

Mary Ellen Wait, bride-elect of John Charles Thomas of Chicago, was honored at a bridal shower Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. R. Jarvis of Sylvan Village. The couple will be married April 25.

Attending the affair were Mrs. Charles Crawford, Mrs. Lynn Davies, Mrs. W. S. Dawe, Mrs. R. R. Dougherty, Mrs. Elmer Huntley, Mrs. Adrian Ish, Mrs. Charles Janter, Mrs. Charles Jarvis, Mrs. R. H. Kempf, Mrs. R. D. Robinson, Mrs. N. R. Smith and Mrs. Charles Wait.

Others were Mrs. William Bergemann of Drayton Plains, Mrs. Stuart Gastren of Birmingham, Mrs. Emerson Gordon of Milford, Mrs. John Keller of Davisburg and Mrs. W. G. Sherman of Fenton.

Cut Out Desserts

You Need 'Won't' Power, Exercise

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I am 26 years old and have absolutely no willpower. I keep telling myself, 'I've got to lose some weight,' but keep putting it off. I even sent for your 9-day Diet and 8-week Marathon but never started either one. I am 5 feet, 2½ inches tall and weigh 127 pounds. My bust measures 36 inches, waist 28 and hips 38. My abdomen measures 36 inches."

A. It is lucky for you that you are not overweight, at least not much overweight anyway, since you are lacking in willpower. If you have a medium build, you should not lose more than five pounds, if any. Select two waist, two abdominal and two hip exercises, and do them regularly every day.

Begin doing each one 10 times and gradually increase until you are doing each one about 30 or 40 times daily. Also watch your diet a little. Cut out some desserts and take smaller portions. Do not allow increased appetite from exercise to make you eat more rather than less. This won't strain your willpower very much, will it?

Q. "My problem is my bust. My left breast is two or three inches larger than my right breast. I am not imagining this. I didn't go to a doctor because I am worried about an operation. It doesn't pain me but it is very strange."

A. The only thing to worry about is NOT going to a doctor. There is probably nothing serious about your condition but you should, without delay, see your physician. Please do! Do not delay when there is any change in the bust.

Q. This is about a friend of mine. She is 11 years old. Most everyone, especially her relatives, tease her and say she has a fat back. I was talking to her and she said that her grandmother wants her to wear a girdle to hold her backside in. She says she doesn't want to be teased and she doesn't want to wear a girdle. Is there any exercise she could take for her backside?"

A. There certainly is. Tell your friend to send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with her request for leaflet No. 3 to me in care of this newspaper. If any of my other readers are having trouble with the "backside" measurements, I will be glad to help.

Q. "I am allergic to most cosmetics. Please give me the name of some which are non-allergenic."

A. There are several good brands on the market. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of this newspaper and I will give you the names.

Q. "I am a young girl of 19 and want your help. I have an olive complexion and light brown hair but I have some stiff black hairs on my chin. My friends tell me to tweeze them out but I fear this will make more hair grow."

A. You will have to use the tweezers unless you have them removed permanently by electrolysis. I do not think that tweezing makes new hairs grow in. However, it is a nuisance to have to repeat the tweezing over and over again. If you use the tweezers, do not jerk but exert a steady pull.

Why Not Try New Pale Lips?

If you wish to wear one of the fashionable pastel lipstick shades and your face does not seem balanced with its pale appearance, try the following lipstick application technique and enjoy a youthful glamor.

First, a world-famed Hollywood make-up authority, says apply the pale shade using your brush to point up your most flattering lip pattern. Then, outline the pattern in a deeper harmonizing lipstick color using your lipstick brush with deft strokes. Wipe the brush free from color and use it to blend the sharp edge of the darker outline down into the pale tone.

Your lips will have the lovely light color which fashion often demands, but the outline will give your face the necessary balance you desire.

Don't Fret if You Can't Always Explain

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Recently a neighbor of ours took her six-year-old shopping for shoes. Afterwards they stopped in at an ice cream parlor. As James' mother paid the cashier, he became interested in the candy display. Joining him she said, "Come on. It's time to get home."

The three words he spoke have become a vogue among the children in my city. Continuing to drift along the candy counter, he said, "Explain me why."

She was tired—and had had all she could take of "Explain me why." She said, "Because I say so."

It worked.

Like Japanese beetles, a phrase like "Explain me why" can't be confined to one area of our country. When it starts badgering you, I hope you respond to it with a firm "Because I say so."

Because today's children know all about our need to justify any denial of what they want. They know that we want to appear right to them more than anything else in the world.

They have become adept at exploiting this need with phrases like "Explain me why." They force us to rally every reason we can think of to make ourselves sound irreproachable.

Like James, they seldom feel any genuine interest in our reasons for wanting them to leave candy counters, to go to bed or reduce the TV volume. They have just discovered that "Explain me why" keeps us busy trying to justify what we want while they continue to do what they want.

The response "Because I say so" is a very good experience for them.

So we have no moral right to try and present ours as always perfectly reasonable. Like us, children have to learn to pull over to curbs whether the traffic cop explains his order or not. They're going to have to rush letters through for their bosses whether or not his demand for speed seems reasonable.

While any self-respecting adult has to take issue with authority when it violates integrity, no sensible person asks perfection from it. People who want reasons for everything you ask them to do are just as boring as people who never want any.

Simple Food All Right at Reception

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married shortly at an early morning wedding. My parents are not well off financially and cannot give me a real wedding reception. I would like to know if it would be proper to serve coffee and doughnuts in the church recreation room after the ceremony to friends and relatives who come to the church.

"My sister thinks this would look very miserly and cause comment and that if we cannot have a real reception we should just have a church wedding and nothing more. I would very much like to have your opinion on this."

Answer: At a simple early morning reception, coffee and doughnuts (or rolls) would be quite all right. If a toast is to be drunk, you should provide either a punch or a fruit juice or sparkling ginger ale as coffee is not a suitable beverage in which to drink a toast.

"Dear Mrs. Post: What are the correct initials to go in the wedding ring of a widow bride? I say that the initial of the surname of her former husband should be her middle initial now; but the consensus seems to be that she goes back to her maiden name and doesn't use the first husband's name at all."

Answer: The consensus is right. She discards her first married name (and initials) and in its place uses the new one. The other initials are the same.

Mature Years Bring New Temptations

By RUTH MILLETT

If you want to stay young through the years here are a few temptations you'll have to fight—

The thought that things are just "too much trouble." It's easier to sit than to keep moving, but when you start sitting around you start growing old.

The conviction that young people are going to the dogs. Just remember what older people thought when you were young and you're bound to be more tolerant.

The morbid pleasure of talking about your troubles and your ailments. It will help if you will remember that you are making others less comfortable.

The tendency to become reluctant to make new friends. Only by making new companions through the years can you be sure of having friends as you grow older.

Becoming a talker instead of a listener. If you always carry the conversation you'll become a bore.

Believing that all change is bad. Unless you want to retire to the sidelines you have to be able to accept change without dismay.

You'll have to make yourself look forward instead of backward. Because unless you are looking forward to tomorrow and making plans for it you won't remain a vital, interesting person.

You'll have to look for new ways in which to be useful to others as the demands upon you become fewer.

★ ★ ★

It's easy to say "Nobody needs me any more." But there are countless ways in which you can help others if you fight the notion that your useful days are over.

Nikita Approaches Summit With Conquest as Goal

(Nikita Khrushchev stands for the thing that Soviet communism has stood for all along—world domination. Is there any hope of change? In this last of five articles on Khrushchev, William L. Ryan points out the stark facts.)

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

A Communist party hack named Z. T. Serdyuk from Moldavia droned on and on, saying just what was expected of him.

"In view of the ultimate triumph of our party's general line," intoned Serdyuk, "we have all the more evidence of the political bankruptcy of the antiparty group of Malenkov, Kaganovich, Molotov, Bulganin and Shepilov."

Frowning, Khrushchev interrupted. "Shepilov who joined them," he corrected.

It happened last December at a party session when Khrushchev was establishing himself finally as boss. The Moldavian momentarily had strayed from the formula.

When Khrushchev "took the black sheep by the tail," as he put it, and threw them out in mid-1957, a new cliche was born. The big boys who opposed Khrushchev were to be regarded as guilty as sin. Former Foreign Minister Shepilov was not quite so guilty.

This was the Khrushchev mind at work, as dogmatic as Stalin's, conditioned by a lifetime of expressing himself in pre-fabricated phrases. Such incidents throw light on the personality of the man who would face Western statesmen in any summit conference.

Khrushchev's life story shows him clearly to be the prisoner of a rigid, uncompromising doctrine. Khrushchev learned from Lenin, for example, there are two kinds of war—the just and the unjust. The just war defends or advances communism.

★ ★ ★

There are two ways to expand influence in the world. Whatever the West does, even through economic aid programs, is colonialism. Whatever the U.S.S.R. does is in support of liberation.

When Soviet troops crushed a revolution in Hungary, and when Red Chinese troops smash resistance in Tibet, that is "coming to the defense of the people."

To Khrushchev as to all devout disciples of Lenin and Stalin, the terms "Communist party" and "the people" are synonymous.

When Khrushchev applies the double standard, one for the U.S.S.R. and one for the West, it is useless to look for logic as Westerners know it. There is only one logic for Khrushchev: the inevitable triumph of communism. Does the Kremlin act in good faith? There is only one faith: communism. There is only one morality. It excuses anything that advances the cause of Soviet communism.

Like Lenin and Stalin before him, Khrushchev has made himself sole arbiter of what is good for the cause of communism at home and abroad. Those who disagreed with him became antiparty wreckers, guilty of half a dozen "isms" from the Communist lexicon of sin.

By these standards, Stalin was right when he resisted Trotsky's impatient demand to regiment farmers. And he was right when he himself brutally accomplished the same thing. Khrushchev was right when he denounced Stalin and encouraged cautious relaxations. He was just as right when he re-established Stalin as a hero and cracked down on the same relaxations, blaming others for costly experiments.

Now Khrushchev once again is a Stalinist. Still feeling he needs to make promises to the public, he warns that abundance must not be expected too soon. Like Stalin, Khrushchev wants world power first.

★ ★ ★

"Whether they like it or not," he once blurted out, "the capitalists must die. We'll contribute what we can."

Does all this mean many years of ceaseless cold war? That may depend upon how long Khrushchev lasts at his dizzy height.

Communists know the job of being a Red nation's party boss is gigantic. The premier's job is almost equally taxing. Khrushchev himself once decreed it was impossible for one man to do both well, and separated the posts in the satellite countries. He does seem to have enormous energy, but he may lack the bounce of two years ago, when he snorted to correspondents trying to keep up with one of his rocket-like tours:

"Life is short. Live it. Tired? Of course not. I'm a strong man."

Khrushchev will be 65 in two weeks. Doctors have warned him to ease up on liquor and watch his diet. As a result the two-fisted drinker is pretty much on the wagon, and suddenly is intent in making the whole population lay off the stuff.

He lives in luxury in Moscow, clucked over by his stout, motherly wife, admired by his grandchildren. If Khrushchev has a soft side, it is his devotion to his daughter, wife of a Moscow editor, and his son Sergei, an electrical engineer. Another son died in World War II.

★ ★ ★

So Khrushchev may live for years. But his generation of militant Bolshevik veterans is dying out. Khrushchev has neither the power nor the personality to be a Stalin. Opposition, both from die-hard Bolsheviks and the rising generation, is easily detectable. Still, Khrushchev seems intent upon producing a robot population.

He may be miscalculating.

The new Soviet generation is not the frightened mass Stalin dominated. Social development, a sense of pride in industrial and scientific achievement, a hint of apology for the backward state of the consumer economy, all are pressures on Khrushchev. Thousands of technocrats, engineers, scientists, professional people and even many party members will likely resist being transformed into robots.

More than anything else, educated Soviets, feeling themselves on the verge of an era of unlimited promise, fear the specter of war. This, too, must affect Khrushchev's drive to impose communism elsewhere.

With Khrushchev as top man, there may be little relaxation of the tensions communism uses to advance its doctrine. Time can change, that, and when the West negotiates, it buys time.

Some day Soviet people may have an abundance of food, clothing, housing and security. Some day the Soviet population may be mature enough to force its leaders to abandon the goal of world domination. If that time comes, the world can hope for lasting peace.

Recruits Will Undergo 12 Weeks of Training in California

The men, who will spend 12 weeks recruit training in San Diego, Calif., are Robert L. Boroff of 2651 Lone Pine Rd., Orchard Lake; Darrel W. Thompson of 1748 Cass Lake Rd., Keego Harbor; and Raymond E. Steele of 4300 Highland Rd. Milford.

The three from Birmingham were Samuel B. Moray of 408 Baldwin Ave., Lawrence E. McCasey of 1947 Haynes St. and Theodore W. White of 314 Westborne Dr.

After completion of recruit training, the men will be transferred to Camp Pendelton, Oceanside, Calif., for five weeks of individual combat training. Then, following a 15-day leave, they will be assigned to one of the technical schools of the Marines, a post or station for duty.

About three millions persons in the United States change their home in a year and the trend is believed increasing.

Annual Dance Semiformal at Holly High

By JUDITH WOOD

The annual Spring Frolic, slated for next Friday, will be called "Spring Fantasy." The Collegians, a five-piece band from the Flint Junior College, will provide the music.

The semi-formal dance is open to all Holly High School students. All students, regardless of class, will be allowed to attend the dance.

The students and teachers recently competed in a talent show sponsored by the student council. The cooks and janitors of the school were judges.

Junior Class Cast of 21 Plans 'I Remember Mama'

By JOAN PAYNE

One week from tonight the curtain will open at 8 p.m. in the Clarkston High School for the presentation of the play, "I Remember Mama," adapted from Catherine Forbes' book, "Mama's Bank Account."

★ ★ ★

The cast of 21 will also present the junior class play in two matinees for students Thursday and Friday.

Others are Prudy Hutchins, Bill Rauch, Sandy Hollis, Cindy Anderson, Jim Snover, Richard Mansfield, Dianne Hursfall, Paulette Kimble, Jim Lajala and Pat Anthony.

Oxford Juniors Presenting Play

By FRANCES FUJIOKA

"Arsenic and Old Lace" will be the Oxford Area High School's junior class play to be presented next Friday at 8 p.m.

The drawing room comedy-melodrama has a cast of 14 under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Evans.

The escapades of two little old Victorian ladies in their struggle to maintain peace between a strong-willed critic who is their nephew and a murdering brother is the basis for the story.

Select Speech Contestants at Pontiac Central High

By BARBARA GRIFFIN

The spring speech teams have been selected at Pontiac Central High School and are now preparing to compete for the Saginaw Valley Championship at Saginaw Arthur Hill High School, April 16.

The local contest was held, under the direction of Walter Smith, speech coach, in five events. The three best speakers and an alternate were selected in each event, making a total of 19 contestants.

Teams selected were George Rentiperis, Clark Davis, Warren Norlund and Norman O'Neil, alternate, humorous reading. In original oratory, Gary Miller, Rodger Olsen, Stand Walker and Ken Freer, alternate, were chosen. Terry Brown, Cynthia Williams and Harold Tate won in sophomore declamation.

Extemporaneous speaking winners are Doug Spurlock, Pat DeKay, Kim Robertson, and Ken Freer, alternate. Lynn Walker, Judy Canterella, Nancy Walker and Peggy Warren, alternate, were winners in interpretive reading.

PLAN SWIM SHOW

The Dolphins, the girls synchronized swimming club, have announced May 6, 7, 8 and 9 as the dates for their annual spring water show, "Music Through the Ages." A matinee will be held May 6 and the others will be evening performances. All performances will be held in the Pontiac Northern High School pool.

Coached by Nelma Wood, members practice several times a week working out routines to portray different stages of music through the years. Nancy Donaldson and Ann Donaldson will perform solos.

★ ★ ★

Committee chairmen for the show are Becky Bryce, publicity; Carol Murphy, costumes; and Nancy Donaldson, music. Tryouts for the narrator of the show will be held soon.

Tryouts will be held for two plays to be presented May 5 and 11 by the PCH Playcrafters under the direction of Garth Errington, dramatics instructor.

"Manney's Kid Don't Cry" by Tennessee Williams, will be presented May 11 at Wayne State University when 30 other Detroit area high schools will compete for top honors.

On May 5, "The Witch Who Wouldn't Be" will be presented at the Oakland Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Organize Lifesaving Classes at PNH

By COLLEEN ADAMS

This week plans are being made to start junior and senior American Red Cross life-saving classes at Pontiac Northern High School.

The lessons, to be taught by Richard L. Marsh and Madeline McConnell, Northern teachers, and Dennis Beach of Madison Junior High School, are open to anyone and will be held for two months each Saturday.

This week, a water safety program under way for swimming instructors also started. Meetings will be held at the pool each Monday and Wednesday at 7 p.m. throughout April.

This week five American problems classes were shown two films on alcoholism which dealt with the problem alcohol causes and its effects.

Now that warmer weather has started, many homerooms are thinking of dressing up the outdoor courts with flowers and shrubbery. Plans are now being made as to how each section of the building is going to fix up its court.

One court has planned to make a red "N" out of tulips for their floral display.

Dan Hurtel is leading in points per game in the intramural basketball tournament being held this week. He racked up 40 points in one game. Bob Hocking made 32.

Council to Sponsor Recreation Night

By JEAN REXFORD

Recreation Night will be sponsored by the Waterford Township High School Student Council for the first time in the gymnasium tonight from 7:30 to 11.

Admission will be by student activity or school identification cards. Shuffleboard, dancing, ping pong, chess, checkers and weight lifting will be featured throughout the evening. Refreshments will be sold in the cafeteria.

Ron Newman is general chairman of the event. Other committee chairmen are Bob Joyce, games; Carolyn Ball, publicity; Betty Vernan, dancing and Jim Luzod, admissions.

Dr. Albert Loving, a Negro professor at the University of Michigan, was the guest speaker at the Easter assembly held last week. His speech, "Survival or Crucifixion: Modern View," centered on the problem of segregation in a democracy. He was sponsored by the Hi-Y Club.

Winners of the WTHS second semester forensic speech contest were announced by Patty Looman, speech department head.

Mike Sickels won first place in declamation and Barbara Harthun was second. Betty Vernan, first in dramatic reading and Carol Saul, second; Joe Stodgel, first in humorous reading and Marcia Cameron, second; Charlotte Braden, first in original oratory and Mary Harding, second and John Teeuwissen, winner in extempore speech.

A committee of clubs was recently proposed to all of the organization at WTHS. This committee would be formed to orient new students regarding the clubs, to coordinate money making activities, to better publicise worthwhile club projects and to provide a forum to talk over mutual problems.

This committee would be made up of all club presidents and would be a sub-committee of the student council.

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

SAUNDERS

..FIVE ACES: holding a slight edge in first place among hit tunes in Pontiac is "Come Softly To Me" (The Fleetwoods). "Pink Shoe Laces" (Dodie Stevens) pops up in second spot this week.

Third is "It's Just A Matter of Time" (Brook Benton). Slipping into fourth spot is "So Fine" (The Fiestas) and dropping to fifth spot this week is "Since I Don't Have You" The Skyliners).

THE JAZZ NEST: Now that Chris Barber's "Petite Fluer" has quieted down, it might be interesting to take a closer look at his band. This can be done in an excellent LP, "Here Is Chris Barber' Atlantic 1292).

I especially like the vocal by Ottilie Patterson and Barber's great trombone on "Trombone Cholly," one of the best cuttings of this tune since Bessie Smith and Charlie Green did it some 30 years ago.

The band is British, its vocalist Irish (Northern). The technical side of the recording is just the thing for hi-fi bugs. It is truly refreshing to hear a young outfit play so well. Don't miss it!

LAST CHORUS: Briefly, I would like to pay tribute to the velvet fog of the saxophone world, Lester Young, who died recently at the age of 49 in New York City.

"Pres" was a giant and, with Coleman Hawkins, the major influence among jazz sax stylings from the mid-30s to mid-40s. Although remembered by most as a Jazz Philharmonic star, it was with the great Count Basie band from 1936-40 that he first gained national acclaim.

Slate Home Grounds Clinic at Northern High Thursday

By SYLVIA COLE
Garden Editor

The first items which should be on our early spring agenda are lawns, trees and shrubs, the basic ingredients for a beautiful outdoor living room.

The second annual Home Grounds Clinic, slated for Thursday, will give Pontiac residents the opportunity to learn all about these three topics as well as the tools and equipment necessary to maintain home surroundings and become a pride and joy.

Four county and city experts will speak at the meeting which will be held at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater of Pontiac Northern High School. The free meeting is open to the public.

Sponsors of the program are The Pontiac Press, the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department and the Michigan State University Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service and Pontiac Public Schools Adult Education.

Donald E. Nagel, city forestry supervisor, will discuss "Choosing Planting Materials" and will be followed by Lyle Abel, county agricultural agent, who will talk on lawn care.

Abel will cover fertilizing, mowing, watering and weed control. Control of insects and diseases on home grounds planting will be the subject of Wayne B. Siefert, county horticultural agent. He will be followed by William Aho, city parks supervisor, who will talk on tools and equipment in home ground maintenance.

Aho plans to display and demonstrate the many necessary tools and equipment needed for the average resident.

Following the one-hour session, a question and answer period will be held to give the audience a chance to ask further questions about particular problems.

Each of the speakers will have demonstrations and examples of the processes they recommend and explain.

The latest bulletins on home grounds care will be provided by the extension service and the parks and recreation department will exhibit gardening materials and equipment.

Post Office Obtained for Two Loads of Gravel

LAWS, Calif. (UPI) — The post office for this tiny Southern California community — 29 registered voters — is 9 x 15 feet.

It was obtained in 1932 by Joe Smith, husband of Postmistress Florence Smith, in exchange for two loads of gravel. The party of the second part was the Shell Oil Co.

Be Careful When Planting a Rose

A rose may not be a rose unless it is planted with care.

Choose planting spots reached by the sun at least six hours a day. Dig holes 15 to 18 inches apart for hybrid tea roses, 20 to 24 inch apart for floribundas.

Keep bare-root roses in water until ready. Spread the roots over a cone of soil in the bottom of a roomy hole.

The knob of the stem should be at soil level when the hole is filled. Pulverize the soil and mix in one cup of granular commercial plant food.

Surround the roots and pour in water, jostling the rose gently so that the water carries to all air pockets. Then pull up slightly.

In summer, water roses often. Feed each plant a half cup of balanced plant food every third week, then water. Cut stems of faded blooms back to a five-part leaf.

The U.S. Division of Forestry was established in 1880.

Research Reports Reveal
CRAB GRASS PROBLEM SOLVED
One PAX Application Gives Years of Control

Research reports just released reveal a major breakthrough in control of crab grass. Test plots, where a single PAX application was made, show no crab grass three years later. These tests are now confirmed by similar findings by leading universities throughout the country. PAX results were so outstanding that experts state, "The lasting control and ease of a single PAX application solves the crab grass problem."

PREVENTIVE CONTROL

Crab grass is an annual that dies each winter leaving millions of seeds. PAX kills these seeds and those that blow in from neighbors' lawns for years. Thus, PAX ends forever the continuing task of digging or spraying to remove the growing weed.

CONTROLS CHICKWEED

FEEDS LAWN — KILLS PESTS

PAX contains fertilizer to renew lawn beauty and chlordane insecticide to control lawn moth larvae (sod webworms), night crawlers, cutworms, ear wigs, grubs and ants.

Nehru Confirms Lama in India

Says Tibet God-King Will Quickly Be Given Political Asylum

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Dalai Lama, 23-year-old god-king of Tibet, slipped across the border into India three nights ago in a successful escape from pursuing Chinese Communists.

Prime Minister Nehru, in announcing the Buddhist ruler's safe arrival to a cheerful parliament, indicated he would be quickly given political asylum.

"Yes, he is in good health," Nehru declared in disclosing the end of a dramatic 13-day manhunt in which the Chinese Reds desperately tried to head off the youthful monarch worshipped by Tibetans as a living Budda.

The Dalai Lama, reportedly traveling in a party of 80, crossed the border in extreme northeast India near the village of Towang approximately 500 miles north of Calcutta.

Nehru said that he first learned Wednesday night that an emissary of the Dalai Lama had arrived at the Indian border in the northeast frontier area of Assam state.

The prime minister said that the young ruler and his party actually had crossed the border the night before but the message from the remote area was slow in reaching him. A second group subsequently arrived to swell the Lama's entourage to 80 persons, Nehru said.

Nehru said the Dalai Lama's emissary had sought political asylum for his chief, and that the Indian political officer at Shillong, in Assam state, the chief town 150 miles south of the border, had prior instructions what to do.

The Dalai Lama's presence in India puts Nehru in a delicate diplomatic position. He has been going out of his way to keep on friendly terms with Red China.

South Oakland 30-Ups Will Sponsor Dance

The 30-Up Club of South Oakland YMCA is sponsoring a dance tomorrow from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the Royal Oak branch of the YMCA, 1016 W. 11 Mile Rd. just east of Woodward.

Candidates Seek Local Posts

5 Cities Elect Officers Monday

Voters in the Oakland County cities of Walled Lake, Keego Harbor, Farmington, Troy and Lathrup Village will elect local officials when they go to the polls on Monday.

★ ★ ★

WALLED LAKE

Four councilmen will be elected in Walled Lake. The candidates are Harold N. Ackley, Francis B. Hill, Wendel G. Kellogg Jr., Esle V. Mercer, William G. Nixon, Waldo C. Proctor, George R. Sweet, Marshall E. Taylor, Robert R. Williams and Robert L. Wiltse.

KEEGO HARBOR

There are two council posts to be filled in Keego Harbor in the forthcoming election and two candidates on the ballot. They are Russell C. Greig and Frank W. Marriott.

FARMINGTON

Three councilmen are sought in Farmington. Vying for the posts are 12 candidates. They include Thomas E. Barber, Vilas O. Bates, Robert J. Boise, Charles F. Bridges Jr., James W. Cavanaugh, Lindwood E. Chambers, Samuel J. Graham Jr.

★ ★ ★

TROY

Troy voters will elect a mayor and two councilmen. Running for mayor are Robert J. Huber and Carence F. Long. Seeking the two council posts are Stanley G. Gill, Wallace B. Hudson, William R. Jenkins and Vincent J. McAvoy.

LATHRUP VILLAGE

In the City of Lathrup Village, three councilmen and a justice of the peace will be voted into office.

MARION BARRIGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barrigan of 7562 Ormond Rd., Davisburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion, to Warren E. Blumenchien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Blumenchien of 2320 Pool Rd., Holly. No date has been set for the wedding.

600 Pontiac Homes Gasless for 5 Hours

Approximately 600 homes in the south end of the city were without gas last night for five hours while Consumers Power Co. crewmen cleared a clogged gas main.

Consumers workers shut off gas in buildings bounded by Bagley, Saginaw, Rapid streets and South boulevard.

E. L. Karkau, district manager of the company, said the trouble was caused by water which seeped into a gas main.

Assisting Consumers workers were police and firemen, who helped to gain entry into 29 residences where no one was at home.

59ers Hunt Sites for Homesteading

★ ★ ★

Group leader Marino Sik said the modern day band of pioneers want to make certain they have found the right site before they make their move.

"We don't want to be making any mistakes," he said.

One scouting group is checking the north bank of Anchor River near hear, another party is looking over on the north end of the Kenai Peninsula that was formerly a gunnery range but was recently declared public domain.

City Requests Budget Advance

Pontiac Asks $29,500 From Urban Renewal Coffers for Planning

Pontiac has applied for another advance from its $60,882 budget for urban renewal planning, Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager, said today.

★ ★ ★

Regional urban renewal officials in Chicago have been asked to forward $29,500 for planning through June 30, he said.

★ ★ ★

The funds would cover initial land surveys and appraisals in the renewal area; coordination by city planners and Greer Associates, the city's plan consultants; and legal and administrative fees.

They would finance the initial steps in the final planning stage of the project, leading up to the city's application this fall for federal funds to finance the project.

So far, the city has spent $11,907 for planning, Stierer said.

Prince Charles Breaks Out With Chicken Pox

WINDSOR, England (AP) — A red rash broke out today on young Prince Charles, heir to the British throne. Doctors confirmed a royal case of chicken pox.

★ ★ ★

The 10-year-old Prince of Wales will spend his school holidays in bed, isolated from his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, and other members of the royal family staying at Windsor Castle.

Plan Supper at Clifford

CLIFFORD—A pancake supper will be served beginning at 7 p.m. today at the Clifford Methodist Church. The menu will also feature sausage and maple syrup. A free will offering will be taken.

Urges Amendment OK

LANSING (AP)—Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams has urged voters in Monday's election to approve a constitutional amendment providing for continuity of state government in the event of an enemy attack.

TOYS FOR THE FAIR — Leggett School in Waterford Township will hold its annual Fair from 4 to 9 p. m. Saturday. Here, Vernon Wolters shows Mrs. Margaret Richie a new type tank as Barbara Peterson brushes a doll's hair. Various items and projects associated with a Fair will be on display, and a ham dinner will be served. All proceeds will be used to purchase playground equipment for the school, says chairman Mrs. Glenn Wolters.

Posthumous Pardons Asked in '27 Murders

BOSTON (AP)—A New York attorney says he is convinced Sacco and Vanzetti did not commit the murders for which they were electrocuted in 1927.

The statement by Morris L. Ernst was made Thursday before a Massachusetts legislative committee considering a resolution that the state grant a posthumous pardon to Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

They were executed in 1927 for the murders of a paymaster and guard during a $17,000 robbery in 1920.

The convictions and executions touched off riots in many parts of the world amid charges that Sacco and Vanzetti were put to death because they were foreigners and anarchists.

Mayor Rowston Proclaims NATO Salute Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the 10th anniversary of the signing of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization charter by the United States and other Western nations, has been proclaimed "Salute to NATO Day" by Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

★ ★ ★

Rowston issued a proclamation drawn up by the American Council on NATO, Inc., in New York City, in which it was stated that the 15-nation treaty organization had stemmed Soviet aggression and increased military, political, economic, cultural and social ties in the West.

The NATO pact is particularly significant now, the proclamation said, because of the present crisis over West Berlin.

Worms Can Catch Fish; but Shouldn't Linger

LANSING (AP)—Worms are fine for catching fish, but shouldn't be found in fillets, the State Agriculture Department has concluded.

The department's division of foods and standards reported it has condemned 7,000 pounds of breaded perch fillets found in Lansing because the fish contained worms.

Another 58,000 pounds of perch are under seizure and is being checked out in Detroit. The department said the condemned fish contained a parasite-type worm found in its great lake habitat.

Eye Mineral Lease

LANSING (AP)—The Conservation Department and Bear Creek Mining Co. are discussing a proposed mineral lease for exploration of public lands in the western Upper Peninsuala. Most of the lands are in Ottawa National Forest where the state has 130,000 acres of mineral rights.

His Remedy for Michigan: 'Higher-Paid Legislature'

Former State Rep. Theodore F. Hughes suggests a higher-paid, full-time Legislature as one means to correct Michigan's financial problems.

Hughes, a Berkley attorney who served four years in the House before he declined re-election last year, said such a drastic change could be a first step toward turning back the management of state finances to the elected body instead of keeping it in the hands of the State Administrative Board and Civil Service Commission.

Speaking last night at a GOP meeting at West Bloomfield High School, Hughes said too much power rests with the Commission in setting the salaries of state employes, when the House and Senate should have some say.

Hughes pinchhit for State Rep. Farrell E. Roberts (R-West Bloomfield) who was too busy in Lansing as chairman of the House's Labor Committee to moderate the fourth in a series of five meetings sponsored by the Republican Committee of Oakland County to discuss the state's cash crisis.

In answer to a question, Hughes said the immediate solution to pour more money into the state treasury would be a state income tax. He said he had no opinion on whether this should be a graduated or flat rate tax.

He also spoke out against the 50 million dollar Veterans Trust Fund, which is headed toward mortgaging by the Legislature.

Hughes, who was the first commander of the Berkley VFW Post, said he favored liquidating the fund, which he said was "nothing more than general fund money."

He repeatedly placed some of the blame for the state's problems on the current $4,000-per-year pay of representatives, most of whom hold outside jobs.

He recommended a pay nearer to $12,000 a year as providing an added incentive to encourage the best qualified men and women to seek public office.

Hughes didn't suggest, however, where this additional money might come from in view of Michigan's pending $110,000,000 deficit.

Tonight will mark the fifth and last meeting put on by the county GOP committee. It will be held at Royal Oak Kimball High School. Reps. Roberts and William Hayward (R-Royal Oak) are scheduled to be on hand to answer questions.

The way the odds were publicized prior to the Masters Tournament one would wonder whether they were using programs or tote cards in Augusta.

Couldn't you just hear the late Bill Corum announcing the tournament race track fashion, "And approaching the green is Cary Middlecoff with Sam Snead making the turn and Arnold Palmer two strokes behind."

The example given is the case of Billy Casper. Two California business men had a contract with Casper paying him between $600 and $1,500 a month.

Last June when Casper's contract ran out, the three men split $100,000 over a two year period — each sponsor getting $15,000 over the original investment.

Other contracts were noted with juicy splits.

To further the whims of the gamblers, the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions has betting figures of Wall Street financial proportions.

One gambler is reported to have standard odds of 10,000 to 1 that no golfer in the field will fire aces on the 4th, 7th, 11th or 16th holes.

And there are 2-1 odds given that tee shots on the par-3 7th hole won't land on the green.

This is also a place where you can "own" a pro. Frank Laine who "bought" Gene Littler for the past three years has won a total of $237,663 as Littler has won the tourney three times in succession.

His prize money was $10,000 each time, but each time Laine also gave Littler a share of his "winnings."

At this rate it shouldn't be too long before betting windows will be legalized in some states holding pro tournaments.

Say Now, Captain — Honey

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A petite green-eyed blonde, Marilyn Voges, Thursday night was elected captain of the University of Chattanooga varsity tennis team.

Coach Tommy Bartlett, who announced Miss Voges' election by her teammates, talked her into trying out for the team last year. She immediately became Bartlett's No. 2 player.

Miss Voges, a native of Chattanooga, is a 10-year veteran of Southeastern tennis. In the latest rankings of the Southern Lawn Tennis Assn., she is ranked No. 4 among women players and the No. 3 junior.

Last year she won the Tennessee State Open and closed women's tournaments.

Against all college opposition—and it was all male—she has been beaten only twice.

Demaret Finds Augusta Back Nine a 'Varmint'

By CARY MIDDLECOFF

AUGUSTA NATIONAL GOLF CLUB—If anybody doubts that this golf course is as treacherous as the worst varment you'd ever see on Have Gun Will Travel, let him consider the case of James Newton Demaret.

★ ★ ★

Ol' Jim, one of the world's finest players over the years and a three-time Masters champion, had it two under par going past the 10th hole. He played it in eight over thereafter to finish with 34-44—78.

★ ★ ★

Being mighty busy shooting myself a 74, I didn't have the time (nor the heart for it either) to ask Demgret for the gory details of the back nine. But I know from long experience that he must have taken some long chances that didn't come off.

It just goes to show that this golf course cannot be trifled with. You have to be careful.

★ ★ ★

But then you can't be too careful. And for proof of that take the case of Dow Finsterwald.

Finsterwald is justly renowned as one of golf's cagiest players. He doesn't win real often (although he is the current PGA champion) but he is nearly always well in the money. He is a great golfer but a generally cautious one.

Here Thursday, his caution rewarded him with a total of 11 fives on his scorecard. In fact, he never went over five on a single hole, but he wound up with 78.

The man who used the proper blend of boldness and caution, obviously, was Stan Leonard, with his 69. He is a fine golfer, long with the driver and with a good all-round game.

★ ★ ★

Mine was the usual lament. I hit the ball good but couldn't putt. All of the five holes I bogied I "should" have parred. It was in each case a matter of three-putting or failing to get down in two shots from just off the fringe of the green. But these mistakes are painfully easy to make here at the Masters course.

★ ★ ★

Happily for me — and for some others, like Snead and Hogan — the scoring ran rather high for the first day, and it may be possible to catch up.

AP Wirephoto

VARMINT — Jimmy Demaret does a jig as he drops a putt on the 9th green at Augusta in the Masters Tournament. Behind him is Vic Ghezzi. Demaret had a 34 for the front nine, but the back nine was a varmint as he skied to a 44.

Canada's Stan Leonard First Round Leader

Fires 3-Under-Par 69; 4 More Overseas Pros Within 4 Strokes

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Since the Masters Gold Tourniament was born 25 years ago, every champion has borne the imprint "made in U.S.A." This could be the year for an imported brand.

As the star-studded field swung into the second round today a short, balding Canadian, Stan Leonard, who was two strokes out in front with a three-under-par 69, the first foreigner ever to lead at any stage. Four overseas players were within four shots of first place.

Peter Thomson of Australia, holder and fourt-time winner of the British Open crown, and Spain's amazing Angel Miguel were bracketed with three U.S. pros at 72. Gary Player of South Africa and Dave Thomas of Wales were among nine men tied at 73.

After a frustrating day of early rain and shifting winds, the run for one of the game's most coveted titles weas still wide open but the foreign threat never was stronger.

Australian-born Jim Ferrier was a U.S. pro when he was barely beaten out for the title by Jimmy Demaret in 1950. The best an outsider ever has done in this event came last year when today's self-same leader, Leonard, tied Ken Venturi for fourth, two strokes back of Arnold Palmer.

Leonard, 44, six times professional champion of his country, had the luck and patience where others failed yesterday and therein lies the story of his remarkable round under extremely difficult conditions.

The winds which swirled around the gulch encompassing the 10th through the 13th holes broke the spirit of many of the game's toughest competitors, but not the pleasant little battler from faroff Vancover.

Leonard turned in 33, three under par, after sinking putts of nine, 22 and 14 feet. Then he ran into trouble. He hit into the woods on the 10th but banged out sideways and recovered for his par. On the short 12th, he waded into the shallow water after dunking his tee shot, blasted out and sank a 25-foot putt for his par three. He had nine straight pars on the back nine.

Two strokes back of Leonard came the defending champion, Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., red-hot Jackie Burke Jr., of Houston and Chandler Harper, a balding club manufacturer from Portsmouth, Va., who has played in only two tournaments this year.

Thomson and Miguel, the latter the surprise individual winner in the Canada Cup matches at Mexico City last year, were bracketed with the reigning national Open champion, Tommy Bolt, and two touring pros, Jay Hebert and Gene Littler, all tied at 72.

In the 73 list with Player and Thomas were Ben Hogan, who had bogies on three of the last five holes; Art Wall, Billy Maxwell, Mike Souchak, Dick Mayer, and two well-known amateurs, Chuck Kocsis of Royal Oak, Mich., and Bill Hyndman III of Arlington, Va.

The advance favorites found the tricky winds and Augusta National's par 72 too hard to handle. Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff were among 174 at 74. Ken Venturi of San Francisco was tied with 11 others at 75.

DEATH ON A SPEEDWAY — Two racing motorcyclists met death on a London speedway this week. Arrow at the left indicates where one rider, Edward Boarer was pinned under his machine and killed. Arrow at the right points to another rider who was killed as his machine ran afoul of Boarer's, and a third rider G. J. Griffin is seen being tossed head first into the arena wall.

Montreal, Leafs Both Lead 3-2 in Semifinals

Canadiens Score 4-2 Decision Over Hawks as Bruins Fall, 4-1

By The Associated Press

The National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs had a decided Canadian tinge today with Montreal and Toronto holding the strong hand in the semifinal round.

Montreal's Canadiens, seeking an unprecedented fourth straight Stanley Cup title, hold a 3-2 margin over Chicago after blasting the Black Hawks with four goals in the first period and going on for a 4-2 victory last night.

Toronto's Maple Leafs, winners of the coveted trophy three successive years back in 1947-48-49, surprised the Bruins with a 4-1 triumph on Boston ice. Now they head home for the sixth game holding a 3-2 edge.

The sixth game: In both of the best-of-7 series will be played Saturday night with Montreal at Chicago, where the Hawks won their two games. The Leafs also won their first two games against Boston on their home ice.

Andre Pronovost, Marcel Bonin, Claude Provost and Bernie (Boom Boom) Geofrion blasted Chicago goalie Glen Hall for all the Montreal scoring. Dickie Moore and Doug Harvey each had a hand in three of the goals.

The Leafs, whose late season surge carried them into the fourth playoff position on the final day, took charge of the Bruins early in their game and never were headed.

Bert Olmstead opened the scoring at 9:26 of the first period. Dick Duff added another goal in the second and Frank Mahovlich and Bob Pulford contributed to the Toronto cause in the final session.

★ ★ ★

Johnny Bower, 33-year-old veteran playing in his first Stanley Cup series, had his bid for a shutout spoiled at 11:25 of the final period when Jerry Toppazzini tallied the lone Boston goal. Bower made 32 saves, many of them sensational.

Logart on TV Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Isaac Logart has a 10-round rematch tonight with young Charley Scott.

The bout will be nationally televised (NBC, 10 p.m. EST).

Pontiac Boxer Loses by TKO

Dick Compton Beaten in National AAU Meet in Toledo

TOLEDO — Dick Compton saw his hopes of entering the Pan-Am Games boxing tournament in August blasted last night as he dropped a TKO bout to Bob Fosmier of Boston in 50 seconds of the second round of the National AAU tournament.

Compton, of the Pontiac Boys' Club, is a welterweight. He won the Michigan AAU title in this division last week.

In the 110-pound class J. W. Jackson of Flint won a split decision over Bob Lefevre of Burlington, Vt., and in the 132 pound division, Ken Flowers of Benton Harbor lost in a TKO to Quincy Daniels of Seattle, Wash.

Twenty-eight bouts were on last night's first round with two sessions slated today and another Saturday to cut the field of 107 fighters down to champions in 10 divisions.

Loes' Sore Arm May Void Deal

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Pitcher Billy Loes, who has not even donned a Senators' uniform yet, was sent back to Washington Thursday night with a sore arm. There was a possibility the trade with Baltimore would be voided.

★ ★ ★

In Washington he'll see the team physician, Dr. George Resta. If the arm is declared unsound, he'll be returned to Baltimore.

★ ★ ★

Loes, something of a problem with the Baltimore Orioles, was traded Wednesday in an even deal for Washington pitcher Vito Valentinetti.

Tiger Farmhand Hurt

LAKELAND, Fla. (UPI) — Jack Feller, Onsted, Mich., catcher with the Detroit Tigers' Birmingham farm club, broke a finger on his throwing hand in an exhibition game against the Charleston Senators and will be out approximately three weeks.

Norman Analyzes Team's Strength

One More Week—Play Ball!

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—One week from today, the Detroit Tigers will open the 1959 baseball season against the Chicago White Sox.

Providing the weather is decent, upwards of 35,000 spectators should pay their way into Briggs Stadium to watch the team manager Bill Norman says has more power, less speed, more defense, more pitching and an improved attitude.

The manager says the team is good enough to finish in the American League's first division, a feat the club has attained only once in the last eight years.

Three new faces — left fielder Larry Doby, shortstop Rocky Bridges and third baseman Eddie Yost — will dot the opening day lineup that will face an ex-Tiger, southpaw Pierce. Either Frank Lary or Jim Bunning will get the call for the Detroiters.

Norman, a moon-faced 48-year-old who succeeded Jack Tighe last June 10, is starting his first full season as a big league manager. He is the fifth manager the Detroit club has had in eight seasons.

No manager knows the perils of the job better than Norman.

"Someday," said Norman recently, "I will be fired. But I'm not going to talk myself out of a job."

For that reason, and because he, too, is weary of pennant talk that has surrounded Detroit teams for many seasons, Norman has put the hush treatment on that old ailment known as pennant fever.

The big danger of having another mediocre club that only dabbles with success, then finds itself struggling to stay off the floor, is that attendance will decline even further. Now the problem is present, with a drop of 173,422 noted last season when the club finished fifth.

Norman can carry 28 players for the first month of the season. He likely will have seven infielders, seven outfielders, two catchers and 12 pitchers.

Catching — "Adequate."

Infield — "Defensively, we're very good. We have better depth with Larry Osborne available for two positions and Ossie Alvarez for three. Eddie Yost is 32, but if I can get 100 to 120 games from him, I'll be a happy man. Bridges has shown he is a big league shortstop."

Outfield — "Good speed and good hitting. Doby could give the club a tremendous lift and he has looked good with the glove as well as with the bat. Kuenn and Kaline could have great seasons."

Bench strength — "Better than last year. Pinch hitting shouldn't embarrass us and we have a pretty good second line defensively."

In many ways, the team that will open the season on April 10 is different — different players, different manager, apparently different spirit.

Meet Redlegs Today

Tigers Drop Wills, Raugh

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers cut outfielder Maury Wills and pitcher Jim Raugh from the squad yesterday.

Wills was returned to Spokane of the Pacific Coast League and Raugh, 23-year-old right-hander, was returned to Charleston in the American Assn.

The cut, the second of spring training, left 33 men in the Detroit camp. Manager Bill Norman said he will get down to 28 "as quickly as possible" before the Tigers break camp next Wednesday.

Wills appeared in 11 games this spring, seven times as a pinch runner. But he had only one hit in seven times at bat.

Raugh is expected to strengthen the Tiger bullpen when he gains more experience. A sinker ball specialist with fine control, he was named the most improved Minor Leaguer of spring training this week. He pitched seven innings for the Tigers this spring and got a decision over the Milwaukee Braves. The only run he yielded was a homer by Del Crandall.

★ ★ ★

Rains washed out the Detroit exhibition game with the Kansas City Athletics here yesterday. It was the fifth cancellation of the spring.

Women in Hoop Finals

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — Two familiar names, Nashville, Tenn., and Wayland College of Plainview, Tex., meet in tonight's finals of the women's National AAU basketball tournament.

Celts, Lakers Set to Clash

BOSTON, (AP) — Giant-killer Minneapolis today mapped slow-down tactics to atone for 18 straight losses to the Boston Celtics and regain its onetime rating as the royalty of pro basketball.

The setting will be the finals of the National Basketball Assn. playoffs which open tomorrow afternoon at Boston Garden in a nationally televised contest (NBC-TV, 3 p.m. EST).

The Lakers, who finished 17 games back of defending world champion St. Louis in the Western division only to stun the Hawks in the regional playoffs, aren't going to play dead for the Celts.

MRA Tourney Starts Tonight

City K. of C. Quintet Bids for State Crown at Pontiac Central

The annual Michigan Recreation Association Class A basketball tournament begins its two-day run this evening at Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern gymnasiums.

Knights of Columbus, city Class A champions, and seven other strong teams, all champs from their respective districts, wade into the single-knockout tourney with four games tonight and three more Saturday.

Rounding out the tournament field are St. Clair Shores, Lansing, Ypsilanti, River Rouge, Dearborn, Grand Rapids and Flint. The city K. of C. quintet meets the St. Clair Shores All-Stars tonight at 7 o'clock in the Pontiac Central.

Lansing faces Ypsilanti in the 8:30 nightcap while the twin bill at Northern pairs Rouge and Dearborn at 7 p.m. and Grand Rapids and Flint at 8:30.

In an afternoon double bill, the Pontiac-St. Clair and Lansing-Ypsilanti winners clash at 1 o'clock, followed by a 2:30 meeting between the Rouge-Dearborn and Grand Rapids-Flint survivors. The matinee victors square off at 7:30 p.m. for the state MRA title.

Prep Front

By BILL CORNWELL

The Pontiac Press sports department sincerely hopes that all Oakland County high school golf teams will be able to enter this newspaper's 8th annual Prep Invitational tournament for 1959.

A few changes will be instituted this spring in an effort to make the event more interesting and attractive for every participating school. Among the changes will be a switch in golf courses.

Monday, May 25, is the scheduled date for the 18-hole medal play tourney and this year the Press Invitational will be moved from City Municipal course to Frank Syron's popular Pontiac Country Club on Elizabeth Lake road.

Following past procedure, competition will be conducted on both a team and individual basis. Each school team will consist of five players.

The team championship will be based on the lowest five-man stroke total for the 18-hole round with the perpetual Press title trophy going to the winning squad. Defending champion Birmingham High now holds the rotating trophy.

Individual awards are also in the offing. Trophies for medalist honors will go to the scoring champ in Class A and Class B-C.

As an added feature this season, a "just for fun" golf outing is planned for coaches, athletic directors and principals from the competing schools. Each participating school will be allowed three faculty representatives for the side-light affair.

All coaches and faculty personnel taking part in the added attraction will hold a get-together luncheon afterwards. The competing prep golfers will be given dinner tickets, through the courtesy of the Press, entitling them to a prepared luncheon in the dining hall at PCC.

The Press Invitational is approved by the Michigan High School Athletic Association and all team members must be eligible under MHSAA rules. The tourney will be conducted under USGA stroke play regulations. Deadline for entries is Wednesday morning, May 20.

A good-sized entry list means heightened interest, harder going and keener competition. Taking a "more the merrier" attitude the Press hopes to make the 1959 Prep Invitational tournament the best one ever held.

ODDS AND ENDS

Big Bill Noles of Clarkston and Oxford prep basketball fame covered himself with glory during the 1958-59 cage season at Staunton Military Academy in Staunton, Va.

Noles, the team's tallest player at 6-foot-4, played center and helped Staunton win its 3rd consecutive state crown and 4th in the last five years. He was the club's top rebounder and a steady point-maker. Noles also was a starting tackle on the 1958 football squad.

Lamphere High School of Madison Heights is looking for a football opponent next fall in the Class C or small Class B category. The available dates are Sept. 18 and Sept. 25. Prospective foes should call Lamphere athletic director Joe Borovick at LI 7-1390.

This Is Really Firing Birdies

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)— Buddy Graham, co-captain of the Marshall College golf team, scored two birds and a double bogey on the same hole in a match with Western Michigan yesterday.

Graham's shot with a 4-wood on the 220-yard No. 9 hole at the Guyan Country Club killed two sparrows in flight. The ball plunked to the fairway about 100 yards from the tee and he finished with a 2-over-par 5 on the hole.

NCAA Boxing Tourney Wide Open Team Race

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A clash between two 1958 collegiate champions shaped up for tonight's second round action in the NCAA boxing tournament, with the race for team honors wide open.

★ ★ ★

Sacramento State's Jim Flood, a titlist the past two years, and Washington State's Jesse Klinkenberg headline the 16-bout card of three-round fights.

Flood seeks to repeat as champion of the 165-pound class while Klinkenberg, the 156-pound winner a year ago, has moved up one division. The Sacramento boxer drew a bye last night while Klinkenberg opened his campaign impressively by stopping Don McMillan of College of Idaho in the third round.

★ ★ ★

Even more impressive was San Jose State's defending heavyweight champion Archie Milton. He whipped over a short right hand shot to the jaw of California's Jack Domich late in the first round and his foe hit the deck. The round ended at the count of seven, but the fight was called right there.

★ ★ ★

Defending light heavyweight champion John Horne of Michigan State also racked up a first-round victory with a decision over Don Tessier of Cal Poly. Tessier, the only fighter to go in two bouts last night, had beaten San Jose's Garven Kelly in the opener.

In the battle for team honors, defending champion San Jose State had two opening night victories — Milton and 156-pounder Bill Maddox who outpointed Nevada's Chub Quilici.

Wisconsin and Idaho State each had three opening night winners but San Jose has three fighters going tonight who drew opening round byes. All the Wisconsin team fought last night while all but one in the Idaho State team saw action.

Wisconsin winners were 132-pounder John Drye, 165-pounder Charles Mohr and light heavyweight Bill Urban. Drye outpointed Fred Norvell of Virginia and Mohr beat Virginia's John Dougherty in the same manner. Urban stopped Chico State's Bob Jellison in the second round.

Hoad Tops Pancho in 3-Hour Match

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Lew Hoad outlasted Pancho Gonzales 10-8, 10-12, 6-2 in professional tennis at the Coliseum Thursday night. The match lasted nearly three hours.

Hoad now has an 18-7 record for the pro tour, while Gonzales has won 17 and dropped eight.

Howe's Tourney Starts Saturday

A guaranteed prize of $200 will be awarded the 1959 champion of the men's event. There will also be squad awards and separate prizes for high series and high game based on actual pins. At least one of every 10 participants will be expected to share in the loot.

Ron Salabolt, last year's victor, will be back to defend his laurels. Several other top area bowlers will be shooting for title honors in the tourney open to all men sanctioned with ABC.

Daytona Trials Delayed Again

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Daytona International Speedway faced a busy time today trying to cram in qualifying trials sports car races.

In addition, 11 places remain open for a 100-mile race for speedway type cars tomorrow. Thirteen drivers qualified last weekend, including George Amick of Rhinelander, Wis., who set the speedway record of 176.88 miles an hour.

4 U.S. Table Netters Advance in Tourney

DORTMUND, Germany (UP)—The main U.S. hopes, young Bob Gusikoff and the veteran Leah Neuberger, were ousted quickly Thursday in the men's and women's world table tennis singles championships.

Three U.S. men, Leonard Cooperman of Los Angeles, Dick Miles of New York and Martin Reisman of New York, advanced through the second round however. Sharon Acton, 18, of Los Angeles was the lone first round survivor among the four U.S. entries in the women's division.

Japanese Matmen at Ypsi Tuesday

YPSILANTI (UPI) — Eastern Michigan College will host the Japanese Olympic wrestling team in a series of 10 matches Tuesday night.

Some 10 members of the Japanese squad will go against wrestlers from Michigan schools. Michigan State University and the University of Michigan will each send three into competition. Eastern Michigan will have two participants, Toledo University one and the Hazel Park AAU one.

The Japanese squad has been in the United States for two weeks in preparation for the national AAU meet which will be held late this month.

4 Fights Please Patterson

NEW YORK (AP) — "This is great news. I'm a fighter and I want to fight. The more the better."

So said heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson when told that a four-fight program had been lined up for him in the next 19 months. If he wins them all he could earn upwards of a million dollars before taxes and manager's cut between this May 1 and Nov. 1, 1960.

Definitely on Floyd's busy schedule are the defenses against England's Johansson, undefeated European champion, at Yankee Stadium, June 25 (TV or theater-TV undecided). The Stadium's top ticket price will be $100.

Beyond those two are title defenses against opponents still to be picked and which will be shown over NBC television. The London fight and the two after Johansson are part of a three-fight package with NBC for the Friday night TV series. These fights must be held before Nov. 1, 1960.

"A return fight between the two would be our second fight then," said Tom Gallery, sports director of NBC.

Arnold Portocarrero's 15 wins in 1958 was the best pitching mark for the Orioles since they made their move from St. Louis.

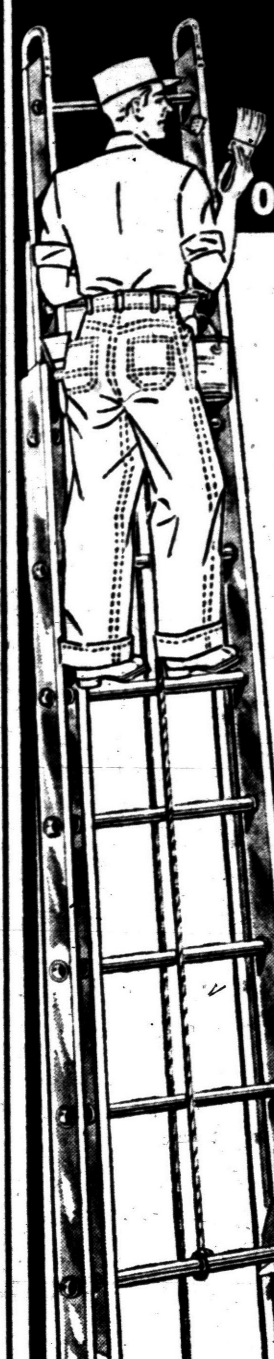

Minnesota high school basketball tournament in a three-day run here attracts crowds averaging about 90,000 for the session.

Charles Fired, NBA Requests Investigation

HAGERSTOWN, Ind. (AP)—An investigation of the firing of Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight boxing champion, from his state job as an Ohio inspector was asked today by the National Boxing Assn.

Atch Hindman, NBA executive secretary, asked the Ohio Association of Boxing Commissions to investigate the "high-handed and unfair treatment of Charles."

Commissioner M. J. Pavick reported Charles was fired because he took leave last fall to fight in Texas and Mexico and couldn't give enough time to his state job. Charles was lecturing on safety to youngsters.

Area Courses Wait for Old Sol to Give Signal

Golf Anyone? Get Your Feet Wet

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

It's that time of the year again. Most public and semi-private golf courses around the Pontiac area are putting the flags up this weekend.

The hardy golfers have already been seen at many courses in the county with reports of soggy spots on the fairways. But despite the rugged winter, all the clubs in the area report their courses to be in good condition.

Winter mildew on the greens has been exceptionally light in view of the weather. "Greenskeepers who maintain the past winter would hurt the fairways and greens sure won't convince me," said pro Leo Conroy at North Hills.

Conroy, ready to start his 25th season at the Maple road course in Birmingham, said activity has started at North Hills but the club would be ready to open officially April 15.

Golf activity started at Morey's a month ago but last weekend things really perked up. Sammy Laine, national amputee champion, is the new pro shop manager at Morey's.

The tees have been enlarged and shorter pin markers set up for the ladies. Trees on the blue and white courses are still in the process of being removed, according to owner Ed Morey.

Pontiac Country Club opened Wednesday and is ready for play this weekend, of course, weather permitting. Almost two-thirds of PCC has been fenced and veteran pro and owner Frank Syron reports very little winter damage.

Joe Leslie, former Notre Dame golfer, has been named assistant to pro Frank Wilson. He was formerly assistant at Orchard Ridge CC at Fort Wayne, Ind.

More than 1,000 feet of new fencing has also been erected at Bagley street and at Golf drive at Pontiac Municipal which starts the season Sunday. Chris Barner again is course manager.

Play started officially Wednesday and the course has handled the water from snow and rain exceptionally well, according to Mrs. O'Toole. No change has been made in greens fees.

Under new ownership, Highland Hills Golf Club is the new name of the course on Duck Lake road. Ed Mathison heads the corporation of new owners and Muriel Grunigen is the manager.

The club features a new pro shop and renovated clubhouse and many changes on the course including relocation of several holes. Saturday is the official opening.

Bald Mountain with pro Ken Wilson opened last Saturday with a new pro shop and received enthusiastic play this week. Fairways quite wet in spots but are reported generally in good condition.

Rochester Golf and Country Club is back to semi-public status under new owner George Sadowski. Extensive work has been done in the clubhouse, locker rooms and on the course and Sadowski said a new pro would be named shortly. Jack Fleck, former owner and pro, is now living in California.

Drug Quintet Defeats J&A

Waterford Loop Cage Playoffs Reach Limit After 52-44 Decision

Drayton Drug, regular season winner of the Class A Waterford League basketball race, bounced back from the loser's bracket last night to force the double-elimination playoffs to the limit.

The Drug cagers led all the way with the J&A quintet never coming closer than seven points. The score was 24-17 at halftime. Drayton and J&A meet for the playoff title next Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Crary gym.

League trophies and awards were presented at last night's game. In the Class A division, Drayton Drug received the team trophy for winning the regular season title while Joe Umphrey of Lytell & Colegrove earned the high scoring award with a 14-point average and Drug's Morey Larson took sportsmanship honors.

The undefeated Waterford Faculty, which won both the regular season and playoff crowns in Class B, was awarded a permanent team title trophy plus the traveling playoff cup. Clarence Beers of Ron & Don Service gained the high scoring award with a 13.6 average and Ron & Don's Brian Doyle won sportsmanship laurels.

Ailing Rose Regains One Swim Title

NEW HAVEN, Conn., (AP) — Mighty Murray Rose, the fabulous Australian swimmer, has turned the National AAU indoor swimming and diving championships into a medical clinic.

The question, which won't be answered until sometime this afternoon, is: Will the 20-year-old Rose be healthy enough to defend his 220-yard freestyle title tonight?

Although he was ailing last night, it didn't stop him from retaining his 1500-meter crown in meet record time of 8:18.4, nearly two seconds better than the mark registered by George Breen nearly two years ago.

He nearly didn't swim at all. He was running a 100-degree temperature. His mother, Mrs. Ian Rose, permitted him to answer the gun only after he promised her that he would quit if he felt weak.

Mrs. Rose, at poolside, said, "I don't want him to strain his heart."

Rose, who appeared to get stronger with each stroke, licked Alan Somers, 17-year-old Indianapolis high school star, by three yards, and Breen by ever more, in Yale's 50-meter pool.

The 20-year-old University of Southern California sophomore said he felt much better when it was over.

Mrs. Rose suggested that any decision could wait until this afternoon.

How about Rose's coach, Pete Daland?

The metric mile was a hard fought race for 1,000 meters as Rose, Somers and Breen battled stroke for stroke. Just before the 1,000 Somers went in front by about a foot. But Rose sprinted and left Somers and Breen to fight it out for runnerup. Somers scored in 18:20.8 and Breen in 18:21.3.

Ed Kin of the Riviera Club, Indianapolis, was fourth in 18:49.3, followed by Gay Hopkins, vesper Boat Club, Philadelphia, 18:50.9 and Warren Uhler, Evanston, Ill., 18:57.

Fifteen events remain, seven tonight and eight tomorrow night, preceded by qualifying tests.

Tampa Training Site May Lose 1 of 2 Teams

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — One of the two major league teams which train in Tampa may not be back next year

★ ★ ★

Mayor Nick Nuccio reported yesterday that Cincinnati officials don't think the city can support both the Reds and the Chicago White Sox.

Both Cincinnati and Chicago have four years remaining on training pacts with the city. However, Nuccio said the agreements were "amicable but not binding."

There has been some speculation that Bill Veeck, who recently purchased controlling interest in the White Sox, would take the team to Arizona.

Finals Next Week

Table Net Play Advances

The Pontiac City Table Tennis tournament moved into the final round, which will be played next Thursday at Pontiac Central, after the opening sessions last night.

Winner of the boys singles was Bob Walton who defeated Bob Bowers 21-18, 21-17. Womens singles champion is Carol Ryan who scored 21-15 and 21-17 verdicts over Marilyn Feldman.

Finals will be played next week in the veterans singles with Perc Secord facing Ira Silvers, and in the women's novice singles with Lila Kitchen facing Marilyn Feldman.

Miss Kitchen entered the finals by defeating Linda Goodwin 21-12 and 21-18 while Miss Feldman was ousting Dianna Daily 21-16 and 21-19.

Secord's semi-final win was 21-19 and 21-18 over Ed Burnhard while Silvers was beating Al Jankie 21-8 and 21-16 in the semis.

In the men's singles, Finkle defeated John Wettlaufer 11-21, 21-10, 21-15; Beckman defeated Sid Dickstein, 21-19, 19-21, 21-18; Barnhart defeated Secord, 22-20, 22-20 and Magnus defeated Howard Heckman, 21-19, 18-21 and 22-20.

Western Nips Michigan

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Western Michigan clipped Michigan 7-6 and Michigan State clobbered Duke 7-2 yesterday in the Florida State Invitational baseball tournament.

Firse baseman Bill Schudlich led the MSU attack with a double and single that drove in two runs. Mickey Sinks pitched four-hit ball to give the Spartans their first win against three losses in the round robin tournament. The loss left Duke with a 2-3 record.

Larry Buchannan singled home two runs with two out in the eighth inning in pacing the Western Michigan attack. Catcher Dick Syring led the Wolverines with a home and two singles.

It was Western Michigan's third win against one loss in the tourney. Michigan now is 1-3.

Green Stars in Pan-Am Play

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — For a group that never practiced together before last Monday, the College All-Stars showed an amazing amount of basketball togetherness last night.

★ ★ ★

In the other first-round game, AAU champion Wichita defeated the Armed Forces All-Stars 89-73.

The three-day round-robin tournament matches Wichita with the Oilers, AAU runnersup, and the Collegians with the Armed Forces tonight.

All-Americas Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati and Jerry West of West Virginia provided the college scoring punch with 23 and 22 points, respectively. But Michigan State's John Green hurt the Oilers most with his rebounding. Green got 27 rebounds and 20 points.

Miranda Joins Baltimore Camp 36 Days Late

★ ★ ★

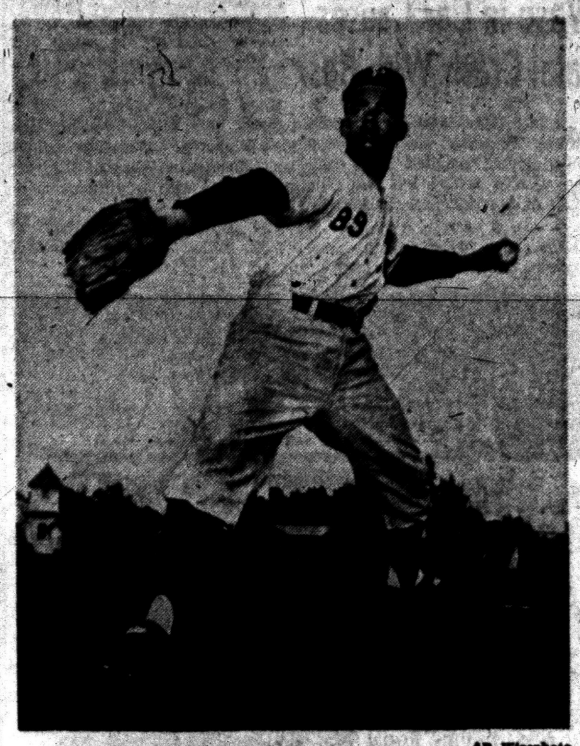

"Maybe I room with Loes (pitcher Billy Loes, who was traded to the Washington Senators by Baltimore Wednesday)."

Miranda gave no excuses for his tardiness when greeted in a hotel lobby by a group of Oriole players. "Maybe I tell you later, after I talk to Paul Richards," he said.

★ ★ ★

Richards, Baltimore manager, gave Miranda the cold shoulder. He sat nearby but made no attempt to talk with the overdue shortstop.

Skowron Hurt Again; Francona Wins Game for Indians

Yank Hurlers Looking Good

By The Associated Press

Casey Stengel isn't doing too much talking these days about his New York Yankee pitching staff. He doesn't have to—its actions are speaking louder than could his words.

With the season getting into full swing a week from today, the world Champions are getting Grade-A performances from all of their expected starters. The only possible leak in the Yankee dike that is expected to hold back the surge of American League contenders is the sudden back injury to first baseman Bill Skowron. Its seriousness will be known today.

In the last five days, Stengel has gotten top-flight jobs from Tom Sturdivant, Bobby Shantz, Art Ditmar, Don Larsen, Bob Turley, Jim Coates and Whitey Ford.

Sturdivant: Pitched seven innings against the Chicago White Sox March 29, allowing two runs and six hits. In 1958, the righty was 3-6 with a 4.18 earned run average.

Shantz: In seven innings against the Cincinnati Reds on March 30, he allowed five hits and no runs. The little lefty was 7-6 last year with a 3.36 ERA.

Ditmar: On March 31 against Kansas City, the right-hander gave nine hits and two runs in eight innings. He had a 3.41 ERA last year, winning nine of 17 decisions.

Larsen: Stricken with a pulled muscle in his pitching shoulder March 15, the big right-hander allowed the St. Louis Cards one run on three hits over four innings on April 1. Stengel was pleased with Larson's performance since it proved he is ready for longer stints. He was 9-6 with a 3.08 earned run average last year.

Turley: Pitched nine innings for the Yankee "B" squad in a 4-3 decision over Richmond of the International League, the same day. The World Series star was Stengel's leading pitcher in '58 with a 21-7 record and a 2.98 ERA.

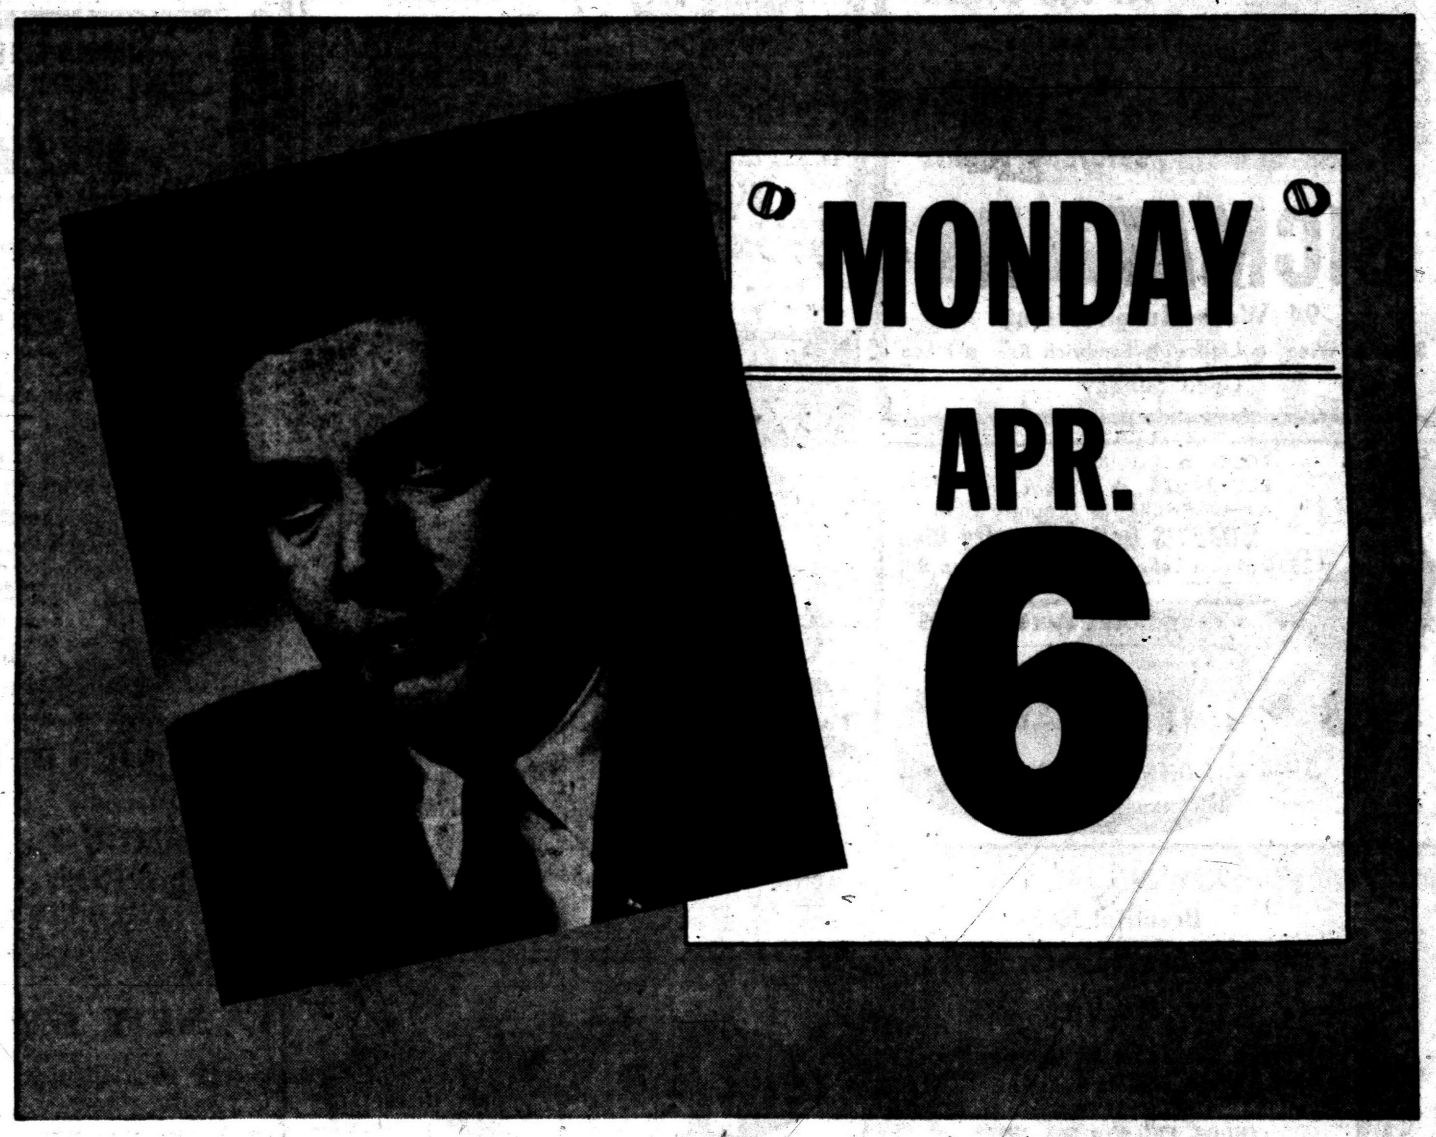

Coates: Relieved Larsen and pitched one-hit ball for three innings. The rookie has drawn Stengel's praise as the bright light of his young hurlers and will probably stick with the club.

Ford: Went eight innings yesterday, beating the St. Louis Cards 2-1, and scattered nine hits. He did not show any signs of arm trouble, which has plagued him in the past. The little lefty was 14-7 last year with a 2.01 ERA.

In other exhibition games yesterday, the Boston Red Sox won the Cactus League title with a 4-2 victory over San Francisco. The Cleveland Indians knocked off the Chicago Cubs 4-2, and in night games, the Philadelphia Phils defeated Baltimore 8-6 and the Chicago White Sox won over Cincinnati 6-5.

Nab Wrong Man in Frantic Hunt

Flying Executive Is Mistaken for Much Sought Criminal

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A carefree holiday turned into a near nightmare Thursday night for a business man who was mistaken for one of the FBI's 10 most wanted fugitives.

"It wasn't too pleasant, I'll tell you," said Truman Pennell of Wichita Falls, Tex., as he left police headquarters. A frantic manhunt had led to his arrest.

Police believed he was Frank Lawrence Sprenz, 29, the flying bank robber who has been on the FBI's most wanted list since Sept. 10, 1958.

Pennell, 36, was arrested after his four-passenger plane, which matched the description of one in which Sprenz has been hopping about the country, crashed nearby.

★ ★ ★

Police became even more certain Sprenz was in the area when the plane's occupant did not arrive at a hospital for which he had started.

"I just changed my mind," Pennell explained later.

$10 Prize Awarded for Clean Living

Red Cooperation Tops at Moscow Exhibit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has been cooperating even better than promised in helping prepare for the U.S. exhibition which opens in Moscow July 25, the exhibition manager, Harold McClellan, says.

★ ★ ★

"We definitely are not planning to put on either a propaganda show or a trade fair," McClellan told reporters Thursday. The aim of the exhibit, he said, is to show how Americans "live, work and enjoy the fruits of their labor."

★ ★ ★

Indian Chief Hunts Despite Hand Injury

The chief's Chesapeake retriever tripped over his gun and the discharge almost severed the Indian's right wrist. It looked like the end of 50 years of hunting for the chief, who used that right hand to pull the trigger of his gun. He didn't think he could learn to shoot from his left shoulder. But with an ingenious device on the forearm, he can now pull the trigger with his left hand.

A recent survey found that the average American family eats 70 per cent of its meals in the kitchen during the winter and 71 per cent during the summer.

Hollywood Headlines

Much-Demanded Debbie Sought as Dolores Hart

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

She says, "Here I am on my way to Rome for three days and then to Paris for three days and then Copenhagen. I have had a wonderful time from Gypsy dancing to bull fights.

"I hope to buy some paintings in Paris and shoes in Rome. I am eager to arrive home to my little ones. Love. Debbie."

Also, that Randy Wood is waiting for her to press her second album immediately, even if it means working at MGM daytimes and reporting nights.

That's how hot our Debbie is these days. I don't know any young actress more in demand or popular.

In this day of violent social upheavals such as racial intergration in our own South, it's interesting that Bryan Foy is discussing the filming of the life story of blessed Martin de Porres, America's only potential Negro saint.

The canonization of Martin was started in 1837 by Pope Gregory XVI. Martin was the illegitimate son of a Spanish nobleman and a freed slave and was born in Lima, Peru, in 1579.

He will become the patron saint of apothecaries because he studied medicine before he entered the Dominican Order and became noted for his work among the poor.

Harry Belafonte has expressed interest in doing the story of the saintly Negro. The story will be called "Blessed Martin."

Talking to Fernando Lamas he told me that he has been offered the lead opposite Anita Ekberg in "Amazon." It's about Greek mythology when women ruled the world. "Just like you girls today," he said.

★ ★ ★

Fernando is already committed to "Once More with Feeling," a stage play at the Huntington-Hartford Theater.

"I would like to play 'Once More with Feeling' about four weeks and then go to Italy for 'Amazon.' I like the idea and I would like to work in Italy."

★ ★ ★

I asked him how he and Arlene Dahl are getting along. He said, "We are trying to work things out." He lives at the Sunset Towers and she lives in the house into which she and the baby recently moved.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

After the roughest trip in the history of the Queen Elizabeth, Dirk Bogarde arrived in New York. He'll be here Saturday night for the Buddy Adlers' dinner dance honoring Ingrid Bergman.

The battle between Marlon Brando and his landlord, Bob Balzer, known in Hollywood for his fancy grocery business, has been settled. Marlon has moved out of Balzer's Japanese home into another place.

Shirley Maclaine is a happy girl. Her husband, Steve Parker, has arrived home in time to take her to the Academy Awards. She's been fighting a flu bug for several days.

★ ★ ★

Oscar Awards Set for NBC-TV Monday Night

This year's Academy Awards telecast is expected to attract even more viewers than ever before. The show, which will run 1 hour and 45 minutes, will be held Monday night over the NBC-TV network (Channel 4) beginning at 10:30.

Won't Face Up to Michigan Dilemma

Legislature Excels at Doing Little

By GEORGE WEEKS

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's Legislature was as slow as molasses in January.

It didn't speed up any in February or March and got off to a slow start in April.

When the Legislature started its 12th week Monday night, it had passed only seven bills, left unsolved the state's cash crisis, and failed even to begin consideration of Gov. G. Mennen Williams' record budget.

New York lawmakers have decided on a two-million-dollar budget and a round of tax increases. Indiana's Legislature already has resolved its problems and gone home.

SHOWDOWN FLOPS

Michigan lawmakers appeared ready this week for a Senate showdown on a House-approved plan to ease the cash crisis by mortgaging the veterans' trust fund.

But the Senate Appropriations Committee indicated yesterday it would not take a vote on the plan until next week.

The current backlog of 500 bills and those yet to come probably will keep the Legislature in session well into June—at a cost of about $2,000 a day.

★ ★ ★

Why, with the state on the brink of fiscal collapse and facing the prospect of payless paydays, did Michigan dally?

The basic cause is a clash in ideals between Democratic Williams and the GOP-controlled Legislature.

But the $5,000-a-year lawmakers have other reasons for putting off until tomorrow what could be done today.

Both parties have a traditional reluctance to act on controversial legislation before the odd-year spring elections. The state's fiscal woes have been issues in campaigning for Monday's election.

GAIN INITIAL EDGE

There was further turmoil when a Democrat died and a Republican resigned. The vacancies will be filled April 6.

Republicans control the Senate by a 22-12 margin but their leadership is not cohesive. This was evident March 13 when the Senate, bucking wishes of state GOP headquarters, rejected a House-approved bond issue for emergency funds.

One senator, after a rare burst of profanity in the Senate March 11, announced he would not run again because he was "fed up" with bickering.

Senate GOP Leader Frank D. Beadle said Williams was responsible for the legislative delay because he had not formally submitted his tax plan that was outlined in a television talk nine weeks ago.

Williams also was criticized by Republican State Chairman Lawrence Lindemer, who said the governor's recent out-of-state trips reflected "abdiction of leadership at a critical period."

A bill introduced in jest in the Senate last week summed up the feeling of many Capitol observers. It proposed to "give the state back to the Indians until such time as they can get things straightened out."

101 Years, No Gun Is Dull Reality About Sheriffs

SLAYTON, Minn. (UPI) — Trigger-happy sheriffs on television are just a joke to George Nelson, who has retired after 32 gunless years as sheriff of Murry County, Minn.

But Nelson, who never wore a star either, said he could understand why lawmen on TV need six-shooters. "I guess they have to make it exciting to get people to watch," said the 76-year-old former lawman.

Nelson was only the third sheriff of Murry County in 101 years and none used weapons.

The first, Loren Mason, served 37 years beginning in 1847. His only on-the-job injury was a nicked shoulder suffered when an angry woman shot off a rifle.

★ ★ ★

Nelson recalls tracking down escaped convicts and disarming dangerous criminals, all without benefit of firearms. He was even unarmed—and skipped the handcuffs—when he took prisoners to the state reformatories at St. Cloud and Stillwater.

Such trips, he said, always started with coffee at the Nelson home for the prisoner and the sheriff. None ever led to trouble.

Nelson said he just treated his prisoners "like human beings and I never mistreated them. There's a way to win a man's good will that works a lot better than handcuffs or a gun."

City Bandstand Dance On Tonight at Armory

The Pontiac Bandstand dances will continue tonight at the National Guard Armory, 57 Water St., beginning at 7:30.

Headlining the show will be the Bravados and the Pyramids. Other acts beamed at teenage interests will fill out the show.

All dances so far have been successful, according to John Ferro, director, with the last event being attended by 212 persons.

Cumulo-nimbus clouds which figure during thunderstorms have a spreading anvil-like top which may reach a height up to 25,000 feet and sometimes have been recorded higher.

Father-Son Event to Open Big Week at Boys Club

The annual father-and-son banquet of the Pontiac Boys Club, sponsored by its Mothers Club, will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

The banquet will kick off the local club's observance of National Boys Club Week, which is being marked by Boys Clubs throughout the nation.

The banquet will also mark the 15th anniversary of the founding of Pontiac Boys Club.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. James McHugh, a Pontiac psychiatrist and mental health specialist. His subject will be "The Importance of the Whole Boy."

AWARDS TO BE MADE

One of the evening's highlights will be the long-awaited presentation of yearly awards, including the presentation of an award to "The Boy of the Year." Other achievement and athletic awards will be presented.

Attendance has been limited to 400 persons, said Cressy Larson, executive director of the club, but some tickets may still be purchased at the Boys Club. Cost of the tickets for the dad-and-lad affair is $1.25 for fathers and $.75 for sons.

The dinner will be in the Boys Club building at 530 E. Pike St.

Rochester Youth Gets Prison for Robbery

The armed robbery of $186 from a man he hitched a ride home with resulted in a 5-to-15-year prison sentence for Robert J. Sox, 20-year-old Rochester youth.

Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer this morning sentenced Sox to Jackson Prison after a jury convicted him March 25 of robbing Robert E. Medenwaldt, 21, of Madison Heights.

Sox, of 136 Main St., threatened Medenwaldt, a collector for a discount company, with a knife and took the money from him as Medenwaldt let him off at his Rochester home.

Sox was on probation for unarmed robbery in Macomb County Circuit Court when picked up by police shortly after the March 11 robbery.

The nation's drug companies invested about 170 million dollars in their research laboratories in 1958, compared with 127 million dollars in 1957 and only 60 million as recently as 1952.

Buying, building or remodeling, you'll want to learn more about built-in electric heat. It's so comfortable, so fast and so clean it makes other heating methods downright old fashioned. Electric heat makes it practical—for the first time—to control the temperature in each room separately. Comfort? Here's such comfort it's a brand-new experience.

Electric heat completely eliminates the need for furnace or air ducts; for boiler or radiators; for chimney or fuel facilities. It gives you this space as a bonus!

Grain Futures Sag Slightly

CHICAGO (AP) — A moderate reaction weakened the grain futures market slightly today in early Board of Trade transactions but the selling in the first few minutes did not appear to be very general.

Selling pressure resumed and heavier volume near the end of the first hour with several contracts off as much as a cent a bushel. Wheat was ⅛ to 1¼ cent lower May $2.10¾; corn ⅜ to 1 cent lower, May $1.23½; oats unchanged to ¾ lower, May 67¼; rye unchanged to 1 cent lower, May $1.41¾; soybeans ⅜ to 1 cent lower, May $2.25⅝.

Hefty Ford Sales Rise Claimed in 1st Quarter

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. reported today its retail sales of all products for the first quarter of 1959 were substantially higher than those for the same 1958 period.

It said retail passenger car sales for the quarter were 408,300 units, up 119,400 over the same 1958 period.

Sales of Ford Division cars were reported at "more than a third of a million" new units during this year's first quarter and about 50 per cent greater than those of the like 1958 quarter.

The company reported that nearly 630,000 Fords have been sold since the new models were introduced in mid-October last year.

"As a result," it added, "Ford has a substantial lead (estimated at 35,000) over its closest competitor in the sale of 1959 models."

Stocks Advance on Broad Front

Pivotal issues rose from fractions to more than a point.

A revival of investment demand displayed in yesterday's solid rally continued with greater emphasis. Rails, laggard for most of this year, resumed their recovery as industrials pushed forward to recover ground lost in the past two weeks of reaction.

A freak in early trading was H. L. Green, up ⅛ on an opener of 2,000 shares then down 1⅛ at 31⅞ on a sale of 19,000 shares. It quickly erased the loss and traded about unchanged.

Du Pont jumped 3 points. Philadelphia & Reading recovered more than a point of yesterday's loss of 12½.

Pine Seedlings for Free

CENTERVILLE (UPI) — St. Joseph County agricultural agent H. J. Elliott said today the county soil conservation district has distributed more than 130,000 pine tree seedlings this week to landowners in the county. The pine trees are offered to anyone to plant for windbreaks, erosion control, wildlife planting or Christmas trees.

PROMOTED — James F. Saltery, manager of the Pontiac Western Union office since 1938, has been promoted to the position of district sales manager for the company. He will be in charge of sales for the southeastern section of the state comprising the area from Saginaw south to Monroe and from Port Huron west to Jackson.

Charge 7 Beat Lone Trucker

Bloomfield Area Youths Accused of Aggravated Assault

Seven area youths, accused of beating a Clawson truck driver after he blew his horn at their car while stopped at a traffic light, are scheduled to be arraigned tomorrow morning before Bloomfield Hills Justice of the Peace Alva J. Richardson.

George F. Taylor, chief assistant prosecutor for Oakland County, said after studying the case and talking to eye witnesses he has issued an order for a warrant charging all seven with aggravated assault.

"We decided on this charge because of the fact the injuries to the driver were severe enough to cause pneumonia and put him in the hospital for a week," Taylor said.

Scheduled to be arraigned at 10 a.m. are Timothy A. David, 18, of 591 Woodway Ct., Douglas H. Danziger, 17, of 6325 Shearington Rd., Robert L. Barrett, 17, of 6014 Snowshoe Circle, all of Bloomfield Township; Robert E. Hills, 17, of 1082 Stratford Ln., John W. Paige Jr., 18, of 4300 Derry Rd., both of Bloomfield Hills, and John F. Jordan, 17, of 3184 Middle Belt Rd., and Thomas L. Faunce, of 2335 N. Pine Center Dr., both of West Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

The seven are accused of beating Harold C. Puterbaugh, 32, of 358 Chocolay St., March 12, after Puterbaugh tooted his horn when the youths' car didn't proceed immediately after the light changed at West Long Lake and Lahser roads, Taylor said Puterbaugh told him.

Puterbaugh was discharged after being treated for a week in a Ferndale hospital.

He was attacked, police say, when the youths caught up with Puterbaugh's truck to throw beer bottles at it and then beat him while several of the youths held him down.

Marie's Just Putting Best Feet Forward

By EARL WILSON

★ ★ ★

Atfer five identical baskets and one large bunch had been deposited at her feet, I asked her the name of the Big Spender. "I think some of them came from Murray," she said, demurely. She referred — she said — to Murray Rosenberg of New Jersey, a divorced shoe manufacturer, who is evidently a romantic interest.

WILSON

Marie, whose figure and voice these days are really sexational, explained: "You remember, my former husband (Harry Karl) had 200 shoe stores? Well, Murray Rosenberg has over 2,000 shoe stores!" (I wonder if it was hard to shoes between them.)

MARIE

Ex-TV star Jinx Falkenburg has licked the hepatitis which sent her off to South America; she's back in the U.S. winning swimming races in Florida, and rejoined her friends and family—so reports the elated husband, Tex McCrary who brought her back from Argentina quietly a week ago.

Liz Taylor can't win at this point in Las Vegas; reports from there (while she awaits Eddie Fisher's opening) are that she has eight pistol-toting guards patrolling her ranch and that they tell visiting reporters, "We can get rough." One picture taken so far: an aerial shot of the ranch.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Frank Sinatra dropped out of the competition for handling the Wednesday night fights on ABC; now it's between Gibson and Amato . . . Jackie Gleason phoned an all-night disk jockey, and said. "Pal, play me some music to get loaded by." . . . Art collector Edward G. Robinson wrote Oscar Homolka from Paris, advising him what new artists' work to buy . . . Rod Steiger explained why he took the different role in "Rashomon": After 11 years with Actors Studio I wanted to show I could talk without mumbling." . . . Bandleader Ray Anthony's dating model Joi Lansing.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: If you're lost in the woods, just start playing solitaire. Someone's bound to show up and say, "Pardon me, but the red five goes on the black six." . . . That's earl, brother.

Plan No Change in Globe Shape

Pear-Shape Discovery Would Have Negligible Effect on Map

CHICAGO (UPI) — You can still be up-to-the-missile with the old, round family globe.

He conceded that scientists from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, who revealed our planet's tendency to bulge a bit at the bottom, have a point.

But it's a pretty small point, in Mapes' opinion. Not more than 100 feet variation in 8,000 miles.

"Why, the thickness of paper that we mount on our globes wouldn't represent the difference," he said.

★ ★ ★

Although Vanguard's discovery that the world is slightly pear-shaped hasn't made much of an impression on Rand-McNally, the firm is officially keeping apace with space.

"We now have swinging ring mountings for globes which can be adjusted to plot satellite orbits," Mapes said. "And maps of the moon, outer space and the various planets are hot items."

But he returned quickly to the subject of the earth's figure. The geophysicists weren't the first to think the world is pear-shaped, said Mapes. Christopher Columbus had the same idea.

Mapes quoted from a letter Columbus wrote to the King of Spain on his third voyage to the New World:

"I find the world is not round as they (ancient geographers) describe, but that it is shaped like a pear, which is everywhere very round except where the stalk is—for there it is very prominent. . ."

Columbus is thought to have arrived at this conclusion by making a faulty observation of the North Star, Mapes said. But he was right after all.

At least 100 million acres of the United States have never been surveyed.

His Sons Have Retired but Not Hardy Oldster

SEMINOLE, Okla. (AP) — I. A. Smith has two sons who retired after reaching 65, but he's still going strong.

Plucked Goose Warms Self Over Radiator

★ ★ ★

He plucked it and left the nude bird on the kitchen table while he left for an errand. When he came back the bird had revived and was sitting on a radiator trying to keep warm.

TV News and Reviews

Playhouse 90 Courageous, but Drama Angle Flops

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—Last night's CBS-TV Playhouse 90 drama about unwed mothers-to-be, "In Lonely Expectation," calls for two kinds of comment: one, about its courage and two, about its artistic worth.

In a way, it's a pretty sad reflection upon TV that a play about unmarried mothers should be considered daring.

There's no reason why TV shouldn't feel free to deal with any of the experiences of humankind, provided the treatment is done with honesty, intelligence and taste.

However, I have no doubt that some sincere viewers — together with a generous sprinkling of the usual nutballs who prefer to keep life's unpleasantness masked—will voice their objections.

I have no quarrel with Playhouse 90 on this count at all. "In Lonely Expectation" was done without leers or snickers and with a good deal of compassion. Playhouse 90's decision to tackle the subject I find commendable.

But I'm afraid I shall have to quarrel about "In Lonely Expectations" as a piece of drama. Some of, its parts were quite moving, but as a whole, the play was oddly disjoined and not completely convincing.

One further note: Miss Harrison accidentally dropped a baby in one scene, but you can rest easy. It was actually just a doll in swaddling clothes.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Among the CBS-TV shows that will run off repeats this summer are: Desilu Playhouse, Playhouse 90, GE Theater, Name That Tune, The Texan, Father Knows Best, The Millionaire, Yancy Derringer, The Lineup, Wanted Dead or Alive, Have Gun, Will Travel and Gunsmoke . . . NBC-TV and NBC Radio will air the heavyweight title fight between Floyd Patterson and Brian London on May 1.

Alaska Is Our 'Mostest' State

Has Highest Birth Rate, Ratio of Men to Women, Among Others

WASHINGTON — Alaska might call itself the Superlative State.

Its people have a median age of 26—3.8 years below that of the United States as a whole. Alaska has the highest birth rate and the lowest death rate, the biggest percentage of babies, and the smallest percentage of old people, the National Geographic Society says.

The birth rate stands as 35 per 1,000 population—10 points higher than the United States average. The death rate is 5.8—almost four points below the national rate of 9.6. About 24 of every hundred Alaskans are under 5 years old; only four are over 65 years old.

The 49th State has 16 males to every 10 females, by far the largest proportion of males of any State. Three-quarters of its women are already married—the highest percentage of any State. In the rest of the United States only two-thirds of the women are married.

Alaska has the smallest population of any State—merely 211,000 people, according to the latest available estimate, compared to 16,229,000 in New York, the Nation's most populous State. But Alaska's growth has been phenomenal. Between 1950 and 1957, the population jumped 64.3 per cent—the biggest increase of any State, and many times the 13-per cent climb of the United States as a whole.

Citizens Patrol Strikebound City

Act to Prevent New Violence After Textile Talks Break Down

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP) — A night watch team of 200 citizens helped patrol this textile city Thursday night to prevent new violence after a breakdown in strike negotiations.

Gov. Luther Hodges announced Thursday that his efforts to mediate in the long Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills strike had failed. He said he was withdrawing from the negotiations.

Later, he met with state, Henderson and Vance County officials. He said he called them "to discuss our fear that we were going to have further violence and to set up our preparations.

After the meeting, officials in this city of 15,000 moved to bolster law enforcement forces. The night watch team was set up under police supervision, to operate with 99 highway patrolmen, 10 or 11 special policemen, 22 regular city policemen and additional deputy sheriffs.

The strike began Nov. 17 after disagreement on an arbitration clause. There have been numerous incidents of violence since the mills reopened on a limited basis Feb. 16.

Privately - financed chemical production facilities costing a record total of $1,775,000,000 were completed in the United States during 1958, according to the Manufacturing Chemists' Association.

Ingrid in Hollywood 1st Time Since 1950

★ ★ ★

Colbert's Illness Shuts 'Marriage-Go-Round'

NEW YORK (AP) — The continued illness of Claudette Colbert has caused the Broadway hit, "The Marriage-Go-Round," to cancel performances for the remainder of this week.

Matinee and evening performances were canceled Wednesday when Miss Colbert developed a virus infection. Her physician later reported that the illness developed into acute bronchitis.
