Wild Winds Rip Into Homes Southwest of City

Killer Winds Rip Ann Arbor, Four Other Michigan Towns

DISPLACED ROOF — It was a roof, just like any other roof, before a terrific black cloud descended on it this morning. A portion of the roof on the home of Merle R. Voss, 2250 E. Hammond Lake Rd., lies in the front yard. It was ripped from its rafters, carried over the home, and placed here around an iron lamp post in front of the Voss home. Other debris from the Voss' home was scattered across the street.

At Least 4 Roofs Torn Off in Storm

Wild winds of near-tornado strength tore into residential neighborhoods southwest of Pontiac shortly after 10 a.m. today, ripping away roofs of at least four homes and causing lesser damage to many others.

The blasts descended suddenly out of the west, according to one witness, accompanied by what were described as "low flying dark clouds."

They occurred at almost the same time that a baby twister hit the outskirts of Ann Arbor, multiplying tornado jitters in the Pontiac area.

By noon, it appeared the tornado danger was over.

A few witnesses reported they saw cloud formations resembling a tornado funnel, but most people said the storm was only high winds.

The storm struck residences between Cass Lake and the southwest Pontiac city limits, with most of the damage centered in neighborhoods on the east and west sides of Middle Belt road, south of Orchard Lake Avenue.

On the west side of Middlebelt, in West Bloomfield Township's Sylvan Manor subdivision, the worst damage was at the home of Clinton Nicholl, 2451 Chata St.

A rear, glassed-in porch was completely flattened by the wind, with the porch roof being hurled 75 yards away into a vacant field.

A resident of the subdivision, Andrew Rossetto, 2425 Walce, said several chimneys on other homes were toppled, shingles scattered, television aerials snapped and awnings ripped loose.

East of Middle Belt, the storm struck exclusive Hamond Lake, with most of the damage occurring at the Bloomfield Township homes of Merle R. Voss, 2250 E. Hammond Lake Rd. and James H. Youngblood, 2260 E. Hammond Lake.

Roofs on both homes were damaged and part of the Voss front porch was destroyed.

SAW BLACK CLOUD

Two Hamond Lake women thought the storm was a tornado, although civil defense officials believed that it was only an extremely high wind.

Mrs. Voss said she saw a black cloud resembling a tornado.

Mrs. Franklin Read, of 2291 E. Hammond Lake Rd., said: "I saw this real heavy black cloud and this funnel-shaped thing attached to it coming down from nowhere. At first I thought it was a terrific wind, like a hurricane."

She said it snapped a large tree in her front yard in half "like a matchstick." Mrs. Read also said she saw porch chairs and roof shingles flying through the air.

Voss said the wind, picked up part of his front porch and smashed it to bits, spraying pieces over the yard.

High winds and minor damage were reported as far west as Keego Harbor.

Traffic Accidents Claim 2 Lives on Area Roads

Pontiac Mother Killed, 9 Injured in Head-On Crash on Adams Road

Oakland County recorded two traffic deaths this weekend, including one head-on crash which killed a Pontiac mother and injured nine other persons.

Dead are Mrs. Marilyn Boone, 29, of 46 N. Francis St., and Clifford D. Marquette, 31, of 3115 Shedlowsky St., Independence Township.

Mrs. Boone died at 4:20 p.m. Sunday from injuries suffered when the car driven by her husband, Raymond, 30, collided head-on with another car driven by Dr. Albert P. Ulbrich, 47, of 5670 Sussex Rd., Birmingham.

The collision occurred shortly after noon Sunday on Adams road near Tutbury lane, on the boundary line between Troy and Bloomfield Township.

The woman's husband, and a son James, 12, are listed in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital today with fractured skulls.

Two other sons, Kenneth, 3, and Leonard, 2, were treated for injuries and released.

The doctor was hospitalized and is listed in poor condition today. His son, Carl, 10, is in fair condition with head injuries.

Also injured in the doctor's car were Joseph Sticher, 55, and his wife, Elsie, 60, of 8903 Myers Rd., Detroit, and Sam Leiberman, age unknown, of 18985 Birchcrest St., Detroit.

POOR CONDITION

Sticher is in poor condition with skull, arm and leg fractures, and his wife is listed as fair today with leg and jaw fractures. Leiberman is also in fair condition after undergoing extensive surgery Sunday for leg and chest injuries, the hospital reported.

Today's scattered showers and thunderstorms are expected to diminish tonight, with partly cloudy skies and cooler temperatures prevailing in this area. The low will be near 52 degrees.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and cooler with a high of 65 degrees.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 66. At 2 p.m. the mercury rested on the 66-degree line.

Haggard is president of the Oakland County AFL - CIO Council, while Girard is president of Community National Bank.

Haggard was also named to a new three-year term on the 19-member board of trustees, as were Merle Bennett, Harold A. Fitzgerald, S. E. Knudsen and Philip J. Monaghan.

Ready for Summer

FAREWELL TO TIE — Pontiac Patrolman Lon Peters smiles happily as he discards his tie for the summer. For the first time in its history, the police department is allowing uniformed officers to drop neckties and open their shirt collars during the hot weather.

City Police 'Unshackled' From Neckwear Order

By MAX E. SIMON

A knotty summer problem of the Pontiac Police Dept. has been solved.

Uniformed policemen no longer will wear ties during the torrid summer weather.

Officers once were fit to be tied when the heat came. Although most police departments throughout Michigan loosened uniform regulations, Pontiac's did not.

Unhappy patrolmen pounded their beats with shirt collar buttoned, ties dangling from their necks.

It's another story this year.

An order signed by Capt. Oliver H. Lemeaux, commander of the Uniform Patrol Bureau, has come to be viewed as sort of an "emancipation proclamation."

It guarantees freedom from neckties.

Starting today, not only will officers be able to discard their ties, but they'll also be allowed to open their shirt collars and turn under their shirt cuffs.

"We're just trying to be humane," said Lemeaux.

The decision to abandon ties was one agreed upon by command officers after a series of staff meetings.

Public Safety Director George D. Eastman said specifications for recently-acquired police uniforms were planned so the uniforms would appear neat without neckwear.

The order dropped on uniformed officers with bombshell effect.

But once over the initial shock, they were happily dropping another tie with the past.

Takes One Life, Wreaks Fury on Homes, Stadium

Twister Barely Misses Harbor Beach School, Flips Truck at Saginaw

ANN ARBOR — Terrific, twisting windstorms tore across Southeastern Michigan today. One barely missed a school full of children.

Winds wreaked damage in at least five communities and a woman was killed when this university city of 60,000 was hit.

Described by witnesses as a small tornado, the storm struck in the area of the University of Michigan's big stadium.

It tore part of the roof from the Yost Fieldhouse a short distance from the stadium. Windows in the press box of the stadium were blown out.

The twister struck the Burns Park area where a woman was reported killed by a fallen electric line. The storm toppled trees on power lines.

Miss Otillie DeFries, the Ann Arbor woman was killed by contact with a fallen power line.

Dozens of homes were damaged. A gas explosion and fire destroyed one here and six others were set ablaze by fallen power wires. The University of Michigan's huge 101,001-seat stadium and its Yost Fieldhouse were damaged.

At the top of the Michigan Thumb jutting into Lake Huron a tornado barely missed the Harbor Beach high school. It twisted bicycles parked in racks outside into a pile of wreckage.

Boatswains mate George T. Parrott, Harbor Beach Coast Guard station commander, said the storm there was a tornado. It snatched a steel chimney off a lighthouse.

Loss of life might have been heavy had not Parrott warned fishermen off the lake as winds mounted ahead of the storm.

A violent windstorm struck east of Saginaw today. No one was reported injured but trees were uprooted and a truck was lifted five feet in the air and overturned.

Frankenmuth Police Chief Henry Zink told Saginaw County sheriff's officers that the storm was moving east quite rapidly—ripping up trees and whipping antennas off rooftops in the area along highway M83 south of Camada road.

Vassar police reported no sign of the windstorm which was headed in the direction of the Vassar-Millington area.

The Weather Bureau today issued tornado forecast for portions of northern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and western New York.

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's radio broadcast an appeal for all police agencies in the Ann Arbor area for aid, saying "We can use all the help we can get."

E. German Role Delays Geneva

Conference Starts After 2½-Hour Wait for Talks in Private

GENEVA (AP) — The big four foreign ministers opened their conference on cold war problems tonight 12 noon EST. 2½ hours late, after running aground for a time on the question of how the East German government should participate.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko filed into a conference room in the Palace of Nations. The room contained a round table for the big four and separate tables for the East and West German representatives.

In a day of private consultations, the Western Powers headed off Gromyko's attempt to get full participation rights for Communist East Germany. Until late afternoon it seemed likely the formal opening would have to be put off until tomorrow.

Then an informal session of the four ministers finally came up with an agreement giving the East and West Germans limited speaking rights in the conference but not seats at the main table. They also decided on the conference room furniture — an argument tied in with the German participation dispute.

The first session of the conference was scheduled for the Palace of Nations at 3:30 p.m. Instead, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his Soviet, British and French counterparts got together informally at a British villa.

From this meeting Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko emerged with the announcement the formal session was set for 6 p.m. (12 noon EST).

"There has been a complete agreement on all procedural and administrative matters," he said, adding that this included the question of German participation.

Lloyd, designated to preside at tonight's opening session, led the efforts to resolve the despute involving the whole issue of the status of the Red East German regime.

Reds Win: Ministers Not Squares

GENEVA (AP) — That table trouble was settled today.

The Soviets won, sort of.

The Big Four foreign ministers agreed to sit at a round table, which the Soviets wanted, but only on one side of it.

The Soviet idea was that if the meeting were held at a square table, which the Western side wanted, there could be only four sides at a four-power conference. And the Soviets had ideas about bringing in East Germany, and perhaps Poland and Czechoslovakia.

And as part of the compromise reached on the tables it was decided that East and West German representatives would sit at separate tables in the same room with the Big Four but separated by another table to be occupied by the conference secretariate.

Moreover, the German delegates will be able to speak only when given unanimous consent.

The Americans, British and French had wanted to confine the conference to the Big Four, with other nations called in as advisers only. So they stood four-square, or three-square, for a square table. The United Nations, which furnished the facilities, had a square table but no round one. So they had to build one.

Finally U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said he didn't want table trouble to hamstring the conference before it even got under way. So U.N. workers began feverishly hammering together a round table.

With the issue apparently settled on one front, table trouble broke out in another sector.

Swiss Foreign Minister Max Petitpierre invited the Big Four foreign ministers to a pre-conference luncheon.

Should he seat his guests at a round table and run the risk of giving someone the impression that the neutral Swiss sided with the Soviets?

PORCH SHATTERED — Destructive whirling winds swooped into the back yard of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Nicholl, 2451 Chata St., West Bloomfield Township, and departed with their porch. The rear of the house shown here was where damage was heaviest. Mrs. Nicholl was almost blown through her front door into the front yard. The year-round porch was scattered in all directions. Its roof, in one piece, ended up nearly 100 yards in front of the house.

Plan to Charge 3 in Lassiter Slaying

State Police Returning Suspects

Four Michigan State Police detectives were headed for Detroit today from Chattanooga, Tenn. with two men accused in the robbery-slaying of Parvin (Bill) Lassiter, Royal Oak car dealer, as plans were being made here to charge the two and one other person with first-degree murder.

Capt. Fred E. Davids, district commander of the State Police, said he would confer today with Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel E. Olsen about issuing murder warrants against Charles W. Nash, 42, of Chattanooga, Richard Jones, 27, of Rossville, Ga., and Roy C. Hicks, 36, formerly from Chattanooga but late of Royal Oak.

Jones and Hicks were expected to be in Detroit around 6 p.m. in the custody of Dets. Charles M. Leaf, Calvin A. Lepien, Tom McPhail, and Lt. Patrick Detzler.

Nash, released two years ago from a Tennessee prison for murder, is being held for investigation of murder in the Livonia City Jail, Davids said.

Leaf and Lepien had no sooner returned Nash to Detroit after his confession last week cracked the month-long investigation of the April 6 Lassiter killing, when Hicks surrendered Saturday to Tennesee authorities.

Lassiter, owner of the Detroit Car Co., 2614 N. Woodward Ave. was found in a ditch near the Willow Run Expressway two days after he arrived home from a business-pleasure trip to the Southwest.

HICKS HIDES

Hicks, manager of the Lassiter car lot while he was gone, went into hiding for two days after he apparently heard that Nash had implicated him and Jones in the murder.

Davids said Hicks and Jones, another ex-convict would be asked to give formal statements to Olsen upon their arrival in Detroit.

Jones, the actual killer of Lassiter, according to Nash, finally relented to extradition to Michigan shortly after Hicks gave himself up and said he'd waive extradition. Nash did also.

Soon after Leaf and Lepien went with Nash Saturday afternoon to retrace the route of the murder, they left again for Chattanooga to pick up Jones and Hicks.

Hicks, according to Tennessee police, admits being with Jones and Nash the night of the murder, but denies seeing the shooting. Jones denies even being in Michigan then.

SLUG NOT FOUND

With Nash showing where Lassiter was lying when Jones allegedly pumped a .45-caliber bullet into his head, detectives Saturday employed for a second time a mine detector in hopes of finding the slug. It wasn't found.

"We ran into quite a lot of difficulty in the search," Davids said, "because of plenty of metal in the slag covering the road where Lassiter was shot."

Weather permitting, Davids said a hand-sifting search would be resumed today.

How detectives had pieced together the crime earlier agreed pretty much with the route Nash led detectives through Saturday, beginning with the hotel Jones and he stayed before the murder, and ending with a trip to Toledo where the two ex-convicts caught a bus for Chattanooga the next day.

Closer search of the route was planned, Davids said, in hopes that Lassiter's wallet and belt would be found.

But Davids said little hope is given to finding the murder weapon as Nash said Jones disassembled it on the way to Toledo tossing the parts out the car window.

Stolen from the 38-year-old used car and Volkswagon tycoon was $320. Detectives believe the robbery was plotted after Lassiter called Hicks at the lot on the day of the murder telling him he had received some $5,000 for the sale of a 1959 Thunderbird.

However, only partial payment was made for the car and this was in check form, which the alleged murder trio burned along with other papers they took from Lassiter's wallet.

What was first believed to be a money belt taken from the slain man, turned out later to be just a plain belt which the men apparently mistook for a money belt, Davids said. This, too, is still missing.

Laboratory technicians were examining several fingerprints found in a 1955 Buick which Nash pointed out as the car used to pick up Lassiter at the Willow Run Airport before he was murdered.

Chicago-Rotterdam Run for Ship Travel Starts

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Dutch ship Prins Willem Van Oranje was to arrive here today, marking the start of the first passenger service between Chicago and Rotterdam, Holland, via the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Officials of Great Lakes Overseas, Inc., said the 462-foot long vessel of the Fjell-Oranje Line was the fastest ship scheduled for service on the seaway this year with a speed of 19 knots.

The first Israeli ship to reach here via the seaway, the MS Tamar, arrived yesterday with auto gas tanks from Israel, twine from Portugal and wine from Italy included in its general cargo.

Pontiac Singer Pleads Guilty

Eleanor Wilson, Friend, Avert Murder Trial by Changing Plea

A night club singer from Pontiac today sidestepped a first-degree murder trial in Rochester, N.Y., by pleading guilty to a charge of first-degree manslaughter.

The plea was made as 21-year-old Eleanor JoAnn Wilson, and Joseph J. Sobb, 20, described by police as her boy friend, were about to go on trial on the murder charge.

They are accused of fatally beating a North Syracuse salesman, George Fisher, 46, in a suburban Rochester motel last Dec. 23.

She was arrested a few days later by police at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Randall B. Wilson, 73 Seminole Dr.

Monroe County Judge Clarence J. Henry accepted Miss Wilson's plea to the reduced charge on recommendation of District Attorney Harry L. Rosenthal. The maximum penalty for first degree manslaughter in New York is 10 to 20 years.

Miss Wilson, a divorcee and mother of two small children, is expecting a third child.

Police quote Miss Wilson as saying she spent several hours the night of Dec. 23 with Fisher in the motel, and that later she revisited Fisher's quarters with Sobb, a bartender.

She denied any part in the beating, police said, but told them she saw Sobb take a diamond ring from Fisher's finger.

A motel attendant found Fisher unconscious in his bed the next morning. He died Jan. 13 without regaining consciousness.

The ring, Fisher's billfold and a piece of pipe, allegedly used by Sobb in the beating, have not been found.

Money for Blood Used to Finance Murder Appeal

DETROIT (UPI) — A man who sold his blood to finance his case will ask for new trial on a murder conviction today.

James Lynch, 52, was one of three men sentenced in 1943 to life in prison for the robbery-killing of a Hamtramck tavern owner.

Lynch has maintained he was innocent and had no part in the death of Peter Kubert in May 1942.

He was named as a bandit by Henry Hill, another suspect who turned state's evidence.

Lynch has spent years saving the money for the appeal—putting aside some of his prison pay of 17½ cents a day and selling his blood for $5 a pint whenever doctors would allow it.

HONOR NEW MOTHER — New mothers at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital paid tribute on Mother's Day to Mrs. Harold Tellefsen, 21, the newest mother of all. She is shown with her husband and newly-born Harold Jr., first baby born at St. Joseph yesterday. As a Mother's Day tribute, Mrs. Tellefsen was crowned with a wreath of flowers and wheeled about the maternity ward in a flower-decked wheel chair. The couple lives at 26795 Palmer St., Madison Heights.

Compromise Tax Plans Flood Lansing in Crisis

LANSING (UPI) — A flood of compromise tax plans hit the capital today as unpaid state employes stepped up pressure for a solution to Michigan's cash crisis.

"There's a lot of talking going on behind closed doors," Gov. G. Mennen Williams noted at his news conference.

Williams was not in any of the talks.

One plan that came out in the open today was a seven-point package advanced by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton). It would raise $139,500,000 primarily through a 5 per cent tax on corporation income and a flat 2 per cent on personal income.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) advocated a combination of a sales tax boost and corporate profit levy, a plan discussed briefly last week by Williams and GOP lawmakers.

House Democratic leader Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit said "a batch" of compromise plans were discussed by lawmakers in Detroit over the weekend.

Sen. Philip Rahoi (D-Iron Mountain) claimed Williams was ready to embrace a flat rate income tax.

Williams said all plans will be "given careful study."

Conlin said his plan was a realistic approach that should be given careful analysis and not subjected to quick emotional judgment."

Legislation to advance the compromise plan will be submitted this week, Conlin said. The plan would yield a gross gain of $279,000,000.

The corporate income tax would yield 110 million dollars and the personal income tax would bring in 140 million dollars, the same yield as under a proposed graduated income tax. Extension of the sales tax to items now exempt would yield 18 million dollars and the financial institutions tax would yield 11 million dollars.

Conlin voiced opposition to the plan for a four-cent use (sales) tax backed by Senate Republicans. Conlin said he was opposed to "patchwork" solutions.

CALLED COMPROMISE

The GOP tax expert said his plan was "a compromise for those who oppose a graduated income tax which does not cover most of our citizens; it is a compromise for those who oppose an increase in the use or sales tax because of its unfair impact; and it embodies many important objectives of the citizens' advisory committee."

The plan is so similar to the advisory committee's original recommendation that it is expected to meet with strong objections in the Senate.

Two rival employe organizations were geared for action in case compromise efforts fail.

The 12,500-member State Employes Association and the 5,000-member AFL-CIO Michigan State Employes Union had separate plans for focusing attention on the plight of state workers who missed a payday last week.

But both promised their members would not walk off the job.

Association president Gordon P. Larson said his executive board would meet tonight to decide whether to start a Supreme Court suit to force the administration to release paychecks.

Robert C. Grosvenor, president of the AFL-CIO group, said there had been "some talk" about the possibility of a brief work-stop demonstration by union members but he emphasized "we're not threatening anybody with anything right now. We have to check this further."

2 Die in Traffic on Area Roads

is not known how the accident took place. There were no eye witnesses, deputies reported.

Both autos were demolished, said officers, and a total of four ambulances were rushed to the grim scene.

Marquette died at Pontiac General Hospital at 11:34 p.m. Saturday night of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car while walking across Auburn road near Churchill road, in Auburn Heights, just after midnight Friday.

Deputies said he walked directly into the path of a car driven by William D. Engstrom, 24, of 3381 Donley St., Avon Township.

Marquette suffered severe head injuries an multiple cuts. He had been in critical condition since admitted to the hospital. Engstrom was not held.

OTHER MISHAPS

In other accidents, Melville Pratt 33, of 385 W. Glass Rd., Ortonville, was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital early today when his pickup truck was demolished.

Pontiac State Police said Pratt lost control on a curve on M15 north of Oak Hill road, Brandon Township, and smashed into three trees.

Hospital authorities said the seriousness of Pratt's condition has not yet been determined. He suffered rib injuries, a broken collarbone, and multiple cuts and bruises.

Richard W. Weber, 28, of 900 N. Milford Rd., and Ronald Chiesa, 24, of 958 N. Milford Rd., Milford Township, were treated for injuries at the same hospital and released Sunday.

Their car, driven by Weber, went out of control and struck a tree on Charms road near Wixom road, in Milford Township. Weber said he was blinded by the headlights of an oncoming car, according to sheriff's deputies.

Bernard Whipple, 21, of 9560 Hadley Rd., Clarkston, is in satisfactory condition at Goodrich Hospital with head injuries suffered in a collision between his car and another Sunday night.

Whipple's auto collided head-on with one driven by John E. Crady 18, of 3900 Perryville Rd., Groveland Township, and then ran off Perryville road near Brandt street. The other driver was uninjured, deputies reported.

Seaway Ship Leaves Detroit Without Cargo

DETROIT (UPI)—The Port of Detroit's expansion plans, stymied over finances, have received at least a spur toward action.

Snubbing the crowded dock facilities, the Grace Line freighter Santa Regina steamed off yesterday without picking up a cargo of automobiles.

The Santa Regina, first American flag freighter to reach Detroit via the St. Lawrence Seaway, went away complaining. She refused to wait any longer for space.

Left on the dock were the crated cars. But a Grace Lines representative said another Grace ship would pick up the cargo today.

Upon first arriving Wednesday, the Santa Regina couldn't find space to load and went on to Toledo and Cleveland.

When she left yesterday again, presumably for Toronto, it was with criticism of the dock facilities by a Grace Line official.

Detroit voters have refused to spend money for new dock facilities. Private operators say they lack the cash.

Hoover Urges Stern Measures

Youth Crime Must Be Curbed, Says Chief of FBI to Subcommittee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has called upon the courts and local communities to use "sterner measures" in dealing with juvenile delinquents contributing to the rapidly rising crime rate.

He asked a House appropriations subcommittee for money to hire 50 new agents "for the purpose of strengthening our investigative efforts in the security and criminal fields." He noted an upsurge in bank robberies—one of the crimes under FBI jurisdiction.

He said there were 631 bank robberies, burglaries and larcenies in the year ending June 30, 1958. He said that "not since the gang era of the 1930s" have there been more than 600 violations of the Bank Robbery Act in a 12-month period.

Hoover's closed-door testimony was made public Sunday, the 35th anniversary of his appointment as head of the FBI.

He told the subcommittee that preliminary estimates indicate that the number of serious crimes in 1958 were 11 per cent higher than the previous record of 2,796,400 set in 1957. He said youths under 18 accounted for almost half of the total arrests.

"As tragic as the spiraling crime wave is," Hoover said, "more serious is the terrifying pace of youthful lawlessness accompanying it."

He called for an end of the practice of keeping secret the names and otherwise giving special treatment to juveniles accused of serious crimes.

"The present youth problem does not involve child pranksters and mischiefmakers," he said. "We can no longer afford to let "tender age make plunder into a trifling prank, reduce mayhem to a mischievous act and pass off murder as a boyish misdemeanor or the act of an emotionally disturbed youth."

Asks End to Penalty Under Social Security

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) today proposed legislation to end the "financial penalty" imposed by the Social Security law on retired persons who work after they are 65.

Clark proposed letting employes who continue to work after 65 pile up credits to be added to their Social Security benefits when they retire. The program would be paid for by a ¼ of one per cent additional Social Security tax on employers and employes.

The present law requires persons between 65 and 72 who earn more than $1,200 a year to forfeit Social Security benefits. The restriction goes off at age 72.

As a result, Clark said in a statement, many useful workers are lost to the labor force. He also said the forced retirement clause contributes to "demoralization and physical and mental illness" among many aging citizens.

The ceremony will be held at 1:30 at the Courthouse. Friends and relatives of the deceased, as well as all others, are invited to be present, according to A. Floyd Blakeslee, chairman of the association's Memorial Committee.

Committees named consist of: For Judge Hartrick, Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, William B. Hartman, association president, and David C. Pence; For Merritt, Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, Charles A. Davis, assistant corporation counsel, and Maurice A. Merritt; For Judge Gillespie, George A. Dondero, Clarence K. Patterson, and William A. Ewart.

Zoning Protest Goes to Waterford Board

Petitions with more than 150 signatures presenting a recent zoning change have been filed at the Waterford Township offices and will be the main topic of discussion at tonight's township board meeting, according to Clerk James Seeterlin.

Last week the Board rezoned a corner lot on Walton boulevard and Clintonville road from residential to commercial by a 4-3 vote, and residents in that area will be present to discuss their protests.

Another lot on Elizabeth Lake road at Ascot street is expected to be rezoned from residential to commercial. A request from the owner of the Silver Lake Septic Tank Co., Marvin Skelton, was presented at last week's meeting and board members postponed action until tonight's meeting.

The Day in Birmingham

City Commission to Hear Road Oiling Proposals

BIRMINGHAM—The first of two hearings on the city's 1959 road oiling program, involving 69 streets, will come before the Birmingham City Commission tonight.

The proposed project includes light oil treatment for about one mile of street surface, oil mat and seal coat for 3,400 feet and seal coating for approximately 10 miles.

The discussion of the proposed widening and repaving of Eton road from Yosemite street south to Lincoln avenue will be reopened.

The project has been under consideration since 1955.

Residents in the assessment district have objected during past hearings, saying they felt Eton road is used mostly by commercial vehicles and persons patronizing the Grand Trunk Railroad.

Area property owners have voiced strong opposition to assuming the customary 85 per cent of the total cost.

Also up for discussion will be contract bids for the widening of W. Maple avenue, from Westchester way to Cranbrook road, and the eastern extremity of Holland avenue.

Further business will include Birmingham Country Club's request for an extension of fire protection service from the city. The present contract expires June 30.

5 Psychiatrists to Test Mother

Sanity Hearing Ordered for Mrs. Gall in Death of Daughter, 12

Five psychiatrists have been named to examine Mrs. Anne D. Gall, Commerce Township mother of three, to see if she is able to stand trial for the first-degree murder of her 12-year-old daughter in February.

Mrs. Gall's attorney, Raymond D. Munde of Pontiac, this morning petitioned for the sanity hearing.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams granted the order and set May 26 when the psychiatrists will report back to him on their findings.

Appointed to examine the 35-year-old mother at the county jail were Drs. Clinton J. Mumby, Ivan A. LaCore, L. Jerome Fink, all of Pontiac, Dr. Jean F. Chambers of Birmingham, and Dr. Phillip N. Brown of Northville.

Judith Anne Gall died Feb. 16 of pneumonia which Dr. Richard E. Olson, pathologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, said was brought on by "repeated" beatings which her mother admitted giving her.

At the lower court pretrial examination of Mrs. Gall, her husband, John, an unemployed construction worker, testified how his wife forced Judith Anne always to carry an 18-inch cherry bough "as a reminder to behave." If she didn't, the child was whipped, the husband said.

Mrs. Gall, of 3080 Royal St. on the north shore of Lower Straits Lake, was bound over to Circuit Court to stand trial for first-degree murder following the examination.

A week later, Mrs. Gall tried to take her own life in her jail cell by slashing her wrists with pieces of a smashed light bulb.

Munde had already given notice of using insanity as his defense plea before today's petition for a sanity hearing was filed.

Killer Winds Rip Through Ann Arbor

The stricken area was declared a disaster area and Red Cross crews were called in.

The worst stricken area is bounded by West 7th, Washtenaw, Stadium and Hill streets.

Detroit and suburbs were warned the storm was moving eastward and urged to take safety measures by the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The Weather Bureau said a thunderstorm squall line reaching from Port Huron to Detroit and Blissfield was moving eastward.

State Police said the Ann Arbor storm hit at 10:20 a.m. EST. The General Motors Technical Center outside Detroit reported 46-mile winds there at 10:55 a.m.

Winds of tornado-like velocity rolled over a house trailer occupied by a mother and three children three times today at Filion, a small Huron County community six miles north of Bad Axe.

Mrs. Eileen Ponder was taken to a Bad Axe hospital for X rays. The children escaped injury.

Eustace Rucinski, 46, of 2306 Buckingham Rd., Birmingham, received throat injuries and a bruised forehead when his car crashed into the rear end of a truck at 8 a.m. this morning on Woodward avenue, just south of Long Lake road.

Bloomfield Hills Police said William A. Smith, 50, of Lake Orion had brought his truck to a stop midway down the hill, waiting for the light at the intersection ahead to change. There were no vehicles in front of him, police said.

Rucinski was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, for treatment. Smith was uninjured.

No tickets were issued.

April building totals of $741,427 are nearly double that for the previous three months in Birmingham, according to Andrew F. Butt, city building inspector.

Butt said 64 permits were issued last month, including one 32-unit multiple residence.

A final Hickory Grove Elementary School PTA-PTO meeting in Bloomfield Hills will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the school.

Newly elected officers will be installed. The slate includes Dr. Charles Bowers, president; Gene Johnson, father vice president; Mrs. Gerald Francis, mother vice president; and Mrs. Georgialee Lovse, teacher vice president.

The music department of the school will present a special program.

Mrs. Catherine L. Gunn

Service for Mrs. Catherine L. Gunn, 63, of 7251 Holiday Dr., will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Cremation will follow at White Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Gunn died yesterday at the Alexander Nursing Home in Royal Oak after a long illness.

She is survived by a son, James W. of Birmingham; a granddaughter; one brother and a sister.

6 Vie for Posts on School Board

Pontiac Nominees File for Two Vacancies in June 8 Election

Six persons including two incumbents have filed nominating petitions for the June 8 Board of Education election.

Running for re-election will be members Monroe M. Osmun, 100 Ogemaw Road, and the Rev. J. Allen Parker, 149 Franklin Blvd.

Also filing petitions were Thomas Horwitz, 949 James K. Blvd.; Roy B. MacAfee, 18 Niagara Ave.; Dr. Leonard F. Klausmeyer, 111 Oneida Rd.; and Jennie R. Jones, 127 Thorpe St.

At stake in the election will be two four-year terms on the Board.

School District officials this morning were checking signatures on nominating petitions.

The City Clerk's office at City Hall will be open until 8 p.m. today to accept voter registrations.

Today is the deadline for registering for the school district election in the City of Pontiac. District voters outside the city have until May 29 to register.

Jobs at Record High; Unemployment Drops

WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of Americans at work rose by over a million in April to a record total of 65 million. Unemployment declined by 735,000.

The improvement in both emplyment and unemployment were double what is seasonally expected in April.

Secretary of Commerce Lewis Strauss and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said in a joint statement the figures demonstrate a rapidly accelerating job recovery.

Employment rose to 65,012,000, an increase of 1,184,000 over March. This is 2,105,000 more jobs than in April last year.

Unemployment declined to 3,627,000, dipping by 735,000 from March. This is a decline of 1,493,000 from the recession conditions in April of last year.

The 1957 figures in April were 64,261,000 employed and 2,690,000 unemployed.

JOBLESS ROLES DOWN

In the first four months of this year unemployment has dropped by over one million.

The Commerce-Labor monthly job report attributed the April improvements to an unusually large pickup in construction and brisk hiring in hard goods manufacturing together with the spring expansion in agriculture.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment in the labor force dropped to 5.3 per cent in April by comparison with 5.8 per cent in March and around 6 per cent during the winter months.

Strauss and Mitchell said in their joint statement: "This April, one year after the turning point in the recession, the rate of unemployment was about two-thirds of the way back to prerecession levels. The strong improvement in the last two months was in contrast to the lag in job recovery during the past winter."

EARNINGS UP

Both the factory work week and earnings increased in April. The manufacturing work week rose to 40.3 hours, two hours greater than a year ago. More than half the gain represented increased overtime.

Average weekly earnings of factory workers hit a record of $89.87 in April, up 63 cents from March. This was more than $9 higher than a year ago, mainly as a result of the increased hours in overtime pay. Hourly earnings rose 1 cent in April to $2.23, or 12 cents higher than the average a year ago.

She Saw Russia—Good and Bad—From Inside

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Sally Belfrage is a peripatetic young blonde whose eyes are dewy only when necessary, like on moist mornings after camping out all night.

She has seen much, been around plenty, for a wisp of 22 years, and she is candid about it all. The latest sojourn was to Russia. Her summation of six months' working and playing with Muscovites:

"Many things were great. And many things stank. You can't generalize about the Russian people any more than they can say all Americans have swimming pools and private airplanes . . . which, incidentally, is exactly what most Russians think."

Sally laughed, briefly. "I spent a lot of my time disabusing them of this crazy idea that we Americans are all filthy rich. I wanted them to know that we are very much like them in many ways — warm and friendly.

"Because that's the way the people are over there, really very much like us. Only their warmth is almost a childlike thing. It's their nature to explode with laughter, or break down and cry with unhappiness. They are not as sophisticated as Americans. They haven't learned to repress their emotions as much."

ATTENDED FESTIVAL

Sally went to Russia as one of 160 Americans attending the Moscow Youth Festival. But she was not like the rest. Not as easygoing, perhaps; certainly not as dependent on home and family.

She calls herself "the child of a rebel." Her father was deported from the United States to England for publishing a left-wing newspaper. Sally was personally ostracized in Hollywood, her home town, and socially confused.

She decided that "nothing political was worth it" — and that she would travel the world searching for the truth about people, and the devil take their politics.

She wrote a book ("A Room in Moscow") to earn the money to go to Israel and the Arab countries ("I want to find out how they really feel"), and left last weekend for this new destination.

Sally arrived, at the Youth Festival in Moscow, among 30,000 youngsters from all over the world. "It was a crazy, screaming mess," she recalls. "Because of language barriers, I found myself all the time with the Americans.

"I wanted to stay and see what Russia was really like, after the three-week festival was over. So I went to a publishing house there and they offered me an editing job — on English translations of Tolstoy. They pay fairly well in Russia for intellectual or cultural work, so I was able to stay on, to live just barely, for five more months.

"Most of the time, I was awful cold, physically. It gets 30 degrees below zero in Moscow in winter. But I was a novelty to the people, being a real live American girl, so I was treated like a movie star. People would follow me around in the streets, asking questions.

"I'd go to call on people, maybe four or five families a day — I'm awfully curious — and I'd have to have dinner in each place. Gained 20 pounds. I tried to tell them it's fashionable to be thin in America, but they thought I was sick and tubercular and absolutely insisted I eat."

Sally spent most of her time with the "stilyagi" — Soviet equivalent of "the beat generation." Many are kids from well-to-do parents. "The only value to them is something foreign — an imported cigarette lighter, a jazz record, an American girl. I was very popular, needless to say.

Russia Said Making Big Medical Strides

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A team of U.S. health officials says Russia is striving with "great vigor" to improve its disease prevention and medical care but still trails the United States.

The officials, who toured the Soviet Union in 1957, said in a Public Health Service report that Russia was fighting disease and medical problems on an "almost explosive scale."

But the report, issued last night, said the quality of Soviet doctoring falls short of that in this country.

The officials said the problem of medical care had been "tackled with great vigor" in Russia. They added, however, that Soviet medical establishments were "antiquated or jerry-built" in contrast to those in the United States.

The U.S. doctors found that the Soviet government in its health programs concentrated on quantity and widespread coverage of personnel at the expense of quality.

They said pestilence and diseases caused by filth had been brought under control substantially.

Bob Considine Warns:

Jet Age Drawback—Shorter Cocktail Hour

LOS ANGELES — A fellow who likes a cocktail before dinner is confronted with a new problem in this dawn of the nonstop transcontinental jet age. The problem can be stated simply. It is, "Will I get that drink before we get to Los Angeles?"

As it turns out, you get the drink. Not only that, you get a nice meal while flipping along quietly and vibrationlessly 30,000 feet above earth still littered with the dust of pioneers who braved outrageous dangers to force a path to the Pacific.

Still, it is nip and tuck for the jet traveler—taking nip and tuck in your napkin—and the girls barely have the dishes cleared away before the seat belt sign blinks on and the big Boeing whistles in for a landing at Los Angeles International.

You step off the plane as refreshed as if you were rising from a pleasant meal in a well fitted restaurant.

C. R. Smith, one of the more rugged giants of the airline business, has a rarely stated thought about the expanding jet age.

In Smith's mind, a sorely overlooked but most important aspect of such travel is that people in time will come to think as much about the lack of vibration in jet planes as they now do about the speed of the aircraft. Vibration, not tension or cramped quarters, is the primary cause of fatigue from air travel, he is convinced.

The air traveler who has become accustomed to plenty of attention from the girls on more or less leisurely flights in the past must wonder what is going to happen to him in the future.

2,000 M.P.H. FLIGHTS

Unquestionably the fastest form of travel for the next decade of commercial flying will be varieties of the 600-mile-an-hour Boeing 707, Douglas DC8 and Convair's 880 and 600.

But North American, which is building the new B70 for the Air Force, sees no reason why an airline adaptation of the same basic design could not be practical about 1970. The B70 will have a speed of 2,000 m.p.h.

The passenger on a 2,000 m.p.h. plane may take off from New York at noon, after an early lunch, and arrive in Los Angeles or San Francisco at 10:30 a.m. for a late breakfast.

But it is what happens en route that will worry the air traveler who likes his creature comforts on high. He may have to make the hard choice between food or drink since there plainly would not be time for both.

HYPO DRINKS

Beyond that, he sees a horrid day when the sign, "Meals served," on the blackboard at the air terminal will mean something like this:

Lying flat on his back on a foam rubber bed, he takes a deep breath as the windowless projectile in which he and 100 others are riding blasts off its launching pad at Cape Canaveral, Fla., by that time the main airport serving New York City.

As the projectile reaches its cruising height, moments later, he rolls up his sleeve. His bed has been automatically raised so that he is now in a sitting position.

A stewardess zips down the aisle of bared biceps with two hypodermic needles. One contains martinis and the other manhattans. The passenger is given one-half second to make up his mind.

With the injections out of the way, the loudspeaker orders every passenger to open his mouth and hold up one finger if he wants meat and two fingers if he prefers fish.

Then another girl races down the aisle popping steak pills or fish pills into the open mouths. The pill contains all the proper vegetables, and a Ceasar salad for garlic fanciers.

There's just time to gulp the pill before the rocket commences its deep dive on Vandenberg Airport, long since made the home airdrome of San Francisco and Los Angeles. The girl at the door gives each passenger a coffee, tea or milk lozenger as he steps out of the missile.

That is bound to be the future—and I say the hell with it.

Schools Facing Payless Payday

Over Two-Thirds of Questionnaire Replies Tell of Finance Peril

LANSING (AP) — Lynn M. Bartlett, state school chief, says more than two-thirds of local school districts replying to a questionnaire on finances are in danger of missing payrolls this month.

However, on the basis of the present outlook for payout of state funds due now or soon, it appeared the prospective distress will be greatly alleviated shortly after May 15.

Bartlett said 788 districts were queried. Of 202 which had replied yesterday, 145 said they would run into delayed payrolls under the present outlook for state help, he reported.

The question was asked in terms of their situations assuming a payout to the state's 2,350 districts of 25½ million dollars in state aid money by May 15 and 35½ millions in primary school interest fund money at a later date.

As things stand now, Bartlett and State Treasurer Sanford A. Brown expect to have 28 millions in state aid money in their hands by next Friday, or 2½ millions more than the questionnaire assumption.

NBC Abandons Request to Stop Strike Picketing

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — NBC has withdrawn its request for an anti-picketing order in a million-dollar damage suit against a striking technicians' union.

A spokesman said the network considers the three-year agreement signed with the National Assn. of Broadcast Employes and Technicians void because of a strike called April 27.

An amended complaint against the union was filed in Superior Court here Friday.

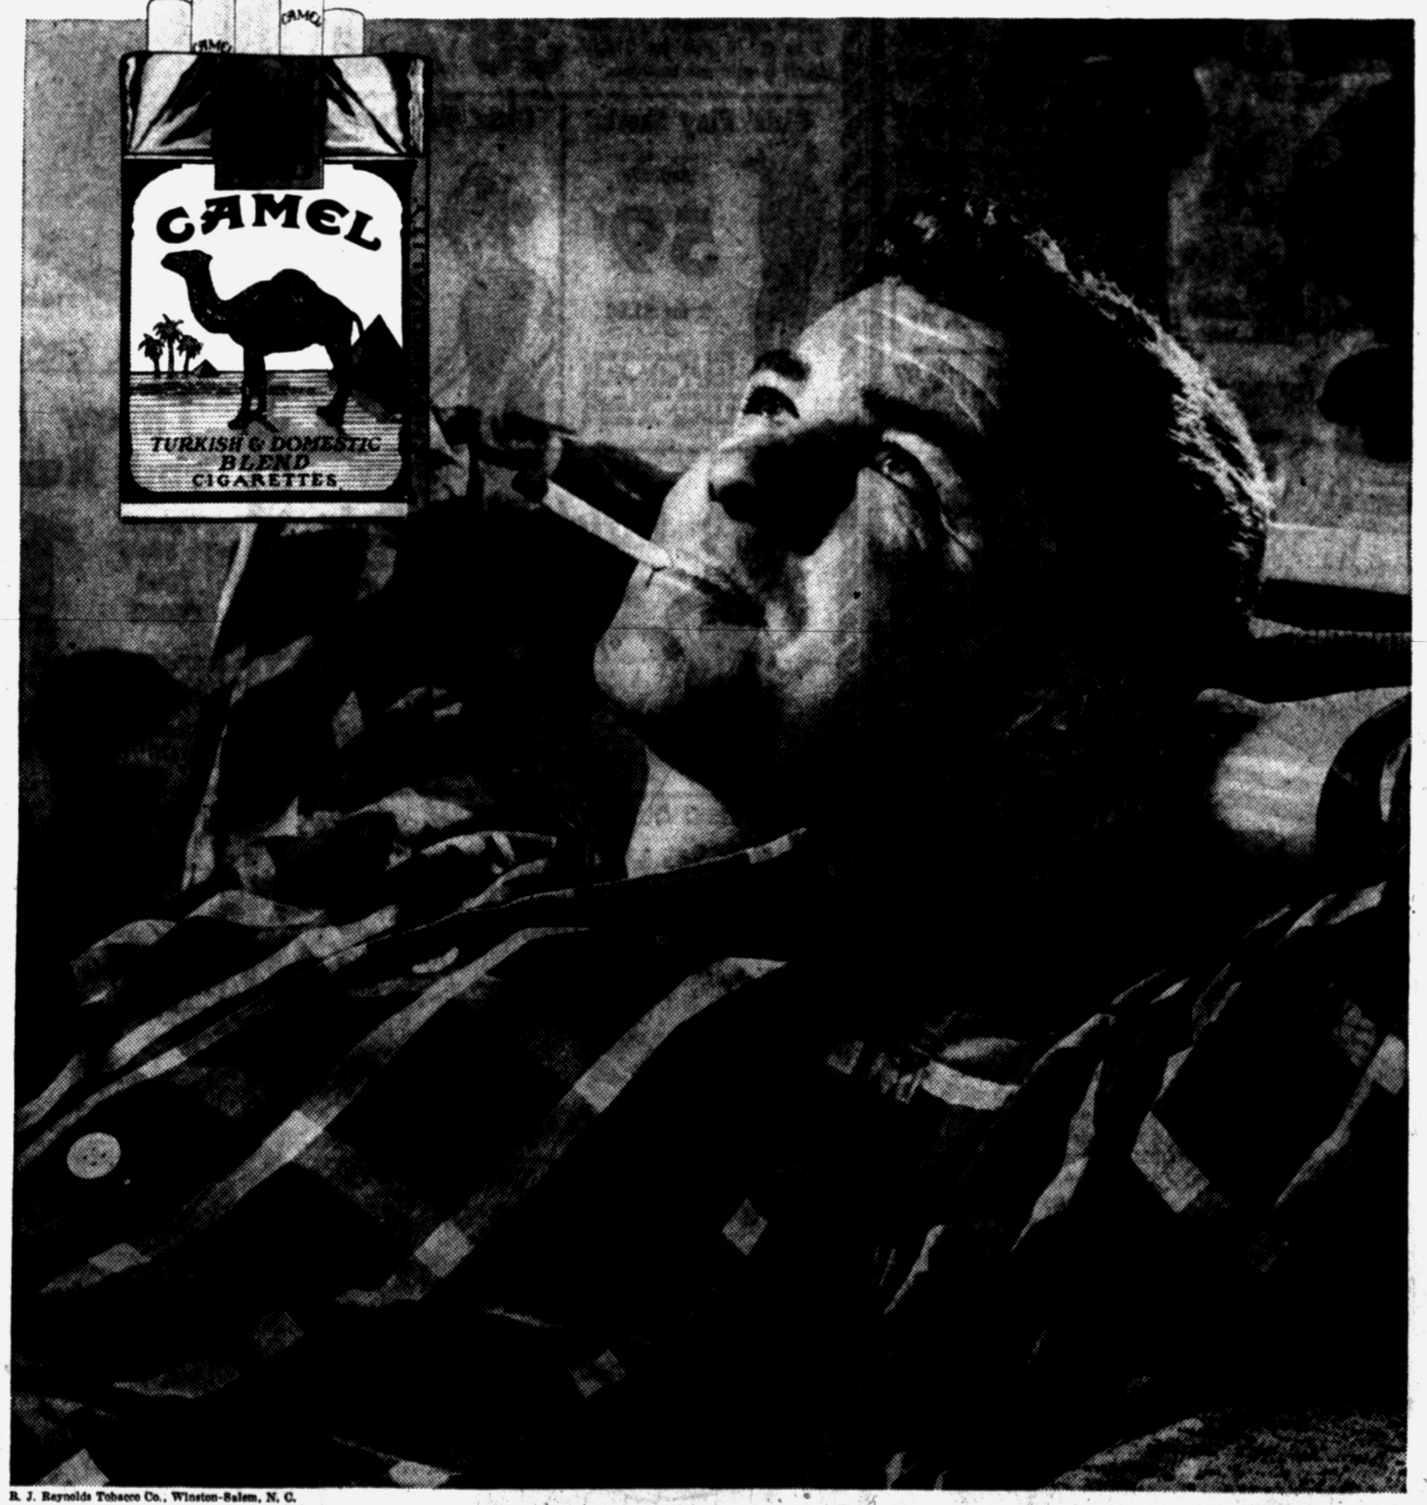

Union members started picketing NBC studios across the nation last month, charging that nonunion men handled a video tape made in France of Brigitte Bardot and featured on a Dave Garroway Show. The union denies that the contract can be voided by NBC acting unilaterally.

Dog Is Eavesdropper

LONDON (UPI)—Mrs. Barbara Woodhouse heard heavy breathing over the telephone but got no reply when she asked for Norman Goodman. So she alerted police. They were met by Major, a boxer dog who nuzzles the receiver off the hook and listens in when Goodman's phone rings.

Curiosity Costs Berlin, Wisconsin Citizens $600

BERLIN, Wis. (AP)—The local volunteer fire department, wise in the ways of fire buffs, conducted its annual fund drive with a minimum of effort this year. Instead of beating a path from door to door in the community, the fire laddies just turned on the siren and let it wail.

When a substantial proportion of the 5,000 population converged on the station to find out where the fire was, firemen passed the hat. Collected: $600.

Hoover Handles Tough Job Well for 35 Years

J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, celebrated his 35th anniversary in that post yesterday.

HOOVER

The success of JOHN EDGAR HOOVER is known around the world. His record speaks for itself.

HOOVER has served the FBI as director under five presidents and a dozen Attorneys General without becoming a political figure. On occasion his name has been brought into controversies, but never as a partisan.

Demonstrating that youth can take over responsibility is proven by HOOVER. He was appointed acting Director of the FBI in 1924 by President COOLIDGE when he was 29.

Until HOOVER took over, the Department was a politics ridden agency with scandal galore. Members were largely political hacks, riffraff and ex-cons. Mr. HOOVER set out to rid the department of the incompetents.

He accomplished this in a hurry. The next understanding was that the Department was to be kept out of politics and that it would be responsible only to the Attorney General. This completed he was on his way.

Today the integrity of the Department is never questioned. No government agency head has so long been successful as HOOVER in getting congressional approval for mounting funds.

HOOVER has a reputation that cannot be questioned. He likes to go out and is no prude, and rarely takes more than two drinks. He loves good food and frequently dines in expensive steak and sea food restaurants.

For his World War II security work, Hoover won the Medal of Merit, a top civilian decoration. President Eisenhower presented the National Security Medal five years ago and in January of 1958, Hoover was one of the first recipients of the President's Gold Medal Awards for "distinguished federal service."

Americans Happy to Welcome Sir Winston

Our best carpet was rolled out to welcome Sir WINSTON CHURCHILL on his recent visit to our country. This is as it should be. After a five year absence all Americans were glad to welcome him.

CHURCHILL'S spirit is terrific. For a man close to 85 to make the ocean hop, plus attend a dozen or so social functions, is some little chore in itself.

To be sure, this was a personal visit for Churchill. But being the top diplomat that he is, you can bet he used some of his deep personal wisdom on President Eisenhower.

We hope that in private discussions they did not overlook the Soviet Union. Coming as close to the vital conferences as this, it is entirely possible that these two gentlemen may have agreed on some vital points.

Throughout his long and courageous years of service, CHURCHILL has been a fighter for free humanity. Somehow we hate to see this old man's advice leaving our shores.

Churchill represents something stalwart. Being close to him seems to convey strength. The free nations will some day soon miss his guiding hand.

Sir Winston will always remain a great and trusted friend of Americans.

"HE HALF groaned, half sobbed and then sat down and fried as he held his head in his hands. His wife and mother sat in the front row with their heads."—From a news story. People have a habit of sitting around with their heads, but the majority make very little use of them.

CASTRO is a shrewd politician. Already he is drawing up plans for helping the farmer.

The Man About Town

The Secret's Out

At Least, It Seems the Mystery Now's Fathomed

Mosquito: An insect with which you might made a deal — if it doesn't bite you, you won't bite it.

Over at Rochester there's long been a mystery. The former president of Oakland County's largest village is and the residents of the beautiful municipality have wondered what the "Q" stands for—and Syd refuses to tell. He even denies the information to me, although I rate him as one of my best friends.

Refusing to be stumped, I've been doing some research into the Ennis family. A mutual friend, of 38 Delaware Drive, Pontiac, tells me that Syd is in the middle of a family of nine children. So, I wonder if that middle name isn't the Latin word for fifth. This would be the same as

Mrs. Maurice E. Finnegan

Quentin,

Quintin Roosevelt,

but my Latin authority says it should be "Quintus."

Although his name isn't spelled in a way to claim any relationship,

Davis W. Hasse,

the new manager of our neighboring city of Troy, has proven that he knows his stuff.

Orion gots its name because a real estate boom fizzled. In the early days an eastern real estate promoter came there, called it put on a high pressure sale of lots, and skipped out. Those who followed him wanted to forget that name, so changed it.

"New Canandaigua,"

We're going back to the old days, writes

Francis Burrington,

now of Toledo, formerly of Pontiac, who asserts that the modern super market is like the general store of pioneer days where you could buy most anything.

A letter received from

of Lansing says that moth balls scattered on the window sills and other places around a building will keep the pigeons away. So, occupants of the Pontiac court house will govern themselves accordingly.

Other cities are being bothered with a series of thefts of checks and other material from residential mail boxes. While Postmaster does not anticipate such a thing here, he thinks it always is best to remove mail from boxes as soon as possible after it is delivered.

Word comes along from

Fletcher Smith,

who works a farm near Rochester, and wonders if any other Oakland County farmer got his oats sown in April.

"He Must Be New—Look at That Short Beard"

David Lawrence Says:

Reds' Peace Bell Has Hollow Ring

GENEVA — Throughout Europe the people have just celebrated the 14th anniversary of the ending of World War II on this continent. But, strangely enough, the villain who really made that war possible goes unmentioned and unscathed.

LAWRENCE

For it was the Communist dictatorship in Moscow which just 20 years ago this year formed a "non-aggression" alliance with the Nazi dictatorship in Berlin.

This protected Hitler's eastern front from any danger and permitted him a few weeks later to deploy his entire military force against the West.

Eventually, because the Nazi dictatorship was given a free hand, millions of Russians were slaughtered as the Nazis turned against the Soviet Union.

Likewise, millions of persons across Europe were killed because that 1939 alliance made by the Communist dictator gave World War II its initial impetus.

Today a Communist government in Moscow is again propagandizing the world with proposals of "non-aggression" pacts and pious claims of peaceful intent.

Its record, however, is one of opportunistic alliances with dictatorships in Red China and the Middle East. As the four-power foreign ministers conference begins here, the Communists are aiming at concession that will enable them to strengthen their military position in Europe.

SOVIETS BALK

For why do the Soviet chiefs wax indignant about the idea of free elections in both parts of Germany, and why do they balk at the reunification of that country? They have managed by their propaganda to scare many people in the West into believing that a reunited Germany would be a menace to peace.

Actually a free Germany was never a menace. When the Weimar Republic was overthrown by Hitler, the true will of the German people was ignored.

The Communists now, as in 1939, prefer dictatorships everywhere—they are easier for them to handle.

Today elections in both East and West Germany would mean a free and independent Germany, but this is not what Moscow wants. It seeks a divided Germany so that, through Communist stooges, it not only may continue a puppet dictatorship in East Germany but continue to infiltrate West Germany.

It plans to keep West Germany in a state of limited armament and wants to push the NATO military forces out of West Germany altogether.

In the face of this brazen effort to carry on its program of world conquest, the Communists are accepted in this conference on a so-called "negotiating" basis.

Throughout the free world many people have been deluded into believing that, by sitting at the table with the Russians, either here or at a "summit" conference, something can be done to assure world peace.

But the record of the Communist Party, which believes in organized deception, belies any confidence that such a result can be achieved.

FALLOUT SCARE

The Soviet game is succeeding in some important respects. Thus the worldwide scare about radioactive fallout has produced a public opinion that is demanding a suspension of nuclear tests. Once this is done, the same demand will arise that the use of nuclear weapons also be banned.

This would leave the Soviets with a huge supply of troops more powerful than that of the Western Allies. The process of dictating to the West would then be intensified.

What is going on here, therefore, must be appraised primarily in terms of military strategy. For, when the Communists carry on a "negotiation," it is what they seek in a military sense that is really important.

Now they want ostensibly to change the status of West Berlin, but actually they seek acquiescence by the Western powers in what is often referred to as the "status quo." This means confirmation of their conquest of East Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

They on the rock are they which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.—Luke 8:13.

Temptations, when we meet them at first, are as the lion that reared upon Samson; but if we overcome them the next time we see them we shall find a nest of honey within them.—John Bunyan.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Witch Hazel, Internally, Good for Varicose Veins

In a pamphlet on Varicose Veins and Varicose Ulcer, available free if you provide me with a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I recommend witch hazel internally as a remedy for varicose veins in the leg, for hemorrhoids (piles) or for varicose ulcer.

DR. BRADY

The medical name for witch hazel is hamamelis and the preparation for internal use is the fluidextract of hamamelis, which was formerly officinal, that is, listed and described in the National Formulary.

It is no longer recognized as a standard preparation and, I believe, it is now supplied to druggists by only one or two pharmaceutical manufacturers.

The embrocation or lotion commonly known as "witch hazel extract" is not to be confused with fluidextract of hamamelis (Fluidextractum Hamamelidis).

A Colorado correspondent reports:

"Needless to say, my husband and I have received so much help from you and are so truly grateful we want you to know that after reading about Hamamelis in your column our doctor wrote a prescription for it, and in the past three months I have given up the idea of using a wheel chair.

The muscle soreness has completely disappeared. I can walk blocks now, where three months ago one block would make me want to sit on the sidewalk and howl.

"Please believe me when I tell you—sometimes I know you do doubt people—that calcium capsules have done wonders . . . and we both take iodin ration every day. Thank you again for helping us to better health."

JUST SKEPTICAL

No, Ma'am, I don't doubt people. I'm just skeptical of testimonials. In your case, for instance, how can we be sure the hamamelis had anything to do with the relief you describe? All I know about it is what I read in classical medical literature and in letters from people who ascribe relief or cure to taking a teaspoonful of Fluidextract of Hamamelis each night and morning for a few months. I know it can do no harm; at any rate, and that's all I know.

By the same token it is reasonable to expect that regular practice of the belly breathing exercise tends to relieve, prevent or cure piles, varicocele or varicose veins.

Please don't be childish—don't expect that any of these remedies will correct what ails you fast if you "try" it for a week or two.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Praises Editorials for Discussing Inflation

Congratulations on your fight and help to stop inflation. We know the general public does not understand what inflation is doing to him or he would be far more concerned.

We are trying to get our organization to carry your message to everyone they contact.

The Institute of Life Insurance is putting on a national campaign to fight inflation through the "grass roots" level and your informative and understanding editorials are sure to help tremendously.

Payless Payday Isn't Answer

As employes of Pontiac State Hospital, we wish to assure the people of Pontiac we will remain loyal and continue to give patients the care they deserve: but we feel that the payless payday is unnecessary and uncalled for: and is causing undue hardships on all employes.

We, as people, have responsibilities which we must meet and feel that unless the situation is cleared quickly, we will be unable to meet, not only our domestic, but all financial responsibilities.

How Can Parents Select Movies?

What is fit for children to see? As a mother of three children, I like to go to movies. But how do parents pick movies for six, eight and 10 year olds to see.

I call the show and ask what the movie is about and from what the lady says, it sounds O.K.

Three fourths of the movies are leading with sex. What do you do?

If You Killed Dog, Please Phone

I wonder if the party that hit and killed our little beagle Tuesday evening, May 5, on Elizabeth Lake road would please contact us by phoning FE 2-7505.

You not only killed a good registered hunting dog, but a wonderful pet and the mother of two little puppies.

We heard you were kind enough to stop and I'm hoping you will be kind enough to call.

Support Governor Despite GOPs

The Republican party in general is doing a dirty trick on the state of Michigan by trying to belittle the governor, the chief representative in this state.

Even though the people are to blame for the fix Detroit is in over the seaport, the Republican party can move forward by one way only as in "A. Lincoln's Day" and "F. D. Roosevelt's day."

Let the slaves of the Lincoln Day alone, now as with the days of FDR, rise above politics. Thereby proving to the people of West Berlin, that we can do it again to the oppressors of the defeated and humble people here in Michigan, firstly by standing in principle with the governor of the state.

Hopes to Finish Strauss Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash) says he hopes his committee hearing on the nomination of Lewis L. Strauss will wind up by the middle of the week.

The Senate Commerce Committee chairman said his group will make a recommendation on the nominatioin of Strauss for secretary of commerce as soon as possible after the hearings end. The nomination will then go to the Senate.

The hearings resume Monday when Strauss will have an opportunity to reply to testimony by David L. Hill, a New York atomic scientist.

Hill has accused Strauss of a lack of integrity, distortions of truth, grabbing of authority and vengeful use of the government's employe security program while Strauss was chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Hill said in reply to questions Friday that the committee's special counsel, Kenneth A. Cox, had suggested "certain improvements" in his testimony. These improvements, Hill said, consisted of Cox advising him to use "more moderate language" in his anti-Stauss statement.

Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) brought out the matter in his questioning of Hill. Scott said he "drew no implication at all" from this, but wanted to find out "which side committee counsel is on."

Scott said he didn't see how Hill's language could have been more intemperate.

Magnuson sprang to the defense of the special counsel and said Cox was "one of the most objective men I know."

Strauss was given a recess appointment to the cabinet post last fall and has yet to be confirmed by the Senate.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Coolidge Wasn't Entirely Correct

Do you think Calvin Cooldige was correct when he stated that he was never hurt by anything he did NOT say? Husbands lose their wives by failure to verbalize their affection. A man who pays his wife one compliment per day is almost sure to stay out of the divorce courts! For women want words!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B-431: Basil M., aged 37, is an introvertive engineer.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I have a crow to pick with you. For you tell us strong, silent types of husband that we are out of style.

DR. CRANE

"You urge us to verbalize our love and talk more often. You say we often lose our wives by failure to praise them enough.

"But I remember that Calvin Coolidge once said he was never hurt by anything he did NOT say.

"So how do you reconcile your view with Coolidge's comment?"

VERBALIZE LOVE

Mr. Coolidge was a fine man, but his gracious wife carried him over a lot of rough spots by her diplomacy and cordiality.

Like many introvertive husbands, he probably felt his success was largely due to his own efforts, although actually his wife deserves at least 50 per cent of the credit for his success.

If she hadn't paid compliments and been so gracious to voters, and if she hadn't shaken hands so enthusiastically when his own limp handshake alienated folks by its "weak, dish rag" effect, he might never have left Northampton.

For two years I was stationed at Smith College in Northampton, and was active in politics in the town's elections, so I learned a lot about Mr. Coolidge from his old cronies.

He was truly a silent man, whose perseverance in ringing doorbells helped offset his failure to talk glibly.

He used to call routinely on voters before the city mayoralty election and tell them "If you aren't committed to anybody else, I'd appreciate your vote."

Then he'd bluntly offer the householder a cigar and head for the next dwelling, where he would repeat the process.

So he deserves a lot of credit for his perseverance and solid character.

FRANKLIN'S ADVICE

But he did not realize how much more successful he could have been by smiling cheerily at people and paying them deserved praise.

If he had followed Benjamin Franklin's advice, he would have been more popular, for Franklin said:

"As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence."

And most of us are guilty of being silent when we should pay a merited compliment to our wives and children, or our co-workers and neighbors.

Few men are gossips. So they are not likely to fail because they pass along malicious remarks.

But most men are guilty of being human clams when they should utter words of praise.

Everybody thus hurts himself when he does NOT pay merited compliments, and that is where Calvin Coolidge erred in saying he was never hurt by what he did NOT say.

He was hurt by his silences! On thousands of occasions he could have perked up the morale of dejected children or moody co-workers or grieving parents or dejected wives by offering them a verbal pat on the back.

"Morale is more important than munitions," said Marshal Foch in World War I, and that is just as true in times of peace.

Our family and associates are usually hungry for kind words and cordial greetings and deserved praise for their helpful deeds.

When we remain silent and ignore their talents or good works, we hurt them and indirectly that injures us.

So learn to speak up! Verbalize your love for your family and your appreciation of your associates.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Russia, Satellite Nations Plan 2,200-Mile Oil Line

LONDON (UPI) — Russia and four of its East European satellites will build a 2,400-mile-long oil pipeline from the oil-rich trans-Volga region west of the satellites, Moscow radio said today.

The radio said the line would intersect the western end of the Soviet Union and split into two branches in Belorussia. The northern branch will carry Soviet oil to Poland and East Germany and the southern branch will take it to Hungary and Czechoslovakia, the broadcast said.

SIDESTEPPING A TORNADO—Weather Bureau advises the above steps to protect yourself against a tornado. Additional tips: At home, go to a basement corner; if not basement, take cover under heavy furniture against inside wall. Don't tie up the telephone calling for weather information. Important thing is to select carefully the best protection available. Above all, don't lose your head. People have been killed because they ran into the streets, directly into the storm's path.

County to Get $1.5 Million From State Gas Taxes

Oakland County will get $1,572,511 as its share of the first quarter Michigan State Highway Department receipts for gas and weight taxes, which came to $79,112,120.

After the Secretary of State's Office deducts its $1,197,668 for collection costs, net receipts for the first quarter of 1959 amount to $77,914,451. This is an increase of $873,658 over the receipts for the first quarter of 1958, — $77,040,792.

Each quarter the receipts are divided as follows: 47 per cent to the State Highway Dept. for expenditure on state trunkline highways in both rural and urban areas, 35 per cent to the counties for expenditures on county roads, and 18 per cent to the incorporated cities and villages for expenditure on their roads and streets.

Under this distribution formula, the state will receive $36,619,792, the counties $27,270,058, and the cities and villages $14,024,601.

Hal Boyle Finds in Mail:

White House Designer Received Only $500

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The average U.S. wife today can look forward to being a widow for 10 years. Her actual life span is only six to seven years longer than that of her husband, but she usually marries a man three years older than herself.

James Hoban, the man who designed the White House, was paid only $500 for the job—one of the best government investments in history.

Do you have trouble sticking to a diet? Some snakes can live from one to two years without food. They absorb the fat from their own bodies.

The price of cartoon comedy zoomed. Thirty years ago Walt Disney could produce a Mickey Mouse one-reeler for $7,000. Now an animated one-reel film costs $60,000 or more.

How vital is blood to you? It amounts only to about one sixteenth to one twentieth of your body weight. But ordinarily the loss of one third of your blood, unless replaced, will cause death.

The odds against lightning striking your television antenna during a thunderstorm range from 10 million to 1 to 220 million to 1, depending on how many sets there are in your community. So quit worrying!

Remember the famous poem about the purple cow? It ended, "I'd rather see than be one." Actually, the only animal purple in color is the blesbok, a small South African antelope.

America's sweet tooth seems to be getting sweeter. More than 2,000 types of candy are turned out yearly in this country. It's a billion dollar business. Candy made of honey, spices and chopped nuts and fruits was sold in Egypt as early as 1500 B.C.

Women now outnumber men in the United States at the rate of 100 to 98.4. But they can still outtalk them two to one!

Can you name the largest organ of the human body. It's the skin. And, except for the brain, it is perhaps the most complicated.

Consoling fact: despite high prices, the average American can buy nearly three times as much food for an hour's pay as his grandfather could back in 1916.

Infant mortality is still a big problem down on the farm. Twenty-three per cent of all pigs die before they are weaned.

Marital bargain: The owner of the famed Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo., is offering free underground weddings during June. But what couple wants to start with a marriage on the rocks?

Tide Is Turned in Family War on Caterpillars

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — So you've got trouble with tent caterpillars?

The fat little insects are so thick around the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Minnick in nearby Bute that the family had to ask the West Leisenring firemen to come to their rescue. The situation is a little better today.

Firemen went to the Minnick home and used high pressure hoses to wash hundreds of thousands of newly hatched caterpillars from the walls and roof. Members of the family said the bugs were so thick windows were kept closed, and anyone walking out the door was likely to find insects landing on their head and shoulders.

Payless Get $250,000 at State Credit Union

LANSING (AP) — State employes who suffered a payless payday Thursday received nearly $250,000 in interest free loans from their credit union before the agency closed for the weekend.

Lyle Blakely, treasurer-manager of the union, said the rush of loan applicants had cut cash resources to $73,000.

However, he reported half a dozen Detroit area credit unions had offered him interest free loans if needed.

Blakely said his office might have more difficulty servicing loan applicants if state employes miss their next payroll due May 21.

"If we don't have to pay a fee for any money we might have to borrow, we'll continue our interest-free loans," he said. "However, if we have to pay, then we may reconsider our policy and make some sort of a charge for loans."

Steel Talks Go Industrywide

Expect Union Demand for More Pay, Shorter Hours on New Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — Industry-wide steel negotiations open today with the Steelworkers Union expected to demand shorter hours and more pay.

Four-man industry and union teams will attempt to agree on a new contract in time to prevent a strike by a half million steelworkers July 1.

The industrywide talks replace the dozen company sessions held with the union last week.

David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers, said Sunday that unemployment is one of the most important issues. He said he wants employment security to be the first item on the agenda.

"Our view is that the way to achieve this desirable goal," he said, "is a balanced program of reducing hours, increasing purchasing power by improved wages and other benefits, and appropriate revisions in our pensions."

This was the first official indication that shorter hours would be sought. Previously the union had indicated only that it would ask for substantial wage increases.

A published report that the Steelworkers had demanded an immediate average work week of 38 hours at the present 40-hour wage level was denied by R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for management. Cooper, a vice president of U.S. Steel, said he knew nothing of such a demand.

The preliminary talks last week were described as constructive by both sides, who pledged to work hard to reach agreement in the seven weeks before the old contract expires on June 30.

Both sides were clearly poles apart.

State Rights Committee Likely to Dissolve in Fall

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Advisory Committee on Civil Rights will make its final report in September and then probably go out of business.

Chairman Charles E. Wilson said the agency was appointed only to assist the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights headed by Dr. John A. Hannah, Michigan State University president.

The federal commission, Wilson noted, is due to dissolve after reporting its finding to President Eisenhower and Congress.

Honor Those Who Beat It

Recall Blockade of Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Allied leaders gathered here today to honor the men and women who beat the Soviet blockade of West Berlin 10 years ago.

Soviet barriers on the highway-rail corridor to West Germany came down one minute after midnight May 12, 1949. West Berliners planned solemn ceremonies Tuesday to recall the moment.

Because of the new Communist threat against West Berlin, the long-planned anniversary celebration was turned into a new demonstration of Western support for the isolated city.

Guests of honor are 72 relatives —including 15 children — of 31 American and 40 British airmen who died in airlift accidents.

West Berlin newspapers hailed the return of Allied leaders who served in the blockade days. Topping the list were Earl Attlee and Robert Schuman, prime minister of Britain and premier of France at the time.

Their U. S. contemporary, Harry S. Truman, could not make it. Representing the United States were Gen. Lucius D. Clay, then military governor of Germany and now board chairman of the Continental Can Co., and Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley, city commandant then and vice chancellor of New York University now. The airlift commander Lt. Gen. William H. Tunner, was flying here with some of his airlift pilots. Tunner now commands the U. S. Military Transport Service.

Gov. Brown Is Veep Possibility

Could Trade Big Vote of California Delegation for Dem Nomination

By bACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — California's Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown is beginning to get some close attention as a possible 1960 Democratic vice presidential candidate.

Brown's recent indications that he is beginning to take himself seriously in this connection have proved disturbing to some of the more active aspirants for the party's presidential nomination. They would like to annex California's hefty convention vote for themselves.

If Brown can get divergent behind him for a favorite son designation he will be nominally in the race for the presidential nomination himself.

As long as he can keep the California delegation behind him, it won't be able to start a swing toward some major candidate for the top prize. In such a case Brown would be ain a trading position that might make him an attractive candidate for second place.

Vermont, like Texas, was once an independent republic. It came into the United States in 1791.

West and East Bring Own Images of a Reunited Germany to Geneva

By WELLINGTON LONG

BONN, Germany (UPI) — The West and the Soviet Union each insist a reunited Germany should be molded in their own image.

The Big Four Foreign Ministers meeting in Geneva to discuss the German problem on that level for the first time since 1955 will seek to determine whether there is any hope of compromise somewhere between the two poles.

The Germans are in the middle. While they are the people who will be most directly affected by any agreement or disagreement at Geneva, they have the least influence on any decisions to be reached there.

As Germany looks on, these are the issues to be taken up at Geneva:

QUESTION: How is Germany to be reunited?

ANSWER: The Western powers —The U. S., Britain and France— and the West German government believe the nation should be reunited by means of free and secret general elections.

They probably would agree to the establishment of some kind of East-West German group commissioned to try to write an all-German election law and perhaps a second group to try to arrange greater freedom of movement of persons and publications across the East-West German frontiers before elections are held.

But the West German government must remain sovereign until such elections are held.

The Soviet Union says reunification can come about only as the result of a confederation of the existing East and West German government. The Big Four, the Soviets insist, no longer have any responsibility for arranging reunification.

All-German elections must be indefinitely postponed. Khrushchev told visiting West German Socialists recently that he could not approve any elections in which "the 50,000,000 people under the Adenauer regime would impose their majority on the 17,000,000 living in East Germany."

Q: What about a German peace treaty?

A: The Western powers and West Germany say that only the sovereign, freely-elected government of the whole of Germany may negotiate and sign a peace treaty with the victorious powers of World War II.

The Soviet Union proposes that the wartime Allies now sign a peace treaty wtih each of the existing German governments, and has even suggested that some sections of the treaty might be different for each Germany.

Q: What should be the international and military status of a reunited Germany?

A: The Western powers and West Germany believe the government of a reunited Germany must be free to choose its allies, and to join defensive and other alliances.

The Soviet Union argues that a reunited Germany must be forbidden to join any military alliances directed against any of the Allies of the Second World War.

Q: What about Berlin?

A: The Western powers and West Germany say that Berlin's present status should remain unchanged until the nation has been reunited as the result of free elections.

That means that Western troops should remain in West Berlin, with right of unhindered access to the city across East German territory, until that time.

The Soviets say the "occupation status" of West Berlin must end forthwith. Originally, Khrushchev demanded the withdrawal by May 27. of all Western troops in West Berlin.

But during his March visit to East Germany, he modified that slightly to say that "token" units of Western and Soviet plus perhaps some United Nations troops might remain in West Berlin for the time being.

No Soviet troops have been stationed in West Berlin since the war, as there are no Western troops in East Berlin, seat of the Communist East German government.

Q: What should be Germany's future boundaries?

A: The Soviets say that the Oder-Niesse line must remain unchanged. They refer to it as the "peace border."

The former German territories east of this line were placed under "Polish administration" pending the signature of a peace treaty under the terms of the Potsdam agreement. The area includes a total of 40,000 square miles, from which more than 7,000,000 Germans were expelled following the end of World War II.

The Western powers usually have claimed the final disposition of the Oder-Niesse territories must await the negotiations of a peace treaty with an all-German government. But there are differences within the Western camp.

French President Charles de Gaulle said recently he thought Germany's borders should remain unchanged after reunification, and this was interpreted to mean he thought the Oder-Niesse line should be Germany's permanent eastern frontier.

President Eisenhower displayed a map during a recent television speech on the German issue on which the Oder-Niesse territories were shown as part of Poland. The Soviets, and the West Germans, both publicly suspect this was deliberate.

The West German government recognizes that Germany has little, if any chance of regaining the Oder-Niesse lands, but believes it should demand a high price from the Soviets and Poles for formally renouncing its claims.

Showdown Nearing in Optical Bribe Case

LANSING (AP)—Legal machinery is slowly grinding to a showdown in the case of a wealthy Chicago optical firm head found guilty of bribing state officials — an affair that was a sensation three years ago.

Benjamin D. Ritholz, president of King Optical Co., was found guilty of the bribery charge in May 1956.

It was claimed he slipped $100 bills to three members of the State Board of Optometry in an effort to get them to drop charges of unprofessional conduct against a Lansing optometrist.

Maximum sentence on the charge is four years in prison, $5,000 fine or both.

Successive appeals have delayed sentencing. The State Supreme Court said attorneys for Ritholz have until June 4 to file briefs with it on an appeal.

No hearing of the appeal is expected before fall.

...in a road-hugging Wide-Track Pontiac!

You control this car with a vivid sense of security, a new sense of balance. It has a steadier stance because it has a wider track. Its wheels are five inches farther apart. You cling to curves with much less lean. You round corners with much less sway. You drive with a feeling of confidence, security, complete control. This is without a doubt the easiest handling automobile you could possibly choose. Wide-Track design does not widen the car—only the stance. It's the big reason Pontiac is now first in sales in its price class.

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Dotted lines show conventional wheel positions. Pontiac's wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car itself. Pontiac hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean are considerably reduced, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier.

Gail Smith, Actress Bride, to Live in Area

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Barbara Whiting and advertising man Gail Smith, currently honeymooning at an undisclosed location, will take up residence in Bloomfield Hills, Mich., about June 1.

That was the word today from the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Whiting, widow of the late composer. She said her daughter plans to give up her acting career and become a fulltime housewife.

The couple married at Mrs. Whiting's Westwood District home last Thursday night, but the event was kept a family secret until yesterday. The bride was attended by her sister, Singer Margaret Whiting.

Mrs. Whiting said Barbara first met Smith about five years ago and that he at one time represented the sponsor of "The Whiting Girls" television show.

This was the second marriage for Smith 41, and the first for Miss Whiting, 27.

Marie Torre Speaker for Newspaper Women

By RHEA E. VIETOR

"Jail hasn't changed my style of writing," Marie Torre, the New York radio and TV columnist who went to jail recently rather than reveal a news source, told her Detroit audience Saturday. Miss Torre said her 10 days in the Hudson County jail had not changed her approach to her news column, nor had it cost her her sources of information.

The columnist, who has been compared to everyone from Joan of Arc to "those troublemakers in the South," reviewed the events leading up to her imprisonment and said she would do it again if necessary.

SPEAKER AT BREAKFAST

Miss Torre, wife of Hal Friedman, former TV producer, and mother of two children, spoke at the 21st anniversary breakfast of the Detroit Chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national fraternity for women in journalism.

Her troubles began when she quoted a CBS executive's comments about Judy Garland. The singing star subsequently sued CBS for $1,300,000. Miss Torre said that although she had received flowers, cards and gifts from thousands of people during her stay in jail, she never heard a word from the executive in question.

"I have seen him once since my release," she said, and he gave me a big hug and a kiss. No, I haven't asked him for any more news."

She said that the jail was in many respects like a women's dormitory and the worst part was the "psychological aspect of being behind bars." "The jail was on a busy street," she said, "and it was hard to hear the sounds of traffic and people laughing, and know that you couldn't get out."

As for going back to prison, Miss Torre feels that because of the weight of public opinion she will not be imprisoned again, although the possibility remains when Miss Garland's suit against CBS goes into court.

AWARD GIVEN

The chapter's annual "Headliner" award was presented to Vera Brown, Detroit Times reporter and columnist, for her 41 years of "outstanding work" in Detroit.

Charlotte Hyams, Wayne State University junior, was named winner of the Lucy Corbett scholarship which was being awarded for the first time.

About 350 women assembled at the Hotel Sheraton-Cadillac for the annual event.

Keeps You Young

No Age Limit to Learning

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

There should be no age limit to learning, to trying new fields of activity and interest. The idea that we are through studying when we finish school is a deadening one. If life is to remain interesting and adventurous, we should keep learning all our lives, through study as well as observation and experience.

Adult education is doing wonderful work in many parts of the country. This can mean a great deal to the mature man or woman.

We all realize what a jolt retirement is to many men. We sometimes forget that it comes in a different form to a woman when her children leave home. It is best to begin preparing for retirement, or for the time when the children will leave home, long before that time arrives. If you have not done this, you still will be able to discover new fields of endeavor and interest, but it is much better to have some interest outside of your regular work firmly established ahead of time.

Retirement should not mean leisure alone. Time which is not filled with some work and some interesting activities just becomes time on your hands, not appealing leisure.

Just to give you an idea of the variety in adult education which is offered in one progressive city, read this list: athletics and recreation, typing, sewing and pattern study, Shakespeare, leathercraft, oil painting, sight singing, Spanish, public speaking, wood work, radio repair, cooking, psychology, current events, bridge, motion picture photography, swimming, modern dance, dressmaking, bookkeeping, home catering auto maintenance, crocheting, knitting, child psychology, journalism, music appreciation, X-ray and human anatomy, ceramics, interior decoration, household electrical appliances acting techniques, radio acting, puppetry, drawing and composition, producing, recording, business mechanics. On and on it goes.

If you do not have a department of adult education in your town or city, you could do yourself and others a good turn by talking with your board of education about establishing one.

YOUR STYLING
by Rowena Wilson

There won't be a "look" this season, at least not for hair styles. It's every woman for herself. Creators of coifs have finally discarded the custom of giving every woman a version of a single hairdo. The one-for-all vogue has now flipped into what could be called free-form in the hair style world. Remember it takes the experience of a professional hair stylist to create your new "do."

Your coif plays a very important part in your appearance. It should be arranged to suit your own personality. Benefit by our know-how with an early appointment at Rowena's Beauty Salon, 4831 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains, OR 3-3541. 14 S. Main Street, Clarkston, MA 5-1000. 1216 Baldwin, Pontiac, FE 5-3735.

Dear Abby . . .

Shadow on Wedding Anniversary

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: To you this letter might sound ridiculous, but to me—well, it's driving me crazy. How does one go about celebrating an anniversary when, if you give the correct date, your friends will find out that you had to get married? I have been married for 19 years and will soon have a 20th anniversary. Should I celebrate our anniversary two months sooner, or should I add a year? It seems like my conscience is bothering me more all the time. Please, please give me a solution as I don't want our friends and children to know.

ABBY

A DEVOTED READER

DEAR READER: If you knew how many people had the same problem, you wouldn't think it was so "ridiculous." Simply say you were married in 1938, and celebrate on your actual wedding day. Good luck.

DEAR ABBY: I don't know about the others, but I was in Dallas in 1920 and Ginger Rogers won a Charleston contest at the Old Jefferson Theater on Elm, just west of Stone Street. She was 18 years old then. In my book that makes her 57! WISE GUY

DEAR WISE GUY: According to the World Almanac Ginger Rogers was born in 1911. You need a new book.

DEAR ABBY: I play cards at a friend's home frequently and it's gotten so that I dread going there. Here's the reason: Her husband is always home and he stands behind me and watches me play. I don't know why he never stands behind anyone else. Just me. He never says a word but I can feel his eyes on my cards and his breath on my neck and I just want to scream. It has affected my game so that I always lose over there. I haven't the nerve to say anything. Would you tell him in a nice way that he makes you nervous, or isn't there a nice way? NERVOUS

DEAR NERVOUS: Lay your cards on the table and tell this "watcher" that it befuddles you to be watched while playing cards. Be sure to smile when you say it — and watch him smile when he moves.

DEAR ABBY: I am going steady with a boy who is my age (17) and if I weren't so nuts about him, I'd drop him. Last Sunday afternoon he said he'd be over. I waited all afternoon and he never showed up. About five o'clock I saw him riding around with some boys and when he saw me he slid down in the seat so I wouldn't see him, but he got up too fast. The next day at school he didn't even make an excuse for not coming over. He just said he "forgot." Can a boy forget a girl he says he is in love with? STOOD UP

DEAR STOOD UP: He says he's "in love," but at his age he is only capable of a diluted variety, called "puppy love." Puppy-lovers say a lot of things that eventually land them in the doghouse. Don't take him seriously. He's got a lot of growing up to do.

Tot 'n' Toothbrush

The small "ten-cent-store" size tube of toothpaste, reserved exclusively for the use of a small child, gives added incentive for regular brushing of teeth, which dentists say should begin as early as possible. Permanent teeth begin to come in at six, and good brushing habits must be established before that.

Ladder Won't Slip

Nail a rubber shoe heel to the bottom of each leg of your ladder; then it will not slip or mar floors and is much safer for climbing.

When Others Are Waiting Leave Table

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I dine out quite frequently. There are only two really good eating places in town and they are always crowded. Very often we will have to wait for a table. I don't mind this too much as the food is really delicious and worth waiting for.

"But I do get very annoyed when people who have finished eating just sit at the table talking and smoking instead of leaving promptly to make room for others who are waiting. Don't you agree, Mrs. Post, that such behavior is most inconsiderate and very bad manners?"

Answer: If they see that there are people waiting for their table, it is most certainly inconsiderate to occupy it longer than necessary to finish their dinner.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Quite a few of my girl friends have become engaged recently and have given their fiances engagement presents. I had never heard of this before. Is this something new, or has this always been customary? The reason I am interested is because I am going to announce my engagement very soon and would like to buy my fiance a present if this is customary."

Answer: It is not obligatory, or even customary, for a girl to give her fiance an engagement present; but there is no impropriety in her doing so if she would like to.

Churchill Back in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill returned home today from what may have been his last visit to America.

Smiling and spruce in a homburg and gray suit with a red rose in his lapel, the British statesman was greeted at the airport by his wife, who kissed him on both cheeks.

U. S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney also came out to welcome Churchill home.

Sir Winston was misty-eyed Sunday night as he boarded the British jetliner at New York's Idlewild Airport.

Not far away, in Brooklyn, is a remodelled brownstone house where his mother was born.

This was Churchill's ninth visit to the United States since the first dark days of World War II.

Churchill, 84 and ailing, paused at the ramp as he boarded the plane, and delivered a brief message. Then he waved his black homburg at the crowd of several hundred gathered to see him off.

Churchill spent seven days in New York and Washington. Here he stayed with an old friend, financier Bernard Baruch, four years his senior.

A crowd of several hundred gathered outside Baruch's home, just off Central Park in mid-Manhattan for a glimpse of Churchill.

Churchill smiled as a cheer went up when he came out. There were shouts of "Hurray for Winnie," and "Good luck to you.'

He bowed slightly and lifted his right hand in his "V forVictory" sign.

'Will They Have Me?'

LONDON (AP)—The Shah of Iran took note Friday of speculation that he is seeking his third wife. Speaking to a luncheon of the Foreign Press Assn. during a visit to England, he commented: "People keep asking: 'Will the Shah take a wife?' The question is: 'Will they have me?"

President Woodrow Wilson made his noted "The Fourteen Points" speech before the U.S. Congress on Jan. 8, 1918.

TIVERTON, England (UPI)—It was just like old times, the villagers agreed today. Billy Wallace, one of Princess Margaret's oldest friends, was back in circulation again after a long illness.

Delegates at Panama to Take Initial Action on Common Setup

PANAMA (AP) — A conference opening here today is expected to take the first definite steps toward the creation of a Latin-American common market.

The United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America in a two-week session will explore all aspects of the idea that a common market could boost prosperity by freeing trade.

Thirty-two nations are presented by 250 delegates and bbservers. Besides the 20 Lttin-American republics, they include the United States, Britain, France and the Netherlands. The Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Spain, Italy, West Germany and Belgium have sent observers.

The commission is known as CEPAL, the initials of the commission's name in Spanish.

Chevy pickup pulls through "bottomless" pastures to keep stock fed!

At the Hall Bros. Dairy Farm, Montgomery, Ala., they say this 4-wheel drive Chevy will go anywhere to keep stock fed—even through hub-deep muck that makes it a fight all the way. And yet after a full year of it—no mechanical trouble of any kind!

That Chevy pickup may not win any beauty awards (till it's cleaned up). But it's sure walking off with the top prize for dependability. And that's standard Chevrolet procedure. Put a Chevy truck to work and it keeps on working until you say quit. Not before.

We aren't claiming that every Chevrolet truck is turning out to be a miracle-worker and averaging 100,000 miles before a valve job. (Even though some are going 150,000!) You're sure to find, however, that you can't buy more truck dependability at any price. And that's borne out by the fact that more truck owners put their faith, and their payloads, in Chevrolets than in any other make.

Take your load and schedule figures to your Chevrolet dealer. He'll specify the best way to handle both and save in the bargain.

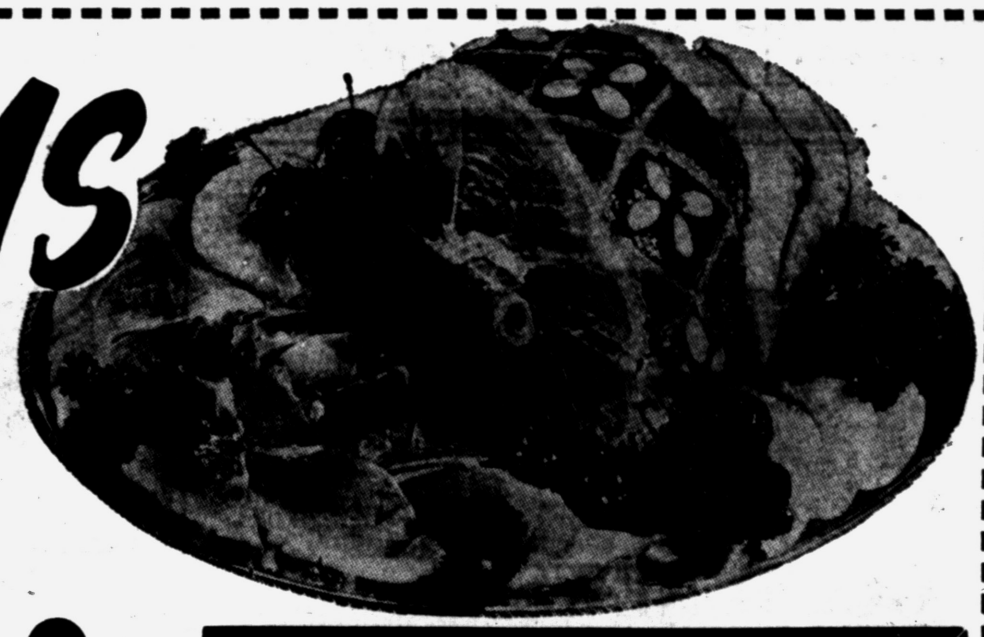

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck! CHEVROLET

Now's the time—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for a real truck buy!

Herter 'to Start' for West

'Play Ball' at Geneva Today

By DAVID L. BOWEN
AP Feature Writer

Today the foreign ministers of the Soviet Union, France, Great Britain and the United States will be meeting to try to do something about the Berlin crisis.

For as long as it takes to reach an agreement—or long enough to demonstrate an agreement is impossible — the diplomatic chiefs will convene and adjourn, with each session setting off its own flurry of bulletins, headlines, interpretations.

Here's an easily read Geneva Conference scorecard:

PLAYERS

FOR THE WEST: Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is making his first start against the Russians as top foreign policy spokesman for the United States. Others on the Western team are British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

The Western team has not announced a captain. When John Foster Dulles held the top U. S. job, his prestige made him captain automatically.

During his illness, the British looked upon themselves as the prime mover in the Western camp and the West agreed to the Geneva meeting mainly because of British prodding.

But judging from results of the West's preliminary huddle in Paris last week, West Germany and France are more inclined to follow Herter's lead than Lloyd's.

FOR THE EAST: Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will represent the Communists. Unlike any of his counterparts on the Western side, he will have absolute control of all moves from his side of the table.

OBJECT OF THE GAME

Diplomacy is a complicated sport, and one of its cardinal rules is not to let the other fellow know what you're up to. This increases the natural difficulty a layman has in keeping his eye on the ball. However, here are descriptions of what is assumed to be the primary motives of each side.

EASTERN AIM: The Communists are being hurt by the "window of democracy" that free and prosperous West Berlin provides in the heart of East Germany. The 300 refugees a day who use it as an escape route also are making a serious drain on East German manpower.

Under present agreements, the Reds can't seal the border between East and West Berlin. Russia wants the status of Berlin changed, and wants to write the changes in a German peace treaty making permanent the division of Germany.

If the West doesn't show signs of cooperation, Premier Khrushchev has threatened to sign a unilateral peace treaty with East Germany that he says will supercede the wartime guarantees the West got for access to isolated West Berlin. The danger of World War III starting over the Berlin crisis stems from this threatened loss of Western access rights to Berlin.

WESTERN AIM: Western spokesmen say they are willing to consider changes in the status of Berlin, but they point out the problem is that of a divided Germany, and the problem of a divided Germany, in turn, in the problem of a Europe split by the Iron Curtain.

The small problems, some say, cannot be solved before solutions are found for the big ones.

From the Western standpoint, the ideal solution of the Berlin problem would be to reunite West and East Germany with free elections and make Berlin its capital.

Since it is generally conceded that free elections would end Communist control in East Germany, Gromyko is not likely to go along. In any compromise, an overriding Western concern is to make no move that would weaken its ability to protect the 2,288,500 West Berliners living on an island of freedom in a Communist sea.

GROUND RULES

History demonstrates that foreign ministers can make their own rules, and follow the other man's only when it's advantageous. It can be assumed that in this contest, Gromyko will do his best to encourage division among his opponents.

Western disunity at the conference table would not only pay Russia dividends at Geneva, but might cause lasting damage to the Western alliance.

As another example of how devious diplomatic maneuvering can be, some have suggested that Russia's main purpose in bringing about the Berlin crisis and this meeting is simply to distract Western attention from the lengthening Communist shadow in the Middle East.

SCORING

Each foreign minister at Geneva will be his own scorekeeper. Normally, all parties claim victory whatever the outcome. Assuming neither side intends to give away anything, the closest thing to measurable victory is likely to be the general impression made on that illusive force called world public opinion. Before that audience, both sides wish to appear reasonable, fair and just.

Thus in the end, it probably will be individual citizens of the world who decide which side comes away victorious from Geneva.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

SCENE OF SHOOTING — It was behind this house on the shore of the upper end of Lakeville Lake that John H. Phillips, 63, was found shot three times Saturday afternoon. His daughter, Mrs. Jean Madary, 32, has admitted the shooting, according to Romeo State Police, saying that her father was always picking on her two sons and telling her how to run the house. Mrs. Madary's husband was already in jail after being arrested May 5 following a fight with his father-in-law.

Woman Jailed After Climaxing Week-Long Feud With Rifle

By LEE WINBORN

ADDISON TOWNSHIP—A 33-year-old mother of two small sons is in Oakland County Jail today charged with assault to commit murder in the shooting of her father Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jean Madary, of 301 Rockwood St., has admitted she shot her father, John H. Phillips, 62, three times with a .22 caliber rifle because he scolded one of her sons.

Mrs. Madary was arrested shortly after the shooting by Romeo State Police Trooper Paul Uerling who was called to the Madary's lakeside home by a neighbor, Roman Klosowski, of 129 Rockwood St.

Klosowski said Mrs. Madary came to his house and handed him the gun saying, "Please do something," and that she had just shot her father.

Phillips, who lived with the Madarys, was found on the grassy slope of Lakeville Lake with wounds in both arms and the lower back. He was taken to the Community Hospital near Almont where he was reported in fair condition today.

The shooting climaxed a family argument which started a week ago and ended in the jailing of Mrs. Madary's husband, Donald. He was arrested May 5 for drinking and for allegedly beating up his father-in-law.

Madary was charged with violation of parole.

When questioned by Romeo State Police Detective Paul Brabant and Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Anthony Renne, Mrs. Madary said she shot her father because he was always picking on her children and trying to tell her how to run the house.

'HOLLERING . . . SHOUTING'

Mrs. Madary said she was washing clothes when she heard her father "hollering" at her seven-year-old son, Danny, "for throwing stones in the lake." A short time later, she said, she heard her father shouting at the boy again for not taking care of some fish poles.

The young mother who has another son, Donald Jr., 2, went out and told her father to leave the children alone, she told police. She added that she accused her father of picking on them because their father wasn't home.

Telling her father he must pack and leave by the first of June, she sent Danny to bed.

Mrs. Madary told police she went back into the house to get the gun, came out and shot twice into the woods.

"That's what I'm going to do to you. You're responsible for Don's being in jail," she said she told her father in her statement made after the shooting.

Then Mrs. Madary shot Phillips, and when he started to rise she shot him again, she said. She walked to Klosowski's house and told him what had happened; then walked back to her home and calmly began feeding her son, Donald.

SUSPECTS LETTER

When questioned at the hospital, Phillips told police that after his daughter shot him the first time, she told him the next one would be in the heart.

Phillips said that he thought Mrs. Madary had received a letter from her husband that day that had turned her against him.

The two youngsters were taken to the Oakland County Juvenile Home to stay while both parents are in jail.

Defense May Ask Dismissal

Shelby Car Track Plaintiffs Rest Case

SHELBY TOWNSHIP—The counsels for the group of township homeowners have completed their examination of witnesses and rested their case in the automobile race track trial which is scheduled to resume in Macomb County Circuit Court May 21.

The next move is up to the attorneys for the defense. A motion for dismissal has been suggested as a possibility when the case gets under way again.

The homeowners' bill of complaint charges that the township acted "illegally" in rezoning the Curtiss-Wright Corp. property here for a track that would rival the Indianapolis Speedway. The corporation is a "party" defendant in the suit.

On the stand Friday were former Township Clerk George Kullmann, in office when the rezoning action was taken; Gene Pini, Township Zoning Board member and Duane Clark, treasurer of the Shelby Homeowners Council, an organization also listed as a plaintiff in the case.

WILL INCREASE REVENUE

Pini said he didn't know how the proposed track would improve the safety, sanitation and morals of the township.

He did agree, however, that it would bring increased revenue to commercial enterprises here.

In their bill of complaint, the homeowners claim that the proposed track would constitute improper use of land.

They add that the increase in congestion on public roads near the track would "aggravate hazards to life and property."

Kullmann reported that a tape recording had been made of the Zoning Board's public hearing last May 23. An advisory vote on the amended ordinance subsequently passed last November.

Before admitting the 3½-hour recording in evidence, Judge Howard R. Carroll said he would listen to it over the weekend to see if the speakers can be identified and also if it is clear enough to merit consideration.

Clark presented measurements he had taken of several narrow bridges and roads near the proposed track.

NO ENGINEERING TRAINING

Under cross examination he admitted he had no training that would make him an engineering authority.

Miss Dee Edwards, an attorney for the plaintiff, rested her case. Then she asked what kind of a motion the defense lawyers would make.

They contended that they might ask for dismissal.

Nation's Fourth Largest Factory Center

'F.O.B. Detroit' Is World Byword

(This is the 14th in a series of articles on Michigan's industrial and cultural achievements written by Michigan newsmen as an introduction to Michigan Week 17-23.)

By JOHN R. STEWART
Research Director, Greater Detroit Board of Commerce

DETROIT—The automobile industry, mass production and Detroit are synonymous in the minds of people throughout the world.

Mass production made it possible for automobile manufacturing, during the first half of the 20th century, to record the fastest rate of growth ever experienced by a major industry. This growth reached its zenith in 1955 when nine years of catching up with postwar demands culminated in an output of 9,169,000 cars and trucks from U.S. plants.

Detroit's dependence on the automobile industry reached its postwar maximum in 1949-1950 when 53 per cent of all manufacturing employes in the area were in factories making motor vehicles and equipment. By 1957, the proportion of all manufacturing employment represented by automobile making had declined to 47 per cent.

These changes resulted in part from a decline in automobile manufacturing employment but mostly from a large increase in non-manufacturing employment and a substantial rise in manufacturing employment other than that in automobile plants.

Over the past decade, non-manufacturing employment in the Detroit area has increased 25 per cent while manufacturing employment, exclusive of automotive, has risen 12 per cent. In numbers, non-manufacturing employment rose 140,000 and non-automotive manufacturing increased 33,000, while the count of self-employed rose 10,000 between 1949 and 1957. Offsetting this 183,000 increase, employment in Detroit's automobile factories declined by 35,000, bringing the net gain down to 148,000 over that period.

Although part of Detroit's lag in automotive jobs in recent years can be attributed to mergers which closed some local plants and to the fact that a higher than normal proportion of new plants have been built outside the area, probably most of the declining importance of the industry in this area has been due to a nationwide postwar trend.

The end of World War II found the nation hungry for a wide variety of goods whose manufacture had been restricted or prohibited during the war. The key problem of most automobile manufacturers in early postwar years was how to to get out enough cars to meet the demand. Cost problems were secondary; employment was high in relation to output. With the return to a buyer's market and the spread of automation, this surplus employment was eliminated.

In Detroit and Wayne County, where motor vehicle and equipment manufacturing accounts for about one-half of all factory employment, these fluctuations in the number of automobile workers have substantially affected both employment totals and the proportion of the total represented by automobile manufacturing.

Detroit's tremendous volume of manufacturing other than automotive can be illustrated best, perhaps, by a comparison of non-automotive manufacturing jobs in this area with total manufacturing employment in other large industrial centers. In 1957, there were 309,000 persons employed in Detroit factories other than those making motor vehicles and equipment. This figure was practically equal to the Cleveland area total and within 9 per cent of the Pittsburgh total for all manufacturing.

Despite recent declines, Detroit still accounts for over one-third of the nation's automobile workers and leads Cleveland, the next most important area, by about 10 to 1. In addition to its pre-eminence in the making of motor vehicles and parts, Detroit holds firm leadership in many other important manufacturing industries.

This area's second most important group, metalworking machinery, employs 16 per cent of all productionw orkers in this industry, or well over twice as many as in the second-place Chicago area. Output from its iron and steel foundries, its cutlery, tools and hardware factories and its inorganic chemicals plants exceeds that of corresponding factories in any other area.

The Detroit area ranks second only to the geographically much larger New York area in production of drugs and medicines and also in output from its non-ferrous rolling and drawing mills. It is second only to Akron in production of tires and tubes. Blast furnaces and steel mills and metal stamping and coating plants rank third and fourth, respectively, among Detroit industries but their rank among like plants in other United States areas is lower than for the previously listed industries.

Together with automobile manufacturing, these diversified products have made Detroit one of the world's greatest industrial centers as measured by factory jobs per capita. Detroit has highly skilled labor, unexcelled engineers and technicians, the best in metalworking research personnel and efficient management.

Combined with nearness to market, plentiful raw materials and low-cost water transportation, they make this area the nation's fourth largest manufacturing center, and "F. O. B. Detroit" is a by-word around the world.

Won't Tolerate Abuse, Says Robbins

Council Will Air Pond Issue

MILFORD — Scenic ponds versus taxable real estate is the controversial issue to be discussed at tonight's council meeting.

Business tycoon James Robbins will be present to answer questions as to why he drained three scenic ponds in the heart of Milford, and what he intends to do with them.

In a letter to both Council President Joseph Gerrard and Village Manager Oliver Taylor, Robbins politely warned officials that he will not tolerate any verbal abuse of himself from those present.

He added that often public hearings develop into unruly verbal abuse of those involved and "If this happens I shall be obliged to leave the meeting."

INSURANCE REPORTS

Robbins maintains that the reason for opening the floodgates on four Ford-created mill ponds, was so that insurance inspectors could report on the condition of the 25-year-old dams.

He also stated that it costs his Milford company approximately $10,000 annually for maintenance and operation of the dams, and there is no profit from this expenditure.

A development company wants to fill part of the Robbins pond property and construct a complete shopping center.

Council members have stalled the past eight months on rezoning the land from heavy industrial to commercial for the shopping center project, because they claim industrial property is scarce and they would rather see new industry move in

In general, old-timers would like to see the ponds located just off Main street restored, and newcomers want the shopping center.

Ask Churches to Bust Racial Job Barriers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower's committee on government contracts called on 500 church leaders today to use "moral persuasion" in their congregations to break down racial discrimination by employers.

Speaking for the committee, New York City investment banker John A. Roosevelt told the clergymen at a day-long conference, "you can focus public attention in your communities on the moral commitment of each citizen to assure all Americans unrestricted access to jobs in keeping with their aptitudes and abilities."

Roosevelt, son of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt, also told the religious leaders they could play "a memorable and inspiring role" by counseling negro and other minority-group youths to train themselves adequately for skilled jobs.

He said the church officials, representing 22 major denominations, further should tell employers 'that many firms are changing their previous discriminatory employment practices."

Township Board to Act on Plans of Zoning Unit

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — At tonight's regular Township Board meeting, members are expected to take action on several Zoning Board recommendations and on appointments of township personnel for the coming year.

The Zoning Board will recommend rezoning of property on Churchill road in Auburn Heights from residential to commercial for a dental clinic.

An additional recommendation will be that the rest of the west side of Churchill road up to the curve be zoned commercial.

The Zoning Board will also recommend that the current practice of notifying persons living within 1,000 feet of property to be rezoned be discontinued.

Among appointments to be made are one member each to the Pontiac-Avon Township Regional Planning Commission and to the Pontiac Township Zoning Board.

Area Engineers to Meet in Birmingham Tuesday

The Oakland County Engineering Society will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Birmingham Community House.

B. B. Bender, production engineer for the Chrysler Missile Division, will present a film of the firing of the first Explorer satellite missile. He also will discuss the latest developments in guided missile production.

Macomb Jury Gets Romeo School Suit

ROMEO—A $50,000 damage suit which Robert J. West, a Detroit architect, has filed against the Romeo Community Schools Board of Education goes to jury trial in Macomb County Circuit Court tomorrow.

West is the architect who worked with the Romeo Board on original plans for a new high school almost three years ago.

Business connections between the school officials and West were severed after bids for the proposed school amounted to approximately $250,000 over the architect's estimate.

Subsequently, the Board entered into a contract with Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc., Detroit architects, who directed the planning and construction of the new high school which opened here last September.

West filed his suit in the fall of 1957.

Nazi POW Gives Up 14 Years After Flight

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Authorities today pondered what to do with a former World Warr II officer in the German army who gave himself up 14 years after his flight from a North Carolina prisoner of war camp because he was "tired of running."

Lt. Kurt Frank Rossmeisl, 52, who fled a POW wood gathering detail at Camp Butner, N.C. Aug. 4, 1952, by pushing a wheelbarrow containing his belongings past a gate guard, surrendered to the FBI here yesterday.

One of three hard-core Nazis unaccounted for after World War II POW escapes, Rossmeisl had been a member of Rommel's crack 10th Panzer Corps.

Mason said the former soldier from Bruz, Chechoslovakia had "a bad case of arthritis," and was "broke and pressed by creditors and worried about being arrested."

Rossmeisl told authorities he did not try to contact his wife, Anna Lee, or daughter, after he fled the North Carolina camp because he did not know where they were living. He said he made no effort to marry in this country.

The league said a canvass of 4,341 playgoers showed that 3,449 favored the 7:30 curtain and 892 opposed it.

Tigers Set Sights on Eastern Trip After Mopping Up A's

Detroit Turns to Homer Power for 7-6 Triumph

Rocky Bridges Clouts First; Maxwell, Berberet Also Hit for Circuit

DETROIT (UPI)—Mr. "Fixit" Jimmie Dykes, two of his leading question marks straightened out, has his sights set on the East today after mopping up the Kansas City Athletics in three straight games.

Rocky Bridges' first homer of the season, a solo blast in the sixth, made Paul Foytack a winner for the first time this season although Foytack was rapped for a pair of homers by Roger Maris who drove in five runs with his sixth and seventh clouts of the season.

However, homers by Charlie Maxwell with two on and Lou Berberet's bases-empty homer offset the damage done by Maris and Detroit took a 7-6 victory.

Foytack and Ray Narleski were two of the main problems confronting the balding Dykes when he took over the ailing Tigers. Foytack, best pitcher in spring training, was shelled like a batting practice pitcher. Narleski worked in five of the first six games and the toil told when he lost his effectiveness and was bombed every time he went out.

But then Dykes had a talk with the two pitchers.

"I told them to forget everything that had happened before. There was nothing they could do now to wipe that out so they might as well relax and concentrate on the future," Dykes said.

Even though Foytack blew a 4-0 lead Wednesday and lost to Boston — the only defeat in eight starts under Dykes — the new manager said he would stick with the bad throwing right hander because he pitched "real good ball" for five innings.

It looked like Dykes' talk might not have worked on Foytack at the start of yesterday's game. The A's raced to a 3-0 lead after two innings before Detroit came back, as Saturday, and tied it in the third on Maxwell's sixth homer and went ahead on Berberet's in the fourth.

Detroit went up 6-3 in the fifth on two singles, an error, a walk and two wild pitches by reliefer Bud Daley and then Bridges provided the winning margin in the sixth.

Foytack faltered in the muggy weather in the eighth yielding a double to Wayne Terwilliger. He hit Hal Smith and then Maris homered.

"If Maris would have just singled I would not have taken him out," Dykes said. "I told Foytack afterward that he was dead tired and he admitted it. Why they tell me that's the longest he's gone in more than a month. He pitched real good ball again in the middle innings. He'll be all right."

Dykes brought in Narleski when Foytack left and the former Cleveland ace showed his old zip for the second time in three days when he fanned three men in two innings and didn't give up a hit.

"That makes a whale of a difference in a ball club," Dykes said. "When they know that here comes a guy who can stop the older team when you've got a one or two run lead.

"Now if we can keep this up on the road, there's no telling what this club will do," said a very satisfied Mr. Fixit.

Chisox Whip Indians Twice

By The Associated Press

Billy Pierce and Early Wynn, a pair of route-going pitchers in an era of relief-happy managers, have moved the Chicago White Sox within striking distance of the American League lead.

Although Pierce gave up 13 hits, he went all the way for the White Sox to beat Cleveland 5-4 in 11 innings yesterday, winning on a single by Bubba Phillips, who had tied the score with an eighth-inning homer.

Wynn, a 39-year-old professional, completed the job on the league-leading Indians with a four-hit 5-0 shutout. The Sox backed him up with a 13-hit attack including Del Ennis' first American League homer.

The New York Yankees proved they are not quite ready for burial by taking a pair from Washington 6-3 and 3-2, the second in 10 innings.

The Boston Red Sox also did their bit to tighten up the American League race, grabbing two from high-flying Baltimore 3-2 in 10 innings and 5-1. Don Buddin's first home run won the opener for Leo Kiely. Frank Baumann's three-run triple and six-hit pitching did the heavy work in the second.

As the Western teams head East for their first extended road trip, the distance from top to bottom in the league is only 6½ games.

Things are tight in the National League, too, where Milwaukee recaptured the lead from Cincinnati by downing the Reds twice, 12-4 and 2-1. Los Angeles eased into second, a half game back, by shading San Francisco 3-2 on some effective relief pitching by Clem Labine.

The White Sox continued to torment the Indians whom they have beaten six times in eight starts. As a result, Chicago is only 1½ games out of first place.

Pinch hitter Billy Goodman drove in the tying run in the White Sox 11th after Cleveland had scored once. Phillips then singled home the winner to give Pierce the edge over Dick Brodowski.

Ryne Duren had to put down a ninth inning uprising at Yankee Stadium to save Whitey Ford in the first game. The Senators had scored twice and had two on with nobody out when Duren took over. He blew down the next three.

Buddin's 10th inning homer sealed the first victory for relief man Kiely of Boston. Baumann's triple led the second game attack that also included a homer by Frank Malzone. Jack Harshman and Hec Brown were the losers.

'I Want No Guff' — Dykes

DETROIT (AP) — Jimmie Dykes will take no guff from his Detroit Tiger players.

He will fine them, if necessary, but will not make it public. He will criticize a player, but not openly.

"I don't know how many victories I'll get out of this club," said Dykes, "but I'd better get 100 per cent effort from every player."

Though he has had the club only a week, Dykes has told the team some things it should—and better—remember.

"You can question my judgment anytime," he has told them, "but you can never question my authority." We will win as a team, or we won't win. And let's not concentrate on one club more than the other. You can't beat the Yankees, then let down against the so-called lesser clubs."

St. Clement took over 2nd place in the Suburban Catholic baseball loop Sunday by downing St. Benedict, 3-1.

Pontiac Latinos Win Opening Loop Tilts

Both Pontiac members of the 5-team Latin American Baseball League came through with victories Sunday, as the circuit opened its 1959 season.

Los Mayas banged 10 hits for 8 runs against the 1958 champion Port Huron club's 6 runs. Chito Bellisario led the attack with a standup double and pair of singles. Aztecas invaded Mt. Clemens for an 8-1 win, also getting 10 hits while holding Mt. Clemens to a lone safety.

The Pontiac clubs collide in next weekend's feature game.

League officers for 1959 are, president, Armando Lemus, and secretary-treasurer, Jesse Villereal.

Detroit Scots Win 3-1 Game

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Detroit's St. Andrew Scots took a two-point lead over Pittsburgh's Harmarville Hurricanes Sunday in the eastern quarter final for the National Amateur Soccer cup.

The Scots defeated the Hurricanes 3-1 in the first of a home-and-home series. The eastern semi-finalist will be decided on total goals in the two games, however, rather than the number of games.

The Scots scored two quick goals in the early minutes of the second half and then added an insurance goal later in the period to win after spotting the Hurricanes a 1-0 lead that held up through the first half.

The final game of the series will be played May 24 at Detroit.

Aaron, Mathews Lead Braves Back to 1st

By The Associated Press

The Milwaukee Braves are riding high again with Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews cutting a wide path through the National League.

Aaron's .485 average is the best in the majors and his 49 hits are high for both leagues. Mathews tops the big show with 11 home runs and 27 runs scored.

The explosive punch of this pair is the main reason for Milwaukee's first place status. The Braves resumed the lead Sunday by taking a pair from Cincinnati which had moved out front late Saturday.

The Braves scored seven runs in the eighth, after Don Newcome left, in the 12-4 opener in which Mathews hit No. 11 and a pair of singles.

Aaron broke up the 2-1 second game with a tie-snapping single in the ninth. It was his fifth hit of a busy afternoon. He has hit in 16 straight games and in 23 of the Braves' 24 games, including a tie.

Los Angeles climbed into second place on a 3-2 victory over San Francisco, made possible by Clem Labine's second game-saving job in two days. Labine turned in two scoreless innings, preserving Johnny Podres' fourth victory.

The Phillies and Pirates ran afoul of that Sunday curfew rule in Pittsburgh. After the Phils handed Bob Friend his sixth straight defeat 6-3 in the opener, the Pirates had opened up a 6-4 lead on Smoky Burgess' hitting when curfew sounded. They were in the last of the eighth, so the game must be completed July 21 before it goes into the standings.

Downtrodden St. Louis finally won a series, splitting two with Chicago for a 3-2 edge in a five-game series. Although Bobby Thomson hit two homers and drove in six runs, it took an 11th inning homer by Earl Averill to give the Cubs a 10-9 edge in the opener. Gino Cimoli, who had a big hitting day, teamed up with Curt Flood in some ninth inning heroics to give St. Louis the second 8-7.

ATHLETIC SMOTHERED — Bill Tuttle of Kansas City is smothered at third base by Tiger Eddie Yost who took a throw from shortstop Rocky Bridges in the 5th inning yesterday. Tuttle tried to get to third on Hal Smith's grounder. The Tigers won the game, 7-6.

Big Problem Is at Quarterback for Bump Elliott

Wolverines' New Coach Depends on Sophs for Help Next Season

ANN ARBOR — Head coach Bump Elliott said the annual spring scrimmage of the University of Michigan football team provided no particular surprises.

The White team squeaked past the Blue team, 22-21 on two fourth period touchdowns.

Elliott said he wished spring practice could have lasted longer than its allotted 20 days

Twenty days usually is long enough "but we're just beginning to jell into a fair football team; we're just ready to progress and learn things," Elliott said.

Elliott said after the game that the quarterback spot continues to be one of the many worries plaguing Michigan. He said he would have to count on sophomores for depth this season, "whether we like it or not."

The Blue team scored first on a quarterback sneak by freshman John Stamos of Chicago. The Blues built up a 14-0 first period lead when Dennis Fitzgerald, another newcomer, scored on a 34-yard run.

Tom De Massa blocked a Fitzgerald punt, setting up the first White score by Ron Spacht in the second period.

Robert Brown scored on a 17-yard run to give the Blues their third touchdown in the second period.

EAST LANSING — Coach Duffy Daugherty says his Spartans "were not up to par" in Saturday's inter-squad game, won by the Greens, 26-7, against the Whites.

"But I wasn't dissatisfied with the performance," Daugherty added.

The Spartan mentor said the squad will be pointing for next Saturday's Old Timer game.

"The spirit of the squad will naturally improve in the game against the Old Timers," Duffy said.

The Green squad was led by Tom Wilson's passing and Blanche Martin's steady runs.

Wilson turned the right end in the second period for three yards and the first score of the game. Martin scored twice for the Greens in the third period on passes of 5 and 24 yards.

The lone White touchdown in the final period was set up on a 45-yard pass from Leroy Loudermilk to Barry Zindel. Bob Ricucci plunged the last two yards for the score.

Only Two Boats Finish PYC Race in Gusty Winds

Pontiac Yacht Club opened its Lightning class sailing season yesterday with only two skippers out of 12 starters able to finish the race in strong winds.

Three boats capsized in the heavy gusts but there were no injuries or serious damages to the yachts.

Clarence Holman, with his wife Betty and Mack Goodwin as the crew, finished first with Claude Bennett, and his crew of Claudia Bennett and Dr. Leo Wassenberger, finishing second.

This was the first of the regular season races scheduled for the summer with events on Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday evenings on Cass Lake.

Starts Umpire Career

Steve Ryeson, the former local athlete who switched to umpiring, leaves tomorrow for his 1st professional assignment as an arbiter in the Class D Alabama-Florida League. Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Trouble on crosswind shots.

DIAGNOSIS: Vague aiming.

TREATMENT: Vagueness of plan and an indecisive state of mind can ruin almost any golf shot. You must make up your mind firmly about how you plan to play a golf shot. Then you must stick to the plan.

Many golfers find it hard to make up their minds when shooting into a crosswind. They know that the wind will alter the flight of the ball, but few go to the trouble of deciding exactly how much.

They merely square a bit to right or left, depending on the direction of the crosswind, but they never really become sure just how much allowance they intend to make for the wind.

In this situation, try to estimate as accurately as possible the amount of drift the wind will produce. Figure out the exact line you mean to start the ball on. Then pick out some object along this line and aim straight for it. This method will give you a firmer shot plan to keep in mind.

The important thing is to avoid any sort of indecision.

Physical Fitness Session Successful at Local 'Y'

Thirty local men, ranging in age from 28 to 62, learned it takes a steady program of exercise to stay in topnotch condition at a successful weekend physical fitness clinic conducted at the Pontiac YMCA.

Dr. Thomas K. Cureton, physical fitness director at the University of Illinois, conducted the two-day affair aided by members of the "Y" physical education staff.

"We dont expect these men to be like young athletes but we want to know how good they are. We interview each one and give him personal recommendations," said Dr. Cureton while putting the area residents through their paces.

The program consists of eight stages which include the filling out of questionnaires concerning medical background, body measurements and physique ratings, heartometer measurements, flexibility and strength tests, a progressive balance beam test, an agility run and a jump test. The latter included chinning, a vertical jump and dipping.

Dr. Cureton, who handled the heartometer and checked pulse waves, offers participants 10 general suggestions for improvement besides pointers on their own needs.

The author of many books on physical fitness stresses that many non-athletes have loafer's hearts. "The hearts don't work so they get filtrated with fat," pointed out the expert who has studied many of the nation's outstanding sports performers.

The two-day program concluded Saturday when most of the actual tests were given. Dr. Cureton summarized the testing program and answered questions at a luncheon following the gym activity. He later showed a movie dealing with the heart and gave physical conditioning demonstrations.

Arthur Mann, YMCA physical director, was pleased with the interest shown by the contestants. He said a noon businessmen's conditioning class may be formed due to the success of the event.

Bankers, automobile and insurance salesmen, lawyers, products distributors and manufacturers were among those taking part in the clinic.

51 Strokes— One's an Ace!

Anthony Brisbois didn't score too well for nine holes — 51 strokes — but he won't forget the 6-iron shot he made Sunday afternoon on the 120-yard 8th hole at Silver Lake Golf Club.

Brisbois, who lives at 49 Vinewood in Pontiac, collected a hole-in-one with his shot, which was witnessed by playing partner Dan Sanders of Rochester. It was the 1st ace at Silver Lake this year.

Maple Vaulter Tops 13 Feet, Falcon Sets 2 Marks

Alcorn, Cawley Shine in Monroe, Albion Meets

Two Oakland County athletes set meet records at the Dick Waters Relays at Monroe and in the Albion College Invitational meet on Saturday.

All three were spectacular efforts on the part of Birmingham's state champion pole vaulter, Bill Alcorn, and Farmington's hurdles champion Warren (Rex) Cawley. The latter was responsible for two of four new marks set at Albion. Alcorn topped 13-feet, 2-inches at Monroe, to better his own MHSAA record of 12-feet 11¾ inches, set a year ago at Ann Abor. It is the first better than 13-feet try for a Michigan prep vaulter.

Grosse Pointe's balanced team won at Monroe, where Pontiac Central won in 1958. Chiefs did not enter this time. Pointe's total was 40½.

Other top finishers were:

Ann Arbor High 28½; Monroe 20¼; Edsel Ford 18¾; Birmingham 16; Lincoln Park 10; Dearborn 10; Farmington 7½; Detroit Redford Union 7½; RO Dondero 2¼; Waterford 2; Pontiac Northern one-fourth point.

Lansing Sexton won at Albion with 45 points; Farmington was 2nd with 38; Battle Creek 34, Lansing Eastern 30; Ferndale 28. Lansing Everett won Class B, Grosse Ile Class C, and Spring Arbor Class D.

Cawley breezed to a 13.6 high-stick mark at Albion, added a 19.3 low-hurdle record in the afternoon, then hustled over to Monroe to win the broad jump, tie for 3rd in the high jump (won by Grosse Pointer, Gerrick) with a record 6-feet, one-half-inch leap, and run a dazzling 49.0 (unofficial) leg in the Falcons' mile relay. Pointe won the event with one of six records set at Monroe (3:30.7).

Albion records were also set by Willow Run's Otis Harrison, 9.8 for the 100 and 22.2 for the 220.

The Farmington ace's high-stick time was 3-tenths of a second under the national figure, for the 2nd week in a row, but a following wind spoiled its authorization as a U. S. mark.

Troy collected 7 points in Class B at Albion, with a win in the pole vault by Wendell Johnson (record 12 feet), and a 4th in the high hurdles by Rocky Bronson. Dick Kilmer ran the 440, but didn't place, as the 3rd of the three-man Troy entry.

Pontiac Northern's only points were garnered by sophomore Mike Feydnik with a 4-way tie for 5th in the vault. Mike cleared 11-6, his season's best mark.

Other Monroe records included —distance medley, Lincoln Park (11:06.2) anchored by Jerry Bashaw's 4:34.0 mile; high hurdles, Shailer, Livonia Bentley (14.5; Cawley held old record, 14.7); shot, 52-feet 8-inches, by an Ann Arbor entry;

Maples' points were compiled on Alcorn's vault win, 3rd in distance medley, sprint medley, 4th in the broad jump, 4th in 880-relay and 5th in shuttle-hurdle relay.

Waterford's 2-points came from a 4th in the distance medley relay. RO Dondero tied for 3rd-4th in the pole vault.

PNH will be in action again, Tuesday, at Cranbrook. The Huskies are rated underdogs to the strong Class B Cranes, who last week defeated Birmingham.

Pontiac Central will be idle until Saturday when it runs in the regional six meet at Thurston High. PCH won last year's regionals at Ypsilanti.

Jewelers Missing as City, Waterford Softball Start

What practically amounts to a landmark in Pontiac softball history will be missing tonight when the men's 1959 City League season gets under way at Beaudette and Northside parks.

Missing from the three-division, 25-team roster is Shaw's Jewelers, the sponsors of Pontiac's perennial Class A champs for nearly two decades. Shaw's will not sponsor a City League team this year, thus leaving the road wide open for a new "A" titleholder.

The expanded men's softball program in Waterford Township also begins the 1959 campaign this evening with two games at the Drayton Plains ball park.

City League competition this season will be conducted in the American, National and International divisions.

American League teams are Elks No. 810, Birmingham, Sno-Bol, Stadium Inn, Lakeside Royals, Pontiac Merchants, UAW-CIO Local 594 and Deni's Corner.

In the National loop are Blue Star, Huron Bowl, Arro Realty, Harrison's Grill, Moose No. 182, Autos of Europe, Wright's Upholstery, Buttercup Drive-In and Big Bear Construction.

The International division consists of Griff's Grill, Sport Shop, Pontiac Police, Langdon's Boat Livery, State Hospital, Rogers Electric, Drive-In Cleaners and Pontiac Retailers.

American teams are Sno-Bol, Nonne's Grill, Drayton Drug, Hubert Wall's, Mobilgas and Spencer Floor Covering. National clubs are Lakeland Pharmacy, Ron & Don Service, Arrows, Eagles, Dobski's Bar and two other unsponsored teams.

Four games tonight will inaugurate the City League softball schedule.

The doubleheader at Beaudette matches Stadium and Sno-Bol at 7 o'clock and Birmingham and the Elks at 8:30. The Northside twin bill pairs Blue Star and the Autos of Europe at 7 o'clock and Huron Bowl and Wright's Upholstery at 8:30.

Waterford League openers at Drayton Plains are Sno-Bol vs. Nonne's at 7 p. m. and Ron & Don vs. Lakeland at 8:30.

Bada Exercises Blazing Putter

Needs Only 25 Putts, Cards 69 as Bald Mt. Ties Sylvan Glen

Paul Bada's putter scorched the greens at rolling Bald Mountain Golf Club yesterday as the Sylvan Glen and Bald Mountain teams fought each other to an 11-11 draw in the Michigan Publinx Golf League.

Bada, 1957 City champ and State Publinx runnerup last year, required only 25 putts on Bald Mountain's 18 greens and he stroked home a 20-footer from the apron of the 18th green to halve the best-ball and enable his Bald Mountain squad to tie the Sylvan Glen shooters.

His final putt also gave him a two-under-par 69, the first sub-par round of the season in the Publinx loop, and brought him a 3½-½ match victory over an old golfing rival, Mike Andonian, who fired a 74.

Bald Mountain is one of three new entries in the Publinx competition this summer. In other Publinx team matches Sunday, River Bank walloped Sunnybrook, 16-6; Brae Burn shut out Glenhurst, 22-0, and Rochester and Bob O'Link tied, 11-11. Idyl Wyld and Morey's were idle.

Blooper Meeting Tuesday

Steps toward organizing the Waterford Township Recreation Department's men's Blooper Softball League will be taken Tuesday night at a meeting in the Community Activities Center on Williams Lake road. Meeting time is 7:30 p.m.

The Blooper program is designed for Waterford residents 30 years of age and older with rules and regulations made to accommodate the less active player. Games will begin late this month and continue until August.

Final Baseball Confab Tonight

The final meeting for managers of teams seeking entry in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's 1959 City League baseball program is scheduled tonight at 7:30 in the conference room of the health department on the ground floor of City Hall.

Although there are enough teams registered at present to conduct Class A and B competition, room is still available for teams in both divisions. All managers or representatives desiring City Baseball League entry this summer should attend this last meeting.

The final meeting for managers or representatives of teams seeking entry in women's City League softball will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Parks and Recreation Department office. Only four teams have registered to date and more can be accommodated.

George Susce Refuses to Report to Minors

DETROIT (UPI)—George Susce, who refused to fly with the Tigers, now has refused to report to Detroit's Charleston farm club of the American Association.

General manager Rick Ferrell revealed yesterday that Susce told him he would not go to the Minor League club. Susce left by car for his Wellesley, Mass., home yesterday morning with his wife and baby.

The 26-year-old right handed pitcher, purchased last May 12 from the Boston Red Sox, was sent to Charleston on a 24-hour recall basis last Saturday night when Detroit cut down to the 25-man limit.

Southpaw Hank Aguirre and catcher Charley Lau were sent to Charleston outright meaning that the other Major League clubs waived on them. Aguirre, forgotten man of the pitching staff all year after working in more games than any other Tiger pitcher last season, and Lau both will be eligible for the major league draft this winter.

"A lot of players say they won't report but they change their minds after several days and usually go to the club they're assigned to," Ferrell said. "Naturally they're despondent at being sent to the minors."

Ferrell said Aguirre and Lau indicated they would report.

Susce's earned run average soared to 12.60 in 14 2-3 innings of work this season. He didn't figure in any decisions.

Susce caused consternation when Detroit bought him last year because he refused to fly with the clubs on road trips. The Tigers charter an airliner for all trips but Susce got dispensation from general manager John McHale and made all trips by train.

His dislike of flying could cause him to drop out of baseball. American Association teams fly more miles than American League teams because the league is spread out from West Virginia to Texas and Denver, Colo.

City Keglers 2nd in State Tourney

Michigan Stars Pace WIBC; Ladewig Again Shares Doubles Prize

From Our Wire Services

Early leaders Ron Rothbarth and George Chicovsky of Pontiac finished tied for 2nd in the doubles actual division as the Michigan State Men's Bowling tournament came to a close over the past weekend.

The local duo matched Detroiters Therm Gibson and Don Glinski with 1261 to earn $140. Don and Mark Komick, a Detroit father-son combination, won it with 1323 and also won in handicap play.

Coca Cola of Monroe and J. C. Walters of Lansing took team honors. Gordon VanGelder of Battle Creek collected $405 for his showings in all events and singles.

The State Moose tourney also closed Sunday with Highlight Inn of Saginaw team titlist with 3255. Both meets ran 16 weeks.

On the National scene, a new 2nd place entry in doubles was the only major change at the WIBC which has Michigan keglers pacing all but singles at Buffalo.

Defending champions Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids and LaVerne Carter of St. Louis won the National Women's Doubles crown again last night totaling 6043 in two days of bowling. Elvira Toepfer and Anita Cantaline of Detroit finished just two pins behind. Dorothy Aldred of Ferndale was on the 6th place team.

THIEF IN ACTION — Luis Aparicio (11) fleet White Sox shortstop steals second base in the third inning of the second game against the Indians yesterday. He is shown upsetting second baseman Billy Martin after beating a toss from catcher Russ Nixon. The Chisox won a doubleheader from the Indians, 5-4 and 5-0.

$450,000 for Fight TV

NEW YORK (AP) — Nate Halpern, president of Theater Network Television, Sunday night made an offer of $450,000 for the rights to the June 25 heavyweight championship bout between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johanson.

Palmer Leader in Final Round

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — There's nothing like a rainy day for golf talk and that's exactly what a lot of golfers did after the final round of the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open tournament was rained out yesterday.

The Twin Hills Country Club course, a hilly layout with excellent drainage, probably could have absorbed the punishment of some 80 players. But when lightning started flashing shortly after noon, an immediate cessation was called by Joe Black, assistant tournament director for the Professional Golfers Assn.

Going into the final round Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., held a two stroke lead over Tommy Jacobs, of Whittier, Calif.

Palmer shot rounds of 73-64-67 for a 204 total while Jacobs got his 206 with rounds of 66-67-73.

The PGA announced that its 1961 tournament will be played at Olympia Fields Country Club near Chicago, July 27-30.

Los Angeles cut hustling 3rd sacker Jim Baxes Saturday despite his .303 batting average to get down to 25 players.

Bruce Davis of Wayne State has been named to collegiate all-star fencing team for 1959. He won 23 and lost three matches this year.

The Orioles' Bobby Boyd was the best under the lights hitter in the AL in 1958 coming up with a mark of .367 in night games.

Correspondents Sketch Ministers' Thinking

What's on Their Minds at Geneva?

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter holds very little hope that Soviet Russia will be prepared to negotiate seriously at the Geneva conference for a settlement of divided Germany's future.

The first purpose of the Western powers, Herter believes, must be to find out whether there is any chance whatever for negotiations. Herter believes that while hope is slight, the chance has not been eliminated entirely.

His attitude, as known to intimates in Washington, reflects a division of opinion about Soviet purposes within the U.S. government and among the Western allies. The two basic viewpoints are these:

1. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev began his campaign last November to force the Western powers out of West Berlin and prepare for a Communist takeover because he believes the Western alliance is vulnerable at this point and that the over-all balance of military power has shifted to the Soviet Union's favor.

2. The real aim of Khrushchev's Berlin campaign is to step up active East-West negotiations and perhaps obtain eventually some kind of settlement acceptable to both sides. Khrushchev, according to this theory, believes the Soviet bloc is in a weak position in East Germany and he would like to liquidate that position on the best terms possible.

Top U.S. officials overwhelmingly favor the first theory, but the second view has been considered and discussed repeatedly.

U.S. officials believe that Khrushchev urgently wants a summit conference and will avoid any action to force the Berlin crisis to a showdown pending the outcome of the foreign ministers' meeting and a probable summit conference.

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko probably is thinking along these lines on the eve of the foreign ministers' conference:

What a conference this is going to be!

A new secretary of state whose tactics I don't know for sure; a new French foreign minister perhaps wedded to De Gaulle's ideas of the grandeur of France; a British foreign secretary with one eye on the Americans and one eye on the British electorate; and West Germans who have nothing to gain by being soft and everything to gain by being tough.

It won't be good for the ulcers, especially mine.

One thing is certain: I must get an agreement on a quick summit conference. The boss won't settle for less.

The British will help there. They must have one, too. Prime Minister Macmillan couldn't face an election without it.

We will press for a decision before May 27 on that. We can run past that Berlin ultimatum deadline but only if the summit is a sure thing.

ANDREI A. GROMYKO

The big boys are going to make the decisions and we aren't giving much away beforehand. We can indicate the area where we can make a deal.

If we can get the United Nations partly responsible for Berlin, it will be a foot in the door toward recognition of East Germany as a power. We can talk of that to show there is space for dealing at a summit conference.

That's all we need—a pathway to the summit. We can handle nuclear limitations and Germany at the summit.

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—Years of observing British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd in public and in private show this is how he probably would "think aloud" about the foreign ministers' conference:

SELWYN LLOYD

What a pity we must start with problems as tough as Berlin, Germany, European security!

Yet, I shall be happy if we merely narrow our differences on these things and work out a basis on which our chiefs of government could negotiate later.

But we shall have to be careful. Gromyko may mistake British flexibility for infirmity. Herter's realism could become rigidity.

Our big problem will be to overcome mutual fear and suspicion.

The price of an agreement? Perhaps we'll eventually have to give up the idea of "liberating" East Europe; to postpone the reunion of Germany.

We British want peace but not at any price. We bow to nobody in resisting communism.

We know the Americans and Soviets—the powers with the power—will throw the dice in the negotiations.

It must benefit all to aim not at winning victories at the conference table—but aim instead at a more rational, relaxed, peaceful organization of Europe.

No single meeting nor act of state can achieve this. That's why Geneva's a halfway house to a halfway house.

We must prepare the ground for the summit which, in turn, must prepare for a whole series of summits over the years.

By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY

PARIS (AP)—In French thinking, there is a compelling necessity to make certain that Western unity and firmness of purpose is a tangible, living thing and not the diplomatic cant of a conference table.

The French view is that Soviet demands for reduction or withdrawal of Western military strength in Europe mean disaster for the West. The official view goes this way:

They have the whole, broad sweep of the Soviet Union behind them. We stand with our backs to the Atlantic. To overcome Soviet insistence on their military design, we must maintain our fundamental theme: strength and unity.

Any attempt to neutralize Germany would be catastrophic.

Britain's leaders have leaned toward the flexible position. Surely they must realize that flexibility when dealing with the Soviet Union almost inevitably means concession to a point of danger. We are agreed in this conviction with our former ancient foe, the Germans.

America must remain in military force in Germany, and for a long time to come. The Soviet Union must be convinced that such is our purpose.

COUVE DE MOURVILLE

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BONN (AP) — The two rival German delegations go to Geneva only in advisory roles. West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano has indicated that if his East German opposite number, Lothar Bolz, sits down at the conference table, Von Brentano will refuse to give the Communist recognition by sitting with him.

HEINRICH VON BRENTANO

In this case, Von Brentano's representative at the table will be the West German ambassador to Washington, Wilhelm Grewe. Brentano possibly will stay in his hotel room or take walks while the talks go on.

As they proceed, Von Brentano may think:

Khrushchev has made it plain time and again, the Soviets won't agree to reunification of Germany. They want its division accepted as a reality.

But we can't accept that. We must have reunification on our terms.

We have agreed with our Western allies to offer the Soviets a deal—a step-by-step program toward reunification in exchange for some sort of limited military security and inspection arrangement in central Europe.

The German delegation is not optimistic that Gromyko will accept this deal.

We don't want to see any demilitarized zone in central Europe unless our own security is safe.

There must be no change in the status of Berlin, even if it means a blockade, an airlift and the real danger of war. Our allies are firm with us on this.

Above all, we mustn't be threatened by the Soviets into making any single deals on Berlin or a German peace treaty.

If there are to be any concessions by the West, then there must be counter-concessions from the Soviets.

Machinists Reject Parke, Davis Accord

DETROIT (AP)—Members of the International Assn. of Machinists have rejected a proposed contract settlement with Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit pharmaceutical manufacturer.

The union's 325 Parke, Davis employes turned down the contract by a two-to-one margin at a ratification meeting Friday.

Walter Quillico, state labor mediator, called negotiators for both sides to another meeting today. Work at the plant continues. The union has set no strike deadline.

Parke, Davis and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers reached agreement on a new three-year contract earlier this week.

Kennedy Friend Elected President of ADA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Samuel H. Beer, 47, a Harvard professor and an avowed believer in political liberalism, is the new national chairman of Americans for Democratic Action.

Beer's election Sunday by the self-styled liberal organization brings to ADA's top leadership a close friend of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass). Kennedy is considered a likely contender for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960.

Ethopians Threaten Split of Church Over Ruler

CAIRO (AP) — The enthronement of a former hermit monk as patriarch of Egypt's Coptic Church is threatening a split with the church's Ethiopian branch.

Gray-bearded Mina Albaramoussy Almetawahed, whose last name means "The Solitary," was formally named Kyrillos V, "161st successor of St. Mark, founder of the Coptic Church and beloved disciple of Christ," in a ritual Sunday.

A congregation of 2,000 watched as the 57-year-old prelate was led to the base of seven steps by bishops and laymen in colorful robes.

The Egyptian church numbers more than one million. The Ethiopian branch is estimated at about four million. They have been linked since the 5th century though their relations have been strained since 1948.

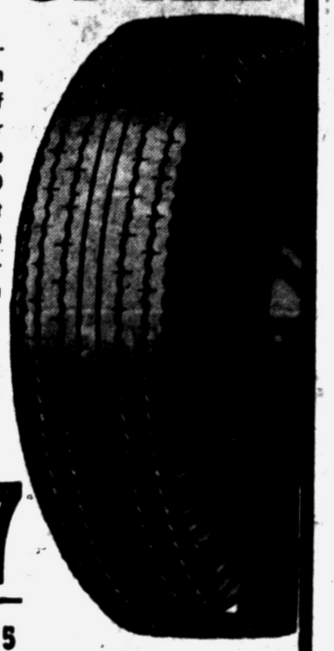

Rustler Dislikes 'Pen'

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Claude Anderson's bonding firm is saddling up to hit the trail after convicted cattle rustler Robert L. Bates, 54. Bates forfeited $5,000 bond when he failed to show up yesterday to begin serving a three-year cattle-rustling sentence. Police said Bates "can't stand being penned up."

Montana's coal reserves are estimated at 222 billion tons.

Latin Arms Aid Cutback Urged

Subcommittee in House Calls for Orderly and Gradual Reduction

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States should begin an orderly and gradual reduction of arms aid to Latin America, a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee recommended today.

The group, headed by Rep. Armistead I. Selden Jr. (D-Ala), made the recommendation as part of a six-point program for halting and reversing what it called a deterioration in inter-American relations.

The recommendation could spell further trouble for the Latin-American military aid program, already under fire in the Senate.

Eventually, all grants of military aid should be halted, the subcommittee said, and replaced with a system permitting the individual nations to purchase whatever arms are needed for hemispheric defense.

The Selden group also recommended that the Organization of American States study the possibility of establishing a "force in being" for observation and patrol in situations threatening hemispheric peace.

This appeared a move to put on a formal basis an AOS patrol of the kind that helped keep the peace in a recent invasion of Panama by would-be revolutionaries from Cuba.

Hold Seven in Death of Flint Workingman

FLINT (AP) — Seven men were held for investigation of murder today in the fatal stabbing of a Flint factory worker.

Police said the victim, Richard Saumier, 27, was engaged in a conversation with the men near a gas station while walking home from a grocery store with his wife. After suffering a severe beating, Saumier went home, then returned with two butcher knives, police said. He was stabbed fatally.

The Genesee County sheriff's office refused to identify any of the men being held.

Julie Andrews, Husband to Honeymoon in U.S.

LONDON (AP)—Julie Andrews and her new husband were flying the Atlantic today, on their way to a California honeymoon.

The 23-year-old star of "My Fair Lady" and stage designer Tony Walton were married Sunday in the village church at Weybridge, where her family lives.

Hollywood Headlines

Deborah Kerr Gets Role of 'The Beloved Infidel'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD—The Sheilah Graham role of the cockney English girl who became a lady in "The Beloved Infidel" will be played by Deborah Kerr.

Twentieth Century-Fox had a time getting hold of Debbie who was in Switzerland and Paris, is now in Biarritz, and goes to Madrid before she reports here June 1.

Henry King has been signed to direct the Graham story, but so far no one has been chosen to play F. Scott Fitzgerald.

Deborah has been rumored for so many pictures, but "Infidel" is her next. This is definite, and it will be made for Jerry Wald Productions.

Shelley Winters is the gal Dino de Laurentiis and Marty Ritt want for the role Shirley MacLaine stepped out of in "Seven Women" (or "Jovanka").

They want her so much that they flew from Rome to New York to talk with her. Shelley is now getting the rough edges off her play, "A Piece of Blue Sky," at the Jersey playhouse in Ft. Lee before the Broadway opening this fall.

This leaves her summer free to accept "Seven Women," the movie starring Gina Lollobrigida, if she gets together with De Laurentiis. Original plans were to film it in Yugoslavia—but now it looks like Italy.

MASTERFUL COMEDY

"Ask Any Girl" is a rogue of a picture, a honey of a comedy that is filled with hilarious situations. George Wells, who wrote the screenplay, has done a masterly job for producer Joe Pasternak and director Charles Walters.

The idea is a very funny one. Shirley MacLaine tries to land Gig Young and enlists the aid of his brother David Niven by doing research on every girl the bon vivant Gig has dated, and there are plenty. Rod Taylor is another wolf who has designs on Shirley.

Lingering in Las Vegas not one moment longer than necessary after their marriage on Tuesday, Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher will plane into Los Angeles at 7 p.m. the same day and then board the 11 p.m. jet to New York!

From there, they make as close connections as possible to Barcelona, Spain, where they will honeymoon until Liz has to report for "Suddenly Last Summer" in London on May 22.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Lana Turner has narrowed her dates down to one man, Fred May, and it looks serious.

Julie ("My Fair Lady") Andrews and her bridegroom, Tony Walton, arrive tomorrow to honeymoon at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Julie will be on Jack Benny's TV show, and Jack is giving a dinner reception in honor of the bride and bridegroom May 18.

Debbie Reynolds sat directly back of me at the preview of "Ask Any Girl." No one laughed harder or enjoyed the picture more. She was escorted by the director, Chuck Walters.

Shirley MacLaine is really getting dressy. It was such a warm night she didn't need a coat and she looked so pretty in a white cocktail dress with a red sash. She sat next to me.

Talented Jerry Milligan, cellist, who is world famous and who closed Sunday night at the Crescendo, came to our table.

Austria's Voters Kick All the Reds Out of Parliament

VIENNA (UPI)—Austrian voters, who watched Russia crush the anti-Communist revolt in neighboring Hungary two and a half years ago, have pushed the Communists out of their parliament, final election returns showed today.

The general election, held yesterday, again made Chancellor Julius Raab's Conservative People's Party the top party, but only by a hair.

The People's Party won 79 seats in the 165-member Parliament, a loss of three from the 1956 elections.

The staunchly anti-Communist Socialist Party won 78 seats, a gain of four, and the rightwing Freedom Party won eight seats, a gain of two.

The Communists lost all three seats they had held. They received a total of 142,598 votes out of more than four million ballots cast — a drop of more than 25 per cent from 1956.

U. of M. President's Son Burned in Lab Blast

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — Robert Hatcher, 15-year-old son of University of Michigan President Harlan Hatcher, suffered second degree burns on the hand Saturday when a flask of benzine exploded.

Young Hatcher was taken to University Hospital where doctors said he was not expected to suffer any permanent damage to his hands.

He was working in a chemistry laboratory with instructor Adonis Gordus when the flask broke and flames leaped up.

Bull Outdoes Goats in 'Hardware Disease'

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — The Vermont Extension Service said bulls apparently are more seriously afflicted with "hardware disease" than even goats are.

On slaughtering one bull, farmers found a set of gold bridgework, nine pennies, 24 bottlecaps, two hypodermic needles, two men's rubber heels, 16 nails, a rubber doll, tn inner tube, five coffee can bands and a broken pop bottle in his stomach.

4 Commercial Projects Swell April Figure

Waterford Building Tops $1.2 Million

Four major commercial building projects are now under way in Waterford Township, bringing total construction to more than $1,200,000 for the month of April.

Owners of the Huron Bowl bowling alley which was destroyed by fire in March, are building a new 32-lane bowling alley on the south side of Elizabeth Lake road, between Josephine and Coleman streets.

Joseph Bonfiglio's and Domenic Mazza's new Huron Bowl building will cost $170,000. It will be 186 feet wide by 167 feet long, will have a cocktail lounge, sports shop, modern offices and general entertainment rooms. Completion is expected by September, Bonfiglio said.

Another large commercial project is under way by the Eldon & Gerald Shell builders of Waterford Township.

SHOPPING CENTER CLINIC

A $60,000 shopping center and clinic is being built on Sashabaw road, between Dixie Highway and Rosemary court in Drayton Plains.

Besides spacious entrance halls and plate glass windows, the clinic will have examination, operating, reception and nurses rooms, as ell as office space.

There will be parking space in front of the unit, as the building will be set some 65 feet from Sashabaw road. More parking space will be available in the rear of the new building.

o Adjoining the clinic will be a hardware, drug and grocery stores in the 110 foot by 106 foot cement block and brick-front building.

The new $26,000 Drayton Plains Post Office is scheduled for construction work this week. It will be located on the southwest side of Dixie Highway between Sashabaw road and Frembes street.

The building will be in line with existing buildings, and will measure 95 feet by 45 feet wide. The Northland Construction Co. of Detroit has been awarded the building contracts.

AIRPORT HANGAR

Although the report has not been fully completed, a building permit is expected to be issued to Norman Wiseman for construction of a 106 foot by 95 foot airplane hanger at Pontiac City Airport, according to Township Building Inspector Carl Walton.

There were 173 building permits issued in April, with 58 homes and 44 garages included in the total.

Remodeling in the township was up, with 43 additions, totaling $75,380 for April. This is twice as many issued in April, 1958.

City Shriners to Honor Wives at Special Dinner

Nobles of the Pontiac Shrine Club will honor their wives at a special dinner program Wednesday evening at Greenfield's Restaurant in Birmingham, according to Shriner Dave Neal.

Neal, of 245 Voorheis Rd., Waterford Township, announced that the event is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. The dimer will be followed by a travelogue program presented by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Favors will be presented to all ladies present and the dinner is open to the public.

The Micmac Indians of Nova Scotia number about 3,400 which is almost the same as their population estimates in the early 1600s.

GM Locomotives to Feature Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—General Motors Corp. says it will begin producing during the next several months two series of locomtoves designed to save millions of dollars annually.

The company's Electro-Motive Division, which will build the locomotives, feels the new series is the most important contribution to railroad progress since the company introduced a freight locpmotive immediately after World War II.

Five road locomotives will reduce required scheduled maintenance by as much as 60 per cent, give important improvement in fuel economy, increased reliability on the road and extend life of major components, the company said.

Primary application of the other two locomotjves, the company said, "will be on those railroads which desire to operate present trains on faster schedules or haul the tottgsame tonnages on present schules with fewer locomotive units."

Lonesome for His Mom, Breaks Jail, Goes Back

FARMINGTON, Mo. (AP) — "I was ust lonesome for mom."

That was the way redhaired Billy Glenn Nehouse—accused of murder, kidnaping and rape — explained his escape from the ancient St.Francois County jail on Mother's Day.

Newhouse came back to jail of his own accord, flanked by his mother and two aunts, about nine hours after the escape was discovered. Three men who fled with him are at large.

Newhouse, 22, is to go on trial Thursday on a charge of murdtring his uncle a year ago.

He walked into the office of Sheriff Clay H. Mullins Sunday and said: "I realized I made a mistake and wanted to come back."

One of the two aunts with him was Evelyn Greco, 42, of St. Louis, who persuaded him to surrender to a posse in a wooded area last year.

Madison Hts. Boys Find High Explosives

Four Madison Heights boys found a quantity of high explosives while playing in a field in bordering Warren near their homes yesterday.

The youngsters found freshly-turned dirt and dug up the explosives, carrying them off to one of the boy's home.

Warren Police said the explosives were in containers marked U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and that they believed they were stolen.

The boys were Raymond Berger, 16, of 25301 Dequindre St.; Richard Kleha, 15, of 1125 E. Roland St.; Michael Kahsin, 13, of 25255 Dequindre St.; and Eugene Wojtowicz, 12, of 1172 E. Guthrie St., all in Madison Heights.

Raymond's mother called police when the boys came home with the explosives. Police immediately transferred the containers to a patrol car upon arrival.

Little Ambushers Fire at 'Tanks' With Toys

LOCKPORT, N. Y. (UP) — Answering a motorist's report of someone shooting at passing cars, Deputy Sheriff Clyde Doty spotted two armed figures on telephone poles near the road.

At closer examination, Doty found them to be two youngsters who had merely taken strategic positions to fire at passing "tanks" with their toy guns.

Soybeans Draw Good Demand

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybean futures attracted a fairly good demand today in early transactions on the Board of Trade but grains generally were easier to weak.

While soybeans advanced as much as a cent a bushel during the first several minutes, rye declined that much or more.

Failure of any consequential export business to develop over the weekend had a bearish effect on the market. Domestic commercial demand appeared to be very light.

Old crop corn also moved well ahead near the end of the first hour. At that time wheat was ⅛ to ⅝ cent a bushel lower, May $1.89⅛; corn 1⅛ higher to ⅛ lower, May $1.25⅝; oats unchanged to ½ lower, May 66⅞; rye unchanged to 1 cent lower; May $1.38¾; soybeans ⅝ to 1 cent higher, May $2.31⅛.

Pneumonia Weakens Ailing Foster Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—No change was reported today in the condition of John Foster Dulles, weakened by pneumonia in his fight against cancer.

The former secretary of state's sister, Eleanor Dulles, returned to Washington Sunday night because she felt "I should be nearer home at this time." Miss Dulles had been in Berlin representing the State Department at the 10th anniversary of the lifting of the Berlin blockade.

The State Department said Saturday that Dulles had developed a mild case of pneumonia, but his temperature had returned to normal after treatment.

Weekend Traffic Kills 8 in State

Three Other Michigan Residents Die in Ohio Turnpike Crash

By The Associated Press

Eight persons, including a little girl and her baby brother, lost their lives in Michigan traffic over the Mother's Day weekend. A mother of four also was among the victims.

In addition, three Michigan residents were killed and a fourth hurt seriously when their car was rammed by a truck Sunday on the Ohio Turnpike near Lorain.

The Associated Press count begins at 6 p.m. Friday and runs to midnight Sunday.

In the two smashups where small children died, the mothers were driving.

Victims were:

Deborah Sulier, 3, Temperance, and her 10-month-old brother Randolph, killed Sunday when a car driven by their mother Dorothy, 26, skidded in a rainstorm south of Temperance and collided with another car.

Mrs. Raymond Boone, 29, Pontiac mother of four, killed in a two-car collision in Oakland County Sunday.

Five-week-old Janice Barton of Berkley, killed Sunday when a car driven by her mother Mrs. Glenda Barton, 21, collided with another in Detroit.

Clifford D. Marquette, 31, Clarkston, who died Saturday night of injuries suffered when a car struck him shortly after midnight in Auburn Heights.

Gilbert Morgan, 58, Onaway, who died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday night when the car in which he was riding rammed a parked truck in Cheboygan County.

Gail Johnson, 10, Alto, killed Saturday in a car-truck collision on M21 two miles south of Lowell. Gail's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, 36, was driving the car.

Donald Frank Maki, 44, Stambaugh, who died Friday night when his car went out of control on a railroad crossing.

Officers identified those killed in the Ohio crash as Christopher Perryman, 49, driver of the car; Sennie Mitchell, 60; and Caroline Fortson, about 50.

They were pronounced dead at the scene.

Asks Part for U.S. in 'American' Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to approve U.S. participation in establishment of an inter-American development bank.

For the United States to join, Eisenhower said "will be a most significant step in the history of our economic relations with our Latin-American neighbors."

Establishment of the billion-dollar bank was recommended by representatives of the 21 American republics after a three-month conference here starting last Jan. 8. The participating nations would provide the capital.

Surplus of Wheat Assailed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) says Congress must quickly do something drastic about the huge wheat surplus because "the public won't stand for it any longer."

Keating said yesterday that "this criminally-expensive wheat glut is a symbol of wrong-headed policy" on farm matters.

By the end of the present growing season, he said, the federal government will be holding more than one billion bushels of surplus wheat — more than enough to take care of all domestic needs for two years.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, denounced the administration's farm program in a different way.

Symington said that farm policies of Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson have forced four million persons off farms in the past year and "you'd have many million more leave" if support programs were abandoned.

Keating noted that the Senate Agriculture Committee was trying to work out a workable wheat program.

"I think it has finally sunk in on those who have played politics with the farm vote these years that they just cannot go on building these surpluses—that the public won't stand for it any longer," he said. "We should have action this year."

10 Pontiac Suppliers Get Big Orders

Western Electric Co., manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, reported today it placed $193,117 worth of orders with 10 Pontiac suppliers last year.

Raymond H. Storm, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. district manager here, pointed out that the Western Electric expenditures were in addition to those made by Michigan Bell throughout the state.

Storm also announced that work is under way on a $127,000 project to provide additional telephone facilities for Pontiac area subscribers.

The project involves installation of intricate switching equipment in the telephone office at 54 E. Huron St.

Storm said the project is scheduled for completion in November.

Clarkston Man Thrown From Motorcycle, Hurt

William Merenuk, 22, of 5574 Marysue St., Clarkston, was thrown from his speeding motorcycle after hitting an embankment on Walton boulevard near Frembes street at 5:30 p.m. yesterday.

Wild Winds Rip Area Homes

side of Cass Lake, was apparently the first area struck.

A residential garage was toppled there and several trees were felled in the violent blasts.

SNAP CHIMNEYS

In Keego Harbor, the gusts snapped chimneys and swept away doors to several homes.

A section of the roofing of the Eddie Steele, Inc. bump shop, 2677 Orchard Lake Rd., was blown off and landed on a customer's car causing $60 damage.

Electricity at the shop and at the show room, 2705 Orchard Lake Rd., was disrupted and still was off at 1 p.m.

Trees were toppled at scattered places throughout the lake community, including two at the city hall.

One falling tree crashed into the auto of John Sellman, Keego Harbor fire marshall, while the other just missed striking the city hall.

School authorities in West Bloomfield Township were on the alert, ready to issue orders for children to go to civil defense shelters.

There was no damage reported in either Sylvan Lake or Pontiac.

The storm apparently descended over Cass Lake, rushing in a northeasterly direction towards Pontiac, but abating before the city limits were reached.

ARM BRUISED

This side of Keego Harbor, all the damage was concentrated on the south side of Orchard Lake road.

Nursing a badly bruised arm, Mrs. Nichols said the winds first caused the front door of her Chata street home to fly open.

As she ran to close the door, the house began to tremble, the housewife said.

"I grabbed onto the door frame and held on tight."

The next moment, with a loud ripping sound, the wind collapsed the rear porch and blew away its roof, she said.

Next door, at 2464 Chata, three bedroom awnings were hurled a distance of 250 yards by the wind.

A block away, at 2480 Chalce St., Mrs. Frances Marentette said the storm was accompanied by a "loud, whistling sound."

She was wondering whether to seek protection under the kitchen table, when the wind took hold of a section of fiber glass roofing on her back porch and ripped it away.

The roofing sailed through the air over the Nicholl home, landing a block away.

Two metal boats were picked up by the furious storm on Hammond Lake and thrown onto the Youngbloods' lawn, but two piles of neatly stacked firewood stood untouched about 20 yards to either side.

IRON POST BENT

A heavy cast iron lamp post in front of the Voss house was bent at an angle, while budding tulips around it were intact, without any evidence of being windblown.

"I was downstairs on the lower level when I looked out and saw the waves on Lake Hammond coming toward me," said Mrs. Youngblood. "Then in a moment they were going away from me. This struck me as being very strange."

The housewife said she didn't see any funnel shaped cloud and that "there wasn't much noise. I thought maybe a branch had blown up against the living room window."

"I was amazed when I came upstairs and found the roof gone on the lake side and the living room ceiling split the length of the room," she stated.

Mrs. Voss was doing laundry in the utility room next to the garage of her two-level home. She went to the lower level to get some laundry and said she heard the storm approach.

"It was a terrific roaring wind. In saw a big black cloud coming at the house from the lake when I ran up to the living room," she related.

"It was undescribable. Like a huge black force coming in on me," said the shaky woman.

She then ran to the utility room to close a window. "As I did, the door into the garage blew open. There was debris flying through the house and out the door into the garage."

"I stepped over to close it and, as I did, it got me and almost sucked me out into the garage. Then I saw it suck a heavy trap door up out of the ceiling of the garage.

'TERRIBLY FRIGHTENED'

"I was terribly frightened. All I could think was 'It's going to get me,' but I got the door closed," she explained.

A 12-foot long aluminum boat was whisked off the ground and carried 20 feet through the air.

Mrs. Frederick Cork, 1903 Hammond Lake Rd. said the family boat had been lying on the beach in front of her home with a chain attached to a metal handle on its stern.

The handle was ripped loose and the boat sent flying through the air, landing upright in the lake, she said.

Ann Arbor Grows on All Fronts

(This is the 15th in a series of articles on Michigan's industrial and cultural achievements written by Michigan newsmen as an introduction to Michigan Week 17-23.)

By RALPH L. LUTZ
Staff Reporter, Ann Arbor News

ANN ARBOR — A city of people who live in the present and plan for the future — that's Ann Arbor.

Expansion has been a key word throughout the past decade. During this period, Ann Arbor's boundaries have doubled. And in the same period, the University of Michigan has added to its main campus and athletic area two major sections — the North Campus devoted mainly to scientific research and a Medical Center second to none.

Through all this, however, there remains to Ann Arbor residents a quiet, almost provincial, charm of a college community. More than 20,000 students — a substantial percentage of the city's more than 65,000 population — stroll the campus area and downtown streets in casual attire. The city seems to lose something when they leave on vacation periods.

Expansion, while presenting the usual problems, such as extension of utilities, came easier to Ann Arbor than to many other comparable cities. The reason is that Ann Arbor had a sound core around which to build. Countryside areas became ideal subdivision sites. On every side of the city there lay fine home sites. The fact that these subdivisions do not consist of row after row of identical houses is to the credit of thoughtful planners.

There was a major addition to the city in 1956 with the voter-approved annexation of the former city of East Ann Arbor. This merger extended the city limits about 655 acres, and added some 2,000 persons. The area had an equalized valuation of about $3,000,000.

Last fall, Pittsfield Village, adjacent to East Ann Arbor area, was annexed, adding to the city an 87½ acre apartment project with 1,400 residents.

These are but examples of annexations that have occurred in all directions around the city during the past decade.

Just as Ann Arbor has been expanded around a sound core, development of the University of Michigan facilities has taken place under similar circumstances.

The 1,000-bed University Hospital, built in the 1920s in what was then open country, served as the nucleus for today's Medical Center. Since World War II, the hospital has been flanked on three sides by a Women's Hospital, Outpatient Clinic, Kresge Medical Research Building, Veterans Readjustment Center and Children's Psychiatric Hospital.

Last February, dedication services were held for the $8,500,000 Medical Science Building. This houses the School of Nursing, which is the nation's largest, and the pathology, pharmacology and biochemistry departments of the Medical School—also the nation's largest.

Today, plans are being made for a $9,000,000 addition to the Medical Science Building to house the bacteriology, anatomy and physiology departments of the Medical School.

Next to the Medical School project, construction proceeds on a Mental Health Research structure.

And adjacent to this, construction is under way on a $530,000, five-deck carport, the second to be built by the university for staff members and guests of the institution. (The first one was erected more than two years ago on the university's main campus, near the College of Engineering, and cost $630,000.) Both of the structures, owned and operated by the university, are being financed from parking fees.

The university's North Campus, located on 700 acres north of the Huron River, has become an area of tremendous scientific research, as well as a great tourist attraction, in a little more than a decade. Completed here are the Cooley Laboratory for engineering research, the Phoenix Memorial Laboratory for atomic energy research, a library storage building, an automotive engineering laboratory, an aeronautical engineering laboratory, a nuclear reactor, a printing plant and apartments for married students. The first unit of the Fluids Engineering Building is complete, and a second unit has been planned.

Just completed on the North Campus is a Civil Defense and Disaster Training Center — the first of its type on any campus.

To those who visit the campus, a scene to be remembered is the oval-shaped Michigan Stadium, with its seating capacity of 101,001 and its emerald-like field far below the entrance level.

As Ann Arbor grows, its public schools grow in number in all directions. Then there is the new Ann Arbor high school, built at a cost of more than $7,000,000 and the city's new public library, built at a cost of $728,000.

Ann Arbor, the seat of Washtenaw County, boasts one of the finest county buildings in the nation. Plans never end for a new City Hall, fire stations and other needed facilities. The city soon will have, opposite the library, a joint YM-YWCA Building.

The city's religious denominations have grown and new churches rise at a steady pace.

And for those who enjoy musical events and plays, there is a virtual year-around offering, sponsored by the University of Michigan, the city and private organizations.

The city has come a long way since 1823, when it was founded by John Allen and Elisha Rumsey.

PROGRESS IN MEDICINE—One of the new facilities which put the University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor among the foremost in the nation is this $8,500,000 medical science building.

The deepest oil well drilled in 1900 was about 3,000 feet. In 1950 the deepest well went down more than 20,000 feet.

Clerk Rushes Onto TV Stage During Program

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 44-year-old postal clerk leaped from a studio audience onto television screens across the nation last night and proudly announced: "I finally made it for mother. What the hell —you gotta make a splash."

Cornelius McConnell was taken to Bellevue Hospital for psychiatric examination after his unscheduled appearance on the TV panel show "What's My Line."

The show continued after his brief interruption. Master of ceremonies John Daly said it appeared to be just "one of those things that happen in the spring."

McConnell had leaped from the audience to the stage while the blind-folded panel was questioning mystery guest Milton Berle.

Weigh Freight Cars With Atomic Energy

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI)—The New York Central Railroad's Technical Research center here has put atomic energy to work weighing freight cars as they roll by at 30 or 40 miles an hour.

The new techinque uses gamma rays emitted from a cobalt 60 source beneath the rails and a scintillation counter suspended over the tracks.

As the train passes over the radioactive material, the rays penetrate each car, the contents of which absorm a certain amount of the radiation depending on their mass.

The overhead counter records the degree of absorption and feeds the information to an electronic computer which figures the weight of the car and records it.

Any Horses Available?

FARGO, N. D. (UPI)—Fargo's fleet of police patrol cars was cut almost in half within two days when two of the five cruisers were wrecked while chasing speeders. One collided with a car at an intersection and the other backed into a utility pole trying to make a fast turn.

Hope's Doctors' Orders Scare Gotham Buddies

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — When Bob Hope's doctors gave him another checkup and asked him to cancel a trip to New York for the May 16 premiere of his own picture, "Alias Jesse James," because of continuing dizzy spells, they scared his buddies here.

WILSON

But their attitude is: If he's supposed to be resting, why doesn't he rest? He was taping a TV show of his own for May 15 and had also planned to do the Perry Como show May 16.

But he told friends here wearily, "I'm just too tired." Bob did rest briefly at Palm Springs, and announced, "My eye's better—it has a tan."

GOOD NEWS: Arthur Godfrey will be back. TV employes wondering about their own future were tentatively told the big redhead will be back supervising things personally very sohrtly.

Dagmar's doing so many personal appearances she can't get time to use two plane tickets to Europe she won from Arthur Murray. Morey Amsterdam defines Dag as "A large body of woman surrounded by men."

Hollywood and TV are both interested in the fascinating book, "The Trial of Mary Todd Lincoln," by James A. Rhodes, state auditor of Ohio, and Dean Jauchius.

As the story of a famous widow declared isane and then found sane 13 months later, allegedely as part of a political frameup with startling disregard of her constitutional rights, it offers great tear-wringing possibilities to a Helen Hayes, Katherine Cornell or even Ethel Barrymore.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

NUYEN

Louis Prima says Keeley Smith's a candidate for the film, "Two For the Seesaw." (With Keeley enroute here, Louis was at the Harwyn — with his mother-in-law) . . . France (Suzy Wong") Nuyen, who's half Chinese, is learning to speak Chinese . . . Anna Magnani dined at the Forum, mailed menus to her son in Rome . . . Bill O'Dwyer's calling his memoirs "Boy From Bohola" . . . Two of the Yankee stars are dickering for a piece of the huge Englewood (N.J.) country club.

The Sgt. Bilko platoon, who make their last film next week, will get Army-styled "discharges" from Phil Silvers . . . Errol Flynn's leasing out his schooner to private parties in the West Indies . . . Hugh O'Brian's working in Canada, so Chickie James is dating Scott Brady . . . A new multi-million-dollar recording studio was embarrassed to find that someone'd forgotten to install electric sockets.

We hear Joe E. Lewis cut down on liquor: "He's drinking only a fraction now — like a fifth of Scotch, a fifth of Bourbon . . ." That's earl, brother.

Omnibus 'Pinafore' Finale Too Familiar to Be Good

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — I must confess to a limited enthusiasm for the work of Gilbert and Sullivan. Their products have always struck me as the rock 'n' roll of the educated class—rhythmically and texturally monotonous, punctuated only occasionally by a line of moderate funniness.

Like teenage rock 'n' roll fans, Gilbert and Sullivan buffs delight in the repetition of the familiar. Productions are rigidly unvarying and great pleasure is taken in anticipating sections of the holy ritual.

It's all a little like the glee Presley champions evidence when faced with a stack of Elvis records that they've played 200 times over.

Yesterday, Omnibus shut down its NBC-TV season with Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore" and happily, loosened its stiff bones a little.

Unfortunately, there wasn't too much to work with. Pinafore's spoof of the military, of class distinction, of the man-woman war, is elephantine, lacking in thrust, airiness and for that matter, wit.

Its lyrics contain a few phrases of felicitous turn, but its music is hopelessly tacky.

Cyril Ritchard, in the role of Admiral Joseph Porter, was first rate—sly, spirited, nimble, poking just enough fun at his part to keep the whole ponderous porridge in balance.

SHORT SHOTS: Marge Champion won all the marbles for the weekend with her superb spoof of Kathryn Murray of NBC-TV's Arthur Murray Party.

Mrs. Champion, working last night on the NBC-TV Dinah Shore Show, captured her victim with devastating accuracy, down to her dress, carriage and aimless chatter.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: CBS-TV's The Lineup, which will be expanded to one hour next season, will have two new regulars added to its regular cast—Jan Brooks and Robert Palmer . . . Sid Caesar has been running into script troubles with his proposed filmed situation comedy, It's a Living.

State to Fete Cast of 'Anatomy' Tonight

MARQUETTE (AP)—Hollywood's "Anatomy of a Murder" troupe will be feted at a Michigan Week dinner tonight at nearby Negaunee.

The actors and actresses, shooting the movie here, will be among the 700 people at the dinner. Others attending will be Michigan Week committee heads from all over the state.

The film has been judged Michigan's outstanding product of 1959 by a Michigan Week committee headed by Dan F. Gerber, a Fremont baby foods manufacturer. The week is observed to boost Michigan products.

The movie is adapted from the best-selling novel by Michigan Supreme Court Justice John D. Voelker.

Man Kills 1, Injures 2 as Billy Graham Talks

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—A man listening to a broadcast of Evangelist Billy Graham's sermon on love of God and man went berserk last night, stabbed a woman to death, and critically wounded two other women.

Graham was unaware of the tragedy which occurred in the church hall at Katoomba, 60 miles west of Sydney. At the time Graham was addressing a crowd of 150,000 persons assembled in Sydney's two biggest arenas.

The sermon was carried by landlines to church halls in dozens of country towns.

Kodak Buys Everything From Silver to Fly Food

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UPI)—In a single year, the Eastman Kodak Co. purchased more than one million dollars' worth of each of the following: silver, wood cellulose, coal, alcohol, cotton linters and animal hides and bones.

It also bought such items as plastic skeletons, fresh frozen pig skins, beef-cattle gallstones, prime steam lard and food for flies, all of which were used to develop the company's photographic and chemical products.

Points Up Transfer Effort

Russian Census Reveals Population Jumps in East

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's first census in 20 years discloses a huge increase of population in the Urals, eastern Siberia and central Asia.

The increases reflect the determined effort to transfer part of the Soviet population to eastern parts of the country and industrialize those areas. These parts have been thinly populated compared to neighboring Red China.

The census report did not give totals on the shift to the east. But it said the population in the Urals —which might be compared geographically to the Middle West of the United States—had increased 32 per cent since 1939.

Western Siberia's is up 24 per cent, eastern Siberia 34 and the population of the Far Eastern provinces has boomed 70 per cent.

Kazakhstan, in central Asia, where the "virgin lands" program is in full swing, is up 38 per cent.

Novosibirsk, a big new center of science and industry in the east, jumped from 404,000 to 887,000 people.

18 MILLION MORE

The Soviet Union's population was reported at 208,800,000, an increase of 18,100,000 since the last census in 1939. By comparison, the United States population is estimated at 175,600,000, or 24½ million more than the last national census in 1950.

The U.S.S.R.—and the United States too—has been having a marriage and baby boom since the manpower losses of World War II. The Soviet birth rate, is now at 25 per 1,000, the census says. The annual natural increase in population is now 3½ million.

(The U. S. birth rate fell to 24.5 per 1,000 population in 1958, the first year since 1951 that it was below 25. The U. S. population grew by about 2,900,000 last year.)

Soviet city population now totals 99,800,000—or 48 per cent of the total, compared with 32 per cent 20 year sago.

Moscow, the capital, is now a city of 5,032,000, an increase of more than 800,000 in 20 years.

Leningrad has decreased slightly as a result of migration and the bitter World War II siege.

Men and women are about equal in the age group under 32. Above that age, however, there is an excess of women over men, the result of the Soviet Unions immense wartime losses in manpower.

Arctic Schooner to Be Retired

Wooden Ship Made Many Trips to North Since 1921

WASHINGTON — Rear Admiral Donald B. MacMillan's famed Bowdoin, perhaps the only remaining United States schooner especially designed and built for exploration in the Arctic, will sail into retirement this year.

At the helm of the veteran two-master will be Admiral MacMillan himself. Now 84, he began his Arctic career a half century ago as an aide on Admiral Robert E. Peary's celebrated North Pole expedition of 1909.

Thereafter he sailed north again and again. One voyage lasted from 1913 to 1917, and he did not learn about World War I until three years after it started.

Bowdoin bears the name of the Maine college where Admiral MacMillan once taught anthropology. She was built in 1920-21 of Maine's native white oak, and sheathed against ice with a five-foot belt of Australian ironwood.

In 1925 came another notable moment in her history. Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, and Sir Wilfred Grenfell, the famed medical missionary, met with Admiral MacMillan aboard Bowdoin at Battle Harbour, Labrador.

She was moving north on another historic mission, as flagship of the National Geographic-United States Navy expedition to Greenland. During that voyage, Navy fliers surveyed 30,000 square miles of Arctic ice in 15 days.

The commander of the Navy fliers, Lieutenant Commander (later Rear Admiral) Richard E. Byrd returned home convinced that aviation would conquer the Arctic—and Antarctic. Within a few years, he fulfilled his own prediction by becoming the first man to fly over both North and South Poles.

Bowdoin's final berth will be in Mystic Seaport, Connecticut. There she will be fitted out as for a voyage to the Arctic. Near by will be other famous ships of the past; the whaler Charles W. Morgan, which caught more whales than any other similar ship; the schooner Australia, believed by some historians to have been captured from the British in the attack on Baltimore in 1814; the training and adventure ship Joseph Conrad, and the Chinese junk Mon Lei, which crossed the Pacific in 1942 in 86 days.

Aden May Soon Be New Nation

Alliance of Arabian Potentates Signed; to Gain Independence

WASHINGTON — A new nation may be in the making on the southern tip of the Arabian Peninsula.

The Arab rulers of three sultanates, two emirates, and a sheikdom in Britain's Aden Protectorate have approved a constitution setting up a Federation of the Arab Emirates of the South. Britain has promised them eventual independence.

Aden's inhabitants are bare-chested tribesmen who wear knee-length blue cotton kilts. They rub vegetable oil and blue dye on their lean chests and arms as a protection against the sun in summer and the cold in winter.

A well-dressed tribesman is a walking arsenal. He carries a rifle and a dagger, kept handy in a silver scabbard. A cartridge belt holds his ammunition. When visiting the Crown Colony of Aden, he must check his rifle and dagger with authorities. It may make him feel somewhat undressed, but it reassures the British of his peaceful intentions.

The Aden Protectorate sprawls over 112,000 square miles—an area the size of Arizona, the National Geographic Society says.

It surrounds the 80-square-mile colony, with its capital of Aden, and stretches to the huge Arabian desert known as Rub' al Khali or the "Empty Quarter." In the west the Protectorate borders on Yemen; in the east it touches the Sultanate of Muscat and Oman.

A score of states having treaty relations with the British government make up the protectorate. Under the treaties, the rulers agree to follow the advice of the British governor of Aden.

Only a few years ago, the possibility of an Aden federation seemed remote; the individual states nourished jealousies and suspicions. Improved security and understanding have at last made federation possible, though the surrender of sovereignty was difficult for chiefs accustomed to isolated splendor.

Solon Feels Strauss Won't Get Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clinton Anderson (D-NM) says he has a feeling Lewis L. Strauss will not win Senate confirmation as secretary of commerce.

Anderson has been one of the strongest opponents to Strauss in hearings on the nomination.

The Senate Commerce Committee resumes its lengthy hearing today. Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash), chairman of the group, said he hopes the hearing will end by the middle of the week.

The nomination will go to the Senate after the committee makes its recommendation. Several senators have predicted Senate approval.

Westbrook Pegler Will Be Married at 65 Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Westbrook Pegler, 65, newspaper columnist, and Pearl W. Doane, 47, got a marriage license Friday.

They said they would be married today in the Park Avenue apartment of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Case, mutual friends.

Pegler makes his home at Tucson, Ariz. Mrs. Doane has a residence in New York City.

Pegler's first wife, the former Julia Harpman, died in 1955. Mrs. Doane was married twice previously, both marriages ending in divorce. She was divorced in 1933 from Ernest Rue at Muskogee, Okla., and in 1953 at Glendale, Calif., from James Doane, an actor's agent.

White Wife Flees Race Hate Campaign

NORWOOD, N. J. (AP) — "I think," said part-Negro ship officer Jean Brown, "it was a flight from fear."

It has been 16 days since his white wife and their three children disappeared from their comfortable suburban home. "There hasn't been a trace. Not a word," said Brown today.

"I think my wife fled because of a threat about our mixed marriage," Brown said. "It couldn't be anything else. We were a happy family."

A happy family but one that for several years has been harassed by phone calls at all hours of the day and night. "Sometimes as many as 60 a month," said Brown.

"My wife would answer the phone and some one would say something slanderous about 'that nigger husband of yours' and hang up. We tried but couldn't trace the calls."
