

President's Condition Is 'Excellent'

Foreign Aid Vote Nears

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's pared-down foreign aid bill headed for a final round of roll call voting in the House today.

House leaders figured they had enough votes to assure passage despite considerable opposition. That would send the bill to the Senate, where fresh trouble for it was foreshadowed over the weekend.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations sub-committee handling foreign aid, said the program ought to be chopped another billion dollars in addition to the $1,104,000,000 cut already tentatively approved by the House.

But Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Committee sided with the administration against the House slash in Eisenhower's $4,900,000,000 request for the year starting July 1. He favored restoring about half a billion dollars. His committee begins closed-door voting on the bill Wednesday.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), a senior Republican on the committee, sent a letter to all other senators asking "bipartisan support" for "the leadership of the President in our foreign policy."

As tentatively approved by the House Friday night after three stormy days of floor sessions, the bill provides for a $3,800, 000,000 aid program next year—still $1,100,000,000 more than Congress appropriated last year.

Its emphasis was on aid to parts of the world other than Europe, and on the use of loans and private enterprise wherever possible instead of outright government gifts.

The bill would give the President a high degree of flexibility in administering the program, and would leave it up to him to decide in the national interest whether U.S. aid should be continued to Communist Yugoslavia. There had been a move to shut off all such aid.

The bill sets the authorization, or general terms, for the aid program for next fiscal year.

Aramburu Forces Act Swiftly to Stamp Out Weekend Revolution

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's military regime pushed a determined hunt today for leaders of a bloody weekend revolt staged by army and civilian followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron.

The government announced firing squads executed 38 rebels in speedy unprecedented retaliation. It indicated many more would face a similar fate as swift court-martial, convened under martial law, sat around the clock.

The revolt—crushed in 12 hours by government air and ground forces—flared at 11 p.m. Saturday in Buenos Aires and three other major cities. Some 100 persons reportedly may have been killed or wounded.

The insurgents struck at two points in the federal capital. At the same time they staged uprisings in La Plata, 35 miles southeast of Buenos Aires; Santa Rosa, capital of La Pampa province in central Argentina; and Rosario, 180 miles northwest of Buenos Aires.

'MAD ADVENTURE'

Loyalist forces directed by the vice president, Adm. Isaac Rojas, quickly smothered the revolt in Buenos Aires and Rosario. Jet fighter and navy bombers finally smashed rebel holdouts in La Plata and Santa Rosa.

President Pedro Aramburu, who returned from a tour of the interior after the shooting, branded the uprising a "mad adventure." He vowed that "energetic measures" would be taken against all who took part.

Loyalist forces scoured the land for two retired generals branded as the men who masterminded the abortive revolt. They are generals Raul Tanco and Juan Jose Valle. Both had army bosses when Peron was president. Both were retired summarily when Peron was overthrown last fall.

Observers predicted the startling firing squad tactics unleashed against the rebels would put a brake on disgruntled elements who might have notions of further plotting against Aramburu's regime.

Ike's Brother Hears Report

ATTENDS CONFERENCE—Dr. Milton Eisenhower, brother of the President, was a visitor at last night's news briefing at Walter Reed Hospital by White House Press Secretary James Hagerty, on the condition of the chief executive.

Listening to Hagerty, he puffs his pipe, then cocks an ear to hear a question on his resignation as president of Pennsylvania State University. "Purely personal," was the answer.

Ike Enjoys Comfortable Night; Hopes to Start Work From Bedside

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's doctors reported today he had a comfortable night and "his general condition is excellent."

The morning medical bulletin from Walter Reed Hospital, where Eisenhower is recovering from an emergency abdominal operation, said:

"The President had a comfortable night. It is contemplated to get him out of bed and let him walk a short distance in his room today."

"His temperature is 99.2, respiration 20, pulse 88, blood pressure 130 over 80."

"His general condition is excellent."

BACK TO WORK

Eisenhower walked for the first time yesterday—a distance of about 30 feet, with two hospital aides partly supporting him—only 30 hours after undergoing major surgery.

The favorable medical bulletin was one of a series in the same vein which began immediately after the completion of the operation in the predawn hours Saturday. There was talk of letting the President do a little official business today.

Eisenhower was pictured as in good spirits with morale high after Saturday's pre-dawn emergency operation for relief of what the doctors called a potentially fatal obstruction of the small intestine.

The surgeon who performed the operation, Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, said there is no medical reason for Eisenhower to abandon his second-term decision. Heaton is the Walter Reed commandant. Heaton told a news conference Saturday that by today or tomorrow the President should be able to confer with White House aides, "sign official papers and carry on those functions of the government which are normal."

SIX WEEK PERIOD

He said Eisenhower should be able to leave the hospital after about 15 days, and be able to return to normal working activities in four to six weeks. Golfing and swimming could be resumed by mid-August, he added.

Hagerty announced that an office to be used by presidential aides would be opened today in the lounge close by the chief executive's hospital room.

Replying to a question, Hagerty said Eisenhower is up to handling any urgent official business needing his attention. Up to last night, however, aides had gone to him only once on business. That was simply to inform him of a decision they had made.

POSTPONE SESSION

The decision was to postpone a White House conference Eisenhower had called for tomorrow to explore ways for development of "people to people" contacts among nations in the interest of promoting world peace. His associates told the President that because of his great personal interest in the project they had decided to postpone the conference.

The White House staff is studying what to do about other scheduled engagements.

Hagerty said a drainage tube running through Eisenhower's nostrils into his stomach was keeping him from relaxing completely in his regulation Army hospital bed. The tube is being used pending resumption of normal intestinal processes, expected shortly.

Mrs. Eisenhower and the President's youngest brother Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower were with him Sunday.

Late in the day he was visited by his son and daughter-in-law Army Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, who were observing their ninth wedding anniversary.

Another visitor was Sherman Adams, chief presidential assistant.

Michigan Shows Top Population Gain Since '40

DETROIT (AP)—Michigan's population has increased 38 per cent since 1940, the biggest gain recorded by any industrial state in the nation.

The Detroit Board of Commerce said the state picked up a 14 per cent population increase over the past six years and now has an estimated 7,266,500 residents.

In its publication, "The Detroit Area," the Board of Commerce said Connecticut was the second fastest growing industrial state with a 34 per cent gain.

Michigan factories employed 48 per cent of the state's non-farm working force to lead the nation in that category. Indiana was second with 45 per cent of the non-farm workers employed in factories.

Michigan, sixth in population, was listed as fifth in personal income with $14,172,000,000 in 1954. That was an average of $2,017 per capita.

The Board of Commerce said Michigan has shown an annual population boost of 135,000 persons since 1950 compared to a growth of 110,000 annually for the previous 10-year period.

Stalin Accused of Having Harem

Khrushchev Circulates Tales of Former Soviet Leader's Private Life

PARIS (AP)—Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev has informed other Soviet leaders that Joseph Stalin in his later years kept a harem of young girls, the mass circulation newspaper France-Soir reported today.

It said in a dispatch from Vienna that Khrushchev recently told his colleagues Stalin was subject to "sexual aberrations, a veritable erotomania—sexual insanity—sexual obsessions degenerating into sadism directed toward younger and younger girls."

The article said Khrushchev declared Stalin's harem was recruited for him by his police boss, Lavrenty Beria, and that Beria confessed this before he was put to death as a traitor.

In New York last April, Alexander Orlov, former Soviet secret police commissar, who has lived in hiding in the United States for nearly 20 years, told a news conference Stalin was a homosexual. He did not elaborate.

MORE CONFIDENTIAL

France-Soir said Khrushchev's revelations were made to a small group of Soviet leaders and were intended to be more confidential than his accusations against Stalin in his February speech to the Communist party Congress. France-Soir was the first Western newspaper to publish the text of that speech—about a week before it was released by the U. S. State Department.

The newspaper's Vienna dispatch also said Khrushchev accused Stalin of murdering his second wife, Nadezhda Alliluyeva, when she disapproved of his order deporting dispossessed peasants to remote parts of the Soviet Union. It said Stalin, according to Khrushchev, fired a gun at his wife, then strangled her. France-Soir's report said Khrushchev had suggested Stalin's crimes were so heinous that he should be tried even though he is dead.

It often has been reported in the West that Stalin was responsible for his wife's death. Communist sources always denounced these reports as political calumny.

Federal Grant of $31,500 Planned for City Airport

Pontiac Municipal Airport is slated to receive a federal grant of $31,500 toward improvement at the local field. The Press was advised by Congressman George A. Dondero this morning.

This brings a total of $153,000 in federal aid for the present year. In February, the airport received $91,500 for expansion of the east-west runway. Another $30,000 originally allocated in 1955, was carried over this year for work at the port.

The latest grant will go towards runway lights for the east-west runway and taxi strips. A portion will be for the relocation of the power lines at the western approach (Williams Lake Road) to allow for expansion of the major runway to 4,000 feet.

Manager Homer D. Hoskins said the city had applied for the latest grant but "didn't expect it this soon."

He said installation of the lights depends on the completion date of the expansion of the runway now under way. "If it is done soon enough we might get the lights in this fall," Hoskins said. "If not we will carry over the project into early spring."

The original $121,500 federal grant is presently paying for the expansion of the large runway (4,000 feet by 100 feet) and a taxi strip approximately 5,000 feet by 40 feet.

Lengthening of the runway will allow larger corporation and commercial airplanes to use the field. The present runways are too short for safe operation of the larger type planes.

Special GOP Committee Will Support VanDusen for Attorney General

A committee of prominent Oakland County Republicans announced today it will back State Representative Richard C. VanDusen of Birmingham as the party's candidate for State Attorney General.

County Chairman Chad M. Ritchie, who heads the committee, today called VanDusen "a fine lawyer who has made an outstanding record in his two terms in the Michigan Legislature."

"He is the youthful, aggressive and progressive type of candidate we believe Michigan's Republicans will want on the state ticket next November."

The nomination will be decided at the party's state nominating convention in August.

The committee already has mailed solicitations of support for VanDusen to county Republicans, saying the Oakland County party "has earned a place on the 1956 State Ticket."

Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor also has announced he is a candidate for the nomination.

The Day in Birmingham

Final Study for Budget of 1½ Million Set Tonight

BIRMINGHAM — The budget for the fiscal year 1956-57 comes before the City Commission for final adoption tonight. It would allot $1,535,635 for total expenses, to be covered by taxes being set at a rate of $19.60 per $1,000 assessed valuation and other income.

The tax rate is slightly lower than last year's rate of $19.70. It will yield $1,151,694, while other income of the city will be $383,940, the budget decrees.

Appropriations would include $7,960 for the commission; $15,180 assessor; $15,185, treasurer; $35,606, engineering staff; $12,525, clerk; $218,396, police; and $184,025, fire department and other allotments.

Special appropriations include $5,000 for traffic signals, $6,000 for office equipment, $40,000 for street resurfacing, $5,000 for sidewalks, and $2,000 for road oiling.

Top among departmental collections expected is the police department's $41,500.

Also before commissioners tonight are: A request for taking the proposed Motor Bus Ordinance from the table by an attorney for two cab companies; and a request that the decree by the Oakland Circuit Court for stopping of pollution of the Rouge River be extended beyond the July 1 date.

The North Evergreen authority, which met this morning in Birmingham city offices, is eyeing the possibility of storm water treatment at Campbell and 12 Mile Roads, besides the Detroit interceptor drainage.

THE BEST of DAMON RUNYON

Big Boy Blues

By DAMON RUNYON

My Old Man is the most frequently recurring character in Damon Runyon's literary work. He set down scores of sketches and stories in which My Old Man is the protagonist or narrator. Runyon similarly used Grandpap in scores of sketches and stories. Many were legends Runyon picked up in his youth or inventions of his own.

A Right Good-Looking Gal is typical of the long series of stories in which My Old Man or Grandpap were principal characters. Even after the Broadway guys and dolls stories proved more popular and profitable than any of his earlier fiction, Runyon continued to write My Old Man and My Old Home Town stories.

By DAMON RUNYON

It is a very hot day in the late '80s back in my old home town out West, when One-Arm Jack Maddox and his gang come a-cussing and a-shooting into town to hold up the Stockgrowers' National Bank.

I am not there myself, of course, but I get the story from my Grandpap, who is sitting under the awning in front of the Greenlight saloon with his chair tilted back against the wall, when One-Arm Jack rides in with his gang.

They all have six-pistols and Winchester rifles, and as they go tearing along Santa Fe av. toward the Stockgrowers' National Bank, they take pot shots at everybody in sight, including my Grandpap.

My Grandpap says he gets up off his chair very quietly and steps into the Greenlight saloon as if he is just going in for a drink, because he does not wish to be a party to a holdup, even as a witness, but my Uncle Abner always tells the story a little different.

BAT OUT OF A CAVE

My Uncle Abner says he is inside the Greenlight playing a little stud poker with some of the boys, when all of a sudden something goes by him like a bat out of a cave, and the next thing he hears is a terrible crash of glass as my Grandpap takes the window in the back of the joint.

Well, anyway, people are very scarce in the streets, indeed, by the time One-Arm Jack Maddox and his gang reach the Stockgrowers' National Bank. The only one in sight is old Pat Dillon, the marshal, and he is stopped down behind an iron fireplug, and is cracking away at One-Arm Jack for all he is worth with a six-pistol. But old Pat is not much of a shot and One-Arm and his bunch do not pay much attention to him until the old boy sticks his noggin out a little too far around the fireplug and Sid Karick clips him with a Winchester.

One-Arm Jack, Zeb Coultry and Bad Pete Jacobs hop off their horses when they reach the bank, and go inside, leaving the others outside to shoot at anybody that shows up.

SHOVES SIX-PISTOL IN CAGE

One-Arm Jack walks up to the cashier's window, shoves his six-pistol in a face that he sees inside the cage, and says like this:

"Shell out that gravy in there," he says, "and be quick about it, too."

Well, the next thing One-Arm Jack knows, but the nozzle of the pistol is pushed aside, and he finds he is looking smack-dab into the face of a right good-looking gal, and the gal is saying to him like this:

"Why, hello Jack! What is the matter?"

Well, sir, who is this gal but Daisy Bartfield, whose old man, Dan Bartfield, is cashier of the Stockgrowers' National Bank, and what is Daisy doing in the cashier's cage, as it comes out afterwards, but working for her dad, who is down with the rheumatism.

"Where are you keeping yourself all these years, Jack Maddox?" she says to One-Arm Jack. "What are looking at me that way for? Don't you remember me—Daisy Bartfield?"

Well, naturally, One-Arm Jack does not, for he never sees Daisy Bartfield before in his whole life, and, as a matter of fact, not many people back in my old home town ever see her, either, because she is just back for a Summer vacation from a college in the East. She is only stalling One-Arm for time.

"Why, hello Jack! What is the matter?" says Daisy Bartfield, pushing the pistol aside.

TAKES A LITTLE TIME

Now, naturally, all this gab takes a little time, maybe five or six minutes, maybe more, and a few minutes are very valuable when you are robbing a bank.

While One-Arm Jack is standing in there sort of petrified with surprise, the citizens of my old home town hump themselves and get their guns, and all of a sudden from every roof and window along the street comes a-boiling bullets.

Hearing all the shooting, One-remember ever seeing her before. I am commencing to think she is mistaken about knowing me."

(THE END)

(Tomorrow: Meet Joe and Ethel Turp of Brooklyn in "Home Cooking." The Turps were Damon Runyon's favorite characters, and with My Old Man, were made known to millions who met them weekly in the Pictorial Review.)

William O'Dwyer to Face Charge on Income Tax

NEW YORK (AP)—Former New York Mayor William O'Dwyer has returned from Mexico to face a government claim that he owes about $10,000 in back income taxes.

O'Dwyer's case is scheduled to be heard tomorrow in Federal Tax Court. He has asked a hearing on claims that he owes back taxes for the years 1949 through 1951.

The former mayor arrived last night by plane from Mexico City, where he now lives. He left his city post in 1950 to become ambassador to Mexico.

O'Dwyer has asked the tax court to throw out the government claim. He says he spent $22,390 in performing his diplomatic duties and was reimbursed only $10,124 by the government.

O'Dwyer said he expects to stay in the United States about a week.

Prisoner of Red Camp Swims to Freedom

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A young Chinese inmate of a Communist forced labor camp swam seven miles to a Nationalist island in Amoy Bay, the Defense Ministry said today.

The ministry said three other prisoners who fled the Red mainland yesterday were missing and believed drowned.

The man who reached safety was Liang Shui-chang, 21, a college graduate imprisoned on his native island of Kulangsu, west of Amoy.

The first census on record was made in 3,800 B. C. by the Babylonians, says the National Geographic Society.

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Self ul Islam Badr, slim young crown prince and premier of the isolated Arab kingdom of Yemen, left by plane today to talk economic aid in Moscow.

Badr was accompanied by a Yemenite trade delegation on his first venture behind the Iron Curtain.

The tall prince, still in his 20s, wore the traditional turban, cloak and wispy beard of Yemen as he boarded a special Soviet plane sent to Cairo for him.

The prince has had little experience outside his primitive country and some observers expressed fears he might be an easy mark for the Russians. However, he was accompanied by one of the shrewdest statesmen the Arab world—Quadi Mohamed el Amri, deputy foreign minister of Yemen. El Amri is considered the most influential man in his country outside the royal family.

Observers also noted that Badr had a conference with Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser before he departed.

Yemenite leaders view the excursion to Moscow as another step in their cautious efforts to expand and develop their country's economy without upsetting unduly the conservative pattern of Yemenite life.

Although potentially one of the richest areas in Arabia, Yemen has kept its doors so tightly closed to the outside world that most of its wealth is still untapped.

The kingdom stretches 75,000 miles over the southwest portion of the Arabian Peninsula on the Red Sea. Its 4½ million inhabitants live in a land that has almost no roads. Mail service is still conducted by camel back.

The Grand National steeplechase was established in England during 1837.

EXHAUSTIVE CLINICAL TESTS PROVE DR. EDWARDS' OLIVE TABLETS 58% MORE EFFECTIVE THAN OTHER LAXATIVES!

261 constipation cases tested prove OLIVE TABLETS give you Nature's ideal regularity!

Medical evidence finally promises you thorough, safe, natural relief from that miserable, sickening feeling of irregularity! Leading doctors in a prominent medical center have just finished testing 7 popular, well-known laxatives. These are the facts based on clinical records of 261 patients, from 11 to 87 years old, suffering from acute and chronic constipation:

DR. EDWARDS' OLIVE TABLETS, made from pure-vegetable drugs and plant herbs, gave thorough, gentle, effective results in 9 out of 10 cases! OLIVE TABLETS were 58% more effective—with less unpleasant effects—than all the other laxatives tested!

The doctors found, too, that OLIVE TABLETS function naturally, work only on digested food in the lower bowel, without causing undue weakness or removing nourishment that your body needs. They're unsurpassed as a laxative for temporary constipation. Sold by all druggists.

At Least It Came

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daniel have received an invitation to attend the wedding of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier in Monaco. Daniel was acquainted with the grandfather of the prince and said the prince called him from New York last February. The wedding took place in April. The invitation to the Daniels was erroneously addressed—hence the delay in delivery until last Saturday.

Hollywood Headlines

Jack Dempsey Life Story Readied for Production

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
HOLLYWOOD (INS) — At long last the deal to film Jack Dempsey's life story has been finalized with producer Sam Weisenthal as the winner. The former heavy-weight champion gets a price for his story plus a percentage, and he also acts as technical advisor. Just as soon as Weisenthal finishes "The Day They Gave Babies Away," he'll put the Dempsey epic into production.

No picture has ever accented so vividly the perils of mountain climbing in the snow-topped Alps as Paramount's "The Mountain," replete with magnificent scenery. You sit absolutely gaped to your chair while you watch two brothers (Spencer Tracy and Robert Wagner) make the perpendicular climb.

One brother, Zachary, played by Spencer, has only the idea to aid any possible survivors in an air crash. The other brother, Christopher (Wagner) wants only to rob the corpses. He will even commit murder.

To see baby-faced Bob as such a dastardly character is an experience. He gives his best performance. Bob very frankly says that he owes everything to Spence, who helped him. Edward Dmytryk's direction is superb and Spence is also great!

I was very happy to be invited to share in a family birthday party with Dolores Gray at the Villa Capri. Wynn Rocamora and I, who were dining there, were invited to join the party which also included Monte Prosser.

Monte told me he wanted Dolores for the opening of the Tropicana in Las Vegas. Dolores said she also has promised Joe Pasternak she will be in the first independent musicals he makes after he leaves MGM.

He had a nice talk with Dolores' Brother, who leaves shortly to study for the priesthood.

SNAPSHOTS AT RANDOM:
Rumbles are loud again that Faye Emerson and Skitch Henderson are further apart than the poles.

Sorry to report that Mrs. Peter Loore lost her expected baby a few days ago at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

On the way to dinner at the Villa Capri, we stopped at Margaret Ettinger's for cocktails. I had a talk with Dr. Herbert Kalumus and his attractive Elanore, who is finishing her book.

An interesting and informative guest was Ken Lidstone, international tax lawyer and protégé of Randolph Paul, tax authority. Ken is on his way to South America.

Attorney Opens Church Drive

Buys 25,000 $1 Bricks Toward Restoration of Twister-Torn Edifice

DETROIT (INS)—A Detroit attorney opened the campaign to raise $100,000 for the restoration of St. George Greek Orthodox Church of Lincoln Park today with the purchase of 25,000 one-dollar brick certificates at the kick-off breakfast on the city-county building lawn.

Philip J. Williams made the purchase of the certificates for the church that was destroyed by the tornado that struck Lincoln Park May 12.

More than 4,000 persons of six Greek Orthodox churches in the Detroit area attended combined services in the Olympia Stadium yesterday as a prelude to the campaign. The churches represented were St. George of Pontiac, St. Nicholas, St. Constantine and Helen, Evangelismos and Assumption.

GROUPS SPONSOR DRIVE
The campaign is being sponsored by the Crisis Club of Detroit and the federation of Wayne County Hellenic societies. The co-sponsors hope to sell 100,000 bricks at one dollar each.

The Central Business District Assn., the Building Trade Council, the Wayne County CIO Council, the Tamers Union, the Board of Commerce, the Pilot Club and other service and veteran organizations are supporting the drive.

The loss of the church property was fixed at $140,000 with $100,000 worth of equipment destroyed. Insurance payments will amount to $70,000, according to the Rev. Fr. John Magoulas, the pastor, who said the parishioners would foot the rest of the bill.

Both Mayor Albert E. Cobb of Detroit and Mayor George Barber of Lincoln Park have proclaimed June "Help Father John month" in an effort to help the campaign. Contributions may be sent to "Help Father John, care Sheraton Cadillac Hotel, Detroit 26, Mich.

Woman Driver, Mate Take Dip in Lagoon

DETROIT (AP) — The next time Dolores Green takes a driving lesson, she probably won't go near the water.

The 24-year-old woman was doing all right yesterday until her automobile reached a curve near the Detroit Yacht Club. A moment later, she and her husband, Ralph, 28, were crawling through the windows and out of six feet of water.

The car went into the lagoon and submerged, and the doors jammed. So the Greens hurried out through the windows and swam to shore.
