Students sought for new OU television commercial

An award-winning video production company is looking for students to participate in a new, exciting television commercial for Oakland University. The open casting call is set for Wednesday, Nov. 4 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Oakland Center Fireside Lounge.

No acting experience is necessary. The parts are on a volunteer basis but will provide the type of valuable experience working with a professional production company that can enhance a resume.

All Oakland students are welcome to attend. Pizza and pop will be provided.

For more information, view the flyer or contact Melinda Booth in OU's Communications and Marketing Department at tmbooth@oakland.edu.
