WILLIAM P. BABCOCK

Babcock Heads Hospital Board

Willis Brewer Named New Vice-Chairman of General Trustees

A member of the board since its inception three years ago, William P. Babcock last night was elected chairman of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees.

Babcock, former chairman of the Pontiac Housing Commission, replaces William F. Maybury, who retired this month.

Three other original members were named to board posts. Willis M. Brewer is new vice chairman.

Harold S. Goldberg, former vice chairman, is the new treasurer. Mrs. B. B. Roush was elected to continue in her post as secretary.

Reporting as chairman of the property committee regarding construction of a new $3,000,000 addition to the hospital, Brewer said:

"I think our architects are getting along as well as they can. My experience in hospital work is that you just can't go ahead."

Brewer pointed out the architects have to meet the requests of the board and the medical staff, plus the requirements of state law.

"I think we'll see some results in the near future," he said. "The architects are readying some more plans."

The board discussed the problem of patients who are transferred from Beaumont Hospital to General Hospital. A conference with officials from the Royal Oak hospital on the problem is planned.

Violence Marks Demonstrations

Argentine Vice President Quits as Party Chieftain

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Rear Adm. Alberto Teissaire, Argentina's vice president, announced today his resignation as head of the Peronista party.

Teissaire's unexpected announcement came amidst political demonstrations marked by some violence.

Political activity, including formation of new parties, has heightened since the abortive June 16 revolt.

Yesterday Teissaire issued a party statement calling on all political parties to support a truce appeal made by President Peron in a speech earlier this month.

Peron announced on July 15 he was stepping down as head of the Peronista revolution to become "the President of all Argentines, friends and foes." He was not an official in the party itself.

One person was reported killed by gunfire in political violence early today.

The incident—second violence in 24 hours—occurred as members of the opposition Radical party left a political rally after midnight and paraded through the city's movie district.

Reports said shooting suddenly broke out and 22-year-old Alfredo Prat fell wounded. He died in a hospital.

Police arrested several demonstrators as crowds leaving the theaters milled in panic.

Straits Ferry Workers Given Offer, Warned

State Would Boost Pay Again, Promises to Fire Strikers

LANSING (AP) — The State Civil Service Commission today offered rebellious employes of the Mackinac Straits ferry fleet another $220,000-a-year pay concession and then warned them they would be fired if they tied up the state auto ferries again.

An eight-man committee of crewmen declined to say whether the offer would be accepted or whether the crews would strike. The 296 ferry employes struck last weekend for 16 hours and tied up heavy tourist traffic.

A committeeman, Richard Hankin of St. Ignace, denied the crews had threatened to strike again at midnight tonight, but he added "I don't say it is not a possibility."

After an eight-hour session lasting until 4 a.m. today, the commission ordered the State Highway Department, which operates the ferries, to bank one additional day's pay for each continuous seven-day period an employe works.

This was the commission's answer to the employe demand for time-and-a-half overtime pay on Saturdays and double time on Sundays.

The committee chairman, Willard Lamyotte of St. Ignace, said "I don't think the men will go for this," but the committee refused to comment at the end. Dr. Milton Muelder of East Lansing, commission chairman, said he was "optimistic" there would be no strike, but added "it's anyone's guess."

25-50 CENT HIKE

The commission said the "hank" pay would amount to 25 to 50 cents an hour additional pay, depending on the rating of the employes.

The proposal was made retroactive to May 15, the date on which the employes were given a 15 cents an hour raise at a cost of $112,000 a year. They now get an average of $1.95 per hour.

Mitchell to Ask Ike to Sign Wage Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Mitchell says he will recommend that President Eisenhower sign a bill to raise the federal minimum wage to $1 an hour instead of the 90 cents the President asked.

Mitchell's news conference statement yesterday indicated administration acceptance of the higher figure despite Eisenhower's frequent statements he regarded a 15-cent boost from the present 75 cents as enough.

Both Senate and House have approved the $1 figure but it has not yet been determined whether the raise would take effect next Jan. 1 or March 1.

Pressure Adams for Testimony

Senate Probers Plan No Force to Get Ike Aide on Stand

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee kept pressure today on Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams for "the full and true story" of his role in the controversial, canceled Dixon-Yates power contract.

Persuasion rather than force apparently will be the sole means of applying pressure on President Eisenhower's No. 1 White House aide.

Asked if a subpoena had been considered, Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn) of the Senate Judiciary subcommittee told reporters:

"Frankly, I don't think we can subpoena him. We are going to try this first." The "this" was a strongly worded letter the three-man subcommittee on antimonopoly matters rushed to Adams by messenger yesterday asking him to reconsider his refusal to testify.

The subcommittee said Adams' written refusal yesterday was the fifth instance of a claim of privilege by executive department officials that they cannot be required to give information to the subcommittee.

The Dixon-Yates contract, negotiated on Eisenhower's orders by the Atomic Energy Commission, called for construction of a 107-million-dollar power plant at West Memphis, Ark., to furnish electricity to the Tennessee Valley Authority to replace power it supplies to AEC. Eisenhower ordered it canceled after Memphis, Tenn., decided to build its own power plant, which would reduce demands on TVA.

Reports Watts Improved

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit Traffic Judge John D. Watts, who has been critically ill in Jennings Hospital for two weeks, was reported "vastly improved" today.

Perspiring Pontiac Wilts During 14th Day of Heat

TODAY'S TEMPERATURES

6 a. m.	70	9 a. m.	84	Noon	92
7 a. m.	74	10 a. m.	88	1 p. m.	92
8 a. m.	78	11 a. m.	92	2 p. m.	93

A perspiring Pontiac continued to mop its feverish brow today as the mercury climbed into the 90s for the 14th day this month.

There hasn't been a day so far this month when the temperature has failed to reach at least the 80s.

But there is some consolation in the records. In a 7-day hot spell in July, 1936, the mercury hit at least 100 degrees every afternoon.

Nineteen people in Oakland County died from the heat. Nearly 500 persons in the state and over 2,000 in the nation succumbed. No heat deaths have been reported so far this month, in this area.

If you want more consolation than the records offer, the weatherman presents the happy news that scattered thundershowers tonight will make it somewhat cooler tomorrow. The high will be in the 84-88 range.

That's better than today, when 98 degrees was the predicted high.

The average temperature for the first 21 days of this molten month is slightly over 90 degrees. Five-day forecast for the area calls for temperatures not to exceed the normal maximum range of 81 to 86 degrees.

While Detroit continues to have its water troubles, Pontiac is still getting by without imposing any restrictions.

Detroit pumpage of 725,000,000 gallons yesterday set a new all-time high. Locally, the city water department reported that total water pumped was slightly under 20,000,000 gallons — less than the high recorded here this year.

An air conditioning and refrigeration ordinance which limits use of water for cooling purposes and "the common sense of the people" are credited by officials with keeping Pontiac's water situation normal despite the prolonged heat wave.

Vivacious Mamie Wins Admiration of Swiss Press

GENEVA (AP) — They call her "Mamie" in Switzerland — the press and the public.

Swiss newspapers vie with each other in applying flattering adjectives to the President's wife, whose personality has caused the usually staid Swiss papers to drop formality and refer to a high dignitary's wife by her first name.

The local papers devote almost as much space each day to Mrs. Eisenhower, Lady Eden and Mrs. Lucie Faure as they do to the conference activities of their husbands.

"Mamie's Cruise" said one paper about yesterday's lake trip. "Mamie arrives for dinner" said a caption under a picture. A story described her "ease and good will" as photographers called "Look this way, Mamie" and her "Hello, Jack" to a photographer she knew.

Today's editions called Mrs. Eisenhower, among other things, "ravishing," "gentille," "sympathique," "charmant," and "chick." And every day the Swiss refer with intense pleasure to the fact that the first lady's middle name is "Geneva."

GENEVA (INS) — Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin will serve as host tonight at a dinner for British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan.

Ike Takes Chair as 6th Session Gets Under Way

Soviets, West Refuse to Alter Stands Taken in Opening Talks

GENEVA (INS)—The Big Four "summit" leaders faced an apparent deadlock today on all major cold war issues, including President Eisenhower's bold offer to Russia for mutual aerial inspection of military establishments.

President Eisenhower took the chair at the sixth session of the Big Four leaders in Geneva to discuss the report of the foreign ministers who struggled in two long earlier meetings to avert a stalemate.

The Big Four meeting was postponed for an hour from the usual time of 4 p.m. (10 a.m. EST).

The foreign ministers met for three hours and 20 minutes in their first session and then resumed their talks at 3 p.m. (9 a.m. EST) prior to the top meeting.

A Russian spokesman, shortly before the top leaders met, expressed dissatisfaction with the Eisenhower plan, but said it would be studied along with other proposals aimed toward eventual disarmament.

The Soviet delegation arrived at the Palace of Nations shortly before the 5 p.m. (noon EDT) session.

Defense Minister Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov rode in the same closed car with Soviet Premier Marshal Nikolai Bulganin and Communist Party Secretary Nikita Khruschev.

ZHUKOV BEAMS

Zhukov beamed as he stepped from the car.

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Assistant Defense Secretary Robert Anderson attended the second session of the foreign ministers' meeting.

President Eisenhower, who arrived at the palace at 3:37 p.m. (9:37 a.m. EST) spent the postponement interval working in his office at the building.

A senior member of the Soviet delegation said that the Moscow government is not satisfied with the President's proposal to exchange military blueprints.

The Soviet spokesman said that the government did not doubt the sincerity of the President's proposal but declared it by-passed the basic issue—prohibition of nuclear weapons.

Bundesrat OKs Bonn Armament

Approval Clears Way for 500,000 Man Force for West Germany

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's first rearmament bills for the buildup of West Germany's new 500,000-man defense force won final parliamentary approval today.

The Bundesrat (upper house) swiftly passed two bills authorizing the government to call up the first volunteers this year and creating a permanent civilian committee to screen the appointment of all senior officers.

* * *

The bills now go to President Theodor Heuss for signature. They were approved by the Bundestag (lower house) last week.

Today's vote cleared the way for Adenauer's government to take the first steps toward building up the 12-division army, 1,300-plane jet air force and coastal defense navy pledged to the Atlantic Alliance.

Adenauer's coalition party members snowed under the opposition Socialists in the Bundesrat despite an earlier quarrel with the government over its plans to call up the first soldiers this year.

A recorded vote was not even taken.

* * *

Adenauer had demanded approval of the legislation before Parliament's summer recess as a proof of West Germany's determination to rearm within the North Atlantic Alliance.

Prisoner May Face Charge of 31-Year-Old Murder

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem must decide whether a man once convicted of manslaughter, and another time of murder, can be charged with a third killing committed here 31 years ago.

While three witnesses, still living, can testify they saw the stab-killing, the doctor who examined the body and coroner who conducted an inquest are dead.

Thus, a serious doubt arises whether it can be legally established the victim died of unnatural causes.

Background of the case was supplied by Assistant Prosecutor William E. Lang, who is conducting the investigation.

CONVICTED IN 1919

He was convicted of manslaughter in Circuit Court here Jan. 26, 1919 at the age of 19. Helm was sentenced to 7½ to 15 years in prison for shooting Willie Tanks at 56 Wessen St., Dec. 21, 1918.

In a statement released after the trial, Judge Kleber P. Rockwell, who presided, said he felt Helm should have been found guilty of first degree murder, but the jury was sympathetic because of his "youth and ignorance."

The shooting was said by police to have occurred following an argument between Helm and Tanks over Helm's girl friend, whose murder six years later is the one now in question.

Helm was paroled Oct. 24, 1923. Pontiac Press accounts of the time say six months later he was identified by three eye witnesses as the knife-slayer of his former girl friend, then Mrs. Cora Wickware, 22.

SAW SUSPECT FLEE

The second slaying occured in the same rooming house at 56 Wessen (now a junkyard) where Helm shot Tanks six years before. Witnesses said they saw Helm fleeing toward the railroad tracks.

A coroner's jury met here April 19 and approved a first degree murder charge against Helm.

Police launched an extensive search, but turned up nothing until they were informed that Helm had been charged with first degree murder in a third killing done in Albany, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1926.

Authorities here were told he had been convicted and would be electrocuted. However, Helm actually was found guilty of second degree murder June 18, 1927 and sentenced to prison for the rest of his natural life.

On Jan. 21, 1942 the sentence was changed to 20 years to life, which led to his release Sept. 11 1952. He was returned to Michigan and placed in Jackson for violating parole on his original manslaughter conviction.

Recently, the State Corrections Commission informed local officials that Helm will come up for parole in the near future, because he has served over seven years on the first sentence.

He will be freed in several years anyway whether or not parole is granted. Ziem feels if Helm is to be tried for Mrs. Wickware's murder, it would be best to proceed soon while witnesses are still available.

Lang has talked to the three witnesses: Mrs. Geneva McKinley Barnett, Mrs. Mattie Watkins White and Mary Corley, all now living in Ann Arbor. They say they remember seeing the stabbing.

PROBLEM ARISES

The problem in legally establishing Mrs. Wickware died from unnatural causes arises in that Dr. M. L. Spears, who examined the body, and Coroner O. C. Farmer, who held the inquest, are both deceased.

No official records of the inquest have been found. No case can be established unless it is properly shown a homicide was committed.

Newspaper accounts listed members of the coroner's jury as James Greer, K. B. Brown, William Titcomb, George M. Youngs, Mark Donelson and Burnett C. Stewart. It is not known if any of these men are still living, said Ziem. Matters might be cleared up considerably if one of them comes forward.

Lang is in Jackson today to talk to Helm. If the convict agrees a statement will be taken. There is no statute of limitations on murder and a new warrant could be issued.

Turnpike Group to Study Routes

Highway Officials Set for Confab in Lansing on Monday

The route of the proposed toll road through Oakland County will be compared with other highway projects planned for this area when the Michigan Turnpike Authority (MTA) meets with State Highway Department officials Monday at 1:30 p.m. in Lansing.

"The authority is getting together with the Highway department to make sure road building programs of the two agencies are complementary and not competitive," said George N. Higgins, of Ferndale, MTA chairman.

Turnpike self - liquidating highways in Michigan can spell the difference between success and failure of the state in meeting the $3,500,000,000 needs of the interstate system in the next ten years, Higgins stated.

"Toll road construction will help fill the billion-dollar gap between the $3,500,000,000 needs of Michigan's trunkline highway system and the $2,500,000,000 presently in sight from a combination of the recent state gas tax increase and the best hope for federal legislation, he added.

"Michigan can build more highways through the combined and prudent use of both gas-tax funds and toll charges," Higgins said.

Gunnar Swenson, of Pontiac, is suing Dave Dawson, Inc., of Lake Orion for $4,100 in Oakland County Circuit Court.

David P. Dawson, 31, former operator of the firm at 51 N. Broadway, Lake Orion, is awaiting examination on a charge of embezzling $28,862 from the Universal CIT Credit Corp. His business is closed.

Swenson alleges he managed Dawson's paint and bump shop between Jan. 1, 1953 and July 1, this year. He claims he was to receive a commission on total work handled and parts sold.

He asks the court to grant him $4,000 in alleged unpaid commissions and $100 in back salary.

False Reports Earns Sentence of 90 Days

After falsely accusing two Pontiac policemen with robbing him of $275, James Dean, of 605 S. Saginaw St., was sentenced to 90 days in jail for making a false report.

Dean, 34, pleaded guilty yesterday before Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum after an investigation proved that the two officers did not take the money from him when he was arrested on a drunk charge July 11.

In a signed affadavit, Dean charged that Patrolmen Louis Romeos and Fred Stormer took the money following the arrest at Saginaw and Pike Sts. He also accused them of slugging him with a blackjack.

An investigation ordered by Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of detectives, disapproved Dean's statement that he was taking the money from a gas station, in which he claimed to be part owner, to the bank for night deposit. Detectives discovered he was neither part owner nor employed by the filling station owner.

Examination Slated in Shooting of Four

FLINT (AP)—Kenneth Kuzner, a 30-year-old Detroiter accused of shooting three total strangers to death, was to be examined in municipal court today.

State Police said Kuzner told them he killed three and critically wounded another in a bar between Flint and Grand Blanc July 12 because their "giggling and talking irritated me."

Kuzner, a trucker, has been formally charged with first degree murder in the death of Said Farah, 28, member of a wealthy Flint family.

Shot to death with Farah was his wife, Jeannine, 26, and Mrs. Margaref Cross, 37, of Flint. James R. Dollar, 26, also of Flint, was critically wounded.

Kuzner was arrested 45 minutes after the shooting, sitting in his truck outside a bar near Pontiac. His attorney has indicated he would ask that a sanity commission be appointed to examine Kuzner, but the trucker has insisted he is not insane.

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A Detroit woman was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, yesterday afternoon, following a two-car collision on Telegraph at Ward Road.

Mrs. Ida Buch, 58, suffered leg and hand injuries. Police said a car driven by her husband, Arthur W., 57, struck the rear of an auto driven by Harriet R. Kieman, 18, of Detroit, as Miss Kieman was turning left off Telegraph.

Company in Black Now After Heavy Losses During Merger

DETROIT (AP)—American Motors Corp. reported yesterday its first quarterly profit since the Nash-Hudson merger on May 1 last year.

AMC President George Romney said the company earned a net profit of $1,592,307 in the quarter endng June 30. He added the company has been operating in the black four months — March, April, May and June.

"Earnings for these months," he said, "served to partly offset losses incurred in the first five months of the current fiscal year, when Nash and Hudson manufacturing programs were still being consolidated at heavy cost."

The company's net profit for the second quarter of this year compared to a net loss of $3,848,667 for the same period in 1954. At that time, Hudson operations were reflected only for May and June, after the merger took place.

LIST NET LOSS

Romney said the company's net loss ofr the nine month period ending June 30 was $4,522,171.

The company reported increases inproduction and sales for the second quarter of this year.

A total of 56,036 Nash and Hudson cars were produced in the second quarter. This was an increase of 139 per cent over the same period in 1954. Sales for the quarter were $137,139,847 against $104,220,995 in the second quarter of 1954 when Hudson results were included for only two months.

The company also reported a 22 per cent increase in dollar sales of appliances from a year ago.

AMC's 1955 model cars were introduced in February.

MRS. E. A. CHRISTIAN

Mrs. Christian Taken by Death

City Native Succumbs at Age of 88 at Home; Funeral Saturday

Mrs. E. A. (Augusta Baldwin) Christian, 88, native of Pontiac and well known in professional and club circles throughout the years, died suddenly at her home at 8 a.m. today.

She was the widow of Dr. Christian, head of Pontiac State Hospital for many years. He died in 1934.

Born in Pontiac Nov. 21, 1866, she was the daughter of Augustus C. and Isabella Baldwin. Her father was a prominent jurist in Oakland County before the turn of the century.

She graduated from Pontiac High School in 1884 and from Olivet College in 1886. It was then a two-year school.

Mrs. Christian returned to her Alma Mater in June 1953 to be honored at the alumni reunion as the only living member of her class.

She was a lifetime member of All Saints Episcopal Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Isabel C. White of Pontiac, Mrs. Margaret Prendergast of Balboa Island, Calif. and Mrs. Dorothea Clark of Bronxville, N.Y.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Christian made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Robert C. White of 190 Chippewa Rd.

Funeral will be at 3:30 Saturday from All Saints Episcopal Church. The Rev. C. George Widdifield, her pastor, will officiate and cremation will follow at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The body is at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.

Eagle-Eye Cop Has Right Idea, but Wrong Face

An important attribute of any good police officer is an ability to remember faces but Patrolman John Pleasant's good eye led him astray recently.

Spotting a motorist who he recognized as a man who had had his license revoked, Pleasant pulled him over.

A quick check revealed he had the wrong man, but he was close. The motorist was a relative to the man Pleasant was looking for.

Fellow officers report Pleasant was embarassed but hasn't lost confidence in his memory.

Holding 3 Youths on Charge of Rape

Three Waterford Township youths, charged with the statutory rape of a 15-year-old girl, waived examination when they were arraigned this morning before Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

The trio, Ralph Cullen, 20, Robert Conway, 19, and Douglas Tyron, 17, were being held in Oakland County Jail under $500 bonds pending arraignment in Circuit Court Monday.

Two juveniles, also named by the girl, were turned over to their parents' custody by authorities who withheld their names because of their ages.

All are charged with taking liberties with the girl against her will after threatening her, Waterford Township Police said.

Gold was first discovered in California in 1848, 10 days before the treaty ending the Mexican war and transferring the territory to the United States was signed.

The Day in Birmingham

City Police Clamp Down on Traffic Law Violators

BIRMINGHAM — Motorists beware — Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley said yesterday that he is stressing to his officers the importance of enforcing traffic regulations.

He added, "And we mean business, because sooner or later someone will be hurt seriously."

Moxley singled out two frequent violations in particular: U-turns on Woodward avenue and not keeping to the right of the centerline in making left turns.

"We hope people will get the point when they see those freshly painted yellow lines at various intersections," Moxley said.

WORKS ON REMINDERS

These gentle reminders are now being marked out by Ralph Riley, who handles such maintenance for the department.

"Not only is this hazardous," Moxley said in reference to the left turn offense. "It is also in violation of our ordinance."

In stressing the dangers involved, Moxley said the improper turning, which occurs most generally in between center islands, usually results in one of two happenings.

"The person turning left from the wrong side, either gets held out there, getting caught in the middle of oncoming traffic, or gets pushed through on a red light, either of which is dangerous," he emphasized.

Justice John J. Gafill and Associate Justice John C. Emery Jr. may be due for 50 per cent increases in their present respective salaries of $1,250 and $300 annually. The City Commission this week asked Forbes Hascall, city attorney to prepare an amendment that would permit the increase.

Also discussed was the possibility of changing court sessions from two hours to three hours three days a week, which will receive further study.

Dale C. Harris Directing Northwestern Band Clinic

Dale C. Harris, director of instrumental music in the Pontiac School System, is in Evanston, Ill., holding a two day band clinic at Northwestern University for band directors from all over the country.

He was invited by John Paynter, director of bands of the University, to present the organization and operation of the instrumental music department in the Pontiac schools.

Mr. Harris came to Pontiac in 1926 as instructor of instrumental music and in 1927 was appointed directing supervisor of the instrumental music for the schools.

With the Eastern, Washington and Lincoln Junior High Schools, he established a complete program. Bands and orchestras were organized in each junior high school. Grade school classes supplied material for the organizations in the Junior Highs.

The Junior High Schools in turn provided students for the high school organizations.

Mr. Harris was one of the organizers of the Southeastern Michigan School Band and Orchestra Ass'n. and became its first president.

In 1935, he took the initiative in forming the State Michigan School Band and Orchestra Ass'n. and has served as president.

The Competitive State Festival for school bands and orchestras was established in 1935, in Michigan, with preliminary festivals held in the districts.

Pontiac Senior High School organizations have entered these festivals from the beginning and have always received First Division rating in both District and State Festivals.

Mr. Harris has been instructor in the annual High School Band Clinic at the University of Michigan, guest conductor of the Band Clinic at the University, judge of High School Band Festivals in various states and is at present national president of the American School Band Directors' Ass'n.

Hal Boyle Says:

Morning Shouting Hour May Ease Tension

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Should a man ever bawl out his boss?

The ordinary principles of human safety would be against it.

But now a doctor comes along and implies that blowing your top is a necessary safety valve — and the general idea is that if a guy gets all geared up about life he can explode against the boss.

This may save the guy himself from a heart attack, bolster his pride a bit, and perhaps expose him to death by hunger. But what about the boss? What happens to him? How about his heart?

The average office today often has several hundred employes, but only one boss.

You can see what would happen if all these people, getting knotted up with their own personal problems, went in and individually barked at the boss on the grounds it would save them from a heart attack.

Since even the most serious boss doesn't usually spend more than nine hours daily at his desk, there simply wouldn't be time for everybody to get his barking done.

But a hired hand, hit by sudden indigestion or woe, isn't going to worry about office hours. He will pursue the harried employer during his luncheon hour or follow him into the homeward-bound bus or suburban train to make his point.

* * *

"Look, boss," he says, "I know this probably isn't the right place to bring up this situation. I hate to tell you what's wrong about the way you're running the outfit. But I have to — to protect my own health. You understand, don't you?"

Naturally any boss, bound by the principles of noblesse oblige (Editor's Note: This is an old French expression for the Taft-Hartley act) at least has to lend an ear to the complaint.

The problem here is that while the hired hand is saving himself from a heart attack the boss is building up steam.

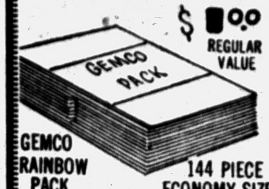

Who is going to keep him from a heart attack? So far as I know no doctor has come out and said that the way for a boss to avoid a coronary thrombosis is to jump up and down and shout "Idiots!" at his employes. Employers don't do these things any more.

* * *

One suggestion: Have a morning "shouting hour." As soon as everybody was assembled, the employes could prevent a heart attack by yelling at the boss what they thought of him. He would listen thoughtfully, then escape a coronary seizure himself by bellowing himself blue in the face at all the butter-fingered bobbles of his fumbling staff.

Agree on AFLCIO When Unions Unite

WASHINGTON (AP)—The last major obstacle to merger of the AFL and the CIO was crossed when officials of the two big labor groups agreed on a name for the combined federation.

Short of using the name AFL — as that group urged — or CIO, the officials settled on the simplest, if somewhat unwieldy, compromise.

Their choice: "The American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations" — the full names of the existing groups.

Presidents George Meany of the AFL and Walter Reuther of the CIO said only procedural details now remain to be worked out before formal merger actions to be taken at conventions in New York in December.

Dawson Examination Postponed to Aug. 2

The examination of former Lake Orion auto dealer David P. Dawson, 31, on an embezzlement charge has been postponed until Aug. 2 on request of his attorney. Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today.

Dawson is free on $7,500 bond pending his appearance before Orion Township Justice Helmar G. Stanaback.

The accused is alleged to have embezzled $28,862 from the Universal CIT Credit Corp. The company claims Dawson failed to return to them the wholesale price of the cars which the firm bought from the plant for sale by the dealer.

A Soviet commentator on a program beamed to North America welcomed President Eisenhower's Geneva statement that Americans would like to be friendly with Russians and said:

"Soviet people are just as eager to be friends and cooperate with Americans. There is every ground for this and every possibility."

Immigrant's Visa Needed for Tot Born in Trieste

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The government says Jane Edith Thomas, 4-year-old alien, can stay in the United States if she leaves by Sept. 30, then returns on an immigrant's visa.

But her father, Leslie Thomas, of Dayton, says he can't afford to take his daughter to Canada to get the necessary visa.

Immigration officials say Jane is in the United States illegally. She was born in a U.S. Army hospital in Trieste, where her father was stationed when in service. He had married an Italian national.

The law says the American parent of a child born overseas must have "had 10 years residence in the U.S., five of which is after attaining the age of 16."

Navy Chief to Take Oath Aboard Carrier

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—For the first time, the nation's chief of naval operations will be sworn in aboard a warship when Adm. Arleigh A. Burke takes his oath aboard the carrier Ticonderoga here Aug. 17.

A Navy spokesman said it was felt the oath taking at this naval center rather than in Washington would point up "the close relationship of the Chief of Naval Operations to the operating forces of the Navy." Burke will succeed Adm. Robert Carney.

MP Is Charged in Child Beating

Corporal Awaits Trial on Claim He Kicked 2 Youngsters Down Stairs

BALTIMORE (AP)—Cpl. Paul Anthony Mihalik, 240-pound military policeman at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., is awaiting trial under $11,000 bail on charges of beating his 4-year-old son and 5-year-old daughter.

The boy is in serious condition in Johns Hopkins Hospital with a fractured skull and internal injuries. The trial of Mihalik, 33, was postponed until Aug. 2 because of the child's condition. He has pleaded innocent to the charges.

Police testified yesterday they were told by the mother and another son that Mihalik hit, kicked and knocked two of his six children down the cellar steps.

Police said Mrs. Mihalik told them her husband came home about 5 p.m. Tuesday and demanded to know why the children were not in bed, then beat the daughter. The mother said she went to a movie after that incident.

Investigators said 6-year-old Paul Jr., the oldest child, told him his brother was beaten after he came in from play about 9 p.m. with dirty feet.

Mrs. Mihalik called police after her husband left for duty at Aberdeen to report the beatings.

Police said the Mihalik home had only two beds for the eight persons, no chairs and no way of keeping food refrigerated.

Reno Now Billing Itself as 'Courteous Little City'

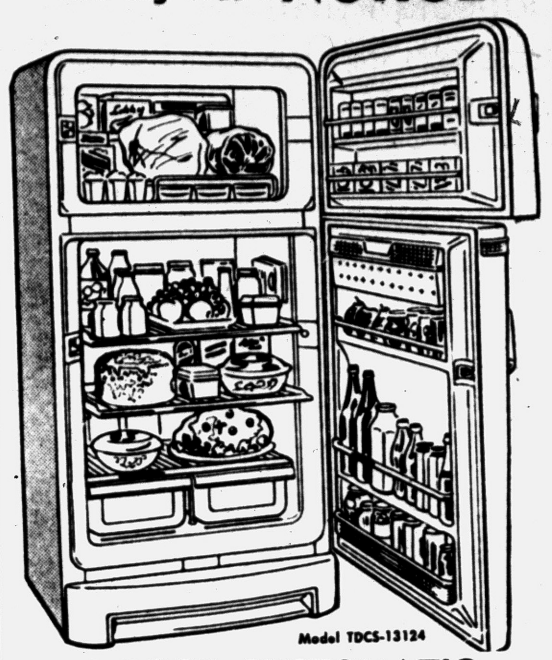

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Reno's new city administration has come up with a switch on the time-honored slogan dubbing Reno as "The Biggest Little City in the World."

City employes found this slogan on their paychecks today:

"The Most Courteous Little City in the World."

"It was Mayor Len Harris' plan," explained City Controller Gordon Sampson.

Ike's Efforts at Geneva Strongly Backed at Home

There is room for general satisfaction over the inspiring and effective leadership for peace being displayed at Geneva by President Eisenhower.

Our Chief Executive is playing a commanding role at the Four Power parley. In so doing he has advanced the most spectacular proposal of the conference. That was his momentous and imaginative challenge to the Russians for an exchange of complete military information by the two nations.

At the same time he is enjoying greater support at home than did any of three previous Presidents who attended international conferences. We sincerely believe that he has the Nation's wholehearted support for his effort to dissipate the distrust which has poisoned international relations since the war.

As a matter of record he has unprecedented bipartisan support in Congress of his foreign policy. With the almost unanimous approval of Democratic majorities, all but one of the Administration's foreign policy measures have been approved this session. An attempt to tie the President's hands at the conference was rejected by a 77 to 4 Senate vote.

Only those who expected miracles of the conference could be surprised that the chiefs of state were unable to reach agreement on German reunification and European security. But it should be noted that the Russians are saying No with unaccustomed politeness. They are slamming no doors and give every indication of having reached Geneva to do business with the one man with whom they think negotiation is possible. That man is our President.

★ ★ ★

If the West gets what it wants out of this conference, a large part of the credit will be due Dwight D. Eisenhower, with special mention of a noteworthy assist by that veteran diplomat, Britain's Sir Anthony Eden.

Red Attack on Laos

If a reminder that Asian Communists are trouble makers still is necessary, it can be found in Laos.

At Bangkok the SEATO Council has received Thailand's complaint against the Communists in Laos. According to the complaint the Reds have been attacking the Royal Army of the neighboring Indochina state.

★ ★ ★

Thailand's concern over the disturbing development is justified. It is no secret that Communist China is behind a "free Thai" movement. Establishment of a common frontier between Thailand and a Communist Laos would complete a Red transmission belt, through North Viet Nam, between Communist China and rich Thailand.

★ ★ ★

The situation causes concern also because of its effect on Viet Nam. There Premier Diem has survived despite strong opposition. Under his direction armed dissident religious sects have been subdued, foundations for natural unity have been laid and the way opened for further progress.

Beyond question this latest Red aggression is another open violation of the Indochina truce reached at Geneva last year. Not only does it disrupt that truce but it is direct challenge to the free world.

Atom Cooked Hamburger Marks Dawn of New Era

A new phase of the atomic era has dawned in upstate New York.

There, in the area served by the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. occurred the first civilian use of atom generated electric energy. To Mrs. John Thomas of Ballston Spa, belongs credit for lending a typically American touch to the occasion. One of the first users of the new current, she employed it to grill a hamburger.

This electricity was fed into the power company's distribution lines at West Milton. It was produced by an atomic fired steam driven generator, the counterpart of the reactor which will power the Nation's second atomic submarine.

Admiral Strauss, AEC chairman, who threw the switch placing the new installation in service, put the event in understandable perspective. In his view it means that we have reached in the atomic age the stage comparable to that achieved by the caveman when he discovered that he could make fire by rubbing two sticks together.

★ ★ ★

A heartening fact remains, however. The free world's first long step has been taken toward the day when civilian use of atomic electricity will be commonplace and military use of it will be only a bitter memory.

Raving beauty: The one that took second place.

In order to promote walking, of which most of us do not do enough, MAT is looking for the oldest date sunken into a Pontiac cement sidewalk. The idea is suggested by Answering a letter from MAT, the National Geographic Society says that Mt. Everest, highest mountain in the world, is 29,029 feet high. We wrote them at the request of of Lake Orion, who had wagered that to be its height, against a man who had learned in school that it was 29,002 feet, which also is the height given by the World Almanac. But the society says that recent measurements have added 27 feet. So that's settled—or is it? Anyway, it's pretty hot.

According to a global survey, there were 87,035,434 cars on the world's highways at the end of 1954, an increase of 5,131,938 that year.

Be Going Around the Mountain, He Hopes

David Lawrence Says:

Military Blueprint Swap Would Help Free World

President Eisenhower's proposal to permit aerial inspection by Soviet planes over the United States if American planes are allowed over Russia to photograph military installations is intended only as an example of what the United States can do some day as the agency responsible for detecting any violations of international agreements to limit armament.

* * *

Today nuclear bombs in a stockpile cannot hurt anybody. Everybody concedes it is the "means of delivery" which is all-important.

There's a way to detect whether a potential aggressor is building up for an offensive attack. It can be done as high as twelve miles in the air above a country and without detection.

Electronic eyes to aid detection make it possible for unarmed aircraft to fly over airfields where planes are located and to report daily or weekly on the total number and the nature of the craft.

COSTA RICA RECALLED

The idea is not a new one. On January 13 of this year the organization of American states asked the government in Washington, a member, to furnish aircraft for observation of the progress of the fighting in Costa Rica.

* * *

Prior to that time and since, there has been discussion in military circles of a possible treaty or convention which would bind all members of the United Nations to submit to aerial inspection. But if any potential aggressor should refuse, and if a crisis developed, the United Nations even without a treaty could order planes to observe and detect possibly hostile moves.

Such flights at great heights can be carried out without detection by unarmed planes, and it would be a rare occurrence if they were shot down. Probably the losses would be accepted as one of the hazards of such a critical situation, because the advantage would be to learn whether a surprise aggression was in prospect.

The reason why military men did not object when the plan for a mutual agreement was first discussed here several months ago, and why they do not object now, is because American targets have been photographed by newspapers and magazines while locations inside Soviet Russia have received no such publicity.

AID TO FREE WORLD

Theoretically it would be to the advantage of the free world to have all maps revealed and targets photographed, so that this might be an added deterrent to the use of nuclear weapons.

* * *

The President's use of the aerial inspection formula is, of course, a sensational move. It has been worked on for several weeks as one of the suggestions that might be launched at the Big Four meeting, and it is believed that even congressional leaders were "briefed" about it some time ago.

In a sense, the move puts the Soviets on the spot. They can hardly mistake the sincerity of purpose behind it and the desire to open things up and find a way to apply effective self-restraints so that war will not be used as an instrument of national policy.

Instead of being content, as the nations were in 1929, with a Kellogg-Briand treaty that renounced war, the proposal now is to enter into a program of mutual inspection which will mean publicizing arms preparations to the fullest extent in order that public opinion may exercise some check upon the arbitrary use of any military force.

RED MOVE LIKELY

The Soviets are not likely to stay on the spot very long. They will sooner or later come up with a variation of the plan and will not fail to seek in the court of public opinion as much prestige as the President of the United States got when he offered to exchange blueprints of our military installations as well as permits for each other's reconnaissance craft to photograph anything desired.

Certainly the pressure for peace which has been rising all over the world has reached a sensational climax in the President's proposal, though it will be many months before any real answer to it will be forthcoming, since there are many aspects to be considered.

In fact, the proposal itself will be turned over to a United Nations military committee to study. This can be a burial ground or a proving ground, depending on what impact the idea itself has made on world opinion.

WEST READY

One thing can be stated now—the Western delegations to Geneva thought out in advance a few moves to offset any propaganda exploitation which the Communists might be trying out. The aerial inspection plan offered by Eisenhower and the proposal by Prime Minister Eden that the Eastern and Western military commanders sit down together to discuss exchanges of information looking toward limitation or reduction of arms are in themselves evidences of the earnestness of the Western Allies in seeking a way to peace.

* * *

The Soviets will surely have to bear the responsibility for any failures, as the West now has demonstrated its willingness to go far toward reaching the heart of the problem of "mutual distrust."

Pontiac Girl Suggests Putting Respirator at Every Public Beach in Oakland County

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

Last Saturday I, with others in our group, saw the little two-year-old boy so many of you read about in this paper lie on the beach and die. Even though everyone there was more than willing to help and they did everything that was possible to try to save the boy, I cannot help but think that he might have lived if only the proper equipment had been available at a moment's notice.

Why can't some of the money which the tax payers put up every year be used to save the future tax-payers of America. Otherwise Uncle Sam won't have even enough boys to fight for the older taxpayers in years to come. Maybe I put it a little too dramatically, but what does everyone need to wake up?

Make Michigan the Water Wonderland, but also make it a safe Water Wonderland. Why not have a respirator at every public beach in the state of Michigan. If I take in too much territory, what about having one at every Oakland County beach at least?

'Ziegler's Roads Policy Forcing Democrat Vote'

Apparently the Republicans are slowly losing the State of Michigan to the Democrats. Once all Republican office holders were elected. Then for a while, it got mixed up a little. Now the Democrats are carrying the State. Republican Ziegler is certainly contributing to a nice big Democratic vote in Oakland County at the next election.

We pay the taxes, we have the people and we have the automobiles, but he gives the roads to other counties and then he says in the paper that he is doing that so Oakland County people will have nice roads when they leave home.

Well, sir, I for one would like them first when I'm home. So would others that live here. We drive more in Oakland than we do in the other counties.

And anyway, if Mr. Ziegler is so thoughtful about people who are away from home, why not build up the Oakland system so the other people can have nice roads when they are away from home and come into Oakland County, as stated by Mr. Willis M. Brewer in the Press recently.

Hoover Report on Power May Play Big Role in '56

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

If Eisenhower has peace and prosperity when the presidential campaign of 1956 is waged, the opposition will be hard put for issues.

It is already apparent that the political "outs" and lining up ideological issues, such as the time-honored struggle between public and private power.

If, as seems likely, power, including the Dixon-Yates episode, is made a major issue in 1956, then the three-volume report of the Hoover Commission task force on water resources and power will become the bible of the free enterprisers. This group is headed by Adm. Ben Moreell, chairman of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., a former Seabee leader, and defender of the free-choice economic philsophy.

Adm. Moreell and his colleagues believe that in a highly industrialized economy, he who controls power controls industry, and, eventually, the entire economy. Thus, it is felt that if the government controls power there would inevitably be a grand scramble among industrialists to curry favor with the political powers.

HAZARD DRAMATIZED

This hazard that government control of power would give it total dictatorial authority was dramatized during World War II when the Bonneville Administration rejected the request of Alcoa for additional power in the Pacific Northwest on the ground that the company was already too big.

* * *

Obviously, this was a misuse of authority. If Alcoa was monopolistic, that was a question for the U. S. Department of Justice and the federal courts, not for the discretion of the Bonneville Administration for generating and distributing power.

In looking ahead to preservation of the framework of free enterprise in a nuclear energy era, the task force recommended "that Congress enact legislation to authorize and direct the Atomic Energy Commission . . . to release all information on the various steps involved in the use of nuclear reactors and nuclear energy for the development of electric energy so that the money, ingenuity and facilities of private enterprise can be brought to play . . ."

It spells out in specific terms Eisenhower's idea of a partnership in power between the Federal government and private enterprise, and the states and localities.

FUTURE POLICY

Referring to future power policy, the task force recommended:

"Private enterprise and state or local governments should be relied upon to a much greater extent, and the government should assume responsibility for only those programs and projects which clearly have substantial direct benefits of nationwide scope having a value commensurate with the cost, and which cannot be accomplished by private enterprise or by state or local governments."

* * *

In addition to leaving to private enterprise and the states and localities those projects which they are able and willing to handle, the proposed new power credo, as outlined by the task force, follows:

"Non-federal entities shall be encouraged to assume responsibility to the maximum extent feasible for such operational functions of projects as design, construction, operation, and maintenance;

"The formation and development of non-Federal agencies to carry out these operational functions shall be encouraged even where the federal government has basic responsibility;

"Responsibility for design and construction of joint federal-non-federal projects shall be placed on financially and technically capable non-federal organizations, and these operational functions shall be undertaken by the federal government only when the federal responsibility for payment of project costs substantially exceeds the comparable non-federal responsibility, or when it is not feasible to delegate design and construction to a financially and technically capable non-federal organization; and

"Operation of joint-responsibility projects shall be placed in the hands of non-Federal organizations to the maximum extent feasible."

Case Records of a Psychologist

Food Alone Can't Satisfy Male Appetite, Doctor Tells Wife on Brink of Divorce

Irene's marriage is failing because of her sins of omission. Your husband will never think about a divorce if you will follow the advice given below. But please remember that men have a far greater hunger than women, not just for gastric calories but also for the erotic type.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-389: Irene G., aged 27, has been married for three years.

"But things are in a dreadful state right now," she began, and started to cry.

"Tom is irritable and we quarrel a lot. Last night he told me he was fed up with our marriage, for I was no good as a wife.

"Now he is drinking a lot and three times he has staggered home so drunk I had to undress him and put him to bed.

"But he used to be wonderful, so where have I failed? I don't want a divorce."

SINS OF OMISSION

Many wives who do not steal or gamble or drink liquor or indulge in other sins of commission, nevertheless end in divorce because of their sins of omission.

And sometimes they may even marry a second time, only to enter the divorce courts again, yet they don't know why it occurred.

You can ruin a happy marriage about as readily by sins of omission as by sins of commission.

* * *

And most wives, even in this enlightened year of 1955, still need to realize that a well fed male will purr as contentedly as a kitten.

"Yes, but I studied cooking and Tom admits that I prepare wonderful meals," Irene hastened to defend herself.

SEX AND EGO

"That's fine," I commended her, "but a man's appetite is not limited to dining room calories. His sex hunger and ego hunger are almost as vital to successful marriage.

"In fact, in bountiful America, they cause more divorces than his failure to find delicious meals on the dinner table."

Wives readily admit that God made men and women to have different appetites. For example, a wife can be content on 2,500 calories per day at the dinner table, whereas her husband may need 3,500.

And you wives then try to whet your husbands' appetites until the men folks consume 4,000 calories.

* * *

You think it is a mark of distinction to be a good cook and over-feed your man at the table.

Well, it is a credit to you, but why don't you use similar eagerness in whetting his erotic appetite and in over-feeding him as regards erotic calories.

MEN MORE EROTIC

Instead, many sincere wives argue and fight about such matters, and call their husbands "brutes" or "selfish" if the men show a greater interest in erotic calories than do the wives.

Yet God Almighty made men to have a far greater erotic hunger than do women!

* * *

Intead of a ratio of 2,500 to 3,500, which may be typical of the differences in stomach hunger the sex hungers probably differ in a ration of 2,500 to 5,000, if not even 7,500.

MONOGAMOUS WIVES

Husbands are thus geared to the demands of a harem, which is why patriarchal Jacob had four wives.

Women, however, are primarily monogamous. So we have the dilemma of a polygamous male harnessed to a monogamous female in modern marriage.

The solution? Let the wife feign more ardor than she herself may feel and over-feed her mate in the erotic realm, as she now so cheerfully does in the gastric realm.

Then your husband will purr and be devoted to you forever, for men don't crave paramours if they have a wife who functions as a one-woman harem at home.

* * *

Send for my booklet, "How to Prevent Impotence in Males," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus a dime.

Many wives unwittingly drive young husbands into partial impotence by quarrels and other sins of omission, so this booklet fits young brides as well as mature women whose husbands have passed 40.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and a dime to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his psychological charts.

Full Set of Teeth Insures Daily Ration of Nutrients

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

In the pamphlet Young Folks and Old Folks I say:

NUTRITION means mastication, digestion, assimilation, oxidation or combustion of food to produce heat and energy (metabolism); utilization of material thus absorbed to repair wear and tear and build new tissue (growth); and discharge of waste, ash or by-products by expiration, perspiration, urination and defecation.

* * *

In the pamplhet Yankee Stomach I say:

I do not contend that if all of your teeth are in good functional condition, you will be immune to stomach trouble. I do believe that people who keep all their teeth working efficiently rarely suffer from Yankee stomach . . . a functional disturbance characterized by hyperacidity, hunger pain, heartburn, acid eructations, waterbrash, uneasiness from fulness after eating, bloating by gas, and general crankiness, impatience and irritability engendered by these discomforts.

In the pamphlet Calcium and Rheumatiz — (rheumatiz, if you please, not rheumatism)—I say:

If or when joint disability constrains me to quit rolling (somersaults) forward rolls, running upstairs and-or gamboling (be sure to keep the o in there) on the bowling green, it will be just plain rheumatis, I bound you, and no prittle-prattle about "arthritis."

In Little Lesson No. 16, The 7 Keys to Vite, I say:

The best way to insure the daily ration of minerals and vitamins one must have to maintain vite is by having a full set of functioning teeth, whether they are natural or artificial. Indeed I designate as the first and most important key to vite: Save your teeth.

NATIVES CITED

Lest credulous customers assume that this means one must faithfully brush one's teeth with some snappy dentifrice consisting essentially of glorified soap, I beg to remind you that among the millions of Americans who brush their teeth regularly its hard to find one whose teeth have not decayed, while among the hundreds of inhabitants of Tristan de Cunha who had absolutely no use for toothbrushes or dentifrices it was hard to find a man, woman or child with any sign of tooth decay—in 1950, that is.

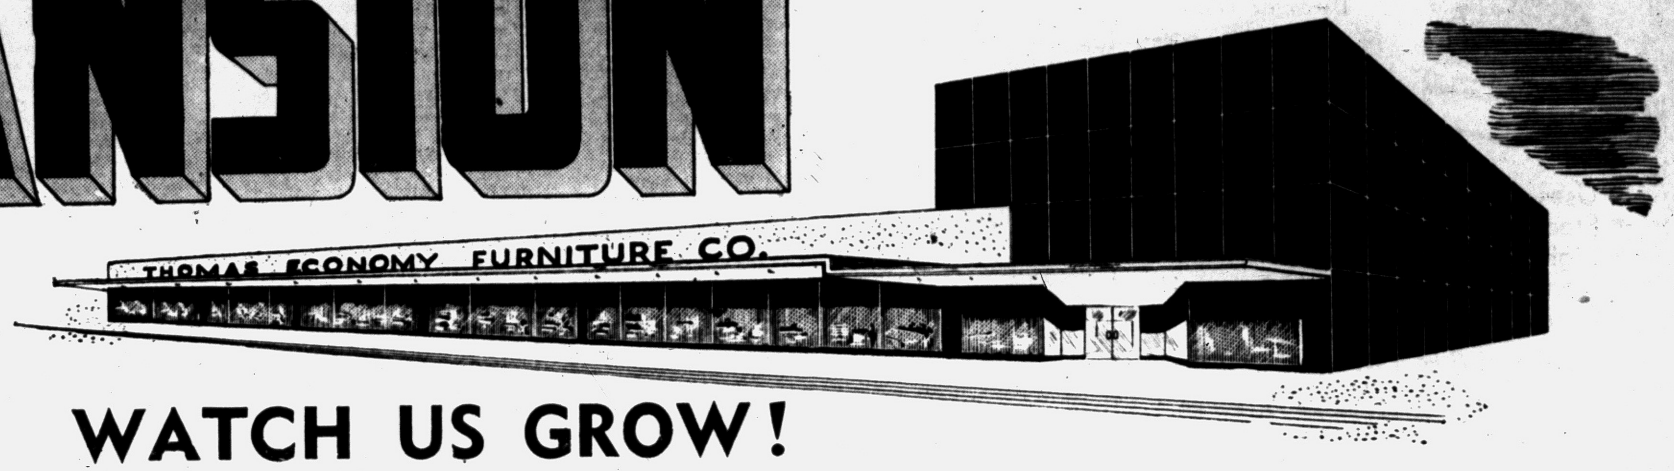

I'm afraid the establishment of a canning factory there to market the abundant fine quality lobster (cryfish), with the new "store" where the natives could get refined white flour, white sugar, candy and other cheat-foods, dooms the inhabitants to go the way of all "civilized" people.

* * *

The way to save your teeth is simple enough: Keep your nutrition better-than-average, optimal; and have treatment by your dentist early and often enough to prevent loss of teeth—but if you neglect your teeth and have to lose one or more, see that the dentist replaces it immediately with a functionally efficient denture.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Scrawled Message Solves Bank Robbery

Solution of the bank robbery was aided when the president deciphered the scrawled message sent by the missing cashier.

This is the way he filled in the unreadable letters:

WAS TAGGED SATURDAY AT DUSK. TAGGED, with its connotation of being caught as a base runner is caught, is more likely than bagged or any other word here. The cashier had obviously been doing some overtime work at his DESK, but the bank president would probably have known about that. Therefore, DUSK, the time of day, is more informative.

TWO GUNS FORCED ME TO OBEY. The question of whether there was one robber or more than one is answered a few words later. The robbery went unnoticed, partly because the townspeople were at the stock fair and partly because it was pulled off by one man, although he probably had a driver waiting in the getaway car. Therefore, GUNS is better than GUYS.

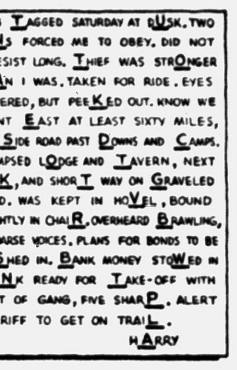

DID NOT RESIST LONG is right; DESIST would not convey the right meaning. THIEF WAS STRONGER THAN I WAS.

THIEF is more logical than CHIEF, and makes it plain that the crime was committed by a THIEF with TWO GUNS, rather than by TWO GUYS. WAS STRONGER THAN I explains the previous phrase. DID NOT RESIST LONG, and hence fits better than STRANGER — THEN I WAS TAKEN FOR RIDE. Or even the attempt to describe the man as a STRANGER and THIN.

EYES COVERED, BUT PEEKED OUT. PEEKED takes precedence over PEERED or PEERED in describing the furtive glimpses the captured man was able to manage on the ride. KNOW WE WENT EAST AT LEAST SIXTY MILES. The direction, EAST, and an approximation of the distance covered give much more useful information than the fact that they went FAST. ON SIDE ROAD PAST DOWNS AND CAMPS. For the getaway, at their leisure since they had not been observed, the robbers would probably choose a SIDE ROAD, and not the WIDE ROAD which might be crowded with people returning from the fair. PAST DOWNS, that is, hills or open, rolling country, is more likely than TOWNS: they'd be apt to avoid going through TOWNS where their passage might be remembered later.

CAMPS is better than LAMPS; a SIDE ROAD would probably not have LAMPS, nor would they serve well as a helpful clue to the direction taken. RAMPS is unlikely, especially if WIDE ROAD is ruled out.

GLIMPSED LODGE AND TAVERN. LODGE, perhaps a hunting LODGE, and roadside TAVERN take precedence over LEDGE and CAVERN as landmarks in country that has DOWNS. NEXT FORK means specifically that they turned off the SIDE ROAD at the next place the road forked, after passing the TAVERN. This is more likely than FORD (there is no mention of a stream to be forded) or FORT. AND SHORT WAY ON GRAVELED ROAD. SHORT is better than SHORE, again because there is no evidence of the presence of water. GRAVELED ROAD, which the blindfolded man could recognize with his sense of hearing, has more validity as a clue than TRAVELED ROAD. And again the probability is that the robbers would keep off TRAVELED highways.

WAS KEPT IN HOVEL. The chances are very much against the use of a HOTEL in which to hold a kidnaped cashier. BOUND TIGHTLY IN CHAIR. TIGHTLY is more logical than LIGHTLY or any other word here. IN CHAIR fits better than IN CHAIN. OVERHEARD BRAWLING, COARSE VOICES has more application to the situation than describing the voice as DRAWLING OR HOARSE.

PLANS FOR BONDS TO BE CASHED IN. The negotiable securities would undoubtedly be CASHED IN quickly, before their loss had been broadcast. Therefore, this is better phrasing than BONDS TO BE CACHED IN TANK.

The message goes on BANK MONEY STOWED IN TRUNK. STOWED is more apt than STOKED or STORED, and the TRUNK is a probable reference to the TRUNK of the car the robbers are using. A TRUCK would not be a likely means of travel for them. READY FOR TAKE - OFF WITH REST OF GANG, FIVE SHARP. TAKE - OFF, meaning a start, is better than RAKE - OFF, meaning a share in illicit profits. FIVE SHARP tells the time of the TAKE-OFF, and is more to the point than the news that five will SHARE in the RAKE-OFF. ALERT SHERIFF TO GET ON TRAIL. TRAIN is ruled out by the reference to car travel, and the TRAIL has been described as adequately as possible by the escaped cashier.

In his fainting condition, the cashier might not have signed his message, but merely appended the caution HURRY! However, he was characterized in the story clues as "tried and true". Therefore, he was a true man. Therefore, his signature is HARRY.

Doubt if Reds OK Ike's Plan

But Proposal Receives Praise From Solons of Both Parties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bipartisan congressional praise for President Eisenhower's newest disarmament inspection proposal was tempered today with expressions of doubt that Russia will accept it.

* * *

Eisenhower suggested yesterday that Russia and the United States exchange "a complete blueprint of military establishments," and permit unlimited aerial photographing of each other's areas.

Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass) called the proposal "a very forthright step toward ending the cold war." He expressed "hope the Russians will see the light and allow the inspections."

* * *

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), a Foreign Relations committeman commented: "I don't believe that the Russians will accept, but if they do, it should go a long way toward ending present world tensions."

Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Foreign Relations Committee said, "We certainly have nothing to lose from the military viewpoint because we live in a fishbowl."

* * *

Others elaborated on that idea, noting that the Soviets must already know much more about this country's military establishment than is known here about theirs. They said this gives the United States little bargaining power for the idea.

Transit Strike Near End in Los Angeles

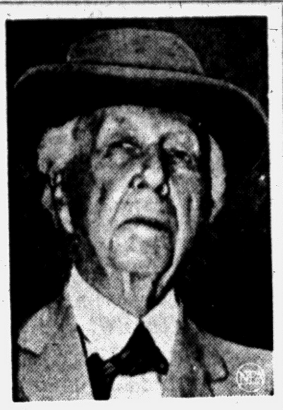

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Negotiators have reached an agreement in the month-old Los Angeles transit lines strike.

Federal conciliator Harry Malcom announced the agreement last night after a marathon session between transit line officials and representatives of the AFL Transit Workers Union. He did not divulge details of the agreement.

It will be presented to a mass meeting of the transit workers tomorrow. They will vote on it Sunday by secret ballot.

Appoint City Officers

FREMONT (AP) — City Manager Eugene Moody has appointed Fred Dawe Jr., as city clerk and Alma Borgman as city treasurer, subject to City Commission confirmation next week. Dawe succeeds Orrin C. Miner, who resigned to take a bank post. Miss Borgman has been assistant treasurer.

CRITIC—Frank Lloyd Wright is one of the principal factors behind Congress' delay in granting additional funds for the new Air Force Academy. The noted architect has called the school's design "half-baked" and better suited to a wayside market.

Detroit Police Check Murder Confession

DETROIT (AP) — Police today sought to check out the story of a 31-year-old drifter that he killed a missing Lincoln Park man in Georgia and dumped the body in a well.

Detectives said yesterday Lonas Robinson Jr. identified the victim as Peter Pantele, 23. Pantele has been missing since June 8.

Police quoted Robinson as saying he beat Pantele to death with his fists in an argument over money near Atlanta, Ga. Georgia police are searching for the body.

Robinson was arrested Wednesday in a stolen car after a wild 90-mile-an-hour police chase.

Woodchuck to Aid Rabbit

BEAVER ISLAND (AP)—"Operation Woodchuck," the transfer of 14 of the burrowing groundhogs to the island from the Michigan lower peninsula, has been completed. Game officials hope the woodchuck burrows will help cottontail rabbits, which have not fared well since they were placed on Beaver Island several years ago. Rabbits make use of old woodchuck holes as refuges from weather and danger.

Capture Kidnaper of Japanese Child

TOKYO (AP)—Police clasped handcuffs on a 37-year-old unemployed schoolteacher as he reached for a kidnap ransom package at midnight.

An hour later they rescued his unharmed victim, the 6-year-old son of stage, screen and television comedy star Toni Tani.

* * *

It ended Japan's most sensational kidnaping case and the nation's greatest postwar manhunt.

Tadahiko Miyasaka admitted to police that he had kidnaped Masami Tani from his primary school last Friday to get money to start a magazine.

Convict Justice for Resisting Federal Agents

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP)—Manuel Miller, 47, justice of the peace, was convicted yesterday of two counts of "forcibly resisting" U.S. marshals May 3 when they went to his Bethel home under a court order to take his wife Lucille, 45, to a mental institution.

A federal jury of eight women and four men deliberated less than two hours.

Sentence was deferred by Judge Ernest W. Gibson until Aug. 8, the same day Mrs. Miller is scheduled to be sentenced for violating the federal draft law by counseling nine young men to evade military service.

* * *

Miller faced a maximum penalty on each count of 10 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. He was convicted of resisting with a rifle U.S. Marshal Dewey H. Perry and Deputy Marshall John H. Breen when they sought to carry out a court order.

Mrs. Miller faces a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment and $10,000 fine on each of 18 counts.

Finds Auto Tags in Front, Back Not Identical

WEST PATERSON, N.J. (AP) — Would you notice if you had different numbered front and rear license plates for three years?

Patrolman Carl Von Stetten, borough marshal, didn't.

He discovered recently that his front plate was his normal registration, YF26W, but the rear plate was YF27W.

The Motor Vehicle Department theorized there had been an error in wrapping the five-year plates in 1952.

Von Stetten tracked down the man who had registration YF27W—George Mackey of Boonton Turnpike, Lincoln Park—who hadn't noticed his odd set either.

Yesterday they exchanged plates and now they have their same numbers.

Two Children Killed in Blazing House

DETROIT (AP) — Two children died last midnight in a fire that destroyed a four-room bungalow at 1516 Maxwell Rd., north of Plymouth.

Dead are 5-year-old Calvert Montgomery and his 4-year-old sister Rebecca. Another child suffered severe burns.

Their father, Loren Montgomery, 31, suffered severe cuts and burns in an attempt to rescue them.

Constance Montgomery, 8, was listed in a critical condition at Wayne County General Hospital. She is not expected to live.

The mother, Eloise Montgomery, 30, was treated for shock.

The father was asleep on a couch in the living room when he was awakened by the fire. The children were trapped in the bedroom.

The idea that souls of the dead are born again in the bodies of other people and animals is very widespread among the peoples of the world.

Until the 18th Century Egyptian mummies were sent to Europe and sold in apothecary shops because it was believed that they had medicinal value.

It's the all purpose 4-wheel drive truck!

Here's a rugged, all-purpose truck designed not only for highway travel, but with the extra insurance of 4-wheel drive for difficult terrain or weather—the 'Jeep' Truck!

Mike Shayne took the letter, which was in Lucy Hamilton's handwriting, and read:

Dearest Boss:

I tried my hand at being a detective and played the fool. This may well be my very last love letter sent to you for a long time. Probably forever. I am held prisoner by a murderer and my escape is almost hopeless from this unoccupied, airtight cellar. I'll either starve or suffocate in here with Arlene Bristow unless you help me.

Do not do anything to hurt this man. You must try to find the seventy thousand which he believes you have. The mazuma, or both we girls will be dead. Please, please realize, Mike that I love only you — even to the very end.

Lucy

In the middle of Mike Shayn's living room stacks and stacks of new, crisp bills, were neatly arranged over the surface of a table. And a discarded money-belt of dark leather lay on the floor.

And on the table lay the crumpled sheet of paper on which Lucy Hamilton had written her message to Michael Shayne under the direction of the man who was now dead.

Chief of Police Will Gentry and Timothy Rourke sat at the table. Rourke's thin fingers were counting the crisp bills in their stacks of various denominatons. Will Gentry was settled solidly in a comfortable chair. His glance kept going back casually to the stacks of bills on the table and the counting job that Tim Rourke was doing, but mostly his attention was centered on the restless figure if Michael Shayne, pacing back and forth the length of the room monotonously.

For perhaps the tenth time during the half hour that the three of them had been together there, Chief Gentry reminded the redhead patiently:

'DON'T BLAME THEM'

"You can't blame Loftus and Powell for Switzer getting killed, Mike. If you had trusted us a little more they would have been glad to hold back and let you grab him alive. They didn't know you were there."

"And I didn't guess they would be there either," countered Shayne, also for perhaps the tenth time. "I had no reason to believe any of you would realize that Switzer might hear the broadcast and come to the conclusion that Bristow had ditched the money behind the cushion of Agnew's taxi after he was wounded and being driven to Lucy's place."

"Any sensible person who heard the broadcast," said Gentry, "would immediately think of that as a possibility. The way Bristow made a point of getting Agnew's name and number. Why else would he do that except that he planned to hide the money there and hoped to recover it later?

"Then when you and Tim put in that stuff about Agnew being on call any time at night for special trips in his cab, it was a definite invitation for Switzer to use that method of getting at the money."

"All right," agreed Shayne savagely. "So, you've made the point that you cops were as smart. And you sent Loftus and his sidekick out to see if Agnew did get a call. There was still no reason why they had to blow the top of his head off before he could be forced to tell us where he had Lucy and the Bristow girl hidden out." He stopped beside the table and put his forefinger down hard on the message Lucy had written to him. "Read that again. Right at this moment, two innocent girls may be breathing their last breath in the cellar of a deserted house. Only one man in the world could have saved them, and one of your trigger happy goons kills him.

'TAKE IT EASY'

"I know how you feel about Lucy, Mike," Gentry tried to soothe him. "But you've got to take it easy. She'll be rescued all right. You know what we're doing. Right now, I've got every available man on the force working over every vacated house in Miami that we have listed in our files. Tomorrow the papers will carry a story about Lucy and Arlene, urging every resident of Miami to communicate with us at once the location of any vacant house in their vicinity. We'll have Lucy and the Bristow girl safe and sound tomorrow afternoon."

"If they're still alive by that time," said Shayne. He picked up Lucy's note and read from it:

" 'I am held prisoner by a murderer and my escape is almost hopeless from this unoccupied airtight cellar.'

"An airtight cellar, Will. What makes you think they'll last until tomorrow afternoon?"

Timothy Rourke finished his counting of the bills taken from the money-belt Shayne had found hidden behind the rear-seat cushion in Joe Agnew's taxi.

"Roughly 74 thousand, I make it. No basement is actually airtight, Mike. There's always enough air seeping in to keep a person alive. If you're so eager to find them," the reporter went on caustically, "why don't you develop the theory you had that Lucy had somehow incorporated a secret message in code in this note to you?

Shayne glared down at the note in his hand. "I know it's here in front of our eyes, and we're all missing it. 'Dearest Boss' " he read aloud harshly. "Lucy never called me either Dearest or Boss in her life. That's phony. And: 'This may well be my very last love letter. Lucy never has written me a love letter before. So, how could this be the last one?"

3-Day Car Theft Spree Ends for Saginaw Youths

A 3-day car stealing spree by two Saginaw juveniles came to a sudden halt Wednesday when a State Police trooper became suspicious of two "very young boys driving a big car."

Trooper Charles Johnson, of the Pontiac Post, said he spotted the two 14-year-olds driving a new Buick north on Dixie Highway near M15.

He said both readily admitted taking the car from a Ferndale auto agency earlier in the day.

Under questioning, the pair, whose names were withheld because of their ages, admitted starting their spree Monday in Saginaw when they took a 1955 Ford which they "ditched" near Vassar because it "would go only 115 miles an hour."

After hitching a ride with a sympathetic woman who gave each a dollar for food, the youngsters "obtained" a late - model Cadillac from a lot near the State Police post here.

They abandoned the car near Cooley Lake when they stalled it in sand, according to Johnson. After hitching a ride to Ferndale, they took the Buick from behind the agency where it was parked.

Bob Considine Says:

Eisenhower Displays Passion for Peace

GENEVA (INS) — Early these mornings in Geneva an old professional soldier named Ike Eisenhower hears a distant call to arms, claps on his hat, kisses his wife goodbye, and marches off to peace.

* * *

It is something to see—the passion of this man for a real peace. He said some time ago, "We're going to win this war for peace," and his every action here is that of a man with a real fight on his hands to get not only peace but the kind of peace that is completely free of subjection, submission, or subtraction of what we've amassed through the years.

He works at this job from morning until the late hours of the night when the last guest has gone, or he himself has returned to his villa after a courtesy call, and he has had a final word with the men around him. He works at it at the little buffets that end each day's sessions. He works at it while he eats and it is possible he dreams about it at night.

There are landmarks of Woodrow Wilson and his lofty dreams strewn about Geneva, but Eisenhower is a different envoy. He is bold enough to dream that peace is possible but materialistic enough to realize that it is—as was said at one of the pre-conference religious services—"an edifice which men have found almost impossible to build since the beginning of time."

VIGOROUS APPROACH

The ruling theme of his vigorous approach to peace here at Geneva was expressed in his opening day's statement when he told the others, "No doubt there are among our nations philosophical convictions which are in many respects irreconcilable. Nothing that we can say or do here will change that fact. However, it is not always necessary that people should think alike and believe alike before they can work together. The essential thing is that none should attempt by force or trickery to make his beliefs prevail and thus to impose his system on the unwilling."

It is an approach that has captured even the imagination of the traditionally neutral Swiss. The Russians have put on the big show here, what with their open car parades through the streets and the smiles and handwaves. But it is the old soldier in search of peace after two generations of battle who has won the hearts of the people along the curbs, and their firmest cheers.

How's the traffic in your town? It's real rough at the various points of entry into Switzerland from nearby France. The Swiss have become so security conscious for fear that something will happen to their renowned guests that their customs people are going over every incoming car with what amounts to a magnifying glass. Hoods are opened, hub caps are pried off, the undersides of cushions and fenders are studied.

Causes quite a pileup down the road, loud horn blowing and imprecations (choice) in a dozen tongues.

The French chef Molotov employed after a searching loyalty test last summer, at the Geneva conference on Asian affairs, refused to work for the Soviet Foreign Minister this time. To a friend he explained:

"I could not stand it. He never said he liked my cooking and he never said he didn't. I was a wreck."

Seek to Reclassify Road as Trunkline

The Oakland County Road Commission has agreed with Macomb County to seek Highway Department approval for reclassifying Twelve Mile Road as a state trunkline, according to Lee O. Brooks, chairman.

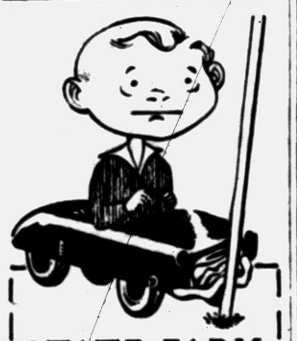

The two groups feel the widening and extension of Twelve Mile to connect with the planned farmington - Brighton expressway is needed to serve rapidly expanding population and industry in southern Oakland and Macomb, Brooks explained.

Congress Nears OK on Reserves

Conference Unit Puts Approval on Measure Similar to Ike's

WASHINGTON (INS) — Congress moved a step closer today to final approval of legislation designed to give the nation a combat-ready military reserve of 2,900,000 men by 1960.

House and Senate conferees agreed yesterday on a compromise bill not quite as strong as President Eisenhower requested but which has "real possibilities for building up a ready reserve," in the opinion of former Senate Armed Services Chairman Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass).

The conference report will be taken up in the House Monday. If approved early enough in the day, the Senate may send it to Eisenhower for his signature by nightfall.

Under the legislation, men now in uniform would not be required to take part in ready reserve training upon their discharge from active duty, as will those who enter service after the bill becomes law.

However, present members of the armed forces could reduce their active duty time or their over-all military obligation by volunteering for the reserves when they get out.

A draftee, for instance, could freehimself of active duty after only one year by agreeing to serve three years in the ready reserves. That would require participating in weekly drills and in two weeks of summer camp duty every year.

Future inductees and enlistees would have a total military obligation of six years, which would consist of active duty plus whatever time is left in the ready reserves.

The measure also provides for allowing youths from 17 to 18½ to volunteer for up to six months of active training. After that, they would have to serve in the ready reserves for at least seven and one-half more years.

The body was discovered nearly four hours after neighbors heard the couple quarreling violently around noon yesterday.

Casey was found in a bedroom. Police said he had apparently tried to commit suicide by slashing his arm.

The aciton was filed in superior court yesterday. Davis asserted that a story published in the magazine "depicted him as carrying on a relationship with a girl and in a manner that would imply an intimacy between the parties."

The singer declared that it was "wilfully, maliciously and completely without truth" and was intended to bring him into "public discredit and ridicule."

School Tax Rate Set in Waterford

Bills to Remain Same; Salary Increases Voted for Non-Teaching Help

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The board of education last night established a tax rate for the school district at $25.23 per $1,000 assessed valuation, as equalized by the state

This rate, according to the board, will keep the taxpayers bills for local schools at the same level, or slightly lower, than last year.

In other action, they approved salary schedules for clerical custodial, maintenance, engineering and bus driving personnel. Under the higher schedule approved, the increase will amount to $15 and $20 per month, depending on classification of employes.

Bus drivers will receive $1.90 per hour. All personnel had accumulative sick leave limit increased from 20 to 30 days.

Named to the township recreation board were Elmer Johnson and Mrs. Donald Adams. The new building committee is headed by Marshall Smith, with Fred Poole and William Bawden assisting him.

On the personnel committee are Mrs. Donald Adams, chairman, and serving with her are Johnson and Superintendent of Schools William Shunck.

8-Year-Old Girl Crushed by Runaway Hay Wagon

CUSTER (INS)—Sharon Forbes, 8, was killed yesterday when she started her father's tractor and, with a load of hay attached, it careened over a 12-foot embankment and fell upon her.

The father, Leroy, heard the tractor motor start while he was inside his home getting a drink of water. He leaped aboard the careening machine in an effort to halt it. He was thrown clear.

Gibson Girl, 70, Stricken With Gastric Attack

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was doing all right today at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital where she is under treatment for a gastric attack. She was hospitalized Tuesday.

Her physician said the attack was brought on by over-exertion and excitement attendant to the filming of the life story of the 70-year-old original Gibson girl.

Mrs. Thaw, a sculptor, recently has been an instructor in a Los Angeles art school.

The board of directors of Sherman Products, Inc., Royal Oak, leading manufacturer and distributor of hydraulic excavating and earth-moving equipment for small tractors, today declared the company's 18th consecutive quarterly dividend.

The dividend of four cents per share of common stock is payable on Sept. 15, on the 470,000 shares outstanding, to shareholders of record Sept. 2.

W. A. Romain, president of the firm which has been a pioneer in its post-war-developed field, manufacturing and distributing hydraulic power diggers, front-end loaders and fork lifts for Ford and Fordson-Major tractors, said Sherman has not failed to declare a quarterly dividend since June, 1951.

The company also manufactures special tractor transmissions.

Holstein Affair to Be July 29

Set 4-H Fair Grounds as Site; Special Class Added This Year

Oakland County Holstein breeders are holding their annual Black and White show July 29, it has been revealed. The show will be held at the 4-H Fair Grounds on Perry Street, starting at 10 a.m.

Activities will get under way at 11 a.m. with a junior showmanship contest, with four prizes to be awarded. The outstanding boy and girl will be eligible to represent the county at the State Black and White show.

A feature of this year's show will be a special class of three best animals from a family owned and operated dairy farm. This special class was instituted to encourage more farmer breeders to participate.

The class for which family owned and operated herds are eligible is to be made up of any three animals bred and owned by the exhibitors. It may include purchased 4-H animals, however.

Carlos Long, president of the County Holstein Breeders Assn., has reported that milk and ice cream will be supplied free for the non potluck picnic.

Judging will follow the lunch, with Everett Miller examining the animals entered. Asistant county agent John K. Trocke reminds breeders to bring registration papers and health papers for cattle entered.

Entries will be judged on standard classes. A copy of these classes and entry blanks are available to the Agricultural Extension office in Pontiac.

Ontario Timberland Threatened by Fires

TORONTO (AP) — Ontario's rich timberlands were faced today with the worst fire menace in seven years.

The situation is so bad that 200,000 square miles of woodlands, nearly a quarter of the province, have been sealed to public travel.

All told, 110 fires were burning through the north country today. Thirty-nine were raging out of control despite efforts of 4,500 firefighters.

Some 250,000 acres of forest have been destroyed so far this year, the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests said. New fires are starting faster than the old ones can be stamped out. A quarter of the province is one big tinder box because of a hot spell and little rainfall, the department said.

Flint Worker Wounds Woman Employe, Self

FLINT (AP) — A Ternstadt factory worker shot and wounded a fellow woman employe at the change of shifts at 6:45 a.m. today and then critically wounded himself.

The police identified the two as Mary Wilson, 24, of Flint, a day shift worker at the General Motors plant, and Samuel C. Humphreys, 31, also of Flint, a night shift employe. Both are former Tennesseans.

Iranian Princess Divorcing American

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Princess Fatemeh of Iran has sued for divorce from the American commoner who drew the wrath of her brother, the Shah.

The princess, 26, youngest daughter of the late Shah Muhammed Riza Pahlavi, contends in her suit, filed yesterday, that Vincent L. Hillyer, 30, treated her cruelly and caused her "great mental suffering and anguish."

She asked for custody of their son Kayvon, 3, and for clear title to a $100,000 ranch in Madera County, Calif., claiming she bought it with her own funds.

Hillyer, now an importer, and the princess were married at Civitavecchia, Italy, April 13, 1950. The young Shah expressed disapproval of the union but later forgave them.

'Bonanzagram'

Have Fun! Win $100!

"Bonanzagram" is an exciting new puzzle in which the Pontiac Press offers both fun and a $100 cash prize. BUT before you try your hand at "Bonanzagram" be sure and read the rules at the bottom of this page. Solution will appear in the Press July 29.

CLAIM CHECK

Below is a duplicate of the "Bonanzagram" entry you send in to contest headquarters. It is ESSENTIAL that you fill it in and save it until the correct solution to "Bonanzagram" No. 20 is published Friday, July 29. Unless you do so, you will be unable to collect the prize if you should send in a winning solution. Check the rules below for further details.

Bonanzagram No. 20

Story Clues

William, a clerk at the super market, went home after closing time and found his wife, Kate, who was a social worker, belatedly returned from a two weeks' trip. They now realized that an invitation had been extended to some guests for dinner that night, and the problem was what to feed them. The emergency shelf in the kitchen was depleted. Kate had come home having spent all her money, and William too was short of cash, since it was just before pay day. Kate suggested he go back to the store and get what they needed. Although William had a key, it was only supposed to be used for emergencies or when he was on the early shift. However, Kate insisted. Concerned that someone might report a prowler, William decided to leave a note to explain to his boss. In his hurry, he broke a bottle of laundry bleach and drops of it got on the note, fading out some of the letters. Can you, too, fill out and understand the message, as his boss did?

How To Play 'Bonanzagram'

Solve the "Bonanzagram" by filling in all the missing letters, as indicated by the underscores, in the message. Insert only one letter above each underscore. Many clues to the missing letters are hidden in the story or anecdote, accompanying the message itself, and, in a few cases, the contestant's general knowledge should provide the correct letter. The contestant will note that the message is unpunctuated. Punctuation will help solve the message but is not necessary to win.

All missing letters must be correctly inserted to win a Bonanzagram prize. Punctuation will not be considered in judging a correct answer.

When properly filled in, the "Bonanzagram" will spell out a clear message that will conform in every way with the clues. In many cases it will seem that more than one word would be the correct one. That's part of the fun! You should weigh the clues and select the BEST possible word in each case.

How to Submit Entries

1. After solution is completed, "Bonanzagram" should be clipped and pasted to a two-cent postcard with your name and address.

2. Entries will be received at the Pontiac Press office, 48 W. Huron St., until 5 p. m. Tuesday, July 26. Mail entries must be postmarked before midnight Tuesday, July 26 for Bonanzagram No. 20. Address "Bonanzagram, %, Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

3. Entries may be mailed in envelope but contestant's full name and number of puzzle must be printed in upper left corner of address side of envelope.

4. Copies of the Press need not be purchased to enter. Facsimiles made by hand and corresponding as closely as possible to the original "Bonanzagram" printed in the Press will be accepted but are limited one to a family. Mimeograph, duplicator or other unofficial mechanical reproduction is forbidden.

How to Collect the Prize

The entrant must work out and keep duplicate solution as a claim check. When the solution is published in the Press, he should compare his "claim check" with the published solution, and, if his claim check is identical, he should call in person with his claim check at the Press office, 48 W. Huron St., before 5 p. m. on the Monday following publication of the solution.

If a winner cannot call at the Press office in person, he should mail his solution to "Bonanzagram Editor." This letter must reach the Press not later than 5 p.m. the Monday after publication of the answer. Correct answers are void unless the contestant reports his claim by the deadlines listed here.

About Eligibility, Information, Etc.

1. Anyone is eligible for the "Bonanzagram" contest except employes of the Press and members of their immediate families. (Immediate family means all those living in an employe's household.)

2. No question as to winners will be answered by phone.

3. The Press will award a prize of $100 to the winner of each weekly Bonanzagram. If more than one winning answer is received, the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If no correct solution is received the $100 will be added to the next week's prize. If the winner is a subscriber of record to the Press a $20 bonus will be added to the $100.

4. Only one winning entry from a family will be eligible for the prize, but there is no limit on number of entries.

5. The Press retains the right to correct typographical errors.

6. Judges' decision will be final and contestant's submission of entries indicates acceptance of these rules.

7. No liability is accepted for entries that fail to reach us.

8. The Press reserves the right to alter rules and/or discontinue the contest at its discretion.

Mother Resumes Unending Search for Son

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

SNOQUALMIE PASS, Wash. (INS)—Every year about this time, when the snow slides down the mountains into the Black Lake, a fragile woman of great strength returns to these woodlands to look for her lost son.

It is seven summers now since "the accident." And there are perhaps 50,000 square miles of timbered hills and creeping, spreading alder brush that could have swallowed up a man and his airplane.

Yet "I hope," said Mrs. Nora Mayes, smiling, "we will find a clue this time."

Mrs. Mayes, a small-framed farm woman from Clinton, Tennessee, is almost as legendary as Bunyan himself in this remote area of the Northwest where her 24-year-old Naval Air Cadet son, Ens. Gaston Eugene Mayes, dropped from sight on March 11, 1949. She doesn't say much, when she pulls into the rustic "Sunset Motel" after a 3,000-mile drive from Clinton each July, except to explain—over and over, patiently, as if she were talking to children—that "I've got to find him or my mind will never be settled."

Every one hereabouts—the loggers, the climbers, the guides—understands and respects her for it. Timber company foremen give her keys to their newest roads through the wooded area, so she can drive or trudge through them on foot, searching.

The hunters sit down and talk with her, revealing the grounds they have covered over the year, so that she will not have to waste her time on futile territory.

MEN RESPECT HER

They don't think Mrs. Mayes is childish, demented, morbid or even overly sentimental.

One logger put it this way. "She'll find him someday. I'll betcha. With her kind of faith, she could walk all the way here from Tennessee with two broken legs, and still smile."

Gaston was the oldest of Mrs. Mayes' three children and she had never been prouder, perhaps, than when she received the winged pin which proved that she was the ma of a Naval air cadet. He had had one ambition, to be a flier, and had enrolled as an air cadet at age 17.

On March 11, 1949—"a warm day in Tennessee"—Ensign Mayes had breakfast with a nurse at Sand Point, his base, and she remarked that she was planning a trip to Snoqualmie Pass and wondered if she would need snow chains for her car. "I'll go up that way and take a look for you," he said.

In company with Lt. (J.G.) Berg Vreeland of Trenton, N. J., Gaston took off in an SNJ training plane to "log hours" of flying time and see if Snoqualmie Pass would require snow chains.

An hour and one-half later, several loggers in the area saw a plane circling and watched, helplessly, while one propeller sputtered, slowed down, then stopped. The plane glided from sight. At the Boeing Field tower, a weak message came through: "Navy 90586. Calling Sand Point." Then nothing.

IMPOSSIBLE TO PINPOINT

The message might have indicated that the plane had crashed and one of the men was alive. The mountainous terrain and the sweep of the plane's glide made it impossible for the loggers to pinpoint, even roughly, the crash scene.

There was a long air and land search but after many days everyone gave up. Except, of course, Mrs. Mayes.

By now, she knows certain areas around Snoqualmie Pass better than most women know their back yards, but there are hundreds of miles more to cover.

And looking for anything as big as a plane here is something like looking for a needle in an acre-wide haystack.

One guide described, "The way the alder grows so fast, you could come within 10 feet of that plane and never see it. But the lady knows that and do you think it bothers her any?"

It doesn't.

Mrs. Mayes may spend another clue-less stay in the Northwest but she'll be back, as long as she can drive, walk and ask questions in her quiet Tennessee drawl. She doesn't know what she expects to find.

She only knows she has to find some visual evidence that her son existed, and does no more, before she can give up searching.

The U.S. Navy's first submarine derived its power from a conventional four cylinder gasoline engine.

She Rides Bumper to Finish Tirade

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Lola Jenkins, 54, apparently just wasn't through talking to her husband.

Scioto County Sheriff Burl Justice said the Dutch Ridge woman was thrown off the bumper of the family car yesterday after a quarrel with her husband Walker, 56. She suffered a fractured arm and head cuts.

The sheriff said Mrs. Jenkins jumped on the bumper and clung to the hood ornament as her husband started to drive away. He stopped suddenly.

Mrs. Jenkins told the sheriff she plans to file charges after she leaves the hospital.

Better Health Enables Kennedy to Visit India

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. John F. Kennedy disclosed today he is so sure his long grind of hospitalization and therapy is a thing of the past that he plans a trip to Asia and the Middle East this fall.

The young Massachusetts Democrat said he hopes to visit India, Indochina and Israel as a member of a special senate subcommittee checking on the effectiveness of the U. S. Technical Aid Program.

Ford Trimotor Tries Comeback

Firm Will Build Cargo Plane Out of Production Since 1934

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The "Tin Goose," a ghost of the skyways, is on its way back under its own power.

* * *

A new Los Angeles aviation company says it will start soon on construction of the Ford Trimotor, which hasn't been built since 1934. The company thinks it will sell as a cargo plane.

Phil Cooper, project manager for Hayden Aviation Co., said yesterday that engineers are now working over blueprints of the original Trimotor. Hayden plans to build two a week, iwth the first model flying next April. William B. Stout, who designed the original Trimotor and retained patents rights, is an associate of the firm.

Cooper said the Trimotor will be modernized a little, but essentially will be the same as the slab-sided, three - engine workhorse which pioneered many of the nation's present air routes.

The Ford, first built in 1928, was a square-looking, all-metal, high-wing transport with an engine hung under each wing and another in the nose, directly in front of the pilot's compartment.

* * *

The originals were powered by 400-horsepower engines. Cooper said the new jobs will have 450-horsepower Pratt-Whitneys. Cruising speed will be 100 to 125 m.p.h., and payload will be 6,000 pounds. Among changes on the new model will be addition of a cargo door big enough to admit a jeep.

Surplus File Folders Enough for 50 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) said today he has learned the Army sought recently to sell as "surplus" a $450,000 supply of stiff paper file folders—"enough to supply the entire federal government's need for the item for 15 to 18 years."

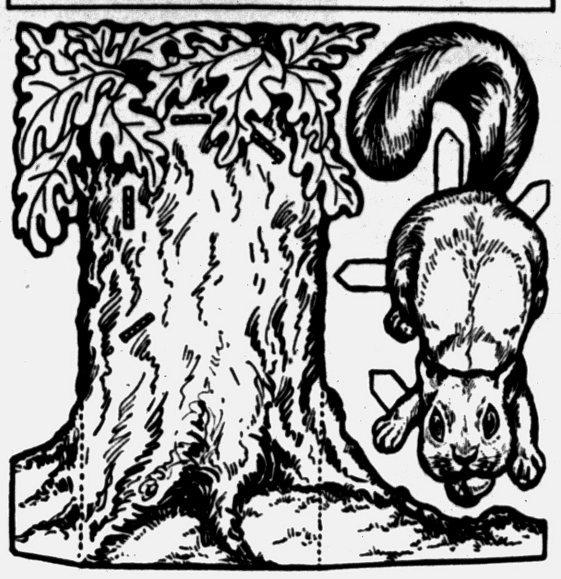

Kennedy said one of his aides figured the seven million folders probably would be a 50-year supply for the Army. Saying that sounds wasteful, he said he will ask for some explanation of why a stock that big was bought.

Not Stolen After All

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Marshall Sirles showed up at the police station yesterday to report his car had been stolen. The police, who had picked up Sirles' car and were looking for him, hauled him into court where he paid $40 in speeding fines and was put under $25 bond until he gets a driver's license.

DAY CAMP—5

Squirrels

Perhaps the friendliest animal you will meet on your home day camp's nature hike will be the squirrel.

There are many different kinds of squirrels, and they are all usually graceful, quick and active. They have long bushy tails and reddish brown or gray bodies, sometimes striped.

Most of them will not be afraid of you. If you offer a squirrel a nut, hold it quietly in your hand and don't make any sudden motions when the squirrel is coming toward you. Likely as not, he will take the nut right out of your hand.

Here is a squirrel coming down the trunk of an oak tree with an acorn in his mouth. He plans to take it to his own tree and hide it with the rest of his food store.

Paste this page on cardboard and press under heavy weights — several books placed on top will do the job. Color it with crayons, perhaps like a squirrel you saw on your hike.

Cut out the tree trunk along the heavy outline. Cut slits along the heavy black lines.

Fold back the ends on the dotted lines and the tree trunk will stand up.

Cut out the squirrel. Put him head down on the tree trunk. Push the tabs on the squirrel through the proper slits. Fold over the ends at the back and the squirrel will stay on the tree trunk. Now you have your own squirrel and he looks just like those you saw on your hike.

A variety of costumes was admired by neighbors and parents who relaxed on a shady lawn overlooking Williams Lake Wednesday, as they were entertained at a neighborhood fair. Barbara Kern (left) and her sister Pat of Desmond road took turns helping each other get ready for their acts while John Sullivan, also of Desmond road, made sure things were running smoothly. Mike Featherstone was master of ceremonies for the affair.

Play Sherlock to Meet 'Divine-Looking Boy'

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I saw the most divine-looking boy in my neighborhood the other day. He passed me on the street. My big problem is how to get to meet him.

"I live in a fairly large community and it's quite hard to find someone you've only seen once. But I certainly would like to locate him, and make him notice me.

"I'm told that I'm quite attractive and have a nice figure, but though I'm usually tongue-tied with strange boys I feel I could get in good with him if I had a chance. Please tell me what to do."

Answer: One look at this beautiful stranger, and you've conjured up tantalizing visions of how things could be if you just had a chance.

But life is full of beautiful strangers whom one never sees again. Like ships that pass in the night, you spot one, register favorably, then go your separate ways with no occasion for a second look, let alone an introduction.

You know so very little about this lad who has you dayáreaming. You say you saw him in your neighborhood. He might live nearby or he might be just passing through. You might try to find out by inquiring around.

Which way was he headed, the day you saw him? Was he alone or with someone you've seen before? Was he on an obvious errand? For instance, was he carrying packages as though he'd been to the grocery store? Did he have in his hand a package with the drugstore's identifiable wrapping?

Was he eating an ice cream cone? Can you remember any clue on which you could hang a little private investigation? In the neighborhood stores you could discreetly ask if they know any boy who matches your description.

If you could get his name, it would then be easier to find out where he lives.

"Dear Miss Woodward: I haven't seen him for four weeks now, and I can't imagine why. I'm sure if he'd found another girl he'd have let me know about a thing like that.

"We're leaving next week for the rest of the summer and in the fall I'm going away to school. Should I just forget about him until fall and write him from school?

Answer: Try calling him up before you go away for the summer, just to say goodbye and hope he has a nice summer himself. Then write him gay postcards during the the summer and let him know when you'll be back to get ready for going away again.

If you vanish from the scene with no trace he'll put you out of his mind. But constant reminders might prompt him to let you know where you stand.

Book Lists Rules for Home Typist

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Charlotte Montgomery, out in New Jersey, was lunching with me the other day and told me of a book she had heard about.

"I hate to say this," she grinned, "but it claims you can make 10,000 dollars a year, typing at home!"

* * *

So of course I tracked it down—and it really is an awfully good book.

Not everybody, it points out, can make big money. But for the serious skilled typist who has plenty of time and energy, it does give some excellent suggestions for approaching typing in a truly professional manner.

What is more, the author, Lenore Felgen, is a suburban housewife who practices what she preaches.

Mrs. Felgen is married and the mother of two sons. In fact, it was a desire to build up a nest egg for the boys' education which prompted Mrs. Felgen to go into a home business in the first place.

* * *

In this book, she tells other women just how to go about it and gives all her trade secrets, without reservation.

TIME-WASTERS

If you think of typing at home as a painless magical way of piling up the extra dollars, this book is not for you. Here, for example, are some of Mrs. Felgen's opening remarks:

"You must eliminate all of your former time-wasters. It'll be important for you to set regular working hours, explaining to friends and neighbors you now have regular working hours just as though you worked in an office downtown.

"Point out that you'll be delighted, however, to have them phone you or drop in any time after hours."

She also makes it clear that you can't just sit around waiting for business to fall in your lap.

* * *

You can't be shy— in fact, you must follow up all leads, if you are to have plenty of business.

And she gives suggestions—nine of them—on how to do this.

SEND FOR ADVICE

If you are interested in typing at home, or in making money at home from cooking, sewing, or any other way, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope care of the Pontiac Press and I will send you my list of selected books on making money at home.

A quick casserole can be made with cooked spaghetti, tuna and ripe olives.

Combine them in a greased baking dish, season with onion salt and pepper and top with grated cheese. Bake for 20 to 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

Stick to Single Brand of Soap for White Wash

MANHATTAN, Kans. (INS) — "Tattle-tale gray" may result from switching back and forth between soaps and synthetic detergents.

Not rinsing clothes thoroughly also may be responsible, according to Miss Tessie Agan, acting head of the household economics department at Kansas State College.

Miss Agan suggests the housewife choose either a soap or a detergent and then stick to her choice. If a switch is made, the clothes should be conditioned by a thorough rinsing.

Following is the conditioning process:

Fill the washer with warm or hot water and add about 1½ cups of a water softener that will leave no scum. Put in the clothes, set the dial for six to eight minutes of washing time and let the washer go through the complete cycle automatically. The same process applies too washers that are not automatic.

How Are Placecards Addressed?

Use 'Mrs. Jones' Unless Two Have Same Name

By EMILY POST

A woman today writes: "I am inviting 10 women to luncheon in a private room of a hotel and will mark the table with placecards. I would like to know if the cards should be written Mrs. John Jones or Mrs. Mary Jones?"

Answer: You write Mrs. Jones, unless there are two Mrs. Joneses, in which case you write Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. Henry Jones. You should never write Mrs. Mary Jones.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please answer the following question for me: I say that when telephoning someone, it is proper under all circumstances for the person calling to announce herself to the person at the other end by saying 'This is Mrs. Jones, may I speak to Mrs. Smith?'

"My husband says that it is not necessary to give your name unless the person at the other end asks, 'Who is calling?' Will you please tell us which method is correct?"

Answer: You are correct.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be married shortly in a distant city and my husband and I have been invited to stay at the bride's sister's house.

"I would like to know if I should take a present for her, or just what is my obligation to her for putting us up. We have met my son's bride-to-be once but the rest of her family are strangers to us."

Answer: No present is expected. When you leave thank her for her hospitality and that is all. When you get home you could send her something such as a box of candy she has told you she especially likes.

Tattling Child Opens Dad's Eyes

BY MURIEL LAWRENCE

SCENE: My workroom. I'm at my typewriter when the telephone rings. Lifting it, I am greeted by the voice of Alan, a young father we know.

* * *

Alan: Am I interrupting?

I: It's all right. How are Jane and Butch?

Alen: Fine. Me, I'm a little worried about something that's come up with Butch.

I: About school?

Alan: No—about Butch and me It happened the other night. When I got home, Jane told me some hometown friends of hers were here for a convention and were dropping in for coffee after dinner. I blew up. I felt I couldn's survive an evening of anybody's high school reminiscences. But after a shower, things looked different. These people came— and my son told one of the women what I'd said.

BETRAYED BY BUTCH

I: TATTLED on you, eh?

Alan: Butch betrayed me—that's what he did. I overheard him telling one of the women all about how Daddy had wished his mother's hometown friends would stay there.

* * *

I: You did wish that.

Alan: Holy Cow, what reason is that for a kid to broadcast his family's private business?

I: What did you do about it?

Alan: I told Butch that I had lost trust in him. He's barely spoken to me for two days. Last night, Jane spoke to him about his stubborn attitude — and what do you think he said? He admitted he'd wanted to hurt me. I was getting paid back. It seems that he was pretty bitter at me for not taking him to the zoo last Sunday.

I. WHY didn't Butch tell you how angry he was about the zoo last Sunday?

Alan (after a long pause): Are you telling me that he didn't trust me enough to blow up to my face about it?

* * *

I: I've told you nothing. You know it, yourself.

Alan (slowly): O.K. I guess that's it. If Butch felt free to attack me to my face, he might not have complained about me behind my back. I see. That opens this thing up. I'll have a talk with him.

I: Isn't it wonderful what an 8-year-old boy can do for a father by keeping him upset for two days?

Alan: M-mm. He started to fuss about that zoo business last Sunday— and I shut him up. Man, I'm glad I called you. Thanks.

Canned Soup Adds Flavor to Salad

Mrs. B. Griffin Puts Raw Vegetables in Tomato Mixture

BY JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Quite some time ago we asked Mrs. Bert Griffin if we might publish this recipe of hers for a molded salad. She readily gave her permission, but it will probably surprise her to see it in print at this time. Thanks, Earnestine.

Mrs. Griffin is a charming person to know. She is a busy woman whose job keeps her active in the business world. An active member of the Junior Women's Clubs, she has served as its president.

ASHFIELD SALAD

By Mrs. Bert Griffin

1 can condensed tomato soup
3 (3 ounce) packages cream cheese
1 cup salad dressing
1 cup chopped celery
1 green pepper, chopped
1 onion, minced
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold water

Bring soup to a boil and add gelatine that has been soaked in the cold water. Put cheese in hot soup and blend. When cold, add salad dressing and vegetables. Pour into a mold and chill. Serve on lettuce.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (INS)—Men are wearing pink underwear these days.

A manufacturer reports that pink is becoming a best seller in men's undershorts and pajamas.

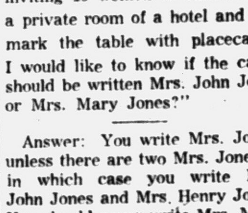

Pink previously had been acceptable by men in such visible items as shirts, socks and ties.

The rosy underwear story, the firm added, came as somewhat of a surprise. They explained its officials had brought out pink shorts merely as an experiment—only to find out that they were fast-selling items.

According to a hosiery company, however, although men may be wearing pink inside as well as out such purchases are usually made by their wives.

Pain strikes at the weakest place. That explains the large number of headaches.

Students Invoke 5th Amendment in Quiz on Frats

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Five Orlando high school students invoked the Fifth Amendment when questioned about membership in high school fraternities which are illegal in Florida.

County Solicitor Richard H. Cooper said yesterday he subpoenaed the youths to testify on a possible connection between vandalism here and the fraternities, but each replied: "I refuse to testify on grounds it may tend to incriminate me."

Three other youths admitted fraternity membership at Boone and Edgewater high schools. Cooper said, however, they will not be prosecuted. "That's a problem for the School Board to handle," he said.

He added no information was uncovered linking the fraternities to recent vandalism that included $2,000 worth of window smashing, gang fights and petty thefts.

MINEOLA, Tex. (AP)—It was "hospitality by the slice" yesterday and 5,000 passing motorists took advantage of it.

That many slices of ice-cold watermelon were served free to travelers during Mineola's annual Watermelon Festival. Police and Boy Scouts flagged down travelers en route through this east Texas town until 30 tons of iced melons were gone.

Probers to Hear Newspapermen

Guild to Get Chance to Tell Own Story at Public Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) says a Senate subcommittee is willing to hear representatives of the CIO American Newspaper Guild although it "has made no charges against nor cast any slurs upon" the union.

* * *

Eastland said he had telegraphed that reply to Ralph B. Novak of New York, the Guild's executive vice president, after Novak had asked an opportunity to correct what he termed a "totally false impression" given at hearings of the Internal Security subcommittee.

Eastland, the subcommittee chairman, replied that the group "is not investigating the press or radio-TV or the fourth estate or newspapermen or newspapers or the Newspaper Guild . . . We are investigating communism."

He said, however, that if Novak or other guild officials wish to testify as to their anticommunism, a hearing will be fixed for a date mutually convenient.

In a series of hearings in recent weeks, the subcommittee has heard some newsmen say they were Communists in the late 1930s and early 1940s, but have quit the party. Several declined to answer questions about past Communist connections.

Governor Demands Strict Driving Laws

DENVER (AP)—Gov. Ed Johnson has called for drastic revision of Colorado driver examinations and enactment of tougher laws against chronic traffic offenders. He recommended yesterday:

Speed governors on automobiles.

Seat safety belts which, he said, would prevent 1 out of 10 traffic fatalities.

More frequent and stiffer driver examinations, including hearing tests, heart examinations and actual highway high-speed and mountain driving tests.

Judge Expects Little From Court Audience

NORFORK, Va. (AP)—For the first F. Moorhead expects spectators in his court to behave themselves but he doesn't expect too much of them.

When flippant answers and questions during a hearing yesterday brought roars of laughter, the judge spoke up.

"You may chuckle a little bit," he admonished, "but be as quiet as possible."

History Meetings Set

LANSING (AP)—The Upper Peninsula History Conference will be held this year Aug. 12 and 13 at Sault Ste. Marie, the State Historical Society said today. Watch for Top Notch Reports From Geneva

New Service Requests Swamp Bell

By ARNOLD S. HIRSCH

Overwhelmed by the tremendous and rapid population boom in Oakland County, the Pontiac district office of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. is working overtime to whittle down the mounting list of new service requests.

"Eighteen months or two years ago, we just didn't anticipate the growth we are getting," said Edward J. Novak, district manager.

There is a backlog of 1,500 requests for telephones in Pontiac, Clarkston, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, Oxford, Rochester and Walled Lake.

To reduce it, Bell has had planners and installation crews working overtime since the first of the year. On order with Western Electric Co. and other suppliers is more than $10,000,000 worth of equipment. But it has to be built and installed.

LACK EQUIPMENT

"Our suppliers just can't get us enough equipment," Novak said. "And there are also the problems of installation and time.

"To build a house takes 12 weeks. But it takes a year to engineer and construct an outside telephone plant and 65 weeks to plan and build central office equipment. That's why we have to anticipate in order to keep up."

Novak pointed to one Bell chart which shows the district's family growth since 1935 and predicts what's to come. In 1935, there were 28,700 families. This year there are 57,700, of whom 85 per cent have telephones.

By 1965, the company estimates there will be 89,000 families in the district. And most of them will want Mr. Bell's device somewhere in the house.

The company's predictions are based on contacts with builders, contractors, other utility companies and population trends such as the suburban movement outward from Detroit.

In order to keep closer track of these movements, Michigan Bell has decentralized its planning section. Formerly, all planning was done in Detroit. Now each district in the state prepares its own forecast.

Purpose of the change was to eliminate getting into other jamups of unfillable orders and to aid in determining what improved service present customers want.

Thirty Bell staffers call, write or call on subscribers in this area asking what they want in way of better service. In this way, the company knows what service to put into the new installations as well as what equipment improvements to plan for present customers.

Monthly conferences are held to discuss the findings. And every six months a detailed revised 5-year forecast is prepared.

Novak said the company improved 11,000 customer services last year, including the elimination of 2,000 rural 8-party classes of service in the FEderal exchange. Most people now want 1-party lines, he noted.

"Customers all want better service nowadays. It reflects the economic trend of the nation," he said.

For the immediate future, improvement-wise, Novak stated next year FEderal exchange customers will be able to dial anywhere in southeastern Michigan directly, without going through an operator.

UNIVERSAL DIALING

This should be general throughout the district by 1956, he said. In fact, by that time it may be that district subscribers will be able to dial any place in the United States.

Thanks to all the hustle, the manager said, "the company is coming much closer to providing the kind of phone service customers want when they want it.

"We think that by the end of next year, we will be able to meet this objective."

Pontiac district manager, (left) looks on as Herschel Peters, a Bell sales representative, points out one of the district's 40 housing developments for which the company must provide service. Tips on Water Safety Offered by Red Cross

More than a dozen persons have lost their lives by drowning in Oakland County's lakes thus far this summer.

Twelve timely "tips for dips" offered by the Oakland County Chapter of the Red Cross may help to prevent future tragedies. Prentis Mark Smith, Birmingham, water safety chairman of the local chapter, advises:

1. Learn to swim. There's no better sport . . . and it may save your life.
2. Never swim alone. Make sure someone is nearby to help.
3. Swim at a safe place, preferably one with lifeguards.
4. Don't swim when overheated, overtired, or immediately after eating.
5. Be sure the water is diving depth, has no hidden objects.
6. Know your ability. Distance over water is misleading.
7. Take a boat along for distance swimming in open water.
8. Be courteous. Consider the safety of others.
9. Beware of sunburn, even on a cloudy day. Take it easy.
10. Learn safe handling, self-rescue before going boating.
11. Stay with your boat or canoe. It will float when upset.
12. In case of a drowning, start artificial respiration at once.

REMAIN CALM — If you get into trouble — like unexpectedly stepping off into deep water, don't imitate this young lady. Throwing your hands up to heaven is the easiest way to get there. Keep your hands under water, kick your feet and head for shore.

DON'T BECOME VICTIM — You can help someone in trouble near shore, even if you can't swim. But don't jump in and become a victim yourself. Extend a pole, oar, branch or even a towel or clothing toward the swimmer. Or push a floating support, such as a plank, towards the victim. Don't try a swimming rescue unless you have been trained in lifesaving.

STAY WITH BOAT — If your boat or canoe upsets or swamps, stay with it! Most small craft will float even if filled with water. Hang onto the boat and swim to shore, or sit in the bottom and hand-paddle it to safety.

Talbott Denies Improper Profits From Business

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said today a Senate inquiry is "still open" into a profitable business interest which Secretary of the Air Force Talbott has offered to give up if the senators think he should.

Talbott told the Senate Investigations subcommittee yesterday he has reaped no "improper" profit as a partner in the New York efficiency firm of Paul B. Mulligan & Co., some of whose clients hold government contracts.

He said his "special partnership" in the firm pays him more than $50,000 a year. McClellan put it at $60,000. The Air Force secretary's salary is $18,000.

At Talbott's request, the subcommittee hastily arranged the public hearing late yesterday. It adjourned without giving any official reply to the secretary's request that it say whether he should relinquish his interest in the Mulligan firm Aug. 1.

McClellan, the subcommittee chairman, set no date for another session in the inquiry into the propriety of the arrangement and into hints that Talbott had used his official position to further the firm's interests. Talbott said he had "certainly not" done so.

Declaring that "the finger of suspicion" has been pointed at him by some newspapers in a manner that "I don't think I deserve," Talbott gave a company-by-company report on his contacts with clients of the Mulligan firm.

* * *

"There is no question that I have tried to be helpful to Mulligan," Talbott testified. "I have."

But he said this help involved no "influence, pressure or preference" and insisted: "I don't think I have done anything improper."

But if the senators think such action "is to the advantage of our U.S. Air Force," he pledged, "I'm going to give it (the partnership) back to Mulligan. I'm not selling it."

He said he has given up all the other business interests he held when named secretary in early 1953. He said he had outlined the Mulligan arrangement to the Senate Armed Services Committee when it was considering his nomination then.

McClellan's subcommittee questioned Talbott closely about his contacts with officials of the Radio Corp. of America after the RCA Service Co., an affiliate, had questioned the propriety of renewing a contract with Mulligan in view of Talbott's position.

He said he had given orders to drop the negotiations when he learned that RCA was demanding that Mulligan get from Atty. Gen. Brownell an opinion on the propriety of the contract.

He said it would have been "unthinkable" for him to urge RCA to sign the contract in the face of such qualms and that he "absolutely" didn't do so. He said RCA should have come to him.

* * *

Robert F. Kennedy, the subcommittee counsel, asked whether Talbott had not telephoned a Sam Ewing of RCA and told Ewing that "RCA ought to come off their high horse and not be so high and mighty."

"My memory is, I never made any such statement," Talbott replied.

Kennedy asked if Talbott hadn't arranged for "a general counsel named Mr. Johnson" to call Ewing while Talbott "listened in" on another telephone before joining the conversation.

"If I did that, it has slipped my mind," the secretary said.

The subcommittee did not indicate whether it would call any of those mentioned, nor on what Kennedy's questions were based. Nor was it clear just when the contract was up for renewal. Talbott said he wasn't sure whether it was late 1954 or sometime last March.

* * *

Talbott said he and Mulligan had agreed that Talbott would receive no profits from the firm's contracts with companies "predominantly" in business with the government. He said this provision never came into play because he knew of no such client.

He said he since has learned that one of them, the Avco Manufacturing Co., devoted about half its business to work for the government. He said he would have accepted no profit on that contract had he known the share was so large. He said he had nothing to do with negotiations for the firm's contract with Avco, apparently made in July 1953.

MERIT AWARD PRESENTED — R. M. Critchfield, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, representing the Pontiac Manufacturer's Assn. as its president, receives a special merit award from Noble Travis, (left) state chairman and D. V. Cote, state director of the Treasury Department's Savings Bond Division. James F. Spence, (right) secretary-manager of the Pontiac Manufacturer's Assn. was also present for the award which cited the outstanding performance of the association in promoting the purchase of U. S. savings bonds through the payroll savings plan.

Ike Shows Masterful Timing

GENEVA (AP) — President Eisenhower's timing of his sensational proposal to trade military power secrets with Russia had a good deal of football quarterback strategy about it.

The President had the play in mind all along. He waited at the Big Four conference for a quick opening and then cut loose with the ball.

He decided the moment had come when Soviet Premier Bulganin presented pretty much the same old Soviet proposals on disarmament—proposals the West already had examined and found wanting.

Eisenhower went to yesterday's summit meeting with a prepared statement outlining the general U.S. position on the subject of freeing the world from fear of an atomic attack.

* * *

The United States and Russia, he said, "admittedly possess new and terrible weapons in quantity."

But there was a deliberate gap in Eisenhower's prepared text. It did not include the two-point proposal he made for an exchange of military information.

There probably were at least three reasons for that:

1. Perhaps the most important was the matter of timing. The President undoubtedly wanted the Soviet disarmament ideas presented first—so the United States then could recapture world attention. For the West had something new for the world.

2. Eisenhower didn't know in advance whether yesterday's session would prove to be the strategic occasion for his move. For that reason he decided it would be best not to bring the proposals into the conference room in written form.

3. Presidential aides feared that if the proposals were included in a prepared text, the substance of the plan might leak out and give the Russians a chance to develop counterstrategy.

* * *

But when Bulganin concluded disarmament presentation, Eisenhower saw his opening.

He read from his prepared statement for three or four minutes, then suddenly whipped off his horn-rimmed glasses, put aside his text and looked directly at Bulganin.

Speaking extemporaneously, the President addressed himself "particularly to the delegates from the Soviet Union."

When he resumed reading his text two minutes later, he had set forth "off the cuff" his challenge to the Russians to exchange military power blueprints with the United States.

He also proposed letting the two nations make all the aerial photographs they want of the other's military installations.

Top officials in Washington said last night that the President's plan followed the essentials of a proposal prepared by the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Eisenhower had been studying the problem long before he named Stassen to the post. He had given the matter intensive study during the last few weeks. So he knew exactly what play he wanted to call when he saw what looked like an opening in the Soviet line.

When the President ended his statement, the lights in the conference chamber suddenly went out. A moment later they came back on.

Eisenhower grinned and said:

"I didn't mean to blow out the lights, but I had finished my remarks anyway."

HOT DOG! — This six-year-old Pomeranian is a smart dog as well as a hot dog, and to prove it he cools himself in a pan of ice water while he keeps his eye cocked on the thermometer. The temperature was near 100 when this picture was taken and the Dallas, Tex., Weather Bureau predicted a high of 104.

Exciting Blend of Beauty in Contest

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—An exotic Oriental, a statuesque Swede, a voluptuous Englishwoman, a blue-eyed Latin Marilyn Monroe and a Vermont Republican are favorites today to win the Miss Universe crown.

* * *

Fifteen international lovelies — each the potential winner—will parade for hours before a panel of judges tonight with a first elimination paring the group to five finalists.

The fifteen are the Misses Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Ceylon, El Calvador, England, Germany, Guatemala, Honduras, Japan, Norway, Sweden, United States and Venezuela.

* * *

A reporter asked all 15 in the group for their choice as winner. The answer was practically unanimous—Miss Sweden. She is Hillevi Rombin, a buxom, short-haired blonde who wears a bathing suit as if it was sprayed on her.

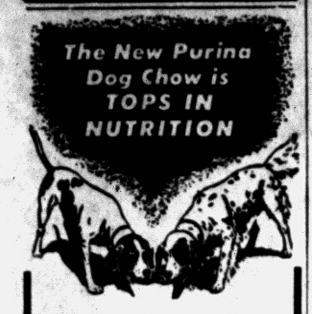

However, the crowd pleasers in last night's preliminary judging were Miss Ceylon, 18-year-old Maureen Hingert—one of the most exciting Oriental entries yet; Miss El Salvador, Maribel Arrieta, who bears a striking resemblance to Marilyn Monroe; and Miss England, Margaret Rowe, who has the kind of shape the English dollar situation should be in.

* * *

Carlene King Johnson of Vermont is among the favorites by virtue of her choice as Miss U.S.A. Wednesday night.

Farm and Garden News

Crop Forecasts Are 'Top Secret'

Premature Leak Would Immediately Affect U.S. Farm Prices

So important and so nearly accurate are the monthly forecasts of the Crop Reporting Board in Washington, that these predictions must reach all in the nation at the same time. If a forecast should leak prematurely, speculators could turn the knowledge into fortunes, as farm prices are instantly affected by the Board's crop estimates.

The forecasts are calculated from letters mailed in by individual crop reporters all over the United States. The letters are kept in a locked mailbox in Washington until the day the crop estimates are released.

On the day of a crop-report release, board members, headed by permanent chairman Sterling Newell meet at dawn. They proceed with armed guards to the mailbox, take out the envelopes containing the reports and carry them to a room in the Agriculture Department's south building. Once the party is inside, the doors are locked.

"Thereafter, until 3 p.m., when the report is issued, it would take an Act of Congress to get anyone out of the room," a reporter states. A doctor, if needed, can get in, but he can't get out until unlocking time. All telephones are disconnected. Every window has a sealed Venetian blind. In 50 years of these security measures, no attempt to breach them has been made.

After hours of studying the many reports, the board has its estimate prepared by about 2:45, just before release time. The Secretary of Agriculture then enters and signs the estimate. The doors are opened, the party emerges, copies of the estimate are placed face down, near waiting newsmen. At exactly 3 o'clock the secretary calls "Go!" The newsmen snatch up the reports and the forecasts are sped to the world.

Bluegrass Abounds

Finer lawns at reasonable prices for at least the next 18 months were spelled out last week by the Department of Agriculture estimate of a better than 16 million pound Kentucky Bluegrass seed crop.

LAKESIDE GARDEN — Rupert L. Wooster of 2750 Silverhill Rd., once a great golf enthusiast, has turned his attentions to gardening since moving from town to country. His lushly growing garden at Silver Lake boasts almost every vegetable and many flowers.

Model Garden at Silver Lake Grown Just for Child

By ABBIE K. KUCSERA

Just a large vacant lakeside lot three years ago, 2750 Silverhill Rd. today is occupied by an attractive ranch home which is surrounded by colorful flowers and neat row-on-row of profusely growing vegetables.

This model garden and homesite might never have been developed if it hadn't been for little Dennis Wooster who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rupert L. Wooster four-and-a-half years ago.

The couple had bought the lot at Silver Lake but had long since given up the idea of building or gardening on it. However when Dennis came along, they decided to bring up their son in the country air and nourish him on freshly raised vegetables and fruit.

Wooster, who had never built anything before, went to work on his ideas, out of which developed a beautiful home complete with sidewalks and drives.

Even more miraculous is the fact that a man who had never gardened began reading and working out other ideas to produce a championship garden.

In that garden is every vegetable including corn, huge squash vines, potatoes, cabbage, beans, melons, both early and late varieties—everything outside of peas. The family has already eaten of this year's luscious early tomatoes.

Wooster, who works afternoons at Pontiac Motors, spends most of the early day in his garden. Once the greatest on golfing, this recreation now takes a back seat for his new and best-loved pastime, gardening. (He still plays in the General Motors Golf League, however.)

Everybody benefits from the garden. Mrs. Wooster enjoys cooking the fresh foods in a simple, healthy manner for her family. Of course, there's always plenty to pass around among the neighbors.

And Dennis? Well, when he isn't busy "helping" daddy out there, he might simply be sitting and eating luscious strawberries, raspberries or vegetables in season, right on the production line.

Interstate Produce Ruling Is in Effect

WASHINGTON (INS)—Effective today, all fresh farm products being shipped interstate may be confiscated or condemned for use as human food if they contain residues of poisonous pesticides beyond certain fixed tolerances.

What this means is that all farmers must take particular care in following the exact directions for using any poisonous spray or dust. Some materials such as rotenone and pyrethrum have been exempted because they do not leave a residue hazard.

New legislation now taking effect, called the Miller Bill, was supported by both farm leaders and the pesticide industry because its purpose is to protect consumers against careless use of chemical killers.

Snip Flower Heads as They Fade Out

Don't let the annuals think that their lives are over. Keep snipping off dying flower heads to persuade more blooming.

Plants will appreciate booster feedings, trenched in from the sides, of liquid manure or soluable plant food.

Red Ramblers Boast Bloom Within Bloom

Mrs. Louis Mowrey of White Lake Township has had her red rambler for eight years, but this year the crimson clusters climbing her front porch burst into unusual bloom.

Green buds appeared inside the regular blossoms, and as the first flower faded, the buds inside unfolded to display a second array of glory.

All of her climbers this year, which Mrs. Mowrey calls "seven-fifties" had the bloom within the bloom, presenting a very unusual picture.

The Mowreys live in their home at 837 Farnsworth, just a stone's throw from Cedar Island Lake, the year round.

In First Week of August

Next year's strawberries may be set out. Dig over the bed deeply; mix in well-rotted manure. Set the plants in rows, leaving a couple of feet between them for a straw mulch.

The sun never sets for 147 days and never rises for 145 days on Ellesmore Island near the North pole.

Mulching Tomatoes Aids in Production

WASHINGTON (INS)—Agriculture department garden advisers suggest a two to three-inch mulch of leaves around tomato plants.

It keeps the fruit cleaner, holds the moisture, and keeps down weeds.

Controls Garden Fungus

Oligomycin, newest of the plant antibiotics, may prove very effective in controlling fungus diseases on beans, clovers, and other legumes whose beneficial nitrogen-fixing bacteria must not be harmed. Oligomycin, according to a home magazine, does not injure plant bacteria as it acts.

Spray Through Summer

Don't relax the spraying schedule just because the plants have passed their peak of bloom. Watch out for pests on broad-leaved evergreens.

Question Box

Q—An unusually robust growing weed called American bamboo has taken possession of a shrub border. No amount of cultivation seems to help. It dies down in winter but returns each spring, and is now three feet and more tall. What can be done to eliminate this pest?

A—The pest is the giant knotweed, a real problem unless your neighbor cooperates. Spray with the new weed killer 2,4,5-T and continue to dig out the roots.

Q—How does one get English ivy to start climbing on a brick house?

A—First be advised that ivy will not climb on painted walls or to any height on south and west exposures. Vines rooted from cuttings taken from a long established plant will climb. Why not use some Wayward Vine Guides—little supports that are attached to the wall with cement.

'Yellow' Spells Danger to Tree

Discoloration of Foliage May Signal Presence of Disease

Yellow "flags," unlike the traditional red, can mean danger to your trees. Dreaded Dutch elm and some other tree troubles are signalled by such foliage discoloration.

An individual limb, or several limbs, showing distinctly yellowing leaves, may mean the normal supply of moisture has been cut off from that portion of the tree, according to A. B. McKinstry, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

This yellowing may be caused by any one of several elm diseases. Usually only a qualified tree doctor can diagnose the true cause of the danger signal. The tree may not have Dutch elm disease or any other serious ailment if the affected branch is on the shady or inner portion of the tree. Nature sometimes does its own prunning.

The amateur may confuse other minor diseases with Dutch elm because of similar foliage symptons. These are verticillium and other wilts.

If prompt measures are taken, the tree may be cured of lesser difficulties. Feeding and pruning in the early stages can often overcome some wilt diseases.

But if your tree really has Dutch elm, there is little that can be done to save it. Removal and burning of the affected tree is recommended.

Suspect Facing Murder Charge

Find Decomposed Body of Missing Girl Near Man's Cabin

REDDING, Calif. (UP) — Sickly, tubercular Burton W. Abbott faced a murder charge today but still maintained he was innocent of the death of Stephanie Bryan.

Fully aware that the 14-year-old Berkeley girl's decomposed body had been found near his family cabin in Trinity County, the 27-year-old University of California accounting student discussed his case for several hours last night with Berkeley police, who claim to have cracked his alibi for the day the girl vanished on her way home from high school last April 28.

He told them nothing new, police said.

Berkeley Police Capt. A. H. Fording said Abbott's story of having been at the cabin, some 200 miles north of Berkeley, when the girl disappeared had gone "right out the window." Fording said it had been flatly contradicted by Wildwood innkeeper Delbert Cox, who has a "positive recollection" that Abbott had not come into the tavern April 28th as he claimed.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Frank Coakley of Alameda County said here yesterday, after the girl's remains had been identified from dental work, that he would file a murder complaint today against Abbott.

Bloodhounds located the dead girl Wednesday night in a shallow grave on a steep ridge above Abbott's cabin near Wildwood Inn, some 50 miles southwest of here.

Alameda County Pathologist George S. Loquvam said after an autopsy that the girl had been beaten or strangled to death.

GENEVA (UP) — Soviet Premier Bulganin and other top Russians attending the summit conference went on a morning sightseeing tour today to Montreux, 40 miles away at the other end of Lake Geneva.

Bulganin was accompanied by Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev and Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov.

Rocks Attract Boys, Lawyer Assures Court

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Counsel representing Tim Marx, 11, son of Zeppo Marx of the Marx brothers, argued successfully in a $300,000 damage suit that "a rock has been a challenge to little boys throughout the ages."

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Singer had brought the suit, claiming the eye of their daughter Denise, 10, was permanently injured when she was struck by a rock thrown by Tim Sept. 13, 1953. The families then lived across the street from each other.

* * *

Atty. Forrest A. Betts said, "It is natural for boys to show off before the female sex. He was just showing two little girls how far he could throw. He was aiming at a tree, but he missed."

Superior Judge Caryl M. Sheldon dismissed the suit yesterday.

"No more rocks for me," said Tim as he left the courtroom.

$50,000 Estate Left by Vendor of Newspapers

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A $50,000 estate was left by a 73-year-old man who had sold newspapers on the waterfront for 30 years.

Coroner A. E. Gallagher said the funds were discovered in 1 bank deposit books and in a little green metal box which Philip Silbert took to the hospital with him. Silbert died Wednesday.

Gallagher said he learned from friends of Silbert that many years ago he "adopted" two young girls who were victims of a broken home, sending support money to their mother and putting them through school. Silbert, a bachelor, also made generous donations to charities.

Gallagher said no will had been located. If no heirs are found, the estate will be probated for the country's benefit.

Chef Upholds Honor on Sandwich Issue

DETROIT (AP)—"I'm an artist, a chef of 47 years with a reputation to maintain," Pete Manos told Recorder's Judge O. Z. Ide.

Manos testified he was beaten and then fired by his former boss John Johnson for using too much chicken in club sandwiches.

Johnson said Manos put whole breasts of chicken in each 80-cent sandwich sold in the hotel restaurant Johnson managed.

Alaskan Crater Active

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Mt. Shishaldin in the Aleutian chain is spewing smoke and ash again. Gordon Gay, Cold Bay agent for Reeve Aleutian Airways, reported by radio that "great bilowing clouds of smoke, soot and ash are rising in the air over Shishaldin to an estimated 50,000 feet." Shishaldin is a 9,978-foot peak on Unimak Island some 700 miles southwest of Anchorage.

Margo and Eddie Albert Won't Play Husband, Wife

By DOROTHY MANNERS

(While Louella O. Parsons is on vacation her column will be written by Dorothy Manners.)

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—The husband-and-wife team of Margo and Eddie Albert will emote in "I'll Cry Tomorrow," but not as husband and wife.

Eddie reported early this week for his role of Burt McGuire, present husband of Lillian Roth, played in the MGM movie by Susan Hayward.

Margo joins the cast tomorrow for Selma, the girl in AA who introduces Eddie to Susan.

It's the first picture Margo has made in three years. Most of that time she has been appearing in nightclubs with Eddie or just staying home minding their 4-year-old, Eddie Jr.

TALKS TO TENNESSEE

Miss LOP tells us that while she was in Rome she had a most interesting visitor, Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Tennessee Williams. The author of "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" told the boss that he was leaving for Spain where he will work on his new play.

"Although he didn't say so," Miss P. said, "I got the impression it is for Anna Magnani." (The Italian actress is the star of the film version of another Williams' play, "Rose Tattoo.")

"The visit of Williams was a little embarrassing," laughed the boss, "because I'm already on record as opposed to making a movie of his 'Cat on a Hot Tin Roof.'

"I don't know why MGM bought the play which will have to be scrubbed beyond recognition before it's fit for the screen."

BEARDS BARD'S FAN

Never say that Mike Frankovitch isn't brave, planning to hold the preview of "Joe Macbeth" at Stratford-on-Avon.

Feeling has run high in both London and Shakespeare's birthplace over this gangster satire on "Macbeth" which Mike is making with Paul Douglas.

Most of the British press took sideswipes at Mike's "gall" in making the picture, particularly in England where they have a ban on many of our violent gangster films.

EUROPE TILL YULE

Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh don't expect to be home from their European assignments before Christmas. While he's making "Trapeze," Tony will live in an apartment on the Left Bank.

Janet will have to keep on the move between London and Africa making "Safari" with Vic Mature.

When both pictures are finished, the Curtises swear they're taking a slow boat through the Panama Canal for that real rest and vacation they've promised each other for so long.

RIFT RUMOR WRONG

Hollywood in shorts: Everything must be all right with the David Waynes. On the heels of those rift rumors out of New York, she's joined him here for the duration of "Tender Trap."

* * *

Nancy Sinatra and Dewey Martin are dancing and dining in St. Thomas after scenes on "The Proud and Profane."

Lana and Lex are hosting a party for her daughter, Cheryl's, 12th birthday Saturday. And the day following they take off for four weeks in Acapulco.

Anita Ekberg is wearing a big new sparkler and the only thing she'll admit about it is that Jeff Richards, her more or less steady, didn't give it to her.

Dana Wynter says she met Marlon Brando at a party and liked talking with him. But all of her dates recently have been with Richard Egan although he's just a "friend," too.

3-Time Plan Victim Goes Home—by Train

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—When Chief Metalsmith's Mate Joseph O'Connel, of Jacksonville, Fla., survived the crash landing of a Navy patrol bomber near here Wednesday it was the third time he had escaped injury in a plane crackup.

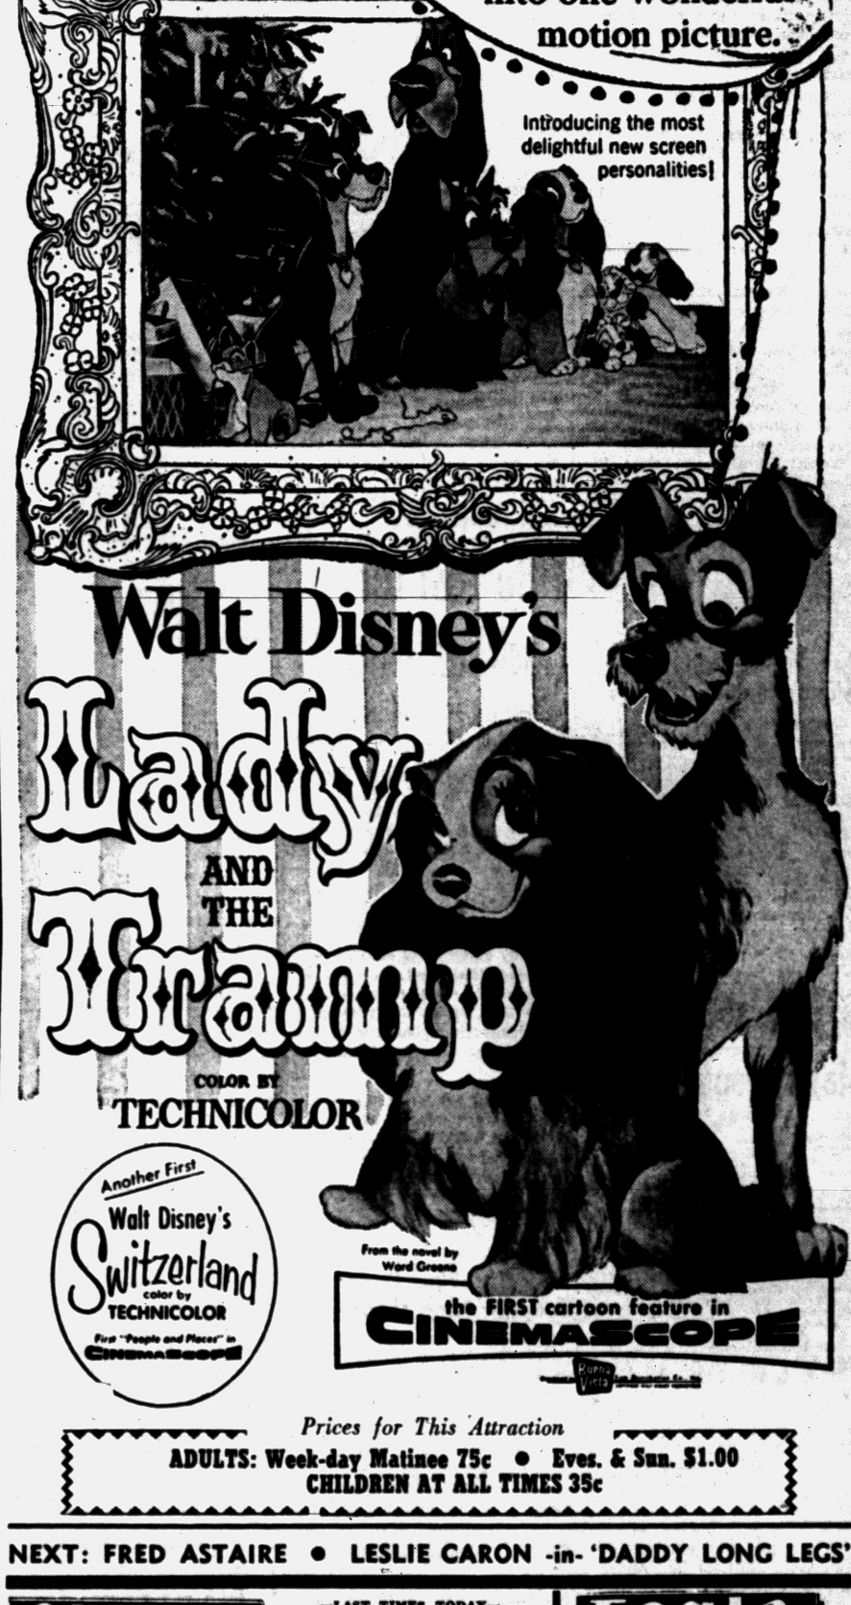

Yesterday, the 36-year-old reservist asked the local Navy recruiting office for transportation home — by train. His request was granted.

Dixie Golfers Monopolize Western Test

Bisplinghoff Is Leading Qualifier for Match Play at Rockford

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Young golf stars from the South, headed by medalist Don Bisplinghoff, monopolize today's opening 36-hole match-play round in the Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

Bisplinghoff, of Orlando, Fla., led seven survivors through a gruelling 72-hole qualifying trial by rounding out a 70 yesterday for a total of 276, eight under par for the rolling Rockford Country Club course. The 20-year-old North-South Amateur champion faces Bob Brue, 20, Milwaukee longshot, in the lower bracket of man-to-man combat on the eight 6,500-yard par-72 course.

* * *

Hillman Robbins of Memphis State, the 1954 National Intercollegiate titlist, takes on defending champion Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore., in the featured upper bracket match.

Two other matches complete the field of eight. Alex Welsh of the host club, whose 35 years make him the "granddaddy" of the group, squares off against husky Jim Tom Blair of Jefferson, Mo., son of Missouri's lieutenant governor and a Western Amateur finalist in 1951 in another upper bracket sizzler.

Eddie Merrins of Meridian, Miss., recent champion of the Colonial Invitation at Memphis, meets Rex Baxter of Amarillo, Tex., runner-up the last two years in the Trans-Mississippi and 1954 Mexican Amateur winner. Baxter is the youngest in the group, 19, and barely qualified with 283.

Welsh, an attorney, gave Bisplinghoff a great fight for medalist honors before taking one-over-par 5s on the last two holes to finish with a 68 and 279 total.

Robbins posted a final 68 and Merrins 71 to finish with 281. Brue and Blair had 282.

'Chips' From PGA Tourney

By JACK SAYLOR

NORTHVILLE — Doug Ford took medalist honors among the qualifiers in the National PGA tournament at Meadowbrook Country Club Thursday, but it was his fellow representative from Kiamesha Lake, N. Y. Cary Middlecoff, who turned in the shot of the day.

* * *

The Memphis dentist had been having his troubles on the green so he eliminated that detail on the 16th hole. On that rugged 459-yard par-4 test, Middlecoff belted a big tee shot, close to 300 yards.

For his 2nd shot, he made virtually a perfect 4-iron shot. The ball flew true to the flag, rattled the stick loudly and slid right down the pole into the cup for a phenomenal eagle two without touching the green!

The great shot gave Doc a boost — for after barely missing a birdie on the 17th, he almost holed out a wedge approach on the 18th, before sinking a 2-footer for a "bird."

It put him in a 4-way tie for the lead until Ford came in.

* * *

With time to kill on the 17th tee following his sensational shot, Middlecoff recalled another time that he came from behind under similar circumstances.

"It was in the pro-am that preceded the Palm Beach at the Concord (his home club at Kiamesha Lake)," the golfing dentist related, "Old Sam (Snead) was flyin' along about 5 or 6 under, and I was having my troubles.

"Then I holed out a wedge shot about the same way for an eagle," he chuckled, "then I got a birdie and finally captured him."

* * *

Pete Cooper was another who could well have been medalist with any putting luck. The Knollwood pro wasn't blowing the easy ones, He came very close time and time again from 15 to 25 feet, but they just wouldn't drop.

Medalist Ford has a fine golfing background. His father is a pro and he has 4 uncles who are golf instructors. The 32-year-old Yonkers, N. Y., shotmaker is playing in his 1st PGA.

Oakland Hills Site for Annual Event; to Settle Individual, Team Status

The Detroit District Caddy Championship, this year jointly sponsored by the Detroit District Golf Association and the Michigan Caddy Superintendents Association, will be held at Oakland Hills Country Club on Monday, Aug. 8.

Caddy golfers will compete for both individual and team championships in the Detroit District. Leon Jackson is the defending individual champion and Washtenaw is the defending team titlist.

Gorden Birgbauer of the DDGA, district caddy chairman, and James Riddell, a member of the committee, are handling the memorial trophy, coveted tournament award. Keen competition has always been a characteristic of the Detroit caddy tourney.

Ford Medalist at 135; PGA Opens Match Play

By H. GUY MOATS

Doug Ford of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., yesterday grabbed the PGA medal for qualifiers with a fine 68-67 135, a near-record total, but today all that was behind the 64 top U.S. pros who this morning began the "Black Friday" round of eliminations at Meadowbrook Country Club.

Ford came within one stroke of equalling the PGA mark, set by Jim Ferrier and held jointly by Ferrier and Skip Alexander.

Defending champion Chick Harbert starts defense of his crown this morning against Eric Monti of Los Angeles who reached the select list with 144. This was set one of the day's best matches.

Ford's 135 broke a possibility for a 4-way tie in the top qualifying bracket. It would have been the 1st such knot since 1939. Before Ford completed his round Sammy Snead, who started the day with a 66 1st round card, Erie Ball, Skee Riegel and Cary Middlecoff had tied at 147, a five under par total.

Six Michigan players survived the qualifying test and the playoff necessary to determine the last places. They were Jimmy Johnson of Detroit, Al Watrous, Oakland Hills veteran, Pete Cooper of Knollwood, Eldon Briggs of Saginew, Mike Dietz of Indianwood, and former PGA champion Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills.

Top drawing match today pits Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist who is the leading 1955 pro money winner, against Burkemo, who also had a 144 in yesterday's qualifying rounds.

Burkemo was runner-up last year to Harbert at the PGA meeting in St. Paul, Minn., and won the title in 1953 by defeating Felice Torza at Birmingham. Burkemo also was a runner-up in 1951 when Snead defeated him.

Ball meets Eldon Briggs, Lansing, who qualified with a two over par 144. Riegel engages Freddie Hass, Claremont, Calif., who had a 145 in qualifying play.

Snead faces Al Feminelli, Purchase, N.Y., who matched Briggs' 144.

Jack Fleck, who recently won the National Open at San Francisco, takes on Joe Zarhardt, Greensboro, N.C. Fleck, Davenport, Iowa, qualified with a 140 while Zarhardt totaled 145.

Three former PGA title-holders will be missing from the match play.

Failing to score the 146 or less needed to qualify were Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N.Y.; Denny Shute, Akron, Ohio, and Chandler Harper, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Other "name" players eliminated in the medal play were Ellsworth Vines, Palm Springs, Calif., and Art Wall, Pocono Manor, Pa.

The 16 players who survive today's play will be reduced in half by tomorrow evening in the battle for the 1st prize of $5,000. Four will remain in the running at the conclusion of Sunday's play, and only two on Monday.

The finalists meet Tuesday for the title, with the runner-up getting $3,500.

Ford got $250 by winning medalist honors and also was awarded the Alex Smith Memorial Trophy.

Six of Michigan's 13-man delegation in the PGA golf tournament qualified for match play which begins today.

Here are today's pairings in the tournament which involve members of the Michigan squad:

Brien Charter, Janesville, Wis. vs. Jimmy Johnson, Detroit.
Pete Cooper, Knollwood, vs. Vic Ghezzi, New York, 8:15.
Ernie Ball, Oak Park, Ill. vs. Eldon Briggs, Saginaw.
Mike Dietz, Indianwood vs. Leonard Wagner, Cincinnati.
Chick Harbert, Meadowbrook, vs. Eric Monti, Los Angeles.
Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga, Tenn. vs. Al Watrous, Oakland Hills.
Cary Middlecoff, Kamiesha Lake, N.Y., vs. Walter Burkemo, Franklin Hills.

The six Michigan golfers who were eliminated are:

Bob Gajda, Forest Lake, 73-73—148
Tom Talkington, Ypsilanti, 78-73—151

Little Anglers Get Many Fish

Cries of "I got one"! and "how many did you catch"? could be heard all over Beaudette Park yesterday afternoon, as playground youngsters from all over the city took part in the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department's Fishing Rodeo.

While the followers of Izaak Walton pulled in fish after fish, many other playgrounders took part in quiet activities in the coolness of the shaded areas of the park. Several hundred took part in the annual affair.

Over 1500 of the finny specimens were caught, ranging in size from one inch to the "20 inchers" that James Keller of Lakeside Homes playground took the lead with fish caught, by catching 21 in an hour and a half.

Sam Ellis of Lakeside Homes playground and Susan Brown of Wilson playground each took home a complete casting outfit as winners of the boys and girls division for the largest fish caught.

An interesting sidelight was that Susan caught her large fish on the casting rod she won in last years rodeo for catching the largest fish. One hundred other awards consisting of fishing kits and stringers were presented.

Mrs. Orin Brown Jr. and her daughter Judy operated the emergency first aid tent through the courtesy of the American Red Cross.

Excellent supervision on the part of the playground staff has made this rodeo one of the safest, with a record of only three minor injuries, two of which required first aid.

And one of those was a staff member with a thorn in his finger.

Future Is Bright

Rising Costs Baseball's Only Danger Says Frick

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)— Baseball is in no danger and it's only real problem is meeting rising costs, Ford Frick, the game's commissioner, said Thursday.

Meeting with Texas League club owners at their annual mid-season session on the occasion of the league all-star game, the commissioner said baseball was showing a marked increase in attendance over its normal period—World War II—and that the upturn about equalled the gain in customers.

* * *

The big leagues drew 5,000,000 before the war and are getting 7,500,000 to 8,000,00 now, he pointed out, while the minors are going to show over 2,000,000 if the present rate continues, which also is a good increase over pre-war attendance.

"There are more kids playing baseball than ever before—more colleges, more high schools, more boys on the corner lots—and we aren't worried about the future of the game." he emphasized in discussing the big survey he is conducting to find out from the fans what they considered wrong with baseball.

* * *

He said the survey, which brought 400,000 letters, wasn't made because baseball feared for its existence but to find out what could be done to make it better.

"We have received many, many helpful suggestions and I am confident that the game will use this information for its great betterment," he declared.

* * *

Frick saw a system of incentive as a boost to baseball—the development of ball players through the minors without the big bonus to compete with. He said he liked the idea of giving the player part of his purchase price as an incentive to advance in his profession.

Swimming Records in Peril as Konno, Woolsey Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hawaii's Ford Konno and Bill Woolsey renew swimming rivalry again tonight and more records were expected to fall as the 1955 National AAU swimming and diving championships come to a close in the Los Angeles Swimming Stadium.

Twenty-year-old Woolsey relieved Konno of the 200-meter freestyle championship and set one of four new meet records registered last night.

But Konno figures to hold on to the 400-meter freestyle title tonight. It is a distance more to his talents.

The only day final is the high platform dive featuring Joaquin Capilla, the 1954 champion from Mexico, who lost his National AAU springboard championship two days ago to Don Harper, Palo Alto, Calif., and Ohio State. Capilla was favored to retain the platform laurel.

* * *

Yoshi Oyakawa, another Hawaiian star, and 16-year-old Frank McKinney Jr., of Indianapolis, who finished one-two in the 100-meter backstroke, tangle again in the 200-meter event. Al Wiggins, the defending champion, is also entered.

Woolsey started the record setting last night when he trimmed Konno in 2:08.2 in the 200. The old mark was 2:08.4, set in 1951 by Wayne Moore of the New Haven Swim Club.

* * *

Oyakawa's time in the 100-meter backstroke, 1:05.3, bettered the mark of 1:06.3 set by Adolph Kiefer, Illinois, in 1937. McKinney was timed at 1:06.5.

Bill Yorzyk, New Haven Swim Club, established a record in the new butterfly race at 2:39.3 in qualifying, and proceeded to break it with 2:29.1 in the final.

The New Haven Swim team, in a close battle with the defending North Carolina State team, won the 400-meter medley relay with a record time of 4:28.6.

Point standing among the leading teams:

Hawaiian Swim Club 31; New Haven 30; North Carolina State 22, Del Mar Swim Club, Santa Monica, 13, Berkeley City Club 12.

L. C. Anderson Jets defeated Don Nicholie Real Estate, 4-3, in a Class A City Baseball League game Thursday night at Wisner Field, but they almost tossed away their margin of victory in the 7th inning.

After the 1st pair of hitters for Don Nicholie were easy outs in the last inning, Maurice Stack reached 2nd on a muffed fly by leftfielder Roy Beasly. John Wert grounded to shortstop and Louie Seay threw wild to 1st, giving Wert a life.

Stack rounded 3rd and broke for the plate, but 1st sacker Eugene Cox recovered in time to cut him down at home with a good throw to catcher Sam Jones. Stack represented the tying run.

Jets scored all their runs in the 1st four innings, then spent the rest of the time holding off the opposition. Two bases on balls, a sacrifice, and an error gave them one run in the 1st.

They tallied two more in the 3rd and in the 4th scored the eventual winning run on a homer by Jones.

Nicholie notched its 1st run in the 4th on Albie Roman's booming triple and Howard Wiley's single. They narrowed the deficit to a single run in the 6th on Wert's lead-off double, a brace of walks, and an error.

Jim Williams hurled for the Jets and gave up seven hits. He struck out five and walked two. Albie Roman went the distance for Nicholie and was touched for five safeties. Roman fanned eight and walked five.

OLDRELIABLE—Pee Wee Reese will be 36 this month, but the shortstop is having one of his finest years with the Dodgers.

Dodgers, Fans Pay Tribute to Pee Wee

BROOKLYN (AP) — It's Pee Wee Reese night at Ebbets Field tonight as the Brooklyn Dodgers and fans honor the veteran shortstop.

Reese, who broke into the majors with the Dodgers in 1940, played his 1,800th National League game yesterday—a total second only to that of St. Louis' Stan Musial (1,923) among active players. Reese will be 36 tomorrow.

Various gifts are scheduled for the Dodger captain during ceremonies before Brooklyn's game with Milwaukee. Among several testimonials to be read during the proceedings is a personal message from Vice President Richard Nixon. It will be delivered by Congressman Francis Dorn.

Don Budge Is Named Coach of U.S. Davis Cup Entry, Captain Talbert Maps Plans for Defense

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Don Budge, one of America's all-time tennis greats, was named coach of the U.S. Davis Cup team Friday and Captain Bill Talbert announced he would assemble his forces for mally the second week in August.

"That's when we'll start organized preparations," Talbert said. "Of course, we've been thinking about the cup and working on our plans right along but we'll get the team together as a unit right after the Eastern Grass Court finals at Orange, N.J., Aug. 7."

Budge, champion of the world in 1937 and 1938, will serve in the same capacity that Jack Kramer did in Australia last year. He will work out with the squad and assist Talbert in mapping strategy.

* * *

Kramer, relieved of his duties as coach of the junior Davis Cup squad because of a controversial magazine article in which he said he received money as an amateur, probably will be frozen out of the Davis Cup preparations as well.

However, the U.S. tennis bosses may be spiting themselves in clinging to this private peeve. Kramer is the best of the U.S. pros and performed valuable service with the squad at Sydney last December.

The American squad will be identical, as far as the top spots are concerned, with that which Talbert carried to Australia in 1953 and again in 1954, winning the trophy last year.

It will be headed by Wimbledon champion Tony Trabert, U.S. titleholder Vic Seixas and Hamilton Richardson, the perennial sub who never has played in the Challenge Round.

The fourth spot on the team is wide open and even Talbert acknowledged he hadn't the faintest idea who might fill it.

"If one of the better veterans, Art Larsen or Herbie Flam, have a whale of a season then he'd have to be considered," the captain said. "Otherwise we'll probably call up a youngster with an eye on the future. It's no use carrying an old hand who won't be any good to the team."

* * *

The Challenge Round is scheduled Aug. 26-28 at Forest Hills. The Australian team must win the American Zone competition, beat Japan of the Eastern Zone and then win the inter-zone finals to qualify.

Giants Want Durocher to Make Up Mind Soon

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher can return as manager of the New York Giants next year if he wants to but he'd better make up his mind soon.

That's the word from the so-called grapevine to the Giants' front office which tells you very hush-hush that President Horace Stoneham is ready to renew Durocher's contract.

The source added, however, that Stoneham is becoming a bit peeved because Leo, up to now, apparently has shown no great interest whether he returns or not in 1956.

"Horace is waiting for Durocher to bring up the subject," the informant said. "All Leo has to do, I believe, is tell Horace he wants to manage the club next year and I'm sure they can come to an agreement.

* * *

"It's not open and shut, of course. Horace is a loyal and proud person, loyal to his players and proud of the club's tradition. He will have to be assured that Durocher is really anxious to manage the Giants, above all else, and that he will devote his full attention and apply all his talents toward bringing in another pennant. I would say that Leo's deportment on the field during the next two weeks probably will determine whether he'll be back next year."

Phils Move Into 4th Place on 10-Game Streak

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Phillies, overlooked and overworked, have popped up in fourth place in the National League, riding a 10-game winning streak that has taken shape almost overnight.

It's all come about in seven days. Last Friday morning, the Phils were in seventh place. Today they are just one game shy of .500, and after skipping past Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago in the standings, are only two games behind third place New York.

Brooklyn's 11-game success story in early season tops the majors this year, but the Phils could pass that mark tonight when they meet St. Louis in a twi-nighter—they're fourth doubleheader in six days.

Manager Mayo Smith's club — which lost 13 straight in May, tops in the majors this season—scored three eighth-inning runs to beat Cincinnati 5-3 last night after the Redlegs gained a 3-2 lead on Gus Bell's three homers.

The Phils, lacking power and pitching depth, were brushed off as first division threats at season's start. Yet they've had the hits when they needed them on the streak and have had seven complete games from the pitching staff, despite the heavy twinbill schedule. Robin Roberts and Murry Dickson have chipped in two full length jobs each.

* * *

It was Ron Negray and reliefer Jack Meyer who handled the Redlegs last night. Negray gave up Bell's home runs. But Meyer got Bell on a fly out with two men on to end the game.

Roy Smalley delivered the hitting punch with a bases-loaded single that scored two runs in the big eighth.

* * *

Chicago's Cubs dropped out of fourth place with a 4-1 defeat by Brooklyn. It was the Bruins' 10th defeat in 11 games. Milwaukee stayed 13½ games behind the Brooks by beating Pittsburgh 5-3. New York edged St. Louis 6-5.

In the American, Chicago chopped New York's lead to one game with a 9-6 victory over the Yankees; Cleveland went 10 innings to snap Washington's five-game streak 4-3; Boston dumped Kansas City to a 10th straight defeat 4-3, and Detroit nudged Baltimore 1-0.

The White Sox clinched the rubber game in their "crucial" series with New York as Bob Kennedy broke up a 6-6 tie with a two-run double in the eighth.

Boston used three hits and an error for four third inning runs against the A's, then held off an eighth-inning rally. Frank Sullivan won it, with relief help from Ellis Kinder, as the Red Sox moved to within four games of the Yanks.

* * *

Third place Cleveland, three games out of first, scored three runs after two were out in the ninth on Vic Wertz' pinch double with the bases loaded to tie Washington. Then two out singles by Al Smith and Larry Doby—with Smith scoring from first on Doby's hit—won it in the 10th.

Warren Spahn gave five hits and whacked a three-run homer for his eighth victory. Hank Aaron also homered for the Braves.

Moylan Beats Golden, Now Meets Seixas in Tourney

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eddie Moylan, Trenton, N.J., sporting goods salesman who figures he's now proved his ability to play on grass, was matched against defending champion Vic Seixas of Philadelphia today in a semifinal match of the 56th annual Pennsylvania State Lawn Tennis Championships.

Moylan, who had won 12 straight championships before losing to Tony Trabert in the recent U. S. Clay Courts championship at Atlanta, became the hero of the moment yesterday by displacing another tournament hero, Cpl. Grant Golden of Chicago. Moylan won relatively easy, by scores of 6-1, 6-3.

Golden, who flew here for the tournament, won fleeting fame the day before by eliminating the top-seeded foreign entry, Kurt Nielsen of Denmark, Wimbledon runner-up to Trabert, in a marathon match. His match with Moylan lasted only 30 minutes.

The other top matches today at the Merion Cricket Club featured semifinal encounters between Louise Brough, Wimbledon women's champion from Beverly Hills, Calif., against Barbara Breit of North Hollywood, Calif., and Janet Hopps of Seattle against Althea Gibson of New York in the 55th Pennsylvania and Eastern States women's tournament.

In the men's tournament, Seixas scored easily over Alejandro Olmedo, Lima, Peru, 6-3, 6-1. Trabert also won easily, defeating Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, 6-3, 6-3. Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., like Trabert and Seixas, a U.S. Davis Cupper, defeated Sidney Schwartz, veteran from Long Island, N. Y., 6-2, 4-1. Schwartz defaulted in the second set because of a sore shoulder.

Pontiac Old Timers Play Toledo Sunday

Pontiac's Old Timers, still looking for their 2nd victory of the summer, clash with Toledo Sunday in an International Old Timers League baseball game at the Ohio city.

Pontiac won its season opener with London, Ont., but since that time has dropped three straight decisions to the Bill Rogell Old Timers of Detroit, London, and St. Thomas of Ontario.

Old Timbers manager Bud Leslie requests all players to assemble at the VFW hall on South Saginaw by 10:30 a.m. Game time is 2 p.m.

Terry Scotches Rumors About His Eyesight

Sawchuk Assures Hub Press That He Doesn't Need Glasses

BOSTON (AP) — Terry Sawchuk, National Hockey League goalie who was the major figure in an offseason trade that brought him from Detroit to Boston, has squelched rumors that his eyesight is failing.

In a meeting with the press Thursday night, the goaltender who has helped the Red Wings to three Stanley Cup victories in five years said that contrary to some talk he doesn't wear glasses, doesn't need them.

"Ever since the deal was made rumors have persisted that there was something wrong with Terry or Detroit wouldn't have gotten rid of him," Bruins General Manager Lynn Patrick said.

Patrick went on to explain that just as a precautionary measure, Sawchuk Thursday submitted to a thorough eye examination by a leading specialist and was pronounced to have perfect vision.

Sawchuk led the NHL with 12 shutouts last season and played a major part in the team's triumph over the Montreal Canadiens in the Stanley Cup.

Marion Given New Contract

CHICAGO (AP)—Marty Marion had a new lease on his managerial life and his perking Chicago White Sox were roaring in high gear just one game off the pace today as the American League race took on a free-for-all aspect.

Knocking off the pace-setting New York Yankees in two of three games, the Pale Hose open a four-game set tonight with the pressing Boston Red Sox, who are fourth but only four games out of first.

Marion yesterday received a new 2-year contract at more than $35,000 per year as the White Sox rallied to take the rubber game of a three-tilt series with the Yankees, 9-6.

The spidery Marion, former "Mr. Shortstop" of the St. Louis Cardinals, was in the midst of a "trial" 1-year contract with the White Sox when the Hose front office gave him the rousing confidence vote in the form of the new pact.

"It was a good one to win, all right," said Marion, "But the pennant isn't won on one or two games at this stage of the season. You got to play them one at a time, day by day, and if you win enough, you're in."

House Blasts Homer to Beat Orioles

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are sure of one thing today:

Ball games—even with the Baltimore Orioles—don't float your way without the Al Kalines, Ray Boones and Jim Delsings.

At first glance, it didn't show yesterday when Frank House's home run slipped Detroit under the wire with a 1-0 edge over Baltimore.

But noticeably missing were those hit combinations in the clutch that parlay singles into runs. Detroit looked much like Baltimore—weak. Each club got six hits. Neither could combine them into scoring plays until House came to bat.

Kaline, leading the major league hitting race with .360, left the game ill in the 3rd inning. He apparently was taken with the 95-degree heat. Delsing, who is batting .262, left with Kaline, when a batting practice leg injury began to bother him. Boone, batting at .287, also has been bothered with the heat.

All have gained a reputation for hitting when a hit is needed. There were no such hits yesterday.

Southpaw Billy Hoeft, making his 1st start of the season against Baltimore, ran his pitching record to 10-3 while Hector (Skinny) Brown, brought up by the Orioles just last Tuesday from Oakland in the Pacific Coast league, now is 0 for 1.

Baltimore's closest scoring opportunity came in the 1st when Dave Philly smashed a triple to center with two out. He was left there.

The only hitters to hit more than a single were House and Philly.

Detroit opens a four-game home stand today with the Washington Senators, Ned Garver (8-9) will hurl for Detroit, opposing Camilo Pascual (2-8).

Detroit took two of its three games against Baltimore and swept a three-game series with the New York Yankees.

Ex-Wrestler Jeros Takes Up Farming

KANKAKEE, Ill. (AP) — Tossing around a few heavy bags of fertilizer is no problem for ex-wrestler Jim Jeros who farms 40 acres as a hobby. He commutes to Chicago every day where he works in an aircraft plant.

The 275-pound Jeros grappled with some of the biggest names in the wrestling business but gave it up during World War II when he served with the Seabees.

Rams to Cut Time Spent in Signal Huddle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams aren't going to spend more than six seconds in the huddle this coming football season.

Coach Sid Gillman, who has been working with a crop of rookies at Redlands University, and will welcome the veterans of the squad next week, is installing a streamlined signal-calling system.

"The short huddle offers several obvious advantages," says Gillman. "You can run more plays with the time saved and your quarterback gets more time at the scrimmage line to size up the enemy defense and, if necessary, change his attack plan with an audible signal."

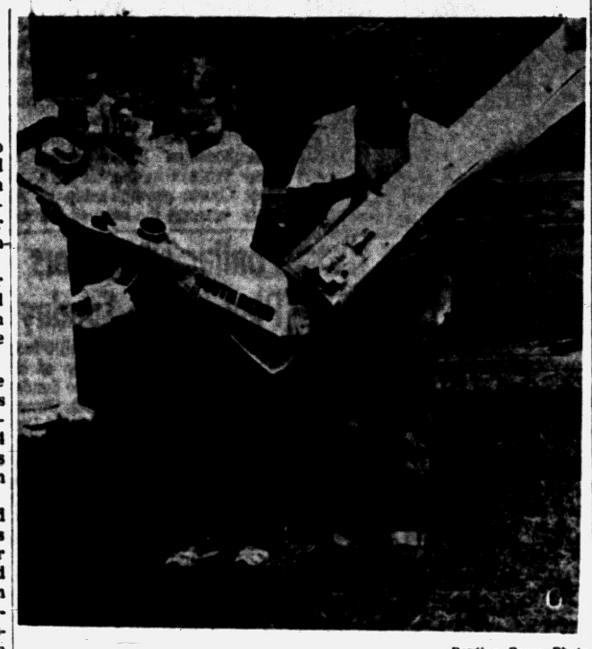

Mesnard's Dogs in Top Places in Water Trial

Lambeau Starts Work With College Stars

CHICAGO—The 1955 College All-Stars began working out today—under the supervision of five professional coaches—for their Aug. 12 clash with the Cleveland Browns.

It was the 1st time since the All-Star game was inaugurated that professional coaches have been in charge of the collegiate All-Americas, a move designed to give the Stars a better chance at victory.

Curley Lambeau, former coach of the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins in the National Football League, directed the 47 stars in light drills at Northwestern's practice field.

Toronto Conachers have given three players to the National Hockey League.

Elks Post Overtime Win; Johnson Wins One-Hitter

Elks 810 posted an overtime victory and Shaw's Jewelers roled merrily along in Thursday night's headline games in the men's city softball leagues.

Elks were forced to go 10 innings before decisioning Riteway Softwater, 2-1, at Beaudette Park. The winning run was scored by pitcher Al Emsley, who singled with one out. He advanced to 2nd and 3rd on catching mistakes and romped home on a wild pitch by his opponent, Cal Atwood.

Emsley permitted only three hits during the extra-inning session and recorded eight strikeouts while walking home. Atwood fanned 10 and walked four and the Elks reached him for four safeties.

Glenn (Wimpy) Johnson was his usual invincible self last night as he hurled Shaw's to a 2-0 win over the Knights of Columbus in Beaudette's opening contest. Johnson was touched for only one hit during his shutout stint, a single by Bill York with two down in the 7th inning.

National league - leading Louie's Tavern swamped Pontiac & Opdyke, 14-6, at North Side Park. The tavern nine rapped out 13 hits, including home runs by Jack Avery, Harry Diehl, and Del Wheeler.

Giles Realty really poured it on in last night's girls tilt at North Side. The front-running Giles team collected 23 hits to crush the Avondale girls, 24-4. Barbara Fifield homered for Giles in the lopsided affair.

TAMPA, Fla. — A record smashing 171-pound Tarpon grabbed top honors in the 8th Annual Tarpon tournament here in the 4th week when a local angler battled the silver king for two and one-half hours before bringing it to gaff.

Oren Adams, of surburban Wimauma, was credited wth breaking the previous record of 167-pounds set in the tournament last year. Adams was fishing from a rowboat in the Alafia river, a tributary of Tampa Bay.

This Jockey and Horse Just Don't Get Along

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — A jockey named Norman Mercier and a horse called Bomb Cry just don't hit it off.

Bomb Cry, with Mercier aboard, was winning the feature race at Rockingham Park yesterday when the horse suddenly bounced off the inside rail, threw the rider into a ditch and then plunged over the rail himself.

Last November, it was Mercier vs. Bomb Cry in a race at Narragansett Park in Pawtucket, R.I. Bomb Cry threw the jockey.

Mercier was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, Methuen, Mass., after yesterday's spill. He was released after X-rays showed only a bruised leg.

Duck Hunting Squabble

No Changes in Sight for State 'Baiting' Law

By MORT NEFF

Baiting a duck marsh has long been outlawed by federal law—a regulation deemed necessary by the dwindling supply of ducks to satisfy an ever-growing number of hunters.

NEFF

The practice of baiting involved the distribution of corn and grain near a duck blind during the shooting season. Ducks are quick to learn about a free handout, and in no time at all flocks moved into the area from all directions, to the complete satisfaction of the baiting hunters.

Today, particularly in the state of Ohio, great political pressure is being brought to bear to amend the baiting regulation along the Lake Erie marshes, permitting the practice providing it is carried on out of range of the shooting blinds.

Inasmuch as a change in the regulation would affect the entire nation there is little chance of the passage of any such amendment. Michigan, together with a number of states, is entirely satisfied with current waterfowl laws, and definitely opposed to any form of baiting.

However, one interesting plan has evolved from the controversy. The Ohio Waterfowl Association—a league of some 30 private duck marshes—has petitioned for the right to plant as many or more young ducklings each season as they shot the year before. The ducklings would be released into the marshes at the age of about 5 weeks when survival is pretty well assured, and when they were most apt to become "wild" birds quickly.

No feeding of the marsh in which they were released would be considered during the summer months. But, when migratory ducks begin to come south in the fall the group believes feeding would be essential because of the presence of too many ducks for available natural feed.

For this reason they ask for special permission to feed in the fall, providing enough ducklings have been released to offset possible shooting pressure.

'Sugar Ray' in Final Stand on Ring Comeback

Meets Castellani in TV Bout With Olson Awaiting Winner

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Boxing fans across the nation get another chance tonight to see whether Sugar Ray Robinson was right in trying to make a ring comeback.

Robinson takes on Rocky Castellani, No. 1 contender for the middleweight title, at 7 p.m. (PDT) in the Cow Palace ring in a scheduled 10-rounder. The telecast, with San Francisco blacked out, and radio broadcast will be carried by NBC.

* * *

The last time Robinson, once champion of both the welterweight and middleweight divisions, was on television was last January when he took a sound thumping from Tiger Jones at Chicago. Since then he's knocked out second-rater Ted Olla in Milwaukee.

* * *

Castellani, riding a string of four straight triumphs since his loss to champion Carl (Bobo) Olson last August, was installed a 9-5 favorite a week ago and the odds remained firm today. The Cleveland cutie, once a hit-and-run artist, has changed his style by shortening his punches and, with another crack at Olson in the offing if he wins, has expressed confidence steadily throughout his training sessions.

* * *

The same has been true of Robinson—when he's trained. His attitude, which could have nothing to do with the odds against him, has puzzled observers. He arrived in town early, but frequently failed to show at all for scheduled workouts. Even when he did, he often did little except limber up with the jumping rope. His final session consisted of one round of sparring.

Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, has indicated tonight's winner will be in line for a crack at Olson's title. That's scarcely news, since Flaherty always has Olson ready to meet anybody "if the price is right." The fact remains, though, that the loser definitely is out of the big money picture.

Waterford Nine in Legion Zone Tourney Today

Waterford's American Legion baseball team will be in a dark-horse role as it begins play this morning in the Zone Three division of the Michigan Legion baseball tournament at Flint.

The Waterford Post 431 club, which is representing the 18th District (Oakland County) in the meet, is joined in the field by champions from district 6 (Flint Buick Post), 7 (Imlay City), 8 (Saginaw Post 439), and 17 (Livonia) in the 2-game knockout affair.

Livonia has the 1st round bye. A drew for oppoinents among the other 4 teams was followed by 1st round games at 10 a.m. Second round games are slated this afternoon.

Survivors continue play Saturday with the championship game (or games) Sunday. Flint Buick, made up primarily of Northern High School team members, and Saginaw, are rated as favorites.

George Kell tied a major league mark in 1950 with 157 games at third base.

Pine Laker Is Matched With Former Champ

Plays Mrs. C. U. Wilson; Miss Smith Takes On Pat Devany in Semis

The two youngest players in the Michigan Women's Amateur golf championships, at Oakland Hills, today were rated the favorites to meet this afternoon for the title.

Pine Lake's Sally Sharp, Birmingham High School youngster, playing her 2nd year in the event, takes on a veteran of the state links in Betty Courtright Wilson of Ann Arbor, former champion, while husky Wiffi Smith of St. Clair River CC meets former champion Pat Devany of Grosse Ile. Both are 18 years old. Wiffi is the national junior champion.

Despite the caliber of the opponents, both were expected to emerge for the finals this afternoon.

Sally defeated Mrs. W. J. Menefee, 5 and 4, of the WMGA yesterday to gain the semifinals. Wiffi turned back Mrs. Don Watkins of Birmingham in her best round of the tourney, 9 and 7.

Mrs. Wilson defeatel 4-time champion Mrs. Don Weiss of Flint, 3 and 2, while Miss Devany eliminated Susie LeClair of Ann Arbor, 3 and 2.

The Wilson-Weiss match held top interest yesterday. And the former Betty Courtright was elated over her victory. "That's proof that I can win when I have to," she observed.

Sally has been playing close to par golf all the way, and is rated an even chance of making the finals. She was runnerup to Wiffi in the medal round.

Warpath Favorite in Michigan Pacing Derby

Warpath, 1954 champion, was favored to repeat tonight in the $10,000 Michigan Pacing Derby at Northville Downs.

Warpath, who with Mr. Dean, constitutes the Saunders Mills entry, took the event in 2:03 last year.

Fenella Hal, a 4-year-old owned by C. P. Chamberlin and John H. Toner of Detroit, won the featured BB pace 8th race last night paying $6.80 straight.

In the 3rd, Keith and Jim Long singled, then with 2 out, a hit batsman loaded the bases and Art Ruelle singled in a pair. Al Doud followed with another 2-run single.

Keith and Long singled in the 4th and twice pulled double steals. Long scored on an infield out. Ruelle singled in the final run in the seventh.

Bridie Bags Ace

Her 1st hole-in-one in many years of play on the links, Thursday morning gave Mrs. Bridie (Ozzie) Burke, Watkins Lake, her biggest thrill. Mrs. Burke lofted a four-wood shot to the No. 8 green at Pontiac Country Club. The ball rollled up and into the cup.

Playing with Mrs. Burke were Virginia (Mrs. Bob) Boles and Pat (Mrs. Harley) Hyatt. Bridie had a 44 for the 9-hole round.

Swims Despite Handicap

Stan Saliman has been a member of Denver University's swimming team although one of his legs is useless. He was a polio victim at age 12.

Sam Snead's Golf Clinic

Beginning with this player's feet notice that his stance is slightly open and his left foot toes more toward the target than his right. Notice, too, that both toes are turned out and his heels are about shoulder width apart. This provides a firm foundation and gives balance throughout the swing.

Notice that at the top of his swing our pictured player's knees are both on the same level. He hasn't let the left side dip down by lowering his left knee. By raising his left heel he has kept his knees even, again necessary for balance.

His hips have turned about an eighth of a circle in their pivot while his shoulders have turned a full quarter of a circle and that's correct.

I would have preferred to see his hands a little more above his right shoulder than pictured. But this is a good wind-up and with the momentary pause at the top he's ready to reverse his pivot action, pull his hands rather straight down toward his right pocket as he pivots, and send that ball on a long-arrowy flight.

Lands 3½ Pound Bass

Gerald Brynn, of Royal Oak found the fishing good at Upper Straits lake, where his summer cottage is located. Wednesday evening he brought in a 19½ inch, 3½-pound largemouth bass that was 13½ inches in girth.

A small plug, fished among the weed beds close in, did the trick, as a lure for the scrappy gamefish.

Grain Market Shows Losses

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains found it a little easier to go down than up on the Board of Trade today and registered losses running to around a cent.

Dealings slackened from earlier sessions this week. At the start wheat and corn were weakest. Oats resisted pressure early but then retreated with the rest of the market.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¾ to 1 cent lower, September $2.01½; corn ⅝ to 1 cent lower, September $1.35⅛; oats ¼ to ⅝ lower, September 60¼; rye ½ to ¾ higher, September $1.00¼; soybeans ½ to 1¼ lower, September $2.28, and lard 5 to 13 cents a hundred pounds lower, September $10.97.

Hedging pressure got the better of wheat early in the absence of any large commercial demand. Some traders also were disappointed at the failure of any discussion so far in the Geneva conference of sending American grains to Iron Curtain countries.

Youth Rescues Keeper From Cage of Bear

CROWN POINT, Ind. (INS)—A 13-year-old Crown Point youth was hailed as a hero today for saving a zoo attendant from a severe mauling by a 175-pound cinnamon bear.

Randall Froedge was a spectator at the Lake County Fair Grounds yesterday when zoo keeper, William C. McCord, 64, entered the cage occupied by the huge bear and its 140-pound mate.

The male bear pounced on McCord and with one swipe of its forelegs severely lacerated the zoo attendant's left leg.

As the keeper was knocked off balance by the blow, young Froedge went into action.

He entered the cage and, swinging a shovel in front of him, drove the bear away until McCord could get out of the cage.

Then the youth cooly backed out himself and locked the cage.

Magazine Predicts Stable Car Output

DETROIT (AP)—Automotive News reported today that July's record production appears certain to continue and will result in a seven-month output of 4,926,500 cars—or 200,000 more than in the average 12-month period in the last 10 years.

* * *

The trade publication said an estimated production of 670,000 units in July would bring the year's five millionth car Aug. 2, compared with the first week in September in the previous record year of 1950.

Production for the current week was forecast at 170,709 units, the highest weekly output since the week ended last May 21. Last week's total was 167,465.

A July assembly of 670,000 would top the July record of 601,005 set in 1950.

General Motors, the publication said, is leading the current week's output and is expected to end up with 92,346 cars, 43,800 of them Chevrolets. GM's previous weekly high of 91,940 was set in the week ended April 30 and Chevrolet's 43,408 set last week.

7 Stolen Mail Bags Found; 8th Missing

NEW YORK (INS) — Seven of eight mail bags stolen in a Manhattan train robbery have turned up in the bushes of a New York City park.

The eighth bag, believed to contain pay checks, still was missing. The seven bags were found by Ronnie Wray, 8, when on a berry-picking expedition in the park.

The bags were stolen Wednesday night by two masked robbers. The bandits leaped aboard a New York Central mail-freight express when it stopped in midtown Manhattan's underground yards to pick up two more cars.

They bound a mail clerk and escaped with eight bags before the train started moving.

'Miss Radio' Still Has Beaus Despite 'Kid Sister TV'

11,000 Homeless in El Paso Flood

EL PASO, Tex. (INS) — An estimated 11,000 persons were homeless today in the border towns of El Paso and Juarez, Mexico, where swirling flood waters caused at least one death and millions of dollars in property damage.

Several persons were reported missing.

The unidentified body of a woman was found in the flood's wake in Juarez, which bore the brunt of the damage.

Some 10,000 of the Mexican city's residents were routed from their homes and forced to find shelter in fire stations, jails and other municipal buildings.

One Pakisan tribe has a custom of expressing apology by sticking out the tongue.

Separated Twins Mark 2nd Birthday

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Two happy little girls, born joined together at the hips but separated by surgery, celebrate their second birthday today.

They are brown - eyed, curly-haired Carolyn Anne and Catherine Anne Mouton, daughters of Mayor and Mrs. Ashton J. Mouton of Lafayette.

The twins were separated Sept. 17, 1953 at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans.

Since then it has been a normal family life for the pair, interrupted only by return trips to the hospital for additional surgery.

Carolyn Anne will return to Ochsner next month for what is expected to be the final trip.

Chief Will Fight Firing

DOWAGIAC (AP) — William C. Wray of Detroit is scheduled to become Dowagiac police chief about Aug. 16 to replace Chief Paul Spencer, who was asked two weeks ago to resign with Patrolman Donald Merriman. City Council requested the resignations after the two were involved in a tavern argument. Spencer, whose appointment as chief expired in April, says he plans to fight the move.

Predicts Detroit Need for 200 Miles of X-Ways

DETROIT (AP)—A traffic expert predicts metropolitan Detroit will need 200 miles of expressways to handle traffic 25 years from now.

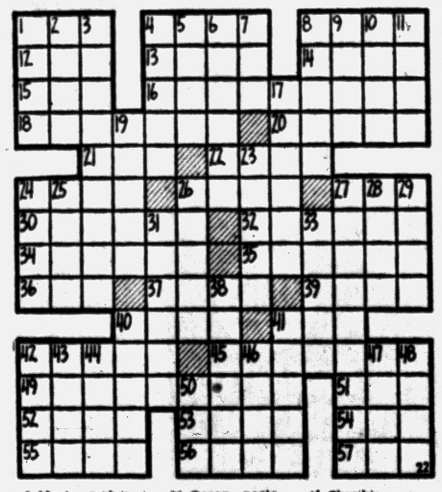

Dr. J. Douglas Carroll Jr., of the University of Michigan, who is directing a survey of driving habits here, estimated yesterday the thoroughways would cost a billion dollars.

10 Million Sets Sold Last Year

Portable, Car Models Cited in Big Upsurge Since End of War

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Once upon a time there was a pretty girl who had a younger sister. The younger girl grew very beautiful and had her picture in newspapers and magazines until nearly everybody romanced her. But the older girl who seldom had her picture in the paper, continued to be pursued by a host of boy friends every night of the week.

* * *

Call the older girl Radio and the younger Television and—commercially speaking—you have a picture of what's happening in these two industries today. The authority for this is John Karol, vice president in charge of network sales for CBS radio.

Disregard for the moment the quality of radio programing today and look at it simply as an industry, a means of communication. A CBS study finds:

In the pre-TV year of 1946 there were 57,700,000 radio sets in the United States. Today there are 132,400,000 sets. Last year alone 10,500,000 radios were sold. Sales thus far this year are 41 per cent ahead of last.

* * *

Why? For one thing, the number of auto and portable radios has increased greatly. For another, there is a huge unshakeable audience that enjoys doing something else while being entertained by ear.

"Perhaps the most interesting thing we've learned on CBS radio," says Karol, "is that Americans are creatures of habit in their entertainment interests They like to know that a thing is available at a specific regular time."

The new generation of listeners is just as dedicated as the old to regularity of listening, says Karol. Five weekday evenings a week over CBS stations these listeners get a regularity of shows—Amos 'n' Andy Music Hall, Tennessee Ernie, Arthur Godfrey and many others—falling at set hours.

* * *

As a result of this philosophy of strip programing, the Amos 'n' Andy Music Hall—as an example—today reaches more than five million radio outlets, Karol says. But in the pre-TV year of 1948, says Karol, the average half-hour nighttime radio program reached only 4,800,000 outlets. Furthermore, he says that in 1948 the sponsor cost for an average half-hour night program was $19,000 with three minutes of commercial advertising time. Today, he says, the sponsor cost is $10,000 with five minutes of commercial.

Court Dismisses Entertainer's Suit

NEW YORK (AP)—A $400,000 damage suit by entertainer Josephine Baker against columnist Walter Winchell, the Hearst Corp. and King Features Syndicate, has been dismissed in federal court.

Judge John C. Knox dismissed the suit, it became known yesterday, after the plaintiff's attorney had failed to file the required briefs by last June 30. A pretrial examination in the case was held in May.

Miss Baker, a Negro who adopted French citizenship, filed the suit in 1951, charging that Winchell "maliciously, wantonly and recklessly printed and published" items attacking her.

Bay City Doctor Heads Osteopathic Society

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. Robert Moore of Bay City, Mich., has assumed the presidency of the American Osteopathic Assn., succeeding Dr. John Mulford of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Moore has been president-elect the past year. Chosen to succeed him was Dr. Robert D. McCullough, Tulsa, Okla., who will take office as president at next year's convention in New York City.

Zsa Zsa Misses Finale of Porfirio's Polo Match

By EARL WILSON

PARIS—"Dolling," said Zsa Zsa Gabor on the phone, "vould you like to come and watch Rubi play polo?"

* * *

I said ve vould. Mrs. Wilson, my son and I trouped off to Porfirio Rubirosa's big, beautiful, 150-year-old home to meet the two love-birds who now plan to marry.

WINNERS' CIRCLE

"Rube"—that's what Zsa Zsa called him—"vants me to marry him . . . vot else can I do?" she asked as we sat on Rubi's terrace waiting for him to get into his polo togs.

"I givt up $4,000 a veek just to come here from Hollywood to see him. Vot about my career?" she implored, fondling a diamond bracelet.

"Rube" came down looking slim-waisted. "The polo" was at the fashionable hour of 6 over in the Bois.

First Rubi showed us his personal gym with a couple of rooms for polo-player friends. Then he loaded us into two cars.

"Ve go to the polo grounds," Zsa Zsa said.

"You made a funny," I told her. "The Polo Grounds are in New York."

"Vun time they must have played polo there," she said.

"You come with me," the Rube said to me. We took off in his flashy Mercedes-Benz that does 170 MPH, and were soon the Champs Elysee.

I wished my goateed friend, Farouk, or Charles MacArthur, or Bella Darvi, or my little Volkswagen could have seen me now.

Rubi chivalrously told me he hadn't heard anything about Barbara Hutton in months . . . though she's around here. We were soon at "the polo," where several hundred were waiting.

* * *

We sat on the veranda and watched the exciting match. Red-helmeted and dashing looking, Rubi captained one team.

In the third chukker, I think it was, the score was tied at 3 all.

"Egalite!" a French lady shouted.

Zsa Zsa chose this moment to hunt the powder room. While she was gone, a spectator told me Rubi's team had just won, 4-3, and Rubi would now be accepting a big cup.

Thus the ceremony was held without Zsa Zsa seeing it. But later when he brought the big cup u pto her table, and she placed her little Yorkshire terrier Susie in it. she gave him a kiss and vice versa.

"It's vunderful he von," Zsa Zsa said. "If he don't bring a cup home every time, his butler von't talk to him!"

It was a most revealing day, particularly because at one time Zsa Zsa chided me for always writing that she has an accent. "Dolling," she scolded, "vy you do that?"

Actress Stabs Self Over Wedding Delay

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police say actress Eve Miller stabbed herself because her fiance refused to set their wedding date.

Actor Glase Lohman told officers he informed Miss Miller, 31, Wednesday night that he couldn't marry her until he was financially able. He said she told him:

"You'll be sorry—because you'll find me dead in the morning."

He said he heard her scream and fall as he was leaving her home and summoned police. They said the actress had stabbed herself in the abdomen apparently with a paring knife.

She was taken to General Hospital in critical condition and underwent four hours of surgery yesterday.

Soviet Visitors Splitting Forces

Form Smaller Groups to Study Individual Farm Problems

AMES, Iowa (AP) —The Soviet group of farm leaders began to break up into smaller study groups along lines of special interest today.

* * *

Their purpose is to accomplish as much as possible in the limited time of their visit at Iowa State College and in the United States.

The division of the 12 Russians into smaller groups has given rise to serious translation problems. Today a new U.S. government translator arrives to assist. He is Eugene Serebrennikov of the Library of Congress.

* * *

But the problem goes beyond mere translation. It's a question of people from a very different culture with a very different type of social organization attempting to understand fundamental aspects of American life.

"Who controls this college from Washington?" asked Soviet farm chief Vladimir Matskevich yesterday of the dean of agriculture at Iowa State, Floyd Andre.

* * *

Andre answered: "Nobody."

This was not easy for Matskevich although he is quick to grasp and absorb. In Russia the existence of an immene educational institution without its beings controlled by the government is unthinkable.

Race Tag on Ballot Ruled Discrimination

DENVER (AP)—The U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals says an Oklahoma law requiring that election ballots carry racial identification on Negro candidates is unconstitutional.

It ordered U.S. Dist. Judge Stephen S. Chandler Jr. to set a trial date for a damage suit against the Oklahoma Board of Elections.

The suit was brought by A. B. McDonald, a Negro minister defeated in the 1954 Democratic primary for U.S. senator. McDonald challenged the word "Negro" printed by his name on the ballots.

Judge Chandler ruled that the designation was merely descriptive and dismissed the suit. The three-judge Circuit Court yesterday unanimously reversed his decision, ruling that the designation was discriminatory.

Execute Red Spies

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Six convicted spies were executed yesterday on Quemoy Island, the Defense Ministry announced.

Ike Exchanging Messages With India's Nehru

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Nehru are keeping up a lengthy exchange of personal messages on the Far Eastern situation informed sources said today.

The informants said the correpondence centers mainly on the U.S. airmen still imprisoned in Red China and the possibility of direct talks between Washington and Peiping on Formosa.

* * *

Eisenhower began the exchange several weeks ago when he relayed a message through Nehru's foreign policy adviser V. K. Krishna Menon while the Indian Premier was stopping off in London after his European tour.

Nehru reportedly answered before leaving London, and since his return here at least three more messages have been exchanged, presumably through U.S. Ambassador John Sherman Cooper.

Sunlight Sets Fire

YORK, Pa. (AP)—The sun was so hot in nearby Mount Airy yesterday that its rays, reflected by a mirror, ignited a magazine on a bed in the home of Mr. and Mrs Roy Myers. The resulting fire caused $250 damage before firemen put it out.

Sale Injures 24

AOMORI, Japan (AP) — So many women flocked to a bargain sale of kimono scarves at the Kikuya department store that the second floor collapsed under the strain. Twenty-four women were injured.

Judge Asks Resident to 'Lay Pistol Down'

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Walter Gross, 38, would have been better off had he heeded that one-time hit tune that said "Lay That Pistol Down."

Gross was convicted in municipal court here Monday of carrying concealed weapons. Judge J. T. Lamb suspended $50 of a $100 fine on condition Gross refrain from possessing firearms of any kind and did not reappear in court.

Gross was arrested again yesterday, a short time after police received word he had bought a new pistol. He was being held in jail last night on a charge of violating a court order.
