Tragedy Strikes Senator Again

McClellan's Son, 3 Others Killed as Plane Crashes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Grief-stricken Sen. John McClellan came home to Arkansas today to await the burial of his youngest son, victim of a plane crash that also killed three other men.

James Howard McClellan, 30, who was killed in the crash near Little Rock yesterday, was the 62-year-old senator's third and only remaining son.

The Arkansas Democrat received the news of the fatal crash just after he had been in the Senate chamber voting on an amendment to the Reciprocal Trade Act bill.

It was the fourth tragedy in the senator's life. Two other sons also died violently. Max in World War II, and John Jr., in an auto crash en route to re-burial services for Max. The senator's second wife died of spinal meningitis in 1943.

The younger McClellan, a Little Rock attorney, was at the controls of a twin-engine plane owned by a Little Rock flying service. A flier since his Air Force service in the Korean War, he was taking a test for a twin-engine pilot's license.

Killed with McClellan were instructors Wallace Denman Hill, 57, and Jesse Ralph Williams, 32, both of Little Rock, and Harold K. Gilbert, 33, Stuttgart, Ark., who planned to take his pilot's examination after McClellan.

Moscow Howls Loud Protest Against U.N. Summit Meeting

Hammaraskjold Seeks Stronger U.N. Corps

Strives to Replace GIs in Lebanon in Spite of Veto by Russia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold worked today to reinforce the U. N. observer corps in Lebanon so American troops can pull out.

Hammarskjold took the job on himself after the second Soviet veto in four days blocked Security Council efforts to ease the Middle East crisis. The Council adjourned indefinitely to await the secretary general's action and the outcome of negotiations for a summit meeting on the Middle East.

Hammarskjold indicated he would ask U.N. members for more men to build up the observer group so they might make it possible for the United States to withdraw its 10,000 troops from Lebanon.

"I shall use all opportunities offered to the secretary general . . . to help," he said. "You will forgive me for not being able to spell out, at this moment, what it may mean beyond that."

The 85th Soviet veto defeated a Japanese resolution calling on the U.N. "to make possible the withdrawal of United States forces from Lebanon" by arranging to protect that country's territorial integrity and political independence.

SAME PURPOSE
This protection was the purpose Washington announced for landing Marines in Lebanon July 15, the day after the Iraqi monarchy was overthrown by supporters of President Nasser. Nasser opposes the pro-Western Lebanese government.

The Japanese resolution was interpreted as calling for strengthening of the 135-man observer group which the Council assigned June 11 to insure against intervention in the Lebanese revolt by Nasser's United Arab Republic.

All the Council members except the Soviet Union voted for it, and Hammarskjold then said he would enlarge the group anyway.

FAVORED BY LODGE

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge told reporters he thought that Hammarskjold's announcement was very helpful. He added that the secretary general's action could bring about conditions under which the United States, after consulting Hammarskjold and Lebanon, would withdraw its troops.

Sir Pierson Dixon of Britain also said Hammarskjold's plan should help.

Recommendation Sent to Lansing

Commission OKs City Road Plan

On its way to Lansing today, with the approval of the City Commission and Planning Commission, is the proposed arterial street layout for Pontiac as recommended by the Barton Study.

City Commissioners unanimously approved the plan at their meeting last evening. This followed four days after the City Planning Commission had approved it.

The $17,000 study, prepared by the Evanson, Ill. consulting firm of George W. Barton, was dispatched immediately to the State Highway Dept. today in order that state trunklines could be designated in the modernistic plan.

City Manager Walter K. Willman pointed out to commissioners the urgency of the approval so highway officials could move ahead with fitting the study in their future highway development plans for this area.

Earlier this month, Howard C. Bacon, official in the department's planning division, assured the city the proposed loop highway circling downtown would be eligible as a trunkline highway replacing U.S. 10 (Saginaw street).

"The trunklines are the key," Willman said to the commission. "They (the highway department) are hungry for this and would like to get working on it pronto."

Commissioners, who had examined maps pertaining to the new arterial system in previous meetings, reiterated their praise for the study.

TIME IS NOW

"The course has been set," declared Floyd P. Miles. "Now is the time for everyone to get behind it and push it."

The city manager emphasized that once the trunklines are outlined, "that is that and they can't be changed." However, Willman added, the city has control over the linking arterial roads.

LOOP COMES FIRST

The loop proposal, which is aimed at keeping through traffic from downtown, runs east and west of Saginaw street from School street on the north to Osun street on the south. Planners say the loop will get number one priority.

The Barton study, which took eight months to prepare, was financed by the Downtown Redevelopment Group, formerly the Downtown Pontiac Assn.

Nasser Cries Out for Peace, Suggests Slaying of Hussein

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

NABLUS, Jordan (AP) — Gamal Abdel Nasser proclaimed himself a man of peace yesterday and virtually called for the assassination of King Hussein of Jordan. It is the first time Nasser personally has suggested assassination for the Jordanian King, although his "Voice of the Arabs" propaganda radio station has done so often.

The President of the United Arab Republic, in his annual Egyptian Independence Day speech, called expressly on the people of Jerusalem, Nablus and Ramallah — the main Palestinian towns in Jordan — to heed his words.

Nasser pointedly referred to the late King Abdullah, Hussein's grandfather, and to the year 1951 in which Abdullah was assassinated by Arab Palestinians. He accused Hussein of following in his grandfather's footsteps by calling on Britain for aid.

Nasser's suggestion, however, direct, could not possibly be lost on his hearers—Hussein is in line for his grandfather's fate.

"We call for peace and we make every effort to strengthen this peace," said Nasser. But there was no hint of compromise in his assertion that "the British armed aggression against Jordan will be defeated — the American armed aggression against Lebanon will be defeated."

Should Nasser call now for discussions on the Lebanese and other Middle East problems, the West might be justified in considering he is seeking only breathing space in which to prepare for his next assault.

There are already signs that the crisis is getting deeper.

Nablus and other cities in the Palestine sector of Jordan are patently nervous. There are numerous check points on the road from Amman, and so far government security forces seem to have matters under control. But there are reports the pro-Nasser elements have arms cached, waiting for the signal for action.

The signal may be some time in coming.

Nasser's speech indicated he is interested first in getting the Americans out of Lebanon, then pushing that country into his so-called "liberated Arab" bloc. The tone of his speech gave the impression he does not want to bite off too much at one time. He still must digest the situation in Iraq, and still must deal with the situation he created in Lebanon which brought American intervention.

Lebanon Vote Delayed Week

Gives More Time to Search for Successor to President Chamoun

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Speaker Adel Osseiran has postponed for one week Parliament's election of a new president, apparently to give more time to a search for a candidate acceptable to both government and rebels.

The election session was scheduled for tomorrow but Osseiran postponed it last night.

One of the reasons for the 75-day-old Lebanese rebellion is opposition to pro-Western President Camille Chamoun, whose term ends Sept. 23. Some neutral political leaders have been seeking to end the rebellion by finding a compromise successor.

U.S. Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy also has been engaged in this search since he arrived behind the U.S. Marines last week as President Eisenhower's political troubleshooter.

The most likely compromise candidate (Gen. Fuad Shehab, the army chief, whose name is censured out of stories from Beirut) tried again to withdraw his name. Other possibilities are Alfred Naccache, chief of state under the French mandate which ended during World War II, and Bechara Khoury, the immediate predecessor and bitter enemy of Chamoun.

Hospital Uses More of Addition

"OPERATION SHIFT" — Doctors, nurses and attendants at Pontiac General Hospital this morning all pitched in to move some 55 adult patients from the second floor of the old building to the fifth floor of the $3.5 million addition. The transfer to the 58-bed surgical floor marked the second occupancy by patients in the new wing. Pediatric patients were moved in May. Still Possibility Soviet Premier Would Attend

Reds Charge 'Everyone Knows' U.S. Can Rely on Majority Vote

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Moscow objected sharply today to Western suggestions for a U. N. summit meeting to discuss the Middle East crisis, but stopped short of saying Premier Khrushchev would not accept.

The suggestions were made in varying forms yesterday in the Western powers' individual replies to Khrushchev's own suggestion for a five-power summit meeting outside the United Nations.

The initial Moscow reaction came in a commentary by the government newspaper Izvestia, which said that "everyone knows the U. S. A. can rely on a mechanical majority in the Security Council."

The commentary broadcast by Moscow radio also accused this country of trying to prevent the five-power conference Khrushchev proposed. But it did not rule out Soviet acceptance of the Western proposal.

In advance of that, U.S. officials said they expected Khrushchev to accept, but to attach conditions which the United States and its allies may find unacceptable.

The Izvestia commentary mentioned one that they had anticipated — the possible participation in such a meeting of President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China. The Soviet Union is a strong supporter of Communist China.

The separate notes they sent Khrushchev last night showed that President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain and French Premier Charles de Gaulle themselves were badly divided on the issue of a meeting.

In fact, authoritative government sources in Paris said today Gen. De Gaulle would refuse to attend a summit meeting at United Nations headquarters in New York, authoritative government sources said today.

SEES FAILURE

The sources said the French premier feels very strongly that an East-West summit conference in the U.N. Security Council would turn into a propaganda free-for-all within the view of television cameras and thus would be doomed to failure.

The sources said De Gaulle was "adamant" in this belief and that what he wants instead is a summit conference on "neutral ground," such as Geneva.

Eisenhower is reluctant to become involved in any kind of session with Khrushchev at this time. His letter strongly indicated, by several toughly worded paragraphs, that he considers the Soviet Communist leader to be behind much of the turmoil and trouble in the Middle East.

Authoritative sources say Eisenhower is ready to attend a summit meeting at the United Nations but probably would walk out if Khrushchev tried to turn it into a propaganda forum.

In Lebanon, United States planes operating from Sixth Fleet carriers and air bases in Turkey staged an impressive show of strength over all major Lebanese cities today in a "salute to the people of Lebanon."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) announced today the Senate Watchdog Defense Committee will get a report tomorrow from Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy on the state of the nation's defenses.

Raps Soviets Choosing Summit Parley Nations

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) told the Senate today the West must not permit the Soviet Union to choose who shall sit in any United Nations summit conference.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said if Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev does not wish to sit down at such a meeting with China's Chiang Kai-shek is present, "so be it."

"No person sitting in the Kremlin or anywhere else should be permitted to pick and choose between members," Knowland said. "No one member can be allowed to exercise a veto on any member of the Security Council sending the head of its government to the meeting."

There have been indications that Khrushchev would decline to attend a Security Council summit meeting because the Soviet Union does not recognize Chiang's Formosa regime.

Knowland said if Khrushchev attends any conference the free world ought to raise at the meeting the issue of Soviet troop withdrawals from Hungary.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.), a Foreign Relations Committee member, said he hopes the Senate will act quickly on a resolution supporting an expected U.S. proposal in the U.N. General Assembly to set up an international police force for use in Lebanon.

Knowland said he will join Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), the Senate majority leader, in pushing for consideration of the resolution, although he said such a force would not automatically solve Middle East peace.

Knowland said earlier he expects President Eisenhower to maintain close personal liaison with legislative leaders if Congress goes home before the Middle East crisis is resolved.

Knowland said telephone communications between the President and the leaders of both parties offer a better means of keeping legislators informed than if some committee were left behind in Washington to maintain liaison.

"Congress can go back in session within 24 hours if some emergency should arise requiring its action," the Senate Republican leader said. "I am sure the President will keep in close contact with us."

Although he declined public comment on the matter, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas was reported to have told friends he would find such an arrangement satisfactory.

Johnson told a news conference he sees no reason why the Middle East situation should delay the adjournment of Congress, but he would make no prediction on a quitting date.

Defense Minister Forced to Resign in Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—A demonstration by some 100,000 Venezuelans forced the resignation today of Defense Minister Jesus Maria Castro Leon after he sought to assert political power for the army.

Gen. Castro Leon had served an ultimatum on Rear Adm. Wolfgang Larrazabal, president of Venezuela's five-man ruling junta, in what looked like the first step in a plan to oust the government.

Venezuelans regarded the plan as a showdown between the people and the military, which traditionally has ruled this oil-rich nation. Students, professional people and workers assembled in front of the government palace until after midnight in support of the junta which overthrew the military dictatorship of Marcos Jimenez exactly six months ago.

on the radio hookup with a call for the nation to avoid violence and move with the junta toward elected government.

Larrazabal said Castro Leon's resignation was proof of his "patriotism and responsibility as a Venezuelan." The air force chief, Gen. Jose Lopez Henriquez, was named to succeed him as defense minister.

Castro Leon had delivered an ultimatum to Larrazabal demanding press censorship, postponement of the general elections the junta has promised to hold, dissolution of political parties and outlawing of the Communist and leftist Democratic Action parties.

The navy also backed Larrazabal, its former chief. To prevent reinforcement of army units in the capital, it blocked the old road from the Caribbean coast and posted destroyers and cruisers in artillery range of the new superhighway.

After he resigned, Castro Leon told the tense armed forces in a nationwide broadcast he quit because of "constant worry for the unity of the country."

Adams Probe Tough Sledding

No Conclusions About Penalty Rebate Case After Quizzing Pair

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. William E. Hess (R-Ohio) said today questioning of two key witnesses has led to no conclusions about an Army contract penalty rebate case in which Sherman Adams' name figured.

Hess is the senior Republican member of the House Armed Services Investigations subcommittee investigating the rebate last year of $41,284 of wartime penalties imposed in 1941 for late delivery on Rayline Worsteds, Inc., Manchester, N.H.

Inquiries about the case by Adams, President Eisenhower's principal assistant, led to accusations of influence, but the White House said the inquiries were routine and no attempt was made to influence the decision.

Hess spoke with a newsmen after the committee, operating behind closed doors with strict secrecy rules, had questioned Roswell M. Austin, retired member of the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, and Joseph A. Avery, chairman of the board's Army panel.

Austin has said publicly he considered Adams' inquiries improper, but he does not believe they influenced the board's decision.

Avery refused to talk with newsmen. He was recalled for further questioning, as were Col. C. Robert Bard, board member who wrote the Rayline decision; and William M. Lyons, board recorder.

Hess expressed concern with the amount of time required by the investigation, especially since four additional witnesses were subpoenaed today.

"At this rate, we'll still be going to adjournment—whenever that is," Hess said.

Rain Reigns Across Most of Nation

By The Associated Press
Rain reigned like a soggy monarch in the weather world today. It seemed as if it was umbrella time everywhere in the nation, but there were exceptions. West of the Rockies it was mostly fair and warm. And, of course, the Southwest desert region was dry as usual.

But—there was a U-shaped and thunderstorm area in the eastern half of the country.

Rains fell—or were forecast—in the northern Atlantic states southward into Florida, then westward through the Gulf Coast states and then northward to the Plains states. By night, scattered thunderstorms are expected to push into the western Great Lakes.

Heaviest rain last night fell in an already clobbered area which extended from western Kansas through western Oklahoma and into extreme northwest Texas. Some of the storms had hail and high winds, and there was a tornado about 15 miles northwest of Lubbock, Tex. However, storm damage was considered minor.

Moscow Objecting to Parley at U.N.

U.S. aerial might in a divided country made anxious by the postponement of Lebanon's parliamentary elections and by a fiery speech in Cairo last night by United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The demonstrations by American forces committed to uphold stable government in this tiny Arab republic included supersonic fighters and big bombers capable of carrying atomic bombs. Thirty one Air Force planes and 20 Naval planes took part.

The flypast began soon after dawn over cities and small villages. The planes were 12 F100D super sabres, nine B-57 bombers, six B-66s, four RF-101 voodoos and assorted aircraft from the carriers Saratoga and Wasp somewhere off the Lebanese coast.

The Air Force planes came from bases in Turkey.

"CAN GET OUT"
Adm. James L. Holloway said today "I really think we can get out of Lebanon without any fighting." He added he doubts that World War III will start here.

The over-all commander of American forces in Lebanon recorded these statements for radio and television. He appeared along with U. S. Ambassador Robert McClintock.

Both expressed optimism over the outlook, not only in Lebanon but in respect to repercussions elsewhere to the arrival of American forces in this tiny Middle East nation.

Holloway and McClintock were asked their opinion on the possibility that the Lebanese situation might touch off a third world war.

"The ambassador replied: 'From my own political experience, I would say the danger of a third world war is very much reduced.' Holloway concurred.

Holloway also said he sees no indications of the Soviet Union becoming involved in the Lebanese problem. Asked whether he felt similarly about the United Arab Republic, he replied that it would not appear that President Nasser will mount and launch a formal intervention in Lebanon.

Reporters asked both men about the possibility that the American forces might be used to assist Jordan's King Hussein. Holloway did not reply directly but said: "The U.S. Marines and Army have the capacity for quick shifts and movements."

In a formal statement, McClintock said: "We are here to help, and not to take over."

Both emphasized that the United forces from Lebanon "at the earliest possible moment coincident with the United Nations position."

"Traffic along U.S. 27 is so heavy now that it's worth your life in the summer to try to cross it on foot," he said.

"We conducted a traffic count and found that 40 per cent of the cars were passing through and very few stopped for gas or food. Most cars gas up somewhere down the line and then drive straight through

Says He Killed Police Officer

Fugitive From Michigan Picked Up in Georgia for Routine Check

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP)—Edward Hanna, 24, picked up today by police for investigation, told officers he shot and killed a policeman in Lexington, Mich., Sunday night.

Valdosta police called Lexington and learned the officer was buried today and that a warrant has been issued for Hanna, Michigan officers are expected to come here for him.

Police did not give a reason for picking up Hanna. They quoted Hanna as saying he shot the officer when he attempted to arrest him in a tavern. The name of the Lexington officer was not available here.

Hanna said his home was in Chicago.

Standard Oil Raises Area Gas Prices

Standard Oil Co. today raised its wholesale gasoline prices 1.8 cents a gallon for its Detroit (including Pontiac) and Flint areas. Dealers are expected to pass the increase on to the public placing the price of regular at about 31.7 cents, depending on dealer pricing policies.

Other gasoline firms are expected to follow Standard's lead, apparently ending a year-long price war.

A. V. Fraser, Standard regional manager, said the increase was "long overdue." He said it results from local market improvements and does not reflect Middle East troubles.

Flat Rock Barber Dies of Gun Wounds

FLAT ROCK (AP)—With the death of one principal the "little argument" shootings of three persons Monday may never be fully solved.

Israel Abar, 77, who police said shot and wounded a neighbor couple, died yesterday of self-inflicted wounds. He died without telling why he did so, police said.

The shootings were at the home of Leland Alexander, 62, and his wife, Fayette, 54. Both were wounded. Alexander said only that he and Abar, a retired barber, had "a little argument."

Still in Good Condition

NEW YORK (UPI)—There's no question that Police Captain Alexander Kahn, 47, still is in good condition.

Kahn was off duty early yesterday when he spotted a man chasing a sneak thief. Kahn took off on a dead run, chased the thief into an apartment house, ran eight floors to the roof and made his arrest.

Strato-Balloon Delayed

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)—The Office of Naval Research postponed today's scheduled launching of a manned balloon into the stratosphere because of unfavorable weather.

He complains that there is no need to bypass Mount Pleasant or any town of its size.

"Sure people want to bypass a big city," he said. "But it doesn't slow anybody down much to take three minutes to drive through Mount Pleasant."

Asked about the chamber of commerce statistics that show that many cars pass through without the drivers stopping to buy something, he said:

"If only 100 of 10,000 cars stop, that's 100 cars. Anybody that stops is greedy. If the highway is not here, nobody will stop. There won't be any greedy."

Fortino is resigned to the fact that the highway will bypass Mount Pleasant but he is frankly bitter.

"The Highway Department's mind is made up," he said. "These meetings they are holding for people to say their piece are a farce. We're little businessmen and we don't have the money to fight them."

"The little man doesn't mean a damn in Michigan," he said. "You've got to be the CIO or a millionaire to get anything done."

Fortino said he believes the new highway will boost the tax bills in the counties, too.

"They are going through good farm land with this new highway," he said. "That's going to take that farm land off the tax rolls. Who is going to make up the difference? We are, that's who."

Reds Defied by Composer Reading Bible

VIENNA (AP)—Ordered by Hungary's Communist government to speak to factory workers about the "peace campaign of the Socialist camp," famous Hungarian composer Zoltan Kodaly read from a Bible instead.

There was dead silence in the Budapest factory hall, the Vienna Catholic news agency Kathpress reported today. The workers expected Kodaly to be arrested immediately but he finished the reading unmolested and walked out.

Set Tests for Boy in Drowning Case

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Frank Hogan Jr. has been sent to Ypsilanti State Hospital for examination as a result of the drowning of John Thomas Winslow 11.

Probate Judge John W. Conlin committed Frank yesterday for a 30-day test period. Police say the boy admitted drowning John last Thursday in a pond near their Pittsfield Township home.

Hospital doctors will report on Frank's mental condition. Then there will be a hearing to determine final action.

March Is Staged by Pensioners

Retired UAW Members Picket GM Building for Bigger Checks

DETROIT (AP)—Retired members of the United Auto Workers Union staged a slow march around the General Motors building here today in a demonstration demanding cost-of-living allowances for employees on pension.

The union estimated 5,000 joined in the March along traffic lanes next to the curb cordoned off by police. Sound trucks played the union's song, Solidarity Forever.

The marchers, nearly all of them past 65, quietly carried placards inscribed with Union demands in current contract negotiations with GM, Ford and Chrysler.

It was a silent battle of words. Union placards said: "1955 pensions won't meet 1958 living costs—fat bonuses for Curtice and Colbert, low pensions for workers—when GM says 'No,' Ford and Chrysler say 'No.'"

GM answered back with huge signs placed in windows of first-floor showrooms of the 15-story, block-size building. The signs said:

"GM pensions, plus social security, increased 57 per cent since 1950 while cost of living increased only 18 per cent."

UAW negotiators met for one hour with the company in an office on the fifth floor of the buildings and then recessed the talks until tomorrow so they could watch the march.

More Students Will Be Walking

Waterford Won't Have Bus Service Within 1½ Mile School Radius

Junior high and high school pupils in the Waterford Township School District will not have bus transportation service if they live within a one and a half mile radius of their school.

The board of education has accepted Superintendent William Shuck's recommendation for the change, and bus schedules are now being set up by Director of Transportation John E. Hills.

Last year, all pupils in the school district living within a one-mile radius were transported even though state aid allowed funds for those living a mile and a half or more from school only.

There will be a change in last year's policy of transporting children in kindergarten and the first six grades who live more than a mile from school, Shuck said.

They will have to walk up to a half mile to their bus stops and pupils in grades 7 through 12 will walk up to one mile to the bus stops.

With the opening of the new John D. Pierce Junior High School, the 32 buses in the school system are not adequate to handle the anticipated 11,100 enrollment in September, officials said. Two new buses were added this year.

According to pupil transportation stops made and miles driven, Waterford system was slated to get $93,124 in state aid last year but only received $86,000 due to a shortage in state funds.

What the school district receives this year will not be known until after Sept. 19 when an actual count of stops and mileage has been made.

UAW negotiators met for one hour with the company in an office on the fifth floor of the buildings and then recessed the talks until tomorrow so they could watch the march.

The Day in Birmingham

May Halt Fire Protection for Nearby Country Club

BIRMINGHAM — City Manager L. R. Gare yesterday informed John Brennan, manager of the Birmingham Country Club, that the city of Birmingham may discontinue fire protection for the club.

At Monday's meeting City Commissioner John O'Gorman brought up the question, saying he did not feel it was right to extend this service to the club while denying it to others on the city's perimeter.

"We have turned down fire protection for other outside business places," O'Gorman said, "and I fail to see the difference here. It would endanger our residents just as much to have our equipment tied up at a club fire as it would if the trucks were at a factory fire on the Troy boundary."

Commissioners weighed the possibility of a "gentleman's agreement" between the club and the city, since a city sewer line crosses club property.

Currently, fire protection has been extended to the club for 60 days from July 1 so a study of protection rates might be made. While no decision has been made, commissioners expressed the possibility that the contract may not be renewed.

Commissioner William Burgum, serving at his first session, said he felt it unfair to drop the protection without giving the club an opportunity to make other arrangements. In view of this, Gare was asked to give formal notification to Brennan that club officials would be alerted to the possibility protection might be discontinued.

Commissioner Charles Renfrew said he had often wondered about the arrangement and the denial to others under similar conditions and felt it would be a hard decision to make.

Scott May Sue Barbers Union

Wants $150,000 After Appeal on Suspension Is Turned Down

The International Barbers Union, AFL-CIO, has upheld a suspension of Robert P. Scott from Detroit Local 552 of the union "for violation of the law for holding membership in a dual organization."

Scott, 51, of 31 Bloomfield Terrace, and a former vice president of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614, announced he planned to file a $150,000 damage suit against the Barbers Union for his suspension.

William C. Birthright, international president, informed Scott by letter that the general executive board of the international met July 12 to consider his appeal of the suspension by Local 552.

Board members voted to sustain the suspension, Birthright said.

Scott, a Democratic candidate for the Legislature from Pontiac, said "this is what happens when you have differences with Jimmy Hoffa." Scott told the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington last fall that Teamsters Union President Hoffa once threatened "to break both my arms and legs in 1952."

The three-member trial board of Local 552 suspended Scott last May for belonging to the local and the State Barbers Association Inc. which he organized back in 1932.

County Home Rule Debated

Efforts to Streamline Local Government in State to Be Reviewed

LANSING (UPI)—Another attempt to give Michigan a county home rule system is in the making today but even its strongest backers realize it is at least two years away.

A special Senate Committee on County Home Rule is expected to review testimony presented at a hearing yesterday before deciding what action, if any, will be taken in the Legislature to draft the constitutional amendment that would bring Michigan in line with 14 other states that have revised their governmental chain-of-command.

The amendment was sought in 1934, 1942 and 1944 by initiative petitions but it was turned down by state voters each time.

"Our whole effort is aimed at giving the counties the right to adopt what they want," Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman), committee chairman and a leading advocate of streamlining government, said.

County home rule incorporates three concepts:

- Power to revise the form of county government.
- Authority to exercise powers independent of the Legislature.
- Power to merge with enveloped cities or neighboring counties.

The system was backed solidly yesterday by the Citizens Research Council, the Detroit Citizens League and many metropolitan area government officials. It was opposed by township officials and viewed cautiously by many out-state county officials.

Merrill O. Bates was re-elected president of the Bloomfield Hills Board of Education last night at the Board's annual organizational meeting.

New members, Mrs. Lawrence Martz and Max Miller, were named secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The Board approved splitting one classroom of the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, which it said already was overcrowded. Estimated cost of putting in the partition is $1,900.

The Board decided to ask the Michigan State University advisory committee to re-examine the district in view of future building needs. Eugene Johnson, superintendent of schools, said new schools, particularly the junior high school, were constructed with additional classrooms in mind.

Whether new schools will be necessary will be decided in the survey, Johnson said.

Thirty-two new teachers were hired by the Board, which also approved appointments of eight replacements.

Walter O. Collins; Service for Walter O. Collins, 80, of 17645 Glenwood Dr., City of Lathrup Village, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in Acacia Park Cemetery under the auspices of Zion Lodge 1, F&AM, Detroit.

Mr. Collins died at his home yesterday following a brief illness.

He retired in 1951 after 32 years as supervisor in the electrical department of the Dodge Motor Division in Detroit. Mr. Collins served in the Army Signal Corps for 10 years and helped to set up the first electrical plant in the Philippine Islands.

He was a member of the Zion Lodge and the Scottish Rite Bodies of Detroit.

Surviving are his wife, Lilly; a daughter, Mrs. G. D. Wendt Jr. of Dayton, Ohio; three sons, William O. of Lathrup Village, Maj. Robert W. of Arlington, Va., and Harry E. of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Elsie Feet of Royal Oak; three brothers and five grandchildren.

Schoolboy 'Sentenced'

OSHKOSH, Wis. (UPI) — An eight-year-old schoolboy, charged with turning in a rash of false fire alarms, was "sentenced" yesterday to write "I must not send in false alarms" 500 times weekly until school starts this fall.

Competition High for Entrance Into Naval Academy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Competition was keener than ever before this year for entrance to the U.S. Naval Academy. And the examinations there tougher.

The Academy said there were 4,500 candidates, about 1,000 more than in any previous year.

Selectivity among so large a group of would-be entrants consequently was extremely high. College Entrance Examination Board tests were used for the first time.

The average score of those who were accepted was nearly 680 in mathematics and 600 in English. The scores compare favorably with the average of those entering top universities in the United States.

Character and leadership qualities, in addition to academic proficiency, continue to rate as major qualifications for admission.

But the Wedding Comes Off

'Snake!' She Yelps

SHELBY, N.C. (AP) — When the minister asked if anyone objected to the marriage of Mary Price and Clyde Willis, the maid of honor let out a shriek.

"Snake!" she yelped and scrambled into the choir loft.

She didn't mean the groom... but a real live reptile who had slithered into the church. It was just rehearsal. The wedding went off next day with no snakes and no objections.

Cadillac

Satisfaction Far Beyond its Cost!

One Cadillac owner put it this way—

"I know," he said, "of no other investment a man can make that returns finer dividends than the purchase of a new Cadillac."

Consider, first of all, what a comparatively modest expenditure it requires to own and drive and enjoy the "car of cars" today.

A Cadillac is surprisingly reasonable in original cost—remarkably economical to maintain—and without rival in its resale value.

And then envision, if you will, the personal rewards that accompany this extraordinary practicality.

How wonderful it is to sit in command of a motor car that is so magnificent in performance.

How satisfying it is to be surrounded by its marvelous Fleetwood luxury.

And how inspiring it is to reflect on the car's matchless reputation among the world's motorists.

So if you see a new Cadillac in your future—we urge you to visit your dealer today.

He'll be happy to give you details on all the new Cadillacs—including the Eldorado Brougham.

Purses Locked in Safe

an empty safe for safekeeping. The son of one of the women slammed the safe door shut. Police couldn't open the safe. The purses still are locked up.

South Africa to Try 92 for Treason

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP)—The South African government will bring to trial next week 92 persons who, it charges, have been trying to convert South Africa into a Communist state.

The defendants claim they were only seeking an end to the government's policy of apartheid—white supremacy and strict segregation.

The 92, including African and Indian political leaders, will go on trial here Aug. 1 before a special court of three judges. The charge, high treason, could bring hanging.

A defense fund, which has gathered money from many parts of the world, will provide lunches and nine attorneys for the defendants.

CEMENT LOGS? — Motorists driving by the Waterford Township home of L. J. Biron take a double look at his unique cement-log home with its molded tree-trunk fireplace at 3984 Sashabaw Rd.

It's Made of Cement Logs

He Owns Coolest House in Waterford

One of the most unusual and coolest houses in Waterford Township is owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Biron of 3984 Sashabaw Rd. The home looks like it was built of genuine wood logs, but actually it is bark-colored cement poured over individual wire mesh forms, giving the effect of logs laid horizontally.

It took Biron's son, Raymond, six months to build the wood-foundation structure, so that experts from Mio, Michigan could attach semi-circular wire forms on the house.

One batch of gray cement was molded into the wire and dark brown coloring was mixed into the second and final coating.

Workmen then used a grooved trowel on each "log" to get the bark-effect, and a wide tan stripe was painted between each log, giving the illusion of the logs being caulked.

A fireplace, resembling a huge tree-trunk is the unique eye-catcher on the front of the house.

Biron explained that first a cement block fireplace was built and two-by-fours were covered with wire mesh. The cement was then molded into the shape of a branchless tree trunk.

There are two thicknesses of insulation, with the regular spun glass between the inside walls, and the air-space between the wooden frame and cement logs.

Dems in Oklahoma Choose Candidates

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—By a record vote, Oklahoma Democrats yesterday picked a 32-year-old county prosecutor and a 31-year-old bachelor schoolteacher as nominees for governor and lieutenant governor.

This virtually assured J. Howard Edmondson election as governor and George Nigh as lieutenant governor.

Oklahoma has never elected anyone but a Democrat for its top state offices in the November general elections.

Edmondson, whose own supporters called his first primary election lead a "political miracle," beat millionaire home builder W. P. Bill Atkinson 362,877 to 159,171 in unofficial returns. In the first primary three weeks ago, he led by just 742 votes.

Nigh, who came within a few thousand votes of being eliminated in the first primary along with 10 other candidates, defeated Lt. Gov. Cowboy Pink Williams 300,002 to 191,200. Williams led by 95,464 votes in the first primary.

The 522,048 votes cast yesterday was the biggest second primary total in history. The runoff was necessary because in some state offices, no candidate polled a clear majority July 1.

Edmondson must face Republican Phil Ferguson, once a Democratic congressman from Oklahoma, and Independent D. A. (Jelly) Bryce, an ex-FBI agent, in the general election.

Nigh's opponents will be Republican George Sherritt and Independent Paul W. Updegraff.

In two congressional runoffs, former Rep. Victor Wickersham held a narrow 233-vote lead over Rep. Toby Morris in the 6th Dist. with one precinct unreported.

In the 1st Dist. Herbert W. Wright Jr. beat William Peterson, 39,755 to 34,287 and won the right to meet Republican Rep. Page Belcher in the general election.

Gov. Raymond Gary under state law could not succeed himself.

2 Weeping Officers Jail Their Sons

ATLANTA (AP)—Two policemen, weeping openly, jailed their own sons for suspicion of burglary yesterday.

A third youth named the officers' sons as accomplices in the alleged burglary and Superintendent of Detectives Glyn Cowan assigned the fathers to bring the boys in.

The arrested youths are R. E. Little III, son of Detective R. E. Little; James D. Corley, son of policeman J. D. Corley; and M. K. Clay. All three are 17.

They are accused of breaking into a school under construction

Innocent Folks Pay for Juvenile's Action

Tragedy struck and struck hard when two young people decided to elope and then refused to stop when ordered to do so by police.

The officers of the law pulled alongside the fleeing car several times and flashed lights on themselves to establish they were officers; but the seventeen year old driver merely answered by forcing the police off the road and speeding forward.

Finally a bullet from behind killed the 15 year old girl. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the parents of the young lady. The whole incident is regrettable, but our sympathies go even further in the case of the officer who fired the shot. He said he was shooting low and the bullet bounced off the pavement.

The evidence indicates he was doing his sworn duty. The 17 year old boy has a juvenile record and was expelled from school earlier in the year. He was the one who refused to stop. Here's where the blame belongs.

Either our agencies are going to enforce the law or we can surrender abjectly in the face of all criminals and law breakers. No one can take the statutes in his own hands and do as he pleases. The laws apply to everyone. They must be heeded by 17 year old juveniles with a past record and recent expulsion from school as well as the rest.

The girl's parents wanted no part of the elopement or marriage. And yet today they are the victims along with their daughter. Everyone regrets the death but the blame belongs on the driver of the death car who should have obeyed orders. He had no right to run red lights, speed and thumb his nose at the law.

The officers were doing their duty. That's what we hire them to do. They must continue.

Needed: United Front Against an Old Foe

How's your weed crop? Booming, we'll bet. Any number of things can slow up your garden vegetables and flowers, but weeds... they thrive in any year.

This is the time of the year when owners of vacant property within the city must look to its care. Weeds must be cut. If you, as property owner, do not do this or have it done, the city will do it for you, and send you the bill. There are four good reasons why this must be done:

Traffic safety: Weeds and tall grass near street intersections sometimes block the view of the drivers; children at play are not very tall.

Health: If you suffer with hay fever, every weed is a potential enemy. Pollen travels far with the greatest of ease. Only a weed-free city can keep a relatively low pollen count.

Economic: Farmers and city gardeners want to keep their premises free of noxious weeds. Seeds blown in from other property are not welcome.

Personal safety: Officials started a wide campaign to keep vacant property cut several years ago after a woman was slain in the northern part of the city. The crime was committed with the protection offered by tall grass. A well-mowed field offers no place for a potential-attacker to hide.

The city, through its department of parks and recreation, is now inspecting all vacant property for weed-control, according to DAVID R. EWALT, department head. Owners whose weeds are uncut will be notified of the ordinance requiring them to be cut.

If they remain uncut 10 days later the city will do the job and bill the owner. Cost for a 50 to 150 foot lot usually comes to about $5.

Most property owners are happy to have the work done on their own, just to be good neighbors. As an aid to citizens the Pontiac Department of Parks and Recreation, reached through the City Hall switchboard, is prepared to furnish lists of men who are equipped to take on such work.

If you own vacant property better look at it now.

If the weeds are high... act now. Weeds never back down. They get higher, and fast!

The Man About Town

A Lot on a Little

Intensive Gardening Gets Results in Very Big Way

Good old days: When you kissed her all you tasted was girl.

An outstanding example of what can be produced on a small plot of land is that of Raymond Turner of 1144 Cloverlawn St. On a garden spot only 30x50 feet in size (which is less than one twenty-fifth of an acre) he raises more than is now grown on some of our 80-acre farms.

On this little patch of well drained sandy loam, with no fertilization or watering, he has radishes, beets, turnips, tomatoes, beans, corn, cucumbers, cabbage, eggplant, potatoes, lettuce and other vegetables, all of above-normal size and quality, and in quantities that would supply several families.

He says that correct grouping and proper rotation are big elements in successful gardening. As to the weeds, Mr. Turner asserts that the best way to cope with them is not to let them get started.

Now President of the Portland Cement Association, a nationwide organization, G. Donald Kennedy, formerly of Pontiac, breaks into full page ads in the current issues of several of the big magazines in a story about the importance of cement in road building.

Farmington Township Supervisor and candidate for Sheriff,

Frank J. Stephenson, took the floor at this week's meeting of the Board of Supervisors to congratulate the Road Commission on removing political signs from our highways. "All of mine are down," he said.

A Pontiac young man, Tom Duross, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis P. Duross of 56 Marquette St., is now a reporter on the Springfield, Ohio, Daily News. He is writing a series of articles for that paper, boosting for a civic center, using Pontiac's as an example, carrying illustrations of what has been done in his home town. The two cities are approximately the same size.

Living up Lapper way, my old friend, Rodney Parkinson, sends word that for several years he has planted an extra large garden "to supply nibbling for the deer."

Just over the line in another county, some Hadley Township residents do not like its zoning ordinance, and Rachael Broecker, Acting Postmaster, is circulating petitions for another vote on it.

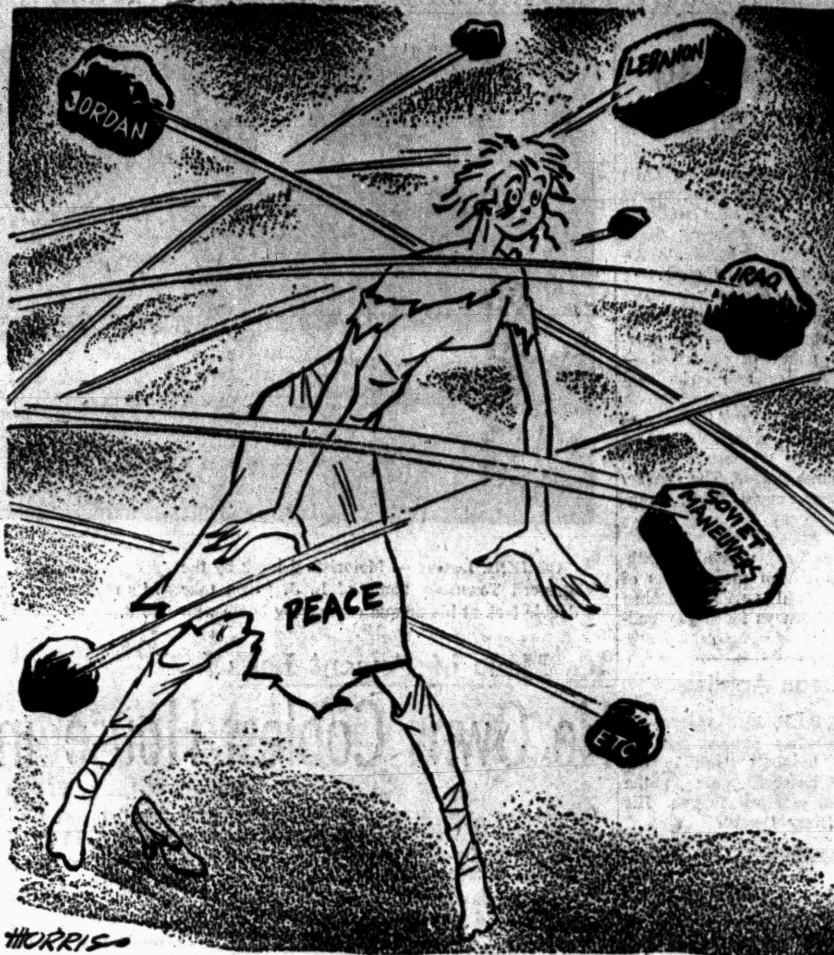

My Armada scout sends word that Mrs. Edna Tibbitts of that village has spent five years in tatting a bedspread. It is 80x100 inches in size and contains over 3,000 medallions.

Maybe It Isn't War, But—

David Lawrence Says:

We're Losing in Propaganda War

WASHINGTON — Political partisanship inside the free countries and insidious propaganda which fools the gullible are the two most dangerous factors that could drag the world into a big war. They could lead some day to a miscalculation by the Communists, who might be tempted to assume that allied unity is not what it appears to be on the surface and that peace-at-any-price and surrender are really preferred by the West to a defense by arms.

No more vivid example of the perils of political partisanship could be cited than is to be found in hearing or reading the texts of the broadcasts being transmitted 24 hours a day by the Communists not only in the Middle East but throughout the world.

They quote regularly from American, British, Canadian and French political personalities, as well as from newspapers in those same countries which appear to be giving moral support to the Soviet position in the present crisis.

Thus, the letter from Khrushchev proposing a "summit" conference was immediately seized upon by the Communists as a great stroke and called a "propaganda" victory before the respective governments of the United States, Britain and France could formulate their replies.

Members of the political opposition in the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate are quoted as having lost faith in the policies of their own government and as having demanded now a complete reconsideration of past steps. The implication given is that the Communists' strategy, which seeks to take advantage of any dissension in the United States, is actually working.

Free countries naturally sanction the most unrestrained kind of debate on public questions, but the price of it sometimes comes high.

Is it too much to ask of the political opposition that it wait a few days and not come out in the middle of delicate negotiations with speeches and statements depreciating what one's own government is striving to do?

Also, is it necessary for the "Voice of America" to broadcast the dissident comments of some American newspapers that are critical of our own government? Wouldn't it be just as well to describe briefly in a paragraph the nature of the opposition's comment, without giving elaborate quotations therefrom? Don't the Communist radio stations do their own job of presenting "the other side" when it suits their interests?

Perhaps the strongest denunciation of the harpooning tactics of members of the political opposition in free countries came on Monday of this week in an editorial in the New York Times which deserves to be quoted abroad and to be read carefully inside our own Congress, because of an analogous circumstances here:

"There is something baffling about the vehemence with which some of the 'neutralists' have responded to the action of Britain and the United States in the Middle East. The old cry of 'imperialism' is again being raised and there is a new 'colonialist' whipping boy, the United States. . . .

"If it is necessary carefully to analyze some of the motives and feelings that prompt certain Asian and African states to disregard facts in favor of prejudices, it is even more difficult to account for the 'neutralism' of those that do not have a 'colonial' past.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Theory of Iodin Causing Pimples Is Unfounded

"When I asked our family physician whether our eleven-year-old daughter should take the iodine tablets the health department supplies for school children, he said no because it is likely to produce acne (oily skin, blackheads and pimples.) As I had acne before she was born, I am afraid there may be a heritable predisposition. The doctor said that in his opinion the incidence of goitre in this area isn't sufficient to warrant universal iodine prophylaxis. On this, Mrs. —"

In the first place, Ma'am, the opinion of a real doctor in practice in the area is better than that of any doctor a hundred or a thousand miles away. From all I have been able to learn about it if the incidence or prevalence of goitre is not now so prevalent in the area.

So in your place, Ma'am, I'd do as my doctor says.

I must say that this Milwaukee family physician may have better ground for his opinion that iodine deficiency is not now so prevalent in the area.

In the thirty-odd years since the medical, health and nutrition authorities concluded that everybody in the Great Lakes basin needed a regular ration of iodine in one form or another as a supplement to everyday diet to maintain vite, it is probably that better transportation, refrigeration and higher standard of living have increased consumption of iodine-bearing foods from areas where the soil and water contain sufficient iodine or iodide. Also that increasing use of seaweed guano and fishmeal fertilizers have returned considerable iodine to the soil and drinking water.

The doctor's belief that a suitable iodine ration is likely to produce acne is shared, I find by a good many others.

It reminds me of a medical colleague who told me, when iodized salt first appeared in the market that he had tried it, but didn't like it. I asked why and he said the taste of the potassium iodide in the salt was unpleasant. There's one part of potassium iodide in ten thousand parts of salt in iodized salt. I don't believe anyone can distinguish plain salt from iodized salt by taste.

And I don't believe anyone can tell whether oily skin (seborrhea) blackheads and pimples (acne) which affects most teenagers more or less in any way associated with iodine.

Even in areas where soil and water still contain some iodine or iodide it is advisable, particularly for adults to take a suitable daily ration of iodine—as I explain in my FREE pamphlet "The Iodin Ration." For a copy send me a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Please remember that the iodine I recommend for everybody is nutritional, not medicinal, and long study and experience convinces me that if it does no good at least it can do no harm. If I did not believe so, I'd never recommend it here.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan. (Copyright 1958)

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Advice Columnist Is Very Wrong

Lois gives us a "progress report" on her marriage problem. Instead of going ahead with the divorce so glibly recommended by that nitwit "Advice Columnist," she agreed to the plan we Marriage Counselors recommend. See for yourself what happened! Then visualize the greater happiness of the two children who now have devoted parents.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE Y - 369: Lois M., aged 32, is the disturbed wife who was told to get a divorce because her husband had a caustic tongue and even berated her parents as well as herself.

Yesterday I recounted my interview with Lois and her husband. And I gave you his side of the story. He said his wife rebuffed him with an "I'm too tired" when he wanted to pet and caress her.

This burned him up. So he would then criticize her in such bitter words that she had finally consulted a female "Advice Columnist." The latter told her:

"If you have the brains of a 6th grader, you'll divorce your husband at once!" But that was stupid counsel. It shows the need for more medical and psychological training on the part of columnists who arbitrate crucial domestic problems.

For Jim and Lois had two children. And they really loved each other, despite Jim's occasional caustic explosions.

State Representative Asks Changes to Shorten Ballot

Unless some groups take some interest in the problem, a State Constitution Convention may not be voted into being at the coming November election. One very important reason for revising Michigan's Constitution is that it would allow us to shorten our ballots. This could be aided by doing the following:

1. Allow the Governor to appoint the Attorney-General as is done at the Federal level.
2. Take the Auditor-General off the ballot. Allow the Legislature to appoint him and give him a trained staff capable of making performance audits of the various State Departments. Cash audits can locate dishonesty, but performance audits can go further and stress efficiency. This action was strongly urged by Michigan's Little Hoover Commission.
3. Take the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Highway Commissioner off the ballot.
4. Abolish the spring election and place the remaining positions on the November ballot.
5. Elect the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and remaining members of the State Administrative Board for four year terms at the off-presidential year election.

In making these and other changes, one guiding rule must be kept in mind. If a job doesn't carry with it duties of a political nature, it should not be elective. This aids in shortening the ballot, which, in turn, aids the responsible voter. A bed sheet ballot changes an election into a name-picking contest.

Prisoner Praises County Sheriff

I'm serving one year in the Oakland County Jail and have served six months of it. I've been here longer than any prisoner and it makes me burn to read of a prisoner who says the reason he pleaded guilty in Circuit Court was that he was starved into doing it. He certainly misuses the truth.

I've served time under four sheriffs in Oakland County, and I can without a doubt say that Oakland County should be proud indeed to have such a man as Frank Irons directing law enforcement in this county.

No Gas Worries Caused by Middle East Explosion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's 75 million motorists need not worry about possible gasoline rationing as a result of the Middle East explosion.

Even if war with Russia broke out we would be in far better shape for oil supplies than in World War II when careful rationing had to be invoked.

Responsible government officials gave those assurances Tuesday.

They said in event all the Mid-east's oil — 27 per cent of the world's supply — were cut off the United States would have more than enough gasoline, fuel oil and other vital by-products to fill both domestic and Western European needs.

In addition vast supplies would be available from Venezuela, the Dutch Caribbean refineries and Mexico.

In case of war with Russia the eastern seaboard would be first to suffer shortages. It is almost entirely dependent on ocean-going tankers to keep its pipelines filled. Tankers are vulnerable to submarines as aptly demonstrated by U-boats in World War II. But the government has an ace in the hole.

It could pre-empt from present owners the big and little inch pipelines running parallel from Texas to Pennsylvania to help keep the eastern seaboard supplied. These lines have a combined daily capacity of 435,000 barrels of crude oil.

They were built during World War II to ease the eastern supply crisis. The government sold them under a "stand-by" clause allowing it to reclaim them in an emergency. The little inch is now carrying petroleum products. The big inch is carrying natural gas but could be converted to oil swiftly.

The rationing lesson learned in World War II also has paid dividends in other areas. The Midwest, for example, is now fed by pipelines from Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Wyoming. None of these existed in the early 1940s.

The West Coast has its own supplies and has nothing to worry about.

There is more than enough refinery capacity from coast to coast and from Canada to Mexico to meet all emergency gasoline needs. In addition domestic oil production, cut back sharply by inroads of foreign imports, could be stepped up quickly. This was illustrated by the 1956-57 Suez Canal crisis which forced Western Europe to get 90 per cent of its supplies from the United States.

logists; plus Physicians and other Educators hold the major influence as regards the future of civilization.

I don't wish to minimize the wonderful discoveries of chemistry and physics, but the latter can lead us to destruction all the more swiftly unless we learn to solve our feuds, beginning in our own homes and neighborhoods.

Many factors cause divorce, including lack of religious faith, failure to budget the husband's pay check, etc.

But sexual maladjustment is the major cause of divorce in luxurious America.

So please see that prospective brides are given more than a cook book and a parental blessing when they enter matrimony.

For sins of omissions make the supposedly innocent wives at least 50 per cent guilty for causing their own divorces.

See Ike's OK on Trade Bill

Senate Chiefs Expect Approval of President on Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders predicted today that the reciprocal trade extension bill will emerge from conference with the House in a form satisfactory to President Eisenhower.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), who will head the Senate conferees, told a reporter, "I am sure we will work out a bill that will be fully acceptable to the President."

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said the conferees might come up with the full five-year extension asked by the President. If not, he said they surely will agree on four.

The Senate last night passed a three-year extension measure 72-16 after five days of debate. The body rolled up a smashing 63-27 bipartisan vote to give Eisenhower a major victory in his fight to retain his power to override Tariff Commission recommendations for quotas and higher tariffs.

But the leaders on both sides who cooperated to achieve this did not call for any other floor tests on provisions put into the bill by the Senate Finance Committee over administration opposition.

They preferred instead to iron these out in conference. The House passed the measure 317-98 last month in a form which met all Eisenhower's specifications.

Vote to Decide Labor Control

House Approval Would Require Job Benefits Accounts Made Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Labor Committee votes formally today on a bill to require public accounting of employee welfare and pension benefit plans.

It gave tentative approval yesterday after adopting amendments providing criminal penalties for violators. Rep. Ludwig Teller (D-NY), one of the measure's chief sponsors, said the amendments "toughened up the bill considerably."

Some members, however, were dissatisfied with a provision to include plans run entirely by employers. An amendment to take such plans out failed by a reported 15-10 vote.

The measure would require administrators of employee welfare or pension benefit plans to make available to each beneficiary or participant a description of the plan and an annual financial report.

Failure to furnish them when requested would mean a fine of $50 a day for each day of not doing so.

A copy of all reports would be filed with the secretary of labor. They would have to be sworn to, making them subject to perjury laws. Willful failure to file with the secretary of labor would carry a criminal penalty of $1,000 fine or six months in jail.

Tries to Blame Husband

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — Mrs. Mardell C. McDaniels, 41, won no sympathy from the judge yesterday when she said her husband, not herself, should be in court on a charge of possession of illegal liquor "since he is the head of the house."

She was fined $100.

PILES?

Now, men and women sufferers from piles and hemorrhoids are discovering a wonderful new way to enjoy safe, deep, comforting relief. They simply swallow amazing PILE-AIDS tablets.

SAFE HERBS & ROOTS

No surgeon's knife. No unpleasant suppositories nor messy salves. No injections. Amazing PILE-AIDS, largely an imported herbal compound, speeds its work internally where many doctors believe most pile troubles start. To date, few physicians have had the opportunity to evaluate PILE-AIDS in this country, but many doctors who have tested the formula now recommend it. PILE-AIDS soothes and gives palliative relief even in harsh, stubborn conditions of from ten to twenty years duration that have resisted other local treatments. Relieve pile symptoms with an oral tablet? Does this sound too good to be true? Here's our no-risk offer. Buy inexpensive NUTRITION SQUARE'S PILE-AIDS Tablets at any good health food store. Take as directed and you'll be the judge. Money back if you are not satisfied. Call in person or order by mail.

His Luck Runs Out After Truck Accident

SHELBY, N. C. (AP)—Truck driver John Suddeth of Greenville, S. C., walked away unscathed when his big trailer rig blew a tire and flipped over, dumping 500 bushels of peaches here.

Tuesday, he went back to the wreck for his spare clothing, slipped on a wet bank and smashed into the side of the truck. Head injuries and a possible broken leg, said the doctor.

The federal government owns 472 million acres in the continental U. S., which amounts to almost one-fourth the acreage of all the states.

Baffles Matchmakers

CHICAGO (UPI) — The reputation of Lincoln Park Zoo officials as matchmakers took a beating yesterday. Zookeepers introduced a 350-pound boy gorilla named Simba to a lady gorilla named Lotus, who bit the suitor a half-dozen times and had to be quieted with a tranquilizer.

Fires caused losses in the U. S. during 1957 of more than $1 billion, perhaps the highest on record.

Dictator's Followers Still Idolize His Wife

They Demand Return of Eva Peron's Body

(On July 26 it will be six years since Eva Peron died, but she is still worshipped by hundreds of thousands of Argentines. Now, with Peron supporters growing more bold, they are clamoring for the return of her body, stolen in 1955 by revolutionaries.)

By BRIAN BELL

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Gunfire cracked in the streets of Buenos Aires late in September 1955 when a group of men opened a musty room in the headquarters of the Argentine General Labor Federation.

They were part of the revolution which had just overthrown President Juan Peron after 10 years of dictatorship.

BODY PRESERVED

In the room, between two unlit candles, lay the perfectly preserved body of Eva Peron, still beautiful three years after death.

The revolutionaries carried the casket from the building. Where they took it is not known. Some say they buried it on Martin Garcia Island, a naval base in the River Plate. Others say her remains were cremated and the ashes flung in the river.

Now, as the supporters of Peron grow bolder following the election of Peronist-backed President Arturo Frondizi, cries are heard in the streets:

"Where is Eva Peron's body?" "Return Eva to us." "Give back the body of the beloved senora."

WORDS ON WALLS

These words are chalked on walls. Peronist weekly papers appear with Eva's picture. Masses are said for her.

Eva made her last public appearance May 1, 1953, when she attended the opening of the Argentine Congress. For a year she had withered away from cancer. She died on July 26.

Famed embalmer Dr. Jose Ara came from Spain to remove the ravages of the disease. Then Eva Peron lay in state in the Labor Ministry for two weeks as hundreds of thousands lined up to see the body of the heroine of the workers.

After this two-week period, Dr. Ara worked again to complete his restoration of the remains to like-like condition. When he finished, the body was taken to the headquarters of the General Labor Federation and locked in the secret room.

Eva's body was to remain here until a fitting tomb could be built. Hundreds of millions of pesos were collected from labor members and, more reluctantly, businessmen to build a tremendous monument and tomb.

The memorial, as conceived by Peron, was to have been a very tall temple with 30-foot statues of workers, women and children around it. The tower was to be topped by a gigantic statue of Peron—not Eva.

SCULPTOR HIRED Italian sculptor Leone Tommasi was commissioned to carve the statues. A site was chosen near the presidential house and the ground was broken.

Then came the revolution.

Peron's house was ripped down. Concrete was poured into the monument excavation. Today it is a quiet pond in a park where small boys come to sail tiny boats.

And sculptor Tommasi is still trying to collect for his statues.

Eva Duarte was a radio actress of questionable ability and dubious reputation when she met Peron in 1944. Peron, an army colonel and secretary of labor, was handling relief measures for the city of San Juan which had been practically destroyed by an earthquake.

FELL IN LOVE

The two met and fell in love. Cynics said Eva recognized the potential future of an alliance with the dynamic Peron.

As her relationship with Peron improved so did her radio parts. More and more Eva Duarte got the best roles, usually heroic ones like Juan of Arco or "Argentine Liberty." Peron also was rising in his line of work. By early 1945, he held at the same time the powerful positions of vice president, minister of war and minister of labor.

On Oct. 10, a military coalition, fearful of the power Peron held with his three important jobs, staged a coup. The administration was overthrown and Peron was carted off to prison.

EVA BUSY

While the leaders of the coup argued over who was to be boss, Eva was busy. She organized a mammoth demonstration by workers for their popular labor minister. On Oct. 17, 100,000 persons jammed Buenos Aires' Plaza de Mayo and its arteries. The display practically paralyzed the country. The revolt was crushed and Peron returned more powerful than ever.

Soon after, Peron and Eva Duarte were married. And in February 1946 Peron, still riding the crest of the October labor demonstration, was elected president.

One of his first acts, it is said, was to order removed from circulation several movies in which Eva had performed not too adeptly in bit parts.

As Peron virtually sacked the wealth of this rich country, Eva gave back a small part with great publicity to the poor. Collections were levied on businessmen to support Eva's charities. Gradually she became more than a president's wife. She became a saint to thousands of Argentina's poorest people.

After she died, her hundreds of thousands of mourners defied her. Shriners were put up around the country. Women brought flowers. Workers stopped to pray there.

Frondizi was elected last spring after 2 1/2 years of firm provisional government which banned all lauding of Eva or Peron. The new president has promised an era of friendship for all. Eva's mother and two sisters have returned from Exile in Chile. High ranking Peronistas have come back. Leaders of the movement are emerging from the underground.

And the Peronistas want almost more than anything else the return of their beloved Eva's body.

Only 15 Beauties Left in Contest for Miss U.S.A.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Fifteen beauties — almost half of them Southerners — carry United States' hopes forward today toward the finals of the Miss Universe contest.

The U.S. contingent was cut one third last night when the judges took their first look at the entries in this year's beauty pageant.

The girls from Dixie took seven semifinalist spots, with the judges nod going to representatives of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas.

The others picked were from California, Montana, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, Illinois, Nebraska and New York.

Tonight the 15 will be narrowed to five and the five to one—Miss U.S.A.

Look for Portly Bandit

IRVINGTON, N.J. (AP)—Police are looking for a portly bandit who stole 20 pairs of pants from Harris Sherman's tailor shop. The pants were in sizes 48 to 50.

Clayton Powell to Stand Trial

Federal Judge Rules
Income Tax Evasion
Charge Valid

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal judge has ruled that Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-NY) must stand trial for alleged income tax evasion.

Judge William B. Herlands ruled yesterday that the indictment charging Powell is valid.

The Negro congressman had sought to have the indictment thrown out. He claimed the grand jury voted it as the result of alleged improper actions by former Asst. U. S. Atty. Thomas A. Bolan and a magazine editor.

Bolan presented much of the original evidence to the grand jury. He resigned during a 14-month period in which the jury did not act on the case.

Powell asserted that Bolan supplied the editor, William F. Buckley Jr. of the National Review, with inflammatory information on which the magazine based articles on the case.

Copies of the articles were mailed to jurors. Subsequently, the jury voted the indictment.

Powell is charged with preparing a false 1951 income tax return for his wife, pianist Hazel Scott, a Negro, and with evading approximately $3,000 in a joint return for 1952. No charge was made against the wife.

2 Tots Suffocate in Clothes Closet

DALLAS (AP) — Two children suffocated in a clothes closet yesterday. Two others, who were also trapped when the door handle fell off, were rescued unconscious.

The four children, arms and legs entwined, were found by the mother, Mrs. Cardie McDade, when she returned home from work.

Debra Joyce Moore, 3, and Tommy Allen Carr, 4, Mrs. McDade's children by previous marriages, were dead. Carolyn Moore, 2, and Cloyce Moore, 6, were unconscious. Cloyce had a temperature of 108 and was packed in ice at a hospital.

Death Claims Girl Before Big Event

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nine-year-old Palma LaGrotteria talked often about how she was going to be a flower girl in the September wedding of a family friend.

And she was all excited about her gown for the wedding, a replica of the bride-to-be's white gown, overlaid with pink tulle. Why, she even helped her mother pick it out.

Palma will wear the gown, but not at the wedding. She'll be buried in it Friday.

She died yesterday of leukemia, a form of cancer affecting the blood.

Romeo Making Final Plans for Peach Queen Contest

ROMEO—Final plans now are being made for the Romeo Peach Queen contest to be held at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 1, in the Romeo High School auditorium.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. George West. She and her committee are busy this week contacting beauty contest winners in 11 area communities, including Romeo, briefing them on contest rules and procedure.

Winner of the coveted Peach Queen title will reign over the 26th annual Romeo Peach Festival, Aug. 30 through Sept. 1. She will be crowned by Governor Williams in an impressive evening ceremony, Aug. 31, in the Memorial Stadium here.

Names of the candidates will be kept secret until the queen and her two maids of honor are announced at the close of the contest. A panel of out-of-town judges will make the selections.

During the competition, the girls will carry cards bearing the names of peaches and their identification. Acting as master of ceremonies will be Romeo village attorney J. Gerald McLean. He will interview each of the girls individually as the audience watches the proceedings.

Immediately following the contest, the queen and her two attendants will begin making public appearances on radio, television and at special events in the metropolitan area.

Traditionally, they attend a baseball game at Briggs Stadium, ride in the pace car at Motor City Speedway and are guests of honor at the Hazel Park Race Track.

Six-Day Event Starts Monday

Imlay City Fair to Open

IMLAY CITY — Harness racing will be featured at the 60th annual Eastern Michigan Fair opening here Monday.

New grandstands seating 3,000 persons have been installed at the track, according to fair manager Kenneth Ruby of Imlay City. The Michigan Futurity, with purses that may total $25,000, will be run Wednesday and Thursday evenings, he said.

The six-day fair will open Monday at 6 p.m. with free admission that night only.

Highlighting events each day following are:

Monday: thrill drivers show.

Tuesday: 4-H show, county firemen's tug-of-war, professional wrestling.

Wednesday: dairy show, horse-pulling contests and stage show.

Thursday: Livestock parade and another horse-pulling contest and stage show.

Friday: Future Farmers of America show, auto and farm machinery parade, tractor hauling contest and pony races.

Saturday: honoring of golden wedding couples on stage. They will be given gifts by Imlay City merchants.

All exhibits will be set up by Monday, Ruby said.

Bible School Slated at West Bloomfield

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Daily Vacation Bible School will begin Monday and continue through Friday at West Bloomfield Baptist Church, 4900 Orchard Lake Rd. at Green Road. Meeting from 2 to 4:30 each afternoon, the school will be headed by the Rev. Hubert Karl of the Rural Bible Mission, Inc., who has also led the church's vacation schools in previous years.

School children, including those entering kindergarten this coming fall, are eligible to attend. Transportation will be available.

"Moses and Christ" will be the theme of the school, with magic, stories, handwork, contests, prizes and singing a part of each day's program.

The closing program for parents and friends will be held Friday evening at 7:30. The climax to the Vacation Bible school comes with a combined Bible and Sunday School picnic at Cass-Benton park on Saturday, Aug. 2, under the supervision of Frank Dering, chairman of the Board of Christian Education.

John Oles Takes Mary M. Foster as His Bride

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Our Lady of the Lakes Church was the scene of the noon wedding Saturday of Mary Margaret Foster and John Joseph Oles.

The Rev. F. J. Delaney said the Nuptial Mass and gave the Papal Blessing before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and ferns. John Foster Jr., brother of the bride, and Daniel Oles, brother of the bridegroom, served as altar boys.

The new Mrs. Oles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Foster of Williams Lake. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Oles of Detroit.

A gown fashioned in white Italian silk and a crown of pearls holding a shoulder length illusion veil was worn by the bride who carried a cascade of ivy and stephanotis on a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Rose Sharon Wirth of Owosso, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids were Frances Kern of Detroit and Cynthia Palmer of Waterford Township.

James Oles of Detroit, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and Robert Bogg of Farmington, William Simmons and Michael Drew, both of Detroit were ushers.

The reception was held at the Rotunda Inn, Bloomfield Township. The couple will reside in Detroit while the bridegroom continues his law course.

The Capitol dome is painted every four years and needs 1,000 gallons of paint.

Claims 'You All' Really Biblical Expression

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Suppose David had walked up to Goliath and informed the giant: "I'm going to stone you all."

It would have been good Biblical language, said P. J. Zondervan, Grand Rapids, Mich., president of Gideons International.

Zondervan said "you all" isn't just a colorful Southern expression — it's found in many parts of the Bible. He added the expression became common in the South because that area is the Bible Belt.

Imagine Running Into You Here! Officials Moan

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Lawrence Sisson walked out of his office in the Labor Bureau yesterday. He got into a state-owned black sedan and drove away.

Then Leslie Lynch walked out of his office in the Labor Bureau and got into a state-owned black sedan. He drove away.

The cars collided at an intersection on the other side of town.

Unions Seeking Merger Plan

Wayne County, AFL, CIO Schedule 'Unity Convention' in October

DETROIT (AP)—First major progress in the two-year effort to merge the AFL and CIO in Wayne County was reported today.

A "unity convention" is in the offing for October and a formal merger plan may ensue.

Expulsion from the AFL-CIO of James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union removed one stumbling block to the Wayne County merger of unions representing half a million workers.

Actually, the merger is long past the deadline first set by the AFL-CIO top leadership. The top brass of the national group stepped into the Detroit picture when original efforts failed.

Merger progress was reported as a result of a meeting earlier this week of a joint committee of the Wayne County CIO and the Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor.

A subcommittee now is attempting to solve problems of per capita taxes and representation privileges in the final merger.

The Teamsters Union is conspicuous by its absence from the subcommittee personnel. The group includes officials of the AFL Federation and CIO Council as well as representatives of individual AFL and CIO locals.

Oakland Officials Invited to Meeting

A group of Oakland County officials are invited to attend a dinner meeting next Tuesday at the Westwood Inn in Dearborn to be given by the Michigan Townships Assn. for the purpose of discussing problems of government from the "grass roots" level.

In addition to the Oakland officials, many others from Michigan's 14th, 16th and 17th Congressional districts will attend the 6:30 p.m. meeting.

Invited from Oakland County are Congressman William S. Broomfield, Sen. L. Harvey Lodge, Reps. Lloyd L. Anderson, Donald A. Brown, Leslie H. Hudson, Theodore F. Hughes, Walter T. McMahon, and Earrell E. Roberts, and Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, Charles A. Sparks, treasurer, Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor, and Frank W. Irons, sheriff.

Legion Delegation to Attend Convention

The Chief Pontiac Post No. 377, American Legion, is preparing a six-man delegation to attend the 40th Annual State Convention Thursday through the weekend, in Detroit.

Leading the local delegates will be Marshall Charter, recently re-elected to his second straight term as commander.

Others making up the local delegation will be Arnold Aarni, Emil Deaton, Henry Smith, and Howard Bliss.

Wilbur M. Brucker, secretary of the army and a former governor of Michigan, will address the convention delegates on Saturday morning.

2 Waive Examination on Stolen Car Charge

Two youths accused of driving to northern Michigan and back twice in stolen cars and running one car into Terry Lake waived examination in Pontiac Municipal Court today and were bound to circuit court for auto theft.

Dumitru G. Vess, 17, of 90 Blaine St. and Erwin Mullin, 18, of 195 Howard St., will be arraigned Monday.

Peach Festival Officials Picked

They'll Serve in Various Capacities Both Before and During 3-Day Fete

ROMEO — Peach Festival chairman, Edward Battani, last night completed the appointments of chairmen to serve in various capacities leading up to and including the three-day celebration over Labor Day weekend.

Mrs. W. A. Parks will act as the Peach Queen's chaperone. Her job will start with the selection of the queen Aug. 1 at Romeo High School.

Heading the queen's committee is Mrs. C. L. Davidson.

Mrs. Ralph J. Toles has accepted chairmanship of the coronation committee, and the co-chairmen in charge of the Children's Parade, opening event of the holiday program, are Mrs. Marvin Miller and Charles Komraus.

Other committees have been functioning for several months, preparing for the queen's contest and scheduling current appearances of the Peach Festival publicity float.

The float has been awarded one first and two second prizes this month in area parades.

It will appear again Sunday in the Disco Homecoming Parade.

Nurserymen can fool chrysanthemums into holding their golden blossoms from blooming until a special football weekend by shining artificial light on them a few minutes each night.

Dryden Group Picks 5 to Head Membership

DRYDEN — Harry Youngs, Bill Thorman Jr., Gerald Dockham, Louis Pickermann and Carl Stener have been named to the Dryden Area Development Assn. membership committee.

The association, which has as its slogan, "Dryden for a Greater Tomorrow," has changed its monthly meeting date to the first Thursday of each month. This was done so the meetings will not conflict with those of the Farm Bureau.

Thirty-five members attending the last meeting Thursday night at the Methodist Church were treated to a turkey dinner served by the ladies of the Joy Circle of the church.

County Calendar

Troy — The Colerain School Alumni Reunion will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the school, located at John S. and 12-Mile roads in Troy. There will be a potluck picnic luncheon and those attending should bring their own table service. All former pupils of the school and teachers have been invited.

Albion — The Afternoon Fellowship group of the Albion Congregational Church will hold a picnic at 1 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. G. C. Bishop. In the event of rain the gathering will take place in the church.

Metamora — Thomas Eastern Sears and Masons, who meet at the Oakwood Hall, will picnic Aug. 3 at Stony Lake. A cooperative dinner will be served at noon.

New Hudson — The Eva Beecraft Circle of the New Hudson Methodist Church will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Stan Feltz.

Seymour Lake — The WSCB of the Seymour Lake Methodist Church will hold an ice cream social in the basement of the church Thursday evening. Serving will begin at 7.

WANDA MAY McDONALD

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. McDonald of Jardine court, Davisburg, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Wanda May, to James R. Allard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Allard of South Holcomb street, Clarkston. An Aug. 23 wedding is being planned.

As an effort for repopulating Paraguay in South America has encouraged immigration in recent years. It now has many Japanese and Italian families as new settlers.

Only One Thing Wrong, His Wife Couldn't Swim

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. June Konvalis testified her husband awakened her in the middle of the night, grabbed her and jumped into a swimming pool with her.

The act was cruel, Mrs. Konvalis said, because she didn't know how to swim.

Judge Murie C. Shreck granted her a divorce from William Konvalis.

'Bait Bargains' Aren't for Sale!Sucker Schemes Offer a Lot for Little

(This is one in a series of articles prepared by the Michigan Retailers Association in an effort to better educate the buying public of Michigan in improving their buying habits. The Pontiac Press is cooperating with MRA by bringing this series to you.)

Do you like being a sucker? If you do, don't bother to read this. Perhaps you as a fisherman use worms to catch fish. Other kinds of "fishermen" bait an advertising hook with deception and insincerity to snag your dollars, cheating you, and creating a suspicious feeling towards most advertisers who are trying to tell you about fair buys for your money.

These bait advertisers are clever people. They have ingenuity unlimited, always dreaming up new tricks as soon as the old ones are exposed. They fool you so completely that you don't have even the slightest notion that you may see an item advertised that appears to be a tremendous bargain. Naturally, you rush to the store, or call the salesman for a "free home demonstration."

You will soon discover that the product advertised in the paper isn't what he really wants to sell you. He will probably brush off the advertised item as being of inferior quality, and then go into great detail to tell you about a product that will cost you a lot more money.

This bait advertiser usually doesn't have, or wouldn't sell you if he did have, the product featured in his ad, whether it be a kitchen range, a new car, a TV set, jewelry, a washer and dryer, or even goldfish. When you ask for his advertised item, he is either "all sold out," or "the new shipment hasn't arrived." He may also either knock the product that he advertised, or claim that the price as quoted was a mistake.

LOOK FOR TRICKS

Watch for these come-on schemes: (a) food club plans claiming to pay for a freezer out of food savings; (b) referral or bonus plans, offering a "free" incinerator, or washer in return for a list of your friends as prospects; (c) phony contests with credit checks or other discount gimmicks as prizes. Without exception, these something-for-nothing appeals have proved to be a delusion and a snare, hoodwinking the victims into months of debt, price-padded products, or slipshod workmanship.

Most advertisers are making honest efforts to sell you their products and to get you into their place of business. However, the rotten few can really hook you where it hurts — in your pocketbook, and you are the only one who can effectively stop these frauds. Just follow these few simple suggestions.

1. Don't be taken in by the old something for nothing or free appeal, the stores you know and trust will seldom use such terms as "amazing" or "fantastic" bargains. They don't have to.

2. Ask your friends and people in your community about the business reputation of a store in which you may be planning to buy. Be sure that the merchant is established and reliable.

3. Before you buy an item, shop around for it at several different places and compare prices and service.

4. Don't buy any products sight unseen. Ballyhooed bargains are nailed to the floor. Advertised merchandise is knocked in an effort to switch to something higher priced.

5. Never sign any papers binding you until you have read them over carefully and are sure of the contents.

6. In the case of appliances, be sure that you are buying from an authorized dealer, qualified to install and service and furnish a manufacturers warranty.

If you follow these simple suggestions before you buy, you probably won't be hooked by this kind of "fisherman."

Police Inspector Passes Bank at Right Moment

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police Inspector Mike Dower was in front of the Bank of America day and night branch when his radio blared: "Bank robbery at Bank of America day and night branch."

Just then a man ran out, pursued by two bank employees. Within two blocks the employees caught Fred Ortiz, 28, who had a paper bag containing $6,240.

Dower followed in his patrol car and hustled Ortiz to jail. The prisoner was charged with suspicion of armed robbery.

New Zealand ranks fourth among the world's wool producing countries.

Kenneth Ishii Writes for Hal Boyle:

Politeness Rates First in Japan's Stores

TOKYO (AP) — Walk into any big Japanese department store and you'll hear the same refrain in Japanese, of course — with almost monotonous repetition: "Thank you for so frequently honoring our store with your presence."

The translation may be somewhat literal, but it is symptomatic of a politeness campaign that makes the Western rule of the customer always being right elementary by comparison.

At one of Japan's best-known stores — Mitakoshi — customer service extends beyond working hours.

The management has informed its staff: "If, while riding public transportation, you see a person carrying a wrapped package bearing the marking of the store, give that person your seat, or offer to carry the package that person is carrying."

And if an employee is clumsy enough to have his or her foot stepped on by an unheeding customer, it is the employee who must apologize for being so careless.

Other rules provide that:

An employee must never walk between a customer and the goods that customer may be looking at.

An employee must never overtake a customer walking through the store. The employee must take another route.

Another major store tells new salesmen and sales girls that a customer never window shops. He is making a preliminary inspection.

In Japan it is entirely permissible, and expected, for customers to roam through stores and examine merchandise for as long as they please — and leave without making a single purchase.

And even the most frustrating customer gets the same refrain: "Thank you for so frequently honoring our store with your presence."

It comes from the elevator operator, the escalator attendant and precedes all announcements on the store's public address system.

Stores take the politeness drive in earnest for they know it affects sales. One personnel manager reportedly told a group of recruits: "We'll have to first make ladies and gentlemen out of you before you are of any use."

Starting salaries for high school graduates is around $22 a month, for college grads about $30.

Third of Workers Ill Building Panama Canal

14 PANAMA — During the building of the Panama Canal by the French in the 1890's, records indicate that at any given time at least one third of all the French laborers and staff workers were hospitalized. The French spent about $200,000,000 and suffered a loss of 50,000 lives in their eight years of effort before they turned over the task of digging the canal to the United States in 1904.

No Sentiment in Teenage Romance Today

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Traditionally, summer romances were lovely, and hopeful, if fragile, things.

You left school and you drove to the seashore with the family.

The boy was there, and he was handsomer than the boy before him.

For three weeks or a month, you two lived an idyllic—long, sad glances over the wienies, promises by juke box, palpitations o'er the hooks and worms, and finally the solongs (never say goodbyes) and the sudden sharp fear that you might never meet again.

Well, you didn't meet again. And it was so miserably tragic. For months, you wrote every day, until you ran across — and over — the next handsomer boy, and sheepishly conceded to yourself, well, that's fate.

How different it is today. Today's summer romancers ask for little: Just a kiss in the dark, a break in the weather and a good melodramatic goodbye (never say solong) with a band in the background playing "your song."

"The Purple People Eater," what else?

"I don't imagine he'll write, of course not, why should he?" exhaled ecstatically a young high school junior just returned from Ft. Lauderdale this week. She was dewy-eyed and peeling. "We agreed we wouldn't write. Why prolong the agony. We'll never meet again.

"It was just a summer romance, but who's kidding. He is the most wonderful guy I ever met, so it figures he'll meet somebody else. Whew. Too bad."

The whole new breed of teenager faces insecurity and the finality of a June romance with a sense of mature realism that sweet, sentimental of grandma didn't acquire till after her kids were grown and she'd gone through two wars.

They belong to no one, not for long. They keep themselves to themselves and, if there are ecstatic romantic memories, they would rather think of them privately, and mentally elaborate on them in the long winter nights. You don't "bare your soul" these days to your friends, because they might laugh.

They might say, "Don't be schmaltzy."

From all that can be surmised here, after surveying the offbeat offspring of New York, it is not a question of cynicism which causes them to defy old and soft traditions.

It is more a case of non-conformity. The kids are loathe to fall into the groove their parents have, in these days of keeping up with the Joneses gray flannel suits.

Barnard College recently questioned its young women graduates and found them to be "a bristling crowd of individualists." They don't like to think of themselves as a special generation, whether "beat" or "upbeat." They think of themselves as just themselves.

Youth always conforms to one another. But this youth refuses to conform to its elders. Thinking, and possibly rightly in some respects, that it can do a whole lot better with a rather rundown world.

As the girl from the Ft. Lauderdale grand summer passion put it, when prodded about her attitude:

"Mother can't understand it. She says she was romantic about one boy after another until she was in her mid-twenties. But I think she secretly admires me for facing the truth about these things. 'Heavens, just because parents are idiots, do we have to be?'"

Jazz Artist Recovering

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jazz trombonist Edward (Kid) Ory, stricken recently with a blood ailment after surgery, was reported well on his way to recovery today. The 71-year-old musician's blood had failed to clot. Transfusions overcame the difficulty.

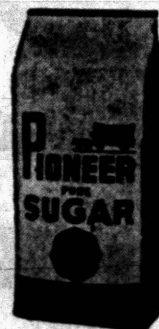

WASHINGTON—About two million women were employed as household servants in the U. S. in 1940. By 1950, just 10 years later, the number fell to 1.5 million.

Pure SugarLIFTS UP YOUR ENERGY—YET
HELPS HOLD DOWN YOUR WEIGHT

Clinical tests show that those calories used up in the body are non-fattening. And that when your body needs energy, the calories from sugar supply it fast—faster than any other food.

Actually, the 18 calories in a level teaspoonful of Michigan Made Pure Sugar are used up in just 7¼ minutes of normal activity. That is why modern, sensible diets call for cutting down on foods without cutting out fast-acting energy-producing foods.

So there is no need to starve yourself for sweets. At your grocers, get Michigan Made brands—Pioneer and Big Chief. Each gives you only 18 calories in a level teaspoonful.

2 Dead, 5 Missing
in Typhoon's Wake

TOKYO (AP) — Typhoon Alice moved out into the Pacific today, leaving 2 dead, 5 missing and 12 injured in central Japan. Property damage included 18 houses destroyed, more than 8,000 flooded and 4 boats sunk.

The typhoon was rapidly dropping to storm proportions.

It brought one benefit—an end to Tokyo's weeks-old water shortage. A total of 10.3 inches of rain fell in the capital during a 13-hour period.

The U. S. 5th Air Force moved 759 American Boy and Girl Scouts at a summer camp near Mt. Fuji to safer housing. The scouts are children of Americans stationed in Japan.

Area Lakes Provide Background for Living

The Robert W. Hodge family has lived in the quiet rural atmosphere of Lake Angelus for 18 years. Mr. and Mrs. Hodge and daughter, Martha, are shown with the family pet, "Benji." The Hodges' son, Walter Drake, is a senior at Harvard University where he is taking summer courses.

Lake Angelus also is home to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rothberg (left). Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Goldman, and granddaughter, Carol, of Detroit, enjoy activities at the lake with the Rothbergs during the summer months.

Judge and Mrs. Clark J. Adams call Silver Lake their home. Judge Adams' mother was born in the nearly century-old home where he and Mrs. Adams have lived for 20 years.

Careless Remarks Hurt

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening while at a gathering at a friend's house, my husband made a derogatory remark about a certain race of people not knowing that one of the women guests present was of this race. I had met this woman once before and knew that she was of this particular race, but my husband did not. I was so embarrassed I could have fallen through the floor.

"I am sure her feelings were terribly hurt, and rightly so. Will you please tell me if there is anything I can, or should do, to make amends?"

Answer: Anything you try to do now that the remark has been made will add to the embarrassment and can do little good. You may, however, point out to your husband the harm that a carelessly made remark can cause, and ask him to please be more careful in the future.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter (who was a widow) has recently remarried. I would like to know how she should introduce her first husband's mother with whom she has remained friendly, to the friends of her present husband. (Her present husband's mother is living.) My daughter has been introducing her as "My mother-in-law—Mrs. Blank" which I think is incorrect. Will you please tell us what is proper in this situation?"

Answer: She would introduce her as "Mrs. Blank" and if necessary, add, "My first husband's mother."

"Dear Mrs. Post: At this time of the year when it does not get dark until rather late in the evening, is it proper to use lighted candles on the dinner table even though it is still daylight?"

Answer: Lighted candles are never incorrect on a dinner table, although in midsummer their light is useless and only adds to the heat and therefore many people do not light them.

Personal News of Interest

Mrs. Charles Hall Jr. of Plainfield, N.J., will arrive today by plane to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Davidson of Lorraine court.

She also will visit her brothers and sisters including Mr. and Mrs. Carleton D. Wright of Chippewa road, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart E. Davidson of Grosse Pointe Farms and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dick of Bloomfield Hills.

VISITING MRS. BURCH

Mrs. Ted Galatis is here from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., with her two sons, Teddy and Charles. She is spending three weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Henry Burch of Glenwood avenue, and is eager to see old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kreklow of O'Reilly street have had as guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kreklow of El Dorado, Texas, who left today for Montreal from where they will sail to Europe.

The Kreklows will attend the Brussels World Fair and visit Holland, France, Switzerland and other European countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ely have returned to Birmingham after more than a year's stay in Seattle where Mr. Ely served in the U.S. Navy.

The two currently are visiting with Mrs. Ely's parents, the Myron Snyders of Birmingham, until their apartment is ready.

BACK FROM VACATION

Blanche Meidlein of Charlotte avenue, accompanied by Walter C.

Waldie of North Saginaw street and Mr. and Mrs. Mark T. Dahon of South Johnson avenue, has returned from a two-week vacation in the Upper Peninsula.

The group toured Sault Ste. Marie, Tahquamenon Falls, Munising, Marquette, Ishpeming and Copper Harbor, returning by way of the Porcupine Mountains, Ironwood, Menominee, Escanaba, Manistique, and St. Ignace. Miss Meidlein now has as a guest in her home, her aunt, Mrs. Lucille Helms of San Diego, Calif., who will be here about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schumacher of Mt. Clemens street have returned from Montague where they were guests of Lieut. Cmdr. Jack Bursey and Mrs. Bursey and Joseph Sadony. Lieut. Cmdr. Bursey participated in all the expeditions to the Antarctic conducted by Admiral Richard E. Byrd and is the author of the book, "Antarctic Night."

BLESSED EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rezelman of Lansdowne drive are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Jan Lynn, July 15 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Grandparents are Mrs. Peter Rezelman of Holland and Mrs. J. C. VanLeeuwen of Midland Park, N.J.

Cranbrook Concert Set Sunday

The first area performance of Stravinsky's Suite Italienne (1932) will be featured at the third Cranbrook Garden concert to be held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at Cranbrook House, Bloomfield Hills.

Ruth Meckler, winner of the 1957 Grinnell piano scholarship award and pupil of Mischa Kottler and Rudolf Serkin, will perform the Stravinsky work with Paul Olefsky, cellist and director of the concert series.

Miss Heckler, a native Detroit, has studied piano since the age of three and is a student of Mr. Serkin and Mieczyslaw Horowitz. She was also awarded the Ossip Gabrilowitsch scholarship and the 1952 Gwaldwis Luloff award.

The remainder of the program will consist of the Arpeggione Sonata by Schubert with Miss Meckler and Mr. Olefsky; the Beethoven Kreutzer Sonata performed by Gordon Staples, associate concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony, accompanied by Miss Meckler; and a Tchaikovsky trio by the three artists.

Dear Abby...

What Happened to Lord's Day?

"DEAR ABBY: Is this question from a 13-year-old girl too foolish to answer? Nobody else has been able to answer it for me. On Sunday the people around our town will get out their lawnmowers, paint brushes, or start working on their cars and I have seen them washing and ironing. Don't these people know it is Sunday and the day of rest should be the one to honor your God. Do you know the answer, Abby?"

GLORIA: Unfortunately, many people turn to God only when they want something, and they forget Him when they have it. Letters like yours should remind adults that youngsters are looking to us for guidance and they do as we DO, not as we SAY. ("... and a little child shall lead them.")

"DEAR ABBY: Since when is a girl "from off the farm" supposed to be "green"? I happen to be a city girl myself, but when I was 11 I spent a summer vacation at my uncle's farm and I've never been the same since. The farm is an ideal place to learn the facts of life if there ever was one. Any man who goes to a motel to "baby sit" with a 19-year-old farm girl had better look out for himself."

CITY GIRL: "DEAR ABBY: I think my poor mother-in-law ought to go to a hospital to get away from her husband and build herself up. I slept over there one night last week and she has to put up with so much you'd never believe it."

"My father-in-law snores like a horse and no matter what part of the house you move to you can still hear him. He also gets up every half-hour to get a drink or for other purposes and he slams the doors and bumps into things causing a terrible racket. My poor mother-in-law hasn't had a good night's sleep in 20 years. How can we get her to go to a hospital before she's carried to one?"

SORRY FOR MOM: DEAR SORRY: Your father-in-law's nocturnal activities seem to bother you more than they bother your mother-in-law. Perhaps she's learned to live with it. Love is not only blind—it's deaf!

CONFIDENTIAL TO BILL: You remind me of the fellow who sows his wild oats and then prays for a crop failure. Simmer down.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of The Pontiac Press. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Donna Phillips to Wed in Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips of Toledo, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Donna Lee, to Donald Owen Nellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Nellis of Chippewa road.

The two plan a Sept. 13 wedding at Greenfield Congregational Church with a reception following the ceremony at Dearborn Inn.

Lawn Party Aids Cancer Victims

Mrs. Edward H. Shigley of Argyle avenue entertained 12 women from Lake Orion and Pontiac at a lawn party Tuesday.

Following the luncheon the group sewed Cancer pads which will be turned over to the American Cancer Society.

The Nurse Is Tired

"Grown-Man Flu" Deadly Disease

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

It is an accepted fact that women are better able to bear pain and to withstand the irritations of illness than men. I have just received a letter which highlights this and is so humorous that I want to reprint it in full. It will be funnier to women than to men, but I think that the men who read this column will laugh at it also since the writer proves her lack of bitterness by her humor.

"Dear Josephine: There is a disease which has never been discussed in the medical sections of magazines or in any medical journal. It is 'Grown-Man Flu.' Grown-Man Flu is always accompanied by groaning and is sometimes referred to as Masculine Virus. It is said to be most deadly.

However this is only the opinion of the patient. I am told that many women suspect that the disease is hardly more than a bad cold with a headache.

"The patient also usually claims that he is much sicker than any female could ever be. I suppose that this is because 'Grown-Man Flu' is rather mild, seldom sending the patient to bed because someone has to look after the children.

"The caring for a patient with this disease is very time-consuming. A sufferer from Grown-Man Flu requires almost constant attention. He constantly calls for service — more pillows — more ice — more pills — more juice — more magazines — turn the radio on — turn it off — keep the children quiet — move the television or change the channel.

ABUSE BELL
"These patients should never be given a bell or buzzer of any type. They cannot leave it alone. If a man suffering with Grown-Man Virus is equipped with some ringing mechanism, he sets up a situation comparable to taking care of the neighbors' six children for three rainy days. A single bell has been known to break the spirit of the calmest of wives.

"Very few cases of Grown-Man Flu refuse to eat. A typical diet may go like this: 8 a.m., soft boiled egg on toast; 9 a.m., two glasses of orange juice; 10 a.m., coffee; 10:45 a.m., more juice; 11:45 'When is lunch ready?'; 12 noon, soup, crackers, milk; 1:15, juice; 3 p.m., he is weakened by lack of food; 4 p.m., a few cookies and a soft drink; 5 p.m., 'When is supper?'; 6 p.m., milktoast; 6:15 p.m., still weak and needs coffee and cake; 7:30 p.m., more juice; 8 p.m., just a snack, maybe a milk shake.

"This disease is short-lived, only two or three days. The patient most always recovers, but it takes several weeks for the nurse to feel well again.

"Signed — 'Dead Tired.'"

Tomorrow: "Dress Right" Campaign in Schools Has Caught On."

Missourians Meet

More than 300 Missourians from the Pontiac area met Sunday at the Joyce Park for a reunion. Other cities represented were Flint, Detroit, Hammond, Ind., St. Charles, Ill., and Bernice, Mo.

Julie Mayo Speaks Vows

Julie Mayo and James Richardson were married Saturday evening at the Birmingham home of the bride's sister Mrs. Paul Naud. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John S. Mayo of Drayton Plains and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Richardson of Third avenue.

The bride wore a gown of rose motif nylon lace and net over white satin with a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a crocheted medallion pillbox hat made by her mother. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom.

Bette Angell of Watkins Lake was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length dress of white eyelet nylon over yellow satin. Bridesmaids were Jacqueline Mayo, the bride's sister, and Wanda Richardson, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore waltz length gowns of white eyelet nylon over green satin. All attendants carried bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations.

Best man was Gene Richardson, the bridegroom's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mayo wore a beige dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a yellow dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bride was wearing a black chemise style suit with white accessories when the couple left for their honeymoon. They will live in Pontiac.

Here comes the high-waisted bride, 5 feet really, but looks inches taller in panels. With new high placement, she can wear a train.

Fall brides incorporate 1958's new looks and that means the Empire silhouette, which is a natural to give that long-legged figure to the petite bride. Fullness falling from Empire bodice gives added length to the train for petites.

HOW TO MAKE-UP A TAN

Cleanse your face with a deep pore cleanser and use your regular soap with a complexion brush. Apply a deeper-than-usual foundation but keep your touch light. A slight dusting of sun tan powder will keep the shine off your nose.

You're lucky for little make-up is needed. To tone down a too-pink face after a day in the sun . . . try a deep clear amber liquid foundation.

'Little Jobs' Seldom Stay Little Long

By RUTH MILLETT

It's a carefree summertime, when most organizations have suspended meetings until fall.

But don't be lulled into the happy thought that you can keep the promise you made to yourself when last year's meetings came to an end. Namely: "No more jobs for me. No matter what committee they ask me to be chairman of, I'm going to say no."

It's easy to make such resolutions, but hard to keep them. For one day, come fall, the telephone will ring and a voice loaded with charm and persuasion and tact will tell you that she has a "little" job for you to do.

It's always a "little" job when you are asked to do it.

As you bring your arguments forward, they'll be moved down by an expert. "You are the ideal person for the job." "You always have such clever ideas." "You get along so well with people." "This job won't take much of your time." "It's terribly important, and everyone agrees you are the only person who can put it across."

You'll hedge, you'll offer excuses, you'll explain just why this year is going to be such a busy year for you. But before your caller hangs up, she'll have your reluctant agreement to take the job.

And you'll find out what you really knew all along—that the "little" job isn't so little after all. And when it is finished, you'll vow again that you have been roped in for the last time, and that after this you are just going to be firm about saying no.

How do I know that's what is going to happen to you? Because I'm a sucker for that charming, persuasive voice on the telephone, myself.

Gray Lady Feted for Service

At a coffee hour held Monday, Mrs. Robert H. Wilson of Rochester was honored for her 15 years of service to Oakland County as a Gray Lady.

Mrs. Alma Oakley, supervisor of nurses at the Oakland County Infirmary and Convalescent Hospital, was toastmistress. She presented a Community Service pin for outstanding volunteer service to Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson was also chosen Volunteer of the Week by the United Volunteer Bureau.

Speaker was Mrs. W. O. Mitchell, chairman of the local office of Red Cross Volunteers. She presented Mrs. Wilson with a 15-year Red Cross service pin. Mrs. Mildred E. Bennett, executive director of Oakland County chapter of the American Red Cross also spoke.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Aree Coons and Mrs. Anne Foster.

Guests included Robert H. Wilson, Harvey Toles, Mrs. Joseph Gable, Mrs. H. D. Seeley, Mrs. E. J. Temming, Mrs. W. C. Pelton, Mrs. Hilda Hansard, Mrs. Floy Phillips, Mrs. Florence Turcott, Mrs. Gladys Chatterton, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. B. J. Cleaver, Mrs. Donald Powers, Macie Stoychoff, Mrs. Bernadine Haines and Mrs. Carl Knaack.

Recent surveys show that two-thirds of American families do their own washing.

Mrs. George Harkless (right) presents the first two patron tickets for the coming season of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra to Mrs. Meyer Simon (center). Mrs. Simon and her husband are two of the original patrons of the symphony which is beginning its sixth season. Dr. George Harkless (left) is second vice president of the symphony.

Symphony Begins Drive for Sixth Concert Series

The sixth season of the Pontiac Symphony has begun with a campaign on the part of the ticket committee. Mrs. George A. Harkless and members of her committee are now making lists and contacting supporters.

Chairmen of the committee are Mrs. Harold B. Euler, Mrs. Arnold Hillerman, Mrs. S. V. Sekles and Stuart E. Whitfield.

Other committee heads are Mrs. Charles Uligian, active members; Mrs. Curtis Patton, season tickets; Mrs. William Graves, single admissions, and Mrs. Harry Arnkoff, contributing members.

Dr. Samuel J. Chafetz, president, has announced that soloist for the first concert will be Mischa Mischakoff, violinist concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony for six years and also concert master under Toscanini for 15 years.

Also included on the program to encourage student attendance for the coming years will be music studied by high school music students throughout the area.

The last four, and possibly the first, of the concerts will be held in the new Northern High School Auditorium.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the orchestra may contact Mrs. A. R. Welton of Birmingham.

Clean, Soften Skin Under Fingernails

Skin under fingernails presents a problem. Often it is rough and discolored. Set a routine of cleaning under the nails with a cotton-tipped stick dipped in cuticle remover.

Follow this by washing the fingertips and applying hand cream to soften the area. A cotton swab will do this job.

Married Saturday were Suzanne Marie O'Neil and Ted McCullough. She is the daughter of the John O'Neils, and Mrs. Ida McCullough and Theodore McCullough are parents of the bridegroom.

MR. and MRS. TED McCULLOUGH

Suzanne O'Neil Is Wed

The Rev. Norman Thomas officiated at the wedding of Suzanne Marie O'Neil and Ted McCullough Saturday in St. Michael Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neil of Lewis street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Ida McCullough of Going street and Theodore McCullough of South Marshall street.

For her wedding the bride wore a white slipper satin gown accented with illusion and Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley and stephanotis centered with white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Betty Anne Sheridan, a cousin of the bride. She wore a ballerina length dress in mint green and white nylon with a scooped neckline and matching veil and hat. Bridesmaid

Bar-Le-Duc Recipe Calls for Currants, Honey

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

In 1364 a Frenchman discovered Bar-Le-Duc. Bar-Le-Duc is a delicious jam made of red or white currants. It is served most often with cream cheese and crackers; but it is also a good accompaniment to meat.

Mrs. Dora Dawson shares her recipe for this jam. An accomplished musician herself Mrs. Dawson maintains an active interest in all musical affairs in Pontiac. She is active in church work and is a charming hostess.

BAR-LE-DUC

By Mrs. Dora Dawson
3 cups sugar
1 cup water
1/2 cup honey
4 cups currants
Boil sugar and water together for 15 minutes. Add honey, bring to boiling point and boil 10 minutes. Add currants and bring to boil again. Boil 10 minutes. Pour into jars and seal.

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Tonight we see how good politicians are as match-makers when Muskegon's Kenny Lane steps into the ring against lightweight champ Joe Brown.

It nearly took an act of legislature with Soapy Williams and Charles Potter both interceding for the match, and Brown's manager Lou Viscusi is quite angry over the interference.

It was too bad that politics had to enter the long feud in getting Lane the fight, but Viscusi was just as unreasonable in his excuse that "Lane is not our style of fighter."

With this silly reason he sidetracked Lane for many months, and it is unfortunate that the National Boxing Commission couldn't have been the pressure-group instead of a couple men in government.

It points out the inadequacy of the NBA and also of the listless IBC which apparently have little control over their profession.

But Lane gets his chance tonight and for his sake he had better be worth all the wrangle caused in his favor.

Virginia MacLeay, wife of Pontiac Central football coach Jesse, stays trim and shows good tennis form at the new courts near Crofoot school.

Pittsburgh second baseman Bill Mazeroski is said to be able to get rid of the ball on his throw faster than anyone in the Majors.

Sam Snead who has often been kidded about hiding his money in tin cans in his back yard said recently, "I've quit doing that since the Gieger counter was invented."

Marilyn Smith, pretty golf pro from Wichita who was Bob Gadja's assistant at Forest Lake for one season, says that women pros today are in the same stage that the men pros were in 1932-33. "If more people would get out to watch the girls hit the ball, they would realize that women can be pros."

Someone wants to know whatever happened to Max Bishop, once one of Connie Mack's second basemen, who was a great lead-off man. Max, now 58, is baseball coach at Navy.

Roy Harris, who hails from the community called "Cut and Shoot" Texas, is getting the big buildup as the one who can upset Floyd Patterson. He has fast hands and reflexes. We doubt he has the heavy punch needed against Floyd's constant flurries.

They say his hometown got its name from its history in the wild west days. If you stood around long enough, you got cut, and if you ran, you got shot. The hometown folks say "our boy will hogtie that other fellow" when they meet next month.

Many of the oldtimers in Pontiac will remember Ed Logie, a Pontiac High graduate and athlete in 1919. He was recently presented with a plaque by the folks in Mount Vernon, N.Y. in celebration of his 25th anniversary as coach at Edison Tech high school there.

Two brothers Roy and Bill Logie and two sisters, Mrs. Roy Pammenter and Mrs. William Mays still live in the area.

Tribe, Senators Split; Hose Outboot Orioles

By The Associated Press
That American League "race" may be dull, but you can't say they're not trying to live things up as the New York Yankees romp along with a 12-game lead.

Take last night. Cleveland's Vic Power missed most of the first game in a twin-night doubleheader with Washington. He thought only a single was scheduled. Washington took the opener 4-2 in 11 innings, but the Indians, with Power lining a two-run double, won the nightcap 5-3.

Baltimore and the Chicago White Sox, running 1-2 in team fielding, booted the ball around for five unearned runs in a 4-3 Chicago victory.

Kansas City got only four hits, but beat Boston 4-3 on Hec Lopez' two-run, two-out homer in the ninth. Three governors and former President Truman were on hand for Bob Cerv night.

The White Sox jumped past the Tigers, who have lost six of their last seven, into fourth place as Billy Pierce, 10 games behind last year's 20-victory pace, won his 10th. The stubby southpaw had a shutout for 8 2/3 innings, then needed Turk Kown's relief help when he walked two runs home after an error by shortstop Luis Aparicio. Jack Harshman 7-5 lost it, supplying the error that led to a three-run fourth. Ray Boone's fourth-inning home run was the only earned run of the game.

Cerv had an RBI single as the A's scored two in the first. But Tom Brewer (6-4) then blanked 'em on two hits until he gave up a two-out walk and Lopez's ninth homer. Tom Gorman (3-4) won it in relief of Murry Dickson, who gave up the Red Sox' runs on homers by Pete Kunnels and Jackie Jensen, his 25th, tops in the majors.

Consecutive home runs by Norm

Zachin and Ken Aspromonte won the opener for the Senators and reliever Dick Hyde 8-2. Cal McLish 8-6, who had won five in a row, went all the way for the Tribe. Indian Manager Joe Gordon rushed Washington starter Camilo Pascual after he had split Gary Geiger's helmet with a pitch but was restrained before reaching the mound. Geiger wasn't injured seriously.

Doctoring Your Golf

By CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Middle-Iron Trouble.

DIAGNOSIS: The Unlikely.

Treatment: Unless you're an exceptional iron player—or unless your situation in the match is desperate—play your four, five and six irons for the fat part of the pin all the time with green. Trying to play for these irons makes strong demands on the average player, and will eventually tear down his confidence.

Aiming for the middle of the green poses a simpler problem. In this way, the player is apt to hit the shot with more confidence—and hence with a freer and better swing at the ball.

On shots from the middle iron range, the big idea is to hit the green. Go for the pin only if it's favorably placed.

With the shorter irons, the situation changes. You can expect to control these better. Also, the shot will have less room in which to go wrong. So with the short irons you can afford to be colder.

Lary Shooting for Sixth Win Over Yankees

DETROIT (UPI)—Frank Lary of Detroit will be shooting at a 14-year-old mark tonight when he tries to beat the Yankees for the sixth time this season.

Last pitchers to defeat the Yanks six times in a single season were Hal Newhouser and Virgil Trucks in 1944. Both were with Detroit at the time.

Ed Walsh of the White Sox holds the all-time record. He beat the Yanks eight times in 1908.

Jets Score Easy 13-3 'A' Victory

Hunt Paces Trouncing of Griff's Grill With Homer and Triple

Putting together four singles and triples by Colle Hunt and Gene Fox, the Jets piled up seven runs in the 2nd inning and went on from there to wallop Griff's Grill 13-3 in Class A baseball at Winer Field last night.

The big early bulge made it easy for Jim Comparini to hurl the route. Marshall McGuire, the 1st of three pitchers, was the loser. Hunt added a home run to his triple during a three-run 4th. Cox Ben Robinson and Joe Soto were other Jets with two safeties. Russ and Tony Lohery had two apiece for Griff's.

Revenge-Hungry Yankees Drub Tigers

Final Count 13-3 as Turley Coasts to 15th Victory

Detroit Edge Dwindled to 9-7 by Champions; Zernial Homers

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers have been in the American League long enough to know that it just doesn't pay to get the New York Yankees mad.

They are tough enough as it is, those fellows the Tigers were calling "cousins" earlier in the season.

The Yankees stretched their lead to 13 games last night, walloping the once-troublesome Tigers 13-3 while the Kansas City Athletics were furling back the second-place Boston Red Sox.

Just a month ago, the Tigers had an 8-3 bulge in games against the Yankees and were complaining that the other clubs around the circuit were not doing their part to keep the Bombers from making a runaway of the so-called pennant race.

Now Casey Stengel's athletes have the edge down to 9-7. The last time New York played in Briggs Stadium, the Tigers were on the short end of a 15-0 score. Last week the Yanks took two out of three from the Tigers in New York.

It was every bit as easy last night. While his mates battered five pitchers for 23 hits—a season high in the American League—Bob Turley coasted to his 15th triumph against three losses.

Norm Siebern had four hits including a home run, Gil McDougald had three including a home run, and Hank Bauer, Jerry Lumpe and Yogi Berra chipped in with three each.

After they raced to a 7-1 lead, the Yankees scored six times in the sixth inning. Every man in the lineup was on base in the big inning and the Tigers added to the embarrassment by wild pitching one runner home and sending another in on an interference play.

"I'll tell you something," manager Stengel told his post-game audience, "when a team gets up on us like this one did, it kinda makes our boys play a little better. I dunno, maybe it makes 'em a little mad, or something."

The defeat was the sixth in seven games for the Tigers, who once had a string of seven straight victories over the Yankees.

Every man in the New York lineup except Turley had at least two safeties.

Oh yes, Mickey Mantle did not play.

Stanovich and Penrose Top Canadian Amateur Qualifiers

TORONTO (AP)—Two veteran Americans headed the qualifying parade Tuesday in the Canadian Amateur golf championship with 36-hole scores of 137.

Marty Stanovich, 240-pounder from Chicago, and Jack Penrose of Miami Beach, Fla., who made the best showings among Americans in the British Amateur this year, shot identical rounds of 69 and 68.

They were five under the Scarborough Golf Club par for the 36-hole distance. The low 64 scores will advance to match play beginning Wednesday.

Nick Weslock of Windsor, Ont., 1937 Canadian Amateur titleholder, Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont., and Bob Brue of Milwaukee finished the two-day chore with 139.

ROOKIES ARRIVE — A busload of rookies arrived at Cranbrook yesterday as the Detroit Lions set up quarters to begin football drills. A total of 54 players reported with only three veterans yet to be signed. Thursday the Lions will engage in picture taking session for press cameramen and Friday morning drills will begin on a twice-daily schedule. The Lions will play their first exhibition game against the College All-Stars August 15th.

GRID STYLE? — Coaches of the Detroit Lions are boasting the new look this season. Instead of sweat pants the uniform for the coaches will consist of bermuda shorts and monogrammed sports shirts. Left to right are Aldo Forte, Buster Ramsey, Bob Nussbaumer, Bob Dove and head coach George Wilson.

Only 3 Lions' Veterans Out as Drills Begin

The world champion Detroit Lions fought par today but in just two days they'll be battling each other for spots on the squad when training opens at Cranbrook school.

Only three veterans remained to be signed as the Lions teamed up with sports writers, sportscasters and club officials today in a round of golf.

Fullback John Henry Johnson, who turned down his first contract, came to terms yesterday with president Edwin J. Anderson and coach George Wilson as did veterans Jim Doran and Jack Christiansen. Only Jim Davis, Gene Gorman and Joe Schmidt remained unsigned.

David and Gorman had contract talks yesterday but Schmidt won't be in until tomorrow after completing six months of army duty at Fort Knox, Ky.

John Donatucci, former Villanova College athlete, is the shortstop for the Durham Bulls in the Carolina League.

Winston-Salem's Vern Benson and Durham's Charles Kress, Carolina League managers, were teammates on the 1933 Rochester International League pennant winning Red Wings.

Post Office, Lakeside Win Police Add to NL Lead

The Pontiac Police nine added another game to its lead in the National League by blanking Deni's Corner 3-0 in the feature city softball contest last night.

Alex Spears and Walt Travis combined for a two-hitter as Lakeside drubbed Pontiac State Hospital Employees 14-1. Don McConner had two doubles and Spears two singles to lead the attack.

Borden's was awarded a 9-0 win when Autoes of Europe could not field a complete team.

Elmo "Smoky" Burgess gave up just two hits and struck out 10 for the Police. Two runs in the 1st wrapped up the verdict early.

Ruth Playoffs Begin Tonight

The 1938 District 1 playoffs for the area's Babe Ruth championship get under way tonight and continue through Sunday.

Birmingham's Satellite All Stars will play host to Farmington in a 5 p.m. opener at Birmingham. All other games will be at Southfield.

A Thursday contest will match Southfield against the Northwest Detroit National Division nine at 5 p.m. Northwest won the state championship last summer.

Walled Lake and the Birmingham Pioneers were awarded byes into Saturday's semifinals. Walled Lake will battle the Thursday winner Saturday at 4 p.m. following a 2 p.m. game between the Pioneers and the Satellite-Farmington victor.

The championship will be determined Sunday at 2.

165-Man Field Starts Today in Eastern Open

BALTIMORE (AP)—For a tournament which wasn't even supposed to be on golf's gold map this year, the $20,000 Eastern Open had a pretty fair field of prospectors lined up today.

The 165-man contingent shaped up as the biggest and toughest ever to check in for the 72-hole affair opening tomorrow at the Municipal Mt. Pleasant course.

Among the 134 pros assigned starting times were winners of 38 of the game's major tournaments, including 21 of the 26 already played on the tour this year. Thirty-one leading amateurs from the Baltimore area also were entered.

Dow Finsterwald, fresh from his Professional Golfers Assn. championship victory at Haverford, Pa. was due this afternoon. So was National Open king Tommy Bolt, the winner of the 1937 Eastern.

Seixas and Gibson Win in Pennsylvania

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—Top-seeded Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Althea Gibson of New York advanced to the third round of the Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis tournament Tuesday despite showers which delayed the start of the matches several hours.

Seixas, U.S. No. 1 ranking men's player, ran into trouble before disposing of Crawford Henry, Atlanta, Ga. 10-8, 7-5. Henry had set point at 8-7 before Vic's powerful forehand passing shot broke through to enable him to pull out the first set. In the second Seixas led 5-4 and Henry double faulted.

Malcolm Anderson of Australia, U.S. singles champion, arrived late from England and won two matches easily.

Senior Bowl on Jan. 3

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The Senior Bowl All-Star football game at Mobile will be played Jan. 3.

J. Finley McRae, president of the sponsoring Mobile Arts and Sports Assn., announced last night the game was being shifted to a date a week earlier than in past years to comply with rules interpretations by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. concerning income paid collegians who play in all star games other than during holiday periods.

Injury Keeps Kramer Off Training Field

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Ron Kramer will stay away from the Green Bay Packers' training camp this summer because his injured leg is not responding to treatment.

Scotter McLean, coach of the National Football League team, said today.

McLean added that it is doubtful if the end and slot back would be able to play at all in the 1938 season, his second in the NFL.

Kramer, an All-America end selection from Michigan, broke his leg in a game at Los Angeles last year.

Phillies Looking Ahead

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—John Ngvasad, a right-handed pitcher from Lachine, Canada, has been signed by the Philadelphia Phillies to a 1939 contract with Olean, N.Y., in the Class D New York-Pennsylvania League.

Muskegon Lefty Rated 12-5 Underdog

Lane Gets Title Shot Tonight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Tough-talking Joe Brown meets the last of the persistent challengers for his world's lightweight championship tonight with the prediction that he'll dispose of this one—Kenny Lane of Michigan—like all the others.

Brown will be defending his title for the fifth time in 23 months. He disposed of the previous four challengers—"Bud" Smith, Orlando Zuleta, Joey Lopes and Ralph Dupas—by knockouts.

It will be Brown's second big pay day in less than three months. The little Negro from Baton Rouge, La., pulled down $40,000 for whipping Dupas here May 7. He should get about the same out of tonight's fight.

Texas Boxing Enterprises, the promoters, said almost $50,000 already was in the till and it should approach $60,000 by fight time, 9 p.m. EST. There will be $45,000 from radio and television.

Out of about $100,000 from all sources, Brown will draw 40 per cent. Lane, who says this will be his biggest pay day, will get 20.

A lot of harsh words have passed between the two camps, with Brown fired mostly by aspersions Lane has cast on his age. The Muskegon, Mich., farm boy with the skin-close cropped hair, has said he'll wear Brown out over the 15-round route because Joe's too old to stand the pace of a 26-year-old. Brown is 32.

The fight culminates a two-year campaign by Lane for a chance at the title.

"He gave me the run-around because he didn't want to fight anybody who had a chance with him," said Lane grimly. "Now we've forced him into it."

"I think I have a better chance than Brown, and I can cite the record to indicate it. While he has fought almost twice as much as I have, he has lost three times as many fights."

For the record Brown has fought 96 times, won 70, lost 15, and 9 draws and 2 no-decision bouts. Lane has fought 57 times, won 52 and lost 5.

But Brown will go to the post a 12-5 favorite, mostly because he is such a terrific puncher—something for which Lane isn't noted. Much has been made of the fact that Lane, while losing five fights, never has been knocked off his feet.

"I'll knock him off his feet," Brown snapped.

Jack Kearns, co-manager of Lane, says that wouldn't necessarily settle the issue though. "Even if Brown tags my boy, the fight won't be over—this kid can take it," said Kearns.

Fans Honor Bob Cerv

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bob Cerv got enough gifts from admiring fans last night to fill an eight-room house plus another he probably will remember as long as any—a beautiful last ditch home run by Hector Lopez.

Some 23,000 Kansas City Athletics fans had turned out for Bob Cerv Night in appreciation for the courageous play of the outfielder and slugger who has carried the club with his hitting despite a broken jaw and half a dozen other assorted injuries.

The fans, including ex-President Harry Truman and three governors, paid tribute to Cerv, whose home run total of 24 is third best in the league. The 32-year-old veteran also has batted in 66 runs and is batting .325.

But events followed a pattern well known to baseball players when their admirers go all out with a "night."

Cerv managed to wade out of the knee-deep dignitaries and scratch a single through the infield to drive in a first inning run but that ended his hit production for the night.

PGA May Have 2 Major Events

Now both college graduates, Anne Richardson (Ohio State), of Columbus, Ohio and Berridge Long (Marshall), of Huntington, W. Va., renewed a feud dating back to the finals of the 1953 Western Junior finals.

Miss Richardson, now 22, won that 1953 showdown from Miss Long, now 21, by a score of 2 and 1.

They met today at Oak Park Country Club's rolling acres with Miss Long, an attractive well-built brunette, holding perhaps a psychological advantage.

Miss Richardson, a lithe, handsome lass, had easy first round pickings, swamping Mrs. John Rolston, of suburban Park Ridge, 8 and 7.

Former Rivals Collide Again

CHICAGO (AP)—Two former champions strove to survive, but the day's best match was between two former kid rivals in today's second round of the Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

Now both college graduates, Anne Richardson (Ohio State), of Columbus, Ohio and Berridge Long (Marshall), of Huntington, W. Va., renewed a feud dating back to the finals of the 1953 Western Junior finals.

Upset victims were Rod Duman, No. 8 from St. Louis who lost to Dave Gallup, San Diego, Calif., 3-4, 2-4, 1-4; Frank Froehling, No. 7 from Coral Gables, Fla., who lost to Ramsey Barnhart, Ventura, Calif., 3-4, 2-4, 1-4; George Blosser, No. 9 from Carmel, Calif., who lost to Ned Untermyer, Lincoln, Neb., 5-7, 2-4, 1-4; Tom Edgerton, No. 10 from Oakland, Calif., who fell before Bill Busley, Oklahoma City, Okla., 2-4, 1-4, 2-4; Dick Leach, No. 11 from Arcadia, Calif., who lost to Don Rubell, Brooklyn, 5-7, 2-4, 1-4; and Jack Kamrath, No. 12 from Houston, Tex., who lost to Francisco Castillo, Hamtramck, Mich., 7-5, 6-1.

In singles play in the boys division, however, the top nine seeded players advanced.

Upset victims were Rod Duman, No. 8 from St. Louis who lost to Dave Gallup, San Diego, Calif., 3-4, 2-4, 1-4; Frank Froehling, No. 7 from Coral Gables, Fla., who lost to Ramsey Barnhart, Ventura, Calif., 3-4, 2-4, 1-4; George Blosser, No. 9 from Carmel, Calif., who lost to Ned Untermyer, Lincoln, Neb., 5-7, 2-4, 1-4; Tom Edgerton, No. 10 from Oakland, Calif., who fell before Bill Busley, Oklahoma City, Okla., 2-4, 1-4, 2-4; Dick Leach, No. 11 from Arcadia, Calif., who lost to Don Rubell, Brooklyn, 5-7, 2-4, 1-4; and Jack Kamrath, No. 12 from Houston, Tex., who lost to Francisco Castillo, Hamtramck, Mich., 7-5, 6-1.

Fly-Equipped Hat

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—Geron Tanner, deputy assessor here, has one fine fishing hat—it came to him equipped with 30 dozen hand-tied flies.

The hat was created by a friend, William Little, a federal-state vegetable inspector at Del Norte, Colo. Little figures the hat is worth $130, with the flies valued at $126.

Two Shoot Same Deer

COOKSON, Okla. (AP)—Troy Smith of Cleveland, Okla., and Ray Glenn of Oklahoma City were hunting deer near here in separate parties.

Both spotted one at the same time. Both fired and the deer fell. Each thought his shot downed the deer.

State game rangers refused to enter into the discussion. Eventually, each agreed to take half.

Turkey Shoot Expert

CHEMAMUS, B.C. (AP)—Ben Bradshaw, 12, was high scorer in the turkey shoot here. On the 100-yard rifle range he won three turkeys in a row.

University of Detroit has a record of six wins, three losses, and one tie against Michigan State in football from 1917 through 1934. Detroit outscored the Spartans 142-36 in that span. Detroit and Michigan State will meet again at East Lansing in 1960.

Braves Nip Cards 2-1 to Gain on Giants and Match 1957 Pace

By The Associated Press

Maybe the Milwaukee Braves aren't hurtin' so much after all. Hank Aaron is over .300 at last and they're no worse in the standings than they were a year ago, when they won the National League pennant and the world championship.

With Aaron going 4-for-4, upping his batting average to .305, the Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 last night. It was the only game played — rain washed out the rest — and put the champs within a half game of first place San Francisco.

The Braves have a 49-38 record and are .005 percentage points behind the Giants. A year ago, after 87 games, the Braves also were second, with a 49-37 record (one game was a tie).

The Braves, who didn't move until August 4 last year in a build-up to a final eight-game margin, were .001 behind the Cardinals. But it was a tough five team race. Philadelphia was third, a half game behind, Brooklyn was fourth, 1½ games back, and Cincinnati was fifth, two games shy.

At the moment, there's a four-game opening between the Braves and the third place Chicago Cubs. St. Louis is fourth, seven games back. Then come Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and Pittsburgh, in a virtual tie for fifth.

Aaron and Ed Mathews, the big men in last year's attack, had six of the Braves' eight hits off Bob Mabe while rookie Cal Willey squared his record at 3-3 after losing three in a row. Mathews and Aaron singled and Mathews scored in the fourth, when the Cards chipped in three of their four errors. And they singled again in the eighth, when Del Crandall's sacrifice fly scored Mathews with the clincher.

It was Mabe's second decision and second 2-1 defeat since being recalled from Omaha. The rookie right-hander was beaten 2-1 in the ninth-inning at Cincinnati last week.

The Cards got only five hits off Willey, who had 'em blanked on two hits until Joe Cunningham tripled and Stan Musial doubled in the sixth.

sixth inning in that one, and they'll try to get it completed before the regularly scheduled game tonight as Eddie Sawyer makes his "debut" as manager of the Phillies.

Boys' Club Wins After Going Hitless

Offensive uprisings in the final two innings of play broke up one of the outstanding mound duels of the year yesterday as the Pontiac Boys' Club wound up a 6-0 victory over Talbot Lumber in Class B baseball.

Lower Marv Holler actually held the edge over victor Jerry Pointer going into the 6th frame when the Boys' Clubber broke up the contest with four runs featuring Bill Hayward's three-run homer.

Holler had faced the minimum 16 batters for 5½ innings when Jerry Dennis belted a triple. Pointer scattered three bingles while striking out 12 to 11 by Holler. The latter had two of his team's hits.

Wisconsin Archer Wins World Crown

BRUSSELS (AP)—James Caspers of Racine, Wis., won the 50-meter event in the 1958 world archery championships Tuesday.

He scored 524 points in the two 50-meter rounds—257 in the first, 267 in the second.

the 1950 pennant, then gave way to Steve O'Neill in 1952 "for the good of the club" after his get-tough policy failed to pay off.

LEADER — A new leader in the bass division of The Pontiac Press "big fish derby" made its appearance today, when Roger Snelling (above), 1949 Grand View, Pontiac, listed a 6-pound, 4-ounce specimen. The largemouth hunker displaced Roland Dixon's 5-pound, 12½-ounce fish, entered June 30.

Sawyer Returns Tonight as Philadelphia Manager

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ten years ago, less one day, Eddie Sawyer was hired to manage the Philadelphia Phillies.

Tonight he takes over again as the Phils' field boss in one of those quirks explained thus by his predecessor: "That's baseball."

General Manager Roy Hamey brought about the strange turn of events yesterday with a brief announcement. Mayo Smith, the man he personally brought up from the minors in 1955 to manage the Phils, was through. Eddie Sawyer, who led the Phils to the National League pennant in 1950 was the new boss.

Sawyer has been out of the game since he was fired midway in the 1952 season for failing to win. How come, Hamey was asked, the Phils hired him? "He had a good record and he knows the National League," replied Hamey.

Sawyer, though, declined to make a thorough appraisal of his club until he's seen more of it. He explained he'd seen very few games this year because he'd been so busy in his job as an executive with a golf ball manufacturing firm.

Smith, quietly packing his gear before leaving the Phils' clubhouse, said he felt no bitterness. "It was sudden, but that's baseball," he philosophized.

Smith was paid off for the rest of the season when his contract was to have expired. Sawyer was hired through the end of the 1959 season.

Under Smith the Phils finished fourth once, fifth twice and were in sixth place when Hamey made the decision he said he had been considering for a month.

Under Sawyer, the Phils finished third in 1949, first in 1950, fifth in 1951 and fourth in 1952 when he was relieved midway in the season by Steve O'Neill.

Sawyer said that the club might be better than it has shown thus far and seemed to have a "pretty good pitching staff." Still with the club are six of the 1950 "Whiz Kids" who helped take the pennant—pitchers Bob Miller, Robin Roberts, and Curt Simmons, outfielder Richie Ashburn, catcher Stan Lopata and third baseman Willie Jones.

Sawyer was almost as surprised at the turn of events as was Smith. He got a call from Hamey Monday afternoon, met him that night, and took the job.

"I hope to get another job in baseball," said Smith.

Colt Guard Retires

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts announced Tuesday that guard Joe Campanella is retiring to devote full time to private business.

The Colts also announced signing of Buzz Nutter, 220-pound center, linebacker and defensive end, to his fifth season.

'Skeeters' Converge on Pontiac for World Tournament

Shotgun Army's Advance Guard Moves in Early

Expect 450-500 Top Shooters in Week-Long Competition

By H. GUY MOATS

Like the ancient "all roads lead to Rome" boast, Pontiac currently is the hub of the world skeet shooting "universe"—All roads, as far as the top devotees of this immensely popular shotgun sport are concerned, lead to Oakland County Sportsmen's club skeet fields, where some 450-500 of the nation's finest scatter-gunners next week will spend a solid week in quest of some 50-60 varied titles.

Already the vanguard of the shotgun army is at hand. Many shooters arrived yesterday and today, start practice Friday. The big invasion, however, is expected Friday and Saturday. The world championships get under way Monday, and don't let up until next Saturday night.

Area motels and other accommodations are booked solid for the week, say OCSC officials, many having been reserved as far back as last fall.

The 1958 championships, conducted entirely by the National Skeet Shooting Association, will be the third NSSA tourney at the Waterford club site, where everything was reported today in readiness. Similar events were held here in 1954 and 1955, and many of the top competitors of those years will be back—some among the defending champions of last year. They include the 1956 high-over-all champion, veteran Alex Kerr of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Indications today pointed to possibly the heaviest entry in NSSA history. There certainly will be a great expansion of the military team events. A dozen 5-man teams from U.S. Army installations at Weisbaden, Germany, others from bases in the states, and Hawaii are expected.

Canada will have some entries, for further international flavor, but the Puerto Rican team headed by Col. Salvatore Roig, who won many honors in 1954 and 1955, including over-all title, will not return. The sharpshooting colonel and his crew from San Juan are reported headed for Moscow and a world shooting event that will call NSSA prexy Chesley J. Crites of Detroit and OCSC, at close of the current tourney here.

Saturday and Sunday will be devoted to practice rounds. Real competition gets under way Monday with the sub-small-gauge championship and champion of champions events. Tuesday's card includes the small-gauge title event, and sub-junior and women's junior tests. The 20-gauge championship is set for Wednesday, and starting Thursday will be the heavy shooting for the all-gauge championships. This competition runs through Friday and Saturday.

OCSC officials sharing in the arrangements and handling of the physical side of the event include President Ed Spicer, vice-president Harry Barnes, along with past presidents (1954-1955) Lloyd Sibley and Bob White.

NSSA Champions

Here are the 1958 defending National Skeet Shooting Assn. champions, most of whom are expected to defend their titles here next week:

HIGH OVER ALL—(all around) Alex N. Kerr, Beverly Hills, Calif.
OPEN ALL-GAUGE—John C. Dalton, Salisbury, Md.
CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS—Minor Clift, Childersburg, Ala. (junior all-around, junior all-gauge, junior 410 champion)

fer (OCSC), the CP high-over-all gun, Paul Harvey, and Baldwin's Ains Borsum, long a top figure in national skeet circles. All three shot in the two previous NSSA title-events here

Little Stories About Outdoors

While there is no hard and fast rule for figuring accurate weight per measure for most fish, experienced observers usually can come very close to actual measurements in their estimates.

For example: Black bass run pretty uniformly, this corner has found, over many years of checking specimens of the country's "mostest and fishin'est" game fish in the course of annual fishing "derbies."

However, environment can have a decided influence upon the size and weight of fish. Where food is proper and abundant, fish grow rapidly, gain weight speedily, where the competition is not too heavy. Under other conditions the weight to length factor may shift considerably.

The average for bass (up to 16 inches there is seldom little weight difference between smallmouth and largemouth) is 2½ to 3½ pounds in the 16-18 inch sector; from 3½ pounds to 5 pounds for the 18-20 inches; and from 5 pounds to 7 pounds or more for those in the 20-24-inch category.

All-time biggest bass entry in The Press derby—now more than 20 years old—was last year's 7-pound, 15½-ounce largemouth taken by Andy Simko of near Holly. That record fish was an even two feet (24 inches) long.

Final report!
There is no little night hawk to carry on the family lines of the State avenue Hawks—the egg on which Lady Hawk sat for three weeks has been abandoned. Rain and wind through which LH patiently and determinedly sat apparently ruined the chances of bringing off a chick on that barren roof.

The universal appeal of fishing and hunting is exemplified in the stories about the 8-year-old Tennessee boy who has earned a real reputation as a guide around Chattanooga's lake and stream area. And 82-year-old Glenwood Springs Colo. woman (Mrs. Pearl Blain), among the first to try for trout in Colorado's season opener, just several weeks ago. A willow pole, piece of string and bent hook started her off on an angling career some 70 years ago.

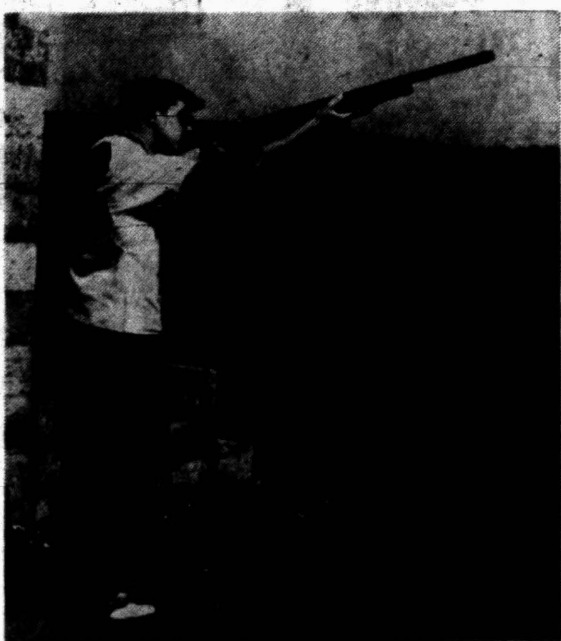

Top archers from practically every state and Canada will converge on Grayling next week, for the national field archery tourney, beginning Monday. More than 300 are expected to represent Michigan, including a number from the Pontiac area. At least 2,000 entries are expected.

Public is welcome to sit in the forthcoming statewide water conference at Lansing Civic Center, Oct. 21-22. Gleason Halliwell of Gladwin, state Natural Resources Council head, revealed plans for the conference which will include land, water, fish and wildlife, minerals, recreation and wood areas.

YOUNG CHAMPION—He's only 14 years-old and a 9th grader in Childersburg, Ala., but Miner Clift (above) son of a hardware merchant, is already a double champion in skeet shooting. Miner won the champion of champions title in the 1957 National Skeet tourney, plus the junior high-over-all crown. He'll be here next week to defend those honors. Miner shot in the 1955 NSSA event here when only 11, won the 20-gauge championship.

Big Brown Trout Gives City Man Half Hour Fight

When William A. Bragg, 338 Seward St., Pontiac, tied into a big brown trout on the Manistee near Camp Arrowhead a few days ago, he had a real battle on his hands.

"That was the biggest trout I ever saw," Bragg reported. "My wife and I were fishing in the Manistee near Grayling. We had taken a few trout when this big one hit my squirrel tail fly tied on a No. 6 hook. I was using a spin rig with six pound test monofilament line."

Bragg says he fought the fish for half an hour. It weighed six pounds and was 26 inches long, Bragg said.

2 Clubs Combine for Puppy Match

English Springer Spaniel Club and the Cocker Spaniel Club of Michigan have arranged for their annual combined spaniel puppy match, to be held Sunday, July 27, at Grosse Pointe, War Memorial Center (32 Lake Shore Rd., Grosse Pte.). An obedience trial will also be held in connection with the match.

A field trial exhibition is set for 12:15 and judging starts at 12:30 p.m. Puppies from two months to one year are eligible. A junior showmanship class and women's novice handling class are other features. There is no charge and the public is invited.

Palmer Bucks 'Stay-at-Home' Weekends Idea

LANSING (AP)—A new temperate voice has been raised in the controversy between pluggers for traffic safety and resort owners. In getting into the argument, William Palmer, executive secretary of the Michigan Petroleum Institute, in part criticized Secretary of State James M. Hare and in part defended him.

Hare, he noted, had spoken approvingly of stay-at-home weekends and said they might be contributing to a better traffic safety showing.

CHAMPS' CONFAB—Two national skeet champions engage in a little confab at OCSC over the coming NSSA's World Skeet Championship (July 28-Aug. 2) at Waterford. At left is Chet (Chesley J.) Crites, Detroit, and OCSC's Bob Thielefs. Crites, NSSA prexy, is also world skeet champion, while Bob is defending 28 gauge NSSA king. Both will be in action at the "World".

Fun for Expert, Beginner County Angling Paradise

By JACK PATTERSON

Do outdoors-minded youngsters in this area realize how lucky they are to be growing up in a region where practically every native species of game fish is not only present, but plentiful. They should. Without leaving Oakland County's borders the young fisherman can find, in natural surroundings, rainbow trout, large and smallmouth black bass, northern pike, walleyes, the whole run of panfish, and, in fact just about everything but muskies and brown trout, and an hour away, give or take a few minutes, our fisherman can tangle with those species.

Not all lakes have all species, but the bass-bluegill-pike combination is so common to county lakes that if anyone can show us a lake in the county that doesn't hold this trio we'll drink it dry without a chaser. Rainbows are plentiful in the larger lakes.

With all this potential fun cru-ing about beneath the surface on every hand, what should the young fisherman do about it? Well, he should go out and put a stop to the cruising careers of some of these fish. How he does it isn't too important, so long as he stays within the liberal provisions of the law, except that he should remember that fishing is strictly for fun.

Now fun with a fish depends pretty much on what kind of gear connects that fish with the angler. As a rather common local example, take a two or three pound largemouth. Such a fish is fun on casting tackle, it gives the spin-fisherman some wild runs and anxious moments, but on a fly rod, such a fish is murder of the most pleasant sort.

And nine times out of ten, during these mid-summer evenings the fellow with the fly rod and popper bug will fish circles around casters and spin-fishers, for bass and also for all panfish, excepting, possibly, perch.

As far as that goes, fly-rod fishing for panfish is so much more fun than taking them by other means that if fishing laws were rewritten we'd make it illegal to take them any other way.

TODAY'S 2-MINUTE MYSTERY

THE CASE OF
THE PULLED PUNCHES

Fifteenth of a series

By DONALD J. SOBOL

"A woman's mind is the one insoluble mystery," admitted Haledjian to the thin, bespectacled youth. "But I'll help you if I can."

Cyril Makin nodded gratefully, cleared his throat, and said, "I've been secretly in love with Gladys Brewster for two years. My chances seemed hopeless. She's one of those big outdoorsy girls, a champion skier and swimmer. I never did better than assistant manager of the high school basketball team. Can't see 20 feet without my glasses."

"I knew she'd never take me seriously unless I proved myself a man. So I enlisted the aid of Rocky Armstrong, the heavy-weight boxing champion."

She Claims
West Coast
Isle Is Theirs

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A woman who says she represents 300 descendants of early California financier Mark Hopkins said last night the group plans to file a claim for Yerba Buena Island in the middle of San Francisco Bay.

Mrs. Estelle Latta of Durham, N.C., said the group also has recorded a notice of interest in about 500,000 acres in Sacramento, Placer and Alameda counties. The land belonged to the Central Pacific Railroad, of which Hopkins was part owner.

Mrs. Latta claims to be a great-granddaughter of Hopkins. She is the author of "Controversial Mark Hopkins" and "The Great Rascal," books about Hopkins' activities. Hopkins joined Charles Crocker, Collis P. Huntington and Leland Stanford to form the Central Pacific, the Western link in the first transcontinental railroad. Yerba Buena Island is the midway point of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

Cliff-Hanging Firemen
Battle New York Blaze

NEW YORK (AP)—Cliff-hanging firemen battled a stubborn blaze on the roof of Hampshire House, a fashionable hotel, for almost 15 hours yesterday and last night before bringing the fire under control.

The fire fighters, working more than 400 feet above Central Park South, had to use pneumatic drills to punch holes in the steel, slanting roof to get at burning beams. It was caused by sheet metal workers repairing the roof.

Father Helped Career Along

20-Year-Old Heading Night-Time Quiz Show 'Haggis Baggis'

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — In this case the temptation to be woefully trite is too great and the resistance too weak. So let's wallow in it quickly, the sooner to be shriven: "Like father, like son."

Linkletter is the name — father Art, who needs no introduction to the radio and TV millions, and son Jack, who does, although he is something more than a tyro at the age of 20.

Jack joined his father as a nationally televised master of ceremonies June 30 when NBC introduced a new night-time quiz series under the somewhat incomprehensible (and non-Scottish) name of "Haggis Baggis."

"As a matter of fact," said the tall and personable eldest of the Linkletter offspring, "I first was offered the job of emceeing the five-a-week afternoon series of the same program along with this once-a-week night-time job. I turned down the combination for two reasons."

HE'S BETTER OFF
"In the first place, I figured I'd be better off not taking on too much in this first chance at my own network show. And, in the second place, the afternoon 'Haggis Baggis' is exactly opposite my Dad's 'Houseparty' program on CBS. I wouldn't have felt right about that. However strong or weak this opposition to his show might prove to be, I wouldn't have liked being a part of it."

Young Linkletter has been no stranger to the microphones of radio and TV for more than half of his life. As a kid he palled around with his father on the latter's assignments.

"I would have to be the first to admit that I've gotten breaks on account of him. But there are two sides to that sort of coin. You have to work harder to be accepted on your own abilities."

Jack started out with a one-hour disc jockey show on a local Los Angeles program while he was still in high school, where, incidentally, he was quite a swimmer and water polo player. Later he was master of ceremonies on a teenage variety show on a regional network.

He spent three months in Germany working for Radio Free Europe in the midst of getting educated at the University of Southern

Lebanese Have Time to Ogle Blondes

By TOM A. CULLEN

BEIRUT (NEA) — This is the craziest, mixed-up revolution since Pancho Villa was storming around Mexico, and it's doubtful whether even the Marines can sort it out.

At least Pancho was a fighter, but in Lebanon no one is really in a fighting mood.

The Loyalists shoot only when goaded; the rebels fire mostly without taking aim; the U.S. Marines are keeping their powder dry.

During one of the occasional exchanges of fire, I watched an attractive blonde in spike heels progress up the street, hugging buildings. Abruptly, the firing ceased to let her pass—followed by a wolf whistle from an unseen but appreciative sniper. Then the whine of bullets resumed.

Also typical of this clambake is the number of persons not on speaking terms. The U.N. observers cut the Americans dead, crossing the street to avoid them. As for President Eisenhower's special envoy, Robert Murphy, he has been unavailable to newsmen since his arrival.

To make the comic opera rebellion complete there is the rebel chief Saeb Salam, who is far removed from the fire-eating general with pearl-handled revolvers on his hips.

When I talked with him, he was wearing a western-style sport shirt, yellow socks and black moccasins.

Educated at the American University in Beirut, Salam has been premier twice and is a highly cultured man who quotes the Koran rather than Karl Marx.

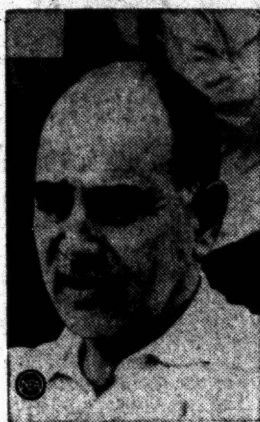

During an interview in his headquarters, the thickset, balding Salam vigorously denied he or his followers have any Russian or Communist affinities.

"If the Russians invaded Lebanon without our permission we would consider them aggressors and tell them to go," he said with straight-faced sincerity.

But while this possibility seems somewhat remote at present, U.S. forces are here and the rebel leader seems equally serious when he talks about them.

"If American troops try to move into our area, they will be resisted. So far we have not gone out looking for them. We have kept our emotions under control."

Although Salam's followers include other intellectuals, there is a heavy preponderance of cut-throat types. They are more approachable than the intellectuals, willing to stop fingering their pistols in return for a few cigarettes.

SAEB SALAM: Rebel in sport shirt and moccasins.

Although Salam insists "we are not singing Nasser's tune; he is singing ours," some of his intellectual followers mouth the anti-Western slogans typical of the Egyptian leader.

"Why do you Americans always back the wrong horse?" is their favorite opening gambit.

The motley rebel gang is bottled up in the Arab quarter known as the Basta, where no one molest them. Access to them is easy, if you're not afraid to look down a machine gun barrel while explaining your business.

The rebels regularly get itchy trigger fingers and an urge to shoot off their ammunition. Mostly, they snipe at office windows, making the clerks dive to the floor and thus disrupting business.

Ten thousand American servicemen may be making Lebanon safe for democracy, but they haven't made the streets of Beirut safe for pedestrians.

With one Marine or paratrooper for every 40 residents, it's still not safe to mail a letter. I've been trapped in the post office twice by rebel fusillades and a small bomb.

It's a miracle that some American servicemen weren't killed in the first few days after their arrival, for despite the comical aspects of the rebellion, Lebanese still are dying. Ten of them were killed and another 30 injured when a grenade exploded in a streetcar recently.

Cite Polio as Cause of Area Man's Death

Polio was cited as the cause of death of a Bloomfield Township resident last week according to Dr. John D. Monroe, health director. This was the first death caused by polio in North Oakland County this year, he added.

The following is a comparative list of the communicable diseases reported to city and county health departments last week.

OAKLAND COUNTY

No Shoes? Police Nab Boy Burglar

BLACKFOOT, Idaho (AP) — What does it remind you of when you see a barefoot boy scuffling through the dust on a hot July afternoon, faithful dog at his heels?

It reminded Blackfoot police of six burglaries.

They arrested the 10-year-old boy and said he admitted taking about $17 in nickels and dimes from three service stations and three cleaning shops.

Asst. Chief S. S. Kunz said officers found footprints of a dog and a barefoot boy around broken windows at each place.

When they spotted the boy, there wasn't anything to make them suspicious, except that he was barefoot and had a dog.

You hardly ever see a barefoot boy any more, they said.
