Will you be No. 74?

Traffic fatalities this year to date in Oakland County already number 73 and a long holiday weekend begins tomorrow.

Despite stepped-up enforcement programs planned by area police officials, the Memorial Day weekend could result in fatality No. 74 or maybe, even 75 or 76.

State police have canceled all leaves to strengthen its weekend traffic enforcement program and the sheriff's department, likewise, will have more cars on the road.

But police officials issue the reminder that traffic safety is the primary responsibility of the motorist.

YOU WILL DECIDE

Added enforcement will help make the roads safe, but safe-driving practices and observance of traffic laws by the army of motorists this weekend will really determine how statistics will stand Monday morning.

It's up to you!

LBJ Orders Top Officials to SE Asia Talks

Rusk Will Preside at Confab of Military, Diplomatic Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has ordered top U.S. military and diplomatic officials to meet in Honolulu next week to review the situation in the entire Southeast Asia area.

The White House announced today that Secretary of State Dean Rusk will preside at the sessions next Monday and Tuesday.

Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Viet Nam, will fly from Saigon to Hawaii to participate in the conference. Others present will include Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The White House said there would be other officials from Washington and from Southeast Asia at the talks, but did not name them.

"The President has asked a number of high U.S. officials to meet in Honolulu on June 1 and 2 for discussions of the situation in Southeast Asia," the announcement said. ". . . The purpose of the meeting will be to review the situation in the entire area."

In response to a question, the White House said President Johnson had no plans to attend the Honolulu conference.

Rusk was in India today for the funeral of Prime Minister Nehru. It was reported by authoritative sources that he intended to go from there to Bangkok for talks with officials of Thailand.

He will be joined in Thailand, it was understood, by Asst. Secretary of State William P. Bundy who flew to London last night for urgent talks with British officials.

★ ★ ★

Bundy told newsmen in London the threat of a Communist takeover in Asia "is a matter we have all been watching with great concern."

Bundy was meeting with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler for the first of several days of talks on Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

Seek to Block New Outbreak of Violence

Governor Orders Essex Plant Closed, Prohibits Picketing

HILLSDALE (AP) — National Guard troops rolled into strike-torn Hillsdale today after Gov. Romney declared the city in a "state of emergency."

The first troopers among 230 called to duty moved in to patrol against any renewal of violence.

Some 300 demonstrators threw rocks and virtually stormed the Hillsdale jail last night to protest the arrest of three pickets.

Romney, acting on a plea from the city's mayor, also ordered the strike-plagued Essex Wire Corp. plant shut down, except for skeleton maintenance crews, for an indefinite period.

★ ★ ★

Except for police officers and troops, Romney said no one will be permitted firearms in this city of 7,629 in southeastern lower Michigan.

BARS PICKETING

A third part of the governor's order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage" in Hillsdale, but it leaves government in the hands of local officials.

Romney said Mayor C. Aubrey Paul of Hillsdale was informed of the order and "he has indicated informally it appears to him to be adequate."

Romney acted in Lansing after a telegraphic plea from Paul for martial law.

★ ★ ★

Beforehand, the governor conferred with State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard.

★ ★ ★

The governor said his order will remain in effect "as long as people and property are in danger" and that guards at the strike - bound plant will be disarmed.

PRODUCTION HALT

He ordered production stopped and banned picketing.

"Without this action," Romney told newsmen, "there is a likelihood of violence of an unknown extent."

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies from neighboring counties came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police last night.

Nehru Cremated as Millions Mourn

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Jawaharlal Nehru, a single red rose pinned as usual to his long white Sherwani coat and a garland of jasmine around his neck, was cremated today on the banks of the sacred Jamnu River.

The cremation followed a vast outpouring of grief and affection for the first and only prime minister of India. Two persons were killed and 12 injured in the crush of thousands battling for a place from which they could view the body before the funeral cortege left the prime minister's residence.

Scores of women climbed the high spiked iron fence surrounding the garden of the residence when the stampede broke out.

Police rushed in, forced the crowds back, and restored order. Many fainted in the crush of bodies and the stifling heat that engulfed New Delhi today.

Police said one of those overcome by the heat at the cremation ceremony was the wife of an ambassador. She was not identified.

★ ★ ★

Nehru's 15-year-old grandson, Sanjoy, ignited the funeral pyre at 4:37 p.m. (6:07 a.m. Pontiac time) more than three hours after the procession left the prime minister's residence six miles away.

Before the pyre was lighted, relatives and dignitaries had covered the body with sticks of fragrant sandalwood and flowers.

CAB Backs City Airline Service Cut

A Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) examiner recommended yesterday that North Central Airlines (NCA) service be dropped at Pontiac and two other Michigan cities.

Examiner Ralph L. Wiser recommended that NCA be allowed to delete Pontiac, Cadillac-Reed City and Port Huron from its routes due to low patronage of NCA flights from the three cities.

His recommendation will become effective in 30 days unless petitions requesting a review are filed by the involved cities and are granted by the CAB.

City Attorney William A. Ewart, on learning of Wiser's recommendation this morning, said he thought "there wouldn't be much chance of reversing the decision.

"This comes after a lengthy hearing by the CAB," Ewart noted. "I honestly don't see how we can expect the federal government to allow air service which it subsidizes to continue where patronage ranks so low."

POOREST SHOWING

Wiser said Pontiac and the other two cities "are among those making the poorest showing on the nation's air map."

He said a CAB sampling survey in 1962 ranked Pontiac 532nd in traffic volume (passengers) among 546 cities receiving air service.

Port Huron ranked 500th and Cadillac-Reed City, 498th.

NCA began offering regular airline service at Pontiac Municipal Airport in December 1960. At that time, the criteria established by the CAB for keeping airliner service here was the "use it or lose it" policy setting a minimum requirement of five outbound passengers per day.

ONE MONTH

NCA patronage equaled or surpassed that requirement during only one month in 3½ years.

Saturn Superbooster Lifts Unmanned Craft

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — An unmanned model of the Apollo moonship was rocketed into orbit by a Saturn I superbooster today in the first of a long series of launchings aimed at manned lunar landings.

Although the rocket and spacecraft are only early versions of the vehicles which will carry astronauts to the moon, the flight was an impressive start for the $20-billion Apollo program.

Within two years, advanced models of both are scheduled to lift three-man Apollo teams into earth orbit to prepare for moon trips late in this decade.

★ ★ ★

The huge Saturn I, scoring its sixth straight flight success, rumbled skyward at 12:08 p.m. EST under the tremendous force of 1.5-million pounds of thrust generated by the world's greatest known rocket power plant.

★ ★ ★

Exact orbital figures were not known immediately. The spacecraft, with the second stage and an instrument unit still attached, was to orbit on a course ranging from 110 to 140 miles high.

Bus Loss Prospect Stirs Pontiac Leader

"It can't happen . . . but it could."

That was the initial reaction of Monroe M. Osmun, president of the Downtown Pontiac Business Association (DPBA), to news yesterday that Pontiac might be without bus service July 1.

"Bus transportation is as important as sidewalks and streets," Osmun said, speaking more as a downtown merchant than a DPBA official spokesman.

City officials were notified in a letter late Tuesday that Pontiac Transit Corp. didn't intend to renew its annual contract - agreement with the city when the agreement expires June 30.

City Manager John F. Reineck said late yesterday that he had contacted Pontiac Transit Manager Glen Crawford in Chicago, where he is attending an American Transit Association convention.

"Mr. Crawford will meet with myself, the city attorney and other city officials at City Hall Monday," Reineck said.

"The meeting is set for 2 p.m.," he noted, "and there's not much else I can say until we've had a chance to sit down and talk this over."

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. was unavailable for comment.

Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce officials were in Lansing at another conference.

Osmun said he thought the former bus transportation committee should be reactivated, or a new one set up, to "find a way to keep bus service in Pontiac.

"I think there will have to be some sort of subsidy paid the bus company. So many people depend on bus transportation to get to work."

The city has paid a $420 per month subsidy to Pontiac Transit since last July, but the company's financial statements still show it is operating in the red.

Chance of Showers on Memorial Day

The sun's planning a vacation Memorial Day, too.

★ ★ ★

Fair skies with mild temperatures will stay through tomorrow, but Saturday will be cloudy and cool with a chance of a few showers.

★ ★ ★

Tonight the mercury will dip to the 37 to 44 range. Tomorrow it will rise to a high of 60 to 66.

Winds are northwesterly at five to 15 miles per hour. They will become southeasterly tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

The lowest temperature before 8 a.m. today was 42. At 2 p.m. the thermometer recorded 62 in downtown Pontiac.

2 Waterfronts Hit by Fires

N. J., Virginia Areas Damaged by Blazes

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP) — A wind-whipped fire destroyed a quarter of a mile of Hudson River waterfront last night but appeared to be contained today, police said.

Much debris was still aflame, but the fire was "pretty well knocked down," police Lt. Edward Carroll said.

While the fire roared out of control it destroyed five 500-foot piers, a huge unused coal trestle and five floating bridges.

Fire also broke out today on the waterfront at Portsmouth, Va., and heavily damaged three old piers and two vessels before it was brought under control.

Asst. Fire Chief Clarence W. George said the fire, of undetermined origin, started shortly before midnight aboard the former Chesapeake Bay ferry Accomack, which was being converted by Tolchester Lines Inc. for use as an excursion vessel.

FLAMES SPREAD

The flames spread from the Accomack to an adjacent pier.

Within an hour the blaze leaped to two nearby piers.

The fire was brought under control about 3:30 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The piers were still burning in several places at 7 a.m., however, and dense smoke hung over the waterfront.

PIER OWNERS

The three piers are owned by the Virginia State Ports Authority.

Damage to the Accomack was estimated at approximately $300,000.

About 300 firemen and a dozen fireboats, obscured by thick smoke, battled the New Jersey fire during the night.

There was no official estimate of damage but fire department officers spoke in terms of millions of dollars.

MINOR INJURIES

Several firemen suffered minor injuries.

Two were treated at a hospital for burns and released.

A short while later the pier was enveloped in flames.

The fire, reported at 9:51 last night, began in an old stockyard of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Sixth Street and spread south for five blocks. Winds, estimated by Woods at up to 30 m.p.h., fanned flames from pier to pier.

Romney signed the bill as part of an agreement in which Democrats, in return, would give immediate effect to a primary postponement bill.

The fatal attack occurred while he was sleeping at his home at 1249 Featherstone. He was home resting after suffering a seizure that morning in his office in the County Building at 1 Lafayette.

An Air Force gunner, Cremer was badly wounded in the European Theater.

From then on, helping other veterans and their survivors became his life's work.

Cremer made frequent trips to Washington, D.C. on behalf of veterans where new legislation and changing policies were concerned.

It was on one of these trips in 1962 that he became one of the first civilians to meet astronaut Lt. Col. John H. Glenn after his historic orbiting of the earth.

Last Year to Date 2

Dead is Leslie C. Motley, 20, of 291 Lansing.

Sheriff's deputies said Motley and Lloyd Bartholomew, 21, were pushing a picnic table to shore that had been thrown into the lake when a high wind came up.

The pair, assigned to Camp Brighton by the state prison, were then ordered to return to shore by Orman Tyson, foreman of the conservation detail to which they were assigned.

Motley who was serving a 1-to-2 year sentence for unlawful use of a car, swam to shore but Bartholomew developed the cramp and called for help. Motley swam back to aid him.

★ ★ ★

Two nearby fishermen also heard the cry for help and headed their boat toward the two men.

SANK NEAR BOAT

The fishermen, Jack Maki, 30, of Detroit, and Fred Cropi, 20, of Allen Park, managed to bring Bartholomew aboard. Motley sank about 25 feet from their boat as it was headed to his aid.

The body was recovered by sheriff's deputy Medward Tessier at 2:20 p.m. in 20-feet of water, 40 feet from shore.

Service for Motley will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home with burial in Elkland Cemetery, Cass City.

Rededication Is Planned for Soldiers' Monument

BIRMINGHAM — Rededication ceremonies for the Old Soldiers' Monument in front of the Municipal Building will highlight Memorial Day observances here.

The monument was moved from Greenwood Cemetery as part of Birmingham's centennial celebration.

It was erected in 1869 by the citizens of Troy, Bloomfield, Royal Oak and Southfield townships to the memory of their soldiers who died during the Civil War.

The veined marble monument stood until the late 1890s where Woodward and Maple now intersect.

★ ★ ★

It now will honor all who have given their lives in the service of their country.

WINDOW SILLS

Added to the base of the monument will be window sills reportedly marked "From the Kennesaw Battlefields of Georgia."

The sills, taken from a house recently demolished to make way for a new store, caught the eye of James K. Flack, centennial history and heritage committee chairman.

Flack still is attempting to learn the story behind the sills, as well as that of pipes marked "Andersonville Prison" taken from the same house.

Taking part in the 15-minute rededication ceremony at 9 a.m. will be members of the American Legion posts from the four townships which originally erected the monument for $1,600.

PARTICIPATING POSTS

They are Southfield Post No. 407, Charles Edwards Post No. 14, David E. Cleary Post No. 167, Frank Wendland Post No. 153, City of Ferndale Post No. 330 and Berkley Post No. 374.

Flack will review the history of the monument and the Franklin Village Band, under direction of Dr. Conrad R. Lam, will perform.

After a wreath is placed on the monument, a three-volley salute will be fired and taps played.

★ ★ ★

Rev. Howard E. Bull of the Pilgrim Congregational Church will deliver the invocation and Hugh McHugh of 608 Buffner, historian of the Charles Edwards Post, the benediction.

Cost of Living Inches Higher During April

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs inched up one-tenth of 1 per cent in April, the Labor Department reported today.

But the Bureau of Labor Statistics said price increases so far this year were lower than in the previous two years and indicated "a very stable price situation."

The April rise took the consumer price index to 107.8 meaning it took $10.78 to purchase items that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period, base years for the index.

Recreation, rent, and medical costs were largely responsible for the April increase. Food prices remained steady on the average.

Medical costs were up three-tenths of 1 per cent from March.

Although food prices were generally unchanged, they were still 1.3 per cent higher than in April a year ago.

Car Accident Kills State Youth in Indiana

U.N. Force Accepted

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)— Cambodia declared today it would accept United Nations "controllers" to help avoid further incidents along the 600-mile frontier between Cambodia and South Viet Nam.

Cambodian Foreign Minister Huot Sambath told the U. N. Security Council, however, that Cambodia would not contribute to the financing of such a U. N. group.

He said his government still stood behind its previous position that the best way to deal with the border friction was to call a new meeting of the 14-nation Geneva Conference to guarantee the neutrality and territorial integrity of Cambodia.

Sambath spoke after South Viet Nam's Ambassador Vu Van Mau had urged the council to create a U. N. police force to patrol the border.

Top representatives of the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia walked out of the council chamber during Mau's speech, just as they did last Monday.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko and Czechoslovak Delegate Milos Vejvoda stalked from the chamber as soon as the South Vietnamese representative took the flour.

The issue before the council was a Cambodian charge of aggression against the United States and South Viet Nam in connection with border incidents. Until today, Cambodia had joined with the Soviet Union in opposing the idea of a U. N. force.

Mau told the council that his government wanted an international force much more limited in scope and size than the U.N. forces in the Middle East and the Congo. The function of the proposed group, he said, would be restricted to keeping watch on the border and reporting violations.

British Train Wreck Kills 3 Children

STOCKPORT, England (AP) — An excursion for 300 schoolchildren ended in horror today with a train derailment which killed three and injured more than 20.

The train jumped the tracks as it approached the village station of Cheadle Hulme two miles south of Stockport.

Six of the eight coaches rolled off the line, demolishing a bridge and trapping many screaming young holidayers in their seats.

WALKED OUT

The International Union of Electrical Workers walked out of Essex Wire three months ago today to support demands they were making in seeking a first contract at the plant.

The IUE displaced the Teamsters Union as bargaining agent in a National Labor Relations Board election and among its demands was one that Essex meet here wages it pays in Indiana plants.

The company conceded rates $2.43 an hour here were 40 to 60 cents below the Indiana average.

In summing up last night's violence, Romney said at Lansing:

"Two felony arrests, two misdemeanor arrests and a juvenile arrest were made. This was at a time when a shot was fired near a large crowd of people near the Essex Wire plant.

250 PEOPLE

"Later a crowd of 250 people could not be dispersed from in front of the jail until the lesser offenders were released on bond.

"State police in the radius of 100 miles, sheriff's officers from four counties and city police were unable to control the crowd.

"Stoning and throwing of eggs, flattening of tires on police vehicles and broken windows in the county jail resulted."

★ ★ ★

The crowd finally dispersed as midnight approached.

The trouble began about 7 p.m. with the march of demonstrators to the jail from the strike scene at Essex Wire Corp.

The crowd was angered by the arrest of three persons, one of them a striker's wife.

The demonstrators stoned the jail in protest and police began waving their nightsticks to restore order.

After about two hours, the crowd had become generally peaceful.

Friends Honor Road Official

Over 400 friends of Willis Brewer gathered at the Pontiac Elks Temple last night to honor him with a banquet for his past service with the Oakland County Road Commission.

Probate Court Judge Norman R. Barnard traced Sylvan Lake Supervisor Brewer's colorful career as a leading Democrat from the time he served as a senatorial clerk in New York State.

"Oakland County was indeed fortunate when Willis decided to settle here in 1919," said Judge Barnard.

"While serving the county he made possible construction of many facilities including the Tuberculosis Sanatorium, County Medical Care Facility and, more recently, the Children's Village units."

Last night's party was arranged by the road commissioners and commission employes.

Rush Judy Garland to Asian Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)— American Broadcasting Co. correspondent Stanley Rich reported in a broadcast from Hong Kong today that singer Judy Garland had been rushed to a Hong Kong hospital unconscious and in a critical condition.

Rich said oxygen was administered to Miss Garland and that doctors worked over her for two hours after her arrival at the hospital. She was reported out of danger afterward but still on the critical list, Rich said.

The nature of Miss Garland's trouble was not given.

Viet 'Kill Ratio' Worries U.S.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — American officials were concerned today over figures showing an extremely low "kill ratio" in the Viet-Namese guerrilla war during the past week.

U. S. military spokesmen said South Vietnamese government forces lost 135 dead while killing 150 Communist Viet Cong guerrilla fighters in the week which ended Saturday.

The figures did not include a 28-man government platoon wiped out Sunday less than 30 miles north of Saigon.

Relief parties found the bodies of 20 of the men yesterday. The other eight were listed as missing.

The "kill ratio" is the relation of government dead to guerrilla dead. Government Forces usually kill almost three times as many Viet Cong guerrillas as they lose.

GOVERNMENT LOSSES

Government troops also lost 260 weapons, including about 20 mortars and machine guns. The Viet Cong lost only 55 weapons, including 2 of the heavier kind.

The low kill ratio and lopsided loss of weapons resulted from a number of small clashes rather than any big Communist victory.

Nearly 500 Viet Cong "incidents" were listed during the week and 60 large-scale government operations. This is about average for recent months.

* * *

Government squads and platoons took part in about 6,100 "small unit actions," including security patrols, and clashed with the guerrillas about 100 times.

Truce Seen Near in Make-Believe, but Not Bloodless, War

BLYTHE, Calif. (AP) — This could be the day of decision for 100,000 fighting men spread across 13 million acres in a make-believe, but not bloodless, war over the Colorado River.

Peace feelers have been put out by both mythical nations in Operation Desert Strike.

And reports are growing that directors of the operation want to avoid any conflict with civilian highway traffic over the Memorial Day weekend.

If so, today or Friday may bring an end to the year's largest military maneuver, a multi million dollar training exercise that has cost eight lives directly, 24 indirectly.

Twelve of the 32 have died since the war games began May 16, but only one of them was caused by a weapon and that was an apparent suicide, officers of the maneuver said.

* * *

Latest reported casualty came at noon Wednesday, when the pilot of an Air Force F100 jet fighter was killed in a crash near Vidal Junction, Calif.

Officials said 1st Lt. Peter H. Trotogott, 24, of Vancouver, Wash., was flying a simulated strafing mission near Parker Dam when the crash occurred.

Trotogott's death was the third in an aviation accident since May 16 and the sixth since forces began gathering here in February. Trotogott leaves his parents, Peter H. Trotogott and Mrs. Evelyn T. Morrow, both of Vancouver.

WATER RIGHTS

It all began because Calonia —on the California side of the Colorado — and its mythical neighbor, Nezona, on the Arizona side, were feuding over rights to the river's precious water.

On the night of May 15, Calonia stopped arguing and sent troops by helicopter to occupy Parker and Davis dams, in a demilitarized zone supervised by a mythical international body, the Organization of Western States.

* * *

The following day Nezona declared war and invaded Calonia.

Over the past two weeks, air and ground units of the U.S. Strike Command, formed in 1961 to give this nation a striking force ready for limited war anywhere in the world, have been split into two forces, play-acting like two nations in mortal struggle.

CALONIAN UNITS

Under the Calonian banner were the 1st Armored Division of Fort Hood, Tex., the 101st Airborne Division of Fort Campbell, Ky., and the 2nd Brigade of the 40th Armored Division of the California National Guard.

Under Nezona's banner were the mechanized 5th Infantry Division of Fort Carson, Colo., the 258th Brigade of the Arizona National Guard, the 2nd Armored Division and the 191st Infantry Brigade of Army Reserves from Arizona, New Mexico and Nevada.

Nezona forces established bridgeheads across the river and took Parker and Davis dams.

* * *

Calonia launched a huge counteroffensive which recaptured Davis Dam and placed Parker Dam under heavy siege.

At the moment the battleline stretches along the Colorado in a virtual stalemate, with each nation about where it was when the war began.

* * *

This looks like a good time for a truce, and the Organization of Western States has begun pressing Calonia and Nezona to end their war.

* * *

It's hard to predict the outcome of even a mythical war, but this one has to end by Saturday, so the 11,500 reserves and National Guards involved can get back to their desks.

Will New Figure Arise to Challenge Mao?

Nehru's Death Leaves Asia Power Vacuum

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—In their middle years, they were friends who influenced the lives of more than a billion humans. In their old age, Jawaharlal Nehru and Mao Tze-tung glared at each other in undisguised hatred across the icy Himalayas.

Now that India's Nehru is dead, will a new force of a new individual arise in Asia to challenge Mao?

A few months ago, Mao and his associates called Nehru a prey of "wretchedness and degradation," a "rumor - monger, renegade and pawn of U.S. imperialism."

★ ★ ★

Nehru retorted that China was "a militant adherent of the cult of war" whose "avowed objective is to overthrow by war and violence the legally constituted governments of the independent peoples of Asia and Africa."

The two men towered over the East. Their ideas of how nations should live, and die, left a powerful impression on millions far beyond their own populous borders.

Both revolutionaries, they reached their goals in vastly different ways.

Cambridge-educated, a scholar and a Brahmin, Nehru joined with Gandhi to win independence for India through passive resistance and civil disobedience.

Influenced by Gandhi's ideals imbued with British traditions, Nehru chose socialism and parliament democracy for India when it achieved nationhood in 1947.

Mao, a thinker-revolutionary, changed the history of China through protracted war against the Kuomintang of Chiang Kai-shek. A fervent Communist, there was no question over the future of China in 1949 when he came to power. It adopted all the trappings of Marxism.

In the early days of the Chinese People's Republic, Mao sang a tune of peaceful coexistence. When Nehru went to China in 1954, he and Mao called each other brother and pledged undying friendship.

Nehru's disillusionment began during the Chinese-Indian border disputes of the late 1950s. It deepened as Mao crushed the Tibetan independence movement in 1959 and invaded India in 1962.

Before the invasion, Nehru stood firmly as the leader of the neutralist nations. This image was battered after he accepted American and Soviet aid to meet the Chinese

Predicted Death Toll Dims Holiday Spirit

The National Safety Council sounds a chilling note for a multitude of Americans contemplating motoring pleasure over the Memorial Day weekend.

According to the Council, nearly 500 highway deaths will occur during the period beginning this evening and ending at midnight Sunday. Normally, there would be about 360 traffic casualties during the same period.

It is also estimated that between 19,000 and 23,000 persons will suffer injuries in traffic accidents over the holiday.

With 83 million motor vehicles expected to be traveling the Nation's highways during the 80-hour period, while rolling up a total of 8.5 billion miles, it behooves every driver to observe to the letter every safeguard known to the road.

★ ★ ★

But the best safety rule for holiday driving is: Don't drive if you don't have to. With so many less-hazardous days available for automobiling, why not spend this holiday restfully and enjoyably at home, safe from the perils of jammed highways?

Will Science Produce Automatic Man?

What are the heavy thinkers trying to do to us? A chemist is suggesting that we ought to be learning while we sleep by "utilizing the subconscious."

★ ★ ★

Scientists have come up with a scheme to attach little motors to a man and thus endow him with increased muscular power so he may be able to lift more and work harder.

Doctors are forecasting that a new miracle liquid may be able to turn tired, old faces into fresh ones and hide our ugliness and age with a chemical mask.

So we face the intriguing prospect of looking like zombies, competing with heavy machinery for a living, and never enjoying a moment's respite from deep thinking.

It almost makes you wonder if the old lady may not have had something when she said: "If the good Lord had meant for us to fly, he'd have given us wings."

Massachusetts Ballot a Voting Gain for State

The "Massachusetts Ballot" law just passed by the State Legislature has a lot to recommend it.

Already adopted by 17 other states, the act eliminates the straight-ticket voting method of merely throwing the lever on the head of the party slate.

But like so many other concepts associated with human behavior, this one setting up new voting procedure is not perfect. There are two sides to it.

★ ★ ★

In one camp are the staunch advocates of a 100 per cent two-party system. They believe that the electorate should identify itself with the principles of one party or the other and then go all the way with it.

Such stalwarts have little time for "independents." And they feel that the voter should not be deprived of his prerogative of casting a solid party ballot with one fell swoop.

Countering this, is the growing tendency among voters to vote not so much for the party as for "the man." In recent times, moreover, there has been so little difference between the philosophies of the two parties as to pretty much nullify the appeal of party allegiance.

Proponents of the new law think that the enforced selection by voters of each individual candidate, regardless of party, will lead to more interest in and evaluation of all aspirants for public office. Hence, more intelligent voting will result, with a gradual upgrading of those seeking voter preferment.

★ ★ ★

We go along with this thinking, and commend our lawmakers on the passage of a constructive and progressive piece of legislation.

Congress Vexed by Succession

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Congress is still wrestling with the long-standing national confusion about presidential succession and disability, and the end is not in sight.

MARLOW

Two former presidents, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman, and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon have agreed something should be done but not exactly on how. There has been wide disagreement in Congress.

Earlier this year Truman and Nixon suggested the Electoral College elect a new vice president to fill a vacancy in that office. Eisenhower this week had a different idea.

He suggested the president be empowered to name a vice president if there isn't one, provided the man he picks is approved by both houses of Congress.

★ ★ ★

The American Bar Association had already recommended that procedure be followed through a constitutional amendment. A Senate subcommittee, working on the problem for months, feels the same way.

EXPECTED TO SUGGEST

It was expected to suggest that this be done. But a constitutional amendment needs approval by two-thirds of both houses of Congress and by three-fourths of the states.

The trouble here is at the start, for while the Senate may approve one plan, the House may prefer another. But that is only part of the problem. The other is the question of presidential disability.

How does a vice president take over if a president is disabled, or how does he take over if a president is disabled but doesn't know it or won't or can't admit it?

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower and Nixon and, after them, Presidents John F. Kennedy and Johnson had an understanding; there was no law covering this. Now President Johnson has a similar agreement with the man next in line to succeed him because there is no vice president. House Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass.

LACK OF LAW

Nixon said the arrangements worked out by Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson in case of their disability — letters to the men next in line to succeed them — lack the force of law and would be inadequate if a dispute arose.

Under a law passed in 1947, if the president dies, and there is no vice president, next in line to succeed is the House speaker, right now, McCormack, and then the Senate's president pro tempore, right now, Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.

The Senate subcommittee is expected to recommend a constitutional amendment covering both the succession to the presidency, explained above, and the problem of disability this way:

When a president says in writing he's too disabled to carry out his job, the vice president would become acting president until the president declared his disability ended.

If the president didn't make his disability known, the vice president with approval by a majority of the Cabinet could declare the president disabled and assume the powers and duties but not the office of president.

If the president disputed this act of his vice president and cabinet, Congress would have to decide by a two-thirds vote of both houses for the vice president to continue as acting president. Otherwise, the president would resume his powers and duties.

David Lawrence Says:

Barry Victim of Bad Reporting

WASHINGTON — Sen. Goldwater can certainly point a finger of blame at the unfortunate reporting job that was done over the weekend in telling the world that he favored the use of atomic bombs against the enemy in Viet Nam when he actually never made any such recommendation or proposal.

LAWRENCE

For immediately after the erroneous reports were widely publicized, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant issued a blistering attack aimed at Sen. Goldwater, and so did the Soviet ambassador at the United Nations, Nikolai T. Fedorenko.

What did Sen. Goldwater really say, and how did some of the press associations and newspapers report it?

First, it is important to examine the stenographic transcript issued by the American Broadcasting Company giving the verbatim answers that Sen. Goldwater made to Howard K. Smith on its program, "Issues and Answers," last Sunday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Goldwater had pointed out that the Red Chinese fighting in the Viet Nam peninsula have access to unlimited supplies plus those they have taken away from South Vietnamese troops.

SUPPLY ROUTES

He declared:

"We don't want to occupy any part of Southeast Asia. All we want to do is get this little war over with, and get our boys home and have peace over there and tell them that we are going to bomb the bridges, the roads and so forth and unless they accede to stopping strategic deliveries over those roads and railroads, that we can step it up.

★ ★ ★

"I think those people understand what we would be getting at, and we should be doing it."

NOT AS EASY

Mr. Smith then asked:

"Now a lot of supply lines seem to run in on the Laotian border, in any case, through jungles and along trails. How could you interdict those?"

Sen. Goldwater answered:

"Well, it is not as easy as it sounds, because these are not trails that are out in the open.

★ ★ ★

"I have been in these rain forests of Burma and South China. You are perfectly safe wandering through them as far as an enemy hurting you.

"There have been several suggestions made. I don't think we would use any of them. But defoliation of the forests by low-yield atomic weapons could well be done. When you remove the foliage, you remove the cover.

"The major supply lines though I think would have to be interdicted where they leave Red China, which is the Red River Valley above North Viet Nam and there, according to my studies of the geography, it would not be a difficult task to destroy those basic routes."

It was not surprising for the Soviet ambassador at the United Nations to denounce Sen. Goldwater as having "proposed" the use of low-yield atomic weapons in South Viet Nam and to call upon the United States government to condemn the "Goldwater proposal."

Adlai Stevenson, American ambassador to the U.N., argued in reply that neither Sen. Goldwater nor any other senator makes foreign policy, and added:

"He (Fedorenko) has not explained the military measures which the North Viet Nam regime, with the assistance of its powerful Communist allies, has been for many years taking in Laos and the republic of Viet Nam."

Bob Considine Says:

Flying X-15 Is Tough, According to Astronaut

NEW YORK—Astronaut Robert A. Rushworth, Major, USAF, is more or less unique among our spacemen.

Maj. Rushworth is one of the two astronauts who got Up There in a vehicle with wings. Maj. Bob White is the other. Each soared beyond 50 miles above earth, the somewhat arbitrary edge of space, in the X-15.

CONSIDINE

★ ★ ★

Bob was the speaker at an Air Force Association dinner, New York chapter, the other night, and had some arresting things to say about his type of flying.

He has made 20 X-15 flights, has plunged as high as 354,000 feet, believes (along with other pilots) that if the X-15 climbs to 500,000, it will return in fiery pieces.

★ ★ ★

He has the rare distinction of having traveled at the speed of one mile per second, and of landing at 200 miles an hour on the longest runway in the world —Edwards Air Force Base's 12-mile "strip," which is part concrete and mostly hard-packed clay.

★ ★ ★

The toughest chapters in an X-15 flight, Bob told us, are the first and last.

FALL OFF WING

There is the tension of turning on the rocket-like power as the stub-winged monster falls off the wing of the B-52 mother plane, and the shock of plunging backwards into the atmosphere as the aircraft, having run out of juice while still climbing, comes right back down tail first.

There is another jolt, emotional and material. That comes during the actual landing.

They come in on skids, which take the place of the main wheeled landing gear on most flying craft.

They come in with the nose as haughtily in the air as a 19th Century dowager facing a bum. Then, as speed dissipates, the nose wheel slams down.

SLAM-DOWN SHOCK

Each pilot hopes the X-15 (and himself) holds together under the slam-down shock.

One of Scott Crossfield's X-15's buckled like the camel who undertook that last straw, and he spun harrowingly for a long time.

Maj. Rushworth and other X-15'ers experience about three minutes of weightlessness at the top of their rise.

He, like everyone else I've talked to who has known zero gravity, says it is an incomparably pleasant and restful experience.

Asked him what it will be like for the average passenger on the supersonic transport, when it comes.

"Well," the major said, "I'd say that as a passenger you'll only be able to go to the rest room once during a flight across the country, or to Europe.

"You'll be pulling about two G's (twice your weight) for the first half-hour as you climb to 70,000 feet or beyond.

★ ★ ★

"Everybody will have to remain seated and strapped in. Not even the stewardesses could walk up the aisle against that.

SMOOTH HALF-HOUR

"Then you'll have the smoothest half-hour you've ever had in a plane. There will be no suggestion of speed, though you may be making 2,000 miles an hour. That will be when you eat and move around.

"It would be better and safer if the plane had no windows. Without windows it would be stronger, and, besides, what is there to see from that height?

"As for the descent, you'll pull another two or more G's, so you'll be in your seat.

"It's going to be for the businessman; I'd think, rather than the family."

Any changes the U. S. Government makes in civil rights is unconstitutional and a violation of democracy. It was written into our laws that states shall be governed by their own laws and governors shall rule over states rights.

Continue Debate on Waterford Issues

Letter writers "Voiceless With Indignation but Relieved by The Pontiac Press" and "Waterford Taxpayer" mention voting against the Waterford Library. What are these people thinking of when they vote against something like this?

They say they want the best possible education for their children, but then vote "no" on more money for our schools. They want us to learn, but won't give us the chance. I am an avid user of the CAI Library and every time I'm there, there is usually a fellow student checking out books, too. We're thankful for even this small library but will be even happier when the new Waterford library opens.

INTERESTED KETTERING SENIOR
AND FIFTH HOUR FAN OF MR. COLEMAN'S

I read continually that Waterford Township voters turned down a library. In 1959 the vote was tremendously in favor of a library, but the proposition to levy a tax to pay for it was turned down. In July 1963 the CAI Community Library was declared a public library to be staffed with volunteers until an operating budget could be approved. In September 1963 at a public budget hearing a budget was approved. It was also decided to put aside surplus sales tax funds returned by the state toward a library building. In January of this year a librarian was hired, we received 12,000 books from the state library and we became members in a contract with Pontiac so that all Waterford residents could use the Pontiac library free of charge. None of this has cost the taxpayers one red cent. We voted that we wanted a library without taxation and we got it. Now what is the gripe?

It is all well and good to speak your piece, but be sure of the issues before sounding off.

A LIBRARY BOOSTER

Mr. Kenneth Squiers was quoted in The Press as saying that residents who choose to tie into the Waterford water system can pay a fee of $450 and future residents must tie in and pay $450 cash. On calling his office I find the price is $450 connection fee, plus $125 to tap into your property line, plus your cost for trenching and installation. The cost Mr. Squiers sets forth is only about half the actual cost.

I would also like to answer "Bud's" VOP letter about Trustee John Coleman. I attended my first township meeting and listened to Coleman make several "blasts" at individuals who had Supervisor Seeterlin's permission to speak. Mr. Coleman's chief complaint was that he had better things to do than listen to the residents and that if they didn't like the way he did things they should run for the trustee's office. Waterford people should attend at least one meeting.

Concerned About Waterford Taxation

It appears the Waterford Township Board will ask approval for an additional two-mill levy to continue for a period of ten years which "would provide police and fire department personnel to meet anticipated growth of the township" and provide for construction of four fire stations and a police station. Supervisor Seeterlin and his cohorts evidently do not intend to wait to see what growth the township will have, but want to collect during the next ten years for something we may not even need.

What happens if the taxpayers vote against this deal? I understand the board can again go over the voters' heads and levy the increase anyway.

Businessmen Form Amateur Groups

Don't Criticize Musician---May Be Boss

By PHILIP J. KEUPER
Written for Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—The next time you go to a charity dance or an amateur jazz session, don't be too critical of the music. The trombone player could be your boss.

The piano player could be a surgeon, the clarinet player an engineer and the trumpet player a Wall Street broker.

Corporation executives and other business and professional men today make up a growing share of the 23 million adult Americans who play musical instruments, says the American Music Conference. The main reason: Relaxation.

Amateur musical groups range from the Chicago Business Men's Orchestra, founded in 1921 by an amateur boxer who liked to play the string bass, to the Powerhouse Five Plus Many, a New York City area Dixieland jazz group headed by John G. Powers, president of Prentice-Hall Inc., a large publishing firm.

RELAXATION

To Powers and many other executives, playing a musical instrument is the best way to leave office worries behind.

"When we get going, everything else is forgotten," Powers says. "In fact, the question is not when our band will play, but when it will stop."

★ ★ ★

Like most businessmen who double as amateur musicians, Powers learned to play an instrument as a youngster. A clarinet and saxophone player, he helped put himself through college and law school playing at dances. Unlike most businessmen, he kept on playing.

"Almost everywhere we play," he says, "businessmen come up and say: 'Gosh, I envy you fellows so much. I'm going to get my horn out of the closet and start playing again.' And they do, too."

FOR CHARITY

The Powerhouse Five Plus Many, like most businessmen groups, plays chiefly for charity functions.

Another businessmen's Dixieland jazz group calls itself The Oldest Permanent Floating Jazz Band East of the Mississippi. It was started 12 years ago and its members include a Wall Street lawyer, a Wall Street broker and advertising executives.

★ ★ ★

A Dixieland group in Tulsa, Okla., calls itself "Rare Bach and Let 'em Have it Boys." In Minneapolis, brokerage firm employes formed a band called "The Convertible Notes."

In Baltimore, an advertising agency has set up a music room where employes, single or in groups, can take a "music break."

Today, according to the National Industrial Recreation Association, more than 1,600 groups of all sizes are sponsored by American business firms. Many play at company meetings and conventions.

CLASSICAL MUSIC

Not all amateur music groups play jazz or popular music. Amateur classical music groups include the Doctors Orchestral Society of New York, the Oak Ridge, Tenn., Symphony, the Los Angeles Doctors' Symphony, the Cleveland Heights Suburban Symphony and the Central Utah Symphony.

Dr. Maurice Yuppa, director of the 100-member Brooklyn Doctors' Symphony, says music relieves the strain of practicing medicine as no other hobby.

★ ★ ★

"It is good therapy," he says. "It keeps you from getting into a rut. For a few hours, your mind is completely off everything but the music."

Ike Addresses Grade School

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower flew by helicopter from his farm at Gettysburg to Levittown for a surprise visit to a new elementary school bearing his name.

During a question-and-answer session with the 684 pupils and their teacher, a girl asked him what was the hardest thing he had to do as president.

"I believe the toughest thing . . . was sending soldiers to Little Rock to make people obey the court order (integrating a high school)," he replied. "This was a very sad thing — that people could be so shortsighted."

Reunion Ends 5-Year Struggle

A West Bloomfield woman was happily entertaining her niece today after a five-year fight.

Finally, yesterday she arrived here from Poland, and Mrs. Dobski, who left Poland in 1913, met the niece she had never seen.

Californians Seem Indifferent to Candidates

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

LOS ANGELES — Those curious people, the Californians, seem to be displaying a great indifference to the vital business of picking a Republican presidential nominee in their June 2 primary.

★ ★ ★

The concentration of news media personnel in this former center of movie-making would indicate that something important is going to happen in next Tuesday's primary voting. This contest pits Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. against New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—and the assembled noncandidate aspirants for the nomination to oppose President Johnson in November.

★ ★ ★

Ordinarily, a chance to help choose a party nominee would exhilarate the residents of almost any state. It did exhilarate the Republican voters of Oregon on May 15, when Rockefeller won a victory the pollsters had failed to forecast.

Confronted with the possibility they may be able to veto one of the two challengers for the nomination, California's voters seem to be replying with a political yawn to the campaigns of Goldwater and Rockefeller for the state's 86 GOP presidential nominating delegates.

BILLBOARDS

A drive down California's freeways discloses billboards extolling virtues of the opposing presidential candidates. But offfreeway stops with average citizens registered a minimum of interest

Neither of the two contestants has seemed able to engender the kind of enthusiasm the late President John F. Kennedy generated in the 1960 primary contest for the Democratic nomination.

★ ★ ★

The cliche being passed among politicians was that the crowds didn't listen to what Goldwater had to say and applauded him vigorously, while they listened to Rockefeller but didn't applaud.

This perverse attitude on the part of California voters left political forecasters nonplussed, despite state polls indicating Rockefeller now is enjoying a surprising substantial lead over the Arizona senator.

CAN'T JUDGE

But no expert could judge from the reception of the two candidates how their campaigns really were going.

The taxi driver vote—always regarded as somewhat indicative—added up to this and that. A sizable number of the knights of the quick stop remembered Richard M. Nixon as a fellow who did rather well for the Republicans in 1960 and might do even better this year. Many of these drivers, however, looked upon President Johnson as being unbeatable.

★ ★ ★

In the campaign rallies, the "We want Barry" chant boomed out over full convention halls. The bright lights burned down on the gray-haired candidate from Arizona. The pretty girls in their cowboy hats marched about. But there was no convincing air of victory in all of the maneuverings.

In contrast, Rockefeller, his hair awry, signed autographs in a group pressing around him and stepped onto a platform to declaim his views earnestly and somewhat monotonously. There were seldom any "We want Rocky" shouts. But the New York governor's campaign, nevertheless, had acquired an atmosphere of victory that seemed to be lacking in his opponent's.

It took Johann Gutenberg five years to complete the task of printing the first Bible from movable type in 1456.

'Auto Boom Ahead in U.S.'

Cities Must Prepare, Says AMC President

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors president Roy Abernethy, predicting a "car population" growing at a faster rate than the nation's human population, said Wednesday American cities must plan in the future for more freeways and parking areas.

Abernethy, addressing the American Association of Airport Executives, said that by 1980 one of every two Americans will own a car compared to the 1960 ratio of one in every 2.9 persons.

★ ★ ★

He said that within the three-year period starting in 1964 the U. S. auto industry should sell more than 20 million cars. He said this would be unprecedented. Within 10 years there will be 90 million car owners, he said.

Abernethy predicted a good economic future at the end of the current decade.

MORE PROSPERITY

"We will be more prosperous. Our economy will be more vital and dynamic than it is even now," he said.

The airport men's organization gave Edward Colby of Lubbock, Texas, its highest honor, the "president's award." Colby was cited for contributions to the association.

★ ★ ★

Vincent A. Carson of Livingston, N. J., was elevated association president. Arven H Saunders of Washington, D. C., was named president-elect.

In D-Day Ceremonies

To Visit 'Own' Grave

MUSKEGON (AP)—Joe Beyrle says he is looking forward to visiting a French grave once marked with his name.

The World War II veteran is one of 10 men returning to St. Mare English, France for ceremonies commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Normandy landings on June 6, 1944.

A memorial and museum are to be dedicated.

Beyrle and his comrades were members of the 101st Airborne Division.

★ ★ ★

The night before D-Day, they parachuted into France on a sabotage mission.

RECAPTURED

Beyrle was captured, escaped briefly in the darkness, and then was retaken when he stumbled into a German machine gun emplacement.

He spent he rest of the war being shuttled between prison camps. For a time he was officially listed as dead.

The mixup involved a German spy who apparently used Beyrle's identification tags.

★ ★ ★

The spy was killed and his body buried as that of Beyrle. His relatives were notified at Muskegon.

"There was a time when I thought I'd never want to see that place again," said Beyrle, now married and a supervisor at the Brunswick Corp. "But today I'm looking forward to going."

Baton Rouge Parks Opened to Negroes

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — City-parish recreation and park facilities were integrated without incident yesterday.

Negroes played golf at two city courses and tennis at city park.

A federal court order recently directed an end to segregation in the recreational facilities. Previously, the parish recreational council had closed all swimming pools under its jurisdiction, claiming it was losing money by operating them.

Small Town With No Doctor Familiar Situation

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The Ohio community of Sugar Grove has not had a doctor in 10 years to care for its 3,000 inhabitants. But it is not unique, for many towns across the nation face the same situation. The following article, the second of two, explains some of the reasons.)

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Is there a doctor in the house?" the comedian roars to shrieks of laughter.

But in scores of Ohio communities there is never a doctor in the house, because there is no doctor in the town.

★ ★ ★

Advertisements appearing in a pamphlet of the Ohio State Medical Association list some 30 towns in 20 counties in Ohio with the notation: "No physicians in the area."

And another list has almost 200 Ohio towns, with up to 5,000 residents, having only one physician.

NO DOCTOR

"I don't know what's wrong. It's been 10 years since we've had a doctor here," said Mrs. Arthur Shull of Sugar Grove—area population, 3,000—in Fairfield County.

What's wrong, according to Hart Page who handles physician placement for the Ohio State Medical Association, is the inability of the small town to sell itself to a new young doctor.

"The communities have to present a good image, whether it be to a physician or a lawyer, a dentist or a school teacher," says Page.

"There's more demand for family doctors than there are family doctors looking for practices. The young doctor says: 'If you want me to practice, you must have a community in which my wife and I want to live.'"

CITY GIRL

Page explained: "A young physician usually meets his wife at the metropolitan medical center. She's a city girl and it would be a difficult adjustment for her in a nonprogressive town. It's difficult to ask a young physician to invest his life in an area if the community is not interested."

One method the association has for interesting medical students in rural areas is the preceptorship program started at Ohio State and the University of Cincinnati medical schools.

★ ★ ★

Charles Edgar of the association staff explains it as creating a "shadow" for the practicing physician. "The student follows the doctor day and night." It is operated as a summer internship.

In another way, though, the problem is solving itself. "There is a tendency toward county seat medical service," Page explained. "The superhighway is changing the face of medical practice. It is just as quick for a doctor to drive 10 miles in a rural area as for a city doctor to get around in the traffic of a large city."

Page said new highways also make the doctor's office more accessible.

One of the association's biggest problems, Page said, is encouraging medical students to become general practitioners.

"First we have to encourage students to become family doctors and then we have to encourage them to locate in rural areas," Park said. "Specialization is not a big problem yet, but it is going to be."

Dr. Frank M. Good of Toledo, reporting on a survey of the 1955 and 1959 graduating classes of three Ohio medical schools, said within that four-year period there was a decrease of 12 per cent in the number of family doctors entering practice.

"The people of this state are entitled to more consideration," he said in his report to the academy. "I do not think they should be required to assist, through their tax dollars, medical schools which pay little more than lip service to community health needs."

Tide Turning on Prayer OK?

Amendment Sponsor Challenges Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief sponsor of a constitutional amendment to permit public school prayers has challenged reports that the tide is turning against the amendment on Capitol Hill.

Dismissing the reports as propaganda, Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., says "my own mail, flooding in from every corner of the nation, does not reflect this."

★ ★ ★

However, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, which is holding hearings on 147 proposed amendments, said flatly Wednesday that Congress will not approve any of them.

Celler was the author last week of the "tide is turning" phrase that Becker challenged. He said Celler was throwing up a smokescreen and engaging in wishful thinking.

WILL OF PEOPLE

"Rather than false recriminations, all I am interested in is serving the will of the American people," said Becker.

His proposed amendment has been the focal point of the effort to overturn the Supreme Court's decisions banning compulsory school religious exercises.

Although Becker said his mail shows no change in the public's attitude toward the proposed alteration of the First Amendment to permit public school religious exercises, other members report mail in opposition to the Becker amendment has increased sharply since the hearings began.

The staff of the House Judiciary Committee said Wednesday there has been a complete reversal in the ratio for and against an amendment, with the opposition now heavily in the majority. Members of the committee report a similar trend.

To Seek Reelection From Revised District

LANSING (AP)—Sen. Frederic Hilbert, R-Wayland, Tuesday announced he will seek reelection from the revised district created by the reapportionment plan approved Tuesday by the Michigan Supreme Court.

The new district combines Ottawa County with Allegan and Barry, while Van Buren County is shifted to another district.

Hilbert, 51, is one of the senate's so-called Republican "moderate" and said he would run as a supporter of Gov. George W. Romney.

A surgeoun has succeeded in removing the corneas from rabbits' eyes, freezing them, and grinding them to correct defective vision. In humans this might be an improvement over contact lenses.

Cache as Cache Can

Descendants May Be Misled by Washington Ruins

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) —A committee of distinguished citizens has been appointed to select the contents of a "time capsule" that will be buried next year at the New York World's Fair.

WEST

Two years ago such a capsule was encased in the cornerstone of the Rayburn House Office Building, which is now nearing completion on Capitol Hill.

Its contents were disclosed a few days ago and, frankly, I am a bit concerned about it.

Among the items preserved for posterity are the speeches made at the cornerstone laying ceremony; several issues of the Congressional Record; a weather map; the House and Senate telephone directories; the signature of the second assistant architect of the Capitol, and messages from various capitol functionaries, including page boys.

I wouldn't be so unkind as to suggest that these documents are unworthy of preservation. My concern is whether those who open the capsule several centuries hence will be aware that they have uncovered an historical cache.

It seems more likely that they will think they have unearthed an old waste-paper basket.

* * *

There is no doubt, however, that inclusion of the capsule in the cornerstone was a wise move. Without it, posterity would never be able to figure out what the building was used for.

LOOKS LIKE FORT

Archaeologists of a future millenium who dig through the ruins of ancient Washington probably will assume from its outward appearance that the building was some sort of fortification.

But when they get inside and discover the 20 x 60-foot swimming pool, they may conclude that it was an aquarium.

Excavation of the gymnasium, volley ball and tennis courts, and steam room undoubtedly will produce a theory that the building was a sporting arena.

Further exploration will bring them to the remains of the $7.5-million subway that ran between the building and the House wing of the Capitol, a vast distance of approximately 700 feet.

That could produce speculation that the building was a railroad station.

MAY NOT BELIEVE

Only when they reach the time capsule will they learn that some $86 million was spent to provide office space for 169 congressmen. And even then they may not believe it. I can hardly believe it myself.

Wives Picket on Rail Rules

Women in Lansing, Vow Continued Fight

LANSING (AP) — The picketing wives of eight Grand Rapids railroad men pledged Wednesday to go even farther in their fight against new railroad work rules and a court injunction against striking and work stoppage.

The women—who refused to give their names — picketed Chesapeake & Ohio trains and delayed the departure of one. One demonstrator threw herself on the tracks to stop a slow - moving outbound mail train, but was dragged off by police.

She fainted and was taken to Lansing's Edward Sparrow Hospital where she was treated for "hysteria" and released. The hospital identified her as Mrs. Joyce Langford, 29, of Grand Rapids.

The placard-carrying women scuffled briefly with police, but later agreed to confine their demonstration to peaceful sidewalk picketing.

OTHER CITIES

They said they plan to demonstrate in other Michigan cities, but declined to specify which ones. They were objecting to the new work rules contained in a recently negotiated labor contract and to a permanent injunction by a U.S. District Court against strikes or work stoppages by members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and all persons "acting in concert with them."

They also said they planned to carry their objections to Gov. George W. Romney and the legislature later in the day. They had not appeared at Romney's office by the end of the working day, an aide said.

Some 40 wives held up four trains in Grand Rapids Tuesday. Two were arrested and fined $10 each by the Grandville Justice Court.

Fire Sweeps Plant

MUSKEGON HEIGHTS (AP) —A fire swept General Tire Co. Wednesday night, destroying the building and its contents. Damage was estimated at between $75,000 and $80,000.

Big Three Exhibits Are Top Attractions at NY World's Fair

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This article, the Auto Industry at the Fair, is another in a series on the New York World's Fair by the Automobile Club of Michigan.)

Michiganians who visit the New York World's Fair should feel right at home. At the same time they should be mighty proud of their home state, says Jerry E. Fisher, Automobile Club of Michigan touring manager.

The auto industry's Big Three — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—have the largest pavilions among the 150 at the Fair.

All three are outstanding and should be seen by every visitor to the Fair, Fisher said after a preview trip.

Cost of the auto companies' gigantic displays is expected to reach $100 million—one-third of the amount spent by all exhibitors at the Fair.

★ ★ ★

That's a whopping lot of money, but the auto makers obviously think its worth it, even though most of their investment will be junked when the Fair ends in 1965.

POSSIBLE EXCEPTION

A possible exception is Ford's Rotunda which may be brought to Detroit to replace the familiar Dearborn landmark from the 1933 Chicago World's Fair that was destroyed by fire in 1962.

General Motors, for example, estimated that 25 million persons will view its new Futurama — and where, Fisher asked, can you find a captive audience like that?

Ford's Walt Disney-created ride will transport 50,000 persons a day—in new Ford-built convertibles, Fisher said. That adds up to 18 million prospective buyers over the 360 days the Fair will be open this year and next.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler's exhibit is located between the other two. It figures to capture everybody going both ways.

SOFTEN PITCH

All three companies plan to soften their sales pitch in favor of displays featuring whimsey or education.

Chrysler figures that five buildings are more effective than one. So it offers an indoor - outdoor "fair-within-a-fair" on an oval, six acre plot.

Four islands represent various Chrysler operations —styling, engineering, production and diversified products. Styling Island will feature Chrysler's turbine car.

★ ★ ★

The fifth is an immense Show-Go-Round theater whose design permits 2,500 persons in four separate auditoriums to watch different portions of the same show at the same time.

WORLD RIDE

One of the highlights of the General Motors Futurama will be a ride through what may well be the world of tomorrow, Fisher said.

Some 70,000 persons daily are expected to see new concepts of living; new industrial, agricultural and extraction processes; new transportation techniques; new vehicles; new applications of communications; new products of scientific research.

Futurama riders will be transported three abreast in contoured lounge chairs through futuristic scenes depicting the moon, the Antarctic, the ocean floor, the jungle, the desert and the city. The ride lasts for 15 minutes and extends almost a quarter of a mile.

★ ★ ★

The GM exhibit has a ponderous title — "General Motors: Many Minds and Many Hands Serving the Needs of Mankind" —but it promises to be fun, anyway, Fisher said.

OTHER MAGIC

Ford, in addition to its widely touted "Magic Skyway" ride with articulate cavemen and dinosaurs, has other Disney magic up its corporate sleeve.

All is planned to emphasize Ford's role as a world-wide corporation and to dramatize the theme, "Man's Achievements in an Expanding Universe."

An amazingly authentic "International Garden" is the first sight to greet visitors in the entrance to the Ford Pavillon, largest above-ground structure at the Fair.

★ ★ ★

The garden depicts buildings and village scenes in 11 lands, all in miniature scale—one half inch to the foot. They were constructed at a Detroit display company.

WALK IN HISTORY

Ford visitors walk hand-in-hand with history and legend—such as Colonial America, the Aztec temples of Old Mexico, the 19th century penal colonies of Australia, ruins of ancient Rome, the quaint churches of French Canada and farmyards of Denmark.

Spotlighted in the Wonder Rotunda is a replica of the famous Quadricycle built by the late Henry Ford and operated in downtown Detroit in 1896.

A "magic mirror" multiplies a handful of Ford Model T's so that viewers seem to see many of the 15,000,000 that put America on wheels.

SABOTAGE ATTEMPT—Clarence Schmidt has been collecting parts of vehicles, hydrants, jewelry and false teeth for 44 years. He has been ornamenting his property in Woodstock, N. Y. with them. He became upset when he found two sticks of unexploded dynamite in his wishing well the other night. Schmidt, 66, makes his living by selling parcels of property he owns.

Junkyard Sculptor Alarmed by TNT in Wishing Well

WOODSTOCK, N. Y. (AP) — Dynamite in his wishing well was too much for the junkyard sculptor of the Catskills, whose yard full of house-high objects d'art draws hecklers — and the neighbors' ire.

Clarence Schmidt, 66-year-old patriarch of Ohayo Mountain, says sticks and stones and even rifle bullets crashing into his peculiar house annoy him. But the dynamite really made him angry.

Merrill Folsom of The New York Times reports that Schmidt said:

"I found two sticks of the stuff in there the other night. Had to call in state troopers. They got an army bomb squad to prevent an explosion."

★ ★ ★

Schmidt, who wears his hair shoulder length and has a grizzled beard, began ornamenting his four-level house 44 years ago, when he left the real estate business in New York City. Some weird sculptures are higher than his house.

Asphalt, concrete and paint hold together a conglomeration of parts of automobiles, windmills, planes and submarines, plus 400 mirrors, washing machines, rowboats, outboard motors, fire hydrants, wagons, coffee pots, pans, sleds, marbles, earrings, clocks, saws, hairpins, furnaces, electric fans, eggbeaters, barrels, toys, bicycles, false teeth, shoes and animal skulls.

On top of a flagpole is a brand new garbage can, upside down.

Schmidt said hecklers in this artists' haven also have tried to block his entrance with barbed wire, and have driven cars into his art works.

His neighbors, The Times reported, say his three-acre extravaganza is depreciating property values.

Schmidt's wife, Grace, takes an especially dim view of the sculpture, but his 11-year-old son, Michael, thinks it's great. Schmidt makes a living selling parcels of real estate he has acquired over the years in and around Woodstock.

Dublin School Counselor Is Pioneer in Movement

As Oakland County's lone elementary school counselor, John C. Whaley sits astride a trend.

The 26-year-old former teacher is finishing up his first year as a grade school counselor for the single-school Dublin School District in White Lake Township.

Together, Whaley and Dublin School are pioneers in a national move toward counseling in elementary schools.

The trend has met some opposition. Last week, for instance, a subcommittee of the curriculum planning committee of the State Department of Public Instruction, said the work of the elementary school counselor is already performed by other personnel.

★ ★ ★

Whaley, however, sees himself in a supportive role to other school specialists and teachers.

NEED IS THERE

Dublin School Principal W. Dean Gotts says, "The need is there.

"Now we can identify the high school dropout as early as the second or third grade," Gotts explained. "So if we can identify him here (in grade school) why not help him?"

Whaley of 6140 Northrup, Waterford Township, adds that the logic of the early help is recognized.

He said that some junior high school counselors will admit that sometimes it is too late to help the problem child at the junior high level.

BASIC ADVANTAGE

Early identification of problems and potential troubles, according to Whaley, is one of the basic advantages of elementary counseling.

For example, he said, he had placed an eighth grade student this year in special education classes for the retarded.

"For eight years," he said, "this youngster had been unable to get along in school. He had been absent and always behind."

★ ★ ★

Whaley said that teachers are not trained to spot the symptoms of these problem children.

MUST SEE STUDENT

Other school specialists, like the visiting teacher and the psychologist, cannot spot the symptoms if they don't see the youngsters, he said.

Counselors, especially elementary school counselors, can spot these problems and refer them to the proper specialists or agencies, he said.

Whaley outlined his new job:

- Information service to individuals and classroom groups.
- Testing of individuals and groups and the interpretating of test results.
- Referral of children to special education rooms, school specialists and other agencies and clinics.
- Counseling of students and teachers.

★ ★ ★

The Dublin School counselor does not deal with students under the traditional one-to-one setup as much as he guides teachers in their workings with particular students.

CLOSE RELATIONSHIP

Gotts and Whaley agreed that the program's success was due to a close working relationship between the counselor and classroom instructor.

They felt this had been achieved by specifically not giving the counselor any administrative duties.

Locally, the idea of elementary counselors is treated warmly.

★ ★ ★

Arnold Embree, Pontiac director of guidance and pupil personnel services, said it was a countrywide trend. He added that the city schools have begun "talking about it."

SEVERAL YEARS AGO

"You know several years ago we started counseling in the secondary schools," Embree says, "and probably we should have started in the elementary schools."

Support for the idea of grade school counselors also comes from Dr. William F. Moorhouse, Oakland Schools guidance director.

Dr. Moorhouse said the elementary counselor, as the job is now defined, is seen spending most of his day with teachers and parents.

★ ★ ★

The county director added that it should be remembered that the teacher, who is close to the child throughout the day, is an essential member of the guidance team.

'Lawfords Find NY Residence'

NEW YORK (AP) — The Peter Lawfords, blackballed from the Manhattan apartment they first wanted to buy, finally have found a suitable dwelling here, according to a published report.

Earl Wilson, whose column appears in The Pontiac Press, said that the Lawfords "have found 'and have accepted' for . . . a 14-room duplex on upper Fifth Avenue where there are no barriers against actors and Democrats."

Asked about the report, a spokesman at the Kennedy family office here said today that the transaction had not been settled, but declined further comment.

Mrs. Lawford is the former Pat Kennedy, sister of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Early last month they sought to buy an apartment in a plush 15-story cooperative apartment building at 117 East 72nd St., just off Park Avenue.

PAPERS SIGNED

Socialite Charles Amory, who was selling the apartment, said the arrangements had been completed and the papers signed.

"However, certain individuals in the building have refused to endorse the sale because Peter Lawford is an actor and Mrs. Lawford is a Democrat," Amory said.

Another tenant there said that one of the five-member board of directors turned down the Lawfords. The board's unanimous approval was required for the sale.

On Primary Ballot

Await Romney Action

LANSING (AP) — Three quick moves today could clear the board in the legislative fight over Michigan's 1964 elections, but Democratic leaders say the next move must come from Gov. George W. Romney.

The Democrats said Wednesday they were willing to give immediate effect to a bill intended to push back the state's primary election from Aug. 4 to Sept. 1, but only after Romney acts on the so-called "Massachusetts ballot" bill.

★ ★ ★

Leaders in both houses and both parties predicted a possible quick finish to the legislature's work for the year if the matter is cleared up today.

As the Democrats waited, the routine processing and printing of the ballot bill was stepped up to ensure its presentation to Romney today for his signature or veto.

DEMS COULD INSIST

House Minority Leader Joseph Kowalski, D - Detroit, said his party could insist that Romney act immediately on the ballot bill. He said this meant today.

If this happened, said Kowalski, "the Democrats would be inclined to go along" with immediate effect on the primary bill.

He stressed, however, the question still would have to be presented to a House caucus.

★ ★ ★

House Speaker Allison Green said Kowalski had given him no firm commitment on immediate effect for the primary bill, but "he said he saw no reason why, if this is settled, we couldn't be out of here by tonight."

Democrats object to the Massachusetts ballot because it eliminates the straight-party ticket. It lists candidates by office rather than by party.

FILE PETITIONS

Under the constitution, they have 90 days from the legislature's adjournment in which to circulate and file petitions to put the issue before the voters on the November ballot — preventing its use in the 1964 general election.

At the other end of the session, the primary bill appeared to set elections on Aug. 4 and Sept. 1, since it could not, in the normal legislative process, take effect until about three weeks after the presently scheduled August primary.

★ ★ ★

Immediate effect requires a two-thirds majority in both houses and therefore some Democratic votes along with those of the Republican majority would make the bill into law early enough to wipe out the first primary date.

The Senate recalled the primary bill, which it passed Friday, along with a Congressional redistricting bill, from the House late Wednesday.

JOIN REPUBLICANS

Four Democrats reportedly had agreed to join 20 Republicans in approving immediate effect.

They were Sens. Charles Youngblood and Basil Brown of Detroit, Charles McManniman, Houghton, and Philip Rahoi, Iron Mountain.

★ ★ ★

They were convinced in a Democratic caucus, however, to withhold their support until Democrats got action on the ballot bill.

Once the primary and ballot bills are cleared, said Kowalski, "it is possible the legislature could clean up the rest of its work in about four hours."

OTHER ISSUES

Other issues still remaining on the legislative calendar include a school aid bill, which would raise state aid per pupil from $224 to $234 with an increase in the deductible millage factor from 3⅞ to 4¼ mills.

India Politician Refused Service in Dixie Cafeteria

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A member of India's Parliament said he was turned away Wednesday from a chain-operated cafeteria with the white president of a predominantly Negro college.

Dr. Ram Lohia, leader of India's splinter Socialist party, said he would return today to the cafeteria (Morrison's).

"I expect to be treated like an American," Lohia said.

The Indian arrived here Wednesday to visit Tougaloo Southern College, a center of civil rights activities in Mississippi.

Dr. A. D. Beitell, president of Tougaloo, met Lohia at the airport and they stopped to eat at the cafeteria.

"I make it perfectly clear I'm not trying to uncover something foul in American life," Lohia told a newsman. "Such foul spots exist everywhere—also in India."

Girl's Remains Found in Ohio

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The skeletal remains of two Akron area youngsters who disappeared within a three-day period nearly a year ago have been found in isolated areas near here, the apparent victims of strangulation.

The latest grisly find was the remains of 12-year-old Ruth Guthrie of Tallmadge, Ohio, her hands bound together, found yesterday on a farm in Portage County.

The skeletal remains of Thomas J. Sumerix, 15, of Akron were found May 2 about four miles north of Massillon, Ohio.

The Guthrie girl vanished June 2 after attending a fair in Tallmadge. The boy was last seen June 5, in a shopping center about 10 miles from where the remains were found.

★ ★ ★

A third Akron area youth, Joseph Kulesza, 17, also disappeared last June 12, and no trace has been found of him.

Ulbricht Urges Erhard to Keep Out N-Weapons

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communist boss Walter Ulbricht made new overtures to West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard today to keep nuclear weapons off German soil.

Ulbricht said the Bonn government should pledge not to manufacture nuclear arms and ban the stationing of such arms in West Germany. He declared that only the "two German states" could solve the German problem and that foreign powers have no right to interfere.

Ulbricht wrote Erhard a similar letter last January.

Erhard did not reply in line with Bonn's stand that the East German government was not freely elected. Presumably today's note also will be ignored.

ROME (AP) — The depth of Italy's economic troubles was indicated today in a treasury ministry report warning Premier Aldo Moro of economic collapse if inflation goes unhalted.

* * *

Treasury Minister Emilio Colombo estimated the Italian balance of payments deficit would reach $1.7 billion by the end of 1964.

His report, written two weeks ago, was made public by the independent newspaper Il Messaggero.

HONG KONG (AP)—Typhoon Viola caused some damage to Hong Kong, but it brought eight inches of badly needed rain to this drought-stricken British colony.

The typhoon which glanced off Hong Kong was downgraded to a tropical storm today as it veered over the Red China mainland 50 miles west of this colony.

No deaths were reported here, but 28 persons were injured.

PESHAWAR, Pakistan (AP) —Pakistan plans to set up its own peace corps modeled along American lines, Mohammad Ali vice chancellor of Peshawar University announced today.

* * *

Ali said senior students in the university's schools of medicine, engineering and agriculture would work during summer vacations in selected Pakistani villages.

He said they hoped to improve farming methods and roads and set up medical facilities.

Pago Pago is the capital of Eastern Samoa, while Western Samoa's capital is Apia. The two are about 77 miles apart.

In Race for Competition

Malaya Revitalizes Her Rubber Industry

KUALA LUMUR, Malaysia (AP)—Malaya's natural rubber industry—the biggest in the world and the key to the economy of the young Malaysian federation—is trying for a higher bounce in the face of growing competition from synthetics.

The latest move is to change the shape of its product.

If the result of two years of research proves commercially successful—and the betting here is that it will—manufacturers abroad soon may be getting their rubber in neat, plastic-packaged 100-pound slabs that look somewhat like huge cuts of overdone spongecake.

Industry spokesmen insist "we're not trying to catch up with anyone." They maintain there always will be a demand for natural rubber despite the rapidly expanding synthetic field.

GREATEST ASSET

But a slightly lower price than synthetics is one of the greatest assets of natural rubber, and Malaya is determined to keep it that way.

Efforts to revitalize the industry, and cut costs, began 12 years ago with the start of a massive program whose slogan was "Replant or Die."

* * *

According to latest estimates, close to 60 per cent of Malaya's 4 million acres of rubber have been replanted with faster-producing, higher-yielding trees. These are expected in the next five or six years to push annual production to a million tons from the current 800,000-ton mark. The present level represents almost double the production of pre-World II years.

Acres that used to yield 400 pounds of rubber per year are now producing up to 1,500 pounds. Authorities say the day is not far off when 3,000 pounds per acre will be the standard—with no increase in production costs.

BIG QUESTION

The big question has become "How to handle all that rubber? A team working for the industry-run Research Institute here believes it has the answer in "comminution"—size reduction.

Under the present processing system — the one that's been used since rubber became a commercial product more than a century ago—the milky white latex tapped from rubber trees is coagulated, mangled into floppy wet slabs, squeezed to remove some of the moisture, then hung up to dry in a smokehouse. The process takes about a week.

The dried rubber sheets are sent to market, baled in ungainly 250-pound packages, with low-grade sheets serving as wrappers.

"What we were looking for, first of all," a researcher said, "was a slicer, speedier way of shortening the processing time."

ANOTHER AIM

Another aim was to achieve a more uniform product. Under the present system, there are 130 grades of natural rubber, depending on the color and transparency of the sheets and the number of blemishes a grader can spot at a glance.

This price-determining method is called "visual grading" and is sniffed at by producers as unscientific.

* * *

Researchers decided to chop the coagulated rubber into bite-size particles which they found could dry in three to four hours instead of the present three to four days.

They eliminated one big step —dilution of the latex before coagulating it. The dilution is intended to wash out sources of blemish and achieve the best possible looking sheets for the visual grader.

DOUBLE CONTENT

"Without diluting," a researcher said, "we double the rubber content, with no extra warehousing space needed or anything else."

One problem was finding the proper type of chopper — one that would not be daunted by the elastic quality of natural rubber. They ended up by borrowing a chopper from the synthetics field.

* * *

Automation took a hand with the introduction of a conveyor belt to carry the popcorn—like particles to dryers. The dried particles were then compressed into blocks.

The finished product, says a cautiously enthusiastic editorial in a recent issue of the Malayan Planters Bulletin, is rubber of "more uniform quality than most of the existing grades, neatly packed and easily handled" and priced "at least as low and possibly lower than that of equivalent visually graded rubber."

GOP Unit Urges End to Moon Race Haste

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

'SPACE RACE: The Republican Citizens Committee urged Wednesday that the United States abandon its goal of landing a man on the moon by 1970.

"We see no evidence that urgent defense objectives warrant a crash program or that a meeting or deadlines such as 1970 serves any significant national objectives," declared the committee's Critical Issues Council, headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The GOP group recommended in a statement that the United States adopt a "more orderly and moderately paced" space program, geared rather to research than haste.

This, it said, would be less wasteful in money and manpower and would avoid unnecessary risk to America's space prestige.

THE CHANGING SCENE: The late President John F. Kennedy, as a New Englander and former Navy man, was in love with the sea and ships.

Under his administration the paintings in White House lobby included one depicting a naval battle in the War of 1812.

* * *

In its place today hangs a picture more in the western mode of President Johnson—a painting by Frederic Remington, entitled "Aiding a Comrade," and showing two frontiersmen helping a wounded pal while pursued by Indians.

The Remington painting is from the Hogg Brothers collection in Houston's Museum of Fine Arts and is on loan to the White House.

WEEKEND TRIP: President Johnson flies to New York today for a clutch of Democratic fund raising affairs and then jets to Texas for the weekend.

On Friday night, the President speaks at commencement exercises at his old high school in Johnson City and the next day he and Mrs. Johnson receive his-and-her honorary degrees at the University of Texas in Austin.

* * *

The main event in New York tonight is a repeat in Madison Square Garden of the star-studded "Salute to Johnson" gala given in Washington Tuesday night.

REJECTED: The House rejected Wednesday a bill that would have increased from $10,000 to $20,000 the maximum amount of bank and savings and loan deposits subject to federal insurance.

Policy Talk Draws Cool Response

Soviet Trade Interests Japan

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

When Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan visited Japan in 1961, he bore with him a letter from Nikita Khrushchev warning the Japanese that the presence of United States bases there could drag them into a nuclear war.

NEWSOM

The irritated Japanese replied that they regarded the Khrushchev warning as an attempt to interfere in Japan's internal affairs.

On his current visit to Japan Mikoyan carried with him another Khrushchev note.

It suggested that the Japanese join the Soviet Union in demanding a total nuclear test ban, including underground, and that it was time they signed a World War II peace treaty.

Again the Japanese reaction was cool.

First, they said, there was the question of adequate guarantees of a test ban and then for settlement of Japanese demands for return of the Kurile Islands.

OTHER PROPOSALS

But in Mikoyan's briefcase were other proposals which were of more interest to the Japanese.

Mikoyan submitted a list of goods worth $350 million which he said the Soviet Union wanted to buy from Japan, not only for its expanding chemical program but also for a new five-year industrial plan beginning in 1966.

Credit terms, he said, should be granted for from 10 to 15 years.

* * *

Japanese businessmen, eager to expand their worldwide trade, listened with undisguised interest, and it seemed certain that Mikoyan would do at least some business.

TRADE IMBALANCE

Industrial Japan suffers from an imbalance between exports and imports.

But in at least one respect she was in an enviable position.

As part of their struggle for influence in Asia and Africa, both the Soviet Union and Red China have been wooing Japan.

* * *

The Chinese want Japanese fertilizer, chemicals, and even whole plants.

INCREASING NUMBERS

Chinese trade delegations have been visiting Japan in increasing numbers, and many influential Japanese also have visited the Chinese mainland.

Besides buying from the Japanese, the Chinese also want to sell to them.

Japanese imports from Red China last year totaled $75 million and are expected to jump another 20 per cent this year.

In terms of world trade the figures are small, but they are a part of an increasing effort by the Chinese Reds to earn the hard foreign currencies they need to buy grain, raw materials and industrial products.

POSE PROBLEMS

The efforts of both the Soviets and the Red Chinese posed problems for the United States.

The United States has opposed long-term credits being granted the Soviets by both Britain and France, on the grounds that such credits simply amount to another form of foreign aid and underwrite the Soviet economy for years to come. It would not like Japan to undertake similar practices.

Increasingly close Japanese economic ties with Red China would pose this and other problems.

Hearing Due on 2 Slayings

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., (AP) — Bruce Walter Leikett of Detroit, charged with murder in the May 5 slayings of two city policemen, was brought to jail Wednesday, sufficiently recovered from auto accident injuries to face a preliminary hearing.

Authorities said no date for the hearing has been set, but that it probably would not be until the end of June, to give the defense time to prepare a case. No attorney has been appointed to defend Leikett, a 26-year-old ex-convict.

* * *

He is being held without bond.

Leikett was charged in a Detroit suburb when the car he was driving crashed into another auto in the climax to a 100-mile-per hour police chase. Leikett was severely injured and the driver of the other car was killed.

BEHIND CENTER

Leikett has been charged with killing Sgt. Roy G. Wright, 31, and patrolman W. Franklin Mines, 27, whose bodies were found behind a shopping center.

* * *

Police said they found the revolvers and handcuffs taken from the slain officers in the wreckage of the car Leikett was driving. They also found in the wreckage a pistol identified as similar to the one which fired the shots that killed the policemen and a New Jersey service station attendant on May 4. The FBI has said the same gun killed all three persons.

Saskatchewan Medicare Program Evaluated After Two Years

REGINA, Sask. (AP)—Item: Two years ago Saskatchewan doctors fought introduction of North America's first sweeping government medicare plan with a bitter 23-day strike. Today the doctors are making more money under medicare than they did in private practice.

Item: Premiums paid by residents of this Canadian province to help finance medicare have been cut in half.

★ ★ ★

Item: The Socialist government that fathered the controversial health insurance scheme lost a recent provincial election. But medicare was not a campaign issue. Liberal Premier Ross Thatcher, who took office last week, is not expected to make major changes in the medical plan he once opposed.

On the surface, Saskatchewan appears to have proved that a compulsory, state-run medicare program covering all residents of all ages can win the support of doctors, the public and politicians.

QUALIFIED SUCCESS

But it would be misleading to call Saskatchewan's medicare plan an unqualified success.

The old arguments still rage here over medicare's effect on the quality of medical service, the cost, government interference in the practice of medicine and red tape.

Dr. E. W. Barootes, president of the Saskatchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons, conceded that doctors are making more money. The college is Saskatchewan's professional medical association.

"If all doctors wanted was more cash," Barootes said, "we would have been on the bandwagon from the beginning."

FEWER BILLS UNPAID

He called it a matter of simple arithmetic. Medicare, Barootes said, has encouraged more people to visit doctors more often at no extra personal cost. The government pays the larger bill to roughly the same number of doctors formerly engaged in private practice. Fewer bills go unpaid. By some accounts doctors are making an average of $2,000 a year more.

But the doctors are concerned about the quality of medical service involved, Barootes said.

Under medicare, he said, they are increasingly forced to steal time from patients who need them to examine others with minor or imagined complaints. "Doctors who used to see 20 patients a day now must see as many as 70," he said.

Medicare, he added, has taken the regulation of hospitals and medical standards away from the profession and placed them in the political sphere, under government-appointed medical boards. "The government tells you who can take out a lung," he said.

RED TAPE

Barootes also complained that excess paper work and red tape affects the quality of medical service.

"We have to admit with great regret," Barootes said, "that the over-all quality of medical service has necessarily deteriorated."

During the first four months of 1964, costs increased 14 per cent over the comparable 1963 period. Barootes said studies have indicated that the public would adjust to medicare gradually, that the big jump in demand for services would come in the third year, beginning July 1, and that costs would climb to $30 million in 1965.

The medicare plan of former Premier Woodrow Lloyd's Socialist government required Saskatchewan residents to pay premiums of $24 a year for families and $12 for individuals. More than two-thirds of the costs are financed from boosts in sales, income and corporation taxes.

ECONOMY BOOMING

The premiums were cut 50 per cent last September because the tax sources brought in more revenue than expected. Saskatchewan's economy is booming from record wheat sales.

Thatcher, however, had pledged to cut taxes and may face trouble if the cost of the predominantly tax-financed medicare plan soars. One suggestion calls for a nominal visiting fee, perhaps $2 to discourage unneeded trips to the doctors office.

★ ★ ★

The compromise which ended the doctors' boycott in July 1961 liberalized the plan by allowing doctors to also practice outside medicare. Residents, however, must still pay premiums and taxes even if they rely on private medical services.

'Plane Fell Apart in Air'

Dead GI's Letter Claims Viet Shortages

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—An Air Force major wrote his wife before his death in Viet Nam that the Southeast Asia forces suffered from "not enough housing, not enough planes, not enough parts, not enough people, not enough bombs."

Mrs. Lucille Adams, widow of Major Hughie Adams, released Tuesday portions of letters she said she received during the four months before Adams' death Jan. 7.

The major called his B26 plane "the widow maker," Mrs. Adams said. She said a young lieutenant told her Adams' plane fell apart in the air killing him and another flier.

"You can't imagine how fouled up everything is," Adams wrote in one of the letters. "The people who said Diem was doing his best against the Communists are full of baloney. He spent all the money we gave him for special troops to protect him."

Adams was due for retirement in another year and was a veteran of World War II and Korea. He flew 13,000 hours during World War II, dropped paratroopers in Europe on D-Day, and flew troops to Africa and in China.

Mrs. Adams said her husband volunteered for Viet Nam because he wanted to end his service career "as one of the first air commandos."

She said he was told to take his own sidearms and ammunition because there weren't enough to go around in Viet Nam. He said, however, the troops were issued .45s although without any clips to fit them. He also told of not having enough Mae Wests, parachutes or plane parts.

"The main war over here is between army and air force brass," Adams wrote.

Adams' death was mentioned in letters published recently that had been written by another victim of the Viet Nam War, Air Force Capt. Edwin G. Shank Jr. The letters touched off a controversy concerning obsolete equipment and lack of adequate supplies in the war.

"My husband died for nothing," Mrs. Adams said. "There's no getting around it. There were no bullets from Viet Nam. He was out on his first flight in the B26 and the whole thing just fell apart."

Hatfield Pledges Votes for Rocky—to a Point

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention in July, says Oregon's delegates will stay with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as long as he gets 35 per cent of the votes in early balloting. Rockefeller won Oregon's primary election. The state has 18 votes in the convention.

Hatfield told a news conference yesterday that if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona wins the California primary next Tuesday, "he will be nominated (for president) on the first ballot."

Your Heart Has Nine Lives—X

Rusting of Men's Arteries Piles Up Bit by Bit

By ALTON BLAKESLEE and JEREMIAH STAMLER, M.D.

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the 10th in a series of 12 articles condensed from the new book, "Your Heart Has Nine Lives.")

* * *

The rusting disease of men's arteries piles up bit by bit.

Special warning flags begin flying when a man is 25 to 30, when he is optimistically certain he has an inexhaustible plenitude of days and years ahead to spend or waste and enjoy.

Others come when he's 50 to 60, when life still is sweeter, when there's a vintage of years to savor, and so much still to be done.

Dr. Paul Dudley White divides man's life into five ages, reaching ultimately perhaps to a full century.

* * *

The first age is from birth to 20, when nowadays the main hazards in life for U.S. children are accidents and poisons.

CRITICAL YEARS

The second spans the years 20 to 40, and these are "the critical years for countless numbers of men who look so healthy, in whom this process of atherosclerosis begins to be laid down.

The average man in America settles down at about 25 to a life of physical indolence although often with great nervous activity in his profession or business."

In the third age, 40 to 60, the hazards tolerated earlier begin to ripen into heart attacks and strokes.

But there is an antidote, through "middle-aged fitness," Dr. White declares. And "what we do from 40 to 60 will decide what will happen to us" in the next two ages — 60 to 80, and then 80 and beyond.

NOT IMMUNE

Young men are not immune from heart attacks. By age 25, their arteries contain deposits of cholesterol and fats.

Coronary artery disease takes about one in 12 of all Americans who die between the ages of 25 and 34, and almost one in four of all those whose lives end between 35 and 44.

A first potential danger period comes when our physical growth ends and the need for food declines, but the old habit of high food intake continues.

After schooling, most young men drop out of team sports, and few have jobs calling for heavy work.

SMOKING HABIT

These are also the years when the smoking habit becomes fixed, so that our man acquires the grim triad so common among us—eating too richly and too much, sitting too much and exercising too little, and smoking too heavily.

A second danger point comes with marriage, when many young men not only begin to eat better but as husbands and fathers lack time or money to continue regular exercise.

Take-home pay rises with promotions and seniority, but take-home poundage can also creep up if less call is put upon muscular energy and more is put on brain power and decision making.

Labor - saving tools and devices are very fine, but what do you do with the savings?

GAIN QUICKLY

Many young men gain weight most rapidly in their 20's and 30's. Half of American men are at least 10 per cent over desirable weight when they are only 30 years old.

One-fourth add 20 per cent to the pounds they were carrying when first able to vote.

With youthful years being a time of general good health, most young men never seek a physical checkup or readings on blood pressure, blood cholesterol, or incipient diabetes.

* * *

With time, the young men's 40th or 50th birthday anniversaries come along. This is a time of far graver average risk of heart attacks, unless they have lived sensibly.

More danger flags begin flapping at this time.

FATAL IDEA

One such flag is resignation to the idea that a heart attack is inevitable sooner or later because of hereditary susceptibility.

While we may inherit some susceptibilities to high blood pressure or high cholesterol, or diabetes, the outcome depends upon how we live to give them chances to be effective — or to blunt these risks.

"Risks? My life is full of risks. I can't avoid them," says one middle-aged man. He is right, but this same man provides insurance against risks such as fire and automobile accidents.

* * *

By middle age, most men have gained weight, lengthening belt spans at heavy risk of reducing life spans.

DANGER SPOTS

Carrying this extra weight around might be considered a bit of exercise in a way, Dr. White remarks, though it's a bit hard to bend down. The fat under the skin is not the real problem — it's the few ounces of fat accumulating in dangerous places in the arteries.

In the third stage of life, he adds, "much of the disease that has been slowly building up becomes apparent by symptoms, signs, or sudden death."

Health at this time becomes largely dependent upon what happened — not in childhood — but in the years 20 to 40. Besides physical fitness in childhood, Dr. White urges physical fitness in middle age.

* * *

You can eat heartily on a diet lower in saturated fats and cholesterol, without overdoing on calories, and you can lose weight thereby.

DON'T RUSH OFF

You can seek better physical condition, recovering the young feeling of being fit, alert and vigorous. But, of course, don't rush off into some sudden and intense change of habits.

You can work gradually, at activities you like, to restore the verve and endurance you once had, and the sense of physical well being, and aid your arteries and your heart in the process.

The key is to start a new habit that undermines and replaces the old deadly habit of life.

* * *

"We seem to delight in the absurd belief that we must avoid strains, either physical or mental, that we must pamper ourselves and not walk upstairs or work physically hard or mentally either—whereas on occasion the midnight oil should be burned," Dr. White says.

HURTS ARTERIES

Early retirement, too short a week at work, and other seemingly wonderful attractions may penalize our arteries unless we are careful, he and others warn.

Many intelligent men in all walks of life "think nothing of continuing in their 70's to row, play tennis, climb mountains or walk many miles daily. And they continue to be more mentally alert than if they were sitting in an armchair waiting for an end to their retirement in life."

'Unbelievable Success'

Reattach Severed Hand

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)— By medical definition, Jessie S. Bray's right hand was detached from her arm in a milling machine accident, but she is on her way to regaining almost complete use of it.

The hand was sewed back in an operation which her surgeon, Dr. Hugh Williams, called "almost an unbelievable success."

* * *

Dr. Williams headed a three-man surgical team which restored the hand May 16 in an operation at Community Hospital which took almost five hours. Hospital officials said Wednesday that Mrs. Bray, 39, is almost ready for intensive therapy to regain use of the hand.

The lock company employe's hand hung by an inch of skin and two tendons after the accident. The surgeons stitched together eight tendons, three major nerves and two major blood vessels.

MOVES FINGERS

"I woke up afterwards and thought they hadn't done a thing," Mrs. Bray, said. "Then I saw I could move my fingers. Nobody in the hospital would believe that until they had all seen it for themselves."

Dr. Williams said that medically the hand was detached from the arm in the accident. He said his first thought was to "snip off that little bit of skin and make it a clean amputation."

* * *

"But Mrs. Bray said she knew the risks and was willing to take any chance to save her hand," he said.

Dr. Williams said the operation was almost an unbelievable success in that circulation returned to the hand almost as soon as the blood vessels were stitched together and feeling and movement returned to the hand almost immediately.

SLIGHTLY IMPAIRED

He said Mrs. Bray's use of her hand should be only slightly impaired if recovery continues and the stitching heals properly.

Mrs. Bray said she expects to be dismissed from the hospital within a month.

* * *

Doctors say there has been only one case of a successfully re-implanted limb in medical history.

Surgeons at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston attached the right arm of Everett Knowles, 14, May 23, 1962, after it had been severed by a freight train. Feeling and partial use of the arm returned after the surgery.

Soviet Dealings Are Unpredictable Despite Treaty

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations between the Soviet Union and the United States are beginning to run up an impressive list of successes. The latest is the new treaty to increase protection for American citizens in the Soviet Union and Soviet citizens in the United States.

★ ★ ★

Still, relations between Washington and Moscow in some ways are getting worse at the same time they are getting better. The future course of relations is unpredictable, and no one in either capital has any guarantees against the sudden eruption of a new and dangerous crisis.

Agreement on the new treaty, formally known as a consular convention, was announced by President Johnson Wednesday. He emphasized that it was the first two-nation treaty between this country and the Soviet Union in the 31 years they have had diplomatic links. He expressed the hope that it would lead to a further improvement in relations.

CONSULAR OFFICES

The treaty provides for opening up consular offices in each country, in addition to the embassies in Washington and Moscow. How many offices will be opened and where they will be established are questions still to be negotiated.

★ ★ ★

The United States is reported interested in having a consulate in Leningrad, and the Soviet Union is understood to want a consulate in Chicago. Each country formerly had consulates in the other, but they were closed in 1948 as a result of cold war incidents.

★ ★ ★

The most important provision of the pact, in the U.S. view, is a commitment by each government to give official notice within three days of the arrest of a citizen of the other, and to permit officials to visit the person arrested within four days of seizure.

Soviet failure to notify the United States promptly of the arrest of American citizens has been a major source of irritation, one dramatic incident being the seizure last year of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn. That case was finally straightened out only after the personal intervention of the late President John F. Kennedy.

DOUBLE-SIDED

Typical of the double-sided nature of U.S.-Soviet affairs at present is the fact that, at almost the same hour that Johnson was announcing the consular pact, a spokesman at the State Department was deploring the prospective shipment of Soviet arms to Cyprus.

An arms deal between the Cyprus government, controlled by the island's Greek majority, and the Soviet Union has been rumored for about two weeks. U.S. officials obviously believe the reports are true, and they fear the possibility of new violence between the Greek population and the Turkish minority.

The most serious source of current tension between the world's two major powers, however, is the crisis in Southeast Asia. Faced with Communist offensives in both Laos and South Viet Nam, the United States has been employing all kinds of diplomatic pressures to persuade Red China and Communist North Viet Nam to stop the fighting in Laos, and to realize the dangers of an expanded war in Viet Nam.

Privately, officials said the United States had really got no help from the Soviets in its efforts to bring the crisis under control. On the contrary, they noted a sharpening turn in Soviet propaganda, coupled with warnings against a greater U.S. intervention in the area.

SOURCES OF TENSION

Other sources of tension include continuing Soviet support for Cuba as a Communist beachhead in the Western Hemisphere. In fact, given the possibilty of some Cuban action against U.S. reconnaissance planes, many authorities here still see the situation in the Caribbean as a potential powderkeg.

The parallel trend of improved relations dates from the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962. As the great powers backed away from the confrontation that had carried the world seemingly to the edge of nuclear war, there were many statements from both Soviet and American leaders that steps must be taken urgently to strengthen the prospects for peace.

★ ★ ★

The first of the agreements that resulted was an agreement to open up a "hot line" between Washington and Moscow, so that in any future crisis the men with the power of decision could communicate with speed and secrecy.

The next major development was the successful negotiation in signing of a treaty imposing a limited ban on the testing of nuclear weapons.

WHEAT DEAL

One of the more concrete achievements of the series of negotiations which have gone on since the Cuban missile crisis, was last fall's U.S.-Soviet wheat deal. Under this agreement, the United States has sold the Soviet Union 1.7 million tons of badly needed wheat.

Authorities here also cite as an evidence of declining East-West tension the parallel actions taken last month by President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev in announcing a cutback in the production of nuclear explosives.

Most officials here think the trend toward improving relations has been both helped and hindered by the Soviet split with Red China and the resulting rivalry between Moscow and Peking for leadership of the Communist parties around the world.

Undoubtedly, the split has caused Khrushchev to reassess his relations with the West in the light of the fact that the Soviet Union is caught up in a cold war on twofronts. It is assumed here that the long Soviet border with Red China is a source of constant concern to Moscow strategists.

At the same time, U.S. experts say, because of the competition for Communist leadership, Khrushchev must strike out against the United States and other Western powers on some issues since failure to do so would yield advantage to the Chinese.

Rights March in Florida City

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (UPI) — About 300 Negroes marched on the old slave market, occupied with jeering whites, last night in what appeared to be the start of a "long, hot summer" of racial demonstrations promised by Negro leader Martin Luther King.

★ ★ ★

A force of 55 local, county and state policemen and six police dogs formed a barrier between the groups and maintained order. There were no arrests.

About 100 whites, many armed with clubs and tire irons and believed to be Ku Klux Klansmen, assembled at the historic landmark about an hour before the Negroes began their march on the slave market.

Police, wearing hard hats and holding leashed dogs, stopped the Negroes about two blocks before they reached the slave market and warned that blood might be spilled if the march continued.

★ ★ ★

But the Negroes ignored the warning and continued toward the market in the nation's oldest city, marching two abreast in a long column.

SHOUT INSULTS

Lawmen quickly reassembled between the marchers and whites, who were shouting insults and taunts at the demonstrators, and kept both groups under control.

★ ★ ★

As the marchers, mostly teenagers and two whites, neared the market, they fell silent and ignored the shouted jibes as they walked slowly around the block-long building.

★ ★ ★

After one tour around the slave market, the Negroes returned to the Elks Rest Lodge Hall in the Negro district, and the whites drove off.

Blood Infection Fatal to TV Star's Husband

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Trumpet player Bobby Guy, husband of comedienne Rose Marie of television's Dick Van Dyke Show, died last night of what a doctor said was "a sudden, overwhelming bloodstream infection."

Guy, 48, and Rose Marie would have celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary next month. He was a staff musician for the past nine years at the National Broadcasting Co. studio here.

STABBED — Eugene Letourneau, governor of Quebec City Prison, is in critical condition after being stabbed last night in his office. The stabbing took place during an escape attempt by Leopold Dion, who was awaiting the death penalty for the murder of four children in the spring of 1963.

Litterbugging Shows Lack of Responsibility

NEW YORK (AP) — Litterbug, litterbug, fly away home. Other litterers are doing to your front yard what you are doing to theirs.

★ ★ ★

Littering is a modern problem, caused largely by the 20th century way of life, according to a study conducted by the Institute of Motivational Research.

A decline of social responsibility in an age of abundance allows the litterbug to throw things away without worrying about where they land.

It's easier to toss a candy wrapper out of a car window than it is to carry a litter bag in the car.

★ ★ ★

Previous eras, with neither candy wrappers nor cars, lacked the ingredients that make the litterbug problem a growing one in this country.

CARELESSNESS

Carelessness, not maliciousness, is the root of most littering according to the study.

The litterer is the average citizen who would probably not treat his own home with the same thoughtlessness that he shows for other people's yards and the nations highways, beaches and byways.

★ ★ ★

Public education, better disposal facilities and antilitter laws are suggested by the study to combat the problem.

By means of a new instrument installed in a fire alarm box the alarm circuit can be used for telephone communication.

Wife Outranks Her Husband

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — "I suppose she'll just have to outrank me for the rest of my life," smiles Nicholas Frank Taubman when he and his bride discuss their military life.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Taubman became a sergeant in the Israeli Army. (Military service is required for all girls in Israel.) "I only got to be a corporal," adds her husband, who saw six months active duty in the U.S. Army and then was recalled during the Berlin crisis.

The couple did most of their courting by mail... and practically spent their honeymoon at the American embassy in Israel.

They met just two days before Mr. Taubman concluded a vacation in Europe and Israel. An eight-month correspondance followed before he returned to Israel.

★ ★ ★

They were married and spent most of their honeymoon taking care of rountine red tape necessary for the bride to leave Israel and come to the U.S.

Stubborn Parent Gets Balky Pet

PATCHOGUE, N.Y. (AP)—A 73-year-old man, James Nelson, whose father refused to let him keep a pet burro he bought for a shilling in Ireland more than 60 years ago, recently got a present from his daughter, Mrs. Charles Kemp; a burro purchased for $51 at a livestock auction conducted by the New York City Department of Purchases.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Kemp said she had heard her father lament his lost burro for years and thought that if she got him one he might give up his job as a ship caulker and stay home to take care of the burro.

Nelson was delighted with his new pet, but refused to consider retiring since he insists he is "as strong as an ox, or, at least, as a burro!"

Laos Neutral Seeks Red Aid

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has asked the Soviet Union to provide his embattled neutralist forces with ammunition for their Russian arms.

Souvanna made the request in a letter to Soviet Ambassador Sergei Affanassiev.

★ ★ ★

"Ammunition for arms supplied by the Soviet government, notably for 85mm guns, is becoming very short because of several encounters which have taken place recently between neutralist forces and (Communist) Pathet Lao forces," Souvanna said.

Souvanna added his government "would like very much to receive sufficient quantities of ammunition to be able to face situation."

REPAIR REQUEST

Souvanna also asked the Soviet government to repair Russian gift transport planes which are now inoperative. The premier asked the Russians to repair the planes about a year ago but got no answer.

Russian arms and ammunition were provided to the neutralists in 1961 when they were allies of the Pathet Lao and were fighting together against the right-wing Laotian Army.

The Soviet Union is currently withholding aid from all Laotian factions including the Pathet Lao who are under the influence of the Communist North Vietnamese and Chinese.

However, Moscow has supported the Pathet Lao viewpoint in the propaganda side of the Laotian crisis. Diplomatic sources say the Soviets don't want to give the Communist Chinese the opportunity to accuse Moscow of abandoning a "revolutionary movement."

TO ASK AID

Souvanna said previously he would ask military and economic aid from all countries to defend his country from Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese aggression.

So far, it seems only the United States has responded favorably to his request.

Republicans Fill 3rd District Posts

Republican directors for the recently split 3rd Legislative District have been named. They are Joseph R. Farnham, Birmingham, and John D. Cojeen, West Bloomfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Their appointments are in line with the earlier-announced division of the district, for party organization purposes, by GOP County Chairman Charles L. Lyle.

He said the change will stand for the time being, although the county's legislative districts have been revised with the addition of four districts under the new apportionment plan.

Farnham, 497 Golfview, is employed as an engineer with Chrysler Corp., is on the GOP County Committee and State Education Committee, serves as Birmingham city director and is a precinct delegate candidate.

★ ★ ★

A staff supervisor for Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Cojeen has served on the County Chairman's Advisory Committee and as cochairman of the 19th District subcommittee. He lives at 7411 Briarcliff.

★ ★ ★

Under the division, Farnham will head the old 3rd District's east side comprising Bloomfield and Avon Townships, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Troy; Cojeen will direct the west side, containing West Bloomfield, Commerce and Milford townships.

Traffic Deaths Hit U.S. High During April

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic deaths in April totaled 3,450, an all-time high for any month, the National Safety Council reported today.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, the council said the death toll of 13,350 for the first four months this year was 14 per cent higher than the previous record set in the first quarter of 1963.

The April highway death total was 8 per cent higher than the record high of 3,190 set in 1963. The council said April was the 28th month in the last 30 to show an increase in traffic fatalities.

The council reported more than 450,000 persons suffered disabling injuries in the four-month period this year.

The death rate for the first four months was 5.1 per 100 million miles of travel, an increase of 7 per cent over the corresponding period in 1963.

By Key Hoffa Trial Witness

Charges Loan Fund Misappropriation

CHICAGO (UPI) — A Teamsters Union pension fund attorney charged yesterday that a key government witness against Teamsters President James R. Hoffa "misappropriated $1.5 million" in loan funds.

Stanford Clinton, the fund lawyer, said Vaughan B. Connelly then threatened to "make trouble" if the Teamsters fund foreclosed on a $4.4-million loan Connelly received.

Connelly, a Miami, Fla., real estate investor, testified last week he was forced to make $400,000 in kickbacks to Hoffa's associates for arranging the $4.4 million loan.

Clinton testified as a government witness. He said Connelly threatened "I'll make trouble for your people" when Clinton informed him the pension fund was going to take over the Everglades Hotel in Miami Beach.

★ ★ ★

Connelly obtained the $4.4 million from the fund to dress up and add to the hotel, Clinton said, "but he misappropriated $1.5 million from the fund and didn't keep his responsibility to spend the money on the property."

NO CONFIDENCE

At a 1960 meeting in Miami, Clinton told Connelly "I have no confidence in your business ability," Clinton testified.

"You operated the Everglades like a butcher. I have no confidence in your responsibility or integrity. You have given bum checks to the City of Miami and Dade County.

"You broke your promises to the trustees (of the pension fund)," Clinton testified he told Connelly.

★ ★ ★

When he said he would start foreclosure proceedings in two weeks, Clinton said Connelly remarked:

"You do that and I'll cause trouble for your people. I'm coming out of my corner. You'd better take the best advantage you can."

Clinton refuted Connelly's earlier testimony that Hoffa told a fund treasurer to sign a check for $1 million of the loan, whereupon Connelly said Clinton protested: "Don't do that Jimmy. This will get you into more trouble than anything you've ever done."

Clinton said the testimony was "not only false and stupid, it's ridiculous.

★ ★ ★

"The trustees could have authorized that million," Clinton said, "and if I thought it was not proper they could vote until they were blue in the face and I would not have put my OK on it."

With Passing of JFK, MacArthur

Memorial Day Has Special Significance

By United Press International

Millions of Americans who yet remember world wars and distant fields of battle prepared today for the start of a Memorial Day weekend made especially meaningful by the passing of President John F. Kennedy and Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur.

Military parades and homage to the nation's war dead were the order of the weekend, but fishing trips, beach parties and sporting events also were on the schedule.

Hundreds of persons will be killed in automobile crashes and other holiday accidents.

The National Safety Council predicted the death toll on the country's streets and highways alone would fall between 410 and 490 from 6 p.m. local time today until midnight Sunday.

Thousands will be injured and scores more will die in swimming and boating accidents and other mishaps.

More than 50,000 Americans were expected to pay their own private homage to the late president by visiting his grave in Arlington National Cemetery on Memorial Day. MacArthur will be honored in countless military parades and observances.

A special eight-foot display of the general's public statements declaring his faith in God and dedication to Christian morals has been set up by the century-old College Church of Wheaton, Ill.

"MacArthur believed in total victory," said the Rev. L. P. McClenny of College Church. "His persevering thrust, aimed at the ultimate goal, personifies the life of dedicated Christians."

The graves of thousands of fallen veterans, Doughboys and GI Joes who fought for their country on numberless battle fields, will also be visited by their families on Memorial Day.

OTHER EVENTS

Major League baseball doubleheaders and the famed 500-mile auto race at Indianapolis will lure thousands from their homes. Others will head for their first weekend at the beach or angle for muskie and walleye on quiet lakes.

The weekend will not be without its share of daffiness. About 100,000 screaming Beatle fans are expected to cram the huge Memorial Coliseum at Los Angeles for a Memorial Day performance by the four longhair singers from Britain.

On the East Coast, New Jersey's $2-billion seashore industry looked for the start of its biggest year in history Saturday when King Neptune rises from the sea at Seaside Heights and a slinky Miss Mermaid does the same at Atlantic City to "unlock" the ocean and officially open the season.

A 25-bell carillon known as the "Thresher Bells" have been installed in a chapel at the Portsmouth (N.H.) Naval Shipyard and will ring out for the first time Memorial Day in tribute to those who perished when the nuclear submarine Thresher sank in April of last year.

HONOR WAR DEAD

Memorial Day services at the Cathedral of the Pines at Rindge, N.H., will honor all war dead and a special wreath will be placed on the "altar of the nation" in memory of President Kennedy.

THE STUDENT

Perhaps you picture him as the grinning, energetic kindergartener who is taking a pet to school to show and discuss with his friends or you might view her as the smart high school beauty who leads her class scholastically. Possibly, the student you know best is mentally or physically handicapped, attends school in your neighborhood or maybe it's a parent who works days and attends the local college extension center at night. No matter what your mental image is, they are all recognized as students.

According to the latest U.S. Bureau of Census, the 46,259,000 students enrolled in public and private schools across the country range from five to over 55 years of age.

The composite picture of the student can vary as much as the background and the reasons which bring each child and adult to the 130,807 public schools in the nation. Additional students attend the colleges and universities which carry on the learning process begun at the elementary and secondary school levels.

The personal goals, the style of dress, the speech, the personality, and the mind will combine to produce the individual characteristics that mark the boy, girl or adult as the student, unique from all others, who is anxious to learn something about himself, the world about him and is doing his best to improve all related dreams, conditions and situations.

This is one of a series of education features published as a public service in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association, The Michigan Education Association and The Pontiac Press.

Roseville Man's Body Recovered From Lake

WAWA, Ont. (AP)—The body of Charles Bonfield, 65, of Roseville, Mich., was recovered Wednesday from Kabenung Lake, near this community 140 miles north of Sault Ste. Marie.

Bonfield was fishing Tuesday with his nephew, William Gabler, of Garden City, Mich., and Gabler's son Calvin, 10, when a squall overturned their boat.

Cuba Shoots 4 'CIA Agents'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Four men, said by Havana Radio to be U.S. Central Intelligence Agency agents, were executed by a firing squad Tuesday for trying to land on the Cuban coast.

★ ★ ★

One of the men was identified as Maj. Felipe Vidal Santiago, a diplomatic aide in charge of the Cuban Embassy in Venezuela shortly after Fidel Castro took power in Cuba.

The broadcast, monitored here, said the four men were convicted by a revolutionary tribunal of infiltrating Cuba for subversive activities and shot a few hours after an appeals court ratified the death sentences.

They were captured when they tried to land on the north coast of Las Villas Province, the broadcast said.

★ ★ ★

The Cuban government accused the four of sailing in an armed boat from Miami under direct orders of Manuel Ray, head of the anti-Castro revolutionary junta.

OTHERS EXECUTED

Executed with Vidal Santiago were Ladislao Gonzalez Benitez, Elias Rivera Bello and Alfredo Valdes Linares, the broadcast said.

★ ★ ★

Cuban sources here said Vidal Santiago split with Castro in 1960 and sought political asylum in Colombia.

Lynda Bird Roommate Ends '4 Months of Wonderment'

WASHINGTON (AP) — After "four months of wonderment" as the White House roommate of Lynda Bird Johnson, Warrie Lynn Smith, 19, returns to Texas today with memories she'll never forget.

"I just fell in love with everyone," she admitted as she said a wistful goodby to everyone from diplomats to White House policemen. And everyone seemed to have fallen in love with Warrie.

★ ★ ★

The White House stay gave Warrie "a feeling and a spirit that will always be with me."

It wasn't quite certain whether Warrie Lynn would return to join Lynda Bird for the remainder of their sophomore year at George Washington University next fall. She has said she's going back to the University of Texas, but the Johnsons expect she and Lynda will do lots of visiting back and forth during the summer.

NOT GOING

"The President keeps saying I'm not going home," pretty, vivacious Warrie said with a smile.

She joins the Johnsons today for a trip to New York and the gala salute to the President in Madison Square Garden. Then, she is to fly with them to Texas where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Smith, are waiting to welcome her back home to San Antonio.

★ ★ ★

Warrie's last full day in the White House was one of her most memorable.

She and Lynda, 20, finished up exams at George Washington in time to watch the colorful south lawn ceremonies marking the arrival of visiting President Eamon de Valera of Ireland. While President and Mrs. Johnson rode in a brief parade with De Valera, the girls joined the crowd outside the White House to wave at them.

OFFICIAL GUESTS

Wednesday night, they were official guests for the first time at a formal state dinner honoring De Valera, and Warrie's mother sent her an appropriate white Irish linen dress to wear. To her delight, Warrie was seated next to television personality Ed Sullivan.

Warrie and Lynda danced in the Blue Room with military aides and guests.

Warrie said she plans to attend the Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City to "round out things."

Asked what she plans to do when she gets home, Warrie grinned and said: "For weeks and months I'll be telling everyone how wonderful it's been."

Nevada's first irrigation project was also the first reclamation program started by the federal government, completed in 1907.

Appeal Made for Safety Over Holiday

EAST LANSING (AP) — State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs today appealed to the public to help prevent both highway and water accidents over the Memorial Day weekend.

Traffic accidents, which have a higher hourly death rate in holiday periods, already have claimed more than 750 lives in the state so far this year, up more than 25 per cent from the same period last year, Childs said.

★ ★ ★

Travel in Michigan is expected to be about 23 per cent higher than normal over the weekend, Childs said.

Water accidents, Childs said, already have claimed 43 lives in the state, a toll not reached until June of last year.

Secretary of State James Hare, meanwhile, said the combination of the long weekend along with the current upward trend in auto accidents could result in a "worse carnage than our 24 deaths during the 1963 Memorial Day weekend."

Hare offered a few tips for safe weekend driving among them:

—Leave your temper and emotions behind.

—Be a "defensive" driver, watch out for the other fellow.

—Make sure your car is in good operating condition.

—Do not drink or take tranquilizers or similar medicine when planning to drive.

—Slow down in heavy traffic, wait a few minutes, and perhaps save your life.

—Drive refreshed and stop often for coffee or a stretch, especially on freeways.

Police fatality figures this weekend will be based on a 54-hour period. The high death count for the 54-hour period was 19 killed in 1953.

Held for Armed Robbery

Family Blocks Sales Talk

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 42-year-old Cleveland woman must have set some sort of record for sales resistance. She and her four children are being held by police for allegedly robbing an insurance man who was soliciting business.

Walter Usery, 33, of suburban Oakwood Village told police that when he stopped at the widowed mother's home yesterday, she refused to buy any insurance. When he tried to leave, the woman's two sons, 14 and 15, blocked his way, Usery told detectives.

He said the woman told her 20-year-old daughter to get the family gun and the mother and a 12-year-old daughter took $10, a watch, a ring and a knife from him.

Usery left and called police, who confiscated the gun, recovered the money and jailed the mother and children.

The widow was charged with armed robbery.

QUESTION: Why do some people need glasses?

ANSWER: In the front of the eyeball is a lens which focuses light coming so it will throw a clear image on the "retina," which is a soft, transparent membrane at the back of the eye.

In some cases the eye is unusually long from front to back. The lens, even when stretched, cannot bring distant objects to focus on the retina.

Instead, the image focuses in front of the retina and appears blurred. This is called near-sightedness or myopia. When the eyeball is too short from front to back, the focus is also wrong. In this instance the image is focused beyond the retina, producing far-sightedness.

In both of these cases the condition can be corrected by eyeglasses, because the lens of the glass changes the focus of the image just enough to let a clear picture fall on the retina.

Another common eye defect occurs when the cornea, or outer surface of the eye, is deformed so the surface is oval instead or spherical. This causes light rays to become distorted as they enter the eye. This condition, known as astigmatism, is also corrected by the use of special lenses.

Our artist has drawn a picture of John, a young friend of his. John's glasses have enabled him to read books and perform many other activities.

FOR YOU TO DO: John is surrounded by objects which have to do with several of his hobbies. In front of him is his "oscilloscope" which helps him study wave forms. On his right is his telescope and tsar chart. See what other hobbies you can recognize in the picture.

Loan Shark Files Suit

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Harold Konigsberg, an ex-convict described by the FBI as the nation's No. 1 loan shark, has accused a former penitentiary warden of failing to repay a $1,000 loan.

The loan, according to a suit filed yesterday by Konigsberg in district court, was made at 6 per cent interest to Joseph Connors in June 1959.

The suit asked repayment only of the principal.

Connors, a Jersey City councilman, was warden of the county penitentiary in 1959.

At the time, Konigsberg was in the county jail.

The jail and penitentiary are in the same building.

Preview Festival Pavilion

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Women's Editor

The project that was only a dream four months ago is now a tangible thing of bricks, two-by-fours, siding and steel arches that weigh 25 tons.

* * *

The Howard C. Baldwin Memorial Pavilion and Lula B. Wilson Memorial Concert Shell for the Meadow Brook Music Festival have taken definite shape and present a truly awe-inspiring sight on the campus of Oakland University.

* * *

One hundred and sixty-five members of the Festival ticket committee met Wednesday for luncheon and a guided tour of the concert site on the northeastern part of the campus.

BOX LUNCH

Luncheon itself was a preview of the type of food that will be sold on Saturday nights during the forthcoming summer season.

The scholarship committee of the university will take on this project and sell box lunches to concert goers. They expect also to have a "scholar shop" near the pavilion to sell handmade sweaters and other items.

* * *

Big buses lumbered their way across the fields, depositing us on the edge of the ravine where the pavilion is being erected.

Down in the enormous hole that dwarfs even the crane used to hoist materials to the roof, workmen went about their business.

You can see the stage area and the dressing rooms and offices on either side. There was a small bulldozer smoothing the ground where in July there will be seats for 2,000 listeners. Now, only stakes mark the sections.

GROUND SEATS

On three sides the hill rises rather sharply. Here, under the trees, music lovers who do not have regular seats can sit on the ground and listen to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Work on the pavilion is nearly on schedule, according to James Hicks, OU Festival manager. Only the electrical work has been affected by construction strikes. This will not hinder the opening of the Festival July 23.

* * *

Hicks also announced that Sixten Ehrling will soon have the programs for the Saturday concerts ready for publication. The concerts will be lighter in vein than the Thursday and Friday ones.

RECUPERATING

At present, Ehrling is recuperating in Stockholm from a beating he received from a drunken man. He is expected to return to Detroit in about 10 days.

* * *

Twenty-five hundred season tickets have been sold, but there are still many available.

D. B. Varner, chancellor of the University, revealed that to date $306,000 has been received for the Festival fund. The pavilion and concert shell will cost $275,000.

Branches of 'Tree of Service' Explained at Auxiliary Tea

A tree of service, its branches indicating the activities of the auxiliary to the Oakland County branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society was presented at the group's first annual membership tea Wednesday.

* * *

Women from all over Oakland County who had indicated an interest in participating in the auxiliary's work attended the gathering in the Rochester home of Mrs. Arthur Dillman.

* * *

Mrs. Raymond Rapaport and Mrs. L. Keith Crissman presented the program explaining the nature of the organization.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

The auxiliary performs several kinds of volunteer services. Some of its members drive babies to and from their pediatric appointments, reporting the doctor's findings to the caseworkers. Others are needed to assist with routine non-confidential office work.

A third group raises and spends special funds, providing enrichment in the way of piano lessons and musical instruments for talented youngsters. This group also provides gifts for special occasions and takes care of any special needs of the children.

ANNUAL DINNER

The auxiliary sponsors the annual foster parents' dinner which honors and thanks the more than 30 families who care for the agency's children.

Mrs. Crissman was general chairman for the tea. Helping her were Mrs. Richard Weir, Mrs. Reed Dewey, Mrs. Louis Scarlotti, Mrs. H. A. Helganz and Mrs. G. W. Stark.

* * *

The Michigan Children's Aid Society is a United Fund supported, non-sectarian agency which deals with the problems of the unwed mother, handles adoptions and provides foster care for children whose homes are temporarily broken.

New Nylons Aren't Shiny

A shiny nose used to be a social sin which was quickly remedied with a dab of powder. Now a shiny nose is acceptable, but shiny legs will not be if one hosiery manufacturer puts his style idea across.

His nylon sheers have a matte finish — absolutely no silken sheen whatsoever. It is the closest to a bare-legged look since bare legs.

Coowner with her husband in the Drayton Cab Company is Mrs. Leonard Hawkins of Sashabaw Road. A driver herself, Mrs. Hawkins often receives night calls. The company operates 24 hours a day.

They Work, Pontiac Sleeps

Women on Night Shift

By JEANMARIE ELKINS

Night has fallen and darkness engulfs the city. Pontiac sleeps. Part of Pontiac sleeps, that is.

There are still those who work the night shift. If they are women, they work as waitresses, nurses, telephone operators, cab drivers or on the line in one of the local factories.

Working the night shift is a hard job. It nearly always takes a little getting used to.

Sometimes women work nights by choice. But more often than not, it is a necessity. Someone has to work nights and if you are "low man on the totem pole," you are the one who will have the midnight shift.

In larger metropolitan cities there are super-markets, beauty parlors and many other places of business which stay open to accommodate those night people who keep odd hours.

But in a smaller town this is just not practical.

DUAL DUTY

So the women who work nights must do all their household chores AND sleep during the day.

The woman who works nights still has all the housework which keeps the normal homemaker busy all day waiting for her when she finishes her night shift.

A "day off" may see the woman of the house at the laundromat at 2 a.m. or silently doing a load of ironing as the rest of the family sleeps.

The pulse of the city beats at night, a little slower perhaps, but it still beats. And Pontiac's women help to keep the rhythm even.

The only registered nurse on night duty at the Pontiac State Hospital is Mrs. Duane Rofe of Lake Orion. A hospital employe for some 14 years, she is responsible for 65 wards and 116 male and female attendant nurses.

Jean Walker of North Cass Avenue is a waitress at the Country Kitchen. On a shift which begins at 11 p.m. and goes until 7 a.m., her main rush hour is from 2:30 until 4 a.m. when the restaurant is often filled on weekend mornings.

Who knows how many hours went into creating this wonderland of wooden birds? Ritchie Johnston began his carving hobby when he retired from Sears, Roebuck and Company two ago. His efforts won first place in the men's division of the hobby show presented Wednesday afternoon by the Pontiac branch of the American Association of Retired Persons. The show, presented in the Pontiac Motor union hall, was divided into three categories: antiques, men's and women's.

Jones-Johnson United

The First Free Methodist Church was the setting for the recent marriage of Mary Jane Johnson of Utica to Clayton James Jones.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Letha Johnson of Delaware, Ohio and the late Mr. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Jones of Scottwood Avenue.

★ ★ ★

The bride chose a suit of aquamarine linen, worn with white pillbox hat and blush veil. She carried white carnations.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Freda Watson and Raymond Lisceki attended the couple at the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Carl W. Koerner.

Teeuwissen Newlyweds Traveling

The W. John Teeuwissens (Charlotte Elizabeth Stanley) left for a honeymoon in northern Michigan after their recent vows in the Community United Presbyterian Church.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the bride are the Robert H. Stanleys of Flushing and her husband is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Walter J. Teeuwissen Jr. of Monroe Street.

Alencon lace motifs accented the bride's gown of white silk organza over taffeta.

CARRIES NOSEGAY

She held a nosegay of fresh lilies of the valley and white roses, repeated in a crown which held her veil.

Attendants were Molly Stanley, Robin Fox, Sally Stephens and Janet Bieglow, with Georgia Ecker, flower-girl.

★ ★ ★

Dale Tuller was best man. Seating guests were Robert Stanley, Peter Teeuwissen, Charles Tate, Larry Hadsell and Thomas Bailey.

A church reception followed the ceremony performed by the bridegroom's father.

The couple are graduates of Alma College. She will receive her master's degree in June from Michigan State University. Her husband has accepted an assistantship at the University of Pittsburgh for fall.

Limited Space? Try Tiny Tree

If you have only a small space and wish to plant fruit trees, why not try dwarf apple trees?

They will grow anywhere that regular apples will and may be set as close as eight to 12 feet apart.

The fruit of the dwarf apple is the same size as the standard apple—there is just less of it on each tree. The fruit will also be easier to gather.

Telephone Call Causes Squabble With Mother

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday I received a telephone call from a girl asking me to her prom.

ABBY

I had not even seen this girl in FOUR years, and to tell you the truth, it is not long enough.

I never liked her because she was loud and forward, and besides, she used to stare at me in eighth grade, which gave my friends plenty to kid me about.

I told her I couldn't take her to the prom because I had to work that night, which was true.

After I hung up, my mother asked me who the girl was.

I told her in a nice way that it was none of her business, which it wasn't. Do you see anything wrong with that?

GROUNDED

★ ★ ★

DEAR GROUNDED: Yes. There is no "nice" way to tell one's mother that something is none of her business. Even if it isn't.

DEAR ABBY: I myself would not inform a teacher when others are cheating. Any teacher who cares about what goes on in her classroom can catch cheaters with little effort.

Cheating in school is dishonest, of course, but it is not to be compared with robbery, assault or murder.

★ ★ ★

When one witnesses harm or violence done to another, he has a moral obligation to report the offender immediately.

When one cheats in an examination, he is only cheating himself and damaging his own character and reputation.

★ ★ ★

If he attempts to cash in on his ill-gotten marks, he will only prove to others that his fine record was not earned because he will not know his subject.

Don't back down, Abby; I think you were right.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CINDY: In the early 1700s, the English poet Edward Young wrote: "The maid that loves goes out to sea upon a shattered plank, and puts her trust in miracles for safety." Times have not changed.

Simply Elegant Coat

Simple elegance is in this sleeveless coat and skirt. It can be worn with equal success for the office, for daytime, or evening with it's sophisticated straight lines.

It may be knitted in a simple stockinette stitch or in a simple pattern which gives the garment a material look. We added the fringe to the coat to give it the little touch of femininity. The straight skirt is started from the waist down. This simplifies adding to the length if fashion should demand it.

* * *

The garment is an excellent item to make for any beginning knitter. It can be fashioned for approximately $20. The coat can also be worn with many of your basic garments, such as your shift dress, or favorite skirts and blouses.

* * *

Instructions for Sleeveless Coat with Fringe and Skirt come in sizes 8 through 18. All sizes are included on one pattern.

* * *

Pattern for sleeveless coat with fringe and skirt No. 54 may be obtained by sending $1 in currency, check or money order to: Ursula duBois, The Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., Box 3307, Van Nuys, Calif., 91407.

Fringe Benefits

Beauty, Beasts Battle

By MIRIAM NEAL

Memorial Day has come to mean open season for sun worshippers. By droves, they attack the beaches, picnic areas and backyards to gaze, unseeing, at old Sol.

Unfortunately this is not one-sided. The legions of sunburn, poison ivy, poison oak, and mosquitoes start their attack before the passive sun-soaker has a chance to arrange her towel.

- There are, of course, defensive measures that can be taken. The first and foremost is common sense. When sunbathing, limit your first "exposure" to ten to fifteen minutes on each side. Increase later 15 or 20 per cent each day, depending on the sun's intensity.
- Be able to recognize poisonous plants and watch for them when walking. Wear insect repellent when you plan to enter "enemy territory."
- Increase your skin's chance for sun-survival, the winning of the bronze tone, by using suntan lotions. Two companies have created new concoctions for summer complexions.

One is presenting a lotion and gelatin. The creamy white lotion contains a new screen to filter out harmful rays and permit an even tanning. It also boasts emollients to soften the skin.

The gelatin is designed for mermaid sun worshipers. It won't wash off while you swim!

* * *

The other company has created a lotion and oil, each of which features proven sun-screening agents that filter out the burning rays of the sun and help create a smooth sun tan.

NO ESCAPE

However, no sun-soaker escapes unscathed. Sooner or later this summer, you are bound to itch, flake or peel.

The best remedy is a cup of baking soda added to the waters of a warm bath. The "wounded victim" should just lie back and relax, leaving wash cloth and scrub brush alone. The soda's mild detergent properties will handle the cleaning detail.

The "first aid" can be a first - rate treat if you've thought ahead a little. Transfer a couple of pounds of baking soda to an apothecary jar and tuck a sachet of your favorite fragrance down in the midst of the soda.

The result: fragrant first aid when you need it.

Cucumber Salad

Tasty dressing for cucumber salads: Combine sour cream, chopped pecans, grated onion, lemon juice and salt.

First aid can be fun. Keep baking soda in an apothecary jar with a sachet of your favorite fragrance tucked down in its midst and you'll enjoy the luxury of a scented bath while you're getting a treatment for sunburn, dry skin or heat rash. Prescribed amount of soda: one cup per tubful of water.

Fire Chief Shows Film

The Lorraine Manor branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association met in the Tilmor Drive home of Mrs. Ralph Dean Tuesday evening.

* * *

Waterford fire chief, Lewis Goff, presented a film and demonstration on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

* * *

The following women are the group's new committee chairmen: Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Joseph Carpenter, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Don Lyons, Mrs. Don Lloyd and Mrs. Glenn Hickson.

* * *

The annual cooperative picnic will be held June 23.

Cuba Rebels Argue Plane Takeoff Point With Congressman

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The 30th of November Movement, an anti - Castro organization, took issue with Rep. Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., who told the House on Wednesday he understood one of its planes flew from south Florida to Cuba early this week.

"The plane did not take off from the United States, but from a secret place in the Caribbean," said Jose Feijoo, 30th of November chief information officer.

Rogers called for a congressional investigation of what he said appeared to be "an inexcusable gap in the U.S. air defense system." He told the House he was informed the plane escaped radar detection by flying at 100 feet.

A Cuban refugee who said he took part in the mission, has offered to testify at a congressional hearing that the plane took off from Florida providing he is given immunity and the hearing is private.

Rogers said he would try to arrange a hearing.

The exile identified himself by his war name, Manuel Fernandez, and would not give his real name. The 30th of November group said they have a commando named Manuel Fernandez.

In Washington, a Defense Department spokesman said: "We have no information on such a to verify an allegation that an aircraft flew as alleged." He said the department will investigate.

What Goes on Barbecue Grill?

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Earlier this week we ran a color page with a few recipes for Memorial Day picnics and cookouts. But there wasn't room to give you all the new recipes we have.

Consider this article a continuation of Monday's.

Chicken is becoming almost as popular as hamburgers on the grill. Because it is inexpensive, it can be served to large groups without disrupting the food budget.

Barbecued drumsticks make elegant finger food. If your family or guests are the "white meat only" type, just substitute chicken breasts for the drumsticks.

★ ★ ★

Add little foil packets of peas and lettuce and calico rice to heat on the grill.

Barbecue Chicken Drumsticks

1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce
½ cup dark corn syrup
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
⅛ teaspoon crushed thyme
⅛ teaspoon salt
8 chicken drumsticks

Combine tomato sauce, corn syrup, lemon juice, onion, Worcestershire sauce, thyme and salt in a small heavy saucepan. Bring to boil, then simmer 10 minutes.

Pour sauce over drumsticks in a shallow pan. Cover and let stand at least 3 hours in refrigerator. Turn chicken pieces several times.

★ ★ ★

To cook place drumsticks in hinged steak cooker and place on grill set about 6 inches above coals. Cook until tender, about 45 minutes, brushing occasionally, if desired, with leftover sauce. Makes 4 servings.

French Peas in Foil

4 lettuce leaves
2 cups frozen peas
1 onion slice, separated into rings
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
Margarine
4 tablespoons dark corn syrup

Place each lettuce leaf on a square of heavy-duty aluminum foil large enough to wrap around ½ cup of peas. Place ½ cup of peas in each lettuce leaf. Top with onion rings; season with salt and pepper.

Dot each portion with margarine and top with 1 tablespoon corn syrup. Wrap, sealing foil with double fold.

★ ★ ★

Calico Rice

1 cup rice (not precooked)
1 cup sliced celery
1 pimiento, chopped
Margarine

Combine rice and celery in saucepan with amount of water and salt indicated on rice package. Cook according to package directions. Stir in pimiento. Makes about 4 cups.

To reheat on grill: For each serving, place 1 cup cooked Calico Rice on piece of heavy-duty aluminum foil large enough to wrap around it. Dot rice with margarine. Wrap, sealing foil with double fold (drugstore wrap).

★ ★ ★

Heat on grill 5 minutes; turn and heat 5 minutes longer. Keep sealed and place at edge of grill until serving time. Makes 4 servings.

A pair of hamburger patties stuffed with a cracker dressing makes an interesting main course.

Barbecued Stuffed Patties

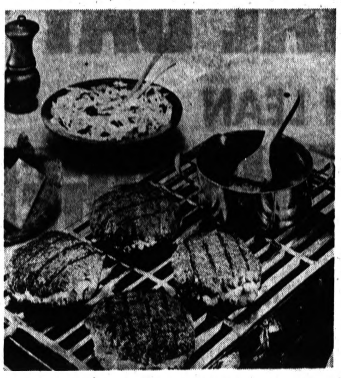
1 cup fine cracker crumbs
1 egg
2 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons grated onion
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
⅛ teaspoon Tabasco sauce
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
⅛ teaspoon oregano
1¼ pounds ground beef chuck
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

★ ★ ★

Roll crackers into fine crumbs between two pieces of waxed paper. Beat egg lightly; stir in milk, onion, garlic salt, Tabasco sauce, Worcestershire sauce and oregano. Add mixture to crumbs; blend well and set aside.

Season ground beef with salt and pepper. Gently pat into eight thin patties about 4 inches in diameter. Place a quarter of the crumb mixture on four patties, spreading almost to the edges. Top with remaining patties and gently pinch edges together.

Broil over open charcoal grill, or under a flame to desired degree of doneness. If desired, patties may be sauteed in skillet with 2 to 3 tablespoons butter or margarine. Yield: 4 servings.



BARBECUED HAMBURGER PATTIES

GRILLED MEAL — Serve chicken drumsticks, grilled in a hinged cooker for easy turning, with calico rice (reheated on the grill) and French peas cooked in aluminum foil packages. The peas are cooked with a lettuce leaf which provides flavor as well as moisture.

'Cool as a Cucumber' Is More Than Word

Quickest, coolest salad going: Wedges of iceberg lettuce and cucumber sour cream dressing. Stir 2 tablespoons each lemon juice and chopped chives, and ½ teaspoon salt into 1 cup dairy sour cream.

Peel a cucumber and slice into dressing. Spoon over wedges of iceberg lettuce and serve at once, or refrigerate in covered plastic container until dinner time.

Frank Kabobs Saucy Eating

Looking for an easy dinner that will please the family and not cost very much? Most people are a great deal of the time. Try these zippy franks.

Zippy Frank Kabobs

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef broth
⅓ cup chili sauce
¼ cup minced onion
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon horseradish
1 medium clove garlic, minced

In saucepan, combine all ingredients. Bring to boil, stirring until thickened. Cover; cook over low heat 10 minutes. Stir now and then.

Kabobs

On 4 skewers, alternate 1 pound frankfurters (cut into 3 pieces), 8 partially cooked 1-inch squares green pepper, 8 cooked small white onions, and 8 mushrooms. Place on broiler rack; baste with sauce.

Broil 3 to 4 inches from heat 5 minutes. Turn and baste.

Broil about 5 minutes longer. Serve with remaining sauce. Makes 4 servings.

Bland Jellied Dessert Low in Calories

Springtime is diet time, and dieting is one of the few games in which losing makes you a winner. Low-calorie Jellied Blancmange is one of the best ways to derive pleasure from dieting, thanks to unflavored gelatine. This pleasant product goes into a wide variety of low-calorie favorites.

★ ★ ★

To make the blancmange, stir 1 envelope unflavored gelatine into ½ cup skim milk to soften. Add 8 noncaloric sweetening tablets or equivalent, place over low heat and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Remove from heat and add 1½ cups more skim milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, and ½ teaspoon vanilla. Pour into a 2-cup mold and chill until firm. Yield: 4 servings, 40 calories per serving.

Refreshing Mint Taste in Dessert

Refreshing as spring itself, "Fruit-Mint Bavarian" is a dessert to serve with pride. Canned fruit cocktail, one of its principal ingredients, is also a good eye-opener at breakfast. Enjoyed either chilled or at room temperature, its assortment of favorite fruits is a day off to a bright start.

Fruit-Mint Bavarian

1 can (1 lb. 1 oz.) fruit cocktail
1 envelope plain gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons snipped fresh mint (or few drops mint extract)
¼ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons toasted flake coconut
1 cup whipping cream

Drain fruit cocktail, reserving syrup. Add water to syrup to make 1 cup liquid; heat to boil.

Soften gelatin in 2 tablespoons cold water; stir into hot syrup with sugar, mint and salt. Stir until sugar and gelatin are dissolved. Add lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened.

Sprinkle coconut in bottom of 1-quart mold. Whip cream until stiff; fold cream and fruit cocktail into gelatin. Pour into mold and chill until set. Unmold to serve. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

To Vary Green Salads

Try shaking a few corn chips or pretzels into your next salad of western iceberg lettuce. Or skillet-toast croutons in butter, or sprinkle canned shoestring potatoes over the top just before serving. Doing it last minute—after you've tossed the lettuce with your favorite dressing — keeps the chips, croutons or potatoes crispy.

Heat half a cup of apricot preserves with a tablespoon of brandy and use as a delectable glaze for coffee cake for company.

Good Sodas Like Old Times

Here's a great chocolate soda for the man of the house. It's a luscious home-made version of the famous black-and-white soda he enjoyed as a kid. Made with quick chocolate-flavored mix, the same wonderful mix that the kids go for in milk, the Rocking Chair Soda is designed for a relaxin' man.

★ ★ ★

Get your customer seated in the most comfortable chair in the house. Bring him his newspaper and his slippers, shoo the kids out and get busy in the kitchen. You won't have to get very busy.

Quick chocolate-flavored mix dissolves instantly, making a super soda that an old hand at the soda fountain would envy. This recipe makes four sodas.

Black and White Soda

¾ cup quick chocolate-flavored mix
2 cups milk
1 pint vanilla ice cream
carbonated water
1 bottle (12 ounces) chilled

Stir quick chocolate-flavored mix into milk. Pour into 4 12-ounce glasses. Add a scoop of ice cream to each glass and fill with carbonated water. Yield: 4 servings.

Orange Sauce for Sundae

Warm, lazy evenings mean more informal entertaining, and you can be ready for emergencies by keeping plenty of ice cream in your freezer. Top a variety of ice creams with this simple, delicious sauce for a dressy dessert.

Combine ⅓ cup water and 1 cup sugar in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil and remove from heat.

Add one 6-ounce can of frozen orange juice concentrate; mix well; cool. This recipe makes 1½ cups of sauce which you can store in a covered container in your refrigerator.

Both Calories and Cholesterol Taken Out of Dessert

A challenge facing many women for the first time is that of preparing low-fat low-cholesterol meals.

In a new diet book, "The Low-Fat Cookbook for Gourmets" (David McKay: $4.95), author Helen Belinke turns her attention to the development of fat-reduced, de-calorized variations of originally rich gourmet dishes.

★ ★ ★

An old hand at the subtle art of calorie cutting (Mrs. Belinke previously authored "The Gourmet in the Low-Calorie Kitchen"), she has included in this new collection some 300 tantalizing recipes that are low in fat and stripped of all unnecessary calories.

Mrs. Belinke has achieved her deceptively rich-tasting but calorie-shy culinary triumphs by "minor miracles in substitution". All added fat is of the polyunsaturated type, skim milk replaces whole milk, sweetening is accomplished with the calorie-free sweetener, sucaryl.

The author's self-confessed "trickery" made it possible for her to create fat- and calorie-reduced recipes for every cookbook category from soup to desserts.

Mrs. Belinke warns. "Don't deny yourself or your family the sweets they look forward to at the end of the meal. They can cost you practically nothing in the way of cholesterol, and (can be) controlled in calories as well."

The following diet-minded recipes for Strawberry-Rice Pudding and Low-Calorie Whipped Topping are typical of the culinery delights Mrs. Belinke has concocted:

STRAWBERRY RICE PUDDING

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
1 cup hot cooked rice
1 tablespoon liquid sucaryl
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup strawberries, mashed
1 cup low-cholesterol whipped topping (below)

Soften the gelatin in cold water in the top of a double boiler. Place over boiling water until dissolved. Stir in the rice, sucaryl and salt. Remove from heat. Cool and refrigerate until slightly thickened. Fold in strawberries and whipped topping. Pour into 6 sherbert glasses and chill well before serving. *Fifty-nine calories per serving. Milligrams cholesterol per serving — 0.

An extra dab of whipped topping with a strawberry or maraschino cherry half makes a nice garnish.

*If made with sugar, each serving would contain 123 calories.

Low-Cholesterol Whipped Topping

½ cup instant nonfat dry milk
½ cup ice water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1½ teaspoons liquid sucaryl

Chill bowl and beater. Mix dry milk and ice water in bowl; beat with electric mixer until soft peaks form. Add lemon juice and sucaryl; beat until stiff peaks form.

Makes 3½ cups. *Calories per tablespoon—4. Milligrams cholesterol per tablespoon—0. *If made with sugar, each tablespoon would contain 8 calories.

Ever add a little instant coffee to a confectioners sugar butter frosting? Nice used as a glaze for eclairs.

HAM CONES, HAWAIIAN — When leftover ham appears in your refrigerator, that's the time to make ham cones. Bran flakes serve as a binder. The cones are baked on a slice of pineapple and topped with a sweet-sour pineapple sauce.

Set Ham Cones on Pineapple

A favorite food from the fiftieth state, pineapple, gives Ham Cones, Hawaiian, their name. These novel ham croquettes, made with bran flakes, are baked atop pineapple slices.

Adding flavor and moistness is a tangy pineapple juice syrup spooned over the Ham Cones as they bake.

Just for fun, as accompaniments add some of the oriental elements that give Hawaiian cooking its special character. You might toss fluffy rice with almonds browned in butter and serve candied kumquats as a relish. A green vegetable completes the meal.

Ham Cones, Hawaiian

10 slices (1 lb. 4½-oz. can) pineapple
1 pound ground, cooked ham
1 tablespoon finely chopped onions
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
2 tablespoons pineapple syrup
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup bran flakes
½ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 tablespoon vinegar

Drain pineapple, reserving ⅓ cup syrup. Arrange slices in greased shallow baking pan. Combine ham, onions, parsley, mustard, pineapple syrup, egg and bran flakes; mix thoroughly. Shape into 10 cones. Place one on top of each pineapple slice.

Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 15 minutes. Combine sugar, remaining syrup and vinegar. Pour 1 tablespoon mixture over each cone. Return to oven and bake about 15 minutes longer. Yield: 5 servings, 2 cones each.

Remember to cool that meringue shell, made in a pie plate, away from drafts.

Wine Dressing Is Good on Cooked Asparagus

Combine 1 medium, finely chopped onion, ¼ cup water, ⅛ teaspoon garlic salt, ½ cup sauterne wine, ½ teaspoon dried salad herbs, 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 2 tablespoons salad oil, ¾ teaspoon salt and some freshly ground black pepper.

Pour over 2 pounds cooked fresh asparagus stalks. Cover and refrigerate for several hours. Drain and serve on crisp salad greens, garnished with pimiento strips.

Toast to the Bride Based on Fruit Juice

A toast to the bride!

Here are two recipes for the festive punch. The first one sparkles with champagne, and calls for both pink and white champagne to add a faint (and appropriate) blush.

The other is a delicious non alcoholic old-fashioned sherbet punch with lots of froth and fizz.

To make a floating fruited ice ring, arrange pineapple chunks, strawberries, lime slices and other fruits in a half-inch of water in a mold.

Freeze firm, then fill to the brim with water. Return to freezer until time to unmold.

Blushing Pineapple-Champagne Punch

2 (46-oz.) cans pineapple juice
1 large bottle pink champagne (about 25 ounces)
1 large bottle champagne (about 25 ounces)

Chill all ingredients. Combine in punch bowl over block or ring of ice. Makes 40 servings.

★ ★ ★

Pineapple Sherbet Fizz Punch

2 (46-oz.) cans pineapple juice
1 quart orange juice
½ cup lemon juice
2 quarts ginger ale
2 quarts pineapple sherbet

Chill liquid ingredients. Blend juices; add ginger ale and sherbet, stirring, until sherbet is softened and partially dissolved. Garnish punch bowl with ice ring. Makes 40 servings.

2 tablespoons finely chopped onion

Flavor Stays in Grilled Vegetables

GRILLED VEGETABLES — Frozen vegetables are delicious cooked in foil packages on the outdoor grill. Serve them attractively in inexpensive baskets.

Vegetables are delicious cooked on an outdoor grill! Not only the usual corn and potatoes, but many others, are delightfully different in flavor and easily done in this carefree outdoor way.

While the steak or chicken broils on the center part of the grill, tuck packages of vegetables around the outside where the heat is less intense.

Try young peas, the first carrots and beets . . . no scraping or peeling needed, if they are tiny. Add freshly chopped parsley and other herbs from the garden, butter, salt and pepper.

Bundle enough to serve the crowd into a good sized aluminum foil package and cook about 30 minutes on the grill. Cooking should be gentle and they will take a bit longer than when cooked with water in a saucepan. But all the delicious flavor will be saved for you to enjoy.

Roast big Bermuda onions in their skins. Wrap them individually in foil and bake like a potato. Whole small eggplant too. When soft to the touch, serve like a baked potato, foil turned back, top gashed, and butter, salt and pepper added. Really delicious.

★ ★ ★

Combine several vegetables in one package for a casserole.

Another suggestion — open package when almost done and pour on condensed cream soup diluted according to can directions, if the family likes creamed vegetables.

SHAKE PACKAGE

You'll need to shake the package of vegetables occasionally while it cooks, so there will be no chance of vegetables "catching on." And to serve, place the package in a wicker basket. Let it stay closed until the minute of serving, so the aroma and flavor of piping hot vegetables can be enjoyed to the utmost.

★ ★ ★

Here are outdoor cooked vegetable recipes to try:

Onions Baked in a Package

Peel little white or yellow onions, or young boiling onions. Allow 3 or 4 to a serving and heap in the center of a large piece of heavy duty aluminum foil. Dot with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Seal the foil to make a tight package. Place on the grill over medium heat and cook about 35 minutes.

No need to turn, but shake the package once or twice to prevent sticking. Toward end of cooking time, open package and pour on cream of mushroom or celery soup diluted according to can directions, allowing about 1 cup for 12 onions. Reseal and continue cooking.

Summer Squash, Onions and Dill

Slice tender young summer squash in ¼-inch slices. Slice onions very thin. Arrange a layer of summer squash, a layer of onion slices and a final layer of squash on the foil. Dot with butter, shake on salt and pepper and sprinkle with sprigs of fresh dill or 2 or 3 pinches of dried dill. Seal the package and cook on the grill over medium heat about 30 minutes. Shake the package frequently.

Grilled Stuffed Tomatoes

Cut slices from tops of firm tomatoes. Scoop out juice and pulp. Combine chopped leftover chicken, ham or tuna fish with soft stale bread crumbs and seasonings. Moisten with the tomato pulp. Refill tomatoes. Wrap each individually in foil. Cook gently on grill 25 minutes. Eat right from foil.

Salamagundi

Cut fresh corn from the cob, peel fresh tomatoes, squeeze out the seeds and discard; then chop. Peel and dice small eggplant, remove seeds and dice green pepper and chop onion.

Combine all these vegetables on a large piece of heavy duty aluminum foil, allowing about equal amounts of corn, eggplant and tomato; less of green pepper and onion. Dot with butter and sprinkle with salt, pepper, garlic, a little basil and chopped parsley.

Seal the foil and cook for 30 minutes, shaking the package occasionally.

Many Wieners Grilled at Once

Want to feed an army at the charcoal grill? Provide ahead of time and you can do it in workfree ways.

The routine is simple, whether the event is a family reunion, a company picnic, a church social, a Fourth of July or Labor Day celebration.

The work-saver is to skewer wieners or other sausages ladder style. One flick of the wrist will turn as many as six to 10 at a time.

Put the sausages on a pair of skewers in rung style, leaving a half inch of space between each. Place on the rack. Turn when needed. Put more than one grill in action if necessary.

Chili Pecans

Spread plump pecans in a shallow pan; sprinkle with melted butter, a little paprika, chili powder and seasoned salt. Roast in a hot oven about 20 minutes. Let cook and crisp before eating.

Can of Beans for Salad or Entree

Heated blue lake green beans rolled in slices of boiled ham and covered with a tangy sour cream sauce perked up with horseradish and mustard will arouse appetites on a moment's notice. And only a few minutes are needed to prepare these "Snappy Ham Roll-Ups," too—just in case you've been gone all day and are looking for a quickie main dish.

Snappy Ham Roll-Ups

1 can (1 lb.) vertical pack blue lake green beans
6 to 8 boiled ham slices
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 teaspoon sugar
2 teaspoons cider vinegar
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup dairy sour cream

The convenience of using these green beans direct from the container is matched only by their uniformly superior flavor. They are tender pole beans especially developed for canning and grown in Oregon and Washington under ideal climatic conditions, with plenty of natural water resources to guarantee their topnotch quality.

In a saucepan, heat beans in their own liquid. Drain and arrange in bundles on ham slices. Roll meat and skewer with toothpicks; place on oven-proof serving plate seamside down and keep hot in 325-degree (moderately slow) oven.

Combine all remaining ingredients and heat but do not boil. Pour sauce over ham rollups and serve immediately. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Nippy Bits for Father

Here are some great little tuna appetizers Dad will go for.

Drain oil from 1 can (6½ or 7 ounces) tuna in vegetable oil into mixing bowl. Add ¾ cup soft bread crumbs; blend well. Mix in 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion, ¼ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ⅛ teaspoon oregano, ¼ cup mayonnaise, ¼ cup grated Cheddar cheese and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Add drained tuna and mix well.

Shape into 1-inch balls; roll in corn flake crumbs. Place on foil-lined baking sheet and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 10 minutes.

Bank Business Lifts Pontiac Economy

The amount of business transacted through checking accounts at Pontiac banks provided a big lift in the April business outlook.

Bank debits to customer accounts were some $15.5 million higher than the month before and nearly $24 million over debits reported in April 1963.

Detroit Edison Co. electrical consumption for April 1964—12,860,088 KWH; for March 1964—13,388,845 KWH; for April 1963—13,752,290 KWH.

Total electrical consumption (Consumers Power Co. and Detroit Edison Co.) for April 1964 — 66,318,855 KWH; for March 1964—64,798,177 KWH; for April 1963—61,591,289 KWH.

The debits to customer accounts reached $127,299,933 in April, compared to $111,797,557 in March.

The figure for April a year ago was some $103.8 million.

★ ★ ★

Construction valuation last month was also above the same month last year, but well below the $1.6 million reported in March.

BUS PATRONAGE

Bus patronage, at 77,294 passengers, topped March and for the first time in 15 months was higher than the passenger total for a corresponding month the year before.

Electrical consumption was up from both March and last April, while gas consumption showed its normal seasonal decline although staying well ahead of the same month a year ago.

More water was used in April than in March, but still was about 5 million gallons off the pace set in April a year ago.

Industrial payrolls slipped slightly from the March figure and remained well below corresponding figures for a year ago as they have since Baldwin Rubber Co. shut down seven months ago.

POSTAL RECEIPTS

Postal receipts fell about $6,000 from March but were nearly identical to those reported by the local post office a year ago.

North Central Airlines patronage at Pontiac Municipal Airport was better than March, but the airline still failed to board an average of one passenger a day in April.

$5,000 Alimony Owed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Broderick Crawford's former wife, Katherine, says he owes her $5,000 alimony.

In a suit filed in Los Angeles yesterday, she claimed terms of their 1957 divorce decree required Crawford to pay her 28 per cent of his gross earnings.

Low Bidder Reported

CHICAGO (AP)—Zack Co. of Chicago was the apparent low bidder Wednesday on a contract to air condition the post office at Plymouth, Mich. Zack's bid was $62,670, the General Services Administration reported.

SCANTY COSTUMES—Diane (left) and Brenda Vasseur of Brockford, Ill., are members of Nancy's Baton Twirlers, whose costumes have been judged too scanty to be allowed in the Memorial Day parade. Sponsors of the parade, the In Memoriam Associations, say the skirtless pink satin costumes have no part in a memorial for deceased veterans. The group has won four consecutive twirling titles at the Illinois State Fair. The 60 girls in the troupe range from 4 years to teen-agers. Their mothers are protesting.

LBJ Winner in MSU Poll

EAST LANSING (AP)—President Johnson won Wednesday in a mock presidential preference primary at Michigan State University.

★ ★ ★

He out - polled the leading Republican, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, by more than 2-to-1.

★ ★ ★

Johnson received 2,653 of the 6,110 votes cast for both parties. Lodge led the GOP ticket with 1,432.

★ ★ ★

Democrats polled 3,094 votes to the Republicans' 3,016.

ONLY RIVAL

Johnson's only rival for the nomination was Alabama Gov. George Wallace, who received 393 votes. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy had a strong lead on a slate of Democratic vice presidential nominees with 1,191.

★ ★ ★

Trailing Lodge was New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller with 667. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., was third with 358, followed by former Vice President Richard Nixon with 312.

Sgt. York Continues to Show Improvement

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—World War I hero Sgt. Alvin York is still listed in satisfactory condition today and continues to show improvement after being admitted to the hospital last Friday with internal hemorrhaging.

★ ★ ★

Doctors at Veterans Hospital have given no indication when the 76-year-old Medal of Honor winner might return to his Pall Mall, Tenn., home.

A Summer of Fluff and Nonsense

Films Taking a Frivolous Turn

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—In the spring, the movies' fancy lightly turns. The film companies seem unwilling to issue anything of a weighty nature; hence, the springtime flood of fluffy, frivolous products.

THOMAS

Three of the current releases demonstrate Hollywood's preoccupation with combining names and nonsense. Vast amounts of each have gone into "What a Way to Go!" The result is not equal to the sum of its parts, but it provides passable entertainment.

★ ★ ★

Thanks are largely due to Shirley MacLaine, who works ever so hard to keep the flimsy fabric from tearing asunder. The story is reminiscent of old Sid Caesar - Imogene Coca sketches, complete with takeoffs on old and new movies. Shirley is a simple lass whose life is ruined by too much money.

The whole business is not to be taken any more seriously than the premise. The trouble is that none of the characters has a shred of reality; all are as two dimensional as Huckleberry Hound.

DECORATIVE MALES

The male stars struggle to break loose from their cardboard containers, but it is impossible. However, they are highly decorative, as is Shirley—gowned and ungowned.

"A Bedtime Story" provides the provocative casting of Marlon Brando and David Niven in another farfetched saga of high life. They play a pair of lowlifes, actually jet - age gigolos who relieve rich American women of diamonds, rubies and other baubles.

★ ★ ★

Niven is pictured as a suave, bogus nobleman over whom the girls swoon as if he were a middle-aged Beatle. Along comes Brando, a brash GI with a monumental record of conquests among the frauleins. He challenges Niven to a game of "King of the Mountain" — the film's original title, discarded because it sounded like an action adventure. Their quarry: Shirley Jones.

Niven is capital for this sort of thing. The surprise is Brando. Whether playing the smooth operator or masquerading as a blithering half - wit prince, he evokes laughs with a sure touch.

MORE UNREALITY

Then there is "Viva Las Vegas," another adventure in unreality. This one has Elvis Presley as a race car driver and Ann-Margret as a swimming teacher in Las Vegas, and—oh, why bother? Suffice to say the plot, retreaded perhaps from an old Esther Williams - Van Johnson script, is barely enough to thread together a succession of musical numbers.

Action Starts Tomorrow Night

Top Pitchers in Prep Diamond Tourney

Some of the area's top pitching talent is scheduled to see action in the Pontiac Press-Pontiac Parks and Recreation High School Baseball Tournament.

Eight teams are entered in the tourney which opens with the Walled Lake-Pontiac Central clash tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Jaycee Park.

★ ★ ★

Three games are on the Memorial Day schedule: Romeo vs Royal Oak Kimball, 3:30 pm.; Kettering vs Rochester, 6 p.m.; and Milford vs Pontiac Northern, 8:30 p.m. All games will be played at Jaycee Park.

The winner of tomorrow night's game will meet the winner of the Romeo-Kimball tilt next Thursday at 6 p.m., with the winners of the other two games meeting at 8:30 Thursday..

Kettering had an 11-4 record going into today's final season tilt against Pontiac Central. The Captains compiled a 6-2 mark in the Tri-County League to share the title with Romeo.

★ ★ ★

Two of the big reasons for the Captains success this season have been the pitching of Rick Pankey and Bob Bogert. Pankey was slated to start today's game so it's probable that Bogert will get the call against Rochester Saturday.

Outfielder Bill Dedrich, third baseman Craig Collins and Bogert, the RBI leader, have shared the offensive punch for the Captains.

TWO CHOICES

Rochester is expected to toss either Steve Kendrick or Mike Konley at the Captains. Both are curve-balling right-handers.

The Falcons (6-8) got off to a slow start, losing their first five games, but they soared back to post a 6-3 mark in the closing weeks of the campaign and captured second place in the Oakland A League.

Rochester has a hard-hitting club led by outfielder Carl Stefanski.

Pitching should dominate the Milford-Pontiac Northern game.

Milford (14-3) coach Jerry Ganzel has his ace left-hander Ed Sparkman ready for duty and PNH coach Arnie Wilson is expected to counter with right-hander Roger Hayward.

Sparkman went 17 innings last Monday in defeating Clarkston to give the Redskins the Wayne-Oakland League crown.

★ ★ ★

The senior southpaw has compiled a 12-1 record this season, and in 105 innings he has struck out 168 and allowed only seven earned runs. Included in his record was a no-hitter against Holly.

★ ★ ★

Hayward hasn't pitched as often, but he has been just as impressive. The junior hurler owns a 5-1 record and he teamed up with Mike Burklow in pitching the Huskies (10-2) to the Inter-Lakes League championship.

FALLEN TWIN—Minnesota Twins' Jimmy Hall lies on a table in the Twins dressing room with an ice pack on his cheek after being knocked down by a pitch from Los Angeles Angels' Bob Belinsky last night. The pitch struck Hall on the left cheekbone. X rays were negative. Belinsky, a 4-1 winner, made a visit to the dressing room after the game to express his regret for the accident.

Detroit Breaks Even on Road

Rakow's Relief Baffles Orioles

Bengals Triumph, 6-3; Play Sox Tomorrow

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers — with a new relief sensation in the bullpen — returned home today with a 5-5 road record and their first crack at the first place Chicago White Sox.

The Bengals open a four-game series with the Sox Friday night.

Manager Charlie Dressen probably would like to start Ed Rakow, the sore-armed bartender from Kansas City. Rakow personally helped the Tigers take two of three games from the zooming Baltimore Irioles. His 4 1-3 inning relief job gave Detroit a 6-3 victory Wednesday night.

SECOND RESCUE

He rescued starter Phil Regan in the fifth and scattered two hits the rest of the way to pick up his second relief victory in three days, boosting his record to 2-3.

Rakow, who claims his arm only hurts when he loses, got credit for a 5-2 decision on Monday. He lost his first three starts in a Detroit uniform but seems to thrive on bullpen work.

But Dressen is expected to start his ace, Dave Wickersham (6-3), against the Sox.... with Rakow in the bullpen.

Baltimore took a 2-1 lead going into the fourth when Detroit rallied for three runs on Don Demeter's three-bagger and a wild spell by Oriole rookie Dave McNally.

With one out and Demeter on third, McNally uncorked a wild pitch to tie the score at 2-2. Jake Wood, playing third base, walked. Norm Cash doubled to drive in another run and George Thomas drove Cash home with a single.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers made it 6-3 in the fifth on Al Kaline's fourth home run of the season. The first run came in the third on Regan's single, an error by Brooks Robinson and Jerry Lumpe's single.

Baltimore scored in the second on Don Wert's error on a pop fly. He was playing shortstop. Dick McAuliffe, who has been in a slump, was benched. Jake Powell drove in another run on a sacrifice fly to Al Kaline in the third.

Regan got into trouble in the fifth when Russ Snyder broke a bone in his left ankle when he tripped over first base and will be lost to the Orioles for about a month. Rookie Sam Bowen replaced him in the outfield, and Rakow replaced Regan on the mound.

Signs Football Pact

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Bob Pelkington, basketball star from Xavier University, has signed with the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League, it was announced today.

The 6-7, 250-pound Pelkington was the nation's leading rebounder last season.

LA's Bad Boy Now a Top Bo

By The Associated Press

"Good shows, fine food, beautiful dames? I just don't dig that stuff any more."

—Bo Belinsky, 1964.

It's strictly a soda pop and early-to-bed world now for Bo, who Wednesday night took a shower after a game for the first time this season.

The reformed Angel —"I'm behaving like a ball player"— pitched his first complete game and equalled his entire 1963 victory total by posting victory No. 2 as Los Angeles defeated Minnesota 4-1 in the opener of a twi-nighter.

TWO YEARS AGO

It's been two years and 22 days since Belinsky, a veteran pool shark and rookie pitcher, announced his arrival on the major league scene by hurling a no-hitter. Last year, he made his first exit, shipped to the minors with a 2-9 record.

★ ★ ★

This time, he says, things are going to be different.

"I'm giving it my best shot," he said. "I've pitched some good games and didn't win. But as long as I know I'm pitching well, I won't get discouraged. The breaks are bound to fall my way sooner or later."

They did against the Twins. Belinsky allowed Minnesota's only run on Harmon Killebrew's 13th homer but scattered seven hits, struck out eight and did not walk a man in a strong performance. Still, he needed some brilliant fielding support—and got it.

★ ★ ★

The Twins, however, came back to take the nightcap, winning 4-3 on Don Mincher's homer in the 13th inning.

The New York Yankees whipped Cleveland 7-2 and Washington edged Boston 9-8 in 11 innings. The Chicago White Sox were rained out at Kansas City.

★ ★ ★

Pearson, besides saving Belinsky, scored the tie-breaking run for the Angels in the third inning of the opener when he singled, stole second and scampered home on a single by Lee Thomas.

In the nightcap, Bob Allison's 11th homer produced an early Minnesota lead but the Angels scored twice in the eighth to tie the score. Mincher's seventh homer decided it.

Bill Skowron and Chuck Hinton homered for the Senators as they built a 7-2 lead, but Dick Stuart's second homer of the game eventually tied the score in the seventh.

Each team scored in the eighth before Washington pulled it out in the 11th against Dick Radatz on a walk to Jim King, a sacrifice, Mike Brumley's infield hit and Dick Phillips' single.

Al Downing scattered seven hits and chipped in with a triple and single for the Yankees. Downing had the Indians shut out until Larry Brown homered in the eighth for his third hit. Roger Maris hit an inside-the-park homer and Clete Boyer hit a two-run homer as the Yankees handed Jack Kralick his first defeat after four victories.

'Indy' Cars in Last Tests

Drivers Make Final Check

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Drivers in Saturday's $500,000 Memorial Day auto race got their last chance today to check whether mechanics put everything back in the right place after post-qualification teardowns.

★ ★ ★

The 33 glittering cars, striped down to the bare frames in a scrutiny for damaged parts, were to be checked out in a final practice with full fuel loads from 2 to 4 p.m. EST.

It seemed unlikely that the highly specialized mechanics had misassembled the expensive machines—but it has happened.

LEFT AT LINE

The late Jimmy Bryan, winner of the 500 in 1958, was left at the starting line the next year when he couldn't let out his clutch. Two bolts had been interchanged.

Today also was the last chance for world road racing champion Jimmy Clark to get in a little practice since winning the Grand Prix of the Netherlands last Sunday.

★ ★ ★

He qualified his new Lotus-Ford hurriedly on the first day of the 500 time trials May 16—so hurriedly he set a 10-mile revord of 158.828 m.p.h. for the Indianapolis Motor Speedway — then dashed off to Holland to practice on the North Sea dunes course.

★ ★ ★

The 500 Festival, an aspiring youngster which hopes to rival the Mardi Gras and the Tournament of Roses, will reach a colorful climax this evening in a parade featuring 33 elaborate floats—one for each starting car — and scores of bands and marching units.

Times have changed in the decades since the drivers used to wheel into the Speedway on race day morning in pick-up trucks, with no preliminaries, and set about fueling up for the 500. Indianapolis has had four solid weeks of parties, and recognition affairs for past and present liminaries of the auto racing world.

The fantastic night-before brawl on 16th street, main artery to the Speedway, is to be more subdued this Friday night —or so police hope. Instead of the thousands of fans partying all night in cars parked for miles along the street, a special overnight parking lot has been set up on the Speedway's sprawling property.

Authorities also hope a special night court for peace-breakers will calm down the early arrivals.

★ ★ ★

A $70,000 golf tournament, which has helped to give tone to an essentially rowdy sports event, started Wednesday but will take Saturday off before Sunday finals.

The taut-nerved golfing pros, who turn pale when a camera shutter clicks, had to put up this afternoon with racers roaring around the perimeter of nine holes inside the track.

The last preliminary to the race proper will be a meeting of drivers Friday noon to go over rules with chief steward Harlan Fengler and other officials.

The first-time starters customarily are kept after school to make sure they understand the flags and other signals.

★ ★ ★

Seven rookies this year were headed up in the time trials by 44-year-old Walt Hansgen of Bedminster, N.J., a noted sports car racer given a chance with a promising new rear-engine Haffaker-Offenhauser. It is owned by Kjell Qvale, native Norwegian now running a big foreign car distributorship in San Francisco.

Ladies' Honors Tied

Shirley Fredricksen took low net honors of the Silver Lake Women's League in the first flight but was tied by Mary Turner of the third flight with 37.

Low putts of 13 went to Jean Looney while June Fifield took blind hole (No. 9) honors.

LONDON (UPI) — Kenny Lane, Muskegon, Mich., arrived here Wednesday for his Tuesday bout with Dave Charnley at Wembley and said he was confident of beating the British lightweight contender, is subbing for injured Brian Curvis of Britain.

Fischer Now Up to Nuxhall

By The Associated Press

When Joe Nuxhall was throwing newspapers onto front porches, Hank Fischer was tossing toys out of his playpen.

Two decades later, Nuxhall and Fischer are throwing shutouts at National League opponets.

Each pitcher recorded his third shutout Wednesday night, high in the league this season. Cincinnati's Nuxhall stopped the stumbling Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0 on six hits while Fischer hurled a four-hitter in Milwaukee's 2-0 victory over Houston.

INCREASED MARK

The 24-year-old Fischer increased his record to 5-2 and lowered his earned run average to 2.75. Nuxhall, 35-year-old veteran, won his fourth game against three defeats and reduced his ERA to 3.30.

★ ★ ★

The Cincinnati southpaw went from delivering newspapers in Hamilton, Ohio, to pitching in the major leagues at the age of 15. That was in 1944 when Fischer was four years old.

When the Braves' right-hander entered organized baseball in 1959, Nuxhall already had been playing for 15 years. In fact, four years before, Nuxhall led the league in shutouts with five. This season marks the first time he has exceeded two shutouts with the exception of that year.

★ ★ ★

Fischer's victory Wednesday night overshadowed the two-hit performance of his opponent, Skinny Brown of Houston. In another NL shutout, Art Mchaffey threw a four-hitter as Philadelphia halted Pittsburgh's five-game winning streak 2-0. Juan Marichal limited St. Louis to seven hits in San Francisco's 2-1 triumph while Dick Ellsworth and Chicago stopped New York 7-1 on seven hits.

Nuxhall got the better of the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, who allowed the Reds just three hits but still dropped his fourth game in eight decisions. Nuxhall didn't walk a man and allowed only two Dodgers to reach second base.

★ ★ ★

The Braves scored two runs for Fischer in the fourth. Ed Mathews singled and went to second when Ty Cline was hit by a pitch. Both advanced on a passed ball. An intentional walk with one out loaded the bases. Two runs then scored as Rusty Staub bobbled a throw that would have completed an inning-ending double play.

Mahaffey completed his first game in eight starts, holding the Pirates to two doubles by Dick Schofield and singles by Donn Clendenon and Smoky Burgess. Bob Friend lost his fourth game against four victories.

Marichal brought his record to 7-1 as the Giants stayed close to the first-place Phillies. He got out of tight situations three different times. Chuck Hiller and Duke Snider opened the game with consecutive home runs off the Cardinals' Bob Gibson, who suffered his first defeat after four triumphs.

The Mets calmed down after their uncharacteristic outburst the day before when they scored 19 runs. They gave starter Al Jackson the usual support—no runs in the 5 1-3 innings he pitched. Jackson, now 3-6, has not had a run scored for him in 36 innings.

STILL FLIPPING — Milwaukee's Hank Fischer continues to flip the ball while discussing his four-hit shutout against Houston last night, 2-0. Fischer has won five, including three shutouts, and lost two this season.

At Indianapolis

Unknown in Golf Lead

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) —George Archer, an unheralded first-year pro from California, today led a tightly bunched field into the second round of the $70,000 Festival Open golf tournament, with par taking its usual beating.

Sixty-six of the 159 entrants equalled or bettered par 71 over the inviting Speedway course Wednesday and the 24-year-old Archer, last year's Trans-Mississippi Amateur champion, paced them all with a sizzling seven under-par 64.

Hot on his heels were Joe Campbell, Peridod Bay, Fla., and Harold Kneece, a drawling South Carolinian, both with 65s.

ONE BEHIND

Just one shot back of them were a trio of seasoned veterans — Doug Sanders, Kel Nagle and long-hitting George Bayer.

By this evening, only the low 90 and ties will be left to go Friday's third round of the four-day grind with $12,000 going to the winner.

Archer knocked in birdie putts of 6, 11 and 13 feet to start the back nine, curled in a 40-footer on 15, hit an eight-iron to within 8 feet of the pin for another bird on 16, blasted a wedge to within 5 feet of the cup on 17 and canned an 18-foot putt for still another subpar hole on 18.

His only flaw was on the third hole where he three putted from 60 feet.

★ ★ ★

Jack Nicklaus, the tour's leading money winner, had to settle for a one-over-par 72 while defending champion Dow Finsterwald and South Africa's Gary Player started today six strokes off the pace with 70s.

4 Spartan Swimmers Named All-Americans

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Four Michigan State University swimmers have earned places on the 1964 NCAA All-American swimming team.

★ ★ ★

Spartans named to the squad are Darryle Kifer, Warren sophomore, James MacMillan, Detroit sophomore, Richard Gretzinger, Plymouth junior, and Robert Sherwood, Grosse Pointe Park sophomore.

The Washington Senators of 1963 were last in the American League in club batting, fielding and pitching.

County Track Meet at Ferndale Friday

Pontiac Central and Bloomfield Hills hold over half the records for the All Oakland County Track and Field meet and the trend is expected to continue Friday in the fifth renewal of the meet at Ferndale.

Athletes from PCH, the defending champion, have their names on five records. Bloomfield Hills' runners hold three of the 13.

★ ★ ★

Bob Richards of the Barons, the state mile champion, is expected to lower the county standard for this event and put his name in the book for a second time.

★ ★ ★

Richards set the 880 mark last year with a 1:55.8. Dennis Hunt of Farmington returns to defend his mile championship and will probably do better than the 4:25.4 record he set last year.

But the Farmington ace hasn't been able to overtake Richards in two meetings this spring.

Bloomfield Hills also has the 880 and mile relay marks.

Gerald Henry is the only Pontiac Central participant still competing who is a record setter. He cracked the high jump mark at 6-1 last year and is expected to improve it Friday.

OUT OF REACH

Bradell Pritchett's shot put record of 61-6¾ set in 1961 looks untouchable. So does the broad jump mark of 22-3¼ established in 1960 by Bob Walker of PCH.

Les Hanspard of the Chiefs or Kettering's Jim Haviland have bettered the existing pole vault mark of 13-3¼ set last year by PCH's John Stewart several times.

Rod Ford of Kimball is the only other state champion in the meet.

He holds one of the other five All-County marks. Ford cracked the 440 record with a 50.1 in 1963. Last week he won the state Class A 440 in 51.2.

Pontiac Central and Birmingham Seaholm are expected to contend for the team championship. The Chiefs have won three of the four that have been decided with Waterford winning once.

★ ★ ★

The pole vault and high jump will get under way at the Ferndale High field at 3:30 p.m. Preliminaries in the running events will start a half hour later.

The finals in the running events, broad jump and shot put will be at 8 p.m.

Individual favorites include Ken Heft, Seaholm, high and low hurdles; Otis Newkirk, PCH, 100 and 220; Bill Schoen, Seaholm, and Miles Kearny, Bloomfield Hills, 880; Richard and Hunt, mile.

Ford is top choice in the 440 and Ken Holder of Troy is rated the favorite in the broad jump. Jim Harris of Pontiac Northern, and Kettering's Earl Hook are definite threats to the high jump title and record held by Henry.

Dennis Lamb of Southfield is the leading shot putter and Seaholm is a definite threat in both relays.

Nine-Error Defense Helps 'A' Winners

A robust 14-hit attack augmented by Don Picmann's five-hit hurling carried Huron-Airway to a 14-2 rout of CIO No. 594 in a city men's baseball game last night.

Nine errors by the losers and five base on balls aided the cause of Huron-Airway which won its second game of the young season at Jaycee Park.

The issue was decided before two men were out in the opening inning. An error and four singles produced three runs with catcher Charlie Johnson driving in two.

The winners tallied seven times in the sixth inning on just two hits. Ron Murray's two-run triple capped the spurt.

★ ★ ★

The contest was called after six innings due to the ten-run lead rule.

CIO, in suffering its first loss after one win, scored both its runs in the fifth inning, the only frame it had more than one hit off of Picmann.

The Clippers and Talbott Lumber will be after their first win of the campaign when they collide at 8 p.m. tonight under the lights at Jaycee Park.

★ ★ ★

The league then will halt play until Sunday night.

Seven Matmen From Michigan on Honor Roll

Dan Secosky of Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows was one of seven Michigan amateur wrestlers named on the national honor roll in the Amateur Wrestling News, a publication printed in Oklahoma.

★ ★ ★

Secosky was listed 25th among the 50 amateurs on the honor roll. Dave Porter of Lansing Sexton headed the list, Charles Beatty of Ypsilanti was second and Lloyd Frees of Michigan School for the Blind third.

Fred Stehman of Okemos, Gary Graves of Freeland and Mike Brakley of Ypsilanti trailed Secosky on the list.

In four years at FOLS, Secosky racked up a wrestling mark of 89-12. He won the Class B 138-pound state title in 1963, and placed second in the state 145-pound class this year.

★ ★ ★

Secosky, who plans to enroll at the University of Wyoming this fall, will join matmen from across the United States at the U.S. Olympic tryouts at the World's Fair in New York August 25-29.

Michigan Shortstop Signs With Tigers

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—The Detroit Tigers Wednesday signed another member off the 1964 University of Michigan baseball team.

★ ★ ★

The Tigers signed shortstop and team captain Dave Campbell to a contract with the Lakeland, Fla. farm team in the Florida State League. Earlier this week outfielder Ron Tate signed with the Tigers' Duluth, Minn. farm club in the Northern League.

Campbell, a 6-foot-1, 180-pounder, is the son of Lansing Sexton High baseball coach Bob Campbell.

Birds Sign Replacement

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles placed outfielder Russ Snyder on the injured reserve list today and filled his spot on the roster by signing Gino Cimoli to a contract.

Snyder fractured the fibula bone, several inches above his left ankle, while beating out a bunt in the fifth inning of Wednesday night's game against the Detroit Tigers. He jammed his foot on the first base bag when he took an extra-long stride to beat the throw on a close play.

The cast will not be removed for three weeks, and he is not expected to resume workouts for at least six weeks.

Boat Auctions Popular

Auctions are being used by many boat dealers to dispose of used craft taken as trade-in on new models. In some instances, several dealers sponsor the auction in a central location. Experience has proved that both buyer and dealer are satisfied with the results of the bidding at these off-season offerings.

State Boxer, Scot in 10-Round Duel

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—Two of the toughest fighters in the business, Britain's Terry Downes and Ed Zaremba of Jackson, Mich., slug it out tonight in a scheduled 10-round light heavyweight bout at Kelvin Hall. Downes is a 2-1 favorite.

★ ★ ★

Zaremba suffered a setback on the eve of the fight when his manager, Harry Baxter of Detroit, was rushed to a Glasgow hospital.

Zaremba said the Scottish-born Baxter had suffered a slight stroke.

Hospital authorities said Baxter was "fairly comfortable" and his condition was unchanged.

Records 'Cheer' Touring Booters

By BOB FOWLER

DETROIT (UPI)—Liverpool's traveling soccer players aren't about to get homesick.

The champions of England have thousands of their hometown followers traveling with them as they tour the United States on a phonograph record.

* * *

The record, which probably won't challenge anything turned out by Liverpool's other musical group, the Beatles, was played for the first time as the Englishmen took the field Wednesday night for an exhibition match against the Meidricher Sports Club of Duisburg, Germany in the University of Detroit Stadium.

MUSICAL STRATEGY

And, the musical strategy worked as Liverpool whipped a disorganized Meidericher club, 4-1, before 7,000 customers.

The record, titled "Spion Kop," does not have a beat like, "I Want To Hold Your Hand," but gets the point across that the thousands participating are singing.

It was cut by the team's fans after Liverpool had won the English championship.

Detroit soccer fans' reaction to "Spion Kop" was something less than their enthusiasm for, "She Loves you," or "I Want To Be Your Man." The record was played with any introduction and most of those sitting in the stands didn't know what was going on.

* * *

But, it stirred the Englishmen enough to atone for their 2-0 defeat Sunday by Hamburg, germany at Randall's Island Stadium in New York. Liverpool jumped off to a 3-0 halftime lead and Meidericher didn't score until the final minute of play.

-Gordon Wallace, Liverpool's inside left, scored the Englishmen's first two goals, while Alf Arrowsmith notched the final two scores.

* * *

With eight minutes gone in the game, Wallace took a long pass deep in Duisburg territory, dribbled within 16 yards and beat goalie Manfred Manglitz with a low smot into the righthand corner of the net.

Wallace hit again 14 minutes later when he cut from the corner past three defenders, and scored from 12 yards out.

FIRST GOAL

Arrowsmith got his first goal four minutes before halftime when he booted home a short shot from eight yards out.

* * *

At the 31-minute mark of the second half Arrowsmith scored again on a six-yard shot. Both of Arrowssmith's goals were set up by passes from Ian St. John.

Liverpool won without the services of four stars.

Captain Ron Yates missed the game with an injured leg, while Roger Hunt, Peter Thompson and Gordon Milne were playing with the English Nationals in a game against the American Nations in New York.

American League umpires Sam Carrigan, John (Red) Flaherty, Bob Stewart and Ed Hurley are natives of Massachusetts. Carrigan and Hurley are from Holyoke.

Champ Paces Field in Waterford

Spencer Floor Covering has taken a strong stand in its bid to lead the softball action in the Waterford Township recreation program.

* * *

The 1963 township champion drubbed Lakeland Pharmacy 9-1, in Class B action last night; while Howe's Lanes utilized a triple play to defeat Haskins Chevrolet, 7-2, in an interleague clash.

Pontiac play saw Local No. 653's International League entry strengthen its lead with a 9-1 verdict over the Pontiac Merchants.

Motor Car Transport ripped Buckner Finance, 17-5, in another I-L contest. National League scores had Pontiac State Hospital nip Circle Inn, 10-9, and Bud & Lou's Bar drop a 7-1 verdict to Bob & Larry's Bar.

The Spencer victory gave it a two-and-a-half game lead over Lakeland and Howe's in the "B" race. It was the fifth straight win for the floormen.

Louis Seay and Jim Patterson each had two singles to back Jerry Thomas' pitching.

* * *

Howe's stopped a first-inning threat by Class C Haskins Chevrolet with a triple play and then used the hitting of Janic Hirn (three runs batted in on double and single) and Ted Wharry (three singles, three runs scored) to coast to the win behind Ralph Long and John Lappanen's pitching.

SECOND WIN

Local 653 won its second without a loss in the city's International circuit behind the three-hit mound work of Jerry Curry.

* * *

Dick Fitzgerald had two doubles, a triple and scored three times, and Dick Hamm homered as Motorcar pounded out 14 hits to swamp Buckner Finance.

Bob & Larry's regained its winning ways with a 13-hit barrage led by Morris Yarnold (three singles and double) and Dick Nichols (three singles).

A single by Marshall Fields and triples by John Richards and Vince Long accounted for the tying and winning runs as PSH rallied for two sixth-inning markers against Circle Inn.

Fields had three singles in the game and Richards a single, two doubles and three-bagger in the winners' 14-hit offense.

Six in Net Tournament

One qualifier for the state tennis finals at Kalamazoo next week will see action this weekend in the first Walled Lake Invitational Class A tennis tournament.

Six local high schools will send teams to the meet, which Viking coach John Shadford hopes will become an annual affair.

* * *

Dave Gottlieb, runner-up in the Class A singles regional at Cranbrook last weekend, will carry Bloomfield Hills' colors in the state meet and will play with the Barons Friday afternoon at Walled Lake.

In addition to the host team, the other schools accepting invitations are Waterford, Kettering, North Farmington and Pontiac Northern.

Tournament play will begin 4 p. m. Friday with four singles and three doubles classes. Action will-resume at 9 a. m. Saturday.

* * *

In the Cranbrook competition, Bloomfield Hills was runner-up to Plymouth. Birmingham Groves, whose Tom Dashiell and Bob Scharff won the doubles title, finished third.

Others earning points were Farmington, North Farmington, Seaholm, Walled Lake and Brother Rice.

Speedy Dragcar Set to Appear at Raceway

The area's fastest drag-racing car will be put through the paces at the International Race Park Sunday.

The dragster — Logghe Brothers — Marsh & Steffey's Chevrolet-powered machine — is billed as the world's fastest unblown Chevy, and the only car in its class to run in the seven-second bracket for the quarter mile.

The gates open at 7:30 a.m. with the elimination program getting under way at 12:30. The track is located on Meldrum Road at 26 Mile, six miles east of U.S. 25.

Area drivers picking up trophies at the track last week were William Barrow and Randy Golden of Pontiac; Gerry Tyler and Larry LaBair of Drayton Plains; and Bob Rienhardt of Clawson.

Balloon Derby Set in Berkley Program

One of the big moments in the Berkley recreation department's summer program is the annual balloon derby in early July.

Thousands of city youngsters gather that day and release balloons which float on the wind until broken or lands some distance away.

* * *

Cards are attached and the people finding the balloons are requested to return the card. The one found farthest away wins a prize for the youngster releasing it.

Defensive Ace Signs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Halfback Tommy McDonald, a Notre Dame defensive ace, was signed to a 1964 National Football League contract Wednesday by the Washington Redskins.

The highest outfield wall in the American League is the left field fence at Boston's Fenway Park which stands 37 feet.

White Lake to Open '64 Baseball Season

Former minor league player Bob Payne will be guest speaker at a Memorial Day ceremony signalling the opening of the 1964 baseball season for teams in the Hi-White Boy's Athletic Association.

Payne, now a teacher at Milford High School, played ball with one of the teams in the Detroit Tigers' farm organization.

The Memorial Day activities will open with a parade at 11:15. The parade participants will begin at Lee Brooks School in White Lake Township.

Soccer Cup Victory Puts Italians in Party Mood

MILAN, Italy (AP) — Milan was a city of jubilation today as soccer fans celebrated hometown Internazionale's 3-1 victory over Spain's Real Madrid to take the European Cup of Champions.

The end of the soccer classic in Vienna was a signal here for cheers and revelry.

★ ★ ★

The central streets of this city of two million — 500 miles from the Austrian capital — became the scene of pandemonium from the moment that radio and television broadcasters shouted Wednesday night: "The game is over and Inter is the new European champion club."

People swarmed into the streets from crowded bars and from homes, waving banners with the blue and black colors of Internazionale. Police estimated 120,000 persons filled down streets.

★ ★ ★

Merrymakers gathered on the sidewalks and spilled over streets and cental squares. Cars, crammed with shouting fans, formed long caravans in the boulevards and residential districts heading to the center of the city.

It was in sharp contrast to the scene during the game.

For two hours Milan appeared a ghost city. Only the blaring of radios and television sets came from private homes and public places.

Streetcars and trains, usually crowded at that time of the night from the rush of commuters, made their regular runs almost empty.

Miss Wright Defends Title

BEAUMONT, Tex. (UPI) — Thirty-five women professional golfers, including defending champion Mickey Wright, will tee off Friday in the $8,500, 54-hole Babe Didrickson Zaharias Women's Open golf tournament at Beaumont Country Club.

Miss Wright has won four titles on the current women's tour. She won the Zaharias Open last year with a record, 10-under-par 209.

The main competition for Miss Wright is Betsy Rawls, champion at Dallas last week. Miss Rawls has won the Zaharias Open twice and has been co-champion once.

Roberts Gains in Life Battle

Drinks First Fluids Since Fiery Crash

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Race driver Glenn (Fireball) Roberts took fluids by mouth Wednesday for the first time since he was critically burned over most of his body in a fiery racing crash Sunday.

The latest medical bulletin from Charlotte's Memorial Hospital said the 33-year-old driver from Daytona Beach, Fla., was progressing satisfactorily, though his condition remained critical. He was reported still conscious and alert.

Roberts was involved in a three-car accident on the seventh lap of the World 600-mile stock car race at the 1½-mile Charlotte Motor Speedway.

Doctors said "Roberts' remarkable physical condition has been a contributing factor in his survival to this point. He has moved his arms and legs very slightly through sheer effort."

In the first 72 hours after the wreck, Roberts had been given 123 pints of blood.

NFL Exhibition Slate Released

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Labor Day weekend doubleheader in Cleveland, featuring the Detroit Lions vs. the New York Giants and the Browns vs. the Green Bay Packers, heads a 35-game pre-season schedule announced Wednesday for the National Football League.

All but five of the games will be at night and all league cities except Baltimore, Pittsburgh and New York will host one game. Fifteen non-league cities also will have pre-season games.

The world champion Chicago Bears will open the schedule Friday night, Aug. 7, against the College All-Stars at Soldiers Field in Chicago and six other games will follow that weekend.

Pro Wrestlers to Meet in Benefit Tomorrow

Professional wrestlers will stage a benefit show for the Hazel Park Wrestling Club tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Hazel Park High School.

★ ★ ★

The club is sponsoring the show and proceeds will be used to send 10 members to the National AAU championships in New York late in June and to the U.S. Olympic tryouts at the World's Fair in August.

The ladies are paired along with midgets in feature bouts of the evening.

First Local Race for Sports Cars

Spring Sprints This Weekend

Two Pontiac Entries at Waterford Hills

Two Pontiac sports car race drivers are among the early entries for the Spring Sprints this week end at Waterford Hills.

Some 140 drivers are expected to start another full schedule of road racing at the 1.5 mile twisting hilly course, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Sportsmans Road Racing Club.

Pontiac entries are David E. Moothart (Lotus XI) and Don Akin (Special).

Drivers from all over the midwest compete at Waterford Hills, one of the few road racing courses of its kind in the country. Other such courses are found at Watkins Glenn, New York, or Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin.

★ ★ ★

Waterford Hills officials say that the average cost per car and equipment runs as high as $5,000, so that the total value of equipment on hand for each event totals close to three-quarters of a million dollars. Big name imports like the Jaguar, Ferrari, Mercedes, Porsche and Lotus will be on hand this year, competing against the big name American sports cars like Cobra, Corvette and Mustang.

A full schedule of production and modified class events will be staged on both Saturday and Sunday. First day races start at 3 p.m., and the Sunday schedule gets under way at noon. Time trials will be held prior to race time both days.

★ ★ ★

The Waterford Hills course is located six miles north of Pontiac, a quarter mile east of U.S.-10. Ample parking facilities are available with viewing area for 6,000 spectators.

AFL's Buffalo Gets Speedster in Grid Swap

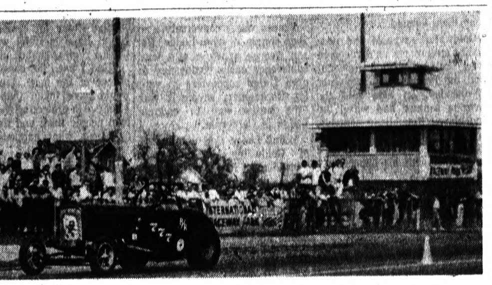
BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—The Buffalo Bills acquired today speedster Leroy Jackson from the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League a day after they gave up two backs for a center.

To obtain Jackson, a 24-year-old, 195-pound outside runner — the Bills surrendered to Oakland offensive tackle Ken Rice, their No. 1 draft choice in 1960.

★ ★ ★

Jackson, drafted in 1962 by the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, was traded to Washngton by Cleveland with Bobby Mitchell for draft rights to the late Ernie Davis. Jackson played two seasons with Washington before going to Oakland.

Wednesday the Bills obtained center Walt Cudzik, who moved from Boston to Denver before his shift to Buffalo. He was exchanged for linebacker Marv Matuczak and defensive back Billy Atkins.



PONTIAC DRAGSTER — Dave Birchmeier of Pontiac, president of the Pontiac Shifters, put his B/Roadster through the paces at the International Raceway Park

His best quarter mile time and speed is :11.10 at 123 miles an hour.

Colt's Death Mars Racing at Livonia

LIVONIA (UPI) — The $8,887 divided Geers Stake, the third of four Grand Circuit stake races to be run this week at the Wolverine Harness Raceway was marred Wednesday night by the death of Broncho Hanover, a two-year colt in the second heat.

Irv's Boy, with veteran Tommy Winn driving, was crowned Geers champion on the basis of time. He was clocked in 2:09.2 in winning the first heat, while Bullet Van won the second division in 2:10.1.

★ ★ ★

Broncho Hanover, driven by Gen Reigle of Grenville, Ohio, went off as the second choice in the second heat. The Tar Heel colt broke gait at the start, then came on with a rush in the final quarter to finish fifth in the seven-horse field.

Then as he rounded the turn while pulling up, he stumbled and fell to the track where he choked to death within seconds.

Reigle and Leonard Bailey of Piqua, Ohio, paid $10,200 for Broncho Hanover at the Harrisburg, Pa., sale last fall. The juvenile colt was making his first start as a pacer.

Race Time, the brilliant three-year-old from Castleton Farm, who won acclaim as the nation's two-year-old of 1963 with earnings of $61,808 and a time of 1:58; will head the field in tonight's $20,755 Matron Stake.

Boat Dealers Shun Meters

Members of the Magic Empire Marine Dealers Association paid no parking fees last summer when they displayed their boats and motors along Main Street during a "Vacation Sale" promoted by the Downtown Tulsa Unlimited Association. The parking meters were hooded for the street boat show and a 10-foot fishing boat was one of the grand prizes presented in the promotion sponsored by the downtown merchants.

Why We Build 2-Wheel Drive Trucks BACKWARDS

We think 2-wheel drive trucks should be as rugged as 4-wheel drive trucks.
So we start out by actually building a 4-wheel drive truck. Then we leave off the transfer case and the front end power train, and there it is! A 2-wheel drive truck with all the heavy duty components—all the ruggedness of a 4-wheel drive truck.
Maybe that's doing things backwards, but it sure comes out fine for the Gladiator owner... especially since prices* are competitive too.
Why not see your 'Jeep' dealer today and get all the facts.

Barry Boosted by Pledge of Neutrality

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, bolstered by neutrality pledges from Richard M. Nixon and Gov. William W. Scranton, wades deeper into the presidential primary battle today as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, fortified with support from Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's son, steps up the pace.

Rockefeller planned today to visit Monterey—where Goldwater had been Tuesday — for a round of appearances before continuing north to Santa Cruz, Santa Clara and San Francisco.

Goldwater also planned to move northward, visiting Santa Barbara—where Rockefeller had been Tuesday—to mend any political fences the New Yorker may have toppled.

Goldwater revealed the neutrality statements he'd received from the former vice president and the Pennsylvania governor Wednesday. An aide said the Arizona senator had wired the undeclared Republican contenders earlier in the week, saying they had been represented here as aligned with his opponents.

BOTH REPLY

Both Nixon and Scranton replied they are not out to stop either Rockefeller or Goldwater in the primary election next Tuesday.

There was, conversely, no such statement from Lodge. His son, George, appeared at a news conference early Wednesday to urge Lodge supporters to vote for Rockefeller, saying it was "the surest way to endorse Lodge in California."

Young Lodge said nomination of Goldwater by the GOP "would most likely set the party in decline from which it would atrophy."

The son of the ambassador to South Viet Nam said he believes Rockefeller, more closely than Goldwater, represents the views of "forward-looking" Republicanism enunciated Monday by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

BARRY'S STAND

Earlier, Goldwater had declared that he is "the only serious candidate" in the California presidential primary and that he hates to think of what would happen to the dollar if Rockefeller became president.

Goldwater also said he'd have sent the U.S. Marines to turn on the water for Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba when the Castro regime shut it off.

"Had I been the commanding officer of the base, I probably would have taken that action. I believe in protecting the American people first, and then worry about what happens afterward," he said.

In the torrid Democratic Senate nomination race, the Los Angeles Times said Jacqueline Kennedy had given "indirect endorsement" to Pierre Salinger.

VALUED ADVICE

The Times said Mrs. Kennedy told correspondent Robert E. Thompson in Washington that "Pierre was very close to President Kennedy. You know how President Kennedy valued his advice and counsel on all major matters."

Salinger was Kennedy's press secretary.

Mrs. Kennedy, however, declined to name a choice in the primary election.

A Schenectady, N.Y., reader asks, "How could we get to six clubs with the North-South cards? Should I have rebid two clubs instead of one no-trump? Or, should I have jumped to five clubs over my partner's bid of three clubs?"

JACOBY

The answer to his first question is shown by the bidding in the box. The answer to each other question is, "No."

The first two rounds of bidding are easy. North's rebid to one no-trump shows both his no-trump pattern and the minimum nature of his hand. When South jumps to three clubs as his second bid North's hand suddenly improves.

He still has the 14 high-card points he opened with, but he also has a very fine fit for his partner's club suit.

★ ★ ★

This doesn't justify a wild leap into the slam zone, but it does justify a bid that suggests slam possibilities.

North should now bid three spades!

This bid can't be showing a spade suit. Had North held a four-card spade suit, he would have bid one spade over his partner's one heart response. Instead, it shows just what he has — a hand that has improved, due to the three-club bid by South.

South simply goes to four clubs. He wants to make sure that North will be able to raise clubs. North does raise to five and now South goes on to six.

The play is not hard. He wins the spade opening, discards his other spade on a high diamond and plays ace and one heart.

Q—The bidding has been:

You, South, hold: ♠ K J 7 5 ♥ 5 3 ♦ K Q J 10 4 ♣ A 6

What do you do?

A—Bid three diamonds. You expect to reach a slam and it is more important in this sequence to show good diamonds than a four card spade suit.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner continues with four no-trump. You show one ace, and he goes to five no-trump. You show two kings, and he bids six no-trump. What do you do now?

Firm Studying Wider Scope to Solution

Avon Forced to Wait on Water Cure

AVON TOWNSHIP — The township's engineering consultants are making the board wait for a cure to water problems confronting residents along the township's eastern border.

However when they do produce the solution they say it's going to be a bigger and better one.

Township Supervisor Cyril E. Miller told the board last night that Johnson & Anderson Inc. of Waterford Township has already produced two recommendations for the distraught home owners.

Miller said both are not feasible because of the high costs.

★ ★ ★

Now the engineers are setting up a proposed water system for three sections of the southeast township, instead of one.

CORRECTIVE ATTEMPTS

Corrective attempts on the problem began in March, when a delegation of home owners reported to the board that their wells had run dry.

The area suffering the greatest from the water loss is bounded by John R, Dequindre, School and Avon roads.

★ ★ ★

The problem has already been analyzed by the engineers and presented to the board in a 28-page report.

★ ★ ★

Phillip Hampton, representing Johnson & Anderson, has pointed out that lack of precipitation, recent draining of a swamp in the area and runoff from a gravel pit have contributed to the water loss.

Other factors causing a lack of the precious liquid result from building of the Southeast Oakland County Incinerator Authority, where water had to be drained off.

Construction of an underdrain has also had an influence on the water level.

Water is seeping out of the area instead of recharging the underground water table.

Last night Miller said temporary remedies have helped solve the problem to some extent.

These include blocking of the draining areas. Also helping matters is additional precipitation.

The engineers point out the best and the permanent solution is to establish a special assessment district and tie it into the Avon water system.

The firm is continuing to study the idea, now on a larger basis.

★ ★ ★

The three-section solution is expected to be presented in detail at one of the board sessions next month.

Included in the report will be anticipated cost figures.

GOING UP—Rochester's largest multiple-dwelling project is off the ground now at 500 Romeo. The three buildings being erected will contain 49 units, to be labeled the "Village Apartments of Rochester." Anticipated opening date for the estimated $500,000 complex is this fall. Contractor for the project is the Wake-Pratt Construction Co., Royal Oak. The apartment will be designed in early American architecture.

Road Plan to Continue in Wixom

WIXOM—The city's road program will keep right on rolling under a $239,250 budget adopted for 1964-65.

The figure will require "a minute tax increase — about five cents per householder," according to Mayor Wesley E. McAtee.

Missing will be the $75,000 federal grant included in the $313,240 budget for 1963-64.

The accelerated public works funds helped the city improve Beck, West and Loon Lake and construct Maple, Charms and part of Beck.

The program this year will see asphalt applied to Maple from city limits to city limits, to Beck between Maple and Potter and to all of Charms.

Capital improvements will consume 43.3 per cent of the budget. The $104,000 total includes $83,500 for road improvements, $10,000 for land acquisition, $4,500 for gravel, $3,500 for road contracting, $900 for culverts and $1,600 for toilets for the recreation program.

McAtee noted that the capital improvement allotment last year was $199,000, with most of the sum used for roads.

"Road improvements, I hope, will go on for another five years," he said.

Other expenditures will be $21,975 for supplies and expenses, $12,189 for services, $10,600 for equipment maintenance, $8,740 for staff agencies, $6,800 for equipment, $4,050 for street and road maintenance, $68,922 for salaries and $1,974 for the contingency reserve fund.

The budget will require a levy of 7.38 mills.

Class of '44 in Rochester Sets Reunion

Although most of the graduating class members have been contacted, reunion organizers are still seeking to reach some individuals.

Eligible persons as yet not informed about the reunion have been asked to contact Mrs. Edward York, 127 Alice, for further information.

Reservations for the event must be submitted by June 10.

NEWS OF THE AREA

Romney, Mackie Feud

State Utility Bill Vetoed

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney set off a new fight with an old political foe Wednesday when he vetoed a bill to reimburse private utilities for costs of relocating facilities displaced by federal highway projects.

★ ★ ★

Highway Commissioner John Mackie said he agreed with the veto, but objected to claims by Romney that he had once supported the bill and later changed his mind.

★ ★ ★

In a message sending the bill back to the Senate, Romney said approval would have furthered "inconsistent policies" by Mackie's department.

The bill would have cost the state an estimated $600,000 between now and the end of the current Federal Interstate Highway program in 1972.

FULL COST

The full cost of the plan was estimated at $6 million, but the Federal Government would have paid 90 per cent of the total.

Sponsored by Sen. Haskell Nichols, R-Jackson, the bill passed the Senate 28-3 and the House 58-34. Votes in both chambers were mixed.

★ ★ ★

The legislation was the subject of extensive lobbying by several private utility companies.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. charged Romney Wednesday with "needlessly perpetuating an inequity" in his veto.

Michigan Bell, a supporter of the legislation, said the veto was unfair to the "rate-paying public."

DOUBLE EXPENSE

"The veto," Michigan Bell said, "means that the utility customer must continue to shoulder a double expense in the cost of relocating utility lines in connection with interstate highway construction."

The Michigan customer now pays for utility relocations in the state and also helps to pay, through his federal taxes, for relocations in 21 other states that have taken advantage of federal reimbursement funds, Michigan Bell said.

★ ★ ★

Some objections to the utilities legislation had been based on the fact that the state's cost would have come from earmarked highway funds used for construction.

Romney said he was concerned that the bill might set precedent by which utilities might ultimately be repaid for relocations resulting from other than interstate projects.

Preparation Finished for Romney Visit

OXFORD — Final arrangements for the appearance of Gov. George Romney here tomorrow are completed, according to GOP District Chairman William Fleming.

★ ★ ★

The governor, with the first lady, will speak in an 8 p.m. program in the Oxford High School gymnasium.

It will be Romney's first appearance in Oxford since the brief stopover he made during his campaign for office. He has agreed to give a major talk to a hoped-for crowd of some 2,200.

Also participating in the program will be the Oxford High School Choir, under direction of Mrs. Dorothy Valentine, and the Oxford High School Band, led by director Wendell S. Honsinger.

★ ★ ★

A Boy Scout honor guard from Troop 32, Oxford, will be provided for the governor and other attending state and county officials.

The five townships of Addison, Oxford, Orion, Oakland and Pontiac are participating in the nonpartisan event.

Oxford Gets New Official

Manager Fills Deputy Clerk-Treasurer Post

OXFORD—The village's quest for a new clerk-treasurer is over.

Although Manager Michael Kilgore was unsuccessful in his attempts to find a new clerk, he has appointed Mrs. Charlotte Sneddon of 210 High, Pontiac, as deputy clerk-treasurer.

Mrs. Albert Roberts, appointed as acting clerk-treasurer earlier this month, will continue in a part-time capacity.

Mrs. Roberts was picked to temporarily take the place of Mrs. Patricia Tyrrell, who submitted her resignation in April.

★ ★ ★

The new deputy clerk-treasurer is the mother of two children.

FORMER POSITIONS

She is a former legal secretary for the U.S. Navy, former assistant credit manager and officer for the Seattle Bank, Seattle, Wash. and an ex-bookkeeper for an automobile firm.

★ ★ ★

Government work is also in the past of Mrs. Sneddon, as she was secretary to the Bingham Township supervisor.

★ ★ ★

The award is made annually by the two schools and St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary to an outstanding American Catholic of Polish origin for "fidelity in serving God and country through the realization of the religious and cultural ideals of our forefathers."

Commencement exercises are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in the campus auditorium. Presiding prelate will be Most Rev. Alexander Zaleski, auxiliary bishop of Detroit.

Walled Lake Incorporates Municipal Court System

WALLED LAKE — Say you're in an auto accident.

The other guy is clearly at fault, you say.

He says he's not.

But meanwhile you're driving your son's hot rod to work because it will take an estimated $879 to put yours back in running order.

You don't have the money and it may be a long time coming while the case is in court.

This plight is not uncommon in Oakland County, where Circuit Court judges had 7,921 cases pending at the end of 1963.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake now is in a position to alleviate the burden, for both the circuit judges and residents involved in litigation.

Increase in jurisdiction is one of the reasons former Justice of the Peace Gene Schnelz urged the city to switch to a Municipal Court system.

BACK CHANGE

Electors last month backed the change by a 231-76 vote.

As a municipal judge, Schnelz can hear civil cases in which the dispute involves up to $1,000 rather than $500.

Municipal Court jurisdiction also can be extended to include the trying of those accused of high misdemeanors. Conviction for crimes in this category can carry fines up to $500 and six-month maximum sentences.

Walled Lake has not passed the enabling ordinance to increase criminal jurisdiction, and Schnelz now is limited to $100 fines and 90-day sentences.

★ ★ ★

"The big difference for Walled Lake is the increase in civil jurisdiction," Schnelz said.

MUST BE ATTORNEY

Other areas for comparison between the justice of the peace and Municipal Court systems are that the municipal judge must be an attorney and must be paid on a salary basis.

Under state statutes providing for the establishment of justice courts in home rule municipalities, Walled Lake already was paying Schnelz a salary. Township justices receive compensation from the fees they collect.

Schnelz also is an attorney. In fact, he and his legal partner Harold M. Bulgarelli are the only two attorneys living in Walled Lake and therefore the only two residents qualified for the municipal court job.

★ ★ ★

But the incumbent is to serve until the first regular Municipal Court election in April, 1968.

"By that time, there could be all kinds of attorneys here," Schnelz commented.

ANOTHER FACTOR

Another consideration in replacing Walled Lake's Justice Court with a municipal one is that the new State Constitution eliminated the constitutional justice of the peace. It gave the legislature until Jan. 1, 1969 to devise a lower court system for the state.

The constitution also did away with the fee basis of payment for justices. However, it's conceivable that lower courts will remain unchanged except for this stipulation.

"No one would dare venture a guess now on how it's going to go," Schnelz said.

A member of the subcommittee for justices of the peace of the Michigan Bar Association's judiciary committee, Schnelz said he thinks the legislature will maintain municipal courts, thus not altering Walled Lake's new system.

Presiding over the only Municipal Court in Commerce Township, Schnelz now has countywide jurisdiction.

As a justice of the peace, he could hear only cases from Commerce Township and those adjoining it.

With his authority extended, has the new judge's business picked up any?

"I haven't noticed it," he said.

Study Ruling on Housing in Ann Arbor

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — A judge's ruling that Ann Arbor's controversial fair housing ordinance is unconstitutional was under careful study by city officials today.

★ ★ ★

City Attorney Jacob F. Fahrner said he wanted time to review the findings of Municipal Judge Francis L. O'Brien before deciding on an appeal.

O'Brien ruled yesterday that procedures outlined in the ordinance for handling complaints of racial discrimination conflict with both state law and the city charter and violated the U.S. constitution.

The ordinance prohibits racial discrimination in the sale or rental of housing.

★ ★ ★

It had been one of the issues of several demonstrations held by civil rights groups here.

KELLEY OPINION

State Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley said last year the ordinance would be invalid because the new State Civil Rights Commission preempts the field.

But O'Brien, ruling the ordinance unconstitutional on other grounds, said:

"The court feels it is unnecessary to decide the matter of preemption."

★ ★ ★

He gave the city three weeks to appeal the ruling.

DURING TRIAL

The ruling came during a trial involving charges by Negroes that they were prevented from renting an apartment here.

★ ★ ★

O'Brien said the ordinance went against the constitution's Fifth Amendment because "it required an accused person to incriminate himself."

Open House at Missile Site

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — A two-week observance of the Nike-Ajax missile's 10th anniversary will begin Saturday, with open house at the Utica Nike site slated for June 12.

The public has been invited to attend the event, climax of the anniversary celebrations.

A military ceremony is scheduled for 2 p.m. at the site, 47700 Woodall. The outstanding firing battery will receive a trophy.

The 10th anniversary of missiles in air defense comes at a time when Army National Guard units are phasing out the Nike-Ajax and turning to the newer, improved Nike-Hercules.

★ ★ ★

This changeover will be completed during May, immediately before the observance, which runs from 30 May to 14 June.

PROGRAM DEVELOPED

During fiscal year 1962, a program to convert or redesignate the then-existing 76 on-site Nike-Ajax units to 48 Nike-Hercules batteries was developed and implemented.

The 1st Missile Battalion, 177th Artillery (Nike-Hercules) of the Michigan Army National Guard at Detroit, has completed its mission as a Nike-Ajax unit and has been reorganized as a Nike-Hercules battalion, thus completing the transition to the Hercules missile system.

The National Guard first entered the air defense network in 1954 with units manning conventional antiaircraft guns and World War II radars.

★ ★ ★

As modern weapons systems became available, the guard was equipped with Nike-Ajax missiles, beginning in 1958, and finally the current Nike-Hercules.

Units of the Army National Guard in 17 States will participate in the 10th anniversary celebration of missiles in air defense.

The bid deposit or bond will be returned to the unsuccessful bidders within 48 hours after award of the contract, and to the successful bidder, upon satisfactory completion of contract negotiations.

Specifications and proposal forms are available at the Village Office, 400 Sixth Street, Rochester, Michigan.

The Village of Rochester reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any irregularities in the bidder's proposal if it determines it is in the best interests of the Village so to do.

Conditions Poor Before World War I

(Editor's Note—This is another in a continuing series on World War I, appearing in The Pontiac Press this summer.)

By
PHILIP VANDOREN STERN
DRAWINGS, JOHN LANE

People like to think that life in Europe during the years before the First World War was better than it has ever been since. They talk about gallant officers in colorful uniforms waltzing with beautiful women in satins and laces.

They reminisce about the excellent food, the great wines, the soft music, the low cost of living, and the radiance of those long-past days.

What they recall is partly true, of course, but it was true only for a limited number of Europeans.

Royalty, the higher military officers, and the very wealthy could enjoy all these things, but the rest of Europe's people were not having such a gay time.

The poor were very poor; the middle-classes had few privileges, and the common soldiers were just pawns to be moved around the board and then pushed off the edge. No one but the rich had carriages or new-fangled automobiles. Working hours were long, vacations short, recreation limited.

Poor boys got only a rudimentary education; girls were seldom thought worth educating at all.

DESIRE FOR FREEDOM

Things had been like this for centuries and might have gone on for centuries more if something new had not come into the world. This was a desire for freedom, a yearning to improve one's lot, a hope for one's children.

But most of Europe's rulers had contempt for the ambitions of ordinary men. They refused to believe that their people might be dissatisfied. Their secret police maintained control by arresting those who protested and sometimes shot or hanged them. In Russia, revolution had been put down by force in 1905. Austria was an absolute monarchy. The troublesome Balkans were ruled with an iron hand. In Turkey, revolution and counter-revolution had swept the country in 1908 and 1909. In Germany, the Kaiser warned Berlin that his guards stood ready to avenge disobedience with bayonets.

Even in England, France, Belgium, Holland, Scandinavia, and Italy, where the rulers were more liberal, most of the people were poor and had little to look forward to.

Behind the scenes, the men of power jockeyed for more power. Conspiracy was the order of the day; spies were as much a part of the government as postal employes. Waltz music often masked whispered plotting. No one knew whom to trust. Your best friend might be in the pay of the police — and not necessarily your own country's police.

The myth of the happy prewar years began during the war. A hungry man crouched in the mud under shellfire remembers a good meal and a warm bed. A woman reading the casualty list recalls the happiness of her marriage day. A hopeless hospital case knows that anything was better than the suffering he is going through.

The nostalgic myth was preserved by those who had lost much and had little to gain. The bigger the war, the bigger the nostalgia. And the First World War was very big.

World's Fair Main Target for Record Throng of Vacationists

By CHARES C. CAIN
AP Business News Writer

DETROIT — A record-breaking number of Americans will hit the road for summer vacations this year with the New York World's Fair as the principal drawing card.

Almost 90 per cent of the vacationers will use autos as their principal means of transportation, an increase of 7 per cent over the previous high of 83 per cent set last year.

Those findings were made by Goodyear Tires & Rubber Co. in its annual poll of 19,000 Chamber of Commerce secretaries throughout the nation.

Samplings of vacation plans of families in hundreds of U.S. communities showed that 85.5 per cent planned some type of vacation this year, compared with last year's 75.5 per cent, which has a record high.

TAKE IN FAIR

Goodyear said about 41 per cent of those interviewed planned to take in the New York World's fair in 1964. Some indicated it would be part of their regular family vacation. Others said it would be a separate trip.

★ ★ ★

New York thus won honors as the most popular vacation state, followed by California, Florida and Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The poll showed the average family planned to spend $535 for its 1964 vacation, up a fraction over the 1963 figure, and would travel about 1,800 miles. Total vacation expenditures were expected to run about $22 billion.

Motels remained the favorite stopping place of those polled, with about 53 per cent saying they would go for this type of accommodation. Hotels and campsites drew 18 and 12.5 per cent respectively.

BIGGEST BITE

The would-be vacationers indicated that food again would take the biggest bite of the pleasure dollar, about 31 per cent. Housing and transportation costs will run about 29 and 26 per cent, respectively, with entertainment accounting for 14 per cent.

★ ★ ★

July, as expected, remained the most popular vacation month with 31 per cent of those polled indicating they would take their time off then. August was second with 25 per cent and June third with 16 per cent.

★ ★ ★

On a regional basis, the East—helped by the Fair's attraction—will lure the biggest flow of traffic, 18 per cent of the vacationers. Second will be the South with 16 per cent. Fourteen per cent indicated they would vacation in the Far West, 13 per cent the Midwest, 12 per cent the New England states and 8 per cent the Southwest.

★ ★ ★

Eight per cent of the vacationers said they would travel outside the United States. About 6 per cent of these selected Canada as a vacation site. About 1.5 per cent said they would head for Europe.

★ ★ ★

Goodyear's survey showed that tires on nearly 35 per cent of family cars have been run over 20,000 miles. About 28 per cent of the world—be motoring vacationists said they planned to buy at least one tire before setting out on their trips.

★ ★ ★

Sightseeing remained the principal vacation aim of 53 per cent of the leisure time planners. For the more athletic types, swimming and boating occupied about 22 per cent, with fishing and camping drawing a lot of supporters.

Markets to Close

NEW YORK (AP)—Most stock exchanges and commodity markets will be closed Friday, May 29, for observance of Memorial Day.

★ ★ ★

The Chicago livestock market will be open.

Sharp Profit Taking in Drugs

Mart Goes Irregularly Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly higher early this afternoon despite sharp profit taking in some drugs. Trading was moderate.

Steels pursued their own rally for the third straight session as they were fueled by glowing predictions for output and profits this year.

Throughout the list as a whole, most gains and losses of key stocks were kept within range of about a point.

Drugs and some of the higher-priced, more volatile issues moved more widely.

★ ★ ★

The drugs involved in birth control pills backtracked from their rally of yesterday as Wall Street took another look at the possibility which spurred them then, namely that the Roman Catholic church would reexamine its attitude in regard to the oral contraceptives.

Selective gains among motors, chemicals and rails helped the averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 305.7 with industrials up .2, rails up .4 and utilities off .1.

★ ★ ★

Prices were mostly higher in quiet trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were irregularly lower. U.S. Government bonds were mostly unchanged, with some losers.

Land Magnate Reaches Crisis

Firm's Stock Trading Briefly Suspended

NEW YORK (AP)—The latest crisis in real estate whiz William Zeckendorf's financial affairs led to a brief suspension of trading in the shares of Webb & Knapp Inc. on the American Stock Exchange Wednesday.

Zeckendorf, 58, is chairman of Webb & Knapp. He was so short of cash for his flamboyant and complex operations that he was unable this week to raise $431,000 for payment due a sinking fund, he acknowledged.

The payment was basic to the financial structure of Webb & Knapp. It was a periodic payment required under an arrangement by which $8 million was borrowed several years ago.

The payment was due last Monday to a trustee, the Marine Midland Trust Co. of New York.

MISS PAYMENT

Zeckendorf, acknowledging the default, said Webb & Knapp also would have to miss a payment of $120,000 interest due next Monday. But he said holders of the sinking fund debentures would be offered a plan whereby interest would be paid and the money due earlier this week would be deferred for three years.

Trading in Webb & Knapp shares was permitted to open just before noon Wednesday.

The debentures opened at a price of $440 for a face value of $1,000. This was down $20 from the closing price of Tuesday. The price had dropped to $400 by the end of trading Wednesday. The year's high for the debentures, which bear interest of 5 per cent, was $670.

The debentures are bonds issued by Webb & Knapp 10 years ago to holders of stock in the old Equitable Life Building at 120 Broadway, which the real estate firm acquired. Some of the debentures are retired each year under the terms of the issue.

The deal that had been scheduled for next Monday was that 431 of the debentures were to have been bought back at face value, $1,000 each, with money from the sinking fund. The serial numbers of the bonds to be redeemed were chosen by lot.

HARD TO SELL

Because of the default, the owners of these 431 bonds now will probably have difficulty selling them, even at the depreciated market value of the rest of the issue.

To Rest of Economy

Expansion Is Booster

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The rise in spending for business expansion is credited with giving the economy one of its strongest boosts this year. But is such capital investment a boom?

DAWSON

Compared to the lag since 1958 it is. The Department of Commerce cites it as helping make the over-all economic gains since April 1 look solid in spite of the lagging response of consumers to the federal income tax cut.

★ ★ ★

The investment fraternity thinks the current increase in business spending is still far from what it should be, if compared to past performance or to the greater growth of the total output of goods and services—gross national product.

Some bankers fear the present rise in business spending, important as it is, may be exaggerated. The statisticians like to talk of percentages rather than dollar volume. This year's increased spending will still be well below postwar peaks as a percentage of the gross national product.

LAG IN PROFITS

The reason for the lag, say economists at Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, lies in profits. These, too, have risen to a record in dollar volume. But the bankers compared them to sales and to the GNP.

After-tax profits this year are expected to rise to 3.3 per cent of corporate sales. But in the years immediately after the war they averaged 4.9 per cent. After-tax profits this year may rise to 5 per cent of the gross national product. In the early postwar period they averaged 7.3 per cent.

When such profit percentages are high, business spends freely for new plant and equipment. When they shrink, so does the urge to expand.

Others point out another factor tending to act as a governor on business spending plans. This is the percentage of production to facilities. As sales have risen in recent months, excess capacity has been shrinking. As the plants now building or projected go into operation the ratio of production to capacity seems likely to drop again.

SPENDING TRENDS

Still another survey of business spending trends, by the National Industrial Conference Board, shows that in the first months of this year leading manufacturing concerns appropriated less money for capital investments than they had early in 1963.

In spite of all the reservations the dollar volume of business spending this year is widely welcomed. It is expected to rise to $44 billion in 1964, against $39.2 billion last year.

'8 Killed by Defects in Copters'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes said today that eight Americans have been killed in South Viet Nam in accidents due to structural failures of the CH21 helicopter.

★ ★ ★

This is the "Flying Banana" type helicopter which has now been almost entirely replaced with UH1B Bell of the Iroquois type.

Ailes' statement was in answer to a letter from Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, who had written Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, demanding an investigation of the Viet Nam helicopter situation. Bolton released Ailes' reply to newsmen today.

ACUTELY AWARE

Bolton wrote to Vinson that "I became acutely aware of the problem involving helicopters when one of my constituents was recently reported killed in action on April 11th of this year.

"Pfc. Albert Laurence Shimek, Unionville, Ohio, was killed when the helicopter in which he was riding lost its tail assembly on a South Vietnamese mission. Several other Americans were killed in the same crash of the UH1B 'Iroquois.'"

★ ★ ★

The Ailes' statement on eight Americans killed referred only to the older CH21 helicopters. The last of these are to be replaced by the end of June.

Ailes said the structural failures of the CH21s "had no similarity and were not specifically due to age or length of service of the items involved."

WHAT CHANGES?

In connection with the Iroquois crash that killed his constituent, Bolton asked what engineering modifications are planned as a result of what he called a structural failure.

Ailes replied that the cause of that crash is still unknown, but as a result of an investigation "possible structural problems were revealed which may have contributed to the accident."

★ ★ ★

He said the tail zooms of some of these helicopters had been strengthened on the scene as a "field service change by Bell helicopter to strengthen UH1B tail booms and thus eliminate problems of cracked longerons which had been reported by field users."

U. S. to Check Officials Closer

Defense Department Wants Interview Log

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's information chief has issued a new order designed to give him greater knowledge about which defense officials are talking with reporters and what they are talking about.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester told a reporter today his order is not designed to tighten control or to inhibit conversations between newsmen and military and civilian officials.

★ ★ ★

He called it "one way of keeping up" with what is of interest to newsmen and as an aid in "showing what fields should be exploited more." Sylvester said one of his jobs is to stimulate ideas.

Nonetheless, reporters have found that past orders of a similar nature have tended to make many news sources cautious and reluctant to talk freely.

WEEKLY REPORTS

The new Sylvester order, dated May 18, calls for weekly reports to his office "on interviews granted by departmental personnel at the seat of government"—including the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The reports, to be submitted by the chiefs of information of the three services, list the dates of inteviews, the name of the interviewer and his affiliation, the person interviewed, the subject discussed and a notation as to whether an information officer was present.

★ ★ ★

The stated purpose: "To keep the secretary of defense properly informed as to whether there is a broad and continuous flow of information from the Department of Defense to the public, particularly through media representatives."

Sylvester acknowledged his new order is intended to remind defense officials of an earlier memorandum issued at the height of the Cuban missile crisis on Oct. 27, 1962.

NEWS CONTROL

That memorandum — which generated charges of news control—apparently has fallen into disuse.

It required that "the substance of each interview and telephone conversation with a media representative be reported to the appropriate public information office before the close of business that day."

Such a report was not required if a public information representative was present monitoring the interview.

Business Notes

J. F. Bachman, 32323 Lahser, Bloomfield Township, has retired as manager of Ford Motor Co.'s industrial engine department.

Bachman had been manager of the department since it was established in 1947.

Thomas B. Case of Dearborn, formerly car and truck special order manager in the Ford Division, will succeed Bachman.

Successful Investing

BY ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "My husband must retire next spring. He will get $500 a month pension on his present income of over $10,000. I earn almost $6,000 and would get only $150 a month if I retired. Since we are used to such a large income, do you advise me to retire or keep working?" J.C.

I am occasionally asked this sort of question by my clients and my answer is this. If your husband will not be lonely in retirement and will not feel relegated to a second-class position as part housekeeper, I would say go on working while you feel able to do so.

A drop in current income from $16,000 to $7,800 is hard to adjust to, but you will ultimately have to accept this. Try gradually to alter your standard of living so that the transition will not be so difficult when it must be made.

Q) "I am one of the unfortunate stockholders of Penick & Ford and at present have more than a 7-point loss. I am most interested in hearing from you as to the possible prospects for the company in the years ahead." W. D.

A) Penick & Ford is a high-grade company and one of the biggest corn processors, but its earnings vary on the cost of its raw material. After resting on a plateau for several years, net per share dropped last year and was down very slightly in the past quarter. The stock sells to yield 4.6 per cent. Since corn prices remain high, I see little prospect of turnaround in Penick.

In the corn group I like only Corn Products, which does half its business in consumer foods.

If capital enhancement is your objective, I believe you should switch to General Telephone.

Wallace Bid Meets Rebuff

GREENVILLE, S.C., (AP)—The chairman of South Carolina's Democratic party has rejected an invitation by Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama to support a slate of unpledged presidential electors.

Wallace, in Greenville Wednesday to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree from Bob Jones University, said Chairman Yancey McLeod would be asked to call the party executive committee together to authorize the unpledged slate for the Nov. 3 general election.

★ ★ ★

McLeod said he had no intention of calling the committee and that he will "actively and fully support the nominees of the Democratic National Convention."

★ ★ ★

Wallace had said if his proposal was rejected, efforts would be redoubled to have the uncommitted slate placed on the ballot by petition. Such petitions have been circulating for two weeks.

Young Stars Call Time— She Plays New Love Game

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — It's a crazy world we live in, as we frequently point out here in this daily document . . . Pretty little Jill Haworth, 18, has quit dating Sal Mineo, whom she loves, for a while, because "he's the only man I've dated since I was 14, and I think I should see some others." A couple of times I've seen her with escorts who are married men. "They're safe," she smiles.

WILSON

That nudity trend may be suddenly reversing. Eurasian beauty Nai Bonet of NY, back from appearing in a Hollywood movie with Shirley MacLaine ("John Goldfarb, Please Come Home") in which she teaches Shirley to bellydance, was invited to go into the Latin Quarter wearing only those tiny things called "pasties." She declined. "I want to be fully covered," she says.

Reminding me that Herb Davis, Washington radio chatterer, was explaining about the Folies Bergere nudes who open on Broadway this week. He says their attitude is, "We're not going to go completely nude. We'll go just as near naked as they'll let us and no farther."

Liz Taylor was pretty upset at the Tony Awards because she was supposed to accept the best dramatic featured player award for Hume Cronyn, and arrived when he was already getting it from Lauren Bacall. "It was simply because Elizabeth was late, and we were on television and couldn't wait," Anne Bancroft said. A spokesman for Liz said she wasn't late, but had been misinformed about the time, and, furthermore, was caught up by autograph seekers when she did get to the hotel.

I heard one adult-looking fan, a male, exclaim:
"Elizabeth TALKED to me"
"What did she say?" asked another lad. " 'Get lost!' "
"She did not," said the first. "She said, 'Pardon me!' "

★ ★ ★

Cafe business perked up, and the Little Club's Billy Reed insists it started as soon as tax chief Mortimer Caplan quit . . . Ava Gardner arrives June 25 for the Lincoln Center premiere of "Night of the Iguana." . . . Tina Louise says she'll be married in the dress she wears in "Fade In — Fade out." (To Tommy Leonetti, eventually?).

The principal of Brooklyn's Erasmus High School finally got tickets to see "Funny Girl," went backstage to congratulate a former student: Barbra Streisand . . . Comic Lou Alexander's showing off the engagement ring he'll give hip hypnotist Pat Collins . . . Connie Francis figures to make a bundle from the Connie Francis Lady Valet, a wardrobe arrangement for clothes; it'll be seen in her film "Looking For Love".

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Laborite Predicts Effort for Five-Nation N-Strategy

LONDON (AP)—The man who may be Britain's next foreign minister says the British Labor party, if it wins the national election in the fall, will work for a five-nation directorate to formulate nuclear and political strategy for the North Atlantic alliance.

Patrick Gordon Walker, Labor's spokesman on foreign affairs, suggested that West Germany and Italy should join the United States, Britain and France in drawing up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's plans for action "up to the moment when and if the trigger has to be pressed."

★ ★ ★

At that point, Gordon Walker added, the Americans would be on their own because Labor wants the United States to become the sole custodian of the West's nuclear striking power.

Gordon Walker outlined his party's planning in an interview shortly before flying today to discuss key world problems with Communist leaders in Warsaw, Moscow and Bucharest. Harold Wilson, Labor Party leader, will join him Saturday in Moscow.

FRENCH PROBLEM

Gordon Walker skirted the problem French President Charles de Gaulle's lone - wolf policies create for the Labor NATO plan.

"If the French decide not to join in the group, a place should be kept for them," he said.

NATO's shape and strategy was a major topic when foreign ministers of the 15-nation alliance met in the Hague two weeks ago. It has been a subject of confidential discussion between Wilson and his colleagues and the Johnson administration in Washington. If Labor wins the fall election, Wilson will become prime minister and Gordon Walker very likely will be foreign secretary.

OTHER POINTS

Other points made by Gordon Walker in the interview:

A Labor government will work for the closest possible cooperation and consultation with the United States outside the NATO area because Britain and the United States are "the major allied powers with global interests."

2 State TV Stations Get Education Awards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Michigan university television stations were among 46 stations honored Wednesday in Ohio State University's annual radio and television awards for educational programming.

Western Michigan University Television at Kalamazoo, and the University of Michigan TV Center at Ann Arbor won awards in the "Television for Adults" category.

Drools Over Westerns

Poodle Princess Is TV Fan

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—One of Denver's most devoted television viewers is Princess Ermine Sherry, a 2½-year-old pedigreed miniature French poodle.

She drools over Westerns, intensely watches football and baseball, but barks in protest at excessive violence.

"She really likes the Disney shows," says Sue Peterson, the dog's mistress.

Princess Sherry began watching television when she was six months old her first video interest was a group of other French poodles.

★ ★ ★

On occasions when she's bored by the show, the poodle turns a plaintive eye to her mistress and pleads for a channel change, Mrs. Peterson says.

Ehrling Attacked Outside Home in Stockholm

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Sixten Ehrling, Swedish conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, has been attacked outside his home. He was returning from a performance at the Stockholm Concert Hall.

He got a black eye and lacerations of the forehead which required several stitches Sunday.

★ ★ ★

"Had the blow hit a quarter of an inch lower," he said Wednesday, "I might have lost my eyesight. As it is, I just have to stay indoors for a few days to spare my fellow citizens a most gruesome sight."

Police said a drunk had waylaid Ehrling.

The population of the United States is increasing at the rate of three million persons per year.

Will you be No. 74?

Traffic fatalities this year to date in Oakland County already number 73 and a long holiday weekend begins tomorrow.

Despite stepped-up enforcement programs planned by area police officials, the Memorial Day weekend could result in fatality No. 74 or maybe, even 75 or 76.

State police have canceled all leaves to strengthen its weekend traffic enforcement program and the sheriff's department, likewise, will have more cars on the road.

But police officials issue the reminder that traffic safety is the primary responsibility of the motorist.

YOU WILL DECIDE

Added enforcement will help make the roads safe, but safe-driving practices and observance of traffic laws by the army of motorists this weekend will really determine how statistics will stand Monday morning.

It's up to you!

Hillsdale Gets Troops

Declares State of Emergency After Violence

Strike-Torn City Is Rocked by Riots Over Arrest of 3 Picketers

HILLSDALE (AP)— Gov. Romney, responding to a plea for help from the city's mayor, today declared "a state of public emergency" in strike-torn Hillsdale.

The National Guard was ordered to move troops in after a night of violence in which some 300 rock-throwing demonstrators virtually stormed the Hillsdale jail.

The mob was protesting arrest of three pickets.

The governor also ordered the strike-plagued Essex Wire Co. plant here shut down, except for skeleton maintenance crews, for an indefinite period.

★ ★ ★

Except for police officers and troops, Romney said no one will be permitted firearms in this city of 7,629 in southeastern lower Michigan.

BARS PICKETING

A third part of the governor's order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage" in Hillsdale, but it leaves government in the hands of local officials.

Romney said Mayor C. Aubrey Paul of Hillsdale was informed of the order and "he has indicated informally it appears to him to be adequate."

Romney acted in Lansing after a telegraphic plea from Paul for martial law.

★ ★ ★

Beforehand, the governor conferred with State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard.

★ ★ ★

The governor said his order will remain in effect "as long as people and property are in danger" and that guards at the strike-bound plant will be disarmed.

PRODUCTION HALT

He ordered production stopped and banned picketing.

"Without this action," Romney told newsmen, "there is a likelihood of violence of an unknown extent."

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies from neighboring counties came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police last night.

★ ★ ★

Police put out a plea for help when it appeared those who had followed the arrested pickets to jail might take it over and release those held.

Fires Hit Waterfronts in Jersey, Virginia

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—A wind-whipped fire destroyed a quarter of a mile of Hudson River waterfront last night but appeared to be contained today, police said.

Much debris was still aflame, but the fire was "pretty well knocked down," police Lt. Edward Carroll said.

While the fire roared out of control it destroyed five 500-foot piers, a huge unused coal trestle and five floating bridges.

Fire also broke out today on the water front at Portsmouth, Va., and heavily damaged three old piers and two vessels before it was brought under control.

★ ★ ★

Asst. Fire Chief Clarence W. George said the fire, of undetermined origin, started shortly before midnight aboard the former Chesapeake Bay ferry Accomack, which was being converted by Tolchester Lines Inc. for use as an excursion vessel.

FLAMES SPREAD

The flames spread from the Accomack to an adjacent pier.

Within an hour the blaze leaped to two nearby piers.

The fire was brought under control about 3:30 a.m.

★ ★ ★

The piers were still burning in several places at 7 a.m., however, and dense smoke hung over the water front.

PIER OWNERS

The three piers are owned by the Virginia State Ports Authority.

Damage to the Accomack was estimated at approximately $300,000.

About 300 firemen and a dozen fireboats, obscured by thick smoke, battled the New Jersey fire during the night.

★ ★ ★

There was no official estimate of damage but fire department officers spoke in terms of millions of dollars.

MINOR INJURIES

Several firemen suffered minor injuries.

Two were treated at a hospital for burns and released.

A short while later the pier was enveloped in flames.

The fire, reported at 9:51 last night, began in an old stockyard of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Sixth Street and spread south for five blocks. Winds, estimated by Woods at up to 30 m.p.h., fanned flames from pier to pier.

Airline Backed on Service Cuts

A Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) examiner recommended yesterday that North Central Airlines (NCA) service be dropped at Pontiac and two other Michigan cities.

Examiner Ralph L. Wiser recommended that NCA be allowed to delete Pontiac, Cadillac-Reed City and Port Huron from its routes due to low patronage of NCA flights from the three cities.

His recommendation will become effective in 30 days unless petitions requesting a review are filed by the involved cities and are granted by the CAB.

City Attorney William A. Ewart, on learning of the Wiser's recommendation this morning, said he thought "there wouldn't be much chance of reversing the decision.

★ ★ ★

"This comes after a lengthy hearing by the CAB," Ewart noted. "I honestly don't see how we can expect the federal government to allow air service which it subsidizes to continue where patronage ranks so low."

POOREST SHOWING

Wiser said Pontiac and the other two cities "are among those making the poorest showing on the nation's air map."

He said a CAB sampling survey in 1962 ranked Pontiac 532nd in traffic volume (passengers) among 546 cities receiving air service.

Port Huron ranked 500th and Cadillac-Reed City, 498th.

NCA began offering regular airline service at Pontiac Municipal Airport in December 1960. At that time, the criteria established by the CAB for keeping airliner service here was the "use it or lose it" policy setting a minimum requirement of five outbound passengers per day.

ONE MONTH

NCA patronage equaled or surpassed that requirement during only one month in 3½ years.

FAIR MEMORIAL — Mourning the loss of Jawaharlal Nehru, Prime Minister of India, tears came to the eyes of many who attended the funeral service held in his honor at the Indian Pavilion of the World's Fair in New York yesterday. The pavilion was closed to the public yesterday and today.

Crowd Close to Million Attends Nehru Funeral

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Jawaharlal Nehru, a single red rose pinned as usual to his long white coat and a garland of jasmine around his neck, was cremated today in a ceremonial funeral pyre.

Millions of Indians mourned the death of the man who had been the first and only prime minister of independent India.

Nehru's 15-year-old grandson, Sanjoy, ignited the funeral pyre after relatives and dignitaries smothered the body with sticks of fragrant sandalwood and flowers.

Hundreds of thousands gathered along the banks of the sacred Jamnu River to watch the ceremony after an hours-long funeral procession through the streets.

Nearly a million sorrowing Indians watched with tears in their eyes as the body was borne from the prime minister's official residence to the river bank on a flag-covered gun carriage in 100 - degree heat.

State Dept. Official Fears Red Asia Grab

LONDON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State William P. Bundy said today there is a real danger of a Communist takeover in Southeast Asia.

As Bundy flew in from Washington for London talks on the Asian crisis, the British government rejected a Soviet charge that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Laos violated Laotian neutrality.

The Soviet note to Britain warned that the U.S. flights could aggravate the situation throughout Southeast Asia.

Bundy, assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs, told newsmen the threat of a Communist takeover "is a matter we all have been watching with great concern."

Asked how stability and neutrality for Laos could be achieved without force, he replied, "That is a very difficult question to answer and it is one of the things we must talk about."

★ ★ ★

Bundy was meeting with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler for the first of several days of talks on Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

REBUKE TO RUSSIANS

The British Foreign Office, in a sharp rebuke of the Russians, dismissed the Soviet note on the U.S. flights as "purely propagandistic" and said it "totally misrepresents the true position in Laos."

The Soviet note said the United States was "embarking on this dangerous road of an open violation of the Geneva agreements" and "assumes grave responsibility for all consequences following from this."

The Russians also accused the United States of trying to involve the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in "its dangerous plans for Laos."

★ ★ ★

The Soviet Union urged Britain to endorse the note for distribution to the United States and other participants in the 14-nation Geneva conference of 1962 which guaranteed Laotian neutrality. Russia and Britain are cochairmen.

NOT EXPECTED

"They can never have expected us to agree" to distribute the note, the Foreign Office said.

British officials consider the flights justified because the Communist Pathet Lao forces refused to allow inspection of their military strongpoints by the International Control Commission established by the Geneva agreement.

Bus Decision Stirs Leaders

Eye Ways to Keep Service in Pontiac

"It can't happen . . . . but it could."

That was the initial reaction of Monroe M. Osmun, president of the Downtown Pontiac Business Association (DPBA), to news yesterday that Pontiac might be without bus service July 1.

"Bus transportation is as important as sidewalks and streets," Osmun said, speaking more as a downtown merchant than a DPBA official spokesman.

City officials were notified in a letter late Tuesday that Pontiac Transit Corp. didn't intend to renew its annual contract - agreement with the city when the agreement expires June 30.

City Manager John F. Reineck said late yesterday that he had contacted Pontiac Transit manager Glen Crawford in Chicago, where he is attending an American Transit Association convention.

"Mr. Crawford will meet with myself, the city attorney and other city officials at City Hall Monday," Reineck said.

"The meeting is set for 2 p.m.," he noted, "and there's not much else I can say until we've had a chance to sit down and talk this over."

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. was unavailable for comment. He is attending the U.S. Mayors' Conference in New York.

Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce officials were in Lansing at another conference.

Osmun said he thought the former bus transportation committee should be reactivated, or a new one set up, to "find a way to keep bus service in Pontiac.

"I think there will have to be some sort of subsidy paid the bus company. So many people depend on bus transportation to get to work."

The city has paid a $420 per month subsidy to Pontiac Transit since last July, but the company's financial statements still show it is operating in the red.

A man whose life following World War II was devoted to helping other veterans and their families, Oakland County Veterans Affairs Director Floyd E. Cremer died yesterday of a heart attack.

The victim of several such attacks over the past 12 months, Cremer, 49, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital at 4:20 p.m.

The fatal attack occurred while he was sleeping at his home at 1249 Featherstone. He was home resting after suffering a seizure that morning in his office in the County Building at 1 Lafayette.

An Air Force gunner, Cremer was badly wounded in the European Theater.

From then on, helping other veterans and their survivors became his life's work.

Cremer made frequent trips to Washington, D.C. on behalf of veterans where new legislation and changing policies were concerned.

★ ★ ★

It was on one of these trips in 1962 that he became one of the first civilians to meet astronaut Lt. Col. John H. Glenn after his historic orbiting of the earth.

Cost of Living Inches Higher During April

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs inched up one-tenth of 1 per cent in April, the Labor Department reported today.

But the Bureau of Labor Statistics said price increases so far this year were lower than in the previous two years and indicated "a very stable price situation."

★ ★ ★

The April rise took the consumer price index to 107.8 meaning it took $10.78 to purchase items that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period, base years for the index.

Recreation, rent, and medical costs were largely responsible for the April increase. Food prices remained steady on the average.

Medical costs were up three-tenths of 1 per cent from March.

Although food prices were generally unchanged, they were still 1.3 per cent higher than in April a year ago.

Reds Walk Out at U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Top representatives of the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia walked out of the U.N. Security Council again today as South Viet Nam's Ambassador Vu Van Mau urged creation of a U.N. police force to patrol the Vietnamese-Cambodian border.

Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko and Czechoslovak delegate Milos Vejvoda stalked from the chamber as soon as Mau was given the floor by council president, Roger Seydoux of France. They had boycotted a speech by Mau last Monday.

The issue before the council was a Cambodian charge of aggression against the United States and South Viet Nam in connection with border incidents.

Cambodia, with the backing of the Soviet Union, has opposed the idea of a U.N. force to patrol the 600-mile border.

★ ★ ★

Mau told the council that his government wanted an international force much more limited in scope and size than the U.N. forces in the Middle East and the Congo. The function of the proposed group, he said, would be restricted to keeping watch on the border and reporting violations.

Near Million Attend Funeral

the tomb of Mahatma Gandhi-Nehru's mentor and father of Indian independence.

RUSHED FORWARD

As the Jeep-towed gun carriage neared Gandhi's tomb, the huge crowd could no longer contain itself and many rushed forward to get closer to the cremation site.

As the funeral cortege reached the end of the journey, the chief of the pall bearers, the chiefs of the three military services and senior army officers lifted the body from the gun carriage and carried it to the funeral pyre.

Leading the last journey was young Sanjoy — son of Nehru's only daughter, Mrs. Indira Gandhi — his head straight and high, holding his grandfather's feet in an embrace.

★ ★ ★

As the flames shot up from the funeral pyre there was a stampede among the huge throng to get closer to the pyre. Tens of thousands rushed forward, but police with batons formed a barrier to hold them back.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the American delegation — which arrived here from Washington an hour after the funeral procession started — rested briefly at the U. S. Embassy, then returned to the airport and were flown to the site aboard a Soviet-built MI1 helicopter to avoid the crowds.

AVOID CROWDS

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and Lord Mountbatten, last viceroy of India, represented Queen Elizabeth and Britain, the nation which imprisoned Nehru nine times in his long fight for independence.

★ ★ ★

But the irony of this situation seemingly was lost on the sorrowing millions as they wept for the man who had led their country as its first and only prime minister for 17 years, and whose death leaves a gaping hole in the nation's leadership that could provoke division and chaos.

In the swirling throng at the river were thousands of the "untouchables," the low-caste Hindus whose segregation status Nehru had sought to remove by law in the independent India he had headed since 1947.

Pontiac Man Tried to Assist Another

A Jackson Prison trusty from Pontiac drowned yesterday at 1:45 p.m. in Kent Lake when he went to help a fellow convict who suffered a cramp 30 feet from shore.

Dead is Leslie C. Motley, 20, of 291 Lansing.

Sheriff's deputies said Motley and Lloyd Bartholomew, 21, were pushing a picnic table to shore that had been thrown into the lake when a high wind came up.

The pair, assigned to Camp Brighton by the state prison, were then ordered to return to shore by Orman Tyson, foreman of the conservation detail to which they were assigned.

Motley who was serving a 1-to-2 year sentence for unlawful use of a car, swam to shore but Bartholomew developed the cramp and called for help. Motley swam back to aid him.

★ ★ ★

Two nearby fishermen also heard the cry for help and headed their boat toward the two men.

SANK NEAR BOAT

The fishermen, Jack Maki, 30, of Detroit, and Fred Cropi, 20, of Allen Park, managed to bring Bartholomew aboard. Motley sank about 25 feet from their boat as it was headed to his aid.

The body was recovered by sheriff's deputy Medward Tessier at 2:20 p.m. in 20-feet of water, 40 feet from shore.

Service for Motley will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at Voorhees-Siple Funeral Home with burial Elkland Cemetery, Cass City.

of Essex Wire three months ago today to support demands they were making in seeking a first contract at the plant.

The IUE displaced the Teamsters Union as bargaining agent in a National Labor Relations Board election and among its demands was one that Essex meet here wages it pays in Indiana plants.

The company conceded rates $2.43 an hour here were 40 to 60 cents below the Indiana average.

★ ★ ★

In summing up last night's violence, Romney said at Lansing:

"Two felony arrests, two misdemeanor arrests and a juvenile arrest were made. This was at a time when a shot was fired near a large crowd of people near the Essex Wire plant.

250 PEOPLE

"Later a crowd of 250 people could not be dispersed from in front of the jail until the lesser offenders were released on bond.

"State police in the radius of 100 miles, sheriff's officers from four counties and city police were unable to control the crowd.

"Stoning and throwing of eggs, flattening of tires on police vehicles and broken windows in the county jail resulted."

The crowd finally dispersed as midnight approached.

The trouble began about 7 p.m. with the march of demonstrators to the jail from the strike scene at Essex Wire Corp.

The crowd was angered by the arrest of three persons, one of them a striker's wife.

The demonstrators stoned the jail in protest and police began waving their nightsticks to restore order.

After about two hours, the crowd had become generally peaceful.

Mayor C. Aubrey Paul called the City Council into an emergency meeting.

City Attorney Harvey W. Moes said the council decided on "a course of action to be taken in this strike."

Rededication Is Planned for Soldiers' Monument

BIRMINGHAM — Rededication ceremonies for the Old Soldiers' Monument in front of the Municipal Building will highlight Memorial Day observances here.

The monument was moved from Greenwood Cemetery as part of Birmingham's centennial celebration.

It was erected in 1869 by the citizens of Troy, Bloomfield, Royal Oak and Southfield townships to the memory of their soldiers who died during the Civil War.

The veined marble monument stood until the late 1890s where Woodward and Maple now intersect.

★ ★ ★

It now will honor all who have given their lives in the service of their country.

WINDOW SILLS

Added to the base of the monument will be window sills reportedly marked "From the Kennesaw Battlefields of Georgia."

The sills, taken from a house recently demolished to make way for a new store, caught the eye of James K. Flack, centennial history and heritage committee chairman.

Flack still is attempting to learn the story behind the sills, as well as that of pipes marked "Andersonville Prison" taken from the same house.

Taking part in the 15-minute rededication ceremony at 9 a.m. will be members of the American Legion posts from the four townships which originally erected the monument for $1,600.

PARTICIPATING POSTS

They are Southfield Post No. 407, Charles Edwards Post No. 14, David E. Cleary Post No. 167, Frank Wendland Post No. 153, City of Ferndale Post No. 330 and Berkley Post No. 374.

Flack will review the history of the monument and the Franklin Village Band, under direction of Dr. Conrad R. Lam, will perform.

After a wreath is placed on the monument, a three-volley salute will be fired and taps played.

Rev. Howard E. Bull of the Pilgrim Congregational Church will deliver the invocation and Hugh McHugh of 608 Buffner, historian of the Charles Edwards Post, the benediction.

SABOTAGE ATTEMPT—Clarence Schmidt has been collecting parts of vehicles, hydrants, jewelry and false teeth for 44 years. He has been ornamenting his property in Woodstock, N. Y. with them. He became upset when he found two sticks of unexploded dynamite in his wishing well the other night. Schmidt, 66, makes his living by selling parcels of property he owns.

Junkyard Sculptor Alarmed by TNT in Wishing Well

WOODSTOCK, N. Y. (AP) — Dynamite in his wishing well was too much for the junkyard sculptor of the Catskills, whose yard full of house-high objects d'art draws hecklers — and the neighbors' ire.

Clarence Schmidt, 66-year-old patriarch of Ohayo Mountain, says sticks and stones and even rifle bullets crashing into his peculiar house annoy him. But the dynamite really made him angry.

Merrill Folsom of The New York Times reports that Schmidt said:

"I found two sticks of the stuff in there the other night. Had to call in state troopers. They got an army bomb squad to prevent an explosion."

★ ★ ★

Schmidt, who wears his hair shoulder length and has a grizzled beard, began ornamenting his four-level house 44 years ago, when he left the real estate business in New York City. Some weird sculptures are higher than his house.

Asphalt, concrete and paint hold together a conglomeration of parts of automobiles, windmills, planes and submarines, plus 400 mirrors, washing machines, rowboats, outboard motors, fire hydrants, wagons, coffee pots, pans, sleds, marbles, earrings, clocks, saws, hairpins, furnaces, electric fans, eggbeaters, barrels, toys, bicycles, false teeth, shoes and animal skulls.

On top of a flagpole is a brand new garbage can, upside down.

Schmidt said hecklers in this artists' haven also have tried to block his entrance with barbed wire, and have driven cars into his art works.

His neighbors, The Times reported, say his three-acre extravaganza is depreciating property values.

Schmidt's wife, Grace, takes an especially dim view of the sculpture, but his 11-year-old son, Michael, thinks it's great. Schmidt makes a living selling parcels of real estate he has acquired over the years in and around Woodstock.

Dublin School Counselor Is Pioneer in Movement

As Oakland County's lone elementary school counselor, John C. Whaley sits astride a trend.

The 26-year-old former teacher is finishing up his first year as a grade school counselor for the single-school Dublin School District in White Lake Township.

Together, Whaley and Dublin School are pioneers in a national move toward counseling in elementary schools.

The trend has met some opposition. Last week, for instance, the curriculum planning committee of the State Department of Public Instruction, said the work of the elementary school counselor is already performed by other personnel.

★ ★ ★

Whaley, however, sees himself in a supportive role to other school specialists and teachers.

NEED IS THERE

Dublin School Principal W. Dean Gotts says, "The need is there.

"Now we can identify the high school dropout as early as the second or third grade," Gotts explained. "So if we can identify him here (in grade school) why not help him?"

Whaley of 6140 Northrup, Waterford Township, adds that the logic of the early help is recognized.

★ ★ ★

He said that some junior high school counselors will admit that sometimes it is too late to help the problem child at the junior high level.

BASIC ADVANTAGE

Early identification of problems and potential troubles, according to Whaley, is one of the basic advantages of elementary counseling.

For example, he said, he had placed an eighth grade student this year in special education classes for the retarded.

"For eight years," he said, "this youngster had been unable to get along in school. He had been absent and always behind."

★ ★ ★

Whaley said that teachers are not trained to spot the symptoms of these problem children.

MUST SEE STUDENT

Other school specialists, like the visiting teacher and the psychologist, cannot spot the symptoms if they don't see the youngsters, he said.

Counselors, especially elementary school counselors, can spot these problems and refer them to the proper specialists or agencies, he said.

Whaley outlined his new job:

- Information service to individuals and classroom groups.
- Testing of individuals and groups and the interpretating of test results.
- Referral of children to special education rooms, school specialists and other agencies and clinics.
- Counseling of students and teachers.

★ ★ ★

The Dublin School counselor does not deal with students under the traditional one-to-one setup as much as he guides teachers in their workings with particular students.

CLOSE RELATIONSHIP

Gotts and Whaley agreed that the program's success was due to a close working relationship between the counselor and classroom instructor.

They felt this had been achieved by specifically not giving the counselor any administrative duties.

Locally, the idea of elementary counselors is treated warmly.

★ ★ ★

Arnold Embree, Pontiac director of guidance and pupil personnel services, said it was a countrywide trend. He added that the city schools have begun "talking about it."

SEVERAL YEARS AGO

"You know several years ago we started counseling in the secondary schools," Embree says, "and probably we should have started in the elementary schools."

Support for the idea of grade school counselors also comes from Dr. William F. Moorhouse, Oakland Schools guidance director.

Dr. Moorhouse said the elementary counselor, as the job is now defined, is seen spending most of his day with teachers and parents.

★ ★ ★

The county director added that it should be remembered that the teacher, who is close to the child throughout the day, is an essential member of the guidance team.

On Primary, Ballot

Await Romney Action

LANSING (AP) — Three quick moves today could clear the board in the legislative fight over Michigan's 1964 elections, but Democratic leaders say the next move must come from Gov. George W. Romney.

The Democrats said Wednesday they were willing to give immediate effect to a bill intended to push back the state's primary election from Aug. 4 to Sept. 1, but only after Romney acts on the so - called "Massachusetts ballot" bill.

★ ★ ★

Leaders in both houses and both parties predicted a possible quick finish to the legislature's work for the year if the matter is cleared up today.

As the Democrats waited, the routine processing and printing of the ballot bill was stepped up to ensure its presentation to Romney today for his signature or veto.

DEMS COULD INSIST

House Minority Leader Joseph Kowalski, D - Detroit, said his party could insist that Romney act immediately on the ballot bill. He said this meant today.

If this happened, said Kowalski, "the Democrats would be inclined to go along" with immediate effect on the primary bill.

He stressed, however, the question still would have to be presented to a House caucus.

★ ★ ★

House Speaker Allison Green said Kowalski had given him no firm commitment on immediate effect for the primary bill, but "he said he saw no reason why, if this is settled, we couldn't be out of here by tonight."

Democrats object to the Massachusetts ballot because it eliminates the straight - party ticket. It lists candidates by office rather than by party.

FILE PETITIONS

Under the constitution, they have 90 days from the legislature's adjournment in which to circulate and file petitions to put the issue before the voters on the November ballot — preventing its use in the 1964 general election.

At the other end of the see-saw, the primary bill appeared to set elections on Aug. 4 and Sept. 1, since it could not, in the normal legislative process, take effect until about three weeks after the presently scheduled August primary.

★ ★ ★

Immediate effect requires a two - thirds majority in both houses and therefore some Democratic votes along with those of the Republican majority would make the bill into law early enough to wipe out the first primary date.

The Senate recalled the primary bill, which it passed Friday, along with a Congressional redistricting bill, from the House late Wednesday.

JOIN REPUBLICANS

Four Democrats reportedly had agreed to join 20 Republicans in approving immediate effect.

They were Sens. Charles Youngblood and Basil Brown of Detroit, Charles McManniman, Houghton, and Philip Rahoi, Iron Mountain.

★ ★ ★

They were convinced in a Democratic caucus, however, to withhold their support until Democrats got action on the ballot bill.

Once the primary and ballot bills are cleared, said Kowalski, "it is possible the legislature could clean up the rest of its work in about four hours."

OTHER ISSUES

Other issues still remaining on the legislative calendar include a school aid bill, which would raise state aid per pupil from $224 to $234 with an increase in the deductible millage factor from 3⅞ to 4¼ mills.

India Politician Refused Service in Dixie Cafeteria

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A member of India's parliament said he was turned away Wednesday from a chain-operated cafeteria with the white president of a predominantly Negro college.

Dr. Ram Lohia, leader of India's splinter Socialist party, said he would return today to the cafeteria (Morrison's).

"I expect to be treated like an American," Lohia said.

The Indian arrived here Wednesday to visit Tougaloo Southern College, a center of civil rights activities in Mississippi.

Dr. A. D. Beitell, president of Tougaloo, met Lohia at the airport and they stopped to eat at the cafeteria.

"I make it perfectly clear I'm not trying to uncover something foul in American life," Lohia told a newsman. "Such foul spots exist everywhere—also in India."

Girl's Remains Found in Ohio

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The skeletal remains of two Akron area youngsters who disappeared within a three-day period nearly a year ago have been found in isolated areas near here, the apparent victims of strangulation.

The latest grisly find was the remains of 12-year-old Ruth Guthrie of Tallmadge, Ohio, her hands bound together, found yesterday on a farm in Portage County.

The skeletal remains of Thomas J. Sumerix, 15, of Akron were found May 2 about four miles north of Massillon, Ohio.

The Guthrie girl vanished June 2 after attending a fair in Tallmadge. The boy was last seen June 5, in a shopping center about 10 miles from where the remains were found.

★ ★ ★

A third Akron area youth, Joseph Kulesza, 17, also disappeared last June 12, and no trace has been found of him.

'Lawfords Find NY Residence'

NEW YORK (AP) — The Peter Lawfords, blackballed from the Manhattan apartment they first wanted to buy, finally have found a suitable dwelling here, according to a published report.

Earl Wilson, whose column appears in The Pontiac Press, said that the Lawfords "have found 'and have accepted' for . . . a 14-room duplex on upper Fifth Avenue where there are no barriers against actors and Democrats."

Asked about the report, a spokesman at the Kennedy family office here said today that the transaction had not been settled, but declined further comment.

Mrs. Lawford is the former Pat Kennedy, sister of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Early last month they sought to buy an apartment in a plush 15-story cooperative apartment building at 117 East 72nd St., just off Park Avenue.

PAPERS SIGNED

Socialite Charles Amory, who was selling the apartment, said the arrangements had been completed and the papers signed.

"However, certain individuals in the building have refused to endorse the sale because Peter Lawford is an actor and Mrs. Lawford is a Democrat," Amory said.

Another tenant there said that one of the five-member board of directors turned down the Lawfords. The board's unanimous approval was required for the sale.

Land Magnate Reaches Crisis

Firm's Stock Trading Briefly Suspended

NEW YORK (AP)—The latest crisis in real estate whiz William Zeckendorf's financial affairs led to a brief suspension of trading in the shares of Webb & Knapp Inc. on the American Stock Exchange Wednesday.

Zeckendorf, 58, is chairman of Webb & Knapp. He was so short of cash for his flamboyant and complex operations that he was unable this week to raise $431,000 for payment due a sinking fund, he acknowledged.

★ ★ ★

The payment was basic to the financial structure of Webb & Knapp. It was a periodic payment required under an arrangement by which $8 million was borrowed several years ago.

The payment was due last Monday to a trustee, the Marine Midland Trust Co. of New York.

MISS PAYMENT

Zeckendorf, acknowledging the default, said Webb & Knapp also would have to miss a payment of $120,000 interest due next Monday. But he said holders of the sinking fund debentures would be offered a plan whereby interest would be paid and the money due earlier this week would be deferred for three years.

Trading in Webb & Knapp shares was permitted to open just before noon Wednesday.

The debentures opened at a price of $440 for a face value of $1,000. This was down $20 from the closing price of Tuesday. The price had dropped to $400 by the end of trading Wednesday. The year's high for the debentures, which bear interest of 5 per cent, was $670.

★ ★ ★

The debentures are bonds issued by Webb & Knapp 10 years ago to holders of stock in the old Equitable Life Building at 120 Broadway, which the real estate firm acquired. Some of the debentures are retired each year under the terms of the issue.

The deal that had been scheduled for next Monday was that 431 of the debentures were to have been bought back at face value, $1,000 each, with money from the sinking fund. The serial numbers of the bonds to be redeemed were chosen by lot.

HARD TO SELL

Because of the default, the owners of these 431 bonds now will probably have difficulty selling them, even at the depreciated market value of the rest of the issue.

The sinking fund crisis is one of several setbacks suffered in recent weeks by Zeckendorf, who gained international attention after World War II when he put together the real estate deal for construction of the United Nations headquarters.

To Rest of Economy

MAKE OVER PAGES

Expansion Is Booster

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

DAWSON

NEW YORK — The rise in spending for business expansion is credited with giving the economy one of its strongest boosts this year But is such capital investment a boom?

Compared to the lag since 1958 it is. The Department of Commerce cites it as helping make the over - all economic gains since April 1 look solid in spite of the lagging response of consumers to the federal income tax cut.

★ ★ ★

The investment fraternity thinks the current increase in business spending is still far from what it should be, if compared to past performance or to the greater growth of the total output of goods and services—gross national product.

Some bankers fear the present rise in business spending, important as it is, may be exaggerated. The statisticians like to talk of percentages rather than dollar volume. This year's increased spending will still be well below postwar peaks as a percentage of the gross national product.

LAG IN PROFITS

The reason for the lag, say economists at Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, lies in profits. These, too, have risen to a record in dollar volume. But the bankers compared them to sales and to the GNP.

After-tax profits this year are expected to rise to 3.3 per cent of corporate sales. But in the years immediately after the war they averaged 4.9 per cent. After-tax profits this year may rise to 5 per cent of the gross national product. In the early postwar period they averaged 7.3 per cent.

When such profit percentages are high, business spends freely for new plant and equipment. When they shrink, so does the urge to expand.

Others point out another factor tending to act as a governor on business spending plans. This is the percentage of production to facilities. As sales have risen in recent months, excess capacity has been shrinking. As the plants now building or projected go into operation the ratio of production to capacity seems likely to drop again.

SPENDING TRENDS

Still another survey of business spending trends, by the National Industrial Conference Board, shows that in the first months of this year leading manufacturing concerns appropriated less money for capital investments than they had early in 1963.

In spite of all the reservations the dollar volume of business spending this year is widely welcomed. It is expected to rise to $44 billion in 1964, against $39.2 billion last year.

Intruder on Romney Committed

LANSING (AP) — The stranger who entered the inner office of Gov. George W. Romney on May 1 with a loaded revolver in his briefcase, a knife in his pocket and a tape recording device strapped to his chest has been judged mentally ill.

Ingham County Probate Court Judge James Kallman ruled following a two-day sanity hearing Wednesday that he had no choice but to order the commitment of Charles P. English, 38, formerly of Miami, Fla.

★ ★ ★

Kallman said his decision was made after testimony by two psychiatrists who said English showed signs of paranoid schizophrenia and suffered from delusions, and after observing his actions in court.

English was ordered committed to the Kalamazoo State Hospital.

NOTE TO ATTORNEY

After the hearing, English handed his court-appointed attorney, Jack Warren, a note in which he said he was an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Warren said the note included a claim by English that he had a "secret number."

Thomas Skehan, chief assistant prosecutor, said the CIA was still searching its files. Skehan discounted the claim.

"English previously claimed to be a member of the FBI," said Skehan. "He also claimed to have a millionaire wife. He also said he was sent to visit Romney by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. We discount this claim as much as we did the others."

Skehan said that the Probate Court had received a financial statement from English's wife in Bogota, Columbia, that she did not have enough money to make a trip to hire an attorney to represent him.

REPRESENTS SELF

Although he had a court-appointed attorney, English insisted on representing himself and cross-examining witnesses.

U. S. to Check Officials Closer

Defense Department Wants Interview Log

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's information chief has issued a new order designed to give him greater knowledge about which defense officials are talking with reporters and what they are talking about.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester told a reporter today his order is not designed to tighten control or to inhibit conversations between newsmen and military and cilian officials.

He called it "one way of keeping up" with what is of interest to newsmen and as an aid in "showing what fields should be exploited more." Sylvester said one of his jobs is to stimulate ideas.

Nonetheless, reporters have found that past orders of a similar nature have tended to make many news sources cautious and reluctant to talk freely.

WEEKLY REPORTS

The new Sylvester order, dated May 18, calls for weekly reports to his office "on interviews granted by departmental personnel at the seat of government"—including the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The reports, to be submitted by the chiefs of information of the three services, list the dates of inteviews, the name of the interviewer and his affiliation, the person interviewed, the subject discussed and a notation as to whether an information officer was present.

★ ★ ★

The stated purpose: "To keep the secretary of defense properly informed as to whether there is a broad and continuous flow of information from the Department of Defense to the public, particularly through media representatives."

Sylvester acknowledged his new order is intended to remind defense officials of an earlier memorandum issued at the height of the Cuban missile crisis on Oct. 27, 1962.

NEWS CONTROL

That memorandum — which generated charges of news control—apparently has fallen into disuse.

It required that "the substance of each interview and telephone conversation with a media representative be reported to the appropriate public information office before the close of business that day."

Such a report was not required if a public information representative was present monitoring the interview.

Business Notes

J. F. Bachman, 32323 Lahser, Bloomfield Township, has retired as manager of Ford Motor Co.'s industrial engine department.

Bachman had been manager of the department since it was established in 1947.

Thomas B. Case of Dearborn, formerly car and truck special order manager in the Ford Division, will succeed Bachman.

Successful Investing

BY ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "My husband must retire next spring. He will get $500 a month pension on his present income of over $10,000. I earn almost $6,000 and would get only $150 a month if I retired. Since we are used to such a large income, do you advise me to retire or keep working?" J.C.

I am occasionally asked this sort of question by my clients and my answer is this. If your husband will not be lonely in retirement and will not feel relegated to a second-class position as part housekeeper, I would say go on working while you feel able to do so.

A drop in current income from $16,000 to $7,800 is hard to adjust to, but you will ultimately have to accept this. Try gradually to alter your standard of living so that the transition will not be so difficult when it must be made.

Q) "I am one of the unfortunate stockholders of Penick & Ford and at present have more than a 7-point loss. I am most interested in hearing from you as to the possible prospects for the company in the years ahead." W. D.

A) Penick & Ford is a high-grade company and one of the biggest corn processors, but its earnings vary on the cost of its raw material. After resting on a plateau for several years, net per share dropped last year and was down very slightly in the past quarter. The stock sells to yield 4.6 per cent. Since corn prices remain high, I see little prospect of turnaround in Penick.

In the corn group I like only Corn Products, which does half its business in consumer foods.

If capital enhancement is your objective, I believe you should switch to General Telephone.

LBJ Working on Rights Bill?

Said Lining Up Votes to Muzzle Filibuster

WASHINGTON (UI) — President Johnson was reported working quietly behind the scenes today to line up the necessary Senate votes to muzzle the civil rights filibuster.

The efforts of the President, a former Senate Democratic leader, have not been easy to detect.

Republicans, notably Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., have suggested that the President take a firmer hand in lining up support for the bill.

Opponents of the bill said, however, that Johnson was maneuvering to get the 67 votes which could be needed to impose cloture and cut off debate.

★ ★ ★

"With only a few doubtful senators in each party," one opponent said, "there aren't many people to contact and not much evidence to be seen, but he's hard at it just the same.

"You just don't have the same opportunity to become aware of it."

★ ★ ★

With a holiday lull in prospect in the 65-day civil rights debate no firm date has been set for the cloture test. Sen. Mike Mansfield D - Mont., said Wednesday he hoped for a showdown on June 10.
